

ANNOUNCEMENT

European Symposium: "Adolescence and Suicide: Beyond epidemiology; therapeutic perspectives?"

September 16–17, 1994

Geneva, Switzerland

Beyond what is known from the epidemiological data about suicide in adolescents and young adults, the Symposium objectives are to confront the more recent results of ongoing research along the following tracks:

- 1) Predictive factors,
- 2) Psychopathological understanding,
- 3) Therapeutic issues and preventive strategies.

Plenary sessions are formatted to insure as much room as possible for discussion and active participation from the floor after introductory presentations by selected speakers.
