

A Journal of the Gesellschaft Deutscher Chemiker

Angewandte Chemie

GDCh

International Edition

www.angewandte.org

2015–54/49

Haute couture ...

... supramolecular modification of polymeric filtration membranes allows the stable yet reversible immobilization of tailor-made biocatalysts on the membrane surface. The chemical strategy described in the Communication by P. Shahgaldian et al. on page 14800 is based on multiple-point interactions between the membrane surface on which cyclodextrins have been immobilized and a soluble enzyme–polymer conjugate containing adamantane units.

WILEY-VCH