II. REGULATIONS AND INFORMATION

1. Philological Association of the Pacific Coast. Effective July 1, 1963, the American Philological Association no longer accepts as annual dues the sum of $5.00 paid by the members of the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast. (For the former terms of affiliation between the two Associations, see Proceedings 47.xi f., 48.xiv f., and 81.v f.)

2. Publications. The Association publishes an annual Transactions and Proceedings, occasional Philological Monographs, and occasional Special Publications. Transactions and Proceedings are issued as a single volume. Effective January 1, 1969, the price of all volumes of Transactions and Proceedings is $12.00 (98.xxxix). Members are entitled to a membership discount to be determined from time to time by the Secretary, with the approval of the Directors.

3. The Editor of Publications is elected annually to edit Transactions and Proceedings and such Monographs as may be approved by the Monograph Committee. For editing Transactions and Proceedings he receives an honorarium of $1,500, one half of which is payable from the Ordinary Account upon final dispatch of page proof to the printer, and the balance on the date of publication (98.xxxvi). For each Monograph honoraria are paid from the Monograph Account, on the following schedule: (a) for editing the manuscript, a sum not less than $100 nor more than $400, the exact amount to be determined by the Editor, the Secretary-Treasurer, and the Chairman of the Monograph Committee; (b) for determining the format, drawing up specifications, and conducting negotiations with printers, the sum of $50; (c) for proof-reading, preparing the text of advertising materials and selecting the journals to receive copies for review, and verifying the printer's bill, a sum calculated at the rate of $0.50 a printed page. Any or all of the functions and payments concerned with a Monograph may be delegated to an Assistant Editor, who shall be nominated by the Editor and appointed by the Directors. The expenses of the Editor in attending the annual meeting are paid by the Association.

All contracts for printing are made by the Secretary-Treasurer on the recommendation of the Editor. The Secretary-Treasurer determines the number to be printed and, for Monographs and Special Publications, the price to be charged, subject to review by the Directors at the time the budget is adopted. On the recommendation of the Editor, he arranges for the importation of books, payment of duty and brokerage, and for the insurance of the stock. He is responsible for the promotion of sales of Monographs and Special Publications and will distribute copies for review. Authors of a Monograph or Special Publication are entitled to 12 complimentary copies in all and may purchase up to 25 additional copies at an author's discount of 50 per cent.

Special Publications include works which, for one reason or another, are not published in the regular series of Monographs, though they are subject to initial approval by the Monograph Committee. On recommendation of the Editor, the Directors determine in each case what editorial supervision is required during the process of publication, and the fees therefor.

4. Articles submitted for publication in Transactions may be sent to the Editor at any time; those submitted after October 1 of a given year will not be considered for the volume published in the following year, but will be considered for a succeeding volume. The attention of authors is directed to the rules for the preparation of copy which are published at the end of these Pro- ceedings. Papers submitted for oral presentation or for listing by title (see Regulation 14), when they have been approved by referees, will be given preference for early publication.

5. The Editor has power to appoint referees for articles submitted for publication in Transactions, to review their recommendations and, in case of doubt, to ask the advice of a second referee. If the number of articles acceptable for publication is in excess of the limit set by the annual budget, he may refer for advice to an Editorial Committee composed of any two past Editors, convened by himself as Chairman. Their counsel is welcomed on other occasions. The Editor is authorized to plan for a volume of Transactions extending to a maximum of 600 pages without consulting the Board of Directors (98.xxxviii).

6. With the consent of the author, and at the discretion of the Editor, abstracts may be published of articles accepted by the referees but not printed in full because of lack of space. Abstracts of articles rejected by the referees or withdrawn by the author will not be published. Chapters of forthcoming books should not be submitted as articles. Abstracts of papers to be published elsewhere may be published at the Editor's discretion (78.23). Revised versions of articles rejected or withheld may be submitted for publication in a subsequent volume and may be published, with the approval of a referee (68.xxiv).

7. Authors of articles and Monographs are responsible for the verification of all references and quotations. Except by special arrangement, no changes can be made in articles once submitted. All possible steps should be taken to avoid the necessity of making alterations in the printed proofs. Correction of minor and routine errors in proof ordinarily requires about one-half hour for each ten pages as finally printed. Authors of articles and Monographs will therefore be charged for any time required in excess of this limit (i.e., one half-hour for each ten pages or fraction thereof), except that the Secretary-Treasurer will not bill authors for charges of less than $1.00 incurred under this rule (77.29).

8. All decisions with regard to the publication of Monographs rest with the Monograph Committee named on page viii of these Proceedings, and all correspondence until a Monograph has been accepted for publication should be addressed to the Chairman of the Monograph Committee.

The selection of Monographs to be published is made by vote of the Monograph Committee, on the advice of at least two referees and after consultation with the Editor (96.xlii). The normal fee paid to referees (for manuscripts comprising approximately 200 printed pages) is $75, but for manuscripts of unusually large or small size the Chairman of the Committee, on consultation with the Editor and Treasurer, may offer a different fee (87.xviii.1, 96.xlii). Referees' fees are paid by the Treasurer from the Monograph Account, upon notice from the Chairman of the Monograph Committee.

9. Officers. A President, a First and a Second Vice-President, a Secretary-Treasurer, and an Editor, together with nine additional Directors, are elected annually by ballot. The retiring President continues to serve as a member of the Board of Directors for one year (96.xli). Directors, other than officers and members of the Finance Committee, who have served continuously for five years are not eligible for immediate re-election (70.xxiii). The expenses of Officers and Directors attending the October meeting are paid by the Association (84.xxxiv.1).¹

10. Salary of the Secretary-Treasurer. The Secretary-Treasurer is allotted the sum of $3,000 a year for the Secretary-Treasurer's salary, plus whatever amount is necessary to compensate him for such released time from teaching or other employment as the Directors may from time to time determine; in addition he shall be allotted $1,000 for secretarial help, and shall be allowed to petition the Directors for any expenses exceeding the stated $1,000 (95.xliii).¹ The expenses of the Secretary in attending the annual meeting are paid by the Association (54.xiii, 78.27).

11. The Nominating Committee, established in 1903 (34.xix, 39.xii), consists of five members, one of whom retires each year; his successor is named by the retiring President with the approval of the Directors. The report of the Committee is published at least twelve weeks in advance of the annual business meeting. Other nominations require the signatures of 20 members and must be reported to the Secretary eight weeks in advance of the meeting.

12. The Committee on Publication of Monographs (58.xi, 73.xxv) consists of five members elected for five years, a new member being nominated each year by the Nominating Committee; at least one member of the Committee must be a Director; in addition to the elected members the Editor of Publications is a full voting member, ex officio, and the Treasurer an advisory member, ex officio, without vote (81.xxv.11).

13. Finance Committee. The Board of Directors shall designate three of its members to constitute with the Treasurer the Finance Committee. This Committee shall draw up an annual budget of the Association, supervise its operation, and control the investment of the funds of the Association. The consent of two members is required for action regarding securities. Securities and investment funds are kept in a custodian account with the Chemical Bank New York Trust Co. The Treasurer of the Association serves as the Chairman of the Committee. Members of the Finance Committee are entitled to travel expenses and one meal for attendance at not more than four meetings a year.

14. The Program Committee consists of the President, Vice-Presidents, and Secretary, Chairman. They invite the submission of papers for presentation orally or by title at the annual meeting. They decide how many papers shall be presented orally, and choose from among those submitted for that purpose those which they deem most suitable; they also decide which papers shall be read by title. Members wishing to present papers orally or by title must furnish the Secretary, on or before October 1, with four copies of an abstract of not less than 500 nor more than 800 words; they should state how much time is desired for oral presentation, and what special equipment, if any, is needed. No speaker may be allotted more than twenty minutes, but the Program Committee may allot less time than is requested. The total time allotted to speakers in a single session may not exceed two hours; a period of ten minutes should be provided for the discussion of each paper. One session of invited speakers may be arranged (39.xii, 50.x, 78.23). The Program Committee may charge such registration fee at the annual meeting as it deems fitting and is agreeable to the Archaeological Institute of America (85.xxix.17). The attention of authors is called to Regulation 4, which deals with the publication of articles in Transactions.

15. Time and Place of Meeting. The responsibility for proposing and administering a schedule of time and place of meeting shall rest with the President and Secretary, and their decision shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Directors in all except current and purely administrative matters (97.1).

16. American Council of Learned Societies. On December 31, 1919, the Association declared its adherence to the Council, which represents North America as a member of the Union Académique Internationale. Constituent societies have one delegate to the Council, elected upon nomination by the Nominating Committee in 1946 and quadrennially thereafter. The Association's delegate to the Council shall attend the meetings of the Association's Board of Directors, with voice but without vote; he shall be reimbursed for the expenses of such attendance to the same extent as if he were a Director.

17. The Secretary, or his proxy, is ex officio the Association's representative on the Council of the American Classical League (77.28, rescinding 64.xxix; see also 49.viii, 54.xiii). The President is authorized to appoint one additional delegate to serve for a three year term (95.xlii).

18. Thesaurus linguae Latinae. The representative of the Association to the Thesaurus linguae Latinae, Marstallplatz 8, München 22, Germany, is appointed for a term of five years by the President with the approval of the Directors (84.xxxiv). The Secretary of the Association is authorized to accept personal contributions from members for the support of the Thesaurus.

19. International Federation of the Societies of Classical Studies (Fédération Internationale des Associations d'Études Classiques—FIEC). The Association is a charter member of the Federation, founded on September 28–29, 1949, at Paris. A delegate and an associate delegate are appointed for a five-year term by the Directors on the nomination of the President.¹

20. Membership. New members receive on publication a copy of the next number of Transactions and Proceedings. About December 1 all members receive a copy of the program of the annual meeting. Members whose dues are unpaid do not receive Transactions and Proceedings. Members whose dues are two years in arrears are dropped from membership.

21. Effective January 1, 1969, a student membership is established at a special rate of $8.00 annually. Such membership will be available to any one student for a maximum of five years (98.xxxix). It is to be noted that members employed full time are not considered students.²

22. Effective January 1, 1967, a sustaining membership is established for those who pay $15.00 annually ($5.00 for life members): see 97.xlix. Sustaining members will be designated by an appropriate symbol in the List of Members.

23. Effective January 1, 1967, a joint membership is established for husband and wife, whether annual or life members, who are both members of the Association, at a cost of $15.00 annually (97.xlix). Joint members are, on written request to the Secretary prior to October 1 following, entitled to a credit of $3.00 a year toward the purchase of other publications of the Association in lieu of a second copy of Transactions and Proceedings.

24. Members who have paid annual dues continuously for thirty years automatically become life members. For others the fee for life membership is $250.

25. Institutions may become members of the Association, but not life members. They are listed separately.

26. Funds. On the recommendation of the Finance Committee, the Directors shall create such special funds as seem desirable. The American Philological Association Invested Fund, created in 1946 by a consolidation of the Endowment Fund, which represents two-fifths of the total, with the Goodwin

Fund, which represents three-fifths of the total, shall be used to further the general purposes of the Association. The Invested Fund is kept in a custodian account with the Chemical Bank New York Trust Company. The income from the Invested Fund shall be transferred to the Ordinary Fund and to the Monograph Fund in the proportions indicated by the resolution of the Finance Committee adopted by the Board at its meeting of October 26, 1968.³

The Monograph Fund, created in 1928, shall bear the expense of and receive any return from the editing, printing, distribution, and sales of the Monographs and Special Publications (with the exception of the Servius Series) of the Association. Grants and subsidies for the publication of Monographs and Special Publications (except the Servius Series) shall be credited to the Monograph Fund. The income from any investments or savings accounts of the Monograph Fund shall be credited to that Fund.

The Servius Fund, created in 1960, shall bear the expense of and receive any return from the editing, printing, distribution, and sales of the volumes in the Servius Series. Grants and subsidies for the publication of the Servius Series shall be credited to the Servius Fund. The income from investments or savings accounts of the Servius Fund shall be credited to that Fund.

The Text Series Fund, established in 1964, shall bear the Association's share of the expense and receive the Association's share of the return from the publication of the series known as "The American Philological Association Series of Classical Texts." From this fund disbursements will be made for referees' fees, recompense to authors, publication subsidies, and such other miscellaneous expenses as are directly concerned with the publication of the texts. Grants and subsidies for the publication of the Text Series shall be made to this Fund. The income from any investments or savings accounts of the Text Series Fund shall be credited to that Fund (95.xliii).

All sums received in payment of life memberships shall be credited to the Invested Fund-Principal Account.

All other transactions shall be carried out in the Ordinary Fund.

Two dollars of each new member's payment may be credited to the Invested Fund-Principal Account, at the discretion of the Treasurer. Of the annual dues (not including those of new members) such portion as shall from time to time be determined by the Directors may be apportioned to the Monograph Fund. The Treasurer may make inter-fund transfers other than those specified above with the consent of one other member of the Finance Committee.

27. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association runs from October 1 to September 30.

28. Deductibility of Dues. A ruling of the Bureau of Internal Revenue dated January 22, 1948, reads in part: "Whether amounts paid for annual dues or life membership are deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense will depend upon the particular facts in each case. A taxpayer claiming the benefit of such deduction must show that membership in your Association provides a direct benefit in carrying on his trade or business, or profession." The same ruling excludes interpretation of dues as "contributions or gifts" under Section 23 (o) or (q) of the Internal Revenue Code.

29. Travel Expenses. All claims for travel expenses or subsistence not herein otherwise provided for shall be authorized in advance by the Treasurer.

30. The Supervising Committee for the Servius Series (83.xx.4) consists of the Editor of the American Philological Association, the Secretary-Treasurer of the ³ As amended by vote of the Directors, December, 1968.

American Philological Association, Chairman, those who agree to assume the chief editorial responsibility for an individual volume or volumes, and such others as the Directors may appoint. The function of the Supervising Committee shall be to supervise and coordinate the editing and publication of the series, and to insure its eventual completion.

31. Award of Merit. The Award of Merit of the American Philological Association is presented at the annual meeting for an outstanding contribution to classical scholarship published by a member of the Association within a period of three years before the end of the preceding calendar year. The work chosen to receive the Award may be a book, monograph, or article. It is selected by the Committee on the Award of Merit, which consists of three elected members, one new member being elected upon nomination by the Nominating Committee each year. The Committee of any given year may, at its discretion, omit the Award of Merit (85.xxix.5). Members shall not be eligible for service on the Committee for more than a total of five years (98.xxxix).

32. Committee on Educational Training and Trends. Created by the Directors at their meeting of October 17-18, 1953, this Committee supplanted earlier committees of the Association concerned with the advancement and diffusion of philological knowledge in the secondary schools (84.xxiv-xxix). At their meeting of October 30, 1965, the Directors undertook to be responsible themselves for the functions of this committee, under the leadership of the Secretary, who may call on one or more of the other officers or members of the Board to attend such meetings or perform such services as may seem desirable. A small sum is provided for this purpose in the Annual Budget under the heading "Appropriations, Committees." The President reports to the Board at the October meeting on all such activities and calls for discussion of plans for the future, including the appointment of special committees if necessary (96.xli).

33. Committee on Greek and Latin College Textbooks. On December 30, 1959, the Directors instructed the President to appoint, without fixed term, a Committee to "investigate and report on the college Latin and Greek textbook situation" (91.xxxv). Since October 31, 1964, the Committee has administered the Text Series Fund, established by a transfer of $10,000 from the Ordinary Fund (95.xiv, xxiv, xliii). This Fund is devoted to the production, under contract with the Oklahoma University Press, of a new series of Greek and Latin college textbooks, "The American Philological Association Series of Classical Texts" (95.xxxv). Each author of a text for this series receives, upon submission to the Committee of an invited manuscript, the expenses of typing it; the sum of $500 upon the acceptance of the manuscript by the Oklahoma University Press, as reimbursement for other expenses incidental to its preparation; and, after the Association has recovered its expenditures for the text, such recompense for his work from the Association's royalties as the Directors may authorize upon the Committee's recommendation (95.xlii). The Committee may pay an honorarium of $100 to secure the judgment of a referee upon a manuscript. The Directors voted on December 30, 1967, to establish the office of Editor of the Text Series, the appointment to be made by the President upon recommendation of the Committee (99.xlii). The Editor receives a stipend of $500 for a textbook of normal size (200-300 pages) upon its publication; for considerably larger books, such increased stipend as the Directors may authorize upon recommendation of the Committee. The Editor shall:

- (a) Assist invited authors in the preparation of their manuscripts, with a view toward fulfilling the desiderata for textbooks established by the Committee on December 28, 1961, with the approval of the Directors;

- (b) Read the manuscript of each accepted textbook, and prepare copy for the printer in consultation with the author and the Oklahoma University Press;
- (c) Conjointly with the author, read the proofs of galleys and pages;
- (d) Consult with the Oklahoma University Press on matters concerning the actual production of the textbook, the preparation of publicity and of jacket copy.¹

34. Delegate to the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). The Association's Delegate to the Advisory Assembly of the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages is appointed for a term of four years by the President.²

² Regulation added by vote of the Board of Directors, December 30, 1967.

III. MINUTES

The thirty-second Annual Meeting of the American Philological Association, Incorporated, for the transaction of business, being the one hundredth since the organization of the unincorporated Association, was held in the Ballroom of the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, Canada, on Saturday, December 30, 1968, at 9:00 A.M. The identity of members was established at the door by George L. Kustas and Howard Don Cameron. The list of members present is on file with the Secretary-Treasurer. President Combellack was in the chair. At the first session for the reading of papers on Thursday morning, December 28, 1968, he had announced the following appointments:

Members of the Nominating Committee: Phillip Howard De Lacy for a term of five years, and Gerald Frank Else as Chairman for 1969.

Committee on Resolutions: Robert J. Lenardon and Leon Golden, Chairman.

The Secretary, at the request of the President, then read the names of the members whose deaths had been reported during the past year. Helen F. North then read the following memorial minute in honor of Lucius Rogers Shero:

Lucius Rogers Shero was born in Smethport, Pennsylvania, April 5, 1891, and died in Swarthmore on May 31, 1968. Death came as he was on his way to a dinner for the honors examiners in Greek and Latin at Swarthmore College, an annual event that—even after his retirement in 1959—he always attended with very evident enjoyment and graced with his characteristic zest for good company and classical conversation, his quiet yet penetrating wit, and the old-fashioned courtliness of manner that was one of his most memorable and endearing traits.

Mr. Shero, the son of an Anglican minister who served in Smethport, Lancaster, and other Pennsylvania towns, was educated at Haverford College, from which he received the A.B. degree in 1911, and the University of Wisconsin, which awarded him the A.M. in 1912 and the Ph.D. in 1920. He was a Rhodes Scholar at New College, Oxford, from 1914 to 1917, and taught Latin and Greek at Macalester College and St. Stephen's before he came to Swarthmore in 1928. There he made one of a lively company of young scholars (many of them trained at Oxford and Cambridge) who, under President Frank Aydelotte, established and shaped the honors program which brought the college into the front rank of liberal arts colleges in the United States. For thirty-one years Mr. Shero served the college in many capacities—as registrar from 1944 to 1948, as Chairman of the Division of the Humanities, even, for some time, as college organist (for he had a professional competence at the keyboard and was an ardent musician all his life), but mainly as Professor of Greek and Chairman of the Department of Classics. He was one of that brave and tenacious group of scholars who kept the Classics alive in American colleges during the grim years of war and depression and made possible the flowering of classical studies that we enjoy today.

Mr. Shero's loyal support of all college activities, curricular and extracurricular, was recognized in 1959 when Swarthmore conferred upon the Shero family the John W. Nason Award, given annually to a member of the college community whose contributions have gone far beyond the call of duty. The Nason Award was shared with two of Mr. Shero's three daughters who were also associated with the college and were like their father tireless in devotion to Swarthmore, as was, until her death in 1952, Mrs. Shero, the former Julia Adrienne Doe.

The same devotion was also lavished on Mr. Shero's service to the cause of the Classics in general. He was Secretary-Treasurer of this Association from 1939–1944, and its President in 1949–1950. He had been President of the Philadelphia Society of the Archaeological Institute of America, Chairman of the Latin Committee of the College Entrance Examination Board, and an officer in various local and regional societies, of which he was to the end of his life a hard-working member, faithful in attendance and generous in support. He wrote the history of the American Philological Association, published in conjunction with the meeting of the Fourth International Congress of Classical Studies in Philadelphia in 1964, and was the author of "A Historical Survey of the Classics in the Schools and Universities of the United States," for a recent pamphlet of the JACT.

As a classical scholar, Mr. Shero worked on Roman satire and its Greek antecedents (especially the topic of the cena), the history of Sparta (the subject of his presidential address to this organization in 1950, entitled "Pauci potentes"), and in later years mythology and the drama. With the theatre, both ancient and modern, he carried on a life-long love affair. He played leading roles in the Swarthmore productions of two comedies of Aristophanes (in Greek), and appeared in the joint Swarthmore-Haverford-Bryn Mawr production of the Bacchae of Euripides. Year after year he was a featured character actor in faculty plays, and invariably gave a professional performance. His deep, booming voice, his meticulous pronunciation, and his sense of timing made him a valued asset on the stage, and his gift for comedy was little short of phenomenal.

In addition to his teaching at Swarthmore, Lucius Shero was Visiting Professor at Stanford University in 1932, at the American School of Classical Studies in Athens in 1936-1937, and at Haverford in 1962-1963. In his later years, in spite of bouts of illness (which he did not so much suffer bravely as simply ignore) he kept up a wide variety of occupations, including extensive travel. His three daughters nobly refrained from attempting to persuade him to curtail the busy life that he loved. He was active in the affairs of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania and of his own parish, which he served as Church-Warden, and he continued to take an interest in the Civil Liberties Union, the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, and many other organizations, civic, religious, and classical. Most of all he delighted in continued reading of the classics, writing in the field, and keeping in touch with his many devoted students.

His colleagues relied on his judgment and counsel, never proffered unasked, but always available upon request. We knew that in him we would always find exact and accurate information about any problem connected with the Classics, sound judgment of persons and situations, and absolute integrity. It was a privilege to be a member of his Department and to know that, whatever the situation might be elsewhere in the academic world, in him one would encounter not only uncompromising standards of teaching and scholarship, but unfailing honor and generosity. When, we ask, will Pudor and the sister of Justitia, incorrupta Fides, and nuda Veritas ever find an equal to Lucius Shero?

William H. Willis then read the following memorial minute in honor of Robert Samuel Rogers:

One year and a day ago many of his colleagues heard Robert Samuel Rogers read eloquently the last of his many papers offered to this Association, defending for the last time his hero Tiberius against the innuendos transmitted by his life-long opponent and constant companion, Tacitus. In the tradition of Charlesworth and Marsh, and rhetorically in the tradition of Tacitus himself, he laid to rest the partisan Julian allegations that Tiberius was responsible for the deaths of Julia and Sempronius Gracchus. His colleagues were not to see him again, for immediately after his characteristically crisp and punctual address he left, and en route home to Duke University he was fatally stricken and died instantly in the railway station at Wilmington, Delaware, on January 2, 1968.

Born in 1900 of Welsh Quaker stock in Madison, New Jersey, where his father Robert William Rogers was the distinguished historian of ancient Babylonia, Assyria, Persia, and Israel on the faculty of Drew Seminary, Robert Samuel entered the University of Pennsylvania in 1917 with the avowed purpose of studying modern history, since (as he said) his father was an ancient historian and his elder sister Elizabeth a medieval historian. But in college he shone best in Latin, as a student of Hadzsits, McDaniel, and Kent, and decided for classical studies. Graduated in 1920, he entered Princeton, and there turned to Roman history. Not satisfied with his automatic M.A. in 1921, by commuting evenings and summers he earned a second M.A. with thesis at Columbia in 1922, returning to take his Ph.D. from Princeton in 1923. In the following year, 1923-24, he was appointed to the Carter Memorial Fellowship of the American Academy in Rome, whose baldric was thereafter the proudest insignia upon his academic robe. Returning to Princeton as instructor for four years, in 1926 he married Dorothy Elizabeth Taylor, who was to become his loyal companion at meetings of the Association from that time forth. In 1928 he was appointed Assistant Professor of Classics in Western Reserve University, from which he published eleven articles and in 1935 his first book, Philological Monograph VI of this Association. Highly praised in reviews, its subject—Criminal Trials and Criminal Legislation under Tiberius—was to chart the course of his enduring interest and research. Appointed to Duke University in 1937 as Professor of Latin and Roman Studies, in 1940 he became Chairman of the Latin Department, and in 1962 Chairman of the newly united Department of Classical Studies, continuing until 1966, when he retired from the chairmanship to devote full time to teaching and research.

His appointment to the Lectureship in Latin at Johns Hopkins University in 1939–40 gave rise to his second book, Studies in the Reign of Tiberius (Baltimore 1943), divided equally between three lectures entitled “Some Imperial Virtues of Tiberius” and a monographic study of “Drusus Julius Caesar.” In addition, he had edited in 1935, jointly with two colleagues, a school text of Res Gestae Divi Augusti, and in 1949, with his sister, published a translation of a letter of St. Thomas More. Beyond these books he published altogether forty papers, straying only occasionally from Tiberius to write on events and trials of Augustus’, Nero’s, and Domitian’s reigns. Nineteen of his papers were presented at meetings of this Association and published in Transactions from 1930 to 1967. At the time of his death he left incomplete a book to be entitled Lèse Majesté under the Roman Emperors.

His service to and honors bestowed by this Association included two five-year terms on the Nominating Committee (1947–52 and 1962–67), twice as chairman (1951 and 1966). From 1953 to 1958 he was a Director of the Association. He was elected Second Vice-President for 1958–59, First Vice-President for 1959–60, and President for 1960–61, presiding at the Association’s ninety-third meeting in Detroit.

For his colleagues and for generations of classics, history, and divinity students, a quiet and friendly warmth lighted up his austere and courtly dignity. A measured, trenchant

Roman eloquence was his innate style, as deep conservatism was his policy. For years he resisted the telephone, and held the line against the typewriter to the end. His persevering mission was to expose the prejudicial devices of Tacitus, to whom he was drawn by irresistible fascination. For the task he armed himself well with Roman criminal law, numismatics, Latin epigraphy, and an intimate knowledge of first-century historians. Not only the memory of Tiberius but all students of Roman history are his beneficiaries.

The memorial minutes were adopted by a rising vote; a short period of silence was observed in memory of all members who had died during the preceding year.

The following reports were presented:

Board of Directors

The American Philological Association

We have examined the statement of cash receipts and expenditures of The American Philological Association for the year ended September 30, 1968. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and included direct confirmation of bank balances and security holdings, verification of investment income and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. It was not practicable to extend our examination of receipts other than investment income beyond accounting for these receipts as recorded.

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of cash receipts and expenditure presents fairly the cash transactions of The American Philological Association for the year ended September 30, 1968.

4. REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Quid nisi nil custodes horno fecimus anno?
 Non autem quicquam mutandum nostra erat in re.
 Aprili promissum est legatum Adelaïdae;
 Spes homines fallit! Quot sunt fallacia verba.
 Sextili est promissum. Iterum fallacia verba.
 Octobri tandem mandatum. Gaudia regnant.
 Ad rem iamque locandam sat simus sapientes.
 Iam loculo inspecto, constant omnes rationes.

 WILLIAM W. MINTON, Chairman

5. REPORT OF THE EDITOR

Once again the Editor wishes to take this occasion to thank those many members of the Association who have given generously of their time and talents by reading articles submitted for publication in TAPA. Volume 98 should be out well before the annual meeting. Three monographs are in process of publication. Douglas Gerber, A Bibliography of Pindar 1513-1966, is in final proofs ready for photo-reproduction, and should be available early in 1969. Robert O. Fink, Roman Military Records on Papyrus, and E. Adelaide Hahn, Naming-Constructions in Some Indo-European Languages, have been prepared for the printer and will be produced during the next year. Work continues on the index volume to the first one hundred years of TAPA, which has been undertaken by Dean John W. Spaeth, Jr. We hope to publish this shortly after the appearance of Volume 100.

Although the Editor does not have time actively to seek members' suggestions and criticisms, he would welcome them, since he believes that the Association could well increase and diversify its publishing activities, in line with its purpose of the "advancement and diffusion of philological knowledge."

Respectfully submitted,
 JOHN ARTHUR HANSON, Editor

6. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PUBLICATION OF MONOGRAPHS

At the time of preparation of this report three manuscripts are in an advanced stage of editing: Douglas E. Gerber's A Bibliography of Pindar will appear early in 1969, E. Adelaide Hahn's Naming-Constructions in Some Indo-European Languages in 1969, and Robert O. Fink's Roman Military Records on Papyrus may, it is hoped, appear before the end of 1969. One manuscript, submitted during 1967, has been returned to its author. Two manuscripts are in the hands of the first readers.

Respectfully submitted,
 JAMES W. POULTNEY, Chairman

7. REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE AMERICAN COUNCIL OF LEARNED SOCIETIES

The fifty-first meeting of the American Council of Learned Societies, being its forty-ninth annual meeting and the forty-seventh meeting of the Corporation, was held at the Princeton Inn, Princeton, New Jersey, January 19–20, 1968. It was preceded by a meeting of the Conference of Secretaries of the constituent societies on January 18, and the Conference of Secretaries was reconvened in the evening of January 19.

On January 19, at morning and afternoon sessions, papers were presented by Lee Benson, Professor of History, University of Pennsylvania, on "Computers and the Transition from Little Scholarship to Big Scholarship," and by Bernard Barber, Professor of Sociology, Bernard College, on "Professors, Authority, and University Change"; Alan Pifer, President of the Carnegie Corporation of New York, spoke on "The Future of Area Studies." Professor Benson's and Professor Barber's papers will be published shortly in the ACLS Newsletter. Persons interested may procure copies by writing to the ACLS office at 345 East 46th St., New York, New York 10017.

Members of the Council and of the Conference of Secretaries attended an exhibition and reception at the Princeton University Art Museum on January 18, and the ACLS Annual Dinner was held at the Princeton Inn, January 19.

Members of APA will be pleased to learn that their fellow-member Professor Whitney J. Oates was re-elected Treasurer of the Council.

The year 1969 marks not only the hundredth anniversary of APA, but also the fiftieth of ACLS. At the request of the APA Secretary-Treasurer, your delegate wrote a 13-page account of the APA's first ninety-nine years. This was published as the first of a series entitled "Profiles of ACLS Constituent Societies" in the ACLS Newsletter, Vol. 19, No. 2, February 1968. The ACLS itself has published a brochure entitled: American Council of Learned Societies: A Summary Statement. Copies of both these accounts may be obtained in the same manner as that suggested above.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY L. LEVY, Delegate

8. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON GREEK AND LATIN COLLEGE TEXTBOOKS

During this year, at the suggestion of the Committee, the University of Oklahoma Press has issued a reprint of E. Morris' edition of Horace's Satires and Epistles. Work continues on texts for the new series, two of which are nearing completion. The Board of Directors, recognizing the need for continuity in our relations to the Oklahoma Press, has authorized the appointment of an editor for the series, and Professor Helen North has consented to fill the position. For the academic year 1968–69 Professor Harry L. Levy will be chairman of the Committee, in the absence of Professor Agnes Michels.

Respectfully submitted,

AGNES MICHELS, Chairman

9. REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVES TO THE AMERICAN CLASSICAL LEAGUE

At its annual meeting on June 20-22, 1968 at Western College, Oxford, Ohio, the American Classical League

- 1) Heard a report from Mrs. Edna Cunningham, of the Oxford Office of ACL, that raising the dues to $2.00 had caused no appreciable drop in membership, which is 5,800 at present; that simultaneously with the introduction of the new $5.00 dues ACL is engaging in a major membership drive.
- 2) Heard a report by Mr. David Levy, Detroit, Mich., representative of the JCL National Committee, that JCL Latin contests have been expanded, run more smoothly, and their judging improved. Some drop in JCL membership was reported and attributed to a drop in Latin study in the high schools.
- 3) Heard a report by the Vice-President, Professor Edith Kovach, that the Public Relations Packet is now ready for distribution. It contains public relations projects that have proved successful all over the country with suggestions for their use. Reporting also on the last ACTFL meeting, she expressed satisfaction with its professionalism and urged working with it. Of 29 affiliates in ACTFL 8 are Classical organizations, and of 6,000 individual members 326 are Classicists.
- 4) Heard a report by Father Joseph H. Zeinz, Acting Director of the Service Bureau, that many new materials had been added for distribution, that there was need for new classroom tapes like that on the Aeneid, and that Bureau sales had declined by about 2%. He also reported that Professor Carr's Placement Service had successfully handled about 100 employment requests.
- 5) Heard a report by the Secretary, Adele Knight, that in trying to make more effective the representation to the Council she had sent out over 125 letters to organizations entitled to it. She stressed that organizations with membership of 50 to 1,000 are entitled to one representative and more than one if of larger size.
- 6) Received copies of the report summarized orally by the Treasurer, Professor William Fairchild, the main point of which was that while assets were down by about $6,500, the Endowment Fund had risen by about $6,800, the decline in assets being due to defraying the expenses of the National Office.
- 7) Heard a report from the Editor of Classical Outlook, Professor Konrad Gries, that, in its first year of publication in 10 issues instead of 8, operations ran smoothly; approved a proposal to get each issue out in the month before the month of issue, so that the June issue would arrive before many teachers had left for the summer; approved the appointment of Father Zeinz as Acting Editor for April-June, 1969, while the Editor is on a semester's sabbatical leave.
- 8) Heard a progress report on the revision of the Constitution from Professor Gries, chairman of the committee involved. More work is still needed on clarifying representation to the Council.
- 9) Heard a report by the Executive Secretary, Professor John F. Latimer, outlining the activities of the National Office during the preceding year, chief among which was the issuing of the Oxford Report (full title: The Oxford Conference and Related Activities) and the Roster of Classics Teachers in the United States, the former being based on the Oxford Conference of June, 1967, and the latter to be expanded as the other than 2,800 original respondents send in their replies. Also reported were: a) Appointment of 350 consultants from all over the country to work for closer co-operation between schools and colleges of communities; b) the intention to see to it that the new Federal legislation and expected Congressional appropriation for the arts and humanities will be used in part to further the study of classical languages.

- 10) Heard a report by President Pratt on the planned membership drive to start September 1968, and on the special program planned for the 50th Anniversary meeting of ACL on June 19–21, 1969, at Oxford, Ohio.
- 11) Elected: Professor Konrad Gries for another three-year term as Editor of Classical Outlook; Father Joseph H. Zeinz to another one-year term as Acting Director of the Service Bureau; Mr. Bert Narveson of Northfield, Minn. as third member of the Finance Committee; Professor Annette H. Eaton of Howard University, Washington, D. C. to a six-year term on the Council.
- 12) Approved the appropriation of $10,000 to defray the expenses of the National Office for 1968–69, with the option of adding to this sum at the December, 1968, meeting if it was then deemed necessary.

Other activities during the three-day period included panel discussions with lively participation from the audience on: Classical Action at State Level; State Departments of Foreign Languages Take a Frank Look at Latin; Textbooks; a demonstration of the Nodarse Psycho-Generative Approach to the Teaching of Elementary Latin; and Public Relations. One evening session was devoted to: Interpretative Reading from the Latin Poets.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL LIEBERMAN
WILLIAM W. MINTON

10. REPORT OF THE DELEGATES TO THE FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALES DES ASSOCIATIONS D'ÉTUDES CLASSIQUES

There has been no meeting of the FIEC since the last report (Proceedings 97) of your delegates.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. WILLIS, Associate Delegate

11. REPORT OF THE REPRESENTATIVE TO THE THESAURUS LINGVAE LATINAE

The out-of-print parts of the Thesaurus are almost all available again. The photo-mechanical reprint, though marked as an "Exemplar iteratum" (Unveränderter Nachdruck), in fact incorporates corrections of minor misprints, especially in punctuation. According to current information, only the following parts are not yet available again:

Vol. VI.2 Fasc. 11-12 (gloria-gytus), 1933/34; and Onom. II Fasc. 2-4 (Carine-Cyzistra), 1910/13

The following are temporarily out of print:

Vol. VII.1 Fasc. 8 (inde-ineber), 1943;
Vol. VII.1 Fasc. 12 (inordinatus-insipiens), 1958; and
Vol. VII.2 Fasc. 2 (inverecundus-iocus), 1959.

It is expected that these parts of Vol. VII will be available again in 1970.

Newest parts are: Vol. VII.2 Fasc. 4 (is-iugum), 1967; and Vol. IX.2 Fasc. 1 (o-obscurus), which should appear in 1968. Work on Vol. VII.2 Fasc. 5 (iugum-ca. laboro) is in various stages of completeness. "Beiträge aus der Thesaurusarbeit" XIV and XV appeared in Museum Helveticum 23 (1966) 208 ff. and 24 (1967) 33 ff.

The Director, Dr. Ehlers, reports that the work is proceeding with somewhat more dispatch now that it enjoys the services of 17 collaborators. He regrets, however, that there are no North Americans among them. One possibility worth exploring is that American graduate students with an interest in lexicography might pursue that interest on a cooperative basis between their university and the Thesaurus. Enquiries about this or any other possibility of securing American collaborators may be directed either to Dr. Ehlers or to your Representative.

Respectfully submitted,
MAURICE P. CUNNINGHAM, Representative

13. REPORT OF THE DELEGATE TO THE AMERICAN COUNCIL ON THE TEACHING OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES

As I reported to the business meeting of the Association on December 30, I attended the first annual meeting of the new ACTFL, or rather the first day thereof, in Chicago on December 27. I was very much impressed with the efficiency and dynamism that prevailed at the first meeting, thanks in good measure to the energy and intelligence of the young Executive Secretary, Dr. F. André Paquette.

The relationship of APA to ACTFL is that we are one of some thirty organizations of language teachers, of more or less specialized nature, which send Delegates to an annual Advisory Assembly meeting. The Advisory Assembly is intended as a national forum in which every special language interest is represented and can present its own case, angle for position, etc. It is, in short, intended as kind of a political arena. The actual policy direction of ACTFL will come from its Board of Directors, which is constituted of representatives from each of the state foreign language associations. Since these associations are required, in order to secure membership in ACTFL, to admit all teachers of foreign languages, ancient and modern, on an equal basis, we are assured on representation in ACTFL through two channels: through the Board of Directors and through the Advisory Assembly.

More important than the mechanics is the strong impression I gained that this new organization really is intended to embrace all language teachers in the country, ancient and modern, in schools, colleges, and universities, and that we have an important opportunity for expanded and improved cooperation with the modern languages and for at least our due share of prestige and influence. I think that we should participate wholeheartedly in this new venture.

Respectfully submitted,

GERALD F. ELSE, Delegate

14. REPORT OF THE SUPERVISING COMMITTEE FOR THE SERVIUS SERIES

Professor Travis reports for Servius IV that his examination of the manuscripts to be used in this volume (except for A which is legible as photographed) was completed satisfactorily during his European trip of 1967 and that the assembling and typing of the final blocked textus receptus for Aeneid VIII has been accomplished. He is continuing his work on constituting the text of Aeneid VI, as is Professor Stocker on that for Aeneid VII.

Professor Goold reports that in 1968, with the assistance of Philippa Forder of Mount Holyoke College, more work was done on the preparation of text and apparatus for the Commentary on the Eclogues. Contact is being maintained with Stanislaus Akielaszek, whose variorum edition of ancient non-Servian scholia, whatever the auspices under which it appears, will furnish an admirable supplement to the Harvard Servius.

Attention has now turned to the Georgics, where the manuscripts J and K make their first appearance; in this portion of the text it is hoped to confirm the new appraisal of separate traditions established by Charles E. Murgia for the Aeneid.

Volume I will commence with the preface (i.e. including the so-called Suetonian Life) of Aelius Donatus's Commentary on Vergil, and some idea of the editor's methods and preliminary results may be gained from an article, "Servius and the Helen Episode," to appear in HSCP 74 (1969).

Professor Murgia reports that he traveled extensively through Europe in the summer of 1968 in search of additional manuscripts of the upsilon and sigma groups. He visited 48 libraries and examined over 170 manuscripts of which 130 were found to contain Servius in one form or another. Several of these manuscripts appear to present better evidence for the text than similar manuscripts used earlier, and will be employed as appropriate in his edition of Volume V.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM W. MINTON, Chairman

 - A. If new assets are added to the Invested Fund other than by income or appreciation derived from the Fund's holdings, the proportion shall be recalculated accordingly; and

5. To substitute for the present Regulation 33 the following:

33. Committee on Greek and Latin College Textbooks. On December 30, 1959, the Directors instructed the President to appoint, without fixed term, a Committee to "investigate and report on the college Latin and Greek textbook situation" (91.xxxv). Since October 31, 1964, the Committee has administered the Text Series Fund, established by a transfer of $10,000 from the Ordinary Fund (95.xiv, xxiv, xliii). This Fund is devoted to the production, under contract with the Oklahoma University Press, of a new series of Greek and Latin college textbooks, "The American Philological Association Series of Classical Texts" (95.xxxv). The Directors voted on December 30, 1967, to establish the office of Editor of the Text Series, the appointment to be made by the President upon recommendation of the Committee (99.xlii). The Editor receives a stipend of $500 for a textbook of normal size (200-300 pages) upon its publication; for considerably larger books, such increased stipend as the Directors may authorize upon recommendation of the Committee. 17. REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We the members of the American Philological Association on the occasion of this our 100th meeting would like to express our gratitude and appreciation:

To the officers of our Association and of the Archaeological Institute of America for the efficient administration of their offices during the past year, and for their part in the preparation and presentation of the program of both societies;

To the extremely efficient and competent Chairman of the local committee, Alan E. Samuel of the University of Toronto, and his equally efficient and competent staff of co-workers whose courtesy and thoughtfulness have contributed so highly to the success of this meeting;

To all who presented papers for their important and scholarly contributions to the program of the meetings;

To the Royal Ontario Museum for its hospitality in inviting our organization to view its collection and to the Museum and the University of Toronto for their generous hospitality in entertaining our organization at a reception;

And to the management and staff of the Royal York Hotel for the high excellence of the food and lodging and the exceptionally warm and courteous service which they have provided.

ROBERT J. LENARDON
LEON GOLDEN, Chairman

The Report of the Committee on Resolutions was accepted by acclamation.

The President called for New Business. Professor John B. Van Sickle presented a resolution to the effect that:

"As students of the civilization of classical Greece and as scholars and teachers devoted by profession to free inquiry and teaching, we are gravely concerned by the imposition of political controls by a military dictatorship on our professional counterparts in the universities of Greece and we are no less concerned by the violence and repression that afflict the whole Greek people.

We therefore resolve that the Secretary of the American Philological Association be instructed to transmit this expression of our concern to the Secretary of State of the United States with the urgent request that the government of the United States of America cease all aid to the military dictatorship in Greece in order to favor a return to free institutions in the Greek university and society and to avoid contributing to further bloodshed and violence."

It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. The motion was lost.

Professor Martin Ostwald presented a resolution to the effect that: "The President of the Association be directed to make representations to the appropriate members of the Congress of the United States, with copies to be sent to the Secretary of State, on behalf of the American Philological Association, that the Fulbright-Hays Program be fully re-instated and supported with the necessary funds as a matter of scholarly and national interest." It was moved and seconded that this resolution be adopted. The motion was passed unanimously.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of officers, Grundy Steiner and Edwin D. Floyd having been appointed tellers. All nominees were elected as set forth on page vii above. The new officers assumed office.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN J. BATEMAN, Secretary

VII. INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF COPY

In general, model your copy on recent issues of TAPA. The best general treatment of problems of style remains The MLA Style Sheet, reprinted from PMLA 66.3 (April, 1951) 3-27. Excellent rules for articles on classical subjects will be found in AJA 69 (1965) 199-206, which also includes a helpful list of abbreviations of journals and standard reference works.

Attention is called to the following points:

1. TYPE IN DOUBLE OR TRIPLE SPACE EVERYWHERE. LEAVE WIDE MARGINS.

2. At the top of the first page of the manuscript, write the address to which proofs should be sent.

3. Where possible, include in the first or last paragraph a brief statement indicating what the article is about.

4. Assemble footnotes on separate sheets at the end of the article, typed in double space with triple space between notes.

5. Avoid large numbers of very short footnotes. In citing passages from ancient authors, put the references in the text, within parentheses.

6. For subsequent references to a work already cited, use the formula, "Jones (above, note 6) 49." If many references to the same work have to be made, list the titles of all such works in an early bibliographical note with their respective abbreviations.

7. Use cross references sparingly. When they occur, use the formula "see above, page 000," or "see below, pages 000-000," and supply the editor with an exact key, giving the page and line numbers of your manuscript to which the cross reference refers.

8. Long quotations in any language should be set off in separate paragraphs, indented and typed in double space like all the rest.

9. Use moderation in quoting Greek. Make the Greek forms look like the type used in recent volumes of Transactions. Be careful of spacing within and between Greek words. Allow ample space in your typescript for the Greek to be inserted. Verify accents.

10. Transliterate Greek words as follows, at least in all work dealing with literature:

(a) Personal names and place names should be Latinized according to the best Roman practice: Thucydides, Museum, Samos, etc.

(b) Other words, except those whose Latinized forms are familiar in English, should be transliterated directly from the Greek, distinguishing original omega and eta as ô and ê respectively: Nikê, koinônia, phyteuma, etc.

11. Use Arabic (not Roman) numerals wherever possible.

12. Italicize (single underline) titles of books and periodicals, names of classical works, and single foreign words, but not quotations in foreign languages.

13. Use quotation marks, not italics, for the titles of articles in periodicals or encyclopedias and of chapters in books.

14. Do not italicize the common abbreviations: cf., e.g., etc., f., i.e., s.v., viz., vol. Do not use l., n., or v. as abbreviations, since confusion may result. Use p. and pp. only when indispensable. Avoid excessive use of ff. and f. for page and line references.

15. Indicate columns or sections of columns in standard texts by letters in small capitals (two underlines) placed immediately after the page number: Arist. Pol. 1252*Α*1–22.

16. Give place and date of publication (within parentheses) of all books except very well-known handbooks.

17. Use standard abbreviations for the title of periodicals, collections, and handbooks; but do not abbreviate titles consisting of a single word. Base abbreviated references to ancient works upon their Latin titles, not English or Greek. For standard titles, see LSJ, ThLL, or OCD; but abbreviations for both titles and authors' names must often be expanded, in order to insure ease of comprehension. Capitalize the first letter of titles.

18. Verify all quotations and references against the original source. Record the verifications on a carbon copy of the article, and hold this copy until the article appears in print.

19. Clarity and avoidance of ambiguity are the first desideratum, consistency within the article the second, strict conformity to any external standard a poor third.
