Special regulations for readers in the U.S.A.

This journal has been registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc. Consent is given for copying of articles for personal or internal use, or for the personal use of specific clients. This consent is given on the condition that the copier pays through the Center the per copy fee stated in the code on the first page of each article for copying beyond that permitted by Sections 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law. The appropriate fee should be forwarded with a copy of the first page of the article to the Copyright Clearance Center, Inc., 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, U.S.A; phone: (+1) (978) 7508400, fax: (+1) (978) 7504744, and in the U.K. through the Copyright Licensing Agency Rapid Clearance Service (CLARCS), 90 Tottenham Court Road, London 0LP, U.K. If no code appears in an article, the author has not given broad consent to copy and permission to copy must be obtained directly from the author. The fees indicated on the first page of an article in this issue will apply retroactively to all articles published in the journal, regardless of the year of publication. This consent does not extend to other kinds of copying, such as for general distribution, resale, advertising and promotion purposes, or for creating new collective works. Special written permission must be obtained from the publisher for such copying.

Special regulations for authors

Upon acceptance of an article by the journal, the author(s) will be asked to transfer copyright of the article to the Federation of European Biochemical Societies. This transfer will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information
