Freedom of Information/
Privacy Office

Mr. John Young
CRYPTOME
251 West 89th Street
Suite 6E
New York, New York 10024

Dear Mr. Young:

- a. Your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of March 29, 2001, for records concerning various dossiers. Your request was received in this office on April 18, 2001.
- b. Our letter of April 20, 2001, informing you that additional time was needed to review the records and we were unable to comply to the 20-day statutory time limit in processing your request.

We have conducted checks of the automated Defense Clearance and Investigations Index and a search of the Investigative Records Repository to determine the existence of Army intelligence investigative records responsive to your request.

We have located the enclosed records pertaining to West Germany Intelligence Services, ZF400132W. We have completed a mandatory declassification review in accordance with Executive Order (EO) 12958. As a result of our review, information has been sanitized and 14 pages of records are denied in their entirety as the information is currently and properly classified SECRET and CONFIDENTIAL according to Sections 1.3(a)(2), 1.3(a)(3), 3.4(b)(1) and 3.4(b)(6) of EO 12958. This information is exempt from the public disclosure provisions of the FOIA pursuant to Title 5 U.S. Code 552(b)(1). It is not possible to reasonably segregate meaningful portions of the withheld pages for release. A brief explanation of the applicable sections follows:

Section 1.3(a)(2) of EO 12958 provides that information shall be classified SECRET if its unauthorized disclosure reasonably could be expected to cause serious damage to the national security.

Section 1.3(a)(3) of EO 12958 provides that information shall be classified CONFIDENTIAL if its unauthorized disclosure reasonably could be expected to cause damage to the national security.

Section 3.4(b)(1) of EO 12958 provides that classified information more than 25 years old is exempt from automatic declassification if it would reveal the identity of a confidential human source, or reveal information about the application of an intelligence source or method, or reveal the identity of a human intelligence source when the unauthorized disclosure of that source would clearly and demonstrably damage the national security interests of the United States.

Section 3.4(b)(6) of EO 12958 provides that classified information more than 25 years old is exempt from automatic declassification if it would reveal information that would seriously and demonstrably impair relations between the United States and a foreign government, or seriously and demonstrably undermine ongoing diplomatic activities of the United States.

Since the release of some of the information deleted from these records would result in an unwarranted invasion of the privacy rights of the individuals concerned, this information is exempt from the public disclosure provisions of the FOIA per Title 5 U.S. Code 552 (b)(7)(C).

In addition, information has been sanitized from the records and ten additional pages are denied in their entirety as the release of the information would reveal the identity of confidential sources. This information is exempt from public disclosure pursuant to Title 5 U.S. Code 552 (b)(7)(D) of the FOIA. The significant and legitimate governmental purpose to be served by withholding is that a viable and effective intelligence investigative capability is dependent upon protection of confidential sources. It is not possible to reasonably segregate meaningful portions of the withheld pages for release.

The withholding of information by this office is a partial denial of your request. This denial is made on behalf of Brigadier General Keith B. Alexander, the Commanding General, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records under the FOIA. You may appeal this decision to the Secretary of the Army. If you wish to file an appeal, you should forward it to this office. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. After the 60 day period, the case may be considered closed; however, such closure does not preclude you filing litigation in the courts.

During the processing of your request, information was disclosed which is under the purview of another government agency. This office has no authority to release these records and they are being referred, along with your request, for appropriate action under the FOIA, and direct reply to you.

We are coordinating with another government agency concerning the releasability of their information contained in the records. We will inform you as to the releasability of the information upon completion of our coordination.

We are continuing to review records regarding other titles you have requested and will respond to you by separate correspondence when our review is complete.

If you have any questions concerning this action, feel free to contact Mrs. Reilly at (301) 677-4742. Please refer to case #869F-01.

Sincerely,

Russell A. Nichols
Chief, Freedom of Information/
Privacy Office

Explanation

Protecting the Privacy of Mail, Telephone and Telegraphic Communications (Law to Implement Article 10 of the Basic Law) (G 10)

of August 13, 1968

The Bundestag has adopted the following law:

Article 1

(1) In order to avert dangers threatening the Federal Democratic Republic of Germany or the existence or security of the Federation or of one of the members, including the security of the forces of the non-German Contracting Parties of the North Atlantic Treaty stationed in the Federal Republic of Germany or of the forces of one of the Three Powers present in land Berlin, the Federal and Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution, the Federal Security Service and the Federal Intelligence Agency shall have the authority to open and inspect messages which enjoy the protection of privacy of mails, telephone and telegraphic communications, as well as to monitor telexprint traffic and to monitor and make recordings of telephone conversations.

(2) The German Federal Postal Mail Service (the Bahnpost) may, based upon order, information about postal and telecommunications traffic, be called over to such agency messages presented to it for transmission by postal and telecommunications channels and to enable the monitoring of telephone conversations and telexprint traffic.

Section 2

(1) Restrictive measures pursuant to Section 1 may be ordered if there are factual clues to support a suspicion that a person has committed, is committing or is about to commit an offense.

1. offenses against the peace or high treason (Section 16 to 21 of the Criminal Code);

2. offenses endangering the democratic State based on the will of law (Sections 84 to 86, 87 to 89 of the Criminal Code, Section 20, paragraph 1, subparagraphs 1 to 4 of the Law on Assassination);

3. treasonable acts and offenses endangering external security (Sections 94 to 96, 87a to 100a of the Criminal Code);

4. offenses against national defense (Section 109c of the Criminal Code) or

5. offenses against the security of the forces of the non-German Contracting States of the North Atlantic Treaty stationed in the Federal Republic of Germany or of the forces of one of the Three Powers present in land Berlin (Sections 94 to 96, 98 to 100, 109a to 109c of the Criminal Code in connection with Article 7 of the Fourth Law Amending the Criminal Law of June 11, 1957 in the version of the Eighth Law to Amend the Criminal Law).

(2) An order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Section may be issued only where an inquiry into the circumstances conducted by any other means offers no prospect of success or would be greatly impeded. Such an order may only be issued against a suspect or persons of whom it may be reasonably assumed on the basis of specific facts that they receive or transmit communications destined for or originating with the suspected persons or that the messages concern military telephone facilities.

ENCLASIFIED

(1) Except as provided in Section 2, restrictive measures pursuant to Section 1 with respect to postal relations and telecommunications may be ordered which have been authorised by the Federal Minister having competence pursuant to Section 3, with the consent of the committee of Standing deputies established pursuant to Section 9. Such restrictive measures are permissible only for the purpose of collecting information on facts, the knowledge of which is necessary in order to identify in time a threat of an armed attack on the Federal Republic of Germany and to avert such threat.

(2) Information and material obtained through measures ordered pursuant to paragraph (1) of this Section may not be used to the disadvantage of persons. This shall not apply if restrictive measures have been ordered against such person pursuant to Section 2, or if there are factual clues to support the suspicion that a person plans, commits, or has committed one of the offenses listed in Section 2 of the present law, or some other offense referred to in Section 138 of the Criminal Code.

(1) Restrictive measures under Section 1 may be ordered only upon request.

(2) The following entities may, in accordance with the law, within the scope of their responsibilities:

1. With respect to cases described in Section 2:

- a) the Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution, acting through their directors or deputy directors;
- b) the Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution, acting through their directors or deputy directors;
- c) where acts against the armed forces are involved, the Armed Forces Security Office, acting through its director or deputy director;
- d) where acts against the Federal Intelligence Agency are involved, the Federal Intelligence Office, acting through its director or deputy director.

2. With respect to cases described in Section 3, the Federal Intelligence Agency, through its director or deputy director.

(3) Requests shall be made in writing, stating nature, extent and duration of the restrictive measure and the reasons for instituting them. The agency making the request must state therein that an inquiry into the circumstances conducted by other means offers no prospect of success or would be greatly impeded.

(1) Competency for issuing an order under Section 1 shall reside in the supreme Land authority in cases where the request has been made by the Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution, in all other cases in the Federal Minister designated by the Federal Chancellor.

(2) The order shall be issued in writing and shall be communicated to the agency making the request and to the German Federal Post. The order must specify nature, extent and duration of the measure in question and the agency authorised to carry out monitoring.

(3) the maximum length of time of the validity of an order may not exceed three months. On request, an order may be extended for further periods of three months provided the circumstances in support of the order continue to exist.

(4) The Federal Office for the Protection of the Constitution shall inform the respective Land Office for the Protection of the Constitution about the restrictive measures carried out within the area of jurisdiction of that Office. The Land Offices for the Protection of the Constitution shall inform the Federal Service for the Protection of the Constitution about the restrictive measures for which they have general responsibility.

(5) The person against whom the restrictive measure has been instituted shall not be informed thereof.

(6) In the cases specified in Section 2, the order must name the person against whom the restrictive measures have been implemented.

(7) Where measures instituted pursuant to Section 1 in these cases refer to messages, they may only be investigated with regard to such messages in respect of which there are facts which permit the conclusion that they originate or are intended for the person against whom the order has been instituted.

(8) The measures instituted pursuant to Section 1 in these cases refer to messages, they may only be investigated with regard to such messages in respect of which there are facts which permit the conclusion that they originate or are intended for the person against whom the order has been instituted.

(1) Measures which result from an order pursuant to paragraph (1) of Section 1 shall be carried out under the responsibility of the agency making the request and under the supervision of an official qualified to hold judicial office.

(2) If the circumstances in support of the order no longer exist, or if the measures resulting from such order are no longer necessary, the measures must be immediately terminated. Their termination shall be notified to the agency which has issued the order and to the German Federal Post.

(3) No knowledge or information obtained through such measures may be used to investigate and prosecute any acts other than those specified in Section 2, unless factual circumstances existing therefrom indicate that a person has committed some other punishable act listed in Section 136 of the Criminal Code.

(4) If the material obtained through such measures with respect to a person participating in postal and telecommunications traffic is no longer needed for the purposes mentioned in paragraph (3), it shall be destroyed under the supervision of an official specified in paragraph (1) of this Section. A record shall be drawn up concerning such destruction.

(5) Measures which result from an order pursuant to paragraph (1) of Section 1 shall be carried out under the responsibility of the agency making the request and under the supervision of an official qualified to hold judicial office.

(1) Postal messages which have been turned over to the authorized agency for opening and inspection shall be returned to postal channels without delay. Telegrams may not be removed from postal traffic. Copies of telegrams shall be furnished to the agency authorized to make the inspection.

(2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure concerning seizure of postal messages shall remain unaffected.

Section 9

(1) The Federal Minister responsible under paragraph (1) of Section 5 for ordering restrictive measures shall furnish information about the carrying out of the present law at intervals of not more than six months to a committee consisting of five deputies designated by the Bundestag.

(2) The responsible Federal Minister shall furnish monthly reports to a commission about the restrictive measures ordered by him. This commission shall decide ex officio or in response to complaints about the admissibility and necessity of restrictive measures. Any orders which the commission declares to be inadmissible or unnecessary must be immediately rescinded by the responsible Federal Minister.

(3) The commission shall consist of a chairman qualified to hold judicial office and two other members. In the exercise of their functions, the members of the commission are independent and are not subject to instructions. They shall be appointed by the committee referred to in paragraph (1) of this Section, after consultation with the Federal Government, for the electoral period of the Bundestag. The commission shall adopt rules of procedure which must be approved by the committee referred to in paragraph (1) of this Section. Prior to giving its approval, the Federal Government shall be heard.

(4) The Land legislatures shall regulate the parliamentary control of the supreme Land authorities which have competence for restrictive measures pursuant to paragraph (1) of Section 5 and the review of restrictive measures ordered by these authorities.

(5) In all other respects an order imposing restrictive measures and the execution of such order shall not be subject to judicial review.

Article 2

Amendment to the Code of Criminal Procedure

The Code of Criminal Procedure shall be amended as follows:

1. The heading of Chapter Eight of the First Part shall read as follows:

"Chapter Eight

Seizure, Monitoring of Telecommunications and Search."

2. Following Section 100, new Sections 100 a and 100 b shall be inserted:

Section 100 a

The monitoring of telecommunications traffic and the making of tape recordings of such traffic may be ordered if specific facts warrant the suspicion that a person acting either as principal or accomplice has committed, or in cases in which the attempt is punishable, has attempted to commit such action, or has prepared such action by a punishable act.

1. a) offenses against the peace, high treason and offenses endangering the democratic State based on the rule of law or treasonable acts and offenses endangering external security (Sections 80 to 82, 84 to 86, 87 to 89, 94 to 100 a of the Criminal Code, Section 20, paragraph 4, subparagraphs 1 to 4 of the Law on Associations);

(3) offences against national defense (Sections 109 b to 109 h of the Criminal Code);
(4) offences against public order (Sections 129 to 130 of the Criminal Code, Section 47, paragraph 1, subparagraph 7 of the Law on Aliens);
(5) offences against the security of the forces of the non-German Contracting States of the North Atlantic Treaty stationed in the Federal Republic of Germany or of the forces of one of the Three Powers present in West Berlin (Sections 89, 94 to 97, 98 to 100, 109 b to 109 g of the Criminal Code in connection with Article 7 of the Fourth Law Amending the Criminal Law of June 11, 1957, in the version of the Eighth Law to Amend the Criminal Law)
or
2. murder, manslaughter, offences against currency, robbery, extortion by means of robbery, kidnapping, abduction, abduction of infants in connection with extortion, white slavery, an offence against public safety within the meaning of Article 138 of the Criminal Code, or blackmail, provided an investigation of the facts of the case or the ascertainment of the person's whereabouts by any other means offers no prospect of success or would be greatly impeded. Such an order may only be issued against an accused or persons of whom it may be reasonably assumed on the basis of specific facts that they receive or transmit communications destined for or originating with the accused or that the accused utilizes their telephone facilities.

Section 100 b

(1) The monitoring of telecommunications traffic and the making of tape recordings of such traffic (Section 100 a) may only be ordered by a judge. If there is danger in delay, the order may also be issued by the public prosecutor. An order issued by the public prosecutor shall cease to have effect after three days unless confirmed by a judge.

(2) The order shall be issued in writing and shall specify name and address of the person against whom the order is directed. The order shall specify nature, extent and duration of the measure. The maximum duration of the order shall not exceed three months. It may be extended for further periods of three months if the circumstances specified in Section 100 a continue to exist.

(3) In compliance with the order, the German Federal Post shall enable the judge, the public prosecutor and police officials acting as auxiliaries to the public prosecutor (Section 152 of the Judicature Act) to monitor telephone conversations and teleprinter messages.

(4) If the circumstances specified in Section 100 a no longer exist, the measures resulting from the order must be immediately terminated. Their termination shall be notified to the judge and the German Federal Post.

(5) If the material obtained through such measures is no longer needed for purposes of criminal prosecution, it shall be destroyed under the supervision of the public prosecutor's office. A record shall be drawn up concerning such destruction.

3. Section 101, paragraph 1 shall read as follows:

"(1) The persons concerned shall be informed of the measures taken (Sections 99, 100, 100 a, 100 b) as soon as this can be done without jeopardising the purpose of the investigation."

Article 3

Section 10

(a) The present law shall restrict the constitutional right of privacy of the mails, telephone and telegraphic communications.

(b) Restrictions of this basic right permissible pursuant to other laws shall remain unaffected.

Section 11

The agencies authorized pursuant to the present law shall reimburse the German Federal Post for its services.

Section 12

Article 2 and Article 3 of the present law, with the exception of Article 2, No. 2, Section 100 a No. 1, subparagraphs b and d, shall be applicable also in West Berlin pursuant to Section 13, paragraph 1 of the Third Transfer Law of January 4, 1952 (Bundesgesetzblatt, Part I, p. 4).

Section 13

Except Section 9, paragraph (4) which shall enter into force on the day after publication, the present law shall enter into force on the first day of the third calendar month following its publication.

(The law has been published in the Federal Legal Gazette, issue No. 57, of August 15, 1968, page 949.)

1. (U) You were briefed on this matter on 9 January. In addition to background factors covered in the briefing, the previous DF to the ACSI and Fact Sheet to the Chief of Staff were mentioned.

2. (S)

Although the USAREUR operation in question was terminated some years ago, the problems inherent in this are very current.

3. (S)

These files are in USAREUR Central Registry in Stuttgart, Germany. There are numerous ramifications of this case:

a. USAREUR willingness to furnish their files on such a sensitive matter.

b. Use of information from these files and future USAREUR intelligence relationships with German agencies.

c. [redacted] files (between 10 and 17 volumes) which was requested.

d. [redacted]

4. (U) Chief, CI Branch would like to send Mr. [redacted] who is familiar with background and current factors in this matter, to Heidelberg for a hurried three day visit for following reasons:

a. To expedite action

b. To ensure complete understanding between DCSI, USAREUR and OACSI on handling of information.

c. For simplicity of handling - As noted, this is an unusually complex problem. By dealing direct with action personnel in Heidelberg and Stuttgart, much confusion and wasted correspondence and time can be saved.

d. Any potential inter-agency hanky-panky can be eliminated from the outset.

e. DCSI, USAREUR, staff, which is not aware of much of the background in this matter can be briefed, and coordinated policy on release of information

5. (U) In order to forestall possible confusion and erratic action on this problem, it is strongly urged that a decision be reached on this proposed action today. Recommend Chief, Security Division, and Deputy ACSI, approve and sign message to Heidelberg and travel orders request. (TABS B & C)

6. (U) The follow-up Fact Sheet for the Chief of Staff is being prepared. (Directed by General Leonard upon receipt of follow-up)

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The page has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and faint smudges. A vertical binding edge is visible on the left side. There are several horizontal black bars of varying lengths scattered across the page, which appear to be redactions or marks from a previous document. The page is otherwise empty of text or illustrations.

WEST GERMAN INTELLIGENCE

Incidentally coinciding with the British security scandals, the West German Government has brought to trial three of its citizens on charges of espionage for the Soviet Union. Although the case lacks the lurid sensationalism accorded the British cases, the actual damage in terms of compromised information was extensive.
