
Notices

Please address all material to be considered for publication in Notices to: Editor, Notices, ANS, Aspen Systems Corporation, 1600 Research Boulevard, Rockville, MD 20850. Notices must be received at least 6 months prior to the publication date of the issue in order to be considered for publication.

FIRST NATIONAL ROGERIAN CONFERENCE

The First National Rogerian Conference is sponsored by the New York University. The conference is scheduled for Friday, June 24, 1983, through Sunday, June 26, 1983. Discussion will include: philosophical critique of Rogers' framework, methodological issues of measuring the whole, research generated by the Rogerian framework, and reports on the use of the Rogerian framework for nursing school curricula. For further information and registration forms, write to: First National Rogerian Conference Planning Committee, New York University, Division of Nursing, 429 Shimkin Hall, New York, New York 10003.

REGAN SEMINAR ON FUNDAMENTAL OF NURSING LAW

The Regan Seminar on Fundamental of Nursing Law is co-sponsored by the Continuing Nurse Education Association, and the State University of New York at Buffalo, the Medical Personnel Pool, and the New York State Nurses Association, District 1. The seminar is scheduled for April 12, 1983, at the Executive Inn, Buffalo, New York. The keynote speaker will be William Andrew Regan, JD. For further information, contact: Continuing Nurses Association, Marietta P. Stanton, RN, PhD, Program Director, State University of New York at Buffalo, Hayes Annex D, 3435 Main Street, Buffalo, New York 14214, (716) 831-3291.

SECOND NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON NURSING ADMINISTRATION RESEARCH

Gamma Omega Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau and the Graduate Program in Nursing Administration at the Medical College of Virginia are sponsoring the Second National Conference on Nursing Administration Research, April 7 and 8, 1983, in Richmond. Two full days of research presentations will focus on personnel, economic issues, clinical issues, organizational issues, and continuing education in nursing administration. For further information contact: Barbara Mark, RN, PhD, Program Director, School of Nursing, Box 567 MCV Station, Richmond, Virginia 23298, (804) 786-0728.

ANNUAL STEWART CONFERENCE ON RESEARCH IN NURSING

The 20th Annual Stewart Conference on Research in Nursing, sponsored by Teachers College, Columbia University, Nursing Education Alumni Association, is entitled "Nursing's Image: Evolution and Revolution." The keynote speaker will be Dr. Muriel Poulin. The conference will be held on April 15, 1983. Fee: $40; graduate and undergraduate students with student IDs, $10 (conference only); Teachers College students, free; cocktail party only, $10. For further information, contact: Nursing Education Alumni Association, Box 150, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, New York 10027.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CASE MIX MANAGEMENT

The Graduate Program, Nursing Administration at the University of Washington is presenting a National Conference, "Case Mix Management—Another Challenge for the Nursing Administrator," co-sponsored by the Council on Nursing Services in Hospitals and Related Facilities and the National Forum for Administrators of Nursing Services, National League for Nursing. The conference will be held April 28-29, 1983, in Seattle, Washington, and will focus on concepts of case mix; identifying case mix groups that are nursing intensive; applying case mix management to nursing practice and budgeting; developing strategies to enhance nurse-physician-client relationships; and analyzing the impact of case mix reimbursement on hospital planning and management.

For further information, contact: Division of Continuing Education Services, National League for Nursing, Ten Columbus Circle, New York, New York 10019.

LINNEA HENDERSON LECTURE SERIES

"Politics in Nursing," third in the Quest for Knowledge in Nursing: The Linnea Henderson Lecture Series, co-sponsored by the Kent State University School of Nursing and Sigma Theta Tau, Delta Xi Chapter, will be held on Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22, 1983, at the Kent State University. A keynote address on "The Image of Nursing" by Drs. Beatrice and Phillip Kalisch will be presented on Thursday, April 21, 1983. A portion of the cost of this program is being underwritten by the Kent State University School of Nursing. For further information, contact: Patricia Estok, RN, PhD, Chairperson, Planning Committee, The Linnea Henderson Lecture Series, Kent State University, School of Nursing, Kent, Ohio, 44242, (216) 672-7930.

30TH ANNUAL CONGRESS OF AORN

The Association of Operating Room Nurses (AORN) will hold its 30th Annual Congress from April 10-15, 1983, at the Houston Astrohall, Houston, Texas. The theme of the meeting is "Pacesetters in Professional Practice." Speakers from the nursing, medical, legal, and business professions will participate in more than 60 educational sessions. Continuing education units are available. More than 300 companies will exhibit operating room supplies and equipment. For further information, contact: Dora B. D'Amico, Operating Room Nurses, Inc, 10170 East Mississippi Avenue, Denver, Colorado, 80231, (303) 755-6300.