
NURSING RESEARCH

The Johns Hopkins Hospital, Department of Nursing, will present a program entitled "Nursing Research: Key to Improving Nursing Practice" on Monday, October 3, 1983. Selected papers related to nursing research will be presented. For additional information, contact Susan Bavaro, Program Coordinator, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Turner Auditorium, 720 Rutland Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21205, 301/955-6046.

CONTINUING EDUCATION IN NURSING WORKSHOPS

The New York University has announced several workshops to be held during November and December. Included are: Pain Control for the Terminally Ill Cancer Patient, Hope Replaces Fear for the Dying, Therapeutic Touch and Imagery, and Wholistic Approach to Childbearing and the Birthing Process. For further information on any of these workshops, contact Patricia Hurley, Assistant Professor and Director, Center for Continuing Education in Nursing, New York University, 429 Shimkin Hall, Washington Square, New York, New York 10003, 212/598-3921.

CANCER, DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT

Roswell Park Memorial Institute, Buffalo, New York, is conducting monthly continuing education programs in oncology for community practitioners to disseminate information on the newest methods in diagnosis and treatment of cancer. The seminars are cosponsored by the Cancer Program of the Institute and the New York State Division and Erie County

Unit of the American Cancer Society. Each monthly seminar is organized by a different department of the Institute and covers a different clinical speciality. Scheduled to be discussed are Metastasis, Molecular Events in Differentiation and Neoplasia, and Update in Neurological Oncology. For further information, contact Gayle Bersani, RN, Cancer Control Coordinator, Roswell Park Memorial Institute, 666 Elm Street, Buffalo, New York 14263, 716/845-4406.

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The University of Kansas, Kansas City, has announced its fall schedule of courses. Included are: Recent Advances in Management of Insulin-Dependent Diabetes and Diabetes in Pregnancy; Management of Low Back Pain; Birth Defects; Medicine and Religion: Superstition, Tradition, and Ignorance; Emergency/Critical Care Nursing; and Nursing Administration. For further information, contact Jan Johnston, Office of Continuing Education, University of Kansas Medical Center, Rainbow at Olathe Blvd., Kansas City, Kansas 66103, 913/588-4493.

CARDIOVASCULAR SURGERY PROGRAM

Northwestern Memorial Hospital in Chicago has announced a one-day program entitled "Second Annual Current Perspectives of Cardiovascular Surgery: Implications for Patient Care." The program will be held on January 31, 1984. The cost is $35.00. Continuing education credits will be available. For further information, contact Eleanor Gilmore, Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Nursing Staff Education, 215 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611.