

Ready-Pack Oncology Film – Same great product, new improved packaging!

As part of Kodak's commitment to customer satisfaction and always providing the highest quality imaging products for oncology, KODAK Ready-Pack film packaging has been redesigned for easier handling and better film protection.

- The Ready-Pack box is now a hinged box – the film lays flat inside and is easy to access
- Ready-Pack envelopes have a new easy-to-read label, a new tear-off strip and paper inserts protecting each film

Following are the specific products being affected:

Catalog No.	Description
