This article may be used for research, teaching and private study purposes. Any substantial or systematic reproduction, re-distribution, re-selling, loan or sub-licensing, systematic supply or distribution in any form to anyone is expressly forbidden.

The publisher does not give any warranty express or implied or make any representation that the contents will be complete or accurate or up to date. The accuracy of any instructions, formulae and drug doses should be independently verified with primary sources. The publisher shall not be liable for any loss, actions, claims, proceedings, demand or costs or damages whatsoever or howsoever caused arising directly or indirectly in connection with or arising out of the use of this material.

Editor's Note

Notices of meetings, etc. should be received in our office not later than six (6) months before the date of the event - preferably even earlier.

The lapse time for reproduction and distribution is such that if notices are received later than this they would be published after the event, so we will not proceed with publication.

It is particularly important when deadlines for submission of papers are involved.
