The Royal Society of Chemistry ... Publishing the Journals You Need

Electronic Information for all Chemists

ChemComm

ChemComm goes Electronic from 1997

ChemComm will be available via the internet on subscription from 1 January 1997. It will be accessible through the CatchWord System, which allows access to data either via the contents pages, or by searching for key words within issues (every word in a paper is searchable). Papers can be displayed, printed and saved to disk for future reference.

A number of issues of ChemComm are now available for you to test free of charge. To find out more about this new service and how to access the test data, please contact:
