JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:24:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/000−fm−title

Merriam-Webster's Advanced LEARNER'S English Dictionary

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:24:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/000−fm−title

Merriam-Webster's Advanced LEARNER'S English Dictionary

Merriam-Webster, Incorporated
Springfield, Massachusetts, U.S.A.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:24:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/001−fm−copyright

A GENUINE MERRIAM-WEBSTER

The name Webster alone is no guarantee of excellence. It is used by a number of publishers and may serve mainly to mislead an unwary buyer.

Merriam-Webster™ is the name you should look for when you consider the purchase of dictionaries or other fine reference books. It carries the reputation of a company that has been publishing since 1831 and is your assurance of quality and authority.

Copyright © 2008 by Merriam-Webster, Incorporated

First Indian Edition © 2014 published by Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc.

Merriam-Webster and the bull's-eye logo are trademarks of Merriam-Webster, Incorporated.
Encyclopædia Britannica, Britannica, and the Thistle logo are trademarks of Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc.

Illustration for the entry comic strip © Paws Inc. All rights reserved.

ISBN: 978-1-62513-334-2

Printed in India by Replika Press Pvt. Ltd.

Imported and marketed in India by:
Encyclopædia Britannica (India) Private Limited
A-41, Mohan Cooperative Industrial Estate, Main Mathura Road, New Delhi-110044

Month & Year of Import:

All rights reserved. No part of this book covered by the copyrights hereon may be reproduced or copied in any form or by any means—graphic, electronic, or mechanical, including photocopying, taping, or information storage and retrieval systems—without written permission of the publisher.

Contents

Preface 7a
Using the Dictionary 10a
Labels Used in This Dictionary 21a
Pronunciation Symbols 22a
A Dictionary of the English Language 1
Color Art (following page 1002)
Geographical Names 1910
English Grammar Review 1927
• The Parts of Speech 1927 • The English Verb System 1936 • Phrases, Clauses, and Sentences 1944 • Other Grammar Topics 1948
Irregular Verbs 1953
Contractions 1957
Prefixes and Suffixes 1958
English Word Roots 1960
Words That Are Often Confused 1962
Spelling Rules 1965
The Spelling of Different Sounds in English 1968
A Handbook of Style 1970
• Punctuation 1970 • Compounds 1973 • Capitals and Italics 1974 • Abbreviations 1975 • Numbers 1975
Common First Names 1977 Money 1979
Numbers 1980
Weights and Measures 1982
Dates 1984
Holidays 1985
Envelope Addresses 1986
E-Mail, Letters, Memos, and Résumés 1989
Pronunciation Symbols 1994

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:25:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/003-fm-preface

Preface

Merriam-Webster's Advanced Learner's English Dictionary is not only an entirely new dictionary created by the editorial staff of America's oldest dictionary publisher; it also marks the beginning of a new kind of publishing for this company. Over the past 160 years, Merriam-Webster has produced hundreds of dictionaries and other reference books, and many of those books have been useful to learners of English as a second or foreign language, but this dictionary is the first one that we have produced specifically to meet the needs of those learners. The creation of this dictionary reflects the reality that English has become an international language, and that American English, in particular, is now being used and studied every day by millions of people around the world. We believe that we have a unique opportunity to help students of English—in the U.S. and elsewhere—to understand our language and to use it more clearly and effectively.

This dictionary provides coverage of both American and British English. Its coverage of British English is current and comprehensive. Its coverage of American English is, we believe, unparalleled. The thousands of entries, senses, phrases, forms, and examples that are labeled US in this dictionary will provide learners with a clearer and more precise description of idiomatic American usage than has ever before been available in a dictionary of this kind.

The approximately 100,000 entries in this dictionary include a broad selection of words from all major areas of interest, including popular culture, business, sports, science, and technology, among others. Our main focus in choosing entries has been to include the language that people are most likely to need and encounter in their daily lives. The evidence used to make decisions about which words and senses to include was drawn, first of all, from our continually growing database of citation text, now numbering more than 100 million words. That evidence was augmented in essential ways by the resources that are available to us over the Internet, and in particular by the enormous databases of Lexis-Nexis, which provided editors with ready access to vast amounts of material from both American and British sources. Not so long ago dictionary editors had to rely entirely on evidence that had been painstakingly collected over a period of years by a program of reading. That program continues at Merriam-Webster, providing the basis of our citation database, and we continue to find great value in the traditional methods of evidence-gathering, but we also have fully embraced the power of the electronic tools that have become available in recent decades. The use of computers now makes it possible for dictionary editors to examine and describe language at a level of detail that was never before imaginable.

The definitions in this dictionary are written in simple language. In many cases, a single use of a word will be given more than one definition. Very often a word will be defined by a quite simple definition, followed by a definition that is perhaps somewhat less simple or that shows how the defined word is related to another word. For example, the verb pioneer is defined both as "to help create or develop (new ideas, methods, etc.)" and as "to be a pioneer in the development of (something)." The first definition can certainly stand alone, but the second definition enhances it by underscoring the close connection between the verb pioneer and the noun pioneer—a connection that native speakers are unconsciously aware of, but that learners may not sense so strongly. The inclusion of multiple definitions thus helps learners both to expand their vocabularies and to gain a fuller picture of a word's meaning by approaching it from a slightly different direction. Notes of various kinds are also used abundantly throughout the dictionary to clarify and emphasize aspects of usage that cannot be easily captured or expressed in a definition.

True fluency in any language, of course, is not acquired by memorizing dictionary definitions, but by hearing and seeing how words are used in combination with each other to express meaning. In writing this book we have devoted a great deal of care and attention to creating simple and accurate definitions, but our feeling throughout has been that the real heart of the dictionary is its examples. We know from experience that dictionary users, whether native speakers or learners, want more examples. They want examples for common words, and they want examples for difficult words. Although not every entry in this dictionary includes an example—there is usually very little value in providing an example for, say, a noun like microchip or monoplane—the great majority of the entries do, and a large percentage of them include more than one. There are more than 160,000 usage examples in this dictionary. A few of them are quotations taken from well-known works of American and British literature, but most are made-up examples, based on evidence of real English, that have been carefully written to show words being used in appropriate contexts which accurately reflect their uses in actual speech and writing.

A large number of the examples in this dictio-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:25:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/003-fm-preface

nary do not simply illustrate usage, they also explain it and expand upon it in other ways. Many examples include synonymous words or phrases shown within brackets, thus allowing the reader either to learn a new word or to have the connection between the meanings of words reinforced. Examples also often include glosses, so that phrases and compound terms whose meanings are not obvious can be explained clearly and simply. And we have very frequently explained the meaning of entire phrases and sentences by restating them with other, simpler words. Many examples also show how the same word can be used in slightly different ways—or how related words can be used in different ways—to say the same thing. We believe that such examples are of great value to the learner; they are the next best thing to having a native speaker available by your side to help clarify what you are seeing and hearing.

Any comprehensive dictionary contains an enormous amount of information, and dictionary editors have typically been required to use a variety of abbreviations and other shortcuts to fit all that information into the limited space available between the covers of a book. Two of our main goals in creating the entries for this dictionary were to keep the use of such shortcuts to a minimum and to employ conventions that are readily understandable. We set out to create a dictionary that could be easily used without frequent reference to explanatory materials. To achieve that, we have minimized the use of abbreviations and symbols (although we were not able to eliminate them entirely) and we have tried to use labels and notes whose meanings are immediately clear. We have also made every effort to organize entries in a way that allows users to find the information they want quickly. The most obvious convention we have adopted for this purpose is the use of blue text for examples. The blue text not only highlights the examples, it also makes it much easier to identify the other elements of an entry—the definitions, usages notes, and so on—and to navigate through long entries to find the particular information that you need.

It can sometimes be easy to forget that a large dictionary like this one has to be written word by word and line by line. Each definition, each example, each note that appears in this dictionary is the product of careful and strenuous thought by at least one person, and often by many people, since the nature of the writing and editing process is such that multiple stages of review are required before the work is truly finished. The names of the many people who worked on this book are listed in the following paragraphs.

The length of this project has meant that some of the people who were with us when it began had moved on to other parts of their lives by the time it ended. The Merriam-Webster editors credited here include both current and former staff members. Former Director of Defining E. Ward Gilman and former Editor in Chief Frederick C. Mish, both now retired, provided helpful suggestions when the project was in its initial planning stages, as did consultant Robert Ilson. President and Publisher John M. Morse was also involved in the initial planning of the project and provided support and encouragement throughout it.

The editors who had the first crack at creating entries included, in no particular order, Karen L. Wilkinson, Susan L. Brady, Thomas F. Pitoniak, Kathleen M. Doherty, Emily A. Brewster, G. James Kossuth, Emily B. Arsenault, Penny L. Couillard-Dix, Emily A. Vezina, Benjamin T. Korzec, Ilya A. Davidovich, Judy Yeh, Rose Martino Bigelow, Kory L. Stamper, Peter A. Sokolowski, Neil S. Serven, Deanna Stathis, Anne Eason, Joanne M. Despres, Rebecca Bryer-Charette, and myself. Dr. Ilson undertook a complete review of the work that was done at that early stage, and he made many valuable corrections and additions. He was particularly helpful in providing good examples and in augmenting our coverage of British English by identifying distinctions (often very subtle ones) between American and British usage.

The pronunciations throughout the dictionary were provided by Joshua S. Guenter. The essential task of checking and re-checking cross-references was handled by Maria Sansalone, Donna L. Rickerby, and Adrienne M. Scholz. The work of copyediting the entries that had been created by the definers was done by editors Wilkinson, Brady, Brewster, Couillard-Dix, Korzec, Yeh, Stamper, Sokolowski, Serven, Eason, Despres, Bryer-Charette, and me. The complexity of this project was such that an additional reviewing stage was added following copyediting. That work was done by editors Bryer-Charette, Korzec, Brewster, Stamper, Brady, Couillard-Dix, Wilkinson, and Madeline L. Novak. The responsibility for final review of the manuscript fell to me.

The proofreading of the galleys and page proofs was done by many of the editors mentioned above and by Anne P. Bello and Paul S. Wood. The primary proofreader for the in-house keying of revisions was Kathleen M. Doherty. Specialized editing assistance was provided by editors Wood and Doherty. Most of the illustrations that appear throughout were newly created for this book. The new black-and-white illustrations were drawn by Tim Phelps of Johns Hopkins Univ., and the color illustrations were researched and drawn by Merriam-Webster editor Diane Caswell Christian. Mark A. Stevens oversaw the creation of the new illustrations and planned the black-and-white illustrations along with Lynn Stowe Tomb, who also coordinated work with Mr. Phelps and converted the drawings to electronic form for typesetting. Freelancer Loree Hany and editors Jennifer N. Cislo and Joan I. Narmontas assisted in art research. The selection of the 3,000 entry words that are highlighted as being most important for learners to know was based in large part on initial recommendations provided by James G. Lowe and Madeline L. Novak. Additional research was carried out and final selections were made by John M. Morse. The Geographical Names section was prepared by Daniel J. Hopkins. The other back matter sections were prepared by Mark A. Stevens, C. Roger Davis, and outside contributor Orin Hargraves. Robert D. Copeland arranged for

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 12:25:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/003-fm-preface

Content Data Solutions, Inc., to convert the dictionary data files to a suitable format before typesetting them. The converted files were checked by Donna L. Rickerby. Daniel B. Brandon keyed revisions into the converted data files and contributed other technical help. Thomas F. Pitoniak directed the book through its typesetting stages. Project coordination and scheduling were handled by Madeline L. Novak, who was also chiefly responsible for the book's typography and page design.

Our notions about what this book could and should be continued to develop as we progressed through the different stages of editing, and many of the people named above made useful suggestions that led to changes, both minor and major, in the book's style and content. Further changes were implemented thanks to comments and suggestions from a group of consultants who reviewed a selection of entries at a fairly late stage in the project. We gratefully acknowledge the important contributions of those consultants, whose names are listed below.

We want first of all to express our thanks to Jerome C. Su, President of the Taiwan Association of Translation and Interpretation and Chair of Bookman Books, Taipei, Taiwan, for all of his advice and good suggestions at the reviewing stage and throughout the project. Our other consultants, all of whom provided us with carefully considered and valuable feedback, were Virginia G. Allen, author and educator, Ohio State Univ.; James H. Miller, ESL teacher; Elizabeth Niergarth, ESL instructor/consultant, Harvard Univ.; Susan Despres Prior, ESL teacher; Caroline Wilcox Reul, lexicographer and ESL teacher; Maggie Sokolik, Director, Technical Communication Program, College of Engineering, Univ. of California, Berkeley; Yukio Takahashi, English teacher, Sendai Shirayuri Gakuen High School, Sendai, Japan; Gregory Trzebiatowski, Headmaster, Thomas Jefferson School, Concepción, Chile (and his students Felipe Opazo, Paula Reyes, and Carolina Sanhueza); and Rob Waring, author and educator, Notre Dame Seishin Univ., Okayama, Japan.

All of the editors who worked on this book have of course had the experience of studying a foreign language, with varying degrees of success. This project has given us renewed opportunities to understand what it is like to approach English—with all its complexities, subtleties, and apparent inconsistencies—as a learner rather than as a native speaker, and that experience has reminded us again of just how challenging the task of learning a new language truly is. We hope and believe that Merriam-Webster's Advanced Learner's English Dictionary is a resource that will make that task easier for students of English.

Stephen J. Perrault
Editor

Using the Dictionary

Entries

The entries in the dictionary are arranged in alphabetical order according to their headwords.

Headwords are the boldface words at the beginning of an entry.

bane /ˈbeɪn/ noun [singular] : a cause of trouble, annoyance, or unhappiness — usually used in the phrase the bane of ▪ The ugly school uniforms were the bane of the students' lives. ▪ She was the bane of my existence. [=she made my life very unhappy, difficult, etc.]

Dots within headwords show the places where you can break a word and add a hyphen if all of it will not fit at the end of a line of print or writing.

gar·gan·tuan /gɑəˈgæntʃəwən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large in size or amount : GIGANTIC ▪ a creature of gargantuan proportions ▪ a gargantuan appetite

A blue underline highlights the headwords of 3,000 basic English words selected by Merriam-Webster editors as being the most important for learners to know.

achieve /əˈʧiːv/ verb achieves; achieved; achiev·ing
1 [+ obj] : to get or reach (something) by working hard ▪ This year, our company was able to achieve [=accomplish, attain] all of its production goals. ▪ He worked hard and achieved success. [=became successful]

You will sometimes find two or more headwords that are spelled exactly alike and that have small numbers attached to them. These entries are called homographs.

Homographs often are related words that have different parts of speech. For example, the noun lecture and the verb lecture are entered in this dictionary as separate homographs.

[1]lec·ture /ˈlɛkʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 : a talk or speech given to a group of people to teach them about a particular subject ▪ a lecture about/on politics ▪ She's planning to give/deliver a series of lectures on modern art. ▪ Several hundred people are expected to attend the lecture.
2 : a talk that criticizes someone's behavior in an angry or serious way ▪ I came home late and got a lecture from my parents. ▪ I gave her a lecture about doing better in school.

[2]lecture verb -tures; -tured; -tur·ing
1 [no obj] : to give a talk or a series of talks to a group of people to teach them about a particular subject ▪ She lectures (to undergraduates) on modern art at the local college. ▪ She lectures in art at the local college.
2 [+ obj] : to talk to (someone) in an angry or serious way ▪ They lectured their children about/on the importance of honesty. ▪ I lectured her about doing better in school.

Some homographs are words that are spelled the same way but are not related at all. For example, there are two different nouns in English that are spelled calf. Those two nouns are not related to each other and are treated as separate entries in this dictionary.

[1]calf /ˈkæf, Brit ˈkɑːf/ noun, pl calves /ˈkævz, Brit ˈkɑːvz/ [count]
1 : a very young cow
2 : the young of various other large animals (such as the elephant or whale)
– compare [2]CALF

[2]calf noun, pl calves [count] : the muscular back part of the leg below the knee — see picture at HUMAN — compare [1]CALF

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

Idioms and phrasal verbs are shown in alphabetical order at the end of the entry that they relate to.

pave /ˈpeɪv/ verb paves; paved; pav·ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) with a material (such as stone, tar, or concrete) that forms a hard, level surface for walking, driving, etc. ▪ The crew was paving the road. ▪ Some of the roads were paved over. ▪ The driveway is paved with concrete. ▪ a paved highway/road ▪ It was said that this country was so rich, the streets were paved with/in gold.

pave over [phrasal verb] pave over (something) or pave (something) over disapproving : to cover (an area) with roads, parking lots, buildings, etc. ▪ All this beautiful farmland will be paved over.

pave the way for (something or someone) : to make it easier for something to happen or for someone to do something ▪ The discovery paves the way for the development of effective new treatments.

Some words are shown without definitions at the very end of an entry. The meaning of these words can be understood when you know the meaning of the main entry word that they are related to. For example, when a word ends in a suffix like -ly or -ness, you can understand the word's meaning by combining the meaning of the base word (the main entry) and the meaning of the suffix.

con·cise /kənˈsaɪs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using few words : not including extra or unnecessary information ▪ a clear and concise account of the accident ▪ a concise summary ▪ a concise definition
– con·cise·ly adv – con·cise·ness noun [noncount]

Pronunciations

The pronunciations in this dictionary are written using the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA). The symbols used are listed in a chart on page 22a.

Pronunciations are shown between a pair of slashes / / following the entry word. Only one pronunciation is given for most words. This is the most commonly used pronunciation.

fal·la·cious /fəˈleɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : containing a mistake : not true or accurate ▪ a fallacious [=false] set of assumptions ▪ fallacious [=misleading] arguments
– fal·la·cious·ly adv – fal·la·cious·ness noun [noncount]

Additional pronunciations are shown when the word can be pronounced in different ways that are equally common.

apri·cot /ˈæprəˌkɑːt, ˈeɪprəˌkɑːt/ noun, pl -cots [count] : a small orange-colored fruit that is related to the peach and plum — see color picture on page C5

Pronunciations are not shown at every entry. If homographs have the same pronunciation, the pronunciation is written only at the first homograph (as the entries above for calf show). If the homographs are pronounced differently, a pronunciation is written at each homograph.

[1]pres·ent /ˈprɛzn̩t/ noun, pl -ents [count] : something that you give to someone especially as a way of showing affection or thanks : GIFT ▪ a birthday/Christmas/anniversary/wedding present ▪ Here's a present for you from John. ▪ I gave/got her a book as a present. ▪ Did you wrap the presents? — compare [4]PRESENT

[2]pre·sent /prɪˈzɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent·ed; -sent·ing
1 [+ obj] : to give something to someone in a formal way or in a ceremony ▪ He presented the queen with a diamond necklace. ▪ He was presented with a medal at the ceremony. ▪ She presented a check for $5,000 to the charity.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

A label in parentheses ( ) after a headword tells you where that spelling is used. The example shown here indicates that the spelling ampule is used in U.S. English. Notice that the spelling ampoule does not have a US or Brit label. This means that it is common in both U.S. and British English.

am•pule (US) or am•poule /ˈæmˌpju:l/ noun, pl -pules or -poules [count] : a small glass container used to hold a fluid that is injected into someone through a needle

The word chiefly is used to tell you that a word or variant is very common in a specified country or region but that it is also sometimes used in other countries or regions. The example shown here indicates that the British spellings grey and greyish are also sometimes used in U.S. English.

[2]gray (US) or chiefly Brit grey noun, pl grays
1 [count, noncount] : a color that is between black and white : a color that is like the color of smoke ▪ wearing gray ▪ shades of gray — see color picture on page C1
2 [count] : something (such as an animal) that is gray
– gray•ish (US) or chiefly Brit grey•ish /ˈgreɪɪʃ/ adj

Definitions

The definitions in this dictionary are written in simple and clear language. If you are unsure about the meaning of a word that is used in a definition, you can look that word up at its own entry in the dictionary and find its meaning explained there.

Most definitions begin with a boldface colon.

gait /ˈgeɪt/ noun, pl gaits [count] : a particular way of walking ▪ He has an awkward gait. ▪ an easy/unsteady gait

Some definitions are written as notes that describe how a word or phrase is used. Those definitions begin with a dash.

earliest noun
at the earliest — used to indicate the earliest possible time when something will happen or be done ▪ The job will not be finished until next year at the (very) earliest. [=it will not be finished before next year] — compare LATEST

Some definitions are written as complete sentences and begin with the ✧ symbol.

[1]gorge /ˈgoɚʤ/ noun, pl gorg•es [count]
1 : a deep, narrow area between hills or mountains
2 ✧ If your gorge rises you feel sick, disgusted, or angry. ▪ My gorge rises [=I feel very angry] when I think of children living in such bad conditions. ▪ a disgusting odor that made my gorge rise [=made me feel like vomiting]

Synonyms and Antonyms

Synonyms are words that have the same meaning. A word that is shown in small capital letters in a definition is a synonym of the word that is being defined. The example shown here indicates that the word seafarer has the same meaning as sailor.

sea•far•er /ˈsi:ˌferɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned : someone who works or travels on a boat or ship on the sea : SAILOR

For some words, the only definition shown is a synonym. You can read a full definition by looking at the entry for the synonym.

dust•cart /ˈdʌstˌkɑɚt/ noun, pl -carts [count] Brit : GARBAGE TRUCK

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

The synonyms of an entry are often shown at the end of the entry or sense in a called also note.

garbage truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] US : a truck used to take away garbage that people put outside their houses, buildings, etc., in bags or cans — called also (Brit) dustcart; see picture at TRUCK

Synonyms are also frequently shown in square brackets within examples.

ram•bunc•tious /ræmˈbʌŋkʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : uncontrolled in a way that is playful or full of energy ▪ a class full of rambunctious [=boisterous, (Brit) rumbustious] children ▪ a rambunctious crowd/audience

Antonyms are words that have opposite meanings. When a word has an antonym, it is shown at the end of the entry or sense.

op•ti•mist /ˈɑ:ptəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count] : a person who usually expects good things to happen ▪ You have to be a bit of an optimist to start a business. ▪ Somehow he remained an optimist despite all that had happened to him. — opposite PESSIMIST

Examples

Examples of how a word is used are provided at most of the entries and are printed in blue.

flustered adj [more ~; most ~] : upset or nervous ▪ She seemed flustered when he asked about her past. ▪ Don't do anything to get him flustered. ▪ He was too flustered to speak.

Some examples have explanations that are given in square brackets.

ga•lore /gəˈloə/ adj, always used after a noun, informal : in large numbers or amounts ▪ The store promises bargains galore [=promises that there will be many bargains] during its weekend sale.

Some examples show different ways of saying the same thing.

[2]game adj gam•er; -est
1 : willing or ready to do something ▪ "Do you feel like going to the movies tonight?" "Sure, I'm game." ▪ They were game for anything. = They were game to try anything.

Many common phrases are highlighted in examples and are sometimes followed by explanations.

be•hav•ior (US) or Brit be•hav•iour /bɪˈheɪvjə/ noun, pl -iors
1 : the way a person or animal acts or behaves [noncount] I'm surprised by her bad behavior toward her friends. ▪ Students will be rewarded for good behavior. ▪ scientists studying the behavior of elephants ▪ normal adolescent behavior ▪ criminal behavior ▪ an interesting pattern of behavior = an interesting behavior pattern ▪ The children were all on their best behavior [=were all behaving very well and politely] at the museum. ▪ Inmates may be released from prison early for good behavior. [=because they have followed prison rules and have not caused problems]

Examples that show collocations and other common word groups are introduced by a brief note.

in•struct /ɪnˈstrʌkt/ verb -structs; -struct•ed; -struct•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to teach (someone) a subject, skill, etc. — usually + in or on ▪ His friend instructed him in English. ▪ Many doctors are instructing their patients on the importance of exercise. ▪ She instructed us on how to interpret the text.
2 a : to give (someone) an order or command ▪ She instructed us that we were to remain in our seats. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She instructed us to remain in our seats. — often used as (be) instructed ▪ We were instructed to remain in our seats. b law : to give an order or an explanation of a law to (a jury) ▪ The judge instructed the jury that they should disregard the testimony of the last witness.
3 Brit : to hire (a lawyer) to represent you in a legal case ▪ She advised him to instruct a solicitor.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

Words that are shown in parentheses in an example are optional words, which means that they can be included or omitted without changing the basic meaning of the example.

[2]hiss verb hisses; hissed; hiss•ing
1 [no obj] : to produce a sound like a long "s" : to make a hiss ▪ The radiator hissed as it let off steam. ▪ a hissing noise
2 : to show that you dislike or disapprove of someone (such as a performer or speaker) by making a hiss [no obj] The audience booed and hissed (at him) when he came on stage. [+ obj] The audience hissed him off the stage.
3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a loud or angry whisper ▪ "Leave me alone!" he hissed.

A slash / is used between words in an example or phrase when either of the words can be used in the same place in that example or phrase. Words separated by slashes in examples do not always have the same meaning.

cat•nap /ˈkætˌnæp/ noun, pl -naps [count] : a short period of sleep : a brief nap ▪ He took/had a catnap.
– cat•nap verb -naps; -napped; -nap•ping [no obj] ▪ She closed her eyes to catnap while her friend drove the car.

flu•o•res•cent /flʊˈrɛsn̩t/ adj
1 : producing light when electricity flows through a tube that is filled with a type of gas ▪ a fluorescent light/lamp
2 : very bright ▪ fluorescent colors/clothing ▪ fluorescent tape/paint

Forms and Tenses

When a noun, verb, adjective, or adverb has different forms or tenses, those forms or tenses are shown in boldface at the beginning of the entry immediately after the label noun, verb, adj, or adv.

A noun's plural form is shown when one or more of its senses can be plural. The abbreviation pl is used to mean plural. Often just the last part of the plural form is shown.

ho•tel /hoʊˈtɛl/ noun, pl -tels [count] : a place that has rooms in which people can stay especially when they are traveling : a place that provides food, lodging, and other services for paying guests ▪ check into a hotel ▪ check out of a hotel
ho•tel•i•er /hoʊˈtɛljə/ noun, pl -iers [count] : a person who owns or operates a hotel

When the plural form of a compound noun is shown, a special symbol ~ is used to represent the first word or words of the noun. In the example shown here, the plural form of the noun flower bed is flower beds.

flower bed noun, pl ~ beds [count] : an area where flowers are planted

All verb entries show these three forms: the present third-person singular form, the past tense, and the present participle. [See pages 1936–38 for grammar help on verb tenses.] In many cases, only the last parts of the forms are shown.

[1]blink /ˈblɪŋk/ verb blinks; blinked; blink•ing

ga•lumph /gəˈlʌmf/ verb -lumphs; -lumphed; -lumph•ing [no obj] informal : to move in a loud and clumsy way ▪ I could hear him galumphing around in the attic.

When the past participle and the past tense of a verb are different, the past participle is also shown after the past tense.

[1]drive /ˈdraɪv/ verb drives; drove /ˈdroʊv/; driv•en /ˈdrɪvən/; driv•ing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/004−fm−using−the−dictionary

Some adjectives and adverbs have comparative and superlative forms which are shown in boldface at the beginning of the entry. These forms are often created by adding -er or -est to the main entry word. The entry for short indicates that the comparative form is shorter and the superlative form is shortest. [See also Grammatical Labels (below) for more information about the treatment of comparative and superlative forms.]

[1]short /ˈʃoərt/ adj short•er; -est

Sometimes the comparative and superlative forms are very different from the main entry word.

[1]good /ˈgʊd/ adj bet•ter /ˈbɛtəɹ/; best /ˈbɛst/

When an entry has both an American and a British spelling, the forms and tenses are shown only for the American spelling in order to save space. For example, the entry for harbor shows only the American plural harbors. If you are using the British spelling, of course, the plural should be harbours.

[1]har•bor (US) or Brit har•bour /ˈhɑəbəɹ/ noun, pl -bors [count]

Grammatical Labels

In addition to having a part of speech label, such as noun, verb, or adj, many entries include one or more grammatical labels which are shown in square brackets and which tell you the different forms or uses of a particular noun, verb, adjective, etc. When these labels appear at the beginning of the entry, they describe the entire entry. They can also appear at individual senses in an entry, and they can be used to introduce a particular example or group of examples.

Most nouns are labeled [count], [noncount], [count, noncount], [singular], or [plural]. [See pages 1927–28 for grammar help on nouns.]

An entry or sense for a noun is labeled [count] when it has both a singular and a plural form.

heart•beat /ˈhɑəɹtˌbiːt/ noun, pl -beats [count] : the action or sound of the heart as it pumps blood ▪ The patient had a rapid heartbeat. ▪ irregular heartbeats

An entry or sense for a noun is labeled [noncount] when it does not have a plural form and when it refers to something that cannot be counted.

heart•burn /ˈhɑəɹtˌbəɹn/ noun [noncount] : an unpleasant hot feeling in your chest caused by something that you ate ▪ I like spicy food, but it gives me heartburn.

When a noun can be used as both a count and a noncount noun, it is sometimes given a [count, noncount] label.

sedge /ˈsɛʤ/ noun, pl sedg•es [count, noncount] : a plant like grass that grows in wet ground or near water

An entry or sense for a noun that is always used in its plural form is labeled [plural].

long johns /ˈlɑːŋˌʤɑːnz/ noun [plural] : underwear that covers your legs and that is worn in cold weather — called also (US) long underwear; see color picture on page C12

An entry or sense for a noun that refers to one thing and is never used in a plural form is labeled [singular].

[2]glow noun [singular]
1 : a soft and steady light ▪ We could see the glow of the lamp in the window. ▪ The town's lights cast a glow on the horizon.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

Most verbs in this dictionary are labeled as either [+ obj] or [no obj] or both. Other types of verbs have these labels: [modal verb], [linking verb], or [auxiliary verb]. Verbs labeled [phrasal verb] are entered as phrases at the end of a verb entry. [See pages 1930–31 for grammar help on verbs.]

An entry or sense for a verb that has an object is labeled [+ obj]. A verb of this kind is known as a transitive verb.

[2]graze verb grazes; grazed; grazing [+ obj]
1 : to touch or hit (something) while moving past it ▪ The car's wheel grazed the curb. ▪ He was grazed by a bullet.

An entry or sense for a verb that does not have an object is labeled [no obj]. A verb of this kind is known as an intransitive verb.

[1]gab /ˈgæb/ verb gabs; gabbed; gab•bing [no obj] informal
: to talk a lot in an informal way usually about things that are not important or serious ▪ They stayed up late gabbing (away) on the phone. ▪ gabbing about the weather
– gab•ber noun, pl -bers [count] ▪ talk radio gabbers

An entry or sense that is labeled [linking verb] does not express action but is used to say that something exists or is in a particular state. It connects an object with an adjective or noun that describes or identifies a subject.

be•come /bɪˈkʌm/ verb -comes; -came /-ˈkeɪm/; -come; -com•ing
1 [linking verb] : to begin to be or come to be something specified ▪ Although I've known him for years, we didn't become close friends until recently. ▪ She won the election, becoming the first woman to be President of the nation. ▪ They both became teachers.

An entry or sense that is labeled [auxiliary verb] is used with another verb in order to show the verb's tense, to form a question, etc.

be /ˈbi:/ verb…
10 [auxiliary verb] — used with the past participle of a verb to form passive constructions ▪ The money was found by a child. ▪ They were [=got] married by a priest. ▪ Don't be fooled by what he says. ▪ Please be seated. [=please sit down] ▪ The election was expected to produce a very close result. ▪ God be praised! [=let God be praised] ▪ I was surprised by her rudeness.

An entry or sense that is labeled [modal verb] is used with another verb to express an idea about what is possible, necessary, etc.

[1]can /kən, ˈkæn/ verb, past tense could /kəd, ˈkʊd/ present tense for both singular and plural can; negative can•not /ˈkænɑt, kəˈnɑ:t, Brit ˈkænət/ or can't /ˈkænt, Brit ˈkɑ:nt/ [modal verb]
1 : to be able to (do something) ▪ I don't need any help. I can do it myself. ▪ I can't decide what to do. ▪ All we can do [=the only thing we can do] now is wait. : to know how to (do something) ▪ She can read, can't she? ▪ I can whistle. : to have the power or skill to (do something) ▪ A weight lifter can lift a very heavy weight. ▪ She can play the piano. ▪ Only Congress can do that. : to be designed to (do something) ▪ a car that can hold five people [=a car that has enough room for five people] ▪ How fast can [=does, will] the car go?

A verb that is labeled [phrasal verb] is a verb that is used with a preposition, an adverb, or both.

[2]pal verb pals; palled; pal•ling
pal around with [phrasal verb] informal pal around with (someone) chiefly US : to spend time with (someone) as a friend ▪ She's been palling around with a girl she met at school.
pal up [phrasal verb] chiefly Brit, informal : to become friends with someone ▪ They palled up when they were neighbors long ago. ▪ He pals up with anyone who can help his career.

The comparative and superlative forms of some adjectives and adverbs are formed by adding the letters -er and -est at the end of the word or by changing the word completely. Other adjectives and adverbs are given their comparative and superlative forms by using the words more and most. [See pages 1931–34 for grammar help on adjectives and adverbs.]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

When a word has comparative and superlative forms that use the words more and most, the word is given the label [more ~; most ~]. This label also means that an adjective or adverb can be used with words like very and slightly. The example shown here means that you can say that one thing is "more complicated" than another, that something is the "most complicated" one of a group, that something is "very complicated," etc.

com•pli•cat•ed /ˈkɑːmpləˌkeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
: hard to understand, explain, or deal with ▪ The game's rules are too complicated. ▪ a complicated situation ▪ a very complicated issue : having many parts or steps ▪ The machine has a complicated design. ▪ a complicated plan ▪ a complicated mathematical formula

Sometimes the comparative and superlative forms of an adjective or adverb can be formed in two different ways. The word or is included in the label when the more/most forms are as common as the -er/-est forms. When the more/most forms are much less common, also is used.

drea•ry /ˈdrɪri/ adj drea•ri•er; -ri•est [or more ~; most ~]
: causing unhappiness or sad feelings : not warm, cheerful, etc. ▪ It was a gray, dreary morning. ▪ She longed to leave her dreary [=gloomy, dismal] hometown. ▪ The family struggled through dreary economic times.

[1]small /ˈsmɑːl/ adj small•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : little in size ▪ They live in a small house. ▪ a small glass of soda ▪ She moved to a smaller town. ▪ The toy is small enough to fit in my pocket. ▪ He has small hands. ▪ This room is a little smaller than that one.

Sometimes the label [more ~; most ~] is shown only at a specific sense. In the example shown here, the first sense of muscular cannot be used with words like more, most, and very, but the second sense can.

mus•cu•lar /ˈmʌskjələ/ adj
1 : of or relating to muscles ▪ muscular strength/weakness ▪ a muscular injury
2 [more ~; most ~] : having large and strong muscles ▪ a muscular athlete ▪ He has a muscular physique. ▪ His legs are very muscular.
– mus•cu•lar•i•ty /ˌmʌskjəˈlerəti/ noun [noncount]

When an adverb is shown at the end of the entry for an adjective that has a [more ~; most ~] label, the label is not repeated for the adverb, but it also describes how the adverb can be used. In the example shown here, both the adjective querulous and the adverb querulously can be used with words like more, most, and very.

quer•u•lous /ˈkweəjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
: complaining in an annoyed way ▪ The child said in a querulous [=whining] voice that he didn't like carrots. ▪ querulous customers
– quer•u•lous•ly adv – quer•u•lous•ness noun [noncount]

Other Labels

Many entries include labels such as formal, informal, US, Brit, etc. [See page 21a for a list of the labels that are commonly used in this dictionary.]

When a label appears at the beginning of an entry, it describes the entire entry, including any undefined words that may appear at the end of the entry. In the example shown here, the label formal means that both senses of mendacious are formal, and that the adverb mendaciously and the noun mendaciousness are also formal words.

men•da•cious /mɛnˈdeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : not honest : likely to tell lies ▪ a mendacious businessman
2 : based on lies ▪ The newspaper story was mendacious and hurtful. ▪ a mendacious political campaign – men•da•cious•ly adv – men•da•cious•ness noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

When a label is used at a specific part of an entry (such as a particular sense or example), it relates only to that specific part.

[1]grit /ˈgrɪt/ noun [noncount]
1 : very small pieces of sand or stone ▪ He shook out his shoes to remove the small rocks and grit.
2 informal : mental toughness and courage ▪ Through resourcefulness and grit, the pioneers survived the winter.

live•li•hood /ˈlaɪvliˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods : a way of earning money in order to live [count] Many fishermen believe that the new regulations threaten their livelihoods. [noncount] (formal) He claims he lost a source/means of livelihood when he was injured.

Cross-references

Many entries include notes that direct you to another entry or sense for additional information.

Compare notes are placed at the entries of words that are similar or that may be confused with each other.

[1]can•ter /ˈkæntɚ/ noun, pl -ters
1 [singular] : the way a horse moves when it is running fairly fast ▪ He set off at a canter towards the stable.
2 [count] : a ride or run at a canter — usually singular ▪ a canter through the fields — compare [1]GALLOP, [2]TROT

When two or more homographs have the same part of speech, a compare note is included at the end of each entry.

[3]do noun, pl dos [count] informal
1 : something that a person should do — usually used in the phrase dos and don'ts ▪ She told her daughter about the dos and don'ts of dating. [=about the things that she should and should not do when dating someone]
2 US : a way of cutting and arranging a person's hair : HAIRDO ▪ She was worried that the wind might mess up her do.
3 : a party or social gathering ▪ We threw a big do for her after graduation.
– compare [4]DO

[4]do /ˈdoʊ/ or chiefly Brit doh noun [noncount] : the first note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti — compare [3]DO

See also notes often direct you to another entry that uses a form of the word you were looking up.

ef•face /ɪˈfeɪs/ verb -fac•es; -faced; -fac•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (something) to fade or disappear ▪ coins with dates effaced by wear ▪ a memory effaced by time — see also SELF-EFFACING
– ef•face•ment /ɪˈfeɪsmənt/ noun [noncount]

See also notes can also direct you to a phrase that is defined at another entry.

die–hard /ˈdaɪˌhɑɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very determined or loyal ▪ die-hard fans; especially : very loyal to a set of beliefs and not willing to change those beliefs ▪ a die-hard conservative — see also die hard at [1]DIE
– die•hard noun, pl -hards [count] ▪ a bunch of conservative diehards

And see also notes can direct you to a different part of the same entry.

[2]act verb acts; act•ed; act•ing…
6 [no obj] : to make something happen : to have a particular effect ▪ The chemical acts [=works] by destroying the cells in the brain. — often + on ▪ These medicines act on [=affect] the heart. — see also ACT ON/UPON (below)
act on/upon [phrasal verb] act on/upon (something) : to use (something, such as a feeling or suggestion) as a reason or basis for doing something ▪ They never acted on the information they had. ▪ We were too late to act upon his suggestion. ▪ It's okay to feel angry or jealous, but you mustn't act on those feelings. — see also [2]ACT 6 (above)

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 14 11:53:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/004-fm-using-the-dictionary

A see cross-reference tells you that more information can be found at another entry.

dif•fer /ˈdɪfə/ verb -fers; -fered; -fer•ing [no obj] …
2 : to have opinions that don't agree ▪ We differ [=disagree] on/about/over how best to raise the money. — often + with ▪ They differed with each other on religious matters.
agree to differ see AGREE beg to differ see BEG

key•hole /ˈkiːˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : the opening in a lock into which a key is placed — see picture at DOOR

Other Features

Differences between words that have the same meanings or very similar meanings are discussed in special synonyms paragraphs.

synonyms REMARK, OBSERVATION, and COMMENT mean something that is said or written and that gives an opinion. REMARK often suggests a quick thought or an informal judgment. ▪ He made a casual remark about the food. OBSERVATION often suggests an opinion expressed after looking closely at and thinking about something. ▪ She published her observations on whales after 10 years of study. COMMENT often suggests a remark that is meant to explain or criticize. ▪ I asked her to give me her comments on the book when she finished it.

Problems and questions that relate to the use of a particular word are discussed in usage paragraphs.

usage Ain't is usually regarded as an error, but it is common in the very informal speech of some people and it is also used in informal and humorous phrases. ▪ That joke just ain't funny. ▪ Say it ain't so! ▪ You ain't seen nothing yet! ▪ Two out of three ain't bad. ▪ If it ain't broke don't fix it! ▪ Things ain't what they used to be. ▪ Ain't that the truth?

Many entries include notes that begin with the symbol ✧ and explain the origins of a word or provide other kinds of information.

Scrooge or scrooge /ˈskruːʤ/ noun, pl Scroog•es or scrooges [count] informal : a selfish and unfriendly person who is not willing to spend or give away money — usually singular ▪ His boss is a real Scrooge who never gives people raises. ✧ Scrooge is from the name of Ebenezer Scrooge, the main character in the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens.

PIN /ˈpɪn/ abbr personal identification number ✧ A personal identification number is a secret number that is used to get money from a bank account through a machine, to get personal information on a Web site, etc.

Labels Used in This Dictionary

Parts of Speech

(See pages 1927–35 for explanations and examples.)

abbr — abbreviation
adj — adjective
adv — adverb combining form conj — conjunction definite article indefinite article interj — interjection noun prefix prep — preposition pronoun
suffix
verb

Grammatical Labels

(See pages 16a–18a for explanations and examples.)

for nouns: [count], [noncount], [count, noncount], [singular], [plural] for verbs: [+ obj], [no obj], [auxiliary verb], [linking verb], [modal verb], [phrasal verb] for adjectives and adverbs: [more ~; most ~], [or more ~; most ~], [also more ~; most ~]

Usage Labels

Regional Labels:

US — common only in American English chiefly US — common in American English and sometimes used in British English Brit — common only in British English chiefly Brit — common in British English and sometimes used in American English Status Labels:

slang — used in very informal, spoken English usually by a small group of people offensive — likely to offend many people and usually avoided obscene — very offensive in a way that many people find shocking impolite — not used in polite speech and writing

Register Labels:

informal — used in informal speech and writing formal — used in formal speech and writing literary — used in novels, poetry, etc., and rarely used in ordinary speech and writing old-fashioned — not often used today but used by people in the recent past or by older people humorous — having a funny or amusing quality technical — used by people who have special knowledge about a particular subject disapproving — used to show that you do not like or approve of someone or some thing approving — used to show that you like or approve of someone or something

Subject Labels

Labels like medical, law, and baseball are used to show the specific subject that a definition relates to.

Pronunciation Symbols

VOWELS

Note: when two symbols are separated by / in the list below (eɪ/ej, ʊ/ow, etc.), the second symbol is used when the sound occurs immediately before another vowel and the first symbol is used elsewhere. The symbols /ɑː iː uː/ are written as /ɑ i u/ when found in unstressed syllables.

æ	ask, bat, glad
ɑː	cot, bomb, paw
ɛ	bet, fed ə	about, bana, collide
iː/iːj	eat, bead, bee
ɪ	id, bid, pit
ʊ	foot, should, put
uː/uːw	boot, two, coo
ʌ	under, putt, bud
ɚ/ɚr	merge, bird, further
eɪ/ej	eight, wade, play
aɪ/aj	ice, bite, tile aʊ/aw	out, gown, owl
oɪ/oj	oyster, coil, boy
oʊ/ow	oat, own, zone
ɑɚ/ɑr	car, heart, star
eɚ/er	bare, fair, wear
iɚ/ir	near, deer, mere
oɚ/or	boar, port, door
uɚ/ur	boor, tour

Note: The symbols below are for vowels that occur in British English. British pronunciations are shown in this dictionary when the most common British pronunciation is very different from the American pronunciation.

ɒ	British cot, bomb
ɔː	British caught, paw, port
ɚː	British merge, bird
əʊ	British oat, own, zone
ɪə	British near, deer
ɛə	British bare, fair
ʊə	British boor, tour

CONSONANTS

b	baby, labor, cab
d	day, kid, riddle
ʤ	just, badger, fudge
ð	then, either, bathe
f	foe, tough, buff
g	go, dagger, bag
h	hot, ahead
j	yes, vineyard
k	cat, flock, skin l	law, hollow
l̩	pedal, battle, final
m	mat, hemp, hammer
n	new, tent, tenor, run
n̩	button, satin, kitten
ŋ	rung, hang, swinger
p	top, speed, pay
r	rope, arrive
s	sad, mist, kiss
ʃ	shoe, mission, slush
t	stick, late, later
ʧ	batch, nature, choose
θ	thin, ether, bath
v	vat, never, cave w	wet, software
z	zoo, easy, buzz
ʒ	vision, azure, beige

OTHER SYMBOLS

ˈ	high stress: penmanship
ˌ	low stress: penmanship
Brit	indicates British pronunciation
/	slash used in pairs to mark the beginning and end of a pronunciation or set of pronunciations /ˈpɛn/

A Dictionary of the English Language

A

[1]a or A /ˈeɪ/ noun, pl a's or as or A's or As
1 : the first letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that begins with an a [noncount] a word that begins with a
2 : a musical note or key referred to by the letter A : the sixth tone of a C-major scale [count] play/sing an A [noncount] a song in the key of A
3 [count] : a grade that is given to a student for doing excellent work ▪ She got an A on the exam. ▪ He's an A student. [=a student who gets A's for his schoolwork]
4 [noncount] — used to refer to the first of two or more people, places, or things that are being considered ▪ If A, B, and C divide the coins equally, how many does each person get?
an A for effort see EFFORT exhibit A see [2]EXHIBIT from A to Z : including everything ▪ The book is titled "Home Repairs From A to Z."
from (point) A to (point) B : from one place to another ▪ I don't care about the scenery. I'm only interested in getting from A to B.

[2]a /ə, ˈeɪ/ or an /ən, ˈæn/ indefinite article ✧ A is used before a consonant sound. ▪ a door ▪ a human An is used before a vowel sound. ▪ an icicle ▪ an honor Note that when a word begins with a vowel letter but is pronounced with a consonant sound, a is used. ▪ a one ▪ a union When an abbreviation begins with a consonant letter but is pronounced with a vowel sound, an is used. ▪ an FBI investigation ▪ an LCD display When a word begins with h but the first syllable of the word is not given primary stress, both a and an are used. ▪ a historic ▪ an historic
1 — used before singular nouns when the person or thing is being mentioned for the first time ▪ There was a tree in the field. ▪ A man walked past him. ▪ I heard a shout. ▪ He bought a house, but this is not the house he bought. ▪ I ordered an apple and some cheese: I ate the apple but not the cheese.
2 a — used like one before number words like hundred, thousand, etc. ▪ a hundred and twenty people ▪ a million dollars ▪ a dozen doughnuts b — used like one before number words like third, fortieth, etc. ▪ This is a [=one] third the size of that. c — used like one before units of weight, measurement, etc. ▪ a pound or two [=one or two pounds] ▪ a week or two [=one or two weeks] ▪ a foot and a half of water = one and a half feet of water d : one single : even one — used in negative constructions ▪ They didn't charge me a penny. [=they didn't charge me anything at all] ▪ "Did she say anything about it?" "Not a word."
3 — used before a word or phrase that indicates a type or class of person or thing ▪ My uncle is a plumber. ▪ Copper is a metal. ▪ She's a very nice lady. — often used before noncount nouns that are modified by an adjective or phrase ▪ a torrential rain ▪ She has a warmth that puts people at ease. ▪ I've always had a fondness for chocolate.
4 — used like any to refer in a general way to people or things ▪ A person who is sick can't work well. [=people can't work well if they are sick]
5 — used before a proper noun to indicate limited knowledge about the person or thing being mentioned ▪ A Mr. Smith [=a man named Mr. Smith] called to ask about the job. ▪ Among the towns of the area there is a Newton, I believe.
6 a — used before a proper noun that is acting as an example or type ▪ the attractions of a Boston or a Cleveland ▪ His friends say he's an Einstein in regard to science. b — used before the name of a day of the week to refer to one occurrence of it ▪ My birthday falls on a Tuesday this year.
7 a — used before the name of a person (such as a famous artist) when the name is being used to refer to something (such as a painting) created by that person ▪ The museum recently purchased a Rembrandt. [=a painting by Rembrandt] ▪ My violin is a Stradivarius. b — used before a family name to show that someone is a member of that family ▪ Did you know that she's a Kennedy?
8 — used before a proper noun referring to a person or thing that has a particular quality ▪ A triumphant Ms. Jones greeted her supporters. [=Ms. Jones was triumphant when she greeted her supporters] ▪ We were met at the door by an embarrassed Mr. Brown. [=Mr. Brown was embarrassed when he met us at the door] ▪ We had a very mild January.
9 — used with words like bit and little to form phrases that describe quantity, amount, or degree ▪ She felt a bit tired. ▪ It's getting a little late.
10 — used in phrases that describe how often something occurs, how fast something is going, etc. ▪ They meet twice a week. [=twice each week] ▪ The car was traveling at a hundred miles an [=per] hour.

[1]a- /ə/ prefix
1 : on : in : at ▪ *a*bed
2 : in (such) a state or condition ▪ *a*fire
3 : in (such) a manner ▪ *a*loud
4 old-fashioned : in the act or process of ▪ gone a-hunting [=gone hunting]

[2]a- or an- prefix : not : without ▪ *a*sexual

AA abbr 1 Alcoholics Anonymous 2 Brit Automobile Association

AAA abbr, US American Automobile Association

[1]aah /ˈɑː/ interj — used to express pleasure, surprise, or happiness ▪ Aah, that feels good.

[2]aah verb aahs; aahed; aahing [no obj] informal : to express amazement, joy, or surprise — used in the phrase ooh and aah ▪ We all oohed and aahed at/over the fireworks.
– aah noun, pl aahs [count] ▪ the oohs and aahs of the crowd aard•vark /ˈɑɚdˌvɑɚk/ noun, pl -varks [count] : a large African animal that has a long nose and that eats ants and other insects

AARP abbr, US American Association of Retired Persons

ab /ˈæb/ noun, pl abs [count] informal : any one of the muscles that cover a person's stomach : an abdominal muscle — usually plural ▪ an athlete doing exercises to tone his abs

ab. abbr about aback /əˈbæk/ adv : by surprise — used in the phrase taken aback ▪ She was taken aback [=she was very surprised] by his rude response. ▪ He was taken aback [=shocked, startled] when he saw their house.

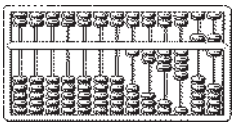
aba•cus /ˈæbəkəs/ noun, pl -cus•es also -ci /-ˌsaɪ/ [count] : a device used for counting and calculating by sliding small balls or beads along rods or in grooves



abacus

ab•a•lo•ne /ˌæbəˈloʊni/ noun, pl -nes [count, noncount] : a type of shellfish that is eaten

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

as food and that has a shell that is lined with a hard white material (called mother-of-pearl)

[1]aban•don /əˈbændən/ verb -dons; -doned; -don•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to leave and never return to (someone who needs protection or help) ▪ The child had been abandoned (by his parents) as an infant. ▪ He abandoned his family. b : to leave and never return to (something) ▪ abandon property ▪ They abandoned the car on a back road. ▪ That house was abandoned years ago.
2 : to leave (a place) because of danger ▪ The approaching fire forced hundreds of people to abandon their homes. ▪ The officer refused to abandon his post. ✧ If you abandon ship, you leave a boat or ship that is sinking. ▪ The captain gave the order to abandon ship. This phrase is sometimes used figuratively. ▪ The company is doing poorly, and many investors have decided to abandon ship. [=to sell their stock in the company]
3 : to stop supporting or helping (someone or something) ▪ The policy abandons the most vulnerable members of society. ▪ She abandoned the party not long after the election.
4 : to stop doing or having (something) : to give up (something) completely ▪ We abandoned hope of ever going back. ▪ He abandoned the principles that he once fought hard to defend. ▪ She had to abandon her plans for a vacation. ▪ Play was abandoned because of the bad weather.
abandon yourself to literary : to allow yourself to be fully controlled or affected by (something, such as a strong emotion) ▪ He abandoned himself to despair. [=he was overcome by despair]
– aban•don•ment /əˈbændənmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the abandonment of a child/home

[2]abandon noun [noncount] : a feeling or attitude of wild or complete freedom ▪ They all danced with (wild) abandon. ▪ She decided with reckless abandon [=in a very wild and reckless way] to quit her job and move to Tahiti.

aban•doned /əˈbændənd/ adj
1 a : left without needed protection or care ▪ an abandoned baby b : left by the owner ▪ an abandoned house/car c : no longer held or thought of : given up ▪ abandoned [=forsaken] hopes/dreams
2 [more ~; most ~] literary : wild and uncontrolled ▪ abandoned behavior ▪ He led a reckless and abandoned life and died young.

abase /əˈbeɪs/ verb abas•es; abased; abas•ing
abase yourself formal : to behave in a way that makes you seem lower or less deserving of respect ▪ politicians abasing themselves before wealthy businessmen abashed /əˈbæʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : embarrassed or ashamed ▪ She seemed a little abashed when they asked about her job. — opposite UNABASHED abate /əˈbeɪt/ verb abates; abat•ed; abat•ing [no obj] : to become weaker : to decrease in strength ▪ We waited for the wind/storm to abate. ▪ The excitement has abated.

– abate•ment /əˈbeɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] The violence has continued without abatement. [count] a tax abatement [=an amount by which a tax is reduced]

ab•at•toir /ˈæbəˌtwɑɚ/ noun, pl -toirs [count] chiefly Brit : SLAUGHTERHOUSE

ab•bess /ˈæbəs/ noun, pl -bess•es [count] : a woman who is the head of a convent

ab•bey /ˈæbi/ noun, pl -beys [count]
1 a : a monastery run by an abbot b : a convent run by an abbess
2 : a church that is connected to other buildings where monks or nuns live or once lived ▪ Westminster Abbey

ab•bot /ˈæbət/ noun, pl -bots [count] : a man who is the head of a monastery

abbr or abbr. abbr abbreviation

ab•bre•vi•ate /əˈbriːviˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) shorter ▪ He gave us an abbreviated [=shortened] account of his travels.; especially : to reduce (a word or name) to a shorter form ▪ You can abbreviate the word "building" as "bldg." ▪ "United States of America" is commonly abbreviated to/as "USA."

ab•bre•vi•a•tion /əˌbriːviˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a shortened form of a word or name that is used in place of the full word or name ▪ "USA" is an abbreviation of/for "United States of America."

[1]ABC /ˌeɪˌbiˈsiː/ noun, pl ABCs or ABC's
1 : the letters of the English alphabet [plural] (US) We learned our ABC's. [singular] (Brit) We learned our ABC.
2 : the most basic or important information about a subject [plural] (US) learning the ABC's of wine [singular] (Brit) learning the ABC of wine
(as) easy as ABC see [1]EASY

[2]ABC abbr 1 American Broadcasting Corporation ✧ ABC is one of the major television networks in the U.S. 2 Australian Broadcasting Corporation

ab•di•cate /ˈæbdɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing
1 : to leave the position of being a king or queen [no obj] The king was forced to abdicate. [+ obj] The king abdicated the throne.
2 [+ obj] formal : to fail to do what is required by (a duty or responsibility) ▪ The government abdicated [=abandoned] its responsibility to provide a good education to all citizens.
– ab•di•ca•tion /ˌæbdɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

ab•do•men /ˈæbdəmən/ noun, pl -mens [count]
1 : the part of the body below the chest that contains the stomach and other organs — see picture at HUMAN
2 : the rear part of an insect's body
– ab•dom•i•nal /æbˈdɑːmənl/ adj ▪ abdominal pain/surgery ▪ abdominal muscles

ab•duct /æbˈdʌkt/ verb -ducts; -duct•ed; -duct•ing [+ obj] : to take (someone) away from a place by force ▪ He was abducted [=kidnapped] from his home. ▪ She claims that she was abducted by aliens. [=that she was carried away in a spaceship by creatures from another world]
– ab•duct•ee /ˌæbˌdʌkˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count] ▪ alien abductees [=people who say they were abducted by creatures from another world] – ab•duc•tion /æbˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] abductions of children [noncount] an increase in the incidence of child abduction – ab•duc•tor /æbˈdʌktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ She managed to escape from her abductors.

abed /əˈbɛd/ adv, literary : lying in a bed ▪ Though it was long past sunup, she was still abed.

ab•er•rant /əˈberənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : different from the usual or natural type : unusual or abnormal ▪ aberrant behavior

ab•er•ra•tion /ˌæbəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : something (such as a problem or a type of behavior) that is unusual or unexpected [count] For her, such a low grade on an exam was an aberration. [noncount] a study of sexual aberration

abet /əˈbɛt/ verb abets; abet•ted; abet•ting [+ obj] formal : to help, encourage, or support someone in a criminal act ▪ She abetted the thief in his getaway. ▪ Did he abet the commission of a crime? ▪ Their actions were shown to abet terrorism. ▪ She is charged with aiding and abetting [=helping and encouraging] the thief in his getaway.

abey•ance /əˈbeɪəns/ noun
in abeyance formal : in a temporary state of being stopped ▪ The plans are in abeyance. = The plans are being held in abeyance. [=the plans are not now being used] ab•hor /əbˈhoə/ verb, not used in progressive tenses -hors; -horred; -hor•ring [+ obj] formal : to dislike (someone or something) very much ▪ They abhor [=hate, loathe] violence/racism. ▪ She simply abhors [=despises] exercise and hates to diet.

– ab•hor•rence /əbˈhorəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ their abhorrence of violence/racism ab•hor•rent /əbˈhorənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing or deserving strong dislike or hatred ▪ She finds violence in films abhorrent. ▪ It was an abhorrent crime. [=a contemptible crime] — sometimes + to ▪ The thought of failing is abhorrent to him. [=he hates the thought of failing] abide /əˈbaɪd/ verb abides; abid•ed; abid•ing

1 [+ obj] : to accept or bear (someone or something bad, unpleasant, etc.) — usually used in negative constructions ▪ I can't abide his bad moods. [=(more commonly) I can't stand his bad moods; I hate his bad moods]
2 [no obj] old-fashioned + literary a past tense also abode : to stay or live somewhere ▪ abide in the house of the Lord b : to remain or continue ▪ a love that abided till the end of their lives abide by [phrasal verb] abide by (something) : to accept and be guided by (something) : OBEY ▪ We have to abide by the rules. ▪ They promise to abide by our decision.

abid•ing /əˈbaɪdɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] formal : continuing for a long time : not changing ▪ She has an abiding [=lasting] love of art. ▪ They enjoyed an abiding [=enduring] friendship.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 4 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

abil•i•ty /əˈbɪlətɪ/ noun, pl -ties : the power or skill to do something [count] a young woman with many remarkable musical/artistic/athletic abilities — often followed by to + verb ▪ a teacher with an ability to inspire his students ▪ Does he have the ability [=authority] to fire employees? ▪ a writer's ability [=capability, capacity] to interest readers [noncount] a young woman of great musical/artistic/athletic ability ▪ She has shown some ability with foreign languages. ▪ He always works to the best of his ability. [=as well as he can]

-abil•i•ty also -ibil•i•ty noun suffix : ability, fitness, or likeliness to act or be acted on in (such) a way ▪ read*ability* ▪ excit*ability* ▪ compat*ibility* ▪ vis*ibility*

ab•ject /ˈæbˌʤɛkt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely bad or severe ▪ They live in abject misery/poverty. ▪ The project ended in abject [=complete, utter] failure.
2 a : very humble : feeling or showing shame ▪ He offered an abject apology. b : very weak : lacking courage or strength ▪ She thought he was an abject coward.
– ab•ject•ly /ˈæbˌʤɛktlɪ/ adv ▪ abjectly apologetic ab•jure /æbˈʤuə/ verb -jures; -jured; -jur•ing [+ obj] formal : to reject (something) formally ▪ He abjured [=renounced] allegiance to his native country.

ablaze /əˈbleɪz/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : in the process of burning : on fire ▪ The house was ablaze. ▪ Lightning set the building ablaze.
2 : glowing with light, color, or emotion — often + with ▪ The valley was ablaze with fall foliage. ▪ Her eyes were ablaze [=blazing] with anger.

able /ˈeɪbəl/ adj
1 not used before a noun a : having the power, skill, money, etc., that is needed to do something ▪ He will buy a new car as soon as he is able. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ He will buy a new car as soon as he is able to do so. ▪ Is he able to swim? [=can he swim?] ▪ They weren't able to afford a vacation. [=they were unable to afford a vacation] ▪ I was so tired that I was barely/hardly able to get out of bed. ▪ A weight lifter is able to lift [=can lift] a very heavy weight. b : not prevented from doing something : having the freedom or opportunity to do something ▪ Come for a visit when you are able (to). — usually followed by to + verb ▪ Will you be able to visit soon? ▪ We were able to leave at noon. c — used to say that the quality or condition of something makes something possible ▪ a car that is able to hold [=can hold] five people ▪ The car wasn't able to be repaired. [=could not be repaired]
2 abler; ablest [also more ~; most ~] : having skill or talent ▪ He turned out to be an able editor/leader/soldier. ▪ She is one of the ablest lawyers in the firm.

-able also -ible adj suffix
1 : fit for or worthy of being ▪ lov*able* ▪ collect*ible*
2 : likely to or capable of ▪ break*able* ▪ perish*able* 3 : having a certain quality ▪ knowledge*able* ▪ peace*able* able–bod•ied /ˌeɪbəlˈbɑːdid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a healthy and strong body : physically fit ▪ We need several able-bodied men and women to help with the project.

ab•lu•tion /əˈbluːʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : the act of washing yourself — usually plural ▪ ritual ablutions before prayers ▪ (humorous) He performed his daily ablutions [=he washed himself] before having breakfast.

ably /ˈeɪbəlɪ/ adv [more ~; most ~] : skillfully and well : in an able manner ▪ The chef was ably assisted by two helpers.

ab•nor•mal /æbˈnoəməl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : different from what is normal or average : unusual especially in a way that causes problems ▪ abnormal behavior ▪ The results of the blood test were abnormal.
– ab•nor•mal•ly adv ▪ behave abnormally ▪ The cells grew abnormally quickly.

ab•nor•mal•i•ty /ˌæbnəˈmælətɪ/ noun, pl -ties : something that is not usual, expected, or normal : something that is abnormal [count] The test results showed several genetic abnormalities. [noncount] There was some abnormality in his vision.

[1]aboard /əˈboəd/ adv : on, onto, or within a train, a ship, an airplane, etc. ▪ He climbed aboard just as the train was leaving. ▪ Everyone aboard was injured in the accident. ✧ All aboard! is a call for passengers to get onto a ship or train because it is ready to leave.

[2]aboard prep : on or into (a train, ship, etc.) ▪ We went aboard (the) ship. ▪ She got aboard [=on board] the train.

[1]abode /əˈboʊd/ noun, pl abodes [count] formal + humorous : the place where someone lives — usually singular ▪ The cottage became their abode [=home] for the summer. ▪ Welcome to my humble abode. — often used in legal language ▪ How long has this been his principal place of abode? [=the place where he usually lives] ▪ He has no fixed abode. [=no home, no permanent address]

[2]abode past tense of ABIDE 2a

abol•ish /əˈbɑːlɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] : to officially end or stop (something, such as a law) : to completely do away with (something) ▪ abolish slavery/apartheid ▪ He is in favor of abolishing the death penalty.

ab•o•li•tion /ˌæbəˈlɪʃn/ noun [noncount] : the act of officially ending or stopping something : the act of abolishing something ▪ the abolition of a law; specifically : the act of abolishing slavery ▪ a proponent of abolition

ab•o•li•tion•ist /ˌæbəˈlɪʃnɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who wants to stop or abolish slavery

A–bomb /ˈeɪˌbɑːm/ noun, pl -bombs [count] : ATOMIC BOMB

abom•i•na•ble /əˈbɑːmənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very bad or unpleasant ▪ It was an abominable crime. ▪ We had abominable [=terrible] weather all week. ▪ His behavior was abominable.
– abom•i•na•bly /əˈbɑːmənəblɪ/ adv ▪ He behaved abominably.

abominable snowman or Abominable Snowman noun [singular] : a large hairy creature that walks on two feet like a man and that some people claim to have seen in the Himalayas — called also yeti; compare SASQUATCH

abom•i•nate /əˈbɑːməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] formal : to feel great hatred for (someone or something) : ABHOR ▪ a politician who is revered by his supporters and abominated by his enemies abom•i•na•tion /əˌbɑːməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : something that causes disgust or hatred ▪ Some people view the sculpture as art while others see it as an abomination.

[1]ab•orig•i•nal /ˌæbəˈrɪʤənl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to the people and things that have been in a region from the earliest time ▪ aboriginal [=native] plant species ▪ aboriginal tribes/customs/art
2 : of or relating to the native people of Australia : of or relating to Australian aborigines ▪ the aboriginal peoples of Australia

[2]aboriginal noun, pl -nals [count] : ABORIGINE

ab•orig•i•ne /ˌæbəˈrɪʤəni/ noun, pl -nes [count]
1 : a member of the original people to live in an area ▪ North American aborigines [=natives]
2 or Aborigine : a member of any of the native peoples of Australia abort /əˈboət/ verb aborts; abort•ed; abort•ing

1 [+ obj] : to end a pregnancy deliberately by causing the death of the fetus ▪ They decided to abort the pregnancy. ▪ abort a fetus
2 : to stop something before it is completed because of problems or danger [+ obj] abort the launch of a rocket ▪ abort a computer program ▪ I suggest that you abort the project. ▪ The mission had to be aborted. [no obj] When problems occurred during the launch, it was necessary to abort.
– aborted adj ▪ an aborted mission ▪ He made several aborted [=abortive] attempts to escape.

abor•tion /əˈboəʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a medical procedure used to end a pregnancy and cause the death of the fetus [count] a doctor who performs abortions ▪ She chose to have/get an abortion. [noncount] demonstrators opposed to abortion ▪ abortion laws/rights abor•tion•ist /əˈboəʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] disapproving : a person who performs abortions

abor•tive /əˈboətɪv/ adj : failing to achieve the desired result : not successful ▪ He made several abortive [=aborted] attempts to escape. ▪ an abortive coup abound /əˈbaʊnd/ verb abounds; abound•ed; abound•ing [no obj] : to be present in large numbers or in great quantity ▪ a business in which opportunities abound [=a business in which there are many opportunities] ▪ They live in a region where oil abounds.

abound in/with [phrasal verb] abound in/with (something) : to be filled with (something) : to contain a very large amount of (something) ▪ They live in a region that abounds in/with oil. ▪ a stream abounding in/with fish

[1]about /əˈbaʊt/ adv
1 a : almost or nearly ▪ We're about ready to go. ▪ I'm about starved. ▪ Are you about finished? ▪ This one is about as bad as that one. ▪ That's about all I know at this point. ▪ It's about

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

time to go. ▪ That's about all the time we have. ▪ We tried just about everything we could think of. ▪ "Is there anything else to do?" "No, that's about it/all." [=that's it/all; there is nothing else to do] b — used to indicate that a number, amount, time, etc., is not exact or certain ▪ The repair should cost about [=approximately, roughly] $200. ▪ We should leave in about 10 minutes. ▪ We got home at about 8 o'clock. = (US) We got home around about 8 o'clock. = (Brit) We got home round about 8 o'clock. [=it was approximately 8 o'clock when we got home]

2 : very close to doing something — followed by to + verb ▪ He is about to leave. [=he will be leaving very soon] ▪ We're about to join our friends for dinner. ▪ Their daughter is about to graduate from college. — often used with not to stress that someone will not do something ▪ I'm not about to quit. [=I am not going to quit; I will not quit]

3 chiefly Brit a : in many different directions ▪ They wandered about [=around] for several hours. b : in many different places ▪ People were standing about [=around], talking quietly in small groups. ▪ His tools were scattered about [=around] carelessly. c : in or near a particular area or place ▪ There was no one about. [=there was no one around; there was no one there]

4 : in the opposite direction ▪ turn about [=(more commonly) around] ▪ The captain ordered us to bring the ship about.

²about prep

1 a — used to indicate the object of a thought, feeling, or action ▪ There has been a lot of anger about [=concerning] the decision. ▪ We did something about the problems. ▪ That's what I like about you. ▪ What are you so pleased about? ▪ I'm worried about her. ▪ I forgot all about it. ▪ There's a question about [=as to] how the problem should be fixed. b — used to indicate the subject of something said or written ▪ I spoke about my past. ▪ She told me all about her vacation. ▪ What's he yammering about now? = (Brit) What's he on about now? ▪ books about birds ▪ a novel about Spain

2 : as part of (someone or something) ▪ There is a mature wisdom about her. [=she has a quality of mature wisdom] ▪ What was the most exciting thing about your vacation? [=what part of your vacation was most exciting?] ▪ There's something weird about that guy. [=that guy is weird]

3 — used to indicate the most important or basic part or purpose of something ▪ A good marriage is (all) about trust. [=trust is the most important part of a good marriage] ▪ The work he does is all about helping young people.

4 : near or not far from (something) in time ▪ a night about [=around] midsummer

5 a : in the area near to (something or someone) ▪ Fish are abundant about [=around] the reefs. b : over or in different parts of (a place) ▪ He traveled all about [=around] the country. ▪ He's a well-known figure about [=around, throughout] the town. c : on every side of (something or someone) ▪ A crowd gathered about [=around] him. ▪ They wrapped the blanket about [=around] her.

6 a — used to say that something is done quickly or slowly ▪ He was slow about doing his work. [=he did his work slowly] ▪ If you're going to do that, you need to be quick about it. [=you need to do it quickly] b chiefly Brit : in the act or process of doing (something) ▪ Do it well while you're about it. [=while you're at it] ▪ He seems to know what he's about. [=to know what he's doing]

how about see ¹HOW

what about see ¹WHAT

³about adj

out and about see ¹OUT

about–face /əˈbaʊtˈfeɪs/ noun, pl -fac•es [count]

1 : the act of turning to face in the opposite direction ▪ The soldiers were ordered to do an about-face.

2 : a complete change of attitude or opinion — usually singular ▪ After saying that he didn't want the job, he did an about-face and accepted the offer.

about–turn /əˈbaʊtˈtɚn/ noun, pl -turns [count] Brit : ABOUT-FACE

¹above /əˈbʌv/ adv

1 : in or to a higher place ▪ They stood under the tree and looked at the branches above. [=overhead] ▪ The stars shone above. [=in the sky] ▪ The stairs lead above [=upstairs] to the bedrooms. ▪ up above and down below ✧ The opposite of every sense of above is below.

2 : in or to a higher rank or number ▪ Students in the grade above [=in the next grade] study algebra. ▪ Groups of six and above [=of six or more] need reservations. ▪ a game that is suitable for children at/of age 10 and above [=older]

3 : above zero ▪ Temperatures range from 5 below to 5 above.

4 : higher, further up, or earlier on the same page or on a preceding page : at a previous point in the same document ▪ Write to us at the address shown above. [=at the above address] ▪ Except as noted above, all the information can be verified. ▪ the person named above = the above-named person

from above 1 : from a higher place or position ▪ It looks like a cross when viewed from above. 2 : from someone with greater power or authority ▪ waiting for orders from above

²above prep

1 : in or to a higher place than (something) : OVER ▪ He raised his arms above his head. ▪ They hung a mirror above the mantel. ▪ We rented an apartment above a restaurant. — opposite BELOW

2 : greater in number, quantity, or size than (something) : more than (something) ▪ Temperatures were above average all week. ▪ men above 50 years old — opposite BELOW

3 a : to a greater degree or extent than (something) ▪ She values her private time above her fame. b : in a higher or more important position than (something) ▪ He puts his child's needs above his own. — opposite BELOW

4 : having more importance or power than (someone) : having a higher rank than (someone) ▪ A captain is above a lieutenant. [=a captain outranks a lieutenant] ▪ Who is above him in that department? — opposite BELOW

5 : too important for (something) : not able to be affected by (something) ▪ She thinks that she's above criticism/suspicion. [=that she cannot be criticized/suspected] — see also above the law at LAW

6 : too good for (some type of behavior, work, etc.) ▪ I thought you were above lying to people. [=I thought such dishonest behavior was beneath you] ▪ He was not above cheating when it served his purposes. [=he would cheat when it served his purposes] ▪ Does she think she's above that kind of work? [=does she think that kind of work is beneath her?]

7 : more loudly and clearly than (another sound) ▪ I heard the whistle above [=over] the roar of the crowd.

above all : as the most important thing : ESPECIALLY ▪ Above all, we must consider what is best for the children.

above and beyond : far beyond what is required by (something, such as a duty) ▪ He went above and beyond the call of duty. [=he did more than his duty required him to do] get above yourself chiefly Brit : to think you are more important than you really are ▪ We are pleased by his success, but we worry that he might be getting above himself.

over and above see ²OVER

³above adj : mentioned at an earlier point in the same document : written above ▪ You can contact me at the above address. [=at the address shown above]

the above : something that is mentioned at an earlier point in the same document ▪ If any of the above is incorrect, please me know. ▪ Contact any of the above [=any of the people mentioned above] for more information. ▪ The correct answer is "none of the above."

above•board /əˈbʌvˌboəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : open, honest, and legal ▪ The committee tried to be fair and aboveboard in its hiring. ▪ an aboveboard and responsible proposal ▪ She acted in a completely open and aboveboard way.

above•ground /əˈbʌvˌgraʊnd/ adj, US : located or occurring above the ground ▪ an aboveground swimming pool ▪ aboveground nuclear tests — compare INGROUND, UNDERGROUND; see also above ground at ¹GROUND

ab•ra•ca•dab•ra /ˌæbrəkəˈdæbrə/ interj — used as a word with magical power by a performer doing a magic trick ▪ The magician said "Abracadabra!" and the coin disappeared!

abrade /əˈbreɪd/ verb abrades; abrad•ed; abrad•ing [+ obj] : to damage (something) by rubbing, grinding, or scraping ▪ skin abraded by shaving abra•sion /əˈbreɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions

1 [count] : an injury caused by something that rubs or scrapes against the skin ▪ She fell and suffered cuts, bruises, and abrasions [=scrapes] on her legs.

2 [noncount] : the act or process of damaging or wearing away something by rubbing, grinding, or scraping ▪ abrasion of rocks by wind and water

¹abra•sive /əˈbreɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : causing damage or wear by rubbing, grinding, or scraping : of or relating to abrasion ▪ The waves had an abrasive

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

action on the rocks. b : having a rough quality ▪ an abrasive surface : used for rubbing something to make it smooth or shiny ▪ an abrasive material ▪ an abrasive cleaner
2 : very unpleasant or irritating ▪ He offended people with his abrasive [=irritating, grating] manner/personality. ▪ abrasive [=rude, offensive] comments
– abra•sive•ly adv ▪ an abrasively obnoxious manner/personality – abra•sive•ness noun [noncount]

[2]abrasive noun, pl -sives [count] : a substance that is used for rubbing something to make it smooth, shiny, or clean : an abrasive substance

abreast /əˈbrɛst/ adv — used to describe two or more people or things that are next to each other in a line ▪ columns/rows of five men abreast = columns/rows of men five abreast ▪ with seats two abreast on each side of the aisle abreast of 1 : next to (someone or something) ▪ Another runner drew abreast of her. [=drew alongside her] 2 : aware of or informed about (new occurrences, facts, etc.) ▪ She is always abreast of the latest political news. ▪ He likes to keep/stay abreast of the news.

abridge /əˈbrɪʤ/ verb abridg•es; abridged; abridg•ing [+ obj]
1 : to shorten (a book, a play, etc.) by leaving out some parts ▪ abridge a dictionary by omitting rare/uncommon words — see also UNABRIDGED
2 formal : to lessen the strength or effect of (something, such as a right) ▪ unlawful attempts to abridge [=curtail, weaken] freedom of speech – abridged adj ▪ an abridged dictionary ▪ an abridged edition/version of a novel – abridg•ment or abridge•ment /əˈbrɪʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] an abridgment of a book ▪ an abridgment of their right to freedom of speech [noncount] a dictionary shortened by abridgment

abroad /əˈbrɑːd/ adv
1 : in or to a foreign country ▪ an actress who is popular both here and abroad ▪ both at home and abroad ▪ He hopes to study/travel/work/go abroad next year. ▪ The family came here from abroad [=from a foreign country] three years ago.
2 formal : going from one person to the next : talked about or known about by many people ▪ There are rumors abroad that the company is in trouble. ▪ A feeling of unease has been abroad these last few weeks.
3 old-fashioned : away from your home ▪ She doesn't go walking abroad [=outside] at night.

ab•ro•gate /ˈæbrəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to end or cancel (something) in a formal and official way ▪ abrogate a law ▪ abrogate a treaty
2 : to fail to do what is required by (something, such as a responsibility) ▪ The company's directors are accused of abrogating their responsibilities.
– ab•ro•ga•tion /ˌæbrəˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] abrupt /əˈbrʌpt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very sudden and not expected ▪ There was an abrupt change in the weather. ▪ The road came to an abrupt end. ▪ The storm caused an abrupt power failure.
2 a : talking to other people in a very brief and unfriendly way ▪ He is friendly with customers but abrupt (in his dealings) with his employees. ▪ She has an abrupt manner. b : rudely brief ▪ an abrupt [=curt, brusque] reply – abrupt•ly adv ▪ The party ended abruptly when the police arrived. ▪ She turned abruptly and walked away. ▪ The land dropped off abruptly. – abrupt•ness noun [singular] There is an abruptness in her manner. [noncount] I was surprised by the abruptness of her manner.

abs plural of AB

ABS abbr antilock braking system

ab•scess /ˈæbˌsɛs/ noun, pl -scess•es [count] medical : a painful area of inflamed tissue that is filled with pus
– ab•scessed /ˈæbˌsɛst/ adj ▪ an abscessed tooth [=an infected tooth that has caused an abscess in the gum]

ab•scond /æbˈskɑːnd/ verb -sconds; -scond•ed; -scond•ing [no obj] formal 1 : to go away or escape from a place secretly ▪ The suspect absconded to Canada. ▪ Several prisoners absconded from the jail.
2 : to go away and take something that does not belong to you — + with ▪ a banker who absconded with all the money
– ab•scond•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ab•seil /ˈæbˌseɪl/ verb -seils; -seiled; -seil•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit : RAPPEL

ab•sence /ˈæbsəns/ noun, pl -senc•es
1 [singular] : a state or condition in which something expected, wanted, or looked for is not present or does not exist : a state or condition in which something is absent ▪ There was an absence [=lack] of enthusiasm in the crowd. [=the crowd was not enthusiastic] ▪ The products showed a remarkable absence of defects. ▪ In the absence of reform [=without reform], progress was slow. ▪ With the (continued) absence of rain [=because of the lack of rain], crops have begun to dry up.
2 [count] a : a failure to be present at a usual or expected place ▪ He had many absences from work. ▪ I expected to see her and was surprised by her absence. ▪ He was conspicuous by his absence. [=it was very noticeable that he was not present] b : a period of time when someone is not present at a place, job, etc. ▪ She returned to the company after a long/prolonged absence. — see also LEAVE OF ABSENCE ✧ The saying absence makes the heart grow fonder means that you tend to like someone better when that person goes away for a time. ▪ She'll be away for a month, but you know what they say—absence makes the heart grow fonder.
in someone's absence 1 : while someone is away ▪ The study was completed in her absence. 2 : in the place of someone who is not present ▪ He was asked to speak in his brother's absence.

[1]ab•sent /ˈæbsənt/ adj
1 : not present at a usual or expected place ▪ They were talking about absent friends. [=friends who were not there] ▪ an absent father who is not home most of the time ▪ The soldier was absent without leave. [=AWOL; absent without having permission to be absent] ▪ Most of the executives attended the meeting, but the company president was conspicuously absent. [=conspicuous by his absence; it was very noticeable that the company president was not there] — often + from ▪ She was absent from work/school on three occasions.
2 : not present at all : not existing ▪ a gene that occurs in mammals but that is absent in birds ▪ a landscape in which vegetation is almost entirely absent — sometimes + from ▪ Vegetation is almost entirely absent from the landscape.
3 always used before a noun : showing that a person is thinking about something else : showing a lack of attention to what is happening or being said ▪ He made an absent reply to her question as he continued to watch the TV. ▪ There was an absent [=distracted] look on her face.
– ab•sent•ly adv ▪ He replied absently to her question.

[2]ab•sent /æbˈsɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing
absent yourself formal : to go or stay away from something ▪ He absented himself from the meeting.

[3]ab•sent /ˈæbsənt/ prep, US, formal : in the absence of (something) : WITHOUT ▪ Absent any objections, the plan will proceed. ▪ Absent such an agreement we can go no further.

ab•sen•tee /ˌæbsənˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count] : a person who is not present in a usual or expected place : a person who is absent ▪ There were 10 sick absentees that day.

absentee ballot noun, pl ~ -lots [count] US : a vote that is submitted before an election by a voter who is not able to be present when the election occurs ab•sen•tee•ism /ˌæbsənˈtiːˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a tendency to be away from work or school without a good reason : the practice or habit of being absent from work or school ▪ Her office has a high rate of absenteeism. [=people in her office are frequently absent from work]

absentee landlord noun, pl ~ -lords [count] : someone who owns and rents property but does not live on or near the property and rarely visits it

absentia see IN ABSENTIA

ab•sent•mind•ed /ˌæbsəntˈmaɪndəd/ adj : tending to forget things or to not notice things : having or showing a lack of attention ▪ Her absentminded husband forgot their anniversary. ▪ She did the chores in an absentminded way.
– ab•sent•mind•ed•ly adv ▪ Her husband absentmindedly forgot their anniversary. – ab•sent•mind•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She mislaid her keys in a fit of absentmindedness. [=absence of mind]

ab•sinthe also ab•sinth /ˈæbˌsɪnθ/ noun [noncount] : a green alcoholic drink that has a very strong and bitter flavor

ab•so•lute /ˈæbsəˌluːt/ adj
1 always used before a noun : complete and total ▪ You can't predict the future with absolute certainty. ▪ I have absolute faith/confidence in her ability to get the job done. ▪ He swore an oath of absolute secrecy. ▪ When it comes to using computers, I'm an absolute beginner. — often used informally to make a statement more forceful ▪ I swear that what I'm telling you is the absolute truth. ▪ He was an absolute disgrace to his family. ▪ That's absolute nonsense/rubbish! ▪ (US) That restaurant serves the absolute best Mexican food I've ever eaten. [=that restaurant serves absolutely the best Mexican food I've ever eaten] — sometimes used with the most ▪ That's the most absolute nonsense/rubbish I ever heard!

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

2 a : not limited in any way ▪ a ruler with absolute power = a ruler whose power is absolute ▪ absolute authority b : having unlimited power ▪ The country is ruled by an absolute dictator/monarch. c : ruled by someone with unlimited power ▪ The country is an absolute monarchy.

3 : not allowing any doubt ▪ He says that he has absolute [=certain] proof that his client is innocent.

4 a : never changing : always true or real ▪ You have the absolute right to remain silent. ▪ an absolute requirement = a requirement that is absolute ▪ absolute [=unqualified] freedom b : not depending on or compared with anything else ▪ The company has grown in absolute terms, but its share of the market is actually less than it was a few years ago.

– ab•so•lute•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the absoluteness of the king's power ▪ the absoluteness of his certainty

ab•so•lute•ly /ˈæbsəˌluːtli/ adv

1 : in an absolute way: such as a : completely or totally ▪ He is absolutely certain who will win. ▪ Let me make one thing absolutely clear. ▪ Keep absolutely quiet during the movie. — often used to make a statement more forceful ▪ We had an absolutely wonderful time. ▪ I absolutely love the car. ▪ His fans have gone absolutely crazy over his latest CD. ▪ That restaurant serves absolutely the best food I've ever eaten. b : with unlimited power ▪ The king ruled absolutely.

2 — used in speech as a forceful way of saying "yes" or of expressing agreement ▪ "Would you like to see a movie tonight?" "Absolutely!" ▪ "We all need to work harder." "Absolutely!" ✧ Absolutely not is used in speech as a forceful way of saying "no" or of expressing disagreement. ▪ "Do you think he's right?" "Absolutely not!"

absolute zero noun [noncount] technical : the temperature that is believed to be the lowest possible temperature ✧ Absolute zero is equal to approximately -273.15°C or -459.67°F.

ab•so•lu•tion /ˌæbsəˈluːʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the act of forgiving someone for having done something wrong or sinful : the act of absolving someone or the state of being absolved ▪ He asked the priest to give/grant him absolution for his sins.

ab•solve /əbˈzɑːlv/ verb -solves; -solved; -solv•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to make (someone) free from guilt, responsibility, etc. ▪ He was absolved of the responsibility of repaying the loan. [=he was not required to repay the loan] ▪ His youth does not absolve him from being guilty for these crimes. = His youth does not absolve him of guilt for these crimes.

2 : to give forgiveness to (someone who has sinned) or for (a sin) ▪ He asked the priest to absolve him (of his sins). = He asked the priest to absolve his sins.

ab•sorb /əbˈsoəb/ verb -sorbs; -sorbed; -sorb•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to take in (something, such as a liquid) in a natural or gradual way ▪ A sponge absorbs water. ▪ Plant roots absorb moisture. ▪ a fabric that absorbs sweat — often used as (be) absorbed ▪ Water is absorbed by plants through their roots. ▪ nutrients that are absorbed into the body b : to draw in (heat, light, energy, etc.) ▪ The walls are made of a material that absorbs sound. ▪ absorbing heat from the sun

2 a : to learn (something) ▪ She is good at absorbing information/knowledge. ▪ He has retained the values that he absorbed as a young man. b : to take in and make (something) part of a larger group, country, etc. ▪ a country that has absorbed many immigrants ▪ smaller countries invaded and absorbed by/into bigger ones

3 : to take up the whole interest or attention of (someone) ▪ His interest in photography absorbs him completely. ▪ I was so absorbed by her story that I lost track of time. ✧ If you are absorbed in something, you are fully involved in it. ▪ She was (completely) absorbed in [=lost in] thought. ▪ He quickly found himself absorbed in [=engrossed by] the movie.

4 : to prevent (something harmful or unwanted) from passing through ▪ The frame of the car absorbed the impact.

5 a : to accept or deal with (something that is difficult, harmful, etc.) ▪ The company has had to absorb many setbacks in the past year. ▪ The expenses were absorbed [=borne] by his family. b : to use up (something) ▪ His work absorbs almost all of his time.

– ab•sorb•able /əbˈsoəbəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ nutrients absorbable by the body – ab•sorb•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a moisture absorber — see also SHOCK ABSORBER – absorbing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The book includes an absorbing [=engrossing, fascinating] account of her childhood. – ab•sorp•tion /əbˈsoəpʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the absorption of water by a sponge ▪ the absorption of nutrients by the body ▪ heat/noise absorption ▪ His absorption in his work was total. [=he was totally absorbed in his work; he gave all his attention to his work]

ab•sor•bent /əbˈsoəbənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to take in and hold liquid : able to absorb liquid ▪ an absorbent cotton fabric ▪ highly/very absorbent paper towels

– ab•sor•ben•cy /əbˈsoəbənsi/ noun [noncount]

ab•stain /əbˈsteɪn/ verb -stains; -stained; -stain•ing [no obj]

1 : to choose not to do or have something — usually + from ▪ He abstained from taking part in the discussion. ▪ I need to abstain from eating [=I need to not eat] for at least 12 hours before my blood test. ▪ abstain from (drinking) alcohol

2 : to choose not to vote ▪ Ten members voted for the proposal, six members voted against it, and two abstained.

– ab•stain•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ab•ste•mi•ous /æbˈstiːmijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not eating and drinking too much ▪ She is known as an abstemious eater and drinker. ▪ an abstemious diet

– ab•ste•mi•ous•ly adv – ab•ste•mi•ous•ness noun [noncount]

ab•sten•tion /əbˈstɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act or practice of abstaining: such as a [noncount] : the act of choosing not to do or have something ▪ He started drinking again after a long period of abstention. [=abstinence] — usually + from ▪ abstention from drugs and alcohol b : a formal refusal to vote on something [count] There were 10 ayes, 6 nays, and 2 abstentions when the vote was taken. [noncount] a high rate of voter abstention

ab•sti•nence /ˈæbstənəns/ noun [noncount] : the practice of not doing or having something that is wanted or enjoyable : the practice of abstaining from something ▪ The program promoted sexual abstinence for young people. — often + from ▪ abstinence from sex ▪ He started drinking again after a long period of total/complete abstinence from alcohol.

– ab•sti•nent /ˈæbstənənt/ adj ▪ He stopped drinking and has remained totally abstinent.

[1]ab•stract /æbˈstrækt, ˈæbˌstrækt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : relating to or involving general ideas or qualities rather than specific people, objects, or actions ▪ abstract thinking ▪ abstract ideas/concepts such as love and hate ▪ "Honesty" is an abstract word. ▪ The word "poem" is concrete, the word "poetry" is abstract. — opposite [2]CONCRETE 2

2 of art : expressing ideas and emotions by using elements such as colors and lines without attempting to create a realistic picture ▪ abstract art ▪ an abstract painting/painter

– ab•stract•ly /æbˈstræktli/ adv ▪ a child learning to think abstractly – ab•stract•ness /æbˈstræktnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]ab•stract /ˈæbˌstrækt/ noun, pl -stracts [count]

1 : a brief written statement of the main points or facts in a longer report, speech, etc. : SUMMARY

2 : an abstract work of art (such as a painting) ▪ an artist admired for his abstracts

in the abstract : without referring to a specific person, object, or event : in a general way ▪ thinking about freedom in the abstract

[3]ab•stract /æbˈstrækt/ verb -stracts; -stract•ed; -stract•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make a summary of the main parts of (a report, speech, etc.) : to make an abstract of (something) ▪ abstract [=summarize] an academic paper

2 : to obtain or remove (something) from a source ▪ Data for the study was abstracted from hospital records.

3 chiefly Brit, humorous : to steal (something) ▪ She accused him of abstracting [=pinching] some money from her purse.

ab•stract•ed /æbˈstræktəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not paying attention to what is happening or being said : thinking of other things ▪ She said hello but she seemed a bit abstracted.

– ab•stract•ed•ly adv

ab•strac•tion /æbˈstrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act of obtaining or removing something from a source : the act of abstracting something ▪ abstraction of data from hospital records

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

2 formal : a general idea or quality rather than an actual person, object, or event : an abstract idea or quality [count] "Beauty" and "truth" are abstractions. [noncount] the abstraction [=abstract quality] of his ideas
3 [noncount] somewhat formal : the state of someone who is not paying attention to what is happening or being said : an abstracted state ▪ She gazed out the window in abstraction.

ab•struse /əbˈstruːs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : hard to understand ▪ Her subject matter is abstruse. ▪ abstruse [=obscure] concepts/ideas/theories
– ab•struse•ly adv – ab•struse•ness noun [noncount]

ab•surd /əbˈsɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely silly, foolish, or unreasonable : completely ridiculous ▪ an absurd situation ▪ The charges against him are obviously/patently absurd. ▪ an absurd idea/suggestion/argument ▪ absurd humor the absurd 1 : a state or condition of extreme silliness or foolishness : an absurd or ridiculous state ▪ Her ideas once seemed reasonable, but now they verge on the absurd. 2 : things that are absurd ▪ a filmmaker who is fascinated with the absurd
– ab•sur•di•ty /əbˈsɚdəti/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] They laughed at the absurdity of the situation. [count] the absurdities of life – ab•surd•ly adv ▪ The directions were absurdly complicated. ▪ absurdly high prices

abun•dance /əˈbʌndəns/ noun : a large amount of something : an abundant amount of something [singular] The city has an abundance of fine restaurants. [=has many fine restaurants] ▪ a plant with an abundance of flowers [noncount] a plant known for the abundance of its flowers ▪ We are fortunate to live in a time of great abundance. [=a time when there is much food, money, etc.]
in abundance : in large amounts ▪ The city has fine restaurants in abundance. ▪ The flowers grew in great abundance.

abun•dant /əˈbʌndənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : existing or occurring in large amounts ▪ Rainfall is more abundant in summer. ▪ It is the most abundant bird in the forest. ▪ an abundant supply of food ▪ He offers abundant evidence that he is right. ▪ a society abundant in things to buy/do
synonyms see PLENTIFUL
– abun•dant•ly adv ▪ flowers blooming/growing abundantly ▪ It is abundantly [=extremely] clear/obvious that this problem will not be easily solved.

[1]abuse /əˈbjuːz/ verb abus•es; abused; abus•ing [+ obj]
1 : to treat (a person or animal) in a harsh or harmful way ▪ He abused [=mistreated] his wife both mentally and physically. ▪ abuse a dog ▪ He was accused of sexually/physically/psychologically abusing a child.
2 : to use or treat (something) in a way that causes damage ▪ He abused his body with years of heavy drinking. ▪ He had abused his first car by not taking care of it.
3 : to use (something) wrongly ▪ abuse [=misuse] a privilege ▪ She abused her friend's trust. ▪ a senator who abuses his power ▪ He abused my confidence by letting this secret be known.
4 : to use too much of (a drug, alcohol, etc.) ▪ a drug that is abused by many people ▪ He was known to abuse alcohol.
5 : to attack (someone) in words ▪ The fans were verbally abusing the referee.
– abused adj ▪ providing help for abused children/women – abus•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a child abuser ▪ officeholders who are abusers of privilege ▪ alcohol/cocaine/drug/substance abusers

[2]abuse /əˈbjuːs/ noun, pl abus•es
1 : the act or practice of abusing someone or something: such as a : harmful treatment of a person or animal [noncount] He subjected his wife to physical and emotional abuse. ▪ child abuse ▪ sexual abuse [plural] The government has been accused of human rights abuses. [=of violating the basic rights of people by treating them wrongly] b [noncount] : the use or treatment of something in a way that causes damage ▪ his abuse [=mistreatment] of his body through poor eating habits ▪ These toys can stand up to a lot of abuse. [=can be handled roughly without being damaged] c : the act or practice of using something wrongly [noncount] the governor's abuse [=misuse] of his power/privileges [count] the buying of votes and other election abuses d [noncount] : the act or practice of using too much of a drug, alcohol, etc. ▪ abuse of alcohol ▪ drug/substance abuse
2 [noncount] : harsh and insulting language ▪ She was subjected to every term of abuse her boss could think of. ▪ a torrent/stream of verbal abuse ▪ The prisoner hurled/shouted/screamed abuse at the judge.

abu•sive /əˈbjuːsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : using harsh and insulting language ▪ He spoke to her in an abusive manner. = He was abusive when he spoke to her. ▪ abusive language ▪ The fans yelled abusive comments to the referee. ▪ a verbally abusive fan
2 : using or involving physical violence or emotional cruelty ▪ an abusive parent ▪ protecting wives from abusive husbands ▪ people in abusive relationships
– abu•sive•ly adv ▪ The boss treated the staff abusively. – abu•sive•ness noun [noncount]

abut /əˈbʌt/ verb abuts; abut•ted; abut•ting formal : to touch along an edge [+ obj] Their property abuts [=adjoins] our property. = Their property and our property abut each other. [=their property is directly next to our property; an edge of their property touches an edge of our property] [no obj] Their property and our property abut. — often + on ▪ Their property abuts on our property.
– abut•ter /əˈbʌtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

abut•ment /əˈbʌtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] technical : a heavy structure that supports something (such as a bridge) ▪ The car crashed into a bridge abutment.

a•buzz /əˈbʌz/ adj, informal : filled with excited talk about something — usually + with ▪ Washington is abuzz with [=is buzzing with] rumors of a scandal.

abys•mal /əˈbɪzməl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely poor or bad ▪ They were living in abysmal ignorance/poverty. ▪ abysmal [=horrible] living conditions ▪ The team had an abysmal [=awful] record. ▪ Her grades were abysmal. [=terrible] – abys•mal•ly adv ▪ abysmally ignorant ▪ The house is in abysmally poor condition.

abyss /əˈbɪs/ noun, pl abyss•es [count] : a hole so deep or a space so great that it cannot be measured ▪ the ocean's abysses ▪ I stood at the edge of the cliff and gazed down into the yawning/gaping abyss. [=chasm] — often used figuratively ▪ He says that there is a widening abyss between the rich and the poor. ▪ She was pulled down into an abyss of despair.

AC abbr 1 US air-conditioning ▪ an apartment equipped with AC 2 alternating current aca•cia /əˈkeɪʃə/ noun, pl -cias [count] : a shrub or tree that grows in warm regions and that has white or yellow flowers ac•a•de•mia /ˌækəˈdiːmijə/ noun [noncount] : the life, community, or world of teachers, schools, and education ▪ She found the business world very different from academia.

[1]ac•a•dem•ic /ˌækəˈdɛmɪk/ adj
1 usually used before a noun : of or relating to schools and education ▪ She received awards for her academic achievements/accomplishments. ▪ I spent my academic career at one school. ▪ The board set tough academic standards for graduation. ▪ He was offered a teaching job and decided to return to academic life.
2 : having no practical importance : not involving or relating to anything real or practical ▪ His interest in sailing is purely academic. He's not a sailor himself. ▪ It was a question of only academic [=theoretical] interest.
3 [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : good at studying and at passing exams : good at academics ▪ He's not very academic, but he's good with his hands.
– ac•a•dem•i•cal•ly /ˌækəˈdɛmɪkli/ adv ▪ He did well enough academically to be accepted at many colleges. ▪ an academically gifted student

[2]academic noun, pl -ics
1 [count] : a person who is a teacher in a college or university ▪ The book appeals to academics and to the general public.
2 academics [plural] chiefly US : courses of study taken at a school or college ▪ She excelled at academics. ▪ He only cares about sports. He has no interest in academics.

academic year noun, pl ~ years [count] : the time during a year when a school has classes ✧ In the U.S., the academic year usually begins in September and ends in May or June.

acad•e•my /əˈkædəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count]
1 a : a school that provides training in special subjects or skills ▪ a military/naval academy ▪ a riding/tennis academy b US : a private high school — used in proper names ▪ a student at Smith Academy
2 : an organization of people who work to support art, science, or literature — used in proper names ▪ the National Academy of Sciences ▪ a Fellow of the Royal Academy

Academy Award trademark — used for an award given by part of the U.S. film industry to the best actors, directors, etc., of the year a cap•pel•la /ˌɑːkəˈpɛlə, Brit ˌækæˈpɛlə/ adv : without instrumental music ▪ The choir sings a cappella.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

– a cappella adj ▪ a cappella singing/songs

ac•cede /æk'si:d/ verb -cedes; -ced•ed; -ced•ing [no obj] formal 1 : to agree to a request or a demand — usually + to ▪ The government was forced to accede to their demands.
2 : to enter a high office or position ▪ His son acceded upon the king's death. — usually + to ▪ He acceded to the throne [=he became king] in 1838.

ac•cel•er•ate /ɪk'sɛlə,reɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 : to move faster : to gain speed [no obj] She stepped on the gas and the car accelerated. ▪ The plane accelerated down the runway. [+ obj] She stepped on the gas and accelerated the car. — opposite DECELERATE
2 : to cause (something) to happen sooner or more quickly [+ obj] He says that cutting taxes will help to accelerate economic growth. ▪ Conditions accelerated our departure. [=conditions caused us to depart sooner] [no obj] The rate of economic growth has continued to accelerate.
– accelerated adj ▪ Changes have occurred at an accelerated pace/rate. ▪ She's taking an accelerated course in English. [=a course in which English is taught at a faster pace than usual] – accelerating adj ▪ an accelerating rate

ac•cel•er•a•tion /ɪk,sɛlə'reɪʃən/ noun
1 : the act or process of moving faster or happening more quickly : the act or process of accelerating [noncount] The car delivers quick/rapid acceleration. ▪ The car has good acceleration. [=the car is able to accelerate quickly] ▪ There has been some acceleration in economic growth. [singular] There has been an acceleration in economic growth.
2 [noncount] physics : the rate at which the speed of a moving object changes over time

ac•cel•er•a•tor /ɪk'sɛlə,reɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a pedal in a vehicle that is pressed down to make the vehicle go faster ▪ hit/press the accelerator = step on the accelerator — called also (US) gas pedal; see picture at CAR
2 technical : a machine that causes charged particles (such as electrons and protons) to move at extremely high speeds ▪ a particle accelerator

[1]ac•cent /'æk,sɛnt, Brit 'æksənt/ noun, pl -cents
1 [count] : a way of pronouncing words that occurs among the people in a particular region or country ▪ Regional accents are common in the U.S. ▪ She spoke with an American/English accent. ▪ The tourist had a foreign accent. ▪ He has a heavy/thick southern accent. ▪ a slight/light/faint accent ▪ a French/German/Italian accent
2 [count] : greater stress or force given to a syllable of a word in speech ▪ The word "before" has the accent on the last syllable. ▪ Put the accent on the first syllable of the word.
3 [count] a : a mark (such as ' or ,) used to show the part of a word that should be given greater stress when it is spoken — called also accent mark b : a mark placed above a letter to show how it should be pronounced ▪ The accents in the French word "émigré" show how the letter "e" should be pronounced. — called also accent mark
4 [singular] : special concern or attention : EMPHASIS — usually + on ▪ This year's new TV shows put/place the/an accent on youth. ▪ Our accent is on providing our customers with dependable service.
5 [count] : a small decorative object or detail that is different from the things that are around it ▪ This type of plant is often used as a decorative accent. ▪ used accents of bright colors in the new room ▪ accent colors/lighting/plants

[2]ac•cent /'æk,sɛnt, Brit ək'sɛnt/ verb -cents; -cent•ed; -cent•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give special attention to (something) ▪ His speech accented [=highlighted, emphasized] positive parts of the plan.
2 : to say (part of a word) with greater stress or force ▪ When you say "before," you should accent the second syllable. = You should accent the word "before" on the second syllable.

accented adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : pronounced with stress ▪ an accented syllable
2 : spoken with a foreign accent ▪ He spoke heavily/strongly/slightly accented English.

accent mark noun, pl ~ marks [count]
1 : [1]ACCENT 3a
2 : [1]ACCENT 3b

ac•cen•tu•ate /æk'sɛnʧə,weɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) more noticeable ▪ He likes to wear clothes that accentuate his muscular build. ▪ We felt that the article accentuated [=emphasized] the positive aspects of the program.
– ac•cen•tu•ation /ɪk,sɛnʧə'weɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ac•cept /ɪk'sɛpt/ verb -cepts; -cept•ed; -cept•ing
1 a : to receive or take (something offered) [+ obj] accept a gift ▪ accept a proposal ▪ accept a bribe ▪ accept an assignment/invitation/offer ▪ They offered him the job, and he accepted it. [no obj] They offered him the job, and he accepted. b [+ obj] : to take (something) as payment ▪ The store doesn't accept credit cards. c [+ obj] : to be able or designed to take or hold (something) ▪ a surface that will not accept ink ▪ a computer program ready to accept commands
2 [+ obj] : to agree to (something) : to agree to receive or allow (something) ▪ accept a telephone call ▪ They accepted some applications and rejected others. ▪ She's still trying to get her manuscript accepted for publication. ▪ I accept your apology. ▪ They refused to accept his resignation.
3 [+ obj] a : to think of (something) as true, proper, or normal ▪ a word that has come to be accepted as standard ▪ This treatment is now accepted by many doctors. ▪ He refused to accept the decision. ▪ I accepted his advice and joined the health club. ▪ They accepted [=believed] her explanation. ▪ The theory is widely accepted as correct. = It is widely accepted that the theory is correct. b : to stop denying or resisting (something true or necessary) ▪ She found it difficult to accept change. ▪ The truth is sometimes hard to accept. ▪ He behaved badly, and now he has to accept the consequences. ▪ He has to accept the fact that his baseball career is over. [=he has to admit that his baseball career is over] ▪ He was unwilling to accept [=believe] that he could no longer play as he once had. c : to admit that you have or deserve (something, such as blame or responsibility) ▪ accept blame ▪ I accept responsibility for the accident. d : to be willing to have or experience (something) ▪ To be a successful investor you have to accept some risk. ▪ She accepted [=took on, faced] the challenge of starting her own business.
4 [+ obj] a : to allow (someone) to join a club, to attend a school, etc. ▪ The club accepted her as a member but rejected her sister. ▪ She was accepted at/by Georgetown University. b : to regard (someone) as belonging to a group ▪ She felt that her in-laws had never really accepted her (as a member of the family). ▪ She doesn't yet feel accepted (by her in-laws). ▪ The new family was quickly accepted into the community.
– accepted adj ▪ an accepted practice ▪ an accepted definition ▪ a widely accepted truth – ac•cept•er or ac•cep•tor /ɪk'sɛptɚ/ noun, pl -ters or -tors [count]

ac•cept•able /ɪk'sɛptəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : capable or worthy of being accepted ▪ acceptable and unacceptable noise levels ▪ an acceptable excuse ▪ socially acceptable behavior — sometimes + to ▪ We're trying to find a solution that will be acceptable to everyone.
2 : fairly good : SATISFACTORY ▪ It was an acceptable performance, although not an outstanding one. ▪ She plays an acceptable game of tennis.
– ac•cept•abil•i•ty /ɪk,sɛptə'bɪləti/ noun [noncount] – ac•cept•ably /ɪk'sɛptəbli/ adv

ac•cep•tance /ɪk'sɛptəns/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of accepting something or someone ▪ acceptance of a gift ▪ acceptance of the truth ▪ acceptance of responsibility ▪ her acceptance into the club ▪ The university has sent me a letter of acceptance. ▪ He delivered an acceptance speech after he was chosen as the party's presidential nominee.
2 : the quality or state of being accepted or acceptable ▪ His theories have won/gained/found general/widespread acceptance. [=many people regard his theories as correct]

[1]ac•cess /'æk,sɛs/ noun [noncount]
1 : a way of getting near, at, or to something or someone ▪ All public buildings should provide wheelchair access. [=a way for people in wheelchairs to enter] ▪ The cup holders are placed for easy access. [=so that they can be easily reached] — often + to ▪ The town wants to increase public access to beaches. ▪ A dirt road provides access to the home.
2 : a way of being able to use or get something ▪ We have Internet access at the library. — usually + to ▪ We have access to the Internet at the library. ▪ I don't have access to a car right now. [=I don't have a car that I can use right now] ▪ Patients need better access to medical care. ▪ increasing children's access to education ▪ They tried to gain illegal access to the company's network. — see also ACCESS TIME
3 : permission or the right to enter, get near, or make use of something or to have contact with someone — usually + to ▪ They refused to give the police access to their home. ▪ divorced parents who want increased/improved access to their children ▪ Investigators are trying to gain/get access to his financial records. [=trying to get the right to see his financial

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

records] ▪ He was granted/denied access to the report. [=he was given/refused permission to see the report]

[2]access verb -cess•es; -cessed; -cess•ing [+ obj] : to gain access to (something): such as a : to be able to use, enter, or get near (something) ▪ The new system makes it easier to access the money in your bank account. ▪ Your favorite radio stations can be accessed at the touch of a button. b : to open or load (a computer file, an Internet site, etc.) ▪ The file loads every time you access the Web site. ▪ The file can be accessed by many users at the same time. ▪ She could work at home by remotely accessing the company's network. ▪ You'll need a password to access the database.

ac•ces•si•ble /ɪkˈsɛsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to be reached or approached ▪ The inn is accessible by train and bus. ▪ The mall is accessible from the highway.
2 : able to be used or obtained — often + to ▪ The information should be accessible [=available] to all.
3 : easy to appreciate or understand ▪ His writing is more accessible now than it once was. [=is more easily understood now] ▪ It is a fascinating and accessible book. ▪ accessible art
4 of a person : easy to speak to or deal with ▪ You'll find that the teachers here are quite accessible.
– ac•ces•si•bil•i•ty /ɪkˌsɛsəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the easy accessibility of the beach ▪ the accessibility of her art
– ac•ces•si•bly /ɪkˈsɛsəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He writes accessibly about complex topics.

ac•ces•sion /ɪkˈsɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions formal
1 [noncount] : the act or process by which someone rises to a powerful and important position ▪ the accession of Queen Elizabeth II — often + to ▪ Queen Victoria's accession to the crown/throne occurred in 1837. [=she became queen in 1837] ▪ upon his accession to the Supreme Court ▪ the king's accession to power
2 [count] : something that is added to a collection at a museum ▪ The museum has put its latest accessions [=acquisitions] on display.

ac•ces•so•rize (US) or Brit ac•ces•so•rise /ɪkˈsɛsəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing : to add accessories to (something, such as clothing) [+ obj] an outfit accessorized with a pair of diamond earrings [no obj] a stylish young woman who knows how to accessorize

ac•ces•so•ry /ɪkˈsɛsəri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : something added to something else to make it more useful, attractive, or effective ▪ fashion/clothing accessories such as scarves, handkerchiefs, bracelets, and rings ▪ automotive accessories ▪ computer accessories
2 law : someone who helps another person commit a crime ▪ He is wanted as an accessory to murder. ▪ She was charged as an accessory before/after the fact. [=someone who helps a criminal before/after a crime has been committed] access time noun [noncount] technical : the time required to get stored information from a computer memory

ac•ci•dent /ˈæksədənt/ noun, pl -dents [count]
1 : a sudden event (such as a crash) that is not planned or intended and that causes damage or injury ▪ We got in a car accident. = We had a car accident. ▪ a traffic accident ▪ a fatal accident ▪ a motorcycle accident ▪ He was injured in an accident at work. ▪ The accident happened when her car slid on a patch of ice. ▪ Investigators are still trying to determine the cause of the accident. ▪ "I'm sorry that I broke the bowl." "That's OK. It was just an accident." = "That's OK. Accidents will happen." ✧ An accident waiting to happen is a person or thing that is dangerous or unsafe. ▪ My brother is the clumsiest person I know. He's just an accident waiting to happen.
2 : an event that is not planned or intended : an event that occurs by chance ▪ Their meeting was an accident. ▪ It is just an accident that they arrived when they did. ▪ She says that her pregnancy was an accident. ▪ His wealth is a mere accident of birth. [=he is wealthy only because he was born into a wealthy family] ▪ He says that no one is to blame for his illness. It was just an accident of nature. [=something that happened naturally] ▪ It is no accident that the assistant he hired is so good-looking. [=he deliberately chose a good-looking person to be his assistant] by accident : in a way that is not planned or intended ▪ They met by accident. [=by chance] ▪ She says that she became pregnant by accident. [=unintentionally] ▪ Scientists discovered the vaccine almost/quite/entirely by accident. ▪ Did it happen by accident [=accidentally] or by design?

ac•ci•den•tal /ˌæksəˈdɛntl/ adj : happening in a way that is not planned or intended : happening by accident ▪ an accidental discovery of oil ▪ The timing of the announcement was purely accidental. : happening as an accident ▪ an accidental shooting ▪ The death was ruled accidental.
– ac•ci•den•tal•ly /ˌæksəˈdɛntlɪ/ adv ▪ He accidentally deleted the file. ▪ The lock prevents the gate from opening accidentally. ▪ Did it happen accidentally [=by accident] or intentionally? ▪ He bumped into her accidentally on purpose. [=he bumped into her on purpose but he tried to make it appear to be an accident] accident–prone adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to have many accidents ▪ He is clumsy and accident-prone.

[1]ac•claim /əˈkleɪm/ noun [noncount] : strong approval or praise ▪ Her performance in the ballet earned her critical acclaim. ▪ She deserves acclaim for all her charitable works.

[2]acclaim verb -claims; -claimed; -claim•ing [+ obj] : to praise (someone or something) in a very strong and enthusiastic way ▪ The critics have acclaimed her performance. — often used as (be) acclaimed ▪ Her performance was acclaimed by the critics. ▪ He has been acclaimed as one of the best players in the league.
– acclaimed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a critically acclaimed drama/performance ▪ a highly/hugely/widely acclaimed play ▪ the city's most acclaimed restaurants

ac•cla•ma•tion /ˌækləˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : strong and enthusiastic approval or praise ▪ Her performance in the ballet earned her thunderous applause and shouts of acclamation from the audience. ▪ She has earned worldwide acclamation for her charitable works.
2 : a vote to accept or approve someone or something that is done by cheers, shouts, or applause — usually used in the phrase by acclamation ▪ The legislature passed the bill by acclamation. ▪ The president was elected by acclamation.

ac•cli•mate /ˈæklə˖meɪt, Brit əˈklaɪmət/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing US : to adjust or adapt to a new climate, place, or situation — usually + to [no obj] He was never really able to acclimate to the hot weather. [=to get used to the hot weather] ▪ The mountain climbers spent a few days acclimating [=becoming adjusted] to the high altitude. [+ obj] I acclimated myself to the hot weather. ▪ You might need to acclimate your plants to bright sunlight gradually. ▪ We took a few days to get acclimated to our new teacher.
– ac•cli•ma•tion /ˌækləˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ac•cli•ma•tize also Brit ac•cli•ma•tise /əˈklaɪməˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing : to adjust or adapt to a new climate, place, or situation : ACCLIMATE — usually + to [no obj] The mountain climbers spent a few days acclimatizing [=becoming adjusted] to the high altitude. [+ obj] The mountain climbers spent a few days acclimatizing themselves to the high altitude.
– ac•cli•ma•ti•za•tion also Brit ac•cli•ma•ti•sa•tion /əˌklaɪmətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit əˌklaɪməˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ac•co•lade /ˈækəˌleɪd/ noun, pl -lades [count] : an award or an expression of praise ▪ There is no higher accolade at this school than an honorary degree. — often plural ▪ She has been winning accolades [=she has been receiving praise] for her performances in small plays. ▪ The movie's special effects have drawn accolades from both fans and critics. [=have been praised by both fans and critics]

ac•com•mo•date /əˈkɑːməˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to provide room for (someone) : to provide a place to stay and sleep for (someone) ▪ The hotel can only accommodate about 100 people. [=is only large enough for about 100 people] ▪ Over 600 people can be accommodated on the cruise ship. b : to have room for (someone or something) ▪ The ceilings were too low to accommodate his terrific height. ▪ The table accommodates [=seats] 12 comfortably. ▪ This ancient stadium could accommodate [=hold] up to 60,000 people.
2 [+ obj] somewhat formal : to do something helpful for (someone) ▪ They were kind enough to accommodate me with a ride to the train station. : to provide what is needed or wanted for (someone or something) ▪ I asked them for additional money, and they accommodated me with a loan. ▪ He would often change his schedule to accommodate his clients. ▪ New facilities are being added to accommodate the special needs of elderly residents.
3 : to get used to or become comfortable with something : to adapt or adjust to something [no obj] Smart investors quickly accommodated to the new market conditions. [+ obj] Smart investors quickly accommodated themselves to the new market conditions. = Smart investors quickly became accommodated to the new market conditions.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

accommodating adj [more ~; most ~] : willing to do what someone else wants or requests ▪ The chef can be very accommodating [=obliging], often cooking meals that aren't even on the menu. ▪ She seems less accommodating to the demands of her boss than she used to be.

ac•com•mo•da•tion /əˌkɑːməˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a accommodations [plural] US : a place (such as a room in a hotel) where travelers can sleep and find other services ▪ We need overnight accommodations [=lodging] for four people. ▪ They weren't sure if they could provide food and accommodations for the whole group. ▪ The accommodations on board the boat are a bit cramped. b [noncount] chiefly Brit : a place where people can live, stay, or work ▪ We need overnight accommodation [=lodging] for four people. ▪ office accommodation
2 formal a : an agreement that allows people, groups, etc., to work together [singular] He hoped to reach an accommodation with the new owners. [noncount] Negotiators were convinced that accommodation with the union was possible. b : something done to provide what is needed or wanted for someone or something [singular] He changed his schedule as an accommodation to his clients. [noncount] Changes were made for the accommodation of differing viewpoints.

ac•com•pa•ni•ment /əˈkʌmpənimənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : music played to support a person who is singing or playing a musical instrument [noncount] She sings without musical accompaniment. [count] — usually singular ▪ She sang the song with a piano accompaniment. ▪ She sang the song to the accompaniment of a piano. [=while a piano played]
2 [count] : something that is added to another thing to make it better or more appealing ▪ A nice tie was a fine accompaniment to his new suit.; especially : something added to or served with food or a meal ▪ This dish can be served as an accompaniment to/for most meat main dishes. ▪ This wine is a good accompaniment for/of spicy foods.
3 [count] : something that is done or that happens at the same time as something else ▪ She studied Italian as an accompaniment to her classes in art history. ▪ She made the announcement to the accompaniment of loud applause. [=there was loud applause while she made the announcement] ac•com•pa•nist /əˈkʌmpənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] : someone who plays a musical instrument while another person is singing or playing the main part : someone who plays an accompaniment ▪ He will be her accompanist on the piano.

ac•com•pa•ny /əˈkʌmpəni/ verb -nies; -nied; -ny•ing [+ obj]
1 : to go somewhere with (someone) : to be a companion for (someone) ▪ She will accompany me to the store. ▪ Ten adults accompanied the class on their field trip. ▪ Children under 17 must be accompanied by an adult to see this movie.
2 a : to go together with (something) : to be included with (something) ▪ A delicious sauce accompanied the grilled fish. — often used as (be) accompanied ▪ The text is accompanied by over 100 photographs and charts. b : to happen or occur at the same time as or along with (something) — usually used as (be) accompanied ▪ Low rates of unemployment are often accompanied by high inflation. ▪ The thunderstorm was accompanied by high winds.
3 : to play music with (someone who is singing or playing the main tune) : to perform an accompaniment for (someone) ▪ He will be accompanying her on the piano.
– accompanying adj ▪ Call the phone number in the accompanying booklet for further information.

accompli see FAIT ACCOMPLI

ac•com•plice /əˈkɑːmpləs/ noun, pl -plic•es [count] : a person who works with or helps someone who is doing something wrong or illegal ▪ He was convicted as an accomplice to murder. ▪ a murderer's accomplice ▪ She was an unwitting accomplice to tax fraud. [=she didn't know that she was helping someone to commit tax fraud]

ac•com•plish /əˈkɑːmplɪʃ/ verb -plish•es; -plished; -plish•ing [+ obj] : to succeed in doing (something) ▪ They have accomplished [=done, achieved] much in a very short period of time. ▪ He finally felt like he had accomplished [=done] something important. ▪ There are several different ways to accomplish the same task. ▪ It's amazing what you can accomplish [=do] through/with hard work. ▪ Exactly what he thought he would accomplish is unclear.
– ac•com•plish•able /əˈkʰɑmplɪʃəbəɬ/ adj [more ~; most ~] accomplished adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very skillful : having or showing the skill of an expert ▪ an accomplished [=expert] pianist/artist/writer ▪ She has the confidence of an accomplished athlete. ▪ an accomplished [=excellent] performance
2 : very successful : having done or achieved many good or important things ▪ He is one of the school's most accomplished graduates.

ac•com•plish•ment /əˈkɑːmplɪʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : something done, achieved, or accomplished successfully ▪ Her family is proud of all her academic accomplishments. ▪ one of the greatest scientific accomplishments of the century
2 [noncount] : the successful completion of something : the act of accomplishing something ▪ We celebrated the accomplishment of all our goals. ▪ When the work was done, he had a sense of accomplishment. [=he felt that he had done something good] ▪ a public official with a solid record of accomplishment [=of doing good things successfully]
3 : a special skill or ability gained by practice or training [count] Her knowledge of foreign languages is among her many accomplishments. [noncount] a young woman of accomplishment [=an accomplished young woman]

[1]ac•cord /əˈkoəd/ noun, pl -cords
1 [count] : a formal or official agreement ▪ The two sides were able to reach an accord. ▪ a peace accord
2 [noncount] : a situation or state in which people or things agree ▪ His ideas and mine were completely/fully in accord. = His ideas were completely/fully in accord with mine. [=his ideas and mine agreed completely] ▪ They dressed up for the festival in accord with [=in accordance with] the custom.
of its own accord ✧ If something happens of its own accord, it happens by itself without anyone causing it to happen. ▪ The tree fell of its own accord.
of your own accord ✧ If you do something of your own accord, you do it because you want to, not because someone has asked you or forced you to do it. ▪ They left of their own accord.
with one accord chiefly Brit, formal : all together ▪ They rose with one accord from their seats.

[2]accord verb -cords; -cord•ed; -cord•ing [+ obj] formal : to give (something, such as special treatment or status) to someone or something ▪ He was accorded certain favors because of his age. ▪ Her students accorded her respect. = Her students accorded respect to her. = She was accorded respect by her students. ▪ We accord great importance to education. [=we treat education as very important] accord with [phrasal verb] accord with (something) : to be in agreement with (something) ▪ His interpretation of the data did not accord with the facts. ▪ His plans for the company did not accord with my own.

ac•cor•dance /əˈkoədns/ noun
in accordance with : in a way that agrees with or follows (something, such as a rule or request) ▪ In accordance with your request, I am sending a copy of my book. ▪ His funeral will be private, in accordance with his wishes. ▪ The soldier said that he acted in accordance with his orders.

ac•cord•ing•ly /əˈkoədɪŋli/ adv
1 : in a proper or appropriate way : in a way that suits the facts, needs, or requirements of a situation ▪ He knew his limitations and acted accordingly. ▪ She is considered a manager and is paid accordingly. ▪ The car is made with the best materials and is priced accordingly.
2 : as a result : THEREFORE ▪ His campaign manager wanted to find out how people felt. Accordingly [=consequently], he took an opinion poll of the local voters.

according to prep
1 : as stated, reported, or recorded by (someone or something) ▪ According to a recent survey, most Americans drive to work. [=a recent survey says that most Americans drive to work] ▪ According to rumors I've heard, he was fired for stealing from the company.
2 : as directed or required by (rules, directions, etc.) ▪ She always did everything according to the rules. ▪ I cooked the rice according to the directions on the box. ▪ Everything went according to plan. [=everything went as it had been planned]
3 : in a way that is based on (something) ▪ He arranged the books on the shelf according to [=by] their size. ▪ He was paid according to how quickly he worked.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

ac•cor•di•on /əˈkoɚdijən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a musical instrument that is shaped like a box and that is held in your hands and played by pulling its sides apart and then pushing them together while pressing buttons and keys
– ac•cor•di•on•ist /əˈkoɚdijənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

accordion

ac•cost /əˈkɑːst/ verb -costs; -cost•ed; -cost•ing [+ obj] : to approach and speak to (someone) often in an angry, aggressive, or unwanted way ▪ He was accosted by three gang members on the subway. ▪ She was so famous that people would accost her on the street and ask for an autograph.

[1]ac•count /əˈkaʊnt/ noun, pl -counts
1 a [count] : a record of money that has been paid and money that has been received : BILL ▪ the difference between the debit and credit sides of an account — see also EXPENSE ACCOUNT b accounts [plural] : records of income and expenses ▪ We always keep very good accounts. ▪ an accounts department ▪ The company's accounts show a profit this year: our accounts receivable exceed our accounts payable. [=the money owed to us exceeds the money we owe]
2 [count] : an arrangement in which a bank keeps a record of the money that a person puts in and takes out of the bank ▪ We opened new accounts at a bank last week. ▪ I took out my money and closed my account. ▪ You can withdraw up to $1,000 a day from your account. ▪ Every week, she puts/deposits a part of her paycheck into a separate account. ▪ setting up a bank account ▪ My wife and I keep our money in a joint account. [=an account that both of us can use] — often used before another noun ▪ Please enter your name and account number. ▪ You can check your account balance [=the amount of money in your account] on the Internet. — see also CHECKING ACCOUNT, SAVINGS ACCOUNT
3 [count] : a company's record of the products or services used by a customer and of the money that the customer owes or has paid to the company ▪ I don't have the money right now. Put it on my account. = Charge it to my account. ▪ If you return the clothes, the store will credit your account. [=you will not have to pay for the clothes] ▪ When do you intend to settle your account? [=pay what you owe] — see also CHARGE ACCOUNT, CREDIT ACCOUNT ✧ In figurative use, to settle an account or to settle accounts with someone is to do something that brings a final end to an argument, disagreement, etc. ▪ She's decided to settle accounts with her old political rivals.
4 [count] : a business arrangement in which a person or company regularly buys products or services from a particular company ▪ She makes sure that all of the company's accounts [=customers, clients] make the necessary payments. ▪ We just lost the Smith account. ▪ That company was one of our biggest/best accounts. ▪ She will be our account manager. [=the person who manages our account]
5 [count] : an arrangement in which a person uses the Internet or e-mail services of a particular company ▪ I use two separate e-mail accounts.
6 [count] : a description of an event or situation : a story or report about something ▪ personal/firsthand/eyewitness accounts from the war ▪ According to one account, the party was a complete disaster. — often + of ▪ She gave the police a full/complete/detailed account of what happened. ▪ We read an account of her trip to Paris. ▪ a written account of his long and successful career
7 [count] : a list or description of facts ▪ Our goal is to give an accurate account of the process. ▪ an account of how the system works ▪ The document is an account of the country's reasons for going to war.
8 [count] : a reason or explanation for an action ▪ You will be asked to give an account of your actions. [=to explain the reasons for your actions] ▪ He could give no account of what he did with the money. — often used in the formal phrase on that account ▪ I hope we won't lose our friendship on that account. [=for that reason]
9 [noncount] formal : value or importance — used in the phrases of no account and of little account ▪ He felt that his opinions were of no account to the others. [=he thought that the other people didn't care about his opinions] ▪ It's of little account what I may think about it. — see also NO-ACCOUNT bring/call (someone) to account : to require (someone) to explain and accept punishment or criticism for bad or wrong behavior ▪ He was called to account by his boss for failing to spot the mistake in the company's records.
by/from all accounts : according to all of the different descriptions of something ▪ By all accounts, the band put on a great show. [=everyone says that the band put on a great show] ▪ She was, by all accounts, good at her job. ▪ They seemed, from all accounts, to have a happy marriage.
by your own account : according to what you have said about your own life or experiences ▪ By her own account, that was the worst performance of her career. [=she said that was her worst performance] ▪ They had, by their own account, a wonderful time.
give a good account of yourself : to perform well especially in a competition ▪ If I ever had to fight, I think I could give a good account of myself.
on account of : because of : for the reason of ▪ The game was canceled on account of the rain. ▪ They were treated badly on account of their beliefs. ▪ On account of his bad behavior, he will not be allowed to play with the new toy.
on no account or not on any account chiefly Brit : for no reason : under no circumstances — used to say that something will not or should not happen ▪ On no account should the children be left at home alone. ▪ They said that on no account would they leave before the end of the game.
on someone's account : because of someone : in order to please someone ▪ Don't leave on our account. [=because of us] ▪ You didn't have to clean your room on my account. I don't care if your room is dirty.
on your own account 1 : by yourself : on your own : without the help of others ▪ She bought the house entirely on her own account. ▪ He left the company and went into business on his own account. 2 : for your own sake : in order to make a situation good for yourself ▪ I'm doing it on my own account, not for anyone else.
take (something) into account or take account of (something) : to think about (something) before doing something (such as making a decision) : CONSIDER ▪ Try to take our feelings into account. [=try to think about how we will feel] ▪ Other issues must be taken into account before a choice can be made. ▪ She did very well on the test when you take into account how little she studied. ▪ She takes no account of my feelings. [=she doesn't consider how I feel] ▪ The new health plan fails to take account of the fact that many people cannot pay for their medicine.
turn (something) to (good) account formal : to gain or profit from (something) : to take advantage of (something) ▪ Is there a way to turn this situation to good account?

[2]account verb -counts; -count•ed; -count•ing [+ obj] formal : to think of (someone or something) in a specified way — usually used as (be) accounted ▪ Their first project was accounted [=considered] a success.
account for [phrasal verb] 1 account for (something) a : to give a reason or explanation for (something) ▪ Eventually, you will need to account for your actions/behavior. ▪ How do you account for [=explain] your success? ✧ The informal saying there's no accounting for taste means that there is no way to understand why some people like something while other people do not. ▪ I don't see why they liked the movie, but there's no accounting for taste. b : to be the cause of (something) ▪ The disease accounted for over 10,000 deaths last year. ▪ These new features account for the computer's higher price. ▪ The disease cannot be accounted for [=explained] by genetics alone. There must be other causes as well. c : to make up or form (a part of something) ▪ Women account for [=constitute, compose] only 25 percent of our employees. d US : to think about (something) before doing something : to take (something) into consideration ▪ The researchers failed to account for the fact that most of the students were poor. 2 account for (someone or something) a : to show what happened to (someone or something) ▪ We have to account for the time [=to say how much time] we spend on each activity. ▪ I'll have to account for the money I spent. : to know the location of (someone or something) ▪ The government couldn't account for millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money. ▪ Is everyone accounted for? [=do we know where everyone is?] ▪ All present and accounted for. [=everyone who is supposed to be here is here] b : to destroy or kill (someone or something) ▪ Enemy fighters have accounted for most of our bombers, Sir.; also, chiefly Brit : to defeat or beat (someone or something) ▪ We accounted for [=dispatched] the challengers 3–2.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

ac•count•able /əˈkaʊntəbəl/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : required to explain actions or decisions to someone — usually + to ▪ Political leaders need to be accountable to the people they represent. ▪ a powerful businessman who seems to think that he's accountable [=answerable] to no one
2 : required to be responsible for something ▪ If anything goes wrong I will hold you personally accountable! — often + for ▪ They hold you accountable for your mistakes. ▪ Each child is accountable [=responsible] for his or her own behavior.
– ac•count•abil•i•ty /əˌkʰæʊntəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ We now have greater accountability in the department. [=people in the department can now be held more responsible for what happens] ▪ corporate accountability

ac•coun•tant /əˈkaʊntnt/ noun, pl -tants [count] : someone whose job is to keep the financial records of a business or person

ac•count•ing /əˈkaʊntɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the skill, system, or job of keeping the financial records of a business or person — often used before another noun ▪ an accounting firm ▪ traditional accounting methods ac•cou•tred or ac•cou•tered /əˈkuːtəd/ adj, literary : provided with equipment or clothing ▪ The knight's horse was properly accoutred for battle.

ac•cou•tre•ment or US ac•cou•ter•ment /əˈkuːtrəmənt, əˈkuːtəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a piece of clothing or equipment that is used in a particular place or for a particular activity — usually plural ▪ The room had a fully stocked bar and all the accoutrements of a first-class hotel.

ac•cred•it /əˈkrɛdət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to say that something is good enough to be given official approval ▪ The association only accredits programs that meet its high standards. ▪ The program was accredited by the American Dental Association.
2 : to give (someone) credit for something : CREDIT ▪ The invention of scuba gear is accredited to Jacques Cousteau.
3 : to send (someone, such as an ambassador) to act as an official representative ▪ accredit an ambassador to France
– ac•cred•i•ta•tion /əˌkrɛdəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The school/hospital lost its accreditation. ▪ the accreditation of an ambassador – accredited adj ▪ an accredited college/hospital ▪ She was enrolled at an accredited law school.

ac•cre•tion /əˈkriːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : a gradual process in which layers of a material are formed as small amounts are added over time ▪ rocks formed by the slow accretion of limestone — often used figuratively ▪ The gradual accretion of detail creates a complex and moving story.
2 [count] : something that has grown or accumulated slowly : a product or result of gradual growth ▪ strangely shaped limestone accretions ▪ There was an accretion of ice on the car's windshield.

ac•crue /əˈkruː/ verb -crues; -crued; -cru•ing formal
1 : to increase in value or amount gradually as time passes : to grow or build up slowly [no obj] I'll get back all the money I invested, plus any interest and dividends that have accrued. — often + to ▪ interest and dividends that have accrued to me [+ obj] investments that have accrued interest and dividends
2 [no obj] : to come to or be given to someone — usually + to ▪ the advantages/benefits that accrue to us [=that we receive] as members of a free society
– ac•cru•al /əˈkruːwəl/ noun, pl -als [count] an accrual of interest [noncount] money gained by accrual of interest – accrued adj ▪ I'll get back all the money I invested, plus any accrued interest and dividends.

ac•cu•mu•late /əˈkjuːmjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to gather or acquire (something) gradually as time passes ▪ She has slowly accumulated [=amassed] a fortune. ▪ You can accumulate [=earn] bonus points by participating in surveys. ▪ The police have been accumulating [=collecting] evidence of his guilt.
2 [no obj] : to increase gradually in amount as time passes ▪ A large amount of debris has accumulated [=collected] at the construction site. ▪ Evidence of his guilt is accumulating.
– ac•cu•mu•la•tion /əˌkjuːmjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the accumulation of evidence against him [count] The company's goal was a slow, steady accumulation of profits. ▪ The disease is caused by accumulations of fat in the kidneys.

ac•cu•mu•la•tive /əˈkjuːmjələtɪv/ adj : growing or increasing over time : CUMULATIVE ▪ The accumulative effect of his injuries forced him to retire.

ac•cu•ra•cy /ˈækjərəsi/ noun
1 : freedom from mistake or error : the quality or state of being accurate : CORRECTNESS [noncount] Each experiment is performed twice to ensure accuracy. ▪ The police questioned the accuracy of his statement. ▪ He could not say with any accuracy what he had seen. [singular] She shot free throws with an accuracy of 80 percent. [=80 percent of her free throws were accurate/successful]
2 [noncount] : the ability to work or perform without making mistakes ▪ Several managers have tried to increase the speed and accuracy of the workers.

ac•cu•rate /ˈækjərət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : free from mistakes or errors ▪ The model is accurate down to the tiniest details. ▪ an accurate account/record/report/description ▪ Her novel is historically accurate. ▪ He needed a more accurate [=precise] term to describe the procedure. ▪ an accurate throw/shot [=a throw/shot that does not miss its target] — opposite INACCURATE
2 : able to produce results that are correct : not making mistakes ▪ an accurate reporter ▪ an accurate measuring device ▪ The machines were not yet accurate enough to give useful results. — opposite INACCURATE
– ac•cu•rate•ly adv ▪ It is very difficult to accurately predict the weather. ▪ The book's title does not accurately reflect its subject.

ac•cursed /əˈkəst, əˈkɚsəd/ adj, old-fashioned
1 : having very bad luck : placed under a curse ▪ an accursed [=cursed] team that can't seem to win a game
2 : very bad : greatly or strongly disliked ▪ I couldn't wait to get out of that accursed [=cursed, damned] place.

ac•cu•sa•tion /ˌækjəˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a claim that someone has done something wrong or illegal : a charge that someone has committed a fault or crime [count] Investigators have made/brought/leveled accusations of corruption against a group of former officials. ▪ The police are investigating serious accusations of wrongdoing. ▪ He denied/rejected the accusation that he had lied to the police. ▪ a false accusation [noncount] There was a hint/tone of accusation in his voice when he asked her where she had been.

ac•cu•sa•tive /əˈkʰjuːzətɪv/ noun [noncount] grammar : the form of a noun or pronoun when it is the direct object of a verb or the object of a preposition ▪ a noun in the accusative — called also objective; compare NOMINATIVE
– accusative adj ▪ the accusative case

ac•cu•sa•to•ry /əˈkjuːzəˌtori, Brit əˈkjuːzətri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : accusing or blaming someone : assigning blame or fault ▪ He pointed an accusatory finger at the suspect. ▪ The book has a harsh, accusatory tone.

ac•cuse /əˈkjuːz/ verb -cus•es; -cused; -cus•ing [+ obj] : to blame (someone) for something wrong or illegal : to say that someone is guilty of a fault or crime ▪ He was unjustly accused. — often + of ▪ He was accused of stealing the money. ▪ His children have accused him of neglect. ▪ You can't accuse him of being rude: he's always extremely polite. ▪ She has been accused of murder. = She stands accused of murder. — sometimes used humorously ▪ No one could ever accuse him of being overly modest. [=he is not modest]
– ac•cus•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She deserves the chance to meet/confront her accuser. – accusing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She gave him a very accusing look. ▪ The governor pointed an accusing finger at the legislature [=said the legislature was to blame] for failing to approve her budget.
– ac•cus•ing•ly /əˈkʰjuːzɪŋli/ adv ▪ She looked at him accusingly. ▪ "What did you do?" he asked accusingly.

accused noun
the accused : a person who is charged with a crime ▪ The accused was found not guilty. : a group of people who are charged with a crime ▪ The accused were found not guilty.

ac•cus•tom /əˈkʌstəm/ verb -toms; -tomed; -tom•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to become adjusted to or familiar with something — + to ▪ trying to gradually accustom the students to their new surroundings ▪ The time he spent in the army has accustomed him to rising early in the morning. ▪ He'll have to accustom himself to life in a new country. [=he will have to become adjusted to life in a new country]

ac•cus•tomed /əˈkʌstəmd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : familiar with something so that it seems normal or usual — + to ▪ She is accustomed to [=used to] life/living on the farm. ▪ We have become/grown/gotten more accustomed to their traditions and routines. ▪ He is accustomed to doing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

what he wants to do. [=he usually does what he wants to do]
2 always used before a noun, formal : usual or regular ▪ at her accustomed [=customary] lunch hour ▪ She arrived early enough to get her accustomed seat in the front row.

[1]ace /ˈeɪs/ noun, pl ac•es [count]
1 : a playing card with one large figure in its center that can be the card with either the highest or lowest value ▪ the ace of spades/diamonds/hearts/clubs — see picture at PLAYING CARD
2 : a person who is very skilled at something ▪ a computer ace ▪ the ace of the team's pitching staff [=the best pitcher on the team] — often used before another noun ▪ an ace mechanic/reporter
3 : a point scored on a serve that an opponent fails to hit in tennis ▪ She won the match by scoring more than 30 aces.
4 US : a score of one on a hole in golf : HOLE IN ONE ▪ He got/shot/scored an ace on the eighth hole.
an ace in the hole (US) or chiefly Brit an ace up your sleeve ✧ If you have an ace in the hole or an ace up your sleeve, you have a powerful and often secret weapon, advantage, etc., that you can use if it is needed. ▪ The mayor's popularity among elderly voters gives him an ace in the hole for the coming election.
hold all the aces : to have a strong advantage over others in a contest, competition, etc. ▪ As the strike continues into its second week, it appears that the company holds all the aces in its negotiations with the strikers.
within an ace of informal : very near to (doing something) ▪ They were/came within an ace of winning the championship. [=they almost won the championship]

[2]ace verb aces; aced; ac•ing [+ obj]
1 US, informal : to earn a very high grade on (an examination) : to get a grade of A on (an examination) ▪ He aced the test. ▪ She aced her entrance exams. : to perform very well on (a test or challenge) ▪ He aced his annual physical.
2 : to score an ace against (an opponent in tennis) ▪ He aced his opponent on the last point of the match.
3 US : to score an ace on (a hole in golf) ▪ She aced the 14th hole. [=she had a hole in one on the 14th hole] acer•bic /əˈsə•bɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : expressing harsh or sharp criticism in a clever way ▪ acerbic comedy ▪ an acerbic playwright ▪ the film's most acerbic critics ▪ his acerbic wit

– acer•bi•cal•ly /əˈsə•bɪkli/ adv

acet•amin•o•phen /əˌsi:təˈmɪnəfən/ noun [noncount] US : a medicine that is used to relieve pain and fever acet•y•lene /əˈsɛtlən/ noun [noncount] : a gas that burns with a very hot flame which is used to melt and connect pieces of metal

[1]ache /ˈeɪk/ verb aches; ached; ach•ing [no obj]
1 : to produce a dull continuous pain : to hurt in a way that is constant but not severe ▪ Her muscles were aching from shoveling snow. ▪ After running the marathon, his body ached for a week. ▪ The candy's so sweet that it makes my teeth ache. — often used figuratively ▪ His heart ached [=he felt sad and sorry] for the children begging on the streets.
2 : to want or desire something or someone very much — often + for ▪ After years of war, most people are aching [=longing, yearning] for peace. ▪ Her heart ached for him. — often followed by to + verb ▪ I've been aching to see you.

[2]ache noun, pl aches [count] : a pain that is not sharp but continues for a long time ▪ He had a dull ache in his back from lifting boxes all day. ▪ muscle aches — often used in combination with parts of the body ▪ a head*ache* ▪ a stomach*ache* ▪ tooth*aches* — often used figuratively ▪ She looked through the old pictures with a dull ache in her heart. ✧ Aches and pains are many small pains that happen at the same time and make people feel uncomfortable. ▪ Symptoms of the flu include fever, general aches and pains, and sore throat. ▪ the many aches and pains of old age
– achy /ˈeɪki/ adj ach•i•er; -est ▪ My feet are tired and achy from walking all day.

achieve /əˈʧi:v/ verb achieves; achieved; achiev•ing
1 [+ obj] : to get or reach (something) by working hard ▪ This year, our company was able to achieve [=accomplish, attain] all of its production goals. ▪ He worked hard and achieved success. [=became successful] ▪ a diet that achieves dramatic results ▪ With much practice, she has achieved a high level of skill. ▪ They achieved high scores on their math tests.
2 [no obj] : to become successful : to reach a goal ▪ We give students the skills they need in order to achieve in college.
– achiev•able /əˈʧi:vəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ achievable goals

achieve•ment /əˈʧi:vmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : something that has been done or achieved through effort : a result of hard work ▪ The discovery of DNA was a major scientific achievement. ▪ It was a great/extraordinary/remarkable achievement. ▪ Getting the project done on time was a real achievement.
2 [noncount] : the act of achieving something ▪ a high level of artistic achievement [=accomplishment] : the state or condition of having achieved or accomplished something ▪ Tests measure students' academic achievement. [=measure how much the students have learned] ▪ The students were awarded (with) certificates of achievement. [=documents saying that they reached an academic goal] ▪ Repairing the car by himself gave him a real sense of achievement. [=a proud feeling of having done something difficult and worthwhile]

achiev•er /əˈʧi:və/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who achieves success : a successful person ▪ Both of his brothers are achievers. = Both his brothers are high achievers. [=both his brothers are hardworking and successful] ▪ a low achiever [=an unsuccessful person who does not work hard] — see also OVERACHIEVER, UNDERACHIEVER

Achil•les' heel /əˈkɪliz-/ noun, pl ~ heels [count] : a fault or weakness that causes or could cause someone or something to fail ▪ I'm trying to lose weight, but ice cream is my Achilles' heel. ▪ This year, the team's Achilles' heel is its pitching. [=the team could fail because of its poor pitching]

Achilles tendon noun, pl ~ -dons [count] medical : the body part that joins the muscles of the lower leg to the bone of the heel

achoo /əˈʧu:/ interj — used to represent the sound of a sneeze

[1]ac•id /ˈæsəd/ noun, pl acids
1 chemistry : a chemical with a sour taste that forms a salt when mixed with a base [count] the acids in your stomach [noncount] the kinds of acid found in your stomach ✧ An acid has a pH of less than 7. Very strong acids are able to burn holes in things. — compare [1]BASE 6, PH
2 [noncount] slang : LSD ▪ His friend dropped acid [=took LSD] at the concert.

[2]acid adj [more ~; most ~]
1 always used before a noun : of, relating to, or having the qualities of an acid ▪ He washes his windows with an acid solution of vinegar and water. ▪ an acid [=sour] taste ▪ This kind of plant grows well in acid [=acidic] soil. ▪ Their pizza gives me acid indigestion. [=a burning feeling in the stomach]
2 : sharp, strong, and critical in tone ▪ He made some very acid [=biting, caustic] comments. ▪ acid remarks – acid•i•ty /əˈsɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ They measured the acidity of the soil. ▪ the acidity [=tartness, sourness] of lemon juice – ac•id•ly adv ▪ She acidly refers to her former husband as "that little man."

acid•ic /əˈsɪdɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a very sour or sharp taste ▪ an acidic sauce/wine
2 : containing acid ▪ The soil in our garden is very acidic. ▪ the acidic water of a polluted lake — compare ALKALINE acid•i•fy /əˈsɪdəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing technical : to cause (something) to become acidic [+ obj] Pollution acidified the soil. [no obj] Pollution caused the soil to acidify.

– acid•i• •ca•tion /əˌsɪdəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

acid rain noun [noncount] : rain that contains dangerous chemicals because of smoke from cars and factories ▪ trees damaged by acid rain

acid test noun [singular] : a difficult situation or task that shows if someone or something is good enough to succeed ▪ The new team faced its first acid test when it played the national champions. — compare LITMUS TEST

ac•knowl•edge /ɪkˈnɑ:lɪʤ/ verb -edg•es; -edged; -edging [+ obj]
1 : to say that you accept or do not deny the truth or existence of (something) : ADMIT ▪ They acknowledged that the decision was a mistake. ▪ Do you acknowledge that you caused this mess? ▪ I acknowledge (the fact) that I hurt you, and for that I am sorry. ▪ They readily/openly/grudgingly acknowledged their mistake. ▪ She won't acknowledge responsibility for her actions. ▪ He refuses to acknowledge the authority of the court. [=he denies that the court has authority]
2 : to regard or describe (someone or something) as having or deserving a particular status ▪ They acknowledge him as their leader. = They acknowledge him to be their leader. — usually used as (be) acknowledged ▪ She is widely/generally acknowledged as one of the world's best chefs. [=many people regard her as one of the world's best chefs] ▪ Her pastries

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

are acknowledged to be the best. ▪ This part of the city is acknowledged to have the best restaurants.
3 : to tell or show someone that something (such as a letter or message) has been received ▪ He quickly acknowledges all of my e-mails when he receives them. ▪ Please acknowledge receipt of this letter. ▪ She acknowledged the gift with a card. ▪ She acknowledged his greeting with a smile.
4 : to show that someone has been seen and recognized : to look at or talk to (someone) ▪ She walked right by me without even acknowledging me. ▪ The players acknowledged their fans by waving their hands and blowing kisses into the crowd. ▪ He refuses to acknowledge her existence/presence.
5 : to express thanks or appreciation for (something or someone) ▪ In their paper, they acknowledge the important work done by past scholars. ▪ They acknowledge past scholars for the important work they have done.
– acknowledged adj ▪ the acknowledged leader of a political party ▪ an acknowledged master of the art

ac•knowl•edg•ment also ac•knowl•edge•ment /ɪkˈnɑːlɪʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : the act of acknowledging something or someone: such as a : the act of showing that you know, admit, or accept that something exists or is true [count] The killer's apology was an acknowledgment [=admission] of his guilt. = The killer's apology was an acknowledgment that he was guilty. ▪ The day passed without any acknowledgment that it was their wedding anniversary. [=no one mentioned that it was their wedding anniversary] ▪ They made several public acknowledgments of their company's mistake. [noncount] He paid the fine without acknowledgment of his guilt. b : the act of praising or thanking someone for an action or achievement [count] Special acknowledgments will be made at the end of the meeting. [noncount] He has finally received the acknowledgment he deserves for his charitable work. ▪ They presented him with an award in acknowledgment of his charitable work.
2 acknowledgments [plural] : a section of a book, article, etc., in which people are thanked for their help ▪ He's the first person mentioned in the book's acknowledgments.
3 [count] : a usually written statement saying that a letter or message was received ▪ We sent an acknowledgment that we received their letter. ▪ He never received an acknowledgment of his payment.

ac•me /ˈækmi/ noun [singular] : the highest point of something ▪ He was struck down by illness at the acme [=height] of his fame. [=when he was most famous] ▪ His fame was at its acme.

ac•ne /ˈækni/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which the skin on a person's face, neck, etc., has many small, swollen spots (called pimples) ▪ a teenager with bad acne

ac•o•lyte /ˈækəˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lytes [count]
1 formal : someone who follows and admires a leader ▪ a popular professor dining with a few of her acolytes
2 : someone who helps the person who leads a church service acorn /ˈeɪˌkoən/ noun, pl acorns [count] : the nut of the oak tree acorn squash noun, pl ∼ squash•es [count, noncount] US : a vegetable that is somewhat round with a pointed end and has dark skin and yellow or orange flesh — see color picture on page C4

acous•tic /əˈkuːstɪk/ also US acous•ti•cal /əˈkuːstɪkəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to sound or to the sense of hearing ▪ the acoustic properties/characteristics of a room ▪ acoustic vibrations
2 a of a musical instrument : not having its sound changed by electrical devices ▪ an acoustic guitar ▪ acoustic instruments b : made with or using acoustic instruments ▪ She loves listening to acoustic folk music. ▪ an acoustic performance of a rock-and-roll song ▪ acoustic musicians – acous•ti•cal•ly /əˈkuːstɪkli/ adv ▪ an acoustically perfect room

acous•tics /əˈkuːstɪks/ noun
1 [plural] : the qualities of a room (such as its shape or size) that make it easy or difficult for people inside to hear sounds clearly : acoustic qualities ▪ We love performing in this room because of its great acoustics. ▪ The acoustics in the school's auditorium are terrible.
2 [noncount] : the science that studies sounds ▪ Acoustics is a challenging subject.

ac•quaint /əˈkweɪnt/ verb -quaints; -quaint•ed; -quaint•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (someone) to know and become familiar with something ▪ He acquainted the new employee with her duties. [=he told her about her duties] ▪ This class is designed to acquaint students with the region's most important writers. ▪ The lawyer took a few days to acquaint herself with [=to learn about] the facts of a case.

ac•quain•tance /əˈkweɪntns/ noun, pl -tanc•es
1 [count] : someone who is known but who is not a close friend ▪ Is he an acquaintance of yours? [=have you met him?] ▪ She ran into an old acquaintance at the grocery store. ▪ My wife and I met through a mutual acquaintance. [=a friend introduced us to each other] ▪ a casual acquaintance ▪ friends and acquaintances
2 [noncount] formal : the state of knowing someone in a personal or social way : the state of knowing someone as an acquaintance ▪ our family's close acquaintance with our neighbors ▪ It's a pleasure to make your acquaintance. [=(less formally) it's nice to meet you] ▪ She made the acquaintance of [=she met] a man from the city. ▪ She struck up an acquaintance with a man from the city. ▪ a doctor of my acquaintance [=a doctor that I know] ▪ He seemed cold on/at first acquaintance [=when I first met him], but later I realized that he was just shy. ▪ He seemed cold at first, but on closer/further acquaintance I realized that he was just shy.
3 : knowledge about something — + with [singular] She has only a nodding/slight/superficial acquaintance with the facts of the case. [=she knows only a little about the facts of the case] ▪ He has more than a passing acquaintance with wine. [=he knows a lot about wine] [noncount] While he has some acquaintance with the subject, he is not an expert.
– acquaintanceship noun, pl -ships [count] An acquaintanceship grew between the two men. [noncount] Her long acquaintanceship [=acquaintance] with sorrow began when her young husband died.

acquaint•ed adj, not used before a noun
1 formal : having knowledge about something : having seen or experienced something — + with ▪ Are you acquainted with the facts in this case? [=do you know the facts?] ▪ I am (well) acquainted with his books. [=I have read his books]
2 : having met : knowing each other in a personal or social way ▪ Are you two acquainted? [=have you met before?] ▪ The two actors are intimately/casually acquainted. [=they know each other intimately/casually] ▪ Let's take a walk and get acquainted. ▪ I'll go get us some drinks while you two get better acquainted. [=while you two talk to each other and get to know each other better] — often + with ▪ It took him a few months to get/become acquainted with the other students.

ac•qui•esce /ˌækwiˈɛs/ verb -esc•es; -esced; -esc•ing [no obj] formal : to accept, agree, or allow something to happen by staying silent or by not arguing ▪ They demanded it, and he acquiesced. — often + in ▪ We cannot acquiesce in the killing of innocent people. — often + to ▪ She acquiesced to her husband's plans.
– ac•qui•es•cence /ˌækwiˈɛsns/ noun [noncount] ▪ I was surprised by his acquiescence to their demands.

ac•qui•es•cent /ˌækwiˈɛsnt/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] formal : tending to accept or allow what other people want or demand ▪ The acquiescent girl became a strong assertive woman.

ac•quire /əˈkwajə/ verb -quires; -quired; -quir•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to get (something) : to come to own (something) ▪ They're planning to acquire [=buy] a new home in the country. ▪ He acquired [=got, inherited] a small fortune after the death of her parents. ▪ The two ships were acquired by the navy after the war. ▪ The team acquired three new players this year. : to come to have (something) ▪ She dreamed of acquiring [=gaining, getting] control of the company. ▪ When I saw her next she had somehow managed to acquire a few cuts and bruises. [=she had a few cuts and bruises] ▪ The old word has acquired a new meaning. ▪ This apparently minor event has acquired increasing significance in recent weeks.
2 : to gain (a new skill, ability, etc.) usually by your own effort ▪ She quickly acquired [=gained] fluency in French. ▪ He is studying the way that language is acquired by children. ▪ acquire knowledge ▪ He has acquired a reputation as a careful/careless worker. [=people regard him as a careful/careless worker] ✧ When people acquire a taste for something, they like something that they did not like before. ▪ Although he usually avoided unusual foods, he eventually began to acquire a taste for raw fish. ✧ An acquired taste is something or someone that is not easily or immediately liked. ▪ Brussels sprouts are an acquired taste for many people. ▪ I admit that she is something of an acquired taste, but I think her art is wonderful.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:50:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

acquired immune deficiency syndrome noun [noncount] medical : AIDS

ac•qui•si•tion /ˌækwəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of getting or acquiring something: such as a : the act or process of gaining skill, knowledge, etc. ▪ the acquisition of knowledge ▪ foreign language acquisition b : the act of obtaining money, possessions, etc. ▪ the acquisition of wealth ▪ the country's acquisition of new ships
2 [count] : something (such as a company or valuable property) that is acquired ▪ The big company's newest acquisition is a small chain of clothing stores. ▪ The museum has put its latest acquisitions on display.

ac•quis•i•tive /əˈkwɪzətɪv/ adj, formal + disapproving : having a strong desire to own or acquire more things ▪ our increasingly competitive and acquisitive [=greedy] society
– ac•quis•i•tive•ness noun [noncount]

ac•quit /əˈkwɪt/ verb -quits; -quit•ted; -quit•ting [+ obj] : to decide that someone is not guilty of a crime ▪ The jury acquitted the defendant because there wasn't enough evidence to convict him of the crime. ▪ She was acquitted of the murder of her husband. = She was acquitted of murdering her husband. — compare ¹CONVICT acquit yourself : to act or behave in a specified way — used to express approval or (less commonly) disapproval of someone's behavior or performance ▪ The soldiers acquitted themselves well/honorably in battle. ▪ The young actress acquitted herself extremely well/capably in her first film. ▪ He acquitted himself poorly in handling the controversy.

ac•quit•tal /əˈkwɪtl/ noun, pl -tals : the act of deciding that a person is not guilty of a crime : the act of acquitting someone [noncount] The case resulted/ended in acquittal of the defendant. ▪ Several jurors voted for acquittal. [count] The case resulted/ended in an acquittal of the defendant.

acre /ˈeɪkə/ noun, pl acres [count] : a measure of land area in the U.S. and Britain that equals 4,840 square yards (about 4,047 square meters) ▪ The house sits/is on two acres of land. ▪ They own hundreds of acres of farmland. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a cheap stunt that got them acres of free publicity [=a great amount of free publicity] acre•age /ˈeɪkərɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : land measured in acres ▪ A large portion of the park's acreage is forest.

ac•rid /ˈækrəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : bitter and unpleasant in taste or smell ▪ Thick, acrid smoke rose from the factory.

ac•ri•mo•ni•ous /ˌækrəˈmoʊnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : angry and bitter ▪ an acrimonious debate ▪ acrimonious disputes between nations ▪ He went through an acrimonious divorce.
– ac•ri•mo•ni•ous•ly adv ▪ The issue was acrimoniously debated.

ac•ri•mo•ny /ˈækrəˌmoʊni, Brit ˈækrəməni/ noun [noncount] formal : angry and bitter feelings ▪ The dispute began again with increased acrimony.

ac•ro•bat /ˈækrəˌbæt/ noun, pl -bats [count] : someone who entertains people (as at a circus) by performing difficult and often dangerous acts (such as swinging from a bar or walking on a rope high in the air)
– ac•ro•bat•ic /ˌækrəˈbætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ acrobatic skill ▪ an acrobatic feat ▪ The goalie is famous for her acrobatic saves. [=saves that involve difficult and skillful movements] – ac•ro•bat•i•cal•ly /ˌækrəˈbætɪkli/ adj

ac•ro•bat•ics /ˌækrəˈbætɪks/ noun [plural] : difficult and dangerous acts done by an acrobat ▪ The circus performers' acrobatics were spectacular!; also : difficult or dangerous acts, movements, etc., done by another kind of performer ▪ aerial acrobatics [=spectacular movements performed while flying] ▪ The singer's vocal acrobatics are impressive. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ It makes sense, but only after some complicated mental acrobatics.

ac•ro•nym /ˈækrəˌnɪm/ noun, pl -nyms [count] : a word formed from the first letters of each one of the words in a phrase ▪ The North Atlantic Treaty Organization is known by the acronym "NATO."

¹across /əˈkrɑːs/ prep
1 a : from one side to the other side of (something) ▪ We took a ferry across the river. ▪ We saw them walking across the street. ▪ She reached across the table to shake his hand. ▪ They traveled back and forth across the border. ▪ Airplanes flew across the sky above us. ▪ She slapped him right across the face. [=she slapped his face] b : on the other side of (something) ▪ He was seated across the table from me. ▪ Our grandparents live across the street (from us). ▪ The accident happened just across the state line.
2 : so as to reach or spread over or throughout (something) ▪ A smile spread across her face. ▪ Looking out across the ocean, he saw land. ▪ The sun's light spread across the mountains. ▪ The disease spread quickly across the country.
3 : in every part of (a country, region, etc.) ▪ The movie is now showing in theaters across [=throughout] America. ▪ Newspapers (all) across the world reported the story. ▪ We could hear the bells all across town.

²across adv
1 : from one side to the other ▪ The streams are small enough to jump across. ▪ They walked across to the other side of the street. ▪ They reached across and shook each other's hand.
2 : in a measurement from one side to the other side ▪ At its widest point, the pond measures 150 feet across. ▪ The hole was 10 feet across. [=10 feet wide]
3 : on the opposite side ▪ I saw them crossing the street and I waited until they were safely across.
across from : on the opposite side from (someone or something) ▪ She sat (directly) across from me at the table. ▪ The restaurant is (just) across from the high school.

across–the–board adj, always used before a noun : affecting everyone or everything in a group ▪ across-the-board price increases ▪ an across-the-board tax cut — see also across the board at ¹BOARD

acryl•ic /əˈkrɪlɪk/ noun, pl -ics
1 [noncount] : a material that is made from a chemical process and that is used for making many different products (such as clothing and paints) — often used before another noun ▪ acrylic fabrics ▪ acrylic paint
2 acrylics [plural] : paints that contain an acrylic substance and that are used by artists ▪ a painting done in acrylics

¹act /ˈækt/ noun, pl acts
1 [count] : something that is done ▪ His first official act [=action] as President was to sign the bill. ▪ We were grateful for her many acts of kindness. ▪ an act of bravery = a brave act ▪ criminal/illegal/unlawful/wrongful acts — see also SEX ACT
✧ An act of God is a natural event (such as a storm or earthquake) that cannot be controlled by people. ▪ The company cannot be held responsible in cases of bad weather or other acts of God.
2 [count] : a law made by a group of legislators ▪ The program was created by (an) act of Congress/Parliament. ▪ legislative acts ▪ the Civil Rights Act of 1964
3 [count] : one of the main divisions of a play or opera ▪ Please read act II, scene 1 of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. ▪ In the first/opening act, two characters are talking in a restaurant. ▪ a play in three acts = a three-act play
4 [count] a : one of the performances in a show ▪ a circus/magic act b : a show that a person or group performs often ▪ He has a great stand-up/comedy act. [=routine] ▪ She took her act on the road. [=she traveled and performed her act in different places] c : a person or group that performs in shows ▪ a two-person comedy act from New York City ▪ The band was one of this summer's most successful live acts. ✧ A balancing act or juggling act is an attempt to do several different things or deal with several different situations at the same time. ▪ It's a difficult balancing act, but many students hold full-time jobs while attending school. ▪ Working and raising children can be a real juggling act for parents. — see also CLASS ACT, a hard/tough act to follow at FOLLOW
5 [singular] : a way of behaving that is not honest or sincere ▪ He said he was sorry, but I realize now that it was all just an act. ▪ He wasn't really sorry. He was just putting on an act.
clean up your act see clean up at ²CLEAN get into the act or get in on the act : to start to participate in an activity ▪ We started selling them last year, and now other stores are getting into the act. [=now other stores are also selling them] get your act together see get together at GET in the act (of doing something) : while doing something ▪ When they arrived, I was just in the act of starting to make dinner. ▪ He tried to rob a bank and was caught in the act. = He was caught in the act of robbing a bank.

²act verb acts; act•ed; act•ing
1 [no obj] : to do something : to take action ▪ Think before you act. ▪ He knew he had to act quickly/fast. ▪ The government was slow to act. ▪ The firefighters acted with great courage. = They acted courageously. ▪ She acted on behalf of her father, who was not at the meeting. ▪ I believe that the killer acted alone. ▪ She had acted in self-defense when she killed

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

her attacker. ▪ We were acting in the best interests of our children. ▪ If he refuses to cooperate, he'll be acting against his own (best) interests. [=he'll be acting in a way that is harmful to himself] ▪ We must act soon to end this crisis.

2 [no obj] : to behave in a particular way ▪ She learned at an early age how to act properly in social situations. ▪ People are always telling me how I should act and what I should say. ▪ I noticed that the dog was acting funny/differently/strangely this morning. ▪ acting more naturally/aggressively/responsibly ▪ She's been acting kind of crazy lately. ▪ Please learn the new rules and act accordingly. [=follow the new rules] ✧ To act the part is to behave the way that people in a particular role usually behave. ▪ Now that he's rich he certainly acts the part. [=behaves like a rich person] ✧ To act your age is to behave the way that people your age should behave and not to behave like a younger person. ▪ John, act your age. You're not a kid anymore. ✧ To act like a particular kind of person or thing is to behave the way that person or thing behaves. ▪ You two are acting like children. ▪ It's time you start acting like a man. ▪ I'm sorry about yesterday. I acted like a fool/jerk. — see also ²ACT 3c (below)

3 a [no obj] : to behave in a way that is not sincere or honest ▪ Stop acting. We know you're guilty. b [linking verb] : to pretend to be something ▪ Stop acting innocent. ▪ She was terribly nervous, but she acted confident. ▪ I know you're bored, but can you at least try to act interested. ▪ He did his best to act excited. ▪ There she goes, offering advice and acting the expert. [=pretending to be an expert] ▪ If anybody asks you where I am, act dumb. [=pretend that you do not know] c [no obj] : to pretend that something is true — usually used in the phrases act as if, act as though, and (chiefly US) act like ▪ She acted as if nothing had happened. ▪ We acted as though we knew what was going on. ▪ I tried to act like it didn't bother me, but it did. ▪ Even if you don't like your gift, you should act like you do. ▪ I didn't act like it, but I really was happy. — see also act like at ²ACT 2 (above)

4 : to perform the words and actions of a character in a play, movie, etc. : to perform as an actor [no obj] It had always been his dream to act. ▪ She can sing, dance, and act. ▪ As a child, she began acting in television commercials. ▪ Both actors have agreed to act in the movie. [+ obj] He'll be acting the part of Romeo in tonight's play. ▪ The role of Romeo was wonderfully acted by Mr. Jacob Smith. ▪ a beautifully acted movie [=a movie in which the acting is excellent]

5 [no obj] : to do the work of a particular kind of person or thing : to perform a certain function or role — + as ▪ A young man acted [=served] as our guide through the city. ▪ She'll be acting as her own attorney during the court trial. ▪ She agreed to act as his secretary. ▪ The trees act as a source of shade and protection from the wind.

6 [no obj] : to make something happen : to have a particular effect ▪ The chemical acts [=works] by destroying the cells in the brain. — often + on ▪ These medicines act on [=affect] the heart. — see also ACT ON/UPON (below)

act on/upon [phrasal verb] act on/upon (something) : to use (something, such as a feeling or suggestion) as a reason or basis for doing something ▪ They never acted on the information they had. ▪ We were too late to act upon his suggestion. ▪ It's okay to feel angry or jealous, but you mustn't act on those feelings. — see also ²ACT 6 (above)

act out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to behave badly especially because you are feeling painful emotions (such as fear or anger) ▪ What can parents do when their kids start acting out? b *act out (something) or act (something) out : to show that you are feeling (a painful emotion) by acting in ways that are not good or acceptable ▪ children acting out their emotions in inappropriate ways ▪ He tries not to act out his anger/frustrations. 2 *act out (something) or act (something) out a : to perform (a play, a character in a movie, etc.) ▪ plays acted out on stage ▪ She skillfully acted out the role of a young queen. b : to do and say the things that happen in (a movie, past event, etc.) ▪ At their last party, they acted out [=reenacted] scenes from old movies. ▪ The children were acting out what they saw on television. ▪ adults acting out their childhood dreams/fantasies [=doing the things they wanted to do when they were children]

act the fool see ¹FOOL

act up [phrasal verb] 1 : to behave badly : to act in a way that is not polite or acceptable ▪ The kids are acting up [=misbehaving] again. ▪ The book gives advice to parents whose children act up. 2 of a machine : to not work properly ▪ The camera started acting up [=malfunctioning] after I dropped it. 3 of a disease : to become worse and to start causing pain or physical problems ▪ His asthma acts up when it's cold outside. ▪ Whenever it rains, my arthritis starts acting up.

ACT abbr American College Test ✧ The ACT is a test that some U.S. students take as a part of applying to colleges.

¹act•ing /ˈæktɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : performing a job for a short time : holding a temporary position ▪ The college's acting president will be replaced with a permanent one next fall.

²acting noun [noncount] : the art or profession of performing the role of a character in a play, movie, etc. : the art or profession of an actor ▪ Acting is my life! ▪ Her acting is unusually good in this film. ▪ a new style of acting — often used before another noun ▪ She's been taking acting classes. ▪ his successful acting career

ac•tion /ˈækʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : something that a person or group does ▪ As its first official action [=act], the committee elected Ms. Jones as its president. ▪ He was critical of the government's actions before the war. ▪ a military action against another country ▪ criminal/illegal actions ▪ She tried to explain/defend/justify her actions. ▪ I accept full responsibility for my actions. — often used with take ▪ The school has been asked to take certain actions to fix the problem. ▪ This is just one of the many actions that they could have taken. ✧ The saying actions speak louder than words means that the things that you do are more important than the things that you say. ▪ They say they want peace, but actions speak louder than words.

2 [noncount] : things done to achieve a particular purpose ▪ The situation demanded immediate action. ▪ The problem may require military action. ▪ The school took disciplinary action against the drunken students. ▪ They decided that no further action was necessary. ▪ We need to agree on a plan of action. [=need to agree on what we will be doing] ▪ What's the best course of action? [=what's the best way to proceed?] ▪ The protesters criticized the administration's lack of action [=inaction] on many issues. — often used with take ▪ We were ready to take action. [=to do something] ▪ Because the company failed to take action [=failed to act], many people were hurt. ▪ The company took no action. ▪ The police are now taking appropriate action. ▪ She's all talk and no action. [=she says that she will do things, but she does not do them] ✧ A man of action or woman of action is a man or woman who works in an active way to do things. ▪ He was a scholar and thinker but was also a man of action. — see also AFFIRMATIVE ACTION, POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

3 [noncount] : fighting that happens in a war ▪ His unit first saw action [=fought in a battle] on June 20th. ▪ soldiers who were killed or wounded in action [=in battle] ▪ soldiers who are missing in action [=soldiers who cannot be found after a battle and might have been killed, captured, or wounded] — see also IN ACTION (below)

4 the action : the most exciting or interesting activities that are happening in a particular place ▪ The new theater places the audience closer to the center/middle of the action. ▪ I moved to New York City to be (a) part of the action. ▪ Downtown is where the action is. [=downtown is a very active and exciting place]

5 [noncount] a informal : a chance or opportunity to make money ▪ Do any of you guys want to get in on the action? [=participate in a plan to make money] ✧ A piece of the action or (chiefly US) a cut of the action or (chiefly Brit) a slice of the action is a portion or share of the money that can be earned from something. ▪ He saw that his friends were making money illegally, and he wanted to get a piece of the action. b slang, sometimes offensive : sexual activity ▪ I met a girl who was ready for some action.

6 [noncount] : the events that happen in a story, movie, etc. ▪ Most of the play's action takes place in a restaurant. ▪ the action [=plot] of the novel

7 [noncount] : events that happen quickly and that cause feelings of danger and excitement ▪ The movie is two hours of nonstop action. [=excitement] ▪ We went out looking for action. ▪ That's when the action really starts. — often used before another noun ▪ action movies ▪ the film's final action sequence — see also LIVE ACTION

8 — used as a director's command to start filming part of a movie or television show ▪ Lights, camera, action!

9 law : the process of having a court of law make a decision about an argument [count] The court dismissed the action. [=case, lawsuit] ▪ She brought/filed an action against the company for damages. ▪ civil actions [=lawsuits about a person's rights] [noncount] They are threatening/considering

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

legal action. ▪ bringing/taking action against companies for damages — see also CLASS ACTION

10 [noncount] : a process in which one thing causes a change in another thing ▪ the action [=effect] of certain chemicals on the brain ▪ The medicine blocks the action of these proteins. [=it stops the proteins from working] ▪ The cave was formed by the action of an underground river.

11 : the way that something works or moves [noncount] Food is swallowed by the action of the tongue. ▪ the action of the heart ▪ the mechanical action of a pulley ▪ the drill's twisting action ▪ a single-action revolver [singular] The gears meshed with a smooth action.

in action : in the act of doing something : performing a usual job or function ▪ We came to the court to see our country's judicial system in action. [=at work] ▪ The fans have come to see their favorite players in action. ▪ After a two year break from baseball, he's finally back in action. [=he's playing baseball again] — see also ACTION 3 (above) into action : to an active state ▪ They had already put the plan into action. [=started using the plan] ▪ Firefighters are ready to leap/spring/swing into action [=quickly start working] at a moment's notice. ✧ When people or things are called into action, they are asked to start working or doing a particular task. ▪ As a doctor, she can be called into action at any time of the day. ▪ Our military unit was called into action at the start of the war.

out of action : unable to perform a usual job or function : not in action ▪ He broke his leg and the doctors say that he'll be out of action [=out of commission] for at least a month. ▪ His broken leg will put/keep him out of action for at least a month.

ac•tion•able /ˈækʃənəbəl/ adj

1 law : giving a reason to bring an action or a lawsuit against someone ▪ Firing people because of their age is actionable.

2 chiefly US, formal : able to be used as a basis or reason for doing something ▪ We've received actionable information that the men are hiding in these mountains.

action figure noun, pl ~ -ures [count] : a small usually plastic doll ✧ Action figures are made to look like superheroes, soldiers, robots, etc.

action–packed adj [more ~; most ~] : filled with action, danger, and excitement ▪ an action-packed adventure movie action replay noun, pl ~ -plays [count] Brit : INSTANT REPLAY ▪ see the winning goal again in an action replay

action verb noun, pl ~ verbs [count] grammar : a verb that expresses action ▪ "Drive" in "We often drive past their house" and "think" in "Let's think about the problem" are both action verbs. — compare LINKING VERB

ac•ti•vate /ˈæktəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) active or more active: such as a : to cause (a device) to start working ▪ Touch the screen to activate the system. ▪ activate and then deactivate a mechanism ▪ A loud alarm was activated [=set off] when he opened the door. ▪ The camera is activated by pushing a button. ▪ The bomb was activated by remote control. b chemistry : to cause (a chemical reaction or natural process) to begin ▪ Sunlight activates a chemical reaction in the plant's leaves. ▪ vitamins that activate the growth of new cells

2 chiefly US : to order (soldiers) to serve in a war ▪ The President has activated the reserves. ▪ activate the troops ▪ Our military unit was activated [=called into action] soon after the start of the war.

– ac•ti•va•tion /ˌæktəˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ac•tive /ˈæktɪv/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : doing things that require physical movement and energy ▪ We stay/keep active during the cold winter months by skiing and ice skating. ▪ Despite her age, she has been able to maintain her active [=busy] lifestyle. ▪ Cats are most active [=energetic, lively] at night.

2 [more ~; most ~] a : involved in the activities of a group or organization ▪ We are active members of our church. ▪ While many give money to the organization, only a few are active participants. : participating in an action or activity ▪ She was politically active as a volunteer for her state representative. — often + in ▪ They were active in the antiwar movement of the 1960s. ▪ active in women's causes b : involving action or participation ▪ They take an active interest in their children's education. ▪ He has taken/played a more active role in the production of this album.

3 : marked by regular action or use ▪ the bank's active and inactive accounts ▪ He became sexually active [=he began having sex] at the age of 21.

4 of a volcano : likely to explode violently or produce fire and hot liquid rock : capable of erupting ▪ Most volcanoes on this island are still active but a few are inactive.

5 of a disease : becoming worse or continuing to have bad effects ▪ active tuberculosis ▪ The disease remains active throughout the patient's life.

6 : having a chemical effect especially on the body ▪ The medicine has two active ingredients. ▪ the active ingredient in/of marijuana

7 a US : involving service in the military as a main job ▪ After two years of active duty [=two years of being a full-time member of the military] she entered the reserves. ▪ She was on active duty for two years. b : involving fighting in a war as a member of the military ▪ He saw no active service [=he did not fight in any battles] during his time in the army. ▪ He was on active service in three separate wars. ▪ soldiers returning home from active service

8 grammar a of a verb or voice : showing that the subject of a sentence is the one doing the action expressed by the verb ▪ "Picked" in "I picked the apples" is an active verb because it shows that the subject "I" is the one who picked the apples. ▪ "Hits" in "She hits the ball" is active, while "hit" in "The ball was hit" is passive. ✧ The active voice is a way of writing or speaking that uses active verbs. ▪ The sentence "The birds are singing" is written in the active voice. — compare PASSIVE b of a verb : expressing action rather than describing the state of something ▪ Words like "walk," "sing," and "eat" are active verbs. ▪ In the sentence "Look at this picture," the verb "look" is active.

– ac•tive•ly adv ▪ They participate actively in their church. ▪ actively involved in a conversation

ac•tiv•ist /ˈæktɪvɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who uses or supports strong actions (such as public protests) to help make changes in politics or society ▪ Antiwar activists were protesting in the streets. ▪ an environmental activist ▪ political activists

– ac•tiv•ism /ˈæktɪˌvɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ political activism

ac•tiv•i•ty /ækˈtɪvəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the state of being active ▪ The holidays always set off a lot of activity in our home. : behavior or actions of a particular kind ▪ the sexual activity of married couples ▪ The police are now monitoring criminal/gang/drug activity in the area. ▪ There has been an increase in the city's (level of) economic activity. ▪ She gets at least 30 minutes of physical activity every day. ▪ The instruments are used to detect volcanic activity on the island.

2 [count] : something that is done as work or for a particular purpose — usually plural ▪ Grandma needs help with her everyday/daily activities. ▪ business activities ▪ political activities ▪ They were accused of financing the group's illegal activities.

3 [count] : something that is done for pleasure and that usually involves a group of people ▪ We planned an activity for the children. — usually plural ▪ The camp offers hiking, swimming, and other recreational activities. ▪ social activities

ac•tor /ˈæktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who acts in a play, movie, etc.

> usage Actor is often used to refer specifically to a man or boy who acts. ▪ He's a talented actor, and his wife is a well-known actress. Actor can also refer to a woman or girl, and many women now prefer this use. ▪ His wife is also an actor. The plural form actors is used for groups that include both men and women. ▪ She and her husband are both talented actors.

ac•tress /ˈæktrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count] : a woman or girl who acts in a play, movie, etc. : a female actor usage see ACTOR

ac•tu•al /ˈækʧəwəl/ adj

1 : real and not merely possible or imagined : existing in fact ▪ The movie is based on actual events. [=on events that really happened] ▪ They signed the agreement in the spring, but the actual sale wasn't made until that summer. ▪ You deposit money in a bank account but the actual money is not held there. ▪ He looks younger, but he is in actual fact almost 60 years old. [=he is actually almost 60 years old]

2 : known to be correct or precise : not false or apparent ▪ The woman's actual [=exact] age is unknown. ▪ The actual cost of the repair was much higher than the estimate.

3 — used for emphasis ▪ This is the actual [=very] room in which my grandfather was born.

ac•tu•al•i•ty /ˌækʧəˈwæləti/ noun, pl -ties

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being actual or real ▪ It was hard to accept the actuality [=reality] of the disease.
2 [count] : something that is actual or real ▪ the actualities [=realities] of war ▪ The actuality was quite different from the theory.
in actuality : in truth — used to stress that something is true when it is different from what was believed or expected ▪ He gave me what turned out to be, in actuality [=in reality, in fact], only a copy of the original. ▪ I thought they just arrived, but in actuality they'd been here for an hour.

ac•tu•al•ly /ˈæktʃəwəli/ adv
1 — used to refer to what is true or real ▪ I don't know what actually [=really] happened. ▪ After all these months, it's hard to believe that we're actually [=really, truly] finished.
2 — used to stress that a statement is true especially when it differs in some way from what might have been thought or expected ▪ We'd actually planned to leave early, but we were delayed. ▪ I wasn't worried about being late. Actually, I didn't want to go at all. ▪ I didn't think I'd like the movie, but it was actually pretty good. ▪ I was shocked to learn he could actually fly a plane. ▪ I could hardly believe it when she actually apologized to me. ▪ "I like your new glasses." "Thanks, but actually I've had them for almost a year."

ac•tu•ary /ˈæktʃəˌweri, Brit ˈæktʃuəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a person whose job is to tell insurance companies how much they should charge people for insurance based on risks
– ac•tu•ar•i•al /ˌæktʃəˈwerijəl/ adj ▪ actuarial calculations

ac•tu•ate /ˈæktʃəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 technical : to make (a machine or electrical device) move or operate ▪ The pump is actuated by the windmill.
2 formal : to cause someone to do something or to act in a certain way — usually used as (be) actuated ▪ He had been actuated [=motivated] by greed when he made his decision. = His decision had been actuated by greed.

acu•ity /əˈkju:wəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the ability to see, hear, or understand something easily ▪ mental/visual/political acuity [=acuteness] ▪ her acuity [=keenness, sharpness] of perception acu•men /əˈkju:mən/ noun [noncount] : the ability to think clearly and make good decisions ▪ Her political acumen won her the election. ▪ a lack of business/financial acumen acu•pres•sure /ˈækjəˌprɛʃə/ noun [noncount] : a method of relieving pain or curing illness by pressing on particular points on a person's body with the fingertips or thumbs — compare ACUPUNCTURE acu•punc•ture /ˈækjəˌpʌŋkʧə/ noun [noncount] : a method of relieving pain or curing illness by placing needles into a person's skin at particular points on the body — compare ACUPRESSURE – acu•punc•tur•ist /ˈækjəˌpʌŋkʧərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

acute /əˈkju:t/ adj acut•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : very serious or dangerous : requiring serious attention or action ▪ an acute [=critical, severe] fuel shortage ▪ an acute crisis ▪ the acute phase [=the most important and dangerous phase] of the struggle for independence
2 usually used before a noun : having or showing an ability to think clearly and to understand what is not obvious or simple about something ▪ an acute observation/understanding ▪ an acute observer ▪ an acute sense of humor ▪ It's a politically acute film that does not oversimplify the issues.
3 : very strong and sensitive : highly developed ▪ acute [=keen] hearing/vision ▪ acute awareness
4 : strongly felt or experienced ▪ acute distress/embarrassment
5 medical a : very sharp and severe ▪ acute pain/infection ▪ acute symptoms b : becoming very severe very quickly ▪ an acute disease ✧ A hospital or doctor who specializes in acute care works with patients who have diseases or problems that require immediate care. ▪ an acute care hospital — compare CHRONIC
6 mathematics : ending in a sharp point : measuring less than 90 degrees ▪ an acute angle — compare OBTUSE
7 of an accent mark : having the form ´ ▪ The word "café" is written with an acute accent over the "e." — compare [2]GRAVE 3
– acute•ly adv ▪ I am acutely aware of these problems. ▪ The patient was acutely ill. – acute•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the acuteness of the fuel shortage

ad /ˈæd/ noun, pl ads [count] : ADVERTISEMENT ▪ I saw your ad in the newspaper. ▪ radio/television ads ▪ (chiefly US) She works for an ad agency [=advertising agency] in New York. — see also WANT AD

AD or chiefly US A.D. abbr — used to refer to the years since the birth of Christ ▪ 550 A.D. = A.D. 550 ▪ the first century A.D. ▪ in the year 823 A.D. ✧ A.D. stands for the Latin phrase anno Domini, which means "in the year of the Lord." — compare B.C., B.C.E., C.E.

ad•age /ˈædɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count] : an old and well-known saying that expresses a general truth ▪ My mother always used to remind us of the (old) adage, "If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all."

[1]ada•gio /əˈdɑ:ʤijoʊ/ adv : in a slow manner : SLOWLY — used as a direction in music
– adagio adj

[2]adagio noun, pl -gios [count] : a piece of music that is played or performed slowly and gracefully

Ad•am /ˈædəm/ noun
not know (someone) from Adam see [1]KNOW ad•a•mant /ˈædəmənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not willing to change an opinion or decision : very determined ▪ She is an adamant [=strong] defender of women's rights. ▪ We've tried to talk him into coming with us, but he's adamant about staying here. ▪ an adamant refusal – adamance or adamancy noun [noncount] ▪ the adamancy of her refusal – ad•a•mant•ly adv ▪ He's adamantly opposed to coming with us.

Adam's apple noun, pl ~ apples [count] : the lump that sticks out in the front of a person's neck, that is usually larger in men than in women, and that moves when a person talks or swallows adapt /əˈdæpt/ verb adapts; adapt•ed; adapt•ing

1 : to change your behavior so that it is easier to live in a particular place or situation [no obj] When children go to a different school, it usually takes them a while to adapt. — usually + to ▪ These fish all adapt easily to colder water. ▪ She has adapted to college life quite easily. [+ obj] She has adapted herself to college life quite easily.
2 [+ obj] : to change (something) so that it functions better or is better suited for a purpose ▪ The teachers adapted [=modified] the curriculum so that students of all abilities will benefit from it. ▪ The camera has been adapted for underwater use. ▪ The clock was adapted to run on batteries.
3 [+ obj] : to change (a movie, book, play, etc.) so that it can be presented in another form ▪ He adapted the novel for the stage. [=he rewrote the novel as a play] ▪ The movie was adapted from the book of the same title. ▪ adapting the movie for television adapt•able /əˈdæptəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to change or be changed in order to fit or work better in some situation or for some purpose : able to adapt or be adapted ▪ an adaptable tool that combines a screwdriver, a corkscrew, and pliers ▪ very adaptable animals — often + to ▪ These plants are all easily adaptable to colder climates. ▪ The computer program is adaptable to the needs of individual users.

– adapt•abil•i•ty /əˌdæptəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

ad•ap•ta•tion /ˌæˌdæpˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : something that is adapted; especially : a movie, book, play, etc., that is changed so that it can be presented in another form ▪ His stage adaptation of the novel was a success. ▪ The film is an adaptation of a book of the same title.
2 [count] : a change in a plant or animal that makes it better able to live in a particular place or situation ▪ The insect's evolutionary adaptations enable it to be almost invisible even when sitting in the middle of a leaf.
3 [noncount] : the process of changing to fit some purpose or situation : the process of adapting ▪ a tool designed for easy adaptation adapt•er also adap•tor /əˈdæptə/ noun, pl adapters also adaptors [count] : a device that is used to connect two pieces of equipment that were not designed to be connected

add /ˈæd/ verb adds; add•ed; add•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to put (something) with another thing or group of things ▪ She's planning to add some new flowers to the garden. ▪ The company is adding over 200 jobs this year. ▪ This winter, he added skiing to his list of favorite sports. b : to mix or combine (an ingredient) with other ingredients ▪ Add (in) a little more salt and pepper. ▪ I added (in) just a dash/pinch of flour. ▪ Add one cup of sugar to the mixture. ▪ Next, add the remaining butter to the pan. c : to include (something) with something else ▪ It took us four hours to get there, if you add (in) the time we stopped to eat.
2 [+ obj] : to cause something to have (a usually good quality

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

or characteristic) ▪ In this dish, fresh herbs add lots of color and flavor. ▪ As an employee, she will add [=bring] great value to your company. ▪ We can help you add excitement to your vacation. ▪ The historical details add depth/richness/weight to his story. ▪ She adds a certain amount of experience and authority to the project.

3 : to put (two or more numbers or amounts) together to find a total or sum [+ obj] When you add three and/to seven, you get ten. ▪ Add these three numbers together. [no obj] schoolchildren learning how to add [=to perform addition] and subtract — opposite SUBTRACT

4 [+ obj] : to say or write (something more or extra) ▪ That's all I have to say. Do you have anything (else/more) to add? = Is there anything (else/more) you would like to add? ▪ "They all went to the bar," he said. "But I didn't go with them," he quickly added. ▪ He was quick to add that he didn't go with them. = He hastened to add that he didn't go with them. ▪ It was a long project and, I might add, an expensive one.

add insult to injury see [2]INSULT

add on [phrasal verb] add (something) on or add on (something) : to put (something) with another thing or group of things ▪ We're going to add on a new garage. — often + to ▪ We're adding a new garage on to our house. ▪ They're adding $200 on to what we already have to pay. ✧ The phrase add on to is also written as add onto. ▪ We're adding a new garage onto our house.

add to [phrasal verb] add to (something) : to make (something) larger, better, or greater ▪ He bought another rare coin to add to his collection. ▪ Her research has greatly added to our knowledge of the subject. ▪ She's been able to add to her savings [=to save more money] this year. ▪ This movie will add to his fame. [=it will make him more famous] ▪ The loud music added to the confusion. [=it made the confusion greater] ▪ We hope this adds to your enjoyment of the play. ▪ The funny characters really add to the story. [=they make the story better] ✧ Phrases like add to this/that and added to this/that are often used informally to introduce a statement about something that makes a thing or situation better, worse, more important, etc. ▪ We were given little time to finish. Add to this the fact that nobody helped us, and you can understand why we were angry. ▪ We were short of money. Added to that, we were lost!

add up [phrasal verb] 1 a : to be added together and equal the expected or correct total — usually used in negative constructions ▪ The numbers just don't add up. [=they don't equal the expected total] b : to make sense : to seem to be logical or true ▪ They must be lying; their story just doesn't add up. c : to slowly increase and become a large number or amount ▪ A cup of coffee may only cost a dollar, but those dollars add up quickly. ▪ I'm saving a little money each month. Eventually it'll add up. ▪ The hours that I spend traveling to work really add up. 2 add (something) up or add up (something) : to put together or count (the number or amount of something) to find the total ▪ Start by adding up how much money you have, and then add up your costs. ▪ Let's add up all of the money we saved. ▪ When you add it all up, he's spent over half of his life in jail. 3 add up to (something) a : to have (a number) as a total ▪ The amount of money she spends on coffee adds up to $2.75 a day. ▪ That adds up to more than a thousand dollars a year. b : to produce (a specified result) ▪ These plans should add up to a very exciting vacation. ▪ With these three bands playing together, it all adds up to one of the year's best rock concerts. ▪ All of the team's hard work didn't add up to a win.

– added adj ▪ The historical details provide added [=additional] depth/richness/weight to his story. ▪ added value ▪ an added attraction/advantage

ADD abbr attention deficit disorder

ad•den•dum /əˈdɛndəm/ noun, pl -den•da /-ˈdɛndə/ or -den•dums [count] : something that is added; especially : a section of a book that is added to the main or original text ▪ The letters are included as an addendum to the biography.

ad•der /ˈædə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a poisonous snake found in Europe

ad•dict /ˈædɪkt/ noun, pl -dicts [count]

1 : a person who is not able to stop taking drugs : a person who is addicted to drugs ▪ The clinic provides counseling for (drug) addicts. ▪ a heroin/cocaine/crack addict

2 informal : a person who likes or enjoys something very much and spends a large amount of time doing it, watching it, etc. ▪ a television addict [=junkie] ▪ basketball addicts

ad•dict•ed /əˈdɪktəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having an addiction: such as a : unable to stop using a harmful substance (such as a drug) — usually + to ▪ He's addicted to heroin/nicotine. b : unable to stop doing something that is harmful ▪ a severely addicted smoker — usually + to ▪ He's addicted to smoking. c : having an unusually great interest in something or a need to do or have something — usually + to ▪ He's addicted to (playing/watching) basketball. ▪ She's addicted to television.

ad•dic•tion /əˈdɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : a strong and harmful need to regularly have something (such as a drug) or do something (such as gamble) [count] He has a drug addiction. — often + to ▪ an addiction to pain medication ▪ an addiction to playing the lottery [noncount] His life has been ruined by heroin addiction.

2 [count] : an unusually great interest in something or a need to do or have something ▪ He devotes his summers to his surfing addiction. — often + to ▪ She has an addiction to mystery novels.

ad•dic•tive /əˈdɪktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing addiction: such as a : causing a strong and harmful need to regularly have or do something ▪ highly addictive drugs like crack and heroin b : very enjoyable in a way that makes you want to do or have something again ▪ the addictive thrill of surfing ▪ These candies are addictive.

ad•di•tion /əˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act or process of joining something to something else : the act or process of adding something — often + of ▪ The soup was thickened by the addition of cream in the last stage of cooking. ▪ The town welcomed the addition of three new computers to the library.

2 [noncount] mathematics : the act or process of adding numbers ▪ The children learned addition and subtraction.

3 [count] : something or someone more that is included : something or someone that is added ▪ The museum's collection includes several new additions. — usually + to ▪ an addition to the family [=a new member of the family, such as a newborn baby] ▪ The sculpture is the newest addition to the museum's collection.

4 [count] US : a part of a building that is built after the original part has been completed ▪ The addition expands the kitchen and adds a second bathroom.

in addition : as something more — used for adding information to a statement ▪ The city has the largest population in the country and in addition [=also, additionally] is a major shipping port. ▪ Sandwiches were served, and several salads in addition.

in addition to : along with or together with (something or someone) ▪ In addition to soup, several salads were served. ▪ There were six people at the meeting in addition to me.

ad•di•tion•al /əˈdɪʃənl/ adj : more than is usual or expected ▪ Larger windows will require additional work, but the additional light they will provide may be worth the extra trouble. ▪ There's an additional [=extra] fee/charge for returning the car a day late. ▪ The memory on this computer has the additional [=added] advantage of being expandable.

– ad•di•tion•al•ly /əˈdɪʃənḷi/ adv ▪ The restaurant has a large menu; additionally [=in addition], there are several special dishes that are prepared each day.

ad•di•tive /ˈædətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : something (such as a chemical) that is added in small amounts to a substance to improve it in some way ▪ a gasoline additive to reduce pollution ▪ food additives ad•dle /ˈædl/ verb ad•dles; ad•dled; ad•dling [+ obj] : to make (someone's mind or brain) unable to think clearly ▪ It's a dangerous poison that's strong enough to addle the brain. ▪ Their brains were addled with/by fear/drugs.

– addled adj ▪ I needed a moment to clear my addled [=confused] brain/mind. ▪ an addled old man

add–on /ˈædˌɑːn/ noun, pl -ons [count] : an extra part or device that can be added to something else to improve it ▪ He has all the latest add-ons for his computer. ▪ I knew the base price for the car, but with the add-ons I wanted, the final price was quite a bit higher. — often used before another noun ▪ add-on components ▪ add-on equipment

[1]ad•dress /əˈdrɛs/ verb -dress•es; -dressed; -dress•ing [+ obj]

1 : to write on an envelope, package, letter, etc., the name and address of the person or business it is being sent to ▪ I've addressed the letter, but it still needs a stamp. ▪ The package is sealed; it just needs to be addressed. ▪ We spent the afternoon addressing invitations to all our friends. ▪ The letter was

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

returned because it had been addressed incorrectly.
2 a : to speak to (a person or group) ▪ She ignored most of the people at the table, addressing only the man who was sitting next to her. ▪ One of the characters addresses the audience directly throughout the play. b : to use a specified name or title when speaking or writing to (someone) — + as ▪ As children, we addressed him as "sir" [=we called him "sir"] even though he was only a few years older than us. ▪ You should address the queen as "Your Majesty." c : to direct (spoken or written words) to someone ▪ She addressed her comments to the man [=she spoke to the man] who was sitting next to her. ▪ Most of the speaker's remarks were addressed to those with experience in the industry.
3 : to give a formal speech to (a group of people) ▪ Before the awards were given, the mayor addressed the crowd.
4 formal : to give attention to (something) : to deal with (a matter, issue, problem, etc.) ▪ We're all curious about how the mayor plans to address the issue. ▪ Air pollution is one of the many problems being addressed by the scientists at the conference. ▪ The principal held a meeting to address the students' concerns. ✧ If you address yourself to an issue or problem you give your attention to it. ▪ The governor is addressing himself to the problem of underfunded schools.

[2]ad•dress /əˈdrɛs, ˈæˌdrɛs/ noun, pl -dress•es [count]
1 a : the words and numbers that are used to describe the location of a building and that are written on letters, envelopes, and packages so that they can be mailed to that location ▪ Write your name, address, and phone number in the spaces provided. ▪ Our address [=the address of our home] is 82 Third Street. ▪ Please deliver the package to my work address. [=the address of the building where I work] ▪ I forgot to put the return address [=the address of the person sending the letter] on the envelope. — see picture at MAIL b : the letters, numbers, and symbols that are used to direct an e-mail message or to show the location of a site on the Internet ▪ an e-mail address ▪ a Web address
2 : a formal speech ▪ We listened to the President's inaugural address on the radio. ▪ She was asked to give/deliver a formal address at the ceremony. — see also KEYNOTE ADDRESS, PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM form/term of address : a word, name, or title that is used when speaking or writing to someone ▪ "Honey" is an affectionate term of address in U.S. English.

address book noun, pl ~ books [count]
1 : a small book in which you write the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of people you know
2 : a place on a computer or other device for storing e-mail addresses, phone numbers, etc.

ad•dress•ee /ˌædrɛˈsi:/ noun, pl -ees [count] : the person to whom mail is addressed ▪ The addressee no longer lives here, so I've returned the letter to the post office.

ad•duce /əˈdu:s, Brit əˈdju:s/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj] formal : to mention or provide (something, such as a fact or example) as evidence or proof to support an argument ▪ The evidence the author has adduced [=put forth] is rather weak.

ad•e•noids /ˈædəˌnoɪdz/ noun [plural] : a mass of tissue in the back of the throat that can become swollen and make it difficult to breathe
– ad•e•noi•dal /ˌædəˈnoɪdl/ adj ▪ an adenoidal voice [=a nasal voice, a voice that sounds odd or unattractive because it seems to be spoken through the nose]

[1]adept /əˈdɛpt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very good at doing something that is not easy ▪ He's adept in several languages. ▪ politically adept — usually + at ▪ She's adept at fixing flaws in the system. ▪ He was adept at (using) computers.
– adept•ly adv ▪ He switched adeptly between English and Italian. – adept•ness noun [noncount] ▪ her adeptness at fixing flaws

[2]ad•ept /ˈæˌdɛpt/ noun, pl -epts [count] : a highly skilled or well-trained person : someone who is adept at something ▪ a computer adept ▪ an adept at chess

ad•e•quate /ˈædɪkwət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : enough for some need or requirement ▪ Be sure to allow adequate [=sufficient, enough] time for the paint to dry. ▪ The garden hasn't been getting adequate water. ▪ The food was more than adequate for the six of us.
2 : good enough : of a quality that is good or acceptable ▪ Millions of people lack adequate [=sufficient] health care. ▪ The school lunch should be adequate to meet the nutritional needs of growing children. ▪ The machine does an adequate job. ▪ The tent should provide adequate protection from the elements. ▪ The quality of his work was perfectly adequate. : of a quality that is acceptable but not better than acceptable ▪ Your grades are adequate but I think you can do better. ▪ The quality of his work was only/merely/barely adequate. — opposite INADEQUATE – ad•e•qua•cy /ˈædɪkwəsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ Environmentalists doubt the adequacy of the regulations. [=doubt that the regulations are adequate] – ad•e•quate•ly adv ▪ Are you adequately prepared for the exam?

ad•here /ædˈhiə/ verb -heres; -hered; -her•ing [no obj] : to stick to something : to attach firmly to something ▪ The stamp failed to adhere. — usually + to ▪ The stamp failed to adhere to the envelope. ▪ The mud adhered to his shoes.
adhere to [phrasal verb] adhere to (something) : to act in the way that is required by (something, such as a rule, belief, or promise) ▪ They will adhere to the terms of the contract. ▪ Certain standards must be adhered to by all members. ▪ She adheres to [=follows] a strict vegetarian diet.

ad•her•ence /ædˈhirəns/ noun [noncount] : the act of adhering; especially : the act of doing what is required by a rule, belief, etc. — usually + to ▪ The school requires adherence to a strict dress code. ▪ adherence to religious laws — compare ADHESION ad•her•ent /ædˈhirənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : a person who is loyal to a leader, group, or religion ▪ adherents of Islam/Judaism/Buddhism ▪ one of Freud's adherents [=someone who agrees with Freud's theories] : a person who adheres to or supports a system or set of principles ▪ an adherent of free trade

ad•he•sion /ædˈhi:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] : the act of adhering; especially : the act of sticking or attaching to something ▪ the adhesion of the coating ▪ the adhesion of the mud to my shoes — compare ADHERENCE
2 [count] medical : a condition in which body tissues that are supposed to be separate grow together because of swelling after surgery ▪ postoperative adhesions

[1]ad•he•sive /ædˈhi:sɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : designed to stick to something ▪ Cover the cut with an adhesive bandage. ▪ adhesive tape

[2]adhesive noun, pl -sives [count] : a substance (such as glue or cement) that is used to make things stick together ▪ You'll need a strong adhesive to attach the boards.

ad hoc /ˈædˈhɑ:k/ adj
1 : formed or used for a special purpose ▪ The mayor appointed an ad hoc committee to study the project.
2 : made or done without planning because of an immediate need ▪ We had to make some ad hoc changes to the plans. ▪ We'll hire more staff on an ad hoc basis.
– ad hoc adv ▪ The decisions were made ad hoc.

[1]adieu /əˈdu:, əˈdju:/ interj, formal + literary : goodbye or farewell ▪ Adieu, my friends.

[2]adieu noun, pl adieus or adieux /əˈdu:, əˈdju:/ [count] formal + literary : an expression of good wishes when someone leaves : FAREWELL ▪ She bid/wished me adieu.

ad in• •ni•tum /ˌædɪnfəˈnaɪtəm/ adv : without an end or limit : FOREVER ▪ We don't have to debate the issue ad infinitum, do we? ✧ Ad infinitum is a Latin phrase that means "to infinity."

adi•os /ˌɑ:diˈoʊs, Brit ˌædiˈɒs/ interj, US, informal : GOODBYE ▪ Adios! We'll see you tomorrow.

adj abbr adjective

ad•ja•cent /əˈʤeɪsnt/ adj : close or near : sharing a border, wall, or point ▪ The other group is meeting in the adjacent room. [=the room that is next to this room] ▪ Their property and our property are adjacent. [=are next to each other] ▪ The dialect is spoken in New York City and adjacent [=nearby] areas. — often + to ▪ We're meeting in the room adjacent to [=next to] this one. ▪ Their property and our property are adjacent to each other.

ad•jec•tive /ˈæʤɪktɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : a word that describes a noun or a pronoun ▪ The words blue in "the blue car," deep in "the water is deep," and tired in "I'm very tired" are adjectives. — abbr. adj
– ad•jec•ti•val /ˌæʤɪkˈtaɪvəl/ adj ▪ an adjectival phrase – ad•jec•ti•val•ly adv ▪ Use the word adjectivally.

ad•join /əˈʤɔɪn/ verb -joins; -joined -join•ing of a building, room, area of land, etc. : to be next to or joined with something [+ obj] Her office adjoins the library. ▪ The two rooms adjoin each other. [no obj] The two rooms adjoin.
– adjoining adj ▪ We reserved adjoining rooms at the hotel.

ad•journ /əˈʤɜ:n/ verb -journs; -journed; -journ•ing : to end something (such as a meeting or session) for a period of time [+ obj] The chairperson has adjourned the meeting. ▪ Court is adjourned until 10:00 tomorrow. ▪ This meeting is adjourned. [no obj] The meeting adjourned at 4:00. ▪ Congress will not adjourn until the budget has been completed.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

adjourn to [phrasal verb] adjourn to (a place) : to leave one place and go to (another place) after the end of a meeting, discussion, etc. ▪ After the ceremony, we adjourned to the garden where lunch was served. — often used humorously ▪ Are we done here? Good, let's adjourn to the bar.

– ad•journ•ment /əˈʤɚnmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] a six-hour meeting with only two brief adjournments [noncount] The adjournment of Congress will be delayed until the budget is complete.

ad•judge /əˈʤʌʤ/ verb -judg•es; -judged; -judg•ing [+ obj] formal : to consider or judge (something) in a specified way ▪ The critics have adjudged [=(more commonly) deemed, judged] the play a success. ▪ The court adjudged the contract to be fraudulent.

ad•ju•di•cate /əˈʤuːdiˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing formal : to make an official decision about who is right in a dispute [+ obj] The board will adjudicate claims made against teachers. ▪ The case was adjudicated in the state courts. [no obj] The board will adjudicate when claims are made against teachers.

– ad•ju•di•ca•tion /əˌʤuːdɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the process of adjudication ▪ The case is under adjudication.

– ad•ju•di•ca•tor /əˈʤuːdiˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

[1]ad•junct /ˈæˌʤʌŋkt/ noun, pl -juncts [count]

1 : something that is joined or added to another thing but is not an essential part of it ▪ Massage therapy can be used as an adjunct along with the medication. — usually + to ▪ The Web site is designed as an adjunct to the book.

2 grammar : a word or phrase (such as an adverb or prepositional phrase) that provides added information about the meaning of a verb in a sentence by expressing a relation of time, place, manner, etc. ▪ In "They ate heartily," the word heartily is an adjunct and in "We left at noon," the phrase at noon is an adjunct.

[2]adjunct adj, always used before a noun

1 : added or joined in order to be used with something ▪ massage therapy as an adjunct treatment

2 : added to a teaching staff for only a short time or in a lower position than other staff ▪ adjunct faculty ▪ an adjunct professor ad•jure /əˈʤuɚ/ verb -jures; -jured; -jur•ing [+ obj] formal : to urge or command (someone) to do something ▪ He adjured his followers to remain faithful to the cause.

ad•just /əˈʤʌst/ verb -justs; -just•ed; -just•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to change (something) in a minor way so that it works better ▪ The car is easier to drive since the clutch was adjusted. ▪ I adjusted the volume on the radio. b : to change the position of (something) ▪ He adjusted his glasses/tie. ▪ She adjusted the car seat so she could reach the pedals.

2 : to change in order to work or do better in a new situation [no obj] Going to a new school can be difficult, but the kids will eventually adjust. — often + to ▪ The kids will eventually adjust to the new school. ▪ Our eyes gradually adjusted to the darkness of the cave. ▪ It's hard to adjust to the idea that she's gone. [+ obj] It's hard to adjust myself to the idea that she's gone. — see also WELL-ADJUSTED

3 : to make an amount or number more exact by considering other information — usually + for [+ obj] He actually makes less money now than he did 10 years ago, when you adjust his salary for inflation. [=when you calculate what his salary would be without inflation] [no obj] He makes less money now, when you adjust for inflation, than he did 10 years ago.

– ad•just•able /əˈʤʌstəbəl/ adj ▪ an adjustable strap/wrench/waistband – ad•just•er noun, pl -ers [count] — see also INSURANCE ADJUSTER, LOSS ADJUSTER

ad•just•ment /əˈʤʌstmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : a small change that improves something or makes it work better [count] The engine only needed a minor adjustment. ▪ She made some slight adjustments to the recipe. [noncount] The engine only needed minor adjustment.

2 : a change that makes it possible for a person to do better or work better in a new situation [count] Moving from the city to the country requires an adjustment. [noncount] We went through a period of adjustment at the new school.

3 : the act or process of changing or adjusting something (such as a number) [count] The figures were calculated with no adjustments for inflation. [noncount] The figures were calculated with no adjustment for inflation.

ad•ju•tant /ˈæʤətənt/ noun, pl -tants [count] : an army officer who helps the commanding officer and is responsible for written communications

ad–lib /ˈædˈlɪb/ verb -libs; -libbed; -lib•bing : to make up words or music in a performance instead of saying or playing something that has been planned : IMPROVISE [no obj] The actor forgot his lines, so he ad-libbed. ▪ a comedian who is admired for his ability to ad-lib [+ obj] The actor ad-libbed his lines. ▪ She ad-libbed the guitar solo. ▪ ad-lib a joke

– ad–lib noun, pl -libs [count] ▪ Some of the best jokes in the movie were ad-libs. – ad–lib adj ▪ an ad-lib joke – ad–lib adv ▪ did the whole dialogue ad-lib

ad•man /ˈædˌmæn/ noun, pl ad•men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] somewhat informal : a man who writes or sells advertisements ad•min /ˈædˌmɪn/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : ADMINISTRATION ▪ You'll have to go see the people in admin. ▪ She has a job in admin.

ad•min•is•ter /ədˈmɪnɪstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

1 [+ obj] : to manage the operation of (something, such as a company or government) or the use of (something, such as property) ▪ As a cost-saving measure, voters have elected to have the two towns administered jointly. ▪ The UN personnel are there to help administer the territory. ▪ She's been hired to administer the fund.

2 [+ obj] : to provide or apply (something, such as justice) : to put (something) into effect ▪ administer justice [=give fair rewards and punishments in legal disputes and for crimes] ▪ administer punishment

3 [+ obj] : to give or present (something) officially or as part of a ceremony ▪ The assistant will administer the test. ▪ administer an oath ▪ a priest to administer the sacraments

4 [+ obj] : to give (a drug, medicine, or treatment) to someone ▪ The doctor will administer the anesthesia before the surgery begins. ▪ The drug is administered by injection.

5 [no obj] : to give needed help or care to others — + to ▪ administer [=(more commonly) minister] to an ailing friend ▪ administer to the needs of the poor

ad•min•is•tra•tion /ədˌmɪnəˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a [noncount] : the activities that relate to running a company, school, or other organization ▪ He works in hospital administration. [=his work involves management of a hospital] ▪ She has a degree in business administration. b [count] : a group of people who manage the way a company, school, or other organization functions ▪ The editorial criticizes the college's administration for not taking a stand on the issue.

2 or Administration [count] a : a government or part of a government that is identified with its leader (such as a U.S. president or British prime minister) ▪ We studied U.S. foreign policy in/during the Reagan Administration. [=during the time when Reagan was President] ▪ the Thatcher administration ▪ Her lecture compared the policies of this administration to the previous one. ▪ Administration officials refused to comment. ▪ At first, the administration denied the allegations. b : a U.S. government department ▪ The drug has been approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

3 [noncount] : the act or process of providing or administering something ▪ the administration of justice ▪ oral administration of the drug ad•min•is•tra•tive /ədˈmɪnəˌstreɪtɪv/ adj : of or relating to the management of a company, school, or other organization ▪ She has an administrative job. ▪ administrative tasks/duties ▪ an administrative assistant

– ad•min•is•tra•tive•ly adv

ad•min•is•tra•tor /ədˈmɪnəˌstreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who administers something: such as a : a person whose job is to manage a company, school, or other organization ▪ a hospital administrator b : a person who controls the use of something (such as property or money) ▪ Her eldest son will act as the administrator of the estate.

ad•mi•ra•ble /ˈædmrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : deserving to be admired : very good ▪ The film does an admirable [=excellent] job of depicting life in the 1940s. ▪ Loyalty was her most admirable quality. ▪ Their motives were admirable.

– ad•mi•ra•bly /ˈædmrəbli/ adv ▪ He managed the crisis admirably.

ad•mi•ral /ˈædmrəl/ noun, pl -rals [count] : a high-ranking officer in the navy

Ad•mi•ral•ty /ˈædmrəlti/ noun

the Admiralty : a government department formerly in charge of the British Navy

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

ad•mi•ra•tion /ˌædməˈreɪʃən/ noun : a feeling of great respect and approval [noncount] She looked at them in admiration. ▪ I have/feel great admiration for her courage. ▪ We were filled with admiration for him. ▪ She earned/won the admiration of her coworkers. [singular] I have/feel a great admiration for her courage.

ad•mire /ədˈmajə/ verb -mires; -mired; -mir•ing [+ obj]
1 : to feel respect or approval for (someone or something) ▪ I admired the way he handled the crisis. = I admired how he handled the crisis. ▪ We all admire her courage. = We all admire her for her courage. = She is much admired for her courage.
2 : to look at (something or someone) with enjoyment ▪ We gazed out the window and admired the scenery.
– ad•mir•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an admirer of modern art ▪ a beautiful woman who has many admirers
– admiring adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She received many admiring glances as she walked into the room. – ad•mir•ing•ly /ədˈmaɪrɪŋli/ adv

ad•mis•si•ble /ədˈmɪsəbəl/ adj : able to be admitted or allowed; especially : able to be allowed or considered in a legal case ▪ admissible evidence ▪ The judge decided that the confession was admissible in court. — opposite INADMISSIBLE

ad•mis•sion /ədˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [noncount] : the act of admitting or allowing something ▪ the admission of evidence in a court of law
2 [count] : a statement or action by which someone admits a weakness, fault, etc. ▪ His statement was interpreted as an admission of failure/weakness. ▪ an admission of error/defeat ▪ her admission of guilt = her admission that she was guilty ▪ By his own admission, he is a terrible cook. [=he admits that he is a terrible cook]
3 a [noncount] : the right or permission to enter a place ▪ He tried to get into the theater but was refused admission. [=he was not allowed to enter] b [noncount] : the right or permission to join a club, group, etc. ▪ They opposed the admission of women into/to the club. ▪ She was unable to gain admission into/to the club. = She was denied admission into/to the club. c : the act or process of accepting a patient in a hospital for treatment [noncount] He died several hours after admission to the hospital. [=after being admitted to the hospital] ▪ Her injuries were serious enough to require hospital admission. ▪ The patient was unconscious on (his) admission to the hospital. [=when he was admitted to the hospital] [count] a large number of hospital admissions d : the act or process of accepting someone as a student at a school [noncount] The school's standards of admission are high. ▪ He submitted an application for admission to the school. [count] college/university admissions ▪ The school has a policy of open admissions. [=a policy of accepting all students who want to go to the school] — often used before another noun ▪ an admission(s) exam ▪ an admissions officer [=an official at a school who is in charge of admitting students]
4 : the cost of entering a theater, sports stadium, museum, etc. [noncount] Admission (to the museum) is free on Tuesdays. ▪ A movie will be shown in the auditorium tomorrow night. Admission: $5 for adults, $2 for children. ▪ The museum offers reduced admission for young children. ▪ Her performance by itself was worth the price of admission. [count] Reduced admissions are available for young children. — often used before another noun ▪ an admission fee/charge

ad•mit /ədˈmɪt/ verb -mits; -mit•ted; -mit•ting [+ obj]
1 : to say usually in an unwilling way that you accept or do not deny the truth or existence of (something) ▪ He admitted (to me) that he didn't know the answer. ▪ You know you're wrong. Why don't you admit it? [=why don't you say that you're wrong?] ▪ You know you're wrong! Admit it! ▪ He finally admitted his mistake. [=he stopped denying that he had made a mistake] ▪ I hate to admit it, but he's right. ▪ He admitted his guilt. = He admitted that he was guilty. = He admitted being guilty. ▪ I didn't think I'd like the movie, but I have to admit that it was good. = The movie was good, I have to admit (it). = The movie was good, I must admit. ▪ She has refused to admit defeat. [=to admit that she has been defeated] — see also ADMIT TO (below)
2 : to let in (someone or something): such as a : to allow (someone) to enter a place ▪ This ticket admits one person. ▪ He admitted them into his office. b : to allow (someone) to join a club, group, etc. ▪ They refused to admit her to/into the club. c : to accept (someone) as a patient in a hospital ▪ The patient was very sick when she was admitted to the hospital. ▪ He was admitted last night for chest pains. d law : to allow (something) to be considered as evidence in a legal case ▪ The judge decided to admit the evidence.
admit of [phrasal verb] admit of (something) formal : to allow or permit (something, such as an answer or solution) ▪ a question that admits of two possible answers admit to [phrasal verb] admit to (something) : to admit (something) : to acknowledge the truth or existence of (something) ▪ He reluctantly admitted to knowing her. [=he admitted knowing her] ▪ He admitted to his guilt. = He admitted to being guilty. — see also ADMIT 1 (above)
– admitted adj, always used before a noun ▪ He is an admitted liar. [=he has admitted that he lied] – ad•mit•ted•ly /ədˈmɪtədli/ adv ▪ The movie was a success. Admittedly, it cost much more than expected. [=I admit that it cost much more than expected] ad•mit•tance /ədˈmɪtns/ noun [noncount] formal : permission to enter a place or to become a member of a club, group, etc. : permission to be admitted : ADMISSION ▪ gain admittance ▪ He tried to enter the restaurant but was refused admittance. ▪ They opposed the admittance of women into the club. ▪ The sign said "No Admittance."

ad•mix•ture /ædˈmɪkstʃə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 technical : something added by mixing ▪ an alloy that includes a small admixture of silver
2 : something formed by mixing : MIXTURE — not used technically ▪ Her feelings about starting the business were an admixture of fear and excitement.

ad•mon•ish /ædˈmɑːnɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to speak to (someone) in a way that expresses disapproval or criticism — often + for ▪ His mother admonished him for shouting. ▪ We were admonished for arriving late.
2 : to tell or urge (someone) to do something ▪ She admonished [=urged] them to keep trying. ▪ They admonished [=encouraged] her to control her spending. ▪ They were admonished to take advantage of the opportunity.
– ad•mon•ish•ment /ædˈmɑːnɪʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ad•mo•ni•tion /ˌædməˈnɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : a criticism or warning about behavior [count] a stern admonition ▪ an admonition to be careful [noncount] He offered words of advice and admonition.

– ad•mon•i•to•ry /ədˈmɑːnəˌtʰori, Brit ədˈmɒnətri/ adj ▪ admonitory remarks ad nau•se•am /ædˈnɑːzijəm/ adv — used to say that something happens or is done so many times or for such a long time that it makes people annoyed, disgusted, etc. ▪ We debated the issue ad nauseam without reaching an agreement. ✧ Ad nauseam is a Latin phrase that means "to sickness."

ado /əˈduː/ noun [noncount] : foolish or unnecessary talk, trouble, or activity — often used with much ▪ There has been much ado about the need for campaign reform. ▪ The controversy turned out to be much ado about nothing.
without further ado : without waiting any longer : right away ▪ Without further ado, I'd like to introduce our speaker.

ado•be /əˈdoʊbi/ noun [noncount] : a type of brick made of a mixture of mud and straw that is dried by the sun ▪ The house was built of adobe. — often used before another noun ▪ adobe bricks/walls/houses

ad•o•les•cence /ˌædəˈlɛsns/ noun [noncount] : the period of life when a child develops into an adult ▪ Their children are on the verge of adolescence. ▪ He struggled through his adolescence. ▪ in early/late adolescence

ad•o•les•cent /ˌædəˈlɛsnt/ noun, pl -cents [count] : a young person who is developing into an adult : a young person who is going through adolescence ▪ Their children are now adolescents. ▪ a troubled adolescent – adolescent adj ▪ an adolescent boy/girl adopt /əˈdɑːpt/ verb adopts; adopt•ed; adopt•ing

1 : to take a child of other parents legally as your own child [no obj] They were unable to have children of their own, so they decided to adopt. [+ obj] They decided to adopt a child. ▪ He was adopted as an infant.
2 [+ obj] a : to begin to use or have (a different manner, method, etc.) ▪ Their boss has recently adopted a friendlier manner. [=has started behaving in a friendlier way] ▪ Did he adopt your point of view? ▪ We adopted some of the local customs. b : to begin to use (a name that is not your real or original name) ▪ The author Samuel Clemens adopted the name "Mark Twain." c : to live in (a country that is not your original country) and regard it as your home ▪ He was born in England but he has adopted Canada as his home.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

3 [+ obj] : to accept or approve (something, such as a proposal) in a formal or official way ▪ The assembly adopted a new constitution. ▪ The resolution was unanimously adopted by the Senate.
4 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to select (someone) officially as a candidate ▪ The party adopted [=selected, chose] her as its candidate for mayor.
– adopted adj ▪ an adopted child [=a child who has been adopted] ▪ She is their adopted daughter. ▪ "Mark Twain" was the adopted name of Samuel Clemens. ▪ Canada is his adopted country.

adop•tion /əˈdɑːpʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act or process of adopting someone or something: such as a : the act or process of adopting a child [noncount] They chose adoption because they couldn't have children of their own. ▪ children who are available for adoption ▪ an adoption agency ▪ She decided to put/give the baby up for adoption. [=to make it possible for other people to adopt the baby] [count] Our lawyer has handled many adoptions. b [noncount] : the act or process of beginning to use something new or different ▪ our adoption of local customs ▪ the company's adoption of new technology c [noncount] : the act or process of giving official acceptance or approval to something ▪ the unanimous adoption of the resolution by the Senate adop•tive /əˈdɑːptɪv/ adj, always used before a noun — used to describe a parent who has adopted a child ▪ She is their adopted daughter, which makes them her adoptive parents. [=the parents who adopted her] ador•able /əˈdorəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very appealing or attractive : very lovable ▪ He is an adorable [=delightful] child. ▪ They live in an adorable little cottage.

– ador•ably /əˈdorəbli/ adv ▪ an adorably cute child ad•o•ra•tion /ˌædəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : strong feelings of love or admiration ▪ They looked at the baby in/with adoration. ▪ The doctor has earned the adoration of his patients.

adore /əˈdoə/ verb adores; adored; ador•ing [+ obj]
1 : to love or admire (someone) very much ▪ She adores her son. ▪ He's a good doctor. All his patients adore him.
2 : to like or desire (something) very much : to take great pleasure in (something) ▪ He adores [=loves] chocolate. ▪ They adored shopping in all the boutiques.
– adoring adj ▪ a star athlete and his adoring fans [=his fans who adore him]

adorn /əˈdoən/ verb adorns; adorned; adorn•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to make (someone or something) more attractive by adding something beautiful : DECORATE ▪ Her paintings adorn the walls. — often + with ▪ They adorned themselves with jewelry. ▪ She wore a dress adorned with lace and silk flowers. ▪ The walls are adorned with her paintings.

adorn•ment /əˈdoənmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the act or process of making someone or something attractive by decorating : the act or process of adorning someone or something ▪ the adornment of the walls with her paintings
2 : something added to make a person or thing more attractive [count] Her room doesn't have any unnecessary adornments. [noncount] The entrance to the building has little adornment.

adren•a•line or chiefly Brit adren•a•lin /əˈdrɛnələn/ noun [noncount] : a substance that is released in the body of a person who is feeling a strong emotion (such as excitement, fear, or anger) and that causes the heart to beat faster and gives the person more energy ▪ It was a thrilling experience that really got our adrenaline going. [=got us very excited] ✧ If you experience a rush of adrenaline or an adrenaline rush, you feel very excited and full of energy. ▪ I felt a rush of adrenaline as I walked onto the stage.

adrift /əˈdrɪft/ adj
1 of a boat : floating on the water without being tied to anything or controlled by anyone ▪ We could see a ship adrift [=drifting] in the storm. ▪ The canoe was set/cast adrift from its moorings.
2 : without guidance, purpose, or support ▪ She was alone and adrift in the city. ▪ Many workers were cast adrift by massive layoffs.
3 Brit : behind by a specified amount in a race, competition, etc. ▪ He was eight points adrift (of the leader).
come adrift chiefly Brit : to become loose or unattached ▪ One of the straps on her dress came adrift.

adroit /əˈdrɔɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very clever or skillful ▪ an adroit negotiator ▪ She is adroit at handling problems.
– adroit•ly adv ▪ She managed the situation adroitly.
– adroit•ness noun [noncount]

ad•u•la•tion /ˌæʤəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : extreme admiration or praise ▪ The rugby player enjoyed the adulation of his fans. ▪ a writer who inspires adulation in her readers

[1]adult /əˈdʌlt, ˈæˌdʌlt/ noun, pl adults [count] : a fully grown person or animal ▪ Her books appeal both to children and to adults. ▪ Children must be accompanied by an adult in the museum. ▪ Only adults can purchase alcohol. ▪ This film is for adults only. Minors are not admitted. ▪ People who are close friends as children aren't always friends as adults. ▪ studying interactions between young birds and adults

[2]adult adj, always used before a noun except in sense 2
1 : fully grown and developed ▪ an adult student/learner ▪ adult birds ▪ I've worked here all of my adult life. [=I've worked here since I became an adult] ▪ preparing children for adult life
2 [more ~; most ~] : mature and sensible : not childish ▪ We need to approach this in an adult way. ▪ an adult decision/choice/responsibility
3 : of or intended for adults ▪ adult literacy ▪ adult learning
4 : dealing with sexual material ▪ adult bookstores/movies – adult•hood /əˈdʌltˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods [noncount] preparing children for adulthood [count] preparing children for their adulthoods adult education noun [noncount] : a course of study for adults : CONTINUING EDUCATION ▪ The university offers a popular program of adult education.

adul•ter•ate /əˈdʌltəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a food or drink) impure or weaker by adding something of poor quality ▪ The company is accused of adulterating its products with cheap additives.
– adulterated adj ▪ adulterated food – adul•ter•a•tion /əˌdʌltəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

adul•ter•er /əˈdʌltərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a married person who has sex with someone who is not that person's wife or husband : a person who commits adultery

adulter•ess /əˈdʌltərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a married woman who has sex with a man who is not her husband : a woman who commits adultery adul•tery /əˈdʌltəri/ noun [noncount] : sex between a married person and someone who is not that person's wife or husband ▪ He found out that his wife had committed adultery. ▪ She accused her husband of adultery.

– adul•ter•ous /əˈdʌltərəs/ adj ▪ an adulterous affair/relationship – adul•ter•ous•ly adv

adv abbr adverb

[1]ad•vance /ədˈvæns, Brit ədˈvɑːns/ verb -vanc•es; -vanced; -vanc•ing
1 a [no obj] : to move forward ▪ The car advanced slowly down the street. ▪ The sun slowly advanced across the sky. ▪ She opened the door and advanced cautiously into the room. ▪ Enemy soldiers are advancing on the city. [=they are approaching the city in order to attack it] b [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) forward ▪ advance the hands of a clock ▪ advance a pawn [=move a pawn forward in a game of chess] ▪ The film is advanced by an electric motor. ▪ The team advanced the ball steadily down the field.
2 [no obj] : to go forward : to make progress ▪ Our understanding of this disease has advanced rapidly in recent years. ▪ The team did not advance beyond the first round of the play-offs. ▪ The company tries to keep up with advancing technology. : to continue in a process of development, aging, etc. ▪ As he advanced in age and stature he advanced in knowledge. ▪ Their children are advancing toward maturity.
3 : to increase in amount or rate [+ obj] These measures are intended to keep landlords from advancing [=raising] rents unfairly. [no obj] Wages have continued to advance. ▪ Some stock prices have advanced while others have declined. ▪ Loss of memory is often a sign of advancing age.
4 [+ obj] a : to help the progress of (something) ▪ heroes whose sacrifices advanced the cause of freedom ▪ Volunteers have been raising money to advance the work of the society. ▪ They used propaganda to advance their cause. ▪ He was advancing his own interests at the expense of his friend's. : to cause or help (something) to go forward or continue ▪ advance a plot b : to make (something) higher or better : to cause improvement to (something) ▪ The success of this novel will help to advance [=enhance] his reputation/status.
5 a [+ obj] : to raise (someone) to a higher rank or position ▪ He was advanced [=promoted] from clerk to assistant manager. b [no obj] : to rise to a higher rank or position ▪ The family has advanced to a position of influence in the community. ▪ He advanced quickly through the ranks. ▪ She has continued to advance steadily in her career.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

6 [+ obj] : to give money to someone as a loan or before the usual time ▪ advance a loan to someone = advance someone a loan ▪ advance an employee a week's pay ▪ His publisher advanced him $100,000 on/for his new book.

7 [+ obj] : to suggest or propose (something) for consideration or acceptance ▪ advance a new plan/theory ▪ advance an argument ▪ Many theories were advanced and rejected.

8 [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to occur more quickly ▪ a chemical used to advance the ripening of fruit b : to make (something) earlier ▪ advance the date of the meeting

– ad•vanc•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ There were more advancers [=stocks that increased in value] than decliners in the stock market yesterday.

[2]advance noun, pl -vances

1 : forward movement [noncount] trying to halt the enemy's advance [count] trying to halt the enemy's advances

2 : progress in the development or improvement of something [count] recent advances in medicine ▪ a big/dramatic/huge/major/significant advance in technology ▪ The new system represents a considerable advance over the old one. ▪ There have been few advances made in the treatment of this disease. [noncount] There has been little advance made in the treatment of this disease. ▪ policies that are important for economic advance [=advancement]

3 [count] : a rise in price, value, or amount ▪ The workers won wage advances. ▪ a yearlong advance in stock prices

4 [count] : the act of speaking to someone in an effort to start a sexual relationship — usually plural ▪ Her unfriendly look discourages advances. ▪ She rebuffed/rejected his advances. ▪ He is accused of making unwelcome sexual advances to female coworkers.

5 [count] : money given to someone as a loan or before the usual time of payment ▪ I need an advance on my salary. ▪ He was given a $100,000 advance on/for his new book. ▪ a cash advance in advance : before something happens ▪ He knew about the change two weeks in advance. [=two weeks before the change occurred] ▪ There was no way to know in advance [=ahead of time] that these problems would occur. : before a future event or time ▪ We made reservations in advance. ▪ You should call in advance to make an appointment. ▪ Thank you in advance for your help. — often + of ▪ They began to make preparations several days in advance of [=before, ahead of] her arrival.

[3]advance adj, always used before a noun

1 : made, sent, or provided at an early time ▪ an advance payment ▪ an advance warning ▪ an advance copy of a new book

2 : going or placed before others ▪ an advance guard ▪ an advance scout ▪ (US) an advance man/woman/team [=a man, woman, or group whose job is to go to a place and make preparations for someone (such as a politician or an entertainer) who is coming to visit that place at a later time]

ad•vanced /ədˈvænst, Brit ədˈvɑːnst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : beyond the basic level ▪ advanced mathematics ▪ She's taking an advanced course in English. = She's taking a course in advanced English. ▪ The school has courses for elementary, intermediate, and advanced students. ▪ The book explains both basic and advanced techniques. ▪ The job requires someone with an advanced degree. [=a degree (such as a master's degree or a PhD) that is higher than a bachelor's degree]

2 : far along in a course of progress or development: such as a : having developed more than others ▪ a highly advanced civilization [=a modern civilization] ▪ an advanced society b : having or using new and modern methods ▪ advanced technology ▪ technologically advanced weapons ▪ The system has many advanced features. c : having reached a bad state or condition ▪ The house was in an advanced state of disrepair. [=the house was in very poor condition] ▪ The disease is in an advanced stage. ▪ an advanced form of cancer d : far along in a process of aging ▪ She began painting at an advanced age. [=she began painting when she was old] ▪ He is rather advanced in age/years. [=rather old] ▪ a man/woman of advanced age/years [=an old man/woman]

Advanced level noun, pl ~ levels [count] Brit : A LEVEL

ad•vance•ment /ədˈvænsmənt, Brit ədˈvɑːnsmənt/ noun, pl -ments : the act of advancing: such as a : the act of moving forward [noncount] They have been unable to slow the advancement [=advance] of the enemy troops. ▪ A motor inside the camera is used for advancement of the film. [count] troop advancements [=(more commonly) advances] b : the act or result of making something better, more successful, etc. [noncount] She contributed greatly to the advancement of the new organization. ▪ working for the advancement of learning/science/truth ▪ The program supports economic advancement in rural areas. [count] There have been many recent advancements [=advances, improvements] in this technology. ▪ This new method is a great advancement over past techniques. c : the act of being raised to a higher rank or position [noncount] The job offers many opportunities for professional advancement. ▪ His advancement [=promotion] to captain came last year. ▪ He is being considered for advancement. ▪ career advancement ▪ social advancement [count] a series of rapid career advancements

ad•van•tage /ədˈvæntɪʤ, Brit ədˈvɑːntɪʤ/ noun, pl -tag•es

1 [count] a : something (such as a good position or condition) that helps to make someone or something better or more likely to succeed than others ▪ Higher ground gave the enemy the/an advantage. ▪ He has/enjoys an unfair advantage over us because of his wealth. ▪ His plan has the advantage of being less expensive than other options. ▪ He lacked the advantages of an advanced education. ▪ Speed is an advantage in most sports. ▪ The company's only advantage over the competition is its location. ▪ Applicants for this job will find that previous experience is an advantage. ▪ The union should be at an advantage [=should have an advantage] in the negotiations. b : a good or desirable quality or feature ▪ Being able to set your own schedule is one of the advantages of owning a business. ▪ Among the advantages of a small college is its campus life. — opposite DISADVANTAGE

2 [noncount] : benefit or gain ▪ There isn't any advantage in/to leaving early. ▪ She used her position for personal advantage. [=for personal gain; to help herself] ▪ The error was to our advantage. [=we were helped by the error] — opposite DISADVANTAGE ✧ If you turn/use something to your advantage or to good advantage, you use something in a way that is helpful to you. ▪ Is there a way to turn this situation to our advantage? [=is there a way to exploit this situation?; is there a way to take advantage of this situation?]

3 [noncount] tennis : the first point won after the score is tied at 40–40 — used to announce the person who has won the point ▪ Advantage Mr. Jones.

take advantage of 1 : to use (something, such as an opportunity) in a way that helps you : to make good use of (something) ▪ We took advantage of the warm weather and did some yard work. ▪ They are taking advantage of an opportunity to travel. ▪ You should take (full) advantage of this opportunity while you can. 2 a : to ask for or expect more than is fair or reasonable from (someone) : to treat (someone who is generous or helpful) unfairly ▪ After a while, I began to think she was taking advantage of me. b : to use (something) unfairly for personal gain ▪ He took advantage of [=exploited] my lack of knowledge. ▪ She took advantage of our generosity.

to advantage : in an attractive and appealing way ▪ The display shows off the collection to (good/best) advantage.

ad•van•taged /ədˈvæntɪʤd, Brit ədˈvɑːntɪʤd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or providing the things (such as money and education) that are considered necessary for a good position in society : having or providing advantages over other people : PRIVILEGED ▪ advantaged children ▪ He comes from an advantaged community/background. ▪ an advantaged position

ad•van•ta•geous /ˌædˌvænˈteɪʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : helpful or favorable : giving an advantage to someone ▪ He found it advantageous [=beneficial] to arrive early. ▪ These changes will be advantageous to you. [=will help you] ▪ Her experience placed her in an advantageous position to apply for the job. — opposite DISADVANTAGEOUS

– ad•van•ta•geous•ly adv ▪ Where can we invest the money most advantageously?

ad•vent /ˈædˌvɛnt/ noun

1 [singular] : the time when something begins or arrives : the first appearance of something ▪ the advent of spring ▪ the advent of the printing press ▪ the advent of personal computers

2 Advent [noncount] in the Christian religion : the period of time beginning four Sundays before Christmas ▪ Our church is holding some special services during Advent.

ad•ven•ture /ədˈvɛnʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures

1 [count] : an exciting or dangerous experience ▪ The field trip was an adventure for the students. ▪ He told us about his

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

camping adventures. — often used before another noun ▪ an adventure story/novel

2 [noncount] : danger or excitement ▪ He has a strong spirit/sense of adventure. [=he enjoys doing dangerous and exciting things] ▪ They were looking for adventure.

adventure playground noun, pl ~ -grounds [count] Brit : an outdoor area that has objects on which children can climb and play

ad•ven•tur•er /ədˈvɛntʃərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who likes dangerous or exciting experiences : a person who looks for adventures

2 somewhat old-fashioned : a person who tries to become wealthy or powerful by doing things that are illegal or dishonest ▪ corporate adventurers

ad•ven•ture•some /ədˈvɛntʃəsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US : liking to do dangerous and exciting things : seeking adventure ▪ an adventuresome [=adventurous] explorer

ad•ven•tur•ism /ədˈvɛntʃəˌrɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving : an attitude or way of behaving that involves attempting to gain an advantage by doing things that are regarded as foolish or risky ▪ military adventurism

– ad•ven•tur•ist /ədˈvɛntʃərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

ad•ven•tur•ous /ədˈvɛntʃərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : not afraid to do new and dangerous or exciting things ▪ The island attracts adventurous travelers. ▪ He is an adventurous cook who is always trying new recipes. b : exciting or unusual ▪ Her design is an adventurous departure from what we usually see. ▪ The restaurant offers an adventurous [=innovative] menu.

2 : full of danger and excitement ▪ They have an adventurous lifestyle. ▪ an adventurous trip/vacation ad•verb /ˈædˌvəb/ noun, pl -verbs [count] : a word that describes a verb, an adjective, another adverb, or a sentence and that is often used to show time, manner, place, or degree ▪ In "arrived early," "runs slowly," "stayed home," and "works hard" the words "early," "slowly," "home," and "hard" are adverbs.

– ad•ver•bi•al /ædˈvəbijəl/ adj ▪ an adverbial phrase ▪ In some sentences the word "likely" is adverbial rather than adjectival. ▪ the adverbial suffix "-ly" – ad•ver•bi•ally adv

ad•ver•sar•i•al /ˌædvəˈserijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : involving two people or two sides who oppose each other ▪ The two men have always had an adversarial relationship. [=they have always opposed each other; they have always treated each other as adversaries] ▪ an adversarial system of justice with prosecution and defense opposing each other ad•ver•sary /ˈædvəˌseri, Brit ˈædvəsri/ noun, pl -sar•ies [count] formal : an enemy or opponent ▪ His political adversaries tried to prevent him from winning the nomination.

ad•verse /ædˈvəs, ˈædˌvəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : bad or unfavorable : not good ▪ adverse criticism/remarks ▪ He had an adverse reaction to the medicine. [=he reacted badly to the medicine; the medicine had a bad effect on him] ▪ Many fear that budget cuts will have an adverse [=damaging] effect on education. ▪ adverse circumstances/conditions/weather ▪ The drug has no adverse [=harmful] side effects.

– ad•verse•ly adv ▪ Sales were adversely affected by the bad weather. ▪ Staff changes could affect the project adversely.

ad•ver•si•ty /ædˈvəsəti/ noun, pl -ties : a difficult situation or condition : misfortune or tragedy [noncount] He showed courage in the face of adversity. ▪ We had to learn to deal with adversity. [count] They overcame many adversities.

ad•vert /ˈædˌvət/ noun, pl -verts [count] Brit, informal : ADVERTISEMENT ▪ I saw your advert in the newspaper.

ad•ver•tise /ˈædvəˌtaɪz/ verb -tis•es; -tised; -tis•ing

1 : to make the public aware of something (such as a product) that is being sold [+ obj] They are advertising the new edition of the book. ▪ The vacation was advertised as a week in paradise. ▪ It turned out to be exactly as advertised. [no obj] Business increased after we began to advertise on the radio. ▪ If you want to attract customers, it pays to advertise.

2 : to make a public announcement (in a newspaper, on the Internet, etc.) about something that is wanted or available [no obj] The company is advertising for a secretary. [+ obj] We advertised the job in the paper.

3 [+ obj] : to cause people to notice (something) ▪ You don't have to advertise [=draw attention to] the fact that we arrived late. ▪ She advertised her presence by wearing a skimpy dress.

– ad•ver•tis•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ television advertisers [=companies that advertise on television]

ad•ver•tise•ment /ˌædvəˈtaɪzmənt, Brit ədˈvə:təsmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : something (such as a short film or a written notice) that is shown or presented to the public to help sell a product or to make an announcement ▪ The advertisement will appear in three magazines. ▪ He learned about the job from an advertisement in the newspaper. ▪ a television/radio advertisement — often + for ▪ I saw an advertisement for a new car on TV last night. — called also ad, (Brit) advert

2 [count] : a person or thing that shows how good or effective something is — + for ▪ The rusted car on the lot was not much of an advertisement for the car dealership. ▪ Successful graduates are a good advertisement for a school.

3 [noncount] : the act or process of advertising ▪ The company has spent a lot of money on advertisement.

ad•ver•tis•ing /ˈædvəˌtaɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : published or broadcast advertisements ▪ There is a lot of advertising in that magazine.

2 : the business of creating advertisements ▪ He is looking for a job in advertising. ▪ She works for an advertising agency [=(chiefly US) ad agency] in New York.

ad•vice /ədˈvaɪs/ noun [noncount] : an opinion or suggestion about what someone should do ▪ My advice is to sell your old car and get a new one. ▪ Take my advice and sell your old car. ▪ He needs advice from an expert. ▪ She's been giving him some expert advice about investing. ▪ "May I ask your advice about/on something?" "Certainly. I'm always happy to give advice when asked for it." ▪ Let me offer you a bit/piece/word of advice. = Let me offer you some advice. ▪ I took/followed my doctor's advice and lost some weight. = I lost some weight on the advice of my doctor.

advice column noun, pl ~ -umns [count] US : an article in a newspaper or magazine that offers advice to people who write to ask for help with a problem — called also (Brit) agony column

– advice columnist noun, pl ~ -nists [count]

ad•vis•able /ədˈvaɪzəbəł/ adj [more ~; most ~] : wise, sensible, or reasonable ▪ The restaurant is very popular so it is advisable to make reservations if you go. [=it's a good idea to make reservations] ▪ My doctor said it was advisable for me to lose weight. — opposite INADVISABLE

– ad•vis•abil•i•ty /ədˌvaɪzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ I question the advisability of going into the park alone at night.

ad•vise /ədˈvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing

1 a : to give an opinion or suggestion to someone about what should be done : to give advice to (someone) [+ obj] I strongly advise you to sell your old car. ▪ We advised them to save their money. ▪ My doctor advised me to lose some weight. ▪ She advises the President on foreign affairs. ▪ Our lawyer advised us against buying that house. [=she told us that we shouldn't buy that house] [no obj] We were thinking of buying that house, but our lawyer advised against it. b [+ obj] : to recommend or suggest (something) ▪ I advise selling your old car. ▪ We were thinking of buying that house, but our lawyer advised caution. [=said that we should be cautious] ▪ He advises patience/restraint when dealing with children. — see also ILL-ADVISED, WELL-ADVISED

2 [+ obj] formal : to give information to (someone) ▪ The police advised them of their rights. [=the police told them what their legal rights were] ▪ She says she was never advised [=informed, told] about the new procedures. ▪ We advised [=apprised] them of the danger. ▪ The boss asked us to keep him advised about/on how the project is going.

– ad•vis•er also ad•vi•sor /ədˈvaɪzə/ noun, pl -visers also -visors [count] ▪ a financial/legal/medical adviser ▪ She's an adviser to the President on foreign affairs.

ad•vis•ed•ly /ədˈvaɪzədli/ adv, formal : in a deliberate way ▪ They have misled us—and I use the word "misled" advisedly.

ad•vise•ment /ədˈvaɪzmənt/ noun

take (something) under advisement US, formal : to consider (something) carefully ▪ Thank you for your suggestion. We'll take the matter under advisement.

[1]ad•vi•so•ry /ədˈvaɪzəri/ adj : having the power or right to make suggestions about what should be done : able to give advice ▪ He attended a meeting of the advisory committee/board/panel. ▪ She is acting in an advisory role/capacity in the administration.

[2]advisory noun, pl -ries [count] US : a report that gives information or a warning about something ▪ We heard a weather advisory saying that heavy rains are expected tonight. ▪ a traffic advisory ad•vo•ca•cy /ˈædvəkəsi/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of supporting a cause or proposal : the act or process of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

advocating something ▪ She is known for her advocacy of birth control. [=she is known for advocating/supporting birth control]

[1]ad•vo•cate /ˈædvəkət/ noun, pl -cates [count]
1 a : a person who argues for or supports a cause or policy ▪ a birth control advocate = an advocate of birth control [=a person who advocates birth control] ▪ a passionate/impassioned advocate of civil rights b US : a person who works for a cause or group ▪ a women's health advocate = an advocate for women's health ▪ She works as a consumer advocate.
2 : a person who argues for the cause of another person in a court of law : LAWYER

[2]ad•vo•cate /ˈædvəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to support or argue for (a cause, policy, etc.) ▪ He advocates traditional teaching methods. ▪ They advocate abolishing the income tax. = They advocate that the income tax should be abolished. ▪ The plan is advocated by the president.

adze also adz /ˈædz/ noun, pl adz•es [count] : a cutting tool that has a thin curved blade and that is usually used for shaping wood ae•gis /ˈiːʤəs/ noun [singular] formal : the power to protect, control, or support something or someone — used in the phrase under the aegis of ▪ Their rights are protected under the aegis [=authority] of the law. ▪ The issue will be decided under the aegis of an international organization.

ae•on chiefly Brit spelling of EON

aer•ate /ˈeəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to put air or a gas into (something, such as soil or a liquid) ▪ You should aerate the soil before planting the seeds.
– aer•a•tion /ˌeəˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the aeration of soil

[1]ae•ri•al /ˈerijəl/ adj
1 : performed in the air ▪ the spectacular aerial acrobatics of the circus performers
2 : performed using an airplane ▪ aerial combat ▪ an aerial attack ▪ aerial photography : taken or seen from an airplane ▪ aerial photographs ▪ an aerial view

[2]aerial noun, pl -als [count]
1 chiefly Brit : ANTENNA 2 ▪ a broken radio aerial
2 : a difficult movement of the body performed by an athlete (such as a skier) in the air ▪ She tried a new aerial in her last competition.

ae•rie (US) or chiefly Brit ey•rie /ˈeri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : the nest of a bird (such as an eagle or hawk) built high up on a cliff or on the top of a mountain
2 : a room or building built high up so that people inside can see things happening below them aero- also aer- combining form

1 : air ▪ *aero*bic ▪ *aero*dynamics ▪ *aer*ate
2 : gas ▪ *aero*sol
3 : dealing with airplanes or flying ▪ *aero*nautics

aer•o•bat•ics /ˌerəˈbætɪks/ noun [plural] : difficult and exciting movements of an airplane often performed for entertainment ▪ loops, spins, and other aerobatics
– aer•o•bat•ic /ˌerəˈbætɪk/ adj ▪ aerobatic maneuvers

aer•o•bic /ˌeəˈoʊbɪk/ adj
1 of exercise : strengthening the heart and lungs by making them work hard for several minutes or more ▪ aerobic exercises like running and swimming ▪ an aerobic workout
2 technical : using oxygen ▪ aerobic organisms such as bacteria — opposite ANAEROBIC

aer•o•bics /ˌeəˈoʊbɪks/ noun [noncount] : a system of exercises often done by a group of people while music is playing : a system of aerobic exercises ▪ an instructor teaching aerobics — often used before another noun ▪ an aerobics class; also [plural] : aerobic exercises ▪ She does aerobics three days a week.

aero•dy•nam•ics /ˌeroʊdaɪˈnæmɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] : a science that studies the movement of air and the way that objects (such as airplanes or cars) move through air ▪ She has a degree in aerodynamics.
2 [plural] : the qualities of an object that affect how easily it is able to move through the air ▪ Its improved aerodynamics give the car more speed and better gas mileage.
– aero•dy•nam•ic /ˌeroʊdaɪˈnæmɪk/ adj ▪ the airplane's aerodynamic shape/design – aero•dy•nam•ic•al•ly /ˌeroʊdaɪˈnæmɪkli/ adv

aero•nau•tics /ˌerəˈnɑːtɪks/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with airplanes and flying ▪ the history of aeronautics
– aero•nau•ti•cal /ˌerəˈnɑːtɪkəl/ adj ▪ an aeronautical engineer [=a scientist who designs and builds airplanes]

aero•plane /ˈerəˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] Brit : AIRPLANE

aero•sol /ˈerəˌsɑːl/ noun, pl -sols : a substance (such as hair spray or medicine) that is kept in a container under pressure and that is released as a fine spray when a button is pressed [count] chemicals used in aerosols [noncount] a can of aerosol — often used before another noun ▪ an aerosol container/can/spray aero•space /ˈeroʊˌspeɪs/ noun [noncount] : an industry that deals with travel in and above the Earth's atmosphere and with the production of vehicles used in such travel ▪ a career in aerospace — often used before another noun ▪ The airplane was designed using the latest in aerospace technology. ▪ aerospace companies ▪ the aerospace industry aes•thete also US es•thete /ˈɛsˌθiːt, Brit ˈiːsˌθiːt/ noun, pl -thetes [count] formal + sometimes disapproving : a person who recognizes and values beauty in art, music, etc. ▪ He regards art critics as a bunch of pretentious aesthetes.

[1]aes•thet•ic also US es•thet•ic /ɛsˈθɛtɪk, Brit iːsˈθɛtɪk/ adj : of or relating to art or beauty ▪ There are practical as well as aesthetic reasons for planting trees. ▪ the statue's aesthetic [=artistic] beauty ▪ making aesthetic improvements to the building ▪ aesthetic values/ideals – aes•thet•i•cal•ly also US es•thet•i•cal•ly /ɛsˈθɛtɪkli, Brit iːsˈθɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ the garden's aesthetically pleasing design

[2]aes•thet•ic also US es•thet•ic noun, pl -ics
1 [count] : a set of ideas or opinions about beauty or art — usually singular ▪ The design of the building reflects a modern/traditional/old-fashioned aesthetic.
2 aesthetics a [noncount] : the study of beauty especially in art and literature ▪ Aesthetics is an important part of Greek philosophy. b [plural] : the artistic or beautiful qualities of something ▪ the aesthetics of the gemstones – aes•thet•i•cism also US es•thet•i•cism /ɛsˈθɛtəˌsɪzəm, Brit iːsˈθɛtəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ the aestheticism of the region

afar /əˈfɑə/ adv
from afar : from a great distance ▪ Their fans come from afar [=from far away] to watch them play. ▪ the Earth as it is seen/viewed from afar ▪ He loved/worshipped/admired her from afar. [=without telling her]

AFC abbr, US American Football Conference ✧ The AFC and the NFC make up the NFL.

af•fa•ble /ˈæfəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : friendly and easy to talk to ▪ a lively, affable young fellow ▪ an affable host – af•fa•bil•i•ty /ˌæfəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – af•fa•bly /ˈæfəbli/ adv ▪ We were greeted affably by our host.

af•fair /əˈfeə/ noun, pl -fairs
1 affairs [plural] : work or activities done for a purpose : commercial, professional, public, or personal business ▪ The group conducts its affairs [=business] in private. ▪ We were told to arrange/settle our affairs. = We were told to put our affairs in order. ▪ handling/managing someone else's affairs ▪ They seem to be quite pleased with the current/present state of affairs. [=situation] ▪ She's the company's director of public affairs. [=the person who manages a company's relationship with the public] ▪ She's an expert in foreign affairs. [=events and activities that involve foreign countries] ▪ world/international affairs [=events and activities that involve different nations] ▪ After the war, the government focused on its own domestic affairs. ▪ They accused the U.S. of interfering in the internal affairs of other nations.
2 [count] : a matter that concerns or involves someone ▪ This has nothing to do with you. It's not your affair. [=business, concern] = It's none of your affair. [=business] ▪ How I choose to live is my affair, not yours.
3 [count] : a secret sexual relationship between two people : LOVE AFFAIR ▪ adulterous/extramarital affairs between married men and single women — often used in the phrase have an affair ▪ She divorced her husband after she discovered that he was having an affair. — often + with ▪ She had an affair with a coworker.
4 [count] a : a social event or activity ▪ He wants to make their wedding day an affair to remember. [=a special event] ▪ a simple/elaborate affair ▪ We were invited to a black-tie affair [=a party in which men wear tuxedos and women wear fancy dresses] at the governor's mansion. b : an event or series of events that usually involves well-known people ▪ the famous hostage affair of the late 1970s ▪ The public has shown little interest in the whole affair. — often used with

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a proper names ▪ the Iran-Contra affair [=scandal]

5 [count] informal : something made or produced : an object or thing ▪ The only bridge across the river was a flimsy affair of ropes and rotten wood.

af•fect /əˈfɛkt/ verb -fects; -fect•ed; -fect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to produce an effect on (someone or something): such as a : to act on (someone or something) and cause a change ▪ His decisions could affect [=influence] the lives of millions of people. ▪ The accident will affect [=influence] the value of the car. ▪ We learned about the way the oceans are affected by the moon. ▪ This medication may affect your ability to drive a car. [=this medicine may make it dangerous for you to drive a car] ▪ This new evidence will affect the outcome of the trial. ▪ The news could adversely affect [=could hurt] her chances of becoming the next president. ▪ We kept the change from affecting [=harming] our friendship. ▪ The incident really affected my opinion of him. b : to cause strong emotions in (someone) ▪ The criticism affected [=bothered, upset] her deeply/greatly. ▪ The entire town was affected by their deaths. [=everyone in the town felt sad about their deaths] ▪ We were all greatly affected by the terrible news. [=we were all very upset by the terrible news] c : to cause a change in (a part of the body) ▪ Paralysis affected his limbs. = His limbs were affected by/with paralysis. [=his limbs were paralyzed] ▪ The disease can affect your muscles. ▪ drugs that affect the nervous/immune system d : to cause illness in (someone) ▪ The condition affects about five million adults each year. ▪ a serious disease primarily/mainly affecting women over the age of 40 ▪ Only men appear to be affected by the disease.

usage Do not confuse the verbs affect and effect. Affect means to act on or change someone or something. ▪ Rain affected [=influenced] their performance. Effect means to cause something to happen. ▪ The new president effected [=made, caused] many changes to/in the company's policies. Note that the verb affect and the noun effect are used in contexts that are similar. ▪ The weather affected our plans. = The weather had an effect on our plans. [=the weather caused us to change our plans]

2 formal : to pretend that a false behavior or feeling is natural or genuine ▪ She affected indifference [=she pretended that she did not care], though she was deeply hurt. ▪ He affected (a look of) surprise. [=he pretended to be surprised] ▪ She affects [=feigns] a warm friendly manner. ▪ He affected [=faked] a French accent.

af•fec•ta•tion /ˌæˌfɛkˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : an unnatural form of behavior that is meant to impress others [count] His French accent is just an affectation. [noncount] speaking without affectation

af•fect•ed /əˈfɛktəd/ adj : not natural or genuine ▪ an affected [=fake, phony] French accent
– af•fect•ed•ly adv

af•fect•ing /əˈfɛktɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a feeling of sadness or sympathy ▪ He begins his book with an affecting description of his difficult childhood. ▪ a powerful, affecting [=moving, touching] performance
– af•fect•ing•ly adv ▪ He described her death affectingly.

af•fec•tion /əˈfɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a feeling of liking and caring for someone or something [noncount] She has/feels deep affection for her parents. ▪ Their affection for each other is obvious. = Their mutual affection is obvious. ▪ He shows great affection for his grandchildren. ▪ feelings of love and affection ▪ He now looks back on those years with great affection. ▪ "darling" and other terms of affection [=words and names that friends and lovers say to each other to show their affection] [singular] She developed a deep affection for that country and its people.
2 affections [plural] : feelings of love : a person's romantic feelings ▪ The two women competed for the affections [=love, heart] of the same man. ▪ She's been the object of his affections since they were children. [=he has loved her since they were children]

af•fec•tion•ate /əˈfɛkʃənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing love and affection ▪ You were lucky to have such affectionate [=loving] parents. ▪ an affectionate nickname – af•fec•tion•ate•ly adv ▪ His family affectionately refers to him as "the baby."

af• •da•vit /ˌæfəˈdeɪvət/ noun, pl -vits [count] law : a written report which is signed by a person who promises that the information is true ▪ We have a signed affidavit stating that the two men were seen entering the building.

[1]af• l•i•ate /əˈfɪliˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to closely connect (something or yourself) with or to something (such as a program or organization) as a member or partner ▪ Their group does not affiliate itself with/to any political party. — often used as (be) affiliated ▪ Their group is not affiliated with/to any political party. ▪ The medical school is affiliated with/to several hospitals.
– affiliated adj ▪ the medical school and its affiliated hospitals ▪ the television network's affiliated stations

[2]af• l•i•ate /əˈfɪliət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : an organization (such as a television station) that is a member of a larger organization (such as a national network) ▪ the network's local affiliates ▪ Two of the company's regional affiliates lost money in the past year.

af• l•i•a•tion /əˌfɪliˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the state of being affiliated to something: such as a : the state of being closely associated with or connected to an organization, company, etc. [count] The medical school has an affiliation to/with several hospitals. [noncount] proposing the affiliation of the medical school to/with several hospitals b [count] : the state of belonging to a particular religious or political group — usually plural ▪ They agreed not to discuss their political affiliations.

af• n•i•ty /əˈfɪnəti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 : a feeling of closeness and understanding that someone has for another person because of their similar qualities, ideas, or interests [singular] They had much in common and felt a close affinity (for/to/with each other). ▪ There's always been an affinity between us. [noncount] He never felt any affinity with the other kids in his neighborhood.
2 [singular] a : a liking for or an attraction to something ▪ We share an affinity for foreign films. [=we both like foreign films] b : a quality that makes people or things suited to each other ▪ Fish and white wine have a natural affinity for/to each other. [=fish and white wine taste good together]
3 : the state of being similar or the same [noncount] the affinity of all human beings with one another = the affinity between all human beings [count] Are there any affinities [=similarities] between the two styles of painting?

af• rm /əˈfəːm/ verb - rms ; - rmed ; - rm •ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to say that something is true in a confident way ▪ We cannot affirm that this painting is genuine. ▪ The two men affirm that they are innocent. = The two men affirm their innocence. [=they say they are not guilty] ▪ They neither affirmed nor denied their guilt. synonyms see ASSERT
2 formal : to show a strong belief in or dedication to (something, such as an important idea) ▪ laws affirming the racial equality of all peoples ▪ They continued to affirm their religious beliefs. ▪ affirm life — see also LIFE-AFFIRMING
3 law : to decide that the judgment of another court is correct ▪ The decision was affirmed by a higher court. ▪ The court affirmed his conviction. [=the court agreed that he was guilty]
– af• r•ma•tion /ˌæfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] the affirmation of guilt/innocence ▪ When asked if the statement was true, he nodded his head in affirmation. [count] The ceremony was an affirmation of their religious beliefs.

[1]af• r•ma•tive /əˈfəːmətɪv/ adj, formal : saying or showing that the answer is "yes" rather than "no" ▪ She gave an affirmative answer, not a negative answer.
– af• r•ma•tive•ly adv ▪ She answered (the question) affirmatively.

[2]affirmative noun
in the affirmative formal : with a reply that means "yes" ▪ He answered (the question) in the affirmative. [=he said "yes"] — compare in the negative at [2]NEGATIVE affirmative action noun [noncount] chiefly US : the practice of improving the educational and job opportunities of members of groups that have not been treated fairly in the past because of their race, sex, etc. — called also (Brit) positive discrimination

[1]af• x /əˈfɪks/ verb - x•es ; - xed ; - x•ing [+ obj] formal : to attach (something) to something else ▪ Please affix a stamp to [=put a stamp on] this letter. ▪ She affixed her signature to the document. [=she signed the document]

[2]af• x /ˈæˌfɪks/ noun, pl - x•es [count] grammar : a letter or group of letters added to the beginning or end of a word to change its meaning : a prefix or suffix af• ict /əˈflɪkt/ verb - icts ; - ict •ed; - ict•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause pain or suffering to (someone or something) ▪ The disease afflicts an estimated two million people every year. — usually used as (be) afflicted ▪ Much of the region is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

afflicted by hunger and poverty. — often + with ▪ Most patients/people who are afflicted with the disease die within one year. ▪ people afflicted with cancer af•flic•tion /əˈflɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal

1 [count] : something (such as a disease) that causes pain or suffering ▪ She lost her sight and is now learning to live with her/the affliction. ▪ He died from a mysterious affliction.
2 [noncount] : the state of being affected by something that causes suffering ▪ her affliction with polio af•flu•ent /ˈæfluwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a large amount of money and owning many expensive things : RICH, WEALTHY ▪ an affluent country ▪ an affluent suburb/neighborhood/community ▪ affluent families ▪ His family was more affluent than most.

– af•flu•ence /ˈæfluwəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ They rose from poverty to affluence. [=they were poor and became rich]

af•ford /əˈfoəd/ verb -fords; -ford•ed; -ford•ing [+ obj]
1 : to be able to pay for (something) ▪ We were too poor to afford a doctor. ▪ He'll be able to afford a house next year. ▪ Don't spend more than you can afford. ▪ They couldn't afford new coats for the children. — often followed by to + verb ▪ They couldn't afford to buy new coats for the children. ▪ Don't spend more than you can afford to (spend).
2 : to be able to do (something) without having problems or being seriously harmed ▪ We can afford waiting a while longer. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ We can afford to wait a while longer. — usually used in negative constructions ▪ She's already too thin. She can't afford to lose any more weight. = She can ill afford to lose any more weight.
3 formal : to supply or provide (something needed or wanted) to someone ▪ All of the rooms afford views of the lake. ▪ He was afforded the opportunity to work for a judge.
– af•ford•abil•i•ty /əˌfordəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the affordability of health care – af•ford•able /əˈfordəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a more affordable car ▪ affordable housing [=housing that is not overly expensive] ▪ an affordable price

af•for•es•ta•tion /æˌforəˈsteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the act or process of planting a forest

af•fray /əˈfreɪ/ noun, pl -frays [count] chiefly Brit, law, formal : a noisy fight between two or more people in a public place ▪ a shooting affray

[1]af•front /əˈfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] formal : an action or statement that insults or offends someone ▪ He regarded her rude behavior as a personal affront. — often + to ▪ Her remarks were an affront to all of us. ▪ The test was an affront to our intelligence. [=the test was too simple]

[2]affront verb -fronts; -front•ed; -front•ing [+ obj] formal : to do or say something that shows a lack of respect for (someone or someone's feelings) — usually used as (be) affronted ▪ He was affronted [=insulted, offended] by her rude behavior.

af•ghan /ˈæfˌgæn/ noun, pl -ghans [count] chiefly US : a blanket made of wool or cotton knitted in patterns

Af•ghan /ˈæfˌgæn/ noun, pl -ghans [count]
1 : a person born, raised, or living in Afghanistan
2 : AFGHAN HOUND
– Afghan or Af•ghani /æfˈgæni, Brit æfˈgɑːni/ adj ▪ Afghan citizens ▪ Afghani children

Afghan hound noun, pl ~ hounds [count] : a type of tall thin dog with long soft hair

afi•cio•na•do /əˌfɪʃijəˈnɑːdoʊ/ noun, pl -dos [count] : a person who likes and knows a lot about something ▪ an aficionado of poetry ▪ sports aficionados

afield /əˈfiːld/ adv : away from home : away from here or there — used with far, farther, or further ▪ People came/traveled from as far afield as New York to see the show. ▪ He didn't want to go any farther/further afield. — often used figuratively ▪ Her question took us far afield from our original subject.

afire /əˈfajə/ adj, not used before a noun : burning : on fire : AFLAME ▪ The house was afire.
– afire adv ▪ They set the house afire.

aflame /əˈfleɪm/ adj, not used before a noun : burning : on fire ▪ In a few minutes, the entire town was aflame. [=afire, ablaze] — often used figuratively ▪ Their hearts were aflame. [=filled with love and excitement] ▪ The fields are aflame with flowers of every color.
– aflame adv ▪ The roof was set aflame by lightning.

afloat /əˈfloʊt/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : floating on water ▪ Our boat remained/stayed afloat through the storm. ▪ It's the largest ship afloat.
2 : having enough money to continue : able to continue without suffering financial failure ▪ The inheritance kept them afloat for years. ▪ trying to keep the business afloat ▪ struggling to stay afloat aflut•ter /əˈflʌtə/ adj, not used before a noun : nervously excited ▪ Her heart was aflutter at the thought of his return.

afoot /əˈfʊt/ adj, not used before a noun : developing or happening now : in progress ▪ Plans were afoot to begin construction on the bridge. ▪ Something strange was afoot. ▪ There's trouble afoot.

afore•men•tioned /əˈfoəˈmɛnʃənd/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : mentioned before : spoken about or named earlier ▪ The aforementioned book is the author's most famous work.

afore•said /əˈfoəˌsɛd/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : said or named before : AFOREMENTIONED — often used in legal contexts ▪ Based on the aforesaid reasons, the court has come to its decision.

afore•thought /əˈfoəˌθɑːt/ adj : thought about or planned beforehand with malice aforethought see MALICE

afoul of /əˈfaʊləv/ adv
fall/run afoul of chiefly US : to get into trouble because of (the law, a rule, etc.) ▪ After leaving home he fell afoul of the law. [=he got into trouble for breaking the law; he was arrested for committing a crime] ▪ an investor who has run afoul of stock market rules afraid /əˈfreɪd/ adj, not used before a noun

1 [more ~; most ~] : feeling fear: such as a : worried that something will cause pain or injury ▪ Don't be afraid [=frightened, scared]—the dog won't hurt you. — often + of ▪ I don't like tall buildings because I'm afraid of heights. [=of being high up in the air] ▪ He's afraid of snakes. ▪ All the kids at school were afraid of him. b : nervous about doing something — often + of ▪ She's afraid of failing/failure. ▪ He wasn't afraid of saying what he thought. ▪ Don't be afraid of [=don't worry about] what everyone else thinks. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He wasn't afraid to say what he thought. ▪ I wanted to visit her, but I was afraid to ask. ▪ Don't be afraid to take risks. c : nervous or worried that something might happen ▪ She's afraid (that) she might fail. ▪ We were all afraid (that) she wouldn't live. ▪ I'm afraid (that) everyone will laugh at me. ▪ I was afraid (that) you would say "no."
2 — used in the phrase I'm afraid as a polite way of showing that you are sorry about a disappointing, negative, or critical statement ▪ I'm sorry, but I'm afraid (that) I won't be able to come to your party. ▪ She tries hard, but I'm afraid that her work just isn't very good. ▪ I'm afraid that I still don't understand the problem. ▪ This is only the beginning of the battle, I'm afraid. ▪ Most of us worked very hard, but she, I'm afraid to say [=I'm sorry to say; I regret to say], did no work at all. ▪ "Is it raining?" "I'm afraid so." = "I'm afraid it is." [=yes, it is] ▪ "Can you come to our party?" "I'm afraid not." = "I'm afraid I can't." [=no, I can't come]
3 — used with not to say that someone is willing to do something; often + of ▪ She's not afraid of hard work. = She's not afraid of working hard. [=she's willing to work hard; she works hard] ▪ You can't be afraid of getting dirty in this job. [=you have to be willing to get dirty in this job] — often followed by to + verb ▪ She's not afraid to work hard. ▪ He's not afraid to admit his mistakes.
afraid for : feeling fear or worry about (something or someone) ▪ I'm afraid for the children. ▪ They were afraid for their lives. [=they feared for their lives; they were afraid that they might die] ▪ He's afraid for his job. [=he's worried that he might lose his job]

afresh /əˈfrɛʃ/ adv : from a new beginning ▪ Let's stop now and start afresh [=again, anew] in the morning. ▪ The author makes her readers look afresh at an old subject. [=she makes them think about an old subject in a new/fresh way]

Af•ri•can /ˈæfrɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count]
1 : a person born, raised, or living in Africa
2 : a descendant of Africans – African adj ▪ African history/countries

Af•ri•can–Amer•i•can /ˌæfrɪkənəˈmerɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : an American who has African and especially black African ancestors ✧ Many people prefer the term African-American rather than black when referring to Americans of African descent.
– African–American adj ▪ African-American scientists ▪ African-American culture

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

African violet noun, pl ~ -lets [count] : a tropical plant from Africa that is grown indoors for its purple, pink, or white flowers — see color picture on page C6

Af•ri•kaans /ˌæfrɪˈkɑːns/ noun [noncount] : a language based on Dutch that is spoken in South Africa

Af•ri•ka•ner /ˌæfrɪˈkɑːnɚ/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a person born, raised, or living in South Africa whose first language is Afrikaans and whose ancestors were Dutch

Af•ro /ˈæfroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] : a hairstyle in which very curly hair is shaped into a smooth round ball — see picture at HAIR ✧ Afros were often worn by black people in the 1970s.

Afro- combining form : African (and) ▪ Afro-American

Af•ro–Amer•i•can /ˌæfrowəˈmerəkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : AFRICAN-AMERICAN ▪ an Afro-American

– Afro–American adj

[1]aft /ˈæft, Brit ˈɑːft/ adv : towards or at the back part of a boat, ship, or airplane ▪ We stood on the ship's deck facing aft. ▪ The plane's exits are located fore and aft. ▪ There is an exit located just aft of [=behind] the wing. — compare [2]FORE

[2]aft adj : located at the back of a boat, ship, or airplane ▪ the ship's fore and aft cabins ▪ The fore and aft exits can both be used in an emergency. — compare [3]FORE

[1]af•ter /ˈæftɚ, Brit ˈɑːftə/ adv : following in time : at a later time ▪ Dinner was at six and we arrived shortly after. [=thereafter] ▪ He returned 20 years after. [=later] ▪ Don't tell them until after. ▪ I expected her then, but she arrived the week after. ▪ He ate lunch and left just/right/immediately after. ▪ I saw her again the day after. [=the following day] ▪ He vowed to love her forever/ever after. [=from that time on, forever]

[2]after prep

1 a : at a time following (something or someone) : later than (something or someone) ▪ We arrived shortly after six o'clock. ▪ He returned after 20 years. ▪ before, during, and after the war ▪ He left just/right/immediately/soon/shortly after nightfall/dark. ▪ Night fell, and soon after that [=soon afterward] he left. ▪ He finished the exam after me. ▪ I stood up after the judge (did). [=the judge stood up before I (did)] ▪ Call me after your arrival. ▪ She was going to arrive tomorrow but I'm now expecting her the day after tomorrow instead. ▪ She hasn't lived there since (the time) after the war. ▪ They earned $30,000 after (paying) taxes. ▪ He left after an hour. ▪ Let's get going! It's after [=past] 12 (o'clock). ▪ The job got easier after a while. [=after some time had passed] b US — used to describe a time following a specified hour ▪ It's 20 (minutes) after 12. [=it's 20 past 12; it's 12:20]

2 a : following and because of (something) ▪ After all our advice, she's certain to do better. [=she's certain to do better because we have given her our advice] b : following and in spite of (something) ▪ Even after all our advice, she still did badly! [=she did badly even though we gave her our advice] ▪ How can you say that after what happened last night?

3 a : following (something or someone) in order or in a series ▪ It's the highest mountain after Mount Everest. ▪ You'll see my house just before the bank and after the school. ▪ The number 2 comes before 3 and after 1. [=2 comes between 1 and 3] ▪ My name is listed after yours. ▪ You go first and I'll go/follow after you. ▪ The children marched out one after the other in single file. ✧ The phrase after you is used as a polite way of saying that someone should go ahead of you or do something before you do it. ▪ After you, Madam! ✧ In British English, you can say after you with something to ask the person who is using something to let you use it next. ▪ After you with the pencil, please. [=I would like to use the pencil when you have finished using it] b — used in phrases to describe something that happens many times or for a long period of time ▪ They have suffered misfortune after misfortune. [=they have suffered a long series of misfortunes] ▪ Wave after [=upon] wave was beating against the shore. ▪ She does her job day after day without complaining. ▪ He's done the same thing time after time.

4 : trying to catch or get (something or someone) ▪ The dog ran after the ball. [=the dog ran to get the ball] ▪ The police went/chased after the escaped criminal. ▪ The police are after him. [=are trying to catch him] ▪ What do you think he's after with all his questions? [=what is he trying to achieve by asking his questions?] ✧ If people are after you to do something, they want you to do it and they tell you to do it repeatedly. ▪ Mom was after me to clean my room. [=Mom repeatedly told me to clean my room]

5 : following the actions or departure of (someone) ▪ She called/shouted after him as he walked away. [=she called/shouted at/toward him as he walked away] ▪ They made a mess and didn't clean up after themselves. [=they didn't clean up the mess they made] ▪ If you make a mess, don't expect me to clean up after you.

6 a : with the name of (someone or something) ▪ He was called George after his father. ▪ She was named after her grandmother. [=she was given the same name as her grandmother] ▪ The game rugby was named after Rugby School in England, where it began. b : in the manner of (someone or something) ▪ a building patterned after [=on] a cathedral ▪ (formal) a story after (the manner of) Hemingway

7 : in a lower or less important position than (something) ▪ They put quality after quantity. [=they cared more about quantity than about quality]

8 : about or concerning (someone or something) ▪ I met one of your old friends and she was asking/inquiring after you. [=she was asking about you; she was asking how you are] ▪ She was asking after your health.

after all 1 : in spite of what was said : even though the opposite was expected ▪ They decided to go after all. ▪ It didn't rain after all. 2 — used to emphasize something that needs to be considered ▪ It's only Tuesday, after all. We have plenty of time. ▪ You should apologize to her. After all, she is your best friend.

[3]after conj : later than the time that : later than when ▪ He returned after 20 years had passed. ▪ The defendant stood up after the judge did. [=the judge stood up before the defendant did] ▪ Don't tell them until after they've had dinner. ▪ He left just/right/immediately/soon/shortly after the show ended. ▪ Call me after you arrive. ▪ He finished the exam after I did. ▪ It happened not long after he graduated from college.

[4]after adj, always used before a noun, old-fashioned + literary : later in time ▪ in after [=later] years

af•ter•birth /ˈæftəˌbɚθ, Brit ˈɑːftəˌbɜːθ/ noun [singular] medical : the tissues that come out of the body of a woman after she gives birth to a baby af•ter•care /ˈæftɚˌkeɚ, Brit ˈɑːftəˌkɛə/ noun [noncount] : the care, treatment, etc., given to people after they leave a place (such as a hospital or prison) — often used before another noun ▪ aftercare services af•ter•ef•fect /ˈæftərɪˌfɛkt, Brit ˈɑːftərɪˌfɛkt/ noun, pl -fects [count] : an effect that occurs after time has passed — usually plural ▪ He's suffering the aftereffects of his injury.

af•ter•glow /ˈæftɚˌgloʊ, Brit ˈɑːftəˌgləʊ/ noun [singular]

1 : a glowing light remaining in the sky after the sun has set ▪ the afterglow of the sunset

2 : a happy feeling that remains after a successful or emotional event ▪ the party's afterglow ▪ We basked in the afterglow [=enjoyed the happiness and satisfaction] of the victory.

af•ter•life /ˈæftɚˌlaɪf, Brit ˈɑːftəˌlaɪf/ noun [singular] : a life that some people believe exists after death ▪ Does he believe in an afterlife? — often used with the ▪ She believes she will meet her ancestors in the afterlife.

af•ter•math /ˈæftɚˌmæθ, Brit ˈɑːftəˌmæθ/ noun, pl -maths [count] : the period of time after a bad and usually destructive event — usually singular ▪ In the aftermath of the fire, many people were in need of shelter. ▪ The country is rebuilding its economy in the aftermath of the war. ▪ The children struggled through their parents' divorce and its aftermath.

af•ter•noon /ˌæftɚˈnuːn, Brit ˌɑːftəˈnuːn/ noun, pl -noons [count] : the middle part of the day : the part of the day between noon and evening ▪ morning, afternoon, evening, and night ▪ I'll see you again tomorrow afternoon. ▪ It was early/late afternoon when I left. ▪ She spent the/her afternoon at the library. ▪ She came home the next/following afternoon. [=during the afternoon of the next day] ▪ I remember the many rainy afternoons I spent reading at the library. ▪ She doesn't have class on Friday afternoons. ▪ It took us all afternoon to get there. ▪ It's going to be a long afternoon listening to lectures. ▪ We went for a walk this afternoon. [=during the afternoon today] — often used before another noun ▪ an afternoon drive ▪ afternoon tea ▪ Our garden gets plenty of afternoon sun. [=the sun shines on the garden in the afternoon] — see also GOOD AFTERNOON af•ter•noons /ˌæftɚˈnuːnz, Brit ˌɑːftəˈnuːnz/ adv, US : in the afternoon ▪ He works afternoons in a convenience store.

af•ters /ˈæftɚz, Brit ˈɑːftəz/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : DESSERT ▪ What's for afters? ▪ Afters is ice cream tonight.

af•ter–sales /ˈæftɚˌseɪlz, Brit ˈɑːftəˌseɪlz/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit : provided to customers after a sale has been made ▪ after-sales service and maintenance

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

af•ter–school /ˈæftəˌskuːl, Brit ˈɑːftəˌskuːl/ adj, always used before a noun : happening or done after the end of the school day ▪ She started an after-school job so she could buy a car. ▪ after-school activities/programs af•ter•shave /ˈæftəˌʃeɪv, Brit ˈɑːftəˌʃeɪv/ noun, pl -shaves [count, noncount] : a pleasant-smelling liquid that some men put on their faces after they have shaved af•ter•shock /ˈæftəˌʃɑːk, Brit ˈɑːftəˌʃɒk/ noun, pl -shocks [count] : a smaller earthquake that occurs after a larger one ▪ The first aftershock came just minutes after the earthquake. — often used figuratively ▪ He still suffers from the aftershocks of being laid off.

af•ter•taste /ˈæftəˌteɪst, Brit ˈɑːftəˌteɪst/ noun [singular] : a taste that remains after something is eaten or drunk ▪ The wine has a smooth/fruity/sweet aftertaste. — often used figuratively ▪ The experience left me with a bitter aftertaste. [=I felt bitter after the experience] af•ter•thought /ˈæftəˌθɑːt, Brit ˈɑːftəˌθɔːt/ noun, pl -thoughts [count] : something done or said after other things because it was not thought of earlier ▪ Then I remembered, almost as an afterthought, to feed the cat. ▪ The fact was hidden deep in the report, almost as an afterthought. ▪ The lounge was added to the office as an afterthought.

af•ter•ward /ˈæftəwəd, Brit ˈɑːftəwəd/ or af•ter•wards /ˈæftəwədz, Brit ˈɑːftəwədz/ adv : at a later time : after something has happened ▪ You'll feel better afterward. ▪ He found out about it long afterward. ▪ Afterward, she got a promotion. ✧ In U.S. English, afterward is more common than afterwards. In British English, afterwards is more common.

af•ter•word /ˈæftəˌwəd, Brit ˈɑːftəˈwɜːd/ noun, pl -words [count] : a final section that comes after the main part of a book ▪ The novel has a foreword by an eminent critic and an afterword by the author herself.

again /əˈgɛn/ adv

1 : for another time : one more time ▪ Please, come see us again. ▪ Spring is beginning again. ▪ It was nice to see my friends again. ▪ She wants to prove that she can do it again. ▪ Things are back to normal again. ▪ I will never be so foolish again. = Never again will I be so foolish. ▪ When we heard the news, we all said, "Oh no! Not again!" ▪ She demonstrated yet again her remarkable artistic talents. ▪ It'll just be the same thing all over again. ▪ I told him over and over again to be careful. = I told him again and again to be careful. [=I told him many times to be careful] ▪ She returned to the bookstore again and again. [=repeatedly, many times]

2 : to a previous position or place ▪ We flew from Boston to Chicago and back again. [=back to Boston] ▪ When he stood up, he got so dizzy that he had to sit down again.

3 — used to introduce a thought or possibility that differs from a preceding one ▪ He might go, and again he might not. — usually used in the phrase then again ▪ He might go, and then again, he might not. ▪ Then again, perhaps they were right.

4 — used to introduce a statement that repeats and stresses something previously said ▪ Again, this is a serious problem.

5 — used to ask someone to repeat something because you did not hear or understand it clearly ▪ What was your name again?

6 — used in phrases like (chiefly US) half again as much and (chiefly Brit) half as much again to compare two amounts ▪ My ticket costs half again as much as your ticket. [=(for example) my ticket costs $15 and your ticket costs $10]

(every) now and again see EVERY now and again see [1]NOW

once again see [1]ONCE time and again see [1]TIME

against /əˈgɛnst/ prep

1 a : in opposition to (someone or something) ▪ Everyone was against them. [=everyone opposed them] ▪ We must continue the struggle for justice and against injustice. ▪ She voted against the proposal. ▪ You're either for/with me or against me! [=you either support me or oppose me] ▪ He spoke against appeasing the enemy. ▪ The U.S. fought against Germany in World Wars I and II. = The U.S. and Germany fought against each other in World Wars I and II. ▪ Some people were for the proposal but others were against it. ▪ There's a law against doing that. ▪ His parents were angry when they learned he had borrowed the car against their wishes. [=he borrowed the car even though they did not want him to] ▪ Against my advice, she quit her job. [=she quit her job even though I advised her not to] ▪ He was being held against his will. [=he was being kept in a place by force even though he wanted to leave] b : in competition with (someone or something) ▪ two runners racing against each other ▪ It's the Yankees against [=versus] the Red Sox tonight.

2 — used to indicate the person or thing that is affected or harmed by something ▪ He denies the charges that have been made against him. ▪ The evidence against him is very convincing. ▪ The war was a crime against humanity. ▪ Someone has been making threats against her.

3 : not agreeing with or allowed by (something, such as a law) ▪ You can't do that. It's against the law. [=the law does not allow it] ▪ Touching the ball with your hands is against the rules. ▪ I won't do it. It's against my principles. [=my principles don't allow it; I believe that it is wrong] ▪ They were acting against tradition. [=acting in a way that did not agree with tradition]

4 a : not helping or favoring (someone) ▪ Everything was/went against them. [=everything that happened was unfavorable to them] ▪ Her appearance is/counts against her. [=her appearance does not help her; people form a bad opinion of her because of her appearance] b : as a reason for disliking (someone or something) ▪ I have nothing against him. [=I don't dislike him; I have no reason for disliking him] ▪ We disagree about many things, but I don't hold it/that against you. [=I don't dislike you because of it/that]

5 — used to say that one thing is being compared with another ▪ Profits are up this year against last year. [=profits are higher this year than they were last year] ▪ The yen rose/fell against the dollar. ▪ a graph that plots height against weight ▪ We will weigh/balance the risk against the possible benefit. [=we will compare the risk with the possible benefit]

6 a : as a defense or protection from (something) ▪ He built a crude hut as a shelter against [=from] the cold. ▪ injections against flu b : in preparation for (something) ▪ saving against [=for] an uncertain future

7 — used to describe hitting or touching something or someone ▪ I accidentally knocked/hit my head against the shelf. ▪ The waves were beating against [=on] the shore. ▪ She accidentally brushed against him as she walked by. ▪ The ladder was leaning against the wall. ▪ She was resting her head against the side of the chair.

8 : in a direction opposite to the movement of (something) ▪ They were sailing against the wind. ▪ swimming against the current/tide

9 : with the background of (something) ▪ The tree looked beautiful when viewed against the dark sky. ▪ Her colorful coat stood out against the dull colors of the room.

10 : as a charge on (something) ▪ The purchase was charged against [=to] her account. [=the amount of money needed for the purchase was added to the amount owed in her account]

as against see [2]AS

over against see [2]OVER

up against see [2]UP

agape /əˈgeɪp/ adj, not used before a noun : having the mouth open because of wonder, surprise, or shock ▪ He stood there with his mouth agape. [=with his mouth gaping] ▪ The crowd stared agape at the accident scene.

ag•ate /ˈægət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : a very hard stone used especially in jewelry that has colors arranged in stripes or in patches

[1]age /ˈeɪʤ/ noun, pl ag•es

1 a : the amount of time during which a person or animal has lived [count] What is your age? [=how old are you?] ▪ The age of the student was 20. = The student's age was 20. ▪ Some people are reluctant to reveal their ages. ▪ She died tragically at a young age. ▪ Exercise is good for a man (of) your age. ▪ The treatment depends on the sex and age of the patient. ▪ He joined the company at the age of 35. [=when he was 35 years old] ▪ She died at the ripe old age of 90. ▪ You're too old to behave so foolishly. You should know better at your age. [=a person as old as you are should know better] ▪ You should learn to act your age. [=to act in a way that is appropriate for a person of your age] ▪ She showed remarkable musical talent at/from an early age. [=she showed talent when she was young] ▪ The movie appeals to people of all ages. ▪ The book is popular among men/women of a certain age. [=men/women who are not young anymore] ▪ Her age is catching up to her. = She is starting to feel her age. [=she is starting to feel old] ▪ He left home at the tender age of 18. [=when he was only 18 years old] ▪ He learned to paint in his old age. [=when he was old] ▪ Our son is small for his age. [=he's smaller than most children are at his age] [noncount] Their son needs to spend more time with children his own

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

age. ▪ a group of children ranging in age from 8 to 11 ▪ When you're my age [=when you're as old as I am] you'll realize that life isn't always fair. ▪ She became involved with a man twice her age. ▪ More people now live to extreme old age. [=live to be extremely old] ▪ The program is for people over/under age 50. ▪ groups of people classified by race and age ▪ The student was 20 years of age. [=was 20 years old] ▪ He joined the company at age 35. — often used before another noun ▪ The movie appeals to people of all age groups. ▪ He was over the age limit. [=he was too old] — see also MIDDLE AGE, OLD AGE, SCHOOL AGE b : the amount of time during which a thing has existed [count] What is the age of your car? ▪ The car is in good condition for its age. [=considering how old it is] [noncount] The magazines were sorted by age.

2 : the time of life when a person does something or becomes legally able to do something [count] The voting age is 18. [=people are allowed to vote when they are 18 years old] ▪ He was past the age for military service. [noncount] Her parents are approaching retirement age. ▪ young people who have not yet reached drinking age ▪ students of college age = college-age students — see also AGE OF CONSENT

3 [noncount] a : the passage of time : the process of becoming old or older ▪ a tree weakened by age ▪ His skills haven't diminished with age. ▪ a wine that has improved with age ▪ "Age cannot wither her, nor custom stale her infinite variety." —Shakespeare, Antony and Cleopatra (1607) b : the condition of being old ▪ from youth to (old) age ▪ The building is showing signs of age. ▪ She died of old age.

4 [count] : a period of history — usually singular ▪ an airplane that became a symbol of the modern age ▪ a bygone/past age ▪ the great problems of our age ▪ It's hard to believe that such behavior is still tolerated in this day and age. [=in current times; now] : a period of time that is associated with a particular thing or person ▪ People expect information instantly in this age of the Internet. ▪ the age of Columbus ▪ the machine age ▪ the Age of Discovery — see also BRONZE AGE, DARK AGES, GOLDEN AGE, ICE AGE, IRON AGE, NEW AGE, STONE AGE, gilded age at GILD

5 [count] informal : a long period of time ▪ It's been an age since we last saw them. — usually plural ▪ It's been ages since we last saw them. = We haven't seen them in/for ages. = It was ages ago when we last saw them.

come of age : to reach the age when you are considered an adult ▪ He received his full inheritance when he came of age. — often used figuratively. ▪ She came of age as an artist [=she developed fully as an artist] after she moved to New York. ▪ a political movement that has recently come of age [=has become fully formed and effective] in a coon's age or in a dog's age US, informal : in a very long time ▪ We haven't seen them in a coon's age.

²age verb ages; aged; ag•ing or chiefly Brit age•ing

1 [no obj] : to become old or older ▪ As he aged he grew more and more bitter. ▪ You haven't aged a day since I saw you last! ▪ an aging population ▪ a book that has aged well [=a book that is still good or appealing although it is no longer new] ▪ She has aged gracefully. [=she has continued to be healthy and young looking as she has gotten older]

2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to become old or to appear to be old ▪ His troubles have aged him. ▪ Exposure to the sun has aged her skin.

3 of food or drink : to be stored for a period of time in order to gain desired qualities [no obj] The wine ages in oak barrels. [+ obj] The wine is aged in oak barrels. ▪ an aged cheese

-age /ɪʤ/ noun suffix

1 : action, process, or result of ▪ cover*age* ▪ break*age* ▪ wast*age*

2 : total amount or collection ▪ mile*age* ▪ acre*age*

3 : house or place of ▪ orphan*age* ▪ broker*age*

4 : state, status, or condition of ▪ bond*age* ▪ block*age*

5 : fee or charge ▪ post*age*

aged adj

1 /ˈeɪʤəd/ : very old ▪ an aged oak ▪ an aged man

2 /ˈeɪʤd/ not used before a noun : having reached a specified age ▪ a woman aged 40 [=a woman who is 40 years old] ▪ a child aged 10 ▪ a group of men aged between 20 and 30

the aged : old people ▪ providing help for the aged and the sick

– ag•ed•ness /ˈeɪʤədnəs/ noun [noncount]

ageing chiefly Brit spelling of AGING

age•ism /ˈeɪˌʤɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : unfair treatment of old people ▪ He accused his former employer of ageism when he lost his job to a younger man.

– age•ist /ˈeɪʤɪst/ adj ▪ an ageist attitude/society

age•less /ˈeɪʤləs/ adj

1 : not growing old or showing the effects of age ▪ ageless skin ▪ ageless beauty ▪ a seemingly ageless athlete

2 : lasting forever : ETERNAL, TIMELESS ▪ The movie retold an ageless legend. ▪ an ageless tradition ▪ ageless truths

– age•less•ly adv ▪ remains agelessly beautiful ▪ an agelessly romantic gesture – age•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the agelessness of her beauty

agen•cy /ˈeɪʤənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count]

1 : a business that provides a particular service ▪ an insurance/travel/employment agency ▪ a prominent ad agency

2 : a government department that is responsible for a particular activity, area, etc. ▪ federal law enforcement agencies ▪ the federal agency in charge of printing money ▪ various government agencies through the agency of formal : by using the help or services of (something or someone) ▪ The treaty was ratified through the agency of a neutral country.

agen•da /əˈʤɛndə/ noun, pl -das [count]

1 : a list of things to be considered or done ▪ The committee set the agenda for the next several years of research. ▪ There are several items/issues/things on the agenda for tonight's meeting. ▪ What's the first/next item on the agenda? ▪ Such an idea has been high on the political agenda for some time.

2 : a plan or goal that guides someone's behavior and that is often kept secret ▪ He wants to push/promote his own agenda no matter what the others say. ▪ She had no hidden agenda. [=she didn't have a secret plan]

agent /ˈeɪʤənt/ noun, pl agents [count]

1 : a person who does business for another person : a person who acts on behalf of another ▪ They worked with a travel agent to plan their vacation. ▪ The actor got a starring role through his (theatrical) agent. ▪ a literary agent [=a person who helps writers to get their works published] — see also FREE AGENT, INSURANCE AGENT, PRESS AGENT, REAL ESTATE AGENT

2 : a person who tries to get secret information about another country, government, etc. : SPY, SECRET AGENT ▪ a government agent — see also DOUBLE AGENT, SPECIAL AGENT

3 : a person or thing that causes something to happen ▪ They view themselves as agents of social change. [=people who cause social change to happen]

4 : something (such as a chemical) that is used to produce a particular effect or result ▪ The drug is an effective agent for the treatment of asthma. ▪ the main flavoring agent in the drink ▪ Cornstarch is used as a thickening agent in sauces.

agent pro•vo•ca•teur /ˈɑːˌʒɑːnproʊˌvɑːkəˈtə/ noun, pl agents pro•vo•ca•teurs also agent provocateurs /ˈɑːˌʒɑːnproʊˌvɑːkəˈtə/ [count] : a person employed to encourage people to break the law so that they can be arrested ▪ The government used agents provocateurs to try to undermine the opposition party.

age of consent noun

the age of consent : the age at which a person is considered old enough to agree to have sex or to get married age–old /ˈeɪʤˈoʊld/ adj, always used before a noun : very old : having existed for a very long time ▪ an age-old [=ancient] conflict/debate/problem ▪ age-old rituals/ceremonies/traditions ag•glom•er•a•tion /əˌglɑːməˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a large group, collection, or pile of different things ▪ This suburb has become just a vast agglomeration of houses, people, and cars.

ag•gran•dize•ment also Brit ag•gran•dise•ment /əˈgrændəzmənt/ noun [noncount] disapproving : advancement or increase in power or importance ▪ He acted only for his political advantage and personal aggrandizement. ▪ self-aggrandizement

ag•gra•vate /ˈægrəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (an injury, problem, etc.) more serious or severe ▪ She aggravated an old knee injury. ▪ They're afraid that we might aggravate an already bad situation. ▪ A headache can be aggravated by too much exercise. ▪ The symptoms were aggravated by drinking alcohol.

2 informal : to make (someone) angry : to annoy or bother (someone) ▪ All of these delays really aggravate me. ▪ Our neighbors were aggravated by all the noise.

– aggravating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It was an incredibly slow and aggravating process. ▪ He has some very aggravating [=annoying, irritating] habits. – ag•gra•vat•ing•ly adv

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

▪ an aggravatingly slow process

aggravated adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : annoyed or bothered ▪ I sometimes get very aggravated when she does that.
2 always used before a noun, law : made more serious by the use of violence or the threat of violence ▪ He was convicted of aggravated assault.

ag•gra•va•tion /ˌægrəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or result of making a condition, injury, etc., worse : the act or result of aggravating something ▪ trying to avoid the aggravation of an existing back problem
2 informal : something that annoys or bothers someone : something that aggravates someone [noncount] The weather was a source of aggravation for us. [=we were annoyed by the weather] ▪ I don't need all this aggravation. ▪ This car has caused me nothing but aggravation. ▪ Many talented people now feel that a career in politics isn't worth all the aggravation. [count] I don't need all these aggravations.

[1]ag•gre•gate /ˈægrɪˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing formal
1 : to join or combine into a single group [+ obj] The Web site aggregates content from many other sites. [no obj] These insects tend to aggregate [=congregate] in dark, moist places.
2 [linking verb] : to equal a specified number or amount ▪ All together, they had profits aggregating [=totaling] more than 10 million dollars.
– ag•gre•ga•tion /ˌægrɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[2]ag•gre•gate /ˈægrɪgət/ noun, pl -gates [count] formal : a total amount — usually singular ▪ We spent an aggregate of 30 million dollars in advertising during the last three years. ▪ They won the two games by an aggregate of 40 points.
in the aggregate also in aggregate formal : thought of as a whole : all together ▪ Dividends for the year amounted in the aggregate to 25 million dollars. ▪ The experience only becomes important when considered in the aggregate.
on aggregate Brit, sports : with the scores of a series of matches added together ▪ Our team won the same number of matches, but their team scored more goals so they won on aggregate.

[3]ag•gre•gate /ˈægrɪgət/ adj, always used before a noun : formed by adding together two or more amounts : TOTAL ▪ The university receives more than half its aggregate income from government sources. ▪ The team with the highest aggregate score wins.

ag•gres•sion /əˈgrɛʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : angry or violent behavior or feelings ▪ He has a lot of pent-up aggression. ▪ a display of aggression ▪ behavior that is likely to provoke aggression ▪ dangerous dogs showing aggression toward people
2 : hostile action against another country, government, etc. ▪ military aggression ▪ The government says that it will view any attempt to fly over its territory as an act of aggression.

ag•gres•sive /əˈgrɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : ready and willing to fight, argue, etc. : feeling or showing aggression ▪ He started to get aggressive and began to shout. ▪ an aggressive dog ▪ aggressive behavior
2 : using forceful methods to succeed or to do something ▪ an overly aggressive salesman ▪ an aggressive lawyer whose tactics have made people angry ▪ The team plays a very aggressive style of defense. ▪ The company took aggressive steps to prevent illegal use of their equipment. ▪ The publisher has been very aggressive in promoting the book. ▪ The city began an aggressive campaign to encourage recycling.
3 medical a : very severe ▪ an aggressive form of cancer b : very strong or intense ▪ aggressive chemotherapy
– ag•gres•sive•ly adv ▪ The company is aggressively promoting their products. – ag•gres•sive•ness noun [noncount] ag•gres•sor /əˈgrɛsə/ noun, pl -sors [count] : a person or country that attacks another : a person or country that starts a fight or war ▪ Each country accused the other of being the aggressor.

ag•grieved /əˈgriːvd/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : feeling anger because of unfair treatment ▪ He felt aggrieved by their refusal to meet with him. ▪ an aggrieved victim
2 law : having suffered from unfair treatment ▪ The aggrieved party may cancel the contract.

aggro /ˈægroʊ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal
1 : something that annoys or bothers someone : AGGRAVATION ▪ He's gotten nothing but aggro from his parents lately. ▪ They decided it wasn't worth the aggro.
2 : angry and violent behavior : AGGRESSION ▪ The police were there to prevent any aggro.

aghast /əˈgæst, Brit əˈgɑːst/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : shocked and upset ▪ The news left her aghast. ▪ Critics were aghast to see how awful the play was. — often + at ▪ She was aghast at the news. ▪ Critics were aghast at how awful the play was.

ag•ile /ˈædʒəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to move quickly and easily ▪ She is the most agile [=nimble] athlete on the team. ▪ Leopards are very fast and agile. ▪ a car with agile handling [=a car that moves quickly and smoothly when the steering wheel is turned]
2 : quick, smart, and clever ▪ an agile mind ▪ an agile writer ▪ an agile thinker
– ag•ile•ly adv ▪ The cat jumped agilely out of the way. – agil•i•ty /əˈdʒɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] ▪ the agility of a champion gymnast ▪ He has the agility of a mountain goat. [=he is very agile] ▪ mental agility

[1]aging or chiefly Brit ageing adj : becoming old : no longer young or new ▪ his aging parents ▪ an aging building

[2]aging or chiefly Brit ageing noun [noncount] : the act or process of becoming old or older ▪ premature aging of the skin ▪ a wine improved by aging

ag•i•tate /ˈædʒəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to disturb, excite, or anger (someone) ▪ If I talk about the problem with him it just agitates him even more.
2 [no obj] : to try to get people to support or oppose something ▪ Some members of the union have been agitating for a strike. ▪ agitate for equal rights ▪ A few local residents have been agitating against a military presence.
3 [+ obj] technical : to move or stir up (a liquid) ▪ water agitated by wind ▪ The mixture is heated and then agitated.
– agitated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I've never seen her so agitated before. ▪ The dog became very agitated during the storm. – ag•i•tat•ed•ly adv ▪ pacing back and forth agitatedly – ag•i•ta•tion /ˌædʒəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ He spoke with increasing agitation about the situation. ▪ agitation for civil rights ▪ continuous agitation of the mixture

ag•i•ta•tor /ˈædʒəˌteɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 usually disapproving : a person who tries to get people angry or upset so that they will support an effort to change a government, company, etc. ▪ The police arrested several antigovernment agitators.
2 : a device for stirring or shaking something in a machine (such as a washing machine)

agleam /əˈgliːm/ adj, not used before a noun : bright or shining with reflected light ▪ She spoke of all the possibilities, her eyes agleam. [=gleaming] aglit•ter /əˈglɪtə/ adj, not used before a noun : sparkling brightly with reflected light ▪ The tree was all aglitter [=glittering] with Christmas decorations.

aglow /əˈgloʊ/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : glowing with light or color ▪ The lights of the city were aglow in the distance. ▪ The room was aglow with candlelight.
2 : very excited or happy : feeling or showing excitement and happiness ▪ The children were aglow with excitement. ▪ The town was aglow with pride.

AGM /ˌeɪˌdʒiːˈɛm/ noun, pl AGMs [count] Brit : a meeting that an organization has once every year to discuss business, elect officials, etc. ▪ The new Board was elected at our last AGM. [=(US) annual meeting] ✧ AGM is an abbreviation for "Annual General Meeting."

ag•nos•tic /ægˈnɑːstɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count]
1 : a person who does not have a definite belief about whether God exists or not — compare ATHEIST
2 : a person who does not believe or is unsure of something ▪ She considered herself an agnostic on the truth of the theory. [=she was not sure if the theory was true or not] ▪ a political agnostic [=a person who lacks strong political beliefs]
– agnostic adj ▪ politically agnostic – ag•nos•ti•cism /ægˈnɑːstəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

ago /əˈgoʊ/ adv : in the past : before the present time : before now ▪ "How long ago did she arrive?" "A few hours ago." ▪ That culture flourished here over 10,000 years ago. ▪ We met three months ago and we'll meet again three months from now. ▪ He long ago learned to be patient. ▪ I saw an interesting ad not long ago [=recently] for a new car. ▪ All the good tickets were sold a long time ago. = All the good tickets were sold (quite) some time ago.

agog /əˈgɑːg/ adj, not used before a noun : full of interest or excitement because of something ▪ The news has chemists

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

agog. ▪ Her supporters were agog at the idea. ▪ The town is agog over the plan.

ag•o•nize also Brit ag•o•nise /ˈægəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [no obj] : to think or worry very much about something — usually + about or over ▪ She agonized about what she was doing. ▪ The coach agonizes for days over the choices he has to make. ▪ The architect agonized over every detail of the planning.

agonized also Brit agonised adj [more ~; most ~] : showing mental or physical pain or agony ▪ an agonized cry of despair agonizing also Brit agonising adj [more ~; most ~] : very mentally or physically painful ▪ a long and agonizing battle with cancer ▪ She made the agonizing decision to cancel the trip. ▪ The agonizing wait was finally over. ▪ He was in agonizing pain.

– ag•o•niz•ing•ly also Brit ag•o•nis•ing•ly adv ▪ an agonizingly painful condition ▪ They moved at an agonizingly slow pace.

ag•o•ny /ˈægəni/ noun, pl -nies : extreme mental or physical pain [noncount] She was in terrible agony after breaking her leg. ▪ He died in agony. ▪ The medicine relieves the agony of muscle cramps very quickly. ▪ the agony of defeat ▪ It was agony to watch him suffer like that. [count] He suffered no agonies of guilt/remorse/regret over his decision. [=he did not feel guilty about his decision] agony aunt noun, pl ~ aunts [count] Brit : a person who writes an agony column ▪ Hundreds of people write in to the paper's agony aunt [=(US) advice columnist] every week.

agony column noun, pl ~ -umns [count] Brit : ADVICE COLUMN

ag•o•ra•pho•bia /ˌægərəˈfoʊbijə/ noun [noncount] : a fear of being in open or public places ▪ a patient suffering from agoraphobia — compare CLAUSTROPHOBIA

– ag•o•ra•pho•bic /ˌægərəˈfoʊbɪk/ adj ▪ an agoraphobic patient – agoraphobic noun, pl -bics [count] ▪ a therapist who works with agoraphobics

agrar•i•an /əˈgrerijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of or relating to farms and farming ▪ a town founded in 1811 as an agrarian community ▪ an agrarian economy ▪ an agrarian society agree /əˈgri:/ verb agrees; agreed; agree•ing

1 : to have the same opinion [no obj] We agreed about some things, but we disagreed about others. ▪ They agreed among themselves. ▪ She says that a change is needed, and I agree completely. ▪ I couldn't agree more. ▪ We can all agree on/about one thing: the current law needs to be changed. ▪ Some critics have called the movie a masterpiece, but not everyone agrees. ▪ The house is too big for one person, don't you agree? — often + with ▪ I agree with you. = I agree with what you say. [+ obj] I agree (that) the house is too big. ▪ We all agree (that) the law needs to be changed. ✧ When people are agreed, they have the same opinion. ▪ We are all agreed that the law needs to be changed. [=we all agree that the law needs to be changed] ▪ Researchers are now agreed that the cause of the disease is genetic. ▪ "So we'll have to revise the schedule. Agreed?" [=are we agreed?] "Agreed." [=yes, we are agreed] ✧ When a person or thing is agreed to be something specified, people regard that person or thing as something specified. ▪ The movie is generally agreed to be a failure. [=most people think that the movie is a failure] ▪ She is widely agreed to be one of our best writers. ▪ Her first book is almost universally agreed to be her best.

2 : to say that you will do, accept, or allow something that is suggested or requested by another person [no obj] The reporter asked her for an interview, and she reluctantly agreed. [=she reluctantly said yes] — often + to ▪ He agreed to [=consented to] their proposal/plan. ▪ agree to a compromise ▪ She agreed to an interview. = She agreed to being interviewed. [+ obj] She asked if she could go with him, and he agreed that she could. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He agreed to accept their proposal. ▪ She reluctantly agreed to be interviewed. ▪ He readily agreed to do what they wanted him to do. ▪ They agreed not to oppose her nomination.

3 of two or more people or groups : to decide to accept something after discussing what should or might be done [no obj] — usually + on or upon ▪ The jurors were unable to agree on a verdict. [=to reach a verdict] ▪ agree on a plan ▪ They agreed on a fair division of the profits. ▪ The means of ending the dispute were finally agreed upon. ▪ They should accept the terms that were originally agreed upon. ▪ The price was agreed upon in advance. [+ obj] (Brit) ▪ The jurors were unable to agree a verdict. ▪ The means of ending the dispute were finally agreed. ✧ The forms agreed, agreed-upon, and (less commonly) agreed-on are used as adjectives in both U.S. and British English. ▪ She paid him the agreed price. ▪ They met at the agreed-upon time.

4 [no obj] : to be alike : to resemble or match each other ▪ The accounts of the accident did not agree (with each other). ▪ The copies agree exactly with the originals. ▪ These results agree with earlier studies.

5 [no obj] grammar : to be alike in gender, number, case, or person ▪ A verb should agree with its subject. ▪ A verb and pronoun should agree in number.

6 [no obj] : to be suitable for or pleasing to someone — + with ▪ The climate agrees with you. [=the climate suits you] ▪ Spicy food doesn't agree with me. [=spicy food makes me feel unwell] agree to disagree (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit agree to differ : to agree not to argue anymore about a difference of opinion ▪ He likes golf and his wife likes tennis, so when it comes to sports, they have agreed to disagree.

agree with [phrasal verb] agree with (something) : to regard (something) with approval ▪ Do you agree with capital punishment? — see also AGREE 1, 6 (above)

agree•able /əˈgri:jəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 somewhat formal + old-fashioned : pleasing to the mind or senses : PLEASANT ▪ an agreeable taste ▪ He's a very agreeable young man. ▪ Traffic is one of the less agreeable aspects of city life. ▪ They spent an agreeable evening together. — opposite DISAGREEABLE

2 : ready or willing to agree : willing to do or allow something ▪ I suggested that we leave early, and she seemed agreeable. — usually + to ▪ She seemed agreeable to (the idea of) leaving early.

3 : able to be accepted : ACCEPTABLE — + to ▪ Is the schedule agreeable to you? [=do you agree to the schedule?]

– agree•able•ness noun [noncount] – agree•ably /əˈgri:jəbli/ adv ▪ an agreeably sweet taste ▪ They spent the evening together very agreeably.

agree•ment /əˈgri:mənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] a : the act of agreeing ▪ Any changes to the plan require the agreement of everyone involved. ▪ We were surprised by his agreement to participate. [=we were surprised that he agreed to participate] ▪ She nodded her head in agreement. [=to show that she agreed] b : a situation in which people share the same opinion : a situation in which people agree ▪ There is wide/widespread/universal agreement on this issue. ▪ Everyone seems to be in agreement [=seems to agree] about/on the need for reform, but there is much disagreement about how to achieve it. ▪ They have been unable to reach agreement about how to achieve reform.

2 [count] a : an arrangement, contract, etc., by which people agree about what is to be done ▪ I thought we had an agreement. ▪ a formal/contractual agreement ▪ Their agreement expires next year. ▪ He has to return the property under the terms of an agreement he has with the original owner. ▪ a peace agreement ▪ a trade agreement ▪ They have come to an agreement. = They have reached an agreement. b : a written record of such an agreement ▪ He signed an agreement to buy the property. — see also GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT

3 [noncount] grammar : the fact or state of being alike in gender, number, case, or person : the fact or state of agreeing grammatically ▪ The subject and the verb need to be in agreement (with each other).

ag•ri•busi•ness /ˈægrəˌbɪznəs/ noun, pl -ness•es

1 [noncount] : the business or industry of farming or agriculture : farming thought of as a large business ▪ a giant agribusiness corporation

2 [count] : a company engaged in agribusiness ▪ Several large agribusinesses own most of the farms around here.

ag•ri•cul•tur•al /ˌægrɪˈkʌlʧərəl/ adj

1 : of, relating to, or used in farming or agriculture ▪ agricultural machinery ▪ agricultural methods ▪ the state's main agricultural product ▪ rich agricultural land

2 : engaged in or concerned with farming or agriculture ▪ an agricultural society ▪ an important agricultural center ▪ a small agricultural community

– ag•ri•cul•tur•al•ly adv

ag•ri•cul•ture /ˈægrɪˌkʌlʧə/ noun [noncount] : the science or occupation of farming ▪ They cleared the land to use it for agriculture. — compare HORTICULTURE

– ag•ri•cul•tur•ist /ˌægrɪˈkʌlʧərəlɪst/ or ag•ri•cul•tur•al•ist /ˌægrɪˈkʌlʧərəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ skilled agriculturists

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

agron•o•my /əˈgrɑːnəmi/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with the methods used by farmers to raise crops and care for the soil – agron•o•mist /əˈgrɑnəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count]

aground /əˈgraʊnd/ adv : on or onto the ground ▪ The ship ran/went aground during the storm last night. [=the bottom of the ship struck and became stuck on the ground under the water] ▪ The boat ran aground on a reef.

ah /ˈɑː/ interj — used to express pleasure, relief, etc. ▪ Ah, I remember the good old days. ▪ Ah, that feels good. ▪ Ah, so that's where the idea came from! ▪ Ah, yes, now I remember.

aha /ɑˈhɑː/ interj — used when something is suddenly seen, found, or understood ▪ Aha! I knew it was you! ▪ Aha! So that's how it's supposed to work.

ahead /əˈhɛd/ adv
1 a : in or toward the front ▪ The road stretched ahead for many miles. ▪ Someone was standing in the road (up) ahead. ▪ We knew the way ahead [=forward] was difficult, but we persevered. ▪ "Full speed ahead!" shouted the captain. ▪ He was looking straight ahead. [=directly forward] b : to or toward the place where someone is going ▪ I can't leave yet. You go on ahead. I'll catch up later. ▪ She was delayed at the airport so she sent her bags ahead to the hotel.
2 : in, into, or for the future ▪ We need to think/plan ahead. ▪ The past year has been successful and, looking ahead, we expect to do even better in the coming months. ▪ We have some hard work ahead. ▪ He expects to be very busy in the weeks ahead. ▪ We don't know what lies ahead. ▪ We'll pause now for a commercial. The weather report is just ahead. [=the weather report will be broadcast after the commercial]
3 : in the lead in a race or competition ▪ They were trailing by 5 points earlier in the game, but now they're ahead [=winning] by 7. ▪ They scored three runs to go ahead by two. ▪ a politician who is ahead in the polls ▪ We're winning now, but we have to work hard to stay/keep ahead.
4 : in or toward a better position ▪ I came out $20 ahead on the deal. [=I made a profit of $20 on the deal] ▪ He's very ambitious. He'll do anything to get ahead. [=to become successful]
5 : at an earlier time ▪ She prepared most of the food ahead. [=ahead of time] ▪ make payments ahead

ahead of prep
1 : in, at, or to a place before (someone or something) ▪ She got ahead of me. ▪ Someone was standing in the road just a few yards (up) ahead of us. ▪ They went on ahead of us and by now are several miles ahead of us.
2 : in the future for (someone or something) ▪ We have some hard work ahead of us.
3 : having a lead or advantage over (a competitor) ▪ The polls show that he is ahead of the other candidates. ▪ The company is working hard to stay one step ahead of the competition. ▪ They were trailing us by 5 points earlier in the game, but now they're ahead of us by 7.
4 a : better than (something) ▪ The company's earnings are (way/far) ahead of forecasts. [=are (much) better than they were expected to be] b : in a more advanced position than (someone or something) ▪ He was a year ahead of me in school. [=he finished school a year before I did] ✧ If you are ahead of your time or if your ideas, creations, etc., are ahead of their time, you are too advanced or modern to be understood or appreciated during the time when you live or work. ▪ As a poet, he was ahead of his time. His poems, now regarded as classics, were unpopular when he wrote them.
5 : at an earlier time than (someone or something) : sooner than (someone or something) ▪ They arrived at the party a few minutes ahead of [=before] us. ▪ They're hoping to work out an agreement well ahead of [=before] the deadline. ▪ She prepared most of the food ahead of time. [=beforehand] ▪ It looks like we can finish the project ahead of schedule. [=earlier than planned]

ahem /əˈhɛm/ interj — used in writing to represent a sound that is like a quiet cough that people make especially to attract attention or to express disapproval or embarrassment

ahoy /əˈhoɪ/ interj — used by a sailor who is calling out to a passing ship or boat ▪ Ship ahoy! ▪ Ahoy there, mate!

AI abbr artificial intelligence

[1]aid /ˈeɪd/ verb aids; aid•ed; aid•ing : to provide what is useful or necessary : HELP [+ obj] They gave money in order to aid the cause. ▪ She aided them in their efforts. ▪ He jumped into the water to aid the drowning child. ▪ His position was aided [=strengthened] by the fact that he was right. ▪ a home run that was aided by the wind ▪ aiding the poor ▪ She aided the government in the attempt to fight illiteracy. ▪ She is charged with aiding and abetting [=helping and encouraging] the thief in his getaway. [no obj] — usually + in ▪ She aided in the attempt to fight illiteracy. ▪ His research aided in the discovery of a new treatment for cancer. ▪ The research aided in establishing new theories.

[2]aid noun, pl aids
1 [noncount] : the act of helping someone : help or assistance given to someone ▪ The teacher enlisted/sought the aid of several students for the project. [=the teacher asked several students to help with the project] ▪ The project was completed with the aid of several students. ▪ The work was done with the aid of a computer. ▪ I can no longer read without the aid of glasses. [=without using glasses] ▪ When the climbers became trapped by bad weather, a rescue party was sent to their aid. [=was sent to help/rescue them]
2 [noncount] a : something (such as money, food, or equipment) that is given by a government or an organization to help the people in a country or area where many people are suffering because of poverty, disease, etc. ▪ The government has given millions of dollars in economic/foreign aid to these nations. ▪ humanitarian aid — often used before another noun ▪ international aid organizations ▪ an aid worker [=a person who goes to a foreign country to help the people there] b : money that is given to a student to help pay for the cost of attending a school ▪ She applied for financial/student aid in order to go to college.
3 [count] a : something that provides help or assistance ▪ The diagram is provided as an aid to understanding. ▪ The computer is an aid to keeping costs down. b : a device, object, etc., that makes something easier to do ▪ He teaches art with visual aids. ▪ aids to navigation = navigational aids ▪ instructional/learning aids ▪ a pill used as an aid for sleeping = a sleeping aid — see also FIRST AID, HEARING AID
4 [count] chiefly US : a person whose job is to assist someone : AIDE ▪ She works as a teacher's aid.
in aid of chiefly Brit : in order to help (something or someone) ▪ The event is being held in aid of charity. ▪ in aid of refugees ✧ The informal British expression What's (all) this/that in aid of? is used to ask about the purpose of something. ▪ "What's all this rushing about in aid of, then?" [=what's all this rushing about for?] "We're trying to get things ready for the boss's visit."

aide /ˈeɪd/ noun, pl aides [count] : a person whose job is to assist someone : ASSISTANT ▪ a nurse's aide ▪ a teacher's aide ▪ The senate office hired several congressional aides. ▪ a presidential aide

aide–de–camp /ˌeɪddəˈkæmp, Brit ˌeɪddəˈkɑːmp/ noun, pl aides–de–camp /ˌeɪdzdəˈkæmp, Brit ˌeɪdzdəˈkɑːmp/ [count] : a military officer who assists another high-ranking officer

AIDS /ˈeɪdz/ noun [noncount] : a serious disease of the immune system that is caused by infection with a virus ✧ AIDS is an abbreviation for acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

ail /ˈeɪl/ verb ails; ailed; ail•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause pain or trouble for (someone) : TROUBLE ▪ This medicine is good for what/whatever ails you. ▪ His back was ailing him. — often used figuratively ▪ a discussion about what ails public education these days
2 [no obj] : to suffer bad health ▪ She has been ailing for years. — often used figuratively ▪ The company is ailing financially.
– ailing adj ▪ He has an ailing back/elbow/heart. ▪ her ailing husband ▪ in ailing health ▪ the ailing economy ▪ an ailing company

ail•le•ron /ˈeɪləˌrɑːn/ noun, pl -rons [count] technical : a part of an airplane wing that can be moved up or down to cause the airplane to turn — see picture at AIRPLANE ail•ment /ˈeɪlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a sickness or illness ▪ She suffered from a chronic back ailment. ▪ a kidney/liver/lung/skin ailment ▪ The doctor treated him for a variety of ailments.

[1]aim /ˈeɪm/ verb aims; aimed; aim•ing
1 a : to point (a weapon) at a target [+ obj] He aimed the gun carefully before shooting. ▪ Don't aim that pistol at me! [no obj] He aimed carefully before shooting. ▪ Ready, aim, fire! b : to point (a device) at something [+ obj] aim a camera ▪ Try to aim the antenna in the right direction. ▪ She aimed the telescope at a point in the eastern sky. [no obj] She aimed at a point in the eastern sky. c [+ obj] : to direct (something, such as a missile, a ball, a punch, or a kick) at a target ▪ He aimed the stone at the dog but missed. ▪ The

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

throw from the shortstop was poorly/badly aimed. ▪ well-aimed and badly aimed kicks/punches

2 : to have a specified goal or purpose [no obj] If you want to be successful, you have to aim high. [=you have to be ambitious] — often + at ▪ The movie aims at comedy [=the movie is intended to be a comedy], but it really isn't very funny. ▪ a political movement that aims at promoting world peace — often + for ▪ The movie aims for comedy. ▪ aim for a goal ▪ If you're trying to lose weight, you should give yourself a goal/target to aim for. [+ obj] — followed by to + verb ▪ a political movement that aims to promote world peace ▪ They aim [=intend] to reform the government. ▪ We aim [=plan] to arrive there at around noon. ▪ We aim to please.

3 [+ obj] : to direct (something) at a particular goal, group of people, etc. ▪ He aimed his criticism primarily at parents. — usually used as (be) aimed ▪ His criticism was aimed primarily at parents. ▪ The television program is aimed directly/primarily at children. [=is intended mainly for children] ▪ The new system is aimed at reducing costs. [=the purpose of the new system is to reduce costs] ▪ a political movement that is aimed at promoting world peace

[2]aim noun, pl aims

1 [count] : a goal or purpose ▪ a political movement whose aim is to promote world peace ▪ Our ultimate aim is to create something of lasting value. ▪ The book has two basic aims. ▪ She was unable to achieve her aims. ▪ I started this business with the aim of making a profit.

2 [noncount] : the ability to hit a target ▪ His aim was good. ▪ He fired at the target but his aim was off/bad and he missed.

take aim 1 : to point a weapon at a target ▪ He took careful aim at the target. [=he aimed carefully at the target] 2 US : to have a specified goal or intention ▪ The runner took aim at setting a record. [=the runner's goal was to set a record] 3 : to have something as the object of an action or effort ▪ Investigators are taking aim at [=targeting] health-care fraud. [=investigators are intending to punish/stop health-care fraud]

aim•less /ˈeɪmləs/ adj : not having a goal or purpose ▪ an aimless young person ▪ an aimless conversation

– aim•less•ly adv ▪ She liked to wander aimlessly around the park. ▪ driving around aimlessly – aim•less•ness noun [noncount] He lived a life of aimlessness. [singular] There was an aimlessness to his life.

ain't /ˈeɪnt/

1 : am not ▪ I ain't worried. : are not ▪ They ain't interested. : is not ▪ It's a free country, ain't it?

2 : have not ▪ Those people ain't got a clue. : has not ▪ Her husband left and she ain't never been the same.

> usage Ain't is usually regarded as an error, but it is common in the very informal speech of some people and it is also used in informal and humorous phrases. ▪ That joke just ain't funny. ▪ Say it ain't so! ▪ You ain't seen nothing yet! ▪ Two out of three ain't bad. ▪ If it ain't broke don't fix it! ▪ Things ain't what they used to be. ▪ Ain't that the truth?

[1]air /ˈeɚ/ noun, pl airs

1 [noncount] a : the invisible mixture of gases (such as nitrogen and oxygen) that surrounds the Earth and that people and animals breathe ▪ These laws are meant to produce cleaner air. ▪ A delicious smell filled the air. ▪ I like to dine outdoors in the open air. ▪ cool/warm air ▪ fresh air ▪ a sudden gust of air [=wind] ▪ polluted air ▪ stale air ▪ the hot summer air ▪ He can't breathe! Everybody move back and give him some air! ▪ High in the mountains the air is thin and it can be hard to breathe. ▪ He pumped air into the bicycle tire. ▪ My keys seem to have vanished/disappeared into thin air. [=to have vanished in a very sudden and mysterious way] ▪ He seemed to appear out of thin air. [=in a very sudden and mysterious way] — see also a breath of fresh air at BREATH b : the space or sky that is filled with air ▪ land, water, and air ▪ The city is wonderful seen from the air. ▪ the fish of the sea and the birds of the air ▪ The balloon rose up into the air and then floated through/in the air. ▪ There has been heavy fighting on the ground and in the air.

2 [noncount] : methods of travel that involve flying ▪ travel by air [=by flying in airplanes] — often used before another noun ▪ an air attack ▪ air safety ▪ air travel/travelers

3 [singular] : a quality that a person or thing has ▪ a dignified air — often + of ▪ an air of dignity ▪ The new furniture has given the hotel an air of luxury. ▪ He has an air of mystery about him. [=he has a mysterious quality]

4 [count] old-fashioned : a song or tune ▪ a pleasing air

5 [noncount] US : AIR-CONDITIONING ▪ a house with central air clear the air : to talk about problems, feelings, etc., in order to reach agreement or understanding ▪ They cleared the air (between them) by discussing their differences.

floating on air or walking on air : feeling very happy ▪ After he won the election, he was walking on air.

give yourself airs or put on airs : to act in a way that shows you think you are better than other people ▪ Some of her old friends have accused her of putting on airs since she became wealthy. ▪ She's very rich, but she doesn't give herself airs. ✧ In British English, the phrase airs and graces describes an overly superior or proud way of behaving. ▪ She's very rich, but she doesn't give herself any airs and graces. = She doesn't have any airs and graces. = She doesn't put on any airs and graces.

hang in the air see hang in at [1]HANG in the air 1 : felt or sensed by many people ▪ There was a great sense of anticipation in the air as game time approached. 2 : expected to happen soon ▪ Many changes are in the air.

nose in the air see [1]NOSE

off the air of a radio or television station, program, etc. : not being broadcast ▪ The station is now off the air. ▪ They took him off the air because of his extreme views. ▪ It was my favorite show, but it went off the air [=stopped being broadcast] last year.

on the air also on air of a radio or television station, program, etc. : being broadcast ▪ The interview will be on the air tomorrow. [=the interview will air tomorrow; the interview will be broadcast tomorrow] ▪ an interview being shown on air ▪ a show that first came/went on the air [=started being broadcast] five years ago ▪ The President went on the air to defend his policies.

up in the air : not yet settled or decided ▪ Our vacation plans are still up in the air.

– air•less /ˈeɚləs/ adj ▪ a hot, airless room

[2]air verb airs; aired; air•ing

1 a : to place something in an open area where there is a lot of moving air to make it cool, dry, or clean [+ obj] air a blanket ▪ air damp clothing [no obj] The blankets were left outside to air. b : to allow air from the outside to enter something (such as a room) so that it becomes fresher or cleaner [+ obj] She opened the windows to air the room. — usually + out in U.S. English ▪ She opened the windows to air out the room. ▪ air out a closet [no obj] — usually + out in U.S. English ▪ She opened the windows to let the room air out.

2 [+ obj] : to make (something) known in public : to state (something) publicly ▪ The company had a meeting so that employees could air their complaints/grievances. ▪ publicly airing their differences ▪ Let's not air our dirty laundry [=discuss our problems, make our problems known] in public.

3 : to broadcast something on radio or television [+ obj] air a program ▪ The interview will be aired tomorrow. [no obj] The program airs daily. ▪ The interview will air tomorrow.

air bag noun, pl ∼ bags [count] : a bag that fills with air to protect a driver or passenger when a vehicle crashes air ball noun, pl ∼ balls [count] basketball : a shot that completely misses the basket

air base noun, pl ∼ bases [count] : a place where military aircraft take off and land : a base of operations for military aircraft

air bed noun, pl ∼ beds [count] : AIR MATTRESS

air•borne /ˈeɚˌboɚn/ adj

1 : in the air : moving or being carried through the air ▪ Once the plane was airborne I loosened my seat belt. ▪ airborne dust particles

2 of soldiers : specially trained to jump from airplanes into enemy territory for battle ▪ Thousands of airborne troops parachuted behind enemy lines. ▪ airborne forces; also : of or relating to airborne soldiers ▪ airborne combat ▪ airborne divisions/operations

[1]air•brush /ˈeɚˌbrʌʃ/ noun, pl -brush•es [count] : a device that is used to spray a liquid (such as paint) onto a surface

[2]airbrush verb -brush•es; -brushed; -brush•ing [+ obj] : to paint or treat (something, such as a photograph) with an airbrush especially to make improvements ▪ That photograph must have been airbrushed. ▪ The model's blemishes were airbrushed out in the photograph. [=an airbrush was used to change the photograph so that the model's blemishes could not be seen] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The authorities tried to airbrush out their mistake and pretend it had never happened.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

Air•bus /'eəˌbʌs/ trademark — used for a jet plane that carries passengers for short distances air conditioner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a machine that is used to cool and dry the air in a building, room, etc.

air–con•di•tion•ing /ˌeəkən'dɪʃənɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a system used for cooling and drying the air in a building, room, etc. ▪ She wanted her house to have air-conditioning. ▪ We bought a car with air-conditioning. — often used before another noun ▪ an air-conditioning system ▪ air-conditioning ducts/equipment — abbr. AC

– air–con•di•tioned /ˌeəkən'dɪʃənd/ adj ▪ an air-conditioned building/room/car

air•craft /'eəˌkræft, Brit 'ɛəˌkrɑ:ft/ noun, pl aircraft [count] : a machine (such as an airplane or a helicopter) that flies through the air ▪ a new military aircraft ▪ a company that manufactures aircraft — often used before another noun ▪ an aircraft engine ▪ aircraft parts aircraft carrier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a military ship that has a large deck where aircraft take off and land air•drop /'eəˌdrɑ:p/ noun, pl -drops [count] : the act or action of delivering supplies by parachute from an airplane during an emergency when other methods are not possible ▪ The group organized an airdrop of food for the refugees.

– air–drop /'eəˌdrɑ:p/ verb -drops; -dropped; -drop•ping [+ obj] ▪ Supplies were air-dropped to the refugees.

air–dry /'eəˈdraɪ/ verb -dries; -dried; -dry•ing : to dry something by placing it in an open area where there is a lot of moving air [+ obj] air-dry a blanket [no obj] She let the blanket air-dry before she put it away.

air•fare /'eəˌfeə/ noun, pl -fares [count] : the money a person pays to travel on an airplane ▪ round-trip airfare

air• eld /'eəˌfi:ld/ noun, pl - elds [count] : a field or airport where airplanes take off and land ▪ a military airfield air force noun, pl ~ forces [count] : the part of a country's military forces that fights with airplanes ▪ the combined allied air forces — usually capitalized when a specific air force is being referred to ▪ the British Air Force ▪ She joined the (U.S.) Air Force after she graduated from high school.

air gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a gun that uses air pressure to shoot small pellets air•head /'eəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a silly and stupid person ▪ She is not the airhead you think she is.

air•ing /'erɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : an occurrence in which something is aired: such as a [singular] : an occurrence in which something (such as an idea) is made known to many people so that it can be discussed ▪ His ideas deserve an airing. [=his ideas deserve to be aired] ▪ A full airing of the issue is scheduled. b [count] : an occurrence in which a radio or television program is broadcast ▪ The series had its first airing [=the series was first aired/broadcast] on a local channel. ▪ the airing [=broadcast] of a presidential debate c [count] : an occurrence in which fresh air is allowed to fill a place or to surround something ▪ give the room an airing [=air the room] by opening the windows airing cupboard noun, pl ~ -boards [count] Brit : a heated cupboard in which sheets, towels, clothes, etc., are kept warm and dry

air•lift /'eəˌlɪft/ noun, pl -lifts [count] : an occurrence in which people or things are carried to or from a place by airplanes during an emergency when other methods are not possible ▪ an emergency airlift to deliver supplies to the famine victims

– airlift verb -lifts; -lift•ed; -lift•ing [+ obj] ▪ Soldiers were airlifted to the frontier's borders. ▪ The organization was airlifting supplies to the famine victims.

air•line /'eəˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : a company that owns and operates many airplanes which are used for carrying passengers and goods to different places ▪ a major airline — often used before another noun ▪ an airline pilot ▪ airline passengers air•lin•er /'eəˌlaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a large airplane used for carrying passengers air lock noun, pl ~ locks [count] : a small room that has two doors which can be sealed tightly so that no air enters or leaves and that is used for moving between two spaces with different air pressures in a submarine, spaceship, etc.

air•mail /'eəˌmeɪl/ noun [noncount] : the system used for sending mail by aircraft ▪ The package was sent by/via airmail.; also : mail sent by using this system ▪ a bag of airmail — often used before another noun ▪ an airmail letter ▪ airmail postage

– airmail verb -mails; -mailed; -mail•ing [+ obj] ▪ He airmailed the letter/package to me. = He airmailed me the letter/package.

air•man /'eəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a member of the air force with a rank below that of sergeant air mattress noun, pl ~ -tress•es [count] : a soft plastic case that can be filled with air and used as a bed — called also air bed; see picture at CAMPING

air•plane /'eəˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] US : a machine that has wings and an engine and that flies through the air ▪ traveling on/in an airplane = traveling by airplane — called also plane, (Brit) aeroplane air•play /'eəˌpleɪ/ noun [noncount] : time when a musical recording is played by a radio station ▪ Her latest record is getting a lot of airplay. [=is being played frequently on the radio] ▪ heavy/light airplay

air pocket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a movement or condition of the air that causes an airplane to make a brief and sudden downward drop air•port /'eəˌpoət/ noun, pl -ports [count] : a place where aircraft land and take off and where there are buildings for passengers to wait in and for aircraft to be sheltered air pump noun, pl ~ pumps [count] : a pump used for removing air from or adding air to something (such as a tire)

air raid noun, pl ~ raids [count] : an attack in which a place is bombed by military airplanes ▪ Much of the city was destroyed in an air raid. ▪ an air-raid shelter air ri e noun, pl ~ ri es [count] : a rifle that uses air pressure to shoot small pellets air•ship /'eəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : a very large aircraft that does not have wings but that has a body filled with gas so that it floats and that is driven through the air by engines air show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a public event at an airport where different kinds of aircraft are shown and pilots use their skills to fly in unusual and exciting ways

air•sick /'eəˌsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling sick in the stomach while riding in an airplane because of its motion

– air•sick•ness noun [noncount]

air•space /'eəˌspeɪs/ noun [noncount] : the space that is above a country and that is legally controlled by that country ▪ seeking permission to fly through U.S. airspace

air•speed /'eəˌspi:d/ noun, pl -speeds [count] : the speed at which an aircraft moves through the air air strike noun, pl ~ strikes [count] : an attack in which military airplanes drop bombs ▪ The strategy calls for air strikes on key targets.

air•strip /'eəˌstrɪp/ noun, pl -strips [count] : an area of land that is used as a runway for airplanes to take off and land

air•tight /'eəˌtaɪt/ adj

1 : tightly sealed so that no air can get in or out ▪ Store the food in an airtight container.

2 : too strong or effective to fail or to be defeated ▪ an airtight argument ▪ The defendant had an airtight alibi.

air•time /'eəˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : time during a radio or television broadcast : time when something is on the air ▪ The committee plans to buy radio/TV airtime for the campaign ads. ▪ The replay got a lot of airtime. [=the replay was broadcast frequently] air–to–air /ˌeətə'weə/ adj : shot from one flying airplane at another ▪ The enemy planes attacked our bombers with air-to-air missiles.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

air traffic control noun [noncount]
1 : a system through which people on the ground give instructions by radio to aircraft pilots
2 : the people who give instructions to aircraft pilots by radio ▪ The pilot had permission to land from air traffic control.

air traffic controller noun, pl ~ -lers [count] : a person whose job is to give instructions to aircraft pilots by radio air•waves /ˈeɚˌweɪvz/ noun [plural] : the signals used to broadcast radio and television programs ▪ The ads have begun to fill network airwaves. [=to appear frequently on network television] — usually used with the ▪ The ads have begun to fill the airwaves. ▪ The band's new recording hit the airwaves [=was broadcast for the first time] yesterday. ▪ news being broadcast on/over the airwaves

air•way /ˈeɚˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count]
1 medical : the area in the throat through which air passes to and from the lungs ▪ a patient with a partially blocked airway — often plural ▪ a patient with partially blocked airways
2 : a route along which airplanes regularly fly
3 — used in the names of some airlines ▪ British Airways air•wor•thy /ˈeɚˌwɚði/ adj [more ~; most ~] : fit or safe for flying ▪ The agency considered the plane airworthy. ▪ an airworthy helicopter — compare ROADWORTHY, SEAWORTHY – air•wor•thi•ness noun [noncount]

airy /ˈeri/ adj air•i•er; -est
1 : having a lot of open space through which air can move freely ▪ The room is open, light, and airy. ▪ an airy restaurant
2 : having a light or careless quality that shows a lack of concern ▪ He refused with an airy wave of his hand.
3 : very light or delicate ▪ an airy fabric
4 : high in the air : LOFTY ▪ The hawk gazed down from its airy perch.
– air•i•ly /ˈerəli/ adv ▪ He airily dismissed all advice. – air•i•ness /ˈerinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the airiness of the room

airy–fairy /ˈeriˈferi/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal + disapproving : not having substance or purpose : not practical ▪ a vague and airy-fairy fantasy/notion ▪ The idea sounded a bit airy-fairy.

aisle /ˈajəl/ noun, pl aisles [count] : a passage where people walk: such as a : a passage between sections of seats in a church, theater, airplane, etc. — see picture at THEATER ▪ The bride walked down/up the aisle to the altar. ▪ He likes to sit on the aisle. = He likes to sit in the aisle seat. [=he likes to sit in the seat next to the aisle] ▪ By the end of the concert, the people in the theater were dancing in the aisles. ✧ When the people of an audience are laughing a lot, they can be described as rolling in the aisles. ▪ a new comedy that has audiences rolling in the aisles all across the country b : a passage where people walk through a store, market, etc. ▪ supermarket aisles walk down the aisle also go down the aisle informal : to get married ▪ She's been married twice before, and she's going to walk down the aisle again next week.

ajar /əˈʤɑɚ/ adj, not used before a noun : slightly open ▪ He left the door ajar. ▪ Her mouth was slightly ajar.

AK abbr Alaska

aka /ˌeɪˌkeɪˈeɪ/ abbr also known as — used to indicate another name that a person or thing has or uses ▪ Elvis Presley, aka "The King"

akim•bo /əˈkɪmboʊ/ adj, not used before a noun
1 of the arms : with the hands on the hips and the elbows turned outward ▪ She stood with arms akimbo.
2 of the legs : spread apart in a bent position ▪ sitting with legs akimbo akin /əˈkɪn/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : similar or related ▪ The two languages are closely akin. — usually + to ▪ The two languages are closely akin to one another. ▪ a feeling akin to loneliness [=a feeling that resembles loneliness] ▪ To break your promise to him would be akin to betraying your friendship.

AL abbr Alabama

[1]-al adj suffix : of, relating to, or characterized by ▪ direction*al* ▪ fiction*al* ▪ operation*al*

[2]-al noun suffix : action : process ▪ rehears*al* ▪ withdraw*al*

à la /ˌɑːˌlɑː/ prep : in the manner or style of (someone or something) ▪ walking with a swagger à la John Wayne al•a•bas•ter /ˈælәˌbæstɚ, Brit ˈælәˌbɑːstә/ noun [noncount] : a white stone that is used to make vases and decorations — often used before another noun ▪ an alabaster vase — sometimes used figuratively ▪ her alabaster skin [=her smooth and white skin]

à la carte /ˌɑːlәˈkɑɚt/ adv : with a separate price for each item on the menu ▪ decided to order à la carte
– à la carte adj ▪ an à la carte menu

alac•ri•ty /әˈlækrәti/ noun : a quick and cheerful readiness to do something [noncount] She accepted the invitation with alacrity. [=very quickly and willingly] [singular] She accepted the invitation with an alacrity that surprised me.

à la mode /ˌɑːlәˈmoʊd/ adj, not used before a noun
1 US : topped with ice cream ▪ apple pie à la mode
2 old-fashioned : stylish or fashionable ▪ a political movement that was once à la mode

[1]alarm /әˈlɑɚm/ noun, pl alarms
1 [count] a : a device that makes a loud sound as a warning or signal ▪ The alarm went off when he opened the door. ▪ a car alarm ▪ The whole town heard the alarm. ✧ In figurative usage, when alarm bells are ringing people are worried about a possible problem or danger. ▪ His long absence from school set (the) alarm bells ringing and we finally called the police. — see also BURGLAR ALARM, FALSE ALARM, FIRE ALARM, SMOKE ALARM b : ALARM CLOCK ▪ She set the alarm for six o'clock. ▪ The alarm went off at six o'clock.
2 [noncount] : a feeling of fear caused by a sudden sense of danger ▪ The rumors caused widespread alarm and concern. ▪ His parents have expressed alarm about/for his safety. ▪ The new developments are being viewed with alarm. ▪ She looked around in alarm when she heard the noise. ▪ There's no cause for alarm. [=there is no reason to be worried or afraid] synonyms see [1]FEAR
3 [count] : a warning of danger ▪ The dog's barking gave the alarm and the intruders were caught. ▪ A passerby saw the intruders and raised the alarm. ▪ They have ignored repeated alarms about the dangers of smoking. ▪ Economists have raised/sounded the alarm [=have warned people] about a possible recession. ▪ Economists have been raising/sounding alarms about a possible recession.

[2]alarm verb alarms; alarmed; alarm•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel a sense of danger : to worry or frighten (someone) ▪ I didn't mean to alarm you. ▪ The rapid spread of the disease has alarmed many people.
– alarmed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I was alarmed to see how sick he is. ▪ Many people are alarmed about/at/by the rapid spread of the disease. – alarming adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an alarming number of problems ▪ It is alarming to see how quickly the disease is spreading. ▪ The team lost with alarming frequency. – alarm•ing•ly /әˈlɑɚmɪŋli/ adv

alarm clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a clock that can be set to sound an alarm at any desired time ▪ She set the alarm clock for six o'clock. ▪ The alarm clock went off at six o'clock.

alarm•ist /әˈlɑɚmɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who spreads unnecessary fear about something that is not truly dangerous ▪ He wanted to alert people without sounding like an alarmist. ▪ He claims that alarmists have exaggerated the economy's problems.
– alarm•ism /әˈlɑɚˌmɪzәm/ noun [noncount] – alarm•ist adj ▪ an alarmist report ▪ alarmist critics alas /әˈlæs/ interj, old-fashioned + literary — used to express sadness, sorrow, disappointment, etc. ▪ How did they fare? Alas, not very well. ▪ Life, alas, is all too short.

al•ba•tross /ˈælbәˌtrɑːs/ noun, pl -tross•es [count]
1 : a large white ocean bird that has very long wings
2 : a continuing problem that makes it difficult or impossible to do or achieve something ▪ Fame has become an albatross that prevents her from leading a normal and happy life. ▪ Fame has become an albatross around her neck.

al•be•it /ɑlˈbiːjәt/ conj, formal : even though : ALTHOUGH ▪ She appeared on the show, albeit briefly. ▪ It was an amazing computer, albeit expensive.

al•bi•no /ælˈbaɪnoʊ, Brit ælˈbiːnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] : a person or animal born with a medical condition that results in very pale skin, white hair, and pink eyes
– al•bi•nism /ˈælbәˌnɪzәm/ noun [noncount] – albino adj ▪ an albino mouse

al•bum /ˈælbәm/ noun, pl -bums [count]
1 : a book with blank pages in which you put a collection of photographs, stamps, etc. ▪ a photo/stamp album ▪ I've been working on our wedding/family album. [=book of wedding/family photographs]
2 : a long musical recording on a record, CD, etc., that usually includes a set of songs ▪ She played a track from the group's latest album. ▪ a 2-CD album ▪ a pop/jazz/country album — compare [2]SINGLE 4

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

al•bu•men /ælˈbju:mən, Brit ˈælbjʊmən/ noun [noncount] technical : the part of the inside of an egg that is clear before it is cooked and white after it is cooked : the white of an egg

al•che•my /ˈælkəmi/ noun, pl -mies
1 [noncount] : a science that was used in the Middle Ages with the goal of changing ordinary metals into gold
2 : a power or process that changes or transforms something in a mysterious or impressive way [noncount] She practiced her alchemy in the kitchen, turning a pile of vegetables into a delicious salad. [count] The company hoped for some sort of economic alchemy that would improve business.
– al•che•mist /ˈælkəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count]

al•co•hol /ˈælkəˌhɑ:l/ noun, pl -hols
1 : a clear liquid that has a strong smell, that is used in some medicines and other products, and that is the substance in liquors (such as beer, wine, or whiskey) that can make a person drunk [noncount] cough medicine that contains alcohol ▪ drinks that are high in alcohol ▪ There was a high level of alcohol in his blood at the time of the accident. ▪ drug and alcohol abuse [count] a mixture of different alcohols — see also RUBBING ALCOHOL
2 [noncount] : drinks containing alcohol ▪ The restaurant had a license to serve alcohol. ▪ She doesn't drink alcohol.

[1]al•co•hol•ic /ˌælkəˈhɑ:lɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : of, containing, or caused by alcohol ▪ an alcoholic odor ▪ alcoholic drinks/beverages ▪ a slightly more alcoholic wine ▪ alcoholic liver disease
2 : affected with alcoholism ▪ She has an alcoholic uncle.
– al•co•hol•i•cal•ly /ˌælkəˈhɑ:lɪkli/ adv

[2]alcoholic noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who frequently drinks too much alcohol and is unable to live a normal and healthy life : a person who is affected with alcoholism ▪ Her uncle is an alcoholic. ▪ a recovering alcoholic

al•co•hol•ism /ˈælkəˌhɑ:ˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a medical condition in which someone frequently drinks too much alcohol and becomes unable to live a normal and healthy life

al•cove /ˈælˌkoʊv/ noun, pl -coves [count] : a small section of a room that is set back from the rest of it al den•te /alˈdɛnteɪ/ adj : cooked but still firm ▪ al dente carrots ▪ al dente pasta = pasta al dente

– al dente adv ▪ The pasta was cooked al dente.

al•der /ˈɑ:ldə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a type of tree or shrub that grows in wet ground in some northern countries

al•der•man /ˈɑ:ldəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]
1 : a member of a city government in the U.S., Canada, and Australia ▪ the board of aldermen
2 : a senior member of an English town, county, or borough council who is elected by the other members — not used officially in Britain after 1974
– al•der•man•ic /ˌɑ:ldəˈmænɪk/ adj

ale /ˈeɪl/ noun, pl ales : an alcoholic drink that is similar to beer [noncount] a glass of ale [count] The bar serves two very different ales. — see also GINGER ALE

aleck see SMART-ALECK

ale•house /ˈeɪlˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] Brit, old-fashioned : a place where people used to drink ale and beer

[1]alert /əˈlət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to think clearly and to notice things ▪ An alert guard stopped the robbers. ▪ The nurse kept/stayed alert for any change [=watched for any change] in the patient's condition. ▪ He was tired and had trouble staying alert while he was driving. ▪ She wasn't mentally alert enough to answer the questions. ▪ an alert mind ▪ An alert watchdog guarded the door. — often + to ▪ The nurse should be alert to any change in the patient's condition. ▪ He is alert to [=aware of] his duties as a father.
– alert•ly adv ▪ A watchdog alertly guarded the door.
– alert•ness noun [noncount]

[2]alert noun, pl alerts
1 [count] : something (such as a message or loud sound) that tells people there is some danger or problem : an alarm or signal of danger ▪ They sounded an alert when enemy planes were approaching the city. ▪ Medical officials have put out an alert to hospitals to look out for the virus. ▪ The government has issued a terrorism/security alert.
2 [noncount] : the state of being ready for something you have been warned about (such as an attack) — used with on ▪ We need to be on alert for any sudden changes. ▪ The attack could come at any time, so the soldiers need to be on full alert. ▪ The recently flooded community is again on high alert as more rain is expected. — see also RED ALERT on the alert : looking for or expecting something (such as danger or an opportunity) ▪ The soldiers need to be on the alert at all times. — often + for ▪ When you're driving in winter you should always be on the alert for icy conditions. ▪ I'm always on the alert for a good bargain.

[3]alert verb alerts; alert•ed; alert•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (someone) important information about a possible problem, danger, etc. : to warn (someone) ▪ Several neighbors alerted the authorities/police when they noticed strangers acting suspiciously. ▪ The governor alerted island residents that a hurricane was coming.
2 : to make (someone) aware of something ▪ The teacher alerted the students that tests would be given the next day. — often + to ▪ A friend recently alerted me to the existence of a new museum in my city. ▪ We need to alert the public to the dangers of these chemicals. [=we need to tell the public about the dangers of these chemicals]

A level noun, pl A levels [count] Brit : an advanced test in a particular subject that students in England, Wales, and Northern Ireland take usually at the age of 18 ▪ The university requires at least three A levels. ▪ She got an A in her A levels in maths, physics, and chemistry. — called also Advanced level; compare O LEVEL, S LEVEL

al•fal•fa /ælˈfælfə/ noun [noncount] : a type of plant that is grown mostly as food for farm animals al•fres•co /ælˈfrɛskoʊ/ adv : in the open air : OUTDOORS, OUTSIDE ▪ an artist who likes to paint alfresco ▪ We dined alfresco.

– alfresco adj ▪ alfresco dining ▪ an alfresco restaurant [=a restaurant with outdoor dining] al•gae /ˈælʤi/ noun [plural] : simple plants that have no leaves or stems and that grow in or near water ▪ pond algae ▪ seaweeds and other algae

al•ge•bra /ˈælʤəbrə/ noun [noncount] : a branch of mathematics that uses numbers and letters that represent numbers
– al•ge•bra•ic /ˌælʤəˈbreɪɪk/ adj ▪ algebraic equations/problems

al•go•rithm /ˈælgəˌrɪðəm/ noun, pl -rithms [count] technical : a set of steps that are followed in order to solve a mathematical problem or to complete a computer process

[1]ali•as /ˈeɪlijəs/ adv : also called : otherwise known as — used to indicate an additional name that a person (such as a criminal) sometimes uses ▪ The thief was identified as John Smith, alias Richard Jones. [=John Smith, who is also known as Richard Jones]

[2]alias noun, pl -as•es [count] : an additional name that a person (such as a criminal) sometimes uses ▪ a fugitive using several aliases ▪ He was traveling under an alias. [=he was traveling under an assumed name; he was using a name that was not his real name]

al•i•bi /ˈælәˌbaɪ/ noun, pl -bis [count]
1 : a claim that you cannot be guilty of a crime because you were somewhere else when the crime was committed ▪ Nobody could confirm his alibi that he was at the movies. ▪ He has an ironclad/perfect alibi. [=an alibi that cannot be proved false]; also : evidence which shows that such a claim is true ▪ Her doctor is her alibi: she was in surgery at the time of the murder.
2 : an excuse for not being somewhere or doing something ▪ She made up an alibi for why she missed the meeting.

[1]alien /ˈeɪlijən/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : not familiar or like other things you have known : different from what you are used to ▪ She felt lost in an alien [=strange] culture when she moved to the city. ▪ an alien environment ▪ Honesty seems to be an alien concept in that family. [=people in that family are not honest] — often + to ▪ The whole idea of having a job was alien [=unfamiliar, foreign] to him.
2 : from another country : FOREIGN ▪ alien residents
3 [more ~; most ~] : too different from something to be acceptable or suitable — + to ▪ Such behavior is totally alien to the spirit of the religion. ▪ ideas alien to [=incompatible with] democracy
4 : from somewhere other than the planet Earth ▪ an alien spaceship ▪ The movie is a story about an attack on Earth by an army of alien [=extraterrestrial] monsters.

[2]alien noun, pl aliens [count]
1 : a person who was born in a different country and is not a citizen of the country in which he or she now lives ▪ aliens seeking asylum in the U.S. ▪ illegal aliens [=foreign people who live in a country without having official permission to live there]
2 : a creature that comes from somewhere other than the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a planet Earth ▪ The movie is about an invasion by aliens. [=extraterrestrials] ▪ He claims that he was captured by space aliens.

alien•ate /ˈeɪliəˌneɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) unfriendly : to cause (someone) to stop being friendly, helpful, etc., towards you ▪ He alienated most of his colleagues with his bad temper. ▪ Her position on this issue has alienated many former supporters.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel that she or he no longer belongs in a particular group, society, etc. — + from ▪ Her position on this issue has alienated her from many voters. ▪ His drug problems have alienated him from his parents.
– alienated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He feels very alienated from his parents. ▪ alienated young people [=young people who do not feel that they have a part in society] – alien•ation /ˌeɪliəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ Her position on this issue has caused the alienation of many former supporters. ▪ His alienation from his parents stems from his drug problems. ▪ She has struggled with feelings of loneliness and alienation for much of her adult life.

[1]alight /əˈlaɪt/ verb alights; alight•ed; alight•ing [no obj] somewhat formal
1 of insects, birds, etc. : to stop on a surface after flying ▪ A butterfly alighted [=landed] on her hat.
2 : to step down from a boat, vehicle, etc. ▪ A group of tourists alighted from the boat/bus/train.
alight on/upon [phrasal verb] alight on/upon (something) : to see, notice, or think of (something) ▪ Her eye/eyes alighted on a strange man in the crowd. ▪ a speaker who easily alights upon topics that interest a wide audience

[2]alight adj, not used before a noun
1 : full of light : lighted up ▪ The sky was alight with stars. — often used figuratively ▪ a face alight with excitement ▪ The children laughed, their eyes alight.
2 chiefly Brit : on fire : ABLAZE, AFIRE ▪ Enemy soldiers set the building alight.

align /əˈlaɪn/ verb aligns; aligned; align•ing
1 : to arrange things so that they form a line or are in proper position [+ obj] The storekeeper carefully aligned [=lined up] the cans on the shelf. ▪ He aligned the two holes so he could put the screw through them. ▪ The text is aligned [=in line] with the bottom of the picture. ▪ The two parts of the machine are not properly aligned. [no obj] The two parts of the machine don't align [=line up] properly. ▪ The text aligns with the bottom of the picture.
2 [+ obj] : to change (something) so that it agrees with or matches something else ▪ The schools had to align their programs with state requirements.
3 : to join a group that is supporting or opposing something [+ obj] He has aligned himself with the protesters. [=he has joined the protesters] [no obj] She is aligning with other senators to oppose his nomination.

align•ment /əˈlaɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the state or condition of being aligned: such as a : the state of being arranged in a line or in proper position ▪ wheel alignment ▪ planetary alignment ▪ The parts were not in alignment. = The parts were out of alignment. [=the parts were not aligned] b : the state or condition of agreeing with or matching something else ▪ The school has to bring its programs into alignment with state requirements. c : the state of being joined with others in supporting or opposing something ▪ Many people were surprised by his alignment with the protesters. [=his support of the protesters]
2 [count] : an arrangement of groups or forces ▪ New alignments have been created within the political party.

[1]alike /əˈlaɪk/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : similar in appearance, nature, or form ▪ The two cars are much alike. — often + in ▪ He and his brother are alike in their beliefs. [=they have similar beliefs] ▪ two apples alike in shape

[2]alike adv [more ~; most ~] : in the same way ▪ We think alike. ▪ a film intended for parents and teenagers alike [=intended for both parents and teenagers]

al•i•men•ta•ry canal /ˌælɘˈmɛntri-/ noun, pl ~ -als [count] : the long tube in the body through which food passes after it is eaten ✧ The alimentary canal begins at the mouth and ends at the anus.

al•i•mo•ny /ˈælɘˌmoʊni, Brit ˈæləməni/ noun [noncount] : money that a court orders someone to pay regularly to a former wife or husband after a divorce

A–line /ˈeɪˌlaɪn/ adj, always used before a noun, of a piece of clothing : having a wide bottom and a close-fitting top : shaped like the letter A ▪ an A-line skirt

A–list /ˈeɪˌlɪst/ noun [singular] : a list or group of people who are very well-known or respected ▪ She's new on the celebrity A-list. ▪ A-list celebrities alive /əˈlaɪv/ adj, not used before a noun

1 : having life : living : not dead ▪ It feels great to be alive. ▪ The patient was barely alive. ▪ The sheriff was ordered to find the killer and bring him back alive. ▪ She must be the happiest woman alive. [=the happiest woman in the world] ▪ He managed to stay alive for a week without any food. ▪ The patient is being kept alive by artificial means.
2 a : continuing to exist ▪ an old tradition that is still alive ▪ We tried to keep the organization alive [=active] despite having fewer members. ▪ We need to keep hope alive. b : not yet defeated : still having a chance to win or succeed ▪ The legislation is still alive in the Senate. [=the legislation has not been defeated yet] ▪ The team needs to win tonight in order to stay alive in the play-offs.
3 [more ~; most ~] a : filled with life and energy ▪ I love to sail because it makes me feel so alive. — often + with ▪ Her face was alive with joy/happiness. b : filled with activity — usually + with ▪ flower gardens alive with bees [=filled with the activity of many bees] ▪ The city streets are alive [=busy] with shoppers.
alive and kicking : healthy and active ▪ She ran a marathon late in life, just to prove she was still alive and kicking. — often used figuratively ▪ After years of slow earnings, the industry is now alive and kicking.
alive and well 1 : living and healthy ▪ She found out that her aunt is alive and well and living in Arizona. 2 : still popular : continuing to be used ▪ Many of the old traditions are still alive and well.
alive to : aware of (something) : able to notice (something) ▪ Recovering from his illness has made him more alive to the beauty of life. ▪ We need to be alive [=sensitive] to new opportunities for our business to grow.
bring (something) alive : to make (something) seem more real or interesting ▪ The play brings the old fairy tale alive.
come alive : to become lively: such as a : to become excited and filled with energy ▪ The crowd came alive when the singer appeared on stage. b : to become filled with activity ▪ This neighborhood is quiet during the day, but it comes alive at night. c : to become exciting or appealing ▪ In her kitchen, Italian food comes alive.
eat (someone or something) alive see EAT skin (someone) alive see [2]SKIN

al•ka•li /ˈælkəˌlaɪ/ noun, pl -lies or -lis chemistry : a substance that has a bitter taste and that forms a salt when mixed with an acid [count] strong alkalis [noncount] smaller amounts of alkali ✧ An alkali has a pH of more than 7.

al•ka•line /ˈælkəˌlaɪn/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : containing an alkali ▪ alkaline soil — compare ACIDIC
2 : having the qualities of an alkali ▪ alkaline conditions
– al•ka•lin•i•ty /ˌælkəˈlɪnəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]all /ˈɑːl/ adj
1 : the whole, entire, total amount, quantity, or extent of ▪ He stayed awake all night. [=the whole/entire night] ▪ She worked hard all day. [=throughout the entire day] ▪ I've been waiting all week to see her. ▪ He had to walk all the way home. ▪ She works all year round. ▪ He'll need all the help he can get. ▪ Someone took all the candy. ▪ It was one of the greatest victories of all time. [=one of the greatest victories ever] ▪ I think about her all the time. [=I think about her constantly]
2 a : every member or part of — used with a plural noun or pronoun to mean that a statement is true of every person or thing in a group ▪ All my friends were there. ▪ a film suitable for all ages ▪ They all came late. ▪ We all need to work faster. ▪ I read all the magazines. = I read them all. ▪ All these eggs are ready. ▪ "'. . . all men are created equal . . . '" —U.S. Declaration of Independence (1776) ▪ She thinks all teenagers are alike. = She thinks teenagers are all alike. ▪ Not all teenagers are alike. = Teenagers are not all alike. ▪ They serve breakfast at all hours. [=at any hour, at any time of day] ▪ They were up till/until all hours. [=they were up very late] ▪ She has to deal with all kinds/sorts/types of people. [=with people of every kind/sort/type] b : the whole number or sum of — used with a plural noun or pronoun to mean that a statement is true of a group of people or things considered together ▪ It was great to see him again after all these years.
3 : any whatever ▪ His guilt is beyond all doubt. [=he is certainly guilty] ▪ She denied all [=any] responsibility for the accident.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

4 a : as much as possible of (something) — used to indicate the manner in which something is done ▪ He spoke in all seriousness/innocence. [=he spoke in a completely serious/innocent way] b : having or showing only (some quality, feature, etc.) ▪ The students became all attention [=became very attentive] when the teacher came in. ▪ He was all smiles with the boss. [=he was smiling constantly when he was with the boss] ▪ This drink is too strong: it's all alcohol! c — used to indicate that someone has or seems to have a lot of or too much of some physical feature ▪ an actress who is all legs [=an actress who has very long legs] — see also all ears at ¹EAR, all eyes at ¹EYE, all heart at HEART, all mouth at ¹MOUTH, all thumbs at ¹THUMB

5 US, chiefly Southern, informal — used in speech to refer to a group of people or things ▪ Who all is coming? [=who is coming?] ▪ What all do we need to do? [=what are the things that we need to do?] — see also WHAT ALL, YOU-ALL for all : in spite of (something) ▪ For all his confident talk, he is actually very unsure of himself. ▪ She still loves him, for all his faults.

of all (the) informal — used in phrases to express surprise, disapproval, anger, etc. ▪ Who should I meet in New York but Max of all people! = Of all the people in New York, who should I run into but Max! [=I was very surprised to meet Max in New York] ▪ Why did my car break down now of all times, when I can least afford it?! ▪ "He actually called you a fool!" "Of all the nerve!" [=I am shocked and offended that he called me a fool]

²all adv

1 : entirely or completely ▪ She sat all alone. ▪ She has traveled all around the world. ▪ This money will be all yours when I die. ▪ He got all wet. ▪ She had buttons all down the side of her dress. ▪ I forgot all about paying the bill. ▪ The noise continued all through the night. [=all night long, throughout the night] — often used to make a statement more forceful ▪ I'm all in favor of trying again. ▪ His criticisms were all out of proportion. ▪ These problems have been occurring all too often. [=much too often]

2 : for each side or player — used to indicate a tie score ▪ The score is 2 all. [=apiece] ▪ The game ended in a 5-all draw. ▪ We're tied at 3-all after seven innings.

3 informal : ¹VERY ▪ The kids got all excited when they saw Santa Claus.

all along see ²ALONG

all around (US) or chiefly Brit all round 1 : in every way : from every point of view ▪ It was a good deal all around: we made money and nobody lost out. 2 : for everyone ▪ Let's have drinks all around, bartender. — see also ALL-AROUND all of 1 : not more than — used to stress that an amount is surprisingly small ▪ She learned to fly a plane when she was all of 16 years old. ▪ The team scored all of six points the entire game. 2 : as much as — used to stress that an amount is somewhat large ▪ The prize is now worth all of 10 million dollars.

all over 1 a : over an entire area ▪ We looked all over [=everywhere] for you. b : in every part of (something) ▪ The flower can be found all over the island in spring and early summer. ▪ He's lived all over Texas. ▪ In his office there are books piled all over the place. [=everywhere] — see also ALLOVER 2 informal : very critical of (someone) ▪ She was all over me for being late. 3 informal : crowding around, pushing against, or touching (someone) in a very eager or aggressive way ▪ The band's fans were all over them. ▪ Look at that young couple. They're all over each other! [=they are kissing, touching, etc., very passionately] ▪ She tried to score, but the other team's defense was all over her. 4 chiefly Brit, informal : in every way ▪ She's her mother all over. [=she's just like her mother] ▪ Late again, is she? That's her all over. [=that's very typical of her]

all that : to a high degree — usually used in negative statements ▪ I wasn't all that [=very] interested in the story. ▪ The movie wasn't all that [=so] bad. — see also all that at ¹THAT

all the — used to give added force to a word like "more" or "better" ▪ With the economy in such bad shape, it's all the more important [=it's even more important] that we correct these problems quickly. ▪ If we arrive early, all the better. [=it will be even better if we arrive early] all told : with everything considered or included : in all ▪ All told, it took us three full days to get there. ▪ There were seven of us all told.

go all out see ¹GO

not all there informal — used to describe a person who is somewhat strange or stupid ▪ Her aunt is very sweet but not all there (mentally).

³all pronoun

1 : the entire number, quantity, or amount ▪ All [=everything] that I have is yours. ▪ All [=everything] will be explained soon. ▪ She told us all about what happened. ▪ Her other books were good, but this one is the best of all. ▪ All are welcome! [=everyone is welcome] ▪ We all enjoyed the movie. = All of us enjoyed the movie. ▪ Many people were invited and all came. ▪ His stories may be entertaining, but I don't think all (of them) are true. ▪ Thanks to all who helped out. ▪ All of this money will be yours when I die. ▪ Not all of our students go on to college. ▪ It was all (that) I could do to keep from laughing! [=I had a hard time trying not to laugh] ▪ "Is there anything else to be done?" "No, that's all." ▪ He gave equal attention to one and all. [=to everyone] ▪ Come one, come all. [=everyone is invited to come] usage see ALTOGETHER

2 : the only thing ▪ That's all I can do to help. ▪ All I know is that the game was canceled. I don't know why.

above all see ²ABOVE

after all see ²AFTER

All aboard! see ¹ABOARD

all in all informal : in a general way : when everything is thought of or considered ▪ All in all [=in general, generally, for the most part], I like the way things have gone. ▪ We did lose some money, but we got most of it back. So all in all things might have been a lot worse.

all's fair in love and war see ¹FAIR

all told : including everything or everyone — used to indicate a total ▪ The cost of the repairs came to about $300 all told. [=in all] [=the total cost of the repairs was about $300] and all 1 : and everything else ▪ What with the noise outside, the fire and all, we got hardly any sleep. ▪ He endured everything, insults and all, without getting angry. 2 Brit, informal — used to emphasize a response ▪ "It's really hot out!" "It is and all!" [=it certainly is] at all — used to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ He will go anywhere at all to get a job. ▪ Did you find out anything at all? — used especially in negative statements ▪ "Did she say anything?" "No, nothing at all." ▪ I don't mind cooking at all. ▪ It's not at all what you think it is. It's something else entirely. ▪ I wasn't tired at all. = I wasn't at all tired. [=I wasn't even slightly tired] ▪ This chair is not at all comfortable. ▪ I didn't like it at all. ▪ That is not at all likely. ✧ The phrase not at all is sometimes used as a polite response when someone thanks you. ▪ "Thank you for all your trouble." "Not at all." ▪ "That was very kind of you." "Not at all. It was the least I could do."

for all see ¹FOR

for all I know see ¹KNOW

for all (someone) cares see ²CARE

give your all : to do or give as much as you can to achieve something, to support a cause, etc. ▪ He gave his all for the cause. = He gave his all to help the cause. ▪ You'll never succeed in this business unless you give (it) your all.

in all : including everything or everyone — used to indicate a total ▪ There were about a thousand people at the concert in all. [=all told]

once and for all see ¹ONCE

that is all see ¹THAT

when all is said and done : after considering or doing everything — used for a final general statement or judgment ▪ It won't be easy, but when all is said and done, we'll be glad we did it. ▪ The candidates claim to have different views but, when all is said and done, they're very much alike.

all- combining form

1 : entirely : completely ▪ an all-wool suit ▪ an all-woman band

2 : including everything ▪ an all-encompassing philosophy ▪ Her all-consuming passion was music.

3 US : selected as the best at something (such as a sport) within an area or organization ▪ an all-league halfback

Al•lah /ˈɑːlə, Brit ˈælə/ noun [singular] — used as the name of God in Islam

all–Amer•i•can /ˌɑːləˈmerəkən/ adj

1 : having qualities that are thought to be typical of people in the U.S. or that are widely admired in the U.S. ▪ a wholesome all-American boy ▪ her all-American optimism

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

2 sports a : selected as one of the best in the U.S. in a particular sport ▪ an all-American football player ▪ He was all-American twice when he played college football. b : having only all-American players ▪ an all-American football team
3 : consisting entirely of Americans or of American elements ▪ The tennis tournament will have an all-American final. [=both players in the final are American] – all–American noun, pl -cans [count] ▪ He was an all-American in football.

all–around /ˌɑːlə'raʊnd/ adj, always used before a noun, US
1 : relating to or involving many different things ▪ The computer has good all-around performance. ▪ There has been an all-around improvement in his work recently. : considered in a general way ▪ He is an all-around good guy. ▪ She is a teacher, writer, and all-around nice woman.
2 : skillful or useful in many ways ▪ She's the best all-around player on the team. ▪ a good all-around pickup truck ▪ The encyclopedia is an excellent all-around resource.

al•lay /æ'leɪ/ verb -lays; -layed; -lay•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something) less severe or strong ▪ Managers tried to allay [=calm, ease] fears that some workers would lose their jobs. ▪ The new advertising campaign is an attempt to allay the public's concerns/worries about the safety of the company's products. ▪ allay suspicions all but adv : very nearly : ALMOST ▪ Without you the job would have been all but impossible. ▪ We had all but given up hope.

all clear noun
the all clear : a signal telling you that a situation is no longer dangerous ▪ "How will we know when it's safe to leave?" "I'll give you the all clear by blowing a whistle." ▪ Doctors have given her the all clear [=have told her that she is healthy] and she should be back at work next week.

all–day /'ɑl'deɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : lasting throughout the day ▪ an all-day trip/event al•le•ga•tion /ˌælɪ'geɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a statement saying that someone has done something wrong or illegal ▪ The police are investigating allegations that the mayor has accepted bribes. ▪ The mayor denies the allegations (that have been made) against him. ▪ There have been allegations of fraud in the city government. ▪ You're making a serious allegation. Do you have any proof?

al•lege /ə'lɛʤ/ verb -leg•es; -leged; -leg•ing [+ obj] : to state without definite proof that someone has done something wrong or illegal ▪ allege a person's guilt ▪ He alleged that the mayor has accepted bribes. ▪ The mayor is alleged to have accepted bribes. ▪ allege a conspiracy ▪ She alleged misconduct. = She alleged that there had been misconduct. ▪ You allege that she stole a large quantity of money. Do you have any proof?

al•leged /ə'lɛʤd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : accused of having done something wrong or illegal but not yet proven guilty ▪ The alleged thief was arrested.
2 : said to have happened but not yet proven ▪ He denied the alleged conspiracy. ▪ alleged abuse
– al•leg•ed•ly /ə'lɛʤədli/ adv ▪ She allegedly stole the money. = Allegedly, she stole the money.

al•le•giance /ə'liːʤəns/ noun, pl -gianc•es formal : loyalty to a person, country, group, etc. [noncount] I pledge allegiance to my country. [=I promise to be loyal to my country] ▪ He owes allegiance to them for all the help they have given him. [count] Both candidates are working hard to convince voters to switch allegiances.
the Pledge of Allegiance see [1]PLEDGE al•le•go•ry /'ælə,gori, Brit 'ælәgri/ noun, pl -ries : a story in which the characters and events are symbols that stand for ideas about human life or for a political or historical situation [count] the long poem is an allegory of/about love and jealousy [noncount] a writer known for his use of allegory

– al•le•gor•i•cal /ˌælə'gɔrɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an allegorical poem – al•le•gor•i•cal•ly /ˌælə'gɔrɪkli/ adv

[1]al•le•gro /ə'lɛgroʊ/ adv, music : in a quick and lively way ▪ a movement played allegro
– allegro adj ▪ an allegro movement

[2]allegro noun, pl -gros [count] : a piece of music that is played or performed in a quick and lively way ▪ The symphony's first movement is an allegro.

al•le•lu•ia /ˌælə'luːjə/ interj : [1]HALLELUJAH
– alleluia noun, pl -i•as [count]

all–encompassing adj : including everything or everyone ▪ We're unlikely to find an all-encompassing solution.

Al•len wrench /'ælən-/ noun, pl ~ wrenches [count] US : a small tool that is used to turn a special type of screw — called also (Brit) Allen key

al•ler•gen /'ælәʤən/ noun, pl -gens [count] medical : a substance that causes an allergy ▪ common allergens, such as pollen – al•ler•gen•ic /ˌælə'ʤɛnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a highly allergenic substance

al•ler•gic /ə'lәʤɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to an allergy ▪ an allergic reaction/response/condition
2 [more ~; most ~] : having an allergy ▪ an allergic person — usually + to ▪ I'm allergic to cats/nuts. ▪ people who are highly allergic to shellfish — often used figuratively in informal contexts ▪ My brother is allergic to hard work. [=my brother does not like hard work; my brother is lazy]

al•ler•gist /'ælәʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] medical : a doctor who is an expert in the treatment of allergies

al•ler•gy /'ælәʤi/ noun, pl -gies : a medical condition that causes someone to become sick after eating, touching, or breathing something that is harmless to most people [noncount] Many people have some form of allergy. [count] food allergies — often + to ▪ I have an allergy to strawberries. I get a rash if I eat just one. — sometimes used figuratively in informal contexts ▪ My brother has an allergy to hard work. [=my brother does not like hard work; my brother is lazy]

al•le•vi•ate /ə'liːviˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to reduce the pain or trouble of (something) : to make (something) less painful, difficult, or severe ▪ The doctor tried to alleviate [=relieve] her symptoms/suffering. ▪ finding ways to alleviate stress ▪ The new tunnel should alleviate [=lessen, reduce] traffic on the bridge. ▪ government programs that are intended to alleviate [=reduce] poverty
– al•le•vi•a•tion /əˌliːviˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the alleviation of suffering/poverty

al•ley /'æli/ noun, pl -leys [count] : a narrow street or passage between buildings ▪ a dark alley — see also BLIND ALLEY, BOWLING ALLEY up someone's alley also down someone's alley chiefly US, informal : suited to someone's tastes or abilities ▪ A job like that would be right up my alley! [=a job like that would suit me very well] ▪ I love books, so volunteering at the library is right up my alley. [=(Brit) up my street]

al•ley•way /'æliˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : a passage between buildings : ALLEY

all– red /'ɑːlˌfajәd/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : extreme or excessive ▪ Why are you in such an all-fired hurry?
– all– red adv ▪ I don't know why you're being so all-fired stubborn!

All Fools' Day noun [singular] : APRIL FOOLS' DAY

all fours noun
on all fours of a person : with the hands and knees on the ground ▪ The baby crawled away on all fours.

all get–out noun, always used after an adjective
as all get-out US, informal : very or extremely ▪ The café was (as) busy as all get-out [=was extremely busy] this afternoon.

al•li•ance /ə'lajәns/ noun, pl -anc•es
1 [count] : a union between people, groups, countries, etc. : a relationship in which people agree to work together ▪ We need to form/forge/encourage a closer alliance between government and industry. ▪ strengthen/weaken the alliance of western nations ▪ There has been a pattern of shifting alliances in the political world. ▪ The article condemns what some say is an unholy alliance between government and media.
2 [noncount] : the state of being joined in some activity or effort : the state of being allied ▪ two nations in close alliance (with each other) ▪ one nation working in alliance with another
3 [count] : a group of people, countries, etc., that are joined together in some activity or effort ▪ There is disagreement within the alliance about how to deal with this problem.

al•lied /ə'laɪd, 'æˌlaɪd/ adj
1 a : joined in a relationship in which people, groups, countries etc., agree to work together ▪ allied nations = nations that are allied to/with each other b *Allied always used before a noun : of or relating to the nations that fought together against Germany in World War I and World War II ▪ Allied soldiers/troops/forces
2 somewhat formal : related or connected ▪ chemistry and allied subjects ▪ two families allied [=(more commonly) joined] by marriage

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

al•li•ga•tor /ˈælə,geɪtə/ noun, pl -tors
1 [count] : a large reptile that has a long body, thick skin, and sharp teeth, that lives in the tropical parts of the U.S. and China, and that is related to crocodiles
2 [noncount] : the skin of an alligator used for making shoes and other products — often used before another noun ▪ alligator shoes

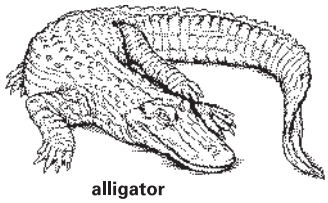
crocodile



alligator

all–im•por•tant /ˌɑ:lɪmˈpoətn̩t/ adj : very important ▪ an all-important question — often used in a humorous or exaggerated way ▪ She paused to consider the all-important issue of which shoes to wear.

all–in /ˌɑ:lˈɪn/ adj
1 informal : very tired ▪ By the end of finals week, I was all-in. [=exhausted] — often written as two separate words ▪ You look all in.
2 Brit a : ALL-INCLUSIVE ▪ the all-in room rate b : allowing almost any technique or method ▪ all-in wrestling all–in•clu•sive /ˌɑ:lɪnˈklu:sɪv/ adj : including everything; especially : sold for one price that includes charges and fees that are often added separately ▪ The resort is all-inclusive so you don't worry about money while you're there.

al•lit•er•a•tion /əˌlɪtəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the use of words that begin with the same sound near one another (as in wild and woolly or a babbling brook)
– al•lit•er•a•tive /əˈlɪtərətɪv/ adj ▪ an alliterative name like "Molly Mason"

all–night /ˈɑ:lˈnaɪt/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : open for business throughout the night ▪ an all-night diner
2 : lasting throughout the night ▪ an all-night party

all–night•er /ˈɑ:lˈnaɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a night during which someone works on something instead of sleeping ▪ I have to finish this by morning, so I guess tonight will be another all-nighter. ▪ He pulled an all-nighter [=he stayed up all night] to study for the exam.

al•lo•cate /ˈælə,keɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to divide and give out (something) for a special reason or to particular people, companies, etc. ▪ allocate funds among charities ▪ Money from the sale of the house was allocated to each of the children. ▪ We need to determine the best way to allocate our resources. ▪ Have enough funds been allocated to finance the project?
– al•lo•ca•tion /ˌæləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the allocation of funds ▪ asset allocation [count] asset allocations

al•lot /əˈlɑ:t/ verb -lots; -lot•ted; -lot•ting [+ obj] : to give someone (an amount of something) to use or have ▪ Each speaker will be allotted 15 minutes. ▪ The newspaper will allot a full page to each of the three mayoral candidates.
– allotted adj ▪ Most of the students completed the exam in the allotted time.

al•lot•ment /əˈlɑ:tmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : an amount of something given to someone to use or have ▪ He complained that the 15-minute time allotment was too short.
2 [noncount] : the act of allotting something ▪ The allotment of a full page in the newspaper to each candidate is more than fair.
3 [count] Brit : a small area of land that a person can rent to use as a garden ▪ fresh tomatoes from my allotment

all–out /ˈɑ:lˈaʊt/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : made or done with as much effort as possible ▪ an all-out attack/assault on poverty = an all-out effort to eliminate poverty — see also go all out at ¹GO
2 : fully developed ▪ an all-out [=full-blown] war

all•over /ˈɑ:l,oʊvə/ adj, always used before a noun : covering the whole surface of something ▪ a rug with an allover pattern — see also all over at ²ALL

al•low /əˈlaʊ/ verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to permit (something) : to regard or treat (something) as acceptable ▪ a religion that does not allow divorce ▪ They don't allow smoking in this hotel. ▪ I want to change my schedule, but my boss won't allow it. b : to permit (someone) to have or do something ▪ He allowed her to leave. [=he let her leave] ▪ My boss wouldn't allow me to change my schedule. ▪ They don't allow people to smoke in this hotel. ▪ He allows himself (to have) many luxuries. — used in the phrase allow me to make a polite offer to help someone ▪ Allow me to get/open the door for you. ▪ If you're going to remodel your kitchen, allow me to offer a few suggestions. c : to permit (someone) to go or come in, out, etc. ▪ Women were not allowed in/into the club. ▪ The hospital doesn't allow visitors after 8 p.m. ▪ Those children are too young to be allowed (to go) out at night.
2 a : to make it possible for someone or something to have or do something ▪ Her experience allows her to handle difficult situations easily. [=she can handle difficult situations easily because of her experience] ▪ Her schedule doesn't allow her any time to run errands. ▪ The system allows you to transfer data easily from one computer to another. b : to make it possible for something to happen ▪ Occasional gaps allow passage through the mountains. ▪ a password that allows access to the system ▪ The system allows the easy transfer of data from one computer to another. = The system allows data to be transferred easily from one computer to another. c : to fail to prevent something or someone from being, becoming, or doing something ▪ They allowed the garden to become overgrown with weeds. ▪ These conditions should never have been allowed to develop. ▪ I was surprised to see that she had allowed herself to become so fat. [=that she had become so fat]
3 : to include (a quantity of time, money, etc.) as an appropriate amount ▪ When you're planning your day you should allow an hour for lunch. ▪ Their parents allowed five dollars for each child as spending money. ▪ We need to allow (ourselves) enough time to get the job done properly.
4 a : to accept (something) ▪ The judge decided to allow the evidence. b : to admit (something) ▪ His job played a more important part in his life than his biographer allows. — usually + that or (US, informal) as how ▪ She allowed that the work was hard. = She allowed as how the work was hard. [=she admitted that the work was hard]
5 sports : to let an opposing team or player have or score (a goal, a hit, etc.) ▪ The pitcher allowed five hits and three runs in the first two innings. ▪ allow a goal ▪ The defense has not allowed a touchdown in the past three games.
allow for [phrasal verb] allow for (something) 1 a : to think about or plan for (something that will or might happen in the future) ▪ When purchasing property, the company should allow for possible future growth/expansion. b : to consider (something) when you make a calculation ▪ The total distance, allowing for detours, is about 10 miles. ▪ If you allow for inflation, he's actually earning less money now than he was 10 years ago. [=the value of the money he earns now is less than that of the money he earned 10 years ago because of inflation] 2 : to make (something) possible ▪ The design of the system allows for [=allows, permits] easy upgrades.
allow of [phrasal verb] allow of (something) formal : to make (something) possible ▪ The evidence allows of [=allows, permits] two possible interpretations.
– al•low•able /əˈlawəbəl/ adj ▪ allowable behavior al•low•ance /əˈlawəns/ noun, pl -anc•es

1 [count] a : an amount of money that is given to someone regularly or for a specific purpose ▪ a monthly allowance for household expenses ▪ a clothing allowance b chiefly US : a small amount of money that is regularly given to children by their parents ▪ Each of their children gets a weekly allowance of five dollars.
2 [count] a : an amount of something (such as time) that is allowed or available ▪ The schedule provides a generous allowance of time for sightseeing. [=provides a generous amount of time for sightseeing] b : an amount that is regarded as acceptable or desirable ▪ the recommended daily allowance of vitamin C c : an amount that is subtracted from the price of something ▪ When we bought our new car

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

we got a trade-in allowance of $2,000 on our old car. [=the price of our new car was reduced by $2,000 because we traded in our old car] d Brit : an amount of your earnings that you do not have to pay taxes on ▪ the tax allowance for married couples

3 a [noncount] : the act of thinking about or including something when you make a plan, calculation, etc. ▪ When you're comparing costs from different decades, you need to make allowance for inflation. [=you need to allow for inflation] ▪ His theory makes no allowance for [=does not allow for] the possibility that the disease may be genetic. b : the act of regarding bad behavior or a mistake as less serious or bad because of some special situation or condition [noncount] She performed poorly, but we should make some allowance for her inexperience. = Some allowance should be made for her inexperience. [=because she is inexperienced, we should not blame her too much for performing poorly] [count] They performed poorly, but allowances should be made for their inexperience.

4 [noncount] formal : the act of allowing something ▪ The lawyer protested the judge's allowance of the evidence.

al•loy /ˈæˌlɔɪ/ noun, pl -loys : a metal made by melting and mixing two or more metals or a metal and another material together [count] testing the properties of various alloys [noncount] a part made of aluminum alloy

– al•loy /əˈlɔɪ/ verb -loys; -loyed; -loy•ing [+ obj] ▪ Stainless steel is made by alloying steel with chromium.

all–pow•er•ful /ˈɑːlˈpaʊəfəl/ adj : having complete power : able to do anything ▪ She believes in an all-powerful God. — often used in an exaggerated way to describe people or organizations that are very powerful ▪ the all-powerful committee ▪ an all-powerful leader

all–pur•pose /ˈɑːlˈpɚpəs/ adj, always used before a noun : suitable for many uses ▪ an all-purpose tool/knife/cleanser ▪ (US) all-purpose flour — compare GENERAL-PURPOSE

[1]all right adv

1 : fairly well : well enough ▪ She does all right in school. ▪ The engine was sputtering when I started it, but it's running/working all right now. ▪ "How's your father?" "He was pretty sick, but he's doing all right now."

2 : beyond doubt : CERTAINLY — used to stress that a preceding statement is true or accurate ▪ "Is this the one you wanted?" "Yes, that's it all right." [=that is indeed the one I wanted] ▪ "He seems pretty clever to me." "Oh, he's clever all right. A little too clever, if you ask me."

3 a — used to ask for or express agreement, acceptance, or understanding ▪ I'll meet you at 10 o'clock, all right? ▪ All right, I'll meet you at 10 o'clock. ▪ "I have to leave a little early today, all right?" "All right, that's fine." — often used in a way that shows annoyance or reluctance ▪ "Can we please go now?" "Oh, all right, if you insist." ▪ "Hurry up!" "All right, all right, I'm coming!" = "All right already, I'm coming!" b chiefly US — used to express pleasure or excitement ▪ "They won!" "All right! That's great!" c — used for emphasis at the beginning of a statement ▪ All right, let's suppose your theory is correct. What then? ▪ All right everyone, let's get started.

[2]all right adj, not used before a noun except in sense 4

1 : fairly good : SATISFACTORY ▪ The quality of his work is all right but not outstanding. ▪ Her first movie was pretty bad but her second one was all right.

2 a : acceptable or agreeable ▪ Whatever you decide to do is all right (with/by me). [=I will accept whatever you want to do] ▪ Is it all right to leave early? b : suitable or appropriate ▪ Is this movie all right for children?

3 a : not ill, hurt, unhappy, etc. ▪ He was very sick but now he's all right again. ▪ "Are you hurt?" "No, I'm all right." ▪ She was upset when her boyfriend left, but she's all right now. b : not marked by problems, danger, etc. — used to tell someone not to be worried or concerned ▪ Don't worry. Everything will be all right. ▪ "I'm so sorry that I'm late." "It's/That's all right. We still have plenty of time."

4 informal : likable, good, or honest ▪ He's an all right guy. ▪ I had my doubts about him at first, but I trust him now. He's all right.

a bit of all right see [1]BIT

all–round /ˈɑːlˈraʊnd/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : ALL-AROUND ▪ a good all-round effort/athlete

all–singing, all–dancing adj, always used before a noun, Brit, informal + humorous — used in an exaggerated way to suggest that something (such as a machine that has many features) is like a large and expensive show that has many singing and dancing performers ▪ an all-singing, all-dancing stereo system

all•spice /ˈɑːlˌspaɪs/ noun [noncount] : a spice that is made from the berries of a tree and that is often used in baking all–star /ˈɑːlˌstɑɚ/ adj, always used before a noun : including mostly or only performers who are famous or very skillful ▪ an all-star baseball team ▪ The movie boasts an all-star cast.

– all–star noun, pl -stars [count] ▪ He was selected as an all-star. [=a member of an all-star team]

all–terrain vehicle noun, pl ~ -hicles [count] : a small open vehicle with three or four large wheels that is used to drive over very rough ground — called also ATV

all-terrain vehicle

all–time /ˈɑːlˌtaɪm/ adj, always used before a noun : more than all others have ever been ▪ It's my all-time favorite movie. ▪ The price of gasoline has hit an all-time high. [=the price is higher than it has ever been]

al•lude /əˈluːd/ verb -ludes; -lud•ed; -lud•ing

allude to [phrasal verb] allude to (something or someone) : to speak of or mention (something or someone) in an indirect way ▪ I'm interested in hearing more about the technology you alluded to a minute ago. ▪ She alluded to her first marriage/husband.

Do not confuse allude with elude.

al•lure /əˈluɚ/ noun [noncount] : power to attract : a quality that attracts people ▪ These rare books hold special allure for collectors. — often + of ▪ the allure of fame al•lur•ing /əˈlurɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very attractive : having a quality that attracts people ▪ an alluring offer/smile/aroma

al•lu•sion /əˈluːʒən/ noun, pl -sions : a statement that refers to something without mentioning it directly [count] The lyrics contain biblical allusions. — often + to ▪ She made an allusion to her first marriage, but said nothing more about it. [noncount] She made allusion to her first marriage.

Do not confuse allusion with illusion.

– al•lu•sive /əˈluːsɪv/ adj ▪ allusive lyrics

al•lu•vi•al /əˈluːvijəl/ adj, geology : made up of or found in the materials that are left by the water of rivers, floods, etc. ▪ an alluvial plain/deposit ▪ alluvial soil/diamonds

all–wheel drive noun [noncount] : a system that applies engine power directly to all four wheels of a vehicle together or separately ▪ a car with all-wheel drive

[1]al•ly /ˈæˌlaɪ/ noun, pl -lies [count]

1 a : a country that supports and helps another country in a war ▪ the nation's closest ally b the Allies : the nations that fought together against Germany in World War I or World War II ▪ fought with the Allies in World War II

2 : a person or group that gives help to another person or group ▪ She's counting on her allies in the state legislature. ▪ a powerful ally ▪ The teacher's union has found an unlikely ally in the company. [=the company supports the position that the union has taken and this was not expected]

[2]al•ly /əˈlaɪ/ verb -lies; -lied; -ly•ing : to join (yourself) with another person, group, etc., in order to get or give support — often + with or to [+ obj] She's allied herself with the moderates on this issue. ▪ countries allying themselves with the EU ▪ He'll even admit that he's hoping to ally himself to a wealthy family by marriage. [no obj] They've allied with their former enemies. — see also ALLIED al•ma ma•ter /ˌælməˈmɑːtɚ/ noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : the school, college, or university that someone attended ▪ I visited my old alma mater last week.

al•ma•nac /ˈɑːlməˌnæk/ noun, pl -nacs [count]

1 : a book published every year that contains facts about the movements of the sun and moon, changes in the tides, and information of general interest

2 : a book published every year that contains detailed information on a special subject ▪ an almanac of town news ▪ a hunter's almanac

al•mighty /ɑlˈmaɪti/ adj

1 or Al•mighty : having complete power ▪ Almighty God = God Almighty

2 always used before a noun : having a great deal of power or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

importance ✧ This sense of almighty is often used to suggest that something has too much power over people. ▪ All he cares about is the almighty dollar. [=all he cares about is money]

3 always used before a noun : very great or loud ▪ The dishes fell down with an almighty crash. [=a mighty crash]

Almighty noun

the Almighty : GOD 1 ▪ worshipping the Almighty

al•mond /ˈɑːmənd/ noun, pl -monds [count] : a nut that has a sweet flavor; also : the tree that produces almonds — see picture at NUT

al•mo•ner /ˈælmənə/ noun, pl -ners [count] Brit, old-fashioned : a person whose job is to help people in hospitals with their financial and social problems

al•most /ˈɑːlˌmoʊst/ adv : only a little less than : NEARLY ▪ We're almost finished. ▪ Analysts predict that rates will rise by almost 40 percent. ▪ Goats will eat almost anything. ▪ He mentioned the prize almost as an afterthought. [=mentioned it in a way that made it seem like an afterthought] ▪ She's almost always late. ▪ in almost all cases = in almost every case ▪ I have almost no [=hardly any] money. ▪ She almost never [=hardly ever] misses a game. ▪ There's almost nothing [=hardly anything] in the fridge.

alms /ˈɑːmz/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : money, clothes, food, and other things given to poor people

alms•house /ˈɑːmzˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] in the past : a building in which poor people were allowed to live for free al•oe /ˈæloʊ/ noun, pl -oes [count] : a tropical plant that has heavy leaves which produce a thick liquid used in medicines, cosmetics, etc.

aloe vera /ˈæloʊˈverə/ noun, pl ~ veras [noncount] : a thick liquid that is produced by a kind of aloe plant and used in medicines, cosmetics, etc. ▪ a skin cream that contains aloe vera; also [count] : the plant that produces this liquid aloft /əˈlɑːft/ adv : in the air ▪ banners carried aloft ▪ The balloon stayed aloft for days.

alo•ha /əˈloʊˌhɑː/ interj — used in Hawaii to say hello or goodbye

[1]alone /əˈloʊn/ adj, not used before a noun

1 a : without anyone or anything else : not involving or including anyone or anything else : separate from other people or things ▪ I was all alone [=by myself] in the office yesterday. ▪ This wine goes well with food, but is also very good alone. ▪ I got him alone and asked him what had really happened. ▪ She lived alone for many years. ▪ She doesn't mind being alone because she never feels lonely/lonesome. ▪ He was alone with his thoughts. b : without people that you know or that usually are with you ▪ This is the first time the couple has been out alone together since the birth of their child. [=the first time they have gone somewhere without their child] ▪ He traveled alone [=by himself] to visit his grandparents when he was only seven. ▪ She was nervous about being (all) alone in the city when she started her new job. ✧ If you are not alone when you do something, you are not the only person who is doing it. ▪ She's worried about losing her job, and she's not alone. [=other people are also worried about losing their jobs] ▪ He was not alone in calling for reform. Many people were demanding changes.

2 [more ~; most ~] : feeling unhappy because of being separated from other people ▪ He felt very alone when he went away to school.

[2]alone adv

1 : without help from anyone or anything else ▪ She raised six children alone. [=on her own, by herself] ▪ The police believe the criminal acted alone. ▪ Medication alone [=by itself] won't relieve the symptoms entirely.

2 : without another — used for emphasis ▪ The proof rests on one witness's statement alone. ▪ You alone [=only you] can decide what needs to be done. [=you are the only one who can decide] ▪ You alone are responsible. = The responsibility is yours alone. ▪ The blame is mine and mine alone. [=I am the only one who should be blamed]

3 : without including or needing anything more ▪ You can't rely on your looks alone [=you can't rely just on your looks]; you'll need to work very hard. ▪ The price alone is enough to discourage people. ▪ The special effects alone make the movie worth seeing.

go it alone : to do something by yourself ▪ If no one's willing to help me, I guess I'll just have to go it alone.

leave (someone or something) alone see [1]LEAVE leave well enough alone see [1]LEAVE let alone see [1]LET

stand alone see [1]STAND

[1]along /əˈlɑːŋ/ prep

1 : in a line matching the length or direction of (something) ▪ We walked along the beach. ▪ We walked along (the side of) the road. ▪ The chairs were lined up along the wall. ▪ The ship sailed along the coast.

2 : at a point on (something) ▪ They have a house along [=alongside] the river. ▪ We drove to Boston and we stopped along the way for lunch.

[2]along adv

1 : in a forward direction ▪ We walked along beside the road. ▪ I was just walking along, minding my own business. ▪ The police told the people in the crowd to move along. ▪ We looked at the houses as we drove along. — often used figuratively ▪ Is there anything we can do to hurry this process along? [=to make this process go faster] ▪ He was rushing along through the speech. ▪ Her career was helped along by her wealthy uncle.

2 — used to say that someone or something is brought or taken with you when you go somewhere ▪ He brought his son along [=brought his son with him] when he went to the bank. ▪ We brought/took an extra battery along just in case we needed it. — often + with ▪ He brought his son along with him. ▪ The scenery was beautiful. I was glad that we had a camera along with us. [=I was glad that we brought a camera]

3 : at or to an advanced point ▪ Plans for a new stadium are already pretty far along. ▪ The morning was well along when we arrived. [=it was late in the morning when we arrived] ▪ people who are well/far along in years [=people who are old]

4 : at a particular place : here or there ▪ I'll be along [=I'll be there] to see him in a few minutes. ▪ We missed the first bus, but another one should be along [=should be here] soon.

5 : from one person to another ▪ Word was passed along that the attack was coming.

all along : during the entire time since something began ▪ I knew the truth all along. ▪ The police knew all along who was guilty.

along about US, informal : at a time near (a specified time) : ABOUT, AROUND ▪ He arrived in the city along about July 17. ▪ Our flight should be arriving along about 8:00.

along with : in addition to (something or someone) ▪ a plane carrying heavy radar equipment along with full fuel tanks : together with (something or someone) ▪ A bill came along with the merchandise. ▪ All my cousins were there along with my aunts and uncles. ▪ He worked along with several colleagues to finish on time.

[1]along•side /əˈlɑːŋˈsaɪd/ adv : along or close at the side ▪ We waited for the other boat to come alongside.

alongside of chiefly US, informal : next to or together with (someone or something) : ALONGSIDE ▪ The police car pulled up alongside of our car. ▪ children working alongside of their parents

[2]alongside prep

1 : next to (someone or something) ▪ The children work alongside their parents in the field.

2 : along the side of (something) ▪ Bring the boat alongside the dock.

3 : at the same time as (something) : together with (something) ▪ one theory taught alongside the other ▪ The town grew up alongside the college.

aloof /əˈluːf/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not involved with or friendly toward other people ▪ She remained aloof [=distant] despite their efforts to make friends. ▪ He held himself aloof from his coworkers. [=he was not warm or friendly toward them]

2 : not involved in or influenced by something ▪ They tried to keep/remain/stand aloof from the politics of the day.

– aloof•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She's been criticized for aloofness but she's really just very shy.

aloud /əˈlaʊd/ adv : in a way that can be clearly heard ▪ read aloud : in a voice that can be heard ▪ She wondered aloud [=out loud] where they'd gone.

al•paca /ælˈpækə/ noun, pl -pac•as

1 [count] : a South American animal that is related to the llama and has long woolly hair — see picture at LLAMA

2 [noncount] : wool of the alpaca or a cloth made of it

[1]al•pha /ˈælfə/ noun, pl -phas [count] : the first letter of the Greek alphabet — A or α

[2]alpha adj, always used before a noun

1 : having the most power in a group of animals or people ▪ a fight in the pack between a young wolf and the alpha male

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

[=the dominant male] ▪ the alpha male/female on the committee [=the most powerful man/woman on the committee]
2 — used to describe the first version of a product that is being developed and tested ▪ the alpha version of the software ▪ alpha testing — compare BETA alpha and omega noun

the alpha and omega : the most important part of something ▪ Money is the alpha and omega of his existence. [=money is the only thing that matters to him] al•pha•bet /ˈælfəˌbɛt/ noun, pl -bets [count] : the letters of a language arranged in their usual order ▪ The Roman alphabet begins with "A" and ends with "Z."

al•pha•bet•i•cal /ˌælfəˈbɛtɪkəl/ also al•pha•bet•ic /ˌælfəˈbɛtɪk/ adj : arranged in the order of the letters of the alphabet ▪ an alphabetical list ▪ The words in the dictionary are listed/shown in alphabetical order.
– al•pha•bet•i•cal•ly /ˌælfəˈbɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ The students are listed alphabetically by last name.

al•pha•bet•ize also Brit al•pha•bet•ise /ˈælfəbəˌtaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to arrange (items) in alphabetical order ▪ She alphabetized the books. [=put the books in order so that books with titles beginning with "A" came first, "B" second, etc.] ▪ alphabetize the words on/in the list
– al•pha•bet•i•za•tion also Brit al•pha•bet•i•sa•tion /ˌælfəˌbɛtəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌælfəˌbɛˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

alphabet soup noun [noncount] : a type of soup for children with small noodles that are shaped like letters of the alphabet ▪ a bowl of alphabet soup — often used figuratively to describe a confusing group of letters (such as abbreviations) that are used to refer to various organizations, items, etc. ▪ the alphabet soup of government agencies

al•pha•nu•mer•ic /ˌælfənʊˈmerɪk, Brit ˌælfənjʊˈmerɪk/ adj : having or using letters and numbers ▪ an alphanumeric system/keyboard
– al•pha•nu•mer•i•cal•ly /ˌælfənʊˈmerɪkli, Brit ˌælfənjʊˈmerɪkli/ adv

al•pine /ˈælˌpaɪn/ adj
1 : of or existing in high mountains and especially the Alps ▪ an alpine meadow/lake ▪ alpine flowers
2 : done in high mountains ▪ alpine skiing/sports

al•ready /ɑːlˈrɛdi/ adv
1 : before this time : before now ▪ They've already agreed to come. ▪ I've already told him the news. = (US, informal) I already told him the news. : before that time ▪ I'd already left by the time you called. ▪ He acted as if he didn't already know. ▪ Flight 102 will already have taken off by the time Flight 101 lands.
2 : so soon : so early ▪ Have they arrived already?! I'm still not dressed! ▪ Do you have to go already? ▪ Is it already midnight? = Is it midnight already?
3 — used to describe a situation that exists now and that will continue to exist ▪ The book is already available in Britain and should be in bookstores here next month. ▪ The exhibit has already caused quite a stir.
4 US, informal — used to express impatience or annoyance ▪ Answer the question, already! ▪ Enough, already! ▪ All right already!

al•right /ˌɑːlˈraɪt/ adv or adj : ALL RIGHT

> usage The spelling alright is less common than all right and is regarded by some people as an error. It occurs mainly in informal writing.

Al•sa•tian /ælˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tians [count] Brit : GERMAN SHEPHERD

al•so /ˈɑːlˌsoʊ/ adv
1 : in addition ▪ She's a talented singer and also a fine actress. ▪ Thomas Edison is best known for inventing the lightbulb, but he also invented the phonograph. ▪ I don't think we should go out. Not only is it late, but it's also snowing.
2 : in a similar way ▪ He saw something and she also saw it. [=she saw it too] ▪ "I grew up in North Dakota." "Really? I'm also from North Dakota." [=I'm from North Dakota too] ▪ My neighbors were also at the show that night.

al•so–ran /ˈɑːlˌsoʊˌræn/ noun, pl -rans [count] : a person who has taken part in an election or contest and did not win ▪ He was an also-ran in last year's mayoral race.

al•tar /ˈɑːltə/ noun, pl -tars [count]
1 : a raised place on which sacrifices and gifts are offered in some religions — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She sacrificed honesty on the altar of success. [=she chose to be dishonest in order to achieve success]
2 : a platform or table used as a center of worship in Christian ceremonies and services led to the altar ✧ If you are led to the altar, you get married. ▪ They started a romance that eventually led (them) to the altar.
left at the altar ✧ If you are left at the altar, you do not get married because the person you were going to marry has decided against it at the last moment. ▪ Her fiancé left her at the altar.

altar boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] : a boy who helps the priest during a Catholic service

al•ter /ˈɑːltə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 : to change (something) [+ obj] Alcohol can alter a person's mood. ▪ He altered his will to leave everything to his sister. ▪ This one small event altered the course of history. [no obj] The place has altered in the 10 years since I left.
2 [+ obj] : to make a change to (a piece of clothing) so that it will fit better ▪ I'll need to have/get the dress altered before the wedding.
3 [+ obj] US : to remove the sex organs of (an animal) so that the animal is unable to reproduce ▪ They had the puppies altered [=fixed] before they were sold.
– altered adj ▪ Later, we see this character again in a slightly altered form. ▪ an altered state of consciousness al•ter•a•tion /ˌɑːltəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act, process, or result of changing or altering something [noncount] the alteration of the pattern ▪ They did a good job on the dress alteration. [count] The addition of a glossary is the only significant alteration [=change, modification] to the book. ▪ He made alterations in/to his will.

al•ter•ca•tion /ˌɑːltəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a noisy or angry argument ▪ She got into several altercations with the coach this season.

alter ego noun, pl ~ egos [count]
1 : a different version of yourself ✧ A character in a book or film is sometimes viewed as an author's alter ego. A role that an actor often plays is sometimes described as the actor's alter ego.
2 : a close friend who thinks or feels similarly to the way you think or feel ▪ a trusted adviser who is the President's alter ego

[1]al•ter•nate /ˈɑːltəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing : to place or do (different things) so that one follows the other in a repeated series [+ obj] To make the appetizer, you should alternate layers of tomatoes and cheese. [=you should place a layer of tomatoes, then a layer of cheese, then a layer of tomatoes, etc.] ▪ The poem/poet alternates fear and hope. — often + with ▪ The necklace is made by alternating glass beads with shells. ▪ The poem/poet alternates fear and hope with each other. = The poem/poet alternates fear with hope. [no obj] The light and dark woods alternate to form an elegant pattern around the window. — often + with ▪ Light woods alternate with dark woods. — often + between ▪ The poem alternates between fear and hope. ▪ He alternates between riding his bike and taking the bus to work.
– alternating adj ▪ To make the appetizer, you should use alternating layers of tomatoes and cheese. ▪ The shirt has alternating red and yellow stripes. – al•ter•na•tion /ˌɑːltəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[2]al•ter•nate /ˈɑːltənət, Brit ɔːlˈtɜːnət/ adj
1 : occurring in or forming a repeated series ▪ alternate sunshine and rain ▪ Alternate shades of wood formed a pattern around the window.
2 — used to describe something that happens one time, does not happen the next time, happens again, etc. ▪ The fair is held on alternate years. [=the fair is held every other/second year; the fair is held one year, not held the next year, held the following year, and so on] ▪ She picks the children up from school on alternate days. [=(for example) she picks up the children on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday]
3 chiefly US : other than the usual : ALTERNATIVE ▪ We took an alternate route because of the traffic. ▪ Due to an emergency, the plane landed at an alternate airport.
– al•ter•nate•ly adv ▪ The poem is alternately fearful and hopeful.

[3]al•ter•nate /ˈɑːltənət, Brit ɔːlˈtɜːnət/ noun, pl -nates [count] US : someone who is chosen to take another person's place if that person is not able to be present or to do a required job ▪ The town has elected five councilors and two alternates. ▪ an alternate juror alternating current noun [noncount] : an electric current that changes its direction very frequently at regular intervals — abbr. AC; compare DIRECT CURRENT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

[1]al•ter•na•tive /ɑlˈtənətɪv/ adj
1 always used before a noun : offering or expressing a choice ▪ We have alternative [=other] plans in case the weather is bad. ▪ an alternative explanation ▪ We took an alternative route [=a different route] to avoid the traffic. ▪ Scientists are developing an alternative approach to treating the disease.
2 : not usual or traditional ▪ alternative rock music ▪ He developed an alternative design for the new engine. ▪ alternative medicine [=methods of healing or treating disease that are different from the usual methods taught in Western medical schools] — often used to describe something that is more natural or that causes less pollution than the usual product, method, etc. ▪ alternative energy/fuel
3 : existing or functioning outside of the established society ▪ an alternative newspaper ▪ alternative lifestyles
– al•ter•na•tive•ly adv ▪ We could meet at the library or, alternatively, we could all meet at my house.

[2]alternative noun, pl -tives [count] : something that can be chosen instead of something else : a choice or option ▪ We decided to leave since our only other alternative was to wait in the rain. ▪ They left me no alternative but to call the police. [=I had to call the police] ▪ I was offered no alternative. ▪ The menu offered several vegetarian alternatives. — often + to ▪ We've been looking for alternatives to the usual treatment, but it seems there are few options.

al•ter•na•tor /ˈɑ:ltəˌneɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a device that produces electricity (as in the engine of a vehicle) : a generator that produces alternating current — see picture at ENGINE

al•though /alˈðoʊ/ conj
1 : despite the fact that : THOUGH — used to introduce a fact that makes another fact unusual or surprising ▪ Although [=while, even though] he was hungry, he could not eat. ▪ Although we rarely see each other, we're still very good friends. = We're still very good friends although we rarely see each other. ▪ Although [=while] I'd love to have dinner with you tonight, I already have plans. ▪ It feels as if I've known you forever although [=even though] we've only known each other for a day. ▪ He's the basketball team's best player although he's the shortest one on the team. ▪ Although (it is) small, the apartment is very expensive.
2 : BUT, HOWEVER, THOUGH — used when making a statement that differs from or contrasts with a statement you have just made ▪ I don't believe we've met before, although I must say you do look very familiar. ▪ I think his name is John, although I'm not completely sure about that. ▪ I'd love to have dinner with you, although I can't. ▪ The book had a good, although not great, plot.

al•tim•e•ter /ælˈtɪmətə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : an instrument used for measuring the altitude of something (such as an airplane or a mountain)

al•ti•tude /ˈæltəˌtu:d, Brit ˈæltəˌtju:d/ noun, pl -tudes : the height of something (such as an airplane) above the level of the sea [count] We're now flying at an altitude [=height] of 10,000 feet. ▪ the air temperature at different altitudes ▪ Some visitors find it difficult to adjust to the city's high altitude. ▪ plants found at higher/lower altitudes [=elevations] [noncount] The plane lost/gained altitude rapidly. ▪ flying at low/high altitude ▪ She trained for the race at altitude. [=at a high altitude, where the air is thin]

[1]al•to /ˈæltoʊ/ noun, pl -tos [count] music : a singing voice that is lower than the voice of a soprano and higher than the voice of a tenor; also : a singer having such a voice ▪ She sang in her school choir as an alto. — compare BASS, SOPRANO, TENOR

[2]alto adj, always used before a noun : having a range that is lower than a soprano and higher than a tenor ▪ an alto voice ▪ He plays the alto sax/saxophone.

[1]al•to•geth•er /ˌɑ:ltəˈgɛðə/ adv
1 : completely and fully : TOTALLY, ENTIRELY ▪ They had an altogether new idea. ▪ It stopped raining altogether. ▪ If we don't do something now, the forests may disappear altogether. ▪ It's best to avoid the situation altogether. ▪ That's an altogether different question. = That's a different question altogether. — often used with not ▪ It is not altogether clear why she left. ▪ He didn't altogether believe her story. — often used for emphasis before another adverb ▪ This is an altogether more sensible solution. ▪ I've said altogether [=entirely] too much on the subject already.
2 : with everything added together : when everything is added up ▪ They spent a thousand dollars altogether. [=in all] ▪ Altogether [=all told], we sold nearly 500 candy bars.
3 : in a general way : when everything is considered ▪ Altogether [=generally, on the whole, all in all] I'd say this was our best vacation ever. ▪ Altogether, their efforts were successful.

usage Do not confuse the single word altogether with the two-word phrase all together. ▪ We were all together [=all in a group, all with each other] for the whole day. ▪ I tried to hold it all together with glue, but the pieces fell apart. ▪ The detective put it all together [=figured out how the pieces of information related to each other] and solved the crime. ▪ All together [=all at the same time] now, everybody, let's sing!

[2]altogether noun
in the altogether informal + old-fashioned : not wearing any clothes ▪ posing in the altogether [=nude, in the nude] al•tru•ism /ˈæltru:ˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : feelings and behavior that show a desire to help other people and a lack of selfishness ▪ charitable acts motivated purely by altruism ▪ In one final act of altruism, she donated almost all of her money to the hospital.

– al•tru•is•tic /ˌæltru:ˈɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ His motives/reasons for helping the poor were not completely altruistic. [=he wanted to help himself in some way by helping the poor] ▪ altruistic acts – al•tru•is•tic•al•ly /ˌæltru:ˈɪstɪkli/ adv

alum /əˈlʌm/ noun, pl alums [count] US, informal : someone who attended or graduated from a particular school, college, or university : ALUMNUS, ALUMNA ▪ a Harvard alum

alu•mi•num (US) /əˈlu:mənəm/ or Brit al•u•min•i•um /ˌæljəˈmɪnijəm/ noun [noncount] : a silver metal that is strong and light and that is used for making many products — often used before another noun ▪ aluminum cans ▪ aluminum foil [=a very thin sheet of aluminum that is used for covering or wrapping food]

alum•na /əˈlʌmnə/ noun, pl -nae /əˈlʌmni/ [count] chiefly US : a woman who was a student at a particular school, college, or university ▪ a group of Harvard alumnae — compare ALUMNUS, OLD GIRL alum•nus /əˈlʌmnəs/ noun, pl -ni /əˈlʌmˌnaɪ/ [count] chiefly US : someone who was a student at a particular school, college, or university ▪ Her parents are alumni of the state university. ✧ The plural form alumni usually refers to all of the men and women who are former students of a school, college, or university. ▪ the college's alumni ▪ the alumni association — compare ALUMNA, OLD BOY al•ve•o•lar /ælˈvi:jələ/ adj, technical : of or relating to a speech sound that is made with the tip of the tongue touching the roof of the mouth near the front teeth ▪ The word "two" begins with an alveolar sound.

al•ways /ˈɑ:lˌweɪz/ adv
1 a : at all times : on every occasion : in a way that does not change ▪ He always tries, but he doesn't always succeed. ▪ It's always a pleasure to see you. ▪ I can always tell when he's upset. ▪ He's always [=constantly] looking for ways to make money. ▪ She's almost always smiling. ▪ This area is always filled with tourists. ▪ You should always (remember to) wear your seat belt. ▪ The holidays are always a very busy time for us. = (less commonly) The holidays always are a very busy time for us. ▪ Things won't always go as planned. ▪ You're always welcome to stay with us. — opposite NEVER b : at all times in the past ▪ He has always been a good friend to me. ▪ They didn't always get along so well. [=they get along now, but they didn't like each other in the past] ▪ It hasn't always been easy for him. [=difficult or sad things have happened to him] ▪ He could always make me angry. = He always could make me angry. [=he often made me angry]
2 : throughout all time : for a very long time: such as a : forever into the future ▪ I'll remember you always. [=forever] ▪ You'll always be my best friend. = You're my best friend, and you always will be. ▪ Life won't always be this easy. b : forever in the past : from the beginning of the time that can be remembered ▪ I've always loved you. ▪ I always thought they'd get married some day, but they never did. ▪ Isn't that what you've always wanted? ▪ She always wanted to be famous. ▪ It has always been my goal to have my own business. ▪ He's always been a firm believer in hard work. = He's a firm believer in hard work, and he always has been.
3 : often, frequently, or repeatedly ▪ We always tell people not to arrive too early. ▪ My parents always told me not to speak to strangers. — often used to describe repeated behavior that is annoying ▪ She's always calling me by the wrong name. ▪ Must you always be so rude?! ▪ He always tells such funny stories. = He's always telling such funny stories.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

4 — used to suggest another possibility ▪ If we don't win today, there's always tomorrow. [=we might win tomorrow] — usually used after can or could ▪ If she doesn't answer the phone now, you can/could always try (calling) again later. ▪ If you don't have enough money now, you can always use your credit card.

as always — used to say that something was expected because it always happens ▪ As always, dinner was delicious. [=dinner was delicious, as it always is] ▪ Your children, as always, were very well-behaved. [=your children were well-behaved, as they always are]

Alz·hei·mer's disease /ˈɑːltsˌhaɪməz-/ noun [noncount] : a disease of the brain that causes people to slowly lose their memory and mental abilities as they grow old — called also Alzheimer's

am see BE

AM /ˈeɪˌɛm/ noun [noncount] : a system for sending radio signals in which the height of a radio wave is changed in order to send information in the form of sound ✧ AM is an abbreviation for amplitude modulation. — compare FM

– AM adj ▪ listening to my favorite AM station [=a radio station that sends sound using AM] ▪ Is this station AM or FM? ▪ AM radios

a.m. or AM or Brit am abbr in the morning — used with numbers to show the time of day ▪ She woke up at 6 a.m. and didn't go to bed until midnight. ▪ The class is held from 11:30 a.m. to/until 2:15 p.m. ▪ 12 a.m. [=midnight, one hour after 11 p.m.] ✧ The abbreviation a.m. stands for the Latin phrase ante meridiem, which means "before noon." — compare P.M.

amal·gam /əˈmælgəm/ noun, pl -gams

1 [count] formal : a combination or mixture of different things — usually singular ▪ Several different styles of music come together in an unusual amalgam. — usually + of ▪ an amalgam [=amalgamation] of sweet and spicy flavors ▪ The language they speak is an amalgam of Spanish and English.

2 [noncount] technical : a mixture of mercury and other metals used for filling holes in teeth

amal·gam·ate /əˈmælgəˌmeɪt/ verb -ates; -at·ed; -at·ing [+ obj] formal : to unite (two or more things, such as two businesses) into one thing ▪ They decided to amalgamate [=(more commonly) merge] the two companies. ▪ amalgamating different styles of music ▪ They amalgamated the hospital and/with the university. — often used as (be) amalgamated ▪ The hospital was amalgamated with the university.

– amal·gam·ation /əˌmælgəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [singular] an amalgamation of different styles of music [noncount] the amalgamation of the two companies amass /əˈmæs/ verb amass·es; amassed; amass·ing [+ obj] : to gather or collect (something, such as a large amount of money) especially for yourself ▪ By the time he was 21, he had already amassed [=accumulated] a great fortune. ▪ The police are amassing [=gathering] further evidence against him. ▪ They've amassed a wealth of information.

am·a·teur /ˈæməˌtə/ noun, pl -teurs [count]

1 : a person who does something (such as a sport or hobby) for pleasure and not as a job ▪ She played soccer as an amateur before turning professional. ▪ These photos were taken by both amateurs and professionals.

2 : a person who does something poorly : a person who is not skillful at a job or other activity ▪ The people running that company are a bunch of amateurs. ▪ Only amateurs make this kind of mistake. ▪ He's a mere amateur when it comes to cooking. [=he doesn't know how to cook well]

– amateur adj, always used before a noun ▪ amateur photographers/athletes ▪ an amateur competition [=a contest for amateurs] ▪ They competed at the amateur level. – am·a·teur·ism /ˈæməˌtəˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ a strong supporter of amateurism in sports ▪ the amateurism [=the lack of skill] of her writing style

amateur dramatics noun [noncount] Brit : COMMUNITY THEATER 1

– amateur dramatic adj, Brit ▪ the local amateur dramatic society am·a·teur·ish /ˌæməˈtərɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking experience or skill ▪ His acting is hopelessly amateurish. = He's a hopelessly amateurish actor.

– am·a·teur·ish·ly adv ▪ He acts very amateurishly.

am·a·to·ry /ˈæməˌtori, Brit ˈæmətəri/ adj, literary : of, relating to, or expressing sexual love ▪ a book of amatory [=amorous] poems ▪ their secret amatory relationship amaze /əˈmeɪz/ verb amaz·es; amazed; amaz·ing : to surprise and sometimes confuse (someone) very much : to fill (someone) with wonder [+ obj] He has amazed audiences around the world with his magic tricks. ▪ It amazes me that no one noticed the error. ▪ I am always amazed by her garden's beauty. = Her garden's beauty never fails/ceases to amaze me. [no obj] Her garden's beauty never fails/ceases to amaze.

amazed adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing great surprise ▪ The magician performed before a crowd of amazed spectators. ▪ There was an amazed expression on her face. ▪ His friends were amazed [=stunned, dumbfounded] when he said that he was getting married. — often + that ▪ We were amazed [=astonished, astounded] that no one was injured in the accident. ▪ I'm amazed that no one noticed the error. — often + at or by ▪ You'll be amazed at how easy it can be. ▪ They were amazed at/by the size of the place. — often followed by to + verb ▪ They were amazed to discover that their grandmother had been a professional dancer.

amaze·ment /əˈmeɪzmənt/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of being very surprised or amazed ▪ The garden's beauty filled me with amazement. [=astonishment] ▪ The crowd watched in amazement as the magician performed his tricks. ▪ I applied for the job, and, (much) to my amazement, I was hired. [=I was very surprised to be hired] ▪ Much to the amazement of her family, she left school to pursue her acting career.

amazing adj [more ~; most ~] : causing great surprise or wonder : causing amazement ▪ She gave an amazing [=wonderful] performance in her first film. ▪ It's amazing [=difficult to believe] how/that many adults in this country don't know how to read. ▪ He showed an amazing lack of concern for others. ▪ The amazing thing is that no one knows where it came from. ▪ He has an amazing ability to learn new languages. ▪ Her grandmother was really an amazing woman. ▪ He's created an amazing number [=a surprisingly large number] of new designs for the spring.

– amaz·ing·ly adv ▪ an amazingly beautiful garden ▪ Amazingly (enough), the dog swam all the way across the lake.

am·a·zon /ˈæməˌzɑːn/ noun, pl -zons [count]

1 Amazon : a member of a group of female warriors in stories told by the ancient Greeks

2 : a tall and strong woman ▪ I felt dwarfed, standing beside this redheaded amazon.

am·bas·sa·dor /æmˈbæsədə/ noun, pl -dors [count] : the highest-ranking person who represents his or her own government while living in another country ▪ Embassy officials met with the ambassador. — often + to ▪ She became the American ambassador to Italy [=she began representing America in Italy] several years ago. — often used figuratively ▪ a baseball player who has been a very effective ambassador [=representative] for his sport ▪ an ambassador of hope [=a person who tries to bring hope to another country or group of people] ▪ a goodwill ambassador [=a person who travels to different places to promote friendship and goodwill]

– am·bas·sa·do·ri·al /æmˌbæsəˈdorijəl/ adj ▪ his first ambassadorial assignment

am·ber /ˈæmbə/ noun [noncount]

1 : a hard orange-yellow substance that can be polished and used for jewelry and other decorations

2 : a dark orange-yellow color — see color picture on page C2

– amber adj ▪ the amber light of the late afternoon sun ▪ " . . . amber waves of grain . . . " —Katharine Lee Bates, "America the Beautiful" (1911)

am·bi·dex·trous /ˌæmbɪˈdɛkstrəs/ adj : able to use both hands equally well ▪ an ambidextrous baseball player

– am·bi·dex·trous·ly adv – am·bi·dex·trous·ness noun [noncount] am·bi·ence or am·bi·ance /ˈæmbijəns/ noun [singular] formal : the mood or feeling of a particular place ▪ They used soft music and candlelight to give the restaurant a romantic ambience. [=atmosphere] ▪ the ambience of a tropical island

am·bi·ent /ˈæmbijənt/ adj

1 technical : surrounding on all sides ▪ Keep the chemicals at an ambient temperature of 70°F. ▪ the ambient air quality ▪ the bright ambient light of the room

2 of electronic music : quiet and relaxing with melodies that repeat many times ▪ People shopped as ambient music played in the background. ▪ ambient instrumental music am·bi·gu·i·ty /ˌæmbəˈgjuːwəti/ noun, pl -ties : something that does not have a single clear meaning : something that is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

ambiguous [noncount] You should remove ambiguity [=vagueness] from your essay by adding more details. ▪ moral ambiguity [=lack of certainty about whether something is right or wrong] [count] the ambiguities in his answers am•big•u•ous /æmˈbɪgjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : able to be understood in more than one way : having more than one possible meaning ▪ We were confused by the ambiguous wording of the message. ▪ He looked at her with an ambiguous smile. ▪ Due to the ambiguous nature of the question, it was difficult to choose the right answer. — opposite UNAMBIGUOUS synonyms see [1]OBSCURE
2 : not expressed or understood clearly ▪ He felt that his role in the company was becoming more ambiguous. [=uncertain] ▪ the ambiguous position of women in modern society – am•big•u•ous•ly adv ▪ His answers were worded ambiguously, so no one could be sure what he meant.

am•bit /ˈæmbət/ noun, pl -bits [count] formal : the range or limit that is covered by something (such as a law) : SCOPE — usually singular ▪ I'm afraid your case doesn't fall within the ambit of our jurisdiction.

am•bi•tion /æmˈbɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a particular goal or aim : something that a person hopes to do or achieve ▪ My first ambition as a child was to be in the circus. ▪ The wife of a famous poet, she had literary ambitions of her own. [=she wanted to be a writer too] ▪ He has ambitions for an acting career. = He has ambitions to become an actor. = His ambition is to be/become an actor. ▪ She finally achieved/realized/fulfilled her life's ambition [=the thing she most wanted to do in her life] when she started her own business.
2 [noncount] : a desire to be successful, powerful, or famous ▪ He lacked ambition and couldn't compete with the others. ▪ With her talent and fierce ambition [=her very strong desire to succeed], she became a very successful actress.
3 [noncount] US : a desire to do things and be active — usually used in negative constructions ▪ I was tired and had no ambition [=initiative, energy], so I just spent the whole weekend watching TV.

am•bi•tious /æmˈbɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having ambition : having a desire to be successful, powerful, or famous ▪ The company was created by two very ambitious young men in the early 1900s. ▪ ambitious politicians/lawyers ▪ He was very ambitious for his children but not for himself. [=he wanted his children to be successful but he didn't feel the need to be successful himself]
2 : not easily done or achieved : requiring or showing ambition ▪ This 500-page book is her most ambitious effort/project yet. ▪ Your plans for the future are very ambitious. ▪ It was too ambitious a task for just one person. ▪ ambitious goals
– am•bi•tious•ly adv ▪ She ambitiously worked her way to the top. – am•bi•tious•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the ambitiousness of the plan

am•biv•a•lent /æmˈbɪvələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing very different feelings (such as love and hate) about someone or something at the same time ▪ He felt ambivalent about his job. [=he both liked and disliked his job] ▪ He has an ambivalent relationship with his family. ▪ She has a deeply/very ambivalent attitude about/to/toward religion. ▪ The senator is ambivalent about running for president. [=the senator has not decided whether or not to run for president]
– am•biv•a•lence /æmˈbɪvələns/ noun [noncount] ▪ He feels some ambivalence about/toward/towards his job. – am•biv•a•lent•ly adj ▪ He spoke ambivalently about his feelings for his family.

am•ble /ˈæmbəl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition am•bles; am•bled; am•bling [no obj] : to walk slowly in a free and relaxed way ▪ We ambled along as we talked. ▪ They ambled down/up/along the road. ▪ We spent the day ambling [=strolling, sauntering] through the park.

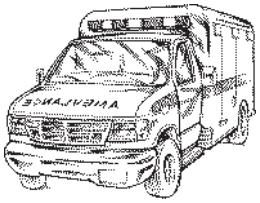
am•bu•lance /ˈæmbjələns/ noun, pl -lanc•es [count] : a vehicle used for taking hurt or sick people to the hospital especially in emergencies ▪ They called (for) an ambulance. ▪ She was taken by ambulance [=in an ambulance] to the hospital. ▪ (disapproving) She had a reputation for being an ambulance chaser. [=a lawyer who gets clients by convincing accident victims that they should file a lawsuit about the accident]



ambulance

[1]am•bush /ˈæmˌbʊʃ/ noun, pl -bush•es
1 [count] : an act of hiding, waiting for others to appear, and then suddenly attacking them : a surprise attack ▪ Many soldiers were killed in the ambush.
2 [noncount] : a hidden place from which a surprise attack can be made ▪ The soldiers were lying in ambush, waiting for the enemy to approach. ▪ a snake waiting in ambush for its next meal

[2]ambush verb -bush•es; -bushed; -bush•ing [+ obj] : to attack (someone or something) by surprise from a hidden place ▪ We have reports of enemy soldiers ambushing civilians on this road. — often used as (be) ambushed ▪ He was ambushed and killed by robbers on his way home. — often used figuratively ▪ As she left the courthouse, she was ambushed by a group of reporters. ▪ Her book was ambushed [=criticized in a harsh and unfair way] by the critics.

ameba variant spelling of AMOEBA

ame•lio•rate /əˈmiːljəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something, such as a problem) better, less painful, etc. ▪ trying to ameliorate the suffering of people who have lost their jobs ▪ This medicine should help ameliorate the pain.
– ame•lio•ra•tion /əˌmiːljəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

amen /ɑˈmɛn, eɪˈmɛn/ interj
1 — used at the end of a prayer
2 — used to express agreement or approval ▪ People in the crowd shouted "Amen!" when the speaker said that change was needed. ▪ "I'll be glad when this winter is over." "Amen to that!" [=I agree very much with that]

ame•na•ble /əˈmiːnəbəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : willing to agree or to accept something that is wanted or asked for ▪ an amenable child — usually + to ▪ The children are generally amenable to our wishes. ▪ a government that is not amenable to change [=a government that resists change]
2 formal : able to be controlled, organized, or affected by something — + to ▪ The disease is not amenable to surgery. [=it cannot be fixed by surgery] ▪ data amenable to analysis [=data that can be analyzed]

amend /əˈmɛnd/ verb amends; amend•ed; amend•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change some of the words and often the meaning of (a law, document, etc.) ▪ The country's constitution was amended to allow women to vote. ▪ They voted to amend the law in 1920. — compare EMEND
2 : to change and improve (something, such as a mistake or bad situation) ▪ He tried to amend the situation by apologizing to me.

amend•ment /əˈmɛndmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : a change in the words or meaning of a law or document (such as a constitution) ▪ constitutional amendments — often + to ▪ They proposed an amendment to the law. [=they officially suggested that a change be made to the law] ▪ an amendment to section 37(a) of the tax code ✧ The names of the amendments that have been made to the U.S. Constitution are usually capitalized. ▪ The first 10 Amendments to the Constitution of the United States are called the Bill of Rights. ▪ Our right to free speech is protected by the First Amendment (of the U.S. Constitution).
2 [noncount] : the act or process of changing the words or meaning of a law or document : the act or process of amending something ▪ rights that were granted by amendment of the Constitution

amends /əˈmɛndz/ noun
make amends : to do something to correct a mistake that you have made or a bad situation that you have caused ▪ She tried to make amends by apologizing to him. ▪ I'd like to make amends (to you) for my behavior last night.

ame•ni•ty /əˈmɛnəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : something that makes life easier or more pleasant ▪ The hotel has every amenity you could want. — usually plural ▪ It offers all the amenities you would expect in a car of its size. ▪ The hotel has other amenities such as a restaurant, swimming pool, and exercise room. ▪ The government intends to provide the isolated town with basic amenities. [=basic things such as roads, running water, and electricity] ▪ We have never really liked each other, but we observe the social amenities [=we behave with politeness towards each other] whenever we meet.

Am•er•asian /ˈæməˈreɪʒən/ noun, pl -asians [count] : a person who has one parent from the U.S. (such as a father who served in the armed forces) and one parent from Asia

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

[1]Amer•i•can /əˈmerəkən/ noun, pl -cans [count]
1 : a person born, raised, or living in the U.S. ▪ Americans in all 50 states ▪ The President's speech began with the words "My fellow Americans . . . "
2 : a person born, raised, or living in North America or South America — see also NATIVE AMERICAN

[2]American adj
1 : of or relating to the U.S. or its citizens ▪ American culture/government/history ▪ the American people ▪ their American friends
2 : of or relating to North America, South America, or the people who live there ▪ the American continents ▪ a tropical American tree
(as) American as apple pie see APPLE PIE

Amer•i•ca•na /əˌmerəˈkɑːnə/ noun [noncount] : things produced in the U.S. and thought to be typical of the U.S. or its culture ▪ collectors of Americana ▪ handmade quilts and other pieces of Americana

American cheese noun [noncount] : a mild cheese made in the U.S. from cheddar cheese

American dream noun
the American dream or the American Dream : a happy way of living that is thought of by many Americans as something that can be achieved by anyone in the U.S. especially by working hard and becoming successful ▪ With good jobs, a nice house, two children, and plenty of money, they believed they were living the American dream.

American English noun [noncount] : the English language used in the U.S. ▪ There are many differences between British English and American English.

> usage The term American English is only used in the U.S. when it is being compared to some other kind of English. English speakers in the U.S. generally refer to the language they speak simply as English.

American football noun [noncount] : FOOTBALL 1a

American Indian noun, pl ~ -ans [count] : NATIVE AMERICAN usage see NATIVE AMERICAN

Amer•i•can•ism /əˈmerəkəˌnɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] : a word or meaning that is common in U.S. English but is not common in the kinds of English spoken outside the U.S.

Amer•i•can•ize also Brit Amer•i•can•ise /əˈmerəkəˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something or someone) American : to cause (something or someone) to have American characteristics ▪ The editors of the book decided to Americanize the spelling.
– Amer•i•can•i•za•tion also Brit Amer•i•can•i•sa•tion /əˌmerəkənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit əˌmerəkəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the Americanization of cultures around the world
– Americanized also Brit Americanised adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The longer she stays in the U.S., the more Americanized she becomes. ▪ an Americanized city

American League noun
the American League : one of the two major leagues in professional U.S. baseball ✧ In the American League, the designated hitter bats in place of the pitcher. — compare NATIONAL LEAGUE

American Revolution noun
the American Revolution : the war of 1775–83 in which 13 British colonies in North America broke free from British rule and became the United States of America — called also (chiefly Brit) American War of Independence

American Sign Language noun [noncount] : a kind of sign language used in the U.S. and Canada

Am•er•in•di•an /ˌæməˈrɪndijən/ noun, pl -ians [count] : NATIVE AMERICAN – Amerindian adj ▪ Amerindian cultures/languages/population am•e•thyst /ˈæməθəst/ noun, pl -thysts

1 [count] : a clear purple or bluish-purple stone that is used as a gem — see color picture on page C11
2 [noncount] : a medium purple color — see color picture on page C3
– amethyst adj

ami•a•ble /ˈeɪmijəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : friendly and pleasant ▪ Everyone knew him as an amiable fellow. ▪ She had an amiable conversation with her friend.
– ami•a•bil•i•ty /ˌeɪmiəˈbɪlətijˌeɪmijəbli/ noun [noncount] the amiability of their conversation [singular] She has a warm amiability. – ami•a•bly /ˈeɪmijəbli/ adv ▪ They chatted amiably with one another.

am•i•ca•ble /ˈæmɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing a polite and friendly desire to avoid disagreement and argument ▪ The discussions were amicable. ▪ They reached an amicable agreement.
– am•i•ca•bil•i•ty /ˌæmɪkəˈbɪlətijˌæmɪkəbli/ noun [noncount] – am•i•ca•bly /ˈæmɪkəbli/ adv ▪ They met and settled the problem amicably.

amid /əˈmɪd/ or amidst /əˈmɪdst/ prep : in or into the middle of (something) ▪ It was hard to hear amid all the cheering. ▪ The investigation comes amid growing concerns. ▪ Amid such changes, one thing stayed the same. ▪ Amidst [=during] all the fighting there still remained a steady hope for peace. ▪ He managed to escape amid the confusion. ▪ There was a single dark bird amid a flock of white pigeons.

amid•ships /əˈmɪdˌʃɪps/ adv : in or near the middle of a ship ▪ The berths are located amidships.

ami•go /əˈmiːgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] chiefly US, informal : FRIEND ▪ What's new, amigo? ✧ Amigo is the Spanish word for "friend."

ami•no acid /əˈmiːnoʊ-/ noun, pl ~ acids [count] biology : any one of many acids that occur naturally in living things and that include some which form proteins

Amish /ˈɑːmɪʃ/ adj : of or relating to a Christian religious group whose members settled in America chiefly in the 18th century and continue to live in a traditional way on farms ▪ an Amish community/farmer – Amish noun [plural] ▪ a tradition among the Amish ▪ the Amish who live nearby

[1]amiss /əˈmɪs/ adj, not used before a noun : not proper or correct : WRONG ▪ Something is amiss here. ▪ Some of his assumptions are amiss. ▪ The doctor's examination showed that nothing was amiss. ▪ A special award for her performance would not be amiss. [=would be proper]

[2]amiss adv : in the wrong way ▪ Now, don't take this remark amiss. [=don't misunderstand this remark] ▪ (Brit) A little more encouragement would not come/go amiss. [=would not be unwelcome; would be proper, helpful, or appropriate] am•i•ty /ˈæməti/ noun [noncount] formal : a feeling of friendship : friendly relations between nations or groups ▪ an era of international amity am•mo /ˈæmoʊ/ noun [noncount] informal : AMMUNITION ▪ The soldiers ran out of ammo.

am•mo•nia /əˈmoʊnjə/ noun [noncount] : a colorless gas or liquid that has a strong smell and taste and that is used especially in cleaning products am•mu•ni•tion /ˌæmjəˈnɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the objects (such as bullets and shells) that are shot from weapons ▪ The troops were supplied with weapons and ammunition. — often used figuratively ▪ She had the ammunition to prove her case. [=she had the evidence she needed to prove her case] ▪ His foolish statements provided his opponents with more ammunition to use against him in the campaign.

am•ne•sia /æmˈniːʒə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which a person is unable to remember things because of brain injury, shock, or illness
– am•ne•si•ac /æmˈniːʒiˌæk/ adj ▪ an amnesiac patient
– amnesiac noun, pl -acs [count] ▪ a movie about a friendless amnesiac [=a person who has amnesia]

am•nes•ty /ˈæmnəsti/ noun, pl -ties : a decision that a group of people will not be punished or that a group of prisoners will be allowed to go free [noncount] The government gave/granted amnesty to/for all political prisoners. ▪ Illegal immigrants who came into the country before 1982 were granted/given amnesty. [count] — usually singular ▪ The government gave/granted a general amnesty to/for all political prisoners. ▪ The library declared an amnesty from fines for all books that are returned on Thursday.
– amnesty verb -ties; -tied; -ty•ing [+ obj] ▪ The government amnestied all political prisoners.

am•nio•cen•te•sis /ˌæmnijoʊˌsɛnˈtiːsəs/ noun, pl -te•ses /-ˈtiːˌsiːz/ [count] medical : a test that is done to check for possible health problems in a baby that is not yet born

amoe•ba also US ame•ba /əˈmiːbə/ noun, pl -bas or -bae /-ˌbiː/ [count] : a tiny living thing that consists of a single cell
– amoe•bic also US ame•bic /əˈmiːbɪk/ adj

amok also amuck /əˈmʌk/ adv : in a wild or uncontrolled manner — used in the phrase run amok ▪ After the attack, the looters were running amok. ▪ The virus ran amok. ▪ Conditions had allowed extremism to run amok.

among /əˈmʌŋ/ also amongst /əˈmʌŋst/ prep
1 : in or through (a group of people or things) ▪ The disease

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

spread quickly among the members of the community. ▪ The house is nestled among the trees. ▪ The ball was hidden among the leaves. ▪ There were ducks among the geese. ▪ There were several hecklers scattered among the crowd.
2 : in the presence of (a group of people) ▪ The leader was standing among [=amidst] his supporters. ▪ She enjoys spending time at home among [=with] family and friends. ▪ He lived among artists and writers. ▪ The people of the town were frightened to think that a killer might be living among them. ▪ Relax. You're among friends here. [=the people here are your friends] ✧ When people do something among themselves, they do it as a group without involving others. ▪ The brothers are always quarreling among themselves. [=are always quarreling with each other] ▪ They were unable to agree among themselves. ▪ We were joking among ourselves.
3 — used to talk about the opinions, feelings, etc., of a group of people ▪ There is much unhappiness among voters. [=many voters are unhappy] ▪ attitudes that are common among older people [=attitudes that many older people have] ▪ There is debate among researchers about the causes of this disease. ▪ a TV show that is popular among young women ▪ He is known among his colleagues as a reliable worker.
4 — used to indicate the group of people or things involved in or affected by something ▪ The new policy has led to increased competition among local businesses. ▪ There has been a high rate of illness among the children in this community. ▪ No one among them expected to survive.
5 — used to say that a person or thing is part of a larger group ▪ He is among her greatest admirers. [=he is one of her greatest admirers] ▪ He can be counted among the greatest players in the game's history. ▪ Among his good qualities is honesty. ▪ He has many good qualities. Chief among them is his honesty. ▪ Among other things she was president of her college class. ▪ She met with the company's president and vice president, among others.
6 — used to indicate the group of people or things being considered, compared, etc. ▪ They compared several new cars but found few differences among them. ▪ We were allowed to choose (from) among several options.
7 : in shares to each of (a group of people) ▪ The property was divided equally among the four survivors. [=each of the four survivors received an equal share of the property] ▪ The food was distributed among the people.
8 — used to describe someone who is unusual or excellent in some way ▪ He is an actor among actors. [=he is a great actor] ▪ He was a giant among men. [=he was very famous, powerful, successful, etc.]

amor•al /eɪˈmorəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing no concern about whether behavior is morally right or wrong ▪ amoral politicians ▪ He is an amoral, selfish person pursuing his own goals. ▪ a cynical and amoral way of competing for business — compare IMMORAL, [1]MORAL – amo•ral•i•ty /ˌeɪməˈrælətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual amorality [=amoral behavior] ▪ the amorality of his behavior
– amor•al•ly /ˌeɪˈmorəlɪ/ adv ▪ behaving/acting amorally

am•o•rous /ˈæmərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing strong feelings of sexual attraction or love ▪ an amorous woman ▪ He has an amorous nature. ▪ She was feeling amorous. ▪ an amorous glance – am•o•rous•ly adv – am•o•rous•ness noun [noncount]

amor•phous /əˈmoəfəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having no definite or clear shape or form ▪ an amorphous shape ▪ amorphous [=shapeless] clouds ▪ an amorphous segment of society
– amor•phous•ly adv – amor•phous•ness noun [noncount]

am•or•tize also Brit am•or•tise /ˈæməˌtaɪz, Brit əˈmɔːˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] business : to pay money that is owed for something (such as a mortgage) by making regular payments over a long period of time ▪ amortize a debt/loan – am•or•ti•za•tion also Brit am•or•ti•sa•tion /ˌæmətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit æˌmɔːˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]amount /əˈmaʊnt/ noun, pl amounts [count]
1 : a quantity of something ▪ The drug is not being produced in adequate amounts. — usually + of ▪ They are not producing an adequate amount of the drug. [=they are not producing enough of the drug] ▪ A considerable/fair/great/large/tremendous amount of research went into the report. ▪ Be sure to add the right amount of salt. ▪ She spent amazing/enormous amounts of time planning her garden. ▪ There's a certain amount of truth to/in what you say. [=there is some truth in what you say] ▪ The new law limits the amount of money a candidate can spend. ▪ We have any amount of available resources. = We have a large amount of available resources. ▪ No amount of money can make up for their loss. [=money cannot make up for their loss]
2 : a quantity of money ▪ What is the amount to be paid? ▪ An amount was finally agreed upon. ▪ The new law limits the amount a candidate can spend. ▪ When he died we found he owed money to/in the amount of $250,000!

> usage Amount is chiefly used with noncount nouns. ▪ He lost a large amount of money. ▪ a minimum amount of effort ▪ They provided only a small amount of information. It is also sometimes used with plural count nouns, but this use is often criticized as an error. ▪ There were a large amount of mistakes. Number is the usual word in such contexts. ▪ a large number of mistakes ▪ an increasing number of problems

[2]amount verb amounts; amount•ed; amount•ing
amount to [phrasal verb] amount to (something) 1 : to produce (a total) when added together ▪ The bill amounted to 10 dollars. ▪ They have debts amounting to thousands of dollars. ▪ The number of people taking part amounted to no more than a few hundred. 2 : to turn out to be (something or someone important, impressive, etc.) ▪ The problems didn't amount to much. [=the problems were not very bad] ▪ I don't think he'll ever amount to anything. [=achieve success] 3 : to be the same in meaning or effect as (something) ▪ acts that amount to treason ▪ Anything less than total victory would amount to failure/failing. [=would be the same as failure/failing] amour /əˈmuə/ noun, pl amours [count] literary : a sexual relationship : a love affair; especially : a secret love affair ▪ memoirs devoted to accounts of his amours

amp /ˈæmp/ noun, pl amps [count]
1 : AMPERE ▪ a current of 15 amps = a 15-amp current
2 informal : AMPLIFIER ▪ He plugged his guitar into the amp.

am•per•age /ˈæmprɪʤ/ noun [noncount] technical : the strength of a current of electricity expressed in amperes am•pere /ˈæmˌpiə, Brit ˈæmˌpɛə/ noun, pl -peres [count] technical : a unit for measuring the rate at which electric current flows ▪ a current of 15 amperes — called also amp am•per•sand /ˈæmpəˌsænd/ noun, pl -sands [count] : a character & that is used for the word and ▪ Mr. & [=and] Mrs. Joe Smith am•phet•amine /æmˈfɛtəˌmiːn/ noun, pl -amines [count] : a drug that causes the nervous system to become more active so that a person feels more energy and mental excitement am•phib•i•an /æmˈfɪbijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]

1 : an animal (such as a frog or toad) that can live both on land and in water
2 : an airplane or vehicle that can be used both on land and water am•phib•i•ous /æmˈfɪbijəs/ adj

1 : able to live both on land and in water ▪ amphibious plants/animals
2 : able to be used both on land and water ▪ amphibious airplanes/vehicles
3 : done by soldiers who are brought to land in special boats : carried out by land and sea forces acting together ▪ an amphibious assault/landing am•phi•the•a•ter (US) or chiefly Brit am•phi•the•a•tre /ˈæmfəˌθiːjətə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a large building with seats rising in curved rows around an open space on which games and plays take place
2 : an area of level ground surrounded by hills ▪ a natural amphitheater

am•ple /ˈæmpəl/ adj am•pler /ˈæmplə/; am•plest /ˈæmpləst/ [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : having or providing enough or more than enough of what is needed ▪ There was ample room for a garden. [=there was plenty of room for a garden] ▪ They had ample money for the trip. ▪ The police found ample evidence of wrongdoing. ▪ There is ample parking at the stadium. ▪ You will have ample opportunity/time to finish the test. ▪ The light in the room is more than ample. synonyms see PLENTIFUL b : quite large ▪ There was room for an ample garden. ▪ an ample serving of pie
2 — used to describe a person's (especially a woman's) body as being large in usually an attractive way ▪ She has an ample figure. ▪ a woman with an ample bosom – am•ply /ˈæmplɪ/ adv ▪ These facts amply demonstrate that

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a something is wrong. ▪ an amply stocked store ▪ You will be amply rewarded for your efforts. [=you will be given a large reward for your efforts]

am•pli•fi•er /ˈæmpləˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that increases the strength of electric signals so that sounds played through an electronic system are louder ▪ He plugged his electric guitar into an amplifier. — called also (informal) amp

am•pli•fy /ˈæmpləˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to increase the strength of (an electric signal) ▪ amplify a weak radio signal ▪ a receiver that amplified the television signal b : to make (something, such as a musical instrument) louder by increasing the strength of electric signals ▪ amplify an electric guitar
2 formal : to give more information about (something, such as a statement) : to speak or write about (something) in a more complete way ▪ I'd like to amplify [=expand on] my earlier remarks by providing some illustrations.
3 : to make (something) stronger ▪ using spices to amplify the flavors of the food – am•pli•fi•ca•tion /ˌæmpləfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] songs played with and without amplification ▪ the amplification of a signal ▪ The new rules require some amplification. [count] He started the meeting with an amplification of the new rules.

am•pli•tude /ˈæmpləˌtu:d, Brit ˈæmpləˌtju:d/ noun, pl -tudes [count, noncount] technical : a measurement that indicates the movement or vibration of something (such as a sound wave or a radio wave)

am•pule (US) or am•poule /ˈæmˌpju:l/ noun, pl -pules or -poules [count] : a small glass container used to hold a fluid that is injected into someone through a needle am•pu•tate /ˈæmpjəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] medical : to cut off (part of a person's body) ▪ His arm/leg was badly injured and had to be amputated.

– am•pu•ta•tion /ˌæmpjəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] am•pu•tee /ˌæmpjəˈti:/ noun, pl -tees [count] : a person who has had an arm or leg amputated

amuck variant spelling of AMOK am•u•let /ˈæmjələt/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a small object worn to protect the person wearing it against bad things (such as illness, bad luck, etc.)

amuse /əˈmju:z/ verb amus•es; amused; amus•ing
1 : to make someone laugh or smile : to entertain (someone) in a light and pleasant way [+ obj] His silly jokes amused the audience. = The audience was amused by his silly jokes. [=the audience found his silly jokes funny/entertaining/amusing] ▪ It amuses me to think of how he looked when I last saw him. ▪ That joke doesn't amuse me. [=I don't think that joke is funny] ▪ The loss did not amuse the coach. [=the coach was not happy about the loss] [no obj] a funny story that never fails to amuse — see also AMUSING
2 [+ obj] : to get the attention of (someone) in a pleasant way as time passes ▪ We need to find something to amuse [=entertain, occupy] the children. = We need to find something to keep the children amused. [=we need to find something for the children to do so that they aren't bored] ▪ He amused himself with a game of solitaire.
– amused adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ A faintly amused grin appeared on her face. ▪ She looked slightly/very amused by/at his appearance. ▪ I was amused to learn the whole story. ▪ The coach was not amused [=was not pleased/happy] after the loss.

amuse•ment /əˈmju:zmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the feeling of being amused or entertained ▪ I'm reading this novel for amusement. ▪ People found great amusement in his strange behavior. = His strange behavior was a source of great amusement. [=people were very amused by his strange behavior] ▪ Several games were provided for the education and amusement of the children. ▪ Much to my amusement, his confident prediction of victory turned out to be completely wrong. [=I was amused when his prediction turned out to be completely wrong]
2 [count] : something (such as an activity) that amuses or entertains someone — usually plural ▪ plays, movies, and other amusements [=entertainments] ▪ He had no time for amusements and hobbies. ▪ The park had many amusements, including two roller coasters.

amusement arcade noun, pl ~ -cades [count] Brit : ARCADE 3

amusement park noun, pl ~ parks [count] : a place that has many games and rides (such as roller coasters and merry-go-rounds) for entertainment

amus•ing /əˈmju:zɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing laughter or enjoyment : funny or enjoyable ▪ There are some amusing [=funny] twists to the story. ▪ a mildly amusing remark ▪ He's one of the most amusing people I know. ▪ It was amusing to hear her tell the story.
– amus•ing•ly adv ▪ an amusingly written story ▪ an amusingly named invention an /ˈæn, ən/ indefinite article : [2]A — used before words beginning with a vowel sound ▪ an oak ▪ an hour an- see [2]A-

[1]-an or -ian also -ean noun suffix : someone or something that belongs to ▪ Americ*an* [=a person who lives in or is from America] ▪ Bostoni*an* [=a person who lives in or is from Boston]

[2]-an or -ian also -ean adj suffix
1 : of or belonging to ▪ Americ*an*
2 : characteristic of : resembling ▪ Hercul*ean* [=resembling Hercules] ▪ Mozart*ean* [=characteristic of or resembling Mozart] an•a•bol•ic steroid /ˌænəˈbɑ:lɪk-/ noun, pl ~ -oids [count] : a drug that is sometimes used illegally by athletes to help them become stronger and more muscular anach•ro•nism /əˈnækrəˌnɪzəm/ noun, pl -nisms [count]

1 : something (such as a word, an object, or an event) that is mistakenly placed in a time where it does not belong in a story, movie, etc. ▪ The novel is full of anachronisms.
2 : a person or a thing that seems to belong to the past and not to fit in the present ▪ He's an old-fashioned politician who is seen by many of his colleagues as an anachronism.
– anach•ro•nis•tic /əˌnækrəˈnɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a politician whose values seem somewhat anachronistic
– anach•ro•nis•ti•cal•ly /əˌnækrəˈnɪstɪkli/ adv

an•a•con•da /ˌænəˈkɑ:ndə/ noun, pl -das [count] : a large South American snake that squeezes its victims to death

anaemia, anaemic chiefly Brit spellings of ANEMIA, ANEMIC an•aer•o•bic /ˌænəˈroʊbɪk/ adj : not aerobic: such as a of exercise : strengthening muscles by forcing them to work very hard for a brief time ▪ anaerobic sports/training ▪ Weight lifting is an anaerobic exercise. b technical : not using oxygen ▪ Some bacteria are aerobic and others are anaerobic.

– an•aer•o•bi•cal•ly /ˌænəˈroʊbɪkli/ adv ▪ exercising anaerobically

anaesthesia, anaesthetic, anaesthetist, anaesthetize Brit spellings of ANESTHESIA, ANESTHETIC, ANESTHETIST, ANESTHETIZE an•a•gram /ˈænəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a word or phrase made by changing the order of the letters in another word or phrase ▪ The word "secure" is an anagram of "rescue."

anal /ˈeɪnl/ adj
1 biology : of, relating to, or located near the anus ▪ the anal area
2 [more ~; most ~] informal : extremely or overly neat, careful, or precise : ANAL-RETENTIVE ▪ He can be pretty anal about keeping his office neat.
– anal•ly adv

an•al•ge•sia /ˌænlˈʤi:zə/ noun [noncount] medical : the loss of the ability to feel pain while conscious an•al•ge•sic /ˌænlˈʤi:zɪk/ noun, pl -sics [count] medical : a drug that relieves pain ▪ a mild/powerful analgesic [=painkiller] – analgesic adj ▪ a drug with analgesic [=painkilling] effects ▪ an analgesic drug an•a•log (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit an•a•logue /ˈænəˌlɑ:g/ adj

1 technical : of or relating to a device or process in which data is represented by physical quantities that change continuously ▪ Telephone lines carry data in analog form. ▪ It receives an analog video signal and converts it to a digital signal. ▪ an analog computer
2 of a clock or watch : having hour and minute hands ▪ an analog watch — compare DIGITAL 1 anal•o•gous /əˈnæləgəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : similar in some way ▪ I could not think of an analogous situation. — usually + to ▪ I could not think of a situation analogous to this one. ▪ The telescope's lenses are analogous [=comparable] to a person's glasses. ▪ Think of the process as

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

analogous to [=like] riding a bike.
– anal•o•gous•ly adv

an•a•logue or US an•a•log /ˈænəˌlɑːg/ noun, pl -logues or US -logs [count] formal : something that is similar to something else in design, origin, use, etc. : something that is analogous to something else ▪ a modern analog to what happened before ▪ the synthetic analog of a chemical found in a tropical tree ▪ a meat analogue such as tofu

anal•o•gy /əˈnælədʒi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [count] : a comparison of two things based on their being alike in some way ▪ He drew/made an analogy between flying a kite and fishing. [=he compared flying a kite to fishing; he said that flying a kite was like fishing]
2 [noncount] : the act of comparing two things that are alike in some way ▪ coining new words by analogy to/with existing ones [=coining new words so that they are formed in a way similar to old ones] ▪ reasoning by analogy anal–re•ten•tive /ˈeɪnlɪrɪˈtɛntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely or overly neat, careful, or precise ▪ My anal-retentive brother keeps records of everything that happens in his life.

anal•y•sis /əˈnæləsɪs/ noun, pl -y•ses /-əˌsiːz/
1 a : a careful study of something to learn about its parts, what they do, and how they are related to each other [count] a scientific analysis of the data ▪ make/do/perform a chemical analysis of the soil ▪ a detailed analysis of the bone structure of horses [noncount] performing chemical analysis of the soil — see also SYSTEMS ANALYSIS b : an explanation of the nature and meaning of something [count] The newspaper printed an analysis of each candidate's positions. ▪ That's not a bad analysis of the situation. [noncount] It's a problem that requires careful analysis. ▪ a problem that defies analysis [=a problem that cannot be easily understood or explained]
2 [noncount] : PSYCHOANALYSIS ▪ He has been in/undergoing analysis for many years.
in the final analysis also in the last analysis : after considering everything — used for a final statement or judgment that is based on what is most important in a particular situation ▪ It was a difficult decision but, in the final analysis, it was the right choice.

an•a•lyst /ˈænələst/ noun, pl -lysts [count]
1 : a person who studies or analyzes something ▪ a financial/legal/political analyst
2 : PSYCHOANALYST ▪ My analyst felt that I was making good progress.

an•a•lyt•i•cal /ˌænəˈlɪtɪkəl/ or an•a•lyt•ic /ˌænəˈlɪtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : of or relating to the careful study of something : of or relating to analysis of something ▪ The office managers were asking for more analytical reports. ▪ analytical chemistry ▪ a powerful analytical tool to determine the nature and extent of climate change ▪ an analytical examination of the text
2 : having or showing skill in thinking or reasoning ▪ developing social and analytical skills in children ▪ She looked at the room with an analytical [=critical] eye and saw where the changes were made. ▪ She has a very quick analytical mind.
– an•a•lyt•i•cal•ly /ˌænəˈlɪtɪkli/ adv

an•a•lyze (US) or Brit an•a•lyse /ˈænəˌlaɪz/ verb -lyz•es; -lyzed; -lyz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to study (something) closely and carefully : to learn the nature and relationship of the parts of (something) by a close and careful examination ▪ analyze a problem ▪ The data was recorded and analyzed by computer. ▪ We took the sample to be chemically analyzed by a lab. ▪ Researchers are busy analyzing the results of the study. ▪ The bacteria were analyzed under a powerful microscope.
2 : to study the emotions and thoughts of (someone) by using psychoanalysis : PSYCHOANALYZE
– an•a•lyz•able (US) or Brit an•a•lys•able /ˈænəˌlaɪzəbəl/ adj an•ar•chic /æˈnɑəkɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not following or having any laws or rules : wild and uncontrolled ▪ anarchic behavior ▪ anarchic confusion – an•ar•chi•cal•ly /æˈnɑəkɪkli/ adv ▪ behaving anarchically

an•ar•chism /ˈænəˌkɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a belief that government and laws are not necessary an•ar•chist /ˈænəˌkɪst/ noun, pl -chists [count] : a person who believes that government and laws are not necessary – an•ar•chis•tic /ˌænəˈkɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ anarchistic rebels an•ar•chy /ˈænəki/ noun [noncount] : a situation of confusion and wild behavior in which the people in a country, group, organization, etc., are not controlled by rules or laws ▪ Anarchy reigned in the empire's remote provinces. ▪ When the teacher was absent, there was anarchy in the classroom.

anath•e•ma /əˈnæθəmə/ noun, formal : someone or something that is very strongly disliked — usually + to [noncount] ideas that are anathema to me [=ideas that I strongly dislike] ▪ a politician who is anathema to conservatives/liberals [singular] ideas that are an anathema to me

anat•o•my /əˈnætəmi/ noun, pl -mies
1 biology a [noncount] : the study of the structure of living things ▪ We had to take a class on/in anatomy. ▪ a professor of anatomy b : the parts that form a living thing (such as an animal or plant) [noncount] the anatomy of birds ▪ human anatomy and physiology [count] learning about the anatomies of different types of birds
2 [count] informal : a person's body — usually singular ▪ She wore an outfit that showed off various parts of her anatomy.
3 [noncount] : the parts or causes that form or create something ▪ learning about the anatomy of an earthquake
4 [singular] : a close study of the causes or parts of something ▪ The book is an anatomy of life in the inner city.
– an•a•tom•i•cal /ˌænəˈtɑːmɪkəl/ also US an•a•tom•ic /ˌænəˈtɑːmɪk/ adj ▪ anatomical similarities between dinosaurs and birds ▪ the anatomical structure of the eye – an•a•tom•i•cal•ly /ˌænəˈtɑːmɪkli/ adv ▪ anatomically correct dolls [=dolls that have body parts like those of actual people] – anat•o•mist /əˈnætəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count] ▪ a noted anatomist [=a scientist who studies anatomy]

-ance /əns/ noun suffix : the action or process of doing something ▪ avoid*ance* ▪ perform*ance* ▪ accept*ance*

an•ces•tor /ˈænˌsɛstə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person who was in someone's family in past times : one of the people from whom a person is descended ▪ My ancestors came to America during the 1800s. ▪ Her ancestors were great sea captains.
2 : an animal in the past from which a modern animal developed ▪ an ancient animal that was the ancestor of the modern horse
3 : something in the past from which something else has developed ▪ The museum included an exhibit showing ancestors of the modern computer. ▪ several languages that are derived from a common ancestor ▪ Latin is the ancestor of Italian and French.
– an•ces•tral /ænˈsɛstrəl/ adj ▪ We returned to our ancestral home [=the home of our ancestors] after many years.

an•ces•try /ˈænˌsɛstri/ noun, pl -tries : a person's ancestors : the people who were in your family in past times [noncount] They claim to be of noble ancestry. ▪ an Englishman of German ancestry = an Englishman who is German by ancestry ▪ a person of unknown ancestry ▪ She claims to be able to trace her ancestry all the way back to the earliest settlers. [count] They have different ancestries.

[1]an•chor /ˈæŋkə/ noun, pl -chors [count]
1 : a heavy device that is attached to a boat or ship by a rope or chain and that is thrown into the water to hold the boat or ship in place ▪ The ship dropped anchor in a secluded harbor. ▪ Several yachts stood/sat/rode at anchor [=were held in place by an anchor] in the harbor. ▪ The crew weighed anchor [=lifted the anchor] and prepared to sail.
2 a : a person or thing that provides strength and support ▪ a star quarterback who has been the anchor [=the most important part] of a football team's offense for many years ▪ He described his wife as the emotional anchor of his life. ▪ a local bank that has been the financial anchor of the community b : a large store that attracts customers and other businesses to an area (such as a shopping mall) ▪ an anchor store
3 chiefly US : someone who reads the news on a television broadcast : an anchorman or anchorwoman ▪ a television news anchor

[2]anchor verb -chors; -chored; -chor•ing
1 : to keep a ship or boat from moving by using an anchor [+ obj] They anchored the ship in the bay. [no obj] The ship anchored in the bay.
2 [+ obj] : to connect (something) to a solid base : to hold (something) firmly in place — usually used as (be) anchored ▪ The cables of the bridge are anchored to the hillside. — often used figuratively with in ▪ Her authority is anchored in more than 20 years of experience.
3 [+ obj] : to be the strongest and most important part of (something) ▪ a star quarterback who has anchored the team's offense for many years

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

4 [+ obj] US : to read the news on (a television broadcast) : to be the anchorman or anchorwoman on (a news program) ▪ She anchors the nightly news broadcast.

an•chor•age /ˈæŋkərɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es
1 : a place where boats and ships are anchored [count] a safe/secluded anchorage [noncount] an area of safe anchorage
2 : something that provides a strong hold or connection [noncount] A heavy metal ring provides anchorage for the cable. [count] The ring serves as a secure anchorage.

an•cho•rite /ˈæŋkəˌraɪt/ noun, pl -rites [count] : a religious person who lives apart from other people an•chor•man /ˈæŋkəˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] chiefly US : a man who reads the news and introduces the reports of other broadcasters on a television news program ▪ a network anchorman

an•chor•wom•an /ˈæŋkəˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] chiefly US : a woman who reads the news and introduces the reports of other broadcasters on a television news program ▪ a network anchorwoman an•cho•vy /ˈænˌʧoʊvi/ noun, pl an•cho•vies also ancho•vy [count] : a small fish that has a salty flavor ▪ a salad topped with garlic and anchovies ▪ pizza with anchovies

an•cient /ˈeɪnʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very old : having lived or existed for a very long time ▪ The people in the village still observe the ancient customs/traditions of their ancestors. ▪ a grove of ancient oak trees — often used in an exaggerated way to describe an old machine, person, etc. ▪ We got a ride in an ancient truck. ▪ an ancient barn ▪ I never thought I'd feel ancient at age 31. ▪ She finally decided to replace her ancient computer with something more modern and up to date.
2 : of, coming from, or belonging to a time that was long ago in the past ▪ The practice was more common in ancient times than it is now. ▪ life in ancient Egypt/Rome/Greece/China ▪ the gods of the ancient Romans ▪ ancient artifacts ▪ She studied both ancient and modern history. ✧ In informal use, something that happened long ago and that is not important any more is ancient history. ▪ Our relationship is ancient history. ▪ Forget about the problems we've had in the past. They're ancient history. synonyms see ¹OLD
– an•cient•ly /ˈeɪnʃəntli/ adv ▪ a drink that was used anciently [=in ancient times] as a love potion an•cients /ˈeɪnʃənts/ noun

the ancients : the people who lived in ancient times : the people of ancient Greece and Rome ▪ a temple built by the ancients ▪ the gods of the ancients

an•cil•lary /ˈænsəˌleri, Brit ænˈsɪləri/ adj, formal : providing something additional to a main part or function : EXTRA ▪ The company hopes to boost its sales by releasing ancillary products. ▪ ancillary services/expenses — sometimes + to ▪ These expenses are ancillary to the basic cost.

-an•cy /ənsi/ noun suffix : the quality or state of being (something) — used to form nouns from adjectives that end in -ant ▪ dorm*ancy* ▪ tru*ancy* ▪ buoy*ancy*

and /ˈænd, ənd, ən/ conj
1 — used to join words or groups of words ▪ We have ice cream and cake for dessert. ▪ He's feeling strong and healthy. ▪ She answered quickly and confidently. ▪ He swerved and avoided an accident. ▪ She's the club's secretary and treasurer. ▪ He walked into the room and sat down at the table. ▪ an actor who is tall, dark, and handsome
2 : added to : plus ▪ 2 and 2 equals 4.
3 a — used to describe an action that is repeated or that occurs for a long time ▪ The dog barked and barked. ▪ She cried and cried. b — used to repeat a word for emphasis ▪ You and you alone are responsible for correcting these errors. ▪ There were hundreds and hundreds of people there. ▪ The project is becoming more and more expensive. ▪ The work is getting harder and harder.
4 a — used to describe actions that occur at the same time ▪ They walked and talked. ▪ We sat and waited for hours. b — used to describe an action that occurs after another action ▪ They drove five miles and stopped to eat. ▪ He promised to come and didn't. c — used to describe an action that occurs after and is caused by another action ▪ I told him to go and he went.
5 — used after go, come, try, write, etc., to indicate the purpose of an action ▪ Why don't you go/come and see her? [=go/come to see her] ▪ I'll try and do it. [=I'll try to do it] ▪ Promise that you'll write and tell me [=write to tell me] about your vacation.
6 — used to indicate a choice ▪ You have to choose between him and me.
7 — used to start a new sentence or clause that continues or adds to a previous sentence or clause ▪ These problems have been occurring for many years, as everyone acknowledges. And of course they are going to continue unless something is done. ▪ Critics of the administration—and there many of them—have objected to the new plan. ▪ "Well, I've spoken to him . . . " "And?" "And he said yes!"
8 a — used after hundred and thousand when saying a number aloud ▪ a/one hundred and twenty-four [=124] ▪ two thousand and sixty-five [=2,065] b — used when saying aloud a number that is followed by a fraction ▪ seven and three quarters [=7¾] ▪ One and a half years have passed since then. = A year and a half has passed since then.
9 — used to indicate the point where two streets meet or cross ▪ a restaurant located at (the corner of) Main Street and First Avenue an•dan•te /ˌɑːnˈdɑːnteɪ/ noun, pl -tes [count] : a musical composition or a part of a musical composition that is played somewhat slowly – andante adj or adv ▪ an andante movement ▪ This piece should be played andante.

and•iron /ˈændˌajən/ noun, pl -irons [count] : either one of a pair of metal supports that hold the wood in a fireplace — usually plural an•drog•y•nous /ænˈdrɑːʤənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having both male and female characteristics or qualities ▪ an androgynous rock star ▪ androgynous models/dancers
2 : suitable for both men and women ▪ androgynous clothes – an•drog•y•ny /ænˈdrɑːʤəni/ noun [noncount]

an•droid /ˈænˌdrɔɪd/ noun, pl -droids [count] in stories : a robot that looks like a person

an•ec•dote /ˈænɪkˌdoʊt/ noun, pl -dotes [count] : a short story about an interesting or funny event or occurrence ▪ He told us all sorts of humorous anecdotes about his childhood.
– an•ec•dot•al /ˌænɪkˈdoʊtl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I enjoyed the book's anecdotal style. ▪ His conclusions are not supported by data; they are based only on anecdotal evidence. [=evidence in the form of stories that people tell about what has happened to them] – an•ec•dot•al•ly adv ▪ Anecdotally, doctors report an increase in the disease.

ane•mia (US) or Brit anae•mia /əˈniːmijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which a person has fewer red blood cells than normal and feels very weak and tired — see also SICKLE-CELL ANEMIA ane•mic (US) or Brit anae•mic /əˈniːmɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 medical : relating to or suffering from anemia ▪ The doctor told me I was slightly anemic.
2 : not strong, forceful, or impressive : WEAK ▪ The band played an anemic rendition of a classic love song. ▪ Investors are worried about the stock's anemic performance. ▪ Officials worried about anemic attendance at the shows. ▪ Sales rose an anemic 0.5 percent last quarter.
– ane•mi•cal•ly (US) or Brit anae•mi•cal•ly /əˈniːmɪkli/ adv ▪ The economy grew anemically last year.

anem•o•ne /əˈnɛməni/ noun, pl -nes [count]
1 : a type of garden plant that has white, purple, or red flowers
2 : SEA ANEMONE

an•es•the•sia (US) or Brit an•aes•the•sia /ˌænəsˈθiːʒə/ noun [noncount] medical : loss of feeling in a person's body or part of the body through the use of drugs ▪ The patient was given an injection to induce anesthesia. ▪ patients who are under general anesthesia [=patients who have been given drugs that make them unconscious and unable to feel pain] ▪ The doctor removed the mole while the patient was under local anesthesia. [=the patient had been given drugs that took away feeling in only the part of the body where the doctor worked]

an•es•the•si•ol•o•gist /ˌænəsˌθiːziˈɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] US, medical : a doctor who specializes in anesthesia and anesthetics : ANESTHETIST an•es•thet•ic (US) or Brit an•aes•thet•ic /ˌænəsˈθɛtɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] medical : a drug that causes a person to lose feeling and to feel no pain in part or all of the body ▪ The doctor gave him the stitches without an anesthetic. ▪ The surgery required a general anesthetic. [=a drug that makes a person unconscious and unable to feel pain] ▪ a local anes-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

thetic [=a drug that makes a part of the body unable to feel pain] – anesthetic (US) or Brit anaesthetic adj ▪ the anesthetic properties of a drug anes•the•tist (US) or Brit anaes•the•tist /əˈnɛsθətɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] medical : a doctor or nurse who gives an anesthetic to a patient anes•the•tize (US) or Brit anaes•the•tize or anaes•the•tise /əˈnɛsθəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] medical : to give drugs to (a patient) so that no pain can be felt : to give an anesthetic to (a patient) ▪ The doctor anesthetized the patient by/with an intravenous injection. ▪ She was anesthetized before the operation.

anew /əˈnuː, Brit əˈnjuː/ adv, somewhat formal
1 : over again : once more ▪ He demonstrated anew that he's not a good leader. ▪ These problems must be dealt with anew. ▪ The process begins anew each spring. ▪ Let's stop for now and start anew [=afresh, again] in the morning.
2 : in a new or different form ▪ The poem has been translated anew for this new book.

an•gel /ˈeɪnʤəl/ noun, pl an•gels [count]
1 : a spiritual being that serves especially as a messenger from God or as a guardian of human beings ▪ an angel from heaven ▪ a merciful angel = an angel of mercy ▪ the angel of death [=an angel that comes when someone dies] — see also GUARDIAN ANGEL
2 informal : a person (such as a child) who is very good, kind, beautiful, etc. ▪ Your son is such an angel! ▪ He's not a bad kid, but he's no angel. ▪ Be an angel and get me a cup of tea, would you?
– an•gel•ic /ænˈʤɛlɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a child's angelic face ▪ an angelic voice ▪ angelic behavior [=very good behavior] – an•gel•i•cal•ly /ænˈʤɛlɪkli/ adv ▪ an angelically behaved/beautiful child ▪ She smiled angelically.

angel food cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count, noncount] US : a soft and light white cake — compare DEVIL'S FOOD CAKE

[1]an•ger /ˈæŋgɚ/ noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of being upset or annoyed because of something wrong or bad : the feeling that makes someone want to hurt other people, to shout, etc. : the feeling of being angry ▪ He couldn't hide his anger with/at us. ▪ You could hear the anger in his voice. ▪ The group expressed/vented its anger over/about the company's arrogance. ▪ He said that he had/felt no anger towards the person who shot him. ▪ He never raised his voice in anger. ▪ She was shaking/trembling in/with anger. ▪ He is not easily moved to anger. [=he does not become angry easily]

> synonyms ANGER, RAGE, FURY, and WRATH mean a strong feeling caused by displeasure. ANGER is a general word that applies to many different levels of emotion that may or may not be shown. ▪ She kept her anger inside herself. RAGE suggests loss of control because of great anger. ▪ They were screaming with rage. FURY suggests a violent anger. ▪ In their fury they smashed all the dishes. WRATH is a slightly old-fashioned word that suggests a desire to punish someone or to get revenge for something. ▪ In his wrath the king ordered the rebels executed.

[2]anger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) angry ▪ They were shocked and angered by the company's arrogance. ▪ He was angered to learn that he had been fired. ▪ It angered me that she would say something like that. ▪ He's a gentle man who's not easily angered.

an•gi•na /ænˈʤaɪnə/ noun [noncount] medical : a heart disease that causes brief periods of intense chest pain ▪ an attack of angina = an angina attack — called also angina pectoris

anglais see COR ANGLAIS

anglaise see CRÈME ANGLAISE

[1]an•gle /ˈæŋgəl/ noun, pl an•gles [count]
1 a : the difference between the direction of two lines or surfaces that come together : the space or shape formed when two lines or surfaces meet each other ▪ The two lines form a sharp angle. = The two lines meet/intersect at a sharp angle (to each other). ▪ The two lines meet at a 30-degree angle to each other. = There is a 30-degree angle between the two lines. ▪ The lines are at sharp angles to each other. — see picture at GEOMETRY; see also RIGHT ANGLE b — used to describe a surface that is not level ▪ The hill slopes down/up at an angle of about 30 degrees. c — used to describe something that leans or goes to the side rather than straight up or directly forward ▪ The pole stood at an angle. ▪ The road goes off at a sharp/slight angle to the right/left. ▪ The rays of light shone through the window at an angle.
2 : the position from which something is approached, looked at, etc. ▪ Critics love the clever camera angles the director used in the film. ▪ She took pictures of the same scene from several different angles. ▪ The soldiers were being attacked from every angle.
3 : a way of thinking about, describing, or discussing something ▪ We need to approach the problem from a new/different angle. ▪ They considered the question from all angles. ▪ The reporter tried to work that angle into his story.
4 chiefly US, informal a : a secret and often improper reason for doing something ▪ I don't trust that guy, but I can't figure out what his angle is yet. b : a clever and often improper way of doing or getting something ▪ a salesman who's always looking for an angle [=looking for a way to convince people to buy the things he is selling]

[2]angle verb angles; an•gled; an•gling /ˈæŋglɪŋ/
1 : to turn, move, or point something so that it is not straight or flat [+ obj] One spotlight was put high in the corner and angled [=pointed] down toward the floor. ▪ The seats in the theater were angled so that we were looking almost straight up. ▪ The road was angled down toward the river. [no obj] The road angled [=sloped] down toward the river.
2 [+ obj] : to present (something, such as a news story) in a particular way or from a particular point of view ▪ You should try to angle the story so that it appeals to younger readers. — often used as (be) angled ▪ The story was angled to appeal to younger readers.
– compare [3]ANGLE

[3]angle verb angles; angled; angling [no obj]
1 : to fish with a hook and line ▪ go angling for trout — see also ANGLER, ANGLING
2 informal : to try to get what you want in a clever or indirect way ▪ She's been angling to get a promotion. — usually + for ▪ She's angling for a promotion. ▪ They're all angling for a place on the committee.
– compare [2]ANGLE

angle bracket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : either one of a pair of punctuation marks ⟨ ⟩ used to enclose written material an•gler /ˈæŋglɚ/ noun, pl -glers [count] : a person who catches fish for pleasure : FISHERMAN ▪ a skilled angler

An•gli•can /ˈæŋglɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : a member of the Church of England – Anglican adj ▪ an Anglican bishop ▪ the Anglican Church

An•gli•can•ism /ˈæŋglɪkəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the beliefs and practices of the Church of England an•gli•cize also Brit an•gli•cise /ˈæŋgləˌsaɪz/ verb -ciz•es; -cized; -ciz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something or someone) English or more English ▪ anglicize a French word/name ▪ the word's anglicized pronunciation/spelling ▪ The cookbook anglicized many exotic dishes to make them easier to prepare.

– an•gli•ci•za•tion also Brit an•gli•ci•sa•tion /ˌæŋgləsəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌæŋgləˌsaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] an•gling /ˈæŋglɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity or sport of fishing for pleasure ▪ an angling adventure/expedition in the mountains

An•glo /ˈæŋgloʊ/ noun, pl An•glos [count] chiefly US : a white person who lives in the U.S. and is not Hispanic ▪ a committee with a mixture of blacks, Anglos, and Hispanics — often used before another noun ▪ the town's Anglo population

An•glo- combining form : English or British ▪ Anglo-American ▪ *Anglo*phile

An•glo–Amer•i•can /ˌæŋgloʊəˈmerəkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : an American whose family comes originally from England
– Anglo–American adj

An•glo•phile /ˈæŋgləˌfajəl/ noun, pl -philes [count] : a non-English person who greatly likes and admires England and English things

An•glo•phobe /ˈæŋgləˌfoʊb/ noun, pl -phobes [count] : a person who dislikes England and English things – An•glo•pho•bic /ˌæŋgləˈfoʊbɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

An•glo•phone /ˈæŋgləˌfoʊn/ adj : having English as the main language ▪ the city's Anglophone population ▪ an Anglophone neighborhood in a French-speaking country – Anglophone noun, pl -phones [count] ▪ a neighborhood that includes both Anglophones [=people who speak English as their main language] and Francophones

An•glo–Sax•on /ˌæŋgloʊˈsæksən/ noun, pl -ons

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

1 a [count] : a member of the Germanic people who conquered Britain in the fifth century A.D. b [noncount] : the language of the Anglo-Saxons : OLD ENGLISH ▪ There are many words from Anglo-Saxon that survive in English today.
2 [count] : a person whose ancestors were English – Anglo–Saxon adj ▪ an Anglo-Saxon person ▪ a white Anglo-Saxon Protestant ▪ an Anglo-Saxon word an•go•ra /æŋˈgorə/ noun, pl -ras

1 [noncount] : a kind of soft yarn or wool that is made from the hair of the Angora goat or the Angora rabbit — often used before another noun ▪ an angora scarf/sweater
2 [count] : a type of cat, goat, or rabbit that has long soft hair — usually used before another noun ▪ an Angora rabbit an•gry /ˈæŋgri/ adj an•gri•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : filled with anger : having a strong feeling of being upset or annoyed ▪ I've never seen her look so angry. ▪ An angry crowd gathered outside the courthouse. ▪ I was angry that he had forgotten my birthday. ▪ What made you so angry? ▪ He got/grew/became angry when he found out about their plans. — often + at or with ▪ He was angry at/with her for staying out so late. ▪ I was angry at/with him for forgetting my birthday. — often + about or over ▪ She's still angry about/over the way she's been treated. ▪ Students are angry about/over the increase in tuition. ▪ What is she so angry [=(US) mad] about? b : showing anger ▪ He sent an angry letter to the company president. ▪ They had an argument and exchanged some angry words. ▪ She gave me an angry look.
2 literary : seeming to show anger : threatening or menacing ▪ The sea/sky grew angry. [=dark and stormy] ▪ angry clouds
3 : very red and painful ▪ an angry rash/sore/scratch
– an•gri•ly /ˈæŋgrəli/ adv ▪ He slammed the door angrily. ▪ She glared at us angrily.

angst /ˈɑːŋst, ˈæŋst/ noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of being worried or nervous : a feeling of anxiety about your life or situation ▪ a film about teenage angst

an•guish /ˈæŋgwɪʃ/ noun [noncount] : extreme suffering, grief, or pain ▪ tears/cries of anguish ▪ He experienced the anguish of divorce after 10 years of marriage. ▪ mental anguish ▪ They watched in anguish as fire spread through the house.
– an•guished /ˈæŋgwɪʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She looked at me with an anguished expression. ▪ I will never forget their anguished cries.

an•gu•lar /ˈæŋgjələ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having little flesh so that the shapes of your bones can be seen : thin and bony ▪ He has an angular face. ▪ She's a tall, angular girl.
2 : having one or more angles ▪ The house is low and angular. ▪ an angular mountain peak
– an•gu•lar•i•ty /ˌæŋgjəˈlerəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]an•i•mal /ˈænəməl/ noun, pl -mals [count]
1 : a living thing that is not a human being or plant ▪ people and animals ▪ the animals in the zoo ▪ the plants and animals of the forest ▪ She loves all kinds of animals. ▪ pigs, chickens, and other farm animals [=animals that live on a farm] — often used to refer specifically to mammals as distinguished from other living things (such as fish and birds) ▪ the plants, birds, and animals of the forest ▪ furry little animals ▪ wild/domestic animals — see also PACK ANIMAL, STUFFED ANIMAL
2 : any living thing that is not a plant ▪ Fish, birds, insects, reptiles, mammals, and human beings are all animals. ▪ Dogs, like humans, are social animals. [=animals that live in groups] ▪ studying the habits of the human animal [=the habits of human beings; the habits of people in general]
3 : a person who behaves in a wild, aggressive, or unpleasant way ▪ He's a real animal. ▪ You're all behaving like a bunch of animals. — see also PARTY ANIMAL
4 somewhat informal : a person or thing of a particular kind ▪ You want someone who will love you and give you everything you want but ask nothing in return? Let's face it, there's no such animal! [=there is no person who will do that] ▪ Everyone wants a computer that always works perfectly, but there's no such animal. ▪ The sport has changed. It's a very/completely different animal today. [=it's very/completely different today] ▪ His wife has always been a political animal. [=has always been very interested in politics]

[2]animal adj
1 always used before a noun a : of or relating to animals ▪ studying animal behavior ▪ several different plant and animal species ▪ the other members of the animal kingdom [=a basic group of living things that includes all animals] ▪ She's a supporter of animal rights. [=she believes that all animals should be treated in a fair and kind way] b : coming from the bodies of animals ▪ animal cells/bones/fat/skin ▪ milk, meat, and other animal products
2 : of or relating to the body and not to the mind ▪ Their attraction was animal [=physical] rather than intellectual or spiritual. ▪ animal instincts/passion/desires ▪ People were shocked by the animal brutality of the attack. ✧ Animal magnetism is a strong physical or sexual attractiveness. ▪ Women were drawn to his animal magnetism. [=sex appeal] animal cracker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a small cookie that is shaped like an animal animal husbandry noun [noncount] : a kind of farming in which people raise animals for meat, milk, eggs, etc.

[1]an•i•mate /ˈænəmət/ adj, formal : having life : alive or living ▪ The lecture was about ancient worship of animate and inanimate objects. — opposite INANIMATE

[2]an•i•mate /ˈænəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone or something) lively or excited ▪ A smile animated [=brightened] his face. ▪ The writer's humor animates the novel.
2 : to make (something, such as a drawing) appear to move by creating a series of drawings, pictures, etc., and showing them quickly one after another : to make (something) appear to move by using the process of animation ▪ The film's very realistic dinosaurs were animated on computers.

an•i•mat•ed /ˈænəˌmeɪtəd/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : full of life and energy ▪ He became more animated [=excited, lively] as he described the project. ▪ She gave an animated description of the project. ▪ After dinner, the discussion got more animated.
2 : produced by the creation of a series of drawings, pictures, etc., that are shown quickly one after another : produced through the process of animation ▪ an animated film/cartoon ▪ Many movies for kids are animated rather than live-action. ▪ animated characters – an•i•mat•ed•ly adv ▪ She spoke animatedly about her son's soccer game.

an•i•ma•tion /ˌænəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : a lively or excited quality ▪ He talked with animation [=in an excited or animated way] about his vacation.
2 a [noncount] : a way of making a movie by using a series of drawings, computer graphics, or photographs of objects (such as puppets or models) that are slightly different from one another and that when viewed quickly one after another create the appearance of movement ▪ The animation for the film took over two years to complete. ▪ The studio used computer animation for some of the special effects. — compare LIVE ACTION b [count] : a movie or brief scene that is made this way ▪ The Web site has hundreds of animations you can download.
– see also SUSPENDED ANIMATION

an•i•ma•tor /ˈænəˌmeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who creates animated movies and cartoons an•i•me /ˈænəˌmeɪ/ noun [noncount] : a style of animation that was created in Japan and that uses colorful images, strong characters, and stories that have a lot of action an•i•mism /ˈænəˌmɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that all plants, animals, and objects have spirits an•i•mos•i•ty /ˌænəˈmɑːsəti/ noun, pl -ties : a strong feeling of dislike or hatred [noncount] There has always been animosity [=hostility] between them. [=they have always disliked each other] ▪ He felt nothing but animosity toward his boss. [=he disliked his boss very much] [count] We put aside our personal animosities so that we could work together.

an•i•mus /ˈænəməs/ noun, formal : a strong feeling of dislike or hatred [noncount] my animus [=(more commonly) animosity] towards/against the organization [singular] She felt an animus against them.

an•ise /ˈænəs/ noun [noncount] : a plant with seeds that are used in cooking and to flavor candies and alcoholic drinks ani•seed /ˈænəsˌsiːd/ noun [noncount] : the seed of the anise plant an•is•ette /ˌænəˈsɛt/ noun [noncount] : a sweet alcoholic drink that is flavored with aniseed an•kle /ˈæŋkəl/ noun, pl an•kles [count] : the joint where the foot joins the leg ▪ I hurt/twisted/sprained/broke my ankle. ▪ ankle boots [=boots that cover only the foot and ankle] — see pictures at FOOT, HUMAN ankle sock noun, pl ~ socks [count] : a short sock that reaches slightly above the ankle — called also (US) anklet; see color picture on page C13

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

an•klet /ˈæŋklət/ noun, pl -klets [count]
1 : a band, ring, or chain that is worn around the ankle — called also ankle bracelet
2 US : ANKLE SOCK

an•nals /ˈænəlz/ noun [plural]
1 : historical records — usually used in the phrase in the annals of ▪ This event will go down in the annals of sports/war/medicine. [=will be remembered as part of the history of sports/war/medicine] ▪ He became a major figure in the annals of justice.
2 : records of the activities of an organization — often used in the titles of publications ▪ She used a quote from the Annals of Family Medicine.

an•neal /əˈniːl/ verb -neals; -nealed; -neal•ing [+ obj] technical : to heat and then slowly cool (metal, glass, etc.) in order to make it stronger

[1]an•nex /əˈnɛks/ verb -nex•es; -nexed; -nex•ing [+ obj] : to add (an area or region) to a country, state, etc. : to take control of (a territory or place) ▪ The United States annexed Texas in 1845. ▪ The government planned to annex the islands.
– an•nex•a•tion /ˌænɛkˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[2]an•nex (chiefly US) or Brit an•nexe /ˈæˌnɛks/ noun, pl -nex•es [count]
1 : a building that is attached to or near a larger building and usually used as part of it ▪ The addition will be used as an annex to the library. ▪ We store our old files in the annex.
2 chiefly Brit : a section or statement added at the end of a document : APPENDIX ▪ an annexe to the document an•ni•hi•late /əˈnajəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to destroy (something or someone) completely ▪ Bombs annihilated the city. ▪ The enemy troops were annihilated.
2 : to defeat (someone) completely ▪ He annihilated his opponent in the last election.
– an•ni•hi•la•tion /əˌnajəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The regime is facing annihilation. ▪ the annihilation of the city

an•ni•ver•sa•ry /ˌænəˈvəsəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a date that is remembered or celebrated because a special or notable event occurred on that date in a previous year ▪ the anniversary of the invasion/attack ▪ We are celebrating our fifth (wedding) anniversary this year. = We are celebrating the fifth anniversary of our wedding this year. ▪ The exhibit will close on the 100th anniversary of the artist's death. — often used before another noun ▪ an anniversary party/celebration/dinner an•no•tate /ˈænəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] : to add notes or comments to (a text, book, drawing, etc.) ▪ He annotated the text at several places. ▪ annotate a list – annotated adj ▪ a fully annotated diagram an•no•ta•tion /ˌænəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a note added to a text, book, drawing, etc., as a comment or explanation ▪ Without the annotations, the diagram would be hard to understand.
2 [noncount] : the act of adding notes or comments to something : the act of annotating something ▪ the author's annotation of the diagram an•nounce /əˈnaʊns/ verb -nounc•es; -nounced; -nounc•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (something) known in a public or formal way : to officially tell people about (something) ▪ The government announced a cut in taxes. ▪ They announced plans to move the company out of the state. ▪ The company president has announced her retirement. ▪ Their engagement was formally announced in the newspaper. — often + that ▪ The government announced that there would be a cut in taxes. ▪ A voice on the loudspeaker announced that the store was closing in 10 minutes. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The sound of the door slamming announced his departure. [=I knew he had left when I heard the door slam]
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a loud and definite way ▪ When everyone was sitting down, she abruptly announced [=declared] (to us) her intention to quit school. ▪ He suddenly stood up and announced, "I'm leaving." = He suddenly stood up and announced that he was leaving.
3 [+ obj] : to say in a formal or official way that something or someone has arrived or is present or ready ▪ She announced dinner [=said that dinner was ready] promptly at six o'clock. ▪ Don't enter the president's office until you've been announced. [=until the president has been told that you are there] ▪ A man in a tuxedo announced each guest [=loudly told everyone the guests' names] as they arrived. ▪ We only had to wait a few minutes before our flight was announced [=called] over the loudspeaker.
4 [no obj] US : to say that you are a candidate for a political office ▪ He is expected to announce for President [=to say that he is going to run for President] tomorrow.
5 [+ obj] US : to describe (a sports event) on radio or television : to be the announcer for (a sports event) ▪ Do you know who's going to announce tonight's game?

an•nounce•ment /əˈnaʊnsmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : a written or spoken statement that tells people about something : public or formal words that announce something ▪ Many people were surprised by the government's announcement that there will be a cut in taxes. ▪ I heard an announcement on the loudspeaker saying that the store was closing in 10 minutes. ▪ The company president made an announcement about the merger. ▪ He asked us to pay attention because he had an important announcement to make. ▪ I saw their wedding announcement in the newspaper. ▪ Our program will pause now for a brief commercial announcement. [=a television or radio commercial]
2 [noncount] : the act of officially telling people about something : the act of announcing something ▪ They have been very busy since the announcement of their wedding. ▪ We had to leave before the announcement of the winners. [=before the winners were announced] an•nounc•er /əˈnaʊnsɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who gives information on television or radio ▪ He works part-time as an announcer for a local radio station.
2 : a person who gives information in a public place (such as a store or airport) especially using a loudspeaker ▪ The racetrack announcer said that the next race was about to start. ▪ a public address announcer [=a person who makes announcements over a public address system]
3 US : a person who describes a sports event for television or radio ▪ The announcer said that the catcher had injured his shoulder.

an•noy /əˈnɔɪ/ verb -noys; -noyed; -noy•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel slightly angry ▪ Her constant chatter annoyed [=irritated] all of us. ▪ I was annoyed [=upset, bothered] by his question.
– annoyed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She is annoyed at/with me. ▪ She looked at him with a very annoyed expression. ▪ He was annoyed (to realize) that he had forgotten his wallet. – annoying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has several annoying [=irritating] habits. ▪ That noise is very annoying.
– an•noy•ing•ly adv ▪ She can be annoyingly sweet.

an•noy•ance /əˈnɔjəns/ noun, pl -anc•es
1 [noncount] : slight anger : the feeling of being annoyed ▪ She expressed annoyance at the slow service. ▪ They were late again, (much) to our annoyance. [=it annoyed us that they were late again] ▪ She shook her head in annoyance. [=in a way that showed she was annoyed]
2 [count] : something that causes feelings of slight anger or irritation : a source of annoyance ▪ The long wait at the restaurant was a minor annoyance. [=nuisance]

[1]an•nu•al /ˈænjəwəl/ adj
1 : happening once a year ▪ The annual meeting is in July. ▪ It's time for your annual [=yearly] checkup. ▪ The company's earnings for last year are published in the annual report.
2 : covering the period of a year ▪ We had more snow this year than the average annual amount. ▪ The company charges an annual fee of $45.
3 always used before a noun, of a plant : living for only one year or season : having a life cycle that is one year or season long ▪ annual plants/herbs/flowers — compare [1]BIENNIAL, [1]PERENNIAL – an•nu•al•ly adv ▪ We meet annually [=once a year] in July. ▪ Their earnings increase annually. [=every year] ▪ A report of the company's earnings is published annually.

[2]annual noun, pl -als [count]
1 : a plant that lives for only one year or season ▪ We planted some annuals in front of the house. — compare [2]BIENNIAL, [2]PERENNIAL
2 : a book or magazine that is published once a year an•nu•ity /əˈnuːəti, Brit əˈnjuːəti/ noun, pl -ities [count]

1 : a fixed amount of money that is paid to someone each year
2 : an insurance policy or an investment that pays someone a fixed amount of money each year ▪ Part of her retirement income will come from an annuity.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

an•nul /əˈnʌl/ verb -nuls; -nulled; -nul•ling [+ obj] : to say officially that something is no longer valid : to make (something) legally void ▪ Their marriage was annulled. ▪ annul a contract/vote/election – an•nul•ment /əˈnʌlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] They wanted an annulment of their marriage. [noncount] The couple has filed for annulment.

annum see PER ANNUM

An•nun•ci•a•tion /əˌnʌnsiˈeɪʃən/ noun
the Annunciation : March 25 celebrated as a Christian festival in memory of the announcement to the Virgin Mary that she would be the mother of Christ

an•ode /ˈæˌnoʊd/ noun, pl -odes [count] technical : the part of an electrical device (such as a battery) from which electrons leave — compare CATHODE an•o•dyne /ˈænəˌdaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not likely to offend or upset anyone ▪ an anodyne [=innocuous] question about the weather

anoint /əˈnoɪnt/ verb anoints; anoint•ed; anoint•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put oil on (someone) as part of a religious ceremony ▪ The priest anointed them (with oil).
2 : to officially or formally choose (someone) to do or to be something ▪ He anointed [=named, designated] her his successor. ▪ The magazine anointed her the most popular actress of the year.
– anoint•ment /əˈnoɪntmənt/ noun [noncount]

anom•a•lous /əˈnɑːmələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not expected or usual ▪ Researchers could not explain the anomalous test results.
– anom•a•lous•ly adj

anom•a•ly /əˈnɑːməli/ noun, pl -lies [count] somewhat formal : something that is unusual or unexpected : something anomalous ▪ A storm like that is an anomaly for this area. [=a storm like that does not usually happen in this area] ▪ We couldn't explain the anomalies in the test results. ▪ The doctor detected an anomaly [=irregularity] in my heartbeat.

anon /əˈnɑːn/ adv, literary + humorous : in a short time : SOON ▪ I will answer his letter anon.
ever and anon see EVER

anon. abbr anonymous; anonymously an•o•nym•i•ty /ˌænəˈnɪməti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being unknown to most people : the quality or state of being anonymous ▪ They are trying to protect their child's anonymity. ▪ She enjoyed the anonymity of life in a large city. ▪ She agreed to speak to the reporter only on condition of anonymity. [=only if her name would not be revealed by the reporter]

anon•y•mous /əˈnɑːnəməs/ adj
1 : not named or identified ▪ The donor wishes to remain anonymous. ▪ An anonymous buyer purchased the painting.
2 : made or done by someone unknown ▪ The college received an anonymous gift. ▪ He made an anonymous phone call to the police. ▪ The reporter got an anonymous tip.
3 [more ~; most ~] : not distinct or noticeable : lacking interesting or unusual characteristics ▪ She works in an anonymous [=bland, nondescript] brick building. ▪ His was just another anonymous face in the crowd.
– anon•y•mous•ly adv ▪ They made the donation anonymously.

an•o•rak /ˈænəˌræk/ noun, pl -raks [count]
1 : a jacket that has a hood and that is long enough to cover your hips ✧ An anorak is usually worn to protect against wind and rain.
2 Brit, informal + disapproving : a person who is extremely interested in something that other people find boring ▪ political anoraks an•orex•ia /ˌænəˈrɛksijə/ noun [noncount] : a serious physical and emotional illness in which an abnormal fear of being fat leads to very poor eating habits and dangerous weight loss ✧ Anorexia most commonly affects teenage girls and young women. — called also anorexia nervosa; compare BULIMIA – an•orex•ic /ˌænəˈrɛksɪk/ adj ▪ an anorexic young woman

– anorexic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ She's an anorexic. [=a person suffering from anorexia]

[1]an•oth•er /əˈnʌðə/ adj
1 : one more in addition ▪ Should we open another bottle of wine? ▪ Don't say another word. ▪ It will take another two years [=an additional two years; two more years] to finish the building. ▪ That's another way of saying the same thing. ▪ As far as I'm concerned, "frugal" is just another word for "cheap." ["frugal" means the same thing as "cheap"] ▪ We had dinner at another one of the city's many Italian restaurants. ▪ This is yet another example of government waste. ▪ If you ask me, he's just another overpaid athlete. [=he's one of many overpaid athletes]
2 : some other : different from the first or other one ▪ We'll plan to meet again (at) another time. ▪ We'll discuss this again on another occasion. ▪ The view is very different when it is seen from another angle. ▪ Please bring me another cup. This one is chipped. ▪ Since his illness he has been another man. [=he has been very different from how he was before he became sick] ▪ Tomorrow is another day. ▪ the splendors of another age [=a past age] ▪ I'm willing to help you, but if you're asking for money, that's another thing/matter/story. [=I'm willing to help you but that does not mean that I'm willing to give you money] ▪ Complaining about problems is one thing, but finding solutions to them is another thing altogether/entirely. [=it is more difficult to find solutions to problems than to complain about them]
3 : similar or equal to a particular person or thing ▪ He thought of himself as another Napoleon. [=as a person who was like Napoleon] ▪ The city advertises itself as another Las Vegas.

[2]another pronoun
1 : one more of the same kind : another one ▪ I've had one drink, but I think I'll have another. ▪ One copy of the letter was sent out, and another was placed in the files. ▪ One thief carried a gun, another (carried) a knife. ▪ This cup is chipped. Could you please bring me another? ▪ We had dinner at another of the city's many Italian restaurants.
2 : one that is different : someone or something else ▪ She's not comfortable living in another's house. [=in another person's house] ▪ Complaining about problems is one thing, but finding solutions to them is another. [=it is more difficult to find solutions to problems than to complain about them] ▪ The family seems to move from one city to another.
3 — used in phrases with one or (less commonly) some to refer to something that is not specified ▪ We all do foolish things at one time or another. [=sometimes, on occasion] ▪ They had to change their plans for one/some reason or another. [=for some reason] ▪ He vowed that he would succeed (in) one way or another. [=vowed that he would find a way to succeed] ▪ a lock of one kind/sort/type or another [=some kind/sort/type of lock] ▪ What with one thing and another, we still haven't finished. [=we still haven't finished because of various things that have happened] — see also ONE ANOTHER one after another 1 : in a continuing series ▪ The buses kept arriving, one after another. ▪ One person after another walked out of the concert. 2 : each one in a continuing series ▪ One after another of her friends got married and moved away.

A. N. Other /ˌeɪˌɛnˈʌðə/ noun, Brit, informal — used to refer to another person who is not known or named ▪ The rumor was traced to Smith, Jones, and A. N. Other.

[1]an•swer /ˈænsə, Brit ˈɑːnsə/ noun, pl -swers
1 [count] a : something you say or write when someone asks you a question ▪ I asked him a simple question and he gave me a long and confusing answer. ▪ I didn't believe her answer. ▪ They wouldn't give me a straight answer to my question. ▪ There will be a question and answer session [=a period of time when people can have their questions answered] following the speech. b : a response to a question that is meant to show whether or not you know something (such as a question asked as part of an exam) ▪ I didn't know the right/correct answer. ▪ That is the wrong/incorrect answer. c : the correct response to a question ▪ Do you know the answer to this question? ▪ He knew the answers to only 3 of the 10 questions. ▪ The answers are listed in the back of the book.
2 : something you say or write as a reaction to something someone else has said or done [count] I sent a letter of complaint but I never got an answer. [=response] ▪ I finally received an answer [=reply] to my letter. ▪ When I say something to you I expect an answer. [=response] ▪ I called out her name but I got no answer. [=reply] [noncount] In answer [=in response] to your request we are sending a catalog.
3 [count] : something you do in response to something that has happened : a reaction to something — usually singular ▪ I called several times but there was no answer. [=no one answered the phone when I called] ▪ I got no answer when I called. ▪ I knocked on the door but there was no answer. [=no one opened the door when I knocked on it] ▪ The company

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

had no answer when its competitors lowered their prices. ▪ When she called him a liar, his only answer was to walk out. ▪ Our team had no answer for the other team's strong offense. [=our team could not win because of the other team's strong offense]

4 [count] : a solution to a problem : something that makes a bad situation better ▪ More money is not the answer (to our problems). ▪ It's a very difficult problem, and I don't know what the answer is. ▪ They don't have answers for everything. = They don't have an answer for everything. ▪ For a tough issue like this there are no easy answers. ▪ He thinks he has/knows all the answers. [=he thinks that he knows the solution to every problem] ✧ Someone or something that is the answer to (all) your prayers provides you with something that you want or need. ▪ If you've been wanting to get your schedule organized, this new software is the answer to (all) your prayers. ▪ They were desperate to find a good lawyer, and they thought she might be the answer to their prayers.

5 [count] : something or someone that resembles a well-known or successful thing or person — + to ▪ The program is television's answer to newsmagazines. [=the program is similar to a newsmagazine]

[2]answer verb -swers; -swered; -swer•ing

1 a : to say or write something when someone asks you a question : to give an answer to (a question) [+ obj] She answered all my questions. ▪ He answered only three of the test questions correctly. [no obj] When the police asked him his name, he refused to answer. ▪ She answered correctly/incorrectly. b [+ obj] : to say or write (something) as a reply ▪ When asked if she would run for office, she answered that she hadn't decided. = When asked if she would run for office, she answered "I haven't decided." c [+ obj] : to reply to (someone) : to say or write something as a response to (someone) ▪ When I ask you a question I expect you to answer me! ▪ Answer me this: where have you put my money?

2 a : to write a response to a letter, e-mail message, etc. [no obj] I sent her a letter asking for her help, but she never answered. [+ obj] She never answered my letter. = She never answered me. b : to pick up (a ringing telephone) [no obj] The phone rang repeatedly, but no one answered. [+ obj] Would somebody please answer the phone? ▪ answer a phone call c : to open a door when someone knocks on it [no obj] I knocked on the door but no one answered. [+ obj] No one answered the door.

3 : to act in response to (something) : to react to (something) by taking some action [+ obj] I got the job by answering a "help wanted" ad in the newspaper. ▪ When the war began, thousands of young men answered the call to arms. [=thousands of young men joined the armed forces] ▪ He answered her anger with indifference. [=he responded to her anger by acting indifferent] [no obj] The home team scored first but the visiting team answered quickly. [=the visiting team also scored soon after the home team scored]

4 [+ obj] : to say something in response to (something, such as an accusation) : to defend yourself against (something) ▪ The police chief will appear in court today to answer charges of corruption. ▪ answer criticism

5 [+ obj] : to be the same as (something) : to be in agreement with (something, such as a description) ▪ The suspect answered [=matched] the description that had been given by the witness. — see also ANSWER TO 1 (below)

6 [+ obj] : to be what is needed for (something) ▪ We don't have a sink, but this bucket will answer [=(more commonly) serve] the purpose. [=we can use this bucket as a sink] — see also ANSWER FOR 1c (below)

answer back [phrasal verb] 1 somewhat informal : to reply to someone especially in a rude way ▪ impolite children who answer back [=talk back] when their teacher corrects them 2 *answer (someone) back : to reply rudely to (someone) ▪ He became angry when she answered him back.

answer for [phrasal verb] 1 *answer for (something) a : to take responsibility for (something) ▪ I can't answer for their safety. [=I can't promise that they will be safe] : to be responsible for (something) ▪ The company will have to answer for any damage done by its employees. ▪ She has a lot to answer for. [=she is responsible for many bad things that have happened] b : to be punished for (something) ▪ He must answer for his crimes. c US : to be used as (something) : to serve as (something) ▪ The old bucket answered for a sink. [=the old bucket was used as a sink] — see also [2]ANSWER 6 (above) 2 *answer for (someone) : to say what someone else thinks : to give the opinion of (someone else) ▪ I like the proposal myself, but I can't answer for my boss.

answer someone's prayers : to provide what someone hopes or prays for ▪ They hoped that God would answer their prayers and restore their son's health. ▪ Their prayers were answered when their son's health was restored.

answer to [phrasal verb] 1 *answer to (something) : to be the same as (something) : to be in agreement with (something, such as a description) ▪ The suspect answers to [=answers, matches] the description perfectly. — see also [2]ANSWER 5 (above) 2 *answer to (someone) : to be required to explain your actions to (someone) ▪ He has to answer to a tough boss. 3 *answer to a name ✧ If an animal, such as a dog, answers to a name, it responds when it is called by that name. ▪ This dog answers to the name (of) "Rover." This phrase is also used to refer to the name used by a person. ▪ My uncle's real name is "Edwin," but he doesn't answer to that name. He prefers to be called "Ed."

– an•swer•er /ˈænsəɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

an•swer•able /ˈænsərəbəl, Brit ˈɑːnsərəbəl/ adj

1 not used before a noun a : required to explain actions or decisions to someone ▪ Political leaders need to be answerable to [=accountable to] the people they represent. ▪ a powerful businesswoman who seems to think that she's answerable to no one b : responsible for something ▪ The company is answerable for [=accountable for] any damage caused by its employees.

2 : capable of being answered ▪ an easily answerable question answering machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] : a machine that answers the telephone and records messages left by the people who call ▪ I haven't spoken to him yet, but he left a message on my answering machine.

answering service noun, pl ~ -vices [count] : a business that answers telephone calls and takes messages for the people and businesses that hire it ▪ The doctor is not in the office now, but you can reach her answering service at this number if you have an emergency.

an•swer•phone /ˈænsəˌfoʊn, Brit ˈɑːnsəˌfəʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] Brit : ANSWERING MACHINE

ant /ˈænt/ noun, pl ants [count] : a kind of small insect that lives in an organized social group ▪ a colony of ants = an ant colony — see color picture on page C10

ants in your pants informal : a strong feeling of wanting to be active and not wait for something : a feeling of excitement and impatience ▪ a little kid with ants in her pants

[1]-ant /ənt/ noun suffix : a person or thing that does a specified thing ▪ assist*ant* ▪ attend*ant* ▪ immigr*ant* ▪ cool*ant* ▪ pollut*ant*

[2]-ant adj suffix : doing a specified thing or behaving in a specified way ▪ propell*ant* ▪ hesit*ant* ▪ observ*ant*

ant•ac•id /ænt̬ˈæsəd/ noun, pl -ids [count, noncount] : medicine that prevents or lessens the pain caused by having too much acid in your stomach an•tag•o•nism /ænˈtægəˌnɪzəm/ noun, pl -nisms : a strong feeling of dislike or hatred : a desire to oppose something you dislike or disagree with — often + between or toward [noncount] There is a long history of antagonism [=hostility, enmity] between the two nations. ▪ The policy is creating antagonism [=opposition] between the staff and management. ▪ I never felt any antagonism [=animosity] toward her. [plural] The region has a long history of ethnic antagonisms.

an•tag•o•nist /ænˈtægənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] : a person who opposes another person ▪ He faced his antagonist [=(more commonly) opponent, adversary] in a series of debates.

an•tag•o•nis•tic /ænˌtægəˈnɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing dislike or opposition : showing antagonism ▪ They found it impossible to deal with such antagonistic groups. — often + to or toward ▪ Many people are antagonistic [=opposed, hostile] to the idea of making major changes to the building. ▪ The two groups have always been antagonistic toward each other. ▪ She was antagonistic toward the media.

– an•tag•o•nis•tic•al•ly /ænˌtægəˈnɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ Many people reacted antagonistically to her comments.

an•tag•o•nize also Brit an•tag•o•nise /ænˈtægəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel hostile or angry : to irritate or upset (someone) ▪ He didn't mean to antagonize you. ▪ Her comments antagonized many people.

ant•arc•tic or Ant•arc•tic /ænt̬ˈɑɚktɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the South Pole or the region around it ▪ off the antarctic coast ▪ The group is involved in

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

Antarctic exploration. ▪ Antarctic waters — compare ARCTIC

Antarctic Circle noun
the Antarctic Circle : an imaginary line that goes around the Earth near the South Pole

[1]an•te /ˈænti/ noun, pl an•tes [count] : the amount of money that a player must bet at the beginning of play in a poker game — usually singular ▪ The dealer called for a dollar ante. — see also PENNY-ANTE raise the ante or up the ante : to increase an amount or level: such as a : to raise the cost or price ▪ The popular actor first demanded twice the salary offered him but then kept upping the ante. b : to increase the risk or possible harm that could result from something — often + on ▪ The new law ups the ante on [=increases penalties for] people who cheat on their taxes. c : to set a higher standard or goal — often + on ▪ The film ups the ante on special effects.

[2]ante verb antes; an•ted; an•te•ing : to pay the amount of money required to start play in a poker game [no obj] Did everyone at the table ante? — usually + up ▪ The dealer waited until everyone had anted up before he dealt the cards. [+ obj] Everyone anted up a dollar. — often used figuratively ▪ Parents are usually expected to ante up [=pay] for their children's college education. ▪ They had to ante up [=pay] $5,000 to attend the senator's banquet.

ante- prefix
1 : before or earlier ▪ *ante*date ▪ *ante*natal
2 : in front of ▪ *ante*room

ant•eat•er /ˈæntˌi:tɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an animal that has a very long nose and tongue and eats ants an•te•bel•lum /ˌæntɪˈbɛləm/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : occurring in the southern U.S. during the time before the American Civil War ▪ the antebellum South ▪ antebellum society/houses

[1]an•te•ced•ent /ˌæntəˈsi:dənt/ noun, pl -ents
1 [count] grammar : a word or phrase that is represented by another word (such as a pronoun) ▪ "John" is the antecedent of the pronoun "him" in "Mary saw John and thanked him."
2 [count] formal : something that came before something else and may have influenced or caused it ▪ The events were antecedents of/to the war. [=the events helped to cause the war] ▪ the antecedents of rap music [=music that came before and influenced rap music]
3 antecedents [plural] formal : the people in a family who lived in past times ▪ He is proud of his Scottish antecedents. [=(more commonly) ancestors]

[2]antecedent adj, formal : earlier in time ▪ These antecedent [=prior, previous] events affected the outcome of the war.

an•te•cham•ber /ˈæntɪˌʧeɪmbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] formal : ANTEROOM an•te•date /ˈæntɪˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to give an earlier date rather than the actual date to (something) ▪ antedate a check — opposite POSTDATE
2 : to be earlier or older than (something) : PREDATE ▪ The church antedates the village itself. — opposite POSTDATE an•te•di•lu•vi•an /ˌæntɪdəˈlu:vijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very old or old-fashioned ▪ an antediluvian automobile ▪ He has antediluvian notions/ideas about the role of women in the workplace.

an•te•lope /ˈæntɪˌloʊp/ noun, pl an•te•lopes or antelope [count] : an animal in Africa and Asia that looks like a deer, has horns pointing up and back, and runs very fast an•te•na•tal /ˌæntɪˈneɪtl/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit, medical : PRENATAL an•ten•na /ænˈtɛnə/ noun, pl -nae /-ni/ or -nas [count]

1 : a thin sensitive organ on the head of an insect, crab, etc., that is used mainly to feel and touch things — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a Senator with sensitive political antennae [=a Senator who is very aware of political issues and attitudes] ✧ The plural of antenna in this sense is usually antennae.
2 chiefly US : a device (such as a wire or a metal rod) for sending or receiving radio or television signals ▪ a TV antenna [=(chiefly Brit) aerial] — see picture at CAR ✧ The plural of antenna in this sense is usually antennas.

an•te•ri•or /ænˈtirijə/ adj, technical : near or toward the front of something (such as the body) ▪ the anterior part of the brain — opposite POSTERIOR an•te•room /ˈæntɪˌru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a small room that is connected to a larger room and used as a place for people to wait before going into the larger room — called also antechamber

an•them /ˈænθəm/ noun, pl -thems [count]
1 : a formal song of loyalty, praise, or happiness ▪ patriotic anthems — see also NATIONAL ANTHEM
2 : a song that is important to a particular group of people ▪ teen anthems – an•the•mic /ˌænˈθi:mɪk/ adj ▪ an anthemic song/chorus an•ther /ˈænθə/ noun, pl -thers [count] technical : the part of a flower that contains pollen ant•hill /ˈæntˌhɪl/ noun, pl -hills [count] : a mound of dirt made by ants when building a nest

an•thol•o•gy /ænˈθɑ:ləʤi/ noun, pl -gies [count]
1 : a published collection of writings (such as poems or short stories) by different authors ▪ an anthology of American poetry
2 : a collection of works of art or music ▪ The band will be releasing an anthology of their earlier albums.

an•thra•cite /ˈænθrəˌsaɪt/ noun [noncount] : a hard type of coal that burns slowly without much smoke or flame an•thrax /ˈænˌθræks/ noun [noncount] : a serious disease that affects animals (such as cattle and sheep) and sometimes people an•thro•poid /ˈænθrəˌpoɪd/ adj, technical : resembling a human being ▪ anthropoid apes – anthropoid noun, pl -poids [count] ▪ gorillas and other anthropoids

an•thro•pol•o•gy /ˌænθrəˈpɑ:ləʤi/ noun [noncount] : the study of human races, origins, societies, and cultures – an•thro•po•log•i•cal /ˌænθrəpəˈlɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ anthropological research – an•thro•po•log•i•cal•ly /ˌænθrəpəˈlɑ:ʤɪkli/ adv – an•thro•pol•o•gist /ˌænθrəˈpɑ:ləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

an•thro•po•morph•ic /ˌænθrəpəˈmoəfɪk/ adj
1 : described or thought of as being like human beings in appearance, behavior, etc. ▪ a story in which the characters are anthropomorphic animals
2 : considering animals, objects, etc., as having human qualities ▪ anthropomorphic beliefs about nature an•ti /ˈænti, ˈænˌtaɪ/ prep, informal : opposed to (something or someone) : AGAINST ▪ She's anti big corporations.

an•ti- /ˌænˌtaɪ, ˌænti; sometimes ˌæntɪ before consonants/ prefix
1 : opposite to something ▪ *anti*climax ▪ *anti*social
2 : against someone or something ▪ *anti*government [=opposed to the government] ▪ *anti*smoking ▪ *anti*war — often used with a hyphen ▪ anti-American ▪ anti-poverty ▪ anti-gun — opposite PRO-
3 : acting to prevent something ▪ *anti*bacterial ▪ *anti*freeze ▪ *anti*theft
4 : fighting or defending against something ▪ *anti*aircraft an•ti•air•craft /ˌæntiˈeəˌkræft, Brit ˌæntiˈɛəˌkrɑ:ft/ adj, always used before a noun : used for defense against military aircraft ▪ antiaircraft guns/missiles an•ti•bac•te•ri•al /ˌæntɪbækˈtirijəl/ adj : able to kill bacteria ▪ antibacterial soap an•ti•bi•ot•ic /ˌæntɪbaɪˈɑ:tɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] medical : a drug that is used to kill harmful bacteria and to cure infections – antibiotic adj ▪ an antibiotic pill ▪ antibiotic drugs an•ti•body /ˈæntɪˌbɑ:di/ noun, pl -bod•ies [count] medical : a substance produced by the body to fight disease an•tic /ˈæntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very playful, funny, or silly ▪ an antic comedian ▪ antic humor — see also ANTICS

an•tic•i•pate /ænˈtɪsəˌpeɪt/ verb -pates; -pat•ed; -pat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to think of (something that will or might happen in the future) : EXPECT ▪ The cost turned out to be higher than anticipated. ▪ They do not anticipate [=foresee] any major problems during construction. ▪ The hotel anticipated my every need. [=I didn't have to ask for anything because they already provided it] ▪ The author anticipated objections to his theory. ▪ The organizers of the fair anticipate a large crowd. ▪ I did not anticipate having to pay for your ticket. ▪ The boxer tried to anticipate [=predict] his opponent's next move.
2 : to expect or look ahead to (something) with pleasure : to look forward to (something) ▪ He eagerly anticipated her arrival.
3 formal : to do something before someone else ▪ His use of composition anticipated later Renaissance paintings. = He anticipated later Renaissance painters in his use of composition.

an•tic•i•pa•tion /ænˌtɪsəˈpeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

1 : a feeling of excitement about something that is going to happen ▪ She had a feeling of great anticipation before her graduation ceremony. ▪ He looked forward to the party with anticipation. ▪ The actor's fans were trembling with/in anticipation [=excitement] when his limousine drove up.
2 : the act of preparing for something ▪ They hired extra police officers in anticipation of a big crowd [=because they expected a big crowd] at the concert.
– an·tic·i·pa·to·ry /æn'tɪsəpəˌtori, Brit ænˌtɪsə'peɪtri, æn'tɪsəpətri/ adj, formal ▪ the anticipatory excitement before a baseball play-off game ▪ The town took anticipatory measures to prevent a flood.

an·ti·cli·max /ˌæntɪ'klaɪˌmæks/ noun, pl -max·es : something that is much less exciting or dramatic than it was expected to be : a dull or disappointing ending or result [count] The last chapter of the book was an anticlimax. [noncount] The movie ended in anticlimax.
– an·ti·cli·mac·tic /ˌæntɪklaɪ'mæktɪk/ adj ▪ The last chapter of the book was anticlimactic. ▪ The trial was anticlimactic, since it ended without a verdict.

an·ti·clock·wise /ˌæntɪ'klɑːkˌwaɪz/ adj or adv, Brit : COUNTERCLOCKWISE an·ti·co·ag·u·lant /ˌæntɪkoʊ'ægjələnt/ noun, pl -lants [count] medical : a substance that prevents blood from forming clots an·tics /'æntɪks/ noun [plural] often disapproving : funny or playful actions or behavior ▪ I'm tired of his childish antics.

an·ti·cy·clone /ˌæntɪ'saɪˌkloʊn/ noun, pl -clones [count] technical : winds that turn around an area of high pressure and that often bring clear, dry air ✧ Anticyclones and cyclones turn in opposite directions.
– an·ti·cy·clon·ic /ˌæntɪsaɪ'klɑːnɪk/ adj an·ti·de·pres·sant /ˌæntɪdɪ'prɛsn̩t/ noun, pl -sants [count] medical : a drug that is used to relieve or prevent depression in a person – antidepressant adj ▪ antidepressant drugs/medication an·ti·dote /'æntɪˌdoʊt/ noun, pl -dotes [count]

1 : a substance that stops the harmful effects of a poison ▪ There is no antidote to/for this poison.
2 : something that corrects or improves the bad effects of something ▪ For him, racing motorcycles is a great antidote to boredom.

an·ti·freeze /'æntɪˌfriːz/ noun [noncount] : a substance that is added to the water in a vehicle's engine to prevent it from freezing an·ti·gen /'æntɪʤən/ noun, pl -gens [count] medical : a harmful substance that causes the body to produce antibodies an·ti·he·ro /'æntɪˌhiroʊ/ noun, pl -roes [count] : a main character in a book, play, movie, etc., who does not have the usual good qualities that are expected in a hero an·ti·his·ta·mine /ˌæntɪ'hɪstəˌmiːn/ noun, pl -mines [count, noncount] medical : a drug that is used to treat allergic reactions and colds an·ti–in· am ·ma·to·ry /ˌæntijɪn'flæməˌtori, Brit ˌæntijɪn'flæmətri/ adj, medical : used to control or reduce inflammation ▪ anti-inflammatory drugs – anti–in ammatory noun, pl -ries [count]

an·ti·lock /'æntɪˌlɑːk/ adj, always used before a noun : made to keep the wheels of a vehicle from causing a skid when the vehicle stops suddenly ▪ Antilock braking systems give the driver greater control during a sudden stop. ▪ antilock brakes an·ti·mo·ny /'æntəˌmoʊni, Brit æn'tɪməni/ noun [noncount] technical : a silvery-white metal that breaks easily and that is used especially in alloys an·ti·ox·i·dant /ˌæntiˈɑːksədənt/ noun, pl -dants [count] : a substance that is added to food and other products to prevent harmful chemical reactions in which oxygen is combined with other substances an·ti·pas·to /ˌæntiˈpɑːstoʊ, ˌæntiˈpæstoʊ, Brit 'æntiˌpæstəʊ/ noun [noncount] : a plate of cold meat or vegetables that is served especially as the first course of a meal an·tip·a·thy /æn'tɪpəθi/ noun, pl -thies formal : a strong feeling of dislike [noncount] There has always been strong antipathy between the two groups. ▪ feelings of antipathy [count] The author's antipathies and prejudices are obvious. — often + to or toward ▪ The author's antipathy to/toward other cultures is obvious.

– an·ti·pa·thet·ic /ˌæntɪpəˈθɛtɪk/ adj ▪ antipathetic views/feelings — often + to ▪ He is antipathetic to change.

an·ti·per·son·nel /ˌæntɪˌtaɪpəsə'nɛl/ adj, always used before a noun : made to kill and injure people rather than to destroy buildings, vehicles, etc. ▪ antipersonnel land mines an·ti·per·spi·rant /ˌæntɪ'pəˑsprənt/ noun, pl -rants [count, noncount] : a substance that is used to prevent sweating — compare DEODORANT

An·tip·o·des /æn'tɪpəˌdiːz/ noun
the Antipodes chiefly Brit : Australia and New Zealand – an·tip·o·de·an or Antipodean /ænˌtɪpə'diːjən/ adj ▪ antipodean destinations ▪ her Antipodean friends [=friends from Australia or New Zealand] – antipodean or Antipodean noun, pl -ans [count]

[1]an·ti·quar·i·an /ˌæntə'kwerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who collects, studies, or sells valuable old things — called also antiquary

[2]antiquarian adj : relating to the collection and study of valuable old things (such as old books) ▪ antiquarian bookstores

an·ti·quary /'æntəˌkweri, Brit 'æntəkwəri/ noun, pl -quar·ies [count] : ANTIQUARIAN an·ti·quat·ed /'æntəˌkweɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very old and no longer useful, popular, or accepted : very old-fashioned or obsolete ▪ antiquated [=outmoded, outdated] medical procedures ▪ He has some pretty antiquated opinions about politics.

[1]an·tique /æn'tiːk/ adj : belonging to an earlier period, style, or fashion : old and often valuable ▪ antique furniture ▪ an antique clock/car synonyms see [1]OLD

[2]antique noun, pl -tiques [count] : art, furniture, jewelry, etc., that was made at an earlier time and is often valuable ▪ She collects antiques. ▪ That car is an antique. — often used before another noun ▪ an antique collector/dealer/shop

an·tiq·ui·ty /æn'tɪkwəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : ancient times ▪ Greek/Roman antiquity ▪ The town dates from antiquity. ▪ late antiquity ▪ A palace stood here in antiquity.
2 [noncount] : very great age ▪ a castle of great antiquity [=a very old castle]
3 antiquities [plural] : objects from ancient times ▪ a museum of Roman antiquities

an·ti–Sem·ite /ˌæntɪ'sɛˌmaɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : someone who hates Jewish people an·ti–Se·mit·ic /ˌæntɪsə'mɪtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing hatred of Jewish people ▪ anti-Semitic literature ▪ The group denied being anti-Semitic.

an·ti–Sem·i·tism /ˌæntɪ'sɛməˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : hatred of Jewish people an·ti·sep·tic /ˌæntə'sɛptɪk/ noun, pl -tics : a substance that prevents infection in a wound by killing bacteria [count] Clean the affected area with an antiseptic. [noncount] He applied antiseptic to the wound.

– antiseptic adj ▪ antiseptic cream/lotion/soap an·ti·so·cial /ˌæntɪ'soʊʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : violent or harmful to people ▪ Crime is antisocial. ▪ antisocial tendencies/attitudes/behavior
2 : not friendly to other people ▪ My neighbor is antisocial. ▪ She's not being antisocial; she's just shy at parties.

an·ti·tank /'æntiˌtæŋk/ adj, always used before a noun : used to destroy or stop tanks ▪ antitank weapons an·tith·e·sis /æn'tɪθəsəs/ noun, pl -e·ses /-əˌsiːz/ [count] formal 1 : the exact opposite of something or someone ▪ poverty and its antithesis [=opposite], wealth — often + of ▪ She is the antithesis of a politician. [=her character is the opposite of a politician's] ▪ His lifestyle is the antithesis of healthy living.

2 : the state of two things that are directly opposite to each other — often + of or between ▪ The poem reflects the antithesis of/between good and evil.

an·ti·thet·i·cal /ˌæntə'θɛtɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : directly opposite or opposed ▪ the antithetical forces of good and evil — often + to ▪ The court's ruling is antithetical to the very idea of democracy.

an·ti·trust /ˌæntaɪ'trʌst/ adj, always used before a noun, law : protecting against unfair business practices that limit competition or control prices ▪ antitrust laws ▪ an antitrust violation [=a violation of an antitrust law]

an·ti·vi·rus /ˌæntiˈvaɪrəs/ adj : used to protect a computer from viruses ▪ antivirus software ant·ler /'æntlə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : the horn of a deer or similar animal – ant·lered /'æntlə·d/ adj ▪ a deer with an antlered head

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

an•to•nym /ˈæntəˌnɪm/ noun, pl -nyms [count] : a word with a meaning that is opposite to the meaning of another word ▪ "Hot" and "cold" are antonyms. — compare SYNONYM ant•sy /ˈæntsi/ adj ant•si•er; -est chiefly US, informal 1 : impatient and unable to keep still ▪ The children were getting antsy [=fidgety, restless] on the trip in the car.

2 : nervous about what might happen ▪ Investors are antsy [=anxious] as stock prices continue to decline.

anus /ˈeɪnəs/ noun, pl anus•es [count] : the opening between a person's buttocks through which solid waste passes from the body an•vil /ˈænvəl/ noun, pl -vils [count] : a heavy iron block on which heated metal is shaped by hitting it with a hammer

anvil

anx•i•ety /æŋˈzajəti/ noun, pl -et•ies
1 : fear or nervousness about what might happen [noncount] feelings of anger and anxiety ▪ She suffers from chronic/acute anxiety. ▪ He suffers from test anxiety. [=excessive fear about taking tests] ▪ He's been feeling a lot of anxiety about/over his new job. [count] — usually plural ▪ modern anxieties about terrorism ▪ She discussed her anxieties with her sister.
2 [singular] : a feeling of wanting to do something very much ▪ She has always had an anxiety to succeed. [=she has always been anxious to succeed] anx•ious /ˈæŋkʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : afraid or nervous especially about what may happen : feeling anxiety ▪ She feels anxious and depressed. ▪ They are anxious [=worried, concerned] about their son's health. ▪ People are anxious about the future. ▪ They were anxious for their daughter. [=they were worried about what might happen to their daughter] ▪ He was anxious that the weather would not improve in time for the party. b : causing or showing fear or nervousness ▪ We experienced a few anxious moments as we waited to hear the results of the test. ▪ It was an anxious night as she waited for her children to come home. ▪ an anxious moment ▪ He was waiting at the door with an anxious expression/look on his face.
2 : wanting or eager to do or have something very much especially because of fear or nervousness ▪ He was anxious for more news. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She was anxious to succeed in school. ▪ It was snowing hard and we were anxious to get home. ▪ We were anxious to hear the results.
– anx•ious•ly adv ▪ Her parents waited anxiously for her to come home that night. – anx•ious•ness noun [noncount] ▪ feelings of anxiousness [=(more commonly) anxiety]

[1]any /ˈɛni/ adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to indicate a person or thing that is not particular or specific ▪ Ask any man you meet, and he will tell you the same thing. ▪ Any one of them could have answered the question. ▪ You can return the product if any defect appears within the first six months. ▪ Any plan (at all) is better than no plan. ▪ Any [=every] child knows that. [=all children know that] ▪ He is as good as any other pitcher in the league. ▪ We can meet any day but Monday. ▪ You could have seen him any afternoon last week. ▪ The recipe uses a large amount of pepper, and not just any pepper, but a special blend imported from India. ▪ You have to be a member to go there. They won't let just any person in.
2 — used to indicate an amount greater than zero or none; usually used in negative statements, in questions, and in statements with if or whether ▪ You haven't eaten any salad. [=no salad has been eaten] ▪ I can't find any stamps. ▪ Don't pay any attention to him. ▪ There is hardly any difference between the two teams. ▪ They dropped by without any warning. ▪ We don't want there to be any misunderstandings. ▪ The company has denied any [=all] responsibility for the accident. ▪ There are few if any [=few or no] details about the accident. ▪ Do you have any money? ▪ He asked if/whether you had any money. ▪ If there are any errors, report them to me. = Report any errors to me. ▪ If you can give me any help, I'd appreciate it. = I'd appreciate any help you can give me.

usage Some is used instead of any in positive statements. ▪ I have some money. It is sometimes used instead of any in questions and in statements with if or whether. ▪ Do you have some money? ▪ If I had some money, I would spend it on books.

any moment see MOMENT any old see [1]OLD at any cost see [1]COST by any chance see [1]CHANCE go to any length/lengths see LENGTH in any case see [1]CASE in any event see EVENT

[2]any pronoun
1 : any one of the people or things in a group ▪ She asked if there were any present who needed assistance. ▪ The movie's opening scene is as powerful as any I've ever watched. — often + of ▪ Any of them could answer the question. ▪ He is taller than any of the other boys.
2 : any amount ▪ "I'd like some more coffee." "I'm sorry, but there isn't any left." ▪ Is there any [=some] left? ▪ I'll see if there's any [=some] left. — often + of ▪ You have not eaten any of your salad.

[3]any adv : to the least amount or degree ▪ The food there is never any good. ▪ He won't be any happier there than he was here. ▪ I could not walk any farther. ▪ Do you want any [=some] more pizza? ▪ I can't eat any more pizza. ▪ If you want any [=some] more pizza, it's in the fridge. ▪ (US, informal) You certainly aren't helping me any. [=at all] ▪ We can't ignore these problems any longer. [=anymore] [=we must stop ignoring these problems]

any•body /ˈɛniˌbɑːdi, ˈɛniˌbʌdi/ pronoun
1 : any person : ANYONE ▪ Did anybody call? ▪ I don't know how anybody can believe that. ▪ I thought I heard someone outside, but when I looked there wasn't anybody there. [=no one was there] ▪ An accident like that could happen to anybody. ▪ You have to be a member to go there. They won't let just anybody in. ▪ Everybody who's anybody [=every important or well-known person] was there. ▪ She arrived 10 minutes before anybody else. [=before any other person]
2 — used when asking a question that could be answered by any of the people in a group ▪ Does anybody know where my keys are? [=do any of you know where my keys are?] ▪ Would anybody like more coffee?

any•how /ˈɛniˌhaʊ/ adv, informal
1 : ANYWAY ▪ It's OK if we don't go to the movie. I'm not that interested in seeing it anyhow. ▪ What exactly did she mean by that anyhow?
2 chiefly Brit : in a way that is not organized or neat : in a careless way ▪ The books were scattered anyhow [=every which way] around the office.

any•more /ˌɛniˈmoə/ adv : in the recent or present period of time ▪ I never see them anymore. ▪ She used to live there, but she doesn't live there anymore. [=she doesn't live there any longer; she doesn't live there now] usage Anymore is usually used in negative statements and in questions. ▪ Does she live there anymore? In some parts of the U.S. it is also used informally in positive statements. ▪ I've been seeing them a lot anymore. [=I've been seeing them a lot lately/recently] It is sometimes written any more. ▪ She doesn't live there any more.

any•one /ˈɛniˌwʌn/ pronoun
1 : any person : ANYBODY ▪ Did anyone call? ▪ If anyone calls, take a message. ▪ I don't know how anyone can believe that. ▪ An accident like that could happen to anyone. ▪ I thought I heard someone outside, but there wasn't anyone there. [=no one was there] ▪ You have to be a member to go there. They won't let just anyone in. ▪ Everyone who's anyone [=every important or well-known person] was there. ▪ She arrived 10 minutes before anyone else. [=before any other person]
2 — used when asking a question that could be answered by any one of the people in a group ▪ Does anyone know where my keys are? [=do any of you know where my keys are?] ▪ Would anyone like more coffee? — compare SOMEONE any•place /ˈɛniˌpleɪs/ adv, US : [1]ANYWHERE 1 ▪ I'll go anyplace you want. ▪ I can't find my keys anyplace. ▪ I'm happy here and I wouldn't want to live anyplace else.

any•thing /ˈɛniˌθɪŋ/ pronoun
1 : a thing of any kind ▪ We were allowed to do anything we wanted to. ▪ If you're not sure what to say, just say anything that comes to mind. ▪ She didn't say anything at all. [=she said nothing at all] ▪ That dog will eat almost/nearly/practically/virtually anything. ▪ We didn't talk about anything much. ▪ The new stadium is spectacular. There's never been anything like it. ▪ She never does anything but complain. [=all she does is complain] ▪ I'll do anything I can to help. ▪ They were ready for anything (that might happen). ▪ You can't tell him any- thing about computers. He thinks he's an expert. ▪ I can't think of her as anything but a good friend. [=I can only think of her as a good friend] ▪ He'll do anything for a laugh. ▪ I'd do/give anything to see her again. ▪ He won't take anything from anyone. [=he won't allow anyone to mistreat him, to be rude to him, etc.] ▪ She ate hardly anything. [=she ate almost nothing] ▪ He said he was sorry, but that doesn't really mean anything. ▪ I don't have anything against them. [=I don't have any reason for disliking them] ▪ She thought it was funny but I didn't see anything funny about it. [=I didn't think it was funny at all] ▪ They've been doing everything and anything to finish on time. = They've been doing anything and everything to finish on time. ▪ The problems were caused by lack of time as much as anything. ▪ She dresses conservatively at work, but on the weekends, anything goes. [=anything is acceptable; there are no rules that have to be followed]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

2 : [1]SOMETHING — used in questions ▪ Would you like anything else? ▪ Is there anything wrong? ▪ Is there anything (good/interesting) on TV tonight? ▪ (informal) Do you want some pretzels or anything? [=or a similar thing] anything but : not at all ▪ He looked anything but happy. [=he looked very unhappy] ▪ Though he said he was happy, he looked anything but (happy). ▪ This problem is anything but new.

anything like 1 : at all like — used in negative statements ▪ He doesn't look anything like his brother. 2 or anything near : in any way : at all — used in negative statements ▪ He doesn't look anything like his brother. ▪ The movie wasn't anything like/near what I expected it to be. [=the movie was completely different from what I expected it to be] ▪ We don't have anything like/near enough time. [=we don't have nearly enough time] as anything informal : as any person or thing — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ He was (as) calm as anything. [=he was very calm] ▪ It was as obvious as anything [=it was extremely obvious] that she didn't want to go.

for anything : for any reason — used in negative statements ▪ I like my life, and I wouldn't change it for anything.

if anything see [1]IF like anything informal : very much : very forcefully ▪ It was raining like anything. [=it was raining very hard] ▪ She was hoping like anything that the weather would be good.

more than anything : very much : very badly ▪ I wanted to believe her more than anything [=I very much wanted to believe her], but I couldn't. ▪ More than anything (in the world), I'd like to visit Paris again. [=the thing I most want to do is to visit Paris again] any•time /ˈɛniˌtaɪm/ adv : at any time ▪ You can call me anytime. I'm always home. ▪ We should arrive anytime between 5 and 6 p.m. ▪ The bus should be here anytime now. ▪ Things will not improve anytime soon. [=things will not improve in the near future] ✧ Anytime is sometimes used informally to say that you are willing to do something again at any time. ▪ "Thanks for your help." "Anytime."

any•way /ˈɛniˌweɪ/ adv

1 : despite something that has been stated before ▪ The road got worse, but they kept going anyway. ▪ I didn't expect her to say "yes," but I asked her anyway. ▪ It makes no difference what we say. She's going to do what she wants anyway. ▪ He's far from perfect, but she loves him anyway.

2 — used to give added force to a question ▪ How do they do it anyway? ▪ What exactly does this mean anyway? ▪ I can't believe he acted so rudely. Who does he think he is anyway?

3 — used to add something to a previous statement ▪ It's too expensive, and anyway [=and besides], we don't have enough time to do it.

4 — used to correct or slightly change a previous statement ▪ I've never known him to be sad—not this sad anyway. ▪ The movie wasn't that bad. I liked it, anyway, even if no one else did. ▪ For a brief time, anyway, they seemed to be happy. ▪ The weather is expected to improve next week. Anyway, that's what I've heard.

5 — used to indicate that something stated before is not important ▪ Don't worry about being late. It doesn't matter anyway.

6 — used to introduce a statement that begins a new subject or that goes on to the next important part of a story ▪ So, anyway, what do you want to do next? ▪ Anyway, I have to go now. I'm already late. ▪ I must have fallen asleep at that point. Anyway, the next thing I knew, the phone was ringing.

any•ways /ˈɛniˌweɪz/ adv, US, informal : ANYWAY ▪ Who does that guy think he is anyways? ▪ You're late. Anyways, at least you showed up.

[1]any•where /ˈɛniˌweə/ adv

1 : in, at, or to any place ▪ This type of plant can grow just about anywhere. ▪ It's a small camera that you can take practically/virtually anywhere. ▪ They gave her permission to go anywhere she wanted to. ▪ This kind of thing could happen anywhere. ▪ You can sit anywhere you like. ▪ He seems to be at home anywhere in the world. ▪ I can't find my keys anywhere. ▪ I'd know/recognize her anywhere. ▪ They produce some of the finest wines made anywhere. ▪ He never walks anywhere. He always drives. ▪ I'll take you anywhere you want to go. ▪ I heard that she might be quitting, but she says she's not going anywhere. [=she says that she's staying] ▪ This bird species is not found anywhere else in the world. [=the bird is not found at any other place in the world] ▪ I wouldn't want to live anywhere else. ▪ These plants don't grow just anywhere. They need lots of sun. — often used figuratively ▪ His career isn't going anywhere. [=his career is not making progress; his career is not becoming more successful; his career is going nowhere] ▪ It seemed like a good idea, but it never went anywhere. [=it never produced any useful results] ▪ We're working hard but we don't seem to be getting anywhere. [=we don't seem to be making progress] ▪ Arguing will not get us anywhere. [=arguing will not help us solve the problem] ▪ Our efforts to get more information didn't lead anywhere. [=our efforts were not successful]

2 : [1]SOMEWHERE — used in questions ▪ Did you go anywhere while on your vacation? ▪ Have you been anywhere else in Europe?

3 — used to give added emphasis to near and close ▪ The police wouldn't let us get anywhere near the accident scene. ▪ The dog barks if you come anywhere near him. ▪ The company hasn't come anywhere near/close to meeting its goals. ▪ We're not anywhere close to being done. [=we're very far from being done] ▪ The movie was not anywhere near as good [=the movie was not nearly as good] as I expected it to be.

4 — used to indicate a range of amounts, values, etc. ▪ The house's value is estimated at anywhere from $200,000 to $220,000. ▪ The plants can live anywhere between 50 and 100 years. ▪ The procedure can take anywhere from/between two to four hours to complete.

[2]anywhere noun [noncount]

1 : any place — usually used after from ▪ It's a short drive from anywhere in the region. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They live miles from anywhere. [=they live in a place that is very far from other people]

2 : [2]SOMEWHERE — used in questions ▪ Do you know anywhere I can buy cheap furniture? ▪ Do you need anywhere to stay tonight?

AOB abbr, Brit any other business — used at the end of a list of things to be discussed in a business meeting to indicate that new topics may be introduced

A–OK /ˌeɪoʊˈkeɪ/ adj, US, informal : entirely good or satisfactory : perfectly OK ▪ Everything is A-OK.
– A–OK adv ▪ Everything is going A-OK.

A1 /ˈeɪˈwʌn/ adj, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very good or excellent ▪ The car's in A1 condition.

aor•ta /eɪˈoətə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : the large artery that brings blood from the heart to the rest of the body
– aor•tic /eɪˈoətɪk/ adj ▪ a tear in the aortic wall apace /əˈpeɪs/ adv : at a fast speed or pace : QUICKLY ▪ Development on the project continued/proceeded apace. ▪ growing apace apace with : going or advancing at the same rate as (something) ▪ The company has been struggling to keep/stay apace with [=keep up with] the latest developments.

Apache /əˈpæʧi/ noun, pl Apache or Apaches [count] : a member of a Native American people of the southwestern U.S.

[1]apart /əˈpɑət/ adv

1 : separated by an amount of space ▪ He stood with his feet planted far/wide apart. ▪ with legs apart ▪ They live five miles apart (from each other). ▪ The garage stands apart from the house. [=the garage is separate from the house] ▪ He stood apart while the other members of the team celebrated. ▪ They started fighting and it took four people to pull them apart (from each other). [=to separate them] — often used figuratively ▪ She tried to keep apart from [=to stay out of] family arguments. ▪ She has a quality that sets her apart from other singers. [=that makes her different from other singers] ▪ They were close friends once, but they have drifted/grown apart. [=they are no longer close friends] ▪ They are far apart on most issues. = They are worlds/poles apart on most issues.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

[=they disagree very much on most issues] ▪ The neighborhood she lives in now is a world apart from [=is completely different from] the small town where she grew up.
2 : separated by an amount of time ▪ Their children were born two years apart.
3 : not together ▪ My wife and I are unhappy when we're apart. ▪ They separated and have been living apart for the past year.
4 : into parts or pieces ▪ He took the clock apart. ▪ The old couch is falling apart. = The old couch is coming apart at the seams. ▪ blast/blow/break/fly apart ▪ cut/pry/pull apart ▪ rip/tear/split apart
5 — used to say that something is not included in a statement that follows ▪ A few minor flaws apart [=aside], the novel is excellent. [=except for a few minor flaws, the novel is excellent] apart from 1 : not including (something) : with the exception of (something) ▪ The potatoes were a little salty, but apart from [=except for] that, the food was very good. 2 : other than (something) : BESIDES ▪ Apart from his work, his only real interest is baseball. ▪ The work has value in itself, quite apart from the good effects it produces. ▪ I don't like it. Apart from anything else, it's too expensive. 3 : separately from (something) ▪ This problem needs to be considered apart from the other issues.

[2]apart adj, not used before a noun : separate or different from others ▪ in a place apart ▪ a man apart ▪ Those athletes are a breed apart. [=they are not like other people; they are a special type of people]
– apart•ness noun [noncount]

apart•heid /əˈpɑəˌɪteɪt/ noun [noncount] : a former social system in South Africa in which black people and people from other racial groups did not have the same political and economic rights as white people and were forced to live separately from white people

apart•ment /əˈpɑətmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 chiefly US : a usually rented room or set of rooms that is part of a building and is used as a place to live ▪ We lived in an apartment for several years before buying a house. — compare CONDOMINIUM, [2]FLAT
2 Brit : a large and impressive room or set of rooms — usually plural ▪ the Royal apartments apartment building noun, pl ~ -ings [count] US : a large building that has several or many apartments ▪ We lived in an apartment building for several years before buying a house. — called also (US) apartment house, (Brit) apartment block, (Brit) block of flats

ap•a•thet•ic /ˌæpəˈθɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not having or showing much emotion or interest ▪ Young people are becoming increasingly apathetic. ▪ a politically apathetic [=indifferent, uninterested] generation ▪ the apathetic attitude of the public ▪ As a teenager, he was apathetic about his future. [=he didn't care about his future] ▪ Surprisingly, most Americans are apathetic toward/about this important issue.
– ap•a•thet•ic•al•ly /ˌæpəˈθɛtɪkli/ adv

ap•a•thy /ˈæpəθi/ noun : the feeling of not having much emotion or interest : an apathetic state [noncount] People have shown surprising apathy toward/about these important social problems. ▪ Many commentators are surprised by the apathy [=indifference] of the country's voters. ▪ voter apathy ▪ a culture of apathy [=a culture in which people do not care about things] [singular] People have shown a surprising apathy toward/about these problems.

[1]ape /ˈeɪp/ noun, pl apes [count]
1 : a type of animal (such as a chimpanzee or gorilla) that is closely related to monkeys and humans and that is covered in hair and has no tail or a very short tail
2 informal : a large and stupid or rude person ▪ Her boyfriend's some big ape she met at a party.
– apelike adj [more ~; most ~]

[2]ape verb apes; aped; ap•ing [+ obj] often disapproving : to copy or imitate (something or someone) ▪ After years of aping [=mimicking] the styles of famous artists, he has created his own unique way of painting. ▪ She apes the speech and manners of the rich.

[3]ape adj
go ape informal 1 : to become very excited ▪ The kids go ape [=go crazy, go wild] whenever they hear that song. 2 : to become very angry ▪ Mom really went ape [=went ballistic, blew her top] when I got home late.

aper•i•tif /əˌperəˈtiːf/ noun, pl -tifs [count] : an alcoholic drink that people drink before eating a meal ▪ They served us champagne as an aperitif.

ap•er•ture /ˈæpəʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 formal : a hole or small opening in something ▪ We entered the cave through a narrow aperture.
2 technical : an opening that controls the amount of light that passes through a lens (such as a camera lens) ▪ The photograph was taken using a fast shutter speed and a large aperture.

apex /ˈeɪˌpɛks/ noun, pl apex•es [count] : the top or highest point of something — usually singular ▪ the mountain's apex [=peak, summit] — usually used figuratively ▪ Tragically, she died at the apex [=acme, high point] of her career/fame. ▪ The excitement was about to reach its apex.

aphid /ˈeɪfəd/ noun, pl aphids [count] : a very small insect that harms plants aph•o•rism /ˈæfəˌrɪzəm/ noun, pl -risms [count] : a short phrase that expresses a true or wise idea : ADAGE ▪ When decorating, remember the familiar aphorism, "less is more."

– aph•o•ris•tic /ˌæfəˈrɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her aphoristic wisdom – aph•o•ris•tic•al•ly /ˌæfəˈrɪstɪkli/ adj aph•ro•di•si•ac /ˌæfrəˈdiːziˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : something (such as a food, drink, or drug) that causes or increases sexual desire – aphrodisiac adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an aphrodisiac drug apiece /əˈpiːs/ adv, always used after a noun : for or to each person or thing : EACH ▪ They're selling tickets at/for 10 dollars apiece. [=each ticket costs 10 dollars] ▪ His shoes weigh four pounds apiece. ▪ She gave the kids a dollar apiece. [=she gave a dollar to each kid] aplenty /əˈplɛnti/ adj, always used after a noun : in a large number or amount ▪ There are books aplenty on this subject. [=there are many books on this subject] ▪ We found mistakes aplenty in their story. ✧ Aplenty has an old-fashioned quality, but it is still commonly used today.

aplomb /əˈplɑːm/ noun [noncount] : confidence and skill shown especially in a difficult situation ▪ He showed/demonstrated great aplomb in dealing with the reporters. — usually used in the phrase with aplomb ▪ He's handled the reporters with great aplomb. [=in a confident and skillful way] ▪ She speaks French and German with equal aplomb.

apoc•a•lypse /əˈpɑːkəˌlɪps/ noun [singular] : a great disaster : a sudden and very bad event that causes much fear, loss, or destruction ▪ His book tells of an environmental apocalypse. ▪ fears of a nuclear apocalypse [=a disaster caused by nuclear weapons] the apocalypse : the end or destruction of the world especially as described in the Christian Bible ▪ Some people be-ape

chimpanzee orangutan gibbon gorilla

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

lieved the apocalypse would happen in the year 2000. ▪ waiting for the apocalypse apoc•a•lyp•tic /ˌəpɑːkəˈlɪptɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of, relating to, or involving terrible violence and destruction ▪ No one listened to her apocalyptic predictions/warnings. ▪ a less apocalyptic view of the future ▪ an apocalyptic battle
2 : of or relating to the end of the world ▪ the apocalyptic destruction of the world
– apoc•a•lyp•tic•al•ly /ˌəpɑːkəˈlɪptɪkli/ adv

apoc•ry•phal /əˈpɑːkrəfəl/ adj : well-known but probably not true ▪ an apocryphal story/tale about the president's childhood

apo•gee /ˈæpəʤi/ noun [singular]
1 formal : the highest point of something ▪ The style reached its apogee [=(more commonly) apex, high point] in the mid-1960s.
2 technical : the point in outer space where an object traveling around the Earth (such as a satellite or the moon) is farthest away from the Earth — compare PERIGEE apo•lit•i•cal /ˌeɪpəˈlɪtɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not political : not interested or involved in politics ▪ Although both of her parents are politicians, she's completely apolitical. ▪ an apolitical scientific journal – apo•lit•i•cal•ly adv

apol•o•get•ic /əˌpɑːləˈʤɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing regret : expressing an apology ▪ We received an apologetic letter and a full refund from the company. ▪ an apologetic smile ▪ They were apologetic about the mistake. ▪ She seemed almost apologetic about buying a new car.
– apol•o•get•i•cal•ly /əˌpɑːləˈʤɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ He smiled apologetically. ▪ "I'm sorry I'm late," she said apologetically.

apol•o•gist /əˈpɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] : a person who defends or supports something (such as a religion, cause, or organization) that is being criticized or attacked by other people ▪ the film industry's apologists [=people who write and speak in support of the film industry] — often + for ▪ an apologist for the film industry apol•o•gize also Brit apol•o•gise /əˈpɑːləˌʤaɪz/ verb -giz•es; -gized; -giz•ing [no obj] : to express regret for doing or saying something wrong : to give or make an apology ▪ He apologized to his wife and children for losing his temper. ▪ I want to apologize (to you) for what I said. I didn't mean it, and I'm sorry if it hurt your feelings. ▪ We apologize for the mistake and promise that it won't happen again. ▪ She doesn't apologize for her lifestyle. [=she does not believe that her lifestyle is wrong]

apol•o•gy /əˈpɑːləʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 a : a statement saying that you are sorry about something : an expression of regret for having done or said something wrong [count] The company issued/delivered an official apology to its customers for its error. ▪ Please accept our sincerest/humblest apologies for any problems we may have caused. ▪ I demand an apology! ▪ I owe you an apology. = You deserve an apology. ▪ a written apology ▪ He made a public apology for his controversial remarks. ▪ He refused to accept my apology. ▪ She makes no apologies for her lifestyle. [=she does not believe that her lifestyle is wrong] ▪ He offered no apology for his bad behavior. [=he didn't say he was sorry for acting badly] [noncount] We received a letter/note of apology from the company. ▪ Without apology [=without excusing himself or saying he was sorry], he got up and left the room.
b apologies [plural] : an expression of regret for not being able to do something ▪ Please give my apologies [=excuses] to your cousin. I'm sorry that I won't be able to come to the wedding. ▪ I made my apologies and left.
2 [count] formal : something that is said or written to defend something that other people criticize — + for ▪ The book is an apology for capitalism.
3 [singular] informal : a poor example of something — + for ▪ He's a poor/sad apology for a father. [=he's a bad father]

ap•o•plec•tic /ˌæpəˈplɛktɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] informal : very angry and excited ▪ an apoplectic basketball coach ▪ She was positively apoplectic with anger/rage when she realized she had been cheated.
2 medical, old-fashioned : relating to or caused by apoplexy ▪ The patient suffered an apoplectic fit. [=suffered a stroke]

ap•o•plexy /ˈæpəˌplɛksi/ noun [noncount]
1 medical, old-fashioned : the sudden loss of the ability to feel or move parts of the body caused by too little blood going to the brain : STROKE
2 informal : great anger and excitement ▪ Her speech caused apoplexy among the audience members.

apos•tate /əˈpɑːˌsteɪt/ noun, pl -tates [count] formal : someone whose beliefs have changed and who no longer belongs to a religious or political group
– apos•ta•sy /əˈpɑːstəsi/ noun [noncount]

a pos•te•ri•o•ri /ˌɑpoʊˌstiriˈori/ adj, formal : relating to what can be known by observation rather than through an understanding of how certain things work ▪ an a posteriori judgment/justification/explanation — compare A PRIORI
– a posteriori adv ▪ You can't justify what you did a posteriori.

apos•tle /əˈpɑːsəl/ noun, pl apos•tles [count]
1 : any one of the 12 men chosen by Jesus Christ to spread the Christian religion ▪ Christ's apostles
2 : someone who believes in or supports an idea, cause, etc. — often + of ▪ apostles [=adherents, advocates] of peace and nonviolence ▪ an apostle of democracy

ap•os•tol•ic /ˌæpəˈstɑːlɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to the original 12 apostles
2 : of or relating to the pope : PAPAL ▪ apostolic authority

apos•tro•phe /əˈpʰɑːstrəfi/ noun, pl -phes [count]
1 : the punctuation mark ' used to show that letters or numbers are missing (as when "did" and "not" are combined into "didn't" or when the date 1776 is written as '76) ▪ In the contraction "can't," an apostrophe replaces two of the letters in the word "cannot."
2 : the punctuation mark ' used to show the possessive form of a noun (as in "Lee's book" or "the tree's leaves")
3 : the punctuation mark ' used to show the plural forms of letters or numbers (as in "dot your i's and cross your t's" or "in the 1960's")

apoth•e•cary /əˈpɑːθəˌkeri/ noun, pl -car•ies [count] : a person who prepared and sold medicines in past times

apo•the•o•sis /əˌpɑːθiˈoʊsəs/ noun, pl -oses /-ˌsiːz/ [count] formal
1 : the perfect form or example of something — usually singular ▪ a dish that is the apotheosis of French cuisine
2 : the highest or best part of something — usually singular ▪ His music reaches/achieves its apotheosis [=peak, pinnacle] in this album.

app /ˈæp/ noun, pl apps [count] chiefly US, computers, informal : APPLICATION 4 ▪ a popular app — see also KILLER APP

ap•pall (US) or Brit ap•pal /əˈpɑːl/ verb -palls; -palled; -pall•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel fear, shock, or disgust ▪ The thought of war appalls me. ▪ It appalls me to think of the way those children have been treated. — often used as (be) appalled ▪ We were appalled at how long it took for our food to be served. = We were appalled that it took so long. ▪ She was appalled by/at their behavior.

ap•pall•ing /əˈpɑːlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad in a way that causes fear, shock, or disgust ▪ We drove by an appalling accident on the highway. ▪ Your behavior has been appalling. [=atrocious, outrageous, terrible]
– ap•pall•ing•ly adv ▪ appallingly bad treatment ▪ an appallingly [=dreadfully] bad movie

ap•pa•rat•chik /ˌɑːpəˈrɑːʧɪk/ noun, pl -chiks [count] disapproving : a very loyal member of an organization (such as a company or political party) who always obeys orders ▪ corporate/party/political apparatchiks

ap•pa•ra•tus /ˌæpəˈrætəs/ noun, pl apparatus•es or ap•paratus
1 : a tool or piece of equipment used for specific activities [count] She fell off a gymnastics apparatus and broke her leg. ▪ an electrical apparatus [noncount] an expensive piece of apparatus [=machinery]
2 [count] : the organization or system used for doing or operating something — usually singular ▪ The country lacks a strong state/government apparatus. [=a strong government] ▪ The party apparatus [=machinery] supported his ideas.

ap•par•el /əˈperəl/ noun [noncount] formal : clothing of a particular kind ▪ fine apparel — used chiefly in U.S. English to refer to clothing that is being sold in stores ▪ a new line of children's/ladies'/men's apparel ▪ All athletic apparel [=all clothing for exercising or playing sports] is now on sale. ▪ intimate apparel [=underwear and clothes for sleeping]

ap•par•ent /əˈperənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : easy to see or understand ▪ The other team's superiority was apparent [=evident] in the first half of the game. ▪ The truth is apparent to me. [=I can clearly see the truth] ▪ Her reasons for leaving were readily apparent. [=were obvious or easy to see] ▪ When we left, they were in no apparent danger. [=they did not appear to be in any danger] ▪ From the beginning, it was apparent that she was not an ordinary child. ▪ It soon/quickly became apparent (to us) that something was wrong. ▪ He started yelling and throwing things for no apparent reason.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

2 always used before a noun : seeming to be true but possibly not true ▪ We disagreed on the apparent meaning of the movie. ▪ He died of an apparent heart attack. [=it appears that a heart attack caused his death] ▪ What was the apparent cause of the accident?

ap•par•ent•ly /əˈperəntli/ adv — used to describe something that appears to be true based on what is known ▪ The window had apparently been forced open. ▪ We were surprised when their apparently [=seemingly, ostensibly] happy marriage ended after only two years. ▪ Apparently, he died of a heart attack. = He died of a heart attack, apparently. = He apparently died of a heart attack. [=it appears that a heart attack caused his death] ▪ "Did the bus leave without us?" "Apparently (so)." [=yes, that seems/appears to be the case] ▪ "Is the bus still here?" "Apparently not."

ap•pa•ri•tion /ˌæpəˈrɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a ghost or spirit of a dead person ▪ People say there are ghostly apparitions [=ghosts, phantoms] in this house. ▪ a strange apparition

[1]ap•peal /əˈpi:l/ noun, pl -peals

1 [noncount] : a quality that causes people to like someone or something ▪ I can't understand the appeal of skydiving. [=I can't understand why some people like it] ▪ Music never held much appeal [=attraction] for him. ▪ Her jokes are quickly losing their appeal. ▪ The movie has great appeal to/for adults as well as children. [=adults and children like the movie] ▪ the wide/broad/mass/universal appeal of the artist's work — see also SEX APPEAL

2 [count] a : a serious request for help, support, etc. ▪ They made a desperate appeal [=plea, entreaty] for help. ▪ His appeals to his father for money were ignored. ▪ The mayor made an appeal to the people of the city to stay calm. b : an attempt to make someone do or accept something as right or proper by saying things that are directed at a person's feelings, attitudes, etc. — + to ▪ The author makes an appeal to the reader's emotions. ▪ an appeal to reason ▪ an appeal to the intellect c : an organized effort to raise money ▪ We made a donation during the school's annual appeal. ▪ She helped to organize/launch an appeal on behalf of the homeless.

3 : a process in which a decision is studied and accepted or rejected by a higher court or by someone in authority [count] My lawyer said the court's decision wasn't correct and that we should file for an appeal. ▪ lodge an appeal [noncount] Her conviction was thrown out on appeal. [=a higher court decided that she should not have been convicted] ▪ The case is currently under appeal. [=the case is currently being reviewed by a higher court] — see also COURT OF APPEALS

[2]appeal verb -peals; -pealed; -peal•ing

1 [no obj] : to be liked by someone : to be pleasing or attractive to someone ▪ The movie appeals to adults as well as (to) children. [=adults and children like the movie] ▪ music that appeals to a wide variety of people ▪ The idea of going to college appealed to him greatly. [=the idea was very appealing to him]

2 [no obj] a : to ask for something (such as help or support) in a serious way ▪ The government appealed for calm. ▪ desperate people who are appealing for help ▪ The government appealed to the people to stay calm. b : to try to make someone do or accept something as right or proper by saying things that are directed at a person's feelings, attitudes, etc. — + to ▪ We got them to join by appealing to their sense of duty and honor.

3 : to make a formal request for a higher court or for someone in authority to review and change a decision [no obj] He appealed, arguing that there was not enough evidence to convict him. ▪ She lost the case and appealed the following month. ▪ (Brit) We plan to appeal against the court's decision. [+ obj] (US) ▪ We plan to appeal the court's decision. ▪ The ruling can be appealed within 30 days. ▪ (baseball) The runner was called out at home plate but the manager appealed the umpire's decision.

ap•peal•ing /əˈpi:lɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having qualities that people like : pleasing or attractive ▪ a book with an appealing title ▪ appealing colors ▪ It is an idea that most people will find appealing. [=that most people will like] — often + to ▪ The offer is especially appealing to young people who are buying their first car. — opposite UNAPPEALING

– ap•peal•ing•ly adv ▪ Her idea was appealingly simple.

appeals court (US) or chiefly Brit appeal court noun, pl ~ courts [count] law : COURT OF APPEALS 1

ap•pear /əˈpiə/ verb -pears; -peared; -pear•ing

1 [linking verb] somewhat formal : to seem to be something : to make someone think that a person or thing has a particular characteristic : LOOK, SEEM ▪ She appears angry. ▪ "Is she angry?" "So it appears." = "So it would appear." = "It appears so." ▪ "Is she pleased?" "It appears not." = "It would appear not." ▪ She appears a nice enough person. ▪ Although everything appeared normal to me [=although I thought everything was normal], something was wrong. ▪ Winning the election appears unlikely at this point. ▪ Things are not always as they appear. [=they are not always what you think they are] ▪ It appears to us [=we think] that something should be done. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She appeared to be angry. ▪ She appears to be a nice enough person. ▪ Everyone appeared to have a good time. = They all appeared to enjoy themselves.

2 [no obj] : to become visible : to begin to be seen ▪ One by one, the stars appeared in the sky. ▪ The sun began to appear from behind the clouds. ▪ The airplanes seemed to appear out of nowhere. ▪ Her grandfather often appears to her in her dreams. [=she often sees her grandfather in her dreams] ▪ The storm disappeared as suddenly as it had appeared. — opposite DISAPPEAR

3 [no obj] : to arrive at a place : to show up ▪ The cat appears at our kitchen door every morning. ▪ One of the guests appeared a few minutes late. ▪ He appeared a little before eight last night. — opposite DISAPPEAR

4 [no obj] : to begin to exist ▪ The disease first appeared in the late 1970s. ▪ This new technology first appears in Europe in the early 20th century. — opposite DISAPPEAR

5 [no obj] : to be seen or heard by the public: such as a : to go where you can be seen to give a speech, answer questions, etc. — often + before ▪ I was invited to appear before a meeting of teachers to talk about the school system. ▪ appearing before a group of reporters b : to work as an actor or performer in a movie, on the radio, etc. ▪ The two actors appeared [=performed] together in the film. ▪ He has appeared on many radio and television shows. ▪ She appeared in her first Broadway musical last year. ▪ Several guest musicians appeared on his latest album. c : to be published or made available to the public ▪ The story appeared on the front page of the newspaper. — often + in ▪ We got a lot of phone calls after the story appeared in the newspaper. ▪ Her papers have appeared in several different scientific journals. ▪ The book appeared in print [=was published] again a few years ago. ▪ The word first appeared in print in 1782.

6 [no obj] : to go in front of a person or group that has authority (such as a judge or council) especially in order to answer questions ▪ I appeared in front of the committee during its last meeting. ▪ She was instructed to appear in court the next morning. ▪ She appeared before the judge. ▪ He will be appearing as a witness at the trial.

ap•pear•ance /əˈpirəns/ noun, pl -anc•es

1 somewhat formal : the way that someone or something looks [count] The room has a neat/fresh/clean appearance. [=look] ▪ The general appearance of the house is quite good. ▪ The museum restored the painting to its original appearance. ▪ lotions that improve your skin's appearance and texture ▪ It minimizes the appearance of wrinkles. [=it makes wrinkles more difficult to see] ▪ You shouldn't judge a man by his appearance. ▪ Have you noticed any changes in her appearance? ▪ He's very proud of his physical appearance. [=the way he looks] [noncount] He is still very youthful in appearance. [=he still looks very young] ▪ They are very similar in appearance. [=they look the same]

2 [count] : a way of looking that is not true or real ▪ He appears to be happy, but appearances can be deceptive/deceiving. ▪ Their expensive home created a false appearance of success and happiness. ▪ The furniture has the appearance of being made by hand. [=the furniture was not made by hand but it looks/appears as if it was] ▪ Despite appearances, her company is very successful. = Appearances to the contrary, her company is very successful. [=her company is very successful even though it does not appear to be] ▪ She is only attending the banquet for the sake of appearances. [=because people think that she should attend] ▪ He was, to/by all (outward) appearances, a happily married man. [=he seemed to be a happily married man, but he wasn't] ▪ Their meetings tend to take on the appearance of [=to look like] family gatherings. ▪ His white beard gave him the appearance of an old man. [=made him look like an old man] ▪ The playground gives every appearance of being a safe place for children [=the playground appears to be a safe place for children], but a tragic accident occurred there recently.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

3 [count] : the action of appearing : the fact that something or someone arrives or begins to be seen — usually singular ▪ The appearance of buds on the trees tells us that spring has arrived. ▪ We were surprised by the appearance of smoke in the distance. ▪ I wasn't expecting him to come and was surprised by his sudden appearance. [=I was surprised when he suddenly appeared/arrived]

4 [count] : the time when something begins to exist or is seen for the first time — usually singular ▪ The appearance [=creation] of the Internet has changed our culture in many ways. ▪ The technology made its first appearance [=appeared for the first time] in the early 1980s. ▪ Before the appearance of the telephone, people sent messages by telegraph.

5 [count] : an act of being seen or heard by the public as an actor, politician, athlete, etc. ▪ He has announced that this will be his final/last appearance with the band. [=the last time that he will perform in public with the band] ▪ This is her first appearance [=the first time that she has competed] at/in the national championships. — often used with make ▪ She is making her first appearance at/in the national championships. ▪ Tonight, he is making his first public appearance since winning the award. ▪ He'll be making a special guest appearance [=performing as a guest] on the popular television show next fall.

6 [count] : the formal act of going in front of a person or group to speak, answer questions, etc. ▪ One man has been convicted of the crime, and two others are awaiting court appearances. [=waiting to go to court] — often + before ▪ He is awaiting his appearance before a judge. ▪ She made an appearance before Congress last year.

keep up appearances : to hide something bad by pretending that nothing is wrong ▪ Although they were getting a divorce, my parents thought it was important to keep up appearances.

make an appearance or put in an appearance : to go to an event, gathering, etc., usually for a short period of time ▪ The candidate made an appearance at the rally. ▪ The governor put in an appearance at the party.

ap•pease /ə'pi:z/ verb -peas•es; -peased; -peas•ing [+ obj] formal

1 often disapproving : to make (someone) pleased or less angry by giving or saying something desired ▪ They appeased the dictator by accepting his demands in an effort to avoid war. ▪ Efforts to appease [=pacify, placate] the angry protesters were unsuccessful. ▪ His critics were not appeased by this last speech. ▪ They made sacrifices to appease the gods.

2 : to make (a pain, a problem, etc.) less painful or troubling ▪ We had no way to appease our hunger. ▪ She appeased [=eased] her guilty conscience by telling him the truth.

– ap•pease•ment /ə'pi:zmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the appeasement of a dictator ▪ appeasement of hunger

ap•pel•lant /ə'pɛlənt/ noun, pl -lants [count] law : someone who requests that a higher court review and change the decision of a lower court : someone who appeals a decision

ap•pel•late /ə'pɛlət/ adj, always used before a noun, law : having the power to review and change the decisions of a lower court ▪ an appellate court ▪ appellate judges

ap•pel•la•tion /ˌæpə'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a name or title ▪ an honorary appellation

ap•pend /ə'pɛnd/ verb -pends; -pend•ed; -pend•ing [+ obj] formal : to add (something) to a piece of writing — usually + to ▪ Please read the notes appended to each chapter.

ap•pend•age /ə'pɛndɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count]

1 medical : a body part (such as an arm or a leg) connected to the main part of the body : LIMB

2 : something connected or joined to a larger or more important thing ▪ The court system acts as an appendage to the government. ▪ an appendage of a larger political party

ap•pen•dec•to•my /ˌæpən'dɛktəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] medical : an operation to remove a person's appendix ▪ The surgeon performed an appendectomy on her.

ap•pen•di•ci•tis /əˌpɛndə'saɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which a person's appendix is painful and swollen ▪ an attack of appendicitis

ap•pen•dix /ə'pɛndɪks/ noun [count]

1 pl -dix•es or -di•ces /-dɪˌsi:z/ : a section of extra information added at the end of a book ▪ In your textbooks, turn to Appendix 3: Glossary of Terms. ▪ The book has several appendixes/appendices.

2 pl -dixes : a small tube at the beginning of the large intestine that can be removed by surgery if it becomes infected — see picture at HUMAN ap•per•tain /ˌæpə'teɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [no obj] formal : to belong to or be connected or related to something : PERTAIN ▪ the rights and privileges that appertain to marriage

ap•pe•tite /'æpəˌtaɪt/ noun, pl -tites

1 : a physical desire for food [count] He has a healthy/good/hearty appetite. ▪ men with big/large/gargantuan appetites ▪ Delicious smells from the kitchen whetted our appetites. [=made us hungry] ▪ That movie made me lose my appetite. [=I no longer wanted to eat after seeing that movie] [noncount] Some common symptoms are tiredness, nausea, and loss of appetite. ▪ I had no appetite and couldn't sleep.

2 [count] : a desire or liking for something ▪ a healthy sexual appetite — usually + for ▪ He has a voracious appetite for books/reading. ▪ She has an appetite for adventure. [=she likes adventure; she likes to do adventurous things]

ap•pe•tiz•er also Brit ap•pe•tis•er /'æpəˌtaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small dish of food served before the main part of a meal

ap•pe•tiz•ing also Brit ap•pe•tis•ing /'æpəˌtaɪzɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a good smell or appearance that makes people want to eat ▪ an appetizing [=delicious, tasty] meal ▪ While the stew may not look very appetizing, it tastes wonderful. ▪ an appetizing aroma — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an appetizing [=appealing] display of merchandise

– ap•pe•tiz•ing•ly also Brit ap•pe•tis•ing•ly adv

ap•plaud /ə'plɑ:d/ verb -plauds; -plaud•ed; -plaud•ing

1 : to strike the hands together over and over to show approval or praise [no obj] The audience stood and applauded [=clapped] at the end of the show. [+ obj] Everyone applauded the graduates as they entered the auditorium. ▪ The audience stood and applauded her performance.

2 [+ obj] : to express approval of or support for (something or someone) ▪ They applauded [=praised] the change in policy. ▪ We applaud the decision to lower taxes. ▪ I applaud their efforts to clean up the city, but they must do more. ▪ Although he didn't succeed in the end, he should be applauded [=praised] for his efforts. ▪ Rather than being criticized for her honesty, she should be applauded for it.

ap•plause /ə'plɑ:z/ noun [noncount] : a show of approval or appreciation at a play, speech, sporting event, etc., in which people strike their hands together over and over ▪ He accepted the award to thunderous applause. [=people applauded very loudly as he accepted the award] ▪ The announcement was greeted with applause and cheers. ▪ The audience burst into applause. [=began applauding/clapping loudly] ▪ The audience gave the performers a big round of applause. [=hand]

ap•ple /'æpəl/ noun, pl ap•ples : a round fruit with red, yellow, or green skin and firm white flesh [count] crisp juicy apples ▪ a bad/rotten apple [=an apple that has rotted and cannot be eaten] [noncount] a piece of apple — often used before another noun ▪ apple pie ▪ apple juice ▪ apple trees — see color picture on page C5 ✧ In figurative use, a bad apple or rotten apple is a bad member of a group who causes problems for the rest of the group. ▪ A few bad apples cheated on the test, and now everyone has to take the test again. ▪ One rotten apple ruined the day for the rest of us. — see also ADAM'S APPLE, CRAB APPLE

compare apples to apples/oranges see [1]COMPARE the apple of someone's eye : a person or thing that someone loves very much ▪ His daughter is the apple of his eye.

upset the apple cart see [2]UPSET apple–cheeked /'æpəlˌʧi:kt/ adj : having red or pink cheeks ▪ apple-cheeked youngsters apple pie noun, pl ~ pies [count] : a sweet pie made with apples

(as) American as apple pie : very or typically American ▪ Baseball is as American as apple pie.

in apple-pie order informal : arranged neatly or perfectly : in perfect order ▪ Everything in the cupboard was (arranged) in apple-pie order.

apple polisher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who tries to get the approval and friendship of someone in authority by praise, flattery, etc. ▪ an executive surrounded by apple polishers

ap•ple•sauce /'æpəlˌsɑ:s/ noun [noncount] : a sweet sauce made from cooked apples

ap•pli•ance /ə'plajəns/ noun, pl -anc•es [count] : a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a machine (such as a stove, microwave, or dishwasher) that is powered by electricity and that is used in people's houses to perform a particular job ▪ All household/domestic appliances are now on sale. ▪ an appliance store

ap•pli•ca•ble /ˈæplɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be applied or used in a particular situation ▪ Businesses must comply with all applicable laws. — often + to ▪ The rule is not applicable [=relevant] to this case. ▪ This method is applicable to a variety of problems.

– ap•pli•ca•bil•i•ty /ˌæplɪkəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount]

ap•pli•cant /ˈæplɪkənt/ noun, pl -cants [count] : someone who formally asks for something (such as a job or admission to a college) : someone who applies for something ▪ successful college/job applicants ▪ We interviewed 30 qualified applicants for the job.

ap•pli•ca•tion /ˌæpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a : a formal and usually written request for something (such as a job, admission to a school, a loan, etc.) [count] We've made an application for certification. [=we have applied to be certified] ▪ Our loan application has been approved/denied. ▪ Anyone interested in running for office must file/submit an application by August 1st. [noncount] If you'd like to be considered for the job, please send us a letter of application that gives your experience and qualifications. b [count] : a document that is used to make a formal request for something ▪ Please fill out this application.

2 : the act of applying something: such as a : the act of putting something on a surface, a part of the body, etc. [noncount] The application of heat often helps sore muscles. ▪ I prefer using the lotion because of its ease of application. [=because it is easy to apply] ▪ Repeated application of fertilizer will help the grass become green and healthy. [count] Repeated applications of fertilizer will help the grass become green and healthy. ▪ The cut should be treated with a generous/liberal application of ointment. b : the use of an idea, method, law, etc., in a particular situation or for a particular purpose [noncount] Strict application of the rules is necessary in this case. ▪ the application of new information ▪ learning about the creative application [=use] of new technology [count] He teaches his students about the practical applications [=uses] of technology. ▪ I think it is a fair application of the law. ▪ applications of science to everyday life c [noncount] : the use of a word, name, etc., to describe someone or something ▪ the application of the term "baby boomer" to people who were born right after World War II

3 : the ability to be used for practical purposes [noncount] The technique has wide/limited application. [=it can/cannot be used for a large number of practical purposes] [count] The tool has a number of applications. = The tool has a wide range of applications.

4 [count] computers : a computer program that performs a particular task (such as word processing) ▪ How many applications is your computer currently running? ▪ applications software — called also (chiefly US, informal) app

5 [noncount] formal : effort made to work hard in order to complete something successfully ▪ She succeeded because of application and intelligence.

ap•pli•ca•tor /ˈæpləˌkeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a tool that is used to put something (such as paint or makeup) on a surface : a tool that is used to apply something ▪ a paint applicator

ap•plied /əˈplaɪd/ adj : having or relating to practical use : not theoretical ▪ a professor of applied science ▪ applied linguistics/physics/psychology

ap•pli•qué /ˌæpləˈkeɪ, Brit əˈpliːkeɪ/ noun, pl -qués : a decoration that is sewn onto a larger piece of cloth [count] colorful appliqués [noncount] a strip of appliqué

– appliqué verb -qués; -quéd; -qué•ing [+ obj] ▪ They appliquéd their sweaters with colorful strips.

ap•ply /əˈplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing

1 [no obj] : to ask formally for something (such as a job, admission to a school, a loan, etc.) usually in writing ▪ For further information, apply to the address below. ▪ I applied in writing to several different companies. ▪ You must have a high school diploma for this job. High school dropouts need not apply. — often + for ▪ I applied for several jobs and was offered one. ▪ Anyone can apply for membership. ▪ We applied to the bank for a loan. ▪ To apply for our credit card, just fill out this form and send it to us. ▪ Many high school students have begun applying for college. [=asking to be accepted as students at colleges or universities by filling out and sending applications] — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ Anyone can apply to become a member.

2 [+ obj] : to put or spread (something) on a surface, a part of the body, etc. ▪ After applying a thin layer of paint to the wall and letting it dry, apply another coat. ▪ We applied the ointment to the cut. ▪ I washed my face and applied fresh makeup. ▪ Fertilizer was applied to the lawn every two weeks.

3 [+ obj] : to cause (force, pressure, etc.) to have an effect or to be felt ▪ He was able to stop the bleeding by applying pressure to the cut. [=by pressing on/against the cut] ▪ He knows how to apply [=use, exert] pressure to get what he wants. ▪ The police should have been able to deal with the situation without applying [=using] force.

4 [+ obj] : to use (an idea, method, law, etc.) in a particular situation ▪ Try to solve the math problems by applying the formulas/methods that we learned in class. ▪ They applied a new technique to solve an old problem. ▪ We can handle these problems effectively if we apply the lessons learned from past experiences. ▪ They apply what they learned in school to their everyday lives. ▪ The law has not been applied fairly. [=has not been used in a fair way]

5 [+ obj] : to cause (the brakes of a vehicle) to work ▪ Take your foot off the gas pedal and slowly apply the brakes.

6 [no obj] : to have an effect on someone or something ▪ The rule no longer applies. ▪ The same principle applies [=can be used] when you are trying to lose weight. — often + to ▪ The ban applies [=relates, pertains] to all guns that are not used for hunting. ▪ These rules apply to everyone in the school. [=everyone in the school must obey these rules] ▪ This applies equally to men and (to) women. ▪ The rule doesn't apply to you, so don't worry about it.

7 : to use a word, name, etc., to describe someone or something — usually + to [no obj] The term "baby boomer" usually applies to people who were born immediately after World War II. [+ obj] The author applies the name/label to corrupt politicians. — often used as (be) applied ▪ The term "baby boomer" is usually applied to people who were born immediately after World War II.

apply yourself : to make yourself work hard in order to complete something successfully ▪ If you apply yourself, you might be able to finish the project on time. ▪ She applied herself to learning the language.

ap•point /əˈpɔɪnt/ verb -points; -point•ed; -point•ing [+ obj]

1 : to choose (someone) to have a particular job : to give (someone) a position or duty ▪ The President appointed [=named, designated] him (as) Secretary of Education. ▪ She was appointed professor of chemistry at the university. ▪ After his parents died, the boy's uncle was appointed as his guardian. ▪ Every year, the group appoints three new members. ▪ a committee appointed by Congress ▪ the company's newly appointed assistant director ▪ The defendant will be represented by a court-appointed attorney. [=a lawyer chosen by a court to defend someone who has been accused of a crime] — often + to ▪ appointing women to positions of power ▪ She was appointed to the position last year. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He has been appointed to serve as president of the club. ▪ A young lawyer was appointed to represent the accused man. — see also SELF-APPOINTED

2 formal a : to decide or establish (something) in an official way — usually used as appointed ▪ She wasn't able to accomplish her appointed tasks. [=the things that she was supposed to do] ▪ We will not deviate/stray from our appointed course. ▪ doctors on their appointed rounds b : to decide (the time or place at which something will happen or be done) — usually used as appointed ▪ We were all ready at the appointed time/hour. ▪ on the appointed day ▪ Call me when you reach the appointed place/location.

3 : to decorate and put furniture in (a room or space) — usually used as (be) appointed ▪ Each suite is appointed with handmade furniture and original artwork. ▪ We stayed in one of the hotel's beautifully appointed rooms. — see also WELL-APPOINTED

– ap•poin•tee /əˌpɔɪnˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count] ▪ presidential appointees [=people chosen by the President to fill a position] ▪ He was a political appointee, not an elected official.

ap•point•ment /əˈpɔɪntmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : an agreement to meet with someone at a particular time [count] I'm late for an appointment. ▪ I have a doctor's appointment tomorrow morning at nine o'clock. ▪ dental/dentist's appointments ▪ She made an appointment (to meet) with her professor. ▪ We are calling to confirm your appointment with Dr. Jones. = We are calling to make sure that you will

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

keep your appointment with Dr. Jones. [noncount] The museum is open to visitors by appointment only. [=you have to make an appointment to visit the museum]

2 [noncount] : the act of giving a particular job or position to someone : the act of appointing someone ▪ The court ordered the appointment of an attorney to represent the child. ▪ the appointment of a committee ▪ the appointment of the new secretary of state ▪ Did he get his job by appointment or election?

3 [count] : a job or duty that is given to a person : a position to which someone is appointed ▪ He now holds an appointment from the President. ▪ academic appointments ▪ her appointment as ambassador to Spain

ap•por•tion /əˈpoəʃən/ verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] formal : to divide (something) among or between people ▪ The proceeds from the auction will be apportioned among the descendents. ▪ Apportion the expenses between the parties involved. : to give (a part of something) to a number of people ▪ The agency apportions water from the lake to residents. ▪ Any attempt to apportion blame [=to say who should be blamed] so many years after the incident is pointless.

– ap•por•tion•ment /əˈpoəʃənmənt/ noun, pl -ments [noncount] The apportionment of the expenses will take some time. [count] an apportionment of blame ap•po•site /ˈæpəzət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very appropriate : suitable for the occasion or situation ▪ an apposite quotation ▪ The poem was an apposite [=(more commonly) apt] choice for the ceremony. — often + to ▪ Each panel member made remarks apposite [=relevant, germane] to the discussion.

– ap•po•site•ly adv

ap•po•si•tion /ˌæpəˈzɪʃən/ noun [noncount] grammar : an arrangement of words in which a noun or noun phrase is followed by another noun or noun phrase that refers to the same thing ▪ In "my friend the doctor," the word "doctor" is in apposition to "my friend."

ap•prais•al /əˈpreɪzəl/ noun, pl -als

1 : the act of judging the value, condition, or importance of something : the act of appraising something [noncount] the appraisal of some jewelry [count] real estate appraisals ▪ I made a quick appraisal of the situation and decided to leave right away. ▪ Your annual job/performance appraisal [=review, evaluation] will be in July. [=your boss will meet with you to tell you if you are doing a good or bad job in July]

2 [count] : something that states an opinion about the value, condition, or importance of something ▪ The book is an excellent appraisal of the influences that have shaped our government.

ap•praise /əˈpreɪz/ verb -prais•es; -praised; -prais•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say how much something is worth after you have carefully examined it : to give an official opinion about the value of (something) ▪ She appraised the painting at $1.2 million. [=she said that the painting is worth $1.2 million] ▪ The ring must be appraised by a jeweler before it can be insured. ▪ appraise the house and property ▪ What is the property's appraised value?

2 : to give your opinion about the condition, quality, or importance of (something or someone that you have studied or examined) ▪ In the book, he appraises Hollywood's recent films and contrasts them with several independent films. ▪ appraising recent political trends

Do not confuse appraise with apprise.

– ap•prais•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The appraiser gave us a detailed report on the value of the house and property.

ap•pre•cia•ble /əˈpriːʃəbəl/ adj : large enough to be noticed or measured ▪ Researchers found that the chemical made no appreciable [=noticeable, perceptible] difference in the results. ▪ Appreciable [=(more commonly) significant] numbers of these plants grow in this region.

– ap•pre•cia•bly /əˈpriːʃəbli/ adv ▪ Her appearance has not changed appreciably. [=significantly]

ap•pre•ci•ate /əˈpriːʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing

1 [+ obj] : to understand the worth or importance of (something or someone) : to admire and value (something or someone) ▪ The company strives to make its employees feel appreciated. ▪ Living in the city has taught me to appreciate the differences between people. ▪ Those who appreciate fine wine will enjoy reading the restaurant's wine list.

2 [+ obj] a : to be grateful for (something) ▪ I really appreciated the information you gave me. ▪ I don't appreciate being ignored. [=I do not like to be ignored] ▪ Your help the other day was greatly appreciated. b — used to make a polite request ▪ I would appreciate it if you would tell your father to call me. [=please tell your father to call me]

3 [+ obj] : to be aware of (something) : to recognize or understand (something) ▪ I'm not sure you appreciate [=understand] how crucial it is that we find these documents. ▪ The tiny creature contributes to its ecosystem in ways we are only just beginning to appreciate. ▪ I don't think you appreciate the complexity of the situation. ▪ I appreciate what the artist is trying to do, but I think the painting fails to do it.

4 [no obj] : to increase in value ▪ Given the history of the company, your investment should appreciate (in value) over time. ▪ rapidly appreciating assets — opposite DEPRECIATE

– ap•pre•cia•tive /əˈpriːʃətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I'm very appreciative of your efforts on my behalf. [=I'm very grateful for your efforts] ▪ She gave an appreciative nod. [=a nod that showed that she appreciated something]

– ap•pre•cia•tive•ly adv ▪ She listened to the story, nodding appreciatively.

synonyms APPRECIATE, VALUE, PRIZE, TREASURE, and CHERISH mean to feel that something is important and worth treating with special care. APPRECIATE often suggests knowledge that makes it possible to enjoy or admire how excellent something is. ▪ Over the years, I've come to appreciate fine wine. VALUE suggests that a thing is worth a lot simply because of what it is. ▪ I value our friendship so much. PRIZE is used when you are very proud of something you have or own. ▪ Despite the time and money it demands, he prizes that sailboat. TREASURE suggests that you enjoy having or owning something and are careful about keeping it in good condition. ▪ You'll treasure these pictures. CHERISH describes a very strong love and desire to care for something or someone. ▪ She cherishes her children above all.

ap•pre•ci•a•tion /əˌpriːʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : a feeling of being grateful for something ▪ You've been so generous, and I'd like to show my appreciation by cooking a meal for you. ▪ We'd like to present you with this gift in appreciation of your hard work. [=to show that we are grateful for your hard work]

2 [singular] : an ability to understand the worth, quality, or importance of something : an ability to appreciate something ▪ a music appreciation class [=a class that teaches people to understand and value music] — usually + of or for ▪ She has developed an appreciation of exotic foods. ▪ There is an increasing appreciation for video as an art form.

3 : full awareness or understanding of something — usually + of or for [noncount] She's shown little appreciation for the effort you've made. [singular] I'm not sure you have an appreciation of the complexity of the situation. ▪ I've gained an appreciation for the skills involved in the game.

4 [count] : a speech or piece of writing that praises something or someone ▪ She recently published an appreciation of an obscure sculptor who lived in the 17th century.

5 : an increase in the value of something [singular] He bought the statue because he believed there would be an appreciation in its value. ▪ Based on the history of the company, you can expect a significant appreciation in your investment over a number of years. [noncount] There's been no appreciation in the stock's value. — opposite DEPRECIATION

ap•pre•hend /ˌæprɪˈhɛnd/ verb -hends; -hend•ed; -hend•ing [+ obj] formal

1 of police : to arrest (someone) for a crime : to catch (a criminal or suspect) ▪ Within hours, police had apprehended the thief.

2 somewhat old-fashioned : to notice and understand (something) : PERCEIVE ▪ subtle differences that are difficult to apprehend

ap•pre•hen•sion /ˌæprɪˈhɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 : fear that something bad or unpleasant is going to happen : a feeling of being worried about the future [noncount] The thought of moving to a new city fills me with apprehension. ▪ There is growing apprehension [=fear] that profits will be lower than expected. [count] He has apprehensions [=misgivings] about the surgery.

2 formal : the act of apprehending someone or something: such as a : the act of arresting someone for a crime [noncount] the sheriff's apprehension of the criminal = the criminal's apprehension by the sheriff [count] an increased number of apprehensions b [noncount] somewhat old-fashioned : the act of noticing and understanding something ▪ the ap-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

prehension [=perception] of danger

ap•pre•hen•sive /ˌæprɪˈhɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : afraid that something bad or unpleasant is going to happen : feeling or showing fear or apprehension about the future ▪ He was quite apprehensive [=fearful, uneasy] about the surgery. ▪ She gave me an apprehensive [=anxious] look. – ap•pre•hen•sive•ly adv ▪ She looked at me apprehensively. – ap•pre•hen•sive•ness noun [noncount]

[1]ap•pren•tice /əˈprɛntəs/ noun, pl -tic•es [count] : a person who learns a job or skill by working for a fixed period of time for someone who is very good at that job or skill ▪ a carpenter's apprentice = an apprentice to a carpenter — often used before another noun ▪ an apprentice carpenter

[2]apprentice verb -tices; -ticed; -tic•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (someone) an apprentice — usually used as (be) apprenticed ▪ He was apprenticed to a carpenter [=he became a carpenter's apprentice] at the age of 15.

2 [no obj] : to work as an apprentice ▪ He apprenticed with a master carpenter for two years.

ap•pren•tice•ship /əˈprɛntəsˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count]

1 : a position as an apprentice ▪ He obtained an apprenticeship with a carpenter.

2 : the period of time when a person is an apprentice ▪ He served a two-year apprenticeship.

ap•prise /əˈpraɪz/ verb -pris•es; -prised; -pris•ing [+ obj] formal : to give information to (someone) : INFORM — usually + of ▪ Please apprise me of any changes in the situation. = Please keep me apprised of any changes in the situation. [=please let me know if there are any changes in the situation]

Do not confuse apprise with appraise.

[1]ap•proach /əˈproʊʧ/ verb -proach•es; -proached; -proach•ing

1 a : to move or become near or nearer to something or someone [+ obj] The cat approached the baby cautiously. ▪ We are approaching [=nearing] our destination. [no obj] The cat approached cautiously. ▪ Ease off the gas pedal to slow down as the bend in the road approaches. b : to move or become near or nearer in time to something [+ obj] We are approaching the end of the fiscal year. ▪ She is approaching retirement. [=she will soon be retiring from her job] [no obj] Your birthday is approaching fast. = Your birthday is fast approaching. [=your birthday is soon]

2 [+ obj] a : to get close to (an amount or level) ▪ This weekend we're expecting temperatures approaching 100 degrees. ▪ The success rates approach 90 percent. b : to be almost the same as (something or someone) ▪ We were never treated with anything even remotely approaching rudeness. [=no one was at all rude to us] ▪ He has a wild laugh that sometimes approaches hysteria. ▪ a reproduction that approaches the quality of the original painting ▪ When it comes to cooking Italian food, no one can approach her. [=no one is as good at cooking Italian food as she is]

3 [+ obj] : to start talking to (someone) for some purpose (such as to ask a question or make a request) ▪ The supervisor is quite easy to approach, so don't hesitate to bring up any problems you have. ▪ We were advised to never be too aggressive when approaching a potential client. — often used as (be) approached ▪ He was approached about the job but he didn't take it. ▪ I was approached by a young boy asking me to make a donation.

4 [+ obj] : to begin to deal with or think about (something) ▪ When writing, consider the way your reader will approach the text. ▪ She approached the problem from a different angle. ▪ I will approach the idea with an open mind.

[2]approach noun, pl -proaches

1 [count] : a way of dealing with something : a way of doing or thinking about something ▪ a traditional approach ▪ trying a more healthy approach — often + to ▪ I really admire your direct approach to the problem. ▪ Some doctors are trying a radical new approach to cancer treatment.

2 [singular] : the act of moving or becoming near or nearer to someone or something : the act of approaching ▪ The cat made a cautious approach. : an act or occurrence in which something comes nearer ▪ The quiet afternoon was interrupted by the approach of a motorboat. ▪ A loud growl warned us of the bear's approach. ▪ With the approach of summer came longer, hotter days.

3 [count] : the act of speaking to someone for some purpose (such as to ask a question or make a request) — often plural ▪ A group of businessmen has made approaches to the owners of the club with an offer to buy it.

4 [count] : a road or path that leads to a place ▪ This road is the only approach to the cabin (that is) not blocked by snow.

5 [singular] : something that is similar to another thing ▪ These potted herbs are the nearest approach to a garden I can manage.

6 [count] : the final part of a flight just before landing ▪ The pilot lowered the landing gear as the plane began its approach. ▪ The plane was on final approach.

ap•proach•able /əˈproʊʧəbəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : easy to talk to or deal with ▪ The supervisor is quite approachable, so don't hesitate to bring up any problems you have. ▪ The topic is complex but the book itself is very approachable. — opposite UNAPPROACHABLE

2 not used before a noun : able to be reached or approached ▪ The cabin is approachable from several directions.

– ap•proach•abil•i•ty /əˌproʊʧəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He's known for his approachability.

ap•pro•ba•tion /ˌæprəˈbeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : praise or approval ▪ The company has even received the approbation of its former critics.

[1]ap•pro•pri•ate /əˈproʊprijət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : right or suited for some purpose or situation ▪ It's a formal occasion and appropriate attire/dress/clothing is expected. [=you are expected to wear formal clothing] ▪ Red wine would have been a more appropriate choice with the meal. ▪ We'll need to find an appropriate [=suitable] place to store the fuel. ▪ Do you think the movie is appropriate for small children (to see)? = Do you think it's appropriate for small children to see the movie? ▪ The movie is perfectly/entirely appropriate to/for people of all ages. — opposite INAPPROPRIATE

– ap•pro•pri•ate•ly adv ▪ The dinner is formal, so please dress appropriately. ▪ She met her husband, appropriately enough, at a wedding. – ap•pro•pri•ate•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He questioned the appropriateness of the movie for young children.

[2]ap•pro•pri•ate /əˈproʊpriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]

1 : to get or save (money) for a specific use or purpose ▪ The town has appropriated funds to repair the bridge and work should begin this summer.

2 : to take or use (something) especially in a way that is illegal, unfair, etc. ▪ The economy has been weakened by corrupt officials who have appropriated the country's resources for their own use. ▪ Elements of the design were appropriated from other architects. ▪ The term "bad" has been appropriated by teenagers as a synonym for "good." — compare MISAPPROPRIATE

ap•pro•pri•a•tion /əˌproʊpriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal

1 [noncount] : the act of appropriating something: such as a : the act of getting or saving money for a specific use or purpose ▪ the appropriation of funds to repair the bridge b : the act of taking or using something especially in a way that is illegal, unfair, etc. ▪ The economy has been weakened by the appropriation of the country's resources by corrupt officials.

2 [count] : an amount of money that is used or provided by a government for a specific purpose ▪ The library's appropriation (from the state) has decreased over the years.

ap•prov•al /əˈpruːvəl/ noun, pl -als

1 [noncount] : the belief that something or someone is good or acceptable : a good opinion of someone or something ▪ children who never gained/won their parents' approval ▪ He nodded in full approval of their decision. [=he nodded to show that he agreed with their decision] ▪ I hope that these arrangements meet with your approval. [=I hope that these arrangements are acceptable to you; I hope that you approve of these arrangements] ▪ The governor's approval rating with the voters is going up. [=a larger number of voters say that the governor is doing a good job] — opposite DISAPPROVAL

2 : permission to do something : acceptance of an idea, action, plan, etc. [noncount] Do I have your approval to make the changes? ▪ The change is subject to the committee's approval. [=the change must be approved by the committee] ▪ The rally will be on May 19, provided the city gives its approval. ▪ The company is seeking approval of the drug [=is seeking official permission to sell the drug] as a treatment for cancer. ▪ The government has so far withheld approval of the drug. [count] We were required to get approvals at each stage of the project. — see also seal of approval at [2]SEAL on approval ✧ If you buy something on approval, you can return it after using it for a period of time if you decide

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:18:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

that you do not want it. ▪ We bought the new furniture on approval.

ap•prove /ə'pru:v/ verb -proves; -proved; -prov•ing
1 [no obj] : to believe that something or someone is good or acceptable ▪ I don't care if all the other parents are letting their kids do it; I still don't approve. — often + of ▪ I still don't approve of it. ▪ I don't approve of the way he treats his wife. = I don't approve of him treating his wife the way he does. — opposite DISAPPROVE
2 [+ obj] : to officially accept (an idea, action, plan, etc.) ▪ The state has approved the building plans, so work on the new school can begin immediately. ▪ Your supervisor must approve the report before it can be sent. — often used as (be) approved ▪ The drug is expected to be approved as a treatment for cancer by the end of the year. ▪ Your application has been approved.

approved school noun, pl ~ schools [count] Brit : a special school in past times for children who committed crimes approving adj [more ~; most ~] : showing that you believe that something or someone is good or acceptable : showing approval ▪ an approving nod/smile

– ap•prov•ing•ly /ə'pru:vɪŋli/ adv ▪ She spoke approvingly of their efforts. ▪ He nodded approvingly.

approx. abbr approximate; approximately [1]ap•prox•i•mate /ə'prɑ:ksəmət/ adj : almost correct or exact ▪ This is the approximate location of the ancient city. ▪ her approximate age : close in value or amount but not precise ▪ Can you give me the approximate cost of the repair?

– ap•prox•i•mate•ly adv ▪ The repair should cost approximately [=about, around, roughly] $200.

[2]ap•prox•i•mate /ə'prɑ:ksəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing
1 a : to be very similar to but not exactly like (something) [+ obj] I've finally found a vegetarian burger that approximates the taste of real beef. ▪ The colors in the pictures can only approximate the real thing. [no obj] (chiefly Brit) — + to ▪ The colors in the pictures can only approximate to the real thing. b [+ obj] : to do or make a thing that is very similar to but not exactly like (something) ▪ an Australian who can approximate a strong New York City accent
2 [+ obj] : to calculate the almost exact value or position of (something) ▪ Students learned to approximate [=estimate] the distance between the Earth and the planets.

ap•prox•i•ma•tion /əˌprɑ:ksə'meɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : an amount, figure, etc., that is almost correct and is not intended to be exact : an approximate amount, figure, etc. ▪ These numbers are only approximations [=estimates] but they give us some idea of what we can afford. ▪ This isn't an exact figure but I think it's a good/rough approximation of what the land is worth.
2 : something that is similar to something else ▪ The color of the paint isn't the exact same color as the vase, but it's a close approximation. — usually + of or to ▪ The astronauts train in a room that provides an approximation of conditions in space. ▪ There's little more than a vague approximation to the truth in their story.

appt. abbr appoint; appointed; appointment

ap•pur•te•nance /ə'pətənəns/ noun, pl -nanc•es [count] formal : an object that is used with or for something — usually plural ▪ an office equipped with all the appurtenances [=accessories] of the modern business world

Apr. abbr April

APR /ˌeɪˌpi:'ɑə/ noun [singular] business : the rate at which interest on a loan is calculated over the period of a year ✧ APR is an abbreviation of "annual percentage rate."

après–ski /ˌɑ:ˌpreɪ'ski:/ noun [noncount] : social activities after a day of skiing — often used before another noun ▪ an après-ski party

apri•cot /'æprəˌkɑ:t, 'eɪprəˌkɑ:t/ noun, pl -cots [count] : a small orange-colored fruit that is related to the peach and plum — see color picture on page C5

April /'eɪprəl/ noun, pl Aprils : the fourth month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) April ▪ early/late in April ▪ We arrived on April the fourth. = (US) We arrived on April fourth. = We arrived on the fourth of April. [count] We have had snowstorms the last few Aprils. ▪ The children have a week off from school every April. — abbr. Apr.

April Fools' Day or April Fool's Day noun [singular] : April 1 celebrated as a day on which people play tricks on each other — called also All Fools' Day ✧ A trick that is played on April Fools' Day is often called an April Fools' trick or April Fools' joke. A person who is tricked on April Fools' Day is sometimes called an April fool.

a pri•o•ri /ˌɑ:pri'ori/ adj, formal : relating to what can be known through an understanding of how certain things work rather than by observation ▪ There's no a priori reason to think your expenses will remain the same in a new city. — compare A POSTERIORI
– a priori adv

apron /'eɪprən/ noun, pl aprons [count]
1 : a piece of clothing that is worn on the front of the body over clothes to keep them from getting dirty ▪ a cook's apron
2 : the part of a stage that is in front of the curtain — called also apron stage
3 : the paved part of an airport where airplanes load or unload or are turned around apron

apron string noun, pl ~ strings [count] : either one of a pair of strings that are attached to an apron and are used to keep it close to your body — usually used figuratively ▪ At 38 years old, he's still tied to his mother's apron strings. [=he is still controlled by his mother] ▪ The company has relied on government support, but the government is now threatening to cut the apron strings. [=to stop providing support]

[1]ap•ro•pos /ˌæprə'poʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : suitable or appropriate ▪ The ceremony concluded with the reading of an apropos poem. ▪ The comment, though unexpected, was apropos.

[2]apropos prep : with regard to (something) : APROPOS OF ▪ Apropos [=concerning] the proposed changes, I think more information is needed.

apropos of prep : with regard to (something) ▪ Apropos of [=concerning] the proposed changes, I think more information is needed. ▪ Her comment about the weather was apropos of nothing. [=did not relate to any previous topic]

apse /'æps/ noun, pl aps•es [count] : a part of a church that is shaped like a half circle and that is usually at the east end of the building

apt /'æpt/ adj apt•er; apt•est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : likely to do something : having a tendency to do something — followed by to + verb ▪ Don't wake him; he's apt to become angry. ▪ Adolescents are more apt to take risks than adults are.
2 : appropriate or suitable ▪ an apt remark ▪ "Stripe" is an apt name for the cat, since she has striped fur.
3 : quick to learn ▪ a very apt student/pupil – apt•ly adv ▪ The cat is aptly named "Stripe." – apt•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the aptness of the remarks

apt. abbr 1 apartment 2 aptitude

ap•ti•tude /'æptəˌtu:d, Brit 'æptəˌtju:d/ noun, pl -tudes : a natural ability to do something or to learn something [count] The new test is supposed to measure the aptitudes of the students. ▪ Anyone who can speak five languages obviously has a great natural aptitude for (learning) languages. [noncount] She's shown great natural aptitude for (learning) languages. ▪ a test of aptitude = an aptitude test [=a test that is designed to show how easily someone will be able to learn certain skills]

aqua /'ɑ:kwə/ noun, pl aquas [count, noncount] : a light greenish-blue color — see color picture on page C2
– aqua adj

aqua•ma•rine /ˌɑ:kwəmə'ri:n/ noun, pl -rines
1 [count] : a pale greenish-blue stone that is used in jewelry — see color picture on page C11
2 [count, noncount] : a pale greenish-blue color that is more blue than aqua
– aquamarine adj

aquar•i•um /ə'kwerijəm/ noun, pl -i•ums or -ia /-ijə/ [count]
1 : a glass or plastic container in which fish and other water animals and plants can live
2 : a building people can visit to see water animals and plants aquarium

Aquar•i•us /ə'kwerijəs/ noun, pl -us•es
1 [noncount] : the 11th sign

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

of the zodiac that comes between Capricorn and Pisces and is symbolized by a person carrying a jug of water — see picture at ZODIAC

2 [count] : a person born under the sign Aquarius : a person born between January 20th and February 18th ▪ She was born on February third, so she's an Aquarius.

aquat•ic /əˈkwɑːtɪk/ adj

1 : living or found in or near water ▪ aquatic animals/plants ▪ aquatic environments

2 : of or relating to the animals and plants that live in or near water ▪ aquatic biology ▪ an aquatic biologist

3 : done in or on water ▪ aquatic sports

aq•ue•duct /ˈækwəˌdʌkt/ noun, pl -ducts [count] : a structure that looks like a bridge and that is used to carry water over a valley; also : a pipe or channel that is used to bring water to an area aque•ous /ˈeɪkwijəs/ adj, technical : containing water or similar to water ▪ an aqueous solution/fluid aqui•fer /ˈækwəfə/ noun, pl -fers [count] technical : a layer of rock or sand that can absorb and hold water ▪ an underground aquifer

aq•ui•line /ˈækwəˌlaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : curving like an eagle's beak ▪ an aquiline nose

2 : like an eagle ▪ an actor with aquiline features [=an actor whose face has an angular shape like an eagle's face] aquiv•er /əˈkwɪvə/ adj, not used before a noun : shaking or trembling because of strong emotion : quivering ▪ He was all aquiver with excitement/rage.

AR abbr Arkansas

-ar /ə/ adj suffix : of or relating to ▪ molecul*ar* ▪ circul*ar*

Ar•ab /ˈerəb/ noun, pl -abs [count]

1 : a member of the people who are originally from the Arabian Peninsula and who now live mostly in the Middle East and northern Africa

2 Brit : ARABIAN HORSE

– Arab adj ▪ the Arab states ▪ Arab history ▪ an Arab scholar of the Arabic language

ar•a•besque /ˌerəˈbɛsk/ noun, pl -besques

1 [count] : a complicated decorative design made with many lines that curve and cross each other

2 : a ballet position in which the dancer stands on one foot and holds one arm forward while the other arm and leg are held out behind [count] The students practiced their arabesques. [noncount] She held her arms in arabesque.

– arabesque adj ▪ an arabesque pattern

Ara•bi•an /əˈreɪbijən/ adj : from or in Arabia ▪ Arabian cities/scenery ▪ the Arabian Desert : connected with the Arab people ▪ Arabian history/culture/music

Arabian horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] : a type of horse originally from Arabia

Ar•a•bic /ˈerəbɪk/ noun [noncount] : the language of the Arab people ▪ fluent in Arabic

– Arabic adj ▪ an Arab scholar of the Arabic language ▪ Arabic literature/writing ▪ the Arabic alphabet

Arabic numeral noun, pl ~ -rals [count] : any one of the number symbols 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 0 — compare ROMAN NUMERAL

ar•a•ble /ˈerəbəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : suitable for farming : able to produce crops ▪ The family is selling several acres of arable land.

2 Brit : of or relating to growing crops ▪ arable farming ▪ arable farmers arach•nid /əˈræknəd/ noun, pl -nids [count] technical : a kind of animal that has eight legs and a body formed of two parts ▪ Spiders, scorpions, mites, and ticks are arachnids. — see color picture on page C10

ar•bi•ter /ˈɑəbətə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a person who is considered to be an authority on what is right, good, or proper — often + of ▪ an arbiter of fashion/manners/grammar ▪ He is regarded as an arbiter of taste in the world of jazz.

2 : a person who has the power to settle an argument between people ▪ The mayor will act as the final arbiter in any disputes between board members.

ar•bi•trage /ˈɑəbəˌtrɑːʒ/ noun [noncount] business : the practice of buying something (such as foreign money, gold, etc.) in one place and selling it almost immediately in another place where it is worth more

– ar•bi•tra•geur /ˌɑəbəˌtrɑːˈʒə/ also US ar•bi•trag•er /ˈɑəbəˌtrɑːʒə/ noun, pl -geurs also US -gers [count]

ar•bi•trary /ˈɑəbəˌtreri, Brit ˈɑːbətrəri/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not planned or chosen for a particular reason ▪ An arbitrary number has been assigned to each district. : not based on reason or evidence ▪ I don't know why I chose that one; it was a completely arbitrary decision.

2 : done without concern for what is fair or right ▪ Although arbitrary arrests are illegal, they continue to occur in many parts of the country.

– ar•bi•trari•ly /ˌɑəbəˈtrerəli, Brit ˈɑːbətrərəli/ adv ▪ The number was arbitrarily chosen. – ar•bi•trari•ness /ˈɑəbəˌtrerinəs, Brit ˈɑːbətrərinəs/ noun [noncount] ar•bi•trate /ˈɑəbəˌtreɪt/ verb -trates; -trat•ed; -trat•ing : to settle an argument between two people or groups after hearing the opinions and ideas of both [no obj] The council will arbitrate among the interest groups. ▪ arbitrate between managers and staff [+ obj] She will arbitrate the dispute.

ar•bi•tra•tion /ˌɑəbəˈtreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : a process of settling an argument or disagreement in which the people or groups on both sides present their opinions and ideas to a third person or group ▪ Both parties have agreed to (go to) arbitration. ▪ a dispute settled by arbitration ar•bi•tra•tor /ˈɑəbəˌtreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who is chosen to settle a disagreement between people or groups ▪ Both sides agreed to accept a decision by an impartial arbitrator.

ar•bor (US) or Brit ar•bour /ˈɑəbə/ noun, pl -bors [count] : a wooden shelter in a garden that is shaped like an arch and that plants grow over arbor

ar•bo•re•al /ɑəˈborijəl/ adj

1 formal + literary : of or relating to trees ▪ the forest's arboreal beauty

2 technical : living in or often found in trees ▪ an arboreal monkey ar•bo•re•tum /ˌɑəbəˈriːtəm/ noun, pl -re•tums or -re•ta /-ˈriːtə/ [count] : a place where trees and plants are grown in order to be studied or seen by the public

[1]arc /ˈɑək/ noun, pl arcs [count]

1 : a line or shape that is curved like part of a circle ▪ He bent the twig into an arc. ▪ The ball floated in a high arc. — see picture at GEOMETRY

2 technical : a brightly glowing electric current that flows across an open space between two points (such as two electrodes) ▪ an electric arc

[2]arc verb arcs; arced /ˈɑəkt/; arc•ing /ˈɑəkɪŋ/ [no obj]

1 : to move or lie in a curving path : to follow an arc-shaped course ▪ The arrow arced through the air. ▪ A light arced across the sky. ▪ The island chain arcs from north to south.

2 technical : to form an electric arc ar•cade /ɑəˈkeɪd/ noun, pl -cades [count]

1 : a row of arches that are supported by columns

2 : an arched or covered passageway with many shops; also, chiefly Brit : a building that includes many shops ▪ a shopping arcade

3 : a place with many games that can be played by putting coins in them — often used before another noun ▪ an arcade game — called also (Brit) amusement arcade, (US) penny arcade

ar•ca•dia or Ar•ca•dia /ɑəˈkeɪdijə/ noun [noncount] : a very pleasant and quiet place or scene ar•cane /ɑəˈkeɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : secret or mysterious : known or understood by only a few people ▪ an arcane scientific puzzle ▪ an arcane ritual ▪ a theory filled with arcane details

[1]arch /ˈɑəʧ/ noun, pl arch•es [count]

1 : a usually curved part of a structure that is over an opening and that supports a wall or other weight above the opening

2 : the raised area on the bottom of the foot that is formed by a curved section of bones — see picture at FOOT

3 : something that has a curved shape ▪ There was a slight arch to her eyebrows. ▪ an arch in the cat's back

[2]arch verb arches; arched; arch•ing : to bend into the shape of an arch : CURVE [+ obj] She arched her arm/back/neck. ▪ The cat arched its back. ▪ She arched her eyebrows in surprise. [no obj] A tree arches over the road. ▪ She arched backward to begin the exercise.

– arched adj ▪ the cat's arched back ▪ her arched eyebrows ▪ arched ceilings/doorway/gateway/roof/windows

[3]arch adj : having or showing an amused feeling of being superior to or knowing more than other people ▪ an arch look ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

a politician known for his arch humor ▪ The novel is never mocking or arch in its tone.
– arch•ly adv ▪ an archly playful reply ▪ an essay with an archly comic title – arch•ness noun [noncount]

arch- /ˌɑəʧ/ prefix
1 : main or chief ▪ *arch*enemy ▪ *arch*bishop ▪ *arch*rival
2 : extreme ▪ *arch*conservative

ar•chae•ol•o•gy or chiefly US ar•che•ol•o•gy /ˌɑəkiˈɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with past human life and activities by studying the bones, tools, etc., of ancient people – ar•chae•o•log•i•cal or chiefly US ar•che•o•log•i•cal /ˌɑəkijəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ an archaeological site/dig – ar•chae•o•log•i•cal•ly or chiefly US ar•che•o•log•i•cal•ly /ˌɑəkijəˈlɑːʤɪkli/ adv – ar•chae•ol•o•gist or chiefly US ar•che•ol•o•gist /ˌɑəkiˈɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

ar•cha•ic /ɑəˈkejɪk/ adj
1 : old and no longer used ▪ the archaic word "methinks" ▪ archaic spellings of words ▪ archaic customs synonyms see [1]OLD
2 [more ~; most ~] : old and no longer useful : OUTDATED ▪ The company needs to update its archaic computer systems.
3 : of or relating to ancient times ▪ archaic art ar•cha•ism /ˈɑəkiˌɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] : an old word or expression that is no longer used : an archaic word or expression ▪ the archaisms "methinks" and "saith" arch•an•gel /ˈɑəʧˌeɪnʤəl/ noun, pl -gels [count] : an angel of the highest rank arch•bish•op /ɑəʧˈbɪʃəp/ noun, pl -ops [count] : the bishop of highest rank in a particular area

arch•bish•op•ric /ɑəʧˈbɪʃəprɪk/ noun, pl -rics [count] : the rank of an archbishop or the area over which an archbishop has authority arch•con•ser•va•tive /ɑəʧkənˈsəvətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : a person who is extremely conservative in politics

– archconservative adj

arch•dea•con /ɑəʧˈdiːkən/ noun, pl -cons [count] : a church official who assists a bishop arch•di•o•cese /ɑəʧˈdajəsəs/ noun, pl -ces•es [count] : the area an archbishop is in charge of : the diocese of an archbishop arch•duch•ess /ɑəʧˈdʌʧəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count]

1 : a princess of the royal family of Austria
2 : the wife or widow of an archduke arch•duke /ɑəʧˈduːk, Brit ɑʧˈdjuːk/ noun, pl -dukes [count] : a prince of the royal family of Austria arch•en•e•my /ɑəʧˈɛnəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] : someone's main enemy ▪ The two politicians were archenemies. ▪ The country went to war with its archenemy.

archeology chiefly US spelling of ARCHAEOLOGY ar•cher /ˈɑəʧə/ noun, pl -chers [count] : a person who shoots with a bow and arrow ar•chery /ˈɑəʧəri/ noun [noncount] : the sport or skill of shooting with a bow and arrow — often used before another noun ▪ an archery competition/contest ▪ archery equipment

ar•che•type /ˈɑəkiˌtaɪp/ noun, pl -types [count] : a perfect example of something ▪ He is the archetype of a successful businessman. ▪ an archetype of the modern family
– ar•che•typ•al /ˌɑəkiˈtaɪpəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an archetypal businessman ▪ an archetypal American town ar•chi•pel•a•go /ˌɑəkəˈpɛlәˌgoʊ/ noun, pl -goes or -gos [count] : a group of islands

ar•chi•tect /ˈɑəkəˌtɛkt/ noun, pl -tects [count]
1 : a person who designs buildings ▪ a famous architect
2 : a person who designs and guides a plan, project, etc. — usually + of ▪ He is the main/chief/principal architect of the country's foreign policy. ▪ an architect of the peace proposal ▪ She earned praise as the architect of a new school program.

ar•chi•tec•ture /ˈɑəkəˌtɛkʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 [noncount] : the art or science of designing and creating buildings ▪ In college, he studied architecture.
2 [noncount] : a method or style of building ▪ The architecture of the building is modern.
3 [count] technical : the way in which the parts of a computer are organized ▪ different program architectures
– ar•chi•tec•tur•al /ˌɑəkəˈtɛkʧərəl/ adj ▪ architectural blueprints/designs/drawings/plans ▪ an architectural detail/element/feature/style – ar•chi•tec•tur•al•ly adv ▪ architecturally wonderful buildings

[1]ar•chive /ˈɑəˌkaɪv/ noun, pl -chives [count] : a place in which public records or historical materials (such as documents) are kept ▪ an archive of historical manuscripts ▪ The original movie was stored in a film archive.; also : the material that is stored in an archive ▪ He has been reading through the archives to research his article on the town's history.
– ar•chi•val /ɑəˈkaɪvəl/ adj ▪ archival resources/material

[2]archive verb -chives; -chived; -chiv•ing [+ obj] : to collect and store materials (such as recordings, documents, or computer files) so that they can be found and used when they are needed ▪ The organization was devoted to cataloging and archiving printed materials on the labor movement. ▪ She archived her e-mail messages in a folder on her hard drive. ▪ a collection of archived articles

ar•chi•vist /ˈɑəkəvɪst/ noun, pl -vists [count] : a person who has the job of collecting and storing the materials in an archive arch•ri•val /ɑəʧˈraɪvəl/ noun, pl -vals [count] : someone's chief rival or opponent ▪ In baseball, the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees are archrivals.

arch•way /ˈɑəʧˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : a passage that goes under an arch; also : an arch over a passage arc•tic /ˈɑəktɪk/ adj

1 or Arctic always used before a noun : of or relating to the North Pole or the region around it ▪ off the arctic coast ▪ The group is involved in Arctic exploration. ▪ Arctic waters — compare ANTARCTIC
2 : very cold ▪ arctic temperatures

Arctic Circle noun
the Arctic Circle : an imaginary line that goes around the Earth near the North Pole ar•dent /ˈɑədnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing very strong feelings ▪ She is an ardent [=fervent] believer in her religion. [=she believes very strongly in her religion] ▪ an ardent [=passionate] admirer ▪ ardent fans ▪ ardent [=amorous] lovers

– ar•dent•ly adv

ar•dor (US) or chiefly Brit ar•dour /ˈɑədə/ noun, pl -dors
1 : a strong feeling of energy or eagerness [noncount] He preached with the ardor [=fervor] of a true believer. [count] the sudden ardors of youth
2 [noncount] : a strong feeling of love ▪ young love, with all its ardor [=passion] and intensity ar•du•ous /ˈɑəʤəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very difficult ▪ He went through a long and arduous training program. ▪ arduous efforts ▪ years of arduous study ▪ an arduous chore/duty/job/task ▪ an arduous journey across miles of desert – ar•du•ous•ly adv ▪ working arduously – ar•du•ous•ness noun [noncount]

are see BE ar•ea /ˈerijə/ noun, pl ar•eas

1 [count] a : a part or section within a larger place : REGION ▪ Settlers came to this area from the east. ▪ The group visited the area during a hunting trip. ▪ in the area surrounding the lake ▪ The storm caused damage in many areas along the coast. ▪ a bird found only in remote areas of the U.S. ▪ in many areas of the world ▪ He is the metropolitan area's most popular politician. ▪ urban and rural areas ▪ He lived in an unfashionable area of the city. ▪ a residential area ▪ One of our representatives will be in your area [=neighborhood] next week. b : a section of space within a building, room, etc. ▪ She set aside a work area in the kitchen. ▪ The dining area has extra windows. ▪ We were asked to wait in the reception area. ▪ The park had several picnic areas.
2 [count] : a part of the surface of something (such as a person's body or a piece of cloth) ▪ Choose a small area of the fabric to test first. ▪ The patient was having pain in the shoulder/abdominal area. = The patient was having pain in the area of the shoulder/abdomen.
3 [count] : a field of activity or study ▪ The discovery has opened up new areas of/for research. ▪ The budget continues to be a major area of concern. ▪ a problem area ▪ the whole area of foreign policy ▪ She wants the government to provide more help in the area of health care. ▪ Your question falls outside my area of expertise. ▪ There are still some areas of disagreement between the two sides. — see also GRAY AREA
4 : the amount of space inside a shape, surface, region, room, etc. [count] The students learned how to calculate the area of a triangle. ▪ a circle with an area of 500 square meters ▪ The park has an area of 2 square miles. [noncount] a circle that is 500 square meters in area ▪ (chiefly US) The nightclub provided enough area [=room, space] for a dance floor.
in the area of : close to (an amount) ▪ The project will cost (somewhere) in the area of $50,000.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 62 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

area code noun, pl ~ codes [count] : a number that represents each telephone service area in a country (such as the U.S. or Canada) — called also (Brit) dialling code

are•na /əˈriːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count]
1 : a building for sports and other forms of entertainment that has a large central area surrounded by seats ▪ a basketball/hockey arena
2 : an area of activity, interest, or competition ▪ Congress became an arena of opposing views. ▪ the toughest political arena in the world ▪ The economic arena has been dominated by that country.

arena football noun [noncount] US : a game that is like American football but that is played indoors on a shorter field aren't /ˈɑərnt, ˈɑrənt/

1 — used as a contraction of are not ▪ We aren't ready to leave.
2 — used in questions as a contraction of am not ▪ Aren't I included too? = I'm included too, aren't I? [=am I not also included?]

ar•gon /ˈɑərˌgɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is a colorless gas and that is used in various products (such as lasers and some electric light bulbs)

ar•got /ˈɑərgət, ˈɑərgoʊ/ noun, pl -gots : the language used by a particular type or group of people [noncount] people communicating in criminal argot [=the language used by criminals] [count] groups communicating in their own secret argots

ar•gu•able /ˈɑərgjuwəbəl/ adj
1 : not certain or clearly true : open to argument, dispute, or question ▪ That word's pronunciation is arguable. ▪ the arguable [=questionable] benefits of trying to follow every fad diet ▪ That is an arguable point of view.
2 : possibly true — used to say that there are good reasons for believing that a statement is true ▪ It is arguable that he's the best writer of his generation.

ar•gu•ably /ˈɑərgjuwəbli/ adv : it can be argued — used to say that a statement is very possibly true even if it is not certainly true ▪ He is arguably the best writer of his generation. [=he may well be the best writer of his generation] ▪ It is arguably the busiest airport in the world.

ar•gue /ˈɑərgju/ verb -gues; -gued; -gu•ing
1 a : to give reasons for or against something : to say or write things in order to change someone's opinion about what is true, what should be done, etc. [no obj] She argued against the proposed law. ▪ The senator argued in favor of lowering taxes. ▪ They argued (convincingly/persuasively) against cutting the budget. ▪ He's always willing to argue for what is right. ▪ argue for better funding [+ obj] She argued that the proposed law should be defeated. ▪ He argued that it's far too early to make a decision. b [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to decide to do or not do something by giving reasons ▪ They tried to argue their parents into getting a new car. [=to persuade their parents to get a new car] ▪ No one can argue me out of doing this.
2 [no obj] : to disagree or fight by using angry words : QUARREL ▪ Their neighbors argued (with each other) all the time. ▪ They started arguing about/over politics/religion. ▪ She would argue with anyone.
3 [no obj] : to express doubt or disagreement about something — + with ▪ You can't argue with her success. [=you can't deny that she is successful]
4 a [no obj] : to show that something is or is not necessary, appropriate, etc. — usually + for or against ▪ The result argues for a new approach. [=the result shows that we need a new approach] b [+ obj] formal : to give evidence of (something) ▪ The facts argue [=indicate, show] his innocence.
argue the toss see [2]TOSS
– ar•gu•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ar•gu•ment /ˈɑərgjəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 a [count] : a statement or series of statements for or against something ▪ They made a compelling/convincing/persuasive/strong argument for our participation. ▪ The committee presented strong arguments against building a new school. ▪ a lawyer's closing argument at the trial ▪ His argument did not convince his opponents. b [noncount] : a discussion in which people express different opinions about something ▪ Let us accept, for the sake of argument, that she is right. ▪ Don't you want to hear both sides of the argument?
2 : an angry disagreement : QUARREL [count] They were always getting into arguments about/over politics. ▪ There were many arguments about/over the new design. ▪ They settled an argument that started in class. ▪ I don't want to hear any arguments about whether you'll go. [noncount] I don't want to hear any argument about whether you'll go. ▪ You'll get no argument from me. [=I won't disagree] ▪ On that issue, there's no argument. [=disagreement]
3 [singular] : something which shows that something is or is not necessary, appropriate, etc. — usually + for or against ▪ The result is an argument for a new approach. [=the result shows that we need to try a new approach]

ar•gu•men•ta•tion /ˌɑərgjəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the act or process of giving reasons for or against something : the act or process of making and presenting arguments ▪ He tried to use argumentation to convince his opponents, rather than force.

ar•gu•men•ta•tive /ˌɑərgjəˈmɛntətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to argue : having or showing a tendency to disagree or argue with other people in an angry way : QUARRELSOME ▪ an argumentative person ▪ He became more argumentative during the debate. ▪ an argumentative essay
– ar•gu•men•ta•tive•ly adv – ar•gu•men•ta•tive•ness noun [noncount]

ar•gy–bar•gy /ˌɑərdʒiˈbɑərdʒi/ noun, Brit, informal : an argument or disagreement : SQUABBLE [singular] The tenants got into a bit of an argy-bargy with each other. [noncount] There's been a certain amount of argy-bargy between the tenants.

aria /ˈɑrijə/ noun, pl ari•as [count] : a song in an opera sung by one person ar•id /ˈerəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very dry : having very little rain or water ▪ an arid desert ▪ arid lands/regions
2 : lacking in interest and life ▪ a dull and arid textbook – arid•i•ty /əˈrɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the aridity of the land

Ar•i•es /ˈeriz/ noun, pl Aries
1 [noncount] : the first sign of the zodiac : the sign of the zodiac that comes between Pisces and Taurus and has a ram as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC
2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Aries : a person born between March 21 and April 19 ▪ My friend is an Aries and I'm a Taurus.

aright /əˈraɪt/ adv, old-fashioned + literary : so as to be correct ▪ His name was Jones, if I remember aright. [=rightly, correctly] ▪ He tried to set/put things aright. [=right, to rights]

arise /əˈraɪz/ verb aris•es; arose /əˈroʊz/; aris•en /əˈrɪzn/; aris•ing [no obj]
1 a : to begin to occur or to exist ▪ These problems arise when people try to avoid responsibility. ▪ Questions have arisen concerning/about the company's financial records. ▪ The sport arose in the 19th century. ▪ The opportunity arose for a new position to be created. ▪ A conflict arose because of a misunderstanding. ▪ Jobs will be created as/when the need arises. [=jobs will be created when they are needed] ▪ Should the need arise, he can defend himself. [=he can defend himself if it is necessary to do so] b : to begin at a source ▪ Tumors arose in different areas of the skin. — usually + from ▪ arteries that arise from the aorta ▪ small roots arising from the stems ▪ The disease probably arose from a virus. ▪ The river arises from two main sources.
2 a : to get up from sleep or after lying down ▪ He arose [=(more commonly) rose] refreshed after a good night's sleep. b : to stand up ▪ He arose [=(more commonly) rose] from his chair.
3 : to move upward ▪ Mist arose [=(more commonly) rose] from the valley.

ar•is•toc•ra•cy /ˌerəˈstɑːkrəsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] : the highest social class in some countries : the people who have special titles (such as duke and duchess), who typically own land, and who traditionally have more money and power than the other people in a society ▪ a member of the aristocracy

aris•to•crat /əˈrɪstəˌkræt/ noun, pl -crats [count] : a member of an aristocracy ▪ an aristocrat by birth – aris•to•crat•ic /əˌrɪstəˈkrætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ aristocratic titles like duke and duchess – aris•to•crat•i•cal•ly /əˌrɪstəˈkrætɪkli/ adv

arith•me•tic /əˈrɪθməˌtɪk/ noun [noncount]
1 : a branch of mathematics that deals with numbers and their addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division
2 : the act or process of calculating a number ▪ a software program that will do the arithmetic for you – ar•ith•met•ic /ˌerɪθˈmɛtɪk/ or ar•ith•met•i•cal /ˌerɪθˈmɛtɪkəl/ adj – ar•ith•met•i•cal•ly /ˌerɪθˈmɛtɪkli/ adv

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

Ark /ˈɑərk/ noun [singular] in the Bible : the ship in which Noah and his family were saved from a great flood that God sent down on the world in ancient times ▪ Noah's Ark

[1]arm /ˈɑərm/ noun, pl arms [count]
1 : either one of the two long body parts that join the top of your body at the shoulder and that end at the hand or wrist ▪ He has big, strong, muscular arms. ▪ She broke her left arm. = Her left arm was/got broken. ▪ He hurt his throwing/pitching arm [=the arm that he uses to throw/pitch a ball] in the last game. ▪ She put/threw her arms around him. [=she hugged him] ▪ She had a newspaper tucked under her arm. ▪ He was carrying a bag of groceries in each arm. ▪ He gave/offered his arm to her, and she took it. [=she held onto his arm] ▪ She grabbed my arm. = She grabbed me by the arm. ▪ He was standing there with his arms crossed/folded. ▪ She stood with her arms outstretched. = She stood with her arms wide open. ▪ She sat cradling the baby in her arms. ▪ I've known her since she was a babe in arms. [=a baby who is too young to walk and has to be held] ▪ He took her in/into his arms [=he embraced her] and kissed her passionately. ▪ She found him in the arms of [=being embraced by] another woman. ▪ He showed up at the party with a young woman on his arm. [=holding his arm] ▪ He took her (by the) arm and they walked in to dinner. — see picture at HUMAN
2 : the part of a piece of clothing (such as a shirt or coat) that covers the arm : SLEEVE ▪ The jacket's arms are too tight. = The jacket is too tight in the arms.
3 : a part of a piece of furniture (such as a chair or couch) that gives support for a person's arm ▪ the arm of the sofa — see also [1]ARMCHAIR
4 a : a long thin piece that is connected to the main part of a machine, structure, etc., and that looks or moves like a human arm ▪ the robot's mechanical arm ▪ the machine's robotic arm ▪ the arm of the record player b : a long and narrow area of water ▪ an arm of the sea
5 : the part of a group or organization that performs a specific job or function — usually singular ▪ the organization's political arm [=the part of the organization that deals with politics] ▪ It is the most powerful arm [=division] of the organization. ▪ the military arm of the government
6 US, sports : a person's ability to throw a ball — usually singular ▪ Their pitcher's got a great arm. ▪ a strong/weak arm
an arm and a leg informal : a very large amount of money ▪ It's a reliable car, and it doesn't cost an arm and a leg. [=it isn't too expensive] arm in arm : next to each other with the arm of one person linked at the elbow to the arm of another person ▪ an elderly couple walking down the street arm in arm
a shot in the arm see [1]SHOT as long as someone's arm see [1]LONG at arm's length : from a distance that is the length of a person's arm ▪ It's best to view the painting at arm's length. ▪ holding a candle at arm's length ✧ To keep someone or something at arm's length is to avoid being very close to or friendly with someone or something. ▪ Since going to college, he has kept his old friends at arm's length. ▪ They no longer trust her and are keeping her at arm's length. ▪ The government has kept the group at arm's length until now.
chance your arm see [2]CHANCE give your right arm see [1]GIVE the long arm of the law : the ability of the police to find and catch people who commit crimes ▪ The long arm of the law finally caught up with him [=the police caught him] 30 years later. ▪ So far, she's been able to escape the long arm of the law.
twist someone's arm see [1]TWIST with open arms : in a very kind and friendly way ▪ We were welcomed back with open arms.
– compare [2]ARM

[2]arm noun, pl arms
1 [count] : a gun or other weapon that is used especially in a war — usually plural ▪ The government was selling arms to other countries. ▪ the right of individuals to carry/bear arms [=firearms] — often used before another noun ▪ an arms agreement/deal ▪ arms shipments ▪ The United Nations lifted the arms embargo against the country. — see also ARMS RACE, FIREARM, SMALL ARMS
2 arms [plural] : COAT OF ARMS ▪ the royal arms of Portugal
call to arms ✧ A call to arms is a request or command to become ready to fight. ▪ The government issued a call to arms. The phrase is also used for something that tries to make people fight for a cause. ▪ Her book is a political call to arms.
in arms ✧ If someone is your brother/sister/comrade in arms, that person has helped you fight an enemy especially in a war. ▪ He and I were brothers in arms. [=we fought in a war together] lay down your arms : to put down your weapons and stop fighting ▪ The soldiers refused to lay down their arms.
present arms military — used as a command to hold your rifle so that it points straight up in front of you as a sign of respect take up arms : to pick up weapons and become ready to fight ▪ They took up arms to defend their city. ▪ The rebels are taking up arms against their own government.
under arms : serving in the military ▪ the number of Americans now under arms around the world up in arms : angry and ready to fight or argue ▪ Voters were up in arms over the new taxes.
– compare [1]ARM

[3]arm verb arms; armed; arm•ing
1 : to provide (yourself, a group, a country, etc.) with weapons especially in order to fight a war or battle [+ obj] They armed the men for battle. ▪ The group of fighters was armed by a foreign government. ▪ The two countries have been arming themselves for years, but now they have agreed to disarm. — often + with ▪ The government has armed its military with the best weapons. ▪ She armed herself with a kitchen knife. [no obj] arming for battle ▪ countries that are continuing to arm [=to produce and gather weapons] — opposite DISARM; see also [1]ARMED, UNARMED
2 [+ obj] : to provide (someone) with a way of fighting, competing, or succeeding ▪ We armed ourselves with the tools we would need to survive in the forest. ▪ They arm people with accurate information. ▪ arming women with the right to vote
3 [+ obj] : to make (a bomb, weapon, etc.) ready for use ▪ Once the bomb has been armed, we have five minutes to escape. — opposite DISARM

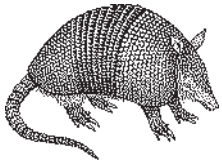
ar•ma•da /ɑəˈmɑːdə/ noun, pl -das [count] : a large group of ships, boats, etc. ▪ an armada of fishing boats ar•ma•dil•lo /ˌɑərməˈdɪloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count] : a small American animal that lives underground and whose head and body are protected by a hard shell



armadillo

Ar•ma•ged•don /ˌɑərməˈgɛdn̩/ noun : a final destructive battle or conflict [singular] trying to avoid/avert the threat of a nuclear Armageddon [=a nuclear war that would destroy the world] [noncount] the threat of nuclear Armageddon

ar•ma•ment /ˈɑərməmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the process of preparing for war by producing and obtaining weapons ▪ The country's armament will take years. — opposite DISARMAMENT
2 armaments [plural] : military weapons that are used to fight a war ▪ a small nation that is determined to have adequate armaments

ar•ma•ture /ˈɑərməʧəɹ/ noun, pl -tures [count] technical 1 : the part of an electric motor or generator that produces an electric current when it turns in a magnetic field
2 : a frame used by a sculptor to support a figure that is being modeled arm•band /ˈɑəɹˌbænd/ noun, pl -bands

1 [count] : a band worn around the arm; especially : one that is worn around the upper part of a sleeve to show who you are or to show that you are in mourning
2 armbands [plural] Brit : WATER WINGS

[1]arm•chair /ˈɑərmˌʧeəɹ/ noun, pl -chairs [count] : a chair with supports for your arms

[2]armchair adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to describe people who like to read about or watch the dangerous or exciting activities of other people ▪ an armchair adventurer ▪ armchair tourists/travelers
2 — used to describe people who like to give opinions about matters they do not have to deal with themselves and do not have responsibility for ▪ armchair strategists who second-guess generals

[1]armed /ˈɑərmd/ adj
1 : involving the use of weapons ▪ They planned an armed attack/assault on the country's capital. ▪ the threat of armed conflict ▪ armed uprisings ▪ He's serving eight years for

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

armed robbery. [=robbery while carrying a gun or other weapon] — opposite UNARMED; see also ARMED FORCES

2 : carrying weapons ▪ The building is surrounded by armed guards/soldiers. ▪ an armed robber ▪ He wasn't armed at the time. [=he wasn't carrying a gun] ▪ The police said that the thieves should be considered armed and dangerous. ▪ a group of heavily armed men [=men who are carrying many dangerous weapons] ▪ The police were armed to the teeth. [=the police had many weapons] — often + with ▪ The car was armed with explosives. ▪ airplanes armed with bombs ▪ The robber was armed with a knife. — opposite UNARMED

3 : having something that provides security or strength — usually + with ▪ We went into the forest armed with food, extra clothes, and lots of bug spray. ▪ journalists armed with cameras and notebooks ▪ students armed with the knowledge they would need to succeed in the world

– compare [2]ARMED

[2]armed adj : having arms of a specific kind or number — used in combination ▪ a one-armed man ▪ a long-armed boxer — compare [1]ARMED armed forces noun [plural] : the military organizations (such as the army, navy, and air force) of a country ▪ He has had a long career in the armed forces. ▪ Will the new defense policy weaken the armed forces? ▪ The armed forces oppose the policy. [=military leaders oppose it] — called also armed services

arm•ful /ˈɑəmˌfʊl/ noun, pl arm•fuls also arms•ful /ˈɑəmzˌfʊl/ [count] : an amount that can be carried in a person's arm or arms — usually + of ▪ She returned from the library with an armful of books. ▪ stacking armfuls of wood to bring in for the fireplace arm•hole /ˈɑəmˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : an opening for the arm in a piece of clothing

ar•mi•stice /ˈɑəməstəs/ noun, pl -stic•es [count] : an agreement to stop fighting a war : TRUCE

Armistice Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] US, old-fashioned : VETERANS DAY — used before the official adoption of Veterans Day in 1954

arm•load /ˈɑəmˌloʊd/ noun, pl -loads [count] : ARMFUL ▪ an armload of clean clothes ar•moire /ɑəmˈwɑə/ noun, pl -moires [count] : a tall piece of furniture that usually has two doors and that is used to store things (such as clothes)

ar•mor (US) or Brit ar•mour /ˈɑəmə/ noun [noncount]

1 : special clothing that people wear to protect their bodies from weapons ▪ The officers are required to wear bulletproof body armor. ✧ Armor commonly refers to the heavy metal suits that men wore long ago when they fought in battles. ▪ medieval suits of armor — see also knight in shining armor at [1]KNIGHT ✧ A chink/crack in someone's or something's armor is a weakness that might cause someone or something to fail or to be defeated. ▪ They watched carefully for any cracks in the other team's armor. ▪ The plan looks good, but we've found/discovered some chinks in its armor. ▪ The scandal revealed/exposed a chink in his seemingly perfect armor.

2 a : a hard covering that protects something (such as a vehicle or an animal) ▪ The shots penetrated/pierced the tank's armor. ▪ an armor-plated vehicle [=a vehicle that is protected by armor; a vehicle that is covered in flat pieces of metal] ▪ The armadillo's armor consists of a series of small, bony plates. — often used before another noun ▪ The ship's hull is reinforced with armor plate/plating. b : soldiers and vehicles (such as tanks) that are protected with armor ▪ a weapon designed for use against enemy armor

ar•mored (US) or Brit ar•moured /ˈɑəməd/ adj

1 : covered in flat pieces of metal : protected by armor ▪ armored cars/trucks ▪ a ship with an armored hull

2 a : having soldiers and vehicles that are protected with armor ▪ Additional armored divisions were deployed to the eastern front. b : using soldiers and vehicles that are protected with armor ▪ an armored assault/attack ar•mor•er (US) or Brit ar•mour•er /ˈɑəmərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or business that makes and repairs armor or weapons ▪ The sword was made by a master armorer.

ar•mory (US) or Brit ar•moury /ˈɑəməri/ noun, pl -ies [count]

1 : a supply of weapons ▪ the nation's nuclear armory [=arsenal] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The professional artist has an armory [=(more commonly) arsenal, battery, array] of tools at her disposal.

2 : a place where weapons are kept ▪ the site of a 19th-century armory; especially, US : a place where weapons are kept and where soldiers are trained ▪ a National Guard armory

3 : a place where weapons are made arm•pit /ˈɑəmˌpɪt/ noun, pl -pits [count]

1 : the hollow area on a person's body beneath the place where the arm and the shoulder meet — called also underarm; see picture at HUMAN

2 US, informal : the worst area in a place ▪ a city described as the armpit of America arm•rest /ˈɑəmˌrɛst/ noun, pl -rests [count] : the part of a seat in a car, an airplane, etc., that supports your arm arms race noun, pl ~ races [count] : a situation in which countries that are enemies each try to build or collect weapons faster than the other can ▪ a nuclear arms race

arm–twist•ing /ˈɑəmˌtwɪstɪŋ/ noun [noncount] informal : the act of using pressure to make people do things that they do not want to do ▪ There was a lot of political arm-twisting before the Senate vote. — see also twist someone's arm at [1]TWIST arm wrestling noun [noncount] : a contest in which two people sit facing each other and join usually their right hands together and then try to force each other's arm down

– arm wrestler noun, pl ~ wrestlers [count]

ar•my /ˈɑəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count]

1 a : a large group of soldiers organized to fight battles on land ▪ the armies of Alexander the Great ▪ raise an army b : the part of a country's military forces that includes soldiers who are trained to fight on land ▪ He left home and joined the army after he graduated from high school. — usually capitalized when a specific army is being referred to ▪ the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines ▪ She's in the British Army. — often used before another noun ▪ army officers/units/barracks

2 : a large number of people or things that are involved in some activity together ▪ The company employs an army of lawyers to handle its legal affairs. ▪ They sent in a whole army of trained technicians. ▪ an army of ants ▪ The organization was founded by a dedicated army of volunteers. — see also SALVATION ARMY

aro•ma /əˈroʊmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a noticeable and usually pleasant smell ▪ the aroma of fresh-baked bread ▪ The wine has a fruity aroma.

aro•ma•ther•a•py /əˌroʊməˈθerəpi/ noun [noncount] : the use of natural oils that have a pleasant smell to make a person feel better especially by rubbing the oils into the skin

– aro•ma•ther•a•pist /əˌroʊməˈθerəpɪst/ noun, pl -pists [count]

ar•o•mat•ic /ˌerəˈmætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a noticeable and pleasant smell : FRAGRANT ▪ aromatic herbs/oils ▪ a highly aromatic stew

arose past tense of ARISE

[1]around /əˈraʊnd/ adv

1 a : in a circle ▪ The wheel went/turned around (and around). ▪ We kept going around [=(chiefly Brit) round] in circles without getting anywhere. b : in, along, or through a curving path ▪ The road goes around [=(chiefly Brit) round] by the lake. ▪ Don't take the long way around: I know a shortcut. c chiefly US — used to indicate a measurement that is made along the outer surface of something circular ▪ "How big around is the tree?" "It's five feet around." [=(chiefly Brit) round] [=the circumference of the tree is five feet]

2 — used to indicate that a number, amount, time, etc., is not exact or certain ▪ The price of dinner was around [=(chiefly US) about] $50. ▪ It lasted around [=(chiefly US) about] a century. ▪ The repair should cost around [=approximately, roughly] $200. ▪ We should leave in around 10 minutes. ▪ We got home at around 8 o'clock. = (US) We got home around about 8 o'clock. [=it was approximately 8 o'clock when we got home]

3 a : in close from all sides so as to surround someone or something ▪ People crowded around [=(chiefly Brit) round] to hear her. b : in many different directions ▪ They wandered around [=(chiefly Brit) about] for several hours. ▪ He entered the room and looked around. c : in or to many different places ▪ People were standing around [=(chiefly Brit) about], talking quietly in small groups. ▪ His tools were scattered around [=(chiefly Brit) about] carelessly. ▪ She travels around [=(chiefly Brit) about] on business quite a lot. ▪ This is a very interesting town: let me show you around. d : in or near a particular area or place ▪ We went to the store, but there was no one around. [=there was no one there; (chiefly Brit) there was no one about] ▪ Let's wait/stay/stick around awhile. ▪ I'm not sure where it is, but it must be around somewhere. ▪ It's safer when there are other people around. ▪ I'd like to speak to him if he's around. ▪ So long, then! (I'll) See you around! [=I'll see you later] e : to a particular place ▪ Why don't you come around (to my house) for dinner?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

4 : in the opposite direction ▪ She turned (completely) around. [=(less commonly) about, (chiefly Brit) round]

5 — used with some verbs to indicate repeated or continued action or behavior that does not have a clear or definite purpose ▪ He's always joking around when he should be serious. ▪ Don't play/fool around with your food like that! ▪ I was just standing around, waiting for the train to arrive.

6 — used to describe something that returns in a regular or repeated way ▪ Winter has come around [=(chiefly Brit) round] again.

7 — used to describe how two things are arranged or ordered ▪ You put the fork on the left and the knife on the right. They should be the other way around. [=(chiefly Brit) round] [=the fork should be on the right and the knife on the left] ▪ You've got them the wrong way around. [=(chiefly Brit) round]

come around see [1]COME

[2]around prep

1 a : on all sides of (something or someone) ▪ a house with trees (all) around [=(chiefly Brit) round] it ▪ The people were seated around the table. ▪ A crowd gathered around him. b : so as to circle or surround (something or someone) ▪ He tied the rope around his waist. ▪ They wrapped the blanket around [=about] her. : moving so as to circle (something or someone) ▪ The Earth revolves/goes/moves around [=(chiefly Brit) round] the Sun. ▪ We went all around the lake enjoying the different views. ▪ They sailed around the world. c : over or in different parts of (a place) ▪ He traveled (all) around [=(chiefly Brit) round] the country. ▪ He's a well-known figure around the town. ▪ We drove all around the town looking for him. ▪ This is a very interesting town: let me show you around it. ▪ We took a tour around New England. ▪ You can find lots of good restaurants around here. ▪ I help her out sometimes around the house. d : on or to another side of (something) ▪ We were surprised by what we saw when we walked around the corner. ▪ There's another door around the back of the house.

2 a : in the area near to (something or someone) ▪ Fish are abundant around [=about, near] the reefs. ▪ I'm not sure where it is, but it must be somewhere around here. = It must be around here somewhere. ▪ I feel happier when I'm around her. ▪ It happened in Naples—or (somewhere) around there. ▪ I can tell from/by your accent that you're not from around here. ▪ It's safer when there are other people around you. b : near or not far from (something) in time ▪ The company was founded (at) around [=about] the turn of the century. ▪ a night around [=about] midsummer

3 : so as to avoid or get past (something) ▪ She went around the puddle to avoid getting dirty. ▪ We found a way around their objections.

4 — used to indicate the central part or idea used for building or organizing something ▪ a society built/organized around kinship ties been around ✧ Something that has been around for a long time has existed or been available for a long time. ▪ I'm surprised you haven't read that book yet. It's been around [=been out] for ages! A person who has been around has had a lot of different experiences and knows a lot about the world. ▪ You're a man of the world: I can tell you've been around.

[3]around adj, not used before a noun : existing or active ▪ She is among the most creative of the artists around [=active, working] today.

up and around see [2]UP around–the–clock adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : happening or continuing all day and all night ▪ The prisoner requires around-the-clock [=round-the-clock, constant] surveillance. ▪ around-the-clock care arouse /əˈraʊz/ verb arouses; aroused; arous•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (an emotional or mental state) ▪ He tried to sneak past without arousing suspicion. [=without causing people to become suspicious] ▪ Their comments aroused our anger/curiosity. [=their comments made us angry/curious] ▪ The report aroused a great deal of public interest/debate. ▪ She aroused [=inspired] great loyalty in her friends and extreme hatred in her enemies.

2 : to excite (someone) sexually ▪ The husky sound of her voice could always arouse him.

3 a : to wake (someone) from sleep ▪ She was sleeping so soundly that we had difficulty arousing her. [=(more commonly) waking her up] ▪ I was aroused [=roused, awakened] from a deep sleep by a loud noise outside my window. b : to cause (someone) to become active, ready, or upset ▪ Their proposal is certain to arouse the opposition. ▪ They get aroused [=(more commonly) worked up] over the slightest offense.

– arous•al /əˈraʊzəl/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual arousal
– arousing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He found the idea very arousing. [=sexually exciting] ar•peg•gio /ɑəˈpɛʤijoʊ/ noun, pl -gios [count] music : a chord in which the notes are played separately instead of at the same time ▪ The guitarist warmed up with a few simple arpeggios.

arr. abbr 1 arranged by ▪ String Quartet No. 11 by Beethoven (arr. Mahler) 2 arrive, arrival ▪ flight 206 arr. New York 12:30 p.m. ar•raign /əˈreɪn/ verb -raigns; -raigned; -raign•ing [+ obj] law : to state the charges against someone who is accused of a crime in a formal procedure before a judge — usually used as (be) arraigned ▪ He was arraigned on charges of manslaughter.

– ar•raign•ment /əˈreɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] Her arraignment is scheduled for two weeks from today. [noncount] The defendant failed to appear for arraignment.

ar•range /əˈreɪnʤ/ verb -rang•es; -ranged; -rang•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to move and organize (things) into a particular order or position ▪ She arranged her pictures on her desk. ▪ He arranged some fresh fruit neatly on a plate. ▪ arranging flowers in a vase ▪ The books were arranged according to their subject. = The books were arranged by subject. ▪ We arranged and rearranged the order several times. b : to give a particular order or position to the parts of (something) ▪ They arranged [=organized] the room around a fireplace. ▪ She arranged her hair on top of her head.

2 : to organize the details of something before it happens : to plan (something) [+ obj] Don't worry: I'll arrange [=take care of, deal with] everything. ▪ All of the details have been arranged [=taken care of, dealt with] in advance. ▪ Please arrange a meeting with your partners. ▪ arrange a funeral ▪ I think we can arrange a deal. ▪ Let's arrange our schedules so that we can meet for lunch. ▪ They arranged their daughter's marriage when she was a child. [=they chose who she would marry] ▪ You'll need to arrange transportation from the airport. [no obj] — often + for ▪ You'll need to arrange for transportation from the airport. ▪ She arranged for a car to pick us up at our house. ▪ Can you arrange for us to meet your friend? — often followed by to + verb ▪ I can arrange to have the day off from work. ▪ They arranged to meet each other at the restaurant.

3 [+ obj] music : to change (a song, a musical, etc.) so that it can be performed by particular voices or instruments ▪ He arranged her last two albums.

arranged marriage noun, pl ~ -riages [count] : a marriage in which the husband and wife are chosen for each other by their parents

ar•range•ment /əˈreɪnʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : the way that things or people are organized for a particular purpose or activity : the way that things or people are arranged [noncount] They changed the arrangement of furniture in the room. ▪ the dictionary's alphabetical arrangement [=ordering] of words ▪ the collection and arrangement of data [count] a chronological arrangement of historical events ▪ We tried several different arrangements of the parts/components/elements. ▪ Having my brother and his wife living nearby was an ideal arrangement for our family. ▪ The family had very unusual living arrangements. ▪ "What were your sleeping arrangements?" "I slept on the bed while he slept on the floor." ▪ We'll have to change the seating arrangements for the dinner party.

2 : something that is done to prepare or plan for something in the future [count] — usually plural ▪ She has her secretary handle all of her travel arrangements. ▪ He helped his mother with his father's funeral arrangements. — often used with make ▪ The city made special arrangements [=preparations] for the Queen's visit. ▪ All of the arrangements have been made in advance. ▪ They made arrangements to meet each other at the restaurant. ▪ We provide breakfast and dinner, but you make your own arrangements for lunch. [non-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

count] Her job includes arrangement of her boss's travel plans.
3 [count] : a usually informal agreement ▪ There was an unusual political arrangement between the two countries. ▪ business/financial arrangements ▪ I'm sure we can come to some arrangement. — often + with ▪ Our band has an arrangement with the club's manager. ▪ The company made an arrangement with the college to supply all of its computers.
4 [count] : something made by putting things together and organizing them ▪ a flower/floral arrangement = an arrangement of flowers
5 [count] music : a piece of music that has been changed so that it can be performed by particular types of voices or instruments ▪ orchestral/vocal arrangements ▪ an arrangement for the guitar ▪ a rock arrangement of an old blues song

ar•rang•er /əˈreɪnʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who changes pieces of music for particular voices or instruments : a person who arranges music ▪ a talented composer and arranger
2 : a person who arranges things ▪ a flower arranger ▪ a funeral arranger ▪ an arranger [=(more commonly) organizer] of political rallies

ar•rant /ˈerənt/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] somewhat old-fashioned + literary : of the worst kind — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ This is arrant [=utter, complete] nonsense! ▪ an arrant fool

Do not confuse arrant with errant.

[1]ar•ray /əˈreɪ/ noun, pl -rays
1 [count] : a large group or number of things — usually singular ▪ They offer a wide/vast/bewildering array of products and services. ▪ The car is available in an array of colors. [=in many different colors] ▪ We encountered a whole array of problems. [=many problems]
2 [count] technical a : a group of numbers, symbols, etc., that are arranged in rows and columns b : a way of organizing pieces of information in the memory of a computer so that similar kinds of information are together
3 [count] technical : a group of devices that together form a unit ▪ an antenna array ▪ an array of solar panels
4 [noncount] formal + literary : rich or beautiful clothing ▪ She was dressed in grand/glorious array.

[2]array verb -rays; -rayed; -ray•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to place (a group of things) in a particular position so that they are in order or so that they look attractive — usually used as (be) arrayed ▪ The layers consist of bricks arrayed [=arranged] in regular patterns. ▪ The table was arrayed with all sorts of delicacies. [=there were all sorts of delicacies placed attractively on the table]
2 literary : to dress (someone, especially yourself) in fine clothing ▪ She arrayed herself in rich velvets and satins.
3 : to put (soldiers) in a place or position so that they are ready to attack ▪ They arrayed [=deployed] the troops along the hilltop. — usually used as (be) arrayed ▪ The troops were arrayed along the hilltop. ▪ The general surveyed the forces arrayed against him.

ar•rears /əˈriərz/ noun [plural]
1 : money that is owed and that has not been paid when it should be ▪ He's been trying pay off the arrears on his mortgage. ▪ alimony/rent arrears
2 — used to describe a situation in which someone has failed to make a regular payment at the required time ▪ He is two months in arrears [=behind] with his mortgage payments. ▪ The account is two months in arrears. [=overdue, delinquent] ▪ He has fallen into arrears on his mortgage payments.
3 — used to describe a situation in which someone is paid money that was earned at an earlier time ▪ You will be paid interest on your investment in arrears. ▪ construction workers paid in arrears for their work

[1]ar•rest /əˈrɛst/ verb -rests; -rest•ed; -rest•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use the power of the law to take and keep (someone, such as a criminal) ▪ The police arrested him on drug charges. ▪ The police officer said, "I'm arresting you in the name of the law." — often used as (be) arrested ▪ He was arrested for assault. ▪ She threatened to have him arrested. ▪ He got arrested. ✧ A person who is arrested by the police is taken to a police station or jail and kept there.
2 formal : to stop the progress or movement of (something) ▪ The medics were unable to arrest [=stop] the bleeding. ▪ The drugs can't arrest the disease's progress, but they can slow it down considerably. ▪ arrested development
3 formal : to attract and hold the attention of (someone or something) ▪ colors that arrest [=catch] the eye ▪ My attention was arrested [=caught] by a sudden movement.
– arresting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an arresting [=eye-catching] painting/image ▪ his most arresting novel yet

[2]arrest noun, pl -rests
1 : the act of legally taking and keeping someone (such as a criminal) : the act of arresting someone [count] The police are investigating the case but they have not yet made any arrests. [noncount] She was charged with resisting arrest. ▪ He has accused the police of wrongful arrest. [=of arresting someone who should not have been arrested] ▪ The information has led to the arrest of three suspects. ▪ The police placed/put her under arrest. [=the police arrested her] — see also CITIZEN'S ARREST, FALSE ARREST, HOUSE ARREST
2 medical : an occurrence in which a part of the body suddenly stops working [noncount] The patient went into cardiac arrest. [=the patient's heart stopped beating] [count] The hospital reported an increase in respiratory arrests. [=instances in which patients stopped breathing]

ar•riv•al /əˈraɪvəl/ noun, pl -als
1 : the act of coming to or reaching a place : the act of arriving [noncount] They were awaiting the arrival of guests. ▪ We checked into the hotel upon (our) arrival. ▪ The flight's estimated time of arrival is 11:30. = The flight's estimated arrival time is 11:30. ▪ When is the mail scheduled for arrival? [count] They track the number of airport arrivals and departures.
2 [count] : someone or something that has come to a place : someone or something that has arrived ▪ They were late arrivals at the party. ▪ Have you had a look at the bookstore's new arrivals? [=the books that have recently come to the bookstore] ✧ The phrase new arrival is often used to refer to a baby that has recently been born. ▪ Everyone gathered at the hospital to see the family's new arrival.
3 [noncount] : the time when something begins or happens ▪ They are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their wedding day. ▪ the changes that occur with the arrival of spring ▪ the arrival of new technology

ar•rive /əˈraɪv/ verb -rives; -rived; -riv•ing [no obj]
1 : to come to or reach a place after traveling, being sent, etc. ▪ He arrived home at six o'clock. ▪ We had some dinner before/on/upon/after arriving at the station. ▪ When do you expect them to arrive in Boston? ▪ Their flight is due to arrive at 11:30. ▪ The train from New York is now arriving. ▪ They arrived late at the party. ▪ The mail hasn't arrived yet. ▪ The new version of the software has finally arrived in stores.
2 a of a day, season, time, etc. : to happen or begin ▪ The day of their wedding has almost arrived. [=come] ▪ The time has arrived [=come] to address the problem. ▪ There's always a lot to do when spring arrives. b of a baby : to be born ▪ When is their baby expected to arrive?
3 informal : to become successful — used with a form of have ▪ After years of climbing the corporate ladder, he felt he had finally arrived.
arrive at [phrasal verb] arrive at (something) : to make or reach (something, such as a decision) after a lot of thought or effort ▪ She finally arrived at a decision. ▪ They've arrived at the conclusion that the plan won't work. ▪ I hope we can arrive at some sort of understanding/consensus.

ar•ro•gance /ˈerəgəns/ noun : an insulting way of thinking or behaving that comes from believing that you are better, smarter, or more important than other people [noncount] Her arrogance has earned her a lot of enemies. ▪ We were shocked by the arrogance of his comments. [singular] They have an arrogance about them. [=there is something in their behavior that seems arrogant]

ar•ro•gant /ˈerəgənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the insulting attitude of people who believe that they are better, smarter, or more important than other people : having or showing arrogance ▪ an arrogant young attorney ▪ She's first in her class, but she's not arrogant about it. ▪ an arrogant remark/attitude – ar•ro•gant•ly adv ▪ She arrogantly dismissed their claims.

ar•ro•gate /ˈerəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal : to take or claim (something, such as a right or a privilege) in a way that is not fair or legal ▪ They've arrogated to themselves the power to change the rules arbitrarily. ▪ She arrogated the leadership role to herself.

ar•row /ˈeroʊ/ noun, pl -rows [count]
1 : a weapon that is made to be shot from a bow and that is usually a stick with a point at one end and feathers at the other end ▪ shoot an arrow

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 45 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

2 : a mark (such as →) that is shaped like an arrow and that is used to show direction ▪ The arrow on the map points north. — see also STRAIGHT ARROW ar•row•head /'erou,hɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a piece of stone or metal that forms the point of an arrow ar•row•root /'erou,ru:t/ noun [noncount] : a powdery substance that is made from the root of a tropical plant and that is used in cooking to make liquids thicker arse /'ɑəs/ noun, pl ars•es [count] Brit, informal + offensive : [2]ASS 1

arse•hole /'ɑəs,houl/ noun, pl -holes [count] Brit, informal + offensive : ASSHOLE

ar•se•nal /'ɑəsənəl/ noun, pl -nals [count]

1 a : a collection of weapons ▪ the nation's nuclear arsenal [=the nuclear weapons that the nation has] b : a place where weapons are made or stored ▪ The city is home to a federal arsenal.

2 : a group of things or people that are available to be used ▪ The computer comes equipped with an arsenal [=battery, array] of features. ▪ Doctors have a broad arsenal of medicines to choose from. ▪ the team's arsenal of veteran players

ar•se•nic /'ɑəsənɪk/ noun [noncount] : a poisonous chemical that is used especially to kill insects and weeds ar•son /'ɑəsn̩/ noun, pl -sons : the illegal burning of a building or other property : the crime of setting fire to something [noncount] The cause of the fire has not yet been determined, but investigators suspect arson. ▪ The town has suffered a rash of arson attacks. [count] The town has suffered a rash of arsons.

– ar•son•ist /'ɑəsnɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ Investigators suspect that the fire was set by an arsonist.

art /'ɑət/ noun, pl arts

1 [noncount] : something that is created with imagination and skill and that is beautiful or that expresses important ideas or feelings ▪ a piece of modern/contemporary art ▪ It's a remarkable picture, but is it art? — see also OP-ART, PERFORMANCE ART, POP ART, WORK OF ART

2 [noncount] : works created by artists : paintings, sculptures, etc., that are created to be beautiful or to express important ideas or feelings ▪ the art [=artwork] of Salvador Dalí ▪ The museum has a large collection of folk art. ▪ African/Japanese/Mayan art — often used before another noun ▪ art history ▪ art objects ▪ an art museum/gallery ▪ an art collector/lover ▪ She prefers art films to Hollywood blockbusters. — see also ARTS AND CRAFTS

3 [noncount] : the methods and skills used for painting, sculpting, drawing, etc. ▪ He studied art in college. — often used before another noun ▪ an art teacher/program

4 a [count] : an activity that is done to create something beautiful or to express important ideas or feelings ▪ She studied the art of drawing/painting/dance. ▪ dance, drama, and other art forms ▪ the performing/visual/graphic arts — see also FINE ART b *the arts : painting, sculpture, music, theater, literature, etc., considered as a group of activities done by people with skill and imagination ▪ She's a patron of the arts. ▪ He wants the government to increase its funding for the arts. — see also PERFORMING ARTS

5 [count] : a skill that someone learns through experience or study — usually singular ▪ He never learned the art of making friends. [=he never learned how to make friends] ▪ She's a master of the art of conversation. [=she is very good at conversation] ▪ There's an art to cooking that comes only with practice. ▪ Writing letters has become something of a lost art. [=not many people write letters any more] ✧ If you raise/elevate something to an art (form) you are known for doing something or having something (such as a personal quality). This phrase is often used in an ironic or joking way to describe qualities or abilities that are not admired. ▪ He seems to have elevated stupidity to an art form. [=he is very stupid]

6 [count] : an activity that requires special knowledge or skill ▪ Shipbuilding is both an art and a science. ▪ the art of navigation — see also MARTIAL ART

7 arts [plural] : areas of study (such as history, language, and literature) that are intended to develop the mind in a general way : LIBERAL ARTS ▪ a bachelor of arts ▪ the College of Arts and Sciences art de•co or Art Deco /,ɑət'dɛkou/ noun [noncount] : a style of art, design, and architecture that uses bold lines and simple shapes ✧ Art Deco was popular in the U.S. and Europe in the 1920s and 1930s. ▪ an Art Deco vase/building

artefact chiefly Brit spelling of ARTIFACT

ar•te•rio•scle•ro•sis /ɑə,tirijousklə'rousəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which the walls of arteries become thick and hard so that it is difficult for blood to flow through them

– ar•te•rio•scle•rot•ic /ɑə,tiərijousklə'rɑtɪk/ adj ▪ arteriosclerotic heart disease

ar•tery /'ɑətəri/ noun, pl -ter•ies [count]

1 : any one of the tubes that carry blood from the heart to all parts of the body ▪ coronary arteries ▪ clogged arteries — compare VEIN

2 : a large road, river, railroad line, etc. ▪ He favors local side roads over major arteries.

– ar•te•ri•al /ɑə'th irijəl/ adj ▪ arterial walls/pressure/blood ▪ arterial roads

ar•te•sian well /ɑə'ti:ʒən-/ noun, pl ~ wells [count] : a place in the ground where water flows up to the surface because of natural pressure art•ful /'ɑətfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : done with or showing artistic skill ▪ artful writing ▪ an artful performance/arrangement

2 : good at getting or achieving things in ways that are clever and not noticeable ▪ an artful negotiator : used to get or achieve things in ways that are clever and not noticeable ▪ artful questioning ✧ This sense of artful is sometimes used in a disapproving way, especially in British English. ▪ an artful [=crafty, sly] politician who seems to have deceived everyone ▪ artful deception — compare ARTLESS

– art•ful•ly /'ɑətfəli/ adv ▪ an artfully arranged display – art•ful•ness noun [noncount]

art house noun, pl ~ houses [count] : a movie theater that shows mostly foreign movies and movies that are made by small companies : a building where art films are shown — called also art theater

ar•thri•tis /ɑə'θraitəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that causes the joints of the body to become swollen and painful — see also RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS

– ar•thrit•ic /ɑə'θrɪtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ painful arthritic fingers/joints ▪ arthritic symptoms – arthritic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ medicines used for treating arthritics [=people who have arthritis]

ar•ti•choke /'ɑətə,ʧouk/ noun, pl -chokes [count] : a vegetable with thick, pointed leaves ✧ The artichoke consists of a soft middle part surrounded by small, thick leaves. The middle, known as the heart of the artichoke, and the bottom part of the leaves are eaten after being cooked. — see color picture on page C4; see also JERUSALEM ARTICHOKE

[1]ar•ti•cle /'ɑətɪkəl/ noun, pl -ti•cles [count]

1 : a piece of writing about a particular subject that is included in a magazine, newspaper, etc. ▪ a magazine/newspaper article ▪ I just read an interesting article on/about the city's early history. ▪ He has published numerous articles in scholarly journals. ▪ an encyclopedia article

2 : a particular kind of object ▪ an article [=piece] of clothing ▪ domestic/household articles ▪ articles [=pieces] of furniture — sometimes used figuratively ▪ For many people it is an article of faith [=something that is believed without being questioned or doubted] that the economy will begin to improve soon. ▪ A lot of people pretend to be cowboys, but he's the genuine article. [=he's a real cowboy]

3 : a separate part of a legal document that deals with a single subject ▪ Article 3 of the U.S. Constitution ▪ The company amended its articles of incorporation.

4 grammar : a word (such as a, an, or the) that is used with a noun to show whether or not the noun refers to a specific person or thing — see also DEFINITE ARTICLE, INDEFINITE ARTICLE

[2]article verb -ticles; -ti•cled; -ti•cling Brit : to work for a group of lawyers, architects, etc., while you are learning to become a lawyer, architect, etc. [no obj] He articled at the famous law firm many years ago. [+ obj] — usually used as (be) articled to ▪ She was articled to a firm of engineers.

– articled adj ▪ an articled clerk

[1]ar•tic•u•late /ɑə'tɪkjələt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : able to express ideas clearly and effectively in speech or writing ▪ She's an intelligent and articulate speaker. ▪ He was very articulate about his feelings on the subject. — opposite INARTICULATE

2 : clearly expressed and easily understood ▪ an articulate argument/essay/speech ▪ The baby is beginning to form articulate words and phrases. — opposite INARTICULATE

– ar•tic•u•late•ly adv ▪ She spoke clearly and articulately. – ar•tic•u•late•ness noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

[2]ar•tic•u•late /ɑəˈtɪkjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to express (something, such as an idea) in words ▪ He had some trouble articulating his thoughts. ▪ We disagree with the views articulated by the administration. ▪ a theory first articulated by ancient philosophers
2 : to say or pronounce (something, such as a word) in a way that can be clearly heard and understood [+ obj] She spoke slowly, articulating [=enunciating] each syllable. [no obj] Try to articulate [=enunciate] when delivering your speech.
3 [no obj] technical : to connect with a joint or something that is like a joint ▪ the bones that articulate with the clavicle

ar•tic•u•lat•ed /ɑəˈtɪkjəˌleɪɹəd/ adj
1 : connected by a joint ▪ dolls with articulated limbs [=arms and legs that can be moved because they are connected by joints] ▪ dinosaurs with articulated skulls
2 of a vehicle : having a front section connected to a large back section by means of a hinge or a joint that allows sharp turns ▪ an articulated bus ▪ (Brit) articulated lorries

ar•tic•u•la•tion /ɑəˌtɪkjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] formal : the act of articulating something: such as a : the act of expressing an idea, thought, etc., in words ▪ The book is the articulation of his vision. b : the act of saying or pronouncing something in a way that can be clearly heard and understood ▪ the articulation of consonants
2 [count] medical : a joint that allows connected parts (such as bones) to move ▪ the articulations between vertebrae

ar•ti•fact (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit ar•te•fact /ˈɑətɪˌfækt/ noun, pl -facts [count]
1 : a simple object (such as a tool or weapon) that was made by people in the past ▪ The caves contained many prehistoric artifacts. ▪ an artifact from the Colonial period
2 : an accidental effect that causes incorrect results — usually + of ▪ The drop in scores was merely an artifact of the way the test was administered.

ar•ti•fice /ˈɑətəfəs/ noun, pl -fic•es : dishonest or insincere behavior or speech that is meant to deceive someone [noncount] He spoke without artifice or pretense. [count] political/legal artifices ▪ The whole story was just an artifice to win our sympathy.

ar•ti•fi•cial /ˌɑətəˈfɪʃl/ adj
1 : not natural or real : made, produced, or done to seem like something natural ▪ artificial lighting/plants ▪ the world's first artificial heart ▪ This product contains no artificial colors/flavors/sweeteners—only natural substances are used.
2 : not happening or existing naturally : created or caused by people ▪ artificial price inflation ▪ The country's borders are artificial, and were set with no consideration for the various ethnic groups in the region.
3 [more ~; most ~] : not sincere ▪ an artificial smile ▪ Her concern seemed a bit artificial. [=forced] – ar•ti•fi•ci•al•i•ty /ˌɑətəˌfɪʃiˈæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the artificiality of his manner/smile – ar•ti•fi•cial•ly adv ▪ artificially flavored/colored ▪ The building is artificially lit.

artificial insemination noun [noncount] medical : a medical process in which semen is used to make a woman or female animal pregnant without sexual intercourse ▪ children conceived through artificial insemination

artificial intelligence noun [noncount] computers
1 : an area of computer science that deals with giving machines the ability to seem like they have human intelligence
2 : the power of a machine to copy intelligent human behavior ▪ a robot with artificial intelligence — abbr. AI artificial respiration noun [noncount] medical : a process in which air is forced into and out of the lungs of a person who has stopped breathing ✧ Artificial respiration can be done by pressing on the person's chest, by blowing into the person's mouth, or by using a special machine. — see also MOUTH-TO-MOUTH RESUSCITATION

ar•til•lery /ɑəˈtɪləri/ noun [noncount]
1 : large guns that are used to shoot over a great distance ▪ The troops were being bombarded by artillery. — often used before another noun ▪ The troops were under heavy artillery fire. ▪ artillery shells — often used figuratively ▪ His first argument didn't work, so he brought out the heavy artillery. [=he started using a different and more powerful argument]
2 : the part of an army that uses large guns to shoot over a great distance ▪ a captain in the artillery — often used before another noun ▪ artillery units ar•ti•san /ˈɑətəzən, Brit ˌɑːtˈzæn/ noun, pl -sans [count] : a person who is skilled at making things by hand : CRAFTSPERSON ▪ They sell rugs made by local artisans.

art•ist /ˈɑəɹtɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person who creates art ▪ the great artists of the Renaissance ▪ a graphic artist : a person who is skilled at drawing, painting, etc. ▪ I can't draw at all, but both of my children are very talented artists. [=they draw very well]
2 : a skilled performer ▪ a jazz artist ▪ a trapeze artist ▪ famous recording artists [=singers and musicians who record their music]
3 : a person who is very good at something ▪ She's an artist in her field. [=she's very good at her job] ▪ a scam artist — see also RIP-OFF ARTIST ar•tiste /ɑəˈtiːst/ noun, pl -tists [count] chiefly Brit : a skilled performer : ARTIST

ar•tis•tic /ɑəˈtɪstɪk/ adj
1 : relating to art or artists ▪ her artistic achievements ▪ a work of artistic value ▪ He shows real artistic talent.
2 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the skill of an artist ▪ artistic creations ▪ She's an artistic person. [=a creative person] ▪ Both of my children are very artistic.
– ar•tis•ti•cal•ly /ɑəˈtɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ an artistically arranged bouquet ▪ He's not artistically inclined. [=he doesn't have artistic skill]

art•ist•ry /ˈɑətəstri/ noun [noncount]
1 : artistic ability or skill ▪ We admired the singer's artistry.
2 : a quality that results from artistic ability or skill ▪ the artistry of her novel art•less /ˈɑətləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not false or artificial : NATURAL ▪ the dancer's artless grace ▪ Her simple artless charm won us over instantly. — compare ARTFUL

– art•less•ly adv – art•less•ness noun [noncount]

art nou•veau or Art Nouveau /ˌɑətnuˈvoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a style of art, design, and architecture that uses curving lines and shapes that look like leaves and flowers ✧ Art Nouveau was popular in the U.S. and Europe in the late 1800s. ▪ an Art Nouveau lamp arts and crafts noun [plural] : objects that are meant to be both useful and beautiful ▪ a shop that sells local arts and crafts, such as pottery and baskets : the activity of making such objects ▪ demonstrations of various arts and crafts ▪ the Arts and Crafts Movement [=a time when many people were working together to make arts and crafts popular] in the second half of the 19th century art•sy /ˈɑətsi/ adj art•si•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal + usually disapproving : ARTY ▪ an artsy neighborhood ▪ Her boyfriend is the artsy type.

art theater noun, pl ~ -ter [count] : ART HOUSE

art•work /ˈɑətˌwɝk/ noun, pl -works
1 : a painting, sculpture, photograph, etc., that is created to be beautiful or to express an important idea or feeling : an artistic work [noncount] A local painter was selling her artwork on the street. ▪ The walls of the restaurant are decorated in original artwork. ▪ Some of the children's artwork was hanging on the refrigerator. [count] The museum recently recovered two stolen artworks. ▪ contemporary artworks
2 [noncount] : drawings, photographs, etc., that are included in books, magazines, and other printed materials

arty /ˈɑəti/ adj art•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] informal + usually disapproving : artistic in a way that seems insincere or too extreme ▪ some arty intellectual type who doesn't know the meaning of hard work ▪ a rock band with arty pretensions aru•gu•la /əˈruːgələ, Brit əˈruːgjələ/ noun [noncount] US : a plant with strongly flavored leaves that are eaten in salads — called also (Brit) rocket

[1]-ary noun suffix : thing or person belonging to or connected with ▪ mission*ary* ▪ revolution*ary*

[2]-ary adj suffix : of, relating to, or connected with ▪ diet*ary* ▪ legend*ary*

[1]as /ˈæz, əz/ adv
1 : to the same degree or amount ▪ He has a lot of time but I don't have as much. [=I have less time than he has] ▪ He has many books, but I have just as many. [=I have the same amount of books that he has] ▪ He was angry, but she was just as angry.
2 formal — used to introduce an example ▪ various trees, as [=such as] oaks and pines

[2]as conj
1 a — used to make comparisons ▪ The fabric was soft as silk. [=the softness of the fabric was like the softness of silk] — usually used in the phrase as . . . as ▪ The fabric was as soft as silk. ▪ He is every bit as clever as she (is). ▪ There are as many books here as (there are) there. ▪ That was as delicious a meal as your last one (was). = That was a meal as delicious as your last one (was). ▪ as hard as a rock [=very hard] ▪ as clear as crystal [=completely clear] ▪ as white as snow [=snow-white, pure white] ▪ He is as brave as he is loyal. ▪ Her second book is twice as long as her first one. ▪ He's not as old as he claims to be. — sometimes used in negative phrases with so ▪ He's not so old as he claims to be. b — used in the phrase as . . . as to say when something should be done, how often something should happen, etc. ▪ Come back as often as you like. ▪ If you're going to look for a new job, you should do it as soon/early/quickly as possible.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 71 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:51:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

2 a : in the way that ▪ The letter "k" is sometimes silent, as it is in "knee." ▪ In the word "macho" the "ch" should be pronounced as (it is) in "China," not as (it is) in "Chicago." ▪ Knowing him as I do [=because I know him well], I'm not surprised by his decision. ▪ Do (it) as I do. ▪ I'll do it as I planned (to). ▪ Sometimes a noun comes from a verb (as "publisher" comes from "publish") and sometimes a verb comes from a noun (as "edit" comes from "editor"). ▪ As it happens, I know his brother. [=I happen to know his brother] ▪ We planned a picnic but, as it happened, it rained that day. [=it happened to rain that day] ▪ We arrived late and, as it turned out, all the tickets were already sold. [=we learned that all the tickets were already sold when we arrived late] ▪ He seemed to be having a midlife crisis, as many men do. = As is the case with many men, he seemed to be having a midlife crisis. b — used to introduce a statement which indicates that something being mentioned was known, expected, etc. ▪ He won the election, as you know. = As you know, he won the election. ▪ As was only to be expected, the election was very close. ▪ He is a foreigner, as is evident from his accent. ▪ It rained that day, as often happens. ▪ Just as I suspected/thought! You've been drinking! c — used in phrases with same ▪ He works in the same building as my brother. [=he and my brother work in the same building] ▪ I've got shoes the same as his. = I've got the same type of shoes as he has. [=my shoes and his shoes are the same] ▪ He was fooled the same as I was. [=he and I were both fooled]

3 : while or when ▪ She spilled the milk just as she was getting up. ▪ I met him as I was leaving.

4 : regardless of the degree to which : THOUGH ▪ Unaccustomed as I am to public speaking [=although I am unaccustomed to public speaking], I'd like to say a few words now. ▪ Improbable as it seems, it's still true. = (chiefly US) As improbable as it seems, it's still true. [=although it seems improbable, it's still true] ▪ Much as I respect him [=although I respect him very much], I still have to disagree with him on this point. = (chiefly US) As much as I respect him, I still have to disagree with him on this point. ▪ Try as he might [=no matter how hard he tried], he couldn't do it.

5 formal : for the reason that : BECAUSE ▪ She stayed home as she had no car. ▪ As I'm a pacifist, I'm against all wars.

6 — used to indicate that one relationship is like another relationship ▪ A puppy is to a dog as a kitten is to a cat. ▪ Two is to four as eight is to sixteen.

7 — used with so or such to indicate the result or effect of something ▪ The evidence is such as to leave no doubt of his guilt. [=the evidence leaves no doubt of his guilt] ▪ He is so clearly guilty as to leave no doubt. — see also SO AS (below)

as against : in comparison to (something) ▪ The government's foreign policy is approved by 54 percent of men as against 48 percent of women.

as for : with regard to : CONCERNING ▪ He's here. As for the others, they'll arrive later. [=the others will arrive later] ▪ He was a nice enough person, but as for his suggestions, I found them unhelpful.

as from chiefly Brit — used to indicate the time or date when something begins ▪ The new law takes effect as from [=as of] July 1.

as if or as though 1 : the way it would be if ▪ The plane looked as if it was going to crash. ▪ He was as sad as if he had lost his last friend. ▪ The dog wagged its tail as if to say "Welcome back!" = The dog wagged its tail as if it was/were saying "Welcome back!" ▪ The day seemed as though it would never end. = It seemed as though the day would never end. 2 : as someone would do if ▪ He ran as if ghosts were chasing him. ▪ He had his hands together as though in prayer. 3 — used in spoken phrases to say that something is not true, will not happen, etc. ▪ "She's afraid you might try to take the job yourself." "As if I ever would!" [=I never would] ▪ "He'll never come back, you know!" "As if I cared!" [=I don't care] 4 ✧ The phrase as if is sometimes used informally as an interjection to say that something suggested or claimed is impossible or very unlikely. ▪ "He thinks you like him." "As if!" [=I don't like him at all; there is no chance that I would like him] as is chiefly US : in the present condition without any changes ▪ The car is being sold as is. ▪ She bought the clock at an auction as is.

as it is 1 : in the present condition ▪ Leave everything exactly/just as it is. [=how it is, the way it is] 2 : with the situation that exists now ▪ We have enough to do as it is [=already] without your latest orders!

as it were — used to say that a statement is true or accurate in a certain way even if it is not literally or completely true ▪ His retirement was, as it were [=so to speak], the beginning of his real career.

as of — used to indicate the time or date when something begins ▪ The new law takes effect as of July 1. ▪ As of July 1, prices will rise.

as to 1 : [2]ABOUT ▪ I'm at a loss as to how to explain the error. [=I don't know how to explain the error] ▪ There is disagreement as to the causes of the fire. ▪ I remained uncertain as to the value of his suggestions. 2 : ACCORDING TO, BY ▪ The eggs are graded as to size and color.

as was Brit, informal : FORMERLY, ORIGINALLY — used after a former name ▪ Myanmar—Burma as was [=Myanmar, which was formerly called Burma]

so as — used to indicate the purpose of something ▪ He defended himself so as [=in order] to prove his innocence. — see also [2]AS 7 (above)

[3]as prep

1 — used to indicate how a person or thing appears, is thought of, etc. ▪ They regarded/described the situation as (being) a disaster. ▪ Don't think of it as (being) a setback—think of it as (being) a challenge! ▪ Many people now regard him as a traitor.

2 — used to indicate the condition, role, job, etc., of someone or something ▪ Then she spoke as a child [=she was a child when she spoke then], but now she is speaking as an adult. ▪ He has a job as an editor. ▪ The policeman disguised himself as a beggar. ▪ Some people were surprised by his election as Governor. ▪ The critics praised his performance as Othello. ▪ I like her both as a poet and as a novelist. ▪ As a pacifist, I'm against all wars. ▪ Everyone rose as one. [=everyone rose together]

ASAP /ˌeɪˌɛsˌeɪˈpiː, ˈeɪˌsæp/ abbr as soon as possible — used in informal contexts in both spoken and written English ▪ We need you here ASAP. ▪ Write back ASAP.

as•bes•tos /æsˈbɛstəs/ noun [noncount] : a soft gray mineral that does not burn, that was used especially as a building material in the past, and that can cause serious diseases of the lungs when people breathe its dust

as•cend /əˈsɛnd/ verb -cends; -cend•ed; -cend•ing

1 formal : to go up : to rise or move toward the sky [no obj] They watched their balloons slowly ascend into the sky. ▪ Divers must not ascend too rapidly/quickly to the water's surface. ▪ She believed that when she died, her soul would ascend to heaven. [+ obj] Most people are able to ascend [=climb] the mountain in less than four hours. ▪ She said good night and ascended [=climbed] the stairs to her room. — opposite DESCEND

2 [no obj] : to slope or lead upward ▪ Several paths ascend to the top of the mountain. ▪ stairs ascending to the attic — opposite DESCEND

3 [no obj] : to rise to a higher or more powerful position in a government, company, etc. ▪ John Adams ascended to the presidency in 1797. ▪ She worked as a clerk before ascending to her current position. ▪ A new national government ascended [=rose] to power. [=it gained control of the country]

ascend (to) the throne : to become a king or queen ▪ He ascended the throne after the death of his father. ▪ In Shakespeare's play, Macbeth kills the king and ascends to the throne.

in ascending order ✧ If people or things are in ascending order, they are arranged in a series that begins with the least or smallest and ends with the greatest or largest. ▪ The children were lined up in ascending order of height. ▪ Test scores are listed in ascending order from lowest to highest.

as•cen•dance /əˈsɛndəns/ noun [noncount] chiefly US

1 : the act of rising or moving up : the act of ascending ▪ Abraham Lincoln's ascendance [=(more commonly) ascent, ascension] to the presidency ▪ her ascendance [=(more commonly) ascent] to/into heaven

2 : ASCENDANCY ▪ gain/lose ascendance

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 45 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

as•cen•dan•cy also as•cen•den•cy /əˈsɛndənsi/ noun [noncount] formal : a position of power in which someone can control or influence other people ▪ the ascendancy of the government ▪ She gained (the) ascendancy in the debate.

[1]as•cen•dant /əˈsɛndənt/ noun
in the ascendant formal : becoming more powerful : gaining more power ▪ The President's party is no longer in the ascendant.

[2]ascendant adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : becoming more popular or successful ▪ the actress' ascendant [=rising] career
2 : more powerful or important than any other ▪ the ascendant [=dominant] beliefs at that time

as•cen•sion /əˈsɛnʃən/ noun [singular]
1 : the act of rising or ascending ▪ the ascension [=(more commonly) ascent] of a balloon; especially : the act of moving to a higher or more powerful position ▪ The play tells of his ascension to the presidency. ▪ the ascension of women in society
2 the Ascension : the Christian holiday that celebrates Jesus Christ's journey to heaven after his death as•cent /əˈsɛnt/ noun, pl -cents [count]

1 : the act or process of ascending: such as a : the act or process of rising, moving, or climbing up — usually singular ▪ Fifty years ago, he made the first successful ascent of the mountain. [=he was the first person to climb the mountain] ▪ The climbers completed their ascent to the mountain on a rainy morning in April. ▪ The old elevator began its slow ascent to the top floor. ▪ The plane made a steep ascent to 30,000 feet. — opposite DESCENT b : the act or process of moving to a higher or more powerful position — usually singular ▪ the ascent and decline [=the rise and fall] of the world's great civilizations ▪ the new government's gradual/rapid ascent to power ▪ She began her ascent up the corporate ladder as a secretary. [=she started working as a secretary and gradually improved her career in business]
2 : a way of going up something : an upward slope, path, etc. ▪ They followed a steep ascent to the top of the hill.

as•cer•tain /ˌæsəˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj] formal : to learn or find out (something, such as information or the truth) ▪ They were unable to ascertain [=(more commonly) determine] the cause of the fire. ▪ The police are now attempting to ascertain his whereabouts. [=to find out where he is] ▪ Her doctors have been unable to ascertain [=find out] why she is ill. = Her doctors have been unable to ascertain the cause of her illness. ▪ The information can be ascertained by anyone with a computer.
– as•cer•tain•able /ˌæsəˈteɪnəbəl/ adj ▪ The cause of the fire was not readily/easily ascertainable.

as•cet•ic /əˈsɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to or having a strict and simple way of living that avoids physical pleasure ▪ an ascetic monk ▪ an ascetic scholar ▪ the ascetic [=severe, austere] life of monks ▪ an ascetic diet of rice and beans
– ascetic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ She left the comforts of home to live the life of an ascetic. – as•cet•i•cism /əˈsɛtəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious asceticism

ASCII /ˈæski/ noun [noncount] : a standard way of representing numbers and letters in a computer file so that they can be read by most computers ✧ The word ASCII comes from the initial letters of the words in the phrase American Standard Code for Information Interchange.

as•cot /ˈæˌskɑːt/ noun, pl -cots [count] chiefly US : a thin scarf worn by men that is folded into a loop under the chin

as•cribe /əˈskraɪb/ verb -cribes; -cribed; -crib•ing ascribe to [phrasal verb] ascribe (something) to (something or someone) formal : to say or think that (something) is caused by, comes from, or is associated with (something or someone) ▪ They ascribed [=attributed] his illness to chemicals in his brain. [=they said his illness was caused by chemicals in his brain] ▪ The author ascribes the economy's success to the current government. [=the author credits the current government with the economy's success] ▪ She ascribes [=assigns] no importance to having lots of money. [=she does not believe that having lots of money is important] ▪ These poems are usually ascribed to Homer. [=most people believe that these poems were written by Homer] ▪ qualities that are usually ascribed to men [=qualities that many people think are typical of men]

asep•tic /eɪˈsɛptɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] medical : free from germs that cause disease ▪ an aseptic wound

asex•u•al /eɪˈsɛkʃəwəl/ adj
1 : not having or including sex ▪ They had a completely asexual relationship.
2 technical : of or relating to a kind of reproduction that does not involve the combining of male and female cells ▪ asexual plants/organisms ▪ asexual reproduction
– asex•u•al•ly /eɪˈsɛkʃəwəli/ adv ▪ plants that reproduce asexually

[1]ash /ˈæʃ/ noun, pl ash•es
1 : the soft gray powder that remains after something (such as a cigarette or wood) has been completely burned and destroyed by fire [noncount] The town lay under a thick layer/blanket of ash. ▪ clouds of hot volcanic ash [count] The village was covered in ashes. ▪ cigarette ashes
2 ashes [plural] : the burned parts that remain when something is destroyed ▪ The city was reduced to ashes by the fire. = The city was burned to ashes. — often used figuratively ▪ Their happiness turned to ashes. [=their happiness was destroyed] ▪ The nation slowly rose from the ashes of war. = It slowly rose out of the ashes and began to rebuild itself. ▪ We sifted through the ashes of our ruined lives.
3 ashes [plural] : the remains of a dead human body after it has been burned or cremated ▪ the ashes of the dead ▪ She kept her dead mother's ashes in a jar above the fireplace. ▪ He asked to have his ashes scattered along the river.
sackcloth and ashes see SACKCLOTH
– compare [2]ASH

[2]ash noun, pl ashes
1 [count] : a type of tree that grows in northern parts of the world and that has thin gray bark and hard wood
2 [noncount] : the hard wood of an ash tree ▪ baseball bats made of ash
– compare [1]ASH

ashamed /əˈʃeɪmd/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling shame or guilt ▪ She was ashamed that she hit her brother. = She felt ashamed for/about hitting her brother. ▪ You ought to be ashamed! — often + of ▪ You ought to be ashamed of yourself! ▪ He was deeply ashamed of his behavior at the company party. ▪ I'm not ashamed of what I did. There's nothing to be ashamed of. ▪ I can't believe that you behaved so rudely. I'm ashamed of you!
2 : not wanting to do something because of shame or embarrassment ▪ I can't believe that you behaved so rudely. I'm ashamed to be seen with you! ▪ We were too ashamed to go back to school. [=we didn't go back to school because we were too embarrassed] ▪ I'm ashamed [=embarrassed] to admit it, but I still don't know how to ride a bicycle. = I'm ashamed to say I still don't know how to ride a bicycle.

ash–blond or ash–blonde /ˈæʃˈblɑːnd/ adj : pale blond or grayish blond ▪ ash-blond hair

ash can noun, pl ~ cans [count] US, old-fashioned : GARBAGE CAN ash•en /ˈæʃən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a pale light gray color because of sickness, fear, etc. ▪ His skin became ashen. ▪ She was ashen with fear.

ashore /əˈʃoɚ/ adv : on or to the shore of an ocean, sea, lake, or river ▪ We docked our boat and went ashore to visit the island. ▪ the seashells that wash ashore after a storm

ash•ram /ˈɑːʃrəm/ noun, pl -rams [count] : a place where a person or a group of people go to live separately from the rest of society and practice the Hindu religion

ash•tray /ˈæʃˌtreɪ/ noun, pl -trays [count] : a small dish or other small container that is used for throwing away used cigarettes and cigars and their ashes

Ash Wednesday noun [noncount] : the first day of the Christian holy period of Lent

[1]Asian /ˈeɪʒən/ noun, pl Asians [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Asia : a person whose family is from Asia ▪ There are many Asians living in South America.

> usage In U.S. English, Asian refers usually to a person from the countries of eastern Asia, such as China, Korea, and Japan. In British English, Asian often refers to a person from the countries of western Asia, such as India and Pakistan.

[2]Asian adj : of or relating to Asia or its people ▪ Asian cities/populations/immigrants ▪ Asian culture/philosophy/cooking

Asian–Amer•i•can /ˈeɪʒənəˈmerəkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : an American who was born in Asia or whose family is from Asia – Asian–American adj ▪ Most of the people who live in this neighborhood are Asian-American.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

Asi•at•ic /ˌeɪʒiˈætɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to Asia ▪ Asiatic plants and animals ▪ Asiatic countries ▪ the Asiatic fleet of the U.S. Navy [=the ships of the U.S. Navy that are in Asia] ✧ Asiatic should not be used to describe people.

[1]aside /əˈsaɪd/ adv

1 : to or toward the side ▪ He stepped aside and let her pass. ▪ She drew aside the curtains. = She drew the curtains aside. ▪ He threw/tossed his coat aside. ▪ Please stand aside. ▪ She laid/set the book aside. ▪ He elbowed people aside as he moved through the crowd. ▪ He took/drew her aside to speak to her privately. ▪ Someone grabbed him and pulled/pushed him aside. — often used figuratively ▪ Their objections were swept/brushed aside. [=were quickly dismissed or disregarded] ▪ The old methods have been cast/thrown aside [=have been abandoned] in favor of new ones. ▪ Leaving/Putting aside the question of money for the moment, we need to come up with a workable schedule.

2 — used with put or set to describe something that is being kept or saved for a future use ▪ She's been setting/putting money aside [=has been saving money] for school. ▪ The government has set aside a thousand acres for use as a park.

3 — used to say that something is not included in a statement that follows ▪ Dangerous appearances aside, these animals are really very gentle and friendly. [=these animals are friendly despite their dangerous appearances] ▪ Such minor problems aside [=except for such minor problems], the movie is a very entertaining thriller.

aside from chiefly US 1 : not including (something) : with the exception of (something) ▪ Aside from [=apart from, except for] a few pieces of bread, the food is gone. ▪ The movie has been praised by most people, aside from a few critics who have called its happy ending trite and predictable. 2 : in addition to (something) : BESIDES ▪ Aside from being well written, the book is also beautifully illustrated

[2]aside noun, pl asides [count]

1 : a comment spoken by a character in a play that is heard by the audience but is supposedly not heard by other characters on stage

2 : a comment that is spoken quietly to someone so that it cannot be heard by other people who are present ▪ She made a joke about the food in a muttered/whispered aside to her husband.

3 : a comment or discussion that does not relate directly to the main subject being discussed ▪ The book includes several lengthy asides about the personal lives of scientists involved in the project. ▪ In his speech he mentioned her contributions almost as an aside, despite the fact that she was the one who came up with the idea originally.

as•i•nine /ˈæsəˌnaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very stupid and silly ▪ That is the most asinine [=foolish, ridiculous] joke I've ever heard. ▪ a completely asinine question

ask /ˈæsk, Brit ˈɑːsk/ verb asks; asked; ask•ing

1 : to say or write something to someone as a way of gaining information : to request an answer to a question [+ obj] I need to ask a question. ▪ I need to ask you a question. = (less commonly) I need to ask a question of you. ▪ Are there any questions you would like to ask (me)? ▪ Did you ask her yet? ▪ "Have you seen the movie yet?" he asked. ▪ a list of frequently asked questions — often + about ▪ We always ask him about his mother. — often + if or whether ▪ He asked (them) if they had seen the movie. ▪ She asked (me) if I was worried. ▪ They were asked whether they would like to buy the car. — often + why, what, etc. ▪ You should ask (him) why he didn't come. ▪ He always asks (her) what she thinks. ▪ May I ask what time it is? ▪ It's not polite to ask how much a person weighs. [no obj] "If you don't mind me/my asking, how old are you?" "I'm 35 years old. Why do you ask?" ▪ Please don't ask again. ▪ "Do they have any soda?" "I don't know. I'll go ask." — often + about ▪ I asked about her plans for the future. ▪ The police were here asking about you.

2 : to tell someone in the form of a question that you want to be given something or that you want something to happen : to request something [no obj] If you want something to drink, just ask. [=just tell me that you want something to drink] ▪ I would have given it to him, but he never asked. — often + for ▪ Let's stop and ask for directions. ▪ I'll have to ask for permission to leave. ▪ She asked for their forgiveness/help. ▪ She ate all of her food and asked for more. ▪ His lawyers are asking for the case to be dismissed. [+ obj] We had to stop and ask directions. ▪ May I ask the time? ▪ Did you ask permission to leave? ▪ She asked their forgiveness. — often + for ▪ We had to ask someone for directions. ▪ I asked her for permission. ▪ She asked them for their forgiveness. — often + if or whether ▪ He asked if he could use my telephone. ▪ They asked us whether we might stay an extra day. — often + that ▪ She asked that I not say anything about it. ▪ His lawyers are asking that the case be dismissed. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She asked (for permission) to borrow her father's car for the day. ▪ I asked (for permission) to leave work early. ▪ You should ask your teacher to help you. ▪ Unhappy with the service, he asked to see the manager. ▪ He asked me to marry him. ▪ I'm sorry, but I need to ask you to leave. ▪ She asked me not to say anything about it to anyone. ▪ I wanted to say something about it, but she asked me not to.

3 [+ obj] : to invite (someone) to go somewhere or do something ▪ He's asking just a few friends to the party. ▪ I asked him to lunch. ▪ They asked me over for dinner. ✧ To ask someone out is to ask someone to go on a date with you. ▪ I asked her out (on a date), but she turned me down.

4 [+ obj] a : to believe that you should receive (something) from someone ▪ She doesn't ask [=expect, require] a lot. She asks very little in return for her hard work. — often + of ▪ The school asks much of its students. [=the school expects its students to do a lot] ▪ He says that people ask too little of their politicians. ▪ He was ready to go to war, should the government ask it of him. [=should the government ask him to go to war] b : to set (a specific amount of money) as a price ▪ The dealer originally asked [=wanted] $20,000 for the car, but he sold it to me for $18,000. ▪ They're asking [=charging] $100 or more per concert ticket. — see also ASKING PRICE

ask after [phrasal verb] ask after (someone or something) : to ask about (someone or something) ▪ He asked after my wife's health. ▪ He greeted us warmly and asked after our families. [=he asked how our families were] ask around [phrasal verb] : to ask many people to tell you information about someone or something ▪ Maybe you should ask around to find out more about this guy. ▪ We usually ask around before trying a new restaurant.

ask for [phrasal verb] 1 *ask for (someone) : to request to see or talk to (someone) ▪ Unhappy with the service, he asked for the store manager. ▪ There's someone on the phone asking for you. 2 *ask for it informal : to behave in a way that makes someone want to hurt or punish you ▪ You're asking for it, kid! If you keep misbehaving, you're going to get punished. ▪ All right. You asked for it! 3 *ask for trouble informal : to behave in a way that is likely to result in trouble ▪ If you invest your money without doing careful research, you're just asking for trouble. — see also ask for the moon at [1]MOON

ask yourself ✧ To ask yourself something is to think about the true answer to a question. ▪ Ask yourself what you would do in that situation. ▪ Before buying an expensive item, he needs to ask himself if/whether he can afford it.

don't ask informal — used to say that something is too strange, embarrassing, or complicated to explain ▪ "She married and divorced a man in the same day? How is that possible?" "Don't ask."

don't ask me informal — used to say that you do not know the answer to a question ▪ "Why are they having a company meeting?" "Don't ask me. I only work here." ▪ Don't ask me why they're changing the system. I think it's fine the way it is.

for the asking ✧ If something is yours for the asking, you can have it if you want it or ask for it. ▪ This job is hers for the asking. [=she can have the job if she wants it] ▪ Our services are available/free for the asking. [=our services are available/free for anyone who wants them]

I ask you ✧ People use the phrase I ask you before or after a question when they want someone to agree or sympathize with them. ▪ (Now) I ask you, is that fair? [=I don't think it's fair; do you?] ▪ Look at that hat! Who would wear such a thing, I ask you?

if you ask me informal : in my opinion ▪ She looks ridiculous in that hat, if you ask me.

who asked you? informal + impolite — used as a response when someone gives an opinion that is not wanted ▪ "I think you should break up with that guy." "Who asked you?" [=mind your own business; I don't want to hear your opinion]

askance /əˈskæns/ adv : in a way that shows a lack of trust or approval ▪ Most scientists looked askance at the new discovery. [=most scientists were doubtful about the new discovery] ▪ Several people looked at him askance when he walked into the room. = Several people eyed him askance when he walked into the room.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

askew /əˈskju:/ adv [more ~; most ~] : not straight : at an angle ▪ The picture hung askew [=crookedly] on the wall.
– askew adj, not used before a noun ▪ His tie is slightly askew [=crooked] in this picture.

asking price noun [singular] : the price that is asked for by a person who is selling something ▪ The original asking price for/of the car was $20,000, but I was eventually able to buy it for $18,000. — compare SELLING PRICE asleep /əˈsli:p/ adj, not used before a noun

1 : in a state of sleep : sleeping ▪ "Are you asleep?" "No, I'm awake." ▪ He tries to clean up the house while the kids are asleep. ▪ The cats are asleep on the floor. ▪ She was still asleep at noon. ✧ When people are fast asleep or sound asleep, they are sleeping very deeply. ▪ It was late at night and everyone was fast asleep. ▪ One moment she was sound asleep, the next she was wide awake! ✧ If you are half asleep, you are very tired and not completely awake. ▪ We were still half asleep when we went to school the next morning.
2 : lacking any feeling ✧ If a part of your body (such as a foot or leg) is asleep, it is not able to feel anything for a brief time, usually because you have kept it in an awkward position for too long. ▪ My foot's asleep.
fall asleep : to begin sleeping ▪ She fell asleep during the movie. ▪ I woke up and I couldn't fall back asleep. [=I couldn't go to sleep again]

asp /ˈæsp/ noun, pl asps [count] : a small poisonous snake from Egypt

as•par•a•gus /əˈsperəgəs/ noun [noncount] : a plant with long green stems and tiny leaves at one end that is cooked and eaten as a vegetable — see color picture on page C4

as•pect /ˈæˌspɛkt/ noun, pl -pects
1 [count] : a part of something ▪ Our proposal differs from theirs in one important aspect. [=respect] — usually + of ▪ Their religion affects almost/nearly/virtually every aspect [=facet] of their lives. ▪ Eating healthy foods is only/just one aspect [=part] of a healthy lifestyle. ▪ Nobody has discussed the most important aspect of the problem. ▪ Computers now influence all aspects of American life.
2 formal : the way a person, place, or thing appears [singular] The old house took on a dark and lonely aspect [=appearance] at night. [noncount] Their gods are primarily human in aspect. [=they look like humans]
3 [singular] formal : the direction that something (such as a room or building) faces or points towards ▪ The house has a southern aspect. [=a southern exposure; the front of the house faces the south] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We studied the situation from every aspect. [=angle]
4 grammar : the characteristic of a verb that expresses the way an action happens ✧ A verb's aspect shows whether an action happens one time and stops quickly, happens repeatedly, or happens continuously. [count] The aspect of "sit" in "please sit down now" is different from the aspect of "sitting" in "I was sitting at my desk." [noncount] two verb forms differing in aspect aspect ratio noun, pl ~ ratios [count] technical : a number that compares the width and height of a movie or television picture as•pen /ˈæspən/ noun, pl -pens [count] : a kind of tree whose leaves move easily when the wind blows

as•per•i•ty /əˈsperəti/ noun [noncount] formal : harshness of behavior or speech that expresses bitterness or anger ▪ He spoke about his ex-wife with asperity. [=acrimony]

as•per•sions /əˈspəʒənz/ noun
cast aspersions formal : to say critical things about (someone or someone's character) : to criticize (someone) harshly or unfairly ▪ He tried to discuss his political opponents respectfully, without casting aspersions. — usually + on ▪ He tried to avoid casting aspersions on (the motives/integrity of) his political opponents.

as•phalt /ˈæsˌfɑ:lt/ noun [noncount] : a black substance that is used for making roads as•phyx•ia /æsˈfɪksijə/ noun [noncount] medical : the state of not being able to breathe ▪ The cause of death was asphyxia.

as•phyx•i•ate /æsˈfɪksiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to stop breathing and often to become unconscious and die ▪ The murder victim was asphyxiated.
– as•phyx•i•a•tion /æsˌfɪksiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The murder victim died of asphyxiation.

as•pic /ˈæspɪk/ noun [noncount] : a clear jelly that is usually served with cold meat or fish ▪ a serving of chicken in aspic

as•pi•rant /ˈæspərənt/ noun, pl -rants [count] formal : a person who tries to become something : a person who aspires to do or to be something ▪ a presidential aspirant = an aspirant to the presidency [=someone who wants to become president]

[1]as•pi•rate /ˈæspəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj]
1 linguistics : to pronounce (a letter or word) with the sound of a breath or the letter "h" ▪ The letter "h" in "house" is aspirated, but the "h" in "hour" is not.
2 medical : to remove (liquid) from a person's body ▪ The doctor aspirated fluid from the cyst. = The doctor aspirated the cyst.
3 medical : to breathe (liquid, food, etc.) into your lungs ▪ She began coughing when she aspirated some orange juice.

[2]as•pi•rate /ˈæspərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] linguistics : the sound of the letter "h" ▪ The word "hour" is not pronounced with an aspirate.

as•pi•ra•tion /ˌæspəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : something that a person wants very much to achieve ▪ I've never had any aspiration to become famous. [=I've never wanted to become famous] — usually plural ▪ What are your aspirations for the future? [=what do you want to accomplish in the future?] ▪ the different aspirations of the group's members ▪ She has political aspirations. [=she wants/aspires to be a politician] ▪ romantic/social/literary aspirations
2 [noncount] : the act of aspirating something: such as a linguistics : the act of pronouncing the sound of a breath or the letter "h" ▪ the aspiration of the letter "h" in "a house" b medical : the act of removing liquid from a person's body ▪ the aspiration of stomach fluids c medical : the act of breathing something into the lungs ▪ problems caused by the aspiration of fluids into the patient's lungs
– as•pi•ra•tion•al /ˌæspəˈreɪʃənəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit ▪ aspirational [=ambitious] people ▪ aspirational brands/products [=brands/products that appeal to people who want to raise their social status] – as•pi•ra•tion•al•ly adv

as•pire /əˈspajə/ verb -pires; -pired; -pir•ing [no obj] : to want to have or achieve something (such as a particular career or level of success) — often + to ▪ Both young men aspire to careers in medicine. [=both young men want to have careers in medicine] ▪ She aspires to a more active role in her government. ▪ people who aspire to home ownership [=people who want to own their own homes] — often followed by to + verb ▪ He says he never aspired to become famous. ▪ little girls who aspire to play professional basketball – aspiring adj ▪ an aspiring actor [=a person who wants to be an actor] ▪ an aspiring young writer

as•pi•rin /ˈæspərən/ noun, pl aspirin or as•pi•rins : a medicine that reduces pain and fever [noncount] Aspirin is effective in controlling headaches. ▪ an aspirin pill [count] I had a headache so I took a couple of aspirins/aspirin. [=a couple of aspirin pills]

[1]ass /ˈæs/ noun, pl ass•es [count]
1 old-fashioned : a donkey
2 informal + impolite : a foolish, stupid, or stubborn person ▪ You can be such an ass sometimes! ▪ They act like a couple of pompous/pretentious asses. ▪ I made an ass of myself at the party. [=I behaved very foolishly at the party]
– compare [2]ASS

[2]ass noun, pl asses
1[count] chiefly US, informal + impolite a : the part of the body above the legs that is used for sitting : BUTTOCKS ▪ She slipped and fell flat on her ass. [=(Brit) arse] b — used in various phrases ▪ I've got to thank the soldiers who protected my ass [=protected my life/hide/skin] during the war. ▪ She saved your ass. [=she saved you] ▪ I wish he'd admit to his mistakes instead of always trying to cover his ass. [=to keep from being blamed or punished] ▪ Get your ass back here! [=come back here] ▪ We don't have much time so you'd better move your ass! = You'd better get your ass in gear! [=you'd better start going/moving faster] ▪ "Are you sure you're going to win?" "You (can) bet your ass [=you can be very certain] I'm going to win!" ▪ This comedian will make you laugh your asses off. [=will make you laugh very hard] ▪ I work my ass off everyday to try to make ends meet. ▪ Work, my ass! [=what nonsense] You just sit in front of the TV all day. ▪ You've been (sitting) on your ass in front of the TV all day. ▪ It's time (for you) to get off your ass and do some work! ▪ She's always on my ass about getting a better job.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

[=she's always telling me that I should get a better job] ▪ That gray truck has been on our ass [=has been following us very/too closely] for the last mile. ▪ Why can't you get off his ass?! [=stop criticizing him] He's doing the best he can! — see also haul ass at ¹HAUL, kick someone's ass at ¹KICK, kiss (my/someone's) ass at ¹KISS

2 [noncount] US, offensive a : sexual intercourse ▪ looking to get some ass b — used in the phrase piece of ass to refer to a person (especially a woman) in a sexual way ▪ He described her as "a nice piece of ass." ✧ These uses of ass are very offensive and should be avoided.

– compare ¹ASS

as•sail /əˈseɪl/ verb -sails; -sailed; -sail•ing [+ obj] : to attack or criticize (someone or something) in a violent or angry way ▪ The movie was assailed by critics. ▪ politicians assailed by the media — often used figuratively ▪ A horrible odor assailed our noses. [=we smelled a horrible odor] ▪ We were assailed by doubts [=we were very doubtful] about the decision we'd made. ▪ assailed by fears as•sail•ant /əˈseɪlənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] formal : a person who attacks someone violently ▪ She said that her assailant [=the person who attacked her] was wearing a mask.

as•sas•sin /əˈsæsn̩/ noun, pl -sins [count] : a person who kills someone (such as a famous or important person) usually for political reasons or for money : a person who assassinates someone ▪ He's a hired assassin. [=someone hired to kill someone] ▪ the President's would-be assassin [=the person who tried to kill the President] ▪ John Wilkes Booth was the assassin of Abraham Lincoln.

as•sas•si•nate /əˈsæsəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] : to kill (someone, such as a famous or important person) usually for political reasons ▪ They discovered a secret plot/plan to assassinate the governor. ▪ President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in 1963.

– as•sas•si•na•tion /əˌsæsəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] an attempted assassination of the President [noncount] a leader whose life was tragically cut short by assassination

¹as•sault /əˈsɑːlt/ noun, pl -saults

1 a [noncount] law : the crime of trying or threatening to hurt someone physically ▪ He was accused of assault. = He was charged with assault. = Assault charges were brought against him. ▪ She was wanted (by the police) for assault with a deadly weapon. ▪ He was found guilty of sexual assault. [=the crime of touching someone in an unwanted sexual way] — see also INDECENT ASSAULT b [count] : a violent physical attack ▪ She was injured in a brutal assault.

2 [count] : a military attack ▪ They launched several air assaults [=attacks using airplanes] against the enemy. ▪ They got ready for an enemy assault. [=an attack by the enemy] — often + on ▪ The enemy has launched an assault on the city. — often used figuratively ▪ They saw the change as an assault on the values of their society. ▪ They launched a fierce legal assault against the company. ▪ The government is attempting an all-out/full-scale assault on the use of drugs.

under assault : being attacked or criticized ▪ The city is under assault from enemy troops. ▪ He came under assault for his unusual beliefs. [=he was severely criticized for his unusual beliefs] ▪ Their personal freedoms are (coming) under assault by the government.

²assault verb -saults; -sault•ed; -sault•ing [+ obj] : to violently attack (someone or something) ▪ He was arrested for assaulting a police officer. ▪ She verbally assaulted one of her coworkers. ▪ He had been sexually assaulted [=touched or hurt in a sexual way] as a young boy. ▪ Enemy forces assaulted the city. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ A terrible noise assaulted our senses. [=we heard a terrible noise] assault and battery noun [noncount] law : the crime of threatening and physically hitting or attacking someone assault course noun, pl ~ courses [count] Brit : OBSTACLE COURSE assault ri e noun, pl ~ ri es [count] : a gun that can shoot many bullets quickly and that is designed for use by the military — called also assault weapon; see picture at GUN as•say /æˈseɪ/ verb -says; -sayed; -say•ing [+ obj] technical : to test something (such as a metal or drug) to find out what it contains ▪ They assayed the gold to determine its purity.

– as•say /ˈæˌseɪ/ noun, pl -says [count] ▪ a gold assay

as•sem•blage /əˈsɛmblɪʤ/ noun, pl -blag•es [count] formal : a group of people or things ▪ an assemblage [=group] of parents and teachers ▪ an assemblage [=set] of tools

as•sem•ble /əˈsɛmbəl/ verb -sem•bles; -sem•bled; -sem•bling

1 [+ obj] : to collect (things) or gather (people) into one place or group ▪ We'll need to assemble a list of songs for the concert. ▪ She assembled all of her old photos into three albums. ▪ Hundreds of notes and letters were assembled into a book. ▪ A team of scientists was assembled to study the problem.

2 [no obj] : to meet together in one place ▪ The U.S. Constitution gives people the right to assemble peacefully. ▪ A crowd had assembled in front of the courthouse during the trial. ▪ After dinner, the men would assemble in the living room to watch the game on TV. ▪ The club assembles once a month to discuss upcoming activities.

3 [+ obj] : to connect or put together the parts of (something, such as a toy or machine) ▪ Their father helped them assemble their new bicycles in the garage. ▪ The cars are assembled on an assembly line.

as•sem•bly /əˈsɛmbli/ noun, pl -blies

1 [noncount] : the act of connecting together the parts of something (such as a machine) : the act of assembling something ▪ The parts are made in this factory and then shipped to another country for assembly. ▪ No assembly required. [=this product is already put together]

2 [count] : a group of people who make and change laws for a government or organization ▪ the organization's general assembly ▪ elected legislative assemblies ▪ the New York State Assembly ▪ the French National Assembly

3 [count] a : a group of people who have gathered together ▪ an assembly of armed men b : a meeting of all the teachers and students of a school ▪ School assemblies were usually held in the cafeteria.

4 [noncount] : the act of gathering together to talk about issues ▪ Freedom of speech and freedom of assembly are protected by the U.S. Constitution.

assembly line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : PRODUCTION LINE as•sem•bly•man /əˈsɛmblimən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who is a member of a legislative assembly as•sem•bly•wo•man /əˈsɛmbliˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wo•men /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is a member of a legislative assembly as•sent /əˈsɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing [no obj] formal : to agree to or approve of something (such as an idea or suggestion) especially after carefully thinking about it ▪ The general proposed a detailed plan and the President assented. — often + to ▪ She refused to assent to [=agree to] the new rules.

– assent noun [noncount] ▪ A contract requires the assent [=agreement, approval] of both parties. ▪ The leaders gave their assent [=approval] to the peace proposal.

as•sert /əˈsɝt/ verb -serts; -sert•ed; -sert•ing [+ obj]

1 : to state (something) in a strong and definite way ▪ "Poverty is the city's most serious problem," the authors assert. = The authors assert that poverty is the city's most serious problem. ▪ He asserted that there were spies in the government. ▪ Despite the evidence against him, he has continued to assert his innocence. [=has continued to say that he is innocent]

2 : to demand that other people accept or respect (something) ▪ She asserted her independence from her parents by getting her own apartment. ▪ The boss was reluctant to assert his authority over his employees.

assert yourself 1 of a person : to speak or act in a strong and definite way ▪ If you want people to listen to your opinions, you'll need to learn how to assert yourself. ▪ The coach wants the players to assert themselves [=play more aggressively] on the field. 2 of a thing : to become apparent : to start to be clearly seen or known ▪ Doubts about the value of the work began to assert themselves.

– as•ser•tion /əˈsɝʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] I don't always agree with his assertions [=his strong statements] about politics. ▪ an assertion of innocence [noncount] Getting her own apartment was the first step in the assertion of her independence.

synonyms ASSERT, DECLARE, AFFIRM, and AVOW mean to say something in a way that shows you feel strongly about it, usually when you expect someone to disagree or challenge you. ASSERT suggests that you are confident about what you are saying and that you do not need proof or evidence. ▪ The group asserts that the smoking ban will negatively affect restaurant and bar owners. DECLARE is used when you are saying something in a public or open way. ▪ She has declared her support for the candidate. AFFIRM is a formal word which suggests that you believe something because of evidence, experience, or faith. ▪ He again affirmed his belief in the existence of an afterlife. AVOW is also formal and emphasizes that you are being honest or sincere. ▪ Both avowed that they had nothing to do with the crime.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

as•sert•ive /əˈsərtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : confident in behavior or style ▪ an assertive attitude ▪ Their daughter is an assertive little girl. ▪ The country has adopted a more assertive [=aggressive] foreign policy. ▪ If you want people to listen to your opinions, you'll need to learn to be more assertive. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sauce with an assertive flavor [=a strong flavor] — see also SELF-ASSERTIVE

– as•sert•ive•ly adv ▪ He walked assertively [=confidently] onto the stage. – as•sert•ive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the country's new assertiveness [=aggressiveness] in foreign policy ▪ She is getting/undergoing assertiveness training. [=training that teaches people to act more confidently]

as•sess /əˈsɛs/ verb -sess•es; -sessed; -sess•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make a judgment about (something) ▪ The school will assess [=evaluate] the students' progress each year. ▪ After the hurricane, officials assessed the town's need for aid. ▪ assess a problem ▪ We need to assess whether or not the system is working. ▪ assess the situation/danger/impact/severity
2 : to officially say what the amount, value, or rate of (something) is ▪ Damage to the boat was assessed at $5,000. ▪ Their house is assessed [=appraised, valued] at $163,000.
3 a : to tax or charge (someone or something) : to require (a person, business, etc.) to pay a particular amount of money ▪ The company was assessed $12 million in fines for polluting the river. b : to require a person, business, etc., to pay (a tax, fee, fine, etc.) ▪ The bank assesses [=(more commonly) charges, imposes] a fee for replacing lost credit cards.
4 US, sports : to give (a player or team) a penalty during a game ▪ He was assessed five fouls during the game.

as•sess•ment /əˈsɛsmənt/ noun, pl -ments formal
1 a : the act of making a judgment about something : the act of assessing something [count] The book is a careful assessment [=appraisal, evaluation] of the president's achievements. ▪ The school uses a variety of tests for its annual student assessments. [=evaluations] [noncount] It's a difficult problem that requires careful assessment. b [count] : an idea or opinion about something ▪ I don't agree with his assessment of the problem.
2 [count] : an amount that a person is officially required to pay especially as a tax ▪ The owners claimed the tax assessment on their house was too high.

as•ses•sor /əˈsɛsɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count]
1 : a person whose job is to officially say how much something (such as a property) is worth especially so that it can be taxed according to that value ▪ a tax assessor
2 law : a person who knows a lot about a particular subject and whose job is to give advice about that subject to a judge or other court official 3 : a person whose job is to officially say how well someone has done on a test, in a competition, etc.

as•set /ˈæˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count]
1 : a valuable person or thing ▪ Good looks can be an asset [=advantage] in an acting career. ▪ The state's natural assets include mountains and beautiful lakes. — often + to ▪ Good looks can be an asset to an actor. ▪ She is a great asset to the team. [=she's a valuable member of the team]
2 : something that is owned by a person, company, etc. — usually plural ▪ The company had to sell some of its assets to avoid bankruptcy. ▪ a bank with billions of dollars in assets ▪ business assets and liabilities ▪ They bought the company and stripped it of its assets. [=they sold the property owned by the company]

as•set–strip•ping /ˈæˌsɛtˈstrɪpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the practice of buying a company that is not successful at a low price and then selling its property (such as buildings or land) to make a profit ass•hole /ˈæsˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] US, informal + offensive

1 : ANUS
2 : a very stupid or annoying person ▪ Her boyfriend is a real asshole. [=(Brit) arsehole]

as•sid•u•ous /əˈsɪʤəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing great care, attention, and effort ▪ They were assiduous in their search for all the latest facts and figures. ▪ The project required some assiduous planning. ▪ assiduous [=diligent] students – as•si•du•ity /ˌæsəˈduːwəti, Brit ˌæsəˈdjuːwəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the assiduity [=diligence] of the students – as•sid•u•ous•ly adv ▪ He worked assiduously [=diligently] to improve his grades. – as•sid•u•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the assiduousness [=diligence] of the students

as•sign /əˈsaɪn/ verb -signs; -signed; -sign•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give someone a particular job or duty : to require someone to do a particular task ▪ They assigned me the job of cleaning the equipment. = They assigned the job of cleaning the equipment to me. = They assigned me to clean the equipment. ▪ The teacher assigned us 50 math problems for homework! ▪ Students will be assigned five books to read and must choose two additional books (to read).
2 : to send (someone) to a particular group or place as part of a job ▪ She was assigned to the embassy in India. ▪ The new teacher was assigned to the science laboratory. ▪ assigned to a platoon/squadron
3 : to give out something : to provide someone with something ▪ Parts in the play were assigned [=given] to each student. ▪ They assigned me a secretary. = They assigned a secretary to me. [=they provided me with a secretary] ▪ A section of the field was assigned [=set aside] for parking. ▪ The plane landed at its assigned gate. ▪ our assigned positions/seats
4 : to say that someone has (something, such as blame or responsibility) ▪ He believes that they have assigned blame/responsibility to the wrong people.
5 : to give a particular value, identity, etc., to something ▪ The computer program will assign a number to each image.
6 law : to officially give (property or a legal right) to someone else ▪ She assigned her share of the estate to her brother.
– as•sign•able /əˈsaɪnəbəl/ adj, chiefly law ▪ an assignable interest in the estate – as•sign•or /ˌæsəˈnoɚ/ noun, pl -ors [count] law ▪ the property of the assignor

as•sig•na•tion /ˌæsɪgˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : a meeting between lovers ▪ a secret assignation [=tryst]

as•sign•ment /əˈsaɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : a job or duty that is given to someone : a task someone is required to do [count] My assignment was to clean the equipment. = They gave me the assignment of cleaning the equipment. ▪ The students were given a homework assignment. ▪ The reporter's assignment is to interview the candidate. ▪ The reporter is here on an assignment. [noncount] The reporter is here on assignment.
2 [noncount] : the act of assigning something or someone: such as a : the act of sending someone to a particular group or place as part of a job ▪ The article discusses the recent assignment of senators to some of the more powerful committees. ▪ her assignment to the embassy in India b : the act of giving a particular value, identity, etc., to something ▪ the computer's assignment of a number to each image c : the act of saying that someone has something (such as blame) ▪ the assignment of blame/responsibility d law : the act of officially giving property or a legal right to another person ▪ the assignment of property
3 [count] : something (such as a particular position or seat) that is chosen for you to use or have ▪ She asked if she could change her seating assignment.

as•sim•i•late /əˈsɪməˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to learn (something) so that it is fully understood and can be used ▪ Children need to assimilate new ideas/concepts. ▪ There was a lot of information/material to assimilate at school.
2 a [+ obj] : to cause (a person or group) to become part of a different society, country, etc. ▪ Schools were used to assimilate the children of immigrants. ▪ She was thoroughly/completely assimilated to/into her new country. [=she had completely adapted to her new country] b [no obj] : to adopt the ways of another culture : to fully become part of a different society, country, etc. ▪ They found it hard to assimilate to/into American society.
3 [+ obj] : to adopt (something) as part of a larger thing ▪ The language is constantly assimilating new words. [=making new words part of itself; the language is constantly getting new words] ▪ Many of these religious traditions have been assimilated into the culture.
– as•sim•i•la•tion /əˌsɪməˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a child's assimilation of concepts/ideas/information ▪ Her assimilation into American society was complete.

[1]as•sist /əˈsɪst/ verb -sists; -sist•ed; -sist•ing : to give support or help : to make it easier for someone to do something

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

or for something to happen : HELP [+ obj] The device assists those who can't climb stairs. ▪ The President was assisted by his advisers. ▪ The President was assisted with his speech. = The President was assisted in writing his speech. ▪ She assisted the boy with his homework. ▪ Another doctor assisted him with the operation. [no obj] Another doctor assisted with the operation. ▪ Federal agents are assisting with the investigation. ▪ She assisted in making the decision. ▪ The cream assists in the prevention of skin cancer.

[2]assist noun, pl -sists [count]

1 US, somewhat informal : an action that helps someone — usually singular ▪ He wrote the story with an assist from [=with the help/assistance of] his friend. [=his friend helped him to write the story]

2 sports : an action (such as passing a ball or puck) that helps a teammate to score ▪ He had 3 goals and 2 assists in the hockey game.

as•sis•tance /əˈsɪstəns/ noun [noncount] : the act of helping or assisting someone : help or support ▪ Any assistance you can give me would be appreciated. ▪ I'll be happy to provide you with whatever assistance you may need. ▪ financial/cash assistance ▪ The store salesperson asked her, "Do you need (any) assistance?" ▪ She offered her assistance. ▪ She asked, "Can I be of (any) assistance?" [=can I help you?] ▪ He wrote the story with his friend's assistance. = He wrote the story with the assistance of his friend. [=his friend helped him to write the story] ▪ Nobody came to her assistance [=nobody helped her] when her car broke down. — see also DIRECTORY ASSISTANCE

[1]as•sis•tant /əˈsɪstənt/ noun, pl -tants [count]

1 : a person who helps someone; especially : a person whose job is to help another person to do work ▪ a magician's assistant [=helper] ▪ an assistant to the college president ▪ an assistant to the store manager ▪ a dental assistant [=a person whose job is to help a dentist] ▪ a wealthy executive who has a personal assistant — see also PHYSICIAN'S ASSISTANT

2 : a person whose job is to help the customers in a store ▪ She works as a sales assistant [=salesclerk] at Macy's. ▪ (Brit) a shop assistant

[2]assistant adj, always used before a noun : having the job of helping someone to do work : having a lower rank or position than others in a group, organization, etc. ▪ an assistant store manager ▪ an assistant editor

assistant professor noun, pl ~ -sors [count] : a teacher at a U.S. college or university who has a rank above an instructor and below an associate professor assisted living noun [noncount] : a system that provides a place to live and medical care for people (such as elderly or disabled people) who need help with daily activities — often used in the form assisted-living before another noun ▪ an assisted-living facility/residence assisted suicide noun, pl ~ -cides : suicide with help from another person (such as a doctor) to end suffering from severe physical illness [count] a doctor who has been involved in several assisted suicides [noncount] an opponent of assisted suicide

assn. abbr association

assoc. abbr associate; associated; association

[1]as•so•ci•ate /əˈsoʊʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing

1 [+ obj] : to think of one person or thing when you think of another person or thing — usually + with ▪ I associate flowers with spring. ▪ She will always associate that place with her youth. ▪ People associate the company with televisions but it also makes computers. ✧ When one thing is associated with another, they happen together or are related or connected in some way. ▪ There are several dangers/risks associated with [=connected with] that approach. ▪ plants associated with the desert ▪ He has symptoms associated with lung disease. ▪ There are health problems that are often associated with poverty.

2 : to be together with another person or group as friends, partners, etc. [no obj] She associates with [=is friends with] some pretty strange people. ▪ They denied associating with terrorists. [=they denied being involved with terrorists] [+ obj] He was associated [=connected, identified] with a group of radicals in the government. ▪ I no longer wish to be associated with people like him. ▪ She associates herself with some pretty strange people. ✧ If you associate yourself with something, such as a political movement, you show or say that you support and agree with it. ▪ He was reluctant to associate himself with the government's position.

[2]as•so•ci•ate /əˈsoʊʃijət/ noun, pl -ates [count]

1 : a person who you work with or spend time with ▪ business associates [=colleagues] ▪ Her associates respected her for her hard work. ▪ He is a known associate of criminals. [=he is known to associate with criminals; people know that he works with or spends time with criminals]

2 : a member of a group or organization who is at a level that is below the highest level ▪ She started as an associate at the law firm. — sometimes used in the names of companies ▪ He works for Jones and Associates, a consulting firm in Santa Fe.

[3]as•so•ci•ate /əˈsoʊʃijət/ adj, always used before a noun : having a rank or position that is below the highest level in a group, organization, etc. ▪ He's an associate member of the club but he hopes to become a full member soon. ▪ She was promoted from assistant editor to associate editor and may soon be promoted to senior editor.

associate professor noun, pl ~ -sors [count] : a teacher at a U.S. college or university who has a rank above an assistant professor and below a full professor associate's degree noun, pl ~ -grees [count] : a degree that is given to a student who has completed two years of study at a junior college, college, or university in the U.S.

as•so•ci•a•tion /əˌsoʊsiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : an organized group of people who have the same interest, job, etc. ▪ an athletic association [=league] ▪ a baseball players' association [=union] ▪ an association of local business leaders — see also PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

2 : a connection or relationship between things or people [count] They denied having any association with terrorists. ▪ They have a long association with the school and have donated millions of dollars to it. ▪ a study examining the association [=link] between obesity and heart disease [noncount] The book was produced by the publisher in association with the museum that sponsored the exhibit. [=the publisher and the museum were both involved in making the book]

3 [count] : a feeling, memory, or thought that is connected to a person, place, or thing — usually plural ▪ Chicago has pleasant associations for me because of the happy times I spent there. ▪ His former school has only bad/negative associations for him. [=he has only unhappy memories of his former school]

Association football noun [noncount] Brit, formal : SOCCER

as•so•nance /ˈæsənəns/ noun [noncount] technical : the use of words that have the same or very similar vowel sounds near one another (as in "summer fun" and "rise high in the bright sky") as•sort•ed /əˈsoɚtəd/ adj : including several kinds ▪ a box of assorted cheeses ▪ assorted colors/flavors/sizes/styles ▪ She hangs around with rock stars, drug addicts, and assorted [=various] other oddballs.

as•sort•ment /əˈsoɚtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a group or collection of different things or people ▪ an assortment of vegetables ▪ The book has a wonderful assortment of characters. ▪ You can choose from a wide assortment of options.

asst. abbr assistant ▪ asst. coach ▪ Dr. T. K. York, Asst. Professor as•suage /əˈsweɪʤ/ verb -suag•es; -suaged; -suag•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something, such as an unpleasant feeling) less painful, severe, etc. ▪ The company tried to assuage [=soothe, calm, ease] investors' fears. ▪ City officials needed to assuage [=lessen, relieve] neighbors' concerns about the new factory. ▪ He couldn't assuage his guilt over the divorce. ▪ trying to assuage [=alleviate] his hunger/thirst

as•sume /əˈsu:m/ verb -sumes; -sumed; -sum•ing [+ obj]

1 : to think that something is true or probably true without knowing that it is true ▪ I assumed he was coming, so I was surprised when he didn't show up. ▪ "Is he coming?" "So I assume." = "I assume so." ▪ I think we can safely assume that he's coming. = I think it's safe to assume that he's coming. ▪ She assumed from his expression that he was confused. ▪ Let's assume [=suppose] (that) she rejects your invitation. What will you do then? = Assuming (that) she rejects your invitation, what will you do? [=what will you do if she rejects your invitation?] ▪ We'll be arriving around noon. That's assuming that our flight is on time. ▪ The study assumes that the problem develops after birth. [=the study does not consider the possibility that the problem may begin before birth]

2 a : to begin (a role, duty, etc.) as a job or responsibility ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

She assumed the presidency. = She assumed the position of president. ▪ assume [=take] office ▪ The king assumed the throne when he was very young. b : to take or begin to have (power, control, etc.) in a job or situation ▪ He is ready to assume [=take] control of the organization.

3 : to begin to have (a particular appearance or quality) ▪ The last game of the season assumes much greater importance now. [=it becomes much more important now] ▪ Their financial problems assumed huge proportions. [=grew to be very serious] ▪ The sky gradually assumed [=took on] an otherworldly glow. ▪ Under certain conditions, the chemical will assume the appearance of ice.

4 a : to make yourself have (an appearance that does not show your true feelings) in order to deceive someone ▪ She immediately assumed a look of innocence. [=she had an expression on her face that made her look innocent, even though she wasn't] b : to place yourself in (a particular position or posture) ▪ She assumed a sitting position [=she sat down] on the floor.

5 : to accept (a responsibility, debt, etc.) ▪ When they purchased the company they had to assume [=take on] its debts. ▪ assume liability ▪ The city assumes greater financial risk with that plan.

assumed adj : not true or real ▪ an assumed air of indifference ▪ He traveled under an assumed name. [=he used a false name when he traveled]

as•sump•tion /əˈsʌmpʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : something that is believed to be true or probably true but that is not known to be true : something that is assumed ▪ I made the assumption that he was coming, so I was surprised when he didn't show up. ▪ He will come home tomorrow. At least, that's my assumption. ▪ Many scientific assumptions about Mars were wrong. ▪ We are operating on/under/with the assumption that the loan will be approved. [=we are assuming that the loan will be approved; we are behaving as though we know that the loan will be approved] ▪ I'm telling you our arrival time on the assumption that you will check to see whether or not our flight is on time before you come to the airport. ▪ Her plan is based on the underlying assumption that the economy will improve in the near future.

2 [noncount] : the act of assuming something: such as a : the act of beginning a role, duty, etc. ▪ her assumption of the presidency b : the act of taking or beginning to have power, control, etc., in a job or situation ▪ the assumption of control/authority c : the act of accepting a responsibility, debt, etc. ▪ the buyer's assumption of debt

as•sur•ance /əˈʃurəns/ noun, pl -anc•es

1 [noncount] : the state of being sure or certain about something ▪ They lent us the money with the assurance that they would be repaid soon. ▪ He has the assurance of continued support from his boss. — see also QUALITY ASSURANCE

2 [noncount] : a strong feeling of confidence about yourself or about being right ▪ He spoke with quiet assurance about his future plans. — see also SELF-ASSURANCE

3 [count] : a strong and definite statement that something will happen or that something is true ▪ She gave him every assurance that she would be there when he returned. — often plural ▪ They sought assurances from the school that their children were safe. — see also LIFE ASSURANCE

as•sure /əˈʃuə/ verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) certain : ENSURE ▪ He believed that hard work would assure his success. [=that hard work would make him sure to succeed] ▪ We must assure that every child gets a proper education. = We must assure a proper education for every child. ▪ Winning the Nobel Prize will assure [=secure, guarantee] her a place in history. ✧ To assure someone of doing something is to make it certain that someone will do something. ▪ A victory in this game will assure them of finishing the season with a winning record.

2 : to tell someone in a very strong and definite way that something will happen or that something is true ▪ I can assure you that you won't be disappointed. ▪ She assured me (that) she was OK when I talked to her on the phone. ▪ His boss assured him that he had her continued support. = His boss assured him of her continued support. = "You have my continued support," his boss assured him. ▪ These mistakes won't happen again, I (can) assure you.

assure yourself : to make yourself sure or certain about something ▪ He tried opening the door to assure himself that it was locked. ▪ They managed to be third in line, assuring themselves of good seats for the concert.

as•sured /əˈʃuəd/ adj

1 : sure or certain to happen ▪ Success is by no means assured. [=is definitely not certain] ▪ an assured conclusion ▪ Winners of the Nobel Prize have an assured place in history.

2 [more ~; most ~] : very confident : SELF-ASSURED ▪ an assured voice/manner ▪ His writing has become more assured as he has gotten older.

3 : sure that something is certain or true — used in the phrase rest assured ▪ You can rest assured [=you can be sure] that these mistakes won't happen again. = Rest assured, these mistakes won't happen again.

assured of : certain to have or get (something) ▪ They are not assured of being paid. [=it is not certain that they will be paid] ▪ She is assured of (getting/having) a job when she gets out of college.

as•sur•ed•ly /əˈʃurədli/ adv, formal

1 : without doubt : CERTAINLY, DEFINITELY ▪ The merger will almost assuredly lead to job layoffs. ✧ This sense of assuredly is commonly used with most, but it is not used with more. ▪ He most assuredly [=very definitely] will not win.

2 [more ~; most ~] : in a way that shows that you are confident ▪ She moved/walked assuredly [=confidently] across the platform to the microphone.

as•ter /ˈæstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a type of plant that is grown in gardens for its colorful flowers as•ter•isk /ˈæstəˌrɪsk/ noun, pl -isks [count] : a symbol * that is used in printed text especially to tell someone to read a note that can be found at the bottom of a page

– asterisk verb -isks; -isked; -isk•ing [+ obj] ▪ an asterisked note

astern /əˈstɚn/ adv

1 : in, at, or toward the back of a boat or ship : in, at, or toward the stern ▪ The island lay astern (of us) [=the island was behind us] as we sailed east.

2 of a boat or ship : in a reverse direction ▪ The ship went full speed astern.

as•ter•oid /ˈæstəˌrɔɪd/ noun, pl -oids [count] : any one of thousands of small planets that circle around the sun ▪ Most asteroids are found between Mars and Jupiter.

asth•ma /ˈæzmə, Brit ˈæsmə/ noun [noncount] medical : a physical condition that makes it difficult for someone to breathe

asth•mat•ic /æzˈmætɪk, Brit æsˈmætɪk/ adj, medical : relating to or suffering from asthma ▪ asthmatic symptoms ▪ an asthmatic patient ▪ an asthmatic cough – asthmatic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ My son is an asthmatic.

astig•ma•tism /əˈstɪgməˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] medical : a problem with the eye that prevents a person from seeing clearly

– as•tig•mat•ic /ˌæstɪgˈmætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ astigmatic eyes astir /əˈstɚ/ adj, not used before a noun, literary

1 : in an active state ▪ A breeze is astir. [=a breeze is blowing] — often + with ▪ The air is astir with breezes.

2 : awake and out of bed ▪ Nobody in the house was astir. [=awake, up] as•ton•ish /əˈstɑːnɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing : to cause a feeling of great wonder or surprise in (someone) [+ obj] The garden astonishes [=amazes] anyone who sees it. ▪ Despite the hype, there was nothing in the book to astonish readers. [no obj] The garden's beauty never fails to astonish.

astonished adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing great surprise or wonder : AMAZED, ASTOUNDED ▪ I was astonished by/at all the changes in the town's appearance. ▪ I'm astonished that you could behave so selfishly. ▪ They were astonished to see that their car had been stolen. ▪ The announcement was greeted with astonished laughter.

as•ton•ish•ing /əˈstɑːnɪʃɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a feeling of great surprise or wonder : causing astonishment : AMAZING, ASTOUNDING ▪ He showed an astonishing lack of concern for others. ▪ The truck can hold an astonishing amount of stuff. ▪ She gave an astonishing performance in her first film.

– as•ton•ish•ing•ly adv ▪ an astonishingly beautiful scene ▪ Astonishingly (enough), the dog swam across the lake.

as•ton•ish•ment /əˈstɑːnɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of being very surprised : AMAZEMENT ▪ The garden's beauty filled me with astonishment. ▪ A crowd watched in astonishment as he jumped from the bridge. ▪ They discovered to their astonishment that their car had been stolen. ▪ Much to the astonishment of her friends and family, she left school to pursue her acting career.

as•tound /əˈstaʊnd/ verb -tounds; -tound•ed; -tound-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

ing [+ obj] : to cause a feeling of great surprise or wonder in (someone) : AMAZE, ASTONISH ▪ The magician will astound you with his latest tricks. ▪ What astounds me is that they never apologized.

astounded adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing great surprise or wonder : AMAZED, ASTONISHED ▪ She was astounded by/at the number of people in the room. ▪ We were astounded to discover a valuable painting in the attic. ▪ The astounded audience watched in amazement.

as•tound•ing /əˈstaʊndɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a feeling of great surprise or wonder : AMAZING, ASTONISHING ▪ Your ignorance is astounding. ▪ He ate an astounding amount of food.
– astoundingly adj ▪ Astoundingly, the school decided not to punish him. ▪ an astoundingly successful businessman as•tra•khan /ˈæstrəkən, Brit ˌæstrəˈkæn/ noun [noncount] : a type of curly black fur that comes from a young sheep; also : a cloth that resembles such fur

as•tral /ˈæstrəl/ adj
1 technical : of or relating to the stars ▪ astral navigation
2 : involving a person's spirit rather than the body ▪ She believes in astral projection. [=the ability of a person's spirit to travel to distant places]

astray /əˈstreɪ/ adv
1 : off the right path or route — usually used with go ▪ They marked the trail so hikers wouldn't go astray. [=become lost] ▪ The rocket went astray after liftoff. ▪ The letter went astray. [=was lost]
2 : away from what is right, good, or desirable — usually used with go or lead ▪ Older students led him astray. [=made him behave badly] ▪ The writer goes (badly) astray [=stops being correct or reasonable] when she blames the current government for these problems. ▪ The President was led astray [=convinced to make a bad decision] by his advisers. ▪ Their plans have gone astray. [=have failed] astride /əˈstraɪd/ prep : with one leg or part on each side of (something) ▪ She was sitting astride a horse. ▪ The town lies astride a narrow river.

as•trin•gent /əˈstrɪnʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 medical : causing body tissues (such as skin) to tighten — used to describe a liquid or lotion that makes the skin less oily or that helps to stop a cut from bleeding ▪ astringent lotions
2 : having a sharp or bitter quality ▪ an astringent taste
3 : very critical in a sharp and often clever way ▪ Her speech included some astringent [=caustic, biting] comments about the other candidate. ▪ an astringent critic of modern movies
– as•trin•gen•cy /əˈstrɪnʤənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ the astringency of her comments – astringent noun, pl -gents [count] medical ▪ She used an astringent on her face. – as•trin•gent•ly adv ▪ an astringently ironic writer

as•trol•o•gy /əˈstrɑːləʤi/ noun [noncount] : the study of how the positions of the stars and movements of the planets have a supposed influence on events and on the lives and behavior of people – as•trol•o•ger /əˈstrɑːləʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] ▪ She consulted an astrologer to see if she would ever get married. – as•tro•log•i•cal /ˌæstrəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ astrological theories/beliefs/signs – as•tro•log•i•cal•ly /ˌæstrəˈlɑːʤɪkli/ adv

as•tro•naut /ˈæstrəˌnɑːt/ noun, pl -nauts [count] : a person who travels in a spacecraft into outer space as•tro•nom•i•cal /ˌæstrəˈnɑːmɪkəl/ also as•tro•nom•ic /ˌæstrəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj

1 : of or relating to astronomy ▪ astronomical research
2 : extremely large ▪ The cost of the office building was astronomical. ▪ We got an astronomical telephone bill this month.
– as•tro•nom•i•cal•ly /ˌæstrəˈnɑːmɪkli/ adv ▪ The cost of health care has risen astronomically. ▪ an astronomically large amount of money

as•tron•o•my /əˈstrɑːnəmi/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of stars, planets, and other objects in outer space
– as•tron•o•mer /əˈstrɑːnəmə/ noun, pl -mers [count]

as•tro•phys•ics /ˌæstrəˈfɪzɪks/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of the physical and chemical properties and structures of stars, planets, and other objects in outer space
– as•tro•phys•i•cal /ˌæstrəˈfɪzɪkəl/ adj – as•tro•phys•i•cist /ˌæstrəˈfɪzəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count]

As•tro•turf /ˈæstrəˌtʰəf/ trademark — used for an artificial surface that resembles grass as•tute /əˈstuːt, Brit əˈstjuːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to notice and understand things clearly : mentally sharp or clever ▪ He is an astute observer of the current political scene. ▪ Astute readers will notice the error. ▪ She made some astute [=insightful] observations about the movie industry. ▪ His analysis of the battle was very astute.

– as•tute•ly adv ▪ He invested his money astutely. [=shrewdly] – as•tute•ness noun [noncount] ▪ political astuteness asun•der /əˈsʌndə/ adv, literary : into parts : APART ▪ He split the log asunder with an ax. — often used with tear ▪ The government was torn asunder [=deeply divided] by scandal.

asy•lum /əˈsaɪləm/ noun, pl -lums
1 [noncount] : protection given by a government to someone who has left another country in order to escape being harmed ▪ She asked for political asylum. ▪ She was granted asylum after it was made clear that she would be killed if she returned to her native country. ▪ asylum seekers
2 [count] old-fashioned : a hospital where people who are mentally ill are cared for especially for long periods of time : a mental hospital

asym•met•ri•cal /ˌeɪsəˈmɛtrɪkəl/ or asym•met•ric /ˌeɪsəˈmɛtrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having two sides or halves that are not the same : not symmetrical ▪ an asymmetrical design – asym•met•ri•cal•ly /ˌeɪsəˈmɛtrɪkli/ adv – asym•me•try /eɪˈsɪmətri/ noun, pl -tries [noncount] the asymmetry of the design [count] Doctors studied asymmetries in the brain.

asymp•tom•at•ic /ˌeɪˌsɪmtəˈmætɪk/ adj, medical : having or showing no symptoms of disease ▪ You should continue to take the medication, even when you are asymptomatic. [=even when you do not have any pain or other signs that you are sick]

at /ˈæt, ət/ prep
1 — used to indicate the place where someone or something is ▪ We're staying at a hotel. ▪ The kitchen is at the back of the house. ▪ He was sitting at the table. ▪ They left for Cambridge early and arrived at [=in] Cambridge before noon. ▪ The party will be at Susan's house. = The party will be at Susan's. ▪ Ann works at [=in] a library. ▪ We met at a party. ▪ They live at opposite ends of town. ▪ They met at [=on] a street corner in a town. ▪ "Is your father at home?" [=is your father home?] "No, he's working late at the office." ▪ She met us at the door. ▪ He was standing at [=next to] the window. ▪ There were 200 people at the wedding. [=200 people attended the wedding] ▪ Their older son has graduated, but their younger son is still at school. [=is still attending school] ▪ Who was at the controls when the accident occurred?

> The word at is used in speech in e-mail addresses. ▪ "Can I e-mail you?" "Sure. Our e-mail address is 'comments at Merriam-Webster dot com.'" In writing, the symbol @ is used instead. ▪ comments@Merriam-Webster.com

2 — used to indicate the person or thing toward which an action, motion, or feeling is directed or aimed ▪ She pointed her gun at the target. ▪ He's angry at his brother. ▪ His anger is directed at his brother. ▪ She shouted (words of) abuse at me. ▪ He looked directly at me. ▪ They laughed at him. ▪ She grabbed at my arm. [=she tried to grab my arm] ▪ He poked at his food.
3 — used to indicate something that is being tried or attempted ▪ I made an attempt at persuading him to go. ▪ I took a shot at doing it myself. [=I tried to do it myself]
4 : because of or in reaction to (something) ▪ They laughed at my joke. ▪ She's furious at how slowly the investigation is proceeding. — used to indicate the cause of an action, feeling, etc. ▪ I was greatly surprised at [=by] the result. [=the result surprised me greatly] ▪ He enlisted in the army at his father's urging. [=because his father urged him to] ▪ She visited the museum at my suggestion. ▪ They came here at our invitation. ▪ You can act at your own discretion.
5 — used to indicate an activity ▪ He's very serious when he's at work. [=when he's working] ▪ children who are at play [=children who are playing] ▪ She's good at (playing) chess. [=she plays chess well] ▪ I'm bad at cooking. [=I'm a bad cook, I do not cook well] ▪ She's doing very well at her studies.
6 — used to indicate a situation or condition ▪ I'm not at liberty to discuss that. ▪ at rest ▪ two nations that are at war ▪ people who are at risk ▪ He is now at peace.
7 a — used to indicate position on a scale or in a series ▪ The temperature is at 90 degrees. ▪ He was driving at almost 80 miles an hour. b — used to indicate a rate ▪ They sell at [=for] a dollar a dozen. [=each dozen costs one dollar]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

8 — used to indicate an age or time ▪ He plans to retire at (age) 65. ▪ He called us at (about/exactly) 9 o'clock on July 24. ▪ at dawn/noon/sunset/night ▪ I still think of her at certain moments/times. ▪ He was president of the company at (the time of) his death.
9 — used to indicate the method by which something is done ▪ The property was sold at auction.
10 a — used in phrases like at best, at worst, etc., to indicate a possible result or condition that is considered best, worst, etc. ▪ The company will make a small profit at best this year. [=it is not possible that the company will earn anything better/more than a small profit] ▪ We might be 5 or 10 minutes late at worst. [=we will not be more than 5 or 10 minutes late] ▪ We should arrive by noon at the latest. [=we should not arrive later than noon] b — used in phrases like at its best, at its worst, etc., to indicate that something or someone is as good, bad, etc., as possible ▪ This is baseball at its best. ▪ He's often rude, and last night he was at his worst.
at it : doing some activity ▪ I didn't expect her to have started working yet, but she was already (hard) at it when I arrived. [=she was already working (hard) when I arrived] ▪ My neighbors are always arguing, and they were at it again last night. [=they were arguing again last night] ▪ Since we're cleaning the kitchen, we should wash the floor while we're at it. [=we should wash the floor when we clean the kitchen] ▪ "I'm going to the store to buy a newspaper." "While you're at it, could you get some milk?" at that see [1]THAT where it's at see [1]WHERE where (someone) is at see [1]WHERE at•a•vis•tic /ˌætəˈvɪstɪk/ adj, formal : very primitive — used to describe feelings or qualities that human beings have had from the earliest times ▪ She thinks men have an atavistic desire to dominate any group. ▪ atavistic urges/instincts

ate past tense of EAT

ate•lier /ˌætlˈjeɪ, Brit əˈtɛlijeɪ/ noun, pl -iers [count] : a room where an artist works athe•ist /ˈeɪθijɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who believes that God does not exist — compare AGNOSTIC 1

– athe•ism /ˈeɪθiˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] – athe•is•tic /ˌeɪθiˈɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ atheistic beliefs

ath•lete /ˈæθˌliːt/ noun, pl -letes [count] : a person who is trained in or good at sports, games, or exercises that require physical skill and strength ▪ Athletes from around the world will be competing at the Olympics. ▪ amateur/professional athletes ▪ She was quite an athlete as a child.

athlete's foot noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which the skin between and around the toes cracks and peels

ath•let•ic /æθˈlɛtɪk/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : of or relating to athletes ▪ the national athletic association ▪ They each received an athletic scholarship to the school. b : of or relating to sports, games, or exercises ▪ Students can get discount tickets for all athletic events. ▪ His athletic career spanned three decades. ▪ the college's athletic department/director ▪ She has great athletic ability.
2 always used before a noun : used by athletes : used during or for sports, games, or exercises ▪ athletic socks/gear/shoes ▪ the school's athletic field
3 [more ~; most ~] a : strong and muscular ▪ She's tall and has an athletic build. b : active in sports, games, or exercises ▪ He's very athletic.
– ath•let•i•cal•ly /æθˈlɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ She's tall and athletically built.

ath•let•i•cism /æθˈlɛtəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the ability to play sports or do physical activities well ▪ He's much admired for his athleticism. ▪ She has speed and athleticism.

ath•let•ics /æθˈlɛtɪks/ noun
1 [plural] US : sports, games, and exercises that require strength and skill : athletic activities ✧ Athletics is plural in form but is used with both plural and singular verbs. ▪ College athletics attract students from a variety of backgrounds. ▪ The coach believes high school athletics is in need of reform.
2 [noncount] Brit : TRACK AND FIELD athletic supporter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US : JOCKSTRAP

at–home /ətˈhoʊm/ adj, always used before a noun, US
1 : made to be used in the home ▪ She uses an at-home blood test to monitor her blood levels. ▪ at-home exercise equipment
2 : happening at someone's home ▪ at-home entertainment ▪ one of the star's rare at-home interviews
3 : not employed outside the home ▪ an at-home [=(more commonly) stay-at-home] mother/father

-ation noun suffix : the action or process of doing something ▪ visit*ation* ▪ memoriz*ation*

atish•oo /əˈtɪʃu/ interj, Brit : ACHOO

-ative adj suffix
1 : relating to or connected with something ▪ authorit*ative*
2 : designed to do something ▪ prevent*ative* ▪ inform*ative*
3 : tending to do something ▪ talk*ative*

Atl. abbr Atlantic

At•lan•tis /ətˈlæntəs/ noun [noncount] : an island that according to legend sank to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean long ago at•las /ˈætləs/ noun, pl -las•es [count] : a book of maps ▪ a world atlas ▪ a road atlas of the U.S.

ATM /ˌeɪˌtiːˈɛm/ noun, pl ATMs [count] : a machine that people use to get money from their bank accounts by using a special card — often used before another noun ▪ ATM cards/machines ✧ ATM is an abbreviation of "automatic teller machine."

at•mo•sphere /ˈætməˌsfiə/ noun, pl -spheres
1 a [singular] : the whole mass of air that surrounds the Earth ▪ Experts have noticed changes in the atmosphere. ▪ Meteoroids burn up as they pass through Earth's atmosphere. b [count] : a mass of gases that surround a planet or star ▪ The planets have different atmospheres.
2 [count] : the air in a particular place or area — usually singular ▪ The waiting room's stuffy atmosphere made me feel a little sick. ▪ the moist atmosphere of the swamp
3 a [count] : the particular way a place or situation makes you feel — usually singular ▪ The inn has a romantic atmosphere. — often + of ▪ The relaxed atmosphere of the classroom was a stark contrast to the strict schools I'd gone to before. ▪ The news created an atmosphere of fear/excitement/confusion. b [noncount] : an interesting or pleasing quality or effect ▪ a country inn with lots of atmosphere ▪ The food was good but the restaurant has no atmosphere.

at•mo•spher•ic /ˌætməˈsfɪrɪk, Brit ˌætməˈsfɛrɪk/ adj
1 always used before a noun : of or relating to the atmosphere of the Earth or another planet ▪ atmospheric gases/conditions/pressure
2 : creating a pleasant or exciting mood or feeling ▪ atmospheric melodies atoll /ˈæˌtɑːl/ noun, pl atolls [count] : an island that is made of coral and shaped like a ring at•om /ˈætəm/ noun, pl -oms [count]

1 : the smallest particle of a substance that can exist by itself or be combined with other atoms to form a molecule ▪ carbon atoms ▪ an atom of hydrogen
2 : a very small amount of something ▪ The flu took every atom [=bit] of strength I had. ▪ There is not an atom of truth to what he said.

atom•ic /əˈtɑːmɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to atoms ▪ atomic [=nuclear] physics/particles
2 : of, relating to, or using the energy that is produced when atoms are split apart ▪ atomic [=nuclear] weapons ▪ the atomic [=nuclear] age ▪ an atomic [=nuclear] reactor atomic bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a bomb that produces an extremely powerful explosion when atoms are split apart — called also A-bomb, atom bomb atomic clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a special kind of clock that is extremely exact atomic energy noun [noncount] physics : NUCLEAR ENERGY

at•om•iz•er /ˈætəˌmaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that forces a liquid out of a very small hole so that it becomes a fine spray ▪ a perfume atomizer

aton•al /eɪˈtoʊnl/ adj, music : not written, played, or sung in a particular key ▪ atonal music/sounds atone /əˈtoʊn/ verb atones; atoned; aton•ing [no obj] formal : to do something good as a way to show that you are sorry about doing something bad — usually + for ▪ He says that he volunteers at the homeless shelter as a way to atone for [=make up for] the sins of his youth.

– atone•ment /əˈtʰoʊnmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ atonement for his sins atop /əˈtɑːp/ prep, chiefly US, somewhat old-fashioned + literary : on top of ▪ The house sits atop a cliff overlooking the ocean.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

atri•um /ˈeɪtrijəm/ noun, pl atria /ˈeɪtrijə/ also atriums [count]
1 : an open area inside a tall building that has windows to let light in from above
2 technical : one of two sections of the heart that take in blood from the veins — compare VENTRICLE

atro•cious /əˈtroʊʃəs/ adj
1 : very evil or cruel ▪ an atrocious period in the nation's history ▪ atrocious crimes.
2 : very bad ▪ atrocious [=terrible, awful] handwriting ▪ His performance was atrocious. [=horrible] ▪ atrocious [=appalling] behavior ▪ Isn't this weather atrocious? [=awful]
– atro•cious•ly adv ▪ The team played atrociously [=horribly] this season.

atroc•i•ty /əˈtrɑːsəti/ noun, pl -ties : a very cruel or terrible act or action [count] the atrocities of war ▪ Atrocities were committed by forces on both sides of the conflict. [noncount] Who could be capable of such atrocity?

[1]at•ro•phy /ˈætrəfi/ noun [noncount] medical : gradual loss of muscle or flesh usually because of disease or lack of use ▪ The doctor is concerned about possible atrophy of the shoulder muscles. — often used figuratively ▪ emotional/intellectual atrophy [=loss of emotional/intellectual strength]

[2]atrophy verb -phies; -phied; -phy•ing [no obj] medical : to become weak from lack of use : to suffer from atrophy ▪ Her muscles atrophied during her illness. ▪ After her surgery, she received therapy to keep the muscles from atrophying.

att. abbr 1 attached 2 attention 3 attorney at•tach /əˈtætʃ/ verb -tach•es; -tached; -tach•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to fasten or join one thing to another ▪ I've attached an application to the brochure for you. ▪ She attached a note to the package. ▪ I attached the file to the e-mail. — often used as (be) attached ▪ A hook is attached to the back of the picture frame. — often used figuratively ▪ The man attached the blame to the two boys. [=said the two boys should be blamed] ▪ The lawyer attached [=added] new conditions to the contract. ▪ The shy child attached herself to her mother [=stayed close to her mother] during the whole party. b [no obj] : to be or become joined or connected ▪ The handle attaches here on the top. — opposite DETACH
2 [+ obj] a : to associate or connect one thing with another — + to ▪ It's obvious in the way he dresses that he attaches great importance to appearance. [=he thinks appearance is very important] ▪ People attach different meanings to the poem. [=people understand the meaning of the poem in different ways] — often used as (be) attached ▪ Magical powers were once thought to be attached to the stone. [=the stone was once thought to have magical powers] ▪ Little credibility was attached to his story. [=people did not think that his story was very credible] b : to associate or connect (yourself) with someone or something — + to ▪ He attached himself to an older, wealthy woman. ▪ She attached herself to the cause. — often used as (be) attached ▪ His doctor is attached to the clinic. [=his doctor is associated with the clinic]

at•ta•ché /ˌætəˈʃeɪ, Brit əˈtæˌʃeɪ/ noun, pl -chés [count] : a person who works at an embassy as an expert on a particular subject ▪ a cultural/military attaché

attaché case noun, pl ~ cases [count] : a small, thin suitcase that is used especially for carrying papers and documents

at•tached /əˈtætʃt/ adj
1 : connected or joined to something ▪ Please fill out the attached application. ▪ Please see the document attached. ▪ The house has an attached garage.
2 [more ~; most ~] : emotionally connected : having strong feelings of affection ▪ She's quite attached to her cousin. [=she likes her cousin very much] ▪ We both became very attached to the cat.

at•tach•ment /əˈtætʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : an extra part that can be used with a machine to make it do a particular job ▪ The vacuum cleaner attachments help clean in tight spaces. ▪ I need a longer attachment for the drill.
2 : strong feelings of affection or loyalty for someone or something [count] — usually singular ▪ the baby's attachment to his mother ▪ They all have a deep attachment to the old house. [noncount] People need emotional attachment.
3 [count] : a document or file that is sent with e-mail ▪ I'll send the document as an attachment to my next e-mail.
4 a [count] : a part that is used to connect or attach something ▪ The attachments that connect the rack to the car are rusted and should be replaced. b [noncount] : the act of connecting or attaching something ▪ There are two brackets for attachment of the shelf.
on attachment Brit : working for a limited time in a particular place — usually + to ▪ She's on attachment to Australia for a month.

[1]at•tack /əˈtæk/ verb -tacks; -tacked; -tack•ing
1 : to act violently against (someone or something) : to try to hurt, injure, or destroy (something or someone) [+ obj] He attacked the guard with a knife. ▪ Troops attacked the fortress at dawn. — often used as (be) attacked ▪ He was attacked by a dog. ▪ He was attacked from behind by two men. [no obj] Suddenly, the dog attacked. ▪ The troops attacked at dawn.
2 [+ obj] : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh and severe way ▪ The study has been attacked as unscientific. [=people have criticized the study by saying that it is unscientific] ▪ People are attacking the mayor for breaking campaign promises. ▪ The professor has been widely attacked for her position on the issue.
3 [+ obj] a : to begin to work on or deal with (something, such as a problem) in a determined and eager way ▪ We eagerly attacked the problem. [=we eagerly tried to solve the problem] b : to begin to eat (food) eagerly ▪ Did you see the way the kids attacked that pizza?
4 [+ obj] : to begin to harm, injure, or destroy (something) ▪ The virus attacks the body's immune system. ▪ A number of trees have been attacked by the disease. ▪ Insects have attacked the crops.
5 sports : to try to score points or goals by moving forward in a very forceful way [no obj] The team attacked from the outset, so it was no surprise that they won. [+ obj] The offense attacked the weak defensive line.
– at•tack•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She was able to identify her attacker, and he was later brought to trial. ▪ The defense trapped the attacker and got the ball back.

[2]attack noun, pl -tacks
1 a [count] : a violent, harmful, or destructive act against someone or something ▪ dog/shark attacks = attacks by dogs/sharks ▪ One of the patients was the victim of a knife attack. [=an attack made using a knife] — often + on ▪ There have been a number of attacks on women on the campus. b : harmful or destructive action against something by a disease, insect, chemical, etc. [noncount] The immune system is the body's defense against attack by germs. [count] The spray protects plants from attacks by many common pests.
2 : an attempt by a military force to defeat an enemy : a military offensive [count] an air/ground attack = an attack made from the air/ground ▪ The surprise attack came at dawn. [noncount] There is a threat of nuclear attack.
3 [count] : strong or severe criticism ▪ There have been many attacks against the professor for her position on the issue. ▪ a verbal attack ▪ The newspaper editorial is an attack on policy-makers.
4 [count] : a sudden short period of suffering from an illness or of being affected by a strong emotion ▪ an asthma attack ▪ a panic/anxiety attack — often + of ▪ an attack of the flu ▪ an attack of food poisoning ▪ an attack of nerves/melancholy — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an attack of the giggles ▪ He had an unexpected attack of goodness and helped us out. — see also HEART ATTACK
5 [count] : an attempt to destroy or end something — often + on ▪ City leaders have called for an attack on poverty. ▪ Local schools are mounting an attack on racism.
6 : a method of dealing with something (such as a problem) [count] Each problem calls for a different attack. [noncount] The current approach isn't working. I think we need a new plan of attack. [=a new idea of how to do what we are trying to do]
7 sports a [count] : an attempt by a player or group of players to score points, goals, or runs — usually singular ▪ They had a sustained attack but could not score. ▪ The players carried the attack deep into the opponent's side of the field. ▪ They won the game in the last two innings with an 8-hit attack. [=they won the game by getting eight hits in the last two innings] b Brit : the players on a team who try to score : OFFENSE [singular] The team's attack has been weakened by injury. [noncount] He will play in attack. [=(US) on offense] on the attack : making an attack ▪ The soldiers were on the attack. [=were attacking the enemy] ▪ The team was on the attack [=was aggressively trying to score] for most of the first half. ▪ The team went on the attack [=began to attack] and quickly scored a goal. ▪ The candidate went on the at- tack and accused his opponent of lying. ▪ Opponents of the project went on the attack and defeated the land sale.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

under attack : being affected or hurt by an attack : being attacked ▪ The troops were under attack [=were being attacked by the enemy] throughout the day. ▪ The troops suddenly came under attack. [=began to be attacked] ▪ The new policy has come under attack [=has been strongly criticized] by environmentalists.

[3]attack adj, always used before a noun : designed for or used in a military attack ▪ an attack helicopter/submarine ▪ The bombers were in attack formation.

attack dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count]
1 : a dog that has been trained to attack people
2 : a person who is known for making very harsh and personal criticisms of other people ▪ The charges against the candidate were made by one of the governor's attack dogs.

at•tain /əˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal
1 : to accomplish or achieve (something) : to succeed in getting or doing (something) ▪ a quest to attain enlightenment ▪ She refused to let the injury keep her from attaining her goal of being in the Olympics.
2 : to grow or increase to (a particular amount, size, etc.) : REACH ▪ This kind of tree can attain a height of 20 feet within just a few years. ▪ The car can attain a top speed of 200 mph.
– at•tain•able /əˈteɪnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Be sure that the goals you set are attainable. [=achievable]

at•tain•ment /əˈteɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments formal
1 [noncount] : the state or condition of having gotten or done something difficult : the act of attaining something : ACHIEVEMENT ▪ She values educational attainment above all else. — often + of ▪ She is working toward the attainment of her goals. ▪ the attainment of enlightenment
2 [count] : something that has been gotten, done, or achieved through effort : ACHIEVEMENT ▪ Her scientific attainments have made her quite well-known in the field of biology.

[1]at•tempt /əˈtɛmpt/ verb -tempts; -tempt•ed; -tempt•ing [+ obj] : to try to do (something) : to try to accomplish or complete (something) ▪ They've attempted a climb up Mount Everest once before. ▪ She attempted suicide early in their marriage. — often followed by to + verb ▪ Do not attempt to repair the equipment without the proper tools. ▪ The book attempts to prove that they were not guilty.
– attempted adj ▪ an attempted robbery/murder/suicide

> synonyms ATTEMPT, TRY, ENDEAVOR, and STRIVE mean to make an effort to do or accomplish something. ATTEMPT is a basic word that sometimes stresses the beginning of this kind of effort. ▪ He will attempt to photograph the rare bird. TRY is very close to ATTEMPT but often stresses effort that is made to test or prove something. ▪ The team is trying to determine which fuel is less efficient overall. ENDEAVOR is a more formal word that usually suggests a serious and continuing effort. ▪ As a teacher, he endeavors to inspire a love of learning in his students. STRIVE suggests effort made over a long period of time in order to accomplish something difficult. ▪ Despite setbacks, we must continue to strive for peace.

[2]attempt noun, pl -tempts [count]
1 : an act of trying to do something ▪ In an attempt [=effort] to raise money, the school will begin charging admission to school concerts. ▪ She failed her driving test on the first attempt but she succeeded on her second attempt. ▪ We both made an attempt [=tried] to be friendly despite recent arguments. ▪ He made no attempt to apologize. [=he did not try to apologize] ▪ It was a successful attempt at climbing Mount Everest. = It was a successful attempt on Mount Everest. ✧ Attempt often suggests that the effort made was unsuccessful. ▪ a suicide attempt ▪ an assassination attempt
2 : something that results from trying to do something ▪ Her attempt at a home-cooked meal consisted of frozen fish sticks and a can of soup.
an attempt on someone's life : an act of trying to kill someone : a usually unsuccessful effort to kill someone ▪ Police report that there has been an attempt on the actor's life. ▪ Someone made an attempt on her life. [=someone tried to kill her]

at•tend /əˈtɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing
1 a : to go to and be present at (an event, meeting, etc.) [+ obj] My husband and I will both attend the banquet. ▪ How many people attended the baseball game? ▪ He won't be attending the conference. [no obj] How many people will be attending? ▪ One hundred people attended. b [+ obj] : to regularly go to (classes, church services, etc.) ▪ She attends a school in the city. ▪ He'll be attending the university in the fall. ▪ I am the first child in my family to attend college. ▪ We attend the same church.
2 [+ obj] a : to help or care for (someone, such as a patient) ▪ Each nurse attends 15 patients. b : to assist with (a birth) ▪ A midwife attended the birth. — see also ATTENDING 3 [+ obj] formal : to go with or be with (someone) as a helper or adviser ▪ ministers who attend the king ▪ She's attended by several assistants.
attend to [phrasal verb] attend to (someone or something) 1 : to deal with (something) ▪ Please excuse me. I must attend to some business. = Please excuse me. I've got some business I must attend to. 2 : to give needed help or attention to (someone or something) ▪ Volunteers attend to the park for the summer. ▪ The hotel staff attended to my every need. ▪ Please make sure that the guests are attended to.

at•ten•dance /əˈtɛndəns/ noun, pl -danc•es
1 : the number of people present at an event, meeting, etc. [noncount] The team wants to double attendance at its games this season. ▪ Attendance is down so far this season. [count] Museum attendances in the city have been increasing in recent years.
2 [noncount] a : the act of being present at a place ▪ Attendance (at all classes) is mandatory. b : a record of how often a person goes to classes, meetings, etc. ▪ Her grades are good, but how's her attendance? ▪ a student who has perfect attendance [=a student who has been present at every class] ▪ The teacher takes attendance [=makes a record of who is present] every day.
in attendance 1 : present at an event, meeting, etc. ▪ Everyone in attendance voted in favor of the measure. ▪ A number of celebrities were in attendance. 2 : caring for or helping someone who is giving giving birth or getting medical treatment ▪ Who was in attendance at the birth? ▪ midwives/doctors in attendance

[1]at•ten•dant /əˈtɛndənt/ noun, pl -dants [count]
1 : an assistant or servant ▪ a bride and her attendants [=bridesmaids] ▪ the royal family's attendants
2 : an employee who serves or helps customers ▪ gas station attendants ▪ She let the parking attendant park her car. — see also FLIGHT ATTENDANT

[2]attendant adj, formal : coming with or following as a result ▪ The town is trying to deal with the population boom and the attendant increase in traffic. — often + on or upon ▪ the problems attendant on/upon the introduction of new technology at•tend•ee /əˌtɛnˈdi:/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who is present at an event, meeting, etc., or at a particular place ▪ There were 300 attendees at the conference.

at•tend•er /əˈtɛndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : ATTENDEE ▪ They are frequent/regular attenders at the church.

at•tend•ing /əˈtɛndɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : serving as a doctor on the staff of a hospital who regularly visits and treats patients and is in charge of other staff members ▪ an attending physician/surgeon at•ten•tion /əˈtɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : the act or power of carefully thinking about, listening to, or watching someone or something [noncount] We focused our attention on this particular poem. ▪ My attention wasn't really on the game. ▪ The game was boring and my attention began to wander. [=I was losing interest in the game and started thinking about other things] ▪ You need to pay more attention in school. ▪ Please give me your undivided/full/complete attention. [=please listen carefully and concentrate on what I am saying and doing] ▪ The movie keeps/holds your attention [=interest] right to the very end. — often + to ▪ Her job requires careful attention to detail. ▪ You need to pay more attention to the teacher. ▪ Don't pay any attention to what the other kids say. [=ignore what the other kids say] ▪ It's time to turn/give our attention to the next project. ▪ Pay (close/careful) attention to what he says. [count] (US) Lately she's been focusing her attentions on making sales. ✧ This sense is sometimes used as an interjection. ▪ Attention, please! [=please give me your attention]
2 [noncount] : notice, interest, or awareness ▪ She likes all the attention she is getting from the media/press. ▪ The actor avoids drawing attention to himself. ▪ The book has received/attracted national attention. ▪ The trial is getting a lot of public attention. ▪ The children were competing for the teacher's

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 92 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

attention. ▪ A cat on a leash is sure to attract attention. ▪ Your hard work and dedication have not escaped my attention. [=I have noticed your hard work and dedication] ▪ The book's title grabbed/caught my attention. [=the title caused me to look at the book] ▪ He was trying to divert/distract attention away from his friend's mistake. [=he was trying to keep people from noticing or thinking about his friend's mistake] ▪ We tried to attract/get your attention [=we tried to get you to see us], but you didn't hear us calling you. ▪ Thank you for bringing the matter to my attention. [=making me aware of the matter] ▪ It has been brought to my attention [=I've been made aware] that the meeting has been canceled. ▪ I would like to call/bring your attention to a problem we are having. ▪ It came to my attention [=I noticed] that several items were missing from my office. ▪ It has come to my attention [=I have been made aware] that some people were offended by my comments. ▪ He loves being the center of attention. [=he loves being noticed and watched by many people]

3 [noncount] : special care or treatment ▪ Be sure the dog gets plenty of attention. ▪ The house is in good shape, but the porch needs some attention. ▪ The victim needed immediate medical attention.

4 attentions [plural] : acts of kindness, care, or courtesy : acts that show affection or admiration for someone ▪ She found his attentions flattering. ▪ She has been receiving unwanted attentions from a coworker.

5 [noncount] : the way a soldier stands with the body stiff and straight, the feet together, and both arms at the sides — often used as a command ▪ Attention!

at attention 1 or to attention : standing silently with the body stiff and straight, the feet together, and both arms at the sides ▪ (US) The troops stood at attention. = (Brit) The troops stood to attention. — compare at ease at [1]EASE 2 : in a position that shows careful listening or attention ▪ The dog sat at attention, listening for something in the distance.

attention deficit disorder noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which someone (such as a child) has problems with learning and behavior because of being unable to think about or pay attention to things for very long — abbr. ADD attention span noun, pl ~ spans [count] : the length of time during which someone is able to think about or remain interested in something ▪ people with short attention spans at•ten•tive /əˈtɛntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : thinking about or watching something carefully : paying careful attention to something ▪ Attentive [=observant] readers might notice some mistakes in the book. ▪ an attentive audience — often + to ▪ He's very attentive to details.

2 : very concerned about the needs of others ▪ The hospital is proud of its attentive staff. ▪ Our waiter was very attentive.

– at•ten•tive•ly adv ▪ The audience listened/watched attentively. – at•ten•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ We appreciated the attentiveness of the hospital staff.

at•ten•u•ate /əˈtɛnjəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something) weaker or less in amount, effect, or force ▪ Earplugs will attenuate the loud sounds of the machinery. ▪ an attenuated virus

– at•ten•u•a•tion /əˌtɛnjəˈweɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

at•test /əˈtɛst/ verb -tests; -test•ed; -test•ing formal : to show, prove, or state that something is true or real [no obj] — usually + to ▪ I can attest to the truth of his statement. ▪ The popularity of the treatment attests to its effectiveness. [=shows that it is effective] [+ obj] I can attest that what he has said is true. ▪ The certificate attests the authenticity of the painting. ▪ He was asked to attest [=authenticate] the will/signature. — often used as (be) attested ▪ The plant's presence in the ancient world is attested by fossils that have been found. ▪ the first attested written language – at•tes•ta•tion /ˌæˌtɛsˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] the first attestations of written language [noncount] The signature required attestation.

at•tic /ˈætɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] : a room or space that is just below the roof of a building and that is often used to store things at•tire /əˈtajə/ noun [noncount] formal : clothing ▪ beach/business/golf attire ▪ Proper attire is required at the restaurant.

at•tired /əˈtajəd/ adj, formal : dressed in a particular way ▪ an elegantly attired gentleman ▪ Both were attired in the distinctive uniform.

at•ti•tude /ˈætəˌtuːd, Brit ˈætəˌtjuːd/ noun, pl -tudes

1 [count] : the way you think and feel about someone or something ▪ He has a positive/negative attitude about the changes. — often + to, toward, or towards ▪ I don't understand your attitude to money. ▪ She's studying how attitudes toward death vary from culture to culture. ▪ He wants to change the hostile attitude they have toward technology.

2 [count] : a feeling or way of thinking that affects a person's behavior ▪ He has an aggressive/rebellious attitude. [=he behaves toward other people in an aggressive/rebellious way] ▪ She's friendly and has a good attitude. ▪ You need to change your bad attitude. ▪ There's been a change/shift in his attitude since his accident. ▪ She has an attitude problem. [=she is not friendly or cooperative]

3 informal a : a way of thinking and behaving that people regard as unfriendly, rude, etc. [count] I don't know what her problem is. She has a real attitude. ▪ I suggest you get rid of that attitude and shape up. [noncount] He was showing some attitude during practice today, so the coach benched him. b [noncount] : a strong, confident, or impressive quality ▪ a band/movie with attitude

4 [count] formal : a particular way of positioning your body ▪ She bowed her head in an attitude of prayer.

cop an attitude see [2]COP at•ti•tu•di•nal /ˌætəˈtuːdənəl, Brit ˌætəˈtjuːdənəl/ adj, formal : relating to, based on, or showing a person's opinions and feelings ▪ attitudinal changes/judgments

attn. abbr attention

at•tor•ney /əˈtəni/ noun, pl -neys [count] chiefly US : LAWYER — see also DISTRICT ATTORNEY, POWER OF ATTORNEY, STATE ATTORNEY attorney at law noun, pl attorneys at law [count] chiefly US, formal : LAWYER — used chiefly as a title ▪ John Smith, Attorney at Law

attorney general noun, pl attorneys general or attorney generals [count] : the chief lawyer of a country or state who represents the government in legal matters at•tract /əˈtrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cause (someone) to choose to do or be involved in something ▪ The company has a difficult time attracting good employees because of its poor pay and benefits. ▪ The chance to travel around the world attracted me to a career as a flight attendant. b : to cause (someone) to like or be interested in something — usually used as (be) attracted ▪ He is attracted to hockey because of the constant action of the game. ▪ I was attracted by the town's vibrant art community.

2 : to cause (someone or something) to go to or move to or toward a place ▪ The museum attracts visitors from all over the world. ▪ The smell of freshly baked cookies attracted the children (to the kitchen). ▪ The scent will attract certain insects. ▪ Certain insects are attracted by the scent.

3 : to cause sexual or romantic feeling in (someone or something) ▪ Short men attract her. ▪ Her bright blue eyes attracted me. ▪ The bird's colorful feathers are used to attract a mate. — often used as (be) attracted ▪ She is attracted to short men. ▪ I was attracted by her bright blue eyes. ▪ I felt very attracted to her. — see also opposites attract at [3]OPPOSITE

4 : to cause (a particular reaction) : to get or create (attention, notice, interest, etc.) ▪ The trial is attracting a lot of attention. ▪ Her comment attracted criticism. ▪ The bird uses its call to attract the attention of a mate.

5 physics : to pull (something) to or toward something else ▪ A magnet attracts iron.

at•trac•tion /əˈtrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] a : something interesting or enjoyable that people want to visit, see, or do ▪ The waterfall continues to be the main attraction at the park. ▪ The town's big attraction for movie lovers is the annual film festival. ▪ Buses take visitors to all the city's best tourist attractions. [=things tourists usually like to see or do] ✧ A coming attraction is a movie, show, or other interesting thing that is going to happen or be available soon. ▪ Before the movie began, we saw previews of coming attractions. b : a performer who people want to see ▪ She is the star attraction of the show.

2 [singular] : a feeling that makes someone romantically or sexually interested in another person ▪ There's a strong sexual attraction between them. ▪ His attraction to her grew over the course of their time together.

3 : a feature or quality that makes someone or something interesting or enjoyable [noncount] A good relationship is based on more than just physical attraction. [count] I understand the attraction of skydiving, but I could never do it. ▪ What are the attractions of owning your own business?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 93 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

4 physics : a force that pulls something to or toward something else [noncount] magnetic/gravitational attraction [count] attractions among particles — opposite REPULSION at·trac·tive /əˈtræktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having a pleasing appearance ▪ an attractive flower arrangement ▪ He has an attractive [=charming] smile.; especially : having a pleasing appearance that causes romantic or sexual feelings in someone : GOOD-LOOKING ▪ An attractive woman greeted us at the door. ▪ I've never really found him attractive. [=I have never been attracted to him]
2 : having a feature or quality that people like ▪ It is a very attractive [=appealing] offer/proposition, but I can't accept it at this time. ▪ The camera has many attractive features at a very attractive price. — often + to ▪ His ideas are attractive to many people. [=many people like his ideas]
– at·trac·tive·ly adv ▪ The flowers are attractively arranged. ▪ an attractively priced camera – at·trac·tive·ness noun [noncount] ▪ sexual/physical attractiveness at·trib·ut·able /əˈtrɪbjutəbəl/ adj, not used before a noun : caused by a particular thing — + to ▪ His health problems are attributable to a poor diet and lack of exercise.

[1]at·trib·ute /əˈtrɪˌbju:t/ verb -utes; -ut·ed; -ut·ing attribute to [phrasal verb] attribute (something) to (someone or something) 1 : to say that (something) is because of (someone or something) ▪ He attributes his success to his coach. [=he credits his success to his coach] ▪ His doctor attributes his health problems to a poor diet and a lack of exercise. 2 : to think of (something) as being a quality of (someone or something) ▪ The study suggests that it is a mistake to attribute adult reasoning to children. ▪ Is it right to attribute complex emotions to animals? ▪ She attributed some importance to the research. 3 : to think of (something) as being made or created by (someone) ▪ The poem is usually attributed to Shakespeare, but some scholars doubt that he wrote it.
– at·tri·bu·tion /ˌætrəˈbju:ʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] The attribution of the poem to Shakespeare is questioned by some scholars. [count] The identified causes were later found to be mistaken attributions.

[2]at·tri·bute /ˈætrəˌbju:t/ noun, pl -butes [count] : a usually good quality or feature that someone or something has ▪ The interviewer asked me what I consider to be my best attribute. ▪ Both candidates possess the attributes we want in a leader.

at·trib·u·tive /əˈtrɪbjətɪv/ adj, grammar : joined directly to a noun in order to describe it ▪ "Red" in "red hair" is an attributive adjective. ▪ In "airplane pilot" the noun "airplane" is attributive. — compare [3]PREDICATE – at·trib·u·tive·ly adv ▪ The noun "city" in "city streets" is used attributively.

at·tri·tion /əˈtrɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal
1 chiefly US : a reduction in the number of employees or participants that occurs when people leave because they resign, retire, etc., and are not replaced ▪ The staff has been thinned through attrition. [=the staff has become smaller because people have left] ▪ Attrition is high among social workers because of the difficult work and poor pay. ▪ a growing attrition rate = a growing rate of attrition — called also (Brit) natural wastage
2 : the act or process of weakening and gradually defeating an enemy through constant attacks and continued pressure over a long period of time — used especially in the phrase war of attrition ▪ They can only gain victory by fighting a long war of attrition.

at·tune /əˈtu:n, Brit əˈtju:n/ verb -tunes; -tuned; -tun·ing [+ obj] : to cause (a person, company, etc.) to have a better understanding of what is needed or wanted by a particular person or group — usually + to ▪ It is important to attune the company to the needs of its customers. — often used as (be) attuned ▪ The company is attuned to the needs of its customers. ▪ He is more attuned to the political climate of the region.

atty. abbr attorney

atty. gen. abbr attorney general

ATV /ˌeɪˌti:ˈvi:/ noun, pl ATVs [count] : ALL-TERRAIN VEHICLE

atwit·ter /əˈtwɪtɚ/ adj, not used before a noun : nervously excited ▪ It was a book that set the publishing world all atwitter. [=caused excitement in the publishing world]

atyp·i·cal /eɪˈtɪpɪkəl/ adj : not typical : not usual or normal ▪ an atypical case ▪ This book is atypical of her previous work. [=is not like her previous work]
– atyp·i·cal·ly /eɪˈtɪpɪkli/ adv ▪ We had an atypically [=unusually] leisurely lunch that afternoon.

au·ber·gine /ˈoʊbɚˌʒi:n/ noun, pl -gines [count] Brit : EGGPLANT

au·burn /ˈɑ:bɚn/ adj : reddish brown ▪ auburn hair

au cou·rant /ˌoʊkʊˈrɑ:nt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : knowing about the newest information, trends, etc. ▪ I try to stay au courant with the latest developments in the industry.
2 : stylish or current ▪ au courant fashions

[1]auc·tion /ˈɑ:kʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a public sale at which things are sold to the people who offer to pay the most [count] She bought the desk at an auction. ▪ He made several bids at the auction. [noncount] The house is being sold at auction. = The house is up for auction. ▪ She works as an auctioneer at an auction house. [=a business that runs auctions] on the auction block see [1]BLOCK

[2]auction verb -tions; -tioned; -tion·ing [+ obj] : to sell (something) at an auction ▪ They auctioned a similar desk last year. ▪ The house was auctioned last week. — often + off ▪ The house was auctioned off last week.

auc·tion·eer /ˌɑ:kʃəˈniɚ/ noun, pl -eers [count] : a person who runs an auction ▪ The auctioneer started the bidding at $100.

au·da·cious /ɑˈdeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very confident and daring : very bold and surprising or shocking ▪ They have audacious plans for the new school. ▪ This is her most audacious film so far. ▪ She made an audacious decision to quit her job. ▪ shockingly audacious behavior
– au·da·cious·ly adv ▪ He audaciously disregarded all of their concerns. – au·da·cious·ness noun [noncount] ▪ the audaciousness [=(more commonly) audacity] of their plans au·dac·i·ty /ɑˈdæsəti/ noun [noncount] : a confident and daring quality that is often seen as shocking or rude : an audacious quality ▪ I could not believe their audacity. ▪ He had the audacity to suggest that it was all my fault.

au·di·ble /ˈɑ:dəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : heard or able to be heard ▪ Her voice was barely audible over the noise. ▪ He let out an audible sigh. ▪ a clearly audible sound — opposite INAUDIBLE
– au·di·bil·i·ty /ˌɑ:dəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] – au·di·bly /ˈɑ:dəbli/ adv ▪ He sighed audibly.

au·di·ence /ˈɑ:dijəns/ noun, pl -enc·es [count]
1 : a group of people who gather together to listen to something (such as a concert) or watch something (such as a movie or play) : the people who attend a performance ▪ The concert attracted a large audience. ▪ The audience clapped and cheered. ▪ an audience member = a member of the audience
2 : the people who watch, read, or listen to something ▪ The film is intended for a young audience. [=is intended for young viewers] ▪ Her books have reached an audience of millions. [=have been read by millions of people] ▪ Her audience is made up mostly of young women.
3 : a formal meeting with an important person — usually singular ▪ They were granted an audience with the Pope.

[1]au·dio /ˈɑ:diˌoʊ/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the sound that is heard on a recording or broadcast ▪ The school has new audio equipment. [=equipment used for recording sound or listening to recorded sound] ▪ The audio portion of the broadcast was fine but the picture was poor. ▪ They listened to an audio recording of the speech.

[2]audio noun [noncount] : the sound that is heard on a recording or broadcast ▪ The picture was clear but the audio was very poor.

audio- combining form : relating to hearing or sound ▪ *audio*visual audio book noun, pl ~ books [count] : a recording of a book or magazine being read ▪ I listen to audio books when I drive to work.

au·dio·tape /ˈɑ:dijoʊˌteɪp/ noun, pl -tapes : tape on which sound is recorded [noncount] The program was recorded on audiotape. [count] a collection of audiotapes — compare VIDEOTAPE

au·dio·vi·su·al /ˌɑ:dijoʊˈvɪʒəwəl/ adj : of, relating to, or using both sound and sight ▪ The school will buy new audiovisual equipment. ▪ audiovisual (teaching) aids — abbr. AV

[1]au·dit /ˈɑ:dət/ noun, pl -dits
1 : a complete and careful examination of the financial records of a business or person [count] The audit showed that the company had mislead investors. ▪ The Internal Revenue Service selected us for an audit. [noncount] You will need all your records if you are selected for audit by the IRS.
2 [count] : a careful check or review of something ▪ Our local

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 94 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a power company will perform an energy audit [=survey, inspection] of our house. ▪ Investigators called for an audit [=review, analysis] of flight safety standards.

A

2audit verb -dits; -dit·ed; -dit·ing [+ obj]
1 : to check the financial records of (a business or person) : to perform an audit on (a business or person) ▪ They audit the company books every year. ▪ The Internal Revenue Service audited him twice in 10 years.
2 US : to attend a course at a college or university without having to do any of the course work and without receiving credit ▪ I audited an English literature class last semester.

1au·di·tion /ɑˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a short performance to show the talents of someone (such as an actor or a musician) who is being considered for a role in a play, a position in an orchestra, etc. — often + for ▪ Auditions will be held next week for the spring musical. ▪ He went to an audition for a new TV show. ▪ She had an audition for the starring role but wound up with a bit part.

2audition verb -tions; -tioned; -tion·ing
1 [no obj] of a performer : to try out for a role in a play or film, a position in an orchestra, etc. : to perform in an audition ▪ When he came in to audition, he was very charming. — usually + for ▪ She auditioned for the starring role.
2 [+ obj] : to test (someone) in an audition ▪ They auditioned several girls for the role. ▪ We will audition dancers today.

au·di·tor /ˈɑːdətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who checks the financial records of a company or person to make sure they are accurate : a person who audits accounts

au·di·to·ri·um /ˌɑːdəˈtorijəm/ noun, pl -to·ri·ums also -to·ria /-ˈtorijə/ [count]
1 US : a large room or building where people gather to watch a performance, hear a speech, etc.
2 : the part of a building (such as a theater) where an audience sits au·di·to·ry /ˈɑːdəˌtori, Brit ˈɔːdətri/ adj, technical : relating to hearing or the ears ▪ The patient has damage to the auditory nerve.

au fait /ˌoʊˈfeɪ/ adj, not used before a noun, chiefly Brit : completely familiar with or informed about something — usually + with ▪ I'm not au fait with all the latest technology. ▪ They're completely au fait with the situation.

Aug. abbr August

au·ger /ˈɑːgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a sharp tool that is used chiefly for making holes aught /ˈɑːt/ pronoun, literary + old-fashioned : ANYTHING ▪ For aught I know [=for all I know], he could have left an hour ago. [=I don't know when he left] aug·ment /ɑgˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment·ed; -ment·ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to increase the size or amount of (something) ▪ The money augmented his fortune. ▪ Heavy rains augmented the water supply. — often used as (be) augmented ▪ The impact of the report was augmented by its timing. ▪ The army was augmented by additional troops.
2 US : to add something to (something) in order to improve or complete it ▪ Job training will augment [=supplement] the class work.
– aug·men·ta·tion /ˌɑːgmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

au gra·tin /oʊˈgrɑːtn/ adj : covered with bread crumbs or cheese and then baked until brown ▪ They served potatoes au gratin with the fish. ▪ au gratin potatoes

au·gur /ˈɑːgə/ verb -gurs; -gured; -gur·ing formal : to show or suggest something that might happen in the future [no obj] The change augurs [=bodes] ill/badly for the success of the business. [=the change suggests that the business will not succeed] ▪ The decision doesn't augur well. [+ obj] This bad news could augur [=bode] disaster for all of us.

au·gust /ɑˈgʌst/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a formal and impressive quality ▪ We visited their august mansion and expansive grounds. ▪ The family claims an august lineage.

Au·gust /ˈɑːgəst/ noun, pl -gusts : the eighth month of the year [noncount] We are taking our vacation in August. ▪ in (early/middle/mid-/late) August ▪ early/late in August ▪ We arrived on August the fourth. = (US) We arrived on August fourth. = We arrived on the fourth of August. [count] The last two Augusts have been very dry. — abbr. Aug.

auk /ˈɑːk/ noun, pl auks [count] : a black-and-white seabird of northern oceans auld lang syne /ˌoʊldˌlæŋˈzaɪn/ noun [singular] : the good old times ▪ They drank a toast to auld lang syne. ✧ Auld lang syne comes from the name of a Scottish song that is traditionally sung at midnight on New Year's Eve.

au na·tu·rel /ˌoʊˌnætəˈrɛl/ adj : in a natural state : without anything added ▪ She wears makeup for special occasions, but otherwise prefers an au naturel look. ▪ Some of the sunbathers were au naturel. [=nude] aunt /ˈænt, ˈɑːnt/ noun, pl aunts [count] : the sister of your father or mother or the wife of your uncle ▪ He has three aunts and two uncles. ▪ This is my Aunt Mary.

aunt·ie /ˈænti, ˈɑːnti/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : AUNT ▪ The children were happy to see their Auntie Mary.

au pair /ˈoʊˈpeə/ noun, pl ~ pairs [count] : a young person (usually a young woman) from a foreign country who lives with a family and helps to care for children and do housework in return for the opportunity to learn the family's language

au·ra /ˈorə/ noun, pl -ras [count] : a special quality or feeling that seems to come from a person, place, or thing — usually + of ▪ His presence brought an aura of dignity to the proceedings. ▪ The garden has an aura [=atmosphere] of mystery and romance.

au·ral /ˈorəl/ adj : relating to the ear or sense of hearing ▪ visual and aural sensations
– au·ral·ly adv ▪ The performance was both visually and aurally appealing.

au re·voir /ˌorəˈvwɑə/ interj : GOODBYE ▪ Au revoir, my friends!

au·ro·ra aus·tra·lis /əˈrorəəˈstreɪləs/ noun [singular] : SOUTHERN LIGHTS

au·ro·ra bo·re·al·is /əˈrorəˌborɪˈæləs, Brit əˈrɔrəˌbɔrɪˈeɪləs/ noun [singular] : NORTHERN LIGHTS

Aus. abbr Austria, Austrian

aus·pic·es /ˈɑːspəsəz/ noun
under the auspices of formal : with the help and support of (someone or something) ▪ The donation was made under the auspices of the local historical society. ▪ The research is being done under the auspices of the federal government.

aus·pi·cious /ɑˈspɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing or suggesting that future success is likely ▪ It was an auspicious [=favorable, promising] time to open a new business. ▪ His acclaimed first novel was an auspicious debut. — opposite INAUSPICIOUS
– aus·pi·cious·ly adv – aus·pi·cious·ness noun [noncount]

Aus·sie /ˈɑːsi, Brit ˈɒzi/ noun, pl -sies [count] informal : a person who lives in or is from Australia : AUSTRALIAN – Aussie adj

aus·tere /ɑˈstɪə/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : simple or plain : not fancy ▪ They choose austere furnishings for the office. ▪ He was known for his austere style of writing.
2 of a person : having a serious and unfriendly quality ▪ Her father was an austere [=stern, unapproachable] figure.
3 : having few pleasures : simple and harsh ▪ They lived an austere life in the country.
– aus·tere·ly adv ▪ an austerely furnished office

aus·ter·i·ty /ɑˈsterəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : a simple and plain quality : an austere quality ▪ the austerity of the design ▪ The austerity of their lifestyle was surprising.
2 [noncount] : a situation in which there is not much money and it is spent only on things that are necessary ▪ They lived through years of austerity after the war. — often used before another noun ▪ The government has announced a series of austerity measures. [=things done to save money during difficult economic times] ▪ an austerity program
3 austerities [plural] : things that are done to live in a simple and plain way ▪ the austerities practiced by monks

Aus·tra·lian /ɑˈstreɪljən/ noun, pl -lians [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Australia
– Australian adj ▪ an Australian writer ▪ Australian history/English

Austrian /ˈɑːstrijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Austria – Austrian adj ▪ an Austrian custom ▪ Austrian history

au·then·tic /əˈθɛntɪk/ adj
1 : real or genuine : not copied or false ▪ We saw authentic examples of ancient Roman sculpture. ▪ The document is authentic. ▪ Experts have confirmed that the signature on the letter is authentic.
2 : true and accurate ▪ The witness provided an authentic

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 95 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

record/report/account of what actually took place.
3 [more ~; most ~] : made to be or look just like an original ▪ The actors were dressed in authentic medieval costumes. [=costumes that looked just like real medieval clothes] ▪ She prepared a very authentic Mexican meal. ▪ The building is an authentic reproduction of a colonial farmhouse.
– au•then•ti•cal•ly /ə'θɛntɪkli/ adv ▪ authentically prepared Mexican food – au•then•tic•i•ty /ˌɑːˌθɛn'tɪsəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ We checked the authenticity of the signature.

au•then•ti•cate /ə'θɛntɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to prove that something is real, true, or genuine : to prove that something is authentic ▪ Experts authenticated the painting. ▪ The signature has been authenticated.
– au•then•ti•ca•tion /əˌθɛntɪ'keɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ authentication of the documents

[1]au•thor /'ɑːθə/ noun, pl -thors [count]
1 : a person who has written something ▪ The author of the article didn't check his facts.; especially : a person who has written a book or who writes many books ▪ I enjoyed the book, but I can't remember the name of the/its author. ▪ a best-selling author [=writer]
2 : a person who starts or creates something (such as a plan or idea) ▪ She is the author of a plan for reforming the school system.

[2]author verb -thors; -thored; -thor•ing [+ obj] : to be the author of (something, such as a book) ▪ He has authored [=written] several best-selling novels. ▪ She authored [=wrote] several articles for the magazine.

au•thor•ess /'ɑːθərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a woman who is an author ▪ a famous authoress

au•thor•i•tar•i•an /əˌθɔrə'terijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : expecting or requiring people to obey rules or laws : not allowing personal freedom ▪ They had authoritarian parents. ▪ an authoritarian government/regime – authoritarian noun, pl -ans [count] ▪ His father was an authoritarian. – au•thor•i•tar•i•an•ism /əˌθɔrə'terijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ Students protested against the government's authoritarianism.

au•thor•i•ta•tive /ə'θɔrəˌteɪtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing impressive knowledge about a subject ▪ He is an authoritative [=reliable, accurate] source for information about Islamic art. ▪ The book is an authoritative guide to the city's restaurants.
2 : having the confident quality of someone who is respected or obeyed by other people ▪ His manner is polite but authoritative. ▪ She addressed the group with an authoritative voice.
– au•thor•i•ta•tive•ly adv ▪ She spoke authoritatively [=with authority] about the history of the building.

au•thor•i•ty /ə'θɔrəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the power to give orders or make decisions : the power or right to direct or control someone or something ▪ Only department managers have the authority [=right, power] to change the schedule. ▪ Does he have the authority to do this? = (US) Does he have authority to do this? ▪ This office has authority over personnel matters. [=this office has the power to make decisions about personnel matters] ▪ You don't have authority over me. [=you don't have the power to give me orders] ▪ The boss is not popular but his authority is unquestioned. ▪ "Who gave him the authority to do this?" "He didn't do it on his own authority [=he didn't do it on his own]; he was acting under the authority of the company president." [=the company president gave him the power to do it] ▪ No one in authority objected to the plan. = No one in a position of authority objected to the plan. [=no one with official power to make important decisions objected to the plan] ▪ a figure of authority = an authority figure [=a person who has authority over other people] synonyms see [1]POWER
2 [noncount] a : the confident quality of someone who knows a lot about something or who is respected or obeyed by other people ▪ She has an air of authority. ▪ She spoke with authority [=authoritatively] about the history of the building. b : a quality that makes something seem true or real ▪ His sincerity added much more authority [=credibility] to the story. ▪ Her southern accent lent authority to her performance. ▪ His opinions lacked authority.
3 authorities [plural] : people who have power to make decisions and enforce rules and laws ▪ We reported the incident to hospital authorities. ▪ Local authorities are investigating the accident. — often used with the ▪ He complained to the authorities [=the police] about the disturbance.
4 [count] : a person who is an expert on a subject — usually + on ▪ He is an authority on local history. [=he knows a lot about local history]
5 [count] : a government organization that has control of a specified activity or area ▪ She is the director of the city's housing authority.
have it on good/excellent authority ✧ If you have it on good/excellent authority that something is true, you have been told that it is true by someone you trust and believe. ▪ I have it on good authority that she is writing a novel.

au•tho•rize also Brit au•tho•rise /'ɑːθəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give power or permission to (someone or something) ▪ Only authorized personnel [=people who have been given special permission] can enter this area. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I authorized him to use my name. ▪ She was authorized [=empowered] to act for her husband.
2 : to give legal or official approval to or for (something) ▪ The city council authorized the sale of the land. ▪ Who authorized the transfer of the funds? ▪ an authorized biography
– au•tho•ri•za•tion also Brit au•tho•ri•sa•tion /ˌɑːθərə'zeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] Authorization [=permission] is required to enter the building after hours. [count] I can't approve the request without a written authorization.

au•thor•ship /'ɑːθəˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount]
1 : the identity of the person who has written something ▪ The novel is of unknown authorship. [=the author/writer of the novel is unknown]
2 : the job or profession of writing ▪ His first attempt at authorship failed.

au•tism /'ɑːˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition or disorder that begins in childhood and that causes problems in forming relationships and in communicating with other people
– au•tis•tic /ɑ'tɪstɪk/ adj ▪ an autistic child – autistic noun, pl -tics [count] ▪ Their child is an autistic.

au•to /'ɑːtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos [count] chiefly US : AUTOMOBILE ▪ a rusty auto — usually used before another noun ▪ an auto accident/dealer/mechanic/show ▪ auto parts/makers

auto- combining form
1 : self : same one ▪ *auto*biography
2 : automatic : acting by itself ▪ *auto*pilot

au•to•bi•og•ra•phy /ˌɑːtəbaɪ'ɑːgrəfi/ noun, pl -phies [count] : a biography written by the person it is about ▪ I read her autobiography last year.
– au•to•bi•og•ra•pher /ˌɑːtəbaɪ'ɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] – au•to•bio•graph•i•cal /ˌɑːtəbajə'græfɪkəl/ also au•to•bio•graph•ic /ˌɑːtəbajə'græfɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very autobiographical novel [=a novel that is closely based on the life of the person who wrote it]

au•toc•ra•cy /ɑ'tɑːkrəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : a form of government in which a country is ruled by a person or group with total power
2 [count] : a country that is ruled by a person or group with total power

au•to•crat /'ɑːtəˌkræt/ noun, pl -crats [count] : a person who rules with total power
– au•to•crat•ic /ˌɑːtə'krætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The country is run by an autocratic government/ruler. ▪ The company's employees disliked the new chairman's autocratic style.

[1]au•to•graph /'ɑːtəˌgræf, Brit 'ɔːtəˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] : the signature of a famous person ▪ We asked her for her autograph. ▪ He collects autographs. ▪ There were several autograph seekers/hounds outside the theater. ▪ I asked her to sign my autograph book. [=a book with blank pages for people to sign]

[2]autograph verb -graphs; -graphed; -graph•ing [+ obj] of a famous person : to write your signature in or on (something) ▪ We asked her to autograph [=sign] her photograph/book.
– autographed adj ▪ She gave him an autographed copy of the new novel. ▪ an autographed photo

au•to•mak•er /'ɑːtoʊˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -mak•ers [count] US : a company that makes and sells cars : an automobile manufacturer ▪ new models being offered by American automakers [=carmakers]

automata plural of AUTOMATON

au•to•mate /'ɑːtəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing : to run or operate (something, such as a factory or system) by using machines, computers, etc., instead of people to do the work [+ obj] The company recently automated its filing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 96 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

process. ▪ a factory that has yet to be automated [no obj] a factory that has yet to automate ▪ When companies automate, employees lose jobs.
– automated adj ▪ an automated office system ▪ a fully/highly automated factory ▪ automated equipment/machinery – au•to•ma•tion /ˌɑːtəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the automation of the factory automated teller noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : ATM automated teller machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] US : ATM

[1]au•to•mat•ic /ˌɑːtəˈmætɪk/ adj
1 of a machine or device : having controls that allow something to work or happen without being directly controlled by a person ▪ an automatic door [=a door that opens without being pushed] ▪ an automatic coffeemaker [=a coffeemaker that can be programmed to start and shut off by itself] ▪ I can't drive her car because it has a manual transmission instead of an automatic transmission. [=a system that changes gears at different speeds without direct control by the driver]
2 of a gun : shooting many bullets very quickly when the trigger is pulled ▪ an automatic machine gun ▪ an automatic rifle/weapon — compare SEMIAUTOMATIC
3 [more ~; most ~] : happening or done without deliberate thought or effort ▪ Without thinking, he gave an automatic reply. ▪ She always has an automatic smile for everyone.
4 : always happening because of a rule, law, previous agreement, etc. ▪ He had to pay a fine and serve an automatic 3-game suspension.
– au•to•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌɑːtəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ The garage doors open automatically. ▪ The fee will be automatically added to the bill. ▪ Each individual winner automatically qualifies for the grand prize, which will be drawn at the end of the month. ▪ She has her pay check automatically deposited.

[2]automatic noun, pl -ics [count]
1 : a gun that shoots many bullets very quickly : an automatic weapon
2 : a vehicle that changes gears by itself at different speeds : a car with automatic transmission ▪ Will your next car be a manual or an automatic?

automatic pilot noun, pl ~ -lots [count, noncount] : AUTOPILOT

automatic teller noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : ATM

automatic teller machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] US : ATM

au•tom•a•ton /ɑˈtɑːmətən/ noun, pl au•tom•a•tons or au•tom•a•ta /-ətə/ [count]
1 : a machine that can move by itself; especially : ROBOT
2 : a person who acts in a mechanical or machinelike way ▪ an unfeeling automaton

au•to•mo•bile /ˌɑːtəmoʊˈbiːl/ noun, pl -biles [count] US : a vehicle used for carrying passengers on streets and roads : CAR ▪ He drives an expensive automobile. — often used before another noun ▪ She was in an automobile accident. ▪ automobile insurance ▪ an automobile manufacturer

au•to•mo•tive /ˌɑːtəˈmoʊtɪv/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or concerned with cars and other vehicles ▪ the automotive industry ▪ The store stocks automotive parts.

au•ton•o•mous /ɑˈtɑːnəməs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : existing or acting separately from other things or people : INDEPENDENT ▪ autonomous [=distinct, unrelated] historical events ▪ an autonomous [=separate] women's studies program ▪ Many disabled children become autonomous [=self-sufficient] adults.
2 : having the power or right to govern itself ▪ an autonomous region/republic/territory – au•ton•o•mous•ly adv ▪ elderly people who live autonomously ▪ a region that operates autonomously

au•ton•o•my /ɑˈtɑːnəmi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state of existing or acting separately from others : INDEPENDENCE ▪ a teacher who encourages individual autonomy
2 : the power or right of a country, group, etc., to govern itself ▪ The territory has been granted autonomy.

au•to•pi•lot /ˈɑːtoʊˌpaɪlət/ noun, pl -lots : a device that steers a ship, aircraft, or spacecraft in place of a person [count] an airplane equipped with an autopilot [noncount] The plane was flying on autopilot. ✧ The phrase on autopilot is often used figuratively to describe a person who is doing something in a mechanical way without really thinking about it. ▪ She performed her chores on autopilot. ▪ He did his job as though he were on autopilot. — called also automatic pilot

au•top•sy /ˈɑːˌtɑːpsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] : an examination of a dead body to find out the cause of death ▪ The coroner performed an autopsy on the murder victim's body.
– autopsy verb -sies; -sied; -sy•ing [+ obj] US ▪ The body has not yet been autopsied.

au•tumn /ˈɑːtəm/ noun, pl -tumns
1 : the season between summer and winter [count] in the autumn of last year ▪ a magnificent New England autumn ▪ She went off to college in the autumn of 1999. [noncount] When autumn came he planted grass. ▪ in early/late autumn — often used before another noun ▪ autumn colors/foliage/leaves/trees ▪ the autumn harvest ▪ an early autumn chill in the air — called also (US) fall
2 [count] : the later part of someone's life or of something's existence ▪ These songs were written in the autumn of his life. [=in his old age]

au•tum•nal /ɑˈtʌmnəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to, resembling, or associated with autumn ▪ autumnal colors/foliage/leaves/trees ▪ an autumnal harvest moon

[1]aux•il•ia•ry /ɑgˈzɪljəri/ adj : available to provide extra help, power, etc., when it is needed ▪ a sailboat with an auxiliary engine ▪ auxiliary fuel tanks ▪ an auxiliary police force

[2]auxiliary noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a group that provides help or assistance ▪ She joined the women's auxiliary. [=a group of women who do work for a church, hospital, etc.]
2 : AUXILIARY VERB ▪ a verbal auxiliary

auxiliary verb noun, pl ~ verbs [count] grammar : a verb (such as have, be, may, do, shall, will, can, or must) that is used with another verb to show the verb's tense, to form a question, etc. — called also helping verb

AV abbr audiovisual

[1]avail /əˈveɪl/ verb avails; availed; avail•ing literary : to be useful or helpful to (someone or something) [+ obj] Our best efforts availed [=gained] us nothing. ▪ This knowledge availed her little. [=it was not very helpful or useful to her] [no obj] Our best efforts did not avail.
avail yourself of formal : to make use of (something) ▪ They availed themselves of his services. [=they used his services]

[2]avail noun [noncount] : help toward reaching a goal ▪ What I learned then is of little avail to me now. [=is not very helpful to me now] ▪ Our best efforts were of no avail. [=were not helpful] ▪ They tried to discuss the issue calmly, but to no avail. [=they were unable to discuss the issue calmly]

avail•able /əˈveɪləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : easy or possible to get or use ▪ The family kept emergency supplies available. ▪ The dress is also available in larger sizes. ▪ The articles are available at any drugstore. ▪ Fresh fruit is available during/through the summer. ▪ The drug is readily/widely/easily available in Europe. ▪ The report will soon be made available to the public. ▪ I missed the plane, and the next available flight doesn't leave until tomorrow.
2 a : present or ready for use ▪ All available resources were used. ▪ She spent every available dollar on her hobby. ▪ Parking is available for people staying at the hotel. ▪ Tickets are available from the box office at the theater. b : present and able or willing to talk to someone ▪ She was not available for comment, according to the newspaper. ▪ The woman who answered the phone said, "I'm sorry, but Mr. Adams is not available right now. May I take a message?"
3 a : not being used or occupied by someone or something else ▪ Toys covered every available space in the room. ▪ the last available seat b : free to do something ▪ We interviewed many available candidates for the job. ▪ I'm available to give speeches. ▪ We should go out for lunch. Are you available next Tuesday? c : not involved in a romantic relationship. ▪ He wanted to ask her on a date, but wasn't sure if she was available. [=single] ▪ a great way to meet available men/women/singles – avail•abil•i•ty /əˌveɪləˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ The drug's lack of availability presents a serious problem for them. ▪ She's the perfect candidate for the job, but I need to confirm her availability. [=I need to make sure she is available] ▪ The availability of affordable housing attracted us to this town.

av•a•lanche /ˈævəˌlæntʃ/ noun, pl -lanch•es
1 [count] : a large amount of snow and ice or of dirt and rocks that slides suddenly down the side of a mountain ▪ He was buried/trapped by an avalanche.
2 [singular] : a sudden great amount of something ▪ an avalanche of words ▪ an avalanche of praise/publicity avant–garde /ˌɑːvɑːntˈgɑəd, Brit ˌævɒŋˈgɑːd/ noun, pl

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 97 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

avant–gardes [count] : a group of people who develop new and often very surprising ideas in art, literature, etc. ▪ a literary avant-garde — often used with the ▪ The book discusses the role of the avant-garde in the film industry.
– avant–garde adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ avant-garde art ▪ avant-garde artists/composers/writers ▪ avant-garde films/theater – avant–gard•ism /ˌɑˌvɑntˈgɑədˌɪzəm, Brit ˌævɒŋˈgɑdˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ theatrical avant-gardism – avant–gard•ist /ˌɑːˌvɑːntˈgɑədɪst, Brit ˌævɒŋˈgɑːdɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ Some avant-gardists began experimenting with new film techniques.

av•a•rice /ˈævərəs/ noun [noncount] formal + disapproving : a strong desire to have or get money : GREED ▪ The corporate world is plagued by avarice and a thirst for power. ▪ He was driven by avarice.
– av•a•ri•cious /ˌævəˈrɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a spiteful and avaricious [=greedy] person

av•a•tar /ˈævəˌtɑə/ noun, pl -tars [count]
1 Hinduism : the human or animal form of a Hindu god on earth ▪ an avatar of Vishnu
2 formal : someone who represents a type of person, an idea, or a quality ▪ She has come to be regarded as an avatar of charity and concern for the poor.
3 computers : a small picture that represents a computer user in a game, on the Internet, etc. ▪ She chose a penguin as her personal avatar in the chat room.

ave. abbr avenue

avenge /əˈvɛnʤ/ verb aveng•es; avenged; aveng•ing [+ obj] : to harm or punish someone who has harmed you or someone or something that you care about ▪ The brothers vowed to avenge the death of their father. ▪ They vowed to avenge their father by capturing and punishing his killer. ▪ The team is out to avenge last week's defeat. [=to defeat the team that they were defeated by last week] ▪ She vowed to avenge herself [=to get revenge], saying she would make him pay for what he had done to her.
– aveng•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ the avengers of those who had been killed – avenging adj ▪ saw herself as an avenging angel

av•e•nue /ˈævəˌnuː, Brit ˈævəˌnjuː/ noun, pl -nues [count]
1 a : a wide street ▪ We drove down the avenue. — often used in names ▪ Sixth Avenue in Manhattan ▪ She grew up on Ledgelawn Avenue. b chiefly Brit : a path or driveway that leads to a house located off a main road ▪ a magnificent tree-lined avenue
2 : a way of achieving something or of reaching a goal ▪ We plan to pursue all available avenues to get our message to the public. ▪ They have closed off that avenue of discussion. ▪ a new avenue of research aver /əˈvɚ/ verb avers; averred; aver•ring [+ obj] formal : to say (something) in a very strong and definite way ▪ He averred that he was innocent. ▪ "I am innocent," he averred.

[1]av•er•age /ˈævrɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es
1 : a number that is calculated by adding quantities together and then dividing the total by the number of quantities [count] The average of 16, 8, and 6 is 10. ▪ Take all these temperatures and find their average. ▪ An average of 2,000 people attended the show each night. [noncount] Prices have increased on average about eight percent. ▪ On average, women live longer than men. ▪ (US) He saves on the average about five percent of his income. — see also GRADE POINT AVERAGE, the law of averages at LAW
2 : a level that is typical of a group, class, or series : a middle point between extremes [noncount] His work has been better/worse than average. = His work has been above/below average. [count] His work has been above the average.
3 [count] baseball : BATTING AVERAGE

[2]average adj
1 : calculated by adding quantities together and then dividing by the number of quantities ▪ Take all these temperatures and find their average temperature. ▪ The investment had a higher average return. ▪ The average age of the company's employees is 36.
2 : ordinary or usual ▪ The average woman lives longer than the average man. ▪ Do you know what the average person earns? ▪ an average day ▪ the average American family/home buyer — often used informally with your ▪ He's just your average guy. [=he is a typical or ordinary guy] ▪ It wasn't your average snow storm. [=it was worse than an ordinary snowstorm] ▪ He's not your average salesman. [=he is unusual]
3 a : not unusually large or small ▪ Sales were about average for the industry on the whole. b : not unusually good or bad ▪ Average grades are not good enough to get you into graduate school. ▪ She was an average student. ▪ She thought the performance was just average.

[3]average verb -ages; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj]
1 : to have (a specified number) as an average ▪ The children in that class average four feet in height. [=the average height of the children is 4 feet] ▪ Her daily commute averages 40 minutes. [=the average length of her daily commute is 40 minutes] ▪ We average six calls a day. [=we get six calls a day on average]
2 : to calculate the average of (something) ▪ The teacher averaged the students' grades. ▪ What figure do you get when you average the amount of rainfall for the last three months?
average out [phrasal verb] 1 : to produce a result that is even and balanced when looked at over a period of time ▪ The irregularities averaged out over the course of the study. ▪ Sometimes you win, and sometimes you lose. It all averages out [=evens out] in the end. 2 average out to (something) : to be equal to (a specified average amount) over a period of time ▪ The gain averaged out to 20 percent.

averse /əˈvɚs/ adj
averse to : having a clear dislike of (something) : strongly opposed to (something) ▪ He seems to be averse to exercise. ▪ No one is more averse to borrowing money than he is. — often used in negative statements ▪ She is not averse to taking chances. [=she is willing to take chances] aver•sion /əˈvɚʒən/ noun, pl -sions : a strong feeling of not liking something [count] deep aversions — often + to ▪ He seems to have an aversion to exercise. [noncount] They regarded war with aversion.

avert /əˈvɚt/ verb averts; avert•ed; avert•ing [+ obj]
1 : to turn (your eyes, gaze, etc.) away or aside ▪ She had to avert her eyes [=to look away] at the sight of the accident. ▪ with averted eyes/gaze/glances
2 : to prevent (something bad) from happening ▪ He sped up and averted an accident. ▪ The diplomatic talks narrowly averted a war. ▪ an attempt to avert a strike at the plant

avi•an /ˈeɪviən/ adj, technical : of or relating to birds ▪ avian species ▪ avian behavior avi•ary /ˈeɪviˌeri, Brit ˈeɪviəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a place (such as a large cage or a building) where many birds are kept ▪ The zoo has a new outdoor aviary.

avi•a•tion /ˌeɪviˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the business or practice of flying airplanes, helicopters, etc. ▪ an expert in aviation ▪ commercial/military aviation — often used before another noun ▪ an aviation expert ▪ the aviation industry

avi•a•tor /ˈeɪviˌeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who flies an airplanes, helicopters, etc. : PILOT ▪ a marine/naval aviator aviator glasses noun [plural] : eyeglasses with light metal frames and large lenses av•id /ˈævəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very eager : ENTHUSIASTIC, KEEN ▪ He is an avid admirer of horror movies. ▪ They took an avid interest in politics. ▪ an avid cook/dancer/fan/golfer/reader ▪ some of the newspaper's most avid readers
2 : wanting something very much ▪ He was avid for success. = He was avid to succeed.
– avid•i•ty /əˈvɪdəti/ noun, pl -i•ties [noncount] They pursued fame/wealth with avidity. [singular] an avidity for fame/wealth – av•id•ly adv ▪ They are avidly interested in politics.

av•o•ca•do /ˌɑːvəˈkɑːdoʊ, Brit ˌævəˈkɑːdəʊ/ noun, pl -dos also -does [count, noncount] : a fruit with rough dark green or purple skin, smooth light green flesh, and a large seed in the middle — often used before another noun ▪ an avocado tree ▪ an avocado salad — called also (Brit) avocado pear; see color picture on page C5

av•o•ca•tion /ˌævəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : an activity that you do regularly for enjoyment rather than as a job : HOBBY ▪ He breeds dogs as an avocation. ▪ My favorite avocation is reading.
– av•o•ca•tion•al /ˌævəˈkeɪʃənəl/ adj ▪ She has an avocational interest in sports.

avoid /əˈvoɪd/ verb avoids; avoid•ed; avoid•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stay away from (someone or something) ▪ Why do you keep avoiding me? ▪ She took a detour to avoid the heavy traffic. ▪ They successfully avoided each other for days.
2 : to prevent the occurrence of (something bad, unpleasant, etc.) ▪ He tried hard to avoid accidents. ▪ We need to avoid further delays. ▪ avoid embarrassment ▪ He was caught trying

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 98 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−a

A

to avoid arrest. ▪ in an effort to avoid confusion
3 : to keep yourself from doing (something) or participating in (something) ▪ I'm not going to be late if I can avoid it. ▪ How can I avoid paying too much tax? ▪ I am trying to avoid showing any hint of favoritism.
– avoid•able /əˈvoɪdəbəl/ adj ▪ It was a foolish and easily avoidable accident. ▪ an avoidable conflict/risk avoid•ance /əˈvoɪdns/ noun : the act of avoiding something [noncount] a writer known for avoidance of sentimentality [count] a complete avoidance of sentimentality avow /əˈvaʊ/ verb avows; avowed; avow•ing [+ obj] formal : to declare or state (something) in an open and public way ▪ She avowed her innocence. = She avowed that she was innocent. synonyms see ASSERT avow•al /əˈvaʊəl/ noun, pl -als [count] formal : an open and public statement ▪ I didn't believe her avowal of innocence. ▪ The couple exchanged avowals of love.

avowed /əˈvaʊd/ adj, always used before a noun : openly declared ▪ Their avowed aim/goal is to win the trophy. ▪ an avowed [=self-proclaimed] liberal/conservative
– avow•ed•ly /əˈvaʊədli/ adv ▪ She is avowedly [=frankly, unabashedly] conservative in her politics. ▪ an avowedly simple man

avun•cu•lar /əˈvʌŋkjələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : like an uncle : kind or friendly like an uncle ▪ an avuncular shopkeeper ▪ a man known for his avuncular charm aw /ˈɑ:/ interj, US + Scotland, informal — used to express mild disappointment or sympathy ▪ Aw (shucks), I was hoping to play tennis today and now it's raining. ▪ Aw, that's too bad.

await /əˈweɪt/ verb awaits; await•ed; await•ing [+ obj]
1 : to wait for (someone or something) ▪ A crowd of people awaited the train. ▪ We're eagerly awaiting his arrival/answer. ▪ He was arrested and is now in prison awaiting trial. ▪ Her long-awaited new novel is finally being published.
2 : to be ready or waiting for (someone or something) ▪ A reward awaits you. ▪ Numerous requests awaited him. ▪ The same fate awaits us all.

[1]awake /əˈweɪk/ verb awakes; awoke /əˈwoʊk/; awo•ken /əˈwoʊkən/; awak•ing somewhat formal : to stop sleeping : to wake up [no obj] She fell asleep immediately but awoke an hour later. ▪ I awoke several times during the night. ▪ He awoke with a start. = He awoke suddenly. ▪ The baby awoke from his nap. [+ obj] The alarm awoke me early. ▪ They were awoken by a loud bang.
awake to [phrasal verb] awake to (something) : to become aware of (something) ▪ We finally awoke to the danger. ▪ How long will it take them to awake to their mistake?

[2]awake adj, not used before a noun : not asleep ▪ Drinking coffee keeps him awake. ▪ I am so tired I can barely stay awake. ▪ She was lying awake, tossing and turning. ▪ One moment she was sleeping soundly—the next she was wide awake.

awak•en /əˈweɪkən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing somewhat formal : to stop sleeping : to wake up [no obj] She usually awakens several times during the night. [+ obj] A loud noise awakened her. — often used as (be) awakened ▪ I was awakened by the alarm clock. — often used figuratively ▪ Her arrival awakened [=revived] old memories. ▪ His interest was awakened. [=aroused] awaken to [phrasal verb] awaken to (something) or awaken (someone or something) to (something) : to become aware of (something) or to make (someone or something) aware of (something) ▪ They finally awakened to the possibility of war. ▪ The book will awaken their minds to the beauty of nature.
– awakening noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ The group experienced a cultural/religious/spiritual awakening. ▪ Her arrival brought an awakening of old memories. ▪ He thinks he can get by without doing any work, but he is in for a rude awakening. [=he will experience an unpleasant surprise; he will learn that he is mistaken]

[1]award /əˈwoəd/ verb awards; award•ed; award•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (a reward or prize) to someone or something ▪ The judges will award a prize to the best speaker. ▪ The winner was awarded a gold medal. ▪ A prize will be awarded to the student who sells the most tickets.
2 : to officially decide that someone should get (something) ▪ The jury awarded damages to the defendant. ▪ The company is awarding the contract to the lowest bidder. ▪ He was awarded a patent for his invention.

[2]award noun, pl awards [count] : something (such as a prize) that is given to someone or something for being excellent or for doing something that is admired ▪ Will the film win any awards at the festival? ▪ She has won numerous awards for her books. ▪ an awards ceremony [=a ceremony at which awards are given out] ▪ an award-winning film/writer = an award-winner

aware /əˈweə/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a not used before a noun : knowing that something (such as a situation, condition, or problem) exists ▪ Are you aware how important you are to me? — often + of ▪ She is acutely/keenly aware of the problem. ▪ I was not fully aware of the danger. ▪ He was made aware of the situation. — often + that ▪ He's not even aware that you are upset. ▪ You should be aware that the possibility/problem exists. b : feeling, experiencing, or noticing something (such as a sound, sensation, or emotion) — often + of ▪ Are you aware of any pain? [=have you noticed or felt any pain?] ▪ I became aware of a loud knocking sound. — often + that ▪ I was aware that he was following me. [=I had noticed that he was following me]
2 : knowing and understanding a lot about what is happening in the world or around you ▪ She is one of the most aware people I know. ▪ Students today are very aware about the environment. = Students today are very environmentally aware. ▪ Politically aware people [=people who know a lot about politics] will not be fooled by the government's latest pronouncements.
– aware•ness noun [singular] a heightened awareness about the problem ▪ They had an acute awareness of what was going on. [noncount] I admired her level of political awareness. ▪ He is trying to raise public awareness.

awash /əˈwɑ:ʃ/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : flooded with or covered by water or another liquid ▪ The deck of the boat was almost awash. — usually + with or (US) in ▪ a floor awash with/in water — often used figuratively ▪ streets awash in/with litter [=streets covered with litter]
2 US : floating in a large amount of water or another liquid — + in ▪ The soup consisted of little bits of chicken awash in a tasteless broth. — often used figuratively ▪ He was awash in a sea of confusion. ▪ They were awash in debt.

[1]away /əˈweɪ/ adv
1 : from this or that place : in or to another place or direction ▪ She hopes to get away early. ▪ The family next door moved away. ▪ We rowed away from the shore. ▪ Roll up the rug and carry it away. ▪ He pulled his arm away from the hot stove. ▪ You should keep/stay away from the dog. It could be dangerous.
2 : toward another direction ▪ She turned her face away.
3 : in a safe or secure place ▪ The will was locked away in the safe. ▪ She stowed the luggage away in the overhead compartment.
4 : into a state of being completely gone ▪ The memory is fading away. ▪ He is wasting away from the disease. ▪ echoes dying away
5 : from someone's possession ▪ The family gave away a fortune to charity. ▪ They took away the one thing I cared about. ▪ The beautiful scenery took my breath away.
6 : without stopping or slowing down ▪ The clocks are ticking away. ▪ The water was bubbling away.
7 sports : on the field or court of an opponent ▪ The team played both (at) home and away. [=the team played both home games and away games] far and away see [1]FAR

[2]away adj
1 not used before a noun : not at home or in a usual or expected place ▪ They are away for the weekend. ▪ "Where is he?" "He's away at the moment, but he'll be back soon." ▪ when I am away from home
2 not used before a noun — used to describe how distant something is in space or time ▪ The family went to a lake 10 miles away. ▪ They came from a continent away. ▪ The holiday season is two months away.
3 always used before a noun : played on the field or court of an opponent ▪ The team played both home games and away games.

[1]awe /ˈɑ:/ noun [singular] : a strong feeling of fear or respect and also wonder ▪ It was a sight that filled me with awe and reverence. ▪ a person who inspires feelings of awe in others ▪ an awe-inspiring sight — often used after in ▪ We watched in awe as the building collapsed. ▪ They stared in awe at their hero. — often used in the phrase in awe of ▪ She is still in awe of her teacher. ▪ I stand in awe of their courage.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 99 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-a

A

[2]awe verb awes; awed; aw•ing [+ obj] : to fill (someone) with awe ▪ Her style both awes and perplexes me. — often used as (be) awed ▪ He was awed [=awestruck] by the natural beauty of the place.
– awed adj ▪ a moment of awed surprise awe•some /ˈɑːsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : causing feelings of fear and wonder : causing feelings of awe ▪ the awesome sight of an erupting volcano ▪ one of the Earth's more awesome [=awe-inspiring] natural wonders ▪ It was an awesome responsibility. ▪ We had an awesome task ahead of us.
2 informal : extremely good ▪ We had an awesome time at the concert. ▪ She's an awesome singer. ▪ You did an awesome job on that project. ▪ The movie was totally awesome.
– awe•some•ly adv ▪ an awesomely destructive weapon ▪ an awesomely talented singer – awe•some•ness noun [noncount] awe•struck /ˈɑːˌstrʌk/ adj : filled with feelings of fear and wonder : filled with awe ▪ Awestruck admiration showed on her face. ▪ They were awestruck by the sheer size of the project.

[1]aw•ful /ˈɑːfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely bad or unpleasant ▪ The music was awful. ▪ They heard the most awful sounds. ▪ Awful things began to happen. ▪ The weather was awful. ▪ He has some awful disease. ▪ That joke is just/pretty/really/truly awful. ▪ He's an awful person. ▪ That's an awful thing to say. ▪ She has awful manners. ▪ Who painted the house that awful color? ▪ I don't know what's wrong with me but I feel awful. [=very sick] ▪ I feel awful [=very sorry] about what happened.
2 formal + old-fashioned : causing feelings of fear and wonder : AWESOME ▪ The mountains have an awful majesty.
an awful lot informal 1 : a large amount ▪ They lost an awful lot of money. ▪ She does an awful lot of talking. 2 : very much ▪ I like him an awful lot. [=I like him a lot]
– aw•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the sheer awfulness of it all ▪ the awfulness of the disease

[2]awful adv, chiefly US, informal : very or extremely : AWFULLY ▪ He was awful tired. ▪ We haven't heard from him in an awful long time. ▪ You've come an awful long way.

aw•ful•ly /ˈɑːfəli, ˈɑːfli/ adv
1 : very or extremely ▪ That's awfully nice of you. ▪ It turned out to be awfully difficult. ▪ The pie tasted awfully sweet. ▪ I'm awfully glad to see you. ▪ It's awfully cold out. ▪ You're awfully quiet today.
2 : in a very bad or unpleasant way ▪ He sings awfully.

awhile /əˈwajəl/ adv : for a while : for a short time ▪ I'm going to sit and rest awhile. ▪ The rumor had been around awhile.

awk•ward /ˈɑːkwəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : not graceful : CLUMSY ▪ She is awkward at dancing. ▪ He had large feet and his walk was awkward and ungainly. ▪ an awkward movement ▪ The story contained some awkward writing. b : lacking skill ▪ She is an awkward writer.
2 : difficult to use or handle ▪ The machine is very awkward to operate. ▪ an awkward tool ▪ The box isn't heavy but it has an awkward shape and size. [=its shape and size make it difficult to carry]
3 a : not easy to deal with ▪ It was an awkward [=embarrassing] moment for everyone. ▪ I often find myself in awkward situations. ▪ He was put in the awkward position of having to write the memo. ▪ There was an awkward pause in the conversation. b : not socially graceful or confident : uneasy or uncomfortable ▪ I feel awkward (about) having to ask you to help. ▪ He feels awkward with/around strangers.
– awk•ward•ly adv ▪ The baby was crawling awkwardly on her hands and knees. ▪ He fell and landed awkwardly. ▪ an awkwardly written sentence – awk•ward•ness noun, pl -ness•es [noncount] A moment of awkwardness occurred after the introduction. ▪ the awkwardness of the writing [count] There was an awkwardness between us when we last saw each other.

awl /ˈɑːl/ noun, pl awls [count] : a pointed tool that is used for marking surfaces or for making small holes in leather, wood, etc.

aw•ning /ˈɑːnɪŋ/ noun, pl -nings [count] : a piece of cloth on a frame that sticks out over a door or window and provides shelter from sun, rain, snow, etc.

awoke past tense of [1]AWAKE

awoken past participle of [1]AWAKE

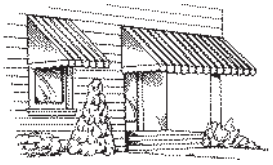
AWOL /ˈeɪˌwɑːl/ adj : absent from the armed forces without permission ▪ Three soldiers were AWOL. ▪ The soldiers went AWOL at the first chance.; broadly : absent or missing ▪ The Senator has been AWOL for the last three votes. ▪ My keys have gone AWOL. I can't find them anywhere. ✧ AWOL comes from a phrase used in the military: *a*bsent *w*ith*o*ut *l*eave.



awning

– AWOL noun, pl AWOLs [count] ▪ Four AWOLs [=four soldiers who have gone AWOL] are still missing from their unit.

awry /əˈraɪ/ adj or adv, not used before a noun
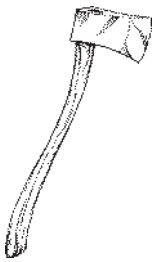
1 : not working correctly or happening in the expected way : WRONG ▪ Something was dreadfully/terribly awry. — usually used in the phrase go awry ▪ Their plans went awry. ▪ Something had gone dreadfully/terribly awry.
2 : not straight or neat ▪ Her hair was all awry.

[1]ax (US) or axe /ˈæks/ noun, pl ax•es [count] : a tool that has a heavy metal blade and a long handle and that is used for chopping wood — see also ICE AX, PICKAX



ax

ax to grind : a hidden and often selfish purpose for doing something. ▪ He had a political ax to grind with his opponent. ▪ She claims that she has no ax to grind in criticizing the proposed law.
escape the ax informal : to avoid being ended, eliminated, reduced, etc. ▪ The school program escaped the ax this year. [=the school program was not cut/eliminated this year]
get the ax informal : to lose your job : to be fired from your job ▪ The employees with less experience got the ax. [=were fired] give (someone) the ax informal : to dismiss (someone) from a job : to fire (someone) ▪ His boss gave him the ax.
take the/an ax to informal : to eliminate (something) or reduce (something) severely ▪ Congress took an ax to the program. [=Congress made severe cuts in the program]

[2]ax or axe verb axes; axed; ax•ing [+ obj] informal
1 : to cut or remove (something) ▪ The television program was axed [=dropped] from the new schedule.
2 : to fire (someone) ▪ The boss told him that he had been axed.

ax•i•om /ˈæksijəm/ noun, pl -oms [count] formal : a rule or principal that many people accept as true ▪ one of the key axioms of the theory of evolution ax•i•om•at•ic /ˌæksijəˈmætɪk/ adj, formal : obviously true ▪ It is axiomatic that good athletes have a strong mental attitude. ▪ an axiomatic truth/assumption – ax•i•om•at•i•cal•ly /ˌæksijəˈmætɪkli/ adv

ax•is /ˈæksəs/ noun, pl ax•es /ˈækˌsiːz/ [count]
1 : the imaginary straight line that something (such as the Earth) turns around ▪ the Earth's axis of rotation ▪ the spin of the Earth on its axis
2 : a straight line that divides a shape evenly into two parts — called also axis of symmetry

ax•le /ˈæksəl/ noun, pl axles [count] : a bar on which a wheel or a pair of wheels turns — see picture at CAR

[1]aye also ay /ˈaɪ/ adv
1 : [1]YES 1 — used especially in Scotland and in the language of sailors. ▪ The sailor said "Aye, aye, sir!" when the captain gave him a command.
2 — used to indicate a spoken yes vote ▪ All in favor, say "aye."

[2]aye also ay /ˈaɪ/ noun, pl ayes [count] : a yes vote ▪ We have six nays and 12 ayes, so the ayes have it. [=the "yes" votes win] — compare [2]NAY, YEA

AZ abbr Arizona

aza•lea /əˈzeɪljə/ noun, pl -leas [count] : a type of bush that has colorful flowers that bloom in the spring

AZT /ˌeɪˌzi:ˈti:, Brit ˌeɪˌzɛdˈti:/ noun [noncount] medical : a drug used to treat AIDS

azure /ˈæʒə/ noun, pl azures [count, noncount] : the blue color of the sky
– azure adj ▪ the azure lake/sky/waters

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 94 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

B

b or B /ˈbi:/ noun, pl b's or bs or B's or Bs
1 : the second letter of the English alphabet [count] There are two b's in the word "abbey." [noncount] All of their children's names begin with b.
2 : a musical note or key referred to by the letter B : the seventh tone of a C-major scale [count] play/sing a B [noncount] a song in the key of B
3 [count] : a grade that is given to a student for doing good work ▪ got a B in math ▪ He's a B student. [=a student who gets B's for his schoolwork]
4 [noncount] — used to refer to the second of two or more people, places, or things that are being considered ▪ We chose option B over option A.
from (point) A to (point) B see [1]A

B.A. (US) or BA abbr bachelor of arts ▪ He received a B.A. in philosophy from Tulane University. ▪ She studied Spanish and economics and earned a B.A. degree.

baa /ˈbæ, ˈbɑ:/ noun [singular] : the sound made by a sheep – baa verb baas; baaed; baa•ing [no obj] ▪ We heard a sheep baaing softly in the field.

[1]bab•ble /ˈbæbəl/ verb bab•bles; bab•bled; bab•bling [no obj]
1 a : to talk foolishly or too much ▪ Pay no attention to her. She's just babbling. ▪ He'll babble on about sports all night if you let him. ▪ a babbling idiot b : to make speech sounds that do not make sense to the hearer ▪ Her cousins were babbling in an unfamiliar dialect. ▪ The baby babbled happily.
2 : to make the quiet sound of water flowing over rocks ▪ a babbling brook
– bab•bler /ˈbæbələ/ noun, pl bab•blers [count]

[2]babble noun [noncount]
1 a : the confusing sound of many people speaking at the same time ▪ a babble of voices b : talk that is silly or pointless ▪ listening to their constant babble
2 : a quiet sound made by flowing water ▪ the babble of a brook

babe /ˈbeɪb/ noun, pl babes [count]
1 : a very young child : BABY ▪ a newborn babe ▪ I've known her since she was a babe in arms. [=a baby who is carried in the arms of an adult; an infant]
2 slang a : a sexually attractive person — usually used of young women ▪ hot babes in bikinis ✧ This sense of babe is very informal and is sometimes considered offensive. b — used as an informal way of addressing a lover, friend, etc.; used especially by men to address women and by women to address men ▪ Hey babe, how've you been? ✧ This sense of babe is very familiar in tone. Using babe to address someone you do not know well may cause offense.
babe in the woods US : a person who is innocent or who lacks experience ▪ When I began my political career, I was a mere babe in the woods.

ba•bel also Ba•bel /ˈbeɪbəl/ noun [singular] : a confused mixture of sounds or voices — usually + of ▪ a babel of languages ▪ a babel of street sounds ba•boon /bæˈbu:n/ noun, pl -boons [count] : a large African or Asian monkey

baboon

[1]ba•by /ˈbeɪbi/ noun, pl -bies [count]
1 a : a very young child ▪ She had the baby yesterday. = She gave birth to the baby yesterday. ▪ Are you expecting a baby? [=are you pregnant?] ▪ I hear the baby crying. ▪ The baby is just learning to crawl. — often used before another noun ▪ a baby girl/boy ▪ baby clothes ▪ baby pictures ▪ a baby monitor ▪ (US) I gave my sister a baby shower. [=a party at which gifts are given to a woman who is pregnant] ▪ She has a real baby face. [=a face that resembles the face of a baby; a face that looks young and innocent] b : a very young animal ▪ a bird and its babies — often used before another noun ▪ a baby bird ▪ a baby deer
2 a : the youngest member of a group ▪ My sister is the baby of the family. — often used before another noun ▪ my baby sister b : someone who is young in comparison with others ▪ "Only 32? Oh, you're just a baby!" c : someone who behaves like a child; especially : someone who is afraid or who complains a lot ▪ When it comes to getting shots, I'm a real baby. ▪ Don't be such a baby—you'll get your turn.
3 slang a : a lover or sweetheart ▪ Nothing's gone right since my baby went away. ✧ This sense of baby is common in song lyrics. b — used as an informal way of addressing a lover, friend, etc.; used especially by men to address women and by women to address men ▪ I missed you, baby. ✧ This sense of baby is sometimes used in a very informal way by men to address an attractive woman. ▪ Hey baby, nice car! Using baby to address someone you do not know well may cause offense.
4 : something that someone has created and developed with special personal attention or interest ▪ This project is my baby.
hold the baby see [1]HOLD throw out the baby with the bathwater informal : to get rid of something you want while trying to get rid of something you do not want ▪ If you ignore her message because you don't like the way she presents it, you will be throwing out the baby with the bathwater.
– ba•by•hood /ˈbeɪbiˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ We watched him grow from babyhood to adulthood. – ba•by•ish /ˈbeɪbijɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ babyish behavior/toys

[2]baby adj, always used before a noun : very small : much smaller than usual ▪ a baby grand piano ▪ baby carrots/vegetables ▪ Take baby steps.

[3]baby verb -bies; -bied; -by•ing [+ obj]
1 : to treat (someone) like a baby : to be kind or too kind to (someone) ▪ That boy will never learn to stand up for himself if you don't stop babying him. ▪ I babied myself [=pampered myself] with a trip to the spa.
2 : to operate or treat (something) in a very careful and gentle way ▪ baby a car ▪ It looked like he was babying his injured foot.

baby blue noun, pl ~ blues
1 [noncount] : a very light blue color
2 baby blues [plural] informal : blue eyes ▪ She gazed into his baby blues.
3 baby blues [plural] informal : a feeling of sadness that a woman has after giving birth to a baby ▪ She had a bad case of the baby blues. — compare POSTPARTUM DEPRESSION – baby blue adj ▪ He was wearing baby blue pajamas.

baby boom noun, pl ~ booms [count] : a time when there is a great increase in the number of babies born ▪ There was a baby boom in the U.S. after World War II.
– baby boomer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ a television program that is popular among baby boomers [=people who were born during the baby boom after World War II]

baby buggy noun, pl ~ -gies [count]
1 US : BABY CARRIAGE
2 Brit : STROLLER

baby carriage noun, pl ~ -riag•es [count] US : a vehicle in which a baby lies while someone pushes it from place to place — called also (US) baby buggy, (Brit) pram

baby fat noun [noncount] US : the extra fat that a healthy baby or young child has ▪ Their little boy still has his baby fat. — called also (Brit) puppy fat ba•by•sit /ˈbeɪbiˌsɪt/ verb -sits; -sat /-ˌsæt/; -sit•ting : to take care of a child while the child's parents are away [+ obj] She babysits their kids on Saturday nights. [no obj] She babysits (for my wife and me) on Saturday nights.

– ba•by•sit•ter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ Did you pay the babysitter?

baby talk noun [noncount] : the speech used by very young children who are learning to talk or by adults who are speaking to young children baby tooth noun, pl ~ teeth [count] : a tooth from the first set of teeth that a child develops — called also milk tooth

bac•cy /ˈbæki/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : TOBACCO

bach•e•lor /ˈbætʃələ/ noun, pl -lors [count]
1 : a man who is not married; especially : a man who has never been married ▪ an eligible bachelor [=an unmarried man who is regarded as a desirable husband] ▪ a confirmed bachelor [=a man who has been a bachelor for a long time and who shows no interest in marrying] ▪ his apartment is a typical bachelor pad [=a typical apartment of an unmarried man] ▪ They threw the groom a bachelor party. [=a party for a man who is about to be married that is usually attended by men only]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 95 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

2 : a person who has received a bachelor's degree ▪ a bachelor of arts

– bach•e•lor•hood /ˈbæʧələˌhʊd/ noun [noncount]

bach•e•lor•ette /ˌbæʧələˈrɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] US : a woman who is not married ▪ They threw the bride a bachelorette party. [=a party for a woman who is about to be married that is usually attended by women only] bachelor's degree noun, pl ~ -grees [count] : a degree that is given to a student by a college or university usually after four years of study

ba•cil•lus /bəˈsɪləs/ noun, pl -cil•li /-ˈsɪˌlaɪ/ [count] technical : a straight rod-shaped bacterium that requires oxygen for growth; also : a bacterium that causes disease

[1]back /ˈbæk/ noun, pl backs [count]

1 a : the rear part of the body : the part of the body that is opposite to the stomach and chest and that goes from the neck to the top of the legs ▪ She was carrying her little daughter on her back. ▪ He injured his back. = He suffered a back injury. ▪ She has a pain in the small of her back. ▪ an aching back ▪ I slapped/patted him on his/the back to congratulate him. ▪ He broke his back [=spine] in a fall. ▪ She stabbed/shot him in the back. ▪ He was handcuffed with his hands behind his back. — see picture at HUMAN b : the part of an animal that is like a person's back ▪ a bird with a spotted back ▪ riding on the back of a horse/donkey/camel — see also HORSEBACK

2 a : the side or surface of something that is opposite the front or face : the rear side or surface of something — usually singular ▪ the back of the head ▪ the back of a mirror/spoon ▪ the back of the hand/leg/foot ▪ The book has fallen down the back of the couch. b : the side or surface of something (such as a piece of paper) that is not usually used or seen first — usually singular ▪ She wrote something on the back of an envelope. ▪ He signed his name on the back of the check. c : a place, position, or area that is at or near the rear of something — usually singular ▪ He put the letter in the back of the drawer. ▪ The kitchen is at/in the back of the house and the living room is at/in the front. ▪ Since our plane was leaving soon we were moved to the front of the line while others remained at the back. ▪ Please move to the back of the elevator to make room for others.

3 : the part of a chair or seat that supports a person's back ▪ a comfortable chair with a padded back

4 a : the section of a book, magazine, etc., that includes the last pages — usually singular ▪ There is an index in the back of the book. b : the part of a book's cover that can be seen when the book is on a shelf ▪ The title of the book is shown on its back. [=spine]

5 sports : a player in some games (such as soccer and American football) who is positioned behind the front line of players ▪ a defensive back — see also FULLBACK, HALFBACK, QUARTERBACK, RUNNING BACK a pat on the back see [1]PAT

a stab in the back see [1]STAB

at/in the back of your mind : in the part of your mind where thoughts and memories are kept — used to describe ideas, memories, etc., that someone has but that are not usually thought about or not perfectly remembered ▪ The thought of retiring and moving out into the country has been in the back of her mind for many years, and now she's finally doing it. ▪ Somewhere in the back of my mind I knew I'd met him before.

back is to/against the wall ✧ When your back is to/against the wall or you have your back to/against the wall you are in a bad position in which you are forced to do something in order to avoid failure. ▪ With our backs to the wall we made a last desperate effort to finish the project on time. ▪ We knew that with so little time and money left to finish the project we had our backs to the wall.

back to back 1 : with backs opposite or against each other ▪ The soldiers stood back to back. 2 : happening one after the other ▪ She won the annual competition two times back to back. [=in a row] ▪ He's had two victories back to back. ▪ I've scheduled two appointments back to back. — see also BACK-TO-BACK back to front of a piece of clothing : with the back where the front should be ▪ He accidentally put the sweater on back to front. [=front to back, backwards]

behind someone's back : without someone's knowledge : in secret ▪ You shouldn't gossip about people behind their back(s). ▪ If you have something to say, why not say it to my face instead of whispering it behind my back?! ▪ She went behind his back and spoke directly to his supervisor.

break the back of : to get control of (something you are trying to stop or defeat) : to greatly weaken or subdue (something) ▪ He says the government's new policies will break the back of inflation.

eyes in the back of your head see [1]EYE get your back up : to become angry or annoyed and want to fight or argue ▪ He gets his back up and becomes defensive whenever someone questions his work. — compare PUT SOMEONE'S BACK UP (below)

have someone's back see WATCH SOMEONE'S BACK (below)

in back : in an area at the back of something ▪ There was only room for one passenger in front. The rest of us sat in back. [=in the back] in back of chiefly US : directly behind (something or someone) ▪ There's a small yard in back of the house.

on the back of 1 : because of (something) ▪ Profits have increased on the back of [=on the strength of] improved international sales. 2 disapproving : by using the efforts of (other people) ▪ The company has achieved record profits on the back of cheap labor.

on/off your back ✧ Someone who is always or frequently criticizing you or telling you what to do is on your back and won't get off your back. ▪ He says his wife is always on his back about doing chores around the house. ▪ Get off my back! I'm working as hard as I can! ▪ My boss is always criticizing me. I wish I knew some way to get him off my back.

on your back ✧ If you are (flat) on your back you are lying with your back against the ground, on a bed, etc. ▪ The accident left him (lying) flat on his back (in bed) for two weeks. This phrase is sometimes used figuratively. ▪ The stock market has been flat on its back [=has been doing very poorly] in recent weeks.

out back (US) or chiefly Brit out the back or round the back : in the area behind something (such as a building) ▪ In my youth we didn't have a toilet in the house but there was one out back.

put someone's back up : to offend or annoy someone : to make someone angry or ready to argue ▪ I don't want to question his decision because that will just put his back up. — compare GET YOUR BACK UP (above) put your back into : to work very hard at (something) : to put a lot of effort into (something) ▪ If you want to get that floor clean you'll have to put your back into it. ▪ You'll really have to put your back into this project if you want it to succeed.

scratch someone's back see [1]SCRATCH

see the back of ✧ In British English, to be glad/happy (etc.) to see the back of someone is to be glad to see someone finally going away. ▪ He's done nothing but make trouble and I'll be glad to see the back of him! [=I'll be glad when he has gone] stab (someone) in the back see [2]STAB

the shirt off your back see SHIRT

turn your back : to turn so that you are facing away from someone ▪ He turned his back and walked away from me. — often + on ▪ He turned his back on me and walked away. — often used figuratively ▪ His former supporters have turned their backs on him. [=have abandoned him]

watch someone's back or have someone's back : to protect someone who is doing something that is dangerous or risky ▪ The police officer's partner always watches his back. ▪ Don't worry, I've got your back.

watch your back ✧ If people tell you to watch your back, they are telling you to be careful. ▪ I hear the boss is in a bad mood this morning, so you'd better watch your back.

– back•less /ˈbækləs/ adj ▪ a backless evening gown

[2]back adv

1 a : in, toward, or at the back or rear ▪ The soldiers moved back from the front lines. ▪ The police asked the crowd to move/step back from the scene of the accident. ▪ He left his friends two miles back. ▪ She turned around and looked back toward him. ▪ a chapter beginning several pages back b : to, toward, or in the place where someone or something was previously ▪ He left his home and never went back. ▪ I had to go back (to the office) for some papers I had left behind. ▪ It's time to go back home. ▪ She took the book off the shelf and forgot to put it back. ▪ She left earlier but she should be back [=return] soon.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 95 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

2 : in or into the past : backward in time ▪ In the opening chapter the author looks back on his youth. ▪ an event back in the last century; also : AGO ▪ It happened several years back. ▪ I met him in the city two days back.

3 a : to or toward a former state or condition ▪ He has decided to go back to private life. [=to return to private life] ▪ Good farming practices were needed to bring the fields back (to good condition). [=to restore the fields] b : in return or reply ▪ I gave the book to him and he gave it back (to me). ▪ He refused to give back the borrowed money. ▪ He hit his brother and his brother hit him right back. ▪ talk back ▪ She refused to take back her accusations. c — used to describe someone or something that is being held or kept from moving forward or happening ▪ He would have jumped if his friends had not held him back. ▪ He vowed that he wouldn't allow poverty to hold/keep him back. [=to keep him from succeeding] ▪ She struggled to hold back a laugh. [=to keep from laughing] ▪ Landslides set the construction job back many days. [=caused the construction job to be delayed many days] d — used to describe something that is being kept instead of being given or revealed ▪ They held back part of the money. ▪ keep back the truth

4 : to or at an angle ▪ The banks slant evenly back from the highway. ▪ The doctor told her to lie back on the couch. [=to lie down on the couch] ▪ When I get home from work I like to just sit/lean back on the couch and relax.

back of US, informal : on the rear side of (something) : BEHIND ▪ There's an old tractor out back of [=in back of] the barn.

get your own back see get back at GET

[3]back adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to the back : located at the back ▪ the front door, not the back door [=the door at the back of a building] ▪ He keeps his wallet in his back pocket. ▪ She likes to sit in the front/first row, not the back [=last] row. ▪ We came in through the back entrance. ▪ the back pages [=the last pages] of the newspaper ▪ back teeth ▪ a back room

2 : far from a central or main area ▪ We drove on the back roads instead of the main roads. ▪ a back alley

3 : not yet paid : owed from an earlier time ▪ The company owes him several months in back pay. ▪ back rent

4 : published at an earlier time : no longer current ▪ a back issue/number of a magazine

5 golf — used to refer to the final 9 holes of an 18-hole golf course ▪ He was two over par on the front nine and three over par on the back nine.

[4]back verb backs; backed; back•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to give help to (someone) : SUPPORT ▪ I'm backing him (against the Establishment) in his struggle for reform. ▪ I'm backing him for President. b : to bet on (someone or something) ▪ She backed the winner of the race and won a lot of money. ▪ The pundits are all backing him to become the next President. [=the pundits all think that he will become the next President] c : to provide evidence that supports (something) ▪ She backed her argument with written evidence. d : to provide the money that is needed for (something) ▪ back a new company ▪ back a Broadway play e : to sing or play music that supports (a main singer or musical instrument) ▪ She backed the singer on the guitar. — often + up ▪ A guitarist backed up the singer. — see also BACK UP (below)

2 : to move backward [no obj] She backed into a parking space. ▪ She backed out of the garage. ▪ The dog kept growling but backed off/away cautiously. [+ obj] Could you back [=(more commonly) back up] your car a little to give me some room? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The reporter backed her into a corner [=put her into a difficult position that was hard to get out of] with his probing questions.

3 [+ obj] : to provide (something) with a back ▪ back a skirt with stiff material

4 [no obj] : to have the back toward something ▪ The house fronts onto Main Street and backs onto/on the golf course. [=the back of the house faces the golf course]

back away [phrasal verb] : to move away from something or someone by walking backward ▪ The robber pointed a gun at the policeman and told him to back away slowly. — often + from ▪ The policeman slowly backed away from the robber. ▪ She backed away from the growling dog. — often used figuratively ▪ The government seems to be backing away from its earlier proposal. ▪ She has backed away from her controversial position on the death penalty.

back down [phrasal verb] : to stop arguing or fighting for something ▪ When threatened with a revolt of its own supporters, the government backed down. ▪ The strike is expected to continue because neither side is willing to back down. — often + from ▪ The government backed down from its position. ▪ He'll never back down from a fight.

back into [phrasal verb] back into (something) : to become involved in (something) without planning to become involved ▪ He backed into the antiques business almost by accident when he sold some old furniture he'd inherited.

back off [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop arguing or fighting for something : to back down ▪ He has refused to back off. 2 : to decide not to do something that you had agreed to do : to back out ▪ The deal fell through when investors backed off. 3 : to stop bothering someone ▪ She was getting irritated, so I backed off.

back out [phrasal verb] : to decide not to do something that you had agreed to do ▪ The deal fell through when investors backed out. — often + of ▪ The investors backed out of the deal.

back up [phrasal verb] 1 a : to move backward ▪ The car backed up slowly. ▪ Could you back up a little to give me some room? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Wait, let's back up for a second. [=let's go back to what we were discussing earlier] b back (a vehicle) up or back up (a vehicle) : to move (a vehicle) backward ▪ Could you back your car up a little to give me some room? 2 a : to become blocked so that movement or flow is slowed or stopped ▪ Traffic backed up for miles because of the accident. ▪ The drain backed up [=clogged] and had to be unclogged by a plumber. b back (something) up or back up (something) : to cause (something) to become blocked ▪ The accident backed up traffic for miles. = Traffic was backed up [=(Brit) tailed back] for miles because of the accident. ▪ The drain was backed up. 3 back (someone or something) up or back up (someone or something) : to give help or support to (someone or something) ▪ I'll back you up if I think you're right. ▪ She backed her argument up with written evidence. = Written evidence backed her argument up. ▪ It's time to back up your words with deeds! — see also [4]BACK 1e (above) 4 back (something) up or back up (something) computers : to make a copy of (a computer file or data) to protect it from being lost ▪ Remember to back up your work before you log off. — see also BACKUP back•ache /ˈbækˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : pain in the back [count] She has/gets frequent backaches. [noncount] a patient suffering from backache ▪ (Brit) She has/gets frequent backache.

back and forth adv

1 : toward the back and then toward the front : backward and forward ▪ The chair rocked back and forth.

2 : between two places or people ▪ The children were shuttled back and forth between school and home.

back–and–forth noun [noncount] : talk or discussion about something ▪ An agreement was finally reached after a lot of back-and-forth between the two sides.

back•bench /ˈbækˈbɛnʧ/ noun, pl -bench•es [count] Brit : a seat in the British Parliament that is held by an ordinary member ▪ the Prime Minister's supporters on the backbenches — often used before another noun ▪ backbench conservative MPs — compare FRONT BENCH

– back•bench•er /ˈbækˈbɛnʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Labour backbenchers back•bit•ing /ˈbækˌbaɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : unkind talk about someone who is not present ▪ petty backbiting among employees back•board /ˈbækˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] basketball : the board behind the basket back•bone /ˈbækˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones

1 [count] : the row of connected bones that go down the middle of the back and protect the spinal cord — called also spinal column, spine; see picture at HUMAN

2 [count] : the most important or strongest part of something ▪ She is the backbone of the family.

3 [noncount] : strength and courage ▪ He showed some backbone by refusing to compromise his values.

back•break•ing /ˈbækˌbreɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : involving very difficult physical work or effort ▪ backbreaking work back burner noun

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

on the back burner chiefly US : in the position of something that will not receive immediate attention and action ▪ She put her singing career on the back burner to pursue her dream of being a movie star. ▪ The President has put tax reduction on the back burner because he has more urgent problems to deal with. — compare FRONT BURNER back•chat /ˈbækˌʧæt/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : BACK TALK ▪ Don't give me any backchat!

back•cloth /ˈbækˌklɑːθ/ noun, pl -cloths [count] Brit : BACKDROP back•comb /ˈbækˌkoʊm/ verb -combs; -combed; -comb•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to comb (hair) backwards : TEASE ▪ She backcombs her hair.

back•date /ˈbækˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to give (something) an earlier date than the actual date : ANTEDATE ▪ backdate a check

2 : to say that something began or became effective at a date earlier than the current date ▪ an increase in salary backdated to the beginning of the year back door noun, pl ∼ doors [count] : a door at the back of a building — often used figuratively ▪ He managed to get into the private club through the back door [=in a secret or indirect way] because he has a friend who works there.

back•door /ˈbækˈdoɚ/ adj, always used before a noun : done in a secret or indirect way ▪ a backdoor tax increase back•drop /ˈbækˌdrɑːp/ noun, pl -drops [count]

1 : a painted cloth that is hung across the back of a stage

2 : the scene or scenery that is in the background ▪ The mountains provided a perfect backdrop for the wedding photos.

3 : the setting or conditions within which something happens ▪ The novel unfolds against a backdrop of war. ▪ The city provides the backdrop for the love story.

-backed combining form

1 : having a particular kind of back ▪ a broad-backed weight lifter ▪ a high-backed chair ▪ a foam-backed mattress

2 : supported by a particular group, organization, etc. ▪ a UN-backed peace plan ▪ a government-backed antismoking campaign back•er /ˈbækɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or group that gives support to someone or something ▪ the presidential candidate's backers ▪ backers of the plan proposed by the committee back•field /ˈbækˌfiːld/ noun, pl -fields American football

1 [singular] : the area of the field that is behind the line of scrimmage ▪ a tackle made in the backfield

2 [count] : the players who line up behind the line of scrimmage ▪ The team has a strong backfield.

back•fire /ˈbækˌfajɚ/ verb -fires; -fired; -fir•ing [no obj]

1 of an engine or vehicle : to make a loud sound when fuel is not burned properly ▪ The car backfired.

2 : to have the opposite result of what was desired or expected ▪ Our plans backfired (on us).

– backfire noun, pl -fires [count] ▪ an engine backfire

back•gam•mon /ˈbækˌgæmən/ noun [noncount] : a board game for two players in which the players throw dice and try to move all of their pieces around and off the board back•ground /ˈbækˌgraʊnd/ noun, pl -grounds

1 [count] a : the part of a scene or picture that is farthest from the viewer : the part of a scene that is behind a main figure or object in a painting, photograph, etc. ▪ Objects in the foreground are drawn larger than those in the background. ▪ a photograph of a house with mountains in the background ▪ The mountains provided a perfect background [=backdrop] for the wedding photos. ▪ background scenery b : a surface or color that is behind or around something (such as a printed design) ▪ red letters printed on a white background ▪ a background color

2 [singular] a : a position that attracts little attention ▪ He was a shy man who always tried to keep/stay in the background. [=tried to avoid attracting attention] ▪ The war has pushed all other issues into the background. [=has made all other issues less important] ▪ An ethnic conflict that was simmering away in the background finally erupted into civil war. b — used to describe something that occurs without requiring attention while something else is also occurring ▪ The software was automatically updated in the background while we continued to work on the data. c — used to describe something that is heard while something else is being listened to ▪ It was hard to enjoy the music because I could hear a dog barking in the background.

3 a [count] : the events and conditions that help to explain why something happens : the situation in which something occurs — usually singular ▪ We learned about the social and economic background of the American Civil War. ▪ The meetings took place against a background of increasing tension. b [noncount] : information needed to understand a problem or situation ▪ Let me provide you with some background on this problem. — often used before another noun ▪ background information

4 [count] : the experiences, knowledge, education, etc., in a person's past ▪ What is your academic background? ▪ We need to know more about his background before we hire him. ▪ He and his wife come from similar social backgrounds. [=they were raised in similar social environments] ▪ His writing is influenced by his ethnic background. — often used before another noun ▪ They ran a background check to make sure the job candidate had no criminal record.

background music noun [noncount] : music that is played in a movie, television show, etc., to go along with and add to the story or mood background noise noun [noncount] : undesired sound that is heard in a radio broadcast, a tape recording, etc. ▪ The recording had a lot of background noise.

back•hand /ˈbækˌhænd/ noun, pl -hands [count] sports

1 : a way of hitting a ball in tennis and similar games in which the back of the hand holding the racket is turned in the direction of the ball ▪ She has a good backhand but a weak forehand. — often used before another noun ▪ a backhand shot

2 : a catch in baseball and similar games that is made on the side of the body that is opposite the hand being used — often used before another noun ▪ The shortstop made a nice backhand catch on a line drive.

– backhand verb -hands; -hand•ed; -hand•ing [+ obj] ▪ She backhanded the ball over the net. ▪ The shortstop backhanded the ball and threw to first for the out.

back•hand•ed /ˈbækˈhændəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]

1 : not direct or sincere ▪ We were disappointed by his backhanded apology. ▪ She paid me a backhanded compliment [=a compliment that was not really a compliment at all] when she said my work was "surprisingly good." ▪ He paid me a backhanded compliment [=an indirect compliment] by imitating my style.

2 sports : using or done with a backhand ▪ a backhanded [=backhand] shot ▪ a backhanded [=backhand] catch back•hand•er /ˈbækˈhændɚ/ noun, pl -hand•ers [count]

1 sports : a backhanded shot ▪ She hit a backhander into the net.

2 Brit, informal : [1]BRIBE back•hoe /ˈbækˌhoʊ/ noun, pl -hoes [count] US : a large machine that digs into the ground with a metal scoop — see picture at CONSTRUCTION back•ing /ˈbækɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : something that forms a back ▪ The tape has an adhesive backing.

2 [noncount] : support or aid ▪ The project has received financial backing from several investors.

3 [noncount] : the music that is played along with someone who is singing or playing the main tune : the music that accompanies someone — often used before another noun ▪ a backing group ▪ backing music back•lash /ˈbækˌlæʃ/ noun, pl -lash•es [count] : a strong public reaction against something ▪ a backlash against feminism ✧ A backlash occurs when many people react to an event, movement, etc., in a way that is opposite to its intended effect.

back•log /ˈbækˌlɑːg/ noun, pl -logs [count] : a large number of jobs that are waiting to be finished ▪ We have a huge backlog of orders to be filled.

back matter noun [noncount] : the pages at the end of a book following the main part ▪ A list of geographical names appears in the back matter of the dictionary. — compare FRONT MATTER

back of beyond noun

the back of beyond informal : a place that is very far from other places and people : a remote place ▪ He lives by himself in a cabin out in the back of beyond. [=the boondocks] back–of–the–envelope adj, always used before a noun, informal : done to provide a rough idea of something ▪ I can't tell you the exact amount, but my back-of-the-envelope [=rough] calculation indicates a cost of about $300,000.

back order noun, pl ∼ -ders chiefly US, business : a product that has been ordered but not sent to the customer because it is not yet available [count] The book I want to buy is a back order and won't be shipped for three weeks. [noncount] The book I want to buy is on back order and won't be shipped for three weeks.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

– back–or•der verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] ▪ The book I want to buy has been back-ordered and won't be shipped for three weeks.

[1]back•pack /ˈbækˌpæk/ noun, pl -packs [count] chiefly US : a bag for carrying things that has two shoulder straps and is carried on the back — called also (chiefly US) knapsack, (chiefly Brit) rucksack; see picture at CAMPING

[2]backpack verb -packs; -packed; -pack•ing [no obj] : to hike or travel with a backpack ▪ After college, she backpacked through/around Europe. ▪ We're planning to go backpacking in a national park this summer.

– back•pack•er noun, pl -ers [count]

back passage noun, pl ~ -sag•es [count] Brit : the part of the body through which solid waste passes — used as a polite way to avoid saying the word "rectum" back•ped•al /ˈbækˌpɛdl/ verb -ped•als; US -ped•aled or chiefly Brit -ped•alled; US -ped•al•ing or chiefly Brit -ped•al•ling [no obj] : to move backward with quick steps ▪ The outfielder backpedaled a few steps to catch the fly ball. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ When threatened with a revolt of its own supporters, the government backpedaled [=retreated, backtracked] from its previous position.

back•rest /ˈbækˌrɛst/ noun, pl -rests [count] : a support for a person to lean back against while sitting ▪ a chair with a cushioned backrest back•seat /ˈbækˈsi:t/ noun, pl -seats [count] : a seat in the back of something (such as a car)

take a backseat : to be or become less important, active, or powerful — often + to ▪ He refuses to take a backseat to anyone. [=he refuses to let anyone have more power or control than he has] backseat driver noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

1 : a passenger in a car who gives driving advice to the driver 2 : someone who gives unwanted advice or who tries to control something that is supposed to be controlled by another person ▪ Several members of the board of directors have accused him of being a backseat driver.

back•side /ˈbækˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] informal : the part of the body that a person sits on : BUTTOCKS ▪ She slid down the snowy hill on her backside. [=behind, bottom] back•slap•ping /ˈbækˌslæpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : enthusiastic praise or congratulations ▪ We had expected the candidates to criticize each other, but instead they engaged in mutual backslapping.

– back•slap•per /ˈbækˌslæpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count]

– backslapping adj, always used before a noun ▪ backslapping businessmen back•slash /ˈbækˌslæʃ/ noun, pl -slash•es [count] : a mark \ that is used for separating written items in computer file names, commands, etc.

back•slide /ˈbækˌslaɪd/ verb -slides; -slid /-ˌslɪd/; -slid•ing [no obj] : to start doing something bad again after you have stopped it ▪ I was afraid of backsliding [=relapsing] into my old habits. ▪ Smokers who quit often backslide within a year.

– back•slid•er /ˈbækˌslaɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] back•space /ˈbækˌspeɪs/ noun, pl -spac•es [count] : a key that is pressed on a typewriter or computer keyboard to move back toward the beginning of a line of text — usually singular ▪ press the backspace

– backspace verb -spaces; -spaced; -spac•ing [no obj] ▪ He backspaced to the beginning of the line.

back•spin /ˈbækˌspɪn/ noun [noncount] : a backward spinning motion of a ball ▪ put backspin on the ball — compare TOPSPIN back•stab•bing /ˈbækˌstæbɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US : harmful and unfair things that are said or done to hurt the reputation of someone ▪ She was hurt by her former friend's backstabbing.

– back•stab•ber /ˈbækˌstæbɚ/ noun, pl -bers [count] ▪ She accused her former friend of being a backstabber.

– backstabbing adj, always used before a noun ▪ a backstabbing liar back•stage /ˈbækˌsteɪʤ/ adv : behind the stage of a theater ▪ After the show, we went backstage to meet the band.

– backstage adj, always used before a noun ▪ the backstage [=private] lives of celebrities ▪ a backstage pass [=a card that gives permission to go backstage and usually to meet the performers] back•stairs /ˈbækˌsteɚz/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit, informal : done in a secret and usually improper way ▪ a backstairs deal back•stop /ˈbækˌstɑ:p/ noun, pl -stops

1 [count] baseball a : a fence or screen that is placed behind the catcher to prevent the ball from rolling away ▪ The pitch got past the catcher and rolled all the way to the backstop. b informal : CATCHER ▪ a talented backstop

2 [singular] Brit : something that is kept so that it can be used if it is needed ▪ kept some gold as a backstop in case the value of the local currency collapsed back•straight /ˈbækˌstreɪt/ noun, pl -straights [count] Brit : BACKSTRETCH back•street /ˈbækˈstri:t/ noun, pl -streets [count] : a street that is away from the main streets ▪ a London backstreet

back•stretch /ˈbækˌstrɛʧ/ noun, pl -stretch•es [count] : the far side of a racetrack : the side of a track that is opposite to the homestretch ▪ The horses are in the backstretch. — called also (Brit) backstraight back•stroke /ˈbækˌstroʊk/ noun [singular] : a way of swimming in which a person floats in the water facing upward while kicking the legs and rotating the arms ▪ She got into the pool and began to do the backstroke.; also : a race in which the swimmers do the backstroke ▪ She won the 50-meter backstroke.

back•swing /ˈbækˌswɪŋ/ noun, pl -swings [count] : a movement of the arm backwards before swinging something (such as a club, bat, or racket) ▪ a golfer with a short backswing back talk noun [noncount] US, informal : rude speech in reply to someone who should be spoken to with respect ▪ Don't give me any back talk! — called also (Brit) backchat

[1]back–to–back adj

1 : facing in opposite directions and often touching at the back ▪ back-to-back seats

2 : coming one after another in time ▪ back-to-back victories ▪ back-to-back appointments — see also back to back at [1]BACK – back to back adv ▪ They were standing back to back.

[2]back–to–back noun, pl -backs [count] Brit : a house that is connected in a row with other houses on each side and with a similar row of houses behind it back•track /ˈbækˌtræk/ verb -tracks; -tracked; -track•ing [no obj]

1 : to go back over a course or path ▪ The hikers realized they had made a wrong turn and would have to backtrack.

2 : to return to something that was mentioned before ▪ Let me backtrack for a moment and pick up our previous conversation.

3 : to completely change what you think or say about something ▪ Voters lost confidence in him when he backtracked on the issues. [=when he reversed his position on the issues]

back•up /ˈbækˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups

1 a [count] : a person or thing that can be used to replace or support another person or thing ▪ His role on the team is to be a backup to the regular quarterback. ▪ We have an extra radio as a backup in case this one doesn't work. — often used before another noun ▪ a backup quarterback ▪ We need a backup plan in case of emergency. b [noncount] : help or support provided by additional people or things ▪ The policeman called for backup [=called for other police to come and help him] because the suspect was carrying a gun. ▪ We have an extra radio for backup. ▪ He provides backup for the regular quarterback.

2 [count] US : a situation in which the flow of something (such as traffic) becomes blocked ▪ There was a traffic backup [=(Brit) tailback] for miles on the road because of the accident. ▪ There was a backup [=blockage] in the drain.

3 [noncount] : a musical part that is sung to support the main singer ▪ She sang backup on his CD. — often used before another noun ▪ a backup singer

4 [count] : a copy of information stored on a computer ▪ Be sure to make a backup of your work. — often used before another noun ▪ a backup file/copy; also : the act or process of making such a copy ▪ It may take some time for the backup to be complete. — see also back up at [4]BACK

[1]back•ward (chiefly US) /ˈbækwɚd/ or back•wards /ˈbækwɚdz/ adv

1 : toward the back : to or toward what is behind ▪ a sudden movement backward, not forward ▪ I heard a noise behind

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

me and glanced backward. ▪ He pushed the throttle backward. ▪ She took a small step backward. ▪ Can you skate backward?

2 : opposite to the usual way : in reverse ▪ Count backward from 10.

3 : toward the past ▪ a journey backward in time ▪ The narrative moves backward and forward in time.

4 : to or toward a less advanced state or condition : toward a worse state ▪ His new job, which paid less and had fewer responsibilities, felt like a step backward.

bend over backward or lean over backward also fall over backward : to make a great effort to help someone or to reach agreement with someone ▪ The salesman said he would bend over backward to make the deal. ▪ I've leaned over backward to please you—and you haven't even said thank you!

know something backward and forward see [1]KNOW

[2]backward adj

1 a : directed or turned toward the back ▪ a backward glance ▪ a backward baseball cap ▪ a sudden backward movement

b : done backward ▪ a backward somersault

2 [more ~; most ~] : behind others : not as advanced as others in learning or development ▪ (old-fashioned) He was a backward pupil who struggled to keep up in school. ▪ a technologically backward village that has no running water

– back•ward•ly adv – back•ward•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the technological backwardness of the village back•ward–look•ing /ˈbækwə(r)dˌlʊkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : relating to the past ▪ backward-looking [=old-fashioned] ideas/plans : not planning for the future ▪ backward-looking [=hidebound] engineers/politicians/industrialists — opposite FORWARD-LOOKING back•wa•ter /ˈbækˌwɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a part of a river where the water moves slowly because it is away from the main part of the river

2 : a quiet place (such as a town or village) where there is little activity, excitement, progress, etc. ▪ The once sleepy backwater is now a thriving city. ▪ a cultural backwater back•woods /ˈbækˈwʊdz/ noun [plural] : an area that is far from cities ▪ She grew up in the backwoods of Maine. ▪ a backwoods politician [=a politician in a remote area far from cities]

back•woods•man /ˌbækˈwʊdzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : a man who lives in the backwoods

2 Brit : a male member of the House of Lords who rarely attends it and who typically lives in a rural area far from London back•yard /ˈbækˈjɑə(r)d/ noun, pl -yards

1 [count] : an area in back of a house; especially, US : an area of grass behind someone's house ▪ We spent the evening relaxing in the backyard.

2 [noncount] : the general area near and around someone's home ▪ For fun in the sun this summer, look no farther than your own backyard. [=neighborhood] ▪ Residents grew anxious when they learned the new prison would be located in their backyard. [=would be located near their homes]

– backyard adj, always used before a noun ▪ a backyard barbecue ▪ a backyard garden

ba•con /ˈbeɪkən/ noun [noncount] : thin strips of salted and smoked meat from the sides and the back of a pig ▪ We ate bacon and eggs for breakfast. ▪ a slice of bacon = (Brit) a rasher of bacon — often used before another noun ▪ bacon fat bring home the bacon informal : to earn the money that is needed to live ▪ He worked hard all week to bring home the bacon for his family.

save someone's bacon see [1]SAVE bacteria plural of BACTERIUM

bac•te•ri•ol•o•gy /bækˌtiriˈɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of bacteria

– bac•te•ri•o•log•i•cal /bækˌtirijəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj – bac•te•ri•ol•o•gist /bækˌtiriˈɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

bac•te•ri•um /bækˈtirijəm/ noun, pl -te•ria /-ˈtirijə/ [count] : any one of a group of very small living things that often cause disease — usually plural ▪ Keep the wound clean and dry to prevent the growth of bacteria.

– bac•te•ri•al /bækˈtirijəl/ adj

[1]bad /ˈbæd/ adj worse /ˈwəs/; worst /ˈwəst/

1 a : low or poor in quality ▪ a bad repair job ▪ bad work ▪ The house is in bad condition/shape. b : not correct or proper ▪ bad manners ▪ bad [=incorrect, faulty] grammar ▪ a letter written in bad French ▪ bad spelling ▪ a bad check [=a check that cannot be cashed] — see also BAD LANGUAGE

2 a : not pleasant, pleasing, or enjoyable ▪ He had a bad day at the office. ▪ I was having a bad dream. ▪ She made a very bad impression on her future colleagues. ▪ The food tastes bad. ▪ The flower smells bad. ▪ He has bad breath. [=breath that smells bad] ▪ We've been having bad weather lately. ▪ The medicine left a bad taste in his mouth. ▪ It feels bad [=uncomfortable, painful] to stretch out my arm. ▪ I look bad in this hat. = This hat looks bad on me. ▪ That hat doesn't look bad on you. [=that hat looks good on you] b : having, marked by, or relating to problems, troubles, etc. ▪ good and bad news ▪ They have remained together in good times and bad (times). ▪ It's a bad time for business right now. ▪ a bad omen ▪ bad luck/fortune ▪ Things are looking pretty bad for us at this point. ▪ I have a bad feeling about this. — see also BAD BLOOD, BAD NEWS c : not adequate or suitable ▪ I couldn't take a picture because the lighting was bad. ▪ It's a bad day for a picnic. ▪ She made a bad marriage. ▪ Is this a bad moment/time to have a word with you? d : not producing or likely to produce a good result ▪ a bad deal ▪ a bad risk ▪ a bad idea/plan ▪ The plan has its good points and its bad points. ▪ a bad debt [=a debt that will not be paid] ▪ a bad loan [=a loan that will not be repaid] e : expressing criticism or disapproval ▪ The movie got bad reviews.

3 a : not healthy : marked or affected by injury or disease ▪ His health is pretty bad. = He's in pretty bad health. ▪ The patient was pretty bad [=ill, sick] last week and even worse yesterday but is doing better now. ▪ He came home early because he was feeling pretty bad. [=he wasn't feeling well] ▪ My father has a bad back/leg. [=a back/leg that is always or often painful] ▪ She has bad eyesight/hearing. ▪ bad teeth b : causing harm or trouble ▪ a bad diet ▪ a bad influence ▪ bad cholesterol [=a type of cholesterol that can cause serious health problems when there is too much of it in your blood] — often + for ▪ Eating too much can be bad for you. = It can be bad for you to eat too much. ▪ Eating all that candy is bad for your teeth. ▪ Watching too much TV is bad for children.

4 a : not morally good or right : morally evil or wrong ▪ a bad person ▪ bad conduct/behavior ▪ a man of bad character ▪ bad intentions/deeds ▪ It's hard to tell the good guys from the bad guys in this movie. — see also BAD FAITH b : not behaving properly ▪ a bad dog ▪ I'm afraid your son has been a very bad [=naughty] boy. — see also BAD BOY

5 a : not skillful : not doing or able to do something well ▪ a bad musician ▪ a bad doctor ▪ She was pretty bad in that movie. [=she did not act well] — often + at ▪ a doctor who's bad at treating nervous patients ▪ He's very/really bad at expressing his true feelings. b : having a tendency not to do something — + about ▪ He's bad about getting to work on time. [=he often fails to get to work on time] ▪ I'm very bad about remembering people's birthdays. [=I often forget people's birthdays]

6 a : not happy or pleased : feeling regret or guilt about something ▪ I feel bad about what happened. [=I regret what happened] ▪ She felt bad that she forgot to call. = She felt bad about forgetting to call. b : not cheerful or calm ▪ She's in a bad mood. [=an angry mood] ▪ He has a bad temper. [=he's bad-tempered; he becomes angry easily]

7 : serious or severe ▪ She's in bad trouble. ▪ He has a bad cough/cold. ▪ That bruise looks bad: you'd better see a doctor about it. ▪ How bad is the pain?

8 : no longer good to eat or drink : not fresh ▪ the smell of bad fish ▪ Is the milk still good or has it gone bad? [=spoiled]

9 bad•der; bad•dest chiefly US, informal a : very good ▪ He's the baddest guitar player you'll ever hear! b : very tough or dangerous ▪ Don't mess around with him. He's a bad dude.

a bad job see JOB

a bad lot see LOT bad apple see APPLE

come to a bad end see [1]END

from bad to worse : from a bad state or condition to an even worse state or condition ▪ The company has been struggling for years, and things have recently gone from bad to worse.

in a bad way : in a bad condition ▪ Without enough funding, public services are in a pretty bad way right now. ▪ The patient was in a bad way last week but is doing better now.

in someone's bad books see [1]BOOK not bad : fairly good or quite good ▪ All things considered, she's not a bad singer. [=she's a pretty good singer] ▪ "How are you?" "Not (too/so) bad, thanks. And you?"

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

too bad 1 — used to show that you are sorry or feel bad about something ▪ It's too bad [=unfortunate] that John and Mary are getting divorced. = It's too bad about John and Mary getting divorced. [=I'm sorry to hear that John and Mary are getting divorced] ▪ "I won't be able to come to the party." "(That's) Too bad. I was hoping you'd be there." 2 — used in an ironic way to show that you are not sorry or do not feel bad about something ▪ "But I need your help!" "(That's just) Too bad."

with bad grace see [1]GRACE

– bad•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the badness of his behavior ▪ the badness [=severity] of his injuries ▪ There's more goodness than badness in him.

[2]bad adv worse; worst US, informal : BADLY ▪ She was struggling when she first started the job, but she's not doing so bad now. [=she's doing fairly well now] ▪ He hasn't succeeded because he doesn't want it bad enough. ▪ He cut himself real bad. [=very badly] ▪ I need a vacation and I need it bad. [=I need it very much] ▪ "Is he in love with her?" "Oh yeah, he's got it bad." [=he's extremely in love with her] bad off US 1 : having little money ▪ They're pretty bad off [=they don't have enough money] now that he's lost his job. ▪ We're not rich, but we're not too bad off (for money). [=we're not poor] 2 : in a bad or difficult situation or condition ▪ When I heard how bad off they were, I asked if I could do anything to help. ▪ This state isn't too bad off compared to other parts of the country.

[3]bad noun

1 [noncount] : morally bad forces or influences : EVIL ▪ There's more good than bad in him. ▪ We need to teach our children the difference between good and bad.

2 the bad a [singular] : the unpleasant things that happen to people ▪ You have to take the good with the bad. [=you have to accept the bad things that happen to you as well as the good things] b [singular] : things that are morally wrong ▪ teaching children the difference between the good and the bad c [plural] : morally bad people ▪ He believes that the good go to heaven when they die and the bad go to hell.

bad•ass /ˈbædˌæs/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal + sometimes offensive

1 : likely to cause trouble : tough and dangerous ▪ a badass criminal

2 : very skillful or impressive ▪ a badass musician

– badass noun, pl -ass•es [count] He acted tough and thought of himself as a badass.

bad blood noun [noncount] : feelings of dislike between two people or groups ▪ There's been a lot of bad blood between them since their quarrel.

bad boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] : a man who says or does things that shock other people; especially : a young and successful man who does things in a way that is very different from the usual way ▪ He has become known as the bad boy of the American television industry.

bad•die or bad•dy /ˈbædi/ noun, pl -dies [count] informal : a bad person in a book, movie, etc. : VILLAIN ▪ He plays one of the good guys in his latest film and defeats all the baddies. [=bad guys]

bade past tense of [1]BID bad faith noun [noncount] : lack of honesty in dealing with other people ▪ She accused her landlord of bad faith [=dishonesty] because he had promised to paint the apartment but never did it. — compare GOOD FAITH in bad faith : in a dishonest and improper way ▪ She signed the contract in bad faith. [=with no intention of doing what it said she would do]

badge /ˈbæʤ/ noun, pl badg•es [count]

1 : a small object (such as a tag, pin, or metal shield) that is worn or held up by a person so that it can be easily seen, that has writing (such as a person's name) and often a picture on it, and that shows who the person is ▪ The policeman flashed his badge. ▪ Don't forget to wear your name badge. ▪ The receptionist glanced at my visitor's badge.

2 : a cloth patch that can be sewn onto clothing and that is awarded to a person (such as a Boy Scout or Girl Scout) for doing something ▪ She earned 10 merit badges in scouting.

3 Brit : [1]BUTTON 2 ▪ She was wearing a badge that read "Support your local library."

4 : something that represents or is a sign of something else ▪ She viewed her failures as a badge of humanity. ▪ He wore his ethnic heritage as a badge of honor/pride. [=he was proud of his ethnic heritage and did not try to hide it]

[1]bad•ger /ˈbæʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a type of animal that lives in the ground and has short thick legs and long claws on its front feet

badger

[2]bad•ger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [+ obj]

1 : to bother or annoy (someone) with many comments or questions ▪ The celebrity was being badgered [=pestered] by reporters.

2 : to ask or tell someone again and again to do something ▪ He's been badgering [=nagging, pestering] me to clean the garage for months. ▪ She finally badgered me into cutting my hair.

bad•lands /ˈbædˌlændz/ noun [plural] : a region in the U.S. where weather has worn away rocks into strange shapes and where there are very few plants ▪ the badlands of South Dakota bad language noun [noncount] : offensive language : dirty language ▪ She scolded the children for using bad language.

bad•ly /ˈbædli/ adv worse /ˈwəs/; worst /ˈwəst/

1 : in a bad manner ▪ We played badly. ▪ The car ran badly. ▪ He played badly but I played even worse. ▪ The failure reflects badly on the administration. ▪ The child behaved badly. ▪ a badly planned project

2 a : very much : to a great degree ▪ She wanted the job badly. ▪ I'm badly in need of a vacation. ▪ We miss you badly. b : severely or seriously ▪ Was she hurt badly? ▪ His fingers were badly frozen.

badly off 1 : having little money ▪ We were so badly off [=poor, broke] we couldn't afford a bus ticket. ▪ Thanks to the money my uncle left me, I'm not badly off. [=I'm pretty well off] 2 : in bad condition ▪ I felt unwell, but I wasn't so badly off that I had to stay home from work.

badly off for Brit : having a strong need for (something or someone) ▪ The team was badly off for young players.

not badly : fairly or quite well ▪ "How are you doing?" "Not too/so badly, thanks. And you?"

think badly of : to have a bad or low opinion of (someone) ▪ Will you think badly of me if I take the last cookie?

bad•min•ton /ˈbædˌmɪtn̩/ noun [noncount] : a game in which a light feathered object (called a shuttlecock) is hit over a net by players using light rackets — see picture at RACKET bad–mouth /ˈbædˌmaʊθ/ verb -mouths; -mouthed; -mouth•ing [+ obj] : to say bad things about (someone or something) : to criticize (someone or something) ▪ She refuses to bad-mouth her colleagues.

bad news noun [singular] informal : a bad, unpleasant, or dangerous person or thing ▪ Stay away from him—he's bad news. ▪ "That drug is bad news," she warned.

bad–tempered adj [more ~; most ~] : easily annoyed or angered : ILL-TEMPERED ▪ a bad-tempered old man

[1]baf• e /ˈbæfəl/ verb baf• es ; baf• ed ; baf• ing [+ obj] : to confuse (someone) completely ▪ Her behavior baffles [=bewilders] me. ▪ I was baffled by many of the scientific terms used in the article.

– baffled adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a baffled look [=a look that shows confusion] ▪ His explanation left me feeling even more baffled [=confused] than I had felt before. – baf• e•ment /ˈbæfəlmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ I couldn't hide my complete bafflement at her strange behavior. – baffling adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It's completely baffling to me how she can behave like that! ▪ a baffling array of choices – baf• ing •ly /ˈbæflɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ bafflingly strange behavior

[2]baffle noun, pl baffles [count] technical : a device (such as a wall or screen) that is used to control the flow of something (such as a fluid, light, or sound)

[1]bag /ˈbæg/ noun, pl bags

1 [count] a : a container made of thin material (such as paper, plastic, or cloth) that opens at the top and is used for holding or carrying things ▪ She packed her lunch in a paper bag. ▪ (US) a garbage/trash bag = (Brit) a rubbish bag ▪ (US) grocery bags = (Brit) carrier bags [=plastic or paper bags used for holding items bought at a store] b : a soft container carried by a woman and used to hold money and other small things (such as keys or makeup) ▪ She put the pencil in her bag. — see also HANDBAG, SHOULDER BAG c : a container used for carrying personal things (such as clothes) when you are going somewhere ▪ an overnight bag ▪ a gym

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

bag — usually plural ▪ We carried our bags [=suitcases, luggage] to the hotel room. ▪ She packed her bags and left.
2 [count] : the amount of something that is inside a bag ▪ We ate two bags [=bagfuls] of potato chips. ▪ a bag of apples/flour/fertilizer
3 bags [plural] : an area of swollen and often dark skin under a person's eyes ▪ a tired old man with bags under his eyes
4 [singular] : a collection of different things (such as ideas) ▪ They tried using their usual bag of tricks. — see also GRAB BAG, MIXED BAG, RAGBAG
5 [singular] informal + old-fashioned : something that a person likes to do : something that a person does well ▪ Housecleaning isn't her bag. [=she doesn't like housecleaning] ▪ I've tried living in the city, but it's just not my bag.
6 [count] baseball : a square white bag that marks the position of first base, second base, and third base ▪ He slid into the bag and was safe at second base.
7 [count] informal — used as an insulting word for an old woman ▪ Shut up, you old bag!
8 bags [plural] Brit, informal : a large amount of something ▪ There's no need to hurry. We've still got bags [=lots] of time.
a bag of nerves see NERVE bag and baggage chiefly Brit : with all of your possessions ▪ He got rid of the visitors, bag and baggage. [=altogether, completely] hold the bag see [1]HOLD in the bag informal : sure to happen ▪ Their success was in the bag. [=guaranteed] : certain to be successful ▪ We had the game in the bag [=sewn up] by the end of first half. ▪ She seemed to have the election in the bag. [=she seemed sure to win the election]
let the cat out of the bag see CAT

[2]bag verb bags; bagged; bag•ging [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) into a bag ▪ He got a job bagging groceries.
2 : to kill or catch (an animal) while hunting, fishing, etc. ▪ The hunters bagged five deer altogether. ▪ We bagged 10 fish today.
3 informal : to get (something desired) ▪ She's expected to bag the award for the team's most valuable player. ▪ I bagged the last seat so everyone else had to stand.
4 US, informal : to give up or leave (something) ▪ She decided to bag her job and move to the country. ▪ He finally bagged his acting career and went back to school.

ba•gel /ˈbeɪgəl/ noun, pl -gels [count] : a bread roll shaped like a ring — see picture at BAKING

bagful /ˈbægˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count]
1 : the amount that a bag can hold ▪ two bagfuls [=bags] of apples
2 : a large number or amount ▪ She always has a bagful of stories. ▪ a bagful of tricks

bag•gage /ˈbægɪʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 chiefly US : the bags, suitcases, and personal things that a person carries when traveling : LUGGAGE ▪ Please collect your baggage. — see also baggage claim at [2]CLAIM
2 : the feelings, beliefs, problems, or past events that can make life difficult for a person or group ▪ His difficult childhood left him with a lot of heavy/personal/emotional baggage. ▪ the cultural/political/historical baggage of the region bag and baggage see [1]BAG

bag•gy /ˈbægi/ adj bag•gi•er; -est of clothing : very loose : not tight ▪ baggy jeans/sweaters ▪ These pants are too baggy at the knees.

bag lady noun, pl ~ ladies [count] : a homeless woman who walks around the streets of a city carrying her possessions in a bag

bag lunch noun, pl ~ lunches [count] US : a lunch that is made at home, packed inside a bag or box, and eaten at a job, at school, etc. ▪ Remember to bring a bag lunch to school tomorrow. — called also box lunch bag of bones noun [singular] informal : a very thin person or animal ▪ I can't believe how thin he is. He's just a bag of bones.

bag•pipe /ˈbægˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count] : a musical instrument that is played especially in Scotland and that has a bag, a tube for blowing air into the bag, and pipes where the air leaves and makes sounds ✧ The musical instrument is usually referred to by the plural bagpipes. ▪ He's learning to play the bagpipes. In U.S. English, the singular bagpipe is also used. ▪ We heard the sound of a bagpipe. In both U.S. and British English, bagpipe is sometimes used before another noun. ▪ bagpipe music

bagpipe

ba•guette /bæˈgɛt/ noun, pl -guettes [count] : a long, thin loaf of French bread bah /ˈbɑ:/ interj, old-fashioned + humorous — used to show dislike or disapproval of something ▪ Bah, humbug!

[1]bail /ˈbeɪl/ noun [noncount] : an amount of money given to a court to allow a prisoner to leave jail and return later for a trial

The bail paid by a person accused of a crime is returned when the person comes back to court for a trial. To set bail is to decide how much money a person must pay in order to get out of jail until a trial. ▪ The judge/court set bail at $1 million. = The bail was set at $1 million. To grant bail or give bail is to allow a prisoner to pay money to leave jail until a trial. ▪ It is not clear whether the judge will grant bail in this case. If you are denied bail or held without bail, a court will not allow you to pay money to leave jail until your trial. ▪ The two men are being held without bail. ▪ Bail was denied, and he was sent to prison to await his trial. If you are free on bail or out on bail or have been released/freed on bail, you have paid the court money and are now out of jail and waiting for your trial. ▪ He is now free on bail. = He's out on bail. ▪ They were both free/out on $10,000 bail. [=they both paid the court $10,000 and promised to return for their trials] ▪ She was released on $5,000 bail. [=she left jail after paying the court $5,000] If you make bail or post bail, you give enough money to the court and can leave jail until your trial. ▪ He didn't have enough money to make bail so he had to stay in prison until his trial. ▪ Someone posted bail for you. You're free to go. To jump bail or skip bail is to pay money to get out of jail and then not return for your trial. ▪ A day after he was released from jail, he decided to jump bail and leave the country. ▪ They skipped bail a week before the trial.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 96 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

[2]bail verb bails; bailed; bail•ing
bail out [phrasal verb] 1 bail (someone) out or bail out (someone) : to make it possible for someone to leave jail by paying bail ▪ She went to the jail to bail out her boyfriend. = She bailed him out of jail. 2 bail (someone or something) out or bail out (someone or something) : to help (someone) solve a problem or leave a difficult situation ▪ They're always bailing their son out of trouble. : to help (a business, an organization, etc.) by giving or lending money ▪ The federal government bailed out [=gave money to] their struggling company. ▪ bailing out poor countries — see also BAILOUT
– compare [3]BAIL

[3]bail verb bails; bailed; bailing
1 [+ obj] : to remove or throw water from or out of a boat ▪ We used a bucket to bail water out of the canoe. = We used a bucket to bail out the canoe. ▪ bailing water from the bottom of the boat
2 [no obj] US, informal : to leave a difficult situation ▪ She bailed [=bailed out] when times got tough. [=she left when life became difficult] ▪ I think we'd better bail. [=bail out] bail out [phrasal verb] chiefly US 1 : to jump out of an airplane with a parachute ▪ The pilot bailed out [=(Brit) baled out] just before the plane crashed. 2 : to leave or escape a harmful or difficult situation ▪ Most investors have bailed out [=(Brit) baled out] of the business. ▪ They bailed out [=backed out] of the deal.
– compare [2]BAIL

bai•liff /ˈbeɪlɨf/ noun, pl -liffs [count]
1 US : an officer in a court of law who helps the judge control the people in the courtroom
2 Brit : someone hired by a sheriff to bring legal documents to people and to take away possessions when people cannot pay for them
3 Brit : someone who manages the land and property of another person : STEWARD bail•out /ˈbeɪlˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : the act of saving or rescuing something (such as a business) from money problems ▪ government bailouts of large corporations — see also bail out 2 at [2]BAIL

bairn /ˈbeərn/ noun, pl bairns [count] Scotland : CHILD ▪ a wee bairn [=a small child]

[1]bait /ˈbeɪt/ noun, pl baits : something (such as a piece of food) that is used to attract fish or animals so they can be caught [noncount] We always use live bait [=worms that are alive] when we fish. ▪ cheese used for/as bait in mousetraps ▪ Wait until the fish takes the bait. [count] a wide selection of lures and baits — often used figuratively ▪ using bargains as bait for shoppers [=using bargains to attract shoppers] ▪ The police waited for the bank robbers to take the bait. [=to be tricked into doing the thing that would cause them to be trapped or caught] ▪ (chiefly Brit) The interviewer kept asking the politician whether he was lying, and he rose to the bait by getting angry.
fish or cut bait see [2]FISH

[2]bait verb baits; bait•ed; bait•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put a piece of food on (a hook) or in (a trap) in order to attract and catch fish or animals ▪ She baited the mousetraps with pieces of cheese. = She used cheese to bait the traps. ▪ baiting hooks with live worms ▪ a baited hook/trap
2 : to try to make (someone) angry by using criticism or insults ▪ The interviewer kept baiting the politician by asking him whether he was lying. — see also RACE-BAITING
3 : to use dogs to make (an animal, such as a bear or bull) angry or afraid — used in combination ▪ bear-baiting ▪ bull-baiting bait and switch noun [singular] US : a selling method in which a customer is attracted by the advertisement of a low-priced product but then is encouraged to buy a more expensive one

bake /ˈbeɪk/ verb bakes; baked; bak•ing
1 a : to make (food, such as bread and cake) by preparing a dough, batter, etc., and cooking it in an oven using dry heat [+ obj] I baked you a cake. = I baked a cake for you. ▪ freshly baked bread [=bread that was baked recently] [no obj] He likes to bake. = He enjoys baking. [=he likes making pies, muffins, cookies, etc.] b : to cook (food) in an oven using dry heat [+ obj] Bake [=roast] the chicken for 30 minutes. ▪ baked potatoes ▪ She wrapped the fish in foil and baked it for 15 minutes. [no obj] — used in recipes ▪ Wrap the fish in foil and bake for 15 minutes. c [no obj] : to be cooked in an oven ▪ The turkey has been baking [=roasting] for an hour. ▪ How long has the cake been baking?
2 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as clay or mud) dry and hard by using heat ▪ They baked the bricks in the sun.
3 [no obj] : to be or become very hot ▪ The streets were baking in the afternoon heat. ▪ We stood baking [=sweltering] under the hot desert sun. — see also HALF-BAKED – baking adj ▪ We stood in the baking heat. ▪ The streets were baking hot.

baked beans noun [plural] : beans that have been boiled and then baked usually in a sweet brown sauce

bak•er /ˈbeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who bakes bread, cakes, etc. ▪ I'm a very good baker. ▪ She's a successful baker who opened a chain of bakeries. ▪ I got this bread fresh from the baker's [=from the bakery] this morning.

baker's dozen noun [singular] old-fashioned : thirteen of something ▪ a baker's dozen of books [=thirteen books] bak•ery /ˈbeɪkəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] : a place where bread, cakes, cookies, and other baked foods are made or sold ▪ They work at/in a bakery.

bake sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] US : an event in which people try to earn money by selling baked foods (such as cookies and pies) ▪ They organized a bake sale to raise money for the church.

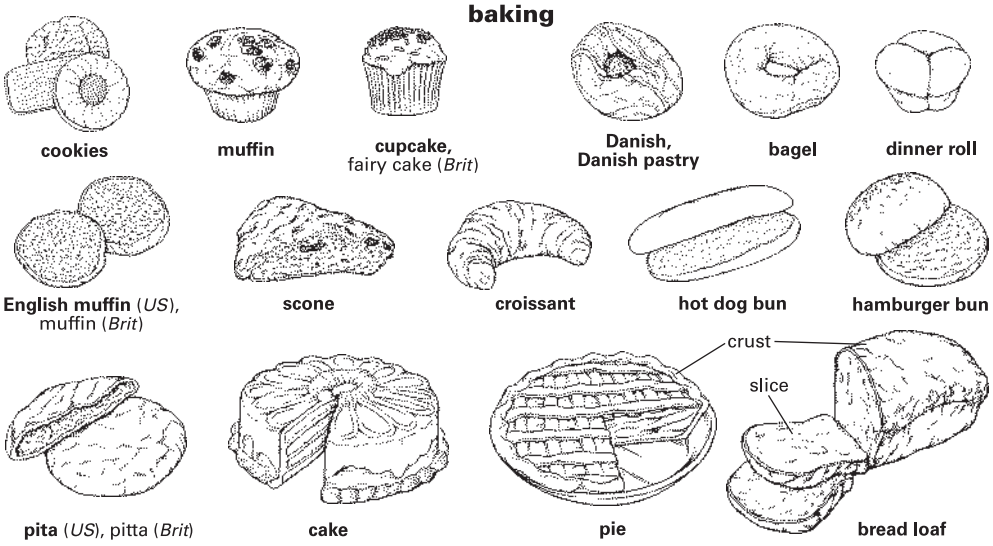
baking



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

baking powder noun [noncount] : a white powder that is used to make baked foods (such as cakes and breads) light and fluffy ▪ The recipe calls for a teaspoon of baking powder.

baking sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] : a flat piece of metal used for baking things (such as cookies and biscuits) in an oven — called also (chiefly US) cookie sheet; see picture at KITCHEN baking soda noun [noncount] : a kind of salt that is used to make baked foods (such as cookies and breads) light and fluffy ✧ Baking soda is one of the ingredients in baking powder. — called also bicarb, bicarbonate of soda, sodium bicarbonate

baking tray noun, pl ~ trays [count] chiefly Brit : BAKING SHEET

bal•a•cla•va /ˌbælə'klɑːvə/ noun, pl -vas [count] : a warm hat that covers the head, neck, and most of the face

[1]bal•ance /'bæləns/ noun, pl -anc•es

1 [noncount] a : the state of having your weight spread equally so that you do not fall ▪ He held on to the rail for balance. = He held on to the rail to keep/maintain his balance. ▪ She had trouble keeping her balance as the boat rocked back and forth. ▪ The skater suddenly lost his balance and fell. ▪ Another skater bumped into him and knocked/threw him off balance. ✧ In figurative use, to knock/throw someone off balance or keep someone off balance is to make someone feel unsure about how to behave or what to expect. ▪ He was surprised and thrown off balance by her strong personality. ▪ The sudden change in the schedule knocked me off balance. ▪ The author keeps her readers off balance by always changing the subject. b : the ability to move or to remain in a position without losing control or falling ▪ Gymnasts need flexibility and balance. ▪ She has a good sense of balance.

2 [singular] : a state in which different things occur in equal or proper amounts or have an equal or proper amount of importance ▪ To provide balance in her news story, she interviewed members of both political parties. ▪ Temperature changes could upset the delicate balance of life in the forest. ▪ To lose weight you need the proper/right balance of diet and exercise. ▪ The food had a perfect balance of sweet and spicy flavors. ▪ He needs to achieve/create/strike a better balance between his work life and his family life. [=he needs to spend less time at work and more time with his family] ▪ He's trying to keep his work life and his family life in balance. = He's trying to keep his work life in balance with his family life. [=he's trying to give a proper of amount of time and attention to both his work life and his family life] ▪ It's important to keep your life in balance. ▪ His work life and his family life are out of balance. = His work life is out of balance with his family life. ▪ If these ingredients are out of balance [=not used in good or correct amounts], the dish will not taste good. ▪ The death of his wife threw/sent his life out of balance.

3 a [count] : the amount of money in a bank account ▪ He has a comfortable/healthy/hefty bank balance. [=he has plenty of money in the bank] ▪ You must maintain a minimum balance of $1,000 [=you must keep at least $1,000] in your bank account. b [count] : the amount of money that still needs to be paid ▪ What are the unpaid balances on your credit cards? ▪ The bill was $500 and we've received $400, so the balance (of the bill) is $100. c *the balance : something that remains or is left over after other things have been done or used ▪ We planned to stay there for the balance [=the rest, the remainder] of the summer. ▪ Although the beginning is funny, the balance of the book is very serious.

4 [count] : a device that measures weight and shows how heavy things are : SCALE — see also CHECKS AND BALANCES in the balance ✧ If something (such as your future) hangs in the balance or is in the balance, it is not certain but will soon be known or decided. ▪ Our future hangs in the balance as we await their decision. [=our future depends on their decision; their decision will control our future] ▪ With his job in the balance, he went to ask his boss for a raise.

on balance : with all things considered : in general ▪ The meeting went well on balance. ▪ Although our lives are difficult now, I believe that on balance we are becoming stronger people.

tip the balance see [1]TIP

[2]balance verb -ances; -anced; -anc•ing

1 : to make (something, such as a plate or your body) steady by keeping weight equal on all sides [+ obj] — usually + on ▪ The waiters balanced the food on large trays. ▪ She learned to walk while balancing a book on her head. ▪ Can you balance a spoon on your nose? [no obj] I find it difficult to balance on one foot. ▪ He had trouble balancing on his skis. ▪ He helped his daughter balance on her bicycle before she started peddling. — see also balancing act at [1]ACT

2 a [+ obj] : to adjust (an account or budget) so that the amount of money available is more than or equal to the amount of money that has been spent ▪ The legislature is still trying to balance the state's budget. ▪ a balanced budget b : to check and make adjustments to financial records so that they are accurate [+ obj] He balances his checkbook every month. ▪ The company hasn't done a good job balancing the books. [=keeping a record of the money it spends and earns] [no obj] Something's wrong: the books don't balance.

3 [+ obj] : to make (different or opposite things) equal in strength or importance ▪ She's able to balance her career with her family life. = She balances work and family. ▪ The group is balanced between new and old members. [=the group had an equal number of new and old members] — see also BALANCE OUT 2 (below)

4 [+ obj] : to make (a different or opposite thing) less powerful, noticeable, etc. ▪ Serve black coffee to help balance the sweetness of the dessert. ▪ His quickness will balance [=compensate for, make up for] the other fighter's greater strength. ▪ The movie's serious subject matter is balanced [=offset] with humor. ▪ His sadness was balanced by memories of happier days. — see also BALANCE OUT 1 (below)

5 [+ obj] : to think about (different things) and decide which is better or more important — usually + against or with ▪ Their fears must be balanced [=weighed] against the need for change. ▪ A national government must balance [=compare] the needs of individuals with/against the needs of the entire country. ▪ They'll have to balance the risks with the rewards. [=they'll have to decide if the possible good results are worth the possible bad results]

balance out [phrasal verb] 1 *balance out (something) or balance (something) out : to make (a different or opposite thing) less powerful, noticeable, etc. ▪ Serve black coffee to help balance out the sweetness of the dessert. ▪ His quickness will balance out [=compensate for, make up for] the other fighter's greater strength. ▪ The discount balances out the shipping charge. = The discount and the shipping charge balance each other out. [=the shipping charge and the discount together equal zero] — see also [2]BALANCE 4 (above) 2 : to be or become equal or even ▪ The good times and the bad times balanced out [=evened out] in the end. — see also [2]BALANCE 3 (above)

balance beam noun, pl ~ beams [count] : a thick bar of wood raised above the floor that is used in gymnastics for displays of balance

bal•anced /'bælənst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having good or equal amounts of all the necessary parts of something ▪ Most news articles gave a balanced [=fair, unbiased] account of the event. ▪ a balanced diet [=a diet having all the kinds of food needed to be healthy] ▪ Every morning she eats a balanced breakfast of toast, yogurt, and a glass of orange juice. — opposite UNBALANCED balance of payments noun [singular] : the difference between the amount of money that a country spends and the amount it earns balance of power noun [singular] : a state or situation in which two countries or groups (such as two political parties) have equal amounts of power — usually used with the ▪ Their party's loss of two members shifted/tipped the balance of power in the legislature. ✧ A group that holds the balance of power is able to control what happens by choosing to support either one of two larger groups that oppose each other.

balance of trade noun [singular] : the difference between the amount of money that a country spends on its imports and the amount that it earns from its exports ▪ Each nation tries to maintain a favorable balance of trade with other countries. [=they try to earn more from their exports than they spend on their imports] balance sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] : a statement that shows the financial condition of a company at a particular time by listing the amount of money and property that the company has and the amount of money it owes bal•co•ny /'bælkəni/ noun, pl -nies [count]

1 : a raised platform that is connected to the side of a building and surrounded by a low wall or railing ▪ We asked for a hotel room with a balcony. — see picture on next page

2 : a floor or seating area above the main floor of a theater ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 97 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

Our seats are on/in the balcony. = We have balcony seats. — see picture at THEATER

bald /ˈbɑːld/ adj bald•er; -est

1 a of a person : having no hair or very little hair on the head ▪ a bald man ▪ All of his uncles are completely bald. ▪ He's already starting to go bald. [=to become bald] ▪ He had gone completely bald by the age of 30. b of a part of the body : not covered with hair ▪ He covered his bald head with a baseball cap. ▪ There's a bald spot on the top of his head. ▪ There are bald patches in the cat's fur.

balcony 1

2 : not covered with trees and plants ▪ a bald mountain top

3 of a tire : having a flat and smooth surface because of age and use ▪ an old car with bald tires

4 : said or given in a very direct way without extra details or explanations ▪ She repeated her bald assertion that her son was not guilty of the crime. ▪ We need more than bald statements; we need evidence and proof. ▪ the bald facts — compare BALD-FACED

– bald•ly adv ▪ She baldly asserted that her son was not guilty. ▪ To put it baldly [=to say it in a harsh and honest way], I don't like you. – bald•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a medicine that treats baldness ▪ I was surprised by the baldness of her assertion.

bald eagle noun, pl ~ eagles [count] : a very large bird of North America that has a white head and white tail feathers ✧ The bald eagle is a symbol of the U.S. — see color picture on page C9

bal•der•dash /ˈbɑːldəˌdæʃ/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned + informal : foolish words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ Frankly, I think that's absolute balderdash. [=baloney, hogwash] — sometimes used as an interjection. ▪ Balderdash! That's not what happened!

bald–faced /ˈbɑːldˈfeɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US

1 : easy to see and understand as being bad ▪ That's a bald-faced [=barefaced, blatant] lie!

2 : showing no guilt or shame : not hiding bad behavior ▪ Don't believe her. She's a bald-faced [=barefaced, blatant] liar.

bald•ing /ˈbɑːldɪŋ/ adj : becoming bald ▪ He wore a hat to cover his balding head. ▪ a balding man

[1]bale /ˈbeɪl/ noun, pl bales [count] : a large amount of a material (such as hay or wool) that is pressed together tightly and often tied or wrapped ▪ a bale of cotton/paper

[2]bale verb bales; baled; bal•ing [+ obj] : to press together and tightly tie or wrap (something, such as hay or paper) into a bale — compare [3]BALE

[3]bale verb bales; baled; baling [+ obj] Brit : [3]BAIL 1 ▪ We used a bucket to bale water out of the canoe. = We used a bucket to bale out the canoe.

bale out [phrasal verb] Brit 1 : to jump out of an airplane with a parachute ▪ The pilot baled out [=bailed out] just before the plane crashed. 2 : to leave or escape a harmful or difficult situation ▪ The investors baled out [=bailed out] of the business. ▪ They baled out [=backed out] of the deal.

– compare [2]BALE

bale•ful /ˈbeɪlfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : threatening harm or evil ▪ He turned and gave us a baleful [=sinister] glance/glare/look.

2 : harmful or deadly ▪ the baleful effects/consequences of water pollution

– bale•ful•ly adv ▪ He stared balefully at his opponent.

[1]balk also Brit baulk /ˈbɑːk/ verb balks; balked; balk•ing [no obj]

1 : to suddenly show that you do not want to do something : to refuse to do what someone else wants you to do ▪ If this witness balks [=refuses to cooperate in court], our lawyers will not have enough evidence to win the case. — often + at ▪ The public balked at the President's new tax plan. ▪ He balks at sending his children to expensive private schools. [=he won't send his children to expensive private schools]

2 a of a horse, mule, etc. : to stop quickly and refuse to continue going ▪ The horse balked and would not jump the fence. b of an engine : to fail to work in the usual or expected way ▪ I turned the key, but the car's engine balked. [=refused to start]

3 baseball, of a pitcher : to stop suddenly after starting to throw a pitch : to commit a balk ▪ The runner on third base tried to make the pitcher balk.

[2]balk noun, pl balks [count] baseball : an occurrence in which a pitcher stops suddenly or makes an illegal movement after starting to throw a pitch ▪ He committed a balk. ✧ A pitcher can only commit a balk if there is a runner on first base, second base, or third base. When a balk occurs, the runner is allowed to go to the next base.

balky /ˈbɑːki/ adj balk•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly US : not doing what is wanted or expected ▪ Several balky [=stubborn] congressmen have refused to support the President's tax plan. ▪ a balky horse ▪ a balky engine

[1]ball /ˈbɑːl/ noun, pl balls

1 [count] : a usually round object that is used in a game or sport or as a toy ▪ a tennis/soccer ball ▪ golf/billiard/bowling balls ▪ a toy rubber ball ▪ kick/throw/hit/catch/bounce/dribble the ball

2 [count] : something that has a round shape ▪ a ball of string ▪ She uses cotton balls to clean her face. ▪ eating rice/melon balls

3 [count] : a round bullet shot out of an old-fashioned gun

4 [count] : the rounded part of the human foot that is at the bottom of the foot and behind the toes — usually plural ▪ He stood on the balls of his feet. — see picture at FOOT

5 informal + often offensive a [count] : TESTICLE — usually plural ▪ She kicked him in the balls. b balls [plural] : the courage that is needed to do something ▪ You don't have the/enough balls [=guts, nerve] to fight me. c balls [plural] Brit : NONSENSE — often used as an interjection to express disapproval or annoyance

6 [count] a sports : a ball that is thrown or hit ▪ She hit a high arching ball over the net. ▪ I thought the ball [=serve] was good, but my opponent said it was out. — see also AIR BALL, CURVEBALL, FASTBALL, FLY BALL, GROUND BALL, fair ball at [1]FAIR, foul ball at [1]FOUL b baseball : a pitch that does not go through the proper area and that the batter does not swing at ▪ The first pitch was a ball but the next two pitches were strikes.

carry the ball US, informal : to have the responsibility for doing something ▪ No one else is available to make the arrangements, so it's up to you to carry the ball.

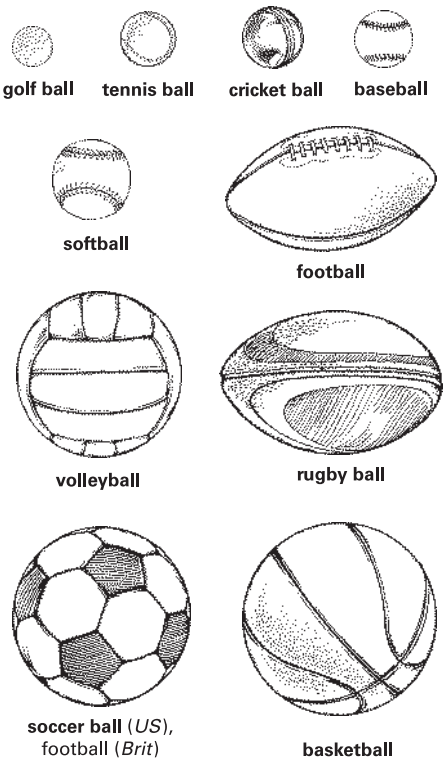
ball



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

drop the ball US, informal : to make a mistake especially by not doing something important ▪ I think the mayor dropped the ball by not hiring more police officers.

get/set/start the ball rolling informal : to begin an activity or process ▪ She tried to get the ball rolling by asking him a few questions.

keep the ball rolling informal : to cause an activity or process to continue ▪ I've started the preparations for the party, but it's up to you to keep the ball rolling.

keep your eye on the ball informal : to continue thinking about or giving attention to something important that you want to do or achieve ▪ She really needs to keep her eye on the ball [=stay focused] if she wants to win the election.

on the ball informal : mentally prepared : aware of what is happening and ready to do what is needed or wanted ▪ With so many intelligent students, the teacher must always be on the ball. ▪ Their lawyer was really on the ball.

play ball 1 : to begin or continue to play a game with a ball (such as baseball) ▪ "Let's play ball!" shouted the umpire. ▪ We went outside to play some ball. 2 : to do what other people want you to do : to cooperate or work with other people ▪ He refused to play ball with the police.

the ball is in your court ✧ If the ball is in your court, you are the person who is expected or required to do something. ▪ What do you think we should do now? The ball is in your court. ▪ She's waiting for the ball to be in her court.

– compare [3]BALL

[2]ball verb balls; balled; ball•ing [+ obj] : to form (something) into a ball ▪ I stood up quickly and balled my hands into fists. ▪ He balled the letter in his hands and threw it in the trash. — often + up ▪ He balled up the letter and threw it in the trash. ▪ His clothes were balled up on the floor. ▪ She lay in bed balled up [=curled up] under the blankets.

[3]ball noun, pl balls [count] : a large formal party for dancing ▪ Cinderella went to the ball and danced with the prince. ▪ They were invited to the governor's ball.

have a ball informal : to have fun : to spend time in a very enjoyable way ▪ Everyone had a ball at the party.

– compare [1]BALL

bal•lad /ˈbæləd/ noun, pl -lads [count]
1 : a slow popular song that is typically about love
2 : a kind of poem or song that tells a story (such as a story about a famous person from history) ▪ a ballad about King Arthur ball and chain noun [singular] : something that limits someone's freedom or ability to do things ▪ Drugs are a ball and chain for many people. ▪ (old-fashioned) He referred to his wife as "the ball and chain."

bal•last /ˈbæləst/ noun [noncount] : heavy material (such as rocks or water) that is put on a ship to make it steady or on a balloon to control its height in the air — often used figuratively ▪ His wife provided the ballast he needed in times of stress. [=his wife helped to keep him steady/stable in times of stress]

ball bearing noun, pl ~ -ings [count]
1 : a part of a machine in which another part (such as a metal pole) turns easily ✧ A ball bearing is made up of several small metal balls that fit between two metal rings.
2 : one of the balls in a ball bearing ball bearings

ball boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] : a boy who picks up balls that go out of play during a game in tennis, baseball, etc.

bal•le•ri•na /ˌbælə'ri:nə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : a woman who is a ballet dancer — see also PRIMA BALLERINA

bal•let /bæ'leɪ, 'bæˌleɪ/ noun, pl bal•lets
1 [noncount] : a kind of dancing that is performed on a stage and that uses dance, music, costumes, and scenery to tell a story ▪ She does tap dancing and ballet. ▪ a performance of ballet — often used before another noun ▪ a ballet performance ▪ He's taking ballet lessons. ▪ a ballet dancer ▪ ballet shoes
2 : a show in which ballet is performed [count] We are going to a ballet tonight. ▪ This is one of my favorite ballets. [noncount] We enjoy going to the ballet. [=we enjoy going to ballet performances]
3 [count] : a group of dancers who perform ballets together — often used in names ▪ the Royal Ballet ▪ the New York City Ballet

– bal•let•ic /bæ'lɛrɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ balletic [=graceful] movements ▪ She moved with balletic grace.

ball game noun, pl ~ games [count]
1 : any game that is played with a ball ▪ He was popular because he was good at ball games.
2 US : a baseball game ▪ Dad took us to a ball game. ▪ watching a ball game on TV
3 informal — used in phrases like a whole new ball game and a different ball game to describe a situation or activity that has changed ▪ The sport of car racing is a whole new ball game. ▪ Raising children is a different ball game now.

ball girl noun, pl ~ girls [count] : a girl who picks up balls that go out of play during a game in tennis, baseball, etc.

bal•lis•tic /bə'lɪstɪk/ adj

go ballistic informal 1 : to become very angry ▪ Dad went ballistic when he saw the dent in his car. 2 US : to become very excited ▪ The crowd was going ballistic. [=going wild] ballistic missile noun, pl ~ -siles [count] : a weapon that is shot through the sky over a great distance and then falls to the ground and explodes ▪ an intercontinental ballistic missile

bal•lis•tics /bə'lɪstɪks/ noun [plural] : the science that studies the movement of objects (such as bullets or rockets) that are shot or forced to move forward through the air ball of re noun, pl balls of re [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who is very active and has a lot of energy ▪ That guy is a real ball of fire.

ball of wax noun [singular] US, informal
1 : a situation or set of conditions ▪ He's a good amateur, but playing basketball at the professional level is an entirely different ball of wax. [=an entirely different thing]
2 : a collection of items or objects ▪ He won the car, the furniture, and the tropical vacation—the whole ball of wax! [=everything]

[1]bal•loon /bə'lu:n/ noun, pl -loons [count]
1 : a thin usually rubber bag that becomes larger when it is filled with air or gas ▪ I blew up a balloon but then it burst. ▪ brightly colored balloons and other party decorations — see also HOT-AIR BALLOON, TRIAL BALLOON
2 : a picture or space in a cartoon that contains words that are spoken or thought by a character

go over like a lead balloon (US) or Brit go down like a lead balloon informal, of a joke, suggestion, etc. : to fail completely ▪ He told a joke about his mother-in-law and it went over like a lead balloon. [=no one laughed at the joke] ▪ My suggestion went over like a lead balloon. [=no one liked my suggestion]

[2]balloon verb -loons; -looned; -loon•ing [no obj] : to become bigger quickly ▪ Their credit card debt ballooned to more than $5,000. ▪ His weight ballooned to 300 pounds. = He ballooned to 300 pounds. ▪ the ballooning costs of education ▪ ballooning weight bal•loon•ing /bə'lu:nɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity or sport of riding in a hot air balloon ▪ She's always wanted to go ballooning.

– bal•loon•ist /bə'lu:nɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ an experienced balloonist [=a person who goes ballooning] balloon payment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : a final payment that is much larger than any earlier payment made on a debt ▪ They agreed to pay $1,000 a year for five years and then make a balloon payment of $50,000 at the end of the term.

[1]bal•lot /ˈbælət/ noun, pl -lots
1 [count] : a ticket or piece of paper used to vote in an election ▪ a paper ballot = (Brit) a ballot paper ▪ The issue was on the ballot in November. [=people voted to support or oppose the issue in the November election] ▪ I cast my ballot [=voted] for the new candidate. — see also ABSENTEE BALLOT
2 : a process that allows people to vote in secret so that other people cannot see their votes [count] They cast their votes in a secret ballot. [noncount] She was elected by secret ballot.
3 [noncount] a : the total number of votes in an election ▪ He won 65 percent of the ballot. [=vote] b : an election ▪ He claims that his opponent won by rigging the ballot. [=by rigging the election; by dishonestly controlling the results of the election]

[2]ballot verb -lots; -lot•ed; -lot•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to ask (people) to decide something by voting — usually used as (be) balloted ▪ Union members were balloted [=polled] about whether to accept the company's offer.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 97 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

ballot box noun, pl ~ boxes
1 [count] : a box that holds the ballots used for voting in an election
2 [singular] : an act of voting using secret ballots ▪ He'll never be able to win at the ballot box. [=in an election] stuff the ballot box US : to vote more than once in an election in order to help someone win ▪ Fans stuffed the ballot box for their favorite players.

bal•lot•ing noun [noncount] : an act or process of voting ▪ The balloting [=election, voting] will not be secret. ▪ the balloting for class president

[1]ball•park /ˈbɑːlˌpɑək/ noun, pl -parks [count] : a park in which baseball games are played : a baseball park or stadium ▪ hit a home run out of the ballpark
in the ballpark informal : close to the correct or exact number, price, etc. ▪ My first guess wasn't even in the ballpark. [=it was not close to being correct] ▪ An offer of $5,000 would be in the (right) ballpark for this car. [=this car is worth about $5,000]

[2]ballpark adj, always used before a noun : not exact but close in number or amount : approximately correct ▪ She gave us a ballpark price of $5,000. [=she said it could cost about $5,000] ▪ We don't know exactly how many people live in this city, but a ballpark figure/estimate would be about two million.

ball•play•er /ˈbɑːlˌpleiə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a baseball player ▪ big-league ballplayers

ball•point pen /ˈbɑːlˌpoint-/ noun, pl ~ pens [count] : a pen whose tip is a small metal ball that rolls on a writing surface — called also ballpoint; see picture at OFFICE ball•room /ˈbɑːlˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a large room used for dances ballroom dancing noun [noncount] : a style of dancing in which couples hold each other and use set moves to perform different kinds of formal dances (such as the polka, the tango, or the waltz) – ballroom dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] ▪ The waltz is a kind of ballroom dance.

balls /ˈbɑːlz/ verb balls•es; ballsed; balls•ing balls up [phrasal verb] balls (something) up or balls up (something) Brit slang, sometimes offensive : to make mistakes in doing or making something ▪ He ballsed up [=fouled up, messed up] everything and never got anything right. — see also BALLS-UP balls–up /ˈbɑːlzˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] Brit slang, sometimes offensive : a problem caused by mistakes or carelessness ▪ He made a balls-up [=made a mess] of everything and never got anything right. — see also balls up at BALLS ball•sy /ˈbɑːlzi/ adj ball•si•er; -est informal, sometimes offensive : very tough or brave ▪ That was a ballsy [=gutsy, nervy] thing to say! ▪ She's quite a ballsy lawyer. ▪ a ballsy attempt to sneak out of the house

bal•ly•hoo /ˈbæliˌhuː/ noun [noncount] informal : talk or writing that is designed to get people excited or interested in something ▪ Despite all of the ballyhoo [=hype], the group's new album is terrible.
– ballyhoo verb -hoos; -hooed; -hoo•ing [+ obj] ▪ a much ballyhooed new album balm /ˈbɑːm/ noun, pl balms

1 [count, noncount] : an oily substance that has a pleasant smell and that is used for healing, smoothing, or protecting the skin
2 [singular] : something that gives comfort or support ▪ Art can be a balm to the soul. ▪ She shows that laughter is a balm for difficult times.

balmy /ˈbɑːmi/ adj balm•i•er; -est
1 of air, weather, etc. : warm, calm, and pleasant ▪ balmy [=mild] summer air ▪ a balmy evening
2 chiefly US, informal : crazy or foolish ▪ a balmy [=(Brit) barmy] idea that no one took seriously

ba•lo•ney /bəˈloʊni/ noun [noncount]
1 informal : foolish words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ Don't believe all of that baloney. ▪ He's been telling you a bunch/load of baloney. [=hogwash, balderdash] — sometimes used as an interjection. ▪ Baloney! You've never been to the North Pole.
2 US : BOLOGNA ▪ a baloney sandwich

bal•sa /ˈbɑːlsə/ noun [noncount] : the very light wood of a tropical American tree

bal•sam /ˈbɑːlsəm/ noun [noncount] : an oily substance with a pleasant smell that comes from different kinds of plants balsam r noun, pl ~ rs [count] : a small American evergreen tree bal•sam•ic vinegar /bɑlˈsæmɪk-/ noun [noncount] : a type of Italian vinegar that has a dark color and a sweet taste

bal•us•ter /ˈbæləstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a short post that helps support a rail in a balustrade or similar structure

bal•us•trade /ˈbæləˌstreɪd/ noun, pl -trades [count] : a kind of low wall that is placed at the sides of staircases, bridges, etc., and that is made of a row of short posts topped by a long rail

bam /ˈbæm/ noun, pl bams [count] informal : a sudden loud noise ▪ We heard a loud bam. — often used as an interjection to show that something has hit something or has happened suddenly ▪ I was driving along when, bam, I hit a pothole. ▪ Everything was fine, and then bam, the electricity went out.

bam•boo /bæmˈbuː/ noun, pl -boos : a tall plant with hard hollow stems that are used for building and to make furniture, tools, etc. [noncount] Bamboo grows in the grove near the house. [count] We cut down some bamboos.
– bamboo adj ▪ The house is full of bamboo furniture. ▪ The recipe is prepared with bamboo shoots. [=young bamboo plants]

bam•boo•zle /bæmˈbuːzəl/ verb -boo•zles; -boo•zled; -boo•zling [+ obj] informal : to trick or confuse (someone) ▪ The salesperson bamboozled [=deceived] us into getting a more expensive item than we had planned to buy. ▪ The quarterback was thoroughly bamboozled [=confused] by the defense.

[1]ban /ˈbæn/ verb bans; banned; ban•ning [+ obj]
1 : to forbid people from using (something) : to say that something cannot be used or done ▪ The school banned that book for many years. ▪ The city has banned smoking in all public buildings. ▪ The drug was banned a decade ago. ▪ The use of cell phones is banned in the restaurant.
2 : to forbid (someone) from doing or being part of something — usually + from ▪ They banned [=barred] him from entering the building. = He was banned from entering the building. ▪ She was banned from the team because of drug use.

[2]ban noun, pl bans [count] : an official rule saying that people are not allowed to use or do something ▪ The city has imposed a smoking ban in all public buildings. — often + on ▪ She challenged the ban on smoking. ▪ They lifted the ban on the drug.

ba•nal /bəˈnæl, bəˈnɑːl, ˈbeɪnəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : boring or ordinary : not interesting ▪ He made some banal remarks about the weather. ▪ The writing was banal but the story was good.

ba•nal•i•ty /bəˈnæləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : something that is boring or ordinary ▪ The trip offers an escape from the banalities of daily life.; especially : an uninteresting statement : a banal remark ▪ We exchanged banalities about the weather.
2 [noncount] : the quality of being ordinary or banal ▪ The writing never rose above banality.

ba•nana /bəˈnænə, Brit bəˈnɑːnə/ noun, pl -nan•as [count, noncount] : a long curved fruit with a thick peel that is yellow when it is ripe ▪ a bunch of bananas ▪ peel a banana ▪ (US) a banana peel = (Brit) a banana skin ✧ In British English banana skin is used figuratively to describe a foolish or embarrassing mistake or failure. ▪ a director who has slipped on a banana skin [=who has failed in an embarrassing way] in her latest film — see color picture on page C5; see also SECOND BANANA banana republic noun, pl ~ -lics [count] disapproving + sometimes offensive : a small, weak country usually in a tropical area

ba•nan•as /bəˈnænəz, Brit bəˈnɑːnəz/ adj, not used before a noun, informal : CRAZY ▪ If you ask me, that guy is bananas. [=nuts] ▪ You're driving me bananas [=driving me crazy] with all those questions. ▪ All the noise drove me bananas.
go bananas informal : to become very excited or angry ▪ The crowd went bananas [=went crazy] when the concert began.

banana split noun, pl ~ splits [count] : a dessert made with ice cream served on a sliced banana and usually covered with sweet sauces, fruits, nuts, and whipped cream

[1]band /ˈbænd/ noun, pl bands [count]
1 : a usually small group of musicians who play popular music together ▪ The band's drummer is also the lead singer. ▪ a rock-and-roll band ▪ a jazz band — compare ORCHESTRA; see also BIG BAND, BRASS BAND, GARAGE BAND, MARCHING BAND, ONE-MAN BAND
2 : a group of people or animals ▪ A band of scientists ques-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

tioned the theory. ▪ She photographed a band of gorillas. ▪ a band of hunters from the tribe

3 : a flat, straight piece of material (such as plastic or metal) that forms a circle around something ▪ A band of plastic holds the lid on the container. ▪ They placed a metal band with an identification number on the bird's leg. ▪ She lost her wedding band. [=wedding ring] — see also ARMBAND, RUBBER BAND, SWEATBAND, WAISTBAND

4 : a strip of something that is different from what is around it : a thick line ▪ The bird has black bands above its eyes. ▪ The dress has an embroidered band at the hem. — often + of ▪ There is a band of white near the hem of the dress. ▪ A band of thunderstorms crossed the area late last night. ▪ They left a narrow band of grass growing near the street.

5 technical : a range of frequencies over which radio signals are broadcast ▪ The radio station broadcasts on the AM band.

6 Brit : a range or group between a lower and an upper limit : BRACKET ▪ People in younger age bands may be in higher or lower tax bands.

to beat the band US, informal : in a very forceful or obvious way ▪ He was snoring to beat the band. [=he was snoring very loudly]

[2]band verb bands; band•ed; band•ing

band together [phrasal verb] : to form a group in order to do or achieve something ▪ They banded together for protection. ▪ If we band together, we can meet the deadline.

[1]ban•dage /'bændɪʤ/ noun, pl -dag•es [count] : a covering (such as a strip of cloth) that protects or supports part of the body that has been hurt ▪ He wrapped a bandage around his knee. ▪ She put a bandage on/over the cut.

bandage

[2]bandage verb -dag•es; -daged; -dag•ing [+ obj] : to cover or wrap (something) with a bandage ▪ She bandaged (up) their wounds. ▪ He arrived with a bandaged ankle.

[1]Band–Aid /'bænd'eɪd/ trademark — used for a small bandage

[2]Band–Aid adj, always used before a noun, disapproving : able to help or improve something only for a short period of time ▪ a Band-Aid solution to the problem ban•dan•na also ban•dana /bæn'dænə/ noun, pl -dannas also -dan•as [count] : a square piece of cloth that is used as a head covering or worn around the neck

B and B noun, pl B and Bs [count] : BED-AND-BREAKFAST ▪ We stayed at a nice B and B near the beach.

band•ed /'bændəd/ adj : having or marked by narrow strips of different color : having or marked by bands ▪ a hawk with a banded tail ▪ a banded rock ban•dit /'bændət/ noun, pl -dits [count] : a criminal who attacks and steals from travelers and who is often a member of a group of criminals ▪ They were two of the most famous bandits [=outlaws, robbers] of the 19th century. — see also ONE-ARMED BANDIT

– ban•dit•ry /'bændətri/ noun [noncount] ▪ They were charged with banditry and smuggling.

band•lead•er /'bænd,li:dɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who leads a band of musicians; especially : the leader of a band that plays jazz or dance music band•mas•ter /'bænd,mæstɚ, Brit 'bænd,mɑ:stə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : BANDLEADER; especially : the leader of a brass band or a military band ban•do•lier or ban•do•leer /,bændə'liɚ/ noun, pl -liers or -leers [count] : a belt that is worn over the shoulder and across the body and that holds bullets band saw noun, pl ~ saws [count] : a type of powered saw that is used especially for making curved cuts in wood bands•man /'bændzmən/ noun, pl -men [count] : a musician who plays in a brass band or military band band•stand /'bænd,stænd/ noun, pl -stands [count]

1 : a covered outdoor platform on which a band or orchestra plays

2 US : a raised indoor platform on which a band or orchestra plays band•wag•on /'bænd,wægən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a popular activity, effort, cause, etc., that attracts growing support — usually singular ▪ trying to get/keep a political bandwagon rolling ▪ Local leaders jumped on the bandwagon in support of the legislation. ▪ Many companies are getting/climbing on the bandwagon and offering flexible schedules to their employees.

band•width /'bænd,wɪdθ/ noun, pl -widths technical : a measurement of the ability of an electronic communications device or system (such as a computer network) to send and receive information [count] The modem has a bandwidth of 56 kilobits per second. [noncount] Graphics use more bandwidth than text does.

ban•dy /'bændi/ verb -dies; -died; -dy•ing

bandy about also bandy around [phrasal verb] bandy (something) about/around or bandy about/around (something) : to discuss or mention (something) in a casual or informal way ▪ The candidate hasn't chosen a running mate yet, but some names have been bandied about. ▪ The idea had been bandied about several years earlier.

bandy words old-fashioned : to say angry words in an argument : ARGUE ▪ I don't want to bandy words with you.

bane /'beɪn/ noun [singular] : a cause of trouble, annoyance, or unhappiness — usually used in the phrase the bane of ▪ The ugly school uniforms were the bane of the students' lives. ▪ She was the bane of my existence. [=she made my life very unhappy, difficult, etc.]

bane•ful /'beɪnfəl/ adj, formal + literary : causing destruction or serious damage : bad or evil ▪ The legislation could have a baneful effect on the poor. ▪ the baneful consequences of war

[1]bang /'bæŋ/ verb bangs; banged; bang•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something, such as part of your body) to hit something in a way that makes a loud noise ▪ He accidentally banged his knee against the door. ▪ He banged [=bumped, struck] his head getting out of the car. ▪ She fell and banged her elbow. ▪ She banged her fist on the table. ▪ He banged his empty glass on the counter. b : to hit (something or someone) in a way that makes a loud noise [+ obj] His knee accidentally banged the door. ▪ The chair fell over and banged the wall. [no obj] — usually + into or against ▪ His knee accidentally banged into the door. ▪ I thought the door was open and banged [=bumped] right into it. ▪ The bird banged into/against the window. ▪ One of the other players banged into her, knocking her to the ground.

2 : to use your hand or a tool to beat or hit (something) in a way that makes a loud noise [+ obj] He banged the drum. ▪ She banged the table with her fist. [no obj] — + on ▪ He banged on the drum. ▪ She banged on the table. ▪ Who is banging [=pounding] on the door? — see also bang the drum for at [1]DRUM

3 [no obj] : to make a sudden loud noise ▪ I could hear the screen door bang [=slam] as he left. ▪ The window suddenly banged shut. ▪ The pipes banged as the heat came on.

4 [+ obj] informal + offensive : to have sex with (someone) bang away [phrasal verb] US, informal : to work hard at something ▪ We have to keep banging away if we want to finish on time. — often + at ▪ The students are banging away at their homework.

bang heads together informal : to use angry or forceful methods to control or punish people ▪ I am going to go in there and bang their heads together if they don't start behaving.

bang on about [phrasal verb] bang on about (something) Brit, informal : to talk about (something) repeatedly or for a long time ▪ She's always banging on about [=going on about] the importance of a good diet.

bang out [phrasal verb] bang out (something) or bang (something) out informal 1 : to produce (something) quickly ▪ He banged out the speech in just a few hours. ▪ The two sides are trying to bang out an agreement. 2 : to play (a song, melody, etc.) loudly on a piano ▪ She carelessly banged out a few melodies on the piano.

bang up [phrasal verb] 1 bang up (something or someone) or bang (something or someone) up US, informal : to injure or damage (something or someone) ▪ She banged up [=hurt] her knee. ▪ He banged up the car. ▪ He was pretty badly banged up [=injured] in the accident. 2 bang up (someone) or bang (someone) up Brit slang : to put (someone) in prison ▪ He got banged up [=locked up] for robbery.

[2]bang noun, pl bangs

1 a [count] : a sudden loud noise ▪ I heard a loud bang. ▪ The door slammed shut with a bang. b — used as an interjection to imitate a loud noise (such as the sound of a gun being fired) ▪ "Bang, bang! You're dead." ✧ In British English the informal phrase bang goes is used when you are saying that something you wanted or planned has become impossible. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 114 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

The airport closed and bang went our holiday plans! [=our holiday plans were ruined because the airport closed]

2 [count] : a hard hit or blow ▪ She got a nasty bang [=bump] on her head.

bang for the buck also bang for your buck US, informal — used to describe how much value is received when money is spent ▪ This restaurant offers people the most bang for the buck. [=offers more than other restaurants for the same price] ▪ He claims that the new stadium offers taxpayers too little bang for the buck. [=that the new stadium is not worth the tax money that is being spent on it] get a bang out of US, informal : to enjoy (something) very much ▪ You'll get a bang out of [=you'll like] this story. ▪ She got a bang out of [=got a kick out of] watching her grandson at the beach.

with a bang : in a sudden and exciting way ▪ The movie begins/starts with a bang and never slows down.

[3]bang adv, Brit, informal : exactly or directly ▪ There it was—bang [=right] in front of us! ▪ The show began bang on time. — see also bang to rights at [3]RIGHT bang on Brit, informal : exactly right ▪ His explanation was bang on. [=spot-on] bang•er /ˈbæŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal

1 : SAUSAGE ▪ We ordered bangers and mash. [=sausages and mashed potatoes]

2 : FIRECRACKER

3 : an old car that is in poor condition : JALOPY

ban•gle /ˈbæŋgəl/ noun, pl ban•gles [count] : a large stiff ring that is worn as jewelry around the arm, wrist, or ankle ▪ She wore plastic bangles on both wrists. — see color picture on page C11

bangs /ˈbæŋz/ noun [plural] US : the front section of a person's hair when it is cut short and worn over the forehead ▪ She wears her hair in bangs. = She has bangs. ▪ She pushed her bangs off her forehead. — called also (Brit) fringe; see picture at HAIR bang–up /ˈbæŋˌʌp/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : very good or excellent ▪ We had a bang-up [=fine, first-rate] time at the party. ▪ She did a bang-up job on/with the presentation.

ban•ish /ˈbænɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj]

1 : to force (someone) to leave a country as punishment : EXILE ▪ He was banished for life. ▪ The dictator banished anyone who opposed him.

2 : to send (someone or something) away — often + from or to ▪ He was banished from court. ▪ They want to banish her from the sport. ▪ She banished the dogs to the basement during the party. ▪ The reporters were banished to another room.

3 : to cause (something) to go away : to get rid of (something) ▪ His assurances banished [=alleviated] our fears. ▪ She tried to banish all thoughts of him from her mind. [=she tried not to think about him] ▪ They banished [=eliminated] red meat from their diet.

– ban•ish•ment /ˈbænɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount]

ban•is•ter also ban•nis•ter /ˈbænəstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a structure like a fence with a bar on top that is built along the side of a set of stairs ▪ The children love to slide down the banister. ▪ She held the banister tightly. — sometimes plural in British English ▪ She held the banisters tightly.

ban•jo /ˈbændʒoʊ/ noun, pl -jos [count] : a musical instrument like a small guitar with a round body, a long neck, and four or five strings ▪ I'm learning to play the banjo. = (US) I'm learning to play banjo. ▪ a banjo player

[1]bank /ˈbæŋk/ noun, pl banks [count]

1 : a business where people keep their money, borrow money, etc., or the building where such a business operates ▪ Our paychecks are deposited in/into the bank automatically. ▪ How much money do you have in the bank? ▪ My cousin works in/at a bank. ▪ I have to go to the bank today. — often used before another noun ▪ bank customers ▪ How much money do you have in your bank account? — see also SAVINGS BANK

2 : a small closed container in which money is saved ▪ She saves all her change in a small bank on her desk. — see also PIGGY BANK

3 : a place where a particular thing is stored until it is needed ▪ information stored in a computer's memory banks — see also BLOOD BANK, SPERM BANK break the bank : to be very expensive or too expensive : to cost a lot of money — usually used in negative statements ▪ Buy a car that's dependable but won't break the bank.

laugh all the way to the bank see [1]LAUGH

– compare [3]BANK, [5]BANK

[2]bank verb banks; banked; bank•ing

1 [no obj] : to have money in a bank : to use the services of a bank ▪ We bank locally. ▪ Where do you bank? [=which bank do you use?]

2 [+ obj] : to put (something, such as money) in a bank ▪ bank a check bank on [phrasal verb] bank on (something) : to feel confident or sure about (something) ▪ We're banking on [=counting on] fair weather for the trip. ▪ She may support us, but don't bank on [=rely on, depend on] it.

– compare [4]BANK

[3]bank noun, pl banks [count]

1 : the higher ground that is along the edge of a river, stream, etc. ▪ We sat on the bank of the river [=on the riverbank] to watch the boats. ▪ The stream overflowed its banks.

2 a : a steep slope : the side of a hill ▪ We planted bushes all along the bank in front of the house. ▪ They climbed a steep bank to get to the terrace. — see also SANDBANK b : a small hill that is built next to a road along a curve in order to make driving on that section of road safer

3 : a thick mass of clouds or fog ▪ a fog bank ▪ A bank of dark clouds entered the region. — see also SNOWBANK

– compare [1]BANK, [5]BANK

[4]bank verb banks; banked; banking

1 : to cause (something, such as an airplane) to tilt or lean to one side when turning [+ obj] The pilot banked the plane (to the right/left) and then leveled it out to land. [no obj] The pilot/plane banked (right/left) and then leveled out to land. ▪ The motorcycle banked steeply as it went around the curve.

2 [+ obj] US : to cause (something, such as a ball) to bounce off a surface ▪ The basketball player banked the ball off the backboard.

3 [+ obj] : to form (something) into a pile — often + up ▪ banking sand up along the river to prevent flooding

4 [+ obj] : to cover (a fire) with fresh fuel in order to make it continue to burn — often + up ▪ bank up a campfire

– compare [2]BANK

[5]bank noun, pl banks [count] : a group or series of objects that are arranged close together in a row — usually + of ▪ There is a bank of vending machines in the basement. ▪ Several banks of lights hung above the stage. ▪ a bank of file cabinets — compare [1]BANK, [3]BANK bank•able /ˈbæŋkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : certain to make a profit — used of people in the movie business ▪ a bankable director [=a director who makes movies that earn a profit] ▪ She is one of Hollywood's most bankable stars. [=if she is in a movie, the movie will make money]

bank•book /ˈbæŋkˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book in which a bank customer keeps a record of the money added to and taken from a bank account — called also passbook bank card /ˈbæŋkˌkɑəd/ noun, pl ~ cards [count]

1 US : a card (such as a credit card or debit card) that you get from your bank and that you use to pay for things or to get money from an ATM

2 Brit : CHEQUE CARD

bank draft noun, pl ~ drafts [count] : a check from one bank to another bank for money to be paid to a particular person or organization ✧ In order to write a bank draft to another bank, a bank must have money in an account at that bank.

bank•er /ˈbæŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who owns a bank or who has an important job in a bank

banker's card noun, pl ~ cards [count] Brit : CHEQUE CARD bank holiday noun, pl ~ -days [count] Brit : LEGAL HOLIDAY banking noun [noncount] : the business of operating a bank ▪ They are both in banking. ▪ He chose banking as a career. ▪ the banking industry

banknote noun, pl -notes [count] : a piece of paper money : NOTE ▪ a $10 banknote

bank rate noun, pl ~ rates [count] : the rate of interest that is charged by the banks in a particular country ✧ The bank rate is set by a country's main bank.

[1]bank•roll /ˈbæŋkˌroʊl/ verb -rolls; -rolled; -rol•ling [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to supply money for (a business, project, person, etc.) ▪ His parents bankrolled [=paid for] his college education. ▪ The company is bankrolling [=financing] the film.

[2]bankroll noun [singular] chiefly US : a supply of money ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

They started the business with a fairly small bankroll.

[1]bank•rupt /ˈbæŋkˌrʌpt/ adj
1 : unable to pay debts ▪ a bankrupt company ▪ The lawsuit could leave them bankrupt. ▪ The company went bankrupt. [=became unable to pay its debts]
2 — used to say that someone or something completely lacks a good or desired quality ▪ After 10 years in a bad marriage, she was bankrupt emotionally. [=empty of emotions; not able to feel emotions] ▪ a morally bankrupt politician [=an immoral politician; a politician who has no morals]

[2]bankrupt verb -rupts; -rupt•ed; -rupt•ing [+ obj] : to cause (a person, business, etc.) to be unable to pay debts : to make (someone or something) bankrupt ▪ Several risky deals bankrupted the company.

[3]bankrupt noun, pl -rupts [count] : a person, business, etc., that is unable to pay debts ▪ As a lawyer, she specialized in working with bankrupts.

bank•rupt•cy /ˈbæŋkˌrʌptsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 a [noncount] : the condition of being bankrupt : a condition of financial failure caused by not having the money that you need to pay your debts ▪ The company is facing bankruptcy. ▪ The company filed for bankruptcy [=officially asked to be legally recognized as bankrupt] in July. ▪ He declared bankruptcy. [=formally said that he was bankrupt in a legal document] ▪ The company is now in bankruptcy. [=has been officially recognized as bankrupt] ▪ The company was forced into bankruptcy. — often used before another noun ▪ bankruptcy court/law ▪ a bankruptcy judge/lawyer b [count] : an occurrence in which a person, business, etc., goes bankrupt ▪ The number of bankruptcies was especially high last year.
2 [noncount] : the condition of completely lacking a good or desired quality ▪ Critics view the decision as an example of moral/ethical bankruptcy on the part of the administration.

[1]ban•ner /ˈbænə/ noun, pl -ners [count]
1 a : a large strip of cloth with a design, picture, or writing on it ▪ A banner was hung over the street advertising the local theater production. ▪ Banners were carried by members of each group marching in the parade. — often used figuratively ▪ Both candidates are running under the banner of "no new taxes." [=both candidates are using "no new taxes" as a slogan] ▪ a group of scientists gathering together under the banner of NASA [=in a meeting/event set up by NASA] ▪ changes made under the banner of "restoring order" [=for the officially stated purpose of restoring order] b literary : FLAG ▪ The Star-Spangled Banner
2 : words printed in large letters at the top of a newspaper's front page under the name of the newspaper — called also banner headline
3 : an advertisement that is across the top of a page on the World Wide Web — called also banner ad

[2]banner adj, always used before a noun, US : unusually good ▪ It was a banner year for the sales department. ▪ The team had a banner season last year.

bannister variant spelling of BANISTER

banns /ˈbænz/ noun [plural] : a public statement which announces that two people are going to be married ▪ The banns (of marriage) were posted in the church.

ban•quet /ˈbæŋkwət/ noun, pl -quets [count] : a formal dinner for many people usually to celebrate a special event ▪ They held a banquet in his honor. — often used before another noun ▪ a banquet hall/room/table
– ban•quet•ing /ˈbæŋkwətɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit ▪ a banqueting hall/room/table ban•shee /ˈbænˌʃiː/ noun, pl -shees [count] : a female spirit in Irish and Scottish stories who cries loudly to warn people that someone is going to die soon ▪ I heard someone wailing/screaming like a banshee.

ban•tam /ˈbæntəm/ noun, pl -tams [count] : a kind of small chicken ban•tam•weight /ˈbæntəmˌweɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count] : a fighter in a class of boxers who weigh from 112 to 119 pounds (51 to 54 kilograms) — often used before another noun ▪ He won the bantamweight title. ▪ a bantamweight fighter ban•ter /ˈbæntə/ noun [noncount] : talk in which people make jokes about each other in a friendly way ▪ two friends trading/exchanging lively/witty banter (with each other) ▪ I enjoyed hearing their good-natured banter.

– banter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] ▪ two friends bantering with each other ban•yan /ˈbænjən/ noun, pl -yans [count] : an Indian tree with long branches that send roots down to the ground forming secondary trunks — called also banyan tree

banyan

bap /ˈbæp/ noun, pl baps [count] Brit : BUN 1

bap•tism /ˈbæpˌtɪzəm/ noun, pl -tisms : a Christian ceremony in which a small amount of water is placed on a person's head or in which a person's body is briefly placed under water ✧ A baptism officially makes someone a member of the Christian Church. [count] There were over 100 baptisms at our church last year. [noncount] He received the sacrament of baptism as an infant. — often used figuratively ▪ The interview was a baptism into journalism for the young writer. [=it was the young writer's first experience as a journalist] ✧ A baptism of fire or (chiefly US) baptism by fire is a first experience that is very difficult or painful, such as the first time that soldiers are in a battle. ▪ He described his troop's baptism of fire on the front lines. ▪ Covering the disaster was a baptism by fire for the young reporter.
– bap•tis•mal /bæpˈtʰɪzməl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ The priest stood at the baptismal font. ▪ a baptismal certificate

Bap•tist /ˈbæpˌtɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] : a member of a Christian church in which members are baptized only as adults – Baptist adj ▪ He attends the Baptist church. ▪ a Baptist preacher/service

bap•tize also Brit bap•tise /ˈbæpˌtaɪz, bæpˈtaɪz/ verb -tizes; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to perform the ceremony of baptism for (someone) ▪ The priest baptized the baby. ▪ She was baptized at the age of 20.
2 : to officially make someone a member of a specified Christian church through the ceremony of baptism — usually used as (be) baptized ▪ She was baptized a Catholic/Methodist when she was a teenager.
3 : to give (someone) a name through the ceremony of baptism — usually used as (be) baptized ▪ He was baptized [=christened] "John" when he was two months old.

[1]bar /ˈbɑə/ noun, pl bars
1 [count] a : a building or room where alcoholic drinks and sometimes food are served ▪ We went to a bar for a drink. — see also SPORTS BAR, TIKI BAR b : a counter where alcoholic drinks are served ▪ We sat at the restaurant's bar while we were waiting for a table. — see also CASH BAR, OPEN BAR, WET BAR c : a building or room where a particular food or drink is served ▪ a seafood bar ▪ a juice/coffee bar — see also SALAD BAR, SNACK BAR
2 [count] : a straight piece of metal, wood, etc., that is used as a tool, as part of a structure, or to keep people from entering or leaving through a door or window ▪ There were bars across all the windows. ▪ The door was secured with an iron bar. ▪ The pole-vaulter narrowly cleared the bar. [=the long bar that is set at a specific height and that a jumper tries to go over] ✧ In U.S. English, bar is used figuratively in phrases like raise/lower the bar and set the bar higher/lower to refer to changing the standard that is used to judge whether someone or something is good, successful, etc. ▪ The company's new software raises the bar for its competitors. [=the company's new software is very good and its competitors will have to produce better software to compete with it] ▪ Critics say that he has lowered the bar on what is considered acceptable behavior by politicians. [=he has caused people to accept worse behavior by politicians] — see also CROSSBAR, CROWBAR, PARALLEL BARS, UNEVEN BARS
3 [count] : a solid piece of something that is shaped like a rectangle ▪ She bought a chocolate/candy bar. ▪ a bar of soap
4 [count] : a straight line, stripe, or section that is longer than it is wide ▪ The bird's tail has an alternating series of white and black bars. [=bands] ▪ a menu bar [=a narrow section that is across the screen in a computer program and that shows the names of available menus] — see also BAR CODE, BAR GRAPH, TASK BAR, TOOLBAR
5 [count] formal : something that makes it difficult or impossible to do or achieve something — + to ▪ His poor attitude was a bar to his success. [=his poor attitude prevented him from succeeding]
6 the bar a US : the profession of a lawyer ▪ She is a member of the bar. [=she is a lawyer] ▪ the American Bar Association ▪ She has been called to the bar. [=she has become a law-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

yer] b or the Bar Brit : the profession of a barrister c US : the test that a person must pass in order to be a lawyer ▪ She passed the bar on her first try. ▪ the bar exam/examination

7 [count] music a : a line in written music that shows where a measure begins b : the beats between two bars in a piece of music ▪ I'm not sure I know that song. Can you hum a few bars? [=measures] behind bars : in jail ▪ He has been behind bars for 10 years.

tend bar US : to work as a bartender : to prepare and serve drinks at a bar ▪ He tends bar at the restaurant.

[2]bar verb bars; barred; bar•ring [+ obj]

1 : to put a bar or a set of bars in front of a door, window, etc., so that people cannot go in or out of it ▪ He barred the door as soon as he got in. ▪ All the windows and doors were barred. ▪ a barred window

2 : to put something in a road, path, etc., so that people cannot get by ▪ A herd of goats was barring the road. ▪ obstacles barring our way

3 a : to prevent or forbid (someone) from doing something ▪ Nothing barred them from meeting together. ▪ The judge will bar the jurors from talking to reporters. ▪ A federal court has barred the group from using the name. ▪ Reporters were barred [=excluded] from the meeting. [=reporters were not allowed to go to the meeting] b : to prevent or forbid (something) ▪ The decision bars the possibility of additional development in the area. ▪ forms of punishment barred by the Constitution

no holds barred see [2]HOLD

[3]bar prep

1 — used in the phrase bar none to emphasize that a statement is completely true ▪ She is the brightest student I've ever known, bar none. [=I have never known a student who is brighter than she is]

2 Brit : except for : BARRING ▪ They have lost every match, bar one.

barb /ˈbɑəb/ noun, pl barbs [count]

1 : a sharp point that sticks out and backward from the point of an arrow, a fishhook, etc.

2 : a clever insult or criticism ▪ She directed/aimed a few barbs at reporters who had hounded her. ▪ The candidates exchanged barbs during the debate.

bar•bar•i•an /bɑəˈberijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]

1 : a member of a violent or uncivilized group of people especially in past times ▪ The book describes tribes of barbarians massing on the borders of the Roman Empire. ▪ The city was invaded by barbarians. — often used before another noun ▪ Barbarian tribes invaded from the north. ▪ a barbarian invasion/attack

2 : a person who does not behave in a proper way : a rude or uneducated person ▪ The students behaved like barbarians. ▪ He is well-spoken and polite but his father is a barbarian.

bar•bar•ic /bɑəˈberɪk/ adj

1 : of or relating to barbarians ▪ Barbaric tribes invaded the area.

2 [more ~; most ~] a : very rude or offensive : not polite or proper ▪ His table manners are barbaric. b : very cruel ▪ They considered the custom barbaric. ▪ The treatment of the prisoners was positively barbaric.

– bar•bar•ic•al•ly /bɑəˈberɪkli/ adv

bar•ba•rism /ˈbɑəbəˌrɪzəm/ noun, pl -risms

1 : cruel and violent behavior [noncount] The barbarism of his dictatorship cannot be ignored. [count] Such barbarisms cannot be tolerated.

2 [noncount] : very rude behavior ▪ acts of social barbarism

bar•bar•i•ty /bɑəˈberəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : extreme cruelty : a very cruel and violent quality ▪ The barbarity of the attack was horrifying. ▪ The photos vividly capture the war's barbarity.

2 [count] : a cruel act ▪ He is accused of inflicting unimaginable barbarities on his own people.

bar•ba•rous /ˈbɑəbərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not polite or proper : very rude or offensive ▪ His behavior was barbarous. ▪ They used barbarous language.

2 : very cruel and violent ▪ It was a barbarous [=barbaric] crime. ▪ a barbarous custom – bar•ba•rous•ly adv – bar•ba•rous•ness noun [noncount]

[1]bar•be•cue /ˈbɑəbɪˌkjuː/ noun, pl -cues

1 [count] : a flat metal frame that is used to cook food over hot coals or an open fire ▪ grill a steak on the barbecue

2 [count] : an outdoor meal or party at which food is cooked on a barbecue ▪ We plan to have a barbecue for the whole family. — abbr. BBQ

3 [noncount] chiefly US, informal : food that has been cooked on a barbecue : barbecued food ▪ She invited us over for some beer and barbecue. ▪ He makes a barbecue sauce [=a spicy sauce that is usually eaten with barbecued food] that tastes great with chicken.

[2]barbecue verb -cues; -cued; -cu•ing : to cook (food) on a barbecue : to broil or roast (meat, fish, etc.) over hot coals or an open fire [+ obj] We barbecued chicken and ribs. [no obj] We barbecue often during the summer.

– barbecued adj ▪ They served barbecued chicken/shrimp/pork at the cookout.

barbed /ˈbɑəbd/ adj

1 : having a sharp point that sticks out and backward from a larger point : having a barb ▪ a barbed fishhook

2 : expressing criticism in an unkind and often clever way ▪ The candidates exchanged barbed comments during the debate.

barbed wire noun [noncount] : wire that has sharp points and that is often used for fences ▪ a fence made of barbed wire = a barbed-wire fence — called also (US) barbwire barbed wire

bar•bell /ˈbɑəˌbɛl/ noun, pl -bells [count] : a metal bar with weights at each end that is used for exercise and in weight lifting — see picture at GYM bar•ber /ˈbɑəbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] : a person whose job is to cut men's hair ▪ He goes to a barber downtown. ▪ He went to the barber's [=(chiefly US) barbershop] to get a haircut.

bar•ber•shop /ˈbɑəbəˌʃɑːp/ noun, pl -shops [count] chiefly US : a place where a barber works barbershop quartet noun, pl ~ -tets [count] : a group of four male singers who sing in an old-fashioned style without instruments bar•bie /ˈbɑəbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] chiefly Brit + Australia, informal : [1]BARBECUE bar•bit•u•rate /bɑəˈbɪtʃərət/ noun, pl -rates [count] medical : any of various drugs that are used to calm people or to make them sleep

barb•wire /ˈbɑəbˈwajə/ noun [noncount] US : BARBED WIRE ▪ a barbwire fence

bar chart noun, pl ~ charts [count] : BAR GRAPH bar code noun, pl ~ codes [count] : a group of thick and thin lines that is placed on a product so that a computer can get the price of the product and other information about it

bar code

bard /ˈbɑəd/ noun, pl bards [count] old-fashioned + literary : POET ✧ The poet and playwright William Shakespeare is sometimes called the Bard or the Bard of Avon. ▪ As the Bard says, "All the world's a stage."

[1]bare /ˈbeə/ adj bar•er; bar•est

1 a : not having a covering ▪ There was a rug in the front room of the house, but the other floors were bare. ▪ The walls were bare. ▪ Do not let the bare wires touch. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He laid bare his soul. = He laid his soul bare. [=he revealed his most private thoughts and feelings] ▪ The book is an attempt to lay bare [=reveal, uncover] the secrets of this very powerful political family. b : not covered by clothing, shoes, a hat, etc. ▪ He covered her bare arms with his coat. ▪ Her feet were bare. = She had bare feet. [=she wasn't wearing shoes or socks on her feet] ▪ He had a glove on his left hand, but his right hand was bare. ▪ His head is bare. [=he does not have a hat on] — see also with your bare hands at [1]HAND c : not covered by leaves, grass, trees, or plants ▪ She likes the bare [=naked] branches of trees in the winter. ▪ The ground was bare where the statue had stood for years. ▪ The mountainside was laid bare by loggers. [=all the trees on the mountainside were cut down by loggers]

2 a : not containing anything : EMPTY ▪ The cupboard was bare. ▪ There was only one bare shelf. b : having little or no furniture ▪ a bare room ▪ Her office was pretty bare, having only one desk and one chair. ▪ This is the barest room in the house.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

3 always used before a noun : not having anything added or extra : including only what is most basic or needed ▪ He only told me the bare facts about what happened. ▪ We packed only the bare essentials for the hike. [=we packed only what we really needed for the hike] ▪ They had only the bare [=basic] necessities (of life): food, water, and shelter. ▪ He's lazy and only does the bare minimum of work. [=he does the least amount of work possible] ▪ a bare majority [=the smallest possible majority] ▪ She added the barest [=smallest] pinch of salt.

– bare•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the bareness of the walls/land

[2]bare verb bares; bared; bar•ing [+ obj] : to remove the covering from (something) ▪ He bared his chest to show the scar. ▪ The dog growled and bared [=exposed] its teeth. ▪ She was asked to bare (it) all for the magazine. [=she was asked to pose nude for the magazine] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She bared [=revealed, told] her fears to him. ▪ He bared all [=told the whole story] in the interview. ▪ He bared his soul to me. [=he told me his most private thoughts and feelings] bare•back /ˈbeɚˌbæk/ adv : without a saddle : on the bare back of a horse ▪ We rode bareback.

Do not confuse bare with bear.

– bareback adj ▪ He likes bareback riding. ▪ a bareback rider bare bones noun

the bare bones : the most basic or important facts or parts of something ▪ The company reduced the staff to the bare bones. [=the company's staff only includes people who are absolutely needed] — often + of ▪ What are the bare bones of the story?

bare–bones adj [more ~; most ~] : including only what is most basic or needed ▪ a bare-bones Web site ▪ a bare-bones wedding ceremony ▪ The hotel rooms are bare-bones.

bare•faced /ˈbeɚˈfeɪst/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] disapproving : completely obvious ▪ a barefaced lie ▪ a barefaced liar bare•foot /ˈbeɚˌfʊt/ or bare•foot•ed /ˈbeɚˌfʊtəd/ adv : without shoes : with the feet bare ▪ We walked barefoot in the stream.

– barefoot or barefooted adj ▪ barefoot children ▪ He was barefoot.

bare–hand•ed /ˈbeɚˌhændəd/ adv : with the hand or hands only : without using a tool, weapon, glove, etc. ▪ She caught the ball bare-handed.

– bare–handed adj ▪ She made a bare-handed catch.

bare•head•ed /ˈbeɚˈhɛdəd/ adv : without a hat : with the head bare ▪ He left the house bareheaded.

– bareheaded adj ▪ a bareheaded man bare–knuck•le /ˈbeɚˈnʌkəl/ also bare–knuck•led /ˈbeɚˈnʌkəld/ or bare–knuck•les /ˈbeɚˈnʌkəlz/ adj, always used before a noun : without boxing gloves ▪ a bare-knuckle fight/fighter ▪ a bare-knuckled punch — often used figuratively ▪ a bare-knuckles approach to doing business [=a very tough and aggressive approach to doing business] ▪ bare-knuckle politics bare•ly /ˈbeɚli/ adv

1 a : hardly or scarcely — used to say that something was almost not possible or almost did not happen ▪ I barely recognized you with your hair cut short. ▪ He could barely walk/read/write. ▪ His voice was barely audible above the sound of the river. ▪ The boat was barely visible off the coast. ▪ We barely [=almost do not] have enough money to pay the bills. ▪ I barely [=almost do not] have time to eat my lunch. ▪ He barely made his flight. [=he almost was too late for his flight] b — used to say that someone or something only has a specified small size, age, length, etc. ▪ The movie is (just) barely an hour long. ▪ He's barely a teenager. ▪ She's barely four feet tall. ▪ Barely 50 percent of the population voted. c — used to say that something reached a specifed condition or happened only a short time before ▪ The paint is barely dry. ▪ They had barely [=just] set up the tents when it started to rain.

2 a : almost not at all ▪ We barely spoke the entire time we were in the car. ▪ I barely knew him. b : almost not ▪ There are barely any new features in this software. ▪ There is barely a difference between the two.

barf /ˈbɑɚf/ verb barfs; barfed; barf•ing [no obj] US, informal : VOMIT ▪ The movie was so disgusting that it made me want to barf.

bar• y /ˈbɑɚˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies [count] US, informal : a person who spends a lot of time drinking in bars

[1]bar•gain /ˈbɑɚgən/ noun, pl -gains [count]

1 : an agreement in which people or groups say they will do or give something in exchange for something else ▪ I think everyone involved was satisfied with the bargain we made. ▪ They've agreed to turn the land over to the state, and the state, as its part of the bargain, has agreed to keep it undeveloped. ▪ The union is trying to strike a bargain [=reach an agreement, make a deal] with the company. ▪ You're allowed to go to the football game tonight, but I expect you to keep your side of the bargain [=do what you agreed to do] and clean your room. — see also PLEA BARGAIN

2 : something that is bought or sold for a price which is lower than the actual value : something bought or sold at a good price ▪ For that price, the suit is a (real) bargain. ▪ I got a bargain on the plane tickets. = The plane tickets were a bargain. ▪ She likes to hunt for bargains when she shops. — often used before another noun ▪ bargain airplane tickets ▪ The store has many items on sale at bargain prices.

drive a hard bargain ✧ If you drive a hard bargain, you do not agree easily to what other people want and are very determined to get what you want when you are discussing what will be done, especially in a business deal. ▪ You drive a hard bargain, but I'll accept your terms.

in the bargain or into the bargain : in addition to what has been said : BESIDES ▪ Locally grown food is fresher, and cheaper in/into the bargain. [=locally grown food is fresher and also cheaper]

[2]bargain verb -gains; -gained; -gain•ing [no obj] : to discuss an agreement or price in order to make it more appealing ▪ The price listed is quite high, but the seller might be willing to bargain. ▪ He was bargaining [=haggling] with the taxi driver over/about the fare. ▪ Teachers are bargaining [=negotiating] for higher salaries.

bargain away [phrasal verb] bargain (something) away or bargain away (something) : to lose or give up (something) as part of an agreement ▪ The employees on strike are concerned that the union will bargain away wage increases for other less desirable benefits.

bargain for/on [phrasal verb] bargain for/on (something) : to expect or plan on (something) ▪ The Internet service is better than what we bargained for. [=better than we expected it to be] ▪ No one bargained for the change in weather. = No one bargained on the weather changing. ▪ They bargained on getting married after college. ▪ He hadn't bargained on how his new position in the company would change the way people treated him. [=he was surprised by how his new position changed the way people treated him] ▪ The job ended up being more than I had bargained for. [=more difficult than I had expected] ▪ I got more than I bargained for when I signed up as a volunteer. [=being a volunteer was harder than I expected] – bar•gain•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's a hard bargainer.

– bargaining noun [noncount] ▪ After hours of hard bargaining, they came to an agreement. — often used before another noun ▪ The larger corporation has more bargaining power. ▪ They are in a good bargaining position. — see also COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, PLEA BARGAINING bargain basement noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : a section of a large store where products are sold at lower prices bar•gain–base•ment /ˈbɑɚgənˈbeɪsmənt/ adj, always used before a noun

1 of a price : very low ▪ I paid a bargain-basement price.

2 : having a low price or cost and often having poor quality ▪ worthless bargain-basement products

bargaining chip noun, pl ~ chips [count] : something that can be used to gain an advantage when you are trying to make a deal or an agreement ▪ The workers used the threat of a strike as a bargaining chip in their negotiations for a new contract. — called also (Brit) bargaining counter

[1]barge /ˈbɑɚʤ/ noun, pl barg•es [count] : a large boat that has a flat bottom and that is used to carry goods in harbors and on rivers and canals

[2]barge verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition barges; barged; barg•ing [no obj] : to move or push in a fast, awkward, and often rude way ▪ He came rushing down the stairs, barging into the crowd of people at the bottom. ▪ She barged through the door without even knocking. ▪ What makes him think he can barge in here [=enter suddenly and rudely] like that?

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

barge in on [phrasal verb] barge in on (something or someone) : to suddenly and rudely interrupt or disturb (something or someone) ▪ I was getting angry because she kept barging in on our conversation.

barge•pole /ˈbɑəʤˌpoʊl/ noun, pl -poles [count] : a long pole that is used to guide or steer a barge not touch (someone or something) with a bargepole see [1]TOUCH bar graph noun, pl ~ graphs [count] : a graph or chart that uses narrow columns of different heights to show and compare different amounts — called also bar chart

bar graph

bar•hop /ˈbɑəˌhɑp/ verb -hops; -hopped; -hop•ping [no obj] US, informal : to go to and drink at several bars in one evening ▪ They went barhopping downtown on Friday night.

ba•ris•ta /bəˈriːstə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : someone who makes and serves coffee and coffee drinks (such as cappuccino) to customers

[1]bar•i•tone /ˈberəˌtoʊn/ noun, pl -tones [count] music : a man's singing voice that is higher than the voice of the bass and lower than the voice of the tenor; also : a singer who has such a voice ▪ He sang in his school choir as a baritone.

[2]baritone adj, always used before a noun : having a range that is higher than a bass and lower than a tenor ▪ a baritone voice ▪ a baritone saxophone bar•i•um /ˈberijəm/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is a soft silver-white metal

[1]bark /ˈbɑək/ verb barks; barked; barking

1 [no obj] of a dog : to make a short loud sound ▪ The dog only barks when someone approaches the house.

2 : to shout or say (something) in a loud and angry way [+ obj] The captain barked orders/commands to the crew. ▪ "Come over at once!" he barked (at/to her). — often + out ▪ The captain barked out an order to the crew. [no obj] He was barking into the phone, giving orders to one of his employees. ▪ The captain barked at the crew.

barking up the wrong tree informal : trying to do something in a way that will not be successful ▪ If you are looking for money, you're barking up the wrong tree. [=you are asking the wrong person] ▪ She claims that researchers are barking up the wrong tree by focusing on conventional forms of treatment for the disease.

[2]bark noun, pl barks [count] : the short, loud sound made by a dog ▪ The dog gave a loud bark.; also : a similar sound ▪ The captain gave his orders with a sharp bark. ▪ The bark of the baby's cough woke the other children. ✧ If your bark is worse than your bite, you appear to be more angry or dangerous than you really are. ▪ Don't get upset if the boss yells at you. His bark is worse than his bite. — compare [3]BARK, [4]BARK

[3]bark noun, pl barks : the outer covering of a tree [noncount] a piece of birch bark [count] She compared the barks of various trees. — compare [2]BARK, [4]BARK

[4]bark or barque /ˈbɑək/ noun, pl barks or barques [count] : a small sailing ship — compare [2]BARK, [3]BARK bar•keep /ˈbɑəˌkiːp/ also bar•keep•er /ˈbɑəˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -keeps also -keep•ers [count] US : BARTENDER bark•er /ˈbɑəkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned : a person who stands at the entrance of a place where there is entertainment and tries to attract customers by shouting to them ▪ a carnival barker

barking adj, Brit, informal : BARKING MAD

barking mad adj, Brit, informal : completely crazy ▪ He was always rather strange, but he seems barking mad now.

bar•ley /ˈbɑəli/ noun [noncount] : a kind of grain used for food and to make beer and whiskey; also : the plant on which this grain grows barley sugar noun, pl ~ -gars [count, noncount] Brit : a clear hard candy made from boiled sugar barley wine noun [noncount] : a kind of strong ale bar•maid /ˈbɑəˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] : a woman who serves drinks at a bar bar•man /ˈbɑəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] chiefly Brit : BARTENDER bar mitz•vah /bɑəˈmɪtsvə/ noun, pl ~ -vahs [count] : a ceremony and celebration for a Jewish boy on his 13th birthday when he takes on the religious duties and responsibilities of an adult; also : a boy for whom a bar mitzvah is held — compare BAT MITZVAH

barmy /ˈbɑəmi/ adj barm•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal : crazy or foolish ▪ a barmy [=(chiefly US) balmy] idea ▪ She's a little barmy. [=loony]
– bar•mi•ness noun [noncount] barn /ˈbɑən/ noun, pl barns [count]

1 : a building on a farm that is used for storing grain and hay and for housing farm animals or equipment

2 informal : a large building that is usually bare and plain ▪ They live in a big barn of a house.

bar•na•cle /ˈbɑənɪkəl/ noun, pl -na•cles [count] : a kind of small shellfish that attaches itself to rocks and the bottoms of boats underwater – bar•na•cled /ˈbɑənɪkəld/ adj ▪ barnacled rocks barn burner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US, informal : a very exciting game, event, etc. ▪ The game should be a real barn burner.

barn dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] : an informal social event at which people do traditional dances (such as square dances)

barn owl noun, pl ~ owls [count] : a common kind of owl that nests in barns and other buildings barn•storm /ˈbɑəˌstoəm/ verb -storms; -stormed; -storm•ing chiefly US : to travel to different places to give speeches, perform shows, etc. [no obj] He spent the months leading up to the election barnstorming around/across the country. ▪ The national soccer team barnstormed through the country. [+ obj] They barnstormed the country.

barnstorming adj, always used before a noun

1 chiefly US : traveling to different places to give speeches, perform shows, etc. ▪ barnstorming politicians

2 Brit : very exciting and thrilling ▪ a barnstorming performance

[1]barn•yard /ˈbɑənˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : an area of ground near a barn that usually has a fence around it

[2]barnyard adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to a farm ▪ goats, pigs, and other barnyard animals

2 US, informal : not polite : somewhat crude or rude ▪ barnyard [=earthy] jokes/humor ba•rom•e•ter /bəˈrɑːmətə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : an instrument that is used to measure air pressure and predict changes in the weather

2 : something that is used to indicate or predict something ▪ The test is used as a barometer [=standard] to measure a student's reading level. ▪ Economists see housing prices as a barometer for inflation. [=economists use housing prices to predict inflation] — often + of ▪ A player's rookie season is not always a good/accurate barometer of his success in the league. ▪ Wealth is not a barometer of happiness.

– baro•met•ric /ˌberəˈmɛtrɪk/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ barometric pressure

barometers

bar•on /ˈberən/ noun, pl -ons [count]

1 a : a man who is a member of a low rank of British nobility b : a man who is a member of various ranks of nobility in other countries

2 : a man who has a lot of power or influence in a particular industry ▪ a cattle/oil baron — see also ROBBER BARON bar•on•ess /ˈberənəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count]

1 a : a woman who is a member of a low rank of British nobility b : a woman who is a member of various ranks of nobility in other countries

2 : the wife or widow of a baron bar•on•et /ˈberənət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a man who is a member of the British nobility with a rank below a baron – bar•on•et•cy /ˈberənətsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] ▪ He inherited the baronetcy [=the rank of a baronet] from his father.

ba•ro•ni•al /bəˈroʊnijəl/ adj : of or relating to a baron ▪ baronial privileges : suitable for a baron ▪ baronial [=rich] splendor ▪ a baronial estate [=a very large and impressive estate] bar•ony /ˈberəni/ noun, pl -on•ies [count] : the rank of a baron ▪ He inherited the barony from his father.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 125 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

ba•roque /bə'roʊk/ adj
1 : of or relating to a dramatic style of art and music that was common in the 17th and early 18th centuries and that featured many decorative parts and details ▪ baroque paintings/music ▪ a baroque cathedral ▪ the baroque period
2 [more ~; most ~] : having many details or too many details ▪ a somewhat baroque writing style ▪ a book filled with baroque descriptions – baroque noun [noncount] ▪ The museum is exhibiting paintings from the baroque. [=the baroque period]

barque variant spelling of ⁴BARK bar•rack /'berək/ verb -racks; -racked; -rack•ing

1 Brit : to bother or interrupt (someone, such as a performer or speaker) by shouting comments or criticism [+ obj] The crowd barracked [=heckled] the visiting team. [no obj] The crowd barracked in protest as she gave her speech.
2 [no obj] chiefly Australia : to shout in support of a person or group — often + for ▪ barracking [=rooting, cheering] for the home team – barracking noun [noncount] She got a lot of barracking during her speech. [singular] She got quite a barracking during her speech.

bar•racks /'berəks/ noun, pl -racks [count] : a building or group of buildings in which soldiers live ▪ The soldier was moved to a different barracks. ▪ He was confined to barracks for insubordination.

bar•ra•cu•da /ˌberə'kuːdə/ noun, pl -da or -das [count]
1 : a kind of fierce tropical fish that has strong jaws and sharp teeth ▪ We fished for barracuda. — see color picture on page C8
2 US, informal + disapproving : someone who uses aggressive, harsh, and sometimes improper ways to achieve something ▪ The company's lawyers are a bunch of barracudas.

¹bar•rage /bə'rɑːʒ, Brit 'bæˌrɑːʒ/ noun, pl -rag•es
1 [count] : a heavy and continuous firing of weapons during a battle ▪ The enemy laid down a barrage of machine-gun fire as our platoon approached the bridge. ▪ artillery barrages
2 [singular] : a great amount of something that comes quickly and continuously — + of ▪ He unleashed a barrage of insults. ▪ The reporters overwhelmed her with a barrage of questions. ▪ a barrage [=flood] of phone calls
– compare ³BARRAGE

²barrage verb -rages; -raged; -rag•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to cause (someone) to receive a great amount of something : to direct a barrage of questions, comments, etc., at (someone) — usually used as (be) barraged with ▪ The public was barraged with campaign ads in the months leading up to the election. ▪ They were barraged [=inundated, swamped] with inquiries about the job. ▪ The office has been barraged [=flooded, inundated] with phone calls.

³bar•rage /'bɑrɪʤ/ noun, pl -rag•es [count] : a barrier (such as a cement wall) that is built across a river or stream especially to increase the depth of water or change its direction — compare ¹BARRAGE barred /'bɑəd/ adj

1 : covered by a bar or a set of bars ▪ He looked out the barred windows of the jail.
2 : having bands or stripes of different color ▪ a bird with a barred tail

¹bar•rel /'berəl/ noun, pl -rels [count]
1 a : a round usually wooden container with curved sides and flat ends ▪ Oak barrels are used for aging the wine. ▪ an empty barrel b : the amount of something in a barrel ▪ The price of oil is over 30 dollars a barrel. ▪ They drank a whole barrel of beer. — see also PORK BARREL
2 : the part of a gun that the bullets go through when the gun is fired ▪ the barrel of a gun ▪ a rifle barrel — see picture at GUN; see also lock, stock, and barrel at ¹LOCK

barrel

a barrel of laughs informal : someone or something that is very funny — often used in negative statements or in an ironic way to describe someone or something that is not really funny ▪ Several people have lost their jobs recently, so the office isn't exactly a barrel of laughs these days. ▪ "Your boss is quite a kidder." "Oh yeah, he's a real barrel of laughs."
more fun than a barrel (full) of monkeys US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very funny and enjoyable ▪ The ads say the movie will be more fun than a barrel of monkeys.
over a barrel : in a bad situation : in a situation where you are forced to do something you do not want to do ▪ My landlord really has me over a barrel. I have to either pay double my rent or move somewhere else.
the bottom of the barrel see ¹BOTTOM
– bar•reled (US) or Brit bar•relled /'berəld/ adj — used in combination ▪ a short-barreled shotgun [=a shotgun having a short barrel] — see also DOUBLE-BARRELED

²barrel verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -rels; -reled also -relled; -rel•ing also -rel•ling [no obj] US, informal : to move very fast and often in an uncontrolled or dangerous way ▪ The truck went barreling down Main Street. ▪ She came running out of her office and went barreling past us down the hall.

bar•rel–chest•ed /'berəlˌʧɛstəd/ adj, of a man : having a large, round chest that usually suggests great strength ▪ a big, barrel-chested football player barrel organ noun, pl ~ -gans [count] : a large musical instrument that is played by turning a handle and that was once commonly played by performers (called organ-grinders) on city streets — called also hurdy-gurdy

bar•ren /'berən/ adj
1 a : having very few plants : not suitable for plants ▪ a barren [=desolate] landscape ▪ a barren desert ▪ Few creatures can thrive on these barren mountaintops. b : not producing fruit or not able to produce fruit ▪ a barren tree ▪ a barren orchard
2 old-fashioned, of a woman or female animal : not able to produce children or offspring : INFERTILE ▪ a barren woman
3 [more ~; most ~] : not exciting or interesting ▪ The book was good, but I found the barren lives of the characters depressing. ▪ a very barren routine
4 : not producing good or useful things, ideas, etc. ▪ an artist who is going through a barren period ▪ a barren mind barren of formal : not having (something) : WITHOUT ▪ a hillside barren of trees – bar•ren•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the barrenness of the land/soil bar•rette /bɑ'rɛt/ noun, pl -rettes [count] US : a decorative clip or bar that is used to hold a girl's or woman's hair in place — called also (Brit) hair slide; see picture at GROOMING

¹bar•ri•cade /'berəˌkeɪd/ noun, pl -cades [count] : a temporary wall, fence, or similar structure that is built to prevent people from entering a place or area ▪ The enemy broke through the barricade. ▪ Police erected barricades to keep the crowds from approaching the crime scene.

²barricade verb -cades; -cad•ed; -cad•ing [+ obj] : to block (something) so that people or things cannot enter or leave ▪ The police barricaded the crime scene. ▪ They barricaded the door. ▪ Ships barricaded the coastline.
barricade yourself ✧ If you barricade yourself in/inside something, you prevent other people from entering the place where you are by locking the door or by putting up a barricade. ▪ Students barricaded themselves in the cafeteria to protest university policies.

bar•ri•er /'berijə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : something (such as a fence or natural obstacle) that prevents or blocks movement from one place to another ▪ Concrete barriers surround the racetrack to protect spectators. ▪ The tree's roots serve/act as a barrier against soil erosion. ▪ The mountain range forms a natural barrier between the two countries. ▪ barrier beaches — see also BARRIER ISLAND, BARRIER REEF, CRASH BARRIER
2 a : a law, rule, problem, etc., that makes something difficult or impossible ▪ Both leaders are in favor of removing trade barriers. ▪ Cultural/social barriers have made it hard for women to enter many professions. ▪ He argues that regulations should not be viewed as barriers to progress. b : something that makes it difficult for people to understand each other — often + between ▪ The lecture was about finding ways to break through barriers between the social classes. ▪ Age can be a big barrier between parents and children. ▪ A language barrier existed between the two countries. [=people in the two countries did not understand each other because they spoke different languages]
3 : a level, amount, or number that is difficult to get past ▪ His fastball broke the 100-mph barrier. [=he threw a baseball over 100 mph] ▪ a price barrier [=a price that is regarded as a limit] — see also SOUND BARRIER

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

barrier island noun, pl ~ islands [count] : a long, sandy island that is near a shore barrier reef noun, pl ~ reefs [count] : a long coral reef that is near a shore

bar•ring /ˈbɑrɪŋ/ prep
1 — used to say that something will happen unless something else happens ▪ They'll be at sea for six months, barring medical emergencies. [=they'll be at sea for six months if there are no medical emergencies] ▪ She's going to lose the election barring a miracle. [=unless a miracle occurs]
2 : other than (someone or something) : EXCEPT ▪ No one, barring the magician himself, knows how the trick is done.

bar•rio /ˈbɑrijoʊ/ noun, pl -rios [count] : a neighborhood in a city or town in the U.S. in which many people who speak Spanish live ✧ Barrio is especially used for neighborhoods in the southwestern parts of the U.S.

bar•ris•ter /ˈberəstɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a lawyer in Britain who has the right to argue in higher courts of law — compare SOLICITOR bar•room /ˈbɑɚˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a place where alcoholic drinks are served : BAR — often used before another noun ▪ a barroom brawl bar•row /ˈberoʊ/ noun, pl -rows [count]

1 : WHEELBARROW
2 chiefly Brit : a cart with two wheels that is pushed or pulled and that is used for selling fruits, vegetables, etc., on the street bar•tend•er /ˈbɑɚˌtɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who serves drinks at a bar or restaurant – bar•tend /ˈbɑɚˌtɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing [no obj] ▪ He makes extra money by bartending on weekends.

[1]bar•ter /ˈbɑɚtɚ/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing : to exchange things (such as products or services) for other things instead of for money [no obj] — often + for or with ▪ The farmers bartered for supplies with their crops. ▪ The town's people often barter [=trade] with the owner of the store. [+ obj] — often + for ▪ They barter [=trade] eggs for cheese with the neighboring farm.

[2]barter noun [noncount]
1 : a system in which goods or services are exchanged for other goods or services instead of for money ▪ The tribes use a system of barter. ▪ a barter system
2 : goods or services that are exchanged for other goods or services ▪ The explorers used blankets and other supplies for barter to get food from the native people.

ba•salt /bəˈsɑːlt/ noun [noncount] : a type of dark gray to black rock
– ba•sal•tic /bəˈsɑːltɪk/ adj ▪ basaltic rock

[1]base /ˈbeɪs/ noun, pl bas•es
1 [count] : the bottom or lowest part of something : the part on which something rests or is supported — usually singular ▪ The lamp has a heavy base. ▪ He planted flowers around the stone's base. ▪ Make sure the base of the stove rests evenly on the floor. ▪ The climbers established a camp at the base of the mountain. = The climbers established a base camp. — often used figuratively ▪ Although I disagreed with the book's theoretical base [=basis, foundation], I couldn't really find fault with its logic. ▪ The tour was informative, thanks to the guide's broad base of knowledge.
2 [count] : something (such as a group of people or things) that provides support for a place, business, etc. — usually singular ▪ At one time paper mills were the industrial base for the region. ▪ The economic base of the village is tourism. [=tourism is the most important part of the village's economy] ▪ The company has a solid customer base. [=set of customers it can depend on] ▪ The sport's fan base [=group of fans] is growing. — see also POWER BASE, TAX BASE
3 [count] : a main ingredient to which other things are added to make something — usually singular ▪ The paint has a water base, not an oil base. ▪ She uses chicken broth as the base of the soup.
4 a [count] : the main place in which a person works or lives or a business operates ▪ He uses his home as the base for his accounting business. ▪ The company's base is in London. = The company's base of operations is (in) London. [=the company's main offices are in London] ▪ The band recently returned to its home base of Chicago after three months on tour. b : a place where a military force keeps supplies and where people in the military live and work [count] naval/military bases ▪ the commander of the base = the base commander [noncount] The troops were ordered back to base. — see also AIR BASE
5 baseball : any one of the four places a runner must touch in order to score [count] He threw the ball to the wrong base. [noncount] There's a runner on base. [=there's a runner on first, second, or third base] ▪ The batter reached base on an error by the shortstop. — compare HOME PLATE; see also FIRST BASE, SECOND BASE, THIRD BASE
6 [count] chemistry : a chemical that reacts with an acid to form a salt ✧ A base has a pH higher than 7. — compare [1]ACID 1, PH
7 [count] mathematics : a number on which a system for counting and calculating is established — usually singular ▪ Computers use a binary, or base 2, system, rather than the decimal, or base 10, system we usually use.
cover all the bases also cover every base : to do or include everything that needs to be done or included ▪ The book is sometimes confusing because the writer tries too hard to cover all the bases. ▪ They reviewed the contract to make sure that it covered all the bases.
off base US, informal 1 : not correct : wrong or mistaken ▪ Her study proves that the theory is off base. ▪ It turns out that the estimates were way off base. [=very wrong] 2 : in an unprepared state ▪ He was caught off base [=off guard] by the accusations. [=he was not prepared for the accusations] touch all the bases or touch every base chiefly US : to cover all the bases; especially : to mention every subject or point that needs to be considered ▪ She made sure that she touched all the bases in her report. ▪ His opening remarks at the meeting touched all the bases.
touch base informal : to meet and talk as a way of learning about recent news ▪ Let's get together for lunch next week to touch base. — usually + with ▪ He attended the conference for a chance to touch base with other people in the computer industry.

[2]base verb bases; based; bas•ing [+ obj] : to have a particular place as the main place where a person works or lives or where a business operates ▪ They are going to base their new company in Seattle. ▪ The company has based itself in London. ▪ Our tour group based itself in a hotel in the heart of the city. — often used as (be) based ▪ The company is based in London. [=the company's main offices are in London] ▪ The band was based in Chicago until recently. ▪ a London-based company base on/upon [phrasal verb] base (something) on/upon (something) : to form, make, or develop (something, such as an opinion, decision, or calculation) by using (something, such as information) as a basis, starting point, etc. ▪ You've based your opinion on faulty information. = Your opinion is based on faulty information. [=the information that you used to form your opinion is wrong] ▪ The interest rate is based on credit history. [=credit history is used to determine the interest rate] ▪ The story is based on real-life events. [=the story was developed from real-life events] ▪ The island's economy is based on tourism.

[3]base adj
1 bas•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] formal + literary : not honest or good ▪ base motives ▪ a base criminal 2 technical, of a metal : having low quality and value ▪ Iron is a base metal.
– base•ly adv ▪ He acted basely. – base•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the baseness of his actions base•ball /ˈbeɪsˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls

1 [noncount] : a game played on a large field by two teams of nine players who try to score runs by hitting a small ball with a bat and then running to each of the four bases without being put out ▪ He likes playing baseball. ▪ We watched baseball on TV last night. — often used before another noun ▪ a baseball player/team/game ▪ a baseball bat/card — see pictures at BAT, GLOVE
2 [count] : the ball used in baseball — see picture at BALL

baseball cap noun, pl ~ caps [count] : a rounded cap that fits close to the head and that has a long visor ✧ Baseball caps were originally worn only by baseball players as part of their uniform but are now worn by many people. — see picture at HAT base•board /ˈbeɪsˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] US : a narrow board along the bottom of a wall that covers the area where the wall meets the floor — called also (Brit) skirting board based adj — used to describe the base or basis of something

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

▪ a soundly based argument [=an argument that has a sound basis] — often used in combination ▪ oil-based paints base hit noun, pl ~ hits [count] baseball : a hit that allows a batter to reach a base safely : a single, double, triple, or home run ▪ The pitcher gave up three base hits [=hits] in two innings.

base•less /ˈbeɪsləs/ adj : not based on facts : without a good reason ▪ a baseless [=unfounded] accusation ▪ The charges against him were found to be baseless.

base•line /ˈbeɪsˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]
1 technical : information that is used as a starting point by which to compare other information ▪ The experiment is meant only to provide a baseline for other studies. — often used before another noun ▪ baseline data
2 : a line at either end of the playing area in games like basketball and tennis
3 baseball a : either one of the lines that lead from home plate to first base and third base b : BASE PATH

baseman see FIRST BASEMAN, SECOND BASEMAN, THIRD BASEMAN base•ment /ˈbeɪsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : the part of a building that is entirely or partly below the ground — see also BARGAIN BASEMENT base on balls noun, pl bases on balls [count] baseball : a movement to first base that is awarded to a batter who does not swing at four pitches that are balls — called also walk base path noun, pl ~ paths [count] : the area between two bases on a baseball field where a player must remain while running from one base to the other base pay noun, pl ~ pays [count, noncount] : the amount of money paid to someone for work at a job that does not include any additional payments for bonuses, overtime, etc.

base runner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] baseball : a player who is on base or is trying to reach a base – base•run•ning noun [noncount] ▪ He is good at baserunning.

bases plural of ¹BASE or of BASIS

¹bash /ˈbæʃ/ verb bash•es; bashed; bash•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something, such as part of your body) to hit something very hard or forcefully ▪ She fell down and bashed [=banged] her knee against a rock. ▪ I bashed my arm against the door. b : to hit (someone or something) very hard or forcefully [+ obj] Someone bashed him over/on the head with a chair. [no obj] The two cars bashed [=crashed] into each other. c [+ obj] : to hurt or damage (something) by hitting or beating ▪ They tried to bash the door open/down. — often + in ▪ He threatened to bash [=beat, smash] my head in.
2 [+ obj] : to criticize or attack (a person or group) ▪ newspapers that use their editorial pages to bash [=harshly criticize] the president ▪ groups accused of gay bashing [=criticizing or attacking gay people] ▪ celebrity bashing bash away [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to work hard at something ▪ The children are bashing away [=(US) banging away] at their homework.
bash on [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to continue to work hard at something ▪ You're not finished yet? Well, bash on. [=press on] bash out [phrasal verb] bash out (something) or bash (something) out Brit, informal : to produce (something) quickly ▪ He bashed out [=banged out] an angry letter to the editor.
bash up [phrasal verb] bash up (someone) or bash (someone) up chiefly Brit, informal : to attack (someone) ▪ A group of older girls bashed up [=beat up] the sisters.
– basher noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ celebrity bashers [=people who criticize celebrities]

²bash noun, pl bashes [count]
1 : a big or exciting party ▪ We threw her a birthday bash.
2 : a hard and powerful hit or blow ▪ She gave me a bash on the head.
have a bash at Brit, informal : to try or attempt (something) ▪ I've never done it before, but I'll have a bash at it.

bash•ful /ˈbæʃfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : nervous or uncomfortable in social situations : afraid to talk to people because of a lack of confidence ▪ She was very bashful [=shy] as a child. ▪ bashful boys asking girls to dance ▪ He looked at her with a bashful smile. [=a smile that showed he was feeling bashful] ▪ Take another cookie if you like. Don't be bashful. [=shy]
– bash•ful•ly adv ▪ He smiled bashfully. – bash•ful•ness noun [noncount]

¹ba•sic /ˈbeɪsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : forming or relating to the most important part of something ▪ In this class, you will learn the basic principles of chemistry. ▪ At its most basic level, the book is about a father's relationship with his children. ▪ The basic difference between the two companies is their size. ▪ The organization fights for basic human rights [=the rights that all people should have] throughout the world. ▪ These ingredients are a basic part of Thai cooking. = These ingredients are basic to Thai cooking. ▪ rights that are basic to all human beings
2 : forming or relating to the first or easiest part of something ▪ We're learning basic [=beginning] English. ▪ basic reading, writing, and mathematics ▪ She lacks even the most basic skills necessary for the job.
3 : not including anything extra ▪ That's just the basic salary without overtime or tips. ▪ The motel is comfortable but pretty basic: you get the necessities all right, but no luxuries.

²basic noun, pl -sics
1 basics [plural] : the simplest and most important parts of something (such as a subject of study) ▪ He's teaching me the basics of Japanese cooking. ▪ the basics of computers = computer basics
2 [noncount] chiefly US : BASIC TRAINING ▪ He starts basic in two months.
get/go back to (the) basics : to return to a simpler way of doing something or thinking about something ▪ The restaurant is getting back to basics in terms of food, using fresh ingredients to make simple, good food.

BA•SIC /ˈbeɪsɪk/ noun [noncount] computers : a simple language used for programming computers ▪ The program is written in BASIC.

ba•si•cal•ly /ˈbeɪsɪkli/ adv
1 : in a general or basic way — used to say that something is true or correct as a general statement even if it is not entirely true or correct ▪ There are a few boring parts, but basically [=generally, for the most part], it's a very good book. ▪ She's basically a good kid. ▪ You're basically [=fundamentally] correct, but there's something you don't know. ▪ There are basically two types of people: those who like chocolate and those who don't. ▪ a basically healthy person ▪ Children basically learn to speak by listening to their parents. ▪ All people are basically the same. = Basically, all people are the same.
2 — used to show that a statement is expressing the most important reason for something ▪ "Why don't you like him?" "Basically, I think he's crazy." ▪ We'd like to buy a new car, but, basically, we just don't have enough money.
3 [more ~; most ~] : in a simple way ▪ people who are trying to live more basically [=simply] basic training noun [noncount] : the first few weeks of training for someone who has recently joined the military ▪ Our son is in basic training.

ba•sil /ˈbæzəl, ˈbeɪzəl/ noun [noncount] : an herb that has a sweet smell and that is used in cooking — see color picture on page C6

ba•sil•i•ca /bəˈsɪlɪkə/ noun, pl -cas [count] : a large church that has a long central part that ends in a curved wall bas•i•lisk /ˈbæsəˌlɪsk/ noun, pl -lisks [count] in stories and legends : a reptile that can kill people by breathing on them or looking at them

ba•sin /ˈbeɪsn̩/ noun, pl -sins [count]
1 a chiefly Brit : a kitchen sink b Brit : a large bowl that is used for mixing, cooking, or serving food c : the amount contained in a basin ▪ a basin of cold water
2 : the area of land around a large river and the small rivers that flow into it ▪ the drainage basin of a river ▪ the Amazon Basin
3 : a large area of the earth's surface that is lower than the area around it ▪ the Great Basin of the western U.S.
4 : an area of water where people keep their ships and boats when they are not sailing them ▪ a yacht basin

ba•sis /ˈbeɪsəs/ noun, pl ba•ses /ˈbeɪˌsi:z/
1 : something (such as an idea or set of ideas) from which another thing develops or can develop [count] — usually singular ▪ This principle forms the basis [=base, foundation] of the country's economic policies and will provide a firm basis for future development. ▪ The actor's letters form the basis of the biography. [=the biography is based on the actor's letters; the most important information in the biography comes from the actor's letters] [noncount] These stories have very little basis [=foundation] in fact/reality. [=these stories are not based on or supported by facts/reality]
2 [noncount] : a reason for doing something ▪ The judge

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 118 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

ruled that there is no legal basis [=ground] for a new trial. ▪ The latest news at least provides some basis for hope. [=some reason to hope] ▪ On what basis were the students chosen/selected? [=how were the students chosen/selected?; what was considered when the students were chosen/selected?] ▪ Students were chosen/selected on the basis of [=according to] their grades and test scores. ▪ Our decisions are made on the basis of the available information. [=we base our decisions on the available information] ▪ The company does not hire employees on the basis of their race, sex, age, or religion.

3 [singular] a : a fixed pattern or system for doing something — used with on ▪ He visits his grandmother on a regular basis. [=regularly] ▪ The company changes its Web site on a daily/weekly basis. [=every day/week] ▪ changes that occur on an hourly basis ▪ They hired her on a trial/temporary basis. ▪ People are seated on a first-come, first-served basis. [=the people who arrive first are given seats first] b — used to describe the way people act with each other ▪ The two golfers still compete on a friendly basis. [=in a friendly way] — see also on a first-name basis at FIRST NAME

bask /ˈbæsk, Brit ˈbɑːsk/ verb basks; basked; bask•ing [no obj]

1 : to lie or relax happily in a bright and warm place ▪ We sat basking in the sun. ▪ Tourists were basking on the beaches.

2 : to enjoy the attention and good feelings expressed by others ▪ He stood before the audience, basking in their applause. ▪ parents who bask in the reflected glory of their children [=parents who enjoy the attention people give them because of the success of their children]

bas•ket /ˈbæskɪt, Brit ˈbɑːskɪt/ noun, pl -kets [count]

1 a : a container usually made by weaving together long thin pieces of material ▪ wicker/straw/wire baskets ▪ a fruit basket = a basket filled with fruit ▪ a laundry basket [=a basket that holds dirty clothes] ▪ They brought their lunch in a picnic basket. — see also BREADBASKET, HANDBASKET, WASTEBASKET b : the amount contained in a basket ▪ a basket [=basketful] of eggs

basket

2 basketball a : a net hanging from a thin metal ring that the ball must go through in order to score points ▪ His shot missed the basket completely. b : a successful shot ▪ She made/scored a basket. [=she scored points by making a shot that went through the basket]

put all your eggs in one basket see ¹EGG

– basketful noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ a basketful of eggs bas•ket•ball /ˈbæskɪtˌbɑːl, Brit ˈbɑːskɪtˌbɔːl/ noun, pl -balls

1 [noncount] : a game in which two teams of five players bounce a ball and try to score points by throwing the ball through one of the raised nets at each end of a rectangular court ▪ She plays basketball. — often used before another noun ▪ a basketball game/team/player/coach

2 [count] : a large rubber ball that is used in the game of basketball — see picture at BALL basket case noun, pl ~ cases [count] informal

1 : a person who is very nervous, tired, etc., and is not able to think or act normally ▪ I was so worried about losing my job that I was a complete basket case.

2 : something (such as a company or a government) that is in very bad condition and close to failure ▪ a business that was once very successful but is now a financial basket case

bas•ket•ry /ˈbæskɪtri, Brit ˈbɑːskətri/ noun [noncount]

1 : the art or craft of making baskets and other objects by weaving together long thin pieces of material

2 : baskets and other objects made by basketry ▪ a collection of basketry — called also basketwork

bas•ket•work /ˈbæskɪtˌwɚk, Brit ˈbɑːskɪtˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : BASKETRY 2 bas•ma•ti rice /ˌbɑːzˈmɑːti-, Brit ˌbæzˈmɑːti-/ noun [noncount] : a kind of long rice that is used especially in Indian and Middle Eastern cooking bas mitz•vah /bɑsˈmɪtsvə/ noun, pl ~ -vahs [count] : BAT MITZVAH bas–re•lief /ˌbɑːrɪˈliːf/ noun, pl -liefs : a kind of sculpture in which shapes are carved so that they are only slightly higher than the flat background [count] the bas-reliefs on the building's façade [noncount] a façade decorated with flowers in bas-relief — often used before another noun ▪ bas-relief carvings/sculptures

¹bass /ˈbeɪs/ noun, pl bass•es music

1 : low and deep sound : the lowest range of sounds used in music [noncount] Turn down the treble on your radio and turn up the bass. [singular] The song has a loud/heavy/booming bass. — compare TREBLE

2 [count] : the lowest male singing voice ▪ He sings with/in a deep bass.; also : a singer who has such a voice ▪ He's a bass. — compare ALTO, SOPRANO, TENOR

3 [count] a : a kind of guitar that usually has four strings and that makes low sounds ▪ an electric/acoustic bass ▪ She plays (the) bass. ▪ a bass player — called also bass guitar b : DOUBLE BASS

– compare ³BASS

²bass /ˈbeɪs/ adj, always used before a noun : having or indicating a low sound or range ▪ his deep bass voice ▪ the sound of the bass drum ▪ a bass clarinet ▪ the bass clef

³bass /ˈbæs/ noun, pl bass : a kind of fish that people catch for food [count] She caught three bass. [noncount] We had bass for dinner. — see color picture on page C8 — compare ¹BASS bas•set hound /ˈbæsət-/ noun, pl ~ hounds [count] : a kind of dog that has short legs and long ears and that is used for hunting — called also basset bas•si•net /ˌbæsəˈnɛt/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a small bed for a baby that looks like a basket and that usually has a hood or cover over one end bass•ist /ˈbeɪsɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] music : a person who plays a double bass or a bass guitar bas•soon /bəˈsuːn/ noun, pl -soons [count] : a large musical instrument that is shaped like a tube, makes low sounds, and is played by blowing into a small, thin tube in its side — see picture at WOODWIND

– bas•soon•ist /bəˈsuːnɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

bas•tard /ˈbæstəd, Brit ˈbɑːstəd/ noun, pl -tards [count]

1 informal a offensive : a very bad or unpleasant man : a man who you strongly dislike or hate ▪ You dirty bastard! b sometimes offensive : a man who you think is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ Congratulations on getting the job, you lucky bastard! ▪ His wife left him, the poor bastard. c chiefly Brit, sometimes offensive : something that is difficult or unpleasant ▪ Life can be a real bastard sometimes.

2 usually offensive : a person whose parents were not married to each other : an illegitimate child — sometimes used before another noun ▪ the bastard son of a wealthy noble ✧ This use of bastard was common in the past, but it is now usually avoided.

bas•tard•ize also Brit bas•tard•ise /ˈbæstəˌdaɪz, Brit ˈbɑːstəˌdaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] disapproving : to produce a poor copy or version of (something) ▪ It's a shame to see how Hollywood has bastardized the novel. ▪ The restaurant serves a bastardized version of the classic French dish.

¹baste /ˈbeɪst/ verb bastes; bast•ed; bast•ing [+ obj] : to pour hot juices, melted fat, etc., over (meat) while it is cooking ▪ Baste the turkey every half hour. — compare ²BASTE

²baste verb bastes; bast•ed; bast•ing [+ obj] : to sew together (pieces of cloth) with long, loose stitches ▪ She basted the hem of the dress. — compare ¹BASTE

bas•tion /ˈbæstʃən, Brit ˈbæstiən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a place or system in which something (such as an old-fashioned idea) continues to survive ▪ The neighborhood is considered by many to be the city's last liberal/conservative bastion. [=the only place left in the city where liberal/conservative ideas are still accepted] ▪ a bastion of racial inequality [=a system in which people of different races still do not have equal rights] ▪ bastions of democracy

¹bat /ˈbæt/ noun, pl bats [count]

1 : a long rounded stick that is used to hit the ball in baseball ▪ a baseball bat

2 : a long flattened stick that is used to hit the ball in cricket

3 Brit : PADDLE 2 ▪ a table tennis bat

at bat baseball 1 — used to describe the player or team that is batting ▪ He got a home run on his first time at bat. ▪ The home team is at bat. [=is batting] 2 : the act of batting ▪ She has two hits in three at bats.

go to bat baseball : to be the player or team that is batting ▪ The visiting team goes to bat first. [=the visiting team bats first] go to bat for US, informal : to try to help, support, or defend (someone or something) in an active way ▪ Many of his friends went to bat for him while he was under investigation for fraud.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

off the bat chiefly US, informal : without any delay : IMMEDIATELY — usually used with right ▪ I could tell it was fake right off the bat. [=right away] off your own bat Brit, informal : through your own efforts ▪ He didn't need my help—he made good off his own bat.

– compare [3]BAT

[2]bat verb bats; bat•ted; bat•ting

1 a [+ obj] : to hit (something, such as a ball) with a bat, club, etc., or with your hand ▪ The ball was batted down. ▪ a batted ball [=a ball that has been hit by a batter in baseball] b [no obj] : to try to hit a ball with a bat in baseball, cricket, or a similar game ▪ It's your turn to bat. ▪ She was batting when it began to rain. ▪ Who's batting? = Who's up to bat?

2 [no obj] baseball : to have a specified batting average ▪ This year he's batting [=hitting] .300. [=his batting average is .300] ▪ She has five hits in five at bats, so she's batting a thousand. [=her batting average is 1.000] ✧ In figurative use, to bat a thousand is to succeed in every attempt. This is an informal phrase that is used chiefly in U.S. English. ▪ So far in her career, she's batting a thousand. [=she has succeeded in everything she has done in her career] ▪ No one bats a thousand in this business.

bat around [phrasal verb] bat (something) around or bat around (something) informal : to think about or talk about (something, such as an idea) for a period of time ▪ The plan was batted around for a while, but it was finally rejected. ▪ We've been batting the idea around for a few years.

bat in [phrasal verb] bat in (a run) also bat (a run) in baseball : to hit the ball in a way that makes it possible for a run to score ▪ He batted in 70 runs last year.

– compare [4]BAT

– bat•ting adj, always used before a noun ▪ batting practice ▪ a batting coach ▪ batting gloves/helmets

[3]bat noun, pl bats [count]

1 : an animal that has wings and a furry body like a mouse

2 informal : an unpleasant old woman ▪ Don't take any notice of that old bat!

bats in the/your belfry see BELFRY

(as) blind as a bat see [1]BLIND like a bat out of hell informal : very quickly ▪ He ran out of the house like a bat out of hell.

– compare [1]BAT

bat

[4]bat verb bats; batted; batting [+ obj] : to close and open (your eyes or eyelashes) very quickly several times especially as a way of flirting ▪ She smiled and batted her eyelashes at him.

not bat an eye/eyelash (US) or Brit not bat an eyelid informal : to show no surprise, fear, concern, etc. ▪ He thought the news would make her upset, but she never batted an eye. [=she did not appear to be upset at all] ▪ He listened without batting an eyelash.

– compare [2]BAT

bat•boy /ˈbætˌbɔɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] : a boy who takes care of the bats, balls, and other equipment used by a baseball team batch /ˈbætʃ/ noun, pl batch•es [count]

1 : an amount of something that is made at one time ▪ We baked two batches of cookies. ▪ a fresh batch of salsa ▪ mixing another batch of cement ▪ Fry the potatoes in batches. [=fry one amount and then another amount and so on until all the potatoes have been fried]

2 : a group of people or things ▪ They're hiring another batch of workers. ▪ a new batch [=bunch] of television shows

3 computers : a set of jobs that a computer does together at one time — usually used before another noun ▪ batch processing

bat•ed /ˈbeɪtəd/ adj

with bated breath : in a nervous and excited state because you do not know what will happen ▪ They waited for the answer with bated breath. [=they nervously waited for the answer]

[1]bath /ˈbæθ, Brit ˈbɑːθ/ noun, pl baths /ˈbæðz, ˈbæθs, Brit ˈbɑːðz, ˈbɑːθs/

1 [count] a : the act of washing the body usually by sitting or lying in a container filled with water ▪ Do you prefer baths or showers? ▪ I was taking a bath when the phone rang. ▪ (chiefly Brit) I was having a bath. ▪ We tried giving the dog a bath in the bathtub. ▪ a long hot bath ▪ bath towels [=large towels used for drying yourself after a bath or shower] — see also BUBBLE BATH, SPONGE BATH, TURKISH BATH, TAKE A BATH (below) b : the water used for a bath ▪ a bath of warm/hot water ▪ I was in the bath when the phone rang. ▪ Would you like me to draw/run a bath for you? [=to fill the bathtub with water for you?] c chiefly Brit : BATHTUB ▪ He slipped and fell in the bath.

2 [count] chiefly US : BATHROOM — used when describing the number or kinds of bathrooms in a place ▪ a room with a private bath ▪ The house has three bedrooms and one and a half baths. [=one full bathroom and one bathroom with only a sink and a toilet] ▪ a full bath [=a bathroom with a sink, toilet, and a bathtub or shower]

3 baths [plural] a : a public building where people in the past went to wash or soak their bodies ▪ ancient Roman baths b Brit, old-fashioned : a public building with a swimming pool in it

4 [count] technical : a container filled with a liquid in which an object is placed to be cleaned, treated, etc. ▪ She dipped the metal in a bath of acid. ▪ a chemical bath take a bath US, informal : to lose a large amount of money in a business deal ▪ The movie studio took a bath on his last picture. — see also [1]BATH 1a (above)

– see also BLOODBATH

[2]bath verb baths; bathed; bath•ing Brit

1 [+ obj] : to wash (someone) in a container filled with water : to give a bath to (someone) ▪ She baths [=(US) bathes] the baby in the kitchen sink.

2 [no obj] formal : to have a bath : to wash yourself in a bath ▪ I usually bath [=(US) bathe] before going to bed.

[1]bathe /ˈbeɪð/ verb bathes; bathed; bath•ing

1 [no obj] chiefly US : to take a bath : to wash yourself in a bath ▪ I always bathe [=(Brit) bath] in the morning.

2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to wash (someone) in a container filled with water : to give a bath to (someone) ▪ We'll bathe [=(Brit) bath] the baby after she eats.

3 [no obj] somewhat old-fashioned : to swim for pleasure ▪ We bathed [=swam] in the ocean. — see also SUNBATHE

4 [+ obj] : to wash or rinse (a part of the body) ▪ If the chemical comes in contact with the eyes, bathe the eyes with water for 10 minutes.

5 [+ obj] : to cover (an area or surface) with light ▪ The moon bathed the town in light. = The town was bathed in moonlight.

bathed in sweat : covered with sweat : very sweaty ▪ He was bathed in sweat when he finished exercising.

– bath•er /ˈbeɪðɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a beach crowded with bathers [=swimmers] – bathing noun [noncount] ▪ a beach where bathing [=swimming] is not allowed ▪ nude bathing ▪ I like to go bathing [=go swimming] on summer mornings before breakfast. ▪ a bathing cap [=a cap worn for swimming]

[2]bathe noun, pl bathes [count] Brit : the act of swimming for pleasure : SWIM ▪ We went for a bathe in the sea.

bath•house /ˈbæθˌhaʊs, Brit ˈbɑːθˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count]

1 : a public building where people go to take baths, showers, etc.

2 US : a public building at a beach where people go to put on the clothes they use for swimming bathing costume noun, pl ~ -tumes [count] Brit : SWIMSUIT bathing suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] chiefly US : SWIMSUIT bath mat noun, pl ~ mats [count]

1 : a small rug outside a bathtub for people to stand on while they are drying themselves after a bath or shower — see picture at BATHROOM

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

2 : a rubber mat in a bathtub for people to stand on without slipping during a bath or shower ba•thos /ˈbeɪˌθɑːs/ noun [noncount] formal : the sudden appearance of a silly idea or event in a book, movie discussion, etc., that is serious in tone ▪ The serious message of the film is ruined by the bathos of its ridiculous ending.

bath•robe /ˈbæθˌroʊb, Brit ˈbɑːθˌrəʊb/ noun, pl -robes [count] : a loose piece of clothing that wraps around your body and is worn especially before or after a bath — see color picture on page C12 bath•room /ˈbæθˌruːm, Brit ˈbɑːθˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count]

1 : a room with a sink and toilet and usually a bathtub or shower ▪ Their house has three bathrooms. ✧ In U.S. English, a bathroom is mainly thought of as a room with a toilet. In British English, a bathroom is mainly thought of as a room with a bathtub or shower.

2 US : a room in a public place with a toilet and sink ▪ The restaurant has only one bathroom. ▪ a public bathroom [=restroom, lavatory] go to the bathroom or use the bathroom US : to use the toilet ▪ The little boy told his mother that he had to go to the bathroom. ▪ You should use the bathroom before we leave.

bath•tub /ˈbæθˌtʌb, Brit ˈbɑːθˌtʌb/ noun, pl -tubs [count] chiefly US : a large and long container in which people take baths or showers — called also (chiefly Brit) bath, (US) tub; see picture at BATHROOM bath•water /ˈbæθˌwɑːtə, Brit ˈbɑːθˌwɔːtə/ noun [noncount] : water used for a bath throw out the baby with the bathwater see ¹BABY

bat mitz•vah /bɑtˈmɪtsvə/ noun, pl ~ -vahs [count] : a ceremony and celebration for a Jewish girl usually on her 13th birthday when she takes on the religious duties and responsibilities of an adult; also : a girl for whom a bat mitzvah is held — called also bas mitzvah; compare BAR MITZVAH ba•ton /bəˈtɑːn, Brit ˈbæˌtɒn/ noun, pl -tons [count]

1 : a thin stick that is used by a music conductor to lead a band or orchestra

2 : a long thin stick with a ball at one end or both ends that is carried by someone who performs with or leads a marching band ▪ The majorette twirled the baton.

3 : NIGHTSTICK ▪ a policeman's baton

4 : a stick that is passed from one runner to the next runner in a relay race ▪ They practiced passing the baton. ▪ One of the runners dropped the baton. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The chef recently passed the baton [=gave the job and responsibility that had been hers] to her young assistant.

bats•man /ˈbætsmən/ noun, pl -men [count] : a player who is batting especially in the game of cricket ▪ a skillful batsman ✧ The player who is batting in baseball is usually called the batter, but a batter who has been hit by a pitch is called a hit batsman.

bat•tal•ion /bəˈtæljən/ noun, pl -ions [count]

1 : a large organized group of soldiers

2 : a large organized group of people who act together ▪ a battalion of angry protesters

¹bat•ten /ˈbætn/ verb -tens; -tened; -ten•ing

batten down [phrasal verb] 1 : to prepare for possible trouble or difficulty ▪ The city is battening down for the weekend's scheduled protests. ▪ People are battening down in preparation for a hard winter. 2 *batten down (something) or batten (something) down : to tie, close, or cover (something) in order to prevent it from moving or becoming damaged ▪ Everything on the ship's deck was battened down. ▪ We were able to batten down the house just before the storm hit. 3 *batten down the hatches : to prepare a boat or ship for dangerous stormy weather by closing and covering the openings in the deck — often used figuratively ▪ As the economy grows worse, investors need to batten down the hatches and prepare for tough times ahead.

batten on [phrasal verb] batten on (something or someone) Brit, formal + disapproving : to live well or succeed by using (something or someone) ▪ someone who battens on the strength/generosity of others

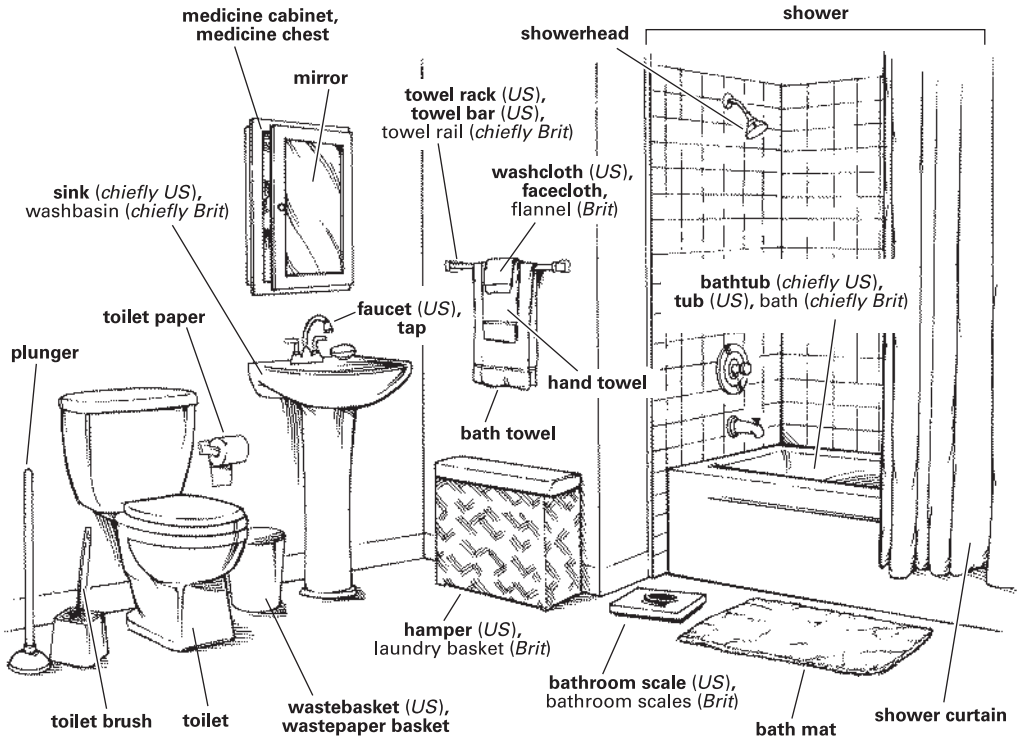
²batten noun, pl -tens [count] : a long thin piece of wood that is used to connect and support other pieces of wood

¹bat•ter /ˈbætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] : to hit (something or someone) forcefully many times in a way that causes much damage or injury ▪ Storms battered the shore. ▪ He forced his opponent into the corner and battered him with a series of hard punches. ▪ During the war, the city was battered by bombs. ▪ For thousands of years, these moun-

bathroom



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

taintops have been battered by sun, wind, and rain. ▪ Her ex-husband had battered her for many years. ▪ children who are abused and battered by their parents ▪ He tried to batter down [=break down] the door by kicking it. [=to force the door to open by kicking it hard] — often used figuratively ▪ Businesses in the area have been battered [=badly damaged] by the bad economy. ▪ a country battered by years of war and poverty ▪ The team's confidence was battered by a series of losses. — see also BATTERED — compare [4]BATTER

– bat•ter•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]batter noun, pl -ters

1 : a mixture of different ingredients (such as flour, sugar, eggs, and oil) that is cooked and eaten [count] a thin pancake batter [noncount] cake batter — compare DOUGH

2 : a mixture of flour and a liquid (such as egg, oil, or water) that is used to cover food before it is fried [count] Dip the fish in a batter of flour, milk, and eggs. [noncount] The fish was coated with batter and then fried. ▪ egg/beer batter

– compare [3]BATTER

[3]batter noun, pl -ters [count] baseball : a player who is trying to hit the ball : a player who is batting ▪ The pitcher walked the first batter. ▪ He's a good fielder but a poor batter. [=hitter] ▪ She's a right-handed/left-handed batter. — compare [2]BATTER

[4]batter verb -ters; -tered; -tering [+ obj] : to cover (food) in a batter and then fry it ▪ Batter the fish and then fry it for 10 minutes. ▪ lightly/thickly battered pieces of fish — compare [1]BATTER

battered adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : damaged by being used too much or in a careless way ▪ He wore a very battered old hat and sunglasses. ▪ We finally sold our battered truck and bought a new car.

2 : badly injured by being hit many times ▪ The police took pictures of the victim's battered body. ▪ the bruised and battered face of a boxer

3 : physically hurt by another person (such as a husband or parent) ▪ a battered wife/woman ▪ battered children battering noun [singular] : an attack in which someone is badly injured by being hit many times ▪ The victim suffered a vicious battering. — often used figuratively ▪ The party is expected to take a battering [=to do very poorly] in the upcoming election. ▪ markets that have recently taken a battering

battering ram noun, pl ~ rams [count] : a large and heavy piece of wood or other material that is used to hit and break through walls and doors

[1]bat•tery /ˈbætəri/ noun, pl -ter•ies

1 [count] : a device that is placed inside a machine (such as a clock, toy, or car) to supply it with electricity ▪ I bought new batteries for the flashlights. ▪ a car battery ▪ battery-powered computers ▪ a dead battery = (Brit) a flat battery [=a battery that has no more electricity] — see picture at CAR

2 [count] : a usually large group of similar people, things, or ideas that work together, are used together, etc. ▪ a battery of tests ▪ The operation was performed by a battery of doctors.

3 [count] : a group of two or more big guns used by the military ▪ an artillery battery

4 [noncount] law : the crime of hitting or touching someone in a way that is meant to cause harm or injury ▪ He was found guilty of battery. — see also ASSAULT AND BATTERY

5 [count] baseball : the pitcher and catcher on a particular team

recharge your batteries see RECHARGE

[2]battery adj, always used before a noun, Brit : relating to or produced by a type of farming in which animals (such as chickens) are kept in small cages ▪ a battery farm ▪ battery chickens versus free-range chickens batting average noun, pl ~ averages [count] baseball : a number that shows how often a batter gets a base hit ▪ an excellent hitter with a batting average above .300 ▪ a low/high batting average — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a movie director with a high batting average [=a director who has created many successful movies and few unsuccessful movies]

[1]bat•tle /ˈbætl/ noun, pl bat•tles

1 a : a military fight between groups of soldiers, ships, airplanes, etc. [count] That two-day conflict has become one of the most famous battles in history. ▪ The battle continued late into the night. ▪ the battle of Gettysburg [noncount] The men never spoke of the difficulties of battle. [=war] ▪ Hundreds of dead soldiers lay on the field of battle. [=the battlefield] ▪ the brave warriors who died/fell in battle [=while fighting in a war] ▪ Thousands of soldiers were willing to go into battle to fight the enemy. b [count] : a violent fight in which people use weapons ▪ A police officer was injured in a gun battle that took place last night.

2 [count] a : a fight between people or groups in which each side tries to win a contest (such as a game or an election) or to gain control of something (such as a company) ▪ The divorced couple is now in a fierce custody battle over their son. [=a legal fight about who their son will live with] ▪ The company was involved in a legal battle with/against one of its employees. ▪ He has been engaged in a running battle [=a fight or disagreement that continues for a long time] with the government over the amount of money he owes in taxes. — often + for ▪ They are engaged in a battle for the presidency. [=a fight to win an election and become the president] ▪ a battle for control of the land — often followed by to + verb ▪ a battle to control the land ✧ A battle of wits is a contest in which each side tries to win by being smarter or cleverer than the other side. ▪ In this movie, it's a battle of wits as the bank robbers try to outsmart the city's detectives. ✧ A battle of wills is a contest in which each side tries to win by refusing to stop trying. ▪ The workers' strike became a difficult battle of wills between the company and the labor union. b : a fight between two different or opposite forces ▪ the never-ending battle between/of good and evil ▪ The comedy is a classic treatment of the battle of the sexes. [=the struggle for power between women and men]

3 [count] : a long struggle to succeed or survive during a difficult situation ▪ Last year, he lost his 10-year battle with/against AIDS. [=he died of AIDS after being sick with the disease for 10 years] ▪ Starting her own business has proven to be an uphill battle. [=a very difficult struggle] ✧ If you are involved in a losing battle you are trying to do something with little or no chance of success. ▪ I tried to get him to change his mind, but it was a losing battle. [=he refused to change his mind] ▪ She tried to stay awake but it was a losing battle. ▪ a gardener fighting a losing battle against weeds

do battle : to fight or struggle ▪ political opponents who have been doing battle [=battling] for years — usually + with ▪ political opponents who have been doing battle with each other for years ▪ soldiers doing battle with the enemy half the battle : an important and necessary part of doing or achieving something ▪ When you're opening a new restaurant, good advertising is half the battle. — often used with words like only and just to stress that something is not enough by itself to achieve a desired goal ▪ If you want a career in show business, having talent is only half the battle—you also need to be lucky.

in the heat of (the) battle : while fighting in a battle ▪ The soldier became confused in the heat of battle. — often used figuratively ▪ He apologized to his wife for the angry things he had said to her in the heat of battle. [=while they were arguing]

join battle see JOIN

[2]battle verb battles; bat•tled; bat•tling

1 [no obj] : to fight with weapons ▪ The army battled for control of the bridge. ▪ The battling armies agreed to a truce.

2 [no obj] a : to try or struggle very hard to do something ▪ The team battled [=fought] bravely to win their last game. ▪ They battled [=struggled] to keep their son out of jail. : to struggle or fight for something ▪ The two families have battled for control of the land for many years. b : to fight or argue with someone over something ▪ The couple battled fiercely over how to spend their money.

3 [+ obj] a : to fight, compete, or argue with (someone or something) ▪ The two teams are set to battle each other for the championship. ▪ Members of both parties continue to battle the governor over her policies. b : to try to stop or defeat (something) ▪ Hundreds of firefighters came to help battle the forest fire. ▪ People often need help battling their drug and alcohol problems. ▪ She's been battling cancer for 10 years. ▪ battling the forces of evil battle it out : to argue or fight ▪ People were battling it out [=fighting it out] over parking spaces. ▪ The two sides are now battling it out in the courtroom.

bat•tle–ax (US) or Brit bat•tle–axe /ˈbætlˌæks/ noun, pl -ax•es [count]

1 : an ax with a large blade that was used as a weapon in the past

2 informal + disapproving : an unpleasant older woman who speaks in an angry way and tries to control others battle cruiser noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a ship that is used in fighting wars and that is lighter and faster than a battleship battle cry noun, pl ~ cries [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

1 : a word, phrase, or sound that is shouted by soldiers in a battle : WAR CRY
2 : a phrase or saying that is used to make people support an idea, a cause, etc. ▪ "Just Say No!" was the President's battle cry [=rallying cry] for stopping the use of illegal drugs.

battle fatigue noun [noncount] : a mental illness that is caused by the experiences of fighting in a war and that causes extreme feelings of nervousness, depression, etc. — called also combat fatigue, shell shock; compare POST-TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER

bat•tle•field /ˈbætlˌfiːld/ noun, pl -fields [count]
1 : a place where a battle is fought ▪ Hundreds of dead soldiers lay on the battlefield.
2 : an area of conflict or disagreement ▪ a political battlefield

bat•tle•ground /ˈbætlˌgraʊnd/ noun, pl -grounds [count] : BATTLEFIELD: such as a : a place where a battle is fought ▪ an ancient battleground b : an area of conflict or disagreement ▪ a political battleground battle line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : a line of soldiers who are fighting in a battle — usually used figuratively in phrases like the battle lines have been drawn to say that groups of people strongly disagree about an issue and are fighting or arguing with each other ▪ When (the) battle lines were drawn over the issue of new taxes, she was quick to side with the governor.

bat•tle•ment /ˈbætlmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a low wall at the top of a castle with open spaces for people inside to shoot through — usually plural ▪ the castle's stone battlements

bat•tle•ship /ˈbætlˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : a large ship that has many big guns and is used in fighting wars bat•ty /ˈbæti/ adj bat•ti•er; -est informal 1 : foolish or silly ▪ It's just another one of her batty [=harebrained, nutty, wacky] ideas.

2 : CRAZY ▪ She's a little batty. ▪ His bad jokes drive me batty! [=make me feel angry or annoyed]

bau•ble /ˈbɑːbəl/ noun, pl bau•bles [count]
1 : an inexpensive piece of jewelry ▪ shiny glass baubles
2 Brit : a shiny ball that is hung on a Christmas tree as a decoration

baulk Brit spelling of ¹BALK

baux•ite /ˈbɑːkˌsaɪt/ noun [noncount] technical : a soft substance that looks like clay and that is the source of aluminum bawdy /ˈbɑːdi/ adj bawd•i•er; -est : dealing with sex in a way that is meant to be funny ▪ bawdy [=vulgar, lewd] jokes ▪ a bawdy film that is not appropriate for children

bawl /ˈbɑːl/ verb bawls; bawled; bawl•ing
1 [no obj] : to cry very loudly ▪ He lay on his bed, bawling [=sobbing, wailing] uncontrollably. ✧ To bawl your eyes out is to cry loudly especially for a long time. ▪ It's the saddest book I've ever read. I bawled my eyes out at the end.
2 informal : to say or shout (something) using a very loud voice [+ obj] "Get in the car!" he bawled. [no obj] The sergeant bawled [=shouted, yelled] at the soldier.
bawl out [phrasal verb] bawl out (someone) or bawl (someone) out chiefly US, informal : to yell at (someone) for doing something bad or wrong ▪ His boss bawled him out for forgetting about the meeting.

¹bay /ˈbeɪ/ noun, pl bays [count] : a large area of water that is part of an ocean or lake and partly surrounded by land ▪ They went fishing in the bay. ▪ She lives in California near San Francisco Bay. — see color picture on page C7 — compare ²BAY, ³BAY, ⁴BAY, ⁵BAY

²bay noun, pl bays [count]
1 : a section of a ship, airplane, etc., that is used for a special purpose (such as storing things) ▪ a cargo bay on a ship ▪ the airplane's bomb bay ▪ an engine bay
2 : a section of a room or building ▪ a barn with three bays — see also BAY WINDOW
– compare ¹BAY, ³BAY, ⁴BAY, ⁵BAY

³bay noun
at bay : in the position of being unable to move closer while attacking or trying to approach someone — used with keep or hold ▪ The soldiers kept the attackers at bay. [=they did not allow the attackers to come closer] ▪ Armed with a gun, he held the police at bay [=he did not allow the police to arrest him] for 10 hours. — often used figuratively ▪ Although the doctors had been able to keep her illness at bay [=to prevent her illness from becoming worse] for a few months, the disease soon began to spread again.
– compare ¹BAY, ²BAY, ⁴BAY, ⁵BAY

⁴bay noun, pl bays [count] : a kind of European tree that has leaves which are used in cooking — see also BAY LEAF — compare ¹BAY, ²BAY, ³BAY, ⁵BAY

⁵bay noun, pl bays [count] : a horse that is a reddish-brown color — compare ¹BAY, ²BAY, ³BAY, ⁴BAY
– bay adj, of a horse ▪ a bay [=reddish-brown] colt/mare

⁶bay verb bays; bayed; bay•ing [no obj]
1 : to bark with long sounds ▪ The dog was baying [=howling] at the moon.
2 : to shout or cry out in a loud and often angry way ▪ a baying crowd ▪ an angry mob baying for blood [=angrily demanding or threatening violence]

bay leaf noun, pl ~ leaves [count] : a dried leaf from the bay tree that has a sweet smell and is used in cooking bay•o•net /ˈbejənət/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a long knife that is attached to the end of a rifle and used as a weapon in battle – bayonet verb -nets; -net•ed; -net•ing [+ obj] ▪ The soldier was bayoneted in the chest.

bay•ou /ˈbaju/ noun, pl -ous [count] : an area of water in the southern U.S. in which the water moves very slowly and is filled with many plants ▪ Louisiana bayous

bay window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] : a large window or set of windows that sticks out from the outside wall of a building — see picture at WINDOW

ba•zaar /bəˈzɑɚ/ noun, pl -zaars [count]
1 : a type of market found especially in Middle Eastern countries that has rows of small shops which sell many different kinds of things
2 : an event at which things are sold to raise money for people or an organization ▪ a charity bazaar ▪ church bazaars

ba•zoo•ka /bəˈzuːkə/ noun, pl -kas [count] : a military weapon that rests on a person's shoulder and fires small rockets at tanks

BB /ˈbiːˌbiː/ noun, pl BBs [count] : a small metal ball that is fired from a BB gun

b–ball /ˈbiːˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] US, informal : BASKETBALL

BBC abbr British Broadcasting Corporation ✧ The BBC is a radio and television company that is owned by the British government.

BB gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] chiefly US : a gun that uses air pressure to fire small metal balls (called BBs)

BBQ abbr barbecue

BC or chiefly US B.C. abbr before Christ — used to refer to the years that came before the birth of Jesus Christ ▪ 550 B.C. ▪ in the fifth century B.C. [=between the years 499 and 400 B.C.] — compare A.D., B.C.E., C.E.

BCE or chiefly US B.C.E. abbr before the Christian Era; before the Common Era — used to refer to the years that came before the birth of Jesus Christ ✧ B.C.E. is now often used instead of B.C. especially in scientific writing. ▪ 550 B.C.E. ▪ in the fifth century B.C.E. [=between the years 499 and 400 B.C.E.] — compare A.D., B.C., C.E.

be /ˈbiː/ verb, present first singular am /ˈæm, əm/ second singular are /ˈɑɚ, ɚ/ third singular is /ˈɪz, əz/ pl are; past tense for first and third singular was /ˈwəz/ second singular were /ˈwɚ/ pl were; past participle been /ˈbɪn, Brit ˈbiːn/ present participle be•ing /ˈbiːjɪŋ/
1 [linking verb] a — used to indicate the identity of a person or thing ▪ Today is Wednesday. ▪ John is my brother. ▪ The first person I met was Susan. = Susan was the first person I met. ▪ Who are you? ▪ "There's someone at the door." "Who is it?" "It's David." ▪ Your responsibility is to keep this area clean. = Keeping this area clean is your responsibility. b — used to describe the qualities of a person or thing ▪ My hands are cold. ▪ He is 35 years old and six feet tall. ▪ I'm hungry. ▪ The leaves are green, and so is the grass. ▪ The noise was very loud. ▪ The way he behaves is foolish. ▪ How foolish he is! ▪ "(Are) You hungry?" "Yes, I am." ▪ The book is about English grammar. ▪ These people are with me. ▪ The letter is for you. ▪ They asked the students not to be late. = They asked that the students not be late. ▪ Treat people with respect, whether they are rich or poor. = (formal) Treat people with respect, whether they be rich or poor. = (formal) Treat people with respect, be they rich or poor. ▪ Our neighbors are being unusually friendly lately. ▪ Don't be such a fool! [=don't act in such a foolish way] ▪ To be perfectly/quite honest/frank (with you), I didn't like the movie. [=I am speaking honestly/frankly when I say that I didn't like the movie] ▪ The book is mine. ▪ I'd do it if I were you. [=I think you should do it] c — used to indicate the condition of a person or thing ▪ "Hi.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

How are you?" "Fine, thanks. How are you?" ▪ How is your father? = How is your father's health?

2 [linking verb] — used to indicate the group, class, category, etc., that a person or thing belongs to ▪ I'm a doctor and my sister is a lawyer. ▪ That fish is a trout. ▪ The trout is a (kind of) fish. ▪ Apes are mammals. ▪ She's a hard worker. [=she works hard] ▪ What a fool he is! [=he is a fool] ▪ Being an artist herself [=because she is an artist herself], she tends to look at other people's paintings very critically.

3 [linking verb] — used to indicate the place, situation, or position of a person or thing ▪ The book is on the table. ▪ "Where's John?" "He's in the living room." ▪ The house is past the bridge. ▪ It was great being here. = It was great to be here. ▪ I must be on my way. [=I must go] ▪ Here's the book. = Here it is.

4 [linking verb] a — used in phrases with there to describe a situation, occurrence, etc. ▪ There is a book on the table. [=a book is on the table] ▪ There are concerts several times a week. [=concerts are held several times a week] ▪ There will be concerts next week. ▪ "There's someone at the door." "Who is it?" "It's John." b — used in phrases with it to indicate a time or place or to describe a current, past, or future condition ▪ It's 12 o'clock. [=the time is 12 o'clock] ▪ It's noon/early/late. ▪ It's Wednesday today. [=today is Wednesday] ▪ It was noon when we arrived. [=we arrived at noon] ▪ It was here that I lost my way. [=I lost my way here] ▪ It's raining. ▪ It's hot out! ▪ It's odd that he didn't see us. [=the fact that he didn't see us was odd]

5 [linking verb] — used to say how much something costs ▪ "I like this painting. How much is it?" [=how much does it cost?] "It's 600 dollars." [=it costs 600 dollars]

6 [linking verb] — used to say that one amount or number is the same as another ▪ Three plus two is [=equals] five.

7 [no obj] : to happen or take place ▪ The concert was last night. ▪ The concert is [=will be] tomorrow night. [=the concert will take place tomorrow night] ▪ "When was the Battle of Waterloo?" "(It was) In 1815." ▪ "When is Christmas?" "It's on a Wednesday this year."

8 [no obj] : to come or go — used in perfect tenses ▪ She has already been [=come] and gone. ▪ Have you ever been [=gone] to Rome? ▪ I haven't been there for several years. ▪ I've been waiting for you for half an hour. Where have you been? [=where were you?; why weren't you here?] ✧ People who have been there, done that are bored about the idea of going somewhere or doing something because they have already done it before. This is an informal phrase that is often used in a joking way. ▪ I suggested to my cousin that she go to Florida for her vacation, but she said, "Been there, done that."

9 [no obj] somewhat formal : to exist or live ▪ I think, therefore I am. [=exist] ▪ Once upon a time there was [=lived] a knight. ▪ There once was a man who dwelt alone in a small village. ▪ all the things that are [=exist] ▪ "To be, or not to be: that is the question." —Shakespeare, Hamlet (1600)

10 [auxiliary verb] — used with the past participle of a verb to form passive constructions ▪ The money was found by a child. ▪ They were [=got] married by a priest. ▪ Don't be fooled by what he says. ▪ Please be seated. [=please sit down] ▪ The election was expected to produce a very close result. ▪ God be praised! [=let God be praised] ▪ I was surprised by her rudeness.

11 [auxiliary verb] a — used with the present participle of a verb to express continuous action ▪ They are studying. ▪ I have been sleeping. ▪ He was reading. ▪ Are you getting hungry? ▪ Our neighbors are being unusually friendly. b — used with the present participle of a verb to express future or later action ▪ I'm seeing him tomorrow. [=I will see him tomorrow] ▪ We are leaving soon. [=we will leave soon]

12 [auxiliary verb] a — used with to + verb to say what will happen or was going to happen in the future ▪ The best is yet/still to come. [=the best has not yet happened] ▪ No one realized that she was one day to become famous. [=that she would become famous one day] ▪ She was not/never to see him again. [=she would never see him again] ▪ There are to be two concerts next week. [=there will be two concerts next week] b — used with to + verb to say what should happen or be done ▪ People like that are to be pitied, not hated. [=people like that should be pitied] ▪ You are not (allowed) to smoke in here! ▪ What am I to do? [=what should I do?] c — used in negative statements with to + verb to say what is or was possible ▪ The truth of their argument was not to be denied. [=could not be denied] ▪ You're not to blame: you weren't to know he'd be offended. [=you could not have known that he would be offended] ▪ The book was nowhere to be found. [=could not be found] d — used with to + verb to say that one thing must happen or be true so that another thing can happen or be true ▪ He must study if he is to pass his exams. [=he must study in order to pass his exams]

13 [auxiliary verb] — used like have with the past participle of some verbs to form perfect tenses ▪ He isn't here: he is [=has] gone. — now often considered archaic ▪ Christ is risen. [=Christ has risen] be yourself : to behave in a normal or natural way ▪ You're not yourself today. What's the matter? ▪ I'll be myself again once I've had something to eat. ▪ "How can I impress her?" "Just be yourself!"

leave (someone or something) be see [1]LEAVE let (someone or something) be see [1]LET the best is yet to be see [3]BEST the powers that be see [1]POWER to be sure see [1]SURE

be- prefix

1 : make : cause to be ▪ *be*foul ▪ *be*numb : treat as ▪ *be*little ▪ *be*friend

2 : about ▪ *be*wail ▪ *be*moan ▪ *be*speak

3 : in a way that is easy to notice ▪ *be*whiskered ▪ *be*jeweled ▪ *be*spectacled

4 : thoroughly : very much ▪ *be*loved

[1]beach /ˈbi:ʧ/ noun, pl beach•es [count] : an area covered with sand or small rocks that is next to an ocean or lake ▪ We spent the day at the beach. ▪ walking/lying on the beach ▪ white, sandy beaches ▪ private/public beaches — see color picture on page C7

[2]beach verb beaches; beached; beach•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (a boat or ship) to go out of the water and onto a beach ▪ The pirates beached the ship on the island.

2 ✧ When a large ocean animal, such as a whale, is beached or has beached itself, it has come out of the water onto land and is unable to return to the water. ▪ People were trying to rescue a whale that had beached itself on the shore. ▪ a beached whale beach ball noun, pl ∼ balls [count] : a large ball that is filled with air and made for use at the beach beach buggy noun, pl ∼ -gies [count] : DUNE BUGGY beach•comb•er /ˈbi:ʧˌkoʊmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who walks along beaches looking for things (such as seashells or items that can be sold) beach•front /ˈbi:ʧˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] : an area of land that has a beach on one side ▪ We went for a walk along the beachfront. — often used before another noun ▪ beachfront properties beach•head /ˈbi:ʧˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a beach on an enemy's shore that an invading army takes and controls in order to prepare for the arrival of more soldiers and supplies — often used figuratively to mean a place or position that serves as a base for future action or progress ▪ The company established a beachhead in New York City.

beach towel noun, pl ∼ -els [count] : a large, usually brightly colored towel made for use at the beach beach•wear /ˈbi:ʧˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] : clothing made to be worn at the beach

bea•con /ˈbi:kən/ noun, pl -cons [count]

1 : a strong light that can be seen from far away and that is used to help guide ships, airplanes, etc.

2 : a radio signal that is broadcast to help guide ships, airplanes, etc. ▪ a radio beacon

3 : someone or something (such as a country) that guides or gives hope to others ▪ These countries are beacons of democracy. ▪ Our nation should be a beacon of/for peace to people around the world. ▪ This new medicine is a beacon of hope for/to thousands of people. [=this new medicine gives hope to thousands of people]

4 in the past : a fire built on a hill and used as a signal

bead /ˈbi:d/ noun, pl beads [count]

1 : a small, usually round piece of glass, wood, stone, etc., that has a hole through its center and that is put on a string with other similar pieces and worn as jewelry or that is sewn onto clothing ▪ a string of beads ▪ She was wearing beads. [=a necklace of beads] — see color picture on page C11

2 : a small, round drop of liquid (such as water or blood) ▪ Beads of sweat began rolling/running down their faces.

draw a bead on also US get a bead on or take a bead on : to aim at (someone or something) ▪ He lifted the rifle and carefully drew a bead on the target. — often used figuratively ▪ The government is drawing a bead on inflation. [=is targeting inflation] ▪ It's hard to get a bead on [=to understand] the reasons for her decision.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

bead•ed /ˈbi:dəd/ adj
1 : decorated with beads ▪ fancy beaded dresses
2 : covered with small drops of sweat ▪ Her forehead was beaded with sweat/perspiration.

bead•ing /ˈbi:dɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : beads that are sewn on a piece of clothing as decoration

bead•work /ˈbi:dˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : BEADING ▪ beautiful beadwork

beady /ˈbi:di/ adj bead•i•er; -est disapproving — used to describe eyes that are small, round, and shiny and that usually suggest a bad quality (such as greed or dishonesty) ▪ The workers were nervous because they knew the boss was watching them with his beady little eyes.

bea•gle /ˈbi:gəl/ noun, pl bea•gles [count] : a type of small dog used for hunting that has smooth black, brown, and white fur — see picture at DOG beak /ˈbi:k/ noun, pl beaks [count]

1 : the hard usually pointed parts that cover a bird's mouth : BILL ▪ the beak of a hawk — see picture at BIRD
2 informal + humorous : a person's nose ▪ an actor with a big beak – beaked /ˈbi:kt/ adj ▪ a long-beaked bird

bea•ker /ˈbi:kɚ/ noun, pl -kers [count]
1 : a wide glass with a lip for pouring that is used especially in chemistry for holding and measuring liquids
2 chiefly Brit : a large drinking cup with a wide opening that is typically made of plastic or metal be–all and end–all /ˈbi:ˌɑ:lənd ˈɛndˌɑ:l/ noun

the be-all and end-all : the most important part of something or the reason for something ▪ He acts as if making money is the be-all and end-all of human existence.

[1]beam /ˈbi:m/ noun, pl beams [count]
1 a : a line of light coming from a source (such as the sun or a headlight) ▪ a bright beam of light ▪ We saw the beams from their flashlights. ▪ a laser beam — see also HIGH BEAM, LOW BEAM, SUNBEAM b : a line of energy, particles, etc., that cannot be seen ▪ a beam of electrons ▪ X-ray beams
2 : a long and heavy piece of wood or metal that is used as a support in a building or ship ▪ the building's steel support beams ▪ wood ceiling beams — see also BALANCE BEAM off beam Brit, informal : incorrect or mistaken ▪ My guess was way off beam. [=(US) off base] on the beam informal : exactly correct ▪ His description of the problem was right on the beam. [=(more commonly) on the mark]
– beamed adj ▪ The living room has a beamed ceiling. [=a ceiling that is supported with wood or metal beams]

[2]beam verb beams; beamed; beam•ing
1 a [no obj] : to smile happily ▪ She beamed as she told us the good news. ▪ They stood beaming with satisfaction. b [+ obj] : to say (something) while smiling happily ▪ "We're getting married!" he beamed.
2 : to send out beams of light or energy [no obj] Sunlight was beaming [=shining] through the window. [+ obj] The sun beamed its light through the window.
3 [+ obj] : to send out (information, television signals, etc.) through wires or the air ▪ Pictures of the distant planet were beamed back to the Earth.
4 [+ obj] in stories : to send (someone) to another place instantly by using a special machine ▪ The space explorers were beamed onto the surface of the planet.

[1]bean /ˈbi:n/ noun, pl beans [count]
1 a : a seed that is eaten as a vegetable and that comes from any one of many different kinds of climbing plants ▪ We ate rice and beans for dinner. b : a part of a plant that contains very young seeds and that is eaten as a vegetable — see also GREEN BEAN, POLE BEAN, SNAP BEAN, STRING BEAN, WAX BEAN c : a plant that produces beans ▪ We're growing tomatoes and beans in our garden this year.
2 : a seed that looks like a bean but that does not come from a climbing plant ▪ coffee beans ▪ cocoa beans ▪ a vanilla bean — see also JELLY BEAN, JUMPING BEAN
a hill of beans see HILL full of beans informal 1 : full of energy and life ▪ We were young and full of beans. ▪ Although she's much older now, she's still full of beans. 2 US : not correct or truthful : full of nonsense ▪ If that's what he's been saying, then he's full of beans.
not know beans about US, informal : to not know anything about (something) ▪ He doesn't know beans about computers. [=he knows nothing about computers] spill the beans informal : to reveal secret information ▪ I tried to get him to tell me what he knew, but he refused to spill the beans.

[2]bean verb beans; beaned; bean•ing [+ obj] informal : to hit (someone) on the head with something ▪ A kid in the back of the room beaned me with an eraser. [=threw an eraser that hit my head] ▪ (baseball) The pitcher almost beaned the first batter. [=he threw a pitch that almost hit the batter's head]

bean•bag /ˈbi:nˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count]
1 : a small cloth bag that is filled with dried beans or small pieces of another material and used as a toy
2 : a large bag that is filled with small round pieces of material and used as a soft chair ▪ a beanbag chair bean counter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] informal + disapproving : a person who helps to run a business and who only cares about money ▪ He blames corporate bean counters for causing thousands of workers to lose their jobs.

bean curd noun [noncount] : TOFU

bean•ie /ˈbi:ni/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a small, round, tight-fitting hat or cap bean•pole /ˈbi:nˌpoʊl/ noun, pl -poles [count] informal + humorous : a tall and thin person bean sprouts noun [plural] : very young plants that come from bean seeds and that are used as a vegetable

[1]bear /ˈbɛɚ/ noun, pl bear or bears [count]
1 : any one of a group of large and heavy animals that have thick hair and sharp claws and that can stand on two legs like a person ▪ a mother bear and her cubs — sometimes used figuratively to describe a large man ▪ a tall, friendly bear of a man ▪ My father can be a grumpy old bear when he's tired. ✧ In informal British English, a person who becomes angry or annoyed very easily is (like) a bear with a sore head. ▪ My father can be like a bear with a sore head when he's tired. — see also BLACK BEAR, GRIZZLY BEAR, POLAR BEAR, TEDDY BEAR
2 finance : a person who expects the price of stocks to go down and who sells them to avoid losing money ▪ The bears outnumbered the bulls on Wall Street today. — compare [1]BULL; see also BEAR MARKET
3 US, informal : something that is difficult to do or deal with ▪ This oven is a bear to clean. [=this oven is very hard to clean]
loaded for bear see LOADED

[2]bear verb bears; bore /ˈboɚ/; borne /ˈboɚn/; bear•ing
1 : to accept or endure (something) [+ obj] He bore [=tolerated] their insults patiently. — usually used in questions and negative statements with can, can't, could, and couldn't ▪ He could hardly bear [=stand] the pain. ▪ I can't bear cold weather. [=I strongly dislike cold weather] ▪ I couldn't bear the suspense. ▪ I can't bear it if/when people behave like that! ▪ I can't bear doing this. = I can't bear to do this. ▪ How can you bear to see him again after the way he's treated you? ▪ I couldn't bear you to get the wrong idea. ▪ I couldn't bear his behavior. = His behavior was more than I could bear. ▪ I couldn't bear the thought/idea of moving again. [no obj] (US) — + for ▪ I couldn't bear for you to get the wrong idea.
2 [+ obj] : to be worthy of (something) : to deserve or allow (something) ▪ a joke too silly to bear repeating [=a joke that is too silly to be worth repeating] ▪ It's so horrible it doesn't

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

bear thinking about! [=it's so horrible that I don't want to think about it] ▪ a symphony that can bear comparison with Beethoven's best ▪ a plan that will not bear [=withstand] close scrutiny/examination ▪ suspicious behavior that bears watching [=that should be watched]

3 [+ obj] : to assume or accept (something, such as cost or responsibility) ▪ The company agreed to bear the costs/expenses. ▪ The criminals must bear full responsibility for the deaths of these innocent people. ▪ Who will bear the blame for this tragedy?

4 [+ obj] somewhat formal + literary : to move while holding up and supporting (something) : CARRY ▪ The demonstrators bore banners and sang songs. ▪ They arrived bearing gifts. ▪ The leaves were borne aloft/away by the wind. ▪ disease-bearing germs [=germs that carry and spread diseases] ▪ germ-borne diseases [=diseases that are carried and spread by germs] ▪ He believes that citizens should have the right to bear arms. [=to carry weapons] ✧ If something is borne in on/upon you, it is made very clear to you. This is a formal phrase. ▪ It was borne in on us by the new evidence that prompt action was very important. [=the new evidence strongly indicated that prompt action was very important]

5 [+ obj] a : to have (something) as a feature or characteristic ▪ His leg was badly injured in the accident and it still bears [=shows] the scars/wounds/marks. ▪ His face bears marks/signs of suffering. ▪ Your conclusion bears [=has] no relation to the evidence. ▪ She bore a resemblance to her aunt. [=she looked like her aunt] b : to have a surface on which something is written, drawn, etc. ▪ The cornerstone bears a Latin inscription. ▪ a letter bearing the date of 1900 ▪ a shield bearing strange symbols c : to have (a name, price, etc.) ▪ He bore the name (of) John. ▪ The store sells imported goods bearing [=having, with] high prices. d : to have or hold (a feeling) in the mind ▪ She still bears a grudge against him. = She still bears him a grudge. ▪ She says she bears him no resentment for the way he treated her. ▪ I can't deny the love I still bear [=feel] for her.

6 [+ obj] a formal : to give birth to (a child) ▪ She has borne three children. ▪ She has borne her husband three children. b : to produce (something) ▪ a bank account that bears interest = an interest-bearing bank account ▪ a bush that bears red flowers ▪ trees that bear fruit — see also BEAR FRUIT (below)

7 [+ obj] : to support the weight of (something) ▪ How much weight is that wall able to bear?

8 [no obj] : to go, move, or turn in a specified direction ▪ Bear south. ▪ The road bears (to the) right. ▪ When you get to the fork in the road, you should bear [=turn] left.

Do not confuse bear with bare.

bear down [phrasal verb] US : to use all of your strength and effort to do something : to try very hard to do something ▪ The pitcher bore down and struck out the last batter. ▪ If we're going to finish on time, we really have to bear down.

bear down on [phrasal verb] 1 bear down on (something) : to push or lean down on (something) ▪ The old man bore down heavily on his cane. ▪ She bore down hard on her pencil. 2 bear down on (someone) : to place pressure on (someone) ▪ Don't let your problems bear down too hard on you. [=don't let your problems weigh you down] 3 bear down on (someone or something) : to approach or move toward (something or someone) quickly and in a frightening or impressive way ▪ The enemy battleship bore down on us.

bear fruit : to produce a desired result or reward ▪ All his plans have finally borne fruit. [=all his plans have finally been realized] — see also [2]BEAR 6b (above)

bear in mind see [1]MIND

bear on [phrasal verb] bear on (something) formal 1 : to have an effect on (something) ▪ Personal feelings did not bear on our decision. [=did not affect or influence our decision] 2 : to apply or relate to (something) ▪ What are the facts bearing directly on this matter?

bear out [phrasal verb] bear out (something or someone) or bear (something or someone) out : to show the correctness of (something or someone) ▪ The facts bore out [=confirmed] her story. [=the facts showed that her story was true] ▪ Research has fully borne him out. [=has shown that he was completely correct] bear up [phrasal verb] : to not be overwhelmed during a time of trouble, pain, etc. ▪ She's been going through a tough time, but she's bearing up pretty well. — often + under ▪ She has found it hard to bear up under the strain.

bear with [phrasal verb] bear with (someone) : to be patient with (someone) ▪ I'll have that information for you soon. Just bear with me for another minute or two.

bear witness see [1]WITNESS bear yourself formal : to move, stand, or behave in a specified way ▪ The soldier bore himself [=carried himself] stiffly upright. ▪ The soldier never failed to bear himself [=conduct himself, behave] courageously on the battlefield. ▪ He always bore himself [=behaved] like a gentleman.

bring (something) to bear : to cause (something) to have an effect or influence ▪ The company's new president brings 30 years of experience to bear. ▪ If we hope to resolve these issues, more resources must be brought to bear. — often used with on ▪ They will bring their considerable skills/talent/experience/knowledge to bear on the problem. ▪ The demonstrators will continue to bring pressure to bear on the government.

cross to bear see [1]CROSS

grin and bear it see GRIN bear•able /ˈberəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : possible to bear : able to be accepted or endured ▪ He's in a great deal of pain, but the medication makes it bearable. — opposite UNBEARABLE – bear•abil•i•ty /ˌberəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – bear•ably /ˈberəbli/ adv

bear claw noun, pl ~ claws [count] US : a filled pastry shaped to look like a bear's foot beard /ˈbiəd/ noun, pl beards [count]

1 : the hair that grows on a man's cheeks and chin ▪ He grew a beard and mustache.
2 : the long hair that grows on the chin of some animals ▪ the beard of a goat – beard•ed /ˈbiədəd/ adj ▪ a bearded college professor bear•er /ˈberə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who bears or carries something ▪ the bearer of a U.S. passport ▪ The bearers [=porters] carried our baggage up the mountain. ▪ the bearer of glad/bad tidings [=the person who brings good/bad news] ▪ His nephew was the ring bearer [=the person who holds the rings until they are needed] at his wedding. — see also PALLBEARER, STANDARD-BEARER, TORCHBEARER
2 finance : a person who has a check or order for payment ▪ The check was marked "payable to bearer."

bear hug noun, pl ~ hugs [count] : a strong and rough hug : an act of showing affection by putting your arms around someone and squeezing very tightly ▪ He gave his brother a bear hug.

bearing noun, pl -ings
1 [singular] formal : the way in which a person moves, stands, or behaves ▪ a man of military/dignified/regal bearing
2 formal : a relation or connection — + on [singular] These facts have a direct bearing on the question. [=these facts relate to the question in a direct way] [noncount] Personal feelings had no bearing on our decision. [=personal feelings did not affect or influence our decision]
3 [count] technical : a machine part in which another part turns or slides — see also BALL BEARING
4 [count] technical : a measurement taken with a compass that indicates the direction or position of something ▪ take/get a compass bearing beyond bearing or past bearing formal : too painful, unpleasant, etc., to be accepted or endured ▪ a grief that is almost past bearing [=unbearable] get/find your bearings : to find out your position ▪ Let's stop here and find our bearings. [=figure out exactly where we are] — often used figuratively ▪ Our course for new employees will help you get/find your bearings at work.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 115 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

lose your bearings : to become lost ▪ The ship lost its bearings in the fog. — often used figuratively ▪ I feel I've lost my bearings in life. [=I have become confused about my life; I do not know what I am doing or what I want to do in my life] bear•ish /ˈberɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having qualities like a bear — used especially to describe a large man ▪ a grumpy, bearish old man
2 : expecting the price of stocks to go down ▪ bearish investors : characterized by falling stock prices ▪ The market has been bearish lately. — compare BULLISH – bear•ish•ly adv – bear•ish•ness noun [noncount] bear market noun, pl ~ -kets [count] finance : a market (such as a stock market) in which prices are going down — compare BULL MARKET bear•skin /ˈbeəˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins [count]

1 : the skin and fur of a bear — often used before another noun ▪ a bearskin rug
2 : a tall, black fur hat worn in ceremonies by some British soldiers beast /ˈbi:st/ noun, pl beasts [count]

1 old-fashioned : an animal ▪ dogs and other four-footed beasts ▪ wild beasts ▪ the birds and beasts of the forest ▪ a conflict between man and beast [=between human beings and animals]; especially : a wild animal that is large, dangerous, or unusual ▪ They were attacked by a savage beast. ▪ a story about a mythical/imaginary beast [=creature] with two heads
2 old-fashioned : an unkind or cruel person ▪ He's a cruel, hateful beast! ▪ her beast of a husband [=her husband who is a beast]
3 informal : a person or thing of a particular kind ▪ Reading modern English is one thing, but understanding Shakespeare is an entirely different beast. [=is an entirely different thing; is entirely different] ▪ a powerful political beast [=a powerful politician] beast•ly /ˈbi:stli/ adj beast•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : very unpleasant ▪ We've been having such beastly [=terrible] weather lately. ▪ What a beastly habit! ▪ beastly behavior – beast•li•ness noun [noncount]

beast of burden noun, pl beasts of burden [count] : an animal that people use to carry heavy things

[1]beat /ˈbi:t/ verb beat; beat•en /ˈbi:tn̩/ or chiefly US beat; beat•ing
1 : to hit (something) repeatedly [+ obj] He beat the door with his fists. = He beat his fists against/on the door. ▪ He beat the dusty rug with a stick. = He beat a stick against the dusty rug. ▪ He beat the dust out of the rug with a stick. ▪ She used a hammer to beat the metal into shape. ▪ She used a hammer to beat the nail into the wall. ▪ The dented metal was beaten flat. ▪ The waves were beating the shore. [no obj] He beat at/against/on the door with his fists. ▪ The waves were beating on/against the shore. ▪ The rain beat on the roof.
2 [+ obj] : to hit (someone) repeatedly in order to cause pain or injury ▪ They beat him with clubs. ▪ He was beaten badly/savagely/brutally. ▪ a man accused of beating his wife ▪ They beat him to the ground. [=they hit him repeatedly and he fell to the ground] ▪ They threatened to beat the (living) daylights out of him. [=to beat him very badly] ▪ He was beaten to death. — see also BEATING, BEAT UP (below), BEAT UP ON (below)
3 : to hit (a drum) repeatedly in order to produce music or a signal [+ obj] The drummer kept beating his drum. ▪ the sound of a beaten drum ▪ They beat (out) a message on their drums. ▪ The drum kept beating (out) its rhythm. [no obj] The drummer kept beating. ▪ The drum kept beating. ▪ the sound of a beating drum — see also beat the drum for at [1]DRUM
4 cooking : to stir or mix (something) in a forceful way [+ obj] She used a whisk to beat the eggs. ▪ The recipe says you should beat the eggs lightly/thoroughly/well. ▪ Slowly beat the sugar into the batter. = Slowly beat in the sugar. = Slowly beat the sugar in. [no obj] Separate out the egg whites and beat until stiff.
5 : to move (wings) with an up and down motion [+ obj] The bird was beating [=flapping] its wings. [no obj] the sound of beating wings
6 [no obj] of the heart : to make the regular movements needed to pump blood ▪ My heart was beating wildly/frantically with excitement and my pulse was racing! ▪ (humorous) We get free doughnuts? Be still, my beating heart!
7 [+ obj] a : to defeat (someone) in a game, contest, etc. ▪ He gets very angry when I beat him at chess. ▪ We beat them 14 to 3. ▪ Our team was badly beaten in the championship game. ▪ She was narrowly beaten in the previous election, but she won this time. ▪ We beat them soundly/convincingly/comfortably/easily/badly. = (US) We beat the pants off them. ▪ They tried to lure away our customers by offering deep discounts, but we beat them at their own game. [=we offered even deeper discounts than they did] ✧ People say if you can't beat them, join them or if you can't beat 'em, join 'em when they decide to do what other people are doing and to stop opposing them. b : to do better than (something) ▪ She managed to beat the old record by several seconds. ▪ We can still beat the deadline if we work quickly. ▪ His wonderful performance will be hard/tough to beat. = His wonderful performance will take some beating. [=it will be difficult for anyone to do better than his wonderful performance] ▪ Most new restaurants fail, but this one somehow managed to beat the odds. [=this one succeeded even though it did not have a good chance of succeeding] ✧ People say can you beat that? when they are surprised or angry about something. ▪ Can you beat that?! A person like him being elected mayor! [=it is surprising or ridiculous to think that a person like him has been elected mayor] c not used in progressive tenses : to be better than (something) ▪ For sheer luxury you can't beat a nice hot bath. = For sheer luxury, nothing beats a nice hot bath. = For sheer luxury, a nice hot bath beats anything. d : to control or overcome (something) ▪ By working together we can beat crime! ▪ (US) His favorite way of beating the heat [=remaining cool in hot weather] is to have a couple of cold beers. e : to be too difficult for (someone) ▪ This problem has beaten everyone. [=no one has been able to solve this problem] ✧ The informal expression (it) beats me means "I don't know." ▪ "How did she manage to fix the problem so quickly?" "Beats me." ▪ I don't believe anything he tells me. It beats me how people can continue to trust him.
8 [+ obj] a : to come, arrive, or act before (someone or something) ▪ I beat him narrowly to the finish line. [=I reached the finish line slightly before he did] ▪ I bet I can beat you to the front door! ▪ I wondered which of us would finish our work first, but she beat me to it by two days. [=she finished two days before I did] b : to avoid having problems with (something) by acting earlier ▪ We left early so that we could beat the traffic. ▪ We got to the store when it opened and managed to beat the rush.
beat a dead horse see [1]HORSE beat a path : to make (a path) by walking over the ground many times ▪ They beat a path through the woods to the stream. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ If you work hard and well, success will beat a path to your door. [=you will be very successful] beat a retreat : to leave quickly ▪ A group of teenagers was causing trouble, but they beat a hasty retreat when the cops arrived.
beat around/about the bush see BUSH beat back [phrasal verb] beat back (someone) or beat (someone) back : to force (someone) to go back or to retreat by fighting ▪ Our troops were beaten back by enemy forces.
beat down [phrasal verb] 1 of the sun : to shine down with great heat and strength ▪ The blazing sun was beating down on us mercilessly/relentlessly. 2 *beat (something) down or beat down (something) : to hit (something, such as a door) so that it falls down ▪ The police had to beat down the door to get into the house. ▪ The storm beat down the crops. — often used figuratively ▪ Years of failure had beaten him down. [=had caused him to lose hope or spirit] 3 chiefly Brit a *beat (someone) down or beat down (someone) : to cause (someone) to lower a price ▪ I beat her down from £30 to £15. b *beat (a price) down or beat down (a price) : to cause someone to lower (a price) ▪ I beat her asking price down from £30 to £15.
beat it informal : to go away quickly ▪ The teenagers beat it when the cops arrived. — often used as a command ▪ Stop bothering me. Beat it! [=get lost] beat off [phrasal verb] 1 *beat off (someone or something) or beat (someone or something) off : to force (someone or something) to go away by fighting ▪ She managed to beat off her attacker. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company has managed to beat off [=fight off] its competitors and maintain control of the market. 2 US, informal + impolite, of a man : MASTURBATE beat out [phrasal verb] 1 *beat out (something) or beat (something) out a : to put out (a fire) by beating ▪ The fire was raging but we managed to beat it out. b baseball

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 98 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

: to turn (a ground ball) into a base hit by running fast to first base ▪ He beat out a bunt. 2 beat out (someone or something) or beat (someone or something) out US : to defeat or overcome (a person, team, etc.) ▪ They were beaten out [=beaten] in the semifinals. ▪ She thought she would get the job, but someone else beat her out. [=someone else got the job]

beat someone to the punch see [2]PUNCH beat the clock see [1]CLOCK

beat the rap see [1]RAP

beat up [phrasal verb] beat up (someone) or beat (someone) up : to hurt or injure (someone) by hitting ▪ A gang of bullies threatened to beat him up. ▪ He was beaten up badly by the bullies. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a politician who is getting beat/beaten up by liberal/conservative critics ▪ He's been beating himself up [=he has been harshly blaming or criticizing himself] because of the failure of his marriage. — see also BEAT-UP beat up on [phrasal verb] beat up on (someone) US, informal : to hit (someone) repeatedly in order to cause pain or injury : to beat (someone) ▪ A gang of bullies was beating up on him. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a politician who is getting beat up on by his critics to beat the band see [1]BAND

– beat•able /ˈbi:təbəl/ adj ▪ an easily beatable opponent [=an opponent that can be easily defeated]

[2]beat noun, pl beats

1 a [count] : the act of beating ▪ a single beat on a drum ▪ a beat of the bird's wings ▪ a single beat of his heart [=a single heartbeat] — see also heart skipped a beat at HEART b [singular] : a sound produced by beating ▪ We could hear the steady beat of the waves against the shore. ▪ They danced to the beat of the drums. ▪ listening to the beat of his heart

2 a [count] : a loud or strong sound that occurs regularly in music or poetry ▪ music that has four beats to a bar — see also DOWNBEAT b [singular] : the regular pattern of sounds in music or poetry : RHYTHM ▪ She likes music with a Latin beat. ▪ a pounding beat ▪ The music had a steady beat.

3 [count] : a place or area that someone (such as a policeman) regularly goes to, walks through, or covers as part of a job — usually singular ▪ The policeman was patrolling/pounding his/the beat. = The policeman was on his/the beat. ▪ a reporter's beat miss a beat chiefly US : to have difficulty in continuing : to stop or hesitate briefly ▪ He answered their questions without missing a beat. [=he answered all their questions very easily and without hesitating] ▪ He answered all their questions and never missed a beat. ▪ He didn't miss a beat.

[3]beat adj, not used before a noun, informal : very tired : EXHAUSTED ▪ Let me sit down. I'm absolutely beat!

beat•en /ˈbi:tn̩/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : formed into a desired shape by being hit with a hammer ▪ beaten gold

2 of a path, trail, etc. : made smooth : walked on by many people ▪ a beaten path

3 : having lost all hope or spirit ▪ A failure at 50, he was a beaten [=defeated] man.

off the beaten track or US off the beaten path : in or to a place that is not close to the places where people usually go ▪ The restaurant is a little off the beaten track, so it won't be crowded.

beat•er /ˈbi:tɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a device or tool that is used for beating something ▪ a carpet beater — see also EGGBEATER, WORLD-BEATER

2 : someone who repeatedly hits another person ▪ He is accused of being a wife beater. [=a man who beats his wife] ▪ a child beater

3 US, informal : an old car that is in poor condition ▪ driving a rusty old beater

be•atif•ic /ˌbi:jəˈtɪfɪk/ adj, formal : showing complete happiness ▪ a beatific [=blissful] smile be•at•i•fy /biˈætəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] in the Roman Catholic Church : to give a dead person a title of honor for being very good and holy ▪ She was beatified by the Pope one hundred years after her death.

– be•at•i• •ca•tion /biˌætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

beat•ing /ˈbi:tɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : the act of repeatedly hitting someone to cause pain or injury : the act of beating someone ▪ He threatened to give the boys a (good) beating for stealing the apples. — often used figuratively ▪ Our plans took a real beating from the review committee. [=the review committee strongly criticized our plans] ▪ The reporters gave the politician quite a beating with all their hostile questions. ▪ Many investors took quite a (bad) beating [=lost a lot of money] when the stock market crashed.

beat•nik /ˈbi:tˌnɪk/ noun, pl -niks [count] : a young person who was part of a social group in the 1950s and early 1960s that rejected the traditional rules of society and encouraged people to express themselves through art beat–up /ˈbi:tˌʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : old and badly worn or damaged ▪ a beat-up old car — see also beat up at [1]BEAT beau /ˈboʊ/ noun, pl beaux /ˈboʊz/ or beaus [count] old-fashioned : a woman's male lover or friend : BOYFRIEND ▪ She introduced us to her latest beau.

[1]beaut /ˈbju:t/ noun, pl beauts [count] US + Australia + New Zealand, informal : a very good or attractive thing or person ▪ He just bought a new car—it's a real beaut. [=beauty] — often used in an ironic way to describe a bad thing or person ▪ You've told lies before, but this one's a beaut. [=a very bad lie] ▪ My boss is a real beaut—he complains about everything but never does any work himself.

[2]beaut adj, Australia + New Zealand, informal : excellent or beautiful ▪ That new car of yours is beaut! ▪ a beaut car

beau•te•ous /ˈbju:tijəs/ adj, literary : BEAUTIFUL ▪ a beauteous evening

beau•ti•cian /bjuˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : a person whose job is to give beauty treatments to women by washing and cutting hair, applying makeup, etc. — called also (US) cosmetologist

beau•ti•ful /ˈbju:tɪfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having beauty: such as a : very attractive in a physical way ▪ a beautiful young woman/child ▪ You have the most beautiful smile/eyes. b : giving pleasure to the mind or the senses ▪ The film tells a beautiful story about two young lovers. ▪ a beautiful song ▪ a beautiful dress/color/garden/house ▪ Our hotel room had a beautiful view of the ocean. ▪ The sunsets here are absolutely beautiful.

2 : very good or pleasing : not having any bad qualities ▪ We've been having such beautiful [=excellent, fine] weather lately. ▪ a beautiful sunny day ▪ What a beautiful day for a picnic! ▪ They did a beautiful job [=an excellent job] fixing up the house. ▪ a beautiful friendship/relationship ▪ This is a beautiful example of early American poetry.

– beau•ti•ful•ly /ˈbju:tɪfli/ adv ▪ You sang beautifully. ▪ a beautifully written poem synonyms BEAUTIFUL, PRETTY, LOVELY, and HANDSOME describe people and things that are pleasing to look at, hear, etc. BEAUTIFUL applies to things that give the greatest pleasure and cause people to feel strong emotions. ▪ beautiful sunsets ▪ a beautiful poem When used of a person, it usually describes a woman, girl, or small child. ▪ She's the most beautiful woman I've ever met. ▪ Their son was a beautiful baby. PRETTY often applies to small things that are attractive in a delicate way. ▪ a pretty little dress with pink ribbons ▪ He paints pretty pictures and sells them on the street. When used of a person, it almost always describes a woman or girl. ▪ their pretty daughter ▪ She looked very pretty in her new dress. LOVELY applies to things that make people feel strong emotions by being very graceful or delicate. ▪ a lovely melody When used to describe a person's appearance, it almost always refers to a woman or girl. ▪ They have two lovely daughters. It can also describe a person's character, and in this use it refers to both women and men. ▪ My uncle is a lovely man. [=a very good man] HANDSOME applies to things that are attractive because they have a balanced design or shape. ▪ a handsome house surrounded by gardens ▪ She wore a handsome gray suit to the office. When used to describe a person, it usually refers to a man or boy. ▪ their handsome son ▪ a very handsome actor ▪ He has a strong, handsome face. A woman who is described as handsome is attractive but usually not in a very delicate or feminine way.

beau•ti•fy /ˈbju:təˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) beautiful or more beautiful ▪ Fresh flowers beautify every room.

– beau•ti• •ca•tion /ˌbju:təfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the beautification of the city

beau•ty /ˈbju:ti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality of being physically attractive ▪ Her beauty is beyond compare. [=she is very beautiful; no one is as beautiful as she is] — sometimes used before another noun ▪ beauty products [=soaps, makeup, and other things

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

that help make people more physically attractive] ▪ a beauty treatment

2 : the qualities in a person or a thing that give pleasure to the senses or the mind [noncount] the beauty [=loveliness] of the stars ▪ We explored the natural beauty of the island. ▪ I'm learning to appreciate the beauty of poetry. ▪ We have different ideas/notions/conceptions of beauty. [=different opinions about what makes things beautiful] ▪ "A thing of beauty is a joy for ever . . . " —John Keats, Endymion (1818) [plural] We explored the natural beauties of the island.

3 [count] : a beautiful woman ▪ She was one of the great beauties of her time. ▪ She was no beauty.

4 [count] informal : a very good thing : a very good example of something ▪ That was a beauty of a fight. [=that was an excellent fight] ▪ Dad and I went fishing and we caught a couple of beauties. — often used in an ironic way to describe a bad thing or person ▪ That mistake was a beauty.

5 : a good or appealing part of something [noncount] The beauty of the game is that everyone can play. ▪ No one knows when it's going to happen, and that's the beauty of it! [count] One of the beauties of the system is that it allows you to adjust the schedule easily.

beauty contest noun, pl ~ -tests [count] : a contest in which people judge a group of women or girls and decide which one is the most beautiful — called also beauty pageant

beauty mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] US : BEAUTY SPOT 1

beauty part noun

the beauty part US, informal : the best or most appealing part of something ▪ There's plenty of food, and the beauty part is that it's all free!

beauty queen noun, pl ~ queens [count] : a woman or girl who is a winner of a beauty contest — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She's fairly good-looking, but she's no beauty queen. [=she's not beautiful] beauty salon noun, pl ~ -lons [count] : a shop where women get beauty treatments (such as haircuts) to make them more attractive — called also beauty parlor, beauty shop

beauty spot noun, pl ~ spots [count]

1 : a small dark mark (such as a mole) on a woman's face — called also (US) beauty mark

2 Brit : a beautiful place ▪ a famous beauty spot by a mountain lake

[1]bea•ver /ˈbi:və/ noun, pl beaver or bea•vers

1 [count] : a small animal that has thick, brown fur and a wide, flat tail, that cuts down trees with its teeth, and that builds dams and underwater houses with mud and branches — often used before another noun ▪ a beaver dam [=a dam built by beavers] ▪ beaver ponds ▪ beaver skins/pelts — see picture at RODENT

2 [noncount] : the fur of a beaver ▪ a coat made of beaver — often used before another noun ▪ a beaver coat ▪ a beaver hat — see also EAGER BEAVER

[2]beaver verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing

beaver away [phrasal verb] informal : to work in a very active and energetic way ▪ They've been beavering away for hours. — often + at ▪ They're still beavering away at the problem.

be•bop /ˈbi:ˌbɑ:p/ noun [noncount] : a fast and complex type of jazz music : BOP be•calmed /biˈkɑ:md/ adj, of a boat or ship : not able to move because there is no wind ▪ The ship was becalmed for nearly two days.

became past tense of BECOME be•cause /bɪˈkɑ:z, bɪˈkʌz/ conj : for the reason that ▪ I ran because I was afraid. ▪ We were late because our car wouldn't start. = Because our car wouldn't start, we were late. ▪ "Why did you do it?" "Because she told me to."

because of : for the reason of ▪ The picnic has been canceled because of [=due to, on account of] bad weather. ▪ Because of this [=for this reason], only very rich people can afford to live on the island. ▪ Because of you, we missed the bus. [=you caused us to miss the bus] ▪ The accident happened because of [=through] carelessness.

just because : for the simple or single reason that ▪ Don't get nervous just because the teacher might ask you a question. ▪ We can't assume it will rain today just because it rained yesterday. ▪ Just because your friends do it, that doesn't mean that you should do it, too.

[1]beck /ˈbɛk/ noun

at someone's beck and call or at the beck and call of someone : always ready to do whatever someone asks ▪ He expects his employees to be at his beck and call day and night. ▪ She is at the beck and call of the committee.

– compare [2]BECK

[2]beck noun, pl becks [count] Brit : [2]BROOK — compare [1]BECK

beck•on /ˈbɛkən/ verb -ons; -oned; -on•ing

1 : to signal (someone) with your arm or hand in order to tell that person to come closer or follow [+ obj] She was beckoning them in to shore. ▪ He beckoned them over (to where he was). ▪ She beckoned the waiter to come over. [no obj] She beckoned to the waiter to come over.

2 a [no obj] : to appear attractive or inviting ▪ From the time he was a child, the wilderness beckoned to him. ▪ New adventures were beckoning. ▪ a beckoning smile b [+ obj] : to attract (someone or something) ▪ The nature preserve beckons bird-watchers, who visit from around the world.

– beck•on•ing•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She smiled beckoningly.

be•come /bɪˈkʌm/ verb -comes; -came /-ˈkeɪm/; -come; -com•ing

1 [linking verb] : to begin to be or come to be something specified ▪ Although I've known him for years, we didn't become close friends until recently. ▪ She won the election, becoming the first woman to be President of the nation. ▪ They both became teachers. : to begin to have a specified quality ▪ The book has become quite popular. ▪ We became interested in the property last year. ▪ The crackers had become stale. ▪ It's becoming [=getting] quite cold in the evenings. ▪ It eventually became clear that he had lied. ▪ She's become [=gotten] somewhat cynical.

2 [+ obj] formal a not used in progressive tenses : to look attractive on (someone) : to be flattering to (someone) ▪ That dress becomes you. b : to be suitable for (someone) : to be proper for (someone) ▪ Though poor, he carried himself with a dignity becoming [=befitting] a king. ▪ This kind of behavior hardly becomes a person of your age and position.

become of : to happen to ▪ Whatever became of our old friend? I haven't heard from her in years. ▪ I don't know what became of my keys. I can't find them anywhere.

be•com•ing /bɪˈkʌmɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : causing someone to look attractive : having a flattering or attractive effect ▪ That jacket is very becoming on you. ▪ She's had her hair cut in a becoming new style.

2 : suitable or appropriate for a particular person or in a certain situation ▪ She accepted the award with a becoming humility. — opposite UNBECOMING

– be•com•ing•ly adv ▪ becomingly dressed

[1]bed /ˈbɛd/ noun, pl beds

1 a : a piece of furniture that people sleep on [count] The room contains only a bed and a dresser. ▪ There are two beds in the hotel room. ▪ a hospital bed ▪ a single bed [=a bed for one person] ▪ a double bed [=a bed for two people] ▪ He lay on the bed [=on top of the sheets, blankets, and bedspread] for a long time. ▪ Don't forget to make the bed. [=to neatly arrange the sheets, blankets, and bedspread on the bed so that the mattress is covered] ▪ He became ill and took to his bed. [=he went to lie in bed for a long time] [noncount] She usually goes to bed [=lies down in her bed to sleep] around 11:00. ▪ It's time to get out of bed. [=get up] ▪ He lay/stayed in bed all morning. ▪ The kids like to hear a story before bed. [=before they go to sleep] ▪ Have you put the children to bed? [=have you prepared the children to go to sleep and put them in their beds?] ▪ Come on, children. It's time for bed. [=bedtime, time to sleep] b [count] : something that is used to sleep on ▪ The blanket by the fireplace is the dog's bed. ▪ Her bed was a mound of soft pine needles. — see also DEATHBED, SICKBED, SUNBED, WATER BED

2 — used in phrases that describe having sexual relations ✧ Someone who is good in bed is a skillful lover. When two people are in bed, they are in the act of having sex. ▪ She caught her husband and his secretary in bed together. = She caught her husband in bed with his secretary. To go to bed with someone is to have sex with someone. ▪ She likes him as a friend, but she's not interested in going to bed with him. To get someone into bed is to get someone to have sex with you. ▪ He has fantasies about getting a fashion model into bed. Phrases like these are also used figuratively. ▪ a politician who is accused of being in bed with the oil industry [=of having an improperly close relationship with the oil industry] ▪ The Communists and the Fascists got into bed with each other [=joined forces] to keep the liberals out of power.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

3 [count] : a small area of ground specially prepared for plants ▪ I'm planning on putting a bed of perennials in that corner of the yard. ▪ a bed of flowers — see also BED OF ROSES, FLOWER BED, SEEDBED

4 [count] a : a flat pile or layer of something ▪ a bed of coals b : a flat pile or layer of food that is placed on a dish with other food on top of it ▪ grilled fish served on a bed of greens ▪ a bed of rice

5 [count] a : the ground that is at the bottom of a sea, lake, etc. ▪ seaweed growing on the ocean bed [=floor] b : an area of shallow water where something grows ▪ an oyster bed [=an area where there are many oysters] — see also RIVERBED, SEABED

6 [count] technical : a layer of rock or some other material from inside the earth ▪ fossil beds ▪ a bed of shale

7 [count] : the platform or box in the back of some kinds of trucks ▪ the bed of the truck ▪ We loaded the equipment and put a cover over the truck bed. — see also FLATBED die in (your) bed see [1]DIE

get up on the wrong side of the bed (US) or chiefly Brit get out of bed on the wrong side : to be in a bad mood throughout the day ▪ Be careful when you talk to the boss. He got up on the wrong side of the bed this morning.

make your bed and lie in it ✧ Expressions like you've made your bed, and now you must lie in it mean that you have done something that causes problems and now you must accept and deal with those problems. ▪ There's nothing we can do to help her. She's made her bed and has to lie in it.

marriage bed : a bed that married people share — sometimes used figuratively to refer to marriage in general or to the sexual relations that married people have ▪ the sorrows of their marriage bed

[2]bed verb beds; bed•ded; bed•ding [+ obj]

1 informal + old-fashioned : to have sex with (someone) ▪ He has fantasies about bedding a fashion model.

2 : to place (food) on a pile or layer of something else — usually used as (be) bedded ▪ a mixture of scallops and lobster bedded on rice bed down [phrasal verb] 1 : to lie down somewhere for sleep ▪ There were so many people that some of us had to bed down in the living room. 2 bed (someone or something) down or bed down (someone or something) : to provide (a person or animal) with a place to sleep ▪ They bedded us down in the living room. ▪ When the animals had been fed and bedded down, we went inside to eat dinner.

bed and board noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : food and a place to sleep ▪ They provide bed and board [=room and board] for travellers.

bed–and–breakfast noun, pl -fasts

1 [count] : a house or small hotel in which someone can rent a room to sleep in for a price that includes breakfast the next morning ▪ We stayed the night at a nice bed-and-breakfast near the beach. — called also B and B

2 [noncount] chiefly Brit : a service in which the price of a room also includes breakfast the next morning ▪ a small hotel that offers bed-and-breakfast — called also B and B

be•daz•zle /bɪˈdæzəl/ verb -daz•zles; -daz•zled; -daz•zling [+ obj] : to thrill or excite (someone) very much ▪ fans bedazzled by movie stars

– be•daz•zle•ment /bɪˈdæzəlmənt/ noun [noncount]

bed•bug /ˈbɛdˌbʌg/ noun, pl -bugs [count] : a very small insect that lives in dirty beds and that bites people and sucks their blood bed•cham•ber /ˈbɛdˌʧeɪmbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] literary : BEDROOM ▪ The queen was in her bedchamber.

bed•clothes /ˈbɛdˌkloʊz/ noun [plural] : [1]BEDDING 1 bed•cov•er /ˈbɛdˌkʌvə/ noun, pl -cov•ers

1 [count] : BEDSPREAD

2 bedcovers [plural] : [1]BEDDING 1

[1]bed•ding /ˈbɛdɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the sheets and blankets that are used on a bed

2 : something used for an animal's bed ▪ Wash your cat's bedding regularly. ▪ straw bedding

[2]bedding adj, always used before a noun : suitable for being planted in large groups in a flower bed ▪ The flower makes an excellent bedding plant.

be•deck /bɪˈdɛk/ verb -decks; -decked; -deck•ing [+ obj] : to decorate (someone or something) with things : to add decorative things to (something or someone) — usually used as (be) bedecked ▪ She was bedecked in gold and jewels. ▪ The hall was bedecked [=decked] with flowers.

be•dev•il /bɪˈdɛvəl/ verb -ils; US -iled or Brit -illed; US -il•ing or Brit -il•ling [+ obj] : to trouble (someone or something) in a constant or repeated way : to cause repeated problems for (someone or something) ▪ The theory bedevils scientists, none of whom have been able to prove it true or false. ▪ The project has been bedeviled by problems since its inception.

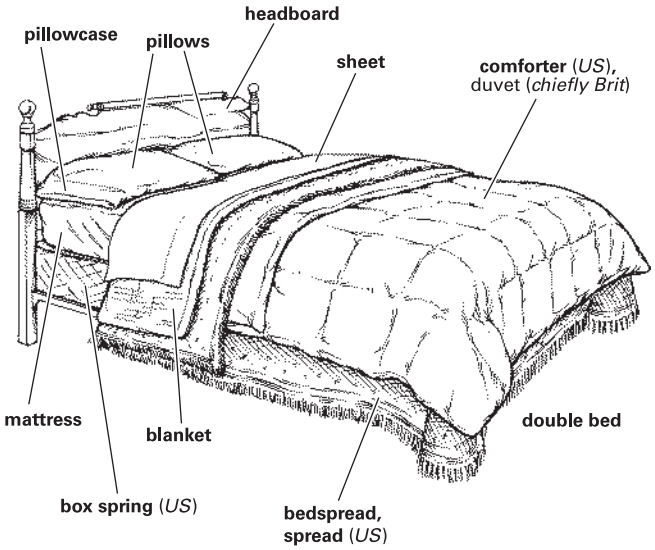
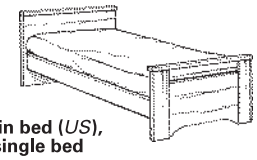
bed•fel•low /ˈbɛdˌfɛloʊ/ noun, pl -lows [count] : a person or thing that is associated or connected with another — used in phrases like strange bedfellows to describe people and things that are grouped or working together in a way that seems unlikely, unexpected, etc. ▪ Politics makes strange bedfellows. [=people who are very different sometimes work together for political reasons]

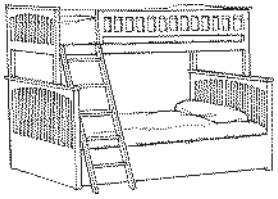
bed



sofa bed



twin bed (US), single bed



bunk bed

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

bed•head /ˈbɛdˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] Brit : HEADBOARD bed•lam /ˈbɛdləm/ noun [noncount] : a very noisy and confused state or scene ▪ The park had never had so many visitors at one time. It was total/complete bedlam.

bed linens noun [plural] chiefly US : sheets and pillowcases for a bed — called also (chiefly Brit) bed linen bed of roses noun [singular] : a place or situation that is pleasant or easy — usually used in negative statements ▪ Grandfather liked to remind people not to expect things to be easy. "Life's no bed of roses," he'd say.

Bed•ou•in /ˈbɛdəwən/ noun, pl Bedouin or Bed•ou•ins [count] : a member of an Arab tribe whose people live in the desert in tents bed•pan /ˈbɛdˌpæn/ noun, pl -pans [count] : a shallow pan used as a toilet by a person who is too ill to get out of bed — see picture at HOSPITAL bed•post /ˈbɛdˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] : any one of the four main supporting posts at each corner of an old-fashioned bed be•drag•gled /bɪˈdrægəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : wet or dirty from being in rain or mud ▪ a bedraggled hitchhiker ▪ She was bedraggled and exhausted.

bed rest noun [noncount] : rest while lying in a bed ▪ The doctor prescribed bed rest for a month.

bed•rid•den /ˈbɛdˌrɪdn̩/ adj : forced to stay in bed because of illness or weakness ▪ bedridden patients bed•rock /ˈbɛdˌrɑːk/ noun [noncount]

1 : the solid rock that lies under the surface of the ground ▪ They dug down for 10 feet before they hit bedrock.
2 : a strong idea, principle, or fact that supports something ▪ His religious beliefs are/form the bedrock on which his life is based. — often used before another noun ▪ bedrock beliefs/values

bed•roll /ˈbɛdˌroʊl/ noun, pl -rolls [count] US : bedding materials that are rolled together so that they can be carried from one place to another

[1]bed•room /ˈbɛdˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room used for sleeping ▪ a house with three bedrooms = a 3-bedroom house ▪ a spare/guest bedroom ▪ a large master bedroom [=a large bedroom that is the main bedroom in a house]
– bedroomed adj, Brit — used in combination ▪ a three-bedroomed house

[2]bedroom adj, always used before a noun
1 US : lived in by people who go to another town or city to work ▪ They live in a bedroom community [=(Brit) dormitory town] just outside of the city.
2 : dealing with sexual relationships ▪ The play is a bedroom farce about a middle-aged couple. ▪ bedroom humor
3 informal : showing sexual attraction ▪ She looked at him with bedroom eyes.

bed•sheet /ˈbɛdˌʃiːt/ noun, pl -sheets [count] chiefly US : SHEET 1b ▪ blankets and bedsheets [=sheets]

bed•side /ˈbɛdˌsaɪd/ noun [singular] : the place next to a person's bed ▪ She sat at his bedside until the fever broke. — often used before another noun ▪ a bedside table/lamp bedside manner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] : the way a doctor or nurse behaves with patients ▪ A number of patients have complained about the doctor's impersonal bedside manner. ▪ a nurse with a warm bedside manner

bed•sit /ˌbɛdˈsɪt/ noun, pl -sits [count] Brit : an apartment with only one room that is used for both sleeping and living in — called also bedsitter, bedsitting room

bed•sore /ˈbɛdˌsoə/ noun, pl -sores [count] : a sore that people get from lying in bed for a very long time when they are sick or injured bed•spread /ˈbɛdˌsprɛd/ noun, pl -spreads [count] : a decorative cover for a bed — see picture at BED bed•stead /ˈbɛdˌstɛd/ noun, pl -steads [count] : the frame of a bed : the part of a bed on which the mattress lies bed•time /ˈbɛdˌtaɪm/ noun, pl -times : the usual time when someone goes to bed [count] The children are still up? It's way past their bedtimes. [noncount] It's almost bedtime. ▪ Will you read the children a bedtime story? [=a story that is read or told to children when they go to bed] bed–wet•ting /ˈbɛdˌwɛtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : urinating that occurs while someone (such as a child) is sleeping in bed – bed–wet•ter /ˈbɛdˌwɛtə/ noun, pl -wet•ters [count]

[1]bee /ˈbiː/ noun, pl bees [count] : a black and yellow flying insect that can sting and that is often kept in hives for the honey that it produces ▪ flowers pollinated by bees and other insects ▪ a swarm of buzzing/humming bees — sometimes used figuratively ▪ My mom is a real busy bee around Christmastime. [=she is very busy and active] — see also BUMBLEBEE, HONEYBEE, KILLER BEE
(as) busy as a bee informal : very busy and active ▪ My mom is (as) busy as a bee around Christmastime.
have a bee in your bonnet informal : to talk and think a lot about something ▪ He always has a bee in his bonnet about safety.
the birds and the bees see BIRD
– compare [2]BEE

[2]bee noun, pl bees [count] US : a gathering of people for the purpose of spending time together while working on similar projects ▪ a quilting bee — see also SPELLING BEE — compare [1]BEE

Beeb /ˈbiːb/ noun
the Beeb Brit, informal : the BBC ▪ work for/at the Beeb

beech /ˈbiːʧ/ noun, pl beech•es or beech
1 [count] : a kind of tree that has smooth gray bark and small nuts — called also beech tree
2 [noncount] : the wood of the beech ▪ a box made of beech

[1]beef /ˈbiːf/ noun, pl beefs
1 [noncount] : meat from a cow ▪ a pound of beef ▪ ground beef ▪ I'm not eating as much beef as I used to. — often used before another noun ▪ the beef industry ▪ beef stew [=a stew made with beef]
2 [count] informal : COMPLAINT ▪ My real beef is with the organization's president, not the group itself. ▪ What's your beef?
3 [noncount] informal : muscles ▪ a football player with a lot of beef and brawn [=a very muscular football player]

[2]beef verb beefs; beefed; beef•ing [no obj] informal : COMPLAIN ▪ She's always beefing about something.
beef up [phrasal verb] beef (something) up or beef up (something) informal : to add weight, strength, or power to (something) ▪ Security around the city will be beefed up during the event. ▪ The medicine helps beef up the immune system.

beef•bur•ger /ˈbiːfˌbəgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] chiefly Brit : HAMBURGER beef•cake /ˈbiːfˌkeɪk/ noun, pl -cakes informal

1 [noncount] : men who are muscular and attractive ▪ He's not a great actor but he gets roles anyway because of all the moviegoers interested in beefcake. ▪ beefcake photos/posters
2 [count] US : a muscular and attractive man ▪ He's one of Hollywood's most celebrated beefcakes. — compare CHEESECAKE

Beef•eat•er /ˈbiːfˌiːtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a guard at the Tower of London who wears an old-fashioned uniform beef•steak /ˈbiːfˌsteɪk/ noun, pl -steaks : a thick slice of beef : STEAK [count] a grilled beefsteak [noncount] a slice of beefsteak

beefy /ˈbiːfi/ adj beef•i•er; -est
1 : large, strong, and often fat ▪ a beefy football player ▪ beefy arms/legs
2 US : strongly built ▪ beefy shock absorbers ▪ The new truck has a beefier construction than the old model.
3 chiefly US : of or relating to beef ▪ a beefy flavor bee•hive /ˈbiːˌhaɪv/ noun, pl -hives [count]

1 : a nest for bees : HIVE
2 : a place filled with busy activity ▪ The office was a beehive of activity.
3 : a woman's hairdo in which long hair is piled high on top of the head ▪ wearing her hair in a beehive ▪ a beehive hairdo bee•keep•er /ˈbiːˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who raises bees ▪ a local beekeeper

– bee•keep•ing noun [noncount] ▪ She took up beekeeping late in life.

[1]bee•line /ˈbiːˌlaɪn/ noun
make a beeline for informal : to go quickly and directly at or to (something or someone) ▪ He made a beeline for the kitchen. [=he headed straight to the kitchen]

[2]beeline verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -lines; -lined; -lin•ing [no obj] US, informal : to go quickly in a direct course ▪ He beelined out the door.

been past participle of BE

[1]beep /ˈbiːp/ noun, pl beeps [count] : a short, high sound made by a horn, an electronic device, etc. ▪ the beep of a car horn ▪ Please leave a message after the beep.

[2]beep verb beeps; beeped; beep•ing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 92 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

1 : to cause (a horn, an electronic device, etc.) to make a beep [+ obj] Why did you beep your horn at her? [no obj] She beeped at me first. ▪ Something is beeping in the kitchen. ▪ I could hear a beeping noise.

2 [+ obj] : to send a message to (someone) with a beeper ▪ The doctor is not in the office today, but I can beep her for you. [=I can send the doctor a signal that will tell her to call the office]

beep•er /ˈbi:pɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : PAGER

beer /ˈbiɚ/ noun, pl beers

1 : an alcoholic drink made from malt and flavored with hops [noncount] Would you like beer with dinner? ▪ The pub brews its own beer. ▪ a glass of beer ▪ a beer mug [count] I'll have a beer, please. ▪ a couple of cold beers

2 [noncount] : a drink made from roots or other parts of plants ▪ a glass of birch/ginger beer — see also ROOT BEER

– beery /ˈbiri/ adj beer•i•er; -est ▪ a beery flavor/smell ▪ a beery tavern

beer belly noun, pl ~ bellies [count] informal : a fat belly caused by drinking a lot of beer ▪ a middle-aged man with a big beer belly — called also beer gut

beer mat noun, pl ~ mats [count] Brit : a small piece of material placed under a glass of beer to protect the bar or table beneath it — compare COASTER

bee's knees noun

the bee's knees informal + old-fashioned : an excellent person or thing ▪ She's the bee's knees. [=I like her very much]

bees•wax /ˈbi:zˌwæks/ noun [noncount] : wax made by bees that is used for making candles and other products none of your beeswax US, informal — used as a way of telling someone that you won't provide information because it is private ▪ "How old are you?" "That's none of your beeswax." [=none of your business]

beet /ˈbi:t/ noun, pl beets [count]

1 US a : a garden plant with thick leaves and a rounded red root ▪ I've planted carrots, parsnips, and beets in the garden. — called also (Brit) beetroot b : the rounded red root of the beet plant that is eaten as a vegetable ▪ sliced beets — called also (Brit) beetroot; see color picture on page C4

2 Brit : SUGAR BEET

beet red or red as a beet : red in the face especially from embarrassment ▪ When she realized her mistake, she turned beet red. [=blushed]

[1]bee•tle /ˈbi:tl/ noun, pl bee•tles [count] : a type of insect with wings that form a hard cover on its back when it is not flying

[2]beetle verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition bee•tles; bee•tled; bee•tling [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to move quickly ▪ Everyone looked very busy, beetling [=scurrying] about the office. ▪ Everybody beetled off home.

beetle–browed adj : having large and thick eyebrows ▪ a beetle-browed old man beet•root /ˈbi:tˌru:t/ noun, pl -roots [count, noncount] Brit : BEET 1 be•fall /bɪˈfɑ:l/ verb -falls; -fell /bɪˈfɛl/; -fall•en /biˈfɑ:lən/; -fall•ing [+ obj] formal, of something bad or unpleasant : to happen to (someone or something) ▪ It's sad to think of the unhappy fate that befell him. ▪ The drought was only one of many hardships to befall the small country.

be• t /bɪˈfɪt/ verb - ts ; - t•ted ; - t•ting [+ obj] formal : to be suitable to or proper for (someone or something) ▪ She has a mind for serious inquiry, as befits a scientist. ▪ clothes befitting [=fitting] the occasion

– be• t•ting•ly /bɪˈfɪtɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

[1]be•fore /bɪˈfoɚ/ adv

1 : at an earlier time ▪ Haven't we met before? ▪ the night/day before ▪ I've never seen her so happy before. [=I've never seen her as happy as she is now] ▪ We haven't had these problems before. ▪ Everything is just as (it was) before.

2 formal + old-fashioned : to or toward the place where someone is going : in advance ▪ marching on before [=ahead]

[2]before prep

1 a : at a time preceding (something or someone) : earlier than (something or someone) ▪ We arrived shortly before six o'clock. ▪ before dinner ▪ He left just before sunrise. ▪ I've never seen her so happy before now. ▪ Call me before your arrival. ▪ She arrived the day before yesterday. ▪ Why haven't you ever helped me before now/this? ▪ I finished the exam before him. [=before he finished the exam] ▪ You can go before me. [=before I go] ▪ He's an electrician, like his father before him. [=his father was also an electrician] ▪ They earned 50,000 dollars before (paying) taxes. b US — used to describe a time earlier than a specified hour ▪ It's 20 (minutes) before 12. [=it's 20 of/to 12; it's 11:40]

2 : preceding (something or someone) in order or in a series ▪ Your name is listed before mine. ▪ You'll see my house just before the bank and after the school. ▪ The number 2 comes before 3 and after 1. [=2 comes between 1 and 3]

3 a : in front of (someone or something) ▪ The Great Plains stretched endlessly before them. ▪ The championship fight took place before a crowd of thousands. : in the presence of (someone) ▪ The defendant stood up before the judge. — see also (right) before/in front of your (very) eyes at [1]EYE b : being considered by (someone or something) ▪ The case before the court involves a robbery. ▪ the candidates before the voters ▪ I have a proposal to put before [=to] the board. ▪ The question before us is this: did he fall or was he pushed? c : in the future for (someone) : ahead of (someone) ▪ They had no idea of the ordeal that lay before them.

4 a : in a higher or more important position than (something) ▪ They put quantity before [=above] quality. [=they cared more about quantity than about quality] b : rather or sooner than ▪ He vowed that he would choose death before dishonor. [=he would rather die than be dishonored]

5 formal : under the force of (something) ▪ The tree fell before the force of the wind. [=the force of the wind caused the tree to fall]

[3]before conj

1 a : earlier than the time that : earlier than when ▪ He left long before morning came. ▪ The judge stood up before the defendant did. [=the defendant stood up after the judge did] ▪ Say goodbye before you go. ▪ Call me before you arrive. ▪ Before [=until] she met him she had never been so happy. ▪ I finished the exam before he did. ▪ It was/happened not long before he arrived. ▪ He left before I could thank him. [=I wasn't able to thank him because he left too soon] ▪ I'll resign before I give in! [=I would rather resign than give in] — see also before you know it at [1]KNOW b : until the time that ▪ It did not take long before he had earned their trust. [=he earned their trust quickly] ▪ "I have promises to keep and miles to go before I sleep . . . " —Robert Frost, "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening" (1923)

2 a — used to refer to something that might happen ▪ Get out of there before you get dirty! [=get out of there because you will/might get dirty if you don't] ▪ Before I forget, will you give me your telephone number? [=I'm asking for your telephone number now because I might forget to do it later] b — used to say that one thing must happen for another thing to happen or be possible ▪ He must be convicted before he can be removed from office. ▪ You must have completed an introductory class before you can take an advanced class.

be•fore•hand /bɪˈfoɚˌhænd/ adv : in advance : at an earlier or previous time ▪ They'd agreed beforehand [=ahead of time] to leave early. ▪ We paid for our tickets beforehand.

be•foul /bɪˈfawəl/ verb -fouls; -fouled; -foul•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (a substance, place, etc.) dirty : FOUL ▪ pollutants that befoul the air and water be•friend /bɪˈfrɛnd/ verb -friends; -friend•ed; -friend•ing [+ obj] : to become a friend to (someone) ▪ He befriended the new student.

be•fud•dled /bɪˈfʌdld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unable to think clearly : very confused ▪ Many people are totally befuddled by the tax code. ▪ The paperwork left me completely befuddled.

beg /ˈbɛg/ verb begs; begged; beg•ging

1 : to ask people for money or food [no obj] A homeless man begs on that corner every day. ▪ children begging for food [+ obj] children begging strangers for food ▪ children begging food from strangers

2 a : to ask (someone) in a very serious and emotional way for something needed or wanted very much [+ obj] He begged the doctor for medicine. ▪ He begged her for forgiveness. = He begged her to forgive him. ▪ She begged him to read the story again. ▪ I beg you to help them! = Help them, I beg you! ▪ "Help them!" I begged. [no obj] — + of ▪ (formal) I beg of you to help them! b : to ask for (something needed or wanted very much) in a very serious and emotional way [+ obj] He got down on his knees and begged forgiveness. = He got down on his knees and begged to be forgiven. ▪ He begged that she would forgive him. ▪ begging a favor of someone [no obj] He's too proud to beg. ▪ He begged for forgiveness.

3 [no obj] of a dog : to sit up on the back legs with the front legs raised ▪ "Does your dog know any tricks?" "She knows how to beg."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 92 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

4 [+ obj] of a thing : to seem perfect for some purpose : to be very well suited for something — followed by to + verb ▪ I couldn't resist cutting some of the flowers. They were just begging to be made into a bouquet. ▪ a scene begging to be photographed [=a scene that should be photographed] beg, borrow, or/and steal informal : to do whatever is necessary to get something that is wanted or needed ▪ We'll have to beg, borrow, or steal the extra chairs we need for the party.

beg leave formal + old-fashioned : to ask for permission — followed by to + verb ▪ We beg leave to offer our humble thanks. ▪ I beg leave to differ with you, sir.

beg off [phrasal verb] informal : to say that you cannot do something that you have been asked to do or have agreed to do ▪ He originally said he'd go to the party, but he later begged off (going), claiming he had to work that night.

beg the question 1 : to cause someone to ask a specified question as a reaction or response ▪ The quarterback's injury begs the question of who will start in his place. ▪ The tragic drowning begs the question: why are there no safe places in the area for children to swim? 2 formal : to ignore a question or issue by assuming it has been answered or settled ▪ Their proposed solution begs the question of whether the changes in the town are actually a problem.

beg to differ : to politely disagree with someone ▪ You say that the candidates are essentially the same, but I beg to differ. [=I do not agree] beg your pardon ✧ The phrase I beg your pardon is used in polite speech to apologize when you have done something impolite or when you have made a mistake. ▪ I beg your pardon. [=sorry, excuse me] I didn't mean to bump into you like that. ▪ I beg your pardon. You're correct; the amount is 12 dollars. It can be used to show that you are annoyed or offended by something that another person has said. ▪ "That boy isn't very bright." "I beg your pardon! That's my son!" It can also be used as a question when you have not heard or understood something clearly. ▪ I beg your pardon [=excuse me, sorry]? What did you say? The shorter form beg pardon is also used informally this way. ▪ "He's been in Haiti for the past two months." "Beg pardon? He's been in Hawaii?" "No, Haiti."

go begging chiefly Brit : to be something that few or no people want ▪ With the poor economy, many expensive restaurants now have tables that go begging. [=tables that are empty because there are no customers] ▪ If that last biscuit's (still) going begging, can I have it, please?

began past tense of BEGIN be•get /bɪ'gɛt/ verb -got /-'gɑ:t/ also -gat /-'gæt/; -got•ten /-'gɑ:tn̩/ or -got; -get•ting [+ obj]

1 formal : to cause (something) to happen or exist ▪ Violence begets [=causes] more violence.
2 old-fashioned + literary : to become the father of (someone) ▪ He died without begetting an heir.
– be•get•ter noun, pl -ters [count]

[1]beg•gar /'bɛgə/ noun, pl -gars [count]
1 : a person who lives by begging for money, food, etc.
2 Brit, informal : a person who is regarded as lucky, unlucky, lazy, etc. ▪ I heard you won the contest! You lucky beggar! ▪ He's a lazy beggar.

beggars can't be choosers ✧ The saying beggars can't be choosers means that people who need something must be satisfied with whatever they get even if it is not exactly what they wanted.

[2]beggar verb -gars; -gared; -gar•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to make (someone or something) very poor ▪ Years of civil war had beggared the country.
2 chiefly Brit — used in the phrases beggar belief and beggar description to talk about something that is very difficult to believe or describe ▪ It almost beggars belief [=it is very hard to believe] that anyone can be so cruel. ▪ a plot so complex that it beggars description beg•gar•ly /'bɛgəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very small or poor ▪ She received a beggarly sum for her efforts.

be•gin /bɪ'gɪn/ verb -gins; -gan /-'gæn/; -gun /-'gʌn/; -gin•ning
1 a : to do the first part of an action : to start doing something [+ obj] They will begin construction on the new school soon. ▪ I got the job and I begin work on Monday! ▪ She'll begin the lecture at 10. ▪ He plans to begin the project later this week. ▪ They both began their careers at the local newspaper. ▪ The university began accepting applications in November. ▪ I had just begun eating when the phone rang. ▪ She interrupted as soon as I began to speak. [no obj] He began by showing some photographs of his trip. = He began with some photographs of his trip. ▪ Now that I've begun, I'll go on till I finish. ▪ You'll have to begin again. [=start over] b [+ obj] : to start to work on, produce, or give attention to (something) ▪ I began the quilt last month. ▪ I began (reading) the book last week. ▪ Schubert began more symphonies than he finished. c [+ obj] : to cause (something) to start ▪ The chairman began the meeting at noon. ▪ They began [=founded] the state's first traveling theater troupe. d [+ obj] : to start to have a feeling, thought, etc. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She began to feel dizzy soon after the accident. ▪ I'm beginning to think the oversight was intentional. — sometimes + -ing verb ▪ She began feeling dizzy soon after the accident.
2 : to start to happen, to exist, to be done, etc. [no obj] The meeting began [=started] in the morning and finished/ended at noon. ▪ Construction on the new school will begin soon. ▪ Our problems were just beginning. ▪ When does the play begin? ▪ The rain began around noon. ▪ Let the games begin. ▪ The American Civil War began in 1861 and ended in 1865. ▪ His passion for music began at the age of six when he had his first piano lessons. [+ obj] — followed by to + verb ▪ It's beginning [=starting] to rain. ▪ The flowers on the trees are beginning to bloom.
3 [no obj] a : to have a particular starting point : to start at a specified place or in a specified way ▪ "Where does the river begin?" "It begins in the mountains to the north." ▪ The meeting began on a positive note. ▪ The meeting began with an announcement. [=an announcement was made at the start of the meeting] ▪ The English alphabet begins with A and ends with Z. ▪ Each sentence should begin with a capital. ▪ The season began with our team in last place but finished (up) with us in first place. ▪ Her long career in advertising began at a small firm in Chicago. ▪ Prices for the hotel rooms begin at 85 dollars. [=85 dollars is the lowest price for a hotel room; some rooms cost more than 85 dollars] ▪ The road begins at the bottom of the hill and ends at the top of the hill. b : to have a specified quality, identity, job, etc., at the start — + as ▪ What began [=started] as a simple idea has become a complicated project. ▪ The town began as a small farming community. ▪ He began as a clerk [=he was a clerk when he started working] and eventually became president of the company.
4 [+ obj] : to start speaking by saying (something) ▪ "Allow me to introduce myself," he began.
5 — used in an exaggerated way to say that something is not possible ▪ I can't even begin to describe how good the food was. [=the food was very good] ▪ I can't begin to tell you how grateful I am for all your help. [=I am very grateful for all your help] ▪ I can hardly begin to thank you for all you've done.

to begin with 1 : as the first thing to be thought about or considered ▪ "I don't think we should buy the car." "Why not?" "To begin with, I'm not sure we can afford it." 2 : at the start : before the current time or situation ▪ She has lost a lot of weight, and she wasn't very heavy to begin with. ▪ She didn't like her job to begin with, [=at first, initially] but she got used to it eventually.

be•gin•ner /bɪ'gɪnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a person who is beginning something or doing something for the first time ▪ a swimming class for complete beginners = a beginner class ▪ The success of his first restaurant was just beginner's luck. [=he succeeded because he was lucky, as beginners sometimes are]

[1]be•gin•ning /bɪ'gɪnɪŋ/ noun, pl -nings
1 [count] : the point or time at which something begins : a starting point — usually singular ▪ He has been working there since the beginning of the year. ▪ A poem was recited at the beginning of the wedding ceremony. ▪ It was clear from the (very) beginning that she would eventually succeed. ▪ The company was very small in the beginning [=when it began], but it eventually became a giant corporation. ▪ The argument marked the beginning of the end of their marriage. [=the argument was the start of a series of events that led to the end of their marriage]
2 [count] : the first part of something ▪ Go back to the beginning of the song. ▪ We were late, so we missed the beginning of the movie. ▪ The changes that have been made so far are just/only the beginning. There are many more changes still to come.
3 beginnings [plural] a : an early stage or period ▪ I have the beginnings of a sore throat. [=my throat is starting to feel sore] b : the origins or background of a person or thing ▪ He came from humble beginnings. ▪ the company's modest beginnings in an old warehouse ▪ The organization had its beginnings [=began] in a small Midwestern town.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 98 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

[2]beginning adj : involving or learning about the simple or basic parts of a subject ▪ beginning mathematics ▪ The school has courses for beginning [=elementary], intermediate, and advanced students.

be•gone /bɪˈgɑːn/ interj, old-fashioned + literary — used to tell someone to go away ▪ Begone!

be•go•nia /bɪˈgoʊnjə/ noun, pl -nias [count] : a tropical plant that has shiny leaves and bright flowers

begot past tense and past participle of BEGET

begotten past participle of BEGET

be•grudge /bɪˈgrʌʤ/ verb -grudg•es; -grudged; -grudg•ing [+ obj]
1 : to think that someone does not deserve something ▪ She's worked hard to get where she is. You shouldn't begrudge her the success she's earned. ▪ After what he's been through, it's hard to begrudge him the money he has. : to regard (something) as not being earned or deserved ▪ You shouldn't begrudge her success.
2 : to give or allow (something) in a reluctant or unwilling way ▪ Many commuters begrudge every minute spent in traffic.

begrudging /bɪˈgrʌʤɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : said, done, or given in a reluctant way : GRUDGING ▪ begrudging acceptance/admiration/respect – be•grudg•ing•ly /bɪˈgrʌʤɪŋli/ adv ▪ She agreed begrudgingly.

be•guile /bɪˈgajəl/ verb -guiles; -guiled; -guil•ing
1 [+ obj] : to trick or deceive (someone) ▪ She was cunning enough to beguile her classmates into doing the work for her. ▪ They were beguiled into thinking they'd heard the whole story.
2 : to attract or interest someone [no obj] Almost everything in the quaint little town beguiles, from its architecture to its art to its people. [+ obj] He beguiled the audience with his smooth and seductive voice. — often used as (be) beguiled ▪ I was beguiled [=charmed] by his voice.
– beguiling adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a beguiling [=charming] melody ▪ a beguiling temptress ▪ The movie is a beguiling blend of humor and tragedy. – be•guil•ing•ly /bɪˈgaɪlɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a beguilingly smooth and seductive voice begun past participle of BEGIN

be•half /bɪˈhæf, Brit bɪˈhɑːf/ noun
on behalf of someone or on someone's behalf 1 : as a representative of someone ▪ The teacher accepted the award on behalf of the whole class. ▪ She's been elected to go before the town council on behalf of the county's farmers. 2 or US in behalf of someone or in someone's behalf : for the benefit of someone : in support of someone ▪ She spoke in behalf of the other candidate. ▪ They're willing to do anything on their child's behalf. ▪ He argued before the court on her behalf. 3 : because of someone ▪ Don't get up on my behalf.

be•have /bɪˈheɪv/ verb -haves; -haved; -hav•ing
1 : to act in an acceptable way : to act properly [no obj] If you can't behave in the store we'll have to leave. [+ obj] If you can't behave yourself in the store we'll have to leave. ▪ I wish those children would behave themselves. — opposite MISBEHAVE
2 [no obj] : to act in a particular way ▪ He behaves like a child! ▪ behave well/generously 3 [no obj] of a thing : to function, react, or move in a particular way ▪ The experiment tested how various metals behave under heat and pressure.

behaved adj : behaving in a certain way ▪ a well-behaved child [=a child who behaves well; a polite child] ▪ a very badly behaved little boy

be•hav•ior (US) or Brit be•hav•iour /bɪˈheɪvjɚ/ noun, pl -iors
1 : the way a person or animal acts or behaves [noncount] I'm surprised by her bad behavior toward her friends. ▪ Students will be rewarded for good behavior. ▪ scientists studying the behavior of elephants ▪ normal adolescent behavior ▪ criminal behavior ▪ an interesting pattern of behavior = an interesting behavior pattern ▪ The children were all on their best behavior [=were all behaving very well and politely] at the museum. ▪ Inmates may be released from prison early for good behavior. [=because they have followed prison rules and have not caused problems] [count] An acceptable social behavior in one country may be unacceptable in another country. ▪ Doctors are trying to educate people about behaviors that can put them at increased risk for skin cancer.
2 [noncount] : the way something (such as a machine or substance) moves, functions, or reacts ▪ The experiment tested the behavior of various metals under heat and pressure.
– be•hav•ior•al (US) or Brit be•hav•iour•al /bɪˈheɪvjɚəl/ adj ▪ behavioral problems ▪ behavioral patterns be•head /bɪˈhɛd/ verb -heads; -head•ed; -head•ing [+ obj] : to cut off the head of (someone) especially as a punishment ▪ Louis XVI was beheaded in 1793.

beheld past tense and past participle of BEHOLD be•he•moth /bɪˈhiːməθ/ noun, pl -moths [count] : something very big and powerful ▪ a corporate behemoth [=a giant corporation]

be•hest /bɪˈhɛst/ noun
at the behest of someone or at someone's behest formal : because of being asked or ordered by someone ▪ A special meeting will be held at the senator's behest.

[1]be•hind /bɪˈhaɪnd/ adv
1 a : in or toward the back ▪ look behind ▪ The older students entered the room first with the younger students following behind. b : in the place that someone is going away from ▪ She stayed behind after the other guests left. ▪ They left behind everything they owned when they fled the country. ▪ We had to leave our family, friends, and neighbors behind. — often used figuratively ▪ She has left her fears and doubts behind. [=she is no longer fearful and doubtful] ▪ She wanted to leave the past behind. [=forget about the past] c : later in time ▪ "If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?" —P. B. Shelley, "Ode to the West Wind" (1820)
2 : in a losing position in a race or competition ▪ "How far behind was she?" "At least 50 yards (behind)." ▪ We were ahead in the first half, but now we're behind. ▪ We were behind by five runs. = We were five runs behind. ▪ a politician who is behind in the polls ▪ She was losing the race but she came from behind and is now in front.
3 a — used to describe something that is not happening or proceeding as quickly as it should ▪ We're running about five minutes behind [=late] with tonight's schedule. b — used to describe someone who is not doing something (such as paying a debt) as quickly as required or expected ▪ He got a bit behind [=late] in/with his payments. ▪ He is behind in (paying) his rent.

[2]behind prep
1 : in or to a place at the back of or to the rear of (someone or something) ▪ Look behind you. ▪ He was standing in front of me and she was standing behind [=in back of] me. ▪ The older students entered the room first with the younger students following behind them. ▪ The house is behind some trees. [=there are some trees in front of the house] ▪ The cat hid behind the couch. ▪ The sun went/hid/was behind a cloud. — see also behind the eight ball at EIGHT BALL
2 : losing to (someone or something) in a race or competition ▪ "How far behind the other runners was she?" "At least 50 yards (behind them)." ▪ They were ahead of us by 5 points earlier in the game, but now they're behind us by 7. ▪ The polls show that he is behind the other candidates. ▪ The company is now behind the competition.
3 : in a less advanced position than (someone or something) ▪ He was a year behind me in school. [=he finished school a year after I did] : not happening or proceeding as quickly as (someone or something) ▪ He was behind the other students in his studies. ▪ This year's sales have lagged considerably/significantly behind last year's sales. [=sales have not been as good this year as they were last year] ▪ We're running about five minutes behind schedule. [=late]
4 a : in the past for (someone or something) ▪ Those problems are behind us now. ▪ Her best work is behind her. [=her best work was in the past] ▪ He has many years of experience behind him. [=he has many years of experience in his past] b : out of the mind or thoughts of (someone) ▪ Let's put our troubles behind us. [=let's stop thinking/worrying about our troubles]
5 a : providing the reason or explanation for (something) ▪ We need to learn more about the conditions behind the strike. [=the conditions that led to the strike] ▪ What was really behind his murder? [=what was the real reason for his murder?] b : responsible for (something) ▪ We'll get to the bottom of this conspiracy and find out who's behind it!
6 a : in support of (someone or something) ▪ Despite the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 98 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:19:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

controversy, most of his supporters remain solidly behind him. ▪ We're behind you all the way! ▪ I encourage everyone to get behind these proposals. [=to support these proposals]

b : with the support of (something) ▪ They won the game 1–0 behind brilliant pitching. [=brilliant pitching made it possible for them to win the game 1–0]

behind bars see ¹BAR

behind the times see ¹TIME

³be•hind noun, pl -hinds [count] informal : the part of the body above the legs that is used for sitting : BUTTOCKS ▪ kicked him in the behind ▪ Get your behind over here right now! [=come here right now]

behind–the–scenes adj, always used before a noun

1 : working or happening privately without being known or seen by the public ▪ There has been a lot of behind-the-scenes lobbying for more money. ▪ She exerted a lot of behind-the-scenes influence when the project was being planned. ▪ an effective behind-the-scenes operator

2 : revealing or reporting on things that usually happen privately without being known or seen by the public ▪ The documentary provides a behind-the-scenes glimpse of Congress in action. ▪ a behind-the-scenes account — see also behind the scenes at SCENE

be•hold /bɪˈhoʊld/ verb -holds; -held /bɪˈhɛld/; -hold•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to look at (something) : to see (something) ▪ Those who have beheld the beauty of the desert never forget it. ▪ The huge crowd that gathered at the stadium was a sight/wonder to behold. [=was a wonderful or impressive thing to see] — see also lo and behold at LO

– be•hold•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Beauty is in the eye of the beholder. [=different people have different ideas about what is beautiful]

be•hold•en /bɪˈhoʊldən/ adj

beholden to formal : owing a favor or gift to (someone) : having obligations to (someone) ▪ politicians who are beholden to special interest groups ▪ She works for herself, and so is beholden to no one.

be•hoove (US) /bɪˈhuːv/ or Brit be•hove /bɪˈhoʊv/ verb -hooves; -hooved; -hoov•ing [+ obj] formal : to be necessary or proper for (someone) ▪ He behaved with dignity, as behooves [=befits] a man of his age. ✧ The subject of behoove is usually the pronoun it. ▪ It behooves a good citizen to obey the law. [=a good citizen should obey the law] ▪ It ill behooves you to act so rudely. [=you should not act so rudely]

beige /ˈbeɪʒ/ noun, pl beig•es [count, noncount] : a light yellowish-brown color — see color picture on page C3

– beige adj ▪ a beige skirt

¹be•ing /ˈbiːjɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : a living thing ▪ a human/alien/mythical being ▪ sentient/sexual beings — see also SUPREME BEING

2 [noncount] : the state of existing : EXISTENCE ▪ philosophies of being ▪ The story of how the university came into being [=began to exist; came to be] is quite fascinating. ▪ a social movement that was brought into being in the 1960s

3 [noncount] formal : the most important or basic part of a person's mind or self ▪ I knew it was true in the core of my being. ▪ He loved music with his whole being. [=he deeply loved music]

with every fiber of your being see FIBER

²being conj, informal : SINCE — usually + that or as or as how ▪ Being that/as it was too late to go home, we stayed the night at a hotel. ▪ It should be her decision, being as how she's the one who's paying for it.

³being present participle of BE be•je•sus /bɪˈʤiːzəs/ noun

the bejesus informal — used for emphasis after words like scare, frighten, and beat ▪ That movie scared the bejesus out of me. [=that movie scared me very badly] ▪ They beat the bejesus out of the other team.

be•jew•eled (US) or Brit be•jew•elled /bɪˈjuːld/ adj : decorated with jewels ▪ the bejeweled princess ▪ a bejeweled sword — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the city's bejeweled [=sparkling] skyline be•la•bor (US) or Brit be•la•bour /bɪˈleɪbə/ verb -bors; -bored; -bor•ing [+ obj]

1 : to talk about (something) for too long : to repeat or stress (something) too much or too often ▪ Her habit of belaboring the obvious makes her a very boring speaker. ▪ Please don't belabor the point.

2 : to attack or criticize (someone) ▪ He uses his newspaper column to belabor writers for even the most minor grammatical errors.

be•lat•ed /bɪˈleɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happening or coming very late or too late ▪ a belated birthday card ▪ She received belated recognition for her scientific discovery.

– be•lat•ed•ly adv ▪ She was belatedly recognized by the scientific community. – be•lat•ed•ness noun [noncount]

be•lay /bɪˈleɪ/ verb -lays; -layed; -lay•ing [+ obj] : to attach (a rope) to something so that it is secure ▪ The climber belayed the rope. : to attach a secure rope to (a person) for safety ▪ belay a climber belch /ˈbɛlʧ/ verb belch•es; belched; belch•ing

1 [no obj] : to let out air from the stomach through the mouth very loudly ▪ He belched loudly, and his girlfriend said, "That's disgusting!" — compare BURP

2 : to push or throw (something) out with force [+ obj] noisy trucks belching (out) black exhaust [no obj] black exhaust fumes belching (out) from noisy trucks ▪ Smoke belched from the factory chimneys beside the river.

– belch noun, pl belches [count] ▪ a rude belch ▪ belches of smoke – belch•er noun, pl -ers [count]

be•lea•guer /bɪˈliːgə/ verb -guers; -guered; -guer•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause constant or repeated trouble for (a person, business, etc.) ▪ the lack of funds that beleaguers schools — usually used as (be) beleaguered ▪ The team has been beleaguered by errors. ▪ a company beleaguered by debt

– beleaguered adj ▪ an economically beleaguered city ▪ a beleaguered politician [=a politician who is being criticized by many people]

bel•fry /ˈbɛlfri/ noun, pl -fries [count] : a tower or part of a tower where a bell or set of bells hangs bats in the/your belfry informal + old-fashioned ✧ To have bats in the belfry or (chiefly US) bats in your belfry is to be crazy. ▪ an old woman with bats in her belfry [=a crazy/batty old woman]

Bel•gian /ˈbɛlʤən/ noun, pl -gians [count]

1 : a person born, raised, or living in Belgium

2 : a person of Belgian descent

– Belgian adj ▪ a Belgian couple and their children ▪ Belgian beer/chocolate/linen

Belgian endive noun, pl ~ -dives [count, noncount] chiefly US : the leaves of a chicory plant that has been grown in darkness to make the leaves white instead of green

Belgian waffle noun, pl ~ waffles [count] chiefly US : a large waffle that is served usually with fruit and whipped cream be•lie /bɪˈlaɪ/ verb -lies; -lied; -ly•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to give a false idea of (something) ▪ Her manner and appearance belie her age. [=she looks and acts like a much younger person than she really is] ▪ a tree whose delicate beauty belies its real toughness

2 : to show (something) to be false or wrong ▪ Their actions belie their claim to be innocent.

be•lief /bəˈliːf/ noun, pl -liefs

1 a : a feeling of being sure that someone or something exists or that something is true [singular] a heartfelt/deep/deep-seated/firm/strong/passionate belief — often + in ▪ He says that he is given strength by his belief in God. ▪ He has a strong belief in his ability to win. [=he is certain that he can win] ▪ His family has an unshakable belief in his innocence. — often + that ▪ It's my belief that the current policy is certain to fail. [=I believe that the current policy is certain to fail] ▪ She bought the rug in the belief that [=because she believed that] it was a real antique, not a fake. ▪ Many people arrived early in the mistaken/erroneous belief that [=because they mistakenly believed that] free tickets would be available. ▪ There is a growing belief that [=an increasing number of people believe that] these policies will not succeed. [noncount] There is growing belief that these policies will not succeed. ▪ Contrary to popular belief, the economy has actually improved in recent months. [=the economy has improved although many/most people do not think that it has] — compare DISBELIEF b [singular] : a feeling that something is good, right, or valuable — + in ▪ a belief in democracy ▪ a judge who had a firm/strong belief in judicial restraint c [singular] : a feeling of trust in the worth or ability of someone — + in ▪ He has a strong belief in himself. [=he strongly believes that he will succeed]

2 [count] : something that a person accepts as true or right : a strongly held opinion about something ▪ He gets angry if anyone challenges his religious/political beliefs. ▪ We challenged his beliefs about religion. ▪ erroneous/mistaken/false beliefs ▪ a system of beliefs = a belief system — compare UNBELIEF

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 99 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

3 [noncount] : the state of being accepted as true : the state of being believed ▪ a story that is worthy of belief [=a story that deserves to be believed, a believable story] ▪ a story that defies belief = (chiefly Brit) a story that beggars belief [=an unbelievable story]

beyond belief : not capable of being believed ▪ events that are beyond belief [=events that are unbelievable] ▪ She is beautiful beyond belief. [=she is unbelievably/extremely beautiful]

to the best of your belief ✧ If you say something is to the best of your belief, you mean that it agrees with what you know and believe to be true. ▪ To the best of my belief [=(more commonly) to the best of my knowledge, as far as I know], everyone arrived on time. [=I think that everyone arrived on time, but it is possible that someone arrived late and I don't know about it]

be•lieve /bə'li:v/ verb, not used in progressive tenses -lieves; -lieved; -liev•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to accept or regard (something) as true ▪ The scientists believed the reports. ▪ Many people seem to believe that theory, but I find it hard/difficult to believe. ▪ You shouldn't believe everything you read. ▪ I knew that he was a liar and so I didn't believe a word he said. [=I didn't believe anything he said] ▪ I did not want to believe (that) it could happen. ▪ He says he'll help us, but I don't believe what he says. ▪ They were tricked into believing that he was a doctor. — opposite DISBELIEVE b : to accept the truth of what is said by (someone) ▪ He says he'll help us, but I don't believe him. — opposite DISBELIEVE

2 [+ obj] : to have (a specified opinion) : THINK ▪ I'm beginning to believe (that) this war will never end. ▪ I used to believe (that) I was the only one who felt that way but now I know (that) there are others like me. ▪ He clearly/firmly/honestly believes (that) it is possible. = He clearly/firmly/honestly believes it (to be) possible. ▪ He had reason to believe that they would accept his offer. = He had reason for believing that they would accept his offer. ▪ She was widely believed to be guilty. [=many people believed that she was guilty] ▪ We were led to believe it was true. [=we heard, saw, or read something that made us think it was true] ▪ "Has he accepted the job?" "I believe so." = "So I believe." ▪ "Has he accepted the job?" "I believe not." = "I don't believe so."

3 [no obj] : to regard the existence of God as a fact : to have religious beliefs ▪ She went to church because her family expected it, but she didn't really believe.

4 [no obj] : to have trust in the ability, worth, etc., of someone or something ▪ The team hasn't won a championship in many years, but their fans still believe. [=their fans still believe in them; their fans still believe that they will win]

5 informal — used for emphasis in phrases that express certainty, surprise, annoyance, etc. ▪ "Do you think they can win?" "You/You'd better believe it!" [=yes, I definitely think so] ▪ Believe me, he can really play the game. = Believe you me, he can really play the game. ▪ I can't believe how ugly that dress is. [=what an ugly dress] ▪ You broke the window? I can't believe you guys! [=I'm annoyed and shocked by what you did] How could you do such a thing? ▪ I can't believe [=I am amazed/surprised] that that terrible restaurant is still in business. ▪ That terrible restaurant is still in business, if you can believe it/that. ▪ Can/Would you believe it?! That terrible restaurant is still in business. ▪ You won't believe what I just heard! [=you will be very surprised by what I just heard] ▪ You wouldn't believe how long it took us to get here. [=it took us a surprisingly long/short time to get here] ▪ I don't believe it! I swept the floor 10 minutes ago, and it's already dirty again! ▪ I could not believe my good fortune/luck. ▪ It's hard to believe that he's gone. ▪ His latest movie, believe it or not, is a romantic comedy about a group of lawyers. [=it is surprising but true that his latest movie is a romantic comedy about a group of lawyers] ▪ "I hear that their marriage is in trouble." "Don't you believe it! [=that is completely untrue] They're the happiest couple I know!" ▪ "He says he's going to become a doctor." "If you believe that, you'll believe anything!" [=it would be very foolish to believe that he is going to become a doctor] ▪ "He says he's going to become a doctor." "I'll believe that when I see it!"

believe in [phrasal verb] 1 believe in (something) a : to have faith or confidence in the existence of (something) ▪ Do you believe in ghosts? b : to have trust in the goodness or value of (something) ▪ She believes in (the value of) regular exercise. ▪ They believed in liberty for all. ▪ I believe in working hard to achieve success. ▪ She doesn't believe in using pesticides. [=she doesn't believe that it's right to use pesticides; she believes that pesticides do more harm than good] 2 believe in (someone) : to have trust in the goodness or ability of (someone) ▪ Despite his problems, his parents still believe in him. ▪ She believes in herself and in her abilities.

can't believe your eyes/ears ✧ If you can't believe your eyes/ears or can hardly/scarcely believe your eyes/ears, you are very surprised at or upset by what you are seeing or hearing. ▪ I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw what he was wearing.

make believe : to act as though something that is not true or real is true or real : PRETEND ▪ When we were children we used to make believe (that) we were soldiers fighting in a war. ▪ He isn't really angry, he's just making believe (that he is). ▪ They want to make believe that everything is all right. — see also MAKE-BELIEVE seeing is believing ✧ The expression seeing is believing means that when you actually see something, you have to believe that it exists or is true. ▪ I didn't think it could happen, but seeing is believing. [=I saw it happen, so now I believe it's possible]

– be•liev•able /bə'li:vəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The novel's ending is not very believable. ▪ His excuse was barely/scarcely believable. – be•liev•ably /bə'li:vəbli/ adv ▪ The characters are all believably portrayed. – be•liev•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a believer in religion ▪ devout believers ▪ She's a firm/great/strong believer in adult education. [=she firmly/strongly believes in the value of adult education; she thinks adult education is very useful and important] ▪ I was doubtful that he could run his own company, but he's made a believer out of me. = He's made me a believer. [=he's convinced me that he can run his own company]

be•lit•tle /bi'lɪtl/ verb -lit•tles; -lit•tled; -lit•tling [+ obj] : to describe (someone or something) as little or unimportant ▪ The critic belittled the author's work. ▪ Her detractors are in the habit of belittling her accomplishments.

– belittling adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a very belittling description ▪ She did not mean to be belittling (about her predecessors). – belittling noun [noncount] ▪ his belittling of his opponents

bell /'bɛl/ noun, pl bells [count]

1 : a hollow usually cup-shaped metal object that makes a ringing sound when it is hit ▪ ring/sound/toll a bell ▪ We heard the church bells ringing. ▪ The school bell clanged. ▪ a dinner bell [=a bell that is rung to call people to dinner] ▪ The round ended when the bell sounded. ▪ the Liberty Bell [=a large bell in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, that is a traditional symbol of U.S. freedom] — see also BELLS AND WHISTLES

2 : an electronic device that makes a ringing sound ▪ We rang the bell [=doorbell] twice, but no one came to answer the door. ▪ Warning/alarm bells went off. = Warning/alarm bells started to sound/ring. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ (Warning/alarm) bells went off (in my head) as I read her letter. [=there was something in her letter that alarmed me]

3 : something (such as a flower) that is shaped like a bell

(as) clear as a bell see [1]CLEAR

(as) sound as a bell see [3]SOUND

give (someone) a bell Brit, informal : to call someone on the telephone ▪ I'll give you a bell [=give you a call] tomorrow.

have/get your bell rung ✧ In informal U.S. and Canadian English, if you have/get your bell rung, you get hit hard on the head. ▪ The hockey/football player had his bell rung during the play.

ring a bell see [3]RING

bel•la•don•na /ˌbɛlə'dɑ:nə/ noun [noncount]

1 : a poisonous plant that has reddish bell-shaped flowers — called also deadly nightshade

2 : a drug made from the belladonna plant

bell–bot•toms /'bɛl'bɑ:təmz/ noun [plural] : pants with legs that become much wider at the bottom ▪ She was wearing (a pair of) bell-bottoms. — called also flares

– bell–bottom adj ▪ bell-bottom jeans/trousers

bell•boy /'bɛlˌboɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] : BELLHOP

belle /'bɛl/ noun, pl belles [count] old-fashioned : a very attractive and popular girl or woman ▪ a Southern belle ▪ She was the belle of the ball. [=the most beautiful and popular woman at a dance, party, etc.]

bell•hop /'bɛlˌhɑ:p/ noun, pl -hops [count] chiefly US : a boy or man who takes hotel guests to their rooms, carries luggage, etc. — called also bellboy

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

bel•li•cose /ˈbɛlɪˌkoʊs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing a tendency to argue or fight ▪ a bellicose general ▪ bellicose [=combative] behavior ▪ bellicose language/statements
– bel•li•cos•i•ty /ˌbɛlɪˈkɑːsəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]bel•lig•er•ent /bəˈlɪʤərənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : angry and aggressive : feeling or showing readiness to fight ▪ a belligerent remark ▪ He was drunk and belligerent.
2 always used before a noun, formal : fighting a war : engaged in a war ▪ belligerent nations/states
– bel•lig•er•ence /bəˈlɪʤərəns/ also bel•lig•er•en•cy /bəˈlɪʤərənsi/ noun [noncount] – bel•lig•er•ent•ly adv

[2]belligerent noun, pl -ents [count] formal : a group or country that is fighting a war ▪ An international group is trying to negotiate a cease-fire between the belligerents.

bel•low /ˈbɛloʊ/ verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing
1 : to shout in a deep voice [no obj] He bellowed at/to/for her to come over at once. ▪ He was bellowing into the phone, giving orders to one of his employees. [+ obj] The sergeant was bellowing orders. ▪ "You're fired!" he bellowed.
2 [no obj] of an animal : to make a deep, loud sound ▪ The bull bellowed angrily.
– bellow noun, pl -lows [count] ▪ He let loose with an angry bellow. ▪ a bellow of anger/rage ▪ the bellow of a bull bel•lows /ˈbɛloʊz/ noun [plural] : a device that produces a strong current of air when its sides are pressed together ▪ the bellows of an accordion ✧ Bellows is used with both plural and singular verbs. ▪ Bellows were used to help start the fire. = A (pair of) bellows was used to help start the fire.

bell pepper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] chiefly US : a large pepper with a mild flavor ▪ a red/green bell pepper bells and whistles noun [plural] informal : parts and features that are useful or appealing but not essential or necessary : FRILLS ▪ The car was equipped with all the bells and whistles you could ask for.

bell•weth•er /ˈbɛlˈwɛðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone or something that leads others or shows what will happen in the future ▪ She is a bellwether of fashion. ▪ High-tech bellwethers led the decline in the stock market. ▪ a county that is a bellwether in national elections

[1]bel•ly /ˈbɛli/ noun, pl bel•lies [count]
1 a : a person's stomach or the part of the body that contains the stomach ▪ My belly was full. ▪ He got down on his belly to crawl. ▪ They slid down the snowy hill on their bellies. ▪ a kick in the belly [=abdomen] — see also BEER BELLY, POTBELLY b : the part of an animal's body that is like a person's belly ▪ a horse's belly ▪ a gray squirrel with a white belly — see also UNDERBELLY
2 : a curved or rounded surface or part ▪ the belly of an airplane ▪ the belly of a ship/violin
– bel•lied adj — used in combination ▪ a red-bellied woodpecker — see also YELLOW-BELLIED

[2]belly verb bel•lies; bel•lied; bel•ly•ing : to cause (something, such as a sail) to curve or bulge outward [+ obj] The wind bellied (out) the sails of the ship. [no obj] The sails of the ship bellied [=bulged] out in the wind.
belly up to [phrasal verb] belly up to (someone or something) US, informal : to walk to or toward (someone or something) ▪ The men bellied up to the bar.

[1]bel•ly•ache /ˈbɛliˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : a pain in the stomach : STOMACHACHE [count] He ate too much chili and it gave him a bellyache. [noncount] (Brit) ▪ He ate too much chili and it gave him bellyache.

[2]bellyache verb -aches; -ached; -ach•ing [no obj] informal : to complain in an annoying way ▪ He was bellyaching about how long it took to get a table at the restaurant.
– bellyaching noun ▪ I'm tired of listening to his bellyaching.

belly button noun, pl ~ -tons [count] informal : NAVEL belly dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] : a type of Middle Eastern dance done by a woman who makes rhythmic movements with her hips and belly – belly dance verb ~ dances; ~ danced; ~ dancing [no obj] – belly dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – belly dancing noun [noncount] ▪ taught a class in belly dancing

belly op noun, pl ~ ops [count] informal : a poorly done dive in which the front of the body lands flat on the surface of the water ▪ She did a belly flop into the pool.
– belly op verb ~ ops; ~ opped; ~ opping [no obj] ▪ She belly flopped into the pool.

bel•ly•ful /ˈbɛliˌfʊl/ noun [singular] informal : a large amount of something ▪ The movie provides a bellyful of laughs. — often used to express irritation or annoyance ▪ I've had a bellyful of him and his advice. [=I'm sick of him and his advice; I do not want any more of his advice] belly laugh noun, pl ~ laughs [count] : a deep and loud laugh ▪ He has an infectious belly laugh. ▪ The show provided lots of belly laughs.

bel•ly–up /ˈbɛliˈʌp/ adj go belly-up informal : to fail completely ▪ The team went belly-up in the play-offs. ▪ The business went belly-up [=went bankrupt] during the long recession.

be•long /bɪˈlɑːŋ/ verb -longs; -longed; -long•ing [no obj]
1 — used to say that someone or something should be in a particular place or situation ▪ This book belongs [=goes] on the top shelf. ▪ Put the groceries away where they belong. ▪ Those kids really belong in school. [=they should be in school] ▪ Does that item really belong on the list? ▪ A dictionary belongs in every home. [=every home should have a dictionary] ▪ A sick person belongs in bed. ▪ A man with his abilities belongs in teaching. [=he should be a teacher] ▪ Whales belong among the mammals, not fish. [=whales are mammals, not fish; whales are classified as mammals] ▪ She and her husband are a perfect couple. They belong together. ▪ They belong with each other.
2 : to be accepted and liked by the other people in a group ▪ She was here for 15 years, but she never really belonged.
belong to [phrasal verb] 1 belong to (someone) : to be the property of (someone) : to be owned by (someone) ▪ The money belongs to him. [=the money is his] ▪ That watch belongs to me. ▪ The house belongs not just to her, but to her husband as well. ▪ His style belongs only to himself. [=no one else has his style] 2 belong to (something) a : to be a member of (a club, organization, etc.) ▪ The family belongs to a country club. ▪ Most of the company's employees belong to an HMO. b : to be included in (a category, group, etc.) ▪ What family does that bird belong to? c : to be a part of (something) : to be connected with (something) ▪ the parts belonging to the clock – belonging noun [noncount] ▪ The kindness that they showed to her when she first arrived gave her a real sense/feeling of belonging.

be•long•ings /bɪˈlɑːŋɪŋz/ noun [plural] : the things that belong to a person : POSSESSIONS ▪ They gathered their belongings and left. ▪ She left a pile of belongings next to her chair. ▪ Be sure to take your personal belongings [=items that are yours and are small enough to be carried] with you when you get off the bus.

be•loved /bɪˈlʌvəd, bɪˈlʌvd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very much loved : dearly loved ▪ my own beloved grandmother ▪ He is a beloved public figure. ▪ an actor beloved by/of millions of fans ▪ one of the city's most beloved buildings – beloved noun, pl -loveds [count] literary ▪ She saw her beloved [=the person she loved] approaching. ✧ The phrase dearly beloved is often used at the beginning of a Christian wedding ceremony to address the people who are there. ▪ Dearly beloved, we are gathered here today . . .

[1]be•low /bɪˈloʊ/ adv
1 : in or to a lower place ▪ The pencil rolled off the desk and fell to the floor below. ▪ The pilot looked down at the sea far below. ▪ We heard the elevator stop at the floor below. ✧ The opposite of every sense of below is above.
2 : on or to a lower deck on a ship or boat ▪ They secured the goods on deck and went below. ▪ The captain ordered the men below. [=ordered them to go below the main deck]
3 : in or to a lower rank or number ▪ All personnel, captain and below, were ordered to report for duty. ▪ The game is suitable for children at age 10 and below. [=younger, under]
4 : lower than zero ▪ The temperature ranged from 5 below to 10 above. [=from –5 degrees to 10 degrees Fahrenheit]
5 : lower, further down, or later on the same page or on a following page : at a later point in the same document ▪ The results of the test are discussed/explained/listed/shown below. ▪ See the graph below.
from below : from a lower place ▪ We heard voices calling from below. ▪ I felt a draft from below.

[2]below prep
1 : in or to a lower place than (something) : BENEATH ▪ Our apartment is below theirs. ▪ She wore a skirt that reached below her knees. = The bottom of her skirt was below her knees. ▪ We could see only clouds below us. ▪ The diver descended below 25 meters. ▪ The sun disappeared below the horizon. ▪ a spot directly below us ▪ the valley far below us ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

just/slightly below the horizon ✧ The opposite of every sense of below is above.

2 : lower in number, amount, or size than (something) : less than (something) ▪ Temperatures were below average/normal all week. ▪ The game is suitable for children below [=younger than, under] the age of 10. ▪ She worked for wage rates below those of other workers.

3 : less important or powerful than (someone) : having a lower rank than (someone) ▪ A lieutenant is below a captain. [=a captain outranks a lieutenant] ▪ He ranks far below his superior.

4 : in a lower or less important position than (something) ▪ He puts his own needs below his child's needs.

[1]belt /ˈbɛlt/ noun, pl belts [count]

1 : a band of material (such as leather) that is worn around a person's waist ▪ I fastened/unfastened the buckle on my belt. = I buckled/unbuckled my belt. ▪ I tied the belt of my robe. — see color picture on page C14; see also BLACK BELT, GARTER BELT, SAFETY BELT, SEAT BELT

2 : a band that runs around wheels or other parts in a machine and that is used for moving or carrying something — see also FAN BELT

3 : a region that has a lot of a particular thing ▪ a belt of hilly land [=an area with many hills] ▪ a storm belt ▪ the farm/farming belt ▪ the corn/cotton belt [=a region with many farms growing corn/cotton] ▪ an asteroid belt ▪ (chiefly US) cities in the Rust Belt [=an area formerly known for industry and manufacturing] — see also BIBLE BELT, SUNBELT

below the belt informal : too harsh and unfair ▪ That remark was below the belt. = That remark really hit (him) below the belt. ✧ The phrase below the belt comes from the sport of boxing, where it is against the rules to hit your opponent anywhere below the belt.

tighten your belt : to begin to spend less money : to make changes in order to save money ▪ Many companies are tightening their belts during the recession. — see also BELT-TIGHTENING under your belt : as an achievement or as part of your experience ▪ She has a best-selling book under her belt. [=she has written a best-selling book] ▪ an actor who has several films under his belt [=who has appeared in several films] ▪ He finally has a full year of experience under his belt.

– compare [3]BELT

– belt•ed /ˈbɛltəd/ adj ▪ a belted coat/jacket/robe

[2]belt verb belts; belt•ed; belt•ing

1 [+ obj] : to fasten (something) with a belt ▪ His bathrobe was loosely belted.

2 [+ obj] informal : to hit (someone or something) hard ▪ He belted the ball down the fairway. ▪ belt a home run ▪ Some drunk got mad and threatened to belt me.

3 [+ obj] informal : to sing (a song) in a loud and forceful way — usually + out ▪ a singer belting out tunes at the top of her lungs

4 always followed by an adverb [+ obj] US, informal : to drink (something) quickly ▪ He belted down a shot of whiskey. ▪ belting back a drink belt up [phrasal verb] Brit 1 : to fasten a seat belt in a car or other vehicle ▪ When you're riding in a car, you should always belt up [=(US) buckle up] for safety. 2 informal : to stop talking ▪ Will you just belt up [=shut up] for once?

5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to move or go at a high speed ▪ The car was belting down/along the highway.

[3]belt noun, pl belts [count] informal

1 : a hard hit ▪ Some drunk got mad and threatened to give me a belt. [=punch]

2 US, informal : a drink of alcohol ▪ He had a few belts (of whiskey) before dinner.

– compare [1]BELT

belt•er /ˈbɛltɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : a singer with a powerful voice : a singer who belts out songs ▪ a legendary blues belter

belt–tight•en•ing /ˈbɛltˌtaɪtn̩ɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a reduction in spending : changes that are made in order to save money ▪ The recession has caused many companies to do some belt-tightening. — often used before another noun ▪ a belt-tightening measure/move/policy — see also tighten your belt at [1]BELT belt•way /ˈbɛltˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways

1 [count] US : a highway that goes around a city ▪ an urban beltway — called also (Brit) orbital

2 the Beltway : the political and social world of Washington, D.C. ▪ politics inside the Beltway ▪ Her influence extends beyond the Beltway.

– Beltway adj, always used before a noun ▪ Beltway politicians/politics [=the politicians/politics of Washington, D.C.]

be•moan /bɪˈmoʊn/ verb -moans; -moaned; -moan•ing [+ obj] : to say that you are unhappy about (something) ▪ He bemoans the fact that the team lost again. ▪ an article bemoaning the decline in voter turnout : to complain about (something) ▪ Some critics are always bemoaning the state of the language.

be•muse /bɪˈmjuːz/ verb -mus•es; -mused; -mus•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be confused and often also somewhat amused — usually used as (be) bemused ▪ He thought of himself as an ordinary man, and he was bemused by all the attention that he was receiving.

– bemused adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She had a bemused expression/smile on her face. – be•mus•ed•ly /bɪˈmuːzədli/ adv ▪ She smiled bemusedly. – be•muse•ment /bɪˈmjuːzmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ She smiled in/with bemusement.

[1]bench /ˈbɛnʧ/ noun, pl bench•es bench

1 [count] : a long and usually hard seat for two or more people ▪ a park bench

2 the bench law a : the place where a judge sits in a court of law ▪ The lawyer asked if he could approach the bench. b : the position or rank of a judge ▪ her recent appointment to the bench

3 [count] : a long table for holding tools and work ▪ a carpenter's bench

4 sports a *the bench : a long seat where the members of a sports team wait for a chance to play ▪ He spent most of his season on the bench. [=he did not play in many games] ▪ He plays better coming off the bench. [=coming into the game after it has started] b [count] chiefly US : the players on a team who do not usually play at the start of a game : the reserve players on a team — usually singular ▪ The team's bench is deep. = The team has a deep bench. [=the team had many good players in addition to its main players] — often used before another noun ▪ a bench player [=a reserve player; a player who is part of a team's bench]

[2]bench verb bench•es; benched; bench•ing [+ obj] US, sports : to not allow (a player) to play in a game : to put (a player) on the bench ▪ The manager benched one of his most popular players. ▪ He was benched for several games by a leg injury. [=he was forced to miss several games because of a leg injury]

bench•mark /ˈbɛnʧˌmɑəːk/ noun, pl -marks [count] : something that can be used as a way to judge the quality or level of other, similar things ▪ a stock whose performance is a benchmark against which other stocks can be measured bench press noun, pl ~ press•es [count] : a lift or exercise in which a weight is raised by pushing your arms upward while you lie on a bench – bench–press verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing [+ obj] ▪ He can bench-press 350 pounds.

bench seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] : a long seat in a vehicle (such as a car) that goes across the full width of the passenger section bench•warm•er /ˈbɛnʧˌwɑəmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, sports : a player who is not among the best players on a team and does not often play : a reserve player who is usually on the bench ▪ I played a little, but mostly I was a benchwarmer.

[1]bend /ˈbɛnd/ verb bends; bent /ˈbɛnt/; bend•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to use force to cause (something, such as a wire or pipe) to become curved ▪ bend a wire into a circle ▪ bend the cable around a wheel ▪ He bent the bow and shot an arrow from it. ▪ His glasses got bent when he dropped them. b [no obj] : to curve out of a straight line or position ▪ The road bends [=curves, turns] to the left. ▪ The trees were bending in the wind. ▪ The branch will bend before it breaks. ▪ The branches of the fruit tree were bending under their own weight. [=were bending because they were so heavy] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She refused to bend under pressure to change her decision. ▪ a politician accused of bending to the will of wealthy supporters [=being influenced

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

by wealthy supporters; doing the things that are wanted by wealthy supporters]

2 a [no obj] : to move your body so that it is not straight ▪ She bent down/over/forward to pick up a piece of paper and then she straightened up again. ▪ He bent back to look up at the ceiling. ▪ bend to the left and then bend to the right ▪ bend at the waist ▪ He bent double with pain. [=he bent forward from the waist because he was in extreme pain] b [+ obj] : to move (part of your body, such as an arm or leg) so that it is not straight ▪ bend a knee ▪ bend a leg ▪ bend an arm ▪ bend [=tilt] your head ✧ In formal language, if you bend yourself to or bend your strength/energy/efforts (etc.) to/toward something (such as a job or task), you work hard in order to do it. ▪ He has bent himself [=applied himself] to the task of making the company more efficient and profitable. ▪ They are bending their efforts toward completing the job on time. ▪ They bent their minds to [=gave a lot of thought to; thought hard about] the problem.

bend a rule : to not be strict or exact about following a rule ▪ She's not really quite old enough to be admitted as a member, but she's very close, so I think we can bend the rule(s) a little in her case and let her in now.

bend over backward see [1]BACKWARD bend someone's ear informal : to talk to someone for a long time ▪ He didn't really care about me, he just wanted to bend my ear about his own problems.

bend (the) facts : to change facts in a dishonest way in order to deceive people ▪ a journalist who has been accused of bending the facts in order to gain support for his political agenda bend the truth : to say something that is not true or that misleads people but that is usually not regarded as a serious or harmful lie ▪ When he tells people he's from Manhattan he's bending the truth a little since he really grew up in Brooklyn.

on bended knee also on bended knees : in a kneeling position : in the position of someone who is kneeling on one knee ▪ He proposed to her on bended knee. = He got down on bended knee and proposed to her. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was forced to ask for their help on bended knee. [=he was forced to beg for their help; he was forced to ask for their help in a very humble way]

[2]bend noun, pl bends

1 [count] : a curved part of something ▪ a bend in a road/stream ▪ They live just around/past the next bend (in the road). ▪ the graceful bends [=curves] of the stairway

2 [count] : the act or process of bending something ▪ a quick bend of the body ▪ knee bends

3 the bends medical : a painful and dangerous condition caused by rising to the surface too quickly after being deep underwater — called also decompression sickness

around the bend (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit round the bend informal 1 : CRAZY ▪ The pressure of his job nearly drove him around the bend. ▪ He almost went around the bend. ▪ If you ask me, she's completely round the bend. 2 US : occurring soon ▪ The end of summer is just/right around the bend. [=around the corner]

– bendy /ˈbɛndi/ adj bend•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal ▪ a bendy [=flexible] toy ▪ a bendy road [=a road with many curves] bend•er /ˈbɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a period when someone gets very drunk ▪ He went on a bender and was drunk all weekend. — see also FENDER BENDER

[1]be•neath /bɪˈniːθ/ adv : in or to a lower position : BELOW ▪ the mountains and the towns beneath ▪ the sky above and the earth beneath ▪ an awning with chairs and tables beneath ▪ The ground beneath is covered with flowers.

[2]beneath prep

1 a : in or to a lower position than (something or someone) : BELOW ▪ the sky above us and the earth beneath us ▪ just beneath the surface of the water ▪ The painting is hanging on the wall with a plaque beneath it. — opposite ABOVE b : directly under (something or someone) ▪ the ground beneath [=underneath] her feet ▪ We had a picnic beneath a large tree. ▪ The paper was hidden beneath a pile of books. ▪ She wore a sweater beneath her coat.

2 : not worthy of (someone) : not good enough for (someone) ▪ He won't do any work that he considers beneath him. [=work that he thinks is not good enough for a person of his social class] ▪ She refused to marry beneath her. [=to marry someone with a lower social standing than hers] — opposite ABOVE

3 : under the pressure or influence of (something) ▪ The chair sagged beneath [=under, underneath] his weight. [=his weight caused the chair to sag]

4 : hidden under (something) ▪ He has a warm heart beneath [=under, underneath] his gruff manner.

from beneath : from a place below or under (something) ▪ She gazed at us from beneath the brim of her hat.

bene•dic•tion /ˌbɛnəˈdɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a prayer that asks for God's blessing [count] He dismissed the congregation with a benediction. [noncount] a prayer of benediction

ben•e•fac•tor /ˈbɛnəˌfæktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : someone who helps another person, group, etc., by giving money ▪ With the help of a rich benefactor he set up a charity. ▪ an anonymous benefactor

ben•e•fac•tress /ˈbɛnəˌfæktrɪs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a woman who helps another person, group, etc., by giving money : a female benefactor ▪ a wealthy benefactress be•nef•i•cent /bəˈnɛfəsənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : doing or producing good ▪ a beneficent leader ▪ a humane and beneficent policy

– be•nef•i•cence /bəˈnɛfəsəns/ noun [noncount]

ben•e• •cial /ˌbɛnəˈfɪʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : producing good or helpful results or effects : producing benefits ▪ He hopes the new drug will prove beneficial to/for many people. ▪ Regular exercise has many beneficial health effects. ▪ They have a relationship that is beneficial to/for both of them. ▪ Some insects are harmful but others are beneficial.

– ben•e• •cial•ly adv

ben•e• •ci•ary /ˌbɛnəˈfɪʃiˌeri, Brit ˌbɛnəˈfɪʃəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count]

1 : a person, organization, etc., that is helped by something : someone or something that benefits from something ▪ Who will be the main beneficiaries of these economic reforms? [=who will be helped by these economic reforms?] ▪ The college was a beneficiary of the private grant.

2 : a person, organization, etc., that receives money or property when someone dies ▪ Her father named her the beneficiary of his life insurance policy. [=she will receive the money from her father's insurance policy if he dies] ▪ She has made the school the sole beneficiary of/in her will. [=her will says that all her money and property should go to the school when she dies]

[1]ben•e• t /ˈbɛnəˌfɪt/ noun, pl - ts

1 : a good or helpful result or effect [count] the benefits of fresh air and sunshine ▪ A benefit of museum membership is that purchases are discounted. ▪ There are many financial benefits to owning your own home. ▪ She is just now starting to reap/enjoy the benefits of all her hard work. ▪ The benefits of taking the drug outweigh its risks. [noncount] I see no benefit in changing the system now. ▪ We're lucky to be able to get the full benefit of/from her knowledge. ▪ These changes will be of benefit to all of you. [=will help/benefit all of you] ▪ These changes will be to your benefit. [=will help you] ▪ I'm not doing it for myself; I'm doing it for your benefit. [=to help you; for your sake] ▪ Since he owns the land, he thinks he should be free to use it for his own benefit. [=in a way that is helpful to him]

2 a : money that is paid by a company (such as an insurance company) or by a government when someone dies, becomes sick, stops working, etc. [count] He began collecting his retirement benefits when he was 65. ▪ a disability benefit ▪ (Brit) a family on benefits [=(US) on welfare; receiving money from the government because of a low income or lack of income] [noncount] He began collecting his retirement benefit when he was 65. ▪ (Brit) He is on housing/unemployment benefit. — see also CHILD BENEFIT, DEATH BENEFIT, SICKNESS BENEFIT b [count] : something extra (such as vacation time or health insurance) that is given by an employer to workers in addition to their regular pay : FRINGE BENEFIT ▪ The company provides health (insurance) benefits. ▪ The job doesn't pay much, but the benefits are good. — often used before another noun ▪ a company with a good benefit plan/package/program

3 [count] : a social event to raise money for a person or cause ▪ The school is having/holding a benefit to raise money for a new gymnasium. ▪ a charity benefit — often used before another noun ▪ a benefit concert/dinner/event/performance have the benefit of : to be helped by (something) : to be able to use (something) ▪ Her judgment will be better when she has the benefit of more experience.

the benefit of the doubt ✧ When people give you the bene- fit of the doubt, they treat you as someone who is honest or deserving of trust even though they are not sure that you really are. ▪ He might be lying, but we have to give him the benefit of the doubt and accept what he says for now.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

without the benefit of or US without benefit of : without the help of (something or someone) ▪ The band had to perform without benefit of a rehearsal. ▪ He was able to learn a great deal without the benefit of formal schooling. ▪ You shouldn't try to handle this problem without benefit of a lawyer. ▪ They lived together without (the) benefit of marriage. [=without being married] with the benefit of : with the help of (something) : by using (something) ▪ With the benefit of hindsight, he saw where he had made a mistake. ▪ She'll do better with the benefit of more experience.

[2]benefit verb -fits; -fit•ed also -fit•ted; -fit•ing also -fit•ting
1 [+ obj] : to be useful or helpful to (someone or something) ▪ The new plan may benefit many students. ▪ medicines that benefit thousands of people ▪ These changes will benefit all of you. = All of you will be benefited by these changes. ▪ The politician held a fund-raiser to benefit his campaign. ▪ Some critics say that the tax cuts only benefit wealthy people.
2 [no obj] : to be helped ▪ He'll benefit by having experiences I never did. — often + from ▪ I benefited from the experience. ▪ Many patients will benefit from the new drug. ▪ All of you will benefit from these changes. ▪ Some critics say that only wealthy people will benefit from the tax cuts.

be•nev•o•lent /bəˈnɛvələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : kind and generous ▪ a benevolent company/government ▪ a gift from a benevolent donor
2 : organized to do good things for other people ▪ He belonged to several benevolent societies and charitable organizations.
– be•nev•o•lence /bəˈnɛvələns/ noun [noncount] ▪ The king's benevolence [=kindness, generosity] was known throughout the land. – be•nev•o•lent•ly adv

Ben•gali /bɛnˈgɑːli/ noun, pl -gal•is 1 [count] : a person born or living in Bangladesh or in a state in northeastern India called West Bengal
2 [noncount] : a language spoken in Bangladesh and West Bengal
– Bengali adj ▪ Bengali literature be•night•ed /bɪˈnaɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having no knowledge or education ▪ These benighted [=ignorant, unenlightened] souls/people have so much to learn. ▪ a strange, benighted country

be•nign /bɪˈnaɪn/ adj
1 medical a : not causing death or serious injury ▪ a benign infection/disease b : without cancer : not cancerous ▪ benign brain tumors ▪ We were happy to hear that the tumor was benign. — opposite MALIGNANT
2 : not causing harm or damage ▪ This chemical is environmentally benign. [=it does not hurt the environment] ▪ He has a benign [=harmless] habit of biting his fingernails.
3 [more ~; most ~] : mild and pleasant ▪ benign [=favorable] weather conditions ▪ a benign climate
4 [more ~; most ~] : gentle and kind ▪ a friendly, benign teacher
5 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a belief that nothing bad will happen ▪ She takes a benign view of her husband's spending habits. [=she does not worry about her husband's spending habits]
– be•nign•ly adv ▪ He smiled benignly at his students.

[1]bent /ˈbɛnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a shape that is changed by bending : not straight ▪ a bent metal wire ▪ bent arms/elbows ▪ With your knees/legs slightly bent, bend forward and touch your toes. ▪ He was bent double with pain. [=he was bending forward from the waist because he was in extreme pain]
2 chiefly Brit, informal : not honest ▪ a bent [=corrupt] cop bent on also bent upon : having a strong desire to do (something) ▪ The doctors are bent on finding a cure. [=they are determined to find a cure] ▪ She now seems bent on winning the competition. ▪ They're bent upon destroying the world. — see also HELL-BENT bent out of shape US, informal : very angry or unhappy ▪ Don't get all bent out of shape [=upset]. Nothing bad happened!

[2]bent noun, pl bents [count] : an attraction to or an interest in a particular thing or activity ▪ an organization with a strong religious bent : a natural talent or interest ▪ students with a creative/scientific bent [=leaning]

[3]bent past tense and past participle of [1]BEND be•numb /bɪˈnʌm/ verb -numbs; -numbed; -numb•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone) numb or unable to have emotions — usually used as benumbed ▪ After years of war, they had become benumbed [=numb] to violence. [=violence no longer caused them to feel strong emotions]

ben•zene /ˈbɛnˌziːn/ noun [noncount] : a liquid chemical that is used to make plastics, fuel for automobiles, and other substances be•queath /bɪˈkwiːθ, bɪˈkwiːð/ verb -queaths; -queathed; -queath•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to say in a will that (your property) will be given to (a person or organization) after you die ▪ I bequeath this ring to my sister. = I bequeath my sister this ring. ▪ He bequeathed his paintings to the museum.
2 : to give (ideas, knowledge, etc.) to (younger people) as part of their history ▪ These stories were bequeathed [=handed down, passed down] to us by our ancestors. ▪ Lessons of the past are bequeathed to future generations.

be•quest /bɪˈkwɛst/ noun, pl -quests [count] : the property or money that you promise in your will to give to another person or organization after you die ▪ He made a bequest of his paintings to the museum.

be•rate /bɪˈreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj] formal : to yell at (someone) : to criticize (someone) in a loud and angry way ▪ She berated [=scolded] her son for coming home late.

be•reaved /bɪˈriːvd/ adj, formal : sad because a family member or friend has recently died ▪ the bereaved parents/families of the victims
the bereaved : a bereaved person or group of people ▪ The minister tried to comfort the bereaved.

be•reave•ment /bɪˈriːvmənt/ noun, pl -ments formal
1 [noncount] : the state of being sad because a family member or friend has recently died ▪ a period of bereavement
2 : the death of a family member or friend [noncount] a period of grief after bereavement [count] people who have recently suffered bereavements be•reft /bɪˈrɛft/ adj : sad because a family member or friend has died ▪ the young soldier's bereft [=(more commonly) bereaved] mother bereft of : not having (something that is needed, wanted, or expected) ▪ They appear to be completely bereft of new ideas. [=to be completely without new ideas] ▪ He was bereft of all hope. ▪ a man bereft of reason be•ret /bəˈreɪ/ noun, pl -rets [count] : a round hat with a tight band around the head and a top that is flat, soft, and loose — see picture at HAT

berk /ˈbɝk/ noun, pl berks [count] Brit slang : a stupid or foolish person ▪ He was acting like a complete berk.

berm /ˈbɝm/ noun, pl berms [count] chiefly US : a small hill or wall of dirt or sand ▪ A landscaped berm [=a hill decorated with plants and flowers] separates the two roads.

Ber•mu•da shorts /bɝˈmjuːdə-/ noun [plural] : short pants that reach down to the knees ber•ry /ˈberi/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a small fruit (such as a strawberry, blueberry, or raspberry) that has many small seeds

ber•serk /bəˈsɝk, bɝˈzɝk/ adj : crazy and violent especially because of anger ▪ berserk behavior go berserk 1 : to become very angry, crazy, and violent ▪ A worker went berserk and killed his boss. 2 : to become very excited ▪ The crowd was going berserk. [=going wild]

[1]berth /ˈbɝθ/ noun, pl berths [count]
1 : a place to sleep on a ship, train, etc. ▪ a comfortable cabin with a deep berth ▪ an upper/lower berth
2 : a place in the water near the shore where a ship stops and stays
3 chiefly US : a place or position on a team ▪ She won an Olympic berth. = She earned a berth on her country's Olympic team. ▪ He has a starting berth on the all-star team.
give (someone or something) a wide berth : to avoid or stay away from (someone or something) ▪ I could see that she was in a bad mood, so I gave her a wide berth.

[2]berth verb berths; berthed; berth•ing : to bring (a ship) into a place where it can stop and stay : to bring (a ship) into a berth [+ obj] The ship was berthed at this pier. [no obj] The ship berthed at this pier.

be•seech /bɪˈsiːʧ/ verb -seech•es; -sought /bɪˈsɑt/ or -seeched; -seech•ing [+ obj] formal + literary : to beg (someone) for something : to ask (someone) in a serious and

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

emotional way to do something ▪ I beseech you, let me live! [=please, don't kill me] ▪ Oh, kind and gracious king, we beseech [=implore, entreat] you to set us free!

– beseeching adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She gave the king a beseeching look. – be•seech•ing•ly adv

be•set /bɪˈsɛt/ verb -sets; -set; -set•ting [+ obj] : to cause problems or difficulties for (someone or something) ▪ A lack of money is the greatest problem besetting the city today. — usually used as (be) beset ▪ He was beset by/with injuries this season. [=he suffered many injuries this season] ▪ a city beset by/with economic problems besetting sin noun, pl ~ sins [count] : a main or constant problem or fault ▪ My besetting sin is a fondness for sweets.

be•side /bɪˈsaɪd/ prep

1 : by the side of (someone or something) : next to (someone or something) ▪ She sat beside him during dinner. ▪ The man beside her was wearing a brown suit and hat. ▪ They were walking beside me. ▪ Stand beside the statue and I'll take your picture. ▪ Their house is beside a small lake.

2 : in comparison with (something) ▪ These problems seem unimportant beside the potential benefits of the new system.

beside the point : not related to the main idea that is being discussed : not important ▪ No one knows what we did, but that's beside the point. What we did was wrong.

beside yourself : not thinking clearly because you are feeling very strong emotions : in a state of extreme excitement ▪ We were beside ourselves with anger/worry/embarrassment/joy. ▪ He was beside himself [=very upset] after hearing the bad news.

[1]be•sides /bɪˈsaɪdz/ prep

1 : other than (someone or something) ▪ There's no one here besides [=except] me. ▪ Nothing besides [=but] a miracle could save them now. ▪ The traffic was a little heavy but, besides [=except for] that, we had no problems getting here.

2 : in addition to (something) ▪ She wants to learn other languages besides English and French. ▪ Besides its famous cakes, the bakery also makes delicious breads and cookies. ▪ These salads are delicious besides being healthy. ▪ I'm not ready to get married yet. Besides which, I enjoy living alone.

[2]besides adv

1 : as well : ALSO ▪ They serve pasta and many other foods besides.

2 : in addition to what has been said ▪ The play is excellent, and besides [=(more formally) furthermore, moreover], the tickets don't cost much. ▪ I'm not ready to get married yet. Besides, I enjoy living alone.

be•siege /bɪˈsiːʤ/ verb -sieg•es; -sieged; -sieg•ing [+ obj]

1 : to surround a city, building, etc., with soldiers and try to take control of it ▪ The army beseiged the castle.

2 : to gather around (someone) in a way that is aggressive, annoying, etc. — usually used as (be) besieged ▪ They were besieged by reporters while leaving the courthouse. ▪ politicians being besieged by the media

3 : to overwhelm (someone) with too many questions or requests for things ▪ Customers have besieged the company with questions. — usually used as (be) besieged ▪ Every day, her office is besieged [=bombarded] with letters/questions/complaints about the problem.

be•smirch /bɪˈsmərʧ/ verb -smirch•es; -smirched; -smirch•ing [+ obj] : to cause harm or damage to (the reputation of someone or something) ▪ He has besmirched [=sullied] her reputation/name/honor by telling lies about her. [=he has caused people to have a low opinion of her]

be•sot•ted /bɪˈsɑːtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : loving someone or something so much that you cannot think clearly ▪ her besotted lover ▪ He was completely besotted with/by her. [=infatuated with her]

be•speak /bɪˈspiːk/ verb -speaks; -spoke /bɪˈspoʊk/; -spo•ken /bɪˈspoʊkən/; -speak•ing [+ obj] formal : to be evidence of (something) : to be a sign of (something) ▪ Her newest album bespeaks a great talent for writing songs.

be•spec•ta•cled /bɪˈspɛktəkəld/ adj : wearing glasses ▪ a bespectacled student be•spoke /bɪˈspoʊk/ adj : made to fit a particular person : CUSTOM-MADE ▪ a bespoke suit; also : producing clothes that are made to fit a particular person ▪ a bespoke tailor

[1]best /ˈbɛst/ adj, superlative form of [1]GOOD or of [2]WELL

1 a : better than all others in quality or value ▪ You should wear your best clothes tonight. ▪ He took us to the (very) best restaurants in the city. ▪ We ate the best food and drank the best wines. ▪ You're our best customers. ▪ His modesty and sense of humor are his best qualities. ▪ Is that your best offer? ▪ I've had the best time with you! [=I've had a very enjoyable time with you] ▪ The best [=most valuable] things in life are free. ▪ Which of these do you think tastes best? ▪ Mary sends you her very best wishes/regards. ▪ He's my best friend. [=my closest/dearest friend] = He and I are best friends. b : most skillful, talented, or successful ▪ She's the best student in her class. ▪ He won the award for best actor in a drama. ▪ the team's best player

2 : most appropriate, useful, or helpful ▪ She truly believes that this is the best way to solve the problem. ▪ She's the team's best hope/chance for a medal. ▪ She thought waiting was best. = She thought that the best thing to do was to wait. = She thought that it was best to wait. ▪ It's best to leave early if you want to be sure of arriving on time. ▪ We want to do what's best for you. ▪ He's the best man for the job. ▪ You should do whatever you think is the best thing to do. = You should do whatever you think best. ▪ We're making the best possible use of these materials.

best of all ✧ The phrase best of all is often used to refer to the most important or appealing part of something that has many good parts. ▪ The machine is easy to use, easy to clean, and best of all, it's absolutely free when you order these books.

next best ✧ A person or thing that is next best is not as good as the best person or thing but is better than all others. ▪ The shortstop is the best player on the team, and the catcher is the next best player. ▪ We can't see each other often, but calling each other on the telephone is the next best thing.

on your best behavior ✧ If you are on your best behavior you are behaving very politely and well. ▪ Remember to be on your best behavior with your grandmother. ▪ The children promised to be on their best behavior.

[2]best adv, superlative form of [1]WELL

1 : in the best way : in a way that is better than all others ▪ The sauce is best served/eaten/enjoyed cold. ▪ His cooking is best described as spicy. = It can best be described as spicy. : with the most success or benefit ▪ They work best under pressure. ▪ That's what we do best! ▪ We need to think about how best to fix this problem. ▪ This is a job best left to the professionals. [=it's better/best to allow professional workers to do this job] ▪ Some things are best left unsaid. [=it's better/best not to talk about some things]

2 : to the greatest degree or extent : MOST ▪ That's the one we liked (the) best. ▪ The work should be done by the people who are best able to do it. ▪ She's best suited to life in the city. ▪ He is best known for his invention of the lightbulb. ▪ The museum features some of the best-known examples of this style of painting. ▪ the industry's best-kept secret as best you can or the best (that) you can : as well, skillfully, or accurately as you can ▪ She answered their questions as best she could. [=as well as she could] ▪ You don't have to do it perfectly. Just do it the best you can.

had best ✧ If you had best do something, you should do it. ▪ You'd best get ready for school. [=you'd better get ready for school; you should get ready for school] ▪ *Had*n't you best get ready for school?

[3]best noun [singular]

1 the best : the best person or thing ▪ Out of all of my workers, he's the best. ▪ Our company is the best in the business. ▪ Thanks, Dad. You're the best! ▪ I have one more gift for you, and I saved the best for last. : the best group of people or things ▪ Our store sells nothing but the best. = We sell only the best. [=the best products] ▪ She's one of the best in the world. = She's among the best. ▪ Bad things happen to the best of us. ▪ They want the best for their children. ▪ Even in the best of times, we had trouble paying our bills. ▪ In the best of all possible worlds, no one would be without food and clean water. ▪ He can compete with the best of them. [=he can compete as well as anyone] ▪ We were the best of friends. [=we were very good friends] ▪ I have a wonderful family and a great job, so I feel that I have the best of both worlds. ▪ Problems can occur even in/under the best of circumstances. [=even if the situation is as good as possible] ▪ All of the students are good, but these three are the best of the bunch. [=the best ones in the group] — see also SUNDAY BEST

2 : someone's or something's most effective, capable, or successful condition — used in phrases like at your best and at its best ▪ He's at his best in front of a live audience. ▪ She's at her best in the morning. ▪ This is democracy at its best.

3 : the highest level that you can do or achieve ▪ Was that your best? = Was that the best you could do? ▪ No one expects you to do the job perfectly. Just do your best. = Just do the best you can. [=do as well as you can] ▪ He did his best to help them. ▪ Her time in the race was a personal best. [=it was the fastest time she had ever achieved]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

(all) for the best : having or producing a better result — used to say that something will have a good result even though it was not the intended result ▪ I won't be able to go, but maybe it's all for the best. I have a lot of work to do anyway.

(all) the best ✧ If you wish someone (all) the best, you hope that person will be happy and successful. ▪ We wish you all the best in your new job.

at best — used to refer to a result, condition, etc., that is the best one possible even though it is not very good ▪ The company won't make a profit this year. At best, they'll break even. ▪ The work won't be finished for another three months at best.

best of luck see [1]LUCK best (out) of three (five, seven, etc.) — used to say that the winner of a series of games will be the one who has won the most times after three (five, seven, etc.) games have been played bring out the best in ✧ If someone or something brings out the best in you, that person or thing helps you to use or show your best qualities. ▪ She seems to bring out the best in him. ▪ Performing in front of an audience brings out the best in me. [=I perform better when I am in front of an audience]

feel your best : to feel very healthy ▪ Exercise helps you look and feel your best. ▪ I'm not feeling my best this morning. [=I'm not feeling very well this morning]

get the best of ✧ If an emotion or feeling gets the best of you, it causes you to do something that you should not do or that you are trying not to do. ▪ I did get a little carried away. I guess the excitement got the best of me. [=got the better of me] ▪ Their emotions have gotten the best of them.

know best or know what's best see [1]KNOW

look your best : to look very good : to look as attractive and pleasant as possible ▪ Try to look your best when interviewing for a job.

make the best of 1 : to use (something) in an effective way ▪ We may not get another chance, so we need to make the best of this opportunity. 2 : to deal with (a bad situation) as well as possible ▪ Life is not very good right now—but let's try to make the best of it. ▪ We're trying to make the best (out) of a bad situation. = (Brit) We're trying to make the best of a bad job.

the best is yet to come/be — used to say that good things have happened but that even better things will happen in the future ▪ Life is good now, but the best is yet to come.

to the best of my knowledge see KNOWLEDGE to the best of your ability : as well as you are able to ▪ Every game, we go out and play to the best of our ability.

to the best of your belief see BELIEF

[4]best verb bests; best•ed; best•ing [+ obj] : to do better than (someone or something) : to defeat or outdo (someone or something) ▪ They were bested [=beaten] by their opponents in the opening game.

bes•tial /'bɛstʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : resembling or suggesting an animal or beast : very cruel, violent, etc. ▪ bestial behavior ▪ bestial violence

bes•ti•al•i•ty /ˌbɛstʃi'æləti/ noun [noncount]
1 : sex between a person and an animal
2 formal : a cruel and violent quality : a bestial quality ▪ I was shocked by the bestiality of their behavior.

best man noun [singular] : the most important male friend or relative who helps a groom at his wedding ▪ The groom asked his brother to be his best man and the bride asked her sister to be her maid of honor.

be•stow /bɪ'stoʊ/ verb -stows; -stowed; -stow•ing [+ obj] formal : to give (something) as a gift or honor ▪ The university bestowed on/upon her an honorary degree.

be•strew /bɪ'struː/ verb -strews; -strewed; -strewn or -strewed; -strew•ing [+ obj] : to cover (a surface) with something — usually used as (be) bestrewn ▪ The path was bestrewn with flowers. [=flowers were strewed over the path]

be•stride /bɪ'straɪd/ verb -strides; -strode /-'stroʊd/; -strid•den /-'strɪdn̩/; -strid•ing [+ obj] literary : to sit or stand with one leg on either side of (something) : STRADDLE ▪ a giant that bestrode the river — often used figuratively ▪ the time when the Roman Empire bestrode the world [=had great power over the world]

best seller noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a popular product (such as a book) that many people have bought ▪ She has written several best sellers. ▪ Her book is on the best-seller list. – best–sell•ing /'bɛst'sɛlɪŋ/ adj ▪ his best-selling novel

[1]bet /'bɛt/ noun, pl bets
1 [count] : an agreement in which people try to guess what will happen and the person who guesses wrong has to give something (such as money) to the person who guesses right ▪ He has a bet on the game. ▪ "I'll bet five dollars that my team will beat your team." "Okay. It's a bet!" [=I agree to the bet] ▪ He made a bet with his brother that he could finish his chores first. ▪ He and his brother have a bet about who can finish his chores first. ▪ He lost the bet and had to pay his brother five dollars. ▪ His brother won the bet. ▪ He paid his brother five dollars to settle the bet.
2 [count] : the money or other valuable thing that you could win or lose in a bet ▪ What's your bet? [=how much money do you want to risk?] ▪ She placed/laid a $10 bet [=wager] on the number five horse.
3 [singular] : a choice made by thinking about what will probably happen ▪ It's a good/safe/sure bet that they'll win. [=it is very likely that they will win] ▪ I don't know what their decision will be, but my bet is that they'll approve the project. [=I think they'll approve the project] ▪ If you want to get there early, your best/surest/safest bet is to take a different road. [=you are most likely to get there early if you take a different road] all bets are off — used to describe a situation in which it is impossible to be sure about what will happen ▪ All bets are off on the election: it's too close to call.

hedge your bets see [2]HEDGE

[2]bet verb bets; bet also bet•ted; bet•ting
1 : to make a bet : to risk losing something (such as money) if your guess about what will happen is wrong [+ obj] He bet $5 on the game. ▪ I'll bet (you) a dollar that he makes the next shot. ▪ I'll bet that he makes the next shot. ▪ He always bets that the favorite will win. [no obj] He lost a lot of money by betting on college football and basketball. ▪ He always bets on the favorite (to win). ▪ I bet against the favorite and I lost. ▪ I wouldn't bet against her. She's very likely to win this race.
2 [+ obj] : to risk losing (something) when you try to do or achieve something — usually + on ▪ She's willing to bet [=gamble, risk, stake] everything on winning this election. ▪ (US, informal) They want to start their own restaurant, but they're not willing to bet the farm on it. [=they're not willing to risk losing everything they have]
3 [+ obj] : to make decisions that are based on the belief that something will happen or is true ▪ Carmakers are betting that people will want to buy larger, more expensive cars this year. ▪ We're betting (that) the price of houses will drop.
4 [+ obj] informal : to think that something will probably or certainly happen ▪ I bet (that) it'll rain tomorrow. [=I think it'll rain tomorrow] ▪ You can bet (that) he'll take the money. [=you can be sure that he'll take the money] ▪ She says she'll quit her job, but I bet (you) she doesn't do it. [=I don't believe that she'll do it] : to think that something is probably or certainly true ▪ I'd bet most people feel the same way. ▪ I bet you that no one knows we're here. ▪ I'll bet you've never seen one of these before. [=you've probably never seen one of these before] ▪ I bet you were tired by the end of the trip. [=you must have been tired] ▪ "He was so handsome in his new suit." "I bet he was." = "I'll bet he was." [=I'm sure he was] ✧ If you would bet your life or bet your bottom dollar that something will happen or that something is true, you are very sure about it. ▪ "Are you sure he'll be there?" "Yes, I'd bet my life on it." [=I am entirely sure] ▪ You can bet your bottom dollar he's going to be late! [=you can be sure he's going to be late]
5 informal — used in phrases like you bet, you can bet on it, and you bet your life as an enthusiastic way of saying "yes" ▪ "Would you like some cake?" "You bet!" ▪ "Are you going to be there?" "You bet I'll be there!" [=I'll certainly be there] ▪ "Are you going to be there?" "You can bet on it!" ▪ "Will you be there?" "You bet your life I will!" — see also BETCHA
6 informal — used in phrases that express doubt about what will happen ▪ "The economy will improve next year." "I wouldn't bet on it if I were you." [=I'm doubtful that the economy will improve next year] ▪ "The weather will be better tomorrow." "Don't bet on it!" ▪ "The weather will be better tomorrow." "Do you want to bet?" = "Wanna bet?" [=I don't think that the weather will be better tomorrow]

– betting adj ▪ I'm not a betting man myself. [=I'm not a man who likes to bet] – betting noun [noncount] ▪ No bet-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 92 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

ting [=gambling] is allowed in this state. ▪ (chiefly Brit) The betting is that she'll win the election. [=most people think that she'll win the election]

be•ta /ˈbeɪtə, Brit ˈbiːtə/ noun
1 [singular] : the second letter of the Greek alphabet — B or β
2 [noncount] : a version of a product (such as a computer program) that is almost finished and that is used for testing ▪ a program that is currently in beta — often used before another noun ▪ the beta version of the software ▪ a beta test ▪ beta testing be•ta–block•er /ˈbeɪtəˌblɑːkə, Brit ˈbiːtəˌblɒkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] medical : a drug that helps prevent heart attacks by lowering high blood pressure be•ta–car•o•tene /ˈbeɪtəˈkerəˌtiːn/ noun [noncount] technical : a natural substance that is found in dark green and dark yellow fruits and vegetables and that helps your body grow and be healthy bet•cha /ˈbɛʧə/ informal — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase bet you when it is spoken quickly ▪ Betcha I get home before you do! [=(I'll) bet you that I get home before you do] — used especially in the phrase you betcha as an enthusiastic way of saying "yes" ▪ "Are you going to be there?" "You betcha!" [=you bet]

be•tel /ˈbiːtl/ noun [noncount] : the dried leaves of a climbing plant that are chewed by some people in southeastern Asia

betel nut noun, pl ~ nuts [count] : the seed of an Asian tree that is chewed with betel by some people in southeastern Asia bête noire /ˌbɛtˈnwɑə/ noun, pl bêtes noires /ˌbɛtˈnwɑəz/ [count] : a person or thing that someone dislikes very much ▪ a politician who is the bête noire of liberal/conservative groups ✧ Bête noire is a French phrase that means "black beast."

be•tide /bɪˈtaɪd/ see woe betide at WOE be•to•ken /bɪˈtoʊkən/ verb -kens; -kened; -ken•ing [+ obj] formal : to show (something) : to be a sign of (something) ▪ His strong handshake betokens [=indicates, bespeaks] his self-confidence.

be•tray /bɪˈtreɪ/ verb -trays; -trayed; -tray•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give information about (a person, group, country, etc.) to an enemy ▪ They betrayed their country by selling its secrets to other governments. ▪ He was betrayed (to the authorities) by one of his students.
2 : to hurt (someone who trusts you, such as a friend or relative) by not giving help or by doing something morally wrong ▪ She is very loyal and would never betray a friend. ▪ He betrayed his wife with another woman. [=he was unfaithful to his wife] ▪ She betrayed her own people by supporting the enemy. ▪ I felt betrayed. [=I was hurt because someone betrayed me] ▪ You've betrayed our trust. [=we trusted you, but you did something very bad and hurt us] ▪ I can't believe you lied to me. I feel as if you've betrayed our friendship. [=you've betrayed me; you've treated me in a way that shows you are not really my friend]
3 a : to show (something, such as a feeling or desire) without wanting or trying to ▪ Although he would not smile, his eyes betrayed his happiness. [=his eyes showed that he was happy] ▪ She coughed, betraying her presence behind the door. ▪ The expression on his face betrayed nothing. [=the expression on his face did not show anything about what he was feeling or thinking] b : to reveal (something that should not be revealed) ▪ betray a secret
4 : to do something that does not agree with (your beliefs, principles, etc.) ▪ He felt that he would be betraying his principles if he accepted the money.
– be•tray•al /bɪˈtrejəl/ noun, pl -als [count] She divorced her husband after his betrayal (of her). [=after he had betrayed her] ▪ He felt that accepting the money would be a betrayal of his principles. [noncount] acts of betrayal ▪ feelings of anger, helplessness, and betrayal – be•tray•er /bɪˈtrejə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a betrayer of his people be•troth•al /bɪˈtroʊðəl/ noun, pl -als [count] formal + old-fashioned

1 : the act of promising to marry someone : ENGAGEMENT ▪ They kept their betrothal a secret. [=they told no one that they were engaged to be married]
2 : an agreement that two people will be married in the future ▪ They were both young at the time of their betrothal.

[1]be•trothed /bɪˈtroʊðd/ adj, formal + old-fashioned : engaged to be married ▪ a betrothed couple ▪ She had been betrothed to the prince since she was a young girl.

[2]betrothed noun [singular] formal + old-fashioned : the person that someone has promised to marry ▪ He spent the afternoon with his betrothed. [=fiancée]

[1]bet•ter /ˈbɛtə/ adj, comparative form of [1]GOOD or of [2]WELL
1 : higher in quality ▪ Her second book is better than her first one. ▪ This is one of the better [=best] restaurants in this part of town. ▪ Her first book was good, but her second one is even better. = Her second one is better still/yet. ▪ This one is no better than that one.
2 : more skillful ▪ She's a better golfer than I am. ▪ He's a better singer than he is an actor. ▪ He's much better with children now that he's a father himself.
3 : more attractive, appealing, effective, useful, etc. ▪ The weather is better today than it was yesterday. ▪ They came up with a better solution to the problem. ▪ I'd like to get a better [=more accurate and complete] understanding of the problem. ▪ Don't you have something/anything better to do than to watch TV all day? ▪ Her work wasn't that good at first, but it's getting better. ▪ Her work just keeps getting better and better. ▪ There's nothing better than a cold drink of water when you're really thirsty. ▪ My salary isn't very high, but it's better than nothing. ▪ "Suppose I move it a little to the left." "Yes, that's better! It looks much better like that." ▪ You could write to her, or, even/still better, visit her in person. ✧ Someone or something that has seen/known better days was better in the past than now. ▪ My old car has seen better days. ✧ People say the sooner the better, the bigger the better, the faster the better, etc., when they want something to happen as soon as possible, to be as big as possible, to go as fast as possible, etc. ▪ "They say the cold weather will end soon." "Well, the sooner the better as far as I'm concerned."
4 : more morally right or good : more deserving of praise ▪ You're a better man than I am. ▪ "It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done . . . " —Charles Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities (1859) ▪ If you ask me, he's hardly/little/no better than a common criminal.
5 a : improved in health ▪ I was sick but now I'm better. [=now I'm well] ▪ I'm feeling all/completely better. ▪ I'm somewhat/slightly better than (I was) yesterday, but I'm not fully recovered. ▪ My cold is a little better today. [=my cold is not as bad today; my cold is less severe today] ▪ I'm sorry to hear that you're sick. I hope you feel/get better soon. ▪ He was feeling sick yesterday, and he's no better today. [=he's still feeling sick today] b : happier or more pleased ▪ Your support makes me feel better about doing what I've done.
6 — used to suggest that something should or should not be done ▪ It would be better for you to leave now [=you should leave now] if you want to get there on time. ▪ It would be better not to wait too long.
better luck next time see [1]LUCK
the better part of see [1]PART

[2]better adv, comparative form of [1]WELL
1 : in a better way ▪ "How is she doing in school?" "She did badly at first, but now she's doing much better." ▪ She sings better than I do. ▪ He sings better than he acts. ▪ You could write to her, or, even/still better, visit her in person. = You could write to her. Even/Still better, you could visit her in person. ▪ "Instead of writing to her, I'm going to visit her in person." "Even better."
2 — used to suggest that something should or should not be done ▪ Some things are better left unsaid. [=it is better not to say some things] ▪ You would do better to leave now [=you should leave now] if you want to get there on time.
3 : to a higher or greater degree ▪ He knows the story much better than you do. ▪ Her paintings have become better known in recent years. ▪ There's nothing I'd like better than to see you again.
4 : greater in distance or amount : MORE ▪ It is better than nine miles to the next town. ▪ It's better than an hour's drive to the lake.
had better ✧ If you had better do something, you should do it. ▪ You'd better leave now or you might not get there on time. ▪ *Had*n't you better leave now if you want to get there on time? ▪ You'd better not do that or you'll get in trouble. [=you'll get in trouble if you do that] ▪ I told him he'd better leave at once. ▪ "Do you want to drive?" "I'd better not: I've had too much to drink." ▪ "I'm sorry." "You'd better be!" ▪ "Should I go there?" "You'd better not." In informal speech, better by itself is often used in this way without had. ▪ "Do you want to drive?" "I better not." ▪ I told him he better leave at once. ▪ "Should I go?" "You better!" ▪ "I'm sorry." "You better be!" ▪ "Should I go?" "(You) Better not."

[3]better noun [noncount] : something that is better : better behavior ▪ They've disappointed me. I expected better from them. [=I expected them to behave better] ▪ They shouldn't treat him that way. He deserves better.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

all the better or so much the better — used to say that something makes a situation, experience, etc., even better than it was ▪ My daughter loves taking care of children. If she can earn money by doing it, so much the better!

for better or (for) worse : whether good or bad things happen : no matter what happens ▪ We've made our decision and now we have to stick to it for better or worse.

for the better : so as to produce improvement ▪ The new policy is a change for the better. [=the new policy is an improvement] ▪ My father's health has recently taken a turn for the better. [=has recently improved]

get the better of : to defeat or trick (someone) by being clever ▪ It would be hard to get the better of someone as experienced as she is. ✧ If a feeling or emotion gets the better of you, it causes you to do something that you should not do or that you are trying not to do. ▪ She knew she shouldn't open the package, but her curiosity finally got the better of her and she opened it. ▪ He let his temper get the better of him. [=he lost his temper; he said or did something because of anger]

go one better see [1]GO know better see [1]KNOW

think better of see [1]THINK your betters somewhat old-fashioned : people who are more important than you or who have a higher social position than you ▪ His parents always told him to respect his betters. ▪ (chiefly Brit) You should respect your elders and betters. [=people who are older and more important than you]

[4]better verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) better : IMPROVE ▪ They are trying to better the lives/lot of working people. ▪ He looked forward to bettering his acquaintance with the new neighbors. ▪ The team has bettered its chances of winning the championship.

2 : to be or do better than (something or someone) : to improve on (something or someone) ▪ I can better their offer. [=I can make you a better offer] ▪ She bettered her previous performance. ▪ He set a record that has never been equaled or bettered.

better yourself : to do things (such as improving your education) that will make you a better or more successful person ▪ She was born poor but she has worked hard to better herself.

[5]better variant spelling of BETTOR better half noun, pl ~ halves [count] old-fashioned + humorous : someone's wife or husband ▪ Please come to our party—and your better half is invited, too!

bet•ter•ment /ˈbɛtəmənt/ noun [noncount] : the act or result of making something better : IMPROVEMENT ▪ working for the betterment of the lives of working people better off adj, comparative form of WELL-OFF

1 : having more money and possessions : more well-to-do ▪ The better off he became, the less he thought about other people. ▪ The better-off people live in the older part of town.

2 : in a better position ▪ He'd be better off with a new job.

bet•tor also bet•ter /ˈbɛtə/ noun, pl -tors also -ters [count] : a person who makes a bet ▪ Thousands of bettors were at the race track last weekend.

[1]be•tween /bɪˈtwi:n/ prep

1 : in the space that separates (two things or people) ▪ The ball rolled between the desk and the wall. ▪ He stood between his mother and his father. ▪ The office has two desks with a table between them. ▪ They put up a fence between their house and their neighbor's house. ▪ There are fences between all the houses. — often used figuratively ▪ a book that blurs the line/boundary between fact and fiction — often used in the phrase in between ▪ There are fences in between all the houses.

2 : in the time that separates (two actions, events, etc.) ▪ If you want to lose weight, you shouldn't eat between meals. ▪ Between bites of food, they talked to their teacher. ▪ The two days between Monday and Thursday are Tuesday and Wednesday. ▪ We should arrive between 9 and 10 o'clock. — often used in the phrase in between ▪ You shouldn't eat in between meals.

3 — used to indicate the beginning and ending points of a group of numbers, a range of measurement, etc. ▪ a number between 1 and 20 ▪ The package weighs somewhere between a pound and a pound and a half. — sometimes used in the phrase in between ▪ a number in between 1 and 20

4 : in shares to each of (two or more people) ▪ The property was divided equally between the son and the daughter. [=the son and the daughter received an equal share of the property] ▪ His estate was divided between [=among] his four grandchildren.

5 — used to indicate two or more people or things that together produce a result or have an effect ▪ She ate two hot dogs, and he ate three hot dogs, so between them they ate five hot dogs. ▪ Between work and family life, she has no time for hobbies. [=because of all the time she spends on her work and family life, she has no time for hobbies]

6 — used to indicate two people or teams that are involved in a game, activity, etc. ▪ There's a game tonight between the Red Sox and the Yankees. [=the Red Sox are playing a game against the Yankees tonight]

7 — used to indicate two or more people or things that are joined, related, or connected in some way ▪ There are many relations/connections between linguistics, philosophy, and psychology. ▪ There is a passageway between the two rooms. ▪ the bond between friends ▪ We used to love each other, but there's nothing between us now. [=we don't love each other now]

8 — used to indicate two or more people or things that are being considered, compared, etc. ▪ They compared the cars but found few differences between them. ▪ We were allowed to choose between two/several options. ▪ There's not much to choose between the two cars. [=the two cars are very similar] ▪ There is very little difference between the two cars.

9 — used to indicate movement from one place to another place ▪ He flies between Miami and Chicago twice a week. ▪ The airline provides service between New York and Paris.

10 : known only by (two people) ▪ They shared a secret between them. ▪ (Just) Between you and me, I think he's wrong. [=I'm telling you that I think he's wrong, but you should not tell anyone else what I've told you] ▪ What I'm going to tell you should remain a secret (just) between us/ourselves.

[2]between adv : in the space separating two things or people ▪ The office has two desks with a table between. — often used in the phrase in between ▪ The office has two desks with a table in between.

betwixt and between see BETWIXT few and far between see [1]FEW be•twixt /bɪˈtwɪkst/ prep, old-fashioned + literary : BETWEEN betwixt and between : in the middle : not completely one thing and not completely the other thing ▪ Politically, my parents are betwixt and between. They're neither liberal nor conservative in their views.

[1]bev•el /ˈbɛvəl/ noun, pl -els [count]

1 : a slanted surface or edge on a piece of wood, glass, etc. ▪ the bevel of the mirror

2 : a tool that is used to make a slanted surface or edge on a piece of wood, glass, etc.

[2]bevel verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling [+ obj] : to cut or shape (a surface or edge) at an angle or slant ▪ a tool that is used for beveling wood

– beveled (US) or Brit bevelled adj ▪ a mirror with a beveled edge ▪ The blade is beveled on one side.

bev•er•age /ˈbɛvrɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count] somewhat formal : something you can drink : a liquid for drinking ▪ May I offer you a beverage? [=drink] ▪ Beverages are listed on the back of the menu. ▪ alcoholic/nonalcoholic beverages

bev•vy /ˈbɛvi/ noun, pl -vies [count] Brit, informal : an alcoholic drink ▪ He'd had a few bevvies too many and was feeling none too clever.

bevy /ˈbɛvi/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a large group of people or things — usually singular ▪ A bevy of girls waited outside.

be•wail /bɪˈweɪl/ verb -wails; -wailed; -wail•ing [+ obj] literary + humorous : to express great sadness or disappointment about (something) ▪ Many people bewailed the changes to the historic building. ▪ She bewailed [=bemoaned] the fact that he had such terrible table manners. ▪ bewail your fate be•ware /bɪˈweə/ verb : to be careful : to act in a way that shows you know that there may be danger or trouble — used only as beware or to beware [no obj] A ghostly voice cried "Beware!" ▪ Let the buyer beware. ▪ He told them to beware. — often + of ▪ The sign said "Beware of the dog." [+ obj] The restaurant's food is excellent, but beware the chili if you don't like spicy food.

be•wil•der /bɪˈwɪldə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to confuse (someone) very much ▪ His decision bewildered [=puzzled, perplexed] her. — often used as (be) bewildered ▪ She was bewildered by his decision. ▪ I was completely/utterly

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 118 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

bewildered by the complex instructions.
– bewildered adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He had a bewildered expression on his face. – bewildering adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a bewildering number of choices – be•wil•der•ing•ly adv ▪ The instructions were bewilderingly complex. – be•wil•der•ment /bɪˈwɪldəmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ She stared at them in bewilderment [=confusion] and shock.

be•witch /bɪˈwɪʧ/ verb -witch•es; -witched; -witch•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use magic to make someone do, think, or say something : to put (someone) under a spell ▪ People believed the girls had been bewitched.
2 : to attract or delight (someone) in a way that seems magical ▪ They were bewitched [=enchanted, fascinated] by her beauty.
– bewitching adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She has a bewitching [=captivating, charming] smile. ▪ The painting was bewitching. [=mesmerizing]

[1]be•yond /biˈɑːnd/ adv
1 a : on or to the farther part or side ▪ From the house we can see the valley and the hills beyond. ▪ We passed the hotel and drove a bit beyond to see the ocean. b : to or until a later time ▪ The children who are part of the study will be monitored through their school years and beyond.
2 : in addition ▪ The hostel provides the essentials but nothing beyond. [=further, more, else]

[2]beyond prep
1 : on or to the farther part or side of (something) : at a greater distance than (something) ▪ From the house we can see the valley and the mountains beyond it. ▪ The parking area is just beyond those trees. ▪ Our land extends beyond the fence to those trees. ▪ planets beyond our solar system
2 : outside the limits or range of (something) : more than (something) ▪ The job is beyond his ability. [=the job is too hard for him; he is not capable of doing the job well] ▪ Such a project is beyond the city's budget. [=the project is too expensive] ▪ The results were beyond our expectations. [=were better than we expected] ▪ His influence does not extend beyond this department. ▪ She became rich beyond her wildest dreams. [=became very rich] ✧ If you live beyond your means, you spend more money than you earn. ▪ We need to stop living beyond our means and start saving some money.
3 — used to say that something cannot be changed, understood, etc. ▪ The situation is beyond help. [=the situation cannot be made better; nothing can help the situation] ▪ The city has changed beyond (all) recognition. [=it has changed so much that it looks completely different] ▪ The circumstances are beyond our control. [=we cannot control the circumstances] ▪ The stories she tells are beyond belief. [=are not believable] ▪ His irresponsible actions are beyond comprehension/understanding. [=cannot be understood] ✧ If something is beyond you, you do not understand it. ▪ "Why is he going?" "It's beyond me." ▪ How she was able to afford the trip is beyond me.
4 : for a period of time that continues after (a particular date, age, etc.) ▪ The program is unlikely to continue beyond next year. [=it will probably end after next year] ▪ She plans to continue working beyond the usual retirement age.
5 : in addition to ▪ There were no other problems with the house beyond [=besides] the leaky roof. ▪ I knew nothing about him beyond [=except] what he told me.
above and beyond see [2]ABOVE

BFA abbr bachelor of fine arts

bi- /baɪ/ prefix
1 : two ▪ *bi*partisan ▪ *bi*lateral ▪ *bi*lingual
2 a : coming or happening every two ▪ *bi*monthly b : coming or happening two times ▪ *bi*annual bi•an•nu•al /baɪˈænjəwəl/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : happening twice a year : SEMIANNUAL ▪ The group holds biannual meetings in December and July.
2 : happening every two years : BIENNIAL ▪ The art show is a biannual event that won't happen again for two more years.
– bi•an•nu•al•ly adv

[1]bi•as /ˈbajəs/ noun, pl -as•es
1 : a tendency to believe that some people, ideas, etc., are better than others that usually results in treating some people unfairly [count] The writer has a strong liberal/conservative bias. [=favors liberal/conservative views] ▪ ethnic and racial biases ▪ He showed a bias toward a few workers in particular. ▪ Do they have a bias against women/minorities? [noncount] The company was accused of racial/gender bias. ▪ The decision was made without bias. ▪ She showed no bias toward older clients.
2 : a strong interest in something or ability to do something ▪ a student with a strong bias towards the arts on the bias : in a slanted direction — used to describe the way cloth is cut or sewn ▪ The material for the dress was cut on the bias.

[2]bias verb -ases; -ased; -as•ing [+ obj] : to have a strong and often unfair influence on (someone or something) ▪ I don't want to bias you against the movie, but I thought the book was much better. ▪ The circumstances could bias the results of the survey.

biased adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a bias : having or showing an unfair tendency to believe that some people, ideas, etc., are better than others ▪ She is too biased to write about the case objectively. ▪ an extremely biased statement ▪ He is biased against women/minorities. ▪ The judges of the talent show were biased toward musical acts.

bi•ath•lon /baɪˈæθlən/ noun, pl -lons [count] sports : an event in which athletes ski over the countryside and stop to shoot rifles at targets ▪ the Olympic biathlon
– bi•ath•lete /baɪˈæθˌliːt/ noun, pl -letes [count]

bib /ˈbɪb/ noun, pl bibs [count]
1 : a piece of cloth or plastic that is worn under a baby's chin while the baby is eating
2 : the part of a piece of clothing (such as an apron) that covers the area above a person's waist

bi•ble /ˈbaɪbəl/ noun, pl bi•bles
1 the Bible a : the book of sacred writings used in the Christian religion ✧ The Christian Bible contains the Old Testament and the New Testament. b : the book of sacred writings used in the Jewish religion ✧ The Jewish Bible contains the writings that also form the Christian Old Testament.
2 Bible [count] : a copy or edition of the Bible ▪ She gave each of her grandchildren a Bible.
3 [count] : a book, magazine, etc., that contains the most important information about a particular thing ▪ The book is famous among foodies—it's the gourmet's bible. ▪ The magazine is now considered the bible of the plastics industry.

Bible Belt noun
the Bible Belt : an area chiefly in the southern part of the U.S. where there are many people who have very strong and strict Christian beliefs

bib•li•cal /ˈbɪblɪkəl/ adj : relating to, taken from, or found in the Bible ▪ a biblical [=scriptural] passage ▪ biblical references ▪ The city was a center for trade in biblical times. [=during the time when some things written about in the Bible happened]

biblio- prefix : relating to books ▪ *biblio*graphy ▪ *biblio*phile bib•li•og•ra•phy /ˌbɪbliˈɑːgrəfi/ noun, pl -phies [count]

1 : a list of books, magazines, articles, etc., about a particular subject ▪ The instructor provided the students with an excellent bibliography on local history.
2 : a list of the books, magazines, articles, etc., that are mentioned in a text ▪ The book includes a lengthy bibliography.
– bib•lio•graph•ic /ˌbɪblijəˈgræfɪk/ also bib•lio•graph•i•cal /ˌbɪblijəˈgræfɪkəl/ adj ▪ bibliographic information

bib•lio•phile /ˈbɪblijəˌfajəl/ noun, pl -philes [count] : a person who loves or collects books

bi•cam•er•al /baɪˈkæmrəl/ adj, technical : having two parts — used to describe a government in which the people who make laws are divided into two groups ▪ The U.S. has a bicameral legislature that is made up of the Senate and the House of Representatives.

bi•carb /baɪˈkɑəb/ noun [noncount] : BAKING SODA

bi•car•bon•ate of soda /baɪˈkɑəbəˌneɪt-/ noun [noncount] : BAKING SODA bi•cen•te•na•ry /ˌbaɪsɛnˈtɛnəri, Brit ˌbaɪsɛnˈtiːnəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] Brit : BICENTENNIAL – bicentenary adj, always used before a noun ▪ a bicentenary celebration/year

bi•cen•ten•ni•al /ˌbaɪsɛnˈtɛnijəl/ noun, pl -als [count] US : a 200th anniversary or its celebration ▪ The United States celebrated its bicentennial [=(Brit) bicentenary] in 1976. [=celebrated the fact that it was 200 years old] ▪ Next year is the bicentennial of the school's founding [=the year 200 years after the school was started] — compare CENTENNIAL – bicentennial adj, always used before a noun ▪ a bicentennial [=(Brit) bicentenary] celebration/year

bi•cep /ˈbaɪˌsɛp/ noun, pl -ceps [count] : BICEPS ▪ She flexed her left bicep.

bi•ceps /ˈbaɪˌsɛps/ noun, pl -ceps [count] : a large muscle at

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 126 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

the front of the upper arm — usually plural ▪ His biceps were huge. — see picture at HUMAN; compare TRICEPS

bick•er /ˈbɪkɚ/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] : to argue in a way that is annoying about things that are not important ▪ She is always bickering with her mother. ▪ They bickered about/over how to decorate the room.
– bickering noun [noncount] ▪ I can't stand their constant bickering.

bi•coast•al /baɪˈkoʊstəl/ adj : relating to both the east and the west coasts of the U.S. ▪ They're a bicoastal couple. [=one person lives on the east coast and the other person lives on the west coast] ▪ a bicoastal flight/conference call

[1]bi•cy•cle /ˈbaɪsɪkəl/ noun, pl -cy•cles [count] : a 2-wheeled vehicle that a person rides by pushing on foot pedals ▪ She rode her bicycle [=bike] to school. ▪ They toured Europe on bicycles. = They toured Europe by bicycle. ▪ Let's go for a bicycle ride [=ride our bicycles for pleasure] after work tonight. — compare TRICYCLE, UNICYCLE

[2]bicycle verb -cy•cles; -cy•cled; -cy•cling [no obj] : to ride a bicycle ▪ She bicycles [=bikes] to work every day.
– bi•cy•cler /ˈbaɪsɪklɚ/ noun, pl -clers [count] US ▪ a group of bicyclers – bicycling noun [noncount] ▪ Bicycling is his favorite sport. ▪ Let's go bicycling after work tonight. – bi•cy•clist /ˈbaɪsɪklɪst/ noun, pl -clists [count] ▪ A group of bicyclists rode by.

bicycle shorts noun [plural] : short pants that fit close to the body and that people sometimes wear when they ride a bicycle

[1]bid /ˈbɪd/ verb bids; bade /ˈbæd, ˈbeɪd/ or bid; bid•den /ˈbɪdn̩/ or bid; bid•ding
1 past tense and past participle bid a : to offer to pay (a particular amount of money) for something that is being sold : to make a bid at an auction [+ obj] I'll bid $100 for/on the lamp but no higher. ▪ The auctioneer said, "What am I bid [=offered] for this lamp?" [no obj] He plans to stop bidding if the bids go over $500. ▪ She bid for/on a desk and a chair. ▪ The two brothers bid against each other for the same chair. [=they each tried to buy the chair by repeatedly making higher bids than the other one had made] b [no obj] US : to offer to do work for a particular price ▪ Several local companies are bidding for the same job. ▪ His company bid on the snow removal contract.
2 past tense and past participle bid : to say how many points you are trying to win in a card game [+ obj] He bid two. [no obj] He bid and I passed.
3 [+ obj] formal : to order or command (someone) to do something ▪ We did as we were bid/bidden. ▪ She bid/bade them enter. [=told them to come in] — see also UNBIDDEN
4 [+ obj] formal : to express (greetings or good wishes) to (someone) : to say (something, such as "good morning," "good evening," etc.) to (someone) ▪ They bade me farewell. = They bade farewell to me. [=they said goodbye to me] ▪ She bid him good day.
bid fair : to seem likely ▪ a movie that bids fair to become a big hit [=a movie that will probably be very successful] bid up [phrasal verb] bid up (something) or bid (something) up : to raise the price of (something that is being sold) by repeatedly offering more money than other people ▪ Several antique dealers bid up the best lots to shut out less experienced bidders. ▪ Investors quickly bid stock prices up to record levels.
– bid•der noun, pl -ders [count] ▪ Items will be sold to the highest bidder. [=to the person who offers to pay the most]

[2]bid noun, pl bids [count]
1 a : an offer to pay a particular amount of money for something ▪ Bids for the painter's work have been quite high at recent auctions. ▪ She had the highest bid. ▪ He made a bid of $100 for the painting. ▪ He made the opening bid. b : an offer to do a job for a particular price ▪ The company is accepting bids for the renovation project.
2 : an attempt to win, get, or do something ▪ The company is facing a takeover bid. [=someone is trying to gain control of the company by buying most of its stock] — often + for ▪ Two convicts made a dramatic bid for freedom but were soon recaptured. ▪ They made a strong bid for the championship. ▪ a bid for power/reelection — often followed by to + verb ▪ They failed in their bid to close the school.
3 : a statement of how many points a player is trying to win in a card game

bid•da•ble /ˈbɪdəbəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : willing to do whatever someone tells you to do : easily taught, led, or controlled ▪ The children became less biddable as they grew older.
2 : available to be bid on ▪ biddable items [=items that will be sold through bidding; items that will be sold to whoever will offer the most money] ▪ a biddable job [=a job that people or companies can offer to do for a particular price]

bidding noun [noncount]
1 : the act of offering to pay a particular amount of money for something : the act of making bids at an auction ▪ We expect to see heavy bidding on this item. [=we expect a lot of people to offer money for this item] ▪ Bidding started at $1,000.
2 : the act of offering to do a job for a particular price ▪ Bidding for the renovation project begins soon.
at someone's bidding also at the bidding of someone : as someone has told you or ordered you to do ▪ He attended law school at his father's bidding. [=because his father told/wanted him to attend law school] do someone's bidding also do the bidding of someone : to do what someone tells you or orders you to do ▪ He was at the beck and call of powerful interest groups and was always willing to do their bidding.

bid•dy /ˈbɪdi/ noun, pl -dies [count] informal + disapproving : an old woman; especially : one who is silly or annoying ▪ a couple of old biddies

bide /ˈbaɪd/ verb bides; bid•ed; bid•ing

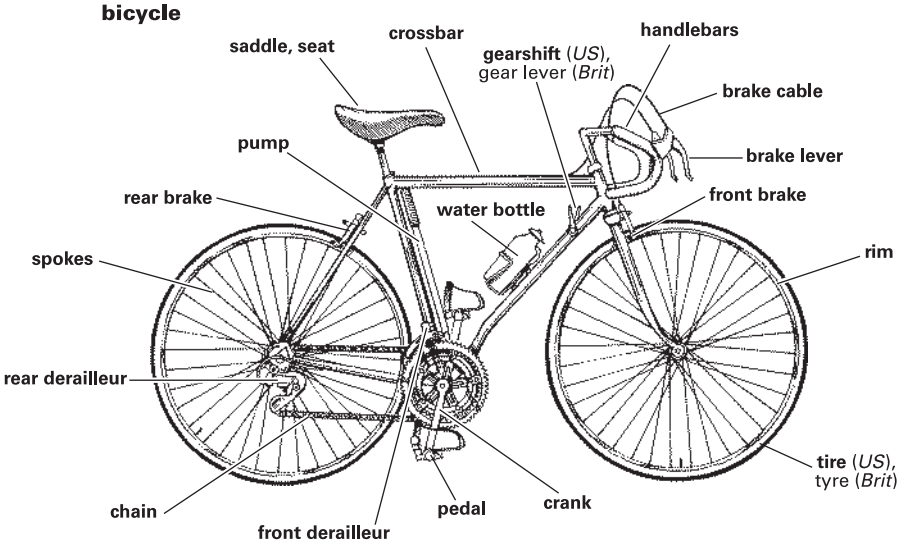
bicycle



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

bide your time : to wait for the right time before you do something ▪ He is biding his time [=waiting for the right opportunity] before asking his parents for a loan.

bi•det /bɪˈdeɪ/ noun, pl -dets [count] : a bowl like a small toilet with faucets that is used for washing your bottom

[1]bi•en•ni•al /baɪˈɛnijəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : happening every two years ▪ The governor explained the biennial budget proposal. ▪ a biennial show
2 of a plant : living for only two years or seasons : having a life cycle that is two years or seasons long ▪ biennial plants/herbs/flowers — compare [1]ANNUAL, [1]PERENNIAL
– bi•en•ni•al•ly adv ▪ The art show takes place biennially.

[2]biennial noun, pl -als [count] : a plant that lives for only two years or seasons : a biennial plant — compare [2]ANNUAL, [2]PERENNIAL bier /ˈbiɚ/ noun, pl biers [count] : a table or platform on which a coffin or dead body is placed at a funeral biff /ˈbɪf/ verb biffs; biffed; biff•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to hit (someone) hard especially with your hand or fist ▪ She biffed [=whacked] him on the head.

– biff noun, pl biffs [count]

bi•fo•cal /ˈbaɪˌfoʊkəl, Brit baɪˈfəʊkəl/ adj, of eyeglasses : divided into two parts that help a person to see things that are nearby and things that are far away ▪ bifocal lenses/glasses
– bi•fo•cals /ˈbaɪˌfoʊkəlz, Brit baɪˈfəʊkəlz/ noun [plural] ▪ She wears bifocals. [=eyeglasses with bifocal lenses]

bi•fur•cate /ˈbaɪfɚˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; cat•ing formal : to divide into two parts [no obj] The stream bifurcated into two narrow winding channels. [+ obj] bifurcate a beam of light – bifurcated adj ▪ a bifurcated stream – bi•fur•ca•tion /ˌbaɪfɚˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[1]big /ˈbɪg/ adj big•ger; -gest
1 : large in size ▪ a big house/room/field ▪ a big glass of soda ▪ He is a big [=tall and heavy] man. ▪ She moved to a bigger city. ▪ the biggest city in the state ▪ The tent is big enough for 10 people. [=there is enough space in the tent for 10 people] ▪ A great big [=very large, huge] truck pulled up beside us. ▪ I can't understand her writing; she uses too many big words. [=long words that many people don't know the meaning of] — see also the big city at CITY
2 : large in number or amount ▪ He led a big group through the museum. ▪ She was earning big money [=a lot of money] as a lawyer. — see also BIG BUCKS
3 : involving or including many people, things, etc. ▪ She works for a big company. ▪ He organized a big advertising campaign. ▪ We had a big fund-raiser for the school.
4 always used before a noun a : tending to do something more often than most people ▪ He's a big eater. [=he often eats large amounts of food] ▪ She's a big shopper. [=she shops often] b : feeling or showing a lot of excitement or enthusiasm ▪ I'm a big fan of their music. ▪ He gave me a big smile/hug.
5 : important or significant ▪ She became a big star in movies. ▪ He's big in local politics. ▪ The changes will have a big [=major] impact on the community. ▪ Our biggest concern is for the safety of the children. ▪ This job is my big chance. ▪ The movie was a big flop. ▪ They have big plans for the future. ▪ She was a big [=great] help during his illness. ▪ Buying this car was a big [=serious] mistake. ▪ I was nervous in the weeks leading up to the wedding day, but felt surprisingly calm on the day of the big event. ▪ Tomorrow is the big day. [=the day that something important happens] ▪ Her suggestion made a big difference [=led to important changes] in the final product. ▪ She wanted to go in a big way. [=very much, badly] — see also BIG DEAL, BIG PICTURE
6 always used before a noun, informal — used to express strong dislike or disapproval ▪ You're nothing but a big sissy/bully! ▪ If you marry her you're an even bigger fool [=you're even more of a fool] than I thought you were!
7 informal : older or more grown up ▪ my big [=older] sister/brother ▪ He's a big boy now. [=he is less like a baby now] — see also BIG BOYS, BIG BROTHER
8 : very popular ▪ That toy is always a big seller. ▪ The band was a big hit abroad. ▪ Her books are big with teenagers. ▪ She thinks longer skirts will be big this year. ▪ Designers will discuss the next big thing [=a future trend] in home decorating.
9 : generous or kind ▪ It was big of him to forgive them after the way they treated him. ▪ She was big about it and invited him along. ▪ He has a big heart. [=he is a kind person] — sometimes used in an ironic way to say that someone is not being very generous or kind ▪ You can spare us a whole five minutes of your time? Well, that's big of you! — see also BIG-HEARTED
10 : very strong, forceful, etc. ▪ There was a big [=powerful] storm last night.
(as) big as life see [1]LIFE big fish in a small/little pond see [1]FISH big on informal : very enthusiastic about (something) ▪ He's big on stamp collecting. [=he likes collecting stamps very much] ▪ She's not (very) big on dancing.
big with child old-fashioned : pregnant and almost ready to give birth ▪ a woman who was big with child too big for your britches (US) or chiefly Brit too big for your boots informal : too confident or proud of yourself ▪ I think the boss is growing too big for his britches.
– big•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the bigness of the city

[2]big adv
1 : in a big way ▪ They won/lost big [=they won/lost a large amount] at the casino.
2 : in a way that is meant to impress people ▪ He talks big about his plans, but he hasn't done much yet.
go over big informal : to be successful or well-liked ▪ Here's a recipe for healthy cookies that always goes over big with kids. [=that children like a lot] make it big or hit it big or hit big informal : to become very successful ▪ He always dreamed of making it big in the movie industry. ▪ Her best friend hit it big playing the stock market.
think big : to think about doing things that involve a lot of people, money, effort, etc. : to think about doing big things ▪ If we're going to start our own business, we should think big.

big•a•my /ˈbɪgəmi/ noun [noncount] : the crime of marrying one person while you are still legally married to another ▪ He was accused of bigamy.
– big•a•mist /ˈbɪgəmɪst/ noun, pl -mists [count] ▪ She found out that he was a bigamist. – big•a•mous /ˈbɪgəməs/ adj ▪ a bigamous marriage

Big Apple noun
the Big Apple informal — used as a name for New York City ▪ She moved to the Big Apple after she graduated.

big band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a large musical group that usually plays jazz music that people dance to big bang noun

the big bang : a huge explosion that might have happened when the universe began ▪ a few billion years after the big bang ✧ The scientific theory that the universe began with a huge explosion is called the big bang theory.

big–boned adj bigger–boned; biggest–boned [or more ~; most ~] : having large bones : large but not fat ▪ He is tall and big-boned. ▪ a big-boned girl/gal

big boys noun
the big boys informal : the most powerful people or companies ▪ He'll have to work pretty hard if he wants to compete with the big boys in the industry.

Big Brother noun [singular] : a powerful government or organization that watches and controls what people say and do ▪ "You better be careful about what you say," she warned, "Big Brother is listening!" — see also [1]BIG 7 big bucks noun [plural] US, informal : a large amount of money ▪ A car like that costs big bucks. ▪ He's making big bucks [=big money] at his new job.

big business noun [noncount]
1 : large companies considered together as a powerful group ▪ The tax proposal will be of most benefit to big business.
2 : an activity or product that makes a large amount of money ▪ Tourism is big business in the region.

big cat noun, pl ~ cats [count] : a large wild animal of the cat family ▪ lions, tigers, leopards, and other big cats

big cheese noun
the big cheese informal : the most powerful or important person ▪ You'll have to ask the big cheese. [=the boss] ▪ Who's the big cheese around here?

big–city adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to a large city ▪ big-city problems such as overcrowding and noise ▪ a big-city school/hospital : coming from or living in a large city ▪ big-city cops/mayors — compare SMALL-TOWN big deal noun [singular] : something that is very important ▪ The party was a big deal. ▪ The cost didn't seem like much to me, but I know it was a big deal for many people. ▪ So I'm late. What's the big deal? [=why is that important?] — often used in negative statements ▪ Flying is no big deal to him. ▪ Don't worry, it's no big deal. [=it's not a problem] — sometimes used ironically as an interjection to say that something is not important to you ▪ "She's going to be angry." "Big deal." [=so what?] ▪ "You broke it!" "Big deal." [=I don't care] make a big deal (out) of (something) or make (something) into a big deal : to treat (something) as very important or too important ▪ The girl's song was far from perfect, but her parents made a big deal of it, and she was very happy. ▪ Don't make such a big deal (out) of missing the bus: there'll be another one along in a minute.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 100 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

big dipper noun, pl ~ -pers

1 the Big Dipper US : a group of seven stars in the northern sky that form a shape like a large dipper or ladle ▪ We could see the Big Dipper [=(Brit) the Plough] in the northern sky. — compare LITTLE DIPPER

2 [count] Brit, old-fashioned : ROLLER COASTER 1

Big•foot or big•foot /ˈbɪgˌfʊt/ noun [singular] : SASQUATCH

big game noun [noncount] : large animals (such as elephants and tigers) that are hunted for sport ▪ They traveled to Africa to hunt big game. ▪ a big-game hunter big•gie /ˈbɪgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] informal : someone or something that is very big or important ▪ He met with some television biggies. ▪ They've had problems before, but this one's a real biggie. ▪ (chiefly US) "Sorry I'm late." "No biggie. [=it's not a problem] I'm not in a hurry."

big•gish /ˈbɪgɪʃ/ adj : somewhat big ▪ He has a biggish [=largish] nose.

big government noun [noncount] US : government that has too much influence and power over citizens ▪ a politician who promises to do away with high taxes and big government

big gun noun

the big guns informal : the most powerful people, companies, organizations, etc. ▪ They called in the big guns to deal with the problem.

big–headed adj

1 : having a large head ▪ a big-headed dinosaur

2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : sure that you are better or more important than other people : CONCEITED ▪ big-headed celebrities/politicians big–hearted adj [more ~; most ~] : generous and kind ▪ a big-hearted kid/person big•horn sheep /ˈbɪgˌhoən-/ noun, pl ~ sheep [count] : a kind of wild sheep with long curved horns that lives in the mountains of western North America — called also bighorn

big house noun

the big house US slang : PRISON ▪ He spent four years in the big house.

bight /ˈbaɪt/ noun, pl bights [count] : a curve in a coast or the bay formed by such a curve ▪ the Bight of Benin ▪ the Great Australian Bight

big league noun

the big leagues US : the two main U.S. baseball leagues (the American League and the National League) ▪ He always dreamed of playing in the big leagues. [=the major leagues] — often used figuratively ▪ She's in the big leagues now, working for a major law firm in a large city.

– big–league adj, always used before a noun ▪ He hit a home run in his first big-league [=major-league] game. ▪ big-league baseball ▪ a big-league team – big leagu•er noun, pl ~ -guers [count] ▪ He hopes to be a big leaguer [=major leaguer] some day.

big mouth noun, pl ~ mouths [count] informal : a person who cannot keep a secret or who talks too much ▪ She's a big mouth. — used in phrases that describe a person who talks too much ▪ Why did you have to open your big mouth and tell everyone our business? ▪ Be careful of what you say around her—she has a big mouth. [=she is likely to tell other people what you said]

– big–mouthed adj ▪ The surprise was spoiled by my big-mouthed friend.

big name noun, pl ~ names [count] informal : a very famous person ▪ There were many big names [=celebrities] at the party. ▪ He is a big name in the business world. [=he is a famous businessperson]

– big–name adj, always used before a noun ▪ a big-name movie star big noise noun, pl ~ noises [count] Brit, informal : a powerful or important person : BIG SHOT — usually singular ▪ She's a big noise in local politics.

big•ot /ˈbɪgət/ noun, pl -ots [count] disapproving : a person who strongly and unfairly dislikes other people, ideas, etc. : a bigoted person; especially : a person who hates or refuses to accept the members of a particular group (such as a racial or religious group) ▪ He was labeled a bigot after making some offensive comments.

big•ot•ed /ˈbɪgətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing a strong and unfair dislike of other people, ideas, etc.; especially : hating or refusing to accept the members of a particular group ▪ a bigoted neighbor ▪ Many people found his bigoted comments offensive.

big•ot•ry /ˈbɪgətri/ noun [noncount] : bigoted acts or beliefs ▪ a protest against bigotry ▪ religious/racial bigotry

big picture noun

the big picture : everything that relates to or is involved in a situation or issue ▪ We need to look at the big picture before we can work out specific details.

big screen noun

the big screen : movies and the movie industry especially when they are being compared to television ▪ She was a star of the big screen. [=the silver screen] ▪ The television show was adapted for the big screen. [=the television show was made into a movie]

big–screen adj, always used before a noun

1 : relating to movies or the movie industry ▪ She worked on the novel's big-screen adaptation.

2 : having a large screen ▪ a big-screen television big shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] informal : a powerful or important person ▪ All the corporate big shots are meeting this afternoon. ▪ a big shot in local politics big stick noun, pl ~ sticks [count] : a threat to use violence or force to make a person, group, country, etc., do something — usually singular ▪ The organization wields a pretty big stick when it comes to fighting poverty. [=the organization is able to fight poverty because it can threaten to use force, such as legal action]

big–tick•et /ˈbɪgˈtɪkət/ adj, chiefly US, informal : having a high price : EXPENSIVE ▪ big-ticket items like cars and appliances big time noun

the big time : the highest or most successful level of an activity ▪ He was a good basketball player but he never made (it to) the big time. ▪ The group performed in small clubs for years before hitting the big time [=becoming very successful] with a record deal.

[1]big–time /ˈbɪgˌtaɪm/ adj, always used before a noun : relating to or involved in the highest or most successful level of an activity ▪ I covered big-time [=major] college sports for the newspaper. ▪ He became a big-time racketeer.

[2]big–time adv, chiefly US, informal : in a big way : very much or very badly ▪ The new show bombed big-time. [=the new show was very unsuccessful] ▪ You owe me big-time.

big toe noun, pl ~ toes [count] : the largest toe on a person's foot big top noun [singular] : a large circus tent — usually used with the ▪ She dreamed of performing under the big top. [=performing in/with the circus]

big wheel noun, pl ~ wheels [count]

1 chiefly US, informal : a powerful or important person : BIG SHOT ▪ He's a big wheel in local politics.

2 Brit : FERRIS WHEEL

big•wig /ˈbɪgˌwɪg/ noun, pl -wigs [count] informal : a powerful or important person ▪ corporate bigwigs [=big shots] ▪ a bigwig in local politics

[1]bike /ˈbaɪk/ noun, pl bikes [count]

1 : BICYCLE ▪ She rode her bike to school. ▪ a bike path

2 : MOTORCYCLE — see also DIRT BIKE, MOTORBIKE

[2]bike verb bikes; biked; bik•ing [no obj] : to ride a bicycle ▪ We biked to the park. ▪ He bikes in the mountains.

– biking noun [noncount] ▪ Biking is a great form of exercise. ▪ We're planning to go biking tomorrow.

bik•er /ˈbaɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who rides a motorcycle : MOTORCYCLIST

2 chiefly US : a person who rides a bicycle : BICYCLIST

bi•ki•ni /bəˈki:ni/ noun, pl -nis [count] : a piece of clothing in two parts that a girl or woman wears for swimming or for lying in the sun and that does not cover much of the body — see color picture on page C13

bi•la•bi•al /baɪˈleɪbijəl/ noun, pl -als [count] linguistics : a sound made by using both lips ▪ English bilabials such as /b/, /p/, and /m/

– bilabial adj ▪ a bilabial consonant bi•lat•er•al /baɪˈlætərəl/ adj : involving two groups or countries ▪ bilateral trade agreements ▪ a bilateral treaty —

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

compare MULTILATERAL, UNILATERAL

bile /ˈbajəl/ noun [noncount]
1 : a yellow or greenish liquid that is made by the liver and that helps the body to digest fats
2 : anger or hatred ▪ One writer objected to what she described as "the bile that is spewed from the newspaper's editorial page."

bilge /ˈbɪldʒ/ noun, pl bilg•es
1 [count] : the bottom part of the inside of a ship or boat ▪ water in the bilge
2 [noncount] informal : foolish or worthless statements or information : NONSENSE ▪ That magazine prints a lot of bilge about celebrities.

bi•lin•gual /ˌbaɪˈlɪŋgwəl/ adj
1 : able to speak and understand two languages ▪ Several of the employees are bilingual. ▪ He is bilingual in English and Japanese.
2 : using or expressed in two languages ▪ a bilingual dictionary ▪ She grew up in a bilingual community. ▪ The town has an excellent bilingual education program. — compare MONOLINGUAL, MULTILINGUAL – bilingual noun, pl -guals [count] ▪ Several of the employees are bilinguals. – bi•lin•gual•ism /baɪˈlɪŋgwəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ She says her bilingualism [=her ability to speak two languages] has helped her in her career.

bil•ious /ˈbɪljəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or causing a sick feeling in the stomach : feeling or causing nausea ▪ a bilious attack
2 : angry or bad-tempered ▪ a bilious disposition
3 : very unpleasant to look at ▪ a bilious [=repulsive] shade of green bilk /ˈbɪlk/ verb bilks; bilked; bilk•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to cheat or trick (a person or organization) especially by taking money ▪ They were convicted of bilking [=defrauding, swindling] the company (out) of a lot of money.

[1]bill /ˈbɪl/ noun, pl bills [count]
1 : a document that says how much money you owe for something you have bought or used ▪ He paid the telephone bill. ▪ Did our water bill arrive yet? ▪ I've been having a hard time paying the bills since I lost my job. [=paying what I owe for housing, heat, electricity, etc.] ▪ The waiter gave us our bill. ▪ I can't pay for it now: just put it on my bill. [=add the amount I now owe to what I already owe and I will pay the total amount later] — compare BILL OF SALE
2 : a written description of a new law that is being suggested and that the lawmakers of a country, state, etc., must vote to accept before it becomes law ▪ They will introduce an anti-smoking bill in Congress. ▪ The Senate passed/rejected the bill. ▪ How does a bill become a law?; also : such a bill after it has become a law ▪ the GI bill — see also BILL OF RIGHTS
3 chiefly US : a piece of paper money ▪ He handed me a 5-dollar bill. ▪ bills and coins — called also (Brit) note
4 : a written or printed advertisement that is used to announce a play, movie, or concert to the public and to list the names of the performers ▪ Who is on the bill? [=who is performing?] ▪ a double bill [=a concert that has two parts] featuring two of the world's best jazz trumpeters ▪ The notice on the wall said "Post No Bills." [=do not put any advertisements on the wall] fill the bill or fit the bill : to be exactly what is needed : to be suitable ▪ If you want to stay near the beach, this hotel will fit the bill.
foot the bill see [2]FOOT give (someone or something) a clean bill of health : to officially say that someone is healthy or that something is working correctly ▪ The doctor gave him a clean bill of health. ▪ The governor gives the program a clean bill of health.
– compare [3]BILL

[2]bill verb bills; billed; bill•ing [+ obj]
1 : to send a bill to (someone or something) : to provide (a person, business, organization, etc.) with a statement that says how much money is owed for something that has been bought or used ▪ They billed me for the repairs they made to the roof. ▪ The company was billed for the deliveries.
2 : to describe (someone or something) as a particular thing so that people will like or want that person or thing — usually used as (be) billed ▪ The city is being billed [=advertised] as one of the best places to live in the state. ▪ She was billed as the next big movie star. — see also BILLING
3 : to officially say that someone is going to do something — usually used as (be) billed ▪ Both writers are billed to appear at the conference.
– compare [4]BILL

[3]bill noun, pl bills [count]
1 : a bird's beak ▪ a duck's bill — see picture at BIRD
2 US : the part of a cap that sticks out in front : the visor of a hat
– compare [1]BILL

[4]bill verb bills; billed; billing
bill and coo old-fashioned : to kiss and talk quietly ▪ A young couple sat together in the corner, billing and cooing.
– compare [2]BILL

bill•board /ˈbɪlˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a large sign for advertisements that is next to a road, on the side of a building, etc. — called also (Brit) hoarding

[1]bil•let /ˈbɪlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a private home where a soldier lives temporarily with the people who live there

[2]billet verb -lets; -let•ed; -let•ing [+ obj] : to put (someone, such as a soldier) in a private home to live there temporarily — usually used as (be) billeted ▪ The soldiers were billeted [=quartered, housed] in houses throughout the town.

bill•fold /ˈbɪlˌfoʊld/ noun, pl -folds [count] US : a small folding case that holds paper money and credit cards : WALLET

bil•liards /ˈbɪljədz/ noun [noncount] : any one of several games that are played on a large table by hitting solid balls into one another with the end of a long stick ✧ The table used for some types of billiards has pockets at the corners and sides. — compare POOL, SNOOKER
– bil•liard /ˈbɪljəd/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ billiard balls ▪ a billiard table bill•ing /ˈbɪlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the things that are said or written to make people interested in a show, perfomer, etc. ▪ The film didn't live up to its advance billing. [=it was not as good as people said it would be] ✧ The person who gets top/star billing for a play, movie, etc., is the most important or famous performer whose name is shown above the names of other performers in signs and advertisements. ▪ She'll get top billing on her next film. ▪ Both of the actors want star billing.

bil•lion /ˈbɪljən/ noun, pl billion or bil•lions [count]
1 : the number 1,000,000,000 : one thousand million ▪ a/one/two billion (of them) ▪ a hundred billion = 100 billion ▪ several billion (of them) = (less commonly) several billions (of them) ▪ hundreds of billions (of them) ▪ a billion and one [=1,000,000,001] ▪ a billion and a half = 1.5 billion [=1,500,000,000] ▪ The company is worth billions. [=worth billions of dollars, pounds, euros, etc.]
2 : a very large amount or number ▪ We could see a billion stars in the sky. ▪ I've heard that excuse a billion times before. [=many, many times before] — often plural ▪ We could see billions of stars. ▪ billions and billions of stars
3 Brit, old-fashioned : the number 1,000,000,000,000 : TRILLION
– bil•lionth /ˈbɪljənθ/ adj ▪ our (one) billionth customer ▪ This is the billionth time I've seen this show. [=I've seen this show many times] – billionth noun, pl -lionths [count] ▪ one billionth [=one of a billion equal parts] of a second bil•lion•aire /ˌbɪljəˈneə/ noun, pl -aires [count] : a rich person who has at least a billion dollars, pounds, etc.

bill of exchange noun, pl bills of exchange [count] business : a document that tells a person or business to pay a particular amount of money to another person or business bill of fare noun, pl bills of fare [count] somewhat formal + old-fashioned : a list of the things that are served at a restaurant : MENU ▪ The bill of fare includes several soups.

bill of rights or Bill of Rights noun [singular] : a written statement that lists the basic rights of the citizens of a country ▪ Certain freedoms are guaranteed to all Americans by the Bill of Rights. [=the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution] bill of sale noun, pl bills of sale [count] : a document saying that something has been sold to a new owner ▪ Do you have the bill of sale for the car?

[1]bil•low /ˈbɪloʊ/ noun, pl -lows [count]
1 : a moving cloud or mass of smoke, steam, etc. ▪ Billows of smoke poured out of the burning building. ▪ billows of fog
2 literary + old-fashioned : a large wave ▪ the rolling billows of the sea

[2]billow verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing [no obj]
1 : to move as a large cloud or mass ▪ Clouds of smoke billowed (up) from the chimney.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 114 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

2 : to be pushed outward by air ▪ sails billowing (out) in the breeze
3 literary + old-fashioned : to rise or roll in waves ▪ the billowing ocean

bil•ly club /ˈbɪli-/ noun, pl ~ clubs [count] US : NIGHTSTICK

billy goat noun, pl ~ goats [count] : a male goat — compare NANNY GOAT bim•bo /ˈbɪmboʊ/ noun, pl -bos [count] informal : an attractive but stupid woman ▪ Her husband ran off with some bimbo.

bi•month•ly /baɪˈmʌnθli/ adj
1 : occurring every two months ▪ The group holds bimonthly meetings in January, March, May, and so on.
2 : occurring twice a month : SEMIMONTHLY ▪ The group holds bimonthly meetings on the first and third Tuesday of each month.
– bimonthly adv

[1]bin /ˈbɪn/ noun, pl bins [count]
1 : a box that is used for storing things ▪ a storage/laundry bin ▪ Put the old newspapers in the recycling bin.
2 chiefly Brit : a can for trash or garbage : DUSTBIN — see also BIN LINER, BINMAN

[2]bin verb bins; binned; bin•ning [+ obj] Brit, informal : to put (something) in the trash ▪ binning old newspapers

bi•na•ry /ˈbaɪnəri/ adj, technical
1 : relating to or consisting of two things or parts ▪ binary stars
2 : relating to or involving a method of calculating and of representing information especially in computers by using the numbers 0 and 1 ▪ binary digits/numbers

[1]bind /ˈbaɪnd/ verb binds; bound /ˈbaʊnd/; bind•ing
1 [+ obj] : to tie or wrap (something) with rope, string, etc. ▪ She bound her hair in a ponytail. ▪ The machine binds the hay into bales.
2 [+ obj] : to tie the hands or feet of a person to prevent escape or movement ▪ He bound the prisoner's wrists (together) with a rope. ▪ The captive was bound and gagged. [=tied up and stopped from talking with something that covers the mouth] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They are bound by their own inhibitions.
3 [no obj] of clothing : to prevent free movement by fitting too tightly ▪ He doesn't like to wear clothes that bind.
4 [+ obj] : to wrap or cover (something) with a bandage ▪ The doctor bound (up) the injured ankle.
5 [+ obj] : to make (someone) have to do something because of a promise, agreement, etc. ▪ He bound himself with an oath. — usually used as (be) bound ▪ By signing here, you agree to be bound by the terms of the contract. — see also [2]BINDING, [2]BOUND 5 6 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as an agreement) certain ▪ A handshake binds the deal.
7 [+ obj] : to cause (people) to be joined together closely ▪ the emotional ties that bind us ▪ different groups bound together by a common interest
8 : to cause (something) to form a mass that stays together [+ obj] The mayonnaise binds the salad together. [no obj] If you leave out the eggs, the dough won't bind.
9 technical : to combine with (something) by chemical forces [+ obj] cellulose binds water [no obj] particles that bind to/with one another 10 [+ obj] : to put a special decorative edge on (something, such as cloth or carpet) ▪ You need to bind the edges so it won't unravel.
11 [+ obj] : to put a cover or binding on (a book) ▪ This book was bound by hand. — see also [2]BOUND 6 bind over [phrasal verb] bind (someone) over 1 US, law : to require (someone) to appear in court ▪ He was bound over for trial. 2 Brit, law : to warn (someone) that if they break the law again they will be punished ▪ The shoplifters were simply bound over.

[2]bind noun [singular]
1 : a difficult situation ▪ Can you help me? I seem to have gotten myself into a (bit of a) bind.
2 Brit : an annoying problem : NUISANCE ▪ It's a real bind having to meet all these deadlines.

bind•er /ˈbaɪndə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a cover for holding together sheets of paper ▪ a loose-leaf binder — see also RING BINDER
2 : a material that is used to hold things together ▪ The egg in the recipe acts as a binder.
3 : a person or machine that puts books together
4 US : a temporary insurance contract that provides coverage until a policy is issued
5 US : a payment given to make an agreement official and legal ▪ She gave the lawyer 1,000 dollars as a binder when she signed the agreement to buy the house.

[1]bind•ing /ˈbaɪndɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : the cover of a book ▪ a leather binding
2 : a narrow strip of cloth attached along the edge of something [noncount] a carpet edged with canvas binding [count] The bindings have started to come loose.
3 : a device that attaches a boot to a ski

[2]binding adj : forcing or requiring someone to do something because of a promise, agreement, etc. ▪ The contract is legally binding. ▪ The parties agreed to settle the dispute through binding arbitration.

[1]binge /ˈbɪnʤ/ noun, pl binge•es [count] : a short period of time when you do too much of something ▪ a drinking/shopping binge — often used in the phrase go on a binge ▪ He went on an eating binge. [=he ate a lot in a short period of time] — often used before another noun ▪ binge drinking

[2]binge verb binges; binged; binge•ing or bing•ing [no obj] : to eat, drink, etc., too much in a short period of time : to go on a binge — often + on ▪ He binges on beer now and then.
binge and purge : to eat a lot of food and then force yourself to vomit so that you do not gain weight ▪ Her college roommate used to binge and purge.
– bing•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's a bit of a beer binger.

[1]bin•go /ˈbɪŋgoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a game in which players match numbered squares on a card with numbers that are called out until someone wins by matching five squares in a row ▪ She plays bingo twice a week. — often used before another noun ▪ bingo halls/parlors ▪ a bingo game

[2]bingo interj
1 — used to announce that you have won the game in bingo
2 — used to announce a successful result that is quick or unexpected ▪ Then, bingo! The idea hit me.
3 — used to indicate that another person's statement is correct ▪ "You mean he lied to us?" "Bingo!" [=exactly] bin liner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : a plastic bag used in a garbage can bin•man /ˈbɪnˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] Brit : GARBAGEMAN bin•oc•u•lar /baɪˈnɑːkjələ/ adj : involving or designed for both eyes ▪ binocular vision ▪ a binocular microscope bin•oc•u•lars /bəˈnɑːkjələz/ noun [plural] : a device that you hold up to your eyes and look through to see things that are far away ▪ a bird in a tree seen through (a pair of) binoculars

binoculars

bi•no•mi•al /baɪˈnoʊmijəl/ noun, pl -als [count] mathematics : an expression consisting of two terms connected by a plus sign or minus sign ▪ the binomial a + b – binomial adj ▪ binomial expressions bio- combining form : relating to life or living things ▪ *bio*sphere ▪ *bio*chemistry bio•chem•is•try /ˌbajoʊˈkɛməstri/ noun [noncount] : the chemistry of living things ▪ the brain's biochemistry ▪ advances in the field of biochemistry ▪ a professor of biochemistry

– bio•chem•i•cal /ˌbajoʊˈkɛmɪkəl/ adj ▪ biochemical changes/processes – bio•chem•ist /ˌbajoʊˈkɛmɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

bio•de•grad•able /ˌbajoʊdɪˈgreɪdəbəl/ adj : capable of being slowly destroyed and broken down into very small parts by natural processes, bacteria, etc. ▪ biodegradable trash bags ▪ This plastic isn't biodegradable.

bio•di•ver•si•ty /ˌbajoʊdəˈvəsəti/ noun [noncount] : the existence of many different kinds of plants and animals in an environment ▪ efforts to preserve biodiversity

bio•feed•back /ˌbajoʊˈfiːdˌbæk/ noun [noncount] : the technique of controlling things in your body (such as heartbeats or brain waves) with your conscious mind

bio•graph•i•cal /ˌbajəˈgræfɪkəl/ adj : relating to or telling the story of a real person's life ▪ biographical information ▪ a biographical essay bi•og•ra•phy /baɪˈɑːgrəfi/ noun, pl -phies [count] : the story of a real person's life written by someone other than that person ▪ a new biography of Abraham Lincoln — compare AUTOBIOGRAPHY

– bi•og•ra•pher /baɪˈɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Lin-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 101 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

coln's biographers [=people who wrote biographies of Lincoln] bio•haz•ard /ˈbajoʊˌhæzəd/ noun, pl -ards [count] : a biological or chemical substance or situation that is dangerous to human beings and the environment ▪ The gasoline spill created a serious biohazard.

– bio•haz•ard•ous /ˌbajoʊˈhæzədəs/ adj ▪ biohazardous materials

bi•o•log•i•cal /ˌbajəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to biology or to life and living things ▪ biological processes ▪ biological research
2 : related through birth — used to distinguish the parents who gave birth to a child from the parents who later adopted the child ▪ an adopted child who finally found her biological mother
– bi•o•log•i•cal•ly /ˌbajəˈlɑːdʒɪkli/ adv ▪ a biologically diverse region biological clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a system in the body that controls the occurrence of natural processes (such as waking, sleeping, and aging) — often used to describe a woman's desire to have children before she is too old ▪ She felt her biological clock ticking away and wanted to have a baby as soon as possible.

biological control noun, pl ~ -trols
1 [noncount] : a method of controlling harmful insects, diseases, etc., in an environment (such as a garden or a lawn) by using other insects or natural substances ▪ She practices biological control in her gardening.
2 [count] : an insect or a natural substance that is used to control control harmful insects, diseases, etc. ▪ She uses biological controls in her garden.

biological warfare noun [noncount] : the use of harmful living things (such as germs that cause disease) as weapons in a war biological weapon noun, pl ~ -ons [count] : a harmful living thing (such as a germ that causes disease) used as a weapon in a war

bi•ol•o•gy /baɪˈɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount]
1 : a science that deals with things that are alive (such as plants and animals) ▪ advances in the field of biology ▪ a professor of biology
2 : the plant and animal life of a particular place ▪ the biology of the rain forest
3 : the processes that occur in a living thing ▪ human biology ▪ the biology of tumor cells
– bi•ol•o•gist /baɪˈɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

bi•on•ic /baɪˈɑːnɪk/ adj, of body parts : made stronger or more capable by special electronic devices — usually used figuratively ▪ a pitcher with a bionic arm [=a pitcher who throws extremely fast] bio•pic /ˈbajoʊˌpɪk/ noun, pl -pics [count] informal : a biographical movie ▪ We watched a biopic about Beethoven.

bi•op•sy /ˈbaɪˌɑːpsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] medical : the removal of tissue, cells, or fluids from someone's body in order to check for illness ▪ a skin biopsy

bio•rhythm /ˈbajoʊˌrɪðəm/ noun, pl -rhythms [count] : a natural, repeated pattern of changes that occur in the body and that affect the way a person feels bio•sphere /ˈbajəˌsfiə/ noun [singular] : the part of the Earth in which life can exist — usually used with the ▪ the effects of pollution on the biosphere

bio•tech /ˈbajoʊˌtɛk/ noun [noncount] : BIOTECHNOLOGY

bio•tech•nol•o•gy /ˌbajoʊtɛkˈnɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the use of living cells, bacteria, etc., to make useful products (such as crops that insects are less likely to destroy or new kinds of medicine)
– bio•tech•no•log•i•cal /ˌbajoʊˌtɛknəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj bi•par•ti•san /baɪˈpɑətəzən, Brit ˌbaɪˌpɑːtəˈzæn/ adj : relating to or involving members of two political parties ▪ a bipartisan effort/commission ▪ The bill has bipartisan support.

– bi•par•ti•san•ship /baɪˈpɑətəzənˌʃɪp, Brit ˌbaɪˌpɑːtəˈzænˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] bi•ped /ˈbaɪˌpɛd/ noun, pl -peds [count] : a 2-footed animal ▪ Human beings are bipeds. — compare QUADRUPED bi•plane /ˈbaɪˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] : an old type of airplane that has two sets of wings with one placed above the other — compare MONOPLANE

bi•po•lar disorder /baɪˈpoʊlə-/ noun [noncount] medical : MANIC DEPRESSION

bi•ra•cial /baɪˈreɪʃəl/ adj : of, relating to, or involving people from two races ▪ a biracial coalition ▪ a biracial couple; also : having parents from two races ▪ biracial children

birch /ˈbɚʧ/ noun, pl birch•es
1 a [count] : a type of tree that has outer bark which can be pulled off easily — called also birch tree b [noncount] : the hard, pale wood of the birch ▪ a cabinet made of birch
2 the birch Brit : the punishment of being hit with a birch stick ▪ In those days, schoolchildren got the birch when they misbehaved.

bird /ˈbɚd/ noun, pl birds [count]
1 : an animal that has wings and is covered with feathers ▪ A large bird flew overhead. ▪ The birds were singing outside our window. ▪ a flock of birds — see color picture on page C9; see also BIRD OF PARADISE, BIRD OF PASSAGE, BIRD OF PREY
2 informal : PERSON ▪ He's a tough old bird. — see also RARE BIRD
3 Brit, informal + sometimes offensive : GIRL ▪ We met some smashing birds at the pub last night.
a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush ✧ The expression a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush means that it is better to hold onto something you have than to risk losing it by trying to get something better.
(as) free as a bird see [1]FREE birds of a feather flock together see [1]FEATHER for the birds informal : worthless or ridiculous ▪ This town is for the birds.
give (someone) the bird informal 1 or flip (someone) the bird US : to make an offensive gesture at someone by pointing the middle finger upward while keeping the other fingers folded down ▪ He flipped them the bird. [=gave them the finger] 2 Brit : to loudly shout at, laugh at, or boo someone (such as a performer) in order to show disapproval ▪ The audience gave him the bird.
kill two birds with one stone see [1]KILL the birds and the bees informal + humorous : the facts about sex that are told to children ▪ He dreaded having to explain about the birds and the bees [=the facts of life] to his son.
the early bird catches/gets the worm see [2]EARLY bird•bath /ˈbɚdˌbæθ, Brit ˈbɜːdˌbɑːθ/ noun, pl -baths [count] : a bowl that is filled with water and usually raised above the ground in a yard or garden so birds can bathe in it — see color picture on page C6

bird•brain /ˈbɚdˌbreɪn/ noun, pl -brains [count] US, informal : a stupid person ▪ Her brother's a real birdbrain.
– bird•brained /ˈbɚdˌbreɪnd/ adj ▪ her birdbrained brother bird•cage /ˈbɚdˌkeɪʤ/ noun, pl -cag•es [count] : a cage for birds bird dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] US : a dog that has been trained to help people hunt birds — called also (Brit) gun dog

bird•er /ˈbɚdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : BIRD-WATCHER
– bird•ing /ˈbɚdɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She goes birding [=bird-watching] with her friends.

bird•house /ˈbɚdˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a small covered box that is made as a place for wild birds to nest

[1]bird•ie /ˈbɚdi/ noun, pl -ies
1 [count] : a small bird — used especially by children or when speaking to children ▪ Look at all the little birdies.
2 golf : a score of one stroke less than par on a hole [count] I made/scored a birdie on the fifth hole. [noncount] I made birdie on the fifth hole. — compare BOGEY, EAGLE
3 [count] US : SHUTTLECOCK

[2]birdie verb bird•ies; bird•ied; bird•ie•ing [+ obj] : to score a birdie on (a hole in golf) ▪ She birdied the second hole.

bird•like /ˈbɚdˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : resembling a bird ▪ a small, birdlike man ▪ birdlike features bird•life /ˈbɚdˌlaɪf/ noun [noncount] : the birds that live in a particular place ▪ The rain forests are rich in birdlife. [=there are many birds in the rain forests]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 101 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

bird of paradise noun, pl birds of paradise [count] : any one of many brightly colored birds that live in New Guinea and in nearby islands bird of passage noun, pl birds of passage [count]

1 : a bird that travels from one location to another when the seasons change
2 literary : a person who wanders to many different places throughout life bird of prey noun, pl birds of prey [count] : a bird that hunts and eats other animals ▪ eagles, hawks, and other birds of prey bird•seed /ˈbəːdˌsiːd/ noun [noncount] : seeds that are used for feeding birds bird's–eye /ˈbəːdzˌaɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : seen from high above ▪ We had a bird's-eye view/perspective of the city as we flew over it.

bird•song /ˈbəːdˌsɑːŋ/ noun [noncount] : the song of a bird or of many birds ▪ The forest was filled with birdsong.

bird–watch•er /ˈbəːdˌwɑːʧəː/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who watches and identifies wild birds — called also birder
– bird–watch•ing /ˈbəːdˌwɑːʧɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She goes bird-watching [=birding] with her friends.

birth /ˈbəːθ/ noun, pl births
1 : the time when a baby comes out from the body of its mother [count] He was present at/for the birth of his daughter. ▪ The hospital reported an increase in premature births. [noncount] Please indicate your date of birth. ▪ the period from birth to adolescence ▪ a disease that is present at birth ▪ She's Canadian by birth. [=she was born in Canada] — often used before another noun ▪ What was the baby's birth weight?
2 [noncount] : the beginning or origin of something ▪ the birth of the solar system ▪ the birth of the blues ▪ We are witnessing the birth of a new era.
3 [noncount] — used to describe the kind of family a person comes from ▪ a person of noble/low/humble birth [=ancestry]
give birth 1 of a mother : produce a baby from the body ▪ Did she give birth in a hospital or at home? — usually + to ▪ He was present when his wife gave birth to his daughter. ▪ Our cat gave birth to four kittens. 2 : to cause the beginning of something — + to ▪ a revolution that gave birth to a new nation birth canal noun, pl ~ -nals [count] : the part of a mother's body that a baby passes through when it is born birth certi cate noun, pl ~ -cates [count] : an official document that gives information about a person's birth (such as the person's name, the names of the parents, and the time and place where the birth occurred)

birth control noun [noncount] : things that are done to keep a woman from becoming pregnant ▪ modern methods of birth control [=contraception] — often used before another noun ▪ a birth control pill birth•day /ˈbəːθˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days [count]

1 : the day when someone was born or the anniversary of that day ▪ Her birthday is September 30th. ▪ Today is his 21st birthday. ▪ Happy Birthday! — often used before another noun ▪ a birthday party/gift
2 : the day when something began ▪ The company just celebrated its 50th birthday.
birthday suit informal + humorous ✧ If you are wearing your birthday suit, you are naked. ▪ We were standing there in nothing but our birthday suits.

birth father noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : the father of a child when the child is born : the natural father of a child who has been adopted birth•ing /ˈbəːθɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of giving birth ▪ pregnancy and birthing ▪ home birthing — often used before another noun ▪ a birthing room/center ▪ the birthing process birth•mark /ˈbəːθˌmɑːk/ noun, pl -marks [count] : an unusual mark that is present on the skin from the time when someone is born birth mother noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : the mother of a child when the child is born : a woman who gave birth to a child who has been adopted birth parent noun, pl ~ -ents [count] : the natural father or mother of a child who has been adopted birth•place /ˈbəːθˌpleɪs/ noun, pl -plac•es [count] : the place where someone was born or where something began ▪ He visited his grandmother's birthplace. ▪ New Orleans is regarded as the birthplace of jazz.

birth•rate /ˈbəːθˌreɪt/ noun, pl -rates [count] : a number that shows how many babies are born in a particular place or during a particular time ▪ nations with high birthrates birth•right /ˈbəːθˌraɪt/ noun, pl -rights [count] : a right that you have because you were born into a particular position, family, place, etc., or because it is a right of all people ▪ the freedom that is our birthright bis•cuit /ˈbɪskət/ noun, pl -cuits [count]

1 US : a small, light roll that is eaten as part of a meal
2 Brit : COOKIE take the biscuit Brit, informal : to win the prize — used to describe something that is extremely surprising, annoying, etc. ▪ I've heard some silly excuses in my time, but this one really takes the biscuit! [=(US) takes the cake]

bi•sect /ˈbaɪˌsɛkt/ verb -sects; -sect•ed; -sect•ing [+ obj] : to divide (something) into two equal parts ▪ Draw a line that bisects the angle. ▪ The city is bisected by the highway.

bi•sex•u•al /baɪˈsɛkʃəwəl/ adj
1 : sexually attracted to both men and women ▪ bisexual people ▪ She's bisexual. — compare HETEROSEXUAL, HOMOSEXUAL
2 : having both male and female sex parts ▪ a bisexual plant
3 : relating to or involving two sexes ▪ bisexual reproduction – bisexual noun, pl -als [count] ▪ He identifies himself as a bisexual. – bi•sex•u•al•i•ty /baɪˌsɛkʃəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount]

bish•op /ˈbɪʃəp/ noun, pl -ops [count]
1 : an official in some Christian religions who is ranked higher than a priest and who is usually in charge of church matters in a specific geographical area ▪ Roman Catholic bishops ▪ the Bishop of New York
2 : a piece in the game of chess that moves across the board at an angle — see picture at CHESS

bish•op•ric /ˈbɪʃəprɪk/ noun, pl -rics [count]
1 : the area a bishop is in charge of : DIOCESE
2 : the position of bishop ▪ He was elected to the bishopric at the turn of the century.

bis•muth /ˈbɪzməθ/ noun [noncount] : a grayish-white metallic element that is used in alloys and drugs

bi•son /ˈbaɪsn̩/ noun, pl bison also bi•sons [count] : a large, hairy wild animal that has a big head and short horns — called also (US) buffalo

bison

bisque /ˈbɪsk/ noun, pl bisques [count, noncount] : a thick, creamy soup ▪ lobster bisque

bis•tro /ˈbiːstroʊ/ noun, pl -tros [count] : a small restaurant or bar ▪ a trendy bistro ▪ a bistro in Paris that serves veal chops and hearty stews

[1]bit /bɪt/ noun, pl bits
1 [count] : a small piece of something ▪ Put all the broken bits back together. — often + of ▪ He ate every last/single bit of the food. [=he ate all of the food] ▪ He ate only a couple of tiny little bits of bread and cheese and drank a drop or two of wine. ▪ We need to get all the bits of dirt out of the carpet. ▪ There were broken bits of glass all over the floor. — see also BITS AND PIECES (below)
2 [count] a chiefly Brit : a part of something (such as a book, play, etc.) ▪ There are some good bits [=parts] near the end of the story: one is the bit where the hero and the heroine are nearly separated. b chiefly US : a brief comic performance or joke ▪ The comedian did a funny bit about taking his daughter to the dentist. ▪ a corny comedy bit c : a very short performance in a movie, play, etc. — usually used before another noun ▪ a bit part/role ▪ bit players
3 [singular] informal : all the things that are connected to an activity, a process, etc. ▪ He says he's tired of his job, tired of driving to work every day, the whole bit. [=everything]
4 [count] Brit : an old coin with a specified small value ▪ a threepenny bit — see also TWO BITS
a bit 1 : a little : somewhat or rather ▪ I let it bother me a bit. [=slightly] ▪ His house is down the street a bit further. ▪ There's a bit too much sugar in the dessert, which makes it a bit too sweet. ▪ I'm feeling a bit better today. ▪ It's a bit like driving a car. ▪ This one is a bit bigger than that one. ▪ At first, I was a bit confused. 2 : a small amount or quantity : a little of something ▪ They don't understand much—but they do understand a bit. ▪ They saved money a bit at a time. ▪ "How much cake is left?" "Only a (very little) bit." ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

"How old is your daughter?" "She's two and a bit." [=she's slightly older than two] — often + of ▪ They understand only a bit of [=a little of] what is going on. ▪ There's a bit of both brown sugar and molasses in these cookies. ▪ The job may cause you a bit of trouble. ▪ His mind's already made up. It won't do you a bit of good to argue. [=it won't do you any good to argue] 3 a : a short period of time : a while ▪ Let's wait a (little/wee) bit longer. ▪ Repairs will begin in a bit more than a month. ▪ He left but came back after a bit. [=he came back soon] b : for a short period of time ▪ Please stay here with me a bit.

a bit much informal — used to describe a person or thing that is regarded as annoying, excessive, or unfair ▪ My mother thinks he's funny, but I find him a bit much. ▪ I find his constant joking a bit much. ▪ It was a bit much to expect us to wait that long. ▪ The hot weather is getting to be a bit much.

a bit of a/an chiefly Brit — used to make a statement or description less forceful or definite ▪ I had a bit of a shock when I saw him. [=I was somewhat shocked when I saw him] ▪ He's a bit of a rascal. [=he's something of a rascal] ▪ We had a bit of a laugh about it afterwards.

a bit of all right Brit, informal : someone or something very pleasing; especially : a sexually attractive person ▪ His girlfriend's a bit of all right.

a little bit see [3]LITTLE bit by bit : by small steps or amounts : GRADUALLY ▪ The situation improved bit by bit. [=little by little] ▪ I got to know them bit by bit.

bits and pieces 1 : small pieces ▪ There were broken bits and pieces of glass all over the floor. ▪ I finished the project in bits and pieces [=a little at a time] during my spare time. 2 or Brit bits and bobs : things or objects of different kinds ▪ There are just a few bits and pieces of furniture in the office. ▪ No one knows exactly what happened. All we have is a few bits and pieces [=odds and ends] of information so far.

do your bit chiefly Brit : to do your share of a job or task ▪ We all have to do our bit [=do our part] to help out.

every bit : in every way ▪ The end of the movie was every bit [=just] as good as the beginning. ▪ This new project seems every bit as ambitious as the first one. ▪ He is every bit the high-powered businessman. ▪ You are every bit as deserving as she is.

not a/one bit or not (in) the least/smallest/slightest/tiniest bit : not at all ▪ It didn't interest me a bit. = It didn't interest me one (single/little) bit. ▪ I'm not a bit interested in this movie. = I'm not the least bit interested in this movie. ▪ That joke was not a/one bit funny. [=was not funny at all] ▪ We weren't a bit tired. [=we weren't tired at all]

not a bit of it Brit, informal — used to say that something expected or possible did not happen or is not true ▪ Am I tired? Not a bit of it. [=I am not tired at all] ▪ I thought she'd be angry, but not a bit of it. [=she wasn't angry at all] quite a bit or chiefly Brit a good/fair bit : a fairly large amount : a lot ▪ He knows quite a bit [=quite a lot] more about it than I do. ▪ The wait was quite a bit [=considerably] longer than I thought it would be. ▪ She lost the race by quite a bit. ▪ We've been seeing quite a bit of each other lately. [=we've been spending a lot of time together lately] ▪ She'd already finished a good bit of the work before I returned. ▪ There's still a fair bit (of the cake) left.

take a bit of doing see DOING to bits 1 : to pieces : APART ▪ The ball hit the window and smashed it to bits. ▪ The bridge was blown to bits by the explosion. ▪ (chiefly Brit) The pie was falling to bits [=falling apart] as I tried to serve it. 2 informal : to a very great degree ▪ She was thrilled to bits. [=she was very thrilled]

– compare [2]BIT, [3]BIT

[2]bit noun, pl bits [count]

1 : the part of a tool (such as a drill) that is used for cutting, drilling, etc. — see picture at CARPENTRY

2 : a piece of metal that is put in the mouth of a horse and that is part of the device (called a bridle) that is used to control the horse — see picture at HORSE

champing/chomping at the bit : waiting in an impatient way to do something ▪ We've all been champing at the bit to get started on the project.

get/take the bit between your teeth : to start doing something in a very enthusiastic and determined way ▪ He can be lazy about doing his work, but when he gets the bit between his teeth there's no stopping him.

– compare [1]BIT, [3]BIT

[3]bit noun, pl bits [count] computers : a single unit of computer information that is represented as either 1 or 0 — compare BYTE; see also MEGABIT — compare [1]BIT, [2]BIT

[4]bit past tense of [1]BITE

[1]bitch /ˈbɪʧ/ noun, pl bitch•es

1 [count] : a female dog

2 [count] informal + offensive : a very bad or unpleasant woman : a woman you strongly dislike or hate ▪ You stupid bitch! ▪ I hate that bitch.

3 [singular] informal : something that is very difficult or unpleasant ▪ Divorce is a bitch. ▪ That word is a bitch to spell. — see also SON OF A BITCH

[2]bitch verb bitches; bitched; bitch•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to complain about something in a repeated and annoying way ▪ He bitched constantly about his old car, but he doesn't like his new one either. ▪ Stop bitching at me.

bitch•in' /ˈbɪʧɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] US slang : very good or appealing : COOL ▪ a bitchin' car ▪ a bitchin' band

bitchy /ˈbɪʧi/ adj bitch•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very unpleasant, unfriendly, or rude ▪ a bitchy salesclerk ▪ a bitchy attitude ▪ a bitchy comment

– bitch•i•ly /ˈbɪʧəli/ adv – bitch•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]bite /ˈbaɪt/ verb bites; bit /ˈbɪt/; bit•ten /ˈbɪtn̩/; bit•ing /ˈbaɪtɪŋ/

1 of a person or animal a : to press down on or cut into (someone or something) with the teeth [+ obj] He bit the apple. ▪ The hamster bit the child. ▪ She bit the cookie in half. ▪ Some people bite their nails when they feel nervous. — often + off ▪ The child bit off a corner of the cracker. [no obj] A wild animal may bite if it is frightened. — often + down, into, or through ▪ He accidentally bit down on his tongue. ▪ She had just bitten into her sandwich when the phone rang. ▪ The dog bit through its leash and ran off. ▪ Go talk to him. He won't bite. [=you should not be afraid to go talk to him] b of an insect or snake : to wound (someone) by pushing a stinger, fang, etc., into the skin [+ obj] The patient had been bitten by a poisonous snake. ▪ A mosquito bit me. [no obj] The mosquitoes are biting tonight. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was bitten by the travel bug. [=he became very interested in or excited about traveling]

2 [no obj] : to grab and hold something without slipping — usually + into ▪ The anchor bit into the ocean floor.

3 [no obj] a of a fish : to take a fishhook and bait into the mouth and usually to get caught ▪ Are the fish biting today? b somewhat informal : to respond to or accept something that is being offered ✧ Someone gets you to bite by offering something you want so that you will do something desired. ▪ We offered them a great deal, but they wouldn't bite. [=they wouldn't accept the deal] ▪ "I just heard the juiciest piece of gossip!" "OK, I'll bite. [=I'll ask the question you want me to ask] What is it?"

4 [no obj] chiefly Brit : to have a bad effect ▪ With the recession starting to bite, many government-funded programs have had to be eliminated.

5 [no obj] US slang, impolite : to be extremely bad ▪ This movie really bites. [=sucks, stinks] ▪ "They canceled the concert." "Man, that bites!" [=(politely) that's awful] bite back [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to attack or criticize someone who has attacked or criticized you ▪ Weary of her rival's accusations, the candidate bit back [=hit back, fought back] with an aggressive ad campaign. — often + at ▪ She bit back at her rival with an aggressive ad campaign. 2 *bite back (something) or bite (something) back : to stop yourself from saying (something) ▪ I attempted to smile sweetly while biting back angry comments.

bite off more than you can chew informal : to try to do too much : to take on more responsibility than you can handle ▪ I really bit off more than I could chew when I took on this project.

bite someone's head off informal : to yell at someone or to be very critical of someone especially very suddenly and without a good reason ▪ I asked him one simple question and he bit my head off.

bite the bullet informal : to do something unpleasant or painful because it is necessary even though you would like to avoid it ▪ We need to bite the bullet and make some budget cuts.

bite the dust informal : to die or stop functioning ▪ My old car finally bit the dust and I had to buy a new one.

bite the hand that feeds you informal : to harm someone who has helped or supported you ▪ He was reluctant to criticize his mentor for fear of biting the hand that fed him.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

bite your tongue also bite your lip informal : to not speak : to stop yourself from saying something that you are tempted to say ▪ I thought she was acting foolishly, but I bit my tongue [=held my tongue] and didn't say anything. — often used as a command ▪ "I hope he gets hurt." "Bite your tongue! [=don't say that] That's a terrible thing to say!"

come back to bite you ✧ If something that you do comes back to bite you, it causes problems for you at a later time. ▪ Their decision not to invest more money in new equipment may come back to bite them eventually.

hair of the dog that bit you see HAIR

once bitten, twice shy ✧ The expression once bitten, twice shy means that a person who has failed or been hurt when trying to do something is careful or fearful about doing it again.

– bit•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]bite noun, pl bites

1 [count] a : an act of biting ▪ He ate the candy bar in three quick bites. ▪ She gave her lip a gentle bite. ▪ The fisherman felt a bite at the end of his line and reeled in a fish. b : the way the upper and lower teeth come together ▪ My teenage daughter wears a special device at night to correct her bite. — see also OVERBITE

2 a [count] : the amount of food eaten with a bite ▪ He took several bites (out) of the apple. ▪ She didn't touch/eat a bite. [=she didn't eat anything] ▪ I can't eat another bite. [=I'm completely full; I no longer feel any hunger] b [singular] informal : a small amount of food : a snack or a small informal meal ▪ We grabbed a quick bite (to eat) before the show. ▪ They've gone out for a bite (to eat).

3 [count] : a wound made by biting ▪ Don't scratch that mosquito bite. — see also SNAKEBITE

4 [noncount] : a bad effect : a negative impact ▪ Many agencies have been feeling the bite of budget cuts.

5 [noncount] a : a sharp feeling or taste ▪ We felt the bite of the cold wind on our cheeks. ▪ The soup has a peppery bite. b : a sharp quality in something written, spoken, or performed ✧ Something that has bite usually expresses criticism in a strong and often clever way. ▪ satirical bite ▪ the bite of his humor your bark is worse than your bite see [2]BARK

– see also SOUND BITE

bite–size /ˈbaɪtˌsaɪz/ also bite–sized /ˈbaɪtˌsaɪzd/ adj : small enough to be eaten in one bite ▪ bite-size pieces bit•ing /ˈbaɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : unpleasantly cold ▪ a biting wind ▪ biting cold

2 : having a sharply critical and often clever quality ▪ biting accusations ▪ biting social commentary ▪ biting wit bit•map /ˈbɪtˌmæp/ noun, pl -maps [count] computers : an image which is stored as an arrangement of bits that represent each of the small dots that form the image

– bit•mapped /ˈbɪtˌmæpt/ adj

bitten past participle of [1]BITE

[1]bit•ter /ˈbɪtɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ✧ The form bitterer is almost never used to mean "more bitter," but the form bitterest is commonly used to mean "most bitter."

1 : having a strong and often unpleasant flavor that is the opposite of sweet ▪ Cocoa beans have a bitter flavor. ▪ The medicine had a bitter aftertaste.

2 : causing painful emotions ▪ bitter disappointments ▪ a bitter defeat : felt or experienced in a strong and unpleasant way ▪ We were struck by the bitter irony of the situation. ✧ A bitter pill or a bitter pill to swallow is something that is difficult or painful to accept. ▪ The defeat was a bitter pill for the team to swallow.

3 : angry and unhappy because of unfair treatment ▪ His betrayal had made her bitter. ▪ She was still bitter toward her ex-husband. ▪ He's the bitterest man I know.

4 : feeling or showing a lot of hatred or anger ▪ bitter enemies ▪ a bitter argument ▪ a bitter reply

5 : very cold ▪ a bitter wind ▪ bitter cold to/until the bitter end : until the end of something that may be very bad, unpleasant, etc. ▪ I knew she would stand by me to the bitter end. ▪ He vowed that he would keep fighting until the bitter end.

– bit•ter•ly adv ▪ We were bitterly disappointed. ▪ He complained bitterly about the crowds. ▪ bitterly cold – bit•ter•ness noun [noncount]

[2]bitter noun, pl -ters

1 bit•ters [plural] : a bitter alcoholic liquid that is used especially in mixed drinks ▪ The cocktail recipe called for a dash of bitters.

2 Brit : a type of beer that has a slightly bitter flavor [noncount] a pint of bitter [count] a good selection of bitters bittersweet adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having both bitter and sweet flavors ▪ bittersweet chocolate

2 : combining sadness and happiness ▪ a bittersweet story ▪ bittersweet memories bit•ty /ˈbɪti/ adj

1 chiefly US, informal : very small ▪ a little bitty [=tiny] room

2 Brit, informal : made up of many small parts that do not seem to fit together well ▪ a bitty and uneven book bi•valve /ˈbaɪˌvælv/ noun, pl -valves [count] biology : a sea animal that has a shell with two movable parts connected by a hinge ▪ clams, mussels, oysters, and other bivalves

– bivalve adj ▪ Clams and oysters are bivalve mollusks.

biv•ouac /ˈbɪvəˌwæk/ noun, pl -ouacs [count] : a temporary camp or shelter

– bivouac verb -ouacs; -ouacked; -ouack•ing [no obj] ▪ The climbers bivouacked on a ledge of the cliff.

[1]bi•week•ly /baɪˈwi:kli/ adj

1 : happening every two weeks ▪ The biweekly [=(chiefly Brit) fortnightly] sales meeting is scheduled for every other Tuesday.

2 : happening twice a week : SEMIWEEKLY ▪ She attends biweekly classes and studies at the library every Saturday.

– biweekly adv ▪ The class meets biweekly.

[2]biweekly noun, pl -lies [count] : a biweekly publication : a magazine or newspaper that is published every two weeks

biz /ˈbɪz/ noun [singular] informal : BUSINESS ▪ the music biz ▪ She left the farm for a career in show biz. [=show business] bi•zarre /bəˈzɑɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very unusual or strange ▪ His behavior was bizarre. ▪ I just heard the most bizarre story. ▪ She wore a bizarre outfit.

– bi•zarre•ly adv – bi•zarre•ness noun [noncount]

blab /ˈblæb/ verb blabs; blabbed; blab•bing informal

1 : to say something that was supposed to be kept secret [+ obj] Don't tell Mary. She'll blab it all over town. [no obj] "How did she find out about the surprise party?" "Tom blabbed."

2 [no obj] : to talk too much ▪ He kept blabbing on and on about politics.

blab•ber•mouth /ˈblæbɚˌmaʊθ/ noun, pl -mouths [count] informal : someone who reveals secrets or talks too much

[1]black /ˈblæk/ adj black•er; -est

1 a : having the very dark color of coal or the night sky ▪ black ink ▪ a black dress b : very dark because there is no light ▪ a black night

2 or Black : of or relating to a race of people who have dark skin and who come originally from Africa ▪ black people ▪ black culture ✧ In the U.S., the term African-American is often preferred over black when referring to Americans of African descent.

3 : very dirty ▪ His hand were black with grime.

4 : served without cream or milk ▪ black coffee

5 literary : evil or wicked ▪ a black deed — see also BLACK ART, BLACK MAGIC

6 a : very sad or hopeless : BLEAK ▪ The outlook was black. ▪ When they heard the terrible news, they were filled with black despair. b : very tragic or unhappy ▪ That was a black day in our country's history.

7 : marked by anger or hatred ▪ A black [=very angry] look darkened his face. ▪ black resentment ▪ a black mood

8 — used to describe humor that deals with subjects which are usually regarded as very serious or unpleasant ▪ The film is a black comedy set in a funeral home. ▪ black humor

– black•ly adv ▪ a blackly funny/comic/humorous movie – black•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the blackness of the night

[2]black noun, pl blacks

1 : the dark color of coal or the night sky [noncount] The wall was painted in black. ▪ the black of night [count] a mixture of grays and blacks — see color picture on page C1

2 [noncount] : black clothing ▪ She was dressed in black.

3 [count] : a person belonging to a race of people who have dark skin : a black person ✧ The singular form black in this sense is rarely used and is often considered offensive. It should be avoided. The plural form blacks is commonly used to refer to black people as a group or community. ▪ His policies are supported by both blacks and whites.

in the black : making a profit ▪ The company is finally in the black. [=the company is profitable] — compare in the red at [2]RED

[3]black verb blacks; blacked; black•ing [+ obj]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

1 old-fashioned + literary : to make (something) black ▪ He blacked his boots with polish.
2 Brit : to refuse to work for or with (a business, employer, etc.) or to buy (goods, services, etc.) ▪ Labor union members have blacked the company.
black out [phrasal verb] 1 : to suddenly become unconscious ▪ What's the last thing you remember before you blacked out? [=passed out, fainted] 2 black (something) out or black out (something) a : to cover (something written) with a black or dark mark so that it cannot be read ▪ Someone had blacked out certain sections of the newspaper. b : to cause (a place) to become dark ▪ They blacked out the stage by turning off all the lights. c : to prevent the broadcast of (a televised sports event) — usually used as (be) blacked out ▪ Last night's game was blacked out in this area, so I couldn't watch it. — see also BLACKOUT

black–and–blue /ˌblækənˈbluː/ adj : having dark marks (called bruises) on your skin because of being hit or injured ▪ He beat me black-and-blue. [=he beat me until I was covered with bruises] ▪ She had black-and-blue marks [=dark bruises] all over her legs.

black–and–white /ˌblækənˈwaɪt/ adj
1 : partly black and partly white in color ▪ a black-and-white dog
2 : having, showing, or producing pictures that do not have colors except for black, white, and shades of gray ▪ She loves to watch old black-and-white movies. ▪ black-and-white wedding photos ▪ a black-and-white television set ▪ Did you put color or black-and-white film in the camera?
3 : involving a simple choice between things that are clearly opposite and especially between good and bad or right and wrong ▪ You are oversimplifying things if you only look at the situation in black-and-white terms. ▪ The truth is not always black-and-white.

black and white noun
in black and white 1 : in written or printed form ▪ I want to see it in black and white. 2 : in a way that involves a simple choice between two opposite things (such as good and bad or right and wrong) ▪ She sees everything in black and white. 3 : using equipment that produces only black-and-white pictures ▪ a movie filmed in black and white.

black art noun, pl ~ arts [count] : a skill or ability that seems mysterious or magical — often used humorously ▪ She's trying to master the black art of setting up a computer network.
the black arts : BLACK MAGIC ▪ She practices the black arts.

black•ball /ˈblækˌbɑːl/ verb -balls; -balled; -ball•ing [+ obj] : to prevent (someone) from joining a group, club, etc., by voting against him or her — often used as (be) blackballed ▪ He was blackballed by the fraternity.

black bear noun, pl ~ bears [count] : a North American bear that usually has black fur — see picture at BEAR black belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] : an expert in a martial art such as karate or tae kwon do ▪ She is a karate black belt.; also : the rank of such an expert ▪ He has a black belt in judo.

black•ber•ry /ˈblækˌberi/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a black or dark purple berry that is sweet and juicy; also : the plant that blackberries grow on — see color picture on page C5

black•bird /ˈblækˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count]
1 : any one of several American birds with males that are mostly black
2 : a common European bird with males that have black feathers and an orange bill black•board /ˈblækˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a smooth, dark surface that is used for writing on with chalk in a classroom — called also (chiefly US) chalkboard

blackboard

black box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a device used in an airplane to record flight information (such as altitude or airspeed) or the voices of the pilots and crew ▪ The black boxes were recovered from the crash site and provided useful information about the cause of the crash.

black death noun
the black death or the Black Death : a deadly disease (called bubonic plague) that spread through Asia and Europe in the 14th century

black•en /ˈblækən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 : to make something dark or black or to become dark or black [+ obj] Fire had blackened the field. [no obj] The sky blackened as the storm approached.
2 [+ obj] : to hurt the reputation of (someone or something) ▪ Their false accusations failed to blacken my reputation/name/character. ▪ a presidency blackened by scandal

black•ened /ˈblækənd/ adj, of food : coated with a mixture of hot spices and fried over very high heat ▪ blackened tuna

black eye noun, pl ~ eyes [count] : a dark area of skin around the eye caused by being hit hard ▪ He gave me a black eye. [=he punched me in the eye causing a dark bruise] — often used figuratively ▪ The scandal gave the team a black eye. [=the scandal caused people to think badly of the team] black–eyed pea /ˈblækˌaɪd-/ noun, pl ~ peas [count] chiefly US : a type of small, light bean that has a dark spot on it — called also (chiefly Brit) black-eyed bean, (chiefly US) cowpea

black–eyed Su•san /ˈblækˌaɪdˈsuːzən/ noun, pl ~ -sans [count] : a North American flower with yellow or orange petals and a dark center

black• y /ˈblækˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies or - y [count] : a small fly that bites black gold noun [noncount] informal : PETROLEUM, OIL ▪ After months of drilling, they finally hit/struck black gold.

black•guard /ˈblægəd/ noun, pl -guards [count] old-fashioned + literary : a rude or dishonest man : a man who deserves to be hated ▪ a cowardly blackguard black•head /ˈblækˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a small, inflamed area on the skin with a dark spot in the middle black hole noun, pl ~ holes [count] : an invisible area in outer space with gravity so strong that light cannot get out of it — often used figuratively ▪ The project turned out to be a financial black hole. [=something that constantly uses up a large amount of money without producing a good result] black ice noun [noncount] : a thin layer of ice on a paved road that is very difficult to see ▪ Drivers should beware of black ice.

black•jack /ˈblækˌʤæk/ noun, pl -jacks
1 [noncount] : a card game in which the players try to get a score that is higher than that of the dealer but less than or equal to 21 — often used before another noun ▪ a blackjack table [=a table at which blackjack is played in a casino] — called also (US) twenty-one
2 [count] : a small leather-covered metal club used as a hand weapon

black•leg /ˈblækˌlɛg/ noun, pl -legs [count] Brit, disapproving : a person who works while other employees are on strike : SCAB

[1]black•list /ˈblækˌlɪst/ noun, pl -lists [count] : a list of people, organizations, etc., that are disapproved of or that are to be punished or avoided ▪ He's on the FBI's blacklist. ▪ The rental company has created a blacklist of bad drivers.

[2]blacklist verb -lists; -list•ed; -list•ing [+ obj] : to say that a person, company, etc., should be avoided or not allowed to do something : to place (someone or something) on a blacklist — often used as (be) blacklisted ▪ In the 1950s, many Hollywood film actors were blacklisted for suspected involvement with the Communist Party.

black magic noun [noncount] : magic that is associated with the devil or with evil spirits : evil magic ▪ He wore a special necklace to protect against black magic.

[1]black•mail /ˈblækˌmeɪl/ noun [noncount]
1 : the crime of threatening to tell secret information about someone unless the person being threatened gives you money or does what you want ▪ She was a victim of blackmail. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He used emotional blackmail to get what he wanted from her. [=he unfairly made her feel guilty or upset to get what he wanted]
2 : something (such as money) that is received through blackmail ▪ The servant extorted blackmail from her employer.

[2]blackmail verb -mails; -mailed; -mail•ing [+ obj] : to use blackmail against (someone) ▪ The old man was being blackmailed by his nephew.
– black•mail•er noun, pl -ers [count]

Black Ma•ria /-məˈrajə/ noun, pl ~ Ma•rias [count] Brit, old-fashioned : PATROL WAGON

black mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : something that makes something else less perfect or less appealing ▪ The suspension was a black mark on her record. ▪ His habitual tardiness was a black mark against him.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

black market noun, pl ~ -kets [count] : a system through which things are bought and sold illegally ▪ The black market in prescription drugs is thriving. ▪ They unloaded the stolen goods on the black market.
– black marketeer noun, pl ~ -teers [count]

black•out /ˈblækˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]
1 : a period when lights are kept off or are hidden from view to guard against enemy airplane attack in a war ▪ the blackouts of World War II
2 : a period when lights are off because of an electrical power failure ▪ She keeps flashlights and candles handy in case of a blackout. — compare BROWNOUT
3 : a sudden and temporary loss of consciousness, vision, or memory ▪ He told his doctor he had been experiencing blackouts.
4 : a situation in which some kinds of information are deliberately kept from the public ▪ The government imposed a news blackout during the war.
– see also black out at [3]BLACK black pepper noun [noncount] : a food seasoning that is made by grinding the dried berries of an Indian plant along with their hard, black covers — compare WHITE PEPPER

black power or Black Power noun [noncount] : the use of political and economic power by African-Americans especially as part of a social movement to promote equality and racial justice in the 1960s — often used before another noun ▪ the Black Power movement of the 1960s

black pudding noun, pl ~ -dings [count, noncount] Brit : BLOOD SAUSAGE black sheep noun, pl ~ sheep [count] : someone who does not fit in with the rest of a group and is often considered to be a troublemaker or an embarrassment ▪ She was the black sheep of the family.

black•smith /ˈblækˌsmɪθ/ noun, pl -smiths [count] : a person who makes or repairs things made of iron (such as horseshoes)

black spot noun, pl ~ spots [count] Brit : a dangerous place or a place where a particular problem or difficulty is very common ▪ The intersection is a notorious (accident) black spot.

black–tie adj — used to describe a formal social event at which men wear black ties and tuxedos and women wear formal dresses ▪ a black-tie dinner — compare WHITE-TIE

black•top /ˈblækˌtɑːp/ noun [noncount] chiefly US
1 : black material that is used for making roads ▪ road crews laying down blacktop
2 : a surface that is covered with blacktop ▪ cars lining the blacktop

black widow noun, pl ~ -ows [count] : a poisonous American spider ✧ The female black widow often kills and eats the male after they have mated. — called also black widow spider

blad•der /ˈblædɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count]
1 : the organ in the body that holds urine after it passes through the kidneys and before it leaves the body — see picture at HUMAN; see also GALLBLADDER
2 : a soft bag (such as the rubber bag inside a football) that is filled with water or air

blade /ˈbleɪd/ noun, pl blades [count]
1 : the flat sharp part of a weapon or tool that is used for cutting ▪ a knife blade ▪ the blade of an ax — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also RAZOR BLADE, SWITCHBLADE
2 : one of the flat spinning parts that are used on some machines to push air or water ▪ a propeller blade
3 : the wide flat part of an oar or paddle
4 : the sharp metal piece on the bottom of an ice skate — see picture at SKATE
5 : a single piece of grass or a similar plant ▪ a blade of grass
6 literary a : SWORD 1 ▪ an opponent worthy of my blade b : SWORDSMAN ▪ the best blade in the land
– see also SHOULDER BLADE

[1]blah /ˈblɑː/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal
1 : not interesting or unusual : dull or boring ▪ The hotel room was totally blah. ▪ a blah winter day
2 : without energy or enthusiasm ▪ She sat on the couch all day watching television and feeling blah.

[2]blah noun, pl blahs informal
1 the blahs chiefly US : a feeling of being bored, tired, etc. ▪ She had a bad case of the blahs.
2 [noncount] : silly or meaningless talk ✧ Blah is usually repeated to suggest that what someone is saying is unimportant or boring. ▪ He got tired of hearing his mother tell him to brush his teeth, clean his room, blah, blah, blah.

[1]blame /ˈbleɪm/ verb blames; blamed; blam•ing [+ obj] : to say or think that a person or thing is responsible for something bad that has happened ▪ Don't blame me. You are responsible for your own problems. ▪ Don't blame me for your problems. = Don't blame your problems on me. ▪ The company blames the poor economy for its financial losses. = The company blames its financial losses on the poor economy. ▪ My father always blames everything on me. ▪ I blame the poor harvest on the weather.
blame the messenger see MESSENGER have yourself to blame ✧ If you have only yourself to blame or have no one to blame but yourself, then something is your fault and nobody else's. ▪ She has only herself to blame for her money problems.
not blame ✧ If you say that you wouldn't/don't/can't blame someone or can hardly blame someone, you think that person has a good reason for doing something. ▪ After the way he treated you, I wouldn't blame you [=I would completely understand] if you never spoke to him again. ▪ You can hardly blame her for being angry.
to blame : responsible for something bad : deserving to be blamed for something. ▪ Who's to blame for these problems? ▪ He says he's not to blame for the delays. [=he did not cause the delays] ▪ Poor communication is at least partly to blame. [=at fault]

[2]blame noun [noncount] : responsibility for something that fails or is wrong ▪ It's not entirely his fault, but he's not completely free of blame, either. ▪ He deserves blame [=deserves to be blamed] for his careless behavior. — usually used with the ▪ The blame lies with me. [=I am at fault; I am to blame] ▪ It's not fair—she gets the credit when things go well, and I get the blame when they fail. ▪ Don't try to put/lay/pin the blame for your problems on me. ▪ The coach took the blame for the defeat. [=the coach said he was responsible for the defeat] — see also the finger of blame at [1]FINGER blame•less /ˈbleɪmləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not responsible for a problem, bad situation, etc. : free from blame or fault ▪ The school is not blameless for the children's poor skills. ▪ An investigation showed that police were blameless in the man's death. ▪ a blameless [=innocent] life

– blame•less•ly adv

blame•wor•thy /ˈbleɪmˌwəði/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : deserving blame : bad or wrong ▪ His conduct was judged (to be) blameworthy. ▪ Their failure to adequately inform participants of the risks was morally/ethically blameworthy.

blanch /ˈblænʧ, Brit ˈblɑːnʧ/ verb blanch•es; blanched; blanch•ing
1 [+ obj] : to put (food items) in boiling water or steam for a short time ▪ Blanch the potatoes before slicing them. ▪ a cup of blanched almonds
2 [no obj] : to suddenly have less color in your face because you are afraid, embarrassed, etc. ▪ She blanched and remained silent when the store owner accused her of taking the money. — often used figuratively ▪ Military leaders blanched at the thought of being asked to accept further funding cuts. [=they reacted in a way that showed they did not want to accept further cuts]

blanche see CARTE BLANCHE blanc•mange /bləˈmɑːnʤ/ noun [count, noncount] Brit : a cold, sweet dessert that looks like jelly formed into a shape

bland /ˈblænd/ adj bland•er; -est
1 : not interesting or exciting ▪ a bland [=dull, boring] film ▪ bland [=uninteresting] architecture
2 : lacking strong flavor ▪ The vegetable soup was rather bland. ▪ a bland diet = a diet of bland foods [=foods that are not spicy]
3 : showing no emotion, concern, etc. ▪ a bland expression/face ▪ The diplomat's bland statement did nothing to calm the situation.
– bland•ly adv – bland•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the blandness of the film/food blan•dish•ments /ˈblændɪʃmənts/ noun [plural] formal : nice things that you say or do to convince someone to do something ▪ He found it hard to resist her blandishments and almost always ended up doing as she wished.

[1]blank /ˈblæŋk/ adj blank•er; -est
1 a : without any writing, marks, or pictures ▪ a blank sheet of paper ▪ Leave that line blank. [=don't write on that line] ▪ a book with blank pages ▪ a blank wall — see also BLANK SLATE b : having empty spaces to be filled in with information : not yet written in or filled out ▪ a blank passport application/form ▪ Sign your name on the blank line. [=a line that marks a place where you should write something] — see also BLANK CHECK

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 102 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

2 : without any recorded sound or information ▪ a blank tape/disk/CD

3 : not showing any emotion ▪ She gave me a blank look [=did not show any emotion or response] when I asked her where she had been. ▪ a blank expression/stare

4 always used before a noun : stated in a very direct and certain way ▪ I was surprised by her blank refusal to loan me the money. ▪ a blank [=(more commonly) flat] denial — see also POINT-BLANK go blank 1 : to suddenly stop showing letters, images, etc. ▪ The screen on my computer went blank. 2 ✧ If your mind goes blank, you are unable to remember or think of something. ▪ My mind went blank when I heard the question.

– blank•ly adv ▪ She stared at him blankly. [=without any expression; her face showed no emotion] – blank•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the wall's blankness = the blankness of the wall

[2]blank noun, pl blanks

1 [count] : an empty space on a document where you put information ▪ The form has a blank for your signature. ▪ Please fill in the blanks. [=put information in the blank spaces] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ At the end of the movie, the narrator goes back and fills in (all) the blanks. [=the narrator provides missing information about the movie's plot]

2 [singular] : a period of time that you cannot remember anything about ▪ He says that the first hour after the accident is a complete blank. [=he cannot remember anything that happened for an hour after the accident] ✧ If your mind is/draws a blank or if you draw a blank, you are unable to remember or think of something. ▪ I should know the answer, but my mind's a blank. ▪ I drew a blank when I tried to remember his name.

3 [count] : a gun cartridge that is filled with powder but that does not contain a bullet ▪ The actors are shooting/firing blanks.

[3]blank verb blanks; blanked; blank•ing [+ obj]

1 US : to keep (the opposing team) from scoring ▪ The goalie blanked the Falcons for two periods in the hockey game.

2 Brit slang : to behave in an unfriendly way toward (someone you have been friendly with in the past) : to ignore or refuse to talk to (someone) ▪ His former friends blanked [=cut, snubbed] him in the street after the scandal.

blank out [phrasal verb] blank out (something) or blank (something) out 1 : to completely hide or cover (something) ▪ They blanked out [=blacked out] parts of the document before making it public. 2 a : to cause (something) to be forgotten ▪ The injury blanked out parts of his memory. b : to completely forget (something) ▪ She has blanked out [=blocked out] what happened that night.

blank check (US) or Brit blank cheque noun, pl ~ checks [count]

1 : a signed check that does not have the amount of money written on it yet

2 informal : complete control or freedom — often used in the phrase give/hand (someone) a blank check ▪ The director had a lot of creative freedom on this project; the film's backers essentially handed him a blank check. [=let him direct the film exactly the way he wanted to]

[1]blan•ket /ˈblæŋkət/ noun, pl -kets [count]

1 : a covering made of cloth that is used especially on a bed to keep you warm ▪ a wool blanket ▪ It's going to get cold tonight so you may need extra blankets. ▪ an electric blanket [=a blanket warmed by electricity] ▪ a beach blanket [=a blanket you sit on at the beach] — see picture at BED; see also SECURITY BLANKET

2 a : a mass of something that covers an area ▪ a blanket of snow/fog/ice ▪ a blanket of flowers/grass b : a general mood — usually singular ▪ A blanket of gloom spread over the crowd when they realized their team would lose.

– see also WET BLANKET

[2]blanket verb -kets; -ket•ed; -ket•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) ▪ Ice was blanketing the bay. ▪ The fields were blanketed with flowers. ▪ Confetti blanketed the sidewalks.

[3]blanket adj, always used before a noun : affecting or applying to everyone or everything ▪ a blanket amnesty for all illegal aliens ▪ a blanket ban on use of the chemical ▪ The witness was given blanket protection from prosecution. [=the witness would not be prosecuted for anything]

blank slate noun, pl ~ slates [count]

1 : someone or something that is still in an original state and that has not yet been changed by people, experiences, etc. ▪ She viewed her students as blank slates, just waiting to be filled with knowledge.

2 : something that does not show or express anything ▪ Her expression was a blank slate. [=it did not show any emotion]

blank verse noun [noncount] : poetry that is not rhymed but that has a regular rhythm ▪ the blank verse of Shakespeare and Milton — compare FREE VERSE

[1]blare /ˈbleə/ verb blares; blared; blar•ing : to make a loud and usually unpleasant sound [no obj] Rock music blared through the store from the loudspeakers. ▪ Sirens blared all night. — often + out ▪ Annoying commercials blared out from the television. [+ obj] Loudspeakers blared rock music through the store. — often + out ▪ The television blared out annoying commercials.

[2]blare noun [singular] : a loud and usually unpleasant noise ▪ the blare of electric guitars

blar•ney /ˈblɑːni/ noun [noncount] informal : talk that is not true but that is nice and somewhat funny and that may be used to trick you ▪ She was charmed by his blarney. ▪ a tale with more than a hint of blarney bla•sé /blɑˈzeɪ, Brit ˈblɑːˌzeɪ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a lack of excitement or interest in something especially because it is very familiar ▪ a blasé traveler ▪ People get blasé about their hometown. ▪ a blasé reaction

blas•pheme /blæsˈfiːm/ verb -phemes; -phemed; -phem•ing formal : to talk about God or religion in a way that does not show respect [no obj] He did not curse or blaspheme. ▪ people who have blasphemed against God [+ obj] people who have blasphemed God

– blas•phem•er noun, pl -ers [count]

blas•phe•my /ˈblæsfəmi/ noun, pl -mies

1 [noncount] : great disrespect shown to God or to something holy ▪ acts of blasphemy ▪ commit blasphemy — often used figuratively ▪ It's blasphemy to insult the local team.

2 [count] : something said or done that is disrespectful to God or to something holy ▪ She was condemned by the church for uttering blasphemies.

– blas•phe•mous /ˈblæsfəməs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ blasphemous language ▪ Religious leaders declared that the book was blasphemous. – blas•phe•mous•ly adv

[1]blast /ˈblæst, Brit ˈblɑːst/ noun, pl blasts [count]

1 a : a mass of air that moves very quickly and forcefully ▪ She opened the door and felt a cold blast. ▪ a blast of wind b : a mass of water, gas, heat, etc., that moves very quickly and forcefully through the air ▪ He was hit by a blast of water from the hose. ▪ a blast of heat

2 : the loud sound made by a horn or a whistle ▪ The driver gave a long blast on his horn. ▪ the blast of the factory whistle ▪ a bugle blast

3 : a powerful explosion ▪ The bomb blast killed eight people. ▪ a shotgun blast

4 : a sudden powerful force ▪ She got a blast of reality when she returned to school in the fall. ▪ a blast of criticism

5 informal : a very enjoyable and exciting experience ▪ I had a blast at your party. ▪ The wedding was a blast.

blast from the past informal : something that reminds you of an earlier time ▪ Hearing that old song again was a real blast from the past.

full blast informal : with as much loudness or power as possible ▪ The engines were running (at) full blast. ▪ She turned up the heat full blast. ▪ The stereo was going full blast. [=the stereo was very loud]

[2]blast verb blasts; blast•ed; blast•ing

1 a : to destroy, break apart, or remove (something) with an explosive [+ obj] Workers were blasting rock where the new highway will go. ▪ The rock has been blasted away. [no obj] Workers were blasting (away) at the rock. b [+ obj] : to create (a space or opening) with explosives ▪ The explosion blasted a hole in the side of the ship. ▪ blast a tunnel

2 [+ obj] : to strongly criticize (someone or something) especially in public ▪ The mayor was blasted by the local press. ▪ The judge blasted the lawyers for delaying the trial. ▪ Human rights groups have blasted the government for its treatment of political prisoners.

3 : to shoot (something or someone) with a weapon [+ obj] He blasted his rival with a pistol. ▪ A gunship blasted enemy headquarters. ▪ They blasted the enemy plane out of the sky. [no obj] Machine guns were blasting. ▪ The soldiers were blasting (away) at the advancing enemy.

4 [+ obj] : to hit (something or someone) with a mass of water, air, etc., that is moving forcefully ▪ She blasted us with water from the hose. ▪ They used an air hose to blast dust off the machine.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 119 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

5 [+ obj] : to hit or kick (something) with great force ▪ He blasted the puck past the goalie. ▪ She blasted the ball over the fence for a home run.

6 : to make a loud and usually unpleasant sound : BLARE [no obj] Their music was blasting all night. ▪ The television was blasting in the other room. [+ obj] A radio was blasting music in the next room.

blast off [phrasal verb] of a missile, rocket, or spacecraft : to leave the ground and begin flight ▪ The rocket will blast off tomorrow morning. — see also BLASTOFF – blast•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Blasters were hired to remove the rock. – blasting noun [noncount] ▪ The actual construction of the road will begin after blasting is completed.

[3]blast interj, informal — used to express anger or annoyance ▪ Blast it! I forgot my keys!

blasted adj, informal

1 always used before a noun : very bad or annoying ▪ I hate this blasted [=damned] weather.

2 : very drunk ▪ He got totally blasted at the party.

blast furnace noun, pl ~ -naces [count] : a large structure in which rock containing a metal is melted so that the metal can be separated from the rock blast•off /ˈblæstˌɑf, Brit ˈblɑːstˌɒf/ noun, pl -offs [count] : the time when a rocket, missile, etc., begins to rise into the air : LAUNCH ▪ ten minutes until blastoff — see also blast off at [2]BLAST

bla•tant /ˈbleɪtn̩t/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very obvious and offensive ▪ a blatant lie ▪ He showed a blatant disregard for the safety of other drivers. ▪ a blatant [=flagrant] attempt to bribe the judge ▪ blatant racial discrimination

– bla•tant•ly adv ▪ She had blatantly copied the text from another book. ▪ a blatantly false statement

blath•er /ˈblæðɚ/ noun [noncount] : foolish or dull talk or writing that continues for a long time ▪ listening to a lot of blather from politicians about who's to blame for the bad economy

– blather verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] ▪ listening to politicians blather (on) about the bad economy – blath•er•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]blaze /ˈbleɪz/ noun, pl blaz•es

1 [count] somewhat formal : an intense and dangerous fire ▪ The family escaped the blaze. ▪ Two people were injured in a restaurant blaze [=a fire in a restaurant] late last night.

2 [singular] : a very bright area of light or color ▪ a shining blaze of light ▪ a blaze of color in the autumn leaves

3 [singular] : a sudden appearance or expression of something : OUTBURST ▪ a blaze of fury ▪ a blaze of publicity/controversy ✧ A blaze of glory is a final important event just before someone or something is gone or dies. ▪ The soldier went down in a blaze of glory. [=the soldier died doing something important and worthy of great respect]

4 blazes informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ It's hot as blazes. [=it's very hot] ▪ What in blazes are you doing? ▪ (Just) Who the blazes do you think you are? ▪ How the blazes am I going to do that?

– compare [3]BLAZE

[2]blaze verb blazes; blazed; blaz•ing [no obj]

1 : to burn very brightly and intensely ▪ A fire blazed in the stove.

2 a : to shine very brightly ▪ The sun blazed down on us. b : to be extremely bright or colorful like fire ▪ The field was blazing [=ablaze] with flowers. c of the eyes : to show anger ▪ His eyes blazed with anger/fury.

3 : to shoot very quickly and constantly ▪ The assassins rushed into the crowd, with their guns blazing. — often + away ▪ The shooter was still blazing away with an automatic rifle.

4 : to move very quickly ▪ A comet blazed across the sky. ▪ He blazed past the other runners. ▪ The team blazed through the tournament. [=they easily defeated every opponent]

– compare [4]BLAZE

[3]blaze noun, pl blazes [count]

1 : a stripe of white fur on the center of an animal's face ▪ a horse with a white blaze

2 : a mark made on a tree to show a trail ▪ The trail was marked with yellow blazes.

– compare [1]BLAZE

[4]blaze verb blazes; blazed; blazing blaze a trail 1 : to show a trail with marks on trees ▪ We followed a trail that others had blazed. 2 : to be the first one to do something and to show others how to do it ▪ The company blazed a trail with the first small computers. ▪ She blazed a trail for other women in politics. — see also TRAILBLAZER

– compare [2]BLAZE

blaz•er /ˈbleɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a jacket that is worn over a shirt and that looks like a suit jacket but is not part of a suit ▪ He wore a blue blazer and khaki pants. ▪ a wool skirt and matching blazer blazing adj [more ~; most ~] : very hot, fast, or powerful ▪ the blazing heat/sun ▪ She runs with blazing speed.

– blaz•ing•ly adv ▪ blazingly hot/fast bla•zon /ˈbleɪzn̩/ verb -zons; -zoned; -zon•ing [+ obj] : EMBLAZON — usually used as (be) blazoned ▪ T-shirts blazoned with the team's name [=T-shirts that have the team's name clearly printed on them]

bldg. abbr building

[1]bleach /ˈbliːʧ/ verb bleach•es; bleached; bleach•ing [+ obj] : to remove color or dirt and stains from (hair, clothing, etc.) especially through the effect of sunlight or by using chemicals : to make (something) whiter or lighter in color ▪ Those pants will look nicer if you bleach them. [=use bleach to make them cleaner and whiter] ▪ bones bleached white by/in the sun ▪ She bleached her hair blonde.

[2]bleach noun [noncount] : a strong chemical that is used to make something clean or white bleach•ers /ˈbliːʧɚz/ noun [plural] US : a set of benches arranged like steps for people to sit on while they are watching a sporting event or performance ▪ stadium bleachers — usually used with the ▪ The ball bounced into the bleachers. ▪ We cheered from our seats in the bleachers.

– bleach•er /ˈbliːʧɚ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ We cheered from our bleacher seats.

bleak /ˈbliːk/ adj bleak•er; -est

1 : not warm, friendly, cheerful, etc. ▪ The weather is bleak. [=cold, rainy, dark, etc.] ▪ a bleak landscape ▪ a bleak [=dismal] movie about a prison ▪ a bleak [=dreary] concrete building with few windows

2 : not hopeful or encouraging ▪ The future looks bleak. [=grim, depressing] ▪ Their chances of winning the game were bleak. [=it was not likely that they would win the game] ▪ a bleak economic climate

– bleak•ly adv ▪ He stared bleakly at the rubble. – bleak•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the bleakness of the landscape bleary /ˈbliri/ adj blear•i•er; -est : very tired and unable to see clearly ▪ She looked at me with bleary eyes.

– blear•i•ly /ˈblirəli/ adv ▪ She looked at me blearily.

bleary–eyed /ˈbliriˌaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having eyes that look very tired and watery ▪ bleary-eyed travelers bleat /ˈbliːt/ verb bleats; bleat•ed; bleat•ing

1 [no obj] : to make the sound that a sheep or goat makes ▪ The lamb bleated as I approached.

2 disapproving : to speak or complain in an annoying way : WHINE [+ obj] "But why can't I go?" she bleated. [no obj] The labor union is always bleating about the management.

– bleat noun, pl bleats [count] ▪ the bleat of a lamb bleed /ˈbliːd/ verb bleeds; bled /ˈblɛd/; bleed•ing

1 [no obj] : to lose or release blood because of a cut, injury, etc. ▪ She was bleeding from the/her face and hands. ▪ Her lip is bleeding. ▪ The man almost bled to death. [=almost died because he lost too much blood]

2 [+ obj] : to remove blood from (a person) as part of a medical procedure that was done in past times ▪ Doctors used to bleed their patients in an effort to cure them.

3 [+ obj] : to remove air or liquid from something ▪ We bled air from the tank. ▪ You'll need to bleed the car's brake lines.

4 [no obj] a of dye, ink, paint, etc. : to spread from one area into another ▪ The shirt's colors might bleed [=run] if you wash it in hot water. b : to gradually spread into or become something else — usually + into ▪ Her professional life had begun to bleed [=seep] into her personal life. ▪ Reality bleeds [=blends] into fantasy as the story goes along.

5 [+ obj] informal : to take a lot of money from (someone) over a period of time ▪ He complained that his ex-wife was bleeding him of all his money. ▪ Many businesses complain that the new taxes are bleeding them dry. [=are taking all their money] ▪ The country has been bled white by a greedy dictator. [=all the country's money and resources have been used up by a greedy dictator]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

6 [+ obj] informal : to lose (money) continually ▪ The company was bleeding a million dollars a day.

your heart bleeds for see HEART bleed•er /ˈbli:dɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal 1 offensive : a person (especially a man) who is very unpleasant ▪ Don't let those bleeders grind you down.

2 sometimes offensive : a man who you think is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ "I've won the lottery." "You lucky bleeder!"

[1]bleed•ing /ˈbli:dɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the process of losing blood ▪ She pressed on the wound to stop the bleeding. ▪ The procedure may cause internal bleeding. [=loss of blood inside the body]

[2]bleeding adj, always used before a noun, Brit, informal + offensive — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ Our neighbor is a bleeding idiot. [=our neighbor is very stupid] bleeding–heart adj, always used before a noun, disapproving : feeling too much sympathy for people in society who you think do not deserve sympathy or help ▪ The conservative press calls him a bleeding-heart liberal.

[1]bleep /ˈbli:p/ noun, pl bleeps [count]
1 : a short, high sound made by an electronic device : BEEP ▪ the bleep [=beep] of an answering machine
2 US, informal — used in place of an offensive word ▪ What the bleep was that about?!

[2]bleep verb bleeps; bleeped; bleep•ing
1 [+ obj] US : to replace (offensive words on radio or television) with an electronic sound ▪ They bleeped half the words in the interview! ▪ The radio station bleeped (out) the swearwords.
2 [no obj] : to make a short, high sound : BEEP ▪ The monitor bleeped.
3 [+ obj] Brit : BEEP 2 ▪ The doctor is not in the office today, but I can bleep her for you.

bleep•er /ˈbli:pɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : PAGER

[1]blem•ish /ˈblɛmɪʃ/ noun, pl -ish•es [count]
1 : a mark that makes something imperfect or less beautiful : an unwanted mark on the surface of something ▪ The cream is supposed to prevent blemishes on the skin. ▪ The table had a few scratches and minor blemishes.
2 : a fact or event that causes people to respect someone or something less ▪ The book fails to mention any of the organization's many blemishes. ▪ The incident was/left a blemish on his record/reputation.

[2]blemish verb -ishes; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) imperfect or less beautiful : to hurt or damage the good condition of (something) ▪ A series of burn marks blemish the table's surface. ▪ The incident blemished his reputation. — usually used as (be) blemished ▪ Her face was wrinkled and blemished. ▪ His reputation was blemished [=marred] by the incident.

[1]blend /ˈblɛnd/ verb blends; blend•ed; blend•ing
1 [+ obj] : to mix (things) thoroughly and usually with good results ▪ Blend the fruit, yogurt, and milk (together). ▪ blend caramel with chocolate ▪ The music blends traditional and modern melodies. ▪ She blends psychology and crime in her new novel.
2 [no obj] : to exist together as a combination ▪ Psychology and crime blend (together) in her new novel. ▪ The flavor of the sauce blends well with the fruit. [=the sauce and fruit taste good together] blend in [phrasal verb] 1 : to look like what is around you ▪ The fish settles on the sandy ocean bottom where it blends in perfectly. 2 : to look like you belong with a particular group ▪ She tried to blend in by dressing like the other girls. — often + with ▪ I've always found it difficult to blend in with my peers. 3 blend (something) in or blend in (something) : to add (something) to a mixture or substance and mix it thoroughly ▪ Mix the first three ingredients together, then blend in the cream. ▪ Blend the white paint in last.
blend into [phrasal verb] blend into (something) 1 : to gradually become the same as or part of (something) ▪ One color blends into another. ▪ where the city blends into the suburbs 2 : to look like (what is around you) ▪ The animal's dark fur enables it to blend into its surroundings. 3 : to look like you belong in (something) ▪ He tried to blend into the crowd. ▪ A good journalist can easily blend into a community.
– blending noun [singular] ▪ a blending of traditional French songs and punk rock ▪ a seamless blending

[2]blend noun, pl blends [count] : something produced by mixing or combining different things ▪ wool and cotton blends [=fabrics that are made of wool and cotton woven together] ▪ a blend of cream and eggs ▪ a blend of traditional and modern melodies

blended adj
1 : made from two or more kinds of a particular substance ▪ blended tobacco/coffee ▪ blended whiskies ▪ blended fabrics
2 : made by mixing substances together ▪ blended fruit drinks blended family noun, pl ∼ -lies [count] : a family that includes children from a previous marriage of the wife, husband, or both parents blend•er /ˈblɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an electric kitchen machine that is used to cut food and ice into very small pieces and to make soft foods (such as fruits) into a liquid — called also (Brit) liquidizer; see picture at KITCHEN bless /ˈblɛs/ verb bless•es; blessed /ˈblɛst/; bless•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something or someone) holy by saying a special prayer ▪ The priest blessed their marriage at the wedding. ▪ The water for the baptism has been blessed.
2 : to ask God to care for and protect (someone or something) ▪ The priest blessed the baby I held in my arms.
3 a — used in the phrase God bless to express good wishes or appreciation for someone or something ▪ May God bless this country. ▪ God bless modern medicine. [=thank God for modern medicine] — see also GOD BLESS YOU (below) b — used in phrases like bless his/her heart and bless him/her to express affection, appreciation, or understanding ▪ She tries so hard, bless her heart. ▪ My aunt Clare, bless her, watched the kids while we went out. ▪ Our cousin, bless his heart, is just so disorganized. — see also BLESS YOU (below)
4 : to provide (a person, place, etc.) with something good or desirable ▪ Nature has blessed the area with good soil and a sunny climate. — usually used as (be) blessed ▪ I have been blessed with good health and a wonderful wife and children. ▪ He was blessed [=endowed] with great speed as a runner.
5 : to give approval to (something) ▪ The committee has not yet blessed the plan.
bless my soul old-fashioned — used in speech to express surprise ▪ You decided to come see us after all. Well, bless my soul!
bless you or God bless you 1 — used in speech to express thanks or good wishes ▪ "I'll be happy to help in any way I can." "Oh, bless you! That's very kind of you." 2 — said to someone who has just sneezed bless•ed /ˈblɛsəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]

1 : having a sacred nature : connected with God : HOLY ▪ the blessed Trinity
2 always used before a noun : very welcome, pleasant, or appreciated ▪ The rain brought blessed relief from the heat. ▪ He spent his weekend in blessed freedom.
3 informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ You don't know a blessed thing.
– bless•ed•ly adv ▪ The park was blessedly free of crowds.
– bless•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ eternal blessedness in heaven blessing noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] a : approval that allows or helps you to do something ▪ He gave his blessing to the plan. [=he approved the plan] ▪ Presumably he was acting with the government's blessing. ▪ They got married without their parents' blessing. b : help and approval from God ▪ We asked the Lord's blessing on us and on our project.
2 [count] : something that helps you or brings happiness — usually singular ▪ My daughter is a blessing to me in my old age. ▪ E-mail can be a blessing if you travel a lot in business. ▪ It's a blessing that you came when you did. ✧ Something that is a blessing in disguise seems to be a bad thing at first but actually is a good thing. ▪ Not getting the job turned out to be a blessing in disguise, since she got a much better job soon afterward. ✧ If something is a blessing and a curse or a mixed blessing there are both good and bad things about it. ▪ Being famous can be a blessing and a curse. ▪ The promotion was really a mixed blessing because I'm now so busy that I don't have time to spend the extra income.
3 [count] : a short prayer ▪ He said a blessing before the meal.
4 [noncount] : the act of asking God to care for and protect someone or something ▪ The priest performed the blessing of the fishing boats.
count your blessings : to make a special effort to appreciate the good things in your life ▪ I try to remember to count my blessings every day.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 114 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

blether noun [noncount] Brit : BLATHER

bleu see CORDON BLEU

blew past tense of [1]BLOW

[1]blight /ˈblaɪt/ noun, pl blights

1 [count] : a disease that makes plants dry up and die ▪ potato blight

2 a [count] : something that causes harm or damage like a disease — usually singular ▪ the blight of poverty in the city — usually + on ▪ The abandoned factory is a blight on the neighborhood. b [noncount] : a damaged condition ▪ the city's spreading urban blight ▪ environmental blight

[2]blight verb blights; blight•ed; blight•ing [+ obj]

1 : to damage (plants) with a disease — usually used as (be) blighted ▪ The apple trees were blighted by fungus.

2 : to damage (a thing or place) ▪ Builders blighted the land with malls and parking lots.

– blighted adj ▪ blighted areas of the city ▪ a blighted industrial landscape blight•er /ˈblaɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal

1 : a person (especially a man) who is unpleasant ▪ Just tell the blighter to leave you alone.

2 : a man who you think is lucky, unlucky, etc. ▪ I feel sorry for the little blighter.

Blighty /ˈblaɪti/ noun [noncount] Brit slang — used as a name for England or Britain ▪ She's glad to be back in old Blighty.

bli•mey /ˈblaɪmi/ interj, Brit, informal — used to express surprise or amazement ▪ "I've won the lottery." "Blimey! I can't believe it!"

blimp /ˈblɪmp/ noun, pl blimps [count] : a large aircraft without wings that floats because it is filled with gas — compare HOT-AIR BALLOON, ZEPPELIN

[1]blind /ˈblaɪnd/ adj blind•er; -est

1 : unable to see ▪ a blind person ▪ He was born blind. ▪ She is blind in one eye. [=she can see with one of her eyes but not with the other] ▪ She went blind [=she became unable to see] at age 67. — see also COLOR-BLIND

2 : unable to notice or judge something — usually + to ▪ He is blind to his son's faults. ▪ Each party was blind to the other's concerns.

3 a usually disapproving : accepting the actions or decisions of someone or something without any questions or criticism ▪ blind loyalty/allegiance/obedience ▪ I'm not sure blind faith [=unquestioning belief] in our leaders is wise. b — used to describe strong emotions that make someone unable to think clearly or to act reasonably ▪ a blind fury/rage

4 : done in a way that prevents participants, judges, etc., from seeing or knowing certain things that might influence them ▪ a blind taste test [=a test in which people taste something without knowing what it is, who made it, etc.] ▪ a blind clinical trial for the new medicine ▪ blind auditions — see also BLIND DATE, DOUBLE-BLIND

5 : difficult for a driver to see ▪ a blind driveway/drive ▪ a blind curve — see also BLIND SPOT

(as) blind as a bat informal : unable to see well at all : having very poor vision ▪ Without glasses I'm blind as a bat.

love is blind see [1]LOVE not a blind bit Brit, informal : not even a very small amount : not the slightest bit ▪ I told them what I wanted, but they didn't take a blind bit of notice. [=they didn't notice at all; they did not listen to me] ▪ It does not make a blind bit of difference what you do. [=it does not matter at all what you do] the blind : blind people : people who are not able to see ▪ The agency provides assistance to the blind. ✧ The expression the blind leading the blind is used informally to describe a situation in which someone who is not sure about how to do something is helping another person who also is not sure about how to do it. ▪ I'll try to help, but it's the blind leading the blind because I've never done this before either.

turn a blind eye : to ignore a problem instead of dealing with it ▪ Corruption in the police force is rampant, but authorities are turning a blind eye. — often + to ▪ Colleges can't afford to turn a blind eye to alcohol abuse.

– blind•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a leading cause of blindness

[2]blind verb blinds; blind•ed; blind•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to be unable to see : to make (someone) blind ▪ The accident blinded me in one eye. = The accident left me blinded in one eye. ▪ She was blinded as a child in a terrible fire.

2 : to cause (someone) to be unable to see for a short time ▪ I was blinded by the sun as I came around the corner.

3 : to cause (someone) to be unable to think clearly or to act reasonably ▪ He was blinded by love. — often + to ▪ Greed blinds them to everything except money. [=greed causes them to think and care about only money]

[3]blind noun, pl blinds

1 [count] : something that is used to cover a window from the inside of a room; especially : a roll of cloth or plastic that is hung at the top of a window and pulled down over the window — usually plural ▪ Raise/lower/open/close the blinds. — see picture at WINDOW; see also VENETIAN BLIND

2 [count] US : a place where hunters hide from animals while they are hunting ▪ a duck blind [=a place to hide when hunting ducks] — called also (chiefly Brit) hide

3 [singular] : something that is used to trick people or to prevent people from noticing a particular thing ▪ Some say the investigation is a blind to keep the public's attention off the governor.

draw the blinds on see [1]DRAW

[4]blind adv

1 : without seeing outside of an airplane : using only a plane's instruments ▪ They had to fly blind through heavy smoke.

2 informal : to the degree that you are unable to think clearly or to act reasonably ▪ He was blind drunk.

rob someone blind see ROB blind alley noun, pl ~ -leys [count] : a narrow path between two buildings that can only be entered at one end — often used figuratively ▪ Police had been down several blind alleys [=they had tried several methods that did not produce useful results] in the murder investigation before they found the evidence they needed.

blind date noun, pl ~ dates [count] : an occasion for two people who do not know each other to meet and decide if they may want to have a romantic relationship ▪ She went out on a blind date with her friend's cousin.

blind•er /ˈblaɪndɚ/ noun, pl -ers

1 blinders [plural] chiefly US : leather pieces that are placed on either side of a horse's head next to its eyes in order to keep the horse from seeing what is beside it ▪ a horse wearing blinders — often used figuratively ▪ Many parents put on blinders [=choose not to think about what might be happening] when their teenagers start staying out late. — called also (chiefly Brit) blinkers

2 [singular] Brit, informal : a very exciting or impressive performance or action in a game such as cricket or soccer ▪ Their team played a blinder to beat us in the closing seconds of the match.

[1]blind•fold /ˈblaɪndˌfoʊld/ verb -folds; -fold•ed; -fold•ing [+ obj] : to cover the eyes of (a person) with a piece of cloth ▪ The kidnappers tied him up and blindfolded him.

[2]blindfold noun, pl -folds [count] : a piece of cloth that covers the eyes blindfolded also blindfold adv : with the eyes covered by a piece of cloth ▪ He was led blindfolded into the woods. ✧ If you can do something blindfolded, you can do it very well or easily because you have done it many times before. ▪ She could find that house blindfolded.

– blindfolded adj ▪ a blindfolded prisoner blinding adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very bright or strong ▪ a blinding color ▪ a blinding headache [=a very painful headache]; especially : so bright or strong that you cannot see ▪ the blinding light of the sun in her eyes ▪ a blinding snowstorm

2 : very fast ▪ His blinding speed makes him a great player.

– blind•ing•ly /ˈblaɪndɪŋli/ adv ▪ blindingly bright ▪ blindingly fast

blind•ly /ˈblaɪndli/ adv

1 : without seeing ▪ She stumbled blindly in the dark.

2 : without noticing or seeming to see anything ▪ The frightened children ran blindly from the house. ▪ He stared blindly [=blankly] at the wall.

3 : without thinking or questioning ▪ They blindly followed their leaders. ▪ They were taught not to blindly obey, but to consider carefully what they were being told to do.

blind•man's bluff /ˈblaɪndˈmænz-/ noun [noncount] : a game for children in which a player whose eyes are covered with a piece of cloth tries to catch and identify the other players — called also blindman's buff

blind•side /ˈblaɪndˌsaɪd/ verb -sides; -sid•ed; -sid•ing [+ obj] US

1 : to hit (someone who is facing in another direction) suddenly and very hard ▪ The quarterback was blindsided just as he was about to throw a pass.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

2 : to surprise or shock (someone) in a very unpleasant way ▪ We were all blindsided by the news of her sudden death.

blind side noun, pl ~ sides [count] : the side that is not the side you are facing ▪ He was hit on his blind side.

blind spot noun, pl ~ spots [count]
1 : an area around a car, truck, etc., that the driver cannot see ▪ When driving on the highway, you need to make sure no one is in your blind spot before changing lanes.
2 : a tendency to ignore something especially because it is difficult or unpleasant ▪ She has a blind spot concerning her son's behavior.
3 : a small area at the back of the eye that is not sensitive to light

[1]blink /ˈblɪŋk/ verb blinks; blinked; blink•ing
1 : to close and then open your eyes very quickly [no obj] She blinked when the light flashed. ▪ Her eyes blinked when the light flashed. [+ obj] She blinked her eyes when the light flashed. — compare WINK
2 [no obj] : to shine with a light that goes on and off ▪ The red light was blinking. [=flashing]
3 [no obj] : to show that you are surprised or upset ▪ Laura didn't (even) blink [=did not seem surprised or upset at all] when I told her that the car was gone. ▪ She didn't (even) blink at the news.
4 [no obj] : to show weakness in an argument or disagreement : to show that you are willing to agree to or accept what someone else wants or says ▪ When threatened, the government blinked [=gave in] and agreed to move the missiles. ▪ Both sides in the dispute are determined not to blink first.
before you can blink informal : very quickly ▪ This may hurt a little, but it'll be over before you can blink.
blink back tears or blink away tears : to prevent yourself from crying or to make your tears go away by blinking ▪ He blinked back (his) tears as he told us the bad news.

[2]blink noun, pl blinks [count] : the act of closing and then opening your eyes very quickly : the act of blinking in the blink of an eye : very quickly ▪ He became famous, and then, in the blink of an eye, he was forgotten. ▪ She reappeared in the blink of an eye.
on the blink informal : not working properly ▪ The TV is on the blink.

blink•er /ˈblɪŋkə/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] US, informal : a light on a car, truck, etc., that goes off and on and that is used as a warning or as a signal that the vehicle will be turning ▪ Use your blinker [=indicator, (US) turn signal] when you turn.
2 blinkers [plural] chiefly Brit : leather pieces that are placed on either side of a horse's head next to its eyes : BLINDERS

blinking adj
1 : shining with a light that goes on and off ▪ a blinking yellow light
2 always used before a noun, Brit, informal — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ Turn down that blinking music! It's driving me crazy!

blip /ˈblɪp/ noun, pl blips [count]
1 : a bright dot on the screen of an electronic device (such as a radar) ▪ The approaching ship appeared as a blip on the screen. — often used figuratively ▪ At that time, the organization was only a blip on the political radar screen. ▪ As a football player he wasn't even a blip on the radar screen. [=he was not important; no one had noticed that he was or could become a good player]
2 : a very short high sound made by an electronic device ▪ the blips, buzzes, and bleeps of a video game
3 : something that is small or unimportant or that does not last a long time ▪ The company's financial problems were just a temporary blip.

bliss /ˈblɪs/ noun [noncount] : complete happiness ▪ Their religion promises eternal bliss [=joy] in heaven. ▪ marital/wedded/domestic bliss [=complete happiness in marriage] ▪ Relaxing on the porch of our private villa was sheer bliss.
ignorance is bliss see IGNORANCE

bliss•ful /ˈblɪsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely or completely happy : full of or causing bliss ▪ At first, their time together was blissful. ▪ He sat there in a blissful state of comfort. ▪ our blissful beach vacation ▪ a blissful setting for a wedding ▪ existing in blissful ignorance [=a state of not knowing and not wanting to know about unhappy things or possible problems]
– bliss•ful•ly adv ▪ They were blissfully happy. ▪ We were blissfully unaware/ignorant of the dangers ahead.

blis•ter /ˈblɪstə/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 : a raised area on the skin that contains clear liquid and that is caused by injury to the skin ▪ She developed a blister on her heel where her shoe rubbed against it.
2 : a raised area on a surface (such as a painted wall) that is filled with air – blister verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] My feet started to blister. [=to form blisters] ▪ The paint cracked and blistered. [+ obj] Her skin was blistered by the hot sun.

blis•ter•ing /ˈblɪstərɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very harsh or powerful ▪ blistering heat/sun ▪ He received a blistering [=scathing] letter from his ex-wife. ▪ a hockey player with a blistering slap shot – blistering adv ▪ a blistering hot day – blis•ter•ing•ly adv ▪ a blisteringly hot day

blithe /ˈblaɪθ, ˈblaɪð/ adj blith•er; -est
1 : showing a lack of proper thought or care : not caring or worrying ▪ He showed blithe disregard for the rights of others. ▪ He was blithe about the risks to his health.
2 literary : happy and without worry : CAREFREE ▪ a blithe spirit ▪ blithe enjoyment – blithe•ly adv ▪ They blithely assumed there would be someone there to help them.

blith•er•ing /ˈblɪðərɪŋ/ adj, informal : very foolish or stupid ▪ pages and pages of blithering nonsense ▪ a blithering idiot

blitz /ˈblɪts/ noun, pl blitz•es [count]
1 : a military attack in which many bombs are dropped from airplanes
2 a : a fast and powerful effort ▪ The company is planning an advertising/marketing blitz for the new product. ▪ a blitz of publicity ▪ The movie flopped, despite the media blitz that accompanied its release. [=the movie failed even though a lot of information about it was on television, radio, in magazines, etc., all at once] b Brit : a sudden attack or effort to stop or end something — usually singular ▪ a blitz on tax evaders ▪ One of these days I'll have a blitz on the house. [=I will thoroughly clean the house]
3 American football : a play in which many defensive players rush toward the quarterback – blitz verb blitzes; blitzed; blitz•ing [+ obj] The company has blitzed the country with advertising. ▪ The linebackers blitzed the quarterback. [no obj] A linebacker blitzed from the right side.

blitzed /ˈblɪtst/ adj, US slang : very drunk ▪ She was/got totally blitzed that night.

blitz•krieg /ˈblɪtsˌkri:g/ noun, pl -kriegs [count]
1 : a sudden and overwhelming military attack
2 : a fast and powerful effort : BLITZ ▪ a promotional blitzkrieg

bliz•zard /ˈblɪzəd/ noun, pl -zards [count]
1 : a severe snowstorm that goes on for a long time ▪ We were snowed in by a raging/fierce blizzard.
2 : a large amount of something that comes suddenly — usually singular ▪ a blizzard of mail ▪ The audience confronted him with a blizzard of questions.

bloat noun [noncount] chiefly US : too much growth ▪ budget/bureaucratic bloat ▪ The company became an example of corporate bloat. [=it became too big] bloat•ed /ˈbloʊtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very swollen : too full of liquid, gas, food, etc. ▪ a bloated body ▪ I felt bloated from eating too much. — often used figuratively ▪ The government is bloated [=too large] and inefficient. ▪ a bloated state budget ▪ He has a bloated ego.

– bloat•ed•ness noun [noncount] blob /ˈbla:b/ noun, pl blobs [count] somewhat informal

1 : a usually small amount of something thick and wet ▪ a blob of paint
2 : something that does not have a regular shape ▪ That blue blob in the corner of the map is the lake we're headed for.

bloc /ˈbla:k/ noun, pl blocs [count] : a group of people or countries that are connected by a treaty or agreement or by common goals ▪ the communist bloc ▪ a voting bloc in the senate

[1]block /ˈbla:k/ noun, pl blocks
1 [count] : a solid piece of material (such as rock or wood) that has flat sides and is usually square or rectangular in shape ▪ a block of ice/cheese ▪ a wall built out of concrete/cinder blocks ▪ (US) kids playing with wooden blocks [=(Brit) bricks] — see also BUILDING BLOCK, CHOPPING BLOCK, STARTING BLOCK
2 [count] a : an area of land surrounded by four streets in a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

city ▪ We took a walk around the block. ▪ She lived on our block. b US : the length of one city block ▪ The store is three blocks down on the right. ▪ Our hotel is a block from the ocean.

3 [count] : a large building divided into separate units (such as apartments or shops) ▪ an apartment block ✧ This sense of block is more common in British English than in U.S. English. ▪ a high-rise office block — see also BLOCK OF FLATS, CELLBLOCK, TOWER BLOCK

4 [singular] : something that stops the progress or achievement of something ▪ They put a block on future development of the area.

5 [count] sports : an action or movement that stops or slows down an opponent ▪ a shoulder block ▪ (American football) The lineman threw a block. [=the lineman hit an opposing player to prevent him from making a tackle]

6 [singular] : something that stops a person from thinking about certain things ▪ a mental/emotional block — see also STUMBLING BLOCK, WRITER'S BLOCK

7 [count] a : a number of similar things that form a group ▪ We reserved a block of seats. ▪ She bought a large block of stock/shares in the company. b : an amount or section of something ▪ They played a half-hour block of music. ▪ We set aside a big block of time for the project. ▪ a block of text

chip off the old block see [1]CHIP knock someone's block off see [1]KNOCK

new kid on the block see [1]KID on the block or on the auction block : for sale at an auction ▪ Some valuable paintings went on the block today.; broadly : for sale ▪ Their business is now on the block.

[2]block verb blocks; blocked; block•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to be placed in front of (something, such as a road or path) so that people or things cannot pass through ▪ There's an accident blocking the road. ▪ The entrance was blocked by a gate. ▪ Blood clots have completely/partially blocked one of his arteries. — sometimes + up ▪ My nose is all blocked [=stuffed] up. ▪ Call a plumber. The sink pipe is blocked [=clogged] up. b : to place something in front of (something, such as a road) so that people or things cannot go into the area ▪ The protesters blocked the road with parked vehicles. — often + off ▪ Main Street has been blocked off [=barricaded] for the parade. ▪ The police blocked off the crime scene with yellow tape.

2 [+ obj] a : to stop (someone or something) from moving through or going by ▪ The ambulance was blocked by cars in the road. ▪ An accident was blocking traffic. b : to stop (something) from getting through to someone or something ▪ Could you move to the left, please. You're blocking my light. ▪ a shield that blocks the wind c : to be in front of (something) so that it cannot be seen ▪ The new building blocks [=obstructs] our view of the river.

3 [+ obj] a : to not allow (something, such as progress or an action) to occur ▪ Several senators are trying to block the passage of the bill. ▪ His vote blocked the treaty. ▪ The new law blocks the sale of liquor on Sundays. ▪ They made every effort to block her reelection. b : to be in the way of (something) ▪ blocking access to free health care

4 sports : to stop the movement of (an opponent, a shot, etc.). [+ obj] We practiced blocking our opponents. ▪ She blocked the shot! [no obj] He's getting better at blocking.

block in [phrasal verb] block in (someone or something) or block (someone or something) in : to put something in front of (someone or something) so that person or thing cannot leave ▪ My car is blocked in. = Somebody has blocked my car in. [=somebody has parked in a way that makes it impossible for me to move my car]

block out [phrasal verb] block out (something) or block (something) out 1 : to hide or cover something so that it cannot be seen, felt, or heard ▪ Clouds blocked out the sun. ▪ We put on music to block out the sound of the traffic. 2 : to force yourself not to think about (something) ▪ He tried to block out [=forget] the event. : to ignore (something) ▪ blocking out distractions – block•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's one of the league's best blockers.

[1]block•ade /blɑˈkeɪd/ noun, pl -ades [count] : an act of war in which one country uses ships to stop people or supplies from entering or leaving another country ▪ a naval blockade

[2]blockade verb -ades; -ad•ed; -ad•ing [+ obj] : to place a blockade on (a port or country) : to stop people or supplies from entering or leaving (a port or country) especially during a war ▪ They blockaded the country's ports.

block•age /ˈblɑːkɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es

1 [count] : something that stops something (such as blood) from moving through something (such as a blood vessel) ▪ He had surgery to open up blockages in his arteries.

2 [noncount] : the state of being blocked ▪ trying to prevent blockage of the artery block and tackle noun [singular] : a simple machine that is used to help lift heavy objects and that consists of rope and boxes containing pulleys block•bust•er /ˈblɑːkˌbʌstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something that is very large, expensive, or successful ▪ a 900-page blockbuster of a novel ▪ The actor starred in a blockbuster [=a very successful movie] last year. — often used before another noun ▪ a blockbuster movie ▪ a blockbuster product block•head /ˈblɑːkˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a stupid person ▪ Don't be such a blockhead!

block letters noun [plural] chiefly US : capital letters ▪ The message was written in block letters. — called also (Brit) block capitals

block of ats noun, pl blocks of ats [count] Brit : APARTMENT BUILDING block party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] US : a party that is held outdoors for all the people who live in a neighborhood or city block blocky /ˈblɑːki/ adj block•i•er; -est : short and thick ▪ a baseball player with a blocky [=(more commonly) stocky] body/build ▪ a shoe with a thick, blocky heel blog /ˈblɑːg/ noun, pl blogs [count] : a Web site on which someone writes about personal opinions, activities, and experiences

– blog•ger noun, pl -ers [count] – blog•ging noun [noncount]

bloke /ˈbloʊk/ noun, pl blokes [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a man ▪ I'm just an ordinary bloke. [=guy, fellow, chap]

[1]blond or blonde /ˈblɑːnd/ adj blond•er; -est

1 : of a yellow or very light brown color ▪ long blond hair ▪ blonde curls/locks/braids ▪ She has blonde highlights in her hair. ▪ His hair was dyed/bleached blond.; also : having blond hair ▪ a blond actor ▪ She was blonde as a child. ✧ When used to describe a boy or man, the word is spelled blond. When used for a girl or woman, the word is often spelled blonde. ✧ A person with dirty blond hair has very dark blond hair that is almost light brown in color. — see also PLATINUM BLONDE, STRAWBERRY BLONDE

2 : of a very light color ▪ a table made of blond wood

[2]blond or blonde noun, pl blondes [count] : a person who has yellow or very light brown hair ✧ The word is spelled blond when used for a boy or man, and it is usually spelled blonde when used for a girl or woman. ▪ He's a tall, blue-eyed blond. ▪ She's a natural blonde. [=her hair has not been dyed blonde] ▪ a bottle/bleached/peroxide blonde [=someone whose hair has been made blond through the use of chemicals] — see also PLATINUM BLONDE, STRAWBERRY BLONDE blood /ˈblʌd/ noun [noncount]

1 : the red liquid that flows through the bodies of people and animals ▪ The accident victim has already lost a lot of blood. ▪ the blood in your veins ▪ She donates/gives blood twice a year. [=twice a year she has blood taken out of her body so that it can be put into the body of a person who needs it] — see also BAD BLOOD, COLD-BLOODED, FULL-BLOODED, HOT-BLOODED, RED-BLOODED, WARM-BLOODED

2 — used to say that a person's ancestors were of a particular kind ▪ There's some Italian blood in her family. [=one or more of her family's ancestors was Italian] ▪ a man of royal blood [=a man with kings and queens in his family] — see also BLUE BLOOD, BLUE-BLOODED

3 : members of a team, company, or organization — usually used in the phrases new blood or young blood ▪ Our company could benefit from some new blood. [=new employees] ▪ We've just added some young blood to the team.

blood and guts see [1]GUT blood is thicker than water ✧ The saying blood is thicker than water means that a person's family is more important than a person's other relationships or needs.

blood is up ✧ In British English, when you say that someone's blood is up, you mean that someone is angry and wants to fight or argue. ▪ It's best to avoid her when her blood is up.

blood on your hands ✧ If someone's blood is on your hands, you are responsible for that person's death. ▪ Her blood is on your hands!

by blood : by a relationship that connects two people through their natural parents, grandparents, etc. ▪ My aunt

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

and I are related by blood. [=my aunt is the sister of one of my parents] ▪ My aunt and I are not related by blood. [=my aunt is/was married to the brother of one of my parents] draw blood 1 : to take blood from a person's body for medical reasons ▪ We need to draw some blood to test you for the virus. 2 : to cause blood to flow from a person's body ▪ The punch to the nose drew blood. [=caused the nose to bleed] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Some politicians view debates as chances to draw blood from their opponents.

flesh and blood see [1]FLESH

in cold blood : in a deliberate way : following a plan ▪ They were killed in cold blood by terrorists.

in your blood ✧ If something (such as an ability or activity) is in your blood, it is part of your nature and is often shared by your family members. ▪ With two parents who are painters, art is in her blood.

make someone's blood boil : to make someone very angry ▪ His hate-filled speeches make my blood boil! [=make me see red] make someone's blood curdle or make someone's blood run cold : to cause someone to be very afraid or disgusted ▪ The horrible news made our blood run cold. ▪ a ghost story that will make your blood curdle ▪ The mere sight of a cockroach makes my blood curdle.

out for blood ✧ If you are out for blood or out for someone's blood, you are very angry and you want to kill someone or to cause someone pain or discomfort. ▪ Those soldiers were out for blood. ▪ His ex-wife is out for his blood.

spill/shed blood : to kill people violently ▪ The blood of too many young people has been spilled/shed.

sweat blood informal : to care a lot about something and work very hard for it ▪ basketball players who sweat blood for their teams taste blood informal : to experience pleasure as a result of defeating an opponent ▪ She has tasted blood now, and can't wait to meet her rival on the court again.

blood bank noun, pl ~ banks [count] : a place where blood is stored so that it later can be given to people who are ill blood•bath /ˈblʌdˌbæθ, Brit ˈblʌdˌbɑːθ/ noun, pl -baths [count] : a violent and cruel killing of many people ▪ Thousands of people were murdered in the bloodbath. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The presidential race has become a political bloodbath.

blood brother noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a man or boy who has promised to be loyal to another man or boy usually in a ceremony in which they mix their blood ▪ He would never betray me—he's my blood brother.

blood cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : a cell that is normally present in blood — see also RED BLOOD CELL, WHITE BLOOD CELL blood clot noun, pl ~ clots [count] : a thick and sticky clump of dried blood that stops blood from flowing through a blood vessel in a person or an animal ▪ She had a blood clot in her lungs. — called also clot blood count noun, pl ~ counts [count] : the number of cells in someone's blood — usually singular ▪ The patient has a low blood count.

blood•cur•dling /ˈblʌdˌkɚdlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing great horror or fear ▪ We heard bloodcurdling [=horrifying] stories about the war. ▪ bloodcurdling [=terrifying] screams blood doping noun [noncount] : an illegal method for temporarily improving an athlete's performance in a race or competition by increasing the number of red blood cells in the blood blood feud noun, pl ~ feuds [count] : a very long fight between two families or groups in which each group kills members of the other group in order to punish the group for earlier murders blood group noun, pl ~ groups [count] : BLOOD TYPE blood heat noun [singular] Brit : the normal temperature of the human body ✧ In U.S. English, this temperature (98.6 degrees Fahrenheit or 37 degrees Celsius) is referred to as a person's normal body temperature.

blood•hound /ˈblʌdˌhaʊnd/ noun, pl -hounds [count] : a large dog that has very long ears and a very good sense of smell and that is often used for finding people and for hunting blood•ied /ˈblʌdid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : covered in blood : made bloody ▪ Their faces were bloodied and bruised.

blood•less /ˈblʌdləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : done without killing people ▪ He fought his bloodless battles in the courtroom. ▪ They took control of the government in a bloodless coup.
2 : lacking feeling or emotion ▪ Her speeches are dull and bloodless. ▪ a bunch of bloodless numbers and statistics
3 : pale in color ▪ His face was bloodless with fear.
– blood•less•ly adv

blood•let•ting /ˈblʌdˌlɛtɪŋ/ noun, pl -tings
1 [noncount] a : the former practice of taking some blood out of the bodies of sick people to heal them b : the practice of causing someone to bleed as part of a religious ceremony ▪ They practiced ritual bloodletting.
2 [noncount] : the killing of people ▪ They prayed for an end to the bloodletting. [=(more commonly) bloodshed]
3 : the act of reducing the number of workers in a company [noncount] We survived last year's bloodletting. [=we were able to keep our jobs] [count] a corporate bloodletting

blood•line /ˈblʌdˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the ancestors of a person or animal ▪ her family's German bloodlines ▪ the bloodlines of racehorses blood•lust /ˈblʌdˌlʌst/ noun [noncount] : the desire to kill or to see people killed ▪ soldiers inflamed by bloodlust

blood money noun [noncount]
1 : money wrongly obtained by killing someone or because someone has died ▪ the blood money earned by people who profited from the tragedy
2 : money paid to the family of a person who has been killed ▪ They accepted blood money in exchange for the murderer's execution.

blood orange noun, pl ~ -ang•es [count] : an orange (sense 1) that is red inside the skin blood platelet noun, pl ~ -lets [count] : PLATELET blood poisoning noun [noncount] medical : a serious condition in which harmful bacteria spread throughout a person's blood blood pressure noun, pl ~ -sures : the force with which blood moves through a person's body [noncount] The doctor says he has high blood pressure. ▪ These drugs help lower blood pressure. [count] She has a blood pressure of 120/80.

blood–red adj : dark red like the color of blood ▪ blood-red lips blood relative noun, pl ~ -tives [count] US : someone who has the same parents or ancestors as you ▪ Your sister is your blood relative, but your brother-in-law is not. — called also (Brit) blood relation blood sausage noun, pl ~ -sag•es [count] : a very dark sausage that contains a lot of blood — called also black pudding, blood pudding blood•shed /ˈblʌdˌʃɛd/ noun [noncount] : the killing of people especially in a war ▪ Years of violence and bloodshed have left much of the country in ruins.

blood•shot /ˈblʌdˌʃɑːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] of eyes : having many red lines from lack of sleep, drunkenness, etc. ▪ He had bloodshot eyes. = His eyes were bloodshot.

blood sport noun, pl ~ sports [count] : a sport (such as hunting) in which birds or animals are killed blood•stain /ˈblʌdˌsteɪn/ noun, pl -stains [count] : a spot of blood on something (such as a piece of clothing)

– blood•stained /ˈblʌdˌsteɪnd/ adj ▪ a bloodstained carpet blood•stock /ˈblʌdˌstɑːk/ noun [noncount] : horses that are bred for racing blood•stream /ˈblʌdˌstriːm/ noun [singular] : the flow of blood that moves through the heart and body ▪ The drug is now entering the bloodstream.

blood•suck•er /ˈblʌdˌsʌkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : an animal (such as a leech or mosquito) that sucks the blood of other animals
2 informal : a person who unfairly takes or uses things that other people worked for ▪ Our landlord, the bloodsucker, just raised our rent again.
– blood•suck•ing /ˈblʌdˌsʌkɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ bloodsucking insects ▪ our bloodsucking landlord blood sugar noun [noncount] : the amount of sugar in your blood ▪ As a diabetic, he needs his blood sugar to stay at the right levels.

blood test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : a test of the blood especially to learn if a person has any diseases or conditions (such as AIDS or high cholesterol) ▪ He had a blood test, and the doctor who did it said his cholesterol was too high.

blood•thirsty /ˈblʌdˌθɚsti/ adj [more ~; most ~] : eager to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

hurt or kill : enjoying the sight of violence or bloodshed ▪ bloodthirsty soldiers – blood•thirst•i•ness /ˈblʌdˌθəstinəs/ noun [noncount] blood transfusion noun, pl ~ -sions [count] : a medical treatment in which someone's blood is put into the body of another person blood type noun, pl ~ types [count] chiefly US : one of the eight different blood categories into which humans are separated ✧ These categories of blood are labeled A, B, AB, or O and each of these is either Rh-positive or Rh-negative. ▪ Her blood type is B negative. — called also blood group blood vessel noun, pl ~ -sels [count] : a small tube that carries blood to different parts of a person or animal's body ✧ Arteries, veins, and capillaries are kinds of blood vessels.

[1]bloody /ˈblʌdi/ adj blood•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : bleeding or covered with blood ▪ He hit me and gave me a bloody nose. ▪ a bloody towel ▪ a bloody knife
2 : violent and causing the death or injury of many people ▪ a bloody battle/war/revolution — see also scream bloody murder at [1]SCREAM
3 always used before a noun, Brit, informal + sometimes offensive — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ He's a bloody [=damned] fool! ▪ We had to read the whole bloody thing.
bloody hell Brit, informal + offensive — used to express anger or annoyance ▪ Bloody hell [=damn it]—I've lost my key again! ▪ How the bloody hell did you hear that?
– blood•i•ly /ˈblʌdəli/ adv ▪ The battle was won bloodily.

[2]bloody adv, Brit, informal + sometimes offensive : VERY, EXTREMELY — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ a bloody awful mistake ▪ We all had a bloody good time. ▪ It was bloody marvellous! ▪ "Can I borrow your car again?" "Not bloody likely!" [=no, absolutely not] bloody well informal + sometimes offensive — used before a verb to stress anger, annoyance, or disapproval ▪ I'm your father and you'll bloody well do as you're told!

[3]bloody verb blood•ies; blood•ied; bloody•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) bloody ▪ He hit me and bloodied my nose. — see also BLOODIED

Bloody Mary /-ˈmeri/ noun, pl ~ Marys [count] : an alcoholic drink made with vodka, tomato juice, and usually spices bloody–mind•ed /ˌblʌdiˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal : difficult to deal with : not willing to help others do things ▪ Stop being so bloody-minded and give me a hand here!

– bloody–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

[1]bloom /ˈbluːm/ noun, pl blooms
1 [count] : [1]FLOWER 1 ▪ The plant's purple blooms attract butterflies. ▪ He picked a red bloom [=blossom] for her hair.
2 [count] : a time period in which a plant has many open flowers ▪ roses with an early spring bloom
3 [noncount] : a state or time of beauty, health, and strength ▪ the bloom of youth come in/into bloom see [1]COME in bloom or in full bloom : having flowers ▪ The bushes should be in bloom [=in flower; flowering; blooming] soon. ▪ These plants are very fragrant when they are in full bloom.

[2]bloom verb blooms; bloomed; bloom•ing [no obj]
1 : to produce flowers ▪ trees that bloom [=blossom, flower] in the spring ▪ flowers blooming in the garden
2 : to change, grow, or develop fully ▪ Their love was just beginning to bloom. ▪ their blooming romance

bloom•er /ˈbluːmə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a plant that blooms at a specified time ▪ These plants are spring bloomers. [=they have flowers in the spring] ▪ plants that are early/late bloomers
2 Brit, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : an embarrassing mistake ▪ The politician's bloomer [=(US) blooper] was shown on every TV channel.
late bloomer US : someone who becomes successful, attractive, etc., at a later time in life than other people ▪ She was a late bloomer as a writer.

bloo•mers /ˈbluːməz/ noun [plural] : long and loose underpants worn by women and girls especially in the past bloom•ing /ˈbluːmən/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit, informal — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ We had to read the whole blooming thing! ▪ Don't be a blooming idiot!

– blooming adv, Brit, informal ▪ It's blooming marvellous!

bloop•er /ˈbluːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : an embarrassing mistake usually made in public ▪ The politician's blooper [=(Brit) bloomer] was shown on every TV channel.

[1]blos•som /ˈblɑːsəm/ noun, pl -soms [count] : a flower especially of a fruit tree ▪ Her hair smelled of apple/cherry/orange blossoms. ▪ delicate pink blossoms [=blooms]

[2]blossom verb -soms; -somed; -som•ing [no obj]
1 : to produce flowers ▪ The trees have finished blossoming. [=blooming, flowering]
2 : to change, grow, and develop fully ▪ Their friendship began to blossom [=bloom, flower, flourish] during the summer. ▪ Their friendship blossomed into romance. ▪ Their business seemed to blossom [=take off] overnight. ▪ a blossoming romance ▪ a blossoming talent

[1]blot /ˈblɑːt/ verb blots; blot•ted; blot•ting [+ obj] : to dry (something, such as wet ink) by pressing a piece of cloth or paper over it ▪ Don't rub the wine stain. Blot it dry with a paper towel. ▪ Blot your lipstick with a tissue.
blot out [phrasal verb] blot out (something) or blot (something) out : to hide or block (something): such as a : to make (something) difficult to see ▪ Clouds blotted out the sun. b : to try to forget (an event or memory) ▪ blotting out memories of your childhood blot your copybook Brit, informal : to harm your own reputation ▪ The star football player blotted his copybook by using bad language in an interview.

[2]blot noun, pl blots [count]
1 a : a spot or stain ▪ a blot of ink [=an ink blot] b : something that makes something else dirty or unattractive ▪ The tower is a blot on the landscape.
2 : a mark of shame or dishonor ▪ Slavery is a blot on the nation's history.

blotch /ˈblɑːʧ/ noun, pl blotch•es [count] : a usually dark-colored spot especially on the skin ▪ She has brown blotches [=splotches] on her hands. ▪ blotches on the tree's leaves – blotched /ˈblɑːʧt/ adj, Brit ▪ leaves blotched with brown spots – blotchy /ˈblɑːʧi/ adj blotch•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] ▪ blotchy skin blot•ter /ˈblɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a large piece of blotting paper that is placed in a stiff frame on top of a desk
2 : a book used in a police station for writing down information about people or events ▪ a police blotter

blotting paper noun [noncount] : a soft, thick paper used to dry wet ink blot•to /ˈblɑːtoʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] slang : very drunk ▪ He came home blotto after the party. ▪ She got blotto on cheap wine.

blouse /ˈblaʊs/ noun, pl blous•es /ˈblaʊsəz/ [count] : an often somewhat formal shirt for women and girls ▪ She wore a blouse and a skirt to work. — see color picture on page C14

[1]blow /ˈbloʊ/ verb blew /ˈbluː/; blown /ˈbloʊn/; blow•ing
1 a [no obj] of air, wind, etc. : to move with speed or force ▪ The wind was blowing earlier but it's not blowing now. [=there was wind earlier but there isn't any wind now] ▪ The wind is blowing hard. = It's blowing hard outside. ▪ The storm is blowing hard/fiercely. = It's blowing up a storm. ▪ A cool breeze blew through the open window. ▪ The wind was blowing from the north. b [+ obj] : to cause (air or something carried by air) to move ▪ The fan blew the air. ▪ The fan blew the smoke out the window. c : to be moved or affected in a specified way by the wind [no obj] The door blew open/shut in the wind. ▪ The papers blew all over the place! ▪ The sign blew down/over. ▪ The leaves were blowing around in the wind. ▪ His hat blew off/away in the wind. [+ obj] The breeze blew my wet hair dry. ▪ The wind blew the door open/shut. ▪ The wind blew the sign down/over. ▪ The wind blew the ship off course. ▪ A gust of wind blew the papers all over the room. ▪ The wind blew his hat off/away.
2 a : to create a current of moving air by breathing [no obj] She blew on her fingers to warm them. ▪ He was blowing on his soup to cool it off. [+ obj] She blew air into the balloon. b [+ obj] : to produce or shape (something, such as a bubble) by blowing air ▪ The clown was blowing bubbles for the children. ▪ blow beautiful shapes out of glass = blow glass into beautiful shapes — see also GLASSBLOWING
3 a [no obj] of a musical instrument, whistle, etc. : to produce a loud sound ▪ The trumpet/whistle blew loudly. ▪ The siren blew. [=sounded] b [+ obj] : to play or produce a sound with (a musical instrument, whistle, etc.) ▪ blow a trumpet ▪ blow a whistle ▪ blow a siren
4 : to damage or destroy (something) with an explosion [+ obj] The terrorists rigged a bomb to blow [=(more commonly) blow up] the bridge. ▪ The explosion blew his leg off. = The

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

explosion blew off his leg. ▪ The explosion blew out the window. ▪ The burglar blew the safe open with dynamite. ▪ The bomb blew the bridge to bits/smithereens. [=the bomb completely destroyed the bridge] [no obj] They ran away when they realized that the bridge was about to blow. [=(more commonly) blow up, explode] ▪ The window blew out in the explosion. ▪ The safe blew open when the burglar dynamited it. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The election has been blown wide open by the revelation that one of the candidates was lying. ▪ The prosecution's case was blown apart by new evidence. — see also BLOW UP (below)

5 : to cause (a tire) to suddenly lose air and become flat [+ obj] He drove over a nail and blew a tire. — often + out ▪ The car blew out a tire. [no obj] The car crashed because one of its tires had blown. — often + out ▪ One of the car's tires blew out. — see also BLOWOUT 1

6 of an electric fuse : to melt and stop the flow of electricity when an electric current is too strong [no obj] The light went off because a fuse had blown. [+ obj] What blew the fuse? — see also blow a fuse at ¹FUSE

7 [+ obj] : to clear (your nose) by forcing air through it quickly ▪ He blew his nose into his handkerchief.

8 [+ obj] informal : to spend or waste (a large amount of money) in a foolish way ▪ He blew his whole paycheck on a horse that finished last.

9 [+ obj] informal a : to make a mistake in doing or handling (something) ▪ The actress blew her lines. [=she said her lines incorrectly] b : to lose or miss (an opportunity) by acting in a stupid or clumsy way ▪ He blew an opportunity to make a lot of money in the stock market. ▪ I blew my chance for a big promotion. ▪ They should have won the game but they blew it. ▪ "I have a job interview tomorrow." "Well, don't blow it." ▪ I was late for the job interview and that blew it for me. [=that caused me not to get the job]

10 [+ obj] US, informal : to leave (a place) very quickly ▪ Let's blow this joint. ▪ He packed his bags and blew town [=left town] without even saying goodbye.

11 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] US, informal : to throw (a ball) with great force and speed ▪ The pitcher blew a fastball by/past the batter.

12 Brit, informal — used to express surprise, annoyance, etc. ▪ He washed the dishes? Well blow me down! ▪ Blow it! I forgot to buy milk.

blow a gasket see GASKET blow away [phrasal verb] blow (someone) away or blow away (someone) informal 1 : to kill (someone) by shooting ▪ a gangster who got blown away by a hit man 2 : to impress (someone) in a very strong and favorable way ▪ I was really blown away by her latest movie. 3 US : to defeat (someone) very badly ▪ They blew their rivals away in the first game 34–7.

blow hot and cold : to change repeatedly from liking or favoring something to not liking or favoring it ▪ Local residents have been blowing hot and cold on the question of whether to build a new school.

blow in [phrasal verb] informal : to arrive in a sudden or unexpected way ▪ He just blew in, asking for a place to stay.

blow into [phrasal verb] blow into (a place) informal : to arrive at (a place) in a sudden or unexpected way ▪ He just blew into town and needs a place to stay.

blown out of proportion see PROPORTION blow off [phrasal verb] US, informal 1 *blow (someone) off or blow off (someone) a : to refuse to notice or deal with (someone) : to ignore (someone) ▪ I tried to say hello to him, but he just blew me off. b : to fail to meet (someone) at an expected time ▪ He was supposed to meet me for lunch but he blew me off. 2 *blow (something) off or blow off (something) : to fail to attend or show up for (something) ▪ He blew off an official dinner.

blow off (some) steam see ¹STEAM

blow out [phrasal verb] 1 *blow out or blow (something) out or blow out (something) : to go out or to cause (something, such as a candle) to go out by blowing ▪ There was a sudden gust of wind and the candles blew out. ▪ She blew out the candles on her birthday cake. ▪ The wind blew out the candle. 2 of a storm : to come to an end : STOP ▪ The storm eventually blew out. [=blew over] = The storm eventually blew itself out. [=the storm eventually ended] — see also BLOWOUT blow over [phrasal verb] of a storm : to come to an end : STOP ▪ The storm eventually blew over. [=blew itself out, ended] — often used figuratively ▪ The scandal blew over and was forgotten in a few months.

blow smoke see ¹SMOKE

blow (someone) a kiss see ²KISS blow someone's brains out see ¹BRAIN blow someone's cover see ²COVER blow someone's mind see ¹MIND blow the gaff see GAFF blow the whistle see ¹WHISTLE

blow up [phrasal verb] 1 *blow (something) up or blow up (something) : to fill (something) with air or gas : INFLATE ▪ blow up a balloon ▪ blow up a tire 2 *blow up or blow (something) up or blow up (something) a : to explode or to cause (something, such as a bomb) to explode ▪ The bomb blew up. ▪ blow up a bomb b : to be destroyed or to destroy (something) by an explosion ▪ The bridge blew up (in the explosion). ▪ The soldiers blew up the bridge with a bomb. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The whole situation has blown up in his face [=has gone terribly wrong] and he may well be fired! 3 : to become very angry ▪ The boss blew up when the shipment arrived late. 4 *blow (something) up or blow up (something) : to make (a photograph) larger ▪ We had the photograph blown up for framing. : to make (something) seem larger or more important than it really is : EXAGGERATE ▪ It was just a trivial mistake that got blown up into something much worse. [=got greatly exaggerated] 5 of the wind, a storm, etc. : to begin blowing ▪ A wind blew up but quickly subsided. ▪ A storm blew up suddenly. — see also BLOWUP

blow your cool see ³COOL

blow your own horn see ¹HORN

blow your own trumpet see ¹TRUMPET blow your top or US blow your stack informal : to become very angry ▪ Mom really blew her top when she found out I'd wrecked the car.

²blow noun, pl blows [count]

1 : a strong wind ▪ If the weather reports are right, we're in for a good blow tonight. [=there will be a strong wind tonight; the wind will blow hard tonight]

2 : the act of blowing something (such as your nose) ▪ He gave his nose a good blow. [=he blew his nose]

– compare ³BLOW

³blow noun, pl blows [count]

1 : a hard hit using a part of the body or an object ▪ He delivered a mighty blow with a club. ▪ a blow with a hammer = a hammer blow ▪ I caught/got him with a heavy blow in the third round. = I landed a heavy blow on him in the third round. ▪ The two boxers exchanged blows. [=hit each other] ▪ The boxer rained blows on his opponent's head. [=the boxer hit his opponent's head many times] ▪ The falling tile struck him with a glancing blow on the head. [=hit his head with less than full force and fell off to one side] — see also BODY BLOW, LOW BLOW

2 a : something that is done to fight for or against something ▪ They struck a blow for freedom and against tyranny. [=they did something that helped freedom and opposed tyranny] b : a sudden event that causes trouble, damage, sorrow, etc. ▪ Hopes of peace received a mortal blow when negotiations were blocked. ▪ The injury to their best player was a serious blow to the team's chances. [=the injury did serious harm to the team's chances] ▪ The death of his wife was a terrible/shattering blow from which he never really recovered. ▪ She was disappointed not to get the job, but the promise of another job cushioned/softened the blow. [=the promise of another job made her disappointment less painful or severe] come to blows : to begin fighting : to begin hitting each other ▪ They almost came to blows during their argument.

deal a blow see ¹DEAL

– compare ²BLOW

blow–by–blow /ˈbloʊbaɪˈbloʊ/ adj, always used before a noun : describing each thing that happens in a series ▪ He gave us a blow–by–blow account/description of the meeting.

blow–dried /ˈbloʊˌdraɪd/ adj : having blow-dried hair — sometimes used in a disapproving way in U.S. English to describe someone (such as a television personality) who has a neat appearance but is not very intelligent or interesting ▪ a blow-dried newscaster blow–dry•er /ˈbloʊˌdraɪə/ noun, pl -dry•ers [count] : a handheld device that blows air and is used for drying hair ▪ She dried her hair with a blow-dryer. — see picture at GROOMING

– blow–dry /ˈbloʊˌdraɪ/ verb -dries; -dried; -dry•ing [+ obj] She washed and blow-dried her hair. [no obj] Always brush or comb while you blow-dry. – blow–dry noun, pl

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

-dries [count] ▪ She gave her hair a quick blow-dry.

blow•er /ˈbloʊə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device that blows air ▪ a leaf blower [=a device that is used for clearing away leaves from the ground by producing a strong current of air] — see also SNOWBLOWER, WHISTLE-BLOWER on the blower Brit, informal + old-fashioned : on the telephone ▪ When I finally got him on the blower [=(US) on the horn] he said he couldn't come.

blow•gun /ˈbloʊˌgʌn/ noun, pl -guns [count] : a long narrow tube that shoots out an arrow or dart when someone breathes into it quickly and forcefully blow•hard /ˈbloʊˌhɑəd/ noun, pl -hards [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who talks too much and who has strong opinions that other people dislike ▪ She's nice but her husband's a real blowhard. [=windbag]

blow•hole /ˈbloʊˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count]
1 : a hole that is on the top of a whale or related animal's head and is used by the animal for breathing
2 : a hole in the ice to which seals and other animals that are living in the water under the ice come to breathe blow job noun, pl ~ jobs [count] informal + offensive : the act of stimulating a man's penis with the mouth for sexual pleasure blow•lamp /ˈbloʊˌlæmp/ noun, pl -lamps [count] Brit : BLOWTORCH blown past participle of ¹BLOW blow•out /ˈbloʊˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a sudden loss of air caused by a hole or cut in a tire ▪ The car crashed after one of its tires had a blowout. — see also ¹BLOW 5
2 informal : a large and informal social gathering : a big party ▪ We had a big blowout to celebrate his promotion.
3 US, informal : an easy victory : a game or contest in which the winner defeats the loser by a large amount ▪ The game was expected to be close but it turned out to be a blowout. ▪ a blowout game
– see also blow out at ¹BLOW blow•sy also blow•zy /ˈblaʊzi/ adj blow•si•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] of a woman : not neat or clean in her clothing or appearance and usually fat ▪ a blowsy old woman blow•torch /ˈbloʊˌtoəʧ/ noun, pl -torch•es [count] US : a device that produces a very hot, narrow flame for doing work (such as melting metal to join pipes together) — called also (Brit) blowlamp blow•up /ˈbloʊˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 : a photograph that has been made larger ▪ The blowup of the photograph was easy to frame.
2 a : an angry argument ▪ The two of them had a big blowup about something trivial. b : an occurrence in which someone becomes very angry : an angry outburst ▪ The coach's latest blowup occurred when one of his players arrived late. — see also blow up at ¹BLOW

blowy /ˈblowi/ adj blow•i•er; -est : BREEZY, WINDY ▪ a blowy March day

BLT /ˌbi:ˌɛlˈti:/ noun, pl BLTs [count] US : a bacon, lettuce, and tomato sandwich

¹blub•ber /ˈblʌbə/ noun [noncount] : the fat on whales and some other animals that live in the water

²blubber verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [no obj] : to cry in a noisy and annoying way ▪ Oh, stop blubbering, you big baby!

¹blud•geon /ˈblʌʤən/ verb -geons; -geoned; -geon•ing [+ obj]
1 : to hit (someone or something) very hard ▪ The victim was bludgeoned to death with a hammer.
2 : to use arguments or threats to force (someone) to do something ▪ He was bludgeoned [=bullied] into accepting the deal.

²bludgeon noun, pl -geons [count]
1 : a heavy stick that usually has one thick end and is used as a weapon
2 : something that is used to attack or bully someone ▪ the bludgeon of satire

¹blue /ˈblu:/ adj blu•er; blu•est
1 : having the color of the clear sky ▪ a blue house/car/shirt/pen ▪ his bright blue eyes ▪ the deep blue ocean — see also BABY BLUE, BLACK-AND-BLUE, COBALT BLUE, NAVY BLUE, ROYAL BLUE, SKY BLUE, TRUE-BLUE
2 : sad or unhappy ▪ Are you feeling blue? — see also BLUES

blue in the face ✧ If you do something until you are blue in the face, you do it for a very long time without having any success or making any difference. ▪ I talked to him until I was blue in the face, but he wouldn't listen to me.

blue with cold or blue from the cold chiefly Brit, of a person or body part : blue from being exposed to cold for too long ▪ Her hands and feet are blue with cold. ▪ He was shivering and blue from the cold.

go blue Brit : to turn blue from being cold or not breathing ▪ The baby stopped breathing and went blue.

talk a blue streak US : to talk rapidly and without stopping ▪ Sheesh! Your friend really talks a blue streak!

– blue•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the blueness of the ocean

²blue noun, pl blues
1 : the color of the clear sky [noncount] Her favorite color is blue. ▪ shades of blue ▪ He was dressed in blue. [=blue clothing] ▪ The sky was overcast, but here and there I could see a patch of blue. [=blue sky] [count] a mixture of blues and greens — see color picture on page C1
2 the blue literary : the sky or the sea ▪ They sailed off into the blue.

out of the blue : without warning : in a surprising or unexpected way ▪ Then, out of the blue, he sold his house and left the country.

blue baby noun, pl ~ -bies [count] : a baby that has bluish skin usually because its heart is not working correctly blue•bell /ˈblu:ˌbɛl/ noun, pl -bells [count] : a plant with blue flowers that are shaped like bells

blue•ber•ry /ˈblu:ˌberi/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a small round fruit with blue, purple, or blackish skin ▪ We picked blueberries. ▪ a pie made with blueberries — often used before another noun ▪ blueberry muffins/pie ▪ a blueberry bush ▪ We went blueberry picking. — see color picture on page C5

blue•bird /ˈblu:ˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count] : a small North American bird that is mostly blue with a blue, brown, or orange belly — see color picture on page C9

blue blood noun, pl ~ bloods
1 [noncount] : membership in a royal or socially important family ▪ a woman of blue blood
2 [count] : a member of a royal or socially important family ▪ This is where the city's blue bloods like to gather.
– blue–blood•ed /ˈblu:ˈblʌdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a blue-blooded family ▪ blue-blooded sports like golf and polo

blue book noun, pl ~ books
1 [singular] : a report that is published by the government ▪ The information is listed in the blue book.
2 [count] US : a thin booklet with a blue cover and empty pages that is often used for writing the answers to test questions in college
3 [singular] US : a book that lists the current value of items (such as used cars)

blue cheese noun, pl ~ cheeses [count, noncount] : a kind of cheese that is white with lines of blue mold and that has a strong flavor

blue–chip adj, always used before a noun
1 : valuable and likely to make a good profit : not likely to cause investors to lose money ▪ blue-chip companies/stocks
2 chiefly US : very good : EXCELLENT ▪ a blue-chip [=first-class, first-rate] artist/athlete/wine

blue–col•lar /ˈblu:ˈkɑ:lə/ adj : requiring physical work ▪ blue-collar jobs [=jobs making things in a factory, fixing machines, building things, etc.] : relating to or having jobs that require physical work ▪ blue-collar [=working-class] workers/families — compare PINK-COLLAR, WHITE-COLLAR blue• sh /ˈblu:ˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl blue sh [count] : a type of fish that lives in the ocean and is caught by people for food and for sport — see color picture on page C8

blue•grass /ˈblu:ˌgræs, Brit ˈblu:ˌgrɑ:s/ noun [noncount] : a type of traditional American music that is played on stringed instruments (such as banjos and fiddles)

blue jay noun, pl ~ jays [count] : a common American bird that is mostly blue — see color picture on page C9

blue jeans noun [plural] : pants made of a strong blue cloth (called denim) ▪ He was wearing (a pair of) blue jeans. — see color picture on page C14

blue law noun, pl ~ laws [count] US : an old law that forbids people from doing certain things (such as working or selling alcohol) on Sundays

blue moon noun
once in a blue moon : very rarely ▪ It happens once in a blue moon.

blue•print /ˈblu:ˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count]
1 : a photographic print that shows how something (such as a building) will be made ✧ Blueprints are often sheets of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 103 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

blue paper with white lines on them. ▪ architectural blueprints — often used figuratively ▪ Each cell contains the organism's genetic blueprint.

2 : a detailed plan of how to do something ▪ a blueprint for success ▪ a blueprint for reforming the public school system blue ribbon noun, pl ~ -bons [count] : a decorative piece of blue cloth that is given to the winner in a contest or competition ▪ Our pumpkin won the blue ribbon at the county fair this year. — called also (Brit) blue rib•and /ˈrɪbənd/blue–ribbon adj, always used before a noun : made up of people who have special knowledge, abilities, etc. ▪ a blue-ribbon committee/panel

blues /ˈbluːz/ noun

1 the blues : a feeling of sadness or depression ▪ I've got (a case of) the blues. [=I have been feeling sad/depressed]

2 [noncount] : a style of music that was created by African-Americans in the southern U.S. and that often expresses feelings of sadness ▪ a band that plays blues and jazz — often used with the ▪ She sings the blues. — often used before another noun ▪ a blues singer — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He's been singing the blues [=feeling sad and discouraged] since he lost his job. — see also RHYTHM AND BLUES

– blue•sy /ˈbluːzi/ adj blues•i•er; -est ▪ bluesy music ▪ a band with a bluesy sound blue•stock•ing /ˈbluːˌstɑːkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] old-fashioned + often disapproving : an educated woman who is interested in books and ideas blue whale noun, pl ~ whales [count] : a very large bluish-gray whale ✧ The blue whale is the largest living animal.

[1]bluff /ˈblʌf/ verb bluffs; bluffed; bluff•ing

1 : to pretend that you will do something or that you know or have something in order to trick someone into doing what you want [no obj] Don't listen to his threats—he's just bluffing. [=he will not really do what he threatens to do] ▪ She says someone else has made her a higher offer, but I think she's bluffing. ▪ He's a terrible card player—you can always tell when he's bluffing. [=when he's pretending that he has better cards than he actually has] [+ obj] Don't listen to his threats—he's just bluffing you. ▪ I managed to bluff my way into the show without a ticket. [=I got into the show by bluffing] ▪ I bluffed my way through the interview.

2 [+ obj] US : to pretend to do or make (something) ▪ The catcher bluffed [=faked, feigned] a throw to first base.

[2]bluff noun, pl bluffs [count] : a false threat or claim that is meant to get someone to do something ▪ She says someone else has made her a higher offer, but I think it's just a bluff.

call your bluff ✧ If you have made a bluff or a threat and people call your bluff, they tell you to do the thing you have threatened to do because they do not believe that you will really do it. ▪ When she threatened to quit her job, her boss called her bluff and told her she could leave if she wanted to.

– compare [3]BLUFF

[3]bluff noun, pl bluffs [count] : a high, steep area of land : CLIFF ▪ They stood on the bluffs overlooking the Pacific Ocean. — compare [2]BLUFF

[4]bluff adj [more ~; most ~] : having a very open, honest, and direct way of talking that is friendly but not always polite ▪ a bluff, easygoing fellow

blu•ish /ˈbluːɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : somewhat blue ▪ a bluish green [=a shade of green that is somewhat blue]

[1]blun•der /ˈblʌndə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]

1 : to move in an awkward or confused way ▪ We blundered along through the woods until we finally found the trail. ▪ Another skier blundered into his path. — often used figuratively ▪ a nation that is blundering into war

2 : to make a stupid or careless mistake ▪ The government blundered by not acting sooner.

– blundering adj ▪ a bunch of blundering idiots

[2]blunder noun, pl -ders [count] : a bad mistake made because of stupidity or carelessness ▪ The accident was the result of a series of blunders. ▪ a political/tactical blunder

blun•der•buss /ˈblʌndəˌbʌs/ noun, pl -bus•ses [count] : an old-fashioned kind of gun with a wide opening at the end

[1]blunt /ˈblʌnt/ adj blunt•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a thick edge or point : not sharp ▪ scissors with blunt [=rounded] ends ▪ He was hit over the head with a blunt instrument. [=an object without sharp edges or points] ✧ Blunt trauma is a serious injury caused by being hit by something that does not have sharp edges. ▪ She suffered blunt trauma to the head.

2 : saying or expressing something in a very direct way that may upset some people ▪ blunt language ▪ a blunt statement ▪ To be perfectly blunt, I find her annoying. ▪ He was blunt about needing more privacy.

– blunt•ly adv ▪ She bluntly refused their offer. ▪ To put it bluntly, I think he's out of his mind. – blunt•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He replied with characteristic bluntness.

[2]blunt verb blunts; blunt•ed; blunt•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) less sharp ▪ a weapon blunted by use — often used figuratively ▪ The stress and fatigue had blunted [=weakened] his reflexes. ▪ They tried to blunt [=soften] their criticism by praising her energy and enthusiasm.

[1]blur /ˈblə/ noun, pl blurs

1 [count] : something that you cannot see clearly — usually singular ▪ He passed by in a blur of motion. ▪ As the train sped on, everything outside the window was a blur. ▪ I looked out at the blur of faces in the audience. ▪ The letters are just a blur without my glasses.

2 [singular] : something that is difficult to remember ▪ The whole weekend is just a blur to me. [=I don't remember the events of the weekend very clearly] – blur•ry /ˈblərɪ/ adj blur•ri•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] ▪ a blurry image ▪ She's suffering from blurry vision. ▪ The letters are blurry [=blurred] without my glasses.

[2]blur verb blurs; blurred; blur•ring

1 [+ obj] : to make (something) unclear or difficult to see or remember ▪ a technique that blurs the edges of the image [=makes the edges of the image less sharp] ▪ The tears in my eyes blurred the words on the page. ▪ His novel is based on historical occurrences but it blurs the line/distinction between fact and fiction.

2 [no obj] : to become unclear or difficult to see or remember ▪ I was so tired that my vision/eyes started to blur. [=I was not able to see clearly] ▪ The two events have blurred together in my mind.

– blurred adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The writing is blurred [=blurry] but I think I can read it. ▪ The patient's symptoms include blurred vision. ▪ a blurred memory blurb /ˈblə·b/ noun, pl blurbs [count] : a short description that praises something (such as a book) so that people will want to buy it ▪ a blurb on a book jacket blurt /ˈblə·t/ verb blurts; blurt•ed; blurt•ing [+ obj] : to say (something) suddenly and without thinking about how people will react ▪ "Gosh, you look awful!" she blurted. — usually + out ▪ He accidentally blurted out an obscenity. ▪ She blurted out the answer.

[1]blush /ˈblʌʃ/ verb blush•es; blushed; blush•ing [no obj]

1 : to become red in your face because you are ashamed, embarrassed, confused, etc. ▪ He blushed at the compliment. ▪ The unexpected attention made her blush (with embarrassment).

2 : to be embarrassed ▪ I blush to admit it, but you've caught me in an error.

[2]blush noun, pl blushes

1 [count] : the red color that spreads over your face when you are ashamed, embarrassed, confused, etc. ▪ The comment brought a blush to her cheeks.

2 [count] : a slight red or pink color ▪ The fruit is yellow, with a blush of pink.

3 [noncount] US : a cream or powder that some people put on their cheeks to make their cheeks pink or reddish ▪ She put on a little lipstick and blush. — called also (chiefly Brit) blush•er /ˈblʌʃə/at first blush see [1]FIRST spare someone's blushes see [2]SPARE blush wine noun, pl ~ wines [count, noncount] : wine that has a pink color

[1]blus•ter /ˈblʌstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

1 : to speak in a loud and aggressive or threatening way [no obj] He brags and blusters, but he never really does what he says he'll do. [+ obj] "I don't want to hear it!" he blustered.

2 [no obj] of wind : to blow loudly and violently ▪ The wind blustered through the valley.

– blustering adj ▪ The storm brought blustering [=blustery] winds. ▪ a blustering bully

[2]bluster noun [noncount] : words that are loud and aggressive ▪ We were all tired of his macho bluster.

blus•tery /ˈblʌstərɪ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : blowing loudly and violently ▪ blustery winds blvd. abbr boulevard ▪ The letter was addressed to him at 1066 Sunset Blvd.

B movie noun, pl ~ -ies [count] : a movie that costs little

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 104 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

money to make and that is usually not considered to be very good

BO abbr body odor ▪ She refused to wear deodorant and had horrible BO. [=her body smelled very unpleasant]

boa /ˈbowə/ noun, pl boas [count]
1 : BOA CONSTRICTOR
2 : a long scarf that is made of fur, feathers, or cloth ▪ a pink feather boa

boa constrictor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : a large brown snake that crushes the animals it eats by squeezing them with its body and that lives in the tropical regions of Central and South America

boar /ˈboə/ noun, pl boars [count]
1 : a male pig
2 : a wild pig — called also wild boar

[1]board /ˈboəd/ noun, pl boards
1 [count] : a long, thin, flat piece of wood ▪ They nailed some boards over the broken window. ▪ Cut the board lengthwise.
2 [count] a : a flat piece of material (such as wood or cardboard) that is used for a special purpose ▪ They covered the board in fabric and pinned some photographs to it. ▪ the board that is used to play games like chess and checkers b : BULLETIN BOARD 1 ▪ I saw a notice on the board calling for volunteers. — see also MESSAGE BOARD c : a large, smooth surface for writing on ▪ Write the answers on the board. — see also BLACKBOARD, WHITEBOARD
3 [count] a : a group of people who manage or direct a company or organization ▪ She sits on the bank's board of directors. = She's a board member at the bank. b : a group of people who have been chosen to learn information about something, to give advice, etc. ▪ a member of the advisory board = a board member ▪ She is on the town's planning/zoning board. ▪ an investigative board [=(more commonly) panel] ▪ The parole board has decided that the prisoner is not yet ready for release. — see also BOARDROOM, SCHOOL BOARD
4 [noncount] : daily meals that you pay for when you are paying to stay at a hotel, school, etc. ▪ He's looking for a place that provides board and lodging in the city. ▪ (Brit) A week at the hotel with half board [=some meals] is of course less expensive than a week with full board. [=all meals] — see also ROOM AND BOARD
5 [count] : CIRCUIT BOARD
6 boards [plural] US : special tests that you take when you want to be accepted as a student at a college or medical school ▪ Did you pass the boards?
7 the boards US : the low wooden wall that surrounds the playing surface in ice hockey ▪ He crashed into the boards.
across the board : in a way that includes or affects everyone or everything ▪ We've been forced to cut spending across the board. — see also ACROSS-THE-BOARD go by the board or US go by the boards : to no longer be used or considered : to be discarded, rejected, or abandoned ▪ Many of his original theories have gone by the board in recent years as new evidence has accumulated.
on board 1 : in or on a train, boat, etc. : ABOARD ▪ She got on board the train. ▪ The ship's passengers are all on board. ▪ Is all the equipment on board (the boat/train/bus/plane)?
2 : included among the group of people who support a particular goal, project, etc. ▪ They needed to get more senators on board for the bill to pass.
sweep the board see [1]SWEEP take (something) on board Brit : to decide to accept or deal with (something, such as a suggestion or idea) ▪ You will be pleased to note that we have taken your suggestions on board in formulating the present policy.
tread the boards see [1]TREAD

[2]board verb boards; board•ed; board•ing
1 a : to get into or onto (an airplane, a bus, a train, etc.) [+ obj] You must have a ticket in order to board the train. ▪ The pirates tried to board the ship, but we fought them off. [no obj] We're supposed to board at 10:15. ▪ Passengers may now board. b : to put or allow (someone) into or onto an airplane, a bus, a train, etc. [+ obj] We're now boarding all passengers. [no obj] The flight is about to begin boarding. ▪ Passengers should remain in the boarding area.
2 [+ obj] : to cover or close (something) with pieces of wood ▪ The caretaker boarded the window. — usually + up ▪ The caretaker boarded up the window. ▪ We decided to board up [=put boards over the windows and doors of] the old shed.
3 a [+ obj] : to provide (someone) with daily meals and a place to live in exchange for money ▪ They board guests during the summer season. b [no obj] : to pay for daily meals and a place to live ▪ Many students board at the college. — see also BOARDINGHOUSE, BOARDING SCHOOL board•er /ˈboədə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who pays to live and have daily meals at another person's house or at a school ▪ She decided to take in boarders. ▪ Half of the students are boarders.
2 : a person who uses a snowboard ▪ an amateur boarder [=snowboarder] board game noun, pl ~ games [count] : a game (such as chess) that is played by moving pieces on a special board board•ing•house /ˈboədiŋˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a house where people pay to live and have daily meals boarding pass noun, pl ~ passes [count] US : a special piece of paper that you must have in order to be allowed to get onto an airplane ▪ Please present your boarding pass to the flight attendant. — called also (Brit) boarding card

boarding school noun, pl ~ schools : a school where students can live during the school term [count] He attended a prestigious boarding school in Massachusetts. [noncount] She was sent to boarding school when she was nine.

board•room /ˈboədˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room where the group of people who manage or direct a company or organization have meetings ▪ The directors are meeting in the boardroom. — often used before another noun ▪ There was lots of boardroom intrigue surrounding the appointment of a new CEO.

board•walk /ˈboədˌwɑːk/ noun, pl -walks [count] chiefly US : a wooden path along a beach ✧ A boardwalk can be on the ground or raised above the ground several feet.

[1]boast /ˈboʊst/ verb boasts; boast•ed; boast•ing
1 : to express too much pride in yourself or in something you have, have done, or are connected to in some way [no obj] They boasted to their friends about their son's salary. ▪ She boasted of having won five games in a row. ▪ That score is nothing to boast about. [=you shouldn't be proud of that score; that score is not very good] [+ obj] He liked to boast that he was the richest man in town. ▪ "I've sold more paintings than you ever will," the artist boasted.
2 [+ obj] : to have (something that is impressive) ▪ The museum boasts some of the rarest gems in the world. ▪ The school boasts a number of Nobel laureates among its graduates.

[2]boast noun, pl boasts [count]
1 : a statement in which you express too much pride in yourself or in something you have, have done, or are connected to in some way ▪ When he says he's the richest man in town, he's not just making an idle/empty boast. ▪ We were offended by his boast that he would easily beat us.
2 : a reason to be proud : something impressive that someone or something has or has done ▪ The museum's proudest boast is its collection of rare gems.
– boast•ful /ˈboʊstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a boastful person/remark – boast•ful•ly /ˈboʊstfəli/ adv – boast•ful•ness noun [noncount]

[1]boat /ˈboʊt/ noun, pl boats [count]
1 a : a small vehicle that is used for traveling on water ▪ a fishing boat ▪ He tied the boat to the dock. b : a vehicle of any size that is used for traveling on water ▪ Cruise ships and other boats filled the harbor. ▪ traveling by boat across the ocean — see picture on next page; compare SHIP
2 : a long and narrow container that is used for serving a sauce with a meal ▪ a gravy/sauce boat fresh/just off the boat informal : recently arrived in a country ▪ My parents met in New York when my father was fresh off the boat from Italy.
in the same boat informal : in the same unpleasant or difficult situation : affected by the same problem ▪ We're all in the same boat.
miss the boat informal : to fail to use an opportunity ▪ If I don't act now I could miss the boat on this investment.
push the boat out Brit, informal : to spend a lot of money : to be extravagant ▪ We're going to push the boat out and throw a big party to celebrate his recovery.
rock the boat informal : to cause trouble by changing or trying to change a situation that other people do not want to change ▪ Don't rock the boat. ▪ The system isn't perfect, but it's been this way for a long time and nobody wants to rock the boat.
– boat•ful /ˈboʊtfəl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ a boatful [=(more commonly) boatload] of passengers

[2]boat verb boats; boat•ed; boat•ing [no obj] : to travel in a boat ▪ We boated over to the island.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 104 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

boat•er /ˈboʊtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who travels in a boat ▪ a favorite spot for pleasure boaters
2 : a stiff straw hat that has a brim and a flat top boat•house /ˈboʊtˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a small building that is used for storing boats near a river or lake boating noun [noncount] : the activity of going or traveling in a boat for pleasure ▪ She enjoys hiking, boating, and fishing. ▪ We went boating on the lake. — often used before another noun ▪ They own a store that sells boating equipment.

boat•load /ˈboʊtˌloʊd/ noun, pl -loads [count] : an amount or number that will fill a boat ▪ a boatload of passengers — often used figuratively to refer to a very large number or amount ▪ They made boatloads of money. = They made a boatload of money. ▪ We bought souvenirs by the boatload. [=in large numbers; we bought many souvenirs]

boat•man /ˈboʊtmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who works on, rents, or operates boats; especially : a person who you pay to take you somewhere in a boat boat people noun [plural] : people who leave their country in boats in order to get away from a dangerous situation boat•swain or bo•sun /ˈboʊsn̩/ noun, pl -swains or -suns [count] : an officer on a ship whose job is to take care of the main body of the ship and all the ship's equipment boat•yard /ˈboʊtˌjɑɚd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : a place where boats are built, repaired, stored, rented, or sold

[1]bob /ˈbɑːb/ verb bobs; bobbed; bob•bing : to move up and down quickly or repeatedly [no obj] A cork was bobbing in the water. ▪ The bird's head bobbed up and down as it searched for food. [+ obj] The bird bobbed its head up and down as it searched for food.
bob for apples : to play a children's game in which you try to grab floating or hanging apples with your teeth bob up [phrasal verb] informal : to appear suddenly or unexpectedly ▪ The question bobbed up [=(more commonly) popped up] again.
– compare [4]BOB

[2]bob noun, pl bobs [count] : a quick up-and-down motion ▪ He greeted us with a bob of his head. — compare [3]BOB, [5]BOB

[3]bob noun, pl bobs [count]
1 : a woman's or child's haircut in which the hair is all one length and usually at about the level of the person's chin ▪ She had her hair cut in a bob.
2 : PLUMB BOB 1
3 : [2]FLOAT 1a
bits and bobs see [1]BIT
– compare [2]BOB, [5]BOB

[4]bob verb bobs; bobbed; bob•bing [+ obj]
1 : to cut (something, such as an animal's tail) shorter ▪ They bobbed [=cropped] the horse's tail for the show.
2 : to cut (a person's hair) so that it is all one length and usually at about the level of the person's chin ▪ I hadn't seen her since she bobbed her hair.
– compare [1]BOB

[5]bob noun, pl bob [count] Brit, informal : SHILLING ▪ It costs five bob. ▪ I'm always looking for ways to save a few bob. [=some money] — compare [2]BOB, [3]BOB

Bob /ˈbɑːb/ noun
and Bob's your uncle Brit, informal — used to say that something is easy to do or use ▪ Just complete the form, pay the fee, and Bob's your uncle! [=and there you go]

bob•bin /ˈbɑːbən/ noun, pl -bins [count] : a round object with flat ends and a tube in its center around which thread or yarn is wound

[1]bob•ble /ˈbɑːbəl/ verb bob•bles; bob•bled; bob•bling
1 [no obj] : to move up and down quickly or repeatedly ▪ a doll with a head that bobbles [=bobs] up and down
2 [+ obj] US : to handle (something, such as a ball) in a clumsy or awkward way : to fail to catch (something) : FUMBLE ▪ The catcher bobbled the ball.

[2]bobble noun, pl bobbles [count]
1 US : a mistake that occurs when a player fails to catch or handle the ball properly in baseball, football, etc. ▪ a bobble that cost them the game — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The show went well with only a minor bobble. [=mistake]
2 chiefly Brit : a small ball of fabric that is used for decora-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

tion ▪ The curtains have a series of bobbles along the edge. ▪ a woolly hat with a bobble [=(US) pom-pom] on top bob•by /ˈbɑːbi/ noun, pl bob•bies [count] Brit, old-fashioned + informal : POLICE OFFICER ▪ a bobby on his beat bobby pin noun, pl ~ pins [count] US : a thin piece of metal that is bent so that the ends are close together and that is used for holding hair in place — called also (Brit) hairgrip; see picture at GROOMING

bobby socks or bobby sox noun [plural] US : girls' socks that cover the foot, ankle, and a small part of the lower leg

bob•cat /ˈbɑːbˌkæt/ noun, pl -cats [count] : a kind of large wild cat that has a short tail and that lives in North America bob•sled /ˈbɑːbˌsled/ noun, pl -sleds [count] US : a small vehicle for two or four people that slides over snow and ice and is used for racing ▪ He drove a bobsled in the winter Olympics. — often used before another noun ▪ the bobsled competition ▪ an Olympic bobsled team — called also (Brit) bobsleigh

bobsled

– bob•sled•der /ˈbɑːbˌsledə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an Olympic bobsledder – bob•sled•ding /ˈbɑːbˌsledɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He competed in bobsledding at the winter Olympics.

bob•sleigh /ˈbɑːbˌsleɪ/ noun, pl -sleighs [count] Brit : BOBSLED

– bob•sleigh•er /ˈbɑːbˌsleɪə/ noun, pl -ers [count] – bob•sleigh•ing /ˈbɑːbˌsleɪɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

boc•cie or boc•ci or boc•ce /ˈbɑːtʃi/ noun [noncount] US : a game in which players roll heavy balls across an area of ground and try to get each ball to stop as near as possible to a smaller ball bod /ˈbɑːd/ noun, pl bods [count] informal

1 chiefly US : a person's body ▪ guys with hot bods

2 Brit : a person : FELLOW ▪ Some bod from the office rang you. ▪ He's a bit of an odd bod, but I quite like him.

bo•da•cious /boʊˈdeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal

1 : very good or impressive ▪ a singer with a bodacious voice

2 : sexually attractive ▪ bodacious babes

bode /ˈboʊd/ verb bodes; bod•ed; bod•ing [+ obj] : to be a sign of (a future event or situation) ▪ This could bode disaster for all involved. ✧ If something bodes well or bodes ill, it is a sign that something good or bad will happen. ▪ The news doesn't bode well for us. ▪ Her injury bodes ill for the team.

bod•ice /ˈbɑːdəs/ noun, pl -ic•es [count] : the upper part of a dress

[1]bodi•ly /ˈbɑːdəli/ adj : relating to the body : having to do with a person's or animal's body ▪ bodily functions/fluids ▪ The victim suffered serious bodily injury/harm.

[2]bodily adv

1 : by moving someone's body ▪ The police removed them bodily. [=forcibly] ▪ The blast lifted him bodily into the air.

2 : as an entire structure rather than in pieces ▪ The house will have to be moved bodily to the new site.

body /ˈbɑːdi/ noun, pl bod•ies

1 [count] a : a person's or animal's whole physical self ▪ the human body ▪ a part of the body ▪ Her body is very muscular. ▪ A bird's body is covered in feathers. — often used before another noun ▪ body weight/fat ▪ body parts ▪ A person's normal body temperature [=(Brit) blood heat] is 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit or 37 degrees Celsius. b : a dead person or animal ▪ The body [=corpse] was shipped home for burial. c : the main physical part of a person or animal ▪ This species has a black body and a white head. ▪ She held her arms tightly against her body.

2 [count] : the part of a vehicle that does not include the engine, wheels, etc. ▪ There was extensive damage to the truck's body. ▪ The body of the bus is almost entirely rusted out.

3 [count] : the main or most important part of something written ▪ The (main) body of the text/letter is devoted to a description of the author's childhood home.

4 [count] : an object that is separate from other objects ▪ heavenly/celestial bodies, such as the moon, the planets, and the stars ✧ A foreign body is an object that is inside something (such as someone's body) where it should not be. ▪ The X-ray showed a foreign body in his stomach. ▪ Dust particles and other foreign bodies can irritate the eyes.

5 [count] : a large area of water — used in the phrase body of water ▪ This lake is the largest body of water in the state.

6 [count] : a group of people who are involved together in the same job, activity, etc. ▪ a body of troops ▪ the student body ▪ the state's legislative body [=the group of people who make the state's laws]

7 [count] : a group of things that are related or connected in some way ▪ They've accumulated quite a body of evidence. ▪ a writer with an impressive body of work

8 [noncount] of wine : a strong and appealing flavor ▪ a wine with full body

9 [noncount] of hair : a thick and appealing quality ▪ hair that lacks body

10 [count] : the section of a piece of clothing that covers the main part of a person's body ▪ the body of a wetsuit

11 [count] old-fashioned : a human being : PERSON — usually singular ▪ What's a body to do? ▪ It was just some poor body looking for work.

body and soul : with all of your energy and enthusiasm ▪ He devoted himself body and soul to the cause.

keep body and soul together : to have or get enough food and money to survive ▪ She kept body and soul together by working two jobs.

over my dead body informal — used to say that you are very determined to not let something happen ▪ "We're getting married." "Over my dead body!" ▪ I told her she could go with them over my dead body.

body bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a large bag that a dead person's body is put in to be carried or moved to another place body blow noun, pl ~ blows [count] : a hard hit to a person's body — usually used figuratively to describe a sudden event or occurrence that causes severe trouble, damage, sorrow, etc. ▪ The economy has taken some serious body blows in the past few years. ▪ The latest attack has dealt a real body blow to the chances for peace.

body•build•ing /ˈbɑːdiˌbɪldɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of doing exercises (such as lifting weights) to make the muscles of your body larger and stronger ▪ She's been doing competitive bodybuilding for a few years now. — often used before another noun ▪ a bodybuilding competition

– body•build•er /ˈbɑːdiˌbɪldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ professional bodybuilders

body clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a system in the body that controls when you need to sleep, eat, etc. ▪ It takes a while for my body clock to get adjusted when I fly from New York to London. — compare BIOLOGICAL CLOCK body count noun, pl ~ counts [count] : the number of people killed in a war, disaster, etc. ▪ The rising body count fueled opposition to the war.

body double noun, pl ~ doubles [count] : a person who takes an actor's place in a movie or television show for certain scenes (such as sex scenes)

body•guard /ˈbɑːdiˌgɑəd/ noun, pl -guards : a person or group of people whose job is to protect someone [count] They entered the building surrounded by bodyguards. [noncount] a member of the royal bodyguard body language noun [noncount] : movements or positions of the body that express a person's thoughts or feelings ▪ We could tell from his body language that he was nervous.

body mass index noun, pl ~ indexes [count] : a measurement that shows the amount of fat in your body and that is based on your weight and height ▪ A person with a body mass index of more than 30 is considered to be obese.

body odor noun [noncount] : an unpleasant smell from the body of a person who has been sweating or is not clean — abbr. BO

body politic noun

the body politic formal : all the people in a particular country considered as a single group ▪ The article examines the language politicians use to appeal to the body politic.

body shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] : a place where the bodies of vehicles are repaired ▪ My car is at the body shop having the dent in the door fixed.

body stocking noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a piece of clothing that fits tightly and covers the body from the neck to the ankles body•suit /ˈbɑːdiˌsuːt/ noun, pl -suits [count] : a piece of clothing that fits tightly and covers the body except for the legs and sometimes the arms ▪ a gymnast's bodysuit

Boer /ˈboə/ noun, pl Boers [count] : a South African person

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

of Dutch descent : AFRIKANER

bof•fin /ˈbɑːfən/ noun, pl -fins [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a research scientist ▪ Our boffins finally broke the enemy's code!

bof•fo /ˈbɑːfoʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] US slang : extremely good or successful ▪ a boffo idea ▪ The store's been doing boffo business this year. [=the store has been very successful]

[1]bog /ˈbɑːg/ noun, pl bogs : an area of soft, wet land : MARSH [count] a kind of plant that commonly grows in bogs ▪ a peat bog [noncount] areas of bog ▪ bog plants/grasses — often used figuratively to refer to a situation that is complicated or difficult ▪ a bog of anxiety/uncertainty — compare [3]BOG

– bog•gy /ˈbɑːgi/ adj bog•gi•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] ▪ boggy soil

[2]bog verb bogs; bogged; bog•ging

bog down [phrasal verb] 1 bog (something) down or bog down (something) : to cause (something) to sink in wet ground ▪ The mud bogged down the car. — usually used as (be) bogged down ▪ The car got bogged down in the mud. — often used figuratively ▪ It's easy to get bogged down in details. ▪ The extra demand can bog down the system. 2 : to become stuck in wet ground ▪ The car bogged down in the mud. — often used figuratively ▪ The story bogs down after the second chapter. ▪ The extra demand can cause the system to bog down.

[3]bog noun, pl bogs [count] Brit slang : a room with a toilet ▪ go to the bog [=bathroom, toilet] ▪ We've run out of bog paper. [=toilet paper] — compare [1]BOG

[1]bo•gey also bo•gie or bo•gy /ˈboʊgi/ noun, pl bo•geys also bo•gies

1 golf : a score that is one more than the official standard score for a particular hole : a score of one stroke over par on a hole [count] He made/scored a bogey on the second hole. [noncount] He made bogey on the second hole. — compare BIRDIE, EAGLE; see also DOUBLE BOGEY

2 [count] : something that causes fear or worry ▪ The administration is trying to protect the economy from the bogey of recession. [=the administration is worried that a recession might occur and is trying to prevent one]

3 [count] Brit, informal : BOOGER

[2]bogey verb -geys; -geyed; -gey•ing [+ obj] golf : to score a bogey on (a hole) ▪ She birdied the first hole but bogeyed the second hole.

bo•gey•man /ˈboʊgiˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count]

1 : an imaginary monster that is used to frighten children ▪ My aunt used to say to my sister and me, "The bogeyman will get you if you're bad."

2 : a person who is hated or feared by a group of people ▪ a politician who is the familiar bogeyman of conservatives bog•gle /ˈbɑːgəl/ verb bog•gles; bog•gled; bog•gling informal

1 [no obj] : to be unable to think clearly : to be amazed or overwhelmed ▪ The mind boggles at what he has accomplished. = When I think of what he has accomplished, my mind boggles. [=I am amazed by what he has accomplished]

2 [+ obj] : to make (the mind) unable to think clearly : to amaze or overwhelm (the mind) ▪ It boggles the mind to think of what he has accomplished. = His accomplishments boggle my mind. — see also MIND-BOGGLING bog–standard adj, Brit, informal : having no special or interesting qualities : AVERAGE ▪ a bog-standard speech ▪ It's just a bog-standard school.

bo•gus /ˈboʊgəs/ adj, informal : not real or genuine : fake or false ▪ It was just a bogus claim. ▪ They conducted bogus experiments. ▪ The evidence was completely bogus.

bo•he•mi•an /boʊˈhiːmijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person (such as an artist or writer) who does not follow society's accepted rules of behavior

– bohemian adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an artist known for his bohemian way of life ▪ He lived in the bohemian part of the city. – bo•he•mi•an•ism /boʊˈhiːmijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ They followed a life of bohemianism.

[1]boil /ˈbɔjəl/ verb boils; boiled; boil•ing

1 a [no obj] : to become so hot that bubbles are formed in a liquid and rise to the top ▪ Let the water boil. ▪ Keep the temperature low enough so the mixture will not boil. ▪ a pot of boiling water ▪ The kettle (of water) is boiling. = The water in the kettle is boiling. ▪ french fries cooked in boiling oil ▪ Cook the mixture until the liquid has boiled away. [=until the liquid has gone; until all of the liquid has turned into steam] b [+ obj] : to heat (a liquid or a container with liquid in it) so that bubbles are formed and rise to the top ▪ Boil (up) some water. ▪ Can you boil a kettle (of water) for tea?

2 : to cook (something) in water that is boiling [+ obj] Boil the eggs/vegetables. ▪ Make sure you boil (up) a lot of potatoes. ▪ boiled eggs/potatoes [no obj] He put some potatoes on to boil. [=he put a pot with potatoes and water in it on the stove and turned the burner on] ▪ The pasta is boiling.

3 [no obj] : to feel a strong emotion (such as anger) — + with ▪ The crowd boiled [=seethed] with anger.

a watched pot never boils ✧ The expression a watched pot never boils means that time passes very slowly when you are waiting for something to happen if that is the only thing you are thinking about.

boil down [phrasal verb] 1 a : to become reduced in amount by boiling ▪ Let the sauce boil down and thicken. b boil (something) down or boil down (something) : to reduce the amount of (a liquid) by boiling it ▪ Boil down the sauce so that it thickens. 2 boil (something) down or boil down (something) : to make (something) short or simple by removing the parts that are not important or necessary ▪ He was able to boil down [=condense] the report to a brief summary. 3 boil down to (something) : to have (something) as the main or basic part ▪ His speech boiled down to [=was basically] a plea for more money. ▪ Their objections all boil down to one thing: cost. ▪ You can get advice from many sources, but it all boils down to common sense. [=you should be guided by common sense]

boil over [phrasal verb] 1 : to flow over the side of a container while boiling ▪ The water in the pot is boiling over. = The pot (of water) is boiling over. 2 a : to become violent or to lose control because of anger ▪ He's so mad that he's ready to boil over. b : to change into something more violent ▪ Their disagreement finally boiled over into a fight.

boil up [phrasal verb] : to grow toward a dangerous level ▪ He could feel the anger boiling up inside him. [=he could feel himself becoming very angry] ▪ Problems have been boiling up in the cities during the hot summer.

make someone's blood boil see BLOOD

[2]boil noun, pl boils

1 [singular] of a liquid : the act or state of boiling ▪ (US) Bring the water to a boil. = (chiefly Brit) Bring the water to the boil. [=boil the water] ▪ (US) The kettle on the stove came to a boil. = (chiefly Brit) The kettle on the stove came to the boil. [=the kettle began to boil] ▪ She put the kettle (of water) on the boil. [=she put the kettle on a hot burner so that the water in it would boil] ▪ The mixture should be cooked at a slow boil. [=with small bubbles rising slowly to the surface of the liquid] ▪ Bring the pot to a rolling boil. [=to a state where large bubbles rise quickly to the surface of the liquid]

2 [count] US : a dish of shellfish, vegetables, and spices that is cooked by boiling ▪ a crab/shrimp boil; also : a party at which this dish is served ▪ They invited their family and friends to a crab boil on the beach.

off the boil Brit, informal : into a state that is less good than before ▪ After two hit singles, the band went off the boil. [=the band was not as successful] on the boil Brit, informal : in a state of activity or development ▪ The deal is still on the boil. ▪ kept their romance on the boil

– compare [3]BOIL

[3]boil noun, pl boils [count] : a painful, swollen area under the skin that is caused by infection — compare [2]BOIL boiled sweet noun, pl ~ sweets [count] Brit : HARD CANDY

boil•er /ˈboɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a large container in which water is heated to produce steam in an engine — see also DOUBLE BOILER

2 chiefly Brit : FURNACE b

boil•er•plate /ˈboɪləˌpleɪt/ noun [noncount] US : phrases or sentences that are a standard way of saying something and are often used ▪ The last paragraph of the contract was legal boilerplate. [=the last paragraph was exactly the same as paragraphs in other contracts] — often used before another noun ▪ a boilerplate speech that she has given many times boiler room noun, pl ~ rooms [count]

1 : a room with equipment for heating a building or ship : a room in which a boiler is located

2 US : a room with many telephones that are used by people who call strangers and use dishonest or forceful methods to try to sell them something boil•er•suit /ˈboɪləˌsuːt/ noun, pl -suits Brit : COVERALL

[1]boil•ing /ˈboɪlɪŋ/ adj : very hot ▪ a boiling sun ▪ a boiling

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

summer day ▪ I'm boiling in this suit. ▪ It is boiling in here.

[2]boiling adv : very or extremely ▪ The sun was boiling hot. ▪ He is boiling mad at how he was treated.

boiling point noun, pl ~ points
1 [count] : the temperature at which a liquid begins to boil ▪ The boiling point of water is 212° Fahrenheit or 100° Celsius.
2 : the point at which people might do or say something violent or might take some definite or extreme action because of anger, disagreement, etc. [count] — usually singular ▪ The incident brought tensions to a boiling point. ▪ He sensed he had reached his boiling point. ▪ (chiefly US) Tempers are reaching the boiling point. [noncount] (Brit) Tempers are reaching boiling point.

bois•ter•ous /ˈbɔɪstrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very noisy and active in a lively way ▪ A large and boisterous crowd attended the concert. ▪ a boisterous drinking party ▪ He had a big, boisterous [=hearty] laugh.
– bois•ter•ous•ly adv ▪ They laughed boisterously.

bok choy (US) /ˈbɑːkˈʧɔɪ/ or Brit pak choi /ˈpɑːkˈʧɔɪ/ noun [noncount] : a type of cabbage originally from China that has green leaves with thick, white stems

[1]bold /ˈboʊld/ adj bold•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : not afraid of danger or difficult situations ▪ The area was settled by bold [=brave, courageous] pioneers. ▪ Few politicians have been bold enough to oppose the plan to cut taxes. b : showing or needing confidence or lack of fear ▪ It's a bold plan that might fail. ▪ Hiring a novice was a bold move.
2 : very confident in a way that may seem rude or foolish ▪ He punished the bold child for talking back. ▪ He was/made so bold as to guarantee a victory. [=he confidently guaranteed a victory] ▪ I'd like to offer a few criticisms, if I may be so bold.
3 : very noticeable or easily seen ▪ She wore a dress with bold stripes. ▪ The painting is done in bold colors.
4 literary : very steep ▪ bold cliffs
5 : BOLD-FACED 2 ▪ The headline was printed in large, bold type/lettering.
(as) bold as brass : not afraid at all : very confident or bold ▪ I was too nervous to do it, but my sister went right up to him (as) bold as brass and asked for his autograph.
– bold•ly adv ▪ He was boldly direct. ▪ a boldly original painting ▪ a boldly striped shirt – bold•ness noun [noncount]

[2]bold noun [noncount] : BOLDFACE

bold•face /ˈboʊldˌfeɪs/ noun [noncount] : letters that are printed in thick, dark lines ▪ The headline was printed in boldface. — see picture at FONT

bold–faced /ˈboʊldˈfeɪst/ adj, chiefly US
1 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : very obvious and showing no feeling of doing something wrong : BLATANT ▪ a bold-faced lie ▪ He is a bold-faced [=bald-faced, barefaced] liar.
2 usually bold•faced : having thick dark lines ▪ The headline was printed in boldfaced [=bold] type. : printed in boldface ▪ a boldfaced headline bo•le•ro /bəˈleroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count]

1 : a type of Spanish dance; also : the music for this dance
2 : a short jacket that does not close at the front boll /ˈboʊl/ noun, pl bolls [count] : the part of the cotton plant that contains the seeds

bol•lard /ˈbɑːlərd/ noun, pl -lards [count]
1 Brit : a post that prevents vehicles from going into an area where people can wait in the middle of a road
2 : a post around which a rope may be tied to keep a boat close to land

bol•lix /ˈbɑːlɪks/ verb -lix•es; -lixed; -lix•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to make mistakes in doing (something) : to upset or ruin (something) ▪ That delay has bollixed our schedule. — usually + up ▪ I bollixed up my income tax form and had to pay a penalty. ▪ That one delay has bollixed up [=messed up] my whole week.

bol•locks /ˈbɑːləks/ noun, Brit, informal + impolite
1 [noncount] : foolish or untrue words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ They always say we talk bollocks. ▪ It's all bollocks. I don't believe a word of it.
2 [plural] : TESTICLES ▪ She kicked him in the bollocks.

boll weevil noun, pl ~ -vils [count] : a small insect that feeds on cotton plants

bo•lo•gna /bəˈloʊni/ noun [noncount] : a wide cooked sausage that is cut into thin pieces and eaten in sandwiches ▪ a slice of bologna ▪ a bologna sandwich bo•lo tie /ˈboʊloʊ-/ or bo•la tie /ˈboʊlə-/ noun, pl ~ ties [count] US : a string that is worn around the neck and is held in place by a decorative piece in the front — called also bolo ✧ Bolo ties are worn as neckties by men mainly in the western half of the U.S.

Bol•she•vik /ˈboʊlʃəˌvɪk, ˈbɑːlʃəˌvɪk/ noun, pl -viks [count] : a member of the political party that started to rule Russia in 1917 or a member of a similar political party : COMMUNIST – Bolshevik adj ▪ the Bolshevik leader ▪ the Bolshevik revolution/state

bol•shie or bol•shy /ˈboʊlʃi, ˈbɑːlʃi/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : refusing to obey or help ▪ He turned bolshie and uncooperative. ✧ The word bolshie is a shortened form of Bolshevik.

[1]bol•ster /ˈboʊlstɚ/ verb -sters; -stered; -ster•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) stronger or better : to give support to (something) ▪ She came with me to bolster my confidence. ▪ a convincing argument that was bolstered by the speaker's reputation ▪ He received news that bolstered [=lifted] his spirits. ▪ She is thinking of ways to bolster her career/image.

[2]bolster noun, pl -sters [count] : a long bag of cloth completely filled with soft material : a long pillow or cushion

[1]bolt /ˈboʊlt/ noun, pl bolts
1 [count] : a bright line of light that appears in the sky during a storm : a flash of lightning ▪ a bolt of lightning = a lightning bolt — often used figuratively in the phrases a bolt from the blue and a bolt out of the blue ▪ The news of his firing came as/like a bolt from the blue. [=like a bolt of lightning from the sky; it was surprising and unexpected]
2 [count] a : a sliding bar that is used to lock a door or window b : the part of a lock that is moved by a key — see also DEAD BOLT
3 [count] : a long, round piece of metal that has a wider part at one end and is like a screw at the other end ✧ A bolt and a nut are used together to hold something in place. — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also nuts and bolts at NUT
4 [singular] Brit : the act of running or moving quickly and suddenly in a particular direction or to a particular place ▪ When he saw the police, he made a bolt for [=made a dash for] the door. ▪ The thief made a bolt for it. [=ran away]
5 [count] : a large roll of cloth
6 [count] : a tube-shaped metal part inside a gun
7 [count] : a short, heavy arrow that is shot from a type of weapon (called a crossbow) used mainly in the past ✧ If you have shot your bolt, you have done or used everything possible to try to do something, and there is nothing more that you can do. ▪ The team had shot its bolt in the first quarter and didn't score again.

[2]bolt verb bolts; bolt•ed; bolt•ing
1 [no obj] a always followed by an adverb, adjective, or preposition : to move or go very suddenly and quickly from or to a particular place, position, or condition ▪ He bolted up from the chair. ▪ She bolted awake when the alarm sounded. ▪ She bolted to her feet. ▪ Reporters bolted [=rushed] for the door from which the mayor appeared. ▪ The firefighters bolted [=sprang] into action. b : to run away suddenly and quickly ▪ The horse bolted when it heard the gunfire. ▪ He took the money and bolted.
2 US : to suddenly leave a political party, team, etc. [no obj] The coach bolted to a new team. [+ obj] Some unhappy members have threatened to bolt the party and support the opposition.
3 a : to fasten (something) tightly : to lock (something) with a bolt [+ obj] She closed and bolted the door. ▪ Is the door bolted? [no obj] The door bolts on the inside. b [+ obj] : to attach (something) firmly : to attach (something) with a bolt ▪ He bolted the panels together. ▪ The bench was bolted to the floor.
4 [+ obj] : to eat (food) quickly ▪ Mom told my brother not to bolt his food. — often + down ▪ He bolted down his dinner and rushed out the door.

[3]bolt adv : with the back in a very straight position ▪ She sat bolt upright, staring straight ahead.

bolt–hole /ˈboʊltˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] Brit : a safe or restful place : a place where you can hide or escape from something that is dangerous or unpleasant ▪ They considered the inn a bolt-hole in times of stress.

[1]bomb /ˈbɑːm/ noun, pl bombs
1 a [count] : a device that is designed to explode in order to injure or kill people or to damage or destroy property ▪ A bomb went off downtown. ▪ The bomb is set to detonate at 3:00. = The bomb will blow up at 3:00. ▪ Many bombs were dropped on the city during the war. ▪ They hid/planted a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

bomb in the building. ▪ a pipe bomb [=a bomb made from a piece of pipe] ▪ a suicide bomb [=a bomb carried by someone who plans to be killed by it when it explodes] — often used before another noun ▪ a bomb explosion/blast ▪ a bomb site [=a place where a bomb has exploded] ▪ Someone called in a bomb threat [=a message saying that a bomb is located in a particular place], so the building was evacuated. ▪ a bomb squad [=a group of people who have the job of preventing bombs from causing damage or injury] b *the bomb : nuclear weapons ▪ countries that have the bomb

2 [count] US, informal : something that is a complete failure — usually singular ▪ The movie was a bomb. [=flop]

3 a the bomb US slang : something or someone that is very good ▪ Their new album is the bomb. [=their new album is great] b [singular] Brit, informal : something that is very successful ▪ The party went down/like a bomb [=the party was a success], and everybody enjoyed themselves.

4 [count] a American football : a long pass ▪ The quarterback threw a bomb to the wide receiver. b basketball : a long shot ▪ She's good at shooting three-point bombs. c baseball : a long home run ▪ He hit a three-run bomb over the left field wall.

5 [singular] Brit, informal : a large amount of money ▪ She paid a bomb for the car. ▪ I'm looking for a new computer that doesn't cost a bomb.

drop a bomb or drop the bomb informal : to do or say something that is very shocking and unexpected ▪ She dropped a bomb with her resignation. [=her resignation was a complete surprise] ▪ She dropped the bomb on her husband and asked for a divorce.

[2]bomb verb bombs; bombed; bomb•ing

1 [+ obj] : to attack (a place or people) with a bomb or many bombs ▪ The city was heavily bombed during the war. ▪ The planes flew 200 miles to bomb their target.

2 a [no obj] informal : to fail completely ▪ The plan bombed (out). ▪ The movie bombed at the box office. ▪ The play bombed on Broadway. ▪ He bombed at/in his first performance. b [+ obj] US slang : to fail (a test) ▪ I completely bombed my math exam.

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] informal : to move or go very quickly ▪ A car was bombing down the highway. ▪ teenagers bombing around in a convertible

4 [+ obj] a US, sports : to hit (a ball) very hard ▪ He bombed a homer in the ninth inning. b baseball : to score many runs against (a pitcher) ▪ The relief pitcher was bombed in the ninth inning.

– bombing noun, pl -ings [noncount] The city was subjected to heavy bombing during the war. [count] The building was destroyed by repeated bombings. ▪ suicide bombings — often used before another noun ▪ a bombing attack/campaign

bom•bard /bɑmˈbɑəd/ verb -bards; -bard•ed; -bard•ing [+ obj]

1 : to attack (a place) with bombs, large guns, etc. ▪ The navy bombarded the shore.

2 : to hit or attack (something or someone) constantly or repeatedly ▪ Scientists bombarded the sample with X-rays. ▪ The car was bombarded by rocks as it drove away from the angry crowd. — often used figuratively ▪ He is being bombarded by offers. ▪ We are constantly being bombarded by ads. ▪ The actress was bombarded with questions.

– bom•bard•ment /bɑmˈbɑədmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] During the war, bombardments occurred every night. [noncount] The city was subjected to aerial bombardment. [=bombs were dropped on the city from airplanes]

bom•bar•dier /ˌbɑːmbəˈdiə/ noun, pl -diers [count]

1 chiefly US : the person in a military aircraft who controls when the bombs are dropped

2 : an officer who operates large guns and has a low rank in the British Army

bom•bast /ˈbɑːmˌbæst/ noun [noncount] formal : speech or writing that is meant to sound important or impressive but is not sincere or meaningful ▪ political bombast

– bom•bas•tic /bɑmˈbæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a bombastic speech/speaker – bom•bas•ti•cal•ly /bɑmˈbæstɪkli/ adv

bombed /ˈbɑːmd/ adj, not used before a noun, US, informal : affected by alcohol or drugs : very drunk or intoxicated ▪ He was bombed out of his mind. [=he was so drunk that he didn't know what he was doing]

bombed–out /ˈbɑːmdˈaʊt/ adj

1 : destroyed by bombs ▪ We passed many bombed-out buildings in the ruined city. ▪ The factory was completely bombed-out during the war.

2 : forced out of a house or a building by bombing ▪ bombed-out families/workers bomb•er /ˈbɑːmə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a military aircraft designed for dropping bombs ▪ a bomber pilot

2 : a person who takes a bomb to a place so that it will explode there : a person who bombs a place ▪ a suicide bomber [=someone who takes a bomb to a place and expects to be killed by it when it explodes]

bomber jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a short jacket that is made of leather and fits closely around the waist bomb•proof /ˈbɑːmˌpruːf/ adj : strong enough to protect someone or something from the force of bombs ▪ a bombproof bunker/shelter — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a bombproof investment [=a very safe investment]

bomb•shell /ˈbɑːmˌʃɛl/ noun, pl -shells [count]

1 : something that is very surprising or shocking — usually singular ▪ The book was a political bombshell. ▪ The news of his departure was a bombshell. ▪ She dropped a bombshell [=she surprised everyone] when she said she wouldn't run for reelection.

2 informal : a very attractive woman — usually used in the phrase blond/blonde bombshell to refer to an attractive woman with blonde hair ▪ She's a blonde bombshell who looks like a movie star of the 1950s.

bo•na de /ˈboʊnəˌfaɪd, ˌboʊnəˈfaɪdi/ adj

1 : real or genuine ▪ She has established her position as a bona fide celebrity. ▪ His latest record was a bona fide hit.

2 law : made or done in an honest and sincere way ▪ a bona fide offer ▪ They have a bona fide claim for the loss.

bo•na des /ˌboʊnəˈfaɪˌdiːz/ noun [plural] formal : evidence which shows that what you have said about yourself is true : evidence showing that you deserve a position or that you can be trusted ▪ She has worked hard to establish her bona fides with the company. [=to show the company that she can be trusted] ✧ Bona fides can be used with a singular or plural verb. ▪ The lawyer's bona fides was/were questioned.

bo•nan•za /bəˈnænzə/ noun, pl -zas [count]

1 : something that produces very good results for someone or something — usually singular ▪ The movie turned out to be a box-office bonanza. [=the movie made a great deal of money] ▪ The program has been a ratings bonanza for the network. [=the program has received very high ratings] ▪ The discovery proved to be a bonanza for scientists.

2 : a large amount of something valuable — usually singular ▪ Her research resulted in a bonanza of information.

bon ap•pé•tit /ˌboʊnæpəˈtiː/ interj — used to tell someone to enjoy a meal ✧ The phrase bon appétit comes from French.

bon•bon /ˈbɑːnˌbɑːn/ noun, pl -bons [count] : a type of candy that usually has a chocolate cover and a soft center ▪ chocolate bonbons

bonce /ˈbɑːns/ noun, pl bonc•es [count] Brit slang : a person's head ▪ a bald bonce

[1]bond /ˈbɑːnd/ noun, pl bonds

1 [count] : something (such as an idea, interest, experience, or feeling) that is shared between people or groups and forms a connection between them ▪ the bonds of friendship ▪ a daughter's bond with her mother ▪ family/kinship bonds ▪ Recent events have helped to strengthen the bonds between our two countries. ▪ My roommate and I share a common bond because we both grew up in the Midwest. ▪ the bonds of holy matrimony [=the connection between two people who are married to each other]

2 [count] finance : an official document in which a government or company promises to pay back an amount of money that it has borrowed and to pay interest for the borrowed money ▪ She has invested most of her money in stocks and bonds. ▪ The city issued bonds [=the city created bonds and sold them to investors] to pay for the new school. ▪ municipal bonds [=bonds issued by a local government] — see also JUNK BOND, SAVINGS BOND

3 [count] formal : a chain or rope that is used to prevent someone from moving or acting freely — usually plural ▪ The prisoner was able to break free from the bonds that held him. — often used figuratively ▪ They struggled to free themselves from the bonds of oppression.

4 [count] : the condition of being held together or joined ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

The glue provides a good/strong bond between the two pieces of wood.

5 [count] chemistry : a force that holds together the atoms in a molecule ▪ chemical bonds — see also DOUBLE BOND, SINGLE BOND, TRIPLE BOND

6 [count] formal : a promise or agreement to do something ▪ You can believe me when I say I'll help you. My word is my bond. [=I always do what I promise to do]

7 [noncount] chiefly US, law : the amount of money that someone promises to pay if a prisoner who is allowed to leave jail does not return later for a trial or to prison : an agreement to pay bail ▪ The accused was released on $10,000 bond. [=the person accused of a crime was released from jail because someone promised to pay $10,000 if the accused person does not appear for the trial]

8 [noncount] : BOND PAPER ▪ used high-quality bond for the letter

[2]bond verb bonds; bond•ed; bond•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to join (things) together ▪ Heat was used to bond the sheets of plastic together. ▪ The poster was bonded to the wall with glue/adhesive. b [no obj] : to join to something else ▪ The pieces of wood bonded (to each other) well.

2 [no obj] : to form a close relationship with someone — often + with ▪ We were strangers at first, but we bonded (with each other) quickly. ▪ A new mother bonds with her baby.

– bonding adj, always used before a noun ▪ a bonding agent [=a glue, an adhesive]

bond•age /ˈbɑːndɪʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 formal + literary : the state of being a slave : SLAVERY ▪ He delivered the slaves from bondage. [=he freed the slaves] ▪ a population held/kept in bondage — often used figuratively ▪ He struggled in the bondage of drug addiction.

2 : sexual activity that involves tying a person up for pleasure bonding noun [noncount] : the process of forming a close relationship with someone ▪ mother-child bonding ▪ He and his dad spent the weekend together for some male bonding.

bond paper noun [noncount] : a paper that can be used for documents ▪ printed the letter on bond paper — called also bond

bonds•man /ˈbɑːndzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] chiefly US, law : a person who agrees to make a payment if a prisoner who is released from prison does not return : a person who agrees to pay a bond

[1]bone /ˈboʊn/ noun, pl bones

1 [count] : any one of the hard pieces that form the frame (called a skeleton) inside a person's or animal's body ▪ He broke a bone in his left arm. ▪ The leg bone is connected to the knee bone. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He doesn't have a selfish/jealous bone in his body. [=he is not selfish/jealous at all] ▪ My bones are aching from working in the garden. ▪ My aching bones! [=my body is tired and sore] ▪ I'll be glad to have a chance to rest my weary bones. ▪ He knew in his bones [=knew in his heart; had a strong feeling] that he was wrong. ▪ She felt in her bones [=she sensed very strongly] that nothing had changed. — see also BAG OF BONES, BARE BONES, FUNNY BONE

2 [noncount] : the hard material that bones are made of ▪ a piece of bone ▪ We are all made of flesh and bone. ▪ The handle of the knife is made from bone.

bone of contention see CONTENTION bone to pick informal : something to argue or complain about with someone — usually + with ▪ I have a bone to pick with you!

bred in the bone see [1]BREED close to the bone see [2]CLOSE make no bones about : to be very sure and definite about (something) ▪ Make no bones about the seriousness of the matter. ▪ He made no bones about his plans to cut expenses. ▪ Make no bones about it—we will win.

off the bone : with the meat removed from the bone or bones ▪ The pork is served off the bone.

on the bone : with the meat connected to the bone or bones ▪ The ham was on the bone.

skin and bones see [1]SKIN throw (someone) a bone informal : to offer (someone) something that is not very important or valuable especially to stop complaints or protests ▪ The boss would not let his workers out early for the holiday but threw them a bone by buying lunch.

to the bone 1 : very much ▪ We were frozen to the bone. [=we were very cold] ▪ The threatening look in his eyes chilled me to the bone. [=made me feel very fearful] 2 : as much as possible ▪ The company has cut costs to the bone in an effort to save money.

work your fingers to the bone see [1]FINGER

– bone•less /ˈboʊnləs/ adj ▪ boneless ham [=ham from which the bone has been removed] ▪ The chicken breast is boneless.

[2]bone verb bones; boned; bon•ing [+ obj] : to remove the bones from (a fish or meat) : DEBONE ▪ bone a fish ▪ bone a chicken breast bone up [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to try to learn a lot of information quickly for a test, exam, etc. ▪ She boned up [=crammed] for the exam. 2 : to study something again ▪ He's going to bone up the night before the test. — usually + on ▪ She boned up on the speech just before giving it. ▪ I have to bone up on [=brush up on] my French for my trip.

[3]bone adv, always used before an adjective : extremely or very : completely or totally ▪ bone tired/lazy/idle ▪ The air is bone dry. — often used in combination ▪ a bone-dry desert climate bone–chill•ing /ˈboʊnˌʧɪlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very cold ▪ a bone-chilling wind

2 : causing strong feelings of fear, terror, etc. ▪ a bone-chilling scream bone china noun [noncount] : thin white plates, bowls, cups, etc., made from clay and crushed bones

boned /boʊnd/ adj

1 : having bones of a specified type — used in combination ▪ She is a small-boned person. ▪ a big-boned horse

2 : with the bones removed ▪ boned chicken ▪ a boned fish bone•head /ˈboʊnˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a stupid or foolish person ▪ I told him he was acting like a bonehead. [=numbskull] — often used before another noun ▪ a bonehead [=boneheaded] decision

– bone•head•ed /ˈboʊnˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a boneheaded mistake – bone•head•ed•ness noun [noncount]

bone marrow noun [noncount] : a soft substance that fills the bones of people and animals — called also marrow

bone•meal /ˈboʊnˌmiːl/ noun [noncount] : bones that have been crushed or ground and that are added to soil to help plants grow better bon•er /ˈboʊnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal

1 : a foolish or careless mistake ▪ The manager pulled a boner [=made a stupid mistake] and lost the game.

2 impolite : an erection of the penis bone•yard /ˈboʊnˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] US, informal : CEMETERY

bon• re /ˈbɑːnˌfajə/ noun, pl - res [count] : a large outdoor fire

Bon re Night noun [count, noncount] : the night of November 5th observed in Britain with fireworks and bonfires to celebrate the capture in 1605 of a group of people who planned to destroy the buildings of Parliament

[1]bong /ˈbɑːŋ/ noun, pl bongs [count] : a deep loud sound that is made by a large bell — compare [2]BONG

[2]bong noun, pl bongs [count] : a device that is used for smoking marijuana in which the smoke is passed through water : WATER PIPE — compare [1]BONG

bon•go /ˈbɑːŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] : one of a pair of small drums that are joined together and played with the hands — called also bongo drum; see picture at PERCUSSION

bon•ho•mie /ˌbɑːnəˈmiː, Brit ˈbɒnəmi/ noun [noncount] formal : a feeling of friendliness among a group of people ▪ the bonhomie of strangers singing together around a campfire

bonk /ˈbɑːŋk/ verb bonks; bonked; bonk•ing [+ obj] informal

1 : to hit (someone or something) ▪ He bonked him on the head. ▪ The golf ball bonked the hood of the car.

2 Brit : to have sexual intercourse with (someone) bonk•ers /ˈbɑːŋkəz/ adj, not used before a noun, informal : CRAZY ▪ You have to be bonkers to gamble that much. ▪ I was driven bonkers by the noise.

go bonkers informal : to become very excited or angry ▪ The fans went bonkers when their team won.

bon mot /ˌbɑːnˈmoʊ/ noun, pl bons mots or bon mots /ˌbɑːnˈmoʊ/ [count] formal : a clever remark : WITTICISM ▪ She had a sparkling bon mot for every occasion. ✧ This term is from French and literally means "good word."

bon•net /ˈbɑːnət/ noun, pl -nets [count]

1 : a hat that ties under the chin ✧ Bonnets were worn by women in the past but are now only worn by babies.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 56 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

2 Brit : [1]HOOD 2b ▪ He lifted the car's bonnet to check the engine.

have a bee in your bonnet see [1]BEE

bon•ny also bon•nie /'ba:ni/ adj bon•ni•er; -est chiefly Scotland : very pretty or attractive ▪ a bonny lass/baby

bon•sai /'ba:n,saɪ/ noun, pl bonsai

1 [count] : a very small tree or bush that is grown in a pot by using special methods to control its growth

2 [noncount] : the art of growing bonsai bonsai

bo•nus /'boʊnəs/ noun, pl -nus•es [count]

1 : something good that is more than what was expected or required ▪ As a bonus for good behavior you can stay up late. ▪ The product has the added bonus of providing extra vitamins.

2 : an extra amount of money that is given to an employee ▪ Staff members were given a bonus for finishing the project on schedule. ▪ The company offered bonuses to entice new workers. ▪ We receive annual bonuses at the end of the year.

bon vi•vant /,ba:nvi'va:nt/ noun, pl bons vi•vants or bon vi•vants /,ba:nvi'va:nts/ [count] formal : a person who likes going to parties and other social occasions and who enjoys good food, wine, etc. — called also (Brit) bon viveur

bon voy•age /,ba:nvɔɪ'a:ʒ/ noun [noncount] : [2]FAREWELL 1 ▪ The crowd waved bon voyage as the ship left the dock. — usually used to say that you hope someone who is leaving on a trip will have a good journey ▪ People in the crowd shouted "Bon voyage!" as the ship left the dock. ▪ Bon voyage. Have a safe trip. ▪ We went with him to the station to wish/bid him bon voyage.

bony /'boʊni/ adj bon•i•er; -est [more ~; most ~]

1 : resembling bone ▪ a hard, bony substance

2 : full of bones ▪ a bony piece of fish

3 : having large or noticeable bones ▪ bony fingers/knees

4 : very thin ▪ I used to be fat but my sister was always bony.

[1]boo /'bu:/ noun, pl boos

1 [count] : a sound that people make to show they do not like or approve of someone or something ▪ A chorus of boos was heard after the shot missed the goal. ▪ The announcement was greeted by/with a mixture of boos and cheers.

2 [noncount] informal : any sound at all — usually used in negative statements ▪ He never said boo [=he never said anything], so I didn't even know he was there. ✧ A person who (US) wouldn't say boo or (Brit) wouldn't say boo to a goose is very quiet and shy.

[2]boo interj

1 — used to show dislike or disapproval of someone or something ▪ The crowd shouted "Boo!" when the announcement was made. ▪ Boo! Get off the stage. ✧ When people say "Boo!" with this meaning, they say it very slowly.

2 — used when a person frightens someone ▪ My brother scared me when he jumped out from behind the door and shouted "Boo!" ✧ When people say "Boo!" with this meaning, they say it very quickly.

[3]boo verb boos; booed; boo•ing : to show dislike or disapproval of someone or something by shouting "Boo" slowly [no obj] Many people in the crowd booed when the announcement was made. [+ obj] Many people in the crowd booed the announcement, but a few people cheered it. ▪ The crowd booed the singer off the stage. [=the crowd booed so much that the singer stopped singing and left the stage]

– booing noun [noncount] ▪ The booing was so loud I could hardly hear the announcement.

[1]boob /'bu:b/ noun, pl boobs [count] US, informal : a stupid or foolish person ▪ She's not the helpless boob she seems to be. ▪ an incompetent boob — compare [2]BOOB, [3]BOOB

[2]boob noun, pl boobs [count] informal + sometimes offensive : a woman's breast ▪ a woman with big boobs ▪ She plans to have a boob job. [=a surgical operation to increase the size of a woman's breasts] — compare [1]BOOB, [3]BOOB

[3]boob noun, pl boobs [count] Brit, informal : a foolish or careless mistake — compare [1]BOOB, [2]BOOB

[4]boob verb boobs; boobed; boob•ing [no obj] Brit, informal : to make a foolish or careless mistake ▪ Officials really boobed [=(chiefly US) goofed] on handling the situation and made it worse.

boo–boo /'bu:,bu:/ noun, pl -boos [count] informal

1 : a small injury (such as a bruise or scratch) — used especially by children or when speaking to children ▪ She fell down and got a boo-boo. ▪ Did you get a boo-boo?

2 : a foolish or careless mistake ▪ I made a slight boo-boo when I added up the numbers. ▪ a major diplomatic boo-boo

boob tube noun, pl ~ tubes

1 the boob tube US, informal + often disapproving : TELEVISION ▪ They spent the evening in front of the boob tube. ▪ What's on the boob tube tonight?

2 [count] Brit : TUBE TOP

[1]boo•by /'bu:bi/ noun, pl -bies [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a stupid or foolish person ▪ a witless booby — compare [2]BOOBY

[2]booby noun, pl -bies [count] US, informal + sometimes offensive : a woman's breast — compare [1]BOOBY

booby hatch noun

the booby hatch informal + often offensive : a hospital for people who are mentally ill

booby prize noun, pl ~ prizes [count] informal : a prize that is given as a joke to the person who finishes last in a competition — usually singular ▪ You came in last—you win/get the booby prize.

booby trap noun, pl ~ traps [count]

1 : a hidden bomb that explodes when the object connected to it is touched, moved, etc. ▪ Someone had rigged a booby trap that blew up the car when the engine was started.

2 : a trap that is set as a joke to shock or frighten someone ▪ We set a booby trap by balancing a bucket of water on top of the door so that it would fall on him when he came in.

– boo•by–trap verb -traps; -trapped; -trap•ping [+ obj] ▪ Someone had booby-trapped the car. ▪ His roommate booby-trapped the door. – booby–trapped adj ▪ The house is booby-trapped. ▪ a booby-trapped car

boog•er /'bu:gə/ noun, pl -gers [count] US, informal : a piece of mucus from the nose — used especially by children boo•gey•man /'bʊgi,mæn/ noun, pl -men /-,mɛn/ [count] US

1 : BOGEYMAN 1

2 : BOGEYMAN 2

[1]boo•gie /'bʊgi, Brit 'bu:gi/ noun [noncount] : BOOGIE-WOOGIE

[2]boo•gie also boo•gy or boo•gey /'bʊgi, Brit 'bu:gi/ verb boo•gies also boo•geys; boo•gied also boo•geyed; boo•gy•ing also boo•gey•ing [no obj] informal

1 : to dance especially to rock music ▪ Everyone at the disco was just boogying (down) all night.

2 US : to move or go quickly ▪ Let's boogie on out of here.

boo•gie–woo•gie /,bʊgi'wʊgi, Brit ,bu:gi'wu:gi/ noun [noncount] : a style of playing a type of music similar to jazz (called the blues) on the piano with a fast, strong, steady beat

[1]book /'bʊk/ noun, pl books

1 [count] a : a set of printed sheets of paper that are held together inside a cover : a long written work ▪ The shelves in his office are filled with books. ▪ That's one of the best books I've read in a long time. ▪ a novelist who has written some wonderful books ▪ a book about plumbing ▪ The library has many dictionaries and other reference books. ▪ a hardcover/paperback book — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You can learn many things by studying the great book of nature. [=by studying nature] b : a long written work that can be read on a computer : E-BOOK ▪ an electronic book

2 [count] : a set of sheets of paper that are inside a cover and that you can write information on ▪ an appointment book ▪ an address book — see also NOTEBOOK

3 [count] : a major section of a long written work (such as the Bible) ▪ the books of the Bible ▪ a story that is told in the Book of Job — see also GOOD BOOK

4 [count] : a set of things held together inside a cover like the pages of a book ▪ a book of stamps ▪ a book of matches [=a matchbook] — see also CHECKBOOK

5 books [plural] a : the financial records of a business ▪ The company's books [=accounts] show a profit. b : the official records of a business or organization ▪ I'm sorry, but your name does not appear in/on our books.

6 the book US, informal : the knowledge or information that relates to a particular subject, person, etc. ▪ The book on him is that he can't hit a curveball. [=people have seen and reported that he can't hit a curveball]

7 the book informal : PHONE BOOK ▪ Give me a call if you need to. I'm in the book. [=my telephone number is listed in the telephone book]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b a closed book : a person or thing that is difficult to understand ▪ Even to his closest friends, he was always something of a closed book. — compare AN OPEN BOOK (below) an open book : a person or thing that is easy to learn about and understand ▪ My life is an open book. I have nothing to hide.

bring (someone) to book chiefly Brit, formal : to require (someone) to explain and accept punishment or criticism for bad or wrong behavior ▪ The people responsible for these crimes must be brought to book. [=brought to account] by the book : by following the official rules very strictly ▪ My boss insists on doing everything by the book. ▪ They ran all the investigations by the book.

cook the books see [2]COOK

every trick in the book see [1]TRICK hit the books informal : to study or begin studying very intensely ▪ I've got to hit the books all weekend if I'm going to pass this test.

in my book informal : in my opinion ▪ She deserves credit, in my book, for much of the company's recent success. ▪ He isn't even a good boss, at least not in my book.

in someone's bad books chiefly Brit, informal : in a state in which you are not liked or treated nicely by someone ▪ He remains in her bad books. [=she is still displeased with him] in someone's good books chiefly Brit, informal : in a state in which you are liked or are treated nicely by someone ▪ He's trying to get back in his boss's good books by offering to work overtime.

one for the books : a very unusual, important, or surprising situation, statement, event, etc. ▪ There have been a lot of scandals in local politics over the years, but this is one for the books.

on the books : part of the set of official laws ▪ It's an outdated law that's still on the books.

read someone like a book see [1]READ suit someone's book see [2]SUIT throw the book at informal : to punish (someone) as severely as possible ▪ The judge threatened to throw the book at him if he committed another offense. ▪ I thought I would get off with just a warning, but they threw the book at me.

write the book on see WRITE

[2]book verb books; booked; book•ing

1 : to make arrangements so that you will be able to use or have (something, such as a room, table, or seat) at a later time [+ obj] We booked [=reserved] a hotel room. ▪ They booked two seats at the theater. ▪ They booked tickets for a direct flight from London to New York. ▪ I booked a table at our favorite restaurant. [no obj] She booked through her travel agent. ▪ We will need to book early. ✧ This sense is used in U.S. English, but it is more common in British English. In U.S. English, reserve or make a reservation for is more commonly used. ✧ When a hotel, restaurant, etc., is booked (up), booked solid, or fully booked, there are no more rooms, tables, etc., available. These forms are commonly used in both U.S. and British English. ▪ The hotels in the city were booked solid for the conference. ▪ The flight was fully booked. ▪ The hotel was all booked up for the week.

2 [+ obj] : to make arrangements for (someone) to do, use, or have something at a later time ▪ She booked me on a flight from Oslo to Paris. ▪ He was booked to sail on Monday.

3 [+ obj] : to schedule a performance or appearance by (someone, such as a musician) ▪ The band was booked to play at the reception. ▪ book a singer

4 [+ obj] law : to write down in an official police record the name of (a person who is being charged with a crime) — usually used as (be) booked ▪ She was booked on suspicion of murder.

5 [+ obj] Brit, of a soccer referee : to write down in an official book the name of (a player who has broken the rules in a game) — usually used as (be) booked ▪ He was booked for a late tackle.

book in/into [phrasal verb] book in or book into (something) Brit : to arrive at and be given a room in a hotel, an inn, etc. ▪ We booked in [=checked in] shortly after noon. ▪ We booked into [=checked into] our hotel shortly after noon.

– book•able /ˈbʊkəbəl/ adj, chiefly Brit ▪ bookable flights/seats ▪ bookable hotel rooms

[3]book adj, always used before a noun : learned from reading books and not from experience ▪ His schooling provided him with extensive book knowledge/learning. ▪ She had plenty of book learning but no hands-on experience.

book•bind•ing /ˈbʊkˌbaɪndɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the process or job of attaching the pages of a book together inside a cover

– book•bind•er /ˈbʊkˌbaɪndə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

book•case /ˈbʊkˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cases [count] : a piece of furniture with shelves to hold books — see picture at LIVING ROOM book club noun, pl ~ clubs [count]

1 : an organization that sells books to its members at low prices

2 : a group of people who meet to talk about the books that they are reading book•end /ˈbʊkˌend/ noun, pl -ends [count] : something placed at the end of a row of books to hold them up ▪ a pair of bookends shaped like horses ▪ He used an empty flowerpot as a bookend.

book•ie /ˈbʊki/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : BOOKMAKER ▪ Their bookie is giving good odds.

book•ing /ˈbʊkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 : an arrangement for a person or group (such as a singer or band) to perform at a particular place [count] She has several concert bookings this fall. ▪ The comedian missed some bookings because of illness. [noncount] All booking is done by the band's manager.

2 : an arrangement to have something (such as a room) held for your use at a later time [count] Our hotel register shows no booking [=(US more commonly) reservation] for you. ▪ cruise ship bookings [noncount] Advance booking [=(US more commonly) reservation] is required. ▪ booking fees ▪ a booking agent

3 [count] Brit, soccer : the act of officially recording the name of a player who has broken the rules in a game booking office noun, pl ~ - ces [count] Brit : a place in a train station or bus station where people can buy tickets book•ish /ˈbʊkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] sometimes disapproving : more interested in reading books and studying than doing more physical activities (such as sports) ▪ Their teacher was a bookish fellow.

– book•ish•ness noun [noncount] book•keep•er /ˈbʊkˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to keep the financial records for a business

– book•keep•ing /ˈbʊkˌkiːpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He does the bookkeeping. ▪ a bookkeeping error book•let /ˈbʊklət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a book with only a few pages that contains information on one subject ▪ This booklet describes how to set up the DVD player. ▪ The speaker handed out booklets [=pamphlets] on AIDS awareness.

book•mak•er /ˈbʊkˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who decides how likely it is that an event will occur (such as the winning of a race by a particular horse) and receives and pays off bets about it — called also (informal) bookie

– book•mak•ing /ˈbʊkˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

[1]book•mark /ˈbʊkˌmɑək/ noun, pl -marks [count]

1 or book•mark•er /ˈbʊkˌmɑəkə/ : something (such as a piece of paper) that is put in a book to show the place where you stopped reading

2 computers : something (such as a menu entry or icon) that allows you to go quickly and directly to something (such as an Internet site) that you have seen before

[2]bookmark verb -marks; -marked; -mark•ing [+ obj] computers : to create a computer bookmark for (something, such as an Internet site) ▪ I bookmarked the site.

book•mo•bile /ˈbʊkmoʊˌbiːl/ noun, pl -biles [count] US : a large vehicle that contains many library books and that goes to different places so that people can borrow the books — called also (Brit) mobile library book•plate /ˈbʊkˌpleɪt/ noun, pl -plates [count] : a piece of paper stuck on the inside front cover of a book that shows the name of the person who owns the book book•sell•er /ˈbʊkˌselə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that sells books

– book•sell•ing /ˈbʊkˌselɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

book•shelf /ˈbʊkˌʃelf/ noun, pl -shelves [count] : a shelf that is used for books book•shop /ˈbʊkˌʃɑːp/ noun, pl -shops [count] : BOOKSTORE book•stall /ˈbʊkˌstɑːl/ noun, pl -stalls [count] Brit : NEWSSTAND book•store /ˈbʊkˌstoə/ noun, pl -stores [count] chiefly US : a store that sells books

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

book token noun, pl ~ -kens [count] Brit : a card that can be used instead of money to pay for books : a gift certificate for buying books book value noun [noncount] finance : the amount of money that something (such as a car) is officially worth based on its age, style, condition, etc. ▪ I paid $4,100 for the car four years ago, but its book value is now under $500.

book•worm /ˈbʊkˌwɚm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a person who likes to read books and who spends a lot of time reading and studying ▪ She was always a bookworm when she was a kid.

[1]boom /ˈbu:m/ verb booms; boomed; boom•ing

1 a [no obj] : to make a deep and loud sound ▪ the sound of the bass drum booming ▪ His voice boomed out across the congregation. b [+ obj] : to say (something) in a deep and loud voice ▪ She boomed commands from the stern of the ship. ▪ "What's going on here?" he boomed.

2 [no obj] of a business or industry : to grow or expand suddenly ▪ Housing construction has boomed in the past year. ▪ Last year we almost had to close the store, but now business is booming.

[2]boom noun, pl booms [count]

1 : a deep and loud sound or cry ▪ the boom of a gun ▪ thunderous booms ▪ the rhythmic boom of the waves — often used as an interjection to indicate that something has happened suddenly ▪ The dance club was empty and then—boom!—a hundred people were there. — see also SONIC BOOM

2 : a rapid increase in growth or economic success ▪ the population boom ▪ the city's boom years : a rapid growth of business ▪ a boom in tourism = a tourism boom ▪ Housing costs have skyrocketed since the real estate boom. ▪ a boom economy [=an economy experiencing a boom] — see also BABY BOOM, BOOMTOWN

– compare [3]BOOM

[3]boom noun, pl booms [count]

1 : a long pole attached to the bottom of a sailboat's sail

2 : a long pole used to hold a microphone in position from a distance

3 : a floating barrier used on a river, lake, or harbor to catch floating objects, to keep boats from entering, or to prevent an oil spill from spreading ▪ Large booms were brought in to help contain the oil spill.

– compare [2]BOOM

boom box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a large portable radio and often tape deck or CD player with two attached speakers boom box

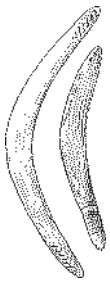
boom•er /ˈbu:mɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born during a period of time when many babies were born : a person born during a baby boom ▪ a television program that is popular among boomers [=baby boomers; people who were born during the baby boom after World War II]

[1]boo•mer•ang /ˈbu:məˌræŋ/ noun, pl -angs [count] : a curved, flat, wooden tool that can be thrown in such a way that it returns to the thrower ✧ Boomerangs were invented in Australia thousands of years ago and were originally used for hunting.



boomerangs

[2]boomerang verb -angs; -anged; -ang•ing [no obj] : to have an effect that is the opposite of the desired or expected effect : BACKFIRE ▪ We thought that bringing the issue up would lessen tension, but that plan boomeranged. [=tension has increased] ▪ His attempt to discredit his opponent boomeranged [=it affected him instead of his opponent] when people began questioning his motives.

boom•ing /ˈbu:mɪŋ/ adj

1 : growing or expanding very quickly ▪ booming car sales ▪ We're not benefiting from the country's booming economy.

2 : loud and low : having a low rumbling sound ▪ Suddenly the children heard Grandpa's booming voice demanding that they get down from the roof.

3 : very forceful or powerful ▪ a tennis player with a booming serve boom•let /ˈbu:mlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a sudden and usually brief increase in business activity : a small boom ▪ A few years ago, the town enjoyed a nice boomlet, but since then times have been tough.

boom•town /ˈbu:mˌtaʊn/ noun, pl -towns [count] : a town that experiences a sudden growth in business and population : a booming town ▪ a former boomtown boon /ˈbu:n/ noun, pl boons [count] : something pleasant or helpful : a benefit or advantage — usually singular ▪ What at first looks like an inconvenience can be a boon. — usually + for or to ▪ The new tax cut is a boon for homeowners. ▪ Reliable daycare is a boon to working parents.

boon companion noun, pl ~ -ions [count] literary : a close friend boon•docks /ˈbu:nˌdɑ:ks/ noun

the boondocks US, informal : an area that is not close to any towns or cities ▪ She grew up in the boondocks so city life came as a real shock to her.

boon•dog•gle /ˈbu:nˌdɑ:gəl/ noun, pl -dog•gles [count] US : an expensive and wasteful project usually paid for with public money ▪ Critics say the dam is a complete boondoggle—over budget, behind schedule, and unnecessary.

boon•ies /ˈbu:niz/ noun

the boonies US, informal : BOONDOCKS ▪ The school is way out in the boonies.

boor /ˈbuɚ/ noun, pl boors [count] : a rude and rough person ▪ I can't invite a boor like him to dinner! He'd offend the other guests.

Do not confuse boor with bore.

– boor•ish /ˈburɪʃ/ adj ▪ boorish [=rude, crude] behavior ▪ a boorish tyrant – boor•ish•ly adv ▪ behaving boorishly – boor•ish•ness noun [noncount]

[1]boost /ˈbu:st/ verb boosts; boost•ed; boost•ing [+ obj]

1 : to increase the force, power, or amount of (something) ▪ The farm has boosted [=increased] wheat production by 25 percent. ▪ boost [=raise] prices ▪ The article discusses a number of ways people can boost [=strengthen] their immune systems. ▪ The company needs to find ways to boost [=improve] morale.

2 : to push or shove (something or someone) up from below ▪ She boosted the boy onto his father's shoulders. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His work on the high-profile lawsuit has boosted him into the political arena.

[2]boost noun, pl boosts [count]

1 : an increase in amount ▪ a boost in wheat production ▪ a boost in sales ▪ Exercise can sometimes provide a boost of energy. ▪ After layoffs at the company, employees needed a boost in morale.

2 : help or encouragement ▪ One company's innovation has proven to be a boost to the entire industry.

3 : a push upward ▪ Give the boy a boost onto the stage, will you?

boost•er /ˈbu:stɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : something that boosts someone or something: such as a : an action or substance that makes something stronger or more effective ▪ These exercises are real metabolism boosters. ▪ The herb is said to be an immune booster. [=something that strengthens a person's immunity to illness] b : something that helps or encourages someone or something ▪ Music is my favorite mood booster. ▪ A sincere compliment can be a true confidence booster. c : BOOSTER SHOT

2 US : someone who supports an idea or organization ▪ The university has a number of wealthy boosters who contribute generously each year. ▪ the football team's boosters

3 : part of a rocket that provides force for the launch and the first part of the flight ▪ a new design for rocket boosters

– see also BOOSTER SEAT

boost•er•ism /ˈbu:stɚˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] US : enthusiastic and usually excessive support for something or someone ▪ Her article asserts that hometown boosterism keeps people from assessing the crime problem accurately. ▪ nationalistic boosterism

booster seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] : a high seat that raises a child to a higher position at a table, in a car, etc. — called also booster chair, (Brit) booster cushion

booster shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] chiefly US : an extra amount of a substance (called a vaccine) that is injected with a needle into a person or animal to help protect against a particular disease ▪ He had to get two booster shots at his latest checkup. ▪ a tetanus booster shot — called also booster

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 57 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

[1]boot /ˈbu:t/ noun, pl boots
1 [count] : a covering usually of leather or rubber for the entire foot and the lower part of the leg ▪ You'll need a pair of warm boots for winter. ▪ It's been snowing, so you'd better wear your boots. ▪ hiking boots [=boots worn for hiking] ▪ riding boots [=boots worn for horseback riding] — see picture at SHOE; see also BOOTED, COWBOY BOOT, HOBNAIL BOOT, SKI BOOT
2 [count] : a forceful kick with the foot ▪ She gave the ball a boot, and it landed on the other side of the field.
3 the boot informal : a sudden dismissal from a job ▪ He got the boot [=got fired] for talking to the press about company secrets. ▪ I heard they gave her the boot. [=they fired her; they told her she could no longer work for them]
4 [count] Brit : the trunk of a car
5 [count] US : DENVER BOOT as tough as old boots see [1]TOUGH lick someone's boots see [1]LICK the boot is on the other foot see [1]FOOT to boot : BESIDES, ALSO ▪ He's smart, funny, and handsome to boot. too big for your boots see [1]BIG to put the boot in Brit, informal 1 : to treat someone in a cruel or critical way 2 : to kick someone again and again – see also BOSSY-BOOTS

[2]boot verb boots; boot•ed; boot•ing
1 [+ obj] : to kick (something) forcefully ▪ She booted the ball across the field.
2 [+ obj] informal a : to force (someone) to leave a place or situation ▪ He left public service after voters booted him from the mayor's office. [=he chose not to work for the government after he was not reelected as mayor] ▪ Any players who start a fight will get booted from the game. — often + out ▪ His wife booted him out. [=his wife made him leave their home] ▪ He got booted out of office in the last election. b : to dismiss (someone) suddenly from a job ▪ She got booted [=fired] in May and has been looking for work ever since.
3 : to start a computer [no obj] The new computer boots much more quickly than the old one did. — often + up ▪ Did you boot up yet? [+ obj] You don't need all these applications to open every time you boot your computer. — often + up ▪ She booted up the computer. — see also REBOOT
4 [+ obj] US : to lock a special device (called a Denver boot) onto one of the wheels of (a car) so that the car cannot be moved ▪ His car was booted (by the police).

boot camp noun, pl ~ camps [count] US
1 : a camp where people who have recently joined the U.S. Army, Navy, or Marine Corps receive their basic training
2 : a short but very difficult training program : a program or situation that helps people become much better at doing something in a short period of time ▪ business boot camp ▪ boot camp for artists boot•ed /ˈbu:təd/ adj : wearing boots ▪ She shoved her booted feet under the table.

bootee chiefly Brit spelling of BOOTIE booth /ˈbu:θ, Brit ˈbu:ð/ noun, pl booths /ˈbu:ðz/ [count]

1 : a partially enclosed area or a small and usually temporary building where things are sold or displayed or services are provided ▪ A local sheep farmer has a booth at the county fair and is selling wool yarn. ▪ We got hot dogs at one of the food booths. ▪ Someone at the information booth [=a booth at which general information about a place or event is provided] will be able to tell you where to find a bathroom.
2 a : a small area that is enclosed in order to provide privacy for one person ▪ a voting booth — see also PHONE BOOTH, PHOTO BOOTH, POLLING BOOTH b : an enclosed area for some kinds of workers that provides shelter and keeps them separated from the public ▪ a ticket booth ▪ Traffic slowed as we approached the toll booth. [=a booth at which drivers pay a fee for using a particular road or bridge] ▪ Our seats at the baseball game were next to the broadcast booth. [=a booth from which a radio broadcast is made]
3 chiefly US : a table in a restaurant between benches with high backs ▪ They sat at/in a booth next to the window.

boo•tie or chiefly Brit boo•tee /ˈbu:ti/ noun, pl boo•ties or boo•tees [count]
1 : a short and thick sock for a baby
2 : a sock, slipper, or boot that covers the foot and ankle
3 : [2]BOOTY

[1]boot•leg /ˈbu:tˌlɛg/ verb -legs; -legged; -leg•ging [+ obj]
1 : to illegally copy (a video, CD, etc.) or illegally record (a live performance) ▪ He bootlegged the show and gave copies to several friends. ▪ bootleg a DVD ▪ a bootlegged [=pirated] version of the movie
2 : to make or sell (alcoholic liquor) illegally ▪ bootlegging moonshine – boot•leg•ger noun, pl -gers [count] ▪ a famous bootlegger during the Prohibition period

[2]bootleg noun, pl -legs
1 [count] : an illegal copy of a video, CD, etc., or an illegal recording of a live performance ▪ She was arrested for selling bootlegs online. — often used before another noun ▪ a bootleg album/DVD ▪ selling bootleg copies of the concert
2 [noncount] : alcohol that is made or sold illegally — usually used before another noun ▪ bootleg whiskey/bourbon boot•lick•er /ˈbu:tˌlɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal + disapproving : a person who praises, helps, or obeys someone in order to gain favors or advantages — see also lick someone's boots at [1]LICK – boot•lick•ing /ˈbu:tˌlɪkɪŋ/ adj ▪ a bootlicking politician

– bootlicking noun [noncount] ▪ His bootlicking [=brown-nosing] disgusts me.

boot•straps /ˈbu:tˌstræps/ noun
by your own bootstraps : without help from other people : as a result of your own hard work ▪ Despite many obstacles, she has pulled herself up by her own bootstraps.

[1]boo•ty /ˈbu:ti/ noun [noncount]
1 : money or goods stolen or taken in war ▪ war booty [=loot, plunder, spoils]
2 : a valuable gain or prize ▪ His booty from the auction included several rare antiques.
– compare [2]BOOTY

[2]booty also boo•tie /ˈbu:ti/ noun, pl boo•ties [count] US slang : BUTTOCKS ▪ She was shaking her booty. — compare [1]BOOTY

[1]booze /ˈbu:z/ noun [noncount] informal : alcoholic drinks ▪ We bought some chips and booze for the party.

[2]booze verb booz•es; boozed; booz•ing informal : to drink a lot of alcohol [no obj] He was out boozing with his friends. [+ obj] They boozed it up [=got drunk] the night before the wedding.

booz•er /ˈbu:zə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal
1 : a person who drinks a lot of alcohol ▪ an unapologetic boozer
2 Brit : PUB ▪ They went into the boozer for a beer.

[1]bop /ˈbɑ:p/ verb bops; bopped; bop•ping [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) especially in a playful way ▪ She bopped him on the head. — compare [4]BOP

[2]bop noun, pl bops [count] : a hit that is not very forceful ▪ She gave him a playful bop on the head. — compare [3]BOP

[3]bop noun, pl bops
1 [noncount] : a kind of jazz that uses complex melodies and harmonies and that often has a very quick tempo — called also bebop
2 [count] Brit, informal : DANCE ▪ Are you up for a bop? [=would you like to dance?] They're playing my favorite song.
– compare [2]BOP

[4]bop verb bops; bopped; bopping [no obj] informal
1 : to go for only a short time ▪ She'll be back in a few minutes. She just bopped [=popped] over to the store.
2 US : to walk or move like a person who is dancing to lively music ▪ He was bopping down the street.
3 Brit, informal : to dance to popular music ▪ I think we're going to go bopping tonight. Would you like to join us?
– compare [1]BOP

bor•age /ˈbɔrɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : a type of European plant that has blue flowers and hairy leaves ✧ The leaves of this plant are used as medicine and in salads.

bo•rax /ˈbɔəˌræks/ noun [noncount] : a mineral that is used especially for cleaning things

Bor•deaux /bɔəˈdoʊ/ noun, pl Bordeaux [count, noncount] : a red or white wine from the Bordeaux region of France

bor•del•lo /bɔəˈdɛloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count] somewhat literary : a building in which prostitutes are available : BROTHEL

[1]bor•der /ˈbɔədə/ noun, pl -ders
1 a [count] : a line separating one country or state from another ▪ the border between Poland and Slovenia ▪ He grew up in Malaysia, near the Indonesian border. ▪ the border of Pennsylvania ▪ the Florida–Georgia border ▪ the contested northern border — often used before another noun ▪ border guards ▪ a border dispute ▪ border crossings b [count] : a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 105 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

boundary between places ▪ They live just beyond the western border of the park. ▪ the border of the Sahara c *the border : a specific border ▪ They've lived in southern Texas for years, but have never been south of the border. [=the U.S. border with Mexico] ▪ She's from northern Montana, near the border. [=the U.S. border with Canada] ▪ We crossed the border (into France) at Gavarnie.

2 [count] : a decorative design along the edge of something (such as a rug or wallpaper) ▪ The quilt is quite plain except for its colorful border. ▪ a broad red border on each plate ▪ the photograph's white border

3 [count] : a narrow bed of plants along the edge of a garden or walk ▪ He planted pansies in the border. ▪ border plants

²border verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj]

1 : to be next to (a country, state, or area) : to share a border with (a country, state, or area) ▪ Slovenia borders Poland. ▪ Their property borders the park.

2 : to form a border of (something) : to define the edge of (something) ▪ Tall trees border the avenue. ▪ Two rivers border the city. — usually used as (be) bordered ▪ The neighborhood is bordered by Main Street on the north and the river on the south. ▪ streets bordered by oak trees

3 : to put a border on (something) — usually used as (be) bordered ▪ The scarf is bordered with gold stitching.

border on [phrasal verb] border on (something) 1 : to have a border on (something) : to lie on a boundary of (something) ▪ The area my ancestors come from borders on the Atacama Desert. 2 : to be very like (something) : to come very close to being (something) ▪ The play's dialog borders on [=verges on] the ridiculous. ▪ an enthusiasm bordering on fanaticism bor•der•land /ˈbɔɚdɚˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count]

1 : the land on either side of a border between countries ▪ the Slovenian-Polish borderlands ▪ a borderland province [=a province that is in a borderland]

2 : an unclear state or condition that is between two things and is like each of them in some ways ▪ in the borderland between sleeping and waking ▪ He describes adolescence as the tumultuous borderlands between childhood and adulthood.

¹bor•der•line /ˈbɔɚdɚˌlaɪn/ adj

1 : having some but not all characteristics of something ▪ In borderline cases like these, the best course of action is difficult to determine. ▪ Two candidates for the job seem very good, and three others are borderline. [=three may or may not be suitable for the job]

2 : not quite as severe as what is usual or expected ▪ As a borderline diabetic, Lara is able to control her blood sugar levels solely through diet. ▪ borderline alcoholics

3 : existing at or near a border ▪ a borderline town

²borderline noun, pl -lines [count] : the point at which one thing changes to another thing : the point between two different things ▪ New technology in hearing aids makes the borderline [=distinction] between the deaf and hearing worlds less clear. ▪ the borderline between fact and fiction

³borderline adv : almost or nearly ▪ The movie is only borderline funny. ▪ She was borderline suicidal.

¹bore /ˈbɔɚ/ verb bores; bored; boring [+ obj] : to make (someone) tired and annoyed by being uninteresting or too much the same ▪ He was bored by the lecture. = The lecture bored him. ▪ Good writers will avoid boring their readers at any cost. ▪ Eventually she got bored with the party and left. ✧ Someone or something that bores you stiff or bores you to death or bores you to tears is extremely boring. ▪ I was bored stiff during the movie. ▪ I was bored to death the whole time he was talking. ▪ He bores us all to tears by telling the same stories over and over again. — compare ³BORE – bored adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a few bored teenagers ▪ I've never been so bored.

²bore noun, pl bores [count] : an uninteresting person or thing : a person or thing that makes people feel tired and annoyed ▪ They're a bunch of bores! ▪ The lecture was a total bore. — compare ⁴BORE, ⁵BORE

Do not confuse bore with boor.

³bore verb bores; bored; bor•ing

1 : to make (a hole, tunnel, etc.) in something with a tool or by digging [+ obj] My drill isn't powerful enough to bore a hole through that post. ▪ She designs machines that are used to bore tunnels. [no obj] Along the trunk of the tree are holes where insects have bored into the tree. ▪ boring deep into the earth — often used figuratively ▪ The teacher's eyes bored into me. [=the teacher stared at me]

2 [no obj] : to move forward steadily ▪ We bored through the crowd and finally got to the gate.

– compare ¹BORE

⁴bore noun, pl bores [count]

1 : a hole made by boring — called also borehole

2 a : the space inside a gun barrel that is shaped like a tube b : the width of the inside part of a gun barrel ▪ a .22 bore revolver

– compare ²BORE, ⁵BORE

⁵bore noun, pl bores [count] : a giant wave that rushes into a river or bay ▪ a tidal bore — compare ²BORE, ⁴BORE

⁶bore past tense of ²BEAR

bore•dom /ˈbɔɚdəm/ noun [noncount] : the state of being bored ▪ On days when few customers came to shop, Bob felt overwhelmed by boredom. ▪ the boredom of a long car trip bore•hole /ˈbɔɚˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : ⁴BORE 1; especially : a hole dug into the earth in order to find water or oil

bor•er /ˈbɔrɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an insect that digs holes in the woody parts of plants bor•ing /ˈbɔrɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : dull and uninteresting : causing boredom ▪ a boring job/routine ▪ I find her books totally boring.

born /ˈbɔɚn/ adj

1 not used before a noun : brought into life by the process of birth ▪ She was born in a hospital. ▪ He was born on a farm. ▪ She was born in Nigeria in 1911. ▪ The baby was born on July 31st. ▪ Their second son was born prematurely. — see also FIRSTBORN, NEWBORN

2 : having certain qualities or characteristics from the time of birth ▪ born blind/deaf ▪ Both twins were born healthy. ▪ The author Mark Twain was born Samuel Clemens. [=was named Samuel Clemens at birth] ▪ She's a born teacher/leader. [=she was born with the qualities that make someone a teacher/leader] ✧ If you were born to do something or born to be something, you have natural qualities or talents that make you perfectly suited to do or be something. ▪ She was born to teach. = She was born to be a teacher.

3 not used before a noun — used to describe the place where someone was born ▪ He's American born. [=he was born in America] ▪ He's Mexican born and bred. = He was born and bred in Mexico. [=his birth and childhood took place in Mexico] — often used in combination ▪ Maine-born

4 not used before a noun — used to describe the social conditions or situations that exist when people are born ▪ Some are born in slavery, others born merely poor. ▪ She was born to riches/wealth. = She was born into a rich/wealthy family. — see also HIGHBORN

5 not used before a noun : brought into existence ▪ Her dream of owning farm was born when she visited the countryside as a child. ▪ The wine is born [=created] from the union of two very different grapes. ▪ a mentality born in the age of computers ▪ Their relationship was born of necessity [=established because it was necessary in some way], but it has developed into a true and lasting friendship. ▪ Church leaders assert that the recent unrest in the city is born out of [=has occurred because of] years of neglect of the city's poor neighborhoods.

born too late ✧ Someone who is said to be born too late seems to be better suited for life in an earlier time period. ▪ John prefers early jazz music over the modern stuff. I guess he was born too late.

born with a silver spoon in your mouth ✧ If you were born with a silver spoon in your mouth, you were born into a very wealthy family.

in all your born days informal + somewhat old-fashioned : in your entire life — used to express how unexpected or unusual something is ▪ I never saw anything like it in all my born days.

there's one born every minute or there's a sucker born every minute informal — used to say that there are many people in the world who are foolish and can be easily deceived to the manner born see MANNER to the manor born see MANOR wasn't born yesterday ✧ Someone who wasn't born yesterday is unlikely to believe something that is not true or to trust someone who is not trustworthy. ▪ He said he'd pay me back, but I'll believe it when I see it. I wasn't born yesterday.

born–again /ˌbɔɚnəˈgɛn/ adj

1 : having a new or stronger belief in the Christian religion ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

The born-again actor often talks about his faith during interviews. ▪ She's born-again now. ▪ a born-again Christian
2 : newly interested in and enthusiastic about something and eager to make other people think the way you do ▪ a born-again fitness buff

[1]borne past participle of [2]BEAR

[2]borne /ˈboən/ adj : carried by : spread by — used in combination ▪ water*borne* ▪ It's an air*borne* virus.

bor•ough /ˈbərou/ noun, pl -oughs [count]
1 : a village, town, or part of a large city that has its own government ✧ Boroughs are found in a number of English-speaking countries. They are much more common in Great Britain than in the U.S. ▪ the London borough of Brent
2 : one of the five main sections of New York City ▪ the borough of Brooklyn

bor•row /ˈbɑrou/ verb -rows; -rowed; -row•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to take and use (something that belongs to someone else) for a period of time before returning it ▪ Can I borrow your camera? [=will you lend me your camera] ▪ The twins often borrow each other's clothes. ▪ I'm borrowing a friend's car for the weekend. ▪ He borrowed the book from the library. b : to take and use up (something) with the promise to give back something of equal value ▪ Will you see if we can borrow a cup of sugar from the neighbors? ▪ She borrowed $20 from me. ✧ When people borrow money from a bank they pay back the same amount over a number of months or years plus an added amount that is called interest. ▪ He borrowed money from the bank to buy the car.
2 : to use (an idea, saying, etc.) that was thought up by someone else [+ obj] The speech was peppered with phrases borrowed from Winston Churchill. ▪ She borrowed the technique from local artisans. ▪ The company is borrowing a page from [=using a technique or idea first used by] its largest competitor. [no obj] He borrows heavily [=includes many ideas] from other philosophers in the book.
3 [+ obj] : to use (a word or phrase from another language) in a language ▪ The English word "entrepreneur" was borrowed from (the) French.
4 [+ obj] in subtracting from a number with two or more digits : to take 1 from a digit and add it as 10 to the digit in the next lower place beg, borrow, or/and steal see BEG be living on borrowed time : to continue to be alive after you were expected to die ▪ After his heart attack, my grandfather always felt that he was living on borrowed time.
– bor•row•er /ˈbɑrəwə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Each borrower's payments will vary according to the terms of the loan. ▪ the library's borrowers [=people who borrow books from the library]

bor•row•ing /ˈbɑrəwɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : something that is borrowed; especially : a word or phrase from one language that is used in another language ▪ He's compiling a list of Japanese borrowings in English.
2 [noncount] : the act of borrowing something ▪ Students must have their own pencils. Borrowing is not allowed.; especially : the act of borrowing money ▪ Economists predict that there will be increases in government borrowing.

borscht /ˈboəʃt/ noun [noncount] : a soup made mainly of beets

Bor•stal /ˈboəstl/ noun, pl -stals Brit : a special prison used for people who are too young to go to a regular prison [noncount] She was sent to Borstal for stealing cars. [count] He spent a year in a Borstal. ✧ The Borstal system is no longer in use.

bosh /ˈbɑːʃ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal + old-fashioned : foolish words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ Don't believe a word she says—it's all bosh. — often used like an interjection ▪ Bosh! That's absurd!

[1]bos•om /ˈbuzəm/ noun, pl -oms
1 [count] a : a person's chest ▪ He clutched the flowers to his bosom. b : a person's chest when it is thought of as the place where secret thoughts and feelings are kept ▪ He never spoke of his childhood as an orphan, but kept dark memories of those days in his bosom.
2 [count] somewhat old-fashioned a : a woman's breasts ▪ her large bosom b : one of a woman's breasts ▪ a woman's bosoms
3 [singular] : the part of a piece of clothing that covers the chest ▪ The shirt has a plain color and ruffles at the bosom.
4 [singular] : a safe and comfortable place or situation — usually + of ▪ the bosom of your family ▪ She found comfort in the bosom of the Church.

[2]bosom adj, always used before a noun : very close : very dear ▪ They are bosom friends/buddies.

bos•omy /ˈbuzəmi/ adj, informal : having large breasts ▪ a bosomy waitress

[1]boss /ˈbɑːs/ noun, pl boss•es [count]
1 : the person whose job is to tell other workers what to do ▪ Why don't you ask your boss for a raise? ▪ Company policy says that vacation time must be cleared with your boss. [=supervisor] ▪ my former boss ▪ Jane started her own business so that she could be her own boss. [=have no boss except for herself] — see also PIT BOSS
2 : a person who has a lot of power in an organization ▪ a union boss ▪ mafia bosses ▪ the movie studio boss ▪ During the campaign, no one was willing to stand up to the party boss. [=the person with the most power in a political party or one branch of a political party]
3 : the person who has more power or control in a relationship ▪ The two oldest children argued over who was boss for the entire hour their mother was out shopping. ▪ He wants to show them who's (the) boss. [=who's in charge]
– compare [4]BOSS

[2]boss verb bosses; bossed; boss•ing [+ obj] : to give orders to (someone) : to tell (someone) what to do — usually + around or (Brit) about ▪ I wish he wouldn't let his father boss him around like that. ▪ Don't boss me around!

[3]boss adj, slang : great or excellent ▪ a boss new rock band

[4]boss noun, pl bosses [count] : a round raised decoration on a ceiling or shield — compare [1]BOSS

bos•sa no•va /ˌbɑːsəˈnoʊvə/ noun, pl ~ -vas
1 [noncount] : a kind of music that is originally from Brazil
2 [count] : a dance performed to bossa nova music

bossy /ˈbɑːsi/ adj boss•i•er; -est informal : tending too often to tell people what to do : often giving orders in a way that people do not like ▪ His advice may be good, but he's much too bossy.
– boss•i•ness noun [noncount]

bossy–boots /ˈbɑːsiˌbuːts/ noun, pl bossy–boots [count] Brit, informal : a person who often tells other people what to do : a bossy person ▪ Her mum is a real bossy-boots. — often used before another noun ▪ her bossy-boots mum

Bos•ton cream pie /ˈbɑːstən-/ noun, pl ~ pies [count] US : a round cake that is filled with a custard or cream filling and usually frosted with chocolate

Boston lettuce noun [noncount] US : a kind of soft lettuce that is often used in salads

bosun variant spelling of BOATSWAIN

bo•tan•i•cal /bəˈtænɪkəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to plants or the study of plants ▪ botanical specimens
2 : made from or taken from plants ▪ botanical extracts
– bo•tan•i•cal•ly /bəˈtænɪkli/ adv

botanical garden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] : a large usually public garden where plants are grown in order to be studied — called also bo•tan•ic garden /bəˈtænɪk-/ bot•a•ny /ˈbɑːtəni/ noun [noncount] : a branch of science that deals with plant life ▪ She's studying botany. — often used before another noun ▪ the university's botany department ▪ She is taking a botany class.

– bot•a•nist /ˈbɑːtənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

[1]botch /ˈbɑːʧ/ verb botch•es; botched; botch•ing [+ obj] : to do (something) badly : to ruin (something) because of carelessness or a lack of skill ▪ The store botched the order—I received only half the books I paid for. ▪ They clearly botched the investigation. ▪ a botched robbery/experiment — sometimes + up ▪ He really botched up [=messed up] the speech.

[2]botch noun, pl botches [count] : a bad job : a poorly done piece of work ▪ a botch job ▪ The plumbers made a botch of the pipes. [=the plumbers did a poor job with the pipes]

[1]both /ˈboʊθ/ adj — used to indicate that two things or people are being referred to rather than just one ▪ She put both feet in the stream. ▪ Both countries have agreed to the treaty. ▪ We went to both museums. ▪ I found both these articles to be very helpful. ▪ both his eyes ▪ Both actors have appeared on Broadway before.

[2]both pronoun : each one of two things or people ▪ I'd like both, please. ▪ There were two paintings for sale, and he bought (them) both. ▪ We both were tired. = We were both tired. = Both of us were tired. ▪ Arabic and French are both spoken there. ▪ He read both of the books. [=he read both books]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 92 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

[3]both conj — used before two words or phrases connected with and to stress that each is included ▪ The show will be in both New York and London. ▪ She is both beautiful and charming. ▪ Both he and his wife play golf. ▪ This product can both clean and protect your floors.

[1]both•er /ˈbɑːðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing

1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel troubled, worried, or concerned ▪ He's so easygoing. Nothing seems to bother him. ▪ It didn't bother [=trouble] her in the least that she wasn't offered the job. ▪ It bothers [=worries] them that there's no hospital nearby. ▪ Something he said at the meeting has been bothering me. ✧ To not bother yourself about/with something or not bother your head about/with something is to not worry or be concerned about something. ▪ He decided he wasn't going to bother himself about the opinions of others. ▪ Don't bother your head with those questions right now.

2 [+ obj] : to annoy (someone) : to cause (someone) to feel annoyed ▪ It bothers [=irks] her when people throw trash on the ground. ▪ He's bothered [=annoyed] by drivers who don't use their turn signals. ▪ The entire car trip was filled with complaints like, "Mom, David keeps bothering me!" and "Will you tell him to quit bothering me?"

3 [no obj] a : to take the time to do something : to make an effort to do something ▪ Mother used to cook elaborate dinners, but with only herself to cook for, she doesn't bother anymore. ▪ "Should I call later?" "No, don't bother." — often followed by to + verb or by -ing verb ▪ Nobody bothered [=took the trouble] to tell me the school would be closed today. ▪ He never bothered to explain what happened. ▪ Don't bother asking him about it. He won't tell you anything. ▪ Why bother talking if no one is listening? ✧ If you can't be bothered to do something, you do not want to make an effort to do it or are not interested in doing it. ▪ The trick is somewhat dangerous, so if you can't be bothered to do it right, then don't even attempt it. ▪ I asked her to send a picture, but apparently she just couldn't be bothered (to send one). b : to be concerned with or about something ▪ I'm not going to bother with the details. ▪ We were told not to bother about the early data [=not to consider or use early data] when writing the report.

4 [+ obj] : to interrupt or talk to (someone who is working or who wants to be alone) ▪ Don't bother your mother right now. She's very tired. ▪ I hate to bother [=trouble] you, but I was wondering if you could help me with something. ▪ Sorry to bother [=inconvenience] you. I just had a quick question.

5 [+ obj] a : to make (someone) feel sick or uncomfortable ▪ He said his stomach was bothering him. ▪ Her arthritis has been bothering her. b : to cause a painful or unpleasant feeling in (part of someone's body) ▪ The camera strap bothers my shoulder. ▪ The bright light bothered her eyes.

6 chiefly Brit, somewhat old-fashioned — used as an interjection to express annoyance or frustration ▪ Bother this car! It won't start! ▪ Oh, bother (it). I forgot my keys.

[2]bother noun

1 [singular] : someone or something that is annoying or that causes trouble ▪ Replacing the windows could be more of a bother than it's worth. ▪ Sorry to be such a bother [=nuisance], but I was wondering if you could help me with something. ▪ I know what a bother driving into the city can be this time of day.

2 [noncount] : trouble or difficulty : INCONVENIENCE ▪ "Sorry to bother you." "That's okay, it's no bother at all." ▪ I considered replacing that part of the floor but decided it wasn't worth the bother. ▪ He doesn't want the bother of filling out all those forms again. ▪ Will you mail this for me? It will save me the bother of going to the post office.

both•er•ation /ˌbɑːðəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] old-fashioned : something that is annoying : something that bothers you ▪ I hadn't realized what a botheration putting up a tent in the dark could be! — sometimes used as an interjection ▪ Oh botheration. The radio isn't working again.

both•er•some /ˈbɑːðəsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing trouble or difficulty ▪ The injury isn't too bad. It's more bothersome [=troublesome] than painful.

[1]bot•tle /ˈbɑːtl/ noun, pl bot•tles

1 [count] a : a glass or plastic container that has a narrow neck and usually has no handle ✧ Bottles are usually used to store liquid or tablets. ▪ Shall I open another bottle of wine? ▪ There's a bottle of aspirin in the cabinet. ▪ empty soda bottles ▪ She kept a bottle [=a bottle of some strong alcoholic drink like whiskey] tucked away in the coat closet. ▪ Be sure to bring a water bottle [=bottle containing water] on your hike. ▪ Would you get me the bottle opener [=a tool used to remove metal tops from some bottles], please? b : the amount contained in a bottle ▪ We drank a bottle of wine.

2 the bottle : alcoholic drink ▪ He says he's lost too many years to the bottle, and that he's giving up alcohol. ▪ Her struggles with the bottle affected her entire family. ▪ I hear he's (gone) off the bottle. [=stopped drinking alcohol] ▪ After his divorce he took to the bottle. [=began to drink a lot of alcohol] ▪ When she gets depressed she hits the bottle. [=begins drinking a lot of alcohol]

3 [count] : a special bottle for feeding babies that contains milk or a drink which contains milk ▪ Has the baby finished her bottle yet? ▪ (US) a baby bottle = (Brit) a baby's bottle ▪ raised on a bottle instead of breast milk — see also BOTTLE-FEED

4 [noncount] Brit slang : courage or strength of spirit ▪ I don't think he's got bottle [=guts] enough to confront them.

bring your own bottle (US) or Brit bring a bottle — used to tell the people who are invited to a party that they should bring their own alcoholic drinks

catch/capture lightning in a bottle see [1]LIGHTNING

– bot•tle•ful /ˈbɑːtlˌfʊl/ noun [singular] ▪ a bottleful of water

[2]bottle verb bottles; bot•tled; bot•tling [+ obj]

1 : to put (something) into a bottle so that it can be sold or so that it is easier to use ▪ The restaurant bottles its own ginger ale. ▪ Near the top of the mountain, the climbers relied on bottled oxygen to breathe. ▪ bottled water ▪ bottled gas [=gas that is stored in containers for people to use in heating their homes or for cooking]

2 Brit : to put (fruit or vegetables) in a jar using a special procedure that preserves them ▪ At the end of summer we bottle [=(US) can, preserve, put up] tomatoes from the garden.

bottle out [phrasal verb] Brit slang : to become too afraid to do something : to lose your nerve ▪ I was going to ask him but then I bottled out. [=chickened out] bottle up [phrasal verb] bottle (something) up or bottle up (something) : to keep (a feeling or emotion) inside of you instead of expressing it : to hide (a feeling or emotion) ▪ She's kept her feelings about the accident bottled up for too long. ▪ I know he's angry, but he bottles it up inside instead of talking to someone about it.

– bot•tler noun, pl bot•tlers [count] ▪ soft drink bottlers ▪ the region's best known wine bottler

bottle bank noun, pl ~ banks [count] Brit : a large container that people put empty bottles in so that the glass or plastic the bottles are made from can be used again bottle blond noun, pl ~ blonds [count] : a person whose hair has been made blond by using chemicals

bot•tle–feed /ˈbɑːtlˌfiːd/ verb -feeds; -fed; -feed•ing [+ obj] : to feed (a baby or young animal) with a bottle instead of from its mother's breast ▪ All her children were bottle-fed. ▪ We had to bottle-feed the kitten. — compare BREAST-FEED bottle green noun [noncount] : a green color ✧ In the U.S., bottle green is usually a medium green color. In British English, it is usually a dark green color.

– bottle–green adj

bot•tle•neck /ˈbɑːtlˌnɛk/ noun, pl -necks [count]

1 : a section of road or highway where the traffic moves very slowly ▪ Bridge construction has created a bottleneck on the southern part of Main Street.

2 : something that slows down a process ▪ All decisions must be approved by the committee, and this is where the company runs into bottlenecks.

bot•tle•nose dolphin /ˈbɑːtlˌnoʊz-/ noun, pl ~ -phins [count] : a small gray whale that has a long nose — called also bottle-nosed dolphin

[1]bot•tom /ˈbɑːtəm/ noun, pl -toms

1 a [count] : the lowest part, point, or level of something — usually singular ▪ He's waiting at the bottom of the stairs. ▪ Our house is at the bottom of the hill. ▪ The top of the wall is painted and the bottom is covered in wood paneling. ▪ the bottom of the page/screen/list ▪ Please fill out this form and sign your name at the bottom. b [count] : the part of something that is below or under the other parts — usually singular ▪ the ship's bottom [=underside] ▪ The bowl was signed on the bottom [=base] by the artist. ▪ There's a small cut on the bottom [=sole] of his foot. c [count] : the lowest point or surface inside something : the part of something hollow that is furthest from the top — usually singular ▪ I think there is still a little sugar left in the bottom of the box/container. ▪ The pool is so deep I could not touch the bottom. ▪ One of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 116 OUTPUT: Mon Jul 21 10:45:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

the drawers has a false bottom. [=a panel that looks like the drawer's bottom but that can be removed to expose more space] d [singular] chiefly Brit : the part of something that is furthest away ▪ We sailed to the bottom of the bay. ▪ the bottom of the garden

2 [count] : the part of the body on which you sit : BUTTOCKS ▪ The poor baby has a rash all over his little bottom.

3 a [singular] : a position of little power in a company or organization ▪ The company's new CEO started at the bottom and worked her way up. b [singular] : a low rank or position ▪ Why do I always find myself rooting for the team at the bottom of the league? ▪ She graduated at the bottom of her/the class. [=her grades were among the lowest in her graduating class] c [noncount] : the worst position, level, or condition ▪ at the bottom of the pay scale ▪ After weeks of losing value, the company's stocks have hit bottom. [=reached the bottom; lost all value] ▪ Jim has finally scraped bottom. [=has finally reached the worst possible condition] — see also ROCK BOTTOM

4 a [singular] : the surface that is under a body of water ▪ the bottom of the ocean ▪ the sandy river/lake bottom b bottoms [plural] : the flat, low land along a river or stream : BOTTOMLAND ▪ grazing in grassy river bottoms

5 [count] : a piece of clothing that is worn on the lower part of the body ▪ a bikini bottom — often plural ▪ pajama bottoms — see color picture on page C13

6 [singular] : the second half of an inning in baseball ▪ They tied the score in the bottom of the ninth inning.

7 [noncount] chiefly Brit : the lowest gear of a car ▪ Stay in bottom [=bottom gear] until you reach the top of the hill.

at bottom chiefly Brit : in reality : REALLY ▪ The song is, at bottom [=in truth], a lullaby. ▪ He is very shy, at bottom.

at the bottom of the pile see [1]PILE

be/lie at the bottom of chiefly Brit : to be the source or originator of (something) ▪ I think I know who's at the bottom of [=behind] these pranks.

bottoms up informal — used as a toast or to tell people to finish their drinks ▪ Here's to the groom-to-be! Bottoms up!

from the bottom of your heart see HEART

from top to bottom see [1]TOP

get to the bottom of : to find out the true reason for or cause of (something) ▪ Police are working furiously to get to the bottom of this recent string of violent crimes.

the bottom drop/fall out ✧ If the bottom drops/falls out of something, it suddenly fails or becomes unable to continue in a normal and effective way. ▪ Analysts warn that recent changes in the region may result in the bottom dropping out of the oil market. [=may cause the oil market to collapse] ▪ When the accident happened, she felt the bottom drop out of her world. [=she felt her world collapse]

the bottom of the barrel : the lowest possible condition, level, etc. ▪ After the divorce, Tim felt he had reached/hit the bottom of the barrel. ▪ The excessive coverage of the scandal signals that the news media may have finally hit/reached the bottom of the barrel. ▪ Salaries in the industry are scraping/hitting the bottom of the barrel. [=salaries in the industry are very low]

– bot•tomed /ˈbɑːtəmd/ adj ▪ flat bottomed boats

[2]bottom adj, always used before a noun

1 : in the lowest position ▪ the bottom rung of the ladder ▪ the bottom drawer/shelf ▪ her bottom lip ▪ Somebody's fingerprints are all along the bottom edge of the photograph. — see also BOTTOM LINE

2 : living at the lowest level of an ocean or lake ▪ bottom fish bet your bottom dollar see [2]BET

[3]bottom verb -toms; -tomed; -tom•ing

bottom out [phrasal verb] : to reach a lowest or worst point usually before beginning to rise or improve ▪ Real estate prices seem to have bottomed out, and sellers can expect to get higher prices in coming months. ▪ The team bottomed out in last place.

bottom drawer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : HOPE CHEST bottom feeder noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

1 : a fish that feeds at the bottom of a lake, pond, etc.

2 US, disapproving : someone who uses other people's troubles, weakness, etc., as an opportunity to make money ▪ After his daughter's tragic death, he was hounded by media bottom feeders who demanded exclusive interviews.

3 US, informal : someone or something that has a very low status or rank ▪ In a surprise upset, the all-star team lost to one of the league's bottom feeders.

bottom gear noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : low gear : a vehicle's lowest gear bot•tom•land /ˈbɑːtəmˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : flat low land along a river or stream — usually plural ▪ lush bottomlands

bot•tom•less /ˈbɑːtəmləs/ adj

1 a : having no bottom ▪ a bottomless barrel [=a barrel that has no bottom because it has been removed] b : seeming to have no bottom or limit ▪ a bottomless expense account ▪ The diner serves bottomless cups of coffee. [=allows customers to have as much coffee as they like for one price]

2 : very deep ▪ a bottomless pit

bottom line noun

1 the bottom line a : the most important part of something : the most important thing to consider ▪ The bottom line [=all that matters] is that the product just wasn't practical. ▪ If our flight is late, we will miss our connection. That's the bottom line. b : the final result or outcome ▪ A student with special needs can stress a school's budget, but the bottom line is that the state must provide for the child's education.

2 [singular] : a company's profits or losses ▪ How will these changes affect our bottom line? ▪ He's always got his eye on the bottom line.

3 [singular] : the least amount of money you are willing to consider for something ▪ He says his bottom line is $120,000.

bot•tom–up /ˈbɑːtəmˈʌp/ adj : progressing upward from the lowest levels : controlled or directed from the lower levels ▪ bottom-up management — opposite TOP-DOWN

bot•u•lism /ˈbɑːʧəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a serious illness that is caused by eating food that has not been preserved correctly and that is filled with bacteria bou•doir /ˈbuːˌdwɑə/ noun, pl -doirs [count] old-fashioned : a woman's bedroom or private room for dressing or resting bouf•fant /buˈfɑːnt, Brit ˈbuːˌfɒŋ/ adj : having a full and rounded shape ▪ a bouffant skirt — usually used to refer to a hairstyle in which the hair is up and away from the head in a full, rounded shape ▪ bouffant hairdos from the 1950s bou•gain•vil•lea /ˌbuːgənˈvɪljə/ noun, pl -leas [count, noncount] : a tropical plant that has usually red or purple flowers bough /ˈbaʊ/ noun, pl boughs [count] : a main branch of a tree bought past tense and past participle of [1]BUY

bouil•la•baisse /ˌbuːjəˈbeɪs/ noun

1 [count, noncount] : a stew made with strong spices and two or more kinds of fish

2 [singular] : a mixture of different kinds of things ▪ The book is a bouillabaisse [=(more commonly) potpourri] of stories and poems from around the world.

bouil•lon /ˈbuːlˌjɑːn, Brit ˈbuːˌjɒn/ noun, pl bouillons [count, noncount] : a clear liquid in which meat, chicken, fish, or vegetables have been cooked and which is eaten as soup or used to make sauces ▪ beef bouillon

Do not confuse bouillon with bullion.

bouillon cube noun, pl ~ cubes [count] : a small cube of dried meat or vegetables that is used to add flavor to soup — called also (Brit) stock cube

boul•der /ˈboʊldə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a very large stone or rounded piece of rock bou•le•vard /ˈbʊləˌvɑəd/ noun, pl -vards [count] : a wide and usually important street that often has trees, grass, or flowers planted down its center or along its sides ▪ walking down the boulevard — often used in names ▪ Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles — abbr. blvd.

[1]bounce /ˈbaʊns/ verb bounc•es; bounced; bounc•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (a ball, rock, etc.) to hit against a surface and quickly move in a different and usually opposite direction ▪ He was bouncing a tennis ball against/off the garage door. ▪ bouncing the ball back and forth b [no obj] : to move in one direction, hit a surface (such as a wall or the floor), and then quickly move in a different and usually opposite direction — usually + off ▪ The ball bounced off the wall. ▪ A rock bounced off the road and hit our car's windshield. ▪ The light will bounce off the mirror and shine into the next room.

2 a [no obj] : to move with a lot of energy and excitement ▪ He bounced [=bounded] into the room to welcome his guests. ▪ The kids are bouncing off the walls. [=the kids are very/too excited and have a lot of energy] b : to move or jump up and down [no obj] The children love to bounce on the bed/trampoline. ▪ The winner bounced up and down with delight.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

▪ Her curls bounced as she jumped. [+ obj] He bounced the baby on his knee.

3 a [no obj] of a check : to be returned by a bank because there is not enough money in the bank account to pay the amount that is on the check ▪ She gave me a check for 20 dollars, but the check bounced, and I never got the money. b [+ obj] : to write (a check) that is returned without payment by the bank ▪ He bounced a 100-dollar check at the grocery store. ▪ The store charges a $15 fee for a bounced check.

4 [no obj] : to go quickly and repeatedly from one job, place, etc., to another ▪ He bounces back and forth between Miami and Houston. — often + from ▪ bouncing from place to place ▪ She bounces from one job to another. ▪ Our teacher's always bouncing from one subject to another.

5 : to return (an e-mail) to the sender instead of delivering it [+ obj] I tried to send you an e-mail, but it got bounced back to me. [=the e-mail or computer system was not able to deliver it] [no obj] I tried to send you an e-mail but it bounced.

bounce around [phrasal verb] bounce (something) around or bounce around (something) informal : to talk about (something, such as an idea) in an informal way in order to get different opinions about it ▪ We were bouncing some ideas around for the design of the book's cover.

bounce back [phrasal verb] : to return quickly to a normal condition after a difficult situation or event ▪ She bounced back [=recovered] easily from her surgery. ▪ After losing the first three games of the series, they bounced back to win their next eight games.

bounce into [phrasal verb] Brit, informal bounce (someone) into (something) : to force (someone) to decide to do (something) especially without having time to think about it ▪ The voters were bounced into agreeing to the proposal.

bounce off [phrasal verb] bounce (something) off (someone) informal : to talk about (something, such as an idea) with (someone) in an informal way in order to get an opinion ▪ I wanted to bounce some ideas off you before the meeting.

[2]bounce noun, pl bounces

1 [count] : the act or action of bouncing off the ground or another surface ▪ The ball took a high bounce over the shortstop's head. ▪ He caught the ball on the first bounce.

2 [noncount] a : the ability to move quickly in a different direction after hitting a surface : the ability to bounce ▪ a basketball that has lost all its bounce b : a quality that makes a person's hair look healthy, full, and attractive : a bouncy quality ▪ The shampoo promises to give limp hair lots of bounce.

3 [singular] : a sudden increase ▪ Several companies showed a bounce [=upswing, upsurge] in earnings. ▪ After the debates, she enjoyed a big bounce in the election polls.

4 : energy and liveliness [noncount] He may be 90 years old, but he still has plenty of bounce [=spring] in his step. [singular] There's still a bounce in his step.

bounc•er /ˈbaʊnsɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person whose job is to force anyone who causes a problem in a bar, nightclub, etc., to leave that place

2 : a ball that bounces on the ground ▪ The batter hit a bouncer to the shortstop.

bounce pass noun, pl ∼ passes [count] basketball : a pass to a teammate that is made by bouncing the ball once bounc•ing /ˈbaʊnsɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : very healthy and active ▪ a bouncing baby boy bouncy /ˈbaʊnsi/ adj bounc•i•er; -est

1 : able to bounce well ▪ a bouncy rubber ball

2 : lively, cheerful, and full of energy ▪ a bouncy host ▪ bouncy dance music

3 : quickly returning to a full, rounded shape after being made flat ▪ a bouncy [=springy] seat cushion ▪ her curly, bouncy hair

– bounc•i•ly adv ▪ bouncily energetic – bounc•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the music's bounciness

[1]bound past tense and past participle of [1]BIND

[2]bound adj

1 not used before a noun : very likely or certain to do or to be something ▪ It's bound to rain soon. ▪ It's bound to be a great party. ▪ I knew they would get married. It was bound to happen. ▪ Everyone is bound to make mistakes sometimes. ▪ Such a foolish plan is bound to fail.

2 : unlikely or unable to change, develop, move, etc., because of being held or controlled by something ▪ an organization that is bound by tradition — often used in combination ▪ a tradition-bound organization ▪ a culture-bound philosophy — see also DESKBOUND, FOGBOUND, HOUSEBOUND, ICEBOUND, MUSCLE-BOUND, SNOWBOUND

3 : tied together with something (such as a string or rope) ▪ a neatly/tightly/loosely bound stack of papers — see also [1]BIND 1, 2

4 not used before a noun : closely joined or connected to other people ▪ She and I are bound (together) by our shared past. [=we are connected to each other because we have the same past] ▪ family members bound by either blood or marriage — see also [1]BIND 7

5 not used before a noun : required by law or duty to do something ▪ The state is legally bound [=obligated] to provide each child with an education. ▪ He was duty bound [=it was his duty] to help. ▪ I felt honor bound to defend them. [=I felt that I had to defend them because it was morally right] ▪ (chiefly Brit) The experiment, I am bound to say [=I must say/admit], seems to have succeeded. — see also [1]BIND 5

6 : held together or covered with a particular type of material — often + in ▪ books bound in leather/velvet — often used in combination ▪ leather-bound books [=books with leather covers] ▪ a spiral-bound notebook [=a notebook that has its pages held together with a curving wire] — see also [1]BIND 11

bound and determined : very determined ▪ We were bound and determined to finish the project on time.

bound up : closely involved or associated : greatly affected ▪ The fates of such projects are always bound up in politics. — usually + with ▪ Their lives are closely bound up with their religion. ▪ These societal changes are inextricably bound up with the development of new technologies.

I'll be bound Brit, old-fashioned — used to stress that you are sure of something you have said ▪ It'll be dark soon, I'll be bound.

– compare [3]BOUND

[3]bound /ˈbaʊnd/ adj : going or planning to go to a specified place ▪ We were homeward bound. [=we were going towards our home] ▪ college-bound teenagers [=teenagers who are planning to go to college] — often + for ▪ She got on a plane bound for [=going to] London. ▪ He was bound for New York. ▪ a ship bound for Africa — see also EASTBOUND, HOMEBOUND, INBOUND, NORTHBOUND, OUTBOUND, SOUTHBOUND, WESTBOUND — compare [2]BOUND

[4]bound noun, pl bounds [count] : a leap or long jump ▪ He leapt over the puddle in/with a single bound.

by/in leaps and bounds see [2]LEAP

– compare [6]BOUND

[5]bound verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition bounds; bound•ed; bound•ing [no obj] : to move by jumping : to walk or run with long, energetic steps ▪ She came bounding down the stairs. ▪ We saw three deer bound over the fence into the woods. — compare [7]BOUND

[6]bound noun, pl bounds

1 bounds [plural] : the point at which something (such as an idea or someone's behavior) stops being good or acceptable : the limit of what is correct or proper ▪ The play goes beyond the bounds of decency. = The play exceeds the bounds of decency. ▪ within the bounds of reason = within reasonable bounds ▪ The police officers exceeded/overstepped their bounds and broke the law.

2 [count] : something that shows where one area ends and another area begins — usually plural ▪ the bounds [=(more commonly) boundaries] of the nature reserve know no bounds : to have no limit ▪ His generosity knows no bounds. [=he is extremely generous] in bounds : inside the area where players or the ball must stay in sports like basketball and American football ▪ The receiver was still in bounds when he caught the pass. ▪ The referee said the ball landed in bounds.

out of bounds 1 : outside the area where players or the ball must stay in sports like basketball and American football ▪ The ball was kicked out of bounds. ▪ The player stepped out of bounds to avoid being hit. 2 : not good or acceptable ▪ The teacher's comment was completely out of bounds. [=unacceptable, inappropriate] 3 — used to describe a place where people are not allowed to go ▪ The auditorium is out of bounds for/to students during the renovations. 4 — used to describe something that people are not allowed to discuss or mention ▪ The subject of politics is out of bounds [=off limits] when our family gets together.

– compare [4]BOUND

[7]bound verb bounds; bounded; bounding [+ obj] : to form a border around (an area) — usually used as (be) bounded ▪ a quiet village bounded [=surrounded, enclosed] by mountains ▪ The city is bounded by two major highways. — compare [5]BOUND

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 106 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

bound•ary /ˈbaʊndri/ noun, pl -aries
1 [count] : something (such as a river, a fence, or an imaginary line) that shows where an area ends and another area begins ▪ Those two trees mark the boundary of our property. ▪ The river forms the country's western boundary.
2 [count] : a point or limit that indicates where two things become different ▪ at/on the boundary between fact and fiction
3 boundaries [plural] : unofficial rules about what should not be done : limits that define acceptable behavior ▪ You need to set boundaries with your children. ▪ Did he violate the boundaries of the doctor-patient relationship? ▪ They're pushing the boundaries of [=doing things that are unusual in] traditional French cooking.
know no boundaries 1 : to be capable of affecting people everywhere ▪ This is a disease that knows no boundaries. 2 : to have no limits ▪ My admiration for him knows no boundaries. [=knows no bounds] bound•less /ˈbaʊndləs/ adj : not limited in any way : having no boundaries ▪ the boundless [=limitless, endless] sky ▪ We were filled with boundless joy. ▪ Her love for her family was boundless.

– bound•less•ly adv ▪ a boundlessly generous person

boun•te•ous /ˈbaʊntijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : giving or providing many desired things : BOUNTIFUL ▪ Together we give thanks for this bounteous harvest.

boun•ti•ful /ˈbaʊntɪfəl/ adj, formal
1 : giving or providing many desired things ▪ this bountiful land ▪ bountiful harvests
2 : given or existing in large amounts ▪ a bountiful supply of water ▪ a bountiful meal ▪ bountiful baskets of fruit
– boun•ti•ful•ly adv ▪ They were bountifully rewarded.

boun•ty /ˈbaʊnti/ noun, pl -ties
1 literary : good things that are given or provided freely and in large amounts [noncount] the bounty of nature = nature's bounty ▪ summer's bounty of plump tomatoes [singular] The cottage is filled with a bounty of fresh flowers.
2 [count] : an amount of money given to someone as a reward for catching a criminal ▪ A bounty of 500 dollars was put on his head. [=anyone who captured him would receive a 500-dollar bounty] bounty hunter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone who catches criminals who have not been caught by the police in exchange for a reward

bou•quet /boʊˈkeɪ, buːˈkeɪ/ noun, pl -quets [count]
1 : a group of flowers that are picked and often tied together ▪ The bride carried a bouquet of white and red roses.
2 : a particular and usually pleasant smell of flowers or wine ▪ The wine has a lovely bouquet.

bouquet gar•ni /-gɑəˈniː/ noun, pl bouquets gar•nis /-gɑəˈniː/ [count] : a bunch of herbs that are tied together or put in a cloth bag and cooked with food to add flavor but removed before the food is served bour•bon /ˈbəəbən/ noun, pl -bons : a type of American whiskey made from corn, malt, and rye [noncount] a glass of bourbon ▪ I prefer bourbon to Scotch. [count] We'll have two bourbons [=two glasses of bourbon], please.

bour•geois /ˈbuəʒˌwɑː/ adj
1 : relating to or belonging to the middle class of society ▪ the bourgeois class ▪ bourgeois families/businessmen
2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having qualities or values associated with the middle class : too concerned about wealth, possessions, and respectable behavior ▪ bourgeois life/culture/society ▪ bourgeois attitudes/values ▪ bourgeois materialism
– bourgeois noun, pl bour•geois /ˈbuəʒˌwɑːz/ [count] ▪ He was a bourgeois, not a nobleman. ▪ a philosopher who had no sympathy for the bourgeois — see also PETIT BOURGEOIS

bour•geoi•sie /ˌbuəʒˌwɑːˈziː/ noun
the bourgeoisie : the middle class of society : the social class of skilled workers, business and professional people, and government officials ▪ members of the bourgeoisie bout /ˈbaʊt/ noun, pl bouts [count]

1 : a period of time during which someone suffers from something (such as an illness or disease) — often + of ▪ a bout of fever ▪ She struggles with frequent bouts of depression. — often + with in U.S. English ▪ She survived a 5-year bout with cancer. ▪ a bout with the flu
2 : a short period of time during which something is done or happening ▪ a drinking bout — often + of ▪ a 4-hour bout of reading ▪ a bout of unemployment
3 : a wrestling or boxing contest ▪ He lost his bout [=fight] with the boxing champion.

bou•tique /buːˈtiːk/ noun, pl -tiques [count] : a small store that sells stylish clothing or other usually expensive things

bou•ton•niere /ˌbuːtnˈiə, Brit buːˌtɒniˈɛə/ noun, pl -nieres [count] US : a flower or small group of flowers that men sometimes wear on their jackets on special occasions (such as weddings) — called also (Brit) buttonhole

bo•vine /ˈboʊˌvaɪn/ adj
1 technical : relating to cows ▪ a bovine illness ▪ bovine growth hormones
2 disapproving : looking or acting like a cow ▪ his round bovine face ▪ She stared at us with a stupid, bovine expression.

[1]bow /ˈbaʊ/ verb bows; bowed; bow•ing
1 [no obj] : to bend forward at the neck or waist as a formal way of greeting someone or showing respect ▪ He bowed politely and introduced himself to us. ▪ You must bow (down) before the king. ▪ a man bowing to kiss the hand of a woman ▪ The men bowed and the women curtsied as the royal couple walked past. ▪ She bowed down in front of the altar. — often + to ▪ They bowed to each other and began talking. ▪ She bowed to the audience and walked off stage.
2 [+ obj] : to turn (your head) down so that you are looking toward the ground ▪ people bowing their heads in prayer ▪ His head was bowed [=lowered] in shame. ▪ We listened with bowed heads.
3 [no obj] : to stop trying to fight or resist something : to agree to do or accept something that you have been resisting or opposing — usually + to ▪ The President bowed [=gave in, yielded] to political pressure. ▪ They usually bow to his wishes. [=they usually do what he wants] ▪ She finally bowed to the inevitable and accepted their decision.
bow and scrape : to treat someone who is powerful or wealthy in an extremely respectful way especially in order to get approval, friendship, etc. ▪ She's disgusted by politicians who bow and scrape before wealthy contributors.
bow down to [phrasal verb] bow down to (someone or something) : to show weakness by agreeing to the demands or following the orders of (someone or something) ▪ I will bow down to no one. [=I will take orders from no one; I will submit to no one] ▪ The government is refusing to bow down to [=give in to] pressure to lift the sanctions.
bow out [phrasal verb] : to stop doing something : to stop being involved in a contest, an activity, etc. ▪ He knew he would not win the election, so he decided to bow out of the presidential race. ▪ He bowed out [=left, withdrew] gracefully. ▪ She has bowed out of the restaurant business entirely.
– compare [5]BOW

[2]bow noun, pl bows [count] : the act of bending forward at the neck or waist in order to greet someone or show respect : the act of bowing ▪ In some cultures it is polite to greet people with a bow, while in others a handshake is preferred. ▪ He smiled and made/gave a bow.
take a bow : to bow towards an audience that is applauding for you ▪ When the play has finished, the actors will line up to take a bow. — often used figuratively to say that someone deserves to be praised ▪ The people who organized the festival should take a bow for its remarkable success.
– compare [3]BOW, [4]BOW

[3]bow /ˈbaʊ/ noun, pl bows [count] : the front part of a boat or ship ▪ The deck was cleaned from bow to stern. [=from the front end to the back end] — see picture at BOAT; opposite [2]STERN — compare [2]BOW, [4]BOW

[4]bow /ˈboʊ/ noun, pl bows [count]
1 : a knot that is made by tying a ribbon or string into two or more loops and that is used for tying shoelaces or for decoration ▪ She tied/wore a bow in her hair. — see also BOW TIE
2 : a weapon used for shooting arrows that is made of a long, thin piece of wood which is bent with its ends connected by a tight, strong string ▪ They hunted with bows and arrows.
3 : a tool that is used for playing a violin or similar musical instrument and that is made of a thin stick of wood with its ends connected by stretched pieces of hair or fiber — see picture at STRINGED INSTRUMENT
– compare [2]BOW, [3]BOW

[5]bow verb bows; bowed; bow•ing
1 [+ obj] : to use a bow to play (a violin or similar musical instrument) ▪ bowing or plucking the violin strings — see also BOWING
2 : to bend or curve [no obj] The wall bows out at the bottom. [+ obj] Years of riding horses has bowed his legs. ▪ People with this disorder often have bowed legs. — see also BOWLEGGED

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 129 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:54:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

– compare [1]BOW

bowd•ler•ize also Brit bowd•ler•ise /ˈboʊdləˌraɪz, Brit ˈbaʊdləˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] usually disapproving : to change (a book, play, movie, etc.) by removing parts that could offend people ▪ bowdlerize a classic novel by removing offensive language
– bowdlerized also Brit bowdlerised adj ▪ a bowdlerized version of the novel

bow•el /ˈbawəl/ noun, pl -els
1 [count] : the long tube in the body that helps digest food and carries solid waste out of the body ▪ a disease of the bowel — often plural ▪ a disease that affects the bowels ✧ To have a bowel movement or to move your bowels or (Brit) open your bowels is to pass solid waste from your body. ▪ The patient made/had a normal bowel movement.
2 the bowels literary : the deep inner parts of something ▪ They dug deep into the bowels of the earth. ▪ The engine room is down in the bowels of the ship.

bow•er /ˈbawə/ noun, pl -ers [count] literary : a pleasant shady place in a garden or forest ▪ resting in the shade of the bower

bow•ing /ˈboʊɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the style or technique for using a bow when playing a violin or similar musical instrument

[1]bowl /ˈboʊl/ noun, pl bowls
1 [count] a : a round container that has tall, curving sides and that is used for preparing or serving foods and liquids ▪ a soup/salad/pasta bowl [=a bowl used for serving or eating soup/salad/pasta] ▪ the dog's water bowl — see picture at PLACE SETTING; see also MIXING BOWL, PUNCH BOWL b : the food or liquid served in a bowl ▪ We gave the kittens a bowl [=bowlful] of milk. : the amount of food or liquid served in a bowl ▪ I ate two bowls of soup for dinner. ▪ May I have another bowl of ice cream?
2 [count] : a part of something that is shaped like a bowl: such as a : the bottom part of a toilet ▪ a toilet bowl b : the deep, rounded part of a spoon c : the part of a pipe that holds tobacco
3 [singular] : a valley or area of land that is low and that has higher land around it ▪ a town in the bowl of the mountains — see also DUST BOWL
4 [singular] US : a large stadium or theater that is shaped like a bowl — used in names ▪ a concert at the Hollywood Bowl
5 [count] American football : a game that is played after the regular season between college teams that have been specially invited ▪ college bowl games — usually used in names ▪ the Orange Bowl — see also SUPER BOWL
6 a [count] : a ball used in the game of lawn bowling b bowls [plural] Brit : LAWN BOWLING

[2]bowl verb bowls; bowled; bowl•ing
1 [+ obj] : to roll (a ball) towards something especially in the game of bowling or lawn bowling ▪ I don't think I can bowl a 12-pound ball.
2 a [no obj] : to play the game of bowling ▪ We bowl every Thursday night. ▪ Do you like to bowl? ▪ I haven't bowled since I was a kid. b [+ obj] : to get (a score) in a game of bowling ▪ She usually bowls around 150.
3 [+ obj] cricket a : to throw (a ball) to the batsman b : to force (a batsman) to leave the field by throwing a ball that hits the wicket behind the batsman ▪ He was bowled (out) for 47.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] chiefly Brit : to move or go very quickly ▪ We were bowling along the motorway in her new car.
bowl over [phrasal verb] 1 bowl (someone or something) over or bowl over (someone or something) : to hit and push down (someone or something) while quickly moving past ▪ We were almost bowled over by the wind. 2 bowl (someone) over or bowl over (someone) : to surprise or impress (someone) very much ▪ He was completely bowled over by the news. ▪ She bowled over [=amazed] the judges with her excellent performance.

bow•leg•ged /ˈboʊˌlɛgəd/ adj : having legs that curve outward at the knee ▪ He's short and bowlegged. ▪ a bowlegged woman bowl•er /ˈboʊlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who plays the game of bowling ▪ She's a great bowler. [=she bowls very well]
2 cricket : the player who throws the ball to the batsman
3 chiefly Brit : DERBY 4

bowlful noun, pl -fuls [count] : the amount of food or liquid that fits in a bowl ▪ a bowlful of peanuts bowl•ing /ˈboʊlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a game played by rolling a large, heavy ball down a smooth floor (called a lane) towards a set of pins in order to knock down as many pins as possible ▪ She watches bowling on TV. ▪ We're going bowling. — often used before another noun ▪ a bowling ball ▪ a bowling lane — see also LAWN BOWLING bowling alley noun, pl ~ -leys [count] : a room or building in which people play the game of bowling bow•string /ˈboʊˌstrɪŋ/ noun, pl -strings [count] : the strong, tight string that is used on a bow for shooting arrows bow tie noun, pl ~ ties [count] : a narrow length of cloth that is worn by men around the neck and tied into a bow at the throat — see color picture on page C16; compare NECKTIE

bow window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] : a large window or set of windows that curves out from the outside wall of a building bow•wow /ˈbaʊˌwaʊ/ noun [noncount] : the usual sound made by dog : a dog's bark ✧ Bowwow is a word used mainly by children. ▪ "What does the doggy say?" "Bowwow!"

[1]box /ˈbɑːks/ noun, pl box•es
1 [count] a : a container that is made of a hard material (such as wood, metal, or cardboard) and that usually has four straight sides ▪ a cardboard box ▪ She kept the letters in an old box. ▪ empty pizza boxes ▪ the cat's litter box ▪ a box of tissues/matches/cigars/tools b : the amount of something inside a box ▪ I ate an entire box of chocolates.
2 [count] : a container used for holding mail or papers especially in an office ▪ I'll put the messages in your box. ▪ The letter was sent to a post office box in New York. — see also IN-BOX, MAILBOX, OUT-BOX
3 a [count] : a piece of electronic equipment that is contained inside a box ▪ Where's the system's control box? ▪ The cable box is on top of the TV. — see also BLACK BOX, GEARBOX b the box Brit, informal : a television ▪ Let's turn on the box and watch the game.
4 [count] : a small area or section of seats that is separated from other seats inside a theater, stadium, or courtroom ▪ She's sitting in the jury box. — see picture at THEATER; see also BOX SEAT, LUXURY BOX, PRESS BOX, SKYBOX
5 [count] : a closed shape with four sides on a piece of paper, a Web page, etc.: such as a : a square in which you make a mark (such as an X) to show that you choose something ▪ If you are over 18 years old, check this box. ▪ Put an X in the correct/appropriate box. b : a square or rectangle around special information in a document, book, etc. ▪ For more information, see box A17.
6 [count] : an area on a sports field that is used for a special purpose; especially : one of six areas on a baseball field that are marked by lines and that show where the batter, pitcher, catcher, and coaches stand ▪ He stepped out of the batter's box to take a practice swing. — see also PENALTY BOX
7 [count] Brit : [1]CUP 6
8 [count] chiefly Brit : an area where two streets cross that is marked by painted lines to show where cars are not allowed to stop but can only pass through ▪ The sign at the intersection said "Don't Block the Box." — called also (Brit) box junction think outside the box ✧ If you think outside the box, your thoughts are not limited or controlled by rules or tradition, and you have ideas that are creative and unusual. ▪ To solve this puzzle, you'll have to think outside the box.
– compare [4]BOX

[2]box verb boxes; boxed; box•ing [+ obj] : to put (something) in a box ▪ Can you box this for me? It's a gift. ▪ The CDs are sold as a boxed set. [=a set of things that are sold together in a box] — often + up ▪ She was told to box up her things and go home.
box in [phrasal verb] box (someone or something) in : to surround (someone or something) and make movement difficult ▪ The other bicyclists boxed her in and she couldn't move ahead. — usually used as (be) boxed in ▪ We were boxed in and couldn't get out of our parking space. [=other cars were parked so close to our car that we could not move out of our parking space] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I feel boxed in by all these rules.
– compare [3]BOX

[3]box verb boxes; boxed; boxing : to participate in the sport of boxing : to fight with the hands often while wearing very thick gloves [no obj] His father taught him how to box

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 121 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:55:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

when he was 12. [+ obj] Who did he box in his first fight? — see also KICKBOXING, SHADOWBOX box someone's ears old-fashioned : to hit someone on the sides of the head or on the ears ▪ His mother threatened to box his ears if he misbehaved again.

– compare ²BOX

⁴box noun, pl box•es [count, noncount] : BOXWOOD 1 — compare ¹BOX

box•car /ˈbɑːksˌkɑɚ/ noun, pl -cars [count] US : a section of a train that has a roof and large, sliding doors and that carries goods and supplies rather than people ▪ boxcars filled with lumber/televisions box cutter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a small tool that is made for opening cardboard boxes and that has a very sharp blade that can be pushed in and out of its case

box•er /ˈbɑːksɚ/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : someone who participates in the sport of boxing

2 [count] : a type of dog that has a short, square face and a tail that is usually cut short when the dog is young — see picture at DOG

3 boxers [plural] : BOXER SHORTS

boxer shorts noun [plural] : loose shorts that are worn as underwear by men and boys ▪ a pair of boxer shorts — see color picture on page C13; compare ²BRIEF 4

box•ing /ˈbɑːksɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the sport of fighting someone with your hands while wearing very thick gloves — often used before another noun ▪ a boxing glove ▪ a boxing match ▪ the heavyweight boxing champion of the world

Boxing Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a holiday that is celebrated especially in England and Canada on the first day after Christmas that is not a Sunday

box junction noun, pl ~ -tions [count] Brit : ¹BOX 8

box lunch noun, pl ~ lunches [count] US : BAG LUNCH

box office noun, pl ~ - ces

1 [count] : an area in a theater where tickets are sold for a movie, play, etc. ▪ The box office will open at 10:00 a.m.

2 [singular] — used to describe how many tickets have been sold for a movie, play, etc. ▪ The movie did very well at the box office. [=many people bought tickets to see the movie] ▪ It made over 100 million dollars at the box office. — often used before another noun ▪ The movie is a box office hit/success. ▪ a box office failure/flop

box room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] Brit : a room in a house where things are stored

box score noun, pl ~ scores [count] US : a small chart that shows the players, score, and other details of a baseball game ▪ reading the box scores in the newspaper box seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] : a seat in a small area or section of seats that is separated from the other seats in a theater or stadium box spring noun, pl ~ springs [count] US : a wide, flat box that is filled with metal springs and covered with cloth and that is put under a mattress for support — see picture at BED

box•wood /ˈbɑːksˌwʊd/ noun, pl -woods

1 US : an evergreen bush or small tree that has small dark leaves and that is used especially to make hedges or boundaries in gardens [noncount] a boxwood hedge [count] We planted a few boxwoods. — called also box

2 [noncount] : the tough, hard wood of the boxwood ▪ a piece of boxwood

¹boy /ˈbɔɪ/ noun, pl boys

1 [count] a : a male child ▪ It's a boy! She gave birth to a baby boy this morning. ▪ a nine-year-old boy named David ▪ Okay, boys and girls, it's time to play a game. ▪ Ever since I was a (little/young) boy, I've wanted to fly airplanes. b : SON ▪ Is this your little boy? ▪ He's our oldest/youngest boy. ▪ That's my boy! Good job, Son.

2 [count] a : a young man ▪ a group of teenage boys ▪ My parents want me to meet a nice boy and get married. ▪ Don't be so hard on him. He's just a boy. ▪ He's a boy genius. ▪ a boy wonder [=a young man who has achieved many great things] b : a usually young man from a specified kind of place ▪ city/country boys = boys from the city/country ▪ a local/hometown boy ▪ a poor boy from the north ▪ a farm boy [=a young man who lives and works on a farm]

3 a the boys informal : the male friends or work partners of a man viewed as a group ▪ Wait till the boys back home hear about this! ▪ Our boss thinks of himself as just one of the boys. ▪ He went out drinking with the boys. b [singular] chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : a man of any age ✧ The phrases my dear boy and old boy are used as friendly ways for one man to address another man. ▪ Why, my dear boy, of course I want to see you. ▪ Cheer up, old boy. — see also OLD BOY

4 [count] : a man or boy who does a particular job ▪ a messenger boy ✧ Boy is often offensive in this sense when the person being described is an adult. — see also ALTAR BOY, BALL BOY, BATBOY, BELLBOY, BUSBOY, DELIVERY BOY, PAPERBOY boys will be boys ✧ The expression boys will be boys is used to say that it is not surprising or unusual when men or boys behave in energetic, rough, or improper ways. ▪ You shouldn't be too hard on them for staying out so late. Boys will be boys.

separate the men from the boys see ²SEPARATE

– see also BAD BOY, BIG BOYS, GOOD OLD BOY, POSTER BOY, PRETTY BOY

– boy•hood /ˈbɔɪˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ the president's early boyhood — often used before another noun ▪ his boyhood home [=where he lived when he was a boy] ▪ boyhood heroes/friends – boy•ish /ˈbɔjɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ his boyish good looks ▪ He has a boyish charm about him. ▪ a boyish haircut ▪ She's always had a boyish figure. – boy•ish•ly adv ▪ a boyishly handsome actor – boy•ish•ness noun [noncount]

²boy interj — used as a way to express surprise or enthusiasm ▪ Boy, I sure am hungry! ▪ Boy, have I got a story for you! ▪ There's a surprise? Oh, boy! What is it? ▪ Boy, oh, boy. This is great!! ▪ Boy, that test was really hard.

¹boy•cott /ˈbɔɪˌkɑːt/ verb -cotts; -cott•ed; -cott•ing [+ obj] : to refuse to buy, use, or participate in (something) as a way of protesting ▪ plans to boycott American products ▪ They boycotted the city's bus system. ▪ The country's leaders boycotted [=did not attend] the event in protest. : to stop using the goods or services of (a company, country, etc.) until changes are made ▪ We boycotted companies that were polluting the environment.

²boycott noun, pl -cotts [count] : an often organized act of boycotting something ▪ the 1955 bus boycott — often + of, against, or on ▪ the country's boycott of the Olympics ▪ a boycott against/on the company's products boy•friend /ˈbɔɪˌfrɛnd/ noun, pl -friends [count] : a man that someone is having a romantic or sexual relationship with ▪ My boyfriend and I have only been dating for a couple of months. — compare GIRLFRIEND

Boy Scout noun, pl ~ Scouts [count] : a member of an organization for boys ages 11 to 17 ✧ Boy Scouts participate in group activities, learn skills, and are encouraged to have good morals and be good citizens. — called also Scout; compare CUB SCOUT, GIRL SCOUT boy•sen•ber•ry /ˈbɔɪzn̩ˌberi, Brit ˈbɔɪznbri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a large reddish-black berry that has the flavor of a raspberry bo•zo /ˈboʊzoʊ/ noun, pl bo•zos [count] informal : a stupid or foolish person ▪ Some bozo forgot to shut the door.

Br abbr 1 Britain 2 British bra /ˈbrɑː/ noun, pl bras [count] : a piece of clothing that is worn by women under other clothes to cover and support the breasts — called also brassiere; see color picture on page C13

¹brace /ˈbreɪs/ verb brac•es; braced; brac•ing

1 : to get ready for something difficult or unpleasant [no obj] (chiefly US) — usually + for ▪ The town is bracing for a busy tourist season. ▪ We braced for the storm. [+ obj] Brace yourself. [=prepare yourself] I have some bad news. — usually + for ▪ She braced herself for the news.

2 [+ obj] : to give added physical support or strength to (something) ▪ He braced the gate with a piece of wood. ▪ Steel columns brace the structure.

3 [+ obj] a : to support (yourself) by leaning against something or holding something ▪ She braced herself with one hand and reached up with the other. — often + against ▪ He braced himself against the wall. b : to place (something, such as your feet or hands) against something for support — usually + against ▪ He braced his foot against the wall.

²brace noun, pl braces

1 [count] : a part that adds physical strength or support ▪ We need to add some sort of brace to hold the shelf in place.

2 [count] a : a device that supports a part of the body ▪ He could walk with braces on his legs. ▪ She wears a back/neck brace. b : a device that is attached to teeth to make them straight ▪ (Brit) He has a brace on his teeth. — plural in U.S. English ▪ He has braces on his teeth. ▪ She needed braces as a child.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 107 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

3 [count] : either one of the marks { or } that are used as a pair around words or items that are to be considered together — usually plural ▪ Computer codes appear within braces. — called also curly brace, curly bracket
4 braces [plural] Brit : SUSPENDERS
5 pl brace [count] : a pair of birds that have been hunted and killed ▪ several brace [=(more commonly) pairs] of quail brace•let /ˈbreɪslət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a piece of jewelry worn on the wrist — see color picture on page C11 brac•ing /ˈbreɪsɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : pleasantly cool or cold ▪ clean, bracing air — often used figuratively ▪ Her honest remarks provided a bracing [=refreshing] change from the bland, political commentary.

– brac•ing•ly adv ▪ bracingly cool breezes brack•en /ˈbrækən/ noun [noncount] : a large plant that grows commonly in many places around the world : a large kind of fern

[1]brack•et /ˈbrækət/ noun, pl -ets [count]
1 : an object that is attached to a wall and used to support or hold up something (such as a shelf) ▪ The shelf is held up with two brackets. ▪ There are wall brackets in the garage for the rakes and shovels.
2 : a category that includes a certain range of incomes, ages, etc. ▪ She is taller/shorter than average for her age bracket. ▪ He earned enough to put him in a higher tax bracket. ▪ She is now in a lower/higher income bracket than before.

bracket

3 a : either one of a pair of marks [ ] or ⟨ ⟩ used to enclose words or mathematical symbols — usually plural ▪ The title appears in/within brackets at the top of the page. ✧ The marks [ ] are also called square brackets and the marks ⟨ ⟩ are also called angle brackets. b Brit : PARENTHESIS

[2]bracket verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [+ obj]
1 : to place (words, symbols, etc.) within brackets ▪ She bracketed (off) portions of the text. ▪ bracketed information/text/material
2 : to be located at each side of (something) — usually used as (be) bracketed ▪ The front door is bracketed [=flanked] by tall bushes.
3 : to put (two or more people or things) into the same category, group, etc. ▪ Should Haydn and Mozart be bracketed (together/with each other)? = Should Mozart be bracketed (together) with Haydn?

brack•ish /ˈbrækɪʃ/ adj : somewhat salty ▪ brackish water ▪ a brackish pond brag /ˈbræg/ verb brags; bragged; brag•ging : to talk about yourself, your achievements, your family, etc., in a way that shows too much pride [no obj] After winning the race, she couldn't stop bragging. ▪ "I don't mean to brag," he said, "but I'm an excellent cook." — often + about ▪ She bragged about winning the race. ▪ They're always bragging about their son's accomplishments. [+ obj] He bragged that his daughter was the best student in her class. ▪ "I'm the fastest runner on the team," she bragged.

brag•ga•do•cio /ˌbrægəˈdoʊsiˌoʊ, ˌ/ noun [noncount] literary : the annoying or exaggerated talk of someone who is trying to sound very proud or brave ▪ a loudmouthed braggart who hid his cowardice with braggadocio brag•gart /ˈbrægət/ noun, pl -garts [count] : a person who brags a lot ▪ a loudmouthed braggart

bragging rights noun [plural] US : a good reason to talk with pride about something you have done ▪ She earned bragging rights for completing the project on time.

Brah•man or Brah•min /ˈbrɑːmən/ noun, pl -mans or -mins [count]
1 : a member of the highest priestly class of Hindu society
2 usually Brahmin US, old-fashioned : an educated person who belongs to a high social class ▪ She was the daughter of a Boston Brahmin.

[1]braid /ˈbreɪd/ noun, pl braids
1 [count] chiefly US : an arrangement of hair made by weaving three sections together ▪ She wore her hair in a long braid. [=(chiefly Brit) plait] — see picture at HAIR
2 [noncount] : a piece of cord or ribbon made of three or more strands woven together ▪ a hat trimmed with braid

[2]braid verb braids; braid•ed; braid•ing [+ obj] : to form (something, such as hair) into a braid : to weave together (three or more strands or parts of something) ▪ She braids her hair every morning. ▪ They braided the ribbons.

braided adj
1 : formed with three or more parts woven together ▪ braided [=(chiefly Brit) plaited] hair ▪ a braided rug
2 : decorated with a piece of cord or ribbon made of three or more strands woven together : decorated with braid ▪ a hat with braided trim

braille or Braille /ˈbreɪl/ noun [noncount] : a system of writing for blind people in which letters are represented by raised dots ▪ a book made available in braille — often used before another noun ▪ a braille book

[1]brain /ˈbreɪn/ noun, pl brains [count]
1 : the organ of the body in the head that controls functions, movements, sensations, and thoughts ▪ Scientists are learning more about how the human brain works. ▪ The left and right sides of the brain have different functions. — often used before another noun ▪ a brain injury/tumor ▪ brain damage/surgery ▪ brain cells/tissue
2 informal : the ability to think and reason : INTELLIGENCE ▪ Don't be such an idiot—use your brain. [=head] ▪ She has a good brain. [=she is smart] ▪ I'm sorry—I don't know where my brain is today. [=I'm not thinking clearly today] ▪ If he had half a brain [=if he was at all smart], he would have left a long time ago. — often plural ▪ If he had any brains, he would have left a long time ago. ▪ She has both brains and beauty.
3 informal : a very intelligent person ▪ The other children always teased him about being such a brain. ▪ She is one of the best brains [=intellects, minds] in the field. ✧ If you are the brains of/behind something, you are the person who thinks of plans or makes important decisions for a group. ▪ She's the brains of this organization. ▪ He was the brains behind the scheme.
beat/bash someone's brains out or US beat/bash someone's brains in informal : to hit someone on the head in a way that causes serious injury or death : to beat someone very badly ▪ They threatened to beat my brains in if I ever came here again.
blow someone's brains out informal : to kill someone with a shot to the head : to shoot someone fatally in the head ▪ When he refused to hand over the money, the robbers threatened to blow his brains out.
cudgel your brain/brains informal + old-fashioned : to think very hard : to rack your brain ▪ I cudgeled my brains for a solution to the problem.
on the brain informal : always in your thoughts ▪ I've had pizza on the brain all day. [=I've been thinking about pizza all day] ▪ He's got sex on the brain. [=he's always thinking about sex] pick someone's brain/brains informal : to talk to someone in order to get helpful information or advice ▪ Do you have a moment? I need to pick your brain about a little situation that has come up.
rack your brain/brains see [2]RACK

[2]brain verb brains; brained; brain•ing [+ obj] informal : to hit (someone) on the head very hard ▪ The tree limb fell and nearly brained me.

brain•child /ˈbreɪnˌʧajəld/ noun [singular] : an idea, plan, or creation of one person ▪ The museum is the brainchild of a wealthy art collector.

brain–dead /ˈbreɪnˌdɛd/ adj
1 medical : showing no sign of activity in the brain : having no brain function ▪ Doctors determined that she was brain-dead.
2 informal : very stupid ▪ You would have to be brain-dead not to see the problem. : not able to function normally ▪ I'll be brain-dead in the morning if I don't get some sleep.

brain death noun [noncount] medical : the condition of having no brain function : the end of activity in the brain brain drain noun [singular] : a situation in which many educated or professional people leave a particular place or profession and move to another one that gives them better pay or living conditions ▪ Nothing has been done to stop the brain drain as more and more doctors move away from the area.

brain•i•ac /ˈbreɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] informal : a very intelligent person ▪ the class brainiac — often used before another noun ▪ a brainiac scientist brain•less /ˈbreɪnləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very stupid or silly ▪ He thought most of his coworkers were

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 92 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

brainless. ▪ The plot of the new movie is brainless and the acting is terrible.
– brain•less•ly adv – brain•less•ness noun [noncount] brain•pow•er /ˈbreɪnˌpaʊə/ noun [noncount]

1 : the ability to think intelligently ▪ The brainpower of the staff constitutes the company's greatest asset. ▪ The product is supposed to boost your brainpower.
2 : people who are very intelligent ▪ The company is increasing efforts to recruit scientific brainpower.

[1]brain•storm /ˈbreɪnˌstoɚm/ noun, pl -storms [count]
1 US : an idea that someone thinks of suddenly — usually singular ▪ Her latest brainstorm is to convert the garage into an apartment. — called also (chiefly Brit) brain wave
2 Brit : a temporary state of confusion : a period of unclear thinking ▪ I'm sorry—I must have been having a brainstorm when I wrote that.

[2]brainstorm verb -storms; -stormed; -storm•ing : to try to solve a problem by talking with other people : to discuss a problem and suggest solutions [no obj] We need to brainstorm about this. [+ obj] They had a meeting to brainstorm some ideas.
– brainstorming noun [noncount] ▪ We did some brainstorming and came up with some ideas. ▪ We had a brainstorming session.

brain•teas•er /ˈbreɪnˌtiːzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a puzzle that is difficult to figure out or solve brain trust noun, pl ~ trusts [count] US : a group of people who give advice to a leader about what should be done ▪ The president's brain trust recommended the action. — called also (Brit) brains trust brain•wash /ˈbreɪnˌwɑːʃ/ verb -wash•es; -washed; -wash•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to think or believe something by using methods that make a person unable to think normally ▪ Terrorists brainwashed the prisoners. ▪ Does advertising brainwash children? — often + into ▪ She was brainwashed into donating all her money to the cult.

brain wave noun, pl ~ waves [count]
1 : a pattern or cycle of electrical activity in the brain — usually plural ▪ Do your brain waves change when you are sleeping?
2 chiefly Brit : [1]BRAINSTORM 1

brainy /ˈbreɪni/ adj brain•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very intelligent ▪ a brainy child – brain•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She shouldn't hide her braininess.

braise /ˈbreɪz/ verb brais•es; braised; brais•ing [+ obj] : to cook (food) slowly in fat and a small amount of liquid in a covered pot ▪ He braised the beef in a wine sauce.
– braised adj ▪ braised chicken/cabbage

[1]brake /ˈbreɪk/ noun, pl brakes [count]
1 : a device for slowing or stopping something (such as a wheel or vehicle) ▪ She released the brake slowly. ▪ Take your foot off the brake. — often plural ▪ The car will need new brakes soon. ▪ He slammed/jammed on the brakes [=he applied the brakes very quickly] to avoid hitting the other car. — often used before another noun ▪ brake shoes/fluid ▪ Take your foot off the brake pedal. ▪ I didn't notice that the car in front of me had its brake lights on. — see picture at BICYCLE; see also DISC BRAKE, EMERGENCY BRAKE, HAND BRAKE, PARKING BRAKE
2 : something used to slow or stop movement or activity — usually + on ▪ They plan to use interest rates as a brake on spending. [=as a way to slow down spending] ▪ trying to put the brakes on crime

[2]brake /ˈbreɪk/ verb brakes; braked; brak•ing [no obj] : to use the brake on a vehicle ▪ I had to brake suddenly when a cat ran in front of the car. ▪ This car has excellent braking. [=it stops quickly and easily when the brakes are used]

bram•ble /ˈbræmbəl/ noun, pl bram•bles [count]
1 US : a rough bush or vine that usually has sharp thorns on its branches — usually plural ▪ a field filled with brambles
2 Brit : BLACKBERRY

bran /ˈbræn/ noun [noncount] : the outer coat of the seed of a grain ▪ The doctor told me to eat more bran because it is a good source of fiber. — often used before another noun ▪ bran cereal/muffins [=cereal/muffins containing bran]

[1]branch /ˈbrænʧ, Brit ˈbrɑːnʧ/ noun, pl branch•es [count]
1 : a part of a tree that grows out from the trunk ▪ birds singing from the branches of a tree ▪ A large (tree) branch fell into our yard during the storm. — see color picture on page C6
2 a : a local office or shop of a company or organization ▪ The bank has a new branch in our area. ▪ She works at the branch office downtown. b : a major part of a government — often + of ▪ the executive/legislative/judicial branch of the United States government
3 : a part of an area of knowledge or study — often + of ▪ Pathology is a branch of medicine.
4 : a part of a family that is descended from a particular family member in the past — often + of ▪ We don't know much about that branch of the family.
5 : something that goes outward from a main line or source ▪ Some of the river's smaller branches flooded after the heavy rains. ▪ There was a problem with the railroad's branch line.
root and branch see [1]ROOT
– branched /ˈbrænʧt, Brit ˈbrɑːnʧt/ adj

[2]branch verb branch•es; branched; branch•ing [no obj] : to divide into smaller parts : to separate into branches ▪ The stream branches from the river near their house.
branch off [phrasal verb] : to separate from something and move in a different direction ▪ The stream branched off to the left. — often + from ▪ The stream branches off from the river near their house. ▪ Streets branch off from both sides of the highway.
branch out [phrasal verb] : to begin to do more different kinds of activities or work ▪ In the beginning the business was highly specialized, but it has since branched out. — often + into ▪ The company specializes in casual clothing but it is branching out into formal wear.

[1]brand /ˈbrænd/ noun, pl brands [count]
1 : a category of products that are all made by a particular company and all have a particular name ▪ What brand are those jeans you are wearing? ▪ The store sells a variety of shoe brands. ▪ The company claims that its product is better than the leading brand. [=the brand that sells the most] — often + of ▪ I'm trying a different brand of soap. ▪ What is your favorite brand of soda? ✧ Brand loyalty is the tendency of a person to continue to buy a particular brand of something. ▪ The company spends a lot of money on advertising to develop brand loyalty. — see also STORE BRAND
2 : a particular kind or type of something ▪ I don't like his brand of humor. ▪ a lively brand of theater
3 : a mark that is burned into the skin of an animal (such as a cow) to show who owns the animal

[2]brand verb brands; brand•ed; brand•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put a mark on the skin of (an animal) to show who owns it ▪ They no longer brand their cattle.
2 : to describe or identify (someone or something) with a word that expresses strong criticism ▪ They branded him a coward. [=they said he was a coward] — usually used as (be) branded ▪ He was branded (as) a coward. ▪ The newspaper was branded racist for publishing the article.

brand•ed /ˈbrændəd/ adj, always used before a noun : having a well-known brand name ▪ She only buys branded [=brand-name] products.

bran•dish /ˈbrændɪʃ/ verb -dish•es; -dished; -dish•ing [+ obj] : to wave or swing (something, such as a weapon) in a threatening or excited manner ▪ She brandished a stick at the dog. ▪ I could see that he was brandishing a knife.

brand name noun, pl ~ names [count] : a name that is given to a product by the company that produces or sells it ▪ The drug is sold under several brand names. ▪ a trusted brand name — compare NAME BRAND brand–name /ˈbrændˈneɪm/ adj : having a well-known brand name ▪ I buy only brand-name [=branded] products.

brand–new /ˈbrændˈnuː, Brit ˈbrændˈnjuː/ adj : completely new ▪ She bought a brand-new car. ▪ They have a brand-new baby. ▪ This concept is brand-new—no one has ever tried anything like it before.

bran•dy /ˈbrændi/ noun, pl -dies [count, noncount] : an alcoholic drink made from wine brash /ˈbræʃ/ adj brash•er; -est

1 : confident and aggressive in usually a rude or unpleasant way ▪ a brash young executive ▪ She asks such brash questions.
2 : very strong or harsh ▪ brash colors ▪ brash lighting – brash•ly adv ▪ He brashly confronted his boss about a raise. – brash•ness noun [noncount]

brass /ˈbræs, Brit ˈbrɑːs/ noun, pl brass•es
1 [noncount] : a yellow metal that is made by combining copper and zinc ▪ a candlestick made of brass — often used before another noun ▪ a brass candlestick
2 : musical instruments (such as trumpets, trombones, and tubas) that are made of brass [noncount] The whole

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 93 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

orchestra—the strings, percussion, woodwinds, and brass—began to play. [plural] The brasses began to play. — often used before another noun ▪ He's one of the best brass players in the orchestra. ▪ a brass instrument ▪ the orchestra's brass section [=the group of musicians in an orchestra who play brass instruments] — see also BRASS BAND

3 [noncount] : bright metal objects made of brass ▪ polishing the brass and the silver

4 [noncount] chiefly US, informal : the people in the highest positions in an organization (such as the military or a business) ▪ Navy brass [=top brass] met earlier today. — often used with the ▪ The brass met earlier today. ✧ Brass is used with both plural and singular verbs in this sense. ▪ The company brass have/has decided that no action is necessary at this time.

(as) bold as brass see ¹BOLD get down to brass tacks informal : to start to discuss or consider the most important details or facts about something ▪ We finally got down to brass tacks and decided to work out a schedule for the project.

brass instrument

brass band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a band (such as a marching band or a military band) in which most of the musicians play brass instruments (such as trumpets and trombones) brassed off adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : annoyed and unhappy ▪ feeling a bit brassed off

bras•siere /brə'ziə, Brit 'bræziə/ noun, pl -sieres [count] formal : BRA — see color picture on page C13

brass ring noun

the brass ring US, informal : a very desirable prize, goal, or opportunity ▪ He made his first try for the brass ring when he ran for mayor a few years ago. — often used in phrases like grab the brass ring and go for the brass ring ▪ She's decided to go for the brass ring and start her own business.

brassy /'bræsi, Brit 'brɑ:si/ adj brass•i•er; -est

1 : very confident and aggressive in a loud and sometimes annoying way ▪ a brassy woman/reporter

2 : having a loud and often harsh sound ▪ brassy music ▪ a big, brassy voice

3 : resembling or suggesting brass ▪ a brassy shine ▪ brassy colors

– brass•i•ly /'bræsəli, Brit 'brɑ:səli/ adv – brass•i•ness noun [noncount] brat /'bræt/ noun, pl brats [count] informal

1 disapproving : a child who behaves very badly : an annoying child ▪ a bunch of ill-mannered little brats ▪ He is a spoiled brat.

2 US : the child of a person whose career is in the army, navy, etc. ▪ I was an army/navy/military brat.; also : the child of a person whose career is in a specified field ▪ His children are typical Hollywood brats.

– brat•ty /'bræti/ adj brat•ti•er; -est ▪ a bratty child – brat•ti•ness noun [noncount]

bra•va•do /brə'vɑ:doʊ/ noun [noncount] : confident or brave talk or behavior that is intended to impress other people ▪ His stories are always told with bravado. ▪ I remember his youthful bravado.

¹brave /'breɪv/ adj brav•er; -est : feeling or showing no fear : not afraid ▪ He was a brave [=courageous, fearless] soldier. ▪ She gave us a brave smile. ▪ He lost his brave fight against the disease. ▪ She tried to put on/up a brave face/front [=she tried to appear brave or calm] despite the pain of the injury.

the brave : brave people ▪ the home of the brave

– brave•ly adv ▪ He smiled bravely as he stepped in front of the cameras.

²brave verb braves; braved; brav•ing [+ obj] : to face or deal with (something dangerous or unpleasant) ▪ We braved [=went out in] the rain without our umbrellas. ▪ Thousands of fans braved rush-hour traffic to see the concert. ▪ I had to brave the elements [=go out in bad weather] to get to work.

³brave noun, pl braves [count] old-fashioned : a Native American warrior brave new world noun [singular] : a situation or area of activity that is created by the development of something completely new and different ▪ The company was slow to enter the brave new world of computer technology. — often used to suggest that something is both new and possibly dangerous ▪ Are we ready to face the brave new world of human cloning?

brav•ery /'breɪvəri/ noun [noncount] : the quality that allows someone to do things that are dangerous or frightening : the quality or state of being brave : COURAGE ▪ He received a medal for bravery. ▪ She showed great bravery. ▪ an act of bravery [=a brave act]

bra•vo /'brɑ:voʊ/ interj — used to express approval of a performance ▪ Shouts of "Bravo!" continued after the curtain fell.

bra•vu•ra /brə'vjurə/ noun [noncount] : great skill and energy in doing something (such as performing on a stage) — usually used before another noun ▪ a bravura performance brawl /'brɑ:l/ verb brawls; brawled; brawl•ing [no obj] : to fight noisily in usually a public place ▪ Fans were brawling in the streets after the game.

– brawl noun, pl brawls [count] ▪ A brawl broke out among the fans after the hockey game. ▪ a drunken street brawl ▪ He was in a barroom brawl. [=a fight in a bar] – brawl•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Police arrested two of the brawlers.

brawn /'brɑ:n/ noun [noncount]

1 : muscular strength — usually used to compare physical strength to intelligence ▪ When it comes to men, she prefers brains over brawn. [=she likes smart men better than muscular ones]

2 Brit : HEADCHEESE

– brawny /'brɑ:ni/ adj brawn•i•er; -est ▪ his brawny [=muscular] arms

bray /'breɪ/ verb brays; brayed; bray•ing

1 [no obj] : to make the loud sound that a donkey makes ▪ The donkey brayed loudly (at us) when we approached it. ▪ a braying donkey

2 : to speak or laugh in a very loud and unpleasant way [no obj] My aunt brayed with laughter when I told her what had happened. ▪ He brayed about what a great player he was. ▪ a braying voice/laugh [+ obj] "I'm the best!" he brayed.

– bray noun, pl brays [count] ▪ the bray of a donkey

¹bra•zen /'breɪzn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : acting or done in a very open and shocking way without shame or embarrassment ▪ He exhibited a brazen disregard for other people's feelings. ▪ a brazen lie

– bra•zen•ly adv ▪ She brazenly ignored his orders. – bra•zen•ness noun [noncount]

²brazen verb -zens; -zened; -zen•ing

brazen it out : to continue in a confident way without showing shame or embarrassment ▪ Despite the bad publicity, the candidate decided to brazen it out and stay in the race.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 94 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

bra•zier /ˈbreɪʒɚ, Brit ˈbreɪziə/ noun, pl -ziers [count]
1 : a container for holding burning coals
2 chiefly US : a device on which food is cooked over high heat

Bra•zil nut /brəˈzɪl-/ noun, pl ~ nuts [count] : a long, white nut that grows on a South American tree — called also (Brit) Brazil; see picture at NUT

[1]breach /ˈbri:ʧ/ noun, pl breach•es
1 : a failure to do what is required by a law an agreement or a duty : failure to act in a required or promised way — usually + of [count] This is clearly a breach of the treaty. ▪ He was fined for committing a breach of the peace. [=for making a lot of noise or behaving violently in public; for disorderly conduct] ▪ Many people consider her decision to be a breach of trust/confidence. [noncount] They sued him for breach of contract. [=for failing to do what the contract required] ▪ The judge ruled that the doctor's actions were in breach of her contractual duty.
2 ✧ A breach of security or a security breach is an occurrence in which someone is able to get into a place that is guarded or is able to get secret information. ▪ The break-in was a serious breach of security. ▪ Allowing such information to be released to the public is considered a security breach.
3 [count] : a break in friendly relations between people or groups — often + between ▪ The breach between them developed years ago. ▪ The misunderstanding had caused a breach between the families. ▪ The decision caused a breach between the two countries.
4 [count] : a hole or opening in something (such as a wall) made by breaking through it ▪ They repaired a breach in the fence.
into the breach ✧ If you step/leap/jump (etc.) into the breach, you provide help that is badly needed, such as by doing a job when there is no one else available to do it. ▪ He stepped into the breach when the company needed new leadership.

[2]breach verb breaches; breached; breach•ing [+ obj]
1 : to fail to do what is required by (something, such as a law or agreement) : to break or violate (something) ▪ He claims that the city breached an agreement by selling the property. ▪ Is he going to breach his contract?
2 : to make a hole or opening in (something) ▪ The army breached the castle wall.

[1]bread /ˈbrɛd/ noun, pl breads
1 : a baked food made from a mixture of flour and water [noncount] She bakes bread every day. ▪ a loaf/slice/piece/hunk of bread [count] The bakery offers a nice selection of breads and pastries. — often used before another noun ▪ bread crumbs ▪ a bread knife [=a knife used for cutting bread]
2 [noncount] old-fashioned, slang : MONEY ▪ I took the job because I needed to earn some bread. [=(more commonly) dough] break bread : to have a meal together ▪ He received an invitation to break bread with the president.
know which side your bread is buttered on informal : to know how to act or how to treat others in order to get what you want ▪ He pretends to be impartial, but believe me, he knows which side his bread is buttered on.

[2]bread verb breads; bread•ed; bread•ing [+ obj] : to cover (food) with bread crumbs before cooking it ▪ She breaded the pork chops before frying them.
– breaded adj ▪ She served breaded pork chops.

bread and butter noun [singular] : a dependable source of income or success ▪ Casual clothing has always been the company's bread and butter.

bread–and–butter adj, always used before a noun
1 : basic and important ▪ bread-and-butter economic issues
2 : dependable as a source of income or success ▪ the company's bread-and-butter products ▪ His bread-and-butter pitch has always been his fastball.

bread•bas•ket /ˈbrɛdˌbæskət, Brit ˈbrɛdˌbɑ:skət/ noun, pl -kets [count] : a region that provides large amounts of food ▪ the breadbasket of the world ▪ The area is becoming the nation's breadbasket.

bread•box /ˈbrɛdˌbɑ:ks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] chiefly US : a container in someone's kitchen where bread and other baked goods are stored to keep them fresh — often used informally to describe the size of something ▪ The entire stereo system is not much bigger than a breadbox. — called also (Brit) bread bin bread•fruit /ˈbrɛdˌfru:t/ noun, pl -fruit [count, noncount] : a round fruit that resembles bread when it is baked bread•line /ˈbrɛdˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines

1 [count] chiefly US : a line of people who are waiting to receive free food
2 the breadline Brit : the level of income at which someone is considered poor ▪ people living below/near/on the breadline [=the poverty line]

breadth /ˈbrɛtθ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the distance from one side to the other side of something : WIDTH ▪ We measured the height, breadth, and depth of each piece of furniture. ▪ Its breadth is five feet. [=(more commonly) it's five feet wide] — see also HAIR'S BREADTH
2 : the quality of including many things : the wide scope or range of something ▪ I admire his breadth of knowledge/experience/achievement. = I admire the breadth of his knowledge/experience/achievement.
the length and breadth of see LENGTH bread•win•ner /ˈbrɛdˌwɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a person who earns money to support a family ▪ He had always been the (family) breadwinner.

[1]break /ˈbreɪk/ verb breaks; broke /ˈbroʊk/; bro•ken /ˈbroʊkən/; break•ing
1 : to separate (something) into parts or pieces often in a sudden and forceful or violent way [+ obj] She broke the cup when she dropped it on the floor. ▪ I broke the stick in two/half. = I broke the stick into two pieces. ▪ Break the chocolate bar into pieces so that everyone can have some. ▪ It is easiest to break a chain at its weakest link. [no obj] The cup broke (into bits/pieces) when it fell on the floor. ▪ A chain will break at its weakest link.
2 : to cause (a bone) to separate into two or more pieces [+ obj] He fell and broke [=fractured] his collarbone. ▪ He broke his arm in the accident. [=one of the bones in his arm was broken in the accident] ▪ The fall broke his arm. [no obj] His arm broke in three places when he fell.
3 [no obj] : to open suddenly especially because of pressure from inside ▪ The blister broke. ▪ A bruise forms when a blood vessel breaks under the skin. — see also BREAK OPEN (below)
4 a [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a machine) to stop working by damaging it ▪ He broke his watch when he dropped it on the floor. ▪ I'm afraid I've broken your phone.
b [no obj] : to stop working because of being damaged ▪ His watch broke when he dropped it on the floor. ▪ The pump recently broke. — see also BREAK DOWN (below)
5 : to split or divide (something) into smaller units or parts [+ obj] The word "singing" can be broken (up) into the two syllables "sing-" and "-ing." ▪ They broke the corporation (up) into several smaller companies. [no obj] The corporation broke (up) into several smaller companies. — see also BREAK INTO (below)
6 [+ obj] a : to go through or make a hole in (a surface, someone's skin, etc.) ▪ There is no risk of infection if the dog's bite did not break [=puncture] the skin. ▪ A large fish broke the surface of the water. b : to go through (something) by using force ▪ Use a knife to break the seal. — usually used figuratively ▪ The ceremony is to celebrate people who broke racial barriers in the music industry. — see also BREAK DOWN (below), BREAK THROUGH (below) c : to cut into and turn over the surface of (the ground, soil, etc.) ▪ The farmer uses a plow to break the soil. — see also break ground at [1]GROUND
7 [+ obj] : to fail to do what is required by (a law, a promise, etc.) ▪ She may not have broken the law, but she acted wrongly. ▪ You broke your promise. ▪ Students who break the rules will be punished. ▪ He broke the contract by failing to make the payments on time. ▪ You can get fined for breaking the speed limit. [=for driving faster than you are legally allowed to drive]
8 a : to destroy or defeat (something) by using force or pressure [+ obj] They kept putting pressure on him, but they couldn't break his spirit/determination/resistance. ▪ They finally broke his will to resist. [no obj] His spirit/determination will never break. b [+ obj] : to defeat or ruin (someone) : to cause (someone) to fail or to stop trying or fighting ▪ He swore that he would break his rivals/competitors. ▪ They kept putting pressure on him, but they couldn't break him. ▪ These huge losses are going to break [=ruin] me financially! ▪ This film could make or break her career. [=the success or failure of her career could depend on the success or failure

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 95 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

of this film] — see also BREAK DOWN (below), MAKE-OR-BREAK c [no obj] : to lose your health, mental or physical strength, or control — usually + under ▪ The witness broke under questioning. ▪ I was afraid I would break under the strain of constant uncertainty. — see also BREAK DOWN (below) d [+ obj] : to train (a wild animal) to behave in a way that is useful to people ▪ special equipment used to break horses

9 [+ obj] a : to cause the end of (something that is strong or that has continued for a long time) ▪ A group of moderates from both parties are negotiating to break the deadlock in Congress. ▪ Many people in the industry were very upset when the government broke the strike. ▪ He decided to break all ties/links with them. [=to end all connections with them] ▪ She scored a goal in the last minute of the game, breaking a 2–2 tie. ▪ It's never easy to break [=kick, give up] a bad habit. b : to cause (someone) to give up a habit — + of ▪ His friends have tried everything to break him of his smoking habit. [=have tried everything to make him stop smoking]

10 [+ obj] a : to interrupt (something) ▪ The peaceful silence of the evening was broken by a sudden shout. ▪ The commotion broke my train of thought. ▪ The sudden noise broke my concentration. [=made it impossible for me to concentrate] ▪ Sometimes I sing while I'm driving, just to break (up) the monotony of my commute. ▪ The horizon line was broken only by a few stands of trees in the distance. ▪ The planes broke formation [=stopped flying together in an organized group] and took off in different directions. — see also BREAK UP 4 (below) b : to cause (something, such as a curse or spell) to no longer be effective ▪ a mystic who claimed to be able to break curses

11 [no obj] : to stop an activity (such as working) for a brief period of time ▪ Let's break for lunch. [=let's take a break for lunch; let's temporarily stop working and eat lunch]

12 a [+ obj] : to tell (bad news) to someone in a kind or gentle way ▪ I know she'll be very upset when she finds out she didn't get the job, so please try to break it to her gently. b [+ obj] : to make (something, such as news) publicly known for the first time ▪ The local TV station was the first to break the news about the President's visit. c [no obj] of news : to become publicly known ▪ The story broke yesterday. [=the story was reported for the first time yesterday] ▪ People were shocked when (news of) the scandal first broke.

13 [+ obj] : to reduce the speed or force of (something) ▪ The bushes beneath the window helped to break his fall. [=helped make his fall less forceful] ▪ She walked straight across the room without breaking (her) stride. [=without pausing or slowing down]

14 [+ obj] a : to be higher or more than (a specified number, measurement, etc.) ▪ The temperature is expected to break 90 (degrees Fahrenheit) today. b : to do better than (a record) ▪ She ran a great race and almost broke the world record. [=she almost ran the race faster than anyone in the world has ever run it] ▪ He set a record that may never be broken. c : to have a score that is lower than or higher than (a specified total) ▪ golfers trying to break 90 [=to have a score below 90] ▪ bowlers trying to break 200 [=to have a score above 200]

15 [+ obj] a : to find or provide an explanation or solution for (something, such as a criminal case) ▪ The detective finally broke [=solved] the case. ▪ The detective found the evidence that broke the case. b : to find the meaning of (a secret code) ▪ A team of experts was finally able to break the code and decipher the meaning of the message.

16 [no obj] a of the weather : to change by becoming rainy, clear, cool, etc., after a long time ▪ waiting for the weather to break ▪ The heat wave should finally break [=end] tomorrow. b of clouds : to separate so that the sky or sun can be seen ▪ The clouds broke and the fog dissipated, revealing blue sky above. c of a storm : to start suddenly ▪ Everyone ran to get indoors when the storm broke. [=when it began to rain]

17 [no obj] literary : to begin when the sun rises ▪ They left just as day was breaking. [=just as the sun was rising] ▪ The dawn was breaking. — see also DAYBREAK

18 [no obj] a : to begin running quickly ▪ Everyone broke [=dashed, ran] for cover. b : to stop fighting and run away ▪ When the enemy charged, our troops broke and ran.

19 [+ obj] a : to give smaller bills or coins for (a large bill) ▪ Can you break [=change] a $20 bill for me? b : to use (a large bill) to pay for something that costs much less than the value of the bill ▪ I didn't want to break a $20 bill just to buy something for a dollar.

20 [no obj] of a wave : to curl over and fall onto or near land ▪ the sound of waves breaking against/over/on the rocks

21 [no obj] a of someone's voice : to change sharply in tone or pitch because of strong emotion ▪ Her voice was breaking with emotion as she said goodbye. b of a boy's voice : to change from the high voice of a boy to the lower voice of a man ▪ an adolescent boy whose voice is breaking

22 [no obj] sports, of a thrown or struck ball : to turn or curve ▪ The putt broke to the left as it neared the hole. ▪ a pitch that breaks away from the batter ▪ The pitcher threw a breaking ball. [=a pitch that curves]

23 tennis : to win against (an opponent who is serving) [+ obj] The challenger broke the champion in the final set. = The challenger broke the champion's serve in the final set. [no obj] The challenger broke in the final set but the champion broke back to even the score.

24 [no obj] : to happen or develop ▪ For the team to succeed, everything has to break right for them. [=for the team to succeed, they have to be lucky] ▪ Things have been breaking [=going] well for the company in the past six months.

break a leg see [1]LEG

break a sweat see [2]SWEAT break away [phrasal verb] 1 : to get away from someone or something especially by using force or effort ▪ Large pieces of the rock ledge have broken away. [=broken free] — usually + from ▪ He broke away [=broke free/loose] from his captors and escaped. ▪ She broke away [=pulled away] from the other runners to win the race. — often used figuratively ▪ The company has broken away from the competition. ▪ young people breaking away from traditional values 2 : to separate or become separate from a larger group, country, etc. ▪ Three members of the band broke away and formed their own group. — usually + from ▪ a faction that has broken away from the main political party — see also BREAKAWAY break bread see [1]BREAD break camp see [1]CAMP

break cover see [2]COVER

break down [phrasal verb] 1 a of a machine : to stop working properly ▪ Our car broke down on the highway. ▪ This old motorcycle is constantly breaking down. — see also [1]BREAK 4 (above) b : to fail or stop usually in a complete and sudden way ▪ Negotiations have broken down. [=collapsed] ▪ The government's argument broke down completely when new evidence came to light. ▪ Their marriage had broken down [=failed], and there was nothing to do about it. 2 a : to become overwhelmed by strong emotions ▪ She broke down and started to cry. = She broke down in tears. — see also [1]BREAK 8c (above) b break down or break (someone) down or break down (someone) : to lose or cause (someone) to lose strength or the ability to resist or fight ▪ The prisoner finally broke down under intensive questioning. ▪ She finally broke down and got a cell phone. [=she bought a cell phone after resisting the desire to buy one for a long time] ▪ Intensive questioning finally broke the prisoner down. — see also [1]BREAK 8b (above) 3 break down or break (something) down or break down (something) a : to become separated or to separate (something) into simpler substances ▪ The foods you eat break down in the body's digestive system. ▪ The body's digestive system breaks food down. ▪ Water can be broken down into hydrogen and oxygen through electrolysis. = Water can break down into hydrogen and oxygen through electrolysis. b : to be able to be divided or to divide (something) into parts or groups ▪ The report breaks down into three sections. = The report is broken down into three sections. [=the report has three sections] ▪ The author has broken down the nation's history into three distinct periods. 4 break (something) down or break down (something) : to use force to push (something) to the ground ▪ break a door down ▪ break down a barrier — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They are working to break down legal barriers to integration. — see also BREAKDOWN break even : to take in as much money as you spend : to operate without either a loss or a profit ▪ After years of losing money the company is starting to break even and hopes to make a profit soon. — see also BREAK-EVEN

break faith with see FAITH

break free : to become able to move or escape by using force or effort ▪ The prisoner struggled to break free. : to get away from someone or something that holds or limits you — often + from or of ▪ She wanted to break free from the constraints of her middle-class life. ▪ an animal struggling to break free of a trap

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 96 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

break from [phrasal verb] break from (someone or something) : to end a relationship, connection, or agreement with (someone or something) ▪ She recently broke from [=broke with] the organization she helped found. ▪ breaking from [=breaking with] tradition/stereotypes break ground see [1]GROUND

break in [phrasal verb] 1 : to enter a house, building, etc., illegally ▪ Someone tried to break in while we were away. — see also BREAK INTO 1 (below), BREAK-IN 2 : to interrupt or disturb someone or something ▪ I was listening to my favorite radio program when a reporter broke in with news about a storm. ▪ We were having a chat when he rudely broke in (on it). — see also BREAK INTO 4 (below) 3 break in or break (someone) in or break in (someone) : to start or help (someone) to start a new activity, job, etc. ▪ Baseball was very different when he first broke in [=started playing] as a catcher in 1962. ▪ The job involves a wide variety of tasks, so we try to break new employees in gradually. ▪ The band is breaking in a new backup singer. 4 break (something) in or break in (something) a : to use (something, such as a new pair of shoes) for a period of time so that it becomes comfortable ▪ The shoes were tight when she first got them, so she broke them in by wearing them around the house for a few days. b : to operate (a new machine) carefully for a period of time until it is ready for regular use ▪ You shouldn't drive a new car too fast while you're breaking it in.

break into [phrasal verb] break into (something) 1 : to enter (a house, building, etc.) illegally and especially by using force ▪ Someone tried to break into our house while we were away. — see also BREAK IN 1 (above) 2 : to begin to do or have (something) suddenly ▪ She broke into tears. [=she suddenly began to cry] ▪ The audience broke into applause. [=the audience suddenly began applauding] ▪ His face broke into a smile. [=he suddenly smiled] ▪ The horse broke into a gallop. [=the horse suddenly began to gallop] ▪ She broke into song. [=she suddenly began to sing] 3 : to enter or get started in (something, such as a profession) ▪ I knew her when she was a young actress trying to break into show business. 4 : to interrupt (something) ▪ The network broke into the program with a special news report. — see also BREAK IN 2 (above)

break loose 1 : to suddenly become loose : to suddenly stop being attached to something ▪ One of the shutters broke loose during the storm. 2 : to get away from someone or something by using force or effort ▪ The prisoner broke loose [=broke free] and ran away. — often + from ▪ The prisoner broke loose from the guards. ▪ She wants to break loose from the constraints of her middle-class life. — see also all hell breaks loose at HELL

break new ground see [1]GROUND

break off [phrasal verb] 1 break off or break off (something) or break (something) off or break (something) off (something) : to become separated or cause (something) to become separated because of force or violence ▪ The piece of plaster broke off easily. ▪ The handle broke off when I accidentally dropped the cup. ▪ I accidentally broke the cup's handle off. = I accidentally broke the handle off the cup. ▪ I broke [=tore] a piece of bread off (the loaf) and ate it. 2 break off or break off (something) : to stop or end suddenly or cause (something) to stop or end suddenly ▪ The speaker broke off (speaking) in the middle of a sentence. ▪ At that point the recording suddenly breaks off. [=ends] ▪ The two countries have broken off diplomatic relations. ▪ The negotiations resumed soon after they were broken off. ▪ They had a fight and broke off [=called off] their engagement.

break open [phrasal verb] break open or break open (something) or break (something) open : to open or to cause (something) to open suddenly ▪ The pods broke open and the seeds scattered on the wind. ▪ The police broke open the door. ▪ The burglars broke open the locked safe. — see also [1]BREAK 3 (above)

break out [phrasal verb] 1 : to begin happening suddenly ▪ A fire broke out in the kitchen. ▪ A riot broke out in the prison. ▪ There is a danger that war could break out soon. 2 a : to suddenly begin to have sweat, a rash, etc., on your skin ▪ He broke out in a sweat. [=he began to sweat] ▪ Eating strawberries makes her break out in hives. = Eating strawberries makes her break out. b : to appear on the skin suddenly ▪ Sweat broke out on his forehead. ▪ A rash broke out on her skin. 3 : to escape from a prison, jail, etc. ▪ Six prisoners were caught attempting to break out. — often + of ▪ Six prisoners attempted to break out of the jail. — often used figuratively ▪ The team is trying to break out of its slump. [=is trying to end its slump] ▪ We need to break out of the financial rut we're in. 4 break (something) out or break out (something) : to take (something) from the place where it is stored so that it can be used ▪ We broke out the champagne to celebrate our victory. — see also BREAKOUT, OUTBREAK break rank see [1]RANK

break someone's heart see HEART

break step see [1]STEP break the back of see [1]BACK break the bank see [1]BANK break the ice see [1]ICE break the mold see [1]MOLD

break through [phrasal verb] break through or break through (something) 1 : to use force to get through (something, such as a barrier) ▪ The enemy attacked our defenses but they weren't able to break through. ▪ The enemy finally broke through our defenses and defeated us. ▪ The prisoners broke through the wall and escaped. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The organization is committed to breaking through the barriers of poverty. — see also [1]BREAK 6b (above) 2 of the sun : to shine through (clouds) ▪ The sun finally began to break through. = The sun finally began to break through the clouds.

break up [phrasal verb] 1 break up or break (something) up or break up (something) a : to separate into parts or pieces or cause (something) to separate into parts or pieces ▪ The asteroid broke up [=disintegrated] when it hit the Earth's atmosphere. ▪ Enzymes help break up protein molecules. ▪ break up a large estate b : to end or cause (something) to end ▪ The demonstration broke up when the police arrived. ▪ The party began to break up shortly after midnight. ▪ The police broke up the demonstration. ▪ He got hurt while trying to break up a fight. ▪ break up a terrorist organization 2 break up : to end a romantic relationship, marriage, etc. ▪ They dated for years but recently broke up. ▪ I hear that he and his wife have broken up. = I hear that their marriage has broken up. — often + with ▪ He broke up with his girlfriend. 3 break up or break (someone) up US, informal : to begin laughing or cause (someone) to begin laughing suddenly and in a way that is difficult to control ▪ I always break up [=crack up] when I hear that joke. ▪ Everyone broke up [=burst into laughter, busted out laughing] when they saw what he was wearing. ▪ That joke always breaks me up. [=cracks me up] 4 break (something) up or break up (something) a : to change the regular quality or appearance of (something) ▪ break up a dull routine ▪ A chimney breaks up the line of the level roof. ▪ break up a text with pictures — see also [1]BREAK 10 (above) b : to separate the parts of (something) so that it is not complete ▪ The seller was unwilling to break up the dining room set by selling one of the chairs. ▪ The owner broke up the team by trading many of the best players. 5 break up Brit, of a school : to come to the end of a period of instruction (such as a term) ▪ School broke up for the summer last Friday. — see also BREAKUP

break wind see [1]WIND

break with [phrasal verb] break with (someone or something) : to end a relationship, connection, or agreement with (someone or something) ▪ He broke with his former friends and colleagues when he decided to support the conservative candidate. ▪ a strong desire to break with tradition/the past ▪ A number of people have broken with the church over this issue.

[2]break noun, pl breaks

1 [count] a : a crack, hole, etc., that is caused by damage, injury, or pressure ▪ The tank is reinforced to prevent breaks and leaks. ▪ The break [=fracture] in her arm will take months to heal. ▪ Watch out for breaks [=(more commonly) cracks] in the ice. b : an opening or space in something ▪ There was a break [=gap] in the clouds. : an opening that makes it possible for someone or something to enter or pass through something ▪ There was a break in the hedge/fence. ▪ We waited for a break in the traffic.

2 [count] : something that causes a change or interruption ▪ She gets upset over any little break in her routine. [=anything that changes/interrupts her routine] ▪ The fields extend for miles without a break.

3 [count] a : a time when something stops ▪ It has rained for five days without a break. [=it has been raining constantly for five days] ▪ We chatted during a break in the game. ▪ It

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 97 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

rained all day. We waited for a break in the weather [=we waited for a time when the rain stopped], but it never came. b : a brief period of time during which someone stops an activity ▪ I'm tired. Let's take a break. [=let's stop doing whatever we are doing for a short period of time] ▪ It was a long drive, but we took lots of breaks. [=we briefly stopped driving many times] ▪ a bathroom break [=a brief period of time when you stop doing something in order to use a bathroom]; especially : a brief period of time during which a worker is allowed to rest, eat, etc., instead of working ▪ All employees are entitled to two breaks during the workday. ▪ We've been working all day without a break. ▪ It's only five minutes until break time. [=the time when workers are supposed to stop working for a brief period of time] — see also COFFEE BREAK, LUNCH BREAK c : a longer period of time when someone is not working or doing some other activity ▪ The long weekend provided her with a much-needed break (from her job). d : a time when many people are not working or going to school because of a holiday, vacation, etc. ▪ She went home to visit her parents during (the) winter break. ▪ What are your plans for (the) Thanksgiving break? — see also SPRING BREAK

4 [count] : a planned interruption in a radio or television program ▪ a break for a commercial = a commercial break ▪ We'll be back with more after the break. — see also STATION BREAK

5 [singular] : a sudden fast run : DASH ▪ The runner made a break for second base. [=the runner suddenly ran toward second base]; especially : a fast run by someone who is trying to escape ▪ The prisoner made a (sudden) break for the door. ▪ The prisoner made a break for it/freedom and got away. — see also JAILBREAK

6 [count] : a situation or event that is lucky or unlucky ▪ a series of unlucky/bad breaks ▪ Finding a hotel with a vacancy and low prices was a lucky/good break for us.; especially : a lucky situation or event that makes success possible ▪ She's still hoping to get her big/lucky break in show business. ▪ She got the breaks she needed to succeed. ▪ She gets all the breaks. [=she is very lucky] ▪ For the team to succeed, all the breaks will have to go their way. [=they will have to be lucky] ▪ (US) I just can't seem to catch a break. [=I am unlucky; I never have good luck] ✧ Informal expressions like those are the breaks and that's the breaks mean that something bad or unlucky should be thought of or accepted as the kind of thing that often happens to people. ▪ I'm disappointed that I didn't get the job, but those are the breaks. I'll keep trying.

7 [count] : something that helps a particular person or group ▪ Can you give me a break on the price? = Can I get a break on the price? [=can you lower the price for me?] ▪ People with small children are being given a tax break. [=are being required to pay less in taxes than other people]

8 [singular] a : a sudden ending of a relationship ▪ The crisis has caused a break (in diplomatic relations) between the two countries. ▪ If you don't want to keep dating him, you should just make a clean break [=you should end your relationship quickly] instead of dragging it out. ▪ She talked about leaving her husband for years, but she never found the courage to make the break. b : a change from what was done before — usually + with or from ▪ We need to make a clean break with the past. [=we need to stop doing things as they were done in the past and start doing them in a completely new way] ▪ The company has made a sharp break with tradition. ▪ Her latest novel marks a complete break with/from her earlier fiction. [=her latest novel is completely different from her earlier fiction]

9 [noncount] literary — used in the phrase break of day to refer to the time of morning when the sun can first be seen ▪ We left at (the) break of day. [=(more commonly) dawn, sunrise, daybreak]

10 [count] : a sharp change in the tone or pitch of someone's voice ▪ There was a break [=(more commonly) crack] in her voice as she said goodbye.

11 [noncount] sports : a curve in the path of a thrown or hit ball ▪ The batter was fooled completely by the break on the pitch. ▪ The putt had a lot of break. [=the putt curved a lot]

12 [count] tennis : the act defeating an opponent who is serving ▪ a service break

give me a break informal 1 — used to tell someone to stop bothering you or treating you unfairly ▪ "Aren't you finished yet?" "Give me a break! I only started 10 minutes ago!" 2 — used to say that you do not believe or are disgusted about what someone has said or done ▪ "He says he went Harvard." "Give me a break! I doubt he even graduated from high school!" ▪ He wants more money? Give me a break! [=it's ridiculous/outrageous that he wants more money] give (someone) a break : to stop treating (someone) in a strict or harsh way ▪ Don't criticize him so much. He's doing the best he can. Why don't you give him a break?

break•able /ˈbreɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : possible to break : able to be broken ▪ an easily breakable object ▪ a world record that may not be breakable — opposite UNBREAKABLE

– breakable noun, pl breakables [count] ▪ Breakables [=objects that can be broken easily; fragile objects] should be handled with care.

break•age /ˈbreɪkɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es : the act of breaking or being broken [noncount] The cups are very fragile and are prone to breakage. [=they break easily] ▪ The pots are transported carefully to reduce the risk of breakage. ▪ breakage of glass [count] The pots are transported carefully to reduce the number of breakages.

break•away /ˈbreɪkəˌweɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : having become separate from a larger group, country, etc. : having broken away ▪ A breakaway faction formed a new party. ▪ a breakaway republic/province — see also break away at [1]BREAK break dancing noun [noncount] : a type of dancing in which a dancer performs very athletic movements that involve touching the ground with various parts of the body (such as the head or back)

– break dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

break•down /ˈbreɪkˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs

1 : a failure of a machine to function : an occurrence in which a machine (such as a car) stops working [count] We had a breakdown on the highway. [=our car broke down on the highway; our car stopped working on the highway] ▪ The factory has had frequent equipment breakdowns. [noncount] Frequent equipment breakdown [=(more commonly) failure] has been a problem at the factory.

2 a [count] : the failure of a relationship or of an effort to discuss something ▪ There has been a breakdown of/in negotiations. [=negotiations have broken down; negotiations have failed] ▪ Both sides are to blame for the breakdown in communication. ▪ The irretrievable breakdown of a marriage can be grounds for divorce. b : a failure that prevents a system from working properly [count] trying to prevent a breakdown of the health-care system [noncount] trying to prevent breakdown of the health-care system ▪ Analysts predict that the country is headed for economic breakdown. [=meltdown]

3 [count] : a sudden failure of mental or physical health that makes someone unable to live normally ▪ He suffered/had a breakdown after his wife died. ▪ a total physical/mental breakdown [=collapse] — see also NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

4 : the process or result of showing the different parts of something in order to understand it more clearly [count] Doing/Providing a breakdown of the statistics into categories will take time. ▪ I want a detailed breakdown of the statistics into categories. [noncount] The library's database enables breakdown by title, author, and genre.

5 [noncount] : the process or result of separating a substance into simpler parts ▪ the breakdown of water into hydrogen and oxygen ▪ observing cell/tissue/protein breakdown ▪ a substance that resists breakdown — see also break down at [1]BREAK breakdown lane noun, pl ~ lanes [count] US : an area along the side of a highway where vehicles are able to stop for an emergency breakdown truck or breakdown lorry noun, pl ~ trucks or ~ lorries [count] Brit : TOW TRUCK break•er /ˈbreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone or something that breaks something ▪ a breaker of records = a record-breaker ▪ a rule breaker — see also CIRCUIT BREAKER, ICEBREAKER

2 : a wave that is curling over and falling onto the shore, rocks, etc. : a breaking wave — usually plural ▪ We could hear the breakers crashing on the shore.

break–even /ˈbreɪkˈiːvən/ adj, always used before a noun : having equal costs and income ▪ After years of losing money the company has finally reached the break-even point [=the point at which the company earns as much as it spends] and we hope to make a profit soon. — see also break even at [1]BREAK

[1]break•fast /ˈbrɛkfəst/ noun, pl -fasts : the first meal of the day [count] a big/good/hearty breakfast ▪ a working/busi-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 98 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

ness breakfast [=a breakfast during which you talk with someone about business matters] ▪ (Brit) a cooked breakfast [=a breakfast that includes cooked foods, such as eggs and meat] [noncount] I had pancakes for breakfast. ▪ Did you have/eat breakfast before you left? ▪ We relaxed/chatted/dawdled over breakfast. — often used before another noun ▪ breakfast cereals ▪ They sat at the breakfast table. — see also BED-AND-BREAKFAST, CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

a dog's breakfast see [1]DOG

[2]breakfast verb -fasts; -fast•ed; -fast•ing [no obj] : to eat breakfast ▪ We breakfasted on cereal and toast. ▪ She likes to breakfast early.

break–in /ˈbreɪkˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : the act or crime of illegally entering a house, building, etc., especially by using force ▪ There was an attempted break-in at our house while we were away. — see also break in at [1]BREAK breaking and entering noun [noncount] law : the crime of illegally entering a house, building, etc., especially by using force ▪ The thief was arrested and charged with breaking and entering.

breaking point noun

the breaking point (US) or Brit breaking point 1 : the time when a person can no longer accept or deal with a situation because of too much pressure or stress ▪ My nerves were at the breaking point. = I had just about reached the breaking point. ▪ My boss is pushing me to the breaking point. 2 : the time when a situation has become so difficult, dangerous, etc., that it cannot continue ▪ Tensions between the two groups had reached the breaking point.

break•neck /ˈbreɪkˈnɛk/ adj, always used before a noun : very fast : dangerously fast ▪ driving at breakneck speed

[1]break•out /ˈbreɪkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : an escape from a prison, jail, etc. — used especially to describe an escape by a group of prisoners ▪ Police report that three people were killed during an attempted breakout (from the prison). ▪ a prison breakout — see also break out at [1]BREAK

[2]breakout adj, always used before a noun, US : having, causing, or marked by sudden and great success that comes usually after a time without much success ▪ The company had a breakout year last year, tripling its profits from the previous year. ▪ an actor's breakout role [=the role that makes an actor famous and successful] break•through /ˈbreɪkˌθruː/ noun, pl - throughs [count]

1 : a sudden increase in knowledge, understanding, etc. : an important discovery that happens after trying for a long time to understand or explain something ▪ Researchers say they have made/achieved a major breakthrough in cancer treatment. ▪ a scientific breakthrough ▪ The police have announced a breakthrough in the murder case. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ breakthrough ideas/products

2 : a person's first important success ▪ This job could be the breakthrough she's been waiting for. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ a breakthrough performance/role/album — see also break through at [1]BREAK

break•up /ˈbreɪkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups

1 : the end of a relationship, marriage, etc. [count] Money problems often lead to marital breakups. ▪ She's just gone through a bad/painful breakup with her boyfriend. [noncount] He began drinking heavily following the breakup of his marriage. ▪ a couple heading for marital breakup

2 [noncount] : the separation of something into smaller parts or pieces ▪ What caused the breakup of the Roman Empire? ▪ the breakup of a monopoly ▪ the breakup of an asteroid as it hits the Earth's atmosphere — see also break up at [1]BREAK break•wa•ter /ˈbreɪkˌwɑːtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a wall that is built out into the sea to protect a harbor or beach from the force of waves bream /ˈbrɪm, ˈbriːm/ noun, pl bream [count, noncount] : a kind of fish that people catch for food

[1]breast /ˈbrɛst/ noun, pl breasts

1 [count] : either one of the two soft parts on a woman's chest that produce milk when she has a baby — often used before another noun ▪ breast cancer ▪ breast tissue/milk — see picture at HUMAN

2 [count] a old-fashioned + literary : the front part of a person's body between the neck and the stomach : CHEST ▪ She clasped the child to her breast. [=bosom] ▪ My breast heaved with emotion. b literary : the chest thought of as the place where emotions are felt ▪ Dark thoughts lurked within his breast. [=heart]

3 a [count] : the front part of a bird's body below the neck ▪ a bird with an orange breast — see picture at BIRD b : meat from the front part of a bird's or animal's body [noncount] I ordered the grilled breast of chicken. ▪ a few slices of turkey breast ▪ breast of lamb/veal [count] Do you prefer a breast or a leg?

4 [count] : the part of a piece of clothing that covers a person's chest ▪ the breast of a jacket — usually used before another noun ▪ He kept a watch in his breast pocket.

make a clean breast of : to speak openly and honestly about (something that you have previously lied about or kept secret) ▪ I decided to make a clean breast of it/things and admit that I was to blame.

– breast•ed /ˈbrɛstəd/ adj — used in combination ▪ a red-breasted bird [=a bird with a red breast] ▪ bare-breasted women — see also DOUBLE-BREASTED, SINGLE-BREASTED

[2]breast verb breasts; breast•ed; breast•ing [+ obj] formal : to push against or move through (something) with your chest forward ▪ I was at the race's finish line to see the winner breast the tape. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a boat breasting the waves breast•bone /ˈbrɛstˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : a flat, narrow bone in the middle of the chest to which the ribs are connected — called also sternum; see picture at HUMAN breast–feed /ˈbrɛstˌfiːd/ verb -feeds; -fed /-ˌfɛd/; -feed•ing : to feed a baby from a mother's breast [no obj] mothers who breast-feed [+ obj] mothers who breast-feed [=nurse, suckle] their infants ▪ Only one of her children was breast-fed. — compare BOTTLE-FEED

breast•plate /ˈbrɛstˌpleɪt/ noun, pl -plates [count] : a piece of metal that covers a person's chest and that was part of the protective clothing (called armor) that soldiers wore in the past breast•stroke /ˈbrɛstˌstroʊk/ noun [singular] : a way of swimming in which the swimmer's face is in the water and the arms move in a large motion from front to back as the feet kick outward; also : a race in which the swimmers do the breaststroke ▪ I'll be competing in the 50-meter breaststroke.

breath /ˈbrɛθ/ noun, pl breaths

1 [noncount] : the air that you take into your lungs and send out from your lungs when you breathe : air that is inhaled and exhaled in breathing ▪ gum that freshens your breath ▪ His breath smells like garlic. = He has garlic breath. ▪ It's so cold outside that I can see my breath. ▪ We could smell the alcohol on his breath. [=his breath smelled of alcohol] ▪ He has bad breath. [=breath that smells unpleasant] — sometimes used before another noun ▪ Would you like a breath mint? [=a candy used to make breath smell better] — see also BREATH TEST

2 a [noncount] : the ability to breathe freely ▪ He was fighting/struggling for breath. [=he was having a lot of difficulty breathing] ▪ My mad dash for the bus left me gasping for breath. ✧ To catch your breath or (Brit) get your breath back is to rest until you are able to breathe normally. ▪ Give me a moment to catch my breath. ✧ If you are out of breath, you are breathing very hard because you have been running or doing hard physical work. ▪ I'm a little out of breath from walking up all those stairs. ✧ Someone who is short of breath or who has shortness of breath has difficulty breathing in enough air especially because of a physical or medical condition. ▪ The patient complains that he's short of breath. ▪ The doctor asked if I had been experiencing shortness of breath lately. b [count] : an amount of air that you take into your lungs ▪ I took/drew a long breath before speaking again. ▪ The patient was only able to take shallow breaths. [=only able to take in small amounts of air] ▪ Take a deep breath. [=breathe deeply; take a lot of air into your lungs] ▪ (US) I've barely had time to (stop and/to) take a breath since they got here. = (Brit) I've barely had time to draw breath since they got here. [=I have not been able to pause and rest] ▪ She recited the whole list in one breath. [=she recited it without stopping to breathe] ▪ her last/dying breath [=the breath that she took just before she died] ✧ If you say two different things in the same breath, or if you say one thing and then something else in the next breath, it means that you say these things very close together. ▪ It's unusual to hear "promotions" mentioned in the same breath as "layoffs." ▪ She praises their work, then criticizes them in the next breath. [=then immediately criticizes them] ✧ If someone says that you are wasting your breath or tells you to save your breath or to not waste your breath, it means that the things you say will not make someone behave or think differently and that you should not

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 99 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b bother to try. ▪ He begged her to go with him, but she told him he was wasting his breath. ▪ You're not going to get him to stop drinking, so don't waste your breath.

B

3 [count] : a slight breeze — usually singular ▪ a hot day with scarcely a breath of wind

4 [singular] : a very small amount of something ▪ a faint breath [=hint] of scandal ▪ There was never even the slightest breath [=suggestion] of suspicion.

a breath of fresh air 1 : clean or cool outside air after you have been in a building for a period of time ▪ We went outside to get a breath of fresh air. 2 : someone or something that is different in a way that is interesting, exciting, enjoyable, etc. ▪ His unusual outlook is a breath of fresh air. ▪ After dealing for so long with a difficult boss, our new supervisor is a breath of fresh air.

hold your breath 1 : to keep the air that you have breathed in your lungs for a short time instead of breathing out ▪ How long can you hold your breath? 2 informal — used to say that you do not believe that something will happen soon or at all ▪ He says he'll do it, but I'm not holding my breath. [=I doubt he will do it] ▪ "She promised to pay me tomorrow." "Well, don't hold your breath." [=do not expect her to pay you tomorrow] take your breath away ✧ Something that takes your breath away is extremely exciting, beautiful, or surprising. ▪ The acrobatic skill of the dancers took my breath away.

under your breath ✧ If you say something under your breath, you say it quietly so that it is difficult to hear. ▪ We heard her mutter something under her breath.

with bated breath see BATED

Breath•a•lyz•er (chiefly US) or Brit Breath•a•lys•er /ˈbrɛθəˌlaɪzə/ trademark — used for a device that police use to test someone's breath in order to measure how much alcohol is in that person's blood breathe /ˈbri:ð/ verb breathes; breathed; breath•ing

1 : to move air into and out of your lungs : to inhale and exhale [no obj] Relax and breathe deeply. ▪ He was breathing hard from running. ▪ The patient suddenly stopped breathing. ▪ I can hardly breathe with all this smoke. [+ obj] He wants to live where he can breathe clean/fresh air.

2 a : to send (something) out from your lungs through your mouth or nose [+ obj] a dragon that breathes fire — often + out ▪ breathing out [=exhaling] carbon dioxide [no obj] He breathed [=blew] on the glass and wiped it clean. — often + out ▪ Breathe out through your nose. b : to take (something) into your lungs through your mouth or nose [+ obj] You shouldn't be breathing [=inhaling] those fumes. ▪ People usually contract the virus by breathing contaminated air. — often + in ▪ You shouldn't be breathing in those fumes. [no obj] Breathe deeply and then exhale. — usually + in ▪ Breathe in through your nose.

3 [no obj] : to be alive ▪ I'll never give up as long as I'm still breathing. ▪ a living, breathing human being

4 [no obj] : to pause and rest before continuing ▪ We had barely stopped to breathe before we were on the go again.

5 [+ obj] : to bring (something) into a thing ▪ City leaders hope the project will breathe vitality/energy into the downtown. ▪ Their leadership breathed new life into the movement. [=gave new energy to the movement]

6 [no obj] : to feel able to think or act freely ▪ I need some room to breathe. = I need some breathing room/space.

7 [no obj] a : to allow air to pass through ▪ a fabric that breathes b : to be cooled or refreshed by air that passes through clothing ▪ Cotton clothing lets your skin breathe.

8 [+ obj] : to say (something) very quietly ▪ "It's beautiful," she breathed. — usually used in the phrase breathe a word ▪ Don't breathe a word of/about this to anyone! [=do not say anything about this to anyone]

9 [no obj] of wine : to develop a better flavor because of contact with air ▪ Open the bottle a few minutes before you want to drink it so that the wine can breathe.

breathe a sigh of relief : to relax because something you have been worrying about is not a problem or danger anymore : to feel relieved ▪ We all breathed a sigh of relief when we heard that they were safe.

breathe down someone's neck 1 : to chase after someone closely ▪ The cops were breathing down our necks. 2 : to watch someone carefully and constantly ▪ His parents are always breathing down his neck.

breathe easy or breathe easier or breathe easily or breathe freely : to feel relief from pressure, danger, etc. ▪ I'll breathe easier once this whole ordeal is over. ▪ You can breathe easy knowing that your children are safe.

breathe your last see [4]LAST live and breathe ✧ If you live and breathe something, you spend a great deal of time, thought, or effort on that thing. ▪ She lives and breathes music. ▪ They live and breathe their work.

– breath•able /ˈbri:ðəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a breathable fabric [=a fabric that allows air to pass through] – breathing noun [noncount] ▪ Her breathing is heavy/shallow/labored. — often used before another noun ▪ We'll begin with some breathing exercises. ▪ He has breathing problems. — see also heavy breathing at [1]HEAVY breath•er /ˈbri:ðə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a pause for rest : BREAK ▪ Let's take a breather. ▪ He decided to give them a breather.

2 : someone or something that breathes in a specified way ▪ a mouth breather [=a person who breathes through the mouth rather than through the nose]

breath•less /ˈbrɛθləs/ adj

1 : unable to take enough air into your lungs : breathing very hard because you are trying to get more air ▪ The workout left me breathless. [=(more commonly) out of breath]

2 a : full of emotion ▪ They were breathless with anticipation. ▪ I watched them in breathless wonder. ▪ She describes the scene in breathless prose. b : very fast ▪ He drove at a breathless pace. c : full of activity ▪ a breathless schedule – breath•less•ly adv ▪ The hike left me panting breathlessly. ▪ He breathlessly reported every detail of the accident.

– breath•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She complained of breathlessness. [=(more commonly) shortness of breath]

breath•tak•ing /ˈbrɛθˌteɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very exciting : THRILLING ▪ The train raced past with breathtaking speed. ▪ They gave a breathtaking performance. ▪ The view of the mountains was breathtaking. ▪ a scene of breathtaking beauty

2 : very great or surprising ▪ his breathtaking ignorance ▪ The scope of the error is breathtaking.

– breath•tak•ing•ly adv ▪ a breathtakingly beautiful view breath test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : a test that is used by the police to measure how much alcohol a person has drunk

breathy /ˈbrɛθi/ adj breath•i•er; -est : spoken or sung with the sound of a person's breath ▪ a breathy whisper ▪ the singer's breathy voice/vocals – breath•i•ly /ˈbrɛθəli/ adv ▪ singing breathily – breath•i•ness /ˈbrɛθinəs/ noun [noncount]

bred past tense and past participle of [1]BREED

breech birth /ˈbri:ʧ-/ noun, pl ~ births [count] : a birth in which a baby is born with the feet or buttocks coming out of the mother first instead of the head — called also breech delivery

breech•es /ˈbrɪʧəz/ noun [plural] : short pants that are fastened at or just below the knee ▪ riding breeches ✧ Except for its modern use to describe pants that people wear when riding horses, breeches is an old-fashioned word. — compare BRITCHES

[1]breed /ˈbri:d/ verb breeds; bred /ˈbrɛd/; breed•ing

1 [+ obj] : to keep and take care of animals or plants in order to produce more animals or plants of a particular kind ▪ He got into the business of breeding cattle. ▪ The plants are bred to resist disease and drought. ▪ dogs bred for hunting = dogs bred as hunters = dogs bred to hunt ▪ wild horses bred to [=mated to] domestic horses [=wild horses and domestic horses brought together to produce horses that have qualities of both]

2 [no obj] : to produce young animals, birds, etc. : to produce offspring by sexual reproduction ▪ low-lying areas where mosquitoes breed [=reproduce]

3 [+ obj] : to take care of and teach (a child who is growing up) ▪ She believes that we are breeding a generation of children who know nothing about the history of their country. — usually used as (be) bred ▪ children who are bred [=(more commonly) raised, brought up] in conditions of poverty and crime — see also BREEDING, ILL-BRED, WELL-BRED

4 [+ obj] : to cause or lead to (something) ▪ Despair often breeds violence. ▪ scandals that breed cynicism — see also familiarity breeds contempt at FAMILIARITY bred in the bone — used to describe a personal quality that is a deep or basic part of someone's nature ▪ His love of sports is bred in the bone. [=ingrained] — often used as bred-in-the-bone before another noun ▪ He is a bred-in-the-bone conservative.

– breed•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ cattle/dog breeders [=people who breed cattle/dogs]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 100 SESS: 122 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 11:55:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

[2]breed noun, pl breeds [count]
1 : a particular kind of dog, cat, horse, etc. : a kind of animal that has been produced by breeding ▪ The collie is a working breed. ▪ exotic breeds of cats ▪ different breeds of cattle
2 : a kind of person ▪ a new/different breed of athlete ▪ People like them are a dying breed. [=there are not many people like them anymore] ▪ Back then, stay-at-home dads were a rare breed. [=there were not many stay-at-home dads] — see also HALF-BREED breeding noun [noncount]

1 : the process by which young animals, birds, etc., are produced by their parents — often used before another noun ▪ the breeding season
2 : the activity of keeping and caring for animals or plants in order to produce more animals or plants of a particular kind ▪ She became involved in the breeding of sled dogs. ▪ horse/dog/plant breeding — often used before another noun ▪ a breeding program
3 somewhat old-fashioned : the way a person was taught in childhood to behave ▪ His politeness shows good breeding. : good manners that come from being raised correctly ▪ a person who lacks breeding breeding ground noun, pl ~ grounds [count]

1 : a place where animals go to breed ▪ a breeding ground for seals
2 : a place or situation that helps or allows something to grow, develop, etc. ▪ The Gulf of Mexico is a breeding ground for hurricanes. ▪ The company's casual atmosphere serves as a breeding ground for innovation.

[1]breeze /ˈbri:z/ noun, pl breez•es
1 [count] : a gentle wind ▪ a light/gentle/cool breeze ▪ The flag fluttered in the breeze.
2 [singular] informal : something that is easy to do ▪ The test was a breeze.
shoot the breeze see [1]SHOOT

[2]breeze verb breezes; breezed; breez•ing [no obj]
1 : to move quickly and confidently ▪ Look who just breezed in! ▪ He breezed past/by us without so much as a nod.
2 : to easily succeed at something ▪ She breezed through the test. ▪ The team breezed to victory. [=the team won easily]

breeze–block noun, pl -blocks [count] Brit : CINDER BLOCK breeze•way /ˈbri:zˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] US : a narrow structure with a roof and no walls that connects two buildings (such as a house and garage) breezy /ˈbri:zi/ adj breez•i•er; -est

1 : having strong winds : WINDY ▪ a breezy day ▪ a breezy beach
2 : informal and lively ▪ a breezy essay ▪ I enjoy the author's breezy style.
3 : relaxed in way that shows you are not concerned about or interested in something ▪ She listened to their complaints with breezy indifference.
– breez•i•ly /ˈbri:zəli/ adv ▪ He breezily dismissed our fears.

breth•ren /ˈbrɛðrən/ plural of BROTHER — used especially to begin to talk in a formal way to a group of people or to refer to the members of a particular group ▪ Welcome, brethren. ▪ our church brethren

brev•i•ty /ˈbrɛvəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality of being brief: such as a : the use of few words to say something ▪ I've omitted certain passages for the sake of brevity. [=because I want to be brief] ▪ The book's major flaw is its brevity. ▪ "Brevity is the soul of wit . . ." —Shakespeare, Hamlet (1600) b : the quality or fact of lasting only for a short period of time ▪ the brevity of youth

[1]brew /ˈbru:/ verb brews; brewed; brew•ing
1 : to make (beer, ale, etc.) [+ obj] They brew the beer on the premises. ▪ The restaurant also brews its own ginger ale and root beer. [no obj] They've been brewing in the new brewery since March. ▪ brewing vats ▪ the brewing process
2 : to make (coffee, tea, etc.) [+ obj] I'll brew another pot of tea. — often + up ▪ She brewed up some coffee while I cooked the bacon and eggs. [no obj] The coffee is brewing. [=the coffee is being brewed]
3 [no obj] : to start to form ▪ It feels like there's a storm brewing. ▪ Trouble is brewing.
– brew•er /ˈbru:wə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a brewer of fine ales

[2]brew noun, pl brews
1 chiefly US : a drink (such as beer or ale) that is made by brewing [noncount] a bottle of brew [count] I'll buy you a brew. ▪ a manufacturer of specialty brews ✧ A home brew is beer or ale that you make at home. ▪ Would you like to try one of my home brews?
2 a [noncount] US : COFFEE ▪ a perfect cup of brew b [count] Brit : a cup of tea ▪ time for a quick brew
3 [count] : a mixture of different things — usually singular ▪ a strange brew of jazz, classical, and bluegrass music ▪ Anger and desperation make for a dangerous brew. — see also WITCHES' BREW brew•ery /ˈbru:wəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count]

1 : a place where beer is made
2 : a company that makes beer

[1]bri•ar also bri•er /ˈbrajə/ noun, pl -ars also -ers [count] : a wild plant that has many sharp points (called thorns) on its branches ▪ a thicket of briars — compare [2]BRIAR

[2]briar or brier noun, pl -ars or -ers [count] : a tobacco pipe that is made from the root of a European plant — called also briar pipe — compare [1]BRIAR

[1]bribe /ˈbraɪb/ noun, pl bribes [count] : something valuable (such as money) that is given in order to get someone to do something ▪ I offered the children a bribe for finishing their homework. ✧ Usually a bribe is used to get someone to do something illegal or dishonest. ▪ a police officer accused of taking/accepting bribes ▪ They received more than $10,000 in bribes.

[2]bribe verb bribes; bribed; brib•ing [+ obj] : to try to get someone to do something by giving or promising something valuable (such as money) : to give or offer a bribe to (someone) ▪ She was arrested for attempting to bribe a judge. ▪ They bribed him to keep quiet about the incident. ▪ We bribed the children with candy.

brib•ery /ˈbraɪbəri/ noun [noncount] : the act or crime of giving or accepting a bribe ▪ They were arrested on charges of bribery. — often used before another noun ▪ a bribery charge/conviction bric–a–brac /ˈbrɪkəˌbræk/ noun [noncount] : small objects that are used for decoration and are not usually valuable ▪ shelves full of bric-a-brac [=knickknacks]

[1]brick /ˈbrɪk/ noun, pl bricks
1 a [count] : a small, hard block of baked clay that is used to build structures (such as houses) and sometimes to make streets, paths, etc. ▪ a pile of bricks b [noncount] : blocks of baked clay used as building material ▪ a house made of brick ▪ Most of the buildings in the town are (made of) brick. — often used before another noun ▪ a brick wall/building/oven ▪ a brick sidewalk
2 [count] a : a block of something ▪ a brick of ice cream ▪ a glass brick b Brit : a child's toy block ▪ children playing with wooden bricks
3 [count] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a helpful or dependable person ▪ He has been an absolute brick.
bricks and mortar Brit : houses and other buildings especially when people consider buying them because of their possible future value ▪ Market uncertainties have been driving the rush to invest in bricks and mortar. — see also BRICK-AND-MORTAR drop a brick see [2]DROP like a ton of bricks informal : very hard or severely ▪ The loss of his job hit him like a ton of bricks. [=hit him very hard; made him very upset, unhappy, etc.] ▪ Our boss came down on us like a ton of bricks [=got very angry at us] when he found out we had missed the meeting.

[2]brick verb bricks; bricked; brick•ing
brick up [phrasal verb] brick (something) up or brick up (something) : to cover or block (something) with bricks ▪ They bricked up the windows.

brick–and–mortar or bricks–and–mortar adj — used to describe a traditional store or business that is in a building instead of on the Internet ▪ They have a Web site as well as several brick-and-mortar stores. — see also bricks and mortar at [1]BRICK brick•bat /ˈbrɪkˌbæt/ noun, pl -bats [count] : a criticism or rude comment ▪ The candidates resorted to hurling brickbats at one another. ▪ For all the brickbats it has received, it's a good plan.

brick•lay•er /ˈbrɪkˌlejə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to build things with bricks
– brick•lay•ing /ˈbrɪkˌlejɪŋ/ noun [noncount] brick red noun [noncount] : a brownish-red color — see color picture on page C3

– brick–red adj ▪ a brick-red scarf

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 101 SESS: 114 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

brick•work /ˈbrɪkˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : the part of something that is made with bricks ▪ the building's decorative brickwork ▪ Some of the brickwork is in need of repair.

brid•al /ˈbraɪdl/ adj : of or relating to a bride or a wedding ▪ a bridal shop/gown ▪ the bridal party [=the bride and groom and the people who stand with them during the wedding ceremony] ▪ the hotel's bridal suite [=a special set of rooms for a couple who have just been married] ▪ hosting a bridal shower [=a party for a woman who is about to be married] bride /ˈbraɪd/ noun, pl brides [count] : a woman who has just married or is about to be married ▪ a new bride ▪ the mother of the bride — compare GROOM bride•groom /ˈbraɪdˌgru:m, ˈbraɪdˌgrʊm/ noun, pl -grooms [count] : [1]GROOM 1 ▪ the bride and bridegroom brides•maid /ˈbraɪdzˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] : a female friend or relative who helps a bride at her wedding ▪ I was a bridesmaid in my sister's wedding. — compare BEST MAN, GROOMSMAN, MAID OF HONOR, MATRON OF HONOR bride–to–be noun, pl brides–to–be [count] : a woman who is going to be married soon

[1]bridge /ˈbrɪʤ/ noun, pl bridg•es [count]
1 : a structure built over something (such as a river) so that people or vehicles can get across ▪ a bridge connecting the island to the mainland ▪ the Brooklyn Bridge ▪ a railroad bridge [=a bridge for trains] — see also DRAWBRIDGE, FOOTBRIDGE, SUSPENSION BRIDGE
2 : something that joins or connects different people or things ▪ Her work serves as a bridge between the past and the present. ▪ They hope to build a bridge between the two cultures. [=they hope to help the people in the two cultures understand each other]
3 : the place on a ship where the ship is steered
4 a : the upper part of the nose ▪ He broke the bridge of his nose. b : the part of a pair of eyeglasses that rests on a person's nose
5 : the part of a guitar, violin, or similar musical instrument that raises the strings away from the surface
6 : part of a song that connects one section to the next section 7 : a false tooth or row of false teeth that fits between two real teeth burn your bridges see [1]BURN cross that bridge when you come to it ✧ If you say you will cross that bridge when you come to it, you mean that you will not worry about a possible problem until it actually happens. ▪ I don't know how we'll pay the bills if you quit your job, but we'll cross that bridge when we come to it.
water under the bridge see WATER
– compare [3]BRIDGE

[2]bridge verb bridges; bridged; bridg•ing [+ obj] : to make a bridge over or across (something) — usually used figuratively ▪ We hope to bridge the divisions between the two groups. — often used in the phrase bridge the gap ▪ styles that bridge the gap between fashion and practicality ▪ a book that attempts to bridge the generation gap

[3]bridge noun [noncount] : a card game for four players in two teams — compare [1]BRIDGE bridge•head /ˈbrɪʤˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : an area near the end of a bridge that is controlled by an army; also : any area that an army takes from an enemy and from which it can move forward to make an attack — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company views the project as a bridgehead into the Asian market.

bridge loan noun, pl ~ loans [count] chiefly US : money that a bank lends you for a short period of time until you receive the money that you are getting from another source (such as from selling your house) — called also (Brit) bridging loan

[1]bri•dle /ˈbraɪdl/ noun, pl bri•dles [count] : a device that fits on a horse's head and that is used for guiding and controlling the horse — see picture at HORSE

[2]bridle verb bridles; bri•dled; bri•dling
1 [+ obj] : to put a bridle on (a horse) — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was forced to bridle her anger.
2 [no obj] : to react in an angry way — usually + at ▪ He bridled at their criticism of his methods.

bridle path noun, pl ~ paths [count] : a path that is used for riding horses

[1]brief /ˈbri:f/ adj brief•er; -est
1 : lasting only a short period of time ▪ The meeting will be brief. ▪ She worked there for only a brief period (of time) in the late 1980s. ▪ They stopped by for a brief [=quick] visit.
2 : using only a few words ▪ I promise to be brief. [=I promise to say what I need to say quickly] ▪ She gave a brief [=concise] description/summary/history of the problem. ▪ The essay is brief but thorough enough. ▪ I'd like to say a brief word [=a few words] about the people who made this event possible. ▪ a few brief words of caution/praise ▪ I'd like to have a brief word with you. [=I would like to have a short conversation with you] — see also in brief at [2]BRIEF
3 of clothing : covering less of the body than is usual ▪ brief skirts/shorts ▪ a brief bikini

[2]brief noun, pl briefs
1 [count] : a brief statement or report ▪ a news brief
2 [count] US, law : a document that states the facts a lawyer plans to use in a court case ▪ a legal brief
3 [count] chiefly Brit : instructions that explain what a person is supposed to do ▪ Her brief is to manage the company's sales department.
4 briefs [plural] : short underpants for men, women, or children that fit close to the body ▪ a pair of briefs — see color picture on page C13; compare BOXER SHORTS
5 [count] Brit, informal : LAWYER ▪ the defendant's brief in brief : in a few words ▪ Here is today's news in brief. [=here is a brief report of today's news] ▪ Their conclusion, in brief, is that we need more funding.

[3]brief verb briefs; briefed; brief•ing [+ obj] : to give information or instructions to (someone) ▪ The captain briefed the crew on the new safety procedures. ▪ The President has been briefed by his advisers. — compare DEBRIEF
– brie ng noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ a military briefing

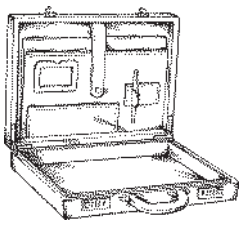
brief•case /ˈbri:fˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cas•es [count] : a flat case that is used for carrying papers or books



briefcase

brief•ly /ˈbri:fli/ adv
1 [more ~; most ~] : in only a few words : in a brief way ▪ Several important issues are only briefly mentioned. ▪ Please briefly describe/summarize your experience. ▪ The party, to put it briefly, was a disaster. = Briefly, the party was a disaster.
2 : for a short period of time ▪ They were briefly married. ▪ We briefly considered canceling the trip.

brier variant spelling of [1]BRIAR

[1]brig /ˈbrɪg/ noun, pl brigs [count] : a ship with square sails and two masts — compare [2]BRIG

[2]brig noun, pl brigs [count] : a jail or prison of the U.S. Navy; especially : one that is on a ship — compare [1]BRIG

bri•gade /brɪˈgeɪd/ noun, pl -gades [count]
1 : a large group of soldiers that is part of an army ✧ A brigade is part of a division and is made up of regiments.
2 a : a group of people organized to act together ▪ a fire brigade b often disapproving : a group of people who have the same beliefs ▪ The morality brigade insists that the book be censored.

brig•a•dier /ˌbrɪgəˈdiɚ/ noun, pl -diers [count] : a British army officer who is in charge of a brigade; also : the rank of a brigadier brigadier general noun, pl ~ -rals [count] : an officer in the U.S. Army, Air Force, or Marine Corps who is ranked above a colonel; also : the rank of a brigadier general

brig•and /ˈbrɪgənd/ noun, pl -ands [count] formal + old-fashioned : a robber who travels with others in a group : BANDIT bright /ˈbraɪt/ adj bright•er; -est

1 : producing a lot of light ▪ a bright light ▪ The lighting was too bright. : filled with light ▪ a bright room with lots of windows ▪ It was a bright, sunny day.
2 : having a very light and strong color ▪ The room was decorated in bright colors. ▪ a bright red ▪ bright blue eyes
3 a : able to learn things quickly : INTELLIGENT — used especially to describe a young person ▪ a bright child ▪ a bright young journalist b : showing intelligence : CLEVER ▪ a bright idea — often used in a joking or ironic way to describe a foolish idea, action, etc. ▪ Walking on the railroad bridge wasn't too bright. ▪ Who's bright idea was it to leave the refrigerator open?
4 : happy and lively ▪ a bright smile
5 : providing a reason for hope ▪ a young actress with a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 102 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

bright [=promising] future ▪ Brighter days are ahead. [=things will improve in the future] ▪ The prospects for the team are bright. [=good] bright and early : very early ▪ We will be getting up bright and early in the morning.

bright-eyed and bushy-tailed informal : happy and full of energy ▪ He arrived all bright-eyed and bushy-tailed.

bright spot informal : a good thing that occurs during a bad or difficult time ▪ Car sales were one of the few bright spots for the economy last year.

on the bright side — used to refer to the good part of something that is mostly bad ▪ (US) He lost the race, but on the bright side, he didn't get hurt. ▪ Your cat is very sick right now, but try to look on the bright side. She can be treated with medicine.

– bright•ly adv ▪ a candle glowing brightly ▪ a brightly lit room ▪ brightly colored toys ▪ She smiled brightly [=cheerfully] at her daughter. – bright•ness noun [noncount] ▪ You can adjust the light's brightness.

bright•en /ˈbraɪtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [+ obj] : to add more light to (something) ▪ He brightened the picture on the television.

2 a [+ obj] : to make (something) more colorful or cheerful ▪ Flowers can brighten any room. ▪ The good news brightened her mood. — often + up ▪ She always brightens up a party. ▪ You really brightened up my day. b [no obj] : to become brighter or more cheerful ▪ The sky brightened after the storm. ▪ Her mood brightened. ▪ Her eyes brightened. ▪ Business prospects brightened last month. ▪ Her face brightened in relief when she heard that he was not hurt.

bril /ˈbrɪl/ adj, Brit, informal : BRILLIANT 4 ▪ We had a bril [=great] time.

bril•liance /ˈbrɪljəns/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being brilliant ▪ The professor was known for his brilliance. ▪ the brilliance of a diamond bril•liant /ˈbrɪljənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very bright : flashing with light ▪ brilliant jewels ▪ a brilliant star in the sky ▪ a store decorated in brilliant colors

2 : very impressive or successful ▪ He pitched a brilliant game. ▪ She gave a brilliant performance. ▪ a brilliant career

3 a : extremely intelligent : much more intelligent than most people ▪ a brilliant scientist ▪ She has a brilliant mind. b : showing extreme intelligence : extremely clever ▪ a brilliant idea — often used in a joking or ironic way to describe a foolish idea, action, etc. ▪ It was brilliant of you to leave your passport at home!

4 Brit, informal : very good : wonderful or excellent ▪ Dinner was brilliant. ▪ It is a brilliant [=fabulous] film. You really must see it. ▪ We had a brilliant time at the circus.

– bril•liant•ly adv ▪ a star shining brilliantly ▪ brilliantly colored clothes ▪ She acted brilliantly in her first film. ▪ a brilliantly written essay

Bril•lo /ˈbrɪloʊ/ trademark — used for a steel wool pad filled with soap and used for scrubbing pots, pans, and other items

[1]brim /ˈbrɪm/ noun, pl brims [count]

1 : the top edge of a glass or a similar container ▪ He filled the glass to the brim. [=to the top] ▪ The glass was filled/full to the brim. [=completely full] — often used figuratively ▪ Her heart was filled to the brim with joy.

2 : the part of a hat that sticks out around the lower edge — see picture at HAT

– brim•ful /ˈbrɪmˌfʊl/ adj ▪ The book is brimful of funny jokes. [=is filled with funny jokes] – brimmed /ˈbrɪmd/ adj ▪ a brimmed hat — often used with another adjective ▪ a wide-brimmed hat

[2]brim verb brims; brimmed; brim•ming [no obj] : to be completely filled with something ▪ a boy brimming (over) with energy ▪ Her heart was brimming with happiness. ▪ The show brims with excitement. ▪ Her eyes brimmed with tears. [=tears filled her eyes]

brim•stone /ˈbrɪmˌstoʊn/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : SULFUR — now usually used in the phrase fire and brimstone to refer to descriptions of hell ▪ The preacher's sermons were full of fire and brimstone. [=the preacher's sermons warned of the punishment of hell]

brin•dled /ˈbrɪndld/ or brin•dle /ˈbrɪndl/ adj : having faint dark streaks or spots on a gray or light brown background ▪ a brindled cow

brine /ˈbraɪn/ noun [noncount]

1 : a mixture of salty water used especially to preserve or add flavor to food ▪ The chicken was soaked in brine before it was roasted.

2 : the salty water of the ocean ▪ ocean brine — see also BRINY bring /ˈbrɪŋ/ verb brings; brought /ˈbrɑːt/; bring•ing [+ obj]

1 : to come with (something or someone) to a place ▪ I'll bring a bottle of wine (with me) when I come to your party. ▪ "Should I send you a check?" "Why not just bring me the money when you come?" ▪ Have you brought the money with you from the bank? ▪ She brought her boyfriend home to meet her parents. ▪ You stay where you are and I'll bring you another drink. = I'll bring another drink to you.

2 : to cause (something or someone) to come ▪ Her screams brought [=attracted] help. ▪ Her screams brought the neighbors running. [=the neighbors ran to help her when they heard her screams] ▪ Love of adventure brought her here before taking her to many other places. ▪ This radio station brings you all the news as it happens.

3 : to cause (something) to exist, happen, or start ▪ Can anything bring peace to this troubled region? ▪ In this part of the country, winter brings snow (with it). ▪ The tablets may bring (you) some relief. ▪ Having a baby has brought great happiness into her life. ▪ The sad story brought tears to our eyes [=made us cry] but its happy ending brought smiles to our lips. [=made us smile]

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to cause (something or someone) to reach a specified state, place, condition, etc. ▪ The dancer brought his hands up to his face. ▪ (US) Bring the water to a boil. = (Brit) Bring the water to the boil. [=heat the water so that it boils] ▪ The pilot brought them safely out of danger. ▪ Winter snow brought traffic to a stop. ▪ A few steps brought us to the front door. ▪ The thrilling climax brought the audience to its/their feet. ▪ This history book brings us up to the present day.

5 : to have (a particular talent, quality, etc.) when you start to do something (such as a job) — + to ▪ She brings years of experience to the position. [=she comes to the position with years of experience] ▪ He brings a rare talent for solving problems to his new job as company president.

6 law : to start a case against someone in a court of law ▪ They threatened to bring [=institute] legal action against him. ▪ They are going to bring charges against him. [=they are going to charge him with a crime]

7 : to cause (something) to reach a total — + to ▪ Last week's sales figures brought our pretax profits for the year to just over $35,000,000. ▪ The donation brought the fund to over a million dollars.

8 : to get (an amount of money) as a price : to be sold for (a price) ▪ The painting ought to bring [=fetch] a high price.

In addition to the phrases shown below, bring occurs in many idioms that are shown at appropriate entries throughout the dictionary. For example, bring to bear can be found at [2]BEAR and bring to an end can be found at [1]END.

bring about [phrasal verb] bring about (something) also bring (something) about : to cause (something) ▪ "What brought about the crisis?" "It was brought about by many factors."

bring around (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit bring round [phrasal verb]

1 bring (someone) around : to cause (someone) to come around: such as a : to cause (someone) to accept and support something (such as an idea) after opposing it ▪ She still says she won't support us, but we'll bring her around eventually. [=we'll convince/persuade her to support us eventually] — often + to ▪ I'm sure we can bring her around to our way of thinking. b : to cause (someone) to become awake again after being unconscious ▪ The boxer was knocked out and it took the doctor several minutes to bring him around. [=bring him to] c : to come with (someone) for a social visit ▪ Why don't you bring your friend around (to my house) after work today? 2 bring (something) around : to cause (something, such as a conversation) to go to a desired subject or area — + to ▪ We gradually brought the conversation around to the subject of his unpaid bills.

bring back [phrasal verb] 1 bring (something or someone) back or bring back (something or someone) a : to come back with (something or someone) ▪ What did you bring back (with you) from your vacation? ▪ You promised to bring back a present for me. = You promised to bring me back a present. b : to cause (something or someone) to return ▪ The death penalty was done away with in this area

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 103 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

B

many years ago, but some people now want it to be brought back. ▪ The movie is a fantasy about a man who is brought back (to life) from the dead. ▪ The company is doing poorly, and its former president is being brought back to help solve its problems. c : to cause (something or someone) to return to a condition, subject, etc. ▪ That question brings us back (again) to the fundamental problem of world peace. ▪ We gradually brought the conversation back to the subject of his unpaid bills. 2 bring (something) back or bring back (something) : to cause (something) to return to someone's memory ▪ Seeing her again brought back a lot of happy memories. ▪ I had almost forgotten about the time we spent together, but seeing her again brought it all back (to me).

bring before [phrasal verb] bring (someone or something) before (someone or something) formal : to cause (someone or something) to come to (someone or something) for an official decision or judgment ▪ He was brought (up) before the judge on a charge of obstructing justice. ▪ The case was finally brought before the Supreme Court.

bring down [phrasal verb] 1 bring down (someone or something) or bring (someone or something) down : to cause (someone or something) to fall down onto the ground ▪ The deer was brought down by a single shot. ▪ The plane was brought down by enemy fire. — often used figuratively ▪ The government was brought down by a vote of no confidence. ▪ a famous politician who was brought down by scandal 2 bring (something) down or bring down (something) : to cause (something) to become lower ▪ Will anything ever bring house prices down? 3 *bring (someone) down informal : to cause (someone) to become sad or depressed ▪ All this rainy weather is really bringing me down. [=getting me down]

bring forth [phrasal verb] bring (something) forth or bring forth (something) somewhat formal : to produce (something) ▪ The rosebushes brought forth an abundance of flowers. ▪ He was able to bring forth persuasive arguments in support of his position. : to cause (something) to occur or exist ▪ Her controversial comments brought forth [=provoked] strong reactions from the public.

bring forward [phrasal verb] bring (something) forward or bring forward (something) 1 : to talk about or show (something) so that it can be seen or discussed by others ▪ The police have brought new evidence forward. 2 : to make the time of (something) earlier or sooner ▪ We need to bring the meeting forward from Tuesday to Monday so that more people can attend.

bring in [phrasal verb] 1 bring in (someone) or bring (someone) in : to cause (someone) to become involved in a process, activity, etc. ▪ The company has decided to bring in outside experts to help on the project. 2 bring in (something) or bring (something) in a : to produce or earn (an amount of money) ▪ Each sale brought in $5. ▪ He works at a large company and brings in a good salary. b law : to report (an official decision) to a court ▪ The jury brought in [=returned] a verdict of not guilty. [=the jury said that the defendant was not guilty] c chiefly Brit : to introduce (a new law, rule, etc.) ▪ The government is going to bring in legislation to make such practices illegal. 3 bring in (someone or something) or bring (someone or something) in : to cause (someone or something) to come to a place ▪ The store is having a special sale in order to bring in [=attract] new customers/business. ▪ The police brought him in (to the police station) for questioning.

bring off [phrasal verb] bring (something) off also bring off (something) : to do (something difficult) : to achieve or accomplish (something) ▪ It's a challenging role. She's the only actress I know with enough talent to bring it off.

bring on [phrasal verb] 1 bring on (something) or bring (something) on : to cause (something) to appear or occur ▪ The crisis was brought on by many factors. 2 bring (something) on (someone) : to cause (something bad) to happen to (someone) ▪ You've brought nothing but shame on your family since the day you were born! ▪ I can't help thinking you've brought some of this trouble on yourself.

bring out [phrasal verb] 1 bring out (something) or bring (something) out a : to show (something) : to cause (something) to appear or to be more easily seen ▪ The debate brought out [=highlighted] the differences between the two candidates. ▪ That blue sweater really brings out the color in your eyes. ▪ Our school aims to bring out [=develop] the talents in each of our students. ▪ A crisis brings out the best in some people and brings out the worst in others. [=a crisis causes some people to behave very well and other people to behave very badly] b : to produce (something, such as a book) : to cause (something) to become available or to come out ▪ a writer who's expected to bring out a new novel next year 2 *bring (someone) out in (something) Brit : to cause (someone) to begin to have (something, such as a rash) on the skin ▪ Eating strawberries brings me out in spots. [=eating strawberries makes me break out in spots]

bring round see BRING AROUND (above)

bring to [phrasal verb] bring (someone) to : to cause (someone) to become awake again after being unconscious ▪ The boxer was knocked out and it took the doctor several minutes to bring him to. [=bring him around] bring together [phrasal verb] bring (people) together or bring together (people) : to cause (people) to join or meet : to cause (people) to come together ▪ She and her husband were brought together by a shared love of the natural world. ▪ The conference has brought together some of the world's leading experts on laser technology.

bring up [phrasal verb] 1 bring (someone) up or bring up (someone) : to take care of and teach (a child who is growing up) ▪ I was born and brought up [=raised, reared] in Chicago. ▪ My grandparents brought me up after my parents died. ▪ My parents brought me up to respect authority. [=my parents taught me to respect authority when I was a child] 2 bring (something) up or bring up (something) a : to mention (something) when talking : to start to talk about (something) ▪ We were waiting for a suitable moment to bring up [=introduce, raise] the subject of his unpaid bills. ▪ I wasn't going to talk about money, but since you've brought it up, I guess it's something we should really discuss. ▪ I'm glad you mentioned money. That brings up the question of how much we can afford to spend. b computers : to cause (something, such as a file or picture) to appear on a computer screen ▪ The system makes it easy to bring up (on the screen) information about any customer. c : ¹VOMIT ▪ The patient tried to eat some breakfast but immediately brought it back up again. 3 bring (someone) up : to cause (someone) to stop suddenly — used in phrases like bring up short and bring up suddenly ▪ He was just starting to argue when her scream brought him up short.

bring yourself : to force yourself to do something that you do not want to do — usually used in negative statements ▪ He knew that he should apologize, but he couldn't bring himself to do it.

– bring•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a bringer of good news bring–and–buy sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] Brit : a sale to which people bring things for others to buy usually in order to raise money for charity brink /ˈbrɪŋk/ noun

the brink : the edge at the top of a steep cliff — usually used figuratively to refer to a point that is very close to the occurrence of something very bad or (less commonly) very good ▪ He nearly lost everything because of his drug addiction, but his friends helped to pull him back from the brink. ▪ The two nations are on the brink of war. [=are very close to war] ▪ a city on the brink of financial disaster ▪ Doctors may be on the brink of finding a cure for this disease. ▪ a young actress who is on the brink of a brilliant career ▪ The other team brought them to the brink of defeat. [=came very close to defeating them] ▪ an animal that has been brought/pulled back from the brink of extinction brink•man•ship /ˈbrɪŋkmənˌʃɪp/ also chiefly US brinks•man•ship /ˈbrɪŋksmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the practice of causing or allowing a situation to become extremely dangerous in order to get the results that you want ▪ two nations caught up in nuclear brinksmanship ▪ engaging in political brinkmanship

briny /ˈbraɪni/ adj brin•i•er; -est : SALTY ▪ briny water ▪ oysters with a briny flavor

the briny old-fashioned : the sea ▪ out on the briny

brio /ˈbri:joʊ/ noun [noncount] : great energy and confidence ▪ She sings with brio.

bri•oche /briˈoʊʃ/ noun, pl brioches [count, noncount] : a light, sweet type of bread brisk /ˈbrɪsk/ adj brisk•er; -est

1 : moving or speaking quickly : quick and efficient ▪ a brisk, no-nonsense manager ▪ She answered the phone in a brisk voice.

2 : pleasantly cool or cold ▪ brisk autumn weather ▪ The wind was brisk.

3 a : done with quickness and energy ▪ They went for a brisk

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 104 SESS: 108 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

walk in the woods. ▪ She walked at a brisk pace. b : very active and steady ▪ Business is brisk at the store. ▪ brisk economic growth ▪ There is a brisk market in old movie posters.
– brisk•ly adv ▪ The wind was blowing briskly off the ocean. ▪ The flowers have been selling briskly. – brisk•ness noun [noncount]

bris•ket /ˈbrɪskət/ noun, pl -kets [count, noncount] : beef from the chest of a cow

[1]bris•tle /ˈbrɪsəl/ noun, pl bris•tles [count] : a short, stiff hair, fiber, etc. ▪ a face covered with bristles ▪ the bristles of a brush
– bris•tly /ˈbrɪsli/ adj bris•tli•er; -est ▪ a bristly mustache

[2]bristle verb bristles; bris•tled; bris•tling [no obj]
1 of hair : to rise up and become stiff ▪ Electricity makes your hair bristle.
2 : to show signs of anger : to become angry — usually + at ▪ He bristled at the insult. ▪ She bristled at their criticism.
bristle with [phrasal verb] bristle with (something) 1 : to be covered with (something) ▪ a bush bristling with thorns ▪ The hillside bristled with soldiers. 2 : to be full of (something) ▪ The movie bristles with excitement. [=the movie is very exciting] ▪ He bristles with energy.

Brit /ˈbrɪt/ noun, pl Brits [count] informal : a British person britch•es /ˈbrɪtʃəz/ noun [plural] chiefly US, informal + old-fashioned : PANTS ▪ an old pair of britches too big for your britches see [1]BIG

Brit•ish /ˈbrɪtɪʃ/ adj : of or relating to Great Britain and especially England ▪ British newspapers ▪ a British port the British : the people of Great Britain and especially England ▪ talked about the British

British English noun [noncount] : the English language used in England

Brit•ish•er /ˈbrɪtɪʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US, informal + old-fashioned : a British person

British Summer Time noun [noncount] Brit : a period of the year between spring and fall when clocks in the United Kingdom are set one hour ahead of Greenwich mean time — called also (Brit) Summer Time; compare DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

Brit•on /ˈbrɪtn̩/ noun, pl -ons [count] somewhat formal : a British person brit•tle /ˈbrɪtl̩/ adj brit•tler; brit•tlest [or more ~; most ~] 1 : easily broken or cracked ▪ brittle glass ▪ brittle bones

2 : not strong : easily damaged ▪ The countries formed a brittle [=fragile] alliance.
3 : sharp in sound ▪ a brittle laugh ▪ a high, brittle voice
– brit•tle•ness /ˈbrɪtl̩nəs/ noun [noncount]

bro /ˈbroʊ/ noun, pl bros [count]
1 informal : BROTHER ▪ my big bro
2 US slang — used as a friendly way of addressing a man or boy ▪ Catch you later, bro.

[1]broach /ˈbroʊʧ/ verb broach•es; broached; broach•ing [+ obj] : to introduce (a subject, issue, etc.) for discussion ▪ She broached the idea of getting another cat.

[2]broach noun, pl broaches [count] : BROOCH

[1]broad /ˈbrɑːd/ adj broad•er; -est
1 a : large from one side to the other side : WIDE ▪ He has broad shoulders. ▪ a broad stripe ▪ broad prairies ▪ a broad avenue — opposite NARROW b chiefly Brit : having a specified width ▪ three metres broad [=wide]
2 : including or involving many things or people : wide in range or amount ▪ The store has a broad selection/variety of coats. ▪ a president with broad [=widespread] appeal ▪ There was broad agreement on the new government. ▪ There are three broad categories of industry in the region: computers, finance, and education. ▪ The conference was attended by a broad spectrum [=a range of many different kinds] of religious leaders. — opposite NARROW
3 : relating to the main parts of something : GENERAL ▪ the broad outlines of a problem ▪ discusses "family" in its broadest sense
4 : easily seen or noticed ▪ She gave him a broad [=obvious] hint. ▪ He speaks with a broad Midwestern accent.
in broad daylight : during the day when people and things can be easily seen rather than at night ▪ The crime was committed in broad daylight.
– broad•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He smiled broadly [=with a big smile] as he greeted us. ▪ The book is broadly [=generally] concerned with the oil industry. ▪ She broadly [=obviously] hinted that she wouldn't be coming back. ▪ a broadly based [=broad-based] political movement

[2]broad noun, pl broads [count] US slang, old-fashioned + often offensive : WOMAN ▪ a classy broad broad•band /ˈbrɑːdˌbænd/ noun [noncount] : a fast electronic network that carries more than one type of communication (such as Internet and cable television signals)

– broadband adj ▪ broadband Internet access broad–based /ˈbrɑːdˌbeɪst/ adj : involving or attracting many different types of people ▪ a broad-based environmental movement ▪ The show has a broad-based audience.

broad bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] chiefly Brit : FAVA BEAN broad–brush /ˈbrɑːdˌbrʌʃ/ adj, always used before a noun : relating to or involving the main or general parts of something rather than the details ▪ The book is a broad-brush treatment of the subject.

[1]broad•cast /ˈbrɑːdˌkæst, Brit ˈbrɔːdˌkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast; -cast•ing [+ obj]
1 : to send out (signals, programs, etc.) by radio or television ▪ The station broadcasts the symphony live every Friday night. ▪ The interview was broadcast from London.
2 : to tell (something that is private or secret) to many people ▪ If you tell her anything about your personal life she'll broadcast it to everyone in the office.
3 : to throw (something, such as seeds) across a wide area of the ground ▪ broadcast fertilizer on the lawn – broad•cast•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ radio/television broadcasters – broadcasting noun [noncount] ▪ She wants to have a career in broadcasting.

[2]broadcast noun, pl -casts
1 [count] : a radio or television program ▪ a live/recorded broadcast ▪ Did you hear the broadcast of last night's game?
2 [noncount] : the act of sending out radio or television signals : the act of broadcasting something ▪ The judge decided to allow broadcast of the trial. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ She wants to have a career in broadcast journalism. [=a career in broadcasting]

broad•en /ˈbrɑːdn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) wider or more general ▪ They need to broaden their understanding of other cultures. ▪ The police have broadened the scope of the investigation. ▪ Travel can help to broaden your horizons/mind. [=increase the range of your knowledge, understanding, or experience]
2 [no obj] : to become wider or more general ▪ The road broadens [=widens] near the airport. ▪ Her smile broadened when I told her the good news. ▪ The investigation has broadened to include the mayor's staff. ▪ His interests broadened to include art and music, not just sports.

broad jump noun
the broad jump US see LONG JUMP – broad jumper noun, pl ~ -pers [count]

broad–mind•ed /ˈbrɑːdˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : willing to accept opinions, beliefs, or behaviors that are unusual or different from your own ▪ Her mother was broad-minded about religion. ▪ a broad-minded view of racial issues – broad–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

broad•sheet /ˈbrɑːdˌʃiːt/ noun, pl -sheets [count] chiefly Brit : a newspaper that has large pages and that usually deals with serious subjects — compare TABLOID

[1]broad•side /ˈbrɑːdˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count]
1 : a very strong and harsh spoken or written attack ▪ a broadside of criticism ▪ The senator delivered a broadside [=blast] against the President.
2 : an attack by a ship in which all the guns on one side of the ship are fired together

[2]broadside adv
1 : with the side facing forward ▪ Turn the ship broadside.
2 chiefly US : directly from the side ▪ The car was hit broadside.

[3]broadside verb -sides; -sid•ed; -sid•ing [+ obj] US : to hit (a vehicle) very hard from the side ▪ His car was broadsided by a truck as he was driving through the intersection.

broad•sword /ˈbrɑːdˌsoəd/ noun, pl -swords [count] : a large, heavy sword that has a wide blade used for cutting

Broad•way /ˈbrɑːdˌweɪ/ noun [noncount] : a street in New York City where there are many theaters — used to refer to the world of the theater in New York City ▪ He's starring in a play on Broadway. ▪ She's a big star on Broadway. — often used before another noun ▪ a Broadway play/star — see also OFF-BROADWAY

bro•cade /broʊˈkeɪd/ noun [noncount] : a cloth with a raised design in gold or silver thread
– bro•cad•ed /broʊˈkeɪdəd/ adj

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 105 SESS: 109 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

broc•co•li /ˈbrɑːkəli/ noun [noncount] : a common vegetable that has green branches and many small green or purple flowers — see color picture on page C4

bro•chure /broʊˈʃuə, Brit ˈbrəʊʃə/ noun, pl -chures [count] : a small, thin book or magazine that usually has many pictures and information about a product, a place, etc. ▪ a travel brochure

[1]brogue /ˈbroʊg/ noun, pl brogues [count] : the way that English is pronounced in Ireland or Scotland : an Irish or Scottish accent ▪ He spoke with an Irish brogue. — compare [2]BROGUE

[2]brogue noun, pl brogues [count] : a shoe decorated with small holes along the sides and at the toe — compare [1]BROGUE

broil /ˈbrɔjəl/ verb broils; broiled; broil•ing US
1 [+ obj] : to cook (food) directly over or under extremely high heat ▪ broil a chicken ▪ a broiled steak
2 [no obj] informal : to be extremely hot ▪ The farm workers were broiling out in the hot sun.

broil•er /ˈbrɔɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 US : a part of an oven that becomes very hot and that food is placed under to be broiled ▪ Put the steaks under the broiler.
2 chiefly US : a young chicken that is suitable for broiling — compare FRYER, ROASTER

[1]broke past tense of [1]BREAK

[2]broke /ˈbroʊk/ adj, not used before a noun, informal : not having any money ▪ She is broke and homeless. ▪ Can I borrow 10 dollars? I'm broke until payday. ▪ I'm flat broke. = (Brit) I'm stony broke. [=I have no money at all] go broke informal : to spend or lose all of your money ▪ He went broke after he lost his job. ▪ The company could go broke if the economy doesn't improve soon.
go for broke informal : to do something that is dangerous or that could result in complete failure in order to try to achieve success ▪ She decided to go for broke and start her own restaurant.
if it ain't broke, don't fix it informal — used to say that you should not try to change something that is working well

[1]broken past participle of [1]BREAK

[2]bro•ken /ˈbroʊkən/ adj
1 : separated into parts or pieces by being hit, damaged, etc. ▪ The street was covered with broken glass. ▪ a broken [=cracked] mirror ▪ a broken bone ▪ a broken leg/arm [=a leg/arm that has a broken bone]
2 : not working properly ▪ a broken camera
3 : not kept or honored ▪ a broken promise
4 : without hope or strength because of having suffered very much ▪ a broken spirit ▪ The failure of his business left him a broken man. ▪ a broken heart
5 : spoken with many mistakes : not fluent ▪ He spoke (in) broken English.
6 — used to describe a relationship (such as a marriage) that has ended ▪ a broken marriage/engagement ▪ a broken family [=a family in which the parents have divorced] ▪ children from broken homes [=children whose parents are divorced]

broken–down adj : in a bad or weak condition because of being old, not well cared for, etc. ▪ a broken-down car bro•ken•heart•ed /ˌbroʊkənˈhɑətəd/ adj : filled with great sadness especially because someone you love has left you, has died, etc. : HEARTBROKEN ▪ She was brokenhearted when her boyfriend left her.

[1]bro•ker /ˈbroʊkə/ noun, pl -kers [count] : a person who helps other people to reach agreements, to make deals, or to buy and sell property (such as stocks or houses) ▪ a real estate broker ▪ an insurance broker ▪ a marriage broker [=a person who helps to arrange the marriages of other people] — see also PAWNBROKER, POWER BROKER, STOCKBROKER

[2]broker verb -kers; -kered; -ker•ing [+ obj] : to help people, countries, etc., to make a deal or to reach an agreement ▪ broker a stock sale ▪ The President has been trying to broker a peace treaty.

bro•ker•age /ˈbroʊkərɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count] : the business of a broker ▪ one of the country's largest brokerages ▪ She works for a brokerage firm.

brol•ly /ˈbrɑːli/ noun, pl -lies [count] Brit, informal : UMBRELLA 1

bro•mide /ˈbroʊˌmaɪd/ noun, pl -mides
1 [count, noncount] : a drug that makes a person calm
2 [count] : a statement that is intended to make people feel happier or calmer but that is not original or effective ▪ His speech had nothing more to offer than the usual bromides about how everyone needs to work together.

bronc /ˈbrɑːŋk/ noun, pl broncs [count] US, informal : BRONCO bron•chi•al /ˈbrɑːŋkijəl/ adj : relating to or involving the tubes that carry air into the lungs ▪ a bronchial infection ▪ bronchial tubes

bron•chi•tis /brɑnˈkaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : an illness in which your bronchial tubes become sore or damaged and you cough a lot ▪ acute/chronic bronchitis

bron•co /ˈbrɑːŋkoʊ/ noun, pl -cos [count] : a wild horse of western North America ▪ a rodeo featuring bucking broncos

bron•to•sau•rus /ˌbrɑːntəˈsorəs/ noun, pl -rus•es [count] : a very large dinosaur that had a long neck and tail

Bronx cheer /ˈbrɑːŋks-/ noun, pl ~ cheers [count] US, informal : a rude sound made to show that you dislike something : RASPBERRY

[1]bronze /ˈbrɑːnz/ noun, pl bronz•es
1 [noncount] : a metal that is made by combining copper and tin ▪ a statue cast in bronze
2 [count] a : something (such as a statue) that is made of bronze ▪ a bronze of the president b : BRONZE MEDAL ▪ She won a bronze in skiing.
3 [noncount] : a yellowish-brown color — see color picture on page C2

[2]bronze adj
1 : made of bronze ▪ a bronze statue
2 : having a yellowish-brown color ▪ bronze curtains

Bronze Age noun
the Bronze Age : a period of time that began between 4000 and 3000 B.C. in which people used bronze to make weapons and tools ▪ The artifact dates to the Bronze Age. ▪ The Bronze Age preceded the Iron Age. ▪ a Bronze Age weapon/tool — compare IRON AGE, STONE AGE

bronzed /ˈbrɑːnzd/ adj
1 : having skin that has been made brown by the sun : TANNED ▪ a bronzed young swimmer ▪ bronzed bodies
2 : covered with a material that makes something appear to be made of bronze ▪ bronzed baby shoes

bronze medal noun, pl ~ -dals [count] : a medal made of bronze that is awarded as the prize for third place in a sports competition ▪ The team won the bronze medal in basketball. — compare GOLD MEDAL, SILVER MEDAL

Bronze Star noun, pl ~ Stars [count] : a U.S. military award — called also Bronze Star Medal

brooch /ˈbroʊʧ/ noun, pl brooch•es [count] : a piece of jewelry that is held on clothing by a pin and worn by a woman at or near her neck — called also broach; see color picture on page C11

[1]brood /ˈbruːd/ noun, pl broods [count]
1 : a group of young birds (such as chickens) that were all born at the same time ▪ a hen and her brood of chicks
2 informal : the children in someone's family ▪ Mrs. Smith took her brood to church every Sunday.

[2]brood verb broods; brood•ed; brood•ing [no obj] : to think a lot about something in an unhappy way ▪ He brooded over/about/on his mistake. ▪ After the argument, she sat in her bedroom, brooding.
– brood•er noun, pl -ers [count] brooding adj [more ~; most ~] : very serious and sad ▪ a brooding artist ▪ a brooding landscape/essay – brood•ing•ly adv

broody adj brood•i•er; -est
1 : serious and sad : BROODING ▪ a movie with a dark and broody atmosphere
2 a of a hen : ready to lay and sit on eggs ▪ a broody hen b Brit, informal, of a woman : wanting to have a baby ▪ a broody wife

[1]brook /ˈbrʊk/ verb brooks; brooked; brook•ing [+ obj] : to allow (something) to exist or happen — usually used with no ▪ Their coach brooks [=tolerates] no disagreement. ▪ a government that brooks no criticism

[2]brook noun, pl brooks [count] : a small stream ▪ a babbling brook

broom /ˈbruːm/ noun, pl brooms
1 [count] : a brush that has a long handle and that is used for sweeping floors
2 [noncount] : a type of bush that has long, thin branches and yellow flowers broom•stick /ˈbruːmˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count] : the handle of a broom Bros. abbr brothers — used in company names ▪ Smith Bros.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 106 SESS: 74 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

broth /ˈbrɑːθ/ noun, pl broths [count, noncount] : liquid in which food (such as meat) has been cooked ▪ chicken broth broth•el /ˈbrɑːθəl/ noun, pl -thels [count] : a building in which prostitutes are available : BORDELLO broth•er /ˈbrʌðə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a boy or man who has one or both of the same parents as you ▪ my little/younger brother ▪ her big/older brother ▪ Her brother was adopted. — compare BROTHER-IN-LAW, HALF BROTHER, STEPBROTHER
2 : a man who is from the same group or country as you ▪ his college fraternity brothers ▪ We must support our brothers and sisters fighting overseas.
3 pl broth•ers or breth•ren /ˈbrɛðrən/ : a male member of a religious group ▪ the brothers in a monastery — used especially as a title ▪ Brother John
4 US, informal : a black man — used especially by African-Americans
5 US, informal — used when talking to a man ▪ Brother, do you have an extra cigarette? ▪ Brother, you have got to relax.
6 chiefly US, informal — used as an interjection to express surprise or annoyance ▪ Brother was I ever sick. [=I was very sick] ▪ Oh, brother!

broom

broth•er•hood /ˈbrʌðəˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods
1 [noncount] : feelings of friendship, support, and understanding between people ▪ the brotherhood of humankind
2 [count] : a group or organization of people who have the same interests, jobs, etc. ▪ the musical brotherhood — often used in the names of labor unions ▪ the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers broth•er–in–law /ˈbrʌðərənˌlɑː/ noun, pl broth•ers–in–law /ˈbrʌðəzənˌlɑː/ [count]

1 : the brother of your husband or wife
2 : the husband of your sister broth•er•ly /ˈbrʌðəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or suggesting the love and closeness of a brother ▪ He gave his sister a brotherly hug. ▪ He received brotherly support from his fellow priests.

– broth•er•li•ness noun [noncount] brought past tense and past participle of BRING brou•ha•ha /ˈbruːˌhɑːˌhɑː/ noun, informal + usually disapproving : great excitement or concern about something [singular] A brouhaha erupted over her statements about the president. [noncount] There's been a lot of brouhaha about her statements.

brow /ˈbraʊ/ noun, pl brows [count]
1 : EYEBROW ▪ She raised her brows in surprise.
2 : FOREHEAD ▪ She wiped the sweat from her brow. — see also HIGHBROW, LOWBROW, MIDDLEBROW
3 : the upper edge of a steep slope ▪ the brow of a high hill knit your brow see [1]KNIT brow•beat /ˈbraʊˌbiːt/ verb -beats; -beat; -beat•en /-ˌbiːtn/; -beat•ing [+ obj] : to use threats or angry speech to make (someone) do or accept something ▪ His father likes to browbeat waiters and waitresses. — often + into ▪ He refuses to be browbeaten into making changes he thinks are not necessary.

[1]brown /ˈbraʊn/ adj -er; -est
1 : having a color like coffee or chocolate ▪ a brown cow ▪ The door was brown.
2 : having dark or tanned skin ▪ workers whose backs are brown from long hours in the sun

[2]brown noun, pl browns : a color like the color of coffee or chocolate [noncount] a shade of brown ▪ The room was decorated in brown. [count] a mix of browns and reds — see color picture on page C1
– brown•ish /ˈbraʊnɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ brownish eyes

[3]brown verb browns; browned; brown•ing : to make (something) brown or to become brown especially by cooking or heating [+ obj] Brown the chicken in a pan with butter. ▪ lightly browned sausages ▪ Her skin was browned by the sun. [no obj] The chicken is browning in the oven.

browned off adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : annoyed and unhappy about something ▪ feeling thoroughly browned off

brown•ie /ˈbraʊni/ noun, pl -ies [count]
1 Brownie : a member of an organization of Girl Scouts or Girl Guides for girls ages 7 through 10 — compare CUB SCOUT
2 : a short, square piece of rich, chocolate cake that often contains nuts brownie points noun [plural] informal : praise, credit, or approval that a person gets from someone (such as a boss or a teacher) for doing something good or helpful ▪ He's trying to earn/win/get brownie points (from the boss) by offering to work more overtime.

brown•nose /ˈbraʊnˌnoʊz/ verb -nos•es; -nosed; -nos•ing [+ obj] informal + disapproving : to try to get the approval of (an important or powerful person) by praise, flattery, etc. ▪ He has been brownnosing everyone in the company just to get a bigger office.
– brown•nos•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ That girl is a brownnoser. – brownnosing noun [noncount] ▪ I can't stand his brownnosing.

brown•out /ˈbraʊnˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] chiefly US : a period when the amount of electricity in an area is reduced because there is not enough for everyone who needs it — compare BLACKOUT 2

brown•stone /ˈbraʊnˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones
1 [noncount] : a reddish-brown type of stone that is used for building
2 [count] US : a house that is covered with a layer of brownstone ▪ She lives in a beautiful brownstone in Manhattan.

brown sugar noun [noncount] : a type of sugar that is brown because it contains a dark syrup (called molasses)

browse /ˈbraʊz/ verb brows•es; browsed; brows•ing
1 : to look at many things in a store, in a newspaper, etc., to see if there is something interesting or worth buying [no obj] Several customers were browsing in the bookstore. — often + through ▪ He saw her browsing through the magazine section of the store. ▪ He was browsing through the want ads in the newspaper, looking for a job. [+ obj] He was browsing the want ads in the newspaper.
2 [+ obj] : to use a special program (called a browser) to find and look at information on the Internet ▪ browse [=surf] the Web/Internet
3 [no obj] of an animal : to eat grass, plants, etc. : GRAZE ▪ cows browsing in the pasture

brows•er /ˈbraʊzə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who looks at the things being sold in a store to see if there is something worth buying : a person who browses ▪ There were a few browsers in the bookstore.
2 : a computer program that is used to find and look at information on the Internet ▪ a Web browser

[1]bruise /ˈbruːz/ noun, pl bruis•es [count]
1 : a dark and painful area on your skin that is caused by an injury ▪ He had a bad bruise on his leg after he fell.
2 : a dark area on a plant or piece of fruit that has been damaged ▪ a bruise on an apple

[2]bruise verb bruises; bruised; bruis•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause a bruise on (part of a person's body, a piece of fruit, etc.) ▪ She bruised her knee when she fell. — often used as (be) bruised ▪ His arms and legs were badly bruised in the accident. b [no obj] : to get a bruise ▪ She bruises easily. [=she gets bruises from minor injuries that would not cause bruises in most people]
2 [+ obj] : to hurt (someone's confidence, feelings, etc.) through speech or actions ▪ I don't want to bruise anyone's feelings. — usually used as (be) bruised ▪ His ego was badly bruised when he lost the race. ▪ There were bruised feelings after he was thrown out of the band.
– bruising noun [noncount] I noticed some bruising on his back. [singular] His ego took a bruising when he lost.

bruis•er /ˈbruːzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a large, strong man ▪ That boy is going to be a bruiser when he grows up!

bruising adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely rough or painful ▪ a bruising campaign battle ▪ a bruising fight

brûlée see CRÈME BRÛLÉE

brunch /ˈbrʌnʧ/ noun, pl brunch•es [count] : a meal that combines breakfast and lunch and that is usually eaten in late morning bru•nette also bru•net /bruˈnɛt/ noun, pl -nettes also -nets [count] : a person who has brown or black hair ▪ a beautiful brunette ✧ This word usually refers to a woman or a girl and is spelled brunette. When it refers to a man or a boy, it is usually spelled brunet.

– brunette also brunet adj ▪ brunette hair

brunt /ˈbrʌnt/ noun

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 107 SESS: 110 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

the brunt of : the main force or effect of (something harmful or dangerous) ▪ Cities on the coast felt/bore the brunt of the storm. ▪ His troops took the brunt of the enemy attack. ▪ The brunt of his criticism was directed at the supervisors.

[1]brush /ˈbrʌʃ/ noun, pl brush•es [count]
1 : a tool with many stiff hairs, fibers, etc., that is used for cleaning, smoothing, or painting something ▪ Use a wire brush to get the rust off the metal. — see picture at DUSTPAN; see also HAIRBRUSH, PAINTBRUSH, TOOTHBRUSH
2 a : an act of cleaning or smoothing something with a brush ▪ I gave my daughter's hair a quick brush. b : a quick, light movement ▪ She wiped the crumbs off the table with a brush of her hand.
(as) daft as a brush see DAFT tar (someone) with the same brush see [2]TAR
– compare [3]BRUSH, [4]BRUSH

[2]brush verb brushes; brushed; brush•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to clean or smooth (something) with a brush ▪ brush your teeth/hair b : to put (something) on or onto something with a brush ▪ Brush some butter onto the fish before cooking it.
2 : to remove (something) with a brush or with a quick movement of your hand, fingers, etc. ▪ Brush the dirt off your pants. ▪ The camera showed him brushing [=wiping] away a tear.
3 : to touch gently against (something) when going past it ▪ Leaves brushed my cheek. ▪ The two men brushed shoulders [=touched at the shoulders] as they walked past each other.
4 : to move quickly past someone without stopping or paying attention ▪ The governor brushed by/past the reporters.
brush aside [phrasal verb] brush (something) aside or brush aside (something) : to treat (something) as not important : to ignore or dismiss (something) ▪ He brushed aside [=brushed off] questions about his son's arrest.
brush off [phrasal verb] 1 brush (something) off or brush off (something) : to treat (something) as not important : to refuse to deal with or talk about (something) in a serious way ▪ The company brushed off [=brushed aside] reports that it couldn't pay its bills. 2 brush (someone) off or brush off (someone) : to respond to (someone) in a rude way that shows you are not interested in what is being asked for or suggested ▪ I asked him for some help, but he just brushed me off. — see also BRUSH-OFF brush up [phrasal verb] brush up or brush up (something) : to improve your skill at (something) or increase your knowledge of (something) ▪ My Spanish is very rusty. I need to brush up before I go on my vacation to Mexico. ▪ I need to brush up my Spanish. — often + on ▪ I need to brush up on my Spanish.

[3]brush noun, pl brushes [count] : a situation in which you briefly experience or almost experience something bad, dangerous, exciting, etc. — + with ▪ As a teenager he had several brushes with the law. [=was in trouble with police several times] ▪ She had a brush with [=briefly saw or met] a famous actor at a restaurant in New York. ▪ Her brush with fame/greatness came when she sang the national anthem at the football game. ▪ He had a brush with death [=he almost died] when climbing the mountain. — compare [1]BRUSH, [4]BRUSH

[4]brush noun [noncount]
1 : wood from small branches on a tree ▪ a pile of brush
2 : small bushes or trees ▪ a hillside covered with dense brush ▪ a lion hiding in the brush — see also UNDERBRUSH
– compare [1]BRUSH, [3]BRUSH

brush–off /ˈbrʌʃˌɑːf/ noun
the brush-off informal : rude treatment or behavior by someone who is not interested at all in what another person wants or asks for ▪ I wanted to ask him about his decision but he gave me the brush-off. ▪ I got the brush-off when I asked her for help. — see also brush off at [2]BRUSH brush•stroke /ˈbrʌʃˌstroʊk/ noun, pl -strokes [count] : the paint left on a painting by a movement of the artist's brush brusque /ˈbrʌsk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : talking or behaving in a very direct, brief, and unfriendly way ▪ She asked for a cup of coffee and received a brusque reply: "We don't have any." ▪ The teacher was brusque and impatient.

– brusque•ly adv – brusque•ness noun [noncount]

brus•sels sprout or Brus•sels sprout /ˈbrʌsəl-/ noun, pl ~ sprouts [count] : a small, green vegetable that looks like a very small cabbage — see color picture on page C4 bru•tal /ˈbruːtl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : extremely cruel or harsh ▪ a brutal military dictatorship ▪ a brutal attack/murder/assault ▪ brutal winter weather ▪ Sailors sometimes faced brutal punishments like whipping. ▪ a brutal struggle for survival in the wilderness
2 : very direct and accurate in a way that is harsh or unpleasant ▪ The writer describes the dangers of drugs with brutal honesty. ▪ The movie is a brutal depiction of the war.
3 informal : very bad or unpleasant ▪ The traffic was brutal on the way to work. ▪ I had a brutal headache this morning.
– bru•tal•ly adv ▪ He was brutally murdered. ▪ He was brutally honest/frank in his criticism of my work.

bru•tal•i•ty /bruˈtæləti/ noun, pl -ties : cruel, harsh, and usually violent treatment of another person [noncount] police brutality ▪ the brutality of slavery [count] the brutalities of a prison

bru•tal•ize also Brit bru•tal•ise /ˈbruːtlˌaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to lose ordinary human kindness or feelings ▪ a young man brutalized by the experience of war
2 : to treat (someone) in a very harsh and usually violent way ▪ She claimed she had been sexually brutalized.
– bru•tal•i•za•tion also Brit brutalisation /ˌbruːtlə-ˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]brute /ˈbruːt/ noun, pl brutes [count] : a cruel, rough, or violent man ▪ Let go of me, you brute! ✧ Brute originally meant the same as beast but is used now to refer to a person who is like a beast.

[2]brute adj, always used before a noun
1 : very strong or forceful ▪ They used brute force to open the door. ▪ brute strength
2 : very harsh ▪ the brute fact of getting old ▪ brute necessity brut•ish /ˈbruːtɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : cruel, violent, and stupid : resembling or suggesting a beast ▪ She is married to a brutish, drunken slob. ▪ brutish behavior

– brut•ish•ness noun [noncount]

BS abbr, US
1 or B.S. bachelor of science ▪ She received a B.S. in chemistry from Smith College. ▪ a B.S. degree
2 informal + impolite bullshit ▪ a load of BS

BSc abbr, Brit bachelor of science

bub /ˈbʌb/ noun, pl bubs [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : BUDDY — usually used to address someone ▪ Come on bub, let's get going.

[1]bub•ble /ˈbʌbəl/ noun, pl bubbles [count]
1 a : a tiny, round ball of air or gas inside a liquid ▪ They saw air bubbles in the water. ▪ champagne bubbles b : a small ball of air in a solid substance ▪ There were bubbles in the ice. c : a very light ball of air inside a thin layer of soap ▪ soap bubbles ▪ The children were blowing bubbles. [=were making soap bubbles by blowing air through a thin layer of soap]
2 : a period when many people invest money in something and cause its value to rise to a level that is much higher than its real value until finally its value drops very suddenly ▪ a stock market bubble ▪ The Internet stock bubble finally burst.
burst someone's bubble informal : to cause someone to suddenly realize that something is not really good, true, etc. ▪ I'm sorry to burst your bubble, but the job is not really that exciting.

[2]bubble verb bub•bles; bub•bled; bub•bling [no obj]
1 : to form or produce bubbles ▪ Water bubbled [=boiled] in the pot. ▪ Oil bubbled (up) through the ground.
2 : to flow with the quiet sound of water moving over rocks ▪ a bubbling brook
3 : to be very happy and excited — usually + with ▪ The children were bubbling with excitement. — often + over ▪ He was bubbling over with enthusiasm for the project.
4 of emotions, feelings, etc. : to exist in a constant way without being openly shown ▪ He seemed calm, but I could feel the tension that was bubbling beneath the surface.

bubble and squeak noun [noncount] Brit : a meal of potatoes, cabbage, and sometimes meat mixed together and fried bubble bath noun, pl ~ baths

1 [count] : a bath in which bubbles are made by a special type of soap ▪ She took a bubble bath.
2 [noncount] : the soap that is used to make bubbles in a bath ▪ She bought some bubble bath.

bubble gum noun [noncount] : a type of gum that you chew and that can be blown into large bubbles bubble–gum adj, always used before a noun : intended to appeal to young teenagers ▪ bubble-gum music

[1]bub•bly /ˈbʌbli/ adj bub•bli•er; -est

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 108 SESS: 111 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

1 : full of bubbles ▪ a bubbly liquid
2 : very happy, cheerful, and lively ▪ She is pretty, bubbly, and smart. ▪ bubbly music

[2]bubbly noun [noncount] informal : CHAMPAGNE ▪ a glass of bubbly

bu•bon•ic plague /bju:ˈbɑ:nɪk-/ noun [noncount] : a very serious disease that is spread especially by rats and that killed many people in the Middle Ages — compare BLACK DEATH buc•ca•neer /ˌbʌkəˈniə/ noun, pl -neers [count]

1 : [1]PIRATE 1
2 : a person who tries to become wealthy or powerful by doing things that are illegal or dishonest ▪ corporate buccaneers

[1]buck /ˈbʌk/ noun, pl bucks [count]
1 informal a : DOLLAR ▪ I owe you a buck. ▪ Those toys are five bucks apiece. b : MONEY ▪ That car costs big bucks. [=a lot of money] ▪ I am just working hard, trying to make a buck. [=to make money] ▪ a fast/quick buck [=money earned or gotten quickly]
2 : a male animal (such as a male deer) — compare DOE ▪ He's an outdoorsman who enjoys buck hunting.
3 informal : MAN ▪ a veteran tennis star competing against an ambitious young buck bang for the/your buck see [2]BANG look/feel like a million bucks see MILLION pass the buck : to avoid a responsibility by giving it to someone else ▪ Stop trying to pass the buck and take responsibility for what you've done. ▪ The federal government passed the buck to the state governments.
the buck stops here ✧ Expressions like the buck stops here are used to say that you accept a responsibility and will not try to give it to someone else. ▪ I'm willing to accept the blame for what happened. The buck stops with me.

[2]buck verb bucks; bucked; buck•ing
1 [no obj] of a horse : to jump violently into the air with the back bent upward ▪ a bucking horse/bronco — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The plane bucked when we went through some dark clouds.
2 [+ obj] : to oppose or resist (something or someone) ▪ He is reluctant to buck [=go against, defy] the leaders of his own political party. ▪ The local decline in crime bucked a nationwide trend. [=crime declined locally but is increasing nationally] ▪ He was always trying to buck the system. [=to oppose the rules of the system; to do things that were not allowed] buck for [phrasal verb] buck for (something) US, informal : to try very hard or work very hard to get (something) ▪ He is bucking for a promotion at work.
buck up [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to become happier or more confident ▪ Buck up, buddy. You'll feel better soon.
2 buck (someone) up or buck up (someone) : to cause (someone) to be happier or more confident : to cheer up (someone) ▪ The shows were meant to buck up the soldiers. ▪ trying to buck up [=improve] the morale of the troops

[1]buck•et /ˈbʌkət/ noun, pl -ets
1 [count] a : an open container with a handle that is used especially to hold and carry water and other liquids ▪ a bucket and mop b : the amount contained in a bucket ▪ a bucket [=bucketful] of water ▪ We used two buckets of paint to paint the living room.
2 [count] : a large container that is part of a machine (such as a tractor) and that is used for digging or carrying dirt, rocks, and other material
3 buckets [plural] informal : a large amount especially of a liquid ▪ The players were sweating buckets. [=were sweating very much] ▪ crying buckets of tears ▪ It's raining buckets. = The rain is coming down in buckets. [=it's raining very hard] 4 [count] basketball : a successful shot : BASKET ▪ She scored/sank five buckets in the last five minutes of the game.

bucket

a drop in the bucket see [1]DROP kick the bucket see [1]KICK
– buck•et•ful /ˈbʌkətˌfʊl/ noun, pl buck•et•fuls /ˈbʌkətˌfʊlz/ also buck•ets•ful /ˈbʌkətsˌfʊl/ [count] ▪ a bucketful [=bucket] of nails ▪ She has bucketfuls [=buckets] of money.

[2]bucket verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing bucket down [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to rain very heavily ▪ The rain is really bucketing down. = It's bucketing down. [=it's pouring] bucket seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] : a low, separate seat for one person in a car or other vehicle bucket shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] Brit, informal : a company that sells cheap airplane tickets

[1]buck•le /ˈbʌkəl/ noun, pl buck•les [count] : a metal or plastic device that is attached to one end of a belt or strap and that is used to connect it to the other end ▪ a belt buckle — see picture at SHOE

buckle

[2]buckle verb buckles; buck•led; buck•ling
1 [+ obj] a : to fasten (something, such as a belt) with a buckle ▪ Buckle your seat belt. b : to attach (something) with a buckle ▪ She buckled the horses into their harness.
2 a [no obj] : to bend or collapse from pressure, heat, etc. ▪ The pavement buckled in the heat. ▪ I suddenly felt dizzy and my knees/legs buckled. [=my knees bent and I began to fall down] — often used figuratively ▪ He finally buckled under the pressure/strain of his job. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to bend or collapse ▪ Heat buckled the pavement.
buckle down [phrasal verb] informal : to start to work hard ▪ You had better buckle down if you want to get good grades.
buckle up [phrasal verb] US : to fasten your seat belt in a car or other vehicle ▪ You should always buckle up [=(Brit) belt up] before you start driving.

buck naked adj, informal : completely naked : not wearing any clothes ▪ He was standing in front of the window, buck naked.

buck private noun, pl ~ -vates [count] US, informal : a private in the U.S. Army or Marines — used to stress that a private has the lowest rank in the military ▪ He enlisted as a buck private and rose through the ranks to become a general.

buck•shot /ˈbʌkˌʃɑ:t/ noun [noncount] : small lead balls that are fired by a shotgun — called also shot

buck•skin /ˈbʌkˌskɪn/ noun [noncount] : a soft type of leather that is made especially from the skin of a deer or similar animal — often used before another noun ▪ a buckskin jacket buck teeth noun [plural] : upper teeth that stick out in the front of the mouth ▪ She wore braces to fix her buck teeth.

– buck–toothed /ˈbʌkˌtu:θt/ adj

buck•wheat /ˈbʌkˌwi:t/ noun [noncount] : a plant with dark seeds that are used to make grain and flour; also : grain or flour made from the seeds of the buckwheat plant

bu•col•ic /bjuˈkɑ:lɪk/ adj, literary + formal : of or relating to the country or country life : PASTORAL ▪ a charming bucolic farmhouse ▪ the bucolic English countryside

[1]bud /ˈbʌd/ noun, pl buds [count]
1 : a small part that grows on a plant and develops into a flower, leaf, or new branch ▪ The bush has plenty of buds but no flowers yet. ▪ flower buds ✧ If a plant is in bud it is beginning to grow buds. ▪ The trees are in bud [=budding] now. — see color picture on page C6
2 US, informal : [1]BUDDY ▪ Hey, bud [=pal], how's it going?
nip (something) in the bud see [1]NIP
– see also COTTON BUD, TASTE BUD

[2]bud verb buds; bud•ded; bud•ding [no obj] : to produce buds ▪ The trees budded early this spring.

Bud•dhism /ˈbu:ˌdɪzəm, ˈbʊˌdɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a religion of eastern and central Asia that is based on the teachings of Gautama Buddha – Bud•dhist /ˈbu:dɪst, ˈbʊdɪst/ noun, pl -dhists [count] ▪ She and her husband are Buddhists. – Buddhist adj ▪ Buddhist monks ▪ a Buddhist temple

bud•ding /ˈbʌdɪŋ/ adj
1 : beginning to develop ▪ the couples' budding romance ▪ her budding career as a lawyer
2 always used before a noun : beginning to become successful ▪ a budding singer/actor/writer

[1]bud•dy /ˈbʌdi/ noun, pl -dies
1 [count] informal : a close friend — used especially to describe men or boys who are friends ▪ We've been buddies [=pals, (chiefly Brit) mates] since junior high school. ▪ He's one of my old army buddies. ▪ a buddy from college = a college buddy
2 [singular] US, informal + sometimes impolite — used to address a man who you do not know ▪ Hey, buddy, do you know where Maple Street is?
3 [count] : a person who does some activity with you ▪ His

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 109 SESS: 79 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

fishing buddy just bought a new boat. ▪ her drinking buddies [=the people who often drink alcohol with her]

the buddy system US : an arrangement in which two people help or protect each other ▪ If your children walk to school, have them use the buddy system. [=have them walk with other children]

[2]buddy verb buddies; bud•died; bud•dy•ing

buddy up [phrasal verb] US, informal : to become friendly especially in order to get help or some advantage — often + with ▪ New students are encouraged to buddy up with older students. — often + to ▪ businessmen buddying up to [=cozying up to] politicians to get their support

[3]buddy adj, always used before a noun, informal : telling a story about a friendship between two usually male characters ▪ a buddy movie/comedy bud•dy–bud•dy /ˌbʌdiˈbʌdi/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : very friendly or too friendly ▪ She's been buddy-buddy [=chummy] with the band for several years. ▪ He's a little too buddy-buddy with his professors.

budge /ˈbʌʤ/ verb budg•es; budged; budg•ing

1 : to move slightly — usually used in negative statements [no obj] Their horses refused to budge. ▪ The door was stuck, and we couldn't even get it to budge. [+ obj] Could you try opening this jar for me? I can't budge the lid.

2 : to change your opinion or decision — usually used in negative statements [no obj] They wouldn't budge on the issue. = They refused to budge. ▪ He wouldn't budge at all. = He wouldn't budge an inch. [+ obj] We tried to change her mind, but we couldn't budge her.

bud•ger•i•gar /ˈbʌʤəriˌgɑə/ noun, pl -gars [count] : a small, usually light green and yellow bird that is often kept as a pet — called also budgie

[1]bud•get /ˈbʌʤət/ noun, pl bud•gets

1 a : an amount of money available for spending that is based on a plan for how it will be spent [count] What's the average weekly/monthly/annual budget for a family of five? ▪ The film has a million-dollar budget. ▪ He's been trying to live on a budget of less than $1,500 a month. ▪ a movie with a big budget = a big-budget movie [=a movie that costs a lot of money to make] ▪ a movie with a low/small budget = a low-budget movie [=a movie that does not cost a lot of money to make] [noncount] The project was completed on schedule and under budget. [=it was completed for less money than had been planned] ▪ We're still within budget. [=we still are not spending more money than we planned to spend] ▪ The director always goes over budget on his films. [=the director always spends more money than is planned] — often used before another noun ▪ The governor will discuss the state's budget deficit/surplus. ▪ a budget crisis ▪ budget cuts b [count] : a plan used to decide the amount of money that can be spent and how it will be spent ▪ We'll have to work out a budget so we can buy a new car. ▪ The government may have to raise taxes to balance the budget. [=to have enough money to provide the amount that is being spent] ✧ If you are on a budget, you have planned how you will spend your money usually because you do not have a lot to spend and need to save money. ▪ The store has great bargains for people on a budget. [=people who do not have much money to spend] ▪ She started her business on a small/tight/shoestring budget [=she did not have much money when she started her business] and could not afford to overspend.

2 [count] : an official statement from a government about how much it plans to spend during a particular period of time and how it will pay for the expenses

– bud•get•ary /ˈbʌʤəˌteri, Brit ˈbʌʤətri/ adj, formal ▪ budgetary plans/matters/issues/constraints/cuts

[2]budget verb -gets; -get•ed; -get•ing

1 [+ obj] : to plan to spend (an amount of money) for a particular purpose ▪ They budgeted millions of dollars to make the film. ▪ The project is budgeted at more than $100,000. ▪ He budgets $50 for entertainment each month.

2 [no obj] : to make and follow a plan for spending your money ▪ If we budget carefully, we will be able to go on the trip. ▪ We're budgeting [=saving our money] for a new car.

3 [+ obj] : to plan how to use (something, such as your time) ▪ I need to learn how to budget my time more wisely.

– budgeting noun [noncount] ▪ Careful budgeting is essential to running a business.

[3]budget adj, always used before a noun : low in price : suitable for someone who is on a budget ▪ budget hotels

bud•gie /ˈbʌʤi/ noun, pl -gies [count] informal : BUDGERIGAR

[1]buff /ˈbʌf/ noun, pl buffs [count] : a person who is very interested in something and who knows a lot about it ▪ She's a tennis buff. [=fan, enthusiast] ▪ history/movie/music buffs — compare [2]BUFF

[2]buff noun [noncount] : a light somewhat yellow or orange color — see color picture on page C2

in the buff informal : not wearing any clothes : NAKED ▪ They sunbathe in the buff. [=in the nude] to the buff informal : to a naked condition ▪ They stripped down to the buff. [=they took all their clothes off]

– compare [1]BUFF

[3]buff or buffed /ˈbʌft/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : having a strong, muscular body or form ▪ a buff bodybuilder ▪ He's at the gym every day trying to get buff. ▪ the buff body of an athlete

[4]buff verb buffs; buffed; buff•ing [+ obj] : to make (a surface) smooth and shiny by rubbing it ▪ The floors are waxed and buffed every year. ▪ I buffed [=shined] my shoes. ▪ She is going to the salon to get her nails buffed.

buff up [phrasal verb] buff up or buff (someone or something) up or buff up (someone or something) informal : to become stronger and more muscular or to make (someone or something) stronger and more muscular by exercising and weight lifting ▪ She is buffing up for her role as a female boxer. ▪ He buffed himself up by going to the gym every day. — often used as buffed-up ▪ buffed-up bodies ▪ a buffed-up actor/athlete

buf•fa•lo /ˈbʌfəˌloʊ/ noun, pl buffalo or buf•fa•loes [count]

1 US : BISON

2 : WATER BUFFALO

buffalo wing noun, pl ~ wings [count] US : a chicken wing that is fried and covered with a spicy sauce and that is usually served with blue cheese dressing ✧ Buffalo wings are named after the city of Buffalo, New York.

[1]buff•er /ˈbʌfə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : something that gives protection by separating things : a protective barrier ▪ Thick walls serve as a buffer from/against the sounds of the city. — often used figuratively ▪ She had to act as a buffer between the two brothers, who wouldn't stop arguing. ▪ It's important to save money as a buffer against times of illness or the loss of your job. — see also BUFFER STATE, BUFFER ZONE

2 computers : a place in the memory of a computer where information is stored for a short time

3 chiefly Brit : either one of two devices with metal springs that are connected to the front and back of railroad cars in order to reduce shock when the train hits things hit the buffers or run into the buffers Brit, informal : to stop or fail ▪ His acting career hit the buffers. ▪ The project ran into the buffers.

– compare [3]BUFFER

[2]buffer verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]

1 : to protect (something) from something ▪ The trees help buffer the house from the hot summer sun.

2 : to lessen the harmful effects of (something) ▪ The wall buffers the noise of the traffic.

3 computers : to put (something, such as data) in a buffer

[3]buffer noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal : an old man ▪ He's a harmless old buffer. — compare [1]BUFFER buffer state noun, pl ~ states [count] : a country that is located between two larger countries that often fight with each other buffer zone noun, pl ~ zones [count] : an area that keeps two things separated ▪ There must be a 500-foot buffer zone between the river and the new buildings.

[1]buf•fet /bəˈfeɪ, Brit ˈbʊˌfeɪ/ noun, pl -fets [count]

1 : a meal for which different foods are placed on a table so that people can serve themselves ▪ The restaurant offers a breakfast buffet. ▪ There will be a cold buffet [=a meal of different cold foods set on a table] at the party. — often used before another noun ▪ He went back to the buffet table for a second helping. ▪ a buffet meal/lunch/dinner

2 chiefly Brit : a place in a train, a bus station, etc., where people can buy food and drinks — see also BUFFET CAR

3 chiefly US : a piece of furniture that is used in a dining room for holding dishes, silverware, etc. : SIDEBOARD

[2]buffet verb -fets; -feted; -fet•ing [+ obj] : to hit (something) with great force many times ▪ The waves buffeted [=battered] the shore. ▪ The strong winds buffeted the ship. — often used as (be) buffeted ▪ The island was buffeted by a tropical storm

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 110 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

last month. — often used figuratively ▪ The city's schools are being buffeted by budget cuts.

buffet car noun, pl ~ cars [count] Brit : DINING CAR

buf•foon /bəˈfu:n/ noun, pl -foons [count] : a stupid or foolish person who tries to be funny ▪ Stop acting like a buffoon. ▪ a ridiculous buffoon

– buf•foon•ery /bəˈfu:nəri/ noun [noncount] ▪ silly buffoonery [=foolish behavior that is meant to be funny]

[1]bug /ˈbʌg/ noun, pl bugs

1 [count] chiefly US, informal : a usually small insect ▪ There's a bug in my soup! ▪ Close the door. You're letting the bugs in. — often used before another noun ▪ Her legs were covered in bug bites. [=itchy or painful wounds from insects] ▪ Use plenty of bug spray/repellent to keep the mosquitoes from biting you.

2 [count] : a usually mild illness (such as a cold) that can be passed from one person to another ▪ He caught some kind of bug from the other kids at school. ▪ There's been a nasty flu bug going around. ▪ I picked up an intestinal/stomach bug.

3 [count] : a problem that prevents a computer program or system from working properly ▪ We found/detected a bug [=glitch] in the program. ▪ The software was full of bugs. ▪ They've been trying to work/get the bugs out of the system. [=trying to fix the system's problems]

4 [count] : a small hidden microphone that is used to secretly listen to and record people : LISTENING DEVICE ▪ The government planted/put a bug in her telephone/apartment.

5 the bug informal : a sudden, strong interest in a particular activity ▪ He was first bitten by the acting bug [=he first became interested in acting] when he was 18. ▪ the travel bug

[2]bug verb bugs; bugged; bug•ging

1 [+ obj] informal : to bother or annoy (someone) ▪ Quit bugging me! ▪ John, stop bugging your sister. ▪ It really bugs me to see how he treats her.

2 [+ obj] : to put a hidden microphone in (a room, telephone, etc.) in order to secretly hear what people are saying ▪ Is this phone bugged? ▪ The cops bugged his apartment. ▪ a bugging device

3 [no obj] of the eyes : to stick out more than is normal especially because of surprise or fear — usually + out ▪ Their eyes were bugging out as if they saw a ghost. — see also BUG-EYED bug off [phrasal verb] US, informal : to go away — used in speech as a rude or angry way to tell someone to leave you alone and to stop bothering you ▪ She angrily told him to bug off.

bug out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to leave quickly ▪ Wait here till we get back. Don't bug out (on us). — see also [2]BUG 3 (above)

bug•a•boo /ˈbʌgəˌbu:/ noun, pl -boos [count] US, often disapproving : something that makes people very worried or upset ▪ politicians complaining about that old bugaboo, high oil prices bug•bear /ˈbʌgˌbeə/ noun, pl -bears [count] : something that causes problems or annoys people ▪ The biggest bugbear of the skiing business is a winter with no snow.

bug–eyed /ˈbʌgˌaɪd/ adj : having eyes that stick far out of the head ▪ The audience was bug-eyed with amazement.

[1]bug•ger /ˈbʌgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] informal

1 : an annoying or difficult but usually small thing ▪ I put down my keys, and now I can't find the buggers. ▪ (Brit) The exam was a bugger. [=the exam was difficult]

2 chiefly Brit a offensive : a person (especially a man) who is strongly disliked ▪ I can't stand that stupid bugger. b : an annoying or playful person or animal ✧ In this sense, bugger is an impolite word that is often used in a loving or friendly way. ▪ Well, you're a cute little bugger [=rascal, critter, guy], aren't you! ▪ You cheeky bugger!

[2]bugger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [+ obj] Brit

1 offensive : to have anal sex with (someone)

2 informal + impolite — used as an interjection to express strong anger, surprise, etc. ▪ Bugger [=damn] this machine! ▪ Bugger it/me! ▪ Well, I'll be buggered. [=damned] I can't believe you did it!

bugger about or bugger around [phrasal verb] Brit, informal + impolite 1 : to spend time in a useless or aimless way ▪ We just buggered about [=messed around] all afternoon. 2 bugger (someone) about/around : to cause problems or trouble for (someone) ▪ I don't like being buggered about by faceless bureaucrats with all their forms.

bugger off [phrasal verb] Brit, informal + impolite : to go away ▪ She angrily told him to bugger off.

bugger up [phrasal verb] bugger up (something) or bugger (something) up Brit, informal + impolite : to make mistakes in doing or making (something) ▪ The waiter buggered up [=messed up] our order.

bugger all noun [noncount] Brit, informal + impolite : nothing at all ▪ They were wearing bugger all!

bug•gery /ˈbʌgəri/ noun [noncount] Brit, law or slang : anal sex : SODOMY

[1]bug•gy /ˈbʌgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] : a light carriage that is usually pulled by one horse ▪ He rode into town on his horse and buggy. — see also BABY BUGGY, BEACH BUGGY, DUNE BUGGY

[2]buggy adj bug•gi•er; -est

1 US : having many insects ▪ It's too buggy out here—let's go inside. ▪ a buggy swamp

2 chiefly US, of a computer program, system, etc. : having many problems or errors that prevent proper operation : having many bugs ▪ buggy software ▪ a buggy system bu•gle /ˈbju:gəl/ noun, pl bu•gles [count] : a musical instrument like a trumpet that is used especially for giving military signals ▪ blow a bugle

– bu•gler /ˈbju:glə/ noun, pl -glers [count] ▪ He was a bugler in the army.

[1]build /ˈbɪld/ verb builds; built /ˈbɪlt/; build•ing

1 : to make (something) by putting together parts or materials [+ obj] The house is built (out) of brick/logs. ▪ The bridge was built in the 1890s. ▪ The planes were built in Germany. ▪ The organization helps build houses for poor families. ▪ building more powerful machines/computers/weapons ▪ A family of birds has built a nest on our roof. ▪ She started building a fire in the fireplace. ▪ He built a model airplane from a kit. ▪ He built a dollhouse for the children. = He built the children a dollhouse. [no obj] You will need permission to build on your property.

2 [+ obj] : to develop or form (something) gradually ▪ I've started building a collection of rare books. [=I've started collecting rare books] ▪ They built the organization from scratch. = They built the organization from the ground/bottom up. ▪ They are building a legal case against the tobacco industry. ▪ scientists building theories about how the universe began ▪ At college, you'll build friendships that will last a lifetime. ▪ She built a successful career in advertising. ▪ He has built a reputation as a talented artist. ▪ building a more peaceful world [=making the world more peaceful] — often + up ▪ Building up a successful business can take many years. ▪ She has built up a large collection of awards. ▪ We've been building up a savings account. — see also BUILD UP (below)

3 [+ obj] : to increase the amount of (something) ▪ Lifting weights helps build muscle and increase strength. ▪ These programs are designed to help build confidence in young women. ▪ The advertisements are aimed at building support for political candidates. ▪ They thought the army would build character in their son. [=would make their son become a better person] — often + up ▪ She runs a little farther every day to build up (her) endurance. ▪ building up momentum/stamina/energy ▪ He's been trying to build up the courage/confidence to talk to her. ▪ These exercises will help you build up your strength. — see also BUILD UP (below)

4 [no obj] : to grow or increase to a high point, level, number, etc. ▪ The excitement was beginning to build before the game. ▪ A crowd was building around the accident. ▪ The story slowly builds to a climax. [=the story slowly reaches a climax] ▪ Chemicals in the lake are building to dangerous levels. — often + up ▪ As the water temperature rises, the pressure inside the pot begins to build up. ▪ Their passion/anger/fear/hatred has been building up for years. — see also BUILD UP (below)

build around [phrasal verb] build (something) around (something) : to develop or organize (something) by using (something, such as an idea) as its main or central part ▪ We built our program around the idea that people need love and support. ▪ Their lives are built around their children. [=their children are the most important things in their lives] ▪ The textbook builds lessons around grammar topics.

build in/into [phrasal verb] build in (something) or build (something) in or build (something) in/into (something) : to make (something) a part of (something else) ▪ Carmakers are beginning to build in these new safety features as standard equipment. = Carmakers are building these new safety features into new cars as standard equipment. ▪ We've built bookshelves into the wall. ▪ These ideas are built into

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 111 SESS: 80 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

the program/system/design. ▪ There are special provisions for bonuses built into the contract. — see also BUILT-IN build on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 build on/upon (something) : to use (something that has been done in the past) as a basis for further work, development, etc. ▪ Each president builds on/upon the success of each past president. ▪ These classes will help students build on what they already know. ▪ building upon past experiences/successes 2 build (something) on/upon (something) : to develop or create (something) by using (something else) as its basis ▪ He built [=based] his theory on recent studies. ▪ She has built her reputation as a talented artist on the strength of her earlier paintings. ▪ Their theory is built upon her research.

build onto [phrasal verb] build onto (something) or build (something) onto (something) : to add (a new room) to a structure that already exists ▪ They built a new garage onto their house. ▪ They built onto their house.

build up [phrasal verb] 1 : to increase gradually in amount as time passes : ACCUMULATE ▪ They pick up the garbage that builds up [=collects] along the highway. ▪ Dust has begun building up on his piano. ▪ These dangerous chemicals are building up in our lakes and ponds. 2 build (something or someone) up or build up (something or someone) : to say many good things about (something or someone) ▪ Political candidates are trying to build themselves up [=promote themselves] with public speeches and TV commercials. ▪ The movie was built up so much [=we heard so many good things about the movie] that we were disappointed when we actually saw it. — see also [1]BUILD 2, 3, 4 (above), BUILDUP

[2]build noun, pl builds : the shape and size of a person's body [count] people with thin/slender/slight builds ▪ He has a strong, muscular build. [=physique] [noncount] He is strong and muscular in build. ▪ a man of average build

build•er /ˈbɪldɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or company that builds or repairs things (such as houses, ships, bridges, etc.) ▪ The architect discussed her plans with the builder and the contractor. ▪ We will have to get the builders to repair the wall. — see also SHIPBUILDER
2 : something that helps to develop or increase something ▪ The army is said to be a character builder. ▪ The experience was a real confidence builder.

build•ing /ˈbɪldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : a structure (such as a house, hospital, school, etc.) with a roof and walls that is used as a place for people to live, work, do activities, store things, etc. ▪ My office is in that small brick building. ▪ office/apartment buildings [=buildings with offices/apartments inside]
2 [noncount] : the act or process of making structures by putting together materials ▪ We bought the land for building. — often + of ▪ He planned the building [=construction] of the town's roads and bridges. ▪ The building of the bridge took 10 years. — often used before another noun ▪ building materials/supplies ▪ a building contractor [=someone whose business is building structures] ▪ the building site building block noun, pl ~ blocks [count] : an important part that is grouped together with many other similar things to form something larger — usually plural; usually + of ▪ Families are the building blocks of our society. ▪ Cells are the building blocks of the body.

building society noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : a British business that is like a bank, that holds and invests the money saved by its members, and that provides loans and mortgages — compare SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION build•up /ˈbɪldˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups

1 : an increase in something that occurs as time passes [count] the country's military buildup [=an increase in the size of its military] ▪ There is a big traffic buildup on the highway. — often + of ▪ He had a buildup of fluid in the lungs. ▪ a buildup of tension/pressure/stress [noncount] You should clean the mechanism regularly to prevent buildup of dirt.
2 : things that are said to cause people to feel excited about something (such as a future event) or someone (such as a performer) [noncount] After all the buildup [=hype, publicity], I expected the movie to be better than it actually was. [count] Both players were given big buildups before the game.
3 [noncount] : a series of things that lead to an important event or occurrence — + to ▪ There have been many news stories during the buildup to the peace talks. ▪ The story/movie/song has a great buildup to a terrific ending.

[1]built past tense and past participle of [1]BUILD

[2]built /ˈbɪlt/ adj
1 not used before a noun — used to say that someone or something has the right qualities for or to do something ▪ He was built for fighting. ▪ This horse is built for speed. ▪ These chairs were built for comfort. ▪ These tools are built to last. [=these tools will last a long time]
2 : made, formed, or shaped in a specified way ▪ a powerfully built wrestler ▪ a newly built house — often used in combination ▪ a brick-built house [=a house built of bricks] ▪ a Japanese-built car [=a car made in Japan] — see also CUSTOM-BUILT, JERRY-BUILT

built–in /ˈbɪltˈɪn/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : included as a part of something ▪ His new watch has a built-in calculator. ▪ a camera with a built-in flash ▪ the car's built-in safety features ▪ a built-in bookshelf [=a bookshelf that is built as part of a wall]
2 : forming a natural part of someone or something ▪ All humans have a built-in ability to learn their native language. ▪ Living in warmer climates has many built-in [=(more formally) intrinsic, inherent] advantages. — see also build in/into at [1]BUILD built–up /ˈbɪltˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having many buildings in a small area ▪ Many people left the more heavily built-up areas of the city and moved to the suburbs.

bulb /ˈbʌlb/ noun, pl bulbs [count]
1 : LIGHT BULB ▪ a 100-watt bulb ▪ fluorescent bulbs — see also DIM BULB
2 : a rounded part of some plants that is under the ground and that grows into a new plant during the growing season ▪ tulip bulbs — see color picture on page C6
3 : a part that has a rounded shape ▪ the bulb of the thermometer/eyedropper

bul•bous /ˈbʌlbəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : big and round often in an unattractive way ▪ a big, bulbous nose

Bul•gar•i•an /ˌbʌlˈgerijən/ noun, pl -ans
1 [count] : a person born or living in Bulgaria
2 [noncount] : the chief language of the people of Bulgaria – Bulgarian adj ▪ She speaks with a Bulgarian accent.

[1]bulge /ˈbʌldʒ/ noun, pl bulg•es [count]
1 : a rounded lump on the surface of something ▪ "What's in there?" he asked, pointing to the large bulge in my purse. ▪ I'm exercising to get rid of this bulge around my middle.
2 : a sudden increase ▪ a population bulge

[2]bulge verb bulges; bulged; bulg•ing [no obj]
1 : to stick out in a rounded lump ▪ His face turned white and his eyes bulged. ▪ middle-aged people bulging at the waist/middle — often + out ▪ Her eyes bulged out (of her head).
2 : to be completely filled with something ▪ Their bags bulged with books and papers. ▪ The squirrel's cheeks were bulging with nuts. ▪ a notebook bulging with ideas
– bulging adj ▪ bulging biceps/muscles ▪ big bulging eyes

bu•lim•ia /buˈliːmijə, Brit bjuˈlɪmiə/ noun [noncount] : a serious physical and emotional illness in which people and especially young women eat large amounts of food and then cause themselves to vomit in order to not gain weight — called also bulimia nervosa; compare ANOREXIA
– bu•lim•ic /buˈliːmɪk, Brit bjuˈlɪmɪk/ adj ▪ She became bulimic in high school. – bulimic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ She's been a bulimic since high school.

[1]bulk /ˈbʌlk/ noun
1 the bulk : most of something : the largest part of something ▪ We spent the bulk of the summer at the beach. ▪ Farming makes up the bulk of the country's economy. ▪ The great bulk of these people are extremely poor.
2 [noncount] : the large size of someone or something ▪ Despite his bulk, he's a very fast runner. ▪ The sheer weight and bulk of the car makes it safe to drive. [=the car is safe because it is heavy and large] in bulk : in large containers or in large amounts ▪ The restaurant buys rice and flour in bulk. [=it buys large bags of rice and flour]

[2]bulk adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to things that are sent or sold in large amounts ▪ bulk foods ▪ They sent bulk shipments of food to the country. ▪ bulk prices/rates ▪ bulk mailings/e-mail

[3]bulk verb bulks; bulked; bulk•ing
bulk large : to have great importance or influence ▪ This is a problem that bulks large [=looms large] in the minds of many people.
bulk out [phrasal verb] bulk out (something) or bulk (something) out : to make (something) bigger or thicker by adding more material ▪ He bulked out the report with lots of graphs and charts.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 112 SESS: 112 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

bulk up [phrasal verb] 1 : to gain weight often by becoming more muscular ▪ He's bulked up to 200 pounds. ▪ She's been trying to bulk up at the gym. 2 a bulk (someone) up : to cause (someone) to gain weight ▪ They tried to bulk him up with pizza and hamburgers. b bulk up (something) or bulk (something) up : to make (something) bigger or thicker by adding more material ▪ He bulked up the report with lots of graphs and charts.

bulk•head /ˈbʌlkˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a wall that separates the different parts of a ship or aircraft bulky /ˈbʌlki/ adj bulk•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : large and difficult to carry or store ▪ a bulky wool sweater ▪ a big, bulky package
2 of a person : large and fat or muscular ▪ a big, bulky football player – bulk•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]bull /ˈbʊl/ noun, pl bulls [count]
1 a : an adult male animal of the ox and cow family b : an adult male of some other large animals (such as elephants or whales) — often used before another noun ▪ a bull elephant ▪ a bull moose — compare CALF, COW; see also PIT BULL
2 finance : a person who tries to make money by buying stocks and selling them after their price has gone up : a person who expects the price of stocks to go up ▪ The bears outnumbered the bulls on Wall Street today. — compare [1]BEAR; see also BULL MARKET a bull in a china shop* : a person who breaks things or who often makes mistakes or causes damage in situations that require careful thinking or behavior ▪ As a politician, he was a bull in a china shop and often had to apologize for his rough speech.
a red rag to a bull see [1]RED take the bull by the horns* : to deal with a difficult situation in a very direct or confident way ▪ She decided to take the bull by the horns and try to solve the problem without any further delay.
– compare [2]BULL, [3]BULL

[2]bull noun [noncount] informal : foolish or untrue words or ideas ▪ That's a lot/load/bunch of bull! [=nonsense, (offensive) bullshit] — see also COCK-AND-BULL STORY; compare [1]BULL, [3]BULL

[3]bull noun, pl bulls [count] : an official command or statement written by the pope ▪ A papal bull was issued in 1582. — compare [1]BULL, [2]BULL bull•dog /ˈbʊlˌdɑːg/ noun, pl -dogs [count] : a short, strong, muscular dog with short hair, short legs, and a wide square head bull•doze /ˈbʊlˌdoʊz/ verb -doz•es; -dozed; -doz•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to use a bulldozer to move, destroy, or knock down (something) ▪ The crew is bulldozing the trees/forest/field. ▪ Their houses were bulldozed (flat) to make room for a new school. b : to create (something, such as a road) by using a bulldozer ▪ They bulldozed a road through the hills.
2 a : to force (something that others might not want to happen) to be done or accepted in an aggressive or harsh way ▪ The governor bulldozed the law through the legislature. b : to force (someone) to do something ▪ She bulldozed [=bullied] her partners into accepting the agreement even though they didn't like it.
bulldoze your way* : to move forward while forcing other people to move out of your way ▪ They rudely bulldozed their way through the crowd. — often used figuratively ▪ He bulldozed his way to the top and became the company's president.

bull•doz•er /ˈbʊlˌdoʊzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a powerful and heavy vehicle that has a large curved piece of metal at its front and that is used for moving dirt and rocks and pushing over trees and other structures — see picture at CONSTRUCTION

bul•let /ˈbʊlət/ noun, pl -lets [count]
1 : a small piece of metal or another material that is shot out of a gun ▪ He was hit by a stray bullet. [=the bullet missed its target and hit him instead] ▪ He was killed by an assassin's bullet. ▪ He took a bullet to the head. [=he was shot in the head] — often used before another noun ▪ There are bullet holes in the walls. ▪ a bullet wound — see also MAGIC BULLET, RUBBER BULLET, SILVER BULLET
2 : a large dot in a document, book, etc., that brings attention to separate pieces of information in a list ▪ Bullets were used to separate each item. — see also BULLET POINT
3 US, sports : a hit or thrown ball or puck that is moving very fast ▪ The quarterback threw a bullet to the receiver.
bite the bullet see [1]BITE dodge a/the bullet see [1]DODGE sweat bullets see [1]SWEAT
– bul•let•ed /ˈbʊlətəd/ adj ▪ a bulleted list

bul•le•tin /ˈbʊlətən/ noun, pl -tins [count]
1 : a quick announcement from an official source about an important piece of news ▪ The television/radio program was interrupted for a news bulletin. ▪ We've just received a (news) bulletin: the election has been decided!
2 : a short piece of writing that an organization publishes to give news about itself : NEWSLETTER ▪ a church bulletin

bulletin board noun, pl ~ boards [count]
1 US : a board on the wall of a classroom, office, etc., where things (such as written notices or pictures) are put so that they can be seen by many people ▪ Our teacher put our pictures up on the bulletin board. — called also (Brit) noticeboard; see picture at OFFICE
2 : MESSAGE BOARD

bullet point noun, pl ~ points [count] : an item in a list that has a large dot (called a bullet) in front of it to show that it is important bul•let•proof /ˈbʊlətˌpruːf/ adj : made to stop bullets from going through ▪ The car has bulletproof windows. ▪ The police officer was wearing a bulletproof vest.

bull• ght /ˈbʊlˌfaɪt/ noun, pl - ghts [count] : an event that is popular especially in Spain in which a person fights with and usually kills a bull for public entertainment
– bull• ght •er /ˈbʊlˌfaɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] – bull• ght •ing /ˈbʊlˌfaɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

bull• nch /ˈbʊlˌfɪnʧ/ noun, pl - nches [count] : a small European bird bull•frog /ˈbʊlˌfrɑːg/ noun, pl -frogs [count] : a large frog that makes a loud, deep sound

bullhorn

bull•head•ed /ˈbʊlˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, disapproving : not willing to change an opinion, plan, etc. : very stubborn in a foolish or annoying way ▪ a bullheaded boss who won't take advice from anyone

bull•horn /ˈbʊlˌhoɚn/ noun, pl -horns [count] US : an electrical device that is used for making your voice much louder so that you can be heard over a large distance — called also (Brit) loudhailer; compare MEGAPHONE

bul•lion /ˈbʊljən/ noun [noncount] : bars of gold or silver ▪ gold bullion

Do not confuse bullion with bouillon.

bull•ish /ˈbʊlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : hopeful or confident that something or someone will be successful : optimistic about the future of something or someone ▪ Members of her party are bullish about her re-election. ▪ They are bullish about the future of the product. — often + on ▪ A lot of investors are bullish on the company's future.
2 : expecting the price of stocks to go up ▪ bullish investors : characterized by rising stock prices ▪ a bullish market — compare BEARISH

bull market noun, pl ~ -kets [count] technical : a market (such as a stock market) in which prices are going up — compare BEAR MARKET

bull•ock /ˈbʊlək/ noun, pl -ocks [count] : a young bull that has had part of its sex organs removed so that it cannot breed bull•pen /ˈbʊlˌpɛn/ noun, pl ~ pens [count]

1 : a place on a baseball field where pitchers practice throwing the ball before they start pitching in a game ▪ A relief pitcher is warming up in the bullpen.
2 : the pitchers on a baseball team who can replace another pitcher during a game ▪ The team has a strong bullpen.

bull•ring /ˈbʊlˌrɪŋ/ noun, pl -rings [count] : a large circular area in which bullfights take place bull session noun, pl ~ -sions [count] US, informal : an informal conversation in which a group of people talk about something ▪ The governor had a bull session with his staff.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 113 SESS: 113 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

bull's–eye /ˈbʊlzˌaɪ/ noun, pl -eyes [count]
1 : the small circle at the center of a target toward which people throw darts or shoot arrows or bullets — usually singular ▪ Try to hit the bull's-eye. = Aim for/at the bull's-eye. — often used figuratively ▪ Her comments about our problems hit the bull's-eye. [=her comments were exactly correct]
2 : a shot that hits the center of a target — usually singular ▪ You got/threw/shot/scored a bull's-eye!

[1]bull•shit /ˈbʊlˌʃɪt/ noun [noncount] informal + offensive : foolish or untrue words or ideas ▪ That's (a load of) complete/pure/total/utter bullshit! [=nonsense, bull] — often used before another noun ▪ He told some bullshit story about how he sailed around the world.

[2]bullshit verb -shits; -shit; -shit•ting informal + offensive : to say foolish or untrue things to (someone) : to lie to (someone) [+ obj] Don't bullshit me. Tell me the truth! ▪ He tried to bullshit his way through the interview. [=to fool the people who were interviewing him by saying things that were not true] [no obj] Stop bullshitting and tell me the truth.
– bull•shit•ter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ Don't believe him. He's just a bullshitter.

bull terrier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a type of dog that is very strong and has short hair — compare PIT BULL

[1]bul•ly /ˈbʊli/ noun, pl bul•lies [count] : someone who frightens, hurts, or threatens smaller or weaker people ▪ Bullies would often pick on him or beat him up after school. ▪ My sister was the school/class/neighborhood bully.

[2]bully verb bullies; bul•lied; bul•ly•ing [+ obj]
1 : to frighten, hurt, or threaten (a smaller or weaker person) : to act like a bully toward (someone) ▪ A group of girls were bullying [=picking on] her at the playground. ▪ He bullied his younger brothers.
2 : to cause (someone) to do something by making threats or insults or by using force — usually + into ▪ His boss bullied him into working overtime. ▪ The kids were often bullied [=forced] into giving up their lunch money.
– bullying noun [noncount] ▪ Bullying is not tolerated at school. ▪ verbal/political bullying

[3]bully adj, informal — used in phrases like bully for you to express approval or praise especially when the approval or praise is not sincere ▪ She won? Well, bully for her.

bul•ly•boy /ˈbʊliˌbɔɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] chiefly Brit : an aggressive or violent man ▪ political bullyboys who threaten their opponents — often used before another noun ▪ uses bullyboy [=strong-arm] tactics to get what he wants bully pulpit noun, pl ~ -pits [count] US : an important public position that allows a person to express beliefs and opinions to many people ▪ She uses her position as a famous actress as a bully pulpit.

bul•rush /ˈbʊlˌrʌʃ/ noun, pl -rush•es [count] Brit : CATTAIL

bul•wark /ˈbʊlˌwɚk/ noun, pl -warks [count]
1 formal : something that provides protection for or against something ▪ democratic principles that stand as a bulwark against tyranny ▪ a bulwark of freedom [=something that protects freedom]
2 : a wall that is built for protection : RAMPART
3 : a wall that is part of a ship's sides and that is above the ship's upper deck — usually plural ▪ the ship's high bulwarks

[1]bum /ˈbʌm/ noun, pl bums [count]
1 chiefly US, informal + disapproving : a person who has no place to live and no job and who asks people for money ▪ Bums [=vagrants] often sleep on the park's benches. ▪ a deserted building where bums [=derelicts] sometimes sleep
2 informal : a person who is lazy or who does something badly ▪ Get to work, you lazy bum! ▪ "He didn't even bother to write." "What a bum!"
3 : a person who spends a lot of time relaxing and doing something fun rather than working ▪ a beach bum [=a person who spends a lot of time at the beach] ▪ a ski bum
– compare [5]BUM

[2]bum verb bums; bummed; bum•ming [+ obj] informal : to get (something) for free by asking : to ask for and get (something) ▪ Can I bum [=hitch] a ride with you? ▪ She's always bumming cigarettes off people.
bum around or Brit bum about [phrasal verb] informal 1 bum around/about or bum around/about (a place) : to spend time relaxing in (a place) instead of working ▪ I spent the whole day just bumming around the house. 2 bum around/about (a place) : to spend time living and traveling in (a place) without a job or much money ▪ After graduation, she bummed around Mexico for a while.
– compare [3]BUM

[3]bum verb bums; bummed; bum•ming US, informal
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel sad or disappointed — usually + out ▪ The news really bummed me out. = I was really bummed (out) by the news.
2 always used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to feel sad or disappointed about something ▪ She's bumming because she can't go to the concert.
– compare [2]BUM
– bummed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He's pretty bummed about not getting the scholarship.

[4]bum adj, always used before a noun, informal
1 : of bad quality ▪ We lost money thanks to your bum [=bad] advice. ▪ bum luck ▪ I got a bum deal on this car. [=this car is worth much less than what I paid for it] — see also bum rap at [1]RAP
2 : not legally acceptable : not valid ▪ He's known for writing/passing bum checks. [=checks that promise money he does not have; checks that bounce]
3 US : injured or damaged ▪ He has a bum knee/ankle/leg. [=his knee/ankle/leg does not function properly, is painful, etc.]

[5]bum noun, pl bums [count] chiefly Brit, informal : the part of the body that you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ He slipped and fell on his bum. [=behind, backside, bottom] ▪ Get off your bum [=butt] and get to work!
get/put bums on seats Brit, informal : to attract people to see a movie, play, game, etc. ▪ She has the looks and voice that really get/put bums on seats.
– compare [1]BUM

bum•ble /ˈbʌmbəl/ verb bum•bles; bum•bled; bum•bling
1 : to act, move, or speak in an awkward or confusing way [no obj] I bumbled around in search of my glasses. ▪ He bumbled through the speech. [+ obj] He bumbled his way through the speech.
2 US : to do, make, or handle (something) badly [+ obj] I had one chance and I bumbled [=bungled] it. [no obj] Someone bumbled [=blundered] and told the story to the press.
– bum•bler /ˈbʌmblɚ/ noun, pl -blers [count] ▪ an incompetent bumbler – bumbling adj ▪ a bumbling attempt at a robbery ▪ a bumbling robber/man

bum•ble•bee /ˈbʌmbəlˌbi:/ noun, pl -bees [count] : a large, hairy bee — see color picture on page C10

bumf also bumph /ˈbʌmf/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : material that is not important or interesting ▪ a lot of public relations bumf about the company's new products bum•mer /ˈbʌmɚ/ noun [singular] informal : something that is unpleasant or disappointing ▪ That was a real bummer of a movie. ▪ You can't go? What a bummer!

[1]bump /ˈbʌmp/ verb bumps; bumped; bump•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to hit (something, such as part of your body) against an object in a sudden and forceful way ▪ I have a bruise from where I bumped my head. — often + against or on ▪ He bumped his head against the shelf. ▪ I fell and bumped my elbow on the floor. b : to hit and move (someone or something) ▪ Be careful not to bump the vase. ▪ You nearly bumped me off/over the edge! ▪ The jolt bumped him right out of his seat. ▪ He accidentally bumped [=knocked] my drink out of my hand when he passed by.
2 [no obj] : to move into or against (someone or something) in a sudden and forceful way ▪ They bumped into us from behind. ▪ The boat bumped against the pier. — often + up ▪ The boat bumped up against the pier. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They're bumping (up) against the limits of technology. — see also BUMP INTO (below), BUMP UP (below)
3 [+ obj] a : to move (someone or something) to a different level, position, rank, etc. ▪ The TV show will be bumped to a new time. ▪ Increasing fuel costs are bumping the company's prices higher. b : to remove (someone or something) from a group or position ▪ The loss bumped us out of first place. — often used as (be) bumped ▪ The flight was overbooked, and I was the first to be bumped. [=my seat on the flight was the first seat to be given to someone else]
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move in an up and down motion over a rough surface ▪ The truck bumped along the dirt road.
bump into [phrasal verb] bump into (someone) informal : to meet (someone) by chance : to see and usually talk to (someone you did not expect to see) ▪ I bumped into [=ran into] a friend at the store. — see also [1]BUMP 2 (above)
bump off [phrasal verb] bump (someone) off or bump off (someone) informal : to murder (someone) ▪ He knew too much, so they bumped him off.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 114 SESS: 113 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-b

bump up [phrasal verb] bump up (something or someone) or bump (something or someone) up informal : to move (something or someone) to a higher level, position, rank, etc. ▪ Prices are being bumped up. [=raised] ▪ They're bumping her up [=promoting her] to district manager. — see also [1]BUMP 2 (above)

[2]bump noun, pl bumps [count]

1 : an area of skin that is raised because it was hit, injured, etc. ▪ He wound up with a few minor bumps and bruises from the fight. ▪ Feel this bump [=lump] on the back of my head. — see also GOOSE BUMPS

2 : a small raised area on a surface ▪ The car hit a bump (in the road). — often used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ His career hit a bump in the road. = His career hit a road bump. [=something happened that slowed the progress of his career] ▪ When you're doing something for the first time, you're bound to hit a few bumps along the way. — see also SPEED BUMP

3 : an act of something hitting against something else ▪ Did you feel/hear a bump? ▪ The airplane landed with a bump. [=the airplane went up again and then down when it hit the ground]

4 : the act of pushing the hips forward in a sexual way ▪ a dancer doing the bump and grind — compare GRIND

[1]bum•per /ˈbʌmpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a bar across the front or back of a car, truck, etc., that reduces the damage if the vehicle hits something ▪ the car's front/rear bumper — see picture at CAR

[2]bumper adj, always used before a noun

1 : unusually large ▪ We had a bumper crop of tomatoes this year.

2 : very good or successful ▪ It's a bumper [=(more commonly) banner] year for tomatoes. ▪ a bumper harvest/season

bumper car noun, pl ~ cars [count] chiefly US : a small electric car that you drive around in a small area at an amusement park and use to try to hit other cars bumper sticker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a strip of paper or plastic that has a printed message and that is made to be stuck on the bumper of a car, truck, etc.

bumper–to–bumper adj : made up of long lines of cars that are very close to each other ▪ bumper-to-bumper traffic ▪ The cars on the highway were bumper-to-bumper. [=the cars were very close to each other]

bumph variant spelling of BUMF

bump•kin /ˈbʌmpkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] informal : a person who lives in the country far away from cities and who is regarded as stupid ▪ country bumpkins

bump•tious /ˈbʌmpʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : proud or confident in a loud and rude way that annoys other people ▪ a bumptious young man ▪ bumptious behavior bumpy /ˈbʌmpi/ adj bump•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 of a surface : having or covered with bumps ▪ The road is very bumpy. ▪ the bumpy skin of a cucumber — opposite SMOOTH

2 : having sudden up and down movements ▪ The flight was very bumpy. ▪ The road was rough so we had a bumpy ride. ▪ a bumpy journey — opposite SMOOTH

3 : having a lot of problems ▪ a bumpy relationship ▪ The project got off to a bumpy [=rocky] start, but it's back on schedule now. ▪ Production of the movie has been a bumpy ride. [=there have been a lot of problems during the production of the movie] — opposite SMOOTH

– bump•i•ness noun [noncount]

bum–rush /ˈbʌmˈrʌʃ/ verb -rush•es; -rushed; -rush•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to attack or move toward (someone or something) in a forceful and violent way ▪ They bum-rushed him from behind. ▪ Angry spectators bum-rushed the stage.

bum's rush noun

the bum's rush chiefly US, informal : the act of forcing someone to leave a position or place ▪ The mayor is likely to get the bum's rush in next year's election. ▪ They gave him the bum's rush.

bun /ˈbʌn/ noun, pl buns

1 [count] : a small, round or long bread for one person to eat ▪ tuna salad served on a bun [=roll] ▪ a hamburger/hotdog bun

2 [count] : a small, usually round sweet cake ▪ cinnamon buns — see also STICKY BUN

3 [count] : a way of arranging long hair by twisting it into a round shape at the sides or back of the head ▪ She wears her hair in a bun.

4 buns [plural] US, informal : the two soft parts of the body that you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ This exercise will firm up your buns.

have a bun in the oven informal : to be pregnant ▪ Rumor has it, she has a bun in the oven.

[1]bunch /ˈbʌnʧ/ noun, pl bunch•es

1 [count] : a group of things of the same kind that are held or tied together or that grow together ▪ a bunch of flowers/grapes ▪ He always had a bunch of keys on his belt. ▪ Dried herbs hung in bunches from the kitchen rafters.

2 [count] somewhat informal : a group of people or things that are together or are associated with each other in some way — usually singular ▪ a nice bunch of people ▪ A bunch of us are going out for lunch. ▪ They're a pretty wild bunch (of people). ▪ All his books are good, but this one is the best/pick of the bunch.

3 chiefly US, somewhat informal : a large amount : LOT [singular] Thanks a bunch. — usually + of ▪ We spent a bunch of money on our vacation. ▪ having a (whole) bunch of problems ▪ What a bunch of nonsense! [plural] They make bunches [=lots] of money.

4 bunches [plural] Brit : a way of arranging hair by separating it into two sections and tying these at each side of the head ▪ She wore her hair in bunches. [=(US) ponytails]

[2]bunch verb bunches; bunched; bunch•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to put (things or people) together in a group or bunch — usually + together or up ▪ They bunched [=grouped] the rest together under the category of "Miscellaneous." ▪ She had bunched [=gathered] her curly hair up into a messy ponytail. — often used as (be) bunched ▪ The flowers are bunched together in one corner of the yard. ▪ The words were all bunched together at the bottom of the page. b [no obj] : to form a group — usually + together ▪ The baby birds bunch [=(more commonly) huddle] together for warmth.

2 of clothing : to form a group of tight folds on or around part of your body [no obj] The child's tights bunched at the ankles. — usually + up or together ▪ The sweater's long sleeves kept bunching up around her wrists. [+ obj] — usually + up or together; usually used as (be) bunched ▪ The tights were bunched together at the ankles. ▪ The sweater's long sleeves kept getting all bunched up around her wrists.

buncombe variant spelling of BUNKUM

[1]bun•dle /ˈbʌndəl/ noun, pl bun•dles [count]

1 a : a group of things that are fastened, tied, or wrapped together ▪ He arrived with several bundles [=packages, parcels] under his arms. — often + of ▪ a bundle of straw/newspapers/clothes b : a group of things that are together or are associated with each other in some way ▪ Whoever picks the winning ticket will win a bundle of prizes.

2 informal : a person who has a lot of some quality or who is known for a particular kind of behavior — + of ▪ You're just a bundle of contradictions! [=you say or do things that seem to go against other things you say or do] ▪ She's a bundle of energy. [=she's very energetic] ▪ I was a bundle of nerves. [=I was very nervous] ✧ The phrase (little) bundle of joy is used as a humorous or affectionate way of referring to a baby. ▪ He's our little bundle of joy.

3 informal : a large amount of money ▪ He made/lost a bundle on the stock market. ▪ A reliable car doesn't have to cost a bundle. ▪ They made bundles of money.

4 : a group of products or services that are sold together at a single price ▪ software bundles go a bundle on Brit, informal : to like or be interested (something) very much. — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't usually go a bundle on science fiction, but this book is really good.

[2]bundle verb bun•dles; bun•dled; bun•dling

1 [+ obj] : to fasten, tie, or wrap a group of things together : to make (a group of things) into a bundle ▪ Someone had bundled the wet towels into a big pile. — usually + up or together ▪ I bundled the papers together. ▪ Bundle up the newspapers.

2 : to move or push (someone) into a place quickly [+ obj] She bundled the children into the car. [no obj] We all bundled into the car.

3 [+ obj] : to include (a product or service) with another product or service so that they are sold together ▪ They've increased sales by bundling their most popular programs. ▪ a computer that comes with bundled software — often + with ▪ The software is bundled with the computer.

bundle off [phrasal verb] bundle (someone) off or bundle off (someone) : to send (someone) to a place quickly or suddenly ▪ He bundled the children off to school. ▪ She was bundled off to summer camp.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 115 SESS: 85 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:20:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−b

B

bundle up [phrasal verb] bundle up or bundle (someone) up or bundle up (someone) : to dress (yourself or someone else) warmly ▪ Be sure to bundle up. It's cold out there. ▪ She bundled up the children. ▪ He was (all) bundled up in a hat and scarf.

[1]bung /ˈbʌŋ/ noun, pl bungs [count]
1 : a piece of wood, rubber, etc., that is used to close or cover a hole in a barrel
2 Brit, informal : BRIBE ▪ thousands of pounds in illegal bungs

[2]bung verb bungs; bunged; bung•ing [+ obj] Brit, informal : to put (something) in or into a place in a quick and careless way ▪ Just bung [=toss] it in the oven for 20 minutes. ▪ Bung [=throw] all the ingredients into the bowl, stir a bit, and it's done.

bung up [phrasal verb] bung up (something) or bung (something) up Brit, informal : to block (something) so that liquid, air, etc., cannot move through it ▪ Leaves had bunged up [=plugged up, stopped up] the drain. ▪ My nose is (all) bunged up. [=stuffed up]

bun•ga•low /ˈbʌŋgəˌloʊ/ noun, pl -lows [count]
1 : a house that is all on one level
2 US : a house that has one main level and a second smaller level above bun•gee cord /ˈbʌnʤi-/ noun, pl ~ cords [count] : a very strong rope that can be stretched and that has hooks on either end — called also bungee

