PROCESS POSSIBILITIES FOR PLANT AND ANIMAL CELL CULTURES

A symposium jointly organized by the University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology (UMIST) and the Institution of Chemical Engineers (I CHEM E) North Western branch. March 25–26, 1986 at Manchester UK. Details available from Dr. C. Webb., Department of Chemical Engineering, UMIST, PO Box 88, Sackville Street, Manchester, M60 1QD, UK.

EUCHEM CONFERENCE ON “INDUSTRIAL APPLICATIONS OF IMMOBILIZED BIOCATALYSTS AND HETEROGENIZED METALLIC COMPLEXES”

Jaca, Spain, September 7–12, 1986: Lectures and discussions will be devoted to analogies and differences between the two facets of heterogeneization and to detect research areas of major common interest. Emphasis will be placed on the present and future state of industrial applications of these catalysts. Information can be obtained from: Prof. J. Blanco, Instituto de Catálisis y Petroleoquímica del C.S.I.C., c/Serrano 119, 28006 Madrid, Spain.

INVITATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

International Interest Group for Biorecognition Technology

An International Society is being established to support both regional and international scientific exchange in the general area of biorecognition, the application of biorecognition concepts and methods, including affinity methods in biology and biotechnology. The interest group will provide a structural continuity and assist in the organization, scheduling support and promotion of scientific meetings, and assist in publications relevant to the general area of biorecognition technology.

The interest group will be affiliated with the International Union of Biochemists (IUB).

If you wish to participate in scientific exchange in this exciting and growing area, we invite you to join as a Charter Member. Please complete the attached form and send in with your membership fee to:
