Instructions to Authors

Submission of a paper to an Elsevier Virology Journal implies that it has not previously been published (except in abstract form) and that it is not being submitted for publication elsewhere. The authors are requested to transfer their copyright to the Publisher, to ensure the widest possible dissemination of information.

Papers and original figures should be submitted together with two copies accompanied by a letter of transmittal to (one of) the Editor(s) in Chief.

Submission of Manuscripts The preferred medium of final submission to the accepting Editor is on disk with the accompanying reviewed and revised manuscript (see 'Electronic manuscripts' below).

Manuscripts, in English, should be typed on one side of the paper only with double spacing and wide margins, and should have a separate title page bearing author(s) names and affiliations as well as an address for correspondence, and a telephone number for immediate enquiry.

Full-length papers (Research Articles) should generally not exceed 25 typewritten pages and should be divided into Summary (on a separate sheet and not exceeding 200 words, followed by 3-6 key words), Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, and Discussion.

Short communications typically should not exceed 1500 words or equivalent space including figures and tables and should not be divided into sections, i.e., Introduction, Materials and Methods, etc., but should have a brief Summary, 3-6 key words and a full reference list. These must be brief definitive reports, not preliminary findings.

Review articles will be published following invitation from the Editor-in-Chief.

Electronic manuscripts: Electronic manuscripts have the advantage that there is no need for the rekeying of text, thereby avoiding the possibility of introducing errors and resulting in reliable and fast delivery of proofs.

The preferred storage medium is a 5.25 or 3.5 inch disk in MS-DOS format, although other systems are welcome, e.g., Macintosh (in this case, save your file in the usual manner, do not use the option 'save in MS-DOS format'). After final acceptance, your disk plus one final, printed and exactly matching version (as a printout) should be submitted together to the accepting editor. It is important that the file on disk and the printout are identical. Please specify the type of computer and word-processing package used (do not convert your textfile to plain ASCII). Ensure that the letter 'l' and digit '1' (also letter 'O' and digit '0') have been used properly, and format your article (tabs, indents, etc.) consistently. Characters not available on your word processor (Greek letters,
