

ERRATUM

Tetrahedron 32, 2579 (1976) carried an article bearing the subtitle "The Selwood Effect, Real or Imaginary". The possibility that stabilization of triarylmethyls may be accompanied by an increase of molecular diamagnetism has been mentioned. But the discovery of such an effect has never been claimed by Selwood or, to our knowledge, by anyone else. This error is regretted.