
presenting a National Conference, "Case Mix Management—Another Challenge for the Nursing Administrator," co-sponsored by the Council on Nursing Services in Hospitals and Related Facilities and the National Forum for Administrators of Nursing Services, National League for Nursing. The conference will be held April 28-29, 1983, in Seattle, Washington, and will focus on concepts of case mix; identifying case mix groups that are nursing intensive; applying case mix management to nursing practice and budgeting; developing strategies to enhance nurse-physician-client relationships; and analyzing the impact of case mix reimbursement on hospital planning and management.

For further information, contact: Division of Continuing Education Services, National League for Nursing, Ten Columbus Circle, New York, New York 10019.

LINNEA HENDERSON LECTURE SERIES

"Politics in Nursing," third in the Quest for Knowledge in Nursing: The Linnea Henderson Lecture Series, co-sponsored by the Kent State University School of Nursing and Sigma Theta Tau, Delta Xi Chapter, will be held on Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22, 1983, at the Kent State University. A keynote address on "The Image of Nursing" by Drs. Beatrice and Phillip Kalisch will be presented on Thursday, April 21, 1983. A portion of the cost of this program is being underwritten by the Kent State University School of Nursing. For further information, contact: Patricia Estok, RN, PhD, Chairperson, Planning Committee, The Linnea Henderson Lecture Series, Kent State University, School of Nursing, Kent, Ohio, 44242, (216) 672-7930.

30TH ANNUAL CONGRESS OF AORN

The Association of Operating Room Nurses (AORN) will hold its 30th Annual Congress from April 10-15, 1983, at the Houston Astrodome, Houston, Texas. The theme of the meeting is "Pacesetters in Professional Practice." Speakers from the nursing, medical, legal, and business professions will participate in more than 60 educational sessions. Continuing education units are available. More than 300 companies will exhibit operating room supplies and equipment. For further information, contact: Dora B. D'Amico, Operating Room Nurses, Inc, 10170 East Mississippi Avenue, Denver, Colorado, 80231, (303) 755-6300.