AIChE Symposium Series

Recent Studies

S-198. Fundamentals and Applications of Solar Energy. This volume covers a wide range of fundamental and applied research including collector technology, thermal storage, solar cooling, electrical power generation, photovoltaic systems, fuel and chemicals production, biomass utilization, and solar heat pumping systems.

1980. 172 pp. AIChE members $15; nonmembers $30.

S-200. New Process Alternatives in the Forest Products Industry. The papers contained in this volume cover many facets of chemical engineering applications to the Forest Products Industries, ranging from fundamental transport phenomena studies to the development and application of new technologies on a commercial scale.

1980. 225 pp. AIChE members $12.50; nonmembers $25.

New Prepayment Policy: Effective January 1, 1981.

Check or money order must accompany all U.S. orders for less than 10 books. We will honor bill-and-ship invoices and purchase orders on U.S. orders for 10 or more books only.
