A.A. Oliner. "Elected Honorary Life Member (Jun. 1995 [T-MTT])." 1995 Transactions on Microwave Theory and Techniques 43.6 (Jun. 1995 [T-MTT]): 1213-1215.

Professor Tatsuo Itoh (born in Tokyo, Japan, in 1940), who is a widely known and highly respected member of the international microwave community, has just been elected an Honorary Life Member of the Microwave Theory and Techniques Society by its Administrative Committee. He becomes the 7th living member of this distinguished group, and the 11th member to be elected over the 42-year existence of the MTT Society. The last person in this group was elected in 1982, a dozen years ago.
