

A Journal of the Gesellschaft Deutscher Chemiker

Angewandte Chemie

GDCh

International Edition

www.angewandte.org

2016–55/18

The first catalytic annulation ...

... between two structurally different diazo compounds is described by M. P. Doyle and co-workers in their Communication on page 5573 ff. To a solution of one commercially available dirhodium catalyst, two easily accessible diazocarbonyl compounds (represented by fallen leaves) were added that underwent dinitrogen extrusion (bubbles) and further transformation to furnish three natural-product-related ring systems (the fish).

WILEY-VCH