In "Aminoacyl Transfer from Adenylate Anhydride to the 2'OH Groups Along the Backbone of Polyribonucleotides", by William E. White, Jr., James C. Lacey, Jr. and Arthur L. Weber, pp. 283-291:

Volume 52, Number 4, July 19, 1973

In "Labeling of the Active Site of Glutamate Dehydrogenase with a Photogenerated Species" by William E. White, Jr., and K. Lemone Yielding, pp. 1129-1133:

Page 1132, Fig. 1: The labeling of the groups from top to bottom should be a,b,c,d instead of d,c,b,a.

Volume 54, Number 4, October 15, 1973

In "Utilization of C<sub>20</sub> -polyunsaturated Fatty Acids by a Yeast Fatty Acid Desaturase Mutant," by M. A. Williams, D. W. Taylor, J. Tinoco, M. A. Ojakian and A. D. Keith, pp. 1560-1566

Page 1564: The corrected lines 1 and 2 should read: "with the results of Wisniewski and Kiyomoto (1) who reported good growth with these two fatty acids, as well as arachidonate, for cells grown on 2% glucose medium."
