IMPORTANT NEWS ABOUT THIS MAGAZINE

Utterly FABULOUS magazine will still remain available FREE TO COLLECT but we require a subscription to continue posting a copy directly to you. Over 4 issues we have been flooded with praise and encouragement for Utterly FABULOUS magazine - but I am sad to say that this is the last edition that will be posted to over 4,000 of you for free. The economics of the magazine just does not allow us to continue to do that. We hope you will agree that a subscription of £7.95 to receive a minimum of 3 copies over 12 months is a small price to pay to keep in touch and enjoy the stories and images.

Our aim is to increase the number of pages and advertiser input to steadily increase the value for money... (Details of how to subscribe are on page 5)

Utterly FABULOUS will still remain available FREE TO COLLECT from The WayOut Club, your local bar, club, shop or service. (if not stocked please make sure we know - as we will add them to our distribution list).

It is also available FREE to look at or print out from the internet as a PDF.

ALTERNATIVE MISS LONDON This years contest was awesome. The choice of the judges for the most stylish, confident, beautiful, model-like entry was Miss Rossita who burst into tears at the news. So many people were thrilled with the result as she is a much loved 'girl'.

This year we added a new prize category for best costume which Miss Giselle deservedly won for both 1st and 2nd costume prize. We feature both of these winners in this edition of your favourite magazine. Many have said that this contest has outgrown our venue and we are considering the next one in a bigger venue on a Friday night in October. What do you think? Let us know..

TRANSFANDANGO RAISED £25,000 Mr Richard O'Brien sends his thanks to all of you who made this years event such a success. You may remember we raised £35,000 last year but £15,000 of that was a single contribution by actor Jay Wheddon. So this year we really made £5,000 more despite the unfortunate cancellation of the afternoon event. Everything else about the event was even better than the previous year and now we are considering how to improve it further. Follow the links from the website to see many pictures of the event.

WAYOUT HOME VIDEOS NOW ALSO ON DVD

The advantages of a DVD are that you get instant access to scenes and chapters on the disc and the durability of the product. Now our home videos with up to two hours of WayOut shows and events on each edition are available on DVD. We are introducing these at the same price as the video version. Our DVDs will play on 90% of players and DVD computers but if your machine proves incompatible, (it does happen), WayOut Publishing will, on return of the disc, exchange the DVD version for a video version. (see page 4)

NEW 'IMAGE WORKS' SERVICES Pandora is introducing a range of products on a new web shop on her site. Only on this shop can you find her unique range of custom wigs that can be ordered finished or can be collected with a custom cut and style on your head to produce a unique wig that is yours and yours alone www.pandoradepledge.com.

THANKS TO TRANNYGRANGE This final Transfandango picture features two people owed with much thanks. to Nikki and partner Debby who have supported so many activities this year in addition to their own Trannygrange trips and events. It was them who twisted the WayOut arm and recruited such a good team to create a float to represent transgendered people and friends in London Pride. Thanks you two and good luck with 'The Palms' at Tranny Cove the Cornish get away. Check out their web site for pictures of all their adventures and future plans. www.trannygrange.com

WAYOUT RESTAURANT XMAS MENU & PARTY BOOKINGS

Everyone that has tried the WayOut Restaurant has been delighted with the venue the food and the greeting. We will be open with a 3 course Christmas menu with all the trimmings from just £20 (as well as our regular international menu) up until Sat Dec 20th

To ensure a table we do require a booking 07778 157 290.

However the restaurant has not attracted the level of interest that can maintain the running cost...

So after this date the restaurant will still be available - but only for a pre booked party of minimum 10 people. (see advert for details page 15) www.wayout-publishing.com/restaurant.htm.

Girl Talk - (Magazine) NEW

From the West Coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most glossy photo shoots on the tranny scene in a VERY professional Hollywood stylee. The models are great, the advice from make-up artists and stylists is excellent. The reports on the USA scene are fun and enlightening. This is a great magazine to collect and it's all good clean fun.

9 editions in stock volume
3no3 - 4no1 - 4no2 - 4no3 - 4no4 -
4no5 - 4no6 - 5no1 - 5no2

NEW Sex, Gender & Sexuality

(book) By Dr Tracey O'Keefe edited by her partner Katrina Fox. Tracy is a well respected Psychotherapist and Clinical hypnotherapist. She writes a readable book providing a good mix of scientific, personal experience and interviews with others. For those studying or experiencing or those just plain trying to get your head round gender, sex and sexuality this book is an excellent place to start.

NEW The Third Sex (book)

The 'kathoei' phenomenon has been part of Thai culture for generations, it is the subject of a fascinating new book by Dr Richard Totman, a prize research fellow at Oxford University's Nuffield and a widely-travelled theatre director. He became probably the first "farang" (Thai for Westerner) to infiltrate the mysterious world of the ladyboys. He lived for months with kathoei girls and their families, learnt the language and spent much of his time talking to dozens of them and sharing their unique lifestyle.

GINA The Woman Within

(book) This book relates Gina Large's traumatic and very reluctant transgender journey. Giving a powerful insight into the suffering of gender dysphoria. It's a truly remarkable story and a wake-up call to society.

Crossing The Line (book)

Photographer Sarah Davidmann presents her record of images that appear to exist somewhere between the polarities of male and female. Hard back book that reflects the visions and characters present on the London scene at the beginning of the new Millennium, including many who frequented The WayOut Club.

The Transgender Underground (book)

This book exposes the real lives, opinions and sexual orientation of over a dozen members of the 'third sex'. Multi media artist, German born Claudia Andrei studied and frequented Ron Storme's at Stepney during his last year interviewing many of the regulars. You may well have met the people featured or indeed be the people featured. A wonderful snap shot of this period in time.

The Tranny Guide For Your TV (video)

Cross-Dressing How? Why? Where? Based on the advice in the Tranny Guide. This video sets out to put it all on to your television screen. Through this video you can see the 'girls', chat in the dressing room. You can visit dressing services, shops, clubs and partners at home. Then in the studio, presenter Laura asks Vicky one more question ... "Tranny Sex - Can we talk?"

ModernTV (the video) A professional video to follow on from the TG video. Interviews with a range of cross-dressers plus a visit to a shoe shop and a private TV party. Interspersed with some sexy (but not too explicit) interludes.

WayOut 'Home' Videos A series of collectible videos with video shot 'live' at The WayOut Club. Each tape has a variety of Shows, Competitions and Events featuring competitors, performers and 'The WayOut Girls' PLUS Bonus Clips from our Library of events outside The WayOut Club 7 editions now available

"Invaluable for those of us who can not visit the club regularly" Betty

"I love watching the tapes over and over remembering my very special night" Lucy

LATEST 7th WayOut 'Home' Videos

or DVD NEW

The 7th home video featuring Alternative Miss London contest 2002 with backstage preparation. Also The Drag Olympics 2002 PLUS FREE BONUS The Transfandango Event a video summary.

HIDE & SLEEK's FABULOUS MISS TV SCOTLAND WEEKEND

by Miss Jodie Lynn

Lorraine Walker and her partner Louise started a company called Hide & Slek some years ago, offering everything from made to measure clothes right through to a dressing service and of course this annual event.

My team including Miss Nas and my mum Maureen and I took 8 gurls flying with BA to Edinburgh, there we were met by Louise (in boy mode) with 2 immaculately uniformed chauffeurs complete with peak caps, holding a big sign saying "The Boudoir". What a lovely touch!!

At The King Malcom Hotel there were already numerous trannies milling around the reception area, enjoying the opportunity to be dressed for the complete weekend. The hotel staff could not have been more pleasant, respectful and helpful.

The Friday 'Ice Breaker Party' helped everybody mingle. My clients agreed that the Scottish tranny population are incredibly nice people. A buffet was followed by the Hide & Slek fashion show showing Lorraine's new Collection of 'Made to Measure' designs. There was a very funny comedy section in the show on fashion faux pas's, like breast forms showing above low cut dresses and stockings and suspenders showing beneath short skirts. After the show we all bopped away on the dance floor till late.

Next day after a shopping trip all of my clients entered the evenings Miss TV Scotland beauty pageant. With all our makeovers done and all our gurls looking fantastic. The nervous tension in the air was electric. The winner of the over 50's category was announced. A tall, red-haired gurl from Scotland called Diane.

Then 'Miss TV Scotland' winners were announced - In third place was a very pretty gurl from Glasgow called Emma White. In second place was a gurl in an amazing corset called Zazoo. Then the winner was finally introduced. "The winner of Miss TV Scotland 2003 is from London..... Miss Sarah Gray!!!!". My gurls, Nas, my mum and I all erupted with cheers, whistles and every other form of celebratory noise possible.

Sarah later said to me "I've only been dressing properly for less than a year...I've done so much in that time!!". It really did mean so much to her to win this prize. I was so thrilled for her. All of the other Boudettes were thrilled for Sarah and celebrated way into the early hours of the morning with her.

The nicest thing about this weekend, was the way the Scottish people treated us. We were made to feel so welcome and comfortable. Lorraine and Louise are both absolute diamonds and I want to thank them from the bottom of my heart for everything that they did for us. We look forward to seeing them again next year.

To learn more about Hide & Slek's, services and to see pictures from four years of the event try Lorraine and Louise's web site www.hideandslek.co.uk

Jodie and her team at the Boudoir arrange a wide range of trips and events in addition to a full dressing service. Keep up to date at www.theboudoironline.com and the new site by Beth featuring the girls pictures detailing their adventures www.boudettes.com.

You can read a much more detailed version of this report with more pictures in the next edition of The Tranny Guide 'The WayOut World' scheduled for April 04

HEDWIG COMING TO BRIGHTON APRIL 2004

The multi award winning transgendered rock musical 'Hedwig and the Angry Inch' is coming to the Brighton Festival in April 2004 for its UK premiere. It rocks, it tells a story it is 'Hedwig and the Angry Inch'. Hedwig isn't so much a traditional musical theatre piece as a kick-ass, 90-minute rock concert coupled with a storyline that doubles as a standup comedy routine. Hedwig is the victim of a botched sex-change operation that has left her with little more than "an angry inch." Her heart-breaking search for identity "You have to give up something to get something" provides a resonance beyond the loud blond wig and louder rock score. Hedwig started at Don Hill's Squeezebox in 1994 but John Cameron Mitchell and Stephen Trask soon realised that they needed to do the show as a show piece rather than a band gig. It was also quickly realised that Hedwig and the Angry Inch could not be in a normal theatre. Then one of John's friends recommended a hotel down by the river (Hotel Riverview) as a space for the show. The result, after buying the space and transforming the hotel was the 'Jane Street Theatre'. It became the perfect home for Hedwig.

Across the United States this show has been a wonderful vehicle for tearing down some of the prejudice & barriers attached to the transgendered arena as has the 2001 movie adaptation worldwide. Get to know Hedwig rent the video. Buy the CD.

Hedwig starts with a preview at Brighthelm Community Centre, North Road, Brighton, E.Sussex Friday 30th April 2004. Opening night is Saturday 1st May then 4th-8th & 10th-15th. The show starts at 8pm. Ticket Prices range from £8-£14 and will be available from early 2004 at the festival box office 01273-709709 and through the website www.hedwigandtheangryinch.co.uk

EROTICA 2003 by Andrea

Another self-imposed assignment (well one of us Girls has to do it) was to cover the recent Erotica fair at Olympia. With over 25,000 visitors expected, it was going to be a daunting task for any girl. Our game plan was to go early on the first day which allowed us to visit the stands, interview and fire off some photos before the crowds became a little too overwhelming.

Fun – Well it was obvious that there was going to be a proliferation of scantily clad girls (and boys!), so not to be too out done I opted for a black leather mini and 6" stilettos. With our press passes around our necks, myself and my photographer Don Allen ventured around the various trades and "other" stands.

Just before the first (of many no doubt) stage shows we came across two of the Boys from "The Fantasy Boys" - would I like to go backstage and meet all of these topless hunks! – Well what "girl" could resist – but hey! – I had a job to do here – "sorry lads – maybe later". After a pose with my two perfect gentlemen and another with the dancers from the welcoming team Don had spotted, we set off to find some suppliers and stands that would be of interest to us girls and our Lavender Pound.

Favourites – Many of the displays and stands were familiar favourites; none more so than the lads from Divine Shoes (WJ Brookes) – Steve and Stan who are always welcoming to all "girls" and who supply sizes and wicked heels that suit our needs. Their stand also featured a number of Sale Items that's always nice to find.

As to be expected there was a great number of leather and PVC clothing outlets – but for us Midnight Fashions topped our list when we found Sizes up to 18 on their stand. Definitely sizes that are suited to many of us "girls" – and not just "stick insects".

Others known to us through the invaluable Tranny Guide Listings included Facefacts who are known for their wonderful wigs, Michelle Fashions – a little bit of everything daring, Fantasy Shoes, Ultimate Shoes and Miss Behaviour.

We also came across Modamerica clothes from Italy who we met at the London Edge fashion fair which featured in an earlier edition of Utterly Fabulous.

Finds – As well as meeting old friends, one of the main purposes of reporting on such an event like this – is to find some new services, contacts and suppliers that maybe up until now are unaware of our "girl" market and the Lavender pound.

Amidst the many PVC and leather outlets was Lovebomb, who specialised in that clingy lycra wet look material. Now I have to say that usually I would pass this material by as for me it shows too many (unwanted) bumps etc. but they had a range of black wet look adorned with designs and reflective foil that caught my eye. For my love of mini skirts this was fine, but what made this stand particularly interesting was that besides the miniscule female tops matching the skirts – there were also matching male tops (know where this leading!) so tops of sizes and styles that could be adapted for our needs. Definitely a future here.

Another find amongst all the lingerie this time – was Bare Essentials that produced tights, body stockings and everything sheer galore in sizes (and prices) that are worthy of a mention. (They have a website for ordering which I have subsequently checked out).

Finally for really upmarket, beautifully decorated (and tight) made to measure corsets we came across Velda Lauder Designs – definitely worth wearing on the outside!

Overall – Erotica was well worth a visit and indeed a recommended day out for any "girl" who can cope with crowds. As to be expected many of the stands had numerous scantily clad models promoting – well almost anything! – But so many looked just so bored – clearly a bit of TGirl competition and fun is needed to spice things up. (Possibly a lead for next years article!).

JOINING THE MILE HIGH CLUB by Jodie Lynn

Miss Terri Amy May decided that she was going to travel home from our Edinburgh weekend dressed. When we arrived at Edinburgh airport and we checked in at The British Airways desk, the check in guy asked to see Terri's passport. I made a bit of a joke to lighten the situation by saying "She doesn't look the same in her passport, she's got shorter hair and she's not wearing any make up." The guy just laughed and took it all in good humour. Terri loved every minute of traveling home on the plane en femme and I just thought "Good on her". She had realised one of her dreams....how many of us can truly say that?

Miss London Winners

Interviewed by Pandora De Pledge

In October 2003 a new queen was crowned

Miss Rositta, is officially the new Alternative Miss London for 2003/2004.

Miss Giselle became the princess in possession of the best gowns. (in actual fact 1st & 2nd place for best costume). Both these girls made an enormous effort and were both very worthy winners. Previous winner Miss Regine graciously abdicated her crown in front of the capacity crowd at The WayOut Club on what must surely be London's most glittering night of the year.

The Image Works team had so much fun with the two glamour goddesses in the studio. We hope you like the pictures and the interview....

Where were you born?

R: In a land far away in a place called Xanadu. Just joking, actually I'm a mix of Dutch, Indonesian and Brazilian (I was born in Brazil and raised in Amsterdam).

G: I was born in Brazil, but I have lived in London for 6 years.

How old are you?

R: I'm 23 in dog years

G: I'm 25 in cat years

How did it feel to win at the Miss London competition?

R: I was thrilled and I could not have been happier.

G: I was happy because Rositta won the first prize I knew it was her dream to win.

What inspired your outfits for Miss London?

R: Beyonce was a large influence with a Far East twist.

G: Paris culture and Hollywood glamour.

How did you find the girls on the night?

R: Less shocked than me when I was announced as the winner.

G: The other girls were friendly and nice and a great mixture of different cultures.

What was the best thing about taking part?

R: I adore being the centre of attention and it does not get much better than this. Also I have always wanted to win a Pandora make-over and photo-shoot at Image Works.

G: Seeing my good friend Rositta winning.

Do you plan to enter the competition in the future?

R: YES definitely I must try to retain my crown.

G: Maybe! It depends on what dresses I have made.

How will you help the Tranny community during your reign?

R: By encouraging good will and free love (but safe love of course) and by opening as many new Blockbuster video stores as I can.

G: To encourage comarardarie and good make-up and dressing.

Who would you say has inspired you most in your life?

R: There are so many it's hard to say, but the women in my family have been a great inspiration, as has Boy George.

G: My Mother Maria Isabel.

And finally what message would you like to give to people reading this?

R: Life is not a rehearsal so be yourself and just enjoy it.

G: You should make people happy.

SISTERS of PERPETUAL Gossip

Icons of Individuality

In August this summer I was pleased to co-host, with my stunning sister Stephanie Starlet, 'Icons of individuality' exhibition at BAG Gallery in Brighton - for our good friend .photographer Frederike De Jonge

Much of her work has been published in (amongst many others) the Tranny Guide, including the covers of the 8th and 9th. This exhibition showed a range of individuals that she has captured with her lense from the famous such as Iggy Pop to Quentin Crisp to the totally unknown behind their Carnival of Venice masks and of course ME.

Frederike says of her work "During the course of the last eight years I have photographed many people who stand out in a crowd. Some famous, some notorious and some infamous.... What I have found is that they are all part of a unique family of individuals who are not always understood by the masses because of that very reason.... They carve and sculpt their various guises from thin air.... Pure artistry. The guises they take on may defy gender but have very little to do with sexual preference. Our sexuality is only a small part of our personal make-up. I have documented this lifestyle in various ways, celebrating and applauding their beauty".

The opening night was a huge success filled to capacity with Brighton's arty farty folk who seemed to be enjoying not only the art but also the wine. £200 was raised for Brighton's Gay Pride fund by auctioning one of miss De Jonge's print. We can't wait for the coffee table book.

Frederike's work can be viewed at www.deadringers.com

DRAG DIVA - Fonda Boyz

We were very lucky to have an Utterly FABULOUS visitor from New Zealand to the UK for five months through the summer of 2003. At home in NZ she is a star and in short time she was with us she won our hearts and became a London DRAG DIVA

WHERE DID YOU GET YOUR FAB NAME ?

When I first started drag as most, even all, Girls do, I was not sure what name to use. It's a hard job coming up with a name that means something to you, and has that 'something special' that puts you out there. So when i started searching for a name I knew it had to have that "x-factor", I searched high and low but no avail. But I remembered when I was a wee little Drag Princess - I saw this amazing movie 'Touch Song Trilogy', It changed my life! Yes it was one of those moments in your life when things start of fit into place, when you feel like you belong, cause you know that there are many more out there doing the same thing. So in tribute to the movie I chose 'Fonda Boyz', a name that's light hearted and fun, but also very straight forward and direct. And that what I am!!

WHAT DID YOU GET UP TO IN LONDON?

My Dear, what didn't I get up to while I was there. I had amazing 5 months. There was the London and Brighton Pride, there was the men, the competitions I entered at 'The WayOut Club', the men, performing at WayOut Club and Trade's 13th Birthday Bash, the men, all the wonderful people I met and last of all I must not forget to mention the MEN ! A big thank you to everyone who made my stay such a memorable one.

HOW DOES THE LONDON DRAG SCENE COMPARE WITH HOME IN NZ?

The first thing that you notice when comparing the two is, London's Drag / Tranny scene is three or even four times the size of Auckland's. But I do have to say that Drag is Drag is Drag all over the world. We are all so similar. Here in Auckland we have two nightclubs that have Drag stage shows. Most of the girls work on a roster basis so we all have a chance to strut our stuff on a stage. We also have two popular drag cabaret restaurants. Both very similar but both very different at the same time, between the two they would employ a total of 15 girls. After the smash hit movie 'Priscilla' Drag just took off here in New Zealand, so we took off and haven't looked back, and for such a small country at the bottom of the world is very amazing. I will tell you much more in a report in Miss Vicky Lee's next Tranny Guide book.

WE HEARD YOU ARE FONDA NEWS READERS WHAT'S THE GOSSIP?

That was an old piece of tabloid gossip. I met up with one television news reader, had a very nice time on a few occasions. Somehow the gossip columnists found out, next thing you know your dirty panties are plastered all over the local GAY newspaper. I didn't mind at all, I love the attention, but the news reader who was not yet out of the closet wasn't to happy about it. He soon got over it and I moved on to bigger and better things like the celeb I am.

ARE YOU PLANNING ANY MORE TRIPS TO THE UK?

I would love to come back again, being there only five months I realised I didn't even scratch the surface, I'm sure there are alot more adventures for me to be had in merry ole England. Then right next door you have the continent...Drag times galour!

With thanks for the main picture to Nikki at
