Army regulations provide for screening and destruction of intelligence dossiers, a process that began in August 1979. Screening and destruction takes place daily in the IRR at this headquarters. Many records qualify for destruction under these regulations. It is possible that the file you requested qualified for deletion from our holdings in accordance with current regulations.

This no record response is made on behalf of Brigadier General Keith B. Alexander, the Commanding General, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records under the FOIA. You have the right to appeal this determination to the Secretary of the Army. If you wish to file an appeal, you should forward it to this office. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 calendar days from the date of this letter. After the 60-day period, the case may be considered closed; however, such closure does not preclude you from filing litigation in the courts.

We are continuing to review records regarding other titles you have requested and will respond to you by separate correspondence when our review is complete.

If you have any questions concerning this action, feel free to contact this office at (301) 677-4502. Please refer to the appropriate case number.
