A Survey of Bioorganic Chemistry

In order to mark the United States Bicentennial Year and also the Fifth Anniversary of Bioorganic Chemistry: An International Journal, the Editor is planning for September 1976, a special number, "A Survey of Bioorganic Chemistry," consisting of appropriate reviews written by experts about their fields of interest, including their own scientific contributions thereto. The Journal welcomes such manuscripts, which should be received in the Editor's office no later than April 15, 1976. Preliminary inquiries and completed articles, prepared in accordance with "Information for Authors" should be sent to the Editor at the address listed below.
