a slap on the back : the act of slapping someone's back usually to express praise or approval ▪ He gave me a slap on the back and said "Good job!"
a slap on the wrist : a mild punishment that is given to someone who should be punished more severely ▪ Even though he was proven guilty, he got away with a slap on the wrist. ▪ The fine was just a slap on the wrist.

[3]slap adv, informal : exactly or directly ▪ I walked slap into the post. ▪ Her apartment is slap in the middle of the city. = Her apartment is slap bang in the middle of the city.

slap•dash /ˈslæpˌdæʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : quick and careless ▪ slapdash repairs ▪ The writing is slapdash.

slap•hap•py /ˈslæpˌhæpi/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal
1 : PUNCH-DRUNK ▪ a slaphappy boxer ▪ We were all a bit slaphappy after staying up all night to finish the report.
2 : happy and careless ▪ She has a slaphappy attitude about her work.

slap shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] ice hockey : a shot that is made by swinging your stick with a lot of force slap•stick /ˈslæpˌstɪk/ noun [noncount] : comedy that involves physical action (such as falling down or hitting people) — often used before another noun ▪ slapstick comedy slap–up /ˈslæpˌʌp/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit, informal, of a meal : excellent and very large ▪ a slap-up dinner

[1]slash /ˈslæʃ/ verb slash•es; slashed; slash•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make a long cut in (something) with a knife or other sharp weapon ▪ Someone slashed his car's tires. ▪ He threatened to slash the man's throat. b : to make (a path) by cutting plants ▪ She slashed a path through the underbrush. ▪ They slashed their way through the jungle.
2 : to reduce (something) by a large amount ▪ The company has slashed prices to increase sales. ▪ Funding for the program was slashed.
slash at [phrasal verb] slash at (someone or something) : to attack (someone or something) violently with a knife or other sharp weapon ▪ He slashed at me with a knife.

[2]slash noun, pl slashes
1 [count] : a thin and usually long cut made with a knife or other sharp object ▪ There was a horrible slash on his arm.
2 [count] : a quick movement with a sharp knife or weapon to cut someone or something ▪ He cut my cheek with a quick slash of the knife.
3 [count] : a patch or line of bright light or color ▪ slashes of sunlight on a wall ▪ a dark painting with a slash of red 4 [count] : the mark / that is used to mean "or" (as in and/or), "and or" (as in bottles/cans), or "per" (as in kilometers/hour) or as a division sign in fractions (as in ¾) — called also slash mark, (Brit) oblique

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 104 SESS: 72 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

5 [singular] Brit slang : an act of urinating ▪ He got out of the car to have/take a slash.

slash–and–burn adj
1 : done by cutting down and burning trees and plants in order to clear an area of land and grow crops on it for usually a brief time ▪ slash-and-burn agriculture
2 : using extremely harsh methods : RUTHLESS ▪ slash-and-burn tactics/politics

slash•er /ˈslæʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who kills people with a knife or other sharp weapon ▪ a slasher movie/film [=a movie in which many people are violently murdered by a slasher] slat /ˈslæt/ noun, pl slats [count] : a thin, narrow strip of wood, plastic, or metal ▪ the slats of a venetian blind ▪ The fence has two broken slats.

– slat•ted /ˈslætəd/ adj ▪ slatted blinds

[1]slate /ˈsleɪt/ noun, pl slates
1 [noncount] : a type of hard rock that splits easily into thin layers ▪ Some school blackboards are made of slate.
2 [count] : a small sheet of slate in a wooden frame that was used in schools in the past for writing on with chalk — see also BLANK SLATE
3 [count] : a piece of slate that is used with others to cover a roof or wall ▪ roofing slates ▪ The house has a slate roof.
4 [count] US : a list of people who are trying to win an election ▪ The party has fielded an impressive slate of candidates this year.
clean slate see [1]CLEAN wipe the slate clean see [1]WIPE

[2]slate verb slates; slat•ed; slat•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to arrange or plan for something to happen, someone to be chosen, etc. — usually used as (be) slated ▪ The new art museum is slated [=is scheduled] to open next spring. ▪ She is slated to become the company's next president. — often + for ▪ Her latest album is slated for release in July. — compare [3]SLATE

[3]slate verb slates; slated; slating [+ obj] Brit, informal : to criticize (someone or something) very harshly ▪ The film/book was slated by most critics. — compare [2]SLATE

slate blue noun [noncount] : a grayish-blue color — see color picture on page C2
– slate blue adj

slate gray (US) or Brit slate grey noun [noncount] : a bluish-gray color — see color picture on page C2
– slate gray (US) or Brit slate grey adj

slath•er /ˈslæðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to cover something with a thick layer of a liquid, cream, etc. ▪ We ate lobster slathered with/in butter ▪ She slathered her skin with sunscreen. = She slathered sunscreen on her skin.

slat•tern /ˈslætən/ noun, pl -terns [count] old-fashioned : an untidy, dirty woman
– slat•tern•ly /ˈslætənli/ adj ▪ a slatternly housewife

[1]slaugh•ter /ˈslɑːtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to kill (an animal) for food ▪ slaughter cattle
2 : to kill (many people) in a very violent way ▪ Hundreds of people were slaughtered [=massacred] by the invaders.
3 informal : to defeat (someone or something) easily or completely ▪ Our team got slaughtered yesterday. ▪ They slaughtered us.

[2]slaugh•ter noun [noncount]
1 : the act of killing animals for their meat ▪ Thousands of cows are sent to (the) slaughter every day.
2 : the violent killing of a large number of people ▪ the slaughter of innocent people — see also MANSLAUGHTER like a lamb to the slaughter see [1]LAMB

slaugh•ter•house /ˈslɑːtəˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building where animals are killed for their meat — called also (chiefly Brit) abattoir

Slav /ˈslɑːv/ noun, pl Slavs [count] : a person from eastern Europe who speaks a Slavic language

[1]slave /ˈsleɪv/ noun, pl slaves [count]
1 : someone who is legally owned by another person and is forced to work for that person without pay ▪ freed/escaped/former slaves ▪ He treats her like a slave. ▪ Do it yourself! I'm not your slave!
2 disapproving : a person who is strongly influenced and controlled by something — + to or of ▪ She's a slave to fashion. ▪ a slave of desire

[2]slave verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition slaves; slaved; slav•ing [no obj] : to work very hard ▪ I slaved all morning to get the work done on time. ▪ I spent all day slaving over a hot stove. [=I spent all day cooking] ▪ She's been slaving away at her homework.

slave driver noun, pl ~ -ers [count]
1 : someone who is in charge of slaves and makes them work
2 disapproving : someone who makes people work very hard ▪ The new boss is a real slave driver.

slave•hold•er /ˈsleɪvˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who owns slaves – slave•hold•ing /ˈsleɪvˌhoʊldɪŋ/ adj ▪ slaveholding towns

slave labor (US) or Brit slave labour noun [noncount]
1 : work that is done by slaves or by people who are treated like slaves ▪ prisoners being forced to do slave labor ▪ a slave labor camp
2 : slaves doing work ▪ The pyramids were built by slave labor.

[1]sla•ver /ˈslævə/ verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing [no obj] : to allow liquid to drip out of the mouth : DROOL ▪ The dog slavered [=(more commonly) slobbered] over his food.

[2]slav•er /ˈsleɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who was involved in buying and selling slaves in the past 2 : a ship that was used to carry slaves from one place to another in the past slav•ery /ˈsleɪvəri/ noun [noncount]

1 : the state of being a slave ▪ She was sold into slavery.
2 : the practice of owning slaves ▪ the abolition of slavery

slave state noun, pl ~ states [count] : a state of the U.S. in which slavery was legal until the American Civil War slave trade noun [noncount] : the activity or business of buying and selling slaves — used especially to refer to the business of buying and selling people as slaves before the American Civil War

[1]Slav•ic /ˈslɑːvɪk/ noun [noncount] : a group of related languages that includes Russian, Bulgarian, Czech, Polish, etc.

[2]Slavic adj : of or relating to the Slavs or their languages ▪ Slavic people/languages/lands/folklore slav•ish /ˈsleɪvɪʃ/ adj, disapproving : copying or following someone or something completely without any attempt to be original or independent ▪ a politician and his slavish followers ▪ slavish obedience/imitation ▪ He has been criticized for his slavish devotion/adherence to the rules.

– slav•ish•ly adv ▪ He slavishly copies everything his older brother does. – slav•ish•ness noun [noncount]

Sla•von•ic /slə'vɑːnɪk/ noun [noncount] : SLAVIC – Slavonic adj

slaw /ˈslɑː/ noun [noncount] US, informal : COLESLAW

slay /ˈsleɪ/ verb slays; slew /ˈsluː/ also slayed; slain /ˈsleɪn/; slay•ing [+ obj]
1 a literary : to kill (someone or something) especially in a battle or war ▪ The knight slew the dragon. b US : to kill (someone) — used especially in newspaper stories and headlines; usually used as (be) slain ▪ The victims were slain in their homes. ▪ The headline read "Three Slain in Bank Robbery."
2 chiefly US, informal + old-fashioned : to delight or amuse (someone) very much ▪ That guy slays me. [=that guy kills me; I think he's very funny]
– slay•er noun, pl -ers [count] – slaying noun, pl -ings [count] chiefly US ▪ Police have arrested a man in connection with three slayings that happened last month.

sleaze /ˈsliːz/ noun, pl sleaz•es
1 [noncount] somewhat informal : behavior that is dishonest or immoral ▪ political sleaze and corruption ▪ The newspaper editorial addresses the sleaze factor [=dishonesty] in political campaigns.
2 [count] US, informal : a dishonest or immoral person ▪ He's a real sleaze.

sleaze•bag /ˈsliːzˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] informal : a dishonest or immoral person ▪ She was involved with some sleazebag. ▪ a sleazebag lawyer sleaze•ball /ˈsliːzˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] informal : a dishonest or immoral person ▪ He is a lying sleazeball.

slea•zy /ˈsliːzi/ adj slea•zi•er; -est informal
1 : dishonest or immoral ▪ a sleazy lawyer/trick
2 : dirty and in bad condition from being neglected ▪ a sleazy neighborhood
3 : not decent or socially respectable ▪ sleazy nightclubs/tabloids ▪ a dancer in a sleazy outfit
– slea•zi•ness /ˈsliːzinəs/ noun [noncount]

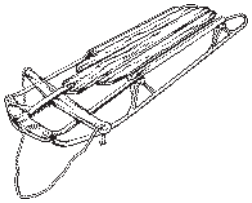
[1]sled /ˈslɛd/ noun, pl sleds [count] chiefly US : a small vehicle that has a flat bottom or long, narrow strips of metal or wood on the bottom and that is used for moving over snow

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 105 SESS: 72 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

or ice — called also (Brit) sledge; compare SLEIGH, TOBOGGAN; see also DOGSLED



sled

[2]sled verb sleds; sled•ded; sled•ding [no obj] chiefly US : to ride on a sled especially down a hill ▪ We went sledding [=(Brit) sledging] on the hill.
– sled•der noun, pl -ders [count]

sled dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] chiefly US : a dog that is trained to pull a sled — called also (Brit) sledge dog

[1]sledge /ˈslɛʤ/ noun, pl sledg•es [count] Brit : [1]SLED

[2]sledge verb sledges; sledged; sledg•ing [no obj] Brit : [2]SLED

sledge•ham•mer /ˈslɛʤˌhæmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a large, heavy hammer with a long handle — often used figuratively ▪ The news hit me like a sledgehammer. [=I was shocked by the news]

sleek /ˈsli:k/ adj sleek•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : straight and smooth in design or shape ▪ the sleek lines of a sports car ▪ a sleek, modern building
2 : smooth and shiny ▪ sleek, dark hair
3 : stylish and attractive ▪ a sleek young executive – sleek•ly adv ▪ a sleekly modern building – sleek•ness noun [noncount]

[1]sleep /ˈsli:p/ verb sleeps; slept /ˈslɛpt/; sleep•ing
1 [no obj] : to rest your mind and body by closing your eyes and becoming unconscious ▪ I couldn't sleep last night. I was awake all night long. ▪ I usually try to sleep for at least eight hours every night. ▪ Did you sleep soundly/well last night? ▪ I slept badly/poorly. ▪ We were sleeping peacefully when a sudden loud noise woke us up. ▪ I can never sleep on airplanes. ▪ He has trouble sleeping. [=finds it difficult to fall asleep] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ New York is the city that never sleeps. [=a city that is full of activity all night]
2 [+ obj] : to have enough space for (a specified number of people) to sleep in it ▪ The tent sleeps five adults.
let sleeping dogs lie see [1]DOG sleep around [phrasal verb] informal + disapproving : to have sex with many different people ▪ I heard he sleeps around.
sleep away [phrasal verb] sleep away (something) or sleep (something) away chiefly US : to spend (a period of time) sleeping ▪ Don't sleep your day away.
sleep a wink informal : to sleep for even a very brief time — used in negative statements ▪ I didn't/couldn't sleep a wink [=didn't/couldn't sleep at all] last night.
sleep in [phrasal verb] informal : to sleep past the time when you usually get up ▪ On Sundays, we always sleep in.
sleep like a baby/log informal : to sleep very well ▪ After a long day of skiing, I slept like a baby/log last night.
sleep off [phrasal verb] sleep (something) off or sleep off (something) informal : to sleep until the effects of alcohol, medication, etc., are no longer felt ▪ She was sleeping off the anesthesia. ▪ He had too much to drink, and I'm letting him sleep it off.
sleep on it informal : to think more about something overnight and make a decision about it later ▪ You've heard my offer. Why don't you sleep on it and let me know what you decide.
sleep over [phrasal verb] : to stay overnight at another person's house ▪ My mother said that you could sleep over on Saturday. — see also SLEEPOVER sleep through [phrasal verb] sleep through (something) : to sleep without being awakened by (something, such as a loud noise) ▪ She slept (right) through the thunderstorm.
sleep tight : to sleep deeply and well ▪ Good night. Sleep tight.
sleep together [phrasal verb] informal : to have sex with each other ▪ She found out that her husband and his secretary were sleeping together.
sleep with [phrasal verb] sleep with (someone) informal : to have sex with (someone) ▪ She found out that her husband was sleeping with his secretary.

[2]sleep noun
1 [noncount] : the natural state of rest during which your eyes are closed and you become unconscious ▪ I just need to get some sleep. ▪ How much sleep did you get last night? ▪ He was diagnosed with a sleep disorder. [=a medical problem that prevents him from sleeping normally] ▪ Her roommate talks/walks in her sleep. ▪ The baby cried himself to sleep. [=cried until he fell asleep] ▪ She sang the baby to sleep. [=she sang to the baby until it fell asleep] — see also REM SLEEP
2 [singular] : a period of sleep especially of a particular kind ▪ The noise woke her from a deep/light sleep. ▪ Sometimes all you need to feel better is a good night's sleep. [=a full night of sleep] ▪ (Brit) I think I'll go to my bedroom and have a sleep.
3 [noncount] informal : the dry substance that sometimes forms in the corners of your eyes while you are sleeping ▪ He woke up and rubbed the sleep out of his eyes.
get to sleep : to succeed in beginning to sleep : to fall asleep ▪ It took me almost an hour to get to sleep last night. ▪ I woke up in the middle of the night, but I eventually got back to sleep. [=started sleeping again] go to sleep 1 : to begin sleeping ▪ She lay down on the couch and went (right) to sleep. ▪ Tell the kids it's time to go to sleep. [=go to bed] ▪ After the party, I just wanted to go to sleep. 2 ✧ If a part of your body (such as a foot or leg) goes to sleep, it is not able to feel anything for a brief time, usually because you have kept it in an awkward position for too long. ▪ I have to move because my foot is going to sleep.
in your sleep ✧ If you can do something in your sleep, you can do it very easily because you have done it many times before. ▪ She could bake those cookies in her sleep. ▪ I can drive that route in my sleep.
lose sleep over : to worry about (something) so much that you cannot sleep — usually used in negative statements ▪ I'm disappointed about their decision, but I'm not losing any sleep over it. ▪ I wouldn't lose sleep over it if I were you.
put to sleep 1 put (an animal) to sleep : to give (a sick or injured animal) drugs that will make it die without pain ▪ We had to put my cat to sleep last week. 2 put (someone) to sleep a informal : to use a drug to make (someone) unconscious before a medical operation : to give (someone) anesthesia before a medical operation ▪ The doctor put the patient to sleep. b : to get (someone) ready to sleep for the night ▪ Did you put the kids to sleep? [=did you put the kids to bed?] c : to make someone fall asleep from boredom ▪ That movie practically put me to sleep. ▪ Her lectures used to put him to sleep.

sleep•away /ˈsli:pəˌweɪ/ adj, always used before a noun, US : providing beds and rooms so people can stay overnight for a number of nights ▪ We sent the kids off to sleepaway camp for the week.

sleep•er /ˈsli:pə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 a : a person who sleeps in a particular way ▪ a light sleeper [=someone who does not sleep well and wakes up easily] ▪ a heavy sleeper [=someone who sleeps well and does not wake up easily] ▪ a sound sleeper b : someone who is asleep ▪ Sleepers were awakened by the sound of a loud crash.
2 a : a place or piece of furniture that can be used for sleeping — usually used before another noun ▪ the sleeper cab of a truck ▪ Our guests will use the sleeper sofa. [=a sofa that folds out to form a bed] b : SLEEPING CAR
3 chiefly US, informal : someone or something that suddenly becomes successful in a way that was not expected ▪ He may turn out to be the sleeper in this year's election. ▪ The movie was the summer's sleeper. ▪ The movie became the sleeper hit of the summer.
4 : a spy who lives and works for a long time like an ordinary person among the people he or she is spying on — often used before another noun ▪ a sleeper agent ▪ The police discovered a sleeper cell [=a small organized group of spies] that had been operating in the city for years.
5 US : a piece of clothing that covers the entire body including usually the feet and that is worn by a baby or small child
6 Brit : one of the heavy beams to which the rails of a railway are attached : TIE

sleeping bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a warm, long bag that is used for sleeping outdoors or in a tent — see picture at CAMPING sleeping car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : a railroad car with beds for people to sleep in — called also sleeper

sleeping partner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] Brit : SILENT PARTNER

sleeping pill noun, pl ~ pills [count] : a pill that contains a drug which helps a person sleep

sleeping sickness noun [noncount] : a tropical disease that causes fever, sleepiness, and usually death

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 106 SESS: 72 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sleep•less /ˈsli:pləs/ adj
1 always used before a noun : without sleep ▪ a sleepless night
2 not used before a noun : not able to sleep ▪ He lay sleepless in bed.
– sleep•less•ly adv ▪ He lay sleeplessly. – sleep•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He suffers from sleeplessness. [=insomnia] sleep•over /ˈsli:pˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count] : a party where one or more people (especially children) stay overnight at one person's house ▪ Our daughter is having a sleepover for her friends tomorrow. — see also sleep over at ¹SLEEP sleep•walk /ˈsli:pˌwɑ:k/ verb -walks; -walked; -walk•ing [no obj] : to walk around while you are asleep – sleep•walk•er /ˈsli:pˌwɑ:kɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] – sleepwalking noun [noncount]

sleepy /ˈsli:pi/ adj sleep•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] 1 : tired and ready to fall asleep ▪ She felt sleepy and went to bed.
2 : quiet and not active or busy ▪ a sleepy little town
– sleep•i•ly /ˈsli:pəli/ adv ▪ "Yes," she murmured sleepily. – sleep•i•ness /ˈsli:pinəs/ noun [noncount]

sleepy•head /ˈsli:piˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] chiefly US, informal : a sleepy person — used especially to address someone (such as a child) ▪ Are you ready for bed, sleepyhead?

¹sleet /ˈsli:t/ noun [noncount] : frozen or partly frozen rain ▪ The snow turned to sleet and made driving very dangerous.

²sleet verb sleets; sleet•ed; sleet•ing [no obj] — used with it to say that sleet is falling ▪ It's sleeting outside. [=sleet is falling from the sky]

sleeve /ˈsli:v/ noun, pl sleeves [count]
1 : the part of a shirt, jacket, etc., that covers all or part of your arm ▪ a shirt with long/short sleeves — see color picture on page C15; see also SHIRTSLEEVE
2 a : a part that fits over or around something to protect it or to hold its parts together ▪ The joint is covered with a metal sleeve. ▪ a plastic document sleeve b : JACKET 2b ▪ a record/CD sleeve
an ace up your sleeve see ¹ACE have/keep (something) up your sleeve informal : to have/keep a secret method, trick, etc., that you can use when it is needed ▪ The coach always keeps a few tricks up his sleeve. ▪ They still have some surprises up their sleeves.
laugh up your sleeve see ¹LAUGH on your sleeve informal : in a way that can be clearly seen ▪ Many politicians wear religion on their sleeves. [=show their religious beliefs in a very open way] ▪ He wears his emotions/heart on his sleeve. [=his emotions are easy to see] roll up your sleeves see ¹ROLL
– sleeved /ˈsli:vd/ adj ▪ a long-sleeved shirt – sleeve•less /ˈsli:vləs/ adj ▪ a sleeveless dress

sleeve notes noun [plural] Brit : LINER NOTES

sleigh /ˈsleɪ/ noun, pl sleighs [count] : a large, open vehicle that is usually pulled by a horse over snow or ice

sleight of hand /ˈslaɪt-/ noun [noncount]
1 : quick or deceptive hand movements that are used especially to perform magic tricks ▪ He performs sleight of hand with cards and books of matches.
2 : the act of tricking or deceiving someone in a clever way ▪ Investigative journalists exposed the company's financial sleight of hand.

slen•der /ˈslɛndɚ/ adj slen•der•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : thin especially in an attractive or graceful way ▪ She has a slender figure. ▪ Deer have slender legs. b : very narrow : not wide ▪ a flower with a slender stem ▪ an animal with a long, slender snout
2 : small or limited in amount or size ▪ The President has a slender [=narrow, slim] lead in the polls. = The President leads by a slender margin in the polls. ▪ (formal) young people of slender means [=young people who do not have much money]
– slen•der•ness noun [noncount]

slept past tense and past participle of ¹SLEEP

sleuth /ˈslu:θ/ noun, pl sleuths [count] old-fashioned : someone who looks for information to solve crimes : DETECTIVE ▪ a clever sleuth
– sleuth•ing /ˈslu:θɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He did some sleuthing to see if he could turn up any clues.

S level noun, pl S levels [count] Brit : the highest of three tests in a particular subject that students in England, Wales, and Northern Ireland take usually at the age of 18 ▪ She got an A in her S levels in math, physics, and chemistry. — called also Scholarship level; compare A LEVEL, O LEVEL

¹slew past tense of SLAY

²slew /ˈslu:/ noun [singular] informal : a large number of people or things ▪ A whole slew of people [=a lot of people] were waiting. ▪ He has written a slew of books.

³slew verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition slews; slewed; slew•ing : to turn or slide in another direction very quickly [no obj] His car slewed [=skidded, veered] sideways off the road. [+ obj] He slewed the telescope three degrees south.

¹slice /ˈslaɪs/ noun, pl slic•es [count]
1 a : a thin piece of food that is cut from something larger ▪ a slice of bread ▪ thin slices of roast beef b : a piece that is cut from a pie, cake, etc. ▪ They sell pizza by the slice. [=they sell individual pieces cut from a pizza] ▪ a slice of pie c : a piece that is cut from a piece of fruit ▪ slices of melon/cantaloupe
2 informal a : a part of something ▪ A good slice [=portion] of the population saw the game on TV. b : an example of something ▪ The Fourth of July parade was a real slice of Americana.
3 sports : a shot in golf and other games that curves to the side instead of going straight ▪ He hit a slice into the right rough.
a slice of life : something (such as a story or movie) that shows what ordinary life is like ▪ The story is/shows/presents a slice of life in a small Midwestern town. — see also SLICE-OF-LIFE
a slice of the action see ACTION
a slice of the cake see ¹CAKE
a slice of the pie see PIE

²slice verb slices; sliced; slic•ing
1 a : to cut something with a sharp object (such as a knife) [+ obj] She sliced the lemon in half. ▪ He sliced the board in two. [=he cut the board into two pieces] ▪ He sliced open his finger while cleaning the fish. [no obj] The knife sliced through the cake easily. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His jokes sliced [=cut] through the tension in a room. b [+ obj] : to cut (something) into pieces or slices ▪ She sliced the bread/tomato/pie. — often + up ▪ He sliced up a banana.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) smaller by removing part of it ▪ The university sliced [=cut] the research budget in half.
3 sports : to hit or kick (a ball or shot) in a way that causes it to curve : to hit a slice [+ obj] (golf) She sliced her drive into the rough. [no obj] (golf) The ball sliced into the rough.
4 : to move quickly and easily through something (such as air or water) [no obj] — usually + through ▪ The ship's hull sliced through the waves. [+ obj] The conductor sliced the air with his arms.
any way you slice it or no matter how you slice it US, informal — used to say that the truth of a statement is not changed or affected by the way you describe or think about a situation ▪ Losing is disappointing no matter how you slice it. [=losing is always disappointing] ▪ Any way you slice it, online commerce is here to stay.
slice and dice chiefly US : to divide something into many small parts especially so you can use the result for your own purposes ▪ You can slice and dice the data any way you want.
slice off [phrasal verb] slice off (something) or slice (something) off : to remove (something) by cutting : to cut off (something) with a sharp object (such as a knife) ▪ Slice off the excess fat after you cook the steak. — often used figuratively ▪ The salesperson sliced 10 percent off of the cost of the car.
the best/greatest thing since sliced bread informal — used to describe something or someone that you think is very good, useful, etc. ▪ He thinks wireless Internet access is the greatest thing since sliced bread.
– sliced adj ▪ thinly sliced beef ▪ sliced bread – slic•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a bread slicer

slice–of–life adj, always used before a noun : showing what ordinary life is like ▪ a slice-of-life drama

¹slick /ˈslɪk/ adj slick•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : very smooth and slippery ▪ Be careful as you drive home—the roads are slick.
2 : clever in usually a dishonest or deceptive way ▪ a slick salesman ▪ big corporations and their slick lawyers

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 107 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

3 a : skillful and clever ▪ The new kid had some slick moves on the basketball court. b : very good : of the highest quality ▪ The students did a slick job of promoting the concert. ▪ The video game has slick graphics. ▪ a slick Broadway-style production
– slick•ly adv ▪ very slickly done – slick•ness noun [noncount]

[2]slick verb slicks; slicked; slick•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) smooth and slippery ▪ The rain slicked the roads. ▪ rain-slicked roads slick back/down [phrasal verb] slick back/down (hair) or slick (hair) back/down : to pull (hair) back and make it look smooth or shiny by using water or some wet substance (such as hair gel) ▪ He climbed out of the pool and slicked back his hair. ▪ He had long sideburns and dark slicked-back hair.

[3]slick noun, pl slicks [count]
1 : a thin layer of liquid that makes a surface very slippery; especially : OIL SLICK
2 : a smooth tire that is used in car racing ▪ racing slicks

slick•er /'slɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a long, loose raincoat — see also CITY SLICKER

[1]slide /'slaɪd/ verb slides; slid /'slɪd/; slid•ing
1 a : to move smoothly along a surface [no obj] The door slides open easily. ▪ The firefighters slid down the pole to their trucks. [+ obj] He slid the bottle across the table. ▪ Slide your finger along the seam. ▪ She slid the paper under the door. b [no obj] : to move over ice or snow smoothly and often in a way that cannot be controlled ▪ He slid across the ice. ▪ Cars were slipping and sliding all over the roads during the snowstorm.
2 [no obj] : to slip and fall ▪ Her purse slid out of her hands. ▪ The strap of her dress kept sliding down/off.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to move or pass smoothly and easily into or out of something [no obj] She slid into the booth beside us. ▪ He slid into [=began doing] his impersonation of the president. [+ obj] He slid the key into his pocket. ▪ He always finds a way to slide in a reference to his new book. b : to move so you or your movements are not noticed [no obj] They slid [=slipped] out of the room when nobody was looking. [+ obj] He quietly slid the money into my hand.
4 [no obj] : to become gradually worse over time ▪ His parents are concerned that their son's grades have started to slide. [=worsen] ▪ Sales figures have been sliding [=declining] for the last three quarters. ▪ The restaurant's new management is really letting the quality of the food slide.
5 [no obj] baseball : to dive toward a base to avoid being tagged out ▪ He slid into second base.
let (something) slide informal : to do nothing about (something, such as another person's mistake or bad behavior) : to ignore (something) ▪ You were late this morning. I'll let it slide this time, but don't let it happen again. ▪ It may be best to let things slide this time.

[2]slide noun, pl slides [count]
1 : a movement to a lower or worse state or condition : DECLINE — usually singular ▪ The recent slide in the stock market has made investors nervous. ▪ The book describes her slide into depression. ▪ the slide in television ratings ▪ (chiefly Brit) Her career has been on the slide [=on the decline] for a couple of years.
2 : an act of moving along or over a surface by sliding — usually singular ▪ The car hit a patch of ice and went into a slide. [=began sliding] — see also LANDSLIDE, MUDSLIDE, ROCKSLIDE
3 : a structure with a slippery surface that children slide down ▪ a playground slide — see picture at PLAYGROUND; see also WATERSLIDE
4 baseball : the act of diving towards a base to avoid being tagged out ▪ a slide into home plate
5 : a small piece of film with an image on it that can be shown on a wall or screen by using a special machine (called a projector) ▪ They showed us slides from their vacation in Europe. ▪ a slide presentation/show/projector
6 : a small, thin, and usually rectangular piece of glass that holds an object to be looked at under a microscope ▪ She sent the slides to the lab.
7 : a part of a musical instrument or a machine that is moved backward or forward ▪ He oiled the slide of his trombone. ▪ The slide mechanism on the machine was broken.
8 Brit : BARRETTE

slid•er /'slaɪdə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 baseball : a fast pitch that curves slightly in the air
2 : something that slides

slide rule noun, pl ~ rules [count] : an old-fashioned instrument that is like a ruler with a middle piece that slides back and forth and that is used to do calculations sliding door noun, pl ~ doors [count] : a door that opens and closes by sliding sideways instead of by swinging on hinges sliding scale noun, pl ~ scales [count] : a system in which the amount that people are required to pay in fees, taxes, etc., changes according to different situations or conditions — usually singular ▪ Patients at the clinic pay on a sliding scale based on their income.

[1]slight /'slaɪt/ adj slight•er; -est
1 : very small in degree or amount ▪ slight adjustments/errors ▪ a slight odor/cold/fever ▪ There is a slight chance of rain. ▪ Her head is tilted at a slight angle in the picture. ▪ The medication didn't have the slightest effect. [=did not have any effect] ▪ If you have even the slightest doubt, then don't do it. ▪ There is not the slightest danger [=there is no danger] of that happening.
2 : thin and not very strong or muscular ▪ a slight woman not in the slightest : not at all : not in the least ▪ "Does it bother you?" "Not in the slightest."

[2]slight verb slights; slight•ed; slight•ing [+ obj] : to offend or insult (someone) : to treat (someone) with disrespect ▪ I'm sure he didn't mean to slight you. ▪ He was slighted by his colleagues.
– slight noun, pl slights [count] ▪ a deliberate slight ▪ The remark was not intended to be a slight on his character.
– slighting adj ▪ He made slighting references to her book. ▪ a slighting remark slight•ly /'slaɪtli/ adv : in a very small amount or degree : a little ▪ I got only a slightly better grade when I retook the test. ▪ I'm slightly confused. ▪ The sauce has a slightly bitter taste. ▪ The price has increased slightly. ▪ Keep your knees slightly bent. ▪ He seemed to move ever so slightly closer. [=he moved closer only by a very small amount] slightly built : thin and not very strong or muscular ▪ a slightly built girl

[1]slim /'slɪm/ adj slim•mer; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : thin in an attractive way ▪ She looked slim and fit for her age. ▪ He has a slim build. ▪ I was a lot slimmer in those days.
2 : small in amount, size, or degree ▪ a slim majority ▪ They have only a slim chance of winning. ▪ "What are their chances of winning?" "Slim to none." [=they have almost no chance of winning] – slim•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was tall and slimly built.
– slim•ness noun [noncount]

[2]slim verb slims; slimmed; slim•ming
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) thinner ▪ She started exercising to slim her thighs.
2 [no obj] Brit : [2]DIET ▪ I'll skip dessert; I'm slimming.
slim down [phrasal verb] 1 : to lose weight : to become thinner ▪ She's been trying to slim down. ▪ He looks like he's really slimmed down since last year. 2 slim down (something) or slim (something) down : to make (something) smaller : REDUCE ▪ We have to slim down the company's advertising budget.

slime /'slaɪm/ noun, pl slimes
1 [noncount] : a thick, slippery liquid ▪ Green slime covers the surface of the pond.
2 US, informal : a very bad, unpleasant, or dishonest person [noncount] That guy's slime. ▪ She thinks men are slime. [count] — usually singular ▪ That guy's a real slime.

slime•ball /'slaɪm,bɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls [count] informal : a very bad, unpleasant, or dishonest person ▪ He's a real slimeball for leaving her.

slim•line /'slɪm,laɪn/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : smaller or thinner in size than usual ▪ a slimline CD case slim•mer /'slɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : a person who is trying to lose weight : DIETER

[1]slimming adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : making you look thinner ▪ That dress is slimming on you. ▪ Black suits are slimming.
2 always used before a noun : intended to help people lose weight ▪ a controversial slimming [=(more commonly) diet] drug ▪ slimming exercises

[2]slimming noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the act of losing weight ▪ I know I'm in need of a little slimming.

slimy /'slaɪmi/ adj slim•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 108 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 a : covered with slime ▪ a slimy rock/worm b : resembling slime ▪ slimy mud ▪ a slimy gel
2 informal : very dishonest, bad, or immoral ▪ a slimy businessman/politician ▪ slimy business practices
3 informal : causing disgust : OFFENSIVE ▪ Get your slimy fingers off my jacket.
– slim•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]sling /ˈslɪŋ/ verb slings; slung /ˈslʌŋ/; sling•ing [+ obj]
1 : to throw (something) with a forceful sweeping motion ▪ She slung the bag over her shoulder. ▪ The protesters started slinging [=flinging] stones at the police. — often used figuratively ▪ They slung [=hurled] insults at each other. ▪ He was slung [=thrown] into jail for the night. — see also MUDSLINGING
2 : to hang (something) loosely ▪ He slung a hammock between two trees. — often used as (be) slung ▪ His guitar was slung around his neck. ▪ a low-slung belt sling your hook Brit, informal : to go away : LEAVE ▪ She angrily told him to sling his hook.

[2]sling noun, pl slings [count]
1 : something that is used to lift, carry, or support something: such as a : a piece of cloth that hangs around your neck and is used to support an injured arm or hand ▪ He has to keep his arm in a sling. b : a long strap attached to something ▪ a leather rifle sling c : a large piece of cloth that is worn usually around your neck and that forms a bag which is used to hold a baby close to you d : a large net, rope, chain, etc., that is used to lift heavy things ▪ We attached the sling to the crane.

sling

2 : a strap usually with a pocket in the middle that is used to throw something (such as a stone) slings and arrows : the problems and criticisms that are experienced in someone's life ▪ Politicians must be willing to endure/suffer the slings and arrows of public life.

sling•back /ˈslɪŋˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a woman's shoe that is open at the back and has a thin strap that goes around the heel sling•shot /ˈslɪŋˌʃɑːt/ noun, pl -shots [count] US : a Y-shaped stick with an elastic band attached to it that is used for shooting small stones — called also (Brit) catapult

slingshot

slink /ˈslɪŋk/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition slinks; slunk /ˈslʌŋk/ also US slinked; slink•ing [no obj] : to move in a way that does not attract attention especially because you are embarrassed, afraid, or doing something wrong ▪ I thought I saw someone slinking [=sneaking] around outside. ▪ He slinked away in shame.

slinky /ˈslɪŋki/ adj slink•i•er; -est
1 : fitting closely to the body in a sexy way ▪ a slinky black dress ▪ The dancers wore slinky costumes.
2 : slow in a sexually attractive way ▪ the song's slinky rhythm ▪ slinky dance movements

[1]slip /ˈslɪp/ verb slips; slipped; slip•ping
1 [no obj] : to slide out of the proper position ▪ The ring was too big and slipped off my finger. ▪ The engine's belt continued to slip. ▪ The hammer slipped out of my hands. ▪ The knife slipped and she cut herself. ▪ My foot slipped on the stair and I fell.
2 [no obj] : to lose your balance especially on a slippery surface ▪ She slipped and fell. — often + on ▪ He slipped on the stairs. ▪ Be careful not to slip on the ice.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move easily across or over something [no obj] The drawer should just slip [=slide] into place. ▪ The bib slips over the baby's head. [+ obj] Help me slip the cover over the piano.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move into or out of a place without being noticed ▪ Someone was able to slip through security. ▪ We'll slip out the back door. — see also SLIP AWAY (below)
5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to put on or take off a piece of clothing quickly or easily ▪ He stood up and slipped on his jacket. ▪ He slipped off his shoes. ▪ Let me just slip into my bathrobe. ▪ You should slip out of those wet clothes.
6 [+ obj] a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to put or place (something) somewhere in a quiet or secret way ▪ He slipped the key into his pocket. ▪ Someone slipped a drug into his drink. ▪ He managed to slip in [=include] a few jokes during his speech. b : to give (something) to someone in a quiet or secret way ▪ He slipped the envelope to his secretary. = He slipped his secretary the envelope.
7 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to happen or pass without being noticed by someone or something ▪ Time keeps slipping away. ▪ Her birthday slipped by without us knowing. ▪ Despite all our efforts, some errors do slip past us. ▪ We didn't want to let the opportunity slip through our fingers. [=we did not want to let the opportunity pass without taking advantage of it]
8 [no obj] a : to go from one state or condition to another ▪ She was slipping out of consciousness. — often + into ▪ The patient slipped into a coma. ▪ The word has slipped into disuse. ▪ The actor slipped into character. [=the actor began to behave, speak, etc., like the character he was playing] b : to move into a lower or worse state or condition ▪ The stock market has slipped to its lowest level in a month. ▪ I can't believe he beat me. I must be slipping. ▪ Test scores slipped [=declined] this year.
9 [+ obj] a : to escape (someone) : to get away from (someone) ▪ The thief slipped his pursuers. b : to get free from (something) ▪ The dog slipped its collar.
10 [+ obj] medical : to have (a part of your body) move out of its normal position especially in a joint ▪ I slipped a disc.
let (something) slip or let slip (something) : to say (something that you did not want to say) by mistake ▪ He let slip that he's looking for a better job. ▪ Don't let it slip that we hadn't planned on inviting her.
slip away [phrasal verb] 1 : to pass out of existence ▪ The afternoon quietly slipped away. ▪ They saw their four-run lead slip away. ▪ Their grandmother slipped away [=died] in her sleep last night. 2 : to leave a place without being noticed ▪ They slipped away from the party right after dinner.
slip out [phrasal verb] : to be said by mistake ▪ I didn't intend to tell them. It just slipped out.
slip through/between the cracks see [2]CRACK slip through the net see [1]NET slip up [phrasal verb] informal : to make a mistake ▪ Make sure you don't slip up again.
slip your mind/memory informal : to be forgotten ▪ Her birthday completely slipped my mind. [=I completely forgot about her birthday]

[2]slip noun, pl slips [count]
1 a : a small piece of paper ▪ He wrote the number on a slip of paper. b : a piece of paper that has a specified use or purpose ▪ a deposit slip ▪ a betting slip ▪ a rejection slip — see also PINK SLIP, SALES SLIP
2 : a mistake ▪ a careless slip ▪ Their performance was very good except for a few minor slips. — see also A SLIP OF THE TONGUE (below), FREUDIAN SLIP
3 : a movement to a lower or worse state or condition : DECLINE — usually singular ▪ a ratings slip = a slip in the ratings
4 : the act of losing your balance and falling especially on a slippery surface — usually singular ▪ The bruise is from a slip on the ice.
5 : a piece of woman's underwear that is like a thin dress or skirt and that is worn under a dress or skirt ▪ Her slip was showing. ▪ You will need a half slip [=a slip that only covers you from the waist down] for that dress. — see color picture on page C13
6 : a place for a ship or boat in the water between two piers ▪ She guided her boat into one of the slips.
a slip of the tongue : something that is said by mistake ▪ a careless slip of the tongue give (someone) the slip informal : to escape (someone) : to get away from (someone) ▪ The intruder ran from the police and gave them the slip.
– compare [3]SLIP, [4]SLIP

[3]slip noun [singular] old-fashioned : a young, thin person or animal — + of ▪ He was a mere slip of a boy. [=he was just a small boy] ▪ She was a wee slip of a thing. — compare [2]SLIP, [4]SLIP

[4]slip noun [noncount] technical : thin, wet clay that is used in pottery — compare [2]SLIP, [3]SLIP slip•case /ˈslɪpˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cas•es [count] : a hard protective box for books or magazines that is open at one end

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 109 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

slip•cov•er /ˈslɪpˌkʌvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a loose, removable cloth cover for a piece of furniture ▪ We put a slipcover on the sofa.

slip•knot /ˈslɪpˌnɑːt/ noun, pl -knots [count] : a knot that can slide along the rope around which it is made and that is tightened by pulling on one end slip–on /ˈslɪpˌɑːn/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a shoe that does not have ties, buckles, etc., and that you can put on or take off very easily ▪ a pair of slip-ons ▪ slip-on sandals slip•page /ˈslɪpɪʤ/ noun, pl -pag•es formal

1 : a movement downward : an act of moving into a lower or worse condition or state [count] price slippages ▪ a slippage [=decrease] in sales [noncount] There has been some slippage in the stock's price/value. [=the price/value of the stock has gone down]
2 : the act of sliding or slipping [noncount] The boot's sole prevents slippage. [count] an accidental slippage

slipped disc also chiefly US slipped disk noun, pl ~ discs also chiefly US ~ disks [count] medical : an injury to the spine in which one of the connecting parts between the bones slips out of its proper position and causes back pain slip•per /ˈslɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a light, soft shoe that is easily put on and taken off and that is worn indoors — called also (Brit) carpet slipper; see picture at SHOE slip•pery /ˈslɪpəri/ adj slip•per•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : difficult to stand on, move on, or hold because of being smooth, wet, icy, etc. ▪ The trails were muddy and slippery. ▪ The floor looks slippery. ▪ Fish are slippery to hold. ▪ The sign cautions: "Slippery when wet."
2 : not easy to understand or identify in an exact way ▪ a slippery definition ▪ slippery concepts/notions
3 informal : not able to be trusted : TRICKY ▪ slippery politicians – slip•per•i•ness noun [noncount]

slippery slope noun [singular] : a process or series of events that is hard to stop or control once it has begun and that usually leads to worse or more difficult things ▪ His behavior will lead him down a slippery slope to ruin.

slip road noun, pl ~ roads [count] Brit : a short road that is used to get on or off a major road or highway : an on-ramp or off-ramp slip•shod /ˈslɪpˈʃɑːd/ adj : very careless or poorly done or made ▪ slipshod construction ▪ He did a slipshod job. ▪ Her scholarship is slipshod at best.

slip•stream /ˈslɪpˌstriːm/ noun, pl -streams [count] technical : an area of low air pressure that is immediately behind a vehicle that is moving very fast and that other vehicles can ride in to go faster with less effort ▪ The motorcycle was riding the truck's slipstream.

slip•up /ˈslɪpˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : a careless mistake ▪ We were late because of a slipup in the schedule.

[1]slit /ˈslɪt/ verb slits; slit; slit•ting [+ obj] : to make a long, narrow cut or opening in (something) with a sharp object ▪ I slit the bag open at the top. ▪ The bag of seeds had been slit open. ▪ Someone tried to slit his throat. [=someone tried to kill him by cutting his throat] ▪ She tried to slit her wrists. [=to kill herself by cutting her wrists]

[2]slit noun, pl slits [count] : a long, narrow cut or opening in something ▪ You could see through the slit in the fence. ▪ The skirt has a slit on one side. ▪ a dress with a slit skirt

slith•er /ˈslɪðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 [no obj] : to move by sliding your entire body back and forth ▪ The snake slithered through the garden. ▪ To get under the porch, I lay on my stomach and slithered like a snake.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move smoothly, quietly, or secretly like a snake [no obj] She slithered quietly into the room. [+ obj] He slithered his hand around her waist.

slith•ery /ˈslɪðəri/ adj slith•er•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having an unpleasantly slippery surface, feeling, or quality ▪ slithery reptiles
2 : having a flowing and smooth look or way of moving ▪ She wore a sexy, slithery dress.

[1]sliv•er /ˈslɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small, thin piece that has been cut, torn, or broken from something larger — often + of ▪ My son has a sliver [=splinter] of wood in his finger. ▪ Just a sliver [=a very thin slice] of cake for me, please. — often used figuratively ▪ A sliver of light peeked through the curtains. ▪ a sliver of hope

[2]sliver verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to cut or break (something) into small, thin pieces ▪ The vase (was) slivered into thousands of shards when she dropped it.
– slivered adj ▪ slivered almonds

slob /ˈslɑːb/ noun, pl slobs [count] informal 1 disapproving : a person who is lazy and dirty or messy ▪ He's a disgusting slob.
2 : an ordinary person ▪ Some poor slob got robbed.

slob•ber /ˈslɑːbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [no obj] : to let saliva or liquid flow from your mouth : DROOL ▪ Her baby just slobbered on the blanket. ▪ The puppy slobbered all over me.
slobber over [phrasal verb] slobber over (someone or something) informal : to show that you like (someone or something) in an excessive and uncontrolled way ▪ His friends were slobbering (all) over his new sports car.
– slobber noun [noncount] ▪ I have dog slobber [=saliva] all over me.

slob•bery /ˈslɑːbəri/ adj : full of drool or saliva ▪ a big, slobbery (wet) kiss ▪ a slobbery dog : covered in drool or saliva ▪ The toy was all slobbery because the dog had been chewing on it.

[1]slog /ˈslɑːg/ verb, always followed by a preposition or adverb slogs; slogged; slog•ging informal
1 : to keep doing something even though it is difficult or boring : to work at something in a steady, determined way : PLOD [no obj] He slogged away at the paperwork all day. ▪ She slogged through her work. [+ obj] She slogged her way through her work.
2 : to walk slowly usually with heavy steps : PLOD [no obj] We've been slogging along for hours. ▪ He slogged through the deep snow. [+ obj] They slogged their way through the snow.
slog it out Brit, informal : to fight or compete until one side wins : to slug it out
– slog•ger noun, pl -gers [count]

[2]slog noun [singular] informal
1 : a long period of hard work or effort ▪ It will be a long, hard slog before everything is back to normal.
2 : a long, difficult walk ▪ It was a long slog up the mountain.

slo•gan /ˈsloʊgən/ noun, pl -gans [count] : a word or phrase that is easy to remember and is used by a group or business to attract attention ▪ political/campaign slogans ▪ advertising/marketing slogans slo•gan•eer•ing /ˌsloʊgəˈnɪrɪŋ/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving : the use of slogans in advertising or politics ▪ There's been too much sloganeering in this year's mayoral race.

sloop /ˈsluːp/ noun, pl sloops [count] : a small sailboat with one mast

[1]slop /ˈslɑːp/ verb slops; slopped; slop•ping
1 a [no obj] : to spill from a container ▪ Water slopped (over the edge) as he handed her the glass. b always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to splash or spill (a liquid) ▪ She slopped coffee on her sweater. ▪ Huge waves slopped water into the boat.
2 [+ obj] US : to feed slop to (an animal) ▪ slop the pigs slop around/about [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to move or act in a lazy or relaxed way : to spend time resting or relaxing ▪ He slopped around the house all day.

[2]slop noun, pl slops
1 : food that is fed to pigs and other animals [noncount] The pigs are fed slop. [plural] The pigs ate the slops.
2 [noncount] informal : soft, wet food that is very unappealing ▪ I won't eat that slop!
3 [noncount] chiefly US, informal : something that is worthless, foolish, etc. ▪ The movie is just a lot of sentimental slop. [=garbage]

[1]slope /ˈsloʊp/ noun, pl slopes [count]
1 a : ground that slants downward or upward : ground that slopes ▪ They climbed the steep slope. ▪ a slight/gentle slope b : an area of land on a mountain that is used for skiing ▪ a ski slope — often plural ▪ Let's hit the slopes. [=let's go skiing] ▪ I love being on the slopes. [=I love skiing]
2 : an upward or downward slant ▪ What is the angle of the slope? ▪ You can adjust the slope of the ramp. ▪ a slope of 30 degrees
– see also SLIPPERY SLOPE

[2]slope verb slopes; sloped; slop•ing [no obj]
1 : to not be level : to have a downward or upward slant ▪ The ground sloped downward. ▪ sloping mountainsides

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 110 SESS: 73 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : to not be straight : to lean or slant to the left or right ▪ His handwriting slopes to the left.

slope off [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to leave a place quietly or secretly ▪ He sloped off to bed.

slop•py /'slɑ:pi/ adj slop•pi•er; -est

1 : not careful or neat : showing a lack of care, attention, or effort ▪ a sloppy effort/essay ▪ sloppy handwriting ▪ Your work has been very sloppy lately.

2 informal : romantic in a foolish or exaggerated way ▪ a sloppy love song

3 : containing or involving a lot of liquid or too much liquid ▪ sloppy food ▪ a sloppy mixture/kiss

– slop•pi•ly /'slɑ:pəli/ adv – slop•pi•ness noun [noncount]

sloppy joe /'slɑ:pi'ʤoʊ/ noun, pl ~ joes [count] US : ground beef that is cooked in a thick, spicy sauce and usually served on a bun

slosh /'slɑ:ʃ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition slosh•es; sloshed; slosh•ing

1 [no obj] : to walk through water, mud, etc., in a forceful and noisy way ▪ The children sloshed through the big puddle.

2 a [no obj] of a liquid : to move in a noisy or messy way ▪ Water sloshed in the bottom of the boat as it rocked. ▪ Juice sloshed over the rim of her glass. b [+ obj] : to cause (a liquid) to move in a noisy or messy way ▪ The child sloshed the water in the tub.

sloshed /'slɑ:ʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~] slang : very drunk ▪ They were/got totally sloshed last night.

[1]slot /'slɑ:t/ noun, pl slots [count]

1 : a long, thin opening ▪ a box with a slot in the top ▪ He put three quarters into the machine's (coin) slot.

2 a : a period of time that is available or used for a particular occurrence, event, etc. ▪ The doctor has an open slot at 2 p.m. ▪ The network moved my favorite TV show to a different time slot. b : a place or position in an organization, group, etc. ▪ They offered him a regular slot on the newspaper's editorial page. ▪ We need someone to fill an open slot in the marketing department.

3 US : SLOT MACHINE — usually plural ▪ He likes to play the slots.

[2]slot verb slots; slot•ted; slot•ting

1 [+ obj] : to put (something) into a space which is made for it ▪ He slotted the piece of wood into the groove.

2 [no obj] : to fit easily into something ▪ Her ideas slot neatly into the theory.

slot in [phrasal verb] slot (someone or something) in informal : to find a place for (someone or something) in a schedule, plan, etc. ▪ I can slot you in at 2 p.m.

sloth /'slɑ:θ/ noun, pl sloths

1 [noncount] formal : the quality or state of being lazy : LAZINESS ▪ the sins/vices of gluttony and sloth

2 [count] : a type of animal that lives in trees in South and Central America and that moves very slowly

sloth

sloth•ful /'slɑ:θfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : LAZY ▪ a slothful person ▪ slothful behavior/habits slot machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count]

1 : a machine used for gambling that starts when you put coins into it and pull a handle or press a button — called also (informal) one-armed bandit, (Brit) fruit machine

2 Brit : VENDING MACHINE

slotted adj : having a slot or slots ▪ a slotted spoon [=a spoon that has narrow holes in it so that liquid can pass through]

[1]slouch /'slaʊʧ/ verb slouch•es; slouched; slouch•ing [no obj] : to walk, sit, or stand lazily with your head and shoulders bent forward ▪ Sit up straight. Please don't slouch. ▪ She slouched into the room. ▪ The boy was slouching over his school books.

[2]slouch noun, pl slouches

1 [singular] : a way of walking, sitting, or standing with the head and shoulders bent forward ▪ She walks with a slouch.

2 [count] informal : a lazy or worthless person ▪ (chiefly US) They're just a bunch of lazy slouches. — usually used in the phrase no slouch to say that someone is very good at a particular job, activity, etc. ▪ She's no slouch when it comes to cooking. [=she's a very good cook] ▪ He's no slouch as a director.

[1]slough /'slʌf/ verb sloughs; sloughed; slough•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to lose a dead layer of (skin) ▪ Snakes slough (off) their skin annually.

2 : to get rid of (something unwanted) — usually + off ▪ We have to slough off our fears and face the challenge that confronts us.

[2]slough /'slu:, Brit 'slaʊ/ noun, pl sloughs

1 [singular] : a sad or hopeless condition — usually + of ▪ a slough of depression/frustration/sadness

2 [count] : an area of soft, wet ground or deep mud ▪ a slough of mud slov•en•ly /'slʌvənli/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : messy or untidy ▪ slovenly clothes ▪ a slovenly man ▪ He dressed in a slovenly manner. ▪ slovenly habits

2 : done in a careless way : SLOPPY ▪ slovenly thinking/grammar

– slov•en•li•ness noun [noncount]

[1]slow /'sloʊ/ adj slow•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : not moving quickly : not able to move quickly ▪ a slow, old dog ▪ a slow runner/pace/speed b : not happening quickly : taking more time than is expected or wanted ▪ a slow growth/increase/process ▪ Bureaucracy is always slow. c : not operating quickly ▪ a slow computer d : not doing something quickly ▪ The buyers were slow to act, and the house was sold to someone else. : not able to do something quickly ▪ a slow reader/learner e : not allowing someone or something to move quickly ▪ a slow racetrack/route

2 : not easily able to learn and understand things ▪ He was a quiet boy who seldom spoke, and some people thought he was a little slow.

3 : not very busy or interesting ▪ a slow market ▪ Business is slow during the summer. ▪ The first few chapters are slow, but after that it gets better.

4 of a clock or watch : showing a time that is earlier than the correct time ▪ The clock is (five minutes) slow.

5 photography : not allowing photographs to be taken very quickly or when there is very little light ▪ slow film a slow start ✧ Someone or something that has a slow start is not successful at first but does well eventually. ▪ Despite a slow start at the box office, the movie's popularity has increased steadily. ▪ The team got off to a slow start this season but is playing well now.

do a slow burn see [2]BURN

slow off the mark see [1]MARK

– slow•ish /'sloʊɪʃ/ adj – slow•ness noun [noncount]

[2]slow adv slower; -est [also more ~; most ~] : in a slow way or at a low speed ▪ go/move/walk/drive slow ▪ My computer is working slow. — opposite FAST

[3]slow verb slows; slowed; slow•ing

1 a [no obj] : to begin to move at a lower speed ▪ The car slowed and gradually came to a stop. — often + down or up ▪ The car slowed down a little as it approached the intersection. ▪ I slowed up and let the others catch up with me. b [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a car) move at a lower speed ▪ The extra weight slowed the truck. — often + down or up ▪ Slow the car down so that I can read the sign. ▪ The extra weight slowed up the truck.

2 a [no obj] : to become slower ▪ a slowing economy — often + down or up ▪ Business slowed down/up after the holidays. b [+ obj] : to make (something) slower — often + down or up ▪ They tried to slow down/up the process somewhat.

slow down [phrasal verb] : to stop being very active, talking very fast, etc. ▪ You've been working too hard. You need to slow down and take it easy for a while. ▪ Slow down! You're talking so fast I can hardly understand you.

– slowing noun [singular] There has been a slowing of job growth in recent months. [noncount] There has been some slowing of the economy.

slow•coach /'sloʊˌkoʊʧ/ noun, pl -coach•es [count] Brit, informal : SLOWPOKE slow•down /'sloʊˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] : a decrease in the speed at which something is moving or happening ▪ an economic slowdown ▪ The business had a slowdown after the holidays.

slow lane noun, pl ~ lanes

1 [count] : a section of a highway for cars that are traveling at slower speeds ▪ He's a nervous driver and always stays in the slow lane.

2 [singular] : a situation in which someone or something is not advancing as quickly as others or is not as successful as others ▪ His career is still stuck in the slow lane.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 111 SESS: 73 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

slow•ly /'sloʊli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in a slow way or at a low speed ▪ go/walk/drive slowly ▪ working/talking/moving slowly ▪ Things are slowly getting better.

slowly but surely : by making slow but definite progress — used to stress that something is happening or being done even though it is not happening or being done quickly ▪ We're getting the work done, slowly but surely.

slow motion noun [noncount] : a way of showing action that has been filmed or photographed at a speed that is slower than the actual speed ▪ The scene was shot in slow motion. ▪ They showed the goal in slow motion.

– slow–mo•tion /'sloʊ'moʊʃən/ adj ▪ a slow-motion replay ▪ slow-motion photography

slow•poke /'sloʊˌpoʊk/ noun, pl -pokes [count] US, informal : a person who moves, acts, or works very slowly ▪ We're going to be late if that slowpoke doesn't hurry up. — called also (Brit) slowcoach

slow–wit•ted /'sloʊ'wɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : slow to learn or understand things ▪ a slow-witted child — opposite QUICK-WITTED

sludge /'slʌʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 : thick, soft, wet mud
2 : a soft, thick material that is produced in various industrial processes (such as in the treatment of sewage)
3 : a thick material that can form in the oil in an engine and cause engine problems

– sludgy /'slʌʤi/ adj sludg•i•er; -est ▪ sludgy ground

[1]slug /'slʌg/ noun, pl slugs [count]
1 : a small, soft creature that is like a snail without a shell ▪ a garden slug
2 US, informal : a lazy person ▪ He's such a slug.
– compare [2]SLUG, [3]SLUG

slug

[2]slug noun, pl slugs [count]
1 US : a small piece of metal that is fired from a gun : BULLET ▪ a .45 slug
2 US, informal : a disc shaped like a coin that is used illegally instead of a coin in a machine
3 informal : a small amount of liquor taken in one swallow — usually + of ▪ a slug of whiskey
– compare [1]SLUG, [3]SLUG

[3]slug noun, pl slugs [count] US : a hard punch with the fist ▪ a slug to the jaw — compare [1]SLUG, [2]SLUG

[4]slug verb slugs; slugged; slug•ging [no obj] informal : to hit (someone or something) hard with your fist, a bat, etc. ▪ He said something nasty, and she slugged him. ▪ (baseball) He slugged two home runs in yesterday's game.

slug it out informal : to fight or compete over something until one side wins ▪ The companies are slugging it out in court.

slug•ger /'slʌgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : someone who hits someone or something hard: such as a : a boxer who punches hard b baseball : a batter who hits many home runs slug•gish /'slʌgɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : moving slowly or lazily ▪ a sluggish lizard/stream ▪ The game picked up after a sluggish start.

– slug•gish•ly adv ▪ The water flowed sluggishly. – slug•gish•ness noun [noncount]

[1]sluice /'slu:s/ noun, pl sluic•es [count]
1 : an artificial passage for water to flow through with a gate for controlling the flow
2 : a device (such as a floodgate) used for controlling the flow of water

[2]sluice verb sluices; sluiced; sluic•ing
1 [+ obj] : to wash or spray (something or someone) with a stream of water ▪ He sluiced (down) the floor.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to flow or pour down heavily ▪ Rain came sluicing down.

[1]slum /'slʌm/ noun, pl slums
1 [count] : an area of a city where poor people live and the buildings are in bad condition ▪ a city slum ▪ He grew up in the slums of New York.
2 [singular] Brit, informal : a very untidy place ▪ His house is a slum.

[2]slum verb slums; slummed; slum•ming [no obj] informal : to spend time in places or conditions that are much worse than your usual places or conditions ▪ She's never been one to slum around (in cheap hotels). ▪ He had no problem slumming (it) in cheap hotels. ▪ He sometimes likes to go slumming in bars around the city.

[1]slum•ber /'slʌmbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [no obj] literary : SLEEP ▪ The children quietly slumbered.

[2]slumber noun, pl -bers literary : SLEEP [count] a dreamless slumber [noncount] She fell into deep slumber.

slumber party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] US : a party where one or more people (usually girls) stay overnight at one person's house : SLEEPOVER ▪ My 12-year-old daughter is having a slumber party tonight.

slum•lord /'slʌmˌloəd/ noun, pl -lords [count] chiefly US, disapproving : a person who owns a building with apartments that are in bad condition and rents them to poor people

[1]slump /'slʌmp/ verb slumps; slumped; slump•ing [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to sit or fall down suddenly and heavily ▪ She fainted and slumped to the floor. ▪ Exhausted, he slumped down into the chair. b : to move down or forward suddenly ▪ His shoulders slumped forward in disappointment.
2 : to decrease suddenly and by a large amount ▪ Real estate prices slumped during the recession.

– slumped adj ▪ The driver of the car was found slumped over the steering wheel unconscious. ▪ He was/sat slumped in front of the TV all afternoon.

[2]slump noun, pl slumps [count]
1 : a sudden decrease in prices, value, amount, etc. ▪ a market slump — often + in ▪ a slump in real estate prices
2 : a period of time when an economy is doing poorly ▪ The economy's been in a slump since last year.
3 US, sports : a period of time when a team or player is doing poorly ▪ They've been in a slump ever since they traded their best player. ▪ He's in a batting slump.

slung past tense and past participle of [1]SLING

slunk past tense and past participle of SLINK

[1]slur /'slə/ verb slurs; slurred; slur•ring
1 a [+ obj] : to say (something) in an unclear way especially because you are drunk or tired ▪ She was slurring her words. ▪ His speech was slurred. b [no obj] of speech : to become unclear especially because you are drunk or tired ▪ His speech/words slurred as he got drunker
2 [+ obj] : to say critical and unfair things about (someone or someone's character) ▪ They tried to slur him by lying about his war record. ▪ They tried to slur his character/reputation.
3 [+ obj] music : to sing or play musical notes so that each one runs smoothly into the next one

[2]slur noun, pl slurs [count]
1 : an insulting remark about someone or someone's character ▪ a racial/ethnic slur [=an insult based on someone's race/ethnicity]
2 music : a symbol in music that is used to show that notes are to be sung or played smoothly with no break in between them slurp /'slə:p/ verb slurps; slurped; slurp•ing [+ obj] informal : to eat or drink (something) noisily or with a sucking sound ▪ He always slurps his soup/tea.

– slurp noun, pl slurps [count] — usually singular ▪ a quick slurp of coffee slur•ry /'slə:ri/ noun, pl -ries [count, noncount] : a thick mixture of water and another substance (such as mud or lime)

slush /'slʌʃ/ noun [noncount]
1 : partly melted snow ▪ a sidewalk covered with slush
2 informal : something that is thought to be silly because it is too romantic or emotional ▪ The movie is just a lot of romantic/sentimental slush.

– slushy /'slʌʃi/ adj slush•i•er; -est ▪ slushy snow slush fund noun, pl ~ funds [count] : an amount of money that is kept secretly for illegal or dishonest purposes ▪ a political slush fund ▪ a secret slush fund for paying bribes slut /'slʌt/ noun, pl sluts [count] informal + offensive : a woman who has many sexual partners

– slut•ty /'slʌti/ adj slut•ti•er; -est ▪ a slutty woman ▪ slutty clothes

sly /'slaɪ/ adj sli•er or sly•er; sli•est or sly•est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : clever in a dishonest way ▪ a sly con man ▪ a sly scheme
2 : showing that you know a secret ▪ a sly wink/glance/smile on the sly informal : in a secret way ▪ They've been meeting each other on the sly. [=secretly]

– sly•ly adv ▪ He winked slyly. – sly•ness noun [noncount]

sm. abbr small

S–M or S/M /ˌɛsənd'ɛm/ abbr sadomasochism

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 112 SESS: 73 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]smack /ˈsmæk/ verb smacks; smacked; smack•ing [+ obj]
1 : to slap or hit (someone or something) hard ▪ He smacked the child on the bottom. ▪ I was so angry I felt like smacking someone.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to set or hit (something) on or against something else so that it makes a loud noise ▪ She smacked the plate down on the table. ▪ He accidentally smacked his head against the shelf.
3 US, informal : to kiss (someone) loudly ▪ His aunt likes to smack him on the cheek every time she comes over.
smack of [phrasal verb] smack of (something) : to seem to contain or involve (something unpleasant) ▪ That suggestion smacks of hypocrisy.
smack your lips : to close and open your lips noisily especially before or after eating or drinking ▪ She smacked her lips (together) and announced that dinner was delicious.

[2]smack noun, pl smacks [count]
1 : a hard slap or hit ▪ He gave the child a smack on the bottom.
2 : a loud noise that is made when something hits something else in a forceful way ▪ The dictionary fell to the floor with a smack.
3 informal : a loud kiss ▪ She gave him a smack on the cheek.
– compare [3]SMACK, [5]SMACK, [6]SMACK

[3]smack noun [noncount] : a small, noticeable amount of a particular thing ▪ a smack [=hint, trace] of vanilla flavor ▪ There's a smack of condescension in the book's tone.
— compare [2]SMACK, [5]SMACK, [6]SMACK

[4]smack adv, informal : exactly or directly ▪ She dropped the book smack in the middle of the table. ▪ The ball hit me smack in the face.

[5]smack noun [noncount] slang : HEROIN — compare [2]SMACK, [3]SMACK, [6]SMACK

[6]smack noun, pl smacks [count] Brit : a small fishing boat — compare [2]SMACK, [3]SMACK, [5]SMACK

smack–dab /ˈsmækˈdæb/ adv, US, informal : exactly or directly ▪ They planted a tree smack-dab in the center of the lawn.

smack•er /ˈsmækɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal 1 : a U.S. dollar or British pound — usually plural ▪ I won 1,000 smackers gambling.
2 : a loud kiss ▪ She gave him a smacker right on the lips.

[1]small /ˈsmɑːl/ adj small•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : little in size ▪ They live in a small house. ▪ a small glass of soda ▪ She moved to a smaller town. ▪ The toy is small enough to fit in my pocket. ▪ He has small hands. ▪ This room is a little smaller than that one.
2 : few in number or little in amount ▪ a small crowd/group/company/party/school ▪ a small supply/number ▪ The movie was a small success. ▪ There is a small [=slight] chance that they can still win. — see also small hours at HOUR
3 : not very important : MINOR ▪ a small matter ▪ There are still a few small details we have to deal with. ▪ It's only a small mistake. ▪ The change had only a small impact on the community.
4 : very young ▪ I loved the playground when I was small. ▪ a small boy ▪ They have two small children.
5 : involving or including few people, things, etc. ▪ She works for a small company. ▪ small businesses/dealers/investors ▪ a small advertising campaign ▪ a small fund-raiser
6 : LOWERCASE ▪ The first letter is a capital, but the rest are small.
7 : very soft and quiet ▪ a small voice
8 : foolish or ashamed ▪ He's just trying to make you feel small. ▪ He felt very small to be caught cheating.
a big fish in a small pond see [1]FISH in no small measure : to a great degree : largely or mostly ▪ A child's happiness is due in no small measure [=in no small part] to its parents.
(it's a) small world see [1]WORLD not (in) the smallest bit see [1]BIT
– small•ish /ˈsmɑːlɪʃ/ adj – small•ness /ˈsmɑːlnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]small noun, pl smalls [count] : something that is sold in a small size : something that is smaller than other things of the same kind ▪ These shirts are all smalls. ▪ "What size ice-cream cones do you want?" "We'll take three larges and a small."
the small of the/your back : the lower part of your back that is smaller and narrower than the rest ▪ I felt a sharp pain in the small of my back.

small ad noun, pl ~ ads [count] Brit : [2]CLASSIFIED

small arms noun [plural] : weapons (such as handguns and rifles) that are fired while being held in one hand or both hands small beer noun [noncount] Brit, informal : SMALL POTATOES

small change noun [noncount]
1 : coins that are not worth a lot of money ▪ a pocket full of small change
2 informal a : an amount of money that is not large or important ▪ The fine is a lot of money to some people, but to him it's small change. b : something or someone that is not important ▪ My problems are small change compared to yours. ▪ He wasn't a major criminal. He was strictly small change.

small–claims court noun, pl ~ courts [count] law : a court where legal disputes over small amounts of money are settled small fry noun, pl ~ fries informal 1 US a [count] : a child — usually singular ▪ I remember going to the beach when I was just a small fry. b [noncount] : CHILDREN ▪ fun activities for the small fry

2 [noncount] : people or things that are not important ▪ Big businesses are not concerned with the small fry.

small•hold•ing /ˈsmɑːlˌhoʊldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] chiefly Brit : a small farm
– small•hold•er /ˈsmɑːlˌhoʊldɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

small intestine noun, pl ~ -tines [count] : the long, narrow upper part of the intestine in which food is digested after it leaves the stomach — see picture at HUMAN; compare LARGE INTESTINE

small–mind•ed /ˈsmɑːlˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : not interested in new or different ideas : not willing to accept the opinions of other people ▪ small-minded people
2 : typical of a small-minded person ▪ a small-minded attitude
– small–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

small potatoes noun [noncount] US, informal : someone or something that is not important or impressive ▪ Last week's storm was small potatoes compared to the blizzard we had two years ago. ▪ These changes are small potatoes. [=(Brit, informal) small beer] small•pox /ˈsmɑːlˌpɑːks/ noun [noncount] : a serious disease that causes fever and a rash and often death ✧ Smallpox is now very rare.

small print noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : FINE PRINT

small–scale /ˈsmɑːlˈskeɪl/ adj
1 : involving few people or things ▪ a small-scale production ▪ small-scale manufacturing
2 : covering or involving a small area ▪ a small-scale network ▪ a small-scale map small screen noun

the small screen : TELEVISION ▪ a movie made for the small screen

small talk noun [noncount] : informal, friendly conversation about unimportant subjects ▪ They made small talk while waiting for the meeting to start.

small–time /ˈsmɑːlˈtaɪm/ adj : not very important or successful : PETTY ▪ small-time racketeering ▪ a small-time thief small–town /ˈsmɑːlˌtaʊn/ adj : of or relating to a small town ▪ small-town values/life/charm : coming from or living in a small town ▪ a small-town girl — compare BIG-CITY

smarmy /ˈsmɑɚmi/ adj smarm•i•er; -est informal + disapproving : behaving in a way that seems polite, kind, or pleasing but is not genuine or believable ▪ a smarmy salesman/politician ▪ smarmy politeness

[1]smart /ˈsmɑɚt/ adj smart•er; -est
1 chiefly US a : very good at learning or thinking about things : INTELLIGENT ▪ He's a smart [=bright, clever] guy. ▪ Poodles are said to be smart dogs. — see also STREET-SMART b : showing intelligence or good judgment : WISE ▪ That was a smart investment. ▪ Taking that job was a smart move. [=a good decision]
2 informal + disapproving : behaving or talking in a rude or impolite way : showing a lack of respect for someone ▪ Don't get smart with me. [=don't be rude to me] ▪ He gave her a smart answer.
3 : very popular : stylish and fashionable — somewhat old-fashioned in U.S. English ▪ one of the smartest restaurants in town ▪ He hangs out with the smart set. [=the popular and usually rich people]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 113 SESS: 75 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

4 : very neat and clean — somewhat old-fashioned in U.S. English ▪ What a smart [=beautiful, charming] little kitchen you have! ▪ He looks smart [=(US) sharp] in his new suit.
5 : very quick and energetic ▪ I gave him a smart slap on the head. ▪ We continued along at a very smart pace.
6 : controlled by computers and able to do things that seem intelligent ▪ smart bombs/weapons smart money — used to say who or what is expected to win, be successful, etc. ▪ The smart money is on Jones to win the election. [=people think that Jones will win the election]
– smart•ly adv ▪ She slapped him smartly. ▪ He was smartly dressed. – smart•ness noun [noncount]

[2]smart verb smarts; smart•ed; smart•ing [no obj]
1 : to feel a sudden sharp pain ▪ "Ouch! That smarts!" ▪ Her eyes were smarting from the smoke.
2 : to be upset about something — usually used as (be) smarting ▪ He's still smarting at/from/over losing the match last month.
smart off [phrasal verb] US, informal : to say rude and irritating things to someone ▪ Ignore her, she is just smarting off again.

[3]smart adv smart•er; -est : in a smart way : SMARTLY ▪ He plays smart and the fans appreciate that. ▪ I dress smarter than she does. ▪ Play it smart during the contract negotiations and you'll get more vacation time.

smart–al•eck /ˈsmɑɚtˌælɪk/ noun, pl -ecks [count] informal + disapproving : a person who says things that are clever or funny but that are also disrespectful or rude ▪ He's a nice kid but sometimes he can be a real smart-aleck. ▪ Don't be such a smart-aleck.
– smart–aleck or smart–al•ecky /ˈsmɑɚtˌælɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ smart-aleck remarks ▪ a smart-alecky comment

smart–arse /ˈsmɑɚtˌɑɚs/ noun, pl -ars•es [count] Brit, informal + impolite : SMART-ALECK
– smart–arse or smart–arsed /ˈsmɑɚtˌɑɚst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ smart-arse remarks smart–ass /ˈsmɑɚtˌæs/ noun, pl -ass•es [count] US, informal + impolite : SMART-ALECK ▪ Quit being a smart-ass and behave yourself.

– smart–ass or smart–assed /ˈsmɑɚtˌæst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a smart-assed remark ▪ a smart-ass attitude

smart card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a plastic card (such as a credit card) that has a small computer chip for storing information

smart•en /ˈsmɑɚtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
smarten up [phrasal verb] 1 US a : to become more intelligent or aware : to become smarter ▪ He told me to smarten up and pay attention to the teacher. ▪ He'd better smarten up [=wise up] or he'll get fired. b smarten (someone or something) up or smarten up (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) smarter or more aware ▪ Someone needs to smarten him up before he gets in trouble. 2 smarten (someone or something) up or smarten up (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) neat and attractive ▪ They smartened [=spruced] themselves up for the party. ▪ They smartened up the room for the party.

smart–mouth /ˈsmɑɚtˌmaʊθ/ or smart–mouthed /ˈsmɑɚtˌmaʊθt/ adj, US, informal + disapproving : saying rude or disrepectful things ▪ smart-mouth comments ▪ a bunch of smart-mouthed kids – smart–mouth noun, pl -mouths [count] ▪ He's a real smart-mouth.

smarts /ˈsmɑɚts/ noun [plural] US, informal : INTELLIGENCE ▪ He's got the smarts [=brains, know-how] to do the job. — see also STREET SMARTS

smarty or smart•ie /ˈsmɑɚti/ noun, pl smart•ies [count] US, informal 1 : SMART-ALECK ▪ Don't be such a smarty.
2 : a smart person ▪ She's a real smarty and does her job very well.

smarty–pants /ˈsmɑɚtiˌpænts/ noun [noncount] informal + disapproving : a person who talks and behaves like someone who knows everything ▪ Go ahead, smarty-pants, tell us about your grade point average. ▪ Don't be such a smarty-pants. [=know-it-all]

[1]smash /ˈsmæʃ/ verb smash•es; smashed; smash•ing
1 : to break (something) into many pieces : to shatter or destroy (something) [+ obj] He smashed the vase with a hammer. ▪ The ball smashed the window. [no obj] The vase fell and smashed to pieces. ▪ The window smashed [=shattered] when the baseball hit it.
2 a : to hit (something) violently and very hard [+ obj] She smashed [=crushed] her finger in the door. [no obj] He smashed into the wall. ▪ The car smashed [=crashed] into the rail. b [+ obj] : to hit (a ball) downward and very hard in tennis and other games ▪ She smashed the ball deep into the opposite corner.
3 [+ obj] : to destroy or beat (someone or something) easily or completely ▪ We smashed our opponents. ▪ He smashed the world record. [=he broke the world record by a large amount]
4 [+ obj] : to crash (a vehicle) ▪ He smashed his car. — often + up in U.S. English ▪ She smashed up her new car.
smash down [phrasal verb] smash (something) down or smash down (something) : to hit (something) hard so that it breaks and falls down ▪ Police smashed down the door.
smash in [phrasal verb] smash (something) in or smash in (something) : to hit (something) hard so that you break it or make a hole in it ▪ I smashed in the window. ▪ I was so mad I felt like smashing his face in.
smash up [phrasal verb] smash (something) up or smash up (something) : to break and destroy (something) in a deliberate way ▪ Vandals broke in and smashed the place up. — see also [1]SMASH 4 (above), SMASHUP – smash•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]smash noun, pl smashes [count]
1 : someone or something that is very successful or popular ▪ The new movie is a smash. ▪ She was a smash at the party. ▪ His new song promises to be a smash hit.
2 : the sound made when something hits a surface very violently ▪ The vase fell to the ground with a loud smash.
3 : a hard downward hit in tennis or other games ▪ She hit an overhand smash that won the match.
4 Brit : CRASH, SMASHUP ▪ a car smash smash–and–grab adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit — used to describe a robbery that is done by breaking a window of a car, store, etc., and stealing whatever you can take quickly ▪ a smash-and-grab robbery/thief

smashed /ˈsmæʃt/ adj
1 : broken to pieces ▪ a smashed window
2 not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] slang : very drunk ▪ He had a few too many beers and was smashed.

smash•ing /ˈsmæʃɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] old-fashioned : very good or impressive ▪ (chiefly Brit) You look smashing in that dress. = That dress looks smashing on you. ▪ The play was a smashing success. [=a very great success]

smash•up /ˈsmæʃˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : an accident that badly damages or destroys a vehicle : CRASH ▪ a four-car smashup

smat•ter•ing /ˈsmætərɪŋ/ noun [singular] : a small amount of something ▪ She only knows a smattering of German. ▪ a smattering of applause

[1]smear /ˈsmiɚ/ noun, pl smears [count]
1 : a dirty mark, spot, streak, etc., made by touching or rubbing something ▪ There was a smear [=smudge] on the mirror.
2 medical : a very small sample of something (such as skin or blood) that someone examines with a microscope ▪ The blood smear revealed malaria. — see also PAP SMEAR
3 : an untrue story about a person that is meant to hurt that person's reputation ▪ a deliberate smear — often used before another noun ▪ a smear campaign ▪ His opponent did a smear job on him.

[2]smear verb smears; smeared; smear•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) dirty by rubbing it with something else ▪ The children smeared the window with fingerprints.
2 [+ obj] : to spread (something) over a surface ▪ She smeared jam on her toast. ▪ Butter was smeared all over the counter. ▪ The axle was smeared [=covered] with grease. ▪ children with paint-smeared faces
3 a [no obj] : to spread or drip in an untidy way ▪ Her mascara smeared when she cried. ▪ The ink smeared [=smudged] when she folded the letter. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to spread or drip in an untidy way ▪ Water smeared [=smudged] the ink so I could barely read the letter.
4 [+ obj] : to make untrue statements about someone in order to hurt that person's reputation ▪ political opponents smearing each other ▪ They deliberately tried to smear him by telling lies about his war record. ▪ They tried to smear his reputation.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 114 SESS: 75 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

smear test noun, pl ~ tests [count] Brit, medical : PAP SMEAR

[1]smell /ˈsmɛl/ noun, pl smells
1 [count] a : the quality of a thing that you can sense with your nose : ODOR ▪ the distinctive smell of onions ▪ the smell [=scent] of her perfume b : an unpleasant odor ▪ What is that smell?
2 [noncount] : the ability to notice or recognize odors : the ability to smell things ▪ Dogs have a keen sense of smell.
3 [singular] : an act of smelling something ▪ One smell [=whiff] of this perfume and you will fall in love with it.

[2]smell verb smells; smelled or Brit smelt /ˈsmɛlt/; smell•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to use your nose to sense smells ▪ She leaned over and smelled the flowers. ▪ She smelled [=sniffed] the milk to see if it was sour. b : to be able to use your nose to sense smells [no obj] I have a cold right now so I can't smell. [+ obj] I can't smell anything because I'm so stuffed up. c not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to notice something because of its smell ▪ I could smell dinner cooking. ▪ I think I smell gas.
2 a [linking verb] : to have a particular smell ▪ This car smells like mold. ▪ That soup smells good. — sometimes + of ▪ He smelled of alcohol. b not used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to have a bad smell ▪ Whew, what smells? ▪ These sneakers smell. [=stink]
3 a [+ obj] : to sense or detect (something) : to think that (something) is going to happen ▪ Can't you smell the profits? ▪ As the end of the game got closer, our team began to smell victory. [=began to sense/feel that victory was very near] ▪ I smell trouble. [=I think there's going to be trouble] b [no obj] : to appear or seem to have a certain quality ▪ Something doesn't smell [=seem] right about this deal.
come out/up smelling like a rose see [2]ROSE smell a rat see [1]RAT smell out [phrasal verb] smell (something) out or smell out (something) : to find (something) by smelling it ▪ Police have trained the dogs to smell out [=sniff out] drugs.
(stop and) smell the roses see [2]ROSE smelling salts noun [plural] : a chemical that has a strong smell and that is used to wake people up after they faint smelly /ˈsmɛli/ adj smell•i•er; -est : having a bad smell ▪ I don't like smelly cheese. ▪ smelly sneakers ▪ smelly [=stinky] feet

[1]smelt /ˈsmɛlt/ noun, pl smelts or smelt [count] : a type of small fish that can be eaten

[2]smelt verb smelts; smelt•ed; smelt•ing [+ obj] : to melt rock that contains metal in order to get the metal out ▪ the process used for smelting iron ore

[3]smelt Brit past tense and past participle of [2]SMELL

smelt•er /ˈsmɛltə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine used for smelting metal

smid•gen also smid•geon also chiefly Brit smid•gin /ˈsmɪʤən/ or US smidge /ˈsmɪʤ/ noun [singular] informal : a small amount ▪ I'll just have a smidgen of ice cream. ▪ a smidgen of dignity ▪ Could you move just a smidge [=bit] to the left?

[1]smile /ˈsmajəl/ noun, pl smiles [count] : an expression on your face that makes the corners of your mouth turn up and that shows happiness, amusement, pleasure, affection, etc. ▪ He greeted me with a big smile. ▪ I like your smile. ▪ She gave me a smile. [=she smiled at me] ▪ a polite smile ▪ a smile of pleasure/satisfaction
all smiles : happy and smiling ▪ She was all smiles as she opened her birthday presents.
wipe that/the smile off someone's face see [1]WIPE

[2]smile verb smiles; smiled; smil•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a smile : to make the corners of your mouth turn up in an expression that shows happiness, amusement, pleasure, affection, etc. ▪ The photographer asked us to smile for the camera. ▪ She smiled when she saw him. ▪ She hasn't had much to smile about lately. [=she hasn't had much reason to feel happy lately] ▪ He smiled to himself [=he smiled or felt happy] as he looked at the photos. — often + at ▪ She smiled at me. ▪ I had to smile at his silly comments.
2 [+ obj] a : to show or express (something, such as approval, encouragement, etc.) by a smile ▪ Both parents smiled their approval. ▪ I smiled my encouragement. b : to say (something) with a smile ▪ "Nice job," she smiled.
smile on/upon [phrasal verb] smile on/upon (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) have good luck or success ▪ Fortune smiled upon us. [=we were lucky] ▪ Lady Luck smiled on me and I won the jackpot.

[1]smil•ey /ˈsmaɪli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happy and cheerful : smiling a lot ▪ She's a very smiley kid.

[2]smiley noun, pl smil•ies [count] : SMILEY FACE

smiley face noun, pl ~ faces [count] : a symbol used in typing, writing, or drawing that represents a person smiling ▪ He ended his e-mail with a smiley face. ▪ The teacher drew a smiley face on the student's homework. ▪ a smiley-face button

smil•ing•ly /ˈsmaɪlɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : with a smile : while smiling ▪ "May I help you?" he asked smilingly. ▪ The waiter smilingly described the specials.

smirk /ˈsmɚk/ verb smirks; smirked; smirk•ing [no obj] : to smile in an unpleasant way because you are pleased with yourself, glad about someone else's trouble, etc. ▪ She tried not to smirk when they announced the winner. — often + at ▪ She smirked at the thought of how this would hurt him.
– smirk noun, pl smirks [count] ▪ He had a big smirk on his face when he told me the news.

smite /ˈsmaɪt/ verb smites; smote /ˈsmoʊt/; smit•ten /ˈsmɪtn̩/ or smote; smit•ing [+ obj] literary + old-fashioned
1 : to hurt, kill, or punish (someone or something) ▪ He vowed that he would smite his enemy. ▪ Misfortune smote him and all his family.
2 : to hit (someone or something) very hard ▪ He smote the ball mightily.

smith /ˈsmɪθ/ noun, pl smiths [count] : a person who makes things (such as tools or horseshoes) with iron : BLACKSMITH ▪ Ancient smiths developed the techniques needed to make metal tools. — see also GOLDSMITH, GUNSMITH, SILVERSMITH

smith•er•eens /ˌsmɪðəˈriːnz/ noun [plural] informal : small broken pieces : tiny bits ▪ The car was blown to smithereens. [=was completely destroyed by an explosion] ▪ The vase was smashed to smithereens. ▪ An explosion here could blow us all to smithereens.

smithy /ˈsmɪθi/ noun, pl smith•ies [count]
1 : the place where a blacksmith works ▪ They tore down the old smithy behind the general store.
2 : SMITH ▪ In earlier times, the town smithy [=blacksmith] would repair pots and wagon wheels.

smit•ten /ˈsmɪtn̩/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : in love with someone or something ▪ From the moment he saw her, he was smitten. — usually + by or with ▪ He was smitten with her from the moment he laid eyes on her. ▪ I was smitten by his good looks. ▪ consumers smitten with the latest gadgets
2 : suddenly affected by something (such as a strong emotion or a serious illness) — usually + by or with ▪ He was smitten by disaster. ▪ She was smitten with terror.
– see also SMITE

smock /ˈsmɑːk/ noun, pl smocks [count]
1 : a light and loose long shirt usually worn over your regular clothing to protect it from getting dirty ▪ an artist's smock ▪ The children's smocks were covered with paint. — called also (Brit) overall
2 : a long shirt usually worn by women

smock•ing /ˈsmɑːkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a type of decoration for clothing that is made of many small folds that are sewn into place smog /ˈsmɑːg/ noun [noncount] : fog mixed with smoke : a cloud of dirty air from cars, factories, etc., that is usually found in cities

smog•gy /ˈsmɑːgi/ adj smog•gi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a lot of smog ▪ smoggy cities

[1]smoke /ˈsmoʊk/ noun, pl smokes
1 [noncount] : the cloud of black, gray, or white gases and dust that is produced by burning something ▪ Smoke from the campfire stung my eyes. ▪ cigarette smoke ▪ We could see black smoke from the house fire. ▪ I smell smoke. ▪ smoke inhalation — see also SECONDHAND SMOKE
2 a [count] informal : a cigarette, cigar, etc. : something that people smoke ▪ Hey, (have you) got a smoke? ▪ Can I bum a few smokes off you? b [singular] : the act of smoking a cigarette, cigar, etc. ▪ He went outside for a smoke. = He went outside to have a smoke. [=to smoke a cigarette, cigar, etc.]
blow smoke chiefly US, informal : to lie about something : to say things that are not true in order to fool or impress people ▪ Don't listen to him. He's just blowing smoke.
go up in smoke 1 : to burn up completely ▪ All their possessions went up in smoke. [=burned in a fire] 2 informal

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 115 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

: to end or disappear completely ▪ When she hurt her back, all her dreams of being a dancer went up in smoke.

where there's smoke, there's fire (chiefly US) or there's no smoke without fire — used to say that if people are saying that someone has done something wrong there is usually a good reason for what they are saying ▪ "Do you believe those rumors about the mayor?" "Well, you know what they say, where there's smoke, there's fire."

[2]smoke verb smokes; smoked; smok•ing

1 : to suck the smoke from a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc., into your mouth and lungs and then exhale it [+ obj] I caught her smoking a cigarette. ▪ He was thrown out of school for smoking marijuana. [no obj] She smokes and drinks, but I don't. ▪ Do you mind if I smoke in here? — see also CHAIN-SMOKE, SMOKING

2 [+ obj] : to produce smoke ▪ That old car smokes when you start it up. ▪ the smoking remains of a fire ▪ Olive oil has a high smoking point. [=it does not begin to produce smoke until it is heated to a high temperature]

3 [+ obj] : to use smoke to flavor and preserve (food, such as meat, cheese, or fish) ▪ We smoke our hams over hickory. — see also SMOKED

4 [+ obj] US, informal a : to beat (someone or something) completely : DEFEAT ▪ They smoked the competition. ▪ We got smoked. b : to hit (a ball) very hard and fast ▪ (baseball) He smoked a line drive into left field. ▪ (tennis) She smoked a forehand down the line.

put/stick that in your pipe and smoke it see [1]PIPE smoke like a chimney chiefly US, informal : to smoke a lot of cigarettes, cigars, etc. ▪ She still smokes like a chimney despite warnings from her doctor.

smoke out [phrasal verb] smoke (someone or something) out or smoke out (someone or something) : to force (someone or something) to leave a place by filling the place with smoke ▪ The hunters tried to smoke the foxes out of the den. — often used figuratively ▪ She's determined to smoke out [=find out] the truth about what really happened.

smoke alarm noun, pl ~ alarms [count] : a device that makes a loud and harsh noise when smoke fills a room — called also smoke detector smoke and mirrors noun [plural] chiefly US : something that seems good but is not real or effective and that is done especially to take attention away from something else that is embarrassing or unpleasant ▪ The new proposal brings no real changes—it's all just smoke and mirrors.

smoke bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a bomb that produces a lot of smoke when it explodes ▪ Police threw smoke bombs at the rioters.

smoked adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : treated with smoke to add flavor and prevent spoiling ▪ smoked ham/mozzarella/salmon

2 : covered by a gray film : tinted gray ▪ smoked glass/windows

smoke detector noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : SMOKE ALARM

smoke–lled room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a room or place where secret decisions are made by a small group of powerful people ▪ political deals made in smoke-filled rooms smoke–free adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a place where people are not allowed to smoke ▪ We guarantee a smoke-free working environment.

smoke grenade noun, pl ~ -nades [count] chiefly US : SMOKE BOMB smoke•house /'smoʊkˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building where meat or fish is given flavor and kept from spoiling by the use of smoke ▪ Hams hung from the rafters of the smokehouse.

smoke•less /'smoʊkləs/ adj : not producing or containing smoke ▪ smokeless powder ▪ a smokeless cigarette smokeless tobacco noun [noncount] : tobacco that is placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum instead of being smoked

smok•er /'smoʊkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who smokes cigarettes, cigars, etc. ▪ She's a heavy smoker.

2 : a piece of equipment used for smoking foods

smoke screen noun, pl ~ screens [count]

1 : something that you do or say to hide something or to take attention away from something ▪ His campaign promises were just a smoke screen. ▪ The truth was hidden behind a smoke screen of lies.

2 : a cloud of thick smoke that is used to hide ships, soldiers, etc.

[1]smoke•stack /'smoʊkˌstæk/ noun, pl -stacks [count] : a tall chimney on a factory, ship, etc., for carrying smoke away — called also (Brit) chimney stack

[2]smokestack adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : of or relating to companies that manufacture products in large factories ▪ She invested in smokestack stocks. ▪ Car manufacturing and other smokestack industries need to adapt to the global economy.

smoking /'smoʊkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of smoking a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc. ▪ There is no smoking allowed in this restaurant. ▪ When did you start smoking? ▪ Would you like to be seated in the smoking section? [=an area where smoking is allowed] ▪ You need to quit/stop smoking. — see also NONSMOKING, PASSIVE SMOKING smoking gun noun, pl ~ guns [singular] : a piece of evidence that clearly proves who did something or shows how something happened ▪ This document is the smoking gun that proves that he was lying.

smoking jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a loose jacket or robe worn especially in the past by men at home smoky also smok•ey /'smoʊki/ adj smok•i•er; -est

1 : filled with smoke ▪ a smoky bar ▪ smoky rooms

2 : having a flavor, taste, or appearance of smoke ▪ a smoky, full-bodied wine ▪ smoky eyes ▪ Her dress was a smoky blue.

3 : very attractive or sexy ▪ Her smoky voice drew me in. ▪ She gave him a smoky look.

– smok•i•ness /'smoʊkinəs/ noun [noncount]

smol•der (US) or Brit smoul•der /'smoʊldɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]

1 : to burn slowly without flames but usually with smoke ▪ The remains of the campfire smoldered. ▪ smoldering ruins ▪ a smoldering fire

2 literary a : to feel a strong emotion but keep it hidden ▪ He smoldered with lust. ▪ Her eyes smoldered with anger. b : to be felt strongly by someone without being directly shown or expressed ▪ Anger smoldered in my heart. ▪ Their discontent smoldered [=simmered] for years.

3 : to be attractive in a sexy way ▪ He gave her a smoldering look. [=he looked at her in a very sexy way]

smooch /'smu:ʧ/ verb smooch•es; smooched; smooch•ing informal : to kiss [no obj] They smooched while sitting on the porch swing. [+ obj] She smooched him while they were on the porch swing.

– smooch noun, pl smooches [count] ▪ Give me a big smooch [=kiss] on the cheek before you go.

[1]smooth /'smu:ð/ adj smooth•er; -est

1 a : having a flat, even surface : not rough : not having any bumps, ridges, or uneven parts ▪ smooth skin ▪ They groomed the ski trail so it was smooth. ▪ The river rocks had been worn smooth by the water. ▪ The surface is (as) smooth as silk. [=very smooth] b of a liquid mixture : not having any lumps : mixed together so there are no lumps ▪ Whisk the flour into the gravy until it is smooth. ▪ The milkshake was smooth and creamy.

2 : happening or done without any problems ▪ With the aid of observers, the election process was a smooth one. ▪ Our trip was smooth and uneventful.

3 a : even and regular without sudden movements ▪ the smooth movements of a swimmer ▪ She has a nice, smooth golf swing. b : not having or causing sudden, violent movements ▪ His new car has a smooth ride. ▪ Our flight was very smooth. — opposite ROUGH

4 informal : relaxed, confident, and pleasant in a way that may be intended to deceive people ▪ I don't trust him—he's just too smooth. ▪ He has a smooth manner. ▪ He's a real smooth talker. [=he says flattering things] ▪ She's a smooth operator. [=a person who is smooth] — see also SMOOTHIE

5 a : not sharp, bitter, or unpleasant in taste or smell ▪ The wine was full and smooth. ▪ a smooth cup of coffee b : pleasant to hear or listen to ▪ He has a rich, smooth voice.

smooth sailing see SAILING

take the rough with the smooth see [3]ROUGH

– smooth•ness noun [noncount]

[2]smooth verb smoothes; smoothed; smooth•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) smooth ▪ He smoothed his tie and headed out the door. ▪ The coin's date had been smoothed away over time. — often + back or down ▪ She smoothed back her hair. ▪ Smooth the surface down with sandpaper. — see also SMOOTH OUT (below)

2 : to remove problems or difficulties from a situation ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 116 SESS: 74 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

They smoothed the way for a quick end to the dispute. [=they made it easier to achieve a quick end to the dispute] ▪ She has helped smooth a path [=has helped make it easier] for more women to run for office.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to spread (something) over a surface (such as your skin) : to apply (something) by rubbing it on a surface ▪ Smooth the cream on after your shower. ▪ Smooth the wax over the wood before polishing. ▪ She smoothed on some moisturizer before she put on her makeup. ▪ He smoothed ointment over the cut.

smooth away [phrasal verb] smooth (something) away or smooth away (something) : to make (problems, difficulties, etc.) less serious : to remove (problems, difficulties, etc.) ▪ We'll help smooth away any legal trouble.

smooth out [phrasal verb] smooth (something) out or smooth out (something) 1 : to make (something) smooth or flat ▪ Help me smooth out the tablecloth. ▪ The ground was rocky, so we smoothed out the path with cedar chips. 2 : to make (something) easier by removing or dealing with problems ▪ We will smooth out the election process by next year. ▪ She tried to smooth things out [=end an argument or disagreement] with her daughter-in-law, but the damage was done.

smooth over [phrasal verb] smooth (something) over or smooth over (something) : to make (a disagreement, problem, difficulty, etc.) seem less serious than it really is ▪ Don't worry about missing the application deadline—we'll smooth that over with the office. ▪ She smoothed over the objections to his candidacy.

smooth•ie or smoothy /ˈsmuːði/ noun, pl -ies [count]
1 : a person who has a relaxed, polite, and confident way of speaking and behaving but who may not seem honest or sincere ▪ He's a real smoothie around women.
2 : a thick, cold drink that is made of fruit mixed with milk, yogurt, or juice ▪ fruit smoothies smooth•ly /ˈsmuːðli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in a smooth way: such as a : without any problems or difficulties ▪ The whole trip went very smoothly. ▪ As long as things go smoothly, she'll be fine. b : without delays or sudden starts or stops ▪ The accident has been cleaned up and traffic is flowing smoothly once again. ▪ The software enables you to move smoothly from one screen to the next. c : with confidence and ease : in a relaxed and confident way ▪ She made the jump shot smoothly and easily. ▪ "Don't worry," she said smoothly, "Just leave it all to me."

smooth–talking adj [more ~; most ~] : talking in a friendly and pleasant way that is not completely honest or sincere ▪ a smooth-talking salesman ▪ smooth-talking politicians

s'more /ˈsmoə/ noun, pl s'mores [count] US : a sweet food that is made by putting a melted marshmallow and a piece of chocolate between two crackers

smor•gas•bord /ˈsmoəgəsˌboəd/ noun [singular]
1 : a meal with many different foods that are placed on a large table so that people can serve themselves : BUFFET
2 : a large mixture of many different things ▪ We were presented with a smorgasbord [=variety] of options.

smote past tense and past participle of SMITE

smoth•er /ˈsmʌðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]
1 : to kill (someone) by covering the face so that breathing is not possible ▪ He tried to smother her with a pillow.
2 : to cover (something) in order to keep it from growing or spreading ▪ She smothered the fire with a blanket. — often used figuratively ▪ She smothered her son with love/affection. [=she gave her son a lot of love and affection in a way that prevented him from feeling free to live his own life]
3 : to try to keep (something) from happening : to try to stop doing (something) ▪ I tried to smother [=stifle, suppress] a yawn.
4 : to cover (something or someone) thickly or completely ▪ She smothers her pancakes in/with syrup. [=she puts a lot of syrup on her pancakes] ▪ The potatoes were smothered in gravy. ▪ She smothered him with/in kisses. [=she kissed him many times]

smoulder Brit spelling of SMOLDER

[1]smudge /ˈsmʌʤ/ noun, pl smudg•es [count] : a dirty mark, spot, streak, etc. ▪ His hand left a grimy smudge on the wall.
– smudgy /ˈsmʌʤi/ adj smudg•i•er; -est

[2]smudge verb smudges; smudged; smudg•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make a dirty mark, spot, streak, etc., on (something) ▪ Don't smudge the picture with your dirty hands! ▪ His face was smudged with grease.
2 a [no obj] : to become blurry and unclear by being touched or rubbed ▪ Charcoal drawings smudge easily. b [+ obj] : to make (something) blurry or unclear by touching or rubbing it ▪ Be careful not to smudge [=smear] the ink.

smug /ˈsmʌg/ adj smug•ger; smug•gest disapproving : having or showing the annoying quality of people who feel very pleased or satisfied with their abilities, achievements, etc. ▪ It's OK to celebrate your success, but try not to be too smug about it. ▪ You can wipe that smug look off your face. ▪ a smug smile/expression – smug•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She smiled smugly.
– smug•ness noun [noncount]

smug•gle /ˈsmʌgəl/ verb smug•gles; smug•gled; smug•gling [+ obj]
1 : to move (someone or something) from one country into another illegally and secretly ▪ He was arrested for smuggling drugs into the country. ▪ They smuggled immigrants across the border. ▪ The paintings had been smuggled out of the country before the war. ▪ smuggled goods
2 informal : to take or bring (something) secretly ▪ We smuggled his favorite sandwich past the nurse.
– smug•gler /ˈsmʌglə/ noun, pl -glers [count] ▪ drug smugglers

smut /ˈsmʌt/ noun [noncount] informal + disapproving : language, pictures, or stories that deal with sex in a way that is offensive ▪ Smut is not allowed in this house. ▪ obscenity laws that aimed to stamp out smut

smut•ty /ˈsmʌti/ adj smut•ti•er; -est informal + disapproving : relating to sex in a way that is offensive ▪ smutty jokes/humor ▪ a smutty magazine

[1]snack /ˈsnæk/ noun, pl snacks [count] : a small amount of food eaten between meals ▪ He had a snack of chips and dip. ▪ between-meal snacks ▪ I didn't have time for lunch so I just grabbed a quick/light snack. ▪ peanuts, potato chips, and other snack foods

[2]snack verb snacks; snacked; snack•ing [no obj] informal : to eat a small amount of food between meals : to eat a snack ▪ She tries not to snack between meals. ▪ I'll just snack on an apple if I'm hungry.

snack bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] : a public place where small meals and snacks are served usually at a counter ▪ There's a snack bar at the pool where we can get nachos.

sna•fu /snæˈfuː/ noun, pl -fus [count] chiefly US, somewhat informal : a problem that makes a situation difficult or confusing ▪ a major scheduling snafu

[1]snag /ˈsnæg/ noun, pl snags [count]
1 : an unexpected problem or difficulty ▪ We hit a snag with our travel plans. = We ran into a snag with our travel plans. [=we had a problem with our travel plans]
2 : a sharp or broken part of something that sticks out from a smooth surface ▪ I caught my sleeve on a snag and tore it.
3 : a thread that sticks out from a piece of cloth ▪ My sweater has a snag where I caught it on a nail.
4 : a dead tree or tree stump that is still standing up ▪ After the fire, there were a few snags still smoldering.

[2]snag verb snags; snagged; snag•ging [+ obj]
1 : to catch and tear (something) on something sharp ▪ I snagged my favorite sweater on a nail.
2 US, informal : to catch, capture, or get (something or someone) by quick action or good luck ▪ The shortstop snagged the grounder. ▪ The police snagged the suspect as he was trying to run away. ▪ I managed to snag the information I needed from/off the Internet. ▪ Can I snag a ride from/with you?

snail /ˈsneɪl/ noun, pl snails [count] : a small animal that lives in a shell that it carries on its back, that moves very slowly, and that can live in water or on land at a snail's pace : very slowly ▪ The work is progressing at a snail's pace.

snail

snail mail noun [noncount] informal + humorous : ordinary mail that is delivered by a postal system : mail that is not e-mail ▪ She still uses snail mail for paying bills. ▪ I can be contacted by e-mail and snail mail.

[1]snake /ˈsneɪk/ noun, pl snakes [count]
1 : an animal that has a long, thin body and no arms or legs ▪

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 117 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

a poisonous snake — see also GARTER SNAKE, RATTLESNAKE

2 chiefly US, informal : a bad person who tells lies and betrays other people ▪ He's a dirty snake! ▪ I thought she was my friend, but she turned out to be a snake in the grass.

3 : a long thin tool that is used to clear out blocked pipes — called also plumber's snake

snake

– snake•like /ˈsneɪkˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

[2]snake verb snakes; snaked; snak•ing : to move like a snake : to follow a twisting path with many turns [no obj] The road snakes through the mountains. ▪ Cables snaked across the floor. [+ obj] Technicians snaked cables through the set. ▪ He snaked his way through the crowd.

snake•bit /ˈsneɪkˌbɪt/ also snake•bitten /ˈsneɪkˌbɪtn̩/ adj [more ~; most ~] US slang : having bad luck : very unlucky ▪ The team was snakebit this year, winning only 1 game out of 10. ▪ He's so snakebit that nothing he does comes out right.

snake•bite /ˈsneɪkˌbaɪt/ noun, pl -bites [count, noncount] : the wound you get when a snake bites you snake charmer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone who appears to make snakes move by playing music to them

snake oil noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal + disapproving : something that is sold as medicine but that is not really useful or helpful in any way ▪ snake oil remedies — often used figuratively ▪ He thinks politicians are just a bunch of snake oil salesmen. [=dishonest people]

snake•skin /ˈsneɪkˌskɪn/ noun [noncount] : leather made from the skin of a snake ▪ boots made of snakeskin = snakeskin boots snaky /ˈsneɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : moving like a snake ▪ the dancer's snaky movements

2 chiefly US : long, thin, or twisting like a snake ▪ a snaky river ▪ His hair was long and snaky.

– snak•i•ly /ˈsneɪkəli/ adv

[1]snap /ˈsnæp/ verb snaps; snapped; snap•ping

1 : to break quickly with a short, sharp sound [no obj] The branch snapped and fell to the ground. ▪ The cable suddenly snapped. ▪ The earpiece of his glasses snapped off. [+ obj] She snapped the twig in two. ▪ The boy snapped the wing off his toy airplane.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move into a specified position with a short, sharp sound [no obj] The trap snapped shut. ▪ The bent tree snapped back into an upright position. ▪ The pieces snap [=click] easily into place. [+ obj] I snapped the lid shut. ▪ She snapped the pieces together.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to close (something) with a fastener and especially with a snap ▪ She snapped her handbag shut. ▪ He snapped (up) his jacket.

4 [+ obj] : to turn (something) on or off with a switch ▪ snap on/off the lights

5 : to make a short, sharp sound or to cause (something) to make a short, sharp sound [no obj] A fire snapped [=crackled] in the wood stove. [+ obj] The driver snapped [=cracked] the whip to get the horses moving. ▪ a bored student snapping her chewing gum

6 : to use your thumb and fingers to make a short, sharp sound [+ obj] People snapped their fingers to the beat. ▪ He snapped his fingers to get the waiter's attention. [no obj] People in the audience snapped to the beat.

7 [+ obj] informal : to take (a photograph) ▪ tourists snapping pictures ▪ The images were snapped by a satellite camera. : to photograph (someone or something) ▪ A photographer snapped the famous couple leaving a London club last week.

8 : to speak using short, angry sentences or phrases [no obj] — usually + at ▪ They argued and snapped at each other all the time. [+ obj] She snapped that I was lucky to have a job at all. ▪ "Leave me alone!" he snapped.

9 [no obj] : to suddenly no longer be able to control your emotions because of a difficult situation, circumstance, etc. ▪ She snapped under the pressure of the job. ▪ He just snapped and started swearing at everybody.

10 : to move with a quick, short movement or to cause (something) to move with a quick, short movement [no obj] Flags snapped in the wind. [+ obj] When you're throwing, snap your wrist as you release the ball.

11 [+ obj] US, informal : to cause the end of (a series of wins, losses, successes, etc.) ▪ They snapped [=broke] a 10-game losing streak. [=they won a game after losing 10 games] ▪ His hitting streak was snapped at 18 games.

12 [+ obj] American football : to pass (the ball) back to a teammate and especially to the quarterback by passing it between your legs at the start of a play ▪ The center snapped [=hiked] the ball.

13 [no obj] : to try to bite someone or something suddenly and quickly — usually + at ▪ The dog snapped at a fly.

snap out of [phrasal verb] snap out of (something) or snap (someone) out of (something) informal : to stop being in or to cause (someone) to stop being in (an unhappy condition or mood, a daydream, etc.) ▪ I don't know how to get her to snap out of her depression. [=to stop being depressed] ▪ The sound of a door slamming snapped me out of my daydream. ▪ Come on, snap out of it! You can't let your breakup get you so depressed.

snap to attention ✧ A soldier who snaps to attention moves quickly to a position of standing silently with the body stiff and straight, the feet together, and both arms at the sides. The phrase is also used figuratively. ▪ The children snapped to attention [=suddenly stopped moving around, talking, etc.] when the teacher clapped his hands.

snap to it informal : to start working harder or more quickly ▪ You'll have to snap to it if you want to finish on time.

snap up [phrasal verb] snap (something or someone) up or snap up (something or someone) : to buy or take (something or someone) quickly or eagerly ▪ Shoppers came to the store to snap up bargains after the holidays. ▪ When they see your work history, they'll snap you up! [=hire you immediately]

[2]snap noun, pl snaps

1 [count] : a sudden, short, sharp sound caused by something breaking or moving into a new position — usually singular ▪ We could hear the snap of twigs beneath our feet. ▪ the snap of the alligator's jaws

2 [count] : the act of snapping your fingers or the sound made when you snap your fingers ▪ I've trained the dog to come to me with a snap of my fingers.

3 [count] US : a device that fastens something by closing or locking with a short, sharp sound ▪ The snap of the bracelet broke.; especially : a set of two metal or plastic pieces that fit tightly together when you press them ▪ pockets with snaps — called also (Brit) popper, (Brit) press stud

snap

4 [count] : a thin, hard cookie — see also GINGERSNAP

5 [singular] US, informal : something that is very easy to do : CINCH ▪ The software is a snap to install. = Installing the software is a snap. ▪ The recipes are a snap (to prepare).

6 [singular] US, informal : a small amount of time ▪ I'll be ready in a snap. [=jiffy]

7 [count] : a sudden brief period of a specified kind of weather ▪ We had a cold snap [=a brief period of very cold weather] last week.

8 [count] : a quick, short movement ▪ She pulled the rope taut with a snap [=flick] of her wrist.

9 [count] chiefly Brit : SNAPSHOT ▪ family snaps [=informal photographs of family members that are taken quickly]

10 [count] American football : the act of snapping the ball back to a teammate and especially to the quarterback at the start of a play ▪ the first snap of the game ▪ The quarterback fumbled the snap. [=fumbled the ball when it was snapped to him]

11 [noncount] Brit : a card game in which players put down cards in a pile and try to be the first to say "snap" when two cards that are the same have been played

[3]snap adj, always used before a noun : done or made suddenly or without careful thought ▪ a snap judgment/decision ▪ (chiefly Brit) a snap election

[4]snap interj, Brit — used to express surprise when two things are alike ▪ Snap! I ate spaghetti last night, too.

snap bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : any of several types of beans whose long green seed cases are eaten as a vegetable when they are young and tender snap•drag•on /ˈsnæpˌdrægən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a tall plant that has many usually pink, white, red, or yellow flowers

snap pea noun, pl ~ peas [count] : SUGAR SNAP PEA

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 118 SESS: 74 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

snap•per /ˈsnæpə/ noun, pl -pers
1 [count, noncount] : a type of fish that lives in the ocean and that is eaten as food ▪ red snapper
2 [count] chiefly Brit, informal : PHOTOGRAPHER
3 [count] : SNAPPING TURTLE
4 [count] American football : the player who passes the ball to another player at the start of a play snapping turtle noun, pl ~ turtles [count] : a large American turtle that has strong jaws and that is sometimes used for food — called also snapper

snap•pish /ˈsnæpɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US : feeling or showing irritation ▪ a snappish mood/remark ▪ The shoppers were snappish and rude.
– snap•pish•ly adv ▪ "I've been waiting for you," he said snappishly.

snap•py /ˈsnæpi/ adj snap•pi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal
1 a : exciting or lively ▪ snappy colors ▪ a snappy tune b : moving or able to move quickly ▪ a snappy pace ▪ a car with a snappy engine
2 : fashionable or stylish ▪ a snappy [=sharp] dresser ▪ a snappy [=snazzy] bow tie
3 : clever and funny ▪ a snappy [=witty] joke/remark ▪ The show is well-acted, and the dialogue is snappy.
4 : feeling or showing irritation : SNAPPISH ▪ He got pretty snappy about it. ▪ She was awfully snappy with me.
make it snappy or Brit look snappy informal : to act, move, or go quickly : HURRY UP ▪ Clean your room, and make it snappy! [=do it quickly]
– snap•pi•ly /ˈsnæpəli/ adv ▪ snappily written essays ▪ snappily dressed snap•shot /ˈsnæpˌʃɑːt/ noun, pl -shots [count]

1 : an informal photograph that is taken quickly ▪ family snapshots — often + of ▪ snapshots of the baby
2 : a quick view or a small amount of information that tells you a little about what someone or something is like — often + of ▪ Television news presents only snapshots of the war. ▪ We get a snapshot of 18th-century Japan in his letters.

[1]snare /ˈsneə/ noun, pl snares [count]
1 : a device that has a loop (called a noose) which gets smaller when the end of it is pulled and that is used to catch animals : a kind of trap ▪ a rabbit snare
2 : a position or situation from which it is difficult to escape ▪ people caught in the snare of drug addiction
3 : SNARE DRUM

[2]snare verb snares; snared; snar•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to catch (an animal) in a snare ▪ They caught fish and snared seabirds. — often used figuratively ▪ Police snared the thief outside the bank. b : to cause (something) to become caught in something (such as a net or trap) ▪ Unfortunately, the nets also snare turtles. — usually used as (be/get) snared ▪ Thousands of turtles get snared [=ensnared] in the nets each year. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ another politician snared [=caught, entangled] in another scandal
2 : to win or get (something) by skillful action or good luck ▪ I was lucky enough to snare [=(more commonly) snag] a job with a good salary and benefits. ▪ They snared first place in the contest. ▪ trying to snare business from competitors
3 US, sports : to catch (a thrown or hit ball) usually by jumping ▪ The shortstop snared a high throw from the outfield.

snare drum noun, pl ~ drums [count] : a drum of a medium size that is played with special sticks (called drumsticks) — called also snare; see picture at PERCUSSION

[1]snarl /ˈsnɑrəl/ noun, pl snarls [count]
1 : a twisted knot of hairs, thread, etc. : TANGLE ▪ a brush that smoothes out snarls ▪ snarls of string/rope
2 : a situation in which you can no longer move or make progress ▪ a traffic snarl ▪ The project has been plagued by legal/bureaucratic snarls.
– compare [4]SNARL

[2]snarl verb snarls; snarled; snarl•ing : to become twisted together : to form a snarl or snarls [no obj] Her hair snarls very easily. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Traffic snarled at the intersection after the accident. [+ obj] The rope had become snarled around the post. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The accident snarled traffic.
snarl up [phrasal verb] snarl (something) up or snarl up (something) chiefly Brit : to stop (something or someone) from moving or making progress ▪ Traffic was snarled up because of the parade. — see also SNARL-UP
– compare [3]SNARL

[3]snarl verb snarls; snarled; snarling
1 [no obj] : to growl and show the teeth — usually + at ▪ The dog snarled at the postman.
2 : to say something in an angry or annoyed way [+ obj] "Get back to work," she snarled. — often + at ▪ He snarled insults at other drivers. [no obj] The stranger snarled at her.
– compare [2]SNARL

[4]snarl noun, pl snarls [count] : an act of growling and showing the teeth — usually singular ▪ The dog gave a snarl when I reached for its bone. — compare [1]SNARL

snarl–up noun, pl -ups [count] chiefly Brit : a situation in which you can no longer move or make progress ▪ a traffic snarl-up [=snarl]

[1]snatch /ˈsnætʃ/ verb snatch•es; snatched; snatch•ing [+ obj]
1 : to take (something) quickly or eagerly ▪ She snatched [=grabbed] the ball out of the air and ran down the court. ▪ An eagle swooped down and snatched one of the hens. — often + up ▪ She snatched up the last copy of the book. — often used figuratively ▪ trying to snatch a few moments of rest ▪ The company snatched him up [=hired him] as soon as he graduated from college.
2 : to take (something or someone) suddenly from a person or place often by using force ▪ A man snatched [=stole] the old woman's purse. ▪ Kidnappers snatched [=abducted] the girl from her bedroom. ▪ She snatched the toy from his hands. — sometimes + away ▪ She snatched her brother's toy away. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He snatched 30 rebounds in one game. ▪ His life was snatched away (from him) by a tragic accident. [=he died in a tragic accident] snatch at [phrasal verb] snatch at (something) : to grab or try to grab (something) quickly or eagerly ▪ chaotic city streets where thieves snatch at tourists' wallets — often used figuratively ▪ She was an ambitious person who snatched at every opportunity.

[2]snatch noun, pl snatches [count] : a small part of something — usually + of ▪ I only caught a (short) snatch of the music/conversation/dialogue.
in snatches : for short periods of time ▪ sleeping in snatches : in small amounts ▪ The plot of the novel came to me in snatches.

snatch•er /ˈsnætʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who takes something from someone else and runs away ▪ a purse/briefcase snatcher [=thief] ▪ a child/baby snatcher [=a person who kidnaps a child/baby]

snaz•zy /ˈsnæzi/ adj snaz•zi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : attractive and stylish ▪ a snazzy new computer/car/stereo ▪ a snazzy dresser/hotel/party/tie

[1]sneak /ˈsniːk/ verb sneaks; sneaked or chiefly US snuck /ˈsnʌk/; sneak•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move quietly and secretly in order to avoid being noticed ▪ They tried to sneak into the movie without paying. ▪ As a teenager she would sneak out (of her house/apartment) at night to visit her boyfriend. ▪ He sneaked [=crept] past the guard.
2 [+ obj] : to take or bring (something) secretly and often quickly ▪ She sneaked some cigars through customs. ▪ He snuck a few cookies out of the jar while his mother wasn't looking. ▪ They caught him trying to sneak food into the theater. ▪ I sneaked a note to my friend in class. = I sneaked my friend a note in class. ▪ I'm going to sneak a smoke. [=I'm going to smoke a cigarette while nobody is watching] ▪ I was caught sneaking a look [=secretly looking] at my Christmas presents. ▪ Can I sneak a peek at your quiz answers?
3 [no obj] Brit, old-fashioned : to tell someone (such as a parent or teacher) about something wrong that someone else has done ▪ I got in trouble after she sneaked [=squealed, (chiefly US) tattled] on me.
sneak up on [phrasal verb] sneak up on (someone) 1 : to approach (someone) quietly and secretly in order to avoid being noticed ▪ My father likes to sneak up on my mother and tickle her. ▪ Don't sneak up on me like that! 2 : to approach, happen, or develop without being noticed ▪ My birthday really snuck up on me this year. ▪ This kind of problem can sneak up on you if you're not attentive.

[2]sneak noun, pl sneaks [count]
1 US, informal : a person who acts in a secret and usually dishonest way ▪ What a rotten sneak! I should have known not to trust her.
2 Brit, old-fashioned : TATTLETALE
3 American football : QUARTERBACK SNEAK ▪ He ran a sneak up the middle for a touchdown.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 119 SESS: 74 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[3]sneak adj, always used before a noun : done while others are not paying attention ▪ a sneak [=surprise] attack ▪ She took a sneak peek [=a secret look] at the birthday presents hidden in the closet.

sneak•er /ˈsni:kə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a shoe with a rubber sole that is designed for people to wear while running, playing sports, etc. — called also (Brit) trainer, (chiefly Brit) training shoe; see picture at SHOE

sneaking adj, always used before a noun

1 : behaving in a secret and dishonest manner ▪ a sneaking [=sneaky] eavesdropper

2 : not openly expressed — usually + for ▪ He had a sneaking admiration for his opponent. ▪ a sneaking fondness for bad movies

3 ✧ If you have a sneaking feeling/suspicion, you think that something might be true or might happen even though you have no definite reason to think so. ▪ I have a sneaking feeling/suspicion that we're going to have a test today. ▪ I have a sneaking suspicion that he's lying.

sneak preview noun, pl ~ -views [count] : a special showing of something (such as a movie, play, or product) before it becomes available to the general public ▪ A few prominent writers were invited to a sneak preview of the new film/play. ▪ a sneak preview of this fall's fashions sneaky /ˈsni:ki/ adj sneak•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : behaving in a secret and usually dishonest manner ▪ a sneaky, untrustworthy person

2 : done in a secret and dishonest manner ▪ They make it look like you're getting a lot more than you really are. It's a sneaky trick. ▪ It's a sneaky way of getting people to buy something they don't need.

– sneak•i•ly /ˈsni:kəli/ adv ▪ a sneakily subversive movie – sneak•i•ness /ˈsni:kinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]sneer /ˈsniə/ verb sneers; sneered; sneer•ing

1 [no obj] : to smile or laugh at someone or something with an expression on your face that shows dislike and a lack of respect — usually + at ▪ She sneered at me in disgust.

2 : to express dislike and a lack of respect for someone or something in a very open way [no obj] — usually + at ▪ an academic who sneers at anyone who doesn't have a PhD ▪ Critics sneered at his first novel. [+ obj] "You obviously don't know what you're talking about," she sneered.

– sneering adj, always used before a noun ▪ the sneering villain of the comic book ▪ sneering contempt – sneer•ing•ly adv ▪ Critics sneeringly referred to the novel as "juvenile."

[2]sneer noun, pl sneers [count] : an expression on a person's face that is like a smile but that shows dislike and a lack of respect for someone or something ▪ She looked at me with a sneer of disgust. ▪ "They're paranoid," he said with a sneer.; also : a statement, criticism, etc., that shows dislike and a lack of respect ▪ The novel elicited sneers from the critics.

sneeze /ˈsni:z/ verb sneez•es; sneezed; sneez•ing [no obj] : to suddenly force air out through your nose and mouth with a usually loud noise because your body is reacting to dust, a sickness, etc. ▪ She was constantly sneezing and coughing.

sneeze at [phrasal verb] sneeze at (something) not used in progressive tenses, informal : to regard (something) as not important, worth noticing, etc. — always used in negative statements ▪ The award is nothing to sneeze at. = The award is not to be sneezed at. [=the award is important]

– sneeze noun, pl sneezes [count] ▪ Germs can be spread through a sneeze or a handshake.

snick•er /ˈsnɪkə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to make a short, quiet laugh in a way that shows disrespect — usually + at ▪ They snickered [=(chiefly Brit) sniggered] at my strange hat.

– snicker noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ His crazy story drew/got snickers from the police. ▪ She heard snickers behind her back.

snide /ˈsnaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unkind or insulting in an indirect way ▪ snide remarks/comments/references ▪ a snide tone

– snide•ly adv ▪ "Are you having a problem?" she asked snidely.

[1]sniff /ˈsnɪf/ verb sniffs; sniffed; sniff•ing

1 a [no obj] : to take air into your nose in short breaths that are loud enough to be heard ▪ She sniffed and wiped her nose with a tissue. b : to smell (something or someone) by putting your nose close to it and taking air in through your nose in short breaths [+ obj] She put perfume on her wrist and sniffed it. ▪ The dog sniffed the carpet. [no obj] He held the flower up to his nose and sniffed. — often + at ▪ The cat sniffed at the food and walked away. c [+ obj] : to take (something, such as fumes or a drug) into your body by inhaling it through your nose in order to get intoxicated ▪ sniffing glue/ether ▪ sniffing [=(more commonly) snorting] cocaine

2 a [+ obj] : to discover or find (something) by smelling — usually + out ▪ dogs that are trained to sniff out drugs — often used figuratively ▪ Several companies, sniffing [=sensing] profit potential, are investing in the area. ▪ My mother is an expert at sniffing out trouble. ▪ the ability to sniff out bargains ▪ By asking around, we were able to sniff out the truth. b [no obj] : to search for something by smelling ▪ A dog sniffed (around) for drugs in the car. — often used figuratively ▪ The detective sniffed for clues. ▪ She has been sniffing (around/about) for a new job.

3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a way that shows dislike, disapproval, etc. ▪ "I guess you don't need my help," she sniffed.

sniff around/round [phrasal verb] sniff around/round (someone) Brit, informal : to try to get (someone) as a romantic partner, employee, etc. ▪ His engagement hasn't stopped him from sniffing around other girls. ▪ Rival companies have been sniffing around her for years.

sniff at [phrasal verb] sniff at (something) : to show dislike or disapproval of (something) especially because you think it is not important or worthy of respect ▪ Some people sniff at the idea of using fake flowers. ▪ It's not a big profit, but it's not to be sniffed at. = It's not a big profit, but it's nothing to sniff at.

[2]sniff noun, pl sniffs

1 [count] : an act or the sound of drawing air into the nose especially in order to smell something or because you are sick or have been crying ▪ He took a big sniff [=whiff] of the soup. ▪ She said that she felt fine, but her sniffs and coughs told a different story.

2 [singular] : an expression of dislike or disapproval ▪ "I refuse to answer that question," she said with a sniff.

3 [singular] : a small amount or sign of something ▪ He wanted to avoid the slightest sniff of a scandal. ▪ They ran away at the first sniff [=hint] of trouble. ▪ There was still a sniff of hope left for the team.

4 [singular] : an opportunity to come close to achieving or experiencing something — usually + of ▪ The team did not even get a sniff of the play-offs last year. [=did not even come close to reaching the play-offs]

sniff•er /ˈsnɪfə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who sniffs a drug or other substance in order to become intoxicated ▪ a cocaine/glue/paint sniffer

2 : a dog that is trained to find people, illegal drugs, explosives, etc., by recognizing and following scents ▪ Sniffers were brought in to search bags at the airport. — called also sniffer dog

[1]snif• e /ˈsnɪfəl/ verb snif• es ; snif• ed ; snif• ing

1 [no obj] : to repeatedly take air into your nose in short breaths that are loud enough to be heard because you are sick or have been crying ▪ The children have been sniffling for a week now.

2 [+ obj] : to say (something) while crying or sniffling ▪ "In your family's eyes," she sniffled, "I'm not good enough."

[2]sniffle noun, pl sniffles [count]

1 : an act or the sound of sniffling ▪ He couldn't stop his sniffles.

2 the sniffles informal : a slight or mild cold that causes you to sniffle a lot ▪ I have (a case of) the sniffles.

sniffy /ˈsnɪfi/ adj sniff•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal + disapproving : having or showing the attitude of people who believe that they are better or more important than other people ▪ a sniffy [=snooty] man in an expensive suit ▪ She wrote a sniffy letter rejecting his offer.

snif•ter /ˈsnɪftə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a glass with a narrow rim, a wide bowl, and a short stem that is used especially for drinking brandy snig•ger /ˈsnɪgə/ verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit : SNICKER — usually + at ▪ The class sniggered at her mistake.

– snigger noun, pl -gers [count] ▪ His awkwardness drew sniggers from the other boys.

[1]snip /ˈsnɪp/ noun, pl snips

1 [count] : a small piece that is cut from something : a small piece that is snipped ▪ a snip of yarn

2 [count] : an act or the sound of snipping something — usu-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 120 SESS: 74 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s ally singular ▪ She removed the dead flowers with a snip of her scissors.

3 [singular] Brit, informal : something bought or sold for a good price ▪ Tickets are a snip [=bargain] at only three euros each.

– see also SNIPS

[2]snip verb snips; snipped; snip•ping : to cut (something) with scissors : to remove (something) by cutting with scissors [+ obj] He snipped some fresh herbs from plants on the windowsill. ▪ snipping pictures out of magazines ▪ Snip the uneven ends off. = Snip off the uneven ends. [no obj] She snipped at the hanging strings.

[1]snipe /ˈsnaɪp/ verb snipes; sniped; snip•ing

1 [no obj] : to shoot at someone from a hidden place ▪ Enemy fighters sniped at them from vacant buildings.

2 : to criticize someone or something in a harsh or unfair way [no obj] — usually + at ▪ The candidates have been sniping at each other in speeches. [+ obj] One of the senators sniped, "What does he think this is, a monarchy?"

– sniping noun [noncount] ▪ Soldiers took cover when the sniping started. ▪ There has been a lot of sniping between the candidates.

[2]snipe noun, pl snipes or snipe [count] : a bird with a long thin beak that lives in wet areas

snip•er /ˈsnaɪpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who shoots at another person from a hidden place ▪ The soldiers were attacked by a sniper. — often used before another noun ▪ a sniper attack

snip•pet /ˈsnɪpət/ noun, pl -pets [count]

1 : a small piece of information or news — usually + of ▪ snippets of gossip/information

2 : a small part of something (such as a piece of music, a conversation, etc.) ▪ snippets from the author's newest novel — often + of ▪ I heard only a snippet of their conversation.

snip•py /ˈsnɪpi/ adj snip•pi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US, informal : feeling or showing irritation ▪ I'm sorry. I didn't mean to get snippy with you. ▪ snippy comments

snips /ˈsnɪps/ noun [plural] : heavy scissors that are used especially for cutting metal ▪ tin snips

snit /ˈsnɪt/ noun

have a snit US, informal : to become annoyed and angry usually about something minor ▪ She's going to have a snit when she sees this mess.

in a snit US, informal : in a very annoyed and angry state usually because of something minor ▪ He left in a snit when they told him he'd have to wait another hour. ▪ She got in a snit when she found out he was late.

[1]snitch /ˈsnɪʧ/ verb snitch•es; snitched; snitch•ing informal

1 [no obj] disapproving : to tell someone in authority (such as the police or a teacher) about something wrong that someone has done ▪ Someone must have snitched to the police. — usually + on ▪ She snitched [=tattled, squealed] on her brother when he skipped school.

2 [+ obj] : to take or steal (something that is not very valuable) ▪ He snitched a dime from the kid next door.

[2]snitch noun, pl snitches [count] informal + disapproving : a person who tells someone in authority (such as the police or a teacher) about something wrong that someone has done : someone who snitches — usually singular ▪ Who's the snitch who ratted on me?

sniv•el /ˈsnɪvəl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling : to complain or cry in an annoying way [no obj] millionaires sniveling about their financial problems [+ obj] "Woe is me," she sniveled.

– sniveling adj ▪ He's a sniveling, lying coward.

snob /ˈsnɑːb/ noun, pl snobs [count] disapproving : someone who tends to criticize, reject, or ignore people who come from a lower social class, have less education, etc. ▪ Most of the people in the club are snobs who look down on people who attended public schools. ▪ Don't be such a snob. ▪ food/wine/art snobs [=people who think they are better than other people because they know about fine food/art/wine] ▪ an intellectual snob

– snob•bism /ˈsnɑːˌbɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ She accused me of snobbism. [=she accused me of being a snob]

snob appeal noun [noncount] disapproving : a quality that makes something attractive to people who are snobs ▪ Expensive cars have snob appeal. ▪ old foreign films with snob appeal — called also (Brit) snob value

snob•bery /ˈsnɑːbəri/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the behavior or attitude of people who think they are better than other people : the behavior or attitude of snobs ▪ the snobbery of some wine connoisseurs ▪ (chiefly US) By a kind of reverse snobbery, he hated people from educated families and bragged about his working-class relatives. ▪ (Brit) inverted snobbery

snob•bish /ˈsnɑːbɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing the attitude of people who think they are better than other people : of or relating to people who are snobs ▪ a snobbish rich kid ▪ a snobbish attitude

– snob•bish•ly adv ▪ She snobbishly refused to watch mainstream movies. – snob•bish•ness noun [noncount]

snob•by /ˈsnɑːbi/ adj snob•bi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal + disapproving : SNOBBISH ▪ a snobby brat ▪ snobby prep schools

sno–cone variant spelling of SNOW CONE

snog /ˈsnɑːg/ verb snogs; snogged; snog•ging Brit, informal : to kiss for a long time [no obj] They were snogging on the couch. [+ obj] They were snogging each other on the couch.

– snog noun [singular] ▪ They were sharing a snog.

snook /ˈsnʊk, Brit ˈsnuːk/ see cock a snook at at [2]COCK

[1]snook•er /ˈsnʊkɚ, Brit ˈsnuːkə/ noun [noncount] : a version of the game of pool that is played chiefly in Britain with a cue ball, 15 red balls, and 6 balls of other colors on a table that has 6 pockets — often used before another noun ▪ a snooker player/table — compare BILLIARDS, POOL

[2]snooker verb -kers; -kered; -ker•ing [+ obj] informal

1 US : to trick or deceive (someone) ▪ She snookered [=hoodwinked] her parents into buying her a new car. — often used as (be) snookered ▪ I have a feeling we've been snookered.

2 Brit : to prevent (someone) from doing or achieving something ▪ He was ahead early in the match, but he snookered himself. [=he caused his own defeat by performing badly] — often used as (be) snookered ▪ They wanted to build a museum but were snookered [=thwarted] by city regulations.

[1]snoop /ˈsnuːp/ verb snoops; snooped; snoop•ing [no obj] informal : to look for private information about someone or something ▪ She locks up her diary to keep her brother from snooping. ▪ I caught her snooping (around) in my desk drawers. ▪ Government agencies have been snooping on them for years. ▪ She doesn't want reporters snooping into her personal life.

– snoop•er noun, pl -ers [count] – snooping noun [noncount] ▪ electronic/government snooping – snooping adj ▪ a snooping device/cop ▪ snooping software/technology

[2]snoop noun, pl snoops informal

1 [count] : someone who looks for private information about someone or something : someone who snoops ▪ No, I didn't read your e-mail. I'm no snoop.

2 [singular] : a secret look around a place ▪ We had a snoop around their apartment.

– snoopy /ˈsnuːpi/ adj snoop•i•er; -est ▪ a snoopy reporter

snoot /ˈsnuːt/ noun, pl snoots [count]

1 a : SNOUT 1 b informal + humorous : the nose of a person ▪ She has a great big snoot.

2 US, informal : a snooty person : SNOB ▪ That little snoot thinks he deserves only the best!

snooty /ˈsnuːti/ adj snoot•i•er; est [also more ~; most ~] informal + disapproving : having or showing the insulting attitude of people who think that they are better, smarter, or more important than other people ▪ a snooty [=snobbish] rich girl ▪ a snooty accent/attitude ▪ a snooty restaurant

– snoot•i•ness /ˈsnuːtinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]snooze /ˈsnuːz/ verb snooz•es; snoozed; snooz•ing [no obj] informal : to sleep lightly especially for a short period of time : DOZE ▪ She lay down on the sofa and snoozed [=napped] for a while.

[2]snooze noun [singular] informal

1 : a short period of light sleep : NAP ▪ take/catch a snooze

2 US : something that is dull or boring — usually singular ▪ The novel was a real snooze. [=bore]

3 : SNOOZE BUTTON ▪ Most mornings I hit (the) snooze at least twice.

snooze button noun, pl ~ -buttons [count] chiefly US : a button on an alarm clock that stops the alarm from making noise for a short time so that the sleeper can rest for a few more minutes ▪ He woke up and hit the snooze button. — called also (chiefly US) snooze alarm

snooz•er /ˈsnuːzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : something that is dull and boring — usually singular ▪ a snoozer of a film

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 121 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]snore /ˈsnoə/ verb snores; snored; snor•ing [no obj] : to breathe noisily while sleeping ▪ My husband snores.
– snor•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a loud snorer – snoring noun [noncount]

[2]snore noun, pl snores [count]
1 : an act of snoring or the sound made when someone is snoring ▪ a loud/soft snore
2 US, informal : something that is dull and boring — usually singular ▪ The movie was a real snore. [=snooze, bore]

[1]snor•kel /ˈsnoəkəl/ noun, pl -kels [count] : a special tube that makes it possible to breathe while you are swimming with your head underwater — see picture at SCUBA DIVING

[2]snorkel verb -kels; US -keled or Brit -kelled; US -kel•ing or Brit -kel•ling [no obj] : to swim underwater while using a snorkel ▪ We snorkeled in the Caribbean on our vacation last year.
– snor•kel•er (US) or Brit snor•kel•ler noun, pl -ers [count] – snorkeling (US) or Brit snorkelling /ˈsnoəkəlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She went snorkeling with her sister.

[1]snort /ˈsnoət/ verb snorts; snort•ed; snort•ing
1 [no obj] : to force air noisily through your nose ▪ The old dog snorted like a pig when it smelled food. ▪ He snorted with disgust.
2 a [no obj] : to express dislike, disapproval, anger, or surprise by snorting ▪ She snorted at his suggestion that he could fix the sink himself. b [+ obj] : to say (something) with a snort or while snorting ▪ "Yeah, you're a writer, and I'm the King of Spain!" he snorted.
3 [+ obj] : to take (a drug) into your body by inhaling it through your nose ▪ They were snorting cocaine.

[2]snort noun, pl snorts [count]
1 : an act or the sound of noisily forcing air through the nose : an act or the sound of snorting ▪ the snorts of a pig/horse/bull ▪ a snort of laughter/derision/disapproval
2 : an amount of a drug taken into the body by inhaling it through the nose ▪ a snort of cocaine

snot /snɑːt/ noun, pl snots informal + impolite
1 [noncount] : mucus from the nose ▪ Snot was dripping from his nose.
2 [count] disapproving : a rude and annoying person ▪ an obnoxious little snot

snot•ty /ˈsnɑːti/ adj -ti•er; -ti•est [also more ~; most ~] informal 1 : rude and annoying — used especially to describe people who think they are better than other people ▪ a snotty reply/manner/person ▪ She was very snotty to me.
2 : covered or filled with mucus from the nose : dirty with mucus ▪ a snotty nose
– snot•ti•ly /ˈsnɑːtəli/ adv ▪ She took a bite and said snottily, "So you think you can cook?" – snot•ti•ness /ˈsnɑːtinəs/ noun [noncount]

snout /ˈsnaʊt/ noun, pl snouts [count]
1 : the long nose of some animals (such as pigs) ▪ The dog raised his snout and sniffed. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The boat's snout bounced on the waves.
2 informal + humorous : the nose of a person ▪ a punch in the snout have/get your snout in the trough see TROUGH

[1]snow /ˈsnoʊ/ noun, pl snows
1 : soft, white pieces of frozen water that fall to the ground from the sky in cold weather [noncount] Snow fell softly on the town. ▪ The mountains were blanketed/covered with snow. ▪ She took a walk in the snow. ▪ We got 12 inches of snow. [=we had a snowstorm that left 12 inches of snow on the ground] ▪ We haven't had much snow this year. ▪ The weatherman is forecasting heavy/light snow. [=the weatherman is saying that a large/small amount of snow will fall] ▪ She went out to shovel the snow. [count] Soon the warm spring sun will melt the winter snows. ▪ the snows of the Rocky Mountains ▪ A light/heavy snow was falling.
2 [noncount] : white dots that appear on the screen of a television when it is receiving a weak signal

[2]snow verb snows; snowed; snow•ing
1 [no obj] — used with it to say that snow is falling ▪ Look—it's snowing! [=snow is falling from the sky] ▪ It snowed all day. ▪ The weatherman says that it will snow tomorrow. ▪ It was snowing heavily, making it difficult to drive.
2 [+ obj] US, informal : to impress, deceive, or persuade (someone) — usually used as (be) snowed ▪ She was not snowed by the special treatment she received. ▪ I was completely snowed by the presentation. [=I was very impressed by it] snowed in also Brit snowed up 1 : unable to leave a place because a lot of snow is falling or has fallen ▪ We got snowed in at my sister's house. ▪ They were snowed in for a week. 2 : blocked with snow ▪ The road was snowed in.
snowed under : having to deal with too much of something : overwhelmed by something ▪ He was snowed under with e-mail. [=he had a lot of e-mails to respond to]

[1]snow•ball /ˈsnoʊˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] : a ball of snow that someone makes usually for throwing ▪ This snow is perfect for making snowballs. ▪ During recess, the children had a snowball fight. [=a playful fight in which people throw snowballs at each other]
a snowball's chance in hell informal : any chance at all — used to say that something is extremely unlikely or impossible ▪ Let's be honest—there isn't a snowball's chance in hell that we'll win this game. [=there's no chance that we'll win] ▪ Unfortunately, he doesn't have a snowball's chance in hell of getting the job. [=there is no chance that he will get the job; he will not get the job]

[2]snowball verb -balls; -balled; -ball•ing [no obj] : to increase, grow, etc., at a faster and faster rate ▪ Problems snowball when early trouble signs are ignored. ▪ What started as a small annual concert has snowballed into a full-fledged music festival. ▪ consumers dealing with snowballing debt snowball effect noun [singular] : a situation in which one action or event causes many other similar actions or events ▪ The city hopes that these improvements will have a snowball effect and spur private investment in the community.

snow•bank /ˈsnoʊˌbæŋk/ noun, pl -banks [count] : a pile of snow especially along the side of a road ▪ The car slid into a snowbank.

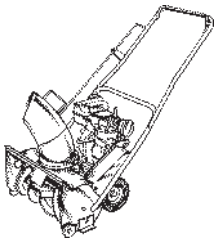
snow•bird /ˈsnoʊˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count] US : someone who spends the winter months in a warm place ▪ Like many of the state's snowbirds, they live in Florida from November through March.

snow•blow•er /ˈsnoʊˌblowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine that picks up snow from a driveway, sidewalk, etc., and throws it aside



snowblower

[1]snow•board /ˈsnoʊˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a board like a wide ski that is used for sliding down hills of snow while standing

[2]snowboard verb -boards; -board•ed; -board•ing [no obj] : to slide down a hill of snow on a snowboard especially as a sport ▪ Do you snowboard?
– snow•board•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She is an expert snowboarder. – snowboarding noun [noncount] ▪ Snowboarding is my favorite sport. ▪ He went snowboarding yesterday.

snow•bound /ˈsnoʊˌbaʊnd/ adj
1 : unable to leave a place because a lot of snow is falling or has fallen ▪ We were snowbound for a week.
2 : blocked with snow ▪ snowbound roads/airports

snow•capped /ˈsnoʊˌkæpt/ adj : having the top covered with snow ▪ snowcapped mountains

snow cone or sno–cone /ˈsnoʊˌkoʊn/ noun, pl ~ cones or -cones [count] US : a cone-shaped paper cup that contains very small pieces of ice flavored with a sweet syrup snow day noun, pl ~ days [count] US : a day when schools and businesses are closed because a lot of snow is falling snow•drift /ˈsnoʊˌdrɪft/ noun, pl -drifts [count] : a hill of snow that is formed by wind ▪ The car was almost buried in a snowdrift.

snow•drop /ˈsnoʊˌdrɑːp/ noun, pl -drops [count] : a small white flower that blooms in early spring snow•fall /ˈsnoʊˌfɑːl/ noun, pl -falls : an amount of snow that falls in a single storm or in a particular period of time [count] The yearly snowfall here is over 30 feet! ▪ after a heavy snowfall [=after a large amount of snow has fallen] [noncount] 30 feet of annual snowfall ▪ The area is expecting heavy snowfall this weekend.

snow• eld /ˈsnoʊˌfiːld/ noun, pl - elds [count] : a large flat area of fallen snow snow• ake /ˈsnoʊˌfleɪk/ noun, pl - akes [count] : a small,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 122 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

soft piece of frozen water that falls from the sky as snow : a flake of snow snow job noun, pl ~ jobs [count] US, informal : a strong effort to make someone believe something by saying things that are not true or sincere ▪ They'd been promised a big return on their investments, but all they got was a snow job.

snow line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : an imaginary line on a mountain that marks the height above which snow does not completely melt ▪ climbing above the snow line

snow•man /ˈsnoʊˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a figure made of snow that is shaped to look like a person ▪ The kids built a snowman in the front yard.

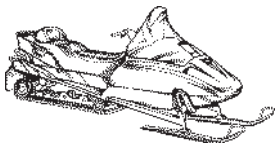
snow•melt /ˈsnoʊˌmɛlt/ noun [noncount] : water from melting snow that flows over the surface of the ground into streams and rivers

snow•mo•bile /ˈsnoʊmoʊˌbi:l/ noun, pl -biles [count] : a vehicle used for traveling on snow or ice



snowmobile

snow•mo•bil•ing /ˈsnoʊmoʊˌbi:lɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity or sport of driving a snowmobile ▪ The park has trails for snowmobiling. ▪ Let's go snowmobiling.

– snow•mo•bil•er /ˈsnoʊmoʊˌbi:lɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ In winter the park is full of snowmobilers.

snow pea noun, pl ~ peas [count] US : a type of pea whose flat outer part and seeds may be eaten — called also (Brit) mangetout; see color picture on page C4

[1]snow•plow (US) or Brit snow•plough /ˈsnoʊˌplaʊ/ noun, pl -plows [count]

1 : a flat or curved piece of metal that is attached to the front of a vehicle and used for clearing snow from a road, driveway, etc.; also : a vehicle (such as a truck) that has a snowplow attached — see picture at PLOW

2 : a position in skiing in which the front ends of the skis are moved together in order to stop, slow down, or turn — often used before another noun ▪ a snowplow turn/stop

[2]snowplow (US) or Brit snowplough verb -plows; -plowed; -plow•ing [no obj] : to move the front ends of your skis together in order to stop, slow down, or turn ▪ He snowplowed to a stop.

[1]snow•shoe /ˈsnoʊˌʃu:/ noun, pl -shoes [count] : a light, wide frame that is attached to your shoe to make it easier to walk on soft snow without sinking

snowshoe

[2]snowshoe verb -shoes; -shoed; -shoe•ing [no obj] : to walk with snowshoes ▪ We snowshoed through the woods.

– snowshoeing noun [noncount] ▪ Snowshoeing is one of her favorite winter activities. ▪ We went snowshoeing in the mountains.

– snow•sho•er /ˈsnoʊˌʃu:wɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

snow•storm /ˈsnoʊˌstoɚm/ noun, pl -storms [count] : a storm with a large amount of falling snow

snow•suit /ˈsnoʊˌsu:t/ noun, pl -suits [count] : a piece of clothing or a jacket and matching pants that is worn by children over their regular clothes when they go outdoors in the winter snow thrower noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : SNOWBLOWER

snow tire noun, pl ~ tires [count] US : a special tire that is used to give a vehicle better control when you are driving on snow and ice snow–white /ˈsnoʊˈwaɪt/ adj : white as snow : completely white ▪ snow-white hair snowy /ˈsnowi/ adj snow•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : having a lot of snow ▪ a snowy day ▪ This is the snowiest winter in years. b : covered in snow ▪ snowy mountaintops/streets/fields

2 : white like snow ▪ snowy hair ▪ snowy white flower petals

Snr abbr, Brit senior ▪ Dave Smith Snr

snub /ˈsnʌb/ verb snubs; snubbed; snub•bing [+ obj]

1 : to ignore (someone) in a deliberate and insulting way ▪ She snubbed me in the hallway.

2 : to not accept or attend (something) as a way to show disapproval ▪ He snubbed their job offer. ▪ They deliberately snubbed the meeting.

– snub noun, pl snubs [count] ▪ His refusal to accept the award/invitation was a deliberate snub. ▪ Her name was left off the guest list by mistake, but she took it as a snub.

snub–nosed /ˈsnʌbˌnoʊzd/ adj

1 : having a short, wide nose ▪ a snub-nosed child

2 of a gun : having a very short barrel ▪ a snub-nosed revolver/handgun snuck (US) past tense and past participle of [1]SNEAK

[1]snuff /snʌf/ verb snuffs; snuffed; snuff•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (something, such as a candle or cigarette) to stop burning by pressing it with your fingers, covering it, etc. ▪ She snuffed the candles after everyone had left the table. — often + out ▪ She snuffed out her cigarette.

2 informal a : to cause the end of (something) ▪ The home run ended the game and snuffed their chances to win a championship. ▪ Their hopes were snuffed. — often + out ▪ Their chances of winning were snuffed out. ▪ Her life was snuffed out by cancer. b : to kill (someone) ▪ a gangster who was/got snuffed by a rival — often + out ▪ They threatened to snuff him out.

snuff it Brit, informal : to die ▪ He snuffed it at a young age.

[2]snuff noun [noncount] : a type of tobacco that is chewed, placed against the gums, or inhaled into the nose ▪ He took a pinch of snuff.

up to snuff US, informal : good enough : as good as expected or wanted ▪ I'm trying to get my math skills up to snuff. ▪ The performances by the actors were not up to snuff.

snuf• e /ˈsnʌfəl/ verb snuf• es ; snuf• ed ; snuf• ing [no obj] : to breathe loudly because you have a cold or have been crying ▪ The child was snuffling in his room.

[1]snug /snʌg/ adj snug•ger; snug•gest [also more ~; most ~]

1 : fitting closely and often too tightly ▪ a snug coat ▪ The shoes were too snug. ▪ These jeans are snug around the hips.

2 : providing or enjoying warmth, shelter, and comfort : COZY ▪ a snug little apartment/room ▪ We were snug in the cabin. ▪ She felt snug under the warm blanket. ▪ The children were snug in their beds.

– snug•ly adv ▪ The coat fits snugly. ▪ The children slept snugly in bed.

[2]snug noun, pl snugs [count] Brit : a small private room in a pub

snug•gle /ˈsnʌgəl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition snug•gles; snug•gled; snug•gling

1 [no obj] : to lie or sit close together in a comfortable position ▪ The puppy snuggled up against the sleeping boy. ▪ The boy snuggled close to his mother. ▪ We snuggled (together) under a blanket.

2 [+ obj] : to place (something) close to or against someone or something : NESTLE ▪ The dog snuggled its nose between the pillows. ▪ The baby snuggled his head against my chest.

[1]so /soʊ/ adv

1 a : to a degree that is suggested or stated ▪ She had never felt so happy. [=had never felt as happy as she did then] ▪ You shouldn't eat so fast. [=you should eat more slowly] ▪ I don't think they can score twice in so short a time. ▪ It was hot last summer—but less so than this summer. [=but not as hot as it was this summer] ▪ The play was impressive—(all) the more so [=it was even more impressive] because the students had written it themselves. ▪ There has always been an interest in genetic cloning, but never more so than in recent years. — often + that ▪ She was so tired that she almost fell asleep at the dinner table. ▪ The library is so large (that) you could get lost in it. — often used with as when making a comparison, when giving an example of some quality, or when describing someone or something ▪ She had never been so [=as] nervous as when she performed for the queen. ▪ His latest novel is not so suspenseful as his others. ▪ How can you be so cruel as to criticize her weight? ▪ Would you be so kind as to help me with my bags? [=would you please help me with my bags?] ▪ Sailing is not so much a science as an art. [=sailing is more of an art than a science] — see also SO MUCH AS (below) b : to a great degree : very or extremely ▪ He looked so handsome in his suit. ▪ We are all so excited about the trip. ▪ I'm so happy that you decided to join us for dinner. ▪ He loves her so. [=very much] ▪ Not so long ago [=a short time ago], she was the nation's best gymnast. ▪ I feel so much better after taking that nap. ▪ Thank you so much for your help. ▪ The game is so much fun. [=is very enjoyable] ▪ He dislikes her so much that he won't even talk to her. ▪ The test was not so very hard after all. ✧ When this sense of so is used before an adjective alone, it is considered informal. ▪ The apple pie tasted so good. [=tasted very good] ▪ This computer is so out-of-date. c informal : without any doubt — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ I so don't believe you. ▪ I so wanted them to win. ▪ That was so not the right thing to say! ▪ That shirt is so you. [=it looks like something you would wear; it is very typical of your style] ▪ Her hairstyle is so 1980s. [=it's out of date and looks like the hairstyles that were popular in the 1980s] ▪ It's so not fair. [=it's very unfair]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 123 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : to a definite but not specified amount ▪ "He is about so tall," she said, raising her hand about six feet in the air. ▪ I can only move so fast. ▪ I have never seen so many geese on one pond before. ▪ I can only do so many things at a time. ▪ I can do only so much in a day. ▪ There is still so much to be done before the guests arrive. ▪ There is only so much negative criticism a person can take. [=a person can only take a certain amount of negative criticism] ▪ The house burned like so much paper. [=like something made of paper] ▪ The explanation sounded like so much [=like a lot of] nonsense.

3 : in the same way ▪ She was always a hard worker and so was her father. [=and her father was too] ▪ "I'm going to the concert." "So am I." [=I am also going] ▪ "I wish I had a coffee right now." "So do I." [=I do too] ▪ (US, informal) "I really like her music." "So don't I." [=so do I; I do too]

4 : in the way that is stated or suggested ▪ The bell rang, we took our seats, and so began another new school year. — often + that ▪ The football arena was so designed that every seat had a good view of the field. ▪ It (just) so happens that I know her son. [=I happen to know her son]

5 informal : most certainly ▪ "I never said that" "You did so." [=too, indeed] ▪ "You're not really leaving." "I am so."

and so forth or and so on : and other things often of the same or similar kind ▪ Magazines, newspapers, journals, and so forth are on the second floor of the library. ▪ She wanted to know about my family, my childhood, my hopes and fears, (and so on) and so forth. ▪ I bought milk, eggs, bread, and so on.

even so see ²EVEN ever so see EVER every so often see EVERY how so see ¹HOW never so much as see NEVER so far see ¹FAR
so help me (God) see ¹HELP
so long see ²LONG

so much : an amount, price, etc., that is not stated or known ▪ You are charged so much a mile when renting a vehicle. ▪ You can only believe so much of what he says. [=you can only believe some of what he says]

so much as — used after a negative word (such as not or a contraction of not) to stress the smallness of an amount or effort ▪ We didn't hear so much as a word from her the whole time. [=we didn't hear a word from her] ▪ Not only did they not help, they didn't so much as [=even] offer to help! ▪ They ended their date without so much as a hug. — see also ¹SO 1a (above)

so much for informal 1 — used to say that everything that can be said about or done with something or someone has been said or done ▪ So much for the history of the case. Now we'll look at its implications. ▪ Well, so much for that idea. [=that idea was not successful] We'll have to try something else. 2 — used to say that something has ended ▪ Well, it's raining. So much for our perfect weather.

so much so (that) : to the extent that ▪ The twins look alike—so much so that even their parents sometimes confuse them. [=the twins look so alike that even their parents sometimes confuse them]

so much the better see ³BETTER
so to speak see SPEAK

²so pronoun — used to refer to something that has just been stated or suggested ▪ "Has she left?" "I believe so." [=I believe she has left] ▪ If you have not yet returned the form, please do so immediately. [=please return it immediately] ▪ "Is it true?" "I think/hope so." ▪ They're going to help us move, or so they said. ▪ If you wanted to leave early, you should have said so. ▪ "They're getting married." "Really? Who said so?" ▪ "I heard you're moving to New York." "Who told you so?" [=who told you that?] ▪ I didn't like the dress and told her so. [=told her I didn't like it] ▪ "Is he coming to the meeting?" "So he says." [=he says he's coming] ▪ "You were late this morning." "So I was—what's it to you?" ▪ I might be late. If so [=if I am late], please start the meeting without me. ▪ Fold the paper like so. [=like this] ▪ If they insist on going, so be it. [=if they insist on going, they will go, and there is nothing I can do to stop them] ▪ "Today is the first day of winter." "Why, so it is."

if I may say so see ¹SAY or so — used to say that a number, amount, etc., is not exact ▪ We plan to stay a week or so. [=we plan to stay about a week] ▪ Tickets cost $20 or so.

³so conj

1 : for that reason : and therefore ▪ We were bored with the movie, so we left. ▪ I don't want to go, so I won't. ▪ There are no more chairs available, so you'll have to stand.

2 — used to say the reason for something ▪ Please be quiet so I can study. ▪ She pulled him to the side so that no one else could hear their conversation. ▪ Let's get there early so that we can get good seats.

3 — used in speech to introduce a statement or question ▪ So here we are. ▪ So, we meet at last! ▪ So, as I was saying, the car is used but in good condition. ▪ So, how did the test go?

4 — used in speech to say in a somewhat rude or annoyed way that something is unimportant ▪ So I mispronounced the word. You still understood what I meant. ▪ "I'm taller than you!" "So?" ▪ She has a glass of wine now and then—so what? = So what if she has a glass of wine now and then? [=why should anyone object if she has a glass of wine now and then?]

5 — used in speech to say that you have just become aware of someone or something ▪ So, that's who did it! ▪ So there you are. I've been looking for you. ▪ "Goodbye, then." "So you're not coming with me after all!"

so as see ²AS
so far as see ¹FAR
so long as see ²LONG

⁴so adj, not used before a noun : agreeing with actual facts : TRUE ▪ You are saying things that are just not so. ▪ I heard you met the president—is that so? ▪ She thinks I'm angry at her, but that just isn't so. [=I'm not angry at her]

just so see ²JUST

⁵so /ˈsoʊ/ noun [noncount] music : SOL

So. or SO. abbr south or southern

SO abbr 1 strikeout 2 significant other

¹soak /ˈsoʊk/ verb soaks; soaked; soak·ing

1 a : to put (something) in a liquid for a period of time [+ obj] Soak the beans overnight (in water). ▪ He soaked his feet (in a tub of warm water). ▪ You should soak those dirty clothes before you wash them. ▪ The cucumbers are soaked [=marinated] in vinegar. [no obj] The beans soaked in water overnight. b [no obj] : to take a long bath ▪ He relaxed and soaked in the tub. c [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) very wet with water or another liquid ▪ After planting the seeds, soak the soil. ▪ She soaked the dog with the hose. ▪ His shirt was soaked with sweat. ▪ I was/got soaked by the rain. ▪ My shirt and pants were soaked through [=made completely wet] by the rain. ▪ I was soaked to the skin [=made completely wet] within minutes.

2 [no obj] of a liquid : to enter or pass through or into something ▪ The oil soaked into the wood. ▪ Sweat soaked through his shirt. ▪ Rain soaked through her jacket. ▪ Blood soaked through the bandage.

3 [+ obj] informal : to make (someone) pay a lot of money for something ▪ People are getting soaked by city taxes. ▪ They're soaking their customers by charging high fees for routine services.

soak in [phrasal verb] of a liquid : to enter something by a gradual process ▪ Pour water around the base of the plant and allow it to soak in. — often used figuratively ▪ He sat quietly, letting her words soak in. ▪ Close your eyes and let the music soak in.

soak up [phrasal verb] soak up (something) or soak (something) up 1 : to take in (liquid) : ABSORB ▪ The rag soaked up most of the water. ▪ This kind of paper soaks up ink easily. 2 : to enjoy or experiencing (something pleasant) in usually a slow or relaxed way ▪ We went to the beach and soaked up the sun/sunshine all afternoon. ▪ I sat at my table for an hour soaking up [=savoring] the atmosphere of the café. ▪ The performers stood on the stage, soaking up the applause. 3 : to learn and remember (something) quickly ▪ He eagerly soaked up [=took in] every word she said. ▪ She has an ability to soak up new information very quickly. 4 : to use a large amount of (money, supplies, etc.) ▪ This project is soaking up resources that could be used elsewhere.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 124 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[2]soak noun [singular]
1 : an act of letting something stay in a liquid for a long time in order to soften or clean it ▪ This shirt needs a good soak [=needs to be soaked] to get out the stains.
2 informal : a long bath ▪ I had a long, hot soak in the tub.

soaked adj : made completely wet by water or another liquid ▪ a soaked towel ▪ My socks are soaked. — often used in combination ▪ a blood-soaked bandage ▪ an oil-soaked rag ▪ a rain-soaked field — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sun-soaked beach

soaking noun [singular]
1 : an act of leaving something in a liquid for a long time : SOAK ▪ These dishes need a good soaking.
2 : an act of making someone or something very wet ▪ People at the game got a soaking [=got soaked] from an unexpected rain shower.
– soaking adj ▪ a soaking rain ▪ I was soaking [=completely wet] after walking home in the rain. ▪ I was soaking wet.

so–and–so /ˈsowənˌsoʊ/ noun, pl so–and–sos or so–and–so's /ˈsowənˌsoʊz/ informal
1 [noncount] — used when the name of a person is unknown or not important ▪ She's always gossiping and telling people that so-and-so [=some person] is getting married or divorced or something. ▪ Let's say Mr. So-and-so, who is related to you, asks to borrow $1,000. Would you give it to him?
2 [count] : a rude or annoying person ▪ He's an arrogant so-and-so. ▪ I can't believe that stupid so-and-so got the job.

[1]soap /ˈsoʊp/ noun, pl soaps
1 : a substance that is used for washing something [noncount] Make sure you use soap and water to wash your hands. ▪ a bar of soap ▪ dish/laundry soap [=detergent] ▪ soap bubbles/scum ▪ a soap dish/dispenser [count] The store sells many different brands of liquid/hand/antibacterial soaps. — see picture at GROOMING
2 [count] informal : SOAP OPERA ▪ Her first acting job was on a soap. ▪ a soap star

[2]soap verb soaps; soaped; soap•ing [+ obj] : to rub soap over or into (someone or something) ▪ I soap my hair/body first when I take a shower. ▪ He soaped and rinsed the car. — often + up ▪ He soaped up the car.

soap•box /ˈsoʊpˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -boxes [count] : a box or small platform that someone stands on to give a speech to people in an outdoor, public place ▪ a soapbox speech — often used figuratively to describe making speeches or expressing strong opinions ▪ His fame as an actor provides him with a soapbox to encourage young people to vote. ▪ He jumped on the soapbox and spoke out against the war. ▪ She needs to get off her soapbox and stop telling people what to do.

soap opera noun, pl ~ -eras [count] : a television or radio program that has continuing stories about the daily lives and problems of a group of people ▪ She loves to watch daytime soap operas. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ My life is a soap opera. [=my life has a lot of dramatic events and problems like the ones that occur in soap operas] — called also (informal) soap

soap powder noun, pl ~ -ders [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a powder that is made from soap and other substances and used for washing clothes soap•stone /ˈsoʊpˌstoʊn/ noun [noncount] : a type of soft stone that feels like soap — often used before another noun ▪ a soapstone sculpture soap•suds /ˈsoʊpˌsʌdz/ noun [plural] : the bubbles that form when water is mixed with soap : SUDS soapy /ˈsoʊpi/ adj soap•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] 1 : containing soap ▪ soapy water

2 : like soap ▪ The stone has a soapy feel.

soar /ˈsoɚ/ verb soars; soared; soar•ing [no obj]
1 : to increase very quickly in amount or price ▪ The temperature soared to 100 degrees. ▪ Stock prices are beginning to soar. ▪ The oil shortage sent prices soaring. ▪ The nation's divorce rate has soared. ▪ Interest rates have soared (up) to new heights.
2 a : to fly or sail often at a great height by floating on air currents ▪ The eagle soared above us. ▪ A hang glider soared in the air. b : to rise quickly upward to a great height ▪ The rocket soared into the sky. ▪ The ball soared out of the stadium. — often used figuratively ▪ The song is soaring in popularity. = The popularity of the song is soaring. ▪ Her spirits soared [=she became very happy and excited] when she heard the news.
3 : to reach or rise to a great height ▪ The mountain soars over 20,000 feet above sea level.
– soaring adj, always used before a noun ▪ a soaring divorce rate ▪ a soaring eagle ▪ She is enjoying her soaring popularity. ▪ soaring skyscrapers

sob /ˈsɑːb/ verb sobs; sobbed; sob•bing
1 [no obj] : to cry noisily while taking in short, sudden breaths ▪ He began to sob uncontrollably. ▪ She could not stop sobbing.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) while sobbing ▪ "I hate you," she sobbed. ▪ She sobbed (out) her goodbye.
– sob noun, pl sobs [count] ▪ "I don't know what I'll do," she said with a sob.

SOB /ˌɛsˌoʊˈbiː/ noun, pl SOBs [count] chiefly US, informal : SON OF A BITCH ▪ I hate that miserable SOB.

[1]so•ber /ˈsoʊbɚ/ adj so•ber•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : not drunk ▪ I'm driving, so I have to stay sober tonight. ▪ She has been sober for three years. [=she stopped drinking alcohol three years ago] ▪ I haven't been drinking at all. I'm (as) sober as a judge. [=I'm completely sober] ▪ He claims that he was stone cold sober [=completely sober] when the accident happened.
2 : having or showing a very serious attitude or quality ▪ He is a sober, hardworking farmer. ▪ The story is a sober look at drug abuse. ▪ Illness is a sober reminder of our mortality. ▪ The article is a sober reflection on the state of our nation.
3 : plain in color ▪ a sober gray suit
– so•ber•ly adv ▪ He talked soberly about his life. ▪ She was soberly dressed.

[2]sober verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) serious or thoughtful ▪ He returned home from the war, saddened and sobered by his experiences.
sober up [phrasal verb] sober up or sober (someone) up : to become sober or less drunk or to make (a drunk person) sober or less drunk ▪ You need to sober up before you go. ▪ I tried to sober her up. ▪ I have to sober myself up.

so•ber•ing /ˈsoʊbərɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : making you feel serious and thoughtful ▪ His death is a sobering reminder of the dangers of mountaineering. ▪ a sobering fact/thought

so•bri•ety /səˈbrajəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state of not being drunk ▪ The police tested him for sobriety. [=tested him to see if he was sober] ▪ They did a sobriety test on him. ▪ He has had 10 years of sobriety. [=he stopped drinking alchohol 10 years ago]
2 formal : the quality of being serious ▪ the sobriety of the situation

so•bri•quet also sou•bri•quet /ˈsoʊbrɪˌkeɪ/ noun, pl -quets [count] formal : a name or phrase that describes the character of someone or something : NICKNAME ▪ Baseball player Ty Cobb was also known by the sobriquet "The Georgia Peach."

sob story noun, pl ~ -ries [count] informal : a sad story about yourself that you tell in order to make people feel sorry for you ▪ She told a sob story about how she had to starve herself to pay for the rent. ▪ I don't want to hear any of your sob stories.

soc. abbr 1 society 2 sociology

so–called /ˈsoʊˈkɑːld/ adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to indicate the name that is commonly or usually used for something ▪ an epidemic of the so-called mad cow disease ▪ so-called Generation Xers
2 — used to indicate a name or description that you think is not really right or suitable ▪ I was lied to by a so-called friend. [=by someone who claims to be my friend but who is not really my friend] ▪ The restaurant's so-called specials can be ordered any day of the week.

soc•cer /ˈsɑːkɚ/ noun [noncount] : a game played between two teams of 11 players in which a round ball is moved toward a goal usually by kicking ▪ Both of their children play soccer. — often used before another noun ▪ a soccer ball/player/team/coach/field/game — called also (Brit) football; see picture at BALL; see also TABLE SOCCER

soccer mom noun, pl ~ moms [count] US, informal : a mother usually from the middle class who brings her children to soccer games and similar activities — often used to refer in a general way to such women as a group of people having similar interests, values, etc. ▪ politicians trying to win the vote of soccer moms

so•cia•ble /ˈsoʊʃəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] 1 : liking to be with and talk to other people ▪ They are sociable people who enjoy having parties. ▪ Their daughter is very sociable. [=friendly]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 125 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : involving or allowing friendly and pleasant social relations ▪ They had a very sociable evening.
– so•cia•bil•i•ty /ˌsoʊʃəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount]

[1]so•cial /ˈsoʊʃəl/ adj
1 a : relating to or involving activities in which people spend time talking to each other or doing enjoyable things with each other ▪ She has poor/good social skills. ▪ The vacation resort held a lot of social events. ▪ She has a busy/hectic social life. [=she spends a lot of time doing things with her friends, going to parties, etc.] ▪ I joined the club to improve my social life. ▪ He's a social drinker. [=he only drinks alcohol at parties and other social occasions] ▪ social drinking b [more ~; most ~] : liking to be with and talk to people : happy to be with people ▪ He's not feeling very social [=sociable] this evening. ▪ Her sister is much more social than she is. — opposite ANTISOCIAL
2 : of or relating to people or society in general ▪ social institutions like marriage and family ▪ Health care is a major social issue. ▪ Child abuse has become a serious social problem. ▪ Martin Luther King, Jr., fought for social change/reform.
3 : tending to form relationships and live together in groups : not solitary ▪ Most humans are social beings. ▪ Bees are social insects. ▪ Elephants are social animals.
4 always used before a noun : of, relating to, or based on rank in a particular society ▪ The established social order was challenged by the peasants' rebellion. ▪ Men and women are considered social equals in our culture. ▪ Social classes are based on wealth and property. ▪ The family's social status is middle class.
– so•cial•ly /ˈsoʊʃəli/ adv ▪ She's socially active in the community. ▪ I only know her socially. ▪ He only drinks socially. [=he only drinks alcohol at parties and other social events] ▪ socially unacceptable behavior ▪ socially disadvantaged families

[2]social noun, pl -cials
1 [count] : an informal social event for members of a group ▪ The club/church has socials every month.
2 the social Brit, somewhat informal : SOCIAL SECURITY ▪ He's living on the social now.

social climber noun, pl ~ -ers [count] disapproving : someone who tries to gain a higher social position or status (such as by becoming friendly with wealthy people)

social democracy noun, pl ~ -cies formal 1 [noncount] : a political movement that uses principles of democracy to change a capitalist country to a socialist one
2 [count] : a country that uses both capitalist and socialist practices – social democrat noun, pl ~ -crats [count] – social democratic adj

social engineering noun [noncount] formal : the practice of making laws or using other methods to influence public opinion and solve social problems or improve social conditions – social engineer noun, pl ~ -neers [count]

social housing noun [noncount] Brit : houses or apartments that are made available to be rented at a low cost by poor people so•cial•ism /ˈsoʊʃəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a way of organizing a society in which major industries are owned and controlled by the government rather than by individual people and companies — compare CAPITALISM, COMMUNISM

so•cial•ist /ˈsoʊʃəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person who believes in socialism
2 Socialist : a member of a political party that supports socialism – socialist or Socialist adj ▪ a socialist country/government ▪ socialist ideas ▪ the Socialist party – so•cial•is•tic /ˌsoʊʃəˈlɪstɪk/ adj ▪ socialistic countries/ideas

so•cial•ite /ˈsoʊʃəˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : someone who is well-known in fashionable society and is often seen at parties and other social events for wealthy people ▪ New York City socialites

so•cial•ize also Brit so•cial•ise /ˈsoʊʃəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [no obj] : to talk to and do things with other people in a friendly way ▪ She danced and socialized at the party. — often + with ▪ He doesn't socialize with the other players on the team. ▪ She enjoys socializing with her coworkers.
2 [+ obj] formal : to teach (someone) to behave in a way that is acceptable in society — usually used as (be) socialized ▪ Children are socialized at an early age.
– so•cial•i•za•tion also Brit so•cial•i•sa•tion /ˌsoʊʃələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsəʊʃəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the socialization of children socialized medicine noun [noncount] chiefly US : medical and hospital services that are provided by a government and paid for by taxes social science noun, pl ~ -ences

1 [noncount] : the study of human society
2 [count] : a particular area of study that relates to human behavior and society ▪ Economics is a social science.
– social scientist noun, pl ~ -tists [count]

social security noun [noncount]
1 : a program in which the government provides money to people who are unable to work because they are old, disabled, or unemployed
2 or Social Security : a program in the U.S. that requires workers to make regular payments to a government fund which is used to make payments to people who are unable to work because they are old, disabled, or retired ▪ Social Security benefits/tax — abbr. SS
3 or Social Security : money that is paid out through a social security program ▪ She is living on social security. ▪ He began collecting/receiving Social Security checks.

Social Security number noun, pl ~ -bers [count] : a number that is given to each citizen of the U.S. by the government and that is used for the Social Security program and for official forms and records — abbr. SSN

social services noun [plural] : a program supported by a government or private organization that helps people who have financial or family problems ▪ the Department of Social Services ▪ Contact social services for help.
– social service adj, always used before a noun ▪ a social service agency/worker social studies noun [plural] : a course of study that deals with human relationships and the way society works social work noun [noncount] : the work done by someone who works for a government or private organization that helps people who have financial or family problems ▪ She is doing social work. ▪ He has a job in social work.

– social worker noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

so•ci•e•tal /səˈsajətl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : of or relating to society : SOCIAL ▪ societal changes/needs/problems/values

so•ci•ety /səˈsajəti/ noun, pl -et•ies
1 [noncount] : people in general thought of as living together in organized communities with shared laws, traditions, and values ▪ Poverty hurts society as a whole.
2 : the people of a particular country, area, time, etc., thought of especially as an organized community [count] ancient/modern societies ▪ Christian/consumer societies ▪ We need to do more to help the poorer members of our society. [noncount] the values of Western/American society ▪ wealthy/poor members of society ▪ These problems affect only a small segment of society. [=only a small number of people] ▪ That kind of behavior isn't allowed in polite society. [=among people of the middle and upper classes who speak and behave in a polite way]
3 [noncount] : people who are fashionable and wealthy ▪ She was introduced to society at a formal reception. ▪ The club's members are drawn from the ranks of high society. — often used before another noun ▪ society ladies/fashions/parties ▪ the newspaper's society page
4 [count] : a group of people who work together or regularly meet because of common interests, beliefs, or activities ▪ a literary/musical society ▪ historical societies ▪ The American Cancer Society ▪ The Society of Newspaper Editors
5 [noncount] formal : the state of being with other people ▪ He avoided the society [=company] of other writers.

socio- combining form
1 : society ▪ *socio*logy
2 : social and ▪ *socio*economic so•cio•eco•nom•ic /ˌsoʊsijoʊˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj, formal : of, relating to, or involving a combination of social and economic factors ▪ Their socioeconomic backgrounds are very different.

– so•cio•eco•nom•i•cal•ly /ˌsoʊsijoʊˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪkli/ adv

so•ci•ol•o•gy /ˌsoʊsiˈɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the study of society, social institutions, and social relationships — abbr. soc.
– so•cio•log•i•cal /ˌsoʊsijəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj ▪ The problem is sociological. ▪ a sociological study – so•cio•log•i•cal•ly /ˌsoʊsijəˈlɑːdʒɪkli/ adv ▪ The experiment is sociologically

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 126 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

important. – so•ci•ol•o•gist /ˌsoʊsiˈɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

so•cio•path /ˈsoʊsijəˌpæθ/ noun, pl -paths [count] : someone who behaves in a dangerous or violent way towards other people and does not feel guilty about such behavior – so•cio•path•ic /ˌsoʊsijəˈpæθɪk/ adj ▪ a sociopathic personality ▪ sociopathic behavior ▪ He is sociopathic.

[1]sock /ˈsɑːk/ noun, pl socks [count] : a piece of clothing that is worn on your foot and that covers your ankle and sometimes the lower part of your leg ▪ a white cotton sock — usually plural ▪ a pair of socks ▪ wool/ankle/athletic socks — see color picture on page C13; see also BOBBY SOCKS, TUBE SOCK knock/blow your socks off informal : to affect or impress you in a very strong and favorable way ▪ This song will knock your socks off. [=you will enjoy this song very much] put a sock in it informal — used to tell someone to stop talking ▪ I wish someone would tell him to put a sock in it.

– compare [2]SOCK

[2]sock noun, pl socks [count] informal : a hard hit with the fist : PUNCH — usually singular ▪ She gave him a sock in the jaw/stomach. — compare [1]SOCK

[3]sock verb socks; socked; sock•ing [+ obj] informal : to hit (someone or something) hard ▪ He socked [=punched] him in the eye/nose/jaw. ▪ (baseball) He socked a home run over the left-field wall. — often used figuratively ▪ The city was socked by a blizzard. ▪ He socked us with a huge lawsuit.

sock away [phrasal verb] sock away (something) or sock (something) away US, informal : to save (something, such as money) by putting it in a safe place ▪ My father had been socking away money since I was a young boy.

socked in US : affected by bad weather conditions that prevent people from leaving ▪ The whole metro region is socked in with snow. ▪ The airport was socked in by fog.

sock it to informal : to do or say something to (someone) in a strong and forceful way ▪ He really socked it to her. ▪ Legislators are getting ready to sock it to homeowners with high property tax increases.

sock•et /ˈsɑːkət/ noun, pl -ets [count]
1 a : a device in a wall into which an electric cord can be plugged : OUTLET ▪ She plugged the lamp into the socket. b : an opening on a piece of electrical equipment into which a plug, lightbulb, etc., fits ▪ He screwed the lightbulb into the socket.
2 : a hollow part in a bone that holds an eye, a tooth, or another bone ▪ an inflamed tooth socket ▪ the hip socket ▪ His shoulder popped out of its socket.

socket wrench noun, pl ~ wrenches [count] US : a tool that has a part which fits over the end of a bolt or nut and is used to turn it

So•crat•ic /səˈkrætɪk/ adj, formal : of or relating to the ancient Greek philosopher Socrates, his followers, or his method of asking questions to discover the truth ▪ Socratic questioning/thinking ▪ the Socratic method

[1]sod /ˈsɑːd/ noun, pl sods chiefly US
1 [noncount] : the upper layer of soil that is made up of grass and plant roots ▪ The grounds crew repaired the sod [=turf] after the football game.
2 [count, noncount] : a piece of sod ▪ They were laying sod in the yard.
– compare [2]SOD

[2]sod noun, pl sods Brit, informal
1 [count] a offensive : a person who is unpleasant, offensive, or annoying ▪ He's a nasty old sod. b impolite : a man who you think is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ That poor old sod has been waiting there for hours.
2 [singular] impolite : something that is annoying or difficult ▪ The problem was a real sod to fix.

give a sod also care a sod Brit, informal + impolite : to care at all about someone or something — used in negative statements ▪ I don't give/care a sod about what people say.

odds and sods Brit, informal : ODDS AND ENDS ▪ The store sells art supplies and other odds and sods.

sod all Brit, informal + impolite : nothing at all ▪ You've done (sweet) sod all to help me! ▪ They were wearing sod all.

– compare [1]SOD

[3]sod verb sods; sod•ded; sod•ding [+ obj] Brit, informal + impolite — used to show that you are angry or annoyed at a person, thing, or situation ▪ Sod [=damn] you! I'm not going to do it. ▪ Sod this machine. ▪ Sod it (all). I can't be bothered with this.

sod off Brit, informal + impolite — used to tell someone to leave or go away ▪ Sod off or I'll call the police.

so•da /ˈsoʊdə/ noun, pl -das
1 a [noncount] : SODA WATER ▪ Scotch and soda b [count, noncount] chiefly US : SODA POP ▪ orange/grape soda ▪ I ordered fries and a soda. — often used before another noun ▪ a soda machine ▪ soda cans/bottles
2 [count] US : a drink made of soda water, flavoring, and often ice cream ▪ a chocolate soda ▪ an ice-cream soda
3 [noncount] : a white powdery substance that contains salt and is used in cooking and medicine — see also BAKING SODA, WASHING SODA soda cracker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a thin, usually salted cracker that is often served with soup soda fountain noun, pl ~ -tains [count] chiefly US, somewhat old-fashioned : a counter usually in a store at which cold drinks, types of ice cream, etc., are prepared and served soda jerk noun, pl ~ jerks [count] US, old-fashioned : a person who prepares and serves drinks and ice cream at a soda fountain soda pop noun, pl ~ pops [count, noncount] US : a drink consisting of soda water, flavoring, and a sweet syrup — called also pop, (chiefly US) soda soda water noun, pl ~ -ters [count, noncount] : water that has bubbles in it and that is often used to make other drinks — called also (US) club soda, soda

sod•den /ˈsɑːdn/ adj : very heavy and wet ▪ sodden sandbags/fields sod•ding /ˈsɑːdɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit, informal + impolite

1 — used to show that you are angry, annoyed, or surprised ▪ The sodding [=damn] thing broke again!
2 — used to emphasize a statement ▪ That sodding (great) lorry almost crashed into me.

so•di•um /ˈsoʊdijəm/ noun [noncount] : a soft silver-white element that is found in salt, baking soda, and other compounds sodium bicarbonate noun [noncount] : BAKING SODA — called also bicarbonate of soda

sodium chloride noun [noncount] technical : the chemical compound that forms salt sod•o•mite /ˈsɑːdəˌmaɪt/ noun, pl -mites [count] old-fashioned : a person who has anal sex with another person : someone who practices sodomy sod•o•my /ˈsɑːdəmi/ noun [noncount] : anal sex with someone – sod•o•mize also Brit sod•o•mise /ˈsɑːdəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing [+ obj] chiefly US

Sod's Law noun [noncount] Brit : MURPHY'S LAW

so•fa /ˈsoʊfə/ noun, pl -fas [count] : a long and comfortable piece of furniture on which a person can sit or lie down — see picture at LIVING ROOM

sofa bed noun, pl ~ beds [count] : a sofa that can be folded out to form a bed — see picture at BED

[1]soft /ˈsɑːft/ adj soft•er; -est
1 : easy to press, bend, cut, etc. : not hard or firm ▪ a soft mattress ▪ soft cheese/dough ▪ The ground was soft after the heavy rain. ▪ Iron and lead are soft metals. — opposite HARD 2 : smooth and pleasant to touch ▪ soft skin ▪ a soft silk ▪ The rabbit's fur is soft.
3 a : having a very light color : not strong or bright in color or tone ▪ soft colors ▪ The room was painted in soft pink. ▪ soft blues b of light : not bright or harsh ▪ soft lighting [=lighting that is not too bright] ▪ the soft glow of the moon
4 a : gentle in manner : not harsh ▪ He has a soft touch. ▪ She gave him a soft kiss on the cheek. ▪ We decided to take a softer approach in disciplining the children. b : not strong or very forceful ▪ a soft [=mild, gentle] breeze ▪ A soft [=light] rain fell. c : having a low, gentle sound ▪ a soft voice
5 : having a curved or rounded outline ▪ soft rolling hills ▪ a sweater with soft shoulder lines
6 disapproving : not strict, harsh, or critical enough ▪ The students thought their teacher was soft. ▪ You're too soft with your children. — often + on ▪ Some people accuse the mayor of being soft on crime.
7 : involving little work or effort : EASY ▪ He has a pretty soft job. ▪ a soft life ▪ (chiefly Brit) Police insisted that community service work was not a soft option.
8 a : not physically strong : not muscular ▪ He had grown soft from years of inactivity. b : not brave or tough ▪ He used to love adventure, but he has gone/gotten soft in his old age.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 127 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

9 : feeling sympathy for other people : sympathetic and kind ▪ He has a soft heart. — opposite HARD
10 : relating to matters that are not serious or important ▪ soft news stories — opposite HARD
11 of an illegal drug : not as strong or harmful to the health as other drugs ▪ Marijuana is a soft drug. — opposite HARD
12 of water : not containing many minerals and able to make bubbles with soap ▪ soft water — opposite HARD 13 : sounding like the "c" in "ace" or the "g" in "gem" ▪ The "c" in "cell" is soft, but the "c" in "cabbage" is hard. ▪ the soft "g" in "general" — opposite HARD soft in the head informal : stupid or crazy ▪ He's a nice old man but he's a bit soft in the head. ▪ Have you gone soft in the head? [=are you crazy?]
soft on informal + old-fashioned : attracted to (someone) ▪ I think he's a little soft on her. — see also [1]SOFT 6 (above) – soft•ly adv ▪ She spoke softly but firmly. ▪ She chuckled/laughed softly. ▪ a softly lit room ▪ The ball landed softly in the grass. – soft•ness /ˈsɑːftnəs/ noun [singular] ▪ the softness of silk ▪ Her voice has a gentle softness.

[2]soft adv soft•er; -est chiefly US
1 : in a soft or gentle way ▪ She kissed him soft [=(more commonly) softly] on the lips. ▪ Can you please talk softer? [=more softly]
2 : in a way that is not strong or forceful ▪ He hit the ball soft. [=(more commonly) softly] ▪ a soft-hit ball

soft•ball /ˈsɑːftˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls
1 [noncount] : a sport that is similar to baseball but that is played on a smaller field and with a ball that is pitched underhand and that is larger and softer than a baseball ▪ Do you want to play softball? ▪ softball teams
2 [count] : the ball that is used in softball — see picture at BALL
3 [count] US : a question that is very easy to answer ▪ All the questions in the interview were softballs. ▪ The reporter threw him a softball. [=asked him an easy question] ▪ softball questions.

soft–boiled /ˈsɑːftˈbɔjəld/ adj, of an egg : boiled until the white is solid but the yolk is liquid ▪ soft-boiled eggs — compare HARD-BOILED soft•bound /ˈsɑːftˌbaʊnd/ adj, US, of a book : having a flexible cover ▪ softbound books — compare HARDBOUND

soft–core /ˈsɑːftˈkoə/ adj : showing or describing sex acts but not in an extremely open and shocking way — usually used before a noun ▪ soft-core pornography — compare HARD-CORE soft•cov•er /ˈsɑːftˌkʌvə/ noun, pl -ers US : a book that has a flexible cover [count] Softcovers sell quickly. [noncount] The novel is now available in softcover. — often used before another noun ▪ softcover books — compare HARDCOVER, PAPERBACK soft drink noun, pl ~ drinks [count] : a cold drink that is usually sweet, does not contain alcohol, and is often sold in bottles or cans soft•en /ˈsɑːfən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 : to become less hard or firm or to make (something) less hard or firm [no obj] The butter will soften if left on the counter overnight. ▪ The wax softened (up) quickly. [+ obj] The recipe called for one stick of butter, softened. ▪ Heat softens (up) wax quickly.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) less dry or rough ▪ The oil is used to soften and preserve the leather. ▪ The lotion softens dry skin.
3 a [+ obj] : to make (something) less severe, harsh, extreme, etc. ▪ The company has softened its stance on dating in the workplace. ▪ His arrogance is softened by a good sense of humor. [=his sense of humor makes his arrogance less annoying] ▪ Passing clouds softened the glare of the sun. [=passing clouds made the sun less bright] b [no obj] : to become less harsh, severe, extreme, etc. ▪ Her face/voice/expression softened when he entered the room. ▪ His criticism of the president has softened in the past year. c [+ obj] : to make (something) less painful, forceful, or harmful ▪ The grass softened my fall. — often used figuratively ▪ Management tried to soften the impact of the layoffs by offering early retirement packages. = They tried to soften the blow by offering early retirement packages.
4 [+ obj] : to make (something) seem rounder or less sharp ▪ Her new haircut softened her features.
soften up [phrasal verb] soften (someone) up or soften up (someone) 1 : to treat (someone) very well or kindly in order to make that person more likely to help you, give you something, etc. ▪ He tried to soften her up by buying her flowers. 2 : to weaken (an enemy) through military attacks ▪ They used artillery to soften up the enemy's defenses before launching a full-scale attack.

soft•en•er /ˈsɑːfənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a substance that makes something smoother or softer ▪ a new skin softener — see also FABRIC SOFTENER soft focus noun [noncount] : a way of producing a photograph so that the edges of the image are not completely clear or sharp – soft–focus adj ▪ used a soft-focus lens ▪ soft-focus photography soft fruit noun, pl ~ fruits [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : small fruits (such as berries) that do not have pits or stones soft furnishings noun [plural] Brit : things (such as curtains or rugs) that are made of cloth and used to decorate a room, house, etc.

soft•heart•ed /ˈsɑːftˌhɑəɾtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having feelings of kindness and sympathy for other people ▪ He looks tough, but he's really very softhearted. ▪ She's too soft-hearted to fire anyone. — compare HARD-HEARTED soft•ie or softy /ˈsɑːfti/ noun, pl soft•ies [count] informal : a kind person : a softhearted person ▪ He may look tough, but he is really a softie at heart.
– soft•heart•ed•ness noun [noncount]

soft landing noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a landing in which an airplane, a spacecraft, etc., touches the ground in a controlled and gradual way that does not damage it ▪ The lunar module made a soft landing on the moon. — often used figuratively to describe an ending or solution that is not difficult or harmful ▪ Market analysts are predicting a soft landing for the economy after the economic boom.

softly–softly adj, Brit, informal : careful and patient in dealing with someone or something ▪ a softly-softly approach/strategy

softly–spoken adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : SOFT-SPOKEN

soft money noun [noncount] chiefly US : money that is given to a political party rather than to a particular candidate soft–ped•al /ˈsɑːftˈpɛdl/ verb -als; US -aled or Brit -alled; US -al•ing or Brit -al•ling [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to treat or describe (something) as less important than it really is ▪ I'm not trying to soft-pedal the issue/problem.

soft rock noun [noncount] : rock music with a gentler sound and slower beat than hard rock — compare HARD ROCK soft sell noun [singular] : a way of selling something that uses persuasion rather than aggressive pressure — often used before another noun ▪ using soft-sell tactics ▪ a soft-sell approach to marketing — compare HARD SELL soft–shell /ˈsɑːftˈʃɛl/ or soft–shelled /ˈsɑːftˈʃɛld/ adj, US : having a shell that is soft or easily broken ▪ soft-shell crabs soft–soap /ˈsɑːftˈsoʊp/ verb -soaps; -soaped; -soap•ing [+ obj] Brit, informal : to try to persuade (someone) to do something by using praise, kind words, etc. — often + into ▪ Don't be soft-soaped into going out with him.

– soft soap noun [noncount] Brit, informal soft–spo•ken /ˈsɑːftˈspoʊkən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a gentle, quiet voice or manner ▪ a soft-spoken teacher

soft spot noun, pl ~ spots [count]
1 : a strong liking for someone or something — usually singular ▪ He has a soft spot for children. [=he likes children very much] ▪ She has a soft spot for chocolate ice cream.
2 : a weak point that can be attacked ▪ They found a soft spot in the enemy's defenses.

soft target noun, pl ~ -gets [count] : a target that can be attacked easily because it does not have military defenses ▪ hospitals, schools, and other soft targets — often used figuratively ▪ elderly people who are a soft target for criminals

soft–top noun, pl -tops [count] informal : a car with a roof made of thick fabric that can be lowered or removed : CONVERTIBLE — compare HARDTOP soft touch noun, pl ~ touches [count] US, informal : a person who is easily deceived or taken advantage of ▪ His friends all know that he's a soft touch.

soft toy noun, pl ~ toys [count] Brit : STUFFED ANIMAL soft•ware /ˈsɑːftˌweə/ noun [noncount] : the programs that run on a computer and perform certain functions ▪ word-processing software ▪ antivirus software ▪ I installed/loaded the software. — often used before another noun ▪ the soft-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 128 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s ware industry ▪ software programs/development — compare HARDWARE soft•wood /ˈsɑːftˌwʊd/ noun, pl -woods

1 [count, noncount] : the wood of a tree (such as a pine tree) that is soft and easy to cut — often used before another noun ▪ softwood lumber
2 [count] : a tree that produces softwood ▪ pines, firs, and other softwoods — compare HARDWOOD

softy variant spelling of SOFTIE

sog•gy /ˈsɑːgi/ adj sog•gi•er; -est
1 : heavy with water or moisture : completely wet and usually soft ▪ The cereal got all soggy. ▪ soggy bread
2 informal : RAINY ▪ soggy weather
– sog•gi•ness /ˈsɑːginəs/ noun [noncount]

soh /ˈsoʊ/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, music : SOL

[1]soil /ˈsɔjəl/ noun, pl soils
1 : the top layer of earth in which plants grow [noncount] This kind of plant grows well in moist soil. ▪ The soil in this area is very fertile/sandy. ▪ Cleaning up contaminated soil [=soil that has harmful chemicals in it] can be very costly. [count] Certain plants cannot live in poorly drained soils. — see also POTTING SOIL
2 [noncount] formal + literary : the land of a particular country ▪ They have returned to their native soil. [=the place they are originally from] ▪ I had never set foot on Japanese/Italian soil before. [=I had never been to Japan/Italy before]
3 [noncount] : a place where something begins or develops ▪ Poor neighborhoods can be fertile soil for crime. [=there is often a lot of crime in poor neighborhoods]
4 the soil literary : farming as a way of making a living ▪ Her ancestors had felt a closeness to the soil.

[2]soil verb soils; soiled; soil•ing formal
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) dirty ▪ I soiled my blouse/shirt at the cocktail party. ▪ The ink soiled his hands. ▪ Her clothes were soiled and very wet. ▪ soiled linens/underwear/diapers — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He refused to soil his hands [=do anything dishonest or wrong] for her.
2 [no obj] : to become dirty ▪ This fabric soils easily.

soi•ree or soi•rée /swɑˈreɪ/ noun, pl -rees or -rées [count] : a formal party that is usually at night ▪ a fashionable soiree at a fancy hotel

so•journ /ˈsoʊˌʤɚn/ noun, pl -journs [count] formal : a period of time when you stay in a place as a traveler or guest ▪ Our family enjoyed a two-week sojourn in the mountains.
– sojourn verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -journs; -journed; -journ•ing [no obj] formal ▪ We sojourned for two weeks at a resort.

sol /ˈsoʊl/ noun [noncount] music : the fifth note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti — called also so, (chiefly Brit) soh

so•lace /ˈsɑːləs/ noun, formal : someone or something that gives a feeling of comfort to a person who is sad, depressed, etc. : a source of comfort [singular] Her presence was a great solace for/to me. [noncount] — often + in ▪ We took/found solace in the knowledge that she hadn't been alone at the end. ▪ I urged him not to seek solace in alcohol. [=I urged him not to drink to feel better]

so•lar /ˈsoʊlɚ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to the sun ▪ a solar eclipse/phenomenon
2 : produced by or using the sun's light or heat ▪ solar energy/power ▪ a solar heating system

solar cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : a device that uses light or heat from the sun to produce electricity

so•lar•i•um /soʊˈlerijəm/ noun, pl -ums [count]
1 : a room with walls and a ceiling that are made of glass to allow in sunlight
2 Brit : a room where you can lie in the sun or get a tan solar panel noun, pl ~ -els [count] : a large, flat piece of equipment that uses the sun's light or heat to create electricity ▪ All of the house's electricity is produced by solar panels on the roof.

so•lar plex•us /ˈsoʊlɚˈplɛksəs/ noun
the solar plexus : the area on the front of your body just below the ribs ▪ He punched him in the solar plexus.

solar system noun, pl ~ -tems
1 the solar system : our sun and the planets that move around it
2 [count] : a star other than our sun and the planets that move around it

sold past tense and past participle of [1]SELL

[1]sol•der /ˈsɑːdɚ, Brit ˈsɒldə/ noun [noncount] : a mixture of metals (such as lead and tin) that is melted and used to join metal parts together

[2]solder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to join (something made of metal) to something else with solder ▪ Wires are soldered onto the circuit board.

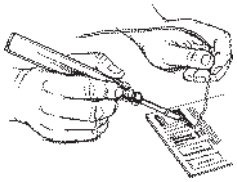
soldering iron noun, pl ~ irons [count] : a tool that is electrically heated and used for joining parts with solder



soldering iron

[1]sol•dier /ˈsoʊlʤɚ/ noun, pl -diers [count] : a person who is in the military : a member of an army ▪ Many soldiers were wounded in combat. ▪ an American soldier ▪ British/German soldiers — see also FOOT SOLDIER

[2]soldier verb -diers; -diered; -dier•ing soldier on [phrasal verb] : to continue to do something or to try to achieve something even though it is difficult ▪ We soldiered on to the end. ▪ The researchers encountered many problems but they soldiered on.

sol•dier•ing /ˈsoʊlʤɚɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the life or job of a soldier sol•dier•ly /ˈsoʊlʤɚli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : suited to or typical of a good soldier ▪ soldierly virtues ▪ a soldierly manner soldier of fortune noun, pl soldiers of fortune [count] : someone who will fight as a soldier for any country or person in return for payment sol•diery /ˈsoʊlʤɚi/ noun [singular] old-fashioned : a group of soldiers

sold–out /ˈsoʊldˈaʊt/ adj : having all the tickets sold completely ▪ a sold-out show/performance/concert : of or relating to an event where all the tickets have been sold ▪ A sold-out crowd attended the show. — see also sell out at [1]SELL

[1]sole /ˈsoʊl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : only or single ▪ He became the sole heir to the property. ▪ the sole owner ▪ The sole aim/objective/purpose of the program is to help the poor. ▪ She was the sole survivor of the tragedy. ▪ Icy roads were the sole cause of the accident.
2 : belonging only to the person or group specified ▪ She has the sole authority to hire new staff members. [=only she can hire new staff members] ▪ He has sole jurisdiction of the area.

[2]sole noun, pl soles [count]
1 : the bottom part of the foot
2 : the part of a shoe, boot, etc., that touches the ground ▪ shoes with slippery soles ▪ heavy boots with thick rubber soles — see picture at SHOE
– compare [4]SOLE

[3]sole verb soles; soled; sol•ing [+ obj] : to put a new sole on (a shoe, boot, etc.) ▪ My shoes need to be soled.

[4]sole noun, pl soles [count, noncount] : a type of ocean fish that is eaten as food ▪ fillet of sole — compare [2]SOLE so•le•cism /ˈsɑːləˌsɪzəm/ noun, pl -cisms [count] formal

1 : a mistake in speech or writing ▪ a verbal solecism
2 : an impolite or improper way of behaving ▪ a stylistic solecism

soled /ˈsoʊld/ adj, of a shoe : having a particular type of sole — used in combination ▪ leather-soled shoes ▪ thick-soled hiking boots

sole•ly /ˈsoʊlli/ adv
1 : without anything or anyone else involved ▪ His rank was based solely on merit. ▪ You will be held solely responsible for any damage. ▪ The decision is solely [=entirely] yours.
2 : only or just ▪ She did not write solely for money.

sol•emn /ˈsɑːləm/ adj
1 : very serious or formal in manner, behavior, or expression ▪ a solemn occasion/moment ▪ He spoke in a solemn and thoughtful manner. ▪ a solemn religious ceremony/procession ▪ He wore a very solemn expression on his face. ▪ He recited the poem in a solemn voice.
2 : sad and serious ▪ A solemn crowd gathered around the grave.
3 : done or made sincerely ▪ a solemn declaration/oath ▪ We made a solemn promise/vow to love each other forever.
– sol•emn•ly adv ▪ We listened solemnly as the president spoke. ▪ Do you solemnly swear to tell the truth?

so•lem•ni•ty /səˈlɛmnəti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] : the quality of being formal or serious ▪ the so-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 129 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

lemnity of the occasion ▪ Her voice conveyed the solemnity of the passage. ▪ The visiting statesman was welcomed with appropriate solemnity.

2 solemnities [plural] : formal ceremonies ▪ Elaborate solemnities marked the 100th anniversary of the event.

sol•em•nize (US) also Brit sol•em•nise /ˈsɑːləmˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] formal : to mark or celebrate (something) officially or formally especially with a religious ceremony ▪ The priest solemnized their marriage.

so•lic•it /səˈlɪsət/ verb -its; it•ed; -it•ing formal

1 a : to ask for (something, such as money or help) from people, companies, etc. [+ obj] The center is soliciting donations to help victims of the earthquake. ▪ The company is soliciting bids from various firms. ▪ The organization is soliciting new memberships/subscriptions. ▪ The newspaper's editors want to solicit opinions/comments from readers. [no obj] The organization is soliciting for donations. b [+ obj] : to ask (a person or group) for money, help, etc. ▪ Special interest groups are soliciting Congress for funds.

2 [+ obj] : to offer to have sex with (someone) in return for money ▪ The prostitutes were arrested for soliciting customers.

– so•lic•i•ta•tion /səˌlɪsəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal [count] E-mail solicitations for comments didn't generate much response. [noncount] the solicitation of funds ▪ Solicitation is not allowed in the store or its parking lot. – soliciting noun [noncount] ▪ No soliciting is allowed on store property. ▪ He was arrested for soliciting.

so•lic•i•tor /səˈlɪsətə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 US : a person whose job involves talking to many people and trying to persuade them to buy things, donate money, etc. ▪ Solicitors will be arrested for trespassing.

2 : a lawyer in Britain who assists people in legal matters and who can represent people in lower courts of law — compare BARRISTER

3 US : a chief law officer of a city, town, or government department

solicitor general noun, pl solicitors general [count] : a law officer who assists an attorney general and is just below the attorney general in rank

so•lic•i•tous /səˈlɪsətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing concern or care for someone's health, happiness, etc. ▪ I appreciated his solicitous inquiry about my health. ▪ He had always been solicitous for the welfare of his family. – so•lic•i•tous•ly adv

so•lic•i•tude /səˈlɪsəˌtuːd, Brit səˈlɪsəˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] formal : concern that someone feels about someone's health, happiness, etc. ▪ He expressed solicitude for my health.

[1]sol•id /ˈsɑːləd/ adj

1 : firm or hard : not having the form of a gas or liquid ▪ Concrete is a solid material. ▪ particles of solid matter ▪ When ice melts, it passes from a solid to a liquid form. ▪ I was on a liquid diet when I was sick because I couldn't digest solid food. ▪ His muscles are very solid. [=hard] ▪ I was glad to get off the plane and back on solid ground. ▪ The pond was frozen solid.

2 : having no space inside : not hollow ▪ a solid rubber ball ▪ a solid object

3 a always used before a noun : made entirely from the specified material ▪ The ring is solid gold/silver. ▪ solid oak/cherry/mahogany furniture ▪ a chunk of solid marble/granite b : consisting only of the color specified or only of one color ▪ I prefer solid colors like blue or green instead of plaids and stripes. — see color picture on page C12

4 : having no breaks, spaces, or pauses ▪ The road was divided by a solid yellow line. ▪ We talked for three solid hours. [=we talked for three hours without stopping] — often used figuratively ▪ The rain fell in solid sheets. [=the rain fell very heavily] ▪ The stores are always packed solid [=very crowded] during the holidays. ▪ The hotels in the city were booked solid for the conference.

5 [more ~; most ~] a : good and able to be trusted to do or provide what is needed ▪ He plays solid defense. ▪ The team's defense is very solid. ▪ She gave a solid performance. ▪ She's a good, solid player. b : having a strong basis : good and dependable ▪ His friend gave him some good, solid advice. ▪ The company has built/established a solid reputation. ▪ She had solid reasons for her decision. ▪ Students need a solid foundation in language skills. ▪ The prosecution has no solid evidence. ▪ He had a solid alibi. ▪ Financially, the company is (as) solid as a rock. [=the company is in very good condition]

6 [more ~; most ~] : strong and well-made ▪ solid furniture ▪ This chair is very solid.

7 US : agreeing with or supporting something (such as a political party) in a completely loyal and dependable way ▪ She is a solid Democrat/Republican.

8 geometry : having length, width, and height : THREE-DIMENSIONAL ▪ a solid geometric figure

– sol•id•ly adv ▪ solidly constructed furniture ▪ a solidly built athlete ▪ She put her feet solidly [=securely] on the ground. ▪ Her reputation was solidly established. ▪ a solidly Republican area/suburb [=an area/suburb where most people vote for Republicans] ▪ Environmentalists were solidly [=completely] opposed to drilling in the area. ▪ The quarterback played solidly during the second half. – sol•id•ness noun [noncount]

[2]solid noun, pl -ids

1 [count] : a solid substance : a substance that is not a gas or a liquid

2 [count] geometry : an object that has length, width, and height : a three-dimensional object — see picture at GEOMETRY

3 solids [plural] : foods that are not liquid ▪ She couldn't eat solids after the surgery.

sol•i•dar•i•ty /ˌsɑːləˈdɛrəti/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of unity between people who have the same interests, goals, etc. ▪ national solidarity ▪ The vote was a show of solidarity.

so•lid•i•fy /səˈlɪdəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing

1 : to make (something) solid or hard or to become solid or hard [+ obj] Work is under way to solidify the concrete that supports the building. ▪ solidified lava [no obj] Hot wax solidifies as it cools.

2 : to make (a plan, project, etc.) stronger and more certain or to become stronger and more certain [+ obj] Recent findings helped to solidify our position. ▪ The international community is working to solidify its alliances. [no obj] Their plans have solidified.

– so•lid•i• •ca•tion /səˌlɪdəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

so•lid•i•ty /səˈlɪdəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being solid ▪ the solidity of stone/granite/concrete ▪ The solidity of his convictions impressed us.

so•lil•o•quy /səˈlɪləkwi/ noun, pl -quies [count, noncount] : a long, usually serious speech that a character in a play makes to an audience and that reveals the character's thoughts

so•lip•sism /ˈsoʊləpˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] technical : a theory in philosophy that your own existence is the only thing that is real or that can be known – so•lip•sis•tic /ˌsoʊləpˈsɪstɪk/ adj ▪ a solipsistic view

sol•i•taire /ˈsɑːləˌteə/ noun, pl -taires

1 [noncount] chiefly US : a card game that is played by one person — called also (Brit) patience

2 [count] : a single jewel that is set alone in a piece of jewelry ▪ a diamond solitaire bracelet

[1]sol•i•tary /ˈsɑːləˌteri, Brit ˈsɒlətri/ adj

1 a : without anyone or anything else : not involving or including anyone or anything else ▪ a solitary traveler ▪ We saw one solitary [=single] figure coming over the horizon. — sometimes used in negative statements to emphasize a complete lack of something ▪ I could not hear a solitary [=single] word of what he said. b : done by a person who is alone ▪ He took a solitary walk/stroll on the beach. ▪ a solitary job

2 : separate from other people or things ▪ A solitary house stood on top of the cliff.

3 [more ~; most ~] : tending to live or spend time alone ▪ Most cats are solitary creatures. ▪ He's a very solitary man.

– sol•i•tar•i•ly /ˌsɑːləˈterəli, Brit ˈsɒlətrəli/ adv – sol•i•tar•i•ness /ˈsɑːləˌterinəs, Brit ˈsɒlətrinəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]solitary noun [noncount] : SOLITARY CONFINEMENT ▪ The prisoner was kept in solitary.

solitary con nement noun [noncount] : the state of being kept alone in a prison cell away from other prisoners ▪ He spent three months in solitary confinement.

sol•i•tude /ˈsɑːləˌtuːd, Brit ˈsɒləˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] : a state or situation in which you are alone usually because you want to be ▪ She wished to work on her novel in solitude. ▪ He enjoyed the peace and solitude of the woods.

[1]so•lo /ˈsoʊloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count]

1 : a piece of music that is performed by one singer or musician ▪ a piano/guitar solo ▪ an operatic solo

2 : something that is done without another person ▪ She is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 130 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

learning to fly and she flew her first solo yesterday.

[2]solo adj, always used before a noun
1 a : done without another person ▪ a student pilot's first solo flight b : involving or done by a single performer instead of a group ▪ a solo performance ▪ She left the band last year and started a solo career. ▪ He just issued his first solo album. ▪ a solo artist/performer [=a singer or musician who is not part of a group]
2 baseball : hit with no runners on base ▪ a solo home run [=a home run that scores one run] – solo adv ▪ She is traveling solo. [=by herself] ▪ The singer went solo after being with the band for 10 years.

[3]solo verb -los; -loed; -lo•ing [no obj]
1 : to perform a piece of music without another singer or musician ▪ The guitarist solos on practically every song.
2 : to fly an airplane without an instructor ▪ She soloed for the first time yesterday.

so•lo•ist /ˈsoʊlowɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who performs a musical solo ▪ a piano soloist

sol•stice /ˈsɑːlstəs/ noun, pl -stic•es [count] : one of the two times during the year when the sun is farthest north or south of the equator ✧ The summer solstice occurs around June 22 and the winter solstice occurs around December 22. — compare EQUINOX

sol•u•ble /ˈsɑːljəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : capable of being dissolved in a liquid ▪ Sugar is soluble in water. ▪ soluble fiber — sometimes used in combination ▪ water-soluble vitamins/compounds — opposite INSOLUBLE
2 formal : capable of being solved or explained ▪ a soluble [=(more commonly) solvable] problem
– sol•u•bil•i•ty /ˌsɑːljəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

so•lu•tion /səˈluːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [count] : something that is used or done to deal with and end a problem : something that solves a problem ▪ Medication may not be the best solution for the patient's condition. ▪ The solution is simple/obvious: you need to spend less money. — often + to ▪ There is no simple solution to the country's drug problem. ▪ She suggested a number of creative solutions to the housing crisis. b [noncount] : the act of solving something ▪ a problem that has so far resisted solution [=a problem that no one has been able to solve]
2 [count] a : a correct answer to a problem, puzzle, etc. — often + to ▪ The solutions to the math problems are in the back of the book. ▪ I can't figure out the solution to this puzzle. b : an explanation for something that is difficult to understand (such as a mystery) — often + to ▪ The police haven't yet found a solution to this crime/mystery.
3 a : a liquid in which something has been dissolved [count] She made a solution of baking soda and water. ▪ a 40 percent saline solution [noncount] He rinsed the contact lens with saline solution. b [noncount] : the act or process of dissolving a solid, liquid, or gas in a liquid ▪ the solution of sucrose in water

solve /ˈsɑːlv/ verb solves; solved; solv•ing [+ obj]
1 : to find a way to deal with and end (a problem) ▪ They are working to solve the traffic problem. ▪ If they'll lend us the money we need, all our problems will be solved.
2 a : to find the correct answer to (something, such as a riddle) ▪ She solved the riddle/puzzle. ▪ He couldn't solve the math problem. b : to find the correct explanation for (something, such as a mystery) ▪ The mystery/crime has been solved. ▪ The FBI has been trying to solve the case for years.
– solv•able /ˈsɑːlvəbəl/ adj ▪ an easily solvable mystery – solv•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's a good problem solver.

sol•ven•cy /ˈsɑːlvənsi/ noun [noncount] : the state of being able to pay debts ▪ They reviewed financial records to measure the borrower's solvency.

[1]sol•vent /ˈsɑːlvənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to pay debts ▪ He couldn't stay/remain solvent after losing his business.

[2]solvent noun, pl -vents [count, noncount] technical : a liquid substance that is used to dissolve another substance ▪ turpentine and other solvents

som•ber (US) or Brit som•bre /ˈsɑːmbə/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal 1 : very sad and serious ▪ Her death put us in a somber mood. ▪ The movie is a somber portrait of life on the streets.
2 : having a dull or dark color ▪ He wore a somber suit.
– som•ber•ly adv ▪ He shook his head somberly at the sad news. – som•ber•ness noun [noncount]

som•bre•ro /səmˈbreroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] : a type of hat with a very wide brim that is often worn in Mexico and the southwestern U.S. — see picture at HAT

[1]some /ˈsʌm, səm/ adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to refer to a person or thing that is not known, named, or specified ▪ Some guy called while you were out. ▪ She works for some company (or other/another) out west. ▪ For some reason, the lights went out. ▪ I tried to offer him some type/sort/kind of payment for the favor. ▪ Could you call back some other time? I'm busy right now. ▪ Some birds cannot fly. ▪ I like some kinds of nuts but not all of them. ▪ Some people believe it and others don't.
2 a : of an unspecified amount or number ▪ Can I have some water? ▪ I bought some apples. ▪ She had some interest in the job. ▪ I have some money left, but not much. ▪ I hope I've been of some help. b : of a fairly large amount or number ▪ Their decision was met with some surprise. [=people were fairly surprised by their decision] ▪ It will be some time [=a considerable amount of time] before she comes back. ▪ We met some years ago. ▪ He spoke at some length about his problems.
3 informal a — used to express approval ▪ That was some game! [=that was a very good/enjoyable game] b — used to express disapproval, disappointment, etc. ▪ You have some nerve [=a lot of nerve] to say that! ▪ You don't know how to get there? Some navigator you are! [=you're not a good navigator] ▪ Some friend he is—he left me stranded at the train depot.

[2]some /ˈsʌm/ pronoun : an unspecified amount or number of people or things ▪ Some of the apples are bruised. ▪ Some of the people at the party had too much to drink. ▪ This bakery makes some of the best bread in town. ▪ Most birds can fly but some cannot. ▪ Some [=some people] say that patience is a virtue. ▪ I'm making coffee; do you want some?
and then some informal : and more in addition to that ▪ I ran a mile and then some. ▪ He got what he deserved and then some. [=he got more than he deserved]

[3]some /ˈsʌm, ˌsʌm/ adv
1 — used to indicate that a number is approximate ▪ Some 80 people [=about 80 people] showed up for the lecture. — sometimes used in combination ▪ The drug is illegal in 20-some states.
2 : to an unspecified amount or degree ▪ Would you like some more potatoes? ▪ I need to work on it some more. — often used informally in U.S. English without more ▪ He needs to grow up some before he can live on his own. ▪ The cut bled some. [=a little] ▪ He helped me some.

[1]-some /səm/ adj suffix
1 : having a specified quality ▪ burden*some* 2 : causing a specified feeling or condition ▪ fear*some* ▪ awe*some* ▪ quarrel*some*

[2]-some noun suffix : a group of (so many) people or things ▪ four*some* [=a group of four people]

[1]some•body /ˈsʌmˌbɑdi/ pronoun : a person who is not known, named, or specified : SOMEONE ▪ Somebody left you a message. ▪ The singer waved to somebody in the crowd. ▪ We need somebody who can work nights and weekends. ▪ Is that somebody you know? ▪ Somebody has to do it. ▪ After I turned down the job, she offered it to somebody else.

[2]somebody noun, pl -bod•ies [count] : an important person — usually singular ▪ The teacher convinced her that she could grow up to be somebody.

some•day /ˈsʌmˌdeɪ/ adv : at some time in the future ▪ Someday we'll buy a house. ▪ She hopes to publish her novel someday. ▪ Let's have lunch someday next week.

some•how /ˈsʌmˌhaʊ/ adv : in a way that is not known or certain ▪ Somehow (or other/another) we got lost. ▪ She somehow managed to find her earring in the sand. ▪ It will all work out somehow.

some•one /ˈsʌmˌwʌn/ pronoun : some person : SOMEBODY ▪ Someone left you a message. ▪ Is that someone you know? ▪ We need someone who can work nights and weekends. ▪ Someone took the last piece of cake. ▪ I'll do it because someone has to. ▪ She offered the job to someone else. — compare ANYONE

some•place /ˈsʌmˌpleɪs/ adv, US : SOMEWHERE ▪ Should we eat here or go someplace else? ▪ I put my keys someplace but I can't remember where. — compare ANYPLACE

[1]som•er•sault /ˈsʌməˌsɑːlt/ noun, pl -saults [count] : a forward or backward movement of your body on the ground or in the air that is made by bringing your feet over your head ▪ The gymnast turned/performed/did a somersault. ▪ a forward/backward somersault — sometimes used figuratively ▪

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 131 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

His heart did a somersault when he heard the news.

[2]somersault verb -saults; -sault•ed; -sault•ing [no obj] : to make a complete turn forward or backward on the ground or in the air : to do a somersault ▪ The diver somersaulted in midair. ▪ He flew off his bike and somersaulted over the bushes.

[1]some•thing /ˈsʌmˌθɪŋ/ pronoun
1 : a thing that is not known, named, or specified ▪ Something came in the mail for you. ▪ I thought I heard something outside. ▪ He said something that really bothered me. ▪ I started to say something but she interrupted me. ▪ I have something to tell you. ▪ There's something wrong with my car. ▪ Something is going on at the school, but I don't know what. ▪ "The job doesn't pay very well and the hours are long." "I think you should look for something better." ▪ I don't know what she studies, but it has something to do with computers. [=it relates to computers] ▪ Would you like something [=anything] to drink? ▪ Is there something [=anything] wrong? ▪ Is there something [=anything] good on TV tonight? ▪ I just got my tax refund. It's not much, but it's something. [=it's better than nothing] ▪ "They won't give us an extra week to finish, but they'll give us a couple of days." "Well, that's something anyway." ▪ Do you want pizza for dinner or something else? [=or a different thing for dinner] ▪ I got you a little something [=a small thing] for your birthday.
2 : a person or thing that is important or worth noticing ▪ She thinks she's really something ever since her promotion. ▪ That waterfall is really something, isn't it? ▪ He decided to go back to college and make something of himself. [=become successful]
3 : an amount that is more than a specified number — used in combination ▪ His friends are all twenty*something* singles. [=his friends are single people between the ages of 20 and 29] ▪ The bill came to fifty-something dollars.
4 — used to make a statement or description less forceful or definite ▪ He is something of an expert [=he is an expert to some degree] with car repair. ▪ We have something of a problem here. ▪ The movie was something of [=somewhat of] a disappointment. [=was somewhat disappointing] or something informal — used to suggest another name, choice, etc., that is not specified ▪ Are you crazy or something? ▪ You can probably clean that stain with club soda or something. [=or something like that] ▪ The man wearing the badge must be a guard or something. ▪ Can I get you a glass of wine or something?
something else informal : a person or thing that is special or impressive ▪ That magician really is something else. ▪ The Grand Canyon is something else, isn't it?
start something see [1]START

[2]something adv
1 : in a very small amount or degree : somewhat or slightly ▪ The total repairs cost something over $300. ▪ He does look something like his father. [=he resembles his father somewhat] ▪ The movie was something like what I expected.
2 informal — used before an adjective that is being used like an adverb to add emphasis ▪ He was snoring something awful/terrible [=was snoring very loudly] last night.
something fierce see FIERCE

[1]some•time /ˈsʌmˌtaɪm/ adv
1 : at an unspecified time in the future ▪ We should get together sometime. ▪ It's likely to happen sometime soon. ▪ She will return from her trip sometime in December.
2 : at an unspecified or unknown time in the past ▪ A burglar broke in sometime during the night. ▪ The book was written sometime around the turn of the century.

[2]sometime adj, always used before a noun
1 formal — used to say what someone or something was in the past ▪ the sometime [=former] prime minister
2 US — used to say what someone sometimes does or is ▪ He is a talented pianist and sometime teacher of music. [=he sometimes teaches music]

some•times /ˈsʌmˌtaɪmz/ adv : at certain times : OCCASIONALLY ▪ His jokes are funny, but sometimes he goes too far. ▪ Sometimes I take the bus to work. ▪ We all make mistakes sometimes. ▪ She works nine hours a day, sometimes more than that. ▪ The word is sometimes used figuratively.

some•way /ˈsʌmˌweɪ/ adv : SOMEHOW ▪ We'll do it someway.

[1]some•what /ˈsʌmˌwʌt/ adv : in a small amount or degree : to some degree ▪ He felt somewhat awkward in his suit. ▪ The instructions were somewhat [=slightly, a little] confusing. ▪ Our work has progressed somewhat. ▪ The course is somewhat more difficult than I was told it would be.

[2]somewhat pronoun — used to make a statement or description less forceful or definite ▪ We have somewhat of a problem. [=we have a slight/minor problem] ▪ To say he has improved is somewhat of [=something of] an understatement.

[1]some•where /ˈsʌmˌweə/ adv
1 : in, at, or to a place not known, named, or specified ▪ The boy ran off somewhere. ▪ She lives somewhere in the city. ▪ I've seen you somewhere before. ▪ His house must be around here somewhere. ▪ Do you want to go somewhere else?
2 : close to a specified number, time, or amount — usually + around or between ▪ We met up somewhere around nine o'clock. ▪ There must be somewhere around 100 people here. ▪ The event attracted somewhere between 300 and 500 people. ▪ The car costs somewhere around $25,000 to $30,000.
get somewhere informal : to make progress ▪ After hours of questioning, the police began to get somewhere with the suspect. ▪ The work has been very slow, but I feel like we're finally getting somewhere.

[2]somewhere noun [noncount] : a place not known, named, or specified ▪ We looked for somewhere to park the car. ▪ I know somewhere nice where we can eat.

som•me•lier /ˌsʌməlˈjeɪ/ noun, pl -liers /ˌsʌməlˈjeɪz/ [count] : a waiter in a restaurant who is in charge of serving wine som•no•lent /ˈsɑːmnələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : tired and ready to fall asleep : SLEEPY ▪ somnolent travelers — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a somnolent little village
2 : causing a person to fall asleep : very boring ▪ a somnolent lecture – som•no•lence /ˈsɑːmnələns/ noun [noncount] son /ˈsʌn/ noun, pl sons

1 [count] : a male child ▪ She gave birth to a son. ▪ They have two sons and a daughter. ▪ He is the son of a lawyer and a doctor. ▪ an adopted son — sometimes used figuratively ▪ our town's own native son [=a boy/man who is from our town] — sometimes used by an older person to address a younger man or a boy ▪ Slow down, son, I can't understand what you're saying. — see also FAVORITE SON, GODSON, GRANDSON, STEPSON
2 the Son : the second person of the Trinity in the Christian religion : Jesus Christ ▪ the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit like father, like son see [1]FATHER prodigal son see PRODIGAL

so•nar /ˈsoʊˌnɑə/ noun [noncount] : a device used for finding things that are underwater by using sound waves ▪ They detected the submarine by using sonar. ▪ a sonar signal

so•na•ta /səˈnɑːtə/ noun, pl -tas [count] music : a piece of music written for one or two instruments that has usually three or four large sections that are different from each other in rhythm and mood ▪ a piano/cello sonata

song /ˈsɑːŋ/ noun, pl songs
1 [count] : a short piece of music with words that are sung ▪ He sang a love song. ▪ The song was playing on the radio. — see also FOLK SONG, SIREN SONG, SWAN SONG, THEME SONG, TORCH SONG
2 [noncount] : the act of singing ▪ She suddenly burst/broke into song. [=began singing] ▪ The event was celebrated in song by a folk group.
3 [count, noncount] : a series of musical sounds that are produced by a bird or an animal (such as a whale) ▪ I could hear the song of a sparrow.
for a song chiefly US, informal : for a very small amount of money ▪ This old car can be bought/had for a song.

song and dance noun [singular]
1 : a performance that combines singing and dancing
2 US, informal + disapproving : a long story, explanation, or excuse that may not be true or directly related to what is being discussed — often + about ▪ When I asked him why the work wasn't finished, he gave me a long song and dance about some problem he's been having with his computer.
make a song and dance about (something) Brit, informal 1 : to cause a lot of excitement about (something) ▪ The film is nothing to make a song and dance about. 2 : to complain about (something) in a way that is excessive or unnecessary ▪ He was making a big song and dance about the new regulations.

song•bird /ˈsɑːŋˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count]
1 : a bird that produces a series of musical sounds : a bird that sings especially in an appealing way

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 132 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 chiefly US, somewhat old-fashioned : a female singer ▪ a talented songbird

song•book /ˈsɑːŋˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book that contains the music and words to songs song•fest /ˈsɑːŋˈfɛst/ noun, pl -fests [count] US : an informal gathering where people sing songs together song•ster /ˈsɑːŋstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a person who sings usually very well ▪ a Broadway songster

song•stress /ˈsɑːŋstrəs/ noun, pl -stress•es [count] : a woman who sings usually very well ▪ a jazz songstress

song•writ•er /ˈsɑːŋˌraɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who writes the words or music to songs ▪ an award-winning singer and songwriter — see also SINGER-SONGWRITER song•writ•ing /ˈsɑːŋˌraɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of writing the words or music to songs — often used before another noun ▪ a famous songwriting duo son•ic /ˈsɑːnɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to sound, sound waves, or the speed of sound ▪ sonic waves ▪ The concert was a sonic extravaganza. [=a very exciting and entertaining musical event]

sonic boom noun, pl ~ booms [count] : a very loud and explosive noise that is produced by an aircraft when it travels faster than the speed of sound son–in–law /ˈsʌnənˌlɑː/ noun, pl sons–in–law /ˈsʌnzənˌlɑː/ [count] : the husband of your daughter son•net /ˈsɑːnət/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a poem made up of 14 lines that rhyme in a fixed pattern son•ny /ˈsʌni/ noun, old-fashioned — used by an older person to address a younger man or a boy ▪ Watch your mouth, sonny.

son of a bitch noun, pl sons of bitches chiefly US, informal + impolite
1 [count] : a person (especially a man) who you strongly dislike or hate ▪ That son of a bitch insulted my family. ▪ He's a mean son of a bitch.
2 — used to express surprise, disappointment, anger, etc. ▪ Son of a bitch! You won! ▪ We've run out of gas? Son of a bitch!
3 [singular] : something that is very difficult or unpleasant ▪ The test turned out to be a real son of a bitch.

son of a gun noun, pl sons of guns US, informal
1 [count] : a person (especially a man) or thing that you are annoyed with ▪ That son of a gun never called me back. ▪ I had to bring the car to the shop. The son of a gun broke down again.
2 old-fashioned — used by a man to address a male friend ▪ How are you, you old son of a gun?
3 — used to express mild surprise, disappointment, etc. ▪ Son of a gun, I lost a button. ▪ Well, son of a gun, you made it!

sono•gram /ˈsɑːnəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] US, technical : a picture that is taken of the inside of something (such as a person's body) by using a special machine : ULTRASOUND ▪ The sonogram showed that the fetus was developing normally.

so•no•rous /ˈsɑːnərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a sound that is deep, loud, and pleasant ▪ He has a deep, sonorous voice.
– so•nor•i•ty /səˈnorəti/ noun, pl -ties [count, noncount] ▪ the sonority of the singer's voice – so•no•rous•ly adv ▪ He sang sonorously.

soon /ˈsuːn/ adv soon•er; -est
1 a : at a time that is not long from now ▪ We will soon be making changes. ▪ I'll see you soon. ▪ The soonest I can get there is tomorrow. ▪ When is the soonest possible date of delivery? ▪ We'll find out the answer soon enough. [=we'll find out the answer soon] ▪ We need to fix this problem sooner rather than later. [=we need to fix this problem soon] b : in a short time after something happens ▪ The audience soon realized that it wasn't a stunt. ▪ She found a job soon after graduation. ▪ Please give me a call as soon as you get there. [=give me a call immediately when you get there] ▪ I had no sooner walked through the door when the phone rang. = No sooner did I walk through the door than the phone rang. [=the phone rang immediately after I walked through the door] ▪ I told them we needed more copies. No sooner said than done. [=they immediately gave us more copies]
2 : in a quick way : QUICKLY ▪ How soon can you finish the job? ▪ The sooner you finish your homework, the sooner you can go outside and play. ▪ I will let you know as soon as possible. ▪ I'll get there as soon as I can. ▪ The sooner [=more quickly] we get the pipe fixed, the better. = We need to get the pipe fixed, the sooner the better.
sooner or later : at an unspecified time in the future : EVENTUALLY ▪ Sooner or later, we'll have to tell her the truth. ▪ The bus should be here sooner or later.
too soon : before the time that is proper, preferred, or specified ▪ I spoke too soon. ▪ It's too soon to tell what will happen. ▪ The show was over all too soon. ▪ The plumber arrived, and not a moment too soon. [=the plumber arrived just in time; if the plumber had arrived later, it would have been too late] would sooner or would just as soon — used to indicate what you want or prefer to do, have, etc. ▪ He would sooner [=would rather] lose everything than admit that he was wrong. ▪ We asked him to come with us, but he said he'd just as soon stay home.

soot /ˈsʊt/ noun [noncount] : a black powder that is formed when something (such as wood or coal) is burned
– sooty /ˈsuːti/ adj soot•i•er; -est ▪ the worker's sooty hands

soothe /ˈsuːð/ verb soothes; soothed; sooth•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to be calmer, less angry, etc. ▪ She played music to soothe [=comfort] the baby. ▪ The waiter tried to soothe the angry customer.
2 a : to cause (a part of the body) to feel better ▪ This cream soothes aching muscles. ▪ Her nerves were soothed by a warm bath. b : to cause (pain) to go away or become less severe ▪ Nothing can soothe their pain. — sometimes + away ▪ The massage soothed away my back pain.

soothing adj [more ~; most ~] : producing feelings of comfort or relief ▪ a soothing bath/cream/massage ▪ soothing words ▪ The music had a soothing effect on the baby.
– sooth•ing•ly adv ▪ She sang soothingly to the baby.

sooth•say•er /ˈsuːθˌseɪɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned : someone who makes predictions about what is going to happen in the future

[1]sop /ˈsɑːp/ noun, pl sops [count] disapproving : something that is done or given to someone in order to prevent trouble, gain support, etc. — usually singular ▪ Critics say that the proposed tax cut is just a sop to wealthy taxpayers. — see also MILKSOP

[2]sop verb sops; sopped; sop•ping sop up [phrasal verb] sop up (a liquid) or sop (a liquid) up : to remove (a liquid) from a surface by using soft paper, bread, etc. ▪ He sopped up the gravy with pieces of bread. ▪ The water was sopped up [=mopped up] with a mop.

soph. abbr sophomore

so•phis•ti•cate /səˈfɪstɪkət/ noun, pl -cates [count] formal : a person who has a lot of knowledge about the world and about culture, art, literature, etc. : a sophisticated person ▪ urban sophisticates

so•phis•ti•cat•ed /səˈfɪstəˌkeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : having or showing a lot of experience and knowledge about the world and about culture, art, literature, etc. ▪ She was a sophisticated and well-traveled woman. ▪ She has sophisticated tastes. b : attractive to fashionable or sophisticated people ▪ a swank and sophisticated restaurant
2 : highly developed and complex ▪ a sophisticated computer network ▪ sophisticated technologies ▪ Her knitting technique is more sophisticated than mine.
– so•phis•ti•cat•ed•ly adv – so•phis•ti•ca•tion /səˌfɪstəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ She is admired for her sophistication and sense of style. ▪ the growing sophistication of new technologies

soph•ist•ry /ˈsɑːfəstri/ noun, pl -ries formal 1 [noncount] : the use of reasoning or arguments that sound correct but are actually false
2 [count] : a reason or argument that sounds correct but is actually false

soph•o•more /ˈsɑːfˌmoɚ/ noun, pl -mores [count] US : a student in the second year of high school or college ▪ She's a sophomore in high school. — often used before another noun ▪ Their son is in his sophomore year in college. ▪ The team's quarterback improved during his sophomore season. — compare FRESHMAN, JUNIOR, SENIOR

soph•o•mor•ic /ˌsɑːfˈmorɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, disapproving : having or showing a lack of emotional maturity : foolish and immature ▪ a sophomoric joke ▪ His behavior at the party was sophomoric.

sop•o•rif•ic /ˌsɑːpəˈrɪfɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing a person to become tired and ready to fall asleep ▪ the soporific heat of summer ▪ a soporific drug – sopori c noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ a substance used as a soporific

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 133 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sop•ping /ˈsɑːpɪŋ/ adj, informal : completely or thoroughly wet ▪ His clothes were sopping from the rain. ▪ a sopping wet sponge sop•py /ˈsɑːpi/ adj sop•pi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 US : soaked through with water : very wet ▪ soppy towels
2 Brit, informal a : sad or romantic in a foolish or exaggerated way ▪ The radio played nothing but soppy [=(US) sappy] love songs. b : foolish or silly ▪ She gets all soppy [=(US) sappy] when she's around babies.

[1]so•pra•no /səˈprænoʊ, səˈprɑːnoʊ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : relating to the highest female singing voice or the highest voice part in a singing group ▪ the soprano tones
2 : having a high sound range ▪ a soprano saxophone

[2]soprano noun, pl -nos [count]
1 : the highest voice part in a singing group
2 : the highest female singing voice or a person with this voice ▪ She sings in a high soprano. ▪ an opera soprano
– compare ALTO, BASS, TENOR

sor•bet /soəˈbeɪ/ noun, pl -bets [count] : a frozen sweet dessert that is made usually from fruit or fruit juices ▪ a raspberry sorbet — called also (Brit) water ice

sor•cer•er /ˈsoəsərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who practices sorcery : a wizard or warlock

sor•cer•ess /ˈsoəsərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a woman who practices sorcery : WITCH

sor•cery /ˈsoəsəri/ noun [noncount] : the use of magical powers that are obtained through evil spirits : WITCHCRAFT

sor•did /ˈsoədəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : very bad or dishonest ▪ He shared the sordid details of his past. ▪ sordid business deals ▪ a sordid scandal/affair
2 : very dirty : FILTHY ▪ sordid living conditions

[1]sore /ˈsoə/ adj sor•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling or affected by pain : PAINFUL ▪ sore muscles ▪ Her back felt sore. ▪ After I fell I was sore [=achy] all over. ▪ a dog limping on a sore leg ▪ The patient has a sore throat.
2 always used before a noun : causing emotional pain or distress ▪ That's a sore subject to bring up. ▪ The discussion touched on a sore spot.
3 chiefly US, informal : angry or upset ▪ My neighbor is sore at me. ▪ Are you still sore about what happened last night? ▪ He's a sore loser. [=he becomes very upset or angry when he loses]
a sight for sore eyes see [1]SIGHT (like) a bear with a sore head see [1]BEAR stick/stand out like a sore thumb informal : to be very noticeable in usually a bad way ▪ I wasn't wearing the right clothes for the party, and I stuck out like a sore thumb.
– sore•ness noun [noncount] ▪ muscle soreness ▪ There will be some soreness after you get the injection.

[2]sore noun, pl sores [count] : a sore or painful spot on the body ▪ He has a sore on his lip. — see also BEDSORE, CANKER SORE, COLD SORE, EYESORE sore•head /ˈsoəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who easily becomes angry or upset ▪ Just because you lost, don't be a sorehead!

– sore•head•ed /ˈsoəˈhɛdəd/ adj ▪ a soreheaded loser sore•ly /ˈsoəli/ adv : very much : BADLY ▪ You will be sorely missed. ▪ She provided some sorely needed help. ▪ The house is sorely in need of paint. ▪ He is sorely lacking in social skills.

sor•ghum /ˈsoəgəm/ noun [noncount] : a kind of tropical grass that is grown for food; also : the grain that grows on this grass

so•ror•i•ty /səˈrorəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : an organization of female students at a U.S. college ▪ She wanted to pledge/join a sorority. — compare FRATERNITY

[1]sor•rel /ˈsorəl/ noun, pl -rels [count] : a reddish-brown horse ▪ a sorrel mare — compare [2]SORREL

[2]sorrel noun [noncount] : a plant that has sour juice and that is used in cooking — compare [1]SORREL

[1]sor•row /ˈsɑroʊ/ noun, pl -rows
1 [noncount] : a feeling of sadness or grief caused especially by the loss of someone or something ▪ I felt sorrow at/over the death of my friend. ▪ an expression of sorrow ▪ (chiefly Brit) He spoke more in sorrow than in anger. [=because of sadness or disappointment rather than anger]
2 [count] : a cause of grief or sadness ▪ a life filled with joys and sorrows ▪ She had a secret sorrow. ▪ He went to the bar to drown his sorrows. [=to forget about the things that were making him sad by getting drunk]

[2]sorrow verb -rows; -rowed; -row•ing [no obj] formal + literary : to feel or express sorrow ▪ a sorrowing mother, grieving over the death of her son

sor•row•ful /ˈsɑrəfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : feeling or showing sadness : full of sorrow ▪ a sorrowful young man ▪ a sorrowful goodbye ▪ sorrowful eyes ▪ Her expression was sorrowful.
– sor•row•ful•ly adv

sor•ry /ˈsɑri/ adj sor•ri•er; -est [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling sorrow or regret ▪ I'm sorry if I offended you. ▪ She was sorry to hear about their divorce. ▪ I'm sorry for your loss. ▪ I'm sorry for saying that. ▪ I'm sorry that I wasted your time. ▪ He felt sorry for her. [=he felt sympathy for her because she was in a bad situation] ▪ Stop feeling sorry for yourself. [=feeling pity for yourself] ▪ It's probably not necessary to check the figures again, but (it's) better (to be) safe than sorry. [=it is better to be careful now so that problems do not occur later on]
2 a — used to express polite regret ▪ Sorry, but I disagree. ▪ Sorry [=excuse me], I didn't mean to interrupt you. b — used to introduce disappointing or bad news in a polite way ▪ I'm sorry, but I couldn't find any information for you. ▪ Sorry, but it's too late to change our plans. c — used as an apology for a minor fault or offense (such as bumping into someone) ▪ Sorry. I didn't see you standing there. ▪ I forgot to pick up the dry cleaning. Sorry about that. [=I'm sorry; I apologize] d — used as a polite way of asking someone to repeat something spoken ▪ Sorry? [=Pardon?] I couldn't hear what you said. e — used to introduce a correction to what you have said or written ▪ (humorous) Any football nut—sorry, fan—will know what I mean.
3 always used before a noun a : very bad or poor ▪ What a sorry state of affairs we're in now. ▪ That's the sorriest excuse I've heard. b : causing feelings of disappointment or pity ▪ The sorry [=sad] truth is that he was right all along. ▪ I dragged my sorry [=pitiful] self out of bed.

[1]sort /ˈsoət/ noun, pl sorts
1 [count] : a group of people or things that have some shared quality : a particular kind or type of person or thing ▪ animals of various sorts ▪ What sort of car do you drive? ▪ Is this some sort of a joke? [=is this a joke?]
2 [singular] : a person of a particular type ▪ He's not a bad sort. ▪ She's not the sort to complain.
3 [count] technical : the act of separating things and putting them in a particular order : the act of sorting things ▪ The program did a numeric sort of the data.
all sorts of : a large number or variety of (things or people) : MANY ▪ The movie appeals to all sorts of people. ▪ They've been having all sorts of problems. [=they've been having a lot of problems] of sorts or of a sort : in some ways but not entirely or exactly ▪ It was a vacation of sorts. [=it was like a vacation in some ways, although it wasn't really a vacation] ▪ He's a poet of sorts. [=he writes some poetry but he is not really a poet] of the sort : like the person or thing mentioned ▪ "You said you didn't like him." "I said nothing of the sort." [=I didn't say that at all] ▪ I would like to go to a movie or a concert, or something of the sort. [=something like that] out of sorts 1 : somewhat angry or unhappy ▪ My boss is (feeling) out of sorts today. 2 : somewhat ill ▪ I don't know what's wrong with me, but I'm feeling a little out of sorts.
sort of informal : to some small degree : slightly or somewhat ▪ I feel sort of foolish. ▪ I think he sort of likes me. ▪ You look sort of like my cousin. ▪ "Did you enjoy the movie?" "Sort of." ▪ The walls were (painted) sort of blue. = The walls were (painted in) sort of a blue color.

[2]sort verb sorts; sort•ed; sort•ing [+ obj]
1 : to separate and put (people or things) in a particular order ▪ She started to sort the mail. ▪ They sorted the winners from the losers. ▪ The program can sort data alphabetically or numerically. — often + out ▪ He sorted out the socks by color. ▪ I finally sorted out the mess in the attic.
2 Brit, informal : to deal with (something or someone) in a successful way ▪ We need to get this problem sorted. [=sorted out] sort out [phrasal verb] 1 sort (something) out or sort out (something) a : to understand or find (something, such as a reason or a solution) by thinking ▪ I'm trying to sort out [=find out, figure out] a way to do it. b : to find an answer or solution for (something) ▪ He's still trying to sort out his problems. ▪ We need to get these problems sorted out as soon as possible. c ✧ If something sorts itself out, it stops being a problem without anyone having to do anything. ▪

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 134 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

They decided to wait until things sorted themselves out. 2 sort (someone) out or sort out (someone) a : to solve the problems of (someone) ▪ They're still trying to sort their son out. [=trying to sort out their son's problems] ▪ I just need a little more time to sort myself out. b Brit, informal : to deal with (someone who is causing problems) in a forceful way ▪ I told my brother they were bullying me, and he promised to sort them out (for me). — see also ²SORT 1 (above) sort through [phrasal verb] sort through (something) : to look at things and put them in a particular order especially while you are searching for something ▪ He sorted through the papers.

– sort•er noun, pl -ers [count]

sorta /ˈsoɚtə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase sort of when it is spoken quickly ▪ It's sorta cold out. ✧ The pronunciation represented by sorta is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when trying to represent or record such speech.

sor•tie /ˈsoɚti/ noun, pl -ties [count]
1 : a sudden attack in which a group of soldiers rush forward against an enemy
2 : a mission or attack by a single plane

sort–out noun [singular] Brit : an activity in which you make a room, closet, etc., neat and organized ▪ Let's have a sort-out of the attic.

SOS /ˌɛsˌoʊˈɛs/ noun [singular] : a signal used by ships and airplanes to call for help — often used figuratively ▪ The team sent out an SOS for a replacement player. ▪ The club has issued an SOS for volunteers. — compare MAYDAY

so–so /ˈsoʊˈsoʊ/ adj, informal : neither very good nor very bad : fair or average ▪ The reviews were only so-so. ▪ a so-so movie/performance ▪ The food was good, but the service was just so-so.

sot /ˈsɑːt/ noun, pl sots [count] old-fashioned : a person who is often drunk : DRUNKARD ▪ a pathetic old sot

sot•to vo•ce /ˌsɑːtoʊˈvoʊʧi/ adv
1 formal : in a very quiet voice ▪ He gave his opinion sotto voce.
2 music : very softly ▪ play the last part sotto voce
– sotto voce adj ▪ sotto voce comments

sou /ˈsuː/ noun [singular] chiefly Brit, informal : a small amount of money ▪ I'm not giving you anything. Not a sou.

soubriquet variant spelling of SOBRIQUET

souf• é /suˈfleɪ/ noun, pl - és : a food that is made with eggs, flour, and other ingredients (such as cheese, vegetables, fruit, or chocolate) and that is baked until its top rises and it becomes very light and fluffy [count] cheese soufflés [noncount] a serving of chocolate soufflé sought past tense and past participle of SEEK sought–after adj [more ~; most ~] : wanted by many people and hard to get or find ▪ sought-after antiques ▪ the most sought-after artists souk /ˈsuːk/ noun, pl souks [count] : a marketplace in North Africa or the Middle East soul /ˈsoʊl/ noun, pl souls

1 [count] a : the spiritual part of a person that is believed to give life to the body and in many religions is believed to live forever ▪ salvation of the human soul [=spirit] ▪ the souls of the dead b : a person's deeply felt moral and emotional nature ▪ He could not escape the guilt that he felt in the inner recesses of his soul.
2 [noncount] : the ability of a person to feel kindness and sympathy for others, to appreciate beauty and art, etc. ▪ She has no soul.
3 [count] : a human being : PERSON ▪ a brave/gentle/kind soul ▪ Some poor soul was asking for handouts on the street. ▪ There wasn't a soul in sight. [=there wasn't anyone in sight] ▪ He didn't tell a soul [=anyone] that he was leaving. ▪ a village of barely a hundred souls
4 [noncount] : a quality that gives emotional force and effectiveness to a performance, a work of art, etc. ▪ He's a skillful performer, but his music lacks soul.
5 [noncount] : SOUL MUSIC ▪ My favorite types of music are jazz and soul.
6 [singular] : a person who has a lot of a particular quality — + of ▪ He is the soul of integrity. [=he is a very honest person] ▪ I promise I'll be the soul of discretion. [=I'll be very discreet]
7 [singular] : the central or most important part of something that makes it effective, valuable, etc. — usually + of ▪ Honesty is the very soul of any good relationship. ▪ Our employees are the heart and soul of our company.

bless my soul see BLESS body and soul see BODY keep body and soul together see BODY pour your soul out see POUR sell your soul (to the devil) see ¹SELL soul brother noun, pl ~ -thers [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a black man or boy — called also brother soul–destroying adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a person to feel very unhappy or depressed ▪ the soul-destroying confinement of city life ▪ Rejection is soul-destroying.

soul food noun [noncount] : the type of food traditionally eaten by African-Americans in the southern U.S.

soul•ful /ˈsoʊlfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of or expressing feeling or emotion ▪ soulful music ▪ a soulful performer ▪ a handsome actor with soulful eyes – soul•ful•ly adv ▪ She sang soulfully. – soul•ful•ness noun [noncount]

soul•less /ˈsoʊlləs/ adj
1 : not having or showing any of the qualities and feelings (such as sympathy and kindness) that make people appealing ▪ a government run by soulless bureaucrats ▪ These companies are heartless, soulless, money-making machines.
2 : having or showing no special or interesting qualities ▪ The houses in the new development are completely soulless.
– soul•less•ly adv – soul•less•ness noun [noncount]

soul mate noun, pl ~ mates [count]
1 : a close friend who completely understands you ▪ a husband and wife who are perfect soul mates
2 : a person who has the same beliefs and opinons as another person ▪ They are ideological soul mates.

soul music noun [noncount] : a popular style of music expressing deep emotion that was created by African-Americans soul–search•ing /ˈsoʊlˌsəɚʧɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of thinking seriously about your feelings and beliefs in order to make a decision or to understand the reasons for your own behavior ▪ I decided to take the job after a lot of soul-searching.

¹sound /ˈsaʊnd/ noun, pl sounds
1 : something that is heard [count] the sound of footsteps/thunder ▪ the sounds of laughter ▪ I heard a loud, buzzing sound. [=noise] ▪ I didn't hear a sound. [=I didn't hear anything] ▪ They never made a sound. ▪ speech sounds [=the sounds people make when they speak words] ▪ the sound of "th" in "this" [noncount] devices used to record sound ▪ measuring the speed of sound [=the speed at which the vibrations that create sounds move through the air]
2 [noncount] : the speech, music, etc., that is heard as part of a broadcast, film, or recording ▪ The film was good, but the sound was poor. ▪ digital sound ▪ "Can you turn up the sound? [=volume] I can't hear what they're saying."
3 [count] : the particular musical style of an individual, a group, or an area — usually singular ▪ the Nashville sound ▪ I like the band's sound.
4 [noncount] : the idea that is suggested when something is said or described ▪ "The doctor says my case is unusual." "I don't like the sound of that." [=I don't like the way that sounds; that sounds bad/serious] ▪ By/from the sound of it, you may have poison ivy.

sound and fury : loud and angry words that attract a lot of attention but do nothing useful ▪ The town meeting created lots of sound and fury, but no resolution.

– compare ⁵SOUND

²sound verb sounds; sound•ed; sound•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to make a sound or be heard ▪ sound a trumpet ▪ sound a horn/buzzer — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He sounded a confident note [=he expressed confidence] when he talked about the company's future plans. b [+ obj] : to make (something) known by making a sound ▪ They sounded the alarm. ▪ The clock sounded noon. c [no obj] : to make a sound ▪ The game was over when the buzzer sounded. ▪ A ringing noise kept sounding in his ears.
2 [linking verb] : to seem to be something when heard ▪ You sound tired. You should get some rest. : to seem to be something when heard about ▪ Their plan sounds good to me. ▪ Her story sounds false. ▪ It sounded too good to be true. ▪ I'll plan to pick you up at noon. How does that sound? [=do you think that is a good/acceptable plan?] ▪ His new job sounds exciting. ▪ A picnic sounds lovely. — often used in the phrases sound as if, sound as though, and sound like ▪ It sounds to me as if they won't be coming. ▪ The movie sounds as though it might be good. [=the things I have heard about the movie suggest that it might be good] ▪ It sounds like the weather may be bad tomorrow. [=I have heard that the weather may be bad tomorrow] ▪ You sound like you're tired. ▪ That sounds like a good idea. = (Brit) That sounds a good idea. — see also SOUND LIKE (below)

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 135 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

3 [+ obj] : to make the sound of (a word or letter) with your voice : PRONOUNCE ▪ He sounded each syllable clearly. ▪ The "k" in "know" is not sounded.

sound like 1 : to have a voice that is like the voice of (someone else) ▪ I knew he must be your brother. He sounds just like you. 2 : to say something that is like what is commonly said by (someone else) ▪ You sound just like your mother when you say that.

sound off [phrasal verb] 1 : to say your opinions in a very direct and often angry way ▪ She sounded off about the unequal pay raises. 2 US : to count out loud the steps you take while marching ▪ The troops were sounding off during their exercises.

– compare [6]SOUND

[3]sound adj sound•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : in good condition : solid and strong ▪ a building of sound construction ▪ The bridge is structurally sound. b : in good health : HEALTHY ▪ a sound mind in a sound body ▪ The tests show that his heart is sound. ▪ My health is sound. [=I am healthy] ▪ (law) He was found to be of sound mind [=sane] when he committed the murder.

2 : free from mistakes : showing good judgment ▪ a sound argument ▪ She used sound reasoning in making the decision. ▪ She gave us some sound advice. ▪ a sound investment

3 always used before a noun : complete or thorough ▪ She has a sound understanding of the system's structure. ▪ The stock market has made a sound recovery. ▪ They gave us a sound beating in yesterday's game. [=they beat/defeated us easily by a large amount]

4 of sleep : deep and restful ▪ She fell into a sound sleep. ▪ I was never a sound sleeper. [=someone who sleeps deeply]

(as) sound as a bell informal : in excellent condition ▪ There's nothing wrong with your health. You're as sound as a bell. ▪ The car's engine is as sound as a bell.

– sound•ly /ˈsaʊndli/ adv ▪ I slept more soundly last night than I have in a while. ▪ an argument soundly based on logic ▪ We were soundly beaten/defeated in yesterday's game.

– sound•ness /ˈsaʊndnəs/ noun [noncount]

[4]sound adv, of sleep : deeply and completely ▪ He was sound asleep. ▪ She slept sound. [=(more commonly) soundly]

[5]sound noun, pl sounds [count] : a long and narrow area of water that connects two larger areas — often used in names ▪ Long Island Sound — compare [1]SOUND

[6]sound verb sounds; sounded; sounding [+ obj] technical : to measure the depth of the water in a lake, ocean, etc.

sound out [phrasal verb] sound (someone or something) out or sound out (someone or something) : to try to find out the opinions of someone by asking questions ▪ They sounded me out on the idea. [=they asked me what I thought about the idea] ▪ polls that sound out public opinion

– compare [2]SOUND

sound barrier noun

the sound barrier : the large increase in air resistance that occurs as an aircraft nears the speed of sound ▪ a plane that is able to break the sound barrier [=to travel faster than the speed of sound] sound bite noun, pl ~ bites [count] : a short recorded statement that is broadcast on a television or radio news program ▪ His campaign relies on catchy sound bites.

sound card noun, pl ~ cards [count] computers : a device in a computer system designed to produce or reproduce sound sound•ing /ˈsaʊndɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]

1 : a measurement of the depth of water ▪ The sailors were taking soundings as the ship approached the coast.

2 : something that is done to find out what people think about something — usually plural ▪ They took soundings on his chances of winning. [=they talked to and questioned people about his chances of winning] sounding board noun, pl ~ boards [count] : a person or group with whom you discuss ideas to see if the ideas are good ▪ My friend is my sounding board for new ideas.

sound•less /ˈsaʊndləs/ adj : making no sound : SILENT ▪ Her footsteps were soundless. ▪ the almost soundless approach of the boat – sound•less•ly adv ▪ The cat moved soundlessly through the room.

[1]sound•proof /ˈsaʊndˌpru:f/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not allowing sound to enter or leave ▪ a soundproof room/studio ▪ soundproof walls

[2]soundproof verb -proofs; -proofed; -proof•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) soundproof ▪ soundproof a room ▪ The studio is soundproofed.

sound system noun, pl ~ -tems [count] : equipment that is used to play music through speakers sound•track /ˈsaʊndˌtræk/ noun, pl -tracks [count] : the sounds and especially the music recorded for a movie ▪ The movie's soundtrack is now available on CD.

sound wave noun, pl ~ waves [count] : a wave that is formed when a sound is made and that moves through the air and carries the sound to your ear

[1]soup /ˈsu:p/ noun, pl soups : a food made by cooking vegetables, meat, or fish in a large amount of liquid [count] a delicious chicken soup [noncount] a bowl of soup ▪ a soup spoon — see also PEA SOUP

in the soup informal + old-fashioned : in a bad situation : in trouble ▪ That stunt landed her in the soup.

soup to nuts US, informal 1 : covering every detail or part of something ▪ The book provides a soup to nuts look at the current political scene. 2 *from soup to nuts : in every detail or part ▪ The entire procedure from soup to nuts is changing.

[2]soup verb soups; souped; soup•ing

soup up [phrasal verb] soup (something) up or soup up (something) informal : to increase the power of (something, such as an engine) ▪ soup up a car's engine ▪ His hobby was souping up older cars. — see also SOUPED-UP soup•çon /ˈsu:pˌsɑ:n/ noun, pl -çons [count] : a small amount of something : TRACE ▪ Add just a soupçon of salt.

souped–up /ˈsu:ptˈʌp/ adj : made greater in power or appeal ▪ souped-up cars ▪ My computer is a souped-up version of the standard machines. — see also soup up at [2]SOUP soup kitchen noun, pl ~ -chens [count] : a place that gives food (such as soup and bread) to poor people

soupy /ˈsu:pi/ adj soup•i•er; -est

1 : resembling soup ▪ The gravy/sauce was too soupy.

2 informal : very foggy or cloudy ▪ soupy weather

[1]sour /ˈsawɚ/ adj sour•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having an acid taste that is like the taste of a lemon : TART ▪ sour pickles ▪ a sour apple ▪ a slightly sour taste — see also SWEET-AND-SOUR

2 : having the unpleasant taste or smell of food that is no longer fresh ▪ The milk had turned/gone sour. ▪ The cream smells sour. ▪ a sour odor ▪ sour [=bad] breath

3 : unpleasant or unfriendly ▪ a sour, cynical person ▪ He made a sour face. ▪ Their relationship ended on a sour note. [=ended unpleasantly]

4 informal : bad or wrong ▪ Their relationship had turned/gone sour. ▪ All their investments went sour.

sour on informal : having a bad opinion of (something) ▪ She was sour on politics in general.

– sour•ly adv ▪ She noted sourly that something was wrong.

– sour•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The dish gets its sourness from lemons.

[2]sour noun, pl sours [count] : an alcoholic drink that has a sour taste ▪ a whiskey sour

[3]sour verb sours; soured; sour•ing

1 [no obj] of food : to lose freshness and get an unpleasant taste or smell : to become sour ▪ The milk soured quickly.

2 a [no obj] : to become unpleasant or unfriendly ▪ Her disposition has soured in recent years. ▪ Their friendship has soured. [=they are no longer friends] b [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) unpleasant or unfriendly ▪ Jealousy has soured their relationship. ▪ His experiences have soured him.

3 [+ obj] : to make (something good) less pleasant or enjoyable ▪ The team's victory was soured by an injury to one of their best players.

sour on [phrasal verb] sour on (something) or sour (someone) on (something) US : to stop liking or being interested in (something) or to cause (someone) to stop liking or being interested in (something) ▪ Investors have soured on (buying) the company's stock. ▪ Many fans have soured on the team after years of losing. ▪ The disappointing result of the election soured her on politics.

source /ˈsoɚs/ noun, pl sourc•es [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 136 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : someone or something that provides what is wanted or needed ▪ The college had its own power source. ▪ a water source = a source of water ▪ She has been a great source of strength to me. ▪ His job is the family's main source of income.
2 : the cause of something (such as a problem) — usually + of ▪ The delays are a source of concern. ▪ The team's bad play has been a source of disappointment.
3 : a person, book, etc., that gives information ▪ A government source spoke to the press today. ▪ The reporter has refused to reveal his sources. ▪ According to one source, the program will not cost a lot. ▪ information from various intelligence sources ▪ print sources ▪ a reference source
4 : the beginning of a stream or river of water ▪ the source of the Nile

sour cream noun [noncount] : a thick cream that has a sour flavor ▪ He put sour cream on his baked potato. — called also (Brit) soured cream

sour•dough /ˈsawəˌdoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a type of dough that is allowed to ferment before it is baked and that has a slightly sour taste ▪ sourdough bread sour grapes noun [plural] informal : unfair criticism that comes from someone who is disappointed about not getting something ▪ His remarks are nothing but sour grapes.

sour•puss /ˈsawəˌpʊs/ noun, pl -puss•es [count] informal : a person who complains frequently or constantly and looks unhappy ▪ He's just an old sourpuss.

soused /ˈsaʊst/ adj
1 : completely covered by a liquid ▪ cucumbers soused in vinegar
2 informal : very drunk ▪ He sat at the bar quietly getting soused.

[1]south /ˈsaʊθ/ noun
1 [noncount] : the direction that is to your right when you are facing the rising sun : the direction that is the opposite of north ▪ The nearest town is 20 miles to the south (of here). ▪ The wind blew from the south. ▪ Which way is south?
2 the south or the South : regions or countries south of a certain point ▪ The birds migrate from the South.; especially : the southern part of the U.S. ▪ Parts of the South were hit hard by the storm. ▪ I grew up in the South. ▪ The American Civil War was between the North and the South.

[2]south adj
1 : located in or toward the south ▪ the south entrance ▪ South America
2 : coming from the south ▪ a south wind

[3]south adv
1 : to or toward the south ▪ Turn south onto Elm Street. ▪ It's a mile south of here. ▪ The birds fly/go south in the winter.
2 US, informal : into a worse state or condition ▪ The company's profits have gone south in recent months. ▪ The TV show's ratings have been heading south.
down south informal : in or to the southern part of a country or region ▪ She spent a few years down south. ▪ We'll be heading down south for the winter. — compare up north at [3]NORTH south•bound /ˈsaʊθˌbaʊnd/ adj : going or heading south ▪ a southbound train ▪ The southbound lanes are closed to traffic.

[1]south•east /saʊθˈiːst/ noun
1 [noncount] : the direction between south and east
2 the southeast or the Southeast : the southeastern part of a country or region ▪ A mountain range is in the southeast of the country.; especially : the southeastern part of the U.S. ▪ Rain is moving into the Southeast. ▪ He grew up in the Southeast.

[2]southeast adj
1 : located in or toward the southeast ▪ southeast Europe ▪ My office is in the southeast corner of the building.
2 : coming from the southeast ▪ a southeast wind

[3]south•east adv : to or toward the southeast ▪ It's a few miles southeast of here. ▪ We headed southeast.

south•east•er /saʊθˈiːstə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a strong wind that blows from the southeast
2 : a storm with winds that blow from the southeast

south•east•er•ly /saʊθˈiːstəli/ adj
1 : located in or moving toward the southeast ▪ They sailed in a southeasterly direction.
2 : blowing from the southeast ▪ southeasterly winds south•east•ern /saʊθˈiːstən/ adj

1 : located in or toward the southeast ▪ the southeastern corner of the state
2 : of or relating to the southeast ▪ a southeastern bird south•east•ern•er or South•east•ern•er /saʊθˈiːstənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born, raised, or living in the southeast; especially : a person born, raised, or living in the southeastern U.S.

south•east•ward /saʊθˈiːstwəd/ also chiefly Brit south•east•wards /saʊθˈiːstwədz/ adv : toward the southeast ▪ The storm is moving southeastward.
– southeastward adj ▪ The storm followed a southeastward course.

south•er•ly /ˈsʌðəli/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : located in or moving toward the south ▪ southerly latitudes ▪ We sailed in a southerly direction.
2 : blowing from the south ▪ a southerly wind – southerly adv ▪ We sailed southerly around the island. ▪ The storm is headed southerly.

south•ern /ˈsʌðən/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : located in or toward the south ▪ southern U.S. ▪ the southern part of the state ▪ the southern shore of the lake
2 a : of or relating to the south ▪ a southern species ▪ southern cities b *Southern : of or relating to the people born, raised, or living in the southeastern U.S. ▪ a Southern accent ▪ Southern hospitality/cooking south•ern•er or South•ern•er /ˈsʌðənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born, raised, or living in the south; especially : a person born, raised, or living in the southern U.S. — compare NORTHERNER

Southern Lights noun
the Southern Lights : large areas of green, red, blue, or yellow light that sometimes appear in the night sky in far southern regions — called also aurora australis

south•ern•most /ˈsʌðənˌmoʊst/ adj : furthest to the south ▪ the southernmost tip of the island south•paw /ˈsaʊθˌpɑː/ noun, pl -paws [count] informal : someone who is left-handed; especially : a left-handed baseball pitcher or boxer

South Pole noun
the South Pole : the most southern point on the surface of the earth south•ward /ˈsaʊθwəd/ also chiefly Brit south•wards /ˈsaʊθwədz/ adv : toward the south ▪ birds flying southward

– southward adj ▪ a southward course/expansion

[1]south•west /saʊθˈwɛst/ noun
1 [noncount] : the direction between south and west
2 the southwest or the Southwest : the southwestern part of a country or region ▪ A mountain range is in the southwest of the country.; especially : the southwestern part of the U.S. ▪ These plants grow in the Southwest.

[2]southwest adj
1 : located in the southwest ▪ the southwest corner of the building ▪ southwest France
2 : blowing from the southwest ▪ a southwest wind

[3]southwest adv : to or toward the southwest ▪ It's about 80 miles southwest of here. ▪ traveling southwest

south•west•er•ly /saʊθˈwɛstəli/ adj
1 : located in or moving toward the southwest ▪ The storm is headed in a southwesterly direction.
2 : blowing from the southwest ▪ a southwesterly wind – southwesterly adv ▪ We sailed southwesterly.

south•west•ern /saʊθˈwɛstən/ adj
1 : in, toward, or from the southwest ▪ southwestern Arizona ▪ the southwestern border
2 : of or relating to the southwest ▪ a southwestern bird south•west•ern•er or South•west•ern•er /saʊθˈwɛstənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born, raised, or living in the southwest; especially : a person born, raised, or living in the southwestern U.S.

south•west•ward /saʊθˈwɛstwəd/ also chiefly Brit south•west•wards /saʊθˈwɛstwədz/ adv : toward the southwest ▪ The storm is moving southwestward.
– southwestward adj ▪ The storm will follow a southwestward course.

sou•ve•nir /ˌsuːvəˈniə/ noun, pl -nirs [count] : something that is kept as a reminder of a place you have visited, an event you have been to, etc. ▪ When I went to the Super Bowl, I kept my ticket stub as a souvenir. ▪ a souvenir shop [=a shop that sells souvenirs] — often + of ▪ This coffee mug is a souvenir of our trip to Hawaii.

sou'•west•er /saʊˈwɛstə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a hat that is worn when it rains and that is longer in the

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 137 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

back than in the front and ties under the chin
2 : a long coat worn by sailors that keeps them dry during stormy weather

[1]sov•er•eign /ˈsɑːvrən/ noun, pl -eigns [count]
1 formal : a king or queen ▪ a Spanish sovereign
2 : a British gold coin that was used in the past

[2]sovereign adj, formal
1 a : having unlimited power or authority ▪ a sovereign prince b : not limited ▪ the sovereign power of a king
2 : having independent authority and the right to govern itself ▪ a sovereign state/nation
3 US : highest and most important ▪ The government's sovereign duty is to protect the rights of its citizens.

sov•er•eign•ty /ˈsɑːvrənti/ noun [noncount]
1 : unlimited power over a country — often + over ▪ He claimed sovereignty over the nation.
2 : a country's independent authority and the right to govern itself ▪ national sovereignty ▪ a claim of/to sovereignty

so•vi•et /ˈsoʊviˌɛt/ noun, pl -ets
1 [count] : an elected council in the former U.S.S.R.
2 Soviets [plural] chiefly US : the people and especially the political and military leaders of the former U.S.S.R. ▪ disputes between Americans and Soviets ▪ The plan was opposed by the Soviets.

Soviet adj : of or relating to the former U.S.S.R. or its people ▪ the Soviet government

[1]sow /ˈsoʊ/ verb sows; sowed; sown /ˈsoʊn/ or sowed; sow•ing
1 : to plant seeds in an area of ground [+ obj] Every year we sow corn. ▪ Farmers sowed the fields with corn. [no obj] We'll sow in the early spring.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (fear, doubt, etc.) to affect many people ▪ Threats of war have sown fear in the region. [=have made many people in the region afraid] ▪ They have been deliberately attempting to sow discord. [=to cause people to disagree and argue with each other] reap what you sow see REAP sow the seeds of : to create a situation in which (something) is likely or certain to happen or develop ▪ Opponents have succeeded in sowing the seeds of suspicion/doubt. [=have succeeded in making people have suspicions/doubts] ▪ They have sowed the seeds of their own destruction. [=they have done something that will lead to their own destruction] sow your (wild) oats : to have many sexual relationships particularly when you are young ▪ He sowed his wild oats in his younger years, but he's married now and has a family.
– sow•er /ˈsoʊɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]sow /ˈsaʊ/ noun, pl sows [count] : a fully grown female pig

soy /ˈsoɪ/ noun [noncount] US
1 : soybeans and the food products that are made from soybeans ▪ His book promotes the health benefits of soy. — often used before another noun ▪ soy flour ▪ soy milk [=a drink that resembles cow's milk but that is made from soybeans]
2 : SOY SAUCE ▪ The recipe calls for two tablespoons of soy.

soya /ˈsojə/ noun [noncount] Brit : soybeans and the food products that are made from soybeans : SOY soy•bean /ˈsoɪˌbiːn/ noun, pl -beans [count] US : the bean of an Asian plant that contains a large amount of protein and that is used as a food — called also (Brit) soya bean

soy sauce noun [noncount] : a brown sauce that is made from soybeans and used especially in Chinese and Japanese cooking — called also (Brit) soya sauce soz•zled /ˈsɑːzəld/ adj, slang : very drunk ▪ He got sozzled at the party last night.

spa /ˈspɑː/ noun, pl spas [count]
1 a : a place where water that has many minerals in it comes up naturally from the ground and where people go to improve their health by swimming in, bathing in, or drinking the water b : a place where people go to improve their health and appearance by exercising, relaxing, etc. — called also health spa, (chiefly Brit) health farm
2 US : a bathtub in which a pump causes hot water and air bubbles to move around your body ▪ Their property includes a swimming pool and spa.

[1]space /ˈspeɪs/ noun, pl spac•es
1 a [noncount] : the amount of an area, room, surface, etc., that is empty or available for use ▪ There's still some space for a bookshelf. ▪ the space behind/above/near the couch ▪ Is there space in the cabinet for these dishes? ▪ There's not much empty/clear space. ▪ He moved the books to create more space on his desk. ▪ Those old boxes take up a lot of space. ▪ There should be plenty of space [=room] on the disk to save the files. — see also a waste of space at [1]WASTE b : an area that is used or available for a specific purpose [count] a parking space ▪ She needs a space [=place] where she can do her homework. [noncount] floor space ▪ storage space ▪ The magazine devotes a lot of space to advertising.
2 a : an empty area between things [count] She has a space between her front teeth. [noncount] There isn't much space between our houses. ▪ Is there enough space [=room] for me to park there? b : an area of land with no buildings on it [plural] the wide open spaces of the western U.S. [noncount] They live in an area where there's a lot of open space.
3 [noncount] : the region beyond the Earth's atmosphere in which there are stars and planets : OUTER SPACE ▪ sent the satellite into space — often used before another noun ▪ space exploration/travel ▪ the space program [=the program devoted to exploring space]
4 [noncount] : the limitless area in which all things exist and move ▪ the movement of sound waves through space ▪ exploring the relationship between time and space
5 [count] : a period of time — usually singular ▪ a short space of time [=a short time] ▪ They finished in/within the space of an hour. [=within an hour]
6 a : a blank area separating written or printed words or lines [count] There should be a space after the comma. [noncount] Let's leave more space between the paragraphs. b : a blank part or section on a document where something can be written [count] There's a space for your name and address. [noncount] There is space at the bottom for your name and address.
7 [noncount] a : the freedom and time to behave and think as you want to without being controlled or influenced by someone else ▪ I need more space in our relationship. b : PERSONAL SPACE ▪ You're invading my space. [=you're too close to me]
8 [count] : an available seat on a bus, train, etc. ▪ There are no spaces left on the bus.
stare/gaze (off) into space : to look straight ahead without looking at anything specific ▪ He wouldn't even look at me. He just sat there, staring into space.

[2]space verb spaces; spaced; spac•ing [+ obj]
1 : to place or arrange (things) so that there is a particular amount of space between them ▪ widely/closely spaced posts ▪ Space the seedlings about six inches apart. — often + out ▪ Try to space out the poles evenly.
2 : to separate (things) by particular periods of time ▪ He spaces his albums so that he puts one out every two to three years. ▪ They spaced the births of their three children two years apart. — often + out ▪ They spaced out the births of their three children.
space out [phrasal verb] informal : to stop paying attention : to become unaware of what is happening around you ▪ I spaced out for a minute and didn't hear what she said. ▪ I spaced out halfway through the lecture.

space–age /ˈspeɪsˈeɪʤ/ adj, informal : very modern ▪ a space-age machine/design space bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] : the wide key at the bottom of a computer keyboard or typewriter that is used to make a space space cadet noun, pl ~ -dets [count] informal : a person who does not pay attention or who tends to forget things ▪ Don't be such a space cadet.

space•craft /ˈspeɪsˌkræft, Brit ˈspeɪsˌkrɑːft/ noun, pl spacecraft [count] : a vehicle that is used for travel in outer space spaced /ˈspeɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : SPACED OUT ▪ He was too spaced on drugs to know what he was doing.

spaced out adj, informal : unable to think clearly or to pay attention to what is going on around you ▪ He looked like he was spaced out on drugs. ▪ I was tired and feeling pretty spaced out. ▪ She had a spaced out look on her face.

space• ight /ˈspeɪsˌflaɪt/ noun, pl - ights : flight into outer space in a spacecraft [count] the first manned spaceflight [noncount] a history of human spaceflight space heater noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a small device that is used for heating a room

space•man /ˈspeɪsˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count]
1 informal : a person (especially a man) who travels in a spacecraft into outer space : ASTRONAUT
2 in stories : a visitor to Earth from outer space ▪ spacemen from Mars

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 138 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

space probe noun, pl ~ probes [count] : a device that is used to obtain information from outer space and send it back to Earth

space•ship /'speɪs,ʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : SPACECRAFT

space shuttle noun, pl ~ shuttles [count] : a spacecraft that can be used more than once and that carries people into outer space and back to Earth space station noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a large spacecraft in which people live for long periods of time in order to do research and experiments space suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] : a special suit that is designed to keep astronauts alive in outer space

space walk noun, pl ~ walks [count] : an activity in which an astronaut moves around and does work outside a spacecraft while it is in outer space

spac•ey /'speɪsi/ adj spac•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : SPACED OUT ▪ I'm a little spacey today.

spac•ing /'speɪsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the amount of space between letters, words, or lines on a printed page ▪ The spacing between characters should be even.

spa•cious /'speɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a large amount of space ▪ a spacious room/office/house ▪ The dining room is spacious [=roomy] enough to seat our whole family and several guests.
– spa•cious•ly adv ▪ a spaciously arranged room – spa•cious•ness noun [noncount]

spade /'speɪd/ noun, pl spades
1 [count] : a tool with a heavy metal blade attached to a handle that is used for digging — see picture at GARDENING
2 [count] : a playing card that is marked with a black shape that looks like a pointed leaf ▪ two hearts, one club, and three spades — see picture at PLAYING CARD
3 spades [plural] : the suit in a deck of playing cards that consists of spades ▪ the queen of spades call a spade a spade : to speak in an honest and direct way ▪ Why don't you just call a spade a spade and say that he's a liar?
in spades : to a great degree : in large amounts ▪ We've been having problems in spades. ▪ His hard work and dedication were rewarded in spades.

spade•work /'speɪd,wɚk/ noun [noncount] : difficult work that is done especially to prepare for something ▪ She had her assistants do the spadework in preparation for the trial.

spa•ghet•ti /spə'gɛti/ noun [noncount] : pasta in the shape of long, thin strings — see picture at PASTA

spaghetti strap noun, pl ~ straps [count] : a very thin piece of material that is worn over the shoulder and that holds up a piece of clothing (such as a dress) — see color picture on page C15 spaghetti western noun, pl ~ -erns [count] : a movie about the old American West that is produced in Italy ▪ I'm a fan of spaghetti westerns of the 1960s.

spake /'speɪk/ archaic past tense of SPEAK

[1]spam /'spæm/ noun [noncount] informal : e-mail that is not wanted : e-mail that is sent to large numbers of people and that consists mostly of advertising ▪ tips to reduce spam ▪ a spam filter [=software that identifies and blocks spam]

[2]spam verb spams; spammed; spam•ming [+ obj] : to send unwanted e-mail to (someone) ▪ That company keeps spamming me. [=keeps sending me spam]
– spam•mer noun, pl -mers [count]

Spam /'spæm/ trademark — used for a type of meat that is sold in cans

[1]span /'spæn/ noun, pl spans [count]
1 : the period of time between two dates or events ▪ a 25-year span ▪ a brief time span — often + of ▪ a brief span of time ▪ The symphonies were composed over a span of eight years. ▪ I received two job offers within the span of a week. — see also ATTENTION SPAN, LIFE SPAN
2 : the part of a bridge or other structure that goes across a space from one support to another
3 : the width of something from one side to the other — often + of ▪ the span of his shoulders ▪ It's a span of a few hundred miles to cross the state. — see also WINGSPAN
– see also SPIC-AND-SPAN

[2]span verb spans; spanned; span•ning [+ obj]
1 : to continue throughout (a period of time) ▪ His career as a singer spanned three decades.
2 : to cover or include (a wide area, a large number of things, etc.) ▪ Their empire once spanned several continents. ▪ Her academic interests span a wide variety of topics.
3 : to cross over (something) ▪ A bridge spans the river.

span•dex /'spæn,dɛks/ noun [noncount] : a material that stretches easily and is used especially to make sports clothing; also : clothing made of this material

[1]span•gle /'spæŋgəl/ verb span•gles; span•gled; span•gling [+ obj] : to decorate or cover (something) with many small, shiny objects — usually used as (be) spangled ▪ spangled pants/gloves — often used figuratively ▪ a night sky spangled with stars

[2]spangle noun, pl spangles [count] : a small, shiny piece of metal or plastic that is used to decorate clothing ▪ showgirls dressed in costumes with gold spangles

Span•glish /'spæŋglɪʃ/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : Spanish that includes the use of English words

Span•iard /'spænjəd/ noun, pl -iards [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Spain : a Spanish person

span•iel /'spænjəl/ noun, pl -iels [count] : a type of small dog that has long ears and a soft coat

Span•ish /'spænɪʃ/ noun
1 [noncount] : the language of Spain, Mexico, and many countries in Latin America
2 the Spanish : the people of Spain : Spanish people – Spanish adj ▪ Spanish art/cooking/culture/territories ▪ She has a Spanish accent.

Spanish American noun, pl ~ -cans [count] : a person living in the U.S. whose native language is Spanish
– Spanish–American adj ▪ Spanish-American culture

Spanish moss noun [noncount] : a type of American plant that has long gray strands and that hangs down from the branches of trees

Spanish rice noun [noncount] US : rice cooked with onions, green peppers, and tomatoes spank /'spæŋk/ verb spanks; spanked; spank•ing [+ obj] : to hit (someone) on the buttocks with your hand as a form of punishment ▪ Parents shouldn't spank their children.

– spanking noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ If you don't stop jumping on the couch, you're going to get a spanking. [=get spanked] ▪ She gave him a spanking. [=spanked him] spank•ing /'spæŋkɪŋ/ adv, informal : VERY ▪ spanking new [=brand-new] sneakers ▪ He keeps his apartment spanking clean.

span•ner /'spænɚ/ noun, pl -ners [count] Brit : [1]WRENCH 1 put/throw a spanner in the works informal : to cause something to not go as planned ▪ We were ready to start the project when the bank threw a spanner in the works by denying the loan.

[1]spar /'spɑɚ/ verb spars; sparred; spar•ring [no obj]
1 : to box with someone as a form of training or practice ▪ He's been sparring with his trainer.
2 : to argue with someone in a friendly way ▪ They sparred playfully over whose team was better. — see also SPARRING PARTNER

[2]spar noun, pl spars [count] : a thick pole or similar structure that supports something (such as the sails of a ship or the wing of an aircraft)

[1]spare /'speɚ/ adj spar•er; spar•est
1 always used before a noun a : kept as something extra that can be used if it is needed ▪ a spare pair of gloves ▪ spare parts ▪ I keep a spare set of keys in my desk. ▪ a spare bedroom [=an extra bedroom where guests can sleep] — see also SPARE TIRE b : available to be used in whatever way you want ▪ He likes to ski in his spare time. [=his free time; the time when he is not working] c : not needed by you and available to be shared or given to someone else ▪ Do you have any spare cash/change? [=any extra cash/change that you could give to me]
2 : somewhat thin ▪ He has a spare frame. ▪ He was tall and spare.
3 : simple or plain ▪ I like her spare style of writing.
going spare Brit, informal : not being used : available for someone to use ▪ land that is going spare go spare Brit, informal : to become very angry or upset ▪ My dad went spare when he found out what I'd done.
– spare•ly adv ▪ a sparely decorated room – spare•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the spareness of her writing

[2]spare verb spares; spared; spar•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to choose not to punish or harm (someone) ▪ No one knows why the gunman shot some people and spared others. ▪ No one knows why he spared their lives. [=why he didn't kill them] b : to not destroy or harm (something) ▪ Somehow the storm spared our house while nearby buildings were destroyed.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 139 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : to prevent (someone or something) from experiencing or being affected by something unpleasant, harmful, etc. ▪ She was spared from having to answer any more questions. ▪ He wanted to spare his family from the stress he had endured. ▪ Our church was spared the fate of many others that have been closed. [=our church was not closed] ▪ I could have spared myself the trouble. ▪ He spared them the embarrassment of a public apology.
3 : to give (something, such as time, money, etc.) to someone ▪ Can you spare (me) a few minutes? [=can you spend a few minutes with me?] ▪ I can't spare the time to see you today. [=I don't have enough time to see you today] ▪ If you could spare a cup of sugar, it would save me a trip to the store. ▪ You should spare a thought for [=think about] those who are less fortunate than you.
4 : to not do or provide (something) ▪ Nothing was spared by the hotel [=the hotel provided everything possible] to make its guests relaxed and comfortable. ▪ We will spare no effort [=we will do everything we can] to ensure the safety of the tunnels. ▪ When they go on vacation, they spare no expense. [=they do not worry about spending too much money; they spend a lot of money] ▪ He said that he would spare no expense [=he would spend as much money as necessary] to make the restaurant successful.
5 : to use or give out (something) in small amounts — usually used in negative statements ▪ More pancakes, please, and don't spare the syrup. [=give me a lot of syrup] spare someone's blushes Brit, informal : to prevent someone from being embarrassed ▪ The manager spoke up to spare the blushes of his young employee.
spare someone's feelings : to avoid doing or saying something that will hurt someone emotionally : to avoid upsetting someone ▪ He admitted that he hadn't told me the whole story because he wanted to spare my feelings.
spare (someone) the details : to not tell someone all the unpleasant or boring details about something ▪ "I drank too much last night and got sick." "Please, spare me the details."
to spare ✧ If you have money, time, energy, etc., to spare, you have more than enough money, time, energy, etc. ▪ He seems to have energy to spare. [=he seems to have a lot of energy] ▪ We have very little time to spare. [=we do not have a lot of time] ▪ I have no money to spare [=I do not have enough money] for such things. ▪ He got there with (only) minutes/seconds to spare. [=he got there only minutes/seconds before he needed to; he got there just in time] ▪ He got there with time to spare. [=he got there early; he got there in plenty of time]

[3]spare noun, pl spares [count]
1 : something extra that is kept to be used if it is needed ▪ "I've lost the key." "You'll find a spare in the drawer." ▪ If that one breaks, I've got a spare.; especially : SPARE TIRE 1 ▪ Most cars come with spares.
2 bowling : the achievement of knocking down all 10 pins with the first two balls ▪ He got a strike and two spares. ▪ He made/bowled a spare. — compare [2]STRIKE 6 spare•rib /ˈspeəˌrɪb/ noun, pl -ribs [count] : a piece of meat from a pig that includes a rib — usually plural ▪ barbecued spareribs

spare tire (US) or Brit spare tyre noun, pl ~ tires [count]
1 : an extra tire for a car
2 informal : a roll of fat around your waist ▪ I have to go on a diet and try to lose this spare tire.

spar•ing /ˈsperɪŋ/ adj : not using or giving a lot of something ▪ an artist who is sparing in her use of color [=who does not use much color] ▪ He has been sparing with details about his personal life. [=he has not talked much about his personal life]
– spar•ing•ly /ˈsperɪŋli/ adv ▪ He used the funds only sparingly.

[1]spark /ˈspɑək/ noun, pl sparks
1 [count] a : a small piece of burning material that comes from a fire or is produced by rubbing or hitting two hard objects together ▪ A spark from the fireplace set the rug on fire. ▪ The car's tailpipe made sparks as it scraped the road. b : a short, bright flash of electricity between two points ▪ A spark ignites the stove's burner.
2 [noncount] : a quality that makes someone or something enjoyable, interesting, successful, etc. ▪ In its fourth year, the TV series has lost its spark. ▪ She's a talented gymnast but she doesn't have the spark of some of her competitors.
3 [count] : a small amount of something ▪ A spark of hope remains. ▪ Sometimes there were surprising sparks of humor in his letters. ▪ occasional sparks of insight 4 [count] : an action, occurrence, etc., that causes something larger to happen ▪ His death was the spark that ignited the revolution. ▪ Her suggestion was the spark for the entire renovation project.
bright spark Brit, informal + disapproving : a person who says or does something that seems intelligent but is really not ▪ Who's the bright spark who came up with this rotten idea?
sparks fly ✧ When sparks fly, it means that two people are either having an argument with each other or are sexually attracted to each other. ▪ The sparks flew [=they had an angry argument] when he arrived late for her special dinner. ▪ Sparks flew when they met for the first time.

[2]spark verb sparks; spark•ing; sparked
1 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to start or happen ▪ The question sparked a debate. ▪ Her fifth-grade teacher sparked her interest in history. — sometimes + off ▪ The arrests sparked off [=touched off] a riot. ▪ His hit sparked off [=started] a rally that brought in four runs.
2 [no obj] : to produce sparks ▪ The fire sparked and crackled. ▪ The wires made contact and sparked.
3 [+ obj] : to add interest, liveliness, or flavor to (something) ▪ prose sparked with humor — often + up ▪ spark up an otherwise bland sauce

[1]spar•kle /ˈspɑəkəl/ verb spar•kles; spar•kled; spar•kling [no obj]
1 : to produce small flashes of light ▪ The diamond sparkled.
2 : to perform very well ▪ The dancers sparkled on stage.
3 : to be or become bright and lively ▪ The conversation sparkled. ▪ Her eyes sparkled with pride. — see also SPARKLING

[2]sparkle noun, pl sparkles
1 : a small flash of bright light [count] The sun reflected off the water in bright sparkles of light. [noncount] He caught the sparkle of her diamond out of the corner of his eye.
2 [noncount] : a lively quality ▪ a performance full of sparkle and originality ▪ the sparkle in her eyes spar•kler /ˈspɑəklɚ/ noun, pl -klers [count] : a type of fireworks that you hold in your hand and that throws off very bright sparks as it burns sparkling adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : shining with or reflecting bright points of light ▪ the sparkling blue sea ▪ sparkling jewels
2 : bright and clever ▪ sparkling wit
3 : of the best quality : excellent or outstanding ▪ a sparkling performance ▪ The building is a sparkling example of modern architecture at its best. ▪ (Brit) athletes in sparkling [=superb, brilliant] form
4 always used before a noun : containing bubbles ▪ sparkling wine ▪ sparkling grape juice

spark plug noun, pl ~ plugs [count] : a part of an engine that produces a spark that makes the fuel burn — see picture at ENGINE

sparky /ˈspɑəki/ adj spark•i•er; -est chiefly Brit, informal : lively and energetic ▪ sparky youngsters ▪ a sparky heroine ▪ sparky conversation sparring partner noun, pl ~ -ners [count]

1 : someone who helps a boxer practice : someone a boxer spars with for training
2 : a person that you have serious but friendly arguments with ▪ They have been political sparring partners for years.

spar•row /ˈsperoʊ/ noun, pl -rows [count] : a common type of small bird that usually has brown or gray feathers — see color picture on page C9 sparse /ˈspɑəs/ adj spars•er; -est : present only in small amounts : less than necessary or normal ▪ Reliable data is sparse.; especially : thinly covering an area : not thick or full ▪ sparse vegetation ▪ a sparse beard synonyms see MEAGER – sparse•ly adv ▪ a sparsely populated area ▪ The room was sparsely furnished. – sparse•ness noun [noncount]

spar•tan also Spar•tan /ˈspɑətn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bare and simple : lacking the things that make life comfortable or more pleasant ▪ They lived in spartan conditions.

spasm /ˈspæzəm/ noun, pl spasms [count]
1 : a sudden uncontrolled and often painful tightening of a muscle ▪ violent back spasms ▪ a disease that causes muscle spasms

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 140 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : a sudden and usually brief occurrence of something you cannot control ▪ He was racked with coughing spasms. ▪ She was suffering spasms of guilt. ▪ spasms of joy/rage

spas•mod•ic /spæzˈmɑːdɪk/ adj
1 : relating to or caused by a spasm ▪ spasmodic movements/jerks
2 : happening suddenly and briefly at different times in a way that is not regular ▪ He made only spasmodic attempts to lose weight. ▪ spasmodic [=intermittent] activity
– spas•mod•i•cal•ly /spæzˈmɑːdɪkli/ adv ▪ His neck was jerking spasmodically. ▪ Outbursts of violence continued spasmodically after the war ended.

spas•tic /ˈspæstɪk/ adj
1 medical a : relating to or affected with spasms ▪ a spastic colon ▪ spastic paralysis b old-fashioned : suffering from cerebral palsy or a similar disease that causes uncontrolled movements ▪ a spastic child
2 [more ~; most ~] informal : having movements like spasms : clumsy or awkward ▪ spastic fingers ▪ spastic dancing – spastic noun, pl -tics [count]

[1]spat past tense and past participle of [1]SPIT

[2]spat /ˈspæt/ noun, pl spats [count] : a short argument about something that is not important ▪ The newlyweds were having another spat. — compare [4]SPAT

[3]spat verb spats; spat•ted; spat•ting [no obj] somewhat old-fashioned : to argue or fight : to have a spat ▪ They were typical sisters, spatting one minute, playing together the next.

[4]spat noun, pl spats [count] : a cloth or leather covering for the ankle and foot that men wore over their shoes in the past — usually plural ▪ a pair of spats — compare [2]SPAT

spate /ˈspeɪt/ noun, pl spates [count] : a large number of things that appear or happen in a short period of time ▪ A spate of books on the subject have come out recently. ▪ the recent spate [=rash] of forest fires ▪ There was a spate of corporate mergers in the 1980s.
in spate chiefly Brit, of a river, stream, etc. : very full : filled with water flowing very fast ▪ The river was in spate due to heavy rains.

spa•tial /ˈspeɪʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] technical : of or relating to space and the relationship of objects within it ▪ the spatial dimensions of a room ▪ tests of spatial ability
– spa•tial•ly adv

[1]spat•ter /ˈspætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing : to cause drops of a liquid to be thrown forcefully in different directions [+ obj] A passing car spattered [=splattered] mud all over her new coat. ▪ The dog jumped in the pool and spattered us with water. ▪ His clothes were spattered with paint. [no obj] When you cook bacon, the grease spatters everywhere. ▪ He showed me how to use the paintbrush so the paint wouldn't spatter.

[2]spatter noun, pl -ters : a mark made when something wet hits a surface [count] There were grease spatters all over the wall. ▪ The floor was covered with spatters of paint. [noncount] There was a lot of paint spatter on the floor. ▪ (US) He cleaned the bug spatter off the windshield.

spat•u•la /ˈspætʃələ/ noun, pl -las [count]
1 US a : a kitchen tool that has a handle which is bent upward and a wide, thin blade used for lifting and turning foods on a hot surface — called also (Brit) fish slice; see picture at KITCHEN b : a kitchen tool that has a long handle and short, soft blade and that is used especially for mixing, spreading, etc.
2 : a kitchen tool similar to a knife that has a flexible blade and that is used for mixing, spreading, etc. — called also (Brit) palette knife
3 Brit : TONGUE DEPRESSOR

[1]spawn /ˈspɑːn/ verb spawns; spawned; spawn•ing
1 [no obj] : to produce or lay eggs in water — used of animals such as fish or frogs ▪ Salmon spawn in late summer or fall.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to develop or begin : to produce or create (something) ▪ The health-food craze spawned a multimillion-dollar industry. ▪ the incident that spawned a generation of student protests ▪ a TV show that spawned a host of imitations

[2]spawn noun [noncount] : the eggs of a fish or frog ▪ Pacific salmon return to Alaskan streams to deposit their spawn.

spawning ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count]
1 : a place where animals (such as fish or frogs) go to lay eggs ▪ Pacific salmon swim to their spawning grounds in Alaskan rivers.
2 : a place where something is created or produced often in large numbers ▪ The country is a spawning ground for terrorists.

spay /ˈspeɪ/ verb spays; spayed; spay•ing [+ obj] : to remove the sex organs of (a female animal) : to make (a female animal) unable to have babies ▪ Our cat has been spayed. — compare NEUTER

spaz /ˈspæz/ noun, pl spaz•zes [count] US slang : a person who is very clumsy or awkward : KLUTZ ▪ I'm a real spaz on the ski slopes.

speak /ˈspiːk/ verb speaks; spoke /ˈspoʊk/; spo•ken /ˈspoʊkən/; speak•ing
1 a [no obj] : to say words in order to express your thoughts, feelings, opinions, etc., to someone : to talk to someone ▪ Have you two spoken since yesterday? ▪ She and I spoke this morning. ▪ He never speaks at the meetings. ▪ Without speaking, she walked from the room. ▪ They were speaking in Japanese. — often + to ▪ We need to speak to our son's teacher about his grades. ▪ He spoke to the police through an interpreter. ▪ They spoke to each other in a whisper. — often + with in U.S. English ▪ The coach refused to speak with the reporters. ▪ May I speak with you privately? ▪ I spoke with him on the phone yesterday. — often used at the beginning of telephone conversations ▪ "Hello. May I speak to Noah?" "Speaking." [=I am Noah] ▪ "Hello. This is Noah speaking."
b [no obj] : to talk about a particular subject or person — often + about or of ▪ She spoke intelligently about the current political situation. ▪ He still speaks of his ex-wife with affection. ▪ The company is doing very well, financially speaking. [=is doing very well financially] c [no obj] : to say words to express yourself in a particular way ▪ When I said you were my best friend, I was speaking sincerely. ▪ Speaking personally, I don't think you should take the job. [=my personal opinion is that you should not take the job] ▪ Generally speaking, people like her as a leader. [=people in general like her as a leader] ▪ The restaurant isn't too expensive, comparatively/relatively speaking. [=when compared to other restaurants] ▪ Speaking as a student (myself), I'm concerned about the alarming increase in school violence. d [+ obj] : to say (something) to someone ▪ She must be speaking the truth. ▪ Not a word was spoken between them the whole time. ▪ Don't be afraid to speak your mind. [=say what you think] ▪ Do not speak a word of this to anyone else. [=do not tell anyone else anything about this]
2 : to use your voice to say words [no obj] He has laryngitis and can't speak. ▪ You're speaking too fast/loudly. ▪ She speaks with a Southern accent. ▪ I was so surprised I could hardly speak. ▪ She got a speaking part/role in the play. [=she got a part/role for which she says words] ▪ He has a very deep speaking voice. [=his voice is very deep when he speaks] [+ obj] The singer speaks the last verse instead of singing it.
3 [no obj] : to be willing to talk to someone after having a disagreement, fight, etc. ▪ They haven't spoken since the argument two years ago. ▪ Are they still not speaking? ▪ He apologized, so I'm speaking with/to him again. ▪ They're not on speaking terms. [=they're not friendly and do not speak to each other]
4 [+ obj] : to use (a particular language) to talk to someone ▪ He can speak German and French. ▪ English is widely spoken in many parts of the world. ▪ We didn't know what language they were speaking. ▪ the Spanish-speaking population/world ▪ I can't speak a word of French. [=I do not know any French]
5 [no obj] : to talk about something formally to a group of people : to make or give a speech ▪ She was asked to speak at the conference. ▪ He has a talent for speaking to large audiences. ▪ While most of the senators spoke against tax increases, one senator spoke in favor of them. ▪ I have a speaking engagement [=I will be giving a speech] this evening. — see also PUBLIC SPEAKING actions speak louder than words see ACTION in a manner of speaking see MANNER

so to speak — used to indicate that you are using words in an unusual or figurative way rather than a literal way ▪ We need to be all on the same wavelength, so to speak.
speak for [phrasal verb] 1 speak for (someone) : to express the thoughts or opinions of (someone) ▪ They chose him to speak for the group. ▪ Speaking only for myself, I'm against the plan. [=I'm only expressing my own opinion when I say that I'm against the plan] ▪ "We don't want any dessert." "Speak for yourself. I want some." — often used figuratively ▪ I have nothing more to say. The facts speak for themselves. [=the facts clearly show what is true] 2 speak for (something or someone) chiefly US : to show that (something or someone) does or does not deserve to be praised, admired, etc. ▪ It speaks well for [=says a lot for] the company that it donates so much money to local charities. ▪ Her calm reaction to the crisis speaks well for her ability to perform under pressure. ▪ The test results speak poorly for our school system. 3 be spoken for : to not be available because of already being claimed by someone else or in a relationship with someone else ▪ I'm sorry. This seat is spoken for. ▪ I can't go out with you; I'm already spoken for.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 141 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

speak of [phrasal verb] 1 speak of (someone or something) : to talk or write about (someone or something) : to mention (a subject) in speech or writing ▪ Speaking of Jill, where is she? ▪ It was the first time she spoke of going to law school. ▪ She never speaks of her suffering during the war. ▪ In the letter, he spoke of feeling ill. 2 speak of (something) : to indicate or suggest (something) ▪ His diaries speak of a troubled mind. [=they show that he had a troubled mind] 3 speak of (someone or something) a : to talk about (someone or something) in a specified way ▪ He spoke well/highly/favorably of both job candidates. b chiefly US : to show that (someone or something) does or does not deserve to be praised, admired, etc. ▪ The continued success of the business speaks well of their judgment. [=shows that their judgment is good] ▪ Her bad behavior speaks poorly of her upbringing.

speak of the devil see DEVIL

speak out [phrasal verb] : to speak freely and confidently about something : to express an opinion in an open way ▪ She is never afraid to speak out on controversial issues. — often + against ▪ Protesters spoke out against the decision.

speak the same language see LANGUAGE speak up [phrasal verb] 1 : to speak loudly and clearly ▪ "Speak up. I can't hear you." 2 : to speak at a meeting, in a class, etc. ▪ Seeing that no one was going to answer the teacher's question, he decided to speak up. 3 : to speak freely and confidently about something : to express an opinion openly ▪ Several of us decided to speak up about our working conditions. — often + for ▪ She is always ready to speak up for animal rights.

speak volumes see VOLUME

speak your mind see [1]MIND to speak of : worth mentioning or noticing ▪ There was no progress to speak of.

synonyms SPEAK and TALK mean to express yourself by saying words. SPEAK refers to anything that is said, whether it is understood or not and whether it is heard or not. ▪ What language are they speaking? ▪ She spoke to the class. TALK suggests that there is a listener who understands what is said and often that both people do some speaking. ▪ Do you have time to talk? ▪ We talked about school.

-speak /ˌspi:k/ noun combining form — used to form words that refer to the special languages or words used for particular activities or by particular groups ▪ computer*speak* [=the language used by people talking about computers] ▪ California*speak* [=the type of language used by people in California]

speak•easy /ˈspi:kˌi:zi/ noun, pl -eas•ies [count] : a place where alcoholic drinks were sold illegally in the U.S. during the 1920s

speak•er /ˈspi:kɚ/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : someone who speaks a particular language ▪ fluent speakers of French = fluent French speakers — see also NATIVE SPEAKER

2 [count] : someone who talks about something to a group of people ▪ I disagree with the last speaker. ▪ He is an excellent public speaker. ▪ She was invited to be a guest speaker [=to give a speech] at the conference.

3 the Speaker : the person who controls the discussions in a legislature ▪ She became the Speaker of the House (of Representatives).

4 [count] : someone who is speaking ▪ improper grammar used by a writer or speaker ▪ The word "take" often indicates movement away from the speaker, while "bring" indicates movement toward the speaker.

5 [count] : the part of a radio, television, computer, etc., that changes electric signals into sound ▪ I bought new speakers for my stereo system. — see picture at LIVING ROOM; see also LOUDSPEAKER speak•er•phone /ˈspi:kɚˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones chiefly US : a feature on a telephone that allows you to talk and listen to someone without holding the receiver to your head [count] We used the speakerphone for the call so that everyone could hear what was said. [noncount] He put her on speakerphone so that everyone could hear what she said.

[1]spear /ˈspiɚ/ noun, pl spears [count]

1 : a weapon that has a long straight handle and a sharp point ▪ The hunters used spears.

2 : a new part of a plant that is thin and pointed : a shoot or sprout of a plant ▪ spears of grass ▪ asparagus spears

[2]spear verb spears; speared; spear•ing [+ obj] : to push a spear or other pointed object into (something) ▪ spear a fish ▪ She speared an olive with a toothpick.

[1]spear•head /ˈspiɚˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a person, thing, or group that organizes or leads something (such as a movement or attack) ▪ Her book was the spearhead of the clean water movement.

[2]spearhead verb -heads; -head•ed; -head•ing [+ obj] : to be the leader of (something, such as a political movement) ▪ She spearheaded the campaign for better schools. ▪ The movement was spearheaded by the teachers' union.

spear•mint /ˈspiɚˌmɪnt/ noun [noncount] : a plant that has a strong and pleasant flavor and smell and that is grown especially for its oil

spec /ˈspɛk/ noun, pl specs : a detailed description of work to be done or materials to be used in a project : SPECIFICATION [count] — usually plural ▪ technical/design specs ▪ products that conform to specs [noncount] (US) ▪ parts built according to spec

on spec 1 : without having a definite buyer or customer but with the hope or expectation of finding one when work is completed ▪ He built the house on spec. ▪ She wrote the script on spec. 2 chiefly Brit : without being sure of success but with the hope of success ▪ He wrote to the company on spec, hoping for a job.

– see also SPECS

[1]spe•cial /ˈspɛʃəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : different from what is normal or usual ▪ This is a special case and I want you to handle it personally. ▪ Only under special circumstances will you be allowed to retake the test. ▪ Is there any special [=particular] reason why you're not coming?; especially : unusual in a good way : better or more important than others ▪ Your many years of service put you in a special category. ▪ Why should you receive any special treatment? ▪ It takes a special quality to do what he did. ▪ This is a very special occasion. ▪ Are you doing anything special over the holidays? ▪ The movie was nothing special. [=was not particularly good] ▪ We have a special guest tonight—the mayor.

2 [more ~; most ~] : especially important or loved ▪ a special friend ▪ No one is more special to me than my wife. ▪ He always made her feel special. ▪ He holds a special place in her heart.

3 always used before a noun a : more than is usual ▪ Pay special attention to the last paragraph. ▪ Take special care on the way down the stairs. ▪ They showed special concern for the children. ▪ The report places special emphasis on new technology. b : additional or extra ▪ a special edition of a newspaper ▪ He won't tell us the special ingredient in his salad dressing. ▪ This camera has a special feature that lets you take panoramic views.

4 always used before a noun : relating to or intended for a particular purpose ▪ a special diet ▪ He was on special assignment for the government. ▪ special election coverage ▪ I was given special orders not to let you in. ▪ To clean the oven, I had to wear special gloves. [=a particular kind of glove] ▪ Do you have any special instructions for the babysitter? ▪ a special correspondent/prosecutor

[2]special noun, pl -cials [count]

1 : a television or radio program that is not part of a regular series ▪ a one-hour special on whales ▪ an after-school special

2 : a meal that is not on a restaurant's usual menu ▪ Today's lunch special is chili. ▪ The specials are on the board.

3 : SALE 2 ▪ They were having a special on paper towels so I stocked up.

handyman's special see HANDYMAN

on special US : selling at a price that is lower than usual : on sale ▪ Pork chops are on special [=(Brit) on special offer] this week.

special agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] : an agent who works for the FBI

Special Air Service noun [noncount] : SAS

Special Branch noun [noncount] : the department of the British police force that deals with political crimes and terrorism ▪ Officers from Special Branch are investigating the case.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 142 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

special character noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a symbol used in writing, typing, etc., that represents something other than a letter or number ▪ The symbol § is a special character.

special delivery noun [noncount] : a special service that delivers mail more quickly than usual for an extra fee ▪ She sent him a letter by special delivery.

special education noun [noncount] : classes for children who have special needs because of physical or learning problems — called also special ed

special effect noun, pl ~ -fects [count] : an image or sound that is created in television, radio, or movies to represent something real (such as an explosion) or imaginary (such as a monster) — usually plural ▪ The movie is worth seeing just for the spectacular special effects.

special forces noun [plural] : a part of an army made up of soldiers specially trained to fight against enemies (such as guerrilla forces or terrorists) who do not belong to a regular army

special interest noun, pl ~ -ests [count] chiefly US : a group that tries to influence the people who run a government in order to help a particular business, cause, industry, etc. — often plural ▪ The congressmen were accused of selling out to special interests. ▪ contributions made by special interests — often used before another noun ▪ special interest money/politics ▪ the influence of special interest groups

spe•cial•ism /ˈspɛʃəˌlɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] Brit : a particular subject or area of study or practice ▪ The professor's specialism [=specialty] is labor law. — often + in ▪ a doctor whose specialism [=specialty, specialization] is in blood disorders [=a doctor who specializes in blood disorders] ▪ an accounting firm with a specialism in corporate mergers

spe•cial•ist /ˈspɛʃəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 a : a person who has special knowledge and skill relating to a particular job, area of study, etc. : EXPERT ▪ She consulted a marketing specialist when she decided to go into business. ▪ child development specialists ▪ He's a specialist in international law. [=he specializes in international law] — compare GENERALIST b : a doctor who deals with health problems that relate to a specific area of medicine ▪ He saw a specialist for his foot problem. ▪ a leading cancer specialist ▪ a skin specialist — compare GENERAL PRACTITIONER
2 : a rank in the U.S. Army that is above the rank of private and below the rank of corporal – specialist adj, always used before a noun ▪ specialist publications specialist shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] Brit : SPECIALTY SHOP

spe•ci•al•i•ty /ˌspɛʃiˈælәti/ noun, pl -ties [count] chiefly Brit : SPECIALTY

spe•cial•ize also Brit spe•cial•ise /ˈspɛʃəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [no obj] : to limit your business or area of study to one specific subject ▪ Some carpenters do a wide range of jobs, while others specialize. — usually + in ▪ My mechanic specializes in repairing foreign cars.
– spe•cial•i•za•tion also Brit spe•cial•i•sa•tion /ˌspɛʃəlәˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌspɛʃəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] a law firm whose area of specialization is family law [count] She studies government with a specialization in foreign policy.

specialized also Brit specialised adj [more ~; most ~] : made or used for one particular purpose, job, place, etc. ▪ specialized regions of the brain ▪ specialized gear for deep-sea fishing ▪ a specialized habitat ▪ specialized knowledge/skills

spe•cial•ly /ˈspɛʃəli/ adv
1 : for a special purpose : SPECIFICALLY ▪ dresses made specially for a wedding ▪ The speech was written specially for the occasion. ▪ The room was specially designed to be used as a library. ▪ specially trained troops
2 : to a special or unusual degree : particularly or especially ▪ I was specially pleased with your gift. ▪ people who are not specially gifted 3 [more ~; most ~] : in a special manner ▪ I don't want to be treated specially.

special needs noun [plural] : mental, emotional, or physical problems in a child that require a special setting for education ▪ a child with special needs — often used before another noun ▪ special-needs students ▪ a special-needs teacher [=a teacher who teaches children with special needs] ▪ a special-needs classroom special offer noun, pl ~ -fers [count] : a product that is being sold for less than its usual price or the act of selling something for less than the usual price ▪ Shoppers will be able to take advantage of special offers after the holidays. ▪ (Brit) Fresh turkeys are on special offer [=(US) on special] this week.

special school noun, pl ~ schools [count] : a school for children who have physical or mental problems

spe•cial•ty /ˈspɛʃəlti/ noun, pl -ties [count] US
1 : something that a person or place is known for making or producing very well ▪ Eggs are my dad's specialty. [=(Brit) speciality] ▪ Buttermilk pie is a Southern specialty.
2 : an area of study or business that a person specializes in or has special knowledge of ▪ a doctor whose specialty [=(Brit) speciality] is skin problems specialty shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] US : a shop that sells one type of thing ▪ a cheese specialty shop

spe•cies /ˈspi:ʃiz/ noun, pl species [count]
1 biology : a group of animals or plants that are similar and can produce young animals or plants : a group of related animals or plants that is smaller than a genus ▪ There are approximately 8,000 species of ants. ▪ All European domestic cattle belong to the same species. ▪ laws that protect endangered/threatened species — see also SUBSPECIES
2 : a particular group of things or people that belong together or have some shared quality ▪ the different species [=kinds, types] of criminals

spe•cif•ic /spɪˈsɪfɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 always used before a noun : special or particular ▪ Is there anything specific you want for dinner? ▪ There is a specific word for this kind of feeling. ▪ a bird species that requires a specific environment ▪ We were each given a specific topic to talk about.
2 : clearly and exactly presented or stated : precise or exact ▪ The doctor gave the patient specific instructions on how to care for the wound. ▪ Can you be more specific? What exactly did the policeman say? ▪ He gave her a ring—or, to be more specific, he gave her an engagement ring. ▪ She was very specific—you have to use a certain kind of tomato in the sauce. ▪ Give specific examples. ▪ Do you have a specific [=certain] date in mind for your party?
3 a : relating to a particular person, situation, etc. ▪ an education plan specific to each student's interests and abilities ▪ problems specific to this one housing project ▪ a tax regulation specific to this kind of business b technical : having a particular function or effect ▪ highly specific antibodies ▪ an antibiotic that is specific to/for the organism that causes the disease — see also SPECIFICS

spe•cif•i•cal•ly /spɪˈsɪfɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a definite and exact way ▪ The report specifically names two companies that were involved. ▪ I specifically told her not to bother you. ▪ Knead the bread dough for several minutes, or, more specifically, until it forms a smooth ball.
2 — used to indicate the exact purpose or use of something ▪ The show is aimed specifically at a female audience. ▪ The new rules apply specifically to situations like this. ▪ furniture designed specifically for outdoor use

spec•i• •ca•tion /ˌspɛsəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a detailed description of work to be done or materials to be used in a project : an instruction that says exactly how to do or make something — usually plural ▪ the architect's specifications for a new building ▪ The equipment will be manufactured to your specifications.

speci c gravity noun [noncount] technical : a measurement that indicates how dense a substance is by comparing it to the density of water ▪ determining the specific gravity of a mineral spec•i• c•i•ty /ˌspɛsəˈfɪsәti/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being specific ▪ I was impressed by the specificity of her instructions.

spe•cif•ics /spɪˈsɪfɪks/ noun [plural] : the specific facts or details that relate to something ▪ While avoiding specifics, he made it pretty clear that the presentation was full of flaws. ▪ I'd like to know the specifics [=particulars] of your plan. ▪ Let's get down to specifics.

spec•i•fy /ˈspɛsəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to name or mention (someone or something) exactly and clearly : to be specific about (something) ▪ Can you specify the cause of the argument? ▪ Specify the color and quantity when you order. ▪ He clearly specified California wine. ▪ The instructions do not specify what kind of screws to use. ▪ All subscriptions are for one year unless otherwise specified. ▪ At the specified time, we rang the bell. ▪ She agreed to the terms specified in the contract.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 143 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

spec•i•men /'spɛsəmən/ noun, pl -mens [count]
1 a : something (such as an animal or plant) collected as an example of a particular kind of thing ▪ a museum specimen b : a small amount or piece of something that can be tested or examined ▪ a urine/blood specimen [=sample]
2 a : a notable example of something ▪ The church is a magnificent specimen of baroque architecture. b humorous : an example of a type of person ▪ Her dance partner is a superb physical specimen. ▪ fine specimens of manhood spe•cious /'spi:ʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : falsely appearing to be fair, just, or right : appearing to be true but actually false ▪ a specious argument ▪ He justified his actions with specious reasoning.

– spe•cious•ly adv, formal – spe•cious•ness noun [noncount] formal ▪ the speciousness of his reasoning

speck /'spɛk/ noun, pl specks [count]
1 : a very small piece or spot ▪ There was not a speck of dust anywhere. ▪ Soon the balloon was only a speck in the sky.
2 : a very small amount : BIT ▪ She writes without a speck of humor.

specked /'spɛkt/ adj : marked with many small spots ▪ bread specked with black pepper ▪ paint-specked pants

speck•le /'spɛkəl/ noun, pl speck•les [count] : a small mark of color ▪ a ripe banana with lots of brown speckles

speck•led /'spɛkəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : covered with many small marks ▪ speckled trout ▪ a gold-speckled scarf specs /'spɛks/ noun [plural] informal : glasses or spectacles ▪ I have to wear my specs when I drive. — see also SPEC

spec•ta•cle /'spɛktɪkəl/ noun, pl -ta•cles
1 [count] : a very impressive show ▪ a giant film spectacle ▪ a Broadway spectacle
2 [count] : something that attracts attention because it is very unusual or very shocking — usually singular ▪ The photo to exhibit was quite a spectacle. ▪ She hoped the situation would not become a spectacle.
3 spectacles [plural] old-fashioned : GLASSES ▪ He peered through his spectacles.
make a spectacle of yourself : to do something in front of other people that is very embarrassing ▪ You made a spectacle of yourself at the party.
rose-colored spectacles see ROSE-COLORED

spec•ta•cled /'spɛktɪkəld/ adj : wearing glasses ▪ The spectacled [=bespectacled] clerks bent over their account books.

spec•tac•u•lar /spɛk'tækjələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing wonder and admiration : very impressive ▪ a spectacular sunset ▪ a spectacular play in a football game ▪ The stock market has made a spectacular [=sensational] recovery. ▪ spectacular [=thrilling] aerial photography ▪ The autumn foliage was spectacular.
– spec•tac•u•lar•ly adv ▪ He played spectacularly. ▪ a spectacularly successful novel ▪ The new system failed spectacularly. [=it was a complete failure]

spec•tate /'spɛk,teɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [no obj] : to watch something (such as a sports event) ▪ She no longer participates in sports but merely spectates. [=she is is just a spectator]

spec•ta•tor /'spɛk,teɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who watches an event, show, game, activity, etc., often as part of an audience ▪ The spectators lining the road cheered the racers on. ▪ The accident attracted a large crowd of spectators. ▪ I wasn't a participant in the preparations, merely a spectator.

spectator sport noun, pl ~ sports [count]
1 : a sport (such as football, baseball, ice hockey, etc.) that many people watch ▪ People generally don't think of sailboat racing as a spectator sport.
2 : something that people watch other people do without becoming involved themselves ▪ For many, politics has become a spectator sport.

spec•ter (US) or chiefly Brit spec•tre /'spɛktə/ noun, pl -ters [count] literary : a ghost or spirit of a dead person ▪ "Ghost of the Future," he exclaimed, "I fear you more than any spectre I have seen . . . " —Charles Dickens, A Christmas Carol (1867) the specter of (something) : something bad that might happen in the future ▪ a nation alarmed/haunted by the specter of famine/war ▪ News of the disease raised the specter of [=made people worry about] a possible plague.

spectra plural of SPECTRUM

spec•tral /'spɛktrəl/ adj
1 literary : of, relating to, or suggesting a ghost : GHOSTLY ▪ a spectral figure 2 technical : of, relating to, or made by a spectrum ▪ spectral lines

spec•tro•scope /'spɛktrə,skoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] technical : a device that is used to measure the properties of light
– spec•tro•scop•ic /,spɛktrə'skɑ:pɪk/ adj ▪ spectroscopic analysis – spec•tros•co•py /spɛk'trɑ:skəpi/ noun, pl -pies [count] ▪ infrared/laser spectroscopy

spec•trum /'spɛktrəm/ noun, pl spec•tra /'spɛktrə/ or spec•trums [count]
1 a : the group of colors that a ray of light can be separated into including red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet : the colors that can be seen in a rainbow ▪ beautiful scarves in all the colors of the spectrum b technical : an entire range of light waves, radio waves, etc.
2 : a complete range of different opinions, people, etc. ▪ reaching voters across the political spectrum [=voters with all the different political beliefs that people have] — often + of ▪ the whole spectrum of emotions ▪ The city's populations represent a broad/wide spectrum of society.

spec•u•late /'spɛkjə,leɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 : to think about something and make guesses about it : to form ideas or theories about something usually when there are many things not known about it [no obj] She could only speculate about/on her friend's motives. ▪ He speculated as to whether she would come. ▪ We don't know what happened—we can only speculate. [+ obj] — + that ▪ Scientists speculate that the illness is caused by a virus.
2 [no obj] : to invest money in ways that could produce a large profit but that also involve a lot of risk ▪ speculating on the stock market
– spec•u•la•tor /'spɛkjə,leɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a land speculator ▪ a Wall Street speculator

spec•u•la•tion /,spɛkjə'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : ideas or guesses about something that is not known [noncount] He dismissed their theories as mere speculation. ▪ The book is just a lot of idle speculation about the future. ▪ There is speculation that he will run for president again. [=some people think that he might run for president again] [count] Her speculations leave many questions unanswered.
2 [noncount] : activity in which someone buys and sells things (such as stocks or pieces of property) in the hope of making a large profit but with the risk of a large loss ▪ He lost everything in foolish land speculation.

spec•u•la•tive /'spɛkjələtɪv/ adj
1 a : based on guesses or ideas about what might happen or be true rather than on facts ▪ His conclusions are highly/purely speculative. b : tending to think about what might happen or be true : tending to speculate ▪ a writer with a speculative mind c : showing curiosity or uncertainty ▪ She gave him a speculative glance. [=she looked at him in a way that showed she was thinking/wondering about him]
2 : involving financial risk : of or relating to financial activity that could result in either a large profit or a large loss ▪ a speculative boom in housing construction ▪ speculative deals
– spec•u•la•tive•ly adv ▪ The question can only be answered speculatively. ▪ She eyed him speculatively.

sped past tense and past participle of [2]SPEED

speech /'spi:ʧ/ noun, pl speech•es
1 [count] : a spoken expression of ideas, opinions, etc., that is made by someone who is speaking in front of a group of people ▪ She has to make/give/deliver a speech at the convention. ▪ a graduation speech about/on embracing future challenges ▪ He kept revising his speech [=the words that he had written for his speech] right up until the last minute. ▪ She thanked us in her acceptance speech. [=a speech given by someone receiving an award or prize] — see also STUMP SPEECH
2 [noncount] : the ability to speak ▪ I was so flustered that I momentarily lost the power of speech. ▪ She has a mild speech impediment. [=a condition that makes it difficult to speak normally] ▪ They fought for freedom of speech. = They fought for the right to/of free speech. [=they fought for the legal right to express their opinions freely]
3 [noncount] : spoken language ▪ Slang is used mostly in informal/casual speech. ▪ Many words are more common in speech than in writing.
4 [noncount] : the manner or style of speaking that is used by a particular person or group ▪ His speech was slurred. ▪ local/regional speech patterns

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 144 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

5 [count] : a group of lines spoken by a character in a play ▪ I get to perform one of the best speeches in the play.
– see also FIGURE OF SPEECH, PART OF SPEECH

speech day noun, pl ~ days [count] Brit : an event held once a year in some British schools at which prizes are awarded to students and speeches are given speech•ify /ˈspi:ʧəˌfaɪ/ verb -i es ; -i ed ; -ify•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to make a speech especially in a way that is boring, annoying, etc. ▪ We had to listen to him speechify about what a wonderful governor he would be.

– speechifying noun [noncount] ▪ The political speechifying has begun.

speech•less /ˈspi:ʧləs/ adj : unable to speak because of anger, surprise, etc. ▪ I was speechless with shock/anger. ▪ Your story left me speechless.

speech therapy noun [noncount] : treatment or therapy to help people who have speech problems learn to pronounce words correctly – speech therapist noun, pl ~ -pists [count]

speech•writ•er /ˈspi:ʧˌraɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to write speeches that are given by someone else (such as a politician) ▪ She is the President's principal speechwriter.

[1]speed /ˈspi:d/ noun, pl speeds
1 : the rate at which someone or something moves or travels [noncount] The trucks gain/gather speed as they drive down the hill. = The trucks pick up speed as they drive down the hill. [=the trucks go faster as they drive down the hill] ▪ This instrument measures wind speed. ▪ He was running at full/top speed. [=as fast as possible] ▪ The machine was operating at high/medium/low speed. ▪ traveling at nearly the speed of light/sound [count] Under the right conditions the car can reach speeds over 200 miles an hour. ▪ The vehicle maintained a speed of 40 miles per hour.
2 : the rate at which something happens or is done [noncount] The work was done with remarkable speed. ▪ They ate their lunch at lightning speed. [=extremely quickly] [count] This computer works at a much faster processing speed than my old one. ▪ He types at a speed of about 50 words per minute. = His typing speed is about 50 words per minute.
3 [noncount] : the quality of being quick ▪ The machine chops up tree branches and leaves with speed and ease.
4 [count] photography a : a measurement that indicates how quickly film reacts to light and that is expressed as a number (such as 100 or 200) ▪ 200 speed film b : the time during which a camera's shutter is open ▪ faster/slower shutter speeds
5 [count] : a gear in a vehicle or bicycle ▪ a three-speed bicycle ▪ Her old car has four speeds.
6 [noncount] informal : an illegal drug that makes a person feel more excited and full of energy ▪ He was high on speed.
at speed chiefly Brit : very quickly : at a fast speed ▪ He ran at speed out of the room.
full speed ahead see [1]FULL up to speed : having the latest information about something ▪ Everyone here is up to speed. ▪ Let me bring you up to speed on our plans. [=let me tell you about the changes in our plans] : having the knowledge that is needed to do or understand something ▪ It will take some time for the new secretary to get up to speed. [=to learn the job]

[2]speed verb speeds; sped /ˈspɛd/ or speed•ed; speed•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move fast ▪ A group of kids sped past us on their bikes. ▪ They jumped in the car and sped/speeded away. ▪ A car was speeding down/up the street.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) somewhere very quickly ▪ An ambulance sped her to the hospital.
3 [no obj] : to drive faster than the legal speed limit ▪ I got pulled over twice last month because I was speeding on the highway. ▪ Don't speed.
4 [+ obj] somewhat formal : to cause (an action, movement, process, etc.) to happen faster ▪ We kept the plants under artificial lights at night to speed their growth. ▪ Is there anything we can do to speed the process (along)?
speed up [phrasal verb] speed up or speed up (something or someone) or speed (something or someone) up : to become faster or to make (something or someone) faster ▪ I hate it when cars speed up [=accelerate] while you're trying to pass them. ▪ The work has been slow so far but it should speed up soon. ▪ They add another chemical to the photo developer to speed up the process. ▪ I'm afraid there's nothing you can do to speed things up. ▪ They're working too slowly. How can we speed them up? — see also SPEEDUP

speed•boat /ˈspi:dˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a motorboat that can go very fast

speed bump noun, pl ~ bumps [count] : a low raised ridge across a road or parking lot that causes people to drive more slowly — called also (Brit) speed hump speed demon noun, pl ~ -mons [count] chiefly US, informal : someone or something that moves or works very fast ▪ The new cook is a regular speed demon. ▪ This computer is a real speed demon compared with/to my old computer.

speed dial noun [noncount] chiefly US : a feature on some telephones that allows a person to call certain phone numbers quickly by pressing only one button ▪ a phone with speed dial ▪ I have you on speed dial. = I have your number on speed dial.
– speed–dial verb -dials; -dialed; -dialing [+ obj] chiefly US ▪ I've added your number to my phone so I can speed-dial you now.

speed•er /ˈspi:dɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who drives faster than the legal speed limit ▪ The cops were out ticketing speeders yesterday.

speed hump noun, pl ~ humps [count] Brit : SPEED BUMP speeding noun [noncount] : the offense of driving faster than the legal speed limit ▪ I got a ticket for speeding.

speeding ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a piece of paper that a police officer gives to someone who was driving too fast and that indicates a fine that the driver will have to pay ▪ I got a speeding ticket and a $150 fine.

speed limit noun, pl ~ -its [count] : the highest speed at which you are allowed to drive on a particular road ▪ The speed limit here is 55 mph. ▪ She got a ticket for breaking/exceeding the speed limit.

speed•om•e•ter /spɪˈdɑ:mətɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : an instrument in a car, truck, etc., that indicates how fast the vehicle is going — called also (Brit) speedo /ˈspi:doʊ/; see picture at CAR; compare ODOMETER, TACHOMETER speed–read•ing /ˈspi:dˌri:dɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a method of reading something very quickly – speed–read verb -reads; -read; -reading [+ obj] ▪ I speed-read the book in one night.

speed skating noun [noncount] : the sport of racing on ice skates – speed skater noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

speed•ster /ˈspi:dstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count] : someone or something that moves or works very fast ▪ She drives a sporty little speedster. ▪ The team has a couple of talented speedsters.

speed trap noun, pl ~ traps [count] : an area of road where police hide from drivers and use special equipment to catch people who are driving too fast speed•up /ˈspi:dˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups : an increase in the speed or rate of something [count] — usually singular ▪ Economists are worried about a possible speedup in/of inflation. [noncount] I'd like to see some speedup in the selection process. — see also speed up at [2]SPEED

speed•way /ˈspi:dˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways
1 [count] chiefly US : a track where cars or motorcycles race
2 [noncount] Brit : the sport of racing motorcycles on a special track speedy /ˈspi:di/ adj speed•i•er; -est

1 : moving or able to move quickly : fast or quick ▪ a speedy car/boat
2 : happening quickly ▪ a speedy process ▪ They wished her a speedy recovery.
– speed•i•ly /ˈspi:dəli/ adv ▪ They worked speedily and efficiently. ▪ We must move speedily to address the problem.
– speed•i•ness /ˈspi:dinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]spell /ˈspɛl/ verb spells; spelled or chiefly Brit spelt /ˈspɛlt/; spell•ing chiefly US
1 a : to say, write, or print the letters of (a word or name) [+ obj] How do you spell your last name? ▪ You spelled "catastrophe" wrong. ▪ "Foggy" is spelled with two g's. — sometimes + out ▪ Please spell out your full name. [no obj] He doesn't spell very well. b [+ obj] — used to indicate the letters that form a particular word ▪ S-O-N spells "son."
2 [+ obj] : to have or lead to (a particular result or effect) ▪ Her boss's resignation spelled the end to her troubles. [=her troubles ended when her boss resigned] ▪ The amount of planning you do could spell [=mean] the difference between success and failure. ▪ Their carelessness could spell trouble/disaster for all of us.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 145 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

spell out [phrasal verb] spell (something) out or spell out (something) 1 : to explain the details of (something) clearly ▪ The contract spelled out the terms of his employment. ▪ She didn't get the hint, so he had to spell it out for her. 2 : to write out (something) in complete words instead of using a number, an abbreviation, etc. ▪ When addressing the invitations, spell out "street," "road," etc. ▪ On this line you need to spell out the dollar amount. — see also [1]SPELL 1 (above)

– compare [3]SPELL

[2]spell noun, pl spells

1 [count] a : a group of secret words that are believed to have magic power ▪ He said a magic spell of protection. b : magic that is performed by saying a group of secret words ▪ In the story, the witch casts a spell on/over the children. ▪ Drinking the potion will break the spell. [=end the magic] ▪ She felt like she was under a spell. [=affected by magic]

2 [singular] : a quality that attracts or influences someone or something in a powerful or seemingly magical way ▪ The sound of the phone ringing broke the spell of the music. ▪ Many people think she has fallen under his spell, but I think she knows what she's doing.

– compare [4]SPELL

[3]spell verb spells; spelled; spell•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to take the place of (another person who has been working or doing something for a period of time) : to take over for (someone) ▪ When they're taking care of their grandson, they spell [=relieve] each other throughout the day. — compare [1]SPELL

[4]spell noun, pl spells [count]

1 : a short period of time usually marked by a particular activity or condition ▪ a dizzy/fainting spell ▪ I'm tired and need to sit down for a spell. ▪ It looks like we're in for a spell of rainy weather. ▪ The flowers died during a dry/cold spell. [=a period of dry/cold weather]

2 : a period spent doing a job or duty ▪ After a spell as an editor she went back to teaching.

– compare [2]SPELL

spell•bind•ing /'spɛlˌbaɪndɪŋ/ adj : holding your attention completely : extremely interesting, entertaining, etc. ▪ I found her performance spellbinding. [=fascinating, riveting] ▪ He's a spellbinding speaker.

spell•bound /'spɛlˌbaʊnd/ adj : giving all of your attention and interest to something or someone ▪ The children were spellbound by the puppet show. ▪ She's a storyteller that will hold/keep you spellbound.

spell–check /'spɛlˌʧɛk/ verb -checks; -checked; -check•ing [+ obj] : to use a computer program (called a spell-checker) to find and correct spelling errors in (something you have written) ▪ I spell-checked my homework.

spell–check•er /'spɛlˌʧɛkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a computer program that finds and corrects misspelled words in documents, e-mail, etc. — called also spell-check, spelling checker spell•er /'spɛlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who spells words in a particular way ▪ She is a bad/good speller. [=she is bad/good at spelling words]

spell•ing /'spɛlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the act of forming of words from letters ▪ He's very good at spelling. = His spelling is very good. [=he spells words correctly] — often used before another noun ▪ Make sure there are no spelling mistakes/errors in the application. ▪ The students have a spelling test every Friday.

2 [count] : the way in which a word is correctly spelled ▪ The American spelling is "color" while the British spelling is "colour." ▪ The words "made" and "maid" sound alike but have different spellings.

spelling bee noun, pl ~ bees [count] chiefly US : a contest in which contestants spell words aloud and are removed from the contest when they spell a word wrong

spelling checker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : SPELL-CHECKER

spelt chiefly Brit past tense and past participle of [1]SPELL

spe•lunk•er /spɪ'lʌŋkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who explores and studies caves as a hobby — called also caver

spe•lunk•ing /spɪ'lʌŋkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US : the sport or practice of exploring or studying caves ▪ Her hobbies include hiking, biking, and spelunking. ▪ They love to go spelunking. — called also caving

spend /'spɛnd/ verb spends; spent /'spɛnt/; spend•ing

1 : to use (money) to pay for something [+ obj] I spent $30 on his birthday gift. ▪ They spend a lot on clothes and cars. ▪ I want to buy a new car, but I don't have much money to spend. ▪ This computer wasn't cheap, but it was money well spent. [=it was worth its price] [no obj] Her willingness to spend freely made her popular among her friends. ▪ He spends lavishly on vacations.

2 [+ obj] : to allow (time) to pass in a particular place or while doing a particular activity ▪ I spent my summer at the beach. ▪ She spent eight months living in New York City. ▪ Relaxing with friends is a great way to spend a weekend. ▪ Our cat spends most of his time sleeping. ▪ Too much of my time is spent arguing with customers.

3 [+ obj] : to use (energy or effort) to do something ▪ She spends far too much energy worrying about her daughter. ▪ I wish he spent as much (of his) effort/energy on studying as he does on video games. ▪ Our energy/effort(s) would be better spent (in) solving the problem rather than just complaining about it.

spend the night ✧ If you sleep at a place for a night, you spend the night there. ▪ After the party she was too drunk to drive so she spent the night. ▪ They spent the night at her brother's. If you spend the night with someone, or if you and someone else spend the night together, you stay with someone overnight and have sex with that person. ▪ We spent the night together. ▪ I spent the night with her/him.

spend•er /'spɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who spends money ▪ The restaurant gives the big spenders [=people who spend lots of money] special treatment.

spending noun [noncount] : the money that is spent especially by a government or organization ▪ government/federal/public spending ▪ They have proposed cuts in military/defense spending.

spending money noun [noncount] : extra money that you can spend on whatever you want ▪ She earned spending money at an after-school job.

spend•thrift /'spɛndˌθrɪft/ noun, pl -thrifts [count] : a person who spends money in a careless or wasteful way

– spendthrift adj ▪ their spendthrift way of life

spent /'spɛnt/ adj

1 : used up and no longer useful ▪ spent nuclear fuel ▪ (chiefly Brit) He was once one of the most powerful men in the government, but now he's largely a spent force. [=he no longer has the power or influence he once had]

2 somewhat formal : tired and drained of energy ▪ By the end of the race I was completely spent. [=exhausted]

sperm /'spɚm/ noun, pl sperm also sperms biology

1 [count] : a cell that is produced by the male sexual organs and that combines with the female's egg in reproduction ▪ The sperm fertilizes the egg. ▪ a man with a low sperm count [=a man whose body produces few active sperm] — called also spermatozoon, sperm cell

2 [noncount] : fluid that is produced by the male sexual organs which contains sperm cells : SEMEN

sper•ma•to•zo•on /spəˌmætəˈzoʊˌɑːn/ noun, pl -zoa /-ˈzowə/ [count] biology : SPERM 1

sperm bank noun, pl ~ banks [count] : a place where sperm are collected, stored, and then used to help women become pregnant

sperm cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] biology : SPERM 1

sperm donor noun, pl ~ -nors [count] : a man who gives his sperm usually to a sperm bank so that it can be used to help women get pregnant

sper•mi•cide /'spɚməˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count, noncount] : a substance that is used to kill sperm in order to prevent pregnancy

– sper•mi•cid•al /ˌspɚməˈsaɪdəl/ adj ▪ a spermicidal gel sperm whale noun, pl ~ whales [count] : a type of whale that has a very large head and is hunted for its fat and oil

spew /'spju:/ verb spews; spewed; spew•ing

1 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to flow out of something in a fast and forceful way ▪ Exhaust spewed out of the car. ▪ Smoke and ashes spewed from the volcano. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to flow out in a fast and forceful way ▪ The volcano spewed hot ash. ▪ The faucet started spewing dirty water. — often used figuratively ▪ They spewed (out) an endless stream of questions. ▪ He spewed insults at his critics.

2 informal : [1]VOMIT [no obj] The dog spewed (up) all over

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 146 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

the rug. [+ obj] The dog spewed vomit on the rug.

SPF /ˌɛsˌpi:ˈɛf/ noun : a number that indicates how well a cream, lotion, etc., protects your skin from the sun [singular] a sunscreen with an SPF of 15 [noncount] a sunscreen with SPF 15 — called also sun protection factor

sphag•num /ˈsfægnəm/ noun [noncount] : PEAT MOSS

sphere /ˈsfiə/ noun, pl spheres [count]
1 a : a round object : GLOBE ▪ a glass sphere b geometry : a three-dimensional shape that looks like a ball ▪ All points on a sphere are the same distance from the center. — see picture at GEOMETRY
2 somewhat formal : an area of influence or activity ▪ Women at that time were confined to the domestic sphere. ▪ They recognize that jobs in the public/private sphere are valuable. ▪ The region has moved back and forth between Spanish and Portuguese spheres of influence. [=has been under the control or influence of Spain and Portugal at different times]

spher•i•cal /ˈsfirɪkəl, ˈsferɪkəl/ adj : having the shape of a sphere : ROUND ▪ a spherical object

spher•oid /ˈsfiəˌɔɪd, ˈsfeəˌɔɪd/ noun, pl -oids [count] technical : an object that is somewhat round but not perfectly round

sphinc•ter /ˈsfɪŋktə/ noun, pl -ters [count] medical : a ring-shaped muscle that surrounds a body opening and that can tighten to close the opening sphinx or Sphinx /ˈsfɪŋks/ noun, pl sphinx•es or Sphinx•es [count] in ancient Greek and Egyptian stories : a creature with the body of a lion and the head of a person ▪ a statue of the Sphinx; also : something (such as a statue) in the shape of a sphinx ▪ the (Great) Sphinx of Giza spic also spick /ˈspɪk/ noun, pl spics also spicks [count] US, informal + offensive : a person who is a native Spanish-speaker or whose family is from a Spanish-speaking country ✧ The word spic is very offensive. Do not use this word.

spic–and–span or spick–and–span (chiefly US) also chiefly Brit spick and span or spic and span /ˌspɪkənˈspæn/ adj : very clean and neat ▪ He keeps the house spic-and-span.

[1]spice /ˈspaɪs/ noun, pl spic•es
1 : a substance (such as pepper or nutmeg) that is used in cooking to add flavor to food and that comes from a dried plant and is usually a powder or seed [count] herbs and spices [noncount] The soup needs a little more spice. — often used before another noun ▪ a spice mix/blend ▪ a spice cake ▪ a spice rack [=a shelf, cabinet, etc., used to hold small containers of spices]
2 [noncount] : something that adds interest or excitement ▪ The elaborate costumes added a little spice [=interest] to the performance. ▪ Variety is the spice of life. [=variety makes life more interesting]

[2]spice verb spices; spiced; spic•ing [+ obj]
1 not used in progressive tenses : to flavor (food) with spices ▪ I spiced the chicken with ginger. ▪ a highly/heavily/lightly/mildly spiced dish
2 : to add interest or excitement to (something) — usually + up ▪ They looked for advice on how to spice up their living room. ▪ We need to spice up our relationship. ▪ We tried to spice things up by putting on some lively music.

spicy /ˈspaɪsi/ adj spic•i•er; -est
1 of food : flavored with or containing strong spices and especially ones that cause a burning feeling in your mouth ▪ This salsa is too spicy [=hot] for me.
2 : exciting and somewhat shocking ▪ a spicy sex scandal ▪ a spicy story/tale
– spic•i•ness /ˈspaɪsinəs/ noun [noncount]

spi•der /ˈspaɪdə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a small creature that has eight legs and usually creates a web of sticky threads in which it catches insects for food ▪ We watched the spider spin its web. — see color picture on page C10

spider monkey noun, pl ~ -keys [count] : a monkey of Central and South America that has long, thin arms and legs and a very long tail spider plant noun, pl ~ plants [count] : a plant that is often grown in people's houses and that has long narrow leaves and stems which produce smaller plants at the end

spi•der web /ˈspaɪdəˌweb/ noun, pl ~ webs [count] US : a network of sticky threads made by a spider and used as a resting place and a trap for food — called also spider's web, web; see color picture on page C10; compare COBWEB

spi•dery /ˈspaɪdəri/ adj : long and thin like the legs of a spider ▪ spidery arms and legs ▪ spidery handwriting [=writing that is long, uneven, and often difficult to read]

spiel /ˈspi:l/ noun, pl spiels [count] informal : a fast speech that someone has often said before and that is usually intended to persuade people to buy something, agree to something, etc. ▪ I listened to the salesman's spiel but still refused to buy anything. ▪ He gave me a long spiel about the benefits of joining the club.

spiff /ˈspɪf/ verb spiffs; spiffed; spiff•ing
spiff up [phrasal verb] spiff (someone or something) up or spiff up (someone or something) US, informal : to make (someone or something) neater or more attractive ▪ She wants to spiff up her wardrobe. ▪ A fresh coat of paint would really spiff the place up. ▪ The company is trying to spiff up [=improve] its image.

spiffy /ˈspɪfi/ adj spiff•i•er; -est chiefly US, informal : neat, stylish, and attractive ▪ a spiffy new uniform ▪ She looked very spiffy in her new dress.

spig•ot /ˈspɪgət/ noun, pl -ots [count]
1 : a device that controls the flow of liquid from a large container ▪ the spigot on a beer keg — called also tap
2 US : FAUCET; especially : an outdoor faucet ▪ Hook the hose up to the spigot behind the house.

[1]spike /ˈspaɪk/ noun, pl spikes
1 [count] : a long, thin rod that ends in a point and is often made of metal ▪ There are spikes on top of the fence. ▪ The climbers drove metal spikes into the ice. ▪ a railroad spike [=a large nail used to attach rails to railroad ties]
2 [count] : a sudden, rapid increase in something ▪ There's been a spike in traffic since the new grocery store opened. ▪ a price spike
3 a [count] : a metal point attached to the bottom of shoes worn by athletes in some sports — usually plural ▪ I need to replace the spikes on my golf shoes. b spikes [plural] : shoes with metal points attached to the bottom ▪ Baseball players usually wear spikes. ▪ a pair of spikes c spikes [plural] : women's shoes with high, thin heels ▪ She wore (a pair of) spikes. [=spike heels]
4 [count] : a long, narrow group of flowers that grow on one stem ▪ a spike of flowers = a flower spike

[2]spike verb spikes; spiked; spik•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to add alcohol or drugs to (food or drink) ▪ Someone spiked the punch at the party. — often + with ▪ They spiked the punch with tequila. ▪ The brownies were spiked with marijuana. b : to add something that gives flavor or interest to (something) — usually + with ▪ She spiked the sauce with vinegar. ▪ Her writing is spiked with sarcasm.
2 [no obj] chiefly US : to increase greatly in a short period of time ▪ The medication caused his blood pressure to spike. ▪ Oil and gas prices have spiked (upward) again.
3 [+ obj] sports a : to hit (a volleyball) sharply downward towards the ground ▪ She spiked the ball and scored the winning point. b US : to throw (a ball) sharply downward ▪ After he scored a touchdown he spiked the ball in the end zone.
4 [+ obj] : to form (something, such as hair) into spikes or points ▪ She spikes her hair.
5 [+ obj] : to pierce or cut (someone or something) with a sharp point or spike ▪ The second baseman was spiked by the runner. [=injured by the spikes on the runner's shoes]
6 [+ obj] : to prevent (something, such as a story or rumor) from being published or becoming known by many people ▪ The newspaper's editors spiked the article.
spike someone's guns Brit : to ruin an opponent's plans spiked /ˈspaɪkt/ adj : having sharp points : formed into points ▪ spiked [=spiky] hair ▪ a lizard with a spiked tail spike heel noun, pl ~ heels chiefly US

1 [count] : a very tall and thin heel on women's shoes — called also spiked heel
2 spike heels [plural] : shoes with tall, thin heels ▪ She wore (a pair of) spike heels. [=spikes]

spiky /ˈspaɪki/ adj spik•i•er; -est
1 : having sharp points : formed into points ▪ He has short, spiky [=spiked] hair. ▪ a plant with spiky leaves
2 Brit, informal : tending to become angry or annoyed easily ▪ He has a spiky personality.

[1]spill /ˈspɪl/ verb spills; chiefly US spilled /ˈspɪld/ or chiefly Brit spilt /ˈspɪlt/; spill•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something) to fall, flow, or run over the edge of a container usually in an accidental way ▪ I accidentally spilled coffee all over my new suit. ▪ Clean up the flour you spilled on the floor. ▪ a puddle of spilled water ▪ She opened her purse and spilled its contents (out) onto the table. ▪ The bag ripped open and spilled (out) its contents all over the floor. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He spilled his thoughts out to her. [=he told her his thoughts in a very free and open way] b [no obj] : to fall or flow over the edge of a container ▪ Milk spilled (out) onto the table. ▪ Water spilled over the dam. ▪ The bag ripped open and the flour spilled (out) onto the floor. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her hair spilled down her back. ▪ All his thoughts suddenly came spilling out. [=he suddenly began to express all his thoughts] 2 [no obj] : to move or spread out into a wider place or area ▪ After the movie the crowd spilled (out) into/onto the street. ▪ She opened the door and light spilled into the room. 3 [+ obj] US, informal : to tell (a secret) to someone ▪ an interviewer who gets celebrities to spill their secrets ▪ Come on, spill it. Who gave you the money?

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 147 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

cry over spilled/spilt milk see ¹CRY

spill blood see BLOOD

spill over [phrasal verb] 1 : to be completely covered or filled with something : to be overflowing with something ▪ The platter was spilling over with grapes and melon slices and cheeses. ▪ They were spilling over with happiness. [=they were very happy] 2 : to spread and begin to affect other people, areas, etc. ▪ The stress at work began to spill over into other aspects of his life. — see also SPILLOVER spill the beans see BEAN

spill your guts see ¹GUT

²spill noun, pl spills [count]

1 : an accident in which liquid is spilled or an amount of liquid that is spilled ▪ Please clean up the spill on the kitchen floor. ▪ The coastline was seriously damaged by an oil spill.

2 : an accidental act of falling ▪ She was injured in a spill the last time she went riding. ▪ He took a spill [=he fell] while skiing and broke his leg.

spill•age /ˈspɪlɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es formal : an occurrence in which something is spilled accidentally [noncount] The design of this travel mug helps prevent/reduce/avoid spillage. [count] an oil spillage ▪ small leaks and spillages

spill•over /ˈspɪlˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs : something that flows out of or spreads beyond a container, space, area, etc. [count] Put a pan under the pie to catch any spillovers. ▪ We have benefited from a spillover of prosperity from neighboring states. [=the prosperity of neighboring states has spread to our state] [noncount] Nearby stores were getting some spillover from the festival. [=some people who went to the festival also visited the stores] ▪ New technology has a positive spillover effect into countless fields. — see also spill over at ¹SPILL

¹spin /ˈspɪn/ verb spins; spun /ˈspʌn/; spin•ning

1 : to turn or cause someone or something to turn around repeatedly [no obj] The Earth spins [=rotates] on its axis once a day. ▪ The car hit a patch of ice and spun into the wall. ▪ a spinning propeller ▪ He spun around [=turned around quickly] and looked at me in surprise. [+ obj] The children were spinning a top. ▪ He grabbed her and spun her around. [=he grabbed her and turned her around quickly]

2 [no obj] : to seem to be moving around in a way that makes you feel dizzy or sick ▪ I tried to stand up but the room was spinning. ▪ After the night of drinking, my head was spinning. [=I was dizzy] ▪ All of that information made my head spin. [=made me feel confused or dizzy]

3 : to draw out and twist fibers of cotton, wool, silk, etc., into yarn or thread [+ obj] She spun the silk into thread. ▪ They spun the wool into yarn. [no obj] tools used for spinning — see also SPINNING WHEEL

4 [+ obj] of insects : to form (something) by producing a fluid that quickly hardens into a thread ▪ a spider spinning its web ▪ worms spinning silk

5 [+ obj] : to tell (a story, especially a story that you create by using your imagination) ▪ He was spinning yarns [=telling stories] about his adventures in the navy. ▪ She spun a tale [=made up a story] about her car breaking down to explain why she was late.

6 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move very quickly on wheels or in a vehicle ▪ The motorcycles spun [=sped] along the country road.

7 [+ obj] : to describe (something, such as an event) in a certain way in order to influence what people think about it ▪ Both parties tried to spin the debate as a victory for their candidate. ▪ He accused the companies of spinning the results of their studies to their own benefit.

8 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to play recorded music at a party or nightclub ▪ We hired my favorite DJ to spin records/tunes/discs at the party.

spinning in his/her grave see ¹GRAVE

spin off [phrasal verb] spin off or spin (something) off or spin off (something) : to create something new (such as a new television show or company) by basing it on or taking it from something that already exists ▪ The show was so popular that it spun off a new series. [=a new series was created based on the show] ▪ The cartoon has spun off dolls and other merchandise. ▪ They spun off their specialty foods line into a separate company. ▪ The auto parts manufacturer spun off from another company. — see also SPIN-OFF

spin on your heel see ¹HEEL

spin out [phrasal verb] 1 US, of a vehicle : to slide and turn around quickly in an uncontrolled way ▪ The truck spun out on a patch of ice. ▪ He took a sharp corner too fast and spun out. 2 spin (something) out or spin out (something) chiefly Brit : to make (something) last for a very long time ▪ They're deliberately trying to spin out the debate. 3 spin out of control a : to move in a way that is not controlled ▪ The rocket spun out of control and crashed. b : to keep getting worse in a way that is hard to stop or fix ▪ Her drinking problem is spinning out of control.

spin your wheels US, informal : to stay in the same condition or position without making progress ▪ I need to look for a new job. I feel like I'm just spinning my wheels here.

²spin noun, pl spins

1 a : the act of turning around and around : an act of spinning [noncount] the direction of the Earth's spin [count] The ice-skater executed graceful jumps and spins. b : a rapid turning motion given to a ball by someone who throws or hits it [noncount] A baseball thrown with spin is harder to hit. ▪ She put spin on the ball/shot. [count] The bowler put a sideways spin on the ball. — see also BACKSPIN, TOPSPIN

2 : a certain way of describing or talking about something that is meant to influence other people's opinion of it [singular] Each author puts a new/different spin on the story. ▪ a positive/favorable spin [noncount] They claim to report the news with no spin. — see also SPIN CONTROL, SPIN DOCTOR

3 [count] informal : a short trip in a vehicle ▪ He took me for a spin in his new car. ▪ Would you like to go for a spin?

4 [count] : a condition in which an airplane is falling rapidly while turning around and around ▪ The plane went into a spin. [=tailspin] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The news of her death sent him into a spin. [=caused him to become very unhappy, to lose control of his life, etc.]

5 [singular] : a state of being mentally confused or anxious ▪ Her head was all in a spin. [=her head was spinning; she was very confused]

spi•na bi•fi•da /ˌspaɪnəˈbɪfədə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which a person's spine does not develop completely before birth and does not completely cover the spinal cord spin•ach /ˈspɪnɪʧ/ noun [noncount] : a plant with dark green leaves that are eaten as a vegetable — see color picture on page C4

spi•nal /ˈspaɪnl/ adj : of, relating to, or affecting the spine ▪ a spinal injury spinal column noun, pl ~ -umns [count] technical : BACKBONE — see picture at HUMAN spinal cord noun, pl ~ cords [count] : the large group of nerves which runs through the center of the spine and carries messages between the brain and the rest of the body spinal tap noun, pl ~ taps [count] medical : a procedure in which a needle is inserted into the spinal cord in order to take out fluid or inject medicine spin bowler noun, pl ~ -ers [count] cricket : SPINNER 3 spin control noun [noncount] : the activity of trying to control the way something (such as an important event) is described to the public in order to influence what people think about it ▪ political spin control ▪ When the defective part was recalled, the company had to do some clever spin control.

spin•dle /ˈspɪndl/ noun, pl spin•dles [count]

1 a : a thin rod or stick with pointed ends that is used in making yarn b : the long, thin pin on a spinning wheel that is used to make thread

2 : something shaped like a long, thin rod; especially : a long, thin part of a machine which turns around something or around which something turns spin•dly /ˈspɪndli/ adj spin•dli•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : long and thin and usually weak ▪ spindly legs spin doctor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] informal : a person (such as a political aide) whose job involves trying to control the way something (such as an important event) is described

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 148 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

to the public in order to influence what people think about it ▪ The spin doctors from both sides were already declaring victory for their candidates as soon as the debate ended. — called also spinner

spin–dryer also spin–drier noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a machine that partly dries washed clothes by spinning them very fast – spin–dry verb -dries; -dried; -dry•ing [+ obj] ▪ The clothes were washed and spin-dried.

spine /ˈspaɪn/ noun, pl spines

1 [count] : the row of connected bones down the middle of the back : BACKBONE ▪ This X-ray shows her spine. — see picture at HUMAN

2 [count] : a sharp, pointed part on an animal or plant ▪ Hedgehogs are covered with spines. ▪ cactus spines

3 [noncount] informal : courage or strength of character ▪ They lack the spine to do what needs to be done.

4 [count] : the part of a book to which the pages are attached ▪ Stack the books so that all the spines are facing the same way. ✧ A book's spine often has the title and author's name printed on it.

up/down your spine ✧ If something sends a chill/shiver up/down your spine or if a chill/shiver runs up/down your spine, you become frightened, thrilled, etc. ▪ Her performance of the national anthem sent a chill up my spine. [=her performance was thrilling and emotional] ▪ The very thought of what those people did sends a shiver down my spine. [=scares me] ▪ A (cold) shiver ran down my spine when I heard his voice.

spine–chill•ing /ˈspaɪnˌʧɪlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very exciting, thrilling, or frightening : SPINE-TINGLING ▪ a spine-chilling scream ▪ spine-chilling musical moments

spine•less /ˈspaɪnləs/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : lacking courage or strength ▪ a spineless coward ▪ spineless displays of cowardice

2 : having no spine or spines ▪ Jellyfish are spineless. ▪ a spineless cactus

– spine•less•ness noun [noncount]

spin•et /ˈspɪnət/ noun, pl -ets [count]

1 US a : a small piano b : a small electric organ

2 : a small harpsichord

spine–tingling adj [more ~; most ~] : very exciting, thrilling, or frightening ▪ spine-tingling suspense ▪ a spine-tingling performance spin•na•ker /ˈspɪnɪkər/ noun, pl -kers [count] : a large triangular sail on a boat that is used when the wind is blowing from behind spin•ner /ˈspɪnə/ noun, pl -ners [count]

1 : someone or something that spins yarn or thread

2 : a small device that spins and that is used by fishermen to attract fish

3 cricket : a bowler who throws the ball so that it spins — called also spin bowler

4 : SPIN DOCTOR

spin•ney /ˈspɪni/ noun, pl -neys [count] Brit : a small group of trees spinning wheel noun, pl ~ wheels [count] : a machine that was used in the past for making yarn or thread spin–off /ˈspɪnˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]

1 : a television program, movie, book, etc., that is based on characters from another television program, movie, book, etc. ▪ a spin-off of a hit TV show ▪ The comic book is a spin-off of the movie.

2 : a new company created by a large company ▪ companies that are spin-offs of large corporations

3 : something useful that results from work done to produce something else ▪ spin-offs [=by-products] of space research — see also spin off at [1]SPIN spin•ster /ˈspɪnstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] old-fashioned + often disapproving : an unmarried woman who is past the usual age for marrying and is considered unlikely to marry — now often considered an insulting word ▪ She was afraid of becoming a spinster. ▪ my spinster aunts

– spin•ster•hood /ˈspɪnstəˌhʊd/ noun [noncount]

spiny /ˈspaɪni/ adj spin•i•er; -est : having or covered with many sharp, pointed parts ▪ a spiny fish ▪ spiny underbrush/fish

[1]spi•ral /ˈspaɪrəl/ noun, pl -rals [count]

1 : a circular curving line that goes around a central point while getting closer to or farther away from it ▪ The glider flew in a wide spiral over the field.

2 : a situation in which something continuously increases, decreases, or gets worse — usually singular ▪ an inflationary spiral [=a continuous increase in prices] ▪ a spiral of problems ▪ Gas prices continued their dizzying upward spiral. [=gas prices got higher] ▪ His drug use drove him into a downward spiral. [=his condition became worse and worse]

3 American football : a kick or throw in which the ball spins while moving through the air ▪ The quarterback threw a tight spiral to the receiver.

[2]spiral verb -rals; US -raled or Brit -ralled; US -ral•ing or Brit -ral•ling [no obj]

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move in a circle around a central point while getting closer to or farther away from it : to move in a spiral ▪ Smoke spiraled up from the chimney. ▪ Vultures spiraled [=circled] overhead. ▪ The airplane spiraled to the ground and crashed.

2 : to greatly increase, decrease, or get worse in a continuous and usually fast and uncontrolled way ▪ The unemployment rate has been spiraling upward. ▪ The stock market is spiraling downward. ▪ spiraling [=rapidly increasing] costs ▪ Let's deal with this crisis before it spirals out of control.

[3]spiral adj, always used before a noun : winding or circling around a central point and usually getting closer to or farther away from it : shaped or moving like a spiral ▪ a spiral seashell ▪ a spiral driveway spi•ral–bound /ˈspaɪrəlˌbaʊnd/ adj, of a book : having pages held together along one edge by a continuous piece of wire or plastic that passes through holes in the pages ▪ a spiral-bound notebook spiral staircase noun, pl ~ -cases [count] : a set of stairs that winds around a central post or column spire /ˈspajə/ noun, pl spires [count] : a tall, narrow, pointed structure on the top of a building ▪ church spires

– spired /ˈspajəd/ adj ▪ a twin-spired cathedral

[1]spir•it /ˈspɪrət/ noun, pl -its

1 a : the force within a person that is believed to give the body life, energy, and power [count] the spirits of my ancestors ▪ Some religions believe that the same spirit is reincarnated many times in different bodies. [noncount] Yoga is very healthy for both body and spirit. ▪ I'm sorry I can't make it to your wedding, but I'll be there in spirit. [=I will be thinking about you] b [count] : the inner quality or nature of a person ▪ He still has a curious and youthful spirit. [=he is still a curious and youthful person] ▪ We will all miss her generous spirit.

2 [count] : a person ▪ My father was a proud spirit. ▪ They are kindred spirits. [=people with similar interests or concerns] — see also FREE SPIRIT

3 a [count] : GHOST ▪ evil spirits b the Spirit : HOLY SPIRIT

4 a : a desire or determination to do something [count] His many disappointments never broke his spirit. [=never took away his desire to succeed] ▪ He has a strong fighting spirit. [noncount] She's a good athlete with a lot of skill and spirit. b [noncount] : enthusiastic loyalty ▪ The students showed their school spirit by having a rally to support the football team.

5 [singular] a : the attitude or feeling that a person has about a particular job, activity, etc. ▪ He didn't approach the work in/with the right spirit. b : a shared attitude or feeling that relates to a particular time, place, activity, etc. — often + of ▪ the spirit of the times ▪ a new spirit of cooperation ▪ the spirit of competition ▪ We all got/entered into the spirit of the holidays. ▪ You'd have more fun if you'd just relax and get into the spirit of things.

6 spirits [plural] : feelings of happiness or unhappiness ▪ Spirits were low [=people were unhappy] after our team lost again. ▪ We need to do something to lift your spirits. [=to make you feel better/happier] ▪ It's hard work, but try to keep your spirits up. [=keep a happy and positive attitude] ▪ We were all in high spirits [=happy, cheerful] after the game. ▪ She was in low spirits. [=she was unhappy] ▪ He's still in the hospital, but he's in good spirits. [=happy and positive] — see also HIGH-SPIRITED, LOW-SPIRITED

7 [noncount] : the real meaning or intention of something (such as a law) ▪ They seem to be more concerned with obeying the letter of the law than with understanding the spirit of the law. [=what was intended by the law when it was written] as/when the spirit moves you : when you feel like it : when the time is right ▪ I'll write when the spirit moves me.

8 spirits [plural] : strong alcoholic drinks : LIQUOR ▪ The store sells wines and spirits.

moving spirit see MOVING

that's the spirit informal — used to express approval of

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 149 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

someone's attitude ▪ "I know I can do it if I keep trying." "Yeah, that's the spirit!" [=that's the right attitude to have] the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak — used to say that you want to do something but you cannot because you do not have the strength or energy; often used humorously ▪ I try to get up early and exercise, though sometimes the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.

– see also SURGICAL SPIRIT, WHITE SPIRIT

[2]spirit verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj] : to carry (someone or something) away secretly ▪ The singer was spirited away in a limousine after the show. ▪ Some of the funds had been spirited away to other accounts.

spir•it•ed /ˈspirətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of courage or energy : very lively or determined ▪ We had a spirited [=lively] discussion. ▪ The team put up a spirited defense. ▪ She's a very spirited young lady. — see also HIGH-SPIRITED, LOW-SPIRITED, MEAN-SPIRITED, PUBLIC-SPIRITED

– spir•it•ed•ly adv

spir•it•less /ˈspirətləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking courage, energy, or cheerfulness ▪ a spiritless performance spirit level noun, pl ~ -vels [count] chiefly Brit : [1]LEVEL 5

[1]spir•i•tu•al /ˈspirɪʧəwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to a person's spirit ▪ Doctors must consider the emotional and spiritual needs of their patients. ▪ I'm working on my spiritual growth/development. [=the growth of my mind and spirit]

2 : of or relating to religion or religious beliefs ▪ I regularly consult our pastor about spiritual matters. ▪ an influential spiritual leader

3 : having similar values and ideas : related or joined in spirit ▪ The Romantic composers saw Beethoven as a spiritual ancestor. ▪ France will always be the spiritual home of wine lovers.

– spir•i•tu•al•ly adv ▪ She was physically and spiritually exhausted. ▪ a spiritually uplifting performance

[2]spiritual noun, pl -als [count] : a religious folk song that was sung originally by African-Americans in the southern U.S. ▪ The congregation sang hymns and spirituals.

spir•i•tu•al•ism /ˈspirɪʧəwəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a belief that the spirits of dead people can communicate with living people

– spir•i•tu•al•ist /ˈspirɪʧəwəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

spir•i•tu•al•i•ty /ˌspirɪʧəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being concerned with religion or religious matters : the quality or state of being spiritual ▪ a man of deep spirituality [=a very religious man] ▪ We studied Eastern traditions of spirituality.

[1]spit /ˈspɪt/ verb spits; spat /ˈspæt/ or chiefly US spit; spit•ting

1 a [no obj] : to force saliva from your mouth ▪ She saw him spit on the sidewalk. ▪ I scolded the child for spitting at another student. ▪ He spit/spat in my face. b [+ obj] : to force (something, such as food or liquid) from your mouth — often + out ▪ He took a taste of the soup and quickly spat/spit it out. ▪ She spit out her gum before class. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Our manager was spitting blood/venom [=was extremely angry] when he found out what had happened. ▪ I'm so angry, I could spit nails!

2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a quick and angry way ▪ She spat a few nasty remarks at him as he left. ▪ "You make me sick!" he spat.

3 [no obj] : to throw off or send out something (such as sparks or drops of fat) especially while burning or cooking ▪ The meat was spitting in the pan. ▪ The wet wood hissed and spat in the fireplace.

4 informal : to rain or snow lightly [no obj] Take your umbrella, it's spitting. ▪ a cold, spitting rain [+ obj] The sky briefly spat rain.

spit it out informal — used to tell someone to say something that he or she does not want to say or is having a hard time saying. ▪ "Come on, spit it out! What happened?"

spit up [phrasal verb] spit up or spit (something) up or spit up (something) US, informal, of babies : to vomit or throw up a usually small amount of food or liquid ▪ The baby spit up all over my blouse. ▪ The baby spat up his breakfast.

[2]spit noun [noncount]

1 : the liquid produced in your mouth : SALIVA ▪ I wiped the spit [=drool, spittle] off the baby's chin.

2 : someone who looks very much like someone else : SPITTING IMAGE ▪ She's the spit and image of her mother. = (Brit) She's the (dead) spit of her mother.

spit and vinegar US, informal : strength and energy ▪ She's 80 years old but still full of spit and vinegar.

– compare [3]SPIT

[3]spit noun, pl spits [count]

1 : a thin pointed rod or stick that is used for holding meat over a fire to cook it

2 : a narrow piece of land that goes out into a body of water ▪ a narrow spit of land

– compare [2]SPIT

spit and polish noun [noncount] informal : careful attention to making something clean and polished ▪ All the car needs is some spit and polish.

spit•ball /ˈspɪtˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] US

1 : a small piece of paper that is chewed and rolled into a ball so that it can be thrown or shot at someone ▪ The kids were shooting spitballs at each other.

2 baseball : an illegal pitch in which the ball is made wet with saliva or sweat

[1]spite /ˈspaɪt/ noun [noncount] : a desire to harm, anger, or defeat another person especially because you feel that you have been treated wrongly in some way ▪ He is jealous and full of spite. ▪ an act of spite ▪ You only denied his request out of (pure) spite.

in spite of : without being prevented by (something) : DESPITE — used to say that something happens or is true even though there is something that might prevent it from happening or being true ▪ He failed the test in spite of all his studying. ▪ She went ahead in spite of the snow. ▪ They made it on time in spite of the fact that they got a flat tire.

in spite of yourself : even though you do not want to or expect to ▪ I ended up having a good time in spite of myself.

[2]spite verb spites; spit•ed; spit•ing [+ obj] : to deliberately annoy, upset, or hurt (someone) ▪ He only did it to spite me.

cut off your nose to spite your face see [1]NOSE spite•ful /ˈspaɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a desire to harm, anger, or defeat someone : having or showing spite ▪ She's just being spiteful. ▪ a spiteful remark – spite•ful•ly adv ▪ She spitefully refused my request.

– spite•ful•ness noun [noncount] spitting distance noun [noncount] informal : a short distance ▪ Our house is within spitting distance of the park.

spitting image noun, pl ~ -ages [count] : someone who looks very much like someone else — usually singular ▪ She is the spitting image of her mother.

spit•tle /ˈspɪtl/ noun [noncount] : the liquid produced in your mouth : saliva or spit ▪ Spittle sprayed from his lips as he shouted at them.

spit•toon /spɪˈtuːn/ noun, pl -toons [count] : a container that people spit into ✧ Spittoons were common in the past but are now rare. — called also (chiefly US) cuspidor spit–up noun [noncount] US, informal : a small amount of vomit from a baby ▪ She wiped the spit-up off the baby's chin.

spiv /ˈspɪv/ noun, pl spivs [count] Brit slang, old-fashioned : a man who makes money dishonestly ▪ a smooth-talking spiv

[1]splash /ˈsplæʃ/ verb splash•es; splashed; splash•ing

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] of a liquid : to move, fall, or hit something in a noisy or messy way ▪ Water/Mud splashed everywhere. ▪ He dropped the bottle and bleach splashed onto the floor. ▪ We could hear the waves splashing against the side of the boat.

2 [+ obj] a : to cause (water or another liquid) to move in a noisy way or messy way ▪ The baby splashed the water. ▪ Don't splash water at your brother. ▪ I accidentally splashed some water on the floor. ▪ She splashed cold water on her face. b : to make (someone or something) wet with large drops of water or another liquid ▪ Don't splash your brother. ▪ We were splashed by a passing car. ▪ She splashed her face with cold water.

3 [no obj] : to move through water in a noisy and messy way ▪ The kids love splashing (around) in the pool. ▪ The dog was splashing through the waves.

4 [+ obj] : to mark (something) with patches of color or light ▪ The sunset splashed the sky with red. — often used as (be) splashed with ▪ The canvas was splashed with bold colors.

splash across/over [phrasal verb] splash (something) across/over (something) : to put (something, such as a photograph or news headline) in a place or position where it will be easily seen by many people ▪ The scandal was splashed across the front page. ▪ Her picture was splashed (all) over the news.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 150 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

splash down [phrasal verb] of a spacecraft : to land in the ocean ▪ The space capsule splashed down in the Gulf of Mexico. — see also SPLASHDOWN splash out [phrasal verb] splash out or splash out (something) or splash (something) out Brit, informal : to spend a lot of money ▪ If you really want to splash out [=splurge], let's go to dinner and a show in town. ▪ We can't afford to splash out that much money for luxuries.

[2]splash noun, pl splash•es
1 [count] a : the sound made when someone or something hits liquid or when liquid hits something — usually singular ▪ He listened to the gentle splash of the waves against the boat. ▪ We heard a splash from the pool. ▪ The bird dived into the pond with a splash. b : the movement of liquid when something hits it — usually singular ▪ There was barely a splash when the diver hit the water. ▪ I was hit by the splash when a truck drove through the puddle.
2 [count] : a mark or spot made when a liquid is splashed on something — often + of ▪ You've got splashes of mud on your pants.
3 [count] : a small area of bright color or light — + of ▪ a splash of color ▪ splashes of light on the floor
4 [singular] informal : a small amount of liquid added to a drink — usually + of ▪ coffee with just a splash of cream make a splash informal : to attract a lot of attention in an exciting way ▪ The young director is making (quite) a splash in Hollywood. ▪ The news of her arrest made a huge splash.

splash•down /ˈsplæʃˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count, noncount] : the landing of a spacecraft in the ocean — see also splash down at [1]SPLASH

splash guard noun, pl ~ guards [count] US : MUD FLAP

splashy /ˈsplæʃi/ adj splash•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a bright or exciting quality that attracts attention or is meant to attract attention ▪ bright splashy colors ▪ big, splashy movie musicals ▪ a splashy ad splat /ˈsplæt/ noun, pl splats [singular] informal : the sound made when something wet hits a surface ▪ The water balloon hit the ground and broke with a splat.

– splat verb splats; splat•ted; splat•ting [no obj] informal ▪ A bug splatted on the windshield.

[1]splat•ter /ˈsplætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [no obj] a of a liquid : to move, fall, or hit something in large drops ▪ Mud splattered everywhere when the wet dog shook himself. ▪ Rain splattered against the windows. b of something that contains liquid : to hit something and break apart ▪ A big bug splattered against the windshield of the car. ▪ The egg splattered on the floor.
2 [+ obj] a : to cause (a liquid) to move or fall in large drops ▪ You're splattering paint everywhere. b : to make (something) wet or dirty with large drops of liquid ▪ The paint splattered my clothes. — often used as (be) splattered with ▪ My clothes were splattered with paint.

[2]splatter noun, pl -ters : a mark or spot made by a large drop of liquid [count] I had paint splatters on my jeans. ▪ There were mud splatters all over the carpet. [noncount] Blood splatter was found at the crime scene.

splay /ˈspleɪ/ verb splays; splayed; splay•ing : to move (things, especially your legs, fingers, etc.) out and apart from each other [+ obj] He sat with his legs splayed apart. ▪ Her son was splayed out [=spread out, stretched out] on the couch watching TV. ▪ She splayed her fingers to show off her manicure. [no obj] His fingers splayed out over the table as he steadied himself.

spleen /ˈspliːn/ noun, pl spleens
1 [count] : an organ located near your stomach that destroys worn-out red blood cells and produces white blood cells ▪ a ruptured spleen — see picture at HUMAN
2 [noncount] literary : feelings of anger ▪ I listened patiently while she vented her spleen. [=while she expressed her angry feelings] splen•did /ˈsplɛndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very impressive and beautiful ▪ The balcony gave us a splendid [=magnificent] view of the river.
2 somewhat old-fashioned : very good : EXCELLENT ▪ We have a splendid opportunity to do something really useful. ▪ I have some splendid news. ▪ "We'll be coming out to visit over the summer." "Oh, splendid!"
– splen•did•ly adv ▪ She performed splendidly.

splen•dor (US) or Brit splen•dour /ˈsplɛndə/ noun, pl -dors
1 [noncount] : great and impressive beauty ▪ The palace had lost much of its original splendor. ▪ the splendor of nature
2 US splendors or Brit splendours [plural] : things that are very beautiful or impressive ▪ architectural splendors — often + of ▪ the splendors of the countryside

sple•net•ic /splɪˈnɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, formal : very angry and annoyed ▪ splenetic political commentators ▪ a splenetic rant

[1]splice /ˈsplaɪs/ verb splic•es; spliced; splic•ing [+ obj]
1 : to join ropes, wires, etc., by weaving or twisting them together
2 : to join (pieces of film, magnetic tape, etc.) by connecting their ends together get spliced Brit, informal : to get married ▪ So, when are you two getting spliced?
– splic•er /ˈsplaɪsə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]splice noun, pl splic•es [count] : the place where two things (such as two pieces of rope or film) have been joined by being spliced together

splice

spliff /splɪf/ noun, pl spliffs [count] Brit slang : a marijuana cigarette : JOINT splint /ˈsplɪnt/ noun, pl splints [count] : a piece of wood, metal, plastic, etc., that is used to hold a broken bone in the correct position while it heals ▪ His leg was in a splint. ▪ a wrist splint

splint

[1]splin•ter /ˈsplɪntə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a thin, sharp piece of something (such as wood, glass, etc.) that has broken off a larger piece : SLIVER ▪ I got a splinter in my finger. ▪ There were splinters of glass everywhere.
– splin•tery /ˈsplɪntəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ planks of splintery wood

[2]splinter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 : to break (something) into small pieces or splinters [no obj] The board splintered under his weight. [+ obj] The impact of the crash splintered the glass.
2 : to divide or split a group of people into smaller groups [no obj] groups that have splintered off to form new political movements [+ obj] a political party that has been splintered by disagreements – splintered adj ▪ a splintered tree stump splinter group noun, pl ~ groups [count] : a group of people that has separated from a larger group (such as a political party)

[1]split /splɪt/ verb splits; split; split•ting
1 : to break apart or into pieces especially along a straight line [no obj] The board split in two. ▪ The floorboards are starting to warp and split (up). ▪ The hull of the ship split apart on the rocks. ▪ A large chunk of ice split off/away from the iceberg and crashed into the water. [+ obj] split (up) a log ▪ She split the muffin and gave me half.
2 a : to separate or divide into parts or groups [no obj] The class split into several small groups. ▪ Two of the band members split off to form their own band. — often + up ▪ Let's split up and look for the lost dog. [+ obj] The teacher split the class into groups. ▪ The river splits the town in two. — often + up ▪ Families were often split up during the war. b : to separate or divide into groups that disagree [no obj] The party is split over/on the issue of taxes. ▪ The church split into moderate and conservative factions. [+ obj] The budget issue has split (up) the town. ▪ Opinion is split on the wording of the new law.
3 [+ obj] : to divide (something, such as money or food) among two or more people or things ▪ We should split [=share] the costs. ▪ Why don't we just split a pizza for dinner? ▪ She splits her time between Boston and New York. [=she spends time in both Boston and New York] ▪ The prize money should be split (up) evenly.
4 : to cut, rip, or tear (something) especially along a straight line [+ obj] I split my lip when I fell. ▪ He bent over and split the seat of his pants. [no obj] His pants split when he bent over.
5 informal : to end or cause the end of a relationship [no obj] My parents split when I was little. — usually + up ▪ The band split up just after they released their new album. [+ obj] — + up ▪ Creative differences eventually split up the band.
6 [no obj] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to leave

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 151 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s quickly ▪ "Let's split!" [=let's get out of here] split hairs see HAIR split on [phrasal verb] split on (someone) Brit, informal : to give information about the secret or criminal activity of (someone) to the police ▪ He would never split on [=(US) inform on] his chums.

split the difference : to agree to an amount that is halfway between two given amounts ▪ He thought I should pay $40 and I thought I should pay $30, so we decided to split the difference at $35.
split the ticket US : to vote for candidates from more than one political party — see also SPLIT TICKET split your sides (laughing) informal : to laugh very hard ▪ The movie was hilarious. I (almost) split my sides laughing.

[2]split noun, pl splits
1 [count] : a narrow break, tear, or crack ▪ There's a split down the back of your jacket.
2 [count] : a division or separation in a group that is caused by a disagreement ▪ The new policy has caused a split in the organization. ▪ a split between liberals and conservatives
3 [count] : a clear separation or difference between two or more things ▪ a wide split of opinions
4 [singular] a : a part of something that has been divided ▪ Here's your split [=portion, share] of the proceeds. b : the act of dividing something among two or more people or things ▪ We agreed to a fifty-fifty split of the profit. [=we agreed to divide the profits equally]
5 [count] : a position in which you are sitting on the floor with your legs extended in a straight line and in opposite directions ▪ The ballerina did a split. = The ballerina did the splits.
– see also BANANA SPLIT

split ends noun [plural] : hairs that have become dry or damaged and have split apart at the end ▪ She has split ends. ▪ You should trim off your split ends.

split–ngered fastball noun, pl ~ -balls [count] baseball : a fast pitch that drops quickly as it nears the batter — called also split-finger, splitter

split in nitive noun, pl ~ -tives [count] grammar : an English phrase in which an adverb or other word is placed between to and a verb ▪ "To really start" is an example of a split infinitive. ✧ Some people feel that the use of split infinitives should be avoided, but they are common in both speech and writing.

split–lev•el /ˈsplɪtˈlɛvəl/ adj : divided so that the floor in one part is about halfway between two floors in the other part ▪ a split-level house – split–lev•el /ˈsplɪtˌlɛvəl/ noun, pl -levels [count] US ▪ They bought a nice split-level in a quiet neighborhood.

split pea noun, pl ~ peas [count] : a dried pea that has had the outer skin removed and that is split into two parts ▪ split pea soup split personality noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : a condition in which a person behaves in two very different ways at different times — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a city with a split personality split second noun [singular] : a very short period of time ▪ In a split second, it was all over.

split–second adj, always used before a noun
1 : done very quickly ▪ a split-second decision
2 : very accurate or precise ▪ split-second timing

split•ter /ˈsplɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 : a device that divides or splits something (such as wood or electronic signals) ▪ a log splitter ▪ a three-way phone line splitter
2 baseball : SPLIT-FINGERED FASTBALL

split ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] US : a ballot on which a voter votes for candidates from more than one political party splitting headache noun, pl ~ -aches [count] : a very bad headache

splodge /ˈsplɑːʤ/ noun, pl splodg•es [count] Brit, informal : SPLOTCH ▪ a splodge of ink

splotch /ˈsplɑːʧ/ noun, pl splotch•es [count] chiefly US : a large spot or mark of dirt, paint, etc. ▪ There's an ink splotch [=(Brit) splodge] on your shirt. ▪ splotches of ink/rust
– splotched /ˈsplɑːʧt/ adj ▪ Her pants were splotched with paint. [=there were splotches of paint on her pants] – splotchy /ˈsplɑːʧi/ adj splotch•i•er; -est ▪ splotchy skin splurge /ˈsplɚʤ/ verb splurg•es; splurged; splurg•ing [no obj] informal : to spend more money than usual on something for yourself ▪ You should let yourself splurge once in a while. — often + on ▪ We decided to splurge on a bottle of good wine for dinner.

– splurge noun, pl splurges [count] informal — usually singular ▪ She went on a shopping splurge. [=spree] ▪ This year's big splurge [=expensive purchase] was a new car.

splut•ter /ˈsplʌtɚ/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a series of short, loud noises like the noises of someone who is struggling to breathe ▪ She coughed and spluttered as she climbed out of the icy water. ▪ The old lawn mower spluttered [=sputtered] to life. [=noisily started working]
2 : to say (something) in short, confused phrases [no obj] When I demanded an explanation, he just stood there spluttering. [+ obj] She spluttered an excuse. ▪ "Th-that's simply not true," he spluttered.
– splutter noun, pl -ters [count]

[1]spoil /ˈspojəl/ verb spoils; spoiled or chiefly Brit spoilt /ˈspojəlt/; spoil•ing
1 [+ obj] : to have a bad effect on (something) : to damage or ruin (something) ▪ The fight spoiled the party. ▪ The camping trip was spoiled by bad weather. ▪ Don't let one mistake spoil your day. ▪ He always spoils everything. ▪ Don't spoil your appetite by snacking too much. ▪ Exposure to air will spoil the wine. ▪ I spoiled the sauce by adding too much garlic.
2 [no obj] : to decay or lose freshness especially because of being kept too long ▪ The milk/fruit was beginning to spoil. synonyms see [1]DECAY
3 [+ obj] disapproving a : to give (someone, such as a child) everything that he or she wants : to have a bad effect on (someone) by allowing too many things or by not correcting bad behavior ▪ Her grandparents spoil her. — often used as (be) spoiled ▪ He was spoiled by his parents. ▪ a spoiled brat ▪ That child is spoiled rotten. [=very spoiled] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We've been spoiled lately by/with this beautiful weather. [=we've had so much beautiful weather that we expect the weather always to be beautiful] ▪ (Brit) Customers are spoiled/spoilt for choice [=customers have a lot of choices] when buying a new car. b : to treat (someone) very well ▪ The hotel spoils their guests with fine dining and excellent service. ▪ She always spoils me on my birthday. ▪ You should spoil yourself with a day at the spa.
(be) spoiling for : to have a strong desire for (something, such as a fight) ▪ They are spoiling for a fight/argument. ▪ The team is spoiling for a rematch.

[2]spoil noun, pl spoils [count] formal
1 : something stolen or taken by thieves, soldiers, etc. — usually plural; usually used with the ▪ The pirates divided the spoils among themselves. ▪ the spoils of war
2 : something valuable or desirable that someone gets by working or trying hard — usually plural; usually used with the ▪ We shared the spoils of victory. ▪ the spoils of success spoil•age /ˈspoɪlɪʤ/ noun [noncount] technical : the process or result of decaying ▪ food spoilage ▪ The milk should be refrigerated to prevent spoilage.

spoil•er /ˈspoɪlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or thing that spoils something: such as a : a political candidate who cannot win but who prevents another candidate from winning by taking away votes b chiefly US : a person or team that surprisingly defeats a competitor that is expected to win ▪ They played (the role of) the spoiler and ruined our chance to play in the finals. c : information about the things that happen in a movie, book, etc., that spoils the surprise or suspense for someone who has not seen it or read it yet ▪ The review contains a few spoilers, so don't read it if you haven't seen the movie.
2 a : a long narrow part on the back of an automobile that prevents it from lifting off the road at high speeds b : a part of an airplane's wing that may be raised to control the amount of lift produced by the wing spoil•sport /ˈspojəlˌspoɚt/ noun, pl -sports [count] informal : someone who spoils other people's fun or enjoyment ▪ Oh, don't be a spoilsport. Let them try it. ▪ Dad's a spoilsport. He won't let us play football.

spoilt chiefly Brit spelling of [1]SPOIL

[1]spoke past tense of SPEAK

[2]spoke noun, pl spokes [count] : one of the bars that connect the center of a wheel to the rim ▪ The stick got caught in the wheel's spokes. — see picture at BICYCLE

[1]spo•ken /ˈspoʊkən/ past participle of SPEAK

[2]spoken adj
1 : using speech and not writing ▪ a spoken statement ▪ the spoken word/language

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 152 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : speaking in a specified manner — used in combination ▪ She is soft-spoken. ▪ a plain*spoken* man [=a man who speaks plainly] — see also WELL-SPOKEN

spokes•man /ˈspoʊksmən/ noun, pl -men /ˈspoʊksmən/ [count] : someone who speaks for or represents a person, company, etc. ▪ A White House spokesman answered questions from the reporters. — often + for ▪ a spokesman for the musician/company ▪ The success of his books has made him a spokesman for his generation. ▪ a spokesman for AIDS awareness spokes•per•son /ˈspoʊksˌpɚsn̩/ noun, pl spokes•peo•ple /ˈspoʊksˌpi:pəl/ [count] : a man or woman who speaks for or represents someone or something ▪ a statement from the company's spokesperson spokes•wom•an /ˈspoʊksˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /ˈspoʊksˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who speaks for or represents someone or something ▪ The company's spokeswoman addressed the reporters.

[1]sponge /ˈspʌnʤ/ noun, pl spong•es

1 [count] : a piece of light natural or artificial material that becomes soft when it is wet, is able to take in and hold liquid, and is used for washing or cleaning ▪ a kitchen sponge — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His mind is (like) a sponge. [=he remembers a lot of information easily] — see picture at KITCHEN

2 [count] : a type of sea animal from which natural sponges are made

3 [count, noncount] Brit : SPONGE CAKE ▪ a slice of sponge

4 [count] informal + disapproving : someone who gets something from someone else without doing or paying anything in return : SPONGER ▪ He's a lazy sponge.

5 [count] : a device like a sponge that is used by women to prevent pregnancy ▪ a contraceptive sponge

[2]sponge verb sponges; sponged; spong•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to clean or wipe (something) with a sponge ▪ He sponged the table. ▪ She sponged up the spilt milk. ▪ He sponged off his face. ▪ She sponged the dirt off her shirt. b : to put (paint) on a surface with a sponge ▪ She sponged the paint on the walls. = She sponged the walls.

2 informal + disapproving : to get money, food, etc., from (someone) without doing or paying anything in return [+ obj] She always sponges meals from us. [no obj] — often + off ▪ She lives at home and sponges off her parents.

sponge bath noun, pl ~ baths [count] US : a bath in which someone or something is not placed in water but is cleaned with a wet, soapy sponge or cloth ▪ The nurse gave him a sponge bath.

sponge cake noun, pl ~ cakes : a very light cake made with flour, eggs, and sugar [count] a lemon sponge cake [noncount] layers of sponge cake

spong•er /ˈspʌnʤɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal + disapproving : someone who gets money, food, etc., from someone else without doing or paying anything in return ▪ Her brother's a lazy sponger.

spongy /ˈspʌnʤi/ adj spong•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : soft and full of holes or water : resembling a sponge ▪ spongy bread ▪ The ground was spongy.
– spong•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]spon•sor /ˈspɑ:nsɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count]

1 a : a person or organization that pays the cost of an activity or event (such as a radio or television program, sports event, concert, etc.) in return for the right to advertise during the activity or event ▪ Our company is a sponsor of the race. ▪ corporate sponsors b : a person or organization that gives someone money for participating in a charity event (such as a walk or race) ▪ I have over 50 sponsors for next week's race. c : an organization that gives money to an athlete for training, clothes, equipment, etc., in return for the right to use the athlete for advertising ▪ Her sponsors include a major sneaker company.

2 a : someone who takes the responsibility for someone or something ▪ He agreed to be my sponsor so that I could join the club. ▪ The senator is a sponsor of the proposed bill. b : a person who teaches and guides someone in religious or spiritual matters ▪ She was my sponsor at my confirmation. [=she helped to prepare me for my confirmation]

[2]sponsor verb -sors; -sored; -sor•ing [+ obj] : to be a sponsor for (something or someone) ▪ The radio station sponsored the concert. ▪ The tournament is sponsored by local businesses. ▪ Will you sponsor me for the charity race? ▪ He sponsored me at my confirmation. ▪ She sponsored the new tax bill. ▪ sponsored events — sometimes used in combination ▪ a state-sponsored study ▪ government-sponsored programs

spon•sor•ship /ˈspɑ:nsɚˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships

1 : an arrangement in which a sponsor agrees to give money to someone or something [noncount] You cannot race without sponsorship. ▪ He receives millions of dollars in sponsorship. ▪ sponsorship deals [count] She has a sponsorship from the sneaker company. ▪ corporate sponsorships

2 [noncount] : the act of sponsoring someone or something — often + of ▪ The group protested the tobacco company's sponsorship of the tournament.

spon•ta•ne•i•ty /ˌspɑ:ntəˈneiəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being spontaneous ▪ the spontaneity of their behavior ▪ She liked his spontaneity.

spon•ta•ne•ous /spɑnˈteɪnijəs/ adj

1 : done or said in a natural and often sudden way and without a lot of thought or planning ▪ spontaneous laughter ▪ a spontaneous kiss/decision ▪ The comment was completely spontaneous.

2 [more ~; most ~] : doing things that have not been planned but that seem enjoyable and worth doing at a particular time ▪ He's a guy who's spontaneous and fun.
– spon•ta•ne•ous•ly adv ▪ He laughed spontaneously. ▪ She acted spontaneously. ▪ They spontaneously decided to go to the beach.

spontaneous combustion noun [noncount] technical : burning that is caused by chemical actions inside of something rather than by heat from the outside spoof /ˈspu:f/ noun, pl spoofs [count] : a humorous movie, book, play, etc., that copies something in a silly and exaggerated way ▪ a Shakespearean spoof — often + of or on ▪ a spoof of horror films ▪ a spoof on Shakespeare's play – spoof verb spoofs; spoofed; spoof•ing [+ obj] ▪ The movie spoofs horror films.

[1]spook /ˈspu:k/ noun, pl spooks [count] informal

1 : [1]GHOST 1 ▪ scary spooks

2 chiefly US : [1]SPY 1 ▪ a CIA spook

[2]spook verb spooks; spooked; spook•ing chiefly US, informal

1 [+ obj] : to scare or frighten (a person or animal) ▪ The noise spooked the cat. ▪ The little girl was spooked by scary masks.

2 [no obj] : to become frightened ▪ She doesn't spook easily. — usually used of an animal ▪ The horse spooked and ran away.

spooky /ˈspu:ki/ adj spook•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : strange and frightening ▪ a spooky movie ▪ The music was pretty spooky. ▪ a spooky old house ▪ He looks spooky. = He's spooky looking. ▪ a spooky coincidence [=a very strange coincidence that makes you feel uneasy]

spool /ˈspu:l/ noun, pl spools [count] : a round object that is made to have something (such as thread, wire, or tape) wrapped around it ▪ a spool of film ▪ (US) a spool of thread [=(Brit) a cotton reel] — see picture at SEWING

[1]spoon /ˈspu:n/ noun, pl spoons [count]

1 : an eating or cooking tool that has a small shallow bowl attached to a handle ▪ a wooden spoon — see picture at PLACE SETTING; see also TABLESPOON, TEASPOON

2 : SPOONFUL — often + of ▪ two spoons of sugar

born with a silver spoon in your mouth see BORN

– see also GREASY SPOON

[2]spoon verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition spoons; spooned; spoon•ing [+ obj] : to move or pick up (food) with a spoon ▪ She spooned the gravy onto her potatoes. ▪ He spooned the ice cream into a bowl.

spoo•ner•ism /ˈspu:nəˌrɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] : a humorous mistake in which a speaker switches the first sounds of two or more words ▪ the spoonerism "tons of soil" for "sons of toil"

spoon–feed /ˈspu:nˌfi:d/ verb -feeds; -fed /-ˌfɛd/; -feed•ing [+ obj]

1 : to feed (someone) with a spoon ▪ She spoon-fed the baby.

2 disapproving : to give someone information in a way that requires or allows no further thinking or effort ▪ The material was spoon-fed to the students. ▪ The students are being spoon-fed facts and dates without having any opportunity for discussion. ▪ Misleading facts about the war are being spoon-fed to the public.

spoon•ful /ˈspu:nˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] : as much as a spoon can hold — often + of ▪ one spoonful of sugar

spo•rad•ic /spəˈrædɪk/ adj : happening often but not regu-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 153 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

larly : not constant or steady ▪ Sporadic cases of the disease were reported. ▪ sporadic [=intermittent] gunfire/fighting
– spo•rad•i•cal•ly /spəˈrædɪkli/ adv ▪ The gunfire was heard sporadically. [=intermittently] ▪ Occurrences of the disease were sporadically reported.

spore /ˈspoə/ noun, pl spores [count] biology : a cell made by some plants that is like a seed and can produce a new plant ▪ mold spores

[1]sport /ˈspoət/ noun, pl sports
1 a [count] : a contest or game in which people do certain physical activities according to a specific set of rules and compete against each other ▪ My favorite (competitive) sports are tennis and volleyball. ▪ the sport of boxing ▪ Do you play a sport? = Do you play any sports? ▪ Baseball is a team sport. [=a sport played by teams] — often used in the plural especially in U.S. English to refer to sports in a general way ▪ My brother likes sports. [=he enjoys playing and/or watching games such as football, baseball, basketball, golf, etc.] ▪ I like watching sports on TV. ▪ She likes to play sports. — see also SPECTATOR SPORT, WINTER SPORT b [noncount] Brit : sports in general ▪ He's not interested in sport. [=(US) sports] ▪ She likes to play sport.
2 : a physical activity (such as hunting, fishing, running, swimming, etc.) that is done for enjoyment [count] Ice-skating with friends is my favorite sport. [noncount] He hunts and fishes for sport. [=he hunts and fishes because he enjoys it and not as a job or because he needs food for survival] — see also BLOOD SPORT
3 [count] a — used with good, bad, etc., to say if someone has behaved politely or not after losing a game or contest ▪ He lost but he was a good sport about it. [=he was not rude or angry about losing] ▪ Don't be a poor/bad sport. [=don't be angry or rude if you lose] b informal + old-fashioned : someone who is kind or generous ▪ Be a (good) sport and let him play with you. c informal + old-fashioned — used as a friendly way to address someone (especially a man) ▪ See you later, sport. ▪ Hey, sport [=buddy]. Can you tell me where the nearest gas station is?
in sport somewhat formal + old-fashioned : in a joking way : in a way that is not serious ▪ Don't take offense. I was only saying it in sport. [=in fun] make sport of somewhat formal + old-fashioned : to laugh at and make jokes about (someone or something) in an unkind way ▪ They made sport of [=made fun of] the way he talked.

[2]sport adj, always used before a noun
1 : done for enjoyment rather than as a job or for food for survival ▪ sport fishing/hunting
2 chiefly US : participating in an activity (such as hunting or fishing) for enjoyment rather than as a job or for food for survival ▪ a sport fisherman — compare SPORTS

[3]sport verb sports; sport•ed; sport•ing
1 [+ obj] : to wear (something) in a way that attracts attention ▪ She showed up at the party sporting a bright red hat.
2 [no obj] literary : to play in a happy and lively way ▪ The lambs sported [=frolicked] in the meadow.

sport coat noun, pl ~ coats [count] US : a man's coat that is like the top part of a suit but is less formal — called also sports coat, sports jacket, (US) sport jacket; see color picture on page C15

sport•ing /ˈspoətɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of, relating to, or used in sports ▪ sporting events ▪ sporting dogs ▪ (US) a store that sells sporting goods = a sporting goods store
2 : fairly good — used in the phrase a sporting chance ▪ There is a sporting chance that your plan will work. ▪ He may not win, but he should at least be given a sporting chance [=a fair chance] to succeed.
3 [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : done or behaving in a way that treats the other people in a sport or competition fairly ▪ It wasn't very sporting of you to trip him. ▪ a sporting gesture [=a gesture that shows good sportsmanship] — opposite UNSPORTING

sport of kings noun
the sport of kings somewhat old-fashioned : the sport of racing horses : HORSERACING

sports /ˈspoəts/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or suitable for sports ▪ a sports team/fan ▪ a sports center ▪ the sports section/pages of the newspaper ▪ sports equipment/facilities ▪ a sports bra — compare [2]SPORT

sports bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] US : a bar that has televisions for watching sports and is decorated with sports items

sports car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : a low, small car that seats two people and that is made for fast driving — see picture at CAR

sports•cast /ˈspoətsˌkæst, Brit ˈspɔːtsˌkɑːst/ noun, pl -casts [count] US : a television or radio broadcast of a sports event or of news about sports

sports•cast•er /ˈspoətsˌkæstə, Brit ˈspɔːtsˌkɑːstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : someone who describes the action of a sports event or gives news about sports during a sportscast

sports coat noun, pl ~ coats [count] : SPORT COAT

sports day noun, pl ~ days [count] Brit : FIELD DAY

sport shirt noun, pl ~ shirts [count] US : an informal shirt; especially : POLO SHIRT — called also sports shirt

sports jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : SPORT COAT

sports•man /ˈspoətsmən/ noun, pl sports•men /ˈspoətsmən/ [count]
1 US : a man who participates in outdoor activities like hunting and fishing
2 chiefly Brit : a man who participates in sports ▪ a champion sportsman [=athlete] ▪ He was a keen sportsman all his life.

sports•man•like /ˈspoətsmənˌlaɪk/ adj : fair, respectful, and polite toward other players when participating in a sport : showing sportsmanship ▪ She is always sportsmanlike when she plays. ▪ sportsmanlike behavior — opposite UNSPORTSMANLIKE sports•man•ship /ˈspoətsmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : fair play, respect for opponents, and polite behavior by someone who is competing in a sport or other competition ▪ He's a great player who's also admired for his sportsmanship. ▪ She showed good/bad/poor sportsmanship.

sports medicine noun [noncount] : a field of medicine that relates to the prevention and treatment of injuries and other health problems that affect people who play sports

sports shirt noun, pl ~ shirts [count] : SPORT SHIRT

sports•wear /ˈspoətsˌweə/ noun [noncount]
1 : clothes that people wear for playing sports
2 chiefly US : comfortable clothes that people wear for informal activities

sports•wom•an /ˈspoətsˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who participates in sports ▪ a champion sportswoman sports•writ•er /ˈspoətsˌraɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who writes about sports for a newspaper, magazine, etc.

sport–util•i•ty vehicle /ˈspoətjuˈtɪləti-/ noun, pl ~ -hicles [count] : SUV sporty /ˈspoəti/ adj sport•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] 1 of clothing : attractive and suitable for informal wear ▪ a sporty jacket/shirt

2 of a car : having the qualities or appearance of a sports car ▪ a sporty red convertible
3 chiefly Brit : liking sports : active in and good at sports : ATHLETIC ▪ sporty children

[1]spot /ˈspɑːt/ noun, pl spots [count]
1 a : a small area of a surface that is different from other areas ▪ The wood still has some rough spots. ▪ The chair's original paint is still visible in spots. ▪ He fell through a weak spot in the ice. — often + on ▪ The dog is black with a white spot on its chest. ▪ There are wet spots on the floor. ▪ a sore spot on his hand ▪ He tries to cover up the bald spot on his head. ▪ a bruised spot on the apple — see also BEAUTY SPOT, SUNSPOT b : a small amount of a substance that is on something ▪ The tablecloth had a couple of spots. ▪ There were mud spots on the back of his pants. ▪ rust spots on the metal — often + of ▪ a spot of grease ▪ There was a tiny spot of ketchup at the corner of her mouth. ▪ There wasn't a spot of dust anywhere. c : a small mark or lump on your skin, on the surface of a plant, etc. ▪ I noticed some red spots on my arms. ▪ spots of rot on the leaf d Brit : PIMPLE ▪ a teenager with spots on his face
2 : a particular space or area : PLACE ▪ This looks like a good spot for a picnic. ▪ a sunny/shady spot ▪ a quiet spot by the river ▪ our family's favorite vacation spot ▪ We had trouble finding a parking spot. [=space] ▪ The battle happened exactly on/at this spot over 150 years ago. ▪ There are spots in the essay where the writer drifts from his argument. ▪ This is a good spot to stop the movie. — see also BLACK SPOT, HOT SPOT, NIGHTSPOT, TROUBLE SPOT, bright spot at BRIGHT
3 : a particular position in a competition, organization, program, etc. ▪ The teams are battling for the last play-off spot. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 154 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

The band deserves a better spot in the festival's lineup. ▪ The talk show has been moved to a daytime spot. ▪ He's trying out for a spot on the team. ▪ With such a large lead, the team is in a comfortable spot.

4 : an appearance on a television or radio program ▪ The host has several guest spots lined up tonight.

5 : a short announcement or advertisement on television or radio ▪ advertising spots

6 : a difficult or embarrassing position or situation — usually singular ▪ When the truth came out, they found themselves in an awful spot. [=fix, mess, predicament] ▪ You put me in a (tight) spot.

7 Brit : a small amount of something ▪ I had a spot of [=bit of] trouble putting the bicycle together. ▪ How about a spot of tennis before lunch? ▪ a spot of lunch ▪ Just a spot of brandy, please. ▪ They had a spot of bother with the Inland Revenue.

a leopard can't change its spots see LEOPARD hit the spot informal, of food or drink : to be very enjoyable or satisfying ▪ That dinner really hit the spot. [=I enjoyed that dinner very much] knock spots off Brit, informal : to be much better than (someone or something) ▪ They knock spots off the competition.

on the spot 1 : right away at the place that has been mentioned : IMMEDIATELY ▪ I offered him the job when he came for an interview, and he accepted the offer on the spot. ▪ When the boss saw him stealing, he was fired on the spot. 2 : at the place where something is happening ▪ She was on the spot reporting on the fire soon after the alarm was sounded. 3 : in a difficult or dangerous position or situation ▪ The question put me on the spot. 4 Brit : in the same location without moving forward or backward ▪ running/jogging on the spot [=(US) in place]

– see also BLIND SPOT, SOFT SPOT

[2]spot verb spots; spot•ted; spot•ting [+ obj]

1 not used in progressive tenses : to see or notice (someone or something that is difficult to see or find) ▪ She spotted a deer in the woods. ▪ He spotted a typo. ▪ Can you spot [=recognize] the difference between the pictures? ▪ The band's lead singer was recently spotted with a well-known actress.

2 US a : to give (an opponent) a specified advantage at the beginning of a race, game, etc., in order to make a competition more even ▪ They spotted us five points, and we still lost. ▪ (golf) He spotted him two strokes a hole. b informal : to lend (someone) a small amount of money ▪ I'm a little short of cash. Can you spot me five bucks?

3 American football : to put (the football) at the appropriate place on the field in preparation for the next play ▪ The official spotted the ball at the 10-yard line.

4 : to mark (something) with spots ▪ A trail of blood spotted the snow. — usually used as (be) spotted with ▪ His pants were spotted with mud. [=there were spots of mud on his pants]

[3]spot adj, always used before a noun, finance : relating to goods or shares that are paid for and delivered immediately instead of at a future time ▪ the difference between futures and spot commodities ▪ the spot price of wheat/oil ▪ the spot market ▪ spot cash [=cash paid immediately for something] spot check noun, pl ∼ checks [count] : an act of looking at a few things or people in a group in order to find possible problems ▪ Police carried out spot checks of/on cars at the border.

spot–check /ˈspɑːtˌʧɛk/ verb -checks; -checked; -check•ing : to check (something) quickly for problems especially by looking at a few things or people in a group [+ obj] He spot-checked the data for errors. ▪ Police spot-checked cars at the border. [no obj] — often + for ▪ She spot-checked for errors.

spot•less /ˈspɑːtləs/ adj : perfectly clean ▪ a spotless kitchen ▪ She keeps her room spotless. — often used figuratively ▪ He has a spotless record/reputation.

– spot•less•ly adv ▪ The house is spotlessly clean.

[1]spot•light /ˈspɑːtˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights

1 [count] a : a device that directs a narrow, bright beam of light on a small area ▪ They aimed the spotlight at the center of the stage. b : the area of light created by a spotlight ▪ A spotlight moved across the stage. ▪ The actor stood in the spotlight. ▪ performing under the spotlights

2 the spotlight : public attention or notice ▪ a baseball star who hates the spotlight ▪ They're always in the spotlight. ▪ School violence is once again under the media spotlight. [=getting a lot of attention from the media] ▪ The news article turned/put the spotlight on the city's financial problems.

[2]spotlight verb -lights; -light•ed or -lit; -light•ing [+ obj]

1 : to shine a spotlight on (someone or something) ▪ She was spotlighted as she sang her solo. ▪ a spotlit area

2 : to give special attention to (something) ▪ The news spotlighted the city's financial problems.

spot–on /ˈspɑːtˈɑːn/ adj, chiefly Brit, informal : exactly correct : completely accurate ▪ The weather forecast was spot-on. ▪ a spot-on impersonation spot•ted /ˈspɑːtəd/ adj : marked with spots ▪ a spotted cat spotted dick noun, pl ∼ dicks [count, noncount] Brit : a hot dessert that is like a moist cake made with suet and currants or raisins spot•ter /ˈspɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : someone who looks for a particular type of person or thing ▪ a trend spotter ▪ plane spotters — see also TRAINSPOTTER

2 : a person who watches and helps someone who is exercising in order to help prevent injuries ▪ When you lift weights, you should always have a spotter.

spot•ty /ˈspɑːti/ adj spot•ti•er; -est

1 chiefly US : not always good : good in some parts or at some times but not others ▪ Her work has been spotty. ▪ The service at that restaurant is a little spotty. ▪ students with spotty attendance records ▪ spotty [=inconsistent] data/results

2 : marked with spots ▪ The photograph was spotty. ▪ (Brit) a spotty [=pimply] youth spouse /ˈspaʊs/ noun, pl spous•es [count] : someone who is married : a husband or wife ▪ my brothers and sisters and their spouses

– spou•sal /ˈspaʊzəl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ spousal abuse/consent/support

[1]spout /ˈspaʊt/ verb spouts; spout•ed; spout•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to shoot out (a liquid) with force ▪ The well was spouting oil. ▪ The volcano spouted lava. b [no obj] : to flow out with force ▪ Blood spouted [=spurted] (out) from the wound.

2 : to say or talk about (something) in a way that is boring or annoying [+ obj] He started spouting poetry. — often + off ▪ He spouted off a long list of statistics to prove his point. [no obj] She kept spouting on and on about politics. — often + off ▪ I'm tired of hearing him spout off about his adventures.

[2]spout noun, pl spouts [count]

1 : a tube, pipe, or hole out of which a liquid flows ▪ Water was flowing from/down the spout. ▪ the spout of a tea kettle — see also DOWNSPOUT, WATERSPOUT

2 : a sudden strong stream of liquid ▪ a spout of water/blood

up the spout Brit, informal — used to describe something that has completely failed, been ruined, etc. ▪ The economy's up the spout. ▪ His marriage is going up the spout. [=down the drain]

sprain /ˈspreɪn/ verb sprains; sprained; sprain•ing [+ obj] : to injure (a joint) by twisting it in a sudden and painful way ▪ I fell and sprained [=twisted] my ankle/wrist. ▪ a sprained ankle — compare STRAIN

– sprain noun, pl sprains [count] ▪ My wrist isn't broken. It's just a bad sprain.

sprang past tense of [2]SPRING

sprat /ˈspræt/ noun, pl sprats [count, noncount] : a small fish that is used for food

[1]sprawl /ˈsprɑːl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition sprawls; sprawled; sprawl•ing [no obj]

1 : to lie or sit with your arms and legs spread wide apart ▪ The kids sprawled on the floor to watch TV. ▪ He sprawled (out) on the couch. ▪ One punch sent him sprawling to the floor. [=caused him to fall to the floor in a violent and uncontrolled way] ▪ She tripped and went sprawling into the table.

2 : to spread or develop in an uneven or uncontrolled way ▪ The city sprawls along the coastline. ▪ The bushes were sprawling along the road.

– sprawled adj ▪ He saw her sprawled across the bed. ▪ He was sprawled (out) in his chair. – sprawling adj ▪ a sprawling city ▪ It was hard to follow the sprawling plot of the novel.

[2]sprawl noun

1 [singular] : a group of things (such as buildings) that cover an area in an uneven and ugly way — often + of ▪ a sprawl of stores and restaurants

2 [noncount] : URBAN SPRAWL ▪ efforts to stop/prevent sprawl

[1]spray /ˈspreɪ/ noun, pl sprays

1 a [count] : liquid that is forced out of a container in a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 155 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

stream of very small drops ▪ The paint was applied in a fine spray. b : a liquid substance that is used or applied by being forced out of a container in a stream of very small drops [count] A nasal/nose spray should help you breathe better. ▪ Hand me the bug spray. [noncount] a can of hair spray — see also PEPPER SPRAY c [count] : the act of putting a liquid on something in a stream of small drops : the act of spraying something ▪ Give your hair one more spray to be sure it stays in place. ▪ a quick spray of perfume
2 [noncount] : very small drops of water moving through the air ▪ sea spray
3 [count] : a stream of liquid in the form of very small drops — often + of ▪ a spray of water/blood ▪ The car splashed a spray of mud on me. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a spray of bullets [=a number of bullets that are shot quickly] ▪ A spray of gravel hit the car.
– compare [3]SPRAY

[2]spray verb sprays; sprayed; spray•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to put a stream of small drops of liquid on (someone or something) ▪ She sprayed herself with perfume. ▪ I sprayed the plants (with a pesticide). ▪ The crops are sprayed monthly. ▪ We were sprayed by water from the crashing waves. b : to put (something) on a surface or into the air using a special container that produces a stream of small drops of liquid ▪ The boys sprayed graffiti on the wall. ▪ He sprayed the paint evenly over the surface. ▪ She sprayed some perfume into the air.
2 [no obj] : to flow out in a stream of very small drops ▪ The soda sprayed from the bottle. ▪ The blood sprayed onto the wall.
3 [+ obj] : to shoot many bullets at someone or something ▪ The gunmen sprayed the house with bullets. = The gunmen sprayed bullets into the house. ▪ They sprayed the crowd with bullets.
4 a [no obj] of a cat : to wet something (such as a bush) with urine ▪ Cats may spray to mark their territory. b [+ obj] of a skunk : to wet (an animal or person) with a liquid that has a very bad smell ▪ He was sprayed by a skunk. ▪ The skunk sprayed the dog.

[3]spray noun, pl sprays [count]
1 : a branch of a plant that usually has flowers and is used as a decoration — often + of ▪ a spray [=sprig] of apple blossoms
2 : an attractive arrangement of flowers — often + of ▪ a spray of roses
– compare [1]SPRAY

spray can noun, pl ~ cans [count] : a can that contains a liquid (such as paint) that can be sprayed spray•er /ˈsprejə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that is used for spraying a liquid on or into something ▪ a paint sprayer spray paint noun, pl ~ paints : paint that is sprayed onto a surface from a can that you can hold in one hand [noncount] a can of spray paint ▪ I used spray paint on the table. [count] Spray paints cannot be sold to children.

– spray–paint verb -paints; -paint•ed; -paint•ing [+ obj] ▪ I'm going to spray-paint the table. ▪ Graffiti was spray-painted on the wall.

[1]spread /ˈsprɛd/ verb spreads; spread; spread•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to open, arrange, or place (something) over a large area ▪ The newspaper was spread across his lap. ▪ Her notes were spread all over the desk. ▪ Help me spread the cloth on the table. — often + out ▪ He spread out the map on the table. = He spread the map out on the table. ▪ The cards were spread out across the table. ▪ The city is spread out over a wide area. [=the city covers a wide area] b : to place (things) over a large area ▪ We spread fertilizer on our yard. ▪ The seeds are spread by wind, birds, and animals.
2 a [no obj] : to become larger or to affect a larger area : to move into more places ▪ The fire spread quickly through the building. ▪ The cancer has spread to her throat. ▪ The use of computer technology has spread into all fields of work. ▪ The odor spread throughout the room. ▪ The plant will spread. [=the plant will produce more plants in the area around it] ▪ The fashion quickly spread from France to England. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be present in more places throughout a large area ▪ Flies spread diseases. ▪ Missionaries were sent to the colonies to spread Christianity. ▪ The religion was spread through/over much of Europe.
3 a [no obj] : to pass from person to person ▪ Her determination and desire to win spread to the other players. b [no obj] : to become known by many people ▪ The rumor spread quickly. ▪ The news spread like wildfire. [=the news became known very quickly] c [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become known by many people ▪ He was spreading lies/gossip/rumors about her. ▪ People are spreading the word [=telling others] about his book.
4 : to move (parts of your body) outward or away from each other [+ obj] She spread [=stretched] her arms wide and hugged him. ▪ The bird spreads its wings. ▪ Spread your fingers wide apart. — often + out ▪ Spread out your toes. = Spread your toes out. ▪ There's no room on the couch to spread yourself out. ▪ Spread your arms out. [no obj] — + out ▪ There's no room on the couch to spread out. [=stretch out]
5 [no obj] of a smile or other facial expression : to appear and slowly grow more apparent ▪ A smile slowly spread across her face. ▪ A look of disbelief spread across/over their faces.
6 [+ obj] : to put a layer of (something) on top of something else ▪ He spread butter on the bread. = He spread the bread with butter. ▪ She carefully spread the plaster over the hole. ▪ Spread the glue evenly on the paper.
7 [+ obj] : to divide up (something) over a period of time or among members of a group ▪ The payments are spread over a period of six years. ▪ You should spread the wealth. [=share your money or good fortune with others] — often + out ▪ I plan to spread the work out over the next couple of weeks. ▪ The course is spread out over two semesters.
spread out [phrasal verb] : to move apart from the other members of a group especially to search an area ▪ The police spread out [=fanned out] to search the area faster. — see also [1]SPREAD 1a, 4, 7 (above) spread your net wide see [1]NET spread your wings see [1]WING

[2]spread noun, pl spreads
1 [noncount] : growth or increase that causes something to cover a larger area, affect a larger number of people, etc. — often + of ▪ We need to slow the spread of the disease/virus. ▪ the spread of infection ▪ the spread of new technology ▪ the spread of drugs in the city ▪ the spread of civilization/religion/peace
2 : a soft food that is spread on bread, crackers, etc. [count] She offered crackers and a cheese spread. [noncount] He uses low-fat spread on his toast.
3 [count] : the total distance between the two outer edges of something — usually singular; often + of ▪ the spread of a bird's wings ▪ The plant has a spread of three feet.
4 [count] informal : a large meal — usually singular ▪ We always have a huge spread for Thanksgiving.
5 [count] : something (such as an advertisement or a series of photos) that covers two or more pages in a newspaper or magazine ▪ a two-page spread
6 [count] US : BEDSPREAD
7 [count] US : a large farm or ranch — usually singular ▪ He bought a spread of 100 acres. ▪ They have quite a spread.
8 [count] : a variety or range of things or people — usually singular; often + of ▪ The poll showed a large spread of opinions.

spread–ea•gled /ˈsprɛdˌi:gəld/ adj : with arms and legs spread wide apart ▪ He lay spread-eagled on the bed. ▪ a spread-eagled position spread•er /ˈsprɛdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or thing that spreads something ▪ Mosquito are spreaders of disease. ▪ a manure/seed spreader ▪ a spreader of gossip/lies spread•sheet /ˈsprɛdˌʃi:t/ noun, pl -sheets [count]

1 : a computer program that calculates numbers and organizes information in columns and rows
2 : a document that has columns and rows which are used to calculate numbers and organize information spree /ˈspri:/ noun, pl sprees [count] : a short period of time when you do a lot of something ▪ a buying/shopping/spending spree [=binge] ▪ They went on a killing/crime spree.

sprig /ˈsprɪg/ noun, pl sprigs [count] : a small twig or stem that has leaves or flowers on it ▪ a sprig of parsley

spright•ly /ˈspraɪtli/ adj spright•li•er; -est : full of life and energy — used especially to describe an older person ▪ a sprightly old woman of 80
– spright•li•ness noun [noncount]

[1]spring /ˈsprɪŋ/ noun, pl springs
1 : the season between winter and summer : the season when plants and trees begin to grow [count] We'll plant the seeds next spring. ▪ We've had a rainy spring. ▪ the spring of 1984 [noncount] a beautiful day in early/late spring ▪ The first few weeks of spring were unusually warm. — often used before another noun ▪ our spring catalog ▪ a new spring wardrobe ▪ spring colors/flowers

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 156 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 a [count] : a twisted or coiled piece of metal that returns to its original shape when it is pressed down or stretched ▪ The mattress is old and some of the springs are broken. — see also BOX SPRING b [noncount] : the ability of something to return to its original shape when it is pressed down, stretched, twisted, etc. ▪ The cushion has lost its spring.
3 [count] : a source of water coming up from the ground ▪ a mineral spring — see also HOT SPRING
4 [singular] : a lively and energetic quality ▪ She had a spring in her step.
5 [singular] : a quick sudden leap up or forward ▪ The deer gave a spring and was gone. — see also HANDSPRING

[2]spring verb springs; sprang /ˈsprӕŋ/ or sprung /ˈsprʌŋ/; sprung; spring•ing
1 [no obj] a : to move or leap suddenly forward or upward ▪ The lion was waiting to spring. ▪ The deer sprang up the path. ▪ I sprang to my feet. ▪ He sprang out of his seat and ran to the door. b always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move quickly to a different position ▪ The lid sprang open/shut. ▪ The branch sprang back and hit her. ▪ The rope stretches and springs back into shape. [=returns to its original shape]
2 [+ obj] informal : to help (someone) to get out of or escape from jail, prison, etc. ▪ He tried to spring his accomplice. ▪ His lawyer managed to get him sprung from prison.
spring a leak : to start to leak : to suddenly let water in or out through a crack or break ▪ The boat/pipe sprang a leak.
spring a surprise : to do, ask, or say something that is not expected ▪ Everyone knows she's not likely to spring a surprise. ▪ The teacher sprang a surprise on us and gave a quiz.
spring a trap : to capture someone or something (such as an animal or criminal) with a trap — often + on ▪ Police sprang a trap on the drug smugglers.
spring for [phrasal verb] spring for (something) US, informal : to pay for (something) : to spend money on (something) ▪ She refuses to spring for a new coat. ▪ I'll spring for dinner.
spring from [phrasal verb] spring from (something) informal : to start from or be caused by (something) ▪ The idea sprang from [=came from] a dream I had.
spring from the loins see LOIN spring into/to action/life : to become suddenly very active and energetic ▪ They sprang into action as soon as they received their orders. ▪ The crowd sprang to life after the first goal was scored.
spring on [phrasal verb] spring (something) on (someone) : to surprise (someone) with (something, such as a request or announcement) ▪ You should try to prepare them for your decision instead of just springing it on them suddenly.
spring to mind see [1]MIND spring up [phrasal verb] : to grow or appear suddenly ▪ The weeds sprang up overnight. ▪ New housing developments are springing up all over the state.
tears spring to your eyes ✧ If tears spring to your eyes, you suddenly start to cry. ▪ Tears sprang to his eyes when he read about the accident.

spring•board /ˈsprɪŋˌbɔəd/ noun, pl -boards [count]
1 : a strong, flexible board that is used for jumping very high in gymnastics or diving
2 : something that helps you start an activity or process ▪ The news served as a springboard for a class discussion.

spring•bok /ˈsprɪŋˌbɑːk/ noun, pl springbok or springboks [count] : a small, very fast deer that lives in Africa spring break noun, pl ∼ breaks US : a vacation from classes at a school usually for a week in the spring; especially : such a vacation at a college or university [noncount] Many students go to Florida for/on spring break. [count] How was your spring break?

spring chicken noun, pl ∼ -ens [count] informal + humorous : a young person — usually used in negative statements to say that someone is not young ▪ She's no spring chicken, that's for sure.

spring–clean verb -cleans; -cleaned; -cleaning [+ obj] : to clean (a place) thoroughly in the spring ▪ It's time to spring-clean the house and air out the place.
– spring–clean noun [singular] Brit ▪ It's time to give the house a spring-clean. – spring–cleaning noun [noncount] ▪ We were busy with spring-cleaning.

spring fever noun [noncount] : a feeling of wanting to go outdoors and do things because spring is coming and the weather is getting warmer ▪ The children all have spring fever.

spring–loaded adj : containing a metal spring that presses one part against another ▪ a spring-loaded mousetrap

spring onion noun, pl ∼ -ions [count] chiefly Brit : GREEN ONION

spring peeper noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] : PEEPER

spring roll noun, pl ∼ rolls [count] : EGG ROLL spring tide noun, pl ∼ tides [count] : a tide in which the sea rises and falls more than usual ✧ Spring tides happen when the moon, earth, and sun are aligned with each other.

spring•time /ˈsprɪŋˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : the season of spring ▪ Springtime is her favorite time of year. ▪ It's beautiful here in (the) springtime. [=in the spring]

spring training noun [noncount] US : the time in the spring when baseball teams prepare for the regular season by playing practice games

springy /ˈsprɪŋi/ adj spring•i•er; -est
1 : returning to an original shape when pressed down, twisted, stretched, etc. ▪ a springy bed ▪ springy vines
2 : having or showing lively and energetic movement ▪ He walks with a springy step.
– spring•i•ness /ˈsprɪŋinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ The cushion has lost its springiness.

[1]sprin•kle /ˈsprɪŋkəl/ verb sprin•kles; sprin•kled; sprin•kling
1 [+ obj] a : to drop or spread small pieces or amounts of something over something ▪ He sprinkled water on the plants. ▪ I sprinkled grass seed over the soil. ▪ She sprinkled grated cheese on the pasta. = She sprinkled the pasta with grated cheese. — often used figuratively ▪ The essay is sprinkled with quotations. [=there are quotations in different parts of the essay] b : to put small drops of liquid on (someone or something) ▪ She sprinkled the clothes before ironing them.
2 [no obj] US : to rain lightly ▪ "Is it raining?" "It's just sprinkling a little."

[2]sprinkle noun
1 [singular] : a light rain ▪ a sprinkle of rain ▪ It rained last night, but it was just a sprinkle.
2 [singular] : a small amount that is sprinkled on something ▪ She topped the pasta with a sprinkle of parsley. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We've received a sprinkle [=a very small number] of complaints.
3 sprinkles [plural] US : tiny candies that are put on top of a sweet food (such as ice cream) ▪ chocolate sprinkles

sprin•kler /ˈsprɪŋklə/ noun, pl -klers [count]
1 : a device that is used to spray water on plants or soil — see picture at GARDENING
2 : a device in a building that sprays water if there a is fire

sprin•kling /ˈsprɪŋklɪŋ/ noun [singular] : a small amount that is sprinkled on something ▪ She put a sprinkling of parsley on the pasta. [=she sprinkled a small amount of parsley on the pasta] — often used figuratively ▪ We received only a sprinkling of suggestions. [=only a few suggestions]

[1]sprint /ˈsprɪnt/ verb sprints; sprint•ed; sprint•ing [no obj] : to run or go very fast for a short distance ▪ He sprinted to class. ▪ The bicycle racers sprinted for the finish line.
– sprint•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]sprint noun, pl sprints
1 [count] : a race over a short distance at a very fast speed
2 [singular] : a short period of running or going very fast ▪ He made a sprint for the finish line.

sprite /ˈspraɪt/ noun, pl sprites [count] in stories : a small creature that has magical powers : an elf or fairy ▪ a water sprite

spritz /ˈsprɪts/ verb spritz•es; spritzed; spritz•ing [+ obj] US : to spray (something) quickly with a small amount of liquid ▪ Make sure to spritz the plants with water every day. ▪ She spritzed her hair with hairspray.
– spritz noun, pl spritzes [count] ▪ a spritz of water spritz•er /ˈsprɪtsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a drink made of wine mixed with soda water ▪ a white wine spritzer

sprock•et /ˈsprɑːkət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a wheel that has a row of teeth around its edge which fit into the holes of something (such as a bicycle chain or a piece of film) and cause it to turn when the wheel turns; also : any one of the teeth on such a wheel

sprog /ˈsprɑːg/ noun, pl sprogs [count] Brit, informal : a child or baby ▪ a cute little sprog

[1]sprout /ˈspraʊt/ verb sprouts; sprout•ed; sprout•ing
1 : to produce new leaves, buds, etc. [no obj] seeds sprouting in the spring ▪ Potatoes will sprout in the bag if kept in a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 157 SESS: 81 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 12:00:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

warm place. [+ obj] The garden is sprouting weeds. ▪ The tree is already sprouting leaves.
2 : to grow or develop (something) [+ obj] He sprouted a beard since the last time I saw him. ▪ She dreamed that her boss had sprouted horns. [no obj] Hair sprouted on his face.
3 [no obj] : to appear suddenly and in large numbers — often + up ▪ Dozens of new restaurants have been sprouting up [=popping up] around the city.

[2]sprout noun, pl sprouts
1 [count] : a new part (such as a leaf or bud) that is growing on a plant
2 sprouts [plural] chiefly US : very young plants that come from alfalfa or bean seeds and that are used as a vegetable
3 [count] chiefly Brit : BRUSSELS SPROUT

[1]spruce /ˈspru:s/ noun, pl spruc•es also spruce
1 [count] : a type of tree that has long, thin needles instead of leaves and that stays green throughout the year
2 [noncount] : the wood of a spruce tree

[2]spruce verb spruces; spruced; spruc•ing
spruce up [phrasal verb] spruce (someone or something) up or spruce up (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) look cleaner, neater, or more attractive ▪ We spruced up the room with a fresh coat of paint. ▪ I need to spruce myself up a bit before we go out to dinner.

[3]spruce adj spruc•er; -est somewhat old-fashioned : neat, clean, or stylish in appearance ▪ He looked very spruce in his new suit.
– spruce•ly adv ▪ a sprucely decorated room sprung past tense and past participle of [2]SPRING

spry /ˈspraɪ/ adj spri•er or spry•er /ˈsprajə/; spri•est or spry•est /ˈsprajəst/ : full of life and energy — used especially to describe an older person ▪ She's 64 and still as spry as she was at 30.
– spry•ly adv – spry•ness noun [noncount]

spud /ˈspʌd/ noun, pl spuds [count] informal : POTATO 1

spume /ˈspju:m/ noun [noncount] literary : bubbles that form on ocean waves : FOAM

spun past tense and past participle of [1]SPIN

spun glass noun [noncount] : FIBERGLASS

spunk /ˈspʌŋk/ noun [noncount]
1 informal : spirit, courage, and determination ▪ That little girl has a lot of spunk.
2 Brit slang, impolite : SEMEN spunky /ˈspʌŋki/ adj spunk•i•er; -est informal : full of spirit, courage, and determination ▪ a spunky little girl

– spunk•i•ness /ˈspʌŋkinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]spur /ˈspə/ noun, pl spurs
1 [count] : a sharp pointed object that is attached to the heel of a horse rider's boot and that is pressed into the horse's side to make the horse go faster
2 [singular] : something that makes you want to do something or that causes something to happen : INCENTIVE — often + to ▪ The reward was offered as a spur to greater work/achievement. ▪ a spur to the imagination
3 [count] : a mass of sharp rock on the side of a mountain
4 [count] : a short section of railway track that leads from the main line spur

on/at the spur of the moment ✧ If something is done on/at the spur of the moment, it is done immediately without planning. ▪ We decided on the spur of the moment to go to the beach. — see also SPUR-OF-THE-MOMENT win/earn your spurs : to do something which shows that you deserve to be respected or noticed ▪ He earned/won his spurs by doubling the company's profits in the past year.

[2]spur verb spurs; spurred; spur•ring [+ obj]
1 : to encourage (someone) to do or achieve something ▪ The reward spurred them to work harder. — often + on ▪ His encouragement spurred them on to finish the project.
2 : to cause (something) to happen or to happen more quickly ▪ Lower interest rates should spur economic growth.
3 : to urge (a horse) to go faster by pushing spurs into its sides ▪ He spurred the horse onward.

spu•ri•ous /ˈspjərijəs/ adj
1 : not genuine, sincere, or authentic ▪ spurious [=fake] gems ▪ spurious [=insincere] kindness
2 : based on false ideas or bad reasoning ▪ spurious claims/justifications
– spu•ri•ous•ly adv – spu•ri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

spurn /ˈspən/ verb spurns; spurned; spurn•ing [+ obj] literary : to refuse to accept (someone or something that you do not think deserves your respect, attention, affection, etc.) ▪ She spurned [=rejected] their offer. ▪ a spurned lover spur–of–the–moment adj, always used before a noun : done suddenly and without planning ▪ They made a spur-of-the-moment decision to go the movies. — see also on/at the spur of the moment at [1]SPUR

[1]spurt /ˈspət/ verb spurts; spurt•ed; spurt•ing
1 : to pour out or come out quickly and suddenly [no obj] Water spurted from the broken pipe. ▪ Blood was spurting out of his nose. ▪ Flames spurted from the open window. [+ obj] His nose spurted blood.
2 [no obj] : to move at a fast speed for a short distance ▪ He spurted [=sprinted] for the finish line.

[2]spurt noun, pl spurts [count]
1 : an amount of liquid, flame, etc., that comes out of something suddenly ▪ a spurt of water/blood ▪ a spurt of venom
2 : a short period of greatly increased effort, activity, or development ▪ a spurt of hard work ▪ When he was 11 he had a growth spurt. [=he grew quickly and suddenly in a short period of time] ▪ They worked on the house in spurts, whenever they had time.
3 US : a short period of time ▪ They played well for a brief spurt but then started losing again.

sput•ter /ˈspʌtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [no obj] : to make loud sounds like explosions ▪ The motor sputtered and died.
2 : to speak quickly or in a confused way because you are upset, surprised, etc. [no obj] He was sputtering with rage. [+ obj] She sputtered an angry protest. ▪ "You, you have to be kidding!" he sputtered.
– sputter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ The motor gave a sputter and died.

spu•tum /ˈspju:təm/ noun [noncount] medical : a thick liquid that comes up from your lungs when you are sick

[1]spy /ˈspaɪ/ noun, pl spies [count]
1 : a person who tries secretly to get information about a country or organization for another country or organization ▪ He was a spy for the CIA. ▪ a Cold War spy — often used before another noun ▪ a spy novel/thriller [=a novel/thriller about spies] ▪ a spy camera/plane [=a camera/plane used for spying]
2 : someone who secretly watches the movement or actions of other people ▪ My coworker is a spy for the boss. ▪ the neighborhood spy

[2]spy verb spies; spied; spy•ing
1 [no obj] : to try secretly to get information about a country, organization, etc. : to act as a spy ▪ They were accused of spying for a foreign government. — often + on ▪ They were accused of spying on a rival company.
2 [+ obj] : to see or notice (someone or something) ▪ She spied [=caught sight of] a friend in the crowd.
spy on [phrasal verb] spy on (someone or something) : to watch (someone) secretly ▪ He spies on his neighbors. ▪ Have you been spying on me? — see also [2]SPY 1 (above) spy out [phrasal verb] 1 spy (something) out or spy out (something) : to notice, find, or learn about (something) by looking often in a secret way ▪ They were trying to spy out the enemy's position. 2 spy out the land chiefly Brit : to find or get more information about a situation secretly and before making a decision spy•glass /ˈspaɪˌglæs, Brit ˈspaɪˈglɑ:s/ noun, pl -glass•es [count] : a small telescope used by sailors in the past spy•ware /ˈspaɪˌweə/ noun [noncount] : computer software that secretly records information about the way you use your computer

sq. abbr square

squab•ble /ˈskwɑ:bəl/ verb squab•bles; squab•bled; squab•bling [no obj] : to argue loudly about things that are not important ▪ The children were squabbling over the toys.
– squabble noun, pl squabbles [count] ▪ A squabble broke out among the children.

squad /ˈskwɑ:d/ noun, pl squads [count]
1 : a part of a police force that deals with a specific type of crime ▪ the bomb/fraud/vice squad
2 : a small organized group of soldiers ▪ an elite infantry squad ▪ the squad leader
3 : a group of people who are involved in a particular activity ▪ a rescue squad ▪ the cheerleading squad ▪ a squad of searchers

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 158 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

4 sports : a group of people from which a team is chosen ▪ the Olympic gymnastics squad
– see also FIRING SQUAD squad car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : POLICE CAR squad•die or squad•dy /'skwɑ:di/ noun, pl squad•dies [count] Brit slang : a soldier of low rank : a soldier who is not an officer squad•ron /'skwɑ:drən/ noun, pl -rons [count] : a military unit consisting of soldiers, ships, or aircraft ▪ a bomber/reconnaissance squadron squadron leader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a high-ranking officer in the British air force squal•id /'skwɑ:ləd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very dirty and unpleasant ▪ The family lived in squalid conditions. ▪ a squalid [=run-down] apartment building
2 : immoral or dishonest ▪ a squalid affair ▪ squalid behavior
– squal•id•ness noun [noncount]

[1]squall /'skwɑ:l/ verb squalls; squalled; squall•ing [no obj] : to cry loudly ▪ a squalling baby

[2]squall noun, pl squalls [count] : a loud cry ▪ The baby gave a sudden squall of hunger. — compare [3]SQUALL

[3]squall noun, pl squalls [count] : a sudden violent wind often with rain or snow ▪ a snow squall — compare [2]SQUALL
– squally /'skwɑ:li/ adj squall•i•er; -est ▪ a squally day

squa•lor /'skwɑ:lɚ/ noun [noncount] : very bad and dirty conditions ▪ The family was living in squalor. ▪ I was shocked by the squalor of their surroundings.

squan•der /'skwɑ:ndɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to use (something) in a foolish or wasteful way ▪ She squandered her inheritance/allowance. ▪ He vowed not to squander this opportunity. ▪ The government squandered [=wasted] the money on failed programs.
– squan•der•er /'skwɑ:ndərɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]square /'skweɚ/ noun, pl squares [count]
1 : a four-sided shape that is made up of four straight sides that are the same length and that has four right angles ▪ The fabric is decorated with circles and squares. ▪ Cut the brownies into squares. — often + of ▪ a square of tile/cloth — see picture at GEOMETRY; compare RECTANGLE
2 : any of the squares on a board for playing games (such as chess and checkers) ▪ The board has red and black squares. — see picture at CHESS
3 mathematics : the number that results from multiplying a number by itself ▪ The square of 2 [=2^2] is 4. [=2 x 2 = 4] — compare [1]CUBE 2
4 : an open area in a village, city, etc., where two or more streets meet ▪ The bank is located at the main square. ▪ the market/town square
5 somewhat old-fashioned, informal + disapproving : someone who does not like or try unusual things that other people consider exciting, interesting, etc. ▪ Don't be such a square. Let's try something different for a change.
6 technical : a flat tool that is used to mark or check angles ▪ a carpenter's square — see picture at CARPENTRY; compare T SQUARE
7 chiefly US, informal : SQUARE MEAL ▪ I try to have three squares a day.

[2]square adj squar•er; squar•est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : shaped like a square : having four straight sides that are the same length and four right angles at each corner ▪ The room is square. ▪ a square box b : forming a right angle ▪ The room has four square corners. ▪ Make sure the post is square to the floor. [=make sure that there is a right angle where the post and the floor meet]
2 — used to describe a measurement that is produced by multiplying something's length and width ▪ a tile measuring one square foot [=a tile that is one foot long and one foot wide] ▪ a square inch/meter/mile — compare CUBIC
3 : shaped more like a right angle than a curve ▪ a square jaw ▪ square shoulders ✧ This sense of square often suggests strength and toughness.
4 somewhat old-fashioned : honest and fair ▪ a square deal ▪ She is square in all her dealings. — see also fair and square at [1]FAIR
5 somewhat old-fashioned, informal + disapproving — used to describe someone who does not like or try unusual things that other people consider exciting, interesting, etc. ▪ He's nice but he's kind of square.
6 a informal : having nothing owed by either side : EVEN ▪ Here's the rest of the money. Now we're square. [=now we don't owe each other anything] b not used before a noun : having the same number of points : TIED ▪ The teams were all square after the first half.
a square peg in a round hole see [1]PEG

[3]square verb squares; squared; squar•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) square : to give (something) straight edges, flat surfaces, or sharp, even corners ▪ The machine squares the wood into flat boards. — often + off ▪ I still need to square off the end of the board.
2 mathematics : to multiply (a number) by itself ▪ If you square 3, you get 9. — usually used as (be) squared ▪ 3 squared is/equals 9. [=3 x 3 = 9] — compare [2]CUBE 2
3 : to pay money that is owed for (something) ▪ We squared [=settled] our accounts. — often + up ▪ Is this enough money to square up my part of the bill?
4 : to make the score of (something, such as a game or series) the same : TIE ▪ The goal squared the game 2–2. ▪ Their win squares the series at three games apiece.
square away [phrasal verb] square (something) away or square away (something) US : to put (something) in an organized and proper state or condition — often used as (be/get) squared away ▪ I need to get my work squared away [=taken care of] before I leave for vacation. ▪ I can finally relax since everything is squared away.
square off [phrasal verb] 1 a : to prepare to fight : to get into the position of two people who are going to fight each other ▪ The two men squared off, but no punches were thrown. b : to fight or argue — often + against ▪ They squared off against each other in a heated debate. 2 : to compete in a contest ▪ The two teams will square off again tomorrow. — often + against ▪ They squared off against each other in the election. — see also [3]SQUARE 1 (above) square up [phrasal verb] 1 : to turn so that you are facing something or someone directly ▪ She squared up (with/to the basket) for a three-point shot. ▪ They squared up for a fight. [=they faced each other and prepared to fight] — see also [3]SQUARE 3 (above) 2 square up to (someone or something) : to begin to deal with (a difficult person or situation) in a direct way ▪ We need to square up to this problem. ▪ He's finally squaring up to his critics.
square with [phrasal verb] 1 square with (something) : to agree with (something) ▪ Your story doesn't square with the facts. 2 square (something) with (something) : to make (something) agree with (something) ▪ How can they square what they've done with what they've said? 3 square (something) with (someone) : to get agreement about or approval of (something) from (someone) ▪ I'll go on the trip if I can square it with my parents. [=if my parents will agree to let me go] square yourself : to turn so that you are facing something or someone directly ▪ He squared himself and prepared for the hit.
square your shoulders : to stand with your shoulders pulled back in a straight line in a way that shows you are ready to do or deal with something directly ▪ She stood up straight and squared her shoulders.

[4]square adv : in a direct way ▪ She ran square [=directly, right] into me. ▪ Look (at) me square in the eye and tell me you're not lying.

square bracket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : [1]BRACKET 3a square dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] : a dance for four couples that begins with each couple facing one of the other couples so that the four couples form a square – square dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – square dancing noun [noncount] ▪ We enjoy square dancing. = We like to go square dancing.

square knot noun, pl ~ knots [count] US : a strong and simple type of knot — called also (chiefly Brit) reef knot

square•ly /'skweɚli/ adv
1 : in a direct and honest way ▪ We must face these problems/issues squarely. ▪ It's time to deal squarely with the facts.
2 : in the exact location or position that is mentioned : EXACTLY, RIGHT ▪ literature that is squarely in/within the American tradition ▪ Their marketing campaign is aimed squarely at adolescents. ▪ The dart hit the board squarely in the middle/center. ▪ Look me squarely in the eye and tell me you're not lying.
3 : in a way that makes direct contact ▪ He hit the ball squarely. ▪ Her feet were squarely planted.
4 : in a way that is not limited in any way : COMPLETELY ▪ The responsibility lies squarely with us.

square meal noun, pl ~ meals [count] : a full or complete meal ▪ Inmates receive three square meals a day.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 159 SESS: 76 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

square one noun [noncount] : the beginning stage or starting point ▪ His idea didn't work, so he had to go back to square one. [=he had to start over] ▪ They lost everything and found themselves back at square one.

square root noun, pl ~ roots [count] mathematics : a number that produces a specified number when it is multiplied by itself ▪ The square root of 9 is 3. — compare CUBE ROOT squar•ish /ˈskwerɪʃ/ adj : having a shape that is almost like a square ▪ a squarish face ▪ The dog's nose is squarish.

[1]squash /ˈskwɑːʃ/ verb squash•es; squashed; squash•ing

1 [+ obj] : to press (something) into a flat or flatter shape ▪ She squashed the bug. ▪ He squashed his nose against the window. ▪ The tomatoes got squashed.

2 [+ obj] : to stop (something) from continuing by doing or saying something ▪ She tried to squash [=quash] the rumors. ▪ His poor performance squashed any hope he had of a promotion. ▪ The boss squashed my idea immediately.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move into a space that is very tight or crowded [no obj] Four of us squashed [=squeezed] into the backseat. ▪ (Brit) Squash up [=move closer together] to make room for one more person. [+ obj] Someone had squashed all the ribbons together in one box. — often used as (be) squashed ▪ We were squashed between the table and wall. ▪ The ribbons had all been squashed together into one box.

[2]squash noun, pl squashes

1 [noncount] : a game played by two people with rackets and a rubber ball in a court with four walls ▪ We play squash [=(Brit) squash rackets] once a week. ▪ a squash court/racket — see picture at RACKET

2 [count, noncount] Brit : a drink made with fruit juice, sugar, and water ▪ a glass of lemon squash

3 [singular] Brit : a situation in which people or things are pushed into a space that is too small or crowded ▪ It's a real squash with six people in the car.

– compare [3]SQUASH

[3]squash noun, pl squash or squashes : a type of vegetable (such as a pumpkin) that has a usually hard skin and that is eaten cooked [noncount] Would you like some squash? [count] I cooked two squashes. — see color picture on page C4; see also BUTTERNUT SQUASH, SUMMER SQUASH, WINTER SQUASH — compare [2]SQUASH

squashy /ˈskwɑːʃi/ adj squash•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : soft and easy to press into a different shape ▪ squashy [=squishy] cushions/pillows ▪ a squashy sofa

[1]squat /ˈskwɑːt/ verb squats; squat•ted; squat•ting [no obj]

1 : to bend your knees and lower your body so that you are close to your heels or sitting on your heels ▪ He squatted behind the bush to avoid being seen. ▪ a squatting position [=a position in which you are squatting] — often + down ▪ She squatted down to pick up the paper.

2 : to live in a building or on land without the owner's permission and without paying ▪ A family has been squatting in that house for months.

[2]squat noun, pl squats

1 [count] : a position in which your knees are bent and your body lowered so that you are close to your heels or sitting on your heels

2 [noncount] US slang : the least amount : anything at all ▪ I don't know squat [=diddly-squat] about baseball. ▪ He didn't do squat all day. ▪ The car is worth squat. [=nothing at all]

3 [count] chiefly Brit : an empty building that squatters live in ▪ She lives in a squat.

[3]squat adj squat•ter; squat•test : short and thick ▪ a squat man = a man with a squat body ▪ a squat tower

squat•ter /ˈskwɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : someone who lives in a building or on land without the permission of the owner and without paying : someone who squats squaw /ˈskwɑː/ noun, pl squaws [count] often offensive : a Native American woman squawk /ˈskwɑːk/ verb squawks; squawked; squawk•ing [no obj]

1 of a bird : to make a short, harsh cry ▪ The crow squawked loudly.

2 : to complain or protest loudly or with strong feeling ▪ The customers squawked about the high prices. ▪ Opponents of the project have been squawking.

– squawk noun, pl squawks [count] ▪ The bird gave a squawk. ▪ squawks from customers

[1]squeak /ˈskwiːk/ verb squeaks; squeaked; squeak•ing

1 [no obj] : to make a short, high-pitched cry or noise ▪ I could hear the mouse squeaking. ▪ She squeaked when I pinched her. ▪ My shoes squeak when I walk. ▪ The wheel squeaks when it turns. ▪ a squeaking sound/wheel

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to barely succeed at doing something : to almost lose or fail but to finally succeed, win, etc. ▪ The team squeaked into the finals. [=the team almost did not get into the finals] ▪ She squeaked out a 5–4 win. [=she won narrowly by getting 5 points while her opponent got 4] ▪ The bill squeaked through the Senate. [=it barely got enough votes to be accepted] ▪ He squeaked into office by fewer than 2,000 votes.

3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a high-pitched voice especially because you are nervous or excited ▪ "I can't believe it!" she squeaked.

[2]squeak noun, pl squeaks [count] : a sharp, high-pitched cry or sound ▪ She gave/let out a squeak.

squeak•er /ˈskwiːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a contest (such as a game or an election) that is won by only a small amount ▪ The election was a squeaker. [=the election was very close] ▪ They won in a 10–9 squeaker.

squeaky /ˈskwiːki/ adj squeak•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : making or likely to make a sharp, high-pitched sound ▪ a squeaky door ▪ Her voice is squeaky.

a/the squeaky wheel gets the grease/oil see [1]WHEEL

– squeak•i•ly /ˈskwiːkəli/ adv – squeak•i•ness /ˈskwiːkinəs/ noun [noncount]

squeaky–clean adj

1 : completely clean ▪ The glass is squeaky-clean. ▪ squeaky-clean hair

2 : not connected with or involving anything morally wrong ▪ He has a squeaky-clean reputation/image.

[1]squeal /ˈskwiːl/ verb squeals; squealed; squeal•ing

1 : to make or cause (something) to make a long, high-pitched cry or noise [no obj] The pigs were squealing. ▪ The car squealed to a stop. — often + with or in ▪ The children squealed with/in delight when they saw the clown. [+ obj] He squealed the tires and drove off.

2 [no obj] informal + disapproving : to tell someone in authority (such as the police or a teacher) about something wrong that someone has done ▪ She squealed to the teacher. ▪ "How did they find out?" "Someone must have squealed." [=snitched] ▪ He squealed on [=informed on] his friend.

3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a high and excited voice ▪ "Let me go," she squealed.

– squeal•er noun, pl -ers [count] informal + disapproving ▪ I won't tell anyone what you did. I'm no squealer.

[2]squeal noun, pl squeals [count] : a long, high-pitched cry or noise ▪ She heard the pig's squeals. — often + of ▪ a squeal of delight ▪ We heard the squeal of the brakes.

squea•mish /ˈskwiːmɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : afraid to deal with or do things that might hurt or offend people — often used in negative statements ▪ Journalists can't be squeamish. ▪ My parents are not squeamish about talking about sex. ▪ As a supervisor, you can't be squeamish about firing people. b : having an unpleasantly nervous or doubtful feeling ▪ I used to be squeamish about eating raw fish.

2 : easily shocked, offended, or disgusted by unpleasant things ▪ I'm too squeamish to watch horror movies.

3 : having a sick feeling in the stomach : suffering from nausea ▪ She gets squeamish [=queasy] at the sight of blood.

the squeamish : squeamish people : people who are easily shocked or offended by unpleasant things ▪ The movie is not for the squeamish.

– squea•mish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ You'll have to get over your squeamishness about firing people.

squee•gee /ˈskwiːˌʤiː/ noun, pl -gees [count] : a tool that has a blade of rubber attached to a handle and that is used for spreading or wiping liquid on, across, or off a surface (such as a window or floor)

– squeegee verb -gees; -geed; -gee•ing [+ obj] ▪ He squeegeed the water into the drain.

squeez•able /ˈskwiːzəbəl/ adj : having parts or sides that can be pressed together ▪ a squeezable bottle of ketchup ▪ squeezable toys

[1]squeeze /ˈskwiːz/ verb squeez•es; squeezed; squeez•ing

1 : to press together the parts and especially the opposite sides of (something) [+ obj] Squeeze the bottle/tube. ▪ He lightly squeezed her hand and smiled. ▪ Gently squeeze the

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 160 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

fruit to see if it's ripe. ▪ She squeezed her eyes shut. [=she closed her eyes very tightly] [no obj] Hold it securely but don't squeeze too hard.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to get or remove (something) by squeezing something ▪ He squeezed the juice from the orange. ▪ She squeezed out some ketchup. = She squeezed some ketchup out. ▪ freshly squeezed orange juice — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They can't squeeze much more money out of the business.

3 [+ obj] : to pull back on (a gun's trigger) with your finger ▪ He took aim and squeezed [=pulled] the trigger. — see also SQUEEZE OFF (below)

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move into or through a small or crowded space [no obj] We had to squeeze past/by the people in the aisles. ▪ trying to squeeze into tight jeans ▪ The cat squeezed through the opening. ▪ We all squeezed into the elevator. ▪ (Brit) Squeeze up [=move closer together], please. We need to make room for one more person. [+ obj] We can squeeze one more person in the back seat. ▪ The instructor squeezed a lot of information into one week. ▪ We were all squeezed [=squashed] into the elevator.

5 [+ obj] : to barely succeed at getting or doing (something) ▪ The police squeezed a confession from her. — often + out ▪ The team squeezed out a victory. ▪ The police squeezed a confession out of her.

6 [+ obj] a : to decrease the amount of (something, such as money) ▪ Rising costs have squeezed profits. b : to cause financial problems for (a business or organization) ▪ The availability of music on the Internet has squeezed the record industry. c informal : to force (someone) to give you something or to do something by using threats or pressure ▪ The banks are squeezing them for more money. ▪ She tried to squeeze me for $100.

squeeze in [phrasal verb] squeeze (someone or something) in or squeeze in (someone or something) : to find time for (someone or something) ▪ I can try to squeeze you in after my one o'clock appointment. ▪ The teacher tried to squeeze in a few more lessons before school vacation.

squeeze off [phrasal verb] squeeze off (a round) : to fire (a shot) by squeezing the trigger of a gun ▪ He quickly squeezed off four rounds.

squeeze out [phrasal verb] squeeze out (someone or something) or squeeze (someone or something) out : to force (someone or something) out of a position, place, etc. ▪ The city's low-income residents have been squeezed out [=have been forced to leave their homes] by rising real estate prices. ▪ These big stores have squeezed out a lot of the smaller locally owned shops.

[2]squeeze noun, pl squeezes

1 [singular] : a situation in which people or things are crowded together ▪ Fifty guests will be a bit of a squeeze. ▪ It'll be a tight squeeze, but we can all fit.

2 [count] : an act of squeezing something — usually singular ▪ He gave the bottle a good squeeze. ▪ She gave his hand a squeeze. [=she squeezed his hand]

3 [count] : a small amount that is gotten or removed from something (such as a piece of fruit) by squeezing it — often + of ▪ a squeeze of lemon/lime

4 a [count] : a situation in which there is not enough of something — usually singular ▪ There is a serious housing squeeze [=shortage] in the city. [=there are not enough houses, apartments, etc., available] ▪ a credit squeeze [=a situation in which it is difficult for people, companies, etc., to get credit] b *the squeeze informal : a situation that causes feelings of stress and pressure ▪ We are really feeling the squeeze since I lost my job. ▪ The government is putting the squeeze on tax evaders.

5 [noncount] chiefly US slang : a romantic partner : a boyfriend or girlfriend ▪ So who's your current squeeze? ▪ She's my main squeeze.

squeeze bottle noun, pl ~ -tles [count] : a plastic bottle that forces out its contents when it is squeezed : a squeezable bottle squelch /ˈskwɛlʧ/ verb squelch•es; squelched; squelch•ing [+ obj] US : to stop (something) from continuing by doing or saying something ▪ A statement was made to squelch [=squash, scotch, quash] the rumors. ▪ Police squelched [=quelled] the protest. = The protest was squelched by police.

squib /ˈskwɪb/ noun, pl squibs [count] : a small firecracker damp squib Brit : something that is disappointing because it is not as exciting or effective as expected ▪ The stock turned out to be something of a damp squib.

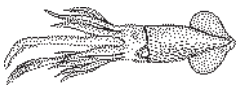
squib kick noun, pl ~ kicks [count] American football : a kickoff in which the ball is kicked so that it bounces along the ground

squid /ˈskwɪd/ noun, pl squid or squids [count] : a sea animal that has a long, thin, soft body and 10 long arms



squid

squig•gle /ˈskwɪgəl/ noun, pl squig•gles [count] : a short line with many curves : a short, wavy line ▪ His handwriting looks like a bunch of squiggles.

– squig•gly /ˈskwɪgli/ adj squig•gli•er; -est ▪ squiggly lines

[1]squint /ˈskwɪnt/ verb squints; squint•ed; squint•ing

1 [no obj] : to look at something with your eyes partly closed ▪ She had to squint to read the small print. ▪ They were squinting into the sun. [=looking toward the sun with their eyes partly closed] ▪ He squinted through the haze of smoke.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (your eyes) to partly close ▪ I had to squint my eyes to focus on the tiny letters.

3 [no obj] chiefly Brit : to have a medical condition that makes your eyes unable to look in the same direction ▪ I noticed that he squints.

[2]squint noun, pl squints

1 [singular] : a condition in which you are looking at something with your eyes partly closed : an act of squinting ▪ Her gaze narrowed into a squint.

2 [count] chiefly Brit : a medical condition in which your eyes are unable to look in the same direction — usually singular ▪ She was born with a squint.

3 [singular] Brit, informal : a quick look — + at ▪ He took a squint at the document. ▪ Have a squint at this.

squinty /ˈskwɪnti/ adj squint•i•er; -est of the eyes : partly closed or seeming to be partly closed ▪ He looked at me with squinty eyes. ▪ a squinty-eyed scowl

squire /ˈskwajə/ noun, pl squires [count]

1 : a young man in the Middle Ages who helped a knight before eventually becoming a knight himself

2 : a man in the past in England who owned most of the land in a village or district in the country

3 Brit, informal + old-fashioned — used to address a man whose name is unknown ▪ "Where to, squire?" asked the taxi driver.

squirm /ˈskwəm/ verb squirms; squirmed; squirm•ing [no obj] : to make a lot of twisting movements because you are nervous, uncomfortable, bored, etc. ▪ The baby squirmed a lot when I tried to hold him. ▪ She squirmed under her father's angry stare. ▪ The children squirmed with delight. ▪ He tried to hold onto her but she squirmed free. ▪ The frog squirmed out of his hands. ▪ The gory details of the story had me squirming in my seat. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a Congressional investigation that is making the industry squirm [=making people in the industry very nervous and uncomfortable]

– squirmy /ˈskwəmi/ adj squirm•i•er; -est ▪ an audience of squirmy kids

[1]squir•rel /ˈskwərəl, Brit ˈskwɪrəl/ noun, pl squir•rels also squirrel [count] : a small animal with a long tail and soft fur that lives in trees — see picture at RODENT

[2]squirrel verb -rels; US -reled or Brit -relled; US -rel•ing or Brit -rel•ling squirrel away [phrasal verb] squirrel away (something) or squirrel (something) away : to put (something) in a safe or secret place especially so that it can be kept for future use ▪ She's squirreled a lot of money away in a secret bank account. ▪ Most of his money is squirreled away somewhere.

squir•rel•ly also squir•rely /ˈskwərəli, Brit ˈskwɪrəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal

1 : tending to move around a lot : RESTLESS ▪ It was the end of the school year, when all the kids get a little squirrelly.

2 : very odd, silly, or foolish ▪ squirrelly behavior

[1]squirt /ˈskwət/ verb squirts; squirt•ed; squirt•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to suddenly force (a liquid) out through a small opening ▪ He squirted some oil on the door hinge. ▪ She squirted ketchup all over her fries. ▪ Some snakes can squirt venom from their mouths. b [no obj] of a liquid : to suddenly be forced out through a small opening ▪ Water squirted out from/of a hole in the pipe. ▪ Juice from the lemon squirted into my eye.

2 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) wet with a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 161 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

stream of liquid — often + with ▪ My brother squirted me with the hose. [=made me wet with water from the hose] ▪ He squirted the door hinge with oil.

[2]squirt noun, pl squirts [count]
1 : a small amount of liquid that is produced by squeezing or squirting something — often + of ▪ He added a squirt of lemon (juice) to the fish.
2 informal a : an annoying person who is small and usually young ▪ an annoying little squirt who kept pestering me ▪ Listen squirt, I'm in charge here. b : CHILD ▪ She started playing guitar when she was just a little squirt.

squirt gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] US : WATER PISTOL

squish /ˈskwɪʃ/ verb squish•es; squished; squish•ing
1 [+ obj] : to press (something) into a flatter shape : SQUASH ▪ She squished the bug. ▪ The cake accidentally got squished.
2 : to move into a space that is tight or crowded : SQUASH [no obj] We squished together to make more room. [+ obj] We managed to squish four people in the backseat of the car. — often used as (be) squished ▪ Four of us were squished together in the backseat.
3 [no obj] : to make the sound that is made when something very wet is pressed, stepped on, etc. ▪ His wet shoes squished when he walked.

squishy /ˈskwɪʃi/ adj squish•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : soft and often wet ▪ The ground was wet and squishy. ▪ squishy cushions

Sr. (chiefly US) or Brit Sr abbr 1 senior 2 sister

SS abbr 1 saints 2 Social Security 3 steamship

SSN abbr Social Security number st abbr, Brit stone ▪ She weighs 7*st* 5lbs. [=7 stone and 5 pounds]

St. (chiefly US) or Brit St abbr 1 saint 2 street

-st symbol — used in writing after the number 1 for the word first ▪ He's in the 1*st* [=first] grade. ▪ It is her 21*st* birthday.

[1]stab /ˈstæb/ noun, pl stabs [count]
1 : a wound made by a pointed weapon (such as a knife) ▪ He died from a stab to the heart. [=died from being stabbed in the heart] ▪ a stab wound/victim
2 : a sudden, strong feeling of physical or emotional pain — + of ▪ a stab of pain/regret/doubt/fear
3 informal : an attempt to do something successfully — often + at ▪ She took/made a stab at solving the problem. [=she made an attempt to solve the problem] ▪ Let me give it a stab. = Let me have a stab at it. [=let me try to do it] a stab in the back : an action or way of behaving that hurts someone who trusts you : an act of betrayal ▪ I can't believe that someone I had helped and supported would steal from me. It's a real stab in the back.
a stab in the dark 1 : a guess that is based on very little or no information or evidence ▪ They don't really know how much the work will cost. They're just taking a stab [=shot] in the dark. 2 : an attempt that is not likely to succeed ▪ It's a stab [=shot] in the dark, but we should try anyway.

[2]stab verb stabs; stabbed; stab•bing
1 [+ obj] : to wound (someone or something) with a pointed weapon (such as a knife) ▪ He stabbed her with a dagger. ▪ The victim was stabbed in the chest five times.
2 : to quickly or suddenly push a pointed object into or toward someone or something [+ obj] He stabbed the piece of meat with a fork. = He stabbed the fork into the piece of meat. ▪ She stabbed [=jabbed] the air with her pen as she spoke. [no obj] — often + at ▪ She stabbed at the dead animal with a stick.
stab (someone) in the back : to hurt (someone who trusts you) by not giving help or by doing something morally wrong : to betray (someone) ▪ He's the kind of person who gets you to trust him but then stabs you in the back.

[1]stab•bing /ˈstæbɪŋ/ noun, pl -bings [count] : an attack in which someone is wounded with a pointed weapon (such as a knife) ▪ a fatal stabbing

[2]stabbing adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to a stabbing ▪ a stabbing victim [=a person who has been stabbed] ▪ a stabbing death
2 : felt very suddenly in part of your body : very sharp and sudden ▪ She felt a stabbing pain in her back.

sta•bil•i•ty /stəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being stable: such as a : the quality or state of something that is not easily changed or likely to change ▪ the country's political and economic stability b : the quality or state of something that is not easily moved ▪ Test the platform for stability before using it. c : the quality or state of someone who is emotionally or mentally healthy ▪ There are some questions about the applicant's mental stability.

sta•bi•lize also Brit sta•bi•lise /ˈsteɪbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing
1 : to become stable or to make (something) stable: such as a : to stop quickly changing, increasing, getting worse, etc. [no obj] The country's population has stabilized at 3.2 million. ▪ Prices have stabilized. [+ obj] The government's efforts to stabilize prices have not succeeded. ▪ Even the administration's most vocal critics agree that the President has succeeded in stabilizing the economy. — opposite DESTABILIZE b [+ obj] : to make (something) less easily moved ▪ We'll use ropes to stabilize the platform. c [+ obj] technical : to give (something) a chemical structure or to put (something) into a physical state that does not change easily ▪ a process that stabilizes the vaccine
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) steady ▪ drugs that stabilize a patient's heartbeat ▪ The pilots were able to stabilize the airplane and land safely.
– sta•bi•li•za•tion also Brit sta•bi•li•sa•tion /ˌsteɪbələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsteɪbəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ political/economic stabilization sta•bi•liz•er also Brit sta•bi•lis•er /ˈsteɪbəˌlaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a device or substance that is used to make something stable or steady: such as a : a device that is used to keep a ship steady in rough seas b : the part of an airplane's tail that cannot be moved c : a substance that is added to something (such as a food mixture) to keep it in a desired condition
2 stabilisers [plural] Brit : TRAINING WHEELS

[1]sta•ble /ˈsteɪbəl/ adj sta•bler; sta•blest [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : in a good state or condition that is not easily changed or likely to change ▪ a stable community/government ▪ They have a stable relationship. ▪ Children need to be raised in a stable environment. ▪ a stable income ▪ The economy is stable. b medical : not getting worse or likely to get worse ▪ The patient is stable. ▪ (US) She is in stable condition after suffering multiple injuries. = (Brit) She is in a stable condition after suffering multiple injuries.
2 : not easily moved ▪ Make sure the platform is stable. ▪ The ladder doesn't seem very stable. [=secure]
3 : emotionally or mentally healthy : calm and reasonable ▪ a mentally/emotionally stable person
4 technical : having a chemical structure or physical state that does not change easily ▪ a stable compound/element

[2]stable noun, pl stables [count]
1 : a building in which horses are kept, fed, and cared for ▪ She rode the horse back to the stable. ▪ a horse stable — sometimes used in the plural form stables especially to mean a place where horses are kept for riding lessons ▪ She rode the horse back to the stables. ▪ riding stables
2 a : the group of racehorses that belong to the same owner ▪ There have been three winners from his stable this season. b : a group of people (such as athletes, writers, or performers) who work for or are trained by the same person, organization, or business ▪ a stable of actors/writers c : a group of products that are made by the same company ▪ A new model will be added to the car company's stable of sedans.

[3]stable verb sta•bles; sta•bled; sta•bling [+ obj] : to put or keep (a horse) in a stable ▪ She stabled the horse. ▪ Where do you stable your horses?

sta•ble•mate /ˈsteɪbəlˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a horse, person, product, etc., that belongs to the same stable as another horse, person, product, etc. ▪ horses that are stablemates ▪ a new car model and its stablemates

stac•ca•to /stəˈkɑːtoʊ/ adj
1 music : short and not sounding connected ▪ staccato notes/chords ▪ the staccato blasts of a horn — compare LEGATO
2 : sudden and brief ▪ the dialogue's staccato sentences ▪ staccato movements – staccato adv ▪ playing/singing staccato

[1]stack /ˈstæk/ noun, pl stacks
1 [count] : a usually neat pile : a group of things that are put one on top of the other ▪ He had arranged the letters in stacks. ▪ She took a magazine from near the top of the stack. — often + of ▪ a stack of dishes/papers — see also HAYSTACK
2 [count] : a large amount of something — usually + of ▪ There is a stack of evidence against her. ▪ They have stacks of money.
3 [count] : a tall chimney on a factory, ship, etc., for carrying smoke away : SMOKESTACK

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 162 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

4 the stacks : the rows of shelves where books are stored in a library ▪ I couldn't find the book in the stacks.

blow your stack see [1]BLOW

[2]stack verb stacks; stacked; stack•ing

1 : to arrange (things) in a stack : to put (things) in a usually neat pile [+ obj] She spent the afternoon splitting and stacking firewood. ▪ She stacked the plates in the cupboard. ▪ He stacked the books on the table. — often + up ▪ She stacked the wood up against the fence. [no obj] The chairs don't stack. [=the chairs cannot be put in a stack; the chairs cannot be stacked]

2 [+ obj] a : to cheat at a card game by arranging (a deck of cards) in a special way ▪ The other players accused him of stacking the deck. b — used to describe a situation in which one person, team, etc., is given an advantage over others often in a way that is unfair ▪ In many ways, the cards are stacked against immigrants. [=immigrants face unfair and difficult circumstances] ▪ There are things you can do to stack the odds in your favor. [=to make it more likely for you to win, succeed, etc.] ▪ The odds are stacked against you. [=the odds are against you; you do not have a good or fair chance of winning, succeeding, etc.]

stack up [phrasal verb] 1 : to increase in number or amount to a total that is difficult to deal with ▪ Cars quickly stacked up behind the bus. ▪ My bills are stacking up. [=piling up] 2 : to be good enough or equally good ▪ The camera doesn't stack up [=measure up] when it comes to performance. ▪ This model stacks up well when compared with other cameras. [=the camera is as good as or better than others] 3 stack up against (something or someone) or *stack (something or someone) up against (something or someone) : to compare (something or someone) with others of the same kind ▪ How does this computer stack up against other models? [=how good is it compared to other models?] ▪ How does he stack up against the other candidates? ▪ The camera does pretty well when you stack it up against the competition.

stack•able /ˈstækəbəl/ adj : able to be arranged in a stack ▪ The chairs are stackable. ▪ stackable plastic crates stacked /ˈstækt/ adj, informal + impolite, of a woman : having large breasts sta•di•um /ˈsteɪdijəm/ noun, pl -ums [count] : a very large usually roofless building that has a large open area surrounded by many rows of seats and that is used for sports events, concerts, etc.

[1]staff /ˈstæf, Brit ˈstɑːf/ noun, pl staffs or staves /ˈsteɪvz/

1 pl staffs a : a group of people who work for an organization or business [count] The entire staff has done a great job this year. ▪ The staff is at a meeting. ▪ a teaching/sales/editorial/coaching/pitching staff ▪ the hospital/library/kitchen staff ▪ The department has a staff of 40 (people). ▪ She's a new member of the staff. ▪ He has been on the staff [=a member of the staff] for 25 years. [noncount] (US) There are 100 people on staff. [=working as members of the staff] ▪ (Brit) She's a new member of staff. ▪ a staff member/director/writer/meeting — see also WAITSTAFF b [count] : a group of military officers who help a commanding officer but who do not take part in active fighting ▪ The general's staff is planning the army's next move. — see also CHIEF OF STAFF, JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF > usage Staff may be used as a plural noun to mean the members of a staff. ▪ The company employs 20 full-time staff. ▪ The staff are at a meeting.

2 pl staves [count] a old-fashioned : a long stick that you carry in your hand for support while walking b : a long stick that is carried as a symbol of authority ▪ a bishop's staff

3 pl staves [count] music : the five horizontal lines and the spaces between them on which music is written — called also stave

staff of life literary : a basic food; especially : BREAD

[2]staff verb staffs; staffed; staff•ing [+ obj]

1 : to supply (an organization or business) with workers ▪ We'll need 300 workers to properly staff the hotel. — often used as (be) staffed ▪ The department is staffed with an equal number of men and women. ▪ The office is fully staffed. — see also OVERSTAFFED, SHORT-STAFFED, UNDERSTAFFED

2 : to work for (an organization or business) as a member of a staff ▪ the 300 workers who staff the hotel — often used as (be) staffed ▪ The organization is staffed by volunteers.

– staffing adj ▪ staffing needs/problems/levels

staff•er /ˈstæfə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a member of a staff ▪ newspaper staffers ▪ a congressional staffer [=a person who is a member of a congressman's or congresswoman's staff]

staff nurse noun, pl ~ nurses [count] : a nurse who is on the staff of a hospital — compare CHARGE NURSE

staff officer noun, pl ~ -cers [count] : an officer who is a member of a military commander's staff

staff sergeant noun, pl ~ -geants [count] : an officer in the army, air force, or marines with a rank above a sergeant stag /ˈstæg/ noun, pl stags or stag [count] : an adult male deer go stag US : to go to a party or other social event by yourself ▪ He's going stag [=going alone] to the party. — see also STAG PARTY

[1]stage /ˈsteɪdʒ/ noun

1 [count] : a particular point or period in the growth or development of something ▪ an early/late stage of the disease ▪ children at the same stage of development ▪ the first/last stage [=phase] of the plan

2 a : a raised platform in a theater, auditorium, etc., where the performers stand [count] The actors walked out onto the stage. ▪ She has shared a stage with [=performed with] many great actors. ▪ The band took the stage [=walked onto the stage] and the concert began. [noncount] He was on stage for the entire show. ▪ an actor with a commanding stage presence [=an actor with a powerful quality that attracts attention on the stage] — see picture at THEATER; see also BACKSTAGE, CENTER STAGE, OFFSTAGE b [noncount] : the art or profession of acting and especially of acting in theaters ▪ He is a star of stage [=theater], screen, and television. ▪ She went on the stage [=became an actor] at age 15. ▪ a stage actor/play

3 [singular] : a place or area of activity in which the things that happen are watched with great interest by many people ▪ She has become an important figure on the national political stage. [=an important figure in national politics] ▪ He has no intention of leaving the political stage. ▪ The company wants to compete on the world stage.

4 [count] : a section of a rocket that has its own fuel and engine ▪ a three-stage missile in stages : in a series of separate steps rather than all at one time ▪ The changes will be made in stages. ▪ The new law will be implemented in stages.

set the stage (for something) : to make (something) possible or likely ▪ His discoveries set the stage for a revolution in medical research. ▪ Her early training set the stage for her later success.

[2]stage verb stag•es; staged; stag•ing [+ obj]

1 : to produce (a play, performance, etc.) on a stage ▪ The school stages two plays each year.

2 a : to organize and produce (a public event) ▪ The students staged a protest/demonstration. ▪ The school is staging a track meet. b : to arrange or do (something that is intended to get a lot of public attention) ▪ The prisoners are staging a hunger strike. ▪ The photograph of the two leaders shaking hands was deliberately staged.

3 : to succeed in doing or making (something) ▪ His career as a singer appeared to be over, but then he staged a comeback. ▪ The company has staged a (remarkable) recovery in the past two years.

stage•coach /ˈsteɪdʒˌkoʊtʃ/ noun, pl -coach•es [count] : a large carriage pulled by horses that was used in the past to carry passengers and mail along a regular route stage direction noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a written instruction in a play telling an actor what to do stage door noun, pl ~ doors [count] : the door at the back of a theater that is used by actors and the people who work in the theater stage fright noun [noncount] : a nervous feeling felt by someone who is going to appear in front of an audience ▪ She got over her stage fright by the second act. ▪ I get stage fright whenever I have to speak in front of a large group of people.

stage•hand /ˈsteɪdʒˌhænd/ noun, pl -hands [count] : someone who prepares the scenery, lights, etc., for a performance on a stage stage left adv : on the left side of a stage when you are on the stage and facing the audience ▪ The actor exited stage left.

stage–man•age /ˈsteɪdʒˌmænɪdʒ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing

1 : to organize the details of (a performance in a theater) [+ obj] She stage-managed last year's production of the school

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 163 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

play. [no obj] She was hired to stage-manage for the show. [=to be the show's stage manager]
2 [+ obj] : to carefully plan and arrange (something) in order to achieve a desired effect ▪ The press conference was carefully stage-managed, and only approved questions were allowed. ▪ He stage-managed his son's tennis career.

stage manager noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who is in charge of the stage, scenery, lighting, etc., for a performance in a theater stage name noun, pl ~ names [count] : a name used by an actor instead of the actor's real name stage right adv : on the right side of a stage when you are on the stage and facing the audience ▪ The actor exited stage right.

stage•struck /ˈsteɪʤˌstrʌk/ adj : very interested in the theater; especially : having an eager desire to become an actor ▪ He was a stagestruck young man with dreams of stardom.

stage whisper noun, pl ~ -pers [count]
1 : a loud whisper by an actor that can be heard by the audience but which the other actors on the stage pretend not to hear
2 : a loud whisper that is intended to be heard by everyone ▪ "I've had more than I can stand," she complained in a stage whisper.

stagey variant spelling of STAGY

stag•fla•tion /ˌstægˈfleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : an economic situation in which prices of goods and services continually increase, many people do not have jobs, and businesses are not very successful

[1]stag•ger /ˈstægə/ verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing
1 : to move or cause (someone) to move unsteadily from side to side [no obj] The drunk staggered away/off. ▪ She staggered over to the sofa. [+ obj] A hard slap on the back staggered him.
2 [+ obj] : to shock or surprise (someone) very much ▪ Their indifference staggers me. ▪ It staggers me to see how much money they've spent on this project.
3 [+ obj] : to arrange (things) in a series of different positions or times ▪ They staggered the runners' starting positions. ▪ stagger work shifts — see also STAGGERED

[2]stagger noun, pl -ers [count] : an unsteady movement while walking or standing ▪ He walked with a slight stagger.

staggered adj
1 : extremely shocked or surprised ▪ I'm just staggered at/by her attitude.
2 : arranged so that things are positioned at different places or happen at different times ▪ staggered finish lines ▪ staggered conference dates stag•ger•ing /ˈstægərɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large, shocking, or surprising ▪ staggering medical bills ▪ The storm caused a staggering amount of damage.

– stag•ger•ing•ly adv ▪ The bills are staggeringly large.

stag•ing /ˈsteɪʤɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 : the performance of a play on a stage [count] She has acted in several stagings [=productions] of the play. [noncount] The staging of the play was more difficult than expected.
2 [noncount] : a temporary raised platform that a person can sit or stand on while working ▪ Once the staging [=scaffolding] is in place we can start painting the ceiling.

staging area noun, pl ~ areas [count] : a place where soldiers gather and military equipment is prepared before a mission staging post noun, pl ~ posts [count] : a place where people can stop for rest, supplies, etc., during a long journey

stag•nant /ˈstægnənt/ adj
1 : not flowing ▪ a stagnant puddle ▪ stagnant water/air
2 : not active, changing, or progressing ▪ a stagnant economy ▪ stagnant wages [=wages that are not increasing] stag•nate /ˈstægˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [no obj] : to stop developing, progressing, moving, etc. : to be or become stagnant ▪ Wages have stagnated recently. ▪ Their relationship is stagnating. ▪ a puddle of stagnating water

– stag•na•tion /stægˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

stag party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : a party for men only that is usually on the night before a man's wedding — called also (Brit) stag night

stagy or stag•ey /ˈsteɪʤi/ adj stag•i•er; -est : looking or seeming like something from a performance on a stage rather than something natural ▪ an artificial and stagy manner ▪ a stagy gesture ▪ The movie looks stagy.

staid /ˈsteɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : serious, boring, or old-fashioned ▪ a staid and solemn businessman ▪ a staid demeanor/manner
– staid•ness noun [noncount]

[1]stain /ˈsteɪn/ verb stains; stained; stain•ing
1 a : to leave a mark on something [+ obj] The red wine stained the carpet. ▪ a wine-stained carpet [no obj] Be careful—grape juice stains. b [no obj] : to be marked or damaged by a stain ▪ This fabric stains easily.
2 [+ obj] : to use a special liquid to change the color of (something) ▪ He stained the wood a dark cherry color.
3 [+ obj] : to damage or spoil (something, such as someone's reputation) ▪ The accusations stained his reputation.
– stain•er /ˈsteɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]stain noun, pl stains [count]
1 : a mark made on a surface, a piece of clothing, etc., that is very hard or impossible to remove ▪ There's a juice/wine stain on the floor. ▪ She has a stain on her shirt. ▪ Will those grass stains wash out? — see also BLOODSTAIN
2 : a special liquid that is used to change the color of something (such as wood or cloth)
3 : something that causes people to have less respect for someone : something that damages a person's reputation — usually singular ▪ The accusation left a stain that followed him the rest of his life. ▪ a stain on her honor/reputation – stain•less /ˈsteɪnləs/ adj ▪ He has a stainless reputation.

stained glass noun [noncount] : colored glass that is used to make pictures and patterns in windows ▪ a cathedral with beautiful stained glass windows stainless steel noun [noncount] : a type of steel that does not rust

stair /ˈsteə/ noun, pl stairs
1 stairs [plural] : a series of steps that go from one level or floor to another ▪ She ran down the stairs. ▪ He waited at the foot/bottom of the stairs. ▪ She slipped and fell down the stairs. ▪ The stairs lead to the roof. ▪ We had to climb another flight/set of stairs to get to the roof.
2 [count] : one of the steps in a set of stairs ▪ a squeaky stair ▪ He tripped on the bottom stair and almost fell.
3 [singular] literary : STAIRCASE ▪ climbing the stair

stair•case /ˈsteəˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cas•es [count] : a set of stairs and its supporting structures ▪ a wooden staircase — see also MOVING STAIRCASE, SPIRAL STAIRCASE

stair–climb•er /ˈsteəˈklaɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : an exercise machine on which you make a continuous series of upward steps like someone who is climbing stairs — see picture at GYM

stair•way /ˈsteəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : a set of stairs that go from one level or floor to another ▪ He took the stairway up to the third floor. [=he went to the third floor by walking up the stairs]

stair•well /ˈsteəˌwel/ noun, pl -wells [count] : a space in a building where stairs are located

[1]stake /ˈsteɪk/ noun, pl stakes
1 [count] : a pointed stick or post that is pushed into the ground especially to mark a place or to support something
2 the stake : a post that a person was tied to and burned on in the past as a form of punishment ▪ Joan of Arc was burned at the stake.
3 stakes [plural] : something (such as money) that you could win or lose in a game, contest, etc. ▪ a poker game with high stakes ▪ The stakes are too high/low/big.
4 [count] a : an interest or share in a business ▪ They have a stake in the company. [=they own part of the company] ▪ a majority stake b : an interest or degree of involvement in something ▪ We all have a stake in the health of our economy. [=the health of our economy affects us all]
at stake : in a position to be lost or gained ▪ Millions of dollars are at stake in the battle over his inheritance. ▪ Thousands of jobs are at stake. ▪ Many lives are at stake. ▪ My reputation is at stake if this project fails. [=my reputation will be lost/damaged if this project fails] go to the stake for/over Brit : to defend (something or someone) even though your actions or statements may cause you trouble or harm ▪ She's willing to go to the stake for her beliefs.
pull up stakes US, informal : to leave your job or home ▪ Her career was going nowhere, so she decided it was time to pull up stakes.

[2]stake verb stakes; staked; stak•ing [+ obj]
1 : to risk the loss of (something, such as money) — usually + on ▪ She staked [=bet, wagered] all her money on the race. ▪ He staked [=risked] his reputation on the success of the new

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 164 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

plan. ▪ The corporation staked billions of dollars on the deal. ▪ She staked everything on one last attempt. ▪ That's the man who robbed the bank. I would stake my life on it. [=I am absolutely sure]

2 : to support (something, such as a plant) with stakes ▪ She staked the tomatoes to keep them from falling over.

stake out [phrasal verb] stake (something) out or stake out (something) 1 : to mark the limits of (an area) with stakes ▪ stake out a mining area ▪ We staked out the area where the pool will be installed. 2 : to watch (a place) secretly especially because you are looking for illegal activity ▪ The police staked out the building until they caught the vandals. — see also STAKEOUT 3 : to state (your opinion) in a very clear and definite way ▪ He staked out his position on this issue in a speech he gave last month.

stake (out) a/your claim : to say or show that you believe you should have something or that you deserve something ▪ They staked their claim to the land. ▪ With her strong showing in the early rounds of the tournament, she has staked her claim to be considered one of the favorites.

stake•hold•er /ˈsteɪkˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or business that has invested money in something (such as a company) ▪ corporate stakeholders
2 : a person who holds the money that people have bet on something and then gives it to the winner stake•out /ˈsteɪkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : a situation in which the police secretly watch a place in order to look for illegal activity ▪ The drug deal was witnessed during a stakeout of the building. ▪ The police were on a stakeout. — see also stake out at ²STAKE sta•lac•tite /stəˈlækˌtaɪt, Brit ˈstæləkˌtaɪt/ noun, pl -tites [count] : a pointed piece of rock that hangs down from the roof of a cave and that is formed by dripping water which contains minerals sta•lag•mite /stəˈlægˌmaɪt, Brit ˈstæləgˌmaɪt/ noun, pl -mites [count] : a pointed piece of rock that sticks up from the floor of a cave and that is formed by dripping water which contains minerals stalactite and stalagmite

stale /ˈsteɪl/ adj stal•er; -est [more ~; most ~]
1 a of food : no longer good or appealing : no longer fresh ▪ stale food ▪ stale bread b : not clean, clear, or pure : having an unpleasant taste or smell ▪ stale air/water ▪ a room filled with stale smoke
2 : not interesting or new : boring or unoriginal ▪ stale news/jokes ▪ Their relationship went stale. [=became dull or predictable]
3 : not as strong, effective, or energetic as before ▪ She felt stale [=bored] in her job.

stale•mate /ˈsteɪlˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates
1 : a contest, dispute, competition, etc., in which neither side can gain an advantage or win [count] The budget debate ended in a stalemate. ▪ The new agreement could break the stalemate. [noncount] The budget debate ended in stalemate.
2 [count, noncount] : a situation in chess in which a player cannot successfully move any of the pieces and neither player can win ▪ The game ended in (a) stalemate. — compare CHECKMATE – stalemate verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] ▪ He was stalemated by the opposition.

¹stalk /ˈstɔːk/ noun, pl stalks [count]
1 : a thick or tall stem of a plant ▪ a flower stalk ▪ celery stalks — see color pictures on pages C4 and C6; see also CORNSTALK
2 : a thin, upright object or part that supports or connects something ▪ the stalk of a goblet

²stalk verb stalks; stalked; stalk•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to follow (an animal or person that you are hunting or trying to capture) by moving slowly and quietly ▪ Lions stalked the herd. ▪ a movie about a detective being stalked by a killer b : to go through (a place or area) while hunting ▪ This is the time of year when hunters are stalking the woods for deer. — often used figuratively ▪ A killer stalks the streets of the city. [=there is a killer somewhere in the city] ▪ a city that is stalked by fear [=a city where people are in a constant state of fear]
2 [+ obj] : to follow, watch, and bother (someone) constantly in a way that is frightening, dangerous, etc. ▪ She called the police because her ex-boyfriend was stalking her.
3 always followed by an adverb or a preposition [no obj] : to walk in a stiff or proud manner ▪ She angrily stalked out of the room.
– stalk•ing /ˈstɔːkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He was arrested and charged with stalking.

stalk•er /ˈstɔːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who closely follows and watches another person for a long period of time in a way that is threatening, dangerous, etc. ▪ a famous actress who is being threatened by a stalker ▪ She has a stalker. [=someone is stalking her]
2 : a person who slowly and quietly hunts an animal ▪ a deer stalker

stalking horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] : someone or something that is used to hide a true purpose; especially : a candidate for a political office or position who has no real chance of winning but is being used by a political party to weaken the support for an opposing party, to find out if another candidate might be successful, etc.

¹stall /ˈstɔːl/ noun, pl stalls
1 [count] : a small open counter or partially enclosed structure where things are displayed for sale ▪ food stalls ▪ a souvenir stall ▪ a market stall ▪ She set up a stall selling jewelry in the marketplace.
2 [count] : an enclosed area in a building where a farm animal (such as a horse or cow) is kept ▪ She cleaned the horses' stalls.
3 [count] : a seat in a church that is wholly or partly enclosed ▪ choir stalls
4 [count] chiefly US : a small, enclosed area with room for one person in a bathroom ▪ shower stalls; especially : a small, enclosed area with a toilet ▪ All the (bathroom) stalls were occupied.
5 the stalls Brit : the seats on the main level of a theater in front of the stage ▪ Our tickets are for seats in the stalls. [=(US) the orchestra]
– compare ³STALL

²stall verb stalls; stalled; stall•ing
1 of an engine : to stop suddenly because of a problem [no obj] The engine suddenly stalled. [+ obj] Stopping too quickly can stall the engine.
2 of an airplane : to stop flying suddenly and begin to fall because the wings cannot produce enough lift [no obj] The airspeed got very low and the plane nearly stalled. [+ obj] The pilot almost stalled the airplane.
3 [+ obj] : to put or keep (an animal) in a stall ▪ They stalled the horses for the night.
– compare ⁴STALL

³stall noun [singular] : a situation in which an engine suddenly stops or an airplane suddenly stops flying ▪ an engine stall ▪ The airplane went into a stall. — compare ¹STALL

⁴stall verb stalls; stalled; stalling
1 : to avoid doing something or to delay someone in a deliberate way because you need more time, do not want to do something, etc. [no obj] Please stop stalling and answer the question. [+ obj] Try to stall them until I get the place cleaned up.
2 : to stop progressing or developing [no obj] The economic recovery has stalled. ▪ His career has stalled in recent years. [+ obj] Budget problems have stalled the project.
– compare ²STALL

stall•hold•er /ˈstɔːlˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : someone who manages a stall at which goods are sold

stal•lion /ˈstæljən/ noun, pl -lions [count] : an adult male horse and especially one that is used for breeding — compare GELDING

¹stal•wart /ˈstɔːlwət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : very loyal and dedicated ▪ stalwart fans/supporters
2 : physically strong ▪ their strong and stalwart son ▪ stalwart fortifications
– stal•wart•ly adv

²stalwart noun, pl -warts [count] formal : a loyal supporter ▪ party stalwarts [=people who support a political party very loyally]

sta•men /ˈsteɪmən/ noun, pl -mens [count] botany : the part of a flower that produces pollen — see picture at FLOWER; compare PISTIL stam•i•na /ˈstæmənə/ noun [noncount] : great physical or mental strength that allows you to continue doing something for a long time ▪ Do you have the/enough stamina to finish the job?

stam•mer /ˈstæmə/ verb -mers; -mered; -mer•ing : to speak with many pauses and repetitions because you have a speech problem or because you are very nervous, frightened, etc. [no obj] He stammers [=stutters] when he's nervous. [+ obj] "I d-don't know what you're talking about!" she stammered. ▪ He stammered an excuse and fled.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 165 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

– stammer noun [singular] ▪ He develops a stammer [=stutter] when he's nervous. – stam•mer•er /ˈstæmərɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]stamp /ˈstæmp/ noun, pl stamps
1 [count] a : a small piece of paper that you buy and then stick to an envelope or package to pay the cost of mailing it ▪ a 39-cent stamp — called also postage stamp; see picture at MAIL b : a small piece of paper that is attached to something and that shows that a tax or fee has been paid — see also FOOD STAMP
2 [count] a : a device or tool that is used to mark something (such as a piece of paper) with a design, pattern, word, etc., by being pushed against a surface : a device or tool used for stamping something — see also RUBBER STAMP b : the mark made by a stamp ▪ There was a stamp on the letter showing the date when it was received.
3 a [singular] : a sign of a special or specific quality — usually + of ▪ Her poetry bears the stamp of genius. ▪ His quiet manner gives/lends his words the stamp of authority. [=makes his words seem authoritative] b [count] : an indication of something — usually singular ▪ She gave the plan her stamp of approval. [=she approved the plan] c [singular] : an important or lasting effect ▪ He put/left his stamp on the process. [=he affected/changed the process in some important way]
4 [singular] literary : a particular kind or type ▪ He was a man of a different stamp. [=he was a different sort of man]
5 [count] : the act of bringing your foot down heavily and noisily ▪ an angry stamp of his foot

[2]stamp verb stamps; stamped; stamp•ing
1 [+ obj] : to bring (your foot) down heavily and noisily ▪ He stamped his foot in anger. ▪ The fans cheered and stamped [=stomped] their feet as the team took the lead.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to walk heavily and noisily ▪ She stamped [=stomped] off in a huff. ▪ He stamped out of the room.
3 [+ obj] a : to use a special device (called a stamp) to put a design, word, etc., on something : to create a mark by pressing a special tool against a surface ▪ She stamped the bill "paid." ▪ He stamped the date on the letter. = He stamped the letter with the date. b [+ obj] : to form (something) with a device that presses down on a material and cuts out shapes ▪ newly stamped coins
4 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to stay in your mind or memory ▪ The event is stamped [=imprinted] in her mind.
5 [+ obj] : to attach a postage stamp to (something) ▪ stamp a letter ▪ a stamped envelope stamp as [phrasal verb] stamp (someone) as (something) : to show that (someone) is (a particular type of person) ▪ The decision stamped him as a man of honor.
stamp on [phrasal verb] stamp on (something) 1 : to step heavily on (something) with your foot ▪ She accidentally stamped on my toe. 2 : to end (something) in a forceful way ▪ The city council stamped on any efforts to build a liquor store.
stamp out [phrasal verb] stamp (something) out or stamp out (something) 1 : to stop or destroy (something bad) ▪ stamp out smallpox/corruption 2 : to stop (something) from burning by stepping on it forcefully with your feet ▪ stamp out a fire ▪ She stamped the cigarette out. [=she put out the cigarette by stepping on it]
– stamp•er noun, pl -ers [count]

stamp collecting noun [noncount] : the hobby of collecting postage stamps – stamp collector noun, pl ~ -tors [count]

[1]stam•pede /stæmˈpi:d/ noun, pl -pedes [count]
1 : an occurrence in which a large group of frightened or excited animals or people run together in a wild and uncontrolled way to escape from something, get out of a place, etc. ▪ a buffalo stampede ▪ a stampede to the exits
2 : a situation in which a lot of people try to do the same thing at the same time ▪ a stampede to buy the stock ▪ a stampede of new applicants

[2]stampede verb -pedes; -ped•ed; -ped•ing
1 a [no obj] : to run away in a large group from something especially because of fear ▪ The cattle stampeded. ▪ People stampeded to the exits. b [+ obj] : to cause (animals) to run away in a large group ▪ The gunshot stampeded the cattle.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a person or a group of people) to do something suddenly and without proper thought — often used as (be) stampeded into ▪ Don't let yourself be stampeded into doing something you don't really agree with.

stamping ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count] Brit : STOMPING GROUND stance /ˈstæns, Brit ˈstɑ:ns/ noun, pl stanc•es [count]

1 : a publicly stated opinion — usually singular ▪ He changed his stance after new evidence was discovered. ▪ She has maintained a neutral stance [=position] during the negotiations. ▪ She was criticized for her antiwar stance.
2 : a way of standing — usually singular ▪ She adopted a casual/relaxed stance. ▪ a batting stance [=the way someone stands to bat in baseball]

stanch (chiefly US) or staunch /ˈstɑ:nʧ/ verb stanch•es or staunch•es; stanched or staunched; stanch•ing or staunch•ing [+ obj] : to stop something (especially blood) from flowing ▪ He used a towel to try to stanch the (flow of) blood. ▪ I applied pressure to stanch the wound. [=to stop the flow of blood from the wound]

stan•chion /ˈstænʧən/ noun, pl -chions [count] : a strong, upright pole that is used to support something

[1]stand /ˈstænd/ verb stands; stood /ˈstʊd/; stand•ing
1 [no obj] a : to be in an upright position with all of your weight on your feet ▪ She was standing near the window. ▪ He was standing next to me. ▪ All of the seats on the bus were taken so we had to stand. ▪ Don't just stand there (doing nothing)—do something! ▪ He can stand using a cane. ▪ You're standing on my foot. [=you're standing with your foot on top of my foot] ▪ He was standing in a puddle of water. ▪ The deer stood still, listening for danger. ▪ The soldiers stood (up) straight. ▪ We had to stand in line for over an hour. ▪ People were just standing around [=standing without doing anything], waiting to get inside the theater. b : to move onto your feet from a sitting or low position ▪ Please stand [=(more formally) rise] for the national anthem. — often + up ▪ He stood up to greet her. ▪ She was crouching down to look at something, but she stood up when she saw me.
2 a [no obj] : to be in an upright position ▪ Two bowling pins were left standing. ▪ A shovel and rake stood in the corner. ▪ The house she grew up in is no longer standing. [=the house has been destroyed or knocked down; the house no longer exists] b [+ obj] : to put (something or someone) in an upright position ▪ She stood the ladder against the house. — often + up ▪ He stood the boy up on a chair. ▪ Could you stand the picture frame back up?
3 [no obj] a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to be in a particular place or position ▪ A clock stood on the mantelpiece. ▪ The mansion stands on a hill. ▪ A row of trees stands between the two houses. — often used figuratively ▪ A single putt stands between her and the title. [=if she makes the putt, she will win the title] ▪ Go ahead and leave. I won't stand in your way. [=I won't try to stop you] ▪ We won't let anyone or anything stand in the way of our happiness. [=prevent us from being happy] b : to remain in a place or position without moving or being moved ▪ The plane stood on the runway ready for takeoff. ▪ The machine stood idle. ▪ rainwater standing in stagnant pools ▪ Add the water and let the mixture stand for three minutes.
4 not used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to be a specified height ▪ He stands six feet two (inches tall). ▪ The tower stands over 1,000 feet high.
5 [no obj] : to be in a particular state or situation ▪ Where do we stand financially? [=what is our financial condition?] ▪ She stands accused of murder. [=she has been accused of murder]
6 [no obj] : to have a particular belief or opinion about something ▪ Where do you stand on the death penalty? Do you think it should be used or not? ▪ We still don't know where he stands on this issue. ▪ They stand divided [=they disagree] on this issue. ▪ She stands for/against the new regulations. [=she supports/opposes the new regulations] ▪ We ask you to stand (with us) in support of this proposal. [=we ask you to support this proposal] ▪ From where I stand, I think we have to do it.
7 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to have a particular rank or position within a group ▪ The team still stands [=ranks] first in the division. ▪ She is currently standing in second place. ▪ (chiefly Brit) He stands high/low with the voters. [=the voters have a good/bad opinion of him]
8 [no obj] : to continue to be at a specified number or

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 166 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

amount — often + at ▪ Interest rates stand at 13 percent. ▪ The home run record stands at 73.

9 [no obj] : to not be changed : to remain valid or effective ▪ The decision still stands. ▪ The record she set seems likely to stand for many years.

10 [no obj] : to exist at the present time ▪ You must take or leave our offer as it stands. ▪ That is how the situation stands at present. ▪ As things stand, we will not be able to meet your deadline.

11 [no obj] : to be in a position in which you are likely to gain or lose something — followed by to + verb ▪ We stand to make a sizable profit from the sale. ▪ They stand to lose their home if they can't find a way to pay their bills.

12 [+ obj] a : to be willing or able to accept (something or someone unpleasant) without complaint — usually used with can, can't, cannot, could, and couldn't ▪ Can you stand [=tolerate, put up with] waiting a few more minutes? = Can you stand to wait a few more minutes? ▪ How can you stand her friends? ▪ He couldn't stand [=bear, endure] the pain. ▪ I can only stand so much of your nonsense. ▪ His behavior was more than I could stand. ▪ I couldn't stand the thought/idea of having to move again. b — used to say that someone strongly dislikes a person or thing ▪ I can't stand him. [=I hate him] ▪ She can't stand cooking. = She can't stand to cook. ▪ They can't stand being apart. ▪ I can't stand it when people behave like that!

13 [+ obj] : to not be harmed by (something) : WITHSTAND ▪ I need a frying pan that can stand being placed in the oven. ▪ These plants can stand [=endure] very cold temperatures. ▪ His plays have stood the test of time. [=his plays are still read by many people today]

14 [+ obj] — used to say that someone or something should have or do something or would be helped by something; usually used after could ▪ You look like you could stand some sleep. [=you look very tired; you look like you need some sleep] ▪ He could stand losing a few pounds. = He could stand to lose a few pounds. ▪ That bush could stand to be trimmed. [=that bush needs to be trimmed]

15 [no obj] Brit : to be a candidate in an election for a particular office — often + for ▪ He is standing [=(US) running] for a seat in Parliament.

16 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to pay for (a meal or drink) ▪ I'll stand a meal for you. = I'll stand you a meal. ▪ He stood drinks for the table.

(as) sure as I'm standing here US, informal — used to say that you believe that something is certainly true, will happen, etc. ▪ They may claim that this was a surprise to them, but as sure as I'm standing here, they planned it all along.

I stand corrected see [2]CORRECT

make your hair stand on end see HAIR not have a leg to stand on see [1]LEG stand a chance see [1]CHANCE

stand alone 1 : to be in a position or situation in which you are not helped or supported by others ▪ She stood alone in her opposition to the proposal. 2 — used to say that someone or something is better than all others ▪ For great sound quality, this system stands alone.

stand aside [phrasal verb] 1 : move to the left or right with one or a few small steps ▪ Please stand aside and let me pass. 2 : to allow something to happen : to not try to stop someone from doing something ▪ I'm not going to stand aside [=stand by] and watch you ruin your life.

stand back [phrasal verb] 1 : to take a few steps backwards ▪ The paramedics told the crowd to stand back. 2 : to stop doing something or being actively involved in something for a time so that you can think about it and make decisions in a calm and reasonable way ▪ It's time to stand back [=step back] and take a long hard look at your problems.

stand behind [phrasal verb] stand behind (someone or something) : to support (someone or something) ▪ I'll stand behind you no matter what you decide to do. ▪ I'll stand behind your decision 100 percent.

stand by [phrasal verb] 1 : to stand or be present without taking any action while something is happening ▪ A group of students stood by and watched the boys fight. ▪ How can you stand by and do nothing? 2 : to be ready or available for use ▪ An ambulance was standing by in case anyone got seriously injured. ▪ Operators are standing by (to take your calls). — see also STANDBY 3 *stand by (something) a : to support or defend (something) ▪ He said that he was standing by what he said earlier. ▪ I stand by my actions and have no regrets. b : to act in the way that is required by (something, such as belief or promise) ▪ She stood by her promise. 4 *stand by (someone) : to remain loyal to (someone) : to continue to support (someone) ▪ They promised to stand by each other until the end. ▪ She stood by her husband throughout the trial.

stand down [phrasal verb] Brit 1 : to leave the witness stand in a court of law ▪ The judge thanked the witness and allowed her to stand down. 2 : to leave a job or official position ▪ He stood down [=stepped down] (from his office) as Lord Mayor. ▪ She stood down in favour of a more popular candidate.

stand firm : to refuse to change your decision, position, etc. ▪ The judge stood firm in her ruling.

stand for [phrasal verb] stand for (something) 1 : to have (a specified meaning) ▪ "FYI" stands for "for your information." ▪ The sign @ stands for "at." ▪ The color white often stands for [=represents] innocence and purity. 2 : to support (something) ▪ The political party has always stood for reform. 3 : to allow (something) to continue to happen — usually used in negative statements ▪ I will not stand for [=put up with] any more of this nonsense. — see also [1]STAND 15 (above) stand guard/watch : to stand in a position and guard or watch someone or something in order to look for possible danger, threats, etc. ▪ A soldier stood guard by the door.

stand in [phrasal verb] : to take the place of (someone who is away for a time) ▪ He can't be here today, so he asked me to stand in. [=fill in] — often + for ▪ He asked me to stand in for him while he was away. — see also STAND-IN

stand on ceremony see CEREMONY

stand on your head/hands : to be in a position in which your legs and feet are straight up in the air and your weight is supported by your head or hands ▪ She can stand on her head/hands. [=she can do a headstand/handstand]

stand on your own two feet see [1]FOOT

stand or fall — used to say that the future or success of someone or something depends on another person or thing ▪ We (will) stand or fall by their decision. [=their decision will control what happens to us] ▪ Our company will stand or fall on our ability to make better products than our competitors. [=our success or failure depends on our ability to make better products than our competitors]

stand out [phrasal verb] 1 : to be easily seen or noticed ▪ His bright tie made him stand out (in the crowd). ▪ The trees' red leaves stood out against the gray sky. 2 : to be better or more important than the other people or things in a group in a way that is easily seen or noticed ▪ As a student, she stood out above/from the rest. ▪ Only one contestant really stands out [=sticks out] in my mind. ▪ Two facts stand out from her testimony. ▪ His performance really stood out. 3 : to stick out from a surface ▪ The hat made her ears stand out. — see also STANDOUT

stand out like a sore thumb see [1]SORE

stand pat see [3]PAT

stand someone/something in good stead see STEAD

stand tall : to stand with your body very straight — often used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ We can stand tall and take pride in what we've accomplished. ▪ Despite the criticism, he has continued to stand tall.

stand to reason see [1]REASON stand trial : to be on trial in a court of law ▪ He is standing trial for the murder of his wife.

stand up [phrasal verb] 1 : to remain valid or acceptable when tested or examined ▪ We need evidence that will stand up in court. 2 *stand (someone) up informal : to fail to meet or keep an appointment with (someone) ▪ You stood me up yesterday. ▪ I got stood up by my date. 3 *stand up for (someone or something) : to defend (someone or something) against attack or criticism ▪ He stood up for his friend. ▪ You have to stand up for yourself. ▪ They were standing up for their rights. 4 *stand up to (someone) : to refuse to accept bad treatment from (someone) ▪ She finally stood up to the girl who had been teasing her at school. 5 *stand up to (something) : to remain in good condition despite (something) ▪ These boots have stood up to [=withstood] a lot of abuse. 6 *stand up and be counted : to make your opinions or beliefs publicly known especially when such action may cause trouble ▪ It's time for everyone who cares about this issue to stand up and be counted. — see also [1]STAND 1b, 2b (above), STAND-UP

stand your ground see [1]GROUND

[2]stand noun, pl stands

1 [count] : a strongly held opinion about something — usually singular ▪ The senator took a firm/strong stand against higher taxes. — often + on ▪ What is your stand on this issue?

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 167 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 [count] : a strong effort to defend yourself or oppose something ▪ The team insured their victory with an impressive goal-line stand. ▪ The army is preparing to make a stand against the enemy. ▪ students making a stand against the war
3 [count] : a partially enclosed structure where things are sold or displayed ▪ a hot-dog/ice-cream/vegetable stand ▪ He set up a stand [=booth] at the fair. ▪ We have display stands in many bookstores. ▪ concession stands ▪ a roadside stand — see also NEWSSTAND
4 [count] : a device or piece of furniture that holds an object in an upright position ▪ an umbrella stand ▪ a bicycle/microphone stand — see also NIGHTSTAND, WASHSTAND
5 [count] : a raised platform for people (such as performers or hunters) to stand on
6 the stands : the rows of seats in a stadium that people sit in when they are watching a sports event, concert, etc. ▪ The ball was hit into the stands. — see also GRANDSTAND
7 the stand : the place where a witness testifies in court : WITNESS STAND ▪ She lied while on the stand. ▪ The witness was asked to take the stand.
8 [count] chiefly US : a series of performances, games, etc., that are at a particular place for a period of time ▪ The magician was booked for a three-night stand. ▪ (baseball) The team has a six-game stand at home. = The team has a 6-game home stand. — see also ONE-NIGHT STAND 9 [count] : a group of plants growing close together ▪ a stand of pines
– see also HANDSTAND, HEADSTAND, TAXI STAND

stand–alone /ˈstændəˌloʊn/ adj : able to operate without control from another system, company, etc. ▪ stand-alone computers ▪ stand-alone businesses

[1]stan•dard /ˈstændəd/ noun, pl -dards
1 a : a level of quality, achievement, etc., that is considered acceptable or desirable [count] high/low standards of quality ▪ His work is not up to our standards. [=is not as good as we require it to be] ▪ By modern/today's standards, the house is just too small. ▪ industry standards ▪ Their standards are slipping. [noncount] His work is not up to standard. = His work is below standard. [=his work is not good enough] — see also DOUBLE STANDARD, STANDARD OF LIVING b standards [plural] : ideas about morally correct and acceptable behavior ▪ She has high moral standards. [=principles]
2 [count] : something that is very good and that is used to make judgments about the quality of other things ▪ This book is the standard by which all others must be judged.
3 [count] : a fixed official unit of measurement ▪ a standard of weight — see also GOLD STANDARD
4 [count] : a flag that is used in official ceremonies
5 [count] : a song that has been sung by many different artists ▪ an old standard

[2]standard adj
1 : regularly and widely used, seen, or accepted : not unusual or special ▪ a standard approach/treatment ▪ the standard features/colors ▪ a standard medical procedure ▪ standard weight ▪ a window of standard width ▪ The movie was a pretty standard romantic comedy.
2 : generally accepted and used because of high quality or excellence ▪ standard reference works
3 : accepted and used by most of the educated speakers and writers of a language ▪ standard spelling/English ▪ The word is considered standard. — opposite NONSTANDARD; compare SUBSTANDARD

stan•dard–bear•er /ˈstændədˌberəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] formal
1 : the leader of an organization, movement, or political party
2 : someone who carries a flag or banner

stan•dard–is•sue /ˈstændədˌɪˌʃuː/ adj : of the common or usual type ▪ a standard-issue [=typical] action movie ▪ a standard-issue blue suit

stan•dard•ize also Brit stan•dard•ise /ˈstændəˌdaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to change (things) so that they are similar and consistent and agree with rules about what is proper and acceptable ▪ He standardized procedures for the industry. ▪ standardized tests
– stan•dard•i•za•tion also Brit stan•dard•i•sa•tion /ˌstændədəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌstændəˌdaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

standard lamp noun, pl ~ lamps [count] Brit : FLOOR LAMP standard of living noun [singular] : the amount of wealth, comfort, and possessions that a person or group has ▪ People in that area enjoy a high standard of living. [=they have a lot of money and are able to live very comfortably] ▪ raising/lowering/improving our standard of living standard time noun [noncount] : the official time of a particular region or country

[1]stand•by /ˈstændˌbaɪ/ noun, pl stand•bys /ˈstændˌbaɪz/ [count] : a person or thing that is available especially in emergencies ▪ More police officers were sent as standbys. ▪ We bought an electric generator as a standby. — see also stand by at [1]STAND on standby 1 : ready or available for immediate action or use ▪ The police officers were put on standby. 2 : ready to travel if a ticket becomes available ▪ We're on standby for the next flight to Washington, D.C.

[2]standby adj, always used before a noun : relating to or traveling by an airline service in which the passenger must wait for an available seat ▪ standby tickets/passengers — see also stand by at [1]STAND stand•ee /stænˈdiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] chiefly US : a person who is standing when other people are sitting ▪ The audience of 3,000 included several hundred standees.

stand–in /ˈstændˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : a person or thing that takes the place of someone or something else for a period of time ▪ He was the boss's stand-in during her illness. — see also stand in at [1]STAND

[1]stand•ing /ˈstændɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : used in or for standing ▪ Start the exercise in a standing position. b : done while in a standing position ▪ a standing jump
2 : not flowing : STAGNANT ▪ standing water
3 : remaining at the same level or amount until canceled ▪ The standing offer for the computer system is $1,499.
4 : continuing to exist or be used for an unlimited period of time : PERMANENT ▪ standing armies/committees ▪ She has a standing invitation to use the university's research laboratory. ▪ a standing tradition ▪ It's a standing joke at the office. [=it's something that often happens or is said or done and that the people in the office think is funny] — see also FREESTANDING, LONG-STANDING

[2]standing noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : the position or rank of someone in a group ▪ He's trying to improve his standing with the voters. [=trying to get the voters to rank him more highly] ▪ a lawyer of high standing ▪ (chiefly US) a member in/of good standing [=status]
2 standings [plural] US, sports : a list that shows the positions of the players or teams that are competing against each other ▪ They've won five games in a row and are starting to move up in the standings. ▪ They're in first place in the current standings.
3 [noncount] : length of existence : DURATION ▪ a marriage of many years' standing standing order noun, pl ~ -ders [count, noncount] : an order or procedure that continues to be followed until it is changed or canceled ▪ She placed a standing order for fresh flowers every week. ▪ They were on standing orders never to leave the prisoner unattended.

standing ovation noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : an occurrence in which the people at a play, speech, sporting event, etc., stand up and applaud to show enthusiastic approval or appreciation ▪ The crowd gave her a standing ovation. — called also (US, informal) standing O

standing room noun [noncount] : space available for people to stand after all seats are filled ▪ There was standing room only at the concert. [=all the seats for the concert had been sold]

stand•off /ˈstændˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] : an argument, contest, etc., in which there is no winner ▪ The two governments are currently in a standoff over who has rights to the land. ▪ They played to a 3–3 standoff. [=tie] stand•off•ish /ˌstændˈɑːfɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not friendly toward other people ▪ She tends to be a bit standoffish with strangers.

stand•out /ˈstændˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] US : a person or thing that is better or more important than the others in a group ▪ She is a standout among the available candidates. ▪ All the cameras we tested were good, but there was no real standout. — often used before another noun ▪ a standout candidate/performance — see also stand out at [1]STAND stand•point /ˈstændˌpɔɪnt/ noun, pl -points [count] : a way in which something is thought about or considered

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 168 SESS: 81 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 12:00:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

: POINT OF VIEW ▪ From an economic standpoint, the policy is sound.

stand•still /ˈstændˌstɪl/ noun [singular] : a state in which all activity or motion is stopped ▪ Production is at a standstill. [=production has stopped completely] ▪ The accident brought traffic to a standstill.

[1]stand–up /ˈstændˌʌp/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : done by a performer who is standing alone on a stage ▪ stand-up comedy ▪ a stand-up act/routine b : performing stand-up comedy ▪ a stand-up comedian/comic
2 : done in or requiring a standing position ▪ a stand-up lunch/bar
3 : designed to stand upright ▪ a stand-up collar
4 US, informal : able to be trusted and respected : very good, loyal, etc. ▪ His friends say he's a real stand-up (kind of) guy.
5 Brit : involving very angry or violent behavior ▪ a stand-up fight/argument — see also stand up at [1]STAND

[2]stand–up noun, pl -ups
1 [noncount] : stand-up comedy ▪ I've always wanted to try stand-up.
2 [count] : a performer who does stand-up comedy : a stand-up comedian ▪ a talented stand-up

stank past tense of [1]STINK

stan•za /ˈstænzə/ noun, pl -zas [count] : a group of lines in a poem : VERSE

staph /ˈstæf/ noun [noncount] medical : a group of bacteria that cause many common illnesses (such as skin infections and food poisoning) ▪ a resistant strain of staph ▪ a staph infection

[1]sta•ple /ˈsteɪpəl/ noun, pl sta•ples [count] : a piece of metal or wire in the shape of a U that is used for attaching things: such as a : a short, thin wire that goes through papers and is bent over at the ends to hold the papers together or that goes through a piece of paper, a photograph, etc., to attach it to a surface ▪ Please fasten the pages (together) with paper clips rather than staples. ▪ The notice was attached to the wall with staples. — see also STAPLER b : a piece of metal or thick wire that is pushed into a surface to hold or attach something (such as rope or wire) — see also STAPLE GUN – compare [3]STAPLE

[2]staple verb staples; sta•pled; sta•pling [+ obj] : to attach (something) with staples ▪ I stapled the pages in the upper left corner. — often + to or together ▪ I stapled the check to the form. ▪ The notice had been stapled to the wall. ▪ I stapled the pages together.

[3]staple noun, pl staples [count]
1 : an important food that is eaten very often ▪ I need to buy some staples, like bread and milk. ▪ Rice is the staple of their diet.
2 : the main product of a country, area, company, etc. ▪ Technology has replaced steel as the region's staple.
3 : something that is used widely and often ▪ Rock music was a staple when I was growing up. — often + of ▪ His writings are a staple of [=a basic part of] economic theory.
– compare [1]STAPLE

[4]staple adj, always used before a noun
1 : used, needed, or enjoyed constantly by many people ▪ such staple items as flour and sugar ▪ That's a staple plot in mystery novels. — see also STAPLE DIET
2 : produced regularly or in large quantities ▪ staple crops like wheat, rice, or sugarcane staple diet noun [singular] : the food or foods that a person or animal eats most often ▪ Environmental changes are depriving the birds of the insects that form their staple diet. — often used figuratively ▪ I grew up on a staple diet of cartoons and comic books.

staple gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a tool used for putting large staples into walls, wood, etc.

sta•pler /ˈsteɪplə/ noun, pl -plers [count] : a device that you use to put staples into something (such as paper) — see picture at OFFICE

[1]star /ˈstɑə/ noun, pl stars [count]
1 : any one of the objects in space that are made of burning gas and that look like points of light in the night sky ▪ They gazed up at the stars. ▪ There are billions of stars in the universe. ▪ bright star clusters ▪ a distant star system ▪ The stars are out [=are not hidden by clouds] tonight. ▪ I'm glad we didn't use the tent. It's so much nicer to sleep outside under the stars. — see also EVENING STAR, MORNING STAR, NORTH STAR, POLE STAR, SHOOTING STAR
2 : a star or planet especially in a certain position that is believed in astrology to influence people's lives ▪ I was born under a lucky star. [=I was born lucky] — usually plural ▪ (Brit) Did you read your stars [=horoscope] today? ▪ I guess romance just isn't in the stars for me right now. [=romance isn't going to happen for me right now] ▪ You can thank your lucky stars [=you are lucky] that no one was hurt. — see also STAR-CROSSED

star

3 a : something (such as a symbol or medal) with five or more points that represents or suggests a star ▪ The teacher gives out gold stars [=gold stickers in the shape of stars] for good behavior. ▪ I put stars [=asterisks] next to the most important items in the list. — see also BRONZE STAR, SILVER STAR, STARS AND STRIPES b : a symbol that is shaped like a star and that is used as part of a rating system to show how good something is ▪ The restaurant was awarded four stars for excellence. ▪ Critics give the movie three stars. — see also FIVE-STAR, FOUR-STAR
4 a : the most important and well-known performer in a movie, play, etc. ▪ She's the star of the show. b : an extremely famous and successful performer or athlete ▪ His performance in that film made him a star. ▪ She always dreamed of being a movie star. ▪ baseball/football/track stars ▪ a rock/pop star ▪ He's made a name for himself as the hair stylist to the stars. [=for famous people] — often used before another noun ▪ star athletes ▪ the star system [=the practice of using famous actors in movies, etc., in order to attract a bigger audience] ▪ The producers are looking for someone with star quality. [=the talent, looks, etc., needed to become a star] c : a person who is very successful, important, etc. ▪ There were many talented students in the class, but she was clearly the star. [=the most talented one] ▪ He is a rising star [=a person who is becoming more popular and successful] in the world of politics. — often used before another noun ▪ a star student ▪ our star trumpeter ▪ She was the star witness at the trial. ▪ The pandas are the zoo's star attraction. [=they are the most popular attraction at the zoo] — see also MEGASTAR, SUPERSTAR
5 Brit, informal : someone who is good or helpful ▪ "Thank you. You're a star!"
(have) stars in your eyes ✧ If you have stars in your eyes you are very hopeful and excited about something and think that it will be much better or more enjoyable than it actually is. ▪ When she left home she had stars in her eyes.
promise (someone) the stars see [2]PROMISE reach for the stars : to try to do something that is very difficult and impressive ▪ She always encouraged her children to reach for the stars.
see stars : to see flashes of light usually because you have been hit on the head ▪ I bumped into the wall so hard that I saw stars.
– star•less /ˈstɑələs/ adj ▪ a cloudy, starless sky – star•like /ˈstɑəˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a starlike pattern ▪ white starlike flowers

[2]star verb stars; starred; star•ring
1 a [no obj] : to play the most important role in a movie, play, etc. — usually + in ▪ an actor who has starred in many films ▪ The couple will star together in a new play. ▪ She had the starring role [=she was the star] in her last three films. b [+ obj] : to have (someone) as the most important performer ▪ The new television series stars a famous movie actress. ▪ a concert starring some of the biggest names in the business
2 [no obj] : to perform extremely well ▪ He starred in both baseball and football when he was in college. ▪ She starred for/with the basketball team last year.
3 [+ obj] : to mark (something) with a star or other symbol ▪ This restaurant is starred in the guidebook.
– see also ILL-STARRED star anise noun [noncount] : a small brown star-shaped fruit that is dried and used as a spice especially in Chinese cooking star•board /ˈstɑəbəd/ noun [noncount] : the side of a ship or aircraft that is on the right when you are looking toward the front ▪ The ship turned to starboard. — compare PORT – starboard adj ▪ the starboard side/engine

star•burst /ˈstɑəˌbəst/ noun, pl -bursts [count] : something (such as a pattern) that looks like rays of light spreading out from a center ▪ a starburst of color ▪ a starburst design

[1]starch /ˈstɑəʧ/ noun, pl starch•es
1 : a substance that is found in certain foods (such as bread, rice, and potatoes) [noncount] the starch in pasta ▪ They tried to limit starch [=starchy foods] in their diet. [count]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 169 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

The body breaks down starches [=carbohydrates] into sugars. — see also CORNSTARCH

2 [noncount] : a powder or liquid that contains starch and is used to make clothing stiff take the starch out of US, informal + old-fashioned : to make (someone) weak or unsure : to cause (someone) to lose energy or confidence ▪ When he lost the second game, it seemed to take the starch out of him.

[2]starch verb starches; starched; starch•ing [+ obj] : to make (clothing) stiff by using starch ▪ He starches the collars of his shirts. ▪ a starched collar ▪ a starched white uniform starchy /'stɑɚʧi/ adj starch•i•er; -est

1 : containing, consisting of, or resembling starch ▪ a starchy diet ▪ starchy foods

2 : very formal and serious in behavior ▪ a starchy traditionalist

– starch•i•ness /'stɑɚʧinəs/ noun [noncount] star–crossed /'stɑɚˌkrɑ:st/ adj : not lucky : having bad luck ▪ star-crossed lovers

star•dom /'stɑɚdəm/ noun [noncount] : the state of being a very famous performer ▪ an actress who has achieved movie stardom ▪ When he went to Hollywood he had dreams of stardom. [=dreams of becoming a star] ▪ the path to stardom

[1]stare /'steɚ/ verb stares; stared; star•ing [no obj] : to look at someone or something for a long time often with your eyes wide open ▪ She was staring straight ahead. = Her eyes were staring straight ahead. ▪ She stared out the window. ▪ His mother told him not to stare. — often + at ▪ We just sat and stared at each other. ▪ They stared in disbelief at the accident scene. ▪ I spend a lot of my time staring at a computer screen. — often used figuratively ▪ The solution was staring right at me but I didn't see it. [=the solution was obvious but I failed to see it] synonyms see [1]GAZE

stare daggers (at someone) see DAGGER

stare down (US) or Brit stare out [phrasal verb] stare (someone) down/out or stare down/out (someone) : to look directly into someone's eyes without fear until he or she becomes uncomfortable and looks away ▪ The batter tried to stare down the pitcher. — often used figuratively ▪ They had stared down danger more than once.

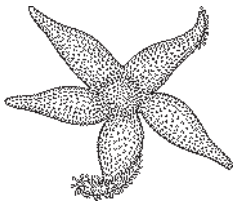
stare (off) into space see [1]SPACE

stare (someone) in the face also chiefly US stare (someone) in the eye(s) : to look directly into the eyes of (someone) ▪ She stared me in the face and told me to leave. — usually used figuratively ▪ The solution was staring me in the face. [=the solution was obvious but I failed to see it] ▪ Failure was staring him in the face. [=he was very close to failing; he was almost certain to fail] ▪ They stared death in the face/eye [=they came very close to death; they did something that was very dangerous and that could have caused their death] and didn't flinch.

[2]stare noun, pl stares [count] : the act of looking directly at someone or something for a long time : the act of staring ▪ They looked at me with accusing stares. ▪ I asked him about it, but my question only drew/got a blank stare. [=he looked at me in a way that showed he did not understand or know the answer to my question]

fix (someone) with a stare see [1]FIX

star• sh - sh •es /'stɑɚˌʃ/ noun, pl also - sh •es [count] : a sea animal that has five arms and that looks like a star



starfish

star•gaz•er /'stɑɚˌgeɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who looks at the stars : a person who studies astronomy or astrology star•gaz•ing /'stɑɚˌgeɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or practice of looking at or studying the stars ▪ We left the city after dark to do some stargazing.

[1]stark /'stɑɚk/ adj stark•er; -est

1 : having a very plain and often cold or empty appearance ▪ a stark white room ▪ a stark landscape ▪ a stark winter day ▪ The room was decorated with stark simplicity.

2 : unpleasant and difficult to accept or experience ▪ the stark reality of death ▪ She gave the facts of the case in stark [=harsh] and sobering detail. ▪ This tragedy serves as a stark reminder of the dangers of drunk driving.

3 : very obvious : very plain and easily seen ▪ There is a stark difference between them. ▪ His criticism of the movie stands in stark contrast to the praise it has received from others.

– stark•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a starkly modern building – stark•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the starkness of black and white

[2]stark adv : completely or fully ▪ He was standing there stark naked. [=he was wearing no clothes at all] ▪ That noise is going to drive me stark raving mad. = (Brit) That noise is going to drive me stark staring mad. [=completely insane]

stark•ers /'stɑɚkɚz/ adj, chiefly Brit, informal : completely naked ▪ He was standing there starkers.

star•let /'stɑɚlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a young movie actress ▪ She was a starlet in the 1940s.

star•light /'stɑɚˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the light produced by stars ▪ We had to find our way by starlight.

star•ling /'stɑɚlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a dark brown or black bird that is common in Europe and the U.S. — see color picture on page C9 star•lit /'stɑɚˌlɪt/ adj : lighted by the stars ▪ We slept outdoors under a starlit sky.

Star of Da•vid /-'deɪvəd/ noun, pl Stars of David [count] : a six-pointed star that is used as a symbol of Judaism and of Israel — usually singular star•ry /'stɑri/ adj star•ri•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : full of stars ▪ the starry heavens ▪ a starry sky

2 : having a shape like a star ▪ starry flowers

3 : including many famous actors, athletes, etc. ▪ a starry [=star-studded] cast

4 : shining brightly ▪ She gazed at him with starry eyes.

star•ry–eyed /'stɑriˌaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having hopes and desires that are not realistic or practical ▪ starry-eyed lovers ▪ She was too starry-eyed about her future.

Stars and Stripes noun

the Stars and Stripes : the flag of the United States star sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] : one of the 12 symbols of the zodiac ▪ What is your star sign? — called also sign star•struck /'stɑɚˌstrʌk/ adj : feeling or showing great interest in and admiration for famous people ▪ starstruck fans ▪ She stared at him in starstruck awe. ▪ I know she's famous, but try not to act starstruck when you meet her.

star–stud•ded /'stɑɚˌstʌdəd/ adj : having many famous actors, athletes, etc. ▪ The play featured a star-studded cast.

[1]start /'stɑɚt/ verb starts; start•ed; start•ing

1 a : to do the first part of something : to begin doing something [+ obj] They started clearing land for the new housing development. ▪ He started the speech (out) with a joke. ▪ He started studying music at the age of five. ▪ She saw her divorce as an opportunity to start a new life. = She saw her divorce as an opportunity to start life anew/afresh/over. [no obj] As soon as you're ready to play, we'll start. ▪ Let's start with some warm-up exercises. ▪ He deleted what he wrote and started fresh/again/over. ▪ Nothing like this had ever been done before, so we had to start from scratch. [=we had to begin from a point at which nothing had been done yet] ▪ Olympic athletes start young and train hard. ▪ The tire tracks at the scene of the crime were a starting point for investigators. [=investigators used the tire tracks to start their investigation] b [+ obj] : to begin to work on, produce, or give attention to (something) ▪ I started the quilt last month. ▪ Have you started your book report? ▪ Did you start (reading) the book yet? c [+ obj] : to cause (something) to begin ▪ We started the meeting at 6:30. : to cause (something) to begin in a specified way ▪ She started the meeting with a brief review of the previous meeting. ▪ He starts every day with a cup of coffee. d [+ obj] : to begin to have a feeling, thought, etc. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She started to feel dizzy soon after the accident. ▪ I'm starting to think the oversight was intentional. — sometimes + -ing verb ▪ She started feeling dizzy soon after the accident. ▪ He started having chest pains. e : to begin working at a new job or going to school [+ obj] I start my new job next Monday. ▪ When does she start school? [no obj] I just got a new job. I start next week.

2 a : to begin to happen, to exist, to be done, etc. [no obj] The fire started in the cellar. ▪ The rain will start soon and should end sometime this evening. ▪ The game started late. ▪ Starting next week, all employees will be required to wear ID tags. ▪ The movie just started. ▪ What is the movie's starting time? ▪ When does school start? ▪ The game was just starting when it began to rain. [+ obj] — often followed by to + verb ▪ It started to rain. ▪ The leaves are starting to change colors. — often + -ing verb ▪ It started raining. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to exist or happen ▪ He started a scholarship fund. ▪ The tradition was started many years ago. ▪ "Stop fighting, you two!" "He started it." [=he did something to cause the fight] ▪ She's always starting arguments. ▪ They want to start a family [=begin to have children] soon.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 170 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

3 a [no obj] : to begin to function or operate ▪ The car/engine won't start. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to begin to function or operate ▪ She started the car and drove away.

4 [+ obj] : to begin the use of (something) ▪ You'll have to start a new roll of tape. This one's empty.

5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to have a particular beginning : to begin at a specified place or in a specified way ▪ The English alphabet starts with A and ends with Z. ▪ The first word in a sentence should start with a capital letter. ▪ The parade starts at the intersection of First and Main. ▪ The path/trail starts here and ends at the lake. b : to have a specified quality, identity, job, etc., at the beginning — often + as ▪ What started (off) as a simple idea has become an expensive and complicated project. ▪ She started (out) as a sales assistant but is now the marketing director.

6 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to begin to move toward a particular place or in a particular direction ▪ We'll start for home soon. ▪ We should start back to the camp before it gets dark. ▪ He started toward the door. ▪ The dog started after the squirrel.

7 [no obj] — used to indicate the beginning of a range, series, etc.; often + at ▪ The rates start at $10 per hour. ▪ At his company, salaries start at around $30,000. [=$30,000 is the lowest salary] ▪ Interest rates for CDs were starting at 3.9 percent. ▪ What is the starting salary for the job? [=what is the salary people are paid when they start the job?] ▪ The starting price [=the basic price when nothing extra has been added] for the car is $18,000.

8 a : to participate in a game or contest at its beginning [no obj] Despite his injury, he'll start in center field today. ▪ The manager removed the starting pitcher [=the pitcher who was playing at the beginning of the game] in the third inning. ▪ He's in the starting lineup. [=a list of the players who will be playing when the game begins] — often + for ▪ Who's starting for the home team? [+ obj] He'll start today's game in center field. ▪ a pitcher who has started five games so far this year ▪ She started the race but wasn't able to finish. b [+ obj] : to put (someone or something) into a game or contest at its beginning ▪ The coach is starting him at quarterback for the next game. ▪ He plans to start [=enter] the horse in only a few races this year.

9 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone) to begin doing something ▪ Her questions started me thinking. : to cause (someone) to begin a job or activity in a particular way, at a particular level, etc. ▪ The company started him at the same salary he had been getting at his previous job. b : to cause (someone) to begin talking about a particular subject ▪ "What do you think of the new boss?" "Don't get me started. I can't stand him." — often + on ▪ Don't get him started on the war: he'll never stop!

10 [no obj] : to move suddenly and quickly because you are surprised or frightened ▪ The loud noise made him start. [=jump] ▪ The horse started when the shot rang out.

11 [no obj] informal : to begin complaining, arguing, etc. ▪ He started with me, so I hit him. ▪ Don't (you) start (with me). I made a mistake—that's the end of it.

get started : to begin doing or working on something ▪ You (had) better get started if you want to finish on time. ▪ newlyweds who are just getting started [=who are just starting their lives together] start in [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal 1 : to start doing a particular activity or action ▪ He took a break from painting to eat lunch, then started in again. — often + on ▪ She started in on another book. 2 *start in on (someone) : to criticize (someone) about something ▪ My dad started in on me about not having a job.

start off [phrasal verb] 1 *start off or start (something) off or start off (something) : to start or cause (something) to start in a specified way ▪ He started off by introducing himself. ▪ She started off (her run) at a slow jog. ▪ The performance started off badly. — often + with ▪ I started off my speech with a joke. ▪ We started off the meal with shrimp cocktails. ▪ The team started the season off with a 10-game winning streak. 2 : to have a specified quality, identity, job, etc., at the start ▪ She started off as a sales assistant but is now the marketing director. 3 : to begin an important period in your life or career ▪ The house is perfect for a couple just starting off. 4 : to begin to move toward a particular place or in a particular direction ▪ She ate breakfast before starting off for work. 5 *start (someone) off or start off (someone) : to cause (someone) to begin doing a particular activity or action ▪ He started his daughter off on the piano. ▪ The game-show host started her off with some easy questions.

start on [phrasal verb] 1 *start on (something) : to begin doing (something) ▪ Did you start on your homework yet? 2 *start (someone) on (something) : to cause (someone) to start doing or using (something) ▪ The doctor started him on [=made him start taking] antibiotics. ▪ When should we start the baby on solid food? [=start feeding the baby solid food] 3 *start on at (someone) chiefly Brit, informal : to criticize (someone) about something ▪ Don't start on at me again about spending money!

start out [phrasal verb] 1 : to begin in a specified way ▪ He started out by introducing himself. ▪ She started out at a slow jog. ▪ The day started out hot and humid. ▪ The story started out good, but I didn't like the ending. ▪ She started out wanting to be a doctor but became a midwife instead. — often + with ▪ I started out with $100 but I have only $10 left. ▪ Let's start out with some warm-up exercises. 2 : to have a specified quality, identity, job, etc., at the start ▪ What started out as a simple idea has become an expensive and complicated project. ▪ He started out in teaching before becoming a lawyer. 3 : to begin an important period in your life or career ▪ The couple is just starting out. ▪ She started out on a career in teaching. 4 : to begin to travel ▪ They started out in the early morning. 5 : to have a particular place as a beginning point ▪ The parade starts out at the intersection of First and Main.

start over [phrasal verb] chiefly US 1 *start over or start (something) over : to begin doing something again ▪ I'm sorry, but you'll have to start over. = I'm sorry, but you'll have to start (all) over again. ▪ She saw her divorce as an opportunity to start (her life) over. 2 : to begin to happen again ▪ In the spring, the eggs hatch, and the cycle starts over. = The cycle starts (all) over again.

start something also start anything informal : to do something that causes trouble ▪ She is always trying to start something. ▪ Don't start anything.

start the ball rolling see [1]BALL

start up [phrasal verb] 1 : to begin to happen or exist ▪ New businesses are starting up all over the state. ▪ The rain started up again. 2 *start up or start (something) up or start up (something) : to begin to function or to make (something) begin to function ▪ The car/engine won't start up. ▪ He started the lawn mower up.

to start with 1 — used to introduce a statement that is the first in a series of statements ▪ "I don't think we should buy the car." "Why not?" "To start with, I'm not sure we can afford it." 2 : at the beginning : before the current time or situation ▪ She has lost a lot of weight, and she wasn't very heavy to start with. ▪ He didn't like his job to start with [=at first, initially], but he got used to it eventually.

[2]start noun, pl starts

1 [count] : the time at which something begins — usually singular ▪ At the season's start, the team didn't play well. ▪ It was clear from the (very) start that she would eventually succeed. ▪ The game was close from start to finish. — often + of ▪ The start of the race was delayed.

2 [count] : the first part of an activity, development, event, etc. — usually singular ▪ The restaurant is off to a promising/shaky start. ▪ His parents gave him a good start in life. ▪ Their marriage got off to a good/bad start. [=was good/bad at the beginning] — often + of ▪ We missed the start of the game. ▪ Their discovery could be the start of something big. — see also FLYING START, RUNNING START, a slow start at [1]SLOW

3 [count] : the first opportunity to begin a career — usually singular ▪ the company where he got his start [=where he started his career] — often + in ▪ She got her start in an off-Broadway play. ▪ She gave him his start in the business.

4 [count] : the act of starting something ▪ Housing starts [=the number of new houses that people started to build] declined in September. — usually singular ▪ Despite his late start, he managed to take the lead in the race. ▪ She got an early start working in the garden the next morning. ▪ We didn't get as much done as we'd hoped, but it's a start. ▪ Her divorce gave her an opportunity to make a fresh/new start. [=to start a new life] ▪ He made a start on dinner. [=he started dinner] — see also FALSE START

5 [singular] : a brief, sudden action or movement ▪ She gave a start [=started, jumped] when he tapped her on the shoulder. ▪ He woke with a start.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 171 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

6 the start : the place where a race begins ▪ The runners lined up at the start.
7 [count] sports a : a game in which someone (such as a baseball pitcher) is playing at the beginning ▪ He's undefeated in six starts this year. [=he has started six games and has won them all] ▪ He pitched poorly in his last start. b : a race in which a person, horse, etc., participates as a competitor ▪ The horse has had 10 starts this season.
8 [count] : HEAD START by/in fits and starts see ⁴FIT for a start — used to introduce a statement that is the first in a series of statements ▪ "What was the restaurant like?" "Well, for a start [=for starters], the food was fantastic."

¹start•er /ˈstɑətɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a player, horse, etc., that is in a game or race at its beginning ▪ The team is playing only five regular starters.
2 : someone who gives the signal for a race to start
3 : a device that is used for starting an engine ▪ The car's starter needs to be replaced.
4 : someone or something that starts an activity, process, etc. ▪ He was a late starter in school. [=he started school later than most children] ▪ The question was a good conversation starter. ▪ He bought a starter kit for building a model airplane. — see also SELF-STARTER
5 chiefly Brit : APPETIZER for starters — used to introduce a statement that is the first in a series of statements ▪ "Why don't you like him?" "Well, for starters [=first of all], he was rude to my parents."

²starter adj, always used before a noun — used to describe something small or basic that you get when you are doing something for the first time ▪ She bought a starter piano for her daughter. ▪ This small house would make a great starter home/house [=a first home] for a young couple.

starting block noun, pl ∼ blocks [count] : a device that has two blocks for runners to put their feet on and push against at the start of a race — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He came charging out of the starting blocks to take an early lead in the campaign.

starting gate noun, pl ∼ gates [count] : a gate or set of gates that opens at the start of a horse or dog race to let the animals begin racing starting gun noun, pl ∼ guns [count] : a special gun used to signal the beginning of a race ▪ The official fired the starting gun and the runners were off.; also : the signal made by a starting gun ▪ As soon as she heard the starting gun, she took off running.

starting line noun, pl ∼ lines [count] : a line that marks the beginning of a race

star•tle /ˈstɑətl/ verb star•tles; star•tled; star•tling
1 [+ obj] : to surprise or frighten (someone) suddenly and usually not seriously ▪ The noise startled me. ▪ I'm sorry that I startled you. — often used as (be) startled ▪ I was startled by the noise. ▪ He was startled to discover he knew the answer. ▪ She was startled into wakefulness by a loud noise.
2 [no obj] : to move or jump suddenly because something surprises you or frightens you ▪ The cat startles easily.

star•tling /ˈstɑətlɪŋ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : very surprising, shocking, or frightening ▪ Startling new evidence/facts came to light during the trial. ▪ He made a startling discovery/revelation. ▪ It is a city of startling contrasts.
– star•tling•ly adv ▪ startlingly loud noises ▪ The prediction was startlingly accurate.

start–up /ˈstɑətˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : a new business ▪ They were looking for money to fund/launch a start-up. — often used before another noun ▪ small start-up businesses/companies ▪ start-up funds/money star turn noun, pl ∼ turns [count]

1 : a performance or role in a movie, play, etc., that is done by a star or that makes someone become a star ▪ She was nominated for an Oscar for her star turn as a single mother raising three children alone. ▪ do a star turn
2 Brit : the most important or successful person or thing in a group (such as a sports team) : STAR ▪ She was the star turn in yesterday's game.

star•va•tion /stɑəˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : suffering or death caused by having nothing to eat or not enough to eat : the condition of someone who is starving ▪ The famine brought mass starvation. ▪ Millions of people face starvation every day. ▪ They died from/of starvation.

starvation diet noun, pl ∼ diets [count] : a diet that does not provide a person with enough food to be healthy starvation wages noun [plural] : money paid to workers that is not enough to pay for the things (such as food and shelter) that are needed to live starve /stɑəv/ verb starves; starved; starv•ing

1 [no obj] : to suffer or die from lack of food : to suffer extreme hunger ▪ Without food they would starve. ▪ They left him to starve out in the desert. ▪ Those people are starving. ▪ providing food for starving children ▪ The famine caused many to starve to death. [=to die from lack of food]
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a person or animal) to suffer or die because of lack of food ▪ They tried to starve their enemies into submission. ▪ It was clear that the dog had been starved. ▪ You don't have to starve yourself to lose weight.
3 a [no obj] chiefly US : to want or need something very much — usually used as (be) starving for ▪ Those children are starving for attention. [=they badly need to be given more attention] ▪ After being alone for so long, I was starving for conversation. ▪ a government program that is starving for funds b [+ obj] : to not give (someone or something) enough of something that is wanted or needed ▪ Those children have been starved of attention. [=they have not been given enough attention] ▪ (chiefly US) Those children are starved for attention. [=they badly need to be given more attention] — sometimes used in combination ▪ a cash-starved company be starving or be starved chiefly US, informal : to be very hungry ▪ I skipped lunch, so by dinnertime I was starving. ▪ When are we eating? I'm starved!

¹stash /stæʃ/ verb stash•es; stashed; stash•ing [+ obj] informal : to put (something) in a secret or hidden place ▪ The police found where he had stashed the drugs. ▪ The gifts were stashed in the closet. ▪ He stashed the equipment under the bed. ▪ We wondered what they had stashed in their backpacks. — often + away ▪ She kept her money stashed safely away. ▪ The papers were stashed away in a box.

²stash noun, pl stashes [count] informal : an amount of something that is stored or hidden ▪ a drug stash — often + of ▪ a stash of guns ▪ She kept a stash of money for emergencies. ▪ We found her stash of candy.

sta•sis /ˈsteɪsəs/ noun [noncount] formal : a state or condition in which things do not change, move, or progress ▪ The country is in economic stasis. ▪ His art was characterized by bursts of creativity followed by long periods of stasis.

¹stat /stæt/ noun, pl stats [count] US, informal : STATISTIC ▪ an interesting stat ▪ baseball stats ▪ a stat sheet [=a list of statistics]

²stat adv : without delay : IMMEDIATELY — used chiefly in medicine ▪ Get this patient to the operating room, stat! ✧ Stat comes from the Latin word statim, which means "immediately."

¹state /steɪt/ noun, pl states
1 [count] a : a way of living or existing ▪ Happiness is the state or condition of being happy. ▪ We must keep our armed forces in a constant state of readiness. ▪ She meditates to achieve a higher state of being. b : the overall physical condition of something : the ability of something to be used, enjoyed, etc. ▪ The museum restored the painting to its original state. [=condition] ▪ The building is in such a sorry state that it's hardly worth fixing. ▪ The car is in a good/bad state of repair. [=the car is in good/bad condition] c : the things that affect the way you think or feel : your physical or mental condition ▪ her mental/emotional state ▪ By the time I arrived, he was in quite a state. [=he was very upset, worried, angry, etc.] — often + of ▪ They were in a state of shock/confusion. [=they were shocked/confused] ▪ I'm worried about the state of her health. ▪ The drug creates an altered state of consciousness. ▪ an unhappy state of mind ▪ She was in no (fit) state [=in no condition] to drive. [=she was too sick, drunk, etc., to drive] d : the things that affect the way something is or happens : the characteristics of a situation ▪ What is the company's financial state? [=condition] — often + of ▪ the current/present state of the economy ▪ Her life is in a state of complete chaos. ▪ The empire fell into a state of decline. ▪ The country is in a state of war. [=the country is at war] ▪ Tonight the President will give the State of the Union address. [=an annual speech given to the U.S. Congress by the President to report on the state of the country] — see also STATE-OF-THE-ART, state of emergency at EMERGENCY
2 [count] : the fact of being a liquid, solid, or gas ▪ water in a gaseous state ▪ the solid and liquid states
3 [count] a : a politically organized group of people usually occupying a definite territory : NATION ▪ African/Arabic states ▪ the member states of the United Nations Security Council — see also CITY-STATE, NATION-STATE b : a particular kind of government or politically organized society — see also POLICE STATE, SLAVE STATE, WELFARE STATE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 172 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

4 a [count] : a region of a country that is controlled by the country's central government but that has the authority to make its own laws about certain things ▪ the 50 states of the U.S. ▪ Chihuahua is a state in northern Mexico. ▪ Vermont was the only New England state to pass the law. ▪ the state legislature ▪ state and federal laws ▪ state lines/borders ▪ This matter falls under state jurisdiction. ▪ Today is a state holiday here. [=it is an official holiday in this state but not nationally] — often used in combination ▪ a state-run program ▪ state-funded scholarships ▪ This land is state-owned. — see also DOWNSTATE, UPSTATE b *the States informal : the United States of America ▪ My cousin from England is coming to visit me in the States. ▪ The band plans to tour the States.
5 [noncount] : the government of a country ▪ matters of state [=government business] ▪ the separation of church and state ▪ a crown worn only on state occasions ▪ The President will make a state visit to China. ▪ the (U.S.) Department of State = the State Department [=the part of the U.S. government that is responsible for how the U.S. deals with other countries] — see also STATE'S EVIDENCE lie in state ✧ When the body of a famous leader (such as a former U.S. president or the pope) lies in state, it is displayed in a coffin in a public place so that people can view it and show respect.

[2]state verb states; stat•ed; stat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to express (something) formally in speech or writing ▪ The lawyer will state the facts of the case. ▪ He stated his name in full. ▪ I was merely stating an opinion. ▪ "This is a difficult situation," he stated simply. ▪ Please state the purpose of your visit. ▪ I'd like to state for the record that I disagree with the board's decision. ▪ For the reasons stated above, I hereby withdraw from the competition. ▪ She accused me of stating the obvious. [=telling people things they already know]
2 : to give (specific information, instructions, rules, etc.) in writing ▪ The rules clearly state that you can only draw one card. — often used as (be) stated ▪ The rules of the contest are stated at the bottom of the page. ▪ You must comply with the terms as stated [=written, specified] in the contract.

state attorney noun, pl ~ -neys [count] US, law : a government official (such as a district attorney) who represents a U.S. state in court cases within a district — called also state's attorney

state college noun, pl ~ -leges [count] : a college that is owned and run by one of the states of the U.S. as part of the state's public educational system state•craft /'steɪtˌkræft, Brit 'steɪtˌkrɑːft/ noun [noncount] formal : the art or skill of conducting government affairs ▪ The treaty was a triumph of statecraft. [=statesmanship] stated adj : expressed formally or officially ▪ The board shall meet at the stated [=indicated] times. ▪ Their stated [=declared] intention/goal is to settle the dispute quickly.

state•hood /'steɪtˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] : the condition of being a state; especially : the condition or status of being one of the states of the U.S. ▪ Alaska and Hawaii achieved statehood in 1959. [=they officially became U.S. states in 1959]

state•house /'steɪtˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : the building in which the legislature of a U.S. state meets and works state•less /'steɪtləs/ adj : not belonging to a nation : not a citizen of any country ▪ a stateless refugee state•ly /'steɪtli/ adj state•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : very impressive in appearance, manner, or size ▪ stately pine trees ▪ a stately building ▪ a slow stately rhythm – state•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the stateliness of the building stately home noun, pl ~ homes [count] Brit : a large and impressive old home that has an interesting history and that can usually be visited by the public state•ment /'steɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : something that you say or write in a formal or official way : something that is stated ▪ His office issued/released an official statement concerning his departure. ▪ This is his first public statement about the investigation. ▪ I disagree with your earlier statement about my record on this issue. ▪ The advertisement included misleading/false statements about the product. ▪ The police took the witness's statement. ▪ We have a signed statement from a witness. ▪ a sworn statement [=a statement that someone makes under oath and swears to be true] — often used in the phrase make a statement ▪ He made a statement to the police. ▪ We can't make a definitive statement on the matter until all the facts are in. — see also MISSION STATEMENT
2 [count] : an opinion, attitude, etc., that you express through the things you do, the way you dress, etc. ▪ The boycott was intended as a political statement. — often used in the phrase make a statement ▪ The government made a statement [=sent a message] by setting stiff punishments for repeat offenders. ▪ The painting makes a strong/clear statement. ▪ The way you dress can make a statement about you. ▪ She thinks she's making a fashion statement [=being fashionable in a bold way], but I think she looks ridiculous.
3 [count] : a document which shows amounts of money that you have received, spent, etc. : a brief record of a financial account ▪ a statement of expenses ▪ a monthly bank statement ▪ We'll need to review your recent financial statements.
4 [count] : a line of information in a computer program
5 : the act or process of stating something in speech or writing [noncount] His writing shows great eloquence and precision of statement. [singular] She began her speech with a statement of her beliefs.

state–of–the–art adj : using or having the most modern methods, knowledge, or technology ▪ state-of-the-art surgical procedures ▪ His stereo system is state-of-the-art.

state park noun, pl ~ parks [count] : an area of land that is owned and protected by a U.S. state because of its natural beauty or its importance in history

state•room /'steɪtˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count]
1 : a private room on a ship or on a railroad car
2 Brit : a large room in a palace or home that is used for special occasions state's attorney noun, pl ~ -neys [count] US : STATE ATTORNEY state's evidence noun

turn state's evidence US, law ✧ If you are charged with a crime and you turn state's evidence, you agree to give information (such as the names of other criminals) to the court in order to reduce your own punishment. ▪ One of the gang members turned state's evidence [=(Brit) turned King's/Queen's evidence] and testified against the other members.

state•side or State•side /'steɪtˌsaɪd/ adv : in or to the U.S. ▪ It's a car model that will be sold stateside for the first time next year. ▪ He's been living in England for several years but he's returning stateside next month.
– stateside or Stateside adj ▪ It was the band's first stateside tour.

states•man /'steɪtsmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a usually wise, skilled, and respected government leader ▪ He was a soldier and statesman. ▪ a great/eminent statesman — see also ELDER STATESMAN – states•man•like /'steɪtsmənˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a politician with a gift for sounding statesmanlike
– states•man•ship /'steɪtsmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount]

states•wo•man /'steɪtsˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wo•men /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is a wise, skilled, and respected government leader ▪ a great stateswoman

state university noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : a university that is owned and run by one of the states of the U.S. as part of the state's public educational system state•wide /'steɪt'waɪd/ adj : including all parts of a U.S. state ▪ a statewide survey of voters ▪ a statewide election ▪ She is running for statewide [=state] office. [=she is trying to get elected as an official in the state government] – statewide adv ▪ The big game will be televised statewide.

[1]stat•ic /'stætɪk/ adj
1 : showing little or no change, action, or progress ▪ a static population ▪ Culture is not static. ▪ The computer program can turn static [=still] images into movies.
2 : of, relating to, or producing static electricity ▪ a static charge ▪ Use a fabric softener to prevent static cling. [=a condition in which clothes stick to one another because of static electricity]

[2]static noun [noncount]
1 : unwanted noise caused in a radio or television receiver by electricity or by conditions in the atmosphere ▪ There was so much static on the radio we couldn't hear the broadcast.
2 : STATIC ELECTRICITY
3 US, informal : criticism or complaints ▪ He was getting a lot of static about his decision.

static electricity noun [noncount] : electricity that collects on the surface of something and does not flow as a current and can cause a mild shock if you touch it ▪ In dry

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 173 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

weather, static electricity can cause clothes to cling.

stat•ics /ˈstætɪks/ noun [noncount] technical : the science that studies the relationship between forces that keep objects in balance

[1]sta•tion /ˈsteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a place where buses, trains, etc., regularly stop so that passengers can get on and off ▪ They drove him to the bus/train station. ▪ a subway station — see also WAY STATION
2 : a place where someone does a job or waits for a task ▪ The waiters were at their stations in the dining room. ▪ a nurse's/nursing station [=an office area for the nurses working in a hospital] ▪ The sailors were ordered to man their battle stations. ▪ After joining the army, he spent five years at his first station. [=post]
3 old-fashioned : a person's social or official position in relation to others : RANK ▪ He had married above his station. ▪ They were aware of her station in life.
4 : a building, area, etc., where a certain kind of work or activity is done ▪ a research/space/weather station ▪ a computer station ▪ a feeding station for livestock
5 : a place that provides a certain kind of service to the public ▪ A firefighter led the children on a tour of the station. [=fire station] ▪ She stopped for gas at the first station [=(US) gas station, (Brit) petrol station] she saw. ▪ Officers brought him to the station [=police station] for questioning.
6 : a company that makes radio or television broadcasts ▪ He turned to his favorite sports station. ▪ What station is the game on?; also : the building from which radio or television broadcasts are made ▪ Our offices are located next door to a TV station.
7 : a farm or ranch in Australia or New Zealand ▪ a sheep station

[2]station verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj]
1 : to assign (someone) to a station or position : POST ▪ He stationed the guards around the camp. ▪ They stationed troops at the border. — often used as (be) stationed ▪ She has been stationed at the base for a few years. ▪ They were stationed in the region of the fighting.
2 : to put (yourself) in a place and stay there for a period of time ▪ He stationed himself by the door to greet the guests.

sta•tion•ary /ˈsteɪʃəˌneri, Brit ˈsteɪʃənri/ adj
1 : not moving : staying in one place or position ▪ stationary machinery ▪ shooting at stationary objects/targets ▪ The weather front has remained stationary over the Southeast.
2 : not changing ▪ a stationary [=stable] population

Do not confuse stationary with stationery.

stationary bike noun, pl ~ bikes [count] US : an exercise machine that you pedal like a bicycle but that stays in one place — called also exercise bike, stationary bicycle; see picture at GYM station break noun, pl ~ breaks [count] US : a pause in a broadcast during which a radio or TV station announces its name or runs an advertisement sta•tio•ner /ˈsteɪʃənə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a business or person that sells stationery sta•tio•nery /ˈsteɪʃəˌneri, Brit ˈsteɪʃənri/ noun [noncount]

1 : materials (such as paper, pens, and ink) that are used for writing or typing ▪ a store that sells stationery = a stationery store ▪ stationery items/supplies
2 : paper that is used for writing letters and that usually has matching envelopes ▪ business stationery

Do not confuse stationery with stationary.

station house noun, pl ~ houses [count] : a house or building that is part of a station; especially, US : POLICE STATION

sta•tion•mas•ter /ˈsteɪʃənˌmæstə, Brit ˈsteɪʃənˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : an official who is in charge of the operation of a railroad station

Stations of the Cross noun [plural] : a series of usually 14 pictures in some Christian churches that show the sufferings and death of Jesus Christ station wagon noun, pl ~ -ons [count] US : a car that has a large open area behind the back seat instead of a trunk and that has a door at the back for loading and unloading things — called also (US) wagon, (Brit) estate car; see picture at CAR sta•tis•tic /stəˈtɪstɪk/ noun, pl -tics

1 [count] : a number that represents a piece of information (such as information about how often something is done, how common something is, etc.) ▪ One statistic that stuck out is that 40 percent of those surveyed did not have college degrees. — often plural ▪ The statistics show that teenagers are involved in a high percentage of traffic accidents. ▪ Her speech included some revealing statistics about unemployment rates in rural areas. ▪ basketball statistics — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I may be just another statistic to my employer, but I am a human being and have feelings. — called also (US, informal) stat
2 statistics [noncount] : a type of mathematics that deals with the study of statistics – sta•tis•ti•cal /stəˈtɪstɪkəl/ adj ▪ Statistical evidence indicates smokers are more likely to get lung cancer than nonsmokers. – sta•tis•ti•cal•ly /stəˈtɪstɪkli/ adv

stat•is•ti•cian /ˌstætəˈstɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : a person who collects and studies statistics

stat•u•ary /ˈstætʃəˌweri/ noun [noncount] formal : a collection of statues ▪ a fine example of late Renaissance statuary

stat•ue /ˈstæˌtʃuː/ noun, pl stat•ues [count] : a figure usually of a person or animal that is made from stone, metal, etc. ▪ bronze statues — compare SCULPTURE

stat•u•esque /ˌstætʃəˈwesk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tall and beautiful ▪ a statuesque young woman

stat•u•ette /ˌstætʃəˈwet/ noun, pl -ettes [count] : a small statue

stat•ure /ˈstætʃə/ noun [noncount]
1 : the level of respect that people have for a successful person, organization, etc. ▪ We are honored to be working with a writer of his stature. [=a writer who is so highly respected] ▪ The university has grown/gained in stature during her time as president.
2 somewhat formal : a person's height ▪ a woman of rather short stature [=a rather short woman]

sta•tus /ˈsteɪtəs, ˈstætəs/ noun, pl -tus•es
1 a : the position or rank of someone or something when compared to others in a society, organization, group, etc. [noncount] He likes his job and the high (social) status that comes with it. ▪ She has achieved celebrity status. [=she has become a celebrity] ▪ They want to maintain the city's status as a major tourist attraction. ▪ The book quickly achieved best-seller status. [=became a best seller] [count] He wants to improve his status in the community. ▪ people of different social and economic statuses b [noncount] : high position or rank in society ▪ She married a man of status and wealth. ▪ This job brings with it a measure of status.
2 : the official position of a person or thing according to the law [noncount] They sought asylum and were given refugee status by the government. [count] They are still considered refugees. Their statuses have not changed. — see also MARITAL STATUS
3 [count] : the current state of someone or something — usually singular ▪ What is the status of the project? ▪ What is their financial status? ▪ The boss asked for a status report.

status quo /-ˈkwoʊ/ noun [singular] : the current situation : the way things are now ▪ He is content with the status quo and does not like change. ▪ She wants to maintain the status quo. [=to keep the situation as it is now]

status symbol noun, pl ~ -bols [count] : something (such as an expensive car) that you own and that shows that you are wealthy or have a high social status

stat•ute /ˈstæˌtʃuːt/ noun, pl -utes
1 : a written law that is formally created by a government [count] The state legislature passed the statute by an overwhelming margin. [noncount] business practices that are prohibited/protected by statute synonyms see LAW
2 [count] : a written rule or regulation ▪ college/university statutes statute book noun

the statute book — used to refer to the written laws that have been formally and officially approved by a government ▪ a law that is now on the statute book(s) [=a law that has now been officially approved]

statute of limitations noun, pl statutes of limitations [count] law : a law that states the amount of time that must pass before a crime can no longer be punished or a right can no longer be given

stat•u•to•ry /ˈstætʃəˌtori, Brit ˈstætʃətri/ adj, law
1 : of or relating to formal laws or statutes ▪ statutory acts
2 : controlled or determined by a law or rule ▪ He had reached the statutory age of retirement. [=the age at which retirement was required by law]

statutory rape noun, pl ~ rapes [count, noncount] law : the crime of having sex with someone who is younger than an age that is specified by law

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 174 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]staunch variant spelling of STANCH

[2]staunch /ˈstɑːnʧ/ adj, always used before a noun staunch·er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : very devoted or loyal to a person, belief, or cause ▪ She is a staunch advocate of women's rights. ▪ He's a staunch believer in the value of regular exercise. ▪ I'm one of his staunchest supporters.
– staunch·ly adv ▪ She is staunchly opposed to the death penalty.

[1]stave /ˈsteɪv/ noun, pl staves [count]
1 : one of the narrow strips of wood that form the sides of a barrel
2 : a long wooden stick : STAFF
3 chiefly Brit : [1]STAFF 3

[2]stave verb staves; staved also stove /ˈstoʊv/; stav·ing stave in [phrasal verb] stave in or stave (something) in or stave in (something) : to be broken or crushed inward or to break or crush (something) inward ▪ The hull of the boat stove in when it hit the rocks. ▪ The rocks stove in the hull of the boat.
stave off [phrasal verb] stave (someone or something) off or stave off (someone or something) : to keep (someone or something) away usually for a short time ▪ He's trying to stave off his creditors. ▪ Our company cannot stave bankruptcy off any longer. ▪ She ate a few crackers to stave off hunger. [=to prevent herself from getting too hungry]

staves plural of [1]STAFF

[1]stay /ˈsteɪ/ verb stays; stayed; stay·ing
1 a [no obj] : to continue to be in the same place or with the same person or group for a period of time : REMAIN ▪ Please stay in the auditorium. ▪ I stayed in my seat until I was dismissed. ▪ He decided to stay with the team. ▪ I decided to stay in Montreal for a couple more days. ▪ We stayed home last night and watched TV. ▪ Go to your room and stay there. ▪ I'll stay around for a few more minutes. ▪ I need a man who will stay around. [=remain in the relationship and not leave suddenly] ▪ You can go on ahead. I'll stay behind [=not leave yet] to help clean up. b : to continue to be in a specified state, condition, or position : REMAIN [no obj] Please stay seated through the entire show. ▪ She stayed angry all night. ▪ Can you stay awake through the whole show? ▪ The guard urged everyone to stay calm. ▪ The store will stay open until midnight tonight. ▪ We have stayed in touch/contact over the years. ▪ He stayed in the game although he was injured. [linking verb] They stayed friends [=continued to be friends] throughout their lives.
2 [no obj] : to live in a place as a guest for a short period of time ▪ I will be staying in a hotel this weekend. ▪ Do you want to stay [=sleep] at my place tonight? ▪ I stayed overnight at his house. ▪ Is he staying (with us) all week?
3 [+ obj] : to give a legal order that stops or delays (something) ▪ The judge agreed to stay [=halt] the execution.
here to stay see [1]HERE stay away [phrasal verb] : to not go near someone or something ▪ I know I shouldn't go there, but it's hard to stay away. — usually + from ▪ Stay away from my girlfriend! ▪ He usually stays away from [=avoids] large crowds. ▪ I try to stay away from [=avoid] caffeine.
stay in [phrasal verb] : to stay inside or at home instead of going out ▪ We went to a movie last night, but tonight we're staying in.
stay off [phrasal verb] stay off (something) 1 : to avoid (something) ▪ She's doing a good job of staying off drugs. [=of not taking drugs] ▪ Let's stay off the subject of politics. 2 : to not go on (something) ▪ Please stay off [=keep off] the grass.
stay on [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue to work at a job ▪ She thought about retiring, but she finally decided to stay on for a few more years. ▪ After she graduated, she stayed on at the college, working in the alumnae office. 2 *stay on (something) : to continue taking (a medication, drug, etc.) ▪ I have to stay on the antibiotics for a full two weeks.
stay out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to avoid going into (a place) ▪ They kicked us out of the bar and told us to stay out. — often + of ▪ I told her to stay out of my room. b *stay out of (something) : to avoid becoming involved in (something) ▪ Please try to stay out of trouble. ▪ This is not your business, so stay out of it. 2 : to spend time away from home ▪ She stayed out dancing all night.
stay over [phrasal verb] : to sleep at another person's house for the night ▪ Can she stay over tonight?
stay put see [3]PUT stay the course : to continue with a process, effort, etc., even though it is difficult ▪ We'll succeed in the end if we just stay the course.
stay the night : to sleep at another person's house for the night ▪ After the party she was too drunk to drive so she stayed the night. [=stayed over, spent the night] ▪ They stayed the night at her brother's.
stay tuned see [2]TUNE stay up [phrasal verb] : to continue to be awake past the time when you usually go to bed ▪ Don't stay up past your bedtime. ▪ She stayed up to watch the late movie. ▪ I can't stay up that late.
stay with [phrasal verb] 1 *stay with (someone) ✧ If something from the past stays with you, you remember it and it continues to influence or affect you in some way. ▪ The memory of that tragic day has stayed with her ever since. ▪ That is an image that has stayed with me. 2 *stay with (something) : to continue using or doing (something) ▪ Stay with the medication for a couple more days and see if the rash clears up. ▪ I know the work is hard, but if you just stay with it for a while longer, it'll be done. 3 *stay with (someone) : to go or make progress at the same rate as (someone) : to keep even with (someone) in a race, competition, etc. ▪ The other runners struggled to stay with the leader.

[2]stay noun, pl stays [count]
1 : an occasion in which you spend time at a place as a guest or visitor ▪ I hope you have a pleasant stay. [=visit] ▪ Our stay in the country was a short one. — see also SHORT-STAY
2 : a legal order that stops or delays something ▪ The court issued a stay of execution. [=an order that temporarily stops an execution]
– compare [3]STAY

[3]stay noun, pl stays [count]
1 : a rope or wire that supports a pole, a ship's mast, etc. ▪ The men tightened the stays on the circus tent.
2 : a piece of stiff plastic, bone, etc., that provides shape to a piece of clothing ▪ a corset stay ▪ a collar stay
– compare [2]STAY

stay–at–home /ˈsteɪətˈhoʊm/ adj, always used before a noun : staying at home to take care of a child instead of working somewhere else ▪ a stay-at-home mom/dad staying power noun [noncount] : the quality or ability that allows someone or something to continue to be effective, successful, popular, etc., for a long period of time ▪ a long-distance runner with a lot of staying power ▪ a song with staying power ▪ Her staying power as a pop icon is remarkable.

std. abbr standard

STD /ˌɛsˌtiːˈdiː/ noun, pl STDs [count] : any one of various diseases that you can get by having sex with a person who has the disease ▪ a discussion of AIDS and other STDs ✧ STD is an abbreviation for "sexually transmitted disease."

stead /ˈstɛd/ noun
in someone's/something's stead formal : in the place of someone or something ▪ She conducted the meeting in his stead. ▪ One empire died, and another arose in its stead.
stand someone/something in good stead formal : to be useful or helpful to someone or something ▪ His language skills will stand him in good stead when he is traveling.

stead·fast /ˈstɛdˌfæst, Brit ˈstɛdˌfɑːst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very devoted or loyal to a person, belief, or cause : not changing ▪ They were steadfast friends. ▪ He was steadfast in his support of the governor's policies. ▪ a steadfast refusal – stead·fast·ly adv ▪ She steadfastly held to her views.
– stead·fast·ness /ˈstɛdˌfæstnəs, Brit ˈstɛdˌfɑːstnəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]steady /ˈstɛdi/ adj stead·i·er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not shaking or moving : held firmly in one place or position ▪ She used a tripod to keep the camera steady. ▪ Painting takes a steady hand and a good eye. ▪ a steady gaze ▪ He was drunk and wasn't very steady on his feet. [=his balance was not good; he looked like he might fall]
2 : not changing as time passes: such as a : not increasing or decreasing ▪ Prices have remained steady over the last month. ▪ a steady heart rate b : lasting or continuing for a long period of time in a dependable way ▪ He finally has a steady job. ▪ They do a steady business at the restaurant. c — used to describe a romantic relationship with one person that lasts for a long time ▪ He's never really had a steady relationship with one woman. ▪ a steady boyfriend/girlfriend
3 : happening or developing in a continuous and usually gradual way ▪ There has been a steady increase in prices. ▪ I am making steady progress on refinishing the basement. ▪

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 175 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

There was a steady rain all day. ▪ We've received a steady stream of donations.
4 : not nervous or excited ▪ steady nerves ▪ Her voice was calm and steady.
5 : dependable or reliable ▪ She has been a steady friend to me. ▪ He's a very steady worker.
at a steady clip see [3]CLIP ready, steady, go see [1]READY steady on Brit, informal — used to tell someone to be calmer, to stop thinking or saying foolish or unreasonable things, etc. ▪ "Everything's going wrong!" "Steady on, now. It's not as bad as that."
– steadi•ly /'stɛdəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He held the camera steadily. ▪ Wages have steadily increased. – steadi•ness /'stɛdinəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]steady verb stead•ies; stead•ied; steady•ing : to make (something or someone) steady or to become steady: such as a [+ obj] : to keep (something or someone) from moving, shaking, falling, etc. ▪ He steadied the gun and fired. ▪ She used a tripod to steady the camera. ▪ He held the rail to steady himself. [=to keep himself balanced] b : to cause (something) to stop changing, increasing, decreasing, etc. [+ obj] The doctor gave her medication to help steady her heart rate. [no obj] Her heart rate had been erratic but eventually steadied. ▪ Prices have steadied in recent months.
steady your nerves : to make yourself calm or calmer ▪ She took a drink to try to steady her nerves.

[3]steady adv : in a steady way ▪ Hold the camera steady.
go steady informal + old-fashioned : to have a lasting romantic relationship with one person and no one else ▪ He asked me after the dance if I wanted to go steady. ▪ We went steady for over a year before we got engaged.

[4]steady noun, pl stead•ies [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : the only person you are having a romantic relationship with : the person you are going steady with ▪ He's my steady. [=my steady boyfriend]

steak /steɪk/ noun, pl steaks
1 : a thick, flat piece of meat and especially beef [count] I grilled a steak for dinner. ▪ ham steaks [noncount] We had steak and potatoes for dinner. ▪ a slice of steak
2 [count] : a thick, flat piece of fish ▪ a tuna/swordfish steak
3 [noncount] Brit : beef that is cut into small pieces and used for stews, casseroles, etc. ▪ steak and kidney pie steak house noun, pl ~ houses [count] : a restaurant that serves mostly steaks — compare CHOP HOUSE steak knife noun, pl ~ knives [count] : a very sharp knife that is used for cutting meat

[1]steal /sti:l/ verb steals; stole /stoʊl/; sto•len /'stoʊlən/; steal•ing
1 a : to take (something that does not belong to you) in a way that is wrong or illegal [+ obj] They stole thousands of dollars' worth of jewelry from the store. ▪ Someone stole my bicycle. ▪ He discovered that his car had been stolen. ▪ a stolen watch [no obj] The store manager accused the boy of stealing. b [+ obj] : to take (something that you are not supposed to have) without asking for permission ▪ I stole a cookie from the cookie jar. c [+ obj] : to wrongly take and use (another person's idea, words, etc.) ▪ He stole my idea. d [+ obj] : to persuade (someone who has been with someone else) to be with you especially by doing things that are unfair or dishonest ▪ He stole my girlfriend. ▪ They stole our best pitcher away from our team.
2 [+ obj] : to get (something that is difficult to get) in usually a quick and often secret way ▪ I stole a nap this afternoon. [=I managed to take a brief nap this afternoon] ▪ He stole a peek/look [=took a quick peek/look] at the birthday cake. ▪ He stole a glance at her [=glanced at her quickly] before riding away. ▪ She stole a kiss from him [=kissed him in a quick and sudden way] and ran away.
3 [+ obj] : to get more attention than others during (a performance, scene, etc.) ▪ Her impassioned acting stole the scene. [=everyone in the audience watched her during the scene because of her impassioned acting] ▪ His outstanding performance stole the show.
4 a baseball : to reach (a base) safely by running to it from the previous base when the ball has not been hit by a batter [+ obj] He reached first base on a single and then stole second (base). [no obj] She tried to steal but got thrown out. ▪ He leads the league in stealing. b [+ obj] sports : to take (the ball, puck, etc.) from another player ▪ (basketball) He stole the ball and took it down the court for two points. ▪ He stole the pass.
5 [no obj] : to come or go quietly or secretly ▪ They stole out of the room. ▪ She stole away silently.
beg, borrow, or/and steal see BEG steal a march on see [2]MARCH steal someone's thunder see [1]THUNDER

[2]steal noun, pl steals [count]
1 informal : something that is being sold at a low price ▪ This car is a steal at only $5,000.
2 a baseball : the act of stealing a base ▪ He has 40 steals this season. b sports : the act of taking the ball, puck, etc., from another player ▪ a nifty steal by the defender

[1]stealth /stɛlθ/ noun [noncount] : a secret, quiet, and clever way of moving or behaving ▪ The fox uses stealth and cunning to hunt its prey.

[2]stealth adj, always used before a noun
1 technical — used to describe military aircraft that are designed so that they cannot be easily seen by radar ▪ a stealth bomber/fighter
2 chiefly US : done or happening in a secret or quiet way that does not attract attention ▪ He says his political enemies have been conducting a stealth [=secret] campaign to block his nomination.

stealthy /'stɛlθi/ adj stealth•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : quiet and secret in order to avoid being noticed ▪ the stealthy movements of the crocodile ▪ a stealthy burglar – stealth•i•ly /'stɛlθəli/ adv ▪ She moved stealthily from room to room.

[1]steam /sti:m/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the hot gas that is created when water is boiled ▪ Careful, the steam from the pot is hot. b : steam that is created by a machine and kept under pressure to provide power ▪ Steam drives the turbines. ▪ a steam-powered engine ▪ The boat runs on steam. — often used before another noun ▪ a steam engine/train
2 : very small drops of water that form on a surface when warm air that contains a lot of water is cooled down ▪ He wiped the steam from the mirrors.
3 informal : the strength, force, or energy that allows something or someone to continue, to go faster, etc. ▪ Sales have lost steam [=have slowed down] in recent weeks. ▪ The campaign quickly gained/gathered steam. [=became more popular and successful] ▪ He was afraid he would run out of steam before the end of the race. ▪ I was making good progress this morning, but now I'm starting to run out of steam. ▪ The project is slowly picking up steam. [=slowly beginning to move ahead in a faster and more effective way] full head of steam see [1]HEAD full steam ahead see [1]FULL let/blow off (some) steam informal : to calm down and get rid of energy or anger by doing something active ▪ I play racquetball every evening just to let off some steam. ▪ Tell him to go blow off some steam and then we can talk.
under its own steam of a ship, boat, etc. : by using its own power ▪ The ship was damaged but was able to return to port under its own steam. — often used figuratively ▪ He got there under his own steam. [=by himself; by his own efforts]

[2]steam verb steams; steamed; steam•ing
1 [no obj] : to produce steam ▪ a steaming bowl of soup
2 [+ obj] : to cook, heat, or treat (something) with steam ▪ She prefers to steam carrots rather than boil them. ▪ steamed vegetables
3 : to cause (something, such as a piece of glass) to become covered with small drops of water [+ obj] Their breath steamed the windows. — usually + up ▪ Try not to steam up your glasses. ▪ The windows were all steamed up. [no obj] My glasses steamed up [=fogged up] when I came indoors from the cold.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to move by using power produced by steam ▪ The ship steamed into port. ▪ We steamed up the river. [=we went up the river on a ship powered by steam] b : to move forward in a quick and forceful way ▪ He steamed into the room and began shouting orders. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Our plans are steaming ahead. — see also STEAMED, STEAMING steam•boat /'sti:m,boʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat that is powered by steam steam clean verb ~ cleans; ~ cleaned; ~ cleaning [+ obj] chiefly US : to clean (something) with a machine that produces hot steam ▪ I steam cleaned the carpets.

steamed /sti:md/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : angry or irritated ▪ I am

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 176 SESS: 79 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

so steamed! — often + up ▪ What are you getting steamed up about?

steam•er /ˈsti:mə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a container in which food is cooked with steam
2 : a boat or ship that is powered by steam ▪ We rode a steamer down the Mississippi.
3 US : a type of clam that has a thin shell and that is often cooked by being steamed steaming adj, informal

1 : very hot ▪ steaming weather ▪ The weather has been steaming hot.
2 : very angry ▪ steaming drivers stuck in traffic ▪ His wife was steaming when he finally got home. ▪ She was steaming mad.

steam•roll /ˈsti:mˌroʊl/ verb -rolls; -rolled; -roll•ing US, informal
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to go forward or make progress in a forceful and steady way [no obj] The project steamrolled on. ▪ The bill steamrolled through Congress. [+ obj] The bill steamrolled its way through Congress.
2 [+ obj] : to defeat (someone or something) in a very forceful and complete way ▪ Our team got steamrolled in last year's game. The final score was something like 54–7.

[1]steam•roll•er /ˈsti:mˌroʊlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a large, heavy machine that is used for making a road or other surface flat

[2]steamroller verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] informal : STEAMROLL 2

steam•ship /ˈsti:mˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : a ship that is powered by steam steam shovel noun, pl ~ -els [count] US : a large machine that is powered by steam and that is used for digging large holes — called also excavator

steamy /ˈsti:mi/ adj steam•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : full of steam or warm, moist air ▪ a steamy bathroom ▪ It is 92 degrees in steamy Miami this afternoon. ▪ steamy [=hot and humid] weather
2 : showing or relating to sex : sexually exciting ▪ a steamy love scene steed /ˈsti:d/ noun, pl steeds [count] literary : a horse that a person rides ▪ a brave knight and his noble steed

[1]steel /ˈsti:l/ noun, pl steels
1 [noncount] a : a strong, hard metal made of iron and carbon ▪ The beams are made of steel. — often used before another noun ▪ steel bars ▪ a steel mill [=a mill/factory where steel is made] — see also STAINLESS STEEL b : the industry that makes steel ▪ Steel is an important industry in this area. ▪ She came from a steel town [=a town where steel is made] in Pennsylvania. ▪ Big Steel [=the steel industry] is lobbying Congress for new legislation.
2 a [noncount] literary : things (such as weapons) that are made of steel ▪ The invaders were driven back by steel. ▪ the clash of steel b [singular] : the part of something that is made of steel ▪ the steel of a knife c [count] : a device or tool that is made of steel ▪ a sharpening steel [=a steel rod that has a rough surface and is used for sharpening knives] — see also PEDAL STEEL
3 — used to describe something or someone that is very strong ▪ He had a grip of steel. = He had a grip like steel. [=he had a very powerful grip] ▪ a man of steel [=a very strong man] — see also nerves of steel at NERVE

[2]steel verb steels; steeled; steel•ing steel yourself : to make (yourself) ready for something difficult or unpleasant : to fill (yourself) with determination and courage ▪ Steel yourself [=brace yourself]—I have bad news. ▪ He steeled himself for the interview.

steel band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a group of musicians who play steel drums steel drum noun, pl ~ drums [count] : a metal drum shaped like a bowl or barrel that makes different sounds when it is hit at different places steel guitar noun, pl ~ -tars [count] : PEDAL STEEL steel wool noun [noncount] : long threads of metal that are wound together to form a rough pad which is used for cleaning and polishing things steel•work•er /ˈsti:lˌwəkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who works at a place where steel is made steely /ˈsti:li/ adj steel•i•er; -est

1 : very strong and determined often in a cold or unfriendly way ▪ a thief with steely nerves ▪ He had a steely determination to succeed. ▪ She gave him a steely gaze.
2 : resembling steel especially in color ▪ a sky filled with steely gray clouds ▪ the judge's steely blue eyes

[1]steep /ˈsti:p/ adj steep•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : almost straight up and down : rising or falling very sharply ▪ a steep slope/hillside ▪ The stairs are very steep.
2 : going up or down very quickly ▪ a steep drop/increase in prices
3 : very high ▪ The store's prices are too steep for me. ▪ Their rates are pretty steep.
pay a steep price see [1]PAY – steep•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ The hill rose steeply. ▪ Stock prices rose/fell steeply today. – steep•ness noun [noncount]

[2]steep verb steeps; steeped; steep•ing : to put (something) in a liquid for a period of time [+ obj] Steep the tea for three minutes. [no obj] The tea steeped for five minutes.
steep in [phrasal verb] 1 steep (someone) in (something) : to make (someone) know and understand a lot about (something) ▪ Prior to his trip, he spent a few weeks steeping himself in the language. [=learning a lot about the language] — often used as (be) steeped in ▪ She was steeped in the classics. [=she had learned a lot about the classics] 2 — used as (be) steeped in to say that there is a lot of something in a place, time, etc. ▪ an area steeped in history [=an area where many important historical events occurred] ▪ It was a time in the nation's history that was steeped in bloodshed. [=a time when there was a lot of bloodshed] steep•en /ˈsti:pən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to become steep or steeper or to make (something) steep or steeper [no obj] The path steepened as we approached the summit. [+ obj] A large glacier steepened the side of the mountain.

stee•ple /ˈsti:pəl/ noun, pl stee•ples [count] : a tall, pointed tower on a church
– stee•pled /ˈsti:pəld/ adj ▪ a steepled church

stee•ple•chase /ˈsti:pəlˌʧeɪs/ noun, pl -chas•es [count] 1 : a race in which people riding horses jump over fences, water, etc.
2 : a race in which runners jump over fences and water

stee•ple•chas•er /ˈsti:pəlˌʧeɪsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or horse that takes part in a steeplechase stee•ple•jack /ˈsti:pəlˌʤæk/ noun, pl -jacks [count] old-fashioned : a person who repairs chimneys, towers, etc.

[1]steer /ˈstiə/ verb steers; steered; steer•ing
1 a : to control the direction in which something (such as a ship, car, or airplane) moves [+ obj] She steered the ship through the strait. ▪ He steered his car carefully into the parking space. ▪ He steered the wheelchair through the aisles. [no obj] Skillful navigators can steer by the positions of the stars. b [no obj] — used to describe how easy or difficult it is to steer a vehicle ▪ The car steers well.
2 [no obj] : to be moved or guided in a particular direction or along a particular course ▪ The car was steering right at us. ▪ The boat steered out to sea.
3 [+ obj] a : to direct or guide the movement or progress of (something) ▪ He tried to steer the conversation away from his recent problems. ▪ She skillfully steered the bill through the legislature. ▪ He steered the team to another championship last year. b : to cause (someone) to act in a particular way ▪ The high recent returns on stocks have steered many investors away from bonds. ▪ You should listen to me. I won't steer you wrong. [=I won't give you bad advice] steer clear US : to keep away from someone or something completely ▪ He's in a bad mood. You'd better steer clear [=avoid him] if you don't want trouble. — usually + of ▪ You'd better steer clear of him. ▪ I try to steer clear of the subject of politics when I talk to him.

[2]steer noun, pl steers [count] : a male cow that has had its sex organs removed and is raised for meat steer•age /ˈstɪrɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the section on a passenger ship in the past where passengers who had the cheapest tickets would stay steering noun [noncount] : the mechanical parts of a car, boat, etc., that are used to control its direction ▪ The steering on this car is a little stiff. ▪ There's a problem with the boat's steering.

steering column noun, pl ~ -umns [count] : the thick post in a car that holds the steering wheel steering committee noun, pl ~ -tees [count] : a group of people who are in charge of managing or directing something ▪ The CEO consulted with the project's steering committee and asked for a status report. — called also (chiefly Brit) steering group

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 177 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

steering wheel noun, pl ~ wheels [count] : a wheel in a vehicle that the driver turns to steer the vehicle — see picture at CAR

stein /ˈstaɪn/ noun, pl steins [count] : a large mug for beer

stel•lar /ˈstɛlə/ adj
1 technical : of or relating to the stars ▪ stellar light ▪ the rate of stellar expansion
2 [more ~; most ~] : very good : EXCELLENT ▪ The movie has a stellar cast. ▪ a stellar performance

[1]stem /ˈstɛm/ noun, pl stems [count]
1 a : the main long and thin part of a plant that rises above the soil and supports the leaves and flowers ▪ He cut the plant off at the base of the stem. — see color picture on page C6 b : the long, thin part of a fruit, leaf, flower, etc., that connects it to its plant ▪ Hold the cherry by the stem.
2 : a long and thin part: such as a : the long, thin piece that supports the bowl of a wine glass b : the long, thin part of a tobacco pipe
3 grammar : the main part of a word that does not change when endings are added to it ▪ The stem of "winded" is "wind."
from stem to stern : from one end of a ship or boat to the other ▪ We scrubbed her down from stem to stern. [=we cleaned the entire ship/boat] — often used figuratively ▪ We cleaned the house from stem to stern.
– stem•less /ˈstɛmləs/ adj ▪ stemless cherries

[2]stem verb stems; stemmed; stem•ming [+ obj] : to remove the stem from (a fruit, leaf, flower, etc.) ▪ She stemmed and quartered the figs. ▪ The strawberries need to be stemmed.
stem from [phrasal verb] stem from (something or someone) : to be caused by (something or someone) : to come from (something or someone) ▪ Most of her health problems stem from an accident she had when she was younger. ▪ His love of the outdoors stems from his father.
– compare [3]STEM

[3]stem verb stems; stemmed; stem•ming [+ obj] : to stop the progress or spread of (something) ▪ efforts to stem the dramatic decline of an endangered species ▪ The doctor stemmed the flow of blood by applying pressure to the wound. ▪ Voters hope that the proposition will stem the tide of illegal immigration. — compare [2]STEM stem cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] technical : a simple cell in the body that is able to develop into any one of various kinds of cells (such as blood cells, skin cells, etc.)

stemmed adj : having a stem — usually used in combination ▪ long-stemmed roses stem•ware /ˈstɛmˌweə/ noun [noncount] : drinking glasses that have a long stem between the bowl and the base ▪ crystal stemware

stench /ˈstɛnʧ/ noun [singular] : a very bad smell : STINK ▪ the stench of rotting meat — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the stench of corruption/fear

[1]sten•cil /ˈstɛnsəl/ noun, pl -cils [count]
1 : a piece of paper, metal, etc., that has a design, letter, etc., cut out of it ✧ You use a stencil by putting it on a flat surface and painting over it so that the design appears on the surface ▪ letter/number/floral stencils
2 : a design or a print that is made with a stencil ▪ The walls of the living room had a delicate vine stencil drawn on them.

[2]stencil verb -cils; US -ciled or Brit -cilled; US -cil•ing or Brit -cil•ling [+ obj] : to make a design on something with a stencil : to use a stencil on (something) ▪ We stenciled our mailbox with our house number. = We stenciled our house number on the mailbox. ▪ We stenciled the room's walls.

steno /ˈstɛnoʊ/ noun, pl sten•os US, informal
1 [count] : STENOGRAPHER
2 [noncount] : STENOGRAPHY — often used before another noun ▪ a steno pad [=a pad of paper used for stenography]

ste•nog•ra•pher /stəˈnɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] : a person whose job is to write down the words that someone says by using a special type of writing (called shorthand) ▪ a courtroom stenographer ste•nog•ra•phy /stəˈnɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] : a method used for writing down the words that someone says very quickly by using a special type of writing (called shorthand) ▪ Secretaries must be able to do stenography.

– steno•graph•ic /ˌstɛnəˈgræfɪk/ adj ▪ stenographic notes

stent /ˈstɛnt/ noun, pl stents [count] medical : a metal or plastic tube that is put in a blood vessel to keep it open sten•to•ri•an /stɛnˈtorijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : very loud ▪ a stentorian voice

[1]step /ˈstɛp/ noun, pl steps
1 [count] a : a movement made by lifting your foot and putting it down in a different place ▪ counting our steps ▪ She took one step forward/backward. ▪ The baby took her first steps today. ▪ He had to retrace his steps [=go back along the way he had come] to find his keys. b : the sound of a foot making a step : FOOTSTEP ▪ I heard steps on the stairs. c : the distance covered in one step ▪ The edge of the cliff was only about three steps to my left.; also : a short distance ▪ The cottage is just steps from the beach. d : a mark left by a foot or shoe : FOOTPRINT ▪ steps in the sand
2 [singular] : the way that someone walks ▪ He walks with a spring in his step. ▪ She walked down the hall with a quick/light step. — see also GOOSE STEP, LOCKSTEP
3 [count] : one of a series of actions that are done to achieve something ▪ a major/important step towards independence ▪ We are taking steps to correct the situation. ▪ The court's decision is a step backward/forward for the reform movement. [=it is something that will hurt/help the reform movement] ▪ Exercise won't solve all your health problems, but it's a step in the right direction. [=it will improve your health] ▪ They're taking baby steps. [=they're doing minor things that produce only a small amount of progress toward achieving something]
4 [count] : a stage in a process ▪ We're in the first/intermediate/last steps of the negotiations. ▪ She's one step nearer/closer to graduation. ▪ I want to take it a step further. [=I want to move to the next stage in the process] ▪ He was criticized at every step. = He was criticized every step of the way. ▪ We'll guide you through the process step by step. ▪ Let's take this one step at a time.
5 [count] : a level or rank in a scale ▪ a step above/below average ▪ a step beyond what was expected ▪ The new job is a step up/down for her. [=the new job is more/less important, challenging, etc., than the job she had before]
6 [count] : the flat piece of wood, stone, etc., that forms one of the levels of a staircase ▪ They sat on the steps in front of the house. ▪ The top step [=stair] squeaks when you step on it. — see picture at HOUSE; see also DOORSTEP
7 [count] : a movement or pattern of movements made by someone who is dancing ▪ a ballet step ▪ dance steps
8 US, music : the distance from one tone of a musical scale to the next [count] The melody moves up/down a step. [noncount] The melody moves upward by step [=in a series of steps] from D to C. — see also HALF STEP, WHOLE STEP
9 [count] : a piece of exercise equipment consisting of a small platform that you use by stepping on and off it ▪ Working out with a step can be very rigorous. — see also STEP AEROBICS
10 steps [plural] Brit : STEPLADDER
a/one step ahead of 1 : better prepared than (someone or something) ▪ The teacher really has to work to keep one step ahead of the class. ▪ She always seems to be one step ahead of me. 2 : able to avoid being caught or found by (someone or something) ▪ So far the killer has managed to stay one step ahead of the police/law. [=managed to avoid being caught by the police] break step : to stop walking or marching with the same rhythm as another person or group of people ▪ The soldier was startled and broke step.
fall into step : to begin walking or marching with the same rhythm as another person or group of people ▪ He fell into step beside her and struck up a conversation.
in step 1 : with the same rhythm as someone or something ▪ They walked in step down the avenue. — usually + with ▪ We danced in step with the music. 2 : matching or agreeing with someone or something ▪ She's in step with people her age. [=she has the same ideas, problems, etc., as other people her age] ▪ The practice is not in step with modern morality.
mind/watch your step 1 : to walk carefully ▪ It's slippery, so watch your step. 2 : to speak or behave carefully ▪ You'd better watch your step with me, young lady.
out of step 1 : not moving with the same rhythm as someone or something ▪ One of the dancers was out of step. 2 : not matching or agreeing with someone or something ▪ Her fashion sense is completely out of step. — often + with ▪ She's out of step with current fashion. ▪ Critics say the rule is out of step with the times. [=the rule does not agree with the ideas that are popular or important now]
– step•like /ˈstɛpˌlaɪk/ adj – stepped /ˈstɛpt/ adj ▪ a stepped pyramid [=a pyramid with sides made of steps]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 178 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[2]step verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition steps; stepped; step•ping [no obj]
1 : to move in a specified direction by lifting your foot and putting it down in a different place ▪ The sailor stepped ashore. ▪ She stepped onto/off the bus. ▪ They stepped aside/forward/backward to let her pass. ▪ Please step away from the door. : to move somewhere by walking ▪ He stepped outside for a moment. ▪ Step in/into my office for a minute.
2 : to put your foot down — usually + in or on ▪ He accidentally stepped on a nail. ▪ She stepped in a puddle.
step aside/down [phrasal verb] : to leave a job or official position ▪ He stepped down [=resigned] as president. ▪ She'll step aside after her replacement is appointed.
step back [phrasal verb] : to stop doing something or being actively involved in something for a time so that you can think about it and make decisions in a calm and reasonable way ▪ You need to step back and give yourself some time to work through this.
step forward [phrasal verb] : to give or offer help, information, etc. ▪ A witness stepped forward to identify the robber.
step in [phrasal verb] : to become involved in an activity, discussion, etc., in order to prevent trouble or provide help ▪ He stepped in and took charge. ▪ She stepped in before a fight could start.
step into [phrasal verb] step into (something) : to take a particular role or do a particular task ▪ She stepped into the role/position of director. ▪ She's retiring, and it won't be easy to find someone who can step into her shoes. [=fill her shoes; who can do her job]
step lively see LIVELY
step on it or US step on the gas informal : to drive faster ▪ Step on it, they're getting away!
step on someone's toes see [1]TOE step out [phrasal verb] US : to briefly leave a place ▪ I need to step out [=pop out] for a moment. ▪ She just stepped out to get some milk.
step out of line informal : to disobey rules or behave badly ▪ If you step out of line, you'll get kicked off the bus.
step right up chiefly US — used to invite people to gather around to see a show or to buy things ▪ Step right up [=(Brit) roll up, roll up] and see the world's greatest magic show!
step up [phrasal verb] 1 : to increase in amount or speed ▪ Production has stepped up in recent months. 2 a : to say openly or publicly that you are the person who should get something or who can do something : to come forward ▪ No one yet has stepped up to claim responsibility. b : to do better : to succeed in providing what is needed by making a greater effort, improving your performance, etc. ▪ The team's best player is injured, so someone else needs to step up. 3 step (something) up or step up (something) a : to increase the amount or speed of (something) ▪ The company has stepped up production. b : to improve (something) ▪ The other players need to step up their performance. — see also STEP-UP step up to the plate see [1]PLATE
– step•per /ˈstɛpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

step- combining form — used to describe family relationships that are created when a person who already has a child marries someone who is not the child's parent ▪ *step*sister ▪ *step*son ▪ *step*mother ▪ *step*father step aerobics noun [noncount] : a system of exercise that involves repeatedly stepping on and off a raised platform often while music is playing ▪ a class in step aerobics = a step aerobics class; also [plural] : exercises in this system ▪ I do step aerobics twice a week.

step•broth•er /ˈstɛpˌbrʌðɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : the son of your stepmother or stepfather

step–by–step /ˌstɛpbaɪˈstɛp/ adj
1 : showing or explaining each stage in a process ▪ step-by-step directions/procedures
2 : happening or done in a series of steps or stages : GRADUAL ▪ the step-by-step approach to the problem
– step by step adv ▪ We're moving ahead with the project slowly, taking it step by step. [=one step at a time]

step change noun [singular] chiefly Brit : an important change in something ▪ There has been a step change [=sea change] in our understanding of the problem.

step•child /ˈstɛpˌʧajəld/ noun, pl -chil•dren [count]
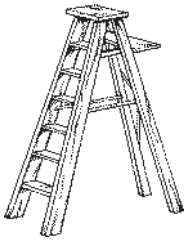
1 : your wife's or husband's child by a past marriage or relationship : a stepson or stepdaughter
2 : someone or something that does not receive enough care or attention ▪ The school has long been the forgotten stepchild of the state university system.

step•daugh•ter /ˈstɛpˌdɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : your wife's or husband's daughter by a past marriage or relationship

step•fa•ther /ˈstɛpˌfɑːðɚ/ noun, pl -thers [count] : a man that your mother marries after her marriage to or relationship with your father has ended

step•lad•der /ˈstɛpˌlædɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a ladder that has wide, flat steps and two pairs of legs which are connected at the top and that opens at the bottom so that it can stand without being attached to or supported by something else



stepladder

step•moth•er /ˈstɛpˌmʌðɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a woman that your father marries after his marriage to or relationship with your mother has ended

step•par•ent /ˈstɛpˌperənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : someone that your mother or father marries after the marriage to or relationship with your other parent has ended steppe /ˈstɛp/ noun, pl steppes [count] : a large, flat area of land with grass and very few trees especially in eastern Europe and Asia

step•ping–stone /ˈstɛpɪŋˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count]
1 : a large, flat stone that you step on to cross a stream
2 : something that helps you get or achieve something ▪ He regarded his first job as a stepping-stone to a better career.

step•sis•ter /ˈstɛpˌsɪstɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : the daughter of your stepmother or stepfather

step•son /ˈstɛpˌsʌn/ noun, pl -sons [count] : your wife's or husband's son by a past marriage or relationship

step stool noun, pl ~ stools [count] : a usually short stool with one or two steps

step–up /ˈstɛpˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : an increase in size or amount ▪ a step-up in production — see also step up at [2]STEP

-ster /stɚ/ noun combining form
1 : someone who does or handles or operates something ▪ team*ster*
2 : someone who makes or uses something ▪ song*ster* ▪ prank*ster*
3 : someone who is associated with or participates in something ▪ gang*ster*
4 : someone who has a specified quality ▪ young*ster*

[1]ste•reo /ˈsterijoʊ/ noun, pl -reos
1 [count] : a piece of electronic equipment that plays the radio, CDs, etc., and that uses two speakers for the sound — see picture at LIVING ROOM
2 [noncount] : a way of recording and playing back sound so that the sound comes from two directions ▪ broadcasting in stereo — compare MONO

[2]stereo adj : of or relating to a system that directs sound through two speakers ▪ stereo headphones/equipment

ste•reo•phon•ic /ˌsterijəˈfɑːnɪk/ adj : [2]STEREO ▪ stereophonic sound ste•reo•scope /ˈsterijəˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] : a device that is used for viewing stereoscopic images

ster•eo•scop•ic /ˌsterijəˈskɑːpɪk/ adj
1 — used to describe an image that appears to have depth and solidness and that is created by using a special device (called a stereoscope) to look at two slightly different photographs of something at the same time ▪ stereoscopic images/photographs
2 technical : able to see depth and solidness ▪ normal stereoscopic vision

[1]ste•reo•type /ˈsterijəˌtaɪp/ noun, pl -types [count] : an often unfair and untrue belief that many people have about all people or things with a particular characteristic ▪ racial/cultural stereotypes ▪ the stereotype of the absentminded professor – ste•reo•typ•i•cal /ˌsterijəˈtɪpɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a stereotypical representation/idea/approach ▪ He's the stereotypical absentminded professor. [=he's a professor who is absentminded in the way that people often think of professors as being] – ste•reo•typ•i•cal•ly /ˌsterijəˈtɪpɪkli/ adv

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 179 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[2]stereotype verb -types; -typed; -typ•ing [+ obj] : to believe unfairly that all people or things with a particular characteristic are the same ▪ It's not fair to stereotype a whole group of people based on one person you don't like.
– stereotyped /'sterijə‚taɪpt/ adj ▪ a stereotyped representation/approach/character ▪ stereotyped roles
– stereotyping noun [noncount] ▪ ethnic/gender stereotyping

ster•ile /'sterəl, Brit 'stɛ‚rajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not able to produce crops or plants ▪ sterile soil/fields
2 a : not able to produce children, young animals, etc. ▪ Mules are sterile. ▪ sterile offspring b : not able to grow or develop ▪ sterile eggs
3 : clean and free of bacteria and germs ▪ a sterile dressing for a wound ▪ sterile needles
4 : not producing or containing new ideas, useful results, etc. ▪ a sterile debate/subject
5 : very plain and not interesting or attractive ▪ a sterile building/room – ste•ril•i•ty /stə'rɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ a disease that causes sterility ▪ emotional/creative sterility

ster•il•ize also Brit ster•il•ise /'sterə‚laɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to clean (something) by destroying germs or bacteria ▪ sterilize the dental instruments
2 : to make (someone or something) unable to produce children, young animals, etc. ▪ The organization encourages people to sterilize their cats and dogs.
– ster•il•i•za•tion also Brit ster•il•i•sa•tion /‚sterələ'zeɪʃən, Brit ‚stɛrə‚laɪ'zeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]
– ster•il•iz•er also Brit ster•il•is•er /'sterə‚laɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]ster•ling /'stəlɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : silver that is 92 percent pure — called also sterling silver
2 : British money ▪ a drop in the value of sterling — see also POUND STERLING

[2]sterling adj
1 : made of silver that is 92 percent pure ▪ a sterling bracelet
2 always used before a noun : very good : EXCELLENT ▪ sterling ideas/work ▪ a sterling example of democracy at work

[1]stern /'stən/ adj stern•er; -est
1 a : very serious especially in an unfriendly way ▪ a stern judge ▪ a stern warning b : expressing strong disapproval or criticism ▪ He gave me a stern look.
2 : not likely to change or become weaker ▪ stern determination/resolve be made of sterner stuff : to be an emotionally and morally strong person with more determination than other people ▪ Another woman would have broken down, but she is made of sterner stuff.
– stern•ly adv ▪ "No running in the house," he said sternly.
– stern•ness /'stənnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]stern noun, pl sterns [count] : the back part of a boat or ship — see picture at BOAT; opposite [3]BOW from stem to stern see [1]STEM

ster•num /'stənəm/ noun, pl -nums [count] technical : BREASTBONE

ste•roid /'stɛ‚roɪd/ noun, pl -roids [count]
1 : a natural substance that is produced in the body
2 : ANABOLIC STEROID ▪ a steroid user/abuser ▪ He was accused of taking/using steroids.
on steroids 1 : using anabolic steroids ▪ There were many rumors that she was on steroids. 2 US, informal + humorous : very large or impressive ▪ a cookie on steroids [=a very large cookie]

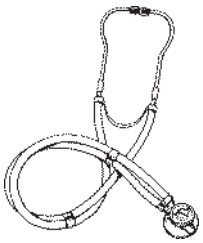
stetho•scope /'stɛθə‚skoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] medical : an instrument that is used for listening to someone's heart or lungs



stethoscope

Stet•son /'stɛtsən/ trademark — used for a somewhat tall hat with a wide brim

ste•ve•dore /'sti:və‚doə/ noun, pl -dores [count] : a person whose job is to load and unload ships at a port : LONGSHOREMAN

[1]stew /'stu:, Brit 'stju:/ noun, pl stews : a dish of vegetables and usually meat cooked in hot liquid for a long time [count] I cooked/made a stew for dinner. [noncount] Would you like some stew?
in a stew informal : excited, worried, or confused ▪ He got himself in a stew over nothing. ▪ She's been in a stew for days.

[2]stew verb stews; stewed; stew•ing
1 : to cook (something) slowly in hot liquid [+ obj] stewing the meat [no obj] The meat still needs to stew. ▪ a can of stewed tomatoes
2 [no obj] : to be upset or worried ▪ She's been stewing over/about what he said for days.
stew in your own juice/juices informal : to worry and suffer because of something that you did ▪ Let him stew in his own juices for a while.

stew•ard /'stu:wəd, Brit 'stju:wəd/ noun, pl -ards [count]
1 : a person and especially a man whose job is to serve meals and take care of passengers on a train, airplane, or ship — compare FLIGHT ATTENDANT
2 a : someone who protects or is responsible for money, property, etc. ▪ the steward of their investments ▪ teaching our children to be good stewards of the land b : a person whose job is to manage the land and property of another person ▪ the steward of the estate — called also (Brit) bailiff
3 chiefly Brit : someone who is in charge of a race, contest, or other public event ▪ The race stewards are reviewing the results.
– see also SHOP STEWARD, WINE STEWARD

stew•ard•ess /'stu:wədəs, Brit 'stju:wədəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a woman whose job is to serve meals and take care of passengers on a train, airplane, or ship — compare FLIGHT ATTENDANT stew•ard•ship /'stu:wəd‚ʃɪp, Brit 'stju:wəd‚ʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the activity or job of protecting and being responsible for something — usually + of ▪ the stewardship of their investments/estate ▪ the stewardship of our natural resources

[1]stick /'stɪk/ noun, pl sticks
1 [count] : a cut or broken branch or twig ▪ They collected dry sticks for the campfire. ▪ a pile of sticks
2 [count] a : a long, thin piece of wood, metal, plastic, etc., that is used for a particular purpose ▪ He served pieces of fruit on sticks. ▪ a candied apple on a stick ▪ a measuring/hiking stick — see also BROOMSTICK, CHOPSTICK, DIPSTICK, DRUMSTICK, WALKING STICK, YARDSTICK b : a long, thin object that is used for hitting or moving a ball or puck in a game ▪ a hockey/lacrosse stick c : a stick that is used as a weapon ▪ You know the old saying: "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words/names can/will never hurt me." — often used figuratively in British English ▪ The minister's inappropriate comments gave his opponents a new stick with which to beat him. — see also NIGHTSTICK
3 [count] a : something that is long and thin like a stick ▪ He has sticks for legs. ▪ cinnamon/carrot/celery sticks — often + of ▪ a stick of dynamite — see also FISH STICK, MATCHSTICK, POGO STICK b : a long piece of something that is usually wrapped in paper, plastic, etc. ▪ a stick of gum/butter c : a solid substance that is sold in a tall container which is open at the top ▪ a glue stick ▪ a stick of deodorant — see also LIPSTICK
4 [count] a : JOYSTICK ▪ The pilot pulled back on the stick. b : STICK SHIFT ▪ Does your car have a stick?
5 the sticks informal : an area in the country that is far away from towns and cities ▪ We live way out in the sticks. [=the boonies, the boondocks]
6 [count] informal : punishment or the threat of punishment that is used to try to persuade someone to do something ✧ This sense of stick is often contrasted with carrot, which refers to the reward or advantage someone will get if they do something. ▪ She'll have to choose between the carrot and the stick. ▪ They say that a carrot works better than a stick. ▪ The administration was criticized for its carrot-and-stick approach to foreign policy.
7 [noncount] Brit, informal : CRITICISM ▪ I gave him a lot of stick [=flak] for his mistake.
get on the stick US, informal : to start working hard at something that you have been avoiding doing ▪ You'd better get on the stick with those college applications!
more than you can shake a stick at see [1]SHAKE stick to beat someone with or stick with which to beat someone Brit, informal : something that is used to attack or punish someone or to make an attack or punishment seem reasonable or right ▪ The fee is just another stick with which to beat the unions. ▪ These charges have given her opponents a new stick to beat her with.
the short end of the stick chiefly US, informal : unfair or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 180 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

unfavorable treatment ▪ She got the short end of the stick in the deal.

the wrong end of the stick chiefly Brit, informal : an incorrect understanding of something ▪ You've got (hold of) the wrong end of the stick. He didn't push me; I fell.

up sticks Brit, informal : to pack up your belongings and move to a different place ▪ They upped sticks and left for London.

– see also BIG STICK, CANDLESTICK, SLAPSTICK

[2]stick verb sticks; stuck /ˈstʌk/; stick•ing

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to push (something usually sharp or pointed) into something ▪ He stuck a toothpick in/into the sandwich. ▪ The jacket was too thick to stick a pin through. ▪ The nurse stuck the needle into the patient's leg. ▪ Stick these candles in the birthday cake. b [no obj] of something usually sharp or pointed : to go partly into something ▪ The thorn stuck in the dog's paw. ▪ The spears stuck into the ground. : to have a part that has been pushed into something : to be partly inside something ▪ The victim was found with a knife sticking out of her back. ▪ darts sticking out of the wall ▪ I saw a letter sticking (out) from his pocket. = I saw a letter sticking out of his pocket.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] informal : to put (something or someone) in a specified place ▪ He stuck [=tucked] the pencil behind his ear. ▪ The dog stuck its head out the window. ▪ She stuck [=pushed] the letter under the door. ▪ She stuck [=reached] her hand into the box and pulled out a piece of paper. ▪ The librarian stuck [=put] the book back on its shelf. ▪ The little girl stuck her fingers in the batter. ▪ The photographer stuck the shorter people in the front row. ▪ The deer stuck its nose up in the air. ▪ He pointed the gun at me and said "stick 'em up." [=put your hands up in the air]

3 a always used before an adverb or preposition [+ obj] informal : to attach (something) to a surface with glue, tape, pins, etc. ▪ She stuck two stamps on the letter. ▪ He stuck a note (up) on the door. ▪ She stuck the pieces of wood together with glue. b [no obj] : to become attached to the surface of something ▪ The suction cup wouldn't stick. ▪ Several pages had stuck together. ▪ Spray the pan with oil to keep the biscuits from sticking. — often + to ▪ The peanut butter stuck to the knife. ▪ Magnets stick to steel. ▪ The glue had stuck to her fingers.

4 [no obj] : to become difficult or impossible to move from a place or position ▪ The door's handle has a tendency to stick. ▪ That door always sticks. ▪ Her foot stuck in the mud. ▪ A piece of food stuck [=lodged] in her throat. — often used figuratively ▪ His words stuck in my mind. [=I remembered his words] ▪ One of the kids called him "Stretch," and the name stuck. [=everyone started calling him "Stretch"] ▪ You can charge them with fraud, but you'll need more evidence if you want to make it stick. [=if you want them to be legally punished for fraud]

5 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to deal with or accept (an unpleasant situation, experience, person, etc.) : STAND — usually used in questions and negative statements with can, can't, cannot, could, and couldn't ▪ He couldn't stick the new job. ▪ How can you stick being there all the time? ▪ She can't stick his friends. [=she strongly dislikes his friends] stick around [phrasal verb] informal : to stay somewhere especially in order to wait for something or someone ▪ Stick around. The band should start playing soon. ▪ If you stick around, you can meet my girlfriend.

stick at it Brit, informal : to continue doing or trying to do something ▪ If you stick at it [=keep at it] long enough, you'll succeed.

stick at nothing Brit, informal : to be willing to do anything in order to get or achieve something ▪ She'll stick at nothing [=stop at nothing] to get what she wants.

stick a toe in the water see [1]TOE stick by [phrasal verb] stick by (someone or something) : to continue to support or be loyal to (someone or something) ▪ The troops stuck by [=stood by] their general to the end. ▪ She stuck by [=stood by] her husband throughout the trial. ▪ I stick by my promise. [=I still will do what I promised] ▪ He stuck by what he said earlier.

stick in your craw see CRAW stick it to (someone) US, informal : to treat (someone) harshly or unfairly especially in order to get something for yourself (such as revenge or money) ▪ Her political rivals used the scandal as an opportunity to stick it to her. ▪ businesses that stick it to consumers by charging high fees ▪ The government is really sticking it to the taxpayers.

stick like glue informal 1 : to stay very firmly attached to something ▪ Wash the egg off before it dries, or it will stick like glue. — often used figuratively ▪ One of the kids called him "Stretch," and the nickname stuck (to him) like glue. [=everyone started calling him by that nickname] 2 : to stay very close to someone ▪ Her dog always stuck to her like glue. ▪ The two friends stick (together) like glue.

stick out [phrasal verb] 1 : to extend outward beyond an edge or surface ▪ His ears stick out. [=they extend outward more than most people's ears] ▪ A peninsula sticks out from the shore into the bay. 2 stick out (something) or stick (something) out : to extend (something, such as a body part) outward ▪ She said "hello," and stuck her hand out. ▪ He stuck out his chest and walked away. ▪ She was sitting with her feet stuck out in the aisle. ▪ Stick out your tongue and say "ah." 3 : to be easily seen or recognized ▪ You will certainly stick out [=stand out] with that orange hat. 4 : to be better or more important than the other people or things in a group in a way that is easily seen or noticed ▪ Only one contestant really sticks out [=stands out] in my mind. ▪ Two facts stick out from her testimony. 5 stick out (something) or stick (something) out informal : to continue doing (something unpleasant or difficult) ▪ She stuck the job out for the remainder of the summer. ▪ Though the home team was down by 20 points, a few fans stuck it out [=stayed and watched the game] until the very end. 6 stick out for (something) Brit, informal : to refuse to accept or agree to something in order to get (something) ▪ The strikers are sticking out for [=holding out for] higher pay.

stick out like a sore thumb see [1]SORE

stick to [phrasal verb] stick to (something) : to continue doing or using (something) especially when it is difficult to do so ▪ She stuck to her story about the money already being missing when she got there. ▪ Please stick to the script/subject/rules. ▪ Stick to the marked trails. ▪ If you want to succeed, you've got to stick to it! [=keep trying, working, etc.] : to not change (a decision, belief, etc.) ▪ I intend to stick to my promise/word. ▪ She's sticking to her decision to retire.

stick together informal : to continue to support each other ▪ Families need to stick together.

stick to your guns see [1]GUN

stick two fingers up at see [1]FINGER

stick up [phrasal verb] 1 : to extend upward above a surface ▪ The baby's hair sticks (straight) up. ▪ A large rock was sticking up in the middle of the river. 2 stick up for (someone) informal : to defend (someone) against attack or criticism ▪ He stuck up for his friend. ▪ She stuck up for herself. — see also STICKUP stick with [phrasal verb] informal 1 stick with (something) : to continue using or doing (something) ▪ You need to find a job and stick with it. ▪ I'll stick with my usual brand. : to not change (a decision, belief, etc.) ▪ The company is sticking with its decision to close the store. 2 stick (someone) with (something or someone) : to force (someone) to deal with (something or someone unpleasant) ▪ They always stick me with the bill. [=make me pay the bill] ▪ The teacher always sticks me with Tom. — often used as (be/get) stuck with ▪ I was stuck with washing dishes. ▪ I got stuck with Tom again. 3 stick with (someone) a : to stay close to (someone) in a race or competition ▪ The challenger stuck with the champion until the very last round. b : to stay near (someone) in order to gain knowledge, protection, etc. ▪ Stick with me, kid, and you'll learn something! c : to be remembered by someone for a very long time ▪ The lessons she learned from that experience stuck with her.

stick your head above the parapet see PARAPET

stick your neck out see [1]NECK stick your nose in/into see [1]NOSE

stick your oar in see OAR

– see also STUCK

stick•ball /ˈstɪkˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] US : a game like baseball that is played on the street or in a small area with a stick (such as a broomstick) and ball stick•er /ˈstɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a piece of paper with a picture or writing on it and a sticky substance on its back that is used to attach it to a surface — see also BUMPER STICKER sticker price noun, pl ~ prices [count] US : the price of a vehicle that is suggested by the manufacturer and that is shown on a sticker which is attached to the vehicle ▪ We managed to negotiate 15 percent off the sticker price.; also : the stated price of something ▪ The speakers are excellent and well worth the sticker price.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 181 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sticker shock noun [noncount] US : a feeling of surprise and disappointment caused by learning that something you want to buy is very expensive ▪ We left the store suffering severe sticker shock.

stick figure noun, pl ~ -ures [count] : a drawing that shows the head of a person or animal as a circle and all other parts as usually straight lines stick•han•dling /ˈstɪkˌhændlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] sports : the use of a stick to control a puck or ball ▪ a hockey player who is skilled at stickhandling sticking plaster noun, pl ~ -ters [count] Brit : a piece of material that is put on your skin over a small cut or wound : PLASTER sticking point noun, pl ~ points [count] : something that people disagree about and that prevents progress from being made in discussions ▪ The length of the contract has become a sticking point in the negotiations.

stick insect noun, pl ~ -sects [count] : an insect with a long, thin body that looks like a stick — called also (US) walking stick stick–in–the–mud /ˈstɪkənðəˌmʌd/ noun, pl stick–in–the–muds [count] informal + disapproving : someone who has old-fashioned ideas or who does not like trying new or exciting things ▪ He's just an old stick-in-the-mud.

stick•ler /ˈstɪklə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : a person who believes that something is very important and should be done or followed all the time ▪ an etiquette stickler — usually + for ▪ a stickler for proper etiquette ▪ He's a stickler for the rules.

stick–on adj, always used before a noun : having a sticky substance on one side for attaching to something ▪ stick-on labels stick•pin /ˈstɪkˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count] US : a decorative pin that is worn on a jacket or used to hold the ends of a necktie in place

stick shift noun, pl ~ shifts [count] US
1 : a device in a car that you move into different positions in order to change the car's gears — called also stick; compare GEARSHIFT
2 : a car that has a stick shift : MANUAL ▪ Do you know how to drive a stick shift? — called also stick

stick–to–it•ive•ness /ˌstɪkˈtuːwətɪvnəs/ noun [noncount] US, informal : the quality that allows someone to continue trying to do something even though it is difficult or unpleasant ▪ I admire her stick-to-itiveness. [=perseverance, tenacity]

stick•up /ˈstɪkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] US, informal : a robbery that is done using a gun : HOLDUP ▪ He pulled out a gun and shouted, "This is a stickup!" — see also stick up at ²STICK stick•work /ˈstɪkˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] sports : the use of a stick to control a puck or ball ▪ a hockey player who's known for his skillful/fancy stickwork

sticky /ˈstɪki/ adj stick•i•er; -est
1 : having a substance (such as glue or honey) on it that things easily attach to : covered in a substance that things stick to ▪ My fingers are sticky. ▪ sticky hands ▪ The floor is sticky.
2 of a substance : tending to have things attach to it : tending to have things stick to it ▪ The sap is very sticky. ▪ There is a sticky substance on the table. ▪ The paint was still sticky.
3 informal : unpleasantly warm and humid ▪ It's sticky outside. ▪ a sticky summer afternoon ▪ The weather was hot and sticky.
4 informal : difficult or unpleasant ▪ It's a sticky [=tricky] situation.
– stick•i•ness /ˈstɪkinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ The tape has lost its stickiness.

sticky bun noun, pl ~ buns [count] chiefly US : a usually round sweet cake made with cinnamon and topped with melted brown sugar and butter sticky fingers noun [noncount] informal : a tendency to steal things ▪ people with sticky fingers ▪ She's known for having sticky fingers.

sticky note noun, pl ~ notes [count] : a small piece of paper that has a strip of a sticky substance on the back so that it can be attached to a surface — see picture at OFFICE sticky–sweet adj, chiefly US, informal : extremely sweet : too sweet ▪ sticky-sweet caramel ▪ a sticky-sweet smell ▪ a love song full of sticky-sweet sentiment sticky tape noun [noncount] Brit : a type of clear tape that is used for sticking things (such as pieces of paper) together : clear adhesive tape ▪ a roll of sticky tape sticky wicket noun [singular] Brit, informal : a difficult situation ▪ It's a bit of a sticky wicket. ▪ She was on a sticky wicket when she saw her friend steal the fund-raiser money.

¹stiff /ˈstɪf/ adj stiff•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : difficult to bend or move ▪ stiff valves/cardboard/fabric ▪ stiff hairs/bristles ▪ The brush was as stiff as a board. [=very stiff] b : painful to move or use ▪ stiff muscles ▪ a stiff back/neck ▪ When I got out of bed this morning my back was stiff as a board.; also : showing pain in movement or use ▪ a stiff walk
2 : thick and difficult to stir or pour ▪ Beat the egg whites until they are stiff. ▪ stiff batter
3 : difficult, strict, or severe ▪ a stiff [=heavy] penalty/fine ▪ a stiff task/challenge ▪ stiff competition
4 : not graceful, relaxed, or friendly ▪ Our host seemed somewhat stiff. ▪ a stiff manner : too formal ▪ stiff writing/dialogue
5 : very expensive ▪ a stiff price
6 : strong and forceful ▪ a stiff wind/breeze ▪ The troops encountered stiff resistance.
7 : containing a lot of alcohol ▪ a stiff drink/cocktail stiff upper lip : a calm and determined attitude in a difficult situation ▪ She managed to keep a stiff upper lip even as everything fell apart.
– stiff•ly adv ▪ "Excuse me," he said stiffly. – stiff•ness noun [noncount]

²stiff adv, informal : very much : to an extreme degree ▪ She was scared/bored stiff.
frozen stiff 1 : completely stiff because of being wet and frozen ▪ The shirt was frozen stiff. 2 informal : extremely cold ▪ We were frozen stiff by the time we got indoors.

³stiff noun, pl stiffs [count] informal
1 : the body of a dead person
2 US a : a person who you think is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ You lucky stiff! ▪ That poor stiff never gets a break. b : an ordinary or dull person ▪ (disapproving) He's OK but his friends are a bunch of stiffs. ▪ They have the kind of luxuries the average working stiff can't afford.

⁴stiff verb stiffs; stiffed; stiff•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to not give as much money as you should give to (someone) ▪ He stiffed the waiter on the tip. [=he didn't give the waiter a tip or he gave a tip that was too small] stiff–arm /ˈstɪfˌɑɚm/ noun, pl -arms [count] American football : STRAIGHT-ARM – stiff–arm verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing [+ obj] ▪ The ball-carrier stiff-armed the tackler.

stiff•en /ˈstɪfən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [no obj] : to stop moving and become completely still especially because of fear, anger, etc. ▪ She stiffened when he grabbed her shoulder. ▪ The dogs stiffened in alarm.
2 [no obj] : to become painful to move or use — often + up ▪ My muscles stiffened up the next day.
3 : to become more severe or strong or to make (something) more severe or strong [no obj] The wind stiffened. ▪ His resolve has stiffened. [+ obj] He stiffened his resolve. ▪ The law would stiffen penalties for tax evasion.
4 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as cloth) difficult to bend or move ▪ stiffen a shirt with starch – stiff•en•er /ˈstɪfənə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

stiff–necked /ˈstɪfˈnɛkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : very proud and formal ▪ a stiff-necked military man ▪ stiff-necked arrogance ▪ She's too stiff-necked to ask for help.

sti•fle /ˈstaɪfəl/ verb sti•fles; stifled; sti•fling
1 [+ obj] a : to not allow yourself to do or express (something) ▪ trying to stifle a cry/yawn ▪ I had to stifle the desire/urge to yell "Stop!" b : to stop (someone) from doing or expressing something ▪ Students at the school are stifled by the pressure to score high on tests.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) difficult or impossible ▪ Too many regulations stifle innovation. ▪ something that stifles the growth of the plant/economy
3 a [no obj] : to be unable to breathe easily ▪ I wish we could go outside instead of stifling in this tiny room. b [+ obj] : to make (someone) unable to breathe or unable to breathe easily ▪ He was almost stifled by the smoke.

stifling adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : making it difficult to breathe ▪ The heat was stifling. : very hot and humid ▪ a stifling day
2 : not allowing something to be done or expressed ▪ stifling rules/regulations/requirements ▪ a stifling relationship [=a relationship that prevents someone from behaving freely, expressing emotion, etc.]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 182 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

– sti·ing adv ▪ The weather was stifling hot. [=very hot]
– sti·ing·ly adv ▪ stiflingly hot

stig·ma /ˈstɪgmə/ noun, pl -mas
1 [singular] : a set of negative and often unfair beliefs that a society or group of people have about something ▪ the stigma associated with mental illness = the stigma of mental illness ▪ the stigma of being poor = the stigma of poverty ▪ There's a social stigma attached to receiving welfare.
2 [count] botany : the top part in the center of a flower which receives the pollen

stig·ma·ta /stɪgˈmɑːtə/ noun [plural] : marks on someone's hands and feet which resemble Jesus Christ's wounds from being nailed on the cross

stig·ma·tize also Brit stig·ma·tise /ˈstɪgməˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz·es; -tized; -tiz·ing [+ obj] usually disapproving : to describe or regard (something, such as a characteristic or group of people) in a way that shows strong disapproval ▪ Society stigmatizes welfare recipients. ▪ a legal system that stigmatizes juveniles as criminals
– stig·ma·ti·za·tion also Brit stig·ma·ti·sa·tion /ˌstɪgməˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌstɪgməˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] stile /ˈstajəl/ noun, pl stiles [count] : a set of steps to help people climb over a fence or wall

sti·let·to /stəˈlɛtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos or -toes [count]
1 a : a woman's shoe with a very high, thin heel ▪ a pair of stilettos [=spikes, spike heels] b : the heel of a stiletto — called also spike heel
2 : a knife with a thin, pointed blade

[1]still /ˈstɪl/ adv
1 : happening or existing before now and continuing into the present — used to say that an action or condition continues ▪ He still lives there. [=he continues to live there] ▪ It's still early/cold/Tuesday. ▪ She's still mad about what happened yesterday. ▪ Eat your soup while it's still hot. [=while it continues to be hot; before it cools]
2 : in spite of that — used to say that something happens or is true even though there is something that might prevent it from happening or being true ▪ Careful people can still make mistakes. ▪ I tried again and still I failed.
3 : without moving : without motion ▪ Sit still. It'll just take a minute. ▪ She stood very still.
4 : to a greater extent or degree — used to add force to words like more, better, bigger, etc. ▪ a still more difficult problem = a problem that is more difficult still ▪ still bigger/better/longer
5 : in addition — used for emphasis ▪ He won still [=yet] another tournament. ▪ still more complications jury is still out see JURY still less see [2]LESS

[2]still adj
1 a : not moving ▪ still water ▪ The cat twitched slightly, and then was still. — see also STOCK-STILL b : lacking motion or activity ▪ Everyone had left, and the house was finally still. ▪ a hot, still day [=a day without wind]
2 photography a — used to describe an ordinary photograph that does not show movement as compared to a movie ▪ still photographs b : relating to or used for still photographs ▪ a class in still photography ▪ a still camera
3 chiefly Brit, of a liquid : not having bubbles ▪ They had still and fizzy drinks. ▪ still wine still waters run deep — used to say that people who are quiet or shy are often very intelligent and interesting – still·ness noun [noncount]

[3]still verb stills; stilled; still·ing literary
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) less severe or strong ▪ Her reassuring words stilled our fears/apprehensions.
2 : to become still or to make (something) still : to stop moving or to cause (something) to stop moving [no obj] The water stilled at last. [+ obj] river waters stilled by dams
3 [+ obj] : to stop (something) from continuing ▪ The report has not stilled debate about whether the procedure is safe.

[4]still noun, pl stills
1 [noncount] literary : quiet or silence ▪ the still of late evening ▪ the still of the deep woods
2 [count] : PHOTOGRAPH; specifically : a photograph of actors or scenes from a movie ▪ a series of stills from the movie the still of the night literary : the time late at night when it is very quiet and dark – compare [5]STILL

[5]still noun, pl stills [count] : a piece of equipment that is used for making strong alcoholic drinks ▪ a whisky still — compare [4]STILL still·birth /ˈstɪlˌbəθ/ noun, pl -births [count] : the birth of a dead baby still·born /ˈstɪlˈboən/ adj

1 of a baby : dead at birth
2 : never able to begin operating or proceeding ▪ The plan was stillborn. [=the plan had failed even before it had begun to be used] still life noun, pl ~ lifes [count] : a painting, drawing, etc., of a carefully arranged group of objects (such as flowers and fruit) ▪ an exhibit of still lifes; also [noncount] : the art or activity of making still lifes ▪ She prefers portraiture to still life.

stilt /ˈstɪlt/ noun, pl stilts [count]
1 : one of a set of upright posts that are used to hold a building up above water or the ground
2 : one of a pair of long poles with platforms for your feet that you can stand on to walk high above the ground ▪ a circus performer walking on stilts

stilts

stilt·ed /ˈstɪltəd/ adj : awkward especially because of being too formal ▪ a stilted speech ▪ stilted dialogue/language

stim·u·lant /ˈstɪmjələnt/ noun, pl -lants [count]
1 : something (such as a drug) that makes you more active or gives you more energy ▪ Caffeine is a stimulant.
2 : something that causes more activity : STIMULUS ▪ The movie was a stimulant to discussion.

stim·u·late /ˈstɪmjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat·ed; -lat·ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) more active ▪ Caffeine stimulates the heart. : to cause or encourage (something) to happen or develop ▪ A raise in employee wages might stimulate production. ▪ The economy was not stimulated by the tax cuts. ▪ a hormone that stimulates the growth of muscle tissue
2 : to make (a person) excited or interested in something ▪ Their discussion stimulated him to research the subject more. ▪ He was stimulated by their discussion.
– stim·u·la·tion /ˌstɪmjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ physical/intellectual/sexual stimulation stimulating adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : exciting or interesting ▪ a stimulating conversation ▪ a stimulating environment for studying 2 : causing someone to become more energetic or alert ▪ the stimulating effects of caffeine

stim·u·lus /ˈstɪmjələs/ noun, pl stim·u·li /ˈstɪmjəˌlaɪ/ [count]
1 : something that causes something else to happen, develop, or become more active ▪ The pay raise was a stimulus for production. ▪ an economic stimulus plan
2 : something that causes a change or a reaction ▪ Heat and light are physical stimuli. ▪ The dog responded to the stimulus of the ringing bell.

[1]sting /ˈstɪŋ/ verb stings; stung /ˈstʌŋ/; sting·ing
1 of an insect, plant, or animal : to hurt (someone) by piercing the skin with a sharp, pointed part that usually contains poison [+ obj] I got stung by a bee. ▪ The jellyfish stung the swimmer. [no obj] The bees will sting if you bother them.
2 : to cause a quick, sharp pain [no obj] The iodine will sting for a few minutes. [+ obj] The cold rain stung my eyes.
3 a [no obj] : to feel a quick sharp pain ▪ The smoke made our eyes sting. b not used in progressive tenses : to cause (someone) to feel emotional or mental pain [+ obj] She was stung by their harsh criticism. ▪ His words stung her. [no obj] Your comment stung.
4 [+ obj] informal : to treat (someone) unfairly in a business deal — usually used as (be/get) stung ▪ He got stung on that deal.
sting for [phrasal verb] sting (someone) for (something) Brit, informal : to ask (someone) to give or lend you (something) ▪ Can I sting you for some gum?
– stinging adj ▪ stinging tentacles ▪ a stinging feeling ▪ She gave him a stinging rebuke.

[2]sting noun, pl stings
1 [singular] : a quick, sharp pain ▪ When you get the shot, you'll feel a little sting. — often used figuratively ▪ He'll eventually overcome the sting of being rejected. ▪ His smile took the sting out of his words. [=his smile showed that his words were not meant to be hurtful]
2 [count] : an injury caused when an insect or animal stings

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 183 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

you ▪ His arm was covered with bee stings.
3 [count] : a complicated and clever plan that is meant to deceive someone especially in order to catch criminals ▪ They were caught in a drug sting. ▪ a sting operation by police
4 [count] Brit : STINGER

sting•er /ˈstɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a pointed part on an insect and animal that is used to sting someone ▪ the stinger of a bee — called also (Brit) sting

sting•ray /ˈstɪŋˌreɪ/ noun, pl -rays [count] : a type of fish that has a large, flat body and a long tail with spines on it that are used to sting other animals

stin•gy /ˈstɪnʤi/ adj sting•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : not liking or wanting to give or spend money ▪ a stingy old miser ▪ The company was too stingy to raise salaries. : not generous ▪ He is stingy with compliments. [=he doesn't give many compliments]
2 : small in size or amount ▪ stingy portions of food
– stin•gi•ly /ˈstɪnʤəli/ adv – stin•gi•ness /ˈstɪnʤinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ He is known for his stinginess.

[1]stink /ˈstɪŋk/ verb stinks; stank /ˈstæŋk/ or stunk /ˈstʌŋk/; stunk; stink•ing [no obj]
1 : to have a very bad smell ▪ These dirty clothes stink. ▪ Something stinks in here. — often + of ▪ His clothes stank of dead fish. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Something stinks about his story. [=something about his story does not seem true or honest] ▪ The whole project stinks of corruption.
2 informal a : to do something very poorly ▪ I stink at golf. [=I'm a very bad golfer] b : to be very low in quality ▪ The movie stunk. [=the movie was very bad] ▪ The food is good at that restaurant, but the service stinks. c : to be very unpleasant, unfair, etc. ▪ Having a root canal stinks. ▪ It stinks that you can't stay longer. [=I'm very sorry/disappointed that you can't stay longer] stink up (US) or Brit stink out [phrasal verb] stink (something) up/out or stink up/out (something) : to give a very bad smell to (something) ▪ His cigars stink up the house.
stink up the joint see [1]JOINT

[2]stink noun [singular]
1 : a very bad smell ▪ the stink of garbage
2 informal : a situation in which someone complains in a very angry and often public way ▪ She caused (quite) a stink when her request was refused. ▪ People raised a stink about the new law. ▪ He kicked up a stink about the way he'd been treated.

stink bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a small device that produces a very bad smell when it is broken, burned, etc. ▪ Someone set off a stink bomb at the school.

stink•er /ˈstɪŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal
1 somewhat old-fashioned : a person or thing that is disliked ▪ He is a dirty little stinker.
2 : something (such as a book or film) that is very bad ▪ Her last movie was pretty good, but this one's a stinker. [=this one stinks] ▪ a real stinker of a performance

[1]stink•ing /ˈstɪŋkɪŋ/ adj
1 : having a very bad smell ▪ Put out that stinking cigar.
2 always used before a noun, informal — used for emphasis when you are angry ▪ I hate this stinking job.

[2]stinking adv, informal : very or extremely ▪ They're stinking rich. [=filthy rich] ▪ He was stinking drunk.

stinky /ˈstɪŋki/ adj stink•i•er; -est informal : having a very bad smell ▪ Move your stinky feet!

[1]stint /ˈstɪnt/ noun, pl stints [count] : a period of time spent doing a certain job or activity ▪ He had a brief stint as a mail carrier. ▪ a four-year stint in the army

[2]stint verb stints; stint•ed; stint•ing [no obj] : to use or give something in limited amounts — usually + on or with ▪ She doesn't stint on spices in her cooking. [=she uses a lot of spices] ▪ He can be stinting with praise. [=he tends not to praise people very often]

sti•pend /ˈstaɪˌpend/ noun, pl -pends [count] : a usually small amount of money that is paid regularly to someone ▪ He receives a small stipend for his work as a research fellow. ▪ a weekly stipend stip•ple /ˈstɪpəl/ verb stip•ples; stip•pled; stip•pling [+ obj] : to draw or paint small dots on (something) — usually used as (be) stippled ▪ The paper was stippled with paint.

– stippled adj ▪ a stippled background – stippling noun [noncount] ▪ The pages were decorated with stippling.

stip•u•late /ˈstɪpjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to demand or require (something) as part of an agreement ▪ The cease-fire was stipulated by the treaty. ▪ The rules stipulate that players must wear uniforms.

stip•u•la•tion /ˌstɪpjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : something that is required as part of an agreement [count] contract stipulations ▪ We agreed to the deal with the stipulation that she pay the expenses herself. [noncount] stipulation of requirements

[1]stir /ˈstə/ verb stirs; stirred; stir•ring
1 [+ obj] : to mix (something) by making circular movements in it with a spoon or similar object ▪ She stirred her coffee. ▪ The cake batter must be stirred for 10 minutes. ▪ Stir one cup of sugar into the batter.
2 : to move or cause (someone or something) to move after being still [no obj] She heard him stir (in bed). [=heard him begin to move in bed as he woke up] ▪ He never stirred from the couch [=he stayed on the couch] all afternoon. [+ obj] She was stirred from her sleep by the noise. ▪ The breeze stirred the leaves on the tree.
3 a [no obj] : to be active or busy ▪ We could see people stirring inside the shop. ▪ "Not a creature was stirring" —Clement Moore, "A Visit from Saint Nicholas" (1822) b [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be active ▪ A good book can stir the imagination. ▪ He stirred himself to action. [=he began to take action]
4 [+ obj] : to cause (an emotion or reaction) ▪ The bad economic news has stirred anxiety among investors. [=has caused investors to worry] — usually + up ▪ The bad news has stirred up a lot of anxiety. ▪ The story stirred up some deep emotions within him.
stir up [phrasal verb] 1 stir up (someone) or stir (someone) up : to cause (someone) to feel a strong emotion and a desire to do something ▪ The speech stirred up the crowd. 2 stir (something) up or stir up (something) a : to cause (something) to move up into and through the air or water ▪ The workers stirred up a lot of dust. b : to cause (something, usually something bad or unpleasant) to happen ▪ They're trying to stir up trouble. ▪ stirring up racial hatred ▪ His comments certainly stirred things up. [=caused a lot of excitement, anger, etc.] — see also [1]STIR 4 (above)

[2]stir noun [singular]
1 : a state of excitement, anger, or surprise among a group of people ▪ His comments have caused quite a stir.
2 : a small movement ▪ the stir of the leaves in the breeze
3 : the act of stirring something with a spoon or similar object ▪ She gave the sauce a stir. [=she stirred the sauce]
4 chiefly US slang, old-fashioned : PRISON ▪ He spent five years in stir.

stir–cra•zy /ˈstəˈkreɪzi/ adj, not used before a noun : unhappy and upset because you have been in a place for a long time and want to get out ▪ I was going stir-crazy after being stuck in the house all week.

[1]stir–fry /ˈstəˌfraɪ/ noun, pl -fries [count, noncount] : a dish made of foods (such as meat or vegetables) that are fried quickly over high heat while being stirred constantly ▪ We had (a) chicken stir-fry for dinner last night.

[2]stir–fry /ˈstəˈfraɪ/ verb -fries; -fried; -fry•ing [+ obj] : to fry (something) quickly over high heat while stirring it constantly ▪ Stir-fry the pork for four minutes. ▪ stir-fried chicken stir•rer /ˈstərə/ noun, pl -rers [count]

1 : something that is used to stir liquids ▪ a coffee/paint stirrer
2 Brit, informal : a person who causes trouble

[1]stir•ring /ˈstərɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing strong feelings ▪ She gave a stirring [=moving] speech at the awards banquet. ▪ a stirring rendition of the national anthem

[2]stirring noun, pl -rings [count] : the beginning of a motion, activity, feeling, idea, etc. — + of ▪ We felt the first stirrings of hope when we heard the news.

stir•rup /ˈstərəp, Brit ˈstɪrəp/ noun, pl -rups [count] : one of two loops that are attached to a saddle for the rider's feet — see picture at HORSE

stirrup pants noun [plural] US : a pair of women's pants that have a strip of fabric on the bottom of each leg that goes underneath the foot

[1]stitch /ˈstɪʧ/ noun, pl stitch•es
1 [count] : a piece of thread that is passed through a piece of material with a needle ▪ the stitches on a baseball ▪ She pulled out the stitches. — see also CROSS-STITCH
2 [count] medical : a special piece of thread that is used to hold a large cut or wound closed ▪ His cut required six stitches. ▪ She gets her stitches removed tomorrow.
3 a [count] : a single loop of thread or yarn that is wrapped around a tool (such as a knitting needle) and is linked to oth-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 184 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

er loops to make fabric ▪ After knitting another row she realized she had dropped a stitch. [=let a loop fall off a knitting needle] b : a particular type or style of stitch used in sewing, knitting, crocheting, etc. [count] The book teaches a variety of stitches. [noncount] a scarf worked in knit/purl stitch 4 [count] : a sudden sharp pain in your side — usually singular ▪ I've got a stitch (in my side).
a stitch informal ✧ If you are not wearing a stitch, do not have a stitch on, etc., you are naked. ▪ She wasn't wearing a stitch (of clothes/clothing).
a stitch in time (saves nine) ✧ The phrase a stitch in time (saves nine) means that it is better to fix a problem when it is small than to wait and let it become a bigger problem.
in stitches informal : laughing very hard ▪ His jokes had us all in stitches.

[2]stitch verb stitches; stitched; stitch•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use a needle and thread to make or repair (something, such as a piece of clothing) : to join (something, such as a piece of fabric or a button) to something else with stitches : SEW ▪ He stitched a patch onto his coat.
2 : to make (something, such as a design) out of stitches ▪ Her initials were stitched on the pillowcase. ▪ He stitched a design along the border of the tablecloth.
stitch together [phrasal verb] stitch (something) together or stitch together (something) : to make (something) out of many different things ▪ I stitched together a novel from several stories I had written earlier.
stitch up [phrasal verb] 1 stitch (someone or something) up or stitch up (someone or something) : to use a needle and thread to close a large cut or wound on someone ▪ The doctor stitched him up. = The doctor stitched up his wound. 2 stitch (someone) up or stitch up (someone) Brit, informal : to make (an innocent person) appear to be guilty of a crime : FRAME ▪ They stitched him up for murder. 3 stitch (something) up or stitch up (something) Brit, informal : to do the final things that are needed to complete (something) in a successful way : to finish or do (something) successfully ▪ The mayor stitched up a deal with the union. ▪ We thought that we had the game stitched up. [=sewn up; we thought we were definitely going to win the game]
– stitch•er noun, pl -ers [count]

stitching noun [noncount] : a series of stitches or the type of stitches that are used in something ▪ He admired the stitching on the quilt.

stoat /ˈstoʊt/ noun, pl stoats [count] chiefly Brit : a small animal that has a long body and brown fur that turns white in winter; especially : this animal when its fur is brown — compare ERMINE

[1]stock /ˈstɑːk/ noun, pl stocks
1 : the supply of goods available for sale in a store [noncount] That camera is out of stock. ▪ Do you have any more light bulbs in stock? [singular] They carry a large/small stock of computer software.
2 : a supply of something that is available for use [count] We built up an ample stock of food before the storm. ▪ She always seems to have a fresh stock of funny jokes. [noncount] There was a decrease in available housing stock [=houses and apartment buildings] last year.
3 : a share of the value of a company which can be bought, sold, or traded as an investment [count] The value of his stocks has soared. ▪ Most of her money is invested in stocks. [noncount] Do you own any stock? — often used before another noun ▪ stock prices ▪ a stock certificate
4 [count] : the part of a gun that is held against your shoulder ▪ the stock of a rifle — see picture at GUN
5 [noncount] : the country or group of people that a person comes from ▪ He is of Irish stock. [=his family comes originally from Ireland]
6 [noncount] : farm animals (such as cattle) from which meat, wool and other products are obtained : LIVESTOCK
7 [noncount] : liquid in which meat, fish, or vegetables have been cooked and then removed and which is used to make soups, sauces, etc. ▪ The recipe calls for one cup of chicken/beef stock.
8 [noncount] US : confidence or faith in someone or something ▪ He placed/put a lot of stock in her ability to get the job done. [=he had a lot of trust in her ability to get the job done] ▪ I don't put much stock in the rumors. [=I don't think the rumors are believable; I doubt the rumors]
9 [noncount] — used to describe how popular or unpopular someone or something is at a particular time ▪ The mayor's stock with voters is high/low right now. [=the mayor is popular/unpopular with voters right now]
10 stocks [plural] : a wooden frame with holes in it for a person's feet, hands, or head that was used in the past as a form of punishment ▪ He was sent to the stocks.
lock, stock, and barrel see [1]LOCK take stock : to carefully think about something in order to make a decision about what to do next ▪ We need to take stock and formulate a plan. — often + of ▪ We should take stock of our finances.

[2]stock verb stocks; stocked; stock•ing [+ obj]
1 : to have a supply of (something) in a store for sale ▪ Our store stocks only the finest goods. ▪ Do you stock this item?
2 : to fill (something, such as a room or a building) with a supply of food, drinks, etc. ▪ The bar is stocked with beer, wine and liquor. ▪ a well-stocked kitchen ▪ They stocked the shelves in the store with a variety of imported foods.
stock up [phrasal verb] : to get a large quantity of something so that you will have it for later use ▪ I need to head to the store to stock up. — often + on ▪ We made sure to stock up on food before the storm hit.

[3]stock adj, always used before a noun
1 a : regularly used or included with something : STANDARD ▪ Here are the stock patterns you can choose from. b : commonly used and not original or interesting ▪ She gave a stock answer to the reporter's question. ▪ a dull narrative with stock characters
2 : usually available for sale in a store ▪ That item is a stock model. ▪ stock sizes stock•ade /stɑːˈkeɪd/ noun, pl -ades [count] : a line of tall posts that are set in the ground and used as a barrier to protect or defend a place ▪ a fort stockade

stock•bro•ker /ˈstɑːkˌbroʊkɚ/ noun, pl -kers [count] : someone whose job is to buy and sell shares of stock for other people stock car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : a car used for racing that has the same basic structure as a car normally sold to the public but has a more powerful engine, a stronger frame, etc. — often used before another noun ▪ stock car racing stock company noun, pl ~ -nies [count] US

1 : a company whose ownership is divided into shares that can be bought and sold
2 : a theater group made up of actors who perform together stock cube noun, pl ~ cubes [count] Brit : BOUILLON CUBE stock•er /ˈstɑːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person whose job is to put products on a store's shelves, in a store's cases, etc. ▪ He works as a produce stocker at the grocery store.

stock exchange noun, pl ~ -changes [count] : a system or place where shares of various companies are bought and sold ▪ domestic and international stock exchanges ▪ Shares of the company were trading at $20 on the New York Stock Exchange. ▪ He works as a stockbroker on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange.

stock•hold•er /ˈstɑːkˌhoʊldɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : someone who owns stock in a company : SHAREHOLDER

stock•ing /ˈstɑːkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]
1 : a close-fitting usually long covering for the foot and leg ▪ a pair of wool stockings
2 : a covering for the foot and ankle : SOCK
3 : a decorative pouch shaped like a large sock that is used for holding gifts at Christmas ▪ The children hung their (Christmas) stockings on the mantel.
in your stockinged/stocking feet : wearing socks but not shoes ▪ Don't go outside in your stocking feet!

stocking cap noun, pl ~ caps [count] US : a knitted close-fitting cap that sometimes has a decorative part (called a tassel or pom-pom) at the top stocking stuffer noun, pl ~ -fers [count] US : a small gift that is usually placed in a Christmas stocking ▪ Small toys make great stocking stuffers. — called also (Brit) stocking filler stock–in–trade /ˌstɑːkənˈtreɪd/ noun [noncount] : something that someone or something does or makes very well and often ▪ Ballads were her stock-in-trade. ▪ Sitcoms are the stock-in-trade of the major networks.

stock•ist /ˈstɑːkɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] Brit : a person or store that sells a particular kind of product ▪ a stockist of medical supplies stockman /ˈstɑːkmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person who raises cattle, sheep, etc.

stock market noun, pl ~ -kets

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 185 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

1 [noncount] : the business or activity of buying and selling stocks ▪ We lost money in the stock market. ▪ He made a lot of money playing the stock market. [=buying and selling stocks]
2 [count] : a system for buying and selling stocks or a place where stocks are bought and sold ▪ International stock markets saw declines at the end of the trading day. ▪ The stock market [=the total value of stocks traded on the stock market] dropped 15 points today.

stock option noun, pl ~ -tions [count] US : a right that is given by a company to an employee that lets the employee purchase stock in the company usually for a price that is lower than the normal price — usually plural ▪ He decided to exercise his stock options. [=he decided to buy stock in the company that he works for] — called also (Brit) share option

[1]stock•pile /ˈstɑːkˌpajəl/ noun, pl -piles [count] : a large supply of something that is kept for future use ▪ a stockpile of ammunition/weapons ▪ a stockpile of medical supplies

[2]stockpile verb -piles; -piled; -pil•ing [+ obj] : to get and keep a large supply of (something) for future use ▪ The government stockpiled vaccines to prepare for a flu epidemic.

stock•pot /ˈstɑːkˌpɑːt/ noun, pl -pots [count] : a large pot for making stock, soups, stews, etc.

stock•room /ˈstɑːkˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a storage area for the supplies and goods that are used or sold in a business stock–still /ˈstɑːkˈstɪl/ adj, not used before a noun : very still : not moving at all ▪ He stood/stayed stock-still.

stock•tak•ing /ˈstɑːkˈteɪkɪŋ/ noun
1 chiefly Brit : the activity or process of thinking about a problem or situation in order to decide what to do [noncount] It is time for some stocktaking. [=it's time to take stock of the situation] [singular] It is time for a stocktaking.
2 [noncount] Brit : the act or process of making a complete list of the items or things that are in a place : INVENTORY stocky /ˈstɑːki/ adj stock•i•er; -est : short and heavy or broad ▪ a short, stocky man ▪ That outfit makes you look stocky.

– stock•i•ly /ˈstɑːkəli/ adv ▪ He is stockily built.

stock•yard /ˈstɑːkˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] chiefly US : an enclosed area where farms animals (such as cattle) are kept so they can be slaughtered, sold, or shipped stodge /ˈstɑːʤ/ noun [noncount] Brit : heavy food that makes you feel very full ▪ We filled up on stodge at the banquet.

stodgy /ˈstɑːʤi/ adj stodg•i•er; -est disapproving
1 a : having very old-fashioned opinions, attitudes, etc. ▪ a stodgy old man b : too plain or dull to be interesting ▪ stodgy clothes
2 Brit, of food : unpleasantly heavy and causing you to feel very full ▪ a stodgy meal – stodg•i•ness /ˈstɑːʤinəs/ noun [noncount]

sto•gie or sto•gy /ˈstoʊgi/ noun, pl sto•gies [count] US, informal : CIGAR ▪ He was smoking a stogie.

[1]sto•ic /ˈstowɪk/ or sto•i•cal /ˈstowɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing no emotion especially when something bad is happening ▪ She remained stoic [=she did not complain or become upset] even as he continued to insult her. ▪ He had a stoic expression on his face.
– sto•ical•ly /ˈstowɪkli/ adv ▪ He accepted the punishment stoically.

[2]stoic noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who accepts what happens without complaining or showing emotion sto•i•cism /ˈstowəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the quality or behavior of a person who accepts what happens without complaining or showing emotion ▪ She endured his criticism with her usual stoicism.

stoke /ˈstoʊk/ verb stokes; stoked; stok•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stir or add fuel to (something that is burning) ▪ stoke a fire ▪ The engineer stoked the coals. ▪ He stoked the furnace. [=he added more fuel to the furnace to make the fire hotter] ▪ stoke the flames
2 : to increase the amount or strength of (something) ▪ The new ad campaign has helped to stoke sales. ▪ Poor revenue figures have stoked concerns about possible layoffs.
– stok•er /ˈstoʊkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit ▪ He worked as a coal stoker for the railroad.

stoked adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] US slang : very excited ▪ He was stoked to see her.

[1]stole past tense of [1]STEAL

[2]stole /ˈstoʊl/ noun, pl stoles [count] : a long, wide piece of clothing that is usually worn across the shoulders ▪ a mink stole

stolen past participle of [1]STEAL

stol•id /ˈstɑːləd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing little or no emotion : not easily excited or upset ▪ She remained stolid during the trial. ▪ a stolid face – stol•id•ly adv ▪ The guard stood stolidly at his post.

[1]stom•ach /ˈstʌmək/ noun, pl -achs
1 [count] a : the organ in your body where food goes and begins to be digested after you swallow it ▪ She has problems with her stomach. ▪ I've had enough to eat. My stomach is full. ▪ His stomach was growling. — often used before another noun ▪ a stomach ulcer ▪ stomach gas — see picture at HUMAN b : the part of your body that contains the stomach ▪ She punched him in the stomach. [=belly] ▪ He was lying on his stomach.
2 [noncount] : the desire, courage, etc., that is needed to do or accept something difficult or unpleasant — usually used in negative statements ▪ She didn't have the stomach to confront him. ▪ He has no stomach for controversy.
a strong/weak stomach ✧ If you have a strong stomach, you are not bothered by things that many people find disgusting, shocking, or offensive. ▪ You need a strong stomach to watch that movie. If you have a weak stomach, you are easily bothered by disgusting, shocking, or offensive things. ▪ It's a very violent movie. Don't watch it if you have a weak stomach.
on a full stomach : after eating a lot of food ▪ Don't try to go swimming on a full stomach.
on an empty stomach : with nothing in your stomach ▪ Take this medication on an empty stomach. [=when your stomach is empty because you have not eaten for a time] sick to your stomach see [1]SICK turn your stomach ✧ Something that turns your stomach or makes your stomach turn makes you feel ill or uncomfortable usually because it is offensive or disgusting. ▪ The violence in his movies really turns my stomach.
your eyes are bigger than your stomach see [1]EYE

[2]stomach verb stom•achs; stom•ached; stom•ach•ing [+ obj]
1 : to accept or experience (something unpleasant) without becoming sick, upset, etc. ▪ I could barely stomach the smell. ▪ His behavior is very hard to stomach [=tolerate] sometimes.
2 : to eat (something) without getting a sick or unpleasant feeling in your stomach ▪ I can't stomach raw onions.

stom•ach•ache /ˈstʌməkˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : pain in or near your stomach [count] Eating too much food will give you a stomachache. [noncount] Side effects include gas, bloating, and stomachache.

stomp /ˈstɑːmp/ verb stomps; stomped; stomp•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to walk or move with very heavy or noisy steps ▪ He stomped angrily out of the room. ▪ She stomped [=stamped] around the yard in her muddy boots.
2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to put (your foot) down forcefully and noisily ▪ He angrily stomped [=stamped] his foot. ▪ The fans were stomping their feet and shouting.
stomp on [phrasal verb] stomp on (someone or something) : to step on (something or someone) very forcefully ▪ He stomped on the bug. ▪ The elephant almost stomped on them. ▪ I stomped on the brakes.
stomp out [phrasal verb] stomp out (something) 1 : to stop or destroy (something bad) ▪ They are determined to stomp out [=stamp out] corruption. 2 : to stop (something) from burning by stepping on it forcefully with your feet ▪ She stomped out her cigarette.

stomp•er /ˈstɑːmpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a piece of music that is very lively and makes you want to dance ▪ a jazzy stomper

stomping ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count] US : a place where someone likes to go or often goes ▪ The mall was their stomping ground. — usually plural ▪ We enjoyed going back home and visiting our old stomping grounds. — called also (Brit) stamping ground

[1]stone /ˈstoʊn/ noun, pl stones
1 [noncount] : a hard substance that comes from the ground and is used for building, carving, etc. ▪ The pedestal is made of stone. — often used before another noun ▪ stone buildings ▪ a stone wall
2 [count] a : a small piece of rock ▪ We threw stones [=(US) rocks] at the sign. b : a piece of rock used for a particular

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 186 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

purpose ▪ His birthdate and date of death were carved on the stone. — see also HEADSTONE
3 [count] : a jewel ▪ precious stones [=gemstones]
4 [count] : a small, hard object that sometimes forms in a part of the body (such as the kidney) ▪ She had stones in her bladder. — see also GALLSTONE, KIDNEY STONE
5 [count] chiefly Brit : a large, hard seed found in the center of some fruits (such as plums and peaches) : PIT
6 pl stone [count] Brit : a British unit of weight equal to 14 pounds (6.35 kilograms) ▪ He weighs 12 stone. — abbr. st
a stone's throw : a short distance ▪ The high school is just a stone's throw from his house. ▪ She lives just a stone's throw away from the beach.
carved/etched/set/written in stone : permanent or not able to be changed ▪ These new rules are not carved in stone; if they don't work, we'll change them.
kill two birds with one stone see [1]KILL leave no stone unturned : to make every possible effort to find someone or something ▪ Their lawyer said that he would leave no stone unturned in trying to find more evidence. ▪ The researchers left no stone unturned in their search for the original documents.
sink like a stone see [1]SINK

[2]stone verb stones; stoned; ston•ing [+ obj]
1 : to throw stones at (someone or something) ▪ Rioters stoned the building.
2 : to kill (someone) by throwing stones ▪ He was stoned to death for his crimes.
3 Brit : to remove the hard, large seed of (a fruit) : PIT ▪ Stone the peaches before serving.
stone the crows Brit, informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used to express surprise ▪ "He's won the lottery!" "Well, stone the crows!"

[3]stone adv : totally or completely ▪ (US) They sat there, stone silent. ▪ The soup was stone cold. ▪ He was stone broke. [=he had no money at all] ▪ stone dead — sometimes used in combination ▪ I thought I had gone stone-deaf. — see also STONE-COLD

Stone Age noun
the Stone Age : the oldest period in which human beings are known to have existed : the age during which humans made and used stone tools ▪ It was a skill developed during the Stone Age. ▪ Stone Age weapons — often used figuratively ▪ His political ideas are from the Stone Age. [=are from the distant past; are very out of date] ▪ I'm still using a Stone Age computer. [=an outdated/obsolete computer] — compare BRONZE AGE, IRON AGE stone–cold /ˈstoʊnˈkoʊld/ adv, chiefly US, informal : completely or totally ▪ He's stone-cold sober.

stone•cut•ter /ˈstoʊnˌkʌtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] US : a person who cuts or carves stone stoned /ˈstoʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : intoxicated by a drug (such as marijuana) ▪ He was stoned on pot. ▪ They got stoned at the party.

stone–faced /ˈstoʊnˌfeɪst/ also stony–faced /ˈstoʊniˌfeɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing no emotion ▪ He stood there stone-faced while the verdict was announced. ▪ a stone-faced judge stone–ground /ˈstoʊnˈgraʊnd/ adj : ground by being crushed between two large stones (called millstones) ▪ stone-ground flour

stone•ma•son /ˈstoʊnˌmeɪsn/ noun, pl -sons [count] : a person who cuts, prepares, and builds with stone

ston•er /ˈstoʊnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : a person who uses drugs frequently : a person who is often stoned on drugs (such as marijuana) ▪ The movie's a comedy about a couple of stoners. — often used before another noun ▪ a stoner comedy stone•wall /ˈstoʊnˌwɑːl/ verb -walls; -walled; -wall•ing : to refuse or fail to answer questions, to do what has been requested, etc., especially in order to delay or prevent something [no obj] They stonewalled until they could come up with a response. ▪ They were just stonewalling for time. [+ obj] (chiefly US) ▪ They're trying to stonewall the media/investigation. ▪ We're trying to get the information, but we're being stonewalled.

stone•ware /ˈstoʊnˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] : objects made of a special baked clay — often used before another noun ▪ a set of stoneware dishes stone•washed /ˈstoʊnˌwɑːʃt/ adj — used to describe clothes (such as jeans) that are made lighter in color and softer by being washed with small stones ▪ She was wearing stonewashed jeans, a sweater, and cowboy boots.

stone•work /ˈstoʊnˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : a structure or part of a structure that is built of stone ▪ The stonework on this house is over 100 years old.
– stone•work•er /ˈstoʊnˌwɚkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]stonk•ing /ˈstɑːŋkɪŋ/ adj, Brit slang
1 : very large ▪ We spent a stonking sum on the tickets. ▪ stonking amounts of money
2 : very good ▪ We had a stonking time.

[2]stonking adv, Brit slang : very or extremely ▪ a stonking good book ▪ a stonking great victory stony /ˈstoʊni/ adj ston•i•er; -est

1 : full of stones ▪ stony [=rocky] soil ▪ a stony beach
2 : made of stone or hard like stone ▪ a smooth, stony surface ▪ a stony material
3 : showing no emotion or friendliness ▪ She gave him a stony stare. ▪ stony silence
– ston•i•ly /ˈstoʊnəli/ adv ▪ He remained stonily silent.

stood past tense and past participle of [1]STAND stooge /ˈstuːʤ/ noun, pl stoog•es [count]

1 disapproving : a weak or unimportant person who is controlled by a powerful person, organization, etc. ▪ a gangster and his stooges ▪ He's just a stooge for the oil industry. ▪ a government stooge
2 : a performer in a show who says and does foolish things that other performers make jokes about

stool /ˈstuːl/ noun, pl stools [count]
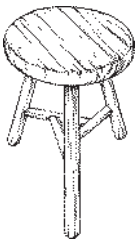
1 a : a seat that fits one person and that has no back or arms ▪ She sat on a stool. ▪ a bar stool ▪ a piano stool b : a piece of furniture that supports the feet of a person who is sitting : FOOTSTOOL
2 medical : a piece of solid waste that is released from the body ▪ The patient had bloody/loose/hard stools. ▪ a stool sample ▪ stool softener [=a medicine that makes it easier to discharge bodily waste]



stool

stool•ie /ˈstuːli/ noun, pl -ies [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : STOOL PIGEON

stool pigeon noun, pl ~ -geons [count] chiefly US, informal : a criminal who gives the police information about other criminals

[1]stoop /ˈstuːp/ verb stoops; stooped; stoop•ing [no obj]
1 : to bend down or over ▪ She stooped down to hug the child. ▪ He had to stoop to pick it up.
2 : to walk or stand with your head and shoulders bent forward ▪ He tends to stoop as he walks.
3 : to do something that is not honest, fair, etc. ▪ She would never stoop to lying. [=she would never lie; she is too good a person to lie] ▪ He really did that? I didn't think he could stoop so low.
stoop to someone's level see [1]LEVEL

[2]stoop noun [singular] : a bend or curve forward of your back and shoulders ▪ He walks with a slight stoop. — compare [3]STOOP – stooped adj ▪ His shoulders are stooped. [=his shoulders are bent forward]

[3]stoop noun, pl stoops [count] US : a raised area (such as a porch, platform, or stairway) at the entrance to a house or building ▪ I found a package on the (front/back) stoop. — compare [2]STOOP

[1]stop /ˈstɑːp/ verb stops; stopped; stop•ping
1 a [no obj] : to not move, walk, etc., after doing so before ▪ She was walking toward me, and then she suddenly stopped. ▪ The bus stopped at the corner. ▪ He stopped to watch the sun set. ▪ She had to stop to catch her breath. = She had to stop and catch her breath. ▪ He stopped to pick up a penny. ▪ The car was going so fast that it couldn't stop in time. ▪ The traffic light turned red, so she had to stop. ▪ Stop. [=halt] Who goes there? ▪ I stopped (dead) in my tracks [=stopped suddenly] when I saw the bear. b [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to not move, walk, etc., after doing so before ▪ Stop that man! He stole my wallet. ▪ They stopped us at the border to check our passports. ▪ She stopped the car and turned back. ▪ He was stopped by the police for speeding. ▪ The goalie stopped [=blocked] the ball/shot. ▪ The sight of the bear stopped me (dead) in my tracks.
2 a : to not do something that you have been doing before : to not continue doing something [no obj] He constantly teases her and never knows when to stop. ▪ We've been working all morning. It's time to stop and take a break. ▪ The boss said that he was unhappy with some of his employees, but he stopped short of naming which ones. [=but he did not say which ones] ▪ Did you ever stop [=pause] to think about the risk you took? ▪ She never stopped to consider how her decision might affect others. [+ obj] Can you please stop what you are doing to help me? ▪ I stop work at 5 o'clock. ▪ The phone stopped ringing. ▪ Stop arguing/talking/running. ▪ She stopped [=quit] smoking last year. ▪ The patient suddenly stopped breathing. ▪ His heart stopped beating. ▪ Stop it/that or I'll tell Mom. b [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) no longer do something : to keep (someone or something) from continuing to do something ▪ I'm leaving and you can't stop me. ▪ Stop me if you've heard this joke before. ▪ It's too late. There's no stopping them now. [=they can't be stopped now] ▪ (Brit) I couldn't stop him crying. — often + from in U.S. English ▪ I couldn't stop him from crying. ▪ He stopped [=restrained] himself from laughing out loud. ▪ Nothing can stop me from leaving. ▪ Environmentalists tried to stop them from cutting down the trees. ▪ There is nothing to stop you from going. ▪ We need to stop the disease from spreading.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 187 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

3 [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to end : to end (something) ▪ The teacher stopped the fight. ▪ We need to stop the violence in our city. ▪ They tried to stop the bleeding. b : to cause (a recording) to not play ▪ She stopped the CD because it was skipping. ▪ We stopped [=paused] the movie to grab some snacks.

4 [no obj] : to no longer happen or exist : to end ▪ The music suddenly stopped. ▪ The path stops about halfway up the mountain. ▪ The rain had stopped by the time we left. [=it was not raining anymore when we left]

5 [no obj] : to suddenly not work or function ▪ The engine just stopped. ▪ His heart stopped.

6 [no obj] a : to not travel during a journey for a short period of time in order to rest, eat, etc. — + for ▪ We stopped for lunch. ▪ We need to stop for gas. [=we need to get gas] ▪ We stopped for a night in Atlanta. [=we stayed in Atlanta for a night] b : to go to a place during a journey ▪ I'll stop for a short visit. ▪ The tour stops in several cities. c : to make a brief social visit ▪ I'm not stopping. [=staying] I just wanted to drop this off. — see also STOP BY, STOP IN, STOP OFF, STOP OVER (below)

7 [+ obj] : to close, block, or fill (a hole) ▪ He stopped his ears with his fingers. [=he put his fingertips in his ears so that he couldn't hear] — usually + up ▪ She stopped up the cracks with plaster. ▪ The sink is stopped up [=blocked] with food.

8 [+ obj] a : to tell your bank not to pay a check ▪ I called to stop payment on the check. = I called to stop the check. b chiefly Brit : to take (money) from something — often + from ▪ £200 will be stopped [=withheld] from your wages next week.

9 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] Brit, informal : to stay or remain ▪ I am stopping at home. — see also STOP IN, STOP OUT, STOP UP (below)

stop and smell the roses see ²ROSE

stop at nothing — used to say that someone will do anything to achieve a goal or purpose ▪ She will stop at nothing to get what she wants.

stop by [phrasal verb] informal : to visit someone briefly ▪ Feel free to stop by [=drop by, drop in] anytime. ▪ I'll stop by for a short visit.

stop in [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to visit someone briefly ▪ You should stop in [=stop by] for tea sometime. 2 Brit : to stay at home ▪ I'm stopping [=staying] in tonight.

stop off [phrasal verb] informal : to go or stay somewhere briefly while traveling to another place ▪ I'll stop off (at the store) to pick up some milk. ▪ She is stopping off in Miami to visit a friend. ▪ Could you stop off at the house to water the plants?

stop out [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to stay out at night ▪ He doesn't normally stop out late.

stop over [phrasal verb] informal : to go to or stay in a place while traveling to another place ▪ The plane stops over in Chicago before going on to Seattle. ▪ She stopped over at a friend's house for a couple of days.

stop up [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to stay up at night ▪ She stopped up late last night. — see also ¹STOP 7 (above)

the buck stops here see ¹BUCK

²stop noun, pl stops [count]

1 : an act of stopping or a state of being stopped: such as a : a state in which someone or something is no longer moving — usually singular ▪ The car skidded/slowed to a stop. [=to a halt] ▪ The ball rolled to a stop. ▪ The train came to a stop. ▪ He slowly brought the car to a stop. — see also FULL STOP b : a state in which no further activity happens — usually singular ▪ Production was brought to a stop [=was stopped] by the strike. ▪ Negotiations brought a stop to [=ended] the conflict. ▪ Work on the project came to a stop [=work on the project stopped] because of a lack of funding. ▪ The fighting came to a sudden stop. ▪ We need to put a stop to [=end] these practices. ▪ She wanted to put a stop to the rumors. c sports : a play that stops an opponent from scoring a goal ▪ The goalie made a great stop. [=save]

2 a : a place that you visit or go to for a short period of time during a journey ▪ His first stop will be Washington, D.C. ▪ Our first stop has to be the gas station. — see also PIT STOP, REST STOP, TRUCK STOP, WHISTLE-STOP b : a short period of time during which you stop or stay at a place during a journey ▪ The trip includes an overnight stop [=stay] in Paris. ▪ We'll make a stop [=stop, rest] when we get to the top of this hill. ▪ We should make a stop at the museum. [=we should visit the museum] ▪ I need to make a stop at the grocery store on the way home.

3 a : the place where a bus or train regularly stops on a route to let passengers get on and off ▪ a bus stop ▪ The next stop is Main Street and Tower Square. ▪ I'm getting off at the next stop. ▪ What is your stop? b US : a place on a road (such as an intersection) where traffic must stop ▪ a four-way stop ▪ Slow down as you approach the stop. ▪ a stop sign [=a sign telling drivers to stop and wait until they can continue safely] — see also STOPLIGHT

4 : an order that tells a bank not to pay a check — usually singular ▪ I put a stop on the check.

5 music a : a set of organ pipes that produce a similar sound b : STOP KNOB

6 linguistics : a sound (such as the "p" of "apt" or the "g" of "tiger") that is made by stopping the flow of air completely and then suddenly letting air out — see also GLOTTAL STOP pull out all the stops informal : to do everything possible in order to do or achieve something ▪ The company pulled out all the stops to advertise their new product. = The company pulled out all the stops in advertising their new product. ▪ When he throws a party, he really pulls out all the stops.

– see also DOORSTOP, SHORTSTOP

stop–action /ˈstɑːpˈækʃən/ noun [noncount] : STOP-MOTION stop–and–go /ˌstɑːpənˈgoʊ/ adj, chiefly US : making or having many stops : stopping and starting again and again ▪ stop-and-go driving/traffic ▪ It was stop-and-go on the highway.

stop•cock /ˈstɑːpˌkɑːk/ noun, pl -cocks [count] : a device used for controlling or stopping the flow of a liquid or gas through a pipe stop•gap /ˈstɑːpˌgæp/ noun, pl -gaps [count] : someone or something that is intended to be used for a short time and then replaced by someone or something better : a temporary substitute ▪ The new law is intended only as a stopgap. — often used before another noun ▪ a stopgap solution stop–go adj, Brit : having inactive periods followed by active periods ▪ a stop-go economy/policy stop knob noun, pl ~ knobs [count] music : any one of the handles that an organ player pushes in or pulls out to stop or allow sound from certain pipes stop•light /ˈstɑːpˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] US : TRAFFIC LIGHT stop–mo•tion /ˈstɑːpˈmoʊʃən/ noun [noncount] : a filming technique in which objects (such as clay models) are photographed in a series of slightly different positions so that the objects seem to move ▪ The show was filmed with stop-motion. — often used before another noun ▪ stop-motion films/animation stop•over /ˈstɑːpˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count] : a brief period of time when you stop at a place during a journey ▪ We have a six-hour stopover [=layover] in Puerto Rico.; also : a place where a stopover occurs ▪ The city is a favorite stopover for tourists.

stop•page /ˈstɑːpɪʤ/ noun, pl -pag•es [count]

1 : the act of stopping something ▪ the stoppage of payments

2 : a situation in which workers stop working for a period of time as a protest ▪ Workers threatened a stoppage [=strike] if their wages were not increased. ▪ work stoppages

3 sports : an occurrence in which play is stopped during a game ▪ The penalty caused a stoppage in play. ▪ There have been more than 10 minutes in stoppages. ▪ 10 minutes of stoppage time

¹stop•per /ˈstɑːpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 188 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : someone or something that stops something ▪ crime stoppers ▪ His comment was a conversation stopper. — see also SHOWSTOPPER

2 : something that is used to block an opening ▪ a plastic bottle stopper ▪ a wine stopper

[2]stopper verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] : to close (something) with a stopper ▪ Please stopper the bottle. ▪ a stoppered bottle stopping distance noun, pl ∼ -tances [count, noncount] : the distance that a driver needs in order to safely bring a vehicle to a complete stop stop•watch /ˈstɑːpˌwɑːʧ/ noun, pl -watch•es [count] : a watch that can be started and stopped very quickly and that is used for measuring the amount of time that is taken to do something (such as to run a race)

stor•age /ˈstorɪʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 a : space where you put things when they are not being used ▪ The house has plenty of storage. [=the house has plenty of space in its closets, cabinets, etc.] ▪ Her new house is much smaller, so she had to rent additional storage. b : the state of being kept in a place when not being used : the state of being stored somewhere ▪ We need to get our furniture out of storage. ▪ He kept his belongings in storage [=he stored his belongings] until he found an apartment. c : the act of putting something that is not being used in a place where it is available, where it can be kept safely, etc. : the act of storing something ▪ the body's storage of fat ▪ the storage of nuclear waste ▪ The table folds down for storage. [=when you want to store it; when you are not using it] ▪ The cellar is used for (food/wine) storage.

2 computers a : space for placing information ▪ a computer with 64 megabytes of storage [=memory] ▪ disk storage b : the act of placing information in a computer memory ▪ data storage

– storage adj, always used before a noun ▪ There is plenty of storage space in the attic. ▪ a storage room/area ▪ a rental/rented storage unit ▪ storage costs ▪ a storage capacity of 64 megabytes ▪ an internal/external storage device storage battery noun, pl ∼ -teries [count] : a type of battery that can be given a new charge by passing an electric current through it — called also storage cell

[1]store /ˈstoə/ verb stores; stored; stor•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to put (something that is not being used) in a place where it is available, where it can be kept safely, etc. ▪ I stored my furniture until I found a new apartment. ▪ She stores her jewels in a safe. ▪ The wine should be stored at room temperature. — often + away ▪ The grain was stored away for the winter. ▪ We stored away her old toys in the attic. b : to collect and put (something) into one location for future use ▪ The body stores fat. ▪ The solar panels store energy. — often + up ▪ The squirrels are storing up nuts for the winter. ▪ Plants store up the sun's energy. ▪ (Brit) If you get yourself into debt, you're only storing up trouble/problems for the future.

2 : to place (information) in a person's memory or a computer's memory ▪ They're studying how our brains store memories. — often + away ▪ He stored away his childhood memories. ▪ The file is stored away on the backup drive.

[2]store noun, pl stores

1 [count] a : a building or room where things are sold ▪ a grocery/furniture/pet/candy store ▪ I'm going to the store to buy groceries. ▪ The stores are always crowded around the holiday season. — see also BOOKSTORE, CHAIN STORE, CONVENIENCE STORE, DEPARTMENT STORE, DIME STORE, DRUGSTORE, GENERAL STORE, PACKAGE STORE, SUPERSTORE, VARIETY STORE usage see [1]SHOP 1a b : a large building in which something is kept for future use ▪ a grain/weapons store

2 [count] : a large amount or supply of something that is kept for future use ▪ the body's fat stores — often + of ▪ a store of wood/information

3 stores [plural] : things that are collected and kept for future use ▪ medical/military stores

4 [noncount] — used to say that something is regarded as having a lot of value or importance ▪ Our family sets/lays great store by tradition. [=our family values tradition very highly] ▪ He puts considerable store in/by her opinions. [=he feels her opinions are very important and valuable] in store : in a state of being ready or prepared to happen or be done ▪ We have a big surprise in store [=ready, prepared] for you. — used to talk about what will happen to someone in the future ▪ I wonder what the future holds in store for us. = I wonder what lies in store for us in the future. [=I wonder what will happen to us in the future]

mind the store see [2]MIND

store–bought /ˈstoəˌbɑːt/ adj, US : bought at a store or shop and not made at home ▪ store-bought cookies store brand noun, pl ∼ brands [count] : a product that is made for a store and has the store's name on it — compare NAME BRAND

– store–brand adj, always used before a noun ▪ store-brand products store card noun, pl ∼ cards [count] : a credit card that is given out by a store and that can be used to buy goods at that store

store•front /ˈstoəˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] US

1 : the front side of a store ▪ The storefront [=shop front] was decorated for the holidays.

2 : a room or group of rooms in the front part of a store building ▪ He rented a storefront on Main Street.

– storefront adj, always used before a noun ▪ a storefront window/office store•house /ˈstoəˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count]

1 : a building where goods are kept for future use : WAREHOUSE

2 : a large amount or supply of something ▪ a storehouse of information/knowledge/ideas store•keep•er /ˈstoəˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : someone who owns or manages a store or shop : SHOPKEEPER store•room /ˈstoəˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room or space where things are stored store•wide /ˈstoəˈwaɪd/ adj, US : including all or most of the things that are being sold in a store ▪ a storewide sale/clearance storey chiefly Brit spelling of [2]STORY

[1]sto•ried /ˈstorɪd/ adj, always used before a noun : having an interesting history ▪ a storied castle/player/leader : interesting because of stories that relate to it ▪ She has a storied past/career. — compare [2]STORIED

[2]storied (US) or Brit sto•reyed /ˈstorɪd/ adj : having a specified number of stories — used in combination ▪ a two-storied house ▪ a 50-storied building — compare [1]STORIED

stork /ˈstoək/ noun, pl storks [count] : a large bird that has long legs and a long bill and neck

[1]storm /ˈstoəm/ noun, pl storms [count]

1 : an occurrence of bad weather in which there is a lot of rain, snow, etc., and often strong winds ▪ The sky got dark and it looked like a storm was coming. ▪ A storm was brewing. ▪ We made it home before the storm struck/broke. [=before the storm began] ▪ I went out for a walk and got caught in a storm. [=I was outside when the storm began] — see also DUST STORM, ELECTRICAL STORM, ELECTRIC STORM, FIRESTORM, HAILSTORM, ICE STORM, RAINSTORM, SANDSTORM, SNOWSTORM, THUNDERSTORM, TROPICAL STORM, WINDSTORM

2 a : a sudden occurrence of something in large amounts — usually singular; often + of ▪ a storm of publicity ▪ The speaker was greeted with a storm of applause. ▪ a storm of punches — see also BRAINSTORM b : a situation in which many people are angry, upset, etc. — usually singular ▪ His racial comments kicked/whipped/stirred up a storm in the newspapers. [=newspapers criticized his racial comments very strongly] — often + of ▪ a storm of controversy/protest

any port in a storm see [1]PORT

a storm in a teacup Brit : a situation in which people are very angry or upset about something that is not important ▪ The whole controversy turned out to be a storm in a teacup. [=(US) a tempest in a teapot] take (something) by storm 1 : to quickly become very successful or popular in (a particular place) or among (a particular group) ▪ The writer has taken the literary world by storm. ▪ The new fashion has taken London by storm. 2 : to attack and capture (a place) suddenly by using a lot of force or a large number of people ▪ The soldiers took the castle by storm.

the calm/lull before the storm : a period of quiet that comes before a time of activity, excitement, violence, etc. ▪ The college was quiet that morning, but it was the calm before the storm. Thousands of students would arrive later.

up a storm informal — used to say that something is being done with a lot of energy or enthusiasm ▪ They danced/sang up a storm. ▪ He was cooking up a storm.

weather the storm or ride out the storm : to deal with a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 189 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

difficult situation without being harmed or damaged too much ▪ Newspapers have weathered the storm of online information by providing news online themselves. ▪ It was a difficult time but they managed to ride out the storm.

[2]storm verb storms; stormed; storm•ing

1 [no obj] — used with it to say that a storm (sense 1) is happening ▪ It stormed all night.

2 : to attack (something) suddenly with a lot of force or with a large number of people [+ obj] Soldiers stormed the fort. ▪ Police stormed the building. [no obj] The army stormed ashore.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go quickly and in an angry, loud way ▪ The mob stormed through the streets. ▪ She yelled at us and stormed off. ▪ He stormed out of the room. ▪ She stormed into the office.

4 : to shout loudly and angrily [no obj] — often + at ▪ She stormed at her parents and ran to her room. [+ obj] "Do you know who I am?" he stormed.

storm cloud noun, pl ~ clouds [count] : a dark cloud which shows that a storm is coming — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Economic storm clouds loom on the horizon.

storm door noun, pl ~ doors [count] US : a second door that is placed outside the usual outside door of a building for protection against cold and bad weather storm drain noun, pl ~ drains [count] : a drain that carries water (such as rainwater) away from a street, parking lot, etc.

storm trooper noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a member of a group of specially trained and violent soldiers especially in Nazi Germany during World War II storm window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] US : a second window that covers the usual outside window of a building for protection against cold and bad weather stormy /ˈstoɚmi/ adj storm•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : relating to or affected by a storm ▪ a dark, stormy sky ▪ a stormy sea ▪ The weather/day was cold and stormy.

2 : full of anger, shouting, etc. ▪ a stormy meeting ▪ Their relationship was very stormy. ▪ a stormy family life

– storm•i•ness /ˈstoɚminəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]sto•ry /ˈstori/ noun, pl -ries

1 [count] : a description of how something happened ▪ The movie is based on a true story. ▪ What is the story behind (the making of) this painting? ▪ That's not the whole story. [=there are more details to be told] ▪ Many years later they met again, but that's another story. ▪ He said he wasn't at the scene of the crime, but the fingerprints tell a different story. [=the fingerprints show that he was there] ▪ "Why are you late?" "It's a long story. [=it is too complicated to explain] I'll tell you later." ▪ (US) They were having a lot of problems. To make a long story short, she decided to leave him. = (Brit) To cut a long story short, she decided to leave him. ▪ (informal) He yelled at me, and I left. End of story. [=there is nothing more to say about it] — often + about or of ▪ We're still waiting to hear the full story [=all of the details] of what happened. ▪ She's told us the story of the great snowstorm of 1977 many times. ▪ He told all sorts of stories [=anecdotes] about his childhood. ▪ Tell them the story about that time you got stuck in the elevator. ✧ The phrase the story goes is used to say that you are telling a story that you heard from other people. ▪ The story goes [=people say] that after he died, he haunted the house. ▪ The story goes like this: He was walking through the woods when he spotted a huge bear. ▪ She was very depressed or so the story goes. [=or so people say] — see also HORROR STORY, SOB STORY, SUCCESS STORY, WAR STORY

2 [count] a : a description of imaginary events that is told as a form of entertainment ▪ Don't be scared. It's only a story. ▪ The story (of the book) is about growing up in Harlem during the 1920s. ▪ The movie is a story of three single women looking for true love. ▪ a horror/detective story ▪ She read the child a bedtime story. [=a story that you read or tell a child at bedtime] — see also GHOST STORY, SHAGGY-DOG STORY, SHORT STORY b : the series of events that happen in a story ▪ The story [=plot] is the same in all her books/movies/plays.

3 [count] : something that is reported in a newspaper, on television, etc. : a news article or broadcast ▪ a news story [=report] ▪ The lead story in the news today is about the earthquake. ▪ His death was one of the biggest stories of the year. ▪ The story about the fire made the front page of the newspaper. = The front-page story was about the fire. ▪ The magazine ran a story [=printed an article] about the scandal. — see also COVER STORY

4 [count] : a description of the most important events in someone's life ▪ the Princess Diana story = the story of Princess Diana ▪ The biography is a story of courage. ▪ She told her life story to him. [=she told him about the things that had happened in her life] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Having bad luck with men is the story of my life. [=I have often had bad luck with men] ▪ Gaining and losing weight is the story of her life.

5 a [count] : a condition or set of conditions that affects someone or something : SITUATION ▪ We lost power, and it's the same story throughout the city. [=people throughout the city also lost power] ▪ Living on your own is a whole different story [=matter] from living with your parents. ▪ She got good grades in math, but English was another story. [=she did not do well in English] ▪ The restaurant has great desserts, but that's only/just half the story. [=part of the story] It also has wonderful entertainment. ▪ It's the same old story [=things have not changed] with her—she just can't or won't keep a job. b *the story somewhat informal : basic information about someone or something ▪ I'm still trying to find out the story [=the reason] behind this new policy. ▪ What's the story [=the deal] with that guy? [=what can you tell me about that guy?]

6 [count] a : a lie that someone tells : a false story ▪ You shouldn't tell stories. — see also COCK-AND-BULL STORY, FISH STORY b : an explanation or excuse and especially one that is not true ▪ The police don't believe his story. — often + about ▪ She made up some story about getting stuck in traffic.

a likely story see [1]LIKELY

– compare [2]STORY

[2]story also chiefly Brit sto•rey /ˈstori/ noun, pl stories [count] : a group of rooms or an area that forms one floor level of a building ▪ She lives/works on the second floor of a five-story building. [=a building that has five stories/floors] ▪ The building is 20 stories high. — see also MULTISTORY — compare [1]STORY sto•ry•board /ˈstoriˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a series of drawings or pictures that show the changes of scenes and actions for a movie, television show, etc.

– storyboard verb -boards; -board•ed; -board•ing [+ obj] ▪ He storyboarded the fight scene.

[1]sto•ry•book /ˈstoriˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book of stories for children

[2]storybook adj, always used before a noun : like something described in a storybook ▪ a storybook [=fairy-tale] ending/romance

story line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : the series of events that happen in a story : PLOT

sto•ry•tell•er /ˈstoriˌtɛlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who tells or writes stories ▪ She's a good/master storyteller.

– sto•ry•tell•ing /ˈstoriˌtɛlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She is good at storytelling.

stoup /ˈstu:p/ noun, pl stoups [count] : a container for holy water at the entrance of a church

[1]stout /ˈstaʊt/ adj stout•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : thick and strong ▪ The plant has a stout [=sturdy] stem. ▪ stout legs ▪ a stout neck

2 : having a large body that is wide with fat or muscles ▪ a short, stout [=stocky] man

3 a literary : brave and strong ▪ a stout leader ▪ He has a stout heart. b formal : forceful and determined ▪ His lawyer put up a stout defense in court.

– stout•ly adv ▪ a stoutly built man ▪ She stoutly defended him.

[2]stout noun, pl stouts [count, noncount] : a very dark, heavy beer stout•heart•ed /ˈstaʊtˌhɑəɾəd/ adj, literary : brave and determined ▪ a stouthearted soldier

[1]stove /ˈstoʊv/ noun, pl stoves [count]

1 chiefly US : a flat piece of kitchen equipment for cooking that usually has four devices (called burners) which become hot when they are turned on and that often is attached to an oven ▪ Is the stove on/off? ▪ She put the pan on the stove over medium heat. ▪ I cooked the burgers on the stove. — called also (Brit) cooker; compare COOKTOP; see also COOKSTOVE

2 : a device that burns fuel for heating or cooking ▪ a wood-burning/gas stove — see also POTBELLIED STOVE

3 : an oven or furnace that is used for hardening, burning, or drying something (such as pottery) : KILN

[2]stove past tense and past participle of [2]STAVE

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 190 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

stove•pipe /ˈstoʊvˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count]
1 : a metal pipe used for carrying away smoke from a stove
2 : a very tall silk hat ▪ a stovepipe hat stove•top /ˈstoʊvˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] US : the top of a stove — compare COOKTOP stow /ˈstoʊ/ verb stows; stowed; stow•ing [+ obj] : to put (something that is not being used) in a place where it is available, where it can be kept safely, etc. : STORE ▪ He stowed his gear in a locker. ▪ Luggage may be stowed under the seat. — often + away ▪ The supplies were stowed away below deck.

stow away [phrasal verb] : to hide on a ship, airplane, etc., in order to travel without paying or being seen ▪ When he was a young boy he stowed away on a merchant ship headed for China. — see also STOWAWAY stow•age /ˈstowɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : space especially on a ship or airplane for stowing things ▪ There's a lot of stowage below deck.

stow•away /ˈstowəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count] : someone who hides on a ship, airplane, etc., in order to travel without paying or being seen ▪ A stowaway was discovered on the ship. — see also stow away at STOW

strad•dle /ˈstrædl/ verb strad•dles; strad•dled; strad•dling [+ obj]
1 : to sit or ride with a leg on either side of (something) ▪ He straddled the stool. ▪ She straddled the horse.
2 a : to be on both sides of (something) ▪ Campsites straddled the river. — often used figuratively ▪ Their music straddles the line between rock and jazz. b : to have parts that are in (different places, regions, etc.) ▪ Turkey straddles Asia and Europe. — often used figuratively ▪ The movie straddles too many genres.
3 : to agree with or seem to agree with two opposite sides of (something) ▪ She straddled the issue.

strafe /ˈstreɪf/ verb strafes; strafed; straf•ing [+ obj] : to attack (something) with machine guns from low-flying airplanes ▪ The planes strafed the town/battleship.

strag•gle /ˈstrægəl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition strag•gles; strag•gled; strag•gling [no obj]
1 : to walk slowly into or from a place in a way that is not continuous or organized ▪ The children straggled in from outside. ▪ People straggled off the train.
2 : to move away or spread out from others in a disorganized way ▪ She straggled behind the rest of the group. ▪ Branches straggled out and blocked the path.

strag•gler /ˈstræglɚ/ noun, pl -glers [count] : a person or animal that moves slower than others and becomes separated from them ▪ People waited for the stragglers to finish the race. ▪ The cowboy had to round up a few stragglers.

strag•gly /ˈstrægli/ adj strag•gli•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : growing or hanging in an untidy way : SCRAGGLY ▪ straggly hair ▪ His beard is straggly.

[1]straight /ˈstreɪt/ adj straight•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not having curves, bends, or angles ▪ a straight line/edge ▪ She has long, straight hair. ▪ Keep your back straight.
2 : vertical or level ▪ The flagpole is perfectly straight. ▪ The picture isn't quite straight.
3 always used before a noun : following one after the other in order ▪ He has won three straight [=consecutive] tournaments. : following each other without interruption ▪ We sat in the airport for five straight hours.
4 : honest and direct ▪ They wouldn't give me a straight answer. ▪ He's known for his straight dealing. ▪ They're not being straight with you. ▪ What we want is some straight talk.
5 always used before a noun a : including only two people or things ▪ It was a straight choice: accept the offer or don't. ▪ a straight exchange/swap b : not including any things or parts of a different kind ▪ a straight romance novel ▪ The band plays straight blues. ▪ (US) He always votes a straight Democratic ticket. [=he always votes for Democratic candidates] ▪ (US) She got straight A's in all her classes last year. [=she got an A in every class] ▪ (US) a straight-A student
6 not used before a noun : with everything in its proper place ▪ After supper, the kids helped set/put the kitchen straight. [=tidy up the kitchen]
7 not used before a noun : agreeing with what is true or what is stated to be true ▪ We have to have our stories straight or else the police will get suspicious. ▪ Let me get this straight [=I am surprised/confused by what you are saying and I want to be sure that I understand you correctly]: You want me to lend you $2,000? ▪ You need to get your facts straight. [=you need to get your facts correct] ▪ He set/put her straight about/on what happened. [=he corrected her and explained to her what actually happened] — see also set/put the record straight at [1]RECORD
8 not used before a noun, informal : having nothing owed by either side ▪ You pay for my ticket, and I'll consider us straight. [=even]
9 : behaving in a way that is socially correct and acceptable ▪ (disapproving) She's too straight [=conventional] and needs to lighten up. ▪ (informal) He left the gang and promised himself that he would go straight. [=stop being a criminal] 10 informal : HETEROSEXUAL ▪ He's gay but he has a lot of straight friends.
11 : not using drugs or alcohol ▪ She has been straight for two years now.
12 US, of alcoholic drinks : not mixed with anything : without ice or water added ▪ I like my bourbon/whiskey straight. [=neat] ▪ I'll have a martini straight up.
13 : not joking or funny : SERIOUS ▪ a straight actor ▪ straight theatrical drama — see also STRAIGHT MAN
– straight•ness noun [noncount]

[2]straight adv
1 : in a straight or direct way ▪ She looked him straight [=right, directly] in the eye and told him to leave. ▪ She walked straight up to him and slapped him in the face. ▪ The tunnel goes straight through the mountain. ▪ The library is straight ahead. ▪ This road will take you straight [=directly] to the next town. ▪ He was so drunk he couldn't walk straight. ▪ She sat with her legs straight out. ▪ The tree fell straight down. ▪ The car went straight off the road. ▪ She told him straight to his face that she hated him.
2 : in or into a vertical position ▪ Pine trees stood straight along the path. ▪ Sit up straight and don't slouch.
3 a : without any delay : directly or immediately ▪ She came straight [=right] home from school. ▪ The company hires many people straight [=right] out of college. ▪ He went straight to bed when he came home. ▪ Let me get/come straight to the point: I think we should break up. b : without interruption ▪ The rescue crew has been working for three days straight. ▪ The baby slept straight through the night. ▪ Since no one objected to her plan, she went straight on to talk about how to begin.
4 : in an honest and direct way ▪ Tell me straight: did you do it or didn't you? ▪ Are you dealing/playing straight with me? [=are you being honest with me?] ▪ (informal) Straight up, what did you really pay for the tickets?
5 : in the usual, normal, or correct way ▪ She was so drunk she couldn't see straight. ▪ Can you please be quiet? I can't think straight.
ramrod straight see RAMROD straight off US, informal : without delay or hesitation : IMMEDIATELY ▪ I told him straight off that I wouldn't help him. ▪ I knew straight off [=right away] that she was lying.
straight out informal : in a very direct way ▪ I asked him straight out if he was doing drugs.

[3]straight noun, pl straights [count]
1 informal : HETEROSEXUAL — usually plural ▪ gays and straights
2 : a straight part of a racecourse : STRAIGHTAWAY — usually singular ▪ He overtook them on the straight.
3 : a hand of playing cards in poker that contains five cards in sequence (such as a five, a six, a seven, an eight, and a nine) the straight and narrow informal : the way of living that is honest and morally proper ▪ His wife keeps him on the straight and narrow.

straight–arm /ˈstreɪtˌɑɚm/ noun, pl -arms [count] American football : the act of pushing another player away from you with the palm of your hand while your arm is fully extended — called also stiff-arm
– straight–arm verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing [+ obj] ▪ The ball-carrier straight-armed the tackler.

straight arrow noun, pl ~ -rows [count] US, informal : a person who is very honest and morally proper ▪ He doesn't drink or smoke. He's a real straight arrow.

[1]straight•away /ˌstreɪtəˈweɪ/ adv : without any delay : IMMEDIATELY ▪ He found the information straightaway.

[2]straight•away /ˈstreɪtəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count] chiefly US : a straight part of a racecourse — usually singular ▪ He overtook them on the straightaway.

straight•edge /ˈstreɪtˌɛʤ/ noun, pl -edg•es [count] : a piece of wood, metal, plastic, etc., with a straight edge that you use to make sure something (such as a line or surface) is

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 191 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s straight or to make straight lines or cuts straight•en /ˈstreɪtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 : to make (something) straight or to become straight [+ obj] He straightened the bent antenna. ▪ Straighten your legs. — often + out ▪ You need to straighten out your legs for this stretch. [no obj] The drooping flowers straightened in the rain. — often + out ▪ The river curves and then straightens out again.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) organized or tidy : to put (something) in order — usually + out or up ▪ He took time to straighten out the papers on his desk. ▪ They straightened up the house after the party.
straighten out [phrasal verb] 1 straighten out (something) or straighten (something) out : to deal with (something) successfully ▪ I need more time to straighten out my problems. 2 a straighten out or straighten out (something) or straighten (something) out : to improve in behavior or condition ▪ He straightened out after joining the army. ▪ The problem will not straighten out on its own. ▪ You need to straighten your life out. b straighten (someone) out or straighten out (someone) : to improve the behavior of (someone) ▪ Her parents sent her to boarding school to straighten her out.
straighten up [phrasal verb] 1 : to move your body to an upright position ▪ Straighten up. There's no excuse for slouching. 2 US : to improve in behavior ▪ You need to straighten up, young man.
– straight•en•er /ˈstreɪtnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] She uses a straightener to make her hair straight. [noncount] a bottle of hair straightener

straight face noun, pl ~ faces [count] : a face that shows no emotion and especially no amusement ▪ She lied with a straight face. ▪ It was hard to keep a straight face. [=to not laugh or smile] ▪ The students quickly put on straight faces as the teacher walked into the room.
– straight–faced /ˈstreɪtˈfeɪst/ adj ▪ straight-faced lawyers ▪ He told the story straight-faced. [=with a straight face] straight flush noun, pl ~ flushes [count] : a hand of playing cards in poker that contains five cards of the same suit in sequence (such as a five, a six, a seven, an eight, and a nine of clubs) — compare ROYAL FLUSH straight•for•ward /ˌstreɪtˈfɔəwəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : easy to do or understand : not complicated ▪ Using the computer program is fairly straightforward. ▪ The instructions are straightforward.
2 : honest and open ▪ He was very straightforward with us. ▪ She gave a straightforward account of what happened.
– straight•for•ward•ly adv ▪ She spoke straightforwardly about what had happened. – straight•for•ward•ness noun [noncount]

straightjacket variant spelling of STRAITJACKET

straightlaced variant spelling of STRAITLACED straight man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a member of a comedy team who says things that allow a partner to make jokes straight–out /ˈstreɪtˈaʊt/ adj : very clear and direct ▪ Her answer was a straight-out no.

straight razor noun, pl ~ -zors [count] chiefly US : a razor that is enclosed in a case which forms a handle when the razor is pulled out for use — called also (Brit) cut-throat razor straight shooter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US, informal : a person who is very honest ▪ He's a straight shooter who says what he thinks.

straight•way /ˈstreɪtˈweɪ/ adv, old-fashioned : STRAIGHTAWAY, IMMEDIATELY ▪ I spotted them straightway.

[1]strain /ˈstreɪn/ noun, pl strains
1 : a feeling of stress and worry that you have because you are trying to do too much, are dealing with a difficult problem, etc. [count] The work has been a strain on me. [=it has been stressful for me] ▪ The strain of working and going to school full-time was too much for her. ▪ He talked about the stresses and strains of owning a business. ▪ The long hours at work have put/placed a strain on me. ▪ She has been under a strain lately. [noncount] Help from other workers took some of the strain [=pressure] off me. ▪ She has been under (a lot of) strain lately. ▪ He is holding up under the strain. [=he is able to deal with the pressure] ▪ He cracked/collapsed/buckled under the strain. [=he was not able to deal with the pressure]
2 : something that is very difficult to deal with and that causes harm or trouble [count] There are strains [=problems] in their relationship. ▪ Being deeply in debt has been a strain [=burden] on our marriage. ▪ The disagreement has put/placed a strain on their friendship. ▪ Sending their children to college has put/placed a strain on their finances. [noncount] Being in debt has been a source of strain on our marriage. ▪ Their friendship is under strain.
3 : a force that pulls or stretches something : STRESS [count] The cable is designed to withstand strains of more than four tons. — usually singular ▪ The strain on the cables supporting the bridge is enormous. ▪ The cables could not take the strain of the extra weight. [noncount] If there is too much strain on the cables they will snap. ▪ Moving the piano will put/place too much strain on our back muscles. ▪ The cable broke under the strain.
4 : an injury to a body part or muscle that is caused by too much tension, effort, or use [count] a leg/muscle strain [noncount] Long hours of study can cause eye strain. ▪ Heavy lifting is a cause of muscle strain.
– compare [3]STRAIN

[2]strain verb strains; strained; strain•ing
1 [+ obj] : to injure (a body part or muscle) by too much tension, use, or effort ▪ I strained my back trying to lift the couch. ▪ Too much computer work strains the eyes. ▪ He strained a muscle in his leg. — compare SPRAIN
2 : to try very hard to do or get something [no obj] — often + for ▪ He was straining for air. [=he was struggling to breathe] — often followed by to + verb ▪ He strained to open the jar. ▪ She strained to sing the high notes. ▪ The people in the back of the room strained to hear the speaker. [+ obj] I strained my ears to hear [=I tried very hard to hear] what they were whispering. ▪ I strained my eyes [=I tried very hard to see] in the darkness.
3 a : to be pulled or stretched in a forceful way [no obj] His muscles strained under the heavy weight. [+ obj] People were straining their necks [=were lifting their heads as high as they could by stretching their necks] to see the fight. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You are straining (the limits of) my patience with your nagging. b [no obj] : to pull hard on or push hard against something — + at or against ▪ The dog strained at its leash. ▪ His belly strained against the buttons of the shirt. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The kids were straining at the leash to get going. [=were very eager to get going]
4 [+ obj] : to cause problems or trouble for (something) ▪ The disagreement strained their relationship. ▪ The rent has strained our finances. ▪ The company is financially strained.
5 [+ obj] : to separate a liquid from solid pieces by using a special device (called a strainer) ▪ He strained the pasta. = He strained the water from the pasta. ▪ She strained the gravy. = She strained the lumps out of the gravy.
strain yourself 1 : to injure yourself by making your muscles do too much work ▪ Don't strain yourself trying to move the couch. 2 : to put a lot of physical or mental effort into doing something ▪ Don't strain yourself trying to think of the answer. I can tell you what it is.

[3]strain noun, pl strains
1 [count] : a group of closely related plants or animals : VARIETY — often + of ▪ a strong strain of wheat ▪ a new strain of bacteria ▪ This strain of mice is resistant to the disease.
2 [count] literary + somewhat old-fashioned : a usually bad quality that someone or something has — usually singular; usually + of ▪ There is a strain of snobbery in her. ▪ There is a strain of madness in that family.
3 [singular] formal + literary : a small amount of something ▪ There was a strain [=touch, trace] of sadness in his voice.
4 [count] : a kind or sort of something — usually + of ▪ a different strain of philosophy ▪ a new strain of pop music
5 strains [plural] formal : the musical sounds of someone or something ▪ We relaxed to the strains of Chopin. ▪ the strains of a harp
– compare [1]STRAIN

strained /ˈstreɪnd/ adj
1 : feeling or showing the effect of too much work, use, effort, etc. ▪ Her voice sounded strained. ▪ a strained face
2 : not natural and sincere : FORCED ▪ a strained smile ▪ He made a strained attempt at being polite. ▪ His apology seemed strained.
3 : not friendly and relaxed ▪ Their relationship was strained.

strain•er /ˈstreɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a kitchen device that has many small holes and that is used to hold back solid pieces while a liquid passes through : SIEVE strait /ˈstreɪt/ noun, pl straits

1 [count] : a narrow passage of water that connects two large

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 192 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

bodies of water ▪ the Bering Strait — often plural ▪ the Straits of Gibraltar

2 straits [plural] : a very difficult situation ▪ Her campaign is in desperate straits. ▪ The company is in desperate financial straits. ▪ The economy is in dire straits.

strait•ened /ˈstreɪtn̩d/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : not having enough money : having less money than before ▪ They live in straitened circumstances.

strait•jack•et also straight•jack•et /ˈstreɪtˌʤækət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a jacket that has long arms which can be tied together behind someone's back and that is used to control the movements of a violent prisoner or patient — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He struggled to free himself from the straitjacket of debt.

strait•laced or straight•laced /ˈstreɪtˈleɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very proper in manners, morals, or opinion ▪ She is very straitlaced.

[1]strand /ˈstrænd/ noun, pl strands [count]

1 : a thin piece of thread, wire, hair, etc. ▪ The strands were twisted together. — often + of ▪ a strand of thread ▪ The police found a single strand of hair at the crime scene.

2 : something that is long like a string — often + of ▪ a strand of pearls ▪ a strand of DNA

3 : one of the parts of something that is very complicated — often + of ▪ All the strands of the story's plot are woven together in the final chapter. ▪ The police are slowly putting the strands of evidence together.

– compare [3]STRAND

[2]strand verb strands; strand•ed; strand•ing [+ obj]

1 : to leave (a person or animal) in a place without a way of leaving it — usually used as (be) stranded ▪ She was stranded in a foreign city with no money. ▪ They were stranded on a deserted island. ▪ His car broke down, and he was stranded in the middle of nowhere. ▪ Her flight was canceled, so she was left stranded at the airport.

2 : to cause (something, such as a boat or a sea animal) to become stuck on land — usually used as (be) stranded ▪ The ship was stranded on the sandbank. ▪ a stranded [=beached] whale

3 baseball : to leave (a base runner) on base at the end of an inning ▪ The team stranded 10 runners during the game. ▪ Two base runners were left stranded at the end of the inning.

[3]strand noun, pl strands [count] : the land along the edge of a sea, lake, etc. : a shore or beach ▪ We walked along the strand. — compare [1]STRAND strange /ˈstreɪnʤ/ adj strang•er; strang•est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : different from what is usual, normal, or expected : ODD ▪ Does his behavior seem strange to you? ▪ Truth is sometimes stranger than fiction. ▪ That is one of the strangest creatures I have ever seen. ▪ What a strange-looking animal. ▪ There was something strange [=peculiar] about his new friend. ▪ She got a strange [=weird] feeling when the phone rang. ▪ He gave me a strange look. ▪ Strange as it may seem, I don't like walking barefoot on the grass. ▪ It's strange that nobody told me about this before. ▪ It's strange [=surprising] how quickly a person's opinion can change. ▪ It is strange (that) he would leave town and not tell anybody. ▪ That's strange. He was here a minute ago. ▪ The strange thing is that nobody saw him enter or leave the building. ▪ A strange [=funny] thing happened to me on my way home. ▪ For some strange reason, we thought you weren't coming. [=it is strange that we thought you weren't coming] ▪ Strange to say [=strangely], I was thinking the same thing.

2 : not known, heard, or seen before : UNFAMILIAR ▪ Children are taught not to talk to strange people. ▪ The language was strange to me. ▪ a strange city/country

3 not used before a noun : not entirely comfortable or well ▪ He felt strange being the boss of people who were as old as his parents. ▪ My stomach feels a little strange. ▪ I began to feel strange, and then I fainted.

– strange•ness /ˈstreɪnʤnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ The strangeness of the dream puzzled me.

strange•ly /ˈstreɪnʤli/ adv

1 [more ~; most ~] : in a strange way ▪ He has been acting very strangely lately. ▪ She had never been there before, but the place seemed strangely [=oddly] familiar to her.

2 — used to say that something is strange or surprising ▪ Strangely, my dad never asked me why I needed to borrow the car. ▪ Strangely enough, he wasn't disappointed that he didn't get the job.

strang•er /ˈstreɪnʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who you have not met before or do not know ▪ Children are taught not to talk to strangers. ▪ He is a complete/total/perfect stranger to me.

2 : someone who has not experienced something — + to ▪ He is a stranger to losing. [=he does not know what losing is like] — usually used in negative statements ▪ She is no stranger to controversy. [=she has been involved in controversy before]

3 : someone who is in a new and unfamiliar place ▪ "Excuse me. Do you know where the library is?" "I'm sorry. I'm a stranger here myself." ▪ I'm a stranger to the area.

4 informal a — used to greet someone you have not seen in a long time ▪ Hello, stranger. I haven't seen you in ages. b — used to say that you hope to see someone again soon ▪ Don't be a stranger, now. Come back real soon.

stran•gle /ˈstræŋgəl/ verb stran•gles; stran•gled; stran•gling [+ obj]

1 : to kill (a person or animal) by squeezing the throat ▪ He used a rope to strangle her (to death). = He strangled her (to death) with a rope.

2 : to stop (something) from growing or developing ▪ The weeds are strangling the plant. ▪ The company is trying to strangle the smaller competition.

– stran•gler /ˈstræŋglə/ noun, pl -glers [count] ▪ She was the first victim killed by the strangler.

strangled adj — used to describe a cry or other sound that stops suddenly or that seems strained because of tightness in the throat ▪ She let out a strangled cry/sob. ▪ He spoke in a strangled voice.

stran•gle•hold /ˈstræŋgəlˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count]

1 : an illegal hold in wrestling by which your opponent is choked

2 : a force or influence that stops something from growing or developing — usually singular ▪ He finally broke free from the stranglehold of his domineering parents. — often + on ▪ The state has a stranglehold on the city's finances.

stran•gu•la•tion /ˌstræŋgjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of killing someone by squeezing the throat : the act of strangling someone ▪ The cause of death was strangulation.

[1]strap /ˈstræp/ noun, pl straps [count] : a narrow and usually flat piece of a material that is used for fastening, holding together, or wrapping something ▪ a bra/leather strap ▪ a watch strap — see pictures at BAG, SHOE; see also BOOTSTRAPS, JOCKSTRAP, SHOULDER STRAP, SPAGHETTI STRAP

[2]strap verb straps; strapped; strap•ping [+ obj]

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to fasten (someone or something) by using a strap ▪ We strapped our snowshoes on. ▪ She climbed the mountain with a 40-pound pack strapped to her back. ▪ She strapped the children in [=fastened the children's seat belts] and drove away. ▪ She made sure that both children were strapped in.

2 chiefly Brit : to wrap (an injured or broken part of the body) with bandages — often + up ▪ His broken leg will be strapped up for a long time.

strap on the feedbag see FEEDBAG strap•less /ˈstræpləs/ adj : made or worn without straps over the shoulders ▪ a strapless evening gown strapped adj, informal : not having enough money : lacking money ▪ The company is financially strapped and is expected to file for bankruptcy. ▪ I can't go out tonight. I'm strapped for cash.

strapping adj, always used before a noun, of a person : tall, strong, and healthy ▪ a strapping young man strap•py /ˈstræpi/ adj, always used before a noun : having straps ▪ strappy sandals/shoes strata plural of STRATUM

strat•a•gem /ˈstrætəʤəm/ noun, pl -gems [count] formal : a trick or plan for deceiving an enemy or for achieving a goal ▪ a clever stratagem

stra•te•gic /strəˈtiːʤɪk/ also stra•te•gi•cal /strəˈtiːʤɪkəl/ adj

1 : of or relating to a general plan that is created to achieve a goal in war, politics, etc., usually over a long period of time ▪ strategic planning/warfare ▪ The bridges have great strategic value. ▪ strategic maneuvers [=maneuvers that are done as part of a general strategy] ▪ strategic bombing ▪ a strategic retreat [=a retreat that is done in order to help accomplish a general plan] ▪ strategic nuclear weapons [=powerful nuclear weapons that are designed to be used against targets that are chosen as part of a general plan to defeat an enemy rather than in an attempt to win a specific battle]

2 : useful or important in achieving a plan or strategy ▪ The hill is located at a strategic position. ▪ a strategic location

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 193 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

– stra•te•gi•cal•ly /strəˈtiːʤɪkli/ adv ▪ strategically placed armies ▪ The road is strategically located.

strat•e•gist /ˈstrætəʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] : a person who is skilled in making plans for achieving a goal : someone who is good at forming strategies ▪ military/political/campaign strategists

strat•e•gize /ˈstrætəˌʤaɪz/ verb -giz•es; -gized; -giz•ing [no obj] US : to make a plan for achieving a goal and especially a military or political goal : to form a strategy ▪ The organization strategizes for Republican candidates.

strat•e•gy /ˈstrætəʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [count] : a careful plan or method for achieving a particular goal usually over a long period of time ▪ They are proposing a new strategy for treating the disease with a combination of medications. ▪ The government is developing innovative strategies to help people without insurance get medical care. ▪ marketing/business/investment/defense strategies
2 [noncount] : the skill of making or carrying out plans to achieve a goal ▪ a specialist in campaign/military strategy

strat•i• •ca•tion /ˌstrætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count, noncount] : the state of being divided into social classes ▪ social stratification/stratifications
2 [noncount] technical : the state of having many layers ▪ the stratification of the Earth's crust

strat•i• ed /ˈstrætəˌfaɪd/ adj
1 : arranged or formed in layers ▪ stratified rock
2 [more ~; most ~] : divided into social classes ▪ stratified societies

strato•sphere /ˈstrætəˌsfiə/ noun
the stratosphere 1 : the upper layer of the Earth's atmosphere that begins about 7 miles (11 kilometers) above the Earth's surface and ends about 30 miles (50 kilometers) above the Earth's surface 2 : a very high position, level, or amount ▪ Tuition at many colleges has soared into the stratosphere. [=has become extremely expensive] ▪ His career is clearly headed for the stratosphere.

stra•tum /ˈstreɪtəm, Brit ˈstrɑːtəm/ noun, pl stra•ta /ˈstreɪtə, Brit ˈstrɑːtə/ [count]
1 : one of usually many layers of a substance (such as rock) ▪ a rock stratum ▪ a stratum of earth
2 : a level of society made up of people of the same rank or position ▪ Drug abuse is a problem in every stratum of society. = Drug abuse is a problem in all social strata.

straw /ˈstrɑː/ noun, pl straws
1 a [noncount] : the dry stems of wheat and other grain plants ▪ a bed/pile of straw — often used before another noun ▪ a straw hat/mat b [count] : a single dry stem of a grain plant ▪ He was chewing on a straw.
2 [count] : a thin tube used for sucking up a drink ▪ He asked for a straw for his iced tea. ▪ She drank the juice through a straw.
clutch/grasp at straws : to try to solve a problem by doing things that probably will not help ▪ I asked her for a loan. I didn't think she'd agree, but at that point I was grasping at straws.
draw straws see ¹DRAW
straw in the wind : a sign of what might come in the future ▪ A few straws in the wind—such as increased tourism and shopping—suggest that the economy is improving.
the final/last straw or the straw that breaks/broke the camel's back : the last in a series of bad things that happen to make someone very upset, angry, etc. ▪ It had been a difficult week, so when the car broke down, it was the last straw.

straw•ber•ry /ˈstrɑːˌbɛri, Brit ˈstrɔːbri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a soft, juicy red fruit that grows on a low plant with white flowers ▪ We picked strawberries. — often used before another noun ▪ a strawberry plant ▪ strawberry jam/preserves/sauce — see color picture on page C5 strawberry blonde or strawberry blond noun, pl ~ blondes or ~ blonds [count] : a person who has reddish-blond hair – strawberry blonde or strawberry blond adj ▪ strawberry blonde hair strawberry mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : a red mark on a person's skin : a red birthmark straw–colored (US) or Brit straw–coloured adj : light yellow in color : like the color of straw ▪ straw-colored hair straw man noun, pl ~ men [count] US : a weak or imaginary argument or opponent that is set up to be easily defeated — called also (chiefly Brit) man of straw

straw poll noun, pl ~ polls [count] : an informal and unofficial poll or vote that is done to get information about what people think about something — called also (US) straw vote

¹stray /ˈstreɪ/ verb strays; strayed; stray•ing [no obj] : to go in a direction that is away from a group or from the place where you should be ▪ Two cows strayed [=wandered] into the woods. ▪ The airplane strayed off course. — often + from ▪ She strayed from the group and got lost. ▪ Her eyes strayed from her computer to the window. [=she stopped looking at her computer and began looking at/out the window] — often used figuratively ▪ She never strayed [=deviated] from the path her parents envisioned for her. ▪ The menu at their house rarely strays (too) far from meat and potatoes. ▪ The class discussion strayed [=deviated] from the original topic. ▪ a straying husband [=a husband who has sexual relations with a woman who is not his wife]

²stray adj, always used before a noun
1 of an animal : lost or having no home ▪ a stray cat/dog
2 : separated from another or others of the same kind ▪ a stray sock
3 : not in or going in the proper or intended place ▪ a few stray hairs ▪ He was hit by a stray bullet. [=a bullet that was supposed to go somewhere else]

³stray noun, pl strays [count]
1 : an animal (such as a cat or dog) that is lost or has no home ▪ Both of her cats were strays that she found wandering in the neighborhood.
2 : a person or thing that is separated from a group ▪ I matched up the socks in the laundry but I was left with one stray. [=one extra sock]

¹streak /ˈstriːk/ noun, pl streaks [count]
1 : a long, thin mark that is a different color from its background ▪ He left streaks where he wiped the glass. ▪ The miners had streaks of coal dust on their faces.
2 : a quality that is noticeable especially because it is different from a person's other qualities — usually singular ▪ a streak of stubbornness = a stubborn streak ▪ She has an adventurous/competitive streak in her. ▪ He has a mean streak. [=a tendency to be mean]
3 : a period of repeated success or failure ▪ a lucky streak ▪ a streak of 11 straight victories ▪ a winning/losing streak [=a series of wins/losses] ▪ The team has recently been on a hot streak. [=the team has been winning a lot of games recently]
4 : a long, narrow area or flash of light ▪ a streak of lightning/light

²streak verb streaks; streaked; streak•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make long lines of a different color on or in (something) ▪ Tears streaked her face. — often used as (be) streaked with ▪ Her face was streaked with tears. ▪ Her hair is streaked with gray.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go or move very quickly ▪ A shooting star streaked across the sky. ▪ A skateboarder streaked past us.
3 [no obj] : to run through a public place naked in order to get attention streak•er /ˈstriːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who runs through a public place naked in order to get attention ▪ The ceremony was interrupted when a streaker ran across the stage.

streaky /ˈstriːki/ adj streak•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing streaks ▪ streaky windows
2 chiefly US : good or successful at some times and bad or unsuccessful at others : not reliably or consistently good ▪ a streaky player/golfer ▪ The team's play has been very streaky this year. [=the team has played very well at times and very badly at other times]

¹stream /ˈstriːm/ noun, pl streams [count]
1 : a natural flow of water that is smaller than a river ▪ a mountain stream ▪ A stream flows/runs through the field. — compare RIVER
2 : any flow of liquid or gas — often + of ▪ a stream of urine ▪ A stream of cold air came in through the crack. — see also BLOODSTREAM, JET STREAM, SLIPSTREAM
3 : a continuous flow of people or things — usually + of ▪ a stream of words ▪ The island is visited by a continuous/constant/steady stream of tourists. ▪ an endless stream of traffic
4 Brit : ¹TRACK 8
on stream chiefly Brit : in or into a working or functioning state : in or into operation ▪ This week the new factory came on stream. [=on line]

²stream verb streams; streamed; stream•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 194 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

move in a steady flow ▪ Tears streamed down his cheeks. ▪ I could feel the cold air streaming in through the crack in the window. ▪ Sunlight was streaming in through the window. ▪ rays of light streaming through the clouds

2 of the body or a body part a : to produce a liquid continuously and often in large amounts [no obj] — usually + with ▪ Her eyes were streaming with tears. [+ obj] Her eyes streamed tears. b [no obj] : to be or become wet with a liquid ▪ His face streamed with sweat.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to come or flow continuously to a place in large numbers ▪ People streamed into the hall. ▪ Immigrants streamed into the country. ▪ Hundreds of letters streamed in from listeners.

4 [no obj] : to move freely in one direction especially in wind or water ▪ Her long hair streamed behind her as she ran.

5 [+ obj] Brit : to group students in a particular grade according to their abilities and needs : TRACK ▪ Children were streamed according to ability.

stream•er /ˈstri:mə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a long, narrow piece of colored paper or plastic that is used as a decoration

2 : a long, narrow flag stream•ing /ˈstri:mɪŋ/ adj, computers : playing continuously as data is sent to a computer over the Internet ▪ streaming audio/media/video stream•line /ˈstri:mˌlaɪn/ verb -lines; -lined; -lin•ing [+ obj]

1 : to design or make (something, such as a boat or car) with a smooth shape which makes motion through water or air easier ▪ The manufacturer has streamlined the car's design.

2 : to make (something) simpler, more effective, or more productive ▪ The business is looking for ways to streamline production/operations.

– stream•lined /ˈstri:mˌlaɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very streamlined car/design stream of consciousness noun [noncount] : the continuous series of thoughts that occur in someone's mind especially when they are expressed in writing as a constant flow of words ▪ the narrator's stream of consciousness

[1]street /ˈstri:t/ noun, pl streets [count]

1 : a road in a city or town that has houses or other buildings on one or both sides ▪ They live on a busy/residential street. ▪ a deserted street ▪ a dead-end/one-way street ▪ You should look both ways before crossing the street. ▪ Trash littered the streets. ▪ The police car cruised up/down the street. ▪ People don't feel safe walking the streets (of the city) at night. [=don't feel safe walking outside in the city at night] ▪ our neighbor down the street [=our neighbor who lives farther down on our street] ▪ They live across the street (from us). [=they live across from us on the other side of the street] ▪ Many of our customers walk in off the street without having heard of us before. ▪ Angry citizens took to the streets [=went outside on the streets] to protest the war. ▪ He lost his job and eventually was living on the street(s). [=was homeless] — often used in names ▪ The store is at 84th Street and 35th Avenue. ▪ My address is 156 Elm Street. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Word on the street is that the company is going out of business. [=people are saying that the company is going out of business] — see also EASY STREET, FLEET STREET, HIGH STREET, MAIN STREET, WALL STREET

2 informal : a poor part of a city where there is a lot of crime — usually plural ▪ He is from the streets. ▪ the raw language of the streets

hit the streets see [1]HIT pound the streets see [2]POUND streets ahead of Brit, informal : much better than (other people or things) ▪ She is streets ahead of the other students.

the man in the street see [1]MAN up someone's street Brit, informal : suited to someone's tastes or abilities ▪ The job is right up his street. [=the job suits him very well] ▪ Working with animals is right up her street. [=(chiefly US) right up her alley]

[2]street adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to streets ▪ a street map ▪ the store's street address ▪ poor street lighting ▪ I saw him standing on the street corner [=the area of the sidewalk where two streets meet] waiting for the bus. ▪ Our apartment is at street level. [=our apartment is on the ground floor of the building]

2 : occurring, performing, working, or living on a street or sidewalk ▪ street fighting/musicians/vendors ▪ a street fair/demonstration ▪ street people [=homeless people]

3 : of, relating to, or characteristic of a poor part of a city where there is a lot of crime ▪ street drugs/crime/culture/gangs/slang street•car /ˈstri:tˌkɑ/ noun, pl -cars [count] US : a vehicle that travels on streets on metal tracks and that is used for carrying passengers — called also (chiefly Brit) tram street clothes noun [noncount] : the ordinary clothes that people wear in public ▪ She changed out of her uniform and into her street clothes.

street cred noun [noncount] informal : the acceptance and respect of people who live in poor city neighborhoods ▪ the tough neighborhood where he earned his street cred street hockey noun [noncount] chiefly US : a game like ice hockey that is played on a hard surface using hockey sticks and a small ball street•light /ˈstri:tˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a light on a tall pole next to a public road — called also street lamp; see picture at STREET

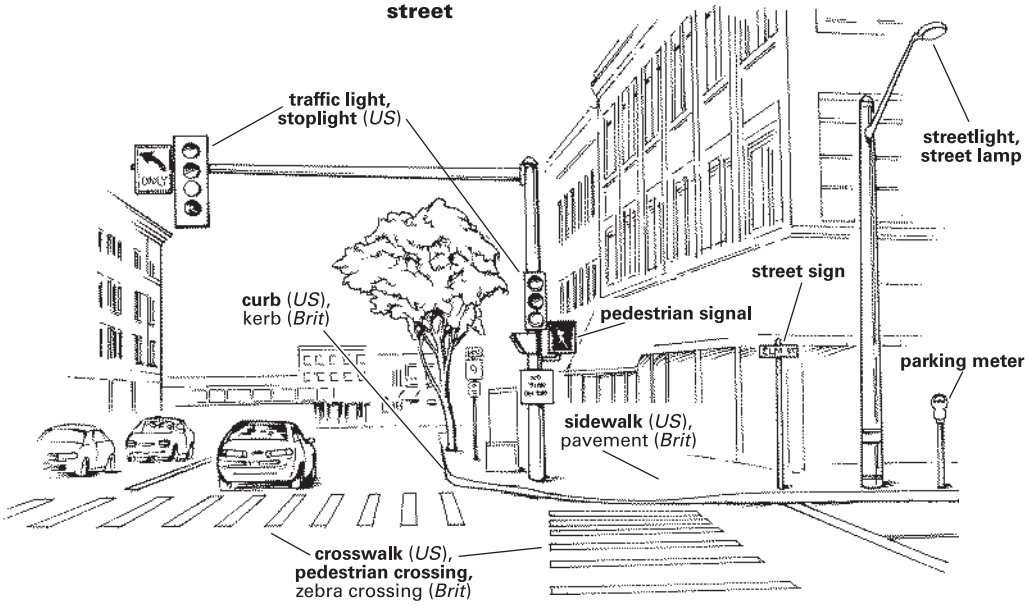
street



S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 195 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

street–smart /ˈstriːtˌsmɑːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US : STREETWISE ▪ street-smart teenagers street smarts noun [plural] chiefly US : the knowledge needed to survive in difficult and dangerous places or situations in a city street•walk•er /ˈstriːtˌwɑːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a prostitute who finds customers by walking around in the streets street•wise /ˈstriːtˌwaɪz/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having the knowledge needed to survive in difficult and dangerous places or situations in a city ▪ a smart, streetwise cop strength /ˈstrɛŋkθ/ noun, pl strengths

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being physically strong ▪ I don't have enough strength [=I'm not strong enough] to lift the box by myself. ▪ I was impressed by his strength. ▪ She's doing exercises to build up the strength in her legs. ▪ Don't work too hard. You need to conserve/save your strength for tomorrow. ▪ Pull-ups increase upper body strength. ▪ muscular strength ▪ Working on a farm requires a lot of physical strength. ▪ He didn't mean to knock you down; he just doesn't know his own strength. [=doesn't realize how strong he really is] ▪ She hit the ball with all her strength. [=she hit the ball as hard as she could] ▪ She goes to the gym for strength training. [=activities that make muscles stronger]

2 [noncount] : the ability to resist being moved or broken by a force ▪ the strength and durability of the material ▪ bone strength

3 [noncount] : the quality that allows someone to deal with problems in a determined and effective way ▪ I pray that I'll have the strength to do what I have to do. ▪ moral strength ▪ His determination shows real strength of character. ▪ Her inner strength is an inspiration to us all.

4 [count] : a quality or feature that makes someone or something effective or useful ▪ Her greatest strength is her keen attention to details. ▪ We talked about the strengths and weaknesses [=the good parts and bad parts] of the movie. — opposite WEAKNESS

5 [noncount] : the power or influence of a group, organization, etc. ▪ The antiwar movement is gathering/gaining strength. [=is becoming stronger and more effective] ▪ The country has great military/economic strength. ▪ There is strength in numbers. [=a group of people has more influence or power than one person] ▪ We are negotiating from a position of strength. [=from a strong position; from a position that gives us an advantage] ▪ The strike was intended as a show of strength by the union's leaders.

6 [noncount] — used to describe how strong or deeply held an emotion or opinion is ▪ The strength of their feelings inspired us all. = Their strength of feeling inspired us all. ▪ I was impressed by the strength of her convictions.

7 — used to describe how powerful something is [noncount] the strength of the wind ▪ This device measures the strength of radio signals. ▪ maximum/regular/extra strength cough syrup ▪ industrial-strength floor cleaner ▪ The cleaning solution should be used at half-strength. [count] medicines that come in lower strengths

8 [noncount] : the number of people in a group, army, team, etc. ▪ The battle cost the army about a quarter of its strength. ▪ Now that the quarterback has recovered from his injury, this week the team will be functioning at full strength again. [=the team will have all its players again] ▪ We're only at half strength today. [=only half the usual number of people are here today] ▪ (chiefly Brit) The team is under/below strength today. [=the team does not have all of its players today] ▪ The enemies attacked in strength. [=in great numbers]

9 [noncount] a : the value of a country's money when it is compared to money from other countries ▪ the strength of the U.S. dollar b : the financial condition of something ▪ measuring the strength of the economy/market go from strength to strength : to become better or more successful as time passes ▪ Her career as a lawyer continues to go from strength to strength.

on the strength of : because of the influence of (something) ▪ I went and saw the film on the strength of his recommendation.

pillar of strength see PILLAR tower of strength see [1]TOWER

strength•en /ˈstrɛŋkθən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) stronger, more forceful, more effective, etc. ▪ These exercises will strengthen your stomach muscles. ▪ He takes herbs to strengthen his immune system. ▪ The development of new electronic products has strengthened the company's position as the leader in digital technology. ▪ Holidays often serve to strengthen bonds between family members. ▪ Their financial situation strengthened her determination to find a new career. ▪ The team has been strengthened by the addition of several new players.

2 [no obj] : to become stronger, more forceful, more effective, etc. ▪ The winds are expected to strengthen. ▪ The storm is continuing to strengthen [=to become more powerful] as it approaches land. ▪ Her determination has strengthened. ▪ The economy is slowly strengthening.

3 of money : to increase in value when compared to money from other countries [no obj] The Canadian dollar is strengthening against the U.S. dollar. [+ obj] The trade restrictions will strengthen the pound. — opposite WEAKEN

stren•u•ous /ˈstrɛnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : requiring or showing great energy and effort ▪ Avoid all strenuous exercise until the sprain heals. ▪ a strenuous climb ▪ Today has been a very strenuous day. ▪ strenuous efforts ▪ The proposal has faced strenuous opposition.

– stren•u•ous•ly adv

strep throat /ˈstrɛp-/ noun [noncount] US, medical : a painful infection of the throat caused by streptococcus bacteria ▪ He has strep throat. — called also strep

strep•to•coc•cus /ˌstrɛptəˈkɑːkəs/ noun, pl -coc•ci /-ˈkɑːˌkaɪ/ [count] medical : a type of bacteria that causes diseases in people and animals

[1]stress /ˈstrɛs/ noun, pl stress•es

1 a [noncount] : a state of mental tension and worry caused by problems in your life, work, etc. ▪ She uses meditation as a way of reducing/relieving stress. ▪ Hormones are released into the body in response to emotional stress. ▪ He needs help with stress management. [=ways to deal with stress] b : something that causes strong feelings of worry or anxiety [noncount] I'm sorry for being grumpy. I've been under (a lot of) stress at work lately. [count] She is dealing with the stresses of working full-time and going to school. ▪ He talked about the stresses and strains of owning a business.

2 : physical force or pressure [noncount] Carrying a heavy backpack around all day puts a lot of stress on your shoulders and back. ▪ To reduce the amount of stress on your back, bend your knees when you lift something heavy. ▪ The ship's mast snapped under the stress of high winds. [count] measuring the effects of stresses on the material

3 [noncount] : special importance or attention that is given to something ▪ The teacher laid/put stress on [=emphasized] the need for good study habits.

4 : greater loudness or force given to a syllable of a word in speech or to a beat in music [noncount] Stress falls on the first syllable of the word "language." [count] Stresses fall on different beats in different parts of the song. ▪ The stress [=accent] is on the first syllable.

[2]stress verb stresses; stressed; stress•ing

1 [+ obj] : to give special attention to (something) ▪ The dentist repeatedly stressed [=emphasized] the importance of flossing regularly. ▪ The union stressed the need for stricter safety standards. ▪ The risks involved in the procedure should/must be stressed.

2 [+ obj] : to pronounce (a syllable or word) in a louder or more forceful way than other syllables or words ▪ Some people stress the second syllable of "harassment," while others stress the first. ▪ When she said, "We need lots of money," she stressed the word "lots."

3 US, informal : to feel very worried or anxious about something : to feel stress [no obj] It's not an important decision and it isn't worth stressing over. ▪ You don't need to stress [=stress out] about the exam. You'll do fine. [+ obj] Not having a clear plan was stressing me. [=stressing me out] stress out [phrasal verb] stress out or stress (someone) out or stress out (someone) informal : to feel very worried or anxious or to make (someone) feel very worried or anxious ▪ I hate being around her when she's stressing out. ▪ Work is stressing him out.

stressed /ˈstrɛst/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : feeling very worried or anxious ▪ He was feeling pretty stressed about the deadline. — often + out ▪ They were stressed out.

2 technical : having a lot of physical pressure or force on it ▪ stressed beams stress fracture noun, pl ~ -tures [count] medical : a crack on the surface of a bone caused by repeated pressure ▪ The gymnast developed a stress fracture in her ankle.

stress•ful /ˈstrɛsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of or causing stress : making you feel worried or anxious ▪ I had a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 196 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

stressful day at work today. ▪ a stressful situation/event/job stress mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : a mark (such as ˈ or ˌ) used to show the part of a word that should be given greater stress when it is spoken stress•or /ˈstrɛsɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count] : something that makes you worried or anxious : a source of stress ▪ Credit card debt is a major stressor in her life.

stress test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : a test to show how strong something is; especially : a medical test to show how strong and healthy your heart is during a period of exercise

[1]stretch /ˈstrɛʧ/ verb stretch•es; stretched; stretch•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) wider or longer by pulling it ▪ Don't yank on my sweater. You'll stretch it. ▪ I'm trying to stretch (out) the wool hat that shrank in the wash. ▪ Carefully stretch the dough. b [no obj] : to become longer or wider when pulled ▪ The elastic waistband of my pants won't stretch any more. ▪ jeans/pants that stretch ▪ The material/fabric stretches.

2 a : to put your arms, legs, etc., in positions that make the muscles long and tight [no obj] It's important to stretch before you exercise. ▪ The baby stretched and yawned. [+ obj] She woke up and stretched her arms above her head. ▪ These exercises stretch (the muscles of) your lower back. b always followed by an adverb or preposition : to extend your arm, leg, etc., in order to reach something [no obj] She stretched over us to open the window. — often + out ▪ Her hand stretched out toward him. [=she reached toward him with her hand] [+ obj] She stretched her hand toward him. — often + out ▪ She stretched out her hand.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to pull (something) so that it becomes flat and smooth and goes across a surface or area ▪ She stretched the canvas over the wooden frame. ▪ The T-shirt was stretched tight over his belly. ▪ A big banner was stretched across the doorway.

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to continue for a specified distance : to extend over an area ▪ The cornfields stretch as far as the eye can see. ▪ The restaurant chain began in Chicago but now stretches to the West Coast. — used to describe how long something is ▪ The horse's tail stretches three and a half feet from base to end. b : to continue over a period of time ▪ Her interest in art stretches back to her childhood. [=she has been interested in art since she was a child] ▪ Construction that began in late April stretched [=continued] into June.

5 [+ obj] : to say something that is not exactly true ▪ He was stretching the truth [=exaggerating] to make the story more interesting. ▪ Although it may be stretching a point [=exaggerating slightly] to say that this was his best win ever, it was nevertheless impressive. ▪ (informal) She's a good musician but comparing her to the legends is stretching it. [=she's good but she can't really be compared to the legends] ▪ (informal) It's stretching things to say that she enjoys his visits. [=she doesn't really enjoy his visits]

6 [+ obj] a : to cause or force (something) to be used for a longer time or for more purposes than originally planned or expected ▪ They were forced to stretch their food supplies. ▪ The unexpected expenses have stretched their budget to the breaking point. ▪ The country is stretching its military forces to the limit. — often + out ▪ They were forced to stretch out their food supplies for another week. b : to cause (something, such as a rule) to have a meaning or purpose that is different from what was originally intended ▪ He is clearly stretching the rules in his favor. [=he is doing something that is not really allowed by the rules] ▪ The clause was stretched beyond its original meaning. c — used figuratively in various phrases ▪ Her bad behavior is stretching my patience (to the limit). [=is causing me to lose patience] ▪ His explanation stretches credulity. [=is hard to believe]

7 [+ obj] : to require (someone) to use a lot of effort, ability, skill, etc., in order to succeed ▪ The work doesn't stretch me intellectually. [=the work is too easy for me; the work is not intellectually challenging]

stretch out [phrasal verb] stretch out or stretch (yourself) out : to extend your body in a flat position : to spread out in a relaxed position ▪ She stretched out on the bed. ▪ He stretched himself out on the couch. — often used as (be) stretched out ▪ He was (lying) stretched out on the couch. — see also [1]STRETCH 2b, 6a (above)

stretch your legs informal : to stand up and walk especially after sitting for a long period of time

– stretch•able /ˈstrɛʧəbəl/ adj ▪ a stretchable fabric

[2]stretch noun, pl stretches

1 [count] : a continuous area or length of land or water ▪ a 60-mile stretch of beach ▪ an open stretch of highway/road

2 [count] a : a continuous period of time ▪ We sat silently for a long/short/brief stretch (of time). ▪ She can sit and read for hours at a stretch. [=at one time without stopping] b informal : a period of time spent in prison — usually singular ▪ He just got out of prison after a six-year stretch.

3 : an act of stretching your body or part of your body [count] These are good stretches for your leg muscles. ▪ I always spend a few minutes doing stretches before I exercise. [noncount] I can feel the stretch in the back of my legs.

4 the stretch : the final straight part of a racecourse before the finish line ▪ the horses are in the (final) stretch — often used figuratively ▪ They won some crucial games down the stretch. [=in the last part of the season] ▪ She's in the final stretch. The baby's due next month. — see also HOME-STRETCH

5 [noncount] : the ability to be stretched without breaking or being torn ▪ material with a lot of stretch

6 [singular] chiefly US a : something that requires a special effort to be done : something that is beyond a person's usual abilities ▪ Portraying a famous actress was not much of a stretch [=challenge] for the popular movie star. b : a statement, description, etc., that is not strictly true or accurate ▪ Some people think it's a stretch to call fishing a sport.

at full stretch Brit, informal : with as much effort as possible ▪ The medical team worked at full stretch.

by any/no stretch of the imagination — used to emphasize that something is not true, does not happen, etc. ▪ They're not wealthy by any stretch of the imagination. [=they're not wealthy at all] ▪ By no stretch of the imagination does the factory operate efficiently. [=the factory does not operate at all efficiently]

the seventh-inning stretch baseball : the time between the two halves of the seventh inning when the people watching a game traditionally stand up and stretch their legs

[3]stretch adj, always used before a noun : made to stretch easily and then return to the original shape and size ▪ stretch socks/pants

[1]stretch•er /ˈstrɛʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that is made of a long piece of thick cloth stretched between two poles and that is used for carrying an injured or dead person ▪ They carried her out to the ambulance on a stretcher.

stretcher

[2]stretcher verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] Brit : to carry (someone) on a stretcher — often used as (be) stretchered ▪ The injured player was stretchered off the field.

stretch limo noun, pl ~ lim•os [count] : a very large and fancy car that is longer than standard cars and that is driven by a professional driver ▪ The chauffeur drove her to the wedding in a stretch limo. — called also stretch limousine

stretch marks noun [plural] : long marks on the skin left after the skin has been stretched especially by pregnancy stretchy /ˈstrɛʧi/ adj stretch•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : able to stretch and then return to the original size and shape ▪ a tight stretchy shirt ▪ The fabric is very stretchy.

strew /ˈstru:/ verb strews; strewed; strewed or strewn /ˈstru:n/; strew•ing [+ obj]

1 : to spread or scatter things over or on the ground or some other surface ▪ She strewed the birdseed on the ground. ▪ He strewed fresh hay on the floors of the stable. = He strewed the floors of the stable with fresh hay. — often used as (be) strewed/strewn ▪ The children's toys were strewed [=scattered] all around the room. [=were lying in different places all around the room] ▪ The park was strewn with litter. [=there was litter scattered throughout the park] — often used figuratively ▪ Her stories are strewn with clichés. [=her stories have many clichés]

2 literary : to lie on or cover (something) ▪ Leaves strewed the ground.

stri•at•ed /ˈstraɪˌeɪtəd/ adj, technical : having lines, bands, or grooves ▪ striated muscle tissue

– stri•a•tion /straɪˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

strick•en /ˈstrɪkən/ adj : powerfully affected by disease, trouble, sorrow, etc. ▪ I saw her stricken face looking up at us. — often + by or with ▪ He was too stricken by embarrass-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 197 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

ment to speak. ▪ a nation stricken with grief ▪ She had been stricken with polio as a child. — often used in combination ▪ disease-stricken villages — see also GRIEF-STRICKEN, PANIC-STRICKEN, POVERTY-STRICKEN, [1]STRIKE strict /ˈstrɪkt/ adj strict•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 — used to describe a command, rule, etc., that must be obeyed ▪ strict rules/laws/regulations ▪ They want to impose strict limits on government spending. ▪ We are under strict orders not to leave the prisoner alone.
2 : demanding that people obey rules or behave in a certain way ▪ a strict teacher ▪ Her parents aren't very strict.
3 a : carefully obeying the rules or principles of a religion or a particular way of life ▪ a strict Hindu ▪ a strict vegetarian b : complete or thorough ▪ This project requires strict [=absolute] secrecy. ▪ He insists on strict adherence to the rules.
4 : completely correct : exact or precise ▪ He's not a volunteer in the strict/strictest sense (of the word) [=he is not really a volunteer] because he receives a small stipend.
– strict•ly /ˈstrɪktli/ adv ▪ The speed limit is strictly enforced. ▪ Smoking is strictly forbidden/prohibited. ▪ From a strictly practical perspective, this is the best way of doing things. ▪ She follows a strictly vegetarian diet. ▪ All personal information is kept strictly confidential. ▪ Strictly speaking, the book is not a novel but a series of short stories. – strict•ness /ˈstrɪktnəs/ noun [noncount]

stric•ture /ˈstrɪkʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count] formal
1 : a law or rule that limits or controls something : RESTRICTION ▪ moral strictures — often + against or on ▪ strictures on/against the sale and possession of weapons
2 : a strong criticism — usually plural ▪ I don't agree with all of her strictures on the state of contemporary literature.

[1]stride /ˈstraɪd/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition strides; strode /ˈstroʊd/; strid•den /ˈstrɪdn/; striding /ˈstraɪdɪŋ/ [no obj] : to walk with very long steps ▪ She strode across the room towards me.

[2]stride noun, pl strides [count]
1 a : a long step ▪ She crossed the room in only a few strides. ▪ As he ran down the field, the defender kept up with him stride for stride. [=the defender ran next to him at the same speed] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company has matched its competitors stride for stride. [=has not fallen behind its competitors] b : the distance covered by a long step ▪ He was standing only a few strides away from me.
2 : a way of walking ▪ He has a distinctive bouncy stride. ▪ She entered the room with a confident stride.
3 : a change or improvement that brings someone closer to a goal — usually plural ▪ Great strides [=advances] have been made in the control of tuberculosis. ▪ The patient is making strides toward a complete recovery.
break (your) stride chiefly US : to stop walking or running in a regular and steady way ▪ He caught the ball and passed it to a teammate without breaking stride. — often used figuratively ▪ She graduated from college, went to law school, and without breaking stride joined a successful law firm.
hit your stride (US) or Brit get into your stride : to begin to do something in a confident and effective way after starting slowly ▪ Both teams seem to have hit their stride in the second half.
off stride ✧ If you are walking or running and someone or something (chiefly US) throws/knocks you off (your) stride or (chiefly Brit) puts you off your stride, you are unable to continue walking or running steadily. ▪ Another runner bumped into him and threw/knocked him off his stride. These phrases are often used figuratively. ▪ She was surprised and thrown off stride [=thrown off balance] by the unexpected question. ▪ He was working steadily until an interruption put him off his stride.
take (something) in stride (US) or Brit take (something) in your stride : to deal with (something difficult or upsetting) in a calm way ▪ I thought she'd be upset, but she has taken the news in stride.

stri•dent /ˈstraɪdnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : sounding harsh and unpleasant ▪ The strident tone in his voice revealed his anger. ▪ a strident voice
2 : expressing opinions or criticism in a very forceful and often annoying or unpleasant way ▪ strident critics/slogans – stri•den•cy /ˈstraɪdnsi/ noun [noncount] – stri•dent•ly adv strife /ˈstraɪf/ noun [noncount] formal : very angry or violent disagreement between two or more people or groups ▪ political/religious strife ▪ civil strife

[1]strike /ˈstraɪk/ verb strikes; struck /ˈstrʌk/; struck also strick•en /ˈstrɪkən/; strik•ing /ˈstraɪkɪŋ/
1 [+ obj] a : to hit (someone or something) in a forceful way ▪ The ship struck an iceberg. ▪ The car struck the tree. ▪ The bullet struck him in the leg. ▪ The cyclist was struck by a car. ▪ The tree was struck by lightning. ▪ He fell and his head struck the pavement. ▪ I could hear the rain striking the rooftop. b : to cause (something) to hit something in a forceful way ▪ I struck [=banged, bumped] my knee against the leg of the table. ▪ She struck the cymbals together. c : to hit (someone or something) with your hand, a weapon, etc. ▪ The killer struck him with a blunt object. ▪ She accidentally struck another player in the face.
2 [no obj] : to attack someone or something suddenly ▪ The snake was about to strike. ▪ Police say that the killer may strike again. — often + at ▪ The snake struck at the mouse. ▪ He struck at her with a knife. — often used figuratively ▪ He hurt her feelings by striking at [=attacking, criticizing] her personal beliefs. ▪ The proposed law strikes at the foundations of our democracy.
3 not used in progressive tenses : to affect (someone or something) suddenly in a bad way : to cause damage, harm, illness, etc., to (someone or something) [+ obj] The flu strikes millions of people each year. [=millions of people get sick with the flu each year] ▪ A hurricane struck the island. ▪ The city has been struck by a powerful earthquake. — often used as (be) stricken ▪ He was stricken with a high fever. [no obj] The hurricane is expected to strike tomorrow. ▪ When disaster strikes, will you be prepared? — often used figuratively ▪ The home team struck [=scored] first on the opening drive.
4 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be in a certain condition suddenly — usually used as (be) struck ▪ They were struck speechless with surprise. ▪ He was struck deaf/blind [=he became deaf/blind] at an early age. ▪ I was struck dumb [=dumbstruck] by the news.
5 [+ obj] a : to cause someone to feel (a strong emotion) suddenly — often + in or into ▪ Their war cries struck terror in (the hearts of) their enemies. ▪ Her words struck fear into the hearts of her listeners. b : to affect (someone) with a strong emotion ▪ He was struck with horror at the sight. = The sight struck him with horror.
6 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to happen or exist : to do or achieve (something) ▪ He needs to strike a better balance between his work life and his family life. [=he needs to spend less time at work and more time with his family] ▪ They struck a blow for freedom and against tyranny. [=they did something that helped freedom and opposed tyranny] ▪ Fate has struck a heavy blow against us. = Fate has struck us a heavy blow.
7 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to be thought of by (someone) suddenly : to occur to (someone) ▪ It suddenly struck me [=I realized suddenly] that I would never see her again. ▪ The answer just struck me. ▪ It strikes me [=I realize] that there is a larger issue at stake.
8 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to think about someone or something in a particular way ▪ What really struck me was their enthusiasm. [=I especially noticed their enthusiasm] ▪ It strikes me [=it surprises me] that so few of them were willing to help. — often + as ▪ Her comment struck me as odd. [=her comment seemed odd to me] ▪ She strikes us as a very qualified candidate. [=we think she is a very qualified candidate]
9 [no obj] of a group of workers : to stop work in order to force an employer to agree to demands : to refuse to work until your employer does what you want ▪ The teachers are threatening to strike. [=go on strike] ▪ striking workers — often + for ▪ The workers are striking for an increase in pay.
10 of a clock : to make the time known by making a sound [no obj] The clock struck as they entered the room. [+ obj] The clock struck one.
11 [+ obj] : to cause (a match) to start burning by rubbing it against a surface ▪ She struck a match and lit the candle.
12 [+ obj] : to make (an agreement) ▪ The two parties have finally struck a bargain/deal.
13 [+ obj] : to remove (something) from (something) ▪ She struck the song from the album at the last minute. ▪ He struck [=deleted] the sentence from the paragraph. ▪ The clause has been stricken from the contract.
14 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to find or discover (something) especially by digging ▪ They are hoping to strike oil/gold. — see also STRIKE GOLD (below)
15 [+ obj] : to place yourself in (a particular position, posture, etc.) ▪ She struck [=assumed, took on] a dramatic pose. ▪ He struck a defensive attitude.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 198 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

16 [+ obj] : to play (a note, chord, etc.) on a musical instrument by using your fingers on keys or strings ▪ Fans cheered when he struck the song's opening chords. — often used figuratively ▪ She struck the right note/tone with her speech. [=she said things in a way that appealed to her audience]
17 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to begin to walk or go in a particular direction — usually + off or out ▪ He struck off through the woods. ▪ The men struck out for/toward their campsite when they saw the storm clouds moving in. — see also STRIKE OUT 4 (below)
18 [+ obj] : to make (a coin, medal, etc.) by pressing an image into a piece of metal ▪ The coins were struck in 1789.
be struck by informal : to be very impressed by or pleased with (something or someone) ▪ Visitors are always struck by the beauty of the landscape.
lightning never strikes (the same place) twice see [1]LIGHTNING strike a chord see [2]CHORD strike a nerve see NERVE strike back [phrasal verb] : to try to hurt someone who has hurt you or treated you badly ▪ When he called her lazy, she immediately struck back by calling him fat. — often + at ▪ He angrily struck back at his critics.
strike down [phrasal verb] 1 strike (someone) down a : to make (someone) unable to work, act, or function in the usual way — usually used as (be) struck down ▪ She was struck down by an injury at the height of her athletic career. b : to cause (someone) to die suddenly — usually used as (be) struck down ▪ He was struck down by a heart attack at age 55. 2 strike (something) down or *strike down (something) chiefly US, law : to say officially that (something) is no longer legally valid ▪ The board struck down the appointment. ▪ The Supreme Court struck down the law.
strike gold : to have great success with something ▪ The studio struck gold with their latest film. — see also [1]STRIKE 14 (above) strike home see [2]HOME strike it rich informal : to become rich suddenly ▪ Her family struck it rich when they won the lottery.
strike off [phrasal verb] 1 strike off (something) or *strike (something) off : to draw a line through (a name or item on a list) ▪ The teacher struck off [=crossed out] the names as he called them out. 2 strike off (something) or *strike (something) off : to remove (something) by hitting it with a tool in a forceful way ▪ He struck off the top of the coconut with a machete. 3 strike off (someone) or *strike (someone) off Brit : to remove the name of (someone, such as a doctor or lawyer) from an official register — usually used as (be) struck off ▪ The doctor was struck off for unethical practices. [=the doctor is no longer allowed to practice] — see also [1]STRIKE 17 (above) strike on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 *strike on/upon (something) not used in progressive tenses : to find or discover (something) especially suddenly ▪ He struck on an idea for his novel. ▪ They struck upon a salt mine. 2 *be struck on Brit, informal : to like or be impressed by (someone or something) very much ▪ He was quite struck on her. ▪ She seems to be very struck on herself. [=stuck on herself] strike out [phrasal verb] 1 baseball a strike (someone) out or *strike out (someone) of a pitcher : to cause (a batter) to be out by pitching three strikes ▪ The pitcher struck him out with a curve. ▪ The pitcher struck out the first two batters. b of a batter : to make an out by getting three strikes ▪ The first two batters struck out. — see also STRIKEOUT 2 strike (something) out or *strike out (something) : to remove (something) from a document : DELETE ▪ The editor struck out the last paragraph. 3 US, informal : to be unsuccessful : FAIL ▪ "Did you get her phone number?" "No, I struck out." 4 : to begin a course of action ▪ She struck out on her own after graduation. — see also [1]STRIKE 17 (above) 5 : to try to hit someone or something suddenly ▪ He struck out wildly with his arms. — often + at ▪ He struck out wildly at the police officers. 6 : to make a sudden and angry attack against someone — often + at ▪ Both candidates struck out at their critics.
strike pay dirt see PAY DIRT strike (someone) dead : to kill (someone) in a quick and unexpected way ▪ A bolt of lightning struck him dead.
strike up [phrasal verb] 1 strike up (something) a : to begin to play (a piece of music) ▪ The orchestra struck up a waltz. b : to cause (an orchestra, a band, etc.) to begin playing ▪ The conductor struck up the band. 2 *strike up (something) also strike (something) up : to begin (something) ▪ I struck up a conversation with him at the party. ▪ The two boys struck up a friendship.
strike while the iron is hot : to do something immediately while you still have a good chance to do it ▪ We may not have a chance like this again. We need to strike while the iron is hot.
– see also STRIKING DISTANCE

[2]strike noun, pl strikes
1 : a period of time when workers stop work in order to force an employer to agree to their demands [count] a teachers' strike ▪ a strike by airline pilots [noncount] The workers are on strike. ▪ Workers are threatening to go (out) on strike. = (Brit) Workers are threatening to come out on strike. ▪ Workers threatened to take strike action. — see also HUNGER STRIKE, LIGHTNING STRIKE
2 [count] : a military attack ▪ The allies have launched several strikes. ▪ an air strike [=an attack by aircraft] — see also FIRST STRIKE, SURGICAL STRIKE
3 [count] : the act of hitting something with force ▪ The forest fire was caused by a lightning strike. [=was caused when something on the ground was hit/struck by lightning]
4 [count] a baseball : a pitch that passes through a certain area over home plate without being hit and that counts against the batter ▪ The first pitch was a ball but the next two pitches were strikes. ▪ That's strike two. One more strike and he's out. — see also STRIKE ZONE b US : a perfectly thrown ball or pass ▪ The quarterback threw a strike to the receiver.
5 [count] chiefly US : something that makes someone or something less likely to be accepted, approved, successful, etc. ▪ Her poor attendance was a strike against her. [=her poor attendance counted against her] ▪ He has a criminal record, so that's one strike against him. ▪ I want the job, but I'm young and I don't have much experience, so I feel like I already have two strikes against me.
6 [count] bowling : the achievement of knocking down all 10 pins with the first ball ▪ She made/bowled a strike. — compare [3]SPARE 2 7 [count] : a discovery of something valuable (such as oil) — usually singular ▪ an oil strike

strike•break•er /ˈstraɪkˌbreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is hired to replace a worker who is on strike or who continues to work during a strike – strike•break•ing /ˈstraɪkˌbreɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

strike force noun, pl ~ forces [count]
1 : a military force that is ready to attack
2 US : a team of federal agents assigned to investigate organized crime in a specific area strike•out /ˈstraɪkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] baseball : an out in baseball that occurs when a batter gets three strikes ▪ The pitcher had 10 strikeouts in the game. [=the pitcher struck out 10 batters] — see also strike out at [1]STRIKE

strik•er /ˈstraɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a worker who is on strike
2 : a forward in soccer

strike zone noun
the strike zone baseball : the area over home plate where the baseball must pass after it is pitched in order to be called a strike

strik•ing /ˈstraɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : unusual or extreme in a way that attracts attention ▪ a place of striking [=remarkable] beauty ▪ The poverty of the city is striking. ▪ There is a striking resemblance between the girls. ▪ The building's modern style is/stands in striking contrast to the surrounding neighborhood. [=is very different from the surrounding neighborhood]
2 : very attractive especially in an unusual or interesting way ▪ a striking young man ▪ an actress known for her striking good looks – strik•ing•ly adv ▪ a strikingly beautiful woman ▪ The two islands are strikingly different.

striking distance noun [noncount] : the distance from which something can be easily reached ▪ The snake was within striking distance. ▪ They live within striking distance of the city. [=they live close to the city] — often used figuratively ▪ They were almost within striking distance of their goal. = Their goal was almost within striking distance. [=they were close to achieving their goal]

[1]string /ˈstrɪŋ/ noun, pl strings
1 : a long, thin piece of twisted thread that you use to attach things, tie things together, or hang things [count] She tied a string around the boxes. [noncount] a piece/loop/ball of

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 199 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

string ▪ He tied the packages together with string. — see also APRON STRING, DRAWSTRING, G-STRING, SHOESTRING

2 [count] : a group of objects that are connected with a string, wire, chain, etc. — + of ▪ She was wearing a string of pearls. ▪ We used four strings of Christmas lights to decorate the tree.

3 [count] a : a series of similar things — + of ▪ He owns a string of movie theaters. ▪ a long/whole string of names/numbers b : a series of events which follow each other in time — + of ▪ a string of robberies ▪ The band had a string of hits in the 1990s. c technical : a group of letters, words, or numbers which is treated as a single unit in a computer program ▪ a character string

4 [count] : a long, thin piece of tightly stretched wire or other material (such as nylon) that is used to produce sounds in a musical instrument (such as a violin or piano) ▪ guitar/piano strings — see also THE STRINGS (below)

5 [noncount] chiefly US : a group of players on a team that play together because they have similar abilities ▪ the first/second string of a football team ▪ He was demoted to the second string. — see also FIRST-STRING, SECOND-STRING

6 strings [plural] : requirements that are connected with something : things that you have to do, give, etc., if you accept something (such as a gift or an offer) ▪ She won't accept the gift if there are strings. [=if she is expected to do something in return for it] ▪ They offered her the job with no strings attached. [=with no conditions] ▪ He's generous, but there are always strings attached. [=he always expects something in return for what he gives to people]

7 [count] : a long, thin piece of nylon or other material that is stretched tightly across a tennis racket or similar object have more than one string to your bow Brit : to have more than one idea, skill, plan, etc., that you can use if it is needed ▪ That didn't fix the problem, but I have more than one string to my bow.

have (someone) on a string informal : to be able to make (someone) do anything you want ▪ He has his girlfriend on a string.

how long is a piece of string Brit, informal — used as a reply to a question when the answer is not known ▪ "How long will you be staying?" "How long is a piece of string?"

pull strings : to use the influence that you have with important people to get or achieve something ▪ His father had to pull (some) strings to get him the job.

pull the strings : to control someone or something often in a secret way ▪ It turned out that his brother was the person pulling the strings behind the operation.

purse strings see [1]PURSE

the strings or the string section : the instruments of an orchestra (such as the cello, violin, or piano) that have strings or the musicians who play them ▪ The concert was excellent, especially the strings. ▪ The orchestra's string section is excellent.

[2]string verb strings; strung /ˈstrʌŋ/; string•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (things) together on a string, thread, chain, etc. ▪ string beads ▪ We strung popcorn garlands for the Christmas tree.

2 : to place or hang (things) in a line or series ▪ They strung wires from tree to tree. ▪ We strung [=hung] Christmas lights along the railing. ▪ Scouts strung lanterns along the trail.

3 : to tie, hang, or fasten (something) with string ▪ She strung the key around her neck.

4 : to attach strings to (something, such as a musical instrument or tennis racket) ▪ You'll have to string your guitar/racket before you can play.

string along [phrasal verb] 1 *string (someone) along : to continue to deceive or trick (someone) for a long time ▪ He was just stringing us along with false promises. ▪ He really loved her but she was just stringing him along. [=making him think that she loved him so she could use him] 2 *string along with (someone or something) Brit, informal : to go with or follow (someone or something) ▪ She strung along with them to the museum.

string out [phrasal verb] string (something) out or string out (something) : to make (something) take longer than it should ▪ You're just stringing this out to avoid having to leave. — see also STRUNG OUT string together [phrasal verb] string (something) together or string together (something) : to combine (different things) into something that is complete, useful, etc. ▪ See if you can string the theories together into something that makes sense. ▪ The filmmaker strung together interviews with a number of experts on the subject. : to create (something) by putting different things together ▪ She was finding it hard to string together a coherent argument.

string up [phrasal verb] string (someone) up or string up (someone) informal : to hang (someone) by the neck : to kill (someone) by hanging ▪ They threatened to string him up in a tree.

string bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] chiefly US

1 : a type of long, thin green bean

2 informal : a very tall thin person ▪ Her boyfriend's a real string bean.

string cheese noun [noncount] chiefly US : cheese that can be pulled apart in narrow strips stringed instrument /ˈstrɪŋd-/ noun, pl ~ -ment [count] : a musical instrument (such as a guitar, violin, or piano) that has strings and that produces sound when the strings are touched or struck strin•gent /ˈstrɪnʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very strict or severe ▪ stringent training ▪ stringent budgetary constraints — used to describe a command, rule, etc., that must be obeyed ▪ stringent rules/requirements/restrictions/standards — strin•gen•cy /ˈstrɪnʤənsi/ noun [noncount] — strin•gent•ly adv ▪ The rule is stringently applied/enforced.

string•er /ˈstrɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a journalist who is not on the regular staff of a newspaper but who writes stories for that newspaper

stringy /ˈstrɪŋi/ adj string•i•er; -est

1 : containing long, thin pieces that are like string and that are hard to chew ▪ stringy vegetables ▪ a tough, stringy piece of meat

2 of hair : long, thin, and dirty ▪ a stringy beard

3 : having long, thin muscles ▪ stringy arms ▪ a stringy woman — string•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]strip noun, pl strips

1 [count] : a long, narrow piece of something ▪ strips of bacon ▪ a small strip of cloth/paper

2 [count] : a long, narrow piece of land ▪ a strip of land ▪ strips of forest/coastline ▪ the half-mile strip of road — see also DRAG STRIP, MEDIAN STRIP, RUMBLE STRIP

3 [count] US : a road that has a lot of shops, restaurants, etc., along it ▪ driving along the strip ▪ the Las Vegas strip

4 [count] : AIRSTRIP

5 [count] : COMIC STRIP ▪ Peanuts has always been one of my favorite strips.

6 [singular] Brit : the uniform worn by a sports team ▪ the

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 200 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

team's away strip [=the uniform that the team wears when it is not playing at its home field, stadium, etc.]

7 [count] Brit : the act of taking your clothes off in a sexually exciting way while someone is watching ▪ She did a strip [=striptease] for her husband.

tear (someone) off a strip or tear a strip off (someone) Brit, informal : to talk angrily to (someone who has done something wrong) ▪ His dad tore him off a strip for denting the car.

– see also POWER STRIP

[2]strip /ˈstrɪp/ verb strips; stripped; strip•ping

1 a : to remove your clothing [no obj] I stripped for bed. ▪ He stripped to the waist. [=he took off all the clothes on his upper body] ▪ The prisoners were told to strip naked. [=remove all their clothes] — often + down ▪ He stripped down to his underwear. [=he took all his clothes off except for his underwear] [+ obj] He stripped himself down to his underwear. b [+ obj] : to take the clothes off (someone) ▪ The prisoners were stripped naked. c [no obj] : to remove your clothing in a sexually exciting way while someone is watching ▪ She gets paid to dance and strip at the club.

2 [+ obj] : to remove an outer covering or surface from something ▪ strip the bark from a tree = strip a tree of its bark ▪ We are going to strip [=remove] the old wallpaper. ▪ They stripped the table and refinished it. ▪ Please strip your bed [=remove all the sheets] so I can wash the sheets.

3 [+ obj] : to remove everything (such as furniture or equipment) from (a room, building, car, etc.) ▪ They stripped the room when they left. ▪ The building had been completely stripped of its original woodwork.

4 [+ obj] : to separate (a machine or piece of equipment) into parts for cleaning or repair ▪ strip a rifle — often + down ▪ They stripped down the engine.

5 [+ obj] : to take (something) away from someone in a forceful way — + of ▪ They stripped the slaves of their dignity. — often + away ▪ Their rights were stripped away. — often used as (be) stripped ▪ The pageant winner was stripped of her crown/title after the scandal. [=she was forced to give up her crown/title after the scandal]

6 [+ obj] : to damage part of a screw or gear so that it does not work properly ▪ Pushing too hard will strip the screw.

strip away [phrasal verb] strip (something) away or strip away (something) 1 : to remove (something that covers a surface) : to pull pieces of a covering away from a surface ▪ strip away the bark of a tree 2 : to remove (unimportant material) from something ▪ The editor stripped away repetitive sections of the essay. — see also [2]STRIP 5 (above)

strip cartoon noun, pl ~ -toons [count] Brit : COMIC STRIP strip club noun, pl ~ clubs [count] informal : a place where people go to watch performers take their clothes off in a sexually exciting way : a nightclub with performances by strippers — called also (US) strip joint stripe /straɪp/ noun, pl stripes [count]

1 : a long, narrow line of color ▪ light gray stripes on a black background ▪ a zebra's stripes — see also PINSTRIPE, STARS AND STRIPES

2 : a piece of material worn on the arm of a military uniform to show the rank of the person wearing the uniform ▪ He finally got his sergeant's stripes.

3 : a particular type of person or thing ▪ classes for artists of all stripes [=for all kinds of artists] ▪ activists of any/every stripe earn your stripes : to do something which shows that you deserve to be accepted and respected by the other people in a field or profession ▪ She has yet to earn her stripes as a reporter.

striped /straɪpt/ adj : having stripes or bands of color ▪ a striped shirt — see color picture on page C12

stripey variant spelling of STRIPY

strip lighting noun [noncount] Brit : a type of lighting that uses long white tubes ▪ The bright strip lighting in the office was not very flattering.

– strip light noun, pl ~ lights [count]

strip•ling /ˈstrɪplɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] old-fashioned + humorous : a boy or young man ▪ I've known him since he was a mere stripling. [=since he was very young] strip mall noun, pl ~ malls [count] US : a long building that is divided into separate shops which usually have outside entrances and which share a parking lot strip mine noun, pl ~ mines [count] : a mine that is dug by removing the surface of a large piece of land one section at a time

– strip–mine verb -mines; -mined; -min•ing [+ obj] ▪ a region where coal is strip-mined

strip•per /ˈstrɪpə/ noun, pl -pers

1 [count] : a performer who removes his or her clothing in a sexually exciting way : a dancer who does a striptease ▪ She worked as a stripper for a few years.

2 a [count] : a tool that you use to remove something (such as paint) from a surface b [count, noncount] : a liquid chemical that you use to remove something (such as paint) from a surface ▪ a can of paint stripper strip search noun, pl ~ searches [count] : an act of removing someone's clothing to see if that person is hiding illegal drugs, weapons, etc. ▪ The administrators ordered random strip searches of all prisoners.

– strip–search verb -search•es; -searched; -search•ing [+ obj] ▪ They were strip-searched at the airport.

strip•tease /ˈstrɪpˌtiːz/ noun, pl -teas•es [count] : a performance in which someone removes clothing in a sexually exciting way

stripy or strip•ey /ˈstraɪpi/ adj strip•i•er; -est Brit, informal : STRIPED ▪ stripy shirts strive /ˈstraɪv/ verb strives; strove /ˈstroʊv/ also strived; striv•en /ˈstraɪvən/ or strived; striv•ing [no obj] formal : to try very hard to do or achieve something ▪ We must all strive to do better. ▪ She always strives for perfection. ▪ They strove for success. = They strove to succeed. ▪ They continue to strive toward their goals. ▪ striving against injustice [=working hard to fight injustice] synonyms see [1]ATTEMPT

– striv•er /ˈstraɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

strobe light /ˈstroʊb-/ noun, pl ~ lights [count] : a bright light that flashes on and off very quickly strode past tense of [1]STRIDE

[1]stroke /stroʊk/ noun, pl strokes

1 [count] medical : a serious illness caused when a blood vessel in your brain suddenly breaks or is blocked ▪ He had/suffered a stroke last winter. ▪ a stroke patient/victim — see also SUNSTROKE

2 [count] a : an act of hitting a ball or the movement made to hit a ball during a game ▪ She has a strong backhand stroke. ▪ a forceful stroke — see also GROUND STROKE b golf : an act of hitting the ball that is counted as part of a player's score ▪ He is ahead by two strokes.

3 [count] a : one of a series of repeated movements of your arms in swimming or rowing that you make to move yourself or the boat through the water ▪ She swims with long, smooth strokes. ▪ the stroke of an oar b : a style of swimming ▪ She knows the four basic strokes. — see also BACKSTROKE, BREASTSTROKE

4 [count] : one of a series of repeated movements by something that goes up and down or back and forth ▪ The bird soared higher with each stroke of its wings. ▪ the stroke of a piston

5 [count] : an act of hitting someone or something with a stick, whip, etc. ▪ a stroke of the whip

6 [count] : a gentle movement of your hand over or along something ▪ She gave the cat a stroke. [=she stroked the cat]

7 [count] : a single act of moving a pen or brush when it is being used to write or paint ▪ He writes with smooth strokes. ▪ You can see the strokes of the painter's brush throughout the painting. ▪ (figurative) He has the power to end this policy with a (single) stroke of a/the/his pen. [=by signing a law, order, etc., which ends it]; also : a line or mark made by a pen or brush ▪ A few strokes (of paint) form the basic shape of the horse. — see also BRUSHSTROKE, KEYSTROKE

8 a [count] : one of the sounds made by a clock or bell to indicate a particular time ▪ the first stroke of the clock at midnight b [singular] : an exact time ▪ They arrived at the stroke of midnight. [=exactly at midnight]

9 [count] : a single decisive action ▪ She solved all our problems with a single, brilliant/bold stroke. ▪ We can resolve this at/by/in/with one stroke.

10 [count] : something good, lucky, etc., that happens or is thought of suddenly — usually singular ▪ Her idea for the design for the interior was a stroke of inspiration. ▪ It was only by a stroke of luck that we found a parking spot. ▪ It was a lucky stroke. ▪ Deciding to relocate the company was a stroke of genius. [=a brilliant idea]

11 [count] : a bright flash of lightning ▪ a stroke of lightning

a stroke of work informal : any work at all ▪ They haven't done a stroke of work all day.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 201 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

put (someone) off their stroke Brit : to cause someone to hesitate or be confused ▪ The last-minute change of plans put me off my stroke.

[2]stroke verb strokes; stroked; strok•ing [+ obj]
1 : to move your hand over (someone or something) gently and in one direction ▪ She was stroking the cat's fur.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to move (something) gently in one direction ▪ He stroked the pen lightly over the paper. b : to hit or kick (a ball) with a smooth movement ▪ She stroked the ball toward the hole.
3 chiefly US, informal : to say nice things to (someone) in order to get approval, agreement, etc. ▪ You're just stroking me so I'll go along with you. ▪ She works with celebrities and spends half her time stroking their egos.
– strok•er noun, pl -ers [count]

stroll /ˈstroʊl/ verb strolls; strolled; stroll•ing : to walk slowly in usually a pleasant and relaxed way [no obj] They strolled along/down/across the street looking in the store windows. [+ obj] We strolled the streets of the village.
– stroll noun, pl strolls [count] ▪ He went for a stroll in/through the park.

stroll•er /ˈstroʊlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 US : a small carriage with four wheels that a baby or small child can ride in while someone pushes it — called also (Brit) pushchair
2 : someone who is walking in a slow and relaxed way : someone who is strolling ▪ I met a few strollers on the beach.

strong /ˈstrɑːŋ/ adj strong•er /ˈstrɑːŋgə/; strong•est /ˈstrɑːŋgəst/
1 : having great physical power and ability : having a lot of strength ▪ a big strong kid ▪ an athlete with strong muscles/legs ▪ He's as strong as an ox. — opposite WEAK
2 : not easy to break or damage ▪ The table should be strong enough to survive the trip. ▪ The builder added supports to make the walls stronger.
3 : not sick or injured : HEALTHY ▪ He'll return to work when he's feeling a little stronger.
4 : very noticeable ▪ He speaks with a strong accent. ▪ She has strong features like her father. ▪ He bears a strong resemblance to his father.
5 : having great power or force ▪ a strong breeze/wind ▪ a good strong kick
6 a : very powerful in action or effect ▪ Morphine is a strong drug. ▪ a strong detergent ▪ He needs strong glasses for reading. b : having a powerful and sometimes unpleasant taste or smell ▪ strong cheese ▪ The spices are too strong for me. ▪ a strong perfume ▪ A strong smell came from the basement.
7 : containing a large amount of an important ingredient (such as alcohol) ▪ I could use a strong drink. ▪ She drank nothing stronger than iced tea. ▪ a strong cup of coffee
8 : having a lot of power or influence ▪ a strong leader/government
9 : likely to persuade or convince people that something is true, real, correct, etc. ▪ He made a strong [=compelling, persuasive] argument/case for keeping the center open. ▪ strong evidence
10 : very confident and able to deal with difficult situations ▪ a strong character/personality ▪ I don't think I'm strong enough to handle this by myself. ▪ Her spirit remained strong throughout her illness.
11 : felt, believed, or expressed in a very definite and powerful way ▪ an especially strong conviction/commitment ▪ She is a woman of strong and independent opinions. ▪ a strong desire/liking/hatred ▪ He has a strong sense of responsibility. ▪ I had a strong desire/temptation/urge to call him. ▪ He has a strong need for control. ▪ The proposal has faced strong opposition. ▪ He thanked them for their strong support.
12 : powerful and effective in supporting something, opposing something, etc. ▪ She is a strong advocate for child welfare. ▪ a strong opponent of the proposal
13 : well established and likely to continue ▪ strong traditions ▪ strong friendships/relationships/ties
14 : likely to succeed or to happen ▪ a strong candidate/contender ▪ There is a strong [=very good] possibility/chance that he will be promoted.
15 a : great in number ▪ There was a strong turnout for the election. [=a large number of people voted in the election] b — used to indicate the number of people in a large group ▪ The army was ten thousand strong. [=there were 10,000 soldiers in the army]
16 a : having a value that is great or that is increasing ▪ The dollar has been strong. b : in a good financial condition : doing well ▪ The business remains strong despite the setbacks. ▪ The economy is strong.
17 : very forceful and sometimes obscene or offensive ▪ The movie contains some strong language. [=swearing]
18 : very bright ▪ She likes strong colors. ▪ a strong light a bit strong Brit, informal : unfair or too critical ▪ Weren't you a bit strong on him?
a strong stomach see [1]STOMACH come on strong see [1]COME going strong : very active, healthy, or successful ▪ The company has been going strong for nearly a century. ▪ He's 92 years old and still going strong.
strong on 1 : very good at (something) ▪ She's strong on vocabulary but not grammar. ▪ The author is not strong on characterization. 2 : containing a lot of (something) ▪ The explanation was strong on detail.
– strong•ly /ˈstrɑːŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ I feel very strongly about this. ▪ She spoke strongly against the idea. ▪ I strongly agree/disagree with her. ▪ I strongly advise you to see a doctor. ▪ The kitchen smelled strongly of baking. ▪ strongly flavored ▪ a strongly worded letter of complaint

[1]strong–arm /ˈstrɑːŋˈɑəm/ adj, always used before a noun : using force or threats to make someone do what is wanted ▪ They accused the government of using strong-arm tactics to silence its opponents.

[2]strong–arm verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing [+ obj] : to use force or threats to make (someone) do what is wanted ▪ She strong-armed us into cooperating.

strong•box /ˈstrɑːŋˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a box that is usually made of metal, that can be locked, and that is used to keep money or valuable things : SAFE strong•hold /ˈstrɑːŋˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count]

1 : an area where most people have the same beliefs, values, etc. : an area dominated by a particular group ▪ The area/district/state is a Republican stronghold.
2 : a protected place where the members of a military group stay and can defend themselves against attacks ▪ The rebels retreated to their mountain stronghold.
3 : an area where a particular type of uncommon animal can still be found ▪ the last stronghold of the endangered deer strong•man /ˈstrɑːŋˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count]

1 : a politician or leader who uses violence or threats
2 : a man who performs in a circus and who is very strong strong–mind•ed /ˈstrɑːŋˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having very strong and definite beliefs and opinions : not easily influenced ▪ a strong-minded woman ▪ He is the most strong-minded child I have ever known.

– strong–mind•ed•ly adv – strong–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount] strong room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a special room in a bank where money and other valuable things can be kept safe strong suit noun [singular] : something that a person does well — often used in negative statements ▪ Irony is not my strong suit. ▪ Swimming has never been his strong suit.

strong–willed adj [more ~; most ~] : very determined to do something even if other people say it should not be done ▪ two strong-willed children

stron•tium /ˈstrɑːnʃiəm/ noun [noncount] : a soft silver-white metal that is used in color TV tubes and red fireworks

strop /ˈstrɑːp/ noun, pl strops
1 [count] : a narrow piece of leather that is used for sharpening a razor
2 [singular] Brit, informal : a bad mood ▪ He gets in a strop if he has to wait for someone.

strop•py /ˈstrɑːpi/ adj strop•pi•er; -est Brit, informal : easily annoyed and difficult to deal with ▪ There's no need to get stroppy with me.
– strop•pi•ness noun [noncount]

strove past tense of STRIVE struck past tense and past participle of [1]STRIKE

struc•tur•al /ˈstrʌktʃərəl/ adj, always used before a noun : relating to the way something is built or organized : relating to the structure of something ▪ The house suffered no structural damage. ▪ structural defects/weaknesses – struc•tur•al•ly adv ▪ The building is structurally sound.

[1]struc•ture /ˈstrʌktʃə/ noun, pl -tures
1 [count] a : the way that something is built, arranged, or organized ▪ They studied the compound's molecular structure. ▪ The film had a simple narrative structure. ▪ the structure of a plant b : the way that a group of people are organized ▪ a solid family structure ▪ the social structure of a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 202 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

college campus ▪ changes to the company's power structure

2 [count] : something (such as a house, tower, bridge, etc.) that is built by putting parts together and that usually stands on its own ▪ a brick/steel structure ▪ The structure was damaged by fire. ▪ a 12-story structure

3 [noncount] : the quality of something that is carefully planned, organized, and controlled ▪ The novel lacks structure. ▪ Children need a lot of structure in their lives.

[2]structure verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj] : to arrange or organize (something) in a particular way ▪ She structured the essay chronologically. ▪ The story is structured [=built] around several main themes.

stru•del /ˈstru:dl/ noun, pl -dels [count, noncount] : a German pastry made of thin dough rolled up with fruit filling and baked ▪ apple strudel

[1]strug•gle /ˈstrʌgəl/ verb strug•gles; strug•gled; strug•gling [no obj]

1 : to try very hard to do, achieve, or deal with something that is difficult or that causes problems ▪ He has been struggling with the problem of how to keep good workers from leaving. ▪ They struggled for the right to vote. ▪ She is struggling with her health. [=she is having problems with her health] ▪ They struggled against injustice. ▪ I had to struggle against the impulse to laugh. [=I had to make a strong effort to keep myself from laughing] — often followed by to + verb ▪ She's struggling to survive. ▪ He was struggling to breathe. ▪ They have been struggling to pay their bills.

2 a : to move with difficulty or with great effort ▪ She struggled up the hill through the snow. b : to try to move yourself, an object, etc., by making a lot of effort ▪ She struggled to lift the package by herself, but it was too heavy. ▪ He struggled to get free of the wreckage. ▪ She was struggling with the door. [=trying to open the door] c : to fight with someone in order to get something ▪ They struggled (with each other) for/over the gun. [=they fought with each other as they each tried to get the gun]

3 : to be failing : to be doing something without success ▪ He's been struggling in math class for most of the year. ▪ The team has continued to struggle in recent weeks. ▪ He was living as a struggling artist in the city.

struggle on [phrasal verb] : to continue doing something that is difficult or tiring ▪ I suppose all we can do now is struggle on.

– strug•gler /ˈstrʌglə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]struggle noun, pl struggles

1 [count] : a long effort to do, achieve, or deal with something that is difficult or that causes problems ▪ a struggle to succeed ▪ a struggle against injustice [=an effort to stop injustice] ▪ the struggle for civil rights/freedom/survival ▪ She talked about her struggles with depression. [=the problems she has had because of her depression; her attempts to find a cure for her depression] ▪ The power struggle [=the fight for control] between the two owners destroyed the company.

2 [count] : a physical fight between usually two people ▪ There was a struggle for/over the gun. ▪ There was no sign of a struggle.

3 [singular] : something that is difficult to do or achieve ▪ The work is a real struggle for me. [=the work is very difficult] ▪ It was a struggle getting out of bed this morning.

strum /ˈstrʌm/ verb strums; strummed; strum•ming [+ obj]

1 : to play (a guitar or similar instrument) by moving your fingers across the strings ▪ She strummed the guitar/banjo.

2 : to play (music) on a guitar, banjo, etc., by moving your fingers over the strings ▪ He strummed a tune on the guitar.

– strum•mer noun, pl -ers [count]

strum•pet /ˈstrʌmpət/ noun, pl -pets [count] old-fashioned + offensive : a woman who has sex with men for money or who has sex with many men strung past tense and past participle of [2]STRING strung out adj

1 [more ~; most ~] informal : strongly affected by an illegal drug — often + on ▪ They were strung out on heroin.

2 : spread out with spaces between ▪ stars strung out across the galaxy strung up adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : very nervous, excited, or worried ▪ Don't get so strung up about everything.

[1]strut /ˈstrʌt/ verb struts; strut•ted; strut•ting [no obj] : to walk in a confident and proud way ▪ She strutted across the stage.

strut your stuff informal : to proudly show your abilities ▪ The audition gave aspiring actors a chance to strut their stuff.

– strut•ter noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]strut noun, pl struts

1 [count] : a long, thin piece of wood or metal used for support in a building, vehicle, etc.

2 [singular] : a proud and confident walk ▪ the strut of a supermodel strych•nine /ˈstrɪkˌnaɪn/ noun [noncount] : a poisonous substance that can be used in very small amounts as a medicine

[1]stub /ˈstʌb/ noun, pl stubs [count]

1 : a short part left after a larger part has been broken off or used up ▪ a pencil stub

2 : a part of a ticket that is kept by the person who uses the ticket ▪ Hold onto your ticket stub in case you leave the theater and want to come back in again.

3 : a piece of paper that is attached to a check and has information (such as the amount and the date) printed on it ▪ a check stub — see also PAY STUB

[2]stub verb stubs; stubbed; stub•bing [+ obj] : to put out (a cigarette) by pressing it down against something — usually + out ▪ He stubbed his cigarette out in/on the ashtray.

stub your toe : to hurt your toe by hitting it against something ▪ She stubbed her toe against/on the leg of the chair.

stub•ble /ˈstʌbəl/ noun [noncount]

1 : short hairs growing from the face of a man who has not shaved very recently ▪ He ran his hand over his stubble. — see picture at BEARD

2 : the short ends of crops left in the ground after the crops have been cut down

– stub•bled /ˈstʌbəld/ adj ▪ his stubbled chin ▪ We drove past stubbled fields. – stub•bly /ˈstʌbəli/ adj ▪ a stubbly beard

stub•born /ˈstʌbən/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : refusing to change your ideas or to stop doing something ▪ She's wrong, but she's too stubborn to admit it. ▪ I admire his stubborn refusal to quit. ▪ She has a stubborn streak. [=she is often stubborn] ▪ He's (as) stubborn as a mule. [=he's very/extremely stubborn]

2 : difficult to deal with, remove, etc. ▪ stubborn hair ▪ trying to treat a stubborn infection ▪ a stubborn stain

– stub•born•ly adv ▪ She stubbornly refused to move. ▪ The fever persisted stubbornly. – stub•born•ness /ˈstʌbənnəs/ noun [noncount]

stub•by /ˈstʌbi/ adj stub•bi•er; -est : short and thick ▪ hands with thick stubby fingers ▪ My dog has a short stubby tail. ▪ stubby legs

stuc•co /ˈstʌkoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a type of plaster used for decoration or to cover the outside walls of houses

– stuc•coed /ˈstʌkoʊd/ adj ▪ stuccoed buildings/ceilings/walls

[1]stuck /ˈstʌk/ adj, not used before a noun

1 a : difficult or impossible to move from a position ▪ The ring is stuck on my finger. ▪ The zipper is stuck. ▪ The door keeps getting stuck. ▪ The elevator got stuck on the fifth floor. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He's an old man and stuck in his ways. [=completely unwilling to change his ways of doing or thinking about things] ▪ The song is stuck in my head. [=I keep hearing the song over and over again in my head] b : in a place or situation that is difficult or impossible to get out of ▪ The car was stuck in the mud. ▪ We were stuck there for three days because of bad weather. ▪ She was stuck in an awful marriage. ▪ I was stuck at the office all day. ▪ stuck at home with nothing to do ▪ I got stuck in traffic. c : forced to keep or deal with someone or something unpleasant ▪ We're stuck with this old sofa that nobody wants. ▪ I was stuck washing dishes. = I got stuck washing dishes. — see also stick with at [2]STICK

2 informal : unable to think of a solution, an idea, etc. ▪ I'm stuck. Can you help me? ▪ I'm stuck on this math problem. ▪ I got stuck on the very first problem. ▪ If you're stuck for ideas, I can help. ▪ (chiefly Brit) She's never stuck for words. [=lost for words] get stuck in/into Brit, informal : to start doing something with a lot of energy ▪ Grab a plate and get stuck in.

stuck on informal : loving or admiring someone foolishly or too much ▪ He was stuck on her for a while in high school. ▪ She is stuck on herself. [=stuck-up]

[2]stuck past tense and past participle of [2]STICK stuck–up /ˈstʌkˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : acting unfriendly towards other people because you think you are

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 203 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

better than they are : CONCEITED ▪ They're just stuck-up people with too much money.

[1]stud /ˈstʌd/ noun, pl studs
1 : a male animal (such as a horse) kept for breeding [count] retired racehorses being used as studs [noncount] retired racehorses at stud ▪ a horse that has been put out to stud
2 [count] informal : a very attractive and masculine man : a man who has sexual relations with many women ▪ She left her husband and ran off with some young stud.
– compare [2]STUD

[2]stud noun, pl studs [count]
1 US : one of the upright pieces of wood that are used to build the frame of a wall
2 : a small metal knob that is used for decoration ▪ a belt decorated with silver studs
3 : a small metal object used as a clothing fastener or for decoration ▪ shirt studs
4 : a small piece of jewelry that is attached through a hole in part of a person's body (such as an ear) ▪ She was wearing diamond studs. — see color picture on page C11
5 : one of the short pieces of metal or rubber on the surface of a snow tire
– compare [1]STUD

[3]stud verb studs; stud•ded; stud•ding [+ obj] : to decorate or cover (something) with many small items ▪ Beads stud the surface of the gown. — often used figuratively ▪ Bright stars studded the sky.

studded adj : covered or decorated with many small parts or pieces ▪ a studded tire ▪ a gown studded with jewels — often used figuratively ▪ a sky studded with stars ▪ a career studded with honors — sometimes used in combination ▪ celebrity-studded shows [=shows that have many celebrities]

stu•dent /ˈstu:dnt, Brit ˈstju:dnt/ noun, pl -dents [count]
1 : a person who attends a school, college, or university ▪ a high school student ▪ a group of college students ▪ She is a student at Georgetown University. ▪ She is a student [=pupil] at our local elementary school. — often used before another noun ▪ student athletes/groups/leaders/loans/trips — see also MATURE STUDENT 2 : a person who studies something — + of ▪ She is a student of human nature.

student body noun, pl ~ -ies [count] : the students at a school ▪ The school has a large student body. [=a large number of students attend the school] student council noun, pl ~ -cils [count] : a group of students who are elected to help plan activities and to organize and manage life at school for other students student driver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : someone who is learning to drive a car — called also (Brit) learner, (Brit) learner driver student government noun, pl ~ -ments : a group of students in a school who are elected to help plan activities and to organize and manage life at school for other students [count] She was president of the student government. [noncount] He is active in student government.

student teacher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a student who is learning how to teach and practicing teaching for the first time – student teaching noun [noncount] ▪ Where did you do your student teaching?

student union (chiefly US) or Brit students' union noun, pl ~ unions [count]
1 : a building at a college or university that is used for students' social activities
2 Brit : an association of students at a college or university

stu•died /ˈstʌdid/ adj
1 : carefully thought out or prepared : THOUGHTFUL ▪ She gave a studied response.
2 : done deliberately ▪ a studied insult ▪ He viewed us with a studied indifference.

stu•dio /ˈstu:di,oʊ, Brit ˈstju:di,əʊ/ noun, pl -dios [count]
1 : the building or room where an artist works
2 : a place where people go to learn, practice, or study an art (such as singing, dancing, or acting)
3 a : a place where movies are made b : a company that makes movies ▪ the president of a major Hollywood studio
4 : a place where radio or television programs are broadcast
5 : a place where music is recorded
6 : STUDIO APARTMENT ▪ I rented a studio in the city.

studio apartment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : a small apartment that has a main room, a very small kitchen, and a bathroom — called also studio, (Brit) studio flat

stu•di•ous /ˈstu:dijəs, Brit ˈstju:diəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very serious about studying, reading, learning, etc. ▪ a studious child ▪ studious habits
2 : very careful and serious ▪ He made a studious effort to obey the rules. ▪ studious avoidance of trouble
– stu•di•ous•ly adv ▪ They did the homework assignment studiously. ▪ She has been studiously avoiding/ignoring me.
– stu•di•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The teacher complimented the student on her studiousness.

stud•ly /ˈstʌdli/ adj stud•li•er; -est US slang, of a man : very attractive and masculine ▪ a studly [=hunky] actor

[1]study /ˈstʌdi/ noun, pl stud•ies
1 : the activity or process of learning about something by reading, memorizing facts, attending school, etc. [noncount] Becoming a doctor requires years of study. ▪ You can improve your knowledge of the natural world by study and observation. ▪ She is engaged in the study of law. [=she is studying law] ▪ You can design your own course of study. [=you can choose the subjects you will study] [plural] She will return to her studies after vacation. ▪ He left the service to pursue his studies.
2 a [count] : an area of learning taught in a school : SUBJECT — usually plural ▪ literary/American/women's studies — see also SOCIAL STUDIES b [singular] : something that a person studies or gives attention to ▪ Their habits make an interesting study. [=it is interesting to study their habits] ▪ She has made a study of the problem. [=she has studied the problem]
3 [count] a : an organized experiment in which many things are looked at, measured, recorded, etc., in order to learn more about something ▪ The agency conducted an environmental study. ▪ He took part in a study of childhood obesity. b : a report or publication based on a study ▪ The study of the new drug will be published next year.
4 [count] : a quiet room in someone's home for reading, writing, etc. ▪ She spent the evening reading in her/the study.
5 [singular] US : a person who learns or memorizes something ▪ He's a fast/quick study. [=he learns things quickly] ▪ When it comes to computers, I'm a slow study.
6 [singular] : something or someone that clearly has or shows a particular quality or feature ▪ The evening was a study in contrasts. [=some parts of the evening were very different from other parts] ▪ He was a study in concentration as he gazed at the computer screen.
7 [count] art : an artistic work that deals with a particular subject and that is done especially to prepare for a larger work
8 [count] music : a musical composition that is created for the practice of a particular technique under study : being thought about and considered so that a decision can be made : being studied ▪ The proposal is under study.

[2]study verb studies; stud•ied; study•ing
1 : to read, memorize facts, attend school, etc., in order to learn about a subject [no obj] She studied hard. ▪ Did you study for the test? ▪ She's studying to be a teacher. [+ obj] He is studying music.
2 [+ obj] a : to give careful attention to (something) ▪ I studied the request carefully. ▪ She was studying his face for a reaction. ▪ The proposal was studied in great detail. b : to conduct an organized experiment in order to learn more about (something) ▪ The effects of the drug have never been thoroughly studied.

study hall noun, pl ~ halls US : a time during the school day when a student is expected to go to a particular room in the school to study or to complete work assigned in other classes [noncount] I have study hall next period. ▪ She got in trouble for talking in/during study hall. [count] a required study hall ▪ My study hall starts at 11:04.

[1]stuff /ˈstʌf/ noun [noncount]
1 informal a : materials, supplies, or equipment ▪ She got out the cooking stuff to bake some cookies. ▪ computers, word processors, and stuff like that ▪ I need a place to store my stuff. b : a group or pile of things that are not specifically described ▪ Pick that stuff up off the floor.
2 informal — used to refer to something when you do not need to name exactly what it is ▪ They sold tons of the stuff. ▪ Trust me. This stuff works. ▪ That stuff's expensive. ▪ She wears cool stuff. ▪ They're giving away free stuff at the door. ▪ I didn't like her early books, but her recent stuff is very good. ▪ The stuff he says about me is just not true. ▪ I drink wine and beer occasionally, but I never touch the hard stuff.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 204 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[=hard liquor; alcoholic drinks like whiskey, vodka, etc.] — see also HOT STUFF, KID STUFF

3 informal — used to speak in a general way about something that is talked about, written about, etc. ▪ There's some fascinating stuff in this book. ▪ I can't believe the stuff teenagers talk about.

4 informal — used to describe the quality of a performance, experience, etc. ▪ The presentation of facts in history can be pretty dull stuff. [=can be pretty dull] ▪ This is great stuff [=is very enjoyable] for music fans.

5 informal : actions or behavior of a particular kind ▪ How do they get away with such stuff? ▪ Don't try any funny stuff. ▪ There's all this crazy stuff going on. ▪ He does stuff that bugs his parents.

6 : personality or character ▪ He's a coward but his brother is made of sterner/tougher stuff. [=his brother is a stronger/tougher person] ▪ A person who has the right stuff [=who has the necessary personal qualities] will do well here.

7 : the material that something is made of ▪ The floor tiles are made of very tough stuff. — often used figuratively ▪ He has the stuff of greatness. [=he has the qualities that can make a person great] ▪ Her partying became the stuff of legend. [=became very famous or legendary]

8 baseball : the ability to throw pitches that are hard to hit ▪ a pitcher with good stuff

and stuff informal — used in speech to refer to things that are similar to the thing just mentioned ▪ They asked me about my plans for the future and stuff. ▪ The store sells TVs and stereos and stuff (like that).

do your stuff informal : to do the things that you are able to do well : to do things that you are known for doing ▪ You'll succeed if you just get out there and do your stuff.

know your stuff informal : to be an expert at something ▪ When it comes to gardening, she really knows her stuff. [=she knows a lot about gardening] show your stuff informal : to show what you are able to do : to show your skills ▪ The competition gives young performers a chance to show their stuff.

strut your stuff see [1]STRUT

[2]stuff verb stuffs; stuffed; stuff•ing [+ obj]

1 : to fill (something) so that there is no room for anything else ▪ The boy stuffed his pockets with candy. ▪ She stuffed the laundry bag full. — often used figuratively ▪ The book is stuffed [=filled] with information. ▪ The students were stuffing their heads with facts.

2 : to push (something) quickly and carelessly into a small space — usually + into ▪ The boy stuffed the candy into his pockets. ▪ He tried to stuff [=cram] all his clothes into one suitcase.

3 : to put a seasoned mixture of food into (something that is being cooked) ▪ stuff a turkey ▪ stuff a pepper

4 : to fill the skin of (a dead animal) so that it looks the way it did when it was alive — often used as (be) stuffed ▪ He had the deer's head stuffed.

stuff it informal — used as an angry and rude way to say that you do not want something or are not interested in something ▪ When they offered me the job I told them they could stuff it.

stuff the ballot box see BALLOT BOX stuff yourself or stuff your face informal + often disapproving : to eat a large amount of food ▪ They stuffed themselves with pizza.

stuffed adj

1 not used before a noun : filled with food : not hungry any more ▪ "Would you like another piece of pie?" "No, thanks. I'm stuffed."

2 : filled with mucus because of illness ▪ My nose is stuffed (up). = I'm (all) stuffed up. ▪ a stuffed (up) nose get stuffed chiefly Brit, informal — used as an angry and rude way to tell someone to go away or to leave you alone ▪ When they refused to consider him for the promotion he told them they could get stuffed.

stuffed animal noun, pl ~ -mals [count] US : a toy in the shape of an animal that usually has fake fur and is filled with soft material — called also (Brit) soft toy

stuffed shirt noun, pl ~ shirts [count] informal + disapproving : a person who behaves in a very formal way and expects to be treated as someone very important stuff•ing /ˈstʌfɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : soft material that is used to fill a pillow, cushion, etc.

2 : a seasoned mixture of food that is put inside another food and cooked [noncount] Would you like more stuffing? [count] a delicious bread stuffing knock the stuffing out of informal : to cause (someone) to lose energy and confidence : to make (someone) feel weak or overwhelmed ▪ When he found out that he didn't get the job, it really knocked the stuffing out of him.

stuffy /ˈstʌfi/ adj stuff•i•er; -est

1 : lacking fresh air ▪ a stuffy attic/room ▪ It's very stuffy in here.

2 : filled with mucus because of illness : STUFFED ▪ She had a stuffy nose. ▪ I had a stuffy feeling in my head.

3 informal + disapproving : very formal, serious, or old-fashioned ▪ the stuffiest members of that exclusive club ▪ a stuffy old judge – stuff•i•ly /ˈstʌfəli/ adv ▪ stuffily respectable people – stuff•i•ness /ˈstʌfinəs/ noun [noncount]

stul•ti•fy /ˈstʌltəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (someone or something) to become dull, slow, etc. ▪ The government has been stultified by bureaucracy.

– stultifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ stultifying boredom

stum•ble /ˈstʌmbəl/ verb stum•bles; stum•bled; stum•bling [no obj]

1 : to hit your foot on something when you are walking or running so that you fall or almost fall : TRIP ▪ I stumbled on the uneven pavement. ▪ The horse stumbled and almost fell.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to walk in an awkward way ▪ He stumbled drunkenly across the room. ▪ He stumbled over to the table. ▪ She usually stumbles out of bed [=gets out of bed] around 7:00 am.

3 a : to speak or act in an awkward way ▪ I heard him stumble over the unfamiliar words. ▪ She stumbled through an apology. b : to begin to have problems after a time of success ▪ The economy has stumbled in recent months.

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to find or learn about something unexpectedly ▪ I stumbled across/on/upon [=found] this book by chance. ▪ He stumbled onto [=found out] the truth. ▪ We stumbled onto/across the ruins of an old fort. ▪ They stumbled on/upon [=discovered] a bizarre plot.

– stumble noun, pl stumbles [count] ▪ After a few stumbles, the economy was back on track. – stum•bler /ˈstʌmbləɚ/ noun, pl -blers [count]

stum•ble•bum /ˈstʌmbəlˌbʌm/ noun, pl -bums [count] US, informal : a clumsy and stupid person ▪ His political opponents have portrayed him as an inept stumblebum.

stumbling block noun, pl ~ blocks [count] : something that stops you from doing what you want to do ▪ Lack of funds is a major stumbling block to the project. ▪ My plans hit a stumbling block.

[1]stump /ˈstʌmp/ noun, pl stumps [count]

1 : a part that remains after something has been broken off, removed, worn down, etc. ▪ the stump of a pipe/tooth

2 : the part of a tree that remains in the ground after the tree is cut down ▪ a tree stump

3 : the part of an arm or leg that remains after most of it has been cut off

4 cricket : one of the three sticks that form a wicket on the stump : traveling around and giving speeches during a campaign for election to a political office ▪ candidates who give the same speech over and over when they're on the stump — see also STUMP SPEECH

[2]stump verb stumps; stumped; stump•ing

1 [+ obj] : to be too difficult for (someone) to answer ▪ The question completely stumped the contestant. [=the contestant did not know the answer to the question] ▪ This problem has me stumped. [=I do not know the solution to this problem]

2 US : to go to different places and make speeches during a political campaign [no obj] She will be stumping in our district this week. [+ obj] Several candidates have been stumping the state for the past month.

3 [+ obj] cricket : to cause (a batsman who is away from the hitting area) to be out by touching the wicket with the ball stump up [phrasal verb] stump up or stump up (something) also stump (something) up Brit, informal : to pay (an amount of money) especially when you do not want to ▪ He may be required to stump up for the repairs. ▪ If she can't pay, I'll have to stump up [=cough up] the money.

stump•er /ˈstʌmpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : a very difficult question ▪ Some of the questions on the test were real stumpers.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 205 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

stump speech noun, pl ~ speeches [count] US : a speech that is made many times by a politician who is traveling to different places during a campaign for election

stumpy /'stʌmpi/ adj stump·i·er; -est : short and thick ▪ a dog with a stumpy [=stubby] tail ▪ stumpy legs

stun /'stʌn/ verb stuns; stunned; stun·ning [+ obj]
1 : to surprise or upset (someone) very much ▪ a theft that stunned [=shocked] the art world ▪ The angry criticism stunned them. ▪ They were stunned by the news. = The news stunned them. ▪ His old friends were stunned at his success. ▪ She sat in stunned disbelief/silence. ▪ There was a stunned expression on her face.
2 : to cause (someone) to suddenly become very confused, very dizzy, or unconscious ▪ weapons that can stun people temporarily stung past tense and past participle of [1]STING stun gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a gun that produces an electric shock which makes someone unconscious or stops someone from moving stunk past tense and past participle of [1]STINK stun·ner /'stʌnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] informal 1 : a very attractive person ▪ His wife is a real stunner.

2 : something that amazes or shocks people ▪ The jury's decision was a stunner.

stunning adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very surprising or shocking ▪ Researchers have made a stunning discovery. ▪ stunning news ▪ a stunning decision
2 : very beautiful or pleasing ▪ Our room had a stunning view of the lake. ▪ a stunning gown ▪ a stunning young woman – stun·ning·ly adv ▪ a stunningly beautiful woman ▪ a stunningly clear/sharp picture ▪ a stunningly rude remark

[1]stunt /'stʌnt/ verb stunts; stunt·ed; stunt·ing [+ obj] : to stop (someone or something) from growing or developing ▪ Poor soil can stunt a plant's growth. ▪ Too many restrictions have stunted the economy.

[2]stunt noun, pl stunts [count]
1 : something that is done to get attention or publicity ▪ Some people say that the announcement of his retirement was just a stunt. ▪ a promotional/publicity stunt
2 : a difficult and often dangerous action ▪ a pilot doing loops and other dangerous stunts; especially : a difficult action or scene that is done by actors in a movie ▪ a star actor who does/performs his own stunts pull a stunt informal : to do something foolish or dangerous ▪ Don't ever pull a stunt like that again!

stunt double noun, pl ~ doubles [count] : a person who takes an actor's place during the filming of stunts and dangerous scenes for a movie or TV show

stunt·man /'stʌnt,mæn/ noun, pl -men /-,mɛn/ [count] : a man who takes an actor's place during the filming of stunts and dangerous scenes for a movie or TV show ▪ a Hollywood stuntman

stunt·wom·an /'stʌnt,wʊmən/ noun, pl -wom·en /-,wɪmən/ [count] : a woman who takes an actor's place during the filming of stunts and dangerous scenes for a movie or TV show ▪ a Hollywood stuntwoman

stu·pe·fy /'stu:pə,faɪ, Brit 'stju:pə,faɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy·ing [+ obj] : to shock or surprise (someone) very much : to cause (someone) to become confused or unable to think clearly — usually used as (be) stupefied ▪ I was stupified by their decision.
– stu·pe·fac·tion /,stu:pə'fækʃən, Brit ,stju:pə'fækʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ They looked at her in stupefaction. – stupefied adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ They looked at her with stupefied expressions on their faces. – stupefying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a stupefying display of arrogance ▪ stupefying boredom – stu·pe·fy·ing·ly /'stu:pə,faɪŋli, Brit 'stju:pə,faɪŋli/ adv ▪ a chore that's stupefyingly boring

stu·pen·dous /stu'pɛndəs, Brit stju'pɛndəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : so large or great that it amazes you ▪ a stupendous [=magnificent] fireworks display ▪ a person with stupendous wealth
– stu·pen·dous·ly adv ▪ a stupendously wealthy person

stu·pid /'stu:pəd, Brit 'stju:pəd/ adj stu·pid·er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not intelligent : having or showing a lack of ability to learn and understand things ▪ She angrily described her boss as a stupid old man. ▪ He had a stupid expression on his face. ▪ I'm not stupid enough to fall for that trick.
2 : not sensible or logical : FOOLISH ▪ Why are you being so stupid? ▪ It was stupid of me to try to hide this from you. ▪ We were stupid to wait so long before we made a decision. ▪ I did some pretty stupid things when I was young. ▪ a stupid movie ▪ a silly, stupid song ▪ a stupid decision/mistake
3 : not able to think normally because you are drunk, tired, etc. ▪ Two glasses of wine are enough to make me stupid. ▪ I was stupid with fatigue.
4 informal — used to refer to something in an angry or irritated way ▪ The stupid car won't start. ▪ Where did I put those stupid keys?
– stu·pid·ly adv ▪ He's been acting stupidly. ▪ I stupidly thought it was a good idea. ▪ She was staring stupidly out the window.

stu·pid·i·ty /stu'pɪdəti, Brit stju'pɪdəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the state of being foolish or unintelligent : the condition of being stupid ▪ I was shocked by the stupidity of their decision/behavior.
2 [count] : a stupid idea or action — usually plural ▪ the stupidities of war

stu·por /'stu:pə, Brit 'stju:pə/ noun, pl -pors [count] : a condition in which someone is not able to think normally because of being drunk, drugged, tired, etc. ▪ He fell into a drunken stupor. ▪ drug-induced stupors ▪ in a stupor of fatigue stur·dy /'stədi/ adj stur·di·er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : strongly made ▪ a sturdy ship ▪ sturdy furniture
2 : strong and healthy ▪ sturdy, muscular legs ▪ a sturdy athlete ▪ a dog with a strong sturdy build
3 : having or showing mental or emotional strength ▪ sturdy common sense ▪ sturdy self-reliance
– stur·di·ly /'stədəli/ adj ▪ sturdily made furniture – stur·di·ness /'stədinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the sturdiness of the furniture ▪ the bank's financial sturdiness [=strength]

stur·geon /'stəʤən/ noun, pl -geons [count, noncount] : a type of large fish that is eaten as food ✧ The eggs of the sturgeon are eaten as caviar.

[1]stut·ter /'stʌtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter·ing : to have a speech problem that causes you to repeat the beginning sound of some words [no obj] I used to stutter when I was a child. ▪ She stutters when she gets excited. [+ obj] He stuttered [=stammered] something that I didn't understand.
– stut·ter·er /'stʌtərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ I was a stutterer as a child. – stuttering noun [noncount] ▪ He had speech therapy for his stuttering.

[2]stutter noun [singular] : a speech problem that causes someone to repeat the beginning sounds of some words ▪ He has a stutter. = He speaks with a stutter. [=he stutters]

[1]sty /'staɪ/ noun, pl sties also styes [count]
1 : a place where pigs are kept : PIGSTY
2 informal : a dirty or messy place : PIGSTY ▪ His room was a sty.
– compare [2]STY

[2]sty or stye /'staɪ/ noun, pl sties or styes [count] medical : a painful, swollen red area on the edge of an eyelid — compare [1]STY

[1]style /'stajəl/ noun, pl styles
1 : a particular way in which something is done, created, or performed [count] I don't like the flowery style of his writing. ▪ She has a unique style of singing. ▪ a baseball pitcher with an unusual style [noncount] She writes with more attention to style than to content. ▪ The room was decorated in modern style.
2 [count] : a particular form or design of something ▪ The car is available in several different styles. ▪ a new dress style ▪ the Greek style of architecture ▪ The range of clothing styles has become more varied. ▪ Victorian-style drapes
3 [count] : a way of behaving or of doing things ▪ His management style is abrasive. ▪ Openly criticizing a fellow worker is just not my style. [=I would never openly criticize a fellow worker] ▪ You're a good negotiator. I like your style. [=I like the way you do things]
4 [noncount] : a particular way of living ▪ He has been living in high style. [=he has been living the way rich people live] — see also LIFESTYLE
5 [noncount] : the quality that makes things attractive, fashionable, etc. ▪ He has a real sense of style. ▪ She's a woman of style. [=she's a stylish woman]
6 [noncount] : an easy and graceful manner ▪ It was an awkward moment but she handled it with style.
7 [count] : the way that written words are spelled, capitalized, etc. ▪ Each newspaper had its own style. ▪ a style guide cramp your style see [2]CRAMP in style 1 : popular or fashionable ▪ clothes that are always in style [=in fashion] 2 : in a way that is impressive or admired because it shows talent, good taste, etc. : in a stylish

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 206 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

way ▪ When she travels she likes to do it in style. ▪ He finished the tournament in style by winning his last match very quickly and easily.

out of style : not popular or fashionable : not stylish ▪ a fad that has fallen/gone out of style

[2]style verb styles; styled; styl•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to give (yourself) a name or title even if you do not really deserve it ▪ She styles [=calls] herself a "spiritual adviser." — often + as ▪ He styles himself as an expert in international politics. — see also SELF-STYLED
2 : to give a particular shape to (someone's hair) ▪ She cuts and styles hair. ▪ She's having her hair styled tomorrow.
3 : to design (something) for a particular purpose ▪ clothing styled for teenagers ▪ a book styled for a general audience

[1]styling noun [noncount] : the way in which something is designed ▪ a car with sleek new styling ▪ clothing with classic styling

[2]styling adj, always used before a noun : used for creating a hair style ▪ styling products/salons

styl•ish /ˈstaɪlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : following the popular style : FASHIONABLE ▪ She wears stylish clothes. = She's a stylish dresser. ▪ a stylish apartment/house
– styl•ish•ly adv ▪ a stylishly dressed person – styl•ish•ness noun [noncount]

styl•ist /ˈstaɪlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person whose job is to make something (such as a person's hair) look attractive ▪ a hair stylist ▪ a fashion/food stylist
2 : a person known for writing, singing, etc., in a particular style ▪ She is a fine literary/prose/song stylist.

sty•lis•tic /staɪˈlɪstɪk/ adj : of or relating to style ▪ There are a number of stylistic changes in the new car. ▪ stylistic differences among various writers
– sty•lis•ti•cal•ly /staɪˈlɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ stylistically different writers ▪ Stylistically, the movie resembles a documentary.

styl•ized also Brit styl•ised /ˈstajəˌlaɪzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : made to look like a style or pattern rather than the way it would really look in nature ▪ stylized floral/flower motifs ▪ fabric with highly stylized animal prints

sty•lus /ˈstaɪləs/ noun, pl sty•li /ˈstaɪˌlaɪ/ also sty•lus•es /ˈstaɪləsəs/ [count]
1 : a very small, pointed piece of metal that touches a record and produces sound when the record is played : NEEDLE
2 : a tool used long ago for writing on clay or wax tablets
3 : a small tool that is used to write or touch buttons on a computer

sty•mie /ˈstaɪmi/ verb -mies; -mied; -mie•ing [+ obj] : to stop (someone) from doing something or to stop (something) from happening ▪ The bad weather has stymied [=thwarted] the police in their investigations. ▪ Progress on the project has been stymied by lack of money.

Sty•ro•foam /ˈstaɪrəˌfoʊm/ trademark — used for a type of light and usually white plastic suave /ˈswɑːv/ adj suav•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : behaving in a relaxed, confident, and pleasant way in social situations ▪ a suave and sophisticated businessman – suave•ly adv – suave•ness noun [noncount] – sua•vi•ty /ˈswɑːvəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]sub /ˈsʌb/ noun, pl subs [count] informal
1 : someone who does the job of another person when that person is not able to do it : SUBSTITUTE ▪ The team's subs need to be versatile. ▪ (US) We had a sub [=substitute teacher] in English class all week.
2 Brit : SUBEDITOR
– compare [3]SUB

[2]sub verb subs; subbed; sub•bing
1 : to take the place of another person : to act as a substitute [no obj] Smith subbed for Jones at halftime. ▪ subbing in a Broadway play ▪ Mr. Johnson will be subbing [=working as a substitute teacher] at the high school. [+ obj] (chiefly Brit) ▪ Smith subbed Jones at halftime. — usually used as (be/get) subbed ▪ Jones was subbed (by Smith) at halftime.
2 [+ obj] : SUBCONTRACT ▪ The company subs (out) some of its jobs.

[3]sub noun, pl subs [count] informal
1 : SUBMARINE ▪ a nuclear sub
2 US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH ▪ I had a sub for lunch.
– compare [1]SUB

sub- prefix
1 : under : beneath : below ▪ *sub*soil ▪ *sub*freezing
2 a : at a lower rank or secondary level ▪ *sub*station b : division or smaller part of ▪ *sub*committee ▪ *sub*topic

sub•al•tern /səˈbɑːltən, Brit ˈsʌbəltən/ noun, pl -terns [count] : a junior officer in the British army sub–aq•ua /ˌsʌbˈækwə/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit : relating to activities done under water : UNDERWATER ▪ sub-aqua diving ▪ joined a sub-aqua club

sub•atom•ic /ˌsʌbəˈtɑːmɪk/ adj
1 : smaller than an atom ▪ subatomic particles
2 : of or relating to the inside of an atom ▪ studied subatomic physics sub•com•mit•tee /ˈsʌbkəˌmɪti/ noun, pl -tees [count] : a part of a committee that is organized for a certain purpose ▪ The Senate has formed a subcommittee to set up an investigation.

sub•com•pact /ˈsʌbˈkɑːmˌpækt/ noun, pl -pacts [count] US : a very small car

[1]sub•con•scious /ˌsʌbˈkɑːnʃəs/ adj : existing in the part of the mind that a person is not aware of : existing in the mind but not consciously known or felt ▪ subconscious desires/motives ▪ the subconscious mind
– sub•con•scious•ly adv ▪ Things can influence us subconsciously. ▪ Perhaps I subconsciously wanted it to happen.

[2]subconscious noun [noncount] : the part of a person's mind that has ideas, feelings, etc., that the person is not aware of ▪ A person's behavior can be influenced by urges that exist only in the subconscious. ▪ Those feelings had been hidden in her subconscious. — compare UNCONSCIOUS

sub•con•ti•nent /ˌsʌbˈkɑːntənənt/ noun, pl -nents [count] : a large area of land that is a part of a continent — used especially to refer to the area that includes India, Pakistan, and Bangladesh ▪ the Indian subcontinent
– sub•con•ti•nen•tal /ˌsʌbˌkɑːntəˈnɛntl/ adj

[1]sub•con•tract /ˌsʌbˈkɑːnˌtrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing : to hire another person or company to do part of a job that you have been hired to do [+ obj] Parts of the project were subcontracted (out) to specialists. = Specialists were subcontracted for parts of the project. [no obj] The large firm subcontracted with a smaller company.
– sub•con•trac•tor /ˌsʌbˈkɑːnˌtræktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ There are several subcontractors working at the new building site. ▪ He has good relationships with all the subcontractors he hires.

[2]subcontract noun, pl -tracts [count] : a legal agreement by which you hire another person or company to do part of a job you have been hired to do

sub•cul•ture /ˈsʌbˌkʌlʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count] : a group that has beliefs and behaviors that are different from the main groups within a culture or society ▪ a subculture of local painters/writers ▪ a subculture of poverty and crime
– sub•cul•tur•al /ˌsʌbˈkʌlʧərəl/ adj ▪ subcultural groups ▪ subcultural differences sub•cu•ta•ne•ous /ˌsʌbkjuˈteɪnijəs/ adj, medical : under the skin ▪ subcutaneous tissues ▪ a subcutaneous injection

– sub•cu•ta•ne•ous•ly adv

sub•di•vide /ˌsʌbdəˈvaɪd/ verb -vides; -vid•ed; -vid•ing [+ obj]
1 : to divide (something) into several or many smaller parts ▪ The house is being subdivided into several apartments. ▪ The people who attend the conference can be subdivided into three distinct groups.
2 US : to divide (a piece of land) into smaller areas on which houses will be built ▪ He plans to subdivide his property. ▪ The land will be subdivided into building lots.

sub•di•vi•sion /ˈsʌbdəˌvɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [count] : one of the parts into which something is divided ▪ a political subdivision of the state
2 [noncount] : the act or process of dividing something into smaller parts ▪ The plan calls for (the) subdivision of the property into several building lots.
3 [count] US : an area of land that has been divided into smaller areas on which houses are built ▪ She lives in a new subdivision [=development] out in the suburbs.

sub•due /səbˈduː, Brit səbˈdjuː/ verb -dues; -dued; -du•ing [+ obj]
1 : to get control of (a violent or dangerous person or group) by using force, punishment, etc. ▪ The troops were finally able to subdue the rebel forces after many days of fighting. ▪ He was injured while trying to subdue a violent drunk.
2 : to get control of (something, such as a strong emotion) ▪ She struggled to subdue her fears.

sub•dued /səbˈduːd, Brit səbˈdjuːd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not strong, loud, intense, etc. ▪ She spoke in a subdued

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 207 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

voice. ▪ a subdued manner ▪ The color/lighting in the lobby is subdued.

sub•ed•i•tor /ˌsʌbˈɛdətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] Brit : a person whose job is to prepare a book, newspaper, etc., for printing by making sure the words are correct : COPY EDITOR

– sub•ed•it /ˌsʌbˈɛdət/ verb - its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]

sub•freez•ing /ˌsʌbˈfri:zɪŋ/ adj, chiefly US : colder than the temperature at which water freezes : colder than 32°F or 0°C ▪ subfreezing temperatures/weather

sub•head /ˈsʌbˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : SUBHEADING

sub•head•ing /ˈsʌbˌhɛdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]
1 : an additional headline or title that comes immediately after the main headline or title ▪ The newspaper headline read "House burns down on Elm Street" with the subheading "Arson suspected."
2 : a title given to one of the parts or divisions of a piece of writing ▪ You can find the chart in the "Financial Matters" chapter under the subheading "Mortgages and Loans."

sub•hu•man /ˌsʌbˈhju:mən/ adj
1 : not having or showing the level of kindness, intelligence, etc., that is expected of normal human beings ▪ The prisoners suffered subhuman treatment. ▪ subhuman murderers
2 : not suitable for human beings ▪ subhuman living conditions — compare INHUMAN, NONHUMAN

[1]sub•ject /ˈsʌbdʒɪkt/ noun, pl -jects [count]
1 : the person or thing that is being discussed or described : TOPIC ▪ The new museum is the subject of an article in today's paper. ▪ Death is a difficult subject that few people like to talk about. ▪ I need to break the news to her, but I'm not sure how to bring up the subject. ▪ If you're interested in linguistics, I know an excellent book on the/that subject. ▪ an excellent book on the subject of linguistics ▪ While we're on the subject of [=talking about] work, have you met the new boss? ▪ Every time I talk to her, we seem to get on/onto the subject of work. [=we start talking about work] ▪ These meetings would be much shorter if we could keep him from getting off the subject. ▪ I didn't want to talk about work, so I changed the subject. [=started a new topic of conversation] ▪ When he started getting upset, I dropped the subject. [=stopped talking about that topic] ▪ The morality of capital punishment is a frequent subject of/for debate.
2 : an area of knowledge that is studied in school ▪ Chemistry was my favorite subject in high school. ▪ The classes cover a variety of subject areas, including mathematics and English.
3 : a person or thing that is being dealt with in a particular way — + of ▪ He was the subject of a criminal investigation. [=he was investigated to find out if he had committed a crime] ▪ She was the subject of a lawsuit.
4 : someone or something that is shown in a photograph, painting, etc. ▪ Love between a mother and child is the subject of many of her paintings. ▪ The photographer's principal subjects were poor immigrant workers. ▪ What kind of exposure should I use for a dark subject on a light background?
5 : a person or animal that is used in an experiment, study, etc. ▪ Each subject was asked to fill out a questionnaire. ▪ The hospital is recruiting test subjects for the study.
6 grammar : a noun, noun phrase, or pronoun that performs the action of a verb in a sentence ▪ In English, the subject goes before the verb and the object comes after. ▪ "He" is the subject (of the verb "kissed") in the sentence "He kissed me." — compare OBJECT
7 : a person who lives in a country that is ruled by a king or queen : a citizen of a monarchy ▪ British subjects

[2]sub•ject /ˈsʌbdʒɪkt/ adj : under the control of a ruler ▪ subject peoples — often + to ▪ They were subject to the emperor.
subject to 1 : affected by or possibly affected by (something) ▪ Clothing purchases over $200 are subject to tax. [=tax must be paid on clothing purchases over $200] ▪ Anyone caught trespassing is subject to a $500 fine. [=anyone caught trespassing will have to pay a $500 fine] ▪ The firm is subject to state law. ▪ The schedule is tentative and subject to change. [=the schedule may be changed at a later date] 2 : likely to do, have, or suffer from (something) : PRONE ▪ My cousin is subject to panic attacks. ▪ I'd rather not live in an area that is subject to flooding. [=an area where floods occur] 3 : dependent on something else to happen or be true ▪ The sale of the property is subject to approval by the city council. [=the property cannot be sold unless the city council approves the sale] ▪ All rooms are just $100 a night, subject to availability.

[3]sub•ject /səbˈdʒɛkt/ verb -jects; -ject•ed; -ject•ing
subject to [phrasal verb] subject (someone or something) to (something) 1 : to cause or force (someone or something) to experience (something harmful, unpleasant, etc.) ▪ They are suspected of subjecting their children to abuse. [=of abusing their children] ▪ The test involved subjecting the sample to intense heat. — often used as (be) subjected to ▪ The prisoners were subjected to torture. ▪ During the hurricane, many buildings were subjected to [=many buildings experienced] 100 mile-per-hour winds. ▪ No one should have to be subjected to my uncle's bad jokes. ▪ His argument was subjected to careful analysis. [=was carefully analyzed] 2 : to bring (someone or something) under (your control or rule) ▪ He subjected her to his will. [=he forced her to do what he wanted her to do] ▪ Alexander the Great subjected much of Europe and Asia to his rule.

– sub•jec•tion /səbˈdʒɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] formal ▪ the prisoners' subjection to torture ▪ The tyrant kept the people in subjection.

sub•jec•tive /səbˈdʒɛktɪv/ adj
1 philosophy : relating to the way a person experiences things in his or her own mind ▪ subjective reality ▪ Dreaming is a subjective experience. ▪ a person's subjective perception of the world
2 [more ~; most ~] : based on feelings or opinions rather than facts ▪ a subjective judgment/decision ▪ Personal taste in clothing is very subjective. ▪ In reviewing applicants, we consider both objective criteria, such as test scores, and subjective criteria, such as leadership ability. ▪ Law can be maddeningly subjective. So much is left up to your own interpretation. — opposite OBJECTIVE
3 grammar : relating to nouns, noun phrases, or pronouns that are the subjects of verbs ▪ The pronoun "we" is in the subjective [=nominative] case in the sentence "We saw her." — compare OBJECTIVE

– sub•jec•tive•ly adv ▪ Contest entries are subjectively evaluated. – sub•jec•tiv•i•ty /səbˌdʒɛkˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the subjectivity of opinions and judgments subject matter noun [noncount] : the information or ideas that are discussed or dealt with in a book, movie, etc. : what something is about ▪ I found the film's subject matter to be quite disturbing. ▪ The magazine's editors care more about style than about subject matter. [=content] ▪ She disapproves of the artist's choice of subject matter.

sub•ju•gate /ˈsʌbdʒʊˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal : to defeat and gain control of (someone or something) by the use of force : to conquer and gain the obedience of (a group of people, a country, etc.) ▪ The emperor's armies subjugated the surrounding lands. ▪ a people subjugated by invaders — often used figuratively ▪ a legal system that subjugates [=oppresses] women

– sub•ju•ga•tion /ˌsʌbdʒʊˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]sub•junc•tive /səbˈdʒʌŋktɪv/ adj, grammar : of or relating to the verb form that is used to express suggestions, wishes, uncertainty, possibility, etc. ▪ In "I wish it were Friday," the verb "were" is in the subjunctive mood. ▪ a subjunctive verb form — compare INDICATIVE

[2]subjunctive noun, pl -tives grammar
1 the subjunctive : the form that a verb or sentence has when it is expressing a suggestion, wish, uncertainty, possibility, etc. ▪ "I wish it were not so" is in the subjunctive.
2 [count] : a subjunctive verb or sentence ▪ Subjunctives can be used to express doubt.

[1]sub•lease /ˈsʌbˌli:s/ noun, pl -leas•es [count] US : a legal agreement by which someone who is renting an apartment, house, etc., is allowed to rent it to someone else for a period of time

[2]sublease /ˈsʌbˈli:s/ verb -leas•es; -leased; -leas•ing [+ obj] US : [1]SUBLET ▪ She subleased her apartment to a student for the summer. ▪ The agency subleases office space from a law firm.

[1]sub•let /ˈsʌbˈlɛt/ verb -lets; -let; -let•ting
1 : to allow someone to use (an apartment, house, etc., that you are renting) for a period of time in return for payment [+ obj] She sublet her apartment to a student for the summer. [no obj] He asked his landlord if he could sublet.
2 : to use (an apartment, house, etc., that is rented by someone) in return for payment [+ obj] The agency sublets office space from a law firm in the building. ▪ I need someone to sublet my apartment for the summer. [no obj] She agreed to sublet.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 208 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[2]sublet /ˈsʌbˌlɛt/ noun, pl -lets [count] : an apartment, house, etc., that you sublet from someone ▪ I'm looking for a sublet since I'm only going to be here for the summer.

sub•li•mate /ˈsʌbləˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] psychology : to express a desire or feeling by changing it into a form that is socially acceptable ▪ She sublimated her erotic feelings into a series of paintings. ▪ I sublimated my grief at the death of my mother by throwing myself into my work.
– sub•li•ma•tion /ˌsʌbləˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

sub•lime /səˈblaɪm/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very beautiful or good : causing strong feelings of admiration or wonder ▪ Her paintings are sublime. ▪ He composed some of the most sublime symphonies in existence. ▪ the sublime beauty of the canyon
2 : complete or extreme : UTTER ▪ sublime ignorance/stupidity the sublime : something that is very beautiful or good ▪ writings on the sublime ▪ They have brought ordinary food to the level of the sublime. [=they have made ordinary food extraordinary] ▪ The movies shown at the festival ranged from the sublime to the ridiculous.
– sub•lime•ly adv ▪ a sublimely stunning landscape – sub•lim•i•ty /səˈblɪmətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ I've never heard anyone who could match the sublimity of her playing.

sub•lim•i•nal /səˈblɪmənl/ adj : relating to things that influence your mind in a way that you do not notice ▪ The studio denied the existence of subliminal messages in the movie. ▪ I am skeptical that subliminal advertising actually works.
– sub•lim•i•nal•ly adv

sub•ma•chine gun /ˌsʌbməˈʃiːn-/ noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a small, light machine gun

[1]sub•ma•rine /ˈsʌbməˌriːn/ noun, pl -rines [count]
1 : a ship that can operate underwater ▪ nuclear submarines
2 US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH

[2]submarine adj, always used before a noun, technical : located below the surface of the water : UNDERWATER, UNDERSEA ▪ a submarine canyon

sub•ma•ri•ner /ˌsʌbməˈriːnɚ, Brit ˌsʌbˈmærənə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : someone who is a member of a submarine crew submarine sandwich noun, pl ~ -wiches [count] US : a sandwich that is made by splitting a long roll and filling it with meat, cheese, etc. — called also grinder, hero, hoagie, po'boy, sub, submarine

sub•menu /ˈsʌbˌmɛnˌjuː/ noun, pl -men•us [count] computers : a menu in a computer program that you reach by going through another menu first ▪ Selecting "Options" from the main menu brings up a submenu.

sub•merge /səbˈmɚdʒ/ verb -merg•es; -merged; -merging
1 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) go under the surface of water or some other liquid : to cover (someone or something) with a liquid ▪ After boiling the broccoli, submerge it in ice water to stop the cooking process. ▪ The town was submerged by the flood.
2 [no obj] : to go underwater ▪ We watched as the divers prepared to submerge.
3 [+ obj] : to make (yourself) fully involved in an activity or interest ▪ After his sister died, he submerged [=immersed] himself in his work. ▪ She's a marvelous actress who submerges herself totally in her roles.
4 [+ obj] : to keep (emotions, opinions, etc.) from being openly shown or expressed ▪ It's a job where you'll have to submerge [=suppress] your ego and do what you're told. ▪ The passion is there in the music, though it's often submerged.
– submerged adj ▪ Some seals can stay submerged for an hour. ▪ tales of a submerged city in the Mediterranean Sea

[1]sub•mers•ible /səbˈmɚsəbəl/ adj : able to be used underwater ▪ a submersible pump

[2]submersible noun, pl -ibles [count] : a small vehicle that can operate underwater and that is used especially for research

sub•mis•sion /səbˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 a : an act of giving a document, proposal, piece of writing, etc., to someone so that it can be considered or approved : an act of submitting something [noncount] I'm preparing the results of my study for submission to a medical journal. ▪ the electronic submission of tax returns [count] The deadline for submissions is January 31st. b [count] : something that is submitted ▪ We cannot accept submissions longer than 2,000 words. ▪ Over 5,000 submissions were received.
2 [noncount] : the state of being obedient : the act of accepting the authority or control of someone else ▪ a religion that preaches submission to God's will ▪ The prisoners were beaten into submission.

sub•mis•sive /səbˈmɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : willing to obey someone else ▪ a submissive person ▪ submissive behavior
– sub•mis•sive•ly adv ▪ He behaved submissively. – sub•mis•sive•ness noun [noncount]

sub•mit /səbˈmɪt/ verb -mits; -mit•ted; -mit•ting
1 [+ obj] : to give (a document, proposal, piece of writing, etc.) to someone so that it can be considered or approved ▪ Candidates interested in the position should submit their résumés to the Office of Human Resources. ▪ Submit your application no later than January 31st. ▪ Requests must be submitted in writing. ▪ Photographs submitted for publication will not be returned.
2 [no obj] : to stop trying to fight or resist something : to agree to do or accept something that you have been resisting or opposing ▪ He vowed that he would never submit. [=give in] — often + to ▪ He refused to submit to their demands. ▪ We will not submit to you without a fight. ▪ Public outcry caused him to submit to an investigation of his finances.
3 [+ obj] formal : to offer (something) as an opinion or suggestion — often + that ▪ I submit that his guilt has not been proven.

sub•nor•mal /ˌsʌbˈnoɚməl/ adj, technical
1 : lower or smaller than normal ▪ subnormal body temperature ▪ subnormal levels of vitamin C ▪ subnormal intelligence
2 : having less of something than is normal ▪ people who are subnormal in insulin production ▪ mentally subnormal people

sub•op•ti•mal /ˌsʌbˈɑːptəməl/ adj, formal : less than the best or most desirable ▪ working under suboptimal conditions

[1]sub•or•di•nate /səˈboɚdənət/ adj
1 : in a position of less power or authority than someone else ▪ a subordinate officer/commander — often + to ▪ The priests are subordinate to the bishops.
2 : less important than someone or something else ▪ a subordinate concern — often + to ▪ In some cultures, the welfare of the individual is subordinate to the welfare of the group.

[2]subordinate noun, pl -nates [count] : someone who has less power or authority than someone else : someone who is subordinate to someone else ▪ She leaves the day-to-day running of the firm to her subordinates.

[3]sub•or•di•nate /səˈboɚdəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] formal : to think of or treat (someone or something) as less important than someone or something else — usually + to ▪ The company is guilty of subordinating safety to profit. ▪ His personal life has been subordinated to his career.
– sub•or•di•na•tion /səˌboɚdəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

subordinate clause noun, pl ~ clauses [count] grammar : a clause that does not form a simple sentence by itself and that is connected to the main clause of a sentence ▪ In the sentence "I went home because I felt ill," "because I felt ill" is a subordinate clause. — called also dependent clause; compare COORDINATE CLAUSE, MAIN CLAUSE

subordinating conjunction noun, pl ~ -tions [count] grammar : a conjunction that joins a main clause and a clause which does not form a complete sentence by itself

sub•orn /səˈboɚn/ verb -orns; -orned; -orn•ing [+ obj] law
1 : to persuade (someone) to do something illegal (such as to lie in a court of law) ▪ He's accused of suborning a witness.
2 : to get (false testimony) from a witness ▪ The lawyer suborned (false) testimony. ▪ suborn perjury sub•par /ˈsʌbˌpɑɚ/ adj, US : below a usual or normal level ▪ a subpar performance

sub•plot /ˈsʌbˌplɑːt/ noun, pl -plots [count] : a plot that is related to but less important than the main plot of a story

[1]sub•poe•na /səˈpiːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count] law : a written order that commands someone to appear in court to give evidence — compare SUMMONS

[2]subpoena verb -nas; -naed; -na•ing [+ obj] law : to order someone to appear in court to give evidence : to issue a subpoena to (someone) or for (something) ▪ He was subpoenaed to testify in a hearing. ▪ The prosecutor subpoenaed the defendant's financial records.

sub•rou•tine /ˈsʌbˌruːˌtiːn/ noun, pl -tines [count] computers : a set of computer instructions that performs a particular task, that is part of a larger computer program, and that can be used repeatedly sub•scribe /səbˈskraɪb/ verb -scribes; -scribed; -scrib•ing [no obj]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 209 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : to pay money to get a publication or service regularly ▪ Subscribe today and get your first issue free! ▪ You'll receive a user name and password when you subscribe. — often + to ▪ I subscribe to several newspapers/magazines. ▪ He's thinking of subscribing to satellite TV.
2 : to agree to buy shares in a company — usually + for ▪ She subscribed for 100 shares.
3 Brit : to belong to or support something (such as an organization) by paying money regularly — usually + to ▪ subscribe to a charity subscribe to [phrasal verb] subscribe to (something) : to agree with or support (an opinion, theory, etc.) ▪ I subscribe to the idea that voting is my civic duty. ▪ She subscribes to the theory that some dinosaurs were warm-blooded and others were cold-blooded.
– sub•scrib•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ cable TV subscribers ▪ The magazine has about a million subscribers.

sub•scrip•tion /səbˈskrɪpʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : an agreement that you make with a company to get a publication or service regularly and that you usually pay for in advance [count] a magazine/newspaper subscription = a subscription to a magazine/newspaper ▪ Annual/monthly subscriptions cost $20. ▪ She bought a subscription. = She took out a subscription. ▪ online subscription services ▪ I'm going to renew/cancel my subscription. [noncount] You won't find this magazine at newsstands. It's sold only by subscription.
2 [count, noncount] Brit : a fee that you pay regularly to belong to or support an organization sub•sec•tion /ˈsʌbˌsɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a part of a section especially of a legal document ▪ as provided/stated in Subsection (b)

sub•se•quent /ˈsʌbsəkwənt/ adj, formal : happening or coming after something else ▪ The rate of population growth reached a peak in 1999 and declined in subsequent years. ▪ Her work had a great influence on subsequent generations. ▪ Subsequent studies confirmed their findings. ▪ his arrest and subsequent conviction — often + to ▪ events subsequent to [=after] the war
– sub•se•quent•ly /ˈsʌbsəˌkwɛntli/ adv, formal ▪ She graduated from college and subsequently [=afterward] moved to New York. ▪ Subsequently, the drug was found to cause cancer.

sub•ser•vi•ent /səbˈsəːvijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very willing or too willing to obey someone else ▪ She left her first husband because he wanted a subservient [=submissive] wife. ▪ She refused to take/accept/play a subservient role in their marriage. — often + to ▪ She refused to be subservient to her husband.
2 formal : less important than something or someone else — usually + to ▪ He believes that rights of individuals should be subservient to the rights of society as a whole.
– sub•ser•vi•ence /səbˈsəːvijəns/ noun [noncount]

sub•set /ˈsʌbˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count] technical : a group of things, people, etc., that is part of a larger group ▪ The set {1,2,3} is a subset of the set {1,2,3,4,5}. ▪ Only a small subset of the patients in the study experienced these side effects.

sub•side /səbˈsaɪd/ verb -sides; -sid•ed; -sid•ing [no obj]
1 : to become less strong or intense ▪ The pain/swelling will subside in a couple of hours. ▪ After his anger had subsided, he was able to look at things rationally. ▪ We'll have to wait until the wind/storm/rain subsides.
2 : to move down to a lower level ▪ The road will remain closed until the water/flood/river subsides. ▪ a place where the ground has subsided [=sunk, settled] sub•si•dence /səbˈsaɪdns/ noun [noncount] technical : movement of the ground to a lower level ▪ Subsidence can cause a building's collapse.

[1]sub•sid•iary /səbˈsɪdiˌeri, Brit səbˈsɪdiəri/ adj
1 : not as important as something else ▪ a subsidiary issue ▪ subsidiary streams ▪ subsidiary details
2 : owned or controlled by another company ▪ a subsidiary corporation

[2]subsidiary noun, pl -iar•ies [count] : a company that is owned or controlled by another company ▪ one of the company's foreign subsidiaries

sub•si•dize also Brit sub•si•dise /ˈsʌbsəˌdaɪz/ verb -diz•es; -dized; -diz•ing [+ obj] : to help someone or something pay for the costs of (something) ▪ The state subsidizes housing for low-income families. ▪ She feels that private businesses should not be subsidized by taxpayers. ▪ The company subsidizes health insurance for its employees. ▪ subsidized agriculture/housing
– sub•si•di•za•tion also Brit sub•si•di•sa•tion /ˌsʌbsəˌdəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsʌbsəˌdaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the government's subsidization of agriculture

sub•si•dy /ˈsʌbsədi/ noun, pl -dies [count] : money that is paid usually by a government to keep the price of a product or service low or to help a business or organization to continue to function ▪ The city is increasing subsidies for public transit. ▪ housing/farm subsidies sub•sist /səbˈsɪst/ verb -sists; -sist•ed; -sist•ing [no obj] formal : to exist or continue to exist ▪ The author's right to royalties shall subsist for the term of the copyright.

subsist on [phrasal verb] subsist on (something) : to use (something) as a way to stay alive : to live on (something) ▪ poor people subsisting on just one or two dollars a day ▪ The villagers subsist almost entirely on rice and fish. ▪ (humorous) My brother subsists on [=eats a lot of] pizza.

sub•sis•tence /səbˈsɪstəns/ noun [noncount] : the amount of food, money, etc., that is needed to stay alive ▪ They depended on hunting and fishing for subsistence. ▪ Farming is their means of subsistence. ▪ subsistence farming/agriculture [=farming that provides enough food to live on but not enough food to sell to other people] ▪ More than a quarter of the population lives below (the) subsistence level. [=a level of income that provides only enough money for basic needs]

sub•soil /ˈsʌbˌsɔjəl/ noun [noncount] : the layer of soil that is under the top layer — compare TOPSOIL sub•son•ic /ˌsʌbˈsɑːnɪk/ adj : slower than the speed of sound ▪ subsonic aircraft ▪ subsonic speeds sub•spe•cies /ˈsʌbˌspiːʃiz/ noun, pl subspecies [count] : a group of related plants or animals that is smaller than a species : a division of a species ▪ There are two subspecies of bison in North America.

sub•stance /ˈsʌbstəns/ noun, pl -stanc•es
1 [count] a : a material of a particular kind ▪ chemical/toxic/hazardous/dangerous substances ▪ The pancreas secretes a substance called insulin. ▪ The floor was covered with a white, powdery substance that turned out to be flour. b : a drug that is considered harmful and whose use is controlled by law or made illegal ▪ heroin and other illegal substances ▪ He had a history of substance abuse. ▪ Codeine is a controlled substance. [=a drug that you need permission from a doctor to use]
2 [noncount] a : the quality of being meaningful, useful, or important ▪ matters of substance ▪ When has he ever said anything of substance? ▪ The book lacks substance. b : the quality of being true or believable ▪ These rumors have no substance. = These rumors are without substance. [=these rumors are not true] ▪ The results of the study give substance to their theory.
3 [noncount] : the most basic or necessary part or quality of something : ESSENCE ▪ the substance of my argument ▪ These two books differ in both style and substance. [=content] ▪ He stated, in substance [=in essence, essentially], that it is not his fault and he will not pay for damages.
a man/woman/person of substance literary : a person who is rich and powerful ▪ She married a man of substance.
sum and substance see [1]SUM sub•stan•dard /ˌsʌbˈstændəd/ adj : below what is considered standard, normal, or acceptable ▪ a substandard performance ▪ substandard housing — compare NONSTANDARD sub•stan•tial /səbˈstænʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : large in amount, size, or number ▪ A substantial number of people commute to work each day. ▪ This will save us a substantial [=considerable] amount of money/time. ▪ Activities like that pose a substantial risk of injury. ▪ She purchased her tickets at a substantial discount.
2 : strongly made : STURDY ▪ a substantial house ▪ Only the buildings that were constructed of more substantial materials survived the earthquake.
3 of food : enough to satisfy hunger ▪ I was hoping that they would serve us something more substantial than wine and cheese. ▪ a substantial [=filling] meal

sub•stan•tial•ly /səbˈstænʃəli/ adv
1 : very much : a lot ▪ It's substantially [=considerably] less expensive to buy a used car than a new car. ▪ A new car costs substantially more than a used car. ▪ Costs have increased substantially [=significantly] in recent years.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 210 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 a : in a general or basic way ▪ The methods are substantially [=essentially] the same. b : almost completely : MOSTLY ▪ There are still a few details to wrap up, but the project is substantially complete.

sub•stan•ti•ate /səbˈstænʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to prove the truth of (something) ▪ He offered no evidence to substantiate [=support] his claim.
– sub•stan•ti•a•tion /səbˌstænʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]sub•stan•tive /ˈsʌbstəntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : important, real, or meaningful ▪ substantive issues/matters ▪ These changes are more symbolic than substantive. ▪ No substantive changes were made to the document.
2 : supported by facts or logic ▪ substantive arguments ▪ There is no substantive reason to change the law.
– sub•stan•tive•ly adv

[2]substantive noun, pl -tives [count] grammar : NOUN

sub•sta•tion /ˈsʌbˌsteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a place where the strength of electricity is changed as the electricity passes through on its way from the power plant to homes and businesses
2 : a police station that serves a particular area

[1]sub•sti•tute /ˈsʌbstəˌtuːt, Brit ˈsʌbstəˌtjuːt/ noun, pl -tutes [count]
1 : a person or thing that takes the place of someone or something else ▪ a fat/sugar/meat substitute — often + for ▪ Carob is used as a substitute for chocolate. ▪ When learning a language, there is no substitute for living among native speakers. ▪ Watching the movie is a poor substitute for reading the book.
2 sports : a player who takes the place of another player during a game ▪ Gonzales came on as a substitute [=replacement] during the second half.
3 US : SUBSTITUTE TEACHER
– substitute adj, always used before a noun ▪ a substitute mother/father ▪ substitute players

[2]substitute verb -tutes; -tut•ed; -tut•ing
1 [+ obj] : to put or use (someone or something) in place of someone or something else ▪ If cream is unavailable, you can substitute milk. [=you can use milk instead of cream] — often + for ▪ You can sometimes substitute applesauce for vegetable oil in cake recipes. ▪ The coach substituted Jones for Smith in the last few minutes of the game.
2 [no obj] : to do the job of someone else or serve the function of something else ▪ One of our teachers is sick, so we need someone to substitute. — often + for ▪ She'll be substituting for the regular teacher today. ▪ Applesauce can substitute for vegetable oil in this recipe.
3 [+ obj] : to replace (one person or thing) with another ▪ They substituted real candles with electric ones. — often used as (be) substituted ▪ Real candles were substituted by/with electric ones. ▪ (chiefly Brit) Smith was substituted by Jones in the last few minutes of the game.

substitute teacher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a teacher who teaches a class when the usual teacher is not available — called also (US) sub, (US) substitute, (Brit) supply teacher

sub•sti•tu•tion /ˌsʌbstəˈtuːʃən, Brit ˌsʌbstəˈtjuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act of substituting or replacing one person or thing with another [count] The coach made three substitutions in the second half of the game. ▪ I'd prefer rice with my steak instead of potatoes, but the menu says "no substitutions." [noncount] Substitution of applesauce for oil is one way of reducing the fat in recipes.
2 [count] : someone or something that is or can be substituted for another ▪ The cookbook has a long list of substitutions for ingredients that may be hard to find.

sub•stra•tum /ˈsʌbˌstreɪtəm/ noun, pl -stra•ta /-ˌstreɪtə/ [count] : a layer of something (such as soil or rock) that is under another layer ▪ drilled into the bedrock substratum — often used figuratively ▪ the city's social substrata

sub•struc•ture /ˈsʌbˌstrʌkʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count] : a supporting part or structure that is below something ▪ The bridge's substructure was damaged. — often used figuratively ▪ political/economic substructures — compare SUPERSTRUCTURE

sub•ter•fuge /ˈsʌbtəˌfjuːʤ/ noun, pl -fug•es formal : the use of tricks especially to hide, avoid, or get something [noncount] They obtained the documents by/through subterfuge. [count] a clever subterfuge

sub•ter•ra•nean /ˌsʌbtəˈreɪnijən/ adj, formal 1 : located or living under the surface of the ground ▪ subterranean caverns/termites
2 : existing or working in secret ▪ the subterranean [=underground] world of organized crime

sub•ti•tle /ˈsʌbˌtaɪtl/ noun, pl -ti•tles [count]
1 : words that appear on the screen during a movie, video, or television show and that are translations of what the actors are saying — usually plural ▪ The film is in Chinese with English subtitles.
2 : a title that comes after the main title of a book and that often gives more information about the contents of the book
– subtitle verb -titles; -ti•tled; -ti•tling [+ obj] ▪ It takes a lot of work to subtitle a film. – subtitled adj ▪ a subtitled movie sub•tle /ˈsʌtl/ adj sub•tler; sub•tlest [or more ~; most ~]

1 : hard to notice or see : not obvious ▪ a subtle difference in meaning between the words ▪ subtle changes/variations ▪ the subtlest details ▪ Racial discrimination still exists, only now it's subtler than it once was. ▪ subtle flavors
2 : clever and indirect : not showing your real purpose ▪ When it comes to giving criticism, sometimes it's best to take a subtle approach. ▪ He didn't seem to understand my subtle hints. ▪ It was her subtle way of telling me to mind my own business.
3 : having or showing skill at recognizing and understanding things that are not obvious : PERCEPTIVE ▪ She has a subtle mind. ▪ a subtle analysis – sub•tly /ˈsʌtli/ adv ▪ subtly different shades of red

sub•tle•ty /ˈsʌtlti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being subtle ▪ The pianist performed with subtlety and passion. ▪ The movie lacks subtlety.
2 [count] : a small detail that is usually important but not obvious — usually plural ▪ the subtleties of social interaction sub•top•ic /ˈsʌbˌtɑːpɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : a topic that is one of the parts or divisions of the main topic of a piece of writing ▪ Each chapter is broken down into subtopics.

sub•to•tal /ˈsʌbˌtoʊtl/ noun, pl -tals [count] : the sum of a set of numbers that is then added to another number or set of numbers ▪ Your subtotal is $14, and with tax, that will be $14.70.

sub•tract /səbˈtrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing : to take (a number or amount) from another number or amount [+ obj] — usually + from ▪ If we subtract 5 from 9, we get 4. ▪ Subtract the expenses from your income. [no obj] The children are learning how to add and subtract. [=to perform subtraction] — opposite ADD sub•trac•tion /səbˈtrækʃən/ noun [noncount] mathematics : the act or process of subtracting one number from another ▪ The children are learning addition and subtraction.

sub•trop•i•cal /ˌsʌbˈtrɑːpɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to or living in an area that is close to tropical parts of the world ▪ a subtropical [=semitropical] region ▪ subtropical vegetation ▪ a subtropical bird

sub•trop•ics /ˌsʌbˈtrɑːpɪks/ noun
the subtropics : parts of the world that are close to the tropics : subtropical regions sub•urb /ˈsʌˌbəb/ noun, pl -urbs [count] : a town or other area where people live in houses near a larger city ▪ She left the city and moved to the suburbs. [=one of the suburbs near that city] — often + of ▪ the suburbs of Chicago ▪ I grew up in a suburb of Denver.

sub•ur•ban /səˈbəbən/ adj : living in or relating to a suburb or to suburbs in general ▪ a suburban mother of two ▪ typical suburban houses ▪ suburban Denver [=the suburbs near Denver]

sub•ur•ban•ite /səˈbəbəˌnaɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : a person who lives in a suburb

sub•ur•bia /səˈbəbijə/ noun [noncount] : suburbs in general ▪ a problem that is common in suburbia ▪ the percentage of the country's population living in suburbia; also : people who live in suburbs ▪ The film is an interesting critique of suburbia. ▪ the values of suburbia

sub•ven•tion /səbˈvɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] chiefly Brit : an amount of money that is given to a person or group by a government or organization ▪ government subventions [=subsidies]

sub•ver•sive /səbˈvəsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : secretly trying to ruin or destroy a government, political system, etc. ▪ subversive groups/activities ▪ The government blamed a subversive organization for the riots.
2 : criticizing something in a clever and indirect way in order to make it weaker or less effective ▪ I enjoy her subversive sense of humor. ▪ the author's subversive attitude toward pop

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 211 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s culture ▪ ideas that are subversive of society/authority – subversive noun, pl -sives [count] ▪ The government claims that the riots were incited by subversives. – sub•ver•sive•ly adv – sub•ver•sive•ness noun [noncount]

sub•vert /səbˈvɚt/ verb -verts; -vert•ed; -vert•ing [+ obj] formal 1 : to secretly try to ruin or destroy a government, political system, etc. ▪ They conspired to subvert the government.
2 : to make (something) weaker or less effective ▪ subvert [=undermine] the rule of law ▪ trying to subvert the electoral process
– sub•ver•sion /səbˈvɚʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count, noncount] ▪ They were charged with subversion. ▪ a subversion of the rule of law – sub•vert•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ subverters of democracy

sub•way /ˈsʌbˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count]
1 chiefly US : a system of underground trains in a city ▪ I took/rode the subway to midtown. ▪ No one on the subway seemed to mind how crowded it was. ▪ I've been on both the New York subway and the Underground in London. — often used before another noun ▪ a subway car/station ▪ the subway platform
2 Brit : a road or passage for walking under a road, set of railroad tracks, etc. : UNDERPASS

sub•woof•er /ˈsʌbˈwʊfɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] technical : a speaker (sense 5) that produces very low sounds — compare TWEETER, WOOFER

sub•ze•ro /ˌsʌbˈziroʊ/ adj : below zero degrees : extremely cold ▪ subzero temperatures/weather

suc•ceed /səkˈsiːd/ verb -ceeds; -ceed•ed; -ceed•ing
1 [no obj] a : to do what you are trying to do : to achieve the correct or desired result ▪ You can succeed where others failed. ▪ She hopes to succeed [=to do well] at her job. — often + in ▪ He will never succeed in this business. [=he will never be successful in this business] ▪ Our team succeeded in stopping their offensive momentum. ▪ She finally succeeded in persuading me to go. ▪ I tried to apologize but only succeeded in making her angrier. [=all I did was make her angrier when I tried to apologize] b : to happen in the planned or desired way ▪ The plan just might succeed. ▪ Their attempt seemed unlikely to succeed.
2 a [+ obj] : to come after (something) in a series ▪ The new model will succeed [=replace] the current one next spring. b : to get a particular job, position, or title after the person who had it before you has retired, died, etc. [+ obj] Both of them have ambitions to succeed the prime minister. ▪ She will succeed him as chair of the committee. ▪ The Queen died and was succeeded by James I. [no obj] James I succeeded to the throne upon the Queen's death in 1603.
nothing succeeds like success — used to say that one success often results in another success succeeding adj, always used before a noun : coming after something : coming or happening at a later time ▪ now and for succeeding decades ▪ The trait is apparent in succeeding generations.

suc•cess /səkˈsɛs/ noun, pl -cess•es
1 [noncount] a : the fact of getting or achieving wealth, respect, or fame ▪ Success came easily to him. ▪ With success comes responsibility. ▪ the secret of my success [=why I am successful] b : the correct or desired result of an attempt ▪ Did you have any/much success in finding the dog? [=did you find the dog?] ▪ The project met with little success. [=was not successful] ▪ He tried to repair the engine but without success. [=he was not able to repair the engine]
2 [count] : someone or something that is successful : a person or thing that succeeds ▪ The play was an immediate success. [=it was immediately popular] ▪ one of her many successes [=one of many things she has done successfully] ▪ She is country music's most recent success. ▪ The growth of the tourism industry is one of the city's great successes.

suc•cess•ful /səkˈsɛsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having the correct or desired result : ending in success ▪ a successful attempt ▪ The treatment was successful. ▪ a successful movie [=a movie that makes a large profit] ▪ Our search was successful. [=we found what we were searching for]
2 : having gotten or achieved wealth, respect, or fame ▪ a successful businesswoman – suc•cess•ful•ly adv ▪ We have successfully finished the project. ▪ The infection was treated successfully.

suc•ces•sion /səkˈsɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] : the act of getting a title or right after the person who had that title or right before you has died or is no longer able or allowed to have it ▪ His succession to the throne occurred in 1603. [=he became king in 1603]; also : the process by which this happens ▪ royal succession ▪ As third in the line/order of succession, she would only become queen if her brothers both died or became ineligible.
2 [count] : a series of people or things that come one after the other — usually singular; usually + of ▪ The exhibit has attracted a succession of visitors. ▪ We hired a succession of temporary workers.
in succession : following one after the other ▪ The guests arrived in succession. ▪ He won the championship twice in succession. [=in a row] ▪ She listed the names in quick/rapid succession.

suc•ces•sive /səkˈsɛsɪv/ adj, always used before a noun : following one after the other in a series : following each other without interruption ▪ It snowed for three successive [=consecutive] days. ▪ the third successive day ▪ a trait found in successive generations ▪ their fourth successive [=consecutive] victory
– suc•ces•sive•ly adv ▪ He has owned a series of successively larger boats. [=a series of boats in which each boat is larger than the one before it]

suc•ces•sor /səkˈsɛsɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count] : a person who has a job, position, or title after someone else : someone who succeeds another person ▪ The CEO's successor used to be the vice president here. ▪ the successor to the throne — opposite PREDECESSOR success story noun, pl ~ stories [count] : a successful person or thing: such as a : someone or something that has achieved a goal ▪ I am one of the diet clinic's success stories. [=the diet clinic was able to help me] b : someone or something that has achieved wealth, respect, or fame ▪ That company is one of this area's biggest success stories.

suc•cinct /səkˈsɪŋkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using few words to state or express an idea ▪ He gave a succinct overview of the expansion project. ▪ a succinct description
synonyms see CONCISE – suc•cinct•ly adv ▪ Tell me as succinctly as you can what happened.

suc•cor (US) or Brit suc•cour /ˈsʌkɚ/ noun [noncount] literary : something that you do or give to help someone who is suffering or in a difficult situation ▪ We see it as our duty to give succor to those in need.
– succor (US) or Brit succour verb -cors; -cored; -cor•ing [+ obj] ▪ It is our duty to succor those in need.

suc•co•tash /ˈsʌkəˌtæʃ/ noun [noncount] US : a dish consisting of corn and lima beans that are cooked together

[1]suc•cu•lent /ˈsʌkjələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : full of juice ▪ a succulent steak ▪ succulent [=juicy] oranges
2 of plants : having thick, heavy leaves or stems that store water ▪ Cacti are succulent plants.
– suc•cu•lence /ˈsʌkjələns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the succulence of these oranges

[2]succulent noun, pl -lents [count] : a plant that stores water in its leaves or stems : a succulent plant ▪ cacti and other succulents

suc•cumb /səˈkʌm/ verb -cumbs; -cumbed; -cumb•ing [no obj] somewhat formal
1 : to stop trying to resist something ▪ They will pressure you, and you must try not to succumb. — often + to ▪ Try not to succumb to the pressure. ▪ It's easy to succumb [=give in] to the temptation to oversimplify this kind of problem.
2 : to die ▪ The patient eventually succumbed. — usually + to ▪ He succumbed to his injuries. [=he died because of his injuries] ▪ She fought a good fight but finally succumbed to cancer.

[1]such /ˈsʌtʃ/ adj
1 always used before a noun — used to say that something is great in degree, quality, or number ▪ I've been such a fool! [=I've been very foolish] ▪ How could you believe such nonsense? ▪ I've never seen such a (large) crowd here before. ▪ Where are you off to in such a rush? ▪ The building had deteriorated to such a degree [=so much] that they had to tear it down. ▪ I was surprised that the town had changed to such an extent. [=so much]
2 not used before a noun — used to say that something has a quality that results in something specified ▪ The evidence is such as to leave no doubt of his guilt. = The evidence is such that there can be no doubt of his guilt. ▪ Her excitement was such that she could hardly contain herself. [=she was so excited that she could hardly contain herself]
3 always used before a noun : of the kind specified ▪ The gun

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 212 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

had his fingerprints on it. Such evidence [=evidence of that kind] leaves little doubt of his guilt. ▪ She has published her first sci-fi novel and hopes to write more such novels. ▪ No such agreement was made. ▪ I know it was an accident, but such people [=people like that] should not be allowed to drive. ▪ "Can I talk to Mary?" "I'm sorry. There is no such person here." [=there is no one named Mary here] ▪ In such a situation (as this), it is important to remain calm. ▪ The magazine publishes articles about such varied subjects as astronomy, politics, and gardening. ▪ It will be documented in such a way/manner as to prevent misunderstanding. = It will be documented in such a way/manner that there can be no misunderstanding. [=it will be documented in a way that prevents misunderstanding] ▪ I've never heard of such a thing! ▪ "You will apologize at once!" "I'll do no such thing!" [=I will not apologize] ▪ There is no such thing as having too many friends. [=you cannot have too many friends] ▪ She said she was too busy or some such nonsense. [=or something similar]

[2]such pronoun, somewhat formal

1 : that kind or type of person or thing ▪ She has a plan, if it may be called such. [=if it deserves to be called a plan; if it is good/practical enough to be referred to as a plan] ▪ He was not only a politician but also an inventor and well-known as such. [=well-known as an inventor] ▪ It is a serious problem and should be treated as such. — see also AS SUCH (below)

2 : something previously stated or specified ▪ If such is the decision, nothing further should be done. ▪ We were outnumbered and surrounded. Such being the case [=since that was the case], we had to surrender. ▪ If you retained a receipt, please enclose a copy of such. [=please enclose a copy of the receipt] and such : and things of that kind ▪ Pens, pencils, markers, and such are in this drawer.

as such 1 : of the usual or expected kind : in the usual sense ▪ I have no boss as such [=there is no one who is actually my boss], but I do have to answer to my clients. 2 : by, of, or in itself — used to indicate that something is being considered by itself and not along with other things ▪ There's nothing wrong with gambling as such [=per se], but it's best to do it in moderation. — see also [2]SUCH 1 (above) such is life : life is like that and cannot be changed ▪ We've had our share of problems, but such is life.

[3]such adv

1 somewhat informal — used to make a description more forceful ▪ The team has such tall players. [=the team's players are very tall] ▪ She wears such stylish clothes. [=her clothes are very stylish] ▪ She hasn't been in such good spirits lately. ▪ We had such a good time [=a very good time] at the party! ▪ It is such a long trip. ▪ It was such an awkward moment. ▪ Today was such a nice/beautiful day! ▪ I don't think that's such a good/great idea. [=I don't think that's a good idea]

2 : to the degree that is specified or understood ▪ Such violent movies (as these) are not suitable for children. ▪ We've never had such a cold winter (as this). ▪ I have never seen such a large cat! ▪ I had such a bad headache that I couldn't think straight.

ever such see EVER

such as 1 — used to introduce an example or series of examples ▪ You will need some form of identification, such as [=like] a driver's license. ▪ "I have my reasons for not wanting to go." "Such as?" [=give me an example] 2 : of the specified kind ▪ In cases such as [=like] this (one), it's best to be cautious. ▪ Questions such as the one you've asked are difficult to answer.

such as it is — used to say that something is not very good in quality or condition ▪ The meal, such as it was, was served quickly. [=the meal, which was not very good, was served quickly] ▪ Welcome to my humble home—such as it is.

[1]such and such adj, always used before a noun : not named or specified ▪ people from such and such areas ▪ If you were born in such and such a year . . .

[2]such and such pronoun : something that is not specified ▪ If you earn such and such per year, then . . .

[1]such•like /ˈsʌʧˌlaɪk/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : sharing qualities or characteristics : SIMILAR ▪ rakes, shovels, and suchlike things and suchlike chiefly Brit : and things of that kind ▪ Pens, pencils, markers, and suchlike are in this drawer.

[2]suchlike pronoun

[1]suck /ˈsʌk/ verb sucks; sucked; suck•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to pull (liquid, air, etc.) into your mouth especially while your lips are forming a small hole ▪ sucking milk through a straw b : to pull on (something in your mouth) with the muscles of your lips and mouth [+ obj] a toddler sucking his thumb ▪ She just sucked her teeth and stared. [no obj] She sucked on an orange slice. c : to let (something, such as candy or medicine) stay in your mouth as it melts [+ obj] I sucked a cough drop. [no obj] sucking on a lollipop

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] a : to pull (something) with the force of moving water, air, etc. ▪ The tide almost sucked us out to sea. ▪ The boat was sucked under the water in the storm. b : to remove (something) from an area or substance by pulling it with the force of moving water, air, etc. ▪ These plants suck moisture from the soil. ▪ The fan sucks smoke from the air. ▪ a vacuum cleaner that sucks up water as well as dirt — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She just seems to suck the joy out of the room. ▪ This heat has sucked every ounce of energy out of me.

3 [+ obj] : to make (part of your body) flatter or tighter by pulling your muscles inward — + in ▪ He was sucking in his gut. [=pulling in his stomach to make himself seem thinner] ▪ It looked like she had sucked her cheeks in for the picture.

4 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to become involved or interested in something — + in or into ▪ Their lifestyle seemed exciting, and I admit it really sucked me in. — often used as (be/get) sucked in/into ▪ Hundreds of people got sucked into the scheme and many lost their entire life savings.

5 not used in progressive tenses [no obj] informal + sometimes impolite a : to be very bad or unpleasant ▪ You lost your job? That sucks. ▪ People who went to the party said it sucked. b : to do something very badly ▪ He sang a few songs, and man, he sucks. [=he sings badly] — often + at ▪ I suck at golf. [=I play golf badly] suck it and see Brit, informal : to try something in order to find out if it is good, effective, etc. ▪ We don't know if it will work. We'll have to just suck it and see. [=try it and see] ▪ a suck-it-and-see approach/situation suck (someone or something) dry see [1]DRY suck up [phrasal verb] 1 informal + disapproving : to try to get the approval of someone in authority by saying and doing helpful and friendly things that are not sincere ▪ There he goes, sucking up again. — usually + to ▪ She's always sucking up to [=kissing up to] the boss. — see also SUCK-UP

2 suck it up US, informal : to do or deal with something unpleasant by making a special effort ▪ I know you don't want to see him, but you'll just have to suck it up and be polite. ▪ I had to suck it up and play with an injured finger. — see also [1]SUCK 2b (above)

[2]suck noun, pl sucks [count] : an act of sucking ▪ He took a suck on his pipe.

[1]suck•er /ˈsʌkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 informal : a person who is easily tricked or deceived ▪ He's just a con artist looking for another sucker. ▪ There's a sucker born every minute. [=there are many people who are easily tricked or deceived]

2 informal : a person who is very strongly attracted to a particular type of thing or person — + for ▪ She's a sucker for mystery novels. [=she likes mystery novels very much] ▪ He's a sucker for women with dark hair.

3 chiefly US, informal : an annoying person or thing ▪ That kid is a mean little sucker. ▪ I got the other window open, but I just can't seem to get this sucker [=this window] to budge.

4 : a person who sucks something specified — usually used in combination ▪ She's a thumb-sucker.

5 : a part of an animal's body that is used for sucking or for attaching to things ▪ the suckers on an octopus's arms

6 : a new branch that grows from the base of a plant ▪ Cut off any suckers growing at the base of the bush.

7 US, informal : LOLLIPOP

8 Brit : SUCTION CUP

[2]sucker verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing

sucker into [phrasal verb] sucker (someone) into (something) US, informal : to deceive or trick (someone) in order to make that person do (something) ▪ I was suckered into volunteering at the cookout. ▪ She suckered me into paying for her meal. ▪ How did I get suckered into (doing) this?

sucker punch verb ~ punches; ~ punched; ~ punching [+ obj] US : to hit (a person) suddenly and usually without any obvious reason ▪ One of them sucker punched me. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a series of bad storms that have sucker punched the island – sucker punch noun, pl ~ punches [count] ▪ He hit me with a sucker punch.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 213 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

suck•le /ˈsʌkəl/ verb suck•les; suck•led; suck•ling [+ obj] : to give (a baby or young animal) milk from a breast or from an udder ▪ a mother suckling [=breast-feeding] her baby ▪ a cat suckling her kittens suck•ling pig /ˈsʌklɪŋ-/ noun, pl ~ pigs [count, noncount] : a young pig that is roasted and served at a meal

suck–up /ˈsʌkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who tries to get the approval of someone in authority by saying and doing helpful and friendly things that are not sincere ▪ I don't think you can give your professor a gift without being considered a suck-up. — see also suck up at [1]SUCK su•crose /ˈsuːˌkroʊs/ noun [noncount] technical : a type of sugar that is found in most plants ✧ Sucrose is the kind of sugar commonly used for cooking and baking.

[1]suc•tion /ˈsʌkʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of removing the air, water, etc., from a space in order to pull something into that space or in order to cause something to stick to a surface ▪ The vacuum cleaner picks up dirt by suction. ▪ The octopus grasps things using suction.; also : the force with which the air, water, etc., in a space is removed ▪ a vacuum cleaner with enough suction to pick up the heaviest particles of dirt ▪ strong suction

[2]suction verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] technical : to remove (something) by pulling it with the force of moving water, air, etc. : to remove (something) by using suction ▪ The surgeon will suction blood out of the area.

suction cup noun, pl ~ cups [count] : a round, shallow cup made of a flexible material (such as rubber) that you attach to a surface by pressing the cup against the surface until the air between the cup and surface is removed ▪ The device is held to the wall with two suction cups.

sud•den /ˈsʌdn̩/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happening, coming, or done very quickly in a way that is usually not expected ▪ a sudden change/rise in temperature ▪ Sudden fame/success can be difficult to deal with. ▪ She had a sudden urge to be outside. ▪ His death was very sudden. ▪ a sudden turn in the road ▪ I was surprised by her sudden decision to quit. ▪ The director's sudden departure leaves the organization's future uncertain.

all of a sudden : SUDDENLY ▪ I was walking down the street when, all of a sudden, it started raining. ▪ All of a sudden, I saw what he was looking at.

– sud•den•ness /ˈsʌdn̩nəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the suddenness of the attack ▪ I was surprised by the suddenness of her decision.

sudden death noun [noncount]
1 sports : a period of extra play that is added when teams or players are tied at the end of normal play and that ends as soon as one team or player scores a point or gains the lead ▪ We won 27–24 in sudden death. — often used before another noun ▪ a sudden-death play-off in golf
2 medical : quick and unexpected death from any cause other than violence ▪ a serious heart condition that can result in sudden death

sudden infant death syndrome noun [noncount] technical : the death of a healthy baby that happens for no known reason while the baby is sleeping — called also crib death, (Brit) cot death, SIDS

sud•den•ly /ˈsʌdn̩li/ adv : very quickly in usually an unexpected way : in a sudden way ▪ Suddenly the lights went out. ▪ I was suddenly very nervous. ▪ There were no instances of the disease here until it suddenly appeared last year. ▪ She suddenly decided to quit her job. ▪ He died suddenly of a heart attack.

suds /ˈsʌdz/ noun
1 [plural] : bubbles that form on top of water that contains soap — called also soapsuds
2 [noncount] US, informal : BEER ▪ a bottle of suds
– sudsy /ˈsʌdzi/ adj suds•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ sudsy water

sue /ˈsuː, Brit ˈsjuː/ verb sues; sued; su•ing : to use a legal process by which you try to get a court of law to force a person, company, or organization that has treated you unfairly or hurt you in some way to give you something or to do something : to bring a lawsuit against someone or something [no obj] Some people sue over the most minor things. ▪ People injured in accidents caused by the defective tire have threatened to sue. — often + for ▪ They're suing for damages. [=suing to get money for the unfair treatment, damage, etc., that they have suffered] ▪ His wife is suing for divorce. [=his wife has begun a legal process in order to get a divorce] [+ obj] They've threatened to sue the company. ▪ He is suing the doctor who performed the unnecessary surgery. — often + for ▪ They're suing the company for damages. ▪ She's suing her husband for divorce.

sue for peace formal : to officially ask for an end to fighting ▪ a decisive battle after which the rebels sued for peace

suede /ˈsweɪd/ noun [noncount] : soft leather that has been rubbed on one side to make a surface that looks and feels like velvet ▪ The gloves are suede. — often used before another noun ▪ a suede jacket su•et /ˈsuːwət/ noun [noncount] : a type of hard fat that is found in cows and sheep ▪ beef suet

suf•fer /ˈsʌfə/ verb -fers; -fered; -fer•ing
1 : to experience pain, illness, or injury [no obj] Before the surgery it was clear that she was really suffering. [=was in pain] ▪ He died instantly and did not suffer. — often + from ▪ She suffers from arthritis. ▪ This patient is clearly suffering from shock. [+ obj] He suffered a heart attack and died instantly. ▪ She suffered an injury during the game.
2 : to experience something unpleasant (such as defeat, loss, or damage) [no obj] We suffered a great deal during the war. ▪ I hate to see a child suffer. ▪ She suffered through another one of their long visits. [+ obj] The team suffered a defeat in the play-offs. ▪ He broke the law, so he has to suffer the consequences. [=he has to be punished for what he has done]
3 [no obj] : to become worse because of being badly affected by something ▪ Their relationship suffered because of her work. ▪ He was working so hard that his health began to suffer. [=he began to have health problems] ▪ His parents told him he could play football as long as his grades didn't suffer (as a result).

suffer fools gladly : to be kind to and patient with people who annoy or bother you — usually used in negative statements ▪ My mother was a woman who did not suffer fools gladly.

suf•fer•ance /ˈsʌfərəns/ noun
on sufferance Brit, formal ✧ If you are allowed to do something on sufferance, you are allowed to do it by someone who does not want you to do it. ▪ She was allowed in only on sufferance.

suf•fer•er /ˈsʌfərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who has a particular illness or condition ▪ asthma sufferers

suf•fer•ing /ˈsʌfərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [noncount] : pain that is caused by injury, illness, loss, etc. : physical, mental, or emotional pain ▪ ways to alleviate human suffering ▪ They hope these new drugs will help to bring an end to the suffering of arthritis patients. ▪ His lawsuit seeks damages for pain and suffering.
2 sufferings [plural] : feelings of pain ▪ the sufferings of the dying suf• ce /səˈfaɪs/ verb - c•es ; - ced ; - c•ing [no obj] : to be or provide as much as is needed : to be sufficient ▪ No, you don't need to write a letter. A phone call will suffice. ▪ Her example alone should suffice to show that anything is possible.

suffice (it) to say — used to say that you could give more information about something but that the statement that follows is enough ▪ First, the car wouldn't start, and then I got stuck in traffic—suffice it to say, there was no way I could get here on time. ▪ Suffice to say, she has a lot on her hands with four children.

suf• •cient /səˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : having or providing as much as is needed : ENOUGH ▪ A brisk walk is sufficient to raise your heart rate. ▪ A 15 percent tip is sufficient. [=adequate] ▪ There must be sufficient funds in your bank account to cover the check. ▪ sufficient savings ▪ Her explanation was not sufficient to satisfy the police. — see also SELF-SUFFICIENT
– suf• •cien •cy /səˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count, noncount] ▪ challenging the sufficiency of the evidence/proof
– suf• •cient •ly adv ▪ He was sufficiently bothered by the noise to complain to the manager. ▪ Her health has improved sufficiently to allow her to return to work. ▪ Make sure that the temperature is sufficiently cool.

suf• x /ˈsʌfɪks/ noun, pl - x•es [count] : a letter or a group of letters that is added to the end of a word to change its meaning or to form a different word ▪ The adjective "smokeless" is formed by adding the suffix "-less" to the noun "smoke." ▪ The adverb "sadly" is formed by adding the suffix "-ly" to the adjective "sad." — compare AFFIX, PREFIX

suf•fo•cate /ˈsʌfəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing
1 a [no obj] : to die because you are unable to breathe ▪

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 214 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

Don't put that pillow over her face—she could suffocate. ▪ The poor dog could suffocate in the car on a hot day like this. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I'm suffocating in this job. [=I can't express myself, act freely, etc., in this job] b [+ obj] : to kill (someone) by making breathing impossible ▪ She was afraid that thick pillows and blankets could suffocate [=smother] the baby. ▪ The victims were found suffocated. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Anger and resentment slowly suffocated their marriage. ▪ Critics say that the new tax will suffocate local businesses.

2 [no obj] : to be uncomfortable because there is not enough fresh air — usually used as (be) suffocating ▪ We were suffocating in the stuffy boardroom.

– suf•fo•ca•tion /ˌsʌfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The victims died of suffocation.

suffocating adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very unpleasant or uncomfortable because there is not enough fresh air ▪ suffocating heat ▪ a suffocating room

2 — used to describe something that makes it difficult to act freely ▪ a suffocating bureaucracy/relationship

3 — used to describe something that makes you very uncomfortable ▪ a suffocating silence

– suffocatingly adj ▪ a suffocatingly hot day ▪ a suffocatingly close relationship suf•frage /ˈsʌfrɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the right to vote in an election ▪ women who fought for suffrage ▪ universal suffrage [=the right of all adult citizens to vote in an election]

suf•frag•ette /ˌsʌfrɪˈʤɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] : a woman who worked to get voting rights for women in the past when women were not allowed to vote

suf•frag•ist /ˈsʌfrɪʤɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person in the past who worked to get voting rights for people who did not have them

suf•fuse /səˈfjuːz/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing [+ obj] literary : to spread over or fill (something) ▪ Morning light suffused the room. — usually used as (be) suffused ▪ The room was suffused with morning light.

Su• /ˈsuːfi/ noun, pl - s [count] : a member of a Muslim group of people who try to experience God directly especially by praying and meditating

– Su• sm /ˈsuːˌfɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

[1]sug•ar /ˈʃʊgə/ noun, pl -ars

1 a [noncount] : a sweet substance usually in the form of white or brown crystals or white powder that comes from plants and is used to make foods sweeter ▪ Would you pass the sugar, please? ▪ Do you take sugar in your coffee? ▪ a lump/cube/packet of sugar — see also BROWN SUGAR, CANE SUGAR, CONFECTIONERS' SUGAR, MAPLE SUGAR, POWDERED SUGAR b [count] : the amount of sugar in one spoonful, lump, packet, etc. ▪ Coffee with two sugars and milk, please.

2 [count] technical : any one of various substances that are found in plants and that your body uses or stores for energy — usually plural ▪ Everyone's body metabolizes sugars differently. ▪ Simple sugars are easier to digest than complex sugars.

3 [noncount] informal : the amount of sugar present in a person's blood at a particular time ▪ Her sugar (level) is very high. — called also blood sugar

4 chiefly US, informal — used to address someone you like or love ▪ "Hey, sugar [=honey], how are you doing?"

[2]sugar verb sugars; sug•ared; sug•ar•ing

1 [+ obj] : to put sugar on or in (something) ▪ The clean fruit is then dried and sugared. ▪ She sugared her coffee.

2 [no obj] US : to make maple syrup or maple sugar by boiling sap from maple trees ▪ They've been sugaring since they were children.

sugar the pill see [1]PILL

– sugared adj ▪ heavily sugared coffee/tea [=coffee/tea with a lot of sugar added to it] ▪ sugared almonds sugar beet noun, pl ~ beets [count] : a white beet that is grown for the sugar in its root sug•ar•cane /ˈʃʊgəˌkeɪn/ noun [noncount] : a tall grass that is grown in warm places as a source of sugar sug•ar•coat /ˈʃʊgəˌkoʊt/ verb -coats; -coat•ed; -coat•ing [+ obj] : to talk about or describe (something) in a way that makes it seem more pleasant or acceptable than it is ▪ textbooks that sugarcoat history ▪ She has very strong opinions, and she doesn't try to sugarcoat them.

sugar–coated adj

1 : covered in sugar ▪ sugar-coated cereal

2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : made to seem more pleasant or acceptable than it is ▪ a sugar-coated version of history sugar cube noun, pl ~ cubes [count] : a small cube of sugar that is put in coffee or tea to make it sweet — called also (Brit) sugar lump sugar daddy noun, pl ~ -dies [count] informal : a rich, older man who gives money, gifts, etc., to someone (such as a young woman) in exchange for sex, friendship, etc. ▪ She's on the lookout for a new sugar daddy. — sometimes used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ politicians getting money from their corporate sugar daddies

sugar–free adj : not containing sugar : containing an artificial sweetening substance instead of sugar ▪ sugar-free gum

sug•ar•less /ˈʃʊgələs/ adj : SUGAR-FREE ▪ sugarless gum sugar maple noun, pl ~ -ples [count] chiefly US : a kind of maple tree that grows in eastern North America and that has sweet sap that is used to make maple syrup and maple sugar sugar pill noun, pl ~ pills [count] : a pill that is given to a patient like a drug but that has no medicine in it : PLACEBO ▪ Half the patients were given the medication and the other half received a sugar pill.

sug•ar•plum /ˈʃʊgəˌplʌm/ noun, pl -plums [count] US, old-fashioned : a small, sweet candy that is usually shaped like a ball

sugar snap pea noun, pl ~ peas [count] : a type of pea whose thick outer part and seeds can be eaten — called also snap pea sug•ary /ˈʃʊgəri/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : tasting like sugar or containing a lot of sugar ▪ sugary breakfast cereals

2 disapproving : showing or expressing a pleasant emotion in a way that seems excessive and false : too sweet ▪ a sugary ballad ▪ sugary cheerfulness/sentiment

sug•gest /səˈʤɛst/ verb -gests; -gest•ed; -gest•ing [+ obj]

1 : to mention (something) as a possible thing to be done, used, thought about, etc. ▪ I suggest (that) you call the store. ▪ We suggested to the committee that they review the case again. ▪ It was suggested that we leave early. ▪ He suggested several different ways of dealing with the problem. ▪ She suggested a stroll after dinner. = She suggested that we go for a stroll after dinner.

2 : to say that (someone or something) is good or deserves to be chosen : RECOMMEND ▪ Who would you suggest for the job? ▪ They suggested a restaurant we might want to try. ▪ I suggest caution in a situation like this.

3 : to show that (something) is likely or true : to indicate (something) usually without showing it in a direct or certain way ▪ The evidence suggests arson as the cause of the fire. ▪ There is nothing to suggest that the two events are connected. ▪ As the name suggests, a yarn winder is a device used to wind balls of yarn.

4 : to say (something) in an indirect way ▪ Are you suggesting [=implying] (that) he deliberately cheated? ▪ I think he's suggesting that we shouldn't have helped them.

suggest itself somewhat formal, of an idea, plan, etc. : to be thought of : to seem or become obvious ▪ No good solution suggested itself. [=I was unable to think of a good solution]

sug•gest•ible /səˈʤɛstəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : likely to believe that what someone says is true or may be true : easily influenced ▪ The patient/child was highly suggestible.

sug•ges•tion /səˈʤɛsʧən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] a : an idea about what someone should do or how someone should behave ▪ Do you have any suggestions? ▪ Please send comments and suggestions to our post office box. ▪ I have a suggestion: call the store and ask them about it. ▪ I'd like to offer/make a suggestion. ▪ I am always open to suggestions. [=ready to hear new ideas] b : something that is said in an indirect way ▪ I'm shocked at the suggestion that he deliberately cheated. = The very suggestion that he deliberately cheated is shocking (to me). ▪ I reject his suggestion that we shouldn't have helped them.

2 a : an action, quality, appearance, etc., that seems to indicate the presence or existence of something [count] — usually singular ▪ There was a suggestion of boredom in his tone of voice. [noncount] They were careful to avoid any suggestion of impropriety. [=avoid doing anything that could be seen as improper] ▪ There was some suggestion of swelling around his ankle. [=his ankle appeared to be slightly swollen] b [count] : a very small amount of something — usually singular ▪ a flavor of chocolate with a (slight) suggestion [=hint] of pepper

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 215 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

3 [noncount] : the process by which you make people think or feel something by saying, expressing, or showing something that is related only indirectly ▪ trying to influence people's thoughts by using suggestion ▪ The director relies on the power of suggestion rather than explicitly showing the murder.

at/on someone's suggestion : because someone said that you should ▪ On his suggestion, I applied for the job. [=I applied for the job because he suggested that I should] ▪ She went to Germany at my suggestion.

sug•ges•tive /səˈʤɛstɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : bringing thoughts, memories, or feelings into the mind — + of ▪ music suggestive [=evocative] of a past era b : showing or seeming to show something — + of ▪ symptoms suggestive of AIDS

2 : causing or tending to cause sexual feelings or excitement ▪ a suggestive [=revealing] nightgown ▪ suggestive [=provocative] song lyrics

– sug•ges•tive•ly adv ▪ The dancers moved suggestively.

sui•cid•al /ˌsu:wəˈsaɪdl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : wanting to kill yourself ▪ psychiatrists working with suicidal patients ▪ Her friends are worried that she might be suicidal. [=that she might want to kill herself] : showing a desire to kill yourself ▪ She had suicidal thoughts/tendencies.

2 : extremely dangerous : likely to cause your death ▪ The mission is suicidal. ▪ a suicidal rescue attempt : likely to cause great harm to yourself ▪ He knows that supporting a tax increase would be politically suicidal.

[1]sui•cide /ˈsu:wəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides

1 a : the act of killing yourself because you do not want to continue living [noncount] She had thoughts of suicide. ▪ He committed suicide. [=he killed himself] ▪ He attempted suicide. [=he tried to kill himself] [count] Authorities have officially ruled the death a suicide. ▪ There were two suicides last year at the university. — see also ASSISTED SUICIDE, PHYSICIAN-ASSISTED SUICIDE b [count] : a person who commits suicide ▪ Her father was a suicide. [=her father killed himself]

2 [noncount] : an action that ruins or destroys your career, social position, etc. ▪ Accepting that kind of support is political suicide. [=it will cause the end of your career in politics] ▪ It would be suicide for the company to try to expand too quickly. [=the company would fail if it tried to expand too quickly]

[2]suicide adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to suicide ▪ a suicide attempt ▪ Did he leave a suicide note? [=a note/letter explaining why he killed himself] — used especially to describe something that is done by a person who plans and expects to be killed while doing it ▪ a suicide mission/bombing ▪ a suicide bomber [=a person who commits suicide by exploding a bomb in order to kill other people] suicide pact noun, pl ~ pacts [count] : an agreement between two or more people to kill themselves at the same time ▪ The two friends died in what appeared to be a suicide pact.

sui ge•ner•is /ˌsu:ˌaɪˈʤɛnərəs/ adj, formal : in a class or group of its own : not like anything else ▪ As a scholar, she is sui generis. [=unique]

[1]suit /ˈsu:t/ noun, pl suits

1 [count] : a set of clothes that usually consists of a jacket and a skirt or pair of pants that are made out of the same material ▪ a tweed/wool suit ▪ He wore his gray suit to the job interview. — see color picture on page C15; see also BUSINESS SUIT, LEISURE SUIT, LOUNGE SUIT, PANTSUIT, SAILOR SUIT, SHELL SUIT, THREE-PIECE SUIT, TROUSER SUIT, TWO-PIECE SUIT, ZOOT SUIT

2 [count] : a set of clothes or protective covering that is worn for a special purpose or under particular conditions ▪ a gym suit ▪ a suit of armor — see also BATHING SUIT, BODYSUIT, CATSUIT, JUMPSUIT, SNOWSUIT, SPACE SUIT, SWEAT SUIT, SWIMSUIT, UNION SUIT, WET SUIT

3 : a process by which a court of law makes a decision to settle a disagreement or problem between people or organizations : LAWSUIT [count] a civil/criminal suit ▪ divorce/custody/paternity suits ▪ He filed/brought a suit [=started legal proceedings] against her. [noncount] He filed/brought suit [=started legal proceedings] against her.

4 [count] : all the cards that have the same symbol in a pack of playing cards ▪ The trump suit is hearts/clubs/diamonds/spades.

5 [count] informal + disapproving : a person who has an important job in an office and who wears a suit : a business executive ▪ She described her boss as "an empty suit." [=a stupid and ineffective businessman] — usually plural ▪ Get back to work. The suits just walked in.

birthday suit see BIRTHDAY

follow suit see [1]FOLLOW

– see also LONG SUIT, STRONG SUIT

[2]suit verb suits; suit•ed; suit•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to provide what is required or wanted by or for (someone or something) ▪ This program should suit [=satisfy] your needs. ▪ The restaurant offers meals to suit [=please] all tastes. ▪ I can schedule the meeting for tomorrow. Does that suit you? [=is that convenient for you?] ▪ That suits me fine. ▪ He only helps out when it suits him. [=when he wants to; when it is convenient for him to help out] b : to be proper or suitable for (someone or something) ▪ This kind of behavior hardly suits a person of your age. ▪ She gave a serious speech that suited the occasion. ▪ The formal furniture really suited the style of the house. ▪ The job suits her very well. ▪ (Brit) This kind of work suits me down to the ground. [=suits me perfectly; I like/enjoy this kind of work very much]

2 : to be attractive on (someone) — not used in passive constructions ▪ Your new hairstyle suits [=becomes] you. ▪ That dress doesn't really suit her.

suit someone's book Brit, informal : to be suitable or satisfactory to someone ▪ The changes should suit your book.

suit up [phrasal verb] US : to put on a uniform or special clothing ▪ The players are suiting up for the game. ▪ The divers suited up.

suit yourself informal : to do what you want to do — used especially to tell people that they can do what they want even though you do not think it is what they should do ▪ "I don't want to go." "Suit yourself. [=do what you want] We'll go without you."

suit•able /ˈsu:təbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having the qualities that are right, needed, or appropriate for something ▪ The dress was a suitable choice. ▪ We upgraded the computer to make it suitable to our needs. — often + for ▪ Is this shirt suitable for work? ▪ Her experience makes her more suitable for the job. ▪ What is a suitable time/place for us to meet? ▪ The movie is not suitable for children. [=children should not watch it] — opposite UNSUITABLE suit•case /ˈsu:tˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cas•es [count] : a large case that you use to carry your clothing and belongings when you are traveling ▪ She packed her suitcases the night before she left.

– suit•abil•i•ty /ˌsu:təˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ No one questioned her suitability for the job. – suit•ably /ˈsu:təbli/ adv ▪ They were suitably dressed for the occasion. ▪ The old house was a suitably spooky place for a Halloween party.

suite /ˈswi:t/ noun, pl suites [count]

1 a : a group of rooms that is used for one purpose ▪ a suite of offices on the fifth floor ▪ The executive suite is on the top floor. b : a group of rooms in a hotel that is used by one person, couple, family, etc. ▪ She checked into a suite. ▪ We stayed in the hotel's honeymoon/bridal suite. — see also EN SUITE

2 : a piece of music that is made up of many short pieces that are taken from a larger work (such as a ballet) ▪ The orchestra will be performing a suite. ▪ the Nutcracker Suite

3 chiefly Brit : a set of matching pieces of furniture for a room ▪ a bedroom/bathroom suite ▪ We bought a three-piece suite [=a couch and two chairs] for the living room.

4 : a set of computer programs that are designed to work together ▪ a suite of business software suit•ed /ˈsu:təd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having the qualities that are right, needed, or appropriate for something — + for or to ▪ The land is well suited for farming. ▪ We will hire the person who is best/most suited to the job. ▪ The plant is suited to (living in) tropical climates.

suit•ing /ˈsu:tɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : cloth that is used in making suits suit•or /ˈsu:tɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count]

1 old-fashioned : a man who wants to marry a particular woman ▪ He was her most persistent suitor, and she eventually agreed to marry him.

2 technical : a company that wants to take over another company ▪ An unwanted suitor is buying up the company's stock.

sul•fate (US) or chiefly Brit sul•phate /ˈsʌlˌfeɪt/ noun, pl -fates [count, noncount] chemistry : a salt that is formed when sulfuric acid reacts with another chemical element ▪ copper sulfate

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 216 SESS: 45 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sul•fide (US) or chiefly Brit sul•phide /ˈsʌlˌfaɪd/ noun, pl -fides [count, noncount] chemistry : a compound that contains sulfur and one or more other chemical elements sul•fur (US) or chiefly Brit sul•phur /ˈsʌlfə/ noun [noncount] chemistry : a yellow chemical element that has a strong, unpleasant odor when it is burned and that is used in making paper, gunpowder, medicine, etc.

> usage In U.S. English, the spelling sulfur is chiefly used in technical writing, while both sulfur and sulphur are common in general writing.

sulfur dioxide (US) or chiefly Brit sulphur dioxide noun [noncount] chemistry : a gas that has a strong smell, that is used in many industries, and that contributes to air pollution sul•fu•ric acid (US) or chiefly Brit sul•phu•ric acid /sʌlˈfjərɪk-/ noun [noncount] chemistry : a very strong type of acid

sul•fu•rous (US) or chiefly Brit sul•phu•rous /ˈsʌlfərəs/ adj, chemistry : of, relating to, or containing sulfur ▪ sulfurous compounds/gas ▪ a sulfurous odor

[1]sulk /ˈsʌlk/ verb sulks; sulked; sulk•ing [no obj] : to be angry or upset about something and to refuse to discuss it with other people ▪ He went to sulk in his room. ▪ She has been sulking all day.

[2]sulk noun, pl sulks [count] : a period of time when someone is angry or upset and refuses to speak ▪ tantrums and sulks ▪ He was in a sulk. [=he was sulking] ▪ She has a case of the sulks. [=she's sulking]

sulky /ˈsʌlki/ adj sulk•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : angry or upset about something and refusing to discuss it with others ▪ She is very sulky today. ▪ She's in a sulky mood.
2 : often quiet and angry or upset ▪ a sulky [=moody] child – sulk•i•ly /ˈsʌlkəli/ adv ▪ He sat sulkily in the chair. – sulk•i•ness /ˈsʌlkinəs/ noun [noncount]

sul•len /ˈsʌlən/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 — used to describe an angry or unhappy person who does not want to talk, smile, etc. ▪ sullen teenagers ▪ He's in a sullen mood. ▪ She sat in sullen silence. ▪ His face was sullen. = He had a sullen expression on his face.
2 literary : gray and dark ▪ a sullen [=gloomy] sky/morning
– sul•len•ly adv ▪ He stared sullenly out the window. – sul•len•ness /ˈsʌlənnəs/ noun [noncount] sul•ly /ˈsʌli/ verb sul•lies; sul•lied; sul•ly•ing [+ obj] formal : to damage or ruin the good quality of (something) ▪ The scandal sullied [=tarnished] her reputation.

sulphate, sulphide, sulphur, sulphur dioxide, sulphuric acid, sulphurous chiefly Brit spellings of SULFATE, SULFIDE, SULFUR, SULFUR DIOXIDE, SULFURIC ACID, SULFUROUS

sul•tan /ˈsʌltn/ noun, pl -tans [count] : a king or ruler of a Muslim state or country

sul•ta•na /ˌsʌlˈtænə, Brit ˌsʌlˈtɑːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count]
1 : the wife, mother, sister, or daughter of a sultan
2 chiefly Brit : GOLDEN RAISIN

sul•tan•ate /ˈsʌltəˌneɪt/ noun, pl -ates [count]
1 : a state or country that is ruled by a sultan
2 : the position of a sultan or the period of time when a sultan rules ▪ His sultanate ended in 1923.

sul•try /ˈsʌltri/ adj sul•tri•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : very hot and humid ▪ a sultry day ▪ sultry air/weather
2 : attractive in a way that suggests or causes feelings of sexual desire ▪ She looked at him with a sultry glance. ▪ a sultry woman/dress ▪ an actress with a sultry voice – sul•tri•ness /ˈsʌltrinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the sultriness of her voice

[1]sum /ˈsʌm/ noun, pl sums
1 [count] : an amount of money ▪ They spent large/considerable sums (of money) repairing the house. ▪ We donated a small sum (of money) to the charity. ▪ The sellers were asking for a modest sum. ▪ I paid the sum of $500. — see also LUMP SUM
2 [count] a : the result of adding two or more numbers together ▪ The sum of 5 and 7 is 12. b : a simple problem in mathematics — usually plural ▪ schoolchildren doing sums
3 [singular] : the whole amount of something ▪ Working odd summer jobs has been the sum of my experience so far. [=has been all the experience I've had so far] — see also SUM TOTAL in sum 1 : as a brief statement of the most important information in a piece of writing or speech ▪ In sum [=in summary], we need a better public health-care system. 2 : in a few words ▪ The movie was, in sum [=in short], entertaining as well as educational.
sum and substance : the general or basic meaning of something said or written ▪ What is the sum and substance [=gist] of the argument?
sum of its parts ✧ Something that is greater/better/more than the sum of its parts is better or more effective as a team, combination, etc., than you would expect it to be when you look at the different parts that form it. ▪ The team lacks standout players, but it has proved to be greater than the sum of its parts.
– see also ZERO-SUM GAME

[2]sum verb sums; summed; sum•ming
sum up [phrasal verb] 1 sum up or sum up (something) or sum (something) up : to tell (information) again using fewer words : to give a summary of (statements, facts, etc.) : SUMMARIZE ▪ I would like to take a moment to sum up the facts that I presented earlier. ▪ She sums up the main arguments of the essay in the final paragraph. ▪ The judge summed up the evidence in his speech to the jury. ▪ To sum up, we need a better public health-care system. 2 sum up (someone or something) or sum (someone or something) up a : to describe or show the most important parts or qualities of (someone or something) in a brief or simple way ▪ The article nicely sums up her career. ▪ That picture sums him up perfectly. [=that picture perfectly shows what kind of person he is] b : to describe (someone or something) using few words ▪ The solution to the landfill problem can be summed up in one word: recycling. ▪ The word "lazy" sums him up pretty well. ▪ "So, you don't want to go because you think it will be boring?" "That just about sums it up." — see also SUMMING-UP

su•mac /ˈʃuˌmæk, ˈsuːˌmæk/ noun, pl -macs [count, noncount] : a type of tree, bush, or vine that has many small leaves and produces red or white berries — see also POISON SUMAC

sum•ma cum lau•de /ˌsʌməˌkʌmˈlɑːdə/ adv, formal : with highest honor — used in the U.S. to indicate that a student has graduated from a college or university at the highest of three special levels of achievement ▪ She graduated summa cum laude. — compare CUM LAUDE, MAGNA CUM LAUDE sum•ma•rize (US) also Brit sum•ma•rise /ˈsʌməˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing : to tell (information) again using fewer words [+ obj] I would like to take a moment to summarize the facts that I presented earlier. ▪ She summarizes the essay's main arguments in the final paragraph. = She summarizes the essay in the final paragraph. [no obj] He summarized by saying we needed better planning and implementation. ▪ To summarize, we need better schools.

– sum•ma•ri•za•tion also Brit sum•ma•ri•sa•tion /ˌsʌmərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsʌməˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ A summarization [=summary] of the study's results can be found at the end of the report.

[1]sum•ma•ry /ˈsʌməri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a brief statement that gives the most important information about something ▪ He concluded the report with a brief summary. ▪ a chapter/plot summary ▪ They gave a summary of their progress in building the bridge.
in summary : as a brief statement of the most important information in a piece of writing or speech ▪ In summary [=in conclusion, in sum], we need a better public health-care system.

[2]summary adj, always used before a noun
1 : using few words to give the most important information about something ▪ a summary account of the accident ▪ a summary report
2 formal : done quickly in a way that does not follow the normal process ▪ a summary dismissal/execution/judgment ▪ a summary court proceeding – sum•mar•i•ly /səˈmɛrəli/ adv, formal ▪ He was summarily dismissed/executed.

sum•ma•tion /səˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 formal : a brief description of the most important information about something ▪ A summation can be found at the end of the report. ▪ We gave a summation of our discovery.
2 US, law : a final speech made by a lawyer in a court of law to give a summary of the main arguments in a case ▪ The defense attorneys and prosecutors are set to make their final summations today.

[1]sum•mer /ˈsʌmə/ noun, pl -mers : the warmest season of the year that is after spring and before autumn [count] What are your plans for this summer? ▪ the summer of 2005 ▪ We

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 217 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

visited them two summers ago. [noncount] in early/late summer ▪ the first day of summer — often used before another noun ▪ the summer months ▪ a hot summer day ▪ the company's summer catalog ▪ summer clothes ▪ a summer job ▪ summer vacation ▪ The children have fond memories of summer camp. — see also INDIAN SUMMER

[2]summer verb -mers; -mered; -mer•ing [no obj] : to spend the summer in a particular place ▪ We summer (at our house) in Virginia.

sum•mer•house /'sʌmə,haʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a covered structure in a garden or park that is used as a resting place in summer
2 summer house : a house that someone lives in during the summer ▪ They have a summer house on the lake. — called also summer home

summer school noun, pl ~ schools [count, noncount] : special classes that are taught at a school during the summer summer squash noun [count, noncount] US : a long, usually yellow vegetable that is a type of squash and that has soft skin which can be eaten — see color picture on page C4; compare WINTER SQUASH sum•mer•time /'sʌmə,taɪm/ noun [noncount]

1 : the season of summer ▪ We go there to pick strawberries in the summertime.
2 Summer Time Brit : BRITISH SUMMER TIME

sum•mery /'sʌməri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : suitable for or typical of summer ▪ a summery dress ▪ summery afternoons sum•ming–up /,sʌmɪŋ'ʌp/ noun, pl sum•mings–up /,sʌmɪŋz'ʌp/ [count]

1 : the act of telling information again using fewer words ▪ a summing-up of the results
2 law : a final speech made by a lawyer or judge in a court of law to give a summary of the arguments and evidence in a case — see also sum up at [2]SUM

sum•mit /'sʌmət/ noun, pl -mits [count]
1 a : the highest point of a mountain : the top of a mountain ▪ The mountain range has summits over 10,000 feet high. ▪ the summit [=peak] of Mount Everest ▪ The climbers failed to reach the summit. b : the highest level ▪ He reached the summit [=peak] of his career three years ago.
2 : a meeting or series of meetings between the leaders of two or more governments ▪ Leaders of several nations attended the economic summit. ▪ A summit on global warming was held that year. ▪ a summit meeting/conference sum•mon /'sʌmən/ verb -mons; -moned; -mon•ing [+ obj] formal

1 a : to order (someone) to come to a place ▪ The queen summoned him back to the palace. b : to order (someone) to appear in a court of law — often used as (be) summoned ▪ She was summoned to (appear in) court. ▪ She was summoned (to appear) before a judge.
2 : to ask for (someone or something) to come : to send or call for (someone or something) ▪ She summoned a doctor. ▪ The boy summoned help.
3 : to get (the courage, energy, strength, etc., that you need to do something) by making a special effort ▪ She couldn't summon [=muster] the strength/energy to finish the race. — often + up ▪ He finally summoned up the courage to ask her out on a date.
4 : to ask or order a group of people to come together for (a meeting) ▪ The president summoned [=convened] a meeting/conference.
summon up [phrasal verb] summon up (something) : to bring (a memory, feeling, image, etc.) into the mind ▪ Visiting his old house summoned up memories of his childhood. — see also SUMMON 3 (above)

[1]sum•mons /'sʌmənz/ noun, pl -mons•es
1 law : an official order to appear in a court of law [count] The judge issued a summons. ▪ He was served with a summons (to appear in court). [noncount] a writ/service of summons — compare SUBPOENA
2 [count] : an official order to appear at a particular place ▪ He received a royal summons.

[2]summons verb -monses; -monsed; -mons•ing [+ obj] law : to order (someone) to appear in a court of law : SUMMON — usually used as (be) summonsed ▪ She was summonsed to (appear in) court as a witness.

su•mo /'su:moʊ/ noun [noncount] : a Japanese form of wrestling that is performed by very large men ▪ sumo wrestlers sump /'sʌmp/ noun, pl sumps [count]

1 : a low part or area where liquid collects when it drains from something ▪ sump pits/trenches
2 chiefly Brit : OIL PAN

sump pump noun, pl ~ pumps [count] US : a pump that removes water from underneath a house or building

sump•tu•ous /'sʌmpʃəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very expensive, rich, or impressive ▪ a sumptuous banquet/dinner/feast ▪ sumptuous [=luxurious] hotels
– sump•tu•ous•ly adv ▪ a sumptuously furnished house – sump•tu•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the sumptuousness of the dessert sum total noun

the sum total : the whole amount : the entire total of something — usually + of ▪ The sum total of the payments will be $28,000. ▪ That's the sum total of what I know about cars. [=that's all I know about cars]

[1]sun /'sʌn/ noun, pl suns
1 a the sun also the Sun : the star that the Earth moves around and that gives the Earth heat and light ▪ The rain has stopped and the sun is shining. ▪ The sun rises in the east and sets in the west. ▪ the rising/setting sun ▪ the warmth of the sun's rays b [count] : any star that has planets which move around it ▪ They dream of traveling to distant suns.
2 [noncount] : the heat or light produced by the sun : sunshine or sunlight ▪ The plant needs full sun. [=it should not be in the shade] ▪ Try to keep out of the sun. ▪ The cat lay basking in the sun. ▪ I couldn't see because the sun was in my eyes. [=the bright light of the sun was shining directly in my eyes] ▪ We went to the beach to get/catch some sun. [=to spend time in the sunlight] in the sun ✧ If someone or something has a day/moment/time, etc., in the sun, that person or thing is popular or gets a lot of attention during a period of time. ▪ Organic foods are having their moment in the sun. ▪ The singer is still waiting for his day in the sun.
make hay (while the sun shines) see HAY place in the sun : a very good, successful, or desirable position ▪ After years of struggling as an unknown actor, he has finally found his/a place in the sun.
under the sun : in the world — used to emphasize the large number of things that are being mentioned ▪ There is nothing under the sun [=nothing at all] that we cannot do. ▪ We talked about everything under the sun. ▪ She called me every name under the sun.

[2]sun verb suns; sunned; sun•ning : to sit or lie in the light of the sun especially in order to make your skin darker [no obj] He is sunning [=sunbathing] by the pool. [+ obj] People sunned themselves on the hillside.

Sun. abbr Sunday

sun–baked adj
1 : made very hard and dry by the heat of the sun ▪ bricks made out of sun-baked mud
2 : receiving a lot of heat and light from the sun ▪ sandy, sun-baked beaches sun•bathe /'sʌn,beɪð/ verb -bathes; -bathed; -bath•ing [no obj] : to sit or lie in the light of the sun especially in order to make your skin darker ▪ She sunbathes every afternoon. ▪ People were sunbathing on the beach.

– sun•bath•er /'sʌn,beɪðə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

sun•beam /'sʌn,bi:m/ noun, pl -beams [count] : a ray of sunlight

sun•bed /'sʌn,bɛd/ noun, pl -beds [count]
1 chiefly Brit : TANNING BED
2 Brit : CHAISE LONGUE

Sun•belt /'sʌn,bɛlt/ noun
the Sunbelt : the southern and southwestern states of the U.S. ▪ She moved to the Sunbelt.

sun•block /'sʌn,blɑ:k/ noun, pl -blocks [count, noncount] : a lotion that you put on your skin to prevent sunburn by completely blocking out the sun's rays — compare SUNSCREEN

sun•burn /'sʌn,bən/ noun, pl -burns : a condition in which your skin becomes sore and red from too much sunlight [count] He has a bad sunburn. [noncount] Use sunscreen to prevent sunburn.
– sunburn verb -burns; -burned /-,bənd/ or -burnt /-,bənt/; -burn•ing [no obj] chiefly US ▪ Her skin sunburns [=burns] easily. = She sunburns easily.

sunburned also sunburnt adj
1 : sore and red from too much sunlight : having a sunburn ▪ Her skin is badly sunburned. ▪ a sunburned nose
2 Brit : having attractive skin that has been turned darker by being in the sun ▪ a handsome, sunburned [=tanned] surfer

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 218 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sun cream noun, pl ~ creams [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a cream or lotion that you put on your skin to prevent sunburn

sun•dae /ˈsʌnˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -daes [count] : a dessert of ice cream that is topped with a sweet sauce, nuts, whipped cream, etc. ▪ a hot-fudge sundae

sundae

Sun•day /ˈsʌnˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days : the day of the week between Saturday and Monday [count] She visited me last Sunday. ▪ What are you doing this/next Sunday? = What are you doing this coming Sunday? ▪ We go to church on Sundays. [=every Sunday] ▪ My birthday falls on a Sunday this year. ▪ (Brit) Next week I'll arrive on the Monday and leave on the Sunday. [noncount] Next week I'll arrive on Monday and leave on Sunday. ▪ I will leave on Sunday morning. ▪ the Sunday newspaper ▪ a Sunday brunch — abbr. Sun.

a month of Sundays see MONTH

– Sundays adv ▪ He works Sundays. [=he works every Sunday]

Sunday best noun [noncount] : your best clothing that you wear to church or on special occasions ▪ All the people at the concert were wearing their Sunday best.

Sunday school noun [count, noncount] : a school especially for children that is held on Sunday for religious education

sun•deck /ˈsʌnˌdɛk/ noun, pl -decks [count] : a deck on a ship or an outside area on a building where people can sit in the sun

sun•der /ˈsʌndə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to split apart (an organization, two people, etc.) especially in a violent way ▪ a family sundered by scandal — see also ASUNDER

sun•di•al /ˈsʌnˌdajəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : a device that is used to show the time of day by the position of the sun and that consists of a plate with markings like a clock and an object with a straight edge that casts a shadow onto the plate

sun•down /ˈsʌnˌdaʊn/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : the time when the sun goes below the horizon : SUNSET ▪ Passover ends tomorrow at sundown.

sun–drenched adj, always used before a noun : receiving a lot of heat and light from the sun ▪ sun-drenched beaches/islands

sun•dress /ˈsʌnˌdrɛs/ noun, pl -dress•es [count] : a dress that is worn in warm weather and that does not cover the arms, shoulders, or neck

sun–dried adj, always used before a noun : dried by the heat of the sun ▪ sun-dried tomatoes

sun•dries /ˈsʌndriz/ noun [plural] formal : various small things that are not mentioned specifically ▪ pins, needles, and other sundries

sun•dry /ˈsʌndri/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : made up of different things ▪ sundry [=various] items ▪ for sundry reasons

all and sundry formal : every person ▪ It was clear to all and sundry [=everyone, everybody] that something was wrong.

sun• sh /ˈsʌnˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl - sh [count] : a large fish with a round body that lives in the sea — see color picture on page C8

sun• ow •er /ˈsʌnˌflawə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tall plant that has very large yellow flowers and that produces seeds which can be eaten ▪ a row of sunflowers ▪ sunflower seeds/oil — see color picture on page C6

sung past tense and past participle of SING

sun•glass•es /ˈsʌnˌglæsəz, Brit ˈsʌnˌglɑːsəz/ noun [plural] : glasses with dark lenses that protect the eyes from the sun ▪ a pair of sunglasses — called also (informal) shades

sun god noun, pl ~ gods [count] : a god that represents the sun in various religions

sun hat noun, pl ~ hats [count] : a hat that you wear to protect your head and neck from the sun sunk past tense and past participle of [1]SINK

sunk•en /ˈsʌŋkən/ adj

1 always used before a noun : completely covered with water : lying at the bottom of a sea, lake, etc. ▪ a sunken ship ▪ sunken treasure

2 : curving inward because of illness, age, etc. ▪ sunken [=hollow] cheeks ▪ Her eyes were sunken and lifeless.

3 always used before a noun : lying or built at a lower level than the surrounding area ▪ a sunken garden ▪ a sunken living room ▪ a sunken tub

sun–kissed adj

1 : SUNNY ▪ the sun-kissed beaches/shores of the Caribbean

2 of a person's skin : having an attractive color because of having been in the sun ▪ sun-kissed skin/faces ▪ a sun-kissed glow

sun•lamp /ˈsʌnˌlæmp/ noun, pl -lamps [count] : a special lamp that produces light similar to sunlight and that is used to make your skin darker or to treat illness

sun•less /ˈsʌnləs/ adj : having little light from the sun : not sunny ▪ a sunless room/day sun•light /ˈsʌnˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the light of the sun : SUNSHINE ▪ the early morning sunlight ▪ Sunlight streamed through the windows. ▪ Avoid exposure to (bright/direct) sunlight.

sun•lit /ˈsʌnˌlɪt/ adj : lighted by the sun ▪ a sunlit room

sun lounge noun, pl ~ lounges [count] Brit : SUNROOM

sun lounger noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : a long chair that is used for sitting or lying outdoors

Sun•ni /ˈsʊni/ noun, pl -nis or -ni

1 [noncount] : one of the two main branches of Islam — compare SHIA

2 [count] : a Muslim who is a member of the Sunni branch of Islam — compare SHIITE

– Sunni adj, always used before a noun ▪ the Sunni faith/tradition ▪ Sunni Muslims/Arabs

sun•ny /ˈsʌni/ adj sun•ni•er; -est

1 : having plenty of bright sunlight ▪ a sunny room/day ▪ sunny weather ▪ the sunniest parts of the country ▪ We found a sunny place/spot to have lunch. ▪ If it's sunny later, we can go to the park.

2 : cheerful and happy ▪ a sunny smile/disposition sun•ny–side up /ˌsʌniˌsaɪdˈʌp/ adj, chiefly US, of an egg : fried on one side only ▪ "I'd like my eggs sunny-side up."

sun protection factor noun [noncount] : SPF

sun•rise /ˈsʌnˌraɪz/ noun, pl -rises

1 [noncount] : the time when the sun appears above the horizon in the morning : dawn or daybreak ▪ We were up before/at sunrise. ▪ We worked from sunrise to sunset.

2 : the colors that are in the sky when the sun slowly appears above the horizon [count] a beautiful sunrise ▪ We watched the sunrise from the beach. [noncount] the pink light of sunrise

sun•roof /ˈsʌnˌruːf/ noun, pl -roofs [count] : a part of the roof of a car or truck that can be opened to let air and light in — see picture at CAR; compare MOONROOF

sun•room /ˈsʌnˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] US : a room in a house that has a lot of windows and glass to let sunlight in — called also (Brit) sun lounge

sun•screen /ˈsʌnˌskriːn/ noun, pl -screens [count, noncount] : a lotion that you put on your skin to prevent sunburn by blocking out some of the sun's rays — compare SUNBLOCK

sun•set /ˈsʌnˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets

1 [noncount] : the time when the sun goes below the horizon in the evening ▪ We arrived just before sunset. [=(chiefly US) sundown] ▪ Prayers begin at sunset. ▪ We worked from sunrise to sunset.

2 : the colors that are in the sky when the sun slowly goes below the horizon [count] a beautiful sunset [noncount] the golden light of sunset

sun•shade /ˈsʌnˌʃeɪd/ noun, pl -shades [count] : something (such as a parasol or awning) that blocks sunlight

sun•shine /ˈsʌnˌʃaɪn/ noun [noncount]

1 : the sun's light or rays : warmth and light from the sun ▪ Today's forecast calls for sunshine. ▪ Let's go out and enjoy the sunshine!

2 informal : a feeling of happiness ▪ She was the kind of person who brought sunshine into people's lives. ▪ She was a ray of sunshine for her patients. [=she made her patients feel happier and more cheerful]

3 Brit, informal — used as a form of address that can be either friendly or rude ▪ "Hey, sunshine. What are you doing?"

sun•shiny /ˈsʌnˌʃaɪni/ adj, US

1 : bright with the sun's rays ▪ a sunshiny [=sunny] day

2 : full of happiness ▪ sunshiny songs ▪ the children's sunshiny [=happy] faces sun•spot /ˈsʌnˌspɑːt/ noun, pl -spots [count] astronomy : a dark spot that sometimes appears on the surface of the sun

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 219 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sun•stroke /ˈsʌnˌstroʊk/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious condition that happens when someone has been in the sun too long and that causes a person to stop sweating, have a very high body temperature, and become exhausted or unconscious — compare HEATSTROKE

sun•tan /ˈsʌnˌtæn/ noun, pl -tans [count] : a browning of the skin that is caused by the sun's rays ▪ She has a nice suntan. [=tan] ▪ suntan lotion – sun•tanned /ˈsʌnˌtænd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ suntanned bodies/faces – sun•tan•ning /ˈsʌnˌtænɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

sun•up /ˈsʌnˌʌp/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : SUNRISE ▪ We will meet at sunup.

sun worshipper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] informal : someone who enjoys lying in the sun to get a suntan

[1]sup /ˈsʌp/ verb sups; supped; sup•ping [no obj] old-fashioned + literary : to eat dinner : DINE ▪ journalists supping with politicians ▪ They supped on local delicacies. — compare [2]SUP

[2]sup verb sups; supped; supping [+ obj] Brit : to drink (a liquid) especially in small amounts ▪ He supped [=sipped] a glass of wine while waiting for his meal. — compare [1]SUP

[1]su•per /ˈsu:pə/ adj, informal : extremely good ▪ She's a super cook. ▪ We had a super time. ▪ The party was super. ▪ "Yes, I'd love to come." "Super! I'll see you later."

[2]super adv, US, informal : very or extremely ▪ She's super nice/rich/smart. ▪ a super fast car

[3]super noun, pl -pers [count] US, informal : SUPERINTENDENT 3

super- prefix
1 : bigger, better, or more important than others of the same kind ▪ *super*human 2 : superior in position or rank ▪ a military *super*power su•per•abun•dance /ˌsu:pərəˈbʌndəns/ noun [singular] formal : a great or excessive amount of something ▪ a superabundance of wealth

– su•per•abun•dant /ˌsu:pərəˈbʌndənt/ adj ▪ a superabundant supply

su•per•an•nu•at•ed /ˌsu:pəˈænjəˌweɪtəd/ adj, formal : old and therefore no longer very effective or useful ▪ a superannuated opera star ▪ superannuated [=outdated] software

su•per•an•nu•a•tion /ˌsu:pəˌænjəˈweɪʃən/ noun [noncount] Brit : a type of pension that both the employee and the employer pay for ▪ an improved superannuation scheme

su•perb /suˈpəb/ adj : extremely good : excellent or brilliant in a very noticeable way ▪ a superb example ▪ wines of superb quality ▪ They've done a superb job. ▪ The performance was absolutely superb.
– su•perb•ly adv ▪ a superbly gifted writer ▪ The defense played superbly.

Super Bowl service mark — used for the annual championship game of the National Football League

su•per•charged /ˈsu:pəˌʧɑəʤd/ adj
1 : supplied with air or fuel at a higher pressure than normal to increase power ▪ a supercharged engine
2 informal : filled with energy, tension, or emotion ▪ a supercharged atmosphere

su•per•cil•ious /ˌsu:pəˈsɪlijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : having or showing the proud and unpleasant attitude of people who think that they are better or more important than other people ▪ a supercilious professor ▪ a supercilious tone/attitude ▪ supercilious behavior
– su•per•cil•ious•ly adv ▪ He glanced at her and smiled superciliously. – su•per•cil•ious•ness noun [noncount]

su•per•com•put•er /ˈsu:pəkəmˌpju:tə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a large and very fast computer

su•per•con•duc•tiv•i•ty /ˌsu:pəˌkɑ:nˌdʌkˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] technical : the ability of something (such as a metal) to allow electricity to flow through it easily especially at very low temperatures

su•per•con•duc•tor /ˌsu:pəkənˈdʌktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] technical : a material or object that allows electricity to flow through it easily at very low temperatures

su•per•ego /ˌsu:pəˈi:goʊ/ noun, pl -egos [count] psychology : a part of a person's mind that relates to attitudes about what is right and wrong and to feelings of guilt — compare EGO, ID

su•per• •cial /ˌsu:pəˈfɪʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : concerned only with what is obvious or apparent : not thorough or complete ▪ a superficial analysis of the results/data ▪ They had a superficial knowledge/understanding of the topic. ▪ These superficial changes/solutions don't address the underlying problem.
2 a : affecting only the outer part or surface of something : not deep or serious ▪ superficial wounds/cuts ▪ The storm only caused superficial damage to the building. b : lying close to the surface ▪ superficial veins
3 — used to describe a quality, characteristic, etc., that can be seen in the outward appearance or manner of something or someone but that is not deep or genuine ▪ Despite a superficial resemblance, the paintings are by two different artists. ▪ These similarities/differences are only superficial. ▪ Don't be deceived by his superficial charm. ▪ On a superficial level, his theory works, but the facts don't support it.
4 disapproving : not caring about or involving important matters or deep emotions ▪ He thinks she's vain and superficial. [=shallow] ▪ I'm not interested in superficial relationships.
– su•per• •ci•al•i•ty /ˌsu:pəˌfɪʃiˈæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the superficiality of pop culture – su•per• •cial•ly /ˌsu:pəˈfɪʃəli/ adv ▪ Superficially, at least, the two paintings are similar.

su•per• ne /ˌsu:pəˈfaɪn/ adj, chiefly US : extremely fine: such as a : extremely thin ▪ superfine wire b : made up of extremely small pieces ▪ superfine sugar c : of very high quality ▪ superfine wool su•per• u•i•ty /ˌsu:pəˈflu:wəti/ noun [singular] formal : more of something than is needed ▪ a superfluity of volunteers su•per• u•ous /suˈpəfluwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : beyond what is needed : not necessary ▪ a superfluous word/detail ▪ Further discussion seemed superfluous.

– su•per• u•ous•ly adv

su•per•glue /ˈsu:pəˌglu:/ noun [noncount] : a very strong glue su•per•grass /ˈsu:pəˌgræs, Brit ˈsu:pəˌgrɑ:s/ noun, pl -grass•es [count] Brit, informal : a criminal who gives information to the police about a large number of other criminals

su•per•he•ro /ˈsu:pəˌhiroʊ/ noun, pl -roes [count]
1 : a fictional character who has amazing powers (such as the ability to fly) ▪ comic-book superheroes
2 : a very heroic person ▪ The people who do this dangerous work are real-life superheroes who deserve our gratitude.

su•per•high•way /ˌsu:pəˈhaɪˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] US : a large and wide highway used for traveling at high speeds over long distances su•per•hu•man /ˌsu:pəˈhju:mən/ adj : greater than normal human power, size, or ability ▪ The character in the film acquires superhuman powers. ▪ superhuman strength/courage ▪ tales of superhuman feats ▪ It will take a superhuman effort for them to win the championship.

su•per•im•pose /ˌsu:pərɪmˈpoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] : to place or lay (something) over something else ▪ A triangle superimposed on an inverted triangle forms a six-pointed star. ▪ superimposed images — often used figuratively ▪ a Shakespearean play superimposed upon a modern setting ▪ We should not try to superimpose our values on other cultures. [=should not try to make other cultures accept/adopt our values]
– su•per•im•po•si•tion /ˌsu:pəˌɪmpəˈzɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the superimposition of two images su•per•in•tend /ˌsu:pərɪnˈtɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing [+ obj] formal : to direct or manage (something, such as a project or activity) ▪ A licensed contractor will superintend [=supervise] the work.

– su•per•in•ten•dence /ˌsu:pərɪnˈtɛndəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ Decisions will be made under the superintendence [=supervision] of the board of directors.

su•per•in•ten•dent /ˌsu:pərɪnˈtɛndənt/ noun, pl -dents [count]
1 : a person who directs or manages a place, department, organization, etc. ▪ (US) Our district superintendent (of schools) is retiring soon. ▪ a park superintendent
2 : a high rank in a police department or a person who has this rank
3 US : a person who is in charge of cleaning, maintaining, and repairing a building — called also (informal) super

[1]su•pe•ri•or /suˈpirijə/ adj
1 a : of high quality : high or higher in quality ▪ superior products/results ▪ a superior wine = a wine of superior quality ▪ This new model offers superior performance. — often + to ▪ The new model is (vastly/far) superior to the old one. b

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 220 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

: great or greater in amount, number, or degree ▪ her superior strength/intelligence ▪ The small army was overwhelmed by superior numbers.

2 disapproving a : better than other people ▪ He only helps us because it makes him feel superior. — often + to ▪ He thinks he's superior to everyone else. b : having or showing the attitude of people who think that they are better or more important than other people : ARROGANT ▪ a superior manner/tone

3 always used before a noun : high or higher in rank ▪ Report to your superior officer. ▪ The verdict was reversed by a superior court. — compare SUBORDINATE

[2]superior noun, pl -ors [count] : a person of higher rank or status than another ▪ His superior gave him an excellent evaluation. ▪ You should report any problems to your immediate superior. — compare SUBORDINATE; see also MOTHER SUPERIOR

su•pe•ri•or•i•ty /suˌpiriˈɔrəti/ noun [noncount]

1 : the quality or state of being high or higher in quality — often + of or over ▪ The superiority of our product is obvious. ▪ one product's superiority over another

2 : the belief that you are better than other people ▪ His success has given him a false sense of superiority. ▪ an irritating air of superiority [=an arrogant way of behaving]

3 : the quality or state of being larger, stronger, etc., than others ▪ the country's technological/economic superiority ▪ To win this war, we must achieve air superiority. [=we must have a larger/better air force than our enemies]

[1]su•per•la•tive /suˈpərətɪv/ adj

1 grammar : of or relating to the form of an adjective or adverb that is used to indicate the greatest degree of a particular quality ▪ The superlative form of "nice" is "nicest"; the superlative form of "bad" is "worst"; the superlative form of "interesting" is "most interesting." — compare COMPARATIVE

2 somewhat formal : of very high quality ▪ superlative [=excellent] work ▪ a superlative performance

– su•per•la•tive•ly adv ▪ He's superlatively qualified. ▪ They performed superlatively (well).

[2]superlative noun, pl -tives [count] grammar : the form of an adjective or adverb that is used to indicate the greatest degree of a particular quality : the superlative form of an adjective or adverb ▪ "Simplest" is the superlative of "simple." — compare COMPARATIVE

su•per•man /ˈsuːpəˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a man who is very strong, successful, etc. — compare SUPERWOMAN

su•per•mar•ket /ˈsuːpəˌmɑəkət/ noun, pl -kets [count] : a store where customers can buy a variety of foods and usually household items ▪ I made a quick trip to the supermarket. [=(chiefly US) grocery store] ▪ a supermarket chain ▪ supermarket coupons — compare SUPERSTORE su•per•mod•el /ˈsuːpəˌmɑːdl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a very famous and successful fashion model

su•per•mom /ˈsuːpəˌmɑːm/ noun, pl -moms [count] US, informal : a woman who raises a child and takes care of a home while also having a full-time job

su•per•nat•u•ral /ˌsuːpəˈnætʃərəl/ adj : unable to be explained by science or the laws of nature : of, relating to, or seeming to come from magic, a god, etc. ▪ supernatural powers/phenomena/beings

the supernatural : things that cannot be explained by science and seem to involve ghosts, spirits, magic, etc. ▪ their belief in the supernatural

su•per•no•va /ˌsuːpəˈnoʊvə/ noun, pl -vas or -vae /-ˈnoʊviː/ [count] astronomy : the explosion of a star that causes the star to become extremely bright su•per•pow•er /ˈsuːpəˌpawə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an extremely powerful nation ▪ economic/military superpowers

su•per•script /ˈsuːpəˌskrɪpt/ noun, pl -scripts [count] : a symbol (such as a number or letter) written above and immediately to the left or right of another character

– superscript adj ▪ superscript characters/letters

su•per•sede /ˌsuːpəˈsiːd/ verb -sedes; -sed•ed; -sed•ing [+ obj] : to take the place of (someone or something that is old, no longer useful, etc.) : to replace (someone or something) ▪ This edition supersedes the previous one. ▪ Former stars were being superseded by younger actors.

su•per•size /ˈsuːpəˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a serving of food in a fast food restaurant) very large ▪ "I'll have the combo meal." "Would you like to supersize it?"

– supersize or supersized adj, always used before a noun ▪ a supersize meal/drink ▪ supersized houses/cars su•per•son•ic /ˌsuːpəˈsɑːnɪk/ adj : faster than the speed of sound ▪ a supersonic airplane

– su•per•son•i•cal•ly /ˌsuːpəˈsɑːnɪkli/ adv

su•per•star /ˈsuːpəˌstɑə/ noun, pl -stars [count] : an extremely famous and successful performer, athlete, etc. ▪ a Hollywood superstar ▪ a football superstar

su•per•sti•tion /ˌsuːpəˈstɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a belief or way of behaving that is based on fear of the unknown and faith in magic or luck : a belief that certain events or things will bring good or bad luck [count] It is a common superstition that a black cat crossing your path is bad luck. [noncount] tales of superstition, witchcraft, and magic su•per•sti•tious /ˌsuːpəˈstɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of, relating to, or influenced by superstition ▪ superstitious practices/beliefs ▪ He's very superstitious and won't pitch without his lucky mitt.

– su•per•sti•tious•ly adv

su•per•store /ˈsuːpəˌstoə/ noun, pl -stores [count] : a very large store that sells a wide variety of goods ▪ an electronics superstore [=megastore] — compare SUPERMARKET

su•per•struc•ture /ˈsuːpəˌstrʌkʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count] : the part of a structure (such as a ship or bridge) that is above the lowest part — compare SUBSTRUCTURE

su•per•tank•er /ˈsuːpəˌtæŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a very large ship that has tanks for carrying large amounts of liquid ▪ an oil supertanker

su•per•vene /ˌsuːpəˈviːn/ verb -venes; -vened; -ven•ing [no obj] formal : to happen unexpectedly in a way that interrupts, stops, or greatly changes an existing situation ▪ a supervening event ▪ They had a quiet, happy life until the war supervened.

su•per•vise /ˈsuːpəˌvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing [+ obj] : to be in charge of (someone or something) : to watch and direct (someone or something) ▪ The builder supervised the construction of the house. ▪ She supervises a staff of 30 workers. ▪ a supervised study period su•per•vi•sion /ˌsuːpəˈvɪʒən/ noun [noncount] : the action or process of watching and directing what someone does or how something is done : the action or process of supervising someone or something ▪ Young children need constant supervision. ▪ Parental supervision is recommended. ▪ She's responsible for the supervision of a large staff. ▪ The medication should be taken under a doctor's supervision. = The medication should be taken under the supervision of a doctor.

su•per•vi•sor /ˈsuːpəˌvaɪzə/ noun, pl -sors [count] : a person who supervises someone or something ▪ The supervisor fired him after he showed up at work drunk. ▪ If you have a problem, go to your supervisor. ▪ an office/plant supervisor

– su•per•vi•so•ry /ˌsuːpəˈvaɪzəri/ adj ▪ He took on a supervisory role in the company. ▪ supervisory personnel ▪ candidates with supervisory experience

su•per•wom•an /ˈsuːpəˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is very strong, successful, etc.; especially : a woman who has both a successful career and a family — compare SUPERMAN

su•pine /ˈsuːˌpaɪn/ adj, formal

1 : lying on your back with your face upward ▪ a supine position ▪ He was lying supine on the couch. — compare PRONE

2 disapproving : willing to be controlled by others : weak or passive ▪ a supine attitude ▪ a supine legislature that is afraid to take action

sup•per /ˈsʌpə/ noun, pl -pers

1 : the evening meal — used especially to refer to an informal meal that you eat at home [count] I always enjoyed our Sunday night suppers. [noncount] It's almost time for supper. ▪ We had supper together. ▪ We took a walk after supper. ▪ I had too much wine at supper. ▪ He didn't come home for supper.

2 [count] chiefly US : a social event especially for raising money that takes place in the evening and includes a meal ▪ a church supper

3 [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a light meal or snack that is eaten late in the evening

sup•per•time /ˈsʌpəˌtaɪm/ noun, pl -times : the usual time for supper [noncount] The doorbell rang right at suppertime. [count] When is your suppertime?

sup•plant /səˈplænt/ verb -plants; -plant•ed; -plant•ing [+ obj] : to take the place of (someone or something that is old or no longer used or accepted) ▪ DVDs have supplanted videos. — often used as (be) supplanted ▪ Videos have been

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 221 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s supplanted by DVDs. ▪ Older workers are being supplanted by recent college graduates.

sup•ple /ˈsʌpəl/ adj sup•pler /ˈsʌpələ/; -plest /-pələst/ [also more ~; most ~]
1 of a body or body part : able to bend or twist easily ▪ a supple body ▪ her long, supple limbs ▪ Stretching helped to keep him supple. [=limber]
2 : soft and able to bend or fold easily ▪ supple leather/skin — opposite STIFF
– sup•ple•ness /ˈsʌpəlnəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]sup•ple•ment /ˈsʌpləmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : something that is added to something else in order to make it complete ▪ dietary/vitamin supplements
2 : an extra part that is added to a book or newspaper ▪ an advertising/literary supplement ▪ the supplement to the encyclopedia
3 Brit : an amount of money that must be paid in addition to the regular price ▪ First-class accommodation is available for a supplement.

[2]sup•ple•ment /ˈsʌplə,mɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] : to add something to (something) in order to make it complete ▪ He sells his paintings to supplement his income. = He supplements his income by selling his paintings. ▪ She began supplementing her diet with vitamins.
– sup•ple•men•ta•tion /ˌsʌplə,mɛnˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

sup•ple•men•tal /ˌsʌpləˈmɛntl/ adj, chiefly US : added to something else to make it complete ▪ She receives a supplemental income every month from the government. ▪ supplemental information

sup•ple•men•ta•ry /ˌsʌpləˈmɛntəri/ adj : SUPPLEMENTAL ▪ a list of supplementary material/readings for the class

sup•pli•ant /ˈsʌplijənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] formal : SUPPLICANT
– suppliant adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a suppliant tone

sup•pli•cant /ˈsʌplɪkənt/ noun, pl -cants [count] formal : a person who asks for something in a respectful way from a powerful person or God ▪ a humble supplicant

sup•pli•ca•tion /ˌsʌpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : an act of asking for something in a respectful way [count] their prayers and supplications to God [noncount] They knelt in supplication before the king.

sup•pli•er /səˈplajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that supplies goods or services ▪ food/drug/paper suppliers ▪ They are the biggest supplier of books in the area.

[1]sup•ply /səˈplaɪ/ noun, pl -plies
1 : the amount of something that is available to be used [count] the nation's food/oil supply ▪ adequate/sufficient supplies of fresh water ▪ He bought a month's supply of cigarettes. [noncount] Doctors are in short supply. [=there are not enough doctors] — see also MONEY SUPPLY
2 supplies [plural] : things (such as food, equipment, fuel, etc.) that are needed for a particular purpose and that will be used by a particular person or group ▪ They took a month's worth of supplies on the camping trip. ▪ The town is in need of basic medical supplies. ▪ a store that sells art/office/cleaning supplies
3 [noncount] : the process or system by which something is provided to a person, place, etc. ▪ The state is trying to disrupt the supply of illegal drugs. ▪ The storm interrupted the town's electricity supply.
4 [noncount] : the quantities of goods or services that are offered for sale at a particular time or at one price ▪ When demand increases, will supply increase, too? — see also SUPPLY AND DEMAND

[2]supply verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) available to be used : to provide someone or something with (something that is needed or wanted) ▪ The company supplied the necessary money. ▪ You'll have to supply your own food. — often + to ▪ He supplied the information to us. — often + with ▪ The company supplied us with the necessary money. ▪ He kept us supplied with the latest news.

supply and demand noun [noncount] : the amount of goods and services that are available for people to buy compared to the amount of goods and services that people want to buy ▪ If the company produces less of a product than the public wants, the law of supply and demand says that the company can charge more for the product.

supply line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : the route that is used to deliver food, equipment, etc., to soldiers during a war ▪ enemy supply lines

supply–side economics noun [noncount] economics : a theory that reducing taxes especially for rich people will lead to an improved economy

supply teacher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

[1]sup•port /səˈpoət/ verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to agree with or approve of (someone or something) ▪ I completely support your decision to stay. ▪ She no longer supports the war. ▪ The senator says that he supports the proposed legislation. ▪ Which presidential candidate do you support? ▪ The study is supported by the American Medical Association. b : to show that you approve of (someone or something) by doing something ▪ The country's citizens were asked to support the war effort. ▪ Her friends supported her by signing her petition.
2 a : to give help or assistance to (someone or something) ▪ The charity supports needy families. ▪ Bombers were called in to support the ground troops. b : to provide what is needed by (someone or something) ▪ The planet's atmosphere cannot support human life. ▪ This computer does not support that software. [=you cannot use that software on this computer] c : to provide the money that is needed by or for (someone or something) ▪ He works two jobs to support his family. ▪ She has two children to support. ▪ We support the charity by making annual donations. ▪ The foundation supports cancer research. ▪ The theater is supported by donations. ▪ She sold illegal drugs to support her own drug habit.
3 : to hold (something or someone) up : to stop (something or someone) from falling down ▪ Thick cables help support the bridge. ▪ The roof is supported by thick wooden pillars throughout the house. ▪ She supported herself on my arm as we walked together. ▪ He supports himself with a cane.
4 : to provide evidence for (something) : to help show that (something) is true ▪ His alibi is supported by his neighbors. ▪ The results of the study support her theory. ▪ Their claims are not supported by the evidence.
5 chiefly Brit : to be a fan of (a sports team) ▪ She supports both teams.

[2]support noun, pl -ports
1 [noncount] : the act of showing that you believe that someone or something is good or acceptable : approval of someone or something ▪ The proposal has had little public support. [=few people have supported the proposal] ▪ The team gets a lot of support from its fans. ▪ The candidate is gaining support among young voters. [=many more young voters say they will vote for the candidate] — often + for ▪ There isn't much support for the proposal. ▪ You can show your support for our cause by wearing one of these red ribbons.
2 [noncount] a : the act of helping someone by giving love, encouragement, etc. ▪ I'd like to thank my parents for all of their love and support over the years. ▪ He depended on his wife for emotional support. ▪ We all came along to give her moral support. [=to give her encouragement] b : help that is given in the form of money or other valuable things ▪ He applied for financial support from the state. ▪ They had no means of support [=source of income] after they lost their farm. — see also CHILD SUPPORT c : the act of helping someone by giving information or services ▪ She was having trouble connecting to the Internet, so she called technical/tech support [=a department or person that helps people with computer problems] for assistance. ▪ the company's friendly support staff
3 a [count] : something that holds a person or thing up and stops that person or thing from falling down ▪ Inspectors found that some of the bridge's supports were weak. ▪ She used my arm as a support and limped to the chair. b [noncount] : the act of holding something up ▪ These sneakers are designed to give your feet extra support. — often used after for ▪ He grabbed the railing for support.
4 [noncount] : evidence which shows that something is true ▪ The results of the study give further support to the hypothesis. ▪ The police continue to gather support for their case.
in support of 1 : in a way that shows approval of (something) : in favor of (something) ▪ A majority voted in support of the bill. 2 : in order to support (something) ▪ He presented evidence in support of his hypothesis. [=evidence that helps to prove his hypothesis] ▪ The band is touring in support of their latest album. [=to help promote their latest album]
– see also LIFE SUPPORT

sup•port•er /səˈpoətə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who supports an idea, a politician, a cause, etc. ▪ the proposal's supporters ▪ the President's supporters ▪ a supporter of the Independent party

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 222 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : a fan of a sports team ▪ the team's loyal supporters
– see also ATHLETIC SUPPORTER support group noun, pl ~ groups [count] : a group of people who have similar experiences and concerns and who meet in order to provide emotional help, advice, and encouragement for one another ▪ He joined an alcoholics' support group.

supporting adj, always used before a noun
1 : having a less important part than the main actor or actress ▪ She won the award for best supporting actress. ▪ He has a supporting role in the movie.
2 : holding something up : keeping something from falling down ▪ the house's supporting beams/walls
3 : showing that something is true ▪ There is no supporting evidence for her claim. [=there is no evidence that supports her claim]
– see also SELF-SUPPORTING sup•port•ive /sə'poɚtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : giving help or encouragement to someone ▪ She has very supportive parents. ▪ Try to be more supportive of your teammates.

support system noun, pl ~ -tems [count] : a group of people who give someone help, money, encouragement, etc. ▪ students who have good support systems at home

sup•pose /sə'poʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj]
1 : to think of (something) as happening or being true in order to imagine what might happen ▪ Suppose a fire broke out. How would we escape? ▪ Just suppose for a moment that you agreed with me. ▪ Supposing he refuses to help, what do we do then?
2 a : to believe (something) to be true ▪ The renovations will cost much more than we originally supposed. ▪ Who do you suppose [=think] will win? b : to believe (something) to be possible — usually used following the pronoun I ▪ I suppose [=(chiefly US) I guess] you're right. ▪ I suppose that could happen, but it's not likely. ▪ You could say, I suppose, that he was not ready for marriage. ▪ "Do you suppose it's true?" "Yes, I suppose it is." ✧ In responding to a question, the phrase I suppose (so) is used as a way of agreeing or saying "yes" when you are not certain or not very excited or interested. ▪ "The pink one is prettier, isn't it?" "I suppose." ▪ "Do you want to come along?" "I suppose so." ✧ The phrase I suppose not is used as an informal way of agreeing with a negative statement or of saying "no." ▪ "That wasn't a very smart thing to do, was it?" "I suppose not."
3 — used to ask a question in a polite way ▪ Do you suppose you could help me make dinner? = I don't suppose you could help me make dinner? [=could you help me make dinner?] ▪ I don't suppose you found the keys, did you? [=did you find the keys?]
be supposed 1 a : to be expected to do something ▪ They are supposed to arrive tomorrow. ▪ She was supposed to be here an hour ago. ▪ The movie was supposed to earn a lot of money at the box office, but it didn't. b : to be intended or expected to be (something) ▪ The party was supposed to be a surprise. c — used to show that you are angry or offended by something; followed by to + verb ▪ Was that supposed to be funny? I thought it was quite rude. ▪ "Well, you've done it again." "What's that supposed to mean?" [=what do you mean by that comment?] 2 a — used to say what someone should do; followed by to + verb ▪ You are supposed to listen to your parents. ▪ I'm supposed to clean my room before I go outside. ▪ What are we supposed to do [=what should/can we do] in a situation like this? ▪ Do what you're supposed to. b — used to say what someone is allowed to do; followed by to + verb ▪ We were not supposed to leave the room. ▪ Are you supposed to be here after the building has closed? 3 — used to indicate what people say about someone or something; followed by to + verb ▪ She is supposed to be the best doctor in town. [=people say that she's the best doctor in town] ▪ That breed of dog is supposed to be good with kids. ▪ The word is supposed to be derived from Latin.

sup•posed /sə'poʊzəd/ adj, always used before a noun : claimed to be true or real — used to say that a particular description is probably not true or real even though many people believe that it is ▪ a supposed cure for cancer ▪ supposed experts sup•pos•ed•ly /sə'poʊzədli/ adv : according to what someone has said or what is generally believed to be true or real ▪ These detergents are supposedly better for the environment. ▪ He has supposedly changed since then, but I'm doubtful that he really has. ▪ Supposedly, she left a message on my answering machine. I never actually got it.

sup•po•si•tion /ˌsʌpə'zɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : an idea or theory that you believe is true even though you do not have proof [count] an idle supposition [=assumption] ▪ a supposition that proved correct ▪ Her decision was made on the supposition that we would all agree. [=when she made her decision she supposed/assumed that we would all agree] [noncount] This is just idle supposition.

sup•pos•i•to•ry /sə'pɑːzəˌtori, Brit sə'pɒzətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] medical : a small piece of solid medicine that is placed in the rectum or vagina and left there to dissolve

sup•press /sə'prɛs/ verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing [+ obj]
1 : to end or stop (something) by force ▪ Political dissent was brutally suppressed. ▪ suppressing a rebellion
2 : to keep (something) secret : to not allow people to know about or see (something) ▪ The governor tried to suppress the news. ▪ The judge may decide to suppress the evidence. [=to not allow the evidence to be used at a trial] ▪ She ordered the magazine (to be) suppressed.
3 a : to not allow yourself to feel, show, or be affected by (an emotion) ▪ He struggled to suppress his feelings of jealousy. ▪ She could not suppress her anger. ▪ I had to suppress an urge to tell him what I really thought. b : to stop yourself from doing something (such as smiling, coughing, or laughing) that might bother other people ▪ I found it hard to suppress a smile [=to keep myself from smiling] when he told me about what happened. ▪ She tried to suppress a cough/laugh. [=she tried not to cough/laugh]
4 : to slow or stop the growth, development, or normal functioning of (something) ▪ a drug that suppresses the immune system ▪ The pill works by suppressing your appetite.
– sup•pres•sion /sə'prɛʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ political suppression ▪ the suppression of evidence ▪ the suppression of your emotions ▪ appetite suppression

sup•pres•sant /sə'prɛsnt/ noun, pl -sants [count] : a drug that prevents or controls something ▪ cough suppressants ▪ an appetite suppressant

su•pra•na•tion•al /ˌsuːprə'næʃənl/ adj, formal : involving more than one country ▪ a supranational treaty

su•prem•a•cist /sə'prɛməsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count] : a person who believes that one group of people is better than all other groups and should have control over them ▪ racial/religious/cultural supremacists ▪ a supremacist group/organization — see also WHITE SUPREMACIST su•prem•a•cy /sə'prɛməsi/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of having more power, authority, or status than anyone else : the state of being supreme ▪ military/economic supremacy ▪ a battle/struggle for supremacy

su•preme /sə'priːm/ adj
1 : highest in rank or authority ▪ NATO's supreme commander ▪ She reigns supreme [=is the best] in the world of tennis.
2 : highest in degree or quality : greatest or highest possible ▪ The board has supreme authority over such issues. ▪ She has an air of supreme confidence about her. ▪ the supreme example of what not to do ▪ a problem of supreme importance ▪ It's a matter of supreme indifference to her. ▪ He made the supreme sacrifice [=he died] for his country.
– su•preme•ly adv ▪ supremely [=extremely] confident/indifferent/imaginative ▪ supremely boring/unimportant

Supreme Being noun
the Supreme Being literary : GOD 1

supreme court or Supreme Court noun [singular] : the highest court of law in a country or U.S. state ▪ Supreme Court justices/decisions ▪ The case went all the way to the (U.S.) Supreme Court.

su•pre•mo /sə'priːmoʊ/ noun, pl -mos [count] Brit, informal : a person who has the most authority or power in a particular activity ▪ drug supremos ▪ a banking supremo

Supt. (US) or chiefly Brit Supt abbr superintendent

sur•charge /'sɚˌʧɑɚʤ/ noun, pl -charg•es [count] : an amount of money that must be paid in addition to the regular price ▪ The airline has added a $20 fuel surcharge on all international flights.

[1]sure /'ʃɚ, Brit 'ʃɔː/ adj sur•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 not used before a noun : not having any doubt about something : convinced or certain ▪ I am sure (that) everything will be fine. ▪ We are quite/completely sure (that) we will be finished on time. ▪ She's not sure who will be there. ▪ Are you sure you want to go? ▪ Are you sure about that? ▪ She'll be there, I'm sure of it. ▪ Are you sure of the results?

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 223 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : not allowing any doubt or possibility of failure ▪ The return of the robins is a sure sign of spring. ▪ The letter is a sure indication that she cares. ▪ Pizza is a sure crowd pleaser. ▪ The surest way to lose weight is with diet and exercise. ▪ One sure way to improve your health is to stop smoking. ▪ He's a sure bet to receive the award. [=he's sure/certain to receive the award] ▪ It's a sure thing that they'll win. [=it is certain that they'll win] ▪ Flowers and chocolates are always sure things [=people always like to be given flowers and chocolates], but consider giving your wife something different this year. — see also SURE THING (below)

3 — used to say that something will definitely happen or that someone will definitely do something; usually followed by to + verb ▪ It's sure to be a great party. ▪ I'll be sure to call when I get home. ▪ They are sure to win. ▪ Her latest movie is sure to make you laugh. ▪ Whatever you say, he's sure to disagree with you.

4 : known to be true or correct ▪ What is sure [=definite, indisputable] is that they have a problem, and we have the means to fix it. ▪ Nothing else is sure. ▪ One thing is (for) sure, we'll never eat there again. [=we certainly will never eat there again]

5 a : firm or solid ▪ a sure hold/grip ▪ a hiking boot that provides sure footing [=that helps to keep your foot from slipping] — often used figuratively ▪ He lacks a sure grasp of the issue. [=he does not understand the issue well] ▪ She has a sure command of the French language. b : calm, steady, and confident ▪ the sure hands of a surgeon be sure — used to tell someone not to forget to do something ▪ Be sure to lock the door when you leave.

for sure : without a doubt : definitely or certainly ▪ No one knows for sure [=for certain] what happened. ▪ That was a mistake for sure. = That for sure was a mistake. ▪ (US, informal) "Do you want to come to the party?" "For sure." [=I certainly do] ▪ "We don't want that to happen again." "That's for sure!" [=that is certainly true]

make sure : to find out or do something so that you have no doubt about whether something is true, correct, will happen, etc. ▪ Make sure (that) you turn the oven off. ▪ Remember to make sure (that) all the doors are locked. ▪ They made sure everyone knew where they were supposed to be. ▪ Make sure it doesn't happen again.

sure of yourself 1 : confident in your abilities ▪ He was never very sure of himself as a comedian. 2 somewhat disapproving : overly confident or arrogant ▪ They seem awfully sure of themselves.

sure thing informal — used to say "yes" or to agree to a request or suggestion ▪ "Can you be here in five minutes?" "Sure thing." — see also [1]SURE 2 (above) to be sure formal — used to say that you admit that something is true ▪ It will be challenging, to be sure, but I am confident that we will succeed.

[2]sure adv, informal

1 a — used to say "yes" or to agree to a request or suggestion ▪ "Can you help me with this?" "Sure." [=certainly] b — used to disagree with a negative statement or suggestion ▪ "I don't think he's coming." "Sure he is. He's just a little late." ▪ "Don't you like popcorn?" "Sure I like popcorn. I just don't want any right now."

2 — used to emphasize that you agree with the first part of the statement that you are about to make ▪ Sure, she's very talented, but other factors could limit her success.

3 US — used as an informal way to accept someone's thanks ▪ "Thank you for your help." "Sure." [=you're welcome]

4 US — used for emphasis ▪ I sure am tired. ▪ This sure beats working. ▪ "Do you want to come?" "I sure do!" ▪ (impolite) I sure as hell hope you know what you're doing!

sure enough — used to say that what happened was not surprising or unexpected ▪ We were finally ready to go outside, and sure enough, it started to rain.

sure•fire /ˈʃəˈfajə, Brit ˈʃɔːˈfajə/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : certain not to fail : sure to be successful ▪ surefire solutions ▪ The movie is a surefire hit/success with teenagers. ▪ There is no surefire way to predict the outcome.

sure•foot•ed /ˈʃəˈfʊtəd, Brit ˈʃɔːˈfʊtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not likely to slip or fall when walking, climbing, or running ▪ a surefooted athlete ▪ as surefooted as a mountain goat — often used figuratively ▪ a surefooted leader [=a confident leader who is not likely to make mistakes] ▪ surefooted leadership

– sure•foot•ed•ly adv ▪ He surefootedly made his way through the difficult terrain. – sure•foot•ed•ness noun [noncount]

sure–hand•ed /ˈʃəˈhændəd, Brit ˈʃɔːˈhændəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : not likely to drop something (such as a ball) that you are holding or catching ▪ a sure-handed ball player — often used figuratively ▪ a confident and sure-handed director [=a director who is not likely to make mistakes] ▪ sure-handed leadership

– sure–hand•ed•ly adv – sure–hand•ed•ness noun [noncount]

sure•ly /ˈʃəli, Brit ˈʃɔːli/ adv

1 : in a confident way ▪ She answered quickly and surely.

2 formal a : without a doubt : CERTAINLY ▪ He will surely be missed. ▪ This is surely the best dessert you have ever made. ▪ Surely you must admit that it was a good decision. b — used in negative statements to show surprise that something could be true ▪ "Are they going to get away with it?" "Surely not." ▪ Surely you don't think that we are responsible for this! ▪ Surely you haven't forgotten my name!

slowly but surely see SLOWLY

sure•ness /ˈʃənəs, Brit ˈʃɔːnəs/ noun : a feeling that you know what you want to do and that you are able to do it [singular] He spoke with a newfound sureness [=confidence] in his voice. [noncount] She performs with the sureness of a veteran actress. ▪ the artist's sureness of touch/technique/hand

sure•ty /ˈʃərəti, Brit ˈʃɔːrəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [count] law : money that you give as a guarantee that you will do what you are legally required to do (such as to appear in court) ▪ a surety of $10,000 = a $10,000 surety bond

2 law : someone who agrees to be legally responsible if another person fails to pay a debt or to perform a duty [count] As sureties, they will be liable in his place. [noncount] She will stand surety for him. [=she agrees to be legally responsible if he fails to do what he promised]

3 [noncount] formal : the state of being or feeling sure or certain ▪ She answered with surety. [=certainty]

[1]surf /ˈsəf/ verb surfs; surfed; surf•ing

1 [no obj] : to ride on ocean waves using a special board (called a surfboard) ▪ He learned to surf when he was living in California. — see also WINDSURF

2 : to look for information or other interesting things on the Internet [+ obj] surfing the Internet/Web [no obj] surfing on the Internet/Web — see also CHANNEL SURFING, SURFING

– surf•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]surf noun [noncount] : large waves that fall on the shore and the white foam and sound that they produce ▪ We could hear the roar of the surf. — see color picture on page C7

[1]sur•face /ˈsəfəs/ noun, pl -fac•es

1 [count] : an outside part or layer of something ▪ The painting's surface is covered with fine cracks. ▪ The bowl has a shiny surface. ▪ The surface of wood was rough. ▪ Be careful of icy surfaces on the roads. ▪ a textured surface

2 [count] : the upper layer of an area of land or water — usually singular ▪ Hot lava bubbled up to the Earth's surface. ▪ exploring the surface of Mars ▪ The pipes are buried deep below the surface. ▪ The pond's surface was covered with leaves. ▪ bubbles rose/floated to the surface (of the water)

3 [count] : the flat, top part of something (such as a table or desk) that you can work on ▪ kitchen work surfaces

4 the surface : the part of someone or something that is easy to see or notice : the outer quality or appearance of someone or something that may not show true or hidden problems, feelings, etc. ▪ On the surface the plan seems simple. ▪ She seemed fine on the surface, but underneath, she was suffering. ▪ Their relationship has a lot of problems simmering below/beneath/under the surface. ▪ His true feelings lie close to the surface. [=they are easy to see] ▪ The tension between them is beginning to rise to the surface. [=it is becoming easy to see]

5 [count] : a flat or curved side of an object ▪ Each surface of the die is marked with one to six black dots.

scratch the surface see [1]SCRATCH

[2]surface verb -faces; -faced; -fac•ing

1 [no obj] : to rise to the surface of water ▪ The whale surfaced and then dove back down. ▪ The submarine surfaced.

2 [no obj] : to appear or become obvious after being hidden or not seen ▪ The information surfaced many years later. ▪ After several years, the actress surfaced in a comedy. ▪ Suspicions eventually surfaced.

3 [+ obj] : to put a surface on (something, such as a road) ▪ The road needs to be surfaced again.

4 [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to wake up and get out of bed ▪ She hasn't surfaced yet.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 224 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[3]surface adj, always used before a noun
1 : involving only the parts that are easy to see or notice : SUPERFICIAL ▪ surface friendships ▪ Despite the surface differences between the two candidates, they are very similar in most ways.
2 : involving the removal of the surface of a large area of land to get at coal or other material that is near to the surface ▪ surface mining ▪ a surface mine surface area noun [singular] : the amount of area covered by the surface of something ▪ The lake has roughly the same surface area as 10 football fields.

surface mail noun [noncount] : mail that is carried on land rather than by air or by sea surface tension noun [noncount] technical : the force that causes the molecules on the surface of a liquid to be pushed together and form a layer surface–to–air missile noun, pl ∼ -siles [count] : a missile that is fired from the ground or a ship and directed at an airplane surface–to–surface missile noun, pl ∼ -siles [count] : a missile that is fired from the ground or a ship and directed at a target on the ground surf and turf noun [noncount] chiefly US : seafood and steak served together as a meal at a restaurant ▪ We both ordered the surf and turf.

surf·board /ˈsəfˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a long, light, narrow board that is used for surfing

surfboard

sur·feit /ˈsəfət/ noun [singular] formal : an amount that is too much or more than you need — + of ▪ a surfeit of choices

surf·ing /ˈsəfɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the activity or sport of riding ocean waves on a special board (called a surfboard) ▪ Her hobbies include diving and surfing. ▪ We went surfing yesterday.
2 : the activity of looking for information or interesting things on the Internet ▪ Web surfing — see also CHANNEL SURFING

[1]surge /ˈsəʤ/ verb surg·es; surged; surg·ing [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move very quickly and suddenly in a particular direction ▪ We all surged toward the door. ▪ She surged past the other runners. ▪ Thoughts of what could happen were surging through his mind. ▪ She has been surging in the polls. [=she is quickly becoming more popular as a candidate]
2 : to suddenly increase to an unusually high level ▪ Housing prices have surged in recent months. ▪ Interest in the sport has been surging.
– surging adj ▪ surging oil costs ▪ surging demand/growth ▪ the country's surging population ▪ a surging interest in the sport

[2]surge noun, pl surges [count]
1 : a sudden, large increase ▪ The sport is enjoying a surge in popularity. ▪ a surge of support for the candidate ▪ a surge of excitement — see also UPSURGE
2 : a sudden movement of many people ▪ There was a sudden surge toward the door. ▪ There has been a surge of immigrants into the city.
3 : a large wave of water ▪ an ocean surge
4 : a sudden increase in the amount of electricity that is flowing through an electrical circuit ▪ an electrical/power surge

sur·geon /ˈsəʤən/ noun, pl -geons [count] : a doctor who performs operations that involve cutting into someone's body in order to repair or remove damaged or diseased parts : a doctor who performs surgery ▪ a brain/heart surgeon — see also PLASTIC SURGEON surgeon general noun, pl surgeons general or surgeon generals [count] : the chief medical officer of a branch of the military or of a public health service ▪ a health warning from the (U.S.) Surgeon General surge protector noun, pl ∼ -tors [count] : a device that prevents an electrical surge from damaging electronic equipment

sur·gery /ˈsəʤəri/ noun, pl -ger·ies
1 : medical treatment in which a doctor cuts into someone's body in order to repair or remove damaged or diseased parts [noncount] He's a specialist in brain surgery. ▪ The doctor has recommended surgery. ▪ He has recently undergone surgery on his shoulder. ▪ The patient is still in surgery. [=still being operated on] ▪ The doctor has been in surgery [=performing an operation] for two hours. [count] (chiefly US) ▪ She is now recovering from her surgery. [=operation] ▪ a doctor who has performed many surgeries — see also PLASTIC SURGERY
2 [noncount] chiefly US : the area in a hospital where surgery is performed ▪ The patient was taken directly to surgery. — compare OPERATING ROOM
3 [count] Brit : a place where a doctor or dentist treats people ▪ I was waiting in the doctor's surgery. [=(US) office]
4 [noncount] Brit : OFFICE HOURS 3
5 [count] Brit : a special period of time when people can visit a member of the British Parliament to ask questions

sur·gi·cal /ˈsəʤɪkəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : of or relating to the process of performing a medical operation : of or relating to surgery ▪ a simple surgical procedure/treatment b : used during surgery ▪ surgical instruments/gloves/masks/tape c : resulting from a surgery ▪ a surgical scar/fever
2 : very careful and accurate ▪ The work was done with surgical precision/exactness. ▪ a surgical strike [=a carefully planned military attack that does not damage the surrounding area]
– sur·gi·cal·ly /ˈsəʤɪkli/ adv ▪ The tumor will have to be surgically removed.

surgical spirit noun [noncount] Brit : RUBBING ALCOHOL sur·ly /ˈsəli/ adj sur·li·er; -est : rude and unfriendly ▪ surly customers

– sur·li·ness /ˈsəlinəs/ noun [noncount]

sur·mise /sə(ɹ)ˈmaɪz/ verb -mis·es; -mised; -mis·ing [+ obj] formal : to form an opinion about something without definitely knowing the truth : GUESS ▪ We can only surmise what happened. ▪ He must have surmised that I was not interested.
– surmise noun, pl -mises [count, noncount] ▪ This is no more than a surmise. [=guess]

sur·mount /sə(ɹ)ˈmaʊnt/ verb -mounts; -mount·ed; -mount·ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to deal with (a problem or a difficult situation) successfully ▪ Women often have to surmount [=overcome] social barriers to advance their careers. ▪ surmounting obstacles
2 : to be placed at the top of (something) — usually used as (be) surmounted ▪ a chain-link fence that is surmounted [=topped] by barbed wire – sur·mount·able /sə(ɹ)ˈmaʊntəbəl/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ These setbacks are surmountable.

sur·name /ˈsəˌneɪm/ noun, pl -names [count] : the name that is shared by the people in a family ✧ In English, your surname comes after your first name and middle name. ▪ She took her husband's surname when they got married. — called also FAMILY NAME; compare LAST NAME sur·pass /sə(ɹ)ˈpæs, Brit sə(ɹ)ˈpɑːs/ verb -pass·es; -passed; -pass·ing [+ obj] : to be better or greater than (someone or something) ▪ She soon surpassed [=exceeded] her teacher in skill and proficiency. ▪ Attendance is expected to surpass last year's record. ▪ Last quarter, sales surpassed two million. ▪ His work regularly surpasses all expectations.

sur·pass·ing /sə(ɹ)ˈpæsɪŋ, Brit sə(ɹ)ˈpɑːsɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : very great : to a much greater degree than others ▪ a woman of surpassing grace and beauty
– sur·pass·ing·ly adv ▪ surpassingly difficult

sur·plice /ˈsəpləs/ noun, pl -plic·es [count] : a loose, white piece of clothing that is worn by priests or singers at church services

[1]sur·plus /ˈsəpləs/ noun, pl -plus·es : an amount (such as an amount of money) that is more than the amount that is needed [noncount] If there is any surplus, it will be divided equally. [count] crop surpluses ▪ There is a surplus of workers and not enough jobs. ▪ The state currently has a $3 million budget surplus. [=has $3 million more than it needs to pay for all of its planned expenses] — opposite DEFICIT; see also TRADE SURPLUS

[2]surplus adj : more than the amount that is needed ▪ surplus food/cloth/equipment ▪ The government bought the surplus grain to help growers.
surplus to requirements Brit, formal : no longer needed ▪ His services had become surplus to requirements.

[1]sur·prise /sə(ɹ)ˈpraɪz/ noun, pl -pris·es

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 225 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 [count] a : an unexpected event, piece of information, etc. ▪ What a pleasant surprise to see you! ▪ It's no surprise that he doesn't want to go. ▪ Is it any surprise that she should feel disappointed? ▪ The news came as a (complete/total) surprise to everyone. [=everyone was surprised by the news] ▪ It came as no surprise to me. [=I was not surprised by it] ▪ The teacher sprang a surprise on us and gave a pop quiz. ▪ They are in for a (big/real) surprise [=they are going to be very surprised] when they come home. b : an unexpected gift, party, etc. ▪ I have a special surprise for the children. ▪ The trip was a surprise for her birthday. ▪ Is the party a surprise?

2 [noncount] : the feeling caused by something that is unexpected or unusual ▪ She expressed surprise at their decision. [=she said that she was surprised by their decision] ▪ Imagine our surprise when they sold their house and moved to the Bahamas. ▪ Much to our surprise, she refused. [=we were very surprised when she refused] ▪ He stared at her in surprise. ▪ The attackers were relying on the element of surprise. [=they were relying on their attack being unexpected]

3 — used as an interjection ▪ Surprise! Happy Birthday!

catch/take (someone or something) by surprise 1 : to happen to (someone or something) unexpectedly : to surprise (someone or something) ▪ The question caught him by surprise. ▪ The organization was taken completely by surprise by the announcement. 2 : to attack, capture, or approach (someone or something) without warning ▪ The enemy troops took us completely by surprise. ▪ Photographers caught the couple by surprise as they were leaving a restaurant.

surprise, surprise informal — used to say in a joking or ironic way that something is not surprising at all ▪ "She's going to be late again." "Surprise, surprise."

[2]surprise verb -prises; -prised; -pris•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to feel surprised ▪ The results will surprise you. ▪ Nothing you could say would surprise me. ▪ They surprised everyone by moving to the Bahamas. ▪ He surprised her at work with a vase of flowers. [=he unexpectedly gave her a vase of flowers while she was at work]

2 : to find, attack, or meet (someone or something) unexpectedly ▪ A police officer surprised the burglars. ▪ The troops were surprised by an attack from the north.

[3]surprise adj, always used before a noun : not expected : causing a feeling of surprise ▪ a surprise best seller/success ▪ She made a surprise announcement/appearance at the concert. ▪ I got a surprise call/visit from the governor. ▪ We threw him a surprise party. [=we secretly planned a party for him and did not tell him about it until he arrived] surprised adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the feeling that people get when something unexpected or unusual happens : feeling or showing surprise ▪ She had a surprised expression on her face. ▪ Are you surprised that they aren't going? ▪ I'm not surprised. I always thought he would do it. — often followed by to + verb ▪ I am surprised to hear about the changes. ▪ They seemed very surprised to see us. — often + at or by ▪ I wasn't at all surprised by the news. ▪ You would be surprised at how much things have changed.

surprising adj [more ~; most ~] : unexpected or unusual : causing surprise ▪ surprising results ▪ It's not surprising that he doesn't want to go. ▪ The changes to the campus were surprising. ▪ He shows a surprising lack of concern for others. ▪ A surprising number of people were laid off at the factory.

– sur•pris•ing•ly /sə'praɪzɪŋli/ adv ▪ Not surprisingly, he agreed. ▪ She earns a surprisingly low salary. ▪ The event went surprisingly well, considering the bad weather.

sur•re•al /sə'ri:l/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very strange or unusual : having the quality of a dream ▪ a surreal atmosphere/experience ▪ The whole thing was completely surreal.

sur•re•al•ism /sə'ri:jəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a 20th-century art form in which an artist or writer combines unrelated images or events in a very strange and dreamlike way

– sur•re•al•ist /sə'ri:jəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

– surrealist adj ▪ a surrealist painting

sur•re•al•is•tic /səˌri:jə'lɪstɪk/ adj

1 : very strange : SURREAL ▪ It was a surrealistic experience.

2 : of or relating to surrealism ▪ a surrealistic painter/painting

[1]sur•ren•der /sə'rɛndə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing

1 : to agree to stop fighting, hiding, resisting, etc., because you know that you will not win or succeed [no obj] The enemy finally surrendered after three days of fighting. ▪ The gunman surrendered and was taken into custody. — often + to ▪ After a short chase, the suspect surrendered to the police. [+ obj] The suspect surrendered himself (to the police).

2 [+ obj] : to give the control or use of (something) to someone else ▪ The troops were forced to surrender the fort. ▪ He surrendered [=handed over] his weapon to the police. ▪ They were required to surrender their passports. ▪ They surrendered their rights. ▪ the surrendering of land to the government

3 : to allow something (such as a habit or desire) to influence or control you — often + to [no obj] She surrendered [=gave in] to temptation and ordered dessert. ▪ He refused to surrender to despair. [+ obj] He refused to surrender himself to despair.

[2]surrender noun [singular]

1 : an agreement to stop fighting, hiding, resisting, etc., because you know that you will not win or succeed : an act of surrendering ▪ Their surrender was formalized in a treaty. ▪ They demanded an unconditional surrender.

2 : the act of giving the control or use of something to someone else ▪ the surrender of territory

3 : the act of allowing yourself to be influenced or controlled by someone or something ▪ a surrender to desire sur•rep•ti•tious /ˌsərəp'tɪʃəs/ adj : done in a secret way ▪ She had a surreptitious relationship with her employee. ▪ a surreptitious glance

– sur•rep•ti•tious•ly adv ▪ He contacted her surreptitiously.

– sur•rep•ti•tious•ness noun [noncount]

sur•rey /'sɚi/ noun, pl -reys [count] US : a light, old-fashioned carriage that has two wide seats and four wheels and that is pulled by a horse sur•ro•ga•cy /'sɚrəgəsi/ noun [noncount] : the practice by which a woman (called a surrogate mother) becomes pregnant and gives birth to a baby in order to give it to someone who cannot have children ▪ choosing between adoption and surrogacy

sur•ro•gate /'sɚrəgət/ noun, pl -gates [count]

1 : a person or thing that takes the place or performs the duties of someone or something else ▪ He could not attend the meeting, so he sent his surrogate. ▪ The governor and her surrogates asked the public to support the change.

2 : SURROGATE MOTHER ▪ They had their baby through a surrogate.

– surrogate adj, always used before a noun ▪ She considered them her surrogate family.

surrogate mother noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a woman who agrees to become pregnant in order to give the baby to someone who cannot have children

[1]sur•round /sə'raʊnd/ verb -rounds; -round•ed; -round•ing [+ obj]

1 : to be on every side of (someone or something) ▪ A wall surrounds the old city. — often used as (be) surrounded ▪ The lake is surrounded by cottages.

2 : to move close to (someone or something) on all sides often in order to stop a person from escaping ▪ Police surrounded the house. ▪ They had the suspect surrounded. ▪ She was suddenly surrounded by a crowd of excited fans.

3 : to be closely related or connected to (something) ▪ There's a lot of uncertainty surrounding the decision. ▪ His departure was surrounded by secrecy.

4 of a family, group, etc. : to always be near (someone) — often + with ▪ Her family surrounded her with love and attention. [=her family gave her a lot of love and attention] — often used as (be) surrounded ▪ As a child she was surrounded by her large, loving family.

surround yourself with (someone or something) : to cause (certain types of people or things) to be near you ▪ He surrounds himself with very talented people. ▪ They surround themselves with luxuries. [=they have many luxuries]

[2]surround noun, pl -rounds [count] : a border or an area that is around the outside edge of something ▪ a fireplace/bathtub surround ▪ the park's urban surrounds

surrounding adj, always used before a noun : near or around someone or something ▪ the surrounding area/neighborhood/land sur•round•ings /sə'raʊndɪŋz/ noun [plural] : the places, conditions, or objects that are around you : ENVIRONMENT ▪ They will need some time to become familiar with their new surroundings.

sur•tax /'sɚˌtæks/ noun, pl -tax•es [count] : a tax that is charged on income which is more than a certain amount and that is charged in addition to the normal income tax sur•veil•lance /sə'veɪləns/ noun [noncount] : the act of carefully watching someone or something especially in order

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 226 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

to prevent or detect a crime ▪ government surveillance of suspected terrorists ▪ The bank robbery was recorded by surveillance video cameras. ▪ electronic surveillance [=the act of using electronic devices to watch people or things] ▪ The police kept her under surveillance. [=watched her closely]

[1]sur•vey /ˈsɚˌveɪ/ noun, pl -veys [count]
1 : an activity in which many people are asked a question or a series of questions in order to gather information about what most people do or think about something : POLL ▪ The survey found/revealed some surprising tendencies among the population. ▪ We conducted an opinion survey on the issue and found that most people agree. ▪ a survey on American drinking habits
2 : an act of studying something in order to make a judgment about it ▪ Surveys of each department were conducted earlier this year. ▪ A survey of recent corporate layoffs reveals a new trend in business management.
3 : an act of measuring and examining an area of land ▪ A new land survey changed the borders of their property.
4 : a general description of or report about a subject or situation ▪ a survey [=overview] of current events ▪ surveys of English literature
5 Brit : a close examination of a building to see if it is in good condition ▪ A survey [=(US) inspection] must be done before the house can be sold.

[2]sur•vey /sɚˈveɪ/ verb -veys; -veyed; -vey•ing [+ obj]
1 : to ask (many people) a question or a series of questions in order to gather information about what most people do or think about something ▪ A total of 250 city residents were surveyed about the project. ▪ 64 percent of the people surveyed said that the economy was doing well. ▪ The magazine surveyed its readers on their romantic relationships. [=the magazine took/conducted a survey of its readers to find out about their romantic relationships]
2 : to look at and examine all parts of (something) ▪ The teacher surveyed the room. ▪ People were surveying the damage after the storm.
3 : to measure and examine (an area of land) ▪ Engineers surveyed the property to see what could be built on it.
4 : to give a general description or report of (something, such as a subject or a situation) ▪ The class surveys American history before the Civil War.
5 Brit : to examine (a building) to make sure it is in good condition ▪ The house must be surveyed [=(US) inspected] before it can be sold.

survey course noun, pl ~ courses [count] US : a class at a college or university that gives general information about a subject for students who have not studied it before : an introductory course at a college or university

sur•vey•or /sɚˈvejɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count]
1 : someone whose job is to research and examine an area of land ▪ a land surveyor
2 Brit : someone whose job is to examine buildings ▪ Surveyors [=(US) inspectors] condemned the building. — see also QUANTITY SURVEYOR sur•viv•al /sɚˈvaɪvəl/ noun, pl -als

1 [noncount] : the state or fact of continuing to live or exist especially in spite of difficult conditions ▪ The refugees depend on foreign aid for their survival. ▪ Small businesses are fighting/struggling for survival. ▪ the survival of an old folktale ▪ The doctor said her chance of survival [=chance that she would get better and continue to live] was about 50 percent. — often used before another noun ▪ The scouts learned basic survival skills/techniques. ▪ Patients have a high survival rate if the cancer is detected early. ▪ an animal's survival instinct [=an animal's ability to know what to do to stay alive] ▪ He uses his wits as a survival mechanism. [=as a way of protecting himself from being hurt by other people]
2 [count] : something from an earlier period that still exists or is done — usually singular ▪ The holiday custom is a survival from colonial times.
survival of the fittest 1 : NATURAL SELECTION 2 — used to refer to a situation in which only the people or things that are strongest, most skillful, etc., are able to succeed or to continue to exist ▪ In the business world, it's survival of the fittest.

sur•viv•al•ist /sɚˈvaɪvəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who believes that government and society will soon fail completely and who stores food, weapons, etc., in order to be prepared to survive when that happens – survivalist adj ▪ survivalist techniques

sur•vive /sɚˈvaɪv/ verb -vives; -vived; -viv•ing
1 [no obj] a : to remain alive : to continue to live ▪ I don't see how any creature can survive under those conditions. ▪ bacteria that survive in extreme temperatures ▪ (humorous) He didn't think he could survive without golf. — often + on ▪ The plant survives on very little water. ▪ They managed to survive on his small salary. ▪ (humorous) I mainly survived on peanut butter and jelly sandwiches when I was in college. b : to continue to exist ▪ Only a few written records survive from those times. ▪ These ancient practices still survive in some regions. ▪ Some of the original bridges survive. ▪ Many businesses are struggling to survive in today's economy.
2 [+ obj] : to remain alive after the death of (someone) : OUTLIVE ▪ Only his son survived him. ▪ She survived her husband by only a few years. — often used as (be) survived ▪ She is survived by her three children.
3 [+ obj] a : to continue to be alive or to exist after (something) ▪ They survived the crash/flood. ▪ The fruit trees didn't survive [=live through] the harsh winter. ▪ This type of plant cannot survive [=withstand] temperatures below freezing. b : to continue to function, succeed, etc., in spite of (something) ▪ He survived a political scandal and was elected to the state legislature. ▪ The company survived the recession. ▪ helpful hints for surviving the holidays
– sur•viv•able /sɚˈvaɪvəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ This form of cancer is survivable if it's detected early.
– surviving adj ▪ one of the few surviving traditions ▪ His son is his sole surviving heir.

sur•vi•vor /sɚˈvaɪvɚ/ noun, pl -vors [count]
1 a : a person who continues to live after an accident, illness, war, etc. ▪ She interviewed survivors of the flood. ▪ a Holocaust/cancer survivor ▪ The plane crashed and there were no survivors. ▪ There was only one survivor of the accident. b : a member of a group who continues to live after other members have died ▪ Most of the people I went to school with are gone now. I'm one of the few survivors. c : a family member who remains alive after another person's death ▪ He died without any survivors.
2 : someone or something that continues to exist, function, compete, etc. ▪ The survivors of the first round of competition will be meeting today in the second round. ▪ This newspaper is the only survivor of six newspapers that were founded in the city in the 19th century.
3 : someone who is able to keep living or succeeding despite a lot of problems ▪ There's no question about it—Aunt Annie's a survivor.

sus•cep•ti•bil•i•ty /səˌsɛptəˈbɪlɪti/ noun, pl -ties
1 : the state of being easily affected, influenced, or harmed by something — usually + to [count] — usually singular ▪ They are concerned about the city's susceptibility to attack. ▪ A weak immune system increases your susceptibility to disease. [noncount] A weak immune system causes increased susceptibility to disease.
2 susceptibilities [plural] chiefly Brit, formal : a person's feelings ▪ We do not want to offend their susceptibilities. [=we do not want to offend them]

sus•cep•ti•ble /səˈsɛptəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : easily affected, influenced, or harmed by something ▪ The virus can infect susceptible individuals. — often + to ▪ He is very susceptible to colds. [=he catches colds easily] ▪ a surface highly susceptible to scratches ▪ He is susceptible to flattery.
2 formal : capable of being affected by a specified action or process — + of ▪ a contract that is susceptible of modification [=a contract that can be modified]

su•shi /ˈsuːʃi/ noun [noncount] : a Japanese dish of cold cooked rice shaped in small cakes and topped or wrapped with other ingredients (such as pieces of raw fish)

[1]sus•pect /səˈspɛkt/ verb -pects; -pect•ed; -pect•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to think that (someone) is possibly guilty of a crime or of doing something wrong ▪ He's suspected in four burglaries. — often + of ▪ The police suspect him of murder. ▪ No one suspects you of cheating. b : to think that (something) is possibly the cause of something bad — usually + of ▪ The pesticide is suspected of causing cancer. c : to think that (a crime) has possibly been committed ▪ The police do not suspect murder in this case. ▪ The fire chief suspects arson.
2 : to think that (something, especially something bad) possibly exists, is true, will happen, etc. ▪ We suspected a trap. ▪ I suspect it will rain. ▪ Call the doctor immediately if you suspect you've been infected. ▪ The latest research confirms what scientists have long suspected. ▪ I suspect she's not who she says she is. ▪ "We haven't done our homework." "I suspected as much."

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 227 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

3 : to have feelings of doubt about (something) : to be suspicious about (something) ▪ I suspected his motives in giving me the money. ▪ I have reason to suspect her sincerity when she makes promises like that.

– suspected /səˈspɛktəd/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a suspected arsonist ▪ The pesticide is a suspected carcinogen. ▪ a suspected case of smallpox

[2]sus•pect /ˈsʌˌspɛkt/ noun, pl -pects [count]
1 : a person who is believed to be possibly guilty of committing a crime ▪ a murder suspect ▪ One suspect has been arrested. ▪ She is a possible/prime suspect in connection with the kidnapping.
2 : a thing that is thought of as a possible cause of something bad ▪ The prime suspect for the food poisoning is the potato salad.
the usual suspects : the usual people or things that are suspected or thought of in a particular situation — often used humorously ▪ The breakfast menu had all the usual suspects [=the usual things]—eggs, pancakes, waffles, and French toast.

[3]sus•pect /ˈsʌˌspɛkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to be trusted : causing feelings of doubt or suspicion ▪ The suspect [=suspicious] vehicle was reported to the police. ▪ The witness's claim was suspect. [=dubious, questionable] ▪ The room had a suspect odor.

sus•pend /səˈspɛnd/ verb -pends; -pend•ed; -pend•ing [+ obj]
1 : to force (someone) to leave a job, position, or place for a usually short period of time as a form of punishment ▪ He was suspended from the team for missing too many practices. ▪ The police officers were suspended without pay for their conduct. ▪ The principal suspended the student from school for fighting.
2 a : to stop (something) for a usually short period of time ▪ The city suspended bus service during the storm. ▪ The company was forced to suspend operations. ▪ They have suspended the peace talks. ▪ The plot is ridiculous, but if you can suspend (your) disbelief [=allow yourself to believe that something is true even though it seems impossible], it's an enjoyable movie. b : to make (something) happen later : to delay (something) ▪ The judge suspended [=postponed] the hearing for one week. ▪ I advise suspending judgment until the investigation is over. c : to make (something) invalid or ineffective for a usually short period of time ▪ Her license to practice law was suspended. ▪ We can suspend the rules just this once. ▪ He's driving with a suspended license.
3 a : to hang something so that it is free on all sides except at the point of support ▪ They suspended the lantern from the ceiling. ▪ A pot of stew was suspended over the fire. ▪ a wire suspended between two poles [=hung so that it is attached at each end to a pole] b : to prevent (something) from falling or sinking by some invisible support — usually used as (be) suspended ▪ Dust was suspended [=was floating] in the air. ▪ The structure appears to be suspended in space.

suspended animation noun [noncount] : a state in which the processes of the body (such as blood circulation) stop or become very slow for a period of time while a person or animal is unconscious ▪ animals that sleep through the winter in a state of suspended animation — often used figuratively ▪ The project has been in (a state of) suspended animation for over 15 years.

suspended sentence noun, pl ~ -tences [count] law : a legal arrangement in which a person who has been found guilty of a crime is not sentenced to jail but may be sentenced for that crime at a future time if he or she commits another crime during a specified period ▪ The judge handed down a suspended sentence to the first-time offender.

sus•pend•er /səˈspɛndə/ noun, pl -ers
1 suspenders [plural] US : straps that are used for holding up pants and that go over a person's shoulders — called also (Brit) braces; see color picture on page C14
2 [count] Brit : GARTER 2

suspender belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] Brit : GARTER BELT

sus•pense /səˈspɛns/ noun [noncount] : a feeling or state of nervousness or excitement caused by wondering what will happen ▪ I can't bear/stand the suspense. ▪ The suspense builds as the story progresses. ▪ a novel of suspense ▪ Alfred Hitchcock was a master of suspense. ▪ The movie is a suspense thriller. ▪ I don't know who won and the suspense is killing me. [=I am very anxious to know who won] ▪ She kept him in suspense [=waiting anxiously] for two whole days before she agreed to marry him.

– sus•pense•ful /səˈspɛnsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a suspenseful story/situation/movie

sus•pen•sion /səˈspɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of forcing someone to leave a job, position, or place for a usually short period of time as a form of punishment : the act of suspending someone [count] He was angry about his suspension from the team. ▪ His record shows several suspensions from school. [noncount] He's under suspension for breaking the rules.
2 [singular, noncount] : the act of stopping or delaying something for a usually short period of time ▪ (a) suspension of peace talks
3 : the act of making something invalid or ineffective for a usually short period of time [count] a 30-day license suspension ▪ a suspension of the rules [noncount] She was punished by suspension of her driver's license.
4 [count] technical : a substance (usually a liquid) that has very small pieces of a solid material mixed throughout it
5 [noncount] technical : the parts of a vehicle that connect the body to the tires and allow the vehicle to move more smoothly over uneven surfaces ▪ the car's front/rear suspension suspension bridge noun, pl ~ bridges [count] : a bridge that is hung from two or more cables that are held up by towers

sus•pi•cion /səˈspɪʃən/ noun, pl -cions
1 [noncount] : a feeling that someone is possibly guilty of a crime or of doing something wrong ▪ Her strange behavior has aroused suspicion. [=has made people think that she is doing something wrong] ▪ He is under suspicion of [=suspected of] selling illegal drugs. ▪ He was arrested on suspicion of robbery. [=he was arrested because the police suspect that he committed a robbery] ▪ They are not above/beyond suspicion. [=they are not considered to be obviously or certainly innocent and unable to be suspected]
2 [count] : a feeling that something bad is likely or true ▪ There has long been a suspicion that the painting is a fake. ▪ There was not the slightest suspicion of a trap. [=no one suspected a trap] ▪ I thought the water might be making us sick, and my suspicions were confirmed by the lab tests. ▪ The note aroused her suspicions that he was having an affair. ▪ I have a sneaking suspicion that those cookies aren't really homemade.
3 : a feeling of doubt [noncount] The new policies are regarded by many with suspicion. ▪ His story has raised some suspicion. [count] I have my suspicions about his motives.
4 [singular] : a very small amount of something : TRACE ▪ a suspicion of garlic
the finger of suspicion see [1]FINGER sus•pi•cious /səˈspɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : causing a feeling that something is wrong or that someone is behaving wrongly : causing suspicion ▪ We were instructed to report any suspicious activity/behavior in the neighborhood. ▪ The suspicious vehicle was reported to police. ▪ He died under suspicious circumstances. [=under circumstances that suggest a crime may have been committed] ▪ Suspicious characters were seen hanging around the bank. ▪ He found a suspicious lump on his back and was afraid it might be cancer.
2 : having or showing a feeling that something is wrong or that someone is behaving wrongly : feeling or showing suspicion ▪ Officials are suspicious about her death. ▪ His manner made me suspicious. — often + of ▪ She became suspicious of his behavior. ▪ The dog is suspicious of strangers. [=the dog does not trust strangers] ▪ We noticed the suspicious stare of the security guard.

– sus•pi•cious•ly adv ▪ "Is there someone in the bedroom?" he asked suspiciously. ▪ The security guard stared at us suspiciously. ▪ He was acting/behaving suspiciously. ▪ The answers on the two students' tests are suspiciously alike. ▪ This sounds suspiciously like an excuse to get out of work.

suss /ˈsʌs/ verb suss•es; sussed; suss•ing [+ obj] Brit, informal
1 : to find or discover (something) by thinking — usually + out ▪ They had to suss out [=figure out] whether he was telling the truth. ▪ I think I've got him sussed out. [=I understand what kind of person he is]
2 : to inspect or investigate (something) in order to gain more knowledge — usually + out ▪ He carefully sussed out the situation.

sus•tain /səˈsteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 228 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : to provide what is needed for (something or someone) to exist, continue, etc. ▪ There is not enough oxygen to sustain [=support] life at very high altitudes. ▪ Hope sustained us during that difficult time. ▪ The movie sustained our interest [=kept us interested] from beginning to end. ▪ The country is enjoying a period of sustained [=continuing] economic growth. ▪ a sustained discussion/effort
2 formal : to hold up the weight of (something) ▪ The roof, unable to sustain the weight of all the snow, collapsed.
3 formal : to deal with or experience (something bad or unpleasant) : SUFFER ▪ The army sustained heavy losses. ▪ He sustained serious injuries in the accident.
4 law : to decide or state that (something) is proper, legal, or fair ▪ The judge sustained the motion. ▪ The lawyer's objection was sustained.
5 formal : to show that (something) is true or correct : to confirm or prove (something) ▪ The report sustains their story/claims. ▪ The evidence does not sustain a guilty verdict.

sus•tain•able /səˈsteɪnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to be used without being completely used up or destroyed ▪ sustainable energy resources ▪ a sustainable water supply
2 : involving methods that do not completely use up or destroy natural resources ▪ sustainable agriculture/farming/techniques
3 : able to last or continue for a long time ▪ sustainable development/growth – sus•tain•abil•i•ty /səˌsteɪnəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] – sus•tain•ably /səˈsteɪnəbliː/ adv

sus•te•nance /ˈsʌstənəns/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : something (such as food) that keeps someone or something alive ▪ Tree bark provides deer with sustenance in periods of drought. ▪ The village depends on the sea for sustenance.
2 : something that gives support, help, or strength ▪ She draws spiritual sustenance from daily church attendance. ▪ reading for intellectual sustenance

[1]su•ture /ˈsuːʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count] medical : a stitch or a series of stitches used to close a cut or wound

[2]suture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj] medical : to sew together (a cut, wound, etc.) : to close (something) with a suture ▪ The surgeon sutured the incision.

SUV /ˌɛsˌjuːˈviː/ noun, pl SUVs [count] : a large vehicle that is designed to be used on rough surfaces but that is often used on city roads or highways — called also sport-utility vehicle; see picture at CAR

svelte /ˈsvɛlt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : thin in an attractive or graceful way : SLENDER ▪ She has a svelte figure. ▪ a svelte young actor ▪ a svelte aircraft

SW abbr southwest, southwestern

[1]swab /ˈswɑːb/ noun, pl swabs [count]
1 : a small piece of soft material sometimes on the end of a small stick that is used for applying medicine, cleaning a wound, etc. ▪ Use a cotton swab dipped in alcohol to disinfect the area.
2 : a small amount of material taken with a swab as a sample from a person's body ▪ The doctor took a throat swab and sent it to the lab.

[2]swab verb swabs; swabbed; swab•bing [+ obj]
1 : to wipe or clean (something, such as a wound) with a swab ▪ The nurse swabbed the cut with a disinfectant.
2 : [2]MOP 1 ▪ sailors swabbing the decks

swad•dle /ˈswɑːdl/ verb swad•dles; swad•dled; swad•dling [+ obj] : to wrap (someone, especially a baby) tightly with a blanket, pieces of cloth, etc. ▪ He swaddled the baby in a blanket.

swaddling clothes noun [plural] : narrow strips of cloth that were wrapped around babies in the past ▪ an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes

swag /ˈswæg/ noun [noncount] informal + old-fashioned : stolen property : LOOT ▪ The robbers divided the swag.

[1]swag•ger /ˈswægɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a way of walking or behaving that shows you have a lot of confidence ▪ He has a swagger that annoys some of his teammates.

[2]swagger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [no obj] : to walk in a very confident way : to walk with a swagger ▪ He swaggered [=strutted] into the shop like he owned the place.

Swa•hi•li /swɑˈhiːli/ noun [noncount] : a language widely used in East Africa and the Congo region swain /ˈsweɪn/ noun, pl swains [count] old-fashioned + humorous : a man who is a woman's lover ▪ a fair maiden and her swain

[1]swal•low /ˈswɑːloʊ/ verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing
1 a : to take (something) into your stomach through your mouth and throat [+ obj] He swallowed the grape whole. [no obj] Chew your food well before you swallow. b [no obj] : to move the muscles in your throat as if you are swallowing something often because you are nervous ▪ I swallowed before answering. ▪ The boss said, "Come in." I swallowed hard and walked in. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ If she insults you, just swallow hard [=make an effort to control yourself] and don't say anything.
2 [+ obj] a : to flow over and cover (something) completely — often + up ▪ The wave swallowed up the small vessel. — often used figuratively ▪ More small companies are being swallowed (up) [=taken over, absorbed] by giant conglomerates. ▪ We watched as he was swallowed up by the crowd. [=as he disappeared into the crowd] b : to use up (an amount of money) — usually + up ▪ The cost of childcare swallows up most of her income.
3 [+ obj] informal : to accept or believe (something) ▪ Her story is pretty hard to swallow. ▪ I can usually take criticism, but this is more than I can swallow.
4 [+ obj] : to not allow yourself to show or be affected by (an emotion) ▪ We have to swallow our disappointment/anger about the election and keep trying to make things better. ▪ She had to swallow her pride and ask for help.
(a) bitter pill to swallow see [1]PILL

[2]swallow noun, pl -lows [count] : an amount that is swallowed at one time ▪ She took a swallow of water to wash down the pill. : the act of swallowing something ▪ He drank the water in/with one swallow. — compare [3]SWALLOW

[3]swallow noun, pl -lows [count] : a small bird that has long wings and a deeply forked tail — compare [2]SWALLOW

swam past tense of [1]SWIM

swa•mi /ˈswɑːmi/ noun, pl -mis [count] : a Hindu priest or religious teacher

[1]swamp /ˈswɑːmp/ noun, pl swamps : land that is always wet and often partly covered with water [noncount] The area is mostly swamp. [=swampland] [count] Alligators live in the lowland swamps.
– swampy /ˈswɑːmpiː/ adj swamp•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ swampy land

[2]swamp verb swamps; swamped; swamp•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cover (something) with water ▪ The sea level rose and swamped the coastal villages. ▪ The boat sank after it was swamped by waves.
2 : to cause (someone or something) to have to deal with a very large amount of things or people at the same time — usually used as (be) swamped ▪ The agency has been swamped by requests for assistance. ▪ I'm swamped with work right now. [=I'm extremely busy right now] ▪ Because of the new laws, we were swamped with paperwork. ▪ In the summer, the town is swamped with/by tourists.

swamp•land /ˈswɑːmpˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands : wet land that is partly covered with water : SWAMP [noncount] attempting to build on swampland [plural] the ecology of the coastal swamplands

[1]swan /ˈswɑːn/ noun, pl swans also swan [count] : a large usually white bird that lives on or near water and that has a very long and graceful neck

swan

[2]swan verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition swans; swanned; swan•ning [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal + disapproving : to go to or move about a place in a very relaxed and aimless way for your own pleasure ▪ She's always swanning off to some exotic locale. ▪ He's been swanning around foreign countries for the last six months.

[1]swank /ˈswæŋk/ adj swank•er; -est chiefly US : very fashionable and expensive : SWANKY ▪ a swank club/hotel/restaurant

[2]swank verb swanks; swanked; swank•ing [no obj] Brit, informal + disapproving : to behave in a way that is intended to impress people ▪ rich people swanking around in their expensive cars

swanky /ˈswæŋkiː/ adj swank•i•er; -est informal : very fashionable and expensive ▪ a swanky club/hotel/restaurant swan song noun, pl ~ songs [count] : the last performance or piece of work by an actor, athlete, writer, etc. ▪ She has announced that this tournament will be her swan song.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 229 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[=this will be her last tournament]

[1]swap also Brit swop /ˈswɑːp/ verb swaps; swapped; swap•ping informal
1 : to give something to someone and receive something in return : to trade or exchange (things) [+ obj] He swapped his cupcake for a candy bar. ▪ He swapped desserts with his brother. = He and his brother swapped desserts. ▪ I'll swap my sandwich for your popcorn. = I'll swap you my sandwich for your popcorn. ▪ I swapped seats with my sister so she could see the stage better. ▪ We often get together and swap [=exchange] recipes. ▪ We spent some time swapping stories about our college days. [=telling each other stories about our college days] [no obj] I liked her blue notebook and she liked my red one, so we swapped. ▪ He wanted the window seat so we swapped. = (Brit) He wanted the window seat so we swapped over.
2 : to replace (something) with something else [+ obj] He swapped (out) his hard drive for a bigger one. ▪ The nurse swapped [=switched] the patients' charts by mistake. [no obj] (Brit) Our company decided to swap over to a new supplier.

[2]swap noun, pl swaps [count] : an act of giving or taking one thing in return for another thing : a trade or exchange ▪ They made the swap in secret. ▪ an even swap

swap meet noun, pl ∼ meets [count] US : an event at which people can buy, sell, or trade used items sward /ˈswoəd/ noun, pl swards [count, noncount] literary : an area of land covered with grass

[1]swarm /ˈswoəm/ noun, pl swarms [count] : a very large number of insects moving together ▪ a swarm of bees/mosquitoes/ants/locusts — often used figuratively ▪ The tourists arrived in swarms.

[2]swarm verb swarms; swarmed; swarm•ing
1 [no obj] : to move in a large group ▪ Bees were swarming near the hive. ▪ Spectators swarmed into the stadium.
2 a [no obj] : to be surrounded or filled with a large group of insects, people, etc., moving together ▪ The hive was swarming with bees. ▪ The island was swarming with tourists. b [+ obj] : to surround (something or someone) with a large group ▪ Police swarmed the smuggler's hideout. ▪ The movie star was swarmed by adoring fans. ▪ Enemy soldiers swarmed the castle.

swar•thy /ˈswoəði/ adj swar•thi•er; -est [also more ∼; most ∼] : having dark skin ▪ a swarthy man/complexion

swash•buck•ler /ˈswɑːʃˌbʌklə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : a person or a character in a movie, book, etc., who is very brave and has many exciting adventures
– swash•buck•ling /ˈswɑːʃˌbʌkəlɪŋ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ swashbuckling heroes ▪ a swashbuckling tale/adventure

swas•ti•ka /ˈswɑːstɪkə/ noun, pl -kas [count] : a symbol in the form of a cross with its ends bent at right angles all in the same direction ✧ The swastika was used as a symbol of the German Nazi Party.

swat /ˈswɑːt/ verb swats; swat•ted; swat•ting [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) with a quick motion ▪ She swatted the fly with a magazine. ▪ The cat was swatting the injured mouse with its paw. ▪ He swatted the tennis ball out of bounds.
– swat noun, pl swats [count] ▪ He took a swat at the ball but missed. ▪ She gave the ball a swat. [=she swatted the ball]

SWAT /ˈswɑːt/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a police or military unit that is specially trained to handle very dangerous situations — usually used before another noun ▪ a SWAT team ✧ SWAT is an abbreviation of "special weapons and tactics."

swatch /ˈswɑːʧ/ noun, pl swatch•es [count] : a small piece of cloth that is used as a sample for choosing colors, fabrics, etc. ▪ She looked at fabric swatches to select material for the drapes.

swath /ˈswɑːθ/ or swathe /ˈswɑːð/ noun, pl swaths or swathes [count]
1 : a long, wide strip of land ▪ An aerial view of the countryside shows wide swathes of green.
2 : an area of grass or grain that has been cut or mowed ▪ He cut a swath through the field with his scythe. — often used figuratively ▪ The tornado cut a swath through the county.

swathe /ˈswɑːð/ verb swathes; swathed; swath•ing [+ obj] literary : to wrap or cover (someone or something) ▪ The nurse swathed the wounded soldier's leg in bandages. ▪ Her neck was swathed in jewels. ▪ mountains swathed in mist

[1]sway /ˈsweɪ/ verb sways; swayed; sway•ing
1 [no obj] : to move slowly back and forth ▪ branches swaying in the breeze ▪ He swayed a moment before he fainted.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to agree with you or to share your opinion ▪ The lawyer tried to sway the jury. ▪ She persisted in her argument, but I wouldn't let her sway me. — often used as (be) swayed ▪ He can be easily swayed.

[2]sway noun [noncount]
1 : a slow movement back and forth ▪ the sway of the ship ▪ the sexy sway of her hips
2 : a controlling force or influence ▪ He has them under his sway. [=he controls them] ▪ He has come/fallen under the sway of terrorists. ▪ The ancient Romans held sway over most of Europe. ▪ The theory still holds sway today. [=still influences people today]

[1]swear /ˈsweə/ verb swears; swore /ˈswoə/; sworn /ˈswoən/; swear•ing
1 a : to state (something) very strongly and sincerely [+ obj] I swear (that) I was there. [=I was definitely there; I am telling you the truth when I say that I was there] ▪ Her English is so good that you would swear she has been studying it for years. [=you would really think that she has been studying it for years, even though she has not] ▪ You'd swear (that) the jewels are real. [=the jewels look very real even though they are not] ▪ I could have sworn that I left my keys on the counter. [=I'm very surprised that my keys are not on the counter because I definitely remember putting them there] ▪ (US) She swore up and down [=insisted] (that) she didn't do it. ▪ (Brit) He swore blind [=insisted] (that) he was innocent. [no obj] I didn't do anything wrong. I swear (on my mother's grave). [=I am being absolutely honest when I say that I didn't do anything wrong] ▪ I wouldn't swear to it [=I'm not absolutely sure about it], but I think he's written three books so far. b : to promise very strongly and sincerely to do or not do something [+ obj] He swore [=vowed] to seek revenge. ▪ He swore revenge on the killers. ▪ I swear (that) I'll never do that again. [no obj] I swear to God, I'll kill him if he comes back. ▪ I'll never do that again. Swear to God. [=I promise you that I'll never do that again]
2 [no obj] : to use offensive words when you speak ▪ Don't swear in front of the children. — often + at ▪ The other driver swore at me and drove away.
3 : to make a formal or official promise especially in a court of law [+ obj] I do solemnly swear to tell the whole truth. ▪ They swore (an oath of) allegiance to the United States of America. [=they formally promised that they would be loyal to the United States of America] [no obj] Witnesses are required to swear on the Bible [=to put a hand on the Bible and make a formal promise to tell the truth] before they testify.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to make a promise ▪ He swore us to secrecy/silence. [=he made us promise not to tell anyone his secret] — often used as (be) sworn ▪ Witnesses are sworn to tell the truth.
I swear informal — used for emphasis ▪ I swear, every time I see her she's got a new boyfriend. ▪ I swear, if I had a nickel for every time you did that, I'd be rich.
swear by [phrasal verb] swear by (something) : to have or express a lot of confidence in (something) : to say that (something) is very good or useful ▪ She swears by this diet. ▪ His method sounds pretty strange, but he swears by it.
swear in [phrasal verb] swear (someone) in or swear in (someone) : to place (someone) in a new office or position by having an official ceremony in which that person makes a formal promise to do the work properly, to be honest and loyal, etc. ▪ When do they swear him in? — often used as (be) sworn in ▪ The new president will be sworn in tomorrow. — see also SWEARING-IN swear off [phrasal verb] swear off (something) chiefly US : to stop doing, having, or being involved in (something) ▪ He was so disgusted by the election results that he swore off politics for good. ▪ She tried to swear off chocolate, but she couldn't do it.
– see also SWORN

[2]swear noun, pl swears [count] US, informal : SWEARWORD ▪ I heard him say a swear.

swearing–in noun, pl swearings–in [count] : an occasion or ceremony in which someone begins a new official job or position by making a formal promise to do the work properly, to be honest and loyal, etc. — see also swear in at [1]SWEAR swear•word /ˈsweəˌwəd/ noun, pl -words [count] : an offensive word ▪ a movie filled with violent images and rough swearwords

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 230 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]sweat /ˈswɛt/ verb sweats; sweat or sweat•ed; sweat•ing

1 [no obj] : to produce a clear liquid from your skin when you are hot or nervous ▪ He sweats a lot when he exercises. ▪ The dancers were sweating [=(more formally) perspiring] profusely. ▪ (informal) He was sweating like a pig. [=sweating a lot]

2 [no obj] informal : to work very hard ▪ They sweated and saved so their children could go to college. — often + over ▪ She was sweating over her law books all afternoon. ▪ He sweated over the wording of his speech for several days.

3 informal a : to feel worried or nervous about something [no obj] We'll let them sweat a while longer. — often + over ▪ After they took the test, they were sweating over [=worrying about] their scores. [+ obj] We'll let them sweat it out for a while longer. b [no obj] : to go through an experience that causes a lot of emotional stress or worry — usually + through ▪ The cops made him sweat through 15 minutes of intense questioning before they let him go. ▪ I sweated [=struggled] through geometry in high school. c [+ obj] US : to worry or be nervous about (something) ▪ "The car won't start—what are we going to do?" "Don't sweat it. I know all about fixing cars." ▪ Don't sweat the small stuff. [=don't worry about minor things]

4 [no obj] : to produce small drops of liquid on the surface ▪ Cheese sweats during ripening. ▪ A pitcher of ice water sweats on a hot day.

5 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to cook (something) slowly in a covered pan with a little fat ▪ Sweat sliced onions in a little olive oil until they are soft.

sweat blood see BLOOD

sweat bullets US, informal : to be very nervous or worried ▪ I was sweating bullets while I waited to talk to my boss.

sweat off [phrasal verb] sweat off (something) or sweat (something) off : to lose (an amount of weight) by sweating (especially by exercising a lot) ▪ He's trying to sweat off a few more pounds.

sweat out [phrasal verb] sweat out (something) or sweat (something) out informal 1 : to wait nervously until the end of (something) ▪ It was a close game, and the fans were really sweating it out at the end. 2 US a : to work hard at (something) ▪ She was sweating it out on the treadmill. [=she was exercising and sweating on the treadmill] b : to get or achieve (something, such as a victory) by working very hard ▪ He managed to sweat out a narrow victory in the semifinals. 3 : to end (an illness) by exercising and sweating ▪ He's trying to sweat out his cold at the gym.

[2]sweat noun

1 [noncount] : the clear liquid that forms on your skin when you are hot or nervous : PERSPIRATION ▪ We were drenched/bathed in sweat after the workout. ▪ The runners were dripping with sweat. ▪ Her forehead was covered with beads of sweat.

2 [count] : the state or condition of someone who is sweating ▪ nervous sweats — usually singular ▪ After a few minutes of exercise, we had worked up a sweat. [=we were sweating] ▪ I broke into a sweat as I struggled up the hill. = I broke out in a sweat as I struggled up the hill. [=I began to sweat as I struggled up the hill] — see also COLD SWEAT

3 [noncount] : hard work ▪ It took a lot of sweat and toil to build the house. ▪ We helped them not with money but with our blood and sweat.

4 [noncount] : moisture that forms in drops on a surface ▪ He wiped the sweat [=condensation] off the bottle.

break a sweat (US) or Brit break sweat : to begin to sweat ▪ He started running and soon broke a sweat. ▪ He loaded all five boxes without breaking a sweat. — often used figuratively to say that something is not hard for someone to do ▪ He gave a perfect performance and didn't break a sweat. ▪ She rattled off the answers without breaking a sweat. [=she gave the answers very easily] by the sweat of your brow : by doing hard, physical work ▪ He earned his money by the sweat of his brow.

in a sweat informal : very nervous or worried about something ▪ He's in a sweat about his exams. ▪ There's no need to get in a sweat about minor details.

no sweat informal : with little or no difficulty : EASILY ▪ I can do that no sweat. ▪ "Can you move that big board for me?" "Sure, no sweat." ▪ "Thanks a lot for your help." "No sweat." [=helping was not difficult and I was glad to do it]

sweat•band /ˈswɛtˌbænd/ noun, pl -bands [count]

1 : a band of material that you wear around your head or wrist to absorb sweat while you are exercising

2 : a band of material along the inner edge of a hat or cap to absorb sweat sweated labour noun [noncount] Brit : people who work hard and in poor conditions for low pay ▪ goods made cheaply by sweated labour; also : the type of work done by such people sweat equity noun [noncount] US : value in a property, business, etc., that results from the work that a person does to improve it ▪ He's built up a lot of sweat equity in his house.; also : the work itself ▪ He put countless hours of sweat equity into that old house.

sweat•er /ˈswɛtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a warm usually knitted piece of clothing for the upper part of your body: such as a : one that is put on by pulling it over your head : PULLOVER — called also (Brit) jumper; see color picture on page C15 b US : one that opens like a jacket and that is fastened in the front with buttons or a zipper — called also cardigan

sweater vest noun, pl ~ vests [count] US : a sleeveless sweater worn over a shirt — called also (Brit) tank top

sweat•pants /ˈswɛtˌpænts/ noun [plural] chiefly US : pants made from a thick, soft material that are worn mostly when you are exercising — see color picture on page C14

sweats /ˈswɛts/ noun [plural] US, informal

1 : SWEATPANTS

2 : SWEAT SUIT

sweat•shirt /ˈswɛtˌʃɚt/ noun, pl -shirts [count] : a piece of clothing for the upper part of your body that is made from a thick, soft material — see color picture on page C14

sweat•shop /ˈswɛtˌʃɑːp/ noun, pl -shops [count] : a place where people work long hours for low pay in poor conditions ▪ clothing made in sweatshops ▪ sweatshop conditions/labor/workers sweat suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] US : clothing that consists of a matching sweatshirt and sweatpants sweaty /ˈswɛti/ adj sweat•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : causing you to sweat ▪ sweaty work ▪ a hot and sweaty afternoon

2 : wet with sweat ▪ We were hot and sweaty after playing basketball. ▪ sweaty palms ▪ My clothes are all sweaty from my workout.

swede /ˈswiːd/ noun, pl swedes [count, noncount] Brit : RUTABAGA

Swede /ˈswiːd/ noun, pl Swedes [count] : a person born, raised in, or living in Sweden

[1]sweep /ˈswiːp/ verb sweeps; swept /ˈswɛpt/; sweep•ing

1 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to remove (something, such as dust or dirt) from a surface with a broom or brush or with a quick movement of your hand, fingers, etc. ▪ He swept the dirt off the driveway. ▪ He swept the crumbs from the table. b : to remove dust, dirt, etc., from (something) with a broom or brush [+ obj] She swept the floor. ▪ I need to sweep the kitchen. ▪ Are you finished sweeping the porch? [no obj] Have you swept yet? — see also SWEEP OUT (below), SWEEP UP (below)

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [no obj] : to move or pass quickly, forcefully, or smoothly ▪ A storm swept across the plains. ▪ Fires swept through the forest. — often used figuratively ▪ She swept to victory on a wave of popularity. b [no obj] : to move or walk in a smooth, quick, and impressive way ▪ She proudly swept into the room. ▪ The limo swept up to the door. c [+ obj] : to push or move (something) quickly or forcefully ▪ He swept the curtains aside. ▪ She swept the books off the desk. d [+ obj] : to push, carry, or lift (someone or something) with great force ▪ The debris was swept [=carried] out to sea by the tide. ▪ She was swept toward the door by the crowd. ▪ He swept her into his arms. — often used figuratively ▪ We were swept along/away by her enthusiasm. ▪ The party was swept into power in the last election.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] of a feeling or emotion : to be felt suddenly ▪ Fear swept over/through her. [=she suddenly felt afraid] ▪ A feeling of relief swept over him.

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to move (your hand, arm, etc.) in a wide, curving motion ▪ He swept his arm across the table.

5 [+ obj] : to pass over (all of an area or place) in a continuous motion ▪ The teacher's gaze swept the classroom. ▪ A searchlight swept the area. ▪ Strong winds sweep the mountainside.

6 [+ obj] : to become very popular or common suddenly in (a particular place) ▪ It's the latest craze sweeping the nation.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 231 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

7 [+ obj] : to win everything that can be won in (something, such as an election) in an easy or impressive way ▪ The opposition party swept the election.
8 [+ obj] US, sports : to win all of the games in a series of games against another team ▪ They swept their rivals in a three-game series. ▪ They swept the series/doubleheader. ▪ They were swept in the play-offs last year.
9 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to brush or pull (your hair) away from your face ▪ She swept her hair up/back and clipped it in place.
10 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to form a long, smooth curve ▪ The property sweeps down to the water's edge.
sweep aside [phrasal verb] sweep (something) aside or sweep aside (something) : to treat (something) as not important : to ignore (something) ▪ He swept aside [=brushed aside] questions about his son's arrest. ▪ He swept aside [=dismissed] their objections, refusing to change his plans.
sweep away [phrasal verb] sweep (something) away or sweep away (something) : to destroy or remove (something) completely ▪ Floods swept away several houses. ▪ an ancient civilization swept away by war ▪ His performance today swept away any doubts about his ability to play.
sweep out [phrasal verb] sweep (something) out or sweep out (something) : to remove dust, dirt, etc., from (something) by using a broom or brush ▪ Please sweep out the room when you're done working.
sweep (someone) off his/her feet : to make (someone) suddenly become very attracted to you in a romantic way ▪ She says that he swept her off her feet, and they were married six months later.
sweep (something) under the rug (US) or chiefly Brit sweep (something) under the carpet : to hide (something that is illegal, embarrassing, or wrong) ▪ He tried to sweep his past mistakes under the rug. ▪ This is not something we can just sweep under the rug.
sweep the board chiefly Brit : to win everything that can be won in a competition ▪ She swept the board at the awards ceremony.
sweep up [phrasal verb] 1 sweep up or sweep (something) up or sweep up (something) a : to remove dust, dirt, etc., from (something) by using a broom or brush ▪ When I was sweeping up, I found an earring that I had lost. ▪ Can you please sweep up the porch? b sweep (something) up or sweep up (something) : to remove (something, such as dust, dirt, etc.) from a surface by using a broom or brush ▪ She swept up the broken glass. 2 sweep (someone or something) up or sweep up (someone or something) : to pick up (someone or something) in one quick, continuous motion ▪ She swept the baby up and carried her to the crib.

[2]sweep noun, pl sweeps
1 [count] : an act of cleaning an area with a broom or brush — usually singular ▪ He gave the floor/room a quick sweep. [=he swept the floor/room quickly]
2 [count] : a long, smooth movement often in a wide curve — often + of ▪ He brushed the crumbs away with a sweep of his hand.
3 [count] : a large area of land often forming a wide curve — + of; usually singular ▪ the sweep of the coastline
4 [singular] : everything that is included in something : the full range or extent of something — + of ▪ The book attempts to cover the whole sweep of American history.
5 [count] : a search for something over a large area — usually singular ▪ The search party made a sweep of the forest.
6 [count] US, sports : an occurrence in which one team wins all the games in a series of games against another team ▪ They won the series in a sweep. ▪ a World Series sweep — see also clean sweep at [1]CLEAN
7 sweeps [plural] US : a time during the year when television stations try to see which shows are the most popular in order to decide how much can be charged for advertising ▪ The network is trying to increase ratings during (the) sweeps. ▪ sweeps week/month
8 [count] : CHIMNEY SWEEP

sweep•er /ˈswi:pɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or machine that sweeps something — see also MINESWEEPER
2 soccer : a player whose position is behind other defending players

[1]sweeping adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : including or involving many things : wide in range or amount ▪ sweeping changes/reforms ▪ a sweeping view of the valley ▪ The election was a sweeping victory [=a victory that is won by a large margin] for the party.
2 disapproving : too general : including or involving too many things or people ▪ sweeping claims/generalizations ▪ a sweeping condemnation
3 always used before a noun : having a curving form : forming a curve ▪ a sweeping coastline ▪ He dismissed the idea with a sweeping motion of his arm.

[2]sweeping noun [singular] : an act of cleaning an area with a broom or brush ▪ The porch needs a good sweeping.

sweep•stakes /ˈswi:pˌsteɪks/ noun [plural] : a race or contest in which the winner receives all the prize money

[1]sweet /ˈswi:t/ adj sweet•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : containing a lot of sugar ▪ sweet dishes/foods ▪ sweet desserts ▪ She likes her coffee sweet. ▪ a sweet wine ▪ That candy is too sweet.
2 : very gentle, kind, or friendly ▪ a sweet elderly couple ▪ He's a really sweet guy. ▪ She has a sweet smile. ▪ It was sweet of her to take care of them.
3 chiefly Brit : very pretty or cute ▪ The baby looks sweet [=adorable] in her bonnet.
4 a : having a very pleasant smell, sound, or appearance ▪ the sweet fragrance/scent of spring flowers ▪ sweet music/voices ▪ a sweet-smelling perfume b : clean and fresh ▪ The spring air was sweet. ▪ The water from the well is sweet. c US : not salty or salted ▪ sweet butter
5 : making you feel happy or pleased ▪ Victory/success/revenge is sweet. : very pleasant ▪ "Good night and sweet dreams." [=I hope you will sleep well and have pleasant dreams]
6 chiefly US, informal : very good or impressive ▪ Prosecutors offered him a sweet deal if he'd testify. ▪ a sweet job offer ▪ This video game is pretty sweet. [=cool] ▪ "I got backstage passes." "Sweet!"
be sweet on old-fashioned + informal : to be in love with (someone) ▪ He's been sweet on her since they were kids.
home sweet home see [1]HOME keep someone sweet Brit, informal : to be kind and friendly so that someone will do something for you later short and sweet see [1]SHORT sweet nothings see [3]NOTHING your own sweet time see [1]TIME

[2]sweet noun, pl sweets
1 a [count] : a food that contains a lot of sugar : a sweet food ▪ I'm trying to cut down on sweets. b [count] Brit : a piece of candy ▪ a bag of sweets c [count, noncount] Brit : a sweet food served at the end of a meal : DESSERT
2 [noncount] old-fashioned — used to address someone you love ▪ Good morning, my sweet.

sweet–and–sour /ˌswi:tn̩ˈsawɚ/ adj, always used before a noun : having a flavor that is both sweet and sour ▪ sweet-and-sour chicken/pork

sweet•bread /ˈswi:tˌbrɛd/ noun [count, noncount] : a part (called the pancreas) of a young cow or sheep that is eaten as food — usually plural

sweet corn noun [noncount]
1 US : a kind of corn (sense 1) that contains a lot of sugar
2 sweetcorn Brit : [1]CORN 1b

sweet•en /ˈswi:tn̩/ -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) sweet or sweeter in taste ▪ She sweetened her coffee. ▪ He sweetened his cereal a little.
2 : to make (something) more valuable or attractive ▪ He sweetened the deal with a large signing bonus.
sweeten the pill see [1]PILL sweeten up [phrasal verb] sweeten up (someone) or sweeten (someone) up informal : to be very nice to (someone) in order to get something ▪ He's been trying to sweeten his mother up so she'll lend him the car.
– sweet•en•er /ˈswi:tnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She used an artificial sweetener in the pie instead of sugar.

sweet FA /-ˈɛfˈeɪ/ also sweet Fan•ny Ad•ams /-ˈfæniˈædəmz/ noun [noncount] Brit slang : nothing at all ▪ You've done sweet FA to help me and I'm angry! ▪ Don't listen to him. He knows sweet FA about this.

sweet•heart /ˈswi:tˌhɑɚt/ noun, pl -hearts
1 a [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a person you love very much ▪ childhood/college sweethearts b — used to address someone you love ▪ How was your day, sweetheart? [=darling, dear] ▪ Sweetheart, what's the matter?
2 [count] : a kind or helpful person : someone who is very nice ▪ Be a sweetheart and help your grandmother. ▪ She is such a little sweetheart.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 232 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sweetheart deal noun, pl ~ deals [count] chiefly US : an unusually good arrangement or agreement that helps someone who has a lot of influence or who knows someone important ▪ He got a sweetheart deal on the new job/car because he knows the manager.

sweet•ie /ˈswi:ti/ noun, pl -ies informal
1 a [count] : a person you love very much ▪ My sweetie and I will be at the party. b — used to address someone you love ▪ "How are you feeling, sweetie?"
2 [count] : a kind or helpful person : someone who is very nice ▪ She's a total/real sweetie.
3 [count] Brit : a candy or sweet — used especially by children or when speaking to children ▪ a jar of sweeties sweetie pie noun, pl ~ pies informal 1 [count] : a person you love very much ▪ my sweetie pie

2 — used to address someone you love ▪ "Sweetie pie, what's wrong?"

sweet•ish /ˈswi:tɪʃ/ adj : slightly or somewhat sweet in taste or smell ▪ a sweetish red wine

sweet•ly /ˈswi:tli/ adv
1 : in a kind or loving way ▪ He asked sweetly if she was all right. ▪ She smiled sweetly at him.
2 : smelling or tasting sweet ▪ a sweetly scented candle ▪ sweetly flavored dishes
3 : in a pleasant or appealing way ▪ sweetly melodious music

sweet•meat /ˈswi:tˌmi:t/ noun, pl -meats [count] old-fashioned : a piece of candy or a piece of fruit covered with sugar

sweet•ness /ˈswi:tnəs/ noun [noncount]
1 : the quality of tasting or smelling sweet ▪ I like the sweetness of the sauce.
2 : the quality of being kind or loving ▪ the sweetness of his nature ▪ I'll never forget the sweetness of her smile.
3 : the quality of being pleasant or appealing ▪ the sweetness of the melody sweetness and light : pleasant and enjoyable ▪ Life is not all sweetness and light. ▪ She was yelling at us all morning, but when the guests arrived, she was all sweetness and light.

sweet pea noun, pl ~ peas [count] : a climbing plant with flowers that have a sweet smell sweet pepper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] : a type of hollow vegetable (called a pepper) that is usually red, green, or yellow, that has a mild flavor, and that can be eaten raw or cooked ▪ a red/green sweet pepper

sweet potato noun, pl ~ -toes [count, noncount] : a large root of a tropical plant that has orange skin and orange flesh, that is eaten as a vegetable, and that tastes sweet — see color picture on page C4; compare YAM sweet–talk /ˈswi:tˌtɑ:k/ verb -talks; -talked; -talk•ing [+ obj] : to say nice things to (someone) in order to persuade that person to do something — often + into ▪ He tried to sweet-talk her into doing his work for him.

– sweet talk noun [noncount] ▪ Don't fall for his sweet talk.

sweet tooth noun [singular] informal : a liking for sweet foods ▪ He's always had a sweet tooth. [=he has always liked sweets]

[1]swell /swɛl/ verb swells; swelled; swelled or swol•len /ˈswoʊlən/; swell•ing
1 [no obj] : to become larger than normal ▪ Her broken ankle swelled badly. — often + up ▪ The bee sting made my whole arm swell up.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a river) larger or more full than normal ▪ Heavy rains swelled the river.
3 : to increase in size or number [no obj] The population has swelled/swollen in recent years. ▪ The economy is swelling at an annual rate of five percent. [+ obj] Immigrants have swelled the population.
4 [no obj] : to become louder ▪ The music swelled.
5 : to cause (something, such as a sail) to stretch outward and become full [+ obj] The breeze swelled (out) the sails. [no obj] The sails swelled (out) in the breeze.
6 [no obj] : to feel an emotion strongly — + with ▪ His heart swelled with pride. [=he felt very proud]
a swelled head see [1]HEAD – swollen adj ▪ a swollen ankle/gland ▪ a swollen river

[2]swell noun, pl swells
1 [count] : an upward and downward movement of the water in the sea ▪ The storm has brought high winds and heavy swells along the coast.
2 [noncount] : the curved or rounded shape of something ▪ the swell of a pregnant woman's belly
3 [singular] a : an increase in size or number ▪ a swell in the population b : an increase in loudness ▪ the swell of the music c : an increase in the strength of an emotion ▪ a swell of enthusiasm/fear/hope — see also GROUNDSWELL
4 [count] informal + old-fashioned : a socially important or fashionable person ▪ a party for a bunch of swells

[3]swell adj, US, informal + old-fashioned : very good : EXCELLENT ▪ That was a swell party. ▪ He's a swell guy.

swell•ing /ˈswɛlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : an area on someone's body that is larger than normal because of an illness or injury ▪ There was a swelling above her eye.
2 [noncount] : the condition of being larger than normal ▪ The swelling around her eye should subside in a few days.

swel•ter /ˈswɛltə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to be very hot and uncomfortable ▪ We were sweltering in the summer heat.

swel•ter•ing /ˈswɛltərɪŋ/ adj : very hot ▪ a sweltering summer day swept past tense and past participle of [1]SWEEP swerve /ˈswəv/ verb swerves; swerved; swerv•ing [no obj] : to change direction suddenly especially to avoid hitting someone or something ▪ The car swerved [=turned] sharply to avoid hitting the deer. ▪ He lost control of the car and swerved toward a tree.

[1]swift /ˈswɪft/ adj swift•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : happening or done quickly or immediately ▪ a swift and accurate response ▪ a swift kick
2 : moving or able to move very fast ▪ a swift horse/runner ▪ a swift river current 3 US, informal : smart or intelligent — usually used in negative statements ▪ She's a nice kid, but she's not too swift. ▪ "I locked myself out of my car." "That wasn't very swift."
– swift•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He answered swiftly.
– swift•ness /ˈswɪftnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]swift noun, pl swifts [count] : a small bird that has long, narrow wings

swig /ˈswɪg/ verb swigs; swigged; swig•ging [+ obj] informal : to drink (something) quickly and in large amounts : to swallow a lot of (a drink) ▪ She was swigging [=gulping] water from a bottle after her workout.
– swig noun, pl swigs [count] ▪ He took a swig of whisky.

[1]swill /ˈswɪl/ verb swills; swilled; swill•ing
1 [+ obj] informal : to drink (something) quickly in large amounts ▪ They were swilling (down) beer and playing cards.
2 a [no obj] of a liquid : to move around in a container ▪ She watched the water swill around in the bucket. b [+ obj] : to cause (a liquid) to move around in a container ▪ He swilled the water around in the pot.
3 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to clean (something) by pouring water on it ▪ He swilled the floor with buckets of water.

[2]swill noun [noncount]
1 : food for animals (such as pigs) made from scraps of food and water
2 informal : food or drink that is very bad or unappealing ▪ I refuse to eat this swill. [=garbage]

[1]swim /swɪm/ verb swims; swam /swæm/; swum /swʌm/; swim•ming
1 a [no obj] : to move through water by moving your arms and legs ▪ He's teaching the children to swim. ▪ She swam across the pool. ▪ I can't swim. ▪ He swam (for) almost a mile. — see also SWIMMING b [+ obj] : to move through or across (an area of water) by swimming ▪ He swam the English Channel. c [+ obj] : to swim by using (a specified method) ▪ The racers must swim the backstroke. d [no obj] of a fish, bird, etc. : to move through or over water ▪ We watched the fish swimming in the river. ▪ Ducks swam in/on the pond.
2 [no obj] : to be completely covered with a liquid — usually used as (be) swimming in ▪ The potatoes were swimming in butter/gravy.
3 [no obj] a : to feel dizzy or unable to think clearly because you are sick, confused, etc. ▪ I felt weak and my head was swimming. ▪ All the facts and figures he was reciting were starting to make my head swim. [=starting to make me feel confused, unable to think clearly, etc.] b of something you are looking at : to seem to be moving around because you are tired, sick, etc. ▪ The room swam before my eyes.
sink or swim see [1]SINK swim with/against the tide see [1]TIDE

[2]swim noun, pl swims [count] : an act or period of swimming — usually singular ▪ We have time for a quick swim before

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 233 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

dinner. ▪ Would you like to go for a swim? ▪ The schools competed in a swim meet. [=a swimming competition with many races] in/into the swim (of things) informal : involved in an activity or informed about a situation ▪ She likes to be in the swim of things. ▪ When he gets into the swim of things, he'll be much happier.

swim•mer /ˈswɪmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a person who swims ▪ She's a good/strong/fast swimmer. : a person who is swimming ▪ There were a few swimmers at the lake this morning.

swimming noun [noncount] : the sport or activity of moving through water by moving your arms and legs ▪ Swimming keeps her fit. ▪ I am going swimming later today. — see also SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING swimming bath noun, pl ~ baths [count] Brit : a public swimming pool that is usually indoors swimming cap noun, pl ~ caps [count] chiefly Brit : a tight rubber cap that you wear while you swim to keep your hair dry

swimming costume noun, pl ~ -tumes [count] Brit : SWIMSUIT

swimming hole noun, pl ~ holes [count] US : a place in a river, pond, etc., where people swim ▪ The boys cooled off at the swimming hole.

swim•ming•ly /ˈswɪmɪŋli/ adv, informal : very well ▪ We expect everything to go swimmingly.

swimming pool noun, pl ~ pools [count] : a large structure that is filled with water and that is used for swimming ▪ Our neighbors have a swimming pool in their backyard. ▪ a public swimming pool

swimming trunks noun [plural] : special shorts that men and boys wear for swimming — called also trunks; see color picture on page C13

swim•suit /ˈswɪmˌsu:t/ noun, pl -suits [count] : special clothing that women and girls wear for swimming — called also (chiefly US) bathing suit, (Brit) swimming costume; see color picture on page C13

swim•wear /ˈswɪmˌweə/ noun [noncount] : special clothing worn for swimming swin•dle /ˈswɪndl/ verb swin•dles; swin•dled; swin•dling [+ obj] : to take money or property from (someone) by using lies or tricks : CHEAT — usually + out of ▪ He swindled elderly women out of their savings.

– swindle noun, pl swindles [count] ▪ an insurance swindle ▪ bank swindles – swin•dler /ˈswɪndlə/ noun, pl -dlers [count]

swine /ˈswaɪn/ noun, pl swine [count]

1 : PIG 1 ▪ methods of raising swine ▪ a herd of swine

2 informal : a very bad person ▪ He's such a swine! ▪ He's a filthy swine.

cast/throw pearls before swine see [1]PEARL swine•herd /ˈswaɪnˌhəd/ noun, pl -herds [count] old-fashioned : a person whose job is to take care of pigs

[1]swing /ˈswɪŋ/ verb swings; swung /ˈswʌŋ/; swing•ing

1 : to move backward and forward or from side to side while hanging from something [no obj] The sheets swung on the clothesline. ▪ The clock's pendulum stopped swinging. [+ obj] She sat on the edge of the table, swinging her legs. ▪ She swung the bag by the handle. [=she held the handle of the bag and made the bag swing]

2 always followed by an adverb, adjective, or preposition : to move with a smooth, curving motion [no obj] The monkeys were swinging from branch to branch high up in the trees. ▪ The door swung open/shut. [+ obj] He swung himself (up) into the truck. ▪ I swung my suitcase into the backseat of the car. ▪ She sat on the counter and swung her legs over to the other side. ▪ She swung the door open.

3 : to move (your arm, a tool, etc.) with a quick, curving motion especially to try to hit something [+ obj] Be careful how you swing that ax. ▪ She swung the bat but missed the ball. ▪ She swung her purse at me. [no obj] She swung (at the ball) but missed. ▪ He swung at me [=tried to hit me with his fist] for no reason.

4 [no obj] : to move back and forth on a special type of seat (called a swing) ▪ a playground where kids go to swing

5 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to turn or move quickly in a particular direction [no obj] The road swings to the left sharply after a few miles. — often + around ▪ He swung around to look at the clock. [+ obj] She swung the car into the driveway. ▪ He swung the flashlight toward the noise.

6 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to change suddenly from one state or condition to another ▪ Sales swung up sharply at the end of the year. ▪ The game suddenly swung in favor of the home team. ▪ His mood can swing wildly from cheerful to angry. ▪ They have to be ready to swing into action [=to start doing something quickly] at a moment's notice. b [+ obj] : to change or influence (something) in an important way ▪ His strong performance in the second half swung the game in our favor. ▪ Her promise to lower taxes may have swung [=changed the outcome of] the presidential election. ▪ They may still swing their votes to the other candidate.

7 [+ obj] informal : to do or manage (something) successfully ▪ Do you think you can swing the job? ▪ She isn't able to swing [=afford] a new car on her income. ▪ If he can swing it, he'll visit next month.

8 [no obj] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to be lively or exciting ▪ The bar really swings on weekends. ▪ The party was swinging.

9 [no obj] old-fashioned : to die by hanging ▪ He swung for his crimes.

swing both ways informal : to be bisexual swing by also swing over [phrasal verb] US, informal : to make a brief visit ▪ I'll swing by [=stop by] after work to drop off the paperwork.

swing the balance : to change a situation so that one person, group, etc., is more able or likely to succeed than another ▪ Both candidates are qualified, but her experience could swing the balance in her favor.

[2]swing noun, pl swings

1 [count] a : an act of moving something with a quick, sweeping motion : an act of swinging a bat, fist, etc. ▪ One swing of the hammer was all it took to drive the nail through the board. ▪ She needs to work on her (golf) swing. [=she needs to practice the way she swings a golf club] ▪ He took a swing at the pitch. [=he swung at the pitch; tried to hit the ball with his bat] ▪ Some drunk took a swing at me. [=tried to hit me] b : the movement of something that swings backward and forward or from side to side ▪ the swing of a pendulum

2 [count] : a usually sudden change from one state or condition to another ▪ upward/downward swings in the stock market ▪ She couldn't deal with his unpredictable mood swings. [=changes in his mood]

3 [count] : a seat that hangs from ropes or chains and that moves back and forth ▪ The kids were playing on the swings. ▪ We sat on the porch swing and watched the neighbors. — see picture at PLAYGROUND

4 [noncount] : a style of jazz music that has a lively rhythm and that is played mostly for dancing go with a swing Brit, informal : to be lively and enjoyable ▪ What a great party! It really went with a swing!

in full swing : at the highest level of activity ▪ Work on the project is in full swing. ▪ The party was in full swing by the time we arrived.

in/into the swing of informal : fully involved and comfortable with (a regular activity, process, etc.) ▪ After a while, she got into the swing of her job. [=she got used to her job and was able to do it well] ▪ I've been away on vacation but I should be (back) in the swing of things in a few days.

swings and roundabouts Brit, informal — used to say that two choices or situations are basically the same because they have an equal number of advantages and disadvantages ▪ It is a case of swings and roundabouts.

[3]swing adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to the style of jazz music called swing ▪ a swing band ▪ swing music/dancing

2 : not certain to vote for a particular candidate or party in an election and therefore often able to decide the result of the election ▪ swing voters/states swing bridge noun, pl ~ bridges [count] : a bridge that can be moved or raised so that tall boats can pass under it

swinge•ing /ˈswɪnʤɪŋ/ adj, Brit

1 : very large and difficult to deal with ▪ Homeowners now face swingeing increases in their bills. ▪ swingeing fines/penalties/taxes ▪ swingeing cuts in pay

2 : very critical or severe ▪ a swingeing criticism of the government's policies swing•er /ˈswɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 informal + old-fashioned : someone who is lively, entertaining, and fashionable

2 : someone who has sex with many people ▪ She and her husband are swingers. [=they have a relationship in which

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 234 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

each of them is allowed to have sex with many other people]

swing•ing /ˈswɪŋɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + old-fashioned : lively or exciting ▪ This music is really swinging. ▪ a swinging party swinging door noun, pl ~ doors [count] US : a door that can be pushed open from either side and that swings shut when it is released — called also (Brit) swing door swing set noun, pl ~ sets [count] US : a wooden or metal structure that has swings hanging from it and that may have a slide or other things attached to it for children to play on swing shift noun, pl ~ shifts [count] US : a scheduled period of work that begins in the afternoon and ends at night ▪ He works the swing shift.

[1]swipe /ˈswaɪp/ verb swipes; swiped; swip•ing

1 : to reach toward and try to hit (something) with a swinging motion [+ obj] The cat swiped the dog across the nose. [no obj] — usually + at ▪ The cat swiped at the dog.

2 [+ obj] informal : to steal (something) ▪ They swiped some candy from the store. ▪ She swiped my idea.

3 [+ obj] : to pass (a credit card, ATM card, etc.) through a machine that reads information from it ▪ The cashier swiped the credit card and gave it back to me.

[2]swipe noun, pl swipes [count]

1 informal : a criticism or insult that is directed toward a particular person or group ▪ She took a swipe at her former company in her latest column.

2 : a swinging movement of a person's hand, an animal's paw, etc., that is done in an attempt to hit something ▪ a swipe of the cat's paw ▪ He took a swipe at the ball. [=he swung at the ball and tried to hit it]

swipe card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a special plastic card with a magnetic strip that has information which can be read by special machines

[1]swirl /ˈswɚl/ verb swirls; swirled; swirl•ing : to move in circles or to cause (something) to move in circles [+ obj] She swirled the drink (around) in her glass. [no obj] The water swirled around/down the drain. ▪ strong swirling winds — often used figuratively ▪ Rumors are swirling about/around the team. [=there are a lot of rumors about the team]

[2]swirl noun, pl swirls [count]

1 : a twisting or swirling movement, form, or object ▪ A swirl of smoke rose from the chimney. ▪ He painted swirls of color on the canvas. ▪ ice cream with chocolate swirls

2 : a state of busy movement or activity — usually + of ▪ She was caught up in the swirl of events.

[1]swish /ˈswɪʃ/ verb swish•es; swished; swish•ing : to move with or cause (something) to move with a soft sweeping or brushing sound [no obj] He watched as the windshield wipers swished back and forth. ▪ The horse's tail swished back and forth. [+ obj] The horse swished its tail back and forth.

– swish noun [singular] ▪ The horse shooed the flies away with a swish of its tail.

[2]swish adj, Brit, informal : fashionable and expensive : SWANKY ▪ a swish hotel

[1]Swiss /ˈswɪs/ adj : of or relating to Switzerland or its people ▪ Swiss history ▪ the Swiss ski team

[2]Swiss noun

the Swiss : the people of Switzerland ▪ the traditions of the Swiss

Swiss chard noun [noncount] : CHARD

Swiss cheese noun [noncount] : a type of cheese that is hard and pale yellow and that has many large holes

Swiss roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count, noncount] Brit : JELLY ROLL

[1]switch /ˈswɪʧ/ noun, pl switch•es [count]

switch

1 : a small device that starts or stops the flow of electricity to something (such as a lamp or a machine) when it is pressed or moved up and down ▪ She flicked a switch and turned the lamp/lights on. ▪ a light/dimmer switch ▪ He threw the switch to stop the machine. — see also DIP SWITCH, TOGGLE SWITCH

2 : a sudden change from one thing to another — usually singular ▪ a switch from the old way of doing things ▪ There has been a switch in plans. [=the plans have changed] ▪ If you're not happy in your current job, maybe it's time to make a switch (to another job). ▪ "He says he'll do it himself." "Well, that's a switch." [=that's something unusual] — see also BAIT AND SWITCH

3 US : a device for moving the rails of a track so that a train may be turned from one track to another

4 : a thin stick that can be easily bent

[2]switch verb switches; switched; switch•ing

1 : to make a change from one thing to another : to start doing or using something that is different [no obj] I switched to a new doctor. ▪ He kept switching back and forth between topics. ▪ She switched back to/from her original insurance company. ▪ We switched over to a different telephone service. [+ obj] Why did you switch jobs?

2 : to make a change from one thing to another by turning or pushing a button or moving a switch, lever, etc. [no obj] He switched (over) to a different channel. [+ obj] Stop switching channels.

3 [+ obj] : to change or replace (something) with another thing ▪ They switched places/positions/roles/sides. ▪ He switched (around) his last two appointments. ▪ (US) He is going to switch (shifts) with me Monday. [=he will work my shift and I will work his shift on Monday]

switch gears see [1]GEAR

switch off [phrasal verb] 1 switch (something) off or switch off (something) : to turn off (something) by turning or pushing a button or moving a switch, lever, etc. ▪ He switched off the light/lamp. 2 informal : to stop paying attention ▪ When the topic turned to the stock market, he switched off. [=tuned out] switch on [phrasal verb] switch (something) on or switch on (something) : to turn on (something) by turning or pushing a button or moving a switch, lever, etc. ▪ I switched on the TV and watched the news.

switch•back /ˈswɪʧˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a road, trail, or section of railroad tracks that has many sharp turns for climbing a steep hill switch•blade /ˈswɪʧˌbleɪd/ noun, pl -blades [count] chiefly US : a knife that has a blade inside the handle which springs out when a button is pressed — called also (Brit) flick-knife

switch•board /ˈswɪʧˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a system used to connect telephone calls with many separate phone lines in a building ▪ She used to work as a switchboard operator. ▪ Angry callers flooded/jammed the company's switchboard. [=made telephone calls to the company]

switch•er•oo /ˌswɪʧəˈru:/ noun, pl -oos [count] US, informal : an unexpected or secret change ▪ They changed to a different system without telling anyone that they had pulled a switcheroo.

switch–hit•ter /ˈswɪʧˈhɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] baseball : a batter who bats right-handed against a left-handed pitcher and left-handed against a right-handed pitcher – switch–hit /ˈswɪʧˈhɪt/ verb -hits; -hit; -hit•ting [no obj] ▪ His father taught him how to switch-hit when he was a kid.

[1]swiv•el /ˈswɪvəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a device that joins two parts so that one of the parts can turn or spin while the other part does not move ▪ a swivel chair [=a chair with the seat mounted on a swivel so that it turns freely]

[2]swivel verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling : to turn around [no obj] He swiveled [=spun] around to see who was calling him. ▪ She swiveled in her seat to check the time. [+ obj] The owl swiveled [=twisted] its head around. ▪ She swiveled the chair around to face us.

swollen see [1]SWELL

swoon /ˈswu:n/ verb swoons; swooned; swoon•ing [no obj]

1 : to become very excited about someone or something — usually + over ▪ Teenage girls swooned over the band's lead singer.

2 old-fashioned : to suddenly become unconscious : FAINT ▪ She almost swooned from fright.

– swoon noun [singular] old-fashioned ▪ She fell into a swoon. [=she swooned]

swoop /ˈswu:p/ verb swoops; swooped; swoop•ing [no obj]

1 : to fly down through the air suddenly — usually + down ▪ A hawk swooped down and caught a rabbit in the field.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to arrive at a place suddenly and unexpectedly ▪ The police swooped in and captured the criminals.

in/at one fell swoop see [3]FELL

– swoop noun, pl swoops [count] ▪ the swoop of a hawk swoosh /ˈswu:ʃ/ verb swoosh•es; swooshed; swoosh•ing [no obj] : to make sound by moving quickly through the air ▪ The ball swooshed by/past my head.

– swoosh noun, pl swooshes [count] ▪ I heard a loud

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 235 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s swoosh as the ball flew past my head.

swop Brit spelling of SWAP sword /ˈsoəd/ noun, pl swords [count] : a weapon with a long metal blade that has a sharp point and edge beat/turn swords into plowshares literary : to stop fighting wars and begin to live peacefully cross swords see ²CROSS put (someone) to the sword literary : to kill (someone) with a sword sword of Dam•o•cles /-ˈdæməˌkli:z/ : something bad and frightening that might happen at any time ▪ a threat that hangs over us like a/the sword of Damocles

sword•fish /ˈsoədˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl -fish [count] : a very large fish that lives in the ocean, that has a long, pointed upper jaw which looks like a sword, and that is eaten as food sword•play /ˈsoədˌpleɪ/ noun [noncount] : the art or skill of fighting with a sword swords•man /ˈsoədzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person who fights with a sword ▪ a skilled swordsman

swore past tense of ¹SWEAR

¹sworn past participle of ¹SWEAR

²sworn /ˈswoən/ adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to describe people who have openly stated their feelings, opinions, etc. ▪ He's a sworn conservative. ▪ They are sworn enemies/friends.
2 : made or given by someone who has made a formal promise to tell the truth ▪ sworn testimony/statements

¹swot /ˈswɑ:t/ noun, pl swots [count] Brit, informal + disapproving : a person who works or studies too much ▪ At university he had a reputation as a swot. [=(US) grind]

²swot verb swots; swotted; swotting [no obj] Brit, informal : to study very hard for an exam — + for ▪ He's swotting for the French exam.
swot up [phrasal verb] swot up or swot (something) up or swot up (something) : to study (something) very hard ▪ She swotted up for the French exam. = She swotted up French for the exam. — often + on ▪ He needs to swot up on French verbs.

swum past participle of ¹SWIM

swung past tense and past participle of ¹SWING

syb•a•rit•ic /ˌsɪbəˈrɪtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : relating to, desiring, or involving expensive comforts and pleasures ▪ sybaritic desires/pleasures/entertainments/excesses ▪ a sybaritic lifestyle

syc•a•more /ˈsɪkəˌmoə/ noun, pl -mores [count]
1 : a tree of the eastern and central U.S. that has light-brown bark that peels off in thin flakes
2 : a type of European maple tree with five-pointed leaves sy•co•phant /ˈsɪkəfənt/ noun, pl -phants [count] formal + disapproving : a person who praises powerful people in order to get their approval – sy•co•phan•cy /ˈsɪkəfənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ Her praise was obvious sycophancy. – sy•co•phan•tic /ˌsɪkəˈfæntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ sycophantic praise/flattery

syl•lab•ic /səˈlæbɪk/ adj, linguistics : of or relating to syllables ▪ syllabic accent/stress syl•la•ble /ˈsɪləbəl/ noun, pl -la•bles [count] : any one of the parts into which a word is naturally divided when it is pronounced ▪ The word "doctor" has two syllables. ▪ "Doctor" is a two-syllable word. ▪ The first syllable of the word "doctor" is given stress.

in words of one syllable see ¹WORD

syl•la•bus /ˈsɪləbəs/ noun, pl -bi /-ˌbaɪ/ or -bus•es [count] : a list of the topics or books that will be studied in a course syl•lo•gism /ˈsɪləˌʤɪzəm/ noun, pl -gisms [count] formal : a formal argument in logic that is formed by two statements and a conclusion which must be true if the two statements are true ▪ An example of a syllogism is: "All men are human; all humans are mortal; therefore all men are mortal."

sylph /ˈsɪlf/ noun, pl sylphs [count] literary : a thin and graceful woman or girl
– sylph•like /ˈsɪlfˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a sylphlike young woman

syl•van /ˈsɪlvən/ adj, literary : having a lot of woods or trees ▪ a sylvan setting ▪ sylvan surroundings

sym•bi•o•sis /ˌsɪmbiˈoʊsəs/ noun, pl -o•ses /-ˈoʊˌsi:z/
1 biology : the relationship between two different kinds of living things that live together and depend on each other [count] — usually singular ▪ The bacteria exist in a symbiosis with the plant's roots. [noncount] The bird lives in symbiosis with the hippopotamus.
2 formal : a relationship between two people or groups that work with and depend on each other [count] — usually singular ▪ There is a symbiosis between celebrities and the media. [noncount] Their professional association was one of symbiosis.
– sym•bi•ot•ic /ˌsɪmbiˈɑ:tɪk/ adj ▪ a symbiotic relationship – sym•bi•ot•i•cal•ly /ˌsɪmbiˈɑ:tɪkli/ adv

sym•bol /ˈsɪmbəl/ noun, pl -bols [count]
1 : an action, object, event, etc., that expresses or represents a particular idea or quality — often + of ▪ The wearing of black clothing is often a symbol of mourning in Western cultures. ▪ The lion is a symbol of courage. ▪ The flag is a symbol of our country. — see also SEX SYMBOL, STATUS SYMBOL 2 : a letter, group of letters, character, or picture that is used instead of a word or group of words ▪ The company's symbol [=logo] is a red umbrella. — usually + for ▪ "K" is the symbol for a strikeout in baseball. ▪ "Cl" is the chemical symbol for chlorine. ▪ "+" is the symbol for addition.

sym•bol•ic /sɪmˈbɑ:lɪk/ also sym•bol•i•cal /sɪmˈbɑ:lɪkəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : expressing or representing an idea or quality without using words ▪ The lighting of the candles is symbolic. ▪ a purely symbolic act/gesture [=an act/gesture that is intended as a symbol of something but that does not have any real effect] — often + of ▪ Wedding rings are symbolic of eternal love. ▪ The dove is symbolic of peace.
2 [more ~; most ~] : relating to or being used as a symbol ▪ The number 7 has symbolic significance/importance [=has significance/importance as a symbol] in their religion. ▪ The sharing of the wine has symbolic meaning.
3 : using symbols ▪ symbolic writing
– sym•bol•i•cal•ly /sɪmˈbɑ:lɪkli/ adv ▪ Symbolically, the color green represents envy. ▪ The storm is symbolically important in the story.

sym•bol•ism /ˈsɪmbəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : the use of symbols to express or represent ideas or qualities in literature, art, etc. ▪ The story was filled with religious symbolism.
2 : the particular idea or quality that is expressed by a symbol ▪ What is the symbolism of the lion in the picture? [=what does the lion symbolize in the picture?]

sym•bol•ize also Brit sym•bol•ise /ˈsɪmbəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to be a symbol of (something) ▪ The lion symbolizes [=represents] courage. ▪ She came to symbolize the women's movement in America.

sym•met•ri•cal /səˈmɛtrɪkəl/ also sym•met•ric /səˈmɛtrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having sides or halves that are the same : having or showing symmetry ▪ The human body is symmetrical. ▪ a symmetrical design/pattern — opposite ASYMMETRICAL
– sym•met•ri•cal•ly /səˈmɛtrɪkli/ adv ▪ symmetrically arranged/divided sym•me•try /ˈsɪmətri/ noun [noncount] : the quality of something that has two sides or halves that are the same or very close in size, shape, and position : the quality of having symmetrical parts ▪ the symmetry of the human body ▪ The building has perfect symmetry.

sym•pa•thet•ic /ˌsɪmpəˈθɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling or showing concern about someone who is in a bad situation : having or showing feelings of sympathy ▪ He received much help from sympathetic friends. — often + to or toward ▪ She is very sympathetic to/toward the poor.
2 not used before a noun : having or showing support for or approval of something — often + to or toward ▪ He was not sympathetic to/toward their cause. [=he did not support their cause]
3 : having pleasant or appealing qualities : causing feelings of sympathy ▪ The book doesn't really have any sympathetic [=likable] characters. ▪ I didn't find the hero in the movie very sympathetic.
– sym•pa•thet•i•cal•ly /ˌsɪmpəˈθɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ She sympathetically asked how she could help. ▪ The character was treated sympathetically.

sym•pa•thize also Brit sym•pa•thise /ˈsɪmpəˌθaɪz/ verb -thiz•es; -thized; -thiz•ing [no obj]
1 : to feel sorry for someone who is in a bad situation : to feel sympathy for someone because you understand that person's problems ▪ I sympathize but how can I help? — often + with ▪ I sympathize with you. — compare EMPATHIZE
2 : to feel or show support for or approval of something — + with ▪ She sympathized with their cause.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 236 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

– sym•pa•thiz•er also Brit sym•pa•this•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The group has many sympathizers. [=supporters]

sym•pa•thy /ˈsɪmpəθi/ noun, pl -thies
1 : the feeling that you care about and are sorry about someone else's trouble, grief, misfortune, etc. : a sympathetic feeling [noncount] She went to her best friend for sympathy. ▪ Letters of sympathy were sent to the families of the victims. — often + for ▪ There is a lot of sympathy for the families of the victims. ▪ I have no sympathy for her. [count] My deepest sympathies go out to the families of the victims. ▪ Our sympathies are with them. — often + for ▪ She has/feels a deep sympathy for the families of the victims. — compare EMPATHY; see also TEA AND SYMPATHY
2 : a feeling of support for something [noncount] — often + for ▪ He expressed sympathy for the rebels. [plural] She has liberal/conservative sympathies. — often + with ▪ Her sympathies are/lie with the rebels.
3 [noncount] : a state in which different people share the same interests, opinions, goals, etc. ▪ There was no sympathy between them. — often + with ▪ He's not in sympathy with the other members of the group. = He's out of sympathy with the other members. ▪ He seems to be in sympathy with our views. [=to agree with and support our views]

sym•phon•ic /sɪmˈfɑːnɪk/ adj : of or relating to a symphony or symphony orchestra ▪ symphonic music

sym•pho•ny /ˈsɪmfəni/ noun, pl -nies [count]
1 : a long piece of music that is usually in four large, separate sections and that is performed by an orchestra symphony orchestra noun, pl ∼ -tras [count] : a large orchestra of musicians who play classical music together and are led by a conductor ▪ She's a member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.
2 : SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

sym•po•sium /sɪmˈpoʊzijəm/ noun, pl -sia /-zijə/ or -siums [count] formal
1 : a formal meeting at which experts discuss a particular topic ▪ Professors and graduate students attended the symposium. — often + on ▪ a symposium on cloning 2 : a collection of articles on a particular subject — often + on ▪ The organization will be publishing a symposium on genetic research.

symp•tom /ˈsɪmptəm/ noun, pl -toms [count]
1 : a change in the body or mind which indicates that a disease is present ▪ cold/flu symptoms — often + of ▪ symptoms of heart disease ▪ a symptom of depression
2 : a change which shows that something bad exists : a sign of something bad — often + of ▪ Layoffs and salary freezes are symptoms of a company in financial trouble.

symp•tom•at•ic /ˌsɪmptəˈmætɪk/ adj
1 medical a : showing that a particular disease is present — usually + of ▪ A fever and runny nose are symptomatic of the flu. [=are symptoms of the flu] b : relating to or showing symptoms of a disease ▪ symptomatic relief/improvement/treatments ▪ The patient was not symptomatic. [=the patient did not have any symptoms] — opposite ASYMPTOMATIC
2 formal : showing the existence of a particular problem — usually + of ▪ The child's behavior is symptomatic of an unstable home life. ▪ Poor sales are symptomatic [=characteristic] of a poor economy.
– symp•tom•at•i•cal•ly /ˌsɪmptəˈmætɪkli/ adv

syn•a•gogue /ˈsɪnəˌgɑːg/ noun, pl -gogues [count] : a building that is used for Jewish religious services

syn•apse /ˈsɪˌnæps/ noun, pl -aps•es [count] biology : the place where a signal passes from one nerve cell to another – syn•ap•tic /səˈnæptɪk/ adj ▪ synaptic connections sync also synch /ˈsɪŋk/ noun

in sync 1 : in a state in which two or more people or things move or happen together at the same time and speed ▪ The dancers moved in sync. ▪ The film's sound and picture need to be in sync. — often + with ▪ She moved in sync with her partner. 2 : in a state in which two or more people or things agree with or match one another and work together properly ▪ Our ideas are in sync. — often + with ▪ The quarterback was in sync with his receivers. ▪ The President is not in sync with [=the President does not understand] the interests and concerns of the people. ▪ Her views are in sync with [=her views agree with] our own.
out of sync 1 : in a state in which two or more people or things do not move or happen together at the same time and speed ▪ Some of the soldiers were marching out of sync. ▪ The soundtrack was out of sync so they stopped the film. — often + with ▪ She was out of sync with the other dancers.
2 : in a state in which two or more people or things do not agree with or match one another ▪ All the clocks in the office are out of sync. [=all the clocks show different times] — often + with ▪ His actions are completely out of sync with our goals.
– see also LIP-SYNCH

syn•chro•nize also Brit syn•chro•nise /ˈsɪŋkrəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (things) to agree in time or to make (things) happen at the same time and speed ▪ They synchronized their watches. [=they adjusted their watches so that they all showed the same time] ▪ The dancers practiced until they synchronized their movements.
2 [no obj] : to happen at the same time and speed ▪ The sound and picture have to synchronize perfectly. — often + with ▪ The sound has to synchronize with the picture.
– syn•chro•ni•za•tion also Brit syn•chro•ni•sa•tion /ˌsɪŋkrənəˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the synchronization of sound and action ▪ The dancers moved in perfect synchronization.

synchronized swimming noun [noncount] : a sport in which swimmers move together in patterns to music
– synchronized swimmer noun, pl ∼ -mers [count]

syn•chro•nous /ˈsɪŋkrənəs/ adj, formal + technical : happening, moving, or existing at the same time ▪ synchronous developments/movements

syn•chro•ny /ˈsɪŋkrəni/ noun [noncount] formal + technical : a state in which things happen, move, or exist at the same time ▪ The objects moved in synchrony with each other. [=at the same time]

syn•co•pat•ed /ˈsɪŋkəˌpeɪtəd/ adj, of music : of, relating to, or having a rhythm that stresses the weak beats instead of the strong beats ▪ syncopated beats ▪ a syncopated melody/rhythm

syn•co•pa•tion /ˌsɪŋkəˈpeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] music : musical rhythm in which stress is given to the weak beats instead of the strong beats

[1]syn•di•cate /ˈsɪndɪkət/ noun, pl -cates [count]
1 a : a group of people or businesses that work together ▪ A syndicate owns the company. — often + of ▪ The company is owned by a syndicate of investors. ▪ The money for the project was provided by a syndicate of banks. b : a group of people who are involved in organized crime ▪ a crime syndicate
2 : a business that sells something (such as a piece of writing, comic strip, or photograph) to several different newspapers or magazines for publication at the same time : a business that syndicates something
3 : a group of newspapers that are managed by one company ▪ a newspaper syndicate

[2]syn•di•cate /ˈsɪndəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to sell (something, such as a piece of writing, comic strip, or photograph) to many different newspapers or magazines for publication at the same time ▪ The company syndicates her work. — often used as (be) syndicated ▪ His column is syndicated in all the major newspapers. ▪ a syndicated column/columnist
2 : to sell (a series of television or radio programs) to many different stations at the same time ▪ The company syndicated the show to local stations. — often used as (be) syndicated ▪ The program has been syndicated nationally. ▪ a syndicated program
– syn•di•ca•tion /ˌsɪndəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The television show's syndication begins next fall. ▪ The show is now in syndication. [=reruns of the show are being shown on different stations that have paid to show them]

syn•drome /ˈsɪnˌdroʊm/ noun, pl -dromes [count] : a disease or disorder that involves a particular group of signs and symptoms ▪ a rare syndrome ▪ psychological syndromes — see also CARPAL TUNNEL SYNDROME, DOWN SYNDROME, PREMENSTRUAL SYNDROME, SUDDEN INFANT DEATH SYNDROME, TOURETTE'S SYNDROME, TOXIC SHOCK SYNDROME syn•er•gy /ˈsɪnəʤi/ noun, pl -gies technical : the increased effectiveness that results when two or more people or businesses work together [count] A synergy has developed among the different groups working on this project. [noncount] two companies that have found synergy

syn•od /ˈsɪnəd/ noun, pl -ods [count]
1 : a formal meeting of church leaders
2 : a group of church leaders who are in charge of making

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 237 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:51:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

decisions and laws related to the church

syn•o•nym /ˈsɪnəˌnɪm/ noun, pl -nyms [count]
1 : a word that has the same meaning as another word in the same language ▪ "Small" and "little" are synonyms. — often + for or of ▪ Can you think of a synonym for "original"? ▪ "Small" is a synonym of "little." — opposite ANTONYM
2 : a word, name, or phrase that very strongly suggests a particular idea, quality, etc. — + for ▪ He is a tyrant whose name has become a synonym for oppression.

syn•on•y•mous /səˈnɑːnəməs/ adj
1 : having the same meaning ▪ "Small" and "little" are synonymous. [=are synonyms] ▪ synonymous words — often + with ▪ "Small" is synonymous with "little."
2 not used before a noun : strongly suggesting a particular idea, quality, etc. : very strongly associated with something — + with ▪ The company's name is synonymous with quality.
– syn•on•y•mous•ly adv ▪ two words that are used synonymously syn•op•sis /səˈnɑːpsəs/ noun, pl syn•op•ses /səˈnɑːpˌsiːz/ [count] formal : a short description of the most important information about something : a summary or outline ▪ a plot synopsis — often + of ▪ She gave us a brief synopsis of the report/story.

– syn•op•tic /səˈnɑːptɪk/ adj ▪ He gave a synoptic overview of the project.

syn•tac•tic /sɪnˈtæktɪk/ or syn•tac•ti•cal /sɪnˈtæktɪkəl/ adj, linguistics : of or relating to syntax ▪ syntactic rules/structures
– syn•tac•ti•cal•ly /sɪnˈtæktɪkli/ adv ▪ The sentence is syntactically incorrect.

syn•tax /ˈsɪnˌtæks/ noun [noncount] linguistics : the way in which words are put together to form phrases, clauses, or sentences ▪ "I saw that she a cookie ate" is an example of incorrect syntax.

syn•the•sis /ˈsɪnθəsəs/ noun, pl -the•ses /-θəˌsiːz/
1 [count] formal : something that is made by combining different things (such as ideas, styles, etc.) — often + of ▪ The band's sound is a synthesis of jazz and rock music. ▪ His theory is actually a synthesis of several other theories.
2 technical : the production of a substance by combining simpler substances through a chemical process [count] — usually singular; often + of ▪ the synthesis of water from hydrogen and oxygen [noncount] protein synthesis — see also PHOTOSYNTHESIS
3 [noncount] : the production of sounds or speech by using electronic equipment ▪ voice/speech synthesis

syn•the•size also Brit syn•the•sise /ˈsɪnθəˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing [+ obj]
1 formal a : to make (something) by combining different things ▪ She synthesized the treatment from traditional and modern philosophies of medicine. b : to combine (things) in order to make something new ▪ He synthesized old and new ideas to form his theory.
2 technical : to make (something) from simpler substances through a chemical process ▪ Scientists synthesize new drugs. ▪ Glands synthesize the enzymes. ▪ Amino acid is synthesized in the body.
3 : to produce (sounds, speech, etc.) by using electronic equipment ▪ He synthesized the drumbeat. [=he created the drumbeat by using a synthesizer]
– synthesized also Brit synthesised adj ▪ synthesized proteins/drugs ▪ synthesized music ▪ a synthesized voice ▪ The drumbeat is synthesized.

syn•the•siz•er also Brit syn•the•sis•er /ˈsɪnθəˌsaɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an electronic machine that produces and controls sound and is used especially in music and for reproducing speech ▪ The band used a synthesizer for the drumbeat.

synthesizer

[1]syn•thet•ic /sɪnˈθɛtɪk/ adj : made by combining different substances : not natural ▪ synthetic drugs/chemicals/rubber ▪ The material is synthetic. [=man-made] – syn•thet•i•cal•ly /sɪnˈθɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ The fibers are synthetically produced.

[2]synthetic noun, pl -ics [count] : something made by combining different artificial substances ▪ The drug is a synthetic. — usually plural ▪ The fabric is made of synthetics.

syph•i•lis /ˈsɪfələs/ noun [noncount] medical : a very serious disease that is spread through sexual intercourse
– syph•i•lit•ic /ˌsɪfəˈlɪtɪk/ adj ▪ syphilitic symptoms/patients syphon variant spelling of SIPHON sy•ringe /səˈrɪnʤ/ noun, pl -ring•es [count] : a device made of a hollow tube and a needle that is used to force fluids into or take fluids out of the body

syr•up /ˈsirəp/ noun, pl -ups
1 [noncount] : a sweet, thick liquid made of sugar and water with flavoring or medicine added to it ▪ a medicinal syrup ▪ ice cream and chocolate syrup — see also COUGH SYRUP
2 [count, noncount] : a sweet, thick liquid made from the juice of a fruit or plant ▪ She poured syrup all over her pancakes. ▪ fruit syrups — see also CORN SYRUP, MAPLE SYRUP

syr•upy /ˈsirəpi/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : thick and sweet like syrup ▪ a syrupy liquid ▪ ice cream topped with a syrupy fruit sauce
2 disapproving : too romantic or emotional ▪ a syrupy [=sappy] love song

sys•tem /ˈsɪstəm/ noun, pl -tems
1 [count] : a group of related parts that move or work together ▪ a system of rivers ▪ railroad systems ▪ a security/telephone/heating system ▪ an alarm system ▪ a stereo/computer system — see also ECOSYSTEM, PA SYSTEM, PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM, SOLAR SYSTEM, SOUND SYSTEM
2 [count] a : a body of a person or animal thought of as an entire group of parts that work together — usually singular ▪ The disease affected her entire system. ▪ Greasy foods are not good for your system. ▪ No drugs were found in his system. b : a group of organs that work together to perform an important function of the body ▪ the digestive/reproductive/respiratory system — see also CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM, IMMUNE SYSTEM, NERVOUS SYSTEM
3 [count] : a way of managing, controlling, organizing, or doing something that follows a set of rules or a plan ▪ the legal system ▪ The players like the coach's system. ▪ Under the new system, students will have to pass an exam to graduate. ▪ She devised a new filing system. ▪ We need a better system for handling incoming e-mail. — often + of ▪ the state's system of education ▪ a democratic system of government ▪ Every religion has its own system of beliefs and practices. — see also HONOR SYSTEM, METRIC SYSTEM, OPERATING SYSTEM
4 the system disapproving : a powerful government or social organization that controls people's lives ▪ You can't beat the system. ▪ We spent our youth rebelling against the system.
all systems (are) go see [2]GO a shock to the/your system see [1]SHOCK get it out of your system informal 1 : to do something that you have been wanting to do so that you no longer feel a strong desire to do it ▪ You keep talking about making a cross-country trip. I think you just need to do it and get it out of your system. 2 : to get rid of a strong emotion (such as anger) by doing something ▪ He really angered her, so she went for a walk to get it out of her system.
the buddy system see [1]BUDDY sys•tem•at•ic /ˌsɪstəˈmætɪk/ adj : using a careful system or method : done according to a system ▪ We used a systematic approach to solve the problem. ▪ She made a systematic study of the evidence. ▪ He is very systematic [=methodical] in his work. ▪ the systematic production of cars – sys•tem•at•i•cal•ly /ˌsɪstəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ We approached the problem systematically.

sys•tem•a•tize also Brit sys•tem•a•tise /ˈsɪstəməˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to make (something) into a system ▪ The country is systematizing yearly exams for high-school students.
2 : to organize (something) by using a system ▪ The computer program systematizes the data and enters it into a table.

sys•tem•ic /sɪˈstɛmɪk/ adj
1 formal : of or relating to an entire system ▪ The company made some systemic changes to the way it operated. ▪ The problem seems to be systemic.
2 medical : of, relating to, or affecting the entire body ▪ a systemic disease systems analysis noun, pl ~ -y•ses [count] : the process of studying a procedure or business in order to identify its goals and purposes and create systems and procedures that will achieve them in an efficient way – systems analyst noun, pl ~ -lysts [count]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

T

[1]t or T /ˈtiː/ noun, pl t's or ts or T's or Ts /ˈtiːz/ : the 20th letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that begins with a t [noncount] a word that begins with t

to a T informal : in a perfect or exact way ▪ Her new car fits/suits her to a T. [=to a tee] ▪ That's him to a T. [=that is a perfect description of him]

[2]t abbr 1 temperature 2 time 3 ton ta /ˈtɑː/ interj, Brit, informal — used to say "thank you"

TA abbr 1 US teaching assistant 2 Brit Territorial Army

[1]tab /ˈtæb/ noun, pl tabs [count]

1 a : a small, flat piece on a box, envelope, etc., that can be put into a hole in order to hold two parts together ▪ Insert the tab into this slot to close the box. b : a small, flat piece that sticks out from the edge of something (such as a folder) and allows you to identify and find it easily ▪ a notebook with index tabs c US : a small piece of metal, plastic, etc., that is pulled in order to open or close something ▪ The tab on the zipper is broken. ▪ the tab [=(US) pull tab, (Brit) ring pull] on a can of soda

2 US, informal : a record of the things (such as drinks at a bar) that a customer has ordered and will pay for later ▪ He ran up a $200 bar tab. ▪ The final tab [=bill] came to $200. ▪ He put the drinks on his tab. ▪ She offered to pick up the tab. [=pay the bill] for the meal.

3 : TAB KEY ▪ You can move to the next column in a table by pressing tab. [=by pressing the tab key]

4 informal : a small pill of an illegal drug ▪ a tab of Ecstasy

keep tabs on informal : to carefully watch (someone or something) in order to learn what that person or thing is doing ▪ We are keeping tabs on their movements. ▪ The magazine keeps tabs on the latest fashion trends.

[2]tab verb tabs; tabbed; tab•bing

1 [+ obj] : to put a small, identifying label (called a tab) on something — often used as (be) tabbed ▪ a tabbed notebook [=a notebook with index tabs]

2 [+ obj] US, informal : to say that (someone or something) will do something or have a particular role or purpose — often used as (be) tabbed ▪ She was tabbed (as) the favorite to win. ▪ an amount of money tabbed for maintenance

3 [no obj] : to hit the tab key on a computer or typewriter ▪ After you type your name in the first box, you can move to the next box by tabbing.

Ta•bas•co /təˈbæskoʊ/ trademark — used for a spicy sauce made from hot peppers tab•by /ˈtæbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] : a cat that has dark and light stripes or spots on its fur

tab•er•na•cle /ˈtæbəˌnækəl/ noun, pl -na•cles

1 [count] : a place of worship that is used by some Christian groups ▪ a Mormon/Baptist tabernacle

2 [count] : a box in which the holy bread and wine are kept in a Catholic church

3 the Tabernacle : a small, movable tent that was used as a place of worship by the ancient Israelites tab key noun, pl ~ keys [count] : a key on the keyboard of a typewriter or computer that is used to move several spaces at a time or to move to a particular position in a document

[1]ta•ble /ˈteɪbəl/ noun, pl tables [count]

1 a : a piece of furniture that has a flat top and one or more legs ▪ They were sitting at/around the dining/dinner table. ▪ She reserved a table for two at the restaurant. ▪ Please set the table for dinner. [=place plates, silverware, etc., on the table] — see also COFFEE TABLE, END TABLE b : a piece of furniture with a flat surface that is designed to be used for a particular purpose ▪ a billiard/poker table — see also CARD TABLE, DRAWING TABLE, NEGOTIATING TABLE, OPERATING TABLE

2 : a group of people who are sitting at a table ▪ He had the attention of the entire table.

3 : a collection of information that is arranged in rows and columns ▪ The table shows the salary of each employee. — see also MULTIPLICATION TABLE, PERIODIC TABLE, TIMES TABLE at table Brit : sitting at a table and eating a meal ▪ The whole family was at table.

lay/put (all/all of) your cards on the table see [1]CARD on the table : able to be considered or discussed ▪ All options are on the table. ▪ A new contract offer is on the table.

run the table chiefly US 1 pool, billiards, etc. : to hit all the remaining balls into pockets without missing 2 informal : to win all the remaining games, points, etc. ▪ The team could run the table to win the league championship.

table of contents see [1]CONTENT

turn the tables : to change a situation completely so that you have an advantage over someone who previously had an advantage over you — often + on ▪ He turned the tables on his attacker and pinned him to the ground.

under the table 1 — used to describe a situation in which a worker is being paid in a secret and illegal way in order to avoid paying taxes ▪ They were paying her under the table. ▪ He's working under the table. 2 informal ✧ To drink someone under the table means to drink more alcohol than someone else without becoming extremely drunk, unconscious, etc. ▪ He tried to drink me under the table.

– see also WATER TABLE

table

[2]table verb tables; ta•bled; ta•bling [+ obj]

1 US : to decide not to discuss (something) until a later time ▪ The committee tabled the issue until the next meeting.

2 Brit : to formally present (something) for discussion ▪ She plans to table a motion for debate in Parliament.

tab•leau /ˈtæˌbloʊ/ noun, pl tab•leaux also tab•leaus /ˈtæˌbloʊz/ [count]

1 : a view or sight that looks like a picture : SCENE ▪ The houses are grouped together in a charming tableau. ▪ a stunning tableau

2 : a scene that typically shows an event in history or literature and that is created on a stage by a group of people who are dressed in costumes and who do not speak or move ▪ historical tableaux ta•ble•cloth /ˈteɪbəlˌklɑːθ/ noun, pl -cloths [count] : a cloth that is placed on a table before other objects are placed on it — see picture at PLACE SETTING

table football noun [noncount] Brit : FOOSBALL

ta•ble•land /ˈteɪbəlˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count, noncount] : an area of high flat land : PLATEAU

table linen noun, pl ~ linens [count] : cloths (such as tablecloths and napkins) that are used during a meal

table manners noun [plural] : behavior while eating a meal at a table ▪ He needs to learn good table manners.

table mat noun, pl ~ mats [count] Brit : a piece of cloth or wood that is placed underneath a hot dish or pot in order to protect the surface of a table ta•ble•mate /ˈteɪbəlˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] US : a person who is sitting with you at a table ▪ He was loudly arguing with one of his tablemates.

table salt noun [noncount] : the type of salt that is usually on a table for people to use while they are dining

table soccer noun [noncount] US : FOOSBALL

ta•ble•spoon /ˈteɪbəlˌspuːn/ noun, pl -spoons [count]

1 a : a spoon that is used by cooks for measuring dry and liquid ingredients and that holds an amount equal to ½ fluid ounce or three teaspoons ▪ She carefully measured the flour with a tablespoon. b : the amount that a tablespoon will hold : TABLESPOONFUL ▪ Add two tablespoons of flour. ▪ The recipe calls for four tablespoons of milk. — abbr. tb., tbs., tbsp.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

2 : a fairly large spoon that is used for serving or eating food — compare TEASPOON ta•ble•spoon•ful /ˈteɪbəlˌspu:nˌfʊl/ noun, pl -spoon•fuls /-ˌspu:nˌfʊlz/ or -spoons•ful /-ˌspu:nzˌfʊl/ [count] : the amount that a tablespoon will hold ▪ Add two tablespoonfuls [=tablespoons] of flour. — abbr. tb., tbs., tbsp.

tab•let /ˈtæblət/ noun, pl -lets [count]
1 : a flat piece of stone, clay, or wood that has writing on it ▪ an ancient stone tablet
2 : a small usually round piece of medicine ▪ aspirin/vitamin tablets
3 chiefly US : a set of paper sheets for writing or drawing that are glued or fastened at one edge : PAD ▪ a writing tablet

table talk noun [noncount] : informal conversation at a table or during a meal

table tennis noun [noncount] : a game in which players stand at opposite ends of a table and use wooden paddles to hit a small plastic ball to each other across a net — compare PING-PONG ta•ble•top /ˈteɪbəlˌtɑ:p/ noun, pl -tops [count] : the surface of a table – tabletop adj, always used before a noun ▪ a tabletop game ta•ble•ware /ˈteɪbəlˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] formal : dishes, glasses, knives, forks, etc., that are used for serving and eating food at a table

table wine noun, pl ~ wines [count, noncount] : a wine that is not very expensive and that is used for ordinary meals

tab•loid /ˈtæˌblɔɪd/ noun, pl -loids [count] : a newspaper that has pages about half the size of an ordinary newspaper and that typically contains many photographs and stories about famous people and other less serious news items ▪ She is used to seeing her name in the tabloids. — compare BROADSHEET
– tabloid adj, always used before a noun ▪ tabloid journalism/reporters

[1]ta•boo /tə'bu:/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not acceptable to talk about or do ▪ Sex is a taboo subject for many people. ▪ In this company, dating a coworker is considered taboo.

[2]taboo noun, pl -boos [count]
1 : a rule against doing or saying something in a particular culture or religion ▪ religious/social taboos against drinking alcohol
2 : something that is not acceptable to talk about or do : something that is taboo ▪ Marrying a close relative is a taboo in many cultures.

tab•u•lar /ˈtæbjələ/ adj : arranged in rows or columns in a table ▪ data displayed in tabular form [=data displayed in a table]

tab•u•late /ˈtæbjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to arrange information in an organized way so that it can be studied, recorded, etc. ▪ Officials tabulated the scores. ▪ A machine is used to tabulate the votes.
– tab•u•la•tion /ˌtæbjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] tach•o•graph /ˈtækəˌgræf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] Brit : a device in a truck or similar vehicle that records the speed of the vehicle and the times when it is moving and not moving ta•chom•e•ter /tæˈkɑ:mətɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] technical : a device that measures how fast something (such as a wheel) is turning — see picture at CAR; compare ODOMETER, SPEEDOMETER

tac•it /ˈtæsət/ adj, formal : expressed or understood without being directly stated ▪ She felt that she had her parents' tacit approval to borrow the car. ▪ There was a tacit agreement that he would pay off the loan.
– tac•it•ly adv ▪ They felt that he had tacitly agreed to their proposal by not objecting to it.

tac•i•turn /ˈtæsəˌtɚn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : tending to be quiet : not speaking frequently ▪ a somewhat taciturn young man
– tac•i•tur•ni•ty /ˌtæsəˈtɚnəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]tack /ˈtæk/ noun, pl tacks
1 [count] a : a small, sharp nail usually with a wide, flat head ▪ carpet tacks b US : THUMBTACK
2 sailing a [count, noncount] : the direction that a ship or boat is sailing in as it moves at an angle to the direction of the wind ▪ We were sailing on (a/the) port tack. [=with the wind coming from our port/left side] ▪ the starboard tack b [count] : a change from one direction to another direction while sailing ▪ a tack from port to starboard c [count] : the distance traveled while sailing in a particular direction ▪ a long tack
3 : a way in which you do something or try to do something [singular] He thought he should try a new/different tack. [noncount] The company decided to change tack. [=to try using a different method/approach]
4 [count] : a loose stitch that is used to hold pieces of cloth together before sewing them tightly together get down to brass tacks see BRASS
– compare [3]TACK

[2]tack verb tacks; tacked; tack•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to fasten or attach (something) with tacks ▪ She tacked a poster on the wall. ▪ A message was tacked to the board.
2 [+ obj] : to add on or attach (something) in a quick or careless way — usually + on or onto ▪ They tacked one more provision onto the deal. ▪ The porch looked like it was just tacked on/onto the house.
3 [no obj] sailing : to turn a ship or boat so that the wind is coming at it from the opposite side ▪ We had to tack repeatedly as we sailed toward the harbor.

[3]tack noun [noncount] : the equipment (such as a saddle and a bridle) that is used for riding a horse — compare [1]TACK

[1]tack•le /ˈtækəl/ noun, pl tack•les
1 [noncount] : equipment that is used for a particular activity (especially fishing) ▪ a box for fishing tackle ▪ a tackle shop [=a shop that sells fishing equipment]
2 [count] sports : the act of tackling another player: such as a American football or rugby : the act of forcing the player who has the ball to fall to the ground ▪ He made two tackles in the first half. ▪ He missed the tackle. [=he failed to make the tackle] b soccer, field hockey, etc. : the act of trying to get the ball from an opposing player
3 [count] American football a : either one of two players on the offensive team who play in positions on the line of scrimmage next to the guards b : either one of two players on the defensive team who play in positions near the center of the line of scrimmage — see also NOSE TACKLE
4 [count, noncount] : an arrangement of ropes and wheels used for lifting or pulling something heavy — see also BLOCK AND TACKLE
5 [noncount] Brit, informal : a man's sexual organs

[2]tackle verb tackles; tack•led; tack•ling [+ obj]
1 a : to forcefully seize (someone) and cause that person to fall to the ground ▪ The police officer tackled him as he tried to escape. b American football or rugby : to force (the player with the ball) to fall to the ground ▪ He was tackled at the line of scrimmage. c soccer, field hockey, etc. : to try to get the ball from (an opposing player who has it)
2 : to deal with (something difficult) ▪ I'll tackle my homework later. ▪ We found new ways to tackle the problem.
– tack•ler /ˈtækləɚ/ noun, pl -lers [count]

tacky /ˈtæki/ adj tack•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : slightly wet and sticky ▪ The paint is still a little tacky.
2 informal a : having a cheap and ugly appearance : not tasteful or stylish ▪ We got rid of that tacky old furniture/wallpaper. ▪ bright, tacky clothes ▪ tacky souvenirs b chiefly US : not socially proper or acceptable ▪ tacky behavior ▪ a very tacky comment
– tack•i•ness /ˈtækinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the tackiness of the newly painted walls ▪ the tackiness of his bright clothes ta•co /ˈtɑ:koʊ/ noun, pl -cos [count] : a Mexican food that consists of a folded and usually fried piece of thin bread (called a tortilla) that is filled with meat, cheese, lettuce, etc.

tact /ˈtækt/ noun [noncount] : the ability to do or say things without offending or upsetting other people ▪ The peace talks required great tact on the part of both leaders. ▪ I was surprised by his lack of tact.

tact•ful /ˈtæktfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : careful not to offend or upset other people : having or showing tact ▪ He gave a tactful critique of her story. ▪ It was tactful of her not to criticize me in front of my boss.
– tact•ful•ly /ˈtæktfəli/ adv ▪ tactfully worded comments – tact•ful•ness noun [noncount]

tac•tic /ˈtæktɪk/ noun, pl -tics
1 [count] : an action or method that is planned and used to achieve a particular goal ▪ an effective tactic for solving crimes ▪ political tactics ▪ We may need to change tactics. — see also DELAYING TACTIC
2 tactics [plural] : the activity or skill of organizing and moving soldiers and equipment in a military battle ▪ a specialist in naval tactics

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tac•ti•cal /ˈtæktɪkəl/ adj : of, relating to, or used for a specific plan that is created to achieve a particular goal in war, politics, etc. ▪ a tactical maneuver/procedure [=a maneuver/procedure that is done to produce a particular result] ▪ They gained a tactical advantage by joining with one of their competitors. ▪ He made a serious tactical error. ▪ tactical decisions/skills ▪ The planes provided tactical air support for the soldiers on the ground. ▪ tactical missiles/weapons [=missiles/weapons that are designed to be used over a short distance in a military battle]
– tac•ti•cal•ly /ˈtæktɪkli/ adv

tac•ti•cian /tækˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : someone who is good at making plans in order to achieve particular goals ▪ a brilliant political/military tactician

tac•tile /ˈtæktl, Brit ˈtækˌtaɪl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to the sense of touch ▪ The thick brushstrokes give the painting a tactile quality. ▪ visual and tactile experiences tact•less /ˈtæktləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to offend or upset people : not showing or having tact ▪ a tactless question/comment ▪ a rude, tactless man – tact•less•ly adv ▪ He tactlessly asked her how old she was.

– tact•less•ness noun [noncount]

tad /ˈtæd/ noun
a tad informal 1 : a small amount ▪ Move it a tad [=a bit] to the right. 2 : very slightly ▪ I'm just a tad nervous. ▪ He's a tad taller than I am.

tad•pole /ˈtædˌpoʊl/ noun, pl -poles [count] : a small creature that becomes an adult frog or toad, that has a rounded body and a long tail, and that lives in water — called also (US) polliwog

tae kwon do or Tae Kwon Do /ˈtaɪˈkwɑːnˈdoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a style of fighting that originated in Korea and that uses kicks and punches but no weapons

taf•fe•ta /ˈtæfətə/ noun [noncount] : a stiff, shiny type of cloth that is used especially to make dresses

taf•fy /ˈtæfi/ noun, pl taf• es [count, noncount] US : a type of soft and chewy candy ▪ saltwater taffy

[1]tag /ˈtæg/ noun, pl tags
1 [count] : a small piece of cloth, paper, metal, etc., that is attached to something and that has information written on it ▪ a dog's identification/ID tags ▪ luggage tags ▪ According to the tag, the shirt needs to be washed in cold water. — see also DOG TAG, NAME TAG, PRICE TAG
2 [count] : a name or phrase that is used to describe someone or something ▪ They started calling her "rich girl," and the tag stayed with her until graduation.
3 tags [plural] US a : a vehicle's license plates ▪ The policeman checked the car's tags. b : small stickers on a vehicle's license plates which show that the vehicle can legally be driven until a particular date
4 [count] computers : a piece of computer code that is used to identify a particular type of text so that the text can be arranged or shown in a certain way ▪ HTML tags
5 [count] : TAG QUESTION
– compare [3]TAG

[2]tag verb tags; tagged; tag•ging [+ obj]
1 : to put a tag on (something) ▪ The items were tagged for the sale.
2 : to name or describe (someone or something) in a specified way : LABEL ▪ He was tagged (as) a miser for his careful spending.
3 US, informal : to damage (someone else's property) by illegally writing or painting something (such as your name) on it : to write graffiti on (something) ▪ Someone tagged the walls of the school.
– compare [4]TAG
– tag•ger /ˈtægɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count]

[3]tag noun, pl tags
1 [noncount] : a children's game in which one player is called "it" and chases the other players to try to touch one of them and make that player "it" ▪ Do you want to play tag? — see also PHONE TAG
2 [count] baseball : the act of causing a base runner to be out by touching the runner with the ball : the act of tagging a runner ▪ The catcher applied/made the tag for the last out of the game.
– compare [1]TAG

[4]tag verb tags; tagged; tagging [+ obj]
1 : to touch (a player) in a game of tag ▪ Tag! You're it!
2 baseball a : to cause (a base runner) to be out by touching him or her with the ball ▪ She was tagged out by the catcher. b : to put your foot on a base and stay there until a fly ball is caught before you begin to run to try to reach the next base ▪ The runner at third tagged and tried to score on a fly ball to left field. — often + up ▪ The runner tagged up and tried to score.
tag along [phrasal verb] informal : to go somewhere with someone ▪ "I'm going to the store." "Would you mind if I tagged along with you?"
– compare [2]TAG

tag•along /ˈtægəˌlɑːŋ/ noun, pl -alongs [count] US : a person who follows or goes somewhere with another person or group often in an annoying way ▪ His little sister was sometimes a tagalong on his outings with his friends. — see also tag along at [4]TAG tag•line /ˈtægˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]

1 : a memorable phrase or sentence that is closely associated with a particular person, product, movie, etc. ▪ the movie's famous tagline
2 : the words at the end of a joke, story, etc. : PUNCH LINE tag question noun, pl ~ -tions [count] grammar : a brief question (such as "don't you?" in "You know him, don't you?") that comes at the end of a statement usually to ask if the statement is correct tag sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] US : GARAGE SALE

tag team noun, pl ~ teams [count] : a team of two or more professional wrestlers who take turns fighting during a match — often used figuratively ▪ a political tag team

tai chi or t'ai chi or Tai Chi or T'ai Chi /ˈtaɪˈʧiː/ noun [noncount] : a Chinese form of exercise that uses very slow and controlled movements

[1]tail /ˈteɪl/ noun, pl tails
1 [count] : the part of an animal's body that extends from the animal's back end ▪ a monkey with a long tail — see pictures at BIRD, HORSE
2 [count] a : a long piece that extends from the back end or bottom of something ▪ the tail of a kite ▪ a comet's tail — see also PIGTAILS, PONYTAIL, SHIRTTAIL b : the back end of an airplane, helicopter, etc. — see picture at AIRPLANE
3 tails [plural] : the back side of a coin : the side of a coin that is opposite the side which shows a picture of a person's head — usually used to refer to one of the two choices you can make when a coin is thrown in the air to decide something ▪ I call tails. ▪ Is it heads or tails? [=did the coin land with heads or tails facing up?] — compare [1]HEAD 5
4 tails [plural] : TAILCOAT ▪ He wore a top hat and tails.
5 [singular] informal : a person (such as a detective) who follows or watches someone ▪ They put a tail on the suspect. [=they had someone follow the suspect] bright-eyed and bushy-tailed see BRIGHT not make head or/nor tail of see [1]HEAD on someone's tail informal : following closely behind someone ▪ The sheriff was hot on their tails.
the tail wagging the dog informal — used to describe a situation in which an important or powerful person, organization, etc., is being controlled by someone or something that is much less important or powerful turn tail informal : to turn around and run away from danger, trouble, etc. ▪ He turned tail and ran from the fight. ▪ You can't just turn tail and run from your problems.
with your tail between your legs : with a feeling of being embarrassed or ashamed especially because you have been defeated ▪ He lost the fight and went home with his tail between his legs.
– tail•less /ˈteɪlləs/ adj ▪ tailless cats

[2]tail verb tails; tailed; tail•ing
1 [+ obj] informal : to follow (someone) closely ▪ The police had been tailing the suspect for several miles. ▪ She is constantly tailed by the press.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move in a line that is not straight ▪ The pitch tailed away from the batter.
tail back [phrasal verb] Brit, of vehicles : to form a line that moves slowly or not at all because of heavy traffic, an accident, etc. ▪ Traffic tailed back [=backed up] for miles. — see also TAILBACK 2 tail off [phrasal verb] : to become smaller or quieter in a gradual way ▪ Our productivity tailed off last year. ▪ She started to ask a question and then her voice tailed off. [=trailed off]

tail•back /ˈteɪlˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count]
1 American football : a player on offense who runs with the ball and blocks : HALFBACK
2 Brit : a situation in which the flow of traffic is blocked and

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

a long line of vehicles forms ▪ a traffic tailback [=(US) backup] — see also tail back at ²TAIL tail•bone /ˈteɪlˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : the small bone at the end of the spine : COCCYX tail•coat /ˈteɪlˌkoʊt/ noun, pl -coats [count] : a formal jacket that is worn by a man and that has a short front and a long back which divides into two pieces tailed /ˈteɪld/ adj : having a tail of a specified type — used in combination ▪ a white-tailed deer ▪ long-tailed monkeys tail end noun

the tail end : the last part of something ▪ I came late to the meeting and only caught the tail end. ▪ the tail end of summer ▪ She is at the tail end of her career.

tail fin noun, pl ~ fins [count]

1 : a fin at the back end of a fish, whale, etc.

2 : a decorative part on the back of a car that is shaped like a fish's fin

¹tail•gate /ˈteɪlˌgeɪt/ noun, pl -gates [count] chiefly US : a door at the back of a vehicle (such as a station wagon or pickup truck) that opens downward and that can be lowered or removed to make it easier to load things into the vehicle — see also TAILGATE PARTY

²tailgate verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing

1 : to drive too closely behind another vehicle [no obj] He hit the car in front of him because he was tailgating. [+ obj] Someone was tailgating me.

2 [no obj] US : to have a tailgate party ▪ They started tailgating at 10 o'clock.

tailgate party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] US : a party in which people serve food and drinks from the back end of their vehicles usually in a parking lot before or after a major public event (such as a football game, a concert, etc.)

tail•light /ˈteɪlˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a red light at the back of a vehicle — see picture at CAR

¹tai•lor /ˈteɪlɚ/ noun, pl -lors [count] : a person who makes men's clothes (such as suits and jackets) that are measured to fit a particular person

²tailor verb -lors; -lored; -lor•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (clothing that is measured to fit a particular person) ▪ I had my suit tailored.

2 : to make or change (something) so that it meets a special need or purpose ▪ They tailored the show for/to younger audiences.

– tai•lored /ˈteɪlɚd/ adj ▪ He wore a nicely tailored suit.
– tail•or•ing /ˈteɪlərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ The store offers free tailoring.

tai•lor–made /ˌteɪlɚˈmeɪd/ adj

1 : made by a tailor ▪ a tailor-made suit

2 : made or seeming to have been made for a particular person or purpose ▪ The job is tailor-made [=perfect] for him.

tail•pipe /ˈteɪlˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count] chiefly US : ²EXHAUST 2 tail•spin /ˈteɪlˌspɪn/ noun [singular]

1 : a condition in which an airplane is falling rapidly while turning around and around ▪ The plane went into a tailspin. [=spin]

2 : a state in which something quickly becomes much worse ▪ Stock prices are in a tailspin. ▪ The team went into a tailspin and lost six straight games. ▪ The news of his death sent her into a tailspin. [=caused her to become very unhappy, to lose control of her life, etc.]

tail•wind /ˈteɪlˌwɪnd/ noun, pl -winds [count] : a wind that blows in the same direction as something (such as a ship or an airplane) that is moving forward — compare HEADWIND

¹taint /ˈteɪnt/ verb taints; taint•ed; taint•ing [+ obj]

1 : to hurt or damage the good condition of (something) — often used as (be) tainted ▪ The reputation of the university has been tainted [=blemished, marred] by athletic scandals. ▪ Their relationship was tainted with/by suspicion.

2 : to make (something) dangerous or dirty especially by adding something harmful or undesirable to it ▪ Bacteria had tainted [=contaminated, spoiled] the meat. — often used as (be) tainted ▪ The water had been tainted by pesticides.

– tainted adj ▪ tainted food

²taint noun [singular] : something that causes a person or thing to be thought of as bad, dishonest, etc. — usually + of ▪ a political career damaged by the taint of scandal

¹take /ˈteɪk/ verb took /ˈtʊk/; tak•en /ˈteɪkən/; tak•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to carry or move (something) to a place ▪ She took her things to her room. ▪ It looks like rain. You had better take an umbrella with you. b : to carry and give (something) to a person ▪ Take this note to your teacher, please. = Take your teacher this note, please. c : to carry, move, or lead (someone) to a place ▪ This bus takes you downtown. ▪ Her office is down that hallway. I can take you there, if you want me to. ▪ He was taken to the hospital by ambulance. ▪ If you're going to the store, would you mind taking me (along) with you? ▪ She took us for a ride in her new car. ▪ He's not the kind of guy you can take home to meet your parents. ▪ I took him aside [=to a place that is away from other people] and told him what had happened. ▪ She took her child to one/the side and scolded him. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She took her team [=she helped her team go] to the state finals. ▪ Her landlord threatened to take her to court. [=to start a lawsuit against her; to sue her] ▪ He took me to the cleaners. [=he got most of my money in an unfair way] > usage The verbs bring and take are sometimes used in a way that shows that they have opposite meanings. When this is true, bring suggests that something is moving toward someone or something, and take suggests that something is moving away. ▪ Here, I brought you some flowers. ▪ May I take your luggage to your room for you?

2 [+ obj] : to begin to hold (someone or something) with your fingers, arms, etc. ▪ I took the pen and signed my name. ▪ Take the pan by the handle. ▪ He took her by the hand. ▪ He took her hand and looked into her eyes. ▪ She took her son in her arms. [=she put her arms around him] ▪ Please, take a free sample.

3 [+ obj] : to remove (something) from a place, a person's hand, etc. — often + from ▪ She took the letter (from him) and read it aloud. ▪ He took a beer from the fridge. ▪ We'll have to take some blood from your arm.

4 [+ obj] a : to get (something) : to gain possession of (something) ▪ Thieves took [=stole] the painting from the museum several years ago. ▪ That man took my purse! ▪ We will take [=seize, capture] the city at dawn. ▪ Their land had been taken by force. ▪ She took [=borrowed] her dad's car without his permission. ▪ I accidentally took your jacket instead of mine. ▪ Military leaders took control of the government in 2002. ▪ I have my pride, and no one can take that (away) from me. [=no one can cause me to lose my pride] ▪ I did all the work, and she took the credit. [=she allowed people to believe that she did the work] b : to claim (someone or something) as your own — usually used as (be) taken ▪ "Excuse me. Is this chair free?" "No, I'm sorry. It's taken." [=someone else is planning to sit in the chair] ▪ (somewhat old-fashioned) She can't be your girlfriend because she's already taken. [=she is already someone else's girlfriend]

5 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be your prisoner ▪ They took us as hostages. = They took us hostage. ▪ Three soldiers were taken prisoner/captive.

6 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to die ▪ She was taken [=she died] in her prime. : to cause (someone's life) to end ▪ The plane crash took the lives of all the people on board. ▪ He took his own life. [=he killed himself]

7 [+ obj] a : to borrow or use (a phrase, an idea, etc., that was created by a different person or used in a different place) — usually + from ▪ a quotation taken from Shakespeare ▪ The album's title is taken from [=it is the same as] a line in the album's first song. ▪ The builders took their inspiration from [=the builders were inspired by] the Acropolis in Athens. b : to begin to have (a particular shape or form) ▪ The college took its present form after World War II. ▪ The plan is finally starting to take form/shape. [=to have a definite arrangement]

8 [+ obj] : to choose to have (something) ▪ He'll have the fish and I'll take the chicken. ▪ Do you take cream in your coffee? ▪ You can have either one. Take your pick. [=choose whichever one you want]

9 [+ obj] a : to accept or receive (something) as payment or as a response ▪ Do you take credit cards? ▪ an elected official accused of taking bribes ▪ (Brit) The restaurant took [=(US) took in] an enormous amount of money in its first week of business. ▪ I was hoping they would pay me more, but at this point I'll take what I can get. ▪ I insist that you come to my party, and I won't take no for an answer! b : to accept (something, such as blame, credit, or responsibility) ▪ I take full responsibility for what happened. ▪ No one else was willing to take the blame/rap (for what happened). ▪ I did the work and he took all the credit.

10 [+ obj] : to allow (someone) to join a club, to attend a school, to become part of a relationship, etc. ▪ The school takes [=admits] just 20 students a year. ▪ The doctor's office is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

not taking [=accepting] any new patients. ▪ (old-fashioned) It is time for you to take a wife/husband. [=to get married] — see also TAKE ON (below)

11 [+ obj] : to be able to hold (a number of people or things) : to have enough room for (something) ▪ I think the elevator will take a few more people.

12 [+ obj] a : to need or require (something) ▪ What size shoe do you take? ▪ It took four people to move the couch. ▪ What would it take to get you to buy this car? ▪ It will take several years to finish the bridge. = The bridge will take several years to finish. ▪ Do you have what it takes [=do you have the skills and personality] to do this job? ▪ The new color is nice, but it'll take some getting used to. [=I will need to get used to it] ▪ Be patient. These things take (a lot of) time. [=a lot of time needs to pass before they happen or are finished] ▪ Keeping everyone happy does take a lot of doing. = It takes some doing. [=it requires a lot of work] b ✧ The phrases it takes two and it takes two to tango are used to say that two people or groups are needed in order to do something. ▪ Both of you should be punished for fighting. It takes two, you know. ▪ We'd like to continue negotiating, but it takes two to tango—we can't solve this problem by ourselves.

13 [+ obj] : to do or perform (something) ▪ Let's take a walk. [=let's walk] ▪ He's taking a shower [=he's showering] upstairs. ▪ Take a look/peek/gander at this. ▪ How old do you think I am? Take a guess. ▪ The kids take their naps around one o'clock. ▪ He took a bite of his sandwich. ▪ Take a deep breath and try to calm down. ▪ We are taking a tour of the building tomorrow. ▪ They took a pledge never to tell anyone their secret. ▪ It's time for you to take a stand [=to express your opinion] and tell them that things need to change.

14 [+ obj] : to get (a drug, pill, etc.) into your body by swallowing it, breathing it in, etc. ▪ Take one of these pills in the morning and one before bedtime. ▪ She refuses to take her medicine. ▪ She stopped taking drugs [=she stopped using illegal drugs] years ago.

15 [+ obj] : to sit or stand in (a particular place) : to move into position on (a stage, field, etc.) ▪ Please take a seat. [=please sit down] ▪ I took my place next to her at the table. ▪ The actors took their places on the stage. ▪ They took the stage for their final bow. ▪ The home team is now taking the field. ▪ Will the next witness please take the stand? ▪ She took the witness stand. ▪ The senator from Nevada would now like to take the floor. [=to begin speaking at a public meeting]

16 [+ obj] : to create or record (a picture or image) ▪ She took our picture in front of the waterfall. ▪ Our new camera takes beautiful pictures. ▪ The doctor wants to take an X-ray of your leg. ▪ They arrested him and took his fingerprints.

17 [+ obj] a : to find out (a person's temperature, height, etc.) ▪ The last time we took his temperature, it was 102 degrees. ▪ The nurse weighed me and took my blood pressure. ▪ Before the seamstress can make your dress, she has to take your measurements. b : to find out and write down (information) ▪ He took my name and number and said he would call me back. c : to create (a list or a record of information) ▪ I can't come to class today. Would you mind taking notes for me? ▪ The census we took last year shows that our population is growing very rapidly. ▪ We took an inventory at the store yesterday to find out what we need to order.

18 [+ obj] a : to travel using (a road, vehicle, etc.) ▪ We took the highway into the city. ▪ She had to take a different route home. ▪ He takes the subway to work. b : to turn toward (a particular direction) ▪ Take a right [=turn right] at the next stop light. ▪ Take your first left and go straight for a mile. ▪ We took a wrong turn [=went the wrong way; turned in the wrong direction] and got lost.

19 [+ obj] : to move on or over (something) in a particular way ▪ He took the stairs [=went up/down the stairs] two at a time. ▪ She took the curve too fast and the car skidded.

20 [+ obj] a : to agree to do or have (a job, role, etc.) ▪ He took a job as a janitor at the high school. ▪ She hasn't decided if she is going to take the position or not. ▪ I took a few overtime shifts this month. ▪ He took the role of Romeo in the play. ▪ She says that parents should be taking a more active role in their children's education. [=should be more actively involved in their children's education] ▪ The former governor took office [=became governor] in 1998. ▪ She was the first woman to take her seat [=to begin her official duties as a member] in Parliament. b Brit : to teach (a person or class) or lead (a religious service) ▪ The new teacher took us for English. ▪ She took a class of eight children. ▪ The vicar won't be able to take the early service.

21 [+ obj] : to study (a subject) or participate in (a class) as a student ▪ Her parents made her take piano lessons when she was 10. ▪ He takes both French and Spanish. ▪ I took five classes last semester. ▪ I'm taking a course on world history.

22 [+ obj] : to complete (a test or exam) ▪ If you fail the first time, you have to take the test again.

23 [+ obj] of a machine : to use or need (something) in order to work ▪ What size batteries does the flashlight take? ▪ a car that takes diesel

24 [+ obj] : to use (something) for a particular purpose ▪ The team's coaches decided to take another approach. ▪ Let me take this opportunity to thank everyone for coming. ▪ Harsh measures were taken to reduce crime in the city. ▪ I suggest you take his advice. ▪ They never took the time [=bothered] to get to know her.

25 [+ obj] : to accept (the power to deal with something) : to accept control of (something) ▪ She was chosen to take charge/control of the organization. ▪ I'll get you started, and you take it [=take over] from there. ▪ Citizens are discouraged from taking the law into their own hands. [=punishing people for breaking laws even though they have no right to punish them]

26 [+ obj] Brit : to make (a decision) with authority ▪ The committee will take [=make] their decision next week.

27 [+ obj] : to deal with or consider (something) ▪ The governor will give a statement and then take questions from reporters. ▪ Will you take this call? ▪ Cases will be taken in order of importance. ▪ Let's take first things first. ▪ We'll see what happens and take it as it comes. ▪ I'll need a long time to recover, so I'm just taking (it) one day at a time.

28 [+ obj] a : to understand or think about (something or someone) in a certain way ▪ I don't quite know how to take that comment. ▪ He said that I was full-figured, and I took it as a compliment. ▪ No one took her literally/seriously when she said that she was going to quit. ▪ He takes himself too seriously. ▪ He says unkind things to everyone. Try not to take it personally. [=to be offended or upset by what he said] ▪ Don't take this the wrong way [=do not be offended by this], but I think you could find a better boyfriend. ▪ When it started to rain, we took it as a sign [=we believed that the rain was a sign] that we should go home. ▪ Can't you take a hint? [=understand that I am trying to give you a hint?] ▪ I take it [=(more formally) assume, suppose] that you didn't get my message. ▪ So, you're staying here, I take it. ▪ I know it's just gossip, so I take it for what it's worth. [=I do not strongly believe that it is true or important] b : to react to (someone or something) in a certain way ▪ I was surprised by how well she took the news. ▪ He took it pretty badly/hard [=he was very upset] when his dog died. ▪ She doesn't take such things lightly. [=she acts as though such things are very important]

29 [+ obj] : to think about (something or someone) as an example ▪ They just want attention. For instance, take the way they wear their hair. ▪ Take last year's record high temperatures, for example. ▪ The system isn't working properly. Take the case of Jane Smith.

30 [+ obj] : to think of (someone or something) as a particular type of person or thing — usually + for ▪ Oh, you're not Jill. Excuse me. I took you for [=mistakenly thought you were] an old friend of mine. ▪ Of course we know how to do it. Do you take us for idiots? [=do you think we are idiots?] ▪ "Can you finish everything in two hours?" "Two hours?! Who do you take me for? Superman?" [=do you think I'm Superman?]

31 [+ obj] : to believe (something that someone tells you) ▪ Take it from me. [=believe me] He would love to go to the concert with you. ▪ Okay, I'll take your word for it. [=I will believe that what you say is true] ▪ You don't have to take my word for it. Ask him yourself. ▪ She can't take a compliment. [=she does not believe that the nice things said about her are true]

32 [+ obj] a : to begin to have (an opinion, interest, etc.) ▪ She has yet to take a position on the issue. ▪ The program inspires young people to take an interest [=become interested] in current events. ▪ They take a dim view [=have a negative opinion] of the country's current foreign policy. ▪ She took a dim view of his behavior. b : to ask people to make choices or give opinions in (a vote, poll, etc.) ▪ They took a survey of shoppers to find out which brands people liked best. ▪ I think we should take a vote [=should vote] about what to do.

33 a [+ obj] : to feel or experience (an emotion) ▪ Please don't take offense. [=please don't be offended] ▪ Investors took fright [=suddenly became afraid] at the news and pulled their money. — often + in or to ▪ His grandparents took special pleasure in [=were very pleased by] seeing him graduate from college. ▪ It's important to take pride in your work. ▪ I take comfort/solace in the fact that others have had to go through the same thing. ▪ She takes an instant dislike to [=she instantly dislikes] anyone who tries to sell her something. b ✧ If you are taken ill/sick or (US) take ill/sick, you suddenly become ill. ▪ He and I both took ill after eating the fish. ▪ Several other customers also were taken ill/sick.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

34 [+ obj] a : to experience or be affected by (something unpleasant) ▪ Everyone will have to take a pay cut. ▪ She had to take a two-stroke penalty. ▪ The ship sunk after taking [=sustaining] a direct hit. ▪ He took several punches to the head. ▪ He took quite a beating. ▪ "Take that," she said as she slapped him in the face. b : to experience (something bad or unpleasant) without being seriously harmed ▪ These shoes have taken [=withstood] a lot of punishment. — often used in negative statements ▪ These plants can't take [=tolerate] the cold. ▪ You no longer have to take [=endure] the pain of arthritis. — sometimes used in an exaggerated way ▪ What happens next? I can't take the suspense. ▪ I can't take this noise anymore! c : to accept the difficulty or unpleasantness of (something or someone) without complaining or making changes ▪ I wouldn't take [=tolerate] that kind of rudeness from anyone. ▪ I'm not going to take it anymore! ▪ Are you just going to sit there and take it? ▪ Don't take it lying down. Do something about it. ▪ I thought she would be upset, but she's taking it in stride. [=not upset about it] ▪ Stop crying and take it like a man. ▪ I wasn't being serious. Can't you take a joke? [=can't you laugh at a joke that is about you?] ▪ He's a little hard to take sometimes. [=he is sometimes a little rude, annoying, etc.]

35 [+ obj] : to become known by (someone) in a certain way ▪ Her reaction took me by surprise. [=surprised me] ▪ The latest band taking the country by storm [=quickly becoming very popular throughout the country] is a Swedish group.

36 [+ obj] : to be liked or enjoyed by (someone) : to delight (someone) — used as (be) taken; usually + with or by ▪ He was quite taken with her at their first meeting. ▪ None of us was completely taken with the idea of staying there for an entire month. ▪ The critic was so taken by the restaurant that she gave it four stars out of a possible five.

37 [+ obj] : to be the cause of (damage, suffering, etc.) ▪ She vowed to take (her) revenge against him. ▪ She swore that she would take vengeance on him. ▪ The storm took its toll. [=the storm did a lot of damage] ▪ A war could take a terrible toll on the economy.

38 [+ obj] a : to win or get (something) in a game, contest, etc. ▪ She sang well enough to take first prize in her high school's talent contest. ▪ He took second place behind last year's winner. ▪ They took an 8–6 lead in the seventh inning. ▪ The number 20 car took the lead with one lap to go. ▪ They took home the championship for the third year in a row. ▪ Let's play one more round. Winner takes all. [=the winner of this round will win the whole contest] b : to beat or defeat (someone) in a game, fight, etc. ▪ She took her opponent in the second round. ▪ He's not that big. I think I can take him.

39 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to move to a particular level or area of activity ▪ They decided to take the company public. ▪ Are you ready to take your business to the next level? ▪ When taken to extremes, their philosophy can have negative consequences.

40 [+ obj] : to go to a safe or calm place for (shelter, cover, etc.) ▪ If it rains, we can take shelter in the clubhouse. ▪ Here come the bombers! Take cover! ▪ a quiet place to take refuge

41 [no obj] : to be effective or become established ▪ Clearly, the lesson he had tried to teach them didn't take. [=they didn't learn the lesson] ▪ We are waiting to see if the heart transplant takes.

42 [+ obj] : to be able to have (something) when treated in a particular way ▪ a surface that takes a fine/high polish

43 [+ obj] grammar : to appear or be used with (something) ▪ Transitive verbs take an object while intransitive verbs do not. ▪ Most words that end in "sh," such as "brush" and "wish," take "es" in their plural forms.

44 [+ obj] mathematics : SUBTRACT — often + away ▪ When you take two (away) from five you get three.

> In addition to the phrases shown below, take occurs in many idioms that are shown at appropriate entries throughout the dictionary. For example, take a backseat can be found at BACKSEAT and take the cake can be found at [1]CAKE.

take aback [phrasal verb] take (someone) aback : to surprise or shock (someone) — usually used as (be) taken aback ▪ When I told him my answer, he seemed taken aback. [=shocked] — often + by ▪ He was taken aback by her answer.

take action : to do something : to act in order to get a particular result ▪ The committee is ready to take action. ▪ If we fail to take action [=fail to act], many innocent people could be hurt. ▪ She is threatening to take legal action against the company. [=threatening to sue the company]

take after [phrasal verb] take after (someone) : to be like (someone, such as a parent) : to resemble (someone) ▪ He takes after his father in height and build. ▪ "She's such a sweet child." "Yes. She takes after her mother."

take against [phrasal verb] take against (someone or something) Brit, somewhat old-fashioned : to begin to dislike (someone or something) ▪ They took against her for no apparent reason.

take a lot out of you ✧ If something takes a lot out of you or (Brit) takes it out of you, it requires a lot of work or energy and causes you to feel physically or emotionally tired. ▪ That interview really took a lot out of me.

take apart [phrasal verb] 1 take apart (something) or *take (something) apart : to remove or separate the parts of (something) ▪ They practiced taking apart [=disassembling] their rifles and putting them back together again. ▪ Help me take this puzzle apart. 2 take apart (something) or *take (something) apart : to talk about the different parts of (an idea, story, etc.) often in order to criticize it ▪ He takes apart the theory and shows its weaknesses. 3 take apart (someone) or *take (someone) apart chiefly Brit : to badly beat (a person or team) in a game or contest ▪ The champion really took the challenger apart in the second round.

take away [phrasal verb] 1 take away (someone or something) or *take (someone or something) away : to remove (someone or something) : to cause (someone or something) to go away, to no longer exist, to no longer be held, etc. ▪ "Take him away!" said the queen. ▪ He was trying to take the ball away from the dog. ▪ A new store would take business away from existing stores in the area. ▪ Her parents threatened to take away her driving privileges. ▪ If you take away [=if you do not consider] his fancy clothes, he's a rather ordinary person. ▪ The beautiful new theater took my breath away. [=it made me feel surprised and excited] 2 take away (something) or *take (something) away a : to remember (something) for possible use in the future — usually + from ▪ What lesson can we take away from this? b Brit : to buy (food that is cooked in a restaurant) and carry it to another place ▪ We sell hot food to take away. [=(US) we sell hot food for takeout] 3 *take it away informal : to start playing or singing music ▪ Take it away, Annie! 4 *take away from [phrasal verb] take away from (something) : to reduce the value or importance of (something) ▪ The ugly door takes away from [=detracts from] the beauty of the house. ▪ She made a few mistakes during her speech, but that didn't take away from her overall message. — see also [1]TAKE 44 (above)

take back [phrasal verb] 1 take back (someone or something) or *take (someone or something) back a : to return (something or someone) ▪ If you bought any of these toys, take them back to the store for a full refund. ▪ Waiter, this soup is terrible. Please take it back. [=return it to the kitchen] ▪ I took him back to his apartment. b : to accept or receive (someone or something) again ▪ They wouldn't take back the dress because I didn't have the receipt. ▪ His wife left him but he decided to take her back. 2 *take (someone) back : to cause (someone) to remember a time or event — usually + to ▪ This meal takes me back to [=it makes me remember] our vacation in Mexico. ▪ a song that takes you back to your childhood 3 take back (something) or *take (something) back : to say that you did not really mean (something that you said) ▪ My mom is not fat! Take it back! ▪ He refused to take back what he said.

take down [phrasal verb] take down (something)* or *take (something) down 1 : to remove (something) from the place where it is hanging or standing ▪ She took the books down from the shelf. ▪ I need to take down those curtains and bring them to the dry cleaner's. ▪ Take down that terrible picture of me. ▪ Please, take it down. ▪ He took down the old shed and built a new one. 2 : to lower but not remove (something) ▪ The doctor asked him to take down [=pull down] his pants. 3 : to write (something) ▪ He took her phone number down on a napkin. ▪ Did you take down the car's license number?

take in [phrasal verb] 1 take in (someone) or *take (some-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

one) in a : to allow (a person or animal) to stay in your house, hotel, etc. ▪ The family started taking in boarders to make ends meet. ▪ The homeless shelter takes in women and children. ▪ They agreed to take him in for the summer. ▪ taking in stray cats b : to take (someone) to a police station ▪ The police took him in for driving while drunk. ▪ The suspects were taken in for questioning. c : to trick or deceive (someone) — often used as (be) taken in ▪ He was taken in by a man who said he was collecting money for a charity. 2 take in (something) or take (something) in a : to make (a piece of clothing) smaller or shorter ▪ I lost weight and had to take in my pants. ▪ I had to take them in at the waist. — opposite let out at [1]LET b US : to receive (something) as payment or earnings ▪ The restaurant has been taking in [=(Brit) taking] thousands of dollars a night. ▪ They couldn't take enough money in to stay in business. c : to allow (water, air, etc.) to enter your body ▪ She stood on the shore taking in the salty sea air. d : to look at and think about (something) ▪ We spent the hour talking and taking in the view. ▪ You'll have plenty of time to take in all the sights. e : to learn about and try to understand (something) ▪ We paused to take in the situation. ▪ It's hard to take all this information in at once. ▪ We need to take in all the options before making a decision. f : to watch (a show, game, etc.) ▪ If we have time after dinner, I thought maybe we could take in a movie. g : to include (a place) among the places that you go to ▪ Our trip to New York City will take in several museums. = We will take in [=visit] several museums on our trip to New York City.

take it or leave it 1 — used to say that you will not make a better offer than the one you have made ▪ I'll give you $500 for the camera, but that's my final offer. Take it or leave it. 2 — used to say that you do not care about or are not excited about something ▪ "Do you like lobster?" "I can take it or leave it." [=I neither strongly like nor dislike lobster] take it upon/on yourself : to do something that needs to be done even though no one has asked you to do it ▪ Thank you for taking it upon yourself to organize the meeting.

take long : to require or use a long amount of time ▪ It didn't take long to realize that something was wrong. ▪ Hurry up. You're taking too long. ▪ What's taking so long?

take note or take notice : to notice or pay attention to something ▪ The news made them sit up and take notice. [=suddenly give full attention to something] — often + of ▪ She took note of [=noted] the exact time. ▪ No one remembers taking notice of her [=no one remembers noticing her] at the party.

take off [phrasal verb] 1 a : to suddenly go somewhere ▪ She took off without even saying goodbye. ▪ Where did you take off to? [=where did you go?] b take off after (someone or something) US : to start to move quickly in order to catch (someone or something) ▪ If my dog sees a cat, she'll take off after [=chase] it. ▪ He jumped in his car and took off after them. 2 : to begin to fly ▪ Please sit down. The plane's about to take off. ▪ They took off and landed safely. 3 : to quickly become very successful or popular ▪ Her career took off after she won an Oscar for best supporting actress. ▪ Our business is really starting to take off. 4 take off (something) or take (something) off a : to remove (something) ▪ I took my boots off and put on some slippers. ▪ Always take off your makeup before going to bed. ▪ Take that smile off your face! [=stop smiling] ▪ This new diet will take inches off your waist and hips. ▪ Please take your hands off me. [=stop touching or holding me] ▪ I can't take my eyes off [=I cannot stop looking at] that beautiful ring of yours! ▪ Hiring more teachers would help take the pressure off [=reduce the amount of stress felt by] our staff. ▪ Her show was taken off the air [=it was no longer shown on TV] after three seasons. ▪ The toy was taken off the market [=it was stopped from being sold] for safety reasons. b : to reduce the price of something by (a specified amount) ▪ You can take 20 percent off everything in the store. ▪ They took $3,000 off the original price of the car. c : to spend (an amount of time) away from a job or activity ▪ He took the day off and went to the beach. ▪ I took two weeks off (work) to visit my family. ▪ I haven't taken any time off yet this year. 5 take (someone) off (something) a : to tell (someone) to stop using (something, such as a medicine) ▪ The doctor took her off the drug and put her on a new one. ▪ He took himself off his medication. [=he stopped using it] ▪ taking a patient off a ventilator b : to tell (someone) to no longer work on (something) ▪ The newspaper's editor took her off the story. ▪ He was taken off the project. 6 take off (someone) or take (someone) off Brit : to copy (someone) usually in order to make other people laugh ▪ He can take off [=mimic, imitate] our teacher perfectly. — see also TAKEOFF take on [phrasal verb] 1 take on (something) or take (something) on a : to begin to deal with (something, such as a job or responsibility) ▪ I don't have time to take on any new responsibilities right now. ▪ We are depending on you to take on this important assignment. ▪ Her willingness to take on new challenges is admirable. b : to begin to have (a particular quality or appearance) ▪ Her writings took on new meaning after her death. ▪ In the evening, the plaza takes on a different air/aura. ▪ stories in which animals take on human attributes ▪ The story was broadcast throughout the world and began to take on a life of its own. [=to become very large, important, and hard to control] ▪ The story has taken on mythic proportions. [=it has become very famous or important] 2 take on (someone or something) or take (someone or something) on a : to fight or struggle with (someone or something) ▪ Police have been taking on the neighborhood's drug dealers. ▪ She's not afraid to take on her critics/detractors directly. ▪ They will need lots of money and resources to take on the tobacco companies. : to criticize or argue against (someone or something) ▪ She takes on the country's current foreign policy in her new book. ▪ taking on sexism in the music industry b : to compete against (a person, team, etc.) ▪ The Yankees are set to take on the Red Sox at Yankee Stadium tonight. ▪ She took him on in a game of tennis. c : to allow (someone or something) to enter ▪ The train took on a few more passengers before leaving the city. ▪ The ship sprung a leak and began to take on water. [=water began getting into the ship] 3 take on (someone) or take (someone) on : to accept (someone) as an employee, client, etc. ▪ I'm sorry, but the doctor isn't taking on [=taking] any new patients. ▪ She agreed to take him on as an assistant.

take out [phrasal verb] 1 take (something) out or take out (something) a : to remove (something) from a thing, place, or person ▪ She had her tonsils taken out when she was ten years old. ▪ Remove the board and take out all the nails. : to move (something) from the place that held, enclosed, or hid it ▪ Please take out a pencil and begin the test. ▪ Please take your homework out. ▪ I forgot to take out the garbage [=to bring it outside] this morning. b : to get (something, such as insurance, a loan, etc.) by a standard process or series of steps : to make the arrangements, payments, etc., that are required for (something) ▪ All drivers in the state must take out insurance on their vehicles. ▪ They had to take out a second mortgage on their home. ▪ They took out ads in several magazines and newspapers. c : to borrow or rent (something) from a store, library, etc. ▪ She took out a couple of books from the library. d : to destroy (something) ▪ Our mission is to take out two enemy targets. ▪ She swerved off the road and took out a telephone pole. 2 take (someone) out or take out (someone) a : to go with (someone you have invited) to a restaurant, party, etc. ▪ Can I take you out sometime? ▪ teenagers taking each other out on dates ▪ They took us out for/to lunch. b : to cause (a person or team) to no longer be part of a competition ▪ He took his opponent out in the first 60 seconds of the match. ▪ Our team was taken out in the second round of competition. 3 take (something) out on (someone) ✧ If you take your anger, frustration, etc., out on someone, you treat someone badly because you feel angry, frustrated, etc. ▪ workers who go home and take their frustration out on their families ▪ I'm sorry you didn't get the job, but don't take it out on me. [=don't treat me badly because you are disappointed] — see also TAKEOUT

take over [phrasal verb] take over or take over (something) or take (something) over 1 : to start doing (something that someone has stopped doing) ▪ Here, you take over stirring the soup while I start making the salad. ▪ Take over for me for a while. 2 : to become the person who has control of (something) ▪ Since she has taken over the company, productivity and profits have soared. ▪ Military leaders took over the government in 2002. ▪ They took over in 2002. — see also TAKEOVER take sides or take someone's side : to agree with or support one person or group and not another ▪ She refuses to take sides on the issue. ▪ When my sister and I fight, our dad always takes her side. ▪ Why do you always take her side? ▪ The government responded by taking the side of the consumer.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

take through [phrasal verb] take (someone) through (something) : to tell (someone) how (something) happens or is done by explaining the details of each step ▪ I asked him to take [=lead, walk] me through his daily exercise regimen. ▪ Take me through that day hour by hour. [=tell me what happened each hour of that day]

take to [phrasal verb] 1 take to (something) : to go to or into (a place) ▪ They grabbed their weapons and took to the hills. ▪ Thousands of people took to the streets in protest. [=went out into the streets to protest] ▪ He took to the airwaves [=he spoke on the radio] with his message. 2 take to (someone or something) : to begin to like (someone or something) ▪ I took to her as soon as she smiled at me. ▪ Many students have not taken well to the new school uniforms. ▪ He tried skiing and took to it immediately. [=he quickly learned how to ski and liked doing it] ▪ She took to horseback riding like a duck (takes) to water. [=she learned it in a very easy and natural way] ▪ (informal) They don't take kindly to strangers [=they don't like strangers] around here. 3 take to (doing something) : to begin (doing something) as a habit ▪ He took to drinking after he lost his job. ▪ She had taken to sleeping on the floor. ▪ We've taken to calling him "Mr. Dependable." 4 take (something) to (someone or something) : to use (something) to do something to (someone or something) ▪ Someone needs to take a mop to this floor. [=someone needs to mop this floor] ▪ I took an ax to the dead tree in front of my house. [=I cut down the dead tree with an ax] ▪ He was criticized for taking a belt to his children. [=hitting his children with a belt]

take up [phrasal verb] 1 take up or take up (something) or take (something) up : to begin (something) again : to continue (something) after you or another person stops ▪ She took up [=picked up] the story where he left off. ▪ He is hoping that he and his ex-girlfriend can take up [=that they can continue their relationship] where they left off. 2 take up (something) : to fill (an area, amount of time, etc.) completely or almost completely ▪ The new couch takes up half of the room. ▪ I don't want to take up too much of your time, but I do have a few questions. ▪ The entire day was taken up by/with meetings. ▪ We don't use this table for anything. It's just taking up space. 3 take up (something) or take (something) up a : to begin studying or practicing (an activity, subject, instrument, etc.) usually as a hobby ▪ I was thinking about taking up skiing/dancing/photography. ▪ She took up the guitar at age 11. ▪ taking up art lessons b : to begin to deal with (a problem, an issue, etc.) ▪ The cause of global warming has been taken up by many celebrities recently. ▪ The court took up the question of how to deal with companies that break the law. ▪ He seemed willing to take up [=take on] the challenge. c : to begin to have (a new job, home, etc.) ▪ He will take up his post [=begin working at his new post/job] at the beginning of the year. ▪ She went to France and took up residence in Paris. [=became a resident of Paris; began living in Paris] ▪ She took up [=she began to lead] the life of an artist. = She took up life as an artist. ▪ Two men with guns had taken up (their) positions on the roof. d somewhat old-fashioned : to begin to use (something) ▪ They took up hammers and nails and went to work building the house. ▪ Once again, they took up arms [=picked up weapons and became ready to fight] to defend their country. e : to make (something, such as a piece of clothing) shorter ▪ Can you take the legs of these pants up two inches? f : to lift and remove (something) ▪ We took up the carpet in the living room and replaced it with hardwood flooring. g : to gather (money, clothes, etc.) from many different people or places ▪ They are taking up a collection for the homeless shelter. 4 take (someone) up on (something) : to make an agreement with (someone) to accept (an offer) ▪ "Can I buy you a drink?" "Sure, I'll take you up on that." ▪ We took the company up on its offer to replace the computer for free. 5 take (something) up with (someone) : to talk about (something, such as a problem) with (someone) ▪ If you have a problem, please take it up with one of our managers. ▪ Have you taken this up with your mother yet? 6 take up with (someone) : to begin a friendly or romantic relationship with (someone) ▪ After her divorce, she took up with a younger man. — see also TAKE-UP

– see also GIVE-AND-TAKE

²take noun, pl takes [count]

1 a : the way that a particular person thinks about or understands something : a distinct point of view — often + on ▪ What's your take on what happened? [=what do you think about what happened?] ▪ I had a different take on the experience. ▪ She has an unusual take on life. b : a particular way of dealing with or treating something — usually + on ▪ Audiences seem to be enjoying the film's modern take on Dickens' famous story. ▪ a new take on an old problem

2 : a scene that is filmed or a song that is recorded at one time without stopping ▪ It took us 20 takes to get the scene right. ▪ She nailed it on the first take.

3 informal a : the amount of money that is earned or received ▪ He stands to earn 10 percent of the company's $1 million take on the deal. b : a share or percentage of an amount of money ▪ She was expecting a bigger take.

on the take informal : illegally taking money for doing favors for someone : illegally accepting bribes ▪ We've heard rumors that the senator is on the take.

– see also DOUBLE TAKE

take•away /ˈteɪkəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways

1 Brit a [noncount] : TAKEOUT 1 ▪ We ordered some Chinese takeaway. b [count] : TAKEOUT 2 ▪ She works in a Chinese takeaway.

2 [count] sports : an act of taking the ball or puck from a player on the other team ▪ He leads the league in takeaways.

– takeaway adj, always used before a noun, Brit ▪ takeaway food ▪ a takeaway restaurant take–charge /ˈteɪkˈʧɑɚʤ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : having the qualities of a forceful leader : able to make decisions in a confident way and then act on them ▪ a take-charge attitude ▪ a take-charge guy/woman take–home pay /ˈteɪkˌhoʊm-/ noun [noncount] : the amount of money that a person earns after taxes and other amounts have been subtracted ▪ She grosses $40,000 a year but her take-home pay is about $25,000.

taken past participle of ¹TAKE

take–no–prisoners adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : very tough and aggressive ▪ take-no-prisoners politics ▪ a journalist with a take-no-prisoners style — see also take no prisoners at PRISONER

take•off /ˈteɪkˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs

1 : the moment when an airplane, helicopter, etc., leaves the ground and begins to fly [noncount] Please remain seated during takeoff. ▪ Air Force One, you're ready for takeoff. [count] perfect takeoffs and landings

2 [count] : the beginning of a jump ▪ All the high jumpers had flawless takeoffs.

3 [count] : a sudden increase in size, activity, or popularity ▪ the country's economic takeoff

4 [count] : a new or unusual way of making or doing something ▪ an interesting takeoff on traditional lasagna

5 [count] a : a performance in which someone copies the way another person speaks, moves, etc., in usually a humorous way ▪ He did a perfect takeoff [=imitation, impression] of our teacher. b chiefly US : a piece of writing, music, etc., that imitates the style of someone or something else in an amusing way : PARODY ▪ They did a funny takeoff on/of a quiz show.

– see also take off at ¹TAKE

take•out /ˈteɪkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs US

1 [noncount] : food that is cooked in a restaurant and taken by a customer to be eaten in another place ▪ We ordered some Chinese takeout. — called also (chiefly US) carryout, (Brit) takeaway

2 [count] : a restaurant that sells takeout ▪ She works in a Chinese takeout. — called also (chiefly US) carryout, (Brit) takeaway

– take–out adj, always used before a noun, US ▪ take-out food ▪ a take-out restaurant take•over /ˈteɪkˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count] : an occurrence in which a person, company, etc., takes control of something ▪ The government experienced a military takeover in 2002. ▪ takeover bids ▪ The company was trying to protect itself from a hostile takeover. [=an attempt to buy a company when the people who own the company do not want to sell it] — see also take over at ¹TAKE

tak•er /ˈteɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who takes something ▪ He's more of a giver than a taker. [=he likes to give rather than receive things] ▪ She's not much of a risk taker. [=she does not like to take risks] ▪ I'm a terrible test taker. ▪ a poll taker ▪ ticket takers

2 informal : a person who accepts something that is offered ▪ The class had no takers. [=no one took the class] ▪ I have two tickets for sale. Any takers?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

take–up /ˈteɪkˌʌp/ noun [singular] Brit : the rate at which something offered is accepted by people ▪ Fewer French classes are being offered due to low take-up. ▪ Take-up of our products has been high. — see also take up at ¹TAKE tak•ings /ˈteɪkɪŋz/ noun [plural] chiefly Brit : the amount of money that is earned : TAKE ▪ They will donate half of the takings to charity. ▪ box office takings

talc /ˈtælk/ noun [noncount] : TALCUM POWDER

tal•cum powder /ˈtælkəm-/ noun [noncount] : a soft, white powder that is used to make your skin feel dry and smooth tale /ˈteɪl/ noun, pl tales [count]

1 : a story about imaginary events : an exciting or dramatic story ▪ The movie is a stirring tale of courage. ▪ tales about ghosts — see also FAIRY TALE, FOLKTALE
2 a : a story about someone's actual experiences ▪ We listened to his familiar tale of woe/misfortune as he talked again about the failure of his marriage. b : an exciting story that may not be completely true ▪ He told us thrilling tales about his adventures as a pilot in the war. — see also TALL TALE
3 : a false story that is told to deceive someone ▪ Are you telling tales again? Or is that the truth?
dead men tell no tales — used to say that someone who has been killed cannot reveal secret information thereby hangs a tale see ¹HANG
– see also OLD WIVES' TALE

tal•ent /ˈtælənt/ noun, pl -ents
1 : a special ability that allows someone to do something well [noncount] a singer with an enormous amount of talent ▪ I have no musical talent. ▪ Her artistic/creative talent has been obvious ever since she was a child. ▪ athletic talent ▪ a person of talent = a person who has talent ▪ They sang a duet in the talent show/contest. [count] She has a job that makes the most of her talents. ▪ His experience, skills, and talents make him perfectly suited for the job. ▪ He has many talents. = He's a man of many talents. ▪ He seems to have a talent for getting into trouble. [=he often gets into trouble]
2 : a person or group of people with a special ability to do something well : a talented person or group [count] There are many good players on the team, but she's a special talent. [noncount] The company has hired some expensive legal talent for the trial. ▪ The team has recruited some of the best talent around. ▪ The company is doing a talent search to find the right person for the job.
3 [noncount] Brit slang : people who are sexually attractive ▪ checking out the local talent tal•ent•ed /ˈtælənṭəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a special ability to do something well : having talent ▪ a very/highly talented actor/musician/singer/athlete ▪ As a writer, she is enormously talented.

tal•ent•less /ˈtælənṭləs/ adj : lacking talent : not at all talented ▪ a talentless singer/athlete talent scout noun, pl ~ scouts [count] : a person whose job is to find talented performers, athletes, etc. — called also (Brit) talent spotter

tal•is•man /ˈtæləsmən/ noun, pl -mans [count] : an object (such as a ring or stone) that is believed to have magic powers and to cause good things to happen to the person who has it

¹talk /ˈtɑːk/ verb talks; talked; talk•ing
1 a : to say words in order to express your thoughts, feelings, opinions, etc., to someone [no obj] She never talks at the meetings. ▪ He did most of the talking during dinner. ▪ He loves to hear himself talk. — often + to ▪ You shouldn't talk to your mother that way. — often + about ▪ She still talks about your wedding and how perfect it was. [+ obj] I think she's talking a lot of nonsense/rubbish/drivel. ▪ You should listen to her; she's talking (good) sense. [=she's saying sensible things] b [no obj] : to have a conversation or discussion with someone ▪ We need to talk. ▪ I can't talk right now. I'm running late. ▪ They were talking in Spanish. ▪ We talked on the phone until midnight. ▪ Both sides in the dispute are now willing to talk. — often + to ▪ They talked to each other in a whisper. ▪ Who were you talking to on the phone? ▪ I could hear her talking to herself as she studied. — often + with ▪ The coach refused to talk with the reporters. ▪ May I talk with you privately? — often + about ▪ You might feel better if you talked to someone about your problems. ▪ The teacher talked with him about his poor grades. ▪ When they get together, all they do is talk about sports. c [+ obj] : to have a conversation about (something) ▪ They are in the conference room talking business. ▪ They were talking baseball/politics. ▪ They like to talk shop [=to talk about work] during lunch.
synonyms see SPEAK
2 [no obj] : to use your voice to say words : SPEAK ▪ She had laryngitis and couldn't talk. ▪ I can't understand you. You're talking too fast. ▪ No talking during the performance, please! ▪ Would you please stop talking. I'm trying to watch the movie. ▪ She talks very loud. ▪ He is teaching the parrot to talk. ▪ She started talking when she was only eight months old.
3 [no obj] : to be willing to talk to someone after having an argument, disagreement, fight, etc., with that person — always used as (be) talking ▪ It's been two weeks and they're still not talking (to each other).
4 [no obj] : to talk about the personal lives of other people ▪ It's rude to talk [=gossip] about people behind their back(s). ▪ If you continue behaving like that, people are bound to talk.
5 [no obj] : to tell secret information to someone ▪ The police forced him to talk.
6 [no obj] : to give information without speaking : to communicate with signs, numbers, etc. ▪ They were talking to each other in sign language. ▪ When she gets excited, she talks with her hands. [=she moves her hands when she talks] ▪ The computer is talking to the printer.
7 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to talk until (someone or something) is in a specified state ▪ He talked himself hoarse. [=he talked so much that his voice became hoarse] ▪ She talked herself into a corner. [=she put herself in a bad position by talking too much] ▪ We talked the night away. [=we talked throughout the night] — see also SWEET-TALK
8 [no obj] : to criticize someone ✧ This sense of talk is often used in phrases like look who's talking, you're one to talk, and you should talk to say that someone should not criticize another person because he or she has the same faults as that other person. ▪ "She's way too skinny." "You're one to talk. You need to gain some weight, too."
9 [+ obj] informal — used to describe or suggest the size or amount of something; always used as (be) talking ▪ To fix the car, you're talking at least $500. [=it will cost at least $500 to fix the car] ▪ The heat was awful. I'm talking 100-degree weather and no air-conditioning.
know what you are talking about see ¹KNOW money talks see MONEY now you're talking informal — used to say that someone has said or suggested something that you think is good, worth doing, etc. ▪ "You don't want hamburgers. Well, how about steak?" "Yeah, now you're talking."
talk a blue streak see ¹BLUE talk about 1 ✧ The phrase what are you talking about? can be used to show that you are confused, worried, upset, etc., about something that someone has just said. ▪ What are you talking about? I did what you told me to do. 2 informal — used to emphasize the size, amount, or extent of something ▪ Talk about rain! I've never seen it rain like this in my entire life! ▪ Talk about having a bad day. I had the worst day ever! ▪ Talk about short. She's only four feet tall! — see also ¹TALK 1a, b (above) talk a good game informal : to say things that make people believe that you can do something or that something is true about you even though it is not true ▪ They talk a good game, but they're not really ready for the championship. ▪ She talks a good game about protecting the environment, but she doesn't even recycle.
talk around also chiefly Brit talk round [phrasal verb] 1 talk around/round (something) : to avoid talking about (a particular subject) especially because it is difficult, unpleasant, or embarrassing ▪ They've been talking around the real issue rather than addressing it directly. 2 talk (someone) around/round : to cause (someone) to accept and support something (such as an idea) after opposing it ▪ She says she doesn't agree with it, but we'll talk her around eventually. [=we'll eventually convince/persuade her to support it] — often + to ▪ We can talk her round to our way of thinking.
talk at [phrasal verb] informal talk at (someone) : to speak to (someone) without listening to what he or she says to you in reply ▪ My dad is always talking at me. ▪ You need to talk to your children, not talk at them.
talk back [phrasal verb] : to answer (someone) in a rude way that does not show proper respect ▪ Don't talk back! — often + to ▪ She was punished for talking back to her parents.
talk down [phrasal verb] 1 talk down to (someone) : to talk to (someone) in an overly simple way which suggests that he or she is not intelligent ▪ Many politicians are guilty of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

talking down to voters. ▪ Don't talk down to me. I'm not stupid. 2 talk down (something or someone) or talk (something or someone) down a : to describe (something or someone) as unimportant ▪ He talked down [=downplayed] his accomplishments. b : to cause (the price of something) to be lower by talking to someone ▪ She managed to talk down his asking price for the car. : to convince (someone) to lower the price of something ▪ She talked him down 500 dollars. 3 talk (someone) down : to convince (someone who is standing on a high place and threatening to jump) to come down and not to commit suicide ▪ He tried to talk her down from the ledge. [=to convince her to not jump from the ledge] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was about to quit his job in anger, but she managed to talk him down. [=to convince him not to do it]

talk into [phrasal verb] talk (someone) into (something) : to get (someone) to do something by talking about the good reasons for doing it : to convince or persuade (someone) to do something ▪ The salesman talked us into buying the car. ▪ Her friends couldn't talk her into going on the trip.

talk nineteen to the dozen Brit, informal : to speak rapidly and without stopping ▪ He showed us around the house while talking nineteen to the dozen. [=(US) talking a blue streak] talk of [phrasal verb] talk of (someone or something) : to speak or write about (someone or something) : to mention (a subject) in speech or writing ▪ It was the first time she talked of going to law school. ▪ She never talks of [=talks about, speaks of] her suffering during the war. ▪ In the letter, he talked of feeling ill. ▪ (Brit) Talking of [=speaking of] Jill, where is she?

talk of the devil see DEVIL

talk out [phrasal verb] talk out (something) or talk (something) out : to talk about (something) in order to find a solution ▪ The teacher told him to talk out the problem.

talk out of [phrasal verb] 1 talk (someone) out of (something) : to prevent (someone) from doing (something) by talking about the good reasons for not doing it : to persuade or convince (someone) not to do (something) ▪ He talked her out of quitting school. 2 talk (yourself) out of (something) or talk your way out of (something) : to avoid (something unpleasant or undesirable) by saying things to make other people forgive or excuse you ▪ She talked herself out of trouble. = She talked her way out of trouble. [=she got herself out of trouble by talking] ▪ He talked his way out of staying to clean up after the party.

talk over [phrasal verb] talk (something) over or talk over (something) : to discuss (something) with someone in order to make a decision or reach an agreement ▪ We need some time to talk over the offer. — usually + with ▪ I need to talk it over with my wife, first.

talk someone's ear off US, informal : to talk to someone for a very long period of time ▪ He talks my ear off every time I call him.

talk (some) sense into/to see [1]SENSE talk the hind leg(s) off a donkey Brit, informal : to talk for a long time ▪ She rarely spoke, but her brother could talk the hind legs off a donkey. [=he was very talkative]

talk the same language see LANGUAGE talk the talk : to say that you will do things ▪ Sure, she talks the talk, but can she walk the walk? [=she says that she will do things, but will she actually do them?]

talk through [phrasal verb] 1 talk (someone) through (something) : to help (someone) understand or do something by explaining its steps in a careful way ▪ The woman on the phone talked me through the procedure. 2 talk (something) through : to discuss (something) with someone in order to make a decision or reach an agreement ▪ Have you talked this through with your family? 3 informal + old-fashioned ✧ If you are talking through your hat, you are saying incorrect, foolish, or illogical things. ▪ If he says that there's no problem, he's talking through his hat.

talk tough : to say that you will act in a forceful and aggressive way ▪ When the subject is national security, all the candidates talk tough. [=they say that they will act aggressively to support national security] — often + on ▪ The new mayor talks tough on crime.

talk trash see [1]TRASH

talk turkey see TURKEY

talk up [phrasal verb] talk up (someone or something) or talk (someone or something) up : to describe (someone or something) in a favorable way ▪ The salesperson talked up the car's safety features. ▪ He's being talked up as the next big pop star.

[2]talk noun, pl talks

1 [count] : an occurrence in which one person talks about something with another person : a conversation or discussion — often + about ▪ After a long talk about our relationship, we decided to get married. — often + with ▪ The boss would like to have a talk with you. — see also PEP TALK

2 [count] : the act of talking formally about something before a group of people : a speech or lecture — often + on ▪ He gave a talk on organic farming. ▪ She is preparing a talk on Christianity in the 21st century.

3 [count] : a formal discussion between two or more groups that are trying to reach an agreement about something — usually plural ▪ The country refuses to participate in talks on nuclear disarmament. ▪ a round of trade talks

4 [noncount] : a particular way of speaking ▪ I will not allow that kind of talk in my house. ▪ The movie has plenty of action and tough talk. ▪ street talk [=a way of speaking that is associated with people who live in a poor part of a city] ▪ straight talk [=speech that is very honest and direct] — see also SHOPTALK

5 [noncount] a : discussion about what might happen ▪ There has been some talk of further delays. [=some people have been saying that there will/may be further delays] ▪ I've been hearing talk that she plans to run for president. b : the act of talking about a subject with another person or group : discussion or conversation ▪ When they get together, the talk always turns to [=they always talk about] their years together in high school.

6 [noncount] : the things people say about what they want to do or are going to do ▪ It's not just talk. I'm serious about moving out. ▪ If we're ever going to solve these problems, we need less talk and more action. ▪ The town's last mayor was all talk (and no action). [=the mayor talked about doing things but never actually did them] ▪ Talk is cheap. [=it is easy to say that you will do something] I need to see results.

talk the talk see [1]TALK

the talk of the town : a person or thing that many people in a town, city, etc., are talking about in an interested or excited way ▪ Last year at this time no one had ever heard of him, but now he's the talk of the town. ▪ The new restaurant is the talk of the town.

– see also BABY TALK, DOUBLE-TALK, PILLOW TALK, SMALL TALK

talk•a•tive /ˈtɑːkətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to talk a lot or to enjoy having conversations with people ▪ Their little boy is very talkative. ▪ She was in a talkative mood.

talk•er /ˈtɑːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who talks in a particular way or who talks a lot ▪ That little girl is quite a talker. I don't think she's stopped talking since she got in the car. ▪ He's not much of a talker. ▪ He's more of a talker than a doer. [=he often talks about doing things without actually doing them] ▪ She is a great/fast/loud talker. ▪ a smooth talker [=a person who tends to flatter people]

talk•ie /ˈtɑːki/ noun, pl -ies [count] old-fashioned : a movie with sound — often plural ▪ The era of silent movies ended when talkies were introduced. — see also WALKIE-TALKIE talking head noun, pl ~ heads [count] : a person who gives information or opinions on a television show and whose head and shoulders are shown on the television screen ▪ The debate was followed by hours of talking heads analyzing the candidates' performances.

talking point noun, pl ~ points [count] : a particular subject, idea, etc., that is part of a discussion ▪ We have several talking points we need to cover. ▪ I have a list of talking points here that support my case.

talking shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] Brit : a place where people talk about doing things but do not actually achieve anything — usually singular ▪ She complained that Parliament had come to be an ineffective talking shop.

talk•ing–to /ˈtɑːkɪŋˌtuː/ noun [singular] informal : an angry or serious conversation in which you criticize someone's behavior ▪ We gave our daughter a good/stern talking-to about her poor grades.

talk radio noun [noncount] chiefly US : radio programs in which people talk about politics, sports, etc., and listeners can make phone calls to give their opinions ▪ He listens to business/sports talk radio in the car.

talk show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a radio or television program in which usually well-known people talk about something or are interviewed ▪ She asked the actor to appear

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

on her talk show. ▪ a famous talk-show host — called also (Brit) chat show

talky /ˈtɑːki/ adj talk•i•er; -est somewhat informal 1 : tending or wanting to talk : TALKATIVE ▪ She was in a talky mood.
2 : having a lot of talking ▪ a talky movie [=a movie in which people do a lot of talking]

tall /ˈtɑːl/ adj tall•er; -est
1 : greater in height than the average person, building, etc. ▪ All the children in my family grew up to be very tall. ▪ My mother is short but my father is fairly tall. ▪ The giraffe is the tallest animal. ▪ tall trees ▪ the tallest [=highest] mountain ▪ the world's tallest building ▪ The drinks were served in tall glasses. — opposite SHORT synonyms see [1]HIGH 2 always used after a noun : having a specified height ▪ She is five feet tall. ▪ The building is six stories tall. [=high] stand tall see [1]STAND walk tall see [1]WALK

tall order noun [singular] informal : something that is very difficult to do ▪ Getting the project done on schedule is going to be a tall order. ▪ That's a (pretty/very) tall order. = That's a tall order to fill.

tal•low /ˈtæloʊ/ noun [noncount] : fat from cattle and sheep that is used chiefly to make candles and soap tall ship noun, pl ∼ ships [count] : a very large sailing ship with at least two masts tall tale noun, pl ∼ tales [count] : a story that is very difficult to believe : a greatly exaggerated story ▪ They sat around the campfire telling tall tales about their hunting adventures. — called also tall story

[1]tal•ly /ˈtæli/ noun, pl -lies [count]
1 a : a recorded count of scores, votes, etc. ▪ What is the final tally? b : a record of money that has been paid and money that has been received ▪ He kept a daily/running tally [=account] of his expenses.
2 US, informal : a score or point made in a game or sport ▪ Her second goal turned out to be the game-winning tally.

[2]tally verb tal•lies; tal•lied; tal•ly•ing
1 [+ obj] : to record and count or calculate (something) ▪ He tallied his expenses every day. — often + up ▪ They carefully tallied up the cost of the repairs. ▪ They tallied up the results of the vote.
2 [no obj] : to agree or match ▪ The numbers on the old list and the new list don't tally. — usually + with ▪ The old numbers don't tally with the new numbers.
3 [+ obj] US, informal : to score (a goal, point, etc.) in a game or sport ▪ She tallied [=scored] her second goal just before the end of the period.

Tal•mud /ˈtɑːlˌmʊd/ noun
the Talmud : the writings that declare Jewish law and tradition ▪ They consulted the Talmud. — compare TORAH – Tal•mu•dic /tælˈmuːdɪk/ adj ▪ Talmudic scholars

tal•on /ˈtælən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : one of the sharp claws on the feet of some birds ▪ The hawk gripped the mouse in its talons. ▪ the owl's talons

ta•ma•le /təˈmɑːli/ noun, pl -les [count] : a Mexican food that consists of seasoned ground meat or beans rolled in cornmeal, wrapped in a corn husk, and steamed tam•bou•rine /ˌtæmbəˈriːn/ noun, pl -rines [count] : a small musical instrument that is held in one hand and played by shaking or hitting it with the other hand — see picture at PERCUSSION

[1]tame /ˈteɪm/ adj tam•er; -est [also more ∼; most ∼]
1 a : not wild : trained to obey people ▪ a tame elephant b : not afraid of people ▪ The island's birds are quite tame.
2 : not exciting or interesting : DULL ▪ They ran a pretty/quite/rather tame campaign. ▪ Some people were shocked by the movie, but I found the story pretty tame.
3 : gentle and obedient ▪ Members of the audience were too tame to interrupt the speaker.
– tame•ly adv – tame•ness noun [noncount]

[2]tame verb tames; tamed; tam•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (an animal) tame ▪ It took a while to tame the horse.
2 : to make (something) less wild or difficult to control : to bring (something) under control ▪ the people who tamed the Wild West ▪ He struggled to tame his temper. ▪ The government needs to do something to tame inflation.
– tamed adj ▪ a tamed animal – tam•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a lion/tiger tamer

tamp /ˈtæmp/ verb tamps; tamped; tamp•ing [+ obj] : to press (something) down by hitting it lightly — often + down ▪ He tamped down the soil with his foot. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She tried to tamp down the rumors.

tam•per /ˈtæmpə/ verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing tamper with [phrasal verb] tamper with (something) : to change or touch (something) especially in a way that causes damage or harm ▪ Someone tampered with the lock. ▪ The evidence has been tampered with.

tam•per•proof /ˈtæmpəˌpruːf/ adj : designed so that tampering cannot occur ▪ pills that come in tamperproof packaging

tam•pon /ˈtæmˌpɑːn/ noun, pl -pons [count] : a piece of soft material (such as cotton) that is placed in the vagina to absorb the blood that occurs during menstruation — compare SANITARY NAPKIN

[1]tan /ˈtæn/ noun, pl tans
1 [count] : a browning of the skin that is caused by the sun's rays ▪ She has a nice tan. [=suntan] ▪ I got a tan on my vacation.
2 [count, noncount] : a light brown color — see color picture on page C3

[2]tan verb tans; tanned; tan•ning
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (skin) to become darker especially from being exposed to the sun's rays ▪ The sun tanned her skin. [=the sun made her skin tan] b [no obj] : to become darker especially from being exposed to the sun's rays ▪ My skin tans easily. = I tan easily. — see also TANNED, TANNING
2 [+ obj] : to change (the skin of an animal) into leather by a chemical process ▪ tan the hides
3 [+ obj] informal + old-fashioned : to beat or whip (someone) very badly ▪ He threatened to tan my hide if I didn't do what he told me to do.

[3]tan adj [more ∼; most ∼]
1 : having skin that has been made darker by being exposed to the sun's rays ▪ I can't believe how tan she is!
2 : having a light brown color ▪ a tan coat ▪ a horse with tan markings tan•dem /ˈtændəm/ noun, pl -dems [count]

1 : TANDEM BICYCLE
2 chiefly US : a group of two people or things that work together or are associated with each other ▪ The team has a tandem of talented guards. ▪ He and his partner make/form quite a tandem. [=duo] in tandem of two people, groups, or things : working or happening together or at the same time ▪ They moved in tandem. ▪ The two products can be used alone or in tandem. ▪ They're working in tandem with scientists from England to find a cure.

tandem bicycle noun, pl ∼ -cycles [count] : a bicycle built for two riders with one sitting behind the other tan•doori /tɑnˈduri/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to an Indian method of cooking meat over charcoal in a clay oven ▪ tandoori chicken ▪ a tandoori oven tang /ˈtæŋ/ noun [singular] : a strong, sharp taste or smell ▪ the salt tang in the air ▪ a dish with a tang of citrus – tangy /ˈtæŋi/ adj tang•i•er; -est ▪ tangy salt air ▪ a tangy flavor/sauce tan•gent /ˈtændʒənt/ noun, pl -gents [count] geometry : a line that touches a sphere or circle at only one point go off on a tangent (US) or Brit go off at a tangent : to start talking about something that is only slightly or indirectly related to the original subject ▪ She went off on a tangent about what happened to her last summer.

tan•gen•tial /tænˈdʒɛnʃəl/ adj
1 formal : slightly or indirectly related to something : not closely connected to something ▪ Their romance is tangential to the book's main plot. ▪ a tangential point
2 geometry : relating to a tangent : in or along a tangent ▪ tangential force – tan•gen•tial•ly adv ▪ tangentially related/involved

tan•ger•ine /ˈtændʒəˌriːn/ noun, pl -ines
1 [count] : a small, sweet fruit that is like an orange with a loose skin which is easy to remove 2 [noncount] : a deep orange-yellow color — see color picture on page C3 – tangerine adj ▪ a room with tangerine walls

tan•gi•ble /ˈtændʒəbəl/ adj
1 : easily seen or recognized ▪ tangible benefits/results ▪ There is no tangible evidence to support her claim.
2 : able to be touched or felt ▪ tangible objects ▪ the company's tangible assets [=its buildings, equipment, etc.] ▪ Their sense of relief was almost tangible. — opposite INTANGIBLE

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

– tan•gi•bil•i•ty /ˌtænʤəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] – tan•gi•bly /ˈtænʤəbli/ adv ▪ tangibly real

[1]tan•gle /ˈtæŋgəl/ verb tan•gles; tan•gled; tan•gling : to become or cause (something) to become twisted together [+ obj] Don't tangle the yarn. ▪ Her foot was tangled (up) in the cord. — often used figuratively ▪ He got tangled up in legal problems. [no obj] This fishing line tangles easily. — see also TANGLED tangle with [phrasal verb] tangle with (someone or something) informal : to fight or argue with (someone or something) ▪ He's not someone I would want to tangle with.

[2]tangle noun, pl tangles [count]

1 : a twisted knot of hair, thread, etc. : SNARL ▪ a tangle of string/vines ▪ She brushed the tangles out of her hair.

2 : a state of disorder or confusion ▪ They got caught in a legal/financial tangle.

3 informal : a fight or disagreement ▪ He got into a tangle with police.

tangled adj

1 : twisted together into a knot ▪ tangled yarn/hair

2 : complicated or confusing ▪ a tangled plot ▪ their tangled finances

[1]tan•go /ˈtæŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] : a Latin-American dance in which couples make long pauses in difficult positions ▪ We danced a/the tango.; also : the music used for this dance ▪ The band played a tango.

[2]tango verb -gos; -goed; -go•ing [no obj] : to dance the tango ▪ He's trying to learn how to tango.

it takes two to tango see [1]TAKE 12

[1]tank /ˈtæŋk/ noun, pl tanks [count]

1 a : a container for holding a liquid or gas ▪ a water/oil/fuel tank ▪ fish tanks ▪ I filled the (gas) tank before I left for Maine. — see pictures at CAR, SCUBA DIVING; see also SEPTIC TANK, THINK TANK b : the amount that a tank will hold ▪ We went through a tank [=tankful] of gas on the trip.

2 : a military vehicle that moves on two large metal belts with wheels inside them and that is covered in heavy armor tank

in/into the tank US, informal : in or into a very bad state or condition ▪ The economy is in the tank right now. ▪ The team went into the tank [=got much worse; became very unsuccessful] last season.

– tank•ful /ˈtæŋkˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ a tankful of gas

[2]tank verb tanks; tanked; tank•ing US, informal

1 [no obj] : to be very unsuccessful : to fail completely ▪ The movie tanked.

2 : to make no effort to win a contest (such as a tennis match) : to deliberately lose a game, match, etc. [+ obj] Some people say she deliberately tanked the match. [no obj] Some people have accused her of tanking.

tank up [phrasal verb] US, informal : to fill a vehicle with fuel ▪ We should tank up [=fill up] before we leave.

– see also TANKED

tan•kard /ˈtæŋkəd/ noun, pl -kards [count] : a large, metal cup for drinking beer that has a handle and often an attached lid ▪ a tankard of ale tanked (US) /ˈtæŋkt/ or chiefly Brit tanked up adj, not used before a noun, informal : very drunk ▪ He got tanked at the party.

tank•er /ˈtæŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a vehicle (such as a ship, truck, or airplane) that is designed to carry liquids — see pictures at SHIP, TRUCK; see also OIL TANKER, SUPERTANKER tank top noun, pl ~ tops [count]

1 US : a shirt that has no sleeves or collar and usually has wide shoulder straps — see color picture on page C14

2 Brit : SWEATER VEST

tanned /ˈtænd/ adj : having skin that has been made darker by the sun ▪ He's tanned and rested after his vacation.

tan•ner /ˈtænə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a person who tans animal skins to make leather tan•nery /ˈtænəri/ noun, pl -ner•ies [count] : a place where animal skins are tanned and made into leather

tan•nic acid /ˈtænɪk-/ noun [noncount] : TANNIN

tan•nin /ˈtænən/ noun, pl -nins [count, noncount] : a reddish acid that comes from plants, is used in making ink and leather, and occurs in various foods and drinks (such as wine) — called also tannic acid

tan•ning /ˈtænɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of darkening your skin by exposing it to the bright light of the sun or a special type of lamp ▪ indoor tanning ▪ tanning oils/lotions tanning bed noun, pl ~ beds [count] US : a machine that people lie in while being exposed to bright light in order to darken their skin — called also (chiefly Brit) sunbed

tanning booth noun, pl ~ booths [count] chiefly US : a machine that people stand in while being exposed to bright light in order to darken their skin tan•ta•lize also Brit tan•ta•lise /ˈtæntəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel interest or excitement about something that is very attractive, appealing, etc. ▪ She was tantalized by the possibility of earning a lot of money quickly.

– tan•ta•liz•ing also Brit tan•ta•lis•ing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ the tantalizing aroma of baking bread ▪ a tantalizing glimpse into their lives – tan•ta•liz•ing•ly also Brit tan•ta•lis•ing•ly adv ▪ I came tantalizingly close to victory.

tan•ta•mount /ˈtæntəˌmaʊnt/ adj : equal to something in value, meaning, or effect ▪ His statement was tantamount to an admission of guilt. ▪ They see any criticism of the President as tantamount to treason.

tan•trum /ˈtæntrəm/ noun, pl -trums [count] : an uncontrolled expression of childish anger : an angry outburst by a child or by someone who is behaving like a child ▪ When he doesn't get his way, he has/throws a tantrum. [=he gets very angry and upset and behaves like a child] ▪ a temper tantrum

Tao /ˈdaʊ/ noun [noncount] : the source and guiding principle of all reality according to Taoism

Tao•ism /ˈdaʊˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a Chinese philosophy based on the writings of Lao-tzu that stresses living simply and honestly and in harmony with nature

– Tao•ist /ˈdaʊɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

[1]tap /ˈtæp/ verb taps; tapped; tap•ping

1 : to hit (someone or something) lightly especially with a small sound [+ obj] He was tapping the desk with a pencil. ▪ He tapped her (on the) shoulder to get her attention. [no obj] Go tap on a window and see if anyone is home.

2 : to hit (your fingers, feet, etc.) against something lightly [+ obj] He was tapping a pencil on the desk. ▪ She tapped her foot to (the beat of) the music. [no obj] Her foot was tapping to the music.

3 [+ obj] chiefly US : to choose (someone) for a particular job, honor, etc. — often + for ▪ She was tapped for police commissioner. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She was tapped to be police commissioner.

tap in/into [phrasal verb] tap (something) in or tap in (something) or tap (something) in/into (something) : to put (information) into a machine (such as a computer or telephone) by pushing buttons ▪ She tapped in my name and found my account records. ▪ He tapped the numbers into the calculator.

tap out [phrasal verb] tap (something) out or tap out (something) 1 : to follow the pattern of (something, such as a rhythm) by tapping on a surface ▪ She tapped out the beat with her feet. 2 : to press buttons on a computer or typewriter to write (something) ▪ He quickly tapped out a memo.

– compare [4]TAP

[2]tap noun, pl taps [count]

1 : a light hit or touch or the sound that it makes ▪ There was a tap at the door. ▪ I felt a tap on my shoulder. [=someone tapped my shoulder]

2 : a small metal plate on the sole or heel of a shoe used for tap dancing

– compare [3]TAP

[3]tap noun, pl taps [count]

1 : a device for controlling the flow of a liquid or gas from a pipe or container: such as a : FAUCET ▪ turn on/off the tap ▪ the hot/cold tap ▪ a bathroom/kitchen tap ✧ In British English, tap is the usual word for this device. In U.S. English, tap is also commonly used in this way, but faucet is more common. — see pictures at BATHROOM, KITCHEN; see also TAP WATER b : SPIGOT 1 ▪ the tap on a beer keg

2 : a device that allows someone to secretly listen to phone conversations ▪ There was a tap on her phone. — called also wiretap

on tap 1 : served from a barrel ▪ beer on tap 2 : available

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

whenever you need it ▪ The hotel has Internet service on tap. 3 US : planned or scheduled to happen ▪ I called to find out what's on tap for the weekend.
– compare [2]TAP; see also SPINAL TAP

[4]tap verb taps; tapped; tapping
1 : to take or use money, knowledge, etc., from a source [+ obj] tap the nation's resources [no obj] We need to tap into new markets. — often used figuratively ▪ The story taps into powerful emotions.
2 [+ obj] : to make liquid flow from something by attaching a special device (called a spigot or tap), making or opening a hole, etc. ▪ tap a keg ▪ tapping maple trees for their sap = tapping sap from maple trees
3 [+ obj] : to place a device on (someone's phone) in order to secretly listen to telephone calls ▪ The FBI tapped her phone.
4 [+ obj] : to get something useful or valuable from (someone) — usually + for ▪ He tried to tap me for a loan. [=tried to get me to give him a loan]
– compare [1]TAP

tap dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] : a kind of dance in which you wear special shoes with metal plates on the heels and toes and make tapping sounds with your feet
– tap–dance verb -dances; -danced; -dancing [no obj] – tap dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – tap dancing noun [noncount]

[1]tape /teɪp/ noun, pl tapes
1 [noncount] : a long, narrow piece of material that is sticky on one side and that is used to stick things together or to cover or repair something ▪ adhesive/packing tape ▪ a piece of tape ▪ His eyeglasses are held together with tape. — see also DUCT TAPE, MASKING TAPE
2 a [noncount] : a thin piece of plastic that is coated with magnetic material on which information (such as sound or television images) may be stored ▪ The show was recorded on tape. — called also magnetic tape b [count] : something recorded on tape ▪ We watched a tape [=recording] of a program/concert. ▪ I was listening to a tape in the car. — called also tape recording c [count] : a thin case that contains a long piece of magnetic tape on which something is recorded : CASSETTE ▪ an audio tape ▪ She stuck a tape in the VCR. — see also VIDEOTAPE
3 the tape : a long, thin piece of material that is stretched across the finish line of a race ▪ She broke the tape [=she finished first in the race] in record time.
4 [count] : TAPE MEASURE
5 [noncount] : a long, thin piece of plastic, paper, or cloth ▪ The crime scene was marked off with yellow police tape.
– see also RED TAPE, TICKER TAPE

[2]tape verb tapes; taped; tap•ing [+ obj]
1 : to attach (something) using sticky tape ▪ She taped a note to/on the refrigerator.
2 : to fasten, tie, or cover (something) with tape ▪ I taped the box shut. ▪ He taped (up) the ends of the wire.
3 : to record (something) on magnetic tape ▪ The show is taped before a live audience. ▪ a taped interview
4 chiefly US : to wrap (an injured body part) tightly with long pieces of special cloth ▪ The doctor taped (up) her ankle.
have (someone) taped Brit, informal : to completely understand (someone) : to know how to deal with (someone) ▪ She has him taped. = She's got him taped.

tape deck noun, pl ~ decks [count] : a machine that plays and records sounds on magnetic tape ▪ a stereo system that includes a tape deck

tape measure noun, pl ~ -sures [count] : a long, thin piece of plastic, cloth, or metal that is marked with units of length (such as inches or centimeters) and that is used for measuring things — called also measuring tape; see pictures at CARPENTRY, SEWING tape player noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a machine that is used to play sound that has been recorded on magnetic tapes

[1]ta•per /'teɪpə/ verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [no obj] : to become gradually smaller toward one end ▪ leaves that taper to a point ▪ Her slacks taper [=become narrower] at the ankle.
taper off [phrasal verb] : to become gradually less and less : to decrease slowly ▪ Production has been tapering off.
– tapered adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ tapered slacks

[2]taper noun, pl -pers
1 [count] a : a piece of string covered with wax that is used for lighting lamps, candles, etc. b : a long, thin candle
2 [singular] : the shape of something that becomes gradually smaller toward one end ▪ The taper of her slacks is not flattering.

tape–re•cord /ˌteɪprɪ'koəd/ verb -cords; -cord•ed; -cord•ing [+ obj] : to make a recording of (something) on magnetic tape ▪ tape-record a concert tape recorder noun, pl ~ -ders [count] : a machine used to record and play sound on magnetic tape tape recording noun, pl ~ -dings [count] : [1]TAPE 2b ▪ a tape recording of the concert

tap•es•try /'tæpəstri/ noun, pl -tries [count]
1 : a heavy cloth that has designs or pictures woven into it and that is used for wall hangings, curtains, etc. ▪ an ancient/medieval tapestry
2 : something made up of different things, people, colors, etc. — often + of ▪ a tapestry of ideas ▪ the rich tapestry of life in the city ▪ (chiefly Brit) Whether you win or lose, it's all part of life's rich tapestry.
– tap•es•tried /'tæpəstrid/ adj ▪ tapestried halls tape•worm /'teɪpˌwəm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a long, flat worm that lives in the intestines of people and animals

tap•i•o•ca /ˌtæpi'oʊkə/ noun [noncount]
1 : the small, white grains of the cassava plant
2 : a dessert made by cooking tapioca grains usually with milk, eggs, and sugar — called also tapioca pudding

ta•pir /'teɪpə/ noun, pl tapir or ta•pirs [count] : an animal that is like a pig with a long nose and short legs and that lives in tropical America and Southeast Asia

tap•root /'tæpˌru:t/ noun, pl -roots [count] : the large main root of a plant from which smaller roots grow taps /'tæps/ noun [plural] US, military : a song played on a bugle at military funerals and at night as a signal for soldiers to go to bed

tap water noun [noncount] : water that comes through pipes from the public water system

[1]tar /'tɑə/ noun, pl tars [count, noncount]
1 : a very thick, black, sticky liquid made from coal that becomes hard when it cools and that is used especially for road surfaces — see also COAL TAR
2 : a sticky substance that is formed by burning tobacco ▪ low-tar cigarettes

[2]tar verb tars; tarred; tar•ring [+ obj] : to cover (something) with tar ▪ tar a roadway tar and feather (someone) 1 : to cover (someone) with tar and then with feathers as an old-fashioned punishment 2 informal : to punish (someone) very severely ▪ If I don't get home in time, Mom will tar and feather me.
tar (someone) with the same brush : to think that (someone) has the same bad qualities and deserves the same blame or criticism as another person because of being connected or associated with that person in some way ▪ It's a shame that when a few people get caught cheating everyone else gets tarred with the same brush.

ta•ran•tu•la /tə'rænʧələ/ noun, pl -las [count] : a large, hairy spider that lives in warm regions — see color picture on page C10 tar•dy /'tɑədi/ adj tar•di•er; -est formal

1 : slow in moving, acting, or happening ▪ tardy progress
2 a : done or happening late ▪ a tardy payment/arrival b : arriving or doing something late ▪ tardy students ▪ She was tardy to/for work. ▪ They were tardy in filing the application.
– tar•di•ly /'tɑədəli/ adv ▪ arrived/responded tardily – tar•di•ness /'tɑədinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ Please excuse my tardiness.

[1]tar•get /'tɑəgət/ noun, pl -gets [count]
1 : something that you are trying to do or achieve ▪ We failed to meet/reach this month's sales targets. [=goals] ▪ Our target amount for the fund-raiser is $2,500. ▪ They set a target date of May 31.
2 : a place, thing, or person at which an attack is aimed ▪ Planes struck at key military targets. ▪ He was a favorite target of the media. [=the media often attacked/criticized him] ▪ Her policies have been a target for/of criticism. [=criticism has been aimed/directed at her policies] ▪ Tourists are often easy targets for thieves. ▪ The bullet found its target. [=the bullet hit the target it was aimed at] — often used figuratively ▪ Men in this age group are prime targets for heart disease. [=are more likely than most other people to be affected by heart disease]
3 : the person or group that someone is trying to influence, sell something to, etc. — often used before another noun ▪ Their target audience/market is teenagers.
4 : something (such as a round board with circles on it) that you try to hit with arrows, bullets, etc. ▪ I aimed at the target and fired. ▪ a moving target ▪ target shooting/practice

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

off target 1 : not correct or accurate ▪ Her accusations are way off target. 2 : not likely to reach a goal ▪ We are off target in terms of sales this quarter.

on target 1 : correct or accurate ▪ His predictions are always on target. 2 : likely to reach a goal ▪ We are on target to meet this month's sales goals.

[2]target verb -gets; -get•ed; -get•ing [+ obj]
1 : to aim an attack at someone or something ▪ The missile attacks targeted [=were aimed at] major cities. = The missiles were targeted [=aimed] at major cities. ▪ Thieves often target tourists. ▪ drugs that target cancer cells ▪ He has frequently been targeted by the media. [=he has been the target of frequent attacks by the media]
2 : to direct an action, message, etc., at someone or something ▪ The commercial is targeted [=aimed] at children. ▪ government programs that are targeted at low-income areas = government programs that target low-income areas tar•iff /ˈterəf/ noun, pl -iffs [count]

1 : a tax on goods coming into or leaving a country
2 chiefly Brit : a list of prices charged by a hotel or restaurant for meals, rooms, etc., or by a public company for gas, electricity, etc.

tar•mac /ˈtɑɚˌmæk/ noun
the tarmac : the area covered by pavement at an airport ▪ airplanes parked on the tarmac

Tar•mac /ˈtɑɚˌmæk/ trademark — used for a paving material made of layers of crushed stone covered with tar tarn /ˈtɑən/ noun, pl tarns [count] : a small lake among mountains

[1]tar•nish /ˈtɑənɪʃ/ verb -nish•es; -nished; -nish•ing
1 : to become or cause (metal) to become dull and not shiny [no obj] Silver tarnishes easily. [+ obj] Some foods will tarnish silver.
2 [+ obj] : to damage or ruin the good quality of (something, such as a person's reputation, image, etc.) ▪ His actions tarnished [=sullied] the family's good name. ▪ The scandal tarnished his reputation.
– tarnished adj ▪ tarnished silverware ▪ the company's tarnished image

[2]tarnish noun [singular, noncount] : a thin layer on the surface of metal which makes the metal look dull ▪ a polish that removes tarnish

ta•ro /ˈtɑroʊ, ˈteroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count, noncount] : a tropical plant with a thick root that can be boiled and eaten tar•ot /ˈteroʊ/ noun [singular] : a set of 78 cards with pictures and symbols that is used to see what will happen in the future ▪ reading the tarot ▪ tarot cards

tarp /ˈtɑəp/ noun, pl tarps [count] US : TARPAULIN

tar paper noun [noncount] US : a heavy type of paper covered with tar that is used especially in roofs tar•pau•lin /tɑəˈpɑːlən/ noun, pl -lins [count] : a large piece of waterproof material (such as plastic or canvas) that is used to cover things and keep them dry tar•ra•gon /ˈterəˌgɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a small European herb that is used to flavor food

[1]tar•ry /ˈteri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [no obj] literary : to be slow in going : to stay somewhere : LINGER ▪ He tarried over breakfast. ▪ Tarry with us a while.

[2]tar•ry /ˈtɑri/ adj
1 : covered with tar ▪ a tarry surface
2 : dark or thick like tar ▪ a tarry substance tar•sus /ˈtɑəsəs/ noun, pl tar•si /ˈtɑəˌsaɪ/ [count] technical : the ankle or one of the seven small bones in the ankle

– tar•sal /ˈtɑəsəl/ adj

[1]tart /ˈtɑət/ noun, pl tarts [count]
1 : an open pie that usually has a sweet filling (such as fruit or custard) ▪ an apple tart
2 informal + disapproving a : a woman who wears very sexy clothing and has sex with many men b : PROSTITUTE

[2]tart adj tart•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having a sharp or sour taste ▪ a tart apple/cherry ▪ The wine is rather tart.
2 : having a sharp and unkind quality ▪ a tart reply ▪ tart criticism – tart•ly adv ▪ "Be quiet," she told him tartly. – tart•ness noun [noncount]

[3]tart verb tarts; tart•ed; tart•ing tart up [phrasal verb] tart (someone) up informal : to try to make (yourself or someone else) attractive by wearing fancy clothes, makeup, etc. ▪ She tarted herself up for the party. = She got tarted up for the party. — often used figuratively in British English ▪ old ideas tarted up to look new tar•tan /ˈtɑətn/ noun, pl -tans

1 [count] : a traditional Scottish cloth pattern of stripes in different colors and widths that cross each other to form squares ▪ a kilt in the clan's tartan
2 [count, noncount] : fabric with a tartan pattern

[1]tar•tar /ˈtɑətɚ/ noun [noncount] : a hard substance that forms on teeth — compare [2]TARTAR; see also CREAM OF TARTAR

[2]tartar noun, pl -tars [count] informal + old-fashioned : a person who is often angry or violent ▪ Her husband sounds like a real tartar. — compare [1]TARTAR tar•tar sauce (US) or Brit tar•tare sauce /ˈtɑətɚ-/ noun [noncount] : a sauce that is made of mayonnaise and chopped pickles and that is often served with fish

tarty /ˈtɑəti/ adj tart•i•er; -est informal + disapproving : trying to appear sexy in an improper or offensive way ▪ a tarty outfit

[1]task /ˈtæsk/ noun, pl tasks [count] : a piece of work that has been given to someone : a job for someone to do ▪ a daunting/difficult/impossible task ▪ complete/accomplish a task ▪ performing simple/routine tasks ▪ Our first/main task is to review the budget. ▪ This is not an easy task. = This is no easy task. ▪ I need to concentrate on the task at hand. [=the work I'm doing right now] — see also MULTITASKING take (someone) to task : to criticize (someone) harshly ▪ The boss took me to task for wasting time.

> synonyms TASK, DUTY, JOB, and CHORE mean a piece of work that has to be done. TASK suggests work given to you by someone who has authority. ▪ The boss used to give me all the hard tasks. DUTY stresses that someone is responsible for doing the work. ▪ The duty of the police is to protect the people. JOB may suggest that the work is necessary, hard, or important. ▪ We all have to do our jobs. CHORE suggests a small, ordinary piece of work that is done regularly. ▪ Taking out the garbage is a daily chore.

[2]task verb tasks; tasked; task•ing [+ obj] : to assign (someone) a piece of work : to give (someone) a job to do — usually used as (be) tasked with ▪ She was tasked with proofreading the manuscript.

task•bar noun, pl -bars [count] computers : a narrow band across the bottom of a computer screen that shows which programs are running and which documents are open — see picture at COMPUTER; compare TOOLBAR task force noun, pl ~ forces [count]

1 : a group of people who deal with a specific problem ▪ a crime-fighting task force ▪ They appointed a task force to review the situation.
2 : a military force that is sent to a particular place to deal with a problem task•mas•ter /ˈtæskˌmæstɚ, Brit ˈtɑːskˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who assigns work to other people ▪ He's a hard/tough/stern taskmaster.

tas•sel /ˈtæsəl/ noun, pl -sels [count]
1 : a decoration made of a bunch of strings fastened at one end ▪ shoes with tassels
2 : a flower or group of flowers at the top of a cornstalk – tas•seled (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit tas•selled /ˈtæsəld/ adj ▪ tasseled loafers/pillows/shoes

tassel

[1]taste /ˈteɪst/ noun, pl tastes
1 [count] : the sweet, sour, bitter, or salty quality of a thing that you can sense when it is in your mouth : the flavor that you can taste when you eat or drink something ▪ The wine had a slightly bitter taste. ▪ She likes the taste of apples and cinnamon. ▪ I detected a strong taste of ginger in the sauce. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The experience left a bad taste in my mouth. [=the experience made me feel bad, disgusted, etc.]
2 [noncount] : the ability to notice or recognize flavors when you eat or drink : the ability to taste things ▪ The food was very pleasing to the taste. [=the food tasted very good] ▪ The illness affected her sense of taste.
3 [count] : a small amount of food or drink that you have in order to see how it tastes — usually singular ▪ May I have a taste of your ice cream?
4 [singular] : something (such as a brief experience) that gives you some knowledge about what something is like — usually + of ▪ It was her first taste of success. ▪ That first

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 12:01:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

storm was just a taste of things to come. [=that storm was followed by many other storms]

5 : the feelings that each person has about what is appealing, attractive, etc. : the feelings that cause someone to like or not like something [noncount] He has no/little taste for gossip. [=he does not like gossip] ▪ The movie was not to their taste. [=they did not like the movie] ▪ The movie is intended to appeal to popular taste. [=to be liked by many or most people] ▪ Whether you like the music or not is purely a matter of taste. [=a matter of opinion] [count] She has developed/acquired a taste for Italian wine. ▪ Different people have different tastes. ▪ They have expensive tastes. [=they like expensive things] ▪ The store has something to suit all tastes. ▪ The music is too loud for my taste. [=the music is louder than I prefer it to be] — see also acquired taste at ACQUIRE

6 [noncount] a : the ability to choose what is appealing, attractive, appropriate, or enjoyable ▪ She is a person of taste. ▪ The way he dresses shows that he has no taste. ▪ She has good/poor taste in music. ▪ The room was decorated with taste. [=the room was tastefully decorated] b — used in phrases to say that something (such as a person's speech or behavior) is or is not proper and acceptable ▪ I think the joke he told was in (very) bad/poor taste. [=was offensive] ▪ Some people felt that her behavior wasn't in good taste.

a taste of your own medicine see MEDICINE to taste : in an amount that results in the taste that you want — used in recipes to indicate how much salt, pepper, etc., should be added to food ▪ Salt the stew to taste.

[2]taste verb tastes; tast•ed; tast•ing

1 not used in progressive tenses [linking verb] : to have a particular taste ▪ This milk tastes sour. ▪ The pie tasted too sweet. ▪ The wine tastes like vinegar. ▪ This sauce tastes good/bad. ▪ a sweet-tasting fruit — sometimes + of ▪ The salad tastes of garlic.

2 [+ obj] a : to sense the flavor of (something that you are eating or drinking) ▪ She said there was garlic in the sauce, but I couldn't really taste it. ▪ Have you ever tasted anything so delicious? b : to put a small amount of (food or drink) in your mouth in order to find out what its flavor is ▪ I tasted the tea and put more sugar in it. ▪ She offered to taste the wine. ▪ He tasted the tea to see if it was sweet enough. c not used in progressive tenses : EAT ▪ This is the first food I've tasted since yesterday.

3 [+ obj] : to experience (something) ▪ She talked about the day when she first tasted the joy of flying. ▪ He has tasted the frustration of defeat. ▪ The team has yet to taste victory/defeat.

taste blood see BLOOD taste bud noun, pl ~ buds [count] : one of many small spots on your tongue that give you the ability to taste things taste•ful /ˈteɪstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : done or chosen with a knowledge of what is appealing, attractive, appropriate, or enjoyable : having or showing good taste ▪ a tasteful and attractive design ▪ tasteful decorations – taste•ful•ly adv ▪ The room was tastefully decorated. – taste•ful•ness noun [noncount]

taste•less /ˈteɪstləs/ adj

1 : not having much flavor ▪ a nearly tasteless broth ▪ tasteless vegetables

2 [more ~; most ~] : not having or showing good taste : not tasteful ▪ a very tasteless joke ▪ a vulgar and tasteless publicity stunt – taste•less•ly adv ▪ a tastelessly furnished room – taste•less•ness noun [noncount] taste•mak•er /ˈteɪstˌmeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose judgments about what is good, fashionable, etc., are accepted and followed by many other people ▪ She is one of the most powerful tastemakers in the fashion world.

tast•er /ˈteɪstɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who tastes foods or drinks to test their quality ▪ a food/wine taster

2 Brit, informal : a small amount or sample of something that you can try to see if you like it ▪ The magazine printed a taster of the author's new novel.

tasting noun, pl -ings [count] : a social event at which something (such as food or wine) is sampled and tasted ▪ a menu/wine tasting tasty /ˈteɪsti/ adj tast•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a good flavor : pleasing to the taste ▪ That was a very tasty [=delicious] meal.

2 informal a : very appealing or interesting ▪ a tasty [=juicy] bit of gossip b Brit : very attractive ▪ a tasty young woman/man
– tast•i•ly /ˈteɪstəli/ adv – tast•i•ness /ˈteɪstinəs/ noun [noncount]

tat /ˈtæt/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : items that are cheap and poorly made ▪ shops full of tat [=junk] — see also TIT FOR TAT ta–ta /ˌtæˈtɑ:/ interj, chiefly Brit, informal : GOODBYE ta•ter /ˈteɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] informal

1 : POTATO

2 baseball : HOME RUN

tat•tered /ˈtætɚd/ adj : old and torn : RAGGED ▪ a tattered flag ▪ a pile of old tattered books ▪ Her jeans were tattered. — often used figuratively ▪ He was left trying to restore his tattered image/pride. ▪ the tattered remains of her reputation tat•ters /ˈtætɚz/ noun [plural] : clothes that are old and badly torn ▪ Her clothes were reduced to tatters. ▪ They were dressed in tatters. [=in rags] — often used figuratively ▪ After the war, the economy was in tatters. [=was in a state of ruin] ▪ Her hopes lay in tatters.

tat•tie /ˈtæti/ noun, pl -ties [count] chiefly Scotland : POTATO

tat•tle /ˈtætl/ verb tat•tles; tat•tled; tat•tling [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to tell a parent, teacher, etc., about something bad or wrong that another child has done ▪ He saw his sister take a cookie and threatened to tattle (to their mother). — usually + on ▪ He tattled on her. — see also TITTLE-TATTLE
– tat•tler /ˈtætlɚ/ noun, pl tat•tlers [count] ▪ She's a crybaby and a tattler! [=tattletale]

tat•tle•tale /ˈtætlˌteɪl/ noun, pl -tales [count] chiefly US, informal + disapproving : a child who tells a parent, teacher, etc., about something bad or wrong that another child has done : a child who tattles on another child ▪ No one likes a tattletale. [=(Brit) telltale]

[1]tat•too /tæˈtu:/ noun, pl -toos [count] : a picture, word, etc., that is drawn on a person's skin by using a needle and ink ▪ He had a tattoo of a heart on his shoulder. ▪ a tattoo parlor [=a place where people go to get tattoos] — compare [3]TATTOO

[2]tattoo verb -toos; -tooed; -too•ing [+ obj] : to draw or write (a picture, word, etc.) on a part of someone's body by using a needle and ink ▪ A heart was tattooed on his arm. [=he had a tattoo of a heart on his arm]

[3]tattoo noun, pl -toos

1 [singular] : a rapid rhythmic beat ▪ The rain was beating a tattoo on the roof.

2 [count] Brit : an outdoor performance in the evening with music and marching by members of the military
– compare [1]TATTOO

tat•too•ist /tæˈtu:wɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person whose job is to draw tattoos on people's bodies — called also tattoo artist

tat•ty /ˈtæti/ adj tat•ti•er; -est informal : old and in poor condition : SHABBY ▪ a tatty old shirt/sweater taught past tense and past participle of TEACH taunt /ˈtɑ:nt/ verb taunts; taunt•ed; taunt•ing [+ obj] : to say insulting things to (someone) in order to make that person angry ▪ The boys continually taunted each other.

– taunt noun, pl taunts [count] ▪ He suffered the taunts of the other children. – taunt•er noun, pl -ers [count] – taunt•ing•ly /ˈtɑ:ntɪŋli/ adv

taupe /ˈtoʊp/ noun, pl taupes [count, noncount] : a brownish-gray color — see color picture on page C2

Tau•rus /ˈtorəs/ noun, pl -rus•es

1 [noncount] : the second sign of the zodiac that comes between Aries and Gemini and has a bull as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC

2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Taurus : a person born between April 20 and May 20 ▪ My friend is an Aries while I'm a Taurus.

taut /ˈtɑ:t/ adj taut•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : very tight from being pulled or stretched : not loose or slack ▪ The rope was drawn/pulled/stretched taut.

2 : firm and strong : not loose or flabby ▪ taut muscles

3 : very tense ▪ taut nerves ▪ The book is a taut thriller.
– taut•ly adv ▪ a rope pulled tautly – taut•ness noun [noncount] ▪ check the wire's tautness

taut•en /ˈtɑ:tn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to make (something) tight or taut or to become tight or taut [+ obj] They tautened the rope. [no obj] The wire tautened as they pulled on it.

tau•tol•o•gy /tɑˈtɑ:lədʒi/ noun, pl -gies : a statement in

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

which you repeat a word, idea, etc., in a way that is not necessary [count] "A beginner who has just started" is a tautology. [noncount] trying to avoid tautology
– tau•to•log•i•cal /ˌtɑːtəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ a tautological statement

tav•ern /ˈtævən/ noun, pl -erns [count]
1 : a place where alcoholic drinks are served : BAR
2 old-fashioned : a building that provides lodging and food for people who are traveling : INN

taw•dry /ˈtɑːdri/ adj taw•dri•er; -est disapproving
1 : having a cheap and ugly appearance ▪ tawdry [=tacky] decorations
2 : morally low or bad ▪ The scandal was a tawdry affair.
– taw•dri•ness /ˈtɑːdrinəs/ noun [noncount]

taw•ny /ˈtɑːni/ adj : having a brownish-orange color ▪ tawny fur

[1]tax /ˈtæks/ noun, pl taxes : an amount of money that a government requires people to pay according to their income, the value of their property, etc., and that is used to pay for the things done by the government [count] The decision was made to raise/cut taxes. ▪ He was accused of evading taxes. ▪ What was your income before/after taxes? — often + on ▪ a tax on tobacco products [noncount] What is the amount of tax to be paid? ▪ What was your income before/after tax? ▪ tax deductions/laws/rates — see also INCOME TAX, POLL TAX, PRETAX, SALES TAX, SURTAX, VALUE-ADDED TAX, WITHHOLDING TAX

[2]tax verb tax•es; taxed; tax•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to require (someone) to pay a tax ▪ He believes in taxing the rich to give to the poor. ▪ You are taxed according to your income. b : to require someone to pay a tax on (something) — often used as (be) taxed ▪ All income/property is taxed. ▪ The sale of wine is taxed in this state.
2 : to require a lot from (something or someone) : to put demands on (something or someone) ▪ That job really taxed our strength. [=required us to use a lot of physical effort] ▪ All this waiting is taxing my patience. [=is making me lose my patience] ▪ puzzles that tax your brain ▪ You can have an enjoyable vacation without taxing your budget. [=without having to spend a lot of money] tax with [phrasal verb] tax (someone) with (something) formal : to accuse (someone) of (something) ▪ She taxed them with carelessness.
– tax•er noun, pl -ers [count]

tax•able /ˈtæksəbəl/ adj : able to be taxed ▪ The sale of wine is taxable in this state. ▪ taxable income/property [=income/property that you are required to pay a tax on]

tax•a•tion /tækˈseɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the action, process, or system of taxing people or things ▪ the federal right of taxation ▪ The company is trying to shield its profits from taxation. [=to prevent its profits from being taxed] ▪ They favor reduced taxation on capital gains. [=they think that capital gains should be taxed at a reduced rate]

tax base noun [noncount] : the amount of money or property that can be taxed within an area ▪ an area with a large tax base tax–deductible adj : allowed to be subtracted from the total amount of your income before you calculate the tax you are required to pay : allowable as a deduction from taxes ▪ Your donation is tax-deductible.

tax–deferred adj, US : not taxed until sometime in the future ▪ a tax-deferred savings plan tax disc noun, pl ~ discs [count] Brit : a small, round sticker placed on the window of a vehicle showing that a tax has been paid so that the vehicle may be used on roads tax–exempt adj : not taxed : exempted from a tax ▪ a tax-exempt organization ▪ tax-exempt bonds/funds

tax exile noun, pl ~ -iles [count] chiefly Brit : a person who has moved from one country to another country in order to avoid paying taxes tax–free adj : not taxed : TAX-EXEMPT ▪ tax-free medical benefits tax haven noun, pl ~ -vens [count] : a place where people go to live and companies go to operate in order to avoid paying high taxes

[1]taxi /ˈtæksi/ noun, pl tax•is /ˈtæksiz/ : a car that carries passengers to a place for an amount of money that is based on the distance traveled [count] We caught/took/got a taxi to the restaurant. ▪ She went outside and hailed a taxi. [=waved or called for a taxi to pull over and stop] [noncount] We went to the restaurant by taxi. — often used before another noun ▪ a taxi driver/company/service — called also cab, taxicab

[2]taxi verb taxis or tax•ies; tax•ied; taxi•ing
1 [no obj] of an airplane : to move on wheels along the ground ▪ The plane taxied slowly to the runway.
2 : to direct an airplane as it moves on wheels along the ground [no obj] The pilot taxied out to the runway. [+ obj] The pilot taxied the plane out to the runway.

taxi•cab /ˈtæksiˌkæb/ noun, pl -cabs : [1]TAXI [count] He drives a taxicab. [noncount] They arrived by taxicab.

taxi•der•my /ˈtæksəˌdɚmi/ noun [noncount] : the skill, activity, or job of preparing, stuffing, and mounting the skins of dead animals so that they look like they did when they were alive
– taxi•der•mist /ˈtæksəˌdɚmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count]

tax•ing /ˈtæksɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : requiring a lot of effort, energy, etc. ▪ a taxing job/chore ▪ The journey proved to be very taxing.

taxi stand noun, pl ~ stands [count] US : a place where taxis park while waiting to be hired — called also (Brit) taxi rank

tax•man /ˈtæksˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/
1 [count] : a person who collects taxes
2 the taxman informal : the department of the government that collects taxes ▪ One-third of her salary goes to the taxman.

tax•on•o•my /tækˈsɑːnəmi/ noun, pl -mies technical : the process or system of describing the way in which different living things are related by putting them in groups [noncount] plant taxonomy [count] the taxonomies of various plant groups
– tax•o•nom•ic /ˌtæksəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj ▪ taxonomic relationships – tax•o•nom•i•cal•ly /ˌtæksəˈnɑːmɪkli/ adv ▪ taxonomically related species – tax•on•o•mist /tækˈsɑːnəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count]

tax•pay•er /ˈtæksˌpejɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who pays taxes tax shelter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a way of investing money that reduces the amount of tax that has to be paid

tb. abbr tablespoon; tablespoonful

TB /ˌtiːˈbiː/ noun [noncount] : TUBERCULOSIS

TBA abbr to be announced — used to indicate that the time or place of something has not yet been decided and will be announced at a later time ▪ The meeting will be next Wednesday at 2:00, location TBA.

T–ball /ˈtiːˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] sports : a form of baseball for young children in which the ball is hit off a support (called a tee) rather than pitched

T–bar /ˈtiːˌbɑɚ/ noun, pl -bars [count] : a machine that is used to pull skiers up a mountain and that has a series of T-shaped bars each of which pulls two skiers — called also T-bar lift

TBD abbr, US to be determined — used to indicate that the time or place of something has not yet been decided and will be announced at a later time ▪ The game has been postponed until next week, time TBD.

T–bone /ˈtiːˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : a thick piece of beef that contains a T-shaped bone — called also T-bone steak

tbs. or tbsp. abbr tablespoon; tablespoonful

TD /ˈtiːˈdiː/ noun, pl TDs [count] American football, informal : TOUCHDOWN

tea /ˈtiː/ noun, pl teas
1 [count, noncount] a : a drink that is made by soaking the dried leaves of an Asian plant in hot water ▪ a cup of tea b : a similar drink that is made by using the dried leaves of another kind of plant ▪ herbal/mint tea — see also GREEN TEA
2 [noncount] : the dried leaves that are used in making tea ▪ a bag of tea
3 Brit a : a light meal or snack that usually includes tea with sandwiches, cookies, or cakes and that is served in the late afternoon [noncount] Let's meet for tea tomorrow. [count] That shop does a great afternoon tea. b [count, noncount] : a cooked meal that is served in the early evening — see also CREAM TEA, HIGH TEA not for all the tea in China informal + old-fashioned : not for any reason ▪ I would never invite him to my house again—not for all the tea in China.
not your cup of tea see [1]CUP

tea and sympathy noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : kind treatment and care that is given to someone who is upset ▪ She could use some tea and sympathy.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tea bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a small bag of dried tea leaves that is soaked in hot water to make tea

tea break noun, pl ~ breaks [count] chiefly Brit : a short period of time in which a worker stops to rest and have tea, coffee, etc. : COFFEE BREAK

tea cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count] : a small, flat cake that usually has raisins and is eaten with tea teach /ˈtiːʧ/ verb teach•es; taught /ˈtɑːt/; teach•ing

1 a : to cause or help (someone) to learn about a subject by giving lessons [+ obj] He enjoys teaching his students about history. [no obj] She no longer teaches. ▪ He wants to teach. [=to be a teacher] b [+ obj] : to give lessons about (a particular subject) to a person or group ▪ She taught English for many years at the high school. ▪ He teaches music/science. c [+ obj] : to cause or help (a person or animal) to learn how to do something by giving lessons, showing how it is done, etc. ▪ She is teaching us (how to use) sign language. — often followed by to + verb ▪ teach a child to read/swim ▪ I taught my dog to retrieve sticks. ▪ She taught me (how) to ride a bike.

2 [+ obj] : to show someone how to behave, think, etc. ▪ The church teaches compassion and forgiveness. ▪ Someone needs to teach her right and wrong. ▪ The experience taught us that money doesn't mean everything.

3 [+ obj] informal : to cause (someone) to know the unpleasant results of something ▪ Her injury will teach her not to be so careless with a knife. ▪ He got the punishment he deserved. That'll teach him to lie to me. [=show him that he should not to lie to me again] ▪ That will teach her a lesson. [=that will show her not to do something again]

you can't teach an old dog new tricks see ¹DOG teach•able /ˈtiːʧəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : able and willing to learn : capable of being taught ▪ students who are teachable and eager to learn

2 : allowing something to be taught or learned easily ▪ The book's style makes it very teachable. ▪ (US) choosing a teachable moment [=a time that is favorable for teaching something, such as proper behavior]

teach•er /ˈtiːʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or thing that teaches something ▪ Experience is a good teacher.; especially : a person whose job is to teach students about certain subjects ▪ She is a first-grade teacher. ▪ a language/math/science teacher ▪ a teacher of driver's education — see also SCHOOLTEACHER, STUDENT TEACHER, SUBSTITUTE TEACHER teachers college noun, pl ~ -leges [count, noncount] US : a college for the training of teachers teacher's pet noun [singular] informal + disapproving : a student in a class who is liked by the teacher and who is treated better than other students teach–in /ˈtiːʧˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] US : a meeting usually held on a college campus for people to talk about and learn about something (such as a social or political issue) ▪ The group held a teach-in to discuss discrimination.

¹teaching noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the job or profession of a teacher ▪ He went into teaching after college.

2 [count] : something that is taught : the ideas and beliefs that are taught by a person, religion, etc. — usually plural; often + of ▪ the teachings of Confucius ▪ the teachings [=lessons] of the Bible

²teaching adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or used for teaching someone or something ▪ the teaching profession ▪ a teaching aid teaching assistant noun, pl ~ -tants [count] US : a graduate student who teaches classes at a college or university — abbr. TA

teaching hospital noun, pl ~ -tals [count] : a hospital where people who are training to become doctors work and learn

tea cloth noun, pl ~ cloths [count] Brit : DISH TOWEL

tea•cup /ˈtiːˌkʌp/ noun, pl -cups [count] : a small cup used for drinking tea

a storm in a teacup see ¹STORM

tea garden noun, pl ~ -dens [count]

1 : a public garden where tea and other refreshments are served

2 : an area of land where tea is grown tea•house /ˈtiːˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -houses [count] : a restaurant where tea and other refreshments are served teak /ˈtiːk/ noun [noncount] : the strong, hard, yellowish-brown wood of a tree that grows in southeast Asia and that is used especially for making furniture and ships — called also teakwood

tea•ket•tle /ˈtiːˌkɛtl/ noun, pl -ket•tles [count] US : a covered container that is used for boiling water and that has a handle and a spout — called also kettle

teal /ˈtiːl/ noun, pl teal or teals

1 [count] : a small duck found in Europe and America

2 [noncount] : a dark greenish-blue color — called also teal blue; see color picture on page C2

¹team /ˈtiːm/ noun, pl teams [count]

1 : a group of people who compete in a sport, game, etc., against another group ▪ a doubles team in tennis ▪ a basketball/gymnastics/bowling team ▪ He is the best player on his team. ▪ They are the worst team in baseball. ▪ Our team is losing. = (Brit) Our team are losing. ▪ (US) He is on a team. = (Brit) He is in a team. — often used before another noun ▪ She is the team captain. ▪ Baseball is a team sport. [=a sport played by teams] — see also TAG TEAM

2 : a group of people who work together ▪ To get the job done more quickly, we split up into teams. ▪ We worked as a team to put out the fire. ▪ The company hired a team of lawyers to advise them. ▪ a search and rescue team — often used before another noun ▪ The project was a team effort. ▪ corporate efforts to build team spirit [=the desire to work well as a team]

3 : a group of two or more animals used to pull a wagon, cart, etc. ▪ a team of horses ▪ A dog team pulled the sled.

²team verb teams; teamed; team•ing [+ obj] : to bring together (two people or things) ▪ a show that teams two of television's funniest comedians — often used as (be) teamed with ▪ The fish was teamed with roasted potatoes and a salad.

team up [phrasal verb] : to join with someone to work together ▪ They teamed up to get the work done quickly. — often + with ▪ Several organizations have teamed up with one another in the relief effort. ▪ The movie is about a young policeman who is teamed up with an experienced detective.

team•mate /ˈtiːmˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a person who is on the same team as someone else ▪ They have been teammates for several years. ▪ She's very popular among her teammates.

team player noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone who cares more about helping a group or team to succeed than about his or her individual success ▪ The other people on the staff don't like him because he's not a team player.

team•ster /ˈtiːmstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count] US : someone who drives a truck as a job team•work /ˈtiːmˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : the work done by people who work together as a team to do something ▪ They credit good teamwork for their success.

tea party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : an afternoon social gathering at which tea is served tea•pot /ˈtiːˌpɑːt/ noun, pl -pots [count] : a pot that is used for making and serving tea and that has a spout and handle

a tempest in a teapot see TEMPEST

¹tear /ˈteɚ/ verb tears; tore /ˈtoɚ/; torn /ˈtoɚn/; tear•ing

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to separate (something) into parts by pulling it, cutting it, etc. : to rip, split, or open (something) quickly or violently [+ obj] He tore the letter in half. ▪ They began tearing their presents open. ▪ He tore apart the two tickets and handed one to me. ▪ The dog tore the pillow to pieces/shreds. [no obj] Tear along the dotted line.

2 a : to make (a hole or opening) in a piece of clothing, a piece of paper, etc., usually by cutting it on something sharp [+ obj] She tore a hole in her sock when she jumped over the fence. [no obj] His coat got caught on a nail and tore. ▪ His pants tore at the seam. b [+ obj] : to make (a hole, a path) in a violent or forceful way ▪ The explosion tore a hole in the side of the building. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The new evidence could tear a hole in their theory. [=it could show that their theory is not correct]

3 [+ obj] : to cut or injure (skin, a muscle, etc.) ▪ He tore a ligament in his left knee during football practice. ▪ a torn leg muscle ▪ When she fell, she tore the skin on her elbow.

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to remove (something) quickly or violently ▪ The curtains had been torn from the windows. ▪ She tore the book out of my hands. ▪ They decided to tear out the kitchen's old cabinets. ▪ He tore the page out of the magazine. ▪ I wanted to tear her head off! ▪ He tore off a piece of bread and ate it. ▪ She tore a

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

corner off of a sheet of paper and wrote her number on it. ▪ Open up or we'll tear down this door! ▪ The police officer grabbed him, but he managed to tear himself loose/free. [=to pull himself away from the police officer]

5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go or move very quickly ▪ The kids tore into the house and up the stairs. ▪ We watched the cars tear around the track. ▪ He went tearing down the street on his bicycle. ▪ The fire tore through the forest. ▪ An epidemic was tearing through the region. ▪ The bullet tore through his leg.

6 [+ obj] : to damage or harm (something, such as a country) very badly — usually used as (be) torn ▪ The region has been torn [=ravaged] by disease and hunger for the last 50 years. ▪ a country torn by violence ▪ a war-torn country

7 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel confused, upset, etc., especially about making a choice or decision — often + apart or up ▪ I can't decide, and it's tearing me apart! ▪ It's tearing me up (inside). — usually used as (be) torn ▪ I've been trying to decide, but I'm still torn. [=I'm still unable to decide] ▪ She was torn by conflicting loyalties. — often + between ▪ He is torn between his career and his responsibilities as a father. ▪ a person torn between two lovers

tear apart [phrasal verb] 1 tear (something) apart or tear apart (something) : to completely destroy (something) by tearing it into pieces ▪ I couldn't open the box nicely, so I just tore it apart. — often used figuratively ▪ The robbers tore apart the house [=they made a mess in the house] looking for the money. ▪ We tore the other team apart [=we easily beat the other team] in yesterday's game. ▪ Civil war threatened to tear apart the country. ▪ We can't agree, and it's tearing our family apart. 2 tear (someone or something) apart or tear apart (someone or something) : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way especially by describing weaknesses, flaws, etc. ▪ The article tears apart the government's handling of the situation. ▪ I thought it was a good movie, but she tore it apart. ▪ They tore him apart when he left. — see also [1]TEAR 1, 7 (above)

tear at [phrasal verb] tear at (someone or something) : to attack and pull pieces from (something) in a violent way ▪ The cat tore at my pants with its claws. ▪ wolves tearing at a dead deer — often used figuratively ▪ Those two are always tearing at each other's throats. [=always arguing with and harshly criticizing each other] ▪ Her sadness tore at his heart. [=made him very upset/unhappy]

tear away [phrasal verb] tear (someone or something) away : to cause (someone) to leave or move away from something ▪ I needed to leave the party, but I couldn't tear myself away. ▪ She couldn't tear him away from the TV. ▪ He couldn't tear his eyes away from the TV. [=he could not stop watching the TV] — see also TEARAWAY tear down [phrasal verb] tear down (something) or tear (something) down : to completely destroy (something, such as a building or wall) ▪ They tore down the old hospital and built a new one. ▪ We're planning to tear down the wall between the kitchen and the dining room. — often used figuratively ▪ tearing down walls of injustice ▪ They're trying to tear his reputation down.

tear into [phrasal verb] informal 1 tear into (something) : to begin doing (something) in a very quick or forceful way ▪ The kids tore into the pizza. [=quickly began eating the pizza] ▪ The band tore into the next song with a lot of energy. 2 tear into (someone or something) : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way ▪ My father tore into me for coming home an hour late. ▪ The critics tore into her performance in the movie.

tear (someone) limb from limb see LIMB

tear (someone) off a strip see [1]STRIP

tear (someone or something) to pieces/shreds : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way ▪ They tore my idea to pieces. ▪ The actress was torn to shreds in the press. — see also [1]TEAR 1 (above)

tear up [phrasal verb] tear up (something) or tear (something) up 1 : to completely destroy (something) by tearing it into pieces ▪ I tore the letter up and threw it away. — often used figuratively ▪ They offered to tear up his old contract [=get rid of his old contract] and give him a new one. ▪ The burglars tore the house up. [=made a mess in the house] 2 : to break apart and remove pieces of (something) ▪ The city tore the street up to fix a broken water main. ▪ They tore up 20 acres of forest and built a new shopping mall. 3 chiefly US, informal : to perform very well on or in (something) ▪ They were tearing up the dance floor. [=they were dancing in very skillful, energetic, and impressive way] ▪ He tore up the league last season.

tear your hair out see HAIR

that's torn it Brit, informal — used to say that something is no longer possible ▪ Well, that's torn it. Now everyone knows my little secret. ▪ That's torn it: the deal's off!

– compare [4]TEAR

[2]tear noun, pl tears [count] : a hole or opening in something (such as a piece of paper or cloth) that is made by cutting it or tearing it ▪ The nail left a tear in his jacket. ▪ She had a tear in her stockings. ▪ She suffered a partial tear of the ligament in her right knee.

on a tear US, informal : having great success over a period of time ▪ The team has been on a tear in recent weeks. [=has been playing very well, has been winning a lot of games] ▪ The economy is on a tear, but can it last?

wear and tear see [2]WEAR

– compare [3]TEAR

[3]tear /ˈtiə/ noun, pl tears [count] : a drop of liquid that comes from your eyes especially when you cry : TEARDROP ▪ A single tear ran down his cheek. ▪ She wiped the tears from her eyes. ▪ Let me wipe away your tears. ▪ She was crying/weeping tears of anger/frustration/shame. ▪ tear-filled eyes ▪ That song brings a tear to my eye [=makes me cry a little] every time I hear it. ▪ She suddenly burst into tears. [=started to cry] ▪ He looked like he was close to tears. [=going to cry soon] ▪ Come now. Dry your tears [=stop crying] and try to be happy. ▪ I tried to fight back the tears. [=I tried not to cry] ▪ I couldn't hold back my tears. [=I could not stop myself from crying] ▪ The memory brought on a sudden ood of tears . ▪ We were laughing so hard that we were in tears. [=tears were coming out of our eyes] ▪ Everyone in the audience was moved to tears by their performance. [=their performance made everyone cry] ▪ His hateful words reduced me to tears. [=they made me cry]

blink back/away tears see [1]BLINK bore you to tears see [1]BORE

dissolve in/into tears see DISSOLVE end in tears : to have an ending in which people are crying or unhappy ▪ In our family, discussions about money always seem to end in tears.

shed tears : to cry or weep ▪ They shed tears of joy/gratitude when they heard the news. ▪ I never saw my father shed a single tear, even when my mother died.

– compare [2]TEAR; see also CROCODILE TEARS

[4]tear verb tears; teared; tear•ing [no obj] : to fill with tears ▪ Why do your eyes tear when you cut onions? — often + up ▪ His eyes started tearing up. = He started tearing up. — compare [1]TEAR tear•away /ˈterəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count] Brit, informal : a young person who behaves badly and who does dangerous, foolish, or illegal things ▪ a gang of teenage tearaways — see also tear away at [1]TEAR

tear•drop /ˈtiəˌdrɑːp/ noun, pl -drops [count]

1 : [3]TEAR

2 : something that is pointed at the top and round at the bottom : something that is shaped like a falling tear ▪ diamond teardrop earrings tear•ful /ˈtiəfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : filled with tears ▪ He looked up at me with his tearful eyes and asked for help.

2 : happening with tears ▪ a tearful plea for help [=a plea for help by someone who is crying] ▪ a tearful goodbye ▪ the tearful parting of two lovers

– tear•ful•ly adv ▪ He pleaded tearfully for help. – tear•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The scene quickly changed from tearfulness to laughter.

tear gas noun [noncount] : a gas that makes people unable to see by causing their eyes to be filled with tears and that is used especially by the police or military to separate large groups of people

– tear•gas /ˈtiəˌgæs/ verb -gas•ses; -gassed; -gas•sing [+ obj] ▪ The protesters were teargassed by the police.

tear•jerk•er /ˈtiəˌʤəkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a story, song, movie, etc., that makes you cry or feel very sad ▪ I'm not in the mood to see a tearjerker. Let's watch something funny instead.

– tear–jerk•ing /ˈtiəˌʤəkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a tearjerking love song tea•room /ˈtiːˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a small restaurant that serves light meals — called also tea shop

teary /ˈtiri/ adj tear•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : filled with tears or happening with tears : TEARFUL ▪ There were many teary eyes/faces among those in the audience. ▪ He made a teary farewell to the fans.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:16:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

teary–eyed adj [more ~; most ~] : having eyes that are wet with tears ▪ I got a little teary-eyed at the end of the movie. [=I shed a few tears at the end of the movie] ▪ She said goodbye to her teary-eyed mother.

[1]tease /ˈtiːz/ verb teas•es; teased; teas•ing

1 : to laugh at and criticize (someone) in a way that is either friendly and playful or cruel and unkind [+ obj] He and his wife enjoy teasing each other about their different tastes in music. ▪ The other children teased her because she was wearing braces. ▪ He was always teased by his brother about being short. [no obj] Oh, don't get so angry. I was just/only teasing! ▪ Stop your teasing!

2 [+ obj] : to annoy or bother (an animal) ▪ The boy's mother told him to stop teasing the dog.

3 [+ obj] US : to make (hair) look fuller or bigger by combing it in a special way ▪ She teases [=(chiefly Brit) backcombs] her hair.

4 : to make (someone) feel excitement or interest about something you might do or say without actually doing it or saying it [+ obj] Stop teasing us and tell us who your surprise guest is. [no obj] She likes to tease.

5 [+ obj] : to remove or separate (thin pieces of something) slowly and carefully ▪ The twisted strands of the rope were gently teased apart. — often + out ▪ They described the techniques used to tease out [=extract] genetic material from DNA. ▪ She carefully teased the roots of the young plant out of the soil. — often used figuratively ▪ Reporters are still trying to tease out [=find out] the details of the accident. ▪ It won't be easy to tease out the meaning of these statistics.

– teas•ing adj ▪ a teasing tone of voice – teasing noun [noncount] ▪ There was some affectionate teasing about the way he was dressed. – teas•ing•ly /ˈtiːzɪŋli/ adv ▪ They teasingly remarked about the way he was dressed.

[2]tease noun, pl teases [count]

1 : a person who teases other people — usually singular ▪ He's just a tease.; especially : a person who seems to be sexually interested in someone but who is not serious about having sexual relations ▪ a pretty girl who has the reputation of being a bit of a tease

2 : a joking remark that criticizes someone in a friendly way : a teasing remark — usually singular ▪ Don't take what he said seriously. It was just a tease.

3 US : TEASER 2 ▪ The lower rate is just a tease to attract new customers.

teas•er /ˈtiːzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who teases other people : TEASE

2 : something that is done, offered, or shown to make people want something or want to see something that will be offered or shown at a later time ▪ A teaser for the sequel appeared at the end of the movie. ▪ credit cards offering teaser rates to get people to sign up

3 Brit : a difficult problem or puzzle : BRAINTEASER tea service noun, pl ~ -vices [count] : TEA SET tea set noun, pl ~ sets [count] : a matching set of cups and dishes that are used for serving tea

tea shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] : TEAROOM

tea•spoon /ˈtiːˌspuːn/ noun, pl -spoons [count]

1 : a small spoon that is used especially for eating soft foods and stirring drinks ▪ She stirred her coffee with a teaspoon. — compare TABLESPOON

2 a : a spoon that is used by cooks for measuring dry and liquid ingredients and that holds an amount equal to ⅙ fluid ounce or ⅓ tablespoon ▪ He measured the salt with a teaspoon. b : the amount that a teaspoon will hold : TEASPOONFUL ▪ She put a teaspoon of sugar in her coffee. — abbr. tsp.

tea•spoon•ful /ˈtiːˌspuːnˌfʊl/ noun, pl -spoon•fuls /-ˌspuːnˌfʊlz/ or -spoons•ful /-ˌspuːnzˌfʊl/ [count] : the amount that a teaspoon will hold ▪ The recipe calls for a teaspoonful [=teaspoon] of salt. — abbr. tsp.

teat /ˈtɪt, ˈtiːt/ noun, pl teats [count]

1 : the part of a female animal (such as a cow) through which a young animal receives milk

2 Brit : NIPPLE 2

tea•time /ˈtiːˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] Brit : the usual time for the afternoon meal known as tea : late afternoon or early evening ▪ It was nearing teatime.

tea towel noun, pl ~ -els [count] chiefly Brit : DISH TOWEL tea tray noun, pl ~ trays [count] : a tray for holding a tea set tech /ˈtɛk/ noun, pl techs

1 [count] informal : TECHNICIAN ▪ lab/computer techs

2 [noncount] informal : TECHNOLOGY — often used before another noun ▪ tech companies ▪ He's a tech geek.

3 [noncount] : a technical school — used in the shortened forms of names of technical schools ▪ Georgia Tech

tech•ie /ˈtɛki/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : someone who knows a lot about technology ▪ computer techies

tech•ni•cal /ˈtɛknɪkəl/ adj

1 a : relating to the practical use of machines or science in industry, medicine, etc. ▪ technical training/knowledge/skills ▪ the latest technical [=(more commonly) technological] advances in aircraft design ▪ If you have any problems with your new computer, we offer 24-hour technical support. ▪ I missed the first 10 minutes of the show because the network was experiencing technical difficulties/problems. b : teaching practical skills rather than ideas about literature, art, etc. ▪ a technical school/college

2 [more ~; most ~] a : having special knowledge especially of how machines work or of how a particular kind of work is done ▪ Technical experts analyzed the data. ▪ The film's director hired a real police officer as a technical consultant/adviser. b : relating to the special skills or techniques needed to do a particular job or activity ▪ a pianist/painter with good technical skills ▪ Her ice-skating routine had the highest level of technical difficulty. = Her routine was very technical.

3 [more ~; most ~] : involving special knowledge, language, etc., that is used or understood by experts but usually not by others ▪ technical writing ▪ The essay is too technical for me. ▪ the more technical details/aspects of their research ▪ "Cartography" is the technical name/term/word for the making of maps. ▪ He is using the word in its technical sense/meaning.

4 : according to a very strict explanation of a rule, fact, etc. ▪ a technical violation of the law ▪ They were arguing over a minor technical point. [=technicality] ▪ (informal) I'm not really 18 years old until tomorrow, if you want to get technical about it. [=if you want to be very exact or precise about it]

technical foul noun, pl ~ fouls [count] basketball : a foul that involves improper behavior or language rather than physical contact with an opponent — compare PERSONAL FOUL

tech•ni•cal•i•ty /ˌtɛknəˈkæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count]

1 : a small detail in a rule, law, etc., and especially one that forces an unwanted or unexpected result ▪ These cases were dropped because of legal technicalities. ▪ She lost the contest because of a technicality. = She lost the contest on a technicality.

2 : something that is understood by experts but usually not by other people — usually plural; often + of ▪ I don't want to get into the technicalities of genetic cloning.

technical knockout noun, pl ~ -outs : an occurrence in which a fighter wins a boxing match when an opponent is unable to continue to fight usually because of injuries [count] He has 10 knockouts and 6 technical knockouts. [noncount] He won by technical knockout. — called also TKO

tech•ni•cal•ly /ˈtɛknɪkli/ adv

1 a : according to a very strict explanation of a rule, fact, etc. ▪ The computer took a minute to download the file. Well, technically it took 53 seconds. ▪ The use of the drug is technically illegal but difficult to prosecute. ▪ Technically, a tomato is a fruit, not a vegetable. = Technically speaking, a tomato is a fruit, not a vegetable. b [more ~; most ~] : according to or among experts ▪ A map maker is (more) technically known as a cartographer.

2 [more ~; most ~] : in a way that relates to the use of special techniques or skills ▪ Her newest ice-skating routine is more technically difficult. ▪ Technically, the pianist was perfect, but the performance was uninspired.

3 [more ~; most ~] : in a way that relates to the use of machines or science in industry, medicine, etc. ▪ We live in a technically [=(more commonly) technologically] advanced society. ▪ This kind of surgery is now technically possible, but it is still risky.

tech•ni•cian /tɛkˈnɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count]

1 : a person whose job relates to the practical use of machines or science in industry, medicine, etc. ▪ medical/X-ray/laboratory technicians ▪ They hired a technician to help maintain the office's computers. ▪ She is the lighting/sound technician for the play. — see also EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN

2 somewhat formal : someone who has mastered the basic

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

techniques or skills in a sport, an art, etc. ▪ As a painter, he was more than just a technician; he was a creative genius.

Tech•ni•col•or /ˈtɛknɪˌkʌlɚ/ trademark — used for a process of color photography in movies

tech•nique /tɛkˈniːk/ noun, pl -niques
1 [count] : a way of doing something by using special knowledge or skill ▪ We learned some techniques for relieving stress. ▪ I used a special technique to make the bread.
2 [noncount] : the way that a person performs basic physical movements or skills ▪ The players need to practice in order to improve their technique. ▪ a dancer with excellent technique ▪ The ice-skaters will be judged on technique and creativity.

tech•no /ˈtɛkˌnoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a type of electronic dance music that has a fast beat ▪ The club plays only techno. ▪ techno music

techno- combining form : technical ▪ *techno*crat : technological ▪ *techno*phobe

tech•noc•ra•cy /tɛkˈnɑːkrəsi/ noun, pl -cies [count, noncount] formal : a system in which people with a lot of knowledge about science or technology control a society tech•no•crat /ˈtɛknəˌkræt/ noun, pl -crats [count] : a scientist or technical expert who has a lot of power in politics or industry

tech•no•crat•ic /ˌtɛknəˈkrætɪk/ adj : of, relating to, or similar to a technocrat or technocracy ▪ a technocratic leader/society ▪ a technocratic approach tech•nol•o•gist /tɛkˈnɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] : someone who is an expert in technology

tech•nol•o•gy /tɛkˈnɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [noncount] : the use of science in industry, engineering, etc., to invent useful things or to solve problems ▪ Recent advances in medical technology have saved countless lives. ▪ The company is on the cutting edge of technology.
2 : a machine, piece of equipment, method, etc., that is created by technology [count] The government is developing innovative/advanced technologies to improve the safety of its soldiers. ▪ How can we apply this new technology to our everyday lives? [noncount] The car has the latest in fuel-saving technology.
– tech•no•log•i•cal /ˌtɛknəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ also US tech•no•log•ic /ˌtɛknəˈlɑːdʒɪk/ adj ▪ Many technological advances/developments/changes in medicine have taken place over the past decade. – tech•no•log•i•cal•ly /ˌtɛknəˈlɑːdʒɪkli/ adv ▪ a technologically advanced society ▪ technologically savvy consumers technology park noun, pl ~ parks [count] : RESEARCH PARK

tech•no•phile /ˈtɛknəˌfajəl/ noun, pl -philes [count] : someone who likes and enjoys technology and modern machines (such as computers)

tech•no•phobe /ˈtɛknəˌfoʊb/ noun, pl -phobes [count] : someone who fears or dislikes modern machines (such as computers) ▪ My father is a technophobe.
– tech•no•pho•bia /ˌtɛknəˈfoʊbijə/ noun [noncount] ▪ He finally overcame his technophobia and bought a computer. – tech•no•pho•bic /ˌtɛknəˈfoʊbɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ technophobic people

tec•ton•ic /tɛkˈtɑːnɪk/ adj, always used before a noun
1 geology : of or relating to changes in the structure of the Earth's surface ▪ tectonic plates/forces
2 : having a large and important effect ▪ There has been a recent tectonic shift/change in voting patterns.

tec•ton•ics /tɛkˈtɑːnɪks/ noun [noncount] geology : the structure of the Earth's surface and the ways in which it changes shape over time ▪ Scientists are studying the tectonics of the ocean floor. — see also PLATE TECTONICS

ted•dy /ˈtɛdi/ noun, pl -dies [count] chiefly US : a piece of light clothing that is worn by women as underwear or in bed

teddy bear noun, pl ~ bears [count] : a soft toy bear te•dious /ˈtiːdijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : boring and too slow or long ▪ He made a tedious 45-minute speech. ▪ The work is tedious, but it needs to get done.

– te•dious•ly adv ▪ a tediously long speech – te•dious•ness noun [noncount]

te•di•um /ˈtiːdijəm/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : the quality or state of being tedious or boring ▪ The movie was three hours of tedium. ▪ I took a day off to relieve the tedium of work.

[1]tee /ˈtiː/ noun, pl tees [count]
1 a : a small peg on which a golf ball is placed so that it can be hit b : an object that is used for holding a football in position so that it can be kicked c chiefly US : a post on which a baseball is placed so that a child can hit the ball with a bat in T-ball ▪ a batting tee
2 : the area from which a golf ball is first hit to start play on a hole ▪ She hit an excellent drive from the first tee. ▪ a tee shot [=a first shot that is taken on a hole] ▪ We have an 8 a.m. tee time. [=we start playing golf at 8 a.m.]
to a tee : in a perfect or exact way ▪ Her new car fits/suits her to a tee. [=to a T] ▪ That's him to a tee. [=that is a perfect description of him]

[2]tee verb tees; teed; tee•ing
tee off [phrasal verb] 1 : to hit a golf ball for the first time on a hole or in a round ▪ We teed off at 8 a.m. ▪ We watched her tee off at the ninth hole. 2 tee off (someone) or tee (someone) off US, informal : to make (someone) angry ▪ That guy really tees me off. — see also TEED OFF 3 tee off on (someone or something) US, informal : to speak about (someone or something) in an angry way ▪ The coach teed off on his players to the media.
tee up [phrasal verb] tee up or tee (a ball) up or tee up (a ball) : to place (a ball) on a tee ▪ It's time to tee up. ▪ He teed up the ball. = He teed the ball up.

teed off adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : angry or annoyed ▪ She was very teed off. ▪ a teed off customer — see also tee off at [2]TEE

[1]teem /ˈtiːm/ verb teems; teemed; teem•ing teem with [phrasal verb] teem with (something) : to be full of (life and activity) : to have many (people or animals) moving around inside ▪ The river teems [=abounds] with fish. — usually used as (be) teeming with ▪ The river was teeming with fish. ▪ streets teeming with shoppers — sometimes used figuratively ▪ My mind is teeming with ideas.
– compare [2]TEEM
– teeming adj ▪ the city's teeming [=bustling] streets

[2]teem verb teems; teemed; teeming [no obj] of rain : to come down heavily : POUR ▪ They continued to play as the rain teemed down. ▪ She waited in the teeming rain. ▪ (chiefly Brit) It has been teeming down [=raining heavily] all day. = It has been teeming with rain all day. — compare [1]TEEM teen /ˈtiːn/ noun, pl teens [count] : someone who is between 13 and 19 years old : TEENAGER

– teen adj, always used before a noun ▪ He was a teen idol. ▪ a teen magazine/movie ▪ teen [=teenage] pregnancy — see also PRETEEN

teen•age /ˈtiːnˌeɪdʒ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 or teen•aged /ˈtiːnˌeɪdʒd/ : between 13 and 19 years old ▪ the teenage population ▪ teenage boys/girls
2 : relating to people who are between 13 and 19 years old ▪ teenage [=teen] pregnancy/rebellion ▪ the teenage years

teen•ag•er /ˈtiːnˌeɪdʒɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who is between 13 and 19 years old ▪ Their daughter is a teenager. ▪ The show is very popular among teenagers.

teens /ˈtiːnz/ noun [plural] : the numbers 13 through 19 ▪ The temperature will be in the teens today.; especially : the years 13 through 19 in a century or a person's lifetime ▪ Both of my children are in their teens now. [=are teenagers now]

teen•sy /ˈtiːnsi/ adj teen•si•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very small : TEENY

teen•sy–ween•sy /ˌtiːnsiˈwiːnsi/ adj -ween•si•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very small : TEENY-WEENY

tee•ny /ˈtiːni/ adj tee•ni•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very small : TINY ▪ I'll just have a teeny piece of cake. ▪ I'm a teeny bit upset/nervous. ▪ a teeny little house ▪ a teeny tiny bug

teeny•bop•per /ˈtiːniˌbɑːpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count] informal + old-fashioned : a girl who is about 11 to 13 years old and who listens to popular music and likes current fashions tee•ny–wee•ny /ˌtiːniˈwiːni/ adj -ween•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very small : TINY ▪ I'll just have a teeny-weeny piece of cake. ▪ Aren't you even a teeny-weeny bit jealous? ▪ a teeny-weeny little house/bug ▪ (humorous) I like the car, too, but there's just one teeny-weeny little problem: we can't afford it!

teepee variant spelling of TEPEE

tee shirt variant spelling of T-SHIRT

tee•ter /ˈtiːtɚ/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to move in an unsteady way back and forth or from side to side ▪ The pile of books teetered and fell to the floor. ▪ She teetered down the street in her high heels. — often used figuratively ▪ Our relationship teeters between friendship and romance. ▪ The bird is teetering on the edge of extinction. [=the bird is almost extinct] ▪ The countries are teetering on the brink of war. [=the countries are close to going to war] tee•ter–tot•ter /ˈtiːtəˌtɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] US : [1]SEESAW 1

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

teeth plural of TOOTH

teethe /ˈtiːð/ verb teethes; teethed; teeth•ing [no obj]
1 : to have the first set of teeth begin to grow ▪ The baby is starting to teethe. ▪ She is still teething.
2 : to bite on something in order to relieve pain caused by teething — usually + on ▪ Give her something cold to teethe on.

teething ring noun, pl ~ rings [count] : a rubber or plastic ring for a baby to bite on when teething teething troubles noun [plural] Brit : small problems that happen when a business, project, system, etc., is first started or used ▪ There were some teething troubles [=growing pains] when we began our business. — called also teething problems

tee•to•tal•er (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit tee•to•tal•ler /ˈtiːˈtoʊtlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who never drinks alcohol – tee•to•tal /ˈtiːˈtoʊtl/ adj, Brit ▪ a teetotal store owner ▪ He is teetotal.

TEFL /ˈtɛfəl/ abbr, chiefly Brit teaching English as a foreign language

Tef•lon /ˈtɛˌflɑːn/ trademark — used for a substance that is used especially for nonstick coatings on cooking pans

Te•ja•no /teɪˈhɑːnoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a type of popular music from Texas and northern Mexico — often used before another noun ▪ Tejano music/singers

tel abbr telephone; telephone number tele- combining form

1 : at or over a long distance ▪ *tele*gram ▪ *tele*scope ▪ *tele*communications ▪ *tele*vision
2 : television ▪ *tele*cast
3 : using a telephone ▪ *tele*marketing

tele•cast /ˈtɛlɪˌkæst, Brit ˈtɛlɪˌkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast; -cast•ing [+ obj] : to broadcast (a program) by television ▪ The network will telecast [=televise] the game live. — often used as (be) telecast ▪ The game will be telecast live.
– telecast noun, pl -casts [count] ▪ a live telecast of the concert – tele•cast•er noun, pl -ers [count]

tel•e•com /ˈtɛliˌkɑːm/ noun, pl -coms somewhat technical 1 [count] : a telecommunications company ▪ a major telecom
2 [noncount] : the telecommunications industry ▪ investments in telecom — often used before another noun ▪ telecom companies/equipment/services ▪ the telecom industry

tele•com•mu•ni•ca•tions /ˌtɛlɪkəˌmjuːnəˈkeɪʃənz/ noun [plural] : the technology of sending and receiving signals, images, etc., over long distances by telephone, television, satellite, etc. — often used before another noun ▪ telecommunications companies/equipment ▪ the telecommunications industry tele•com•mute /ˈtɛlɪkəˌmjuːt/ verb -mutes; -mut•ed; -mut•ing [no obj] : to work at home by using a computer connection to a company's main office ▪ The company now allows some of its employees to telecommute.

– tele•com•mut•er noun, pl -ers [count]

tele•con•fer•enc•ing /ˈtɛlɪˌkɑːnfrənsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the use of telephones and video equipment to have a meeting with people who are in different places ▪ The manager talked to her employees via/by (video) teleconferencing.
– tele•con•fer•ence /ˈtɛlɪˌkɑːnfrəns/ noun, pl -enc•es [count] ▪ We had three teleconferences in one day.

tele•ge•nic /ˌtɛləˈʤɛnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to look good or seem likable on television ▪ She is very telegenic. ▪ a telegenic politician — compare PHOTOGENIC tele•gram /ˈtɛləˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a message that is sent by telegraph — called also wire

[1]tele•graph /ˈtɛləˌgræf, Brit ˈtɛlɪˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs
1 [noncount] : an old-fashioned system of sending messages over long distances by using wires and electrical signals ▪ I sent the message by telegraph.
2 [count] : a device used for sending or receiving messages by telegraph

[2]telegraph verb -graphs; -graphed; -graph•ing
1 a : to send (a message) by telegraph [+ obj] He telegraphed a message to her. [no obj] Please telegraph when you get there. b [+ obj] : to send a telegram to (someone) ▪ Please telegraph me when you get there.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something that you are about to do or say) obvious or apparent by the way you move, look, etc. ▪ The look on her face telegraphed bad news. ▪ He lost the boxing match because he was telegraphing his punches.

telegraph pole noun, pl ~ poles [count] Brit : TELEPHONE POLE tele•mar•ket•ing /ˌtɛləˈmɑəkətɪŋ/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : the activity or job of selling goods or services by calling people on the telephone ▪ He has a job in telemarketing. [=(chiefly Brit) telesales]

– tele•mar•ket•er /ˌtɛləˈmɑəkətə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

te•lem•e•try /təˈlɛmətri/ noun [noncount] technical : the process of using special equipment to take measurements of something (such as pressure, speed, or temperature) and send them by radio to another place

tele•path•ic /ˌtɛləˈpæθɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to telepathy ▪ telepathic communication/powers
2 : having the ability to know another person's thoughts without being told what they are : able to read minds ▪ You need to tell me what you're thinking. I'm not telepathic.
– tele•path•i•cal•ly /ˌtɛləˈpæθɪkli/ adv ▪ The twins seem to communicate telepathically.

te•lep•a•thy /təˈlɛpəθi/ noun [noncount] : a way of communicating thoughts directly from one person's mind to another person's mind without using words or signals

[1]tele•phone /ˈtɛləˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones
1 [noncount] : a system that uses wires and radio signals to send sounds (such as people's voices) over long distances : PHONE ▪ We spoke by telephone. ▪ a telephone line/company/operator ▪ I just have to make a quick telephone call before we leave. ▪ You can order the cake over the telephone. ▪ (Brit) He screamed at me down the telephone. [=through the telephone]
2 [count] : a device that is connected to a telephone system and that you use to listen or speak to someone who is somewhere else : PHONE ▪ The telephone has been ringing all morning! ▪ She picked up the telephone and dialed the number. ▪ He slammed/put down the telephone. ▪ They hired someone to answer the telephones. ▪ All our telephones are cordless. ▪ I left the telephone off the hook. ▪ a public telephone ▪ a cellular telephone [=cell phone] on the telephone 1 : using a telephone to talk to someone ▪ She is always (talking) on the telephone. [=on the phone] ▪ He came to the door while I was on the telephone. 2 Brit : connected to a telephone system ▪ the percentage of households on the telephone [=on the phone]

telephone

[2]telephone verb -phones; -phoned; -phon•ing : to speak or try to speak to (someone) using a telephone : to call or phone (someone) [+ obj] He telephoned me to say that he was going to be late. ▪ I'll telephone the police. [no obj] He telephoned to say that he was going to be late. ▪ You never write or telephone.

telephone book noun, pl ~ books [count] : PHONE BOOK

telephone booth noun, pl ~ booths [count] chiefly US : PHONE BOOTH

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

telephone box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] Brit : PHONE BOOTH

telephone directory noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : PHONE BOOK

telephone number noun, pl ~ -bers [count] : a number that you dial on a telephone to reach a particular person, business, etc. : PHONE NUMBER telephone pole noun, pl ~ poles [count] chiefly US : a tall wooden pole that supports the wires of a telephone system — called also (Brit) telegraph pole

telephone tag noun [noncount] chiefly US : a situation in which two people keep trying to call each other on the telephone but are unable to reach each other ▪ We've been playing telephone tag—she's always out when I call, and vice versa. — called also (US, informal) phone tag

te•le•pho•nist /tə'lɛfənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] Brit : OPERATOR 2

te•le•pho•ny /tə'lɛfəni/ noun [noncount] technical : the use of a telephone system to send and receive sounds over long distances tele•pho•to lens /ˌtɛlə'foʊtoʊ-/ noun, pl ~ lenses [count] : a lens for a camera that makes things that are far away appear to be closer — compare ZOOM LENS

tele•print•er /'tɛləˌprɪntə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : TELETYPEWRITER

tele•prompt•er /'tɛləˌprɑ:mptə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a machine that helps someone who is speaking to an audience or on television by showing the words that need to be said

tele•sales /'tɛləˌseɪlz/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : TELEMARKETING

[1]tele•scope /'tɛləˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] : a device shaped like a long tube that you look through in order to see things that are far away ▪ The rings of Saturn can be seen through a telescope. — see also RADIO TELESCOPE

telescope

[2]telescope verb -scopes; -scoped; -scop•ing

1 [no obj] : to become shorter by having one section slide inside another somewhat larger section ▪ The radio antenna telescopes.

2 [+ obj] : to make (something) shorter in length or time — often + into ▪ The director needed to telescope [=condense] the four-hour movie into three hours.

tele•scop•ic /ˌtɛlə'skɑ:pɪk/ adj

1 : made or seen with a telescope ▪ telescopic observations/images/views of Mars

2 : having the power to make objects that are far away appear to be closer ▪ a telescopic lens ▪ The rifle has a telescopic sight.

3 : able to become longer or shorter by having sections that slide inside one another ▪ a telescopic antenna ▪ a telescopic steering wheel/column

– tele•scop•i•cal•ly /ˌtɛlə'skɑ:pɪkli/ adv

tele•text /'tɛləˌtɛkst/ noun [noncount] technical : a system for broadcasting written information on television ▪ Television stations use teletext to show sports scores and news. ▪ teletext services

tele•thon /'tɛləˌθɑ:n/ noun, pl -thons [count] : a long television program that tries to raise money for a charity by asking people to call during the program and make a donation

Tele•type /'tɛləˌtaɪp/ trademark — used for a teletypewriter tele•type•writ•er /ˌtɛlə'taɪpˌraɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a machine that prints written messages that have been sent using a telephone system — called also (chiefly Brit) tele•prin•ter /'tɛləˌprɪntə/

tel•evan•ge•list /ˌtɛlɪ'vændʒəlɪst/ noun, pl -lists [count] : a person and especially a preacher who appears on television in order to teach about Christianity and try to persuade people to become Christians

– tel•evan•ge•lism /ˌtɛlɪ'vændʒəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

tele•vise /'tɛləˌvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing [+ obj] : to broadcast (something) by television ▪ The same network will televise the tournament next year. — often used as (be) televised ▪ The speech will be televised live. ▪ televised baseball games ▪ a televised debate

tele•vi•sion /'tɛləˌvɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions

1 [noncount] : an electronic system of sending images and sounds by a wire or through space ▪ Do you have satellite or cable television? [=TV]

2 [count] : a piece of equipment with a screen that receives images and sounds sent by television ▪ Can you turn on/off the television? [=TV, (chiefly Brit) telly] ▪ Please turn up/down the television. [=make the television louder/quieter] ▪ widescreen televisions — see picture at LIVING ROOM

3 [noncount] : programs that are broadcast by television ▪ We don't watch much television. [=TV, (chiefly Brit) telly] ▪ a television [=TV] program/show/series

4 [noncount] : the television broadcasting industry ▪ She works in television. ▪ He's a star of stage, screen, and television. ▪ a television [=TV] producer/reporter/company on (the) television : broadcast by television : being shown by television ▪ What is on the television [=on TV, (chiefly Brit) on (the) telly] tonight? ▪ There's nothing on television right now. [=there are no programs that I would like to watch now] ▪ The movie will be on television next month. ▪ I recognize your face. Are you on television? [=do you appear in a television program?]

television set noun, pl ~ sets [count] : TELEVISION 2 tele•work•ing /'tɛləˌwəkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the activity of working at home and communicating with customers or other workers by using a computer, telephone, etc.

– tele•work•er /'tɛləˌwəkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

tel•ex /'tɛˌlɛks/ noun, pl -ex•es

1 [noncount] : a system of communication in which messages are sent over long distances by using a telephone system and are printed by using a special machine (called a teletypewriter) ▪ The message was sent by telex.

2 [count] : a message sent by telex ▪ We received a telex from New York.

– telex verb -exes; -exed; -ex•ing [+ obj] ▪ He telexed her a message.

tell /'tɛl/ verb tells; told /'toʊld/; tell•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to say or write (something) to (someone) ▪ He told us the story. ▪ Has she told you the good news, yet? ▪ Please tell us your name and occupation. ▪ She looked at the palm of my hand and told me my fortune. ▪ I promise not to tell anyone your secret. = I promise not to tell your secret to anyone. — often + about ▪ You can tell me all about your trip at dinner. — often + that ▪ If you see her, tell her (that) we miss her. ▪ People tell me (that) Paris is nice this time of year. ▪ I keep telling myself (that) everything will be OK. ▪ My husband tells/told me (that) you play golf. — often + what, where, etc. ▪ He told us what happened. ▪ Can you tell them how to play the game while I get the cards? ▪ I can't tell you how pleased we are [=we are very pleased] that you could join us. ✧ This sense of tell is often used informally to emphasize a statement. ▪ You are wrong, I tell you. ▪ I can tell you—it's not worth the hassle. ▪ I'm telling you, I don't know anyone by that name. ▪ I'll tell you one thing: she was awfully arrogant. ▪ I'll tell you something/this: I would never have bought that car. ▪ Let me tell you (something): he may be old, but he can still win baseball games. ▪ To tell you the truth, I didn't really like the movie. ▪ "The car turned out to be a lemon!" "What did I tell you?" [=you should have listened to me; you should have followed my advice] b : to say (a word or words) to (someone) ▪ I didn't get a chance to tell him goodbye. [=to say goodbye to him] ▪ If you see her, tell her hello for me. ▪ "I feel sick," he told his mom.

2 a : to give information to (someone) by speaking or writing [+ obj] "What is his name?" "I don't know. He didn't tell me." ▪ Be sure to tell me when they get here. = When they get here, be sure to tell me (so). ▪ "I know the answer." "Don't tell me. [=don't say what the answer is] I want to guess." ▪ "Do you know where the library is?" "I'm sorry. I couldn't tell you." [=I don't know] [no obj] "Who is the letter from?" "I'm not telling." b : to let (someone) know a secret [+ obj] I promise not to tell anyone. ▪ I can't tell you because it's a secret. [no obj] Your secret is safe with me: I'll never tell.

3 [+ obj] : to express (something) by speaking ▪ He loves telling stories/jokes. ▪ You shouldn't tell [=reveal] other people's secrets. ▪ She got in trouble for telling a lie. ▪ I'm telling the truth. ▪ I didn't really like the movie, to tell the truth. [=to say what I really think] ▪ Truth be told [=to say what the truth is], the food was pretty bad.

4 [+ obj] : to give (someone) an instruction or command ▪ Be quiet and do what I tell you. = Be quiet and do as you're told. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ The police officer told him to stop. ▪ I was told to stay here. ▪ I'll tell them to meet us there at 6 o'clock. ▪ I told myself to pick up some milk on the way home, but I forgot to do it. ▪ You can't tell me what to do.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

5 : to inform others that someone has done something wrong or behaved badly — used especially by children [no obj] If you do that, I'll tell. [+ obj] I'm telling Mom. — see also TELL ON 1 (below)

6 [+ obj] : to give information to (someone or something) by doing a particular action or making a particular sound ▪ When the dog scratches at the door, she is telling you that she wants to go outside. ▪ The oven will beep to tell you when it is preheated.

7 [+ obj] : to make (something) known to (someone) ▪ The expressions on their faces told me everything I needed to know. ▪ The evidence tells us that there were two robbers. ▪ The signs will tell you what exit to take off the highway.

8 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to see or understand the differences between two people or things ▪ I can definitely tell a/the difference between the two sauces. ▪ They look exactly the same. How can you tell which is which? ▪ I can't tell who is who with their uniforms on. ▪ He is old enough to tell right from wrong. [=to know what things are good and what things are bad]

9 not used in progressive tenses : to see or know (something) with certainty [+ obj] It was easy to tell that the bill was counterfeit. ▪ It's hard to tell if she's kidding or not. — usually used after can or could ▪ "He's lying." "Really? How can you tell?" ▪ I could tell (by/from the look on his face) that he was lying. ▪ You can tell a lot about a person by the kind of car they drive. ▪ No one can tell for sure whether it will happen. ▪ Who can tell [=who can predict] what will happen next season? ▪ You can never tell what type of mood he will be in. ▪ You never can tell how he'll be feeling. [no obj] You might win the raffle—you never can tell. ▪ As far/near as I can tell, he is happy at his new job. [=he seems to me to be happy in his new job]

all told see ²ALL

don't tell me informal 1 — used to show that you already know what someone is going to say especially because he or she often says such things ▪ "I have a favor to ask of you." "Don't tell me—I bet you need to borrow more money, don't you?" 2 — used to express surprise and disappointment ▪ "Don't tell me the concert tickets were all sold out?!" "No, I bought the last two tickets."

I'll tell you what also tell you what informal — used to introduce a suggestion or to emphasize a statement ▪ (I'll) Tell you what—I'll let you borrow the car if you fill it up with gas. ▪ I tell you what, I wouldn't pay that much for a pair of shoes.

I told you (so) informal — used to say to someone that you were right about something especially when that person disagreed with you ▪ "You were right after all." "See. I told you so!"

tell against [phrasal verb] tell against (someone) Brit, formal : to be a disadvantage to (someone) ▪ His unkempt appearance is bound to tell against him in court.

tell apart [phrasal verb] tell (someone or something) apart : to see what the differences are between (people or things) : to identify (people or things that look similar to each other) ▪ They look so much alike that I can barely/hardly/scarcely tell them apart. ▪ It is hard telling the twins apart.

tell it like it is US, informal : to say what the facts are : to speak about unpleasant things in an honest way ▪ I don't want to offend anyone; I'm just telling it like it is. ▪ You can always count on John to tell it like it is.

tell me — used in speech to introduce a question ▪ Tell me, is there a subway nearby? ▪ So tell me, what did you think of the movie?

tell me about it informal — used to say that you understand what someone is talking about because you have had the same or a similar experience ▪ "Something is wrong with that computer." "Yeah, tell me about it. I can never get it to work properly."

tell of [phrasal verb] formal + literary 1 *tell of (something) a : to be evidence of (something) : INDICATE ▪ Her smile told of her good news. ▪ His rough hands tell of a hard life. b : to describe (something) : to make the details of (something) known ▪ The article tells of her Arctic journey. ▪ The explorer's journals tell of a vast unexplored wilderness. 2 *tell (someone) of (something) : to talk to (someone) about (something) ▪ He told us of his plans to move to the city.

tell off [phrasal verb] tell (someone) off or tell off (someone) informal 1 US : to yell at or insult (someone who did or said something that made you angry) ▪ He wished that he could tell his boss off. — often + for ▪ She told him off for spreading rumors about her. 2 Brit : to criticize (someone) in an angry way from a position of authority — often + for ▪ The teacher told the girl off for talking during class.

tell on [phrasal verb] 1 *tell on (someone) informal : to tell someone in authority about the bad behavior or actions of (someone) ▪ Please don't tell on me. 2 *tell on (someone or something) not used in progressive tenses : to have a noticeable effect on (someone or something) ▪ The stress began to tell on her face/health.

tell time or tell the time see ¹TIME

there's no telling — used to say that it is impossible to know something with certainty ▪ There's no telling how long the strike will last.

you're telling me informal — used to say that you already know and completely agree with something that was just said ▪ "This hot weather is brutal." "You're telling me."

tell–all /ˈtɛlˈɑːl/ noun, pl -alls [count] : a book that contains new and usually shocking information about someone or something — often used before another noun ▪ a tell-all biography tell•er /ˈtɛlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who tells something (such as a story) to someone else ▪ a teller of tales — see also FORTUNE-TELLER, STORYTELLER
2 : a person who works in a bank and whose job is to receive money from customers and pay out money to customers 3 : a person whose job is to count votes

tell•ing /ˈtɛlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : producing a strong or important effect ▪ Her experience is/provides a telling example of why the nation's educational system needs to be changed. ▪ The most telling moment in the case was when the victim took the stand.
2 : giving information about someone or something without intending to ▪ Her response to the question was very telling. [=it showed how she really felt; it revealed something about her character] ▪ a telling comment/remark – tell•ing•ly adv ▪ Tellingly, she chose not to reply.

¹tell•tale /ˈtɛlˌteɪl/ adj, always used before a noun : indicating that something exists or has occurred ▪ The sauce had the telltale odor of garlic. ▪ He had the telltale signs of smallpox. ▪ Slurred speech is usually a telltale sign of intoxication.

²telltale noun, pl -tales [count] Brit, informal : TATTLETALE

tel•ly /ˈtɛli/ noun, pl tel•lies chiefly Brit, informal : TELEVISION [count] Please turn off the telly. [noncount] I just want to relax and watch the/some telly.
on (the) telly : being shown by television ▪ What's on telly tonight?

tem•blor /ˈtɛmblə, Brit tɛmˈblɔː/ noun, pl -blors [count] chiefly US, somewhat formal : EARTHQUAKE ▪ a minor temblor te•mer•i•ty /təˈmerəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being confident and unafraid of danger or punishment especially in a way that seems rude or foolish ▪ No one has the temerity [=audacity] to disagree with her. ▪ He was punished for his temerity.

¹temp /ˈtɛmp/ noun, pl temps [count]
1 chiefly US, informal : TEMPERATURE ▪ What's the temp outside? ▪ Is he running a temp? = Does he have a temp?
2 : someone who works at a place for a limited and usually short period of time : a temporary worker ▪ We had to hire a temp to fill in for her.

²temp verb temps; temped; temp•ing [no obj] : to work as a temporary worker ▪ I temped [=worked as a temp] in a doctor's office for a couple of months.

tem•peh /ˈtɛmˌpeɪ/ noun [noncount] : an Asian food that is made from fermented soybeans

¹tem•per /ˈtɛmpə/ noun, pl -pers
1 a [count] : the tendency of someone to become angry ▪ She has a bad/hot/quick/terrible/violent temper. ▪ That boy has quite a temper. ▪ He needs to learn to control his temper. ▪ Tempers ared [=people became angry] and a fight broke out. ▪ After months of delays, tempers began to fray. [=people began to get angry] — see also SHORT TEMPER b : a state of being angry [noncount] She hit him in a fit of temper. [singular] He slammed the door and left in a temper.
2 [count] : calmness of mind : COMPOSURE ▪ I lost my temper [=got angry] (with him) and yelled at him. ▪ It's often difficult for parents not to lose their tempers. ▪ He was upset but kept his temper. [=remained calm; did not become angry, begin shouting, etc.]

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

3 [singular] a : the way that a person is feeling at a particular time : MOOD ▪ He is in a pleasant/foul temper. b : the usual attitude, mood, or behavior of a person or animal ▪ a dog with a good/bad temper [=temperament, disposition] ▪ She has an even temper. [=she does not easily become angry, upset, etc.] — see also TEMPERED

4 [noncount] formal : the ideas, attitudes, etc., that a group of people have especially during a particular period of time ▪ Her novels capture the temper of the times.

[2]temper verb -pers; -pered; -per·ing [+ obj]

1 formal : to make (something) less severe or extreme ▪ Higher interest rates have tempered [=lessened] the demand for new houses. — often + with or by ▪ He tempered his criticism with a few words of encouragement. = He tempered his criticism by adding a few words of encouragement. — often used as (be) tempered ▪ He believes in justice tempered with mercy.

2 technical : to cause (something, such as steel or glass) to become hard or strong by heating it and cooling it ▪ The steel/glass must be properly tempered. — see also TEMPERED tem·pera /ˈtɛmpərə/ noun [noncount] : a kind of paint in which the color is mixed with water and usually egg ▪ He paints in/with tempera.

tem·per·a·ment /ˈtɛmprəmənt/ noun, pl -ments : the usual attitude, mood, or behavior of a person or animal [count] She has a nervous temperament. [=she is a nervous person] ▪ The dogs have excellent temperaments. [=dispositions, tempers] ▪ people with artistic/poetic temperaments [noncount] The two women were opposite in temperament.

tem·per·a·men·tal /ˌtɛmprəˈmɛntl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] a : likely to become upset or angry ▪ a temperamental child ▪ The actor is known for being temperamental. b : unpredictable in behavior or performance ▪ a temperamental horse ▪ The old computer is temperamental.

2 : of or relating to someone's usual attitude, mood, or behavior ▪ They divorced due to temperamental differences.

– tem·per·a·men·tal·ly adv ▪ Temperamentally, he's not suited for the job. ▪ The twins are temperamentally different.

tem·per·ance /ˈtɛmprəns/ noun [noncount]

1 old-fashioned : the practice of drinking little or no alcohol ▪ The minister preached about temperance.

2 formal : the practice of always controlling your actions, thoughts, or feelings so that you do not eat or drink too much, become too angry, etc. ▪ His lifestyle was marked by temperance. [=moderation]

tem·per·ate /ˈtɛmprət/ adj

1 : having temperatures that are not too hot or too cold ▪ temperate climates/forests/regions/zones

2 formal : emotionally calm and controlled ▪ They had a temperate discussion. ▪ He is a temperate man.

3 old-fashioned : avoiding behavior that goes beyond what is normal, healthy, or acceptable ▪ a temperate [=moderate] drinker — opposite INTEMPERATE

tem·per·a·ture /ˈtɛmprəˌtʃuɚ/ noun, pl -tures

1 : a measurement that indicates how hot or cold something is : a measurement in degrees showing the heat of something (such as air or water) [count] The water temperature has risen (by) two degrees. [=the water has become two degrees warmer] ▪ Water boils at a temperature of 212°F. ▪ The samples are kept/maintained at a constant temperature. ▪ The weatherman predicted unusually low/high temperatures for the area. ▪ There was a sudden fall/drop in temperature. [=it got colder] ▪ a change in temperature = a temperature change [noncount] Keep the wine at room temperature. [=the temperature of a room that is comfortable]

2 a [singular] : a measurement of the heat in a person's body ▪ the normal body temperature of 98.6°F ▪ Did you take his temperature? [=did you use a thermometer to find out if he had a fever?] b [count] : a level of heat that is above what is normal for the human body : FEVER ▪ I have a temperature. = I am running a temperature.

3 [count] formal : the level of anger, excitement, etc., in a situation ▪ The governor's speech raised/lowered the political temperature. [=it made people more/less angry about the political situation] ▪ The love affair raised the temperature of the story. [=it made the story more exciting]

tem·pered /ˈtɛmpɚd/ adj, always used before a noun : brought to the desired hardness or strength by heating and cooling ▪ tempered steel/glass — see also BAD-TEMPERED, GOOD-TEMPERED, ILL-TEMPERED, QUICK-TEMPERED, SHORT-TEMPERED

tem·pest /ˈtɛmpəst/ noun, pl -pests [count] literary : a violent storm — often used figuratively ▪ A tempest is brewing over the new tax laws. ▪ a tempest of controversy/emotions

a tempest in a teapot US : a situation in which people are upset or angry about something that is not very important ▪ The whole problem/controversy turned out to be a tempest in a teapot. [=(Brit) a storm in a teacup]

tem·pes·tu·ous /tɛmˈpɛstʃəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 literary : affected by a tempest : STORMY ▪ a tempestuous sea ▪ tempestuous weather

2 : full of strong emotions (such as anger or excitement) : STORMY ▪ a tempestuous romance/relationship/debate

tem·plate /ˈtɛmplət/ noun, pl -plates [count]

1 : a shape or pattern that is cut out of a hard material (such as metal or plastic) and used to make the same shape and pattern in other pieces of material

2 computers : a computer document that has the basic format of something (such as a business letter, chart, graph, etc.) and that can be used many different times ▪ The software includes templates for common marketing documents like pamphlets and flyers.

3 : something that is used as an example of how to do, make, or achieve something — often + for ▪ The bridge's design became a template for other bridges. ▪ Her career was my template for success in the publishing industry. [=I followed her example of how to succeed in the publishing industry]

[1]tem·ple /ˈtɛmpəl/ noun, pl tem·ples

1 a [count] : a building for worship ▪ Buddhist/Hindu/Jewish/Mormon temples ▪ ancient Greek temples — compare CHURCH, MOSQUE, SYNAGOGUE b [noncount] chiefly US : religious services held in a temple ▪ Friday evenings we go to temple. [=attend services] ▪ He is at temple.

2 [count] : a meeting place for the members of a local group that is part of a larger organization ▪ a Masonic temple

– compare [2]TEMPLE

[2]temple noun, pl temples [count] : the small, flat area on each side of your forehead — see picture at FACE — compare [1]TEMPLE

tem·po /ˈtɛmpoʊ/ noun

1 pl tem·pos also tem·pi /ˈtɛmpi/ : the speed at which a musical piece is played or sung [count] The song has a slow/fast/upbeat tempo. [noncount] The composition has many changes of tempo. — compare RHYTHM; see also UP-TEMPO

2 pl tempos : the speed at which something moves or happens : PACE [count] We walked at a fast tempo. ▪ The tempo of the game slowed down. [noncount] The dance starts out fast and then switches tempo.

[1]tem·po·ral /ˈtɛmpərəl/ adj

1 formal : of or relating to life on the earth and not spiritual life ▪ the temporal [=secular] and spiritual worlds

2 technical : of or relating to time ▪ They are studying the spatial and temporal patterns of weather systems.

– compare [2]TEMPORAL

[2]temporal adj, always used before a noun : located near the temples at the sides of the forehead ▪ the temporal bone/lobe — compare [1]TEMPORAL

tem·po·rary /ˈtɛmpəˌrɛri/ adj

1 : continuing for a limited amount of time : not permanent ▪ The drug will give you temporary relief from the pain. ▪ a temporary job ▪ The delay is only temporary.

2 : intended to be used for a limited amount of time ▪ temporary workers ▪ The settlers built temporary shelters. ▪ a temporary solution

– tem·po·rar·i·ly /ˌtɛmpəˈrɛrəli/ adv ▪ We lost power temporarily. ▪ The store is temporarily closed for renovations.

tem·po·rize also Brit tem·po·rise /ˈtɛmpəˌraɪz/ verb -riz·es; -rized; -riz·ing [no obj] formal : to avoid making a decision or giving a definite answer in order to have more time ▪ Pressured by voters on both sides of the issue, the congressmen temporized.

tempt /ˈtɛmpt/ verb tempts; tempt·ed; tempt·ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to do or want to do something even though it may be wrong, bad, or unwise ▪ The smell of the pie tempted me, but I resisted. [=I wanted some pie but did not eat any] ▪ He tempted [=enticed] me with the offer of more money. — often + into ▪ The smell of the pie tempted me into having a piece. [=it caused me to eat a piece of pie] ▪ The saleswoman tried to tempt us into buying a more expensive model. — often followed by to + verb ▪ The saleswoman tried to tempt us to buy a more expensive model. — often used as (be) tempted ▪ "Would you like some more pie?" "I'm tempted, but no thank you." ▪ Students may be tempted to cheat on the test. [=they may consider cheating on the test] ▪ I was sorely tempted to say [=I very much wanted to say] something rude to her, but I didn't. ▪ She was tempted to quit and find a new job. ▪ I'm tempted [=I'm inclined] to say yes, but I'm not completely sure.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tempt fate : to do something that is very risky or dangerous ▪ He felt it would be tempting fate if he invested all his money in one company. ▪ Race car drivers tempt fate every time they race.

temp•ta•tion /tɛmpˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a strong urge or desire to have or do something [count] — often followed by to + verb ▪ I resisted the temptation to buy the shoes. ▪ He could not resist the temptation to show off his new car. ▪ Don't give in to the temptation to snack between meals. ▪ There is always a/the temptation to procrastinate. [noncount] She gave in to temptation. = She succumbed to temptation.
2 [count] : something that causes a strong urge or desire to have or do something and especially something that is bad, wrong, or unwise ▪ Money/power is always a temptation. ▪ The dessert menu has a lot of delicious temptations. ▪ the temptations of the city tempt•ing /ˈtɛmptɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing an urge or desire to have or do something ▪ The desserts look very tempting. ▪ It is tempting to think of him as the next American president. ▪ It was a tempting [=enticing] offer.

– tempt•ing•ly adv ▪ It is temptingly easy to cheat on taxes. ▪ The desserts were temptingly [=enticingly] displayed.

tempt•ress /ˈtɛmptrəs/ noun, pl -ress•es [count] : a woman who makes a man want to have sex with her : a very attractive woman ▪ a seductive temptress

tem•pu•ra /tɛmˈpurə/ noun [noncount] : a Japanese dish that is made of seafood or vegetables that are covered in batter and fried ten /ˈtɛn/ noun, pl tens

1 [count] : the number 10
2 [count] : the tenth in a set or series ▪ the ten of spades ▪ page ten
3 [noncount] : ten o'clock ▪ "What time is it" "It's ten."
4 [count] a US : a ten-dollar bill ▪ The total cost was $7.83 and she gave him a ten. ▪ Do you have any fives or tens? b Brit : a ten-pound note 5 [singular] a : something that is the best ▪ The food at the restaurant is a (perfect) ten. b : a very attractive person ▪ She's a ten.
ten a penny Brit, informal : very common ▪ Thrillers are ten a penny [=(US) a dime a dozen] these days.
ten out of ten — used to say that something was done very well ▪ I'll give them ten out of ten for creativity.
ten to one informal : very likely ▪ Ten to one they'll lose. [=I think they'll almost certainly lose] – ten adj ▪ ten cars/guests/choices – ten pronoun ▪ Ten (of them) passed the test.

ten•a•ble /ˈtɛnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : capable of being defended against attack or criticism ▪ The theory is no longer tenable. [=defensible] ▪ a tenable argument

te•na•cious /təˈneɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : not easily stopped or pulled apart : firm or strong ▪ The company has a tenacious hold on the market. ▪ a tenacious grip b : continuing for a long time ▪ tenacious myths/traditions ▪ a tenacious effort/battle
2 : very determined to do something ▪ He is a tenacious [=persistent] negotiator/competitor. ▪ She is quite tenacious.
– te•na•cious•ly adv ▪ She clung tenaciously to her beliefs. ▪ He fought tenaciously. – te•nac•i•ty /təˈnæsəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ I am impressed by their tenacity. ▪ She fought with great tenacity.

ten•an•cy /ˈtɛnənsi/ noun, pl -cies formal
1 a [noncount] : the right to use another person's property (such as land, a house, etc.) for a short period of time ▪ He was granted tenancy of the farm. b [count] : the amount of time during which you are allowed to use another person's property ▪ a 12-month tenancy ▪ During his tenancy, he tried to make as many improvements as he could.
2 [noncount] : the state or fact of owning property (such as land, a house, etc.) ▪ They had joint tenancy of the building. [=they owned the building together/jointly] ten•ant /ˈtɛnənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] : a person, business, group, etc., that pays to use another person's property : someone who rents or leases a house, apartment, etc., from a landlord ▪ A tenant is now leasing the apartment.

tenant farmer noun, pl ~ -mers [count] : a farmer who raises crops on land that is rented from someone else tend /ˈtɛnd/ verb tends; tend•ed; tend•ing

1 [no obj] a — used to describe what often happens or what someone often does or is likely to do; followed by to + verb ▪ He tends to slouch. ▪ I have to be careful about what I eat because I tend to gain weight easily. ▪ People in my family tend to be tall. [=a lot of people in my family are tall] ▪ The store tends to get busy [=the store is often/usually busy] on weekends. ▪ I tend not to trust politicians. [=I often/usually don't trust politicians] b — used to describe a quality that someone or something often has or is likely to have; + toward or towards ▪ He tends towards perfectionism. [=he tends to be a perfectionist] ▪ Her decorating style tends toward the informal. [=tends to be informal]
2 : to give your attention to and take care of (something or someone) [+ obj] Please tend [=mind] the store while I'm away. ▪ She tends her garden daily. ▪ well-tended gardens ▪ He tended his ailing mother. [no obj] — + to ▪ I have to tend to (the) business. ▪ The nurse tended to their wounds.
tend bar see [1]BAR

ten•den•cy /ˈtɛndənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count]
1 : a quality that makes something likely to happen or that makes someone likely to think or behave in a particular way ▪ The door has a tendency to get stuck. [=the door often gets stuck] ▪ She has a tendency to overreact. = She has a tendency toward/towards overreacting. [=she tends to overreact; she often overreacts] ▪ She displayed criminal tendencies [=she behaved in ways that suggested she was going to become a criminal] even when she was very young.
2 : a way of behaving, proceeding, etc., that is developing and becoming more common ▪ There is a growing tendency among young people to continue living with their parents after college. [=more and more young people are continuing to live with their parents after college] ▪ The economy has shown a general tendency toward inflation.

ten•den•tious /tɛnˈdɛnʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : strongly favoring a particular point of view in a way that may cause argument : expressing a strong opinion ▪ He made some extremely tendentious remarks.
– ten•den•tious•ly adv – ten•den•tious•ness noun [noncount]

[1]ten•der /ˈtɛndə/ adj -der•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : very loving and gentle : showing affection and love for someone or something ▪ He gave her a tender look. ▪ She was tender and loving with her new child. ▪ tender words ▪ a tender love song
2 of food : easy to chew or bite : not tough ▪ a tender, juicy steak ▪ Cook the pasta until it is just tender.
3 : painful when touched : SORE ▪ Her wrist was swollen and tender.
4 : easily damaged : delicate and weak ▪ tender young plants — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has a tender [=sensitive] ego. ▪ tender pride tender loving care : extra attention to make someone or something look or feel better ▪ You need a little tender loving care. [=TLC] ▪ an antique chair that needs some tender loving care tender (young) age : a very young age ▪ She left home at the tender young age of 14. ▪ He was playing the piano at a tender age.
– ten•der•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He kissed her tenderly. ▪ She will be tenderly cared for. – ten•der•ness noun [noncount]

[2]tender verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing
1 [+ obj] formal : to give or offer (something, such as a payment or a letter) ▪ The defendant must tender full payment. ▪ I tendered my resignation today.
2 [no obj] Brit : to offer to do work or to provide goods for a particular price : to make a bid for something — + for ▪ We tendered for [=(US) bid for] the job/contract.

[3]tender noun, pl -ders [count] US, informal : a small piece of chicken meat that is usually cooked by being breaded and fried ▪ Can I have an order of chicken tenders? — compare [4]TENDER

[4]tender noun, pl -ders [count]
1 : a ship that carries passengers or cargo between the shore and a larger ship ▪ a submarine tender
2 : a car that is attached to a train and that carries fuel and water ▪ a coal tender
– compare [3]TENDER; see also LEGAL TENDER

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

ten•der•foot /ˈtɛndəˌfʊt/ noun, pl -feet /-ˌfi:t/ also -foots /-ˌfʊts/ [count] US, informal
1 : someone who has just started doing something : BEGINNER ▪ a political tenderfoot
2 : a person who is not used to living in rough conditions or outdoors

ten•der–heart•ed /ˈtɛndəˌhɑətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very gentle and kind : showing love, kindness, or pity ▪ She is a tender-hearted [=compassionate] mother. ▪ a tender-hearted pet owner

ten•der•ize also Brit ten•der•ise /ˈtɛndəˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (meat) softer before cooking it so that it is easier to cut and eat ▪ The marinade helps to tenderize the meat.
– ten•der•i•za•tion also Brit ten•der•i•sa•tion /ˌtɛndərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌtɛndəˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – ten•der•iz•er also Brit ten•der•is•er /ˈtɛndəˌraɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count, noncount]

ten•der•loin /ˈtɛdəˌlɔɪn/ noun, pl -loins [count, noncount] : a piece of very tender meat from the back of a cow or pig ▪ beef/pork tenderloin

tender offer noun, pl ~ -fers [count] business : an offer to buy a certain number of stock shares of a company for a set price in order to gain control of the company ten•di•ni•tis also ten•do•ni•tis /ˌtɛndəˈnaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a painful condition in which a tendon in your arm, leg, etc., becomes inflamed ▪ She was diagnosed with tendinitis of the elbow. ▪ I have tendinitis in my knee.

ten•don /ˈtɛndən/ noun, pl -dons [count] : a tough piece of tissue in your body that connects a muscle to a bone — compare LIGAMENT

ten•dril /ˈtɛndrəl/ noun, pl -drils [count]
1 : the thin stem of a climbing plant that attaches to walls, fences, etc.
2 : something that is thin and curly ▪ A few tendrils of hair framed her face. ▪ tendrils of smoke

ten•e•ment /ˈtɛnəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a large building that has apartments or rooms for rent and that is usually in a poorer part of a city ▪ inner-city tenements ▪ a tenement building/apartment — called also tenement house

te•net /ˈtɛnət/ noun, pl -nets [count] formal : a belief or idea that is very important to a group ▪ the central tenets of a religion ▪ one of the basic tenets of the fashion industry

ten•fold /ˈtɛnˌfoʊld/ adj : ten times as much or as many ▪ a tenfold increase in sales – ten•fold /ˈtɛnˈfoʊld/ adv ▪ Online sales increased tenfold.

ten–gallon hat noun, pl ~ hats [count] US : COWBOY HAT

Tenn. abbr Tennessee

ten•ner /ˈtɛnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] Brit, informal : a ten-pound note

ten•nies /ˈtɛniz/ noun [plural] US, informal : TENNIS SHOES ▪ a pair of tennies

ten•nis /ˈtɛnəs/ noun [noncount] : a game that is played by two people or two pairs of people on a special court (called a tennis court) where they hit a small ball back and forth over a net using rackets ▪ a game of tennis = a tennis game ▪ a tennis racket/ball — see pictures at BALL, RACKET; see also LAWN TENNIS, TABLE TENNIS tennis court noun, pl ~ courts [count] : a large rectangular area that you play tennis on tennis elbow noun [noncount] : a condition in which you have pain on the outer side of your elbow that is caused by twisting or straining your lower arm tennis shoe noun, pl ~ shoes [count] : a low shoe that is worn while playing sports (such as tennis) or exercising : SNEAKER

ten•on /ˈtɛnən/ noun, pl -ons [count] technical : an end of a piece of wood that is cut into a special shape to fit into a hole (called a mortise) in another piece of wood and form a strong joint

[1]ten•or /ˈtɛnə/ noun, pl -ors
1 [count] : the highest adult male singing voice ▪ He has a high, lilting tenor.; also : a singer who has such a voice ▪ She asked the tenors to sing the line again. — compare ALTO, BASS, SOPRANO
2 [singular] : the general or basic quality or meaning of something ▪ I was surprised by the angry tenor [=tone] of her letter. ▪ The tenor of his remarks is clear.

[2]tenor adj, used before a noun : having a range that is lower than an alto and higher than a baritone ▪ Verdi wrote some difficult tenor parts. ▪ She plays the tenor sax/saxophone.

ten•pin /ˈtɛnˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins
1 [count] : one of the large bottle-shaped pieces that is knocked down with a ball in the game of tenpin bowling
2 tenpins [plural] US : TENPIN BOWLING ▪ a game of tenpins

tenpin bowling noun [noncount] : a game in which players try to knock down 10 pins by rolling a large ball towards them

[1]tense /tɛns/ adj tens•er; -est
1 : nervous and not able to relax ▪ She was feeling pretty tense. ▪ Why are you so tense?
2 : showing or causing nervousness ▪ a tense situation ▪ We sat quietly for a few tense moments. ▪ It was a tense meeting. ▪ a tense thriller
3 : not relaxed but hard and tight ▪ My calf muscles are really tense. ▪ tense muscles
– tense•ly adv ▪ She looked at him tensely. ▪ We sat tensely. – tense•ness noun [noncount]

[2]tense verb tens•es; tensed; tens•ing
1 : to make (a muscle) hard and tight [+ obj] She tensed her shoulders. [no obj] Her shoulders tensed (up).
2 [no obj] : to become nervous or tense ▪ She tensed as he walked toward her. ▪ He tensed up and missed the putt.
– tensed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I was feeling tensed. [=tense] — often + up ▪ feeling tensed up

[3]tense noun, pl tenses grammar : a form of a verb that is used to show when an action happened [count] The sentence will read better if you change the tense of the verb. [noncount] You should avoid changing tense in the middle of a paragraph. — see also FUTURE TENSE, PAST TENSE, PERFECT TENSE, PRESENT TENSE

ten•sile /ˈtɛnsəl, Brit ˈtɛnˌsajəl/ adj, technical : relating to the amount that something (such as a wire) can stretch or be stretched without breaking ▪ the tensile strength of steel cable

ten•sion /ˈtɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] a : a feeling of nervousness that makes you unable to relax ▪ You can see she is just filled with tension about her job. b : a feeling of nervousness, excitement, or fear that is created in a movie, book, etc. ▪ The dramatic tension was very satisfying. ▪ The author resolves the tension too soon.
2 : a state in which people, groups, countries, etc., disagree with and feel anger toward each other [count] Political tensions in the region make it unstable. [noncount] Do you sense the tension between those two? ▪ There was a lot of tension at the meeting. ▪ The book describes the tension-filled days before the war.
3 : a difficult situation caused by the opposite needs or effects of two different ideas, desires, etc. [count] He felt a tension between duty and love. [noncount] There will always be some tension between the desire to reduce risk and the desire to make as much money as possible.
4 [noncount] : the degree to which something is stretched : the amount that something is stretched ▪ I don't like the tension on this tennis racket. ▪ muscle tension [=tightness] ▪ She has a lot of tension in her shoulders.
– see also HIGH-TENSION, SURFACE TENSION

tent /tɛnt/ noun, pl tents [count] : a portable shelter that is used outdoors, is made of cloth (such as canvas or nylon), and is held up with poles and ropes ▪ We will pitch the tent [=put our tent up, set our tent up] here. — see picture at CAMPING; see also OXYGEN TENT – tent•like /ˈtɛntˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a tentlike structure

ten•ta•cle /ˈtɛntɪkəl/ noun, pl -ta•cles
1 [count] : one of the long, flexible arms of an animal (such as an octopus) that are used for grabbing things and moving
2 tentacles [plural] often disapproving : power or influence that reaches into many areas ▪ The corporation's tentacles are felt in every sector of the industry. ▪ the tentacles of organized crime

ten•ta•tive /ˈtɛntətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not done with confidence : uncertain and hesitant ▪ a tentative smile ▪ the baby's first tentative steps
2 : not definite : still able to be changed ▪ We have tentative plans for the weekend. ▪ tentative approval
– ten•ta•tive•ly adv ▪ We have tentatively made plans for the weekend. ▪ The meeting is tentatively scheduled for Friday. – ten•ta•tive•ness noun [noncount]

tent•ed /ˈtɛntəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : made up of or filled with tents ▪ a tented village

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

2 : having a peak like a tent : shaped like the inside of a tent ▪ a high tented ceiling/room

ten•ter•hooks /ˈtɛntəˌhʊks/ noun

on tenterhooks : waiting nervously for something to happen : in a state of nervousness or excitement caused by wondering what will happen ▪ She keeps her readers on tenterhooks throughout the book. ▪ I've been on tenterhooks since I applied for the job.

[1]tenth /tɛnθ/ noun, pl tenths

1 [singular] : the number 10 in a series ▪ the tenth of February ▪ He was tenth in line.

2 [count] : one of 10 equal parts of something ▪ He traded stocks for one tenth their face value. ▪ I only paid a tenth of what you did for that jacket.

[2]tenth adj : occupying the number ten position in a series ▪ This year is our tenth wedding anniversary. ▪ the tenth grade

– tenth adv ▪ the world's tenth largest country

ten•u•ous /ˈtɛnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not certain, definite, or strong : flimsy, weak, or uncertain ▪ He has a tenuous grasp/grip/hold on reality. ▪ a tenuous hypothesis/relationship ▪ The local theater has had a tenuous existence in recent years. ▪ He could demonstrate only a tenuous claim to ownership. ▪ The connection between his absence and the robbery is tenuous [=shaky] at best.

2 literary : very thin ▪ the silkworm's tenuous threads

– ten•u•ous•ly adv ▪ He was tenuously linked to the crime.

ten•ure /ˈtɛnjə/ noun, pl -ures

1 [count] : the amount of time that a person holds a job, office, or title ▪ During his tenure as head coach, the team won the championship twice. ▪ her 12-year tenure with the company ▪ His tenure in office will end with the next election.

2 [noncount] : the right to keep a job (especially the job of being a professor at a college or university) for as long as you want to have it ▪ After seven years I was finally granted tenure. ▪ He hopes to get tenure next year.

3 [noncount] law : the right to use property ▪ The defendant did not have tenure on the land. ▪ land tenure in Anglo-Saxon Britain

– ten•ured /ˈtɛnjəd/ adj, US ▪ She became a tenured professor. ▪ tenured faculty members tenure–track adj, US : relating to or having a teaching job that may lead to tenure (sense 2) ▪ This is a tenure-track position. ▪ tenure-track faculty

te•pee or tee•pee also ti•pi /ˈtiːpi/ noun, pl -pees or -pis [count] : a tent that is shaped like a cone and that was used in the past by some Native Americans as a house

tepee

tep•id /ˈtɛpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not hot and not cold : WARM ▪ a tepid [=lukewarm] bath

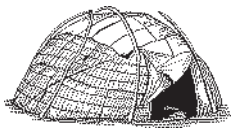
2 : not energetic or excited ▪ He gave a tepid performance. ▪ My suggestion was given a tepid response.

te•qui•la /təˈkiːlə/ noun, pl -las [count, noncount] : a strong, clear alcoholic drink from Mexico



wigwam

ter•i•ya•ki /ˌteriˈjɑːki/ noun [noncount]

1 : a sauce used in some Asian cooking ▪ Marinate the meat in teriyaki (sauce).

2 : a dish that is flavored with teriyaki ▪ chicken teriyaki = teriyaki chicken

[1]term /tɜm/ noun, pl terms

1 a [count] : a word or phrase that has an exact meaning ▪ "I had the feeling that I had been there before." "The term for that is 'déjà vu.'" ▪ That's an outdated term that no one uses anymore. ▪ scientific/technical terms b terms [plural] : the particular kinds of words used to describe someone or something ▪ He spoke about them in glowing terms. ▪ The law had been understood in broad terms. ▪ in economic terms ▪ He expressed his disapproval in no uncertain terms. [=in very strong and clear language]

2 [count] a : the length of time during which a person has an official or political office ▪ The governor will run for a second term. ▪ He is currently serving his third term in the U.S. Senate. ▪ She made many changes during her term of/in office. [=during the time when she was in office] ▪ He is in favor of term limits for members of Congress. [=he believes that members of Congress should only be allowed to serve for a specified number of terms] b : the length of time during which someone is in a prison, jail, etc. ▪ He was sentenced to a ten-year term in the state penitentiary. ▪ a long jail/prison term ▪ a term of imprisonment c : the length of time during which something (such as a contract) continues ▪ The term of the contract is 60 months. — see also LONG TERM, MEDIUM-TERM, SHORT TERM

3 [count] : one of the parts of the school year ▪ His grades have improved since last term. ▪ English 122 is not offered this term.

4 terms [plural] : the conditions or rules that limit something (such as an agreement or a contract) : the things that must be agreed upon in order for something to happen or continue ▪ They would not agree to our terms. ▪ She objected to the terms of the contract. ▪ Early payment is not permitted under the terms of our agreement.

5 terms [plural] — used to describe the kind of relationship that people have with each other ▪ He was on good terms with his ex-wife. [=he and his ex-wife were friendly with each other] ▪ He left the team on bad terms. ▪ They are no longer on speaking terms. [=they are no longer speaking to each other] ▪ (Brit) He is on first-name terms with his staff.

6 [noncount] medical : the time at which a pregnancy of normal length ends ▪ She carried the baby to term. = She carried the baby full term. [=to the natural end of the pregnancy]

come to terms 1 : to reach an agreement ▪ The two sides have not been able to come to terms. — often + with ▪ The company has come to terms with the union. 2 : to learn how to accept or live with something that is difficult or painful — + with ▪ It took him a long time to come to terms with the end of his marriage. ▪ She has found it hard to come to terms with the demands of her job.

contradiction in terms see CONTRADICTION

in terms of — used to indicate the specific thing that is being described, thought of, etc. ▪ The car is great in terms of gas mileage [=the car's gas mileage is great], but it's not very comfortable. ▪ He thinks of everything in terms of money. [=his judgments/opinions about everything are based on thoughts about money] on your (own) terms : according to your own wishes : in your own way ▪ She wants to succeed on her own terms. ▪ If I agree to help, it will only be on my terms.

term of address see [2]ADDRESS term of endearment see ENDEARMENT terms of reference Brit : a description of what must be dealt with and considered when something is being done, studied, etc. ▪ The terms of reference for the committee are narrow and specific.

[2]term verb terms; termed; term•ing [+ obj] : to give a particular name or description to (something) : to call (something) by a particular name or to describe (something) in a particular way ▪ They termed the structure a "double helix." ▪ The project was termed a success.

ter•mi•na•ble /ˈtɜmənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : able to be ended ▪ His employment was terminable at the will of his employer. ▪ The contract will be terminable by either party.

[1]ter•mi•nal /ˈtɜmənl/ adj

1 a : causing death eventually : leading finally to death ▪ She was diagnosed with terminal cancer. ▪ a terminal [=fatal] illness/disease b : having an illness that cannot be cured and that will soon lead to death ▪ a terminal patient c : of or relating to patients who have a terminal illness ▪ terminal care

2 informal : very bad or severe ▪ I was suffering from terminal boredom. ▪ another person with terminal stupidity

3 : at the end : forming or coming at the end of something ▪ branches that end in a terminal bud ▪ We're on the terminal [=final] leg of our trip. ▪ The terminal [=last] stop for this line is Boston.

in terminal decline Brit : getting worse without any chance to improve ▪ The business is in terminal decline.

– ter•mi•nal•ly adv ▪ He is terminally ill. [=he has a disease that cannot be cured and will cause his death]

[2]terminal noun, pl -nals [count]

1 a : a building where buses or trains regularly stop so that passengers can get on and off : STATION ▪ I will meet you outside the bus terminal. b : a building at an airport where people get on and off airplanes ▪ Flight 1584 is now departing from Gate 6 in Terminal A. ▪ You are not allowed in the terminal without a ticket.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

2 : a computer or a combination of a keyboard and a video display that is connected to a system and used for entering or receiving data ▪ Ten terminals are connected to this server.
3 : a part on a piece of electrical equipment (such as a car battery) where you make an electrical connection ▪ You will need to clean the corrosion off the battery terminals.

ter•mi•nate /ˈtəməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing formal
1 [no obj] : to end in a particular way or at a particular place ▪ The branches of that tree terminate in flower clusters. ▪ The rail line terminates in Boston.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to end ▪ terminate a pregnancy ▪ You have to terminate the program before the computer will shut down properly. ▪ His contract was terminated last month. ▪ They terminated their agreement.
3 [+ obj] US : to take a job away from (someone) : FIRE ▪ He was terminated last month. ▪ Plans are being made to terminate unproductive employees.

ter•mi•na•tion /ˌtəməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal
1 : an act of ending something [noncount] The law protects against unfair contract termination. ▪ the termination of a lease [count] an early termination of the contract
2 US : the act of making a person leave a job : the act of firing or dismissing someone [count] The company noted over 300 terminations last quarter. [noncount] Are there plans for the termination of unproductive employees?
3 [count, noncount] : an operation to end a pregnancy before the mother would have given birth : ABORTION

termini plural of TERMINUS 2

ter•mi•nol•o•gy /ˌtəməˈnɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies : the special words or phrases that are used in a particular field [noncount] legal/medical terminology [count] a lexicon covering the terminologies of several scientific fields
– ter•mi•no•log•i•cal /ˌtəmənəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj

term insurance noun [noncount] : a type of insurance that is provided for a specified period of time

ter•mi•nus /ˈtəmənəs/ noun [count]
1 pl ter•mi•nus•es : the end of a travel route (such as a rail or bus line) or the station at the end of a travel route ▪ Stockholm is the terminus for the southbound train. ▪ a bus terminus
2 pl ter•mi•ni /ˈtəməˌnaɪ/ technical : the end of something ▪ Geologists took samples from the terminus of the glacier. ▪ the terminus of the DNA strand

ter•mite /ˈtəˌmaɪt/ noun, pl -mites [count] : a kind of soft, white insect that lives in groups, eats wood, and causes a lot of damage to wooden structures ▪ termite colonies ▪ The house has a lot of termite damage. — see color picture on page C10 term paper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] US : a long essay that usually requires research and that is written by a student as part of a course or class ▪ I have a term paper due next week.

term time noun [noncount] Brit : the part of the year in which schools and universities are holding classes ▪ He's in Cambridge during term time.

tern /ˈtən/ noun, pl terns [count] : a kind of bird that lives near the ocean, is usually black and white, and has long wings and a tail with two points

ter•race /ˈterəs/ noun, pl -rac•es
1 [count] : a flat area created on the side of a hill and used especially for growing crops ▪ rice growing in/on hillside terraces
2 [count] : a flat area next to a building where people can sit and relax ▪ For sale: large three-bedroom house with adjoining terrace and garden.
3 [count] Brit : a row of houses that are joined together : a group of row houses
4 the terraces Brit : a section of a stadium with wide steps where people stand to watch soccer matches
– ter•raced /ˈterəst/ adj ▪ a terraced hillside ▪ terraced gardens – ter•rac•ing /ˈterəsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ hillside terracing

terraced house noun, pl ~ houses [count] Brit : ROW HOUSE

ter•ra–cot•ta /ˌterəˈkɑːtə/ noun, pl -tas
1 a [noncount] : a reddish clay that is used for pottery and tiles ▪ planters/jars made of terra-cotta b [count] : things (such as tiles, pottery, or statues) that are made from terra-cotta — often used before another noun ▪ terra-cotta jars from ancient Greece ▪ terra-cotta tiles
2 [noncount] : a brownish-orange color — see color picture on page C3

ter•ra firma /ˌterəˈfəmə/ noun [noncount] : dry and solid ground as compared to air or water ▪ We were glad to be back on terra firma [=back on the ground] after our bumpy flight.

ter•rain /təˈreɪn/ noun, pl -rains : land of a particular kind [noncount] We had to drive over some rough terrain. [count] We hiked through a variety of terrains. — see also ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLE

ter•ra in•cog•ni•ta /ˈterəˌɪnˌkɑːgˈniːtə/ noun, pl ter•rae in•cog•ni•tae /ˈterˌaɪˌɪnˌkɑːgˈniːˌtaɪ/ [count] formal : a place that has not been discovered or that is unknown ▪ the terra incognita beyond those mountains — often used figuratively ▪ This subject is terra incognita for/to me. [=I don't know anything about this subject]

ter•ra•pin /ˈterəpən/ noun, pl -pins [count] : a kind of small turtle that lives in water

ter•rar•i•um /təˈrerijəm/ noun, pl -ums [count] : a glass or plastic box that is used for growing plants or keeping small animals indoors

ter•res•tri•al /təˈrɛstrijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : relating to or occurring on the earth ▪ terrestrial life forms
2 technical : living or growing on land instead of in water or air ▪ The toad has terrestrial habits, spending most of its time on shore. ▪ terrestrial birds
3 : sending a broadcast signal from the Earth ▪ terrestrial wireless networks ▪ a terrestrial radio station

ter•ri•ble /ˈterəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very shocking and upsetting ▪ a terrible [=horrible] disaster/crime ▪ Traffic was held up by a terrible accident. ▪ We just got some terrible [=dreadful] news.
2 : very bad or unpleasant ▪ terrible music/food ▪ The garbage smells really terrible. [=awful] ▪ I have a terrible cold. ▪ What a terrible [=horrible] thing to say! ▪ a terrible mistake ▪ The service at that restaurant is terrible. ▪ I'm a terrible chess player. = I'm terrible at chess. [=I play chess very badly] ▪ I woke up this morning feeling terrible. [=very sick] ▪ She feels terrible [=very sorry] that she hurt your feelings.
– see also ENFANT TERRIBLE

ter•ri•bly /ˈterəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : very or extremely ▪ The movie made me feel terribly sad. ▪ It is terribly important that the package be delivered tomorrow. ▪ They don't know each other terribly well. ▪ Something has gone terribly wrong. ▪ I miss you terribly. [=very much]
2 : in a very bad or unpleasant way ▪ I like tennis, but I play terribly. [=very badly]

ter•ri•er /ˈterijə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of small dog originally used for hunting

ter•rif•ic /təˈrɪfɪk/ adj
1 informal : extremely good : EXCELLENT ▪ He makes terrific chili. ▪ She's given me some terrific ideas. ▪ Your test scores were terrific. ▪ They did a terrific job painting the house. ▪ I had a terrific time. ▪ I've recovered completely. In fact, I feel terrific.
2 : causing a feeling of surprise or wonder ▪ an athlete with terrific [=astounding, amazing] speed ▪ We were hit by a terrific snowstorm last week.
– ter•rif•i•cal•ly /təˈrɪfɪkli/ adv ▪ The news is terrifically exciting. ▪ The band is terrifically popular in Japan.

terri ed adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely afraid ▪ terrified onlookers ▪ I was/felt terrified and just wanted to go home. ▪ The thought of losing his job has him terrified. ▪ She was terrified that she was going to die alone. = She was terrified of dying alone.

ter•ri•fy /ˈterəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be extremely afraid : to frighten (someone) very much ▪ Big dogs terrify me. ▪ The thought of dying alone terrifies her.

terrifying adj [more ~; most ~] : causing great fear ▪ The thought of dying alone was terrifying. ▪ a terrifying ordeal
– ter•ri•fy•ing•ly adv ▪ We came terrifyingly close to dying on that mountain.

ter•rine /təˈriːn/ noun, pl -rines [count, noncount] : liver or meat that has been chopped into very small pieces and cooked in a special dish

ter•ri•to•ri•al /ˌterəˈtorijəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to land or water that is owned or controlled by a government ▪ territorial boundaries ▪ territorial claims by settlers ▪ a territorial government ▪ The two countries are in a territorial dispute. [=a disagreement about which one controls a particular territory]
2 [more ~; most ~] — used to describe animals or people that try to keep others away from an area that they use or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

control ▪ The neighbor's dog is extremely territorial and barks if you come close to the yard. ▪ the human tendency to be territorial

– ter•ri•to•ri•al•ly adv ▪ The region was territorially important to the empire.

Territorial Army noun

the Territorial Army : a part of the military forces of Britain that is made up of people who are not professional soldiers but are given military training for a period of time each year — abbr. TA

ter•ri•to•ri•al•i•ty /ˌterəˌtoriˈæləti/ noun [noncount] : the behavior of animals or people that try to keep others away from an area that they use or control ▪ a scientific study of territoriality in bears/mice territorial waters noun [plural] : the part of the ocean near a country's coast that is legally controlled by that country

ter•ri•to•ry /ˈterəˌtori, Brit ˈterətri/ noun, pl -ries

1 a : an area of land that belongs to or is controlled by a government [noncount] Those mountains are in Mexican territory. ▪ We're entering enemy territory. [=an area of land that belongs to or is controlled by our enemy] [count] disputed territories b [count] : one of the parts of the United States that is not a state ▪ Guam is a U.S. territory. c [count] : any one of the large parts that some countries are divided into ▪ Canada's Yukon Territory

2 : an area that an animal or group of animals uses and defends [count] The birds are busy establishing territories and building nests. [noncount] Male cats spray to mark territory.

3 [noncount] : an area of land or water ▪ We've covered a lot of territory today. [=we have traveled a long distance] ▪ The goal of the expedition is to map unexplored/uncharted territory. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an area of study that was unexplored/uncharted territory at the time ▪ Let's get the meeting started. We have a lot of territory to cover today. [=a lot to talk about, decide, etc.] ▪ Dealing with our cars and the mechanic is her territory. [=something she is in charge of] ▪ As the conversation turned to politics, I knew we were heading into dangerous territory.

4 [count] : an area that someone is responsible for when doing a job ▪ a salesman whose territory includes New England and upstate New York

5 [count] sports : the area on a playing field (such as a football field) that is defended by a particular team ▪ They started deep in their own territory and went all the way down the field to score a touchdown.

come/go with the territory : to be a natural part of a particular situation, position, or area of work ▪ Of course players get injured sometimes. It comes with the territory.

ter•ror /ˈterə/ noun

1 : a very strong feeling of fear [noncount] The sound of guns being fired fills me with terror. ▪ There was a look of (sheer) terror on her face. ▪ Many civilians fled in terror. ▪ They lived in terror of being discovered. = They lived in terror that they would be discovered. ▪ Until recently, the mere mention of the disease struck terror in (the hearts of) people. [singular] someone with a terror of water [=someone who is extremely afraid of being in water] ▪ a terror that is still fresh in her memory

2 : something that causes very strong feelings of fear : something that is terrifying [count] the terrors of war ▪ the terrors of life in the jungle [noncount] tales of terror

3 [noncount] : violence that is committed by a person, group, or government in order to frighten people and achieve a political goal ▪ a regime that rules by terror ▪ bombings and other acts of terror ▪ These people have been living with terror and the threat of terror for many years. ▪ a war on terror [=terrorism] ▪ a campaign of terror against ethnic minority groups — see also REIGN OF TERROR

4 [count] informal : a child who behaves very badly ▪ My nephew is a little terror. [=brat] ▪ Their kids are holy terrors. [=their kids behave very badly]

hold no terror or hold no terrors ✧ If something holds no terror/terrors for you, you are not afraid of it. ▪ Death holds no terror for them. ▪ She's done it enough times that it holds no terrors now.

ter•ror•ism /ˈterəˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the use of violent acts to frighten the people in an area as a way of trying to achieve a political goal ▪ They have been arrested for acts of terrorism. ▪ international terrorism ▪ the fight/struggle/war against terrorism ▪ state terrorism [=terrorism by a government] — see also COUNTERTERRORISM

ter•ror•ist /ˈterərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who uses or supports the use of terrorism ▪ A number of people were deported for being suspected terrorists.

– terrorist adj, always used before a noun ▪ terrorist activities/attacks/bombings/threats ▪ a terrorist organization/group/network

ter•ror•ize also Brit ter•ror•ise /ˈterəˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to be extremely afraid ▪ As a child she terrorized her younger siblings. ▪ She was terrorized by nightmares. ▪ neighborhoods terrorized by gangs

2 : to force (someone) to do something by using threats or violence ▪ Employees were terrorized into accepting abysmal working conditions.

ter•ry cloth /ˈteri-/ noun [noncount] : a type of soft, thick cloth with many tiny loops on its surface that is often used to make towels ▪ a terry cloth robe/towel — called also terry, (Brit) towelling

terse /ˈtəs/ adj : brief and direct in a way that may seem rude or unfriendly ▪ a terse statement/sentence/summary ▪ She gave me a few terse instructions and promptly left the room. synonyms see CONCISE

– terse•ly adv ▪ a tersely worded reply – terse•ness noun [noncount]

ter•ti•ary /ˈtəʃiˌeri, Brit ˈtəːʃəri/ adj, formal : third in order, importance, or value ▪ Headaches often occur during the tertiary stage of the illness. ▪ our tertiary goals ▪ (chiefly Brit) tertiary education [=education at the college or university level] — compare PRIMARY, SECONDARY

TESL /ˈtɛsəl/ abbr, chiefly US teaching English as a second language

TESOL /ˈtiːsəl/ abbr 1 US Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages 2 teaching English to speakers of other languages

[1]test /ˈtɛst/ noun, pl tests [count]

1 : a set of questions or problems that are designed to measure a person's knowledge, skills, or abilities ▪ She is studying for her math/spelling/history test. ▪ I passed/failed/flunked my biology test. ▪ The teacher sat at his desk grading tests. ▪ a driver's/driving test [=a test that is used to see if someone is able to safely drive a car] ▪ an IQ test ▪ test questions ▪ The test will be on [=the questions on the test will be about] the first three chapters of the book. ▪ We took/had a test on European capitals. = (Brit) We did a test on European capitals. ▪ The college relies on test scores in its admissions process. — see also INTELLIGENCE TEST, RORSCHACH TEST, SCREEN TEST

2 a : a careful study of a part of the body or of a substance taken from the body ▪ The test showed/revealed a problem with your liver function. ▪ a vision/hearing test [=a test that shows how well you see/hear] ▪ a urine test [=a test that examines a person's urine for evidence of disease or illegal drugs] ▪ allergy tests [=tests that show what you are allergic to] ▪ All applicants must pass a drug test. [=a test that examines a person's blood or urine for evidence of illegal drugs] ▪ The doctor will call you with the test results. ▪ They went to the drug store to buy a pregnancy test. [=a device that reacts to a woman's urine in a way that shows whether or not she is pregnant] ▪ a DNA test [=a test that examines DNA and that is used to identify someone or to show that people are relatives] — see also BLOOD TEST, BREATH TEST, STRESS TEST

b : a careful study of a small amount of water, soil, air, etc., in order to see if its quality is good, to find out if it contains a dangerous substance, etc. ▪ The test indicated high levels of lead in the soil. ▪ routine water tests

3 : a planned and usually controlled act or series of acts that is done to learn something, to see if something works properly, etc. ▪ lab/laboratory tests ▪ underground nuclear tests ▪ a test of a new vaccine ▪ Taste tests revealed that people prefer this brand of cola over that one. — often used before another noun ▪ As participants in the sleep study, test subjects will be kept awake for 18 hours. ▪ The effects of the drug were clear when the test group was compared with the control group. — see also ROAD TEST

4 : something (such as a difficult situation or task) that shows how strong or skilled someone or something is ▪ a test of will/strength/character ▪ The real/true test of your ability as a skier is whether you can ski well on very hard snow. — see also ACID TEST, LITMUS TEST

5 Brit, sports : TEST MATCH

put (someone or something) to the test : to cause (someone or something) to be in a situation that shows how strong, good, etc., that person or thing really is ▪ The team has been playing well so far, but tomorrow's game will really put them to the test. [=will really test them] ▪ A trip through the desert will put the truck to the test. ▪ We decided to put the idea/theory to the test [=to test the theory] with a little experiment.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

stand the test of time : to continue to be important, respected, etc., for a long period of time ▪ Great art/literature/music can stand the test of time.

test of (your) character see CHARACTER

– see also HIGH-TEST, MEANS TEST

[2]test verb tests; test•ed; test•ing

1 [+ obj] : to use a set of questions or problems to measure someone's skills, knowledge, or abilities ▪ Weekly quizzes will test your understanding of the material. ▪ The students will all be tested again at the end of the school year. — often + on ▪ The exam will test you on your understanding of basic grammar rules.

2 : to examine a part of the body or a substance taken from the body [+ obj] The school nurse will be testing students' hearing next week. — often + for ▪ They tested the campers for Lyme disease. ▪ Blood samples from the animals are being tested for the presence of the virus. ▪ Athletes competing in the tournament will be tested for illegal drugs. [no obj] The athletes knew that tournament officials would be testing for (the presence of) illegal drugs. ▪ She tested positive/negative for AIDS.

3 : to examine a small amount of water, soil, air, etc., in order to see if its quality is good, if it contains a dangerous substance, etc. [+ obj] The water gets tested regularly. — often + for ▪ They will test the soil for traces of lead. [no obj] — + for ▪ They will test for the presence of lead in the soil.

4 [+ obj] : to use (something) in a planned and usually controlled way in order to see if it works properly ▪ Only one of the vehicles they tested performed well in wet conditions. ▪ Researchers are currently testing (the safety of) the vaccine. ▪ The vaccine has not been tested on humans yet. ▪ We designed a series of experiments to test our hypothesis. — see also FIELD-TEST

5 [+ obj] : to show how strong, good, etc., someone or something is in a difficult situation ▪ The stress is testing the strength of our relationship. ▪ The scandal is testing the country's faith in its leadership. ▪ Life's ordeals test us. ▪ You're testing my patience. [=you are starting to make me annoyed or upset] — see also TIME-TESTED test the waters also test the water : to do something to find out if people like or approve a possible plan, product, etc., so that you can make a decision about it ▪ The company is testing the waters with a new online version of the product. ▪ She's testing the waters for a presidential bid.

– test•able /ˈtɛstəbəl/ adj ▪ a testable hypothesis

tes•ta•ment /ˈtɛstəmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : proof or evidence that something exists or is true [count] The success of the album, which is only available online, is a testament to the power/strength of the Internet. [noncount] The event is testament to [=evidence of] what a small group of determined people can do.

2 [count] law : the legal instructions in which you say who should receive your property, possessions, etc., after you die : WILL ▪ a person's last will and testament

– see also NEW TESTAMENT, OLD TESTAMENT

– tes•ta•men•ta•ry /ˌtɛstəˈmɛntəri/ adj, law

test ban noun, pl ~ bans [count] : an official agreement between countries with nuclear weapons to not test those weapons ▪ a nuclear test ban treaty test case noun, pl ~ cases [count] law : a legal case that will be used as an example when other similar cases are decided in the future test drive noun, pl ~ drives [count] : an occurrence in which you drive a car that you do not own to see if you like it and would like to buy it ▪ Would you like to take the car for a test drive?

– test–drive verb -drives; -drove; -driv•en; -driv•ing [+ obj] ▪ She test-drove four or five different cars before deciding on one.

test•er /ˈtɛstɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person or device that tests something ▪ She works as a video game tester.

2 : a container of perfume, lotion, etc., in a store that customers can use to try the product

testes plural of TESTIS

tes•ti•cle /ˈtɛstɪkəl/ noun, pl -ti•cles [count] : one of two small organs that are located in a sack of skin (called the scrotum) in men and male animals and that produce sperm and male hormones

– tes•tic•u•lar /tɛˈstɪkjələ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ testicular cancer

tes•ti•fy /ˈtɛstəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing

1 a : to talk and answer questions about something especially in a court of law while formally promising that what you are saying is true [no obj] She refused to testify about who had given her the information. ▪ Three witnesses were called/summoned to testify at (the) trial. ▪ She testified before Congress today. ▪ He agreed to testify against his drug dealer. ▪ They will testify for the defense/prosecution. [=they will testify because the defense/prosecution has asked them to] [+ obj] He testified that he'd seen two people leave the building on the night of the murder. b : to talk about or say (something) in an honest and confident way [+ obj] I can (personally) testify that the food at that diner is excellent. [no obj] — + to ▪ Many of her former employees came forward to testify to her generosity. [=to say that she is a generous person]

2 : to show that something is true or real : to give proof of something [no obj] — + to ▪ These statistics testify to the fact that the program is working. [=show that the program is working] ▪ The fact that doctors were able to catch the disease before it had spread testifies to the importance of medical screenings. [+ obj] These statistics testify that the program is working.

3 [no obj] US : to talk to a group of people about your belief in God especially as part of a church service ▪ Several people testified during the revival meeting.

[1]tes•ti•mo•ni•al /ˌtɛstəˈmoʊnijəl/ noun, pl -als [count]

1 a : a written or spoken statement in which you say that you used a product or service and liked it ✧ Testimonials are often used to sell the products or services they are about. ▪ The Web site is full of testimonials from satisfied customers.

b : a written or spoken statement that praises someone's work, skill, character, etc. ▪ He received a glowing testimonial from his former employer.

2 : an event at which someone is honored ▪ They have planned a testimonial [=tribute] in her honor. — often used before another noun ▪ She is being honored at a testimonial dinner next week.

3 : TESTAMENT 1 — + to ▪ The book's popularity is a testimonial to its timeliness.

[2]testimonial adj : relating to testimony and especially to legal testimony ▪ testimonial evidence

tes•ti•mo•ny /ˈtɛstəˌmoʊni/ noun, pl -nies

1 : something that someone says especially in a court of law while formally promising to tell the truth [noncount] The jury heard 10 days of testimony. [count] There were contradictions in her testimony. ▪ the personal/oral/written/eyewitness testimonies of survivors of the war

2 : proof or evidence that something exists or is true : TESTAMENT — + to [noncount] It is testimony to her courage and persistence that she worked for so long in the face of such adversity. [count] The popularity of diet fads is a testimony to the fact that people want a quick fix for their health and weight problems.

test•ing /ˈtɛstɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : difficult to deal with ▪ It's been a testing [=trying] time for all of us.

testing ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count]

1 : a place where machines, vehicles, etc., are tested to see if they are working correctly ▪ a testing ground for weapons

2 : a place or situation in which new ideas, methods, etc., can be tried ▪ Her class served as a testing ground [=proving ground] for new teaching methods.

tes•tis /ˈtɛstəs/ noun, pl tes•tes /ˈtɛˌstiːz/ [count] technical : TESTICLE test match noun, pl ~ matches [count] chiefly Brit, sports : a game or series of games of cricket or rugby played by teams from different countries

tes•tos•ter•one /tɛˈstɑːstəˌroʊn/ noun [noncount]

1 medical : a substance (called a hormone) that occurs naturally in men and male animals ✧ Testosterone causes the development of the male reproductive system and characteristics of the adult male body.

2 informal + often disapproving : qualities (such as noticeable strength and aggressiveness) that agree with traditional ideas about what men are like ▪ a testosterone-fueled television show test pilot noun, pl ~ -lots [count] : a pilot who flies new aircraft in order to see how well they work test run noun, pl ~ runs [count] : an occurrence in which a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

product or procedure is tried in order to see if it works correctly : TRIAL RUN ▪ They did a test run of the new software.

test tube noun, pl ~ -tubes [count] : a glass container that is shaped like a tube which is closed at one end and that is used especially in science experiments test–tube baby noun, pl ~ -bies [count] : a child produced from an egg that was fertilized outside of a woman's body and then put back into the woman's body to finish developing tes•ty /ˈtɛsti/ adj tes•ti•er; -est : becoming angry or annoyed easily ▪ She grew a little testy [=irritable, (chiefly Brit) tetchy] as the afternoon wore on.

– tes•ti•ly /ˈtɛstəli/ adv ▪ He replied testily that, no, he did not want any help. – tes•ti•ness /ˈtɛstinəs/ noun [noncount]

tet•a•nus /ˈtɛtnəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a dangerous disease that is caused by bacteria that usually enter the body through a cut or wound ✧ Tetanus causes muscles and especially muscles in the jaw to become stiff. — called also (informal) lockjaw

tetchy /ˈtɛʧi/ adj tetch•i•er; -est chiefly Brit : becoming angry or annoyed easily ▪ tetchy [=irritable] children ▪ She was in a tetchy [=testy] mood.
– tetch•i•ly /ˈtɛʧəli/ adv – tetch•i•ness /ˈtɛʧinəs/ noun [noncount]

tête–à–tête /ˌtɛtəˈtɛt/ noun, pl tête-à-têtes [count] : a private conversation between two people ▪ They had a quiet tête-à-tête over dinner last night. ✧ Tête-à-tête in French literally means "head-to-head."

[1]teth•er /ˈtɛðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a rope or chain that is used to tie an animal to a post, wall, etc., so that it will stay in a particular area
the end of your tether see [1]END

[2]tether verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to use a rope or chain to tie (an animal) to something in order to keep it in a particular area ▪ They tethered the horses in the shade. ▪ The dog was tethered to the fence. — often used figuratively ▪ She can't stand being tethered to her desk all day. [=having to stay at her desk all day]

Teu•ton•ic /tuˈtɑːnɪk, Brit tjuˈtɒnɪk/ adj
1 : thought to be typical of German people ▪ a Teutonic commitment to hard work
2 a : relating to Germany, Germans, or the German language ▪ the Teutonic wilderness ▪ a Teutonic [=Germanic] scholar/word b : relating to an ancient people who lived in northern Europe ▪ Teutonic legends

Tex. abbr Texas

Tex–Mex /ˈtɛksˈmɛks/ adj, always used before a noun : relating to Mexican-American culture, music, or food of the kind that exists especially in southern Texas ▪ a Tex-Mex restaurant

[1]text /ˈtɛkst/ noun, pl texts
1 [noncount] : the original words of a piece of writing or a speech ▪ A good critic will refer back to the text often. ▪ You can find the full text of his speech on his Web site. ▪ the text of the Constitution
2 [noncount] : the words that make up the main part of a book, magazine, newspaper, Web site, etc. ▪ The book is mostly photographs—it has very little text. ▪ At this point the Web site is only text. Graphics will be added later.
3 [count] a : a book or other piece of writing; especially : one that is studied ▪ an ancient religious text ▪ Students will read and discuss various literary texts. ▪ (Brit) Shakespearean plays are set texts [=pieces of writing that must be studied in schools] in many secondary schools. b US : TEXTBOOK ▪ a psychology text
4 a [noncount] : data handled by a computer, cell phone, etc., that is mostly in the form of words ▪ I typed 32 pages of text. ▪ a text file b [count] : TEXT MESSAGE ▪ He sends hundreds of texts a month.
5 [count] : a short section of the Bible that is read aloud especially during a religious service

[2]text verb texts; text•ed; text•ing : to send someone a text message [+ obj] I texted her a little while ago. ▪ I texted a message to her. ▪ She just texted me back. [no obj] She just texted back.
– texting noun [noncount] ▪ Texting [=text messaging] is a major preoccupation for many teens.

[1]text•book /ˈtɛkstˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book about a particular subject that is used in the study of that subject especially in a school ▪ an algebra textbook

[2]textbook adj, always used before a noun : very typical ▪ The scandal is a textbook [=classic, perfect] case/example of corporate greed.

tex•tile /ˈtɛkˌstaɪl, ˈtɛkstl/ noun, pl -tiles
1 [count] : FABRIC, CLOTH; especially : a fabric that is woven or knit ▪ They import fine silk textiles from China. ▪ a factory where textiles are made = a textile factory
2 textiles [noncount] : the businesses that make textiles ▪ She made her fortune in textiles. [=the textile industry]

text message noun, pl ~ -sag•es [count] : a short message that is sent electronically to a cell phone or other device ▪ She sent me a text message saying that she'll be late. — called also text
– text messaging noun [noncount] ▪ I use my cell phone for text messaging. [=for sending text messages]

tex•tu•al /ˈtɛksʧəwəl/ adj : relating to or based on a piece of writing (such as a book or magazine) ▪ textual analysis/criticism ▪ textual evidence [=evidence expressed in writing]

tex•ture /ˈtɛksʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 : the way that something feels when you touch it [count] wood with a rough texture ▪ the smooth texture of silk [noncount] The plant's leaves are almost leathery in texture. ▪ Mixing sand into the paint will add texture. [=will give the paint a rough texture when it dries]
2 : the way that a food or drink feels in your mouth [count] a crunchy/rich/silky texture ▪ foods with very different textures [noncount] The custard should be smooth and creamy in texture. ▪ Next I added some flour to the sauce for texture. [=to give it the right texture]
3 : the various parts of a song, poem, movie, etc., and the way they fit together [count] a song with layered textures ▪ I liked the raw, gritty texture of the film. [noncount] The movies are similar in texture.
– tex•tur•al /ˈtɛksʧərəl/ adj ▪ textural contrast tex•tured /ˈtɛksʧəd/ adj : having a surface that was designed so that it is not smooth ▪ textured fabrics ▪ The invitations were printed on handmade textured paper.

TGIF abbr, US thank God/goodness it's Friday

Th. abbr Thursday

-th or -eth adj suffix — used in writing after numbers other than 1, 2, and 3 ▪ 100*th* = hundred*th* ▪ Fort*ieth* Street = 40*th* Street ▪ a 5*th*-grade teacher ▪ the eigh*th* of April

Thai /ˈtaɪ/ noun, pl Thai or Thais
1 [count] a : a person born, raised, or living in Thailand b : a person whose family is from Thailand
2 [noncount] : the language of Thailand
– Thai adj ▪ Thai food/curry ▪ Thai people

[1]than /ˈðæn, ðən/ conj
1 — used to introduce the second or last of two or more things or people that are being compared; used with the comparative form of an adjective or adverb ▪ Ten is less than 20. ▪ She is younger than I am. = (somewhat formal) She is younger than I. ▪ He can run more quickly than his father (can). ▪ Both recipes use more salt than mine (does). ▪ The situation will improve sooner than you think (it will). ▪ The meeting will end no later than noon. [=it will end at noon or some time before noon] ▪ Losing weight is easier said than done. [=is difficult to do] ▪ I would rather go out to dinner than cook at home tonight. ▪ Your hair looks better (when it's) brown than (when it's) blond. ▪ She would rather/sooner work four jobs than move out of Manhattan to live somewhere cheaper. — see also other than at [1]OTHER, rather than at RATHER
2 — used to say that something happens immediately after something else ▪ Hardly/scarcely had the sun come up than dark clouds began to roll in. ▪ No sooner had I spoken than he appeared. [=he appeared immediately after I spoke]

[2]than prep : when compared to — used with pronouns in the objective case (me, her, him, them, and us) in the same way that the conjunction than is used with pronouns in the subjective case (I, she, he, they, and we) ▪ She is younger than me. [=she is younger than I (am)] ▪ I'm taller than him. [=I'm taller than he (is)] > usage Some people consider the use of than as a preposition to be incorrect. It is very common, however, especially in the phrase than me.

none other than see [1]NONE

thank /ˈθæŋk/ verb thanks; thanked; thank•ing [+ obj] : to tell (someone) that you are grateful for something that he or she has done or given ▪ I thanked her for (giving me) the present. ▪ I want to thank everyone who helped today. ▪ There's no need to thank me. Anyone would have done the same. ▪ He thanked his grandmother with a big hug. [=he thanked her by hugging her] have (someone or something) to thank for (something) — used to say that someone or something is responsible for something ▪ The television show has young audiences to thank for its success. [=the show is successful because it is popular with young audiences] ▪ The city has the mayor to thank [=to blame] for its current fiscal problems.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

thank God/goodness/heaven(s)/the Lord — used to express happiness or relief that something did or did not happen ▪ Thank God you got here when you did. ▪ Thank goodness it turned out to be a false alarm.

thank you 1 — used to thank someone ▪ "Here's your change." "Thank you." "You're welcome." ▪ Thank you from the bottom of my heart. = (more formally) I thank you from the bottom of my heart. — often + for ▪ Thank you (very much) for helping me. = Thank you (very much) for your help. 2 — used to politely accept or refuse an offer ▪ "Can I carry that for you?" "Thank you (very much)." ▪ "Would you like another one?" "Yes, thank you." [=yes, please] ▪ "Can I carry that for you?" "No, thank you. I'll do it myself." 3 — used to tell someone in a somewhat annoyed way that you do not want help or advice ▪ I'm perfectly capable of doing it by myself, thank you (very much).

thank•ful /ˈθæŋkfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : glad that something has happened or not happened, that something or someone exists, etc. ▪ I'm thankful (that) we were not on the boat when the storm hit. ▪ Everyone was thankful to hear the good news. — often + for ▪ We have so much to be thankful for. ▪ I'm very thankful [=grateful] for all the help they've given me. ▪ I'm so thankful for my family.
2 : of, relating to, or expressing thanks ▪ a thankful feeling ▪ thankful words
– thank•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a feeling of thankfulness

thank•ful•ly /ˈθæŋkfəli/ adv
1 : in a way that makes you feel thankful ▪ I knew I could call her if there was an emergency but thankfully [=fortunately] it wasn't necessary. ▪ Thankfully, no one was hurt. [=I am glad/thankful that no one was hurt] ▪ The instructions were thankfully simple.
2 old-fashioned : with a feeling of thanks ▪ I always receive your calls thankfully.

thank•less /ˈθæŋkləs/ adj
1 : difficult and not valued by other people ▪ a thankless task/job
2 : not showing or feeling thanks ▪ thankless people

thanks /ˈθæŋks/ noun [plural]
1 : a good feeling that you have towards someone who has helped you, given something to you, etc. ▪ I brought you a gift as a way of showing my thanks for all you've done. ▪ I want express my thanks [=gratitude] (to you) for your kindness and generosity.
2 : something done or said to express thanks ▪ A simple bouquet of flowers can be a nice way to say thanks. ▪ We should give thanks (to God) for all the good things in our lives.
3 — used as a less formal way to say "thank you" ▪ "Here's your change." "Thanks." "You're welcome." ▪ Thanks! I appreciate it. ▪ "How's your mother doing?" "She's doing well, thanks." [=thank you for asking] — often + for ▪ Thanks for coming. ▪ Thanks so much for your kind letter. = Many thanks for the kind letter.
4 — used like "thank you" as a polite way of accepting or refusing an offer ▪ "Do you want another one?" "Thanks." [=yes, please] ▪ "Do you want another one?" "Yes, thanks." [=yes, please] ▪ "Do you want another one?" "No, thanks." ▪ "Can I help you find something?" "No thanks, I'm just looking." ▪ "Would you like a ride?" "Thanks, but no thanks. I'll walk."
no thanks to : without the help of (someone or something) : despite (someone or something) ▪ The vote passed, no thanks to the mayor. [=the vote passed even though the mayor did not help or want it to pass] owe a debt of thanks to see DEBT
thanks a bunch/lot/million informal : thank you very much ▪ Wow, this is great! Thanks a million! — often used in an ironic way to say that you are not pleased that someone has done or said something ▪ "I'm boring? Thanks a lot!" ▪ Thanks a million for leaving the door open. There are flies everywhere now.
thanks to : with the help of (someone or something) : because of (someone or something) ▪ I'm a lot happier these days thanks to my new girlfriend. ▪ Thanks to a new technique, patients typically recover from the surgery in only a few days. — often used in an ironic way ▪ Thanks to you we have to do the whole thing over again.

thanks•giv•ing /θæŋksˈgɪvɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 Thanksgiving : the fourth Thursday in November in the U.S. or the second Monday in October in Canada celebrated as a legal holiday for people to be thankful for what they have ✧ People traditionally eat a large meal with family or friends on Thanksgiving. ▪ Are you going home for Thanksgiving? ▪ Thanksgiving dinner — called also Thanksgiving Day
2 formal : a prayer that expresses thanks to God ▪ They sang a hymn of thanksgiving.

thank–you /ˈθæŋkˌju:/ noun, pl -yous [count] : something that you give or do to show thanks : a polite expression of thanks — usually singular ▪ They threw him a big party as a thank-you for his work at the community center. ▪ Have you sent out the thank-yous [=notes/cards/letters thanking people for their gifts, help, etc.] yet? — often used before another noun ▪ a thank-you note/letter/gift

[1]that /ˈðæt, ðət/ pronoun, pl those /ˈðoʊz/
1 a — used to indicate which person, thing, fact, or idea is being shown, pointed to, or mentioned ▪ That is my book. ▪ Those are my shoes. ▪ That is where I went to school. ▪ "What kind of tree is that?" "That is a maple." ▪ Who was that? ▪ Is that your boyfriend (standing) over there? ▪ Those are my sisters. ▪ Well, look at that. The baby can crawl now. ▪ "It will be difficult." "That's true." ▪ You are the first person in our family to graduate from college, and that makes me proud. ▪ "Why did you quit?" "Because I felt like it. That's why." ▪ "The meeting is canceled." "Who told you that?" ▪ "It was the worst movie I've ever seen." "Come on—it couldn't have been as bad as that." ▪ It may cost as much as $30, but no more than that. usage see [1]THIS b — used to refer to a time, action, or event that was just mentioned ▪ You quit? Why did you do that? ▪ I brushed my teeth, and after that I went to bed. ▪ He won't be there until six o'clock, but I expect to arrive before that. [=before then; before six o'clock] ▪ "I hate you!" she screamed. And with that [=after saying that] she stormed out of the room. c — used to refer to the one that is farther away or less familiar ▪ This is my hat and that is yours. ▪ Those are nice, but I like these better. ▪ Do you want this one or that (one)? ▪ Don't do it like that. Do it like this.
2 somewhat formal a : the kind or thing described or identified ▪ The aluminum parts are much lighter than those made from steel. [=much lighter than the parts made from steel] — often + of ▪ We know of no other planet with an atmosphere like that of the Earth. [=an atmosphere like the Earth's atmosphere] b : the kind or thing stated previously — usually singular ▪ "There is the matter of your raise (to discuss)." "Yes, there is that." — sometimes used to stress the truth of a statement ▪ "Is she capable?" "She is that." [=(more commonly) she certainly is] ▪ "He told us more than we needed to know, but at least he answered our question." "Oh, yes. That he did." [=he certainly did do that] — see also that's . . . for you at [1]FOR 3 those somewhat formal : a particular group of people ▪ Let's take a vote. All those in favor, say "aye." ▪ There are those who think she should resign.
4 formal + literary : the one : the thing : the kind — used to introduce a clause ▪ What is that you say? [=what did you say?]
all that 1 informal a : everything of the kind stated or suggested ▪ She had money, fame, and all that. — see also FOR ALL THAT (below) b : more things of the same kind ▪ The store sells computers, cell phones, and all that. [=and other such things] 2 : the stated or suggested degree, amount, etc. — usually used in negative statements ▪ The movie couldn't have been as bad as all that. [=the movie must have been better than you say it was] — see also all that at [2]ALL and that 1 somewhat formal — used to refer to an idea just mentioned ▪ He was helpful, and that to an unusual degree. [=he was unusually helpful] 2 chiefly Brit, informal : and more things of the same kind ▪ She spends her money drinking, gambling, and that. [=and so forth] at that 1 — used when giving more information about something or someone that was just mentioned ▪ It's a fancy new car, and a sports car at that. — usually used in the phrase and a bad/good (etc.) one at that ▪ The band did a remake of the song, and a bad one at that. ▪ She is a lawyer, and a very talented one at that. 2 : without adding or do-

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

ing anything more ▪ Let's just say that I got in a little trouble with the police, and leave it at that. = Let's let it go at that. [=I do not want to say anything more about it] ▪ They offered him the salary that he asked for, but he couldn't leave it at that. [=he asked them for something else/more] for all that : in spite of something just mentioned ▪ She sacrificed many nights to study for the exam, but for all that she still failed.

that does it see [1]DO that is or that is to say 1 — used when giving more accurate or specific information about someone or something that was just mentioned ▪ We—that is to say my wife and I—will be attending the wedding. 2 — used when giving information that affects something previously mentioned ▪ We plan on going to the concert—that is, if tickets are still available.

that is all or that's all 1 — used to say that something is finished or completed ▪ "Do you need anything else?" "No, thanks, that's all." ▪ They're (just) different, that's all. [=I am not saying anything more than that they are different] 2 — used to say that something is all that is needed or wanted ▪ I went there to visit friends and that's all. [=that is all I wanted to do there] that is that or that's that — used to say that a decision or situation cannot be changed ▪ I won't sell it for less than 50 dollars and that is that. ▪ I'm not going and that's that.

that's a good boy/girl/dog (etc.) — used to praise a child or animal for obeying you ▪ Please pick up your toys. That's a good girl. ▪ Sit. That's a good dog.

that should/will do (it) see [1]DO

that's it see [1]IT

that's life — used to say that something unpleasant or difficult is a normal part of life ▪ Sometimes you try your hardest and still don't succeed. That's life.

– compare [4]THAT

[2]that conj

1 — used to introduce a clause that is the subject or object of a verb ▪ That he said no is not surprising. ▪ I never said that I was afraid. ▪ Mom said that we could go to the park. ▪ The reason for his absence is that he is ill.

2 — used to introduce a clause that completes or explains the meaning of a previous noun or adjective or of the pronoun it ▪ There is a chance that it might rain. ▪ I am certain that it is true. ▪ It's not surprising that he said no. ▪ It is unlikely that she'll be in. ▪ He made it clear that he needed our help. ▪ It's not that they said no—that's not why I'm upset; it's that they were so rude about it. ▪ (formal) The power of the wind was such that trees were uprooted.

3 — used to introduce a clause that states a reason or purpose ▪ I'm glad that you're here. ▪ I am sorry that you lost your dog. ▪ (literary) Rejoice that the war is over! ▪ (literary) "The Lord only gives us our worldly goods that we may do justice and mercy . . . " —Harriet Beecher Stowe, Uncle Tom's Cabin (1852) ▪ She was saving money so that she could buy a car. ▪ Carry it with both hands so that you don't drop it.

4 — used especially after a phrase beginning with so or such to introduce a clause that states a result ▪ She was so dizzy that she fell down. ▪ He was in such a rush that he forgot to take his hat.

> usage That in senses 1, 2, 3 and 4 is often omitted in informal English, except when it is used at the beginning of a sentence. ▪ I never said (that) I was afraid. ▪ There is a chance (that) it might rain. ▪ I am certain (that) it's true. ▪ I'm glad (that) you're here. ▪ Carry it with both hands so (that) you don't drop it. ▪ She was so dizzy (that) she fell down. ▪ He was in such a rush (that) he forgot to take his hat.

5 literary — used to introduce a clause expressing surprise, sorrow, anger, desire, etc. ▪ Oh, that he would come back! [=I wish that he would come back] ▪ That it should come to this! [=I am very shocked, disappointed, etc., by this result] in that see [2]IN not that — used to say that something that may seem true is not true ▪ She ignored my suggestion—not that I care. [=I do not care that she ignored my suggestion] ▪ Not that it matters much [=it does not matter much], but is the artist a man or a woman? ▪ Some people lie to get out of jury duty. Not that I ever would, of course. [=I would never lie to get out of jury duty]

[3]that adj, always used before a noun, pl those

1 — used to indicate which person, thing, or idea is being shown, pointed to, or mentioned ▪ That boy hit me. ▪ Those books are mine. ▪ Those shoes are nice. ▪ That sister of yours ruined my shirt. ▪ Can you hand me that wrench over there? ▪ I like that idea. ▪ Go that way. ▪ That kind of behavior will not be tolerated in the classroom. ▪ I was not at home on that day. ▪ I left her a message, and she called me later that afternoon. ▪ By that point in the trip, everyone was getting tired. ▪ At that moment, the answer finally dawned on me. ▪ "I can't seem to reach him at home." "In that case [=if that is true], you'd better call his cell phone." ▪ He's skilled at writing dialogue, and in that regard/respect his new novel is excellent.

2 — used to indicate the one that is farther away or less familiar ▪ Do you want this one or that one? ▪ I'd like that one. ▪ Are you talking about these shoes, or those shoes over there? ▪ I'll try going this way, and you try going that way.

3 : the other ▪ She twisted it this way and that way.

that way 1 : in the manner described or suggested ▪ What makes her act that way? 2 : in or into the condition described or suggested ▪ He is a very successful man and it is easy to see how he got that way.

[4]that pronoun — used to introduce a group of words that limits the meaning of a noun especially to a specific person, place, or thing ▪ The person that [=who] won the race also won last year. ▪ I'm no longer the man that I used to be. ▪ Is it me that you are looking for? ▪ Can you describe the person that [=who, (formal) whom] you saw? ▪ children that learn to talk early ▪ The movie that we watched was a drama. ▪ The restaurant that I like is closing. ▪ You should open the wine that our guests brought. ▪ You were born the same year that I was. ▪ I just want to be treated with the same respect that others are treated with. ▪ The fact that you are here shows how much you care about me. ▪ There is nothing that you can do about it now.

> usage That in this sense is often omitted in informal English. ▪ You were born the same year (that) I was. ▪ You should open the wine (that) our guests brought. When it is the subject of a verb, however, it is always included. ▪ The person that won the race also won last year. ▪ children that learn to talk early

– compare [1]THAT

[5]that /ˈðæt/ adv

1 a : to the degree that is stated or suggested ▪ "It was the worst movie that I have ever seen." "Was it really that bad?" "Yes, it was that bad." ▪ What would you do with that much money? ▪ I don't think I'd ever been that sad. [=as sad as I was then] ▪ "Don't go over the speed limit." "Does the car even go that fast?" ▪ I didn't realize the book was that long. ▪ (Brit, informal) They were that [=so] poor they couldn't buy food. — often used in negative statements ▪ I can't believe (that) a cup of coffee costs that much. ▪ Come closer—I can't throw the ball that far. ▪ We rarely see snow. It doesn't usually get that cold here. b : to the degree or extent indicated by a gesture ▪ He is about that [=this, so] tall. ▪ I need a nail about that long.

2 informal : to a great degree : VERY — usually used in negative statements ▪ She didn't take his comments that seriously. ▪ "How cold is it outside?" "It's not that cold." ▪ "When did it happen?" "Not that long ago." — see also all that at [2]ALL

[1]thatch /ˈθætʃ/ noun

1 a [noncount] : dried plant material (such as straw or leaves) that is used to make the roof of a building ▪ Mice were living in the thatch of the roof. b [count] : a roof made of thatch : a thatched roof ▪ We ate lunch in the shade under the thatch of a beachfront restaurant.

2 [singular] : a thick mass of hair on a person's head ▪ her thatch of dark brown hair

[2]thatch verb thatch•es; thatched; thatch•ing [+ obj] : to make (a roof) with dried plant material (called thatch) ▪ thatch a roof

– thatched adj ▪ a thatched roof ▪ thatched cottages/huts [=cottages/huts that have roofs made of thatch]

[1]thaw /ˈθɑ:/ verb thaws; thawed; thaw•ing

1 : to stop being frozen or to cause (something) to stop being frozen [no obj] The ice on the pond is beginning to thaw. [=melt] ▪ Plant the seeds in early spring as soon as the ground thaws. — often + out ▪ The meat will have to thaw out before you can use it. [+ obj] The sun will soon thaw the snow and ice. — often + out ▪ You'll have to thaw the meat out before you can use it.

2 [no obj] of weather : to become warm enough that snow and ice melt ▪ The weather is beginning to thaw.

3 : to return to a normal temperature after being very cold

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

[no obj] Our cold fingers and toes eventually thawed. — often + out ▪ We sat in front of the fire and let our feet thaw out. [+ obj] She held the coffee cup tightly, trying to thaw her frozen fingers.

4 : to become more friendly and less angry [no obj] Relations between the countries have thawed since the trade embargo was lifted. [+ obj] Efforts to thaw relations between the two countries have failed.

[2]thaw noun, pl thaws [count]

1 : a period of weather that is warm enough to melt ice and snow ▪ flooding from the spring thaw

2 : a situation in which a relationship becomes more friendly and less angry ▪ a thaw in international relations

the /ðə before consonant sounds, ði before vowel sounds, ˈði: when said with emphasis/ definite article

1 — used to indicate a person or thing that has already been mentioned or seen or is clearly understood from the situation ▪ He bought a house, but this is not the house he bought. ▪ This is the restaurant I was telling you about. ▪ I'll take the red one. ▪ Put the cat outside. ▪ The teacher gave a quiz. ▪ She's the boss. ▪ I am telling the truth. ▪ What is the matter/problem? ▪ I'm no fool; you're the fool for believing him.

2 a — used to refer to things or people that are common in daily life ▪ We talked on the telephone for an hour. ▪ Turn on the television. ▪ She opened the windows. ▪ You need to go to the doctor. ▪ He said he put the letter in the mail yesterday. ▪ My suit is still at the dry cleaner. b — used to refer to things that occur in nature ▪ The sky is getting dark. ▪ A strong wind was blowing from the east. ▪ The planets revolve around the sun. ▪ Our daughter has the flu. ▪ They talked for a while about the weather.

3 a — used to refer to a particular unit or period of time ▪ She is out of the office at the moment. ▪ The time has come for us to make peace. ▪ It is the best movie of the year. ▪ We are usually not home during the day. ▪ during the winter ▪ in the future/past/present ▪ The style was popular during the 1980s. b Brit — used to indicate the day on which something happened or will happen ▪ He left five days later, on the Sunday. [=(US) on Sunday]

4 — used before the name of a specific person, place, event, work of art, etc. ▪ the President of the United States of America ▪ the White House ▪ the New York Yankees ▪ the Department of Transportation ▪ the Mississippi River ▪ the American Civil War ▪ the Renaissance ▪ the Mona Lisa ▪ the Bible

5 — used to indicate which person or thing you are referring to or discussing ▪ She gave the correct answer. ▪ He is competing against the best of the best. ▪ the fastest runner ▪ I took the last piece of pizza. ▪ I never have the time to read. ▪ He doesn't have the patience to paint the house. ▪ the English language ▪ the poet William Wordsworth ▪ the right to vote ▪ the London of Victorian times ▪ He plays the hero of the play. ▪ She is from the west coast of Africa. ▪ the beginning/arrival of spring ▪ the announcement of his candidacy

6 — used in titles after a person's name ▪ Alexander the Great ▪ Elizabeth the Second ▪ Jack the Ripper ▪ William the Conqueror

7 — used before an ordinal number ▪ This is the first time he has been late. ▪ Payment is due on the fifth of each month. ▪ Friday the 13th ▪ the Fourth of July

8 a — used before a singular noun to refer in a general way to people or things of a particular kind ▪ This book gives some useful tips for the beginner. [=for beginners] ▪ The cobra is a poisonous snake. [=cobras are poisonous snakes] b — used to indicate the type of musical instrument someone plays ▪ She plays the guitar. c — used before an adjective that is being used as a noun to refer to all of the people or things that have a particular quality ▪ the rich ▪ the homeless ▪ the British ▪ the living and the dead d — used before a plural noun to indicate that every person or thing of the kind specified is included ▪ the Greeks and the Romans ▪ The newspapers covered the story. e — used before the plural form of a person's last name to indicate that all the members of the family are included ▪ the Smiths

9 a — used to indicate that a person or thing is the best of its kind ▪ This is the life. [=this is the way I want to live; this is a very enjoyable way to live, spend time, etc.] ▪ I think he's the one (for me), and I want to marry him. ▪ He is the person [=the right person] for the job. ▪ This seems to be the place to be. b — used to indicate the most famous person having a particular name ✧ This sense of the is emphasized in speech. ▪ "I saw Julia Roberts when I was in L.A." "You saw the Julia Roberts, the famous actress?"

10 — used to refer in a general way to a specific type of activity ▪ the law ▪ the arts and sciences ▪ the publishing industry ▪ I love the opera. ▪ the cinema ▪ He competes in the long jump. ▪ the backstroke ▪ The cat was on the prowl. ▪ The soldiers were on the move.

11 a — used to refer to a part of your body or clothing ▪ How's the [=your] arm feeling today? ▪ He grabbed me by the [=my] sleeve. ▪ She led him by the [=his] hand. b informal — used before a noun that refers to a person's family, job, health, etc. ▪ How is the [=your] family? ▪ I have to talk the offer over with the [=my] wife. ▪ Is the job going well? ▪ How's the headache?

the•ater (US) or chiefly Brit the•atre /ˈθijətɚ/ noun, pl -aters

1 [count] a : a building where plays, shows, etc., are performed on a stage ▪ the oldest theater in the city ▪ a theater performance ▪ the theater district in New York City — see also DINNER THEATER b US : a building or room in which movies are shown ▪ The film is now showing in theaters. ▪ a movie theater ▪ a home theater

2 [noncount] a : plays in general or as a form of entertainment ▪ We enjoyed a weekend of music, dance, and theater. ▪ He was very fond of the theater and had purchased tickets for several performances. ▪ Her interests include theater and poetry. ▪ the theater of 16th-century England ▪ a theater critic b : the art or activity of performing in or producing plays on a stage ▪ She majored in theater in college. ▪ a course in American theater ▪ His monologues made for good theater. ▪ The play makes lively theater. ▪ a theater troupe/company — see also COMMUNITY THEATER

3 [count] a : a place where important events or actions occur — usually singular ▪ the theater of health-care reform b : a large area where there is a war ▪ He fought in the Pacific theater (of operations) in World War II.

4 [count] Brit : OPERATING ROOM

the•ater•go•er (US) or chiefly Brit the•atre•go•er

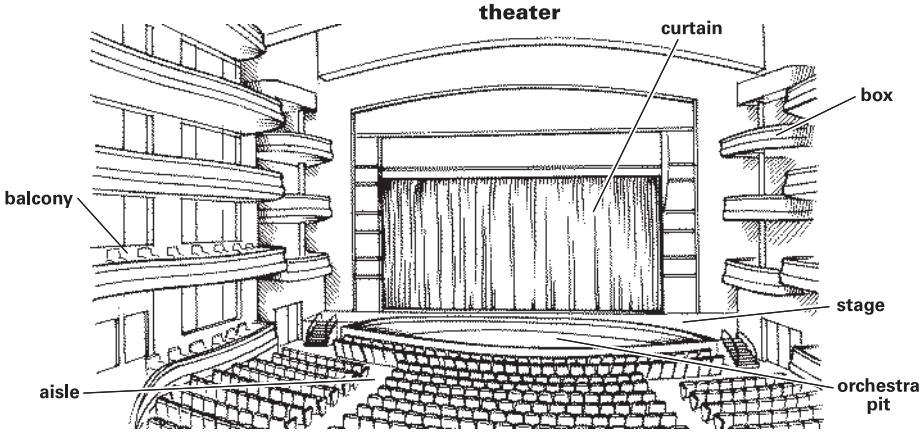
theater



T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

/ˈθijətəˌgowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who often goes to the theater to see plays – the•ater•go•ing (US) or chiefly Brit the•atre–go•ing /ˈθijətəˌgowɪŋ/ adj ▪ the theatergoing public

the•at•ri•cal /θiˈætrɪkəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to the theater ▪ theatrical costumes/ambitions
2 [more ~; most ~] : behaving or done in a way that is meant to attract attention and that is often not genuine or sincere ▪ a theatrical gesture/bow ▪ theatrical behavior ▪ a politician who has a highly/very theatrical manner of speaking – the•at•ri•cal•i•ty /θiˌætrəˈkæləti/ noun [noncount] – the•at•ri•cal•ly /θiˈætrɪkli/ adv

the•at•ri•cals /θiˈætrɪkəlz/ noun [plural]
1 : the performance of plays on a stage ▪ amateur theatricals
2 Brit : THEATRICS 1

the•at•rics /θiˈætrɪks/ noun [plural] chiefly US
1 often disapproving : ways of behaving and speaking that are like a performance on a stage and are intended to attract attention ▪ courtroom theatrics ▪ the theatrics of politicians
2 : THEATRICALS 1 ▪ amateur theatrics

thee /ðiː/ pronoun, old-fashioned + literary — used as a singular form of "you" when it is the object of a verb or preposition. ▪ "I take thee at thy word . . . " —Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet (1594–95) ▪ "Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing . . . " —Samuel Francis Smith, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" (1831)

theft /ˈθɛft/ noun, pl thefts : the act or crime of stealing [count] car thefts ▪ The theft of the jewelry and other valuables was immediately reported to the police. [noncount] He was found guilty of theft. — see also GRAND THEFT, PETIT THEFT, PETTY THEFT their /ˈðeɚ, ðɚ/ adj, always used before a noun, possessive form of THEY

1 : relating to or belonging to certain people, animals, or things ▪ All the furniture in their house is brand-new. ▪ They are on friendly terms with their neighbors. ▪ The students are seeking to exercise their rights. ▪ The birds have left their nest. ▪ The trees have all shed their leaves. : made or done by certain people, animals, or things ▪ Their artwork is on display at the museum. ▪ They did their best. ▪ Their conversation went well. ▪ He was angry because of their arriving/being late.
2 : his or her : his : her : its — used to refer to a single person whose sex is not known or specified ▪ Anyone in their right mind would find it unjust. ▪ Each person reacts to their environment differently.

Do not confuse their with there or they're.

theirs /ðeɚz/ pronoun
1 : that which belongs to or is connected with them : their one : their ones ▪ The computer is theirs. [=the computer belongs to them; it is their computer] ▪ He bought his car on the same day his parents bought theirs. ▪ She is a friend of theirs. [=she is their friend] ▪ That dog of theirs [=their dog] is always barking.
2 : his or hers — used to refer to a single person whose sex is not known or specified ▪ I will do my part if everybody else does theirs.

the•ism /ˈθiːˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that God exists or that many gods exist — compare MONOTHEISM, POLYTHEISM
– the•ist /ˈθiːjɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

them /ˈðɛm, ðəm/ pronoun, objective form of THEY
1 — used to refer to certain people, animals, or things as the objects of a verb or preposition ▪ Their mother drove them to soccer practice. ▪ I haven't met them yet. ▪ You can ask any of them for help. ▪ I played basketball with them yesterday.
2 : him or her — used to refer to a single person whose sex is not known or specified ▪ The teacher said that if anyone came forward and admitted to the prank, she wouldn't punish them. [=she wouldn't punish that person]
3 informal + humorous : those — used in nonstandard speech ▪ Them's fighting words. [=those are words that are likely to cause a fight]

the•mat•ic /θɪˈmætɪk/ adj : of or relating to a theme ▪ thematic writing ▪ the thematic development in the story – the•mat•i•cal•ly /θɪˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ The poems are grouped thematically.

theme /ˈθiːm/ noun, pl themes [count]
1 : the main subject that is being discussed or described in a piece of writing, a movie, etc. ▪ The quest for power is the underlying theme of the film. ▪ A constant theme in his novels is religion. ▪ The playwright skillfully brings together various themes. ▪ The album focuses on themes of love and loss. ▪ Adventures are popular themes in children's books.
2 a : a particular subject or issue that is discussed often or repeatedly ▪ The growing deficit was a dominant theme in the election. b : the particular subject or idea on which the style of something (such as a party or room) is based ▪ The party had a Hawaiian luau theme. ▪ The theme of the baby's room was zoo animals. [=the baby's bedroom was decorated with pictures of zoo animals] ▪ a theme party
3 music a : the main melody that is repeated in a piece of music b : THEME SONG ▪ They played the theme from/to the movie "Rocky."
4 US : a short piece of writing by a student on a particular subject : ESSAY ▪ The students were assigned to write a theme on the person they admired most.
– themed /ˈθiːmd/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ themed restaurants/events ▪ a sports-themed restaurant ▪ a Hawaiian-themed party

theme park noun, pl ~ parks [count] : an amusement park where the rides and attractions are based on a particular theme (sense 2b)

theme song noun, pl ~ songs [count] : a song that is played at the beginning and end of a television show, movie, etc. ▪ He was playing the theme song from/to "The Godfather."

them•selves /ðɛmˈsɛlvz/ pronoun
1 : those same people, animals, or things: a — used as the object of a verb or preposition to refer to people, animals, or things that have already been mentioned ▪ They are getting themselves ready. ▪ They did most of the painting themselves. ▪ nations that govern themselves ▪ They were dedicated to helping those less fortunate than themselves. ▪ people who are unable to care for themselves ▪ They enjoyed working for themselves. ▪ They kept their plans to themselves. [=they kept their plans secret] ▪ She had the house all to herself. [=she was alone in the house] b — used for emphasis to refer again to people, animals, or things that have already been mentioned ▪ They were young once themselves. ▪ They themselves were quite surprised when they won the game.
2 : himself or herself — used to refer to a single person whose sex is not known or specified ▪ Nobody should blame themselves.
3 : their normal or healthy selves ▪ They were themselves again after a night's rest. ▪ They didn't feel like themselves for a while after the long flight.
by themselves 1 : without any help from other people ▪ The students solved the math problem by themselves. 2 : with nobody else : ALONE ▪ They toured the city by themselves instead of traveling with a guide.

[1]then /ˈðɛn/ adv
1 : at that time : at the time mentioned ▪ It was then believed (that) the Earth was flat. ▪ She lived in the Soviet Union, as it then was called. ▪ Just then he walked in. ▪ Back then, he was living in New York.
2 a — used to indicate what happened or happens next ▪ He walked down the street, then turned the corner. ▪ First the clowns come out, (and) then the elephants and lions (come out). b — used to indicate what should be done next ▪ "Take your first right, (and) then turn left at the light," he said. ▪ Bring the soup to a boil, then turn down the heat and let it simmer for half an hour. c — used to indicate something more that must be done or thought of ▪ We need to choose the menu, rent a banquet hall, and then there are the invitations to send.
3 a — used to indicate what must be true or what must or should happen if something else is true or happens ▪ If you were there, then you must have seen him. ▪ If it rains, then we can't go. ▪ "It's raining." "Then we can't go." ▪ "He confessed." "The case is closed, then." ▪ If you want it, then take it. = Take it, then, if you want it. ▪ Hurry, then, if you want to catch the bus. ▪ What if there should be a fire? What then? [=what will happen then?] ✧ Then is often omitted following if. ▪ If it rains, (then) we can't go. b — used to say or ask about what appears to be true based on what has happened or been said ▪ You did go, then, after all. ▪ Your mind is made up, then? c — used to say what has been agreed to or decided ▪ OK, then, I'll see you at seven o'clock. d somewhat formal — used to make a final statement that refers back to the things that have just been mentioned or described ▪ These, then, are the things you must do. ▪ All of us, then, must accept some blame for these problems.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

4 — used after words like all right and OK at the beginning of a statement ▪ All right, then, let's get started.
and then some see [2]SOME but then see [1]BUT even then see [2]EVEN (every) now and then see [1]NOW
then and there or chiefly Brit there and then : immediately at that place ▪ I decided (right) then and there that I would accept the offer. ▪ I made up my mind then and there.

[2]then noun [singular] : that time ▪ Since then, I've been more careful. ▪ He advised me to wait until then. ▪ They'll announce their decision next week. Until then, she'll just have to hope for the best. ▪ We should get there before then. ▪ They were friends from then on. ▪ Nothing like that had ever happened up to then.

[3]then adj, always used before a noun : existing at or belonging to the time mentioned ▪ She was appointed to the position by Connecticut's then governor. [=by the person who was Connecticut's governor at that time] thence /ˈðɛns/ adv, formal : from that place : from there ▪ Their travels took them to the Bahamas, thence south to Venezuela.

thence•forth /ˈðɛnsˌfoəθ/ adv, formal : from that time forward : starting then ▪ He was determined thenceforth to dedicate himself to his studies. ▪ Thenceforth, she decided, she would deal with the media herself.

the•oc•ra•cy /θiˈɑ:krəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : a form of government in which a country is ruled by religious leaders
2 [count] : a country that is ruled by religious leaders – theo•crat•ic /ˌθi:jəˈkrætɪk/ adj ▪ a theocratic government/regime

theo•lo•gian /ˌθi:jəˈloʊʤən/ noun, pl -gians [count] : a person who is an expert on theology

the•ol•o•gy /θiˈɑ:ləʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [noncount] : the study of religious faith, practice, and experience : the study of God and God's relation to the world ▪ He has an interest in theology and pastoral work.
2 [count] : a system of religious beliefs or ideas ▪ Christian/Muslim/Jewish theology ▪ The bishop was opposed to the group's theology.
– theo•log•i•cal /ˌθi:jəˈlɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ theological studies/arguments – theo•log•i•cal•ly /ˌθi:jəˈlɑ:ʤɪkli/ adv

the•o•rem /ˈθi:jərəm/ noun, pl -rems [count] technical : a formula or statement that can be proved from other formulas or statements ▪ mathematical theorems

the•o•ret•i•cal /ˌθi:jəˈrɛtɪkəl/ also the•o•ret•ic /ˌθi:jəˈrɛtɪk/ adj
1 : relating to what is possible or imagined rather than to what is known to be true or real ▪ On a theoretical level, hiring more people seems logical. ▪ The idea is purely theoretical at this point. ▪ a theoretical argument ▪ The teacher gave us a theoretical [=hypothetical] situation as an example. ▪ The danger is more than just a theoretical possibility. ▪ I was speaking in theoretical terms. [=theoretically]
2 : relating to the general principles or ideas of a subject rather than the practical uses of those ideas ▪ theoretical physics
– the•o•ret•i•cal•ly /ˌθi:jəˈrɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ Theoretically, the value of the funds could triple in the next few months. ▪ It is theoretically possible but unlikely to happen. ▪ He argued theoretically.

the•o•re•ti•cian /ˌθi:jərəˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : THEORIST

the•o•rist /ˈθi:jərɪst/ noun, pl -rists [count] : a person who forms theories about something ▪ political theorists the•o•rize also Brit the•o•rise /ˈθi:jəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing : to think of or suggest ideas about what is possibly true or real : to form or suggest a theory about something [no obj] Many scientists have theorized about/on the possibility of life on other planets. [+ obj] — usually + that ▪ The police theorized that the same person was responsible for both murders.

the•o•ry /ˈθi:jəri/ noun, pl -ries
1 : an idea or set of ideas that is intended to explain facts or events [count] a widely accepted scientific theory ▪ Einstein's theory of relativity ▪ theories on/about evolution [noncount] according to atomic/economic theory
2 [count] : an idea that is suggested or presented as possibly true but that is not known or proven to be true ▪ Her method is based on the theory that all children want to learn. ▪ There are a number of different theories about the cause of the disease. ▪ She proposed a theory of her own. ▪ Investigators rejected the theory that the death was accidental. ▪ There is no evidence to support such a theory.
3 [noncount] : the general principles or ideas that relate to a particular subject ▪ He is a specialist in film theory and criticism. ▪ music theory in theory 1 — used to say what should happen or be true if a theory is correct ▪ In theory, the reading skills of the students should improve. 2 — used to say that something seems to be true or possible as an idea but may not actually be true or possible ▪ I agree with you in theory, but realistically I don't think we have the time to do that.

ther•a•peu•tic /ˌθerəˈpju:tɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : producing good effects on your body or mind ▪ the therapeutic benefits of yoga ▪ Gardening can be very therapeutic.
2 : of or relating to the treatment of illness ▪ a therapeutic diet ▪ the therapeutic effects of radiation ther•a•peu•tics /ˌθerəˈpju:tɪks/ noun [noncount] medical : a branch of medicine that deals with the ways to treat illnesses

ther•a•pist /ˈθerəpɪst/ noun, pl -pists [count]
1 : a person trained in methods of treating illnesses especially without the use of drugs or surgery ▪ He works with a therapist to improve his speech. — see also OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST, PHYSICAL THERAPIST, PHYSIOTHERAPIST
2 : a person who helps people deal with mental or emotional problems by talking about those problems : a person trained in psychotherapy ▪ He saw his therapist [=psychotherapist] regularly when he was going through his divorce. ▪ a family therapist

ther•a•py /ˈθerəpi/ noun, pl -pies
1 : the treatment of physical or mental illnesses [noncount] He is undergoing cancer therapy. [count] new drug therapies — see also CHEMOTHERAPY, GENE THERAPY, GROUP THERAPY, HORMONE REPLACEMENT THERAPY, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY, PHYSICAL THERAPY, SHOCK THERAPY, SPEECH THERAPY
2 [noncount] : PSYCHOTHERAPY

[1]there /ˈðeə/ adv
1 a : in that place : at that location ▪ Put the package there on the table. ▪ Go to your room and stay there. ▪ Turn there at the church. ▪ She was sitting there a minute ago. ▪ Hello. Is Pat there? ▪ They have lived there for 30 years. ▪ When will you be there? ▪ Please stand over there. ▪ I used to live near/around there. ▪ What do you see out/down/up/in there? ▪ At last we're there! [=we have arrived at the place we were traveling to] ▪ The opportunity to score was there [=was available], so I took the shot. — used in speech when something is found ▪ So there you are. I've been looking for you. ▪ Ah, there's the book I've been looking for. b : to or into that place ▪ If we leave now, we should get there by noon. ▪ I drove the kids there. ▪ He drove there and back in one day. ▪ Can we walk there? ▪ We go there every year.
2 a : at that point in a process, activity, story, etc. ▪ Stop right there, before you say something you'll regret. ▪ There the story takes a surprising turn. b : in that particular matter ▪ There is where I disagree with you.
3 a — used with the verb be at the beginning of a sentence that makes a statement about a situation or asks about a situation ▪ There is no way to know when he'll be home. ▪ There's no point in arguing about it. ▪ There's still a lot for us to do. ▪ There are many things to be considered. ▪ There is a person waiting to see you. [=a person is waiting to see you] ▪ Is there a gas station nearby? b — used to introduce a sentence in which the subject comes after the verb ▪ There will come a time [=a time will come] when I will need your help. ▪ There used to be a school here. ▪ Once upon a time, there lived a beautiful princess named Snow White.
4 — used in speech after a noun to emphasize which person, thing, etc., you are referring to ▪ That clock there once belonged to my great-grandmother. ▪ I just saw that boy there stealing a piece of candy. ▪ You there! What are you doing?!
5 informal — used to address a person or animal ▪ Well, hello there. ▪ Say there, do you have the time?
6 — used to introduce a sentence in which the subject comes after the verb ▪ There was your chance [=that was your chance] to ask her out on a date. ▪ There's still a lot for us to do. ▪ Eat your vegetables. There's a good girl. [=you're a good girl if you eat your vegetables]

Do not confuse there with their or they're.

been there, done that see BE 8

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

have been there — used to say that you have experienced the same thing that someone else has experienced ▪ I know how you feel. I've been there (before) myself.
here and there see [1]HERE here, there, and everywhere see [1]HERE neither here nor there see [1]HERE out there informal — used to say in a general way that someone or something exists ▪ I'm not surprised that he lied about it. There are a lot of people like him out there. [=there are a lot of other people who would have lied] ▪ Be careful when you drive. There are a lot of crazy drivers out there. ▪ She's been searching for the right car to buy. It's out there somewhere. — see also OUT-THERE then and there or there and then see [1]THEN there go/goes see [1]GO there's . . . for you see [1]FOR there you are or there you go informal 1 — used to tell someone that you have given them what they asked for ▪ There you are, sir. That will be $3 for the coffees. ▪ "Could you pass the salt?" "Sure, there you go." 2 — used to indicate that something is completed or done in a satisfactory way ▪ You just plug it in, push this button, and there you are. ▪ There you are, then. You got what you wanted. ▪ Wait, I want to fix your tie. There you go.
there you have it informal — used to indicate that something is completed or done in a satisfactory way ▪ You just plug it in, push this button, and there you have it. ▪ There you have it. The mystery is solved.
you have me there or there you have me see HAVE

[2]there adj, not used before a noun : capable of being relied on for support or help ▪ My dad has always been there for me. [=has always helped me when I needed his help] ▪ She is there to answer any questions you might have.
not all there see [2]ALL

[3]there interj
1 — used to attract attention ▪ There, look at that. ▪ There, you've gone and broken it!
2 — used to show satisfaction, approval, or encouragement ▪ There, it's finished at last. ▪ There, I told you so.
so there informal — used to say in a somewhat rude, angry, or childish way that you have stated your opinion or decision and will not change it ▪ Well, I don't want to be your friend, either. So there! ▪ I'm going no matter what you say. So there!
there, there — used to tell someone not to be worried or unhappy ▪ There, there [=now, now], don't cry. Everything will be OK.

[4]there noun [noncount]
1 : that place ▪ Get away from there.
2 : that point ▪ I'll get everything ready, and you take it from there.

there•abouts /ˌðerəˈbaʊts/ also US there•about /ˌðerəˈbaʊt/ adv : near or around that place, time, number, amount, etc. ▪ He lives on Maple Street or thereabouts. ▪ It happened in 1977 or thereabouts. ▪ There were 50 people or thereabouts. — compare HEREABOUTS

there•af•ter /ðeəˈæftə, Brit ðɛrˈɑːftə/ adv, formal : after that ▪ Thereafter, the two companies operated in full partnership. ▪ She returned shortly thereafter.

there•by /ðeəˈbaɪ/ adv, formal : by means of that act, those words, that document, etc. ▪ He signed the contract, thereby forfeiting his right to the property.
thereby hangs a tale see [1]HANG there'd /ˈðeəd/ — used as a contraction of there had or there would ▪ There'd [=there had] never been a case like it before. ▪ I knew there'd [=there would] be trouble.

there•fore /ˈðeəˌfoə/ adv, somewhat formal : for that reason : because of that ▪ The cell phone is thin and light and therefore very convenient to carry around. ▪ Payment was received two weeks after it was due; therefore, you will be charged a late fee.

there•in /ðeəˈɪn/ adv, formal
1 : in or into that place or thing ▪ The insurance covers the apartment and all the property therein. ▪ His name was mentioned in the article, although he was incorrectly described therein as a medical doctor.
2 : in that statement, fact, or detail ▪ They have to make a decision soon. Therein lies the problem. [=that is why there is a problem] If they act too quickly, they run the risk of choosing the wrong plan.

there•of /ðeəˈʌv/ adv, formal : of the thing that has been mentioned ▪ The professor explained the problem and solution thereof. [=the problem and the solution of the problem] ▪ A will or any part thereof [=any part of a will] may be revoked by a subsequent will. ▪ The problem is money, or (a/the) lack thereof. [=the problem is a lack of money]

there•on /ðeəˈɑːn/ adv, formal : on the thing that has been mentioned ▪ The highway and structures thereon are being repaired. ▪ a text with a commentary thereon

there's /ˈðeəz, ðəz/ — used as a contraction of there is or there has ▪ There's [=there is] a lot more to do. ▪ There's [=there has] never been any reason to doubt him.

there•to /ðeəˈtuː/ adv, formal : to the thing that has been mentioned ▪ The bill and amendments thereto are being considered.

there•un•der /ðeəˈʌndə/ adv, formal : under the thing that has been mentioned ▪ the statute and regulations thereunder

there•up•on /ˈðerəˌpɑːn/ adv, formal
1 : immediately after that ▪ The committee reviewed the documents and thereupon decided to accept the proposal.
2 : on the thing that has been mentioned ▪ The jurors discussed the evidence and made/based their decision thereupon.

[1]ther•mal /ˈθəːməl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or caused by heat ▪ thermal energy ▪ thermal insulation/stress
2 : designed to keep you warm by preventing heat from leaving your body ▪ thermal clothing/underwear
3 : having hot water flowing out of the ground ▪ thermal springs/waters
– ther•mal•ly adv

[2]thermal noun, pl -mals
1 [count] : a rising current of warm air that is produced when the sun heats an area of the ground
2 thermals [plural] Brit : thermal clothing or underwear ther•mo•dy•nam•ics /ˌθəːmoʊdaɪˈnæmɪks/ noun [noncount] technical : a science that deals with the action of heat and related forms of energy – ther•mo•dy•nam•ic /ˌθəːmoʊdaɪˈnæmɪk/ adj – ther•mo•dy•nam•i•cal•ly /ˌθəːmoʊdaɪˈnæmɪkli/ adv

thermometer

ther•mom•e•ter /θəˈmɑːmətə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : an instrument used for measuring temperature ▪ The thermomemeter says it's almost 80 degrees outside, but it doesn't feel that hot. ▪ a digital/meat thermometer

ther•mo•nu•cle•ar /ˌθəːmoʊˈnuːkliə, Brit ˌθɜːməʊˈnjuːkliə/ adj, technical : of or relating to the changes in the nucleus of atoms that happen at extremely high temperatures ▪ a thermonuclear reaction/explosion ▪ Hydrogen bombs are thermonuclear weapons/devices.

ther•mos /ˈθəːməs/ noun, pl -mos•es [count] : a container that keeps liquids hot or cold for long periods of time — called also (US) thermos bottle, (Brit) flask, (Brit) vacuum flask

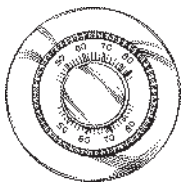
ther•mo•stat /ˈθəːməˌstæt/ noun, pl -stats [count] : a device that automatically adjusts the temperature in a room temperature to a desired level ▪ I set the thermostat to 68 degrees.; also : a similar device used for adjusting the temperature of a machine or system



thermostat

the•sau•rus /θɪˈsorəs/ noun, pl -sau•ri /-ˈsoəˌraɪ/ or -sau•rus•es /-ˈsorəsəz/ [count] : a book in which words that have the same or similar meanings are grouped together these plural of THIS the•sis /ˈθiːsəs/ noun, pl the•ses /ˈθiːˌsiːz/ [count]

1 : a long piece of writing on a particular subject that is done to earn a degree at a university ▪ She wrote her thesis on Renaissance Nativity scenes. ▪ a master's/doctoral thesis on the effects of global warming
2 formal : a statement that someone wants to discuss or prove ▪ New evidence supports his thesis. ▪ We disagreed with the basic thesis of the report. ▪ The book's central thesis is that propaganda influences the masses in important ways.

thes•pi•an /ˈθɛspijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] formal + sometimes humorous : ACTOR ▪ a renowned thespian and director

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

they /ˈðeɪ/ pronoun
1 : those people, animals, or things ▪ They dance very well. ▪ They both played on the football team. ▪ They are thinking of getting a pet. ▪ What are they doing?
2 — used to refer to people in a general way or to a group of people who are not specified ▪ You know what they say: you only live once. ▪ They say it will be a mild winter. [=people who predict the weather say that it will be a mild winter] ▪ She's as hardworking as they come. [=she's extremely hardworking] ▪ They will be holding the graduation outdoors if the weather permits. ▪ They took away his license.
3 : he or she — used to refer to a single person whose sex is not known or specified ▪ Everyone can go if they want to.

they'd /ˈðeɪd/ — used as a contraction of they had or they would ▪ They admitted that they'd [=they had] been foolish. ▪ They'd [=they would] love to go but won't be able to.

they'll /ˈðeɪl, ðɛl/ — used as a contraction of they will ▪ They'll be arriving soon.

they're /ˈðeə, ðə/ — used as a contraction of they are ▪ It all depends on whether they're available or not.

Do not confuse they're with their or there.

they've /ˈðeɪv/ — used as a contraction of they have ▪ I don't think they've made up their minds yet.

thi•a•mine or thi•a•min /ˈθaɪəmən/ noun [noncount] : a natural substance (called a vitamin) that is found in certain foods and that helps your body to be healthy — called also vitamin B_1

[1]thick /ˈθɪk/ adj thick•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : having a large distance between the top and bottom or front and back surfaces : not thin ▪ a thick book/board ▪ thick walls ▪ a thick layer of ice ▪ He wore thick glasses. [=glasses with thick lenses] ▪ a thick cigar ▪ a thick slice of ham/bread/cake ▪ a thick, juicy steak ▪ pizza with a thick crust ▪ a thick wool sweater ▪ a bodybuilder with a thick, short body ▪ He was a man in his fifties, a little thick around the middle. [=fat around his waist] b : having a specified distance from one surface to the opposite surface : having a specified thickness ▪ The planks were two inches thick. ▪ The log was 12 inches thick. ▪ The recipe calls for one cup of mushrooms sliced ¼ inch thick.
2 a : having parts that are close together ▪ a thick [=dense] forest ▪ thick woods b : growing closely together and in a large amount ▪ a dog/cat with thick fur ▪ She has thick, curly hair.
3 : difficult to see through : DENSE ▪ thick black smoke ▪ The fog/haze was thick this morning. ▪ a thick blanket of fog
4 of a liquid : not flowing easily ▪ The stew/chili was very thick. ▪ thick gravy/sauce/syrup ▪ a thick milkshake ▪ The batter was too thick.
5 a of speech or the voice : difficult to understand ▪ His speech was thick and slurred. — often + with ▪ Her voice was thick with emotion when she talked about her divorce. b of a person's accent : very easy to notice ▪ He spoke with a thick [=heavy] accent.
6 informal : STUPID 1 ▪ They were just too thick to understand what I was saying. ▪ Why can't he get it through his thick head that I don't like him? [=why can't he understand that I don't like him?]
7 not used before a noun a chiefly US : existing in great numbers or large amounts ▪ The mosquitoes were thick [=there were a lot of mosquitoes] near the lake. ▪ Tension was thick in the office. [=there was a lot of tension in the office]
b : having great numbers or a large amount of something — + with ▪ The air was thick with mosquitoes. ▪ The atmosphere was thick with anticipation as we waited for the results.
8 not used before a noun, informal : having a close and friendly relationship ▪ Those two are really thick. [=close] ▪ They were (as) thick as thieves [=very close and secretive] for weeks, which made us wonder what they were doing. — often + with ▪ He was very thick with his pastor.
a thick ear Brit, informal : the punishment of being hit on the side of the head ▪ He threatened to give him a thick ear. [=(US) to slap him upside the head]
(a) thick skin see [1]SKIN blood is thicker than water see BLOOD thick on the ground : existing or occurring in large amounts ▪ Hotels and restaurants are thick on the ground along the strip. ▪ Presidential candidates are thick on the ground this year. [=there are a lot of presidential candidates this year]

[2]thick adv thick•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : in a way that makes thick pieces, layers, etc. ▪ Slice the roast thick.
2 : in great numbers ▪ Apples hung thick on the trees. ▪ Suggestions were coming in thick and fast. [=large numbers of suggestions were coming in quickly] lay it on thick see [1]LAY

[3]thick noun
in the thick of : in the most active or intense part of (something) ▪ a soldier in the thick of (the) battle ▪ He found himself in the thick of the action. ▪ We're really in the thick of things now.
through thick and thin : through many difficult times over a long period ▪ She stood by me through thick and thin.

thick•en /ˈθɪkən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to make (something) thick or thicker or to become thick or thicker [+ obj] I thickened the gravy with flour. [no obj] When the mixture thickens, add the remaining ingredients. ▪ The fog thickened when night fell.
the plot thickens see [1]PLOT – thick•en•er /ˈθɪkənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Flour/cornstarch is used as a thickener in sauces.

thick•et /ˈθɪkət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a group of bushes or small trees that grow close together ▪ a dense thicket of rosebushes — often used figuratively ▪ A thicket of reporters blocked the entrance to city hall. ▪ a tangled thicket of laws thick–head•ed /ˈθɪkˌhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : not intelligent or sensible : STUPID ▪ He's a stubborn and thick-headed old fool. ▪ a thick-headed decision thick•ly /ˈθɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : in a way that makes thick pieces, layers, etc. ▪ thickly sliced mushrooms ▪ thickly padded cushions ▪ He buttered the bread thickly.
2 : with a lot of people, trees, etc., close together ▪ a thickly settled neighborhood ▪ a thickly wooded area
3 of speech or the voice : in a way that is difficult to understand ▪ thickly accented speech

thick•ness /ˈθɪknəs/ noun
1 a : the distance between the top and bottom or front and back surfaces of something : a measurement of how thick something is [noncount] The plank measures two inches in thickness. [count] the length, circumference, and thickness of the log ▪ Plywood is available in various thicknesses. ▪ Cooking time will vary depending on the thickness of the steak/chops. b [noncount] : the quality of being thick ▪ I added flour to increase the gravy's thickness. ▪ I was surprised by the thickness of his accent.
2 [count] : a layer or sheet of some material — usually + of ▪ a single thickness of canvas/foil/cloth thick•set /ˈθɪkˌsɛt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a short, thick body ▪ a thickset man thick–skinned /ˈθɪkˌskɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] 1 : having a thick skin ▪ a thick-skinned orange

2 : not easily bothered by criticism or insults : not sensitive ▪ You need to be thick-skinned if you are going to work in politics. — opposite THIN-SKINNED thief /ˈθi:f/ noun, pl thieves /ˈθi:vz/ [count] : a person who steals something ▪ a car thief ▪ A thief took my purse.

thiev•ery /ˈθi:vəri/ noun [noncount] formal : the act of stealing ▪ They accused him of thievery. [=they accused him of stealing something] ▪ a case of suspected thievery thiev•ing /ˈθi:vɪŋ/ noun [noncount] somewhat old-fashioned : the act or activity of stealing ▪ They finally found out about his thieving.

– thieving adj, always used before a noun ▪ You thieving liar!

thigh /ˈθaɪ/ noun, pl thighs [count]
1 : the part of your leg that is above the knee — see picture at HUMAN 2 : the side part of the leg of a bird ▪ boneless chicken thighs

thigh•bone /ˈθaɪˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : the long bone in the upper part of the leg : FEMUR — see picture at HUMAN

thim•ble /ˈθɪmbəl/ noun, pl thim•bles [count] : a small metal or plastic cap used in sewing to protect the finger that pushes the needle — see picture at SEWING

[1]thin /ˈθɪn/ adj thin•ner; -nest [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having a small distance between the top and bottom or front and back surfaces : not thick ▪ thin paper/walls ▪ a thin band/line/stripe ▪ a thin coating/layer of dust ▪ pizza with a thin crust ▪ a thin slice of ham
2 : not having a lot of extra flesh on the body : not fat ▪ a thin child ▪ She is very/too thin. ▪ thin legs synonyms see [2]LEAN

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

3 a : not growing closely together ▪ a thin stand of trees : not growing in a large amount ▪ thin hair ▪ His hair is a little thin on top. = He's a little thin on top. [=he does not have a lot of hair on the top of his head] b : having less than the usual, original, or needed number or amount ▪ Attendance at the carnival was a bit thin. [=low] ▪ My patience was wearing/running thin. [=I was becoming less patient]
4 of a liquid : flowing very easily : containing a lot of water ▪ thin broth/gravy/soup
5 : having less oxygen than normal ▪ thin air ▪ a thin atmosphere
6 : easy to see through ▪ The fog was relatively thin. ▪ a thin mist
7 : not large or impressive ▪ a thin [=very small] margin of victory ▪ She has a thin [=narrow] lead in the polls.
8 : not very good, useful, etc. : WEAK ▪ thin arguments/explanations ▪ That excuse is pretty thin. ▪ The story's plot is pretty thin. ▪ His argument quickly wore thin. ▪ a thin smile [=a weak smile that does not seem sincere]
9 of a voice : weak and high ▪ a high, thin voice
(a) thin skin see [1]SKIN
disappear/vanish into thin air* : to disappear completely in a way that is mysterious ▪ The papers seem to have vanished into thin air.
have a thin time (of it) Brit : to be in a difficult situation especially because you do not have enough money ▪ He was having a thin time of it until his novel started selling.
on thin ice see [1]ICE out of thin air — used to say that someone or something appears in a sudden and unexpected way ▪ He appeared out of thin air. [=out of nowhere]
the thin end of the wedge Brit : the beginning of something that will become more serious, unpleasant, etc. ▪ The bank's decision to raise rates could be the thin end of the wedge. [=many other banks may also decide to raise rates] thin on the ground Brit : existing or occurring in very small amounts ▪ Useful suggestions have been thin on the ground lately. [=there have been very few useful suggestions lately] through thick and thin see [3]THICK – thin•ness /ˈθɪnnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]thin verb thins; thinned; thin•ning : to make (something or someone) thin or thinner or to become thin or thinner: such as a : to become less crowded, close together, or full [no obj] The crowd gradually thinned [=grew smaller] as the night went on. ▪ The trees thinned as we climbed higher. [=there were fewer trees as we climbed higher] [+ obj] The bad weather thinned (out) the crowd a little. ▪ He plans to thin (out) the young carrots in the garden. [=to remove some of them so that there is more room between the remaining carrots] b [+ obj] : to make (a liquid) less thick by adding water or some other liquid to it ▪ He added a little more water to thin the gravy. c [no obj] of a person's hair : to become less thick as more hairs fall out over time ▪ His hair is thinning. = He has thinning hair. d [no obj] of fog, smoke, etc. : to become easier to see through : to become less thick or dense ▪ The haze thinned in the late afternoon. e : to become less fat or to make (someone) less fat [no obj] — usually + down ▪ She's thinned down a lot in the past year. [+ obj] His face has been thinned by illness.

[3]thin adv thin•ner; -nest [also more ~; most ~] : in a way that makes thin pieces, layers, etc. ▪ She sliced the cheese thin.

[1]thine /ðaɪn/ pronoun, old-fashioned + literary : YOURS ▪ May God's blessings be thine.

[2]thine adj, old-fashioned + literary : YOUR — used before words beginning with a vowel or an "h" ▪ "Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice . . . " —Shakespeare, Hamlet (1600)

thing /θɪŋ/ noun, pl things
1 [count] a : an object whose name is not known or stated ▪ What is that thing on the floor? ▪ That thing is loud. ▪ He is good at making things out of clay. b : an object, animal, quality, etc., of any kind ▪ My doctor told me to avoid fatty things like donuts and potato chips. ▪ We must respect all living things. ▪ She loves all things chocolate. [=she loves anything made out of chocolate] ▪ Her voice is a thing of great beauty. [=her voice is very beautiful] ▪ The disease is said to be a thing of the past. [=the disease no longer exists] ▪ The drawer has pens, paper clips, and things (like that). c : a particular event, occurrence, or situation ▪ Birth is a miraculous thing. ▪ It was the worst thing that could have happened. ▪ That sunset was the most beautiful thing I have ever seen. ▪ Let's just forget about the whole thing and move on. ▪ The one thing I hate most is being lied to. ▪ It's a good thing (that) no one was injured. ▪ Becoming friends with your boss is not a bad thing. = Becoming friends with your boss is no bad thing. [=becoming friends with your boss could have good results]
2 things [plural] : objects that belong to a person : personal possessions or belongings ▪ Are all your things packed? ▪ I need a place to store my things. ▪ The children's things are always lying around on the floor. ▪ When she realized she was late for work, she quickly put on her things [=she put on her clothes, shoes, etc.] and left.
3 things [plural] : objects that are used for a particular activity ▪ Put the cleaning things away when you are done. ▪ She got out the cooking things to bake some cookies.
4 [count] : an action that is done, that will be done, or that needs to be done ▪ I have many things to do today. = I have lots of things that need to get done today. ▪ There are a few things we still have to deal with. ▪ There is actually one thing you can do to help. ▪ Let's get this thing over with quickly. ▪ That was a mean/cruel/kind/generous/thoughtful thing to do. ▪ They expect great things from her. [=they expect her to be very successful] ▪ The boy did the right thing and gave back the toy he took. ▪ It's no easy thing [=it's not easy] to raise three children by yourself. ▪ Cathy and I hit it off on our first date. One thing led to another, and pretty soon we were engaged. — sometimes used to say that one action is more serious, difficult, or important than another. ▪ It is one thing to say you're sorry but (it is) another (thing) to actually mean it. ▪ Planning a project is one thing; doing it is another.
5 [count] a : an activity ▪ What things do you like to do in your spare time? ▪ I like hiking, biking—that sort of thing. ▪ The students are allowed to do their own thing. [=do the activities that they want to do] ▪ Just do your thing [=do what you usually do] and pretend I'm not here. b informal : an activity that is done by a particular group of people ▪ They spent the evening doing guy things. [=doing the kind of things that guys/men tend to like doing] ▪ You wouldn't understand, Dad. It's a girl thing. c US, informal : an activity and everything that is related to it — usually singular ▪ He tried the college thing [=he tried going to college] but dropped out after the first semester. ▪ She's done with the whole rebellious teenager thing. [=she's done being a rebellious teenager] d informal : an activity that someone enjoys or does well — usually singular ▪ Ballroom dancing is his thing, not mine. ▪ It's not really my (kind of) thing.
6 things [plural] : the conditions that exist at a particular time and in a particular place ▪ Things are improving. [=the situation is improving] ▪ How are things with the new baby? ▪ You're just making things more difficult for yourself. ▪ As things stand now [=in the current situation], we can't afford a new car. ▪ An apology would not change things between us. ▪ All things considered [=overall; when you think about everything that happened], the party went very well.
7 [count] : a fact or piece of information about something or someone ▪ He checks every little thing. [=detail] ▪ There are a lot of things you don't know about us. ▪ The thing I don't understand is why the car costs so much. ▪ When buying a car, price and performance are important things to consider. ▪ There is one more thing I'd like to ask you. ▪ Several things were discussed at the meeting. ▪ I'll give you a couple of days to think things over. [=to think about the situation and make a decision] ▪ We are always arguing, but the (funny) thing is, I think I love him. ▪ The thing is that [=it is important to understand that] you can never predict who will win. ▪ I make excellent chili. The thing is to pick the right peppers. [=to make excellent chili, you need to pick the right peppers] ▪ The thing with/about him [=an important characteristic to know about him] is that he is not reliable.
8 [count] : a thought, idea, or opinion ▪ He just says the first thing that pops into his mind. ▪ Don't say things you might regret later. ▪ That was a terrible thing to say. ▪ He had some interesting things to suggest. ▪ She always knows the right thing to say.
9 [singular] : a reason for something ▪ I can't stand being around him. For one thing, he smokes. For another, he's rude. ▪ OK, here's the thing: I don't have enough money to go to college. ▪ I'm sorry I didn't call you. The thing is, I've been really busy with work and school. ▪ The thing is that I haven't had time to call you.
10 [singular] a : a goal or purpose ▪ The thing is to get well, and then you can think about playing again. b : a way of reaching or achieving a goal ▪ There is only one thing left for us to do: fight back! ▪ (Brit) There's only one thing for it: we must fight.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

11 [count] informal — used for a person, animal, or object that causes strong feelings of affection or dislike in you ▪ You poor thing, you must be freezing. ▪ She's a pretty little thing, isn't she! ▪ Get that dirty thing out of my house!

12 [count] informal : a strong feeling of liking or disliking something or someone — usually singular; used with have ▪ She has a thing about snakes. [=she's afraid of snakes] ▪ He has always had this thing with flying. ▪ My teacher had this/a thing against me. [=my teacher disliked me for some unknown reason] ▪ He has a thing for [=he likes] women with red hair.

13 the thing a : the item that is the most fashionable or popular ▪ Long skirts are the thing to wear this season. ▪ It's the newest/latest thing in fashion. b : the fashionable or proper way of behaving, talking, or dressing ▪ It's the thing this year to buy products made from recycled materials. ▪ Wearing athletic shoes with a suit is not quite the thing.

all/other things being equal formal — used to say what should happen or be true if two situations, products, etc., are different in a specified way but not in other ways ▪ All things being equal, a person with a PhD should be getting a higher salary than someone with only a Master's degree.

all things to all people/men : a person or thing that makes all people happy by giving them what they want or need ▪ It was clear that the senator was trying to be all things to all people in her campaign. ▪ The museum is all things to all people, young and old.

amount to the same thing ✧ If two or more things amount to the same thing, there is very little difference between them. ▪ "Lying and cheating amount to the same thing," she said.

a thing : ANYTHING — used in negative statements ▪ I can't see a thing [=I can see nothing] without my glasses on. ▪ The guests will be here soon, and I don't have a thing (that is appropriate) to wear. ▪ Don't worry about a thing. I'll take care of everything. ▪ I can't do a thing to stop them! ▪ I got there early so I wouldn't miss a thing. ▪ The police couldn't get a thing out of him. ▪ She refused to tell me a thing about it. ▪ I haven't heard a thing from him since graduation. ▪ We haven't had a thing to eat all day. ▪ Forget what he said—it doesn't mean a thing. [=it has no meaning or importance; it's not true] ▪ None of this will mean a thing if we lose. ▪ She doesn't look a thing like [=anything like] her older sister. ▪ His new album doesn't sound a thing like his last one. [=his new album sounds nothing like his old one] a thing or two informal : some useful information ▪ I know a thing or two about cars. ▪ When it comes to cooking, she could teach you a thing or two.

at the center of things see ¹CENTER

be hearing things see HEAR chance would be a fine thing see ¹CHANCE

first thing see ¹FIRST

first things first see ¹FIRST

have another thing coming informal — used to say that someone is wrong or mistaken ▪ If he thinks he can fool me, he has another thing coming.

just the thing : the thing that is most likely to be helpful ▪ Chicken soup is just the thing for a cold. ▪ I know just the thing to cheer you up—ice cream! ▪ He always does/says just the right thing to make me feel better.

last thing see ²LAST

make a big thing informal ✧ If you make a big thing (out) of (something) or make a big thing about (something), you act as if something is very important or serious when it is not. ▪ It was a minor error, but she made a big thing out of it. ▪ Don't make such a big thing about missing the bus: there'll be another one along in a minute.

no such thing 1 — used to say that a particular person, object, etc., does not really exist ▪ A perfect person? There's no such thing. — often + as ▪ There is no such thing as a unicorn. ▪ There is no such thing as bad publicity. All publicity is good. 2 — used to say that you did not say or do something that someone believes or says you did ▪ "Why did you invite her?" "I did no such thing. She just showed up." ▪ "He said that you're not going with us." "I said no such thing."

of all things — used to emphasize that the thing you are referring to is the thing you would least expect ▪ The coach is making the entire football team take, of all things, ballet classes.

one of those things informal — used to refer to a bad or unfortunate experience that happened and to say that such experiences happen to everyone ▪ I missed the train and had to take a later one. It was just one of those things, I guess.

one thing after another — used to complain about the large number of bad or unfortunate events that happen to someone ▪ It's one thing after another with him. Now he's in jail for drunk driving. ▪ First I locked my keys in the car, and then I spilled coffee all over myself. It was just one thing after another today!

push things see ¹PUSH

see things see ¹SEE

sure thing see ¹SURE

the real thing : something that is genuine and not a copy or imitation : something that is truly valuable or important ▪ The diamond turned out to be the real thing. ▪ a substitute for the real thing ▪ You've done very well in your training. Let's just hope you're ready for the real thing.

(what) with one thing and another informal — used to say that you have been very busy doing or dealing with many things ▪ What with one thing and another, I have very little free time.

thing•am•a•bob /ˈθɪŋəməˌbɑːb/ noun, pl -bobs [count] informal : THINGAMAJIG thing•am•a•jig or thing•um•a•jig /ˈθɪŋəməˌʤɪg/ noun, pl -jigs [count] informal : something whose name you have forgotten or do not know ▪ It's one of those thingamajigs that can give you driving directions.

thing•um•my /ˈθɪŋəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] chiefly Brit, informal : THINGAMAJIG

thingy /ˈθɪŋi/ noun, pl thing•ies [count] informal : THINGAMAJIG ▪ She was wearing one of those hair thingies.

¹think /ˈθɪŋk/ verb thinks; thought /ˈθɑːt/; think•ing

1 : to believe that something is true, that a particular situation exists, that something will happen, etc. [+ obj] — often + that ▪ I thought (that) I heard your voice. ▪ She thinks (that) she knows the answer. ▪ I think (that) you can do it. ▪ We didn't think [=expect] (that) we would have any trouble. ▪ Did you really/honestly think (that) I would agree with you? ▪ I never thought (that) I would become a teacher. ▪ Who would have thought (that) we would meet each other here? ▪ He never thought (that) she would leave him. ▪ I hate to think (that) we will never see each other again. ▪ It was once thought (that) the Earth was flat. = The Earth was once thought to be flat. ▪ He is thought to have drowned. ▪ "Has she accepted the job?" "I (don't) think so." ▪ Am I right in thinking (that) you used to work there? ▪ "I can beat you." "That's what you think." [=you might believe that you can beat me, but you're wrong] ▪ "Where is he?" "He's still at home." "I thought as much." [=I thought he was still at home] ▪ Well, yes. I should think so. ▪ You would think (that) the school would have dictionaries in the classrooms. [=the school should have dictionaries in the classroom] ▪ $50 is enough, I would have thought. [no obj] It's going to be much more difficult than they think. [=suspect, expect] ▪ We may finish sooner than you think.

2 : to have an opinion about someone or something [+ obj] It's hot in here, don't you think? [=don't you agree?] ▪ People think he is one of the greatest jazz musicians of all time. = He is thought to be one of the greatest jazz musicians of all time. ▪ I think he should apologize. = I should/would think he would apologize. ▪ Is this a good use of our tax dollars? I think not/so. [=I don't/do believe that it is] ▪ You should think yourself [=consider yourself] lucky/fortunate to have gotten off with only a warning! — often + that ▪ I thought (that) the movie was excellent. ▪ He thinks (that) he is a good writer. ▪ Where do you think (that) we should eat? ▪ Do you think (that) we should buy the house? ▪ They think (that) it is unfair to have a rule like that. = They think it unfair to have a rule like that. [no obj] — + about or of ▪ What did you think about/of the movie? [=did you like or dislike the movie?] ▪ I told him exactly what I thought of him!

3 : to form or have (a particular thought) in your mind [+ obj] "He's handsome," she thought (to herself). ▪ You should relax and try to think pleasant thoughts. ▪ I was just thinking what it would be like to be a doctor. ▪ I dread to think how he will react. ▪ Why do you always think the worst? ▪ Just think how nice it would be to live here. [no obj] Just think—in two days we'll be on vacation, lying on the beach. — usually + about or of ▪ I was just thinking about you. ▪ I was thinking of the time we rented that cabin in the mountains. ▪ Just think about how much money we'll save.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

4 a : to use your mind to understand or decide something [no obj] Think before you answer the question. ▪ The game teaches students how to think. ▪ Let me think. Where did I see your car keys? ▪ We thought long and hard about it before we reached our decision. ▪ Don't disturb him: he's thinking. ▪ You have to think positive/positively if you want to succeed. — often + about ▪ The lecture gave the students a lot to think about. ▪ I have thought very deeply about this problem, trying to find an answer. ▪ Think about the offer. You might change your mind. ▪ Do you ever think about what you are going to do after you graduate? ▪ If/When you think about it, the argument does make sense. [+ obj] Give me a minute to think what to do. ▪ He couldn't think where they would have gone. ▪ You're awfully quiet. What are you thinking? ▪ I can't believe he did that! What was he thinking? b [+ obj] : to have thoughts about (something) ▪ She talks and thinks business all the time. ▪ He is always thinking [=thinking about] money.

5 [+ obj] : to remember (something) ▪ Can you think where you put it? ▪ She was trying to think where she had heard that name before. — often followed by to + verb ▪ Neither of us thought to close the garage door. ▪ She never thinks to call home. ▪ He never thought to ask how we are doing.

6 [+ obj] : to have thoughts about possibly doing (something) : to have the intention of doing (something) ▪ I think I'll give him a call today.

7 [+ obj] a — used to make a statement or suggestion less definite ▪ They used to live here, I think. [=I believe that they used to live here, although I'm not sure] ▪ I thought maybe we could go for a walk in the park. ▪ I was thinking we might have dinner together some time. b — used to politely ask someone to do something or give you something ▪ Do you think (that) you could give me a ride to the airport? [=could you give me a ride to the airport?] ▪ Do you think I could borrow the car tonight, Dad? c — used in questions that show anger or surprise about what someone has done or is doing ▪ What do you think you're doing? I just said you couldn't have one. ▪ Where do you think you're going? [=where are you going?] No one gave you permission to leave. ▪ Who do you think you are, barging in here like that?

come to think of it see [1]COME don't even think about (doing) it informal — used to tell someone in a forceful way that something is not allowed ▪ It's illegal to park here. Don't even think about it!

not think anything of : to not think of (something) as being important or unusual ▪ I didn't think anything of it at the time—but it turned out to be the clue that would solve the case. ▪ I didn't think anything of his wearing a long coat since it was cold outside.

not think much of : to not like (someone or something) very much ▪ They didn't think much of my idea. ▪ Though the singer was very popular, she didn't think much of him.

think again informal — used to say that what someone believes, expects, etc., is not true or will not happen ▪ If you think you can get away with this, think again. [=you are wrong]

think ahead : to prepare for a future event or situation by thinking about what might happen ▪ We should have thought ahead and brought an umbrella.

think aloud or think out loud : to say your thoughts so that other people can hear them ▪ No, I wasn't talking to you. I was just thinking out loud.

think back [phrasal verb] : to think about something that happened in the past — often + to ▪ Thinking back to my childhood, I remember summers at the beach. ▪ Think back to that night. What were you doing?

think better of : to decide not to do (something) after thinking further about it ▪ She was going to make a comment but thought better of it.

think big see [2]BIG think fit see [1]FIT

think for yourself : to form opinions and make decisions without help from other people ▪ Don't let others tell you what to believe. You need to learn to think for yourself.

think less of : to not respect (someone) as much as you did before : to have a worse opinion of (someone) ▪ I hope you don't think (any) less of me now that you know about the trouble I got into when I was younger.

think nothing of 1 : to not hesitate at all about (doing something that other people think is very difficult or dangerous) ▪ She thinks nothing of running 10 miles. 2 *think nothing of it — used as a polite response when someone has apologized to you or thanked you ▪ "Thanks for the ride." "Think nothing of it—I was going in this direction anyway." ▪ "I'm so sorry." "It's all right. Think nothing of it."

think of [phrasal verb] 1 *think of (something) a : to have thoughts about possibly doing (something) ▪ She is thinking of applying to grad school. ▪ He thought of sending an e-mail but decided against it. ▪ She couldn't think of ever leaving her children. b : to use your mind to form or invent (something) ▪ The best plan they could think of was to leave. ▪ "Can you give me an example?" "I'll think of something." ▪ I can't think of one reason why you shouldn't do it. ▪ Cell phones that can access the Internet and take pictures—what will they think of next? c : to remember (something) ▪ I can think of plenty of other times when you were wrong. ▪ I can't think of her name at the moment. ▪ I just thought of a good joke. ▪ She thought of her old home when she saw the picture. 2 *think of (someone or something) a : to have a particular kind of opinion about (someone or something) ▪ The hiring committee thought highly of her. [=had a high opinion of her] ▪ She thinks a great deal of her doctor. [=she likes/respects her doctor very much] ▪ I wouldn't want you to think badly of me. ▪ He thinks the world of his family. [=his family is very important to him] b : to form or have an idea about (someone or something) ▪ People are thinking of her for president. [=are thinking that she should be the president] ▪ Are you thinking of any place in particular? ▪ I am thinking of a number between 1 and 10. ▪ I'll be thinking of you in my prayers. ▪ He thinks of them with great affection. c : to be concerned about (someone or something) when you make decisions about what to do ▪ I must think first of my family. ▪ You should think of your job security. ▪ She is always thinking of the welfare of others. 3 *think of (someone or something) as (someone or something) : to believe that (someone or something) is (a particular type of person or thing) or has (a particular quality) ▪ He thinks of himself as a good writer. [=he thinks/believes that he is a good writer] ▪ I think of you guys as my family. ▪ Play can be thought of as a child's work since it is through play that children learn.

think out [phrasal verb] think out (something) or think (something) out : to think about (something, such as a problem) for a period of time in an effort to find a solution, make a decision, etc. ▪ He spent hours thinking out the solution to the physics problem. ▪ I need time to think things out. ▪ The details of the contract have been carefully thought out. ▪ Your argument is well thought out.

think outside the box see [1]BOX

think over [phrasal verb] think (something) over or think over (something) : to think about (something) for a period of time especially in an effort to understand or make a decision about it ▪ I'll give you time to think the matter over. ▪ Think it over, and let me know what you decide. ▪ I've thought over what you said, and you're right.

think through [phrasal verb] think (something) through or think through (something) : to think about all the different parts or effects of (something) for a period of time especially in an effort to understand or make a decision about it ▪ I need time to think this through. ▪ We have thought through the matter and have come to a decision.

think twice informal : to think seriously about whether you really want to do something before you do it ▪ I'd think twice about/before doing that if I were you.

think up [phrasal verb] think up (something) or think (something) up informal : to use your mind to form or invent (something) ▪ Quick! We have to think up an excuse. ▪ They thought up a new way of raising money for charity.

to think — used to express surprise or shock ▪ To think (that) he lied to you! ▪ To think, all we needed to do was to wait a few more days.

[2]think noun [singular] chiefly Brit, informal : an act of thinking about something ▪ I'd have another think about doing that if I were you. ▪ Feel free to have a good think about it before you say yes.

have another think coming informal — used to say that somone is wrong or mistaken ▪ If he thinks he can fool me, he has another think coming. [=he's wrong; he can't fool me] think•able /ˈθɪŋkəbəl/ adj, not used before a noun : capable of being thought about and done ▪ They divorced during a time when that was barely thinkable. — opposite UNTHINKABLE think•er /ˈθɪŋkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

1 : a person who thinks in a specified way ▪ an original/quick thinker
2 : a person who studies ideas about knowledge, truth, etc. : PHILOSOPHER ▪ He was one of the great thinkers of his time.

[1]thinking /ˈθɪŋkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the action of using your mind to produce ideas, decisions, memories, etc. : the activity of thinking about something ▪ Form your own opinions: don't let others do your thinking for you! ▪ I've been doing some thinking about this, and I don't think you're right after all. ▪ The school's curriculum encourages independent thinking. ▪ A piece of quick thinking got us out of trouble. ▪ What was the thinking [=reasoning] behind their decision? — see also LATERAL THINKING, WISHFUL THINKING
2 : opinion or judgment ▪ It is, to my (way of) thinking, complete nonsense. ▪ I'd like to know your thinking on this.
3 : a way of thinking that is characteristic of a particular group, time period, etc. ▪ What is the current thinking on the subject? ▪ Western/Eastern thinking

[2]thinking adj, always used before a noun : able to think intelligently about complicated things ▪ thinking citizens ▪ Chess is a thinking man's game.

thinking cap noun, pl ~ caps [count] informal — used to refer to the act of trying to solve a problem by thinking carefully about it ▪ The students weren't wearing their thinking caps this morning. [=they weren't thinking very well] ▪ It's time to put your thinking cap on. [=it's time to start trying to think of what should be done]

think tank noun, pl ~ tanks [count] : an organization that consists of a group of people who think of new ideas on a particular subject or who give advice about what should be done — called also (US) think factory thin•ly /ˈθɪnli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : in a way that makes thin pieces, layers, etc. ▪ thinly sliced carrots ▪ The table was thinly coated/covered/layered in dust.
2 : with very few people or things close together ▪ a thinly populated area ▪ a area thinly planted with trees
3 : in a weak way that does not seem sincere ▪ He smiled thinly.
4 : in a way that does not completely hide something ▪ The book is a thinly disguised autobiography. ▪ thinly veiled criticism thin•ner /ˈθɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a liquid (such as turpentine) that is added to paint to make it thinner and able to flow more easily thin–skinned /ˈθɪnˌskɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having a thin skin ▪ a thin-skinned fruit
2 : easily bothered by criticism or insults : very sensitive ▪ He's too thin-skinned for a career in show business. — opposite THICK-SKINNED

[1]third /ˈθɚd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : occupying the number three position in a series ▪ We sat in the third row. ▪ the third house on the left ▪ the author's third novel ▪ C is the third letter in the alphabet. ▪ That's the third time I've seen him today. ▪ The office is on the third floor. b : next to the second in importance or rank ▪ I won third prize. ▪ Do you have a third choice?
2 : equal in size, value, amount, etc., to one third of something ▪ a third share in the profits ▪ a third pound of cheese
3 : used to refer to the third forward gear or speed of a vehicle ▪ shift into third gear the third time is the charm (US) or Brit third time lucky — used to say that two efforts at something have already failed but perhaps the third will be successful – third adv ▪ She finished third in the race. ▪ the third highest mountain

[2]third noun, pl thirds
1 [singular] : something that is third : the third thing in a series ▪ We arrived on the third of October. [=on October 3] ▪ The win was his third of the year.
2 [count] : one of three equal parts of something ▪ a third of the pie ▪ Rent costs two-thirds of my paycheck. ▪ She divided the cookie into thirds.
3 [noncount] : the third forward gear or speed of a vehicle ▪ He shifted to/into third.
4 [noncount] baseball : THIRD BASE ▪ He stole third. ▪ There's a runner on third.
5 [count] Brit : an undergraduate degree of the lowest level from a British university ▪ He took/received a third in history.

third base noun [singular] baseball : the base that must be touched third by a base runner ▪ a runner on third base; also : the position of the player who defends the area near third base ▪ She plays third base. — compare FIRST BASE, HOME PLATE, SECOND BASE third baseman noun, pl ~ -men [count] baseball : the player who defends the area near third base : the fielder who plays third base third class noun

1 [noncount] a : the level of service on a train, ship, etc., that is the cheapest ▪ seats in third class b : a class of mail in the U.S. that includes advertisements
2 [singular] Brit : an undergraduate degree of the lowest level given by a British university ▪ She got a third class in English.

third–class adj : of or relating to third class ▪ We'll be traveling in the third-class cabin. ▪ (US) third-class mail – third–class adv ▪ travel third-class

third degree noun
the third degree informal : a long and intense period of questioning ▪ The police gave him the third degree. [=they questioned him intensely] ▪ He got the third degree. ▪ Mom gave me the third degree when I got home late.

third–degree adj, always used before a noun
1 US, of a crime : of the least serious level : deserving the mildest punishment ▪ third-degree murder/theft/arson
2 : causing severe injury ▪ He suffered third-degree burns and may not survive. — compare FIRST-DEGREE, SECOND-DEGREE third•ly /ˈθɚdli/ adv — used to introduce a statement that is the third statement in a series ▪ Thirdly, a dictionary provides examples of usage. — compare FIRSTLY, SECONDLY third party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] law : someone who is not one of the two main people involved in a legal agreement but who is still affected by it in some way

third–party adj, always used before a noun, law : of, relating to, or involving insurance that pays money to someone who is harmed by your actions ▪ a third-party policy ▪ third-party insurance

third person noun [noncount]
1 grammar : a set of words or forms (such as pronouns or verb forms) that refer to people or things that the speaker or writer is not addressing directly — often used before another noun ▪ "He," "she," and "it" are third person pronouns.
2 : a writing style that uses third person pronouns and verbs ▪ a story written in the third person — compare FIRST PERSON, SECOND PERSON

third rail noun [singular]
1 : a metal rail on a train track that carries electric current to the train's motor 2 : a difficult issue that politicians try to avoid talking about ▪ Social Security is the third rail of American politics.

third–rate adj : of very low quality ▪ a third-rate writer ▪ third-rate work ▪ The meal was third-rate.

third world or Third World noun [singular] sometimes offensive : the countries of the world that are very poor and that have very few industries : the poor nations of the world — often used before another noun ▪ Third World nations — compare FIRST WORLD

[1]thirst /ˈθɚst/ noun
1 a : an uncomfortable feeling that is caused by the need for something to drink [noncount] He quenched his thirst. [=he had a drink] [singular] a powerful thirst b [noncount] : a very great need for something to drink ▪ He died of/from thirst. [=he died because he did not have enough fluids in his body]
2 [singular] literary : a strong desire for something ▪ a thirst for fame/knowledge/success — compare HUNGER

[2]thirst verb thirsts; thirst•ed; thirst•ing [no obj] literary : to have or feel a strong desire — usually + after or for ▪ She thirsts for/after justice. — compare HUNGER

thirsty /ˈθɚsti/ adj thirst•i•er; -est
1 a : having an uncomfortable feeling because you need something to drink : feeling thirst ▪ a thirsty child ▪ The salty food was making her thirsty. b : needing water ▪ thirsty land/plants
2 not used before a noun, literary : feeling a strong desire or need for something ▪ thirsty for knowledge – thirst•i•ly /ˈθɚstəli/ adv ▪ She drank thirstily.

thir•teen /ˌθɚˈti:n/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 13
– thirteen adj ▪ thirteen students – thirteen pronoun ▪ All thirteen (of them) passed the exam. – thir•teenth

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

/ˌθəˈti:nθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ the thirteenth of October ▪ one thirteenth of the budget – thirteenth adj ▪ the thirteenth caller – thirteenth adv ▪ She finished thirteenth. ▪ the nation's thirteenth largest city

thir•ty /ˈθə·ti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : the number 30
2 thirties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 30 to 39 ▪ The temperature outside is in the high thirties. b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 30 to 39 ▪ He is in his thirties. ▪ old photographs from the thirties [=from 1930–1939]
– thir•ti•eth /ˈθə·tijəθ/ noun, pl -tieths [count] ▪ the thirtieth of November ▪ seven thirtieths of a degree – thirtieth adj ▪ her thirtieth birthday – thirty adj ▪ thirty days/dollars – thirty pronoun ▪ thirty of his classmates – thir•ty•ish /ˈθə·tiiʃ/ adj ▪ He was tall, thirtyish [=about 30 years old], and had glasses and brown hair.

thir•ty•some•thing /ˈθə·tiˌsʌmθiŋ/ noun, pl -things [count] informal : a person who is between 30 and 39 years old ▪ a TV show about a group of thirtysomethings
– thirtysomething adj ▪ thirtysomething parents

[1]this /ˈðɪs, ðəs/ pronoun, pl these /ˈði:z/
1 [count] : the person, thing, or idea that is present or near in place, time, or thought or that has just been mentioned ▪ This is my favorite T-shirt. ▪ These are my friends. ▪ Anything would be better than this. ▪ "What's this right/over here?" "It's a very rare gold coin." ▪ Would you take a look at this, please? ▪ All of this is mine. ▪ This is the most fun I've had in years! ▪ "It will be difficult." "This is true." ▪ What is the meaning of this?

> usage When asking who you are speaking to on the phone, you use the pronouns this in U.S. English and that in British English. ▪ (US) Hello. Is this John? = (Brit) Hello. Is that John?

2 [count] : the thing that is closest to you or that is being shown to you ▪ This is silver and that is gold. ▪ This is my jacket and that's yours. ▪ Those sunglasses are nice, but I like these better. ▪ This is how you're supposed to do it.
3 [singular] : the present time ▪ We expected you to return before this. ▪ This is your last chance to ask questions before the test.
4 [singular] : the following idea : what is stated in the following sentence or phrase ▪ I can only say this: it wasn't here yesterday. ▪ How about this: you stay here while I go to the store? ▪ It's as easy as this: turn left at the first intersection and go straight. ▪ If you think that's funny, wait until you hear this! [=I will tell you another thing that is even funnier] ▪ What's this I hear about you getting engaged? [=I heard that you got engaged. Is it true?] ▪ What's all this about the Earth getting warmer?
like this see [3]LIKE this and that also chiefly Brit this, that, and the other informal : several different things ▪ We started talking about this and that, and before we knew it, it had gotten late. ▪ "What have you been doing all day?" "Oh, a little bit of this and that."
this is it — used to say that a very important thing is about to be done, a very important event is about to happen, etc. ▪ This is it, men. Let's take home the championship! ▪ As the car skidded out of control, I thought, "This is it. I'm going to die."

[2]this adj, always used before a noun pl these
1 — used to indicate the person, thing, or idea that is present or near in place, time, or thought or that has just been mentioned ▪ Out of all my T-shirts, this one is my favorite. ▪ This cake is delicious. ▪ These books are hers. ▪ How much does this necklace cost? ▪ Do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband? ▪ I'm not sure I understand this theory of yours. ▪ Who's this Mrs. Jones on your list? ▪ These dogs require a lot of exercise. ▪ This kind of behavior will not be tolerated in the classroom. ▪ Let's try to do a better job this time. ▪ By this point in the trip, everyone was getting tired. ▪ It's happening at this very moment. ▪ While her earlier poems are light and optimistic, these ones are sad and depressing. ▪ Get back here this instant/minute/second! [=immediately, now] ▪ To this day [=still] no one knows what really happened. ▪ The problem usually goes away on its own, but in this case you may need to see a doctor. ▪ In this regard/respect, the two books are very similar.
2 — used to indicate the thing that is closest to you or that is being shown to you ▪ This jacket's mine and that's yours. ▪ Would you prefer this one or that one? ▪ I like these sunglasses better than those (over there). ▪ Don't do it that way. Do it this way. ▪ They said to go that way, but I think we should go this way. ▪ Step this way, ladies and gentlemen: the show is about to begin. ▪ She twisted it this way and that way.
3 — used to indicate the present period of time or a period of time that is near the present time ▪ How are you feeling this morning? ▪ Not much has been happening in the news this week. ▪ We're planning to take a trip to New York this summer. ▪ Is she coming home this week or next (week)? ▪ The snow started early this morning. ▪ These years have been particularly difficult for our family. ▪ You're just friends with him? All this time I thought you were dating him. ▪ She'll return this coming Friday. = She'll return this Friday. [=she'll return on the Friday of this week] ▪ She left this past [=last] Monday. ▪ I spoke to him on the phone just this past weekend. [=the weekend that just took place] ▪ It's hard to find good help these days.
4 : stated in the following sentence or phrase ▪ How about this idea: you stay here while I go to the store? ▪ What's this nonsense (I hear) about you quitting?
5 — used to introduce someone or something that has not been mentioned yet ▪ We both had this sudden urge to go shopping. ✧ This sense of this is often used to produce excitement when telling a story. ▪ I was walking down the street when this dog starts chasing me. [=when a dog started chasing me] ▪ Then these two guys come/came in and start asking her questions.

[3]this /ˈðɪs/ adv
1 : to the degree or extent that is suggested in the present situation ▪ We've waited this long for the pizza, we might as well stay until it's ready. — often used in negative statements ▪ I haven't had this much fun in ages! ▪ They didn't expect this many people to come to the party. ▪ She's never been this far away from home.
2 : to the degree or extent indicated by a gesture ▪ He's about this tall. ▪ I need a nail about this long.

this•tle /ˈθɪsəl/ noun, pl this•tles [count] : a wild plant that has sharp points on its leaves and purple, yellow, or white flowers

this•tle•down /ˈθɪsəlˌdaʊn/ noun [noncount] : the light parts of thistle flowers that contain the seeds and that blow away in the wind thith•er /ˈθɪðə/ adv, old-fashioned + literary : to that place : THERE ▪ traveling/wandering/running hither and thither [=here and there]

thong /ˈθɑ:ŋ/ noun, pl thongs [count]
1 : a long thin strip of material (such as leather) that is used to attach something
2 : a kind of women's underpants that has only a thin strip of material in the back
3 US : [1]FLIP-FLOP 1

tho•rax /ˈθoəˌræks/ noun, pl tho•rax•es or tho•ra•ces /ˈθorəˌsi:z/ [count] technical 1 : the part of an animal's body between the neck and the waist
2 : the middle section of an insect's body – tho•rac•ic /θəˈræsɪk/ adj ▪ the thoracic cavity thorn /ˈθoən/ noun, pl thorns [count]

1 : a sharp point on the stem of some plants (such as roses) — see color picture on page C6
2 Brit : a tree or bush that has thorns a thorn in the/your esh/side : a person or thing that repeatedly annoys you or causes problems for you ▪ He's been a thorn in my side for years. ▪ a thorn in the side of the industry
– thorned /ˈθoənd/ adj – thorn•less /ˈθoənləs/ adj

thorny /ˈθoəni/ adj thorn•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] 1 : having a lot of thorns ▪ thorny bushes
2 : very difficult or complicated ▪ a thorny issue/problem/question – thorn•i•ness noun [noncount]

thor•ough /ˈθərou/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : including every possible part or detail ▪ a thorough investigation/search ▪ a thorough [=complete] examination ▪ a thorough understanding of the rules and regulations
2 : careful about doing something in an accurate and exact way : METICULOUS ▪ a thorough worker ▪ The investigator will have to be thorough.
3 always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : complete or absolute ▪ a thorough disgrace ▪ a thorough mess/nuisance
– thor•ough•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ You've thoroughly [=completely] messed things up. ▪ I thoroughly enjoyed the performance. ▪ He studied the proposal very thoroughly. ▪

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

That's been thoroughly documented/proven. – thor·ough·ness noun [noncount]

thor·ough·bred /ˈθərəˌbrɛd/ noun, pl -breds [count]
1 : an animal (especially a horse) whose parents are from the same breed
2 Thoroughbred : a type of fast horse used mainly for racing – thoroughbred adj ▪ thoroughbred [=purebred] dogs ▪ Thoroughbred horses

thor·ough·fare /ˈθərəˌfɛə/ noun, pl -fares [count] : a main road

thor·ough·go·ing /ˌθərəˈgowɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : including every possible detail : very thorough or complete ▪ a thoroughgoing analysis ▪ thoroughgoing changes

those plural of THAT

[1]thou /ðaʊ/ pronoun, old-fashioned + literary — used as a singular form of "you" when it is the subject of a verb ▪ "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." —Exodus 20:3 (KJV)

[2]thou /θaʊ/ noun, pl thou [count] US, informal : a thousand dollars ▪ She earns more than a hundred thou a year.

[1]though /ðoʊ/ conj : ALTHOUGH ▪ Though it was raining, we went hiking ▪ She seemed healthy, though (she is) thin. ▪ That's possible, though (it is) not likely.
as though see [2]AS even though see [2]EVEN

[2]though adv — used when you are saying something that is different from or contrasts with a previous statement ▪ She was happy. Not for long, though. [=however] ▪ Inevitably, though, something will go wrong.

[1]thought past tense and past participle of [1]THINK

[2]thought /θɑːt/ noun, pl thoughts
1 [count] : an idea, plan, opinion, picture, etc., that is formed in your mind : something that you think of ▪ My first thought was that something must have changed. ▪ She had a sudden thought. = A sudden thought occurred to her. ▪ The thought of leaving never crossed my mind. ▪ Do you have any thoughts about/on the subject? ▪ She abandoned all thoughts of going home. ▪ It was just a thought. ▪ That's a good thought. — see also SECOND THOUGHT
2 a [noncount] : the act or process of thinking ▪ She was lost/deep in thought. ▪ She abandoned all thought of going home. ▪ thought patterns/processes [=the way you think about things] b [noncount] : the act of carefully thinking about the details of something ▪ I'll give the idea some thought. [=consideration] ▪ They should have put more thought into the proposal. c [singular] : the act of thinking about the feelings or situations of other people ▪ While you're enjoying the holidays, you should spare a thought for those who are less fortunate. ▪ He has no thought for anyone but himself.
3 [noncount] : a way of thinking that is characteristic of a particular group, time period, etc. ▪ Western thought ▪ the mainstream thought on the subject ▪ modern economic thought ▪ There are two main schools of thought [=systems of thinking] on the topic.
(a) penny for your thoughts see PENNY food for thought see FOOD perish the thought see PERISH thought·ful /ˈθɑːtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : serious and quiet because you are thinking ▪ She looked at me with a thoughtful expression. ▪ He looked thoughtful for a moment.
2 : done or made after careful thinking ▪ a thoughtful book/gift ▪ pages of thoughtful criticism
3 : showing concern for the needs or feelings of other people : CONSIDERATE ▪ a thoughtful gesture ▪ Her husband is always thoughtful. ▪ That's very thoughtful of you. — opposite THOUGHTLESS – thought·ful·ly /ˈθɑːtfəli/ adv ▪ thoughtfully prepared ▪ He looked at me thoughtfully. – thought·ful·ness noun [noncount]

thought·less /ˈθɑːtləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing concern for the needs or feelings of other people : INCONSIDERATE ▪ thoughtless behavior ▪ thoughtless comments ▪ a selfish and thoughtless person — opposite THOUGHTFUL – thought·less·ly adv ▪ "That's stupid," he said thoughtlessly. – thought·less·ness noun [noncount] thought–provoking adj [more ~; most ~] : causing people to think seriously about something ▪ a thought-provoking article/book/film

thou·sand /ˈθaʊzənd/ noun, pl -sands
1 pl thousand [count] : the number 1,000 ▪ a/one thousand (of them) ▪ a thousand and one = one thousand and one = (chiefly US) a thousand one [=1,001] ▪ two thousand (of them)
2 thousands [plural] : an amount that is more than 2,000 ▪ Thousands (and thousands) of people visited the shrine.
3 [count] : a very large number — usually plural ▪ I've done this thousands of times. [=many times] a picture is worth a thousand words see [1]WORTH bat a thousand see [2]BAT never/not in a thousand years see YEAR – thousand adj, always used before a noun ▪ a thousand miles [=1,000 miles] ▪ a thousand dollars/years/times – thousands pronoun ▪ Thousands protested the convention. – thou·sandth /ˈθaʊzəndθ/ noun, pl -sandths [count] ▪ a/one thousandth of a second = one one-thousandths of a second [=1/1000 second] – thousandth adj ▪ the thousandth person to join thousand island dressing noun [noncount] chiefly US : a creamy salad dressing that contains a mixture of finely chopped vegetables (such as pickles, peppers, and onions)

thrall /ˈθrɑːl/ noun
in thrall literary : in a state of being controlled or strongly influenced by someone or something ▪ He was completely in thrall to her. = He was completely in her thrall.

[1]thrash /ˈθræʃ/ verb thrash·es; thrashed; thrash·ing
1 [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) very hard with a stick, whip, etc. ▪ He thrashed me with his belt.
2 [+ obj] informal : to defeat (someone or something) very easily or completely ▪ The team thrashed them last week.
3 [no obj] : to move about violently ▪ Something was thrashing wildly in the water. ▪ She thrashed around/about in her sleep.
thrash out [phrasal verb] thrash (something) out or thrash out (something) : to talk about (something) in order to make a decision, find a solution, etc. ▪ They had a meeting to thrash out their problems. : to produce (something, such as an agreement or plan) by a lot of discussion ▪ thrash out a plan – thrashing /ˈθræʃɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ He gave the prisoner a thrashing. ▪ (informal) Last week's game was a complete thrashing.

[2]thrash noun, pl thrashes
1 [noncount] : a type of rock music that is very fast and loud
2 [singular] : a violent movement ▪ The shark swam away with a thrash of its tail.
3 [count] Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a party with loud music and dancing

[1]thread /ˈθrɛd/ noun, pl threads
1 : a long, thin piece of cotton, silk, etc., used for sewing [noncount] a spool of thread [count] A thread was hanging from the hem of her coat. — see picture at SEWING
2 [count] literary : a long, thin line of something — usually + of ▪ A slender thread of smoke rose up from the chimney.
3 [count] : the raised line that winds around a screw
4 [singular] : an idea, feeling, etc., that connects the different parts of something (such as a story) ▪ The stories share a common thread. ▪ A thread of self-pity runs through his autobiography. ▪ I lost the thread of the plot long before the story ended. ▪ I found it hard to follow the thread of the conversation.
5 [count] computers : a series of related messages that are written on an Internet message board ▪ If you want to discuss a different subject, you should start a new thread.
6 threads [plural] US, informal + old-fashioned : CLOTHES ▪ nice threads hang by a thread see [1]HANG pick up the threads informal : to begin something again after a long time ▪ I'm hoping to pick up the threads of our relationship.
– thread·like /ˈθrɛdˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a threadlike worm

[2]thread verb threads; thread·ed; thread·ing
1 [+ obj] : to put a thread, string, rope, etc., through a hole in something ▪ thread a needle ▪ She threaded her shoelace through the holes. ▪ thread a pipe with wire = thread a wire through a pipe
2 [+ obj] : to put (film or tape) into a movie camera, tape recorder, etc., so that it is ready to be used ▪ thread film through a camera
3 : to move forward by turning and going through narrow spaces [+ obj] They had to thread their way through the crowd. [no obj] Waiters threaded through the crowd. ▪ a river that threads through narrow valleys
4 [+ obj] : to put (something) on a thread : STRING ▪ thread beads

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

– thread•er noun, pl -ers [count]

thread•bare /ˈθrɛdˌbeɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very thin and in bad condition from too much use : SHABBY ▪ a threadbare carpet/suit
2 : not very effective, interesting, etc., because of being used too often ▪ a threadbare joke ▪ the story's threadbare plot threat /ˈθrɛt/ noun, pl threats

1 : a statement saying you will be harmed if you do not do what someone wants you to do [count] He was willing to use violence and threats to get what he wanted. ▪ She ignored their threats and continued to do what she felt was right. ▪ bomb/death threats ▪ He carried out his threat. [=he did the thing that he threatened to do] ▪ She said she would leave him, but he knew it was an idle/empty threat. [=he knew that she did not mean it] [noncount] an action done under threat [=done by someone who has been threatened with harm]
2 a [count] : someone or something that could cause trouble, harm, etc. — usually singular ▪ The country is a great/major/serious threat to world peace. ▪ He perceived the question as a threat to his authority. ▪ These people are not a threat to the social order. ▪ Their financial problems are a threat to their marriage. b : the possibility that something bad or harmful could happen [count] — usually singular ▪ We can't ignore the threat posed by nuclear weapons. ▪ The weather forecast calls for cloudy skies with a threat of rain. ▪ There is a real threat of civil war. [noncount] a country under threat of civil war threat•en /ˈθrɛtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [+ obj] : to say that you will harm someone or do something unpleasant or unwanted especially in order to make someone do what you want ▪ The mugger threatened him with a gun. ▪ He threatened to tell their boss. = He threatened that he would tell their boss. ▪ She threatened to quit if they didn't give her a raise, but no one believed her. ▪ He tried to get what he wanted by threatening people (with violence). ▪ The workers have threatened to strike if their demands are not met. = The workers have threatened a strike if their demands are not met. ▪ The kidnapper threatened to kill her. = The kidnapper threatened her life.
2 a : to be something that is likely to cause harm to (someone or something) : to be a threat to (someone or something) [+ obj] Civil war has been threatening the country for years. ▪ a marriage threatened by financial problems ▪ Overfishing threatens the survival of certain fish species. ▪ She felt (emotionally) threatened by his friendships with female coworkers. [no obj] Disaster threatens. b — used to say that something bad or harmful appears likely or possible [+ obj] The clouds were threatening rain. [=the clouds made it appear that it was likely to rain] ▪ The latest news threatens trouble for the economy. [no obj] It looks like it's threatening to rain. [=it looks like it may rain] – threat•en•ing /ˈθrɛtn̩ɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a threatening comment ▪ threatening clouds ▪ I find your competitiveness a little threatening. – threat•en•ing•ly /ˈθrɛtn̩ɪŋ-li/ adv ▪ The sky darkened threateningly.

three /ˈθri:/ noun, pl threes
1 [count] : the number 3
2 [count] : the third in a set or series ▪ the three of hearts
3 [noncount] : three o'clock ▪ "What time is it?" "It's three." ▪ I leave each day at three.
in threes : in groups of three ▪ You'll be working in threes.
three sheets to the wind see [2]SHEET
two's company, three's a crowd see COMPANY
– three adj ▪ three feet/dollars/weeks – three pronoun ▪ I'll take three, please. ▪ Seven students passed the test and three failed.

three–cornered adj
1 : having three corners ▪ a three-cornered hat
2 : involving three people or groups ▪ a three-cornered agreement

3–D /ˈθri:ˈdi:/ noun
in 3-D : made in a way that causes an image to appear to be three-dimensional ▪ The movie is in 3-D.
– 3–D adj ▪ a 3-D painting

three–dimensional adj
1 : having or seeming to have length, width, and depth ▪ a three-dimensional sculpture ▪ a three-dimensional image
2 [more ~; most ~] : having different qualities that are like the qualities of a real person ▪ The characters in the novel are very three-dimensional.

three•fold /ˈθri:ˌfoʊld/ adj
1 : having three parts ▪ a threefold purpose
2 : three times as great or as many ▪ a threefold increase – three•fold /ˈθri:ˈfoʊld/ adv ▪ Problems have increased threefold.

three–leg•ged race /ˈθri:ˈlɛgəd-/ noun, pl ~ races [count] : a race in which two people run together with one person's left leg tied to the other person's right leg three•pence /ˈθrɛpəns/ noun, pl threepence or three-penc•es Brit, old-fashioned

1 [count] : a coin worth three pennies
2 [noncount] : the sum of three British pennies

three•pen•ny /ˈθrɛpəni/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit, old-fashioned : worth three British pennies ▪ a three-penny bit/piece three–piece suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] : a suit in which the jacket, vest, and pants are made of the same material — compare TWO-PIECE SUIT

three–piece suite noun, pl ~ suites [count] Brit : a set of furniture that consists of a sofa and two chairs covered in the same material three–ply adj : having three layers or threads ▪ three-ply paper three–point line noun [singular] basketball : a curved line on a basketball court that is a set distance (such as 22 feet) from the basket and beyond which successful shots count for three points

three–point turn noun, pl ~ turns [count] : a way of turning a vehicle around in a small space by driving forward, then back, then forward again

three–quarter adj, always used before a noun : three-quarters of the full amount, length, size, etc., of something ▪ three-quarter sleeves three–quarters noun [plural] : an amount equal to three of the four parts which make up something : seventy-five percent ▪ Three-quarters of the class will be going on the trip. ▪ three-quarters of an hour [=45 minutes]

three–ring circus noun, pl ~ -cuses [count]
1 : a circus that has three separate areas where performances occur at the same time
2 US, informal : a place with a lot of busy and confusing activity ▪ When the kids come home from school, my house is a three-ring circus.

three R's noun
the three R's : the basic subjects of reading, writing, and arithmetic that are taught in school to young children three•score /ˈθri:ˈskoɚ/ adj, old-fashioned : SIXTY ▪ three-score years [=60 years]

three•some /ˈθri:səm/ noun, pl -somes [count] : a group of three people or things ▪ a threesome of reporters ▪ a golfing threesome

three–way adj, always used before a noun
1 : involving three people or groups ▪ a three-way conversation/deal/partnership — compare ONE-WAY, TWO-WAY
2 : allowing movement in any one of three directions ▪ a three-way intersection — compare ONE-WAY, TWO-WAY

thren•o•dy /ˈθrɛnədi/ noun, pl -dies [count] literary : a song or poem that expresses sorrow for someone who is dead

thresh /ˈθrɛʃ/ verb thresh•es; threshed; thresh•ing : to separate the seeds of corn, wheat, etc., from the plant by using a special machine or tool [+ obj] thresh wheat [no obj] threshing and harvesting at the same time – thresh•er /ˈθrɛʃɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

thresh•old /ˈθrɛʃˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -olds [count]
1 : a piece of wood, metal, or stone that forms the bottom of a door and that you walk over as you enter a room or building ▪ He stepped across the threshold. ▪ When they were married he carried her over the threshold. [=he picked her up and carried her into their home when they entered it together for the first time]
2 : the point or level at which something begins or changes ▪ If your income rises above a certain threshold, your tax rate also rises. ▪ sounds that are above/below the threshold of hearing [=sounds that are too high/low to be heard] ▪ I have a low threshold for boredom. [=I get bored easily] ▪ He has a high pain threshold. [=he does not feel pain as easily as other people] on/at the threshold : at the beginning of something or very close to something (such as a new condition, an important discovery, etc.) — usually + of ▪ young people on the threshold of adulthood ▪ We are (standing) at the threshold of a great adventure.

threw past tense of [1]THROW

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

thrice /ˈθraɪs/ adv, old-fashioned : three times ▪ She was thrice married.

thrift /ˈθrɪft/ noun [noncount]
1 old-fashioned : careful use of money so that it is not wasted ▪ Through hard work and thrift they sent all of their children to college.
2 US : a business like a bank that is used for saving money : a savings bank or a savings and loan association — called also thrift institution

thrift shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] US : a store that sells used goods and especially used clothes and that is often run by a charity — called also thrift store; compare CHARITY SHOP thrifty /ˈθrɪfti/ adj thrift•i•er; -est : managing or using money in a careful or wise way ▪ a thrifty family/shopper ▪ She has thrifty habits.

– thrift•i•ness /ˈθrɪftinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ a man known for his thriftiness

[1]thrill /ˈθrɪl/ verb thrills; thrilled; thrill•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel very excited or happy ▪ Circus performers still thrill audiences today. ▪ I was thrilled by their decision.
2 [no obj] : to feel very excited or happy about something — usually + at or to ▪ Crowds thrilled to the sights and sounds of the circus. ▪ She thrilled at the thought of meeting him. — see also THRILLED

[2]thrill noun, pl thrills [count]
1 : a feeling of great excitement or happiness ▪ The thrill is gone from our marriage. ▪ He felt a thrill of pride/pleasure/anticipation. ▪ the thrill of discovery/victory ▪ He gets a big thrill out of seeing his grandchildren. [=seeing his grandchildren makes him very happy] ▪ He had a great career and gave the fans a lot of thrills. ▪ What do people do for thrills [=excitement] around here? ▪ She got the thrill of her life from seeing the Queen. [=seeing the Queen was very exciting] ▪ They get their thrills from drag racing. [=they drag race because it is exciting]
2 : a very exciting or enjoyable event or experience ▪ It's a real thrill for me to be here tonight. ▪ What a thrill it was to see the Queen! ▪ (US) a movie with a lot of thrills and chills [=exciting and scary parts] ▪ the thrills and spills of car racing thrilled adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very excited and happy ▪ I'm so thrilled to see you. ▪ "Will you come to dinner at my house tomorrow?" "Certainly. I'd be thrilled." ▪ I'm not thrilled about/with her decision. ▪ (US) He was thrilled to death/pieces [=very excited and pleased] about the baby. = (chiefly Brit) He was thrilled to bits about the baby. ▪ I'm less than thrilled [=not happy] with her decision. ▪ He was none/not too thrilled [=not pleased] by the idea.

thril•ler /ˈθrɪlə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : a novel, movie, etc., that is very exciting : a story full of exciting action, mystery, adventure, or suspense ▪ His latest novel is a political thriller.

thrilling adj [more ~; most ~] : very exciting ▪ I can't imagine a more thrilling experience. ▪ a thrilling discovery ▪ It was thrilling to see her win the race.
– thrill•ing•ly /ˈθrɪlɪŋli/ adv

thrill ride noun, pl ~ rides [count] : a very exciting ride (such as a roller coaster) at an amusement park — often used figuratively ▪ The campaign has been a thrill ride from the beginning. [=the campaign has been very exciting]

thrive /ˈθraɪv/ verb thrives; thrived or old-fashioned throve /ˈθroʊv/; thrived also old-fashioned thriv•en /ˈθrɪvən/; thriv•ing /ˈθraɪvɪŋ/ [no obj] : to grow or develop successfully : to flourish or succeed ▪ Business is thriving. [=booming] ▪ The region thrived [=prospered] under his rule. ▪ plants that thrive [=grow well] in the desert thrive on [phrasal verb] thrive on (something) : to do well in a situation in which you are given (a particular type of treatment) ▪ She thrives on attention. : to benefit from (something, especially something that others might find difficult or unpleasant) ▪ These plants seem to thrive on neglect. ▪ He actually thrives on stress.
– thriving adj ▪ a thriving economy ▪ a thriving port throat /ˈθroʊt/ noun, pl throats [count]

1 : the tube inside the neck that leads to the stomach and lungs ▪ My throat was dry so I took a sip of water. ▪ His throat was sore. ▪ He cleared his throat [=made a noise in his throat in order to get attention or to prepare to speak] and began to speak. — see also STREP THROAT
2 : the front part of the neck ▪ He held a knife to her throat. ▪ His shirt was open at the throat. ▪ He grabbed her by the throat.
a frog in your throat see FROG
a lump in your throat see [1]LUMP at each other's throats : very angry with each other : having a serious fight or argument ▪ Workers and management have been at each other's throats.
cut your own throat : to do something that is bad for you : to act in a way that will cause you harm ▪ They ended up cutting their own throats when they raised prices because their customers went elsewhere.
force/ram/shove (something) down someone's throat informal : to force someone to accept or like (something, such as your ideas or beliefs) ▪ She was always forcing her opinions down his throat.
jump down someone's throat informal : to respond angrily to someone ▪ He jumped down my throat when I suggested a different plan.

throat•ed /ˈθroʊtəd/ adj
1 : making a certain kind of sound from the throat — used in combination ▪ a full-throated cry ▪ the bullfrog's deep-throated call
2 : having a throat of a certain kind or color — used in combination ▪ a white-throated sparrow throaty /ˈθroʊti/ adj throat•i•er; -est of a sound : deep or rough : made in the back of the throat ▪ a throaty laugh – throat•i•ly /ˈθroʊtəli/ adv ▪ He chuckled throatily.

[1]throb /ˈθrɑːb/ verb throbs; throbbed; throb•bing [no obj]
1 : to feel a pain that starts and stops quickly and repeatedly ▪ Her finger throbbed with pain. ▪ My head is throbbing.
2 : to beat with a strong, steady rhythm ▪ He could hear his heart throbbing. [=pounding] ▪ The music throbs with a Caribbean beat. ▪ drums throbbing in the distance — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a soul throbbing with loneliness [=a very lonely soul] ▪ a tiny stream throbbing with life [=full of life]
– throbbing adj ▪ He had a throbbing pain in his shoulder. ▪ I have a throbbing [=pounding] headache.

[2]throb noun [singular]
1 : a strong, steady beat ▪ the throb of the drums
2 : pain that starts and stops quickly and repeatedly ▪ The pain has changed to a dull throb.
– see also HEARTTHROB

throes /ˈθroʊz/ noun [plural] : painful emotions, sensations, or feelings ▪ She was suffering the throes [=pangs] of remorse. ▪ the throes of childbirth ▪ death throes in the throes of : experiencing (something painful) ▪ She met him while he was in the throes of a messy divorce.

throm•bo•sis /θrɑmˈboʊsəs/ noun, pl -bo•ses /-ˈboʊˌsiːz/ [count, noncount] medical : a serious condition caused when a blood clot blocks the flow of blood in a blood vessel ▪ coronary thrombosis

throne /ˈθroʊn/ noun, pl thrones
1 [count] : the special chair for a king, queen, or other powerful person ▪ The king sat on his throne.
2 the throne : the position of king or queen ▪ He is next in line for the throne. ▪ the heir to the throne ▪ He ascended the throne [=became king] after the death of his father.
the power behind the throne see [1]POWER

[1]throng /ˈθrɑːŋ/ noun, pl throngs [count] : a large group of people — often + of ▪ There were throngs of shoppers in the mall. ▪ A throng of fans was waiting for the players to arrive.

[2]throng verb throngs; thronged; throng•ing
1 [+ obj] : to go to (a place) in a large group or in large numbers ▪ Shoppers thronged the mall for the sales. ▪ The island was thronged with tourists. = Tourists thronged the island. ▪ People thronged [=filled] the streets.
2 [no obj] : to gather in a crowd or in great numbers — + around or to ▪ Fans thronged around him. ▪ Shoppers thronged to the mall.

[1]throt•tle /ˈθrɑːtl/ noun, pl throt•tles [count] technical : a device that controls the flow of fuel to an engine ▪ When you press a car's accelerator, it opens the throttle, and the car goes faster.
at full throttle : as fast as possible ▪ She drove at full throttle. ▪ The project is proceeding at full throttle.

[2]throttle verb throttles; throt•tled; throt•tling [+ obj]
1 : to choke or strangle (someone) ▪ He throttled her in a fit of jealous rage. ▪ I'm so mad I could throttle her!
2 US, informal : to defeat (someone or something) easily or completely ▪ The home team throttled [=clobbered] the opposition last night.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

3 : to not allow (something) to grow or develop ▪ policies that throttle creativity throttle back [phrasal verb] throttle back or throttle back (something) or throttle (something) back : to reduce the amount of fuel flowing to an engine by adjusting the throttle ▪ He throttled back to 45 mph. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You need to throttle back your anger. [=you need to stop being so angry]

[1]through /ˈθru:/ prep

1 : into one side and out the other side of (something) ▪ He hit the nail through the wood. ▪ She looked through the binoculars. ▪ The bullet had gone through his hand.

2 : from one side or end to another side or end of (something) ▪ He just walked through the door. ▪ The security guards pushed their way through the crowd. ▪ She could see a figure through the fog. ▪ I looked through the window.

3 — used to describe movement within a place or an area of land, air, etc. ▪ They spent a couple of hours walking through the mall. [=walking to various places in the mall] ▪ We rode our mountain bikes through the woods. ▪ The snake slithered through the grass. ▪ birds gliding through the air

4 — used to indicate the path that is followed to get somewhere or the path that someone or something moves along ▪ The bathroom is through that hallway on the left. ▪ Cold air was getting in through a crack in the wall. ▪ People usually come in through the side door.

5 : without stopping for (a traffic signal, a stop sign, etc.) ▪ He got caught driving through a red light.

6 a : by using (someone or something) ▪ The leaders communicated through interpreters. ▪ I learned of the job opening through her. [=she told me about the job opening] ▪ They ruled the country through fear. [=by making people afraid] b : by doing (something) ▪ He learned to cook through [=by] watching his mother in the kitchen. c : because of (something) ▪ The company's profits increased through improved sales. ▪ We will succeed only through [=by means of] hard work. ▪ knowledge that is gained through life experience

7 : over all the parts of (something) : THROUGHOUT ▪ The illness swept through the town. ▪ The students were given time to go through their notes before the exam.

8 : from the beginning to the end of (something) ▪ He slept through the movie. ▪ Many students work through the summer. ▪ All through [=throughout] her life, she dreamed of going up into outer space. ▪ We left halfway through [=in the middle of] the lecture.

9 US — used to indicate the numbers, days, etc., that are included in a range ▪ The store is open Monday through Friday. [=is open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday] ▪ Read chapters 2 through 5 for homework.

10 — used to say that you have survived or completed something ▪ We're through the worst part of the storm. [=the worst part of the storm has ended] ▪ I think she'll be more comfortable at college now that she's through her first semester. [=now that she has completed her first semester]

11 : to a state of official acceptance or approval by (an organization) ▪ The vote got the bill through the legislature.

[2]through adv

1 : from one side or end to the other ▪ Let these people go through, please. ▪ The nail went completely through.

2 : over the whole distance ▪ It snowed heavily, but we made it through. ▪ We'll never get through—the mud is too deep. ▪ The package was shipped through to New Orleans.

3 : from the beginning to the end ▪ Read the essay through and tell me what you think. ▪ The teacher stopped the movie halfway through. [=when it was half finished]

4 : without stopping ▪ The light was red, but he drove straight through.

5 : to the end of an action, process, or activity : until something is completed or achieved ▪ I need time to think this problem through. [=to think about it until I understand it completely or have made a decision] ▪ He intended to see the project through. [=to continue working until the project was finished]

6 : in or to every part : completely or thoroughly ▪ Her clothes were wet through. ▪ He heated the casserole through. ▪ You are your mother's child through and through. [=you are like your mother in every way] ▪ He is a gentleman through and through.

7 of a phone call : in connection with the person you are calling ▪ The operator put me through to him. ▪ I called, but I couldn't get through.

[3]through adj

1 not used before a noun, chiefly US a : having reached the end of an activity, job, etc. : FINISHED ▪ I'm not through yet. I have one more topic to discuss. ▪ If you're through using the phone, I'd like to use it next. — often + with ▪ She is almost through with law school. [=she has almost finished law school] ▪ He says he's through with gambling. [=he will not gamble anymore] ▪ I left when the movie was about halfway through. b : no longer in a romantic relationship ▪ Lisa and I are through. [=finished] — often + with ▪ I'm through with him. c : no longer able to continue in a role, activity, etc. ▪ After this scandal, he could be through [=finished] as a politician. ▪ His career is through.

2 always used before a noun a : allowing passage from one end to the other ▪ Is this a through road/street? b : going the whole distance without stopping ▪ The left lane is for through traffic only.

[1]through•out /θruˈaʊt/ prep

1 : in or to every part of (something) ▪ The company has stores throughout the United States and Canada. ▪ She has traveled throughout the world.

2 : during an entire (situation or period of time) ▪ His supporters remained loyal throughout his difficulties. ▪ Throughout her life, she has suffered with the disease. ▪ It rained throughout the day.

[2]throughout adv

1 : in or to every part ▪ The house is painted white throughout. ▪ The house has wood floors throughout.

2 : from the beginning to the end : during the whole time or situation ▪ He had a difficult year, but his supporters remained loyal throughout.

through•put /ˈθru:ˌpʊt/ noun, pl -puts technical : the amount of material, data, etc., that enters and goes through something (such as a machine or system) [count] The network can handle large throughputs. [noncount] finding ways to increase throughput

throughway variant spelling of THRUWAY

throve old-fashioned past tense of THRIVE

[1]throw /ˈθroʊ/ verb throws; threw /ˈθru:/; thrown /ˈθroʊn/; throw•ing

1 : to cause (something) to move out of your hand and through the air by quickly moving your arm forward [+ obj] She threw the ball to first base. ▪ We threw our hats in the air at the end of the ceremony. ▪ Throw me the car keys. = Throw the car keys to me. ▪ a poorly thrown ball [no obj] Let's see how far you can throw. ▪ You throw like a wimp. ▪ He hurt his throwing arm/hand. [=the arm/hand that he uses to throw a baseball, football, etc.]

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to put (something) in a particular place in a careless or forceful way ▪ She threw her coat on the bed. ▪ Don't throw your trash on the ground. Throw it in the trash can. ▪ He threw (down) the newspaper on the table in disgust. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Throwing all his inhibitions aside/overboard, he took off his clothes and went skinny-dipping.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to move suddenly or forcefully to or away from a particular place ▪ The wrestler threw his opponent to the mat. ▪ The crash threw the driver from the car. ▪ She was thrown from the horse. ▪ The storm threw the boat against a reef.

4 [+ obj] sports : to perform an action that involves throwing a ball ▪ (American football) The quarterback threw a pass. ▪ (American football) The quarterback threw a touchdown/interception. [=threw a pass that resulted in a touchdown/interception] ▪ (baseball) The pitcher threw a curve to him. = The pitcher threw him a curve. ▪ (baseball) He threw [=pitched] the first three innings of the game. ▪ (baseball) In her last game, she threw [=pitched] a no-hitter/shutout.

5 a : to send (something) from your hand in a way that causes it to move forward and turn over many times along a surface [+ obj] She shook the dice and threw [=rolled] them on the table. ▪ He threw the bowling ball. [no obj] It's your turn to throw. b [+ obj] : to get (a number or score) by throwing dice or a bowling ball ▪ She threw a six/spare.

6 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to cause or force (someone or something) to suddenly be in a particular state, condition, or position ▪ The discovery threw the previous theory into (a state of) doubt. ▪ They arrested him and threw him in/into prison. [=put him in prison] ▪ The government threw the territory open to settlers. — often used as (be) thrown ▪ The crowd was thrown into confusion. [=the crowd suddenly became very confused] ▪ He was thrown into prison. ▪ She was thrown into a very difficult situation. ▪ When the factory closed, the workers were thrown out of their jobs. [=the workers lost their jobs]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

7 [+ obj] a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to forcefully move (yourself or a part of your body) in a particular direction ▪ They threw their arms around each other. ▪ She threw herself into his arms. ▪ She threw back her head in laughter. ▪ He threw his shoulders back and stuck out his chest. ▪ He threw himself onto the couch. ▪ She threw her leg over the arm of the chair. b : to swing your arm and try to hit someone with your fist ▪ The boxer threw a quick left jab. ▪ I broke up the argument before they started throwing punches. [=trying to hit each other]

8 [+ obj] a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move (something) to an open or closed position in a forceful and sudden way ▪ She threw open the window to get some air. ▪ He threw the door shut. b : to move (a switch) to an on or off position ▪ She threw the switch.

9 [+ obj] : to organize and hold (a party) ▪ Let's throw a party to celebrate. ▪ Her friends are throwing her a baby shower. = They are throwing a baby shower for her.

10 [+ obj] : to lose (a game or contest) in a deliberate way ▪ He was suspected of throwing the boxing match.

11 [+ obj] : to express strong emotions in an uncontrolled way ▪ The child was throwing a (temper) tantrum in the middle of the store. ▪ Dad will throw a fit [=he will be extremely angry] if he finds out.

12 [+ obj] : to use (your effort, influence, money, etc.) in order to accomplish something ▪ Lobbyists are throwing their weight/influence behind the legislation. [=they are using their influence to support the legislation] — often + into ▪ She threw all her efforts into the boy's defense. [=she worked as hard as she could for the boy's defense] ▪ They've been throwing all their money into (repairing) the house. ▪ She threw everything she had into winning the match. [=she tried as hard as she could to win the match]

13 [+ obj] : to direct (something, such as a question or look) at someone ▪ She threw him an evil look. — often + at ▪ She threw an evil look at him. ▪ He threw the question back at me. [=he asked me the same question that I asked him]

14 [+ obj] informal : to cause (someone) to feel confused or surprised ▪ The tricky wording of the contract didn't throw her. ▪ The announcement that he was resigning really threw me. — see also throw (someone) for a loop at ¹LOOP, throw (someone) for a loss at LOSS

15 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a shadow) to appear on a surface ▪ The tree threw a shadow across the lawn. ▪ The setting sun threw long shadows on the buildings. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His alleged steroid use threw a shadow on his record.

16 [+ obj] : to put (a vehicle) into a different gear especially in a quick and sudden way ▪ He threw the car into reverse.

17 [+ obj] : to make (your voice) sound as if it is coming from another person or place ▪ Ventriloquists can throw their voices so that their dummies appear to speak.

18 [+ obj] US, informal : to do (something that requires special skill) successfully ▪ Kids were throwing [=performing] stunts/tricks on skateboards at the park.

19 [+ obj] technical : to form or shape (something, such as clay or a pot) on a special wheel ▪ She enjoys throwing pottery.

In addition to the phrases shown below, throw occurs in many idioms that are shown at appropriate entries throughout the dictionary. For example, throw down the gauntlet can be found at ²GAUNTLET and throw light on can be found at ¹LIGHT.

T

throw away [phrasal verb] throw away (something) or throw (something) away 1 : to put (something that is no longer useful or wanted) in a trash can, garbage can, rubbish bin, etc. ▪ We threw away [=threw out] a lot of old junk that was in the basement. ▪ Throw that candy wrapper away, please. — see also THROWAWAY 2 a : to use (something) in a foolish or wasteful way ▪ He threw away [=squandered] his life savings. ▪ He threw all of his money away on gambling. ▪ Don't throw your life away. b : to foolishly fail to use (something, such as a chance) ▪ She threw away [=wasted] an opportunity. ▪ You had a chance to do something great, and you threw it away.

throw in [phrasal verb] throw in (something) or throw (something) in 1 : to add (something) to what you are selling without asking for more money ▪ If you buy two, we'll throw in a third (for free)! 2 : to add (something) to the effort or activity of a group ▪ He threw in a guitar solo toward the end of the song. ▪ She threw in a suggestion or two during the meeting.

throw off [phrasal verb] 1 throw off (something) or throw (something) off a : to quickly remove (a piece of clothing) ▪ He threw his robe off and jumped into the shower. b : to get rid of (something you do not want, such as a quality or a condition) ▪ She tried to throw off her reputation as being difficult to work with. ▪ He threw off his inhibitions and went skinny-dipping. ▪ throwing off all restraint c : to cause (something) to be incorrect ▪ A decimal point in the wrong place threw his calculations off. ▪ The dropped ball threw off the quarterback's timing. d : to send (light, smoke, etc.) out from a source ▪ The woodstove throws off [=gives off] a lot of heat. 2 throw off (someone) or throw (someone) off a : to cause (someone) to be confused or uncertain about where to go, what to do, etc. ▪ The professor was thrown off [=distracted] during her lecture by a ringing cell phone. ▪ I'm sorry about getting the date wrong. I was thrown off by the fact that yesterday was a holiday. b : to get away from (someone who is trying to catch you) ▪ He managed to throw off [=escape from] his pursuers by swimming across the river.

throw on [phrasal verb] throw on (something) or throw (something) on 1 : to quickly put on (a piece of clothing) ▪ She threw on her coat and ran out the door. ▪ Let me throw some shoes on. 2 : to cause (something) to work by moving a switch ▪ He threw on [=switched on] the lights.

throw out [phrasal verb] 1 throw out (something) or throw (something) out a : to put (something that is no longer useful or wanted) in a trash can, garbage can, rubbish bin, etc. ▪ She threw out [=threw away] a pair of old shoes. b : to refuse to accept or consider (something) ▪ The committee threw out [=rejected] the proposal. ▪ His testimony was thrown out by the judge. c : to mention (something) as a possible thing to be done, thought about, etc. : SUGGEST ▪ She threw out a couple of ideas for improving the company's Web site. ▪ He threw out some hints, but nobody could guess the surprise. d : to send (light, smoke, etc.) out from a source ▪ The campfire started throwing out sparks. ▪ The woodstove throws out a lot of heat. e : to injure (a part of your body) ▪ I threw out my back lifting a chair. 2 throw (someone) out or throw out (someone) a : to force (someone) to leave a place, game, etc. ▪ The referee threw out two players for fighting. ▪ His parents threatened to throw him out (of the house) if he didn't start behaving better. ▪ She got thrown out of school for cheating. b baseball : to cause (a player) to be out by throwing the ball to the base that the player is running to ▪ The shortstop threw the runner out at second.

throw together [phrasal verb] 1 throw together (something) or throw (something) together : to make (something) by joining or combining things in a quick and usually careless way ▪ He threw some dinner together for his friends. ▪ They threw together the bookshelf in less than an hour. 2 throw together (people) or throw (people) together : to bring (people) together usually in an unexpected way ▪ People of different occupations were thrown together for the jury.

throw up [phrasal verb] 1 throw up or throw up (something) or throw (something) up informal : to have the food, liquid, etc., that is in your stomach come out through your mouth : VOMIT ▪ She said she felt sick and then threw up. ▪ The patient was throwing up blood. 2 throw up (something) or throw (something) up a : to raise or lift (something) quickly or suddenly ▪ He threw up the window and yelled down to her. ▪ Her car's tires threw up dust as she sped away. b : to build (something) quickly ▪ The house was thrown up almost overnight. c chiefly Brit : to leave (your job, home, etc.) ▪ She threw up [=quit] her job to devote time to painting. d Brit : to cause (something) to be known ▪ A lot of information has been thrown up from the investigation. ▪ The study has thrown up some surprising results. 3 throw up your hands or throw your hands up (in the air) : to stop an activity or effort and admit that you cannot do anything to make a situation better ▪ He tried to convince her not to go, but in the end he had to throw up his hands in despair. ▪ She threw her hands up in disgust.

throw yourself at (someone) informal : to try too hard to attract the attention of (someone you are sexually attracted to) ▪ Stop throwing yourself at him. You'll look desperate.

throw yourself into : to begin doing or working on (something) with great energy and determination ▪ He threw him- self into (composing/performing) his music. ▪ She threw herself into the assignment with a lot of enthusiasm.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

[2]throw noun, pl throws [count]
1 a : an act of throwing something (such as a ball) ▪ The quarterback made a perfect throw. — see also FREE THROW, HAMMER THROW b : an act of rolling dice ▪ He lost all his winnings on his last throw.
2 : the distance over which something is thrown or could be thrown ▪ a discus throw of 200 feet ▪ It's a long throw from center field to home plate.
3 : a loose blanket or cloth that is put on a sofa, chair, etc.
a stone's throw see [1]STONE
a throw Brit, informal : for each one : APIECE ▪ Tickets cost £25 a throw.

throw•away /ˈθrowəˌweɪ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : made to be thrown away after use : DISPOSABLE ▪ throwaway containers
2 : made or said with very little thought ▪ a throwaway remark
3 : tending to throw things away instead of keeping them and using them again : very wasteful ▪ a throwaway culture/society throw•back /ˈθroʊˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a person or thing that is similar to someone or something from the past or that is suited to an earlier time — usually singular; usually + to ▪ She's a throwback to the actresses of the 1950s. ▪ The band's music is a throwback to the 1980s.

throw•er /ˈθrowɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or thing that throws something ▪ discus throwers — see also FLAMETHROWER, SNOW THROWER throw–in /ˈθroʊˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] sports : an act of throwing a ball into a playing area or to another player: such as a : a throw made in soccer or rugby to put the ball back in play after it has gone out of the playing area b : a throw from a player in the outfield to a player in the infield in baseball thrown past participle of [1]THROW throw pillow noun, pl ~ -lows [count] chiefly US : a small pillow that is used especially for decoration — called also (Brit) scatter cushion; see picture at LIVING ROOM throw rug noun, pl ~ rugs [count] chiefly US : a small rug that can be easily moved — called also scatter rug

thrum /ˈθrʌm/ verb thrums; thrummed; thrum•ming [no obj] : to make a low, steady sound ▪ The engine thrummed.
– thrum noun [singular] ▪ the thrum of the engine

[1]thrush /ˈθrʌʃ/ noun, pl thrushes [count] : a type of bird that is brown with a spotted breast — compare [2]THRUSH

[2]thrush noun [noncount] medical
1 : a disease that occurs mostly in babies and children, that is caused by a fungus, and that produces white patches in the mouth and throat
2 chiefly Brit : YEAST INFECTION
– compare [1]THRUSH

[1]thrust /ˈθrʌst/ verb thrusts; thrust; thrust•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to push (someone or something) with force : SHOVE ▪ He thrust his hands into his pockets. ▪ He thrust his fist into the air. ▪ She thrust him aside [=pushed him to the side] and walked past him. ▪ He thrust his way through the crowd. [=he went through the crowd by pushing people aside] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her best-selling book suddenly thrust her into the spotlight. ▪ He thrust all caution aside. ▪ She's unable to thrust aside [=to forget] those memories.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something sharp) to enter or go through something else by pushing ▪ The doctor thrust the needle into the patient's arm.
3 [no obj] : to make a sudden, strong, forward movement at someone or something with a weapon ▪ He thrust at me with his sword.
thrust on/upon [phrasal verb] thrust (something) on/upon (someone) : to force (someone) to have or accept (something) ▪ Fame was thrust upon her. [=she became famous even though she did not try or want to be famous]

[2]thrust noun, pl thrusts
1 [count] : a forward or upward push ▪ With one last thrust he broke through the barrier. ▪ a thrust of the hip = a hip thrust ▪ a single thrust of his sword
2 [singular] a : the main point or meaning of something ▪ I agreed with the (main) thrust of the argument/theory/article. b : the main concern or purpose of something ▪ The major thrust of their research [=the main reason they are doing their research] will be to find practical applications.
3 [noncount] technical : the force produced by an engine that causes an aircraft, rocket, etc., to move forward ▪ forward thrust
cut and thrust see [2]CUT thru•way also through•way /ˈθruːˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] US : a large highway that can be entered and left only at certain places ▪ the New York State Thruway

[1]thud /ˈθʌd/ verb thuds; thud•ded; thud•ding [no obj]
1 : to hit something with a loud, dull sound ▪ The ball thudded against the side of the house.
2 : to beat forcefully ▪ Her heart was thudding [=thumping, pounding] against her rib cage.

[2]thud noun, pl thuds [count] : a loud, dull sound made especially when a heavy object hits something : THUMP ▪ The book hit the floor with a thud. ▪ The ball landed with a thud. ▪ I heard a heavy thud on the roof.

thug /ˈθʌg/ noun, pl thugs [count] : a violent criminal ▪ a gang of thugs ▪ He was beaten and robbed by street thugs.
– thug•gish /ˈθʌgɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ thuggish violence/behavior ▪ a thuggish regime

thug•gery /ˈθʌgəri/ noun [noncount] formal : behavior that is violent and illegal : the behavior of thugs ▪ political corruption and thuggery ▪ protection from street thuggery

[1]thumb /ˈθʌm/ noun, pl thumbs [count]
1 : the short, thick finger on the side of your hand ▪ a little girl sucking her thumb ▪ I accidentally cut my thumb. — see picture at HAND; see also GREEN THUMB
2 : the part of a glove or mitten that covers a thumb ▪ My mitten has a hole in the thumb.
all thumbs (US) or Brit all fingers and thumbs : extremely awkward or clumsy ▪ I'm all thumbs when it comes to wrapping packages.
rule of thumb see [1]RULE
stick out like a sore thumb see [1]SORE
twiddle your thumbs see TWIDDLE under someone's thumb : under someone's control or influence ▪ He kept the employees under his thumb.

[2]thumb verb thumbs; thumbed; thumb•ing informal : to ask for or get a ride in a passing vehicle by sticking out your arm with your thumb up as you stand on the side of the road : HITCHHIKE [+ obj] I thumbed a ride/lift to school. ▪ He thumbed his way to New York. [no obj] He thumbed across the country.
thumb through [phrasal verb] thumb through (something) : to turn the pages of (a book, magazine, etc.) quickly ▪ I thumbed through a magazine while I waited.
thumb your nose at : to show very clearly that you do not like or care about (something) ▪ She thumbed her nose at my suggestions. ▪ They thumb their nose at the rules. [=they ignore the rules]
– thumbed adj — used in combination ▪ a well-thumbed book [=a book that has been used/read a lot] ▪ a much-thumbed copy of the rules thumb index noun, pl ~ -dexes [count] : a series of small cuts in the edge of the pages in a large book that are labeled and that make it easier to open the book to a particular section ▪ a dictionary that has a thumb index

– thumb–indexed adj ▪ a thumb-indexed dictionary

[1]thumb•nail /ˈθʌmˌneɪl/ noun, pl -nails [count]
1 : the hard covering at the end of a thumb : the fingernail of a thumb — see picture at HAND
2 computers : a very small copy of a larger picture on a computer ▪ You can see a larger version of the picture by clicking on the thumbnail.

[2]thumbnail adj : very short or brief ▪ a thumbnail history ▪ He included a thumbnail sketch [=a short description] of the poet.

thumb•print /ˈθʌmˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count] : the pattern of marks made by pressing your thumb on a surface : a fingerprint made by a thumb ▪ He left a dirty thumbprint on the page. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her thumbprints are all over this project. [=it is obvious that she was very involved in this project]

thumb•screw /ˈθʌmˌskruː/ noun, pl -screws [count]
1 : a device used in the past to torture people by crushing their thumbs — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The government is tightening/putting the thumbscrews on dissenters. [=the government is putting a lot of pressure on dissenters to stop; the government is treating dissenters very harshly]
2 : a type of screw with a flat-sided head that can be held and turned with your thumb and fingers thumbs–down /ˈθʌmzˈdaʊn/ noun [singular] : a gesture in

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

which you hold your hand out with your thumb pointed down in order to say no, to show disapproval, etc. ▪ When I asked him if they won, he just shook his head and gave me a/the thumbs-down. — often used figuratively ▪ Our proposal got a/the thumbs-down. [=our proposal was rejected] ▪ The show got a big thumbs-down from critics. [=critics did not like the show]

thumbs–up /ˈθʌmzˈʌp/ noun [singular] : a gesture in which you hold your hand out with your thumb pointed up in order to say yes, to show approval, etc. ▪ The coach gave me a/the thumbs-up after I scored the goal. — often used figuratively ▪ Our proposal got a/the thumbs-up. [=our proposal was approved] ▪ The movie got a thumbs-up from most critics. [=most critics liked the movie]

thumb•tack /ˈθʌmˌtæk/ noun, pl -tacks [count] US : a short pin that has a large, flat head and that is used to attach papers, pictures, etc., to a wall or bulletin board — called also (Brit) drawing pin; see picture at OFFICE

[1]thump /ˈθʌmp/ verb thumps; thumped; thump•ing

1 : to hit or beat something or someone and make a loud, deep sound [no obj] Someone was thumping [=pounding] loudly on the door. ▪ The boat thumped against the side of the pier. [+ obj] gorillas thumping their chests ▪ I thumped [=pounded] him on the back. ▪ I was so angry I wanted to thump him (one).

2 [no obj] : to beat forcefully ▪ I could feel my heart thumping [=pounding] inside my chest.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to walk or run with loud, heavy steps ▪ She thumped [=clumped] up the stairs.

[2]thump noun, pl thumps [count]

1 : a loud, deep sound made especially when a heavy object hits something ▪ The ball landed with a thump.

2 : an act of hitting someone or something ▪ I gave him a (good) thump on the back. [=I thumped him on the back]

[1]thump•ing /ˈθʌmpɪŋ/ adj, chiefly Brit, informal : very large, great, etc. ▪ She won the election by a thumping [=whopping] 79 percent. ▪ He told a thumping lie.

[2]thumping adv, Brit, informal : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ That was a thumping great story she told. ▪ We had a thumping good time.

[1]thun•der /ˈθʌndə/ noun

1 [noncount] : the very loud sound that comes from the sky during a storm : the sound that follows a flash of lightning ▪ Her dog is afraid of thunder. ▪ Lightning flashed and thunder boomed/crashed. ▪ Suddenly there was a loud clap of thunder. ▪ We could hear the rumble of thunder in the distance.

2 [singular] : a loud noise that sounds like thunder ▪ the thunder of horses' hooves ▪ the distant thunder of cannon fire ▪ She accepted the award to a thunder of applause.

a face like thunder Brit : a face that looks very angry ▪ He burst into the room with a face like thunder.

steal someone's thunder : to prevent someone from having success or getting a lot of attention, praise, etc., by doing or saying whatever that person was planning to do or say ▪ I didn't mean to steal your thunder, but I just had to tell your mom about your promotion.

[2]thunder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing

1 [no obj] : to produce thunder ▪ The sky thundered and the rain poured down. ▪ It was raining and thundering all night.

2 [no obj] a : to make a loud sound like the sound of thunder ▪ Guns thundered in the distance. ▪ a thundering waterfall b always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move in a way that makes a very loud sound ▪ Horses thundered down the road. ▪ Jets thundered overhead. ▪ Trucks thundered past on the highway.

3 [+ obj] : to shout (something) very loudly ▪ The crowd thundered [=roared] its approval. ▪ "How dare you come into my house!" he thundered.

thun•der•bolt /ˈθʌndəˌboʊlt/ noun, pl -bolts [count] : a flash of lightning that makes a loud sound of thunder and that hits someone or something ▪ He was struck dead by a thunderbolt. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The news hit them like a thunderbolt. [=the news was very shocking or surprising] thun•der•clap /ˈθʌndəˌklæp/ noun, pl -claps [count] : a very loud, sharp sound of thunder ▪ I was awakened by a thunderclap.

thun•der•cloud /ˈθʌndəˌklaʊd/ noun, pl -clouds [count] : a large, dark cloud that produces lightning and thunder ▪ We watched the gathering thunderclouds. — compare STORM CLOUD

thun•der•head /ˈθʌndəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] chiefly US : a very large cloud appearing before a thunderstorm ▪ A thunderhead was forming to the west.

thun•der•ous /ˈθʌndərəs/ adj : making a loud noise like the sound of thunder : very loud ▪ The audience responded with thunderous applause.
– thun•der•ous•ly adv ▪ It was thunderously loud.

thun•der•show•er /ˈθʌndəˌʃawə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a brief storm with lightning and thunder : a brief thunderstorm ▪ Thundershowers are forecast for tomorrow.

thun•der•storm /ˈθʌndəˌstoəm/ noun, pl -storms [count] : a storm with lightning and thunder ▪ There are thunderstorms in the forecast. ▪ The weather service has issued a severe thunderstorm warning.

thun•der•struck /ˈθʌndəˌstrʌk/ adj : feeling sudden and great surprise or shock ▪ She was thunderstruck when her parents told her she was adopted.

thun•dery /ˈθʌndəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit : producing or likely to produce thunder ▪ thundery showers ▪ thundery [=stormy] weather

thunk /θʌŋk/ noun [singular] chiefly US : a dull, hollow sound made especially when a heavy object hits something ▪ The book landed on the floor with a thunk.

Thurs. or Thur. abbr Thursday

Thurs•day /ˈθəzˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days : the day between Wednesday and Friday [count] He was late last Thursday. ▪ (Brit) We went on the Thursday and returned on the Saturday. ▪ The class meets on Thursdays. [=every Thursday] [noncount] We went on Thursday and returned on Saturday. ▪ She will arrive on Thursday. = (US) She will arrive Thursday. — abbr. Thurs. or Thur. or Th.
– Thurs•days /ˈθəzˌdeɪz/ adv ▪ The class meets Thursdays. [=every Thursday]

thus /ðʌs/ adv, formal

1 a : in this way or manner : like this ▪ The judge expressed it thus: "Our obligation is to discover the truth." b : by so doing ▪ I took her shift, thus enabling her to have the night off. [=I enabled her to have the night off by taking her shift]

2 : because of this : THEREFORE ▪ This detergent is highly concentrated and thus you will need to dilute it. ▪ Thus, we conclude . . .

thus far see [1]FAR

thwack /θwæk/ verb thwacks; thwacked; thwack•ing [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) hard with a loud sound ▪ A book fell off the shelf and thwacked me on the head.
– thwack noun, pl thwacks [count] ▪ I gave the ball a good thwack. [=I hit the ball hard] ▪ The book hit the floor with a loud thwack.

thwart /θwoət/ verb thwarts; thwart•ed; thwart•ing [+ obj] : to prevent (someone) from doing something or to stop (something) from happening ▪ She did all she could to thwart his plans. ▪ The army thwarted the attempt at a coup. — often used as (be) thwarted ▪ The plot was thwarted. ▪ He was thwarted in his evil plans. ▪ thwarted ambition/hopes thy /ðaɪ/ adj, old-fashioned + literary : YOUR — used when speaking to a single person ▪ " . . . thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." —Leviticus 19:18 (KJV)

thyme /ˈtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : a sweet-smelling herb with small leaves that is used in cooking — see color picture on page C6

thy•roid /ˈθaɪˌrɔɪd/ noun, pl -roids [count] medical : a small gland in the neck that affects growth ▪ an overactive/underactive thyroid ▪ a thyroid condition — called also thyroid gland thy•self /ðaɪˈsɛlf/ pronoun, old-fashioned + literary : YOURSELF — used when speaking to a single person ▪ " . . . Physician, heal thyself . . . " —Luke 4:23 (KJV) ▪ Know thyself.

ti /ˈti:/ noun [noncount] : the seventh note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti

ti•ara /tiˈerə, Brit tiˈɑ:rə/ noun, pl -aras [count]

1 : a crown worn by the pope

2 : a small crown that is decorated with jewels and that is worn by women or girls on special occasions ▪ a diamond tiara

tib•ia /ˈtɪbijə/ noun, pl tib•i•ae /ˈtɪbiˌi:/ or tib•i•as [count] medical : the bone that forms the front part of the leg between the knee and the ankle — called also shinbone; see picture at HUMAN tic /ˈtɪk/ noun, pl tics [count]

1 : a small repeated movement of a muscle especially in the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

face that cannot be controlled ▪ a facial tic
2 : a word or phrase that someone frequently says or an action that someone frequently does without intending to ▪ a nervous tic ▪ The verbal tic "you know" often occurs in her speech.

[1]tick /ˈtɪk/ noun
1 [singular] : a small, quick sound that is made by a machine (such as a clock) and that often occurs in a series to produce a rhythm ▪ the tick of a clock
2 [count] chiefly Brit : the time that it takes a clock to make one tick : a very short period of time ▪ I'll be there in a tick. [=second] ▪ Give me two ticks to get ready.
3 [count] chiefly Brit : a mark ✓ that is used to show that something (such as an item on a list) has been noted, done, etc. : CHECK ▪ Put a tick next to your name.
– compare [3]TICK, [4]TICK

[2]tick verb ticks; ticked; tick•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a small, quick, and often rhythmic tapping sound ▪ I could hear the clock tick/ticking.
2 [no obj] : to continue to work or function in a normal way : RUN ▪ His old heart is still ticking.
3 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to mark (something) with a written tick (✓) : CHECK ▪ Tick the box next to your choice. — often + off ▪ Tick off your choice below. ▪ You're coming? Okay, I'll tick you off (on my list). [=I'll put a tick/check next to your name on my list]
4 [+ obj] : to touch (something) quickly or lightly ▪ The bat ticked the ball.
tick away/by/past [phrasal verb] of time : to pass or go by ▪ Time is ticking away. ▪ She became impatient as the hours ticked by.
tick off [phrasal verb] 1 tick (someone) off or tick off (someone) a US, informal : to make (someone) angry ▪ He really ticks me off sometimes. ▪ She was ticked off by the rude salesclerk. b Brit : to criticize (someone) strongly : to tell (someone) in an angry way that he or she did something wrong ▪ His mother ticked him off for his behavior. 2 tick (someone or something) off or tick off (someone or something) a US : to say the name of (someone or something) as part of a list ▪ Her parents ticked off [=listed] all the reasons she should not have stayed out late. b : to count or mark things as they pass ▪ We are ticking off the days until vacation. — see also [2]TICK 3 (above) tick over [phrasal verb] 1 chiefly Brit, of a vehicle's engine : to run at a very low speed 2 Brit : to run or proceed in a steady but slow way ▪ "How's business?" "Oh, just ticking over."
what makes someone tick informal : the things that cause someone to behave a certain way : the feelings, opinions, concerns, etc., that are parts of someone's personality ▪ I've always wondered what makes people like that tick. ▪ It's hard to say what makes him tick.

[3]tick noun, pl ticks [count] : a very small insect that attaches itself to the skin of larger animals or people and drinks their blood — see also DEER TICK — compare [1]TICK, [4]TICK

tick

[4]tick noun [noncount] Brit, old-fashioned : an agreement to pay for something after a period of time : CREDIT ▪ She bought her supplies on tick. [=she promised to pay for the supplies later] — compare [1]TICK, [3]TICK ticked /ˈtɪkt/ or ticked off adj, not used before a noun, US, informal : very angry or upset ▪ I was so ticked. ▪ She was pretty ticked off about what he said. — often + at ▪ I was so ticked off at him.

tick•er /ˈtɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 a : a machine that receives and prints out stock prices and other news on long, thin pieces of paper ▪ The news came over the ticker. b : a narrow area that shows information across the top or bottom of a television or computer screen
2 informal : HEART ▪ Exercise is good for your/the ticker.

ticker tape noun [noncount] : long, thin pieces of paper on which news and stock prices are printed by a special machine (called a ticker)

ticker–tape parade noun, pl ∼ -rades [count] US : a parade in which small pieces of paper are thrown into the air to celebrate something, welcome someone, etc. ▪ The astronauts were given a ticker-tape parade through the streets of New York.

[1]tick•et /ˈtɪkət/ noun, pl -ets
1 [count] : a piece of paper that allows you to see a show, participate in an event, travel on a vehicle, etc. ▪ May I see your tickets, please? = Tickets, please. ▪ We bought tickets for/to the opera. ▪ a movie/concert ticket ▪ a bus/train ticket ▪ She bought a one-way ticket to New York. [=a ticket that allows her to travel to New York] ▪ (US) a round-trip ticket = (Brit) a return ticket [=a ticket that allows you to travel to one place and then return back to the place you left] — see also SEASON TICKET
2 [count] : a card or piece of paper that shows that you are participating in a contest, raffle, etc. ▪ a winning lottery ticket — see also SCRATCH TICKET
3 [count] : a piece of paper that officially tells you that you have driven or parked your car improperly and that you will have to pay a fine ▪ I got a ticket for speeding. — see also PARKING TICKET, SPEEDING TICKET
4 [count] Brit : a piece of paper that is attached to an item in a store and that gives information about its price, size, etc. ▪ a price ticket [=tag]
5 [singular] chiefly US : a list of the candidates supported by a political party in an election ▪ The senator heads her party's ticket. [=she is the leader of her party in the election] ▪ the Republican/Democratic ticket — see also SPLIT TICKET, split the ticket at [1]SPLIT
6 [singular] : something that makes it possible to get or achieve something that you want ▪ She believed that education was the/her ticket to a good job. ▪ He expected the novel to be his ticket to fame and fortune. ▪ This job could be their ticket out of poverty. — see also MEAL TICKET
7 the ticket informal + somewhat old-fashioned : the correct or most desirable thing : the thing that is needed or wanted ▪ Compromise, now that's the ticket. [=that's what we need] — often used in the phrase just the ticket ▪ For a romantic dinner, candles are just the ticket.
write your own ticket see WRITE
– see also HOT TICKET

[2]ticket verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [+ obj]
1 chiefly US : to give (a driver) a ticket for driving or parking improperly ▪ He was ticketed for speeding.
2 : to give or sell a ticket to (someone) ▪ methods used for ticketing airline passengers
3 US : to give (someone or something) a specific purpose or destination — usually used as (be) ticketed ▪ The building has been ticketed [=designated] for renovations. ▪ a baseball player ticketed for the minor leagues [=a baseball player who is being sent to the minor leagues]
– ticketing noun [noncount] ▪ Most airlines now allow electronic ticketing.

ticket office noun, pl ∼ - ces [count] : a place where you can buy tickets to travel on a bus, to see a play, to go to a concert, etc.

ticket tout noun, pl ∼ touts [count] Brit : a person who buys tickets for an event and resells them at a much higher price : SCALPER

tick•ing /ˈtɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a strong type of cloth that is often used as a covering for mattresses and pillows

tick•le /ˈtɪkəl/ verb tick•les; tick•led; tick•ling
1 [+ obj] : to try to make (someone) laugh by lightly touching a very sensitive part of the body with your fingers, a feather, etc. ▪ Her little brother screamed with laughter as she tickled him.
2 : to have or cause a slightly uncomfortable feeling on a part of your body [+ obj] The tag on the sweater tickled his neck. [no obj] My nose started to tickle. ▪ Don't touch me there; it tickles.
3 [+ obj] : to please or amuse (someone or something) ▪ The food will tickle your taste buds. [=you'll enjoy the taste of the food] ▪ We were tickled by the invitation. ▪ The idea of going to the party tickled her.
tickled pink informal : very happy or amused ▪ I was tickled pink to see her.
tickle the ivories see IVORY tickle your fancy informal : to interest or attract you ▪ Do you see anything on the menu that tickles your fancy?
tickle your funny bone see FUNNY BONE
– tickle noun, pl tickles [count] ▪ He gave her neck a tickle. [=he tickled her neck] ▪ He felt a tickle in his throat. – tick•ler /ˈtɪkləɚ/ noun, pl -lers [count]

tick•lish /ˈtɪklɪʃ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] 1 : sensitive and easily tickled ▪ My feet are very ticklish. ▪ I'm very ticklish.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

2 : difficult to deal with : requiring special care ▪ Religion can be a very ticklish [=sensitive, touchy] subject.

tic–tac–toe or tick–tack–toe /ˌtɪkˌtækˈtoʊ/ noun [noncount] US : a game in which one player draws Xs and another player draws Os inside a set of nine squares and each player tries to be the first to fill a row of squares with either Xs or Os — called also (Brit) noughts and crosses

tid•al /ˈtaɪdl/ adj : of or relating to tides : rising and falling at regular times ▪ tidal currents

tidal wave noun, pl ~ waves [count]
1 : a very high, large wave in the ocean that is often caused by strong winds or an earthquake : TSUNAMI
2 : a very large amount of something ▪ a tidal wave of emotion/tourists

tid•bit (US) /ˈtɪdˌbɪt/ or Brit tit•bit /ˈtɪtˌbɪt/ noun, pl -bits [count]
1 : a small piece of food ▪ tasty tidbits
2 : a small piece of news or interesting information ▪ I just heard a juicy tidbit about your brother. ▪ tidbits of gossip

tid•dler /ˈtɪdlɚ/ noun, pl tid•dlers [count] Brit, informal 1 : a small fish
2 : a small and unimportant person or thing ▪ The company is no tiddler.

tid•dly•winks /ˈtɪdliˌwɪŋks/ also US tid•dle•dy•winks /ˈtɪdlɪdiˌwɪŋks/ noun [noncount] : a children's game in which players make small discs jump into a small container by pressing on them with another disc

[1]tide /ˈtaɪd/ noun, pl tides
1 a [count] : the regular upward and downward movement of the level of the ocean that is caused by the pull of the Sun and the Moon on the Earth ▪ a chart of the tides ▪ Is the tide coming in or going out? = Is the tide rising or falling? — see also EBB TIDE, FLOOD TIDE, HIGH TIDE, LOW TIDE, RIPTIDE b [singular] : the flow of the ocean's water as the tide rises or falls ▪ The boat got swept away in/by the tide.
2 [singular] : the way in which something is changing or developing ▪ We tried to gauge the tide of public opinion. [=to find out how public opinion was changing] ▪ the tide of history ▪ The team was on a losing streak, but then the tide turned [=their luck changed] and they went on to win the championship.
3 [singular] : something that increases over time — + of ▪ The government is dealing with a rising/swelling/growing tide of criticism over its foreign policy. ▪ They are concerned about the rising tide of crime [=the increasing amount of crime] in the city. ▪ We have to do something to stem the tide of violence. [=to stop the violence from continuing and increasing] go/swim with/against the tide ✧ If you go/swim with/against the tide, you think or behave in a way that agrees/disagrees with how most other people think or behave. ▪ Politically, she tends to go against the tide on her college campus. [=she tends to have different political opinions than most people on her college campus]

[2]tide verb tides; tid•ed; tid•ing
tide over [phrasal verb] tide (someone) over : to give (someone) what is needed to get through a short period of time ▪ My parents lent us some money to tide us over for a while. ▪ He had a snack to tide himself over until dinner.

tide•mark /ˈtaɪdˌmɑɚk/ noun, pl -marks [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a mark on the beach that shows how far the water came in toward the shore when the tide was high
2 Brit, informal : a mark left by dirty water in a bathtub tide pool noun, pl ~ pools [count] US : an area of water that is left on a beach after the tide has fallen tide•wa•ter /ˈtaɪdˌwɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters

1 [noncount] : water that flows over land during high tide
2 [count] US : an area of land along the coast

tid•ings /ˈtaɪdɪŋz/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : NEWS ▪ good/glad tidings

[1]ti•dy /ˈtaɪdi/ adj ti•di•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : clean and organized : not messy ▪ She keeps her desk tidy. [=neat] ▪ a tidy kitchen ▪ The house is neat and tidy. [=clean and organized]
2 : keeping things clean and organized ▪ He has always been a tidy person.
3 informal, of an amount of money : fairly large ▪ She earns a tidy salary. ▪ They paid a tidy sum for the house.

[2]tidy verb -dies; -died; -dy•ing : to make (something) tidy : to make (something) clean and organized [+ obj] I tidied the house before they arrived. — usually + up ▪ We need to tidy up the house. [no obj] — + up ▪ I didn't have time to tidy up. ▪ I'm tired of always tidying up after you. [=cleaning up your messes] tidy away [phrasal verb] tidy (something) away or tidy away (something) Brit : to put (something) in its proper place in order to make a place tidy ▪ I tidied all the loose papers away before the guests arrived.

[3]tidy noun, pl -dies [count] Brit : a container for storing small items ▪ a desk/sink/car tidy

[1]tie /ˈtaɪ/ verb ties; tied; ty•ing /ˈtajɪŋ/
1 a [+ obj] : to attach (someone or something) to something with a string, rope, etc. ▪ His kidnappers tied him to a chair. ▪ She tied (up) the dog to a post and went into the store. b [+ obj] : to pass (something, such as a string, ribbon, or rope) around itself in a way that attaches it to something or holds it in place : to make a knot or bow in (something) ▪ He tied (up) his shoelaces/necktie. ▪ She tied a scarf around her neck. ▪ He tied the ropes together. [=he attached the ropes to each other by tying a knot] ▪ She wrapped a ribbon around the box and tied a bow. [=made a bow] ▪ She tied knots in the rope. — often + to ▪ He tied the rope to a tree branch. ▪ I tied the dog's leash to a post and went into the store. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ At the end of the book, she ties together the separate plots of the story. c : to close or hold (something) with a string, rope, etc., that is attached to it or wrapped around it [+ obj] You need to tie your shoe. ▪ The butcher tied (up) the package with string. ▪ His hands and feet had been tied together. ▪ Tie your hair back (in a ponytail) so it won't fall in your face. ▪ She tied the apron loosely around her waist. [no obj] The apron ties (up) in the back. — see also hands are tied at [1]HAND
2 a : to make the score of a game or contest equal [+ obj] She tied (up) the score with a late goal. ▪ He can tie (up) the game with a home run. [no obj] The team still has a chance to tie. b [no obj] : to end a game, race, etc., with the same score or in the same position as another person or team ▪ He tied for first/second place. [=he and another competitor both finished with the same score in first/second place] c [+ obj] : to achieve the same score, time, etc., as (a person, a record, etc.) ▪ I had the lead but he tied me by making a birdie on the last hole. ▪ Her time tied the world record. ▪ He tied the school's record in the high jump.
3 [+ obj] : to connect (someone or something) to another person or thing — usually used as (be) tied to ▪ He argues that poverty is closely tied to poor health. [=that poverty and poor health are closely related/connected] ▪ The rise in crime has been tied [=linked] to drug dealing. ▪ The rate of production is tied to consumer demand. [=the rate of production depends on consumer demand] ▪ The prices of Web ads are tied to the number of visitors the sites have.
4 [+ obj] : to cause or require (someone) to be somewhere, do something, etc. ▪ He has responsibilities that tie him to this area. [=that prevent him from leaving this area] — often used as (be) tied to ▪ She was tired of being tied to the same routine. [=of always having the same routine] ▪ He was tied to his desk all day. [=he had to work at his desk all day] ▪ I didn't want to be tied to driving her to work every day.
fit to be tied see [1]FIT tie down [phrasal verb] 1 tie (something or someone) down or tie down (something or someone) : to attach (something or someone) especially to a flat surface by using string, rope, etc. ▪ A storm was coming, so the captain ordered us to tie everything down. ▪ She tied down the flaps of the tent. ▪ They had him tied down on a stretcher. 2 tie (someone) down or tie down (someone) : to limit the freedom of (someone) ▪ Having a family ties people down. ▪ She doesn't want to tie herself down to a schedule. — often used as (be) tied down ▪ You're too young to be tied down with so much responsibility.
tie in [phrasal verb] 1 : to be related or connected to something — + to or with ▪ The book's illustrations tie in to/with the story very well. 2 tie in (something) or tie (something) in : to connect (something) to something else — + to or with ▪ The teacher tied in what we learned last week with today's lesson. ▪ The publication of the senator's book was tied in to his announcement that he will run for president. — see also TIE-IN tie off [phrasal verb] tie off (something) or tie (something) off 1 : to fasten or hold (something) by tying a knot or bow at its end ▪ I finished knitting the last row and tied off the yarn. 2 : to close (something) with string, thread, etc. ▪ The surgeon tied off the vein.
tie one on US, informal + old-fashioned : to become drunk ▪ He really tied one on last night.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

tie on the feedbag see FEEDBAG

tie the knot see [1]KNOT

tie up [phrasal verb] 1 tie up or tie (something) up or tie up (something) : to become attached or to attach (something) to a fixed object with a string, rope, etc. ▪ They tied (the boat) up and jumped out. ▪ The ferry ties up at the south slip. 2 tie (something) up or tie up (something) a : to deal with (something) in order to complete something ▪ The project is almost finished, but we still have a few final details to tie up. = We still have to tie up some loose ends. ▪ The writer ties up all the loose ends at the end of the story. b US : to prevent the use or progress of (something) ▪ He tied up the phone for an hour. [=he used the phone for an hour and other people could not use it] ▪ Traffic was tied up [=backed up] for hours/miles. 3 tie up (money) in (something) or tie (money) up in (something) : to invest (money) in (something) in a way that prevents it from being used for some other purpose ▪ They tied up all of their money in their new business. — usually used as (be) tied up in ▪ The money was tied up in stocks. 4 tie up with (something) or be tied up with (something) : to be connected or related to (something) ▪ Today's lesson tied up with what was taught yesterday. ▪ My life is tied up with hers. 5 tie (someone) up or tie up (someone) a : to tie rope, tape, etc., around the body, arms, or legs of (someone) in order to keep that person from moving or escaping ▪ The robbers tied up the clerk. b : to prevent (someone) from doing other things or from going to a particular place ▪ Meetings tied me up for most of the afternoon. — usually used as (be) tied up ▪ She was tied up in traffic. ▪ I'd like to help but I'm a bit tied up at the moment. — see also [1]TIE 1, 2 (above), TIE-UP

tie yourself (up) in knots see [1]KNOT

[2]tie noun, pl ties [count]

1 : NECKTIE ▪ He was wearing a suit and tie. ▪ You have a spot on your tie. — see also BOW TIE

2 : a piece of string, ribbon, cord, etc., that is used for fastening, joining, or closing something ▪ The pants have a tie at the top. — see also TWIST TIE

3 a : something (such as an idea, interest, experience, or feeling) that is shared by people or groups and that forms a connection between them — usually plural ▪ family ties ▪ political/economic/cultural ties ▪ the ties of friendship ▪ The company has close ties to conservative groups. ▪ Recent events have strengthened/cemented the ties between our two countries. ▪ She has severed all ties with the company. ▪ The experience loosened the ties that bind (us together). b : a responsibility that limits a person's freedom to do other things ▪ He was not ready to accept the ties of family life.

4 a : the final result of a game, contest, etc., in which two or more people or teams finish with the same number of points, votes, etc. — usually singular ▪ The game ended in a tie. = The game was a tie. [=both teams/players had the same score at the end of the game] ▪ They played to a 3–3 tie. [=each team/player had 3 points when the game ended] ▪ There was a tie for second place. b : a situation in which two or more people or teams have the same number of points, votes, etc., in a game or contest — usually singular ▪ She broke the tie with a goal in the final seconds of the match. ▪ a tie score

5 US : one of the heavy pieces of wood to which the rails of a railroad are fastened — called also (Brit) sleeper

6 Brit, sports : a match in a sports competition (such as a soccer or tennis tournament) in which the loser is eliminated ▪ They won the tie in the first round and went on to win the cup.

tie•back /ˈtaɪˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a cord or piece of cloth, metal, etc., that is used for holding a curtain to the side of a window tie–break noun, pl -breaks [count] sports : a tiebreaker in tennis ▪ She won the tie-break.

tie•break•er /ˈtaɪˌbreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something (such as an extra period of play or an extra question) that is used to decide a winner when a game, contest, etc., has ended with a tied score tied /ˈtaɪd/ adj : having an equal number of points in a contest ▪ The teams were tied 7–7 at the end of the first quarter. ▪ The candidates are presently tied in the polls. : having an equal number of points for each side ▪ The score was tied (at) 7–7. ▪ It was a tied [=tie] game at the end of the first half.

tie–dye /ˈtaɪˌdaɪ/ verb -dye; -dyed; -dyeing [+ obj] : to decorate (fabric or clothing) by tying parts of the fabric with knots, strings, etc., and soaking it in often several different colors of dye ▪ We tie-dyed our T-shirts.
– tie–dyed adj ▪ a tie-dyed shirt – tie–dye•ing /ˈtaɪˌdajɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

tie–in /ˈtaɪˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : a product (such as a toy) that is connected with a movie, television show, etc. — see also tie in at [1]TIE

tie•pin /ˈtaɪˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count] : a decorative pin that is used to hold the ends of a necktie in place

tier /ˈtiɚ/ noun, pl tiers [count]

1 : a row or layer of things that is above another row or layer ▪ We were seated in the theater's top tier.

2 : a particular level in a group, organization, etc. ▪ top tier colleges [=the best or most expensive colleges] ▪ the lowest tier of management tiered /ˈtiɚd/ adj : arranged in layers or tiers ▪ The hors d'oeuvres were served on tiered platters. — usually used in combination ▪ a three-tiered cake ▪ a two-tiered justice system that treats poor and wealthy people differently tie tack noun, pl ~ tacks [count] US : a short pin with a separate back or clasp that fastens behind a necktie tie–up /ˈtaɪˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 chiefly US : a situation in which something (such as traffic) becomes very slow or stops because of a problem, accident, etc. ▪ An overturned truck caused a traffic tie-up for miles.

2 chiefly Brit a : a close connection between people or things ▪ the tie-up [=link] between poverty and poor health b : an agreement to do business together ▪ There are rumors of a proposed tie-up between the two companies. — see also tie up at [1]TIE

tiff /ˈtɪf/ noun, pl tiffs [count] : a small fight or argument about something that is not important ▪ She got into a tiff [=quarrel] with her boyfriend. ▪ a tiff over money

ti•ger /ˈtaɪgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count]

1 a : a large, wild cat that has a coat of usually yellow or orange fur and black stripes and that lives in Asia — see picture at CAT b : a striped cat that lives with people — called also tiger cat

2 : a person who is very fierce or aggressive ▪ He was a tiger on the basketball court. — see also PAPER TIGER – ti•ger•ish /ˈtaɪgɚɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

[1]tight /ˈtaɪt/ adj tight•er; -est

1 : difficult to move : fastened, attached, or held in a position that is not easy to move ▪ The lid is too tight. I can't loosen it. ▪ She made a tight knot in the rope. ▪ Keep a tight grip/hold on his hand when you cross the street. — opposite LOOSE

2 : fitting very close to your body ▪ tight [=snug] T-shirts ▪ a tight pair of jeans = a pair of tight jeans ▪ These shoes are too tight. [=they are too small] ▪ a tight bandage — opposite LOOSE; see also SKINTIGHT

3 : flat or firm from being pulled or stretched ▪ a tight wire/string ▪ Pull the ribbon tight and make a bow. — opposite LOOSE

4 : tense or stiff : not relaxed ▪ Her muscles were tight. ▪ His throat/chest felt tight. ▪ a tight smile ▪ She answered in a tight voice. — opposite LOOSE

5 : hard and muscular ▪ an athlete with a tight stomach/body ▪ He has tight abs.

6 : having parts that are very close together ▪ The cat was curled into a tight ball. ▪ a fabric with a tight weave ▪ The swimming goggles should create a tight seal around your eyes. — see also AIRTIGHT, WATERTIGHT

7 : not having or allowing much room ▪ Space was tight at their first home. [=their first home was small; they did not have much room] ▪ There's a tight space you can crawl through underneath the house. ▪ The tunnel gets pretty tight up ahead. ▪ We got everything into the suitcase, but it was a tight squeeze. [=the suitcase was very full/packed]

8 : not having or allowing much time ▪ We are on a tight schedule. ▪ The project has a very tight deadline. ▪ Time was tight, so we couldn't stay long.

9 : close or equal in score, progress, or ability ▪ It was a very tight race/game. ▪ It was one of the tightest presidential elections in history. ▪ The teams play in a tight division.

10 : not allowing much freedom : strict about controlling what happens ▪ She kept a tight hand on the business. [=she controlled the business in a very strict way] ▪ The mayor put tighter security in place for the concert. ▪ He has people working for him, but he has/keeps a tight rein on every part of the process.

11 : difficult or awkward ▪ You've put me in a tight spot. [=a difficult position] ▪ They were in a tight spot financially.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

[=they did not have much money; they were having financial problems]

12 a : low in supply : not easily available ▪ We can't afford a vacation right now because money is tight. [=scarce] ▪ Jobs are tight right now. [=there are not many jobs available right now] b — used to describe a situation that is difficult because there is not enough of something ▪ Things have been a little tight [=money has been scarce] since I lost my job. ▪ a tight job market [=a situation in which there are few jobs]

13 informal + usually disapproving : not giving or spending money freely : stingy or cheap ▪ He's pretty tight with his money.

14 : having a close personal or professional relationship ▪ We've been tight [=very friendly] for a long time. ▪ a tight group of friends — often + with ▪ She's tight with the boss.

15 : curving or changing direction suddenly ▪ There is a tight [=sharp] bend in the road up ahead. ▪ Make a tight right turn at the traffic light.

16 informal + old-fashioned : very drunk ▪ getting tight at a bar

run a tight ship see ¹SHIP

– tight•ly adv ▪ The shirt fits too tightly around the arms. ▪ The luggage was secured tightly to the top of the car. ▪ Hold on tightly to the railing. ▪ shelves packed tightly with books ▪ a tightly knit [=tight-knit] family – tight•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He felt some muscle tightness in his back.

²tight adv : in a tight way ▪ Hold on tight. ▪ Is the door shut tight? ▪ She screwed the cap on tight. ▪ Don't close the lid so tight. ▪ We were packed as tight as sardines on the bus.

hang tight see ¹HANG sit tight see SIT

sleep tight see ¹SLEEP

tight•en /ˈtaɪtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to make (something) tight or tighter or to become tight or tighter [+ obj] I'll tighten the screw. ▪ She tightened her hold on the handle. [no obj] His jaw muscles tightened.

tighten the noose see NOOSE

tighten the screws see ¹SCREW

tighten up [phrasal verb] tighten up or tighten (something) up or tighten up (something) : to become more strict or effective or to make (something) more strict or effective ▪ Security around the building has tightened up recently. ▪ They tightened up security around the building. ▪ We installed new machines to tighten up the assembly line.

tighten your belt see ¹BELT tight end noun, pl ~ ends [count] American football : a player on the offensive team who plays in a position on the line of scrimmage and who blocks and sometimes catches passes tight• st•ed /ˈtaɪtˈfɪstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : not wanting to give or spend money : stingy or cheap ▪ The company's tightfisted owner won't raise the workers' salaries.

tight–knit /ˈtaɪtˈnɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a group of people who care about each other and who are very friendly with each other ▪ We are a tight-knit [=close-knit] family/community.

tight–lipped /ˈtaɪtˈlɪpt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not willing to speak about something ▪ He remained tight-lipped about his plans. ▪ tight-lipped witnesses

2 : having your lips pressed tightly together because you are thinking hard, angry, etc. ▪ He was tight-lipped in concentration.

tight•rope /ˈtaɪtˌroʊp/ noun, pl -ropes [count] : a tightly stretched rope or wire high above the ground that a performer walks on, does tricks on, etc., especially in a circus ▪ a tightrope walker — often used figuratively to describe a dangerous or uncertain situation in which you have to be very careful not to make mistakes ▪ As soldiers during the war, we walked a tightrope between life and death every day. ▪ The writer manages to walk a tightrope between good humor and poor taste.

tights /ˈtaɪts/ noun [plural]

1 : a piece of clothing that is worn especially by girls, women, and dancers, that fits closely over the feet, legs, and waist, and that is made of a thicker material than pantyhose — see color picture on page C13

2 Brit : PANTYHOSE

tight•wad /ˈtaɪtˌwɑːd/ noun, pl -wads [count] informal + disapproving : a person who does not like to spend or give money ▪ Her husband's such a tightwad that he never wants to go out to dinner.

ti•gress /ˈtaɪgrəs/ noun, pl -gress•es [count] : a female tiger

tike variant spelling of TYKE

ti•ki bar /ˈtiːki-/ noun, pl ~ bars [count] US : a bar or restaurant that is decorated in a Polynesian style

'til or til variant spellings of ¹TILL, ²TILL

til•de /ˈtɪldə/ noun, pl -des [count] : a mark ~ used in some languages (such as Spanish and Portuguese) to show that the letter n is pronounced /nj/ or that a vowel is pronounced in a different way

¹tile /ˈtajəl/ noun, pl tiles

1 a : a usually flat piece of hard clay, stone, or other material that is used for covering walls, floors, etc. [count] decorative ceramic tiles [noncount] We installed new tile in the kitchen. b [count, noncount] : a curved piece of hard clay that is used for covering roofs

2 [count] : a small, flat piece that is used in some board games on the tiles Brit, informal : drinking, dancing, etc., until late at night ▪ She came back late after a night on the tiles.

²tile verb tiles; tiled; til•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) with tiles ▪ We hired him to tile the bathroom floor.

– tiled adj ▪ a tiled roof – til•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's a professional carpenter and tiler.

¹till or 'til also til /ˈtɪl, təl/ prep : UNTIL ▪ We won't finish till next week. ▪ Wait till next year. ▪ The event doesn't start till tomorrow.

²till or 'til also til conj : UNTIL ▪ They kept playing till it got dark. ▪ He spun around till he was dizzy.

³till /ˈtɪl/ verb tills; tilled; till•ing [+ obj] : to prepare (soil, a piece of land, etc.) for growing crops ▪ The farmers are tilling the soil.

– till•able /ˈtɪləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ This land is not tillable. [=not suitable for growing crops]

⁴till noun, pl tills [count]

1 : a drawer for keeping money in a store or bank

2 Brit : CASH REGISTER

in the till ✧ To have/put your hand(s) in the till is to steal money from the place where you work. ▪ He was accused of putting his hand in the till. ▪ She was caught with her hands in the till.

till•age /ˈtɪlɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the activity or process of preparing land for growing crops ▪ tillage tools/equipment/methods

¹till•er /ˈtɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who tills land

2 : a tool used for preparing land for growing crops

– compare ²TILLER

²til•ler /ˈtɪlə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : a handle that is used to steer a boat by turning the rudder — compare ¹TILLER

¹tilt /ˈtɪlt/ verb tilts; tilt•ed; tilt•ing

1 a : to lift or move (something) so that one side is higher than another side [+ obj] Tilt the glass as you pour in the beer. ▪ The picture on the wall was tilted. [=it was not straight or level] [no obj] The steering wheel can tilt downward. b [+ obj] : to move (your head, chin, etc.) up, down, or to one side ▪ Tilt your head back. ▪ Tilt your chin up. ▪ She tilted her head and looked questioningly at him. ▪ Her head was tilted to the side.

2 : to influence (something) or to change so that a particular result or occurrence is more likely, a particular group is favored, etc. [+ obj] Rising inflation could tilt the economy into/toward a recession. ▪ The quarterback's injury could tilt (the outcome of) the game in the other team's favor. [=could make it more likely that the other team will win] ▪ His election tilted the city council to the left/right. [=made the city council more liberal/conservative] ▪ The law tilts the balance of power towards corporations. [=the law gives corporations more power] [no obj] The economy could be tilting into/toward a recession.

tilt at [phrasal verb] 1 tilt at (someone or something) Brit : to attack (someone or something) in writing or speech ▪ critics tilting at [=criticizing] the established system 2 tilt at windmills : to use time and energy to attack an enemy or problem that is not real or important

²tilt noun, pl tilts [count]

1 : the state of having one side higher than the other ▪ The picture is at a slight tilt. [=is slightly tilted] ▪ He gave a tilt of his head. [=he tilted his head]

2 a : the state of favoring one person, belief, etc., over another ▪ She criticized the media's tilt [=bias] toward one of the candidates. ▪ a politician with a socialist tilt [=who tends

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

to have socialist ideas] b : a change of the actions or opinions of a person or group in a particular direction ▪ If he were elected, there would be a tilt [=shift] in the political balance of the city council. [=the city council would become more liberal or conservative]

3 US, informal : a game or competition between two people, teams, etc. ▪ The teams were tied in the standings heading into last night's tilt.

4 Brit a : an attempt to win something — + at ▪ The team wants a tilt at the championship. b : a written or spoken attack on someone or something — + at ▪ a tilt at the government

(at) full tilt : as fast as possible : at high speed ▪ The heater has been going full tilt all morning. ▪ He ran away at full tilt.

tim•ber /ˈtɪmbə/ noun, pl -bers

1 [noncount] a : trees that are grown in order to produce wood b — used as an interjection to warn people nearby that a cut tree is about to fall ▪ They shouted "Timber!" as the tree began to fall.

2 [count] : a large piece of wood that is used to form a part of a building ▪ the roof's oak timbers

3 [noncount] chiefly Brit : wood that is used to make something ▪ a chair made of sturdy timber [=(US) lumber]

– timber adj ▪ The house has a timber frame. ▪ the timber industry

tim•ber•land /ˈtɪmbəˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count, noncount] US : land that is covered with trees that are grown in order to produce wood ▪ 40 acres of timberland

tim•ber•line /ˈtɪmbəˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [singular] : an imaginary line on a mountain or high area of land that marks the level above which trees do not grow — called also tree line

timber yard noun, pl ~ yards [count] Brit : LUMBERYARD tim•bre /ˈtæmbə/ noun, pl -bres : the quality of the sound made by a particular voice or musical instrument [count] the timbre of his voice [noncount] subtle differences in timbre

[1]time /ˈtaɪm/ noun, pl times

1 [noncount] : the thing that is measured as seconds, minutes, hours, days, years, etc. ▪ The time passed slowly/quickly. ▪ The two events were separated by time and space. ▪ The poem is a reflection on the passage/passing of time. ▪ What was happening at that particular moment in time? ▪ At this point in time, we have not made a decision. [=we have not yet made a decision] ▪ It has been that way since the beginning of time. ▪ If only I could travel back in time and do things differently. ▪ They were given a relatively short amount of time to finish the job. ▪ The situation has been getting more complicated as time goes by/on. ▪ In the course of time [=as time passed], people learned to accept the changes. ▪ The medicine is released in small amounts over time. [=it is released slowly] ▪ Her condition should improve with time. [=it should become better as time passes] ▪ happening for an extended period of time ▪ The study took place over a time span of 20 years. [=the study continued for 20 years]

2 a [singular] : a particular minute or hour shown by a clock ▪ What time is it? = (chiefly Brit) What's the time? ▪ The time is 6:15. [=it is 6:15] ▪ I'll see you tomorrow, same time, same place. = I'll see you here this time tomorrow. ▪ Would you prefer the meeting to be at an earlier time? ▪ Feel free to call me at any time, day or night. ▪ What time did you leave work? [=when did you leave work?] ▪ They arrived at the appointed/agreed-on time. [=hour] ▪ Do you know the time? = (chiefly US) Do you have the time? = (chiefly Brit) Have you got the time? ▪ (US) What time do you have? = (Brit) What time do you make it? [=what time is it?] ▪ "Look at the time! We have to go." b [noncount] : the time in a particular area or part of the world ▪ We'll be arriving at 9:00 a.m. local time. ▪ It's 2:00 p.m. Tokyo time. — see also BRITISH SUMMER TIME, DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME, GREENWICH MEAN TIME, LOCAL TIME, STANDARD TIME

3 a : the part of a day, week, month, or year when something usually happens or is scheduled to happen [noncount] My kids love bath time. ▪ It's party time! ▪ Test time is at 8:00. [=the test will begin at 8:00] ▪ I did some work on my house during my vacation time. [count] She gave the family some advice on how to make breakfast times less hectic. — see also BEDTIME, DINNERTIME, DRIVE TIME, LUNCHTIME, MEALTIME, PLAYTIME, PRIME TIME, TEATIME b [count] : a particular part of a day, week, month, or year ▪ He has to go to the classes at certain times of the month. ▪ There was snow on the ground at this time last year. ▪ It's unusually hot for this time of year. [=season] ▪ My favorite times of year are spring and fall. — see also CHRISTMASTIME, DAYTIME, NIGHTTIME, NOONTIME, SPRINGTIME, SUMMERTIME, WINTERTIME

4 [count] : an occurrence of an action or event : an instance of something happening or of someone doing something ▪ She's already seen the movie several times. ▪ He told us the story about the time he bought his first car. ▪ Do you remember the time we got lost in Washington, D.C.? ▪ Take one pill two times daily [=take one pill twice each day] for seven days. ▪ This is my first time on an airplane. [=I have never been on an airplane before] ▪ He ran for governor for the second time in 1980. ▪ I cry each/every time [=whenever] I hear that song. ▪ Remember to buckle up your seatbelt each and every time you ride in a car. ▪ I'll come by the next time I'm in town. ▪ The last time I saw him [=the most recent time that I saw him] was at his wedding. ▪ Okay, I'll do it again one last time. ▪ For the last time, please stop! = This is the last time I'm going to tell you: please stop! ▪ Would you please do it one more time? [=again, once more] ▪ How many times do I have to tell you? I don't know where it is! ▪ I've told you many times not to do that. = I've told you a hundred/thousand/million times not to do that. ▪ Don't worry about it. We've all made that same mistake many a time. = Many's the time we have made that same mistake. ▪ "This time you've gone too far!" he said. ▪ She beats me at chess nine times out of ten. [=for every ten games we play, she beats me nine times] ▪ They may have lost their last championship game, but they're determined to win the next time around/round. ▪ We're going to win this time out. ▪ One time [=once, (more formally) on one occasion] I came home two hours late and nobody noticed.

5 a [singular] : the period of time when something happens ▪ I had lived in 12 different cities by the time I turned 18. [=when I was 18 years old, I had already lived in 12 different cities] ▪ She had known that she wanted to be President from the time [=since] she was seven years old. ▪ Since that time, the government has done much to fix the problem. — often used after at ▪ If you're busy now, perhaps we can get together at another time. ▪ At no time did the defendant ask for a lawyer. [=the defendant never asked for a lawyer] ▪ It was raining at the time of the accident. [=it was raining when the accident happened] ▪ This information was correct at the time of publication. ▪ He was elected pope in 1978, at which time he took the name John Paul. — see also AT THE SAME TIME (below), AT TIMES (below) b [count] : the exact moment when a particular event happens or is scheduled to happen ▪ Curtain time is at 7:30 p.m. [=the performance begins at 7:30 p.m.] ▪ What is the movie's starting time? [=when does the movie start?] ▪ The patient's time of death was 2:15 a.m. ▪ He called to give me his flights' departure/arrival times. [=the times when his flights are scheduled to depart/arrive] ▪ The network moved my favorite television show to a different time slot. — see also CLOSING TIME, SHOWTIME

6 : a period of time when a situation or set of conditions exists : a period of minutes, hours, days, weeks, etc., when something is happening or someone is doing something [count] I can't remember a time that/when I've been happier. ▪ She helped me in my time of need. [=she helped me when I needed help] ▪ He is someone you can depend on in times of crisis. ▪ He sat down to rest, and after a time [=while] he continued on his way. ▪ She served in the military for a time in her early twenties. ▪ No one spoke to us the entire/whole time we were there. ▪ We will be able to stay here only a short time. ▪ I haven't seen you in such a long time! ▪ It took them a long time to find out what was causing the problem. ▪ His promotion was a long time coming. [=he waited a long time to be promoted] ▪ It happened a long time ago. — often + when ▪ There was a time when I thought he would never graduate from college. — often used after at ▪ She was calm at a time when everyone else was panicking. ▪ Sometimes this helps, while at other times it makes things worse. ▪ No more than five people should ride in the car at any one time. ▪ There are between 200 and 300 patients in the hospital at any given time. ▪ How could you think about food at a time like this? ▪ At one time [=during one period of time in the past], 20 people lived together in this house. ▪ Everyone has experienced this feeling at one time or another. ▪ At the present time [=presently, right now], we don't know why it happened. = We don't know why it happened at this time. [noncount] Some time ago [=at some point in the past], I read that the restaurant had closed. ▪ She has been living there for (quite) some time. [=for a somewhat long time] ▪ I get sick if I sit in the back seat of a car for any length of time. [=for more than a very small amount of time]

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

7 [noncount] : the number of minutes, days, years, etc., before something happens : the amount of time it takes for something to happen — usually used after in ▪ The movie is coming out in two months' time. [=it is coming out two months from now] ▪ They expect the system to be completely replaced in a few years' time. ▪ This machine can have the job finished in half the time (it would take you to do it by hand). ▪ It can do the job in a fraction of the time. [=it can do the job much more quickly] ▪ It's just a matter of time before someone gets hurt. [=someone will get hurt eventually] ▪ The police will catch him. It's only a question of time. [=the police will catch him at some point in the future]

8 [noncount] : the amount of time that is used, needed, available, or allowed for a particular activity or for someone to do something ▪ You must complete the project within the time allotted. ▪ I'll try not to take up too much of your time. ▪ Thank you for your time. [=thank you for listening to me] ▪ It's not worth your time and energy. ▪ Is there (enough) time to stop for lunch? ▪ What do you do in your free/spare time? [=when you are not working] ▪ We played games to pass/kill the time on the bus. [=we played games to cause time to seem to go by more quickly] ▪ How much more time do we have (left)? = How are we doing on/for time? ▪ We're pressed for time. [=we don't have much time left to do what we need to do] ▪ We ran out of time and didn't finish the project. [=we had no more time to work on the project] ▪ Time's up. [=the allowed period of time has ended] Please put down your pencils and hand in your tests. ▪ They finished with time to spare. [=they finished early] ▪ We're using up valuable/precious time talking when we could be getting started. ▪ The candidates will receive equal time to answer questions during the debate. ▪ Her teammates were complaining about their lack of playing time. [=the amount of time that they were allowed to play during a game] ▪ Sometimes she would drop by to pass the time of day. [=to have a friendly and informal conversation] ▪ She's had a lot of time on her hands [=time when she was not busy] lately. ▪ He can't manage to find (the) time to exercise. — often used with save ▪ This new system will save time [=take less time, be faster] and money. ▪ We can save a lot of time by using this shortcut. — often used with lose ▪ They lost a lot of time getting started. ▪ You'll just have to make up for lost time by working harder now. [=you'll have to work faster because you have less time to finish the work] — often used with spend ▪ He spends all his time watching TV. ▪ I'm looking forward to spending more time at home [=being at home more] with my family. — often used with waste ▪ Stop wasting time [=doing nothing or doing something that is not useful] and get to work! ▪ They wasted no time in decorating their new apartment. [=they started decorating it immediately] ▪ That class was a (big) waste of time. [=the class was not good] I didn't learn a thing. — often followed by to + verb ▪ If we leave now, there's just (enough) time to catch the last show. ▪ There's no time to explain. I'll have to tell you why later. ▪ In the time it takes you to read one chapter, she can read the entire book. ▪ We will have plenty of time to buy souvenirs later. ▪ I haven't had much time to think about it. ▪ We have to hurry. There's no time to lose. [=we have little time, so we cannot waste any of it]

9 : the right moment to do something or for something to happen [count] This is no time for jokes. ▪ The time for talking has passed. We must take action now. ▪ There is a time and a place for everything. ▪ Am I calling at a bad time? [=are you too busy to talk to me?] ▪ Is this a good time for you? ▪ This is as good a time as any. ▪ "Should we do it now?" "Sure. There's no time like the present." [=let's do it now] — often followed by to + verb ▪ Now is the perfect time to buy a new car. ▪ Now's not the time to discuss such things. — often used with come ▪ We feel that the time has come for a decision to be made. ▪ When the time comes to move out of their apartment, they will have saved up enough money to buy a house. ▪ There comes a time when children leave their parents and start families of their own. ▪ an idea whose time has come [=an idea that is ready to be used] [noncount] It's time to go. ▪ It is time for us to consider an alternative.

10 [count] : the quality of a person's experience on a particular occasion or during a particular period ▪ We all had a good/great/lovely time at the concert. [=we enjoyed the concert very much] ▪ Did you have a good time? ▪ A good time was had by all. ▪ Try to remember the good times you had together rather than the bad times. ▪ Their music helped me get through some difficult/hard/rough/tough times in my life. ▪ He looked like he was having the time of his life. [=enjoying himself very much; having a lot of fun] ▪ They've been having a hard time finding an apartment in the city.

11 [count] : a specific period in the past ▪ It happens more now than at any other time in history. ▪ The writings date back to the time of Shakespeare. [=the period of time when Shakespeare was alive] ▪ Like most families at/of/during that time, they had only one car. ▪ There was a time when people could let their children play outside without worrying about their safety. ▪ He was a famous comedian of the/that time. ▪ The bridge was built around the time of World War I. ▪ It was the most important book of its time. ▪ He is one of the greatest actors of our time. [=of the present day] ▪ Life was very different at that time. [=then] ▪ People have been creating art since time immemorial. [=for a very long time] — often used after in ▪ Things were very different in your grandparents' time. [=day] ▪ I've seen a lot of crazy things in my time. [=during my life] ▪ She was a legend in her own time. [=she was someone who was very famous and admired while she was still alive] ▪ The tools were known to be in use in medieval/ancient/prehistoric times. ▪ In earlier times, this road was an important trade route. ▪ farming methods used in times past [=in the past] — often used in the titles of books, newspapers, etc. ▪ She was reading the latest issue of the New York Times. ▪ The biography was titled The Life and Times of Napoleon.

12 times [plural] a : the conditions experienced by a group of people now or during a particular period in the past ▪ The country is facing some difficult/trying times. ▪ Those were lean times, and our family couldn't afford new clothes. ▪ Life can be difficult even at/in the best of times. b : the styles, events, or ideas that are popular or important in a culture now or at a particular period in the past ▪ Companies must change/evolve/move with the times or risk losing their customers. ▪ In this business, you have to keep up with the times. [=stay current; change as conditions change] ▪ Times have changed since then. ▪ Come on. Get with the times. [=understand and change to fit what is now happening and accepted in the culture] ▪ Their methods are behind the times. [=outdated]

13 a [count] : a period or stage in a person's life ▪ I'm at a time in my life when I don't care much about my appearance. ▪ at various times of her life b [singular] : the time when a woman gives birth to a child ▪ Her time is drawing near. c [singular] : the time when someone dies ▪ "Why did he have to die?" "It was just his time."

14 a [singular] : the number of months, years, etc., that a person spends at a particular place or in a particular group or organization ▪ I learned a great deal during my time at Harvard. ▪ She used her time in the Senate to fight for the environment. b [singular] : the number of months or years that an active member of the military is required to stay in the military ▪ She plans on going to college after she serves her time in the army. = She plans on going to college after she puts in her time in the army. ▪ He was an ex-soldier who did his time in Vietnam. [=he fought in Vietnam while he was a soldier] c [noncount] informal : the number of days, months, or years that a person must stay in prison ▪ She's now doing time for armed robbery. ▪ (US) He could be facing hard time [=a long or difficult prison sentence] for his crimes.

15 [count] : the seconds, minutes, etc., it takes to do something (such as finish a race) ▪ She ran the mile in a time of 5 minutes and 15 seconds. ▪ What was my time? [=how long did it take me to do it?] ▪ He finished in record time. [=in the least amount of time ever]

16 [noncount] : the minutes, hours, or days that a person works or is required to work for a company : the time during which a company is paying a worker ▪ She has been putting in a lot of time [=she has been working a lot] at the office. ▪ I'll ask my supervisor if I can take time off (work) to go to the dentist. ▪ She took time out from her career to raise her children. [=she stopped working while she raised her children] ▪ (US) Employees need to make personal calls on their own time. = (Brit) Employees need to make personal calls in their own time. [=when their employer is not paying them to work] ▪ (US) Please do not make personal calls (when you are) on company time. = (Brit) Please do not make personal calls (when you are) in company time. [=when your employer is paying you to work] — see also DOUBLE TIME, FLEXTIME, FULL-TIME, OVERTIME, PART-TIME, SHORT TIME, TIME AND A HALF

17 times [plural] — used to say how much bigger, smaller,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

faster, etc., something is than something else ▪ Her salary is five times greater than mine. = She earns five times as much money as I do. ▪ The area received three times the amount of rain it got last year. ▪ You would have to spend two times [=twice] as much at a regular department store. ▪ Their original investment has paid for itself many times over. — see also TIMES

18 [noncount] music a : the rate of speed at which a piece of music is performed ▪ We clapped in time to [=in a way that matched the speed of] the music. ▪ March in time. — see also KEEP TIME 2 (below) b : the way that beats are grouped together in a piece of music ▪ the use of 6/8 time in certain styles of music — often used after in ▪ If a song is in 3/4 time, that means that there are three beats per bar/measure and that each of those beats is a quarter note. ▪ a dance performed in 4/4 time with a quick tempo against time ✧ If you are racing/working (etc.) against time or are in a race against time, you are doing something quickly because you have only a small amount of time. ▪ We're working against time to finish this book. ▪ They raced against time to get her to the hospital. ▪ It was a race against time to find a cure for the disease.

ahead of time : before something happens : earlier than a time or event ▪ He called the restaurant ahead of time to make a dinner reservation. ▪ She read the report ahead of time to prepare for the meeting.

ahead of your/its time ✧ If you are ahead of your time or if your ideas, creations, etc., are ahead of their time, you are too advanced or modern to be understood or appreciated during the time when you live or work. ▪ As a director, he was ahead of his time. His movies are now regarded as classics, but they were unpopular when he made them.

(all) in good time : when the appropriate moment arrives : when the time is right ▪ I'll let him know in good time. ▪ It will happen all in good time.

all (of) the time 1 : ALWAYS ▪ You can't be right all of the time. 2 informal : very often or frequently ▪ "Do you ever take the subway to work?" "Yeah, all the time." ▪ My sisters and I used to fight all of the time. 3 usually all the time : since something began ▪ We thought that he disliked her, while all the time [=(more commonly) all along, the whole time] he was in love with her. ▪ I knew the truth all the time. ▪ The police knew all the time who was guilty.

(and) not before time (too) chiefly Brit — used to say that something should have happened sooner ▪ They're finally going to change things, and not before time, too. [=and it's about time] any time (now) : very soon ▪ The train should be arriving any time now.

a sign of the times see ¹SIGN

a stitch in time (saves nine) see ¹STITCH

at all times : without stopping or changing at any time : ALWAYS ▪ The system is kept running at all times. ▪ Keep your hands inside the vehicle at all times.

at a time 1 : during one particular moment ▪ I can only do one thing at a time. [=at once] ▪ Please speak one at a time. [=so that only one person is speaking at any time] ▪ We carried the boxes two at a time up the stairs. [=we carried two boxes each time we went up the stairs] 2 : during one period of time without stopping ▪ She can sit and read for hours at a time. [=at a stretch] 3 ✧ If you take one day at a time or take it/things one day at a time, you make progress in a slow and careful way by dealing with each day as it comes. ▪ We got through the ordeal by taking one day at a time. [=taking it day by day] at the same time 1 : during the same moment ▪ She was driving, eating, and talking on the phone all at the same time. ▪ She tries to appear to be both glamorous and modest at the same time. ▪ As a parent, he is at one and the same time strict and loving. [=he is both strict and loving] 2 — used to introduce a statement that adds to and differs from a preceding statement ▪ The new regulations will help the environment. At the same time [=on the other hand], they may be a burden to businesses. ▪ She wants more respect, but at the same time she does nothing to earn it. = She wants more respect, while at the same time doing nothing to earn it.

at times : SOMETIMES ▪ He is an intelligent person, but he can be quite stubborn at times. [=from time to time] ▪ At times, I wondered if we were doing the right thing.

before your time 1 — used to say that something happened before you were born or before you were involved in some activity ▪ You wouldn't know about that. It was before your time. 2 ✧ If you become old before your time, you look and feel older than you are. ▪ Such experiences make people old before their time. 3 ✧ If you die before your time, you die at a younger age than you should. ▪ Mozart died before his time.

behind the times : not having or showing knowledge of current ideas or styles : OUTDATED ▪ The entire country is behind the times when it comes to protecting the environment. ▪ Our professor is surprisingly behind the times. [=old-fashioned]

be living on borrowed time see BORROW better luck next time see ¹LUCK

bide your time see BIDE

buy time see ¹BUY

call time 1 US, sports : to ask for a time-out ▪ The coach called time. : to give the order for a time-out ▪ The referee called time. 2 Brit a : to announce that it is time for a bar or pub to close b : to say or decide that something has ended : to end something — usually + on ▪ an athlete who has called time on his career for the time being : during the present time but possibly not in the future ▪ I think we should stay here for the time being. [=for now] ▪ For the time being, this car suits all of our family's needs.

from time to time : SOMETIMES ▪ Such things are bound to happen from time to time. [=at times] ▪ From time to time [=occasionally, once in a while], it's nice to let someone else make the decisions.

give (someone) a hard time see ¹HARD half the time informal : very often ▪ Half the time I have no idea what my professor is talking about.

hard times see ¹HARD

have a thin time (of it) see ¹THIN

have time 1 : to be able to use an amount of time for a particular purpose ▪ "Can you go to the store for me?" "I'm sorry, but I don't have time." [=I'm too busy] ▪ Unfortunately, I haven't got (the) time. ▪ We're on a deadline, but he acts like we have all the time in the world! — often followed by to + verb ▪ I didn't have time to read the whole book. ▪ Do you have time to look this over for me? ▪ We haven't had any time to talk about it yet. — often + for ▪ We don't have time for this nonsense! ▪ I don't have the time or the patience for this. ▪ Do we have enough time for another drink? ▪ We've got time for a few more questions. 2 : to like or be willing to spend time dealing with (something or someone) — usually + for ▪ I have no time for liars. ▪ (Brit) We have a lot of time for her.

in no time : very quickly or soon ▪ We'll be there in no time. ▪ Don't worry. It'll all be over in no time.

in the nick of time see ¹NICK

in time 1 : before something happens : early enough ▪ Do you think we'll get there in time? — often followed by to + verb ▪ They arrived just in time to catch the last train out of town. — often + for ▪ I'll try to make it home in time for dinner. ▪ The CD will be released just in time for Christmas. 2 : when an amount of time has passed ▪ In time, she forgave him. ▪ Things will get better in time. [=eventually] in your own (good) time : at the time that is right or appropriate for you and not sooner ▪ He'll make a decision in his own good time. ▪ Everything happens in its own time.

it's about time informal — used to say often in an annoyed way that something should have happened sooner ▪ It's about time you got here. I've been waiting for over an hour! ▪ "They're getting married." "Well, it's about time!"

it's high time see ¹HIGH

keep time 1 of a watch or clock : to show the correct time ▪ My watch keeps good/perfect time. [=it shows the correct time; it works well] 2 music : to perform music at the correct speed ▪ Among other things, the conductor helps the orchestra keep time (to the music).

make good time : to travel somewhere quickly ▪ They made good time on their trip. ▪ We're making good time. We've already traveled a hundred miles today.

make time : to cause an amount of time to be available for an activity ▪ I'll have to make (the) time to get it done. — often + for ▪ She has trouble making time in her busy schedule for exercise. ▪ No matter how busy he was, Grandpa always made time for us.

mark time see ²MARK

most of the time or most times : on most occasions : USUALLY ▪ Sometimes I go out for lunch, but most of the time I bring my own lunch to work. ▪ Most times, this method works just fine.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

ninety/ninety-nine (etc.) percent of the time : on most occasions : USUALLY ▪ I hate to admit it, but he's right ninety percent of the time. [=most of the time]

not give someone the time of day ✧ If you do not give someone the time of day, you do not give that person any attention or help. ▪ I asked them for directions, but they would*n't give me the time of day*.

of all time : that has ever lived or existed ▪ In my opinion, he is still the greatest basketball player of all time. — see also ALL-TIME

once upon a time see [1]ONCE

(only) time will tell — used to say that the results of a situation will be known only after a certain amount of time has passed ▪ "Will he be OK?" "I don't know. Only time will tell."

on time : at or before the correct moment : at a time that is not late ▪ Try to be there on time. ▪ I paid all of my bills on time [=when they were due] this month. ▪ Please hand in your homework on time. ▪ We arrived right on time. [=exactly at the right time]

play for time see [1]PLAY

stand the test of time see [1]TEST

take (the) time to do something : to use an amount of time in order to do something important ▪ They never took the time to get to know her. ▪ Take (the) time to think about it before you make a decision. ▪ I took some time to think about it, and my answer is still "no."

take time ✧ People say that something takes some/no (etc.) time to describe how much time is needed for something to happen or be done. ▪ You have to be patient. Things like this take time. [=things like this cannot be done quickly] ▪ It may take some time for the medication to wear off. ▪ The meeting won't take too much time. [=the meeting will be short] ▪ This project will take a lot of time. ▪ It'll take no time at all. = It will take very little time.

take your time : to do something slowly or without hurrying ▪ I need to take my time and think about it for a while. ▪ There's no need to hurry. Take your time. [=take all the time you need] ▪ Please take your time filling out the form.

tell time (US) or Brit tell the time : to be able to know what time it is by looking at a clock ▪ My son is just learning to tell time.

the end of time see [1]END

the whole time 1 : since something began : during the entire period of time ▪ We thought that he disliked her, while the whole time [=all along, all the time] he was in love with her. ▪ I knew the truth the whole time. ▪ The police knew the whole time who was guilty. 2 Brit : ALWAYS ▪ You can't be right the whole time. [=all (of) the time] 3 Brit, informal : very often ▪ My sisters and I used to fight the whole time. [=all (of) the time]

time after time or time and again or time and time again : on many occasions : very often or frequently ▪ Time after time, we see this happen with our patients. ▪ I've told you time and again [=repeatedly] not to do that.

time flies — used to say that time passes quickly ▪ As they say, "Time flies when you're having fun." ▪ Your son is in high school already? My, how time flies!

time heals all wounds or chiefly Brit time is a/the great healer — used to say that feelings of sadness, disappointment, etc., gradually go away as time passes ▪ I thought I would never be able to love again, but, as they say, time heals all wounds.

time is money see MONEY

time is (not) on your side ✧ If time is on your side, you have a good chance of success because you can wait until a situation improves. If time is not on your side, your chance of success is less because you have to do something very soon. ▪ House prices are all dropping, and in the case of home buyers, time is on their side. [=the houses that people want to buy will become cheaper as more time passes] ▪ If we wait too long to buy the tickets, the concert may be sold out: time is not on our side. [=all the tickets may be sold if we wait too long to buy them] time marches on : time continues to pass ▪ I was very disappointed when it happened. But time marches on, and I've learned to accept it now.

time was (when) old-fashioned — used to say that something was true in the past and usually to express annoyance that it is no longer true ▪ Time was, you could buy a candy bar for a nickel. ▪ Time was when people respected their elders. [=people used to respect their elders in the past]

until such time as formal : until the time when : UNTIL ▪ He will be suspended from work until such time as this matter has been resolved.

your (own) sweet time chiefly US, informal ✧ If you do something in your (own) sweet time or you take your (own) sweet time about doing something, you do it slowly even though other people want you to do it more quickly. ▪ She's taking her own sweet time about finishing the work.

[2]time verb times; timed; tim•ing [+ obj]

1 : to choose the hour, day, month, etc., when (something) will happen : to schedule (something, such as an event) to happen at a particular time ▪ They timed their vacation to coincide with the jazz festival. — often used as (be) timed ▪ The ceremony was timed to coincide with the President's visit. ▪ It was a poorly timed visit. [=the visit happened at an unfortunate or inconvenient time] — see also ILL-TIMED, WELL-TIMED

2 sports : to cause (something, such as a throw or pass) to happen at a certain moment ▪ He timed it so that he made the shot just before the clock ran out. ▪ She timed the shot perfectly.

3 : to measure the amount of time needed by someone to do something (such as to finish a race) ▪ The runners are timed with special watches. ▪ He timed the students as they completed their tests. ▪ timing a horse race time and a half noun [noncount] : a rate of pay that is equal to what a worker usually earns for an hour plus half of that amount ▪ If they make you work during holidays, they pay you time and a half. ▪ We get paid 20 dollars an hour for 40 hours and time and a half for overtime.

time bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count]

1 : a bomb that is set to explode at a particular moment

2 : a person or situation that will probably become dangerous or harmful in the future ▪ He's a time bomb getting ready to explode. ▪ If we don't do something about the pollution problem, we'll be sitting on a ticking time bomb.

time capsule noun, pl ~ -sules [count] : a container that is filled with things (such as newspapers or clothing) from the present time and that is meant to be opened by people at some time in the future time card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a piece of paper or cardboard that is put into a special clock in order to record the times when an employee starts and stops working ▪ Don't forget to punch your time card on your way out.

time clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a special clock that is used to record the times when an employee starts and stops working time–con•sum•ing /ˈtaɪmkənˈsu:mɪŋ, Brit ˈtaɪmkənˈsju:mɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using or needing a large amount of time ▪ time-consuming chores ▪ a very expensive and time-consuming process ▪ Can we try to make this less time-consuming?

time frame noun, pl ~ frames [count] : a period of time that is used or planned for a particular action or project ▪ They were not able to finish the project within the established time frame.

time–hon•ored (US) or Brit time–hon•oured /ˈtaɪmˌɑ:nəd/ adj, always used before a noun : existing and respected for a long time ▪ time-honored traditions/institutions time•keep•er /ˈtaɪmˌki:pə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who controls or records official times during a contest (such as a race or game) ▪ The timekeeper forgot to stop the clock during the team's last time-out.

2 Brit — used in the phrases good timekeeper and bad/poor timekeeper to say that someone is or is not good about arriving at the correct or expected time ▪ We expect our employees to be good timekeepers.

– time•keep•ing /ˈtaɪmˌki:pɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

time lag noun [singular] : a period of time between two related actions (such as a cause and its effect) ▪ There's a time lag between when you see a stop sign and when your foot steps on the brake.

time–lapse /ˈtaɪmˌlæps/ adj, always used before a noun — used to describe a way of filming something in which many photographs are taken over a long period of time and are shown quickly in a series so that a slow action (such as the opening of a flower bud) appears to happen quickly ▪ time-lapse photography

time•less /ˈtaɪmləs/ adj

1 : staying beautiful or fashionable as time passes ▪ The

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

dresses that she designs are elegant and timeless. ▪ the timeless beauty of the sea 2 : lasting forever ▪ timeless [=ageless] truths/wisdom – time•less•ly adv – time•less•ness noun [noncount] time limit noun, pl ∼ -its [count] : an amount of time in which something must be done or completed ▪ My boss gave me a three-hour time limit to finish the job.

time•line /ˈtaɪmˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]
1 : a plan which shows the order of events that will happen, things that will be done, etc. ▪ She drew up a timeline [=time-table] for the project.
2 : a line that includes marks showing when particular events happened in the past ▪ The timeline shows the important events in American history.

time•ly /ˈtaɪmli/ adj time•li•er; -est [or more ∼; most ∼] : happening at the correct or most useful time : not happening too late ▪ Her very timely book examines the effects of global warming on the world's climates. ▪ a timely decision/warning ▪ She always responds to my requests in a timely fashion/manner. — opposite UNTIMELY – time•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the timeliness of the warning time machine noun, pl ∼ -chines [count] in stories : a machine that allows people to travel to a time in the past or future time–out /ˈtaɪmˈaʊt/ noun, pl -outs

1 : a short period of time during a sports event when the game stops and the players rest or talk to their coach [count] The coach asked for a time-out to talk to her players. ▪ The coach called a time-out. [noncount] The quarterback called time-out [=asked for a time-out] with 20 seconds remaining.
2 : a short period of time when you stop doing something so that you can rest or do something else [count] We've been working all morning. Let's take a time-out and get some coffee. [noncount] Let's take time-out for a few minutes.
3 US : a short period of time when a child must sit quietly as punishment for behaving badly [count] The book talks about the proper way to use time-outs. ▪ If you do that again, you're getting a time-out! = If you do that again, I'm giving you a time-out! [noncount] There's no talking during time-out.

time•piece /ˈtaɪmˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count] formal : a clock or watch ▪ an expensive German timepiece

tim•er /ˈtaɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a special watch that is used to measure the amount of time that is taken to finish a race, a test, etc. : STOPWATCH; also : a person who uses such a watch to time someone or something ▪ He was the official timer for the race.
2 a : a device that makes a sound when a certain amount of time has passed ▪ She set the timer on the oven for one hour. ▪ The timer is set to go off in 15 minutes. b : a device that can be set to turn something (such as a light) on or off at a certain time — often used after on ▪ The sprinkler is on a timer. [=(Brit) time switch] ▪ We put the house lights on timers before going on vacation.
– see also OLD-TIMER, TWO-TIMER

time–re•lease /ˈtaɪmrɪˈliːs/ adj : releasing a drug slowly over a period of time instead of all at once ▪ time-release capsules/tablets times /ˈtaɪmz/ prep : multiplied by ▪ Two times two is/equals four. — see also ¹TIME 17 time–sav•ing /ˈtaɪmˌseɪvɪŋ/ adj : making it possible to do something quickly : causing something to happen or end faster ▪ microwaves, washing machines, and other time-saving devices of the 20th century ▪ The company implemented new time-saving measures to increase productivity.

– time–sav•er /ˈtaɪmˌseɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ This new shortcut is a real time-saver.

time•scale /ˈtaɪmˌskeɪl/ noun, pl -scales [count]
1 : a period of time whose size can be compared to other periods of time ▪ When considered on the 4.6 billion year timescale of the Earth, our lives can seem insignificant.
2 chiefly Brit : TIME FRAME ▪ What is the timescale for completion of the work?

time–share /ˈtaɪmˌʃeə/ noun, pl -shares [count] : a vacation home that is owned or rented by several people who use it at different times of the year ▪ They own a time-share in Florida.
– time–shar•ing /ˈtaɪmˌʃerɪŋ/ noun [noncount] time sheet noun, pl ∼ sheets [count] : a piece of paper that you use to record the hours that you worked each day time signature noun, pl ∼ -tures [count] : a number that is written at the beginning of a piece of music and that shows the number and length of the beats in each measure times sign noun, pl ∼ signs [count] : the symbol × that is used to show that two numbers are to be multiplied times table noun, pl ∼ tables [count] : MULTIPLICATION TABLE

time switch noun, pl ∼ switches [count] Brit : TIMER 2b time•ta•ble /ˈtaɪmˌteɪbəl/ noun, pl -ta•bles [count]

1 : a plan of things that need to be done and the times they will be done — often + for ▪ In planning for the project, you should include a list of goals and a timetable [=schedule] for achieving those goals. ▪ The agency set a strict/rigid/tight timetable for completing the work.
2 chiefly Brit : a list of the times when something (such as a bus, train, or airplane) is expected to leave or arrive ▪ a bus timetable [=(US) schedule]
3 Brit : a written or printed list of activities and the times when they will be done ▪ There have been a few changes to the class timetable. [=(US) schedule]
– time–table verb -tables; -tabled; -tabling [+ obj] chiefly Brit ▪ The meeting is timetabled [=scheduled] for 10 a.m. = The meeting is timetabled to begin at 10 a.m.

time–test•ed /ˈtaɪmˌtestəd/ adj, chiefly US : done or used for a long time and proved to be effective ▪ These time-tested methods have worked for farmers for hundreds of years.

time trial noun, pl ∼ trials [count] : a race in which competitors are timed as they race over a course and the one who completes the course in the least amount of time is the winner ▪ He posted the second best lap in the time trials.

time warp noun, pl ∼ warps [count] : a feeling, state, or place in which time seems to stop, go backward, etc. ▪ Walking into the castle was like entering a time warp. ▪ She dresses like someone caught/stuck/trapped in a 1950s time warp. [=she dresses in styles from the 1950s]

time•worn /ˈtaɪmˌwoən/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]
1 : in bad condition because of age ▪ a timeworn sweater with holes in the sleeves ▪ The houses on the street are all timeworn and badly in need of repair.
2 : no longer interesting or effective because of being old or used too often ▪ a timeworn joke/excuse ▪ He gave us the same timeworn speech about the need to work hard.

time zone noun, pl ∼ zones [count] : any one of the world's 24 divisions that has its own time ✧ Each time zone is one hour earlier than the time zone directly to the east. ▪ We flew west and landed in a different time zone.

tim•id /ˈtɪməd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : feeling or showing a lack of courage or confidence ▪ She's very timid and shy when meeting strangers. ▪ He gave her a timid smile.
– ti•mid•i•ty /təˈmɪdəti/ noun [noncount] – tim•id•ly /ˈtɪmədli/ adv ▪ She timidly entered the room.

tim•ing /ˈtaɪmɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the time when something happens or is done especially when it is thought of as having a good or bad effect on the result ▪ The timing of the sale could not have been better.
2 : the ability to choose the best moment for some action, movement, etc. ▪ Her timing was a little off and she missed the shot. ▪ an athlete with impeccable timing tim•o•rous /ˈtɪmərəs/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] formal : easily frightened : FEARFUL ▪ a shy and timorous teenager ▪ He spoke with a timorous voice.

– tim•o•rous•ly adv ▪ She timorously approached the teacher. – tim•o•rous•ness noun [noncount]

tim•pa•ni /ˈtɪmpəni/ noun [plural] music : a set of two or three large drums (called kettledrums) that are played by one performer in an orchestra — see picture at PERCUSSION – tim•pa•nist /ˈtɪmpənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count]

tin /ˈtɪn/ noun, pl tins
1 [noncount] : a soft, shiny, bluish-white metal that has many different uses
2 [count] a : a container or plate made of metal ▪ a pie tin b : a decorative metal box with a cover or lid ▪ a tin of biscuits/tobacco c chiefly Brit : ²CAN 1a ▪ a tin of tomatoes ▪ sardine tins d Brit : ¹PAN 1a ▪ a roasting tin
– tin adj ▪ a tin kettle/roof

tinc•ture /ˈtɪŋktʃə/ noun, pl -tures [count] technical : a medicine that is made of a drug mixed with alcohol ▪ a tincture of iodine ▪ medicinal tinctures

tin•der /ˈtɪndə/ noun [noncount] : dry material (such as wood or grass) that burns easily and can be used to start a fire : KINDLING

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tin•der•box /ˈtɪndəˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count]
1 : a box that holds material that can be used to start a fire easily : a container for tinder
2 a : a structure that would burn very quickly if it caught on fire ▪ That old house is really a tinderbox. b : a place or situation that could suddenly become very violent ▪ The campus was a tinderbox [=powder keg] on the verge of a riot.

tine /ˈtaɪn/ noun, pl tines [count] : one of the thin, pointed parts on a fork : PRONG ▪ One of the fork's tines was bent.

tin ear noun, pl ~ ears [count] chiefly US : a lack of ability to hear something (such as music or speech) in an accurate and sensitive way ▪ My wife is a talented musician, but I have a tin ear. ▪ a writer with a tin ear for dialogue [=who writes dialogue that does not sound real]

tin•foil /ˈtɪnˌfɔjəl/ noun [noncount] : a thin sheet of shiny metal that is used especially for cooking or storing food ▪ Wrap the leftover food in tinfoil. ▪ a piece of tinfoil

[1]tinge /ˈtɪndʒ/ noun, pl ting•es [count] : a slight color, flavor, or quality ▪ showing a tinge of color ▪ dark hair with reddish tinges ▪ a tinge [=hint] of mystery/regret

[2]tinge verb tinges; tinged; tinge•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give a small amount of color to (something) ▪ The ink tinged his fingers blue. — often used as (be) tinged ▪ The sky was tinged with red. ▪ trees tinged in yellow and orange
2 : to give a small amount of some quality to (something) — usually used as (be) tinged with ▪ Her days were tinged with sadness. ▪ a comment tinged with sarcasm [=a somewhat sarcastic comment]

tin•gle /ˈtɪŋgəl/ verb tin•gles; tin•gled; tin•gling [no obj]
1 : to have a feeling like the feeling of many small sharp points pressing into your skin ▪ My arm/leg was numb and tingling.
2 : to feel an emotion (such as excitement) very strongly ▪ Everyone was tingling with excitement. [=everyone was very excited] — see also SPINE-TINGLING
– tingle noun, pl tingles [count] ▪ The music sent tingles up and down my spine. – tingling noun [noncount] ▪ The patient felt numbness, tingling, and pain in her left leg. – tin•gly /ˈtɪŋgəli/ adj tin•gli•er; -est ▪ a tingly sensation

tin•horn /ˈtɪnˌhoən/ noun, pl -horns [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who talks and acts like someone who is strong and powerful but who is really weak, unimportant, etc. — usually used before another noun ▪ a tinhorn dictator/tyrant

[1]tin•ker /ˈtɪŋkə/ verb -kers; -kered; -ker•ing [no obj] : to try to repair or improve something (such as a machine) by making small changes or adjustments to it ▪ He was tinkering in the garage. — often + with ▪ The car wouldn't start, but my brother tinkered with the engine a little and got it going again. ▪ They are still tinkering (around) with the details of the plan.
– tin•ker•er /ˈtɪŋkərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]tinker noun, pl -kers [count] : a person who in the past traveled to different places and made money by selling or repairing small items (such as pots and pans)

tink•er's damn also tink•er's dam /ˈtɪŋkəzˈdæm/ noun [singular] US, informal : the smallest possible amount — used like damn in negative statements ▪ He obviously doesn't give a tinker's damn [=doesn't care at all] about what happens. ▪ If you ask me, his opinions aren't worth a tinker's damn. [=aren't worth anything]

Tin•ker•toy /ˈtɪŋkəˌtoɪ/ trademark — used for a construction toy with parts that fit together

[1]tin•kle /ˈtɪŋkəl/ verb tin•kles; tin•kled; tin•kling
1 : to make sounds like the sounds of a small bell [no obj] The ice tinkled in the glass. ▪ A piano was tinkling in the background. [+ obj] He tinkled a small bell.
2 [no obj] informal : to pass urine from the body : URINATE — used especially by small children ▪ The little boy said he had to tinkle.

[2]tinkle noun, pl tinkles
1 [count] : the sound produced by a small bell or a similar sound ▪ the tinkle of wineglasses
2 [singular] Brit, informal : a telephone call ▪ Give me a tinkle [=call me] when you have the time.
3 [singular] informal : the act of passing urine from the body — used especially by small children ▪ The little boy said he had to have/take a tinkle. [=he had to urinate/pee]
– tin•kly /ˈtɪŋkəli/ adj ▪ a tinkly sound tinned /ˈtɪnd/ adj, Brit : preserved in a metal or glass container : CANNED ▪ tinned ham/peaches/tuna tin•ni•tus /ˈtɪnətəs, təˈnaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition that causes you to hear ringing or roaring sounds that only you can hear tin•ny /ˈtɪni/ adj tin•ni•er; -est : having a high and unpleasant sound ▪ a tinny voice ▪ The music sounded tinny.

tin opener noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : CAN OPENER

Tin Pan Alley noun [noncount] : an area in a city where people who write and produce popular music live and work tin–pot /ˈtɪnˈpɑːt/ adj, always used before a noun, informal + disapproving : of little worth or importance : TWO-BIT ▪ a tinpot dictator/tyrant tin•sel /ˈtɪnsəl/ noun [noncount]

1 : thin strips of shiny metal or paper that are used as decoration ▪ I like to decorate the Christmas tree with tinsel.
2 : something that seems attractive or appealing but is of little worth ▪ He's not attracted to the tinsel and glitter of Hollywood.

Tin•sel•town /ˈtɪnsəlˌtaʊn/ noun, informal — used as a name for Hollywood, California ▪ young actors seduced by Tinseltown — often used before another noun ▪ Tinseltown films/stars

[1]tint /ˈtɪnt/ noun, pl tints
1 [count] : a small amount of color ▪ a photo with a sepia tint ▪ green with a yellowish tint
2 a [count, noncount] : dye used to change the color of hair b [singular] : an act of changing the color of hair by using dye ▪ She got a red tint at the salon.

[2]tint verb tints; tint•ed; tint•ing [+ obj] : to give a small amount of color to (something) ▪ They tinted the water with blue dye. ▪ She wanted to have her hair tinted. [=dyed]
– tinted adj ▪ tinted glasses/lenses/windows tin•tin•nab•u•la•tion /ˌtɪntəˌnæbjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] literary : the sound of ringing bells tin•type /ˈtɪnˌtaɪp/ noun, pl -types [count] US : an old type of photograph that was made on a piece of metal ti•ny /ˈtaɪni/ adj ti•ni•er; -est : very small ▪ a tiny baby bird ▪ The computer chips were tiny. ▪ He's from a tiny town that you've probably never heard of. ▪ the tiniest of openings ▪ There's just one tiny little problem. ▪ Aren't you even a tiny bit scared?

[1]tip /ˈtɪp/ verb tips; tipped; tip•ping
1 : to turn or move something so that it is not straight or level : to cause something to lean or slant : TILT [+ obj] She tipped her head to the left. ▪ He tipped his glass and spilled some water. ▪ He tipped his chair back and fell over. [no obj] The glass tipped slightly and some of the water spilled out.
2 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to cause (something) to move or fall from a place, container, etc. ▪ She tipped [=poured] the batter into a large bowl.
tip over [phrasal verb] tip over or tip (something) over or tip over (something) : to fall over or to cause (something) to fall over ▪ The glass nearly tipped over. ▪ He accidentally tipped the lamp over and broke it.
tip the scales 1 or tip the balance : to change a situation so that one person, group, etc., is more able or likely to succeed : to give an advantage to someone or something ▪ Both candidates are qualified, but her experience tips the scales in her favor. 2 *tip the scales at : to have (a specified weight) ▪ He tips the scales at 285 pounds. [=he weighs 285 pounds] tip up [phrasal verb] tip (something) up or tip up (something) : to move or cause (something) to move so that one end is lifted up ▪ She tipped up the lid of the box and looked inside.
tip your cap/hat 1 : to touch your hat or cap or to lift it off your head as a way of greeting or saying goodbye to someone ▪ He tipped his hat to her as she walked past. 2 — used informally to say that you admire or respect someone ▪ I really have to tip my hat to those people for all their hard work.
tip your hand : to show what you are planning to do ▪ The company wants to avoid tipping its hand about its decision until next month.
– compare [4]TIP, [6]TIP, [8]TIP

[2]tip noun, pl tips
1 [singular] : the act of touching your hat or cap or lifting it off your head as a way of greeting or saying goodbye to someone : the act of tipping your hat ▪ With a tip of his hat, he said goodbye and headed out the door.
2 [count] Brit a : a place where rubbish is left : DUMP b informal : a very messy place : DUMP ▪ This place is a real tip!
– compare [3]TIP, [5]TIP, [7]TIP, [9]TIP

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

[3]tip noun, pl tips [count] : the end of something that is usually long and thin ▪ a pencil tip ▪ the tips of her fingers ▪ the tip of a ski ▪ The village is located at the southern tip of the island.
on the tip of your tongue 1 ✧ If a word, name, etc., is on the tip of your tongue, you know it but cannot remember it. ▪ His name is (right) on the tip of my tongue. 2 ✧ If a statement is on the tip of your tongue, you nearly say it but decide not to say it. ▪ A sarcastic reply was on the tip of her tongue.
the tip of the iceberg see ICEBERG
– compare [2]TIP, [5]TIP, [7]TIP, [9]TIP

[4]tip verb tips; tipped; tip•ping [+ obj] sports : to hit or push (a moving ball or hockey puck) lightly so that it changes direction ▪ The hockey player tipped the puck into the net. — see also TIP-IN tip off [phrasal verb] of a basketball game : [2]START ▪ The game is scheduled to tip off at 7:00 o'clock tonight. — see also [2]TIP-OFF
– compare [1]TIP, [6]TIP, [8]TIP

[5]tip noun, pl tips [count] sports : an act of lightly pushing or hitting a moving ball or hockey puck to make it change direction ▪ a foul tip — compare [2]TIP, [3]TIP, [7]TIP, [9]TIP

[6]tip verb tips; tipped; tipping [+ obj]
1 : to give useful or secret information to (someone) ▪ Someone tipped [=told] the police about their plans. — see also TIP OFF (below)
2 Brit : to say that someone or something is likely to succeed, win, etc. ▪ The new book is being tipped [=touted] as a probable best seller.
tip off [phrasal verb] tip (someone) off or tip off (someone) : to give useful or secret information to (someone) ▪ Someone tipped off the police about the robbery. ▪ Someone tipped them off that there would be a robbery. — see also [1]TIP-OFF tip (someone) the wink Brit, informal : to give secret information to (someone) ▪ How could he have known about the plan? Someone must have tipped him the wink.
– compare [1]TIP, [4]TIP, [8]TIP

[7]tip noun, pl tips [count]
1 : a piece of advice or useful information ▪ She got a tip on how to prepare for the test. ▪ tips for saving money ▪ The book provides some good household cleaning tips.
2 : a piece of secret information given by a person who has special knowledge about something ▪ an insider's tip on when to sell the stock ▪ The police got a tip about the suspect from an informer. ▪ I got a hot tip about a great new restaurant.
– compare [2]TIP, [3]TIP, [5]TIP, [9]TIP

[8]tip verb tips; tipped; tipping : to give an extra amount of money to someone who performs a service for you : to give a tip to (someone) [+ obj] Did you remember to tip the waiter/waitress? ▪ How much should I tip for a haircut? [no obj] She always tips generously. — compare [1]TIP, [4]TIP, [6]TIP
– tip•per /ˈtɪpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count] ▪ She is a generous tipper.

[9]tip noun, pl tips [count] : an extra amount of money that you give to someone (such as a waitress or waiter) who performs a service for you ▪ I left/gave the waitress a good/generous tip. ▪ The doorman earned a lot in tips over the holiday season. — compare [2]TIP, [3]TIP, [5]TIP, [7]TIP

tipi variant spelling of TEPEE

tip–in /ˈtɪpˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] US, sports : a goal that is scored by lightly pushing or touching a moving ball or hockey puck so that it goes into the basket or net from a short distance away ▪ She scored the winning basket/goal on a tip-in.

[1]tip–off /ˈtɪpˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]
1 : a warning that something (such as a crime) is going to happen ▪ The police received a tip-off about the robbery from an informer. — see also tip off at [6]TIP
2 : a clear sign or indication of something ▪ The worried expression on his face was a tip-off that something had gone wrong.
– compare [2]TIP-OFF

[2]tip–off noun, pl -offs [count] basketball : the start of a game when the ball is thrown in the air and a player from each team jumps up and tries to get the ball ▪ We arrived at the arena just a few minutes before tip-off. — compare [1]TIP-OFF; see also tip off at [4]TIP

tipped /ˈtɪpt/ adj : having a specified color or material on the end or tip ▪ red flowers tipped with yellow — often used in combination ▪ silver-tipped hair ▪ a diamond-tipped drill bit

[1]tip•ple /ˈtɪpəl/ verb tip•ples; tip•pled; tip•pling [no obj] informal : to drink alcohol ▪ He gave up tippling.
– tip•pler /ˈtɪpələ/ noun, pl tip•plers [count] ▪ a heavy tippler [=a person who drinks a lot of alcohol]

[2]tipple noun, pl tipples [count] informal : an alcoholic drink ▪ His preferred/favorite tipple is whiskey.

tip•ster /ˈtɪpstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a person who gives useful information to someone ▪ An anonymous tipster reported the crime.

tip•sy /ˈtɪpsi/ adj tip•si•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] informal : unsteady or foolish from drinking : slightly drunk ▪ I got a little tipsy at the party last night.

[1]tip•toe /ˈtɪpˌtoʊ/ noun
on tiptoe or on (your) tiptoes : with your toes touching the ground and your heels raised up ▪ She had to stand on tiptoe to reach the shelf. ▪ He stood on his tiptoes trying to see over the crowd. ▪ He walked on tiptoe to avoid waking the children.

[2]tiptoe verb -toes; -toed; -toe•ing [no obj] : to walk with your heels raised up and only your toes touching the ground ▪ She tiptoed through the puddle. ▪ He tiptoed quietly around the house to avoid waking the children.
tiptoe around [phrasal verb] tiptoe around (something) : to avoid talking about (something) : to talk about (something) only in an indirect way ▪ They tiptoed around the subject of her poor health.

[3]tiptoe adv : with your toes touching the ground and your heels raised up ▪ She had to stand tiptoe to reach the shelf.

[1]tip–top /ˈtɪpˈtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] informal : the highest point of something ▪ the very tip-top of the mountain

[2]tip–top adj, informal : very good : excellent or great ▪ The car is in tip-top shape/condition.

ti•rade /ˈtaɪˌreɪd/ noun, pl -rades [count] : a long and angry speech ▪ He went into a tirade about the failures of the government. ▪ The coach directed a tirade at the team after the loss.

[1]tire /ˈtajə/ verb tires; tired; tir•ing
1 [no obj] : to lose energy and begin to feel that you need to rest : to become tired ▪ I tired long before the race was over. ▪ The pitcher seems to be tiring.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to lose energy : to make (someone) tired ▪ The long hike tired the younger children. — often + out ▪ Shoveling snow tires me out.
tire of [phrasal verb] tire of (something) : to become bored by (something) : to stop being interested in (something) ▪ He soon tired of doing the same work every day. ▪ They eventually tired of life on the road. ▪ She never tires of listening to music.

[2]tire (US) or Brit tyre /ˈtajə/ noun, pl tires [count] : a rubber ring that usually contains air and that fits around the wheel of a car, bicycle, etc. ▪ bicycle/automobile tires ▪ a flat tire — see pictures at BICYCLE, CAR; see also SNOW TIRE, SPARE TIRE tired adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : feeling a need to rest or sleep : WEARY ▪ I was really tired after the long trip. ▪ She's too tired to go out tonight. ▪ tired muscles ▪ The children were tired after the hike. — see also DOG-TIRED
2 : bored or annoyed by something because you have heard it, seen it, done it, etc., for a long time — + of ▪ He's tired of working for other people. ▪ Are you tired of your job? ▪ I got tired of listening to her. ▪ She never gets tired of their music. ▪ I'm sick and tired of [=very tired of] your complaining.
3 disapproving : used over and over again ▪ We had to listen to the same old tired excuses again. ▪ a tired joke
4 : worn down by long use : RUN-DOWN ▪ a neighborhood of tired houses ▪ a tired old town – tired•ly adv ▪ She tiredly leaned her head back. – tired•ness noun [noncount] tire•less /ˈtajələs/ adj : working very hard with a lot of energy for a long time : never seeming to get tired ▪ He's a tireless worker. ▪ She has been a tireless advocate for reform.

– tire•less•ly adv ▪ She has worked tirelessly to help the homeless.

tire•some /ˈtajəsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing you to feel bored, annoyed, or impatient ▪ a tiresome [=boring] lecture ▪ All those stories about his childhood can become tiresome after a while.
– tire•some•ly adv

tiring adj [more ~; most ~] : causing you to feel tired ▪ The work was very tiring.

'tis /ˈtɪz, təz/ old-fashioned + literary — used as a contraction of "it is" ▪ 'Tis the season to be jolly.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tis•sue /ˈtɪʃu/ noun, pl -sues
1 [count] : a piece of soft and very thin paper that is used especially for cleaning ▪ a box of tissues ▪ She wiped her nose with a tissue. ▪ a facial tissue
2 : the material that forms the parts in a plant or animal [noncount] a sample of brain/lung/muscle tissue ▪ a tissue sample [plural] The drug can damage the body's tissues.
3 [noncount] : TISSUE PAPER ▪ a box wrapped in tissue
a tissue of lies chiefly Brit : a story or report that is completely false : a story that is full of lies ▪ The article was nothing but a tissue of lies.

tissue paper noun [noncount] : thin paper used especially for covering or wrapping something

[1]tit /ˈtɪt/ noun, pl tits [count] informal + often offensive : a woman's breast — usually plural — compare [2]TIT

[2]tit noun, pl tits [count] : a small European bird — compare [1]TIT

ti•tan /ˈtaɪtn̩/ noun, pl -tans [count]
1 Titan : one of a family of giants in Greek mythology
2 : an extremely large and powerful person, company, etc. ▪ media titans ▪ a titan of industry ▪ multinational titans

ti•tan•ic /taɪˈtænɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very great in size, force, or power : GIGANTIC ▪ They put up a titanic struggle. ▪ The batter hit a titanic home run. ▪ a titanic explosion ti•ta•ni•um /taɪˈteɪnijəm/ noun [noncount] : a very strong and light silvery metal

titbit Brit spelling of TIDBIT

tit•fer /ˈtɪtfə/ noun, pl -fers [count] Brit, informal : HAT

tit for tat /ˌtɪtfəˈtæt/ noun [noncount] : a situation in which you do something to harm someone who has done something harmful to you ▪ a tit for tat between two rival politicians
– tit–for–tat adj ▪ tit-for-tat bombings tithe /ˈtaɪð/ noun, pl tithes [count] : an amount of money that a person gives to a church which is usually equal to 1/10 of that person's income

tit•il•late /ˈtɪtəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing : to interest or excite (someone) in an enjoyable and often sexual way [+ obj] a film made to titillate the audience [no obj] writing that titillates and provokes
– titillating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ titillating gossip ▪ an intentionally titillating movie – tit•il•la•tion /ˌtɪtəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual titillation

[1]ti•tle /ˈtaɪtl/ noun, pl ti•tles
1 [count] : the name given to something (such as a book, song, or movie) to identify or describe it ▪ What was the title of that book you were reading last week? ▪ The title of the first chapter is "Getting Started." — see also SUBTITLE
2 [count] : a published book ▪ The company published 25 new titles last year. ▪ This is one of our best-selling titles.
3 [count] : a word or name that describes a person's job in a company or organization ▪ Her title is Vice President of Marketing. ▪ He has an impressive job title.
4 [count] : a word (such as Sir or Doctor) or an abbreviation (such as Mr. or Dr.) that is used with someone's name to show that person's rank, profession, or marital status
5 [count] : the status or position of being the champion in a sport or other competition ▪ He won the batting title [=championship] last year. ▪ He currently holds the heavyweight title. ▪ The school has won six basketball titles.
6 law a [noncount] : a legal right to the ownership of property ▪ The court ruled that he had title to the land. b [count] : a document which shows that someone owns property ▪ Did he find the title to his car?
rejoice in the title of see REJOICE

[2]title verb titles; ti•tled; ti•tling [+ obj] : to give a name or title to (something) : to call (a book, song, movie, etc.) by a title ▪ She titled the book The Story of My Life. ▪ a movie titled Gone With the Wind

[3]title adj, always used before a noun
1 : having the same name as a movie, play, etc. ▪ He played the title role in Hamlet. [=he played the role of Hamlet in the play Hamlet] ▪ the title song/track on the CD
2 : of, relating to, or involving a championship ▪ The title game/match [=the game/match that decides who wins the championship] will be played tonight.

titled adj : having a title (such as "Lord" or "Lady") : belonging to the highest social class ▪ a titled British family ▪ a member of the titled ranks

ti•tle•hold•er /ˈtaɪtlˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who has won a championship title in a sport : CHAMPION ▪ the heavyweight boxing titleholder
2 law : a person, company, etc., that owns property

title page noun, pl ~ pages [count] : a page in the front of a book that includes the book's title ti•tlist /ˈtaɪtlɪst/ noun, pl -tlists [count] US : a person who holds a title as champion : CHAMPION ▪ the heavyweight titlist

tit•mouse /ˈtɪtˌmaʊs/ noun, pl tit•mice /ˈtɪtˌmaɪs/ [count] : a small American bird tit•ter /ˈtɪtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to laugh in a quiet and nervous way ▪ Some people in the audience tittered nervously during an awkward pause in the speech.

– titter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ There were a few titters in the classroom.

tit•tle–tat•tle /ˈtɪtlˌtætl/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, informal : talk about things that are not important or interesting ▪ gossipy tittle-tattle about celebrities

tit•ty /ˈtɪti/ noun, pl -ties [count] informal + offensive : a woman's breast — usually plural

tit•u•lar /ˈtɪtʃələ/ adj
1 : having an important or impressive title but not having the power or duties that usually go with it ▪ Although retired, he remains the titular chairman of the company. ▪ the country's titular head/ruler/monarch
2 : having the name of the character that is featured in the title of a movie, play, etc. ▪ He played the titular [=title] role in Hamlet. [=he played the role of Hamlet in the play Hamlet]

tix /ˈtɪks/ noun [plural] US, informal : tickets ▪ concert tix for sale

tiz•zy /ˈtɪzi/ noun [singular] informal : a state in which you feel very worried, upset, and confused ▪ She's always getting in/into a tizzy over minor things. — called also (Brit) tizz /ˈtɪz/

TKO /ˌtiːˌkeɪˈoʊ/ noun, pl TKOs [count] : TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT

TLC /ˌtiːˌɛlˈsiː/ noun [noncount] informal : care and attention that is given to make someone feel better, to improve the bad condition of something, etc. ▪ He just needed some rest and a little TLC. ▪ It's an old house that needs some TLC. ✧ TLC is an abbreviation of "tender loving care."

TM abbr trademark

TN abbr Tennessee

TNT /ˌtiːˌɛnˈtiː/ noun [noncount] : a very powerful explosive

[1]to /ˈtuː, tə/ prep
1 — used to indicate that the following verb is in the infinitive form ▪ I like to swim. ▪ "To be, or not to be—that is the question . . . " —Shakespeare, Hamlet (1600) ▪ That's a tough question to answer. ▪ I have an appointment to keep. ▪ The soup is too hot to eat. ▪ Do you need to use this? ▪ I have to go now. ▪ To look at him, you'd never think he was 80! ▪ I didn't really like the movie, to be honest. — often used by itself in place of an infinitive verb when the verb is understood ▪ You can go if you want to. [=you can go if you want to go] ▪ "You left the door unlocked." "I didn't mean to."
2 a — used to indicate the place, person, or thing that someone or something moves toward ▪ We are flying to London tomorrow. ▪ They climbed to the top of the mountain. ▪ I sent the e-mail to the wrong address. ▪ He was sent to the principal. ▪ The little girl ran to her mother. b — used to indicate the place where someone participates in a particular activity ▪ Where do you go to school? ▪ She wore her new red dress to the party. ▪ We went to lunch together. ▪ This is the child's first visit to the dentist.
3 — used to indicate the direction of something ▪ There is a lake a mile to the south of here. ▪ She had her back to me. [=her back was facing me] ▪ The roads are parallel to each other.
4 — used to indicate the limit or range of something ▪ The water was up to my waist. ▪ The temperature outside rose to 100 degrees. ▪ The word dates (back) to 1639. ▪ The show's audience is mainly men from 18 to 30 years of age. ▪ The band plays all kinds of music from country to hard rock. ▪ The shirt is a light to medium pink. ▪ The wines we tasted ranged from very poor to good to excellent. ▪ To my knowledge, she has never visited Paris. [=I do not know of any time when she visited Paris] ▪ I'll do it to the best of my ability. [=as well as I can]
5 a — used to indicate a particular result or end ▪ The school was converted to an apartment building. ▪ The vase was smashed to pieces. ▪ The promotion increased her salary to $50,000. ▪ He was sentenced to death. ▪ To their surprise, the train left on time. ▪ A firefighter came to her rescue. [=a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

firefighter rescued her] ▪ It's 100 miles (from here) to the nearest town. b : according to (something) ▪ The wedding gown was made to her specifications. [=was made in the way that she specified] ▪ Add salt to taste. [=add as much salt as you want according to your taste]

6 a — used to indicate the end of a particular period of time ▪ He works from nine to [=until, till] five. ▪ Up to now, no one has beaten the record. ▪ The movie keeps your attention from beginning to end. b : before the start of (something, such as an hour or event) ▪ It is ten to six. [=it is 10 minutes before 6 o'clock] ▪ She arrived at a quarter to five. ▪ I can't believe there are only five days to the wedding. ▪ How long to kickoff?

7 a — used to indicate the person or thing that receives an object or action ▪ Give the letter to me. [=give me the letter] ▪ The teacher spoke to his parents. ▪ She showed a picture of her kids to me. ▪ Refer to the dictionary. ▪ Let me introduce you to my sister. ▪ She was very rude to [=toward] him. ▪ "He's smart," she thought to herself. b : in honor of (someone or something) ▪ Let us drink to the bride and groom. ▪ The people built temples to their gods. ▪ The book is dedicated to her husband and children.

8 a — used to indicate how people or things are related, connected, etc. ▪ She is married to my cousin. ▪ He is related to me. ▪ He is the assistant to the dean. ▪ You have always been a good friend to me. ▪ I can't find the key (that goes) to this door. ▪ He owns the title to the property. b : in response to (something) ▪ There wasn't much I could say to that. ▪ The answer to your question is no. ▪ What would you say to a drink? [=would you like a drink?] ▪ Her dog comes to her call. [=comes when she calls]

9 — used to indicate the thing that causes something to happen ▪ She lost her mother to cancer. [=her mother died of cancer]

10 — used when one person or thing is being compared to another ▪ He prefers a good book to a movie. ▪ I have a pair of shoes similar to those. ▪ His followers compared/likened him to a god. ▪ This problem is nothing to [=is nothing when compared to] the ones we previously had. ▪ We won the game ten to six. [=we won the game because we had ten points while the other team had only six] ▪ Their odds of winning are ten to one.

11 — used to indicate that something is attached to or touches something else ▪ He tied the dog's leash to the post. ▪ She put her hand to [=on, against] her heart. ▪ He gently touched the bow to the violin's strings.

12 — used to indicate the thing that contains or includes a certain number or amount of something ▪ The pencils come ten to a box. [=there are ten pencils in each box] ▪ There are two pints to a quart.

13 — used to indicate the sound that people hear while they do something or while something happens ▪ Children were dancing to the music. ▪ He woke to the sound of pouring rain.

14 a : in the opinion of (someone) ▪ The plan is agreeable to all of us. ▪ Her excuse sounded suspicious to me. ▪ To him, the work seemed unnecessary. b : from the point of view of (someone) ▪ Their marriage is news to me. [=I did not know about their marriage] ▪ Your problems are of no concern to me! [=I don't care about your problems] to yourself — used with have to say that you are the only one who is using something or who is in a place ▪ I finally had the computer (all) to myself. ▪ We had the whole house to ourselves. [=we were the only ones in the house]

Do not confuse to with too or two.

[2]to /ˈtu:/ adv

1 : into a state of being awake or conscious ▪ He brought her to [=woke her up; made her conscious again] with smelling salts. ▪ He came to [=he became conscious] an hour after the accident.

2 chiefly Brit : into a position that is closed or almost closed ▪ The wind blew the door to.

to and fro : forward and backward ▪ The baby rocked to and fro in the swing. : from one place to another ▪ The small boat was tossed to and fro by the waves.

toad /ˈtoʊd/ noun, pl toads [count]

1 : a small animal that looks like a frog but has dry skin and lives on land — see picture at FROG

2 informal : an unpleasant person ▪ He's such a mean little toad.

toad–in–the–hole noun [noncount] Brit : a dish made of sausages cooked in batter toad•stool /ˈtoʊdˌstu:l/ noun, pl -stools [count] : a kind of fungus that is similar to a mushroom, that consists of a round cap on a short stem, and that is often poisonous

[1]toady /ˈtoʊdi/ noun, pl toad•ies [count] informal + disapproving : a person who praises and helps powerful people in order to get their approval ▪ She's a real toady to the boss.

[2]toady verb toadies; toad•ied; toady•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to try to get the approval of someone powerful by saying and doing helpful and friendly things that are not sincere : to be a toady ▪ He's always toadying to the boss.

[1]toast /ˈtoʊst/ noun [noncount] : bread that has been sliced and then made crisp and brown by heat ▪ a piece of toast ▪ I had toast for breakfast. — see also FRENCH TOAST

(as) warm as toast see [1]WARM be toast informal : to be in a lot of trouble ▪ If anyone finds out about this, we*'re toast*. : to be completely ruined, defeated, etc. ▪ His career is toast. [=is finished/ruined]

– compare [3]TOAST

[2]toast verb toasts; toast•ed; toast•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (food, such as bread) crisp and brown by heat ▪ He toasted the bread in the oven. ▪ (Brit) a toasted cheese sandwich [=(US) a grilled cheese sandwich]

2 : to warm (yourself or part of your body) by being close to a fire or some other source of heat ▪ He was toasting his feet by the fire.

– compare [4]TOAST

[3]toast noun, pl toasts [count] : an occurrence in which words are said that honor someone, express good wishes, etc., and people take a drink to show that they agree with what has been said ▪ He made/proposed a toast to the bride and groom. ▪ Everyone drank a toast to the bride and groom.

the toast of : a person who is very popular in (a particular place) or among (a particular group of people) ▪ After she won the championship, she was the toast of the town. ▪ He's the toast of society.

– compare [1]TOAST

[4]toast verb toasts; toasted; toasting [+ obj] : to drink a toast to (someone) ▪ Everyone toasted the bride and groom. — compare [2]TOAST toast•er /ˈtoʊstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an electrical device used for toasting bread — see picture at KITCHEN

toaster oven noun, pl ~ -ens [count] US : a small oven in which food is toasted, heated, or cooked — see picture at KITCHEN toast•mas•ter /ˈtoʊstˌmæstə, Brit ˈtəʊstˌmɑ:stə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who introduces the speakers at a formal occasion (such as a banquet)

toasty /ˈtoʊsti/ adj toast•i•er; -est US, informal : comfortably warm ▪ The room was nice and toasty.

to•bac•co /təˈbækoʊ/ noun [noncount]

1 : a plant that produces leaves which are smoked in cigarettes, pipes, etc. ▪ a farm that grows tobacco

2 : the leaves of the tobacco plant used for smoking or chewing ▪ chewing/pipe tobacco

3 : products (such as cigars or cigarettes) that are made from tobacco ▪ a state tax on tobacco ▪ the tobacco industry to•bac•co•nist /təˈbækənɪst/ noun, pl -nists

1 [count] : a person who sells tobacco and tobacco products (such as cigarettes)

2 the tobacconist or the tobacconist's : a store where tobacco and tobacco products are sold ▪ He bought some cigars at the tobacconist's.

to–be /təˈbi:/ adj — used to indicate what someone will be at a future time; used in combination ▪ his bride-to-be [=his future bride] ▪ the father-to-be

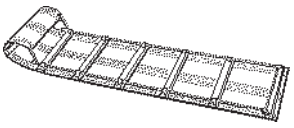
[1]to•bog•gan /təˈbɑ:gən/ noun, pl -gans [count] : a long, light sled that has a curved front and that is used for sliding over snow and ice



toboggan

[2]toboggan verb -gans; -ganed; -gan•ing [no obj] : to ride on a toboggan especially down a hill ▪ The kids tobogganed down the hill.

toc•ca•ta /təˈkɑ:tə/ noun, pl -tas [count] music : a piece of music for the piano or a similar instrument that is played very quickly

[1]to•day /təˈdeɪ/ noun [noncount]

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

1 : this day ▪ Is today a holiday? ▪ Have you read today's newspaper? ▪ The sale ends a week from today. [=in one week]
2 : the present time ▪ the computers of today = today's computers

[2]today adv
1 : on, during, or for this day ▪ We have to finish today. ▪ Earlier today I saw my cousin. ▪ I have an appointment later today. ▪ They announced today that he'll be promoted.
2 : at the present time : NOWADAYS ▪ I worry about children today. ▪ Today, more than a million people live there. ▪ Cars aren't built today like they were 30 years ago.

tod•dle /ˈtɑːdl̩/ verb tod•dles; tod•dled; tod•dling [no obj]
1 of a young child : to walk with short, unsteady steps ▪ The little boy toddled across the room.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to walk along in a slow and relaxed way ▪ I toddled off/down to the pub for a pint. ▪ She toddled off to bed.

tod•dler /ˈtɑːdlə/ noun, pl tod•dlers [count] : a young child who is just learning to walk
– tod•dler•hood /ˈtɑːdlə˛hʊd/ noun [noncount]

tod•dy /ˈtɑːdi/ noun, pl -dies [count] : a hot drink made with whisky, sugar, and water ▪ a hot toddy to–do /tə˙ˈduː/ noun [singular] informal : excited or angry activity that is usually not necessary or wanted ▪ He made a big to-do [=fuss] about her birthday. ▪ They're making a big to-do about nothing.

[1]toe /ˈtoʊ/ noun, pl toes [count]
1 : one of the five separate parts at the end of your foot ▪ He felt the sand/grass between his toes. ▪ I accidentally stepped on her toe. ▪ I stubbed my toe on the table's leg. — see picture at FOOT; compare FINGER; see also BIG TOE
2 : the part of a shoe or sock that covers the front part of your foot ▪ My sock has a hole in the toe. ▪ boots with steel toes ▪ the toe of her boot — see picture at SHOE
3 : something that is shaped like a toe ▪ the toe of the peninsula dip/put/stick a toe in the water informal : to try an activity briefly to see if you like it ▪ I'm not sure I want to join, but I'd like to dip a toe in the water.
from top to toe see [1]TOP keep (someone) on their toes informal : to cause someone to be alert and prepared to deal with problems ▪ Taking care of three kids really keeps me on my toes. ▪ The boss made regular inspections in order to keep employees on their toes.
make your toes curl informal : to cause you to have a very strong and usually unpleasant feeling (such as a feeling of being embarrassed, annoyed, etc.) ▪ Just thinking about my old boyfriend makes my toes curl.
point your toes see [2]POINT
step on someone's toes (US) or Brit tread on someone's toes informal : to do something that upsets or offends someone ▪ You might step on the toes of some important people with this project. ▪ I don't want to step on anyone's toes.

[2]toe verb toes; toed; toe•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to touch, reach, or kick (something) with your toe or with the end of your foot ▪ She toed off her shoes. ▪ The pitcher toed the rubber.
toe the line : to do what you are told or required to do even though you do not want to do it ▪ We expect you to toe the line if you want to stay here. ▪ He has to toe the company line to keep his job.

-toed /ˈtoʊd/ adj : having a toe or toes of a specified kind or number — used in combination ▪ a three-toed sloth ▪ steel-toed shoes

TOEFL /ˈtoʊfəl/ trademark — used for a test of the language skills of people who have learned English as a foreign language toe•hold /ˈtoʊ˛hoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count]

1 : a place where your toes may be placed when you are climbing a cliff, a mountain, etc.
2 : a position that makes it possible to begin an activity or effort ▪ His father helped him get a toehold [=foothold] in show business. ▪ American companies looking for toeholds in foreign markets toe•nail /ˈtoʊ˛neɪl/ noun, pl -nails [count] : the hard covering at the end of a toe — see picture at FOOT toe•rag /ˈtoʊ˛ræg/ noun, pl -rags [count] Brit slang, offensive : a person you strongly dislike toe–to–toe adv, informal — used to describe a fight in which two people stand close together facing each other ▪ They fought each other toe-to-toe. ▪ He went toe-to-toe (in a fight) with the schoolyard bully. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They went toe-to-toe [=competed against each other in a very exciting way] for 18 holes of golf.

– toe–to–toe adj ▪ a toe-to-toe competition

toff /ˈtɑːf/ noun, pl toffs [count] Brit, informal + disapproving : a person who belongs to a high social class tof•fee /ˈtɑːfi/ noun [noncount] : a hard, sticky candy made by boiling sugar and butter together

tof•fee–nosed /ˈtɑːfi˙ˈnoʊzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal + disapproving : having or showing the attitude of people who think they are better than other people : SNOBBISH ▪ toffee-nosed art critics to•fu /ˈtoʊ˛fuː/ noun [noncount] : a soft, white food made from soybeans and often used in vegetarian cooking instead of meat — called also bean curd

tog /ˈtɑːg/ verb togs; togged; tog•ging be/get togged up/out Brit, informal : to be or get dressed in special clothes for a particular occasion or activity ▪ He got (himself) togged up for the meeting.

to•ga /ˈtoʊgə/ noun, pl -gas [count] : a long, loose piece of clothing that was worn by people in ancient Rome

[1]to•geth•er /tə˙ˈgɛðə/ adv
1 : with each other ▪ They went to the party together. ▪ They have been living together for eight years. ▪ We enjoy spending time together. ▪ The old friends were together again after many long years apart. ▪ The partners have been in business together since 1971. ▪ lie/sit down together
2 : in or into one group, mixture, piece, etc. ▪ They gathered together to celebrate. ▪ The presentation binds/joins/lumps/ties together several concepts. ▪ Blend/Combine/Mix the ingredients together. ▪ The old fence was held together by chicken wire. ▪ two sticks of dynamite bound together by tape
3 : in a close relationship ▪ She got back together with her old boyfriend. ▪ How long have you two been going together? ▪ They've been together for almost five years.
4 : so that two or more people or things touch ▪ The doors banged together. ▪ He knocked the sticks together.
5 : at the same time ▪ They all cheered together.
6 a : to each other ▪ Add the numbers together to get the total. b : considered as a whole ▪ All together there were 15 of us. ▪ He earns more than all of us together. [=combined] usage see ALTOGETHER come together see [1]COME get together, get your act together see GET hang together see [1]HANG hold together see [1]HOLD pull together see [1]PULL throw together see [1]THROW together with : in addition to (someone or something) ▪ Together with myself and my husband, four people will be attending. ▪ The comment, together with [=along with] her expression, suggested that she was very upset. ▪ The fingerprint together with the other evidence was enough to prove that he was there.

[2]together adj [more ~; most ~] informal : confident, organized, and able to deal with problems in a calm and skillful way ▪ She's always so together. ▪ He's a very together person.

to•geth•er•ness /tə˙ˈgɛðənəs/ noun [noncount] : a state or feeling of closeness and happiness among people who are together as friends, family members, etc. ▪ family togetherness ▪ trying to encourage a sense of togetherness among the people in the community

[1]tog•gle /ˈtɑːgəl/ noun, pl tog•gles [count]
1 : a small piece of wood, plastic, metal, etc., that is pushed through a loop or hole to fasten one part of something to another part ▪ Instead of buttons, the jacket has toggles.
2 computers : a setting that can be switched between two different options by pressing a single key, making a single choice from a menu, etc.

[2]toggle verb toggles; tog•gled; tog•gling [no obj] computers : to switch between two options by pressing a single key, making a single choice from a menu, etc. ▪ The progam lets you toggle easily between two different views.

toggle switch noun, pl ~ switches [count] : a switch that turns the flow of electricity to a machine on and off

togs /ˈtɑːgz/ noun [plural] Brit, informal : CLOTHES ▪ fancy togs

[1]toil /ˈtoɪl/ noun [noncount] formal + literary : work that is difficult and unpleasant and that lasts for a long time : long,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

hard labor ▪ days of toil and sweat

²toil verb toils; toiled; toil•ing [no obj] formal + literary
1 : to work very hard for a long time ▪ He's been toiling (away) in his workshop. ▪ workers toiling in the fields
2 : to move slowly and with a lot of effort ▪ They were toiling up a steep hill.
– toil•er /ˈtoɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

toi•let /ˈtoɪlət/ noun, pl -lets [count]
1 : a large bowl attached to a pipe that is used for getting rid of bodily waste and then flushed with water ▪ flush the toilet ▪ One of the kids needed to use the toilet. ▪ a toilet brush/seat/bowl ▪ (Brit) The little boy told his mother that he had to go to the toilet. [=use the toilet; (US) go to the bathroom] — see picture at BATHROOM
2 chiefly Brit : BATHROOM ▪ a public toilet [=restroom] ▪ He's in the toilet. [=loo]
3 old-fashioned : the act or process of washing and dressing yourself ▪ a painting of a woman at her toilet flush something down the toilet see ²FLUSH

toilet bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] Brit : a small bag that you use to carry a toothbrush, soap, etc., while traveling toilet paper noun [noncount] : thin, soft paper used to clean yourself after you have used the toilet — called also toilet tissue, (Brit) lavatory paper; see picture at BATHROOM

toi•let•ries /ˈtoɪlətriz/ noun [plural] : things (such as soap, lotions, etc.) that are used to clean yourself and make yourself look neat toilet roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count] chiefly Brit : a roll of toilet paper toilet training noun [noncount] : the process of teaching a small child to use the toilet — called also potty training

– toilet train verb ~ trains; ~ trained; ~ training [+ obj] ▪ We're planning to toilet train him next summer. – toilet–trained adj ▪ The twins are toilet-trained now.

toilet water noun [noncount] : a liquid that has a light, pleasant smell and that people put on their skin : a kind of perfume that consists mostly of water and does not have a strong scent toke /ˈtoʊk/ verb tokes; toked; tok•ing informal : to inhale marijuana smoke [no obj] toke on a joint [+ obj] toke a joint – toke noun, pl tokes [count] ▪ He took a toke off the joint.

¹to•ken /ˈtoʊkən/ noun, pl -kens [count]
1 : a round piece of metal or plastic that is used instead of money in some machines : an object that looks like a coin and is used in place of a coin ▪ a bus/subway token
2 : something that is a symbol of a feeling, event, etc. — usually + of ▪ Consider this gift a token of my affection/gratitude. ▪ a token of our friendship
3 Brit : GIFT CERTIFICATE ▪ a book/record/gift token by the same token : for the same reason : in the same way — used to introduce a statement that says something more and often something different about the same situation referred to by a previous statement ▪ The result was disappointing, but by the same token, it could have been much worse.

²token adj, always used before a noun, disapproving
1 — used to describe something that is done with very little effort and only to give the appearance that an effort is being made ▪ The government has made only a token effort to end homelessness. ▪ token resistance ▪ a token gesture
2 : included in a group only to prevent criticism that people of a particular kind are being unfairly left out ▪ All the people who work there are men except for a couple of token women. ▪ The ad campaign features a few token minorities.

to•ken•ism /ˈtoʊkəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the practice of doing something (such as hiring a person who belongs to a minority group) only to prevent criticism and give the appearance that people are being treated fairly ▪ Did the company choose her for her merits, or merely as an act of tokenism?

told past tense and past participle of TELL tol•er•able /ˈtɑːlərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : unpleasant but able to be accepted or tolerated ▪ The heat was tolerable for only a short time. ▪ a tolerable [=bearable] level of pain ▪ This kind of behavior is not tolerable. [=acceptable] — opposite INTOLERABLE
2 : good enough to be accepted but not very good ▪ a tolerable effort – tol•er•ably /ˈtɑːlərəbli/ adv ▪ He did tolerably well.

tol•er•ance /ˈtɑːlərəns/ noun
1 : willingness to accept feelings, habits, or beliefs that are different from your own [noncount] religious tolerance [singular] a tolerance for/of other lifestyles — see also ZERO TOLERANCE
2 : the ability to accept, experience, or survive something harmful or unpleasant [count] The plants have a high/low tolerance for/of heat. [noncount] I don't have much tolerance for cold weather. [=I dislike cold weather; cold weather makes me uncomfortable] ▪ I have no tolerance for such behavior. [=I cannot accept/tolerate such behavior]
3 medical : your body's ability to become adjusted to something (such as a drug) so that its effects are experienced less strongly [count] Some patients gradually develop a tolerance for the drug and need to be given a larger dose. [noncount] Some patients develop greater tolerance for the drug's effects.

tol•er•ant /ˈtɑːlərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : willing to accept feelings, habits, or beliefs that are different from your own ▪ a tolerant society/community ▪ tolerant attitudes/opinions/views — often + of ▪ The people in the community are tolerant of each other's differences.
2 : able to allow or accept something that is harmful, unpleasant, etc. — often + of ▪ These plants are tolerant of hot climates. [=are able to live and grow in hot climates] ▪ Our teacher is not tolerant of bad grammar. [=will not tolerate/accept bad grammar]
– tol•er•ant•ly adv

tol•er•ate /ˈtɑːləˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -ating [+ obj]
1 : to allow (something that is bad, unpleasant, etc.) to exist, happen, or be done ▪ Our teacher will not tolerate bad grammar. ▪ Racist or sexist behavior will not be tolerated. ▪ I can't tolerate that noise. ▪ The government cannot tolerate lawlessness. ▪ How can you tolerate such laziness?
2 : to experience (something harmful or unpleasant) without being harmed ▪ These plants tolerate drought well.
3 : to accept the feelings, behavior, or beliefs of (someone) ▪ I don't like my boss, but I tolerate him.
– tol•er•a•tion /ˌtɑːləˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious toleration

¹toll /ˈtoʊl/ noun, pl tolls [count]
1 a : an amount of money that you are required to pay for the use of a road or bridge ▪ We had to stop to pay the toll. ▪ a toll road/bridge [=a road/bridge that you can use only if you pay a toll] b chiefly US : an amount of money paid for a long-distance telephone call — see also TOLL CALL, TOLL-FREE
2 : the number of people who are killed or injured in an accident, disaster, war, etc. — usually singular ▪ The full/final toll of the disaster is not yet known. — see also DEATH TOLL take a toll or take its toll : to have a serious, bad effect on someone or something : to cause harm or damage ▪ If you keep working so hard, the stress will eventually take its toll. [=your health will be harmed] — often + on ▪ The stress will take its toll on you. ▪ Too much sunlight can take a (heavy) toll on your skin. [=can harm your skin] ▪ Her illness has taken a toll on her marriage.
– compare ³TOLL

²toll verb tolls; tolled; toll•ing
1 : to ring slowly [no obj] Church bells tolled as people gathered for the service. [+ obj] The bells were tolled for the service.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) known by ringing ▪ The church bells tolled the hour.

³toll noun, pl tolls [count]
1 : the sound of bells being rung slowly ▪ The toll of the bells sounded throughout the village.
2 : a single sound made by a ringing bell ▪ He counted the tolls of the bell.
– compare ¹TOLL

toll•booth /ˈtoʊlˌbuːθ/ noun, pl -booths [count] : a small building where you pay a toll to use a road or bridge toll call noun, pl ~ calls [count] US : a long-distance telephone call for which you must pay an extra amount of money — called also (Brit) trunk call toll–free /ˈtoʊlˈfriː/ adj, US : allowing you to make a long-distance telephone call without having to pay a toll ▪ a toll-free call/number – toll–free adv ▪ call toll-free

toll•gate /ˈtoʊlˌgeɪt/ noun, pl -gates [count] : a place where the driver of a vehicle must pay a toll to go through a gate that blocks a road toll•house /ˈtoʊlˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building where you pay a toll to use a road or bridge toll plaza noun, pl ~ -zas [count] : PLAZA 3b

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 12:01:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

tom /ˈtɑːm/ noun, pl toms [count]
1 : TOMCAT
2 : a male turkey

tom•a•hawk /ˈtɑːmɪˌhɑːk/ noun, pl -hawks [count] : a small ax used as a weapon by Native Americans to•ma•to /təˈmeɪtoʊ, Brit təˈmɑːtəʊ/ noun, pl -toes [count] : a round, soft, red fruit that is eaten raw or cooked and that is often used in salads, sandwiches, sauces, etc. ▪ crushed tomatoes — often used before another noun ▪ tomato soup/sauce/paste/juice — see color picture on page C4; see also CHERRY TOMATO, PLUM TOMATO

tomato ketchup noun [noncount] : KETCHUP tomb /ˈtuːm/ noun, pl tombs [count] : a building or chamber above or below the ground in which a dead body is kept ▪ the tomb of Alexander the Great tom•bo•la /ˈtɑːmbələ, Brit tɒmˈbəʊlə/ noun, pl -las [count] Brit : [1]RAFFLE

tom•boy /ˈtɑːmˌbɔɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] : a girl who enjoys things that people think are more suited to boys
– tom•boy•ish /ˈtɑːmˌbɔjɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ tomboyish behavior/clothing tomb•stone /ˈtuːmˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : GRAVESTONE

tom•cat /ˈtɑːmˌkæt/ noun, pl -cats [count] : a male cat — called also tom

Tom, Dick, and Har•ry /ˌtɑːmˌdɪkənˈheri/ noun
any/every Tom, Dick, and Harry informal : any person : ANYONE ▪ We don't just hand out jobs to every Tom, Dick, and Harry who walks in here.

tome /ˈtoʊm/ noun, pl tomes [count] formal : a very large, thick book ▪ a long tome on European history tom•fool•ery /ˌtɑːmˈfuːləri/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : playful or silly behavior ▪ There was a lot of tomfoolery going on behind the scenes.

[1]to•mor•row /təˈmɑroʊ/ noun
1 [noncount] : the day after today ▪ Tomorrow is a school day. ▪ She is giving a presentation at tomorrow's meeting.
2 : the future [noncount] Who knows what tomorrow may bring? ▪ designing the car of tomorrow ▪ Today's children are tomorrow's leaders. [singular] All we can do is hope for a better tomorrow.
like there's no tomorrow : in a quick and careless way without any thought about the future ▪ He's spending money like there's no tomorrow. [=he is spending a lot of money now and not saving any for the future]

[2]tomorrow adv : on, during, or for the day after today ▪ I'll finish the housework tomorrow. ▪ Is it supposed to rain tomorrow? ▪ He has an interview tomorrow. ▪ Tomorrow we're going fishing.

tom–tom /ˈtɑːmˌtɑːm/ noun, pl -toms [count] : a tall, narrow drum that is usually played with the hands ton /ˈtʌn/ noun, pl tons [count]

1 pl also ton a US : a unit for measuring weight that equals 2,000 pounds (907 kilograms) b Brit : a unit for measuring weight that equals 2,240 pounds (1,016 kilograms) — see also MEGATON, METRIC TON
2 informal : a large amount ▪ I still have a ton to do before the guests arrive. ▪ Her purse weighs a ton. [=is very heavy] — often + of ▪ He earns a ton of money. ▪ I've got tons of homework to do.
like a ton of bricks see [1]BRICK ton•al /ˈtoʊnl/ adj

1 technical : of or relating to musical or color tones ▪ tonal variations
2 music : having or based in a particular key ▪ traditional tonal music — opposite ATONAL – to•nal•i•ty /toʊˈnæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count, noncount] ▪ the tonality of a piece of music – ton•al•ly adv

[1]tone /ˈtoʊn/ noun, pl tones
1 [count] a : the quality of a person's voice ▪ She spoke in a sharp tone. [=she spoke sharply] ▪ He replied in a friendly tone. ▪ They spoke in hushed/conspiratorial tones. ▪ Don't use that rude tone of voice with me. b : the quality of a sound produced by a musical instrument or singing voice ▪ the low tones of an organ
2 [count] a : a quality, feeling, or attitude expressed by the words that someone uses in speaking or writing ▪ The speech had religious tones to it. ▪ The author's tone shows her attitude toward the subject. ▪ The professor's condescending tone irritated some students. b : the general quality of a place, situation, etc. ▪ the city's upbeat tone ▪ The seriousness of his opening statement set the tone for/of the meeting. [=his opening statement established that the meeting would be serious]
3 [count] a : a shade of color ▪ a bright, dark, or light tone of blue ▪ the soft tones of the painting — see also EARTH TONE b : a small amount of a color ▪ gray with a slightly bluish tone [=tint]
4 [noncount] : strength and firmness of the muscles or skin ▪ These exercises help build muscle tone.
5 [noncount] : the highness or lowness of a spoken syllable ▪ a rising/falling tone — see also TONE LANGUAGE
6 [count] : a sound made as a signal by a machine (such as a telephone or answering machine) ▪ Please leave a message after the tone. ▪ (Brit) I keep getting the engaged tone. [=(US) busy signal; the sound which indicates that the telephone line is already being used] — see also DIAL TONE, RINGTONE
7 [count] music a : a sound of a particular pitch and vibration ▪ the different tones [=notes] of a musical scale b chiefly Brit : WHOLE STEP

[2]tone verb tones; toned; ton•ing [+ obj] : to give strength and firmness to (something, such as muscles or skin) ▪ These exercises are a good way to tone (up) your stomach muscles.
tone down [phrasal verb] tone (something) down or tone down (something) 1 : to make (something) less forceful, offensive, or harsh ▪ People will be more likely to listen to you if you tone down your language a little. 2 : to make (something) less bright or colorful ▪ She toned down her wardrobe.
tone in [phrasal verb] tone in with (something) Brit : to match the color of (something) ▪ That tie tones in well with your suit.

toned adj
1 : having or showing strength or firmness ▪ toned muscles ▪ his toned body
2 : having a certain type of tone or color — used in combination ▪ olive-toned skin ▪ sepia-toned photographs tone–deaf /ˈtoʊnˌdɛf/ adj : unable to hear the difference between musical notes or sing the right musical notes tone language noun, pl ~ -guages [count] : a language (such as Chinese) in which changes in the tone of words indicate different meanings ton•er /ˈtoʊnə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [noncount] : a dark powder that is used like ink in machines that print and copy documents ▪ The copier needs toner.
2 [count, noncount] : a liquid that is used to clean and tighten the skin tongs /ˈtɑːŋz/ noun [plural] : a tool used for lifting or holding objects that is made of two long pieces connected at one end or in the middle ▪ ice/salad tongs ▪ a pair of tongs hammer and tongs see [1]HAMMER

[1]tongue /ˈtʌŋ/ noun, pl tongues
1 a [count] : the soft, movable part in the mouth that is used for tasting and eating food and in human beings for speaking ▪ The cow ran its tongue over its lips. ▪ The taste of the spice was still on her tongue. ▪ The little girl stuck her tongue out at me. ▪ My mom shook her head and clicked her tongue [=made a noise with her tongue] in disapproval. — see picture at MOUTH b [count, noncount] : the tongue of an animal (such as an ox or sheep) that is eaten as food
2 [count] : LANGUAGE ▪ He spoke in a foreign tongue. ▪ English is my native tongue. ▪ They speak the same tongue. — see also MOTHER TONGUE
3 [count] : a particular way or quality of speaking ▪ His sharp/quick tongue is going to get him into trouble someday. ▪ Although she was angry, she kept a civil tongue. [=she was polite] ▪ Watch your tongue, young man! [=don't say rude or offensive things] — see also TONGUED
4 [count] : something that is shaped like a tongue — + of ▪ tongues of fire/flame
5 [count] : a long flap that is under the laces or buckles of a shoe — see picture at SHOE
6 [count] : a long, raised part at the end of a board that extends out and fits into a long cut (called a groove) in another board — see also TONGUE-AND-GROOVE a slip of the tongue see [2]SLIP bite your tongue see [1]BITE Cat got your tongue? see CAT get your tongue around informal ✧ If you cannot get your tongue around a word or phrase, you have difficulty saying it. ▪ I can't get my tongue around his last name.
hold your tongue see [1]HOLD

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 21 10:46:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

loosen someone's tongue see LOOSEN on the tip of your tongue see [3]TIP roll/trip off the tongue : to be easy to say or pronounce ▪ The name just rolls off the tongue.
speak in tongues ✧ Someone who is speaking in tongues is saying strange words that no one can understand, especially as part of a religious experience.
speak/talk with (a) forked tongue see FORKED tongues (are) wagging ✧ If something sets/gets tongues wagging or if tongues are wagging, people are talking a lot about something. ▪ The news of their engagement set tongues wagging. = Tongues were wagging over their engagement.
with (your) tongue in (your) cheek : TONGUE IN CHEEK ▪ He was talking with his tongue in his cheek.

[2]tongue verb tongues; tongued; tongu•ing
1 : to produce separate notes when you are blowing air through a musical instrument (such as a trumpet) by using your tongue to briefly stop the flow of air [+ obj] learning how to tongue notes on the clarinet [no obj] notes produced by tonguing
2 [+ obj] : to touch or lick something with your tongue ▪ tongue a cigarette tongue–and–groove adj : joining pieces of wood together by having a long, raised part (called a tongue) on the edge of one board that fits into a long cut (called a groove) on the edge of another board ▪ tongue-and-groove flooring

tongued /ˈtʌŋd/ adj : having a particular way or quality of speaking — used in combination ▪ smooth-tongued — see also SHARP-TONGUED, SILVER-TONGUED tongue depressor noun, pl ~ -sors [count] US : a thin piece of wood that is rounded at both ends and that a doctor uses to press down on a patient's tongue when looking in the patient's throat — called also (Brit) spatula tongue in cheek adv : in a way that is not serious and that is meant to be funny ▪ The whole interview was done tongue in cheek.

– tongue–in–cheek adj ▪ a tongue-in-cheek comment ▪ The movie is half serious and half tongue-in-cheek.

tongue–lash•ing noun, pl -ings [count] informal : an occurrence in which someone speaks in a very angry and critical way to someone who has done something wrong : a severe scolding ▪ She gave him quite a tongue-lashing when he failed to file the papers on time.

tongue–tied /ˈtʌŋˌtaɪd/ adj : unable to speak because you are nervous or shy ▪ She became tongue-tied whenever he was around.

tongue twister noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a word, name, phrase, or sentence that is hard to say ▪ Her last name is a real tongue twister.

ton•ic /ˈtɑːnɪk/ noun, pl -ics
1 [count, noncount] : a type of water that has bubbles in it, has a bitter taste, and is often used in alcoholic drinks ▪ gin and tonic — called also tonic water
2 [count] a : something that makes you feel healthier and more relaxed — usually singular ▪ A weekend in the mountains was always a tonic for him. ▪ To her, classical music is a tonic. b : a medicine that brings you back to a normal physical or mental condition ▪ an herbal tonic c somewhat old-fashioned : a liquid that is used on your hair to make it healthier ▪ a hair tonic
3 [count] music : the main note of a musical key

[1]to•night /təˈnaɪt/ noun [noncount] : this night or the night following this day ▪ Tonight will be rainy. ▪ Tonight's party should be fun. ▪ He is staying until tonight.

[2]tonight adv : on this night or on the night following this day ▪ It is cold tonight. ▪ This afternoon I'm busy, but tonight I'm free. ▪ He's leaving tonight.

ton•nage /ˈtʌnɪʤ/ noun, pl -nag•es [count, noncount]
1 : the size of a ship or the total weight that it carries in tons
2 : the total weight or amount of something in tons tonne /ˈtʌn/ noun, pl tonnes [count] : METRIC TON

ton•sil /ˈtɑːnsəl/ noun, pl -sils [count] : either one of the pair of round, soft parts on the inside of your throat ▪ He had his tonsils out [=had an operation to remove his tonsils] when he was 10.

ton•sil•lec•to•my /ˌtɑːnsəˈlɛktəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] medical : an operation to remove a person's tonsils ▪ The surgeon performed a tonsillectomy.

ton•sil•li•tis /ˌtɑːnsəˈlaɪtɪs/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which a person's tonsils are painful and swollen ton•sure /ˈtɑːnʃɚ/ noun, pl -sures [count] : a round, shaved area on the top of a priest's or monk's head – ton•sured /ˈtɑːnʃɚd/ adj ▪ a tonsured monk tony /ˈtoʊni/ adj ton•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US, informal : very expensive and fashionable ▪ tony private schools ▪ a tony restaurant/hotel

To•ny /ˈtoʊni/ noun, pl -nys [count] : an award given every year in New York City for the best plays, actors, directors, etc., in the theater ▪ She won a Tony (award) for her performance in the play.

too /ˈtuː/ adv
1 usually used at the end of a sentence or clause : in addition : ALSO ▪ We are selling the house and the furniture too. ▪ He saw something, and she saw it too. ▪ "I'm hungry." "Me too." ▪ I want to go too! ▪ My new girlfriend is funny and pretty—and rich too. [=besides] — often used for emphasis ▪ He lost his job—and right after he bought a house too. ▪ We decided not to go out that night. And it was a good thing too, because we had a big snowstorm. ▪ He finally proposed to her. It's about time too.
2 always used before an adjective or adverb : more than what is wanted, needed, acceptable, possible, etc. ▪ The soup is too hot. ▪ The offer was too good to refuse. ▪ This shirt is way/much too big for me. ▪ I'm too old for rock concerts. = I'm too old to go to rock concerts. ▪ She is much/far too young to be watching this movie. ▪ Thank you for your donation. You are too kind. [=you are very kind] ▪ You gave me too many cards. ▪ I have too much to do. ▪ He works much too hard. ▪ You work too slowly. ▪ Slow down. You're talking too fast. ▪ Don't stay too long. ▪ It's too late to do anything about it now. ▪ Her efforts to improve her grade were too little, too late. [=her efforts were not enough and not soon enough to make a difference] ▪ She knew all/only too well [=unfortunately, she knew very well] what the punishment would be. ▪ This kind of mistake happens all too often. [=happens more often than it should] — see also too bad at [1]BAD, too much at [1]MUCH
3 always used before an adjective or adverb : to a high degree or extent : very or extremely — used in negative statements ▪ I'm not too [=so] sure that he's right. [=I think he may be wrong] ▪ The climb up the mountain was not too hard. ▪ The students didn't seem too interested. ▪ She's not doing too well. ▪ He doesn't seem too upset. ▪ It is not too cold outside. ▪ He was none too pleased [=he was not pleased] to hear that I didn't do what he asked.
4 chiefly US, informal : most certainly ▪ "You're not strong enough to lift that box." "I am too." [=I am so; yes, I am] ▪ "I didn't do it." "You did too." [=yes, you did (do it)]

Do not confuse too with to or two.

took past tense of [1]TAKE

[1]tool /ˈtuːl/ noun, pl tools [count]
1 : something (such as a hammer, saw, shovel, etc.) that you hold in your hand and use for a particular task ▪ carpentry/garden tools ▪ power tools [=tools that use electricity] ▪ I don't have the right tools to fix the engine. — see also HAND TOOL, MACHINE TOOL synonyms see [1]IMPLEMENT
2 a : something that is used to do a job or activity ▪ Words are a writer's tools. b : something that helps to get or achieve something ▪ Words are tools for communication. ▪ A book's cover can be a great marketing tool. ▪ The Internet has become an important research tool. ▪ He has the tools [=natural skills] to be a great pitcher.
3 disapproving a : someone or something that is used or controlled by another person or group — often + of ▪ a politician who is just a tool of special interests ▪ He claims the government has become a tool of giant corporations. b informal : a foolish person who can easily be used or tricked by others ▪ He's such a tool.
4 informal + impolite : a man's penis tools of the/your trade see [1]TRADE

[2]tool verb tools; tooled; tool•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] US, informal : to drive or ride in a vehicle ▪ We tooled along/up/down the highway. ▪ I tooled around (town) all day.
2 [+ obj] : to shape, form, or finish (something) with a tool ▪ He tooled a design on the leather belt. ▪ a belt made of tooled leather tool up [phrasal verb] tool (something) up or tool up (something) : to provide (a factory) with machines and tools for producing something ▪ The factory was not tooled up for this type of production.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

tool•bar /ˈtuːlˌbɑɚ/ noun, pl -bars [count] : a row of icons on a computer screen that allow you to do various things when you are using a particular program — see picture at COMPUTER; compare TASKBAR tool•box /ˈtuːlˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a box for storing or carrying tools — see picture at CARPENTRY tool kit noun, pl ~ kits [count] : a set of tools ▪ A pair of pliers is a good thing to have in your tool kit.

tool•mak•er /ˈtuːlˌmeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that makes tools ▪ The company is a leading toolmaker.
– tool•mak•ing /ˈtuːlˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] tool•shed /ˈtuːlˌʃɛd/ noun, pl -sheds [count] : a small building for storing tools — see picture at GARDENING

toon•ie /ˈtuːni/ noun, pl -nies [count] Canada : a coin that is worth two Canadian dollars toot /ˈtuːt/ verb toots; toot•ed; toot•ing

1 [no obj] : to make a short, high sound with a horn or whistle ▪ She tooted [=honked] at me as she drove past. ▪ The horn tooted.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a horn or whistle) to make a short high sound ▪ The driver tooted [=honked] his horn angrily. ▪ The referee tooted [=blew] his whistle.
toot your own horn see ¹HORN – toot noun, pl toots [count] ▪ I heard the toot of a horn. ▪ She gave the horn a toot. [=she tooted the horn]

tooth /ˈtuːθ/ noun, pl teeth /ˈtiːθ/
1 [count] : one of the hard white objects inside the mouth that are used for biting and chewing ▪ The dentist will have to pull that tooth. ▪ You should brush/clean your teeth every morning and night. ▪ She clenched her teeth in anger. ▪ He has a set of false teeth. ▪ a loose tooth ▪ tooth decay ▪ She sank her teeth into [=bit] the apple. — see picture at MOUTH; see also BABY TOOTH, BUCK TEETH, EYETOOTH, MILK TOOTH, SWEET TOOTH, WISDOM TOOTH
2 [count] : a sharp or pointed object that sticks out of something and is part of a row of similar objects ▪ the teeth of a saw/comb
3 teeth [plural] : the power that makes something effective ▪ drug laws with teeth ▪ The labor union showed that it has teeth.
a kick in the teeth see ²KICK an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth see ¹EYE by the skin of your teeth see ¹SKIN cut a tooth, cut your teeth see ¹CUT fly in the teeth of see ¹FLY get/take the bit between your teeth see ²BIT get your teeth into or chiefly US sink your teeth into : to become fully involved in (something, such as a new activity) : to do or deal with (something) with a lot of energy, interest, etc. ▪ He finally has a project he can get his teeth into.
grit your teeth see ²GRIT in the teeth of 1 or into the teeth of : directly against (a strong wind, storm, etc.) ▪ They sailed in/into the teeth of the wind. 2 : despite (something) ▪ A shopping mall was built in the teeth of fierce opposition.
like pulling teeth — used to say that something is very difficult and frustrating ▪ Getting him to make a decision is like pulling teeth. [=it is very hard to get him to make a decision] long in the tooth informal : no longer young : OLD ▪ Isn't she a little long in the tooth for those kinds of antics?
set your teeth on edge ✧ If a sound, taste, etc., sets your teeth on edge, it makes your body feel tense or uncomfortable. ▪ That awful squeaking is enough to set my teeth on edge!
tooth and nail : with a lot of effort and determination ▪ They fought tooth and nail.
to the teeth : fully or completely ▪ The men were armed to the teeth. [=the men had a lot of weapons]

tooth•ache /ˈtuːθˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : pain in or near a tooth [count] He has a toothache. [noncount] (Brit) He's got toothache.

tooth•brush /ˈtuːθˌbrʌʃ/ noun, pl -brush•es [count] : a brush for cleaning your teeth — see picture at GROOMING toothed /ˈtuːθt/ adj : having teeth ▪ a toothed whale : having teeth of a specified kind — often used in combination ▪ buck-toothed ▪ gap-toothed

tooth fairy noun
the tooth fairy : an imaginary creature who is supposed to leave money for children while they sleep in exchange for a tooth that has come out

tooth•less /ˈtuːθləs/ adj
1 : having or showing no teeth ▪ a toothless whale ▪ a toothless smile ▪ He is completely toothless.
2 : not effective or powerful ▪ toothless legislation tooth•paste /ˈtuːθˌpeɪst/ noun [noncount] : a substance that is used for cleaning teeth ▪ a tube of toothpaste — see picture at GROOMING

tooth•pick /ˈtuːθˌpɪk/ noun, pl -picks [count] : a short, pointed stick used for removing small pieces of food from between your teeth tooth•some /ˈtuːθsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasing taste ▪ toothsome [=(more commonly) tasty, delicious] pies toothy /ˈtuːθi/ adj tooth•i•er; -est : having or showing many teeth ▪ a toothy mouth/grin/smile – tooth•i•ly /ˈtuːθəli/ adv ▪ She smiled toothily.

too•tle /ˈtuːtl/ verb too•tles; too•tled; too•tling Brit, informal 1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to drive or move slowly ▪ We tootled along the highway. ▪ I tootled around (town) all day.
2 : to play a series of notes on a flute, horn, etc., by blowing into it [no obj] He tootled on the flute. [+ obj] He tootled his flute.

toots /ˈtʊts/ noun [noncount] US slang, old-fashioned — used to address a woman or girl ▪ How are you, toots? ▪ (impolite) Hey, toots—get out of the way! ✧ Toots is often used in a joking way but may be considered offensive when you use it to address a woman you do not know well.

toot•sy also toot•sie /ˈtʊtsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] informal : FOOT ▪ She was using a blanket to keep her tootsies warm.

¹top /ˈtɑːp/ noun, pl tops
1 [count] : the highest part, point, or level of something ▪ The tops of the walls are painted and the bottoms are covered in wood paneling. — usually singular ▪ He was calling down from the top of the stairs. ▪ Please write your name on the top of the page. ▪ She climbed to the top of the mountain. ▪ She had a scratch on the top of her foot. ▪ He filled the glass to the top.
2 [count] : an upper surface or edge of something ▪ a table with a glass top — see also COOKTOP, COUNTERTOP, DESKTOP, TABLETOP
3 [count] : something that covers the upper part or opening of something ▪ I'm looking for a pen with a red top. [=cap] ▪ She took the top [=lid] off the jar. ▪ The box's top had been removed. ▪ I hate it when you leave the top off the toothpaste!
4 [noncount] : the highest position in rank, success, or importance ▪ He is at the top of his profession. ▪ The company's new CEO started at the bottom and worked her way to the top. ▪ employees at the top of the pay scale ▪ The team is at the top of the league. ▪ He graduated at the top of his/the class. [=his grades were among the highest in his class] ▪ The order came straight from the top. [=from the person with the most authority or power] ▪ Studying for the test is on the top of my list. [=it is the first and most important thing that I need to do]
5 [count] : a piece of clothing that is worn on the upper part of your body ▪ She was wearing a blue silk top and black pants. ▪ a bikini top — see also TANK TOP
6 [noncount] informal : the beginning ▪ We'll have another news update for you at the top of the hour. [=at the start of the next hour] ▪ Let's rehearse the scene from the top. ▪ OK, everybody. Let's take it from the top. [=start from the beginning of a scene, song, etc.]
7 [noncount] : the first half of an inning in baseball ▪ the top of the sixth inning
8 [noncount] chiefly Brit : the part of something (such as a street) that is farthest away ▪ Try the shop at the top of the road.
9 [noncount] chiefly Brit : the highest gear of a vehicle ▪ She shifted into top once she got on the highway.
at the top of the heap see ¹HEAP at the top of the pile see ¹PILE at the top of your voice/lungs : in the loudest way possible ▪ She sang at the top of her voice. ▪ They were shouting at the top of their lungs.
blow your top see ¹BLOW come out on top : to win a competition, argument, etc. ▪ He's confident that he'll come out on top when all the votes have been counted.
from top to bottom : in a very thorough way ▪ We cleaned/searched the house from top to bottom.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

from top to toe : from your head to your feet ▪ They were covered from top to toe [=(more commonly) from head to toe] in mud.

off the top of your head informal : immediately by thinking quickly about something ▪ Off the top of my head, I can think of three people who might be interested. ▪ I can't remember her name off the top of my head.

on top 1 : on the highest part or surface of something ▪ He gave us vanilla ice cream with chocolate sauce on top. ▪ We finished decorating our Christmas tree by putting a star on top. ▪ She picked the card on top. 2 chiefly Brit : winning a game or competition ▪ The team was on top [=in front, ahead] after the first half. — see also COME OUT ON TOP (above) on top of 1 : on the highest or upper part of (something or someone) ▪ The house sits on top of a hill. ▪ Put the card back on top of the deck. ▪ Books and papers were piled on top of each other. ▪ I fell to the ground and the dog jumped on top of me. 2 : in control of (something) : doing the things that are needed to deal with (something) ▪ You can count on them to be on top of things when problems develop. ▪ "Can you get this done by next week?" "Don't worry. I'm on top of it." ▪ She's not on top of her game this morning. [=she is not performing well this morning] 3 : aware of what is happening in (a particular area of activity) ▪ She tries to keep/stay on top of current events. 4 : very close to or near (someone or something) ▪ The deadline was on top of them before they knew it. ▪ The houses are built right on top of each other. 5 : in addition to (something) ▪ You owe me $20, and that's on top of the $40 you owe me from earlier. ▪ On top of everything else, he lost his job. 6 ✧ In British English, if something gets on top of you, it becomes too difficult for you to handle or deal with. ▪ Planning their wedding was starting to get on top of them.

on top of the world informal : in a very successful or happy state ▪ I had just gotten married and felt like I was on top of the world.

over the top informal : beyond what is expected, usual, normal, or appropriate : very wild or strange often in an amusing way ▪ His performances are always over the top. [=(Brit) OTT]

top of the tree Brit, informal : the most powerful or most successful position in a profession, organization, etc. ▪ She is still (at/on the) top of the tree in her field. [=she's still at the top in her field]

– compare [3]TOP; see also BIG TOP

[2]top adj, usually used before a noun

1 : located at the highest part or position ▪ the top drawer/shelf ▪ They live on the top floor of the building. ▪ That's my husband in the top [=upper] right-hand corner of the picture.

2 : highest in rank, success, or importance ▪ the top news story of the day ▪ the country's top three car manufacturers ▪ He is among the top pitchers of the league. ▪ She is the top student in her class. = (chiefly Brit) She is top in her class. ▪ Safety is our top concern/priority.

3 : highest in quality, amount, or degree ▪ The winner showed top form. ▪ Houses are selling at top prices. ▪ What is the car's top speed?

[3]top noun, pl tops [count] : a child's toy that can be made to spin very quickly ▪ spinning like a top — compare [1]TOP

[4]top verb tops; topped; top•ping [+ obj]

1 : to be or become more than (a particular amount) ▪ Album sales have already topped [=exceeded] 500,000. ▪ Donations are expected to top $1,000,000 by the end of the month.

2 : to be in the highest position on (a list) because of success ▪ The song has topped the charts for seven weeks. ▪ Who tops the list this year for Hollywood's highest-paid actor? [=who is the highest-paid actor in Hollywood this year?]

3 : to do or be better than (someone or something) ▪ He topped [=surpassed] his previous record. ▪ They topped the other company's offer. ▪ She tops everyone else on the team. ▪ Being at the beach sure tops [=beats] working in the office. ▪ I've seen some pretty weird things in my life—but that tops everything!

4 : to cover or form the top of (something) ▪ A fresh layer of snow topped the mountains. — often + with ▪ She topped the pizza with cheese and mushrooms. — often used as (be) topped ▪ a cup of hot chocolate topped (off) with whip cream ▪ The cathedral was topped (off/out) with a spire.

5 : to cut off the top of (something) ▪ He topped the tree/carrots.

6 literary : to reach the top of (something) ▪ When we topped the hill, we saw a small village in the valley.

top off [phrasal verb] top off (something) or top (something) off 1 : to end (something) usually in an exciting or impressive way ▪ We topped off dinner with dessert and coffee. ▪ The band topped off the show with an extended version of their classic hit. ▪ The victory tops off the coach's extremely successful career. 2 US : to fill (something) completely with a liquid ▪ I added a little more coffee to top off the mug. ▪ He stopped at the gas station to top off [=(Brit) top up] the car's tank. [=to fill the car's tank with gas] top out [phrasal verb] : to reach the highest amount or level and stop increasing — often + at ▪ Interest rates are expected to top out at 15 percent.

top up [phrasal verb] top up (something) or top (something) up Brit 1 : to fill (something) completely with a liquid ▪ He topped up [=(US) topped off] (the glasses of) his guests. 2 : to bring (something) to the full or desired amount ▪ The store keeps its fruits and vegetables topped up. ▪ She works part-time to top up her income. — see also TOP-UP top yourself Brit, informal : to kill yourself to top it (all) off (US) or chiefly Brit to top it all — used to indicate a final thing that happened that was even better, worse, etc., than what happened before ▪ The car was filthy when she returned it to me, and to top it (all) off, there was almost no gas left in the tank.

to•paz /ˈtoʊˌpæz/ noun, pl -paz•es [count, noncount] : a clear yellow to brownish-yellow stone that is used as a jewel — see color picture on page C11 top banana noun, pl ~ -nanas [count] informal : the most important or powerful person in a group or organization ▪ He's the mob's top banana.

top brass noun [noncount] informal : BRASS 4 ▪ Navy top brass met earlier today. — often used with the ▪ The (company) top brass have/has decided that no action is necessary.

top•coat /ˈtɑːpˌkoʊt/ noun, pl -coats [count]

1 somewhat old-fashioned : a long coat the is worn in cold weather : OVERCOAT

2 : the last layer of paint that is put on a surface

top dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] informal : a person or group that has the most power or success ▪ the industry's top dogs top dollar noun [noncount] : the highest amount of money that something costs or that someone earns — often + for ▪ She paid top dollar for the tickets. [=she paid a lot of money for the tickets] ▪ They charge/get top dollar for their services.

top–down /ˈtɑːpˈdaʊn/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : controlled or directed from the highest levels ▪ top-down management — opposite BOTTOM-UP

2 : starting with a general idea and having details gradually added ▪ top-down programming/design to•pee or to•pi /toʊˈpiː, Brit ˈtəʊˌpiː/ noun, pl -pees or -pis [count] : a hard, light hat that is worn in hot countries to protect your head from the sun

top–end /ˈtɑːpˈɛnd/ adj, chiefly Brit : of the highest price and quality ▪ top-end [=(US) high-end] homes/restaurants top• ight /ˈtɑːpˈflaɪt/ adj, always used before a noun : of the highest quality : EXCELLENT ▪ a topflight staff/performance

Top 40 noun [plural] : the forty best-selling music recordings for a particular period of time ▪ She never had a song in the Top 40.

– Top 40 adj ▪ a Top 40 record

top gear noun [noncount] Brit

1 : a vehicle's highest gear ▪ She got to the highway and shifted into top gear. [=(US) high gear]

2 : a state of great or intense activity ▪ The project is now in top gear. [=(US) high gear] ▪ The party hit top gear when the guest of honour arrived.

top gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] US, informal

1 : a person who is the best at a particular activity ▪ He's the team's top gun. ▪ The company has its top guns handling the lawsuit.

2 : a powerful or important person top hat noun, pl ~ hats [count] : a tall, usually black hat that is worn by men on very formal occasions ▪ He wore a top hat and tails.

top–heavy /ˈtɑːpˌhɛvi/ adj

1 : likely to fall over because the top part is too large and heavy for the bottom part ▪ a top-heavy truck

2 : having too many people whose job is to manage workers and not enough ordinary workers ▪ a top-heavy corporation

topi variant spelling of TOPEE

to•pi•ary /ˈtoʊpiˌeri, Brit ˈtəʊpiəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

1 [noncount] : plants (such as trees and bushes) that are cut or grown into decorative shapes ▪ a topiary garden; also : the art of shaping plants in this way
2 [count] : a plant that is cut or grown into a decorative shape ▪ a garden featuring topiaries and fountains top•ic /ˈtɑːpɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : someone or something that people talk or write about : SUBJECT ▪ He is comfortable discussing a wide range of topics. ▪ a popular/hot topic ▪ topics such as health and fitness — often + of ▪ What is the topic of your speech? ▪ a book on the topic of language ▪ a topic of debate/discussion ▪ The new boss has been the main topic of conversation. — see also SUBTOPIC

top•i•cal /ˈtɑːpɪkəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : relating to current news or events : dealing with things that are important, popular, etc., right now ▪ topical issues/themes ▪ a topical reference ▪ topical humor
2 medical : made to be put on the skin ▪ topical lotions/creams ▪ a topical drug/treatment – top•i•cal•ly /ˈtɑːpɪkli/ adv ▪ Apply the medicine topically.
– top•i•cal•i•ty /ˌtɑːpəˈkæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the topicality of his humor

top•less /ˈtɑːpləs/ adj
1 of a woman : wearing no clothing on the upper body ▪ topless dancers ▪ She likes to go topless on the beach.
2 : done while not wearing any clothing on the upper body ▪ topless sunbathing
3 : having or allowing topless women ▪ a topless beach ▪ topless bars [=bars with topless waitresses, dancers, etc.]
– topless adv ▪ pose/dance/sunbathe topless

top–level adj, always used before a noun
1 : highest in level, position, or rank ▪ top-level executives
2 : involving people of the highest level, position, or rank ▪ a top-level competition/meeting

top•most /ˈtɑːpˌmoʊst/ adj, always used before a noun : highest in position or importance ▪ He was standing on the topmost step. ▪ the country's topmost leaders top–notch /ˈtɑːpˈnɑːʧ/ adj, informal : of the best quality ▪ The hotel offers top-notch service. ▪ Their food is top-notch. [=excellent]

top–of–the–line (US) or Brit top–of–the–range adj : of the best quality ▪ top-of-the-line cameras to•pog•ra•phy /təˈpɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] technical 1 : the art or science of making maps that show the height, shape, etc., of the land in a particular area

2 : the features (such as mountains and rivers) in an area of land — often + of ▪ The map shows the topography of the island.
– to•pog•ra•pher /təˈpɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] – to•po•graph•ic /ˌtɑːpəˈgræfɪk/ or to•po•graph•i•cal /ˌtɑːpəˈgræfɪkəl/ adj ▪ a topographic map – to•po•graph•i•cal•ly /ˌtɑːpəˈgræfɪkli/ adv ▪ topographically similar areas top•per /ˈtɑːpə/ noun, pl -pers informal 1 [count] : something that is placed on top of something else ▪ a Christmas tree topper ▪ (chiefly US) salad/ice-cream/pizza toppers [=toppings]

2 [count] : TOP HAT
3 [count] : something that is highest on a list ▪ Their new song soon became a chart topper.
4 the topper US : the thing that is better, worse, etc., than everything before it ▪ The whole day was bad, but the topper came when our car broke down.

top•ping /ˈtɑːpɪŋ/ noun, pl -pings : a food that is added to the top of another food [count] What toppings do you want on the pizza? [noncount] an ice-cream sundae with whipped-cream topping

top•ple /ˈtɑːpəl/ verb top•ples; top•pled; top•pling
1 : to cause (something) to become unsteady and fall [+ obj] The strong winds toppled many trees. ▪ The earthquake toppled the buildings. [no obj] The tree toppled into the river. — often + over ▪ The pile of books toppled over.
2 [+ obj] a : to remove (a government or a leader) from power : OVERTHROW ▪ The rebels tried to topple the dictator. b US : to win a victory over (someone or something) in a war, contest, etc. ▪ The team was toppled [=beaten, defeated] in the first round. ▪ The phone company has toppled its local competition.

top–ranking adj, always used before a noun : having the highest rank : most important, powerful, or successful ▪ top-ranking officials/students ▪ It's one of the top-ranking schools in the country.

[1]tops /ˈtɑːps/ adj, not used before a noun, informal : highest in quality, ability, popularity, or importance ▪ He is tops in his field. ▪ You're tops in my book!

[2]tops adv, informal : at the very most ▪ It should only cost $50, tops. [=the most it should cost is $50] ▪ It takes me 15 minutes tops to do the dishes.

top secret adj : kept completely secret by high government officials ▪ top secret weapons/documents ▪ The mission is top secret.

top–shelf /ˈtɑːpˈʃɛlf/ adj : of the best quality ▪ top-shelf liquors ▪ a top-shelf player top•side /ˈtɑːpˈsaɪd/ adv : on or onto the deck of a ship ▪ Let's go topside.

top•soil /ˈtɑːpˌsoʃəl/ noun [noncount] : the upper layer of soil in which plants have most of their roots ▪ rich, well-fertilized topsoil top•spin /ˈtɑːpˌspɪn/ noun [noncount] : a forward spinning motion of a ball ▪ (tennis) She puts a lot of topspin on her serves to make them harder to return.

top•sy–tur•vy /ˌtɑːpsiˈtəvi/ adv : in or into great disorder or confusion ▪ Her life was turned topsy-turvy when her husband left her.
– topsy–turvy adj ▪ this topsy-turvy world we live in top–up /ˈtɑːpˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] Brit

1 : an amount of liquid that is added to make something full 2 : a payment that is made to bring an amount of money to a certain level ▪ He got a top-up on his pension.

tor /ˈtoə/ noun, pl tors [count] chiefly Brit : a high, rocky hill

To•rah /ˈtorə/ noun
the Torah 1 : the wisdom and law contained in Jewish sacred writings and oral tradition 2 : the first five books of the Jewish Bible that are used in a synagogue for religious services — compare TALMUD

[1]torch /ˈtoəʧ/ noun, pl torch•es [count]
1 : a long stick with material at one end that burns brightly ▪ the Olympic torch — often used figuratively ▪ the torch of truth/hope
2 : BLOWTORCH
3 Brit : FLASHLIGHT
carry a torch : to continue to have romantic feelings for someone who does not love you — usually + for ▪ Is she still carrying a torch for him after all this time?
carry the torch : to support or promote a cause in an enthusiastic way ▪ His children continue to carry the torch [=crusade] for justice.
pass the torch chiefly US ✧ If you pass the torch (on) or pass on the torch, you give your job, duties, etc., to another person. ▪ He is retiring and passing the torch on to his successor. ▪ She says she's ready to pass the torch.

[2]torch verb torches; torched; torch•ing [+ obj] : to set fire to (something, such as a building) deliberately : to cause (something) to burn ▪ An arsonist torched the building.

torch•bear•er /ˈtoəʧˌberə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : someone who carries a torch at the head of a group of people
2 : someone who leads a campaign, movement, etc. ▪ He became the torchbearer for civil rights.

torch•light /ˈtoəʧˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount]
1 : the light from a burning torch ▪ The men worked by torchlight. ▪ a torchlight parade/procession
2 Brit : the light from a flashlight torch singer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a singer of torch songs torch song noun, pl ~ songs [count] : a very sad or sentimental song about love and romance

tore past tense of [1]TEAR to•re•a•dor /ˈtorijəˌdoə/ noun, pl -dors [count] : someone who fights bulls in a bullfight : BULLFIGHTER to•re•ro /təˈrerou/ noun, pl -ros [count] : TOREADOR

[1]tor•ment /ˈtoəˌmɛnt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : extreme physical or mental pain ▪ She lived in torment [=anguish] for the rest of her life. ▪ No one could understand his inner torment. ▪ After years of torment, she left her husband.
2 [count] : something that causes extreme physical or mental pain ▪ The mosquitoes were a constant torment.

[2]tor•ment /toəˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to feel extreme physical or mental pain ▪ Flies tormented the cattle. ▪ Not knowing where she was tormented him. ▪ Stop tormenting [=annoying, teasing] your sister! — often used as (be) tor-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

mented by ▪ He was tormented by thoughts of death. ▪ She was tormented by her classmates.
– tor•men•tor /toəˈmɛntə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ She tried to avoid her tormentors.

torn past participle of ¹TEAR

tor•na•do /toəˈneɪdoʊ/ noun, pl -does or -dos [count] : a violent and destructive storm in which powerful winds move around a central point ▪ in the path of a tornado ▪ a tornado warning tornado

¹tor•pe•do /toəˈpiːdoʊ/ noun, pl -does [count] : a bomb that is shaped like a tube and that is fired underwater ▪ The battleship was sunk by a torpedo fired by a submarine.

²torpedo verb -does; -doed; -do•ing [+ obj]
1 : to hit or sink (a ship) with a torpedo ▪ The submarine torpedoed the battleship.
2 somewhat informal : to destroy or stop (something) completely ▪ Her injury torpedoed her goal of competing in the Olympics. ▪ He torpedoed the plan.

tor•pid /ˈtoəpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing very little energy or movement : not active ▪ In winter, the frogs go into a torpid state. = The frogs become torpid. ▪ a torpid economy

tor•por /ˈtoəpə/ noun [singular] formal : a state of not being active and having very little energy ▪ The news aroused him from his torpor. ▪ fall/sink into (a state of) torpor

torque /ˈtoək/ noun [noncount] technical : a force that causes something to rotate ▪ An automobile engine delivers torque to the driveshaft.

tor•rent /ˈtorənt/ noun, pl -rents [count]
1 : a large amount of water that moves very quickly in one direction ▪ The storm turned the stream into a raging torrent. ▪ torrents of rain ▪ The rain came down in torrents.
2 : a large amount of something that is released suddenly — usually + of ▪ He responded with a torrent of criticism/abuse. ▪ The company receives torrents of e-mail every day.

tor•ren•tial /təˈrɛnʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun : coming in a large, fast stream ▪ torrential rains ▪ a torrential downpour ▪ The rain caused torrential flooding.

tor•rid /ˈtorəd/ adj
1 : very hot and usually dry ▪ a torrid summer ▪ torrid weather
2 : showing or expressing very strong feelings especially of sexual or romantic desire ▪ a torrid [=passionate] love affair
3 Brit : very difficult, uncomfortable, or unpleasant ▪ The team had a torrid time trying to score.

tor•sion /ˈtoəʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the twisting of something (such as a piece of metal)

tor•so /ˈtoəsoʊ/ noun, pl -sos [count] : the main part of the human body not including the head, arms, and legs : TRUNK ▪ exercises that strengthen the/your torso

tort /ˈtoət/ noun, pl torts [count] law : an action that wrongly causes harm to someone but that is not a crime and that is dealt with in a civil court

torte /ˈtoət/ noun, pl tortes [count] : a type of cake that is made with many eggs and often nuts ▪ a chocolate torte

tor•tel•li•ni /ˌtoətəˈliːni/ noun, pl tortellini also tor•tel•li•nis [count] : pasta in the form of small, ring-shaped cases containing meat, cheese, etc. — see picture at PASTA tor•ti•lla /toəˈtiːjə/ noun, pl -llas [count] : a round, thin Mexican bread that is usually eaten hot with a filling of meat, cheese, etc.

tortilla chip noun, pl ~ chips [count] : a thin, hard piece of food (called a chip) that is made from corn and usually salted ▪ We had salsa and tortilla chips as an appetizer.

tor•toise /ˈtoətəs/ noun, pl -tois•es [count] : a kind of turtle that lives on land

tor•toise•shell /ˈtoətəˌʃɛl/ noun, pl -shells
1 [count, noncount] : the usually brown and yellow shell of a turtle that is used to make decorations
2 [count] : a cat with yellow, orange, white, and black fur
3 [count] : a usually brown and orange butterfly – tortoiseshell adj ▪ tortoiseshell glasses ▪ a tortoiseshell comb ▪ a tortoiseshell cat/butterfly

tor•tu•ous /ˈtoəʧəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having many twists and turns ▪ a tortuous path/route up the mountain
2 : complicated, long, and confusing ▪ a tortuous argument/explanation
– tor•tu•ous•ly adv ▪ The road winds tortuously up the mountain.

¹tor•ture /ˈtoəʧə/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of causing severe physical pain as a form of punishment or as a way to force someone to do or say something ▪ the torture of prisoners ▪ a torture chamber/device
2 : something that causes mental or physical suffering : a very painful or unpleasant experience ▪ Waiting is just torture for me. ▪ Listening to him can be torture.

²torture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to experience severe physical pain especially as a form of punishment or to force that person to do or say something ▪ The report revealed that prisoners had been repeatedly tortured.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel very worried, unhappy, etc. ▪ Don't torture yourself over the mistake.
– tor•tur•er /ˈtoəʧərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

tor•tur•ous /ˈtoəʧərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing great pain or suffering ▪ torturous hardships ▪ a torturous workout
– tor•tur•ous•ly adv

To•ry /ˈtori/ noun, pl -ries [count] informal : a member of the British Conservative Party ▪ He's a Tory.
– Tory adj ▪ the Tory Party

tosh /ˈtɑːʃ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : NONSENSE ▪ What a lot/load of tosh.

¹toss /ˈtɑːs/ verb toss•es; tossed; toss•ing
1 [+ obj] : to throw (something) with a quick, light motion ▪ I tossed the ball to him. = I tossed him the ball. ▪ She tossed the ball high in/into the air. ▪ She tossed the paper at/into the recycling bin. ▪ He tossed his dirty socks onto the floor.
2 [+ obj] : to move or lift (something, such as a part of your body) quickly or suddenly ▪ He tossed his head back. ▪ She tossed her hair and smiled.
3 : to move (something) back and forth or up and down [+ obj] Waves tossed the ship about. [no obj] The ship tossed on the waves.
4 [+ obj] : to stir or mix (something) lightly ▪ Gently toss the salad. ▪ Toss the vegetables with olive oil.
5 : to cause (something) to turn over by throwing it into the air [+ obj] toss a coin ▪ toss [=flip] a pancake [no obj] "Who's going to put out the trash?" "Let's toss for it." [=let's toss a coin to decide] toss and turn : to move about and turn over in bed because you are unable to sleep ▪ She was tossing and turning all night.
toss back [phrasal verb] toss back (something) or toss (something) back informal : to drink (something) quickly ▪ He tossed back a shot of whiskey.
toss in [phrasal verb] toss in (something) or toss (something) in : to add (something) to what you are selling without asking for more money ▪ I'll even toss in [=throw in] an upgrade for free.
toss off [phrasal verb] 1 toss (something) off or toss off (something) informal a : to produce (something) quickly and without much effort ▪ He tossed off a few lines of poetry. b : to drink (something) quickly ▪ He tossed off a shot of whiskey. 2 toss (someone) off Brit, informal + impolite : MASTURBATE toss out [phrasal verb] US 1 toss (something) out or toss out (something) a : to put (something that is no longer useful or wanted) in a trash can, garbage can, etc. : to throw (something) out ▪ It's time to toss out those bananas. ▪ Did you toss the newspapers out already? b : to refuse to accept or consider (something) ▪ His testimony was tossed out by the judge. c : to mention (something) as a possible thing to be done, thought about, etc. : SUGGEST ▪ She tossed out a couple of ideas for improving the company's Web site. 2 toss (someone) out or toss out (someone) : to force (someone) to leave a place ▪ They tossed him out [=threw him out] of the bar after he started a fight.
toss your hat in/into the ring see HAT

²toss noun, pl tosses [count]
1 : the act of throwing or tossing something with a quick, light motion ▪ a bouquet toss ▪ He gave the salad a quick toss. [=he tossed the salad] — see also RING TOSS
2 : the act of throwing a coin up into the air in order to make a decision about something based on which side of the coin is shown after it lands ▪ They decided what to do by a

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

coin toss. ▪ the toss of a coin ▪ She won the toss.
3 : the act of moving your head suddenly upward and backward ▪ She threw her hair back with a toss of her head.
argue the toss chiefly Brit, informal : to argue or disagree about something that is not important, that cannot be changed, etc.
not give a toss Brit, informal : to not care at all about something ▪ He does*n't give a toss* about our problems.

toss•er /ˈtɑːsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit slang : a stupid or unpleasant person toss–up /ˈtɑːsˌʌp/ noun [singular] : a situation in which there is no clear right choice or in which what will happen is not known ▪ The election is a toss-up.

[1]tot /ˈtɑːt/ noun, pl tots [count]
1 informal : a young child ▪ cute little tots
2 Brit : a small amount of a strong alcoholic drink ▪ a tot of rum

[2]tot verb tots; tot•ted; tot•ting
tot up [phrasal verb] tot (something) up or tot up (something) Brit, informal : to add numbers together to find out the total ▪ He totted up [=totaled] the bill.

[1]to•tal /ˈtoʊtl/ adj
1 : complete or absolute ▪ total [=utter, sheer] chaos/destruction/ruin ▪ total darkness/freedom ▪ It's a total loss. ▪ a total lack of support/sympathy/understanding ▪ a total eclipse of the sun ▪ He demanded total control of/over the project. ▪ a total stranger
2 : after everything or everyone is counted ▪ What was the total amount of the bill? ▪ the total annual budget/cost/sales ▪ the total number of words ▪ The country has a total population of about 100 million.

[2]total noun, pl -tals [count] : the number or amount of everything counted : SUM ▪ The total is 64. ▪ a total of 25 square miles — see also GRAND TOTAL, SUBTOTAL, SUM TOTAL

[3]total verb -tals; US -taled or Brit -talled; US -tal•ing or Brit -tal•ling [+ obj]
1 a : to produce (a total) when added together ▪ Donations totaled $120. b : to add numbers together to find out the total ▪ He carefully totaled the bill. — often + up ▪ He totaled up the bill.
2 US : to damage (something, such as a car) so badly that it is not worth repairing ▪ He totaled the car.

to•tal•i•tar•i•an /toʊˌtælәˈteriјn/ adj : controlling the people of a country in a very strict way with complete power that cannot be opposed ▪ a totalitarian regime/state – to•tal•i•tar•i•an•ism /toʊˌtælәˈteriјəˌnɪzәm/ noun [noncount]

to•tal•i•ty /toʊˈtæləti/ noun [noncount] : the whole or entire amount of something ▪ the totality of human knowledge in its/their totality : with nothing left out ▪ The exhibit must be viewed in its totality to be properly understood.

to•tal•ly /ˈtoʊtli/ adv : completely or entirely ▪ I'm totally against it. ▪ He was totally naked. ▪ totally committed/free/surprised ▪ That's a totally different issue. ▪ He's totally in control. ▪ a totally new method tote /ˈtoʊt/ verb totes; tot•ed; tot•ing [+ obj] : to carry (something) ▪ She's been toting that bag all day. ▪ a book-toting professor — often + around ▪ He's always toting tools around.

– tot•er /ˈtoʊtә/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ gun-toters

tote bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a large bag used for carrying things — see picture at BAG tote board /ˈtoʊtˌboәd/ noun, pl ~ boards [count] US : a large, electrically operated board at a racetrack that shows the odds for a race, the results of a race, etc.

to•tem /ˈtoʊtәm/ noun, pl -tems [count]
1 a : something (such as an animal or plant) that is the symbol for a family, tribe, etc., especially among Native Americans b : a usually carved or painted figure that represents such a symbol 2 : a person or thing that represents an idea ▪ Private jets are a totem of success among extremely wealthy people.
– to•tem•ic /toʊˈtɛmɪk/ adj ▪ totemic images totem pole noun, pl ~ poles [count]

1 : a tall usually wooden pole that is carved and painted with symbols, figures, or masks which represent different Native American tribes
2 US, informal — used to describe someone's position or level in a company or organization ▪ She's rather low on the company's totem pole. [=she does not have an important position in the company] ▪ He knows that he is (the) low man on the totem pole. [=he has the lowest rank; he is the least important/powerful person]

tot•ter /ˈtɑːtә/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move or walk in a slow and unsteady way ▪ The child tottered across the room. ▪ He tottered away/off to bed.
2 : to become weak and likely to fail or collapse ▪ The economy is tottering. ▪ a tottering company

tou•can /ˈtuːˌkæn/ noun, pl -cans [count] : a tropical American bird that has bright feathers and a very large beak

[1]touch /ˈtʌʧ/ verb touch•es; touched; touch•ing
1 : to put your hand, fingers, etc., on someone or something [+ obj] Please do not touch the statue. ▪ Slowly bend forward and try to touch your toes. ▪ Stop touching your sister. ▪ He tried to touch the snake with a stick. [no obj] — usually used in negative statements ▪ You can look (at the statue) but don't touch!
2 : to be in contact with (something) — used to say that one thing is directly against another thing with no space between [+ obj] The top of the Christmas tree almost touches the ceiling. ▪ Sparks flew when the wires touched each other. [no obj] They were standing side-by-side with their shoulders touching. ▪ Sparks flew when the wires touched.
3 [+ obj] a : to change or move (something) — usually used in negative statements ▪ Don't touch anything before the police come. ▪ Your things haven't been touched while you were away. ▪ This room hasn't been touched in 20 years. b : to harm (someone or something) ▪ Their house burned to the ground, but the house next door wasn't touched by the fire. ▪ I won't let anyone touch you. = I won't let anyone touch a hair on your head.
4 [+ obj] a : to deal with or work on (something) ▪ I haven't touched my essay all week, and it's due this Friday! b : to become involved with (someone or something) ▪ He's a good player, but since he failed the drug test, no team will touch him. ▪ Everything she touches turns to gold. [=everything she is involved with becomes successful]
5 [+ obj] : to use (something) — usually used in negative statements ▪ She never touches [=drinks] alcohol. ▪ The dog hasn't touched [=eaten] its food. ▪ We haven't touched the money in our savings account. ▪ Alcohol? I never touch the stuff.
6 [+ obj] a : to affect or involve (someone) ▪ Air pollution is a matter that touches [=concerns] everyone. b : to affect the feelings of (someone) : to cause (someone) to feel an emotion (such as sympathy or gratitude) ▪ His neighbors' acts of kindness touched him deeply. ▪ She wants to touch her audience through her music. ▪ The story seemed to touch the hearts of the students. — see also TOUCHING
7 [+ obj] : to influence (something) ▪ As a teacher, she touched the lives of many young people.
8 [+ obj] : to be as good as (someone or something) — usually used in negative statements ▪ No one can touch her when it comes to songwriting. [=she is much better than everyone else as a songwriter] ▪ You can't touch her songwriting ability.
9 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to reach (a particular level or amount) ▪ The temperature outside was touching 38 degrees Celsius.
10 [+ obj] baseball : to get a hit off or score a run against (a pitcher) — usually + for ▪ He was touched for a run in the first inning. [=they scored a run off him in the first inning]
11 [+ obj] literary : to appear on (something) ▪ A smile touched her lips. [=she smiled slightly] not touch (someone or something) with a ten-foot pole (US) or Brit not touch (someone or something) with a bargepole informal : to refuse to go near or become involved with (someone or something) ▪ That investment is too risky. I would*n't touch it with a ten-foot pole*.
touch a chord see [2]CHORD touch all the bases or touch every base see [1]BASE touch a nerve see NERVE touch base see [1]BASE touch down [phrasal verb] 1 : to return to the ground or another surface after a flight : LAND ▪ The plane touched down at 3:15. 2 touch (the ball) down or touch down (the ball) rugby : to score by putting (the ball) on the ground behind an opponent's goal line ▪ He touched the ball down under the posts. — see also TOUCHDOWN touch for [phrasal verb] touch (someone) for (something) informal Brit : to persuade (someone) to give or lend you (an amount of money) ▪ He touched me for a tenner. — see also [1]TOUCH 10 (above) touch off [phrasal verb] touch off (something) or touch (something) off : to cause (something) to start suddenly ▪

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

What touched off the fire? ▪ The judge's verdict touched off riots throughout the city.

touch on/upon [phrasal verb] touch on/upon (something) 1 : to briefly talk or write about (something) : to mention (something) briefly ▪ The reports touched on many important points. ▪ She touches upon the issue in the article but never fully explains it. 2 : to come close to (something) : to almost be (something) ▪ Your actions touch on [=verge on] treason.

touch up [phrasal verb] 1 touch up (something) or touch (something) up : to improve (something) by making small changes or additions ▪ She touched up the photographs on the computer. 2 touch (someone) up or touch up (someone) Brit, informal : to touch (someone) in a sexual way ▪ He tried to touch her up [=feel her up] at the party.

touch wood see [1]WOOD touch your forelock see FORELOCK

[2]touch noun, pl touches

1 [count] : the act of touching someone or something — usually singular ▪ He felt a gentle touch on his shoulder. ▪ Fax machines allow you to send a document with/at the touch [=push] of a button. [=by touching/pushing a button]

2 [noncount] : the ability to be aware of something physical by touching it : the sense that allows you to feel physical things ▪ Blind since birth, she relies on her sense of touch to read braille. ▪ Sand the wood until it is smooth to the touch. [=until it feels smooth when you touch it] ▪ The plate was hot to the touch.

3 [singular] : the quality of a thing that is experienced by feeling or touching it ▪ the smooth touch [=feel] of silk

4 [count] : a small detail that is added to improve or complete something — usually + to ▪ He added the final touches to the letter and mailed it. ▪ The candles and light jazz music added a nice touch to their dinner together.

5 [singular] : a quality that can be seen in the way something is done ▪ The painting showed the touch of a master. ▪ Here at our hotel, we strive to provide service with a personal touch. ▪ This room needs a woman's/feminine touch. [=it needs a woman to help decorate it] ▪ He has a magic touch with animals. [=he is able to calm and control animals with unusual ease] — see also MIDAS TOUCH

6 [count] : an act of handling or controlling the ball in a sport (such as basketball, soccer, or American football) ▪ That was her first touch of the game.

7 [noncount] : the area outside of the lines that mark the long edges of the playing area in soccer or rugby ▪ The ball went into touch. ▪ The ball was thrown in by a player standing in touch.

a touch : to a small extent : SLIGHTLY ▪ She aimed a touch [=a bit, a little] too low and missed. ▪ Can you turn up the radio a touch more?

a touch of : a small amount of (something) : a hint or trace of (something) ▪ She noticed a touch of garlic in the sauce. ▪ I think I have a touch of the flu.

finishing touch see [1]FINISH in touch 1 : in a state in which people communicate with each other especially by calling or writing to each other ▪ We kept/stayed in touch after college. — often + with ▪ I'll be in touch with you [=I will call you, e-mail you, etc.] later this week. ▪ I have been trying to get in touch with her all day. 2 a : the state of being aware of what is happening, how a particular group of people feels, etc. — usually + with ▪ As a professor of biology, it is important to keep/stay in touch with the latest research. ▪ She is in touch with the voters and their needs. b : the state of being aware of a particular part of your character that is not easily noticed — usually + with ▪ He is in touch with his sensitive side. ▪ She meditates to get in touch with her inner self.

lose touch 1 : to stop communicating with each other : to no longer know what is happening in each other's lives ▪ They were friends in college, but then they moved to different cities and lost touch. — often + with ▪ She lost touch with her college roommate after graduation. 2 : to stop knowing what is happening, how a particular group of people feels, etc. — usually + with ▪ I read the newspaper every morning so that I don't completely lose touch with what's happening in the world. ▪ She seems to have lost touch with reality [=she believes things that are not true] and thinks that she can have everything she wants.

lose your touch : to no longer have the ability to do things that you were able to do successfully in the past ▪ His last album flopped; he seems to be losing his touch. ▪ I must have lost my touch; I can't get this camera to work anymore.

out of touch 1 : not communicating with each other ▪ I don't know if he still lives there. We've been out of touch for some time. 2 : in a state of not knowing what is happening, how a particular group of people feels, etc. ▪ I've been away from the business for several years and feel quite out of touch. — usually + with ▪ He is out of touch with the younger generation.

– see also COMMON TOUCH, SOFT TOUCH

touch and go adj, informal — used to describe a situation in which no one is sure what will happen and there is a chance that the result will be bad ▪ It was touch and go there for a while, but the patient survived.

touch•back /ˈtʌʧˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] American football : a situation in which the ball is put out of play behind the goal line after a kick or interception ✧ After a touchback, the team with the ball begins play on its own 20-yard line.

touch•down /ˈtʌʧˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs

1 [count] American football : a score that is made by carrying the ball over the opponent's goal line or by catching the ball while standing in the end zone ▪ He scored a touchdown. ▪ The quarterback threw a touchdown (pass) to the wide receiver. ▪ They won the game by a touchdown. [=by seven points] ✧ A touchdown is worth six points and is usually followed by a kick that is worth another point.

2 [count] rugby : the act of scoring points by putting the ball on the ground behind an opponent's goal line

3 [count, noncount] : the moment when an airplane or spacecraft touches the ground at the end of a flight ▪ What was the plane's speed at touchdown?

– see also touch down at [1]TOUCH

tou•ché /tuˈʃeɪ/ interj — used to admit that someone has made a clever or effective point in an argument touched /ˈtʌʧt/ adj, not used before a noun

1 : having a small amount of something — usually + with ▪ His hair was touched with gray.

2 [more ~; most ~] : having emotional feelings because you are grateful or pleased by what someone has done or said ▪ She was touched that he had come only to see her. ▪ We were very touched by their story.

3 informal + old-fashioned : slightly crazy ▪ He's a bit touched (in the head).

touch football noun [noncount] : a form of American football in which the player with the ball is not tackled but instead must stop when touched by an opponent touch•ing /ˈtʌʧɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a strong emotional effect : causing feelings of sadness or sympathy ▪ Their story was deeply/very touching. [=moving]

– touch•ing•ly adv

touch•line /ˈtʌʧˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : either one of the lines that mark the long sides of the playing field in rugby or soccer touch pad noun, pl ~ pads [count] : a flat surface on an electronic device (such as a microwave oven) that is divided into several differently marked areas which you can touch to choose options ▪ Press the start button on the touch pad.

touch screen noun, pl ~ screens [count] computers : a type of screen on a computer which shows options that you can choose by touching the screen touch•stone /ˈtʌʧˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : something that is used to make judgments about the quality of other things ▪ Good service is one touchstone of a first-class restaurant.

touch–tone /ˈtʌʧˈtoʊn/ adj, always used before a noun : having numbered buttons that produce different sounds when they are pushed ▪ a touch-tone phone touch–type /ˈtʌʧˌtaɪp/ verb -types; -typed; -typ•ing [no obj] : to type without looking at the keyboard ▪ The class taught him how to touch-type.

touchy /ˈtʌʧi/ adj touch•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : easily hurt or upset by the things that people think or say about you : SENSITIVE ▪ Don't be so touchy. I was just kidding. — often + about ▪ He's a little touchy about his weight. [=he tends to get upset if you say anything about his weight]

2 : likely to cause people to become upset ▪ a touchy subject

– touch•i•ness /ˈtʌʧinəs/ noun [noncount]

touchy–feely /ˌtʌʧiˈfi:li/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + usually disapproving : very emotional and personal : tending to show emotions very openly ▪ Some teachers get all touchy-feely with their students. ▪ touchy-feely people

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

[1]tough /ˈtʌf/ adj tough•er; tough•est
1 : very difficult to do or deal with ▪ a tough [=hard] assignment/problem ▪ tough choices ▪ She had a tough time in college. ▪ It's been a tough year for our family. = This year has been tough on [=hard on] our family. — often followed by to + verb ▪ It was tough to quit smoking. ▪ The problem was tough to solve.
2 a : physically and emotionally strong : able to do hard work, to deal with harsh conditions, etc. ▪ tough soldiers ▪ Are you tough enough for the job? b : physically strong and violent ▪ tough criminals ▪ He's been hanging around with a bunch of tough guys.
3 a : strong and not easily broken or damaged ▪ tough fibers ▪ The rug is made of tough material. b : difficult to cut or chew ▪ tough meat
4 : very strict ▪ a tough law/policy ▪ He's a tough boss/teacher, but fair. ▪ The candidates both vow to get tough on crime. [=to deal harshly with criminals]
5 : having a lot of crime or danger ▪ a tough neighborhood
6 : hard to influence or persuade ▪ She's a tough bargainer/negotiator.
7 informal : unfortunate in a way that seems unfair ▪ It's tough that he lost that job. — often used in an ironic way to show that you do not feel sympathy for someone ▪ "He failed the test." "Well, that's tough. Maybe if he'd studied a little he would have passed." ▪ He failed the test? Tough! [=too bad] He should have studied more than he did. — see also tough luck at [1]LUCK
(as) tough as nails see [1]NAIL
(as) tough as old boots Brit, informal : very tough ▪ This steak is as tough as old boots. ▪ Don't worry about her—she's as tough as old boots.
a tough act to follow see FOLLOW a tough nut (to crack) see NUT a tough row to hoe see [1]ROW hang tough see [1]HANG – tough•ly adv – tough•ness noun [noncount]

[2]tough verb toughs; toughed; tough•ing
tough it out informal : to deal with a difficult situation by being determined and refusing to quit ▪ She hated her job, but she toughed it out until she found a better one. ▪ Can you tough it out until the end of the game?

[3]tough noun, pl toughs [count] informal + old-fashioned : a tough and violent person ▪ a gang of toughs

[4]tough adv : in a way that shows that you are strong or tough ▪ play tough ▪ He talks tough but he's not really dangerous.

tough•en /ˈtʌfən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 : to make (something) stricter or to become stricter [+ obj] The government is toughening antidrug laws. — often + up ▪ The antidrug laws have been toughened up recently. [no obj] — usually + up ▪ The antidrug laws have toughened up recently.
2 : to make (someone) physically or emotionally stronger or to become physically or emotionally stronger [+ obj] The experience toughened him. — often + up ▪ The experience toughened him up. [no obj] — usually + up ▪ You need to toughen up if you want to succeed in this business.

tough•ie /ˈtʌfi/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal
1 : a difficult problem or question ▪ The last question on the test was a toughie.
2 : a tough person : a strong person who is not afraid ▪ He thinks he's a real toughie.

tough love noun [noncount] : love or concern that is expressed in a strict way especially to make someone behave responsibly

tou•pee /tuˈpeɪ/ noun, pl -pees [count] : a small wig that is worn by a man to cover a bald spot on his head

[1]tour /ˈtʊə/ noun, pl tours
1 [count] a : a journey through the different parts of a country, region, etc. ▪ We went on a tour of Italy. ▪ They went on a driving tour of New England. ▪ a sightseeing tour ▪ We hired a tour guide. [=a person who takes people on trips through an area and explains the interesting details about it] b : an activity in which you go through a place (such as a building or city) in order to see and learn about the different parts of it ▪ They went on a tour of the city. ▪ We were taken on a tour of/through the school. ▪ We went on a guided tour of the museum. ▪ They gave us a tour of their new house. ▪ We made a tour of the garden. [=we walked around the garden] ▪ a tour of inspection [=an activity in which someone goes through a place in order to see if things are in the proper condition] — see also GRAND TOUR
2 : a series of related performances, appearances, competitions, etc., that occur at different places over a period of time [count] a golf/book/concert tour [noncount] The band will be on tour [=traveling on a tour] for the next month.
3 [count] : a period of time during which someone (such as a soldier) is on duty or in a certain place ▪ during his tour in Vietnam ▪ He served a tour of duty in Germany.

[2]tour verb tours; toured; tour•ing
1 : to make a journey or trip through an area or place : to make a tour of (something) [+ obj] We toured London. ▪ We'll tour the museum tomorrow. [no obj] We toured around for several weeks last summer. ▪ "Are you here to study?" "No, I'm just touring."
2 : to travel from place to place to perform, give speeches, etc. [no obj] Is the band touring this year? [+ obj] The show has toured the country.

tour de force /ˌtuədəˈfoəs/ noun [singular] : a very skillful and successful effort or performance ▪ The book/film is a tour de force. ▪ Her performance in the play was a real tour de force.

Tou•rette's syndrome /tuˈrɛts-/ noun [noncount] medical : a disorder that causes someone to move and speak in an uncontrolled way tour•ism /ˈtuəˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity of traveling to a place for pleasure ▪ The city developed the riverfront to encourage/promote tourism.
2 : the business of providing hotels, restaurants, entertainment, etc., for people who are traveling ▪ the tourism industry ▪ She has a job in tourism.

tour•ist /ˈtʊrɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person who travels to a place for pleasure ▪ The museums attract a lot of tourists. ▪ In the summer the town is filled with tourists.
2 Brit : a member of a sports team that is playing a series of official games in a foreign country ▪ The tourists defeated the home side.
– tourist adj, always used before a noun ▪ The museum is a big tourist attraction/destination. ▪ She has a job in the tourist industry.

tourist class noun [noncount] : the cheapest seats on an airplane or the cheapest rooms on a ship or in a hotel ▪ Tourist class is all we could afford.
– tourist class adv ▪ We traveled tourist class on the ship.

tourist trap noun, pl ~ traps [count] disapproving : a place that attracts many tourists and that charges high prices ▪ The street market is a tourist trap that mostly sells cheap souvenirs. ▪ That hotel is just a tourist trap.

touristy /ˈtʊrəsti/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + often disapproving : attracting or appealing to tourists ▪ touristy souvenirs ▪ touristy activities/restaurants ▪ When we travel we usually try to avoid the touristy areas. [=the areas where there are a lot of tourists]

tour•na•ment /ˈtʊənəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : a sports competition or series of contests that involves many players or teams and that usually continues for at least several days ▪ a basketball/golf tournament ▪ She's an excellent tennis player who has won many tournaments.
2 : a contest of skill and courage between soldiers or knights in the Middle Ages tour•ney /ˈtʊəni/ noun, pl -neys [count] chiefly US, informal : TOURNAMENT 1 ▪ a tennis tourney

tour•ni•quet /ˈtʊənɪkət/ noun, pl -quets [count] : a bandage, strip of cloth, etc., that is tied tightly around an injured arm or leg to stop or slow the bleeding from a wound tou•sle /ˈtaʊzəl/ verb tou•sles; tou•sled; tou•sling [+ obj] : to make (someone's hair) untidy ▪ She tousled the little boy's hair.

[1]tout /ˈtaʊt/ verb touts; tout•ed; tout•ing
1 [+ obj] : to talk about (something or someone) as being very good, effective, skillful, etc. ▪ The company is running advertisements touting the drug's effectiveness. ▪ The company's stock is being touted by many financial advisers. ▪ the college's much touted [=praised] women's studies program — often + as ▪ The company is touting the drug as a miracle cure. ▪ She is being touted [=promoted] as a likely candidate for the Senate.
2 Brit : to try to persuade people to buy your goods or services [no obj] — + for ▪ They touted for business/customers everywhere but had few takers. [+ obj] vendors touting their wares
3 Brit : to buy tickets for an event and resell them at a much higher price : SCALP [+ obj] People were touting tickets outside the stadium. [no obj] People were touting outside the stadium.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

[2]tout noun, pl touts [count]
1 US : a person who sells information about which horses are likely to win the races at a racetrack
2 Brit : a person who buys tickets for an event and resells them at a much higher price ▪ ticket touts [=(US) scalpers]

[1]tow /ˈtoʊ/ verb tows; towed; tow•ing [+ obj] : to pull (a vehicle) behind another vehicle with a rope or chain ▪ The car was towed to the nearest garage after the accident. ▪ The police towed my car because it was parked illegally.

[2]tow noun, pl tows [count] : the act of pulling a vehicle behind another vehicle with a rope or chain — usually singular ▪ He called for a tow to the nearest garage.
in tow 1 or under tow or Brit on tow — used to describe a situation in which one vehicle, boat, etc., is being pulled by another ▪ a car with a boat in tow ▪ The damaged ship was brought into the harbor under tow. ✧ If a ship or boat is taken in tow, it is tied to and pulled by another boat or ship. This phrase is often used figuratively. ▪ The tourists were taken in tow by a friendly guide. 2 informal — used to describe a situation in which someone is going somewhere with another person or group ▪ a woman with seven children in tow

to•ward /ˈtowəd, ˈtoəd/ or to•wards /ˈtowədz, ˈtoədz/ prep
1 a : in the direction of (something or someone) ▪ The bus is heading toward town. ▪ She took a step toward the door. ▪ He leaned towards me. b — used to indicate the direction faced by something ▪ Turn the chair toward the window. ▪ The mirrors are pointed toward each other.
2 a : near (a particular place) ▪ They live out towards the edge of town. b : not long before (a particular time) ▪ It was (getting) toward noon when they arrived. ▪ We're thinking of taking a vacation towards the end of the month.
3 : in a process that is intended to produce or achieve (something) ▪ Efforts toward peace have been largely unsuccessful. ▪ a step/trend towards democracy
4 : in regard to (something or someone) ▪ He has a generally positive attitude toward [=about] life. ▪ She's been very kind towards them. [=she has treated them very kindly] 5 : as part of the payment for (something) ▪ We put $100 toward a new sofa.

tow•away zone /ˈtowəˌweɪ-/ noun, pl ~ zones [count] US : an area where parking is not allowed and where a parked car will be towed tow bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] : a metal bar on the back of a vehicle that is used for towing something (such as a vehicle or trailer)

[1]tow•el /ˈtawəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a piece of cloth used for drying things ▪ She dried her hair with a towel. ▪ Here's a towel to wipe up the spill. — see also BEACH TOWEL, DISH TOWEL, HAND TOWEL, PAPER TOWEL throw in the towel informal : to stop an activity or effort : QUIT ▪ I threw in the towel a long time ago. ▪ He couldn't seem to win, but he wasn't ready to throw in the towel.

[2]towel verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling : to dry (something) with a towel [+ obj] He toweled (off) his hair. [no obj] — + off or down ▪ She climbed out of the tub and quickly toweled off. [=dried herself with a towel]

tow•el•ling /ˈtawəlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] Brit : TERRY CLOTH

towel rack noun, pl ~ racks [count] US : a bar on which a towel is hung in a bathroom — called also (US) towel bar, (chiefly Brit) towel rail; see picture at BATHROOM

[1]tow•er /ˈtawə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a tall, narrow building or structure that may stand apart from or be attached to another building or structure ▪ a bell/clock/radio tower ▪ the church tower ▪ a cell phone tower — see also IVORY TOWER, WATCHTOWER, WATER TOWER
2 : a tall piece of furniture used to store something ▪ a CD/DVD tower
3 computers : a personal computer that stands in an upright position — see picture at COMPUTER tower of strength : an emotionally strong person who gives a lot of support or help during difficult times ▪ She's been a/my tower of strength during my illness.

[2]tower verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
tower above/over [phrasal verb] tower over/above (someone or something) 1 : to be much taller than (someone or something) ▪ He towers over his sister. ▪ The two skyscrapers tower above the other buildings of the city. 2 : to be much better or more important than (someone or something) ▪ Her intellect towers above/over ours.

tower block noun, pl ~ blocks [count] Brit : a very tall building that contains apartments or offices tow•er•ing /ˈtawərɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : very tall ▪ towering mountain peaks ▪ towering skyscrapers
2 : very powerful or intense ▪ He flew into a towering rage.
3 : very great or impressive ▪ a towering performance tow•head /ˈtoʊˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a person with very light blond hair – tow•head•ed /ˈtoʊˌhɛdəd/ adj ▪ a towheaded child tow•line /ˈtoʊˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : a rope or chain used for towing vehicles town /ˈtaʊn/ noun, pl towns

1 [count] : a place where people live that is larger than a village but smaller than a city ▪ a town in Georgia ▪ a mining town ▪ the town of Jackson, Florida ▪ The nearest shopping mall is two towns away. ▪ town officials — see also COUNTY TOWN, GHOST TOWN, SHANTYTOWN, TWIN TOWN
2 a [count] : the people in a town — usually singular ▪ I think the entire town has heard the news by now. ▪ The whole town was at the parade. b the town : the government of a town ▪ The town plans to increase property taxes.
3 [noncount] : the business and shopping center of a town ▪ We're heading to town later on. — see also DOWNTOWN, UPTOWN
4 : the town where someone lives [noncount] He left town when he was 16. ▪ The circus is coming to town. ▪ the town parade ▪ This is the best restaurant in town. [=in this town] ▪ Let's get together. I'll be in town next week. [=I'll be in your town next week] ▪ She's from out of town. [=from a different town] [singular] My town has changed a lot over the years. — see also HOMETOWN go to town informal : to do something in a very thorough and enthusiastic way ▪ When they throw a party, they really go to town. [=they spend a lot of money and have a big party] — often + on ▪ She really went to town on the decorations for the party.
hit the town informal : to spend time in the area of a city or town where there are a lot of restaurants, bars, etc. ▪ We're planning to hit the town tomorrow.
(out) on the town informal : going to the restaurants, bars, etc., of a city or town for entertainment ▪ We spent the night out on the town.
paint the town (red) see [2]PAINT the talk of the town see [2]TALK town centre noun, pl ~ centres [count] Brit : the main or central part of a town — compare CITY CENTRE, DOWNTOWN town crier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] old-fashioned : an official who made public announcements in past times town hall noun, pl ~ halls [count] : a town government's main building — usually singular town house noun, pl ~ houses [count]

1 US : a house that has two or three levels and that is attached to a similar house by a shared wall
2 : a house in a city or town; especially : a house in a town or city owned by someone who also has a house in the country town•ie /ˈtaʊni/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal 1 : a person who lives in a town or city

2 US : a person who lives in a town that has a college or university but does not work at or attend the school ▪ fights between townies and college kids town meeting noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a meeting of the people who live in a town to pass laws for the town or to discuss town problems, issues, etc.

town•scape /ˈtaʊnˌskeɪp/ noun, pl -scapes
1 [noncount] : the area where a town is and the way it looks
2 [count] : a picture that shows part or all of a town ▪ historic townscapes towns•folk /ˈtaʊnzˌfoʊk/ noun [plural] : the people who live in a town : TOWNSPEOPLE town•ship /ˈtaʊnˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : a unit of local government in the U.S.

towns•peo•ple /ˈtaʊnzˌpi:pəl/ noun [plural] : the people who live in a town or city tow•path /ˈtoʊˌpæθ, Brit ˈtəʊˌpɑ:θ/ noun, pl -paths [count] old-fashioned : a path along a river or canal used by people or horses for towing boats tow•rope noun, pl -ropes [count] : a rope or chain used for towing vehicles tow truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] : a truck with special

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

equipment on the back of it to tow away vehicles — called also (Brit) breakdown truck; see picture at TRUCK

tox•e•mia (US) or Brit tox•ae•mia /tɑkˈsi:mijə/ noun [noncount] medical
1 : PREECLAMPSIA
2 : an infection that is caused by harmful bacteria in the blood

tox•ic /ˈtɑ:ksɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : containing poisonous substances : POISONOUS ▪ a toxic substance/compound ▪ The fumes from that chemical are highly toxic. ▪ Tests will be run to determine if the landfill is toxic. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a toxic [=very unpleasant] work environment — see also TOXIC SHOCK SYNDROME, TOXIC WASTE

tox•ic•i•ty /tɑkˈsɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties [count, noncount] technical : the state of being poisonous or the degree to which something (such as a drug) is poisonous ▪ a pesticide with low toxicity to humans tox•i•col•o•gy /ˌtɑ:ksəˈkɑ:lədʒi/ noun [noncount] technical : the study of poisonous chemicals, drugs, etc., and how a person or other living thing reacts to them — often used before another noun ▪ Toxicology reports indicate he died from a drug overdose.

– tox•i•col•o•gist /ˌtɑ:ksəˈkɑ:lədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] toxic shock syndrome noun [noncount] medical : a serious illness that is caused by bacteria and occurs especially in women who use tampons — abbr. TSS; called also toxic shock toxic waste noun, pl ~ wastes : unwanted chemicals that are the result of manufacturing or industry and that are poisonous to living things [noncount] The company was fined for dumping toxic waste into the river. ▪ toxic waste dumps/sites [count] Toxic wastes were detected in the soil samples.

tox•in /ˈtɑ:ksən/ noun, pl -ins [count] : a poisonous substance and especially one that is produced by a living thing ▪ the toxin in scorpion venom ▪ Scientists are studying how exposure to environmental toxins [=small amounts of poisons found in air, water, food, etc.] may affect our health.

[1]toy /ˈtɔɪ/ noun, pl toys [count]
1 : something a child plays with ▪ Please put away your toys. ▪ a plastic/wooden/plush/stuffed toy — see also CHEW TOY, SOFT TOY, TINKERTOY
2 sometimes disapproving : something that an adult buys or uses for enjoyment or entertainment ▪ He bought a new TV and a few other toys. ▪ Her latest toy is a sports car.
3 : something that is very small ▪ Your car is just a toy compared to this truck.
4 : a person who is controlled or used by someone else ▪ She's just his toy. ▪ (US) a boy toy = (Brit) a toy boy [=a young man who is having a romantic or sexual relationship with an older woman]
– toy•like /ˈtɔɪˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a tiny toylike device

[2]toy verb toys; toyed; toy•ing
toy with [phrasal verb] 1 toy with (something) a : to think about (something) briefly and not very seriously ▪ I toyed with the idea of moving to France but ended up staying here. b : to move or touch (something) with your fingers often without thinking ▪ She toyed [=played] with her hair while she talked on the phone. 2 toy with (someone or something) : to deal with or control (someone or something) in a clever and usually unfair or selfish way ▪ Don't toy with my emotions. ▪ Do you really love me, or are you just toying with me?

[3]toy adj, always used before a noun
1 a : of, for, or relating to toys ▪ a toy store ▪ Put your toys back in the toy box/chest. b : of a kind that is meant for a child to play with ▪ toy cars/trains ▪ toy soldiers [=small figures shaped like soldiers]
2 — used to describe an animal (such as a dog) that is the smallest kind of a particular breed ▪ a toy poodle

[1]trace /ˈtreɪs/ noun, pl trac•es [count]
1 : a very small amount of something ▪ He could detect a trace [=hint] of cinnamon in the cookies. ▪ She spoke without a trace of irony. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ Trace amounts of the pesticide were found in many foods. — see also TRACE ELEMENT
2 : something (such as a mark or an object) which shows that someone or something was in a particular place ▪ The scientists found traces of human activity in the area. ▪ The thieves left no trace of evidence behind. ▪ He disappeared/vanished without a trace. [=without leaving any signs to show where he went]
3 technical : a line drawn by a machine to record how something (such as a heartbeat or an earthquake) changes or happens over time

[2]trace verb traces; traced; trac•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to draw the outline of (something) ▪ The children traced their hands onto the sidewalk with chalk.; especially : to copy (a design or picture) by putting a thin piece of paper that you can see through over it and drawing on top of it ▪ You can put a piece of paper over the pattern and trace it. b : to draw (something, such as letters or a picture) especially in a careful way ▪ She traced the letters of her name. ▪ I traced a circle in the air/sand (with my finger). — often + out ▪ She traced the letters out on a sheet of paper.
2 [+ obj] : to follow the path or line of (something) ▪ We will need to trace the electrical wires through the walls. ▪ She traced the edge of the book with her finger. [=she moved her finger along the edge of the book]
3 : to follow (something) back to its cause, beginning, or origin : to find out where something came from [+ obj] — usually + to ▪ The noise was traced to a loose bolt in the car's engine. ▪ The police traced the call to a payphone. — often + back ▪ He can trace his family history all the way back to the Pilgrims. ▪ The word "amiable" can be traced back to the Latin word for "friend." [no obj] The word "amiable" traces back to the Latin word for "friend." ▪ a tradition that traces back to [=goes back to] the time of the ancient Romans
4 [+ obj] : to describe or study the way (something) happened over time ▪ Her book traces the development of art through the ages.
5 [+ obj] : to try to find (someone or something) by collecting and studying evidence ▪ The detective is in charge of tracing [=(more commonly) tracking down] missing persons.
– trace•able /ˈtreɪsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The word "amiable" is traceable to the Latin word for "friend." ▪ This phone call is traceable.

trace element noun, pl ~ -ments [count] technical 1 : a chemical element that is present only in very small amounts
2 : a chemical or element that a living thing needs in very small amounts in order to live

trac•er /ˈtreɪsɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a type of bullet that shows its path by creating smoke or light as it moves through the air ▪ The enemy fired tracers at the aircraft carrier. ▪ tracer fire/rounds/bullets
2 medical : a substance that is put in a patient's body so that doctors can watch a biological process (such as digestion) or see how a condition (such as cancer) is progressing ▪ They injected her with a radioactive tracer and tracked it via X-rays.

trac•ery /ˈtreɪsəri/ noun [noncount]
1 : decorative patterns made in stone in some church windows ▪ This window is an example of Gothic tracery.
2 : lines that cross each other in a complicated and attractive pattern ▪ the delicate tracery of a butterfly's wing tra•chea /ˈtreɪkijə, Brit trəˈki:jə/ noun, pl -che•ae /-kiˌi:, Brit -ˈki:ji/ or -che•as [count] medical : a long tube in your neck and chest that carries air into and out of your lungs — called also windpipe

– tra•che•al /ˈtreɪkijəl/ adj

tra•che•o•to•my /ˌtreɪkiˈɑ:təmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] medical : an emergency operation in which a cut is made in the trachea so that a person can breathe

trac•ing /ˈtreɪsɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a copy of a picture, map, etc., that is made by tracing the original tracing paper noun, pl ~ -pers [count, noncount] : a very thin kind of paper that you can see through and use to trace a design, picture, etc.

[1]track /ˈtræk/ noun, pl tracks
1 [count] : a mark left on the ground by a moving animal, person, or vehicle — usually plural ▪ moose/tire tracks ▪ Dinosaur tracks were found in the canyon.
2 [count] : a path or trail that is made by people or animals walking through a field, forest, etc. ▪ Follow the track into the forest.
3 [count] a : a pair of metal bars that a train, trolley, or subway car rides along ▪ The train went off the track. = The train jumped the track. — usually plural ▪ We were walking beside the train/railroad tracks. b US : a set of tracks at a train or subway station ▪ The train to Chicago will leave track 3.
4 [count] : an often circular path or road that is used for racing ▪ She ran a few laps around the track before the race. ▪ a dog/horse track [=a track where dog/horse races are held] — see also RACETRACK

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

5 [noncount] US : TRACK AND FIELD ▪ He ran track in high school. — often used before another noun ▪ a track star ▪ our track team ▪ a track event/meet — see also TRACKSUIT
6 [count] : a rod or bar that is used to hold something (such as a curtain or sliding door) — see also TRACK LIGHTING
7 [count] : the course along which someone or something moves or proceeds ▪ the track of a storm/bullet ▪ His brother and sister went to college, but he chose a different track. [=he chose to do something different] — see also FAST TRACK, INSIDE TRACK, TENURE-TRACK
8 [count] US : a course of study followed by students who have particular abilities, needs, and goals ▪ students on the college track — called also (Brit) stream
9 [count] a : a song on a record, CD, etc. ▪ Tracks 6 and 11 are particularly good. ▪ The title track [=the song with the same title as the album] is a hit. — see also SOUNDTRACK b : a separate recording of each instrument or voice in a song ▪ Increase the volume on the drum/vocal track. — see also LAUGH TRACK, SOUNDTRACK cover your tracks : to hide anything that shows where you have been or what you have done so that no one can find or catch you ▪ The culprits covered their tracks well and left little evidence at the crime scene.
in your tracks : ✧ If you stop or are stopped in your tracks, you stop doing something suddenly or immediately. ▪ He stopped/froze in his tracks, turned, and came back. ▪ Her comment stopped me (dead) in my tracks. [=it surprised me very much; it caused me to stop and think] keep track : to be aware of how something is changing, what someone is doing, etc. ▪ There's so much going on that it's hard to keep track. — usually + of ▪ It's hard to keep track of what's going on. ▪ Keep track of your little brother for me, will you? ▪ It's her job to keep track of how the money is spent. ▪ I watch the news to keep track of current events.
lose track : to stop being aware of how something is changing, what someone is doing, etc. ▪ With so much going on, it's easy to lose track. — usually + of ▪ It's easy to lose track of what's going on. ▪ I'm sorry I'm late. I lost track of the time. ▪ We lost track of each other after high school.
make tracks informal : to leave a place quickly ▪ Here comes your mom—I'd better make tracks.
off the beaten track see BEATEN off track : away from the main point, thought, etc. ▪ Let's not get off track. ▪ He kept the discussion from going too far off track.
on the right/wrong track : following a course that will lead to success/failure ▪ Although their research is far from complete, the scientists are convinced that they are on the right track. ▪ She believes that our current foreign policy is on the wrong track.
on track : happening the way that you expect or want things to happen : following a schedule, routine, etc. ▪ Are we on track with the project? ▪ The project is on track. ▪ I had to get my life back on track after the accident.
the wrong side of the tracks : the part of a town, city, etc., where poor people live ▪ She fell in love with a boy from the wrong side of the tracks.
– track•less /ˈtrækləs/ adj ▪ a trackless wilderness/desert/expanse

[2]track verb tracks; tracked; track•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to follow and try to find (an animal) by looking for its tracks and other signs that show where it has gone ▪ He tracked the deer for a mile. b : to follow and find (someone or something) especially by looking at evidence ▪ The detectives tracked the killer to Arizona. — often + down ▪ They tracked him down in Arizona. ▪ Scientists tracked down the cause of the disease to a particular gene. ▪ If I manage to track down [=find] those photos, I'll let you know.
2 [+ obj] a : to follow or watch the path of (something) ▪ The ship can track incoming missiles with radar. ▪ Meteorologists are tracking the storm. ▪ an electronic tracking device/system b : to watch or follow the progress of (someone or something) ▪ You should start tracking [=keeping track of] your living expenses. ▪ The study tracked the patients over the course of five years.
3 [no obj] US : to move in a certain way or in a certain direction ▪ The boat tracks well. ▪ The squadron will track north by northeast for 40 miles.
4 [+ obj] US : to make marks by bringing (dirt, mud, etc.) indoors on the bottom of your feet ▪ Don't you track mud into this clean kitchen! ▪ The dog tracked dirt all over the floor.
5 US : to place young students in certain classes according to their abilities and needs [no obj] This school does not track. [+ obj] The school tracks [=(Brit) streams] students into "remedial," "average," and "gifted" classes.
6 [no obj] of a movie camera or video camera : to move in a particular direction especially in a straight line ▪ At the start of the movie, the camera tracks along the street to the house's front door.
– track•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He is a skilled animal tracker. ▪ The automatic flight tracker will tell you when her plane will be landing.

track and eld noun [noncount] US : a sport in which athletes participate in different running, jumping, and throwing contests (such as the hurdles, long jump, and shot put) — called also track, (Brit) athletics
– track–and– eld /ˌtrækənˈfiːld/ adj ▪ She is on the track-and-field team. ▪ track-and-field events track•ball /ˈtrækˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] computers : a device which consists of a small ball that you roll with your fingers to control the movement of a pointer on a computer screen track lighting noun [noncount] US : lights that are spaced along a bar or rod placed on a ceiling or wall ▪ We installed some track lighting in the kitchen. — called also track lights; see picture at LIGHTING track record noun, pl ~ -cords [count] : the things that someone or something has done or achieved in the past regarded especially as a way to judge what that person or thing is likely to do in the future ▪ The Senator has a good track record on these issues. [=the Senator has dealt with these issues in a proper/effective way in the past] ▪ These stocks have a proven track record.

track•suit /ˈtrækˌsuːt/ noun, pl -suits [count] : a pair of loose pants and a matching jacket that are worn especially during exercise

[1]tract /ˈtrækt/ noun, pl tracts [count]
1 : a system of body parts or organs that has a particular purpose ▪ the digestive/urinary/respiratory tract
2 : an area of land ▪ She bought a 200-acre tract out in the country. ▪ large/huge/vast tracts of land
– compare [2]TRACT

[2]tract noun, pl tracts [count] : a small, thin book that typically expresses a group's political or religious ideas ▪ religious tracts — compare [1]TRACT

trac•ta•ble /ˈtræktəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : easily managed or controlled ▪ This new approach should make the problem more tractable. — opposite INTRACTABLE
2 : willing to learn or be guided by another ▪ He's a very tractable child. ▪ a tractable horse tract house noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a house that is one of many similar houses built on an area of land

trac•tion /ˈtrækʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the force that causes a moving thing to stick against the surface it is moving along ▪ These tires get good traction on wet roads. ▪ A patch of ice caused the car to lose traction. b : the power that is used to pull something ▪ steam traction
2 medical : a way of treating broken bones in which a device gently pulls the bones back into place ▪ She was in traction for three weeks after she broke her hip.
3 informal : the support, interest, etc., that is needed for something to succeed or make progress ▪ The bill failed to gain traction in the Senate. ▪ We didn't get traction on this idea until the board took interest.

trac•tor /ˈtræktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a large vehicle that has two large back wheels and two smaller front wheels and that is used to pull farm equipment
2 US : a short, heavy truck that is designed to pull a large trailer tractor

tractor–trailer noun, pl -ers [count] US : SEMITRAILER 2

trad /ˈtræd/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : TRADITIONAL ▪ trad jazz

trad•able also trade•able /ˈtreɪdəbəl/ adj : able to be bought or sold ▪ tradable stocks ▪ Those company shares are not tradable.

[1]trade /ˈtreɪd/ noun, pl trades
1 a [noncount] : the activity or process of buying, selling, or exchanging goods or services : COMMERCE ▪ foreign/inter-

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

national trade ▪ the trade between the two countries ▪ The tariff is a barrier to trade. = The tariff is a trade barrier. ▪ trade agreements ▪ a trade route [=a route used for transporting goods] — see also FREE TRADE, TRADE DEFICIT, TRADE SURPLUS b : the amount of things or services that are bought and sold : the money made by buying and selling things or services [noncount] Trade accounts for half of our gross national product. [singular] The store does a brisk/lucrative trade in T-shirts. [=the store sells a lot of T-shirts]

2 [count] a : the act of exchanging one thing for another ▪ My cupcake for your brownie is a fair/good trade. [=swap] b US, sports : the act of giving one of your players to another team and getting one of their players in return ▪ The Tigers made a few good trades this season and picked up some promising players.

3 : a job; especially : a job that requires special training and skills and that is done by using your hands [count] Are you interested in learning a new trade? [=learning the skills that are needed to perform a different job] ▪ She entered the trade [=she began working in her profession] just after graduating from high school. [noncount] I am a carpenter/electrician/beautician by trade. [=I work as a carpenter/electrician/beautician] — see also JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES

4 [count] : a certain kind of business or industry ▪ the drug trade ▪ The tourist trade is our main source of state revenue. ▪ a trade group/association ▪ trade publications — see also RAG TRADE tools of the/your trade : a set of tools or skills that are necessary for a particular kind of job or work ▪ She showed me her paints, brushes, and the other tools of her trade. ▪ When you work with young children, patience and consistency are tools of the trade.

trick of the/your trade : a quick or clever way of doing something that you have learned usually as part of your job ▪ Let me show you a little trick of the trade. ▪ a mystery writer who knows all the tricks of his trade

– see also STOCK-IN-TRADE

[2]trade verb trades; trad•ed; trad•ing

1 a : to give something to someone and receive something in return : to give something in exchange for something else [no obj] Do you want to trade? [=swap] ▪ If you don't like your seat, I'll trade with you. [+ obj] We traded [=switched] seats halfway through the show. ▪ I'll trade my chips for your popcorn. = I'll trade you my chips for your popcorn. ▪ I traded seats with her halfway through the show. ▪ The boys are on the phone trading jokes/secrets. [=telling each other jokes/secrets] ▪ I got tired of listening to them trade insults. [=insult each other] ▪ I would love to trade places with him. [=I would love to be in his situation] b [+ obj] US, sports : to give (one of your players) to another team in exchange for one of their players ▪ He was traded to the Yankees. ▪ They traded him to the Broncos.

2 [+ obj] : to stop using (one thing) and start using another ▪ I traded my pen for a pencil and kept writing.

3 a [no obj] : to buy, sell, or exchange goods or services — often + with or in ▪ The two countries continue to trade with each other. ▪ They are suspected of trading in illegal weapons. ▪ China is one of our biggest trading partners. b : to buy and sell stocks, bonds, etc. [+ obj] Their firm specializes in trading bonds. [no obj] She mostly trades in stocks. ▪ The stock is trading at [=is being sold for] $71 a share.

4 [no obj] chiefly Brit : to exist as a company or business ▪ Our company trades [=does business] under the name Smith & Sons.

trade down [phrasal verb] : to sell something you own and buy a similar thing that costs less money ▪ They traded down to a smaller house after their children had grown up and moved away.

trade in [phrasal verb] trade (something) in or trade in (something) : to sell (something) back to a business as part of your payment for something else ▪ We traded our car in for a newer model. ▪ Trade in your car and get $3,000 towards a new car! — see also TRADE-IN trade off [phrasal verb] 1 trade off or trade off (something) US — used to describe a situation in which one person does something, then another person does it, and so on ▪ When you get tired of driving, I'll trade off with you. = When you get tired of driving, we can trade off. [=when you get tired, I will drive for a while] ▪ They trade off [=take turns] babysitting each other's kids. ▪ Two of the band members traded off guitar solos. [=they took turns playing guitar solos] 2 trade off (something) : to give up (something that you want) in order to have something else — usually + for ▪ The car's designers traded off some power for greater fuel efficiency. — see also TRADE-OFF trade on [phrasal verb] trade on (someone or something) : to use (something) in a way that helps you : to get an advantage from (something) ▪ He wants to succeed by working hard instead of just trading on his good looks.

trade up [phrasal verb] : to sell something you own and buy a similar thing that is more expensive ▪ They keep trading up, buying larger and larger houses.

trade book noun, pl ~ books [count] : a book that is published for and sold to the general public trade de cit noun, pl ~ -cits [count] finance : a situation in which a country buys more from other countries than it sells to other countries : the amount of money by which a country's imports are greater than its exports ▪ We have an annual trade deficit of $6.2 billion. — called also (Brit) trade gap; opposite TRADE SURPLUS

trade fair noun, pl ~ fairs [count] : TRADE SHOW

trade–in /ˈtreɪdˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : something (such as a used car) that you sell to a business as part of your payment for something new ▪ Bring in your trade-in and receive $3,000 towards any new car on the lot. — see also trade in at [2]TRADE trade•mark /ˈtreɪdˌmɑɚk/ noun, pl -marks [count]

1 : something (such as a word) that identifies a particular company's product and cannot be used by another company without permission ▪ "Kleenex" is a registered trademark. — abbr. TM

2 : a quality or way of behaving, speaking, etc., that is very typical of a particular person, group, or organization ▪ Outspokenness has always been his trademark. ▪ Courtesy is the company's trademark. — often used before another noun ▪ She greeted us with her trademark smile.

– trade•marked /ˈtreɪdˌmɑɚkt/ adj ▪ That name is trademarked. = That is a trademarked name.

trade name noun, pl ~ names [count]

1 : BRAND NAME ▪ Ibuprofen is sold under several trade names.

2 : the name of a business

trade–off /ˈtreɪdˌɑ:f/ noun, pl -offs [count]

1 : a situation in which you must choose between or balance two things that are opposite or cannot be had at the same time — often + between ▪ There's often a trade-off between the need for safety and the desire to work quickly.

2 US : something that you do not want but must accept in order to have something that you want ▪ The job pays well. The biggest trade-off is that you have to work long hours. — see also trade off at [2]TRADE

trad•er /ˈtreɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who buys, sells, or exchanges goods ▪ She is a stock/bond/commodities trader. ▪ early explorers and fur traders

trade school noun, pl ~ schools [count] US : a school in which people learn how to do a job that requires special skills ▪ an automotive trade school

trade secret noun, pl ~ -crets [count] : something (such as a special way of doing or making something) that is known only by the company that uses it and is protected from competitors trade show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a large gathering in which different companies in a particular field or industry show their products to possible customers ▪ The company unveiled a new product at the annual trade show this week. — called also trade fair

trades•man /ˈtreɪdzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : a person who works in a job that requires special skill or training ▪ electricians, plumbers, and other tradesmen ▪ He joined the tradesmen's union.

2 chiefly Brit : someone who sells or delivers goods; especially : SHOPKEEPER trades•peo•ple /ˈtreɪdzˌpi:pəl/ noun [plural]

1 : people who work in a trade : people whose professions require special skills and work that is done with the hands ▪ Local tradespeople like plumbers and electricians have raised their rates.

2 Brit : people who own and run shops : shopkeepers or merchants trade surplus noun, pl ~ -pluses [count] finance : a situation in which a country sells more to other countries than it buys from other countries : the amount of money by which a country's exports are greater than its imports ▪ The country's trade surplus increased last year. ▪ a trade surplus of almost $10 billion — opposite TRADE DEFICIT

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

trade union noun, pl ~ unions [count] Brit : LABOR UNION – trade unionist noun, pl ~ -ists [count] Brit

trade wind noun, pl ~ winds [count] : a wind that blows almost constantly to the west and towards the equator — usually plural ▪ sailors who followed the trade winds

trading noun [noncount] : the act or practice of buying and selling something (such as stocks or bonds) ▪ Trading was slow at the stock market today. ▪ He's accused of insider trading. [=illegally using a company's secret information to buy and sell that company's stocks] — often used before another noun ▪ a major trading center of Europe ▪ a trading company/partner trading card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a card that usually has pictures of and information about someone (such as an athlete) and that is part of a set which you collect by exchanging cards with other people ▪ He had a complete set of his favorite baseball team's trading cards.

trading post noun, pl ~ posts [count] : a place (such as a store, a town, or a fort) that is far from other towns and is used as a center for buying, selling, and trading goods and services ▪ The French set up a trading post on the coast. ▪ The town was first established as a trading post.

tra•di•tion /trəˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a way of thinking, behaving, or doing something that has been used by the people in a particular group, family, society, etc., for a long time [count] cultural traditions ▪ an ancient/old tradition ▪ One of our town's time-honored traditions is to have an Easter egg hunt the week before Easter. ▪ It is their tradition to give thanks before they start eating. ▪ There's an office tradition of wearing casual clothes on Fridays. ▪ Our company has a long tradition [=history] of excellence in our field. ▪ My dad and granddad were both carpenters, and my brother is carrying on the tradition. [=my brother is also a carpenter] ▪ They no longer follow the traditions of their ancestors. [noncount] The cheese is made according to tradition. [=made in way that has been used for many years; made in the traditional way] ▪ We broke with tradition and had goose for Thanksgiving instead of turkey. ▪ By tradition, the celebration begins at midnight. ▪ They no longer follow tradition. ▪ a ceremony steeped in tradition [=having many traditional parts]
2 [noncount] : the stories, beliefs, etc., that have been part of the culture of a group of people for a long time ▪ According to tradition, the goddess lies sleeping beneath the mountain. ▪ He studied the Anglo-Saxon oral tradition. [=the stories, beliefs, etc., that a group of people shared by telling stories and talking to each other]
3 [singular] — used to say that someone has qualities which are like the qualities of another well-known person or group of people from the past ▪ He's a politician in the best liberal tradition. [=a politician like other liberal politicians of the past] ▪ a politician in the (great/grand) tradition of Franklin Delano Roosevelt

tra•di•tion•al /trəˈdɪʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : based on a way of thinking, behaving, or doing something that has been used by the people in a particular group, family, society, etc., for a long time : following the tradition of a certain group or culture ▪ It is traditional to eat turkey and cranberry sauce on Thanksgiving. ▪ We often cook traditional Mexican meals for our guests. ▪ She wore a traditional Japanese kimono. ▪ a traditional Russian fairy tale b : typical or normal for something or someone : having the qualities, beliefs, etc., that are usual or expected in a particular type of person or thing ▪ She is a traditional liberal politician. ▪ We got a traditional bank loan with a fixed interest rate.
2 : based on old-fashioned ideas : not new, different, or modern ▪ I prefer a more traditional style of furniture. ▪ His views on marriage are quite traditional. He says that the wife should stay home with the children while the husband works. ▪ traditional beliefs/values
– tra•di•tion•al•ly adv ▪ Traditionally, guests are served first. ▪ She thinks too traditionally for my taste.

tra•di•tion•al•ist /trəˈdɪʃənəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who believes that older ways of doing or thinking about things are better than newer ways : a person who follows a particular and established tradition ▪ She is a traditionalist when it comes to men's and women's roles. ▪ conservative/religious traditionalists ▪ a traditionalist view
– tra•di•tion•al•ism /trəˈdɪʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious traditionalism

tra•duce /trəˈduːs, Brit trəˈdjuːs/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj] formal : to tell lies about (someone) : SLANDER ▪ He was traduced in the press.

[1]traf• c /ˈtræfɪk/ noun [noncount]
1 : all the vehicles driving along a certain road or in a certain area ▪ Let's leave early to avoid rush hour traffic. ▪ Traffic is backed up to the bridge. ▪ traffic congestion ▪ a traffic accident
2 : the movement of airplanes, ships, etc., along routes ▪ air traffic ▪ Barge traffic was halted because of flooding.
3 : the amount of people who pass through a certain place or travel in a certain way ▪ Airlines saw a decrease in passenger traffic this year. ▪ There is a walkway along the bridge for pedestrian/foot traffic. [=people who are walking] ▪ We get a lot of foot traffic [=people who walk by and stop to look] in our shop.
4 computers : the number of people who visit a Web site or use a system ▪ We're trying to increase traffic to our site. ▪ Internet/network traffic can cause slower response times during peak hours.
5 : the buying and selling of illegal goods or services especially between countries ▪ Drug traffic across the border has increased.

[2]traffic verb - cs ; - cked ; - ck •ing [no obj] : to buy or sell something especially illegally — usually + in ▪ a gang that traffics in drugs — sometimes used figuratively ▪ It is a play that traffics in bawdy humor. ▪ I don't traffic in sarcasm.

traffic circle noun, pl ~ circles [count] US : a circular area where two or more roads meet and on which all vehicles must go in the same direction — called also (US) rotary, (Brit) roundabout

traffic circle

traffic cone noun, pl ~ cones [count] : a brightly colored plastic cone that is placed on a road to warn drivers not to drive too close to an area where work is being done, an accident has occurred, etc.

traffic cop noun, pl ~ cops [count] : a police officer who directs traffic or gives fines to people who break traffic laws ▪ A traffic cop pulled me over and gave me a speeding ticket.

traffic court noun, pl ~ courts [count, noncount] US : a court of law where drivers who have broken traffic laws are punished ▪ She has to be in traffic court this morning.

traffic island noun, pl ~ -lands [count] US : ISLAND 2a traffic jam noun, pl ~ jams [count] : a situation in which a long line of vehicles on a road have stopped moving or are moving very slowly ▪ I'm stuck in a traffic jam, so I'll be late.

traf• cked /ˈtræfɪkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a certain amount of traffic ▪ That is a heavily trafficked [=used] bridge. ▪ It's one of the most trafficked [=the most often visited] sites on the Web.

traf• ck•er /ˈtræfɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who buys and sells something that is illegal ▪ a drug trafficker trafficking noun [noncount] : the act or business of illegally buying something and selling it especially in another country ▪ She was convicted of drug trafficking.

traffic light noun, pl ~ lights [count] : an electric lamp that usually has a red, a green, and a yellow light and that is used to control traffic ▪ Take a left at the traffic light. — often plural — called also light, traffic signal, (US) stoplight; see picture at STREET traffic ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : [1]TICKET 3 ▪ I got a traffic ticket for speeding.

traffic warden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] Brit : someone whose job is to check for cars that are parked illegally

tra•ge•di•an /trəˈʤiːdijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]
1 : a person who writes tragedies
2 : an actor who often plays tragic roles

trag•e•dy /ˈtræʤədi/ noun, pl -dies
1 a : a very bad event that causes great sadness and often involves someone's death [count] Her son's death was a terrible tragedy. [noncount] The situation ended in tragedy when the gunman shot and killed two students. b [count] : a very sad, unfortunate, or upsetting situation : something that causes strong feelings of sadness or regret ▪ It is a tragedy [=pity, shame] that so many victims are afraid to report the abuse. ▪ The biggest tragedy here is that the accident could have easily been prevented.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

2 a [count] : a play, movie, etc., that is serious and has a sad ending (such as the death of the main character) ▪ "Hamlet" is one of Shakespeare's best-known tragedies. ▪ a Greek tragedy b [noncount] : plays, movies, etc., that are tragedies ▪ The students are studying Greek tragedy. ▪ an actor who is drawn to tragedy

trag•ic /ˈtrædʒɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing strong feelings of sadness usually because someone has died in a way that seems very shocking, unfair, etc. ▪ Their deaths were tragic and untimely. ▪ They both died in a tragic car accident. ▪ Romeo and Juliet's tragic love affair ▪ Pride was his tragic flaw. [=a bad quality that causes someone to fail, die, etc.] — sometimes used in an exaggerated way to describe something that is very bad, unfortunate, etc. ▪ She has a tragic lack of imagination.
2 : involving very sad or serious topics ▪ We saw a tragic play about a man with AIDS. : of or relating to tragedy ▪ the tragic characters of her novel – trag•i•cal•ly /ˈtrædʒɪkli/ adv ▪ He died tragically. ▪ Tragically, she could not afford treatment for her cancer.

tragi•com•e•dy /ˌtrædʒɪˈkɑːmədi/ noun, pl -dies [count] : a play, movie, situation, etc., that is both sad and funny ▪ The play is a tragicomedy about a man's search for love.
– tragi•com•ic /ˌtrædʒɪˈkɑːmɪk/ also tragi•com•i•cal /ˌtrædʒɪˈkɑːmɪkəl/ adj ▪ a tragicomic view of life

[1]trail /treɪl/ verb trails; trailed; trail•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to pull (something) behind you especially on the ground ▪ The dog was trailing [=dragging] its leash. ▪ The little girl went to her room, trailing her teddy bear behind her. b [no obj] : to be pulled behind someone or something ▪ The dog's leash was trailing along/on the ground. ▪ The little girl's teddy bear trailed behind her.
2 : to walk or move slowly as you follow behind (someone or something) [+ obj] He trailed us as we worked our way up the mountain. [no obj] She marched down the street with her children trailing (along) behind/after (her). ▪ He trailed behind (us) as we worked our way up the mountain.
3 : to be behind in a race or competition [no obj] The President is trailing in the polls as the election approaches. ▪ We were trailing by 3 runs at the end of the 6th inning. [+ obj] Our team trailed their team at the end of the 6th inning.
4 [+ obj] : to follow and watch or try to catch (someone or something) ▪ The dogs were trailing a fox. ▪ Police trailed the suspect for six blocks.
5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move, flow, or extend slowly in a thin line ▪ Smoke trailed (away) from the chimney. ▪ A tear trailed down her cheek.
6 [no obj] : to hang down to the ground ▪ The curtains trailed onto the floor. — see also TRAILING trail away/off [phrasal verb] — used to say that someone's voice becomes softer and softer and then stops ▪ She started asking him a question, but then her voice trailed off. ▪ "Do you think you could . . . " she said before trailing off.

[2]trail noun, pl trails [count]
1 : a path through a forest, field, etc. ▪ Stay on the trail if we get separated. ▪ a bike/ski trail — see also NATURE TRAIL
2 : the marks, signs, smells, etc., that are left behind by someone or something and that can often be followed ▪ He left (behind) a trail of blood. ▪ The car left a trail of smoke as it sped off. ▪ The storm left a trail of destruction in its wake. [=the storm caused a lot of destruction as it moved across the land] ▪ The dogs were following her trail. = The dogs were on her trail. ▪ When we got to the river, the trail went cold. [=it could no longer be found or followed] ▪ The police are hot on the trail of the escaped convicts. [=are chasing the escaped convicts and are close to catching them] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ As he gained more political power, he left a trail of bitterness behind him. [=he treated people badly and made them feel bitter] — see also PAPER TRAIL, VAPOR TRAIL
3 : a route that someone follows to go somewhere or achieve something ▪ following the trail to success ▪ The candidates talked about the people they met on the campaign trail. [=the people they met while going to different places during the campaign]
blaze a trail see [4]BLAZE hit the trail chiefly US : to begin a journey ▪ We should be ready to hit the trail by 8:00. ▪ The candidates will soon be hitting the campaign trail.

trail•blaz•er /ˈtreɪlˌbleɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who makes, does, or discovers something new and makes it acceptable or popular ▪ one of the trailblazers [=pioneers] of rock and roll ▪ technological trailblazers
2 : a person who marks or prepares a trail through a forest or field for other people to follow – trail•blaz•ing /ˈtreɪlˌbleɪzɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ trailblazing architectural designs trail•er /ˈtreɪlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a long platform or box with wheels that is pulled behind a truck or car and used to transport things ▪ We helped them load the furniture onto the trailer. ▪ a horse/boat trailer — see also TRACTOR-TRAILER
2 chiefly US a : a vehicle that can be pulled by a truck or car and that can be parked and used as an office, vacation home, etc. ▪ We parked our trailer [=(Brit) caravan] next to the lake for the summer. b : MOBILE HOME
3 : a selected group of scenes that are shown to advertise a movie : PREVIEW ▪ a theatrical trailer trailer park noun, pl ~ parks [count] chiefly US : a large piece of land where trailers (sense 2a) can be parked and connected to electricity and water supplies trailer trash noun [noncount] US, informal + offensive : poor people who live in trailers ▪ They called her trailer trash.

trail•head /ˈtreɪlˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] chiefly US : the beginning of a trail through a forest ▪ The hikers met at the trailhead at 8 a.m.

trailing adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having stems that hang downward or rest on the ground ▪ trailing flowers/plants/vines ▪ trailing rosemary
2 : forming the back or last part of something ▪ the trailing edge of the airplane's wing [=the edge of the wing that is not facing forward]

trail mix noun [noncount] chiefly US : a mixture of nuts, seeds, dried fruits, and sometimes chocolate that is eaten as a snack

[1]train /treɪn/ noun, pl trains
1 : a group of vehicles that travel on a track and are connected to each other and usually to an engine : a connected group of railroad cars [count] The train pulled into the station. ▪ You can get off/on the train in Atlanta. ▪ I took a train to Madrid. ▪ We caught the last train. ▪ We slept on the train. ▪ a passenger train [=a train that people use for traveling] ▪ a commuter train [=a train that people use to get to and from work] ▪ an express train [=a train that has very few stops] ▪ a subway train [=an underground train] ▪ (US) a freight train = (Brit) a goods train [=a train carrying cargo] [noncount] We traveled by train through Europe. — often used before another noun ▪ a train [=railroad] station ▪ train tracks ▪ a train schedule/signal/ticket ▪ a train crash = (US) a train wreck
2 [count] old-fashioned : a group of people, vehicles, or animals that are moving in a line ▪ a funeral train ▪ a mule train — see also WAGON TRAIN
3 [count] : an orderly series of events, actions, or ideas ▪ a train of events ▪ I lost my train of thought [=I forgot what I was thinking about] when you interrupted me.
4 [count] technical : a series of moving machine parts (such as gears) for controlling motion ▪ There's a problem with the car's drive train. ▪ the gear train
5 [count] : a part of a long dress that trails behind the woman who is wearing it ▪ the bride's train — see color picture on page C16 in train Brit, formal : in an active state or condition ▪ a process that had been in train for decades ▪ The plans have been set in train. [=set in motion]
– see also GRAVY TRAIN

[2]train verb trains; trained; train•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to teach (someone) the skills needed to do something (such as a job) : to give instruction to (someone) ▪ He was never formally trained as a chef. ▪ I've been trained in first aid. ▪ I'm training her to take over my job when I retire. ▪ My boss is training me on the new equipment. ▪ We need to train more nurses. ▪ They are highly trained professionals. b [no obj] : to be taught the skills needed to do something (such as a job) ▪ I'm training to be/become a nurse. ▪ I trained at that hospital. ▪ He's training as a chef.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to develop an ability or skill ▪ She had to train her mind to think scientifically. ▪ You can train yourself to relax. ▪ A trained [=practiced] eye can detect the slightest imperfection. ▪ Only a trained ear could hear the difference.
3 a [no obj] : to try to make yourself stronger, faster, or better at doing something before competing in an event or competition ▪ The team trains five hours a day. ▪ He is training for

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

the Olympics. b [+ obj] : to help (someone) to prepare for an event or competition : to coach (an athlete) ▪ He trained several generations of track-and-field athletes.
4 [+ obj] : to teach (an animal) to obey commands ▪ She trained her dog to sit. ▪ The police use trained dogs to sniff out drugs. ▪ The dog was never properly trained. [=taught to obey] — see also HOUSE-TRAIN
5 [+ obj] : to make (a plant) grow in a particular direction usually by bending, cutting, or tying it ▪ You can train this vine to climb up a wall.
6 [+ obj] : to aim or point (something) toward something or in a particular direction ▪ He trained the flashlight into the hole. ▪ We trained our eyes on the horizon. [=we looked toward the horizon]
– train•able /ˈtreɪnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very trainable dog train•ee /treɪˈniː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who is being trained for a job ▪ on-the-job trainees ▪ management trainees ▪ a trainee cook train•er /ˈtreɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who teaches or coaches athletes or animals : a person who trains athletes or animals ▪ the boxer and his trainer ▪ a horse trainer ▪ She hired a personal trainer.
2 US : a person who treats the injuries of the members of a sports team ▪ an athletic trainer ▪ the team trainer
3 Brit : SNEAKER

train•ing /ˈtreɪnɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : a process by which someone is taught the skills that are needed for an art, profession, or job ▪ The job requires special training. ▪ She owes her flexibility to her early training as a dancer. ▪ He received training in first aid. ▪ combat/flight training ▪ training programs ▪ on-the-job training [=training that you are given while you are doing a job and getting paid] ▪ She's in training to be an astronaut. [=she is being trained to be an astronaut] ▪ a young doctor who's still in training ▪ a training manual [=a book of instructions for a job or task] — see also BASIC TRAINING, TOILET TRAINING
2 : the process by which an athlete prepares for competition by exercising, practicing, etc. ▪ She's in training for the Olympics. — see also SPRING TRAINING training college noun, pl ~ -leges [count] Brit : a college that prepares people for a particular job; especially : a college for the training of teachers training shoe noun, pl ~ shoes [count] chiefly Brit : SNEAKER training wheels noun [plural] US : a small pair of extra wheels that are added to a child's bicycle so that the bicycle can be balanced more easily while the child is learning to ride it — called also (Brit) stabilisers train set noun, pl ~ sets [count] : a toy train with its tracks, buildings, etc.

train•spot•ter /ˈtreɪnˌspɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] Brit : a person who is interested in trains and who writes down the numbers of passing trains as a hobby
– train•spot•ting /ˈtreɪnˌspɑːtɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

traipse /treɪps/ verb traips•es; traipsed; traips•ing [no obj] informal : to walk or go somewhere ▪ I traipsed all over town looking for the right dress. ▪ I'm too old to go traipsing around Europe.

trait /treɪt, Brit treɪ/ noun, pl traits [count] formal : a quality that makes one person or thing different from another ▪ Humility is an admirable trait. [=quality] ▪ This dog breed has a number of desirable traits. ▪ feminine/masculine traits ▪ inherited and acquired traits

trai•tor /ˈtreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who is not loyal to his or her own country, friends, etc. : a person who betrays a country or group of people by helping or supporting an enemy ▪ She has been called a traitor to the liberal party's cause. ▪ He was a traitor who betrayed his country by selling military secrets to the enemy. ▪ He turned traitor. [=he became a traitor; he betrayed his country/friends]
– trai•tor•ous /ˈtreɪtərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ traitorous acts

tra•jec•to•ry /trəˈʤɛktəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : the curved path along which something (such as a rocket) moves through the air or through space ▪ the trajectory of the missile — often used figuratively to describe a process of change or development that leads toward a particular result ▪ Her early education put her on a trajectory toward a distinguished career. ▪ his political trajectory from local activist to world leader

tram /træm/ noun, pl trams [count]
1 US : a vehicle that runs on a track or on rails and that is usually used to carry groups of people for a short distance ▪ Take the tram to the departure terminal.
2 chiefly Brit : STREETCAR

tram•car /ˈtræmˌkɑɚ/ noun, pl -cars [count] chiefly Brit : STREETCAR tram•line /ˈtræmˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] Brit : the metal tracks on a street that a streetcar moves along tram•mel /ˈtræməl/ verb -mels; US -meled or Brit -melled; US -mel•ing or Brit -mel•ling [+ obj] formal : to limit or restrict (something or someone) unfairly ▪ laws that trammel our rights as citizens

[1]tramp /træmp/ verb tramps; tramped; tramp•ing
1 [no obj] : to walk or step heavily ▪ Workmen were tramping [=(US) tromping] through the house all day.
2 : to walk for a long distance or time [no obj] We spent the day tramping through the woods. [+ obj] He tramped the streets looking for his dog.

[2]tramp noun, pl tramps
1 [count] : a person who travels from place to place and does not have a home or much money ▪ tramps [=hobos, vagrants] sleeping under a bridge
2 [count] chiefly US, disapproving + somewhat old-fashioned : a woman who has sex with many different men
3 [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a walking trip : HIKE ▪ a tramp through the woods
4 [singular] : the sound made by someone walking heavily ▪ I could hear the tramp of boots on the path ahead.

tram•ple /ˈtræmpəl/ verb tram•ples; tram•pled; tram•pling
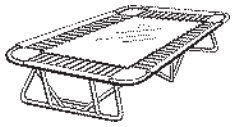
1 : to cause damage or pain by walking or stepping heavily on something or someone [no obj] The workmen trampled on my flower bed. [+ obj] Her glasses were trampled underfoot by the crowd. ▪ Many people were trampled to death trying to escape the burning building.
2 : to treat other people's rights, wishes, or feelings as if they are worthless or not important [no obj] They are trampling on our rights. [+ obj] They are trampling our rights. ▪ Their most cherished traditions have been trampled.

tram•po•line /ˌtræmpəˈliːn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : a piece of equipment that has a sheet of strong cloth attached by springs to a metal frame and that is used for jumping up and down for exercise or as a sport



trampoline

trance /træns/ noun, pl tranc•es [count]
1 : a state that is like being asleep except that you can move and respond to questions and commands like a person who is awake ▪ The hypnotist put him in a (hypnotic) trance. ▪ The spiritual healer fell/went into a trance.
2 : a state in which you are not aware of what is happening around you because you are thinking of something else ▪ He was staring out the window in a trance.

tran•ny /ˈtræni/ noun, pl -nies [count] informal
1 : a transsexual or a transvestite
2 US : TRANSMISSION 3 ▪ He fixed the car's tranny.

tran•quil /ˈtræŋkwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : quiet and peaceful ▪ a tranquil life/sea/village
– tran•quil•ly adverb

tran•quil•i•ty (US) or chiefly Brit tran•quil•i•ty /træŋˈkwɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being quiet and peaceful ▪ the tranquility of the quiet countryside ▪ peace and tranquility

tran•quil•ize also Brit tran•quil•lise /ˈtræŋkwəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to use a drug to cause (a person or animal) to become very relaxed and calm ▪ They tranquilized the bear with a dart so that it could be safely moved to a different area.

tran•quil•iz•er also Brit tran•quil•lis•er /ˈtræŋkwəˌlaɪzɚ/ noun, pl -iz•ers [count] : a drug that causes a person or animal to become very relaxed and calm ▪ a patient who is on/taking tranquilizers ▪ They shot the bear with a tranquilizer gun. [=a gun that shoots a dart which contains a drug that causes a wild animal to become very relaxed and unable to move]

trans- prefix
1 : on or to the other side of : across or beyond ▪ *trans*atlantic

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

2 : so as to change in form or position ▪ *trans*literate ▪ *trans*plant trans•act /trænˈzækt/ verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to do (business) with another person, company, etc. ▪ We had some important business to transact with our distributors. ▪ I prefer not to transact [=conduct] business over the phone. ▪ transact a real estate deal

trans•ac•tion /trænˈzækʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a business deal : an occurrence in which goods, services, or money are passed from one person, account, etc., to another ▪ business/commercial transactions ▪ The entire transaction took place over the phone. ▪ a real estate transaction ▪ a record of your recent banking transactions ▪ electronic transactions
2 [noncount] : the act or process of doing business with another person, company, etc. : the act or process of transacting business ▪ the transaction of business over the phone trans•at•lan•tic /ˌtrænsətˈlæntɪk/ adj

1 : going across the Atlantic Ocean ▪ a transatlantic cable ▪ a transatlantic voyage
2 : located on or coming from the other side of the Atlantic Ocean ▪ our transatlantic friends
3 : involving people or countries on both sides of the Atlantic Ocean ▪ a transatlantic conspiracy trans•ceiv•er /trænˈsi:və/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a radio that can send and receive messages tran•scend /trænˈsɛnd/ verb -scends; -scend•ed; -scend•ing [+ obj] formal : to rise above or go beyond the normal limits of (something) ▪ music that transcends cultural boundaries ▪ She was able to transcend her own suffering and help others. ▪ Her concerns transcended local issues.

tran•scen•dent /trænˈsɛndənt/ adj, formal
1 : going beyond the limits of ordinary experience ▪ transcendent beings ▪ transcendent truths ▪ a transcendent [=transcendental] experience
2 : far better or greater than what is usual : EXTRAORDINARY ▪ transcendent beauty ▪ a transcendent performance
– tran•scen•dence /trænˈsɛndəns/ noun [noncount]

tran•scen•den•tal /ˌtrænˌsɛnˈdɛntl/ adj : TRANSCENDENT 1 ▪ transcendental truths/experiences tran•scen•den•tal•ism /ˌtrænˌsɛnˈdɛntəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a philosophy which says that thought and spiritual things are more real than ordinary human experience and material things

– tran•scen•den•tal•ist /ˌtrænˌsɛnˈdɛntəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

Transcendental Meditation service mark — used for a method of meditating in which you close your eyes and repeatedly think of a simple sound, word, or phrase (called a mantra)

trans•con•ti•nen•tal /ˌtrænsˌkɑ:ntəˈnɛntl/ adj : going across a continent ▪ the transcontinental railroad ▪ a six-hour transcontinental flight ▪ transcontinental shipping

tran•scribe /trænˈskraɪb/ verb -scribes; -scribed; -scrib•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make a written copy of (something) ▪ He transcribed all of his great-grandfather's letters. b : to write down (something that is spoken) ▪ The senator's speech was transcribed.
2 : to rewrite (a piece of music) so that it can be performed by a different instrument or voice ▪ a Mozart string quartet transcribed for piano
3 technical : to represent (speech sounds) with written symbols ▪ a system that allows linguists to transcribe the sounds of any language
4 : to change (something written) into a different language ▪ transcribe textbooks into braille – tran•scrib•er noun, pl -ers [count]

tran•script /ˈtrænˌskrɪpt/ noun, pl -scripts [count]
1 : a written, printed, or typed copy of words that have been spoken ▪ a transcript of a radio program ▪ a full transcript of the court proceedings ▪ a transcript of the senator's speech
2 US : an official record of a student's grades ▪ You must submit your college transcript with your job application.

tran•scrip•tion /trænˈskrɪpʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of making a written, printed, or typed copy of words that have been spoken ▪ an error in transcription ▪ Transcription of the tapes took weeks.
2 [count] : a written, printed, or typed copy of words that have been spoken ▪ a transcription [=transcript] of the tape recordings

trans•du•cer /trænsˈdu:sə, Brit trænsˈdju:sə/ noun, pl -ers [count] technical : a device that changes power from one system into another form for another system

tran•sept /ˈtrænˌsɛpt/ noun, pl -septs [count] : the shorter area that goes across and sticks out from the long part of a church and that gives the church the shape of a cross when it is viewed from above — compare NAVE trans fat /ˈtrænsˌ, ˈtrænz-/ noun [count, noncount] technical : a type of fat that is found especially in some vegetable oils and that is bad for your health

[1]trans•fer /trænsˈfə/ verb -fers; -ferred; -fer•ring
1 [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) from one place to another ▪ We transferred the baby's car seat to the other car. ▪ The patient was transferred to a different hospital.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to move from one person, place, or thing to another: such as a : to move (data, money, etc.) from one place to another electronically ▪ transfer data on the hard drive to a disk ▪ transfer funds electronically ▪ He transferred my call to another line. b : to cause (a disease, virus, etc.) to move from one living thing to another : TRANSMIT ▪ The virus is transferred by mosquitoes. c technical : to give (property or rights) to another person ▪ He transferred control of the company to his son. ▪ transfer property by deed
3 a [+ obj] : to use (something, such as an idea, a skill, etc.) for a new or different purpose ▪ She was able to transfer her organizational skills to her new job. b [no obj] : to be used for a new or different purpose ▪ Her skills transferred well to her new job.
4 a [no obj] : to stop going to one school and begin going to another ▪ She transferred from another high school last year. ▪ He transferred to Stanford. ▪ (Brit) My son will transfer to secondary school [=will begin going to secondary school] next year. b : to move to a different place or job for the same employer [no obj] I asked to transfer to the sales department. [+ obj] He was transferred to the Los Angeles office last year. ▪ She was transferred to a different department. ▪ The army transferred him to Germany.
5 [+ obj] chiefly US : to use (credits earned at one school) at a different school ▪ I was able to transfer my credits from summer school.
6 Brit, sports : to move (a player) to another team in exchange for money [+ obj] He was transferred [=(US) sold] to Arsenal. [no obj] He transferred to Arsenal.
7 : to change from one plane, bus, train, etc., to another while traveling [no obj] We transferred in Chicago. [+ obj] We had to transfer [=change] planes in Chicago. ▪ The passengers were transferred to another plane.

[2]trans•fer /ˈtrænsˌfə/ noun, pl -fers
1 a : an act or process of moving someone or something from one place to another [count] We switched to another car, and the transfer only took a few minutes. ▪ They arranged for a transfer of the prisoner to a different prison. ▪ a transfer of funds [noncount] a material that reduces heat transfer ▪ speeding up data transfer between computers b [count] : a process by which one method, system, etc., is replaced by another ▪ We are doing everything possible to ensure a smooth transfer to the new system.
2 [count] : the act or process of giving the property or rights of one person to another person ▪ a transfer by deed or will ▪ a transfer of power/ownership/wealth
3 [count] : an act of moving from one job or location to another for the same company ▪ a transfer to the home office ▪ My overseas transfer has been approved.
4 [count] US : a student who has moved from one school to another ▪ The school accepts only a few transfers each year. ▪ She's a transfer from the junior college. ▪ He's a transfer student.
5 [count] chiefly Brit : a picture or label that is made on special paper so that it sticks to a surface : DECAL ▪ The lettering was put on the sign by using transfers.
6 [count] chiefly US : a ticket that allows a passenger on a bus or train to continue traveling on another bus or train trans•fer•able also trans•fer•ra•ble /trænsˈfərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : capable of being moved or transferred from one place or situation to another ▪ transferable skills ▪ transferable college credits
2 : capable of being given or sold to another person ▪ These plane tickets are not transferable. ▪ a transferable life insurance policy trans•fer•ence /trænsˈfərəns, ˈtrænsˌfərəns/ noun [noncount]

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-t

1 technical : the act of moving something from one place to another ▪ transference of energy ▪ heat transference
2 psychology : a process by which the feelings that you had for someone (such as a parent) when you were a child become directed to someone else (such as a psychoanalyst)

trans•fig•ure /træns'fɪgjɚ, Brit træns'fɪgə/ verb -ures; -ured; -ur•ing [+ obj] literary : to change the appearance of something or someone ▪ Her face seemed transfigured by happiness.

trans•fix /træns'fɪks/ verb -fix•es; -fixed; -fix•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause someone to sit or stand without moving because of surprise, shock, interest, etc. — usually used as (be) transfixed ▪ He stood transfixed by her gaze. ▪ The children sat transfixed in front of the TV.

trans•form /træns'foɚm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing [+ obj] : to change (something) completely and usually in a good way ▪ The new paint completely transformed [=changed the appearance of] the room. ▪ A little creativity can transform an ordinary meal into a special event. ▪ The old factory has been transformed into an art gallery. ▪ The Internet has completely transformed [=changed the nature of] many retail businesses.

trans•for•ma•tion /ˌtrænsfə'meɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a complete or major change in someone's or something's appearance, form, etc. [count] His appearance has undergone a complete transformation. [=his appearance has changed completely] ▪ The building underwent various transformations over the years. ▪ the character's inner transformation [noncount] an agent of transformation

trans•for•ma•tive /træns'foɚmətɪv/ adj, formal : causing or able to cause a change; especially : causing someone's life to be different or better in some important way ▪ a transformative experience ▪ the transformative power of love ▪ a transformative force trans•form•er /træns'foɚmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] technical : a device that changes the voltage of an electric current trans•fuse /træns'fju:z/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing [+ obj] medical : to take (blood) from one person or animal and put it into another ▪ The hospital staff transfuses more than 8,000 units of blood annually.

trans•fu•sion /træns'fju:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions : BLOOD TRANSFUSION [noncount] the transfusion of blood [count] Without a transfusion her chances of survival were slim. — often used figuratively ▪ The project has received a much-needed transfusion of funds. [=has received a new supply of funds/money]

trans•gen•der /træns'ʤɛndɚ/ adj : of or relating to people who have a sexual identity that is not clearly male or clearly female ▪ the transgender community ▪ transgender issues – trans•gen•dered /træns'ʤɛndɚd/ adj ▪ transgendered people trans•gress /træns'grɛs/ verb -gress•es; -gressed; -gress•ing formal : to do something that is not allowed : to disobey a command or law [no obj] He who transgresses must seek forgiveness. [+ obj] There are legal consequences for companies that transgress the rules.

– trans•gres•sion /træns'grɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] ▪ a minor transgression – trans•gres•sor /træns'grɛsɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count]

[1]tran•sient /'trænzijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : not lasting long ▪ transient joys
2 : staying somewhere only a short time ▪ a transient population ▪ transient guests
– tran•sience /'trænzijəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the transience of fame/joy – transiently adv

[2]transient noun, pl -sients [count] chiefly US : a person who does not have a permanent home and who stays in a place for only a short time before going somewhere else tran•sis•tor /træn'zɪstɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a small device that is used to control the flow of electricity in radios, computers, etc.
2 somewhat old-fashioned : TRANSISTOR RADIO

transistor radio noun, pl ~ -dios [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a small radio that has transistors

tran•sit /'trænsət/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of moving people or things from one place to another ▪ Some of the goods were lost in transit. [=in the process of being transported]
2 US : MASS TRANSIT ▪ the problems of urban transit — often used before another noun ▪ a proposal for a new rail transit route — see also RAPID TRANSIT transit camp noun ~ camps [count] chiefly Brit : a place for refugees to stay for a short period of time

[1]tran•si•tion /træn'zɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a change from one state or condition to another [count] We want to have a smooth transition when the new owners take control of the company. ▪ the sometimes difficult transition from childhood to adulthood ▪ The country made/underwent a peaceful transition from dictatorship to democracy. [noncount] The industry is undergoing transition. [=is changing in some important way] ▪ The company is in transition [=is changing] as it adapts to the new management team.
– tran•si•tion•al /træn'zɪʃənəl/ adj ▪ a transitional government ▪ a transitional phase/period/stage

[2]transition verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to make a change from one state, place, or condition to another : to make a transition ▪ The company has transitioned to new management in the past year. ▪ a student who is transitioning to a new school tran•si•tive /'trænsətɪv/ adj, grammar, of a verb : having or taking a direct object ▪ a transitive verb ▪ In "I like pie" and "She makes hats," the verbs "like" and "makes" are transitive. — compare INTRANSITIVE – tran•si•tive•ly adv ▪ The verb is being used transitively.

tran•si•to•ry /'trænsəˌtori, Brit 'trænzətri/ adj : lasting only for a short time : TEMPORARY ▪ the transitory nature of earthly pleasures ▪ a transitory phase transit visa noun, pl ~ visas [count] : a document (called a visa) that allows a person to go through one country while traveling to another country trans•late /træns'leɪt, 'trænzˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 : to change words from one language into another language [no obj] My client speaks only Spanish. Will you translate for me? ▪ The French word "bonjour" translates as "hello" in English. [+ obj] We need someone who can translate Japanese into English. ▪ We have translated the report. ▪ The book has been translated into 37 languages. — compare INTERPRET
2 [+ obj] : to explain (something) in a way that is easier to understand ▪ Can you translate this technical jargon?
3 [no obj] : to have the same meaning ▪ To teenagers, "middle-aged" translates as "boring." [=teenagers think middle-aged people are boring] ▪ Seventy million Americans—that translates into one American out of every four—are under the age of 24.
4 : to change (something) into a different form [+ obj] His job is to translate the decision into a working program. ▪ She needs to translate her ideas into action. [no obj] The play translated quite successfully to the big screen.
translate into [phrasal verb] translate into (something) : to lead to (something) as a result ▪ Competition often translates into [=results in] lower costs to the consumer. ▪ Artistic success doesn't always translate into financial success. ▪ The new design translates into more space inside the car.
– trans•lat•able /træns'leɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The phrase isn't easily translatable.

trans•la•tion /træns'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : words that have been changed from one language into a different language : words that have been translated [count] She is working on a translation of the novel. ▪ a new translation of the Iliad ▪ an accurate translation ▪ a literal translation ▪ a rough/loose translation ▪ There were English translations on the menu. [noncount] I have only read Dostoevsky in translation. [=in translated form] b [noncount] : the act or process of translating something into a different language ▪ Some things defy translation. [=are impossible to translate] ▪ The quote loses something in translation. [=the quote does not have the same meaning or effectiveness when it is translated into another language] ▪ Something must have gotten lost in translation [=lost when changed from one language into another] because the joke isn't funny in English.
2 [noncount] formal : the act or process of changing something from one form to another : TRANSFORMATION ▪ the translation of economic power into political strength trans•la•tor /træns'leɪtɚ, 'trænzˌleɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who changes words written in one language into a different language ▪ a well-known translator of ancient Greek ▪ She works as a translator for the government. — compare INTERPRETER trans•lit•er•ate /træns'lɪtəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to write words or letters in the characters of another alphabet ▪ The Russian letter Я is usually transliterated in English as ya or ia.

T

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−t

– trans•lit•er•a•tion /trænsˌlɪtəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

trans•lu•cent /trænsˈluːsnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not completely clear or transparent but clear enough to allow light to pass through ▪ Frosted glass is translucent. ▪ translucent gemstones — compare OPAQUE – trans•lu•cence /trænsˈluːsns/ or trans•lu•cen•cy /trænsˈluːsnsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ Quartz has a high degree of translucency.

trans•mi•gra•tion /ˌtrænsˌmaɪˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the movement of a soul into another body after death ▪ a belief in transmigration trans•mis•si•ble /trænsˈmɪsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be spread to other people, animals, etc. : capable of being transmitted ▪ transmissible diseases/infections ▪ The virus is highly transmissible to/among humans.

trans•mis•sion /trænsˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 a [noncount] : the act or process of sending electrical signals to a radio, television, computer, etc. ▪ The equipment is used for the transmission of television signals. ▪ data transmission b [count] : something (such as a message or broadcast) that is transmitted to a radio, television, etc. ▪ a fax transmission ▪ We are receiving a live transmission from the scene of the accident.

2 [noncount] : the act or process by which something is spread or passed from one person or thing to another ▪ the transmission of disease ▪ the transmission of knowledge from one generation to the next

3 : the part of a vehicle that uses the power produced by the engine to turn the wheels [count] My car has a manual transmission. [noncount] This car comes with automatic transmission. — see picture at CAR

trans•mit /trænsˈmɪt/ verb -mits; -mit•ted; -mit•ting

1 : to send (information, sound, etc.) in the form of electrical signals to a radio, television, computer, etc. [+ obj] The technology allows data to be transmitted by cellular phones. ▪ transmitting and receiving radio signals [no obj] The radio transmits on two different frequencies.

2 [+ obj] : to give or pass (information, values, etc.) from one person to another ▪ the different ways that people transmit their values/opinions/knowledge

3 [+ obj] : to cause (a virus, disease, etc.) to be given to others ▪ insects that transmit diseases ▪ The disease is transmitted by sexual contact.

4 [+ obj] : to allow (light, heat, etc.) to pass through ▪ Glass transmits light.

– trans•mit•ta•ble /trænsˈmɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ transmittable [=transmissible] diseases trans•mit•ter /trænsˈmɪtə, ˈtrænzˌmɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a device that sends out radio or television signals

2 : a person or thing that causes something to be spread or transmitted to others ▪ Mosquitoes are the main transmitters of the disease. ▪ a transmitter of tradition trans•mute /trænsˈmjuːt/ verb -mutes; -mut•ed; -mut•ing formal : to completely change the form, appearance, or nature of (someone or something) — usually + into [+ obj] Her art transmutes [=transforms] trash into a thing of beauty. ▪ The stories of their lives were transmuted into works of fiction. [no obj] The former criminal had transmuted into a national hero.

– trans•mu•ta•tion /ˌtrænsmjuˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

trans•na•tion•al /ˌtrænsˈnæʃənl/ adj : operating in or involving more than one country ▪ transnational corporations ▪ transnational crime

trans•oce•an•ic /ˌtrænsˌoʊʃiˈænɪk/ adj : crossing the ocean ▪ transoceanic flights — compare TRANSATLANTIC, TRANSPACIFIC

tran•som /ˈtrænsəm/ noun, pl -soms [count]

1 US : a small window that is above a door or larger window — called also (Brit) fan light

2 : a stone or wooden bar that goes across the top of a door or window over the transom US : without being asked for or expected — used especially to describe a book, story, etc., that is sent to a publisher ▪ The manuscript arrived over the transom.

trans•pa•cif•ic /ˌtrænspəˈsɪfɪk/ adj

1 : crossing the Pacific Ocean ▪ transpacific ocean liners

2 : of, relating to, or involving countries on both sides of the Pacific Ocean ▪ transpacific trade

trans•par•en•cy /trænsˈperənsi/ noun, pl -cies

1 [noncount] : the quality of being transparent: such as a : the quality that makes it possible to see through something ▪ the transparency of a piece of glass b : the quality that makes something obvious or easy to understand ▪ the transparency of their motives ▪ He says that there needs to be more transparency in the way the government operates.

2 [count] : a piece of thin, clear plastic with pictures or words printed on it that can be viewed on a large screen by shining light through it ▪ The professor used transparencies and an overhead projector during her lectures.

trans•par•ent /trænsˈperənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : able to be seen through ▪ transparent plastic bags ▪ transparent [=clear] glass

2 a : easy to notice or understand : OBVIOUS ▪ a transparent lie/falsehood ▪ Their motives were transparent. b : honest and open : not secretive ▪ The company's business dealings need to be more transparent. [=information about the company needs to be more available for people to see]

– trans•par•ent•ly adv ▪ a transparently silly excuse

tran•spire /trænˈspajɚ/ verb -spires; -spired; -spir•ing

1 [no obj] formal : to happen ▪ They wouldn't say what had transpired [=taken place] at the meeting. ▪ No one will soon forget the historic events that transpired on that day.

2 [no obj] formal : to become known — usually used with it ▪ Her name, it transpired, was false. [=(less formally) it turned out that her name was false] ▪ It transpired that they had met previously. [=we found out that they had met previously]

3 technical, of a plant : to have water evaporate from the surface of leaves [no obj] A plant transpires more freely on a hot dry day. [+ obj] Trees transpire water at a rapid rate.

[1]trans•plant /ˌtrænsˈplænt/ verb -plants; -plant•ed; -plant•ing

1 : to remove (a plant) from the ground or from a pot and move it to another place [+ obj] She carefully transplanted the seedlings. ▪ The bush was transplanted to a different part of the garden. [no obj] This plant does not transplant well. [=this plant does not grow well if you transplant it]

2 [+ obj] medical : to perform a medical operation in which an organ or other part that has been removed from the body of one person is put it into the body of another person ▪ Doctors transplanted one of his kidneys into his sister. ▪ a recipient of a transplanted heart

3 : to move (a person or animal) to a new home : RELOCATE [+ obj] The group transplanted the beavers to another part of the state. [no obj] She is a New Yorker who recently transplanted to the West Coast.

– trans•plan•ta•tion /ˌtrænsˌplænˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[2]trans•plant /ˈtrænsˌplænt/ noun, pl -plants

1 medical a : a medical operation in which an organ or other part is removed from the body of one person and put into the body of another person [count] The heart transplant was successful. ▪ He is going to need a liver transplant. [noncount] The doctors are trying to keep him alive until a liver can be found for transplant. ▪ transplant patients/recipients b [count] : an organ, piece of skin, etc., that is transplanted ▪ The patient's body rejected the transplant. ▪ She received a bone marrow transplant from an unknown donor.

2 [count] : a person who has moved to a new home especially in a different region or country ▪ She's a Southern transplant who now lives in New York.

trans•pon•der /trænˈspɑːndɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count] technical : a device that receives a radio signal and sends out a signal in response and that is used especially to show the location of something (such as an airplane)

[1]trans•port /ˌtrænsˈpoɚt/ verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing [+ obj]

1 : to carry (someone or something) from one place to another ▪ A van at the hotel transports guests to and from the airport. ▪ the cost of producing and transporting goods ▪ The melons are transported in large wooden crates. ▪ The illness was first transported across the ocean by European explorers.

2 a : to cause (someone) to imagine that he or she is in a different place or time ▪ The movie transports us to a world of stunning beauty. ▪ While reading, I was transported back to the year 1492. b literary : to cause (someone) to feel very happy, interested, or excited — usually used as (be) transported ▪ We were transported by the music.

3 in the past : to send (a criminal) to live in a distant country as a form of punishment ▪ He was transported for stealing.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 14:17:35 2008
