Statement of apology

Dear Reader,

It has been brought to the attention of the Journal that the article Bhoumick S & Ali N. Recent developments in leishmaniasis vaccine delivery systems. Expert Opin Drug Del 2008;5:789-803 was found to have portions of text identical to that of another article Kedzierski L, Zhu Y & Handman E. Leishmania vaccines: progress and problems. Parasitology 2006;133:S87-S112.

On behalf of the Journal and the authors, we are issuing this statement of apology to Dr Kedzierski, Dr Zhu and Dr Handman for allowing publication of the article in Expert Opinion on Drug Delivery in its current format. It has been agreed by all parties that, in this case, the similarities between the two articles were unintentional and no further action will be taken.

Yours sincerely,

Beta Win
