

Discontinuance of KODAK SFX 200T Color Negative Film

With the introduction of the new KODAK VISION2 200T Color Negative Film 5217, KODAK SFX 200T Color Negative Film has been discontinued. Any remaining stocks will be sold until inventories are depleted.

The new 5217 film is highly versatile, offering excellent image structure under a wide variety of lighting conditions. And now VISION2 200T Film also enables you to shoot all scenes for digital compositing on the same stock. Giving you pristine edges and making VFX easier and more seamless than ever.

See the enclosed Kodak News entitled "Introducing KODAK VISION2 200T Color Negative Film 5217 / 7217" for more details.

The following listings are discontinued and will be removed from the next update of the KODAK Motion Picture Film Price Catalog.
