
Notices

Please address all material to be considered for publication in Notices to: Editor, Notices, ANS, Aspen Systems Corporation, 1600 Research Boulevard, Rockville, MD 20850. Notices must be received at least 6 months prior to the publication date of the issue in order to be considered for publication.

CONTINUING EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY

"Spinal Cord Injury: State of the Art" will be the focus of a continuing education program sponsored by the Midwest Regional Spinal Cord Injury Care System, Northwestern Memorial Hospital and Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago. The program will be offered on May 8, 1984, at the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago. The fee is $50. Contact hours have been applied for. For additional information contact Continuing Education, (312) 649-6180.

SUMMER INSTITUTE ON WOMEN, HEALTH, AND HEALING

The faculty of the Women, Health, and Healing Project at the University of California, San Francisco, will hold the first annual Summer Institute for instructors in social and behavioral sciences, nursing, and public health from July 8 through July 21, 1984, in Berkeley, California. The institute will bring together specialists in a variety of disciplines related to women's health who will work with participants on issues raised in teaching courses in this area. The program will be multidisciplinary with an emphasis on social and behavioral aspects, and will include a look at women's health over the life cycle, roles as health care providers, women and work, cross-cultural and historical themes, and implications for policy around women's health. The deadline for receipt of applications is April 15, 1984. For further information on the institute contact Patricia Anderson, Project Coordinator,

Women, Health, and Healing Project, Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences, School of Nursing, University of California at San Francisco, San Francisco, CA 94143.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The State University of New York, University at Buffalo, School of Nursing is calling for abstracts of research in the area of clinical practice applications of nursing theory for possible presentation at its third annual research conference. The conference "Clinical Applications of Nursing Theory: Developing a Professional Knowledge Base Through Research" will be held on May 3, 1985, at the Sheraton Inn-Buffalo East in Buffalo, New York.

Abstracts should be typed, double-spaced and be approximately 400 to 800 words in length. A curriculum vitae should accompany the abstract, which should be submitted prior to September 3, 1984. Abstracts will be reviewed and notification of selected presenters will be made by October 3, 1984. For evaluation criteria and other information write Marietta P. Stanton, RN, PhD, Assistant Professor and Director, Continuing Nurse Education, The University at Buffalo, State University of New York, Hayes Annex D, 3435 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14214.

CONTINUING EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

The University at Buffalo, State University of New York will offer a variety of continuing education programs during the spring semester of 1984. All programs have been approved for CEUs. Programs offered include the following: "The Dynamics of Nursing Management: Becoming a Leader," on April 6; "Research in Nursing Education: Mobilizing Education for the Future," on May 4; "Nurses' Role in the Psychosocial Aspects of