

Announcement

SOCIETY FOR IMAGING SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY (SPSE)
THIRD INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON
IMAGE CONSERVATION
17–20 June 1990, Rochester, New York, USA

First Meeting Announcement and Call for Papers

To be held at The George Eastman House, with accommodation at the Strathallan Hotel in Rochester, New York.

The enormous proliferation of image technologies has resulted in a formidable challenge to the image conservator and archivist to preserve those images of archival value that are being produced by various diverse methods. It is the purpose of this international symposium to provide the image conservation community with the latest information on images; how they are made; methods of preservation and restoration procedures.

Persons interested in presenting a paper should write to the following people for further details:
