

Session KK

Microwave System Applications

Chairman:

Richard W. Laton

Raytheon Missile Systems Division
Bedford, MA

Microwave system applications are the beneficiary of increasing levels of integration at both the supercomponent as well as at the chip level. This increased integration is expected to continue, counter balanced by yield and testability considerations. These will also increase as time progresses. This session features such diverse platforms as automobiles, aircraft, and spacecraft.

A black square logo with the letters 'KK' in white, positioned on the right side of the page.

1:30 p.m.–3:00 p.m., Thursday, June 13, 1991
Ballroom A