WELCOME TO Utterly FABULOUS NEWS
with Vicky Lee

★ Well it's HOT and it's a glorious summer.

I am often told The WayOut Club must be quiet in the summer! NOT true we are busier than ever. Many think that the tranny scene fades away in the summer, as 'girls' become guys again, growing hairy legs for summer holidays. This may still be true for some but now in 2003 the scene has many who are committed to their lifestyle and so summer is a time for cool clothes, fake tan, bling bling and cool late nights after hot sunny days, as our editorial theme of 'summer fun' testifies.

★ The hottest thing in The WayOut Diary is Alternative Miss London (AML) contest on the 11th October. Miss Regine, reigning AML will be there to pass on her crown. This year to encourage a wide range of entries we will have a top prize not only for the winner but also for the best dressed. Once again Respect Holidays has offered a 7 night holiday in Playa Del Ingles - Gran Canaria from 8th December for the overall winner.

★ YOU too could be in Gran Canaria as the week beginning 8th December is Gran Canaria - WayOut Week when we aim to invade this tranny friendly holiday heaven. Following recent trips to the Playa Del Ingles by the The Boudoir and the girls from Northern Ireland's Gemini Club (see the 11th Tranny Guide report on page 168) they all say "Playa Del Ingles can't be beat for the choice of drag shows, tranny friendly bars and that's just the evenings". Respect offer a choice of accommodation at varying rates all within close proximity and will be keeping us informed as the bookings roll in.

RECOMMENDED ACCOMMODATION

Respect Los Almendros - 34 one bedroomed aircon bungalows, Pool, Jacuzzi, Bar, Restaurant, Resort Centre

Las Carrozas Villas

Small complex of two and three bedroom villas with pool Short cab ride or 15 minute walk from main resort

BUDGET ACCOMMODATION

Las Walkirias Apartments One Bedroom apartments bang in the resort centre

Barbados Apartments As above, but with two bedrooms

Join the tranny invasion, write for a brochure or check the Respect Holidays web site (Respect Holidays advert page 7) keep an eye on the event on www.wayout-publishing.com have made portrait for AML Regine as well as for me from photographs. You can see my picture at Anita's site - I asked her. Q. What is the inspiration behind your website? A. Gaining creative strength from being transgendered and serving others through this gift. Q. What plans do you have for the future? A. To offer other artists who are, or have an appreciation of being, transgendered the opportunity to exhibit & promote their work and to serve as a bridge for our sisterhood to flourish within general society. Q. Finally, what is your link with the International TG Art Show at Gallery 727, in Los Angeles this autumn? A. Trannyportraits are to contribute four portrait-works (including that of Vicky Lee) and our artist will be attending the Show's debut. Trannyportraits will be offering a personal portrait for one of our lucky AML winners. But why wait contact Anita today about your unique portrait.

The Tranny Guide For Your TV (the video)

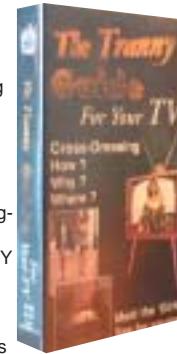

Cross-Dressing How? Why? Where? Based on the advise in the Tranny Guide this video sets out to put it all on to your television screen. Through this video you can see the 'girls', chat in the dressing room. You can visit dressing services, shops, clubs and partners at home. Then in the studio, presenter Laura asks Vicky Lee one more question ... "Tranny Sex - Can we talk?"

NEW Girl Talk - (Magazine)

From the West Coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most glossy photo shoots on the tranny scene in a VERY professional Hollywood style. The models are great, the advice from make-up artists and stylists is excellent. The reports on the USA scene are fun and enlightening. This is a great magazine to collect and it's all good clean fun.

NEW Crossing The Line (book) Photographer Sarah

Davidmann presents her record of images that appear to exist somewhere between the polarities of male and female. Hard back book that reflects the visions and characters present on the London scene at the beginning of the new Millennium, including many who frequented the WayOut Club.

NEW The Transgender Underground (book)

This book exposes the real lives, opinions and sexual orientation of over a dozen members of the 'third sex'. Multi media artist, German born Claudia Andrei studied and frequented Ron Storrie's at Stepney during his last year interviewing many of the regulars. You may well have met the people featured or indeed be the people featured. A wonderful snap shot of this period in time.

The Lazy Crossdresser

(book) VERY POPULAR The jokey chapter titles like "My Size - a random number between 8 and 16" undermines the quality of the advice in this book with 177 pages of text and sketches. But don't let me undermine the friendly, open and down right honesty of the author Charles Anders. This is a good read and is genuinely helpful.

NEW GINA The Woman Within (book)

This book relates Gina Lance's traumatic and very reluctant transgender journey. Giving a powerful insight into the suffering of gender dysphoria. It's a truly remarkable story and a wake-up call to society.

ModernTV (the video)

A professional video to follow on from the TG video. Interviews with a range of cross-dressers plus a visit to a shoe shop and a private TV party. Interspersed with some sexy (but not too explicit) interludes.

WayOut 'Home' Videos

A series of collectible videos with video shot 'live' at The WayOut Club. Each tape has a variety of Shows, Competitions and Events featuring competitors, performers and 'The WayOut Girls' PLUS Bonus Clips from our Library of events outside the WayOut Club 7 editions now available

PLUS NEW for the WayOut of the Closet edition
Over 30 "Personal Profiles"

"Following the 10th edition milestone, it came to me that after years of advice in my "WayOut of the Closet" section there are now many readers that are "Wayout ... of the closet" with confidence, experiences and tips of their own to pass on. I asked my email contacts for pictures and answers to 14 probing questions.

I was thrilled at the response, receiving such quality and quantity that I was able to choose 36 very diverse 'Profiles' with beautiful pictures including OTV's, RTV's, Transsexuals, Drag queens and even a woman that is mistaken for a drag queen.

Their replies and pictures give a fascinating range of answers to the questions I have always tried to answer in my book. These 'Profiles' offer a glimpse into many different ways of living with the "tranny gene". These 'Profiles' bring a really exciting interactive aspect to this annual book."

MORE Utterly FABULOUS NEWS

* WayOut Restaurant hosted a birthday party for Miss (Top to Toe) Nas. 60 friends joined her including boys, girls and inbetrwee- nies (and that's just her BA crew friends). Miss Jodie Lynn arranged for a very appropriate cake for 'high-flying' Nas and all reported their meals to be excellent. You can book your private party in one of the three areas of the WayOut Restaurant or stop in for a snack or drink to start your Saturday night out (see advert page 15).

* Riverboat Birthday Party for Bella

Those of you who know Bella Jay from Repartee magazine will know that she does like to be a little bit 'different'! So when her friend Lorraine suggested a joint Birthday party, she said how about a Riverboat Cruise? The rest, as they say, is history and in July the Birthday Boat Party hit the Thames with over 150 people aboard. Bella says "It was lovely to welcome so many friends on board and thanks for all the cards and pressies girls! The cruise lasted five hours, with the boat sailing past Westminster and the London Eye, before heading down river, to Greenwich and on through the Thames Barrier, with photo opportunities every few minutes. We even saw Tower Bridge being raised on our return trip! The evening exceeded all expectations. The weather, was absolutely perfect (in a week of record temperatures), with a fabulous sunset over the Thames, and a full moon and clear sky. A wonderful evening was had by all. As a result, Bella has decided to do it all over again next year on Saturday 10th July 2004. So if you missed out first time round then stick that date in your diaries for next year. bellajay@repartee.tv Les and I opened our first Doreen shop in City Road in 1953. Les was a tailor and bra maker. In fact his first present to me was a bra. My mother went mad; she was very strict: "How comes a boy gives you a bra? I was 21 and I'd trained as a window-dresser at Mary Parque in Oxford Street. Most customers think of me as Doreen - which is fine with me - but the name originally came from the girlfriend of the man who sold us the shop. Les and I sank all our wedding-present money into it on a Saturday, worked all Sunday getting the shop ready putting things on the old wire-frame torso displays - they used to go rusty! - and then went off to the Black-and-White milk-bar in Fleet Street because it was open all night, with £5 to our names and hoping we'd sell something on Monday morning.

CELEBRATING 50yrs

Betty interviewed by Suki

Our first regular TV customer was an American who lived here and ran a club in Hoxton, a bit like the WayOut Club now, but this was back in the 50's when it was still very much taboo. He asked me to do the cabaret - before window-dressing I'd studied piano at the London College of Music - but I didn't want to work nights as well. I used to let him borrow bundles of clothes to dress his cabaret and then TV's from the club started coming to the shop. We found them easy and pleasant to deal with - they were often much more appreciative than many of our women customers!

The second shop was opened in Lea Bridge Road in 1955, then Trafalgar Square, Leather Lane and Baker Street. The original City Road and Trafalgar Square shops were both very popular with TV's who had to keep their cross-dressing secret coming in during lunch-time or after work. Site redevelopment and big rent increases eventually shut the other four shops, but we're still open at Lea Bridge Road and in our 50th year we're thinking of staying!

Larger sizes were easier to find back then; there were many more local manufacturers either doing larger sizes or willing to make things to order. Now we have had to find sources from around the world.

We began a busy mail-order service some years ago which later progressed to include an extensive and popular web shop now totally overhauled and can be found at

web shop or call

0208 539 4578 mail order

Still many of our customers prefer to visit the shop in person from all over the world. One comes from Australia every 6 months to visit relatives - and Doreens. We're happy to welcome customers who come dressed, but we are equally happy to let others spend some time in an unhurried way to get their own look right.

The success of our website is our current concern. Once it is running well, I'm going to look for a producer for the musical I've written - it's set in a dress shop of course !

London has an exciting new Shop and Dressing Service - just recently opened called Adam & Eve. We were keen to give them a try and we were not disappointed!

ADAM & EVE - A new service in London reviewed by Andrea

Adam & Eve have just opened their shop not far from the City / Liverpool Street areas of London. Located at the junction of Bethnal Green Road and Brick Lane, their discreet entrance door leads down to a marvellously furbished shop, make up, change and stay facility. The friendly, informal atmosphere that Angela has created immediately strikes you.

On this visit I opted for make-up only - However at a future date I would love to explore their very extensive wardrobe that would clearly suite any "girl" who wanted to stay with them all day.

Although in my case they knew in advance that I would be coming - their aim is to provide a service where no appointment is necessary - and what's more they intend to have a party evening once a week from 8.00 to 11.00pm.

As I intended to venture out - I had brought all my own clothes - but I must say some of their new underwear, shoes and wigs in their shop were very tempting! I will soon be back to see the range of designer clothing at outlet prices that is about to arrive

There is an extensively mirrored main gallery and seating area which is, at the centre of the facility from which leads the make-up, changing and wardrobe rooms. Angela is keen to point out that this configuration means that any "girl" staying for the day can socialise with the staff and other visitors and feel part of the set up and action.

There is no "hard sell" here, their attitude being very much for clients to enjoy the moment!

My make-up was excellently applied and I was more than pleased with the results. It is Angela's intention that once a clientele base is built up - that she will start arranging one to one and group escorted trips for shopping, lunch, afternoon tea, dinners and clubs.

LADYBOYS OF BANGKOK

On tour in the UK

by Donna Gee

THEY'RE young, gorgeous and unbelievably feminine. So it was absolutely no surprise that Manchester's red-blooded males were utterly turned on by the bevy of transsexual Thai beauties who took the Lowry Centre by storm this summer.

The Ladyboys of Bangkok - World Tour 2003 visited Brighton before coming to Manchester and then on to Edinburgh. The cabaret show has been a smash-hit here in the UK since Cheshire promoter Phillip Gandey first brought them to the Edinburgh Festival five years ago. Mr Gandey assured me when I went backstage to meet the girls that there will be yet another UK tour next year - and plans to launch them in Germany and other parts of Europe.

However when the Ladyboys show was first brought to Edinburgh five years ago, the Church of Scotland said 'Ban them'.

Ticket sales were terrible. Now it's absolutely packed... we are virtually sold out already for the entire festival this year.

The tour continues to re-educate the public about transgenderism. The show is billed as transvestite entertainment - and to a degree it is. But it also portrays the respectable side of transsexuality - the fact that gender-dysphoric boys really can become, beautiful girls.

There is a drag-show element to some of the comedy routines, but most of the 22-strong troupe are fulltime girls...and have been since pre-puberty or their early teens.

I didn't ask how many have had SRS, but I find it difficult to believe that Farida, Sonia, Vivienne and a few of the others ever had male attachments - never mind still have!

The show itself is a spectacularly colourful pageant of colour in which the cast prove they are as accomplished dancers and entertainers as they are stunningly beautiful. It is also very much a show for all the family - indeed, my 12 and seven-year-old granddaughters (yes, I was a child bride!) thought it brilliant. I just found it sad that more children didn't go, because there was nothing sordid or freakish about the show and it held my little ones spellbound. The song-and-dance routines were slick and professional, the choreography superbly arranged. Much of the music was predictable, given the theme - routines set around classics like Man I Feel Like a Woman and I Am What I Am, for example. There was also tributes to female icons like Kylie Minogue, Gloria Gaynor and Sophie Ellis-Bextor. And an emotional rendition of My Way, in which the show's compere Mr Sak divests himself regrettfully from glamorous woman to his true self, left me and most of the predominantly-female audience in tears.

Mr Sak is one of the few cast members who are happy to remain in their birth gender. In fluent English, the cheery former clerk told me: "I don't feel the need to change. I am happy to be a gay man." His only regret was that, with a heavy six-day-a-week work schedule, he didn't have time to visit the Gay Village during his stay.

Language limitations prevented me delving as deeply as I would have liked into the lifestyles of the fulltime girls, most of whom are practising Buddhists. But tour manager Adul Wongmanee, whose Mambo enterprise employs 98 ladyboys in Bangkok, told me:

"At one time, no-one used to look after the katoey (ladyboys) but now many of them have good respectable jobs, like teachers, hairdressers - even sports celebrities, like the champion kick boxer who changed sex".

"There are downsides, however, like having to go into the army as men - and being unable to change passports under Thai law. All 22 people in our party travel on male passports, though many of them have lived as girls for many years".

"In the army, the katoey don't do active service, mainly office work with other girls. And there is no problem with clothing as men and women wear the same uniforms - and no-one asks questions about underwear!"

Mr Adul, as he is known, has already taken his Mambo girls to China, Japan and Singapore, as well as to the UK and Ireland. He makes a point of trying to change 50 per cent of the cast each year, in order to give other entertainers from the cabaret a chance to travel abroad.

"As for Manchester, it has been great right from the start. It appears they've not had real cabaret here for so many years that it has been a revelation to the diverse audiences"

Mr Gandey's one disappointment is that the show has yet to take off elsewhere in the West. "I've had promoters over from Holland and South Africa who have been knocked out by the Ladyboys," he said. "They've gone away raving" and then not followed it up.

"Something is still holding them back, so it looks like I will probably do it myself - and I think Germany is likely to be the next country we take the show to. After all, it has such a great history of cabaret."

Meantime, another run at Manchester's Lowry Centre is very much on the cards for next summer. So Mr Sak, if you still want a look around the Gay Village, I will be free to give you a grand tour ...

For these 'girls' - Image Works

Man I Feel Like a Woman

Alison Jones

has progressed from being a very closeted crossdresser to a very happy go lucky t-girl about town. Her warm and friendly personality makes people smile wherever she goes. A regular at the Philbeach Hotel in Earl's Court or out to lunch with the girls at Harvey Nichols she know how to enjoy herself. She also enjoys kite surfing en femme and since treating herself to a Porshe she can be seen zipping around the British countryside with the top down and hair blowing in the wind (sadly she has to pull over occasionally to run back and pick it up).

Annie Olsen

is a Texan crossdresser who admits to only dressing two or three times a year, but when she does, she likes to do it in style, as in this photoshoot when she crossed the ocean to have a session with us here at Image Works. Tall and willowy and a devotee of sexy glamour she is blessed with a loving and supportive wife....doesn't she look great.

★ Royal Ascot

week has long been an important event in the summer diary of any well connected lady. The Queen for one has never missed a day whatever "horribulus" might be pressing on her shoulders.

Royal Ascot week has also become a wonderful event in any well connected trannies diary. A number of individuals and groups of trannies visited this year to enjoy the fashion the alternative atmosphere of the social picnic and to have a flutter (of eyelids if not of fivers). All reported an ever warmer welcome from the lads and lasses. In fact for some after eight years they were greeted by previous acquaintances like old friends. The Boudoir "fielded" a particularly fine batch of fillies (in frillys).

I must mention that the mad tranny witch who was attention seeking by sitting on the race course (until escorted off by security) and then went round poking her ugly mush into various camera lenses, hardly represents our readers good taste and decorum and is not known to Utterly FABULOUS - thank god.

Royal Ascot & My Fair Lady

★ My Fair Lady matinee trip

Possibly inspired by their day at Ascot, ("Come on Dover move your blooming arse"), Jodie arranged a trip just a week later to see a matinee performance of 'My Fair Lady' in London's West End followed by a sunny evening meal at (long time tranny favourite) Steph's Restaurant in Soho.

The WayOut Club's Miss Sarah Lloyd joined the party. Sarah "lives" for theatre and said "despite being disappointed not to see Martine McCutcheon I found the show spectacular due mainly to the clever staging of props scenery and of course costumes" Jodie, Sarah and all the 'gurls' highly recommend seeing this show while it is still in London.

The Boudoir arrange all sorts of events

is one of many students who contact WayOut but none have made the impression that she made. For her MA in television documentary at Goldsmiths college she recorded hours of rehearsals, photo shoots, shows. After winning our confidence, she shot extensive interviews. Steffan and family attended an emotional College screening and Vicky Lee hosted a second equally emotional screening at her home for family and friends. The 26min documentary is OUTSTANDING and has already been nominated for the Royal Television Society Students Award. YOU are invited to a screening of the documentary at The WayOut Club 23rd August at 10pm.

★ Krystyna

(formerly of Cheshire) has moved home and her

Dressing Service to Wales, to what she calls her "Secret House and Enchanted Cottage". Krystyna is working with Martine at Repartee magazine to create some special events at the beautiful location.

★ Nikki & Debbie

gently twisted Steffan & Vicky's arms to join them in creating a float for Gay Pride 2003. The trannygrange.com and thewayoutclub.com float was part of the largest parade that London has ever seen, for the first time passing through all the major tourist and political landmarks. The event was marked by approx 24 openly gay Metropolitan police in uniform leading the parade handing out goody bags of well worded friendly advice and fun pressies. Well done the Met and their LGBT advisors.

Thanks are owed to the diverse float team who ALL worked hard to make such fun and memorable day. I know we are all ready to do it again (bigger & better) next year.

Eau natural

For the natural look keep colours very soft and natural. Simple shiny hair, natural look nails and a good natural lip colour such as Clinique nude. The key to achieving this is to remember less is definitely more and if you want to be completely natural go naked (but you will have to do one hell of a tucking job).

City Business Woman

My advice for this look is to think business woman rather than office girl. Keep base make-up fairly natural but strengthen the colours on the eyes and mouth. Hair should be more structured, an updo is perfect. Accessories should be few but bold. Clothes should be crisp and tailored, black, gray and red are excellent colour choices. And don't forget, an essential to complete this ensemble is a great pair of stylish shoes.

Going for Glamour

Go for glamour if you wish to turn heads, so shiny fabrics are a good choice. Hair becomes more elaborate and bigger, jewellery should sparkle a lot, high heels, long nails and stunning gowns are a must. Use strong colours, metallics, glosses and even a little glitter to make your face shine. And remember, if you're going to go for glamour ...just go for it!

Life's a Drag

There is only one rule here and this is ..there are no rules! The more outrageous the better, drag queens often get the warmest reception despite sometimes looking scary because people love anything over the top. So remember, keep it big and over the top and don't be scared, it can be a huge amount of fun!

HOUSE OF DRAG NEWS

Firstly we would like to take this opportunity to apologise for any inconvenience due to our website being off-line at present, due to circumstances beyond our control. While off-line our website will be undergoing a make-over. This however does not effect Club Nights that are going from strength to strength. House of Drag is open every Wednesday 9pm till 2am, doors close at midnight with weekly Cabaret with Steffan and guests.

House of Drag are pleased to announce our new line up of weekly club promotions.

HOUSE OF DRAG Diary

1st Wednesday of every month House of Drag presents "Muse" with the fabulous Dee Channelle & Penny Richards with the oriental Musettes.

2nd Wednesday of every month House of Drag presents "Sophisticated Brazil" a latin orientated night for the Brazilian set with Cocktails and Cabaret to suit. Co-hosted by the beautiful Miss Priscilla Principle - Utterly Fabulous Cover Girl Issue 3.

3rd Wednesday of every month House of Drag presents Silks with the outrageous Mrs Silk and her Maids. Cabaret as usual with Steffan and guests. A night of pure indulgence.

4th Wednesday of every month House of Drag presents "STEFFORAS" hosted by Steffan and Miss Pandora De Pledge. FREE "Steffora" Cocktails 9 - 10pm for paying guests only. Cabaret as usual.

HOUSE OF DRAG ONCE AGAIN ON STAGE AT PRESTIGIOUS G.A.Y

Following drag support for Gerry Halliwell, Kelly Osbourne and Ashley Hamilton in April a team was requested to bring the video of 'I'd rather do it with Madonna' to life performed live with Ozzy rock band 'The Androids'. House of Drag was approached once again in July to be part of the launch of the DVD & Video of Chicago the movie. 1000's of queens screamed their tits off at the launch held at G.A.Y with Steffan and Miss Sarah Lloyd singing 'All that Jazz' along with the dance troupe of the west end stage cast and Amy Field under-study for 'Roxy'.

MISS HOUSE OF DRAG 2003

I have been doing Alternative Miss London for over ten years now and feel there is always room for yet another beauty pageant on our scene, so on Wednesday 10th December 2003 we shall be holding annually - Miss House of Drag. All contestants unlike Alternative Miss London will have to perform a three minute number live or play-back (mime). There will be lots of prizes and fun to be had. The winner will receive not only cash but have the chance to appear on the Cover of this Magazine early next year. Just remember girls ..."Glamour is your passport - you were born naked, the rest is Drag..."

DRAG DIVA - Stephanie Starlet

YOU HAVE JUST PREPARED A NEW SHOW, WHERE CAN OUR READERS SEE IT?

Well I'm still deciding dates and venues for my one woman show. The problem is I keep coming up with new ideas and keep adding to it. I'm gonna have to draw the line, no matter what, so I can get the show on the road. I performed an extract from the show at the WayOut Club a few weeks ago. I sang my song 'country girl' in the character I have called 'Baby Sue', (a lovable trailer-trash slut). Next time the show will include 'Baby Sue's abduction', a song about alien abduction, it's very funny, I'm trying to get a necklaces of little jars with tiny pickled turds manufactured to sell at the shows, along with her book 'Baby Sue- An abduction', as explained in the song the aliens pickle her turds. See the show at The WayOut Club on 20th Sept 03

I HAVE HEARD ONE OF THE NEW NUMBERS AND ITS REALLY GOOD - AND FUNNY - IS THE WHOLE SHOW LIVE AND HOW MUCH MORE IS ORIGINAL MATERIAL?

Most of the show is completely original material some songs are famous tunes with very different and sometimes rude lyrics a lot of stand up comedy and lots of glamour of course tons of character and costume changes, a lot of hard work .

YOU'RE BRIGHTON BASED - WHAT'S NEW AROUND YOU ?

Yes I'm based in Brighton, what's new around me is? Well I just finished an eight year relationship so I am single again. I am DJing all around town but I'm looking for a good new DJ residency as I've just finished one. I am still the reigning 'Miss Alternative Brighton' but I hand over my crown to this year's winner in a month or so.

TELL US ABOUT THE TELEVISION SHOW THAT YOU HOSTED - IS THERE MORE IN THE PIPELINE?

There's talk of the second series of 'Out of the Closet' on Gay UK-TV, to be filmed in September, I hope this happens cos I had such fun on the first series. I am in talks for a television pilot show called 'Sexual Ambassador' where

I report on the sex industry around the world and there is talk of me going to the Playboy mansion to interview Hugh Heffner. That would be cool, maybe he'll sign me, (or Baby Sue), up for a shoot ha ha.

STEFFAN IS ALWAYS TELLING US OF YOUR LONG FRIENDSHIP DISH THE DIRT - HOW, WHERE, WHEN AND WHAT WAS SHE LIKE?

Steffan (Miss Whitfield) is a very old friend. So old I'd never admit it cos it would give my age away. She has always been a performer as long as I've known her. When she was a chick she used to look like Brooke Shields and was giving glamour as Marilyn and she was in every pop video going. We were arrested together once for squatting in a luxury flat in Edgware road. I got her to come back one night and we were thrown in the paddy wagon the next morning, it's a long story, but there was a crowd watching outside the tube station and as Miss W got in the wagon she turned to them and in her breathiest Marilyn voice said NO PHOTOS PLEASE holding her hands up as if to shield the flash bulbs. I don't think the police knew what to do with us in Paddington. We were released about five hours later and went to McDonalds to discuss the ordeal I don't think she ever forgave me. We have very similar lives that almost run parallel me in Brighton her in the smoke, but she does get her ass down to the splendour of Brighton now and again. Personally I couldn't bare to live in London again having tasted Brighton, Work and clubs in London are ok but not to live, I have to be near the water. I feel more free in Brighton it is so liberal, it's fabulous and as I work in straight and gay venues it feels like one big family.

SISTERS OF PERPETUAL GOSSIP

Liverpool has seen a huge rejuvenation. The city centre has been transformed. In the past couple of years there has also been a renaissance of "Drag Clubbing" in Liverpool at 'Garlands' the 'G-Bar', and 'Masquerade'. There are plans to pedestrianize Stanley Street Liverpool's gay area for bars and clubs like 'The Lisbon', 'Paco's' and 'The Porthole' (which is undergoing a huge refurb as I write)...

My recent week in Liverpool was spent in a stretch limo dressed as Dorothy from the Wizard of OZ along with Daniella Mantrap, Ashely, Davina Diamond and Tracy Wilder invites around the Merseyside and Manchester regions to launch Stanley Streets latest addition the new 'Superstar Boudoir'

Promoter, tranny DJ Tracy Wilder (once a star in Brookside), has hatched this colourful new venue. Tracy has placed a lot of importance on the word "Superstar" to give clubbers something different on the gay, drag, tranny scene. Tracy is visibly at the helm spinning the decks and hosting the party. She draws in crowds of dedicated followers. The staff are "drag superstars" too with Tanya (ex Madame JoJo's), Ashely who is Liverpool's answer to the late

'Transformer' and Danny who is a newcomer and Madonna and M Munroe lookalike.

The opening night which was Friday the 4th July was a big success with a queue running up Stanley street and a huge searchlight beaming into the night sky. The launch party show featured a female opera singer, Daniella doing Cher, Danny doing Madonna and me doing Liza Minelli

Saturday night is now set as the main tranny night. Help is at hand for girls and boys who want to be girls wanting to have make-overs as Julie Fawcet, who is renowned on the drag scene and for being a cover model for Transformation and Transliving magazines, sets up her stall at the venue.

On Friday nights the well loved 'PopTastic' is now in residence at the Superstar Boudoir and the venue has been approached by London's Transmission and Roses Repartee magazine to host nights there

I have to admit I was a little sad to be leaving Liverpool after such a hectic and busy week but The WayOut Club was calling.

Why not book yourself an Apex direct and a cheap hotel in the city centre and take yourself up for a cultural experience in a city where everything is very laid back and friendly.

Sarah Lloyd

A DAY WITH ... RICHARD O'BRIEN

by Pandora De Pledge

Richard and I had only met a couple of times socially so I was looking forward to spending a day with the legendary character behind the Rocky Horror Show, host of The Crystal Maze and character actor in too many movies to mention. He has played alongside the likes of Angelica Houston, Susan Sarandon, Timothy Dalton, Max Von Sydow and Drew Barrymore to name only a few. And has recently appeared as the child catcher in Chitty Chitty Bang Bang.

When our trusty driver Julia arrived with Richard he was wearing a long length outfit in shades of grey and cream. Many people would have jumped to the conclusion 'dress' but I immediately felt the outfit had much more to do with comfort, flow, softness and the simple premise that it felt nice to wear rather than being hung up on the fact that the bottom of the outfit was not broken in to two legs, rather than being left as a single tube of fabric which is far more comfortable. Isn't it amazing how hung up people get over the omission of two extra seams!

"If more men were to be allowed by society, their families and partners to dress and express, they would be better, happier people for all concerned."

After refreshments and nibbles we had a chat about what we were going to do with the shoot and both felt anything too 'drag' really wasn't right. Instead we decided that showing the beauty of Richard's feminine side was the way to go. Richard is a person who not only accepts his feminine side but embraces it as a source of strength pointing out that, "If more men were to be allowed by society, their families and partners to dress and express, they would be better, happier, people for all concerned." Richard also made the point that there are many forms of "drag" such as dressing in uniforms, (Police, Military and Nursing for example). Such people are often driven, partly by the garments worn, to express a facet of their personality and to be who they wish to be. I found this fascinating because my dear friend Steffan Whitfield has often said, "We are all born naked, everything after that is drag."

We chose a varied selection of clothes and accessories for the shoot and then began the make-up. It's no secret that Richard is 61 years old but he has the skin of a person at least 20 years younger and beautiful clear blue eyes that sparkle like a naughty child. Richard was complaining that he felt his jaw-line could be firmer but due to a lack of hair a surgeon, he had spoken to, felt it impossible to hide the scars that cosmetic surgery would leave. Steffan, (who was helping with the shoot), and I told him he didn't need surgery. But we all came to the conclusion that some surgeons would graft a breast on your forehead if the price was right. So let that be a warning to us all !

Market Place of Services

When I showed Richard his completed make-up and hair I was very flattered to be told, "I think this is the best I've looked.... EVER !"

I couldn't help thinking that 'she' looked rather like Alana Stewart (Rod Stewart's ex-wife) when a moment later Richard exclaimed, "I look a little like a rock star's ex-wife!" Luckily not Courtney Love!

We began shooting with various images and it was interesting to note that Richard was only uncomfortable with the image that required padded hips and bottom and rather obvious boobs, (we were going for a kind of Veronica Lake sort of thing - shown here with red background). Richard felt it was too "unnatural", something I could well relate to, because during my own personal journey I have never used fake boobs, etc because they served almost as a reminder of what I didn't have.

The most laughter and smiles came when we were ready to shoot the 'fairy' pictures that you can see on the cover of this issue of Utterly FABULOUS.

As many of you may know, the theme for this years 'Transfandango' event is 'Fairy Tale Fantasy'. This event, now in it's second year, was brought together by Richard to raise money for Manchester Children's Hospital via The Wallness Children's Charity and as a proud parent of three children this is a charity very close to Richard's heart.

We shot many pictures as Richard effortlessly went from pose to pose giving any fairy godmother a run for her money.

Some of the pictures from the shoot are to be personally autographed and sold with proceeds going to the Transfandango event and the Wallness Children's Charity.

Shooting over and safely back at my home we shared a drink and generally chatted about anything and nothing. This part of the day was off the record but ... I was left feeling that here was a person who was a strong individual who had seen and experienced a great deal, some very good, some very bad. An individual who has great empathy for people in the TG community because they too have suffered the prejudice of others, simply for "not quite being the same as everybody else".

Well thank God, because without those differences Richard O'Brien would not be the gentle, cultured and funny person we all know and love. For all the good work you do and our day together, I thank you.

Vive le difference !
