WELCOME TO Utterly FABULOUS NEWS with editor Vicky LeeLAST EDITION OF THIS MAGAZINE

This is the 7th issue of Utterly FABULOUS. Unfortunately it is the also last edition. The magazine has been very successful for advertisers. Readers have stripped stockists, devouring each issue. However the financial balance between income and production, printing and distribution costs have never balanced and are not improving. Thank you to everyone that has contributed to this magazine. Most especially for the photo features by Pandora De Pledge and the support of my good friend Steffan.

SAD LOSS OF RAY RICE

This magazine was inspired by Ray Rice... Ray passed away on 27-7-04 our thoughts and love is with Chris, his partner and our good friend. Ray believed that, following in the footsteps of other niche communities, and with wide support of advertisers and subscribers, Utterly FABULOUS could become a nationwide FREE magazine bringing awareness of the fabulous transgender lifestyle to the widest range of people possible. Ray inspired, Steffan, Pandora and myself to make it happen. I am very proud of what has been achieved and will treasure my collection for ever. Ray saw 6 issues and the beginnings of the 7th issue I know he was proud to have been our inspiration.

Thank you Ray - Our love will be with you forever.NO WHERE TO GO ON FRIDAY?

If I ever have anyone ask me where they can go for a safe friendly tranny night out on a Friday – I will strangle them. WayOut's WayOut Wine Bar is now closed. (Only the wine bar not the club which goes from strength to strength). The Wine Bar was enjoyed by every one that visited but frankly not enough visited to warrant the bar opening. Well "Use it or Loose it".

'CABARET EXTRAORDINAIRE' at Madame Jo Jo's

On October 6th 2004 House of Drag will be joined by Pure Promotions in launching a joint venture to present 'Cabaret Extraordinaire' at Madame Jo Jo's in Soho. Read more of this new opportunity from Steffan (see page 14). Jo Jo's is the first name that most people associate with London's tranny and drag scene (see page 16 & 17).

NEW TITLES AVAILABLE FROM WAYOUT

The very popular book 'TV & CD Towards and Understanding' has been totally revised, updated and re-released as 'TV & CD Current Views' The updated book has a variety of new well thought out contributions from well qualified writers grouped into - Labels and definitions - In the Closet - The medical bit - Culture history and law - Counselling and support - Coming out. It is now available from WayOut at £10.50. I now have Girl Talk magazine 5.4 and 6.1 with possibly the best photo stories of their kind, shot with all the skills that reside in Hollywood. Available now from WayOut at £9.95 each.

THE WAYOUT CLUB BETTER THAN EVER

Saturday night at The WayOut Club has been particularly tasty over the last few months with a VERY mixed crowd enjoying the freedom to dress as they wish and be who they want to be. It is possible that there is no where as safe and friendly for trannies to experience a MIXED night-club as a visit to The WayOut Club and still at £5 before 11pm and that includes a free drink (£8 if not cross-dressed £10 after 11pm). DJs Gary and Titch deserve special thanks for keeping the dance floor busy all night long - which is no mean feat when trying to keep such a diverse range of ages and backgrounds happy. My special thanks go to Rick and Chrissie, Georgina and Tony for their pictures that reveal stunning images of the shows and visitors to the WayOut Club - (see page 23) and many more at www.thewayoutclub.com

MISS ALTERNATIVE LONDON

October the 16th is the date for this long running contest at The WayOut Club. Many have asked us to find a bigger venue for this event but I can confirm that we will continue the formula that has worked so well for over 12years (with our recent experiences "if it aint broke – don't fix it"). The catwalk and judges will be ready for the first 30 contestants to register on the night. Each contestant needs to have a sophisticated outfit to be followed by a sexy outfit. Over £2000 worth of prizes will be awarded including a holiday from sponsors RESPECT HOLIDAYS (their advert features winner Miss Leah True who has since holidayed for 3 years with RESPECT). The prizes this year will be awarded for 'Most sophisticated costume' and 'Most sexy costume' plus 'Poise, Grace and Presentation' with runner up prizes in each section and an overall prize for Miss Alternative London based on all three categories. The contest is open to all - we aim, in the spirit of Andrew Logan's original "Miss Alternative" contests and similar "Miss Alternative" contests around the world, to just have fun and express ourselves in a creative entertaining way. Get ready Girls.

'MISS' GAY INTERNATIONAL (UK).

In a celebration of the diversity that makes this nation truly a "Great" Britain, eighteen UK residents represented their family heretige for the crown of 'Miss' Gay international (UK). Chanteuse Dee Chanelle hosted the event through catwalks of national costume, club wear, beach wear and Hollywood Premiere attire, nine judges determined the best candidate in each catwalk and ultimately judged the overall winner to be 22 year old, Davina Moore, winner of Channel 5's televised 'Tranny of the Year 2000'. The judges were looking for - beauty, poise, personality and interview presence. There was also an award judged by the contestants themselves, for Miss Congeniality, the winner of this was once more Miss Davina Moore. The venue for the event was a Sunday evening at Equinox in Leicester Square the support from friends and family was heartening and the fun infectious. A portion of the profits was donated to UKLGIG (The UK Lesbian and Gay Immigration Group) and Cruisaid.

Dayna Sanchez, spokeswoman for the 'Miss' Gay International (UK) event said: "We were extremely excited to be able to launch the first event to coincide with London's Gay Pride festival weekend". She explained that contestants for this contest had to be unaided by hormones or surgery - but following the success and the support for the event from TS "sisters" a 'Miss TS International (UK)' contest is now planned for November with the same formula and venue but this time for the "silicone sisters". PROUD TO BE ON THE PRIDE PARADE

This year was the first year that London's Gay Pride March was designated a parade (in the spirit of Sydney Australia), rather than a political protest. This acknowledges from both sides of the issue the political progress that LGBT people have certainly made in recent years - though many would say there is still a lot to do. I for one enjoyed the overwhelming number of approving, smiling people. The Metropolitan police estimated well over 60,000 people came to London just to spectate and there was thousands actually taking part. Thanks again to Debbie and Nikki for twisting WayOut's arm once again to share the float with them. See www.thewayoutclub.com and www.trannygrange.com for more pictures.

TRANSFANDANGO HALOWEEN CHARITY BALL

Plans are finalising for what will be a very wonderful night at the Marriott Hotel London Saturday 30th October. Richard O'Brien writes: "Once again we are dedicated to raising funds which will help send children with cancer related illness back home to the loving embrace of their families - Join us - for just £100, you will be drinking, dining and dancing divinely at the most bewitched Halloween Party in town!" Details of celebrity guests, menu, entertainment, sponsors and prizes will be updated on www.transfandango.co.uk where you can already find pictures and links to reports and pictures from two previous years. Already The Boudoir, The Angels, Roses, Trannygrange and Transmission have booked whole tables of ten. I am celebrating my 50th birthday on the night and I am asking family and friends to join me and spend their money at the ball rather than on anything else thaty might have done for me. Check for links to all those mentioned above to join their tables or book your tickets from the charity on www.transfandango.co.uk or ring Wallness Children's Charity on 0161 737 1203

MISS TG BRIGHTON

A fun night of glamour was held to raise money for the Martlet's Hospice, Sussex by Lacies (Fantasy Girl) in Brighton. The Venue for the competition, near the shop (which provides every tranny need), was the Portland Hotel. Sue Shepherd of Lacies did wonderfully well to get a great new event off the ground inspiring a host of sponsors and the interest of the local mayor and LGBT police unfortunately Richard Branson apologized for being unable to attend, he was out of the country on that night. And Laurence Llewlyn Bowen sent a signed photo but he too was unable to attend. Prizes from a host of companies were libraly distributed to the winners Miss TG Brighton 2004 ... Miss Debonair - Runner up ... Miss Miss Michaela Marbella - Third Place ... Melissa Lilac - Best Costume ... Miss Michaela Marbella - Winner - Miss Mature ... Alison Penn - Miss Best Local ... Stiletto Worthing Best Corset (ah hum) Michaela Marbella

Sue said "We are already planning for next years' event which will be bigger, better and even more fun than the last one. It was a fun night of glamour which raised a good sum of money for the Martlet's Hospice, Sussex" see much more on the web site www.fantasygirl.co.uk/misstgbrighton.htm

BOUDOIR ON THE MOVE

Due to the success that The Boudoir has enjoyed over the last 5 years they have finally outgrown their current premises and are now in the process of moving to a much bigger and better New York style loft apartment. The new premises will have a completely different look but you can trust that Jodie her team and her regular 'Boudettes' will soon infuse it with the friendly, buzzy and glamorous atmosphere that has eartn her such a good reputation. The new Boudoir with 1000sq ft can offer more space to relax in and for The Boudoir team to work in. New facilities include full air-conditioning, bathroom with shower, in house photo studio, all in a discreet location with private off street parking for clients and all just 5 minutes from Seven Sisters Tube. The move will take place at the end of August and more complete details will appear on www.theboudoironline.com

FUN PACKED FREE CDROM

Roses Group and Repartee magazine have produced a promotional CDrom that is well worth sending for - just for the fun packed music video. Sexy "Repartee Regulars" strut, pose and lip-synch through a variety of locations in a homage to the song 'Man I feel like Woman'. The CDrom also has introductions to opportunities offered by the group, their web site and Repartee magazine (The UKs leading tranny lifestyle magazine) plus an introduction to Bella Jay and Martine Rose who bring you all these opportunities. FORUM BITCHING

Pop singer George Michael has closed down the 'fans forum' on his official website because of excessive "bitching" In a post on the forum George said "I find it really sad to see the forum so packed full of negative (subjective) comment - how pointless".

It is has come to my attention that, in various tranny forums, good opportunities suffer extream negativity over what are in fact very subjective matters. I have seen "trails" such as - 'A' - "I havent been" - 'B' - "dont bother I hate it - I wish it would close down" - 'C' - "shame I want go then". Its like silly teenage girls saying "I hate Britney but I love Madonna". However spreading such subjective, negativity, denies everyone else the opportunity to try things out - in fact for some to get 'out' at all. I believe such forums are unbalanced because there are many more bitter, jealous, trannies than there are happy, satisfied trannies that really get about and enjoy themselves. Unlike chat rooms these 'forum trails' are left up for a long time to spread their negativity. These forums are the most destructive thing that I can think of for the transgender scene and are taking us back to the dark ages. I call for moderation and balance in such forums which can fast create, frankly, lies out of all proportion to the truth.

I have always believed in offering positive news of opportunities for everyone to try - If I have nothing good to say - I say nothing. I believe we all have a responsibility to do help the TG scene grow outside as well as on of the computer monitor screen.

Let me Join Bella Jay (of Roses Repartee) by echoing in her own words a call for balance "Diversity is an important part of our community - it is always good to have choice. What we really need are more opportunities to get out, not less and calls for any particular business to close simply because a few people find it not to their particular taste are quite frankly just stupid!"

Lynn Daniels

her own creation

Image Works

Forward by Pandora De'Pledge

Lynn Daniels is a friend of whom I have great affection and respect for. Always sweet natured and a lady, it was great to do the photoshoot with her where she showed incredible patience when after six hours of shooting, we then said, "Strip off Lynn and jump on this box". Ms. Debonair, Titch and myself then spent two hours body painting her to produce the fabulous cover image. She particularly enjoyed having her 'nether regions' painted. I asked her to try and describe her amazing life in a few paragraphs, this is what she has to say!

I started dancing school in Bury near Manchester at the age of eleven, dance examiners used to remark that I should try and dance in a more masculine way. Once my mother commented as a joke, "Maybe you should have been a girl!". At age seventeen I got my break in to show business dancing in Showtime at the Gaiety Theatre in Rhyll. I loved every minute of it, except for the fact of being jealous of the girl dancers and their fabulous costumes. I worked in many other shows and travelled the world, and while dancing in a Revue in Italy the fire eater taught me the skills of working with fire. I moved in to female impersonations and fire eating, getting my first break at The Black Cat in Pescara in Italy. It was when working at Sheraton Hotel in Cairo that the crunch came when I was told that I could not go out dressed after the show because, "You are a man". Immediately I thought, "No one is going to say that to me ever again". I left the show and came home and went to see the gender reassignment specialist at Charing Cross Hospital, he started me on hormone treatment. Six months later I was auditioning as a girl with the fire act touring the country working in a very cleverly cut diamante bikini. I loved it but felt like a fraud and was very nervous. I almost got caught having a shave one day! After this I had lots of very painful electrolysis. Finally I plucked up the courage to tell my parents that I wanted to be a girl. My mother in relief said, "So that's what's wrong with you". She was concerned that a sex change operation would be irreversible. I said, "This is the best thing about it, the more irreversible the better! No one could ever say YOU ARE A MAN ever again". My parents paid for my reassignment surgery, after which there was no stopping me. I managed to fulfil my biggest dream, to be a Showgirl in the chorus at the Teatro Apollo in Barcelona. After this I went to Germany and toured with the five thousand seat Circus Krone, tap dancing down silver staircases in huge ostrich feather headdress's, riding the elephants, ariel rope ballet and fire eating. After five years with the circus I moved on to work in many other shows around the world including England. I now love being at home which I share with my cat Lucy in Kent doing one night cabarets. The only thing missing at the moment is that 'special person' in my life. I love returning to my roots and appearing in the shows at The WayOut Club. Reading through this I am amazed at my achievements given that I am dyslexic, tone deaf and have two left feet. I consider myself a very lucky 'girl'. If I can do it, anyone can!

FABULOUS'OUT' and About Nationwide*SPICE UP YOUR LIFE! - WITH STACEY CHRISTIE AND KITTY

It's all very well waiting for Friday or Saturday night to come around so you can party, but what exactly do you do when that time arrives? During a manicure at my local hotel health spa I decided that I would change my social life. My eye had been drawn to a poster advertising an open evening to be held at the hotel. This event turned my life upside down.

Kitty and I attended a very informative slide show and talk. The folks were really helpful and enthusiastic about a better social life for all. The national group has ten regional offices and well over 10,000 members and is called "SPICE" www.spiceuk.com.

SPICE stands for Special Programme of Initiative, Challenge, and Excitement. SPICE was set up over twenty years ago to cater for everyday people wanting to do extraordinary things. The events are VERY varied. You can go ballooning, canoeing, rock climbing, or rally driving etc etc

But you don't have to throw yourself out of a plane if you don't want to though! There are many less stressful ways to while away your time. Pub meets, theatre trips, and informative walks around towns and cities are just a few examples.

By far the most fun I've had though MUST be the SPICE fancy dress parties. When was the last time you went to a good fancy dress party? I went on a very successful 'St Trinians Train Trip'.

Kitty and I went dressed as two 'naughty' St Trinian girls. We walked down the main High Street in Sutton Coldfield, hockey sticks in hand, and waited outside McDonalds for the coach to take us to 'Chinnor railway station'. Fortunately thanks to SPICE we weren't on our own. The actual steam locomotive at Chinnor was the one used in the St Trinian film and it would be pulling our train.

The time on the coach journey was occupied by singing, and plenty of 'old fashioned' sweets (mmm Refreshers and Sherbert Dibs...) Everyone was dressed to suit ie uniform, schoolgirls, schoolboys, and even a few head masters!

When we arrived at the station, 'angry protestors' besieged us trying to stop St Trinians buying the local manor house and moving in to ruin their lives.

Whooooa Whoooo!! The train steamed into the station. The 'rabble' boarded, and off we went. Each carriage had 80's music, food and there were two bars on the train. There was plenty of fun and games on the train, loud singing competitions, and loads of larking about. Fabulous.

All too quickly the evening came to a close. We all boarded the coaches for the ride back home dropping off people en route.

When we got back I was pleased to find that I hadn't even laddered my stockings!

One last thing though, the best time I have ever had? A flight in a Jet provost! Now that really did turn my life upside down LITERALLY www.spiceuk.com website or call 0161 873 8788 for prices and events that are coming up.

Most events are regional, so you won't have to travel miles each time.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME - WITH MARTINA

There are moments in life when it's necessary to hit life's "pause" button and do a reality check. First kiss, first bike crash, first child. Add you own list here.

It's Ladies Day at Royal Ascot Horse Races. The sun's shining, we've enjoyed a full champagne lunch complete with strawberries and cream. Now it's time to gloss the lips and parade. We're strolling a long a path surrounded by thousands of beautifully dressed women. That is beautifully dressed, not fashionably dressed, since current fashion consists of jeans, trainers and opinionated T-shirts. We're talking female fashion at its absolute. Full skirts, dynamic dresses, killer heels and, of course, glorious hats. All in the full rainbow of colours and fabrics.

The girls are laughing and chatting like old friends, with warmth that would be alien to the same number of, X-chromosome challenged, individuals trudging to a footy match.

We are parading in similar summer dresses, skirts, high heels and hats. We are part of this, not interlopers. We are strolling with them; chatting, laughing, explaining who we are. The snippets of eager conversation flow. How many... why... lovely hat... what lipstick.... gorgeous.... are you coming next year?

Time to find some 'French dinner steaks' running on the race track.

At the track barrier, a male voice from behind, causes us to miss a step. "Well lads, (hic!) shall we do the Crocodile Dundee test?" Buoyed up by the beauty of the day I turn confidently and sweep my waterfall of wavy auburn hair over one shoulder. "No need lads - offer drinks and see if we take the pint or the champagne flute." The knuckle dragger changes colour and remembers an urgent appointment elsewhere. His associates check their shoes. We decide to go easy on them. "Since you have haven't offered us drinks, would you care for a glass of our champagne?" Utterly out classed in the battle of wits they smile and chat, their hand thrust into pockets as they fail to comprehend.

What a special day - my thanks to Josie, Teresa and Lisa at Adam to Eve www.adameve121.co.uk 02077297447 for the make up, champagne, wonderful food and (no-doubt) the perfect weather. Also thanks to Steve the coach driver for the Transport and lunch time humour - Quote of the day from Steve "Yer wouldn't catch me doin' it but I've got every respect for anyone having the balls to do it."

Sixteen hours en-femme and I wouldn't have missed a minute of it.

Photography and story by Martina at Soft Inside Photography www.softinside.co.uk.

JOBS FOR THE "GIRLS" - WITH ANDREA

So just how did the London Edge Fashion Fair cope with an "alternative" girl model assisting at their check in desk and around the fair. Well she was certainly prominent compared to many diminutive girl hostesses, especially in 5" high stiletto thigh boots! Unsurprisingly at a fair where anything can go (well almost) my presence raised few concerns, and much admiration. "I wish I had legs like yours" from the girls and "nice arse!" from the boys!

Once again the London Edge Trade Fashion Fair provided a great opportunity for Andrea to strut her stuff, but also to afford a behind the scenes glimpse of this well run trade fashion fair. So helping out at the registration desk seemed the right place to start. This has become a truly international fair with people arriving from all over Europe and indeed beyond. Their details that I helped collect provide valuable contacts for both the trade stands and for future events. But simply helping at the desk did not allow me to show off my legs and that the fantastic skirt provided by "The Collectif" for me to wear at their stand (as their "uniform"). So I was pleased to be assigned to be one of the Hostesses at the various stairway entrances that leads to the fair. At these checkpoints our duty was to swipe peoples registration tags and hence track their interests.

Here I was very much out in the open and in the thick of things. My spell at this checkpoint was sufficient for admiration for the legs before leaving for my main duty of the day as a Hostess at The Collectifs stand.

Writing about the numerous stands at this twice-yearly fair is one thing, but spending some time on a stand as a Hostess gave a new insight as to what's hot in the alternative fashion scene. This was The Collectif's fifth London Edge and they once again went down a storm. Their latest fashions grabbed the attention and order book of many buyers.

12th Tranny Guide - (Book)

MUST HAVE "THE TRANSGENDER BIBLE" Aiming to excite, inspire, comfort and spread awareness of the global nature of the growing transgender phenomena. The 12th Edition is rich with NEW reports, personal profiles & pictures from around the world and listings updated for 2004-2005 revealing yet again the growth and breadth of opportunities in the TG World.

Tranny Guide Back Issues - (Books)

Each Edition of the Tranny Guide has had different Reports, Articles and Pictures. From issue 7 the format was fixed at 336 pages but each subsequent year the number of colour pages increased. In edition 7 'Personal Reports' were introduced from all around the world the UK and London. In edition 11 'Personal Profiles' were introduced to really see how individuals feel and how they fit into the diverse spectrum of gender thinking. Buy them to complete your collection, Students and researchers buy them for your research and study. Buy them before stocks sell out. All editions in stock - except issue 1

Girl Talk - (Magazines)

EXTREMELY POPULAR From the West Coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most glossy photo shoots on the tranny scene in a VERY professional Hollywood style. The models are great, the advice from make-up artists and stylists is excellent. The reports on the USA scene are fun and enlightening. This is a great magazine to collect and it's all good clean fun.

11 editions in stock volume

3no3 - 4no1 - 4no2 - 4no3 - 4no4 - 4no5 - 4no6 - 5no1 - 5no2 - 5no3 - 5no4 - 6no1

The Lazy Crossdresser (book)

VERY POPULAR The jokey chapter titles like, "My Size - a random number between 8 and 16", undermines the quality of the advice in this book with 177 pages of text and sketches. But don't let me undermine the friendly, open and down right honesty of the author Charles Anders. This is a good read and is genuinely helpful.

TV & CD Current Views (book)

NEW EDITION This book by The Beaumont Society is a newly revised collection of articles by well qualified writers. It aims to answer, in a non judgemental, non directive way, many of the questions asked on their helplines, in a more detailed manner than a phone call can achieve. Subjects include labels, sexuality, transsexualism, culture, history & law, counselling, support & coming out.

The Third Sex (book)

HIGHLY SORT AFTER The 'kathoe' phenomenon has been part of Thai culture for generations, it is the subject of a fascinating new book by Dr Richard Totman, a prize research fellow at Oxford University's Nuffield and a widely-travelled theatre director. He became probably the first "farang" (Thai for Westerner) to infiltrate the mysterious world of the ladyboys. He lived for months with kathoe girls and their families, learnt the language and spent much of his time talking to dozens of them and sharing their unique lifestyle.

TRADING FACES (VIDEO OR CDrom)

By TJP Professionally shot and edited, aprox 48 mins, PAL & NTSC format The voice over by Pandora de Pledge takes you through a step by step make-up lesson as Pandora shows you the tricks and tips which have given such a good 'foundation' to the image of some of the best looking T-Girls on today's tranny scene.

TRADING SHAPES (VIDEO OR CDrom)

By TJP Professionally shot and edited, aprox 45mins, PAL format only The voice over by Vicky Lee takes you step by step through the choice of foundation garments that create a convincing female shape for either studio shoots or stepping out on the town. The advice is based on The WayOut of the Closet and Jodie Lynn's vast experience with her customers at 'The Boudoir'. WayOut 'baby spice' Miss Debonair models showing every trick and mistake.

DOREEN

BY IMAGE WORKS

TOP TO TOE GLAMOUR BY DOREEN FASHIONS

By Pandora De'Pledge

Doreen's fashions is a unique shopping experience providing a fabulous selection of clothes, underwear, hosiery, wigs, jewellery and shoes at unbelievably low prices. The team of Betty, Irene and the rest of the girls guarantee a friendly and helpful visit. If you want chic on a budget, then make them your first stop! Myself and the whole Image Works team would like to bid a fond farewell to Betty's late husband Les who passed away recently. Our hearts are with you. I have often wondered how the name Doreen came to pass because Doreen is not exactly a name to conjure with. Can you think of a single film star called Doreen? Ever? Doris Day, Dorothy Lamour, Dora - well at least there was Dora Bryan. These days people just don't know anyone called Doreen. In the popularity stakes, it's right up there with Mona, but even Leonardo balked at the idea of painting 'The Doreen Lisa'. For all we know that may have been the original model's name, and in one of those blinding flashes of parental stupidity perhaps the great man said 'I think I'll change the name of my creation from Doreen to Mona ...'

There was a real Doreen and the story is a little like one of those Ealing social comedies.

She was young; he was wealthy - and married. He wanted to 'be nice' to her, so he set her up in her own dress shop and Doreen Fashions was born in City Road, E1.

Shortly after this child of their illicit passion sprang into being, the lady herself upped and fled with another man, perhaps one who had a wedding ring to offer her - not just one he slipped off his finger into his pocket whenever they met.

Meanwhile, just around the time Doreen made her escape into domestic bliss - and into oblivion as far as this story is concerned - another young couple got married: Les and Betty. Betty is one of those names that rolls back in regularly like the tide, helped by the fact that it is the shortened version of two of England's best-loved Monarchs. Les was steady, with a dry sense of humour.

Betty was a little flighty herself in her way: a singer, trained in piano at Music School, a bit of a gambler by nature, full of energy. She might have taken her chance on the boards and kicked her legs up in a chorus line the way Betty Boothroyd, ex-Speaker of the House of Commons, once used to.

In spite of their contrasting temperaments Betty and Les shared a mutual ambition: to be masters of their own fates, come what may. Post-war austerity was officially dead. A new Elizabethan age was dawning, so they took the biggest gamble of their young lives. Using all the money to their name, they bought the rest of Doreen Fashions' lease from the mistressly-challenged gent for whom the shop had now lost much of its charm.

And the rest, as they say, is history. 51 years of it! In a strange way there is a beauty about the name Doreen Fashions. It isn't fashionable, it isn't 'in'. It probably wasn't even back in 1953. It is timeless, without pretensions. And that allows each of the thousands of customers over the last five decades who have found a welcome in the present Lea Bridge Road shop to form their own associations. The paradox is that for most of them Doreen stands for glamour and sparkle, a touch of Marilyn or even Diana.

A little stardust. In a way, how appropriate that Doreen's is, and always has been, run by someone actually called Betty. Like Betty Grable, whose gorgeous legs adorned more pin-ups than any other woman before or since. Star quality comes in many guises, but only one that I know is called Doreen ...

House of Drag DIVA - Sasha

Picture with thanks to Georgina

Hello boys, girls and inbetweenies! Well its been a very busy three months at House of Drag with many enquiries about our fabulous artistes and models – but more especially because after three venues, (since Dec 2000), we have found a new home for the FIRST Wednesday of the every month at Madame Jo Jo's in Brewer Street.

In April after problems with the licence at No3 Green Street we temporarily relocated to Dukes. Many thanks to Steve Gould, Shane for our years at No3 and thank you to Tony and Giuseppe for your great hospitality at Dukes. You guys are the great.

'CABARET EXTRAORDINAIRE' - at Madame Jo Jo's

On October 6th 2004 House of Drag will be joined by Pure Promotions in launching a joint venture to present 'Cabaret Extraordinaire' at Madame Jo Jo's in Brewer Street Soho - London's original home for trannies and drag queens for generations (see story page 16 & 17). For me it's like putting the cherry on the cake. Together with the beautiful and talented Miss Paula Pure I will be presenting two cabaret shows on the 1st Wednesday of each month, one at 11pm, followed by another at 1am. SO 6th October 2004 9pm till late (and the 1st Wed of each month following) will be a night of pure cabaret. Don't miss one of the best shows in town - after all "Life is a Cabaret old chum – come to the Cabaret"..

MISS HOUSE OF DRAG

The coveted title of 'Miss House of Drag', (currently held by this issues cover girl Miss Lynn Danials), will be passed on to the new winner on 3rd November. The contest will be held at the second night of 'Cabaret Extraordinaire' at Madame Jo Jo's at midnight. The contest is judged on performance and costume. All entrants must register with me before the night. Prizes include £500 cash, £1200 photo shoot with Image Works, and Vip membership of The WayOut Club. Break a Lash girls..

PERSONAL THANKS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the drag and TG community friends who have helped produce this truly fabulous magazine, it's been lot of fun and a great experience. There are too many names to mention but you know who you are. Thanks from the bottom of my Bridgett Jones Drawers - you're the best !

Love always Steffan xxx

Ray Rice our love is with you always. You will never be forgotten. Chris we love you and are there for you. Big kisses, hugs and stuff Steffan & Kenny Introducing the reigning Miss Malaysia. Her name is Sasha. And now she is here in the UK to complete her studies.

After her first visit to the WayOut Club when, unprepared, she entered the Star Search contest

"Rarely have I met anyone so talented and professional and at same same time so gracefull and pleasant to be with."

Steffan

Since that night Sasha has performed in many House of Drag 'first of the month shows'. She has a sensational collection of gowns and outfits and her dance movements and mime are perfection wheter performing to World music or modern R&B or Chart.

She is very worthy of the name DIVA proving that Diva can be a person of excellence not rudeness.

Madame JoJo's

Visit Las Vegas and you will see a casino called Paris with a half height Eiffel Tower and a nightclub called 'Risque' with a Le Folies style show. Opposite is the New York New York casino with a reproduction of the Statue of Liberty and a nightclub celebrating the famous Studio 54.

If a casino was built on the Las Vegas strip called London – the roof would be shaped like St Pauls Cathedral and the nightclub would be called Madame Jo Jos.

No other London nightclub has such a well known name and such a strong image. Jo Jo's neon sign is an iconic London landmark.

However in truth it is many years since Jo Jo managed the infamous venue as a six nights a week drag venue with the leggiest boy/girl waitress's (The famous Barbettes).

Madame Jo Jo's was, in its heyday, an adjoined show bar and piano bar taking the whole corner plot (now a separated). Owned by Paul Raymond, it was the plaything of his daughter with Jo Jo as floor manager. Every six months a new show was choreographed, sound tracked and costumed to run six nights per week. Saturday was always a hen night crowd but Thursday and Friday in particular would always have a choice clientele of celebrities, business men and smart party people with never a spare seat. Princess Diana and Sarah Ferguson, Johnathan Ross and most of the telly darlings, Bea (Golden Girls) Arthur, Caroline (Tula) Cossey, Des Lynam and sporting friends - and thats just the people I spotted. Each and every one was personally welcomed by Jo Jo herself as she did myself on my very first weekend 'out dressed'. Jo Jo made sure everything was "just so".

Wednesday night in the Show Bar was a little less crowded and the favourite night for the Transsexuals and Transvestites to cruise the bar area. The Piano Bar upstairs was always full of trannies.

When Paul Raymond's daughter died he lost interest in the venue (too much of a reminder of his daughter and good times). The new owners "let Jo Jo go" with new ideas in mind for the venue - indie music, niche music and comedy nights. But the image of what Madame Jo Jo's was has never faded. The drag hen parties continued on Saturdays but without the scale, budget or planning of the infamous shows of the past. UNTILL NOW

Miss Paula Pure who has regularly performs for the 'wannabee wives' recently negotiated a budget with Paris the venues manager to re-create the "full on - Jo Jo's show experience". With the help of a talented team of performers (including recent WayOut Star Search winner Sarah Lee) and the costume skills of Miss Sarah Lloyd. Paula has re-created the classic Madame Jo Jo's formula complete with Barbettes who swell the shows cast in the two half hour sets. The show has received critical acclaim from both the audience and the management.

On the launch night of the show Paula was supported by many drag friends but miracle of miracles Jo Jo herself returned for the first time to witness and compliment the labour of love that Paula Pure and her team have put into re-creating the legend.

AMAZING TRANSFORMATIONS INSTANTLY YOU!

with total confidentiality guaranteed

Research shows that up to half of all men consider at some stage in their lives and like Shakespeare and David Beckham most are not blooded men who love the ladies. Surprising though it may seem but over 99% of cross-dressers are happily married men sufficiently confident in their masculinity that they can enjoy their occasional indulgence in sexy, silky attire and the pampering normally only reserved on their more fortunate female companions.

I am pleased to introduce you to the Classic Beauty and Elegance of De Pledge Pure Silk Lingerie and Nightwear.

For many years our garments were only available from prestige stores such as Harrods, Fenwick's, Neiman Marcus (to name but a few). Now we offer them directly to YOU through our On-Line Boutique and mail order brochure.

Your order will come directly to me in York, and will receive my utmost attention, which I truly believe every customer deserves.

Many of our customers are men and transgendered. All our garments are made to order, to your own measurements when necessary. The service we provide is very personal and ALWAYS discreet. Please feel free to call me direct with any special requirements.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.
