

An important resource for everyone involved in research on the metabolism of drugs and chemicals

DRUG METABOLISM AND DISPOSITION

The Biological Fate of Chemicals

Editor: Raymond F. Novak, Ph.D., Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan

DRUG METABOLISM AND DISPOSITION publishes experimental results from in vitro and in vivo systems that bring readers significant and original information on the metabolism and disposition of endogenous and exogenous compounds, including the metabolism of therapeutic agents and environmental chemicals. The journal also invites timely reviews, short communications and letters to the Editor. All submissions are refereed to ensure a high standard of publication. The areas covered are:

- metabolism, metabolite identification and mechanisms of metabolite formation
- expression of drug metabolizing enzymes
- regulation of drug metabolizing enzyme gene expression
- toxicological consequences of xenobiotic metabolism
- pharmacokinetics
- pharmacodynamics

This journal should be a standard reference in all pharmacology and toxicology departments. It is also a valuable resource for all medicinal chemists involved in drug design and all biochemists with interest in drug metabolism, expression or drug metabolizing enzymes and regulation of drug metabolizing enzyme gene expression. Monthly

GRANT PROGRAM

Molecular Devices Corporation offers a limited number of equipment grants to U.S. and International academic institutions performing research in the fields of pharmacology and/or physiology. The intent of this grant program is to provide academic researchers access to the CytosensorR Microphysiometer technology at a substantially reduced cost, thereby enabling researchers the opportunity to make novel discoveries using the Cytosensor System, with the ultimate goal of publication.

Briefly, the Cytosensor System is the latest tool for studying the physiological consequences of receptor activation; it has been shown to be particularly useful for drug discovery and signal transduction research. The System can monitor receptor-mediated responses from living cells in minutes, providing functional dose responses in just a few hours. Receptor activation can be studied even without previous knowledge of the signal transduction pathway.

For a comprehensive information package including guidelines for grant submittal, scientific publications, Application Notes, Technical Bulletins and a Reference Guide please contact:

Molecular Devices Corp.
1311 Orleans Drive
Sunnyvale, CA 94089
