

Angewandte Anniversary Symposium

125 JAHRE GDCh

The speakers and moderators: Back row (left to right): Christof Niemeyer, George M. Whitesides, Wolfram Koch, Neville Compton, Walter Thiel, Eva E. Wille, Roland Fischer, E. W. "Bert" Meijer, Robert Schlögl, Martin Suhm, Barbara Albert; middle row: Claus Feldmann, Brigitte Voit, Jean-Marie Lehn, Andreas Kreimeyer, Haymo Ross, Susumu Kitagawa, Alois Fürstner, Carolyn R. Bertozzi; front row: Roald Hoffmann, François Diederich, Peter Göllitz, Ahmed Zewail. Left panel, top to bottom: Peter-André Alt, Helmut Schwarz, Frank Schirrmacher, Herbert Waldmann, and Stefan Buchholz. Individual pictures of some of the speakers in action are given in the collage. If you want to see the speakers in action go to www.chemistryviews.org/angewandte-chemie125

Carolyn R. Bertozzi in deep discussion with Dieter Seebach.

Joachim Sauer, Gerhard Ertl, and Helmut Schwarz taking advantage of a break in proceedings.

Packed foyer of the Henry Ford Building at the Freie Universität, Berlin.

Rainer Haag, who together with his team ensured everything ran smoothly at the venue.

Eva E. Wille (center) receiving the Carl Duisberg Plaque from Wolfram Koch and Barbara Albert.