

Authoritative Works by the World's Most Highly Recognized Experts in Electronics and Computing Engineering

MULTIPLE ACCESS COMMUNICATIONS

Foundations for Emerging Technologies
edited by Norman Abramson, University of Hawaii at Manoa

The first book to explain the connection between spread spectrum and ALOHA channels in a coherent fashion, MULTIPLE ACCESS COMMUNICATIONS provides a collection of key developments in the theory and practice of multiple user communication channels.

ADVANCES IN THERMAL MODELING OF ELECTRONIC COMPONENTS AND SYSTEMS, VOLUME 3

edited by Avram Bar-Cohen, University of Minnesota, and Allan D. Kraus, Naval Postgraduate School

"...invaluable to those who practice as well as manage thermal modeling of electronic components and systems. The chapters cover the most recent and important advances in the field including some of the recent controversies over predicting reliability of electronic components and provides guidance in assessing models for failure mechanisms. The book can certainly be considered essential reading." - Sevgin Oktay, IBM Corporation
