Aims and Scope

Talanta, published monthly, provides a forum for the publication of original research papers, preliminary communications, annotations and reviews in all branches of pure and applied analytical chemistry. Letters to the editors will be considered for publication. Analytical data should be submitted only if they are clearly related to analytical measurements.

Original Research papers on fundamental studies and novel instrumentation development are especially encouraged. The latter include physical, inorganic and organic chemistry measurement instrumentations that are unique, and chemical sensors. New electronic developments are welcome. Novel applications in areas such as clinical chemistry, environmental analysis, geochemistry and materials science and engineering, etc. are welcome. Since classical spectrophotometric measurements and applications, solvent extraction, titrimetry, etc., are well established, studies in such areas should demonstrate a unique and substantial advantage over presently known systems. Solvent extraction methods, in particular, but others as well, should focus on the use of non-hazardous material substitutes and the minimization of waste generation. Studies with new reagents or systems should be as comprehensive as possible, rather than a series of similar papers for several elements or compounds. Contributions will be expected to be of the high standard set and maintained by Talanta and to make definite and useful contribution to analytical chemistry.

Preliminary communications (intended for the rapid publication of novel ideas and lines of research) are refereed urgently.

Annotations should be critical commentaries on some aspect of analytical chemistry and may deal with topics such as sources of error, or the scope and limitations of methods and techniques.

Reviews should be critical accounts of rapidly expanding fields or of hitherto widely scattered material. Original papers and reviews are refereed in the usual way.

Correspondence of interest to analytical chemists may be published as a Letter to the editor at the discretion of the Editors-in-Chief.

GENERAL INFORMATION

A detailed leaflet 'Instructions for Authors' is available from the publisher, Elsevier Science B.V., P.O. Box 330, 1000 AH Amsterdam, The Netherlands, upon request, and is also published in Talanta, Vol. 59, Issue 1. The instructions can also be found on the World Wide Web: access under <http://www.elsevier.com>

Papers submitted for publication should be new publications. The submission of a paper is held to imply that it has not previously been published in any language, that it is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, and that if accepted for publication it will not be published elsewhere without the written approval of the Editors-in-Chief and consent of the Publisher.

Online Submission of Papers: Authors are encouraged to submit their paper online to one of the journal editors by using the Online Submission tool for Talanta. To submit online authors should upload their article as a Microsoft® (MS) Word®, WordPerfect®, LaTeX or PostScript via the journal's Author Gateway homepage at: <http://authors.elsevier.com/journal/talanta>. Full instructions how to use the online submission tool are available at the online submission website of the journal.

Mailing of Manuscript

Authors who prefer to submit their manuscripts by post should submit three hard copies of their paper. Authors are requested to include a note of their fax number and E-mail address when submitting the manuscript. Manuscripts should be presented in double-space typescript. Contributions from North and South America, India, China, Japan, Australia and countries in that half of the world should be sent to:

Professor Gary D. Christian, University of Washington, Department of Chemistry, 36 Bagely Hall, P.O. Box 351700, Seattle, WA 98195-1700, USA, Fax number: (206) 685 34 78.

Contributions from Europe, the Middle East and Africa should be sent to:

Professor Jean-Michel Kauffmann, Université Libre de Bruxelles, Institut de Pharmacie, Campus de la Plaine, C.P. 205/6, Boulevard du Triomphe, B-1050 Bruxelles, BELGIUM, Fax number 32 2 650 5225.

Presentation of Manuscripts

Papers must be written in English. The manuscript should be typewritten with double spacing and wide margins, and start with the title followed by the name(s) of the author(s), their affiliations and an abstract of less than 500 words. The Corresponding Author should be indicated together with his/her fax/telephone numbers and E-mail address. Where possible, papers should follow the pattern: Introduction, Experimental, Results and Discussion, References, Tables, Figure legends, Figures, or such of these sections as apply. Figures and tables must not be included in the body of the text. All nomenclature, abbreviations and units should conform as closely as possible to the rules established by IUPAC.

Author enquiries

For enquiries relating to the submission of articles (including electronic submission where available) please visit the Author Gateway from Elsevier Science at <http://authors.elsevier.com>. The Author Gateway also provides the facility to track accepted articles and set up e-mail alerts to inform you of when an article's status has changed, as well as detailed artwork guidelines, copyright information, frequently asked questions and more.

Contact details for questions arising after acceptance of an article, especially those relating to proofs, are provided when an article is accepted for publication.

Proofs

Proofs must be returned to the Publisher within the time period specified. The publisher reserves the right to publish the paper without waiting for corrected proofs to be returned by the author, if waiting would cause undue delay. Only necessary amendments will be accepted at this stage and any changes not of a typographical nature may be charged to the Author.

Reprints

Twenty five reprints of each paper will be sent to the Corresponding Author free of charge. Additional copies may be ordered on the form accompanying the proofs.

Electronic manuscripts

Electronic manuscripts have the advantage that there is no need for the rekeying of text, thereby avoiding the possibility of introducing errors and resulting in reliable and fast delivery of proofs. For the initial submission of manuscripts for consideration, hardcopies are sufficient. For the processing of accepted papers, electronic versions are preferred. After final acceptance, your disk plus three final and exactly matching printed versions should be submitted together. Double density (DD) or high density (HD) diskettes (3.5 or 5.25 inch) are acceptable. It is important that the file saved is in the native format of the wordprocessor program used. Label the disk with the name of the computer and wordprocessing package used, your name, and the name of the file on the disk. Further information may be obtained from the Publisher. Authors in Japan please note: Upon request, Elsevier Science Japan will provide authors with a list of people who can check and improve the English of their paper (before submission). Please contact our Tokyo office: Elsevier Science Japan, 1-9-15 Higashi-Azabu, Minato-ku, Tokyo 106-0044; Tel. (03)-5561-5033; Fax (03)-5561-5045.
