

EDITORIAL

Starting in 1986 Drug Development and Industrial Pharmacy will offer an expansion of its services to readers. We will publish a total of fourteen issues a year. Twelve will be devoted to research articles and two will be review issues. The review issues will cover topics of technical or regulatory interest. Anyone interested in preparing a review article is advised to contact the Editor with details of subject matter length etc. before submitting the manuscript for publication.

Christopher T. Rhodes
August 1985