

- May 4–7
1989
Hünfeld (Rhön)
- German Biophysical Society
Structure–function relationships of biomacromolecules
Information: Prof. R. Jaenicke, Universität Regensburg, FB Biologie, Universitätsstrasse 31, D-8400 Regensburg, Federal Republic of Germany
- May 8–20
1989
Liège
- Belgian Biophysical Society
Biophysics Graduate Course
Topics: Preparation and purification of proteins; modelling biopolymer structure; structure and dynamics of proteins and nucleic acids; nucleic acids (4 periods of 15 h)
Information: Prof. J. Aghion, Biochimie Végétale, Département de Botanique, B22, Université de Liège, B-4000 Sart Tilman par Liège, Belgium
- June 27–30
1989
Poznan
- Polish Biophysical Society
International Symposium on Photobiology and Biotechnology
Topics: Solar energy conversion; environmental photobiology; photoreceptors in photobiology; spectral methods in photobiology; photobiology: new trends
Information: Prof. D. Frackowiak, Institute of Physics, Poznan Technical University, Piotrowo str. 3, PL-60-965 Poznan, Poland
- September 17–20
1989
Todtmoos
- Joint Meeting of the Austrian, German, Swiss, and Yugoslav Biophysics Societies
Topics: Structure and function of proteins, nucleic acids, and lipids (molecular biophysics); membrane biophysics and signal transduction; radiation and environmental biophysics
Information: Prof. Dr. H. Rüterjans, Institut für Biophysikalische Chemie, Theodor-Stern-Kai 7, Haus 75 A, D-6000 Frankfurt/M. 70, Federal Republic of Germany
- September 24–28
1989
Sevilla
- Spanish Biophysical Society
I Congreso Iberoamericano de Biophysica
Information: I Congreso Iberoamericano de Biophysica, Departamento Fisiologia y Biofisica, Facultad de Medicina, Avenida Sanchez Pizjuan 4, E-41009 Sevilla, Spain
- October 3–6
1989
Heidelberg
- EMBL and Third EBSA Workshop
Patterns in protein sequences and structure
Information: Dr. Patrick Argos, EMBL, Meyerhofstrasse, D-6900 Heidelberg, Federal Republic of Germany, and Dr. Willie Taylor, National Institute for Medical Research, Mill Hill, London NW7, England
