Cover Story

The leading story of this issue of Drug Discovery Today, by Antony J. Williams, Sean Ekins and Valery Tkachenko offers an overview of some of the experiences of the authors using online chemical compound databases, critiques the approaches taken to assemble data and the authors suggest approaches to deliver definitive reference data sources.

REVIEWS

FOUNDATION

671 Current therapies in ischemic stroke. Part B. Future candidates in stroke therapy and experimental studies

Erasmia Broussalis, Eugen Trinkka, Monika Killer, Andrea Harrer, Mark McCoy and Jörg Kraus

KEYNOTE

685 Towards a gold standard: regarding quality in public domain chemistry databases and approaches to improving the situation

Antony J. Williams, Sean Ekins and Valery Tkachenko

GENE TO SCREEN

702 Myostatin: more than just a regulator of muscle mass

Josep M. Argilés, Marcel Orpí, Sílvia Busquets and Francisco J. López-Soriano

710 Clinical value of circulating endothelial cell detection in oncology

Jaco Kraan, Stefan Sleijfer, John A. Foekens and Jan W. Gratama

INFORMATICS

718 Expanding the medically relevant chemical space with compound libraries

Fabian López-Vallejo, Marc A. Giulianotti, Richard A. Houghten and José L. Medina-Franco

POST SCREEN

727 Pathological changes in tight junctions and potential applications into therapies

Azusa Takahashi, Masuo Kondoh, Hidehiko Suzuki, Akihiro Watari and Kiyohito Yagi

733 Case study: technology initiative led to advanced lead optimization screening processes at Bristol-Myers Squibb, 2004–2009

Litao Zhang, Mary Ellen Cvijic, Jonathan Lippy, James Myslik, Stephen L. Brenner, Alastair Binnie and John G. Houston

741 Impact of 5-HT<sub>3</sub> receptor antagonists on peripheral and central diseases

Gohar Fakhfouri, Reza Rahimian, Jean-Eric Ghia, Waliul I. Khan and Ahmad R. Dehpour

748 Therapeutic stratagems for vascular degenerative disorders of the posterior eye

Gaurav K. Jain, Musarrat H. Warsi, Jayabalan Nirmal, Vaidehi Garg, Shadab A. Pathan, Farhan J. Ahmad and Roop K. Khar

760 Tuberculosis: from molecular pathogenesis to effective drug carrier design

Devyani Dube, Govind P. Agrawal and Suresh P. Vyas

774 Ribosome-inactivating proteins: current status and biomedical applications

Munish Puri, Inderdeep Kaur, Matthew A. Perugini and Raghbir C. Gupta

784 An overview of natural polymers for oral insulin delivery

T.A. Sonia and Chandra P. Sharma

793 Targeting endothelin receptors for pharmacotherapy of ischemic stroke: current scenario and future perspectives

Ravinder K. Kaundal, Tushar A. Deshpande, Anil Gulati and Shyam S. Sharma
