

Abstracts

International Microwave Symposium (Dec. 1972 [T-MTT])

---

R.M. Knox. "International Microwave Symposium (Dec. 1972 [T-MTT])." 1972 Transactions on Microwave Theory and Techniques 20.12 (Dec. 1972 [T-MTT] (1972 Symposium Issue)): 794-797.

The Arlington Park Towers Hotel, Arlington Heights, Ill., was the scene of the 1972 IEEE-G-MTT International Microwave Symposium, May 22-24, 1972. This was the first occasion in the history of this technical forum that the Chicago Chapter of the G-MTT has been privileged to serve as host to Symposium attendees. Highlights of the 1972 Symposium included the introduction of microwave industrial exhibits, the panel session, "Microwave State-of-the-Art International," and the banquet address, "Technology and National Goals," by William M. Magruder.

Return to main document.