Abstracts

General Form of Green's Function for Multilayer Microstrip Line with Rectangular Side Walls (Letters)

This letter shows the general form of Green's functions for multilayer microstrip lines with rectangular side walls derived for the eight cases classified according to the boundary conditions by taking account of the reciprocity relation for Green's function and using the method of separation of variables

❑ Return to main document.