

Editorial announcement

Notice to subscribers

In 1988, the Netherlands Society of Plant Pathology has decided to increase the number of pages per volume of the Netherlands Journal of Plant Pathology with more than 10%. This increase has become possible and necessary due to a higher influx of publishable manuscripts.

As a consequence, the subscription rate for individuals and institutes in foreign countries has in 1988 been raised to Dfl. 100. – per annum, while for individuals and institutes in the Netherlands, Surinam, the Netherlands Antilles and Belgium it is set to Dfl. 85. – per annum, starting with 1989.

Notice to authors

The editors of the Netherlands Journal of Plant Pathology welcome the submission of papers of various lengths, but favour those that do not exceed 12 pages in print. The editors have to announce that, as a consequence of rising printing costs, per paper a charge will be asked for each page exceeding 12 printed pages.

The secretary