

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Fifth Meeting of the Federation of European Biochemical Societies will be organized by the Czechoslovak Society and the Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences from July 15 to 20, 1968, in Prague, Czechoslovakia. The following topics will be discussed in eight symposia: (1) Relation of enzyme structure and activity; (2) Isoenzymes, their properties, structure and function; (3) Gamma globulin, its structure and function; (4) Metabolism of peptide hormones as a factor in hormonal regulation; (5) The application of antimetabolites in biochemical investigations; (6) Connective tissue proteins; (7) Mitochondria -- structure and function; (8) The hydroxylation of drugs and chemical action of metabolic products in the organism.

Afternoon sessions will be reserved for free communications. Further information can be obtained from the Secretariat of the Fifth Meeting of the Federation of European Biochemical Societies, Prague 1, nam. Rudcarmejd 1, Czechoslovak; cable FEBS Prague.