JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

ed. ▪ She has been less than forthcoming about her involvement in the scandal.

forth•right /ˈfoəθˌraɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : honest and direct : providing answers or information in a very clear and direct way ▪ a forthright answer/person – forth•right•ly adv ▪ He explained his opinions publicly and forthrightly. – forth•right•ness noun [noncount]

forth•with /foəθˈwɪθ/ adv, formal : without delay : IMMEDIATELY ▪ The court ordered the company to cease operations forthwith.

for•ti• •ca•tion /ˌfoəɾəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of building military defenses to protect a place against attack : the act of fortifying something ▪ They began the fortification and reconstruction of the city.
2 [count] : a structure (such as a wall or tower) that is built to protect a place — usually plural ▪ The city was protected by massive fortifications.

for•ti•fy /ˈfoəɾəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to strengthen (a place) by building military defenses (such as walls, trenches, etc.) ▪ fortify a city against attack ▪ a heavily fortified town/border ▪ a city fortified by high walls
2 a : to make (someone or something) stronger ▪ fortify [=strengthen] the body against illness ▪ Support for his theories has been fortified by the results of these experiments. b : to make (yourself) feel stronger or less fearful ▪ He took a deep breath to fortify himself before stepping onto the stage.
3 : to improve the usefulness or quality of (something) by adding something to it : ENRICH ▪ fortify soil with fertilizer ▪ milk fortified with vitamin D for•tis•si•mo /foəˈtɪsəˌmoʊ/ adv, music : very loudly ▪ violins playing fortissimo

– fortissimo adj ▪ a fortissimo passage for•ti•tude /ˈfoəɾəˌtuːd, Brit ˈfɔːɾəˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] formal : mental strength and courage that allows someone to face danger, pain, etc. ▪ She has endured disappointments with fortitude and patience. ✧ The phrase intestinal fortitude is used informally in U.S. English as a humorous replacement for "guts," which means "courage." ▪ They accused him of lacking intestinal fortitude. [=of being a coward] fort•night /ˈfoətˌnaɪt/ noun, pl -nights [count] chiefly Brit : a period of 14 days : two weeks ▪ They stayed with us for a fortnight.

fort•night•ly /ˈfoətˌnaɪtli/ adj, chiefly Brit : happening or appearing once every two weeks ▪ a fortnightly [=biweekly] meeting/magazine – fortnightly adv ▪ It happens fortnightly.

for•tress /ˈfoətrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count] : a place that is protected against attack : a fortified place ▪ a mountaintop fortress
– for•tress•like /ˈfoətrəsˌlaɪk/ adj

for•tu•i•tous /foəˈtuːwətəs, Brit fɔːˈtjuətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : happening by chance ▪ His presence there was entirely fortuitous. ▪ a fortuitous circumstance/discovery
2 : having or showing good luck : FORTUNATE ▪ You could not have arrived at a more fortuitous time.

usage Sense 2 of fortuitous is commonly used, but many people regard it as an error.

– for•tu•i•tous•ly adv

for•tu•nate /ˈfoəʧənət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having good luck : enjoying good fortune : LUCKY ▪ How fortunate we were to find that restaurant! ▪ They were (very) fortunate to have his help. ▪ It's fortunate (for us) that these documents have been preserved. ▪ We're fortunate in having these opportunities. = We're fortunate to have these opportunities. ▪ We should try to help others who are less fortunate than ourselves. ▪ They were fortunate (enough) to escape injury when their car crashed. = It was fortunate that they escaped injury when their car crashed.
2 : coming or happening because of good luck ▪ a fortunate discovery/outcome — opposite UNFORTUNATE for•tun•ate•ly /ˈfoəʧənətli/ adv [more ~; most ~] — used to say that something good or lucky has happened ▪ Fortunately [=luckily], the plane was able to land safely. ▪ Fortunately (for us), these documents have been preserved. ▪ No one was injured, fortunately. — opposite UNFORTUNATELY for•tune /ˈfoəʧən/ noun, pl -tunes

1 a [count] : a very large amount of money — usually singular ▪ He won/made a fortune (by) gambling. ▪ Their house is worth a fortune. ▪ They spent a small fortune [=a surprisingly or unexpectedly large amount of money] on redecorating their house. ▪ She made her/a fortune in real estate. b [noncount] somewhat formal : a great amount of money or possessions : WEALTH ▪ He is a man of considerable fortune. [=he is a wealthy man] ▪ He hoped to achieve fame and fortune.
2 [noncount] : something that happens by chance : LUCK ▪ Our meeting here was a real stroke of (good) fortune. ▪ They had the good fortune to escape injury when their car crashed.
3 fortunes [plural] : the good and bad things that happen to someone ▪ The book follows the fortunes of two families through the years. ▪ the fortunes of war
4 [count] : the future that someone or something will have ▪ She said that she could tell my fortune. [=could tell what would happen to me in the future] ▪ I had my fortune told.
– see also SOLDIER OF FORTUNE

fortune cookie noun, pl ~ -ies [count] : a thin cookie served in Chinese restaurants that contains a slip of paper on which a message (such as a prediction about your future) is printed fortune hunter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a person who is trying to become very wealthy especially by marrying a wealthy person for•tune–tell•er /ˈfoəʧənˌtɛlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who claims to use special powers to tell what will happen to someone in the future : a person who tells people's fortunes

– for•tune–tell•ing /ˈfoəʧənˌtɛlɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

for•ty /ˈfoəti/ noun, pl for•ties
1 [count] : the number 40
2 forties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 40 to 49 ▪ The temperature outside is in the high forties. b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 40 to 49 ▪ She is in her forties. ▪ She found some old record albums from the forties. [=from 1940–1949]
– for•ti•eth /ˈfoəɾijəθ/ noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one fortieth of the total – fortieth adj ▪ his fortieth birthday – forty adj ▪ forty days – forty pronoun ▪ forty of her classmates – for•ty•ish /ˈfoəɾijɪʃ/ adj ▪ He was tall, fortyish [=about 40 years old], and had glasses and brown hair.

for•ty– ve /ˌfoəɾiˈfaɪv/ noun, pl - ves [count]
1 : a small gun : a type of pistol — usually written .45
2 : a small record with one song on each side — usually written 45

forty winks noun [plural] informal : a short sleep : a brief nap ▪ I had time to catch forty winks before the flight.

fo•rum /ˈforəm/ noun, pl forums also fo•ra /ˈforə/ [count]
1 : a meeting at which a subject can be discussed ▪ Forums were held to determine how to handle the situation. ▪ The town has scheduled a public forum to discuss the proposal. ▪ an open forum
2 : a place or opportunity for discussing a subject ▪ The club provides a forum for people who share an interest in local history. ▪ an online forum
3 : a large public place in an ancient Roman city that was used as the center of business

[1]for•ward /ˈfoəwəd/ also chiefly Brit for•wards /ˈfoəˌwədz/ adv
1 : toward the front : to or toward what is ahead or in front ▪ a sudden movement forward ▪ moved/pushed backward and forward ▪ Her long hair fell forward as she bent to tie her shoes. ▪ He pushed the throttle forward. ▪ She took a small step forward.
2 : toward the future ▪ Remember to set the clock forward [=ahead] (by) an hour. ▪ The narrative moves backward and forward in time. ▪ from that time forward ▪ Economists expect these trends to carry forward [=continue in the same way] into the next quarter.
3 : to or toward a more advanced state or condition ▪ Our plans are moving forward. [=our plans are progressing] ▪ The technology has taken a big step/leap forward. ▪ I don't want to go forward [=proceed] without a contract. ▪ We're going forward with the sale of the house. [=continuing to make the sale happen; not stopping the sale]
bring forward see BRING come forward see [1]COME forward of formal : in a position that is ahead of (something) : in front of (something) ▪ The valves are located just forward of the fuel tanks.
know something backward and forward see [1]KNOW look forward to see [1]LOOK put forward see [1]PUT put your best foot forward see [1]FOOT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

[2]forward adj
1 always used before a noun : near or belonging to the front part of something ▪ the forward deck of a boat
2 always used before a noun a : moving or directed ahead or toward the front ▪ a sudden forward movement ▪ a forward somersault b : moving toward the future or toward a more advanced state or condition ▪ the forward movement of history/technology
3 [more ~; most ~] : too confident or direct in social situations ▪ a forward [=brash] manner/question ▪ a very forward young woman – for•ward•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the forwardness of his manner/question

[3]forward verb -wards; -ward•ed; -ward•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to send (something you have received, such as a letter) to someone else ▪ Your letter will be forwarded to the appropriate department. ▪ forward an e-mail (message) to someone = forward someone an e-mail (message) b : to send (something that has arrived, such as a letter) to another place ▪ Please forward my mail to my new address. — see also FORWARDING ADDRESS
2 : to help (something) make progress or continue to a more advanced state ▪ He's always happy to forward [=promote, advance] a friend's career.
– see also FAST-FORWARD

[4]forward noun, pl -wards [count] sports : a player who plays near the opponent's goal ▪ a soccer/basketball/hockey forward

forwarding address noun, pl ~ -dress•es [count] : an address that you give to someone when you move to a different place so that any mail that comes to your old address can be sent to you ▪ She didn't leave a forwarding address.

forw•ard–look•ing /ˈfoəwəd,lukɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] approving : relating to the future ▪ forward-looking [=innovative] ideas/plans/products : planning for the future ▪ forward-looking [=farsighted] engineers/politicians/industrialists — opposite BACKWARD-LOOKING forward pass noun, pl ~ passes [count] American football : a pass made in the direction of the opponents' goal for•ward–think•ing /ˈfoəwəd,θɪŋkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : thinking about the future : FORWARD-LOOKING ▪ a forward-thinking company

fos•sil /ˈfɑːsəl/ noun, pl -sils [count]
1 : something (such as a leaf, skeleton, or footprint) that is from a plant or animal which lived in ancient times and that you can see in some rocks ▪ a dinosaur fossil — sometimes used before another noun ▪ fossil [=fossilized] footprints
2 informal : a person whose ideas are very old-fashioned or out-of-date ▪ He says the school's directors are a bunch of old fossils. [=fogies]

fossil fuel noun, pl ~ fuels : a fuel (such as coal, oil, or natural gas) that is formed in the earth from dead plants or animals [count] oil and other fossil fuels [noncount] sources of fossil fuel

fos•sil•ize also Brit fos•sil•ise /ˈfɑːsə,laɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing : to become a fossil or to cause (something) to become a fossil [no obj] Few animals ever fossilize. [+ obj] The mud helped to preserve and fossilize the wood.
– fos•sil•i•za•tion also Brit fos•sil•i•sa•tion /ˌfɑːsələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfɒsə,laɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

fossilized also Brit fos•sil•ised adj
1 : having been changed into a fossil ▪ fossilized dinosaur eggs ▪ fossilized bones
2 disapproving : very old-fashioned and unlikely to change ▪ fossilized attitudes about the rights of women

[1]fos•ter /ˈfɑːstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [+ obj] : to help (something) grow or develop ▪ We are trying to foster [=encourage, promote] a sense of community. ▪ Such conditions foster the spread of the disease.
2 : to provide the care that a parent usually gives to a child : to be or become the foster parent of a child [+ obj] Would you consider fostering a child? [no obj] (chiefly Brit) Would you consider fostering?

[2]foster adj, always used before a noun — used to describe a situation in which for a period of time a child lives with and is cared for by people who are not the child's parents ▪ They are foster parents to three foster children. ▪ She's in foster care. = She's in a foster home. [=she is living in a home with and being taken care of by foster parents]

fought past tense and past participle of [1]FIGHT

[1]foul /ˈfawəl/ adj foul•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : very unpleasant to taste or smell ▪ the foul odor of rotten eggs ▪ foul breath/air ▪ The medicine left a foul taste in my mouth. ▪ a foul-smelling chemical
2 : morally bad : very evil ▪ a foul crime
3 : very bad or unpleasant ▪ He was in a foul [=angry] mood. ▪ The weather has been foul all week. ▪ They do their job in fair weather and foul. [=in good weather and bad weather]
4 : indecent and offensive ▪ foul [=dirty] language ▪ She has a foul mouth. [=she uses foul language; she speaks in an indecent and offensive way] — see also FOUL-MOUTHED
5 : very unfair : not morally or socially acceptable ▪ He's determined to get what he wants, whether by fair means or foul. — see also FOUL PLAY
6 baseball : outside the area between the foul lines ▪ foul territory ▪ a foul grounder ✧ A foul ball is a batted ball that lands in the area outside the foul lines. — compare [1]FAIR 8 fall foul of : to get into trouble because of (the law, a rule, etc.) ▪ After leaving school she fell foul of the law. [=she got into trouble with the law; she was arrested for committing a crime] ▪ companies that fall foul of labor laws
– foul•ly adv ▪ He was foully [=brutally] murdered. – foul•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the foulness of the water/air/odor ▪ the foulness of his crimes/mood

[2]foul noun, pl fouls [count]
1 sports : an action that is against the rules and for which a player is given a penalty ▪ She committed three fouls. = She was charged with three fouls. ▪ a basketball player in foul trouble [=a player who has committed several fouls; a player who is close to fouling out] — see also PERSONAL FOUL, PROFESSIONAL FOUL, TECHNICAL FOUL, foul out at [3]FOUL
2 baseball : a batted ball that lands outside the foul lines : a foul ball ▪ He hit several fouls in a row. — see also foul out at [3]FOUL cry foul see [1]CRY

[3]foul verb fouls; fouled; foul•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (a substance, place, etc.) dirty ▪ pollutants that foul the air ▪ fouling [=befouling] the sacred waters
2 sports a [no obj] : to commit a foul ▪ She fouled on her first long jump attempt. b [+ obj] : to commit a foul against (another player) ▪ The other team has fouled him [=hit him, held him, etc.] repeatedly. ▪ He was fouled as he attempted the shot.
3 [+ obj] baseball : to hit (a pitched ball) so that it lands outside the foul lines ▪ He kept fouling pitches/balls into the stands. — often + off ▪ He fouled off several pitches in a row.
4 [+ obj] : to become twisted around (something) so that it cannot move, be used, etc. ▪ The anchor's rope fouled the propeller.
foul out [phrasal verb] 1 basketball : to be forced to leave a game because you have made too many fouls ▪ She fouled out (of the game) without scoring a point. 2 baseball, of a batter : to make an out by hitting a foul fly ball that is caught by a fielder ▪ The batter fouled out to the first baseman.
foul up [phrasal verb] informal 1 foul (something) up : to ruin or spoil (something) ▪ The weather has fouled up our plans. : to ruin or spoil (something) by making a mistake or being careless ▪ She fouled up [=ruined, messed up] our plans by forgetting to make the reservations. 2 foul up : to make mistakes : to fail at something because you have made a mistake or been careless ▪ Whenever I try to be clever, I usually foul up. [=mess up] — see also FOUL-UP foul line noun, pl ~ lines [count]

1 baseball : either one of two straight lines that go from home plate through first and third base on to the edge of the outfield ▪ The ball landed just inside the right-field foul line.
2 basketball : a line from which a player shoots free throws foul–mouthed /ˈfaʊl,maʊθt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using indecent or offensive language : having a foul mouth ▪ foul-mouthed students foul play noun [noncount]

1 : criminal violence or murder ▪ She is still missing, and the police now suspect that she may have been a victim of foul play. [=that she may have been murdered or harmed in some way] ▪ There is no evidence of foul play.
2 : unfair or dishonest acts ▪ The company's deal with the government has brought cries/accusations of foul play [=claims that there have been unfair or dishonest acts] from its competitors.

foul shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] basketball : FREE THROW foul–up /ˈfaʊl,ʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a problem caused by someone making a mistake or being careless ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

They had to deal with yet another administrative foul-up. — see also foul up at [3]FOUL

[1]found past tense and past participle of [1]FIND

[2]found /ˈfaʊnd/ verb founds; found•ed; found•ing [+ obj]
1 : to begin or create (something that is meant to last for a long time) : ESTABLISH ▪ found a colony/museum/college ▪ The college was founded in 1793.
2 : to provide support for something — usually used as (be) founded ▪ His suspicions were founded [=based] on nothing more than rumor. — see also UNFOUNDED, WELL-FOUNDED

foun•da•tion /faʊnˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : a usually stone or concrete structure that supports a building from underneath ▪ The inspector discovered a crack in the house's foundation. ▪ pour/lay/dig the foundation b : something (such as an idea, a principle, or a fact) that provides support for something ▪ He insists that these charges are without foundation. [=are unfounded] ▪ These charges have no foundation in fact. [=there are no facts that support these charges] ▪ The book explains the moral foundations on which her political career was built. ▪ These problems threaten the very foundations of modern society. ▪ The scandal has shaken the government to its foundations. ▪ Her early research laid the foundation [=provided the basis] for many important medical discoveries.
2 [count] : an organization that is created and supported with money that people give in order to do something that helps society ▪ They established a foundation to help orphaned children. ▪ set up a foundation ▪ a charitable/nonprofit/private foundation
3 [count, noncount] : a special cream that is the color of your skin and that you spread on your face and neck before putting on other makeup
4 [noncount] : the act of founding something ▪ the foundation of a new school

[1]found•er /ˈfaʊndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who creates or establishes something that is meant to last for a long time (such as a business or school) : a person who founds something ▪ the founder of a newspaper empire ▪ He's the son of the company's founder.

[2]found•der /ˈfaʊndə/ verb -ers; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]
1 : to experience failure : to be unsuccessful : FAIL ▪ Her career foundered, and she moved from job to job for several years. ▪ Their marriage is foundering. ▪ trying to save a foundering career/marriage
2 of a boat or ship : to fill with water and sink ▪ a foundering ship

founding father noun, pl ~ -thers [count]
1 : a person who helps to create or establish something : a person who founds something ▪ He is now recognized as one of the founding fathers [=founders] of the environmental movement.
2 or Founding Father : a man who had an important part in creating the government of the U.S.; specifically : a member of the American Constitutional Convention of 1787 ▪ a tribute to Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, and the other Founding Fathers founding member noun, pl ~ -bers [count] : an original member of a group (such as a club or corporation) — called also (US) charter member, (Brit) founder member found•ling /ˈfaʊndlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a baby that is found after being left by its parents found•ry /ˈfaʊndri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a building or factory where metals are produced

fount /ˈfaʊnt/ noun, pl founts [count]
1 somewhat old-fashioned + literary : the source of something ▪ Our tour guide was a fount of information about the city's history. ▪ a fount of knowledge/justice/wisdom ▪ (humorous) You know the answer to that one too? Why, you're a regular fount of wisdom. [=you know everything]
2 Brit : [2]FONT

foun•tain /ˈfaʊntn̩/ noun, pl -tains [count]
1 a : a device or structure that sends a stream of water into the air in a garden, park, etc. ▪ an elaborate marble fountain ▪ The crowd gathered around the fountain in the plaza.; also : the water that rises from a fountain ▪ a fountain of water — see also DRINKING FOUNTAIN, SODA FOUNTAIN b : something that rises into the air like a fountain of water ▪ a fountain of flame/sparks
2 : the source of something ▪ She is a fountain [=fount] of knowledge/wisdom. ▪ an endless fountain of inspiration

foun•tain•head /ˈfaʊntn̩ˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] literary : the origin or source of something ▪ the fountainhead of the faith

fountain of youth noun, pl fountains of youth [count]
1 or Fountain of Youth in stories and legends : a fountain with magic water ✧ According to legend, anyone who drinks water from the Fountain of Youth will live forever.
2 : a source of the kind of energy or health that young people usually have ▪ Exercise is good for you, but it's not a perfect fountain of youth.

fountain

fountain pen noun, pl ~ pens [count] : a pen with ink inside that flows to a special metal tip (called a nib)

four /ˈfoə/ noun, pl fours
1 [count] : the number 4
2 [count] : the fourth in a set or series ▪ the four of hearts
3 [noncount] : four o'clock ▪ "What time is it?" "It's four." ▪ I leave each day at four.
– see also ALL FOURS
– four adj ▪ waiting for four hours – four pronoun ▪ Four (of them) are broken.

4x4 also four–by–four /ˈfoəbaɪˌfoə/ noun, pl 4x4s also four–by–fours [count] US : a vehicle (such as a truck) that has four wheels and four-wheel drive four•fold /ˈfoəˌfoʊld/ adj : four times as great or as many ▪ There has been a fourfold increase in membership this year.

– fourfold adv ▪ Membership has increased fourfold.

4–H /ˈfoəˈeɪtʃ/ adj : of or relating to a government program in the U.S. that teaches farming skills and good citizenship to young people ▪ a 4-H club

four–letter word noun, pl ~ words [count]
1 : an offensive word and especially an offensive word that has four letters : DIRTY WORD 1 ▪ a book that contains a lot of four-letter words
2 : a word, subject, or idea that is disliked by some people : DIRTY WORD 2 ▪ "Tax" is a four-letter word as far as he's concerned.

401(k) /ˌfoəˌwʌnˈkeɪ/ noun, pl 401(k)s [count] US : a method by which the workers in a company can save money for their retirement by having an amount of money saved from their paychecks over a long period of time

four–post•er /ˌfoəˈpoʊstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a bed with tall posts at each of its four corners — called also four-poster bed

four•score /ˈfoəˈskoə/ adj, formal + old-fashioned : EIGHTY ▪ "Fourscore and seven [=87] years ago . . ." —Abraham Lincoln, Gettysburg Address (1863)

four•some /ˈfoəsəm/ noun, pl -somes [count] : a group of four people or things ▪ a foursome of golfers = a golfing foursome

four•square /ˈfoəˈskweə/ adj
1 : having a square shape ▪ foursquare houses/buildings
2 [more ~; most ~] formal : strong and direct : FORTHRIGHT ▪ her foursquare support for the proposal
– foursquare adv ▪ They are lined up foursquare [=firmly, forthrightly] against him. ▪ She came out foursquare [=strongly] in support of the proposal.

four–star /ˈfoəˈstɑə/ adj, always used before a noun : of very high quality ▪ a four-star hotel/restaurant

four•teen /foəˈtiːn/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 14
– fourteen adj ▪ fourteen days – fourteen pronoun ▪ Fourteen (of them) are gone. – four•teenth /foəˈtiːnθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ The bill is due on the fourteenth (of the month). ▪ one fourteenth of the total – fourteenth adj ▪ I finished (the race) in fourteenth place. – fourteenth adv ▪ I finished fourteenth in the race. ▪ the nation's fourteenth largest city

[1]fourth /foəθ/ noun, pl fourths
1 [singular] : number four in a series ▪ I'll be flying in on the fourth. [=the fourth day of the month] ▪ He got a base hit in the fourth. [=the fourth inning]
2 [count] : one of four equal parts of something ▪ cut the cake into fourths ▪ She drank a fourth of the bottle.
3 [noncount] : the fourth forward gear or speed of a car, truck, etc. ▪ He shifted into fourth.
4 the Fourth : INDEPENDENCE DAY ▪ watching fireworks on the Fourth

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

F

[2]fourth adj
1 : occupying the number four position in a series ▪ on the fourth day ▪ the book's fourth edition ▪ her fourth goal of the season
2 — used to refer to one of the forward gears or speeds of a vehicle ▪ fourth gear – fourth adv ▪ She finished fourth in the race. ▪ the fourth highest mountain fourth estate or Fourth Estate noun [singular] : the people and organizations who report the news : journalists as a group ▪ a member of the Fourth Estate

Fourth of July noun [singular] : INDEPENDENCE DAY

four–wheel /ˈfoəˌwi:l/ also four–wheeled /ˈfoəˌwi:ld/ adj, always used before a noun : having four wheels ▪ a four-wheel vehicle

four–wheel drive noun [noncount] : a system that applies engine power directly to all four wheels of a vehicle ▪ a truck equipped with four-wheel drive

fowl /ˈfawəl/ noun, pl fowl also fowls
1 a [count] : a bird (such as a chicken) that is raised for food — usually plural ▪ raising domestic fowl ▪ The young fowl/fowls are fully independent when they hatch. b [noncount] : the meat of such a bird used as food ▪ roasted fowl
2 [count] old-fashioned + humorous : a bird of any kind ▪ I spotted a long-legged fowl by the water's edge. — see also GUINEA FOWL, WATERFOWL, WILDFOWL
neither fish nor fowl see [1]FISH

[1]fox /ˈfɑ:ks/ noun, pl fox•es
1 a [count] : a small wild animal that is related to dogs and that has a long pointed nose and a bushy tail b [noncount] : the fur of a fox — often used before another noun ▪ a fox coat
2 [count] : a clever person ▪ He's a wily/sly old fox. ▪ She's crazy like a fox. [=she seems foolish or strange but is actually very clever]
3 [count] US, informal : an attractive person ▪ She's a real fox. [=she's a very attractive woman]

fox

[2]fox verb foxes; foxed; fox•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit
1 : to trick or fool (someone) ▪ They foxed me into telling the secret. — compare OUTFOX
2 : to confuse (someone) ▪ The problem had us foxed!

fox•glove /ˈfɑ:ksˌglʌv/ noun, pl -gloves [count] : a tall plant that has many white or purple bell-shaped flowers growing on its stem

fox•hole /ˈfɑ:ksˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : a hole dug for a soldier to sit or lie in for protection from the enemy

fox•hound /ˈfɑ:ksˌhaʊnd/ noun, pl -hounds [count] : a type of quick and strong dog that is often trained to hunt foxes

fox•hunt•ing /ˈfɑ:ksˌhʌntɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : an activity in which people riding horses hunt foxes by using specially trained dogs

fox terrier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a type of small and lively dog fox–trot /ˈfɑ:ksˌtrɑ:t/ noun, pl -trots [count] : a formal dance that includes slow walking steps and quick running steps; also : the music for this dance ▪ The band played a fox-trot.

foxy /ˈfɑ:ksi/ adj fox•i•er; -est
1 : resembling or suggesting a fox ▪ a narrow foxy face
2 : very clever ▪ a foxy politician/strategy
3 US, informal : physically attractive : SEXY ▪ a foxy lady

foy•er /ˈfojɚ, ˈfoɪˌeɪ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : an open area in a public building (such as a hotel or theater) near the entrance : a lobby or entrance hall
2 US : an open area near the entrance in someone's home

fr. abbr 1 father 2 franc 3 from

Fr. abbr 1 France; French 2 Friday

fra•cas /ˈfreɪkəs, Brit ˈfræˌkɑ:/ noun, pl fra•cas•es (US) or Brit fracas [count] : a noisy argument or fight — usually singular ▪ a drunken fracas ▪ a minor fracas

frac•tion /ˈfrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 mathematics : a number (such as ½ or ¾) which indicates that one number is being divided by another; also : a number (such as 3.323) that consists of a whole number and a decimal 2 : a part or amount of something ▪ a fraction of an inch/second ▪ We've described only a small fraction [=portion] of the available options. ▪ The new program will provide similar benefits at a fraction of the cost (of the old one). [=at much less cost; for much less money] ▪ The new technology allows us to complete the job in a fraction of the time [=in much less time] it formerly took.

frac•tion•al /ˈfrækʃənl/ adj
1 mathematics : of or relating to a fraction ▪ fractional numbers
2 a : very small ▪ There has been a fractional rise in the price of the stock. ▪ There is only a fractional improvement in the new version. ▪ a fractional amount b : not complete ▪ fractional [=partial] ownership – frac•tion•al•ly adv ▪ The stock's price rose fractionally. [=slightly] frac•tious /ˈfrækʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : causing trouble : hard to manage or control ▪ fractious [=unruly] children ▪ The fractious crowd grew violent.
2 : full of anger and disagreement ▪ a fractious relationship ▪ fractious negotiations ▪ a fractious political campaign
– frac•tious•ness noun [noncount]

[1]frac•ture /ˈfrækʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures [count] : the result of breaking something : a crack or break ▪ a fracture in the Earth's crust; especially : a broken bone ▪ She suffered a wrist fracture when she slipped on the ice. — see also COMPOUND FRACTURE, SIMPLE FRACTURE, STRESS FRACTURE

[2]fracture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to cause a crack or break in (something hard, such as a bone) ▪ She fractured [=broke] her wrist when she slipped on the ice. b [no obj] of something hard : to crack or break ▪ Her wrist fractured when she fell on the ice.
2 : to damage or destroy (something) or to be damaged or destroyed in a sudden or violent way [+ obj] Their happiness was fractured by an unforeseen tragedy. ▪ These problems may fracture the unity of the two parties. [no obj] Their fragile happiness/unity fractured all too soon.

fractured adj
1 : having a crack or break ▪ a badly fractured [=broken] wrist ▪ a fractured skull/rib ▪ fractured rocks
2 : spoken with many mistakes : not fluent ▪ They couldn't understand my fractured [=broken] French.
3 : damaged or destroyed in a sudden or violent way ▪ fractured happiness/unity

frag•ile /ˈfræʤəl, ˈfræˌʤajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easily broken or damaged ▪ the flower's fragile petals ▪ Her health has always been very fragile. ▪ fragile bones ▪ an artist with a fragile ego ▪ He is in an emotionally fragile state. : very delicate ▪ her fragile beauty : not strong ▪ The two countries have formed a fragile coalition. ▪ a fragile cease-fire
– fra•gil•i•ty /frəˈʤɪlәti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the fragility of her health

[1]frag•ment /ˈfrægmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : a broken part or piece of something ▪ bone fragments ▪ a pottery fragment ▪ The dish lay in fragments on the floor.
2 : an incomplete part ▪ I could only hear fragments of their conversation. — see also SENTENCE FRAGMENT

[2]frag•ment /ˈfrægˌmɛnt, Brit frægˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing : to break or to cause (something) to break into parts or pieces [no obj] The party is fragmenting into warring factions. [+ obj] These issues are fragmenting our society. ▪ The property is being fragmented into subdivisions.
– frag•men•ta•tion /ˌfrægmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the increasing fragmentation of society – fragmented adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ We live in an increasingly fragmented society. ▪ a fragmented market

frag•men•tary /ˈfrægmənˌteri, Brit ˈfrægməntri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : made up of parts or pieces : made up of fragments ▪ discovering fragmentary remains of primitive animals ▪ fragmentary [=incomplete] evidence/fossils/memories ▪ fragmentary information/knowledge

fra•grance /ˈfreɪgrəns/ noun, pl -granc•es [count]
1 : a pleasant and usually sweet smell ▪ a flower with a lovely fragrance
2 : a perfume or cologne ▪ the company's newest fragrance

fra•grant /ˈfreɪgrənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasant and usually sweet smell ▪ a fragrant flower ▪ The soup was fragrant with herbs and spices.

fraîche see CRÈME FRAÎCHE

fraidy–cat /ˈfreɪdiˌkæt/ noun, pl -cats [count] US, informal

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

: SCAREDY-CAT — used mainly by children or when speaking to children ▪ Don't be such a fraidy-cat!

frail /ˈfreɪl/ adj frail•er; -est
1 : having less than a normal amount of strength or force : very weak ▪ a frail child ▪ a frail old man ▪ I could barely hear her frail [=weak] voice. ▪ In his old age his health became increasingly frail. synonyms see WEAK
2 : easily damaged or destroyed ▪ a small and frail ship – frail•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the frailness [=(more commonly) frailty] of his health

frail•ty /ˈfreɪlti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : physical weakness : the quality or state of being frail ▪ the old man's frailty ▪ the frailty of her voice/health
2 : weakness of character that causes a person to do things that are morally wrong [noncount] He is not immune to human frailty. [=he sometimes fails to do what is fair, honest, etc.] [count] We can no longer be surprised by the frailties of our political leaders.

[1]frame /ˈfreɪm/ noun, pl frames
1 [count] : the basic structure and shape of the body of a person or animal ▪ She had to extend every inch of her five-foot frame [=body] to reach the top shelf. ▪ her petite/slight/thin/wiry frame ▪ his large/lanky/lean frame
2 [count] : an arrangement of parts that support and form the basic shape of something ▪ the frame of a house ▪ a bicycle frame ▪ the car's steel frame
3 a [count] : an open structure that holds something (such as glass or a picture) ▪ a picture/window/door frame — see also COLD FRAME b frames [plural] : the plastic or metal structure that holds the lenses of eyeglasses ▪ I need new frames for my glasses.
4 [count] a : one of the pictures in the series of pictures that make up a film ▪ The film runs at eight frames per second. — see also FREEZE-FRAME b : one of the drawings in the series of drawings that make up a comic strip
5 [count] computers : a section of a Web page that is like a small separate page : a section of a Web page that has its own scroll bar
6 [count] Brit : [1]RACK 6
in the frame Brit, informal : in the position of being considered for something ▪ a job candidate who is still in the frame out of the frame Brit, informal : no longer in the position of being considered for something ▪ a job candidate who is out of the frame
– see also TIME FRAME

[2]frame verb frames; framed; fram•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to put (something) inside an open structure that holds it : to put (something) in a frame ▪ frame a picture ▪ a framed photograph ▪ paintings framed with/in wood ▪ steel-framed spectacles b : to be around the edge of (something) — usually used as (be) framed ▪ a house framed by a white picket fence ▪ The child's face was framed by brown curls.
2 : to produce (something written or spoken) ▪ It was the first state to frame a written constitution. : to express (a question, answer, etc.) in words ▪ She framed her questions carefully. ▪ He took the time to frame a thoughtful reply.
3 : to make (an innocent person) appear to be guilty of a crime ▪ She claims that she was framed. — see also FRAME-UP
– fram•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a picture framer ▪ the framers of the U.S. Constitution [=the people who wrote the U.S. Constitution]

frame of mind noun, pl frames of mind [count] : the way someone is feeling : a person's emotional state : MOOD ▪ Wait until he's in a better frame of mind. ▪ a cheerful/happy/relaxed frame of mind ▪ a serious/somber frame of mind frame of reference noun, pl frames of reference [count] : a set of ideas, conditions, experiences, etc., that affect how something is thought about or understood ▪ Each person experiences art through his or her own frame of reference. ▪ Her biographer tries to provide a frame of reference in which her work can be analyzed.

frame–up /ˈfreɪmˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a plan to make an innocent person appear to be guilty of a crime ▪ She's the victim of a frame-up. — see also [2]FRAME 3 frame•work /ˈfreɪmˌwɚk/ noun, pl -works [count]

1 : the basic structure of something ▪ These influences threaten the very framework of our society. : a set of ideas or facts that provide support for something ▪ The book provides a general framework for understanding modern politics. ▪ He questions the study's theoretical framework.
2 : a supporting structure : a structural frame ▪ An iron framework surrounds the sculpture. ▪ The panels are attached to the building's steel framework.

franc /ˈfræŋk/ noun, pl francs [count] : a basic unit of money that is used in some countries where French is spoken and that was formerly used in France, Luxembourg, and Belgium; also : a coin or bill representing one franc

[1]fran•chise /ˈfrænˌʧaɪz/ noun, pl -chis•es [count]
1 : the right to sell a company's goods or services in a particular area ▪ She was granted an exclusive franchise in the city's west end.; also : a business that is given such a right ▪ They just opened a new fast-food franchise down the street.
2 : the right to vote ▪ The U.S. did not extend the franchise to women until the early 20th century.
3 US, sports : a team that is a member of a professional sports league ▪ He's the best player in the history of the franchise. ✧ In U.S. and Canadian English, a franchise player is the best and most important player on a particular professional sports team.

[2]franchise verb -chises; -chised; -chis•ing [+ obj] : to offer the right to sell (your company's goods or services) in a particular area ▪ Most of the restaurants are owned by the company, but 15 are franchised restaurants. [=are owned and operated by people who have a franchise]

fran•chi•see /ˌfrænˌʧaɪˈziː/ noun, pl -sees [count] : someone who has been given the right to sell a company's goods or services in a particular area : a person who has been granted a franchise

Fran•co- /ˌfræŋkoʊ/ combining form
1 : French ▪ Franco-German
2 : France, French culture, or the French ▪ a *Franco*phile [=a person who greatly likes and admires France and French things] ▪ a *Franco*phobe [=a person who dislikes France and French things]

Fran•co–Amer•i•can /ˌfræŋkowəˈmerəkən/ noun, pl -cans [count] : an American whose family comes originally from France
– Franco–American adj

Fran•co•phone /ˈfræŋkəˌfoʊn/ adj : having French as the main language ▪ the region's Francophone population ▪ a Francophone neighborhood in an English-speaking country – Francophone noun, pl -phones [count] ▪ a neighborhood that includes many Francophones [=people who speak French as their main language]

[1]frank /ˈfræŋk/ adj frank•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] — used to say that someone is speaking or writing in a very direct and honest way ▪ She gave me some very frank criticism. ▪ Don't be afraid to be perfectly/completely frank with me. ▪ To be brutally frank with you, I don't think you're good enough. ▪ We had a full and frank discussion.
– frank•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She spoke with surprising frankness.

[2]frank noun, pl franks [count] US, informal : FRANKFURTER, HOT DOG ▪ We ate franks and beans for lunch.

frank•furt•er /ˈfræŋkˌfəɾɾɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : HOT DOG 1

frank•in•cense /ˈfræŋkənˌsɛns/ noun [noncount] : a substance that is burned for its sweet smell and that was used in religious ceremonies in ancient times

frank•ly /ˈfræŋkli/ adv : in an honest and direct way ▪ You can speak frankly to us. — often used to introduce a statement that tells your true opinion, reason, etc. ▪ Frankly, I think your essay needs more work. [=I am being honest when I tell you that your essay needs more work]

fran•tic /ˈfræntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling or showing a lot of fear and worry ▪ frantic cries for help ▪ The girl was frantic with fear/worry. ▪ They made a frantic search for the missing child. ▪ a frantic phone call
2 : having a lot of wild and hurried activity ▪ They were making frantic preparations for the party. ▪ a frantic attempt/effort to finish on schedule
– fran•ti•cal•ly /ˈfræntɪkli/ adv ▪ searching frantically

frat /ˈfræt/ noun, pl frats [count] US, informal : FRATERNITY 1 — often used before another noun ▪ a frat party [=a party given by a fraternity] ▪ a frat boy [=a member of a fraternity]

fra•ter•nal /frəˈtɚnl/ adj
1 : of or relating to brothers ▪ fraternal love
2 : made up of members who share an interest or purpose ▪ He belonged to a fraternal organization.
3 : friendly or brotherly ▪ There was a fraternal feeling among the troops.
– fra•ter•nal•ly adv

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

fraternal twin noun, pl ~ twins [count] : either member of a pair of twins that are produced from different eggs and may not have the same sex or appearance — compare IDENTICAL TWIN

fra•ter•ni•ty /frəˈtərnəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : an organization of male students at a U.S. college — compare SORORITY
2 [count] : a group of people who have the same job, interests, etc. ▪ the racing fraternity [=people who are involved or interested in racing] ▪ the legal fraternity
3 [noncount] formal : the feeling of friendship that exists between people in a group ▪ an atmosphere of fraternity and cooperation frat•er•nize also Brit frat•er•nise /ˈfrætəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [no obj] : to be friendly with someone : to spend time with someone in a friendly way especially when it is considered wrong or improper to do so ▪ It is usually unwise to fraternize with your employees. ▪ The soldiers were caught fraternizing (with the enemy).

– frat•er•ni•za•tion also Brit frat•er•ni•sa•tion /ˌfrætənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌfrætənaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
– frat•er•niz•er also Brit frat•er•nis•er /ˈfrætəˌnaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

frat•ri•cide /ˈfrætrəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count] : the crime of murdering your own brother or sister; also : a person who has committed this crime — compare MATRICIDE, PATRICIDE
– frat•ri•cid•al /ˌfrætrəˈsaɪdl/ adj

fraud /ˈfrɑːd/ noun, pl frauds
1 : the crime of using dishonest methods to take something valuable from another person [noncount] He was found guilty of bank fraud. ▪ credit card fraud [count] He was the victim of an elaborate fraud. — see also WIRE FRAUD
2 [count] a : a person who pretends to be what he or she is not in order to trick people ▪ He claimed he was a licensed psychologist, but he turned out to be a fraud. b : a copy of something that is meant to look like the real thing in order to trick people ▪ The UFO picture was proved to be a fraud.

fraud•ster /ˈfrɑːdstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] chiefly Brit : a person who commits fraud fraud•u•lent /ˈfrɑːʤələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : done to trick someone for the purpose of getting something valuable ▪ Corrupt leaders were chosen in a fraudulent election. ▪ fraudulent use of a credit card ▪ a fraudulent claim ▪ the victim of a fraudulent scheme fraught /ˈfrɑːt/ adj : causing or having a lot of emotional stress or worry : ANXIOUS ▪ a fraught silence/atmosphere ✧ Fraught in this sense is more common in British English than in U.S. English.

– fraud•u•lence /ˈfrɑːʤələns/ noun [noncount] – fraud•u•lent•ly adv

fraught with : full of (something bad or unwanted) ▪ The situation was fraught with danger. [=very dangerous] ▪ The paper was poorly researched and fraught with errors.

[1]fray /ˈfreɪ/ noun, pl frays [count] : a fight, struggle, or disagreement that involves many people ▪ He threw himself into the fray. ▪ He joined/entered the political fray.
above the fray : not directly involved in an angry or difficult struggle or disagreement ▪ His political aides handled the controversy while he remained above the fray.

[2]fray verb frays; frayed; fray•ing : to cause (a cloth or other material) to become worn down at the end or edge : to separate the threads of (a material) [+ obj] She frayed the edges of her cutoff jeans. = She frayed her cutoff jeans at the edges. [no obj] The cuffs of the old shirt were fraying. — often used figuratively ▪ Her temper was starting to fray. [=she was beginning to get angry] ▪ His nerves were frayed/fraying. ▪ their frayed/fraying friendship

[1]fraz•zle /ˈfræzəl/ verb fraz•zles; fraz•zled; fraz•zling [+ obj] informal : to make (someone) very nervous or upset ▪ He's a clever player who knows how to frazzle his opponents. ▪ frazzle someone's nerves
– frazzled adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ feeling very tired and frazzled ▪ frazzled nerves

[2]frazzle noun
to a frazzle informal 1 : to a very tired or nervous condition ▪ By the end of the day, the waitress was worn to a frazzle. [=was exhausted] 2 Brit : to a state of being hard, dry, and easily broken ▪ The toast had been burned to a frazzle. [=burned to a crisp]

[1]freak /ˈfriːk/ noun, pl freaks [count]
1 a disapproving : a very strange or unusual person ▪ Who's that freak [=weirdo] with the green hair? ▪ eccentric, artistic types whom many regarded as freaks ▪ a hippie freak b old-fashioned + sometimes offensive : a person or animal that is physically abnormal ▪ a circus freak ▪ I had a terrible rash on my face, and I felt like a freak. ▪ a freak show
2 informal : a person who is very interested or active in something specified ▪ a magazine for computer freaks [=enthusiasts] ▪ a fitness freak ▪ a movie freak — see also CONTROL FREAK, NEAT FREAK
3 informal : a person who uses a specified illegal drug ▪ a speed freak
4 : something (such as an event) that is very unusual or unexpected ▪ Through some incredible freak of fate [=strange event] they survived the shipwreck. — see also FREAK OF NATURE

[2]freak adj, always used before a noun : not natural, normal, or likely ▪ He was the victim of a freak accident. ▪ a freak occurrence

[3]freak verb freaks; freaked; freak•ing informal
1 [+ obj] : to make (someone) very upset ▪ He was a little freaked by the accident. — usually + out ▪ He was a little freaked out by the accident. ▪ It freaks me out to see people being so violent. ▪ She was freaked out by what you said.
2 [no obj] : to become very upset ▪ She really freaked when you said that. — often + out ▪ She really freaked out. ▪ He freaked out when he saw his girlfriend kiss another guy.

freaking /ˈfriːkŋ, ˈfriːkɪŋ/ adj, US, informal + impolite — used to make an angry statement more forceful ▪ Give me the freaking keys!
– freaking adv ▪ She is so freaking annoying!

freak•ish /ˈfriːkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very strange or abnormal ▪ freakish weather ▪ a freakish twist of fate
– freak•ish•ly adv ▪ He has a freakishly large nose. ▪ freakishly hot weather – freak•ish•ness noun [noncount]

freak of nature noun, pl freaks of nature [count] : a person or thing that is very unusual or abnormal ▪ He's an amazing athlete—a real freak of nature. ▪ The storm that destroyed the house was a freak of nature.

freaky /ˈfriːki/ adj freak•i•er; -est informal : strange or unusual ▪ That book was kind of freaky. ▪ a freaky kid wearing a weird hat

[1]freck•le /ˈfrɛkəl/ noun, pl freck•les [count] : a small, brownish spot on someone's skin ▪ a pale, redheaded girl with freckles across her cheeks ▪ a freckle-faced girl

[2]freckle verb freckles; freck•led; freck•ling : to be or become marked with freckles or spots [no obj] His skin freckles but doesn't tan. [+ obj] Tiny black spots freckled the walls.
– freckled adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She has a freckled face. [=she has many freckles on her face]

[1]free /ˈfriː/ adj fre•er fre•est
1 : not costing any money ▪ They're giving out free tickets to the show. ▪ The school newsletter is free. ▪ free advice ▪ free drinks/food ▪ The tickets are free for the taking. [=anyone who wants one can take one] ▪ The store is offering a calculator as a free gift. [=something that is given to people to help get new customers for a business]
2 a : not held as a slave or prisoner ▪ After 10 years in jail, he was finally a free man. — often used after set ▪ After 10 years, they finally set him free. b : not physically held by something ▪ The animal struggled to get free of/from the trap. ▪ His legs became caught in the net, and he was unable to get himself free.
3 : able to do what you want to do : able to move, go, or act without being stopped — followed by to + verb ▪ You are free to leave. ▪ You're (entirely) free to do whatever you want to do. ▪ We were free to choose from among several options.
4 a : not controlled by a harsh ruler or laws ▪ He dreamed of a day when his people would be free. ▪ a free society ▪ I can say whatever I want to say. This is a free country. b : not limited by government control ▪ free competition ▪ free and democratic elections ▪ free speech — see also FREE ENTERPRISE, FREE MARKET, FREE TRADE
5 a : not limited by fear, uncertainty, etc. : OPEN ▪ a free expression of opinions ▪ a free exchange of ideas ▪ Children are often freer and more imaginative than adults in their writing. b : not limited in any way ▪ Your password allows you to have free access to the system. ▪ The ships were allowed free passage into and out of the port. — see also FREE HAND, FREE LOVE, free rein at REIN
6 : not having, including, or suffering from something unpleasant, painful, or unwanted — usually + from or of ▪ free

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

from worry/disease ▪ The product is guaranteed to be free of/from major defects. ▪ The speech was free of political rhetoric. ▪ writing that is free of jargon — sometimes used in combination ▪ jargon-free writing ▪ sugar-free chewing gum ▪ After struggling with her addiction for many years, she is finally drug-free. [=she has finally stopped using drugs] — see also SCOT-FREE

7 a : not required to be doing something : having nothing that must be done instead ▪ I'm free tomorrow night. ▪ We're having a party next Saturday. Are you free? b of time : not being used for work or other activities ▪ Wednesday is her only free afternoon. ▪ I wish I had more free time. ▪ He spends a lot of his free time [=time when he is not working on his job] tinkering with his car.

8 a : not being used ▪ I'm going to call my mother as soon as the phone is free. ▪ "Excuse me: is this seat free?" "I'm sorry: it's taken." ▪ There's not enough free space on my computer's hard drive to install the software. b : not holding anything ▪ He waved at us with his free hand. c : not attached to anything ▪ She held onto the free end of the rope.

9 : not covered or filled with things : CLEAR ▪ We'll need a lot of free floor space for the dancing lesson. ▪ The hallway should be kept free of clutter.

10 : giving, doing, or saying something very often ▪ He seems to be very free about giving people his advice. = He seems to be very free with his advice. = [=he seems to give his advice very often, even when it is not wanted] ▪ She's very free with her money. = She's a free spender. [=she spends her money freely; she spends a lot of money without worrying about trying to save it] ▪ (chiefly Brit) He had a habit of making free with other people's money. [=of using other people's money freely]

11 of a translation : not closely following or matching the original language : not exact ▪ This is a very free [=loose] translation of the original poem.

(as) free as a bird : completely free ▪ After he left school he felt as free as a bird.

feel free — used to tell someone that there is no reason to hesitate about doing something ▪ Feel free to call me if you have any questions.

for free : without charge : at no cost ▪ If you buy two boxes of cereal, you'll get another box for free. [=without paying any more money]

free and easy 1 : very informal and relaxed ▪ a teacher with a free and easy manner ▪ a free and easy atmosphere 2 : not strict or careful enough ▪ They have been too free and easy in accepting political contributions.

– free•ly adv ▪ He freely admitted that he had lied. ▪ We passed freely through the gate. ▪ Wine flowed freely. ▪ She spends money freely.

[2]free adv

1 : in a free way ▪ The gate opened, and the animals ran free.

2 : without charge : at no cost ▪ Children will be admitted free. [=for free] ▪ Buy one, get one free.

break free see [1]BREAK

free and clear : without owing any money ▪ I've paid off my mortgage and now I own the property free and clear. [=I no longer owe any money for the property]

free of charge : without charge : at no cost ▪ He offered his services free of charge. [=without receiving money]

home free see [2]HOME

[3]free verb frees; freed; free•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be free: such as a : to release (a person or animal) from a prison, cage, etc. ▪ The government has agreed to free all political prisoners (from jail). ▪ The gunman freed two of the hostages. ▪ The animals were freed from their cages. b : to release (someone or something) from being physically held or blocked ▪ His legs became tangled in the net, and he was unable to free himself. ▪ He was unable to free his legs from the net. ▪ The animal struggled to free itself from the trap. c : to cause or allow (someone or something) to stop having or being affected by something unpleasant, painful, or unwanted — + from or of ▪ He has struggled to free himself from debt. ▪ The new road will help to free the city of traffic jams. ▪ patients trying to free themselves from dependence on drugs d : to make (something) available for use ▪ I'll see if I can free (up) some time on my schedule next week so that we can meet. ▪ We need to delete more files to free (up) space on the computer's hard drive. e : to give more free time to (someone) ▪ Hiring an assistant has freed him to spend more time with his family. f : to remove limits from (someone or something) ▪ She encourages her students to free their imaginations.

free on bail, freed on bail see [1]BAIL

free agent noun, pl ~ agents [count]

1 : a person who is able to act freely without being controlled by someone else

2 : a professional athlete (such as a baseball player) who is free to sign a contract to play for any team

– free agency noun [noncount] ▪ an athlete who has become eligible for free agency

free•base /ˈfriːˌbeɪs/ noun [noncount] : a form of cocaine that can be smoked

– freebase verb -bas•es; -based; -bas•ing [no obj] a drug addict who freebases [+ obj] a drug addict who freebases cocaine free•bie or free•bee /ˈfriːbi/ noun, pl -bies or -bees [count] informal : something that is given for free ▪ On the store's opening day, the manager gave out hats, small toys, and other freebies.

free•born /ˈfriːˈboən/ adj : not born in slavery ▪ a freeborn citizen

free•dom /ˈfriːdəm/ noun, pl -doms

1 [noncount] : the state of being free: such as a : the power to do what you want to do : the ability to move or act freely ▪ religious freedom ▪ academic freedom ▪ He thinks children these days have too much freedom. ▪ She has the freedom to do as she likes. ▪ freedom of choice ▪ freedom of speech/expression [=the right to express your opinions freely] ▪ freedom of the press [=the right to publish books, newspapers, etc., without being controlled by the government] b : the state of not being a slave, prisoner, etc. ▪ a political prisoner struggling to win his freedom c : the state of not having or being affected by something unpleasant, painful, or unwanted — + from ▪ freedom from care ▪ freedom from pain/fear ▪ freedom from responsibility d : the right to use something or go somewhere without being controlled ▪ freedom of the seas

2 [count] : a political right ▪ an important freedom ▪ basic human freedoms

freedom ghter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who is part of an organized group fighting against a cruel and unfair government or system

free enterprise noun [noncount] : a system in which private businesses are able to compete with each other with little control by the government — called also private enterprise

free fall noun, pl ~ falls

1 [noncount] : the state or condition of falling through the air toward the ground ▪ a parachutist in free fall [=a parachutist who is falling through the air before the parachute opens]

2 a [noncount] : the condition of quickly becoming lower, less, or fewer ▪ Sales were in free fall. ▪ Stock prices have gone into free fall. [=they are going down very quickly] b [count] : a fast or continuing drop ▪ There has been a free fall in stock prices. [=stock prices have gone down very quickly]

free– oat •ing /ˈfriːˈfloʊtɪŋ/ adj : not connected or attached to anything ▪ free-floating ideas : not directed at or caused by anything specific ▪ free-floating anxiety free–for–all /ˈfriːfəˌrɑːl/ noun, pl -alls [count] : an uncontrolled fight or competition that involves many people ▪ A fight between two players quickly turned into a free-for-all involving all the players on both teams. — often used figuratively to describe a wild and noisy disagreement ▪ The press conference turned into a free-for-all.

free–form /ˈfriːˈfoəm/ adj, always used before a noun : created or done in any way you choose : not required to have particular patterns or forms ▪ free-form dancing free•hand /ˈfriːˌhænd/ adj, always used before a noun : done without special tools or instruments ▪ She took a course in freehand drawing. ▪ a freehand sketch – freehand adv ▪ She drew the picture freehand.

free hand noun

a free hand : the freedom to do things and make decisions without being controlled by another ▪ Her father gave her a free hand in running the family business. [=her father let her run the family business as she wanted to]

free kick noun, pl ~ kicks [count] soccer : a kick that is made without being stopped or slowed by an opponent and that is allowed because of a foul by an opponent free•lance /ˈfriːˌlæns/ adj : earning money by being hired to work on different jobs for short periods of time rather than by having a permanent job with one employer ▪ a freelance writer ▪ a freelance worker; also : done or produced by a

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

freelance worker ▪ a freelance job ▪ looking for freelance work ▪ I wrote a freelance article for a nature magazine.
– freelance adv ▪ working freelance – freelance verb -lanc•es; -lanced; -lanc•ing [no obj] ▪ a writer who freelances free•load /ˈfriːˌloʊd/ verb -loads; -load•ed; -load•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to get or ask for things (such as food, money, or a place to live) from people without paying for them ▪ He often freeloads [=mooches] off his relatives.

– free•load•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a lazy freeloader

free love noun [noncount] : the practice of having sex with many people instead of with just one partner

free•man /ˈfriːmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a free man : a man who is not a slave

free market noun, pl ~ -kets [count] : an economic market or system in which prices are based on competition among private businesses and not controlled by a government
– free–market adj, always used before a noun ▪ a free-market economy ▪ free-market principles

Free•ma•son /ˈfriːˈmeɪsn̩/ noun, pl -sons [count] : a member of a large organization of men who have secret rituals and who give help to other members — called also Mason
– Free•ma•son•ry /ˈfriːˈmeɪsn̩ri/ noun [noncount] ▪ learning about the origins of Freemasonry

free–range /ˈfriːˌreɪnʤ/ adj : allowed to move around freely : not kept in cages ▪ free-range chickens; also : coming from free-range animals ▪ free-range eggs free ride noun, pl ~ rides [count] : special treatment that involves giving away something that is valuable or expensive ▪ The state university offered him a free ride for all four years of college—his football scholarship would cover tuition, room and board, and other expenses. ▪ companies getting a free ride at the taxpayer's expense free spirit noun, pl ~ -its [count] usually approving : a person who thinks and acts in a free way without worrying about normal social rules ▪ Their daughter is a real free spirit.

free•stand•ing /ˈfriːˈstændɪŋ/ adj : standing alone without being attached to or supported by something else ▪ a free-standing wall

free•style /ˈfriːˌstaɪl/ noun [singular]
1 : a competition (such as a swimming race) in which the competitors are allowed to use different styles or methods ▪ the one-mile freestyle — often used before another noun ▪ a freestyle race ▪ freestyle skating
2 : ²CRAWL 2

free•think•er /ˈfriːˈθɪŋkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who forms his or her own opinions about important subjects (such as religion and politics) instead of accepting what other people say – free•think•ing /ˈfriːˈθɪŋkɪŋ/ adj

free throw noun, pl ~ throws [count] : a basketball shot worth one point that must be made from behind a special line and that is given because of a foul by an opponent ▪ make/miss a free throw — called also foul shot

free trade noun [noncount] : a system of trade between nations in which there are no special taxes placed on imports free verse noun [noncount] : poetry that does not rhyme and does not have a regular rhythm

free•ware /ˈfriːˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] : computer software that can be used at no cost — compare SHAREWARE

free•way /ˈfriːˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] US : a wide highway that is built for fast travel free•wheel•ing /ˌfriːˈwiːlɪŋ/ adj : free and loose in style or manner : not held back by rules, duties, or worries ▪ a free-wheeling young adventurer ▪ She led a freewheeling life in the city. : not controlled or limited ▪ a freewheeling discussion/investigation ▪ freewheeling competition

free will noun [noncount]
1 : the ability to choose how to act ▪ I do this of my own free will. [=I do this because I want to do it; no one is forcing me to do this]
2 : the ability to make choices that are not controlled by fate or God ▪ He argues that all humans have free will.

¹freeze /friːz/ verb freez•es; froze /froʊz/; fro•zen /ˈfroʊzn̩/; freez•ing
1 : to be become a hard substance (such as ice) because of cold [no obj] Water freezes (in)to ice. ▪ The pond froze over. [=the surface of the pond froze] ▪ The pond froze solid. [=the water in the pond froze completely] [+ obj] The low temperature froze the river (over).
2 [no obj] : to be very cold ▪ The children are going to freeze out there without their coats. ▪ She nearly froze to death. [=nearly died from the cold]
3 : to become blocked or unable to move because of ice [no obj] The water pipes froze. ▪ My car doors froze. [+ obj] The cold weather froze the water pipes.
4 : to preserve (food) by storing it in a very cold place [+ obj] We froze the leftovers. [=we put the leftovers in the freezer] [no obj] Some vegetables don't freeze well.
5 a [no obj] : to stop moving : to become completely still ▪ The guard ordered him to freeze. ▪ The deer froze in the road as the car approached it. b [no obj] : to become unable to do or say anything ▪ She froze (up) when the teacher asked her a difficult question. c [no obj] : to stop working ▪ The engine suddenly froze. ▪ My computer has frozen (up) again. d [+ obj] : to cause (a person or animal) to stop moving ▪ A fake by the quarterback froze the defender. ▪ The lights of the approaching car froze the deer.
6 [+ obj] a : to stop (something, such as prices or wages) from changing or increasing ▪ The government froze prices on certain materials. ▪ The struggling company had to freeze wages and eliminate several jobs. b : to stop (money or property) from being used, spent, etc. ▪ The government has frozen foreign assets.
freeze out [phrasal verb] freeze out (someone) or freeze (someone) out : to not allow (someone) to be included in an activity or group ▪ a politician who is being frozen out by former supporters who accuse him of betraying the party
frozen stiff see ²STIFF
when hell freezes over see HELL
– freezing adj or adv ▪ Turn up the heat—I'm freezing (to death)! [=I'm very cold] ▪ It's freezing in here! ▪ The weather has been freezing [=very cold] lately. ▪ freezing weather ▪ It's freezing cold [=very cold] in here!

²freeze noun, pl freezes [count]
1 : a period in which the weather is very cold : a time when temperatures are below 32°F or 0°C ▪ The freeze destroyed many oranges.
2 : a stop in the increase, decrease, or change of prices or wages ▪ a six-month wage freeze = a six-month freeze on wages ▪ a price freeze

freeze–dry /ˈfriːzˈdraɪ/ verb -dries; -dried; -dry•ing [+ obj] : to preserve (something, such as food) by a process that both dries and freezes it ▪ a process used to freeze-dry food – freeze–dried adj ▪ freeze-dried foods ▪ freeze-dried coffee freeze–frame /ˈfriːzˈfreɪm/ noun, pl -frames : a still, unchanging picture produced in a movie or video [count] The movie ended with a freeze-frame of the child waving at his mother. [noncount] The VCR allows you to fast-forward, reverse, or put the picture in freeze-frame.

– freeze–frame verb -frames; -framed; -fram•ing [+ obj] ▪ freeze-frame an image

freez•er /ˈfriːzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a device or room for freezing food or keeping it frozen ▪ a freezer compartment ▪ Don't forget to put the ice cream back in the freezer. — see picture at KITCHEN freezing point noun, pl ~ points [count] : the temperature at which a liquid freezes ▪ The freezing point of water is 0 degrees Celsius and 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

¹freight /freɪt/ noun, pl freights
1 [noncount] a : goods that are carried by ships, trains, trucks, or airplanes ▪ trains that carry both passengers and freight ▪ The freight arrived by steamboat. b : the system by which goods are carried from one place to another ▪ The order was shipped by freight.
2 [noncount] : the amount of money paid for carrying goods ▪ paid the full freight — sometimes used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ parents struggling to pay the freight [=to pay] for their children's college education ▪ He warns that taxpayers will end up paying the freight for the new stadium.
3 [count] US : FREIGHT TRAIN ▪ an eastbound freight

²freight verb freights; freight•ed; freight•ing [+ obj]
1 : to send (goods) from one place to another ▪ cargo freighted by airplane
2 : to cause (something) to have or carry many things : to load or burden (something) — usually used as (be) freighted ▪ an essay freighted with complex arguments [=an essay that has too many complex arguments] freight car noun, pl ~ cars [count] US : a railroad car that is used for carrying goods — called also (Brit) wagon

freight•er /ˈfreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a large ship that is used to carry goods — see picture at SHIP freight train noun, pl ~ trains [count] : a train that carries

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

goods : a train that carries freight

[1]French /ˈfrɛnʧ/ adj : of or relating to France, its people, or their language ▪ French cuisine ▪ French literature

[2]French noun
1 [noncount] : the language of the French people ▪ learned to speak French
2 the French : the people of France : French people ▪ the customs of the French pardon my French see [1]PARDON

French bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] Brit : GREEN BEAN

French bread noun [noncount] : a type of crusty bread that is baked in long, thin loaves

French Canadian noun, pl ~ -ians [count] : a Canadian whose family comes originally from France ▪ the French Canadians of Quebec and other provinces
– French–Canadian adj

French door noun, pl ~ doors [count] chiefly US : FRENCH WINDOW

French dressing noun [noncount]
1 US : a creamy salad dressing that is flavored with tomatoes
2 chiefly Brit : a salad dressing made of vinegar and oil with spices

french–fried adj, chiefly US : fried in deep fat ▪ french-fried onions ▪ french-fried potatoes french fry or French fry noun, pl ~ fries [count] chiefly US : a long, thin piece of potato that is fried in deep fat — called also (Brit) chip, (US) fry

French horn noun, pl ~ horns [count] : a brass musical instrument that has a long tube which forms a circle and has a wide opening at one end — see picture at BRASS INSTRUMENT

French kiss noun, pl ~ kisses [count] : a kiss made with the mouths open and the tongues touching

French•man /ˈfrɛnʧmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a French man

French polish noun [noncount] Brit : a kind of liquid (called a varnish) that is used on wood to make it shiny

French toast noun [noncount] : bread that is covered in a mixture of eggs and milk and fried at low heat ▪ a slice of French toast

French window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] : a pair of windows that have many small panes and that reach to the floor and open in the middle like doors

French•wom•an /ˈfrɛnʧˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a French woman

fre•net•ic /frɪˈnɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : filled with excitement, activity, or confusion : wild or frantic ▪ The celebration was noisy and frenetic. ▪ frenetic activity
– fre•net•i•cal•ly /frɪˈnɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ a frenetically fast pace ▪ dancing frenetically

fren•zied /ˈfrɛnzid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very excited or upset ▪ frenzied dancing ▪ The screams of the fans grew more frenzied as the concert progressed.
– fren•zied•ly adv

fren•zy /ˈfrɛnzi/ noun, pl -zies [count] : great and often wild or uncontrolled activity ▪ the buying frenzy just before Christmas ▪ The partygoers worked themselves (up) into a frenzy. ▪ a frenzy of shopping — see also FEEDING FRENZY

fre•quen•cy /ˈfriːkwənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : the fact or condition of happening often : common occurrence ▪ the alarming frequency of serious automobile accidents caused by young drivers ▪ The frequency of student errors was frustrating to the young teacher.
2 [noncount] : the number of times that something happens during a particular period ▪ The frequency of our visits decreased [=our visits occurred less often] during the school year. ▪ Our visits decreased in frequency. ▪ Errors were occurring with increasing frequency. ▪ high/low frequency
3 technical : the number times that something (such as a sound wave or radio wave) is repeated in a period of time (such as a second) [noncount] a sound wave of high/low frequency [count] waves having very different frequencies from one another ▪ high/low frequencies ▪ a current having a frequency of 60 hertz ▪ a radio frequency of 30 megahertz

[1]fre•quent /ˈfriːkwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : happening often ▪ We made frequent trips to town. ▪ a frequent [=common, usual] occurrence ▪ This bus makes frequent stops. — opposite INFREQUENT
2 : acting or returning regularly or often ▪ She was a frequent visitor to the museum. ▪ He is one of our most frequent customers. — opposite INFREQUENT
– fre•quent•ly adv ▪ I see her frequently. ▪ This list is updated frequently.

[2]fre•quent /friˈkwɛnt/ verb -quents; -quent•ed; -quenting [+ obj] : to visit or go to (a place) often ▪ He began frequenting cheap bars. ▪ a neighborhood frequented by tourists ▪ a restaurant frequented by local politicians
– fre•quent•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a frequenter of cheap bars

fres•co /ˈfrɛskoʊ/ noun, pl -coes
1 [noncount] : the art of painting on wet plaster ▪ scenes done in fresco
2 [count] : a painting that is done on wet plaster ▪ a ceiling fresco

[1]fresh /ˈfrɛʃ/ adj fresh•er; -est
1 a : newly produced, made, gathered, etc. : not preserved by being frozen, canned, etc. ▪ fresh vegetables = vegetables fresh from the farm = farm-fresh vegetables ▪ You can use either fresh or dried basil for this recipe. ▪ fresh fish [=fish that were caught and killed very recently] b : not old, spoiled, etc. ▪ fresh bread = bread fresh from the oven = oven-fresh bread ▪ The meat was kept fresh in the refrigerator. ▪ a bouquet of fresh flowers
2 a : clean and pure ▪ fresh air ▪ fresh flavors ▪ fresh colors b : not having an unpleasant smell, taste, etc. ▪ fresh breath c : not worn or dirty ▪ He changed into a fresh shirt. ▪ She brought a fresh change of clothes.
3 : full of life and energy ▪ She rose fresh from a good night's sleep. ▪ She always seems to be (as) fresh as a daisy. [=very fresh; not at all tired]
4 : not containing salt ▪ fresh water
5 a : newly made, experienced, or received ▪ a fresh wound b : replacing something old or used ▪ Can I get you a fresh drink? ▪ I used a fresh piece of paper. ▪ Let's make a fresh start. [=let's start again] c : remaining clear : not faded ▪ I'd like to take the test soon, while the information is still fresh in my mind. [=while I still remember the information clearly] ▪ memories that remained fresh d : new and original ▪ She offered fresh insight into the problem. ▪ a young writer with fresh ideas ▪ Let's try a fresh approach to this problem.
6 a : behaving or talking in a rude or impolite way ▪ Don't be/get fresh with the teacher. ▪ a very fresh kid b old-fashioned : behaving or talking in a way that shows sexual attraction to someone ▪ He tried to get fresh with me.
7 of wind : fairly strong ▪ a fresh breeze
a breath of fresh air see BREATH
fresh from or fresh out of : having recently left or come from (a place, such as a school) ▪ new employees fresh out of college ▪ a young doctor fresh from medical school fresh off the boat see [1]BOAT
– fresh•ly adv ▪ a freshly baked pie ▪ freshly polished boots
– fresh•ness noun [count, noncount] ▪ The fruit had been shipped a great distance, and lacked flavor and freshness. ▪ Several critics praised the freshness of her style.

[2]fresh adv : just recently : NEWLY, FRESHLY ▪ This bread was baked fresh. — usually used in combination ▪ fresh-baked bread ▪ fresh-laid eggs
fresh out (of something) US, informal — used to say that you do not have any more of something ▪ "Are there any bagels left?" "I'm sorry, we're fresh out (of them)." ▪ I'm fresh out of ideas. [=I don't have any more ideas] ▪ We're fresh out of time.

fresh•en /ˈfrɛʃən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) fresh : to cause (something) to be more pleasant ▪ We tried to freshen (up) the room [=to give the room a brighter appearance] with some color. ▪ a mint that freshens the breath
2 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to pour more of a usually alcoholic drink into someone's glass ▪ Can I freshen your drink?
3 [no obj] of wind : to become stronger ▪ The wind/breeze suddenly freshened.
freshen up [phrasal verb] : to wash yourself in order to feel clean and fresh ▪ After my walk, I freshened up with a shower.
– fresh•en•er /ˈfrɛʃənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an air/room freshener [=something used to make the air in a room smell fresher or more pleasant] ▪ a breath freshener

fresh•er /ˈfrɛʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal : a university freshman

fresh–faced /ˈfrɛʃˈfeɪst/ adj : having a young, healthy, and innocent appearance ▪ fresh-faced young students fresh•man /ˈfrɛʃmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

1 : a student in the first year of high school or college ▪ My daughter's a freshman at UCLA. — often used before another noun ▪ She had a successful freshman year. — compare SOPHOMORE, JUNIOR, SENIOR
2 chiefly US : someone who is starting a job or activity : BEGINNER ▪ He was the best freshman in professional basketball this year. — often used before another noun ▪ a freshman congressman

fresh•wa•ter /ˈfrɛʃˈwɑːtə/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or living in water that is not salty ▪ freshwater fish ▪ a freshwater stream — compare SALTWATER

[1]fret /frɛt/ verb frets; fret•ted; fret•ting [no obj] : to worry or be concerned ▪ I was sure we wouldn't get there in time, but she told me not to fret. ▪ Don't fret. We won't miss the plane. ▪ It turned out that it was nothing to fret about/over.

[2]fret noun [singular] informal : a state of being worried or upset ▪ Don't get in (such) a fret! We won't miss the plane. — compare [3]FRET

[3]fret noun, pl frets [count] : any one of a series of ridges on the neck of some stringed musical instruments (such as a guitar) — compare [2]FRET
– fret•less adj ▪ a fretless bass – fretted adj ▪ fretted instruments fret•ful /ˈfrɛtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : upset and worried ▪ a fretful child
2 : not relaxing or restful ▪ He fell into a fretful sleep.
– fret•ful•ly adv ▪ He was sleeping fretfully. – fret•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the child's fretfulness

fret•work /ˈfretˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : patterns or decoration on a surface made by cutting into or through the surface

Freud•i•an /ˈfrɔɪdijən/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or following the theories of Sigmund Freud ▪ Freudian psychology ▪ a Freudian psychologist
2 : relating to or coming from very deeply hidden desires or feelings ▪ a Freudian compulsion ▪ a Freudian joke – Freudian noun, pl -ians [count] ▪ The psychologist considers himself a Freudian.

Freudian slip noun, pl ~ slips [count] : a mistake in speech that shows what the speaker is truly thinking ▪ He meant to say "I'm glad you're here," but what came out was a Freudian slip: "I'm mad you're here."

Fri. abbr Friday

fri•a•ble /ˈfrajəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] technical : easily broken into smaller pieces ▪ friable soil
– fri•a•bil•i•ty /ˌfrajəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

fri•ar /ˈfrajɚ/ noun, pl -ars [count] : a member of a men's Roman Catholic group who is poor and studies or teaches about Christianity

fric•as•see /ˈfrɪkəˌsiː, Brit ˈfrɪkəˌseɪ/ noun, pl -sees [count, noncount] : a dish of small pieces of meat cooked in liquid and served in a thick white sauce ▪ chicken fricassee

fric•a•tive /ˈfrɪkətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] linguistics : a sound made by forcing air out of your mouth through a narrow opening that is made using the lips, teeth, or tongue ▪ The sounds /f v θ ð s z ʃ ʒ h/ are English fricatives.
– fricative adj ▪ a fricative consonant

fric•tion /ˈfrɪkʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the act of rubbing one thing against another ▪ Friction causes heat. ▪ the friction of sandpaper on wood b : the force that causes a moving object to slow down when it is touching another object ▪ Oil in a car engine reduces/lessens friction.
2 : disagreement or tension between people or groups of people ▪ It was difficult to reach an agreement because of the friction between the two sides.
– fric•tion•al /ˈfrɪkʃənl/ adj, technical ▪ frictional heating – fric•tion•less /ˈfrɪkʃənləs/ adj ▪ a frictionless surface

Fri•day /ˈfraɪˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days : the day of the week between Thursday and Saturday [count] She was here last Friday. ▪ My birthday falls on a Friday this year. ▪ (Brit) I'll arrive on the Monday and leave on the Friday. ▪ The class meets on Fridays. [=every Friday] [noncount] I will arrive on Friday. = (chiefly US) I will arrive Friday. ▪ I'll arrive on Monday and leave on Friday. — abbr. Fri.; see also GOOD FRIDAY
– Fridays adv ▪ He works late Fridays. [=he works late every Friday]

fridge /frɪʤ/ noun, pl fridg•es [count] : REFRIGERATOR ▪ Please put the milk in the fridge. ✧ In U.S. English, fridge is informal, but in British English it is the usual word for a refrigerator.

fridge–freezer noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : a kitchen appliance that includes both a refrigerator and a freezer ✧ In U.S. English, this appliance is usually called a refrigerator.

fried /fraɪd/ adj
1 : cooked in hot oil ▪ fried fish
2 US, informal : not able to think clearly because you are very tired ▪ Sorry, I'm just fried today.

fried rice noun [noncount] chiefly US : a dish of rice that is cooked and then fried with soy sauce and vegetables, meat, or beaten eggs friend /frɛnd/ noun, pl friends [count]

1 : a person who you like and enjoy being with ▪ I'd like you to meet my friend. ▪ She is such a good/close/dear friend (of mine). ▪ We're fast friends. = We're the best of friends. ▪ He's no friend of mine. ▪ He has always been a good friend to me. [=he has always helped or supported me as a good friend should] ▪ She's my best friend. [=my closest friend] ▪ We are childhood friends. [=we have been friends since we were children] ▪ old friends [=people who have been friends for a long time] ▪ She is an old family friend. = She is an old friend of the family. [=she has known and spent time with the family over many years] ▪ We are just friends. [=we are not in a romantic relationship] ▪ He wants to be friends with my younger sister. [=he wants to be my sister's friend] ▪ She is best friends with my younger sister. [=she is my youngest sister's closest friend] ✧ Friend is sometimes used in a humorous or ironic way to refer to someone who is annoying or disliked. ▪ Has our friend with the rude attitude been bothering you lately? ▪ Don't look now. Here comes your friend.
2 : a person who helps or supports someone or something (such as a cause or charity) ▪ She is a friend of the environment. [=she supports environmental causes] ▪ The strikers knew they had a friend in the senator. [=knew that the senator supported them] ▪ Are you friend or foe? [=do you support us or oppose us?]
3 Friend : QUAKER
a friend in need is a friend indeed — used to say that a friend who will help you when you need help is a true friend friends in high places ✧ To have friends in high places is to know people with social or political influence or power. ▪ She got the job because she has friends in high places.
make friends : to become someone's friend ▪ Sometimes it is hard for children to make new friends. — often + with ▪ She's very good at making friends with people from all walks of life.
man's best friend see [1]MAN friend•less /ˈfrɛndləs/ adj, literary : not having any friends : not having anyone who can help you ▪ He was friendless and alone.

[1]friend•ly /ˈfrɛndli/ adj friend•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : acting like a friend : kind and helpful ▪ friendly neighbors ▪ The local people are very friendly to/toward visitors. ▪ It was friendly of him to offer to help us. b : having or showing the feelings that friends have for each other ▪ His friendly smile was reassuring. ▪ They maintained a friendly correspondence. ▪ They are friendly with their new neighbors. [=they are friends with their new neighbors]
2 : showing support or approval — usually + to or toward ▪ The boss is friendly to new ideas. ▪ He accuses his political opponents of being overly friendly toward special interests.
3 : giving help : making the process of doing something easier ▪ A friendly breeze helped us sail the boat into the harbor.
4 : cheerful or pleasant ▪ The friendly glow of the fire was welcome after our hike through the snowy mountains.
5 : not an enemy : not hostile ▪ That nation was not friendly (to us). ▪ friendly competitors ▪ They have enjoyed a friendly rivalry for many years.; specifically : involving or coming from your own military forces ▪ friendly planes ▪ Several soldiers were killed by friendly fire. [=they were accidentally killed by weapons fired from their own side]
6 a : easy to use or understand ▪ friendly computer software ▪ a customer-friendly telephone system — see also USER-FRIENDLY b : not harmful ▪ environmentally friendly products ▪ eco-friendly products [=products that do not harm the environment]
7 : done for enjoyment or exercise instead of for money or prizes ▪ a friendly game of tennis/poker ▪ a friendly preseason match – friend•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She appreciated the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 68 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

friendliness of her neighbors. ▪ There was friendliness and warmth in his eyes.

[2]friendly noun, pl -lies [count] Brit : a game between sports teams that is done for fun and not as part of a regular playing season ▪ a preseason friendly

friendly society noun, pl ~ -ties [count] Brit : an association in which members pay money to receive benefits when they are old or sick friend•ship /ˈfrɛndˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships

1 : the state of being friends : the relationship between friends [count] They have a long-standing friendship. [=they have been friends for a long time] ▪ They struck up a friendship. [=they became friends] ▪ She formed many lasting friendships [=she made and kept many friends] during her time in college. ▪ a friendship between two countries [noncount] They have enjoyed many years of friendship.
2 [noncount] : a friendly feeling or attitude : kindness or help given to someone ▪ He was encouraged by the friendship his coworkers showed him.

frier variant spelling of FRYER frieze /ˈfriːz/ noun, pl friez•es [count] : a decorative band or border usually on the top of a building or wall

frig•ate /ˈfrɪgət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : a small and fast military ship

frig•ging /ˈfrɪgɪŋ/ adv, informal + impolite — used to make an angry statement more forceful ▪ That was so frigging stupid!
– frigging adj ▪ I failed the frigging test.

fright /ˈfraɪt/ noun, pl frights
1 a [noncount] : fear caused by sudden danger : sudden fear ▪ Her eyes were wide with fright. ▪ He was paralyzed with/by fright. [=he was so afraid that he couldn't move] ▪ I almost died of fright. [=I was extremely afraid or terrified] ▪ I approached very slowly, but the hawk took fright [=became afraid] and flew away. b [count] : a feeling of sudden fear — usually singular ▪ When you jumped out from behind the door it gave me such a fright! [=it made me feel very afraid]
synonyms see [1]FEAR
2 [count] old-fashioned : something that looks strange, shocking, ugly, etc. — usually singular ▪ You can't go out like that. Your hair looks a fright! [=your hair looks very messy or unattractive]
– see also STAGE FRIGHT

fright•en /ˈfraɪtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to become afraid ▪ The story really frightened me. ▪ The child was badly frightened by the mask. ▪ The story nearly frightened me to death. = The story nearly frightened the life out of me. [=the story frightened me very badly]
2 [no obj] : to become afraid ▪ She doesn't frighten easily.
frighten away/off [phrasal verb] frighten (someone or something) away/off : to cause (someone or something) to go away or stay away because of fear ▪ The dog frightened the prowler away. ▪ Tourists have been frightened off by the violence in the city.
frighten into [phrasal verb] frighten (someone) into (doing something) : to cause (someone) to do (something) because of fear ▪ The insurance agent tried to frighten her into buying the most expensive flood insurance. ▪ They frightened the boy into confessing his crime.
frighten out of [phrasal verb] frighten (someone) out of (doing something) : to keep (someone) from (doing something) because of fear ▪ Bad economic news has frightened people out of putting their money in the stock market.
– frightened adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Are you frightened [=afraid] of dogs? ▪ a badly/very frightened child – frightening adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ There were frightening noises outside my tent. ▪ a frightening mask – fright•en•ing•ly adv ▪ The car came frighteningly close to the guardrail. ▪ It is frighteningly [=extremely] easy to mislead voters.

fright•ful /ˈfraɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat old-fashioned
1 : causing fear ▪ As he fell, he let out a frightful scream. ▪ a frightful illness that causes extreme pain
2 : very bad or shocking ▪ The children made a frightful mess of the kitchen. ▪ Many critics have expressed shock at the song's frightful lyrics.
3 : very strong ▪ a frightful thirst fright•ful•ly /ˈfraɪtfəli/ adv, somewhat old-fashioned

1 : in a shocking way ▪ The cost of living here is frightfully expensive.
2 : VERY ▪ She's frightfully good at her work. ▪ That's a frightfully clever solution.

frig•id /ˈfrɪʤəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very cold ▪ The frigid gusts of wind stung their faces. ▪ frigid air/water
2 : not friendly or loving : lacking emotional warmth ▪ She was born into an emotionally frigid family. ▪ He looked at them with a frigid [=cold] stare.
3 of a woman : not wanting to have sex : not enjoying sex
– fri•gid•i•ty /frɪˈʤɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the frigidity of the climate ▪ sexual problems such as impotence and frigidity – frig•id•ly adv ▪ a frigidly cold gust of wind

frill /ˈfrɪl/ noun, pl frills [count]
1 : a strip of cloth that is gathered into folds on one edge and attached to something (such as clothing or curtains) as a decoration ▪ The dress had frills around the hem and sleeves.
2 : something that is added but is not necessary ▪ He likes plain food without any frills. — see also NO-FRILLS frilly /ˈfrɪli/ adj frill•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having frills ▪ a frilly dress ▪ frilly curtains
2 : looking like a frill : having wavy edges ▪ a plant with frilly leaves

[1]fringe /ˈfrɪnʤ/ noun, pl fring•es
1 [count] : a border made of hanging threads used to decorate the edge of something (such as clothing, rugs, and curtains) ▪ a lampshade with a fringe
2 [count] : a narrow area along the edge of something ▪ a fringe of moss around the tree — often plural ▪ Scientists were measuring temperatures at the outer fringes of the atmosphere.
3 [singular] : an area of activity that is related to but not part of whatever is central or most widely accepted ▪ a party on the political fringe : a group of people with extreme views or unpopular opinions ▪ the conservative/liberal fringe — often used before another noun ▪ a fringe topic ▪ published in a fringe journal ▪ fringe theater ▪ the fringe element ▪ fringe activists — see also LUNATIC FRINGE
4 [count] Brit : the front section of hair cut short and worn over the forehead : BANGS — usually singular ▪ She wears her hair in a fringe.
on the fringe(s) : on the outer edge of something ▪ They lived on the fringe of the forest. — often used figuratively ▪ He has been working for years on the fringes of the entertainment industry.

[2]fringe verb fringes; fringed; fring•ing [+ obj]
1 : to decorate (something) with a fringe ▪ a fringed leather vest
2 : to go along or around (something) ▪ A jungle fringed the shore.

fringe bene t noun, pl ~ - ts [count] : something extra (such as vacation time) that is given by an employer to workers in addition to their regular pay

frip•pery /ˈfrɪpəri/ noun, pl -peries somewhat formal + old-fashioned : something that is not necessary or not serious [noncount] The design is simple and devoid of needless frippery. [count] needless fripperies

Fris•bee /ˈfrɪzbi/ trademark — used for a plastic disc that you throw to someone who tries to catch it as part of a game frisk /ˈfrɪsk/ verb frisks; frisked; frisk•ing [+ obj] : to pass your hands over (someone) to search for something that may be hidden in clothing ▪ All visitors to the prison are frisked (for weapons) before they're allowed to enter.

frisky /ˈfrɪski/ adj frisk•i•er; -est [more ~; most ~]
1 : very playful or lively ▪ frisky kittens ▪ The kids were frisky after all that candy.
2 informal : sexually playful or excited ▪ feeling frisky
– frisk•i•ly /ˈfrɪskəli/ adv ▪ kittens playing friskily on the lawn – frisk•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the friskiness of the kittens

fris•son /frɪˈsoʊn/ noun, pl -sons [count] somewhat formal : a sudden strong feeling or emotion ▪ a frisson of surprise

[1]frit•ter /ˈfrɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a small piece of food that has been coated in a flour and egg mixture and fried ▪ apple/corn fritters

[2]fritter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
fritter away [phrasal verb] fritter away (something) or fritter (something) away : to spend or use up (something) in a slow and usually foolish way ▪ He frittered the afternoon away. ▪ He frittered away his fortune on gambling.

fritz /ˈfrɪts/ noun
on the fritz US, informal : not working properly ▪ We can't listen to music because the stereo is on the fritz.

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

fri•vol•i•ty /frɪˈvɑːlətiː/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : a lack of seriousness : the quality or state of being silly or frivolous ▪ He has no patience for frivolity.
2 [count] : something that is unnecessary or silly ▪ He spends money on the latest fashions and other frivolities.

friv•o•lous /ˈfrɪvələs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not important : not deserving serious attention ▪ She thinks window shopping is a frivolous activity. ▪ a frivolous lawsuit [=a lawsuit about something that is not important]
2 : silly and not serious ▪ a frivolous conversation
– friv•o•lous•ly adv ▪ She was spending money frivolously. – friv•o•lous•ness noun [noncount]

frizz /ˈfrɪz/ noun [noncount] : very tightly curled hair ▪ She used gel on her hair to control the frizz.
– frizz verb frizz•es; frizzed; frizz•ing [no obj] ▪ Humidity makes my hair frizz. – frizzy /ˈfrɪziː/ adj frizz•i•er; -est ▪ frizzy hair

fro /ˈfroʊ/ adv see TO AND FRO

frock /ˈfrɑːk/ noun, pl frocks [count]
1 old-fashioned : a woman's or girl's dress ▪ wearing an old frock ▪ a party frock
2 : a long outer garment worn by some Christian monks and friars frock coat noun, pl ~ coats [count] old-fashioned : a long coat worn by men especially in the 19th century

frog /ˈfrɑːg/ noun, pl frogs [count]
1 : a small animal that spends much of the time in water and has smooth skin, webbed feet, and long back legs for jumping — compare TOAD
2 Frog informal + offensive : a French person ✧ This sense is very offensive and should be avoided.
a frog in your throat ✧ If you have a frog in your throat, you are unable to speak normally because your throat is dry.

frog

toad

frog•man /ˈfrɑːgˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a person (especially a man in the military or police) who uses special equipment to work underwater for long periods of time frog–march /ˈfrɑːgˌmɑərʧ/ verb -march•es; -marched; -march•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to grab and force (someone) to walk forward by pushing from behind ▪ They frog-marched him out the door.

[1]frol•ic /ˈfrɑːlɪk/ verb -ics; -icked; -ick•ing [no obj] : to play and move about happily : ROMP ▪ We watched the seals as they frolicked in the harbor. ▪ children frolicking in the yard

[2]frolic noun, pl -ics : an enjoyable time or activity [count] We went out for a frolic in the sun. [noncount] an evening of fun and frolic

frol•ic•some /ˈfrɑːlɪksəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very lively and playful ▪ frolicsome children from /ˈfrʌm, ˈfrɑːm, frəm/ prep

1 — used to indicate the starting point of a physical movement or action ▪ He drove here from the city. ▪ He set out from town this morning. ▪ She took a fall from a horse. ▪ The cat came out from under the table.
2 — used to indicate the place that something comes out of ▪ He took a dime from [=out of] his pocket.
3 — used to indicate the place where someone lives or was born ▪ My family is/comes originally from Italy. ▪ Where are you from? = Where do you come from?
4 — used to indicate the starting or central point of any activity ▪ She looked at me from under her glasses. ▪ He spoke from the heart. ▪ She watched us from across the street.
5 — used to indicate the starting point in measuring something ▪ The meeting is scheduled for a week from today. ▪ It's 20 miles from here to the nearest town. ▪ They were married three years from that day. ▪ From childhood (onward) he displayed unusual musical talent.
6 — used to indicate a physical separation between two things ▪ An ocean separates America from Europe.
7 — used to indicate something that is removed, released, blocked, or prevented ▪ This lotion provides protection from the sun. ▪ relief from anxiety ▪ They asked him to refrain from interrupting. ▪ They have no right to exclude her from membership. ▪ The dictator fell from power. ▪ subtract 3 from 9
8 — used to indicate change to a different state or condition ▪ Things have gone from bad to worse. ▪ They were transformed from raw recruits into trained soldiers.
9 — used to indicate the material that is used to make something ▪ Wine is made from grapes. ▪ a doll made from cloth
10 — used to indicate the source of something ▪ I'm expecting a call from my lawyer. ▪ All his problems have come from that one bad decision. ▪ She received a letter from home. ▪ reading aloud from a book ▪ He inherited a love of music from his father. ▪ I bought a book from him. [=he sold a book to me] ▪ The painting was done directly from nature. ▪ She drew it from memory.
11 — used to indicate the basis or cause of something ▪ We conclude from this that no changes are necessary. ▪ He's suffering from a bad cold. ▪ They were weak from hunger. ▪ I could tell she was angry from [=by] the look on her face.
12 — used to indicate the lowest point, amount, etc., in a range ▪ These parts cost (anywhere/anything) from $5 to $10. ▪ It's anywhere from $50,000 on up. [=it is at least $50,000 and could be more] 13 — used to indicate the group or number of people or things out of which someone or something is chosen or selected ▪ She was chosen from a large number of competitors.
as from see [2]AS

frond /ˈfrɑːnd/ noun, pl fronds [count] : a large, long leaf ▪ palm fronds

[1]front /ˈfrʌnt/ noun, pl fronts
1 [count] : the forward part or surface of something : the part of something that is seen first — usually singular ▪ the front of a shirt ▪ the front of the house [=the part facing the street] ▪ The jacket zips down the front. [=has a zipper that goes from the collar to the waist to open and close it] ▪ There's a picture on the front of the box. [=on the part of the box that usually faces out and that you see first] — see also SHOP FRONT, STOREFRONT
2 [count] : a place, position, or area that is most forward or is directly ahead — usually singular ▪ The teacher asked her to come (up) to the front of the classroom. ▪ She was sitting in the front of the bus.
3 [count] : the part of your body that faces forward and includes your face and chest — usually singular ▪ The baby rolled onto his front.
4 [count] : the part of a book, magazine, etc., that includes the first few pages — usually singular ▪ You'll find that information in the front of the book.
5 [singular] : a way of behaving that is meant to hide your true feelings, thoughts, etc. ▪ I can't believe that your anger was all just a front! [=that you were pretending to be angry] ▪ She put up a good/brave front, but I know she was very disappointed. [=she acted as if she was not disappointed]
6 [count] : someone or something that hides or protects an illegal activity ▪ The business is a front for organized crime.
7 [count] a : an area where military forces are fighting ▪ The general is sending more troops to the front. — see also HOME FRONT b : an area or field of activity — usually singular ▪ We are making progress on the educational front. ▪ Not much has been happening on the political front.
8 [count] weather : the place where two large areas of air that are of different temperatures come together — see also COLD FRONT, WARM FRONT front to back of a piece of clothing : with the front where the back should be ▪ He accidentally put the sweater on front to back. [=back to front, backwards] in front 1 : in a forward position : in an area at the front of something ▪ There was room for one passenger in front, so the rest of us sat in back. 2 : in the leading position in a race or competition ▪ She's still in front, but the other runners are catching up to her. — often used after out ▪ She's still out in front.
in front of 1 : directly before or ahead of (something or someone) ▪ A tree stood in front of the house. ▪ A deer ran (out) in front of the car. ▪ They are frightened of what lies in front of them. [=what is in the future] 2 : in the presence of (someone) ▪ We shouldn't argue in front of the children.
out front 1 : in the area directly before or ahead of something (such as a building) ▪ There was a small statue on the lawn out front. 2 : in the audience ▪ There are about 20,000 screaming fans out front.
united front : a group of people or organizations that join together to achieve a shared goal ▪ We've decided to present a united front against these proposals.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

up front 1 : in or at the most forward position ▪ They told us we could sit up front. 2 informal : before beginning to do something : in advance ▪ He'll do the work, but he insists on being paid up front. 3 informal : in a direct and honest way ▪ They told me up front that my chances of being selected weren't good. — see also UP-FRONT

[2]front adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to the front : located at the front ▪ There's a small statue on the front lawn. ▪ He keeps his wallet in his front pocket. ▪ the front entrance/hall ▪ She likes to sit in the front [=first] row. = She likes front-row seats. ▪ the front door [=the door in the front of a building that is usually the main entrance] ▪ The story appeared on the front page [=the first page] of the newspaper. ▪ We checked into the hotel at the front desk. [=the desk in a building where visitors are greeted] ▪ There is a dent in the car's front end. [=the part of a vehicle that faces forward]

2 golf — used to refer to the first 9 holes of an 18-hole golf course ▪ He was two over par on the front nine.

front and center US : in the most important position or area ▪ These issues are front and center in voters' minds.

[3]front verb fronts; front•ed; front•ing

1 : to have the face or front toward (something) [+ obj] The house fronts Main Street. [no obj] The house fronts on/onto Main Street.

2 [+ obj] a : to be the leader or lead singer of (a musical group) ▪ He is now fronting a different band. b Brit : to host or present (a radio or TV program) ▪ He fronts a talk show.

3 [+ obj] US, informal : to give (someone) the money needed to do something (such as to start a business) ▪ The record company will front (them) the money to record the album.

front•age /'frʌntɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the part of a building or of the land that a building is on that runs along a river, road, etc. ▪ We have 200 feet of frontage on Main Street.

frontage road noun, pl ~ roads [count] US : SERVICE ROAD

front•al /'frʌntl/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : relating to the front of something : directed at the front ▪ a frontal attack

2 : relating to or showing the front of the human body ▪ (full) frontal nudity

– fron•tal•ly adv ▪ The enemy attacked them frontally.

front bench noun, pl ~ bench•es [count] Brit : the front row of seats on both sides in a British legislature (such as the House of Commons) where the leaders sit; also : the leaders themselves ▪ He challenged the views of his party's front bench. ▪ the party's front-bench spokesman — compare BACKBENCH

– front–bench•er /'frʌnt'bɛnʧə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He has been a front-bencher for 20 years.

front burner noun

on the front burner chiefly US : in the position of something that will receive immediate attention and action ▪ The President has put tax cuts on the front burner. — compare BACK BURNER front–end loader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US : a vehicle with a large scoop in front that is used for digging and loading loose material — called also front loader; see picture at CONSTRUCTION

fron•tier /ˌfrʌn'tɪə, Brit 'frʌntɪə/ noun, pl -tiers [count]

1 : a border between two countries ▪ the frontier between Canada and the U.S.

2 : a distant area where few people live ▪ They were sent on an expedition to explore the western frontier. ▪ frontier life

3 : the limits of knowledge in a particular field — usually plural ▪ the frontiers of science ▪ a discovery at the very frontiers of our understanding

fron•tiers•man /ˌfrʌn'tɪəzmən, Brit 'frʌntɪəzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who lives on the frontier (sense 2)

fron•tis•piece /'frʌntəˌspi:s/ noun, pl -piec•es [count] : a picture in the front of a book ✧ The frontispiece of a book comes before and usually faces the title page.

front line noun, pl ~ lines [count]

1 : an area where soldiers are fighting : [1]FRONT 7a ▪ troops on the front line = front-line troops

2 : the most important and active position in a job or field of activity ▪ These researchers are on/at the front line of defense against cancer. ▪ She has been working on the front lines to educate the poor.

front loader noun, pl ~ loaders [count] US : FRONT-END LOADER

front matter noun [noncount] : the pages at the beginning of a book before the main part ▪ The conventions of the book are explained in the front matter. — compare BACK MATTER front office noun [noncount] : the people who manage a business or organization (such as a professional sports team) ▪ Many fans blame the team's poor performance on bad decisions made by the front office. — often used before another noun ▪ a front-office job ▪ front-office decisions

front–page /'frʌnt'peɪʤ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : printed on the front page of a newspaper ▪ a front-page story/photograph

2 : very important ▪ front-page news ▪ a front-page political event

front room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : LIVING ROOM

front–run•ner /'frʌntˌrʌnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : the person or thing that is most likely to win a race or competition ▪ the presidential front-runner

front–wheel drive noun [noncount] : a system that applies engine power to the front wheels of a vehicle ▪ a car with front-wheel drive

frosh /'frɑ:ʃ/ noun, pl frosh•es [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : FRESHMAN

[1]frost /'frɑ:st/ noun, pl frosts

1 [noncount] : a thin layer of ice that forms on the ground, on grass, etc., when the air becomes cold ▪ The grass was covered with frost. ▪ light/heavy frost ▪ Frost formed on the window.

2 [count] : the occurrence of weather that is cold enough to cause water to freeze and frost to form ▪ These plants should bloom until the first frost of the season. ▪ We had an early/late frost. ▪ a killing frost [=weather that is so cold that the frost kills plants]

[2]frost verb frosts; frost•ed; frost•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cover (something) with frost ▪ The cold had frosted the windows. b [no obj] : to become covered with frost ▪ The windows frosted (up).

2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to cover (something, such as a cake) with frosting (sense 1) ▪ I have to frost the birthday cake.

3 [+ obj] chiefly US : to make small strips of your hair lighter so the top layer of your hair is lighter than the rest of it ▪ She frosts her bangs.

frost•bite /'frɑ:stˌbaɪt/ noun [noncount] : a condition in which part of your body (such as your fingers or toes) freezes or almost freezes ▪ minor frostbite ▪ He wore gloves to prevent frostbite.

frost•ed /'frɑ:stəd/ adj

1 : having a dull surface that looks as if it is covered with frost ▪ frosted glass

2 chiefly US, of hair : having very small strips on the top layer of your hair that are lighter than the rest of your hair ▪ She has frosted bangs.

frost•ing /'frɑ:stɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]

1 chiefly US : a sweet, creamy mixture that is used to cover cakes ▪ We put frosting on the cupcakes. — called also icing

2 : a dull surface on metal or glass

frosty /'frɑ:sti/ adj frost•i•er; -est

1 : cold enough to produce frost ▪ a frosty night

2 : covered with frost ▪ frosty windows

3 : unfriendly or cold ▪ a frosty stare ▪ We received a frosty welcome.

– frost•i•ly /'frɑ:stəli/ adv ▪ She was glaring frostily at us. – frost•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ There's some frostiness [=coolness] between them. ▪ the frostiness of the night

[1]froth /'frɑ:θ/ noun [noncount]

1 : bubbles that form in or on a liquid ▪ froth on the waves

2 : something that is appealing but that has no serious value or interest ▪ news shows full of froth

– froth•i•ness /'frɑ:θinəs/ noun ▪ the frothiness of the cream – frothy /'frɑ:θi/ adj ▪ the frothy waves ▪ a frothy comedy

[2]froth verb froths; frothed; froth•ing [no obj] : to produce or form froth ▪ The water frothed as the waves broke along the shore.

froth at the mouth 1 : to produce froth from the mouth because of illness or excitement ▪ The dog was frothing [=foaming] at the mouth. 2 informal : to be very angry about something ▪ She was frothing [=foaming] at the mouth with rage.

frou–frou /'fru:ˌfru:/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : very heavily decorated and fancy ▪ frou-frou designs

[1]frown /'fraʊn/ noun, pl frowns [count] : a serious facial ex-

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 68 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

pression that usually shows anger, displeasure, or concentration ▪ She was wearing a frown. [=she was frowning]

[2]frown verb frowns; frowned; frown•ing [no obj] : to make a frown in anger, concentration, etc. ▪ She was frowning when she entered the room, so I knew that she was annoyed about something.

frown on/upon [phrasal verb] frown on/upon (something) : to disapprove of (something) ▪ The company frowns on dating among employees. ▪ Public expressions of affection are frowned upon in many cultures.

– frown•ing•ly /ˈfraʊnɪŋli/ adv ▪ She stared frowningly.

frow•sy also frow•zy /ˈfraʊzi/ adj frow•si•er also frow•zi•er; -est US, informal : having a messy or dirty appearance ▪ a frowsy old sweater ▪ frowsy hair

froze past tense of [1]FREEZE

frozen past participle of [1]FREEZE

frozen yogurt noun, pl ~ -gurts [count, noncount] chiefly US : a sweet frozen dessert that is like ice cream but is made with yogurt fruc•tose /ˈfrʌkˌtoʊs/ noun [noncount] : a very sweet kind of sugar that is found in fruit juices and honey fru•gal /ˈfru:gəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : careful about spending money or using things when you do not need to : using money or supplies in a very careful way ▪ He's a frugal shopper. — often + with ▪ She's very frugal with her money.
2 : simple and plain ▪ a frugal meal of bread and cheese
– fru•gal•i•ty /fruˈgæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He's admired for his frugality. – fru•gal•ly /ˈfru:gəli/ adv ▪ She's trying to live frugally.

[1]fruit /ˈfru:t/ noun, pl fruits
1 a : a usually sweet food (such as a blueberry, orange, or apple) that grows on a tree or bush [count] apples, oranges, and other fruits [noncount] a bowl/piece of fruit — often used before another noun ▪ fruit salad [=a mixture of fruits cut into small pieces] ▪ fruit juice ▪ a fruit tree [=a tree that bears fruit] — see color picture on page C5; see also FORBIDDEN FRUIT b [count] technical : the part of a plant that has the seeds in it (such as the pod of a pea, a nut, a grain, or a berry)
2 [count] : a result or reward that comes from some action or activity — usually plural ▪ They're finally able to enjoy the fruits of their labors. ▪ We hope that we'll be able to share in the fruits of victory.
3 [count] : something that exists naturally in the world and is useful to people — usually plural ▪ We need to remember that the fruits of the earth belong to us all.
bear fruit see [2]BEAR
the fruit of someone's loins see LOIN

[2]fruit verb fruits; fruit•ed; fruit•ing [no obj] technical : to produce fruit ▪ When will the trees fruit?

fruit bat noun, pl ~ bats [count] : a large bat that eats fruit and lives in hot parts of the world

fruit•cake /ˈfru:tˌkeɪk/ noun, pl -cakes [count]
1 : a very sweet cake that contains nuts, fruits, and spices
2 informal : a foolish, strange, or crazy person : NUT ▪ He's a real fruitcake. = He's as nutty as a fruitcake.

fruit fly noun, pl ~ flies [count] : a small fly that eats fruit or rotting vegetables fruit•ful /ˈfru:tfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : producing a good result : very productive ▪ We had a fruitful discussion about the problems with the schedule. ▪ a fruitful meeting ▪ fruitful ideas/methods/suggestions — compare FRUITLESS

– fruit•ful•ly adv ▪ These problems could be fruitfully addressed. – fruit•ful•ness noun [noncount]

fru•i•tion /fruˈɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the state of being real or complete — used after come to or bring to ▪ His plans have finally come to fruition. [=he has finally done the things that he planned to do] ▪ She was never able to bring her dreams to fruition. [=she was never able to achieve her dreams]

fruit•less /ˈfru:tləs/ adj : producing no good results : not successful ▪ They made a fruitless attempt to find a solution. ▪ It would be fruitless to continue. ▪ a fruitless argument — compare FRUITFUL
– fruit•less•ly adv ▪ They argued fruitlessly. – fruit•less•ness noun [noncount]

fruit machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] Brit : SLOT MACHINE

fruity /ˈfru:ti/ adj fruit•i•er; -est
1 : tasting or smelling like fruit ▪ a fruity smell/taste ▪ a fruity wine
2 US, informal : strange or crazy ▪ She acts a little fruity.
3 Brit, of a voice : rich and deep

frump /ˈfrʌmp/ noun, pl frumps [count] disapproving : a woman who wears unattractive clothes or does not make an effort to appear attractive ▪ an old frump frumpy /ˈfrʌmpi/ adj frump•i•er; -est : dressed in an unattractive way ▪ a frumpy housewife; also, of clothing : old and unattractive ▪ That's a frumpy dress.

frus•trate /ˈfrʌˌstreɪt/ verb -trates; -trat•ed; -trat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to feel angry, discouraged, or upset because of not being able to do something ▪ It frustrated him to miss so many games because of injuries. ▪ We've been frustrated by bureaucratic delays.
2 : to prevent (efforts, plans, etc.) from succeeding ▪ Bureaucratic delays have frustrated our efforts to resolve this problem. : to keep (someone) from doing something ▪ The lack of investors has frustrated them in their efforts to expand the company.

frustrated adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very angry, discouraged, or upset because of being unable to do or complete something ▪ By the end of the day, we were all feeling very tired and frustrated. ▪ They were getting pretty frustrated with/at the delay. ▪ sexually frustrated [=wanting to have sex but not able to; not satisfied sexually]
2 always used before a noun : trying to do something or gain a skill but not successful ▪ He works in an office, but he's really a frustrated actor/writer. [=a person who wants to be an actor/writer but is not] frus•trat•ing /ˈfrʌˌstreɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing feelings of anger and annoyance ▪ All these delays have been very frustrating.

– frus•trat•ing•ly adv ▪ frustratingly long delays

frus•tra•tion /ˌfrʌˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [noncount] : a feeling of anger or annoyance caused by being unable to do something : the state of being frustrated ▪ He shook his head in frustration. ▪ These bureaucratic delays have been causing us a lot of frustration. b [count] : something that causes feelings of anger and annoyance : something that frustrates someone ▪ These delays have proven to be a major frustration. ▪ We've been experiencing a lot of frustrations.
2 [noncount] : the act of preventing the success of something : the act of frustrating something ▪ He was angry about the frustration of his plans.

[1]fry /ˈfraɪ/ verb fries; fried; fry•ing : to cook (food) in fat or oil [+ obj] They fried (up) some chicken for dinner. ▪ They fried us some chicken. = They fried some chicken for us. ▪ We had fried eggs and ham for breakfast. [no obj] We could smell the onions frying. — see also DEEP-FRY, PANFRY, STIR-FRY
fish to fry see [1]FISH

[2]fry noun, pl fries [count] US : FRENCH FRY — usually plural ▪ steak and fries [=(Brit) chips] ▪ Would you like an order of fries with your hamburger? — see also FISH FRY, STIR-FRY — compare [3]FRY

[3]fry noun [plural] : very young fish — see also SMALL FRY — compare [2]FRY

fry•er /ˈfraɪə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a deep pan for frying foods
2 chiefly US : a young chicken that is suitable for frying — compare BROILER, ROASTER

frying pan noun, pl ~ pans [count] : a metal pan that has a long handle and is used for frying — called also (chiefly US) skillet; see picture at KITCHEN from/out of the frying pan (and) into the fire ✧ If you have gone or jumped from or out of the frying pan (and) into the fire, you have gone from a bad situation or problem to a worse one.

fry pan noun, pl ~ pans [count] US : FRYING PAN

fry–up /ˈfraɪˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] Brit : a dish or meal of fried food

ft. abbr 1 feet; foot 2 fort

FTC abbr Federal Trade Commission ▪ The company is being investigated by the FTC. ✧ The Federal Trade Commission is a part of the U.S. federal government that is responsible for preventing unfair or deceptive business practices.

FTP /ˌɛfˌtiːˈpiː/ noun [noncount] : a system for sending files from one computer to another computer over the Internet ▪ files sent by FTP ✧ FTP is an abbreviation of "file transfer protocol."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

fuch•sia /ˈfju:ʃə/ noun, pl -sias [count, noncount]
1 : a type of bush that has large pink, red, purple, or white flowers — see color picture on page C6
2 : a bright reddish-purple color — see color picture on page C3

[1]fuck /ˈfʌk/ verb fucks; fucked; fuck•ing ✧ Fuck is an extremely offensive word in all of its uses and should be avoided.
1 offensive + obscene a [no obj] : to have sex b [+ obj] : to have sex with (someone)
2 [+ obj] offensive : to cheat or mistreat (someone) ▪ They really fucked me (over) when they sold me that car.
3 offensive — used to express anger, disgust, etc. ▪ I'm tired of waiting. Fuck it, let's get out of here. ▪ If you don't like it—fuck you! ▪ Oh fuck, they've left without us!
fuck off [phrasal verb] offensive — used as an angry command to tell someone to go away fuck up [phrasal verb] offensive 1 : to act stupidly : to make mistakes ▪ You really fucked up this time, getting to work so late. 2 fuck up (something) or fuck (something) up : to ruin (something) by being stupid or careless ▪ You really fucked up our schedule! 3 fuck up (someone) or fuck (someone) up : to cause (someone) to become confused, crazy, etc. ▪ The war really fucked him up.
fuck with [phrasal verb] offensive 1 fuck with (something) : to handle (something) carelessly : to mess with (something) ▪ Don't you dare fuck with my stereo. 2 fuck with (someone) : to treat (someone) wrongly : to mess with (someone) ▪ Don't fuck with me!

[2]fuck noun, pl fucks
1 [count] offensive + obscene : an act of sexual intercourse
2 [count] offensive + obscene : a sexual partner
3 offensive a [singular] : anything at all — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't give/care a fuck about their problems. b [noncount] — used with the as a way to make an angry statement or question more forceful ▪ What the fuck do they want from me? ▪ Shut the fuck up!
4 [count] US, offensive : FUCKER ▪ He's a stupid fuck.

fuck all noun [noncount] Brit, offensive : NOTHING ▪ You've done fuck all to help me!

fuck•er /ˈfʌkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] offensive : an annoying person or thing ▪ That little fucker is going to get it from me!

fuck•ing /ˈfʌkɪŋ/ adj, offensive — used to make an angry statement more forceful ▪ He's such a fucking idiot!
– fucking adv, offensive ▪ She thinks she's so fucking cool.

fud•dy–dud•dy /ˈfʌdiˌdʌdi/ noun, pl -dies [count] informal + disapproving : a person with old-fashioned or conservative ideas and attitudes ▪ He's just an old fuddy-duddy.

[1]fudge /ˈfʌʤ/ verb fudg•es; fudged; fudg•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to fail to deal with (something) in an open and direct way ▪ Politicians have been known to fudge the issues. b [no obj] : to speak or act in a way that is meant to avoid dealing with a problem directly — often + on ▪ The company fudged on how it would deal with the problem.
2 [+ obj] : to change (something) in order to trick people ▪ The treasurer fudged the figures. ▪ It was later discovered that the researchers had fudged their data. ▪ fudge the facts

[2]fudge noun, pl fudges
1 [noncount] : a soft, sweet brown candy ▪ We bought three kinds of fudge. ▪ chocolate fudge
2 [count] : a statement that does not deal with a problem or issue in a direct way ▪ His response to these charges has been a series of denials and fudges.
hot fudge US : a hot, thick, chocolate sauce that is usually served on ice cream ▪ a hot-fudge sundae [=an ice-cream sundae made with hot fudge]
– fudgy /ˈfʌʤi/ adj fudg•i•er; -est chiefly US ▪ fudgy, chewy brownies

[1]fu•el /ˈfju:wəl/ noun, pl fuels
1 [count, noncount] : a material (such as coal, oil, or gas) that is burned to produce heat or power ▪ a gallon of fuel ▪ a 16-gallon fuel tank ▪ I had the fuel pump replaced on my car. — often used figuratively ▪ Breakfast is my fuel to get through the morning. — see also FOSSIL FUEL
2 [noncount] : something that gives support or strength to something (such as argument or angry feelings) ▪ These latest scandals will provide further fuel for his political opponents. ▪ These latest accusations will only add fuel to the controversy. ▪ The controversy continues to rage, and these latest accusations will only add fuel to the fire.

[2]fuel verb fuels; US fueled or Brit fuelled; US fuel•ing or Brit fuel•ling
1 a [+ obj] : to supply (something) with fuel ▪ The airplanes were fueled in midair. b [no obj] : to take in fuel ▪ The airplanes fueled (up) in midair.
2 [+ obj] a : to give support or strength to (something) ▪ The criticism she has faced has only fueled her determination to succeed. b : to provide the necessary conditions for (something) ▪ Inflation was fueled by high prices. ▪ The strong economy has fueled the construction of new homes.
fuel up [phrasal verb] : to put fuel into a car, airplane, etc. ▪ They fueled up for their long journey home.

fug /ˈfʌg/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : the unpleasant air in a room that is very crowded, smoky, etc. ▪ They sat in the dense fug of a smoky bar.

[1]fu•gi•tive /ˈfju:ʤətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : a person who is running away to avoid being captured ▪ They discovered that the slave was a fugitive.; especially : a person who is trying to escape being arrested by the police — often + from ▪ He's a fugitive from the law. ▪ She has been charged with helping a fugitive from justice.

[2]fugitive adj, always used before a noun
1 : running away to avoid being captured ▪ a fugitive slave
2 literary : lasting a very short time ▪ As he daydreamed, fugitive thoughts/dreams passed through his mind.

fugue /ˈfju:g/ noun, pl fugues [count] : a piece of music in which tunes are repeated in complex patterns

[1]-ful /fəl/ adj suffix
1 : full of ▪ pride*ful* ▪ event*ful*
2 : characterized by ▪ peace*ful* ▪ success*ful*
3 : having the qualities of ▪ master*ful*
4 : tending or likely to ▪ forget*ful* ▪ help*ful*

[2]-ful /fʊl/ noun suffix : the number or amount that fills or would fill ▪ a room*ful* ▪ a cup*ful* ▪ a spoon*ful*

ful•crum /ˈfʊlkrəm, ˈfʌlkrəm/ noun, pl ful•crums also ful•cra /ˈfʊlkrə, ˈfʌlkrə/ [count] technical : the support on which a lever moves when it is used to lift something ful• ll (US) or Brit ful• l /fʊlˈfɪl/ verb, US ful lls or Brit ful• ls ; ful• lled ; ful• ll•ing [+ obj]

1 : to do what is required by (something, such as a promise or a contract) ▪ fulfill a promise/vow ▪ He fulfilled his pledge to cut taxes. ▪ She failed to fulfill her obligations.
2 a : to succeed in doing or providing (something) ▪ They haven't yet fulfilled [=met, satisfied] the requirements needed to graduate. ▪ The program is intended to fulfill the basic needs of children in the community. ▪ The committee was disbanded after it had fulfilled its purpose. [=after it had done what it was intended to do] b : to succeed in achieving (something) : to make (something, such as a dream) true or real ▪ If we could have that house, our dreams would be fulfilled. ▪ He fulfilled his childhood wish to become a professional baseball player. ▪ She fulfilled her life's ambition when she started her own business. ▪ Their vacation failed to fulfill their expectations. [=their vacation was not as good as they expected it to be] ▪ With the money she earned in the stock market, she was finally able to fulfill her dreams. [=she was finally able to do the things she had always dreamed of doing] ▪ He has a lot of talent, but he hasn't really fulfilled [=lived up to, reached] his potential.
3 : to make (someone or yourself) happy by achieving or doing something that was wished for ▪ Her work fulfills her. ▪ He's trying to fulfill himself as an artist.
– ful• ll•ment (US) or Brit ful• l•ment /fʊlˈfɪlmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the fulfillment of a promise/dream/contract ▪ She found fulfillment by starting her own business.

ful lled adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling happy and satisfied about life : feeling that your abilities and talents are being fully used ▪ She wants to find a career that will allow her to feel fulfilled.
2 : providing happiness and satisfaction ▪ She wants to lead a more fulfilled life.

ful lling adj [more ~; most ~] : providing happiness and satisfaction ▪ My time in college was a happy and fulfilling period in my life. ▪ The work has been very fulfilling.

[1]full /ˈfʊl/ adj full•er; -est
1 : containing or holding as much or as many as possible ▪ a full bottle ▪ The disk is full. ▪ The plane was carrying a full load of passengers. ▪ The theater was full to capacity. — often + of ▪ a bottle full of milk ▪ a bin full of corn
2 always used before a noun a : not lacking anything : complete in number, amount, etc. ▪ We bought a full set of dishes. ▪ They waited for three full months. ▪ He has a full array of stereo equipment. ▪ The soldiers were wearing full combat

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

F

gear. ▪ This will be his first full season with the team. ✧ The phrase a full is often used to stress the large size of an amount. ▪ He won the match by a full seven strokes. ▪ It was a full three months before they made a decision. ▪ He's a full foot taller than his wife. b : not limited in any way ▪ His theories have not yet found full acceptance. ▪ I have full [=complete] confidence in your honesty. ▪ I hope that you'll give us your fullest cooperation. ▪ Please give me your full attention. ▪ We need to take full advantage of this opportunity. ▪ She's expected to make a full recovery. ▪ They're not making full use of these resources. ▪ He's now a full member of the club. = He now has full membership in the club. ▪ the rights of full citizenship ▪ a full professor ▪ We're still waiting to hear the full story of what happened. ▪ She deserves full credit for meeting the deadline. c : not reduced or shortened ▪ He doesn't like having to pay full price. ▪ We could feel the full impact of every bump. ▪ What is your full name? d : existing or working at the highest or greatest degree : developed as much as possible ▪ The flowers were in full bloom. ▪ The machine was running at full power/speed. ▪ The factory is operating at full capacity. ▪ The tree has not yet reached full size. ▪ The stereo was at full volume. [=was playing as loudly as possible] ▪ After the meeting, he had a fuller understanding of the job. ▪ It'll be a few minutes before you feel the full effect of the drug. ▪ He hasn't yet realized his full potential as a writer.

3 a always used before a noun : including many things ▪ She has a full range of interests. [=she is interested in many different things] ▪ The store carries a full line of products. b : involving many activities ▪ We have a full schedule of events planned. ▪ We have a full day of work ahead of us. : very active ▪ She lived a very full and satisfying life.

4 : having a rounded shape : not thin or narrow ▪ She has a full face. ▪ a woman with a full figure = a full-figured woman ▪ full lips

5 : having or containing a great number or amount of something ▪ The room was full of pictures. ▪ Despite his problems, he was still full of hope. ▪ full of enthusiasm ▪ food full of flavor ▪ He says the charges against him are full of lies.

6 a : having eaten all that is wanted ▪ No dessert for me, thank you. I'm full. [=(chiefly Brit) full up] b always used before a noun : large enough to satisfy hunger ▪ I like to start the day with a full breakfast. ▪ a full meal

7 a : having a large amount of material ▪ a full skirt/dress b : having a large amount of hair ▪ He has a full [=thick] head of hair. ▪ a full beard

8 : thinking of something all the time ▪ He was full of his own concerns. ✧ If you are full of yourself, you think of yourself more than you should. ▪ She is certainly very full of herself.

9 : having a strong and pleasing quality ▪ a food/wine of full flavor ▪ His voice is a full, rich baritone.

10 of the moon : appearing as a bright circle ▪ The moon is full tonight.

full blast see [1]BLAST

full count see [2]COUNT

full of beans see BEAN

full of crap/shit informal + offensive : not to be believed : saying things that are not true ▪ That guy is full of shit.

full of it informal + sometimes offensive : not to be believed ▪ His story was so exaggerated that I thought he was full of it. ▪ Oh, you're so full of it.

full steam/speed ahead — used to say that something is being done with as much speed and power as possible ▪ The work started slowly, but now it's full steam ahead. ▪ The campaign is going full speed ahead.

have your hands full see [1]HAND

not playing with a full deck see [1]DECK

to the fullest : in a very active and energetic way ▪ She likes to live life to the fullest.

– full•ness also ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the fullness of her voice ▪ The conditioner added fullness to her hair. ▪ I expected it would happen in the fullness of time. [=it would happen eventually]

[2]full adv

1 : as much as possible : entirely or completely ▪ The cup was filled full to the brim.

2 : directly or squarely ▪ The ball hit him full in the chest. ▪ He kissed her full on the lips.

full out : with as much effort as possible ▪ He was running full out. — see also FULL-OUT full well formal : very well ▪ I knew full well who they were. ▪ You know full well that it won't be possible for me to go.

[3]full noun

in full : entirely or completely ▪ The receipt indicated that their bill had been paid in full. ▪ Please write your name and address in full. [=please write your full name and address] to the full 1 : to a great or complete degree ▪ I enjoyed the performance to the full. : as much as possible ▪ We need to exploit this opportunity to the full. 2 : in a very active and energetic way ▪ She likes to live life to the full.

full•back /ˈfʊlˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count]
1 American football : a player on offense who lines up behind the line of scrimmage and who runs with the ball and blocks
2 : a defensive player in games like soccer and field hockey who is usually positioned near the goal full beam noun [noncount] Brit : HIGH BEAM ▪ The car's headlights were on full beam.

full–blood•ed /ˈfʊlˌblʌdəd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having parents who are of the same race or origin ▪ Both his parents were Irish, so he was a full-blooded Irishman. ▪ a full-blooded Cherokee full–blown /ˈfʊlˈbloʊn/ adj : having all of the qualities that are associated with a particular thing or type of person : fully developed ▪ a full-blown recession ▪ full-blown AIDS ▪ The movie made him a full-blown star.
2 a : full of enthusiasm, energy, etc. ▪ a full-blooded socialist b : fully developed ▪ They started a full-blooded revolution.

full–bod•ied /ˈfʊlˌbɑːdid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a strong and pleasant flavor ▪ a full-bodied wine full circle adv : through a series of changes that lead back to an original position or situation or to an opposite position or situation ▪ Now that she's back on the stage, her career has come/gone full circle. [=her career began on the stage, and now she has returned to it]

full–court press noun, pl ~ presses [count]
1 basketball : a very aggressive way of playing defense over all areas of the court
2 US : a very aggressive effort or attack usually involving many people ▪ The bill's supporters are mounting/launching a full-court press to assure its passage.

full–cream adj, Brit : containing cream ▪ full-cream milk [=(US) whole milk] ▪ full-cream cheese full dress noun [noncount] : special clothes that are worn for a ceremony or for important social occasions ▪ The Army required full dress be worn to the event. ▪ The officers were in full dress. ▪ full-dress uniforms full–dress adj, always used before a noun : involving attention to every detail : very complete or full ▪ a full-dress investigation/biography full–fat adj, always used before a noun, Brit : having no fat removed ▪ full-fat dairy products

full– edged /ˈfʊlˈfledʒd/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US
1 : fully developed ▪ The conflict widened into a full-fledged war. ▪ a full-fledged recession
2 : meeting all the necessary requirements to be something ▪ a full-fledged lawyer/member full–grown adj : having reached full growth or development : fully grown or mature ▪ full-grown animals/trees ▪ a full-grown man full house noun, pl ~ houses [count]

1 : a theater or concert hall that is filled with spectators ▪ a singer performing before a full house
2 : a set of cards that a player has in a poker game containing three cards of one value and two cards of another value ▪ A hand with three kings and two tens is a full house.

full–length /ˈfʊlˌlɛŋθ/ adj
1 : showing all of a person's body from the head to the feet ▪ a full-length mirror ▪ a full-length portrait
2 : reaching to the end of your legs or arms ▪ a full-length dress ▪ a shirt with full-length sleeves
3 : having the normal length : not shortened ▪ They staged a full-length version of the play.

full marks noun [plural] Brit
1 : praise given for an achievement ▪ Full marks to Mary for her excellent suggestion! [=Mary should be praised for her excellent suggestion]
2 : the highest score that you can get on a test — see also full marks for effort at EFFORT full moon noun [singular] : the moon when it appears as a bright circle — compare HALF-MOON, NEW MOON

full–on /ˈfʊlˌɑːn/ adj, always used before a noun : not limited

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 62 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

in any way ▪ Her new album is full-on funk. : fully developed ▪ a full-on barroom brawl full–out /ˈfʊlˌaʊt/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : made or done with as much effort as possible : ALL-OUT ▪ a full-out sprint — see also full out at ²FULL
2 : fully developed ▪ a full-out war

full–scale /ˈfʊlˌskeɪl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having the same size as the original ▪ They built a full-scale replica of the ship. ▪ a full-scale model
2 : not limited in any way : using everything that can be used ▪ a full-scale war ▪ a full-scale investigation full–ser•vice /ˈfʊlˈsəːvəs/ adj, always used before a noun : offering all the necessary or expected services ▪ a full-service bank/restaurant ▪ a full-service health resort

full–size /ˈfʊlˌsaɪz/ adj
1 : having the same size as the original : FULL-SCALE ▪ a full-size model
2 US, of a bed : having a size of 54 inches by 75 inches (about 1.4 by 1.9 meters) — compare KING-SIZE, QUEEN-SIZE, TWIN-SIZE

full stop noun, pl ~ stops [count] Brit : ¹PERIOD 5a full–term /ˈfʊlˌtəːm/ adj : lasting for the normal length of time ▪ a full-term pregnancy; also : born after a pregnancy that lasts for the normal length of time ▪ a full-term baby full–time adj

1 a : working the full number of hours considered normal or standard ▪ full-time employees b : done during the full number of hours considered normal or standard ▪ a full-time job — compare PART-TIME
2 : requiring all of or a large amount of your time ▪ Taking care of children is a full-time job.
– full–time adv ▪ She worked full-time at the office. – full–tim•er /ˈfʊlˈtaɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Some of the employees are full-timers, but most of them are part-timers.

ful•ly /ˈfʊli/ adv
1 : in every way or detail : completely or entirely ▪ He fully recovered from the operation. ▪ They will never fully appreciate their luck. ▪ The house is fully furnished. ▪ When will the tree be fully grown? — sometimes used with more and most ▪ I've never felt more fully alive. ▪ We need to understand these problems more fully before we can find a solution to them. ▪ The father is the most fully developed character in the novel. — see also fully booked at ²BOOK
2 : AT LEAST — used to stress the large size of a number or amount ▪ Fully 90 percent of us attended the meeting. ▪ Next year, fully three-quarters of the jobs will be unfilled.

ful•ly– edged /ˌfʊliˈflɛʤd/ adj, Brit : FULL-FLEDGED

ful•mi•nate /ˈfʊlməˌneɪt, ˈfʌlməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [no obj] formal : to complain loudly or angrily ▪ She was fulminating about/over/at the dangers of smoking. ▪ The editorial fulminated against the proposed tax increase.
– ful•mi•na•tion /ˌfʊlməˈneɪʃən, ˌfʌlməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] a fulmination against the proposed tax increase [noncount] The proposed tax increase has been the subject of much anger and fulmination.

ful•some /ˈfʊlsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : expressing something (such as praise or thanks) in a very enthusiastic or emotional way — often used in a disapproving way to describe words that seem excessive or insincere ▪ They were fulsome in their praise of her efforts. ▪ a fulsome apology
– ful•some•ly adv ▪ fulsomely praised

fum•ble /ˈfʌmbəl/ verb fum•bles; fum•bled; fum•bling
1 [no obj] : to search for something by reaching or touching with your fingers in an awkward or clumsy way ▪ She fumbled in her pocket for her keys. ▪ He fumbled (around) for the light switch. — often used figuratively ▪ She fumbled for an answer but couldn't think of one.
2 : to handle something in an awkward or clumsy way [no obj] — usually + with ▪ She fumbled with her keys as she tried to unlock the door. [+ obj] They fumbled a good opportunity to take control of the market.
3 sports : to fail to catch or hold the ball [no obj] He was hit hard and fumbled on the 20-yard line. [+ obj] He fumbled the ball on the 20-yard line.
– fumble noun, pl fumbles [count] ▪ (American football) He had one fumble during last week's game. – fum•bler noun, pl -blers [count] – fumbling adj ▪ He made a fumbling attempt to explain his behavior.

¹fume /ˈfjuːm/ noun, pl fumes [count] : smoke or gas that smells unpleasant — usually plural ▪ automobile exhaust fumes

²fume verb fumes; fumed; fum•ing
1 a [no obj] : to show or feel anger ▪ She's still fuming about/over/at not being invited to the party. ▪ We sat there waiting for him, fuming with anger at the delay. b [+ obj] : to say (something) in an angry way ▪ "They made these changes without even asking our opinion," one employee fumed.
2 : to produce or give off (smoke, fumes, etc.) [+ obj] The volcano was fuming thick black smoke. [no obj] The volcano was fuming.

fu•mi•gate /ˈfjuːməˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] : to remove germs, insects, etc., from (a room or building) with smoke or gas that destroys them ▪ All the hospital rooms had to be fumigated. ▪ We had to fumigate our apartment to get rid of the ants.
– fu•mi•ga•tion /ˌfjuːməˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] – fu•mi•ga•tor /ˈfjuːməˌgeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

¹fun /ˈfʌn/ noun [noncount]
1 : someone or something that is amusing or enjoyable : an enjoyable experience or person ▪ The game was a lot of fun. [=the game was very enjoyable] ▪ She's fun to be with. = It's fun to be with her. = It's fun being with her. [=her company is enjoyable] ▪ Picnics are great fun [=are very enjoyable] in good weather.
2 : an enjoyable or amusing time ▪ We had fun at the movie. [=we enjoyed ourselves at the movie; we enjoyed the movie] ▪ I can't remember when I've had so much fun. ▪ a vacation filled with fun = a fun-filled vacation ▪ a fun-loving couple [=a couple who love to have fun]
3 : the feeling of being amused or entertained ▪ He plays cards just for fun. = He plays cards just for the fun of it. ▪ Sickness takes all the fun out of life.
a figure of fun : a person who people laugh at and make jokes about in an unkind way ▪ He was a figure of fun around town.
in fun : in a joking way : in a way that is not serious ▪ Don't take offense: I was only saying it in fun.
make fun of : to laugh at and make jokes about (someone or something) in an unkind way ▪ The other kids were making fun of me. ▪ They made fun of the way he talked.
more fun than a barrel (full) of monkeys see ¹BARREL poke fun at : to make a joke about (someone or something) usually in a friendly way ▪ I like to poke fun at my boss, but he's really not a bad guy.

²fun adj, always used before a noun, sometimes fun•ner; sometimes fun•nest informal : providing amusement : amusing or enjoyable ▪ Our vacation was a fun time. ▪ She's a fun person to be with. ▪ The park is a fun place to visit. ▪ We had a fun time at the movie.

³fun verb funs; funned; fun•ning [no obj] US, informal : to speak or act in a way that is not serious ▪ I don't want you to get angry; I was only funning. [=(more commonly) joking, fooling] ▪ He's just funning with you.

fun and games noun [plural] : activity that is meant to be enjoyable rather than serious ▪ The family reunion was full of fun and games. — often used in a disapproving way to describe activity that is considered silly and not useful ▪ The convention is just an excuse for journalistic fun and games.

¹func•tion /ˈfʌŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the special purpose or activity for which a thing exists or is used [count] The function of the heart is to pump blood through the body. ▪ He believes that the true function of art is to tell the truth. ▪ What functions do these programs fulfill/perform/serve? ▪ infants learning to control their bodily functions [noncount] The instrument is chiefly used to measure and record heart function. ▪ The design achieves a perfect blend of form and function.
2 [count] : the job or duty of a person ▪ His job combines the functions of a manager and a worker. ▪ Her chief/main/primary/principal function is to provide expert legal advice.
3 [count] : a large ceremony or social event ▪ They went to several functions during their college reunion weekend. ▪ a social function
4 [count] a : something (such as a quality or measurement) that is related to and changes with something else ▪ Height is a function of age in children. [=the height of children increases as their age increases] b : something that results from something else ▪ His personal problems are a function of [=a result of] his drinking.

²function verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [no obj]
1 : to work or operate ▪ The new machine functions well. ▪ His bad health has prevented him from being able to func- tion effectively in recent weeks. ▪ Her heart now seems to be functioning normally. ▪ The computer network is not yet fully functioning. ▪ Stress may interfere with (the) normal functioning of the immune system.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

F

2 : to have a specified function, role, or purpose : SERVE — usually + as ▪ Teachers also function as counselors. ▪ The couch was designed to also function as a bed.

func•tion•al /ˈfʌŋkʃənl/ adj

1 : designed to have a practical use ▪ They worked outside, so they preferred wearing functional clothes. ▪ The building's design is not only functional but also beautiful. ▪ functional and decorative pottery

2 medical : affecting the way a part of your body works ▪ a functional heart disorder

3 : working properly ▪ The flashlight was still functional after I dropped it. ▪ The computer network is fully functional.

4 : of or relating to the use or function of something ▪ the functional differences between the departments

– func•tion•al•ly adv

func•tion•al•i•ty /ˌfʌŋkʃəˈnælәti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality of having a practical use : the quality of being functional ▪ a design that is admired both for its beauty and for its functionality

2 : the particular use or set of uses for which something is designed [noncount] The cameras are comparable in price and functionality. [count] a device with new functionalities

func•tion•ary /ˈfʌŋkʃəˌneri, Brit ˈfʌŋkʃənri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a person who works for a government or political party ▪ He was a party functionary during the political campaign.

function key noun, pl ~ keys [count] : any one of a set of keys on a computer keyboard that have special uses function word noun, pl ~ words [count] linguistics : a word (such as a preposition or a conjunction) that is used mainly to show grammatical relationships between other words

[1]fund /ˈfʌnd/ noun, pl funds

1 [count] : an amount of money that is used for a special purpose ▪ the library's book fund ▪ The fund was established to aid the poor. ▪ a pension fund — see also MUTUAL FUND, SLUSH FUND, TRUST FUND

2 funds [plural] : available money ▪ All her funds were in a checking account. ▪ His funds were getting lower as he continued to look for a job. ▪ raising campaign funds ▪ I'm a little short of funds right now. [=I don't have much money right now]

3 [singular] : an amount of something that is available for use : a supply of something ▪ The comedian had a large fund of jokes.

[2]fund verb funds; fund•ed; fund•ing [+ obj] : to provide money for (something) ▪ The group funded three new scholarships. ▪ Who funds the company pension plan? ▪ The program is funded by the state. = The program is state-funded. ▪ The plan is fully funded. [=the plan is provided with all the money it requires]

– funding noun [noncount] ▪ The program relies on funding from the state. = The program relies on state funding.

[1]fun•da•men•tal /ˌfʌndəˈmɛntl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : forming or relating to the most important part of something : BASIC ▪ The Constitution ensures our fundamental rights. ▪ There's a fundamental difference between these two political parties. ▪ a fundamental truth/concept/belief — often + to ▪ beliefs that are fundamental to our society

2 : of or relating to the basic structure or function of something ▪ These ideas are of fundamental importance. ▪ The revolution brought about a fundamental change in the country. ▪ We need to make some fundamental changes in the way we do business. ▪ We need to address these problems on a more fundamental level.

[2]fundamental noun, pl -tals [count] : one of the basic and important parts of something : a fundamental part — usually plural ▪ Reading, writing, and arithmetic are the fundamentals of education. ▪ the fundamentals of algebra fun•da•men•tal•ist /ˌfʌndəˈmɛntəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who strictly and literally follows a set of rules and laws especially about religion ▪ a religious fundamentalist

– fun•da•men•tal•ism /ˌfʌndəˈmɛntəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious fundamentalism – fundamentalist adj ▪ fundamentalist beliefs

fun•da•men•tal•ly /ˌfʌndəˈmɛntl̩i/ adv : at the most basic level ▪ All people are fundamentally the same. = Fundamentally, all people are the same. ▪ fundamentally important principles ▪ I disagree with some of her points, but fundamentally she's right. ▪ His plan is fundamentally different.

fund–rais•er /ˈfʌndˌreɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who collects money for a political party, charity, school, etc.

2 : a social event held to collect money for a political party, charity, school, etc.

fund–rais•ing /ˈfʌndˌreɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : activity done to collect money for a political party, charity, school, etc. ▪ political fund-raising ▪ a fund-raising dinner/campaign

fu•ner•al /ˈfjuːnərəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : a ceremony held for a dead person ▪ Only family attended the funeral. ▪ His funeral will be held on Friday. ▪ a funeral procession/service ▪ His cousin made the funeral arrangements.

it's your funeral informal — used to say that you will have to deal with the unpleasant result of your actions ▪ Tell the boss she's wrong if you like: it's your funeral!

funeral director noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : a person whose job is to arrange and manage funerals : UNDERTAKER

funeral home noun, pl ~ homes [count] : a place where dead people are prepared for burial or cremation and where wakes and funerals are held — called also (US) funeral parlor fu•ne•re•al /fjuˈnirijəl/ adj : very sad and serious : suggesting a funeral ▪ a funereal silence ▪ funereal music

fun•fair /ˈfʌnˌfeɚ/ noun, pl -fairs [count] Brit : an outdoor event at which there are various kinds of games, rides, and entertainment fun•gal /ˈfʌŋgəl/ adj : of, relating to, or caused by a fungus ▪ a fungal disease/infection

fungi plural of FUNGUS

fun•gi•cide /ˈfʌnʤəˌsaɪd, ˈfʌŋgəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count, noncount] : a substance that kills fungi

fun•gus /ˈfʌŋgəs/ noun, pl fun•gi /ˈfʌnˌʤaɪ, ˈfʌŋˌgaɪ/ also fun•gus•es [count] : any one of a group of related plants (such as molds, mushrooms, or yeasts) that have no flowers and that live on dead or decaying things fun house noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a building in an amusement park with many features that amuse and surprise people as they walk or ride through it

fu•nic•u•lar /fjʊˈnɪkjələɚ/ noun, pl -lars [count] : a railway going up and down a mountain that carries people in cars pulled by a moving cable

[1]funk /ˈfʌŋk/ noun, pl funks [count] chiefly US, informal : a condition in which you are unable to think or behave normally because you are sad, depressed, etc. — usually singular ▪ She seems to be coming out of her funk. — usually used after in or into ▪ He had been in a (blue) funk since failing the exam. ▪ She went into a dark/deep funk after she lost her job. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The country is in an economic funk. [=the country's economy is doing poorly] — compare [2]FUNK

[2]funk noun [noncount] : a type of popular music that has a strong beat and that combines traditional forms of African-American music (such as blues, gospel, or soul) — compare [1]FUNK

funky /ˈfʌŋki/ adj funk•i•er; -est

1 : having the style or feeling of funk music ▪ funky music ▪ The music had a funky beat.

2 informal : stylish or appealing in an unusual way ▪ We had dinner at a funky little Italian restaurant. ▪ a funky bar

3 US : having a strange or unpleasant odor ▪ Something in the closet smells a little funky.

[1]fun•nel /ˈfʌnl/ noun, pl -nels [count]

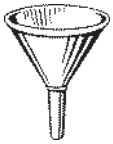
1 : a device shaped like a hollow cone with a tube extending from the point ✧ A funnel is used for pouring something (such as a liquid) into a narrow opening.

2 : something that is shaped like a funnel ▪ the funnel cloud of a tornado

3 : a large pipe on a ship through which smoke or steam comes out



funnel

[2]funnel verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -nels; US -neled or Brit -nelled; US -nel•ing or Brit -nel•ling

1 : to pass through a funnel or a narrow opening [no obj] Winds funneled through the canyon. ▪ Smoke funneled up the chimney. ▪ The crowd funneled through the doors. [+ obj] He funneled the gas into the tank.

2 [+ obj] : to send (something, such as money) to someone or something in usually an indirect or secret way ▪ They fun-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

neled money into the campaign. ▪ The information was being secretly funneled to the head of the organization.

fun•nies /ˈfʌniz/ noun

the funnies US, informal : the comic strips in a newspaper : the part of a newspaper that has comic strips ▪ They enjoyed reading the funnies [=the comics] in the Sunday newspapers.

[1]fun•ny /ˈfʌni/ adj fun•ni•er; -est

1 : causing laughter ▪ He told a funny story. ▪ He's a very funny guy. ▪ What's so funny? ▪ What are you laughing at? There's nothing funny about it. ▪ It's not that funny. ▪ a funny story/movie

2 informal : odd or strange ▪ There's something funny going on here. ▪ She has some funny ideas about how to run a company. ▪ "I can't find my keys." "That's funny—they were here a minute ago." ▪ "That's funny." "Do you mean funny peculiar/strange or funny ha-ha?" [=by "funny" do you mean "odd" or "amusing"?] ▪ My car has been making a funny noise lately. ▪ A funny thing happened to me the other day. ▪ a funny-looking hat ▪ It feels funny to be back here again. ▪ It's funny that you should say that—I was just thinking the same thing myself. ▪ Funny, things didn't turn out the way we planned. [=it's odd that things didn't turn out the way we planned]

3 not used before a noun, informal : not well : somewhat ill ▪ My stomach feels funny. ▪ I feel a little funny. ▪ (chiefly Brit) After the accident he went a bit funny in the head.

4 informal : not honest : meant to deceive someone ▪ The guard told his prisoner not to try anything funny. ▪ Fake bidding and other funny business [=dishonest activity] occurred during the auction.

– fun•ni•ly /ˈfʌnəli/ adv ▪ There's something funnily [=oddly] familiar about him. ▪ Funnily (enough), she never even mentioned our first meeting.

[2]funny adv, informal : in an odd or strange way ▪ He's been acting funny lately. ▪ She looked at me funny.

funny bone noun, pl ~ bones [count] : a place at the back of your elbow where you feel a painful tingling sensation when it is hit ▪ I hit my funny bone on the edge of the table. — called also (US) crazy bone ✧ Something that tickles your funny bone is amusing to you. ▪ Parts of the movie really tickled my funny bone.

funny farm noun

the funny farm informal + humorous : a hospital for people who are mentally ill ✧ The funny farm is now often considered offensive.

fun•ny•man /ˈfʌniˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] informal : a man who is funny; especially : a professional comedian

funny money noun [noncount] informal : fake money : counterfeit money

funny papers noun [plural] US, informal : FUNNIES

fur /ˈfɚ/ noun, pl furs

1 [noncount] : the hairy coat of an animal especially when it is soft and thick ▪ The cat has black-and-white fur. ▪ The rabbit's fur is soft.

2 a : the fur of an animal used for clothing [noncount] Her gloves are lined with fur. [count] He made his fortune trading furs in the 17th century. — often used before another noun ▪ a fur coat/collar b [count] : a piece of clothing (such as a coat) made with fur ▪ Her new fur is a full-length mink coat. c [noncount] : a material that looks and feels like the fur of an animal ▪ a teddy bear with soft fur ▪ fake/imitation fur

3 [noncount] Brit : a hard material that forms in metal pipes, boilers, etc. : SCALE

fur flies informal ✧ When (the) fur flies, someone becomes very angry or upset. ▪ When she finds our about this, fur will fly. [=she will be very angry]

– furred /ˈfɚd/ adj ▪ a thickly furred animal ▪ (Brit) a thickly furred boiler fu•ri•ous /ˈfjʊrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very angry ▪ She's furious at/over how slowly the investigation is proceeding. ▪ I was furious with/at them for printing the story. ▪ a furious argument

2 a : very powerful or violent ▪ a furious storm b : very active or fast ▪ We worked all night at a furious pace.

fast and furious see [1]FAST

– fu•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ She shouted at him furiously. ▪ working furiously [=at a furious pace]

furl /ˈfɚl/ verb furls; furled; furl•ing [+ obj] : to wrap or roll (something, such as a sail or a flag) close to or around something ▪ They furled the sails.

fur•long /ˈfɚˌlɑːŋ/ noun, pl -longs [count] : a unit of distance equal to 220 yards (about 201.2 meters) or ⅛ of a mile — used chiefly in horse racing

[1]fur•lough /ˈfɚˌloʊ/ noun, pl -loughs [count]

1 : a period of time when a soldier is allowed to leave the place where he or she is stationed ▪ a four-week furlough

2 US : a period of time when an employee is told not to come to work and is not paid ▪ furloughs of federal workers ▪ Each employee will have a one-day furlough every month.

3 US : a period of time when a prisoner is allowed to leave prison on furlough : having a furlough : allowed or required to leave because of a furlough ▪ soldiers going home on furlough ▪ workers/prisoners on furlough

[2]furlough verb -loughs; -loughed; -lough•ing [+ obj]

1 : to grant a furlough to (someone) ▪ furlough a soldier ▪ (US) The prison will furlough certain inmates.

2 US : to put (a worker) on furlough ▪ The company will consider furloughing a small number of workers.

fur•nace /ˈfɚnəs/ noun, pl -nac•es [count] : an enclosed container in which heat is produced: such as a : one for melting metals ▪ stoke a furnace — see also BLAST FURNACE b chiefly US : one for heating a building or apartment — called also (chiefly Brit) boiler

fur•nish /ˈfɚnɪʃ/ verb -nish•es; -nished; -nish•ing [+ obj]

1 : to provide (a room or building) with furniture ▪ The inn is beautifully furnished. ▪ He has enough money to furnish the apartment nicely. — often + with ▪ We are furnishing the office with contemporary pieces. ▪ She furnished her home with antiques.

2 a : to supply or give (something) to someone or something : PROVIDE ▪ We'll furnish the food for the party. ▪ Can he furnish the information to us? b : to supply or give to (someone) something that is needed or wanted : PROVIDE — + with ▪ Students are furnished with all the necessary materials for the course. ▪ Can he furnish us with the information?

– furnished adj ▪ He moved from a furnished room to an unfurnished apartment.

fur•nish•ings /ˈfɚnɪʃɪŋz/ noun [plural] : pieces of furniture, curtains, rugs, and decorations for a room or building ▪ The room has very comfortable furnishings.

fur•ni•ture /ˈfɚnɪʧɚ/ noun [noncount] : chairs, tables, beds, etc., that are used to make a room ready for use ▪ They bought some new furniture for the house. ▪ The office furniture is wearing out. ▪ a large piece of furniture

fu•ror (US) /ˈfjʊəˌrɔɚ, ˈfjʊrɚ/ also chiefly Brit fu•rore /ˈfjʊəˌrɔɚ, Brit fjʊˈrɔːri/ noun [singular] : a situation in which many people are very angry and upset ▪ The book caused/created a furor across the country. ▪ Amid a public furor, the senator continues to deny the allegations.

fur•ri•er /ˈfɚrijɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who sells or makes fur clothing

[1]fur•row /ˈfɚroʊ/ noun, pl -rows [count]

1 : a long and narrow cut in the ground ▪ We plowed furrows in the field.

2 : a narrow line or wrinkle in the skin of a person's face ▪ When he frowns a deep furrow forms in his brow.

plough a furrow Brit, literary ✧ If you plough your own furrow, you do something that is different from what other people do. ▪ She was not afraid to plough her own furrow. [=to act independently; to do something no one else has done] If you plough the same furrow, you do the same thing someone else does. ▪ He was not content to plough the same furrow as his father. If you plough a lone/lonely furrow, you do something alone or do something that no one else will do. ▪ She has had to plough a lone/lonely furrow in her pursuit of reform.

[2]furrow verb -rows; -rowed; -row•ing : to make furrows in (something) [+ obj] plows furrowing the fields ▪ He furrowed his brow. [no obj] His forehead furrows when he frowns.

– furrowed adj ▪ a furrowed brow/forehead ▪ a furrowed field

fur•ry /ˈfɚri/ adj fur•ri•er; -est

1 : covered with fur ▪ My children love furry animals.

2 a : covered with something that looks or feels like fur ▪ The plant has furry leaves. ▪ furry slippers b : resembling fur ▪ Furry mold was growing on the cheese.

[1]fur•ther /ˈfɚðɚ/ adv

1 : to or at a more distant place or time : FARTHER ▪ He lives further (away) from the office than his boss. ▪ We need to look back further into the past to find the cause of these problems. ▪ I've never been further west than St. Louis. ▪ Their house is further up/down the street. ▪ The road ended and we couldn't go any further. [=we couldn't go beyond that point]

F

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-f

2 : to a greater degree or extent ▪ We need to research/look further into this matter. ▪ The police have been reluctant to take their investigation any further. ▪ I do not want anything further [=more] to do with this mess. ▪ I don't know anything further [=more] about what really happened. ▪ The interview ended before they could question me further. [=more] ▪ Interest rates fell further. [=more] ▪ "They are not our friends." "I would go even further and say they are our enemies." ▪ Some people claim that he is an arrogant man, but nothing could be further from the truth. [=it is completely untrue to say that he is an arrogant man] ▪ Some people expect him to retire, but he says that nothing could be further from his mind. [=he has no intention of retiring] ▪ Don't worry, what you've told me will go no further. [=I will not tell anyone else what you have told me]

3 formal : in addition to what has been said : FURTHERMORE ▪ I had enough money to invest. I realized, further, that the risk was small.

further to Brit, formal — used in a letter to refer to a subject discussed in a previous letter or conversation ▪ Further to my letter of last Wednesday, may I remind you that the money outstanding has still not been paid.

[2]further adj

1 : ADDITIONAL, MORE ▪ Further study/research is needed. ▪ He will undergo further questioning. ▪ If you need further information/details, you can call me. ▪ We do not expect any further deliveries today. ▪ I have nothing further to say. ▪ There is a further problem: do we have enough money? ▪ The library will be closed until further notice. [=until some time in the future which has not yet been decided or stated]

2 : more distant : FARTHER ▪ We parked in the further lot. ▪ There is more damage to the further part of the fence.

[3]further verb -thers; -thered; -ther•ing [+ obj] : to help the progress of (something) : to cause (something) to become more successful or advanced ▪ He will do all he can to further [=promote] the cause. ▪ What can I do to further [=advance] my career? ▪ Their efforts greatly furthered the state of research. ▪ The funds are to be used to further the public good.

fur•ther•ance /ˈfəðərəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the act of helping something to become more successful or advanced : ADVANCEMENT ▪ They made the furtherance of science their life's work. ▪ His main concern is with the furtherance [=promotion] of his own agenda.

further education noun [noncount] Brit : courses of study for adults : CONTINUING EDUCATION

fur•ther•more /ˈfəðəˌmoə/ adv, formal : in addition to what has been said : MOREOVER — used to introduce a statement that supports or adds to a previous statement ▪ These findings seem plausible. Furthermore, several studies have confirmed them. ▪ She always arrives on time. Her work, furthermore, has always been excellent.

[1]furth•est /ˈfəðəst/ adv

1 : to or at the greatest distance in space or time : FARTHEST ▪ The best table is furthest from the kitchen. ▪ Who can run (the) furthest in five minutes?

2 : to the most advanced point : FARTHEST ▪ She went the furthest [=she made the greatest effort] to research the issue.

3 : by the greatest degree or extent : MOST ▪ Of all his paintings, this one is the furthest removed from reality.

[2]furthest adj, always used before a noun : most distant in space or time : FARTHEST ▪ Their ideas fall at the furthest extremes of the political spectrum. ▪ He says that retiring is the furthest thing from his mind. [=he is not thinking at all about retiring; he has no intention of retiring]

fur•tive /ˈfəːtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : done in a quiet and secret way to avoid being noticed ▪ He cast a furtive glance in our direction. ▪ We exchanged furtive smiles across the table. ▪ furtive movements

– fur•tive•ly adv ▪ He looked furtively at the clock. ▪ She slipped furtively out of the room. – fur•tive•ness noun [noncount]

fu•ry /ˈfjuri/ noun, pl -ries

1 : violent anger : RAGE [noncount] I could see the fury in her eyes. ▪ Nothing could contain his fury over their accusations. ▪ He turned away from them in fury. [singular] ✧ If you are in a fury, you are very angry. ▪ She rose in a fury and stalked out of the room. ✧ If you fly into a fury, you become very angry. ▪ He flew into a fury [=flew into a rage] and began shouting at them. synonyms see [1]ANGER

2 [noncount] : wild and dangerous force ▪ The hurricane unleashed its fury on hundreds of homes and businesses.

sound and fury see [1]SOUND

[1]fuse /ˈfjuːz/ noun, pl fus•es [count] : a device that causes electricity to stop flowing when a current becomes too strong ▪ The lights went out when the fuse blew. ▪ change a fuse blow a fuse informal : to become very angry or upset ▪ The boss blew a fuse when the shipment didn't arrive on time.

– compare [2]FUSE

[2]fuse noun, pl fuses [count]

1 : a string that is connected to an explosive device (such as a bomb or firecracker) and that is set on fire to cause the device to explode ▪ light a fuse

2 also US fuze : a mechanical or electrical device that causes a weapon (such as a bomb or torpedo) to explode

a short fuse informal ✧ If you have a short fuse or you are on a short fuse, you become angry very quickly. ▪ The boss is known to be on a short fuse.

– compare [1]FUSE

[3]fuse verb fuses; fused; fus•ing

1 : to join or become joined because of heat or a chemical reaction [no obj] During the reaction the atoms fuse (together). ▪ The melted metals fused (with each other). [+ obj] Particles are fused to form a new compound. ▪ He fused the wires (together).

2 : to join or combine (different things) together [+ obj] His compositions fuse jazz and rhythm and blues elements. ▪ Their approach fused ideas from several disciplines. [no obj] Dreams and reality fuse (together) in her latest film. = Dreams fuse with reality in her latest film.

3 Brit : to stop working because a fuse has blown [no obj] The light fused and left us in the dark. [+ obj] I must have fused the light by accident.

fuse box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a box that contains the fuses for the electrical system in a building

fu•se•lage /ˈfjuːsəˌlɑːʒ, Brit ˈfjuːzəˌlɑːʒ/ noun, pl -lag•es [count] : the main part of an airplane : the part of an airplane that holds the crew, passengers, and cargo — see picture at AIRPLANE

fu•sil•lade /ˈfjuːsəˌlɑːd, Brit ˌfjuːzəˈleɪd/ noun [singular] : a large number of shots that are fired very quickly ▪ A fusillade of bullets filled the courtyard. — often used figuratively ▪ She faced a fusillade [=barrage, flurry] of accusations. ▪ a fusillade of obscenities

fu•sion /ˈfjuːʒn/ noun, pl -sions

1 : a combination or mixture of things [count] a fusion of different methods ▪ a fusion of musical styles ▪ The show is a fusion of news and entertainment. [noncount] The fusion of different cultural influences is evident in her sculpture.

2 [noncount] physics : a process in which the nuclei of atoms are joined ▪ a fusion reactor/reaction ✧ A large amount of energy is released when fusion occurs. — called also nuclear fusion; compare FISSION

3 [noncount] : a type of popular music that combines different styles (such as jazz and rock)

4 [noncount] : food prepared by combining methods and ingredients from different areas of the world — called also fusion cuisine

[1]fuss /ˈfʌs/ noun

1 : activity or excitement that is unusual and that often is not wanted or necessary [noncount] They got down to business without any fuss. ▪ What is all the fuss about? [singular] Her new novel has caused quite a fuss. — often used with make ▪ We'd love to come to dinner, but please don't make a fuss. [=don't do a lot of extra things that you would not usually do] ▪ (US) Everyone made such a fuss over the baby. = (Brit) Everyone made such a fuss of the baby. [=everyone paid a lot of excited attention to the baby]

2 : an expression of anger or complaint especially about something that has little importance [noncount] She accepted the new assignment without any fuss. [=she did not complain about the new assignment] — often used with make ▪ She accepted the new assignment without making any fuss. [singular] I don't want to make a fuss, but this soup is cold.

[2]fuss verb fuss•es; fussed; fuss•ing [no obj]

1 : to be or become upset or worried ▪ She'll fuss the whole time we're gone. ▪ I told him not to fuss. ✧ In informal British English, someone who is not fussed is not bothered or worried. ▪ We can eat at either restaurant: I'm not fussed. =

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:33:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−f

I'm not fussed about which restaurant we eat at.
2 US : to show that you are annoyed or unhappy ▪ The baby fussed all day. ▪ Stop fussing and get to work! ▪ He's fussing about his new assignment.
fuss over [phrasal verb] fuss over (someone or something) : to pay a lot of attention to (someone or something) in a nervous or excited way ▪ Everyone fussed over the baby. ▪ He spent hours fussing over the details of the speech. ▪ I don't want anyone to fuss over me.
fuss with [phrasal verb] fuss with (something) : to move or handle (something) in a nervous or uncertain way : to fiddle with (something) ▪ He fussed with his tie the whole time we were talking. ▪ She's always fussing with her hair.

fuss•bud•get /ˈfʌsˌbʌʤət/ noun, pl -gets [count] US, informal + disapproving : a person who worries or complains about small things : a fussy person ▪ a grumpy old fussbudget

fuss•pot /ˈfʌsˌpɑːt/ noun, pl -pots [count] chiefly Brit, informal + disapproving : FUSSBUDGET

fussy /ˈfʌsi/ adj fuss•i•er; -est
1 : very careful or too careful about choosing or accepting things : hard to please ▪ a fussy shopper ▪ She's always been fussy [=picky] about food. ▪ I'm not fussy about where we eat. ▪ This plant is not fussy about soil quality. [=this plant will grow well even in poor soil]
2 US : often upset or unhappy ▪ a very fussy baby
3 disapproving : too fancy or complicated ▪ a fussy dress ▪ fussy curtains/wallpaper ▪ The room was cluttered and fussy.
– fuss•i•ly /ˈfʌsəli/ adv – fuss•i•ness noun [noncount]

fus•ty /ˈfʌsti/ adj fus•ti•er; -est
1 : full of dust and unpleasant smells : not fresh : MUSTY ▪ a fusty cottage ▪ The trunk was full of fusty clothing.
2 : very old-fashioned ▪ fusty notions about art

fu•tile /ˈfjuːtl, ˈfjuːˌtajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having no result or effect : pointless or useless ▪ All our efforts proved futile. ▪ a futile and foolish gesture ▪ They made a futile [=vain] attempt to control the flooding.
– fu•tile•ly adv – fu•til•i•ty /fjuˈtɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ His speech focused on the futility of violence. ▪ They demonstrated the futility of the plan. ▪ an exercise in futility

fu•ton /ˈfuːˌtɑːn/ noun, pl -tons [count] : a mattress that is used on the floor or in a frame as a bed, couch, or chair

[1]fu•ture /ˈfjuːʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 a [noncount] : the period of time that will come after the present time ▪ (Brit) He promises to do better in future. [=from now on; from this time onward] — usually used with the ▪ (US) He promises to do better in the future. ▪ We're making plans for the future. ▪ They will hire more people sometime in the future. ▪ What do you think you will be doing in the future? ▪ What does/will the future hold for you? ▪ the near/immediate future ▪ the foreseeable future ▪ Changes are expected in the not too distant future. [=soon] b *the future : the events that will happen after the present time ▪ It's impossible to predict the future.
2 [count] : the condition or situation of someone or something in the time that will come ▪ He has a promising future (ahead of him). ▪ Their future looks bright. ▪ The company faces an uncertain future. ▪ The future was already decided for her. ▪ There is no future for you in this business. = You have no future in this business. [=there is no chance that you will succeed in this business]
3 the future grammar : FUTURE TENSE
4 futures [plural] finance : goods or shares that are bought at prices which are agreed to now but that are delivered at a later time ▪ He made a fortune trading in oil futures.
mortgage the/your future see [2]MORTGAGE

[2]future adj, always used before a noun
1 : coming after the present time : existing in the future ▪ We cannot predict future events. ▪ Future generations will benefit from this research. ▪ You should keep these instructions for future reference. [=so that you can refer to them when you need to in the future]
2 — used to say what someone or something will be ▪ He met his future wife [=the woman who would become his wife] at college. ▪ the country's future king future perfect noun [noncount] grammar : a verb tense that is used to refer to an action that will be completed by a specified time in the future ▪ The future perfect in English is formed with "will have" and "shall have," as in "They will have left by the time we arrive."

future tense noun, pl ~ tenses [count] grammar : a verb tense that is used to refer to the future ▪ The future tense in English is formed with "will" or "shall." ▪ a verb in the future tense

fu•tur•ist /ˈfjuːʧərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who tries to tell what the future will be like

fu•tur•is•tic /ˌfjuːʧəˈrɪstɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very modern ▪ futuristic furniture/designs ▪ The new offices are very futuristic.
2 a : relating to or telling about events in the future ▪ a futuristic novel/story b : existing in the future ▪ The film depicts a futuristic society.

fu•tu•ri•ty /fjuˈtʊrəti, Brit fjuˈtjʊərəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being or happening in the future ▪ In English we can express futurity with "will" and "shall."

fu•tur•olo•gy /ˌfjuːʧəˈrɑːləʤi/ noun [noncount] : the study of what might happen in the future
– fu•tur•olo•gist /ˌfjuːʧəˈrɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

fuze US variant spelling of [2]FUSE 2

fuzz /ˈfʌz/ noun
1 [noncount] : short, soft hairs ▪ The baby's head is covered with/in fuzz. ▪ the fuzz on a peach
2 [noncount] : small, light pieces of cloth or other soft material ▪ The blanket is covered with fuzz.
3 the fuzz old-fashioned slang : the police ▪ He was arrested by the fuzz.

fuzzy /ˈfʌzi/ adj fuzz•i•er; -est
1 : covered with short, soft hairs, fur, etc. : covered with fuzz ▪ a fuzzy sweater/blanket ▪ The plant has fuzzy leaves. ▪ a fuzzy stuffed toy
2 a : not clear : not sharp or distinct ▪ The picture in the newspaper is fuzzy. [=blurred, blurry] ▪ Without my glasses everything looks fuzzy. ▪ The line between our areas of responsibility is fuzzy. b : not clear in thought ▪ I think his reasoning is a little fuzzy.
3 US, informal : pleasant or comforting — usually used with warm ▪ Seeing her again after all these years gave me a warm, fuzzy feeling. ▪ His personality is not exactly warm and fuzzy.
— see also WARM FUZZIES
– fuzz•i•ly /ˈfʌzəli/ adv – fuzz•i•ness noun [noncount]

fuzzy logic noun [noncount] technical : a system of logic in which statements do not have to be entirely true or false

fwd. abbr forward

f–word /ˈɛfˌwəd/ noun
the f-word or the F-word — used as a way to refer to the offensive word "fuck" without saying it or writing it ▪ He got in trouble for using the f-word on television.

-fy /faɪ/ verb suffix : cause to become ▪ beauti*fy* ▪ puri*fy*

FYI abbr for your information — used when you are providing someone with interesting or useful information in a note, an e-mail message, etc. ▪ FYI, the meeting has been postponed to next week.

G

g or G /ˈʤiː/ noun, pl g's or gs or G's or Gs
1 : the seventh letter of the English alphabet [count] There are two g's in "bigger." [noncount] words that end in g
2 : a musical note or key referred to by the letter G : the fifth tone of a C-major scale [count] play/sing a G [noncount] The song is in the key of G.
3 [count] : the force of gravity at the Earth's surface ▪ An astronaut can experience three g's [=an amount of force equal to three times the normal force of gravity] during liftoff.
4 [count] slang : one thousand dollars : GRAND ▪ a couple of g's

g abbr gram

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

G — used as a special mark to indicate that people of all ages may see a particular movie in a movie theater ▪ The movie is rated G. — compare NC-17, PG, PG-13, R, X; see also G-RATED

GA abbr Georgia

[1]gab /ˈgæb/ verb gabs; gabbed; gab•bing [no obj] informal : to talk a lot in an informal way usually about things that are not important or serious ▪ They stayed up late gabbing (away) on the phone. ▪ gabbing about the weather
– gab•ber noun, pl -bers [count] ▪ talk radio gabbers

[2]gab noun [noncount] informal : informal talk ▪ a steady stream of gab ✧ A person with (US) the gift of gab or Brit the gift of the gab is someone who talks a lot or who is good at talking to people. ▪ a salesman with the gift of gab

gab•ar•dine /ˈgæbəˌdi:n/ noun [noncount] : a smooth, stiff type of cloth that is often used for suits ▪ a jacket made of gabardine — often used before another noun ▪ a gabardine suit/coat

gab•ble /ˈgæbəl/ verb gab•bles; gab•bled; gab•bling /ˈgæblɪŋ/ [no obj] chiefly Brit : to talk quickly and in a way that is difficult to understand ▪ I could hear my aunts gabbling [=babbling] in the kitchen.
– gabble noun [noncount] I could hear the gabble of my aunts in the kitchen. [singular] a gabble of voices

gab•by /ˈgæbi/ adj gab•bi•er; -est informal : talking a lot : very talkative ▪ a gabby talk show host gab•fest /ˈgæbˌfɛst/ noun, pl -fests [count] US, informal

1 : a long conversation ▪ a gabfest between friends
2 : a gathering for people to talk ▪ the group's annual gabfest

ga•ble /ˈgeɪbəl/ noun, pl ga•bles [count] : a section of a building's outside wall that is shaped like a triangle and that is formed by two sections of the roof sloping down — see picture at HOUSE
– ga•bled /ˈgeɪbəld/ adj ▪ gabled houses [=houses that have gables] ▪ a gabled roof [=a roof that forms a gable or gables]

gad /ˈgæd/ verb gads; gad•ded; gad•ding
gad about/around [phrasal verb] gad about/around or gad about/around (somewhere) : to move or travel without a plan or purpose ▪ He spent several months gadding about Europe after college.

gad•a•bout /ˈgædəˌbaʊt/ noun, pl -bouts [count] sometimes disapproving : a person who goes to many places and social events for pleasure ▪ a wealthy young gadabout

gad• y /ˈgædˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies [count] : someone who annoys people by being very critical ▪ a political gadfly [=a person who criticizes politicians, political decisions, etc.]

gad•get /ˈgæʤət/ noun, pl -gets [count] : a small, useful device ▪ a clever gadget ▪ The kitchen is equipped with all the latest gadgets. ▪ cell phones, pagers, and other gadgets

gad•get•ry /ˈgæʤətri/ noun [noncount] : small, useful devices ▪ The kitchen is equipped with the latest gadgetry. [=gadgets] ▪ electronic gadgetry ▪ (disapproving) newfangled gadgetry [=new gadgets that are difficult to use, understand, etc.]

Gael•ic /ˈgeɪlɪk, ˈgælɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to the Celtic people of Scotland and Ireland ▪ Gaelic politicians/folklore
2 : of or relating to the Celtic language of Scotland and Ireland ▪ Gaelic idioms – Gaelic noun [noncount] ▪ The poems are written in Gaelic.

gaff /ˈgæf/ noun, pl gaffs [count]
1 : a spear or hook used for lifting heavy fish
2 : a pole that supports the top of a sail on some sailboats
3 Brit slang : someone's home ▪ Why not come round to my gaff for a few drinks?
blow the gaff Brit slang : to reveal a secret especially in a public way — usually + on ▪ The report blows the gaff on a series of illegal actions by the government.

gaffe /ˈgæf/ noun, pl gaffes [count] : a mistake made in a social situation ▪ He realized that he had committed/made an awful/embarrassing gaffe when he mispronounced her name. ▪ a verbal/diplomatic gaffe

gaf•fer /ˈgæfə/ noun, pl -fers [count] : a person who is in charge of the lights that are used when making a movie, television show, etc.

[1]gag /ˈgæg/ verb gags; gagged; gag•ging
1 [+ obj] : to put something (such as a piece of cloth) into or over a person's mouth in order to prevent that person from speaking, calling for help, etc. ▪ The hostages were bound and gagged. [=their hands and feet were tied and their mouths were gagged]
2 [+ obj] : to prevent (someone) from speaking freely or expressing opinions ▪ The government is trying to gag the press.
3 [no obj] a : to vomit or feel as if you are about to vomit : to feel as if what is in your stomach is going to come up into your mouth ▪ The smell (almost) made me gag. — often + on ▪ She was gagging on the fumes. [=the fumes were causing her to gag] b : to be unable to breathe because something is stuck in your throat : CHOKE — often + on ▪ He gagged on a hot dog.

[2]gag noun, pl gags [count]
1 a : something said or done to make people laugh : JOKE ▪ The movie relies on simpleminded gags for laughs. ▪ a typical sitcom gag ▪ (chiefly Brit) The comedian told a few gags. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ a gag line ✧ A running gag is a joke that is repeated many times in slightly different ways. ▪ Her fake news reports were a running gag on the show. ✧ A sight gag is a joke that does not involve speaking. ▪ The movie is full of outrageous sight gags. b chiefly US : something done as a playful trick : PRANK ▪ They hid his clothes as a gag.
2 : something (such as a piece of cloth) that is put into or over someone's mouth in order to prevent speech ▪ They tied up the hostages and put gags in their mouths.
3 : something done to prevent people from speaking freely or expressing opinions ▪ The government is trying to put a gag on the press. — see also GAG ORDER, GAG RULE

ga•ga /ˈgɑ:ˌgɑ:/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal
1 : extremely enthusiastic about or interested in something or someone ▪ I can't understand how anyone could be so gaga over/about golf. ▪ She's gaga over her boss's nephew. [=she's very attracted to her boss's nephew] — often used after go ▪ She's gone gaga over her boss's nephew. ▪ Critics have gone gaga over the movie.
2 : crazy or foolish ▪ He thinks that most artists are at least a little bit gaga.

gage variant spelling of GAUGE gag•gle /ˈgægəl/ noun, pl gag•gles [count]

1 : a group of geese : a flock of geese
2 : a group of people ▪ a noisy gaggle of photographers/reporters/tourists

gag order noun, pl ~ -ders [count] chiefly US, law : an order by a judge or court saying that the people involved in a legal case cannot talk about the case or anything related to it in public ▪ The judge has issued a gag order. — called also (Brit) gagging order gag rule noun, pl ~ rules [count] US : a rule saying that people are not allowed to speak freely or express their opinions about a particular subject ▪ The law prohibits insurance companies from imposing gag rules that limit communication between doctors and their patients.

gai•ety /ˈgejəti/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : a happy and lively quality ▪ The party had none of the gaiety we've seen in past years. ▪ the gaiety of the carnival

gai•ly /ˈgeɪli/ adv [more ~; most ~] old-fashioned
1 : in a happy and lively way ▪ chatting/playing/laughing gaily
2 : in a bright and colorful way ▪ gaily dressed crowds ▪ a gaily painted vase ▪ a gaily colored poster

[1]gain /ˈgeɪn/ verb gains; gained; gain•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to get (something wanted or valued) ▪ They stand to gain an advantage over their competitors by getting an early start. ▪ What do you hope to gain from/by this? ▪ gain control of/over the territory ▪ Investigators are trying to gain access to the group's financial records. ▪ We were unable to gain admission/entrance/entry to the club. ▪ We need to gain a better understanding of the problem. ▪ They had nothing to lose and everything to gain. ▪ He first gained attention/recognition/fame as a young writer. ▪ Her theories are slowly gaining acceptance. ▪ She's gaining confidence in herself. [=she is becoming more confident] ▪ I took the job to gain experience. b : to win (something) in a competition, battle, etc. ▪ He is still hoping to gain the party's nomination. ▪ gain a victory c : to gradually get (something) or more of (something) as time passes ▪ He gained 40 pounds over five years, and then lost it all in two. ▪ gain weight ▪ The baby is quickly gaining strength in her legs.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to have (something) ▪ His recent behavior has gained [=earned] him a reputation for stubbornness. ▪ Her hard work gained her their respect. [=she has gained their respect through hard work; they respect her now because of her hard work]
3 a : to increase in (something) [+ obj] This event gains pop-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

ularity [=becomes more popular] each year. ▪ The plane was gaining altitude. ▪ Some of the stocks are gaining value, while others are losing value. [no obj] Some of the stocks are gaining, while others are losing. — usually + in ▪ This event gains in popularity each year ▪ The stocks are gaining in value. b [+ obj] : to increase in value by (a specified amount) ▪ The stocks gained three percent last month. c [no obj] : to increase in value when compared to something else ▪ The dollar gained against the pound last month.

4 [no obj] : to get an advantage ▪ The company hopes to gain [=profit] from the new regulations.

5 [+ obj] American football : to move the ball (a specified distance) down the field ▪ They gained five yards on the last play.

6 of a clock or watch : to show a time that is later than the correct time : to run fast [no obj] The clock gains by less than a second a year. [+ obj] The clock gains less than a second a year.

7 [+ obj] formal : to arrive at (a place) especially after much effort ▪ The tired swimmer gained the shore at last.

gain a/the jump on see ²JUMP

gain ground see ¹GROUND

gain on [phrasal verb] gain on (someone or something) : to come nearer to (someone or something that is ahead of you in a race or competition) ▪ She was still leading at the halfway point, but the other runners were gaining on her.

gain time : to cause something to be delayed so that more time is available to do what is needed ▪ His lawyers are delaying the trial to gain time to prepare their defense.

– gain•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a stock that was one of the year's biggest gainers [=one of the stocks that increased the most in value]

²gain noun, pl gains

1 [count] : something wanted or valued that is gotten : something that is gained ▪ ill-gotten gains [=money and other valuable things gotten through dishonest methods]; especially : money gotten through some activity or process : PROFIT ▪ financial/stock-market gains ▪ economic gains — see also CAPITAL GAIN

2 [noncount] : something that is helpful : advantage or benefit ▪ He acted only for his own personal/political gain. [=he acted only to benefit himself]

3 : an increase in amount, size, or number [count] a gain in weight ▪ impressive gains [=improvements] in performance ▪ They hope to make big gains in Congress in the coming election. [=they hope that many more members of their party will be elected to Congress] [noncount] The medication can cause nausea and weight gain.

4 [count] American football : the distance the ball is moved down the field during a play ▪ They picked up a five-yard gain on first down.

no pain, no gain also no gain without pain informal — used to say that it is necessary to suffer or work hard in order to succeed or make progress gain•ful /ˈgeɪnfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : paying money ▪ people seeking gainful [=paid] employment ▪ a gainful occupation ▪ gainful activity

– gain•ful•ly adv ▪ gainfully employed gain•say /ˌgeɪnˈseɪ/ verb gain•says /ˌgeɪnˈseɪz, ˌgeɪnˈseɪz/; gain•said /ˌgeɪnˈseɪd, ˌgeɪnˈsɛd/; gain•say•ing [+ obj] formal : to deny or disagree with (something) : to show or say that (something) is not true — used in negative statements ▪ There is no gainsaying such evidence. [=the truth of such evidence cannot be denied]

gait /ˈgeɪt/ noun, pl gaits [count] : a particular way of walking ▪ He has an awkward gait. ▪ an easy/unsteady gait

gai•ter /ˈgeɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a cloth or leather covering worn over the lower part of the leg especially to keep the legs and ankles dry when hiking — usually plural ▪ a pair of gaiters gal /ˈgæl/ noun, pl gals [count] chiefly US, informal : a girl or woman ▪ She's a fun gal. ▪ I want to see all you guys and gals out on the dance floor! ▪ I've grown rather fond of the old gal.

gal. abbr gallon

ga•la /ˈgeɪlə, Brit ˈgɑːlə/ noun, pl -las [count] : a public party or celebration ▪ a grand gala celebrating the town's centennial — often used before another noun ▪ a gala event/affair/celebration

gal•axy /ˈgæləksi/ noun, pl -ax•ies

1 astronomy a [count] : any one of the very large groups of stars that make up the universe ▪ the formation of galaxies ▪ a giant/spiral galaxy b *the Galaxy : the galaxy in which we live : MILKY WAY

2 [count] : a large group of important or well-known people or things ▪ The event was attended by a galaxy of artists.

– ga•lac•tic /gəˈlæktɪk/ adj, astronomy ▪ galactic objects

gale /ˈgeɪl/ noun, pl gales [count]

1 : a very strong wind ▪ The boat was damaged in a strong gale. ▪ The winds approached gale force. ▪ gale-force winds

2 : a sudden occurrence of laughter, tears, etc. ▪ The audience erupted in gales of laughter. ▪ a gale of laughter/tears

¹gall /ˈgɑːl/ noun [noncount] : extreme confidence expressed in a way that is impolite : NERVE ▪ I can't believe she just said that to me. What gall! — often used in the phrase have the gall ▪ He had the gall to think that he could replace her. ▪ I can't believe she had the (unmitigated) gall to ask for another day off.

²gall verb galls; galled; gall•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) feel annoyed or angry ▪ It galls me that such a small group of people can have so much power. — see also GALLING gal•lant adj [more ~; most ~]

1 /ˈgælənt/ : showing courage : very brave ▪ The defenders of the fort made a gallant stand. ▪ a gallant knight ▪ They failed to reach the summit, but they made a gallant attempt.

2 /ˈgælənt/ : large and impressive ▪ a gallant ship

3 /gəˈlænt, gəˈlɑːnt/ : having or showing politeness and respect for women ▪ He greeted her with a gallant bow. ▪ He offered her his seat in a gallant gesture.

– gal•lant•ly adv ▪ The troops marched gallantly into battle. ▪ He gallantly offered her his seat.

gal•lant•ry /ˈgælənˌtri/ noun [noncount]

1 : very brave behavior : COURAGE ▪ He was awarded several medals for gallantry [=heroism, valor] in battle. ▪ I so admire the gallantry [=spirit, courage] with which she fought the disease.

2 : polite attention shown by a man to a woman ▪ Many women were charmed by his old-fashioned gallantry.

gall•blad•der /ˈgɑːlˌblædə/ noun, pl -ders [count] medical : the organ in the body in which bile from the liver is stored — see picture at HUMAN gal•le•on /ˈgælijən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a large sailing ship used especially by the Spanish in the 1500s and 1600s gal•lery /ˈgæləri/ noun, pl -ler•ies [count]

1 a : a room or building in which people look at paintings, sculptures, etc. ▪ an art gallery ▪ the National Gallery b : a business that sells paintings, sculptures, etc. ▪ She owns a gallery downtown.

2 : a group or collection of people or things ▪ The movie features a gallery of weird characters. — see also ROGUES' GALLERY

3 a : the highest section of seats in a theater b : the people sitting in the gallery c : the people who are watching a tennis or golf match play to the gallery : to do things that you think will be popular among many people instead of doing what you think is right ▪ a governor who refuses to play to the gallery

– see also SHOOTING GALLERY

gal•ley /ˈgæli/ noun, pl -leys [count]

1 : the kitchen of a ship or airplane

2 : a long, low ship that was moved by oars and sails and that was used in ancient times by the Egyptians, Greeks, and others ▪ a slave galley [=a galley rowed by slaves]

Gal•lic /ˈgælɪk/ adj : of or relating to France or French people ▪ a Gallic [=French] pop star; especially : typical of French people ▪ our host's Gallic charm gall•ing /ˈgɑːlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing someone to feel angry or annoyed ▪ Their refusal to meet with me was extremely galling. [=annoying] ▪ This is a galling defeat.

gal•li•vant /ˈgæləˌvænt/ verb -vants; -vant•ed; -vant•ing [no obj] somewhat informal + often disapproving : to go or travel to many different places for pleasure ▪ They've been gallivanting all over town. ▪ He's been gallivanting around the country when he ought to be looking for a job.

gal•lon /ˈgælən/ noun, pl -lons [count]

1 US : a unit of liquid measurement equal to four U.S. quarts or 3.785 liters

2 Brit : a unit of liquid measurement equal to four British quarts or 4.546 liters

¹gal•lop /ˈgæləp/ noun, pl -lops

1 : the way a horse or similar animal moves when it is running fast and all four of its feet leave the ground at the same time — often used after at [noncount] The horse was at full gallop. [singular] He mounted his horse and took off at a

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

gallop. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The course covers early American history at a gallop. [=very quickly; in a short amount of time]

2 [count] : a ride or run at a gallop ▪ We went for a gallop through the countryside. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The course begins with a quick gallop through early American history. — compare [1]CANTER, [2]TROT

[2]gallop verb -lops; -loped; -lop·ing

1 a [no obj] of a horse or similar animal : to run very fast : to run at a gallop ▪ The horse galloped toward us. b [no obj] : to ride on a galloping horse ▪ He mounted his horse and galloped off to sound the alarm. c [+ obj] : to make (a horse) gallop ▪ She galloped her horse toward us.

2 [no obj] : to run or move quickly ▪ I grabbed my books and galloped out the door. ▪ The program gallops through early American history.

gal·lop·ing /ˈgæləpɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : quickly developing or increasing ▪ galloping inflation gal·lows /ˈgæloʊz/ noun, pl -lows [count] : a structure on which a criminal who has been sentenced to death is killed by being hanged ▪ He was sentenced to death on the gallows. ▪ She was sent to the gallows. [=she was sentenced to death]

gallows humor noun [noncount] : humor that relates to very serious or frightening things (such as death and illness)

gall·stone /ˈgɑːlˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] medical : a hard object like a small stone that sometimes forms in the gallbladder and that can cause great pain

ga·loot /gəˈluːt/ noun, pl -loots [count] US slang : a man or boy; especially : one who is foolish or awkward ▪ You big galoot! ▪ a clumsy galoot ga·lore /gəˈloə/ adj, always used after a noun, informal : in large numbers or amounts ▪ The store promises bargains galore [=promises that there will be many bargains] during its weekend sale.

ga·losh·es /gəˈlɑːʃəz/ noun [plural]

1 old-fashioned : tall rubber shoes that are worn over other shoes in wet weather to keep your feet dry — compare RUBBERS

2 : rubber boots worn in wet weather to keep the feet dry ga·lumph /gəˈlʌmf/ verb -lumphs; -lumphed; -lumph·ing [no obj] informal : to move in a loud and clumsy way ▪ I could hear him galumphing around in the attic.

gal·van·ic /gælˈvænɪk/ adj

1 technical : relating to or producing a direct current of electricity ▪ a galvanic cell ▪ galvanic corrosion

2 [more ~; most ~] : causing people to feel or react strongly ▪ a galvanic performance/performer ▪ Her performance had a galvanic effect on the audience.

gal·va·nize also Brit gal·va·nise /ˈgælvəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz·es; -nized; -niz·ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cause (people) to become so excited or concerned about an issue, idea, etc., that they want to do something about it ▪ an issue that galvanized the public (to take action) b : to cause (a force that is capable of causing change) to become active ▪ The group is hoping to galvanize public opinion against the proposed law. ▪ The Web site has galvanized support for the project.

2 technical : to cover (steel or iron) with a layer of zinc to prevent it from rusting ▪ a factory where steel is galvanized

– galvanized adj ▪ galvanized nails ▪ galvanized steel

gam·bit /ˈgæmbət/ noun, pl -bits [count]

1 : a planned series of moves at the beginning of a game of chess ✧ A gambit usually involves losing a piece, such as a pawn, in order to gain an advantage later in the game.

2 : something done or said in order to gain an advantage or to produce a desired result ▪ a conversational gambit ▪ Their opening gambit [=their first move] in the negotiations was to demand a wage hike.

[1]gam·ble /ˈgæmbəl/ verb gam·bles; gam·bled; gam·bling

1 [no obj] : to play a game in which you can win or lose money or possessions : to bet money or other valuable things ▪ I like to gamble. ▪ He's been drinking and gambling heavily. ▪ gambling at cards — often + on ▪ She likes to gamble on football games.

2 [+ obj] a : to risk losing (an amount of money) in a game or bet ▪ He would often gamble hundreds of dollars on a hand of poker. b : to risk losing (something valuable or important) in order to do or achieve something ▪ She gambled [=risked] everything she owned to start the business. — often + on ▪ The company is gambling [=betting, risking] everything on this strategy.

3 : to do something that could have the good result that you want or a bad result that you cannot control [no obj] The mayor is gambling with the city's future. ▪ people who lost money gambling in the stock market — often + on ▪ Many people are willing to gamble on the new treatment. [=are willing to try the new treatment because they hope it will help them] [+ obj] The mayor is gambling that the new policies will help rather than hurt the city.

gamble away [phrasal verb] gamble away (something) or gamble (something) away : to lose (something, such as money) by gambling ▪ She gambled away her inheritance. ▪ gambling away the city's future

– gam·bler /ˈgæmblə/ noun, pl -blers [count] ▪ The casino attracts many wealthy gamblers. ▪ a compulsive gambler

[2]gamble noun, pl gambles [count] : something that could produce a desired result or a bad or unpleasant result : RISK ▪ Starting her own business was a gamble, but it paid off. ▪ She thought about starting her own business, but she decided it was too much of a gamble. ▪ He was taking a (big) gamble. [=doing something that could produce a (very) bad or unpleasant result] ▪ Many people are willing to take a gamble on the new treatment. [=to try the new treatment]

gambling noun [noncount] : the practice or activity of betting money : the practice of risking money in a game or bet ▪ He was arrested for illegal gambling. ▪ legalized gambling ▪ compulsive gambling — often used before another noun ▪ a gambling casino ▪ a gambling resort ▪ She has a gambling problem. ▪ a gambling game

gam·bol /ˈgæmbəl/ verb -bols; US -boled or Brit -bolled; US -bol·ing or Brit -bol·ling [no obj] : to run or jump in a lively way ▪ lambs gamboling in the meadow

– gambol noun, pl -bols [count] ▪ a playful gambol

[1]game /ˈgeɪm/ noun, pl games

1 [count] a : a physical or mental activity or contest that has rules and that people do for pleasure ▪ a card game ▪ party games [=activities people do at parties for pleasure] ▪ word games [=games or puzzles that involve words] ▪ computer games ▪ poker and other gambling games ▪ Baseball is my favorite game. [=sport] b : a particular occurrence of a game ▪ Do you want to play a game (of tennis/cards)? ▪ She scored a goal to tie the game. ▪ They won/lost the game. ▪ We played a few games of chess. ▪ That was a good game! c : one of the games that are part of a larger contest (such as a tennis match) ▪ She won the first two games, but lost the set and the match. — see also BALL GAME, BOARD GAME, FUN AND GAMES, GUESSING GAME, PARLOR GAME, PERFECT GAME, RETURN GAME, SHELL GAME, VIDEO GAME, game of chance at [1]CHANCE, game of skill at SKILL

2 games [plural] a : playful activities ▪ children playing at their games b or Games : an organized series of athletic contests; specifically : the Olympics ▪ Let the Games begin.

3 a [singular] : the way someone plays in a sport ▪ They are known to play a very rough game. ▪ She has a strong all-around game. ▪ She needs to improve her game if she wants to win the championship. ▪ Champions can raise/lift their game [=can play better] when they're in danger of losing. b [count] : a skill that is used in playing a particular game or sport ▪ a football team with a strong running/passing game

4 [count] a : an activity that is being compared to a game or contest ▪ He's a loser in the game of love. [=he is not successful in romantic relationships] ▪ the game of life ▪ They're playing a dangerous game by refusing to negotiate. ▪ He's trying to beat them at their own game. [=he's trying to gain an advantage over them by using the same methods that they use] ▪ the mating game [=the effort to find a sexual partner] — see also WAITING GAME, WAR GAME, the name of the game at [1]NAME b : a type of work : a business or profession ▪ She's spent the last 30 years in the newspaper game. ▪ the money game ▪ the fight game [=professional boxing] — see also WAR GAME

5 [count] : something that is not meant to be taken seriously ▪ Politics for her is just a game. ▪ Was our entire relationship just a game to you?

6 [count] : a usually dishonest or unfair plan for doing something ▪ I've seen through your little game and I know what you're really after! ▪ What's his game? [=what is his real reason for doing the things he is doing?] ✧ To give the game away is to make a secret plan or activity known. ▪ We can't let him know anything about it. He's too likely to give the game away. ✧ If the game is up, a dishonest plan or activity has been discovered and will no longer be allowed to continue. ▪ Okay, the game is up. [=the jig is up] We know you forged the letters.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

7 [noncount] : animals that are hunted ▪ wild game ▪ small game — often used before another noun ▪ a game bird/fish [=a bird or fish that may be legally hunted or caught] ▪ a game preserve [=an area of land in which hunting and fishing are carefully controlled] ▪ a game warden [=a person who makes sure that hunting and fishing laws are obeyed] — often used figuratively ▪ The police aren't interested in these small-time drug dealers; they're after much bigger game. — see also BIG GAME ahead of the game : in a position or situation in which you are likely to succeed, win, etc. ▪ The company has stayed ahead of the game by meeting new government standards before they go into effect.

early/late in the game : at an early/late time in a game or sport ▪ She scored a goal early in the game. [=near the beginning of the game] — often used figuratively ▪ It's too late in the game to change the date of the meeting. [=it's no longer reasonable to change the date; the meeting is too soon for the date to be changed] ▪ She got into the computer industry early in the game. [=when the industry was new] got game ✧ In informal U.S. English, someone who has got game is very good at playing a particular game or sport, such as basketball.

head/mind games : actions that are meant to confuse or upset someone in order to get an advantage ▪ I couldn't handle the head games that came with the job anymore. ▪ She's known for playing mind games with her opponents.

on the game Brit, informal : working as a prostitute ▪ I didn't know she was on the game.

on/off your game ✧ If you are on your game, you are playing a sport or game well; if you are off your game, you are playing poorly. ▪ She's really on her game tonight. [=she's playing very well] ▪ Sorry I missed that shot. I'm off my game today. [=I'm not playing as well as I usually do] These phrases are also used figuratively. ▪ He seemed a little off his game during the sales presentation this morning.

play games 1 : to treat someone in a dishonest or unfair way in order to get an advantage ▪ Stop playing games (with me) and tell me what really happened! ▪ I'm trying to be honest with you. I'm not interested in playing games. 2 : to behave in a way that is not serious ▪ Let's stop playing games and get down to business.

the only game in town : the only available, desirable, or valuable thing ▪ For serious home cooks, this stove is the only game in town. [=it is the only stove that serious home cooks should want to have] ▪ Our company is no longer the only game in town. [=we now have competition; another company/business is doing what we do]

²game adj gam•er; -est
1 : willing or ready to do something ▪ "Do you feel like going to the movies tonight?" "Sure, I'm game." ▪ They were game for anything. = They were game to try anything.
2 : showing a willingness to work hard, keep trying, etc. : showing determination ▪ They remained game [=determined] to the end. ▪ She lost despite a game effort.
– game•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She smiled gamely for the camera.

game ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] US : a ball that is given to a player or coach who did something impressive to help win a game in American football, basketball, etc.

game hen noun, pl ~ hens [count] : a young, small hen used especially for roasting game•keep•er /'geɪmˌki:pə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is in charge of the breeding and protection of animals that are hunted on private land game plan noun, pl ~ plans [count]

1 : a plan for playing a game (such as American football or soccer)
2 : a plan for doing or achieving something ▪ The governor is developing a game plan to lure businesses to the region.

game point noun, pl ~ points [count] sports : a situation in tennis or another game in which the player who wins the next point will win the game; also : the point itself — compare MATCH POINT

gam•er /'geɪmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US
1 : a person who plays games and especially video or computer games ▪ video gamers
2 informal : a person who is game; especially : an athlete who tries very hard to win games, competitions, etc. ▪ He's a real gamer.

game show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a television program in which people try to win prizes in a game ▪ He was a contestant on a game show. = He was a game-show contestant.

games•man•ship /'geɪmzmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving
1 : the practice of winning a game or contest by doing things that seem unfair but that are not actually against the rules ▪ They blur the line between gamesmanship and cheating.
2 : the clever use of skills or tricks to succeed or do something ▪ corporate/political gamesmanship

gam•ete /'gæˌmi:t/ noun, pl -etes [count] technical : one of the cells that join together to begin making a person or other creature

gamey variant spelling of GAMY

ga•mine /gæ'mi:n/ noun, pl -mines [count] : an attractive and usually thin and small woman or girl who often shows a playful desire to cause trouble ▪ a movie about a French gamine
– gamine adj ▪ She was girlish and gamine.

gam•ing /'geɪmɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the activity of playing computer games ▪ He does a lot of gaming online.
2 : the act or activity of gambling ▪ casino gaming

gam•ma /'gæmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : the third letter of the Greek alphabet — Γ or γ

gamma rays noun [plural] : powerful invisible rays that are sent out from some radioactive substances — called also gamma radiation

gam•mon /'gæmən/ noun [noncount] Brit : smoked or salted meat from the side or leg of a pig ▪ a gammon steak

gam•ut /'gæmət/ noun [singular] : a range or series of related things ▪ She experienced the full gamut of human emotions. ▪ Her emotions ran the gamut from joy to despair. [=she felt emotions ranging from joy to despair]

gamy or gam•ey /'geɪmi/ adj gam•i•er; -est : having the flavor of meat from wild animals especially when it is slightly spoiled ▪ gamy meat ▪ The deer tasted gamy.
– gam•i•ness /'geɪminəs/ noun [noncount]

¹gan•der /'gændə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a male goose what's good for the goose is good for the gander see ¹GOOSE
– compare ²GANDER

²gander noun [singular] informal : a look at something ▪ I'd like to stop by and take/have a gander at your new car. — compare ¹GANDER

¹gang /'gæŋ/ noun, pl gangs [count]
1 : a group of criminals ▪ a gang of drug dealers ▪ a gang of thieves — see also CHAIN GANG
2 : a group of young people who do illegal things together and who often fight against other gangs ▪ street gangs ▪ He is in a gang. ▪ He was shot by a member of a rival gang. ▪ gang violence
3 informal : a group of people who are friends and who do things together ▪ The gang's all here. ▪ the gang at the office

²gang verb gangs; ganged; gang•ing
gang up [phrasal verb] informal : to form a group to attack, oppose, or criticize someone — usually + on ▪ His classmates ganged up on him and beat him up pretty badly. — sometimes + against ▪ Everyone ganged up against her.

gang bang noun, pl ~ bangs [count] informal + impolite : an occurrence in which several men have sex with the same woman one after another gang•bust•ers /'gæŋˌbʌstəz/ noun

like gangbusters US, informal 1 : very well or successfully ▪ The team got off to a slow start, but recently they have been coming on like gangbusters. [=they have been doing very well] 2 : very quickly ▪ The company has been growing like gangbusters.

gang•land /'gæŋˌlænd/ noun [singular] : the violent world of organized crime — usually used before another noun ▪ a gangland shooting

gan•gling /'gæŋglɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : GANGLY ▪ a gangling teenager

gan•gli•on /'gæŋglijən/ noun, pl -glia /-glijə/ also -gli•ons [count] medical : a mass of nerve cells

gan•gly /'gæŋgli/ adj gan•gli•er; -est
1 : tall, thin, and awkward ▪ a gangly teenager
2 : long and thin ▪ gangly legs

gang•plank /'gæŋˌplæŋk/ noun, pl -planks [count] : a board or other structure that people walk on to get on or off a ship gang rape noun, pl ~ rapes [count] : a crime in which one woman is raped by several men one after another

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

– gang–rape verb -rape; -raped; -raping [+ obj]

gan•grene /ˈgæŋˌgri:n/ noun [noncount] medical : the decay of flesh that occurs in a part of the body that no longer has blood flowing to it ▪ When gangrene set in, the soldier's leg had to be amputated.

– gan•gre•nous /ˈgæŋgrənəs/ adj ▪ a gangrenous foot gang•sta /ˈgæŋstə/ noun, pl -stas [count] US, informal

1 : a member of a street gang
2 : a person who performs gangsta rap music

gangsta rap noun [noncount] : a type of rap music with lyrics about the violence and drug use of street gangs

– gangsta rapper noun, pl ~ -pers [count]

gang•ster /ˈgæŋstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a member of a group of violent criminals gang•way /ˈgæŋˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways

1 [count] : GANGPLANK
2 [count] Brit : a passage between sections of seats in a theater, airplane, etc. : AISLE
3 — used to tell people in a crowd to move aside so that someone can pass through ▪ "Gangway!" the man shouted as he pushed his way through the crowd.

gan•ja /ˈgɑ:ndʒə/ noun [noncount] slang : MARIJUANA

gan•net /ˈgænət/ noun, pl gan•nets also gannet [count] : a large ocean bird that eats fish

gantlet variant spelling of ¹GAUNTLET

gaol, gaol•bird, gaol•break, gaol•er Brit spellings of JAIL, JAILBIRD, JAILBREAK, JAILER gap /ˈgæp/ noun, pl gaps [count]

1 a : a space between two people or things ▪ The child had a gap between her two front teeth. ▪ The gap between the lead runner and the rest of the field continued to widen. b : a hole or space where something is missing ▪ The sheep got through a gap in the fence.
2 : a missing part ▪ There are unexplained gaps in his story. ▪ The class filled in the gaps in my knowledge of biology.
3 : a part or period in which nothing happens ▪ She had taken several years off to raise a family, so there was a large gap in her work history.
4 : a difference between two people, groups, or things — often + between ▪ There is a widening gap between the rich and the poor. ▪ We hope to close the gap between well-funded suburban schools and the struggling schools in poorer communities. ▪ His work bridges the gap between popular fiction and serious literature. [=his work has qualities of both popular fiction and serious literature] — see also CREDIBILITY GAP, GENERATION GAP

gape /ˈgeɪp/ verb gapes; gaped; gap•ing [no obj]
1 : to open widely ▪ Her mouth gaped open.
2 : to look at someone or something with your mouth open in surprise or wonder — often + at ▪ The crowd gaped at the princess as she passed by. ▪ What are you gaping at?
synonyms see ¹GAZE

gap•ing /ˈgeɪpɪŋ/ adj : wide open : very large ▪ a gaping wound ▪ a gaping hole

gap–toothed /ˈgæpˌtu:θt/ adj : having a large space between two teeth ▪ a gap-toothed child/smile/grin gap year noun, pl ~ years [count] : a year that you spend traveling, working, etc., before continuing your studies ▪ She decided to take a gap year between high school and college.

¹ga•rage /gəˈrɑ:ʒ, Brit ˈgærɪdʒ/ noun, pl -rag•es [count]
1 : a building or part of a building in which a car, truck, etc., is kept ▪ a house with a two-car garage — see picture at HOUSE; see also PARKING GARAGE
2 : a shop where vehicles are repaired ▪ My car was making a strange noise, so I brought it to the garage.

²garage verb -rages; -raged; -rag•ing [+ obj] : to put or keep (a car, truck, etc.) in a garage ▪ He garaged the car for the winter.

garage band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a group of people who play rock music together and typically practice in a garage

garage sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] chiefly US : a sale of used furniture, clothing, etc., held at the seller's home — called also (US) tag sale, (US) yard sale

¹garb /ˈgɑəb/ noun [noncount] : a particular style or type of clothing ▪ traditional academic garb ▪ dressed in ceremonial garb ▪ prison garb

²garb verb garbs; garbed; garb•ing [+ obj] : to dress (someone) in a particular type of clothing — usually used as (be) garbed ▪ He was garbed in a black robe. [=he was wearing a black robe]

gar•bage /ˈgɑəbɪdʒ/ noun [noncount]
1 chiefly US a : things that are no longer useful or wanted and that have been thrown out : TRASH ▪ The park was littered with garbage. ▪ Please take out the garbage. ▪ Raccoons were going through the garbage. — often used to refer specifically to food waste that is being thrown out ▪ the smell of rotting garbage b : a container where people put things that are being thrown out ▪ Throw the can in the garbage.
2 informal : something that is worthless, unimportant, or of poor quality ▪ Maybe you should read a book instead of watching that garbage [=rubbish] on TV.
3 informal : foolish or untrue words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ If you ask me, what he said is a bunch/load of garbage.

garbage can noun, pl ~ cans [count] US : a container for garbage — called also (US) garbage pail, (Brit) waste bin garbage disposal noun, pl ~ -als [count] US : a device in a kitchen sink that grinds up food waste so it can be washed down the drain — called also (Brit) waste disposal unit

gar•bage•man /ˈgɑəbɪdʒˌmæn/ noun, pl -men [count] US : a person who collects and removes garbage — called also (US) garbage collector, (Brit) binman, (Brit) dustman garbage truck noun, pl ~ trucks [count] US : a truck used to take away garbage that people put outside their houses, buildings, etc., in bags or cans — called also (Brit) dustcart; see picture at TRUCK gar•ban•zo /gɑəˈbɑ:nˌzoʊ, Brit gɑˈbænˌzəʊ/ noun, pl -zos [count] US : CHICKPEA

garbanzo bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] US : CHICKPEA

gar•ble /ˈgɑəbəl/ verb gar•bles; gar•bled; gar•bling [+ obj] : to cause (a word, name, message, etc.) to be unclear or confusing ▪ He was so nervous he garbled her name [=he said her name incorrectly] when he introduced her.

– garbled adj ▪ We could not understand him because of his garbled speech. ▪ a garbled phone message

¹gar•den /ˈgɑəd n/ noun, pl -dens
1 [count] US : an area of ground where plants (such as flowers or vegetables) are grown ▪ We planted a small garden in our backyard. ▪ a vegetable/rose garden ▪ a garden hose/cart/rake/path ▪ a garden party [=a party that takes place in a garden or in a large yard with gardens] — see color picture on page C6
2 [count] Brit : ¹YARD 1 ▪ They were sitting out in the back garden.
3 [count] : a public area with many plants and trees ▪ a botanical/public garden — often plural ▪ Kew Gardens
4 [count] US : a large stadium or building for sports or entertainment — used in names ▪ They went to the hockey game at Madison Square Garden.
5 Gardens [plural] chiefly Brit — used in street names ▪ Belsize Gardens

common-or-garden see ¹COMMON

lead someone down/up the garden path see ¹LEAD

²garden verb -dens; -dened; -den•ing [no obj] : to work in a garden : to take care of the plants in a garden ▪ He likes to garden.

– gar•den•er /ˈgɑədənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's a talented gardener. ▪ He hired a gardener to take care of his estate. – gardening noun [noncount] ▪ Her hobbies include bicycling and gardening.

garden chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] Brit : LAWN CHAIR

gar•de•nia /gɑəˈdi:njə/ noun, pl -nias [count] : a large white or yellowish flower that has a pleasant smell garden–variety adj, always used before a noun, US : not unusual : ordinary or common ▪ He doesn't have the flu—just a garden-variety cold. ▪ The movie is a garden-variety thriller.

Garden of Eden noun [singular] : EDEN 1

gar•gan•tuan /gɑəˈgæntʃəwən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large in size or amount : GIGANTIC ▪ a creature of gargantuan proportions ▪ a gargantuan appetite

¹gar•gle /ˈgɑəgəl/ verb gar•gles; gar•gled; gar•gling : to clean your throat and mouth with a liquid that you move around in your throat and then spit out [no obj] He gargled with salt water. ▪ She gargles every morning. [+ obj] He gargled the salt water, then spit it out.

²gargle noun, pl gargles : a liquid used for gargling [count] a medicinal gargle used for sore throats [noncount] (Brit) treating a sore throat with gargle gar•goyle /ˈgɑəˌgoɪəl/ noun, pl -goyles [count] : a strange or ugly human or animal figure that sticks out from the roof of a building (such as a church) ✧ Gargoyles are stone sculptures that are used to cause rainwater to flow away from the sides of a building.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

gar•ish /ˈgerɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : too bright or colorful ▪ a garish [=gaudy] dress covered with sequins ▪ garish neon signs – gar•ish•ly adv ▪ a garishly decorated room ▪ garishly dressed – gar•ish•ness noun [noncount]

[1]gar•land /ˈgaɚlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : a ring or rope that is made of leaves, flowers, or some other material and that is used as a decoration ▪ They placed a garland of flowers around her neck.

[2]garland verb -lands; -land•ed; -land•ing [+ obj] : to put a garland on (someone or something) — usually used as (be) garlanded ▪ The winner was garlanded with flowers. — often used figuratively ▪ The book has been garlanded with praise. [=has received a lot of praise]

gar•lic /ˈgaɚlɪk/ noun [noncount] : a plant that is related to the onion and that has small sections (called cloves) which have a strong taste and smell and are used for flavoring foods ▪ The recipe calls for two cloves of garlic, minced. ▪ a pasta dish flavored with basil and garlic ▪ garlic bread [=bread toasted and flavored with butter and garlic] ▪ a garlic press [=a tool used to crush garlic] — see color picture on page C4
– gar•licky /ˈgaɚlɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a strong, garlicky dish ▪ garlicky breath gar•ment /ˈgaɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] somewhat formal : a piece of clothing ▪ expensive silk garments

garment bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a bag that folds in half and is used to carry suits and dresses when you are traveling gar•ner /ˈgaɚnɚ/ verb -ners; -nered; -ner•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to collect or gather (something) ▪ She garnered more evidence to support her theory. ▪ The senator has spent much time garnering financial support for his upcoming campaign.
2 : to get or receive (something wanted or valued) ▪ The novel has garnered much praise and several awards. ▪ The band has garnered [=gained] a large following.

gar•net /ˈgaɚnət/ noun, pl -nets
1 [count] : a dark red stone that is used in jewelry — see color picture on page C11
2 [noncount] : a dark red color

garni see BOUQUET GARNI

[1]gar•nish /ˈgaɚnɪʃ/ verb -nish•es; -nished; -nish•ing [+ obj] : to put something on (food) as a decoration — usually + with ▪ Garnish the cake with chocolate curls. ▪ The fish was garnished with parsley leaves.; also : to be added as a decoration to (food) ▪ Chocolate curls garnished the cake.

[2]garnish noun, pl -nishes [count, noncount] : something (such as small pieces of fruit, chopped herbs, etc.) that is put on food as a decoration

garotte variant spelling of GARROTTE gar•ret /ˈgerət/ noun, pl -rets [count] : a usually small and unpleasant room or space area just below the roof of a building ▪ an artist's garret [=a garret where a struggling artist lives in poverty]

[1]gar•ri•son /ˈgerəsən/ noun, pl -sons [count]
1 : a military camp, fort, or base ▪ troops defending the garrison ▪ a garrison town
2 : a group of soldiers who are living at a garrison ▪ a garrison of 5,000 men

[2]garrison verb -sons; -soned; -son•ing [+ obj]
1 : to send soldiers to (a place) in order to defend it ▪ garrison a town
2 : to send (soldiers) to live in and defend a place — often used as (be) garrisoned ▪ The men were garrisoned in town.

[1]gar•rote or ga•rotte /gəˈrɑːt/ noun, pl -rotes or -rottes [count] : a device (such as a piece of wire with a handle at each end) that is used to strangle someone gar•ru•lous /ˈgerələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to talk a lot : very talkative ▪ He became more garrulous after drinking a couple of beers.

[2]garrote or garotte verb -rotes or -rottes; -rot•ed or -rott•ed; -rot•ing or -rott•ing [+ obj] : to strangle (someone) with a garrote ▪ The victim was garroted.

gar•ter /ˈgaɚtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

1 : an elastic band of material that is worn around the leg to hold up a stocking or sock
2 US : a piece of material that hangs down from a woman's underwear and that is used to hold up a stocking — called also (Brit) suspender garter belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] US : a piece of underwear that is worn around a woman's waist and hips and that has garters (sense 2) attached to it — called also (Brit) suspender belt garter snake noun, pl ~ snakes [count] : a harmless American snake that has stripes along its back

[1]gas /ˈgæs/ noun, pl gas•es also gas•ses
1 a : a substance (such as oxygen or hydrogen) that is like air and has no fixed shape [count] Carbon monoxide is a poisonous gas. ▪ a mixture of gases [noncount] clouds of gas — see also LAUGHING GAS, MUSTARD GAS, NATURAL GAS, NERVE GAS, TEAR GAS b [noncount] : a gas or mixture of gases that is burned as a fuel ▪ We heat our house with gas. ▪ Turn up the gas. ▪ Do you have a gas stove or an electric one?
2 [noncount] US : gas in your stomach and intestines that causes pain or discomfort ▪ Certain foods give me gas. [=(Brit) wind] ▪ stomach gas ▪ intestinal gas ✧ To pass gas is to release intestinal gas from your anus. ▪ I accidentally passed gas [=(less politely) farted] during the meeting. It was so embarrassing!
3 US a [noncount] : GASOLINE ▪ We need to stop for gas. [=(Brit) petrol] ▪ high gas prices ▪ The car gets good gas mileage. ▪ The car almost ran out of gas. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The pitcher ran out of gas [=became tired] in the seventh inning. b *the gas informal : the accelerator pedal of a vehicle ▪ He was driving with one foot on the gas and one foot on the brake. ✧ If you step on the gas or hit the gas, you suddenly press down on the accelerator to drive at a higher speed.
4 [singular] US, old-fashioned slang : a very enjoyable or funny person, event, etc. ▪ The party was a gas. ▪ Your uncle cracks me up. What a gas!

[2]gas verb gasses; gassed; gas•sing
1 [+ obj] : to poison or kill (someone) with gas ▪ soldiers gassed on the battlefield
2 US : to put gasoline in (a car, truck, etc.) [+ obj] We stopped to gas the car. — usually + up ▪ The car is all gassed up. [no obj] — + up ▪ We gassed up before getting on the highway.

gas•bag /ˈgæsˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] US, informal : a person who talks too much : WINDBAG gas chamber noun, pl ~ -bers [count] : a room in which prisoners are killed by poisonous gas gas•eous /ˈgæʃəs/ adj : having the form of gas ▪ gaseous fuels ▪ an odorless, gaseous element ▪ a substance changing from a liquid to a gaseous state gas–guz•zler /ˈgæsˈgʌzlə/ noun, pl -zlers [count] US, informal : a usually large vehicle that uses a lot of gasoline – gas–guz•zling /ˈgæsˈgʌzlɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ gas-guzzling SUVs

[1]gash /ˈgæʃ/ noun, pl gash•es [count] : a long, deep cut ▪ The dog had a bad gash in his leg. ▪ The iceberg made a gash in the hull of the ship.

[2]gash verb gashes; gashed; gash•ing [+ obj] : to make a long, deep cut in (something) ▪ The knife slipped and gashed his finger.

gas•ket /ˈgæskət/ noun, pl -kets [count] : a piece of rubber or some other material that is used to make a tight seal between two parts that are joined together blow a gasket 1 of a car, engine, etc. : to develop a very bad leak in a gasket 2 informal, of a person : to become very angry ▪ When the boss found out that the shipment was late, he blew a gasket.

gas•light /ˈgæsˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights
1 [noncount] : light made by burning gas (sense 1b) ▪ streets illuminated by gaslight
2 [count] : a lamp that uses gas as fuel — called also gas lamp
– gas•lit /ˈgæsˌlɪt/ adj ▪ a gaslit street gas mask noun, pl ~ masks [count] : a mask used to protect the face and lungs against poisonous gases gas•o•hol /ˈgæsəˌhɑːl/ noun [noncount] technical : a mixture of gasoline and ethanol that is used as a fuel for engines gas•o•line /ˈgæsəˌliːn/ noun [noncount] US : a liquid made from petroleum and used especially as a fuel for engines — called also (US) gas, (Brit) petrol

gasp /ˈgæsp, Brit ˈgɑːsp/ verb gasps; gasped; gasp•ing
1 [no obj] a : to breathe in suddenly and loudly with your mouth open because of surprise, shock, or pain ▪ Mom gasped in/with surprise at the sight of my sister's new haircut. ▪ He gasped as he stepped into the icy water.
2 [no obj] : to breathe with difficulty : PANT ▪ a dying man gasping for breath ▪ She was gasping for air.
3 [+ obj] : to say (something) with quick, difficult breaths ▪ He gasped (out) a plea for mercy. ▪ "Have mercy!" he gasped.
– gasp noun, pl gasps [count] ▪ My sister let out a gasp when I told her the happy news. — see also LAST-GASP

gas pedal noun, pl ~ -als [count] US : ACCELERATOR 1

gas station noun, pl ~ -tions [count] US : a place where gasoline for vehicles is sold — called also filling station, service station, (Brit) petrol station

gas•sy /ˈgæsi/ adj gas•si•er; -est
1 : of or containing gas ▪ a gassy odor ▪ a gassy liquid [=a liquid that has many bubbles]
2 US : having gas in your stomach ▪ He felt bloated and gassy.
3 informal : having or using many words but not saying things that are very important or interesting : LONG-WINDED ▪ gassy prose gas•tric /ˈgæstrɪk/ adj, medical : of, relating to, or located near the stomach ▪ gastric ulcers ▪ gastric problems caused by stress gas•tri•tis /gæˈstraɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a painful condition in which the inside surface of the stomach becomes inflamed gas•tro•in•tes•ti•nal /ˌgæstrowɪnˈtɛstənl/ adj, medical : of or relating to both the stomach and the intestines ▪ gastrointestinal disorders ▪ the gastrointestinal tract [=the part of the digestive system that consists of the stomach and intestines]

gas•tron•o•my /gæˈstrɑːnəmi/ noun [noncount] formal : the art or activity of cooking and eating fine food ▪ books about wine tasting and gastronomy
– gas•tro•nom•ic /ˌgæstrəˈnɑːmɪk/ also gas•tro•nom•i•cal /ˌgæstrəˈnɑːmɪkəl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a rare fish that's considered a gastronomic delicacy gas•works /ˈgæsˌwəks/ noun, pl gasworks [count] chiefly Brit : a factory for making gas from coal gate /ˈgeɪt/ noun, pl gates [count]

1 : a place in a wall or a fence that has a movable part which can be opened or closed like a door ▪ The car drove through the gate and up the long driveway. ▪ The prison gates are always guarded.; also : the movable part itself ▪ He pushed the gate open. — see also PEARLY GATES, STARTING GATE
2 : a device that can be opened and closed to control the flow of water or other liquids ▪ the canal gates
3 : an area at an airport where passengers arrive and leave ▪ When she got off the plane, her mother was waiting for her at the gate. ▪ Flight 213 is now boarding at Gate 6.
4 a : the number of people who buy tickets for a sports event ▪ The game drew/attracted a large gate. b : the amount of money received from selling tickets to a sports event ▪ A portion of the gate for today's game will be donated to charity.

gat•ed /ˈgeɪtəd/ adj
1 : having a gate ▪ a gated entrance
2 : having guarded or locked gates so that only some people are allowed to enter ▪ They live in a gated community. [=a group of expensive homes that are surrounded by a gated wall or fence] gate•house /ˈgeɪtˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a small building near a gate at the entrance of a park, large house, etc.

gate•keep•er /ˈgeɪtˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who guards a gate ▪ the palace gatekeeper — sometimes used figuratively ▪ teachers who consider themselves the gatekeepers of knowledge gate•way /ˈgeɪtˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : an opening in a wall or fence that can be closed by a gate ▪ Mourners slowly passed though the gateway of the cemetery. — often used figuratively ▪ Studying is the gateway to success. ▪ Make London your gateway to Europe!

gateway drug noun, pl ~ drugs [count] : a drug (such as alcohol or marijuana) that is thought to lead to the use of more dangerous drugs (such as cocaine or heroin)

[1]gath•er /ˈgæðə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to bring (things or people) together into a group ▪ The children gathered their toys (together) and put them away. ▪ Give me just a minute to gather my things and then we can leave. ▪ The coach gathered her players together. ▪ She gathered her hair into a ponytail. b : to choose and collect (things) ▪ We gathered (up) wood for the fire. ▪ The child was gathering flowers to give to his mother. ▪ She has been gathering poems (together) for/into a collection. c : to get or take (things) from different people or places and bring them together ▪ The police are continuing to gather evidence relating to the crime. ▪ Volunteers have been gathering contributions for the new library.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

2 [no obj] : to come together to form a group ▪ A crowd began to gather on the sidewalk. ▪ The players gathered together to hear the coach's game plan. — often + around or round ▪ Everyone gathered around him as he began to speak. ▪ He asked us to gather round.

3 [+ obj] : to get more of (something, such as speed) gradually ▪ The bicyclists gathered speed as they went downhill. ▪ The campaign has begun to gather momentum/strength. [=has begun to be more popular and effective] — see also gathering dust at [1]DUST

4 [no obj] : to increase in amount or strength ▪ Clouds had begun to gather overhead. ▪ We hurried home in the gathering darkness. ▪ the gathering storm ▪ the gathering [=worsening] crisis

5 [+ obj] a : to prepare yourself to use (your courage, strength, etc.) in order to do something difficult ▪ He gathered his courage and finally spoke up. ▪ Despite her injury, she gathered her strength and was able to finish the race. b : to prepare (yourself, your thoughts, etc.) before doing something difficult ▪ He paused to gather himself before stepping out onto the stage. ▪ I barely had time to gather my thoughts/wits before replying.

6 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to believe that something is probably true because of what you have heard or learned ▪ I gather (from her comments) that she's read a great deal about this topic. = From what I (can) gather, she's read a great deal about this topic. ▪ "She's read a great deal about this topic." "So I gather!"

7 [+ obj] : to pull (someone or something) close to your body ▪ He gathered the child (up) in his arms. ▪ She gathered her cloak around her before stepping outside.

8 [+ obj] sewing : to pull (cloth) along a line of stitches to form folds ▪ I gathered the fabric to make small pleats.

– gath•er•er /ˈgæðərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a gatherer of data/information ▪ hunters and gatherers [=people who gather food]

[2]gather noun, pl -ers [count] : a fold formed when cloth is pulled together — usually plural ▪ a shirt with gathers at the shoulders

gath•er•ing /ˈgæðərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : an occasion when people come together as a group ▪ I see my cousins only at occasional family gatherings. ▪ dinner parties and other social gatherings ▪ a gathering of political leaders

2 [noncount] : the act or process of gathering something ▪ hunting and food gathering ▪ the gathering of data

ga•tor /ˈgeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] US, informal : ALLIGATOR

GATT abbr General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade

gauche /ˈgoʊʃ/ adj gauch•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having or showing a lack of awareness about the proper way to behave : socially awkward ▪ a gauche young man ▪ He has gauche manners. ▪ Would it be gauche of me to ask her how old she is?

– gauche•ness noun [noncount] chiefly Brit ▪ the gaucheness of his manner

gau•cho /ˈgaʊˌʧoʊ/ noun, pl -chos [count] : a cowboy in South America

gaudy /ˈgɑːdi/ adj gaud•i•er; -est

1 : too bright and heavily decorated ▪ gaudy jewelry/colors ▪ The showgirls wore gaudy costumes.

2 informal : very large or impressive ▪ They bought the house for a gaudy sum. ▪ (disapproving) He collected fancy cars and other gaudy symbols of wealth. ▪ The team had a gaudy [=dazzling] 10–0 record at the start of the season.

– gaud•i•ly /ˈgɑːdəli/ adv ▪ gaudily dressed clowns ▪ gaudily painted statues – gaud•i•ness /ˈgɑːdinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the gaudiness of the mansion

[1]gauge also US gage /ˈgeɪʤ/ noun, pl gaug•es also gag•es

1 [count] : an instrument that is used for measuring something ▪ a temperature/rain gauge ▪ the fuel/gas gauge

2 [count] : something that can be used to measure or judge something else — usually singular; often + of ▪ He does not believe that these tests are an accurate gauge of intelligence. ▪ Home sales provide a gauge of the state of the economy.

3 [noncount] : the distance between the rails of a railroad ▪ a standard/broad/narrow gauge railroad

4 [noncount] : the thickness of something (such as a sheet of metal) or the diameter of wire or a screw ▪ 20-gauge wire ▪ heavy gauge aluminum

5 [noncount] : the size of a shotgun based on how big the inside of the barrel is ▪ a 12-gauge shotgun

[2]gauge also US gage verb gauges also gages; gauged also gaged; gaug•ing also gag•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make a judgment about (something) ▪ Home sales provide a useful way of gauging the overall state of the economy. ▪ He accurately gauged the mood of the voters. ▪ I was gauging her reaction to the news.

2 : to measure (something) exactly ▪ instruments for gauging temperature and humidity

gaunt /ˈgɑːnt/ adj gaunt•er; -est

1 : very thin usually because of illness or suffering ▪ a small gaunt man ▪ He left the hospital looking tired and gaunt.

2 literary : plain and unpleasant in appearance : desolate and gloomy ▪ gaunt leafless trees ▪ a gaunt factory on the edge of town

– gaunt•ness noun [noncount]

[1]gaunt•let also US gant•let /ˈgɑːntlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a situation in which someone is attacked, criticized, questioned, etc., by many people — usually used in the phrase run the gauntlet ▪ Soldiers in the past were sometimes punished by being forced to run the gauntlet. [=to run between two rows of men who would hit them with clubs] ▪ He had to run the gauntlet of reporters waiting outside the court. — compare [2]GAUNTLET

[2]gauntlet noun, pl -lets [count]

1 : a metal glove worn with a suit of armor by soldiers in the Middle Ages

2 : a long, heavy glove worn to protect the hand

pick/take up the gauntlet : to show that you are willing and ready to fight, argue, or compete with someone or to do something that is difficult but necessary : to accept or respond to a challenge ▪ The time has come for Congress to pick up the gauntlet and do something about this problem.

throw down the gauntlet : to say or show that you are ready to fight, argue, or compete with someone : to challenge someone ▪ The company threw down the gauntlet and told the union that this offer for a contract was final.

– compare [1]GAUNTLET

– gaunt•let•ed /ˈgɑːntlətəd/ adj ▪ a gauntleted hand

gauze /ˈgɑːz/ noun [noncount]

1 : a very thin cloth : cloth so thin that you can see through it ▪ red gauze curtains

2 : loosely woven cotton that is used as a bandage ▪ He wrapped the wound in gauze. ▪ a gauze pad [=a small square of folded gauze]

gauzy /ˈgɑːzi/ adj gauz•i•er; -est

1 : light and thin : made of or resembling gauze ▪ gauzy curtains/dresses

2 US : not clear : HAZY ▪ gauzy images ▪ gauzy memories gave past tense of [1]GIVE

gav•el /ˈgævəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a small hammer that someone (such as a judge) bangs on a table to get people's attention in a meeting or in a court of law gawk /ˈgɑːk/ verb gawks; gawked; gawk•ing [no obj] informal : to stare at someone or something in a rude or stupid way ▪ a crowd of gawking tourists — often + at ▪ She just stood there gawking at the celebrities as they arrived for the ceremony. ▪ Celebrities are used to being gawked at.

– gawk•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a crowd of gawkers

gawky /ˈgɑːki/ adj gawk•i•er; -est informal : awkward and clumsy ▪ a tall, gawky teenager

– gawk•i•ly /ˈgɑːkəli/ adv ▪ He moves gawkily. – gawk•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ his teenage gawkiness

gawp /ˈgɑːp/ verb gawps; gawped; gawp•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to stare at someone or something in a rude or stupid way : GAWK

– gawp•er /ˈgɑːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]gay /ˈgeɪ/ adj gay•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 a : sexually attracted to someone who is the same sex : HOMOSEXUAL ▪ My uncle is gay. b always used before a noun : of, relating to, or used by homosexuals ▪ the gay rights movement ▪ The march celebrates gay pride. [=pride in being gay] ▪ a gay bar

2 old-fashioned : happy and excited ▪ gay and carefree chil-

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

dren : cheerful and lively ▪ The band was playing a gay tune. ▪ a gay festival/reception

3 old-fashioned : very bright in color : COLORFUL ▪ the gayest of the spring flowers — see also GAILY

– gay•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He is no longer trying to hide his gayness. [=homosexuality] ▪ the gayness [=(more commonly) gaiety] of the colors

[2]gay noun, pl gays [count] : a person and especially a man who is homosexual ▪ a bar that is frequented by gays ▪ gays and lesbians

[1]gaze /ˈgeɪz/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition gaz•es; gazed; gaz•ing [no obj] : to look at someone or something in a steady way and usually for a long time ▪ He gazed out the window at the snow. ▪ She gazed intently/longingly into his eyes.

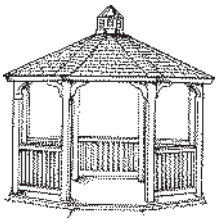
> synonyms GAZE, GAPE, STARE, and GLARE mean to look at something or someone for a long time. GAZE suggests looking steadily at something with feelings of interest, wonder, or admiration. ▪ She was gazing at the moon. GAPE suggests looking in wonder or surprise with your mouth open. ▪ tourists gaping at celebrities STARE suggests looking with your eyes open wide, often in a rude way. ▪ Don't stare at him, it's not polite. GLARE suggests looking in an angry way. ▪ The speaker glared at the people in the audience who were talking.

[2]gaze noun, pl gazes [count] : a long and steady look ▪ He fixed his gaze out the window. [=he gazed out the window] ▪ She looked at him with a calm, steady gaze. ▪ He dropped/lifted his gaze. [=he looked down/up] ▪ She calmly met his gaze. [=looked back at him while he looked at her] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has his gaze firmly fixed on the future. [=he is thinking about the future]

ga•ze•bo /gəˈziːˌboʊ/ noun, pl -bos [count] : a small building in a garden or park that is open on all sides



gazebo

ga•zelle /gəˈzɛl/ noun, pl ga•zelles also ga•zelle [count] : a small animal that is a kind of antelope and that is very graceful and fast

ga•zette /gəˈzɛt/ noun, pl -zettes [count] : NEWSPAPER — usually used in the names of newspapers ▪ The Daily Gazette

gaz•et•teer /ˌgæzəˈtiə/ noun, pl -teers [count] : a book or list that is arranged in alphabetical order and gives information about places ga•zil•lion /gəˈzɪljən/ noun, pl -lions [count] US, informal : a very large number ▪ He made gazillions (of dollars) in real estate.

– gazillion adj ▪ a gazillion years ▪ He made a gazillion dollars in real estate.

gaz•pa•cho /gəˈspɑːˌʧoʊ/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a spicy cold soup that is made with chopped vegetables (such as tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, and onions)

GB abbr 1 gigabyte 2 Great Britain

GDP abbr gross domestic product

[1]gear /ˈgiə/ noun, pl gears

1 [noncount] a : supplies, tools, or clothes needed for a special purpose ▪ fishing gear ▪ I somehow managed to pack all my gear into one suitcase. ▪ soldiers in full combat gear ▪ wearing protective gear ▪ rain gear [=waterproof clothes worn in the rain] — see also FOOTGEAR, HEADGEAR, LANDING GEAR b informal : CLOTHES ▪ She wears trendy gear.

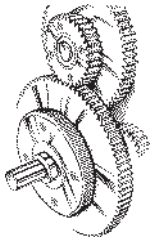
2 a [count] : a toothed wheel in a machine ▪ a complicated arrangement of gears and shafts b : a part that connects the engine of a vehicle or the pedals of a bicycle to the wheels and controls the speed at which the wheels turn [count] a car with four forward gears [noncount] Halfway up the hill, my bike slipped out of gear. ▪ He put the car in/into gear [=he moved the lever that controls the car's gears into the position that allows the car to begin moving] and drove away. ▪ (US) She shifted into low/high gear. = (Brit) She changed into bottom/top gear. [=she changed to a gear that allows for a slower/faster rate of speed] — see also REVERSE GEAR



gears

change/shift/switch gears (US) or Brit change gear : to move from one level or area of activity to another ▪ He once again changed gears in his career. ▪ She's decided to shift gears, quit her job, and go back to school.

get in gear or get (something) in gear informal : to start working or doing something in a more energetic and effective way ▪ We need to get in gear [=get going] if we want to finish this project on time. ▪ She finally got her career in gear. [=finally started to be successful in her career] ▪ (US, informal + impolite) He angrily told him to get his ass in gear. [=to get going, to start moving or doing something much more quickly]

in/into high gear see HIGH GEAR

[2]gear verb gears; geared; gear•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) suitable for a particular use or type of person — usually used as (be) geared ▪ The book is geared toward children. [=the book is intended to be used by children] ▪ software geared to the needs of the first-time user ▪ The program is geared for/to/toward a young audience. ▪ The system is geared [=designed] to handle several tasks at once.

gear up [phrasal verb] gear up or gear (someone) up or gear up (someone) : to get ready or to cause (someone) to get ready for something or to do something ▪ The team is gearing up for a comeback. ▪ Manufacturers are gearing up to produce more merchandise. ▪ The coach is gearing up the team for a comeback. ▪ The team is geared up for a win.

gear•box /ˈgiəˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a box in a car, truck, etc., that contains the gears ▪ a five-speed gearbox [=(more commonly) transmission]

gear•head /ˈgiəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] US, informal : a person who is very interested in mechanical or technical things (such as cars or computers) ▪ gearheads discussing hardware upgrades gear•ing /ˈgirɪŋ/ noun [noncount] technical : the parts that transfer motion from one part of a machine to another ▪ a gearing mechanism gear•shift /ˈgiəˌʃɪft/ noun, pl -shifts [count] US : a lever or other device that is moved to change gears in a car, on a bicycle, etc. — called also (Brit) gear lever, (Brit) gearstick, (US) shifter; see pictures at BICYCLE, CAR; compare STICK SHIFT gear•stick /ˈgiəˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count] Brit : GEARSHIFT

gecko /ˈgɛkoʊ/ noun, pl geck•os also geck•oes [count] : a small tropical lizard

gecko

GED /ˌʤiːˌiːˈdiː/ noun, pl GEDs [count] US

1 : a test that is taken by an adult who did not finish high school to show that the person being tested has as much knowledge of basic math, science, English, etc., as a high school graduate ▪ I had to take the GED yesterday. ▪ a GED test ✧ GED in this sense is an abbreviation of "General Educational Development."

2 : an official document that is given to a person who has taken and passed the GED ▪ The job requires a high school diploma or GED. ✧ GED in this sense is an abbreviation of "general equivalency diploma."

gee /ʤiː/ interj, chiefly US — used especially to show surprise, enthusiasm, or disappointment ▪ Gee, that sounds like fun. ▪ Gee, that's too bad.

gee–gee /ˈʤiːˌʤiː/ noun, pl -gees [count] Brit, informal : HORSE — used especially by children or when referring informally to horse racing ▪ have a bet on the gee-gees

geek /ˈgiːk/ noun, pl geeks [count] chiefly US, informal

1 : a person who is socially awkward and unpopular : a usually intelligent person who does not fit in with other people ▪ He was a real geek in high school.

2 : a person who is very interested in and knows a lot about a particular field or activity ▪ She's a computer geek.

– geeky /ˈgiːki/ adj geek•i•er; -est ▪ I was a geeky kid. – geek•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I liked her in spite of her geekiness.

geese plural of [1]GOOSE

gee whiz /ˌʤiːˈwɪz/ interj, US, old-fashioned — used especially to show surprise or enthusiasm ▪ Gee whiz, I didn't expect to see you here!

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

gee–whiz /ˈʤiːˌwɪz/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US
1 : very impressive or amazing ▪ gee-whiz gadgets/technology
2 : showing or feeling excitement and wonder ▪ gee-whiz enthusiasm

geez or jeez /ˈʤiːz/ interj, informal — used to express surprise, anger, or annoyance ▪ Geez, it's cold out here. ▪ Geez, I didn't think the food would be this bad.

gee•zer /ˈgiːzə/ noun, pl -zers [count] informal
1 US : an old man ▪ a group of old geezers playing cards
2 Brit : GUY, BLOKE ▪ Some geezer asked me for a light.

Gei•ger counter /ˈgaɪgə-/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : an instrument used for finding and measuring radioactivity

gei•sha /ˈgeɪʃə/ noun, pl gei•shas also geisha [count] : a Japanese girl who is trained to entertain men with singing, conversation, etc. — called also geisha girl

[1]gel /ˈʤɛl/ noun, pl gels [count, noncount] : a thick substance that is like jelly and that is used in various products ▪ hair gels [=gels used for styling hair] ▪ shower gel [=soap that is in a gel form]

[2]gel verb gels; gelled; gel•ling
1 [no obj] : to change into a gel : to change into a thick substance that is like jelly ▪ The mixture will gel as it cools.
2 [no obj] : to become clear and definite : JELL ▪ Our plans are finally starting to gel.
3 [+ obj] : to style (hair) with gel ▪ She gelled her hair.

gel•a•tin (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit gel•a•tine /ˈʤɛlətən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a clear substance that is made by boiling animal bones or tissues and that is used in making jelly
2 : a food made with gelatin ▪ a fruity gelatin dessert
– ge•lat•i•nous /ʤəˈlætənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a gelatinous mass ▪ a gelatinous texture

geld /ˈgɛld/ verb gelds; geld•ed; geld•ing [+ obj] : to remove the testicles of (a male animal and especially a horse or bull) ▪ a gelded horse

geld•ing /ˈgɛldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a male horse that has had its testicles removed ▪ a six-year-old gelding — compare STALLION

gem /ˈʤɛm/ noun, pl gems [count]
1 : a valuable stone that has been cut and polished for use in jewelry — see color picture on page C11
2 : something that is admired for its beauty or excellence ▪ The house is a gem of colonial architecture. ▪ He pitched a gem of a game. ▪ Her most recent novel is a real gem.

Gem•i•ni /ˈʤɛməˌnaɪ, ˈʤɛməˌniː/ noun, pl -nis
1 [noncount] : the third sign of the zodiac that comes between Taurus and Cancer and has a pair of twins as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC
2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Gemini : a person born between May 21st and June 21st ▪ His girlfriend is a Gemini.

gem•stone /ˈʤɛmˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a stone that can be used in jewelry when it is cut and polished

Gen. abbr General ▪ Gen. Smith

gen•darme /ˈʒɑːnˌdɑəm/ noun, pl -darmes [count] : a police officer; especially : a police officer in a country where French is spoken

gen•der /ˈʤɛndə/ noun, pl -ders
1 [count] : the state of being male or female : SEX ▪ Please state your name, birth date, and gender. ▪ gender differences ▪ gender-specific language [=words that refer only to men or only to women] ▪ gender-neutral language [=words that do not refer to either sex but only to people in general]
2 grammar : one of the categories (masculine, feminine, and neuter) into which words (such as nouns, adjectives, and pronouns) are divided in many languages [noncount] The adjective and noun must agree in number and gender. [count] Some languages do not use genders.

gender–bending noun [noncount] : the act of dressing and behaving like a member of the opposite sex ▪ a pop star famous for his gender-bending
– gender bender noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ He's known as a gender bender. – gender–bending adj ▪ a gender-bending comedy ▪ a gender-bending pop star gene /ˈʤiːn/ noun, pl genes [count] biology : a part of a cell that controls or influences the appearance, growth, etc., of a living thing ▪ She inherited a good set of genes from her parents. ▪ dominant/recessive genes

ge•ne•al•o•gy /ˌʤiːniˈɑːləʤi, ˌʤiːniˈælәʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 [noncount] : the study of family history ▪ an expert in genealogy
2 [count] : the history of a particular family showing how the different members of the family are related to each other ▪ They've been researching their genealogies.
– ge•ne•a•log•i•cal /ˌʤiːnijəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ genealogical relationships/history ▪ a genealogical expert – ge•ne•al•o•gist /ˌʤiːniˈɑːləʤɪst, ˌʤiːniˈælәʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ She's an expert genealogist.

gene pool noun, pl ~ pools [count] biology : all of the genes in a particular group of people or animals ▪ the gene pool of a species

genera plural of GENUS

[1]gen•er•al /ˈʤɛnrəl/ adj
1 always used before a noun : of, relating to, or affecting all the people or things in a group ▪ They have issued a general warning/order. ▪ a general alarm : involving or including many or most people ▪ The general mood here is optimistic. [=most people here are optimistic] ▪ The general consensus is that we should go ahead. ▪ It's a story with general interest. = It's a general-interest story. [=it is a story that will interest many or most people]
2 a [more ~; most ~] : relating to the main or major parts of something rather than the details : not specific ▪ The witness was able to provide a very general description of the thief. ▪ She began her talk with some general observations about the state of the industry. ▪ The book provides a good general introduction to the subject. ▪ My concerns are all general—nothing specific. ▪ The details of the new plan are different, but it's based on the same general concept/idea. ▪ My general impression was that things were going well. b always used before a noun — used to indicate that a description relates to an entire person or thing rather than a particular part ▪ The building was in good general shape. ▪ Her general [=overall] health is good.
3 always used before a noun : not exact : APPROXIMATE ▪ They were found in the same general area. ▪ I'm going in the general direction of the store.
4 always used before a noun : ordinary, normal, or usual ▪ Their general practice in such cases is to offer a deal. = As a general rule, they offer a deal in such cases. [=they usually/generally offer a deal in such cases]
5 : of the basic or usual kind : not special or specialized ▪ a general hospital ▪ a science book for the general reader [=the reader who is not a scientist] ▪ a doctor practicing general medicine [=basic health care that is not specialized]
6 always used before a noun : of high rank : having wide authority or responsibility ▪ a general manager ▪ a general contractor [=a contractor who is in charge of a building project] — see also ATTORNEY GENERAL, INSPECTOR GENERAL

[2]general noun
in general 1 : in a general way — used to say that a statement describes your general feeling or opinion ▪ In general, I like the way things have gone. 2 : as a whole ▪ It had an impact not just on young people, but on people in general. [=on all or most people] 3 : in most cases : USUALLY ▪ In general [=generally], it takes about a month for the shipment to arrive.
– compare [3]GENERAL

[3]general noun, pl -als [count] : a military officer of very high rank — compare [2]GENERAL

general admission noun [noncount] : a situation in which a customer pays a fee to get into an event (such as a concert or baseball game) but is not assigned to a specific seat ▪ Reserved seating is $20; general admission is $10.

general delivery noun [noncount] US : a department in a post office that keeps a person's mail until that person comes to the post office to get it ▪ The letter is addressed to general delivery. — called also (Brit) poste restante

general election noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a regular election that involves voters and candidates throughout an entire country

gen•er•al•ist /ˈʤɛnrəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who knows something about a lot of subjects ▪ The staff includes both generalists and specialists.

gen•er•al•i•ty /ˌʤɛnəˈrælәti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [count] : a statement that is not specific or detailed ▪ He spoke in generalities as he discussed his plans for the future.
2 [noncount] : the quality or state of being general rather than specific or detailed ▪ I noticed the generality of the language he used in discussing his plans.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

3 [noncount] Brit : the biggest part of a group : MAJORITY ▪ The generality of the students [=most of the students] will go on to university.

gen•er•al•i•za•tion also Brit gen•er•al•i•sa•tion /ˌʤɛnrələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌʤɛnrəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions often disapproving
1 [count] : a general statement : a statement about a group of people or things that is based on only a few people or things in that group ▪ He made several sweeping/broad generalizations about women.
2 [noncount] : the act or process of forming opinions that are based on a small amount of information ▪ She was prone to generalization.

gen•er•al•ize also Brit gen•er•al•ise /ˈʤɛnrəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a general statement or form a general opinion; especially : to state an opinion about a larger group that is based on a smaller number of people or things within that group ▪ She tends to generalize. — often + about ▪ She is always generalizing about men.
2 [+ obj] formal : to apply (something specific, such as a theory or rule) to larger group — often used as (be) generalized ▪ The theory can be generalized to other branches of science as well.

generalized also Brit generalised adj [more ~; most ~] : not specific : not limited to a particular area, part, etc. ▪ The patient has been experiencing generalized pain. ▪ generalized anxiety

gen•er•al•ly /ˈʤɛnrəli/ adv
1 [more ~; most ~] : in a general way : in a way that is not detailed or specific ▪ He talked generally about his plans. ▪ I had a generally good day.
2 : in most cases : USUALLY ▪ Generally [=in general], his suggestions have been well-received. ▪ It generally takes about a month for the shipment to arrive. ▪ When stocks are up, bonds are generally down. ▪ Writers generally oppose censorship. = Generally (speaking), writers oppose censorship.
3 : by or to most people ▪ a generally used phrase ▪ This town is generally regarded as a good place to raise kids.

general practitioner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person (especially a doctor) whose work is not limited to a special area : a person who is not a specialist ▪ Our family doctor is a general practitioner. — abbr. G.P.

general public noun
the general public : all the people of an area, country, etc. ▪ The park is open to the general public.

general–purpose adj, always used before a noun : able to be used for many purposes : not limited to a single purpose ▪ a general-purpose vehicle ▪ general-purpose film — compare ALL-PURPOSE

general store noun, pl ~ stores [count] : a store usually in a small town that sells many different things including groceries

gen•er•ate /ˈʤɛnəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 : to produce (something) or cause (something) to be produced ▪ windmills used to generate electricity ▪ generate heat ▪ This business should generate a lot of revenue. ▪ We hope to generate some new ideas at the meeting. ▪ a computer-generated list [=a list that was made by a computer program]
2 : to be the cause of or reason for (something, such as interest or excitement) ▪ His theories have generated a great deal of interest among other scientists. ▪ Her comments have generated a good deal of excitement/controversy. ▪ They have been unable to generate much support for their proposals.
– gen•er•a•tive /ˈʤɛnrətɪv/ adj, technical ▪ generative power

gen•er•a•tion /ˌʤɛnəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : a group of people born and living during the same time ▪ She was worshipped by a generation of moviegoers. ▪ He was a hero to generations of students. ▪ We need to preserve these resources for future generations. ▪ His books are popular among members of the younger/older generation. ▪ (US) The current generation is changing the way things are done. = (Brit) The current generation are changing the way things are done. b : the people in a family born and living during the same time ▪ That family has lived in the same house for four generations. ▪ The house has been passed down in the family from generation to generation. ▪ first- and second-generation immigrants [=people who immigrated and their children]
2 [count] : the average length of time between the birth of parents and the birth of their children ▪ She's a generation [=around 20–30 years] older than most of her colleagues. ▪ He has held that position for a generation. ▪ No one dreamed that such things would be possible a generation ago.
3 [count] : a group of things that are developed from an earlier type ▪ The company claims to be developing the next generation of portable computers.
4 [noncount] : the act or process of making or producing something : the act or process of generating something ▪ the generation of heat ▪ the generation of new ideas gen•er•a•tion•al /ˌʤɛnəˈreɪʃənəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to different generations of people ▪ generational differences ▪ The family was divided along generational lines.

– gen•er•a•tion•al•ly adv ▪ culturally and generationally diverse generation gap noun [singular] : the differences in opinions, values, etc., between younger people and older people

Generation X noun [noncount] : the group of people in the U.S. who were born during the late 1960s and the 1970s – Generation Xer /-ɛksə/ noun, pl ~ Xers [count] ▪ a TV show that appeals to Generation Xers

gen•er•a•tor /ˈʤɛnəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : something that produces something ▪ This new product will be a major revenue generator.; especially : a machine that produces electricity ▪ a backup generator for the store

[1]ge•ner•ic /ʤəˈnerɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : of or relating to a whole group or class ▪ "Flu" is sometimes used as a generic term/name for any illness caused by a virus.
2 : not sold or made under a particular brand name ▪ generic drugs
3 biology : of or relating to a genus
– ge•ner•i•cal•ly /ʤəˈnerɪkli/ adv ▪ "Flu" is sometimes used generically for any illness caused by a virus.

[2]generic noun, pl -ics [count] : a product (such as a drug) that is not sold or made under a particular brand name : a generic product ▪ You can substitute generics for brand-name drugs on this health plan.

gen•er•os•i•ty /ˌʤɛnəˈrɑːsəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality of being kind, understanding, and not selfish : the quality of being generous ▪ She is admired for the generosity of her spirit. = She is admired for her generosity of spirit. [=she is admired because she is a kind person who cares about other people]; especially : willingness to give money and other valuable things to others ▪ her generosity toward/to the poor

gen•er•ous /ˈʤɛnərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : freely giving or sharing money and other valuable things ▪ a generous benefactor ▪ The school raised the money through donations from generous alumni. ▪ He was generous with both his time and his money. ▪ She has always been very generous toward/to the poor.
2 : providing more than the amount that is needed or normal : abundant or ample ▪ a generous supply ▪ This restaurant is known for its generous portions. ▪ a generous helping of mashed potatoes ▪ a generous donation
3 : showing kindness and concern for others ▪ She has a generous heart/spirit. ▪ He has generous sympathy for unemployed workers.
– gen•er•ous•ly adv ▪ He generously insisted on paying for dinner. ▪ She tipped the waiter generously. ▪ a generously [=lavishly] illustrated book

gen•e•sis /ˈʤɛnəsəs/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : the beginning of something : ORIGIN ▪ a book about the genesis of the civil rights movement

gene therapy noun [noncount] medical : a way of treating some disorders and diseases that usually involves replacing bad copies of genes with other genes ▪ advances in the science of gene therapy

ge•net•ic /ʤəˈnɛtɪk/ adj : of, relating to, or involving genes ▪ a genetic disease ▪ genetic material ▪ genetic fingerprinting [=using genes or parts of genes to identify a person, such as a criminal]
– ge•net•i•cal•ly /ʤəˈnɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ genetically modified food ▪ a genetically inherited illness ▪ genetically related offspring genetic engineering noun [noncount] : the science of making changes to the genes of a plant or animal to produce a desired result ▪ The crops were made resistant to disease by genetic engineering.

– genetic engineer noun, pl ~ -neers [count] ▪ Genetic engineers have introduced a new disease-resistant soybean.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

ge•net•i•cist /ʤəˈnɛtəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count] : a scientist who studies genetics

ge•net•ics /ʤəˈnɛtɪks/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of how genes control the characteristics of plants and animals

Ge•ne•va Convention /ʤəˈniːvə-/ noun
the Geneva Convention : an international law that explains how people who are wounded or taken prisoner during a war are supposed to be treated ge•nial /ˈʤiːnijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : cheerful and pleasant ▪ a genial host ▪ a host with a genial manner ▪ He was genial to/toward everyone.

– ge•nial•i•ty /ˌʤiːniˈælәti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the geniality of his manner – ge•nial•ly /ˈʤiːnjәli/ adv ▪ We were chatting genially [=pleasantly] on the phone.

ge•nie /ˈʤiːni/ noun, pl -nies [count] in stories : a magic spirit that looks like a person, often lives in a lamp or bottle, and serves the person who calls it ▪ He rubbed the magic lamp to summon the genie.

gen•i•tal /ˈʤɛnәtl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the sexual organs ▪ a genital disease/wart ▪ genital tissue

gen•i•ta•lia /ˌʤɛnәˈteɪljə/ noun [plural] : GENITALS

gen•i•tals /ˈʤɛnәtlz/ noun [plural] : sexual organs; especially : the sexual organs on the outside of the body ▪ male/female genitals

gen•i•tive /ˈʤɛnәtɪv/ noun [noncount] grammar : the form of a noun or pronoun when it is used to show that someone or something owns, controls, or is associated with someone or something else ▪ a noun in the genitive
– genitive adj ▪ the genitive case

ge•nius /ˈʤiːnjәs/ noun, pl -nius•es
1 [count] a : a very smart or talented person : a person who has a level of talent or intelligence that is very rare or remarkable ▪ Albert Einstein and Isaac Newton were great scientific geniuses. ▪ a musical/artistic/creative genius ▪ You don't have to be a genius to see that this plan will never work. b : a person who is very good at doing something ▪ He was a genius at handling the press.
2 a [noncount] : great natural ability : remarkable talent or intelligence ▪ She's now widely recognized as an artist of genius. ▪ He's admired for his comic/artistic/scientific genius. b [singular] : a great or unusual talent or ability — usually + for ▪ She has a genius for knowing what will sell. ▪ He had a genius for getting into trouble. [=he often got into trouble]
3 [singular] a : a very clever or smart quality ▪ The (sheer) genius of his theory was not immediately recognized. b : a part of something that makes it unusually good or valuable ▪ My plan is simple—that's the genius of it. ▪ The genius of these new computers is their portability.
a stroke of genius : a brilliant and successful idea or decision ▪ Deciding to relocate the company was a stroke of genius.

geno•cide /ˈʤɛnәˌsaɪd/ noun [noncount] : the deliberate killing of people who belong to a particular racial, political, or cultural group genre /ˈʒɑːnrə/ noun, pl genres [count] : a particular type or category of literature or art ▪ a literary/film/musical genre ▪ This book is a classic of the mystery genre.
– geno•cid•al /ˌʤɛnәˈsaɪdl/ adj

gent /ˈʤɛnt/ noun, pl gents [count] informal + old-fashioned : GENTLEMAN ▪ He's a real gent. ▪ ladies and gents ✧ In U.S. English, gent is likely to refer to a man who is British. ▪ Our host in London was a delightful old gent. — see also GENTS

gen•teel /ʤɛnˈtiːl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a somewhat old-fashioned : of or relating to people who have high social status : ARISTOCRATIC ▪ a person of genteel upbringing ▪ She was born into a genteel family. b : pretending or trying to have the qualities and manners of people who have high social status ▪ an elderly woman living in genteel poverty ▪ speaking in a genteel accent
2 : having a quietly appealing or polite quality ▪ They lived in a more genteel era. ▪ the genteel manners of an old southern gentleman ▪ genteel grace
– gen•teel•ly adv – gen•teel•ness noun [noncount]

gen•tile or Gen•tile /ˈʤɛnˌtajәl/ noun, pl -tiles [count] : a person who is not Jewish – gentile or Gentile adj

gen•til•i•ty /ʤɛnˈtɪlәti/ noun [noncount]
1 : high social status ▪ Education was considered a mark of gentility.
2 : a quietly appealing and polite quality or manner : a genteel quality or manner ▪ He's a model of good taste and gentility. [=courtesy]

gen•tle /ˈʤɛntl/ adj gen•tler /ˈʤɛntlə/; gen•tlest /ˈʤɛntlәst/ [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing a kind and quiet nature : not harsh or violent ▪ a very gentle man/dog ▪ a dog that is gentle with children ▪ Your mother has a gentle manner/voice/smile. ▪ gentle eyes ▪ a gentle sense of humor ▪ a gentle giant [=a large but gentle person or animal]
2 a : not hard or forceful ▪ a gentle rain/breeze/wind ▪ gentle movements ▪ a gentle push ▪ Apply gentle [=soft] pressure to the area. ▪ I heard a gentle knock at the door. b : not strong or harsh in effect or quality ▪ a gentle soap = a soap that is gentle on the skin ▪ It's a delicate problem that requires gentle handling/treatment. ▪ The job requires a gentle touch. ▪ The cold snap was a gentle reminder that winter was coming. ▪ gentle flavors
3 : not steep or sharp ▪ a gentle slope/hill ▪ a gentle curve
– gen•tle•ness /ˈʤɛntlnәs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the gentleness of his manner ▪ the gentleness of the breeze – gent•ly /ˈʤɛntli/ adv ▪ She spoke to him gently. ▪ The vase is very fragile, so handle it gently.

gen•tle•folk /ˈʤɛntlˌfoʊk/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : people who have high social status

gen•tle•man /ˈʤɛntlmәn/ noun, pl -men /-mәn/ [count]
1 : a man who treats other people in a proper and polite way ▪ A true gentleman would never engage in such behavior.
2 : MAN — used especially in polite speech or when speaking to a group of men ▪ Please show this gentleman to his seat. ▪ Good evening, ladies and gentlemen.
3 old-fashioned : a man of high social status ▪ He's a gentleman by birth. ▪ a gentleman farmer [=a gentleman who farms for pleasure]
– gen•tle•man•li•ness /ˈʤɛntlmәnlinәs/ noun [noncount] – gen•tle•man•ly /ˈʤɛntlmәnli/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ gentlemanly conduct gentleman's agreement or gentlemen's agreement noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : an informal agreement based on trust rather than on a legal document

gen•tle•wom•an /ˈʤɛntlˌwʊmәn/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmәn/ [count] old-fashioned : a woman of high social status

gen•tri•fy /ˈʤɛntrәˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to change (a place, such as an old neighborhood) by improving it and making it more appealing to people who have money ▪ As the neighborhood became gentrified, the people who had lived there for many years could no longer afford it.
– gen•tri• •ca•tion /ˌʤɛntrәfәˈkeɪʃәn/ noun [noncount] ▪ a neighborhood undergoing gentrification

gen•try /ˈʤɛntri/ noun
the gentry old-fashioned : people of high social status ▪ a member of the gentry [=the aristocracy] ▪ the landed gentry [=wealthy people who own land]

gents /ˈʤɛnts/ noun [singular] Brit, informal : MEN'S ROOM — usually used with the ▪ Can you tell me where the gents is, please? — compare LADIES

gen•u• ect /ˈʤɛnjәˌflɛkt/ verb - ects ; - ect •ed; - ecting [no obj]
1 : to kneel on one knee and then rise again as an act of respect ▪ They genuflected before the altar in the church.
2 disapproving : to obey someone with power in a way that is seen as weak ▪ politicians genuflecting [=kowtowing] to wealthy businessmen
– gen•u• ec•tion also Brit gen•u• ex•ion /ˌʤɛnjәˈflɛkʃәn/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

gen•u•ine /ˈʤɛnjәwәn/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : actual, real, or true : not false or fake ▪ genuine leather ▪ The signature is genuine. [=authentic] ▪ There has been a genuine improvement in the economy in recent months. — often used in the phrase the genuine article to refer to someone or something that is not a copy or substitute ▪ Don't fall for cheap imitations; this is the genuine article. ▪ A lot of people pretend to be cowboys, but he's the genuine article. [=he's a real cowboy]
2 : sincere and honest ▪ genuine emotions ▪ She showed a genuine interest in our work. ▪ He has always shown a genuine concern for poor people. ▪ a genuine desire to help others ▪ She seems to be a very genuine person.
– gen•u•ine•ly adv ▪ He was genuinely concerned. – gen•u•ine•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the genuineness of the leather ▪ the genuineness of her interest

ge•nus /ˈʤiːnәs/ noun, pl gen•era /ˈʤɛnәrә/ [count] biology

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

: a group of related animals or plants that includes several or many different species

Gen X /ˈʤɛnˈɛks/ noun [noncount] : GENERATION X — often hyphenated and used before a noun ▪ a Gen-X celebrity – Gen Xer /ˈʤɛnˈɛksə/ noun, pl ~ Xers [count]

geo- /ʤi:jou/ combining form : earth : ground : soil ▪ *geo*logy

geo•cen•tric /ˌʤi:ouˈsɛntrɪk/ adj : having or relating to the Earth as the center ▪ the old geocentric theory that the Sun goes round the Earth ▪ a geocentric universe — compare HELIOCENTRIC

ge•og•ra•phy /ʤiˈɑ:grəfi/ noun, pl -phies
1 [noncount] : an area of study that deals with the location of countries, cities, rivers, mountains, lakes, etc.
2 : the natural features (such as rivers, mountains, etc.) of a place [noncount] studying the geography of the western United States [count] regional geographies
– ge•og•ra•pher /ʤiˈɑ:grəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] ▪ She's a professional geographer. – geo•graph•ic (chiefly US) /ˌʤi:jəˈgræfɪk/ or geo•graph•i•cal /ˌʤi:jəˈgræfɪkəl/ adj ▪ a large geographic area ▪ geographical names – geo•graph•i•cal•ly /ˌʤi:jəˈgræfɪkli/ adv

ge•ol•o•gy /ʤiˈɑ:ləʤi/ noun [noncount]
1 : a science that studies rocks, layers of soil, etc., in order to learn about the history of the Earth and its life
2 : the rocks, land, processes of land formation, etc., of a particular area ▪ learning about the geology of Hawaii
– geo•log•ic (chiefly US) /ˌʤi:jəˈlɑ:ʤɪk/ or geo•log•i•cal /ˌʤi:jəˈlɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ the geologic features of an area ▪ geologic time [=the period of time during which the earth has existed] – geo•log•i•cal•ly /ˌʤi:jəˈlɑ:ʤɪkli/ adv – ge•ol•o•gist /ʤiˈɑ:ləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

ge•om•e•try /ʤiˈɑ:mətri/ noun [noncount] : a branch of mathematics that deals with points, lines, angles, surfaces, and solids
– geo•met•ric /ˌʤi:jəˈmɛtrɪk/ also geo•met•ri•cal /ˌʤi:jəˈmɛtrɪkəl/ adj ▪ geometric shapes/patterns – geo•met•ri•cal•ly /ˌʤi:jəˈmɛtrɪkli/ adv

geo•phys•ics /ˌʤi:jəˈfɪzɪks/ noun [noncount] : a branch of science that deals with the physical movements and forces of the Earth (such as its climate and oceans)

geo•pol•i•tics /ˌʤi:jouˈpɑ:ləˌtɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] : the study of how geography and economics have an influence on politics and on the relations between nations
2 [plural] : the political and geographic parts of something ▪ The geopolitics of war are often complex.
– geo•po•lit•i•cal /ˌʤi:jouˌpəˈlɪtɪkəl/ adj ▪ geopolitical interests – geo•po•lit•i•cal•ly /ˌʤi:jouˌpəˈlɪtɪkli/ adv

Geor•gian /ˈʤoəʤən/ adj : of or relating to the time from 1714 to 1830 when England was ruled by four kings named George ▪ an example of Georgian architecture

geo•ther•mal /ˌʤi:jouˈθəməl/ adj : of, relating to, or using the natural heat produced inside the Earth ▪ geothermal power; also : produced by such heat ▪ geothermal steam

ge•ra•ni•um /ʤəˈreɪnijəm/ noun, pl -ums [count] : a plant that is grown for its red, white, pink, or purple flowers — see color picture on page C6

ger•bil /ˈʤəbəl/ noun, pl -bils [count] : a small animal that is often kept as a pet — see picture at RODENT

[1]ge•ri•at•ric /ˌʤeriˈætrɪk/ adj
1 always used before a noun, medical : of or relating to the process of growing old and the medical care of old people : of or relating to geriatrics ▪ geriatric patients/medicine ▪ geriatric illnesses ▪ a geriatric ward
2 [more ~; most ~] informal : OLD ▪ a geriatric dog ▪ children who think that anyone over the age of 40 is geriatric ▪ a geriatric [=old and outdated] computer ▪ geriatric airplanes

[2]geriatric noun, pl -rics [count] : an old person — usually plural ▪ providing medical care for geriatrics

ge•ri•at•rics /ˌʤeriˈætrɪks/ noun [noncount] : a branch of medicine that deals with the problems and diseases of old people ▪ a doctor who specializes in geriatrics

germ /ˈʤəm/ noun, pl germs [count]
1 biology : a very small living thing that causes disease ▪ the germ that causes tuberculosis
2 a : the origin or basis of something ▪ the germ of an idea
b : a very small amount of something ▪ a germ of truth
3 biology : something that can grow to become a whole animal, plant, etc., or one of its parts ▪ a germ cell ▪ the germ layers of an embryo — see also WHEAT GERM

Ger•man /ˈʤəmən/ noun, pl -mans
1 [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Germany : a person whose family is from Germany
2 [noncount] : the language of Germany that is also spoken in Austria, parts of Switzerland, and other places
– German adj ▪ German food/literature

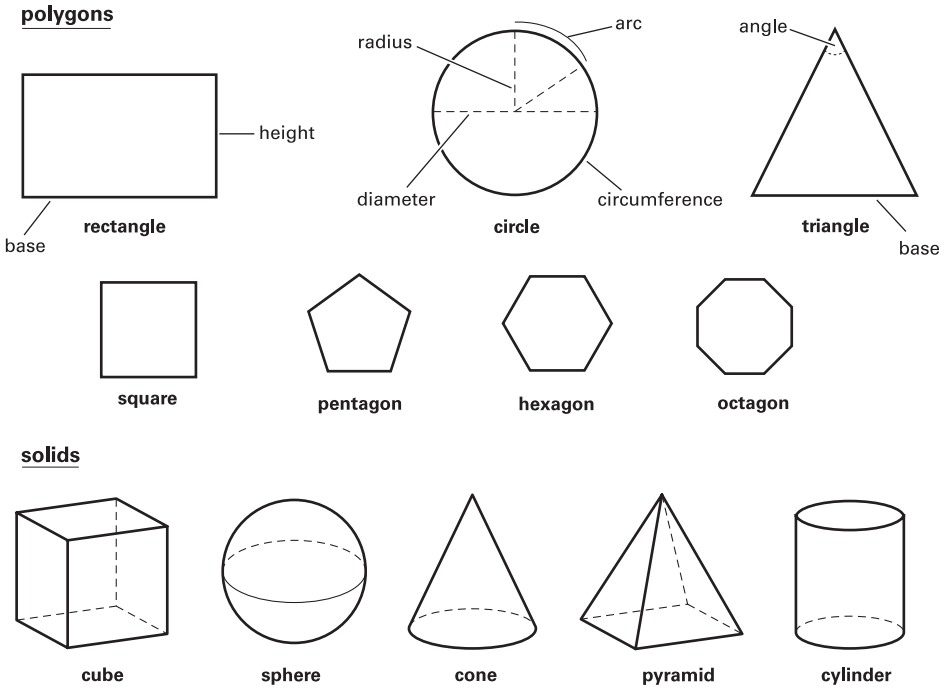
ger•mane /ʤəˈmeɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to a subject in an appropriate way : RELEVANT ▪ Her com-

geometry



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

ments were not germane (to the discussion). ▪ facts germane to the dispute
– ger•mane•ly adv

Ger•man•ic /ʤə'mænɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to Germans ▪ their Germanic homeland ▪ Germanic music/influence/tribes
2 : of or relating to the German language or to other closely related languages ▪ Germanic languages, such as German, English, Dutch, and the Scandinavian languages

German mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : DEUTSCHE MARK

German measles noun [noncount] : a disease that is less severe than typical measles but that can harm an unborn child if the mother gets the disease when she is pregnant — called also rubella

German shepherd noun, pl ~ -herds [count] : a large dog that is often used in police work and as a guide dog for blind people — called also (Brit) Alsatian; see picture at DOG

ger•mi•nate /'ʤəmə,neɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing
1 [no obj] of a seed : to begin to grow ▪ waiting for the seeds to germinate [=sprout] ▪ The seeds germinated quickly. — often used figuratively ▪ The idea has been germinating [=forming, developing] in his mind for some time.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a seed) to begin to grow ▪ methods used by gardeners to germinate seeds
– ger•mi•na•tion /ˌʤəmə'neɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ seed germination ▪ the germination of an idea

germ warfare noun [noncount] : BIOLOGICAL WARFARE

ger•on•tol•o•gy /ˌʤerən'tɑ:ləʤi/ noun [noncount] technical : the scientific study of old age and of the process of becoming old – ge•ron•to•log•i•cal /ʤəˌrɑ:ntə'lɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ gerontological research – ger•on•tol•o•gist /ˌʤerən'tɑ:ləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

ger•ry•man•der verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing /'ʤeriˌmændə/ [+ obj] : to divide (a state, school district, etc.) into political units that give one group an unfair advantage ▪ gerrymandering urban districts to give rural voters a majority ger•und /'ʤerənd/ noun, pl -unds [count] grammar : an English noun formed from a verb by adding -ing ▪ In the sentence "Learning can be fun," "learning" is a gerund.

ge•stalt /gə'stɑ:lt, gə'ʃtɑ:lt/ noun [singular] psychology : something that is made of many parts and yet is somehow more than or different from the combination of its parts ▪ the gestalt of human consciousness; broadly : the general quality or character of something ▪ the gestalt [=feel, atmosphere] of the place ▪ the gestalt [=spirit] of the era

ges•ta•tion /ʤɛ'steɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the time when a person or animal is developing inside its mother before it is born; also : the process of development that happens during this time ▪ in the last weeks of gestation [=pregnancy]
2 : the process by which something (such as an idea) forms and develops ▪ the gestation of new ideas ▪ The book has been in gestation for a long time.

ges•tic•u•late /ʤɛ'stɪkjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [no obj] : to move your arms and hands especially when speaking in an angry or emotional way ▪ He was gesticulating [=gesturing] wildly during his speech.
– ges•tic•u•la•tion /ʤɛˌstɪkjə'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] strange gesticulations [=gestures] [noncount] communication by means of gesticulation

[1]ges•ture /'ʤɛsʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 : a movement of your body (especially of your hands and arms) that shows or emphasizes an idea or a feeling ▪ Specific gestures can indicate particular moods. ▪ an obscene gesture ▪ His arm was raised in a gesture of defiance.
2 : something said or done to show a particular feeling or attitude ▪ a thoughtful/polite/friendly gesture ▪ a gesture of goodwill ▪ The president's visit was mainly a symbolic gesture. [=an act that has no purpose or effect other than to show support, respect, etc.]

[2]gesture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [no obj] : to make a gesture : to move your hands, arms, etc., to express an idea or feeling ▪ She gestured towards the fireplace. ▪ He gestured at his audience. ▪ The room was filled with angry people shouting and gesturing. ▪ He gestured (to his partner) that it was time to leave. ▪ He gestured to/for his partner to leave.

ge•sund•heit /gə'zʊntˌhaɪt/ interj, chiefly US — used to wish good health to someone who has sneezed

get /'gɛt/ verb gets; got /'gɑ:t/; got or US got•ten /'gɑ:tn/; get•ting
1 [+ obj] : to obtain (something): such as a : to receive or be given (something) ▪ He got a new bicycle for his birthday. ▪ I never did get an answer to my question. ▪ I got a letter from my lawyer. ▪ She got a phone call from her sister. ▪ Did you get my message? ▪ Can I get [=catch] a ride to town with you? [=will you give me a ride to town?] ▪ You need to get your mother's permission to go. b : to obtain (something) through effort, chance, etc. ▪ She hasn't been able to get a job. ▪ It's nearly impossible to get [=make] a reservation at that restaurant. ▪ If you want to be successful you need to get a good education. ▪ It took us a while to get the waiter's attention. ▪ She got a look at the thief. [=she managed to look at the thief] c : to obtain the use or services of (something) ▪ It took us a while to get a taxi. ▪ It's hard to get good help these days. d : to earn or gain (something) ▪ How much does he get [=make] a week? ▪ I got $50 when I sold my old bicycle. = I got $50 for my old bicycle. ▪ He's gotten a bad reputation (for himself). = He's gotten himself a bad reputation. ▪ I got an "A" on my history exam! e : to win (something) ▪ She got first prize in the essay contest.
2 [+ obj] : to buy or pay for (something) ▪ He got (himself) a new car at a great price. ▪ "Did you get that dress at the mall?" "Yes, and I got it for only $20." ▪ Do you get [=subscribe to] the local newspaper? ▪ I'll get the next round of drinks. ▪ He offered to get the check, but I insisted on getting it myself. ▪ He got a beautiful necklace for his wife. = He got his wife a beautiful necklace.
3 [+ obj] : to go somewhere and come back with (something or someone) ▪ I'll get a pencil from the desk. ▪ Can I get anything for you? = Can I get you anything? ▪ Someone has to (go) get the boss from the airport and bring her back here.
4 [+ obj] : to send or take (something or someone) to a person or place ▪ I have to get an important message to her at once! ▪ We have to get him to the hospital immediately.
5 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to move or go ▪ He quickly got himself and his luggage through customs. ▪ She got the car out of the garage. ▪ I could barely get [=fit] the luggage into the car's trunk. ▪ I can't get this ring on/off my finger. b always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move or go ▪ He got on the horse and rode away. ▪ We got on/off the bus. ▪ They quickly got [=passed] through customs. ▪ She never got out of the house last weekend. ▪ He lost weight to be able to get [=fit] into his jeans again. ▪ He got between them to keep them from fighting. ▪ Ouch! Get off my foot! c always followed by an adverb [no obj] : to arrive at a place ▪ When did you get here/there? ▪ He got home last night.
6 [+ obj] : to begin to have (a feeling, an idea, etc.) ▪ I got a funny feeling when I saw her again. ▪ He somehow got the idea that I was lying to him. ▪ I got the impression that he wasn't interested. ▪ One thing led to another, and—well, you get the picture/idea. [=you can easily guess the rest]
7 [+ obj] a : to become affected by (a disease) ▪ I got a bad cold when I was on vacation. ▪ Clean the wound carefully so you don't get an infection. b : to suffer (an injury) ▪ He got a broken nose in a fight. ▪ Where/how did you get that bruise on your leg?
8 [+ obj] : to have or experience (something) ▪ We've been getting a lot of rain recently. ▪ I finally got a good night's sleep last night. [=I finally slept well last night] ▪ The inn doesn't get many visitors these days. ▪ "Do people often ask if you're Irish?" "Yes, I get that a lot." [=people ask me that often] ▪ You get [=there are] so many crazy drivers these days.
9 [+ obj] : to cause (a particular reaction) ▪ That joke always gets a laugh. ▪ Her comments got an angry reaction.
10 always followed by an adverb a [no obj] : to make progress in some activity ▪ He hasn't gotten far with the essay. [=he hasn't made much progress with the essay] ▪ You won't get anywhere with flattery. [=you won't succeed by using flattery] ▪ At last we're getting somewhere (with our work)! — see also GET AHEAD (below) b [+ obj] : to cause or help (someone) to make progress ▪ All that effort didn't really get us very far. ▪ Flattery will get you nowhere. = Flattery won't get you anywhere.
11 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be in a specified position or condition ▪ He got his feet wet when he stepped in a puddle. ▪ He got his nose broken in a fight. [=his nose was broken in a fight] ▪ I told you not to get yourself dirty. ▪ You nearly got us both killed! ▪ I need to get [=have] my hair cut. ▪ She finally got her office organized. ▪ He promised to get the work done quickly. [=to do the work quickly] ▪ When you're making a measurement be careful to get it right. [=to do it correctly] ▪ Let me get this straight [=let me

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

G

be sure that I understand this correctly]: are you saying that you won't help us?
12 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to do something — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I can't get the children to behave. ▪ How can I get you to understand that this isn't a good idea? ▪ He got the computer to work again. — sometimes + -ing verb ▪ He got the computer working again.
13 [no obj] : to start doing something ▪ We got talking about old times. — see also GET TO 1a (below)
14 [no obj] : to have or be given the chance to do something : to be able to do something ▪ She never got to go to college. ▪ Why do I never get to drive the car? ▪ She hopes she'll finally get to spend more time working on her garden this year.
15 [+ obj] : to deal with (something that needs attention): such as a : to answer (a telephone) ▪ Would somebody please get the phone? b : to open (a door) ▪ If you'll get the door for me, I'll carry that box inside. ▪ There's someone at the door. Would you please get it? [=open the door and deal with the person who knocked]
16 [+ obj] a : to understand (something or someone) ▪ I just don't get the point of what you're saying. ▪ He didn't get the joke. ▪ I don't get what you mean. ▪ Oh, now I get it. [=understand] ▪ He's a strange guy. I just don't get him. ▪ Don't get me wrong. [=don't misunderstand what I am saying] ▪ I get your drift. [=I understand what you are saying] b : to hear and understand (something) ▪ I didn't quite get [=catch] his name.
17 a [linking verb] : BECOME 1 ▪ My hands got dirty when I was working in the garden. ▪ I get very nervous when I have to speak in public. ▪ I got sick last week but I'm feeling better now. ▪ I just can't get used to this cold weather. ▪ She sent her sick friend a "Get Well Soon" card. ▪ I should go; it's getting late. ▪ (Brit, informal) Your daughter's getting quite a big girl now! ▪ We need to finish by 5 o'clock, so we'd better get busy. [=begin to work] ▪ You've never heard of the Internet? Come on, now. Get with it. [=become up-to-date in your knowledge] ✧ People say how stupid/lucky (etc.) can you get to mean that someone or something is unusually stupid, lucky, etc. ▪ He tried to rob a policeman. How stupid can you get? [=he was very stupid to try to rob a policeman] ▪ Just look at that dress! How tacky can you get? [=that dress is very tacky] b [no obj] : to change in a specified way as time passes — followed by to + verb ▪ Your daughter is getting to be [=is becoming] quite a big girl now!
18 [no obj] : to do something specified — followed by to + verb ▪ Once you get to know him, you will like him.
19 [auxiliary verb] — used like be with the past participle of some verbs to form passive constructions ▪ They got [=were] married last month. ▪ He got [=was] paid for his work. ▪ She got arrested for fraud. ▪ I nearly got killed.
20 [+ obj] a : to have (a meal) ▪ We got dinner at an Italian restaurant last night. b : to prepare (a meal) ▪ On weekends, my wife sleeps late while I get breakfast.
21 [+ obj] : to receive (punishment) ▪ He got five years in prison for his crime. ▪ (informal) If you don't stop misbehaving you're going to get it when your father gets home! [=your father is going to punish you]
22 [+ obj] : to grip and hold (something or someone) ▪ The dog got the thief by the leg. ▪ He got [=grabbed] me around/by the neck and wouldn't let go.
23 [+ obj] : to find and catch (someone) ▪ The Royal Canadian Mounted Police always get their man! [=they always capture the man they are trying to capture]
24 [+ obj] : to hit (someone) ▪ The bullet got him in the leg.
25 [+ obj] a : to hurt or cause trouble for (someone) ▪ He's convinced that his ex-wife is out to get him. ▪ I'll get you if it's the last thing I do! b : to cause the death of (someone) ▪ He had heart problems for many years, but it was pneumonia that got him in the end.
26 [+ obj] informal a : to bother or annoy (someone) ▪ It really gets me that such a foolish man has so much influence. ▪ What gets me is all these delays! — see also GET TO 2a (below) b : to make (someone) sad ▪ The end of that movie always gets me. — see also GET TO 2b (below) c : to cause (someone) to be fooled or unable to think of an answer ▪ Well, you got [=fooled, tricked] me that time. That was very clever. ▪ That's a good question. You've got me (there). [=I don't know the answer]
27 [+ obj] : to make a phone call and hear or speak to (a person or answering machine) ▪ Where were you? I've been trying to get [=reach] you (on the phone) all day! ▪ When I tried to call him I got his answering machine. [=the phone was answered by his answering machine]
28 [+ obj] : to receive (a radio or TV station or channel) ▪ We don't get this channel at home.
29 [+ obj] : to produce or provide (a level of performance) ▪ Our new car gets [=delivers] excellent gas mileage.
30 [+ obj] informal : to notice (someone or something) ▪ Did you get the way he looked at you? — often used to direct someone's attention to a person or thing that is seen as foolish, surprising, etc. ▪ Just get him in his new pants! ▪ She showed up at the party in—get this—a $3,000 designer dress!

get about see GET AROUND (below)

get above yourself see [2]ABOVE

get across [phrasal verb] 1 : to be clearly expressed to and understood by someone ▪ I hope my point has finally gotten across to you. [=I hope you finally understand what I am trying to say] 2 *get (something) across or get across (something) : to express (something) clearly so that it is understood ▪ I don't know if I was able to get my point across to you. ▪ a politician who is trying hard to get his message across (to the voters) get after [phrasal verb] get after (someone) US, informal : to tell (someone) repeatedly to do something ▪ His parents are always getting after him about doing his homework. = His parents are always getting after him to do his homework.

get ahead [phrasal verb] : to become more successful ▪ a book about how to get ahead in the business world

get along [phrasal verb] 1 : to be or remain friendly ▪ We get along well enough, but we're not really close friends. ▪ My brother and my uncle don't really get along (with each other). 2 : to make progress while doing something ▪ How are you getting along with your work? [=how's your work coming along?] ▪ He never showed up, but we managed to get along [=get by] without him. 3 : to leave a place ▪ I really must be getting along. [=going, leaving] 4 : to become old ▪ Her parents are getting along in years.

get around [phrasal verb] 1 or chiefly Brit get about : to go, walk, or travel to different places ▪ She gets around a lot because of her job. ▪ He's having trouble getting around because of his sore knee. 2 or chiefly Brit get round or get about : to become known by many people ▪ People will be shocked when the news about her arrest gets around. ▪ Word got around that he was resigning. 3 *get around (something) or chiefly Brit get round (something) : to avoid being stopped by (something) : to avoid having to deal with (something) ▪ I'm sure we can find a way to get around these problems. ▪ There's no getting around the fact that the current system isn't working. [=there is no way to deny that the current system isn't working] 4 *get around to (something) or chiefly Brit get round to (something) : to do or deal with (something that you have not yet done or dealt with) ▪ Don't you think it's about time you got around to tidying your room? ▪ I've been meaning to call her, but I just haven't gotten around to it. [=I haven't called her] ▪ Sooner or later we'll have to get around to the subject of taxation.

get at [phrasal verb] 1 *get at (something or someone) : to reach (something or someone) ▪ The valve is hard to get at unless you have a special tool. ▪ An angry mob tried to get at him but the police protected him. 2 *get at (something) : to find out (information that is hidden or hard to know) ▪ How can we ever get at the truth? 3 *get at (something) : to say or suggest (something) in an indirect way — usually used as getting at ▪ Just what are you getting at? [=what are you suggesting?] 4 *get at (someone) Brit : to criticize (someone) repeatedly ▪ He says his teachers are always getting at [=(US) getting on] him unfairly. ▪ He's always being got at by his teachers. 5 *get at it US, informal : to start doing something ▪ You have a lot of work to do so you'd better get at it. [=get to it] get away [phrasal verb] 1 : to go away from a place ▪ I'll be busy at work all day and I can't get away until tonight. — often used figuratively ▪ The company is having problems because they've gotten away from the things they do best. [=they have stopped doing the things they do best] 2 : to go away from your home for a vacation ▪ I'm taking some time off because I really need to get away for a few days. ▪ We went on a cruise to get away from it all. 3 : to avoid being caught : to escape ▪ The robbers got away (from the police) in a fast car. — often + with ▪ The robbers got away with a lot of stolen jewelry. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You can't get away from the facts. = There's no getting away from the facts. [=you can't avoid or deny the facts; the facts are known and cannot be ignored] — see also GETAWAY 4 *get away with (something) a : to not be criticized or punished for (something) ▪ She's incredibly rude. I don't know how she gets away with it. — often used figuratively ▪ There's a chance of rain, but I think I can probably get away with leaving my umbrella at home. [=I probably will not need my umbrella] ▪ It would be nice to have more food for the party, but I think we can get away with what we have. [=I think what we have is enough and will not cause problems for us] b : to be given only slight or mild punishment for a crime or for doing something wrong ▪ The policeman stopped her for speeding but let her get away with just a warning. — see also get away with murder at [1]MURDER get back [phrasal verb] 1 : to return to a place after going away ▪ When did you get back from your vacation? ▪ We got back to the office in the early afternoon. 2 : to return to an activity, condition, etc. — usually + to ▪ Things are finally getting back to normal. ▪ Let's get back to the topic we were discussing yesterday. ▪ It's time to get back to work. [=to start working again] 3 get (something) back or get back (something) : to get or obtain (something you have lost) again : to recover (something) ▪ He got his old job back after a long struggle. ▪ Someone stole his wallet but he got it back from the police. 4 get (someone) back or get back at (someone) or Brit get your own back informal : to do something bad or unpleasant to someone who has treated you badly or unfairly ▪ I'll get you back for what you did to me! ▪ After he lost his job, he vowed that he would find a way to get back at his old boss. 5 get back to (someone) a : to talk to or write to (someone) at a later time in order to give more information, answer a question, etc. ▪ He got back to me (by e-mail) in a few days with a new offer. ▪ "How much will it cost?" "I'm not sure. I'll have to get back to you on that." b : to call (someone) back on the telephone ▪ "There's someone on the phone for you, sir." "Tell them I can't take their call now but I'll get back to them as soon as I can."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

get back to (the) basics see [2]BASIC

get behind [phrasal verb] 1 : to fail to do something as quickly as required or expected ▪ We've been getting further (and further) behind (schedule). ▪ We got behind with our car payments. 2 get behind (someone or something) : to support (someone or something) ▪ The proposal may succeed if a few more people get behind it.

get by [phrasal verb] 1 : to do enough or to do well enough to avoid failure ▪ He's doing very well in his history classes, but he's barely getting by in math. 2 : to be able to live or to do what is needed by using what you have even though you do not have much ▪ We don't have a lot of money, but we get by. — often + on ▪ How can you get by on such a small salary? — often + with ▪ We got by with a minimum of clothing when we went camping.

get cracking see [1]CRACK

get down [phrasal verb] 1 get (someone) down : to cause (someone) to become sad or depressed ▪ The weather was really getting her down. ▪ Talking about politics always gets me down. 2 get (something) down or get down (something) a : to swallow (something) : to eat or drink (something) ▪ You'll feel better once you get this medicine down. b : to write (something) down ▪ If you have a good idea, you should get it down (in writing) so that you won't forget it. 3 informal : to play music or dance with skill and enthusiasm ▪ She likes to get down on the dance floor. 4 get down to (something) a : to start to do (something) : to begin to give your attention or effort to (something) ▪ It's time to stop delaying and get down to work. ▪ Let's get down to business. b : to talk about or describe (something) in a very simple and accurate way ▪ When you get right down to it, this movie is just not very good.

get even see [1]EVEN get going 1 : to leave ▪ We ought to get going if we don't want to be late. 2 : to start doing something ▪ You should get going on that assignment. 3 a : to start talking ▪ Once he gets going about the war you can't shut him up. b : to cause (someone) to start talking ▪ Don't get him going about the war or you'll never shut him up!

get hold of see [2]HOLD

get in [phrasal verb] 1 a : to enter a place ▪ The burglar got in through an unlocked window. b : to arrive at a place ▪ The train got in late. c : to arrive home ▪ Her husband was out late last night. He didn't get in until almost midnight. 2 : to become involved in an activity ▪ The people who have become rich in this business are the ones who got in at the beginning. 3 : to be chosen or elected for office ▪ The mayor got in by a very slim margin. 4 get in or get (someone) in : to be accepted or to cause (someone) to be accepted as a student, member, etc. ▪ It's a very good school. I hope your daughter gets in. ▪ I hope you get your daughter in. 5 get (someone) in : to have (someone) come to your home, business, etc., to do work ▪ We had to get a doctor/plumber in to deal with the emergency. 6 get (something) in or get in (something) a : to do or say (something) by making an effort ▪ He managed to get a few good punches in before they stopped the fight. ▪ May I get a word in here? [=may I say something here?] — see also get a word in edgewise at EDGEWISE b : to send or deliver (something) to the proper person or place ▪ Did you get your assignment in on time? c : to do (something) in the amount of time that is available ▪ I was able to get in a few hours of reading last night. ▪ I hope we can get in a visit to the art museum the next time we're in the city. d : to harvest (a crop) and put it in a safe or dry place ▪ It's time to get the crop/harvest in. ▪ We'd better get the hay in before it rains. 7 get in on (something) : to become involved in (something) ▪ It sounds like an interesting project and I'd like to get in on it. 8 get in with (someone) : to become friends with (someone) ▪ She got in with [=fell in with] a bad crowd and got into trouble. ▪ He managed to get in good with the boss. [=he got the boss to like him]

get into [phrasal verb] 1 get into (a place) a : to enter (a place) ▪ The burglar got into the house through an unlocked window. b : to arrive at (a place) ▪ The train got into New York late last night. 2 get into (something) a : to become involved in (an activity) ▪ The people who have become rich in this business are the ones who got into it at the beginning. b : to begin to be interested in and to enjoy (something) ▪ It's only recently that I've really gotten into music. ▪ I tried reading the book, but I just couldn't get into it. 3 get into (something) or get (someone) into (something) a : to be accepted or to cause (someone) to be accepted as a student, member, etc. ▪ I hope your daughter gets into the school. ▪ I hope you get your daughter into the school. b : to become involved or to cause (someone) to become involved in (something bad, such as trouble or a fight) ▪ He got into a lot of trouble when he was a teenager. ▪ They got into an argument. ▪ His friends got him into trouble. 4 get into (something) : to talk about (something) ▪ I'll tell you what happened, but I don't want to get into [=go into] all the reasons for why it happened. 5 got into (someone) : to affect the behavior of (someone) — used to say that someone is behaving in an unusual way and you don't know why ▪ I don't know what has gotten into him lately. ▪ She never used to be so rude to people. What got into her? [=why is she behaving this way?]

get lost see [2]LOST

get lucky see LUCKY

get moving see [1]MOVE

get off [phrasal verb] 1 : to leave at the start of a journey ▪ We got off early on our camping trip. — often used figuratively in the phrase get off to a good/bad (etc.) start ▪ He and I got off to a bad start, but now we get along well. ▪ The project got off to a slow start. — see also get off on the right/wrong foot at [1]FOOT 2 get off or get (someone) off a : to not be punished for a crime : to be judged not guilty of a crime ▪ He's been arrested several times, but he always gets off. : to help (someone) to be judged not guilty ▪ His lawyer got him off. b : to be given or to help (someone) to be given only a slight punishment for a crime ▪ She got off lightly. — usually + with ▪ He got off with a light sentence. ▪ His lawyer tried to get him off with a light sentence. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ It was a bad accident. You're lucky that you got off with just a broken leg—you could have been killed! 3 : to stop being on or against someone or something ▪ Get off—you're hurting me! ▪ I took the subway and got off at the downtown station. — see also GET 5a b (above) 4 get off (something) or get (someone) off (something) : to stop talking about (something) or to cause (someone) to stop talking about (something) ▪ We somehow got off (the subject of) work and started talking about our personal lives. ▪ I tried to change the subject, but I couldn't get her off it. 5 get off or get off work : to finish working and leave the place where you work ▪ I get off early on Fridays. ▪ I got off work early last Thursday so I could see the parade. 6 get (something) off or get off (something) a : to write and send (a letter, an e-mail message, etc.) ▪ I'll get the letter off (to them) tomorrow. b : to shoot (something) from a gun ▪ The policeman got off

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

G

[=fired] several shots before the criminal escaped. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He managed to get off a few good jokes in his speech. 7 get off or get (someone) off chiefly Brit : to fall asleep or to help (someone, such as a baby) to fall asleep ▪ I had just got off [=dropped off] when the doorbell rang. = I had just got off to sleep when the doorbell rang. ▪ I just got the baby off to sleep. 8 get off or get (someone) off US, informal : to have an orgasm or to cause (someone) to have an orgasm 9 get off on (something) informal + sometimes disapproving : to enjoy or be excited by (something) especially in a sexual way ▪ He's one of those guys who seem to get off on making other people feel guilty. 10 get off with (someone) Brit, informal : to have sex with (someone) : to begin a sexual relationship with (someone) ▪ She found out he'd gotten off with another woman. 11 informal a ✧ To tell someone where to get off is to criticize or disagree with someone in a very direct and angry way. ▪ I was sick of listening to his constant complaints, so I told him where to get off. b US ✧ If you don't know where someone gets off (doing something), you are angry because someone has done something that is not right. ▪ I don't know where he gets off telling me what to do. = Where does he get off telling me what to do? [=he has no right to tell me what to do]

get on [phrasal verb] 1 get on with (something) : to continue doing (something) ▪ I didn't mean to interrupt you. I'll let you get on with your work. ▪ You need to stop feeling sorry for yourself and just get on with your life. [=return to doing the things you do in your normal life] ▪ This introduction is taking forever. I wish they'd just get on with it. [=stop delaying and get to the interesting or important part] 2 chiefly Brit : to be or remain friendly : to get along ▪ They've never really got on (with each other). ▪ We get on well enough, but we're not really close friends. 3 chiefly Brit a : to make progress while doing something ▪ How is your daughter getting on in/at school? ▪ We can get on [=get along, get by, manage] just fine without them. b : to achieve greater success : to get ahead ▪ an ambitious young woman trying to get on in business 4 get on (something) US : to start to do or deal with (something) ▪ "These files need to be organized." "I'll get on it right away." 5 get on (someone) US : to criticize (someone) repeatedly ▪ His boss has been getting on him about the quality of his work. ▪ She's always getting on his case about cleaning his room. [=she's always telling him to clean it] 6 get it on US slang : to have sex 7 informal a get on or get on in years : to grow old ▪ My grandmother is getting on [=aging] a bit, but she's still very active. b : to become late ▪ It's getting on, and we really ought to go. 8 get on for (something) Brit, informal : to move toward becoming (a specified age, time, etc.) ▪ He's getting on for 70. [=he's approaching 70; he is nearly 70] ▪ It was getting on for noon.

get onto or get on to [phrasal verb] 1 get onto (something) or get on to (something) : to start to do or deal with (something) ▪ "We need someone to send out the invitations." "I'll get onto [=get on] it right away." : to start to talk about something ▪ How did we get onto this topic? 2 get onto (someone) or get on to (someone) Brit : to speak to or write to (someone) about a particular problem, job, etc. ▪ I'll get onto [=get in touch with] the doctor/plumber straightaway and see if he'll come round.

get out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to leave or escape from a place, a vehicle, etc. ▪ He was trapped in the burning building/car, but he was somehow able to get out (of it) alive. — used as an angry way to tell someone to leave ▪ Get out! I never want to see you again! b get (someone) out : to cause or help (someone) to leave or escape ▪ The firemen managed to get him out (of the burning building) alive. c get (something) out or get out (something) : to remove (something) from storage so that it can be used ▪ It's raining. I'd better get out the umbrella. 2 : to go to places outside your home for social occasions, events, etc. ▪ You spend too much time at home. You need to get out more. 3 : to become known ▪ Their secret got out. ▪ Word got out that she was resigning. 4 get (something) out or get out (something) : to say (something) by making an effort ▪ He managed to get out a few words before he collapsed. 5 US, informal — used in speech to show that you are surprised by something or do not believe it ▪ "They gave the job to Jane." "Get out!" = "Get out of here!" 6 get out of (something) or get (someone or something) out of (something) a : to avoid doing (something) or to help (someone) to avoid doing (something) ▪ I didn't want to go to the lecture, but I couldn't get out of it. ▪ He tried to get out of doing his homework. ▪ My sister said she could get me out of going to the party if I really didn't want to go b : to stop having (a habit) or to cause (someone) to stop having (a habit) ▪ I used to exercise every day, but I got out of the habit. ▪ All the extra work I've been doing has gotten me out of the habit of exercising. c : to stop being in or involved in (something) or to cause (someone or something) to stop being in or involved in (something) ▪ The company has decided to get (itself) out of the computer business. ▪ She got her money out of the stock market. 7 get (something) out of (something or someone) : to take (something) from (something or someone) ▪ The police officer got the gun out of the suspect's hand. ▪ The police officer got a confession out of the suspect. 8 get (something) out of (something) : to gain (something) from (something) ▪ What do you hope to get out of this experience?

get over [phrasal verb] 1 get over (something) a : to stop being controlled or bothered by (something, such as a problem or feeling) ▪ You need to get over [=overcome] your fear of being lied to. b : to stop feeling unhappy about (something) ▪ She's disappointed about their decision, but she'll get over it eventually. c informal — used to say that you are very surprised or impressed by something ▪ I just can't get over how much weight you've lost! 2 get over (an illness) : to become healthy again after (an illness) ▪ He had a bad cold, and he still hasn't gotten over it completely. 3 get over (someone) : to stop feeling unhappy after ending a relationship with (someone) ▪ He broke up with his girlfriend a couple of months ago, and he still hasn't gotten over her. 4 get (something) over a or get (something) over with : to cause or experience the end of (something) : to finish (something) ▪ I just want to get this ordeal over! = I just want to get this ordeal over with! = I just want to get this ordeal over and done with! [=I want this ordeal to end] b or get over (something) chiefly Brit : to express (something) clearly so that it is understood ▪ I don't know if I was able to get my message over [=across] to them.

get real see [1]REAL

get rid of see RID

get rolling see [1]ROLL

get round see GET AROUND (above)

get the best of see [3]BEST

get the better of see [3]BETTER get there : to reach a goal : to do what you are trying to do ▪ We haven't made a profit yet, but we'll get there eventually. [=we'll make a profit eventually] : to come closer to reaching a goal ▪ We haven't made a profit yet, but we're getting there.

get through [phrasal verb] 1 a chiefly US : to finish a job or activity ▪ When you get through (with that job), I've got something else for you to do. b get through (something) : to do or finish (something, such as an amount of work) ▪ We got through [=covered] all of the material that we wanted to cover. ▪ There's still a lot of paperwork to be gotten through. c get through (something) or get (someone) through (something) : to complete or to help (someone) to complete (a test, an exam, etc.) successfully ▪ She studied hard and got through [=passed] her exams. ▪ The extra hours of study are what got her through her exams. 2 get through or get through (something) or get (something) through (something) : to pass through or beyond something that blocks you or slows you down ▪ Traffic was very heavy, but we managed to get through (it). ▪ Rescuers are having trouble getting through to the flood victims. : to cause (something) to pass through or beyond something ▪ Traffic was very heavy, but we managed to get our truck through (it). ▪ Rescuers are having trouble getting supplies through to the flood victims. 3 get through (something) or get (someone) through (something) : to have the experience of living through (something that is difficult, dangerous, etc.) ▪ It was a very difficult time in our marriage, but we got through it. ▪ I don't know how those early settlers managed to get through [=survive] the winter. : to help (someone) to live through (something) ▪ It was pure determination that got them through that crisis. 4 get through (something) chiefly Brit : to spend or use all of (something) ▪ He got through [=went through] all the money he inherited in just a few years. ▪ They got through [=went through] three bottles of wine with dinner. 5 a get through or get through to (someone) : to be clearly expressed to and understood by someone ▪ I hope my message has finally gotten through to you. [=I hope you finally understand my message] ▪ I think my message finally got through. b get through to (someone) or get (something) through to (someone) : to express something clearly so that it is understood by (someone) ▪ I've talked to him many times, but I just can't seem to get through to him. ▪ I hope I've finally gotten my message through to him. 6 get through or get through to (someone) : to make a successful telephone call to someone ▪ I tried to call home but I couldn't get through. ▪ Where were you? I've been trying to get through to you (on the phone) all day! 7 get through or get through (something) : to be accepted or approved by an official group ▪ The bill finally got through [=passed] and eventually became a law. ▪ The bill finally got through [=passed] Congress and eventually became a law.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

get to [phrasal verb] 1 get to (something) a : to start (doing something) ▪ She sometimes gets to worrying over her health. ▪ We got to talking about old times. b : to deal with (something) ▪ The letter is on my desk, but I haven't gotten to it yet. ▪ I'll get to the accounts as soon as I can. 2 get to (someone) a : to bother or annoy (someone) ▪ All these delays are starting to get to me. — see also GET 26a (above) b : to make (someone) feel sad ▪ The movie's sad ending really got to me. — see also GET 26b (above) c chiefly US : to change or influence the behavior of (someone) wrongly or illegally by making threats, paying money, etc. ▪ The witness changed his story. Someone must have gotten to him. 3 get to (somewhere) : to go to or reach (somewhere) ▪ We got to the station/airport just in time.

get together [phrasal verb] 1 a : to meet and spend time together ▪ I'd like to get together with you soon. ▪ He often gets together with his friends after work. b : to begin to have a sexual or romantic relationship ▪ He and his wife first got together in college. c get (people) together : to cause (people) to meet or to have a relationship ▪ Their shared interest in photography is what got them together. 2 : to agree to do or accept something — often + on ▪ The two sides have been unable to get together on a new contract. 3 get together (things or people) or get (things or people) together : to collect (things) or gather (people) into one place or group ▪ He got together [=assembled] a great art collection. ▪ The government got together a group of experts to study the problem. ▪ We're still trying to get together [=obtain] the money we need to buy a new car. 4 get your act together or get yourself together or get it together informal a or get your life together : to begin to live in a good and sensible way : to stop being confused, foolish, etc. ▪ His life got much better when he stopped drinking and got his act together. b : to begin to function in a skillful or effective way ▪ The company finally got its act together and started making a profit this year.

get to sleep : to start sleeping : to fall asleep ▪ She finally got to sleep after midnight.

get to work : to start working ▪ We need to stop delaying and get to work.

get up [phrasal verb] 1 get up or get (someone) up : to rise or to cause (someone) to rise after lying or sleeping in a bed ▪ I got up [=got out of bed] early this morning. ▪ I woke up early but I didn't get up till later. ▪ The alarm clock got me up earlier than usual. 2 : to stand up ▪ He got up to greet her when she entered the room. 3 get (something) up or get up (something) a : to produce (something, such as courage) in yourself by trying or making an effort ▪ He couldn't get up the courage to ask her out on a date. ▪ She was so tired she could hardly get up the energy to make dinner. b : to prepare or organize (something that involves a group of people) ▪ They're trying to get up a petition to have the movie theater reopened. 4 get it up slang : to get an erection get up on the wrong side of the bed see ¹BED

get what's coming to you see ¹COME

get wind of see ¹WIND get your bearings see BEARING

get your goat see GOAT

have got see HAVE

get•away /ˈgetəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count]
1 : the act of getting away or escaping ▪ The robbers made a clean getaway. [=escape] ▪ He drove the getaway car [=the car used by criminals to leave the scene of a crime]
2 a : a short vacation ▪ We're planning a weekend getaway to the mountains. b : a place where people go for a short vacation ▪ The resort advertises itself as the perfect island getaway. — see also get away at GET get–go /ˈgɪtˌgoʊ, ˈgetˌgoʊ/ noun

from the get-go US, informal : from the very beginning ▪ She didn't like me from the get-go. ▪ They were involved in the project from the get-go.

get•out /ˈgetˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] Brit, informal : an excuse that lets you avoid doing something (such as a duty) ▪ Is there no getout I can use to avoid attending the meeting? — see also ALL GET-OUT, get out 6 at GET get–to•geth•er /ˈgɛttəˌgɛðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an informal social gathering ▪ There is a family get-together this weekend. ▪ She's hosting a get-together for her classmates.

get•ter /ˈgɛtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : someone or something that receives, gets, or is given something ▪ the top vote getter [=the person who receives the most votes] ▪ a real attention getter

get•up /ˈgɛtˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : an unusual outfit or costume ▪ He came onstage in a cowboy getup. ▪ a guy in a crazy getup get–up–and–go /ˌgɛtˌʌpənˈgoʊ/ noun [noncount] informal : energy and enthusiasm ▪ full of get-up-and-go ▪ I'm not as young as I used to be, but I still have plenty of get-up-and-go.

gew•gaw /ˈguːˌgɑː/ noun, pl -gaws [count] : a small thing that has little value ▪ collectible/childish gewgaws [=trinkets]

gey•ser /ˈgaɪˌzɚ, Brit ˈgiːzə/ noun, pl -sers [count]
1 : a hole in the ground that shoots out hot water and steam ▪ The water from the geyser rises as high as 75 feet.; also : the column of water and steam that comes from a geyser ▪ geysers rising as high as 75 feet ▪ The water shot into the sky in an enormous geyser.
2 Brit : a device for heating water in a bathroom or kitchen

ghast•ly /ˈgæstli, Brit ˈgɑːstli/ adj ghast•li•er; -est
1 : very shocking or horrible ▪ a ghastly [=gruesome, hideous] crime/ritual ▪ Her behavior was truly ghastly. [=dreadful, appalling]
2 : very bad : TERRIBLE, AWFUL ▪ You're making a ghastly mistake. ▪ His room was a ghastly mess. ▪ I feel ghastly. [=I feel very unwell]
– ghast•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the ghastliness of the crime – ghastly adv ▪ Her face was ghastly [=ghostly] pale/white.

gher•kin /ˈgɚkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] : a small cucumber that is used to make pickles

ghet•to /ˈgɛtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos also -toes [count]
1 : a part of a city in which members of a particular group or race live usually in poor conditions ▪ a Jewish ghetto
2 : the poorest part of a city ▪ He grew up in the ghetto. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The program has been banished to the ghetto of late-night television.

ghetto blaster noun, pl ~ -ers [count] informal : BOOM BOX

ghet•to•ize also Brit ghet•to•ise /ˈgɛtoʊˌaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to place (someone or something) in a ghetto ▪ ghettoized minorities — often used figuratively ▪ a program ghettoized to late-night television
2 : to turn (something) into a ghetto ▪ Parts of the city that had been ghettoized are now being restored.

¹ghost /ˈgoʊst/ noun, pl ghosts
1 [count] : the soul of a dead person thought of as living in an unseen world or as appearing to living people ▪ a house haunted by ghosts ▪ He looks like he's just seen a ghost. [=he looks frightened] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She is still haunted by the ghosts of her past. [=she is still troubled by bad memories of the past]
2 [singular] : a very small amount or trace — usually + of ▪ I thought I detected the ghost of a smile [=a very faint smile] on her lips. ▪ He doesn't have/stand a ghost of a chance of winning. [=he has no chance of winning] give up the ghost informal : to die — often used figuratively ▪ After years of service my car finally gave up the ghost.

²ghost verb ghosts; ghost•ed; ghost•ing [+ obj] : GHOSTWRITE ▪ She ghosted the mayor's autobiography.

ghost•ly /ˈgoʊstli/ adj ghost•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : of or relating to a ghost ▪ A ghostly figure appears in the house at night. : suggesting a ghost ▪ a ghostly fog ▪ leading a ghostly existence ▪ a ghostly white gown – ghost•li•ness noun [noncount] – ghostly adv ▪ Her face was ghostly pale/white.

ghost story noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a frightening story about ghosts ghost town noun, pl ~ towns [count] : a town that no longer has any people living in it : an abandoned town ▪ After all the gold was mined, the place became a ghost town.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

ghost•write /ˈgoʊstˌraɪt/ verb -writes; -wrote /-ˌroʊt/; -writ•ten /-ˌrɪtn̩/; -writ•ing [+ obj] : to write (something, such as a book) for someone else using that person's name ▪ She was hired to ghostwrite the mayor's autobiography. ▪ ghostwritten books/articles
– ghost•writ•er noun, pl -ers [count]

ghoul /ˈguːl/ noun, pl ghouls [count] : an evil creature in frightening stories that robs graves and eats dead bodies
– ghoul•ish /ˈguːlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a ghoulish [=fiendish] laugh ▪ He took a ghoulish [=sinister] delight in their troubles. – ghoul•ish•ly adv ▪ laughing ghoulishly – ghoul•ish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the ghoulishness of his laughter

GI /ˌʤiːˈaɪ/ noun, pl GI's or GIs [count] : a member or former member of the U.S. armed forces — often used before another noun ▪ GI bill/rations

[1]gi•ant /ˈʤajənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large : much larger or more powerful than normal ▪ a giant photograph/machine/wrestler ▪ a giant corporation ▪ a giant-size box of detergent

[2]giant noun, pl -ants [count]
1 : a legendary creature usually thought of as being an extremely large and powerful person ▪ the land of the giants
2 : a person or thing that is very large, powerful, or successful ▪ a big baby who grew up to be a giant of a man [=a very large man] ▪ The company has become a giant of the automotive industry. [=it has become very large and successful] ▪ an American literary giant

giant panda noun, pl ~ -das [count] : PANDA 1

giant sequoia noun, pl ~ -quoias [count] : a very tall evergreen tree that grows in the western U.S. — called also sequoia

giant squid noun, pl ~ squid or ~ squids [count] : a very large type of squid giant tortoise noun, pl ~ -toises [count] : a large plant-eating tortoise ✧ Giant tortoises were once common on islands in the Pacific and Indian oceans, but they are now rare.

gib•ber /ˈʤɪbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [no obj] : to talk in a fast or foolish way ▪ What are they gibbering about now? ▪ Calm down! You sound like a gibbering idiot!

gib•ber•ish /ˈʤɪbərɪʃ/ noun [noncount] : foolish, confused, or meaningless words ▪ His lecture seemed like nothing but gibberish. [=nonsense] ▪ She was talking gibberish in her sleep.

gib•bon /ˈgɪbən/ noun, pl -bons [count] : a small ape of southeastern Asia that has long arms and legs and lives mostly in trees — see picture at APE

gibe or jibe /ˈʤaɪb/ noun, pl gibes or jibes [count] : an insulting or critical remark that is meant to hurt someone or make someone appear foolish ▪ The other children made cruel gibes about her weight. ▪ He used his speech as an opportunity to take/make gibes at his political opponents.

gib•let /ˈʤɪblət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : an organ (such as the heart or liver) of a bird that is cooked and eaten as food — usually plural ▪ gravy with giblets

gid•dy /ˈgɪdi/ adj gid•di•er; -est
1 : playful and silly ▪ giddy children ▪ giddy antics ▪ a giddy atmosphere
2 : feeling or showing great happiness and joy ▪ The news made him positively giddy. ▪ He was giddy with delight. ▪ The room was filled with giddy laughter.
3 always used before a noun : causing dizziness ▪ giddy heights ▪ giddy panoramic views — often used figuratively ▪ Her second book lifted her to giddy heights of literary fame. [=made her extremely famous]
– gid•di•ly /ˈgɪdəli/ adv ▪ He was talking giddily [=excitedly] about his business plan. – gid•di•ness /ˈgɪdinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ youthful giddiness [=silliness, lightheartedness]

[1]gift /ˈgɪft/ noun, pl gifts [count]
1 : something that is given to another person or to a group or organization ▪ The money was a gift, not a loan. ▪ a birthday/Christmas/anniversary/wedding gift [=present] ▪ We always exchange gifts [=we give each other gifts] on our anniversary. ▪ a generous/lavish/small gift ▪ a charitable gift [=something, such as money, that is given to a charity]
2 : a special ability ▪ She considers her voice a God-given gift. ▪ He's an athlete with many physical gifts. [=talents] — often + for ▪ He has a gift for expressing himself. ▪ a gift for playing the piano ▪ an actor with a gift for comedy — sometimes + of ▪ She claimed to have the gift of prophecy.
God's gift informal + disapproving — used to describe the attitude of people who think that they are very talented, attractive, etc. ▪ He thinks he's God's gift to the world. [=he thinks very highly of himself; he is very vain or conceited] look a gift horse in the mouth see [1]HORSE
the gift of gab see [2]GAB

[2]gift verb gifts; gift•ed; gift•ing [+ obj] : to present (someone) with a gift ▪ The foundation has gifted the museum with an important collection of paintings. [=(more commonly) the foundation has given the museum an important collection of paintings] — see also GIFTED gift certi cate noun, pl ~ -cates [count] US : a piece of paper that is worth a certain amount of money and is given to someone to be used like money to pay for things (such as the products or services of a particular business) ▪ a $10 gift certificate — called also (Brit) gift token, (Brit) gift voucher

gift•ed /ˈgɪftəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having great natural ability : TALENTED ▪ He's an extremely gifted student/athlete. ▪ a school for gifted children gifted with ✧ To be gifted with something is to have it as a special ability or quality. ▪ She is gifted with a talent for playing the piano. ▪ He is gifted with a good sense of humor.

gift shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] : a store (such as a small store in a museum) that sells things which might be given people as gifts

[1]gift wrap noun [noncount] : decorative paper that is used for wrapping gifts ▪ a roll of gift wrap

[2]gift wrap verb ~ wraps; ~ wrapped; ~ wrapping [+ obj] : to wrap (a gift) in decorative paper ▪ The store will gift wrap your purchases for you.
– gift–wrapped adj ▪ a gift-wrapped box ▪ a gift-wrapped bottle of wine

[1]gig /ˈgɪg/ noun, pl gigs [count] informal : a job for a musician, an actor, etc. ▪ He was finally able to book a gig [=to arrange a performance or series of performances] at the nightclub. ▪ a talk-show gig ▪ her last acting gig; broadly, US : JOB ▪ I have a part-time job, but I really need a full-time gig.

[2]gig verb gigs; gigged; gig•ging [no obj] informal : to work as a musician ▪ He gigged in a band during the summer.

giga•byte /ˈgɪgəˌbaɪt/ noun, pl -bytes [count] : a unit of computer information equal to 1,073,741,824 bytes ▪ a six-gigabyte hard drive — abbr. GB; compare KILOBYTE, MEGABYTE gi•gan•tic /ʤaɪˈgæntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely large ▪ Gigantic [=huge, monstrous] waves were crashing on the beach. ▪ a gigantic [=immense, enormous] corporation ▪ He made a gigantic [=huge] mistake when he quit his job.

gig•gle /ˈgɪgəl/ verb gig•gles; gig•gled; gig•gling [no obj] : to laugh in a nervous or childlike way ▪ She giggled like a little kid. ▪ We were all joking and giggling nervously as we waited for the ceremony to begin.
– giggle noun, pl giggles [count] ▪ trying to suppress a giggle ▪ I had an attack of the giggles. [=I was unable to stop giggling] ▪ (Brit) Going to the circus would be a bit of a giggle. [=would be amusing or enjoyable] – gig•gly /ˈgɪgəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ giggly children ▪ a giggly laugh gig•o•lo /ˈʤɪgəˌloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count] : a man who is paid by a woman to be her lover and companion

Gi•la monster /ˈhiːlə-/ noun, pl ~ -sters [count] : a large orange and black poisonous lizard of the southwestern U.S.

gild /ˈgɪld/ verb gilds; gild•ed /ˈgɪldəd/ or gilt /ˈgɪlt/; gild•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) with a thin layer of gold ▪ gild a statue gild the lily : to add decoration to something that is already beautiful : to try to improve something that does not need to be improved ▪ Putting ice cream on this delicious cake is just gilding the lily.
– gilded adj ▪ a gilded sculpture/mask/design ✧ A gilded age is a time of great success and wealth. The capitalized form Gilded Age is used when referring specifically to a period from about 1870–90 in American history. ▪ a novel about life in New York during the Gilded Age ✧ Gilded youth are wealthy young people who enjoy many things that other people do not have. – gild•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a gilder's workshop

[1]gill /ˈgɪl/ noun, pl gills [count] : the body part that a fish uses for breathing
to the gills informal 1 : as full as possible ▪ The car was packed to the gills for our vacation. 2 : very thoroughly or completely ▪ I'm fed up to the gills with his whining! ▪ a theater equipped to the gills with new sound equipment
– compare [2]GILL

[2]gill /ˈʤɪl/ noun, pl gills [count] : a unit of liquid measure equal to ¼ pint ▪ He measured out one gill. [=(US) four fluid

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

ounces; (Brit) 5 fluid ounces] — compare [1]GILL

[1]gilt /ˈgɪlt/ noun, pl gilts
1 [noncount] : a thin layer of gold or of something like gold ▪ She covered the frame with gilt.
2 [count] Brit : a stock or bond that is considered to be a very safe investment : a gilt-edged security — usually plural ▪ She has/keeps her money in gilts.

[2]gilt adj, always used before a noun
1 : having a golden color ▪ a gilt marble surface ▪ gilt paint
2 : covered with gilt ▪ a gilt plate ▪ gilt buttons

[3]gilt past tense and past participle of GILD

gilt–edged /ˈgɪltˌɛʤd/ adj : having the best quality or rating ▪ gilt-edged securities [=stocks and bonds that are the safest kind of investment]

[1]gim•me /ˈgɪmi/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase give me when it is spoken quickly ▪ Just gimme the money. ✧ The pronunciation represented by gimme is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when trying to represent or record such speech.

[2]gimme noun, pl -mes [count] US, informal : something that is easily done, achieved, won, etc. ▪ (golf) This putt is no gimme. [=this is not an easy putt] ▪ They expected the game to be a gimme. [=they expected to win the game easily] gim•mick /ˈgɪmɪk/ noun, pl -micks [count] often disapproving : a method or trick that is used to get people's attention or to sell something ▪ a marketing gimmick [=ploy] ▪ The proposal to cut taxes was just an election gimmick to win votes.

– gim•micky /ˈgɪmɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a flashy, gimmicky movie with no real substance

gim•mick•ry /ˈgɪmɪkri/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the use of gimmicks ▪ a lot of marketing gimmickry and hype

gimpy /ˈgɪmpi/ adj gimp•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US, informal : having an injury that makes walking difficult or painful ▪ a gimpy football player ▪ a gimpy leg/foot gin /ʤɪn/ noun, pl gins

1 [count, noncount] : a clear alcoholic drink that is flavored with juniper berries
2 [noncount] : GIN RUMMY
– see also COTTON GIN

[1]gin•ger /ˈʤɪnʤɚ/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the strongly flavored root of a tropical plant that is used in cooking b : a spice made from ginger ▪ The recipe calls for a teaspoon of ginger.
2 chiefly Brit : a light reddish or reddish-brown color
– ginger adj, chiefly Brit ▪ The child has ginger [=reddish-brown] hair. – gin•gery /ˈʤɪnʤəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a gingery sauce

[2]ginger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing ginger up [phrasal verb] ginger up (someone or something) or ginger (someone or something) up Brit, informal : to make (someone or something) more exciting or lively ▪ ginger a group up by proposing a new strategy

ginger ale noun, pl ~ ales [count, noncount] : a soft drink that is flavored with ginger gin•ger•bread /ˈʤɪnʤɚˌbrɛd/ noun [noncount] : a cake or cookie made with molasses and ginger — often used before another noun ▪ gingerbread cookies ▪ We made gingerbread men [=gingerbread cookies shaped like people] for the holidays. ▪ a gingerbread house decorated with candy ginger group noun, pl ~ groups [count] Brit : a group that is part of a larger group (such as a political party) and that tries to make other members accept and support their ideas ▪ a left-wing ginger group within the Labour Party gin•ger•ly /ˈʤɪnʤɚli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : very carefully ▪ She gingerly placed the cake down on the table. ▪ It's a delicate subject, and we need to approach it gingerly.

gin•ger•snap /ˈʤɪnʤɚˌsnæp/ noun, pl -snaps [count] : a hard cookie that is flavored with ginger — called also (Brit) ginger nut

ging•ham /ˈgɪŋəm/ noun [noncount] : a cotton cloth that often is marked with a pattern of colored squares ▪ a red and white gingham tablecloth gin•gi•vi•tis /ˌʤɪnʤəˈvaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which the gums become red, swollen, and sore

gink•go also ging•ko /ˈgɪŋkoʊ/ noun, pl -goes or -gos also -koes or -kos [count] : a large Chinese tree that has fan-shaped leaves ginkgo bi•lo•ba /-ˌbaɪˈloʊbə/ noun [noncount] : a product made from the leaves of the ginkgo tree that is used as a medicine gin rummy noun [noncount] : a card game that is played by two players who are each dealt 10 cards gin•seng /ˈʤɪnˌsɛŋ/ noun [noncount] : a Chinese herb that is used as a medicine

Gipsy variant spelling of GYPSY

gi•raffe /ʤəˈræf, Brit ʤəˈrɑːf/ noun, pl gi•raffes or giraffe [count] : a very tall African animal that has an extremely long neck and legs

giraffe

gird /ˈgɚd/ verb girds; gird•ed /ˈgɚdəd/ also girt /ˈgɚt/; gird•ing : to prepare yourself to fight or to do something difficult — usually + for [no obj] Both sides are girding for battle. [+ obj] Both sides are girding themselves for battle. ▪ The company is girding (up) its loins for what could be a long strike.

gird•er /ˈgɚdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a strong beam used to build buildings, bridges, etc.

[1]gir•dle /ˈgɚdl/ noun, pl gir•dles [count] : something that wraps or circles around something else; specifically : a tight piece of clothing worn especially in the past by women under other clothes to make the area around the waist look thinner

[2]girdle verb girdles; gir•dled; gir•dling [+ obj] formal : to form a circle around (something) or to surround (something) ▪ the rings that girdle the planet Saturn

girl /ˈgɚl/ noun, pl girls
1 [count] a : a female child ▪ It's a girl! = She gave birth to a baby girl. ▪ a nine-year-old girl ▪ Ever since I was a (little/young) girl, I've wanted to travel. b : DAUGHTER ▪ Is this your little girl? ▪ She's our oldest/youngest girl.
2 [count] a : a young woman ▪ a group of teenage girls ▪ a 19-year-old girl ▪ His parents hope he'll soon find a nice girl, settle down, and get married. ▪ When she was younger, she was a real party girl. [=a young woman who enjoys parties] ▪ She's a big star now, but her fans still think of her as the girl next door. [=a wholesome young woman from a middle-class family] b : a usually young woman from a specified kind of place ▪ a city/country girl = a girl from the city/country ▪ a local/hometown girl
3 informal a *the girls : the female friends or work partners of a woman viewed as a group ▪ Wait till the girls back home hear about this! ▪ Our boss thinks of herself as just one of the girls. ▪ She went out dancing with the girls. b [count] : a woman of any age — often used as a friendly way for one woman to address another woman ▪ Girl, you will not believe what just happened to me! c [count] : a woman or girl who does a particular job or activity ▪ a shop girl ▪ They just hired a new girl to do the filing. ✧ The use of girl to refer to an adult woman is often considered offensive, especially when it is used this way by a man. — see also BALL GIRL, CALL GIRL, CHORUS GIRL, COVER GIRL, OFFICE GIRL, PAPERGIRL, POSTER GIRL, SCHOOLGIRL
4 [count] informal + old-fashioned : GIRLFRIEND ▪ I took my girl out to the movies last night.
– girl•hood /ˈgɚlˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ She lost touch with the friends of her girlhood. ▪ her girlhood friends – girl•ish /ˈgɚlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a girlish voice ▪ her girlish figure – girl•ish•ly adv ▪ She smiled girlishly at him. – girl•ish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the girlishness of her voice/figure

girl Friday noun, pl ~ -days [count] informal + old-fashioned : a woman who does many different jobs in an office : a female office assistant girl•friend /ˈgɚlˌfrɛnd/ noun, pl -friends [count]

1 : a woman that someone is having a romantic or sexual relationship with ▪ My girlfriend and I have only been dating for a couple of months. — compare BOYFRIEND
2 : a female friend ▪ She spends hours talking on the phone with her girlfriends.

Girl Guide noun, pl ~ Guides [count] : a member of a worldwide organization for girls ages 7 through 18 that is similar to the Girl Scouts in the United States — called also Guide

girl•ie also girly /ˈgɚli/ adj
1 always used before a noun : featuring attractive young women who are wearing little or no clothing ▪ a girlie show/magazine
2 : having a quality that is considered suitable for girls or

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

women and not suitable for men or boys ▪ She likes to wear girlie pink dresses. ▪ a girlie voice

Girl Scout noun, pl ~ Scouts [count] : a member of a U.S. organization for girls ages 5 through 17 ✧ Girl Scouts participate in group activities, learn skills, and are encouraged to have good morals and be good citizens. — called also Scout; compare BOY SCOUT, BROWNIE, CUB SCOUT, GIRL GUIDE

gi•ro /ˈʤiəˌroʊ, Brit ˈʤajəˌrəʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] Brit : a check paid by the government to someone who is sick or does not have a job

girt past participle of GIRD

girth /ˈgəθ/ noun, pl girths

1 : the size of someone or something measured around the middle [noncount] The tree is about two meters in girth. ▪ a person of large girth [count] a girth of about two meters

2 [count] : a band or strap placed around the body of an animal (such as a horse) to hold something (such as a saddle) on its back

gist /ˈʤɪst/ noun

the gist : the general or basic meaning of something said or written — usually + of ▪ The gist of her argument was that the law was unfair. ▪ I didn't read the whole article, but I got the gist of it. [=I understood the main points of it]

git /ˈgɪt/ noun, pl gits [count] Brit slang : a stupid or worthless person (especially a man) ▪ That git of a brother of yours has ruined everything!

[1]give /ˈgɪv/ verb gives; gave /ˈgeɪv/; giv•en /ˈgɪvən/; giving

1 [+ obj] a : to cause or allow someone to have (something) as a present : to make a present of (something) ▪ She gave him a camera for Christmas. ▪ Someone gave me a present. = Someone gave a present to me. = I was given a present. = A present was given (to) me. ▪ Are you giving this to me or only lending it? b : to cause or allow (something valued or needed) to go to another person, group, etc. : DONATE [+ obj] She has given money to many worthy/good causes. ▪ They're asking people to give money for a new hospital. ▪ give blood [no obj] Please give to our charity. ▪ We already gave at the office. ▪ It is better to give than to receive.

2 [+ obj] : to put (something) into someone's hand ▪ He picked up the letter and gave [=handed] it to me. ▪ He gave me the letter. : to cause someone to hold or possess (something) for a specified reason ▪ He gave me a letter to mail for him. = He gave a letter to me to mail for him. ▪ He gave her his coat to hold.

3 [+ obj] a : to provide someone with (something wanted or needed) ▪ She has given me a lot of help/support/encouragement. [=she has helped/supported/encouraged me a lot] ▪ They gave me a job. [=they hired me] ▪ He gave me a head start. ▪ I'll give you a lift/ride to the station. [=I'll drive you to the station in my car] : to allow someone to have (something wanted or needed) ▪ I know I can do it if you'll just give me a chance. ▪ They gave her another opportunity. ▪ Her boss has given her a lot of responsibility/authority. ▪ They gave him the best room available. ▪ The law gives all citizens the right to vote. = The law gives the right to vote to all citizens. b : to allow someone to have or take (an amount of time) ▪ Just give me a few more minutes and I'll be ready. ▪ The doctor gave him two weeks to pay his bill.

4 [+ obj] a : to treat or regard someone or something with (a particular attitude, feeling, etc.) ▪ She gave her friend her complete confidence. = She gave her complete confidence to her friend. [=she trusted her friend completely] ▪ He gave the company his loyalty. [=he was loyal to the company] ▪ They've worked hard. You should give them some respect. [=you should respect them] b : to direct (something) toward someone ▪ She gave him an angry look. [=she looked at him angrily] ▪ He gave her a smile. [=he smiled at her]

5 [+ obj] a : to tell (information) to someone ▪ Just give me the facts. ▪ They weren't able to give us the information we needed. ▪ The witness was reluctant to give evidence. ▪ He gave his name as "John Smith." [=he said his name was "John Smith"] ▪ The drawing gives [=shows] the dimensions of the room. ▪ The book gives [=provides] a brief history of the industry. b : to express or say (something) to someone ▪ You have no right to give me orders. ▪ They gave him careful instructions on how to proceed. ▪ Give them my regards. = Give my regards to them. ▪ His parents gave him a lecture about the importance of studying. ▪ The coach gave the team a pep talk. ▪ I give you my word [=I swear; I promise], I knew nothing about their plans. ▪ Just give it to me straight. [=just say what you are going to say to me in a direct way] ✧ The informal phrase don't give me that is used in speech to show annoyance when someone tells you something that you do not believe or accept. ▪ "It's not my fault that we're late." "Don't give me that! You were the one who said we didn't have to leave early!" c : to show (something) ▪ a young artist who has given evidence/signs of real talent ▪ She gave (us) no hint/indication that she was upset or worried. d : to offer (something) for consideration or acceptance ▪ He declined to give an opinion. ▪ Can you give an example? ▪ He gave no reason for his absence.

6 [+ obj] : to say that someone has or deserves (something) ▪ He gives the credit for his success to his wife. [=he credits his wife for his success]

7 [+ obj] a : to cause someone to have or experience (something, such as an emotion, a problem, etc.) ▪ My car has been giving [=causing] me a lot of trouble lately. ▪ I like Mexican food, but it gives me indigestion. ▪ a book that gives pleasure to the reader ▪ All that noise is giving me a headache. [=I'm getting a headache from all that noise] ▪ It gave me a shock to see how sick he is. ▪ Her encouragement gave me a lot of self-confidence. [=made me feel very self-confident] b : to cause someone to become affected by (something, such as an illness) ▪ His sister gave him the measles. [=he got/caught the measles from his sister] ▪ Hearing the joke gave him the giggles. [=hearing the joke made him giggle] c : to cause someone or something to have (a quality) ▪ His quiet manner gives him a mysterious air. ▪ The large windows give the room an open feeling. d : to cause something to be affected by (something) ▪ He argues that the tax cuts would give a considerable stimulus/boost to the economy.

8 [+ obj] : to cause someone to get or take (a medicine) ▪ The doctor gave the patient a pill. ▪ The doctor gave him an injection. ▪ The drug is usually given intravenously.

9 [+ obj] a : to present (a show, speech, etc.) in public ▪ give a concert/lecture/talk/speech/reading/performance b : to provide (something) as entertainment or as a social gathering ▪ give [=throw] a party ▪ give a formal dinner

10 [+ obj] : to do (an action) ▪ She gave the door a push. [=she pushed the door] ▪ He gave her a hug. [=he hugged her] ▪ He gave a cynical smile. [=he smiled cynically] ▪ She picked up the package and gave it a shake. [=she shook the package] ▪ The referee gave [=made] the signal to start the game. ▪ The ship gave a sudden lurch. [=the ship lurched suddenly]

11 [+ obj] a : to cause someone to experience or suffer (a form of punishment) ▪ His father gave the boy a whipping. ▪ The judge gave him life (imprisonment) for murder. b : to cause someone to undergo or do (something) ▪ The teacher gave the class a test.

12 ✧ To give something thought/consideration (etc.) is to think about it. ▪ We've given your proposal a lot of thought and careful consideration. [=we've thought about your proposal a lot and considered it carefully]

13 ✧ To give someone a call/ring/buzz/bell is to make a telephone call to someone. ▪ I'll give you a call later.

14 ✧ If you try to do something, you give it a try or (informally) give it a go/shot/stab. ▪ I've never gone skiing before, but I'm willing to give it a try.

15 ✧ If you would give anything or give your right hand/arm to do or to have something, you want to do or have it very much. ▪ I'd give anything to be able to sing like that!

16 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as your hand) available for someone ▪ She gave [=offered] her hand to him to shake/kiss. = She gave him her hand to shake/kiss. [=she held out her hand toward him so that he could shake/kiss it] ▪ She gave him her arm [=she linked her arm in his arm] and they walked together into the room. ✧ When a woman gives her hand in marriage to a man, she marries him. This is a formal and somewhat old-fashioned expression.

17 [+ obj] a : PAY ▪ I wouldn't give a penny for that old bike! ▪ If you have an extra ticket, I'll give you $20 for it. b : SELL ▪ I'm willing to give you the ticket for $20.

18 [+ obj] : to say or judge that someone or something will last for (an amount of time) ▪ The doctor gave him only a few weeks to live. [=the doctor said that he would live for only a few weeks] ▪ Their marriage will never work. I give it/them six months—tops!

19 [+ obj] informal : to admit (something) to or about someone ▪ He made an effort, I'll give him that (much). [=I'll admit that he made an effort] ▪ I don't really like his movies, but he's a talented actor, I'll give you that. [=I admit that he is a talented actor]

20 [+ obj] : to have or produce (something) as a product, result, or effect ▪ medical procedures that give better results ▪ Cows give milk.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

21 [+ obj] formal : to cause someone to believe or think (something) — followed by to + verb ▪ They gave [=led] me to understand that they'd be arriving later. ✧ To give someone an idea/impression (etc.) is to cause someone to believe or think something. ▪ Whatever gave you the idea (that) he loved you?! [=whatever made you think that he loved you?] ▪ I'm sorry if I gave you the wrong impression. [=I'm sorry if I misled you; I'm sorry if you got the wrong impression from me] ▪ I don't know what gave her the notion that she could treat people that way.

22 [no obj] a : to bend because of force, pressure, or strain ▪ The branch gave [=sagged] under his weight, but it didn't break. b : to break because of force, pressure, or strain ▪ The branch suddenly gave [=gave way] under his weight, and he fell to the ground.

23 [no obj] : to stop trying to resist or oppose something : to give in or submit to pressure ▪ Both sides refuse to give [=refuse to accept or agree to the demands of the other side] in this dispute. ▪ For the strike to be settled, something has (got) to give! [=one side or the other has to give in]

24 [+ obj] a — used to indicate a possible or assumed state or condition ▪ Give him his books and his music and he's happy. [=he is happy if he has his books and his music] ▪ (If) Given better conditions, she'd do the work even better. = She'd do the work even better (if) given better conditions. = If she were given better conditions, she'd do the work even better. b — used to say what you want to have or would prefer to have ▪ " . . . give me liberty, or give me death!" [=I would rather die than live without liberty] —Patrick Henry, Speech (1775) ▪ The country's OK—but give me the city any day! [=I prefer the city]

25 [+ obj] informal — used in phrases like give a damn to say that you do not care at all about something ▪ He angrily told her that he didn't give a damn what she did.

give as good as you get informal : to be as forceful in fighting or arguing against others as they are in fighting or arguing against you ▪ She can give as good as she gets in an argument with just about anybody.

give away [phrasal verb] 1 give (something) away or *give away (something) a : to make a present of (something) ▪ For a limited time only our store is giving away [=giving] a free can of soda to each and every one of our customers! ▪ Our prices are so cheap we're practically giving away everything in our store! b : to lose (something) in a careless way ▪ He virtually gave the election away when he made a racist remark. ▪ The pitcher gave the game away by walking four batters in a row. c : to allow (something hidden or secret) to become known ▪ The way she looked at him gave away her real feelings for him. ▪ Please don't give away [=reveal] how the trick is done. — see also GIVEAWAY, GIVEAWAY PRICE, give the game away at [1]GAME 2 give (someone) away also *give away (someone) a : to bring (the bride) to the groom at a wedding ▪ Traditionally, it's the father of the bride who gives his daughter away at the wedding. b : to reveal the truth about (someone) ▪ His fellow conspirators gave him away to the police. [=they betrayed him to the police] ▪ His accent gave him away as a northerner. [=his accent showed that he was a northerner]

give back [phrasal verb] give (something) back* or *give back (something) : to cause someone to have (something) again : to return or restore (something) to someone ▪ He gave back the money he found to the person who'd lost it. ▪ Her encouragement helped to give me back my self-confidence. [=her encouragement helped me to get my self-confidence back] ▪ They agreed to give him his old job back. — see also GIVEBACK

give birth see BIRTH

give chase see [1]CHASE

give ground see [1]GROUND

give in [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop trying to fight or resist something : to agree to do or accept something that you have been resisting or opposing ▪ The strike has been going on for weeks, and neither side seems willing to give in. — often + to ▪ He refused to give in to their demands. [=he refused to do what they demanded that he do] 2 give (something) in or *give in (something) Brit : to give (something) to a person who has authority to review or accept it ▪ give in [=(US) hand in] an assignment give it a rest, give (something) a rest see [2]REST

give me a break, give (someone) a break see [2]BREAK

give of [phrasal verb] give of yourself* or *give of your time formal : to use your time and effort to help others ▪ They freely gave of their time when their help was needed.

give off [phrasal verb] give off (something) : to send (light, energy, etc.) out from a source ▪ The telescope can detect light given off [=emitted] by distant galaxies. ▪ The garbage gave off an unpleasant smell. ▪ The chimneys gave off thick, black smoke.

give on to also give onto [phrasal verb] give on to (something) also give onto (something) Brit : to provide a view of or a passage to (something) ▪ The door gives directly on to the garden. ▪ The rooms give onto a hall.

give or take — used to indicate that the stated amount is approximate and might be increased or decreased by a specified amount ▪ He ran a mile, give or take a few yards. ▪ The movie lasted three hours, give or take a few minutes either way. ▪ (informal) He ran a mile, give or take. [=he ran about a mile] give out [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop working ▪ The plane's engine sputtered and gave out, forcing an emergency landing. ▪ His voice gave out. [=he was unable to talk] ▪ His courage finally gave out. [=he lost his courage] 2 : to become used up ▪ Our supply of fuel had almost given out [=run out] entirely. 3 *give out (something) : to produce (noise, light, etc.) ▪ The brakes gave out a loud squeal. ▪ The woodstove gives out a lot of heat. 4 give (something) out or *give out (something) : to give (something) to many people : to hand out (something) ▪ They gave out copies of the newsletter. ▪ He's always giving out unwanted advice.

give over [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to stop doing something that is annoying or unpleasant ▪ Oh, give over! I'm tired of your complaints! — often + -ing verb ▪ They eventually gave over bothering me [=stopped bothering me] and let me alone.

give over to [phrasal verb] give (something) over to (someone) 1 : to give (something) to (someone) to have, use, do, etc. ▪ She has given most of her work over to her assistant. 2 *give (yourself) over to (something) : to allow (yourself) to be fully affected by, controlled by, or involved in (something) ▪ He gave himself over to despair. [=he was overcome by despair] ▪ She gave herself over completely to her work. [=she devoted all of her attention and energy to her work] 3 ✧ Something that is given over to a specified purpose is used for that purpose. ▪ One of the upstairs rooms is given over to storage. ▪ Much of her time recently has been given over to researching her family history.

give place to see [1]PLACE

give rise to see [2]RISE

give up [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop an activity or effort : to admit that you cannot do something and stop trying : QUIT ▪ He vowed that he would never give up. ▪ I give up! I don't know what more I can do to please my girlfriend! ▪ "How many prime numbers are there between 1 and 100? Well, do you give up?" "OK, I give up!" 2 give (something) up or *give up (something) a : to stop having, doing, or using (something) ▪ He was forced to give up his job. ▪ She refused to give up trying. ▪ My doctor urged me to give up smoking/cigarettes. ▪ Rescuers have not yet given up hope that more survivors will be found. ▪ He gave up his seat to an elderly woman. [=he got out of his seat so that an elderly woman could sit there] b : to stop trying to do (something) ▪ We did our best to repair the engine, but in the end we had to give it up as impossible. c sports : to allow (a score, a hit, etc.) by an opposing team or player ▪ The defense gave up two touchdowns in the first quarter. ▪ The pitcher didn't give up a hit till the ninth inning. 3 *give (yourself) up : to surrender (yourself) as a prisoner ▪ The fugitive eventually gave himself up (to the police/authorities). 4 *give (someone) up a : to stop trying to improve the condition of (someone) because it seems hopeless ▪ The teacher gave him up as a hopeless case. ▪ The doctors gave him up for dead. [=the doctors said that he was certain to die] b : to stop having hope of seeing (someone) ▪ We'd given you up (for lost) hours ago! 5 *give (yourself) up to (something) : to allow (yourself) to be fully affected by, controlled by, or involved in (something) ▪ He gave himself up to despair. ▪ She gave herself up completely to her work. 6 *give up on (someone) a : to stop trying to improve the condition of (someone) ▪ He has gotten in trouble many times, but his parents have never given up on him. ▪ Please don't give up on me. I promise I'll do better. b : to stop having hope of seeing (someone) ▪ We'd given up on you hours ago! 7 *give up on (something) : to stop trying to do or achieve (something) ▪ They have given up on their plan to build a new factory. ▪ She hasn't given up on trying to convince her husband to buy a new car.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

give up the ghost see [1]GHOST

give way see [1]WAY

What gives? informal — used to ask the reason for something ▪ You've been acting weird all week. What gives? [=why are you acting weird?]

[2]give noun [noncount] : the ability of a material to bend or stretch ▪ This fabric has a lot of give. [=this fabric is very flexible]

give–and–take /ˌgɪvənˈteɪk/ noun [noncount]
1 : the process by which people reach an agreement with each other by giving up something that was wanted and agreeing to some of the things wanted by the other person ▪ A successful marriage requires a lot of give-and-take between husband and wife.
2 US : the act or process of exchanging ideas or comments ▪ She enjoys a lot of friendly give-and-take with her customers.

give•away /ˈgɪvəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways
1 [singular] : something (such as a movement or a facial expression) that clearly shows the truth or existence of something that had not been known ▪ The way she looked at him was a dead giveaway that they were more than just friends.
2 [count] a : something that is given away free ▪ The store is offering coffee mugs as free giveaways to attract new customers. b : an event at which things are given away ▪ The store is staging a promotional giveaway to attract new customers. — see also give away at [1]GIVE giveaway price noun, pl ~ prices [count] : a very low price ▪ We're selling everything in our store at low, low giveaway prices.

give•back /ˈgɪvˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] US, business : a previous gain (such as increased wages or benefits) that is given back to a company by workers as part of an agreement ▪ The union had to agree to certain givebacks in order to save the jobs of all its members. — see also give back at [1]GIVE

[1]given /ˈgɪvən/ adj — used to refer to a particular time, place, etc., that has been, will be, or might be specified ▪ You'll have to finish the exam within a given (amount of) time. ▪ They agreed to meet again at a given location. ▪ Climate has a great effect on the types of plants found in any given area. ▪ You never know what might happen on any given night.

given to — used to say that a person often behaves in a specified way ▪ a man (very) much given to swearing/profanity [=a man who swears often] ▪ She is given to behaving selfishly. = She is given to selfishness.

take (something) as given : to regard or accept (something) as true or real ▪ I think we can take their support as given. = I think we can take (it) as given that they will support us. [=I think we can assume that they will support us]

[2]given noun, pl -ens [count] : something that is regarded or accepted as true or real : a basic fact or assumption ▪ In our system it is a given that all are equal before the law. ▪ I think we can take (it) as a given that they will support us.

[3]given prep — used to indicate something that is being assumed or considered ▪ Given the bad conditions under which the work was done, she has done it very well. = Given the fact that the work was done under bad conditions, she has done it very well. ▪ Given a value of 5 for x, what is 2x? — often used in the phrase given that ▪ Even given that the house is not in perfect condition, it's still a great buy!

given name noun, pl ~ names [count] US : FIRST NAME

giv•er /ˈgɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who gives something to another person ▪ a giver of orders ▪ a giver of unwanted advice — often used in combination ▪ caregivers

giz•mo /ˈgɪzˌmoʊ/ noun, pl -mos [count] informal : a usually small mechanical or electronic device : GADGET ▪ He broke the gizmo he uses to open and close his garage door.

giz•zard /ˈgɪzəd/ noun, pl -zards [count] : a part in the stomach of a bird in which food is broken down into small pieces

gla•cial /ˈgleɪʃəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to glaciers ▪ glacial flow/ice : produced or caused by glaciers ▪ a glacial lake ▪ glacial erosion
2 [more ~; most ~] : very cold : FRIGID ▪ a glacial wind — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a glacial stare
3 [more ~; most ~] : very slow ▪ Progress on the bill has been glacial. ▪ a glacial pace
– gla•cial•ly adv ▪ glacially slow progress

gla•cier /ˈgleɪʃɚ, Brit ˈglæsiə/ noun, pl -ciers [count] : a very large area of ice that moves slowly down a slope or valley or over a wide area of land glad /ˈglæd/ adj glad•der; -dest [also more ~; most ~]

1 not used before a noun : feeling pleasure, joy, or delight ▪ We're glad [=happy] that he won. ▪ We're glad you could come. ▪ I'm glad (that) things turned out so well. = I'm glad about how things turned out. — sometimes + of ▪ She was glad of [=grateful for] the help her brother provided. — sometimes + for ▪ I'm glad for the chance to help. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ I'm so glad to see you! ▪ I'm glad to have the chance to help.
2 not used before a noun : very willing to do something ▪ I'll be glad to answer any questions you may have. ▪ I'd be (only too) glad to lend you the money.
3 always used before a noun, old-fashioned : causing happiness and joy : PLEASANT ▪ The mail brought glad news/tidings from our friends in England. ▪ We've been through some sad times and some glad times.
– glad•ly adv ▪ I'll gladly answer any questions you may have. ▪ "Will you take questions from the audience?" "Gladly!" – glad•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The news of their wedding fills my heart with gladness.

glad•den /ˈglædn/ verb -dens; -dened; -den•ing [+ obj] old-fashioned : to make (someone) glad ▪ We were gladdened by the news. = It gladdened us to hear the news. ▪ Her news will gladden the hearts of her family and friends. [=will make her family and friends happy]

glade /ˈgleɪd/ noun, pl glades [count] : a grassy open space in a forest glad–hand /ˈglædˌhænd/ verb -hands; -hand•ed; -hand•ing [+ obj] : to give a friendly welcome or greeting to (people) as a way of getting approval ▪ politicians glad-handing voters glad•i•a•tor /ˈglædiˌeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a man in ancient Rome who fought against another man or animal for public entertainment – glad•i•a•to•ri•al /ˌglædijəˈtorijəl/ adj ▪ gladiatorial combat glad•i•o•lus /ˌglædiˈoʊləs/ noun, pl glad•i•o•li /ˌglædiˈoʊli/ or glad•i•o•lus•es or US gladiolus [count] : a plant with long, stiff leaves and brightly colored flowers glad rags noun [plural] chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a person's best clothes ▪ He put on his glad rags to go to the party.

glam /ˈglæm/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : GLAMOROUS ▪ glam celebrities

glam•or•ize also Brit glam•or•ise /ˈglæməˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) seem exciting and attractive ▪ The movie was criticized for glamorizing crime and violence. ▪ a novel that glamorizes war glam•or•ous /ˈglæmərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very exciting and attractive : full of glamour ▪ She looked glamorous in her formal black gown. ▪ She wore a glamorous black gown. ▪ glamorous movie stars ▪ A private investigator's job isn't as glamorous as people think.

– glam•or•ous•ly adv

glam•our also US glam•or /ˈglæmə/ noun [noncount] : a very exciting and attractive quality ▪ She left her hometown, attracted to the glamour of the big city. ▪ an acting career filled with glitz and glamour ▪ the glamour of the movie business ▪ She's a serious actress and not just another glamour girl. [=a beautiful woman who wears sexy and attractive clothing and makeup] ▪ He's one of the glamour boys of the football league. [=he's a very popular and attractive player who gets a lot of attention]

glam•our–puss /ˈglæməˌpʊs/ noun, pl -puss•es [count] informal + disapproving : a person (especially a woman) who is very attractive but not talented, smart, serious, etc. ▪ a self-absorbed glamour-puss ▪ a glamour-puss celebrity

[1]glance /ˈglæns, Brit ˈglɑːns/ verb glanc•es; glanced; glanc•ing [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to look at someone or something very quickly ▪ Glancing down, she noticed her shoe was untied. ▪ I glanced at my watch. ▪ He sat quietly, glancing through a magazine. ▪ She glanced up from her book when he entered the room.
2 : to hit something and bounce off at an angle — usually + off ▪ The arrow glanced off the shield. ▪ Sunlight glanced off the surface of the pond.
– glanc•ing /ˈglænsɪŋ, Brit ˈglɑːnsɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ A rock struck the windshield with a glancing blow. [=a rock glanced off the windshield]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

[2]glance noun, pl glances [count] : a quick look ▪ They exchanged glances. [=looked at each other quickly] ▪ He gave me a quick/passing glance over his shoulder. ▪ I took/had a glance at the newspaper this morning. ▪ He stole/darted a glance at her [=he looked at her quickly] as she walked by.
at a glance : with a quick look ▪ She was able to identify the problem at a glance.
at first glance see [1]FIRST gland /ˈglænd/ noun, pl glands [count] : an organ in the body that makes a substance (such as saliva, sweat, or bile) which is used by the body ▪ sweat glands ▪ the pituitary gland

glan•du•lar /ˈglændʒələ/ adj : of or relating to glands ▪ glandular activity/cancer

glandular fever noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, medical : MONONUCLEOSIS

[1]glare /ˈgleə/ verb glares; glared; glar•ing [no obj]
1 : to shine with a harsh, bright light ▪ The sun glared down relentlessly. ▪ The white snow glared in the morning sunlight.
2 : to look directly at someone in an angry way ▪ The teacher glared at him as he walked in late. synonyms see [1]GAZE

[2]glare noun, pl glares
1 : a harsh, bright light [singular] There was a glare coming off the water. [noncount] I was blinded by the glare of the approaching headlights. ▪ I shielded my eyes from/against the glare of the sun. ▪ The car's headlights are designed to cut down on glare. — sometimes used figuratively to suggest the idea of a very bright light shining on someone who is being given a lot of public attention ▪ He grew tired of living in the glare of the television cameras. ▪ After the success of her first film, she could not escape the glare of publicity.
2 [count] : an angry look ▪ She responded to the reporters' questions with an angry/icy glare.

glaring /ˈglerɪŋ/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very obvious or noticeable ▪ a glaring mistake/error/omission ▪ a glaring example of racism
2 : shining with a harsh, bright light ▪ the glaring noonday sun
3 : having a look of anger ▪ glaring eyes
– glar•ing•ly adv ▪ a glaringly obvious mistake

[1]glass /ˈglæs, Brit ˈglɑːs/ noun, pl glass•es
1 [noncount] : a hard usually transparent material that is used for making windows and other products ▪ He broke the glass. — often used before another noun ▪ a glass bowl/bottle — see also PLATE GLASS, STAINED GLASS
2 [count] a : a drinking container made out of glass ▪ The waiter filled our glasses with water. ▪ an elegant wine glass ✧ The expression raise a glass or raise your glasses is used to tell people to hold up their glasses and drink a toast as a way to wish someone happiness, success, etc. b : the amount held by a glass container ▪ She drank two glasses of water.
3 glasses [plural] : a pair of glass or plastic lenses set into a frame and worn over the eyes to help a person see ▪ I have to wear glasses [=spectacles, (US) eyeglasses] for reading. = I have to wear reading glasses. ▪ She was wearing dark glasses with thick black frames. ▪ horn-rimmed glasses — see also FIELD GLASSES, MAGNIFYING GLASS, OPERA GLASSES people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones — used to say that people who have faults should not criticize other people for having the same faults under glass : in a glass container ▪ Most of the articles in the museum are preserved under glass.
– see also HOURGLASS, LOOKING GLASS
– glass•ful /ˈglæsˌfʊł, Brit ˈglɑsˌfʊł/ noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ had another glassful [=more commonly, glass] of beer

[2]glass verb glasses; glassed; glass•ing [+ obj] : to fit, protect, or enclose (something) with glass — usually + in ▪ The porch is glassed in.

glass•blow•ing /ˈglæsˌblowɪŋ, Brit ˈglɑːsˌbləwɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the art of shaping a piece of hot, melted glass by blowing air into it through a tube
– glass•blow•er /ˈglæsˌblowə, Brit ˈglɑːsˌbləwə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

glass ceiling noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : an unfair system or set of attitudes that prevents some people (such as women or people of a certain race) from getting the most powerful jobs — usually singular ▪ women executives trying to break through the glass ceiling glass•mak•er /ˈglæsˌmeɪkə, Brit ˈglɑːsˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who makes glass glass•ware /ˈglæsˌweə, Brit ˈglɑːsˌwɛə/ noun [noncount] : things made of glass ▪ a cabinet that holds glassware

glassy /ˈglæsi, Brit ˈglɑːsi/ adj glass•i•er; -est
1 : smooth and shiny : resembling glass ▪ the glassy surface of the lake ▪ a hard, glassy substance
2 : not shiny or bright : dull and lifeless ▪ glassy eyes ▪ He was gazing out the window with a glassy stare.

glau•co•ma /glɑʊˈkoʊmə, glɑˈkoʊmə/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which pressure inside the eye causes gradual loss of vision

[1]glaze /ˈgleɪz/ verb glaz•es; glazed; glaz•ing
1 [+ obj] : to give a smooth and shiny coating to (something) ▪ The storm glazed the trees with ice. ▪ Glaze the tart with melted jam. ▪ glazed ceramic pots ▪ a glazed doughnut [=a doughnut with a smooth, sugary coating]
2 [no obj] : to become dull and lifeless — usually + over ▪ His eyes glazed over [=he began to look very bored and tired] as the speech droned on.

[2]glaze noun, pl glazes : a liquid mixture that is put on the surface of something and that becomes shiny and smooth when it is dry [count] The pot is covered with a bright red glaze. ▪ doughnuts with a chocolate glaze [noncount] The pot needs more glaze.

gla•zier /ˈgleɪʒə, Brit ˈgleɪziə/ noun, pl -ziers [count] : a person who puts glass in window frames

[1]gleam /ˈgliːm/ noun, pl gleams
1 [count] : a small, bright light ▪ He saw the gleam of a flashlight in the distance.
2 [singular] : a bright or shining quality ▪ the rich gleam of the polished wood
3 [count] : a small amount or sign of something ▪ a gleam [=glimmer] of hope
4 [count] : a small amount of emotion (such as happiness or excitement) that can be seen in someone's eyes ▪ Her father had a gleam in his eyes as he told the story.

[2]gleam verb gleams; gleamed; gleam•ing [no obj] : to shine brightly ▪ The sun gleamed on the water. ▪ His eyes were gleaming with delight.

glean /ˈgliːn/ verb gleans; gleaned; glean•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to gather or collect (something) in a gradual way ▪ She gleaned her data from various studies. ▪ He has a collection of antique tools gleaned from flea markets and garage sales. b : to search (something) carefully ▪ They spent days gleaning the files for information.
2 : to gather grain or other material that is left after the main crop has been gathered [no obj] They spent hours gleaning in the wheat fields. [+ obj] gleaning stray ears of corn ▪ gleaning a vineyard
– glean•er noun, pl -ers [count]

glean•ings /ˈgliːnɪŋz/ noun [plural] : information, grain, etc., that is gathered ▪ the gleanings of long hours of research glee /ˈgliː/ noun [noncount] : a strong feeling of happiness : great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ They were dancing with/in glee. ▪ He could hardly contain his glee over his victory.

– glee•ful /ˈgliːfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a gleeful smile
– glee•ful•ly /ˈgliːfəli/ adv ▪ smiling gleefully glee club noun, pl ~ clubs [count] : a group of people who sing together especially as a social activity in a school or college

glen /ˈglɛn/ noun, pl glens [count] : a narrow valley

glib /ˈglɪb/ adj glib•ber; -best [also more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : said or done too easily or carelessly : showing little preparation or thought ▪ Politicians need to do more than provide glib answers to difficult questions. ▪ glib generalizations ▪ the actor's glib portrayal of a drug addict
2 : speaking in a smooth, easy way that is not sincere ▪ glib politicians – glib•ly adv ▪ He talks glibly of returning to school, but I know he doesn't have the discipline. – glib•ness noun [noncount]

glide /ˈglaɪd/ verb glides; glid•ed; glid•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move in a smooth way ▪ The swans glided over the surface of the lake. ▪ We watched the skiers glide down the slope.
2 of an airplane : to fly without engine power [no obj] The pilot/plane glided to a safe landing after the engine failed. [+ obj] The pilot glided the plane to a safe landing.
– glide noun [singular] ▪ the graceful glide of the swan ▪ The plane went into a glide.

glid•er /ˈglaɪdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : an aircraft that is similar to an airplane but without an engine — compare HANG GLIDER

[1]glim•mer /ˈglɪmə/ noun, pl -mers [count]
1 : a weak, unsteady light ▪ the glimmer of a distant star

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

2 a : a faint idea or suggestion of something ▪ Their first meeting with the new boss gave them a glimmer of what they could expect. b : a small amount or sign of something ▪ a glimmer of light ▪ a glimmer of hope ▪ I saw a glimmer [=glint] of recognition in her eyes.

²glimmer verb -mers; -mered; -mer·ing [no obj] : to shine in a weak, faint, or unsteady way ▪ Candles glimmered in the windows of the inn. ▪ Moonlight glimmered on the pond. ▪ glimmering light

glim·mer·ing /ˈglɪmərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : GLIMMER ▪ a faint glimmering of light ▪ glimmerings of hope ¹glimpse /ˈglɪmps/ verb glimps·es; glimpsed; glimps·ing [+ obj] : to look at or see (something or someone) for a very short time ▪ We glimpsed him through the window as his car sped past. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The book allows us to glimpse the future of the computer industry.

²glimpse noun, pl glimpses [count] : a brief or quick view or look ▪ We caught/got/had a glimpse of him through the window as his car sped past. ▪ my first glimpse of [=my first look at] the city — often used figuratively ▪ The book offers a glimpse into the future of the computer industry.

¹glint /ˈglɪnt/ verb glints; glint·ed; glint·ing [no obj] : to shine in small bright flashes ▪ The sun glinted off the tops of the waves. ▪ The waves glinted in the sunlight.

²glint noun, pl glints [count]
1 : a small flash of light ▪ He saw glints of sunlight on the river's surface.
2 : a small amount of emotion seen in a person's eyes ▪ I thought I detected a glint [=glimmer] of recognition when I met her. ▪ He had a playful glint in his eyes. = He had a glint of playfulness in his eyes.

glis·ten /ˈglɪsn̩/ verb -tens; -tened; -ten·ing [no obj] : to shine with light reflected off a wet surface ▪ Rain made the streets glisten. ▪ The streets glistened in the rain. ▪ Her eyes glistened with tears/emotion. ▪ a long beach of glistening sand glitch /ˈglɪʧ/ noun, pl glitch·es [count] informal : an unexpected and usually minor problem ▪ Glitches in the speaker's schedule caused some delays.; especially : a minor problem with a machine or device (such as a computer) ▪ A technical glitch caused a temporary shutdown. ▪ computer/software glitches

¹glit·ter /ˈglɪtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter·ing [no obj] : to shine brightly : to shine with bright points of light ▪ The sequins on her dress glittered in the sun. ▪ Her eyes glittered with intelligence and amusement.

²glitter noun [noncount]
1 : light that shines in small, bright points ▪ the glitter of diamonds
2 : an appealing, fancy, and exciting quality : a glamorous quality ▪ He was drawn to the glitter of the city's nightlife.
3 : small, shiny objects used to decorate a surface
– glit·tery /ˈglɪtəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a glittery gown/nightclub glit·te·ra·ti /ˌglɪtəˈrɑːti/ noun [plural] informal : people who are famous, wealthy, and attractive — usually used with the ▪ She's frequently seen at parties attended by the Hollywood glitterati. ▪ His new restaurant is popular among the glitterati.

glittering adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : shining brightly ▪ glittering stars
2 a : very attractive or appealing in a fancy or exciting way ▪ The party was attended by a glittering array of celebrities. ▪ glittering prizes b chiefly Brit : very successful or impressive ▪ a glittering triumph ▪ a glittering career glitz /ˈglɪts/ noun [noncount] often disapproving : a very fancy and attractive quality that is associated with rich or famous people ▪ She grew tired of the glitz and glamour of Hollywood life. ▪ The casino was all glitz.

– glitzy /ˈglɪtsi/ adj glitz·i·er; -est ▪ a glitzy casino

gloam·ing /ˈgloʊmɪŋ/ noun
the gloaming literary : the low light that is seen in the evening as the sun sets ▪ Fireflies twinkled in the gloaming. [=in the twilight; at dusk] gloat /ˈgloʊt/ verb gloats; gloat·ed; gloat·ing [no obj] : to show in an improper or selfish way that you are happy with your own success or another person's failure ▪ After such a tough campaign, they're gloating over their victory in the election. ▪ All right, you won. There's no need to gloat (about it). ▪ a gloating remark/look – gloat·ing·ly adv ▪ They spoke gloatingly about their victory.

glob /ˈglɑːb/ noun, pl globs [count] informal : a large, round drop of something soft or wet : BLOB ▪ A glob of ice cream was stuck to his mustache. ▪ globs of whipped cream

glob·al /ˈgloʊbəl/ adj
1 : involving the entire world ▪ the global economy ▪ global fame ▪ English is becoming a global language.
2 : involving all of something and especially a computer system, file, etc. ▪ The program allows users to do global searches through all the available data.
– glob·al·ly /ˈgloʊbəli/ adv ▪ The game will be televised globally. [=throughout the world] ▪ a globally recognized problem

glob·al·ize also Brit glob·al·ise /ˈgloʊbəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz·es; -ized; -iz·ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) cover, involve, or affect the entire world ▪ The economy has become globalized. ▪ globalize a company's operations
2 [no obj] of a business : to begin to operate throughout the world ▪ The company is planning to globalize.
– glob·al·i·za·tion also Brit glob·al·i·sa·tion /ˌgloʊbələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌgləʊbəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the globalization of the economy/company global village noun [singular] : the world seen as a community in which people are connected by computers, television, etc., and all depend on one another global warming noun [noncount] : the recent increase in the world's temperature that is believed to be caused by the increase of certain gases (such as carbon dioxide) in the atmosphere ▪ World leaders will address the problem of global warming. — compare GREENHOUSE EFFECT globe /ˈgloʊb/ noun, pl globes

1 [count] : an object that is shaped like a large ball with a map of the world on it ▪ She has a globe in her office.
2 the globe : the earth ▪ satellites circling the globe ▪ His fame has spread around the globe.
3 [count] : a round object : SPHERE ▪ The tree was decorated with colorful glass globes.
– glob·u·lar /ˈglɑːbjələ/ adj ▪ globular [=round] fruit ▪ a globular shape globe–trot·ter /ˈgloʊbˌtrɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who frequently travels to different places around the world

– globe–trot·ting /ˈgloʊbˌtrɑːtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ a life of globe-trotting – globe–trotting adj ▪ a globe-trotting diplomat glob·ule /ˈglɑːˌbjuːl/ noun, pl -ules [count] : a tiny ball of something (such as a thick liquid) ▪ globules of fat/mercury

glock·en·spiel /ˈglɑːkənˌʃpiːl/ noun, pl -spiels [count] : a musical instrument that has a line of flat metal bars of different sizes that are hit with two special sticks glom /ˈglɑːm/ verb gloms; glommed; glom·ming [+ obj] US, informal : to take or get (something) ▪ The book consists of a collection of humorous essays glommed [=taken] from popular magazines.

glom on to or glom onto [phrasal verb] glom on to (something or someone) or glom onto (something or someone)
1 : to take (something) for your own use ▪ He glommed on to other people's ideas as if they were his own. 2 : to become strongly attached to or associated with (someone or something) ▪ The coating gloms on to the plastic during heating. ▪ He glommed onto me at the party, and I was stuck talking to him all night. 3 : to become aware of (something) ▪ Other businesses have not yet glommed on to the potential of this new technology.

gloom /ˈgluːm/ noun [noncount]
1 : partial or total darkness ▪ The painting captures the gloom of a foggy night. ▪ He walked away, disappearing into the gloom. ▪ the gloom of the forest
2 : a feeling of sadness ▪ He was often subject to periods of gloom. ▪ A cloud of gloom has descended over the city. ▪ The papers are filled with stories of gloom and doom. [=with sad and tragic stories] gloomy /ˈgluːmi/ adj gloom·i·er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : somewhat dark ▪ a gloomy hallway : not bright or sunny ▪ We've had a week of gloomy weather.
2 : causing feelings of sadness ▪ The news continues to be gloomy. ▪ a gloomy landscape : not hopeful or promising ▪ She doesn't agree with their gloomy economic forecasts. ▪ His book paints a gloomy picture of the prospects for peace.
3 : sad or depressed ▪ I've never seen you looking so gloomy.
– gloom·i·ly /ˈgluːməli/ adv ▪ They gloomily surveyed the fire damage. – gloom·i·ness /ˈgluːmɪnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the gloominess of the hallway/weather/future

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

glop /ˈglɑːp/ noun, pl glops chiefly US, informal : a thick, wet mixture or quantity of something unpleasant [noncount] I remember the glop they used to feed us for school lunch. [count] She always puts big glops [=globs] of ketchup on her fries.
– glop•py /ˈglɑːpi/ adj glop•pi•er; -est ▪ a gloppy mess glori ed adj, always used before a noun — used to say that someone or something that seems to be impressive is actually not very important, powerful, etc. ▪ His title is Assistant to the Director, but he's really just a glorified errand boy.

glo•ri•fy /ˈglorəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to honor or praise (a god or goddess) ▪ Glorify and give thanks to God.
2 : to make (something) seem much better or more important than it really is ▪ The film glorifies violence. [=the film makes violence seem exciting or appealing]
– glo•ri• •ca•tion /ˌglorəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ Critics object to the film's glorification of violence.

glo•ri•ous /ˈglorijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or deserving glory, fame, or honor ▪ He had a long and glorious military career. ▪ The old ruins give only a hint of the city's glorious past. ▪ The government has described the battle as a glorious victory.
2 : very beautiful or delightful ▪ Our room had a glorious view of the mountains. ▪ a glorious sunset ▪ glorious music ▪ What a glorious day!
– glo•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ a gloriously beautiful sunset — sometimes used for emphasis ▪ They were all gloriously [=extremely] drunk. – glo•ri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

[1]glo•ry /ˈglori/ noun, pl -ries
1 [noncount] a : public praise, honor, and fame ▪ As a young soldier he dreamed of winning military glory. ▪ He now has only a few trophies to remind him of the glory of his athletic career. ▪ He claimed that everything he did was done for the greater glory of his country. [=was done to bring honor to his country] ▪ Neither candidate has exactly covered himself in/with glory [=neither candidate has been very successful or impressive] during this campaign. ▪ They are basking in the glory of their success. [=they are enjoying the attention that has been given to them because of their success] — see also REFLECTED GLORY b : praise of a god or goddess ▪ Let us give glory to God. ▪ Glory be to God.
2 [count] : something that brings praise or fame to someone or something : something that is a source of great pride ▪ The glory of the town is its fountain. ▪ an art exhibit showing off the glories of ancient civilizations ▪ He intends this movie to be the crowning glory [=the final, most successful part or achievement] of his career as a filmmaker.
3 [noncount] a : a state of great happiness or satisfaction ▪ When she's on stage, she's in her glory. [=she is at her best; she is most happy] b : a state of great success or beauty ▪ The new owners are trying to restore the company/building to its former glory. ▪ The beautiful art reminds us of the glory of the empire. ▪ The autumn leaves are in their glory now. [=they are at their most beautiful stage now] ▪ He was there in all his glory. [=he was there looking very well or impressive] glory be! old-fashioned — used to express surprise or happiness ▪ You're pregnant? Well, glory be!
glory days/years : a time in the past that is remembered for great success or happiness ▪ The team's glory days are long gone. ▪ His glory years as an actor are now far behind him.
go to (your) glory old-fashioned : to die ▪ remembering those who have gone to their glory
no guts, no glory see [1]GUT
– see also MORNING GLORY

[2]glory verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing glory in [phrasal verb] glory in (something) : to feel or show great joy or pleasure because of (something) ▪ They gloried in their country's success.

[1]gloss /ˈglɑːs/ noun
1 [singular] : the brightness of a smooth and shiny surface ▪ He polished the car to a high gloss. [=until it was very shiny]
2 : an attractive quality or appearance that hides the way a person or thing really is [noncount] He was all gloss and no substance. [singular] Her ruthless ambition was covered by a thin gloss of good manners.
3 [noncount] : a type of makeup that is used to add shine and often color to the lips ▪ lip gloss
– compare [3]GLOSS

[2]gloss verb gloss•es; glossed; gloss•ing
gloss over [phrasal verb] gloss over (something) : to treat or describe (something, such as a serious problem or error) as if it were not important ▪ He glossed over the accident. ▪ The problems were ignored or glossed over.
– compare [4]GLOSS

[3]gloss noun, pl glosses [count] : a brief explanation of the meaning of a word used in a text ▪ The book's introductory chapters include helpful glosses for/of many unfamiliar terms. — compare [1]GLOSS

[4]gloss verb glosses; glossed; glossing [+ obj] : to give the meaning of (a word or phrase used in a text) ▪ Many unfamiliar terms are glossed in the book's introduction. ▪ Scholars have glossed this term as (meaning) "chisel." — compare [2]GLOSS

glos•sa•ry /ˈglɑːsəri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a list that gives definitions of the hard or unusual words found in a book
2 : a dictionary of the special terms in a particular field or job

[1]glossy /ˈglɑːsi/ adj gloss•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a shiny, smooth surface ▪ a glossy magazine cover ▪ glossy paint ▪ a plant with glossy green leaves
– gloss•i•ness noun [noncount]

[2]glossy noun, pl gloss•ies [count]
1 : a photograph with a shiny surface ▪ an 8x10 [=8-inch by 10-inch] glossy
2 chiefly Brit : a popular magazine that is printed on smooth and shiny paper — usually plural ▪ The glossies were filled with stories about his affair.

glottal stop noun, pl ~ stops [count] linguistics : a speech sound made by briefly stopping the flow of air through the vocal cords

glot•tis /ˈglɑːtəs/ noun, pl -tis•es [count] medical : the opening between the vocal cords in your throat
– glot•tal /ˈglɑːtl/ adj

glove /ˈglʌv/ noun, pl gloves [count]
1 : a covering for the hand that has separate parts for each finger ▪ a pair of gloves ▪ latex/leather/rubber gloves — compare MITTEN; see also KID GLOVES
2 a baseball : a padded leather covering for the hand that is used to catch the ball and that has individual thumb and finger sections ▪ a fielder's glove — compare MITT b : a very thick, padded covering for the hand that is worn in the sport of boxing ▪ a boxing glove — often used figuratively in the phrases take off the gloves and the gloves are off to say that people are beginning to criticize or attack each other in a very harsh and direct way ▪ The candidates have taken off the gloves and started to make personal attacks against each other. ▪ It's the end of the campaign, and the gloves are off.
fit (you) like a glove see [2]FIT hand in glove see [1]HAND
– gloved /ˈglʌvd/ adj ▪ a gloved hand [=a hand wearing a glove]

glove compartment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : a small storage area in front of the front seat of a car, truck, etc. — called also glove box; see picture at CAR glove puppet noun, pl ~ -pets [count] Brit : HAND PUPPET

[1]glow /ˈgloʊ/ verb glows; glowed; glow•ing [no obj]
1 a : to shine with low light and heat but usually without flame ▪ The coals glowed in the fireplace. ▪ The fireplace

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

glowed with the dying coals. b : to shine with a steady light ▪ The lamp glowed (brightly/softly) in the window. ▪ This toy glows in the dark.

2 a : to have a warm, reddish color from exercise, emotion, etc. — often + with ▪ Her face was glowing with embarrassment. b : to look happy, excited, or healthy — usually + with ▪ Her parents glowed with pride [=they looked very happy and proud] as she was given her diploma. ▪ The children were glowing with pleasure/excitement.

²glow noun [singular]

1 : a soft and steady light ▪ We could see the glow of the lamp in the window. ▪ The town's lights cast a glow on the horizon.

2 : a pink color in your face from exercising, being excited, etc. ▪ the rosy glow of health

3 a : a pleasant feeling ▪ He felt a glow as he remembered the day they first met. ▪ Their problems were all forgotten in the glow of victory. b : physical warmth or heat ▪ She felt the glow from the fireplace.

glow•er /ˈglawə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] : to look at someone or something in an angry way ▪ The librarian glowered at us when she heard us laughing. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a glowering [=dark, forbidding] sky

– glower noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The librarian looked at us with a glower of annoyance.

glowing adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very enthusiastic : full of praise ▪ Her previous boss gave her a glowing recommendation. ▪ The book has received glowing reviews. ▪ They spoke about their trip in glowing terms. [=they described their trip in a very enthusiastic way]

2 : having a warm color ▪ She has a glowing complexion.

– glow•ing•ly /ˈglowɪŋli/ adv ▪ They spoke glowingly about their trip.

glow•worm /ˈgloʊˌwəm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a type of insect that produces a small amount of light from its body

glu•cose /ˈgluːˌkoʊs/ noun [noncount] technical : a type of sugar that is found in plants and fruits ¹glue /ˈgluː/ noun, pl glues : a substance used to stick things tightly together [noncount] a tube of glue [count] The hardware store offers several different glues.

stick like glue see ²STICK

– glu•ey /ˈgluːwi/ adj glu•i•er; -est ▪ a gluey [=sticky] mess

²glue verb glues; glued; glu•ing also glue•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) stick to something else by using glue ▪ I glued the pieces of the cup back together. ▪ I glued the handle (back) on/onto the cup.

2 : to stay in one place because of interest, shock, excitement, etc. — usually used as glued to ▪ He spends his days glued to the television. [=he watches television all day] ▪ We spent several anxious hours glued to the phone as we waited for news of her condition. ▪ a thriller that will keep you glued to your seat

keep your eyes glued to see ¹EYE

glum /ˈglʌm/ adj glum•mer; -mest : sad or depressed ▪ There's no need to look so glum—things will get better soon. ▪ There was a glum silence in the room.

– glum•ly adv ▪ "It's no good," he said glumly. – glum•ness noun [noncount]

¹glut /ˈglʌt/ noun, pl gluts [count] : too much of something : a supply of something that is much more than is needed or wanted — usually singular ▪ a glut of oil on the market

²glut verb gluts; glut•ted; glut•ting [+ obj] : to fill (something) with more of something than is needed or wanted ▪ The market is glutted with oil.

glu•ten /ˈgluːtn/ noun [noncount] : a substance in wheat and flour that holds dough together

glu•ti•nous /ˈgluːtn̩əs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : STICKY ▪ glutinous rice glut•ton /ˈglʌtn/ noun, pl -tons [count]

1 : a person who eats too much

2 : someone who wants a large amount of something — + for ▪ She's a glutton for gossip. ▪ That guy's a real glutton for punishment. [=he seems to enjoy things that other people dislike]

– glut•ton•ous /ˈglʌtənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He's a gluttonous little boy. – glut•ton•ous•ly adv ▪ eating gluttonously

glut•tony /ˈglʌtəni/ noun [noncount] : the act or habit of eating or drinking too much glyc•er•in also glyc•er•ine /ˈglɪsərən/ noun [noncount] technical : a thick, sweet, clear liquid used in making medicines, food, soap, etc.

gm abbr gram

GM abbr 1 general manager 2 genetically modified

G–man /ˈʤiːˌmæn/ noun, pl G–men /ˈʤiːˌmɛn/ [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a special agent of the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation : an FBI agent ▪ a movie about gangsters and G-men

GMO abbr genetically modified organism ▪ This food is GMO-free.

GMT abbr Greenwich Mean Time

gnarled /ˈnɑrəld/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 of wood : having many twists and hard bumps or knots ▪ gnarled branches ▪ an ancient gnarled tree

2 : bumpy or twisted ▪ the old man's gnarled fingers/hands

gnarly /ˈnɑəli/ adj gnarl•i•er; -est

1 : GNARLED ▪ gnarly branches

2 US slang a : very difficult or bad ▪ a gnarly situation ▪ a gnarly accident b : very good ▪ some gnarly guitar playing gnash /ˈnæʃ/ verb gnash•es; gnashed; gnash•ing

gnash your teeth 1 : to grind your teeth together ▪ He gnashed his teeth in his sleep. 2 : to show you are angry, upset, etc. ▪ His opponents have been gnashing their teeth in/with frustration [=they have been showing their frustration] since he won the election. ▪ His election has caused some weeping and gnashing of teeth among his opponents.

gnat /ˈnæt/ noun, pl gnats [count] : a small fly that bites people and animals

gnaw /ˈnɑː/ verb gnaws; gnawed; gnaw•ing

1 : to bite or chew (something) repeatedly [+ obj] The dog was gnawing a bone. [no obj] He nervously gnawed on his fingernails. ▪ Rabbits have gnawed at the hedge.

2 [+ obj] : to make (a hole in something) by chewing ▪ Rabbits had gnawed a hole in the hedge. ▪ Squirrels had gnawed their way into the attic. [=they had entered the attic by chewing a hole] gnaw at [phrasal verb] gnaw at (someone) : to be a source of worry or concern to (someone) ▪ This problem has been gnawing at me day and night. ▪ She says she's fine, but I can see that something is gnawing at her.

gnawing adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : causing feelings of doubt or worry that last for a long time ▪ I have a gnawing suspicion that he won't be there. ▪ gnawing doubts

gnoc•chi /ˈnɑːki/ noun [plural] : small balls of dough made from potatoes or flour that are boiled in water and usually served with a sauce in Italian cooking

gnome /ˈnoʊm/ noun, pl gnomes [count]

1 in stories : a small creature who lives inside the earth and guards treasure ✧ A gnome looks like a little man and is often shown wearing a pointed hat.

2 : a statue that looks like a gnome and is often used outside in a garden ▪ a garden gnome

gno•mic /ˈnoʊmɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : said or written using few words that are difficult to understand ▪ He made gnomic utterances concerning death. ▪ gnomic writing/wisdom

GNP abbr gross national product

gnu /ˈnuː/ noun, pl gnu or gnus [count] : WILDEBEEST

¹go /ˈgoʊ/ verb goes /ˈgoʊz/; went /ˈwɛnt/; gone /ˈgɑːn/; go•ing /ˈgowɪŋ/

1 [no obj] a : to move or travel to a place ▪ He went to the window and looked out at the yard. ▪ She goes to the office every morning and comes home in the evening. ▪ I'm tired. Let's go home. ▪ She went downstairs to the kitchen. ▪ The train goes from New York to Chicago. ▪ Halt! Who goes there? [=who is there?; who is coming this way?] b : to travel to and stay in (a place) for a particular amount of time ▪ I went with my family to Rome last year. ▪ We're going to Iowa for a week. c : to move or travel in a particular way or for a particular distance ▪ The car was going too fast. ▪ How much farther do we have to go? ▪ She went a long way to see him. ▪ We went many miles that day. ▪ Go straight for two blocks, then go right/left at the light. ▪ The street is blocked, so we'll have to go around. — often used figuratively ▪ Their relationship doesn't seem to be going anywhere. [=doesn't seem to be making any progress] ▪ Where do we go from here? [=what do we do now?] ▪ We've accomplished a lot, but we still have a long way to go. [=we have much more to do] ▪ She has a lot of talent. If she works hard, she should go far. [=she should be very successful] ▪ These changes will go a long way toward solving the dispute. ▪ Would you go so far as to call them dishonest? [=would you say that they are dishonest?] ▪ This time you've gone too far! [=you've done something that cannot be allowed]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

2 a [no obj] : to move to or be at a place (such as an office or school) for work, study, etc. — + to ▪ She goes to church on Sunday. ▪ She goes to work from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ▪ Their son is going to college in Florida. [=he is attending a college in Florida] ▪ He went to prison for his crimes. b [no obj] : to do something that involves moving or traveling to a place — often + on ▪ We're going on vacation next week. ▪ The thieves went on a crime spree. — often + -ing verb ▪ The neighbors went running [=the neighbors ran] when they heard the screams. ▪ I like to go walking/swimming/shopping. [=I like to walk/swim/shop] — see also GO FOR 5 (below) c [no obj] : to move or travel to a place for a particular purpose ▪ I went to see them last week. ▪ We went to see a movie last night. = We went to a movie last night. ▪ Are you going to the wedding? [=do you plan to attend the wedding?] ▪ I may go to see them next week. = I may go and see them next week. = (US) I may go see them next week. ✧ In informal spoken English, go and is used to emphasize a following verb. It usually expresses anger or annoyance. ▪ Now you've gone and ruined it! ▪ They went and changed it! ▪ Go and get me a towel! ✧ In U.S. English, go by itself is also sometimes used this way. ▪ Why did you have to go ruin it?! ▪ Go get me a towel! d [+ obj] informal : to engage in (doing something) ▪ Don't go telling everyone what happened. [=don't tell everyone what happened] ▪ He went blabbing the news all over the place.
3 [no obj] a : to leave a place ▪ It's getting late. I should go now. ▪ It's time to go. ▪ I was just going when the phone rang. b : to leave a job, position, etc. ▪ Pack up your desk and go. ▪ She's retiring soon, and it'll be sad for all of us to see her go.
4 : to lie or move along a particular route or in a particular direction [no obj] The road goes from the town to the lake. ▪ His land goes almost all the way down to the river. [+ obj] Are you going my way? [=are you going in the same direction that I'm going in?] ▪ The car went the length of the street and then turned around. — often used figuratively ▪ She went the conventional route [=she did the conventional thing] by going straight to college after high school. ▪ He has always gone his own way. [=he has always done the things he wants to do instead of the things that most people do]
5 [no obj] : to provide a way to get to a place ▪ That door goes to the cellar. [=you can get to the cellar by going through that door] ▪ Where does this road go?
6 [no obj] : to be sent ▪ The message went by e-mail to all members of the staff.
7 [no obj] : to be lost, used, or spent ▪ I don't know where the money goes. ▪ I put my keys here a few minutes ago, and now they're gone. = (Brit) I put my keys here a few minutes ago, and now they've gone. — often used with all ▪ The money was all gone by Friday. = All (of) the money was gone by Friday. ▪ "Is there any ice cream left?" "No, it's all gone."
8 [no obj] : to die ▪ She went peacefully at about midnight.
9 [no obj] a of time : to pass ▪ The time/day seemed to go very quickly/slowly. b : to happen in a particular way ▪ The evening went well/badly. ▪ She worked hard to make the party go according to plan. ▪ The way things are going [=if things keep happening this way], I may get laid off. ▪ We lost the game, but that's the way it/life goes. [=it is a fact that bad or disappointing things will happen sometimes]
10 [no obj] informal — used to talk or ask about how you are feeling ▪ "How are things going? = How's everything going? = How's it going?" "Everything's going well/fine/great."
11 [no obj] : to be given up, thrown away, etc. ▪ I want to keep these, but that one can go. ▪ These old boxes have got to go. = These old boxes have to go. [=we have to get rid of these old boxes]
12 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to be sold ▪ The house went for a good price. ▪ The cabinets go for about $400. ▪ The painting will go to the highest bidder b : to be willing to pay a certain price for something ▪ I'll go as high as $100, but not over that.
13 [no obj] : to fail or become weak because of use, age, etc. ▪ His hearing has started to go. ▪ The batteries in the flashlight are going and will have to be changed.
14 [no obj] : to break because of force or pressure ▪ The dam/roof is weakening and it could go at any time.
15 [no obj] : to start doing something ▪ Everyone's here, so I think we're ready to go. = (US, informal) I think we're good to go. [=I think we're ready to start] — see also get going at GET 16 [no obj] — used to describe the result of a contest, election, decision, etc. ▪ The election went in her favor. [=she won the election] ▪ The verdict went against him.
17 [no obj] : to work in the usual or expected way ▪ I couldn't get the car to go. ▪ I kept working on the engine until I finally got it going. [=I finally got it to work/run] — see also keep going at [1]KEEP
18 a [linking verb] : to become — used to describe a change ▪ The building has gone condo. [=the building has become a condominium] ▪ British currency went decimal in 1971. — used especially to describe a change that is not wanted ▪ The tire went flat. ▪ The bread has gone stale. ▪ The company went bankrupt. ▪ Everything keeps going wrong. b [no obj] : to change ▪ The leaves here go from green to red in the fall. ▪ The situation went from bad to worse.
19 [linking verb] — used to describe someone's or something's condition ▪ I like to go barefoot in the summer. ▪ There was nothing to eat, so we had to go hungry. ▪ My letters have gone unanswered. [=have not been answered] ▪ Her excellent work has not gone unnoticed/unappreciated. [=someone has noticed/appreciated her excellent work]
20 [no obj] informal : to make a particular movement ▪ Can you go like this with your eyebrows? [=can you move your eyebrows like this?]
21 [no obj] — used to talk about a story, song, etc. ▪ I can't remember how the story goes. [=I can't remember what happens in the story] ▪ The story/rumor/legend goes that he left home poor and came back rich. ▪ The tune goes like this.
22 [no obj] a : to be able to fit in or through a space ▪ Will these clothes go in your suitcase? [=is there enough room for these clothes in your suitcase?] ▪ The box was too big to go [=fit] through the door. b : to have a usual or proper place or position : BELONG ▪ These books go on the top shelf. ▪ Where do your keys go?
23 [no obj] : to have authority : to require you to do what is said or demanded ▪ What she says goes! [=she is the boss; you have to do what she tells you to do]
24 [no obj] informal : to use the toilet ▪ One of the children said he had to go. — see also go to the bathroom at BATHROOM
25 : to make a sound [no obj] The bell went and the class came to an end. ▪ The music was going full blast. [=the music was being played as loud as possible] [+ obj] The gun went bang. ▪ The cow went "moo."
26 [+ obj] informal : to say (something) — used in describing what people said in a conversation ▪ So she goes, "Did you write this?" and I go, "Mind your own business!"
27 [no obj] of a sports team or player : to have a specified record ▪ The team went 11–2 last season. [=the team won 11 games and lost 2 games last year] ▪ The shortstop went two for four in yesterday's game. [=the shortstop had two hits in four times at bat in yesterday's game] anything goes : anything is acceptable : there are no rules for behavior, dress, etc. ▪ She dresses conservatively at work, but on the weekends, anything goes.

as (someone or something) goes — used to compare someone or something with someone or something else of the same kind ▪ As lectures go, it was very interesting.
be going Brit : to be available ▪ There are no jobs going right now.
be going to — used to talk about what will happen or could happen ▪ It*'s going to* be cold tomorrow. [=it will be cold tomorrow] ▪ It*'s going to* rain: if you don't take an umbrella, you*'re going to* get soaked. ▪ I am not going to tolerate [=I won't tolerate] any more bad behavior! ▪ I was just going to call him. [=I was about to call him] — see also GONNA come and go see [1]COME easy come, easy go see [2]EASY go about [phrasal verb] go about (something) 1 : to start to do (something) ▪ I'd like to fix this old radio but I don't know how to go about (doing) it. 2 : to do (something) ▪ Despite the threat of war, most people are just quietly going about their business. [=most people are just doing the things that they usually do] go a bundle on see [1]BUNDLE go after [phrasal verb] 1 go after (someone) a : to follow and try to stop or catch (someone) ▪ When the boy ran out the door, his mother quickly went after him. ▪ The police went after the escaped criminal. b : to try to find and punish (someone) ▪ The government is going after people who cheat on their taxes. 2 go after (something or someone) : to try to get (something or someone) ▪ If you want the job, you should just go after it. ▪ She accused her friend of going after her husband.
go against [phrasal verb] 1 go against (something) : to not agree with (something) ▪ I won't do anything that goes

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

against my conscience/beliefs/principles. ▪ values that go against those of society 2 go against (someone or something) a : to oppose (someone or something) ▪ He was surprised when some of his former supporters went against him. ▪ He was reluctant to go against his parents' wishes. [=he was reluctant to do something that his parents did not want him to do] b : to compete against (a player or team) in a contest or game ▪ The Red Sox will be going against the Yankees in tonight's game. 3 go against (someone) : to not be good for (someone) : to not produce the result that is wanted by (someone) ▪ Everything seemed to be going against her but she didn't give up hope. ▪ The verdict went against the defendant. [=the verdict was not in favor of the defendant] go ahead [phrasal verb] 1 : to do or begin to do something ▪ Instead of waiting for approval, they just went ahead and started working on the project. : to do something after planning to do it or after getting permission to do it ▪ Despite the bad weather, they decided to go ahead with the party. ▪ My boss told me to go ahead (with the work). ▪ "Could I sit here?" "Sure, go (right) ahead." ▪ "I probably shouldn't have any more cake." "Oh, go ahead. It won't kill you." — see also GO-AHEAD 2 : to happen or proceed ▪ Despite the weather, the party went ahead as planned. ▪ After a brief delay, the work is now going ahead again. 3 : to go or travel to a place before the other person or group that is with you ▪ I'll go (on) ahead and make sure that everything's ready when you arrive.

go all out : to do something with as much effort as possible ▪ When he has a party, he likes to go all out. [=have a big and expensive party] ▪ Her company always went all out [=did everything possible] to make the customer happy. — see also ALL-OUT go along [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue or proceed ▪ The project is going along smoothly. ▪ On this job there's a lot to learn—but I'm sure you'll pick it up as you go along. ▪ He was just making up the story as he went along. 2 : to go or travel with someone ▪ They were going to the fair so I asked whether I could go along. — often + with ▪ I asked whether I could go along with them. 3 : to agree to do or accept what other people want ▪ We tried to convince him to support us but he refused to go along. — usually + with ▪ He refused to go along with us. ▪ He refused to go along with our plan. 4 : to be part of something — + with ▪ If I want the job I have to accept the stress that goes along with it.

go all the way see [1]WAY

go ape see [3]APE

go around or chiefly Brit go round [phrasal verb] 1 a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to go to different places ▪ She and her friends go around (together) to lots of clubs. = She goes around with her friends to lots of clubs. b chiefly Brit : to travel to a place that is nearby ▪ I went round [=went over] to his flat. c — used to describe the way a person often dresses or behaves ▪ She goes around (dressed) in a miniskirt. ▪ You can't go around treating people so rudely. 2 go around or go around (a place) : to go or pass from one person to another person ▪ There's a rumor going around (the office) that the boss is about to get fired. ▪ An amusing story is going around. ▪ There's a nasty cold going around: I hope you don't catch it. 3 go around or go around (something or someone) : to be long enough to pass all the way around (something or someone) ▪ This belt isn't long enough to go around (my waist). 4 ✧ If people want something and there is enough/plenty to go around, there is enough for all of the people who want it or need it. ▪ There aren't enough jobs to go around. 5 what goes around comes around informal — used to say that if you treat other people badly you will eventually be treated badly by someone else go at [phrasal verb] 1 a go at (someone) : to attack (someone) ▪ They went at each other viciously. b go at it : to fight or argue ▪ Our neighbors were arguing again last night. They went at it for almost an hour. 2 go at (something) : to make an effort to do or deal with (something) ▪ They had to go at the problem from many different angles before they finally solved it. ▪ It was a tough job, and I was impressed by the energetic way he went at it.

go away [phrasal verb] 1 a : to leave a place or person ▪ She angrily told him to go away and stop bothering her. b : to leave your home for a period of time ▪ They're going away on vacation. ▪ After graduating from high school, he went away to college. ▪ a going-away present/party [=a present/party for someone who is leaving to live, study, or travel in a distant place] 2 : to stop existing or happening : to end ▪ I just wish there was some way to make the pain go away.

go back [phrasal verb] 1 a : to return to a place ▪ I forgot my purse and had to go back for it. ▪ What was it like to go back after so many years? ▪ After college she went back home. ▪ Go back inside! You'll catch cold. b : to begin doing something again — + to ▪ I turned off the alarm and went back to sleep. ▪ He waved hello, then went right back to work. ▪ She went back to eating her dinner. ✧ The phrase there's no going back means that you have done or decided something and cannot change it. ▪ I've already signed the contract, so there's no going back now. 2 a : to have existed for a particular amount of time or since a particular period ▪ These ruins go back hundreds of years. — often + to ▪ a tradition that goes back [=dates back] to colonial times b : to have known each other for a particular amount of time ▪ We go back 30 years. ▪ He and I go back a long way. = He and I go way back. [=he and I have known each other for many years] c : to think or talk about something from the past ▪ To fully understand the issues, we have to go back a few years. — often + to ▪ I'd like to go back to your earlier comment. [=I'd like to discuss it further] 3 go back on (something) : to not do what is required by (something, such as a promise) ▪ She went back on her promise to help us. [=she failed to keep her promise] ▪ I would never go back on my word.

go before [phrasal verb] 1 go before (someone) : to happen or exist at an earlier time than (someone) ▪ We owe a great debt of gratitude to those who went before us. 2 go before (someone or something) : to be considered by (someone or something) for an official decision or judgment ▪ The contestants will go before the judges tomorrow. ▪ The case went before the court.

go beyond [phrasal verb] go beyond (something) : to do more than (something) ▪ She went beyond the call of duty. [=she did more than was required] ▪ We need to go beyond merely talking about the problem.

go by [phrasal verb] 1 of time : to pass ▪ The morning seemed to go by very quickly/slowly. ▪ Many years have gone by since the last time I saw her. ▪ They have many happy memories of days gone by. [=bygone days, days/times in the past] 2 go by (something) a : to be guided or directed by (something, such as a rule) ▪ That's a good rule to go by. b : to form an opinion from (something) ▪ She may be guilty but we have very little evidence to go by. ▪ You can't always go by appearances. [=you can't always judge people or things by the way they look] 3 go by (a name) : to be known by (a name) ▪ His name is Edwin but he goes by Ed. [=people call him Ed] 4 go by or go by (somewhere) : to go somewhere in order to visit someone ▪ I went by (her house) to see her after school.

go down [phrasal verb] 1 : to fall or crash to the ground ▪ The airplane went down when one of its engines caught fire. ▪ The boxer took a punch and went down hard. 2 : to sink into the water ▪ The ship went down after hitting an iceberg. 3 a : to drop to a lower level ▪ Prices are expected to go down soon. ▪ The quality of his work has been going down. ▪ She had a fever yesterday, but it went down this morning. b : to become less or smaller ▪ It may take a few hours for the swelling to go down. 4 : to become less bright ▪ The lights went down [=the lights were turned down] as the movie started. 5 of the sun or moon : to stop being visible in the sky : to set ▪ The sun comes up in the morning and goes down at night. 6 a — used to say how easy or hard it is to eat or drink something ▪ The medicine went down easily. [=it was easy to swallow the medicine] ▪ I took a sip but it went down the wrong way. [=I choked on my drink] b — used to say how easy or hard it is to accept or agree to something ▪ His suggestion didn't go down [=go over] very well with his boss. [=his boss didn't like his suggestion] 7 : to lose or fail ▪ Last year's champion went down in the first round of the tournament this year. ▪ The regime finally went down [=fell] in a wave of popular protest. 8 of a computer, system, etc. : to stop working ▪ The network went down this morning. 9 : to be remembered or talked about as an important person, event, etc. ▪ He will go down as one of the greatest leaders this country has ever known. ▪ His name will go down in history. 10 Brit, informal : to be sent to prison ▪ He went down [=went to jail] for six years for the robbery. 11 somewhat informal : to travel to a place (especially one that is nearby or to the south) ▪ I need to go down to the store for milk. ▪ We went down south to visit relatives. 12 slang : to happen ▪ We need to find out what's going down. [=(more commonly) going on] 13 go down on (someone) slang : to perform oral sex on (someone) 14 go down with (an illness) Brit : to begin to have or suffer from (an illness) ▪ He went down with [=caught, came down with] measles.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

go easy, go easy on/with see ²EASY

go figure see ²FIGURE

go for [phrasal verb] 1 a go for (someone) : to attack (someone) ▪ My dog went for the intruder. b go for (something) : to try to get (something) ▪ go for the prize ▪ If you want to achieve success, you have to stop hesitating and just go for it! 2 go for (something) : to accept or agree to (something, such as a plan or suggestion) ▪ I asked her to lend us some money, but she wouldn't go for it. [=she wouldn't agree to lend us money] 3 go for (someone or something) informal a : to like or be attracted to (someone or something) ▪ When I see how she looks at him, I can tell she really goes for him. ▪ I don't really go for modern art. ▪ I could go for [=I would like] a cup of coffee right now. b : to relate to or apply to (someone or something) ▪ The rule goes for you, too. [=the rule also applies to you] ▪ "I'd like ice cream for desert." "That goes for me too." [=I'd like ice cream too] ▪ The economy here has been growing stronger, and the same goes for [=the same is true for] many other areas. 4 go for (a price) : to be sold for (a particular price) ▪ The painting went for more than a million dollars. 5 go for (a walk, a drive, etc.) : to do an activity (such as walking or driving a car) that usually involves going somewhere ▪ She went for a walk/stroll after dinner. ▪ On Saturday mornings we like to go for a drive out in the countryside. ▪ Would anyone like to go for a swim? 6 ✧ If you have something going for you, you have a talent, skill, etc., that helps you. ▪ She's not as young as some of the other athletes, but experience helps, and she has that going for her. [=she has an advantage because of her experience] ▪ You should be more confident in yourself. You have a lot going for you! [=you have many talents, abilities, etc.]

go great guns see ¹GUN

go in [phrasal verb] 1 of the sun or moon : to become hidden by a cloud ▪ The afternoon got cooler after the sun went in. 2 go in for (something) : to like or be interested in (something) ▪ She doesn't go in for sports. 3 go in on (something) US, informal : to help pay for (something, such as a present) ▪ Are you going to go in on the gift for her? ▪ We all went in on the gift together. [=we all gave some money towards buying the gift] 4 go in with (someone) : to join (someone) in a business, project, etc. ▪ His brother-in-law went in with him on his new business.

go into [phrasal verb] go into (something) 1 a : to start to be in (a different state or condition) ▪ After she lost her job she went into a deep depression. [=she became very depressed] ▪ The criminal has gone into hiding. [=the criminal is hiding] ▪ After losing the election, she went into seclusion. — see also go into effect at ¹EFFECT b : to start to move in (a different and usually bad way) ▪ The car went into a skid. [=the car began to skid] ▪ The plane went into a tailspin. 2 : to start to do (something) as a job or career ▪ He wants to go into the priesthood. [=he wants to become a priest] ▪ Their daughter is planning to go into medicine. [=to be a doctor; to get a job in the medical field] ▪ Both his sons have gone into the army. [=joined the army] ▪ His dream is to go into business for himself. [=to start his own business] 3 a : to talk about (something) ▪ I'll try to tell the story without going into too many details. = I'll try not to go into too much detail. : to talk about the details of (something) ▪ Having gone into the causes of the French Revolution, the book then discusses its effects. ▪ "I've had a long day." "What happened?" "I'll tell you later. I don't feel like going into it right now." b : to try to get information about (something) — usually used as (be) gone into ▪ A problem like that should really be gone into [=looked into] carefully. 4 : to be used for (something) ▪ Lots of time, energy, and money have gone into (completing) the project. 5 mathematics — used to say how many times a number can be multiplied to produce a larger number ▪ 6 goes into 18 three times. [=18 divided by 6 equals 3]

go it alone see ²ALONE

go off [phrasal verb] 1 a of a bomb : to explode ▪ The building was evacuated before the bomb went off. b of a gun : to shoot ▪ The gun went off accidentally. c of an alarm : to begin to make a sudden loud noise ▪ I woke up when the alarm went off. 2 of lights, electricity, etc. : to stop working ▪ The lights in the building suddenly went off. 3 : to leave a place for a new place ▪ He went off to join the army after graduating from high school. ▪ She went off to America. 4 a : to occur or happen ▪ The meeting went off as scheduled. [=the meeting happened when it was scheduled to happen] b : to happen a particular way ▪ The party went off well. [=the party was a success] ▪ The meeting went off poorly. 5 US, informal : to begin shouting at someone in an angry way — usually + on ▪ Her boss went off on her because she was late again. 6 go off (someone or something) Brit : to stop liking (someone or something) ▪ She used to like him but now she's gone off him completely. ▪ My boss has gone off the idea, so it's been cancelled. 7 chiefly Brit a go off with (someone) : to leave (a spouse, partner, etc.) for someone else ▪ He left his wife and went off with [=ran off with] some young thing. b go off with (something) : to take (something that belongs to someone else) away with you : STEAL ▪ Someone went off with my pencil/wallet.

go on [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue: such as a : to continue on a journey ▪ We stopped briefly in Detroit, and then went on to Chicago. b : to continue as time passes ▪ Life goes on. ▪ How much longer will the meeting go on? [=last] c : to continue doing something ▪ She went on working [=she continued to work] after everyone else had stopped. d : to continue talking ▪ He went on (and on) about how unfairly he had been treated. [=he talked about it for a long time] : to talk too much or too long about something ▪ She's always going on about the importance of a good diet. e : to continue to be in the same situation or relationship ▪ We can't go on like this. 2 : to go or travel to a place before another person or group that is with you ▪ You go on (ahead). I'll come later. 3 : to do or say something else after you have finished doing or saying something — usually + to ▪ He accepted the nomination and went on to win the election. ▪ After I finished reading the first book I immediately went on to the next one. ▪ He went on to say that further tax increases would be necessary. ▪ Everyone expected that she would go on to greater things. [=that she would become very successful] 4 : to happen ▪ What's going on? ▪ No one knows exactly what went on during their private meeting. — see also GOINGS-ON 5 of lights, electricity, etc. : to begin to work or function ▪ The lights went on briefly and then went out again. 6 : to form an opinion or conclusion from something — used in the phrase to go on ▪ There's very little evidence to go on. [=there's very little evidence that can be used to form an opinion] 7 a — used in speech to urge someone to do something ▪ Go on (and try it): you might actually like it! ▪ "I probably shouldn't have any more ice cream." "Oh, go on! It won't hurt you to have a little more." b chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned — used in speech to express disbelief ▪ "I used to be a spy." "Oh, go on." ▪ A spy? Go on with you, then. [=I don't believe you] 8 go on at (someone) chiefly Brit, informal : to criticize (someone) often or repeatedly ▪ Quit going on at me all the time! — see also going on at ²GOING go one better 1 : to achieve more : to move to a higher or better level ▪ She qualified for the finals, then went one better and took first place. 2 go (someone or something) one better : to do better or more than (someone or something) : to outdo (someone or something) ▪ The company has gone its competitors one better by offering new customers a special discount.

go out [phrasal verb] 1 : to leave your home for an activity ▪ I'm going out for a walk. I'll be back soon. ▪ We're going out to get some lunch. ▪ On Saturday nights he goes out drinking with his friends. 2 : to be sent from a person or place ▪ The message went out by e-mail to all members of the staff. ▪ Word has gone out that snow is expected. ▪ Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the victims of this tragedy. [=we are thinking of and praying for all the victims of this tragedy] 3 : to stop being popular or fashionable ▪ That hairstyle went out years ago. ▪ Short skirts have gone out of fashion. 4 a : to meet someone for a romantic social activity : to go on a date with someone ▪ They went out a couple of times, but it was never serious. b : to have a continuing romantic relationship with someone ▪ I've been going out with her for quite a while now. = We've been going out for quite a while now. 5 : to stop working ▪ The electricity suddenly went out.; especially : to stop shining or burning ▪ The fire/candle went out. ▪ All the lights suddenly went out. 6 chiefly US : to try to become a member of a team, group, etc. — usually + for ▪ He went out for football last year. = He went out for the football team last year. ▪ She went out [=tried out] for the school play. 7 of the tide : to drop to a lower level ▪ The tide is going out [=(more formally) ebbing] now. 8 : to be broadcast on the radio, television, etc. ▪ A distress call went out three hours ago. — often + over ▪ Warnings about the approaching storm went out over the radio.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

go over [phrasal verb] 1 : to move or travel to a particular place or person ▪ He went over and stood by the window. ▪ He went over and hugged her. ▪ I think I see Jane. Let's go over and say hello. — often + to ▪ He went over to the window. ▪ He went over to her and hugged her. 2 : to change sides in a disagreement, competition, etc. — usually + to ▪ After several years of supporting us, he went over to our competitors. 3 US : to be accepted or received in a particular way ▪ He tried to make a joke but it went over badly. [=no one thought his joke was funny] ▪ Her proposal didn't go over very well. — often + with ▪ Her proposal didn't go over very well with the boss. [=the boss didn't like her proposal] 4 go over (something) a : to talk about or think about (something) carefully ▪ He went over all the arguments before making up his mind. ▪ We went over the accident again and again in our minds. b : to look at or study (something) again in order to correct it, learn it, etc. ▪ The students were told to go over their essays. ▪ Let's go over the instructions. ▪ an actress going over her lines

go the distance see ¹DISTANCE

go there informal : to start to talk or think about something — usually used in negative statements ▪ "Do you remember when we were dating?" "Let's not go there." = "I don't want to go there." = "Don't go there." [=I don't want to talk about that] go through [phrasal verb] 1 go through (something) a : to study or look at (something) in a careful way ▪ The book goes through every detail of the French Revolution. ▪ Let's go through the plan one more time. b : to look in or at (something) in order to find something : to search in or through (something) ▪ I found him going through my closet. c : to experience (something) ▪ He's going through a painful divorce. ▪ I understand what you're going through. ▪ In order to learn the job well, you have to go through several months of training. ▪ The book has already gone through four editions. [=the publishers have already released four editions of the book] d : to spend or use all of (something) ▪ He went through all the money he inherited. ▪ They went through three bottles of wine with dinner. e : to occur throughout (something) ▪ A note of despair goes through the narrative. [=there is a note of despair throughout the narrative] ✧ If something (such as an idea or a song) is going through your head/mind, you are thinking about it or remembering it. ▪ I don't know what was going through her mind [=I don't know what her thoughts were; I don't know why she did this] when she agreed to help him. ▪ That song keeps going through my head. f : to do (something) ▪ It took him about an hour to go through his usual morning routine. ▪ Before we practice the next section, let's go through the chorus once again. — see also go through the motions at ¹MOTION 2 ✧ Something (such as a law or contract) that goes through is officially accepted and approved. ▪ The bill is expected to go through easily. ▪ The proposed deal failed to go through. ▪ The bill went through Congress/Parliament [=was passed by Congress/Parliament] without difficulty and soon became law. 3 go through with (something) : to do (something that you have thought or talked about) ▪ He was always threatening to quit his job, but I never thought he'd actually go through with it. [=I never thought he would actually do it] go to [phrasal verb] 1 go to (something) : to begin to be in (a particular state, condition, or situation) ▪ You need to go to sleep. ▪ The countries went to war. 2 go to (someone or something) : to be given to (someone or something) ▪ First prize went to the team from Chicago. ▪ The property will go to his wife if he dies before she does. 3 go to (trouble or expense) chiefly US : to do something that causes you (trouble or expense) ▪ You shouldn't go to all this trouble just for me. ▪ They went to a lot of expense [=they spent a lot of money] to make sure that the job was done correctly.

go together [phrasal verb] 1 not used in progressive tenses : to be suited to or appropriate for each other ▪ The tie and his suit go together well. — see also GO WITH 2 (below) 2 somewhat old-fashioned : to have a continuing romantic relationship ▪ They've been going together for several years. — see also GO WITH (below) go to show/prove : to help show or prove something ▪ Her success goes to show that if you work hard, you can make your dreams come true.

go toward(s) [phrasal verb] go toward(s) (something) : to help pay for (something) ▪ My extra income is going towards a new car. ▪ Your donations will go toward better sanitation for refugees.

go under [phrasal verb] 1 : to sink below the surface of the water ▪ The ship went under after being struck by a torpedo. 2 : to fail : to not succeed ▪ The company has been losing money and is in danger of going under.

go up [phrasal verb] 1 : to rise to a higher level ▪ Prices are expected to go up soon. 2 : to become brighter ▪ The lights went up [=the lights were turned up] when the movie ended. 3 : to be built ▪ A new store is going up downtown. 4 : to travel to a place (especially one that is to the north) ▪ We went up to the lake for the weekend.

go with [phrasal verb] 1 go with (someone) : to have a continuing romantic relationship with (someone) : to date (someone) ▪ I've been going with her for quite a while now. — see also GO OUT 4b (above), GO TOGETHER 2 (above) 2 go with (something) a : to be suitable for or appropriate with (something) ▪ The skirt she's wearing doesn't really go with [=match] her blouse. ▪ The tie goes (well) with his suit. ▪ Do you think this wine will go well with dinner? — see also GO TOGETHER 1 (above) b : to exist or occur as a necessary part of (something) ▪ If I want the job I have to accept the stress that goes with it. ▪ There are a lot of responsibilities that go with starting your own business. — see also go with the territory at TERRITORY 3 go with (someone or something) : to choose or use (someone or something) ▪ After thinking about who to offer the job to, they decided to go with the more experienced candidate. ▪ The golfer went with an iron off the tee. [=the golfer used an iron for her tee shot] go without [phrasal verb] go without or go without (something) : to not have (something) : to live or continue without having (something) ▪ How long can you go without sleeping/sleep? ▪ If you can't afford a new car, you'll just have to go without.

here goes (nothing) see ¹HERE

here/there you go (again) informal — used to say that something is happening again or in the same way that it has happened before ▪ There you go, making a big deal out of nothing. ▪ When I saw his name in the headlines I thought, "Here we go again."

how goes it? — used as an informal greeting ▪ Hi Paul. How goes it? [=how are you?]

ready, set, go see ¹READY

there go/goes informal — used to say that something is no longer available or possible ▪ Look at that traffic jam! There goes our only chance of arriving on time. [=our only chance of arriving on time is gone/lost] ▪ It's supposed to rain this weekend, so there go our plans for a barbecue. [=we won't be able to have a barbecue] to go 1 : still remaining ▪ There are only three more days to go until my birthday! 2 US, of food : sold to be taken away and eaten somewhere else ▪ "I'd like a hamburger." "For here or to go?" "To go."

²go noun, pl goes

1 [count] : an attempt to do something ▪ "I can't get the window open." "Let me have a go (at it)." [=let me try to do it] ▪ She's been thinking about learning to fly for many years, and she's finally decided to give it a go. [=she's finally decided to try doing it] ▪ (chiefly Brit) He managed to finish the work in/at one go. [=in one attempt, without stopping] ▪ (chiefly Brit) I don't know if this new medicine will help, but I think it's worth a go. [=it's worth a try]

2 [singular] US, informal : permission to do something ▪ My boss gave the project a go. [=my boss gave permission for the project to go ahead] ✧ In informal U.S. English, if you say that something is a go, you mean that it will or can happen in the way that was planned or hoped for. ▪ The rocket launch is a go. ▪ After many delays, we finally received word that the project is a go. If you say all systems (are) go, you mean that everything is working correctly so that something can continue or proceed in the planned or expected way. ▪ NASA officials have declared all systems go for the rocket launch. ▪ The problems have been fixed, and now all systems are go.

3 [noncount] chiefly Brit, informal : energy that makes someone want to do many things ▪ a young reporter who's full of go — see also GET-UP-AND-GO

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

4 [count] Brit : a turn in a game or other activity ▪ It's your go: they've had several goes already.
all go Brit, informal : full of activity : very busy ▪ In this office it's all go all day without a break.
have a go at Brit, informal : to attack or criticize (someone) ▪ The press is having a go at the Prime Minister.
make a go of : to succeed in doing (something) ▪ He tried starting his own business, but he wasn't able to make a go of it. [=he wasn't able to succeed]
no go US, informal — used to say that something will not be allowed or cannot be done ▪ We tried and tried to get the computer running but it was just no go. ▪ I asked my boss for more time to finish the project, but she said no go. [=she said I could not have more time] on the go 1 : very active or busy ▪ a housewife and mother who's always on the go 2 chiefly Brit : happening or going ▪ They have several projects on the go at the same time.

[1]goad /ˈgoʊd/ verb goads; goad•ed; goad•ing [+ obj] : to urge or force (someone) to do something ▪ He was goaded (on) by a sense of duty. ▪ The threat of legal action should goad them into complying/compliance.

[2]goad noun, pl goads [count]
1 : a pointed rod used to make an animal move forward
2 : someone or something that urges or forces someone to do something ▪ The threat of legal action is a powerful goad to companies that have ignored the regulations.

[1]go–ahead /ˈgowəˌhɛd/ noun
the go-ahead : permission to do something ▪ We've finally been given the go-ahead for the project. ▪ The company received/got the go-ahead to manufacture the new drug. — see also go ahead at [1]GO

[2]go–ahead adj, always used before a noun
1 US, sports : allowing a team to take the lead in a game ▪ He scored the go-ahead run/touchdown/goal.
2 [more ~; most ~] Brit : having a lot of energy and desire to try new ideas and methods ▪ a vigorous go-ahead company
– see also go ahead at [1]GO goal /ˈgoʊl/ noun, pl goals [count]

1 : something that you are trying to do or achieve ▪ He set a goal for himself of exercising at least three times a week. ▪ Her primary/long-term goal is to get a college degree. ▪ We all share/have a common goal. ▪ She pursued her goal of starting her own business. ▪ The company has instituted several new policies with the goal of reducing waste. ▪ achieve/accomplish/reach/realize a goal
2 a : an area or object into which a ball or puck must be hit, kicked, etc., to score points in various games (such as soccer and hockey) ✧ If you are the player who guards the goal in a sport like hockey or soccer, your position is in goal. ▪ He has played brilliantly in goal so far this year. ✧ In U.S. English, a shot or kick that is on goal is directed at the goal. ▪ They had a dozen shots on goal in the second period. b : the act of hitting, kicking, etc., a ball or puck into a goal or the score that results from doing this ▪ Last month he had 10 goals and six assists. ▪ She scored the winning goal in the game's final minute. ▪ The team was ahead by a goal [=was ahead by one] when the third period started. — see also FIELD GOAL – goal•less /ˈgoʊləs/ adj ▪ After playing the first half, both teams were still goalless. [=neither team had scored a goal]

goal•ie /ˈgoʊli/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a player who defends the goal in a game (such as soccer or hockey)

goal•keep•er /ˈgoʊlˌkiːpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a player who defends the goal in various games (especially soccer) — compare GOALTENDER
– goal•keep•ing /ˈgoʊlˌkiːpɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

goal line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : a line that must be crossed to score a goal in soccer, hockey, football, etc.

goal mouth noun, pl ~ mouths [count] : the area directly in front of the goal in soccer, hockey, etc.

goal•post /ˈgoʊlˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] : one of two upright posts that form part of the goal in various games (such as soccer, hockey, and football) move/shift the goalposts Brit : to change the rules or requirements in a way that makes success more difficult goal•tend•er /ˈgoʊlˌtɛndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a player who defends the goal in various games (especially hockey) — compare GOALKEEPER

– goal•tend•ing /ˈgoʊlˌtɛndɪŋ/ noun [noncount] go–around /ˈgowəˌraʊnd/ noun, pl -arounds [count] chiefly US, informal : GO-ROUND

goat /ˈgoʊt/ noun, pl goats
1 [count] : a small animal that is related to the sheep
2 the goat US : a person who is blamed for a loss or failure ▪ In the last inning, a home run can make you the hero, and a strikeout can make you the goat.
get your goat informal ✧ If something gets your goat, it upsets you or irritates you. ▪ The way she's always correcting other people really gets my goat!
old goat informal — used as an insulting way to refer to an old man ▪ She got married to some rich old goat.

goat

separate the sheep from the goats see [1]SEPARATE goat cheese noun, pl ~ cheeses [count, noncount] chiefly US : a cheese that is made from goat's milk

goa•tee /goʊˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count] : a small pointed beard on a man's chin — see picture at BEARD
– goa•teed /goʊˈtiːd/ adj ▪ a goateed man

goat•herd /ˈgoʊtˌhɚd/ noun, pl -herds [count] : a person who watches over a herd of goats

goat•skin /ˈgoʊtˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins [count, noncount] : leather made from the skin of a goat ▪ goatskin gloves

[1]gob /ˈgɑːb/ noun, pl gobs
1 [count] : a lump of something ▪ There's a gob of gum stuck to the bottom of my shoe.
2 gobs [plural] US, informal : a large amount of something ▪ They make gobs of money. ▪ She wore gobs of makeup.
– compare [2]GOB

[2]gob noun, pl gobs [count] Brit slang : MOUTH ▪ Shut your gob! — compare [1]GOB

gob•bet /ˈgɑːbət/ noun, pl -bets [count] chiefly Brit : a small lump or piece of something ▪ gobbets of meat : a small amount of something ▪ gobbets of information

[1]gob•ble /ˈgɑːbəl/ verb gob•bles; gob•bled; gob•bling [+ obj]
1 : to swallow or eat (something) quickly ▪ We gobbled our meal and rushed back to work. — usually + down or up ▪ He gobbled down a sandwich. ▪ The children are afraid that monsters will gobble them up.
2 : to take (something) quickly or suddenly — usually + up ▪ The local bank was gobbled up by a national conglomerate.
– compare [2]GOBBLE

[2]gobble verb gobbles; gobbled; gobbling [no obj] : to make the sound that a male turkey makes ▪ The actor gobbled like a turkey and quacked like a duck. — compare [1]GOBBLE
– gobble noun, pl gobbles [count] ▪ We heard the gobble of a turkey.

gob•ble•dy•gook also gob•ble•de•gook /ˈgɑːbəldiˌgʊk/ noun [noncount] informal : speech or writing that is complicated and difficult to understand ▪ The report is just a bunch of gobbledygook.

gob•bler /ˈgɑːblɚ/ noun, pl -blers [count] : a male turkey go–be•tween /ˈgoʊbəˌtwiːn/ noun, pl -tweens [count] : a person who talks to people or groups who disagree in order to help deal with or end the disagreement ▪ He'll act/serve as a go-between during the negotiations.

gob•let /ˈgɑːblət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a container used for drinking liquids that has a round bowl on top of a stem attached to a flat base

gob•lin /ˈgɑːblən/ noun, pl -lins [count] in stories : an ugly and sometimes evil creature that likes to cause trouble

gob•smacked /ˈgɑːbˌsmækt/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : very surprised or shocked : DUMBSTRUCK ▪ I was (really) gobsmacked by the news!

god /ˈgɑːd/ noun
1 God [singular] a : the perfect and all-powerful spirit or being that is worshipped especially by Christians, Jews, and Muslims as the one who created and rules the universe ▪ Does she believe in God? ▪ (May) God bless us all. ▪ (May) God rest her soul. [=I pray that God will give her soul peace now that she has died] ▪ I pray to God that no one was seriously injured in the accident. — see also MAN OF GOD b ✧ God is used informally by itself and in phrases to make a statement or question more forceful or to express surprise, anger, etc. These uses are common but are considered offensive by some people. ▪ God, it's hot out today. ▪ Good God, that's a lot of food! ▪ God Almighty, is it that late already? ▪ My God, what were you thinking?! ▪ Oh my God! I can't believe it! ▪ By God, I refuse to give up! ▪ For God's sake, what do you want from me? ▪ Who in God's name [=on earth, in heaven's name] could that be? ▪ Where in God's name have you been? ▪ I swear to God, if you're not ready in five minutes, I'm leaving without you. ▪ I wish to God you would stop complaining.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

2 [count] : a spirit or being that has great power, strength, knowledge, etc., and that can affect nature and the lives of people : one of various spirits or beings worshipped in some religions ▪ the gods and goddesses of ancient Egypt ▪ a Hindu god ▪ a myth about the god of war ▪ an offering for the gods — often used informally to suggest that what happens to someone is controlled by gods or by luck ▪ The gods smiled/frowned on us. = The gods were/weren't on our side [=we had good/bad luck; things went well/badly for us] ▪ (humorous) The golf gods seem to like you today. [=you are playing golf very well today] ▪ Her sudden arrival was a gift from the gods. [=a very lucky and helpful thing]

3 [count] a : a person and especially a man who is greatly loved or admired ▪ a professor who was regarded as a kind of god ▪ a guitar god like Jimi Hendrix b : a person who is very important or powerful in a particular field — usually plural ▪ a talented writer who never found favor with the gods of the literary world

4 [singular] : something that is regarded as one of the most important things in someone's life ▪ He made a god of money. [=he worshipped money; he regarded money as more important than it really is]

5 the gods Brit : the highest and cheapest seats in a theater ▪ The people in the gods can be the hardest to please.

act of God see ¹ACT
for the love of God see ¹LOVE
God bless you see BLESS God forbid see FORBID
God help someone see ¹HELP
God knows see ¹KNOW
God's gift see ¹GIFT
God willing — used to say what you hope and expect to do or happen if no problems occur ▪ We'll be able to move into our new house next week, God willing. ▪ God willing, I'll finish my degree this year.
in the lap of the gods see ¹LAP play God see ¹PLAY put the fear of God into see ¹FEAR so help me God see ¹HELP thank God see THANK
(there) but for the grace of God (go I) see ¹GRACE

– god-like /ˈgɑːdˌlaɪk/ adj

god–aw•ful /gɑdˈɑːfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + sometimes offensive : very bad or unpleasant : AWFUL ▪ god-awful [=terrible] weather ▪ a god-awful [=hideous] hat god•child /ˈgɑːdˌʧajəld/ noun, pl -child•ren /-ˌʧɪldrən/ [count] : a child that you promise to help teach and guide in religious matters when you become the child's godparent in a Christian baptism ceremony ▪ My niece is also my godchild.

god•damn also god•dam /ˌgɑːdˌdæm/ or god•damned /ˌgɑːdˌdæmd/ adj, always used before a noun, informal + impolite : DAMN ▪ I don't want to hear another goddamn lie. ▪ He's nothing but a goddamn fool!

> usage Goddamn is an angry word that many people find offensive.

– god•damn also god•dam /ˌgɑːdˌdæm/ or god•damned /ˌgɑːdˌdæmd/ adv ▪ It's too goddamn late to be talking about this. – god•damn also god•dam /ˈgɑːdˈdæm/ noun [singular] ▪ I don't give a goddamn what you think. [=I don't care at all about what you think] – god•damn also god•dam /ˈgɑːdˈdæm/ interj ▪ Goddamn! That sauce is hot! – god•damn also god•dam /ˈgɑːdˈdæm/ verb [+ obj] ▪ Goddamn these detours! ▪ I'll be goddamned if I let this stop me. [=I will not let this stop me] ▪ Goddamn it. They're gone.

god•daugh•ter /ˈgɑːdˌdɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a female godchild

god•dess /ˈgɑːdəs/ noun, pl -dess•es [count]
1 : a female god (sense 2) ▪ a goddess of ancient Greece
2 : a woman who is greatly loved or admired ▪ The actress, who is already a goddess in her own country, is finally getting recognition here.

god•fa•ther /ˈgɑːdˌfɑːðə/ noun, pl -thers [count]
1 : a man who is a godparent ▪ Her uncle is her godfather.
2 a : a man who invents or begins something ▪ Many people regard him as the godfather of rock and roll. b usually God-father : the leader of a group of criminals who belong to a secret criminal organization (such as the Mafia)

God–fear•ing /ˈgɑːdˌfɪrɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe religious people who try to obey the rules of their religion and to live in a way that is considered morally right ▪ They are hardworking, God-fearing people.

god•for•sak•en /ˈgɑːdfəˌseɪkən/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] of a place : not at all interesting or appealing and usually located far from interesting people and places ▪ a godforsaken little town ▪ Who would want to visit such a godforsaken place?

God–giv•en /ˈgɑːdˈgɪvən/ adj : received as a gift from God ▪ She has a God-given [=natural] talent for making friends. ▪ God-given athletic skills

God•head /ˈgɑːdˌhɛd/ noun
the Godhead formal : GOD 1; especially : God as considered by Christians to be made up of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit ▪ praying to the Godhead

god•less /ˈgɑːdləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : not believing in God ▪ a godless people/society ▪ a godless place [=a place where no one believes in God] ▪ godless ideologies
– god•less•ness noun [noncount]

god•ly /ˈgɑːdli/ adj god•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] old-fashioned : believing in God and in the importance of living a moral life ▪ a godly person ▪ She lived a godly life.
– god•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ Cleanliness is next to godliness. [=it is almost as important to be clean as it is to be good]

god•moth•er /ˈgɑːdˌmʌðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a woman who is a godparent ▪ Her aunt is also her godmother. — see also FAIRY GODMOTHER god•par•ent /ˈgɑːdˌperənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : a person who promises to help teach and guide someone in religious matters as part of a Christian baptism ceremony : a godfather or godmother ▪ My aunt and uncle are also my godparents.

god•send /ˈgɑːdˌsɛnd/ noun, pl -sends [count]
1 : something that provides great and usually unexpected help when it is needed — usually singular ▪ The treatment is a godsend for people who suffer from this condition.
2 : a very helpful person — usually singular ▪ I didn't want to hire her but she's turned out to be a real godsend.

god•son /ˈgɑːdˌsʌn/ noun, pl -sons [count] : a male godchild

God•speed /ˈgɑːdˈspiːd/ noun [noncount] formal + old-fashioned — used to wish success to someone who is going away ▪ We wish you Godspeed. — sometimes used as an interjection ▪ Goodbye and Godspeed to you.

go•er /ˈgowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal
1 chiefly Brit : someone or something that goes or moves fast ▪ The horse is a real goer.
2 Brit : a woman who has sex with many men ▪ She had a reputation as a bit of a goer.

-goer combining form, pl -goers [count] : someone who often goes to a particular kind of place, event, etc. ▪ moviegoers ▪ churchgoers : someone who goes to a particular event or activity ▪ partygoers

goes see GO

go•fer /ˈgoʊfə/ noun, pl -fers [count] informal : a person whose job is to do various small and usually boring jobs for other people go–get•ter /ˈgoʊˈgɛtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] informal : a person who works very hard and who wants very much to succeed ▪ She's always been a real go-getter.

– go–get•ting /ˈgoʊˌgɛtɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a go-getting attitude gog•gle /ˈgɑːgl/ verb gog•gles; gog•gled; gog•gling [no obj] informal : to look at something or someone with your eyes very open in a way that shows that you are surprised, amazed, etc. ▪ He goggled in amazement at the huge statue.

gog•gle–eyed /ˈgɑːglˌaɪd/ adj, informal : with the eyes very open in a way that shows surprise, amazement, etc. ▪ He stared at me goggle-eyed. ▪ a goggle-eyed child gog•gles /ˈgɑːglz/ noun [plural] : special eyeglasses that fit close to your face and that are worn to protect your eyes ▪ swimming/ski goggles ▪ safety goggles

go–go /ˈgoʊˌgoʊ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to describe a woman who performs as a dancer to fast, energetic, popular music in a nightclub ▪ go-go dancers ▪ go-go girls
2 chiefly US : relating to or involved in a time when many

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

businesses are growing quickly and it is possible to make a lot of money ▪ He made a fortune during the market's go-go years. ▪ a go-go economy

[1]go•ing /ˈgowɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : the act of leaving a place — usually singular ▪ We were disappointed to learn of her going. [=departure]
2 [noncount] a : the condition of the ground for walking, running, etc. ▪ The muddy ground made for slippery going. [=the muddy ground was slippery] ▪ Debris in the street made the going difficult. ▪ The going got better as we neared the town. b — used to describe a situation in which you are trying to make progress or do something ▪ It's been slow going so far [=progress has been slow so far], but the project should speed up soon. ▪ The report is pretty hard/heavy going. [=it is quite difficult to understand] ▪ This is a big job, and it's going to be rough/tough going [=hard work; a difficult situation] for a while. ▪ What will you do when the going gets tough? [=when it becomes difficult to continue or to make progress] ▪ You know what they say—when the going gets tough, the tough get going. [=when there are problems, strong people work hard to solve them] ▪ (chiefly Brit) Let's get what we can while the going is good. [=while there is a good opportunity]
3 [noncount] chiefly Brit : forward movement, speed, or progress ▪ She wrote four books in two years, and that's pretty good going by any standards!
comings and goings : the activity of people arriving at and leaving a place ▪ I sat and watched the comings and goings of the other museum visitors.

[2]going adj
1 always used after a noun, informal : living or existing ▪ He's the best novelist going. ▪ They make the best chili going. [=the best chili that there is]
2 always used before a noun : current or usual — used to describe an amount of money (such as a price or salary) ▪ What's the going price? ▪ They offered to pay the going rate [=the rate usually paid] for her services.
going on : coming closer to (something, such as an age) ▪ Their daughter is six years old going on seven. ▪ It's going on 10 years since I saw him last. [=I haven't seen him for almost 10 years]

-going combining form : often or regularly going to a particular kind of place, event, etc. ▪ the theater*going* public [=the people who often go to see plays performed] ▪ church*going* people going concern noun, pl ~ -cerns [count] : a business that is making a profit ▪ They had a difficult start, but they've turned the restaurant into a going concern.

go•ing–over /ˌgowɪŋˈoʊvɚ/ noun [singular]
1 : a careful examination ▪ I'll give the documents a (thorough) going-over. [=I'll read the documents carefully]
2 informal : a severe beating ▪ They threatened to give him a (good) going-over if he didn't cooperate.
– see also go over at [1]GO go•ings–on /ˌgowɪŋzˈɑːn/ noun [plural] : actions or events that are occurring : things that are happening ▪ We heard about all the strange goings-on [=happenings] at the office. — see also go on at [1]GO

goi•ter (US) or chiefly Brit goi•tre /ˈgɔɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count, noncount] medical : a swelling on the front of the neck caused by the thyroid gland becoming too large

go–kart /ˈgoʊˌkɑɚt/ noun, pl -karts [count] : a small car that has one or two seats and an open top and that is used especially for racing

[1]gold /ˈgoʊld/ noun, pl golds
1 [noncount] : a soft yellow metal that is very valuable and that is used especially in jewelry ▪ diamonds in a setting of 24-karat gold ▪ What is the price of gold? ▪ miners digging for gold ▪ solid/pure gold — see also FOOL'S GOLD
2 [noncount] : gold coins ▪ a bag of gold — often used figuratively ▪ All the gold [=money, wealth] in the world won't make you happy. ▪ She's chasing after a pot of gold (at the end of the rainbow). [=something impossible to get or achieve]
3 [count, noncount] : a deep yellow color — see color picture on page C2
4 [count] : GOLD MEDAL ▪ She hopes to bring home a gold. ▪ She is going for the gold. [=trying to win the gold medal]
(as) good as gold : very good ▪ The children were as good as gold this morning. ▪ His word is as good as gold. [=you can always trust him to do what he says he will do]
strike gold see [1]STRIKE worth your weight in gold : very useful, valuable, or important ▪ Good teachers are worth their weight in gold. ▪ An experience like that is worth its weight in gold.

[2]gold adj
1 : made of or from gold ▪ gold jewelry ▪ gold bullion
2 : having a gold color ▪ the gold [=golden] glow of the sun ▪ gold paint gold digger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] informal : a woman who becomes or tries to become romantically involved with a rich man in order to get money and gifts from him

gold•en /ˈgoʊldən/ adj
1 : made of gold ▪ a golden idol ▪ golden jewelry
2 [more ~; most ~] : having the deep yellow color of gold ▪ golden hair ▪ fields of golden wheat
3 [more ~; most ~] : very happy and successful ▪ The memoir recounts the golden times in her life. ▪ a golden era — see also GOLDEN AGE, GOLDEN YEARS
4 [more ~; most ~] : very excellent : SUPERB, WONDERFUL ▪ This is a golden opportunity. [=a wonderful opportunity; an excellent chance to do or get something]
5 : very talented, popular, and successful — used in the phrases golden boy and golden girl ▪ He was once the golden boy of tennis, but now few people remember his name. ▪ She's the golden girl of the newspaper business.
6 [more ~; most ~] : having a rich and smooth sound ▪ a smooth golden voice
7 not used before a noun, informal : in a very good or fortunate position or situation ▪ If the bank approves the loan, we're golden.
8 always used before a noun : of or relating to the 50th anniversary of an important event (such as a marriage) ▪ They will celebrate their golden (wedding) anniversary this year. = (Brit) They will celebrate their golden wedding this year. ▪ a golden jubilee — compare DIAMOND, SILVER golden goose or the goose that lays the golden egg see [1]GOOSE silence is golden see [1]SILENCE

golden age noun, pl ~ ages [count] : a time of great happiness, success, and achievement ▪ the golden age of art/literature ▪ a golden age for our country

gold•en–ag•er /ˈgoʊldənˈeɪʤɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : an old and often retired person : SENIOR CITIZEN ▪ a club for golden-agers golden eagle noun, pl ~ eagles [count] : a very large bird that lives in the northern parts of the world and that is dark brown with yellow feathers on the back of its head and neck golden handcuffs noun [plural] : the salary and benefits that stop a highly paid employee from choosing to leave a job

golden handshake noun, pl ~ -shakes [count] : a large amount of money that a company gives to an employee who is leaving the company golden oldie noun, pl ~ -ies [count] informal : a song, recording, or television show that was very popular in the past ▪ The radio station plays golden oldies from the 1950s.

golden parachute noun, pl ~ -chutes [count] : a large amount of money that a company pays to an executive who is being forced to leave the company

golden raisin noun, pl ~ -sins [count] US : a dried grape that is a brownish-yellow color and is used for food — called also (chiefly Brit) sultana

golden retriever noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a type of dog that has long yellowish-brown fur — see picture at DOG

gold•en•rod /ˈgoʊldənˌrɑːd/ noun [noncount] : a type of wild plant that has large groups of yellow flowers

golden rule noun, pl ~ rules
1 the Golden Rule : a general rule for how to behave that says that you should treat people the way you would like other people to treat you ▪ I try to live by the Golden Rule.
2 [count] : an important rule to follow when you do something ▪ The golden rule in sales is to know your customer.

golden years noun [plural] : the late years in someone's life : the time of life when someone is old ▪ My grandparents were active well into their golden years. [=old age]

gold• nch /ˈgoʊldˌfɪnʧ/ noun, pl - nch •es [count]
1 : a small mostly yellow American bird — see color picture on page C9
2 : a small European bird that has red on its head and yellow and black wings

gold• sh /ˈgoʊldˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl gold sh [count] : a small usually orange fish that people often keep in ponds or in fishbowls or tanks as a pet

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

goldfish bowl noun, pl ~ bowls [count] : a place or condition in which there is no privacy ▪ celebrities who cannot escape from the goldfish bowl of constant publicity gold leaf noun [noncount] : a very thin sheet of gold used especially to decorate a surface ▪ a frame covered with gold leaf

gold medal noun, pl ~ -dals [count] : a medal made of gold that is awarded as the prize for first place in a sports competition ▪ He won three gold medals in the Olympics. — compare BRONZE MEDAL, SILVER MEDAL

gold mine noun, pl ~ mines [count]
1 : a place where gold is dug from the ground : a mine that produces gold
2 : something that has or produces a lot of something desired (such as money) ▪ When she was the manager, the restaurant was a (real/veritable) gold mine! [=it was very profitable] ▪ The library is a gold mine of information.

gold–plat•ed /ˈgoʊldˈpleɪtəd/ adj : covered with a thin layer of gold ▪ a gold-plated serving tray

gold record noun, pl ~ -cords [count] : an award that is given to a singer or musical group for selling a lot of recordings — compare PLATINUM RECORD

gold rush noun, pl ~ rushes [count] : a situation in which many people go quickly to a place where gold has been discovered because they hope to find more gold and become rich ▪ the California gold rush of 1849

gold•smith /ˈgoʊldˈsmɪθ/ noun, pl -smiths [count] : a person who makes gold jewelry and other gold items

gold standard noun
the gold standard 1 : a system in which a unit of money (such as the dollar) is equal to a particular amount of gold ▪ It was the early 20th century, and the United States was still on the gold standard. 2 : something that is considered to be the best and that is used to judge the quality or level of other, similar things ▪ This car is the gold standard for luxury automobiles. ▪ the gold standard of stylish resorts

golf /ˈgɑːlf/ noun [noncount] : an outdoor game in which players use special clubs (called golf clubs) to try to hit a small ball with as few strokes as possible into each of 9 or 18 holes ▪ playing some golf ▪ a round of golf
– golf verb golfs; golfed; golfing [no obj] ▪ He likes to golf. [=to play golf] – golf•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's an excellent golfer. – golf•ing /ˈgɑːlfɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She enjoys photography and golfing. [=playing golf]

golf ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] : a small ball used in the game of golf — see picture at BALL

golf cart noun, pl ~ carts [count] : a small car that is used to carry golfers and their equipment around a golf course

golf club noun, pl ~ clubs [count]
1 : a special long stick with a larger part at the bottom that is used to hit the ball in golf ▪ She bought a new set of golf clubs.
2 : an organization whose members play golf ▪ He joined a golf club last year.; also : the golf course where the members of such an organization play ▪ I'll meet you at the golf club.

golf club

golf course noun, pl ~ courses [count] : a large area of land set up for the game of golf gol•ly /ˈgɑːli/ interj, old-fashioned — used to express mild surprise ▪ Golly, I never thought I'd see YOU here!

go•nad /ˈgoʊˌnæd/ noun, pl -nads [count] technical : a sex organ that produces sperm or eggs : a testicle or an ovary — called also sex gland

gon•do•la /ˈgɑːndələ/ noun, pl -las [count]
1 : a long narrow boat used on the canals of Venice
2 a : the part of a balloon or airship in which passengers or instruments are carried b : a vehicle that hangs from a cable and is used for carrying passengers (such as skiers) especially up a mountain gon•do•lier /ˌgɑːndəˈliə/ noun, pl -liers [count] : a person who operates a gondola (sense 1)

[1]gone past participle of [1]GO

[2]gone /ˈgɑːn/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : not present : no longer at a place ▪ How long will he be gone? [=away, absent] ▪ She should have been back by now. She's been gone for more than an hour.
2 a : no longer existing ▪ The days of the horse and buggy are (long) gone. b : no longer living ▪ There was nothing we could do—he was already gone. [=dead]
3 baseball : hit over the fence for a home run ▪ The outfielder went back to the fence and jumped, but the ball was gone.
4 Brit, informal : PREGNANT — used after a noun phrase indicating a length of time ▪ She's six months gone. [=she became pregnant six months ago]
dead and gone see [1]DEAD far gone see [1]FAR gone on informal + old-fashioned : feeling strong or foolish love for (someone) ▪ Those two are really gone on each other.

[3]gone prep, Brit, informal : AFTER, PAST ▪ It was (just) gone six when he got back.

gon•er /ˈgɑːnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : someone or something that is going to die or that can no longer be used ▪ I thought we were all goners [=were going to die] when the plane's engine stopped. ▪ This old computer is a goner. We'll have to get a new one.

gong /ˈgɑːŋ/ noun, pl gongs [count]
1 : a large metal disc that makes a deep ringing sound when it is struck with a padded hammer ▪ They sounded a gong to summon us to dinner. — see picture at PERCUSSION
2 Brit, informal : a medal or award

gon•na /ˈgʌnə, gənə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase going to when it is spoken quickly ▪ I'm gonna [=going to] get you if it's the last thing I do! ✧ The pronunciation represented by gonna is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when trying to represent or record such speech.

gon•or•rhea (US) or Brit gon•or•rhoea /ˌgɑːnəˈriːjə/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease of the sex organs that is spread by sexual contact — called also (slang) the clap

gon•zo /ˈgɑːnzoʊ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : having a very strange or unusual quality ▪ gonzo humor ▪ a gonzo comedian ▪ gonzo journalism [=journalism that treats a subject in a very personal, unusual, and often shocking way]

goo /ˈguː/ noun [noncount] informal : a wet and sticky substance ▪ What's this goo all over the stove? — often used figuratively ▪ The movie is nothing but a lot of romantic/sentimental goo. [=the movie is too romantic/sentimental] — see also GOOEY

goo•ber /ˈguːbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] US, informal : PEANUT 1

[1]good /ˈgʊd/ adj bet•ter /ˈbɛtə/; best /ˈbɛst/
1 a : of high quality ▪ The food was good. = It was good food. ▪ You'll need better tools for this job. ▪ The car is in good condition/shape. ▪ There are some good restaurants in this neighborhood. ▪ That was a good game. [=the game was exciting, people played well, etc.] ▪ I'm afraid your work is just not good enough. ▪ Keep up the good work. ▪ "Would you hire her again?" "Yes, I would. She does good work." ▪ His most recent movie is no good. [=it is boring, poorly made, etc.] b : of somewhat high but not excellent quality ▪ The food was good but not great. ▪ He has done good but not outstanding work.
2 : correct or proper ▪ good manners ▪ good grammar ▪ She speaks very good English. [=she uses correct pronunciation, grammar, etc.]
3 a : pleasant, pleasing, or enjoyable ▪ Did you have a good time at the party? ▪ We're expecting good weather for the weekend. ▪ The soup tastes/smells good. ▪ food that is good to eat ▪ It feels good to sit down after so much walking. ▪ It's a good feeling to know that we were able to help. ▪ good [=happy] memories ▪ I want to make a good [=favorable] impression on my future in-laws. ▪ his rugged good looks [=attractive appearance] ▪ You look good in that dress. = That dress looks good on you. ▪ You don't look so good. [=you look like you feel sick] Do you feel okay? ▪ Have a good day! = (US, informal) Have a good one! [=I hope you have an enjoyable day] — see also GOOD LIFE, GOOD-LOOKING b : not having, marked by, or relating to problems, troubles, etc. ▪ good and bad news ▪ They've been together in good times and bad. ▪ I had a good feeling about the meeting. ▪ Things are looking pretty good for the company right now. ▪ a good omen ▪ I had the good luck/fortune to meet her when I was in New York. — see also good luck at [1]LUCK c : adequate or suitable ▪ It's a good day for a sail. ▪ We need to have a meeting. Is tomorrow good [=convenient] for you? ▪ He's a good person to contact if you're ever in trouble. ▪ I need tires that are good (for driving) in snow. ▪ These tires aren't any good. = These tires are no good. d : sensible or reasonable ▪ She has a very good reason for being angry. ▪ He showed good judgment in buying a small car. ▪ She gave us some good advice. ▪ That's a very good question/point. ▪ She had the good sense to ask for help. [=she showed that she is able to think in a reasonable way by asking for help] ▪ It's a good idea to arrive early. ▪ "We'd better arrive early." "Good idea/thinking." e : producing or likely to produce a pleasant or favorable result ▪ a good deal/plan ▪ a good risk/investment ▪ a lot of good marketing ideas ▪ It's a good time to be investing in the stock market. ▪ Please accept our best wishes for your success. ▪ "The plane arrived on time." "That's good." ▪ Nothing good came of our efforts. ▪ It's a good thing (that) you answered so quickly. = It was good that you answered so quickly. f : having a desired quality ▪ We paid a good price [=a low price] for the tickets. ▪ The painting should fetch/bring a good price [=a high price] when it's sold. ▪ Did you get good [=high] grades in school? ▪ We found a good parking space near the restaurant. ▪ She has good taste in clothes. [=she likes clothes that are fashionable, of high quality, etc.] g : expressing approval or praise ▪ a movie that has been getting good reviews ▪ I've heard a lot of good things about you. h — used in speech as a response ▪ "I'm ready to go when you are." "Good. Let's get going." ▪ "I passed the exam!" "(Very) Good!" ▪ "I passed the exam!" "Good for you!" = (chiefly Australia) "Good on you!" [=well done]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

4 a : not marked or affected by injury or disease : HEALTHY ▪ I went home early because I wasn't feeling too/very good. [=I wasn't feeling well; I was feeling sick] ▪ Her health is pretty good. = She's in pretty good health. ▪ The patient was reported to be in good condition following surgery. ▪ His hearing is still good but his eyesight is pretty poor/bad. ▪ my good arm/leg [=the arm/leg that is not injured or weak] b : not causing harm or trouble : causing something desired ▪ a good [=healthy, healthful] diet ▪ good nutrition ▪ You've been a good influence on the kids. ▪ good habits ▪ good cholesterol [=a type of cholesterol that helps prevent a disease that stops your blood from flowing easily] — often + for ▪ Regular exercise is good for you. [=regular exercise makes you healthier] ▪ Hot soup is good for a cold. [=hot soup makes you feel better when you have a cold] ▪ Being with friends is especially good for him right now.

5 a : not morally bad or wrong : morally proper or correct ▪ a good person ▪ good conduct/behavior ▪ a woman/man of good character ▪ Like most people, she has a good side and a bad side. ▪ My intentions were good. ▪ You did a good thing/deed when you helped that stranger. ▪ He lived a good life. ▪ It's hard to tell the good guys [=morally correct people/characters] from the bad guys in this movie. ▪ She is admired for her many good works. [=for the many things she does to help poor people, sick people, etc.] ▪ You should stay away from that guy. He's no good. [=he's a bad person] — see also GOOD LIFE b : kind or helpful ▪ You've always been so good to me. ▪ It was good of you to answer my request so quickly. — sometimes used to formally make a request ▪ Would you be good enough to show me the way? = Would you be so good as to show me the way? [=would you please show me the way?] c : behaving properly : not causing trouble ▪ a good dog ▪ The children were very good today.

6 a : having or showing talent or skill : doing or able to do something well ▪ She's a very good golfer. ▪ a good musician/doctor/cook ▪ He was really good in his last movie. [=he acted very well] ▪ I don't know if I'm good enough to make the team. ▪ I have a good memory. [=I am good at remembering things] ▪ a good sense of direction [=an ability to find your way easily in a new place] ▪ an agent with a good eye for new talent [=an agent who is good at finding talented people who are not yet known or famous] ▪ It's a great school where you know your kids are in good hands. [=with people who are able to teach and take care of them well] ▪ I'm confident the café will be in good hands with you in charge. — often + at ▪ She's very good at (playing) golf. ▪ He's not very/any good at expressing his feelings. = He's no good at expressing his feelings. — sometimes used in a joking way ▪ I'm very/really good at saying the wrong thing. [=I often say things that make people uncomfortable, unhappy, etc.] — see also no good, not any good at ²GOOD b : able to use something or to deal with something or someone well — + with ▪ He's very good with his hands. [=he can easily make/do things with his hands] ▪ She's good with children. [=she manages and interacts with children well; children like her and behave well when they are with her] c : having a tendency to do something — + about ▪ He's good about writing everything down. [=he usually writes everything down] ▪ I'm trying to be better about exercising. [=I'm trying to exercise more often]

7 a : happy or pleased ▪ I feel good about what happened. [=I'm pleased by what happened] ▪ She felt good that she had remembered his birthday. = She felt good about remembering his birthday. ▪ Helping other people makes me feel good. ▪ She didn't feel good about having to fire her secretary. b : cheerful or calm ▪ She's in a good mood. [=a happy mood] ▪ He has a good temper. [=he is good-tempered; he doesn't become angry easily] ▪ Everyone was in good spirits.

8 not used before a noun a — used to say how long something will continue or be valid ▪ This offer is good only until the end of the month. ▪ This offer is good for the remainder of the month. ▪ Our old car should be good for a few more years. [=it should last a few more years; it should continue to operate for a few more years] b : still suitable to eat or drink : not spoiled ▪ Is the milk still good or has it gone bad?

9 — used in phrases like good heavens and good God to express surprise or anger or to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ Good heavens! You startled me! ▪ "Do you agree with him?" "Good God, no!" ▪ (somewhat old-fashioned) Good gracious, I completely forgot! — see also good grief at GRIEF

10 : causing laughter : FUNNY ▪ I heard a good joke the other day. ▪ "He says he's never met her." "That's a good one. [=that's amusing because it isn't true] I saw them together last week." ▪ She's always good for a laugh. [=she is always funny]

11 a : large in size, amount, or quantity ▪ The store has a good selection of products. ▪ She won the election by a good [=considerable] margin. ▪ He makes good money as a lawyer. = He makes a good living as a lawyer. [=he earns a lot of money] ▪ They couldn't have succeeded without a good deal of luck. [=a lot of luck] ▪ Things could be a good deal worse. [=things could be much worse] ▪ Tourists have been coming to the area in good numbers. [=many tourists have been coming to the area] ▪ an actress who has appeared in a good number of films [=in many films] b : not less or fewer than a particular amount : at least — used in the phrase a good ▪ He weighs a good 200 pounds. ▪ We waited a good hour. [=we waited at least an hour] ▪ There are a good 80 people here.

12 always used before a noun : forceful or thorough ▪ If you give the machine a good kick, it might start working again. ▪ Give the bottle a good shake before you open it. ▪ Take a good look at this. ▪ You just need (to get) a good night's sleep. ▪ We were scared when it happened, but we had a good laugh about it later.

13 : having a high social position or status ▪ He comes from a good family. ▪ She thinks her son is too good for me. ▪ It's a good neighborhood.

14 always used before a noun a — used to describe people who know each other well and care about each other very much ▪ She's a good [=close] friend of mine. = She and I are good friends. ▪ my good friend/pal/buddy Joe b : showing true and constant support for someone ▪ He's been a good friend to me. ▪ I'm trying to be a better sister. c : belonging to and having loyalty to a group or organization ▪ a good party member ▪ a good Catholic

15 not used before a noun, sports a of a serve or shot : landing in the proper area of the court in tennis and similar games ▪ I thought the ball/serve was good but my opponent said it was out. b of a shot or kick : successfully done ▪ (basketball) The first foul shot was good, but he missed the second one. ▪ (American football) The field goal was good. ▪ (American football) The field goal was no good. [=the field goal was missed]

16 not used before a noun, informal : not wanting or needing anything more ▪ "Would you like more coffee?" "No, thanks. I'm good." ▪ "Here's the money I owed you. So we're good now, right?" "Yeah, we're good." [=we have settled our business; there is no longer any problem between us]

all in good time see ¹TIME

all well and good see ²WELL

as good as : almost or nearly ▪ The plan is as good as dead. ▪ Those people as good as ruined the school with their foolish ideas!

(as) good as gold see ¹GOLD as good as it gets informal 1 — used to say that nothing better is possible or available ▪ It's not a great restaurant, but in this part of the city, it's as good as it gets. 2 — used to say that something is very good and cannot be improved ▪ There's nothing I enjoy more than spending time at home with my family. That's as good as it gets.

as good as new see ¹NEW

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

fight the good fight see [1]FIGHT for good measure see [1]MEASURE give as good as you get see [1]GIVE good and /ˌgʊdn/ chiefly US, informal 1 : VERY ▪ I hit him good and hard. ▪ He was good and angry. ▪ I like my coffee good and hot. 2 : completely or entirely ▪ We'll leave when I'm good and ready.
good egg see [1]EGG good for somewhat informal : able to provide or produce (something) ▪ I'm good for a hundred dollars if you need a loan. — see also [1]GOOD 4b, 8a (above) good for it informal : able to pay back a loan ▪ Why won't you lend me the money? You know I'm good for it. [=you can trust me to pay it back]
good graces see [1]GRACE good old informal — used before a noun to describe a familiar person or thing with affection or approval ▪ Good old John: you can always count on him to help. ▪ I don't need fancy shoes. I prefer good old sneakers. ▪ They were talking about the good old days. [=happy times in the past] — see also GOOD OLD BOY good riddance see RIDDANCE good to go US, informal : ready to leave or to start doing something ▪ We have all the tools and supplies we need, so we're good to go.
good word see [1]WORD have it good : to be in a favorable position or situation ▪ There's no reason for her to be so unhappy. She really has it (pretty) good. ▪ He's never had it so good. [=he has never been in such a favorable situation] have the good grace see [1]GRACE hold good : to be true ▪ The advice she gave us 10 years ago still holds good [=(more commonly) holds true] today.
if you know what's good for you : if you want to avoid trouble, problems, etc. ▪ You'll take my advice if you know what's good for you. ▪ She'll forget about the whole thing if she knows what's good for her.
in good company see COMPANY in good part see [1]PART make good 1 : to become successful ▪ It's a story about a kid from a small town trying to make good in the big city. ✧ If you make good your escape, you escape successfully. ▪ The prisoners dug a tunnel under the fence and made good their escape. 2 : to do something that you have promised or threatened to do ▪ He made good his promise. — usually + on in U.S. English ▪ He made good on his promise. ▪ They made good on their threat and forced the company to go out of business. 3 a : to pay for (something) — usually + on ▪ The insurance company was required to make good on the loss. b chiefly Brit : to repair (something) ▪ The contract obliges you to make good any damaged windows.
so far, so good see [1]FAR too good to be true — used to say that something cannot be as good as it seems to be ▪ The price of the car is too good to be true. There must be something wrong with it. ▪ If it looks/seems too good to be true, it probably is. [=there is probably some cost or bad part you do not know about] very good formal — used as a response to say you will do something that you have been told or asked to do ▪ "Show the ambassador in." "Very good, sir."
what's good for the goose is good for the gander see [1]GOOSE with (a) good grace see [1]GRACE

[2]good noun, pl goods

1 a [noncount] : morally good forces or influences ▪ the battle of good versus evil ▪ Teachers can be a strong force for good. ▪ the difference between good and bad b [count] : something that is right or good ▪ They had to sacrifice lesser goods for greater ones. ▪ What is life's highest/greatest good?
2 the good a [singular] : the pleasant things that happen to people ▪ You have to take the good with the bad. [=you have to accept both the good things and the bad things that happen to you] b [singular] : things that are morally proper or correct ▪ Parents must teach their children the difference between the good and the bad. c [plural] : morally good people ▪ She believes that the good go to heaven when they die and the bad go to hell. ▪ Only the good die young.
3 [noncount] : the part of someone that is kind, honest, generous, helpful, etc. ▪ They cherished the good [=goodness] in him, overlooking the bad. ▪ She believes there is some good in everyone.
4 [noncount] a : something that helps someone or something to be better, stronger, etc. ▪ She did it for the good of the community. [=to help the community] ▪ citizens working together for the common/public good [=to help or benefit everyone] ▪ I know you don't want to do this, but it's for your own good. [=it will make you stronger, better, etc.] ▪ They talk too much for their own good. [=they hurt themselves by talking too much] b : a useful or favorable result ▪ What good can possibly come of that? ▪ No good came of our efforts. = Our efforts came to no good. [=our efforts did not produce a good or useful result] — see also NO GOOD (below)
5 goods [plural] a : products that are made or grown in order to be sold : things for sale ▪ The store sells a variety of goods. ▪ baked/canned goods ▪ leather/paper goods ▪ perishable goods such as milk, eggs, and produce ▪ He's accused of selling stolen goods. ▪ goods and services ▪ a store that sells sporting goods [=products that are used for playing sports] — see also DAMAGED GOODS, DRY GOODS, DURABLE GOODS, WHITE GOODS b : things that are owned by a person ▪ He sold all of his worldly goods. [=all of his possessions] c Brit : products carried by trains, trucks, etc. : FREIGHT — used before another noun ▪ a goods lorry — see also GOODS TRAIN
be any good : to be useful or helpful ▪ Would an apology be any good? [=any use]
deliver the goods or chiefly Brit come up with the goods informal : to produce the desired or promised results : to do what is wanted or expected ▪ We knew we could count on him to deliver the goods. [=get the job done] do good 1 : to do kind or helpful things : to do things that help other people ▪ She tried to make the community better by doing good. ▪ She has done a lot of good in the community. — see also DO-GOODER 2 a : to be useful or helpful — used with any, much, some, etc. ▪ I tried to convince him to change his mind, but it didn't do any good. [=I was unable to convince him] ▪ He's been exercising more and it seems to be doing some good. ▪ You can try, but it probably won't do much good. ▪ It might do a little good. b : to be useful to or helpful for someone or something ▪ You should exercise more. It might do you (some) good. ▪ Weeding regularly will do your garden good. [=will improve your garden] ▪ The visit with her grandchildren did her a world/lot of good. = (Brit) The visit with her grandchildren did her a power of good. [=it was very good for her; it made her feel much better and happier] ✧ If you do not think that something is helpful, useful, or worth doing, you can ask What good does it do?, What good is it?, What's the good of it?, etc. ▪ What good does it to do to bring an umbrella along [=why bring an umbrella along] if you are only going to leave it in the car? ▪ What good is a college education when you can't get a job after you graduate? ▪ What's the good of working hard if your boss doesn't give you any credit for it? ▪ I could try talking to him, but what good would that do/be? He has already made up his mind.
for good also for good and all : forever ▪ "When is she coming back?" "She's not coming back. She's gone for good."
have/get the goods on informal ✧ To have/get the goods on someone is to have/get evidence showing that someone has done something wrong. ▪ We can't arrest her until we get the goods on her.
in good with US, informal : in a favored position with (someone) ▪ She's in good with the boss. [=the boss likes her]
it's an ill wind that blows no good see [1]ILL no good or not any good : not effective or useful ▪ I tried to convince him to change his mind, but it was no good, he wouldn't listen to me. ▪ It's no good [=no use] talking to him. = It isn't any good talking to him. — see also BE ANY GOOD (above) not much good : not very effective or useful ▪ I tried to convince him to change his mind, but it wasn't much good.
to the good 1 — used to say that a particular result or effect is good or would be good; usually used after all ▪ If the new policy requires the government to keep more accurate records, that's all to the good. [=that's a good thing; that's desirable] 2 — used to indicate an amount of gain or profit ▪ In the end, we were $100 to the good. [=we gained $100] up to no good informal : doing bad things or planning to do bad things ▪ If you ask me, that woman's up to no good.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

[3]good adv, informal
1 chiefly US : [1]WELL 1 ▪ Things have been going good lately. ▪ The team is doing good this year. ▪ "How did you hit the ball today?" "Good." ✧ The use of good to mean "well" is considered wrong by many people. It occurs mainly in very informal speech.
2 chiefly US : completely and thoroughly ▪ The other team whipped us good. ▪ That was a funny joke you played on him. You really got him good. [=he was completely fooled by the joke] ▪ "They sure soaked you with that bucket of water." "Yeah, they really got me good." [=I got completely soaked with water] ▪ (Brit) Clean it up good and proper.
3 — used for emphasis before words like long and many ▪ I haven't seen her for a good long time. [=a very long time] ▪ There were a good many people [=a lot of people] at the meeting. ▪ (chiefly Brit) Not all our students go on to university, but a good few [=quite a few] of them do.

good afternoon interj, somewhat formal — used to say hello to someone in the afternoon ▪ Good afternoon! Thanks for calling.

Good Book noun
the Good Book : BIBLE 1a ▪ As the Good Book says . . .

[1]good-bye also good-by /ˌgʊdˈbaɪ/ interj — used to express good wishes when someone is leaving ▪ Goodbye! See you later!

[2]goodbye also goodby noun, pl -byes also -bys [count]
1 : a remark or gesture made when someone is leaving ▪ He said his goodbyes and left. ▪ They said goodbye and went their separate ways. ▪ They waved goodbye from the window. ▪ She kissed him goodbye. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She said goodbye to her old job. [=she left her old job]
2 : a time or occasion when someone leaves ▪ a tearful goodbye ▪ I can't stand long goodbyes.
kiss (something) goodbye see [1]KISS

good day interj, somewhat formal + old-fashioned — used to say hello or goodbye to someone in the daytime ▪ Welcome and good day.

good evening interj, somewhat formal — used to say hello to someone in the evening ▪ Good evening, everyone.

good faith noun [noncount] : honesty in dealing with other people ▪ You have no right to question my good faith. — often used before another noun ▪ a good-faith effort — compare BAD FAITH in good faith : in an honest and proper way ▪ He bargained in good faith. ▪ Both parties acted in good faith.

good-for-noth·ing /ˈgʊdfəˌnʌθɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : of no use or value ▪ I like Jane, but I can't stand that lazy good-for-nothing brother of hers.
– good-for-nothing noun, pl -things [count] ▪ Her brother is a lazy good-for-nothing.

Good Friday noun, pl ~ -days [count, noncount] : the Friday before Easter that is observed by Christians as the anniversary of the death of Jesus Christ good-heart·ed /ˈgʊdˈhɑəɾəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : kind and generous ▪ He's a good-hearted [=kindhearted] fellow. ▪ She offered a good-hearted [=well-meaning] apology.

good-hu·mored (US) or Brit good-hu·moured /ˈgʊdˈhju:məd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : pleasant and cheerful ▪ She was still good-humored at the end of a tiring day. ▪ He offered his comments in a good-humored manner.
– good-hu·mored·ly (US) or Brit good-hu·moured·ly adv

goodie variant spelling of GOODY

good·ish /ˈgʊdɪʃ/ adj, chiefly Brit : somewhat good ▪ She did a goodish [=fair] amount of work. ▪ a goodish wine

good life noun
the good life 1 US : the kind of life that people with a lot of money are able to have ▪ She grew up poor, but now she's living the good life. ▪ His idea of the good life includes owning several luxury cars. 2 : a happy and enjoyable life ▪ She gave up a good job in the city to move to the country in search of the good life.

good-look·er /ˈgʊdˈlʊkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : an attractive person ▪ Your girlfriend's a real good-looker! [=she is very good-looking] good-look·ing /ˈgʊdˈlʊkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasing or attractive appearance : pretty, handsome, or beautiful ▪ a very good-looking woman/man

good·ly /ˈgʊdli/ adj, always used before a noun good·li·er; -est somewhat old-fashioned : large in size or amount ▪ We expect a goodly [=good] number of people to show up. ▪ He lives a goodly [=considerable] distance from his family. ▪ a goodly sum good morning interj — used to say hello to someone in the morning ▪ Good morning. How are you today?

good name noun, pl ~ names [count] : a person's good reputation ▪ I don't want the scandal to ruin my good name.

good-na·tured /ˈgʊdˈneɪʧɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : friendly, pleasant, or cheerful ▪ Her good-natured personality put us all at ease. ▪ a good-natured competition — opposite ILL-NATURED
– good-na·tured·ly adv

good·ness /ˈgʊdnəs/ noun [noncount]
1 : the quality or state of being good: such as a : the quality or state of being kind, honest, generous, helpful, etc. ▪ I believe there is (some) goodness in everyone. ▪ Even if you don't agree, at least have the goodness to be polite! ▪ She agreed to help him out of the goodness of her heart. [=because she is a kind and generous person] b : the quality or state of being useful or effective ▪ If you cook the vegetables too long, they'll lose all their (natural) goodness.
2 — used to express mild surprise or shock ▪ Goodness, it's hot out today! ▪ Goodness (only) knows how it happened. ▪ "Did you stop them?" "Goodness (gracious), no!" ▪ Oh, my goodness! ✧ People use I swear to goodness, I hope to goodness, or I wish to goodness to add force to a statement. ▪ I wish to goodness that you would hurry up!
for goodness' sake — used to express surprise or annoyance ▪ Will you hurry up, for goodness' sake?
goodness knows see [1]KNOW good night interj — used to express good wishes in the evening especially when someone is leaving or going to sleep ▪ Good night. I'll see you in the morning.

good old boy or good ol' boy or good ole boy /ˈgʊdoʊlˌboɪ/ noun, pl ~ boys [count] US, informal : a white man from the southern U.S. who has interests, beliefs, etc., that are commonly associated with white southern men

Good Sa·mar·i·tan /-səˈmerətən/ noun, pl ~ -tans [count] : a person who helps other people and especially strangers when they have trouble ▪ We had a flat tire on the highway but fortunately a Good Samaritan stopped to help us change it.

good-sized /ˈgʊdˈsaɪzd/ adj : somewhat large ▪ They live in a good-sized house. ▪ a good-sized crowd

goods train noun, pl ~ trains [count] Brit : FREIGHT TRAIN

good-tem·pered /ˈgʊdˈtɛmpɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : usually calm and cheerful : not easily angered or upset ▪ a good-tempered dog ▪ The baby is very good-tempered. [=the baby has a very good temper]

good·will /ˌgʊdˈwɪl/ noun [noncount]
1 or good will : a kind, helpful, or friendly feeling or attitude ▪ She has/feels goodwill toward all her coworkers. ▪ They allowed him to keep the extra money as a gesture of goodwill. ▪ trying to promote goodwill ▪ people of goodwill — often used before another noun ▪ a goodwill gesture ▪ a goodwill ambassador on a goodwill tour/mission
2 business : the amount of value that a company's good reputation adds to its overall value ▪ goodwill and other assets ▪ loss of goodwill

goody or good·ie /ˈgʊdi/ noun, pl good·ies [count] informal
1 : something that tastes good ▪ She gave each of the children a goody at snack time. — usually plural ▪ The store sells cakes and pies and all kinds of other goodies.
2 : something that people want or like : something desirable ▪ The company offers health insurance, paid vacation, and other goodies like stock options. ▪ This song is an oldie but a goodie. ▪ Each guest was given a goody bag. [=a bag containing a small gift]
3 somewhat old-fashioned — used in speech especially by children or when talking to children to show excitement and pleasure ▪ "Are we going to the circus? Goody!"
4 Brit : a good person in a book, movie, etc. ▪ He plays one of the goodies [=good guys] in his latest film and defeats all the baddies.

goody-goody /ˌgʊdiˈgʊdi/ noun, pl -goodies [count] informal + disapproving : a person (such as a child) whose good behavior and politeness are annoying because they seem to be excessive or not sincere ▪ The other kids don't like her because she's a goody-goody. [=goody two-shoes] — often used before another noun ▪ He can't stand goody-goody types.

goody two-shoes or Goody Two-shoes /ˈgʊdiˈtu:-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

ˌʃu:z/ noun, pl ~ two-shoes or ~ Two-shoes [count] informal + disapproving : GOODY-GOODY ▪ You didn't invite her to the party, did you? She's such a goody two-shoes.

goo•ey /ˈgu:wi/ adj goo•ier; -est informal : wet and sticky ▪ We had gooey hot fudge sundaes. ▪ a gooey mess — often used figuratively ▪ a gooey romantic comedy [=a very sentimental romantic comedy]

[1]goof /ˈgu:f/ verb goofs; goofed; goof•ing chiefly US, informal : to make a careless or stupid mistake : to make a goof [no obj] It was clear that someone had goofed. — often + up ▪ I really goofed up this time. [+ obj] — usually + up ▪ They both goofed up their lines.

goof around [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal : to spend time doing silly or playful things ▪ The kids are goofing around, watching TV and hanging out.

goof off [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal : to spend time doing things that are not useful or serious ▪ He spent the day goofing off instead of working. — see also GOOF-OFF

goof on [phrasal verb] goof on (someone or something) US slang : to make jokes about (someone or something) in a way that is either playful or unkind ▪ They're just goofing on [=kidding with, teasing] you.

[2]goof noun, pl goofs [count] chiefly US, informal
1 : a silly or stupid person ▪ Don't be such a goof.
2 : a careless or stupid mistake ▪ I'll admit it's my goof. ▪ I made a major goof.

goof•ball /ˈgu:fˌbɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls [count] US, informal : a silly or stupid person : GOOF

goof–off /ˈgu:fˌɑ:f/ noun, pl -offs [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who avoids work or responsibility : someone who goofs off a lot ▪ goof-offs who never do any work

goofy /ˈgu:fi/ adj goof•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : crazy or silly ▪ She was making goofy faces at us in class. ▪ a goofy grin/smile ▪ He's a goofy guy. ▪ an actress known for her goofy charm
– goof•i•ly /ˈgu:fəli/ adv ▪ He smiled goofily. – goof•i•ness /ˈgu:finəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ a moment of goofiness in an otherwise serious interview

goo•gly–eyed /ˈgu:gliˌaɪd/ adj : having eyes that stick out ▪ a googly-eyed monster ▪ a googly-eyed frog : having eyes that are very open or staring because of amazement, admiration, etc. ▪ googly-eyed lovers ▪ googly-eyed fans

goon /ˈgu:n/ noun, pl goons [count] informal
1 chiefly US : a person who is hired to threaten, beat up, or kill someone : THUG ▪ He was beat up by a couple of goons.
2 chiefly Brit : a stupid person

goop /ˈgu:p/ noun [noncount] informal : a sticky or greasy substance ▪ I stepped in some goop.

[1]goose /ˈgu:s/ noun, pl geese /ˈgi:s/
1 [count] : any one of many different kinds of birds that swim, that are larger than ducks, and that have a long neck and webbed feet ▪ a flock/gaggle of geese
2 [count] : a female goose — compare GANDER
3 [noncount] : the meat of a goose used as food ▪ roast goose 4 [count] informal + old-fashioned : a foolish or silly person — usually singular ▪ You silly goose.

cook someone's goose see [2]COOK

the golden goose or the goose that lays the golden egg : something that is a very good source of money or business ▪ The city's leaders don't want to do anything that could kill the golden goose of tourism.

what's good for the goose is good for the gander (US) or chiefly Brit what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander — used to say that one person or situation should be treated the same way that another person or situation is treated ▪ If he can go out with his friends at night, then she should be able to, too. What's good for the goose is good for the gander.

wouldn't say boo to a goose see [1]BOO
– see also WILD GOOSE CHASE

[2]goose verb goos•es; goosed; goos•ing [+ obj] US, informal
1 : to touch or pinch (someone) on the buttocks
2 : to increase the activity or amount of (something) ▪ They hope the new product will help to goose (up) profits.

goose•ber•ry /ˈgu:sˌberi, Brit ˈguzbri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a small green berry that has a sour taste — see color picture on page C5
2 Brit, informal : an extra person who is present when two other people (such as lovers) want to be alone together — used especially in the phrase play gooseberry ▪ He was left to play gooseberry while the other two talked and laughed all evening.

goose bumps noun [plural] chiefly US, informal : small bumps on your skin that are caused by cold, fear, or a sudden feeling of excitement ▪ I get goose bumps every time I think about it. ▪ It gives me goose bumps. — called also goose flesh, (chiefly Brit) goose pimples goose egg noun, pl ~ eggs [count] US, informal : a score of zero ▪ The two teams matched goose eggs [=they both scored no runs] for five innings. ▪ They put another goose egg up on the scoreboard.

goose•neck /ˈgu:sˌnɛk/ noun, pl -necks [count] : a flexible metal pipe goose step noun [singular] : a way of marching by kicking your legs forward very high and not bending your knees – goose–step /ˈgu:sˌstɛp/ verb -steps; -stepped; -step•ping [no obj] ▪ The soldiers goose-stepped past the general in the parade.

GOP /ˌʤi:ˌoʊˈpi:/ noun
the GOP : the Republican Party of the U.S. ▪ longtime members of the GOP — often used as GOP before another noun ▪ a GOP governor ▪ attending the GOP convention ✧ GOP is an abbreviation of "Grand Old Party."

go•pher /ˈgoʊfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] : an American animal that is similar to a large rat and that lives in the ground gopher ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] baseball, informal : a pitch that a batter hits for a home run ▪ a pitcher who has thrown eight gopher balls so far this year

Gor•di•an knot /ˈgoədijən-/ noun, pl ~ knots [count] : a complicated and difficult problem ▪ a Gordian knot of legal troubles cut the Gordian knot : to solve a difficult problem in a very direct way by doing something forceful or extreme

[1]gore /ˈgoə/ noun [noncount]
1 : thick blood from a wound
2 : violent images or scenes that show a lot of blood ▪ The movie contains excessive violence, gore, and profanity. ▪ blood and gore

[2]gore verb gores; gored; gor•ing [+ obj] of an animal : to wound (a person or another animal) with a horn or tusk ▪ The bull gored him. — usually (be) gored ▪ He was gored by a bull.

[1]gorge /ˈgoəʤ/ noun, pl gorg•es [count]
1 : a deep, narrow area between hills or mountains
2 ✧ If your gorge rises you feel sick, disgusted, or angry. ▪ My gorge rises [=I feel very angry] when I think of children living in such bad conditions. ▪ a disgusting odor that made my gorge rise [=made me feel like vomiting]

[2]gorge verb gorg•es; gorged; gorg•ing
1 : to eat large amounts of food — usually + on [no obj] We gorged on chips and cookies. [+ obj] We gorged ourselves on chips and cookies.
2 [+ obj] : to fill (something) completely — usually used as (be) gorged ▪ tissue gorged with blood gor•geous /ˈgoəʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very beautiful or attractive ▪ Your baby is absolutely gorgeous! ▪ a gorgeous young man/woman ▪ a gorgeous red dress
2 : very enjoyable or pleasant ▪ gorgeous summer afternoons
– gor•geous•ly adv ▪ The book is gorgeously illustrated. – gor•geous•ness noun [noncount]

Gor•gon /ˈgoəgən/ noun, pl -gons [count] : any one of the three sisters in Greek mythology who had snakes for hair and who could turn anyone who looked at them into stone ▪ Medusa the Gorgon

Gor•gon•zo•la /ˌgoəgənˈzoʊlə/ noun [noncount] : an Italian cheese that contains blue mold and that has a strong flavor

go•ril•la /gəˈrɪlə/ noun, pl -las [count]
1 : a type of very large ape that has black fur and that comes from Africa — see picture at APE
2 informal : a large, strong, and usually ugly or frightening man ▪ She hired some gorilla as her bodyguard.

800-pound gorilla US, informal : someone or something that is very powerful and difficult to control or ignore ▪ Their company is the 800-pound gorilla of the computer industry.

gorm•less /ˈgoəmləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : very stupid or foolish ▪ a gormless fool go–round /ˈgoʊˌraʊnd/ noun, pl -rounds [count] chiefly US, informal : one of a series of repeated actions or events ▪ I missed their show (on) the first go-round. [=the first time

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

they came here] — called also go-around

gory /ˈgori/ adj gor•i•er; -est : having or showing a lot of violence and blood ▪ a gory crime scene ▪ gory horror movies

gory detail(s) informal ✧ To describe something in gory detail or to give (all) the gory details about something is to tell all the small details about something that is unpleasant or interesting in a shocking way. ▪ The murder was described in gory detail. ▪ Please, spare us the gory details. [=do not tell us all the unpleasant facts]

gosh /ˈgɑːʃ/ interj, informal — used to express surprise or mild anger ▪ "Gosh, is she OK?" ▪ "Oh gosh, that's beautiful!" ▪ Gosh darn it!

gos•ling /ˈgɑːzlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a young goose go–slow /ˌgoʊˈsloʊ/ noun, pl -slows [count] Brit : an action in which workers protest against an employer by working slowly

gos•pel /ˈgɑːspəl/ noun, pl -pels

1 or Gospel [singular] : the teachings of the Christian religion — usually used with the ▪ preaching/spreading the Gospel [=telling people about Christianity]

2 Gospel [count] : any one of the first four books of the Christian Bible that tell of the life of Jesus Christ ▪ a reading from the Gospel of St. John

3 [singular] : an idea or set of ideas that someone believes and often tries to make other people believe ▪ She's always spreading/preaching the gospel of good health. [=telling people about the importance of good health]

4 [noncount] : something that is believed to be definitely true ▪ These myths are accepted/taken as gospel [=believed to be true] by many teenagers. ▪ I didn't do it, and that's the gospel truth. [=the absolute truth; a completely true statement]

5 [noncount] : a type of Christian music that was created by African-Americans in the southern U.S. ▪ She sings gospel. ▪ a gospel choir — called also gospel music

gos•sa•mer /ˈgɑːsəmə/ noun [noncount]

1 : a piece of a spider's web

2 literary : a very light or delicate material ▪ a butterfly's wings of gossamer — often used before another noun ▪ gossamer wings/petals ▪ gossamer fabric

[1]gos•sip /ˈgɑːsəp/ noun, pl -sips

1 [noncount] a : information about the behavior and personal lives of other people ▪ Have you heard the latest (piece of) gossip about their divorce? ▪ He had been spreading gossip about his coworkers. b : information about the lives of famous people ▪ the latest news and gossip from the entertainment industry ▪ She writes a gossip column in the paper. ▪ a gossip columnist

2 [count] : a person who often talks about the private details of other people's lives ▪ He's a terrible gossip.

3 [count] chiefly Brit : a conversation about the personal lives of other people ▪ I like having a good gossip now and then.

– gos•sipy /ˈgɑːsəpi/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal ▪ a gossipy magazine/writer

[2]gossip verb -sips; -siped; -sip•ing [no obj] : to talk about the personal lives of other people ▪ They spent the afternoon gossiping on the phone. ▪ They often gossip with each other about their neighbors.

– gos•sip•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a malicious gossiper

gos•sip•mon•ger /ˈgɑːsəpˌmɑːŋgə, ˈgɑːsəpˌmʌŋgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] disapproving : a person who enjoys talking about other people's private lives : a person who spreads gossip got past tense and past participle of GET

[1]got•cha /ˈgɑːʧə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase got you when it is spoken quickly ▪ She ran after him, grabbed him by the arm, and said "Gotcha!" [=I got you; I caught you] ▪ "We'll have to leave soon, so be ready." "Gotcha." [=I have got you; I understand] ✧ The pronunciation represented by gotcha occurs only in very informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when you are trying to represent or record such speech.

[2]got•cha noun, pl -chas [count] US, informal : an unexpected problem or usually unpleasant surprise ▪ The program has a few gotchas in store for unsuspecting computer users.

goth /ˈgɑːθ/ noun, pl goths

1 [noncount] : a type of rock music with words that express sad, depressing, or frightening ideas

2 [count] : a person who listens to or performs goth music, wears mostly black clothing, uses black and white makeup, and often has dyed black hair

Goth•ic /ˈgɑːθɪk/ adj

1 : of or relating to a style of writing that describes strange or frightening events that take place in mysterious places ▪ Gothic novels

2 : of or relating to a style of architecture that was popular in Europe between the 12th and 16th centuries and that uses pointed arches, thin and tall walls, and large windows ▪ a Gothic cathedral go–to /ˈgoʊˌtuː/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : always helpful : producing desired results or information when needed ▪ She's the team's go-to player [=she is the player that the team relies on] when they need to score late in the game. ▪ He's the go-to guy in the office for tax information.

got•ta /ˈgɑːtə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase got to when it is spoken quickly ▪ "We've gotta go." [=we have got to go] ▪ "I gotta [=have got to] get a new pair of shoes." ✧ The pronunciation represented by gotta is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when you are trying to represent or record such speech.

gotten past participle of GET

Gou•da /ˈguːdə/ noun [noncount] : a Dutch cheese that has a mild taste

[1]gouge /ˈgaʊʤ/ verb goug•es; gouged; goug•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cut a deep hole in (something) ▪ The lamp fell and gouged the table. b : to make (a deep hole) in something ▪ A bomb had gouged a large crater in the street.

2 US, informal : to make (someone) pay too much money for something ▪ They feel that they are being gouged by the oil companies. ▪ The company has been gouging [=overcharging] its customers for years. ▪ They have been accused of price gouging. [=making their customers pay too much money] gouge out [phrasal verb] gouge out (something) or gouge (something) out 1 : to remove (something) by digging or cutting ▪ The impact of the accident gouged a big piece out of the wall. ▪ He threatened to gouge my eyes out. 2 : to make (a hole or path) by digging or cutting ▪ The river gouged out a wide path between the mountains.

– goug•er noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US ▪ a price gouger

[2]gouge noun, pl gouges [count]

1 : a metal tool with a curved, sharp end that is used to cut and shape wood

2 : a deep cut or hole ▪ The accident left a big gouge in the side of the car.

gou•lash /ˈguːˌlɑːʃ, Brit ˈguːˌlæʃ/ noun

1 [noncount] : a dish of meat, vegetables, and paprika that is slowly cooked in liquid ▪ Hungarian goulash

2 [singular] : a mixture of different things ▪ a goulash of facts and figures

gourd /ˈgoəd, ˈguəd/ noun, pl gourds [count] : any one of several types of fruits that have a hard shell and that are used for decoration and not for eating out of your gourd US, informal : CRAZY ▪ That guy is completely out of his gourd. [=(more commonly) out of his mind] — sometimes used to give emphasis ▪ I was bored out of my gourd. [=I was very bored]

– gourd•like /ˈgoədˌlaɪk, ˈguədˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a gourdlike fruit

gour•mand /ˈguəˌmɑːnd/ noun, pl -mands [count] : a person who loves to eat and drink : a person who eats and drinks too much gourmet /ˈguəˌmeɪ, guəˈmeɪ/ noun, pl -mets [count] : a person who enjoys and knows a lot about good food and wine

– gour•met adj, always used before a noun ▪ a gourmet meal [=a meal of very high quality; a meal that appeals to gourmets] ▪ gourmet foods ▪ a gourmet cook/chef [=an excellent cook/chef who makes gourmet meals]

gout /ˈgaʊt/ noun [noncount] : a disease that causes painful swelling of the joints especially in the toes

– gouty /ˈgaʊti/ adj gout•i•er; -est ▪ gouty toes

gov abbr 1 gov. government 2 Gov. governor ▪ Gov. Jerry Brown 3 government institution — used in Internet addresses ▪ http://www.whitehouse.gov

gov•ern /ˈgʌvən/ verb -erns; -erned; -ern•ing

1 : to officially control and lead (a group of people) : to make decisions about laws, taxes, social programs, etc., for (a country, state, etc.) [+ obj] Members of the party have governed [=ruled] the country for the last 20 years. ▪ The tribe is governed by a 10-member council. ▪ They want to form their own country and govern themselves. [no obj] The scandal limited her ability to govern effectively. ▪ How would he govern if he were elected president?

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

2 [+ obj] : to control the way that (something) is done ▪ She suggested changing the state's laws governing the sale of alcohol. ▪ The council governs fishing in the region.
3 [+ obj] : to control or guide the actions of (someone or something) ▪ We will be studying the forces that govern the Earth's climate. ▪ Tradition governs all aspects of their lives. ▪ He allows himself to be governed by his emotions.
– gov•ern•able /ˈgʌvərnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a governable city

gov•er•nance /ˈgʌvərnəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the way that a city, company, etc., is controlled by the people who run it ▪ They have very different approaches to the governance of the city. ▪ corporate governance

gov•ern•ess /ˈgʌvərnəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a woman who is paid to care for and teach a child in the child's house governing adj, always used before a noun

1 : controlling and making decisions for a country, organization, etc. ▪ She is currently the leader of the governing party. ▪ a five-member governing board/council/body
2 : controlling or guiding the actions of someone or something ▪ Tradition is the governing factor in the lives of these people. ▪ Their governing principle is to provide their customers with the best possible products. — see also SELF-GOVERNING

gov•ern•ment /ˈgʌvərmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : the group of people who control and make decisions for a country, state, etc. ▪ The government has been slow to react to the crisis. ▪ She works for the federal government. ▪ the national/central government ▪ We need to improve relations with foreign governments. ▪ the British government ▪ a corrupt/powerful/weak government — often used before another noun ▪ They have promised to reduce government spending. ▪ a government agency/official/program ▪ government policies and regulations ✧ In British English, government is used with both singular and plural verbs. ▪ The government is/are working on the problem. — see also LOCAL GOVERNMENT, STUDENT GOVERNMENT
2 [noncount] a : a particular system used for controlling a country, state, etc. ▪ He is a firm believer in democratic/representative government. b : the process or manner of controlling a country, state, etc. ▪ We learned about different methods/systems of government. ▪ The country has been damaged by many years of weak/corrupt government. — see also BIG GOVERNMENT
– gov•ern•men•tal /ˌgʌvərnˈmɛntl/ adj ▪ governmental agencies ▪ The law provides governmental protection for investors. – gov•ern•men•tal•ly /ˌgʌvərnˈmɛntl̩i/ adv ▪ governmentally funded programs

gov•er•nor /ˈgʌvnə/ noun, pl -nors [count]
1 or Governor : a person who is the leader of the government of a state, province, etc. ▪ the governor of the state of Florida ▪ Governor Jones — abbr. Gov.; see also LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
2 a : a person who is part of a group of people who control a large organization, school, etc. ▪ He was the chairman of the board of governors at the school. b chiefly Brit : a person who is in charge of a school, prison, or other large organization or institution ▪ the governor of the Bank of England ▪ the school governor ▪ a prison governor [=(US) warden]
3 Brit, informal : a man who has authority over other people : BOSS ▪ Wait here while I get the governor.

gov•er•nor•ship /ˈgʌvnəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [noncount] : the job of a governor ▪ a candidate for the governorship
2 [count] : the period when a person is a governor ▪ The state has done well during her governorship.

govt. (chiefly US) or Brit govt abbr government gown /ˈgaʊn/ noun, pl gowns [count]

1 : a long, formal dress that a woman wears especially during a special event ▪ The bride wore a lovely lace wedding gown. ▪ a red evening gown [=a gown that is worn to events in the evening] ▪ a beautiful ball gown [=a gown that is worn to large formal parties for dancing]
2 : a loose piece of clothing that covers most of the body ▪ a hospital gown [=a robe worn by a patient in a hospital] — see also DRESSING GOWN, NIGHTGOWN
3 : a loose piece of clothing that is worn over other clothes during an official event by a judge, a priest, a student, etc.

G.P. (chiefly US) or Brit GP abbr general practitioner

GPA abbr, US grade point average

GPS /ˌʤiːˌpiːˈɛs/ noun [noncount] : a radio system that uses signals from satellites to tell you where you are and to give you directions to other places ▪ The car comes with GPS. ✧ GPS is an abbreviation of "Global Positioning System."

[1]grab /ˈgræb/ verb grabs; grabbed; grab•bing
1 : to quickly take and hold (someone or something) with your hand or arms [+ obj] She grabbed his wrist. = She grabbed him by the wrist. ▪ I have to go back in the house and grab my car keys. ▪ He tried to grab the ball out of her hands. = He tried to grab it (away) from her. ▪ He grabbed hold of a tree branch [=he grabbed a tree branch] and pulled himself out of the water. [no obj] The little boy grabbed onto his mother's leg and wouldn't let go.
2 [+ obj] : to take or get (something) in a quick and informal way ▪ Grab me a beer, please. = Grab a beer for me, please. ▪ I'll grab a taxi and meet you there. ▪ Let's grab a bite to eat before the movie starts. ▪ Grab a seat. [=sit down] I'll be with you in a minute.
3 [+ obj] informal a : to get the attention or interest of (someone or something) ▪ The store had a lot of nice stuff, but nothing really grabbed me. ▪ The play grabs the audience from the opening scene. ▪ How does that grab you? [=what do you think of that idea?] b : to get or be given (something, such as attention) ▪ One player in particular has been grabbing a lot of attention lately. ▪ A new cancer treatment grabbed (the) headlines [=it was given much attention in the news] this week.
4 [+ obj] : to take (something) usually in an unfair way ▪ They tried to grab the largest portion of the money for themselves. ▪ He grabbed the company (away) from its founders.
grab at/for [phrasal verb] grab at/for (someone or something) : to quickly stretch out your hand and try to touch or hold (something or someone) ▪ People were grabbing at her as she walked through the crowd. ▪ He grabbed for the ball and missed. — often used figuratively ▪ We grabbed at the chance to go. ▪ political parties grabbing for power
– grab•ber noun, pl -bers [count] ▪ That outfit is a real attention grabber. ▪ a headline grabber

[2]grab noun, pl grabs [count]
1 : a quick attempt to take or get something — usually singular; often + for ▪ He is a member of a group that has broken away from the party's leaders in a grab for power. ▪ a grab for attention ▪ She made a grab for the last cookie. [=she tried to grab the last cookie]
2 : the act of taking something in a forceful or illegal way ▪ an illegal land grab up for grabs : available for anyone to try to get ▪ Several positions on the team are still up for grabs. ▪ With the election just a few weeks away, a lot of voters are still up for grabs.

grab bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] US
1 : a bag that holds many small gifts and that you reach into in order to pull one out without knowing what it is — compare LUCKY DIP
2 informal : a group or mixture of different things ▪ Congress has proposed a grab bag of tax cuts.

grab•by /ˈgræbi/ adj grab•bi•er; -est informal : tending to take things in a quick and selfish way : GREEDY ▪ a grabby government/corporation ▪ You need to learn to share and not be so grabby.

[1]grace /ˈgreɪs/ noun, pl grac•es
1 [noncount] : a way of moving that is smooth and attractive and that is not stiff or awkward ▪ She walked across the stage with effortless grace.
2 a [noncount] : a controlled, polite, and pleasant way of behaving ▪ She handles her problems with grace and dignity. ▪ He has shown remarkable grace during this crisis. ✧ People say you have the (good) grace to do something when they approve of what you do and consider it to be polite and proper. ▪ She has the grace [=she is polite/nice enough] to listen to everyone's complaints. ▪ At least he had the good grace to admit that he was wrong. b *graces [plural] : skills that are needed for behaving in a polite way in social situations ▪ She is quite lovable despite her lack of social graces.
3 [noncount] a : help or kindness that God gives or shows to people ▪ Let us give thanks for God's grace. ▪ By the grace of God, no one was seriously hurt. ✧ People use the phrase (there) but for the grace of God (go I) to say that they could be in the same bad situation as someone else. ▪ I saw a homeless person on the street and thought "there but for the grace of God go I." [=I am lucky not to be homeless also] b : a state of being pleasing to God ▪ She tried to live her life in God's grace. ▪ He died in a state of grace. [=he died after he asked God to forgive his sins]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

4 [noncount] : a short prayer that is said before a meal ▪ They asked her to say grace at dinner.
5 Grace [noncount] — used as a title for a duke, a duchess, or an archbishop; used with his, her, or your ▪ His Grace the Duke ▪ Yes, Your Grace.
airs and graces see [1]AIR fall from grace ✧ If you fall from grace or experience a fall from grace, you no longer enjoy the success or good reputation that you once had, usually because you have done something wrong. ▪ The governor fell from grace after being accused of tax fraud. ▪ The book tells of his fall from grace.
in someone's good graces ✧ If you are in someone's good graces, that person likes you and has a good opinion of you. ▪ He works late to stay in his boss's good graces.
with bad/ill grace : in a way that shows that you are not happy about something : in an unpleasant way ▪ They agreed to the compromise with bad grace.
with good grace : in a polite and pleasant way ▪ She accepted his advice with good grace. [=graciously] ▪ They lost the game with good grace.
– see also COUP DE GRÂCE, SAVING GRACE

[2]grace verb graces; graced; grac•ing [+ obj] formal : to decorate or add beauty to (something) ▪ Several marble statues grace the courtyard. ▪ Her face has graced [=appeared on] the cover of many magazines.
grace (a person, group, etc.) with your presence : to come to a place to be with (a person, group, etc.) — usually used humorously ▪ He finally decided to grace us with his presence [=he finally showed up] 10 minutes after dinner started. ▪ Will you be gracing the meeting with your presence? [=will you be coming to the meeting?]

grace•ful /ˈgreɪsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : moving in a smooth and attractive way ▪ He has become a very graceful dancer. ▪ the graceful movements of a ballerina
2 : having a smooth and pleasing shape or style ▪ She was a graceful young woman with delicate features. ▪ the long, graceful neck of a swan ▪ His writing is clear and graceful.
3 : polite or kind ▪ There was no graceful way to say no to their offer.
– grace•ful•ly adv ▪ The dancers moved gracefully across the stage. ▪ She has aged gracefully. [=she has continued to be healthy and young looking as she has gotten older]
– grace•ful•ness noun [noncount]

grace•less /ˈgreɪsləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : awkward or clumsy ▪ graceless movements
2 : having a style or shape that is not attractive or pleasing ▪ Her writing can be graceless and awkward at times. ▪ a massive, graceless building
3 : not kind or polite ▪ She was criticized for her graceless [=rude] refusal to help.
– grace•less•ly adv ▪ a gracelessly written book ▪ She gracelessly refused to help. – grace•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the gracelessness of her refusal grace period noun, pl ~ -ods [count] : an amount of extra time that someone is given to pay a bill, finish a project, etc. ▪ The terms of the loan allow for a ten-day grace period.

gra•cious /ˈgreɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very polite in a way that shows respect ▪ It was very gracious [=kind, courteous] of him to offer us a place to stay. ▪ a gracious hostess ▪ Thank you for your gracious hospitality.
2 : having or showing the attractive things (such as charm, good taste, and comfort) that are associated with having a lot of money ▪ The magazine promotes gracious living. ▪ a gracious mansion
3 old-fashioned — used as an interjection to express mild surprise or for emphasis ▪ Gracious, I never expected to see you here! ▪ Good gracious, No. ▪ Goodness gracious, I hope it works.
– gra•cious•ly adv ▪ He graciously offered us a place to stay. – gra•cious•ness noun [noncount] grack•le /ˈgrækəl/ noun, pl grack•les [count] : a common American bird that has shiny black feathers

grad /ˈgræd/ noun, pl grads [count] US, informal : GRADUATE ▪ college grads
– grad adj, always used before a noun ▪ He's still in grad school. ▪ grad students [=students in graduate school]

gra•da•tion /greɪˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a small difference between two points or parts that can be seen in something that changes gradually — often + of ▪ subtle gradations of color/meaning

[1]grade /ˈgreɪd/ noun, pl grades [count]
1 US a : a level of study that is completed by a student during one year ▪ Our son is in (the) fourth/twelfth grade. b : the students in the same year of study at a school ▪ The fifth grade will perform their annual play this week.
2 : a number or letter that indicates how a student performed in a class or on a test ▪ (US) I got a good grade on my math test. = (Brit) I got a good grade in my maths test. ▪ a grade of 90 percent or better ▪ Her grades are up/better this semester. ▪ passing/failing grades
3 a : a particular level of quality ▪ an expensive grade of leather ▪ government grades for beef b : a particular position or rank in an organization ▪ junior grade officers — see also HIGH-GRADE, LOW-GRADE
4 US : a place where the ground slopes up or down : GRADIENT ▪ a steep six percent grade make the grade : to be good enough or perform well enough to succeed ▪ Many people apply for these positions, but only a few make the grade.

[2]grade verb grades; grad•ed; grad•ing [+ obj]
1 chiefly US : to give a grade to (a student or a student's work) ▪ Students will be graded on their reading ability. ▪ She hasn't finished grading the exams.
2 : to give a rating to (something) ▪ How would you grade your meal on a scale from one to five?
3 : to separate (things) into groups or classes according to a particular quality ▪ The eggs are graded according to size.
4 : to give (a surface) a desired degree of slope ▪ They graded the new highway.

grade A adj : of the highest quality ▪ a grade A performance grade point average noun, pl ~ -ages [count] US : a number that indicates a student's average grade — abbr. GPA

grad•er /ˈgreɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 US : a student in a particular grade in school ▪ a sixth grader [=a student in the sixth grade]
2 : a person who grades students or their work ▪ Her students say that she's a tough/easy grader.
3 : a machine used for grading a surface ▪ a road grader

grade school noun, pl ~ schools [count, noncount] US : ELEMENTARY SCHOOL grade–school•er /ˈgreɪdˌskuːlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a child in elementary school

gra•di•ent /ˈgreɪdijənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : a place where the ground slopes up or down : SLOPE ▪ a steep gradient

grad•u•al /ˈgrædʒəwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : moving or changing in small amounts : happening in a slow way over a long period of time ▪ We noticed a gradual change in temperature. ▪ The hospital has made gradual improvements in health care.
2 : not steep ▪ a gradual slope
– grad•u•al•ly adv ▪ The population gradually increased. ▪ The temperature changed gradually. ▪ The cat moved gradually forward.

[1]grad•u•ate /ˈgrædʒəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 a [no obj] : to earn a degree or diploma from a school, college, or university ▪ He graduated from the university last June. ▪ They both graduated with honors. ▪ She graduated with a degree in history. ▪ He joined the navy after graduating from high school. ▪ a graduating class of 300 students ✧ In British English, graduate refers only to earning a college or university degree. In U.S. English, graduate is also used for other schools (such as high schools). b [+ obj] US, of a school, college, or university : to award a degree or diploma to (a student) — usually used as (be) graduated ▪ He was graduated from the university last June. c [+ obj] US, informal : to earn a degree or diploma from (a school, college, or university) ▪ He joined the navy after graduating high school.
2 [no obj] : to move from one level to another usually higher level ▪ The word has graduated from slang to accepted use. ▪ My nephew has graduated from baby food to solid food. ▪ The former child actor has finally graduated [=moved on] to more serious roles.

[2]grad•u•ate /ˈgrædʒəwət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : a person who has earned a degree or diploma from a school, college, or university ▪ a college graduate ▪ (US) a high school graduate ▪ an engineering graduate [=a person with a degree in engineering] ▪ recent Harvard graduates — often + of ▪ She's a graduate of Harvard. ✧ In British English, only a person who has earned a college or university degree is called a graduate.

[3]graduate adj, always used before a noun, US : of or relating to a course of studies taken at a college or university after

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

earning a bachelor's degree or other first degree : POST-GRADUATE ▪ He is taking graduate classes at the university. ▪ graduate students/school grad•u•at•ed /ˈgrædʒəˌweɪtəd/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : marked with lines for measuring ▪ a graduated cylinder [=a tall, narrow container used for measuring liquids] ▪ a graduated thermometer
2 a : gradually increasing ▪ a series of bowls in graduated sizes ▪ graduated payments b of a tax : increasing in rate as the thing being taxed (such as income) increases ▪ a graduated income tax

grad•u•a•tion /ˌgrædʒəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of receiving a diploma or degree from a school, college, or university : the act of graduating ▪ He joined the navy after graduation. ▪ We had a party to celebrate her graduation from high school.
2 [count] : a ceremony at which degrees or diplomas are given out ▪ They took lots of pictures at their son's graduation.

graf•fi•ti /grəˈfiːti/ noun [noncount] : pictures or words painted or drawn on a wall, building, etc. ▪ The walls of the old building are covered with graffiti. ▪ a piece of graffiti

[1]graft /ˈgræft, Brit ˈgrɑːft/ noun, pl grafts [count]
1 technical : a part of a plant that is placed on another plant in such a way that it attaches to and grows with the plant; also : the place where such an attachment is made ▪ You will need to cut off any new shoots that grow below the graft.
2 medical : a piece of skin, muscle, or bone that is attached to a part of the body to repair a damaged area ▪ a skin graft; also : an operation that is done to make such an attachment ▪ perform a bone graft on the patient
– compare [3]GRAFT, [4]GRAFT

[2]graft verb grafts; graft•ed; graft•ing [+ obj]
1 a technical : to attach (a part of a plant) to another plant ▪ a type of apple that is grown by being grafted onto/to the roots of a different species b medical : to attach (a piece of skin, muscle, or bone) to a part of the body ▪ The surgeon was able to graft skin over the scar.
2 : to make (something) become a part of (something else) — usually + onto ▪ the difficulties of trying to graft modern technology onto traditional societies
– compare [5]GRAFT

[3]graft noun [noncount] chiefly US : dishonest activity in which people with power (such as political leaders) use their position and influence to get money and advantages ▪ The newspaper published a series of articles exposing graft in the city government. — compare [1]GRAFT, [4]GRAFT

[4]graft noun [noncount] Brit, informal : hard work or effort ▪ He succeeded because of years of hard graft. — compare [1]GRAFT, [3]GRAFT

[5]graft verb grafts; graft•ed; graft•ing [no obj] Brit, informal : to work hard : LABOR ▪ He spent years grafting to get where he is today. — compare [2]GRAFT

gra•ham cracker /ˈgræm-/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a slightly sweet type of cracker

grail /ˈgreɪl/ noun, pl grails [count] : HOLY GRAIL

grain /ˈgreɪn/ noun, pl grains
1 a [noncount] : the seeds of plants (such as wheat, corn, and rice) that are used for food ▪ bread made from whole wheat grain ▪ The machine grinds grain into flour.; also [count] : a single seed of wheat, corn, rice, etc. ▪ a grain of rice b : a plant that produces grain [count] The farm grows a variety of grains. [noncount] fields planted with grain
2 [count] a : a small, hard piece of something ▪ a grain of sand/salt — see also take (something) with a grain of salt at [1]SALT b : a very small amount of something ▪ Anyone with a grain of sense knows that she's lying. ▪ There is not a grain of truth in what he said.
3 [count] a : the way the lines or fibers in something (such as wood) are arranged — usually singular ▪ She sanded the wood in the direction of the grain. b : the way that the surface of something feels when it is touched — usually singular ▪ The wood has a fine/coarse grain.
4 [count] : a unit of weight equal to 0.0648 grams against the grain 1 ✧ To be/go against the grain is to be different or to act in a way that is different from what is normal or usual. ▪ It takes courage to go against the grain and stand up for what you believe in. 2 ✧ If something goes against your grain, it does not seem right or natural to you. ▪ It goes against his grain to question the boss's judgment.
– grained /ˈgreɪnd/ adj ▪ beautifully grained wood ▪ coarse-grained leather grain elevator noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : ELEVATOR 2

grainy /ˈgreɪni/ adj grain•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not smooth or fine ▪ The mustard has a grainy texture. ▪ He has a grainy [=rough] voice.
2 of a photograph : not clear or sharp because of having a picture formed from many dots that are large enough to be seen ▪ a grainy photograph – grain•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the graininess of the mustard/picture gram also Brit gramme /ˈgræm/ noun, pl grams [count] : a unit of weight in the metric system that is equal to 1/1000 kilogram

gram•mar /ˈgræmə/ noun, pl -mars
1 : the set of rules that explain how words are used in a language [noncount] the rules of grammar ▪ English grammar can be hard to master. ▪ a grammar lesson ▪ comparing English and Japanese grammar [count] comparing the grammars of English and Japanese
2 [noncount] : speech or writing judged by how well it follows the rules of grammar ▪ "Him and I went" is bad/poor grammar. ▪ I know some German, but my grammar isn't very good.
3 [count] : a book that explains the grammar rules of a language ▪ an English grammar

gram•mar•i•an /grəˈmerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who knows a lot about grammar grammar school noun, pl ~ schools [count, noncount]

1 : a school in the U.S. for young children : ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
2 : a school in Britain for children over age 11 who have passed an entrance exam

gram•mat•i•cal /grəˈmætɪkəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to grammar ▪ a grammatical error ▪ grammatical rules
2 : following the rules of grammar ▪ That sentence is not grammatical.
– gram•mat•i•cal•ly /grəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ That sentence is grammatically incorrect.

gramme Brit spelling of GRAM

Gram•my /ˈgræmi/ service mark — used for a small statue that is given as an award to someone (such as a musician) who works in the business of recording music

gram•o•phone /ˈgræməˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] old-fashioned : RECORD PLAYER

gramps /ˈgræmps/ or gramp /ˈgræmp/ noun, pl gramps [count] informal : GRANDFATHER gran /ˈgræn/ noun, pl grans [count] informal : GRANDMOTHER

gra•na•ry /ˈgreɪnəri, Brit ˈgrænəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a building in which grain is stored

[1]grand /ˈgrænd/ adj grand•er; -est
1 : involving or including many people or things : very large in scope ▪ He thinks everything the government does is part of some grand conspiracy. ▪ the beauty of nature's grand design : intended to have an important or impressive result ▪ When they bought the house, they had grand [=big] plans for renovating it. ✧ Something that happens or is done on a grand scale involves a great amount of money, effort, space, people, or things. ▪ War forces us to face death on a grand scale. ▪ Pollution affects nature on a grand scale.
2 a : impressive because of size, importance, etc. ▪ The neighborhood includes many grand old homes. ▪ His job is much less grand than his title makes it sound. ▪ This room is only used for grand occasions. [=very important and formal occasions] ▪ My great aunt lived to the grand old age of 103. ▪ (humorous) He retired at the grand old age of 37. b : intended to impress people ▪ Despite its grand name, the hotel is small and somewhat seedy. ▪ He made some grand statements about the company's future. ▪ They celebrated their anniversary in grand style. ▪ He planned to make a grand entrance, driving up to the house in a fancy red sports car.
3 always used before a noun : having higher rank than others of the same kind ▪ We won the grand prize. ▪ the grand champion ▪ a Grand Duke/Duchess 4 informal : very good ▪ We are having grand weather this summer. ▪ We had a grand time at the picnic.
– grand•ly adv ▪ She grandly announced that the ceremony was about to begin.

[2]grand noun, pl grand [count] informal : a thousand dollars

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

or pounds ▪ He bought a used car for about five grand. — compare [3]GRAND

[3]grand noun, pl grands [count] : GRAND PIANO ▪ a concert grand — compare [2]GRAND

grand•ba•by /ˈgrændˌbeɪbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] informal : a grandchild who is a baby grand•child /ˈgrændˌʧajəld/ noun, pl -chil•dren /-ʧɪldrən/ [count] : a child of your son or daughter grand•dad also gran•dad /ˈgrænˌdæd/ noun, pl -dads [count] informal : GRANDFATHER grand•dad•dy also gran•dad•dy /ˈgrænˌdædi/ noun, pl -dies [count] informal

1 : GRANDFATHER
2 : someone or something that is the first or oldest one in a particular area or field — usually + of ▪ The company is the granddaddy of computer manufacturers.

grand•daugh•ter /ˈgrænˌdɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a daughter of your son or daughter grande dame /ˈgrɑːnˈdɑːm/ noun, pl grandes dames /ˈgrɑːnˈdɑːm/ also grande dames /ˈgrɑːnˈdɑːm/ [count] : a usually old woman who is highly admired or respected — often + of ▪ She is the grande dame of the American theater.

gran•deur /ˈgrænʤə/ noun [noncount] : a great and impressive quality ▪ His paintings capture the beauty and grandeur of the landscape. ▪ They are restoring the hotel to its original/former grandeur. — see also delusions of grandeur at DELUSION grand•fa•ther /ˈgrændˌfɑːðə/ noun, pl -thers [count] : the father of your father or mother grandfather clause noun, pl ~ clauses [count] US, law : a part of a law which says that the law does not apply to certain people and things because of conditions that existed before the law was passed ▪ Because of a grandfather clause, the strict emission standards only apply to new cars.

grandfather clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] : a tall clock that stands on the floor

grand finale noun, pl ~ -les [count] : a very exciting or impressive ending of a performance or show ▪ All of the performers came on stage for the opera's grand finale.

gran•dil•o•quent /grænˈdɪləkwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : using words that are intended to sound very impressive and important ▪ grandiloquent language ▪ He's fond of making grandiloquent pronouncements about art. ▪ a grandiloquent speaker – gran•dil•o•quence /grænˈdɪləkwəns/ noun [noncount]
– gran•dil•o•quent•ly adv

gran•di•ose /ˈgrændiˌoʊs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : seeming to be impressive or intended to be impressive but not really possible or practical ▪ He was full of grandiose ideas. ▪ grandiose plans/schemes
– gran•di•ose•ly adv

grand jury noun, pl ~ juries [count] US, law : a group of people who look at the evidence against someone who has been accused of a crime in order to decide if there should be a trial

grand•kid /ˈgrændˌkɪd/ noun, pl -kids [count] US, informal : GRANDCHILD

grand larceny noun [noncount] US, law : the crime of stealing something that is very valuable — called also grand theft; compare PETIT LARCENY

grand•ma /ˈgræˌmɑː/ noun, pl -mas [count] informal : GRANDMOTHER

grand marshal noun, pl ~ -shals [count] chiefly US : a person who is honored by being made the leader of a parade

grand master noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : an expert player in chess who has scored very high in international competition

grand•moth•er /ˈgrændˌmʌðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : the mother of your father or mother grand old man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a highly respected and admired man who has had a long career in a particular field ▪ the grand old man of the American theater grand opening noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a special celebration held to mark the opening of a new business or public place (such as a park or stadium)

grand opera noun, pl ~ -eras [count, noncount] : serious opera in which all the words are sung grand•pa /ˈgræˌpɑː/ noun, pl -pas [count] informal : GRANDFATHER

grand•par•ent /ˈgrændˌperənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] : a parent of your father or mother grand piano noun, pl ~ -anos [count] : a very large piano used for concerts

Grand Prix /ˈgrɑːnˈpriː/ noun, pl Grand Prix or Grands Prix /ˈgrɑːnˈpriː/ [count] : one of a series of international car races; also : a similar race or competition in another sport (such as sailing)

grand slam noun, pl ~ slams [count]
1 baseball : a home run that is hit with three runners on base
2 or Grand Slam : the achievement of winning of all the major events of a sport (such as tennis or golf) in one season — usually singular ▪ a golfer trying to win the Grand Slam
3 : the achievement of winning of all the tricks in one hand of a card game (such as bridge) ▪ He made a grand slam.

grand•son /ˈgrændˌsʌn/ noun, pl -sons [count] : a son of your son or daughter

[1]grand•stand /ˈgrændˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] : a usually roofed structure with seats for people to sit on while they are watching a race or sporting event

[2]grandstand adj, always used before a noun, US : done in a way that is intended to impress the people who are watching ▪ The outfielder made a grandstand play out of what should have been a routine catch.

[3]grandstand verb -stands; -stand•ed; -stand•ing [no obj] US, disapproving : to behave or speak in a way that is intended to impress people and to get public approval ▪ a politician who grandstands to the public = a grandstanding politician
– grand•stand•er noun, pl -ers [count] – grandstanding noun [noncount] ▪ He has been accused of political grandstanding.

grand theft noun [noncount] US, law : GRAND LARCENY

grand total noun, pl ~ -tals [count] : a final total reached by adding together other total amounts — usually singular ▪ They have managed to raise a grand total of $15 million in the past two years. ✧ Grand total is often used in a humorous or critical way to refer to a total that is unusually small. ▪ A grand total of two people have signed up for the class. ▪ They scored a grand total of three points in the first quarter.

grand tour noun, pl ~ tours [count]
1 or Grand Tour : a journey to the different countries of Europe that in the past was part of the education of wealthy young people from Britain and the U.S.
2 : a tour that is given to show people around a place ▪ They offered to give us a/the grand tour of their new house.

gran•ite /ˈgrænət/ noun [noncount] : a very hard type of rock that is used in buildings and monuments gran•ny also gran•nie /ˈgræni/ noun, pl -nies [count] informal : GRANDMOTHER

granny flat noun, pl ~ flats [count] Brit : IN-LAW APARTMENT

granny knot noun, pl ~ knots [count] : a type of knot that looks similar to a square knot but is much less strong

gra•no•la /grəˈnoʊlə/ noun, pl -las [count, noncount] chiefly US : a mixture of oats and other ingredients (such as brown sugar, raisins, coconut, or nuts) that is eaten especially for breakfast or as a snack ▪ a bowl of granola ▪ a granola bar [=a bar of granola that is eaten as a snack]

[1]grant /ˈgrænt, Brit ˈgrɑːnt/ verb grants; grant•ed; grant•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to agree to do, give, or allow (something asked for or hoped for) ▪ The mayor refused to grant my request for an interview. ▪ The court granted the motion for a new trial. ▪ She granted me an interview. [=she agreed to let me interview her] ▪ She rarely grants interviews. [=she rarely agrees to be interviewed] ▪ I cannot grant you that wish. b : to give (something) legally or formally ▪ The government has agreed to grant the refugees asylum. = The government has agreed to grant asylum to the refugees. ▪ We haven't yet been granted access to the archive. ▪ The country was granted independence in 1950. ▪ The judge granted custody of the children to their mother. — see also grant bail at [1]BAIL
2 : to admit (something) although it does not agree with or support your opinion ▪ I grant that he's a talented writer, but I just don't find his books very interesting. ▪ The house is not in perfect condition, I grant you [=I admit that the house is not in perfect condition], but it's still a great deal. ▪ The house is not perfect, I grant you that. — often used in the form granted or granting to introduce a clause ▪ Granted that she's been under a lot of stress lately, her behavior is still surprising. [=I admit that she has been under a lot of stress lately, but I am still surprised by her behavior] ▪ Even granting that you may be right [=even if you are right], I still think we need to consider other solutions. — often used in the form granted as an adverb ▪ Granted, the house is not in perfect condition, but it's still a great deal. ▪ "The house is not in very good condition." "Granted [=I admit that what you say is true]—but it's still a great deal."

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

take for granted 1 take (something) for granted : to believe or assume that (something) is true or probably true without knowing that it is true ▪ We took our invitation to the party for granted. = We took it for granted that we'd be invited to the party. [=we assumed we'd be invited and did not think about the possibility that we wouldn't be] 2 take (someone or something) for granted : to fail to properly notice or appreciate (someone or something that is helpful or important to you) ▪ We often take our freedom for granted. ▪ Being apart from my family for so long has made me realize that I've been taking them for granted. ▪ I'm tired of being taken for granted.

[2]grant noun, pl grants [count]
1 : an amount of money that is given to someone by a government, a company, etc., to be used for a particular purpose (such as scientific research) ▪ Her study is being funded by a federal grant. ▪ a research grant ▪ They wrote a grant proposal to get funding for the project.
2 : an area of land that is given to someone by a government ▪ a land grant gran•u•lar /ˈgrænjələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : made of or appearing to be made of small pieces or granules ▪ granular rock ▪ fruit with a granular [=grainy] texture ▪ a granular [=bumpy] leather surface gran•u•lat•ed /ˈgrænjəˌleɪtəd/ adj : formed into small grains or pieces ▪ granulated sugar gran•ule /ˈgrænˌju:l/ noun, pl -ules [count] : a small grain or piece of something ▪ coffee granules ▪ salt/sugar granules

grape /ˈgreɪp/ noun, pl grapes [count] : a green, dark red, or purplish-black berry that is used to make wine or is eaten as a fruit ▪ a bunch of seedless grapes — see color picture on page C5; see also SOUR GRAPES

grape•fruit /ˈgreɪpˌfru:t/ noun, pl grapefruit or grapefruits [count, noncount] : a large yellow citrus fruit — see color picture on page C5

grape•vine /ˈgreɪpˌvaɪn/ noun, pl -vines [count]
1 : a climbing plant on which grapes grow
2 : an informal way of spreading information or rumors through conversation — usually singular ▪ The office grapevine isn't always a reliable source of information. ▪ I heard about the new position through the grapevine. ▪ The word on the grapevine is that a new treatment has been discovered.

[1]graph /ˈgræf, Brit ˈgra:f/ noun, pl graphs [count] : a drawing that uses a series of dots, lines, etc., to show how much or how quickly something changes ▪ She drew/plotted a graph showing the rise and fall in temperature during the month.

[2]graph verb graphs; graphed; graph•ing [+ obj] mathematics : to show (something) with a graph ▪ Students were asked to graph each equation.

-graph /ˌgræf, Brit ˌgra:f/ noun combining form
1 : something that is written or drawn ▪ an auto*graph*
2 : a machine that records or sends information ▪ a seismo*graph* ▪ a tele*graph*

[1]graph•ic /ˈgræfɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : shown or described in a very clear way — used especially to refer to things that are unpleasant or shocking ▪ The reporter provided a graphic account of the plane crash. ▪ The movie was controversial because of its graphic [=explicit] violence. ▪ graphic sex ▪ graphic language
2 always used before a noun : relating to the artistic use of pictures, shapes, and words especially in books and magazines ▪ graphic design ▪ a graphic artist/designer

[2]graphic noun, pl -ics
1 graphics [plural] : pictures or images on the screen of a computer, television, etc. ▪ computer graphics
2 [count] : a picture, drawing, or graph used as a decoration or to make something (such as magazine article) easier to understand ▪ She illustrated her talk with a graphic showing state population growth.

graph•i•cal /ˈgræfɪkəl/ adj, technical
1 : relating to or involving pictures, shapes, or letters especially on the screen of a computer ▪ a graphical computer display — see also GRAPHICAL USER INTERFACE
2 : using a drawing (called a graph) to show how much or how quickly something changes ▪ a graphical representation of rainfall amounts

graph•i•cal•ly /ˈgræfɪkli/ adv
1 : in a very clear way that usually includes unpleasant or shocking details ▪ The crash was graphically described.
2 : in a graph ▪ The information was presented graphically.

graphical user interface noun, pl ~ -faces [count] : a program that allows a person to work easily with a computer by using a mouse to point to small pictures and other elements on the screen — abbr. GUI

graphic novel noun, pl ~ -els [count] : cartoon drawings that tell a story and are published as a book graph•ite /ˈgræˌfaɪt/ noun [noncount] : a shiny black substance that is used in pencils

graph paper noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : paper that is covered with squares formed by lines that run from top to bottom and side to side

-graphy /grəfi/ noun combining form : a way of writing or showing something ▪ photo*graphy* ▪ carto*graphy* ▪ mammo*graphy*

grap•ple /ˈgræpəl/ verb grap•ples; grap•pled; grap•pling [no obj]
1 : to hold and fight with another person ▪ The wrestlers grappled [=wrestled] on the mat. — usually + with ▪ The wrestlers grappled with each other.
2 : to try to solve a problem : to deal with a problem — + with ▪ Every parent has to grapple with [=cope with] a variety of serious issues. ▪ The company has been grappling with supply problems.
– grap•pler /ˈgræpələ/ noun, pl -plers [count] ▪ a famous grappler [=wrestler]

[1]grasp /ˈgræsp, Brit ˈgra:sp/ verb grasps; grasped; grasp•ing [+ obj]
1 : to take and hold (something) with your fingers, hands, etc. ▪ I grasped the end of the rope and pulled as hard as I could. ▪ I grasped the rope by its end. ▪ His arthritis is so bad he can barely grasp a pencil. — often used figuratively ▪ We need to grasp [=seize] this opportunity while we can.
2 : to understand (something that is complicated or difficult) ▪ They failed to grasp [=comprehend] the importance of talking to their children about the dangers of taking drugs. ▪ They don't (fully) grasp the implications of these changes.
grasp at [phrasal verb] grasp at (something) : to try to take or get (something) in an eager or desperate way ▪ They were ready to grasp at any possible solution. ▪ He grasped at the opportunity to speak with her.
grasp at straws see STRAW grasp for [phrasal verb] grasp for (something) : to try in a desperate or awkward way to get (something) ▪ His sudden decision to quit the race has left his supporters grasping for explanations. ▪ grasping for attention grasp the nettle see [2]NETTLE – grasp•able /ˈgræspəbəl, Brit ˈgra:spəbəl/ adj ▪ an easily graspable idea

[2]grasp noun [singular]
1 : a usually strong hold ▪ I kept a firm grasp on the rope. [=I held the rope firmly with my hand] ▪ The ball slipped/fell from her grasp. [=she dropped the ball]
2 : an understanding of something ▪ She has a good/firm/thorough grasp of mathematics. [=she understands mathematics well] ▪ The author shows a weak/feeble/shaky grasp of military strategy. ▪ His motives are beyond my grasp. [=I can't understand his motives] ▪ We're still trying to get a grasp on [=to gain a good understanding of] the situation.
3 a : the distance that can be reached by your arms and hands : REACH ▪ The books on the top shelf are just beyond my grasp. ▪ She moved the toy to within the baby's grasp. ▪ He tried to grab the rolling ball, but it eluded his grasp. [=he could not reach it] b : the ability to get or find something ▪ Success is almost within our grasp. [=we are very close to success] ▪ She felt the solution was within her grasp.
4 : power or control ▪ The land was in the grasp [=grip] of a tyrant. ▪ He had the country in his grasp.

grasping /ˈgræspɪŋ, Brit ˈgra:spɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : wanting money and possessions too much : GREEDY ▪ Her grasping children fought over her property when she died.

[1]grass /ˈgræs, Brit ˈgra:s/ noun, pl grass•es
1 a [noncount] : plants that have narrow green leaves, that are eaten by cows, sheep, horses, etc., and that are commonly grown on lawns and in gardens ▪ a field of grass ▪ blades/tufts of grass ▪ It's time to mow/cut the grass. [=mow/cut the lawn] ▪ Keep off the grass. [=don't walk on the lawn] — often used before another noun ▪ grass clippings ▪ grass seed ▪ a grass hut/skirt [=a hut/skirt made from grass] b [count] : a particular type of grass ▪ ornamental grasses ▪ wild grasses

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

2 [noncount] slang : MARIJUANA ▪ They were smoking some grass.

3 [count] Brit slang : a person who gives information to the police about the criminal activity of other people : a police informer — see also SUPERGRASS

let the grass grow under your feet : to wait before doing something or to do something slowly — used in negative statements ▪ He has never been one to let the grass grow under his feet. [=he has never been slow about doing things; he gets things done quickly] put (someone) out to grass Brit : to force (someone) to leave a job because of old age ▪ I'm not ready to be put out to grass [=put out to pasture] just yet.

the grass is always greener on the other side (of the fence) — used to say that the things you do not have always seem more appealing than the things you do have – grass•like /ˈgræsˌlaɪk, Brit ˈgrɑːsˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ grasslike vegetation – grassy /ˈgræsi, Brit ˈgrɑːsi/ adj grass•i•er; -est ▪ a grassy field ²grass verb grasses; grassed; grass•ing [+ obj] : to cover (an area) with grass ▪ a large grassed area — often + over ▪ The land was cleared and grassed over.

grass on/up [phrasal verb] grass on (someone) also grass (someone) up Brit slang : to tell the police about the criminal activity of (someone) ▪ He refused to grass on [=inform on] his friends. ▪ Someone grassed him up.

grass•hop•per /ˈgræsˌhɑːpɚ, Brit ˈgrɑːsˌhɒpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a plant-eating insect that has long legs used for jumping — see color picture on page C10

grass•land /ˈgræsˌlænd, Brit ˈgrɑːsˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count, noncount] : land covered with grasses and other soft plants but not with bushes and trees grass roots noun [plural] : the ordinary people in a society or organization : the people who do not have a lot of money and power ▪ He has been criticized for losing touch with the party's grass roots. ▪ Many people in/at the grass roots are still angry about the election.

– grass•roots /ˈgræsˌruːts, Brit ˈgrɑːsˌruːts/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ A grassroots environmental movement has sprung up. ▪ The young candidate hoped to gather votes at the grassroots level in his own neighborhood.

¹grate /ˈgreɪt/ noun, pl grates [count] : a metal frame with bars across it that is used in a fireplace or to cover an opening

²grate verb grates; grat•ed; grat•ing

1 [+ obj] : to cut (food) into very small pieces by rubbing it against a special tool (called a grater) ▪ I'll beat the eggs while you grate the cheese. ▪ grate chocolate/carrots ▪ The recipe calls for half a cup of grated cheese.

2 [no obj] : to make a harsh, unpleasant noise by rubbing against something ▪ metal grating against metal ▪ I hear a loud grating sound whenever I step on the brake.

3 [no obj] : to have an annoying effect ▪ His negative attitude begins to grate after a while. [=his attitude becomes very irritating after a while] — often + on ▪ His negative attitude is starting to grate on me. [=starting to bother or irritate me] ▪ Her shrill voice can really grate on your nerves/ear.

– grating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She has a very grating [=annoying, irritating] voice.

G–rat•ed /ˈʤiːˈreɪtəd/ adj, US, of a movie : having a rating of G : suitable to be seen by children : having no violence, offensive language, or sexual activity ▪ a G-rated film — often used figuratively ▪ She's an actress with a G-rated public image. [=people think she is a wholesome person] ▪ some G-rated fun for the whole family grate•ful /ˈgreɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing thanks ▪ She was grateful (that) she didn't have to work on the holiday. ▪ the grateful [=thankful] recipient of a new heart ▪ The college sent us a grateful acknowledgment of our donation. : feeling or showing thanks to someone for some helpful act ▪ I'm grateful to you for your help. ▪ He's grateful for the attention. ▪ I'm grateful (to you) for this opportunity. = I'm grateful to have this opportunity. = I'm grateful that I have this opportunity. ▪ a grateful smile — opposite UNGRATEFUL

– grate•ful•ly adv ▪ The college gratefully [=thankfully] acknowledges your donation. – grate•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ expressing my gratefulness [=(more commonly) gratitude] for this opportunity

grat•er /ˈgreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool that has a rough metal surface with small holes and is used to cut food into small pieces ▪ a cheese grater — see picture at KITCHEN

grat•i•fy /ˈgrætəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to make (someone) happy or satisfied ▪ A guilty verdict would gratify the victim's relatives. ▪ It gratifies [=pleases] me to see how well the book is doing. — often used as (be) gratified ▪ He's gratified by the response he's been getting.

2 : to do or give whatever is wanted or demanded by (someone or something) ▪ He's only concerned with gratifying his own desires. ▪ gratify a whim ▪ I'll be happy to gratify [=satisfy] your curiosity.

– grat•i• •ca•tion /ˌgrætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] He's only concerned with selfish gratification of his own desires. [count] Her life now offers few gratifications. [=few sources of satisfaction or pleasure] – grati ed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He's very/highly gratified that his students have done so well. ▪ She was gratified to see her ideas become so widely accepted.

gratifying adj [more ~; most ~] : giving pleasure or satisfaction ▪ It was a gratifying victory. ▪ The response has been gratifying. ▪ It's been very gratifying (to me) to see how well the book has done.

– grat•i•fy•ing•ly adv

gra•tin /ˈgrɑːtn, Brit ˈgrætæn/ noun, pl -tins [count] : a dish that has bread crumbs or cheese on top and is cooked in an oven — see also AU GRATIN

grat•ing /ˈgreɪtɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a frame with bars across it that is used to cover an opening gra•tis /ˈgrætəs/ adv — used to indicate that no money is paid for something ▪ The food was supplied gratis [=for free; at no cost; without charge] by a local caterer.

– gratis adj ▪ The food was gratis. [=free] ▪ gratis hotel accommodations

grat•i•tude /ˈgrætəˌtuːd, Brit ˈgrætəˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of appreciation or thanks ▪ Let me express my sincere gratitude for all your help. ▪ We remember with gratitude those who died defending our country. ▪ We owe them a debt of gratitude [=we should be grateful to them] for all the help they've given us. — opposite INGRATITUDE

gra•tu•i•tous /grəˈtuːwətəs, Brit grəˈtjuːətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not necessary or appropriate ▪ The film was criticized for its gratuitous violence. ▪ gratuitous insults

– gra•tu•i•tous•ly adv ▪ a gratuitously violent film – gra•tu•i•tous•ness noun [noncount]

gra•tu•i•ty /grəˈtuːwəti, Brit grəˈtjuːəti/ noun, pl -ties [count]

1 formal : an amount of money given to a person (such as a waiter or waitress) who has performed a service : TIP ▪ A 15 percent gratuity is automatically added to the restaurant bill.

2 Brit : an amount of money given to a retiring soldier or employee

¹grave /ˈgreɪv/ noun, pl graves [count]

1 : a hole in the ground for burying a dead body ▪ dig a grave ▪ The casket was lowered into the grave. ▪ He was buried in a shallow grave. ▪ We went to the cemetery to visit my aunt's grave. [=to visit the place where my aunt's body is buried] ▪ A headstone marks her son's grave. ▪ grave robbers [=people who dig up a buried body to steal the things that were buried with it] ✧ When people think that a dead person would be very shocked or upset to see something that is happening now, they say that person is or must be turning/spinning in his/her grave or US turning over in his/her grave or US rolling (over) in his/her grave. ▪ The company founder must be turning in his grave because of the changes we've made.

2 — used to talk about death ▪ She took her secrets with her to the grave. [=she died without telling anyone her secrets] ▪ He believes that there is life beyond the grave. [=that there is life after death] ▪ A hard life drove him to an early grave. [=caused him to die when he was fairly young] ▪ She went to her grave [=she died] a lonely and bitter woman.

dig your own grave see ¹DIG

from (the) cradle to (the) grave see ¹CRADLE

have one foot in the grave see ¹FOOT

²grave adj grav•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 formal : very serious : requiring or causing serious thought or concern ▪ This violation of school rules is a grave matter. ▪ His carelessness could have grave consequences. ▪ They have placed themselves in grave danger. ▪ I have grave doubts about this plan. ▪ suffering from a grave illness

2 : serious and formal in appearance or manner ▪ The judge issued his ruling with a grave expression.

3 /ˈgrɑːv/ of an accent mark : having the form ` ▪ The French word père is written with a grave accent over the first e.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

— compare ACUTE 7
– grave•ly adv ▪ My mother is gravely [=seriously] ill. ▪ He shook his head gravely.

grave•dig•ger /ˈgreɪvˌdɪgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a person whose job it is to dig graves grav•el /ˈgrævəl/ noun [noncount] : small pieces of rock ▪ a layer of gravel — often used before another noun ▪ a gravel road [=a road with a top surface made of gravel] ▪ a gravel pit [=a large hole in the ground where gravel has been dug up] grav•el•ly /ˈgrævəli/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : containing or covered with gravel ▪ gravelly soil
2 : having a rough sound ▪ a gravelly voice

grav•en image /ˈgreɪvən-/ noun, pl ~ -ages [count] : an object (such as a statue) that is worshipped as a god or in place of a god grave•stone /ˈgreɪvˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a stone that marks the place where a dead person is buried and that usually has the person's name and birth and death dates on it : HEADSTONE, TOMBSTONE grave•yard /ˈgreɪvˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count]

1 : a place where people are buried : CEMETERY ✧ Graveyard usually refers to a small cemetery, such as one that is next to a church.
2 : a place where old things are left or thrown away ▪ an automobile graveyard whistle past the graveyard see ²WHISTLE graveyard shift noun, pl ~ shifts [count] chiefly US : a scheduled period of work that begins late at night and ends in the morning

grav•i•tas /ˈgrævəˌtɑːs/ noun, formal : a very serious quality or manner [noncount] The new leader has an air of gravitas that commands respect. ▪ a comic actress who lacks the gravitas for dramatic roles [singular] The new leader has a certain gravitas.

grav•i•tate /ˈgrævəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [no obj]
1 : to move or tend to move to or toward someone or something ▪ The guests gravitated toward the far side of the room. ▪ The conversation gravitated to/toward politics.
2 : to be attracted to or toward something or someone ▪ Voters have started gravitating to him as a possible candidate. ▪ Many young people now gravitate toward careers in the computer industry.

grav•i•ta•tion /ˌgrævəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 technical : the natural force that causes things to fall towards the earth : GRAVITY
2 : movement to or toward someone or something ▪ the gravitation of young people to/toward computer careers – grav•i•ta•tion•al /ˌgrævəˈteɪʃənl/ adj, technical ▪ the Earth's gravitational field – grav•i•ta•tion•al•ly adv, technical

grav•i•ty /ˈgrævəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : a very serious quality or condition : the condition of being grave or serious ▪ They didn't seem to understand the gravity [=seriousness] of the situation. ▪ He uttered the oath with proper gravity. [=solemnity]
2 technical : the natural force that tends to cause physical things to move towards each other : the force that causes things to fall towards the Earth ▪ attempting to defy gravity ▪ the force of gravity — see also CENTER OF GRAVITY

gra•vy /ˈgreɪvi/ noun, pl -vies
1 [count, noncount] : a sauce made from the juices of cooked meat ▪ mashed potatoes with gravy ▪ a gravy boat [=a container for serving gravy]
2 [noncount] chiefly US, informal : something valuable or pleasing that is more than what is earned or expected ▪ The bonus he received in addition to his salary was pure gravy.

gravy train noun, pl ~ trains [count] informal : something (such as a business or a government program) that provides money to many people without requiring much work or effort ▪ They're trying to get on board the gravy train. ▪ ride the gravy train

¹gray (US) or chiefly Brit grey /ˈgreɪ/ adj gray•er; -est
1 : having a color between black and white : having a color that is like the color of smoke ▪ a gray sweater/suit ▪ gray hair
2 : having gray hair ▪ What will you do when you are old and gray? ▪ My friends have all gone gray.
3 : lacking brightness: such as a : cloudy and dark ▪ It was a gray winter day. ▪ a cold, gray dawn b : very boring or ordinary ▪ leading a gray existence c : having or showing little life or energy ▪ the gray faces of the people in the crowd
– gray•ness (US) or chiefly Brit grey•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the grayness of the dawn

²gray (US) or chiefly Brit grey noun, pl grays
1 [count, noncount] : a color that is between black and white : a color that is like the color of smoke ▪ wearing gray ▪ shades of gray — see color picture on page C1
2 [count] : something (such as an animal) that is gray
– gray•ish (US) or chiefly Brit grey•ish /ˈgreɪɪʃ/ adj

³gray (US) or chiefly Brit grey verb grays; grayed; gray•ing [no obj]
1 : to become gray ▪ His hair is graying. = He has graying hair.
2 : to become older ▪ The population is graying.

gray area noun, pl ~ areas [count] : an area or situation in which it is difficult to judge what is right and what is wrong ▪ There are no gray areas in the rules. ▪ a legal gray area

gray matter noun [noncount] : the tissue that makes up the brain — often used figuratively to refer to a person's intelligence ▪ His books are enjoyable, but they don't do much to challenge the reader's gray matter. [=intelligence]

¹graze /ˈgreɪz/ verb graz•es; grazed; graz•ing
1 a of an animal : to eat grass or other plants that are growing in a field, pasture, etc. [no obj] The cattle grazed (on grass) in the field. ▪ grazing cattle [+ obj] Fields grazed by cattle. b [+ obj] : to cause (animals) to graze ▪ We grazed our cattle on the front pasture.
2 [no obj] : to eat small amounts of food at many times during the day ▪ She was grazing on snacks all afternoon.
– compare ²GRAZE

²graze verb grazes; grazed; grazing [+ obj]
1 : to touch or hit (something) while moving past it ▪ The car's wheel grazed the curb. ▪ He was grazed by a bullet.
2 : to injure (the skin, a part of the body, etc.) by scraping against something ▪ She grazed her knee when she fell.
– compare ¹GRAZE

³graze noun, pl grazes [count] : an injury on your skin that is caused because it moves against something ▪ She had a slight graze on her knee from falling.

¹grease /ˈgriːs/ noun [noncount]
1 : melted animal fat ▪ hamburger/bacon grease
2 : an oily substance ▪ axle grease — see also ELBOW GREASE a/the squeaky wheel gets the grease see ¹WHEEL

²grease verb greas•es; greased; greas•ing [+ obj] : to put a thin layer of grease or oil on (something) ▪ Grease the pan before you put the cake batter in.
grease the palm of (someone) or US grease the hand of (someone) : to give (someone) money for doing something illegal or dishonest for you ▪ They had to grease the palms of a few inspectors at city hall to get the permits they needed to start building.
like greased lightning see ¹LIGHTNING

grease monkey noun, pl ~ -keys [count] informal : a person who repairs machines (such as car engines) : MECHANIC ✧ Grease monkey is usually considered an insulting word.

grease•paint /ˈgriːsˌpeɪnt/ noun [noncount] : makeup worn by actors in the theater grease•proof paper /ˈgriːsˈpruːf-/ noun [noncount] Brit : WAX PAPER

greasy /ˈgriːsi/ adj greas•i•er; -est
1 a : covered with grease or oil : dirty from grease or oil ▪ greasy clothes/hair/fingers b chiefly Brit : wet and slippery ▪ greasy roads
2 : containing or cooked with a large amount of fat ▪ My doctor told me to avoid greasy food. ▪ greasy potato chips greasy spoon noun, pl ~ spoons [count] informal : a small and cheap restaurant ▪ We ate at some greasy spoon near the bus station.

¹great /ˈgreɪt/ adj great•er; -est
1 a : very large in size : very big ▪ all creatures great and small — usually used before a noun ▪ a great beast ▪ We were surprised by the great size of the auditorium. ▪ They traveled through a great stretch of wilderness. ▪ a great cloud of smoke ▪ A great crowd had formed in the city square. ▪ the Great Wall of China ▪ the Great Lakes ▪ (US) The house has a large great room. [=a large room used for several different purposes] ▪ (informal) They live in a great big house. [=a very large house] ▪ (chiefly Brit) a huge/whopping great elephant b — used in the names of animals that are larger than similar animals ▪ the great white shark ▪ the great horned owl
2 : very large in amount or extent ▪ The project will require a great amount of time and money. ▪ He lived to a great age.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

[=he lived to be very old] ▪ The show was a great [=big, huge] success. ▪ It's been a great [=long] while since we last saw them. ▪ He amassed a great [=large] fortune. ▪ The building was restored at great expense. ▪ a great quantity of fish ▪ He explained in great [=much] detail how they had met. ▪ These topics need to be discussed in greater [=more] depth and at greater length. ▪ Our speed/strength/power became greater (and greater) as we went on. ▪ He made a great deal of money. [=he made a large amount of money] ▪ Things could be a great deal worse. [=things could be much worse] ▪ He is supported by the great majority of voters. [=by most voters]

3 a : very strong ▪ The low cost of these products gives them great appeal. ▪ There is a very great need for reform. ▪ They're in no great hurry to finish. ▪ There is a great demand for his services. ▪ She takes a great [=considerable] interest in everything her children do. ▪ an actress of great charm ▪ with great [=strongly felt] sadness/admiration/love ▪ Is there any love greater than that between parent and child? ▪ The whole matter must be treated with great care. [=very carefully] ▪ His comments are true to a great extent. [=most of his comments are true] ▪ This new tax affects everyone to a greater or lesser degree/extent. [=to some degree/extent] b — used for emphasis before a noun that describes someone ▪ I've always been a great admirer of his work. [=I have always admired his work very much] ▪ They are great friends. [=they are very friendly] ▪ I'm a great believer in the value of patience. [=I believe very much in the value of patience] c : very important ▪ This room is only used for great occasions. [=grand occasions, very important and formal occasions] d : very bad : very extreme or severe ▪ The storm caused great damage/destruction. ▪ He was obviously in great pain/discomfort. ▪ She has suffered a great loss. ▪ It would be a great mistake to ignore these problems. ▪ a great disaster/misfortune ▪ great difficulties ▪ a very great error

4 : better than good: such as a : of the highest quality ▪ great (works of) art/literature ▪ great music b : very important and admired ▪ a great poet/artist ▪ a great leader/scientist/thinker/woman ▪ He was a great but flawed man. ▪ a great discovery/invention ▪ great achievements c : very talented or successful ▪ My brother is a great golfer. ▪ She's a great judge of character. ▪ My brother is great at (playing) golf. [=my brother plays golf very well] ▪ She is great at Chinese cooking. d informal : very enjoyable, favorable, etc. : EXCELLENT ▪ "How was the movie?" "It was (really) great!" ▪ It was the greatest. ▪ The movie got great reviews. ▪ We are having great weather this summer. ▪ We had a great time on our vacation. ▪ a great party/lecture/performance ▪ an actress with great [=very good-looking] legs ▪ It's great to see you again. = It's great seeing you again. ▪ This restaurant is great for a quick meal. = This is a great restaurant for a quick meal. ▪ The food tastes great! ▪ Great work, everybody! ▪ "I've passed the exam!" "That's great!" — often used in the phrases feel great and look great ▪ You look great in that hat. = That hat looks great on you. ▪ Things aren't looking so great at this point. ▪ He came home early because he wasn't feeling too great. [=he wasn't feeling well] ▪ I feel great just being with her! — sometimes used in an ironic way to describe something that is very bad or upsetting ▪ "I can't find the tickets." "That's (just) great! What are we supposed to do now?" ▪ Oh, great. Now I've lost the tickets.

5 always used before a noun : more distant in a family relationship by one generation ▪ My great aunt/uncle is my father's/mother's aunt/uncle. — usually used in combination ▪ My great-grandfather is my grandfather's father. ▪ My great-great-grandmother is my great-grandfather's mother. ▪ a gift sent to Great-Uncle Mike a great one for informal ✧ If you are a great one for (doing) something, you do it often or enjoy doing it very much. ▪ He's a great one for (playing) golf. ▪ She's a great one for getting other people to do her work.

go great guns see ¹GUN

go to great pains see ¹PAIN

great with child old-fashioned + literary : PREGNANT

no great shakes see ²SHAKE

– great•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the greatness of the need for reform ▪ Shakespeare achieved true/real/genuine greatness as a writer.

²great adv greater; -est informal : very well ▪ We had some problems at first, but now things are going just great. ▪ Keep up the good work. You're doing great!

³great noun, pl greats [count] : a very successful or admired person — usually plural ▪ She is among the greats of literature. ▪ He is one of the all-time greats in baseball.

great ape noun, pl ~ apes [count] : ¹APE 1

Great Dane noun, pl ~ Danes [count] : a very large type of dog

Great•er /ˈgreɪtə/ adj : consisting of a central city and the surrounding areas that are connected with it — always used before the name of a place ▪ Greater London ▪ Greater New York ▪ Greater Tokyo great•ly /ˈgreɪtli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : to a great extent or degree : very much ▪ She has contributed greatly to our success. ▪ They don't seem to be greatly bothered by the delay. ▪ I've always admired his work greatly. = I've always greatly admired his work.

Great Power noun, pl ~ Powers [count] : a very powerful country

Great Scott /-ˈskɑːt/ interj, old-fashioned — used to express surprise ▪ Great Scott, is it that late already?!

Gre•cian /ˈgriːʃən/ adj : of or relating to ancient Greece ▪ a Grecian sculpture/urn greed /ˈgriːd/ noun [noncount] : a selfish desire to have more of something (especially money) ▪ He was a ruthless businessman, motivated by naked ambition and greed. ▪ corporate greed — sometimes + for ▪ He made no effort to conceal his greed for money and power.

greedy /ˈgriːdi/ adj greed•i•er; -est

1 : having or showing a selfish desire to have more of something (such as money or food) : having greed ▪ He was a ruthless and greedy businessman. ▪ There's no need to get greedy—there's plenty for everyone. ▪ He blames all his problems on greedy lawyers. — often + for ▪ The children were greedy for more candy. ▪ greedy for money

2 : very eager to have something — + for ▪ He was greedy for a promotion. ▪ The company is greedy for publicity.

– greed•i•ly /ˈgriːdəli/ adv ▪ She greedily insisted on special benefits at work. ▪ eating and drinking greedily – greed•i•ness /ˈgriːdinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ I was surprised by the children's greediness.

Greek /ˈgriːk/ noun, pl Greeks

1 [count] a : a person born, raised, or living in Greece ▪ the ancient Greeks ▪ modern Greeks b : a person whose family is from Greece

2 [noncount] : the language of the Greeks ✧ In informal English you can describe something that you do not understand by saying It's (all) Greek to me.

– Greek adj ▪ Greek culture/mythology ▪ the Greek alphabet [=the alphabet used for writing Greek]

¹green /ˈgriːn/ adj green•er; -est

1 : having the color of growing grass ▪ green leaves ▪ a green sweater

2 a : covered by green grass or other plants ▪ green fields b : consisting of green plants or of the leaves of plants ▪ a green salad

3 : feeling envy — usually used in the phrase green with envy ▪ His brother's success made him green with envy.

4 a : not ripe yet ▪ green tomatoes b : not having training, knowledge, or experience ▪ green troops ▪ When she arrived at the company she was still very green but eager to learn.

5 informal : having a pale or sick appearance ▪ Our flight hit some turbulence, and half the passengers started turning green. — often used in the phrase green around/about the gills ▪ The passengers were looking green around the gills.

6 : trying to protect or meant to protect the natural world : concerned with protecting the environment ▪ She only buys products from green companies. ▪ companies that use green practices [=companies that do things in a way that helps to protect the environment] ▪ finding greener methods of waste disposal

greener pastures see ¹PASTURE

– green•ish /ˈgriːnɪʃ/ adj ▪ greenish eyes – green•ness /ˈgriːnnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the greenness of the leaves/troops

²green noun, pl greens

1 : a color that is like the color of growing grass [noncount] shades of green [count] a mixture of blues and greens — see color picture on page C1

2 greens [plural] : the leaves of plants used for food ▪ turnip greens ▪ salad greens — see color picture on page C4

3 [count] a : a large area covered with growing grass in the center of a town or village ▪ The town green was the center of activity. b golf : an area covered with very short grass around the hole into which the ball must be played ▪ It took him four shots to get to the green. — called also putting green

4 or Green [count] : a person who tries to protect the natural

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

world; especially : a person who belongs to a political party that has the protection of the environment as its main goal

green•back /ˈgri:nˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] informal : a piece of U.S. paper money

green bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a type of bean whose long green seed cases are eaten as a vegetable when they are young and tender — see color picture on page C4; compare STRING BEAN green card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a card indicating that a person from a foreign country can live and work in the U.S.

green•ery /ˈgri:nəri/ noun [noncount] : green leaves or plants ▪ The restaurant was adorned with greenery. ▪ the lush greenery of the islands

green–eyed monster noun

the green-eyed monster informal : jealousy thought of as a monster that bites or attacks people ▪ She was bitten by the green-eyed monster. [=she became jealous] ▪ The green-eyed monster reared its (ugly) head [=I became jealous] when my ex-wife began dating someone else.

green ngers noun [plural] Brit : an unusual ability to make plants grow ▪ She has green fingers. [=(US) a green thumb]

green• y /ˈgri:nˌflaɪ/ noun, pl green• ies or green y [count] Brit : a type of small, green insect that damages plants

green•gro•cer /ˈgri:nˌgroʊsə/ noun, pl -cers [count] chiefly Brit : a person who works in or owns a store that sells fresh vegetables and fruit ▪ I bought the fruit from the greengrocer. = I bought the fruit at the greengrocer's.

green•horn /ˈgri:nˌhoən/ noun, pl -horns [count] informal : a person who lacks experience and knowledge ▪ He's not the most sophisticated businessman you'll ever meet, but he's no greenhorn.

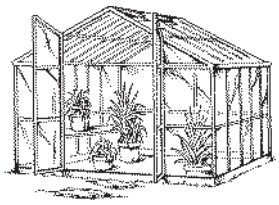
[1]green•house /ˈgri:nˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building or part of a building that has glass walls and a glass roof and that is used for growing plants



greenhouse

[2]greenhouse adj, always used before a noun : relating to or caused by the warming of the Earth's atmosphere that is caused by air pollution : relating to or caused by the greenhouse effect ▪ greenhouse warming ▪ carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases [=gases that cause the greenhouse effect]

greenhouse effect noun

the greenhouse effect : the warming of the Earth's atmosphere that is caused by air pollution ✧ The greenhouse effect occurs when warmth from the sun is trapped in the Earth's atmosphere by a layer of gases (such as carbon dioxide) and water vapor.

green light noun

the green light : permission to start or continue something (such as a project) ▪ His boss finally gave him the green light [=the go-ahead] to start the new project.

green onion noun, pl ~ -ions [count] US : a young onion that is pulled from the ground before the bulb has become large — called also (US) scallion, (chiefly Brit) spring onion; see color picture on page C4

Green Paper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] Brit : a government document that suggests solutions to a problem and that is intended to cause discussion before a law is made — compare WHITE PAPER

green pepper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] : a type of hollow vegetable (called a pepper) that is green and that is eaten raw or cooked

green•room /ˈgri:nˌru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room in a theater or television studio where performers can relax before or after they perform

green•sward /ˈgri:nˌswɑəd/ noun, pl -swards [count] old-fashioned + literary : an area of ground that is covered with green grass

green tea noun [noncount] : a type of tea that is light in color green thumb noun [singular] US : an unusual ability to make plants grow ▪ Thanks to my mother's green thumb [=(Brit) green fingers], we usually had vegetables fresh from the garden.

– green–thumbed /ˈgri:nˈθʌmd/ adj ▪ a green-thumbed gardener

Green•wich mean time /ˈgrɪnɪʤ-, ˈgrɛnɪʧ-/ noun [singular] : the time in Greenwich, England, that is used as the basis of standard time throughout the world — called also (US) Greenwich time

greet /ˈgri:t/ verb greets; greet•ed; greet•ing [+ obj]

1 : to meet (someone who has just arrived) with usually friendly and polite words and actions : WELCOME ▪ My husband greeted our guests at the door. ▪ She greeted him warmly. ▪ She greeted him with open arms.

2 : to react to (someone or something) in a specified way — often + with ▪ Her idea was greeted with enthusiasm.

3 : to appear to (someone who has just arrived) : to be seen or experienced by (someone) ▪ A chaotic scene greeted them. — often used as (be) greeted ▪ We were greeted by a snowstorm when we arrived at the airport.

greet•er noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who greets people as they enter a place ▪ He was hired as a professional greeter, welcoming customers to the store.

greeting noun, pl -ings

1 : something that is said or done to show people that you are happy to meet or see them [count] He addressed the members of the delegation with a formal greeting. ▪ The delegates exchanged greetings. [noncount] He held out his hand in greeting. [=as a way to greet someone]

2 [count] : a message that expresses good wishes to someone — usually plural ▪ My sister sends you greetings. ▪ holiday/season's greetings

greeting card noun, pl ~ cards [count] US : a decorated card with a message of good wishes that is sent or given to someone on a special occasion ▪ holiday greeting cards — called also (Brit) greetings card; see picture at MAIL greetings interj — used to greet someone who has just arrived ▪ Greetings! I'm glad you were able to come.

gre•gar•i•ous /grɪˈgerijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : enjoying the company of other people ▪ She is outgoing and gregarious. ▪ a gregarious personality

2 biology : tending to live in groups ▪ gregarious animals

– gre•gar•i•ous•ly adv – gre•gar•i•ous•ness noun [noncount]

Gre•go•ri•an calendar /grɪˈgorijən-/ noun [singular] : the calendar system that is used by most people in the world today ✧ The Gregorian calendar was introduced in 1582 by Pope Gregory XIII. It is now used throughout the world for legal and business purposes.

Gregorian chant noun, pl ~ chants [count, noncount] : a type of religious music from the Middle Ages that is sung without instruments

grem•lin /ˈgrɛmlən/ noun, pl -lins [count] : a small imaginary creature that is blamed when something (such as a machine) does not work properly ▪ As expected, the new computer network has had its share of gremlins. [=there have been problems with the new computer network]

gre•nade /grəˈneɪd/ noun, pl -nades [count] : a small bomb that is designed to be thrown by someone or shot from a rifle ▪ a hand grenade ▪ a grenade-launcher

grenade

gren•a•dine /ˌgrɛnəˈdi:n/ noun [noncount] : a sweet liquid that is made from a type of red fruit (called a pomegranate) and that is used in alcoholic drinks

grew past tense of GROW

grey chiefly Brit spelling of GRAY

grey•hound /ˈgreɪˌhaʊnd/ noun, pl -hounds [count] : a tall, thin dog that runs very fast and that is often used in races

grid /ˈgrɪd/ noun, pl grids [count]

1 : a metal frame with bars running across it that is used to cover an opening

2 : a pattern of lines that cross each other to form squares on a piece of paper, a map, etc. ▪ The students plotted points on a grid. ▪ The city streets form a grid.

3 : a network of electrical wires and equipment that supplies electricity to a large area grid•dle /ˈgrɪdl/ noun, pl grid•dles [count] : a flat surface or pan on which food is cooked

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g griddle cake noun, pl ~ cakes [count] chiefly US : PANCAKE grid•iron /ˈgrɪdˌajən/ noun, pl -irons [count]

1 : a metal grid for cooking food over a fire
2 US, informal : the field on which American football is played ▪ The book recounts his many moments of glory on the gridiron. — often used before another noun ▪ gridiron glory

grid•lock /ˈgrɪdˌlɑːk/ noun
1 : a situation in which streets are so full that vehicles cannot move [noncount] An accident caused gridlock at rush hour yesterday. [singular] We were caught in a gridlock.
2 : a situation in which no progress can be made [noncount] Disagreements about funding have caused legislative gridlock in Congress. [singular] a legislative gridlock
– grid•locked /ˈgrɪdˌlɑːkt/ adj ▪ gridlocked streets ▪ Congress remains gridlocked.

grief /ˈgriːf/ noun, pl griefs
1 a [noncount] : deep sadness caused especially by someone's death ▪ He has been unable to recover from his grief at/over his son's death. ▪ She was overcome with/by grief. b [count] : a cause of deep sadness ▪ the joys and griefs of our lives
2 [noncount] informal a : trouble or annoyance ▪ I've had enough grief for one day. ▪ Trying to fix the computer isn't worth the grief. b : annoying or playful criticism ▪ He's taken/gotten/had a lot of grief from his friends. ▪ His friends have been giving him a lot of grief.
come to grief : to experience failure, disaster, etc. ▪ The boat came to grief on the rocks. ▪ Their plans for opening a restaurant came to grief when they failed to get a loan.
good grief informal — used to express surprise or annoyance ▪ "He's burned the toast." "Good grief! Can't he do anything right?"

grief–strick•en /ˈgriːfˌstrɪkən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very sad : deeply affected by grief ▪ The death of his son has left him grief-stricken.

griev•ance /ˈgriːvəns/ noun, pl -anc•es
1 : a feeling of having been treated unfairly [noncount] He has a deep sense of grievance against his former employer. [count] She has been nursing a grievance all week.
2 [count] : a reason for complaining or being unhappy with a situation ▪ In the petition, the students listed their many grievances against the university administration.
3 [count] : a statement in which you say you are unhappy or not satisfied with something ▪ The union has filed a formal grievance [=complaint], accusing the company of unfair labor practices. ▪ Several customers came to the front desk to air their grievances.

grieve /ˈgriːv/ verb grieves; grieved; griev•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel sad or unhappy ▪ It grieves me to see my brother struggling like this. ▪ Her decision to live overseas grieved her mother.
2 : to feel or show grief or sadness [no obj] People need time to grieve after the death of a family member. ▪ The children are still grieving for their mother. = The children are grieving over their mother's death. ▪ a grieving widow [+ obj] The children are still grieving the death of their mother.

griev•ous /ˈgriːvəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing great sadness, suffering, or pain : very serious or severe ▪ the grievous cost of war ▪ He took a foolish financial risk and suffered a grievous loss. ▪ grievous bodily harm ▪ a grievous error/mistake
– griev•ous•ly adv ▪ Several passengers were grievously injured in the bus accident.

grif• n also grif•fon or gryph•on /ˈgrɪfən/ noun, pl grif•ns also grif•fons or gryph•ons [count] in stories : an animal that is half eagle and half lion

[1]grill /ˈgrɪl/ noun, pl grills [count]
1 a : a metal frame that is used to cook food over hot coals or an open fire ▪ She put the hamburgers on the grill. b : a cooking device with a grill ▪ a portable gas grill c : an electric device in which food is cooked between two hot surfaces
2 : a restaurant that serves grilled or broiled foods ▪ a Mexican grill — often used in the names of restaurants ▪ Jackie's Bar and Grill
3 : a dish of grilled or broiled food ▪ a seafood grill ▪ a mixed grill [=a dish of various grilled meats]
4 Brit : BROILER 1

[2]grill verb grills; grilled; grill•ing [+ obj]
1 chiefly US a : to cook (food) on a metal frame over fire ▪ We're planning to grill some chicken and burgers at the cookout. b : to fry or toast (something, such as a sandwich) on a hot surface ▪ a grilled cheese sandwich
2 Brit : to cook (food) directly over or under high heat : BROIL
3 informal : to ask (someone) a series of difficult and unpleasant questions : to question (someone) intensely ▪ The police grilled [=interrogated] the suspect for hours. ▪ Her parents grilled her when she came home late.
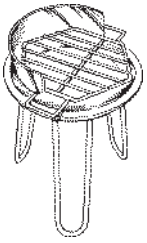
– grilling /ˈgrɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [noncount] These steaks are perfect for grilling. [count] The police gave him a grilling about his possible involvement in the robbery.



grill

grille also grill /ˈgrɪl/ noun, pl grilles also grills [count] : a metal frame with bars running across it that is used to cover or protect something ▪ The vent was covered with a grille. ▪ The truck has a large metal grille at the front. — see picture at CAR

grim /ˈgrɪm/ adj grim•mer; -mest
1 : unpleasant or shocking to see or think about ▪ Hikers made a grim discovery when they came across a dead body in the woods. ▪ The accident serves as a grim reminder of the dangers of drinking and driving.
2 : causing feelings of sadness or worry : gloomy or depressing ▪ a grim winter ▪ The prognosis is grim—doctors do not expect her to live longer than six months. ▪ He paints a grim picture of the prospects for peace.
3 : having a very serious appearance or manner ▪ His face looked grim, and we knew his news wouldn't be good. ▪ a grim smile ▪ a grim taskmaster
4 : strongly felt and serious ▪ grim determination
– grim•ly adv ▪ She spoke grimly of the scarcity of jobs. – grim•ness noun [noncount]

grim•ace /ˈgrɪməs/ noun, pl -ac•es [count] : a facial expression in which your mouth and face are twisted in a way that shows disgust, disapproval, or pain ▪ The patient made/gave a painful grimace as the doctor examined his wound.
– grimace verb -aces; -aced; -ac•ing [no obj] ▪ The patient grimaced in pain when his wound was touched.

grime /ˈgraɪm/ noun [noncount] : dirt that covers a surface ▪ The windows were coated with grime.
– grimy /ˈgraɪmi/ adj grim•i•er; -est ▪ grimy [=dirty] windows

Grim Reaper noun
the Grim Reaper : death thought of as a man or skeleton holding a scythe and wearing a dark cloak with a hood ▪ a visit from the Grim Reaper

grin /ˈgrɪn/ verb grins; grinned; grin•ning [no obj] : to smile widely ▪ She continued to tease her brother, grinning wickedly. ▪ He was grinning from ear to ear. [=he was grinning very broadly] grin and bear it : to accept something that you do not like because you have no choice ▪ I don't agree with their decision, but all I can do is grin and bear it.
– grin noun, pl grins [count] ▪ He had/wore a foolish/sheepish/big grin on his face.

grinch /ˈgrɪntʃ/ noun, pl grinch•es [count] US, informal : an unpleasant person who spoils other people's fun or enjoyment ▪ Only a grinch would complain about the movie's silly plot.

[1]grind /ˈgraɪnd/ verb grinds; ground /ˈgraʊnd/; grind•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to crush or break (something) into very small pieces by rubbing it against a rough surface or using a special machine ▪ Grind (up) the coffee beans into a fine powder. ▪ The corn is ground into meal. b : to cut (meat) into small pieces by putting it through a special machine ▪ Grind (up) the turkey meat. — usually used in U.S. English in the form ground to describe meat that has been cut into very small pieces ▪ a recipe made with ground turkey ▪ a pound of ground beef [=(US) hamburger, (Brit) mince]
2 : to make (something) sharp or smooth by rubbing it against a hard surface [+ obj] grind an ax [no obj] The steel grinds to a sharp edge. — see also ax to grind at [1]AX
3 a [+ obj] : to cause (things) to rub against each other in a forceful way that produces a harsh noise ▪ She kept grinding the car's gears. ▪ He grinds his teeth in his sleep. b [no obj] : to make a harsh noise caused by rubbing ▪ I could hear the gears grinding.
4 [+ obj] : to rub or press (something) against a hard surface ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

She ground (out) her cigarette on the pavement. ▪ Dirt was ground into the carpet.

grind along [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue in a slow and steady way ▪ The traffic ground along through the city streets. ▪ The economy continues to grind along. 2 grind along (something) : to continue moving down or along (something) in a slow and steady way ▪ The traffic was grinding along the streets.

grind away [phrasal verb] 1 : to work or study in a steady, determined way ▪ She was grinding away at her studies. 2 grind away (something) or grind (something) away : to remove (a part of something) by rubbing something rough against it ▪ He uses a special tool to grind away the stone.

grind down [phrasal verb] 1 grind down (something) or grind (something) down : to make (something hard) smaller and smoother by gradually rubbing off tiny bits ▪ The old dog's teeth had been ground down by use. 2 grind down (someone or something) or grind (someone or something) down : to weaken or destroy (someone or something) gradually ▪ Poverty ground her spirit down. ▪ These people have been ground down by years of oppression.

grind on [phrasal verb] : to continue for a long time — used to describe something unpleasant ▪ The war ground on for many more months.

grind out [phrasal verb] grind out (something) or grind (something) out* : to produce (something, especially something of low quality) quickly as part of a continuous process ▪ He grinds out [=churns out] a new novel every year.

grind to a halt or come to a grinding halt of a machine : to stop working or moving forward ▪ The machinery slowly ground to a halt. — often used figuratively ▪ Without more money, work on the project will soon grind to a halt. [=stop] ▪ The project came to a grinding halt.

[2]grind noun, pl grinds

1 [singular] : boring or difficult work ▪ I need a break from the daily grind. ▪ the dull grind of office work

2 [count] US : a person who works or studies too much ▪ In college he had a reputation as a grind [=(Brit) swot] who never went to parties.

3 [count] — used to describe the size of the pieces of something that has been ground ▪ a fine/coarse grind of coffee

4 [count] : the act of rotating the hips in a sexual way ▪ dancers doing the bump and grind — compare BUMP grind•er /ˈgraɪndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person or thing that grinds something ▪ a coffee grinder — see also ORGAN-GRINDER

2 US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH

grinding adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very harsh or difficult : continuing without getting any better ▪ grinding poverty grind•stone /ˈgraɪnˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a stone disc that can be turned like a wheel and that is used for sharpening tools, smoothing rough edges, etc.

nose to the grindstone ✧ If your nose is to the grindstone, you are doing hard, continuous work. ▪ You'll do well at school if you just keep your nose to the grindstone.

grin•go /ˈgrɪŋˌgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] informal + offensive : a foreign person in a Latin-American country; especially : an American person

[1]grip /ˈgrɪp/ verb grips; gripped; grip•ping [+ obj]

1 : to grab or hold (something) tightly ▪ The little boy gripped his mother's hand tightly. ▪ I gripped the door handle and pulled as hard as I could.

2 : to get and hold the interest or attention of (someone) ▪ The story really grips the reader. ▪ The scandal has gripped the nation.

[2]grip noun, pl grips

1 [count] a : the act of grabbing or holding something — often + on ▪ She tightened her grip on the handlebars as she coasted down the hill. ▪ I got a good grip on the door handle and pulled. ▪ He loosened/relaxed/lost his grip on the rope. — see also DEATH GRIP b : a way or style of holding something ▪ a loose/tight grip ▪ His tennis instructor showed him the proper backhand grip. ▪ a golfer with an incorrect grip

2 [singular] a : power or control ▪ He has the country in his grip. [=he controls the country] ▪ He has been doing all he can to maintain/tighten his grip on the company's finances. ✧ To be in the grip of something unpleasant is to be unable to stop or escape its effect or influence. ▪ The country is in the grip of a recession. ▪ We're still in the grip of winter. b : an understanding of something — often + on ▪ She has a good grip on local politics. [=she understands local politics well] ▪ He can't seem to get a grip on [=gain a good understanding of] calculus.

3 [count] : a part for holding something ▪ a knife with a wooden grip [=handle] ▪ I need new grips for my golf clubs.

come to grips with or Brit get to grips with : to begin to understand or deal with (something, such as a problem) in a direct or effective way ▪ The government needs to come to grips with the unemployment problem.

get a grip on yourself or get a grip informal : to get control of your thoughts and emotions and stop behaving in a foolish or uncontrolled way ▪ Get a grip on yourself! This is no time to be hysterical!

lose your grip informal : to lose control of your thoughts and emotions : to lose your ability to think or behave in a normal way ▪ I've never seen him so confused and indecisive—he really seems to be losing his grip. ▪ The patient seems to be losing his grip on reality. [=confusing what is real and what is not real] gripe /ˈgraɪp/ verb gripes; griped; grip•ing informal : to complain about something [no obj] All of the workers were griping about the new regulations. [+ obj] The students griped that they had too much homework.

– gripe noun, pl gripes [count] ▪ I'm sick of listening to their gripes. [=complaints] gripping adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very interesting and exciting ▪ a gripping story about a slave's escape to freedom

– grip•ping•ly /ˈgrɪpɪŋli/ adv ▪ a grippingly exciting story gris•ly /ˈgrɪzli/ adj gris•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : causing horror or fear : very shocking ▪ a grisly [=gruesome] murder ▪ The jurors saw grisly photos of the crime scene.

grist /ˈgrɪst/ noun

grist for your/the mill (US) or Brit grist to your/the mill : something that can be used for a particular purpose ▪ Now that he's a writer, he regards his difficult childhood experiences as grist for the mill. [=he regards them as material that he can use as a writer]

gris•tle /ˈgrɪsəl/ noun [noncount] : tough matter in meat that is difficult to eat ▪ a cheap piece of meat, full of gristle and fat

– gris•tly /ˈgrɪsəli/ adj gris•tli•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ gristly meat

[1]grit /ˈgrɪt/ noun [noncount]

1 : very small pieces of sand or stone ▪ He shook out his shoes to remove the small rocks and grit.

2 informal : mental toughness and courage ▪ Through resourcefulness and grit, the pioneers survived the winter.

[2]grit verb grits; grit•ted; grit•ting

grit your teeth 1 : to press or rub your teeth together ▪ He gritted his teeth in anger/pain. 2 : to show courage and determination when you are dealing with problems or challenges ▪ Starting your own business can be very tough, but you just have to grit your teeth and keep working at it.

grits /ˈgrɪts/ noun [plural] : a type of ground corn that is eaten especially in the southern U.S. ▪ We had sausage and grits for breakfast.

grit•ty /ˈgrɪti/ adj grit•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : containing very small pieces of sand or stone : containing grit ▪ gritty vegetables

2 informal : having or showing a lot of courage and determination ▪ the story's gritty heroine ▪ I admire her gritty determination to succeed.

3 : harsh and unpleasant ▪ The book describes the gritty realities of life on the streets. ▪ He gave us all of the gritty details of his divorce.

– see also NITTY-GRITTY griz•zle /ˈgrɪzəl/ verb griz•zles; griz•zled; griz•zling Brit, informal

1 [no obj] : to make a continuous, quiet, crying sound : WHIMPER ▪ a grizzling baby

2 : to complain in a weak or annoying way [no obj] He is always grizzling about the weather. [+ obj] He always grizzles that the weather is bad.

grizzled adj : having gray hair ▪ He had thinning hair and a grizzled beard. ▪ a grizzled war veteran griz•zly /ˈgrɪzli/ noun, pl -zlies [count] : GRIZZLY BEAR grizzly bear noun, pl ~ bears [count] : a very large and powerful bear of western North America — see picture at BEAR groan /ˈgroʊn/ verb groans; groaned; groan•ing

1 a [no obj] : to make a deep sound because of pain or some strong emotion (such as grief or disappointment) ▪ The wounded man groaned in/with pain. ▪ She groaned when she saw the bill. ▪ She groaned silently/inwardly when she saw the bill. [=she was upset when she saw the bill but she did not actually groan] b [+ obj] : to say (something that expresses annoyance or unhappiness) ▪ "Oh, no," she groaned, "I'm going to have to start all over." ▪ She groaned that she would have to start all over.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

2 [no obj] : to complain about something ▪ Merchants are groaning over slow holiday sales. ▪ He's always moaning and groaning about his salary.

3 [no obj] : to make a deep sound caused especially by weight or pressure ▪ The chair groaned under his weight. ▪ groaning bookshelves = bookshelves groaning with (the weight of their) books [=bookshelves filled with books]

– groan noun, pl groans [count] ▪ She let out a groan when she saw the bill. ▪ We could hear the groans of the wounded man. ▪ a groan of despair

gro•cer /ˈgroʊsə/ noun, pl -cers [count] : a person who sells food and other supplies for people's houses ▪ Ask your local grocer if he sells organic fruits and vegetables. ▪ I bought the fruit and vegetables at the grocer's. [=grocery store]

gro•cery /ˈgroʊsri/ noun, pl -cer•ies

1 [count] chiefly US : GROCERY STORE

2 groceries [plural] : food sold by a grocer : food bought at a store ▪ She stopped to pick up some groceries for supper.

– grocery adj, always used before a noun ▪ grocery bags/shopping ▪ a grocery cart/clerk grocery store noun, pl ~ stores [count] chiefly US : a store that sells food and household supplies : SUPERMARKET — called also grocery

grog /ˈgrɑːg/ noun [noncount]

1 : an alcoholic drink containing liquor (such as rum) mixed with water

2 chiefly Australia and New Zealand, informal : any alcoholic drink (such as beer)

grog•gy /ˈgrɑːgi/ adj grog•gi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : not able to think or move normally because of being tired, sick, etc. ▪ I'm still a little groggy from my nap. ▪ The medicine sometimes makes patients groggy.

– grog•gi•ly /ˈgrɑːgəli/ adv ▪ He got out of bed and staggered groggily to the bathroom. – grog•gi•ness /ˈgrɑːginəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ Patients may experience some grogginess after taking the medicine.

groin /ˈgrɔɪn/ noun, pl groins [count] : the area of the body where your legs come together — see picture at HUMAN

grom•met /ˈgrɑːmət/ noun, pl -mets [count] : a metal or plastic ring that is used to strengthen a small hole in a piece of cloth or leather : EYELET

[1]groom /ˈgruːm/ noun, pl grooms [count]

1 : a man who has just married or is about to be married — called also bridegroom; compare BRIDE

2 : a person who takes care of horses

[2]groom verb grooms; groomed; groom•ing [+ obj]

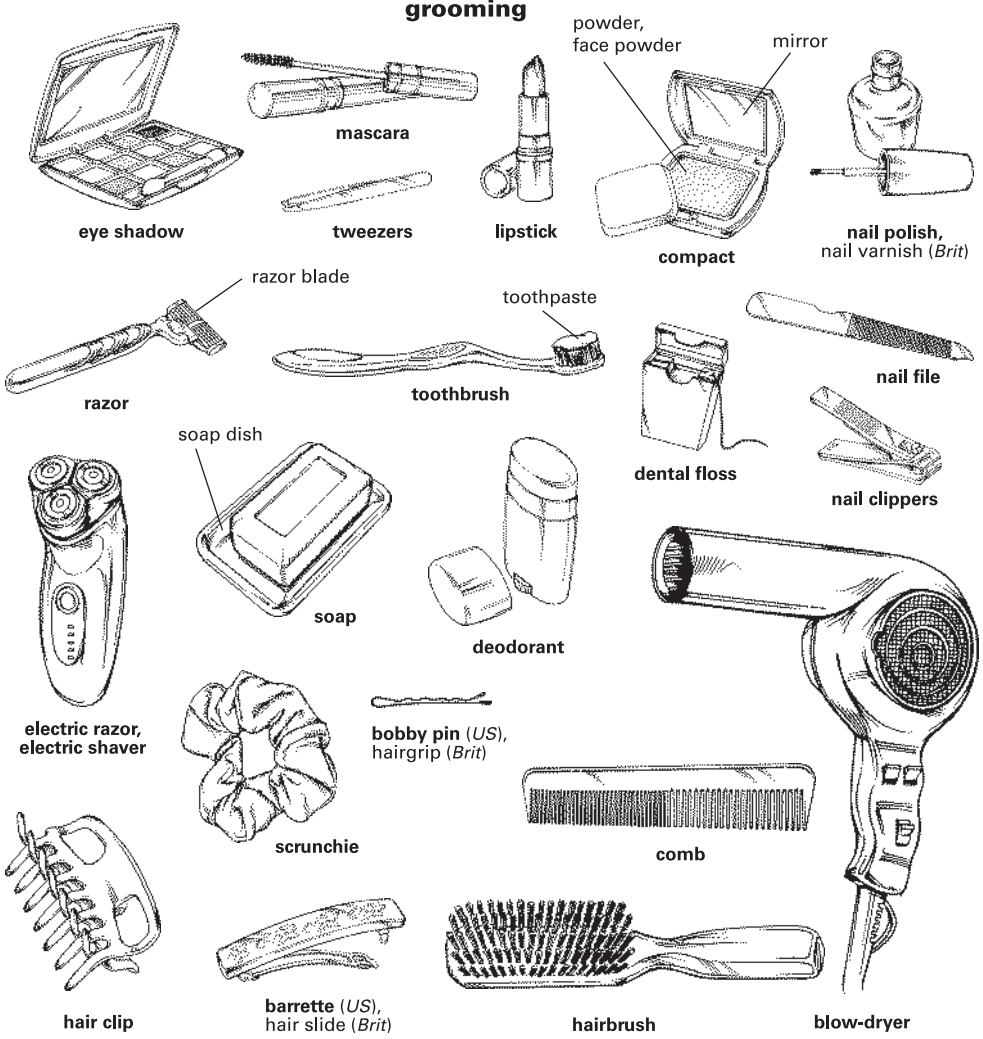
1 : to clean and care for (an animal) ▪ The horses are being groomed for the competition. ▪ The cat was grooming itself in the corner. [=the cat was cleaning itself by licking its fur]

2 a : to make (someone) neat and attractive ▪ She spent

G

grooming



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

hours grooming herself. ▪ She always seems to be perfectly groomed and neatly dressed. b : to make (something) neat, smooth, or attractive ▪ a carefully groomed lawn ▪ perfectly groomed ski slopes — see also WELL-GROOMED

3 : to prepare (someone) for a particular job or position ▪ He is being groomed to take over the company.

– grooming noun [noncount] ▪ Horses need a lot of grooming. ▪ She spends an hour each morning on personal grooming. [=care of her hair, skin, nails, etc.] — see picture on previous page

groom•er /ˈgru:mə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who cleans and cares for an animal ▪ a dog groomer

grooms•man /ˈgru:mzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] chiefly US : a male friend or relative who helps a groom at his wedding ▪ He asked his two closest college friends to be his groomsmen. — compare BEST MAN, BRIDESMAID, MAID OF HONOR, MATRON OF HONOR

[1]groove /ˈgru:v/ noun, pl grooves

1 [count] : a long, narrow cut or low area in a surface ▪ the grooves on a vinyl record ▪ The door slides along a groove in the doorframe.

2 [singular] informal a US : a state in which you are able to do something well and easily especially because you are doing it often ▪ It's not hard to do a little studying each day once you get into a/the groove. [=routine] ▪ He's a great pitcher when he's in a/the groove. ▪ She hasn't yet found her groove. b chiefly Brit : a dull routine that does not change : RUT ▪ They've gotten stuck in a groove in their jobs.

3 [count] informal : an enjoyable pattern of sound in music ▪ dance grooves

– grooved /ˈgru:vd/ adj ▪ a grooved surface

[2]groove verb grooves; grooved; groov•ing [no obj] informal + old-fashioned : to enjoy listening to or dancing to music ▪ We grooved to the beat.

groovy /ˈgru:vi/ adj groov•i•er; -est informal + old-fashioned : very good and enjoyable : EXCELLENT ▪ groovy music ✧ Groovy is usually associated with the language of the 1960s.

grope /ˈgroʊp/ verb gropes; groped; grop•ing

1 [no obj] : to search for something by reaching or touching usually with your fingers in an awkward way ▪ I groped for the light switch. ▪ She groped around in her purse, looking for her comb. — often used figuratively ▪ He was groping for a tactful way to break the news.

2 : to move forward carefully by putting your hands in front of you so that you can feel anything that blocks you [no obj] We groped along the dark passage. [+ obj] We groped our way [=felt our way] along the dark passage.

3 [+ obj] : to touch (someone) in an unwanted and unexpected sexual way ▪ She claims that her boss tried to grope her.

[1]gross /ˈgroʊs/ adj gross•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 always used before a noun : very obvious or noticeable ▪ There is a gross [=glaring] error in the text. ▪ They have suffered a gross injustice. ▪ That's a gross exaggeration.

2 a : rude or offensive ▪ gross [=vulgar, coarse] language b informal : very disgusting ▪ That soup looks gross. ▪ She has a gross habit of chewing on the ends of her hair.

3 always used before a noun : including everything ▪ What was the gross [=total] weight of the shipment? — used especially to describe a total amount of money that exists before anything (such as taxes or expenses) is taken away ▪ the company's gross annual profits ▪ Their gross earnings were $50,000. — compare [3]NET

4 : very big or fat ▪ a gross man with an enormous belly

– gross•ly adv ▪ His story was grossly inaccurate. ▪ She is grossly overweight. – gross•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the grossness of his language

[2]gross adv — used to describe a total amount of money that exists before anything (such as taxes or expenses) is taken away ▪ They earned $50,000, gross.

[3]gross verb gross•es; grossed; gross•ing

gross out [phrasal verb] gross (someone) out also gross out (someone) chiefly US, informal : to cause (someone) to feel disgusted ▪ He's always grossing me out by playing with his food. ▪ I was really grossed out by all the blood and guts in the movie. — see also GROSS-OUT

– compare [4]GROSS

[4]gross verb grosses; grossed; gross•ing [+ obj] : to earn (an amount of money) before taxes, expenses, etc., are taken away ▪ They grossed $50,000 before taxes. — compare [4]NET — compare [3]GROSS

[5]gross noun, pl gross•es [count] : the amount of money earned before taxes, expenses, etc., are taken away ▪ They give five percent of their gross to charity every year. — compare [5]NET — compare [6]GROSS

[6]gross noun, pl gross [count] : a group of 144 things : 12 dozen ▪ a gross of pencils ▪ selling pencils by the gross — compare [5]GROSS

gross domestic product noun, pl ~ -ucts [count, noncount] : the total value of the goods and services produced by the people of a nation during a year not including the value of income earned in foreign countries — abbr. GDP

gross national product noun, pl ~ -ucts [count, noncount] : the total value of the goods and services produced by the people of a nation during a year — abbr. GNP

gross–out /ˈgroʊsˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] chiefly US, informal : something that is very disgusting : something that grosses you out ▪ The last scene in the movie is a real gross-out. ▪ gross-out humor gro•tesque /groʊˈtɛsk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very strange or ugly in a way that is not normal or natural ▪ animals with grotesque deformities ▪ a grotesque villain ▪ The actors wore dark capes and grotesque masks.

2 : extremely different from what is expected or usual ▪ a grotesque distortion of the facts

– gro•tesque•ly adv ▪ grotesquely deformed – gro•tesque•ness noun [noncount]

grot•to /ˈgra:to/ noun, pl -toes also -tos [count] : a small cave grot•ty /ˈgra:ti/ adj grot•ti•er; -est Brit, informal : of poor quality : very dirty or unpleasant ▪ I lived in a grotty flat.

[1]grouch /ˈgraʊʧ/ noun, pl grouch•es [count] : a person who complains frequently or constantly ▪ He is a grouch.

[2]grouch verb grouches; grouched; grouch•ing informal : to complain in an annoyed way [no obj] He's always grouching about work. [+ obj] He's always grouching that he has to work.

grouchy /ˈgraʊʧi/ adj grouch•i•er; -est somewhat informal : tending to complain about things : having a bad temper ▪ a grouchy old man ▪ I get grouchy when I'm tired.

– grouch•i•ly /ˈgraʊʧəli/ adv – grouch•i•ness /ˈgraʊʧinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]ground /ˈgraʊnd/ noun, pl grounds

1 the ground : the surface of the earth ▪ An apple fell to the ground. ▪ Mechanical problems kept the plane on the ground. ▪ They were lying/sitting on the ground. ▪ close to the ground = low to the ground ▪ The flight was watched by many observers on the ground. ▪ They sent in ground forces/troops. [=soldiers who fight on the ground instead of in the air or at sea] ▪ a ground war [=a war fought by soldiers on the ground] ▪ ground transportation [=transportation that is over the ground instead of on water or in the air]

2 [noncount] : the soil that is on or under the surface of the earth ▪ planting seeds in the ground ▪ She drove a spike into the ground. ▪ damp/frozen ground ▪ solid/firm/dry ground

3 a [noncount] : an area of land ▪ They built their house on bare/level/flat ground. ▪ We realized that we were on hallowed/sacred ground. ▪ They built their house on high ground. b [count] : an area of land or sea that is used for a particular purpose ▪ a camping ground ▪ fishing/hunting grounds ▪ Each fall the birds return to their wintering grounds. ▪ (Brit) a football ground [=(US) a soccer field] ▪ an ancient burial ground [=a place where people were buried in ancient times] — see also SPAWNING GROUND c *grounds [plural] : the land around a building ▪ the capitol grounds ▪ He was trespassing on school grounds. ▪ We toured the grounds of the estate.

4 [noncount] : the bottom of the ocean, a lake, etc. ▪ The boat struck ground.

5 [noncount] : an area of knowledge or interest ▪ We have a lot of ground to go over before the test. ▪ We covered much more ground [=we went over more information] than we expected to at the meeting. ▪ The book covers familiar ground. [=subjects that have often been discussed before]

6 [singular] : a place or situation in which someone or something is developed or tested ▪ The laboratory has become a testing ground for ideas about the origins of the universe. ▪ The tournament has come to be regarded as a proving ground for young players.

7 : a set of beliefs, opinions, or attitudes [noncount] The two sides are trying to find some common ground [=an area in which they can agree with each other] on these issues. ▪ When a politician talks about raising taxes, he's on dangerous ground. [=he is doing or saying something that may

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

cause anger or criticism] [singular] The two sides continue to look for a middle ground [=a middle position] between two extremes. — see also HIGH GROUND

8 [count] : a reason for doing or thinking something — usually plural ▪ The company has been accused of discriminating on the grounds of race. ▪ We have no grounds for believing that the crisis will end soon. ▪ Her husband's infidelity was grounds for divorce. ▪ Many critics have objected to the proposal on the grounds that [=because] it would be too costly. ▪ The law was rejected on the grounds that it was not constitutional. = The law was rejected on constitutional grounds.

9 grounds [plural] : very small pieces of crushed coffee beans ▪ coffee grounds

10 [count] US : a wire or metal object that makes an electrical connection with the earth — usually singular ▪ This metal bracket provides the ground. — called also (Brit) earth

11 [count] : the area behind or around a design ▪ The wallpaper has red tulips on a white ground. [=background]

above ground : on top of the earth's surface ▪ The bird's nest is located high above ground.

below ground : under the earth's surface ▪ The seeds should be planted a few inches below ground.

break ground 1 : to dig into the ground at the start of building something ▪ Workers broke ground on the new stadium last week. 2 or break new ground : to make new discoveries ▪ Critics say that the study does not break (any) new ground in the search for a cure for cancer.

burn to the ground see [1]BURN down to the ground Brit, informal : completely or perfectly ▪ The job suits her down to the ground. [=suits her perfectly] from the ground up 1 : completely or thoroughly ▪ The car has been redesigned from the ground up. 2 : from a point at which nothing has been done : from the very beginning ▪ They built the resort from the ground up.

gain ground or make up ground : to move faster so that you come closer to someone or something that is in front of you ▪ She was trailing in the race, but she was beginning to gain ground (on the leaders). — often used figuratively ▪ Alternative forms of energy are quickly gaining ground. [=becoming more popular or successful] ▪ The company has been gaining ground on [=catching up with] its competitors. ▪ The campaign is trying to make up ground by advertising heavily in key states.

get off the ground 1 : to begin to operate or proceed in a successful way ▪ The project never really got off the ground. 2 get (something) off the ground : to cause (something) to begin to operate or proceed in successful way ▪ We're still trying to get this project off the ground.

give ground : to move backward when you are being attacked : RETREAT ▪ The troops were forced to give ground. — often used figuratively ▪ The controversy has continued, and both sides are still refusing to give ground.

have/keep your feet on the ground see [1]FOOT hit the ground running see [1]HIT hold/stand your ground : to not change your position when you are being attacked : to not retreat ▪ The troops managed to hold their ground despite a fierce enemy attack. — often used figuratively ▪ The company has managed to hold its ground in the marketplace. ▪ The president has continued to stand his ground despite criticism.

into the ground 1 : to the point of being very tired or exhausted ▪ She's been working/running/driving herself into the ground. 2 : to the point of complete failure or ruin ▪ He ran that company into the ground. [=he destroyed that company] ▪ She drove that old car into the ground. [=she drove it until it would not run anymore] lose ground : to move slower so that you are farther away from someone or something that is in front of you ▪ She was beginning to lose ground (to the leaders) in the race. — often used figuratively ▪ The political party lost ground [=became less popular or successful; did not do well] in the election. ▪ The company is losing ground to [=falling behind; not doing as well as] its competitors.

[2]ground verb grounds; ground•ed; ground•ing

1 [+ obj] : to provide a basis or reason for (something) — usually used as (be) grounded ▪ She discussed the principles on which her philosophy is grounded. [=based, founded] ▪ It turned out that our fears were well grounded. [=there was a good reason for our fears] — often + in ▪ These practices are solidly grounded [=based] in tradition. ▪ a theory grounded [=based] in fact

2 : to cause a ship or boat to hit the ground below the water so that it cannot move [+ obj] They grounded the ship on a sandbar. ▪ a grounded ship [no obj] The ship grounded on a sandbar. [=(more commonly) the ship ran aground on a sandbar]

3 [+ obj] : to prevent (an aircraft or a pilot) from flying ▪ The plane was grounded by mechanical problems. ▪ Bad weather grounded his flight. ▪ a pilot grounded by health problems

4 [+ obj] : to stop (a child) from leaving the house to spend time with friends as a form of punishment ▪ Her parents threatened to ground her for a week. [=her parents threatened to keep her from going out with her friends for a week] ▪ Sorry, I can't go out, I'm grounded.

5 [+ obj] US : to connect (a wire, a device, etc.) electrically to the ground for safety ▪ The wire was not properly grounded. [=(Brit) earthed]

6 [no obj] baseball : to hit a ground ball ▪ He grounded to the shortstop. ▪ He grounded out [=made an out by hitting a ground ball] to the shortstop.

7 [+ obj] American football : to throw (a football) to the ground in order to avoid being tackled ▪ The quarterback was penalized for intentionally grounding the ball.

ground in [phrasal verb] ground (someone) in (something) : to give (someone) basic knowledge about (something) ▪ The study helped to ground them in the methods of research. — often used as (be) grounded in ▪ She is well/solidly grounded in mathematics. [=she has a good basic knowledge of mathematics]

[3]ground past tense and past participle of [1]GRIND

ground ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] baseball : a ball that is hit by the batter and that rolls or bounces along the ground ▪ He hit a ground ball to the shortstop. — called also grounder; compare FLY BALL ground•break•ing /ˈgraʊndˌbreɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : introducing new ideas or methods ▪ She was honored for her groundbreaking work in nuclear physics. ▪ a groundbreaking new book ground cloth noun, pl ~ cloths [count] US : a piece of waterproof material that is used under tents, sleeping bags, etc., by people who are sleeping outdoors — called also (Brit) ground sheet ground cover noun, pl ~ covers [count, noncount] : a low plant or group of plants used in a garden to cover the ground ▪ Ivy is often used as (a) ground cover.

ground crew noun, pl ~ crews [count] : a group of people at an airport who take care of and repair aircraft — called also (Brit) ground staff ground•ed /ˈgraʊndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a person who is sensible and has a good understanding of what is really important in life ▪ He's trying to stay grounded despite all the fame and praise. ▪ She comes from a very grounded family.

ground•er /ˈgraʊndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] baseball : GROUND BALL ▪ He hit a grounder to the shortstop.

ground floor noun, pl ~ floors [count] : the floor of a building that is at ground level — called also (US) first floor in on the ground floor ✧ If you are/get in on the ground floor of something (such as a new business or project), you become involved in it at the very beginning. ▪ He was able to get in on the ground floor of the computer industry.

ground•hog /ˈgraʊndˌhɑːg/ noun, pl -hogs [count] : WOODCHUCK

Groundhog Day noun [singular] : February 2 observed in the U.S. as a day that indicates whether winter will end soon ✧ Tradition says that if a groundhog sees its shadow because the sun is shining on February 2, the winter will last six more weeks, and if it does not see its shadow because of cloudy weather, the winter will end soon.

ground•ing /ˈgraʊndɪŋ/ noun [singular] : training or instruction that gives someone basic knowledge of a particular subject ▪ It is clear he has a solid grounding in the issues. [=that he knows about and understands the issues] ▪ The job requires a thorough grounding in the history of the region. ▪ classes that give students a good moral grounding

ground•less /ˈgraʊndləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not based on facts ▪ The charges against him were (completely) groundless. ▪ Doubts about how the new system would work proved (to be) groundless. ▪ groundless fears – ground•less•ly adv – ground•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the groundlessness of their fears ground–level adj, always used before a noun : occurring or

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

lying at or near the ground ▪ ground-level winds/temperatures ▪ a ground-level window

– ground level noun [singular] ▪ a window located at ground level ground•nut /ˈgraʊndˌnʌt/ noun, pl -nuts [count] chiefly Brit : PEANUT 1 ground plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] : FLOOR PLAN ground rule noun, pl ~ rules [count]

1 : a basic rule about what should be done in a particular situation, event, etc. — usually plural ▪ We need to lay out the ground rules for tonight's meeting.
2 chiefly US, sports : a special rule about how a game is played on a particular field, court, or course — usually plural ▪ The coaches and umpires discussed the ground rules.

ground sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] Brit : GROUND CLOTH grounds•keep•er /ˈgraʊndzˌkiːpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who takes care of a large area of land (such as a sports field or a park) — called also (chiefly Brit) groundsman grounds•man /ˈgraʊndzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] chiefly Brit : GROUNDSKEEPER ground staff noun, pl ~ staffs [count] Brit

1 : the people who take care of a large area of land (such as a sports field) — usually singular
2 : GROUND CREW

ground stroke noun, pl ~ strokes [count] tennis : a stroke made by hitting a ball that has bounced off the ground — compare VOLLEY ground•swell /ˈgraʊndˌswɛl/ noun, pl -swells [count] : a fast increase in the amount of public support for something (such as a political cause or candidate) — usually + of ▪ They hope to create a groundswell of support for her candidacy. ▪ a groundswell of enthusiasm ground•wa•ter /ˈgraʊndˌwɑːtɚ/ noun [noncount] : water that is underground ▪ There were concerns about contaminated groundwater.

ground•work /ˈgraʊndˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : something that is done at an early stage and that makes later work or progress possible — often used with lay or do ▪ His discoveries laid the groundwork [=foundation] for further research. ▪ He did the groundwork for further research.

ground zero noun [noncount]
1 : the point on the earth's surface directly above, below, or at which an explosion (especially a nuclear explosion) occurs
2 : the central point in an area of fast change or intense activity ▪ ground zero in the battle over immigration laws
3 : the beginning state or starting point ▪ We're going to have to go right back to ground zero [=square one] and start all over again.

[1]group /ˈgruːp/ noun, pl groups [count]
1 a : a number of people or things that are together or in the same place ▪ It'll be easier if we go there as a group. ▪ She presented the idea to the group. ▪ We like to let these students work in groups whenever possible. — often + of ▪ A large group of people were waiting for him at the airport. ▪ a group of tourists ▪ a small group of islands ✧ In British English group is used with both singular and plural verbs. ▪ A large group was/were waiting for him. b : a number of people who are connected by some shared activity, interest, or quality ▪ She belongs to an environmental/youth group. ▪ ethnic/religious groups ▪ She joined a discussion group. ▪ A select group of scientists has been invited to the conference. ▪ The disease was seen in all age groups. [=groups made up of people who are the same age] ▪ a group discussion [=a discussion involving a group of people] — see also FOCUS GROUP, INTEREST GROUP, NEWSGROUP, PRESSURE GROUP, SUPPORT GROUP c : a number of things that are related in some way ▪ the four food groups ▪ a group of languages
2 : a number of musicians who play together regularly ▪ a rock/musical group [=band]

[2]group verb groups; grouped; group•ing
1 [+ obj] : to put (people or things) in a group — often + together ▪ She grouped the toys together by type. — often used as (be) grouped ▪ English and Dutch can be grouped together as Germanic languages. ▪ The children were grouped by age.
2 [no obj] : to form a group — often + around or together ▪ The students grouped around the table. ▪ The children grouped together near their teachers.

grou•per /ˈgruːpɚ/ noun, pl grou•pers also grouper [count] : a large fish that lives at the bottom of warm seas group home noun, pl ~ homes [count] US : a place where people who need special care or attention live together in a group ▪ a group home for young adults with disabilities group•ie /ˈgruːpi/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal

1 a : a fan of a music group who follows the group on concert tours b : a fan of an athlete or celebrity who tries to see the athlete or celebrity as often as possible
2 : an enthusiastic supporter or follower of something ▪ a science-fiction groupie ▪ a political groupie

group•ing /ˈgruːpɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : a set of people or things combined in a group ▪ They arranged the furniture in a grouping around the fireplace. — often + of ▪ The garden has several large groupings of carefully selected plants. ▪ a grouping of stars/islands
2 [noncount] : the act or process of combining people or things into groups ▪ the grouping of English with other Germanic languages group practice noun, pl ~ -tices [count, noncount] : a group of doctors, dentists, etc., who all work in the same building and share office costs ▪ He is in (a) group practice with three other doctors.

group therapy noun [noncount] : a method for helping people with mental or emotional problems by having them discuss their problems together in a group

[1]grouse /ˈgraʊs/ noun, pl grouse [count] : a small bird that is often hunted

[2]grouse verb grous•es; groused; grous•ing informal : to complain about something [no obj] She's been grousing to her boss about the working conditions. [+ obj] Fans have groused that the higher prices are unfair.
– grous•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]grout /ˈgraʊt/ noun [noncount] technical : material used for filling spaces or cracks between tiles

[2]grout verb grouts; grout•ed; grout•ing [+ obj] technical : to fill the cracks in (something) with grout ▪ I need to grout the bathroom tiles.

grove /ˈgroʊv/ noun, pl groves [count] : a small group of trees ▪ a grove of oaks; especially : a group of trees that produce fruit or nuts ▪ an orange grove ▪ a pecan grove — sometimes used in street names ▪ Evans Grove ▪ Oak Grove

grov•el /ˈgrɑːvəl, ˈgrʌvəl/ verb grov•els; US grov•eled or Brit grov•elled; US grov•el•ing or Brit grov•el•ling [no obj]
1 : to kneel, lie, or crawl on the ground ▪ The peasants groveled before the king.
2 : to treat someone with too much respect or fear in a way that shows weakness in order to be forgiven or to gain approval or favor ▪ He had to grovel to get her to accept his apology. ▪ He made a groveling apology to his girlfriend.
– grov•el•er (US) or Brit grov•el•ler noun, pl -ers [count]

grow /ˈgroʊ/ verb grows; grew /ˈgruː/; grown /ˈgroʊn/; grow•ing
1 [no obj] : to become larger : to increase in size, amount, etc. ▪ The city is growing rapidly/dramatically. ▪ The list of chores to do this weekend keeps growing. — often + in ▪ The sport is growing in popularity. [=is becoming more popular] ▪ The school has grown (considerably/greatly) in size. ▪ His followers continue to grow in number. [=to become more numerous]
2 [no obj] : to become better or improved in some way : to become more developed, mature, etc. ▪ She grew intellectually and emotionally in her first year at college. ▪ It's wonderful to see how she has grown as a person since going to college.
3 [no obj] : to become larger and change from being a child to being an adult as time passes : to pass from childhood to adulthood ▪ It can be hard to watch our children change as they grow. ▪ He's still just a growing boy. ▪ She's grown (by) at least an inch since the last time I saw her.
4 a [no obj] of a plant : to exist and develop ▪ These trees grow only in the jungle. ▪ As the tree grew taller, the branches began to touch the house. ▪ This plant does well in difficult growing conditions. [=conditions in which it is difficult for most plants to grow] ▪ The flowers grow wild [=grow naturally without being planted or cared for by humans] along the highway. b [+ obj] : to cause (a plant) to grow : to cultivate or raise (a plant) ▪ She grows tomatoes in her garden. ▪ The plant is grown for its colorful flowers.
5 of hair, fingernails, etc. : to become longer [no obj] She's letting her hair grow a little. ▪ His fingernails grow quickly. [+ obj] She's growing her hair long. ▪ He tried to grow a beard/mustache. [=to have a beard/mustache by letting the hair on his face grow] — see also GROW OUT 1 (below)

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

6 a always followed by an adjective [linking verb] : BECOME ▪ He suddenly grew pale. ▪ He had grown tired of hearing about their problems. ▪ She grew fat due to her lack of exercise. ▪ He's worried about growing old. ▪ These diseases are growing more common. ▪ We have grown accustomed to his angry outbursts. b [no obj] : to have or form an opinion, attitude, etc., after time passes — followed by to + verb ▪ She's grown to like her new job. ▪ I grew to admire her very much. ▪ I grew to feel that these problems were not important. ▪ She grew to hate him for his selfishness.

7 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a business) to develop or get bigger ▪ These changes should allow us to grow the company while reducing waste. ▪ He claims that his proposals will help grow the economy.

grow apart [phrasal verb] : to become less friendly or emotionally close as time passes : to become distant from someone ▪ My wife and I have grown apart over the years.

grow from [phrasal verb] grow from (something) : to come from or originate from (something) ▪ The company grew from an idea he had in college.

grow into [phrasal verb] grow into (something) 1 : to become (something) as time passes ▪ She has grown into an accomplished and charming young woman. ▪ His small company has grown into a huge international corporation. 2 : to become large enough for (a certain size of clothing) ▪ Ben will grow into Billy's shoes in a year or two.

grow on [phrasal verb] grow on (someone) : to become more appealing to (someone) as time passes ▪ Try the dish again—it grows on you. ▪ I didn't like him at first, but he's starting to grow on me.

grow on trees informal : to exist in large amounts : to be easy to get ▪ Good jobs don't grow on trees. [=good jobs are hard to get] ▪ He acts as if money grows on trees.

grow out [phrasal verb] 1 *grow (something) out or grow out (something) : to allow (something) to get longer ▪ She's growing out her hair. — see also GROW 5 (above) 2 *grow out of (something) a : to develop or come from (a source) ▪ The project grew out of a simple suggestion. ▪ This new theory grew out of their earlier research. b : to become too large for (a certain size of clothing) ▪ He quickly grew out of his clothes. — see also OUTGROW c : to stop doing or having (something) because you are older and more mature ▪ She hoped to grow out of her bad habits. ▪ He's wild now, but he'll grow out of it.

grow up [phrasal verb] 1 a : to become an adult ▪ She wants to be a firefighter when she grows up. — used to describe where you lived, what you did, etc., when you were a child ▪ I grew up in the city. ▪ We grew up poor, but we always had food on the table. ▪ He grew up playing music. [=he played music when he was a child] b : to stop thinking and behaving in a childish way ▪ It's time for him to grow up and start accepting his responsibilities. ▪ Oh, grow up! — see also GROWN-UP 2 : to begin to exist and develop as time passes ▪ A number of villages and cities grew up along the river. ▪ A rivalry grew up between the villages.

– grow•er /ˈgrowɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ corn/fruit growers ▪ This plant is known as a fast grower. – growing adj, always used before a noun ▪ There is growing acceptance of the new plan. ▪ the growing popularity of this film ▪ There's a growing sense that he may be right.

growing pains noun [plural]
1 : pains in the legs of children who are growing
2 : the problems that are experienced as something (such as a business or a project) grows larger or more successful ▪ a young company/city dealing with growing pains

growing season noun, pl ~ -sons [count] : the period of the year that is warm enough for plants to grow

[1]growl /ˈgrawəl/ verb growls; growled; growl•ing
1 [no obj] a of an animal : to make a deep threatening sound ▪ I could hear a dog growling behind me. ▪ a growling dog — often + at ▪ The dog growled at me. b : to make a low sound like the sound of a growling animal ▪ My stomach's been growling all morning. ▪ The engine growled.
2 a [+ obj] : to say (something) in an angry way ▪ "What do you want?" he growled. b [no obj] : to complain in an angry way ▪ He's always growling about the government.

[2]growl noun, pl growls [count] : a deep sound made by an animal ▪ The dog gave a menacing growl.; also : a similar sound ▪ He answered my question with a growl. ▪ We could hear a growl of thunder in the distance.

– growly /ˈgraʊli/ adj grow•li•er; -est ▪ a growly voice

[1]grown past participle of GROW

[2]grown /ˈgroʊn/ adj, always used before a noun : no longer a child : ADULT ▪ It's a job that requires a grown man. ▪ She has two grown children [=two children who are now adults] from a previous marriage. — see also FULL-GROWN

[1]grown–up /ˈgroʊnˌʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : no longer young : fully grown ▪ Their children are all grown-up now. [=are adults now]
2 somewhat informal a : suitable for adults ▪ a grown-up movie/party ▪ This book is a little too grown-up for him. ▪ a young girl with grown-up tastes b : like an adult ▪ How grown-up you look! ▪ They're grown-up [=mature] enough to deal with the situation.

[2]grown–up noun, pl -ups [count] somewhat informal : a person who is fully grown : ADULT ▪ Her books appeal to both children and grown-ups.

growth /ˈgroʊθ/ noun, pl growths
1 [noncount] : the process of growing: such as a : natural increase in size ▪ He had a growth spurt when he was 16 years old. ▪ She's concerned that the medication might slow/stunt her child's growth. — often + of ▪ the growth of facial hair ▪ the growth of a crystal b : the process of forming or developing something ▪ He discovered a substance that promotes the growth of new blood vessels. c : an increase in the number, amount, or size of something ▪ The city has undergone explosive growth in recent years. ▪ rapid growth ▪ slow/steady growth ▪ the growth of civilization ▪ population/economic growth ▪ Children's books are a growth area [=an area of business that is becoming larger and more successful] in the publishing industry. ▪ Children's publishing is a growth industry. [=a business that is becoming larger and more successful] ▪ The company has limited growth potential. [=the company is not likely to grow much larger] d : the development of a person's mind, emotions, etc. ▪ He sees his college years as an opportunity for personal growth. ▪ emotional/intellectual growth
2 : a result or product of growing [noncount] It's important to prune the bush every year to encourage new growth. ▪ Their profits have averaged five percent growth in the last four years. [singular] The tree has an average annual growth of almost a foot. ▪ a thick growth of underbrush
3 [count] medical : an abnormal mass of tissue (such as a tumor) ▪ a cancerous growth

[1]grub /ˈgrʌb/ noun, pl grubs
1 [count] : the young form of an insect in which it looks like a small worm
2 [noncount] informal : FOOD 1 ▪ Let's go get some grub.

[2]grub verb grubs; grubbed; grub•bing [no obj]
1 : to dig in the ground for something that is difficult to find or remove ▪ animals grubbing for roots
2 informal : to search for something : to try hard to get or find something ▪ Everyone was grubbing for whatever food they could find. ▪ students grubbing for better grades — see also MONEY-GRUBBER, MONEY-GRUBBING grub•by /ˈgrʌbi/ adj grub•bi•er; -est informal : dirty or messy ▪ He lives in a grubby little apartment. ▪ grubby clothes ▪ Keep your grubby hands off me! [=do not touch me]

– grub•bi•ness /ˈgrʌbinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the grubbiness of his clothes

[1]grudge /ˈgrʌʤ/ noun, pl grudg•es [count] : a strong feeling of anger toward someone that lasts for a long time ▪ She still has/holds/bears a grudge against him for the way he treated her in school. ▪ He has nursed/harbored a grudge against his former boss for years. ▪ I don't bear him any grudges.
grudge match : a contest or fight between players, teams, etc., who dislike each other ▪ The race had turned into a grudge match between the two teams.

[2]grudge verb grudges; grudged; grudg•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give, do, or allow (something) in a reluctant or unwilling way : BEGRUDGE ▪ I don't grudge paying my share.
2 : to dislike or feel angry toward (someone) for something ▪ I don't grudge her the opportunities she has been given.

grudg•ing /ˈgrʌʤɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : said, done, or given in an unwilling or doubtful way ▪ Her theories have begun to win grudging acceptance in the scientific community. ▪ He has earned the grudging admiration/respect of his rivals.
– grudg•ing•ly adv ▪ Her theories have been grudgingly accepted. ▪ They grudgingly gave him permission.

gru•el /ˈgru:wəl/ noun [noncount] : a thin food made by boiling oatmeal or some other grain in water or milk ▪ a bowl of gruel

gru•el•ing (US) or Brit gru•el•ling /ˈgru:wəlɪŋ/ adj [more

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

~; most ~] : very difficult : requiring great effort ▪ a grueling race ▪ His schedule is grueling.

grue•some /ˈgru:səm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing horror or disgust ▪ The police report described the scene in gruesome detail. ▪ a gruesome murder
– grue•some•ly adv ▪ She was gruesomely murdered. – grue•some•ness noun [noncount]

gruff /ˈgrʌf/ adj gruff•er; gruff•est
1 : rough or very serious in manner or speech ▪ Don't be fooled by his gruff manner—he's really very kind. ▪ his gruff charm ▪ a gruff old man
2 of a voice : low and rough ▪ He spoke in a gruff voice.
– gruff•ly adv ▪ He answered their questions gruffly. – gruff•ness noun [noncount] ▪ Don't be fooled by his gruffness—he's really very kind.

grum•ble /ˈgrʌmbəl/ verb grum•bles; grum•bled; grum•bling
1 : to complain quietly about something : to talk in an unhappy way [no obj] There's been a lot of grumbling among the employees. ▪ Some of the customers have been grumbling about poor service. ▪ Fans grumbled about the team's poor play. [+ obj] "When are we going to leave?" he grumbled.
2 [no obj] : to make a low, heavy sound : RUMBLE ▪ His stomach was grumbling. ▪ We could hear thunder grumbling in the distance.
– grumble noun, pl grumbles [count] ▪ We could hear the grumble of thunder in the distance. – grum•bler /ˈgrʌmbələ/ noun, pl -blers [count] ▪ He tries to ignore the grumblers and just do his job. – grum•bling noun, pl -blings [count, noncount] ▪ Your grumbling needs to stop.

grump /ˈgrʌmp/ noun, pl grumps [count] informal : a person who is often angry or who often complains ▪ Our neighbor is an old grump.

grumpy /ˈgrʌmpi/ adj grump•i•er; -est informal : easily annoyed or angered : having a bad temper or complaining often ▪ Our neighbor is a grumpy old man. ▪ I was feeling grumpy after my long flight.
– grump•i•ly /ˈgrʌmpəli/ adv ▪ "Leave me alone," he said grumpily. – grump•i•ness /ˈgrʌmpinəs/ noun [noncount]

grunge /ˈgrʌnʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 : a type of loud rock music that was popular especially in the early 1990s ▪ I'm a fan of grunge. ▪ a grunge band; also : the fashions associated with this type of music ▪ the grunge look
2 US, informal : heavy dirt ▪ I cleared the grunge out of the drains.

grun•gy /ˈgrʌnʤi/ adj grun•gi•er; -est chiefly US, informal : [1]DIRTY ▪ After working in the garden all day, I felt sweaty and grungy. ▪ a grungy pair of jeans ▪ a grungy movie theater

[1]grunt /ˈgrʌnt/ noun, pl grunts [count]
1 : a short, low sound from the throat ▪ the grunt of a pig ▪ I could hear the grunts of the movers as they lifted the heavy furniture. ▪ He answered her with a grunt.
2 informal : a U.S. soldier especially in the Vietnam War ▪ He was a grunt who worked his way up to become an officer.
3 US, informal : a person who does ordinary and boring work ▪ He's just a grunt in the attorney's office. — often used in the phrase grunt work ▪ She resents having to do all the grunt work for her boss.

[2]grunt verb grunts; grunt•ed; grunt•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a short, low sound : to make a grunt ▪ The workers were grunting with effort as they lifted the heavy furniture. ▪ The pigs grunted. ▪ He grunted in agreement.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) with a grunt ▪ She grunted a few words in reply, then turned and walked away.

Gru•yère /gruˈjeə/ noun [noncount] : a type of hard cheese from Switzerland with a nutty flavor

gryphon variant spelling of GRIFFIN

G–string /ˈʤi:ˌstrɪŋ/ noun, pl G–strings [count] : a narrow strip of cloth that passes between the legs and is held up by a string around the waist

Gt. or Gt abbr, chiefly Brit great — used in place-names ▪ Gt. Britain

gua•ca•mo•le /ˌgwɑ:kəˈmoʊli/ noun [noncount] : a Mexican food made of mashed avocado usually mixed with chopped tomatoes and onion

gua•no /ˈgwɑ:noʊ/ noun [noncount] : waste material from birds and bats that is used to help plants grow

[1]guar•an•tee /ˌgerənˈti:/ noun, pl -tees [count]
1 : a usually written promise: such as a : a promise that the quality of something (such as a product that is being sold) will be as good as expected ▪ The washer comes with a guarantee against major defects. ▪ The software comes with a money-back guarantee. [=a promise that the money you spend on a product will be returned if the product is not good enough] b : a promise that something is true or real ▪ They wanted a guarantee that the document was authentic.
2 : a promise that something will happen or be done ▪ They want the new contract to include a guarantee of job security. ▪ The U.S. Constitution includes guarantees against unreasonable searches. ▪ He cited the First Amendment guarantee of free speech.
3 : a thing that makes something sure to happen or exist — often used in negative constructions ▪ There is no guarantee that they will approve the contract. [=there is no way to be sure that they will approve it] ▪ There's no guarantee they'll get here on time. ▪ She took the job even though there was no guarantee of permanent employment.
4 : something valuable that the owner will allow to be taken if a promise is not kept or a loan is not paid back ▪ We used our house as a guarantee for the loan. [=we said that the bank could take our house if we did not pay back the loan]

[2]guarantee verb -tees; -teed; -tee•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make a usually written promise that whatever you are selling, doing, etc., is what you say it is ▪ The washer is guaranteed against defects for one year. ▪ They guarantee that the diamonds they sell are top quality. b : to promise to pay for (something) if another person fails to pay for it ▪ He offered to personally guarantee the loan. ▪ The investment was guaranteed by the bank.
2 a : to say (something) with great confidence ▪ I guarantee that you'll be satisfied. ▪ He guaranteed us that everything would go according to plan. b : to make (something) certain ▪ We can't guarantee your safety. = We can't guarantee (you) that you'll be safe. ▪ Money doesn't guarantee a happy life. c : to say that (something) will certainly happen ▪ He guaranteed a victory in the championship game.

guar•an•teed adj
1 : protected or promised by a guarantee ▪ a guaranteed annual wage ▪ a guaranteed annuity
2 : certain to happen or to do something — followed by to + verb ▪ If we don't take an umbrella, it's guaranteed to rain. [=it will certainly rain] ▪ He's guaranteed to reject my ideas.

guar•an•tor /ˌgerənˈtoə/ noun, pl -tors [count] finance : a person who promises to pay back a loan if the original borrower does not pay it back

guar•an•ty /ˈgerənti/ noun, pl -ties [count]
1 law : a formal promise to pay a debt ▪ a loan guaranty [=guarantee] — often used in the names of financial companies ▪ He worked for the Morgan Guaranty Trust Company.
2 : something that protects or maintains the existence of something else ▪ the guaranty [=guarantee] of free speech

[1]guard /ˈgɑəd/ noun, pl guards
1 [noncount] : a state in which someone is carefully looking for possible danger, threats, problems, etc. ▪ There were dozens of police officers standing/keeping guard along the parade route. ▪ Several soldiers were on guard [=watching and ready to respond if needed] at the gate. ▪ The soldiers were on their guard. [=they were watching and ready to respond] ▪ We need to be on guard against attack. [=we need to be alert so we are not attacked; we should be prepared to be attacked] ▪ He always has/keeps his guard up [=is careful and alert] during negotiations. ▪ She never lets down her guard. = She never lets her guard down. [=she never relaxes and stops being careful and alert]
2 a [count] : a person whose job or duty is to watch and protect someone or something ▪ There were several (armed) guards stationed at the gate. ▪ (US) a prison guard [=someone who watches prisoners to prevent their escape] — see also SECURITY GUARD b [count] : a group of people (such as soldiers) who protect a person or place ▪ the palace guard ▪ Tourists gather every day to watch the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace. c the Guards : soldiers who protect a king or queen ▪ the Royal Horse Guards — see also COLOR GUARD, HONOR GUARD, OLD GUARD, REARGUARD
3 [count] a : something that keeps an unwanted result or effect from happening — often + against ▪ The wound should be thoroughly cleaned as a guard against infection. — see also SAFEGUARD b : a special part or device that protects someone or something from injury or damage ▪ The guard must be in place before operating the meat slicer. ▪ a mouth/shin guard
4 [count] a American football : either one of two players

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

who play in positions on either side of the center b basketball : either one of two players who usually play away from the basket and control their team's play when they are trying to score points — see also POINT GUARD

5 [count] Brit : CONDUCTOR 2

off guard : in an unprepared state : not ready ▪ They've been bluffing, trying to keep him off guard. ▪ Her angry response caught me off guard. [=surprised me] ▪ We were thrown off guard [=surprised] by their early arrival.

under guard : in the position of someone (such as a prisoner) who is being watched by a guard ▪ He was arrested and placed under guard. [=he was arrested and watched carefully so he would not escape]

[2]guard verb guards; guard•ed; guard•ing [+ obj]

1 : to watch (someone) in order to prevent escape ▪ Two policemen were assigned to guard the prisoner.

2 : to protect (someone or something) from danger or attack ▪ soldiers guarding the president ▪ A tank guarded the bridge from/against enemy attack. ▪ A police officer was stationed outside to guard the door/entrance.

3 : to be careful about not telling or talking about (something, such as a secret) ▪ They jealously guard their secrets. ▪ He guards his privacy. ▪ Her whereabouts are a tightly/closely guarded secret.

4 sports : to try to keep (an opponent) from scoring (especially in basketball) ▪ He was assigned to guard their best player.

guard against [phrasal verb] guard against (something) : to try to keep (something) from happening ▪ Clean the wound to guard against infection. ▪ That's the sort of thinking we have to guard against. ▪ We need to guard against waste.

guard dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] : a dog that is trained to protect a place : WATCHDOG guarded /ˈgɑɚdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very careful about giving information, showing feelings, etc. ▪ They're being very guarded about their plans. [=they are not saying much about their plans] ▪ a guarded answer ▪ guarded [=cautious] optimism

– guard•ed•ly adv ▪ guardedly optimistic guard•house /ˈgɑɚdˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building for soldiers who are watching something (such as an entrance)

guard•i•an /ˈgɑɚdijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]

1 : someone or something that watches or protects something — often + of ▪ The historical society sees itself as the guardian of the town's traditions. ▪ a usage criticized by people who consider themselves guardians of proper English

2 law : someone who takes care of another person or of another person's property ▪ After the death of her parents, her uncle was appointed as her legal guardian.

– guard•i•an•ship /ˈgɑɚdijənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] ▪ their guardianship of the town's traditions ▪ The court granted guardianship to her uncle.

guardian angel noun, pl ~ -gels [count]

1 : an angel believed to watch and protect someone

2 : a helpful or protective person ▪ He has become a guardian angel for struggling young artists.

guard•rail /ˈgɑɚdˌreɪl/ noun, pl -rails [count]

1 US : a strong metal bar along the side of a road that prevents vehicles from driving off the road — called also (Brit) crash barrier

2 : a strong bar or fence that prevents people from falling off a deck, bridge, etc.

guards•man /ˈgɑɚdzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : a U.S. soldier in the National Guard or the Coast Guard ▪ Guardsmen were deployed to the region.

2 : a British soldier in the Guards guard's van noun, pl ~ vans [count] Brit : CABOOSE

gua•va /ˈgwɑːvə/ noun, pl -vas

1 [count, noncount] : the sweet yellow fruit of a tropical American tree

2 [count] : a tree that produces guavas

gu•ber•na•to•ri•al /ˌguːbərnəˈtorijəl/ adj : of or relating to the governor of a U.S. state or to the position of governor ▪ a gubernatorial candidate ▪ the gubernatorial campaign/election

guer•ril•la also gue•ril•la /gəˈrɪlə/ noun, pl -las [count] : a member of a usually small group of soldiers who do not belong to a regular army and who fight in a war as an independent unit ▪ The guerrillas controlled half the country. — often used before another noun ▪ guerrilla warfare/raids/attacks

[1]guess /ˈgɛs/ verb guess•es; guessed; guess•ing

1 a : to form an opinion or give an answer about something when you do not know much or anything about it [+ obj] Can you guess how many people were there? ▪ He guessed that it would rain today. ▪ It was colder and windier than I had guessed it would be. ▪ She can only guess what he meant. ▪ I'm guessing that she won't come. [=I don't think she'll come] ▪ I never would have guessed [=I am very surprised] that you could be so selfish. [no obj] I had to choose one, and I guessed right/wrong. ▪ If you can't think of an answer, guess. ▪ "I just heard why he left her." "Let me guess—another woman." ▪ As you might have guessed, her parents are not happy about her decision. ▪ We can only guess at what really happened. ✧ Guess is used in phrases like guess what or guess who as an informal way of indicating that you have surprising news. ▪ "Guess what!" "What?" "I bought a new car." ▪ "Guess who I saw yesterday!" "Who?" "My old boyfriend from high school." ▪ Guess where I'm going on my vacation! ▪ You'll never guess what happened to me today. [=you will be surprised by what happened to me today] b [+ obj] : to guess (something) correctly : to make a correct conclusion about (someone or something) by chance ▪ She guessed my age on her first try. ▪ It took us a while to guess the answer to the riddle. ✧ The phrase you guessed it is used as an informal way of saying that what follows is just what you would expect. ▪ We had lunch at Smith's Café, which is owned by, you guessed it, John Smith.

2 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to suppose or think (something) — usually used following the pronoun I ▪ I guess you're right. ▪ I guess this means that we can't go. ▪ What saved her, I guess [=I imagine], was her quick wit. ▪ I guess you could say that it was all his fault. ✧ In responding to a question, the phrase I guess (so) is used as an informal way of agreeing or saying "yes" when you are not certain or not very excited or interested. ▪ "Are you hungry?" "I guess." ▪ "This one looks better, doesn't it?" "I guess so." ✧ The phrase I guess not is used as an informal way of agreeing with a negative statement or of saying "no." ▪ "That wasn't a very smart thing to do, was it?" "I guess not." — see also SECOND-GUESS keep (someone) guessing or chiefly US leave (someone) guessing : to make it impossible for someone to know what will happen next ▪ The many twists and turns in the plot will keep readers guessing until the last page. ▪ He likes to leave us guessing about his plans.

– guess•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a lucky guesser

[2]guess noun, pl guesses [count] : an attempt to give an opinion or answer about something when you do not know much about it or are not sure about it ▪ I'm not sure how old he is, but I'm willing to hazard/venture a guess. ▪ My guess is that he'll change his story when he realizes how much trouble he's in. ▪ There might be about 20 people there, but that's just a (rough) guess. ▪ If you don't know the answer, make a guess. = (US) If you don't know the answer, take a guess. = (chiefly Brit) If you don't know the answer, have a guess. ▪ "How many people will be there?" "I don't know. Your guess is as good as mine." [=I don't know any more than you do] ▪ "I have no idea how many peanuts are in the jar." "Take a wild guess." [=a guess based on no knowledge or information] ✧ An educated/informed guess is a guess that is probably close to being correct because it is based on some amount of knowledge. ▪ Forecasters will be making an educated guess about the demand for electricity this summer.

anybody's/anyone's guess ✧ Something that is anybody's/anyone's guess is something that is very uncertain or that no one knows. ▪ What causes these changes is anybody's guess. [=no one knows what causes these changes] ▪ It's anyone's guess what his next book will be about.

guessing game noun, pl ~ games [count] : a game in which the player has to correctly guess the answer — often used figuratively ▪ Making a diagnosis in such cases can be a real guessing game. ▪ Reporters continue to play a guessing game as they wait to hear her final decision. [=they continue to guess about what her final decision will be]

guess•ti•mate /ˈgɛstəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] informal : to make a quick estimate of (something) ▪ He used a simple formula to guesstimate the amount of material he would need for the job.

– guess•ti•mate /ˈgɛstəmət/ noun, pl -mates [count] ▪ He made a guesstimate of how much material he needed.

guess•work /ˈgɛsˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of finding an answer by guessing ▪ This book takes the guesswork out of buying a home. [=it gives you the information you need so that you can be sure about what to do] ▪ Calculating the drug's long-term effects is pure guesswork.

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

guest /ˈgɛst/ noun, pl guests [count]
1 : a person who is invited to visit or stay in someone's home ▪ Our guests should be arriving soon. ▪ a dinner/party guest ▪ an overnight guest
2 : a person who is invited to a place or an event as a special honor ▪ Only invited guests are allowed inside the banquet hall. ▪ He played at the country club as a guest of one of the members. ▪ She will be the guest of honor [=the person who is being specially honored] at the annual banquet. ▪ He was the guest speaker [=a person invited to a gathering to give a speech] at the awards ceremony. ▪ The guest list [=the list of people who are being invited] for the party is getting long.
3 : a customer at a hotel, restaurant, etc. ▪ Our guests receive the finest quality service. ▪ Frequent guests receive a discount. ▪ Paying guests [=guests who have paid to stay in or use something] may use the fitness room.
4 : a usually well-known person who is invited to appear or perform on a program, at an event, etc. ▪ They frequently appeared as guests on TV talk shows. ▪ a celebrity guest — often used before another noun ▪ a guest star ▪ He made several guest appearances/shots on the series.
be my guest — used in speech to say that someone is welcome to do or take something ▪ "Could I borrow your pen?" "Sure, be my guest."

guest book noun, pl ~ books [count] : a book of blank pages in which guests at an event (such as a wedding or funeral) or a place (such as an art gallery) sign their names guest•house /ˈgɛstˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count]

1 chiefly US : a building that is separate from the main house of a property and that is used for guests ▪ The estate includes a small guesthouse.
2 chiefly Brit : a small hotel; also : a private house that accepts paying guests guest room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a bedroom for guests — called also guest bedroom

guest worker noun, pl ~ -kers [count] : a person from one country who lives and works for a time in another country

guff /ˈgʌf/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : foolish nonsense ▪ His latest book has a lot of guff about conspiracies of one kind or another.
2 chiefly US : annoying or playful criticism ▪ His friends have given him a lot of guff about his hair. ▪ She doesn't take guff from anybody.

guf•faw /gəˈfɑ:/ verb -faws; -fawed; -faw•ing [no obj] : to laugh loudly ▪ The reporters were guffawing at all his jokes.
– guffaw noun, pl -faws [count] ▪ Her remark sparked guffaws around the room. ▪ He let out a loud guffaw.

GUI abbr graphical user interface

guid•ance /ˈgaɪdns/ noun [noncount]
1 : help or advice that tells you what to do : the act or process of guiding someone or something ▪ I couldn't have done it without her guidance. ▪ We need more guidance on how to handle these unusual cases. ▪ expert guidance ▪ moral/spiritual guidance
2 : the process of controlling the flight of something (such as a missile) ▪ There are problems with the missile's guidance (system).

guidance counselor noun, pl ~ -lors [count] US : a person who gives help and advice to students about educational and personal decisions

[1]guide /ˈgaɪd/ noun, pl guides [count]
1 a : a person who leads or directs other people on a journey ▪ We hired a guide for our trip to the mountains. ▪ a river guide b : a person who shows and explains the interesting things in a place ▪ a museum guide ▪ a tour guide
2 : a person who helps to direct another person's behavior, life, career, etc. ▪ He was my friend and my guide in the early years of my career.
3 : something that helps to direct a person's actions, thoughts, etc. ▪ They used the stars as a guide to find their way back. ▪ If past experience is any guide, we're in for a long and difficult project. ▪ Let your conscience be your guide. [=do what your conscience says is right]
4 : a book, magazine, etc., that provides information about a particular subject ▪ a street guide ▪ The book is intended to be a guide for new parents. ▪ a dining/restaurant guide — often + to ▪ a guide to teenage slang ▪ I bought him a guide to Poland. — see also FIELD GUIDE
5 Guide Brit : GIRL GUIDE

[2]guide verb guides; guid•ed; guid•ing [+ obj]
1 : to direct or lead (someone) ▪ She guided them outside. ▪ He guided us around the city. — often + through or to ▪ Staff members are available to guide visitors through the exhibits. ▪ We were guided to our seats by an usher. ▪ You'll need an experienced lawyer to guide you through the legal system.
2 a : to direct or control the path or course of (something) ▪ He claims that there were unknown forces guiding the outcome of the election. ▪ He carefully guided the ship into the harbor. ▪ She guided her team to victory. b : to direct or influence the thoughts or behavior of (someone) ▪ Let your conscience guide you. ▪ Her example helped to guide me toward a career in medicine. ▪ In his work, he has always been guided by a desire to help other people. ▪ programs to help guide teenagers away from drug use ▪ She had a guiding influence on my decision. ▪ His guiding principle when he built his house was that bigger was better.

guide•book /ˈgaɪdˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book of information for travelers

guided adj : led by a guide ▪ a guided tour of the factory guided missile noun, pl ~ -siles [count] : a missile whose course may be changed during flight guide dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] : a dog that is specially trained to lead and help blind people guide•line /ˈgaɪdˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : a rule or instruction that shows or tells how something should be done — usually plural ▪ The government has issued new guidelines for following a healthy and balanced diet. ▪ calling for stricter guidelines ▪ Here are some basic guidelines for helping you choose a dishwasher.

guide•post /ˈgaɪdˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] chiefly US : a post next to a trail or road that has a sign on it with directions for travelers ▪ The guidepost said that the camp was to the left. — often used figuratively ▪ There are few guideposts to help young parents. ▪ guideposts for raising children guide word noun, pl ~ words [count] : either one of the words that are at the top of a page in a dictionary or similar book and that show the first and last words on the page guild /ˈgɪld/ noun, pl guilds [count] : an organized group of people who have joined together because they share the same job or interest ▪ the local artists' guild; especially : an association of people who made or sold goods in the Middle Ages

guil•der /ˈgɪldɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a basic unit of money that was formerly used in the Netherlands; also : a coin or bill representing one guilder — called also gulden

guile /ˈgajəl/ noun [noncount] : the use of clever and usually dishonest methods to achieve something ▪ When they couldn't win by honest means, they resorted to guile. [=duplicity]

guile•less /ˈgajəlləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very innocent : NAIVE ▪ a guileless person/smile

[1]guil•lo•tine /ˈgɪləˌti:n/ noun, pl -tines [count] : a machine with a heavy blade that was used in the past to cut off the heads of people who had been sentenced to death

[2]guillotine verb -tines; -tined; -tin•ing [+ obj] : to cut off the head of (someone) with a machine that drops a heavy blade on the person's neck : to kill (someone) with a guillotine — usually used as (be) guillotined ▪ people guillotined during the French Revolution

guilt /ˈgɪlt/ noun, pl guilts
1 [noncount] : responsibility for a crime or for doing something bad or wrong ▪ The jury determines the defendant's guilt or innocence. ▪ an admission of guilt ▪ His guilt in the matter was indisputable. ▪ It was clear that the guilt lay with him. — opposite INNOCENCE
2 : a bad feeling caused by knowing or thinking that you have done something bad or wrong [noncount] I was overwhelmed by feelings of guilt. [=shame] ▪ a strong sense of guilt ▪ She feels guilt over something that happened before she was born! ▪ guilt-ridden people [=people who feel a lot of guilt] [count] our secret guilts and insecurities – guilt•less /ˈgɪltləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He's not entirely to blame, but he's not guiltless [=innocent], either. ▪ a guiltless pleasure [=a pleasure that does not make you feel guilty] guilt trip noun, pl ~ trips [count] informal : a feeling of guilt that you get when someone suggests that you have done something wrong or that you are not doing something that you should ▪ "I guess you're just too busy to call." "I don't need the guilt trip, Mom. If you want me to call more often, just say so." ▪ The speaker laid/put a (big) guilt trip on us [=tried to make us feel bad or sorry] by describing in detail how much waste the average American generates.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

guilty /ˈgɪlti/ adj guilt•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : responsible for committing a crime or doing something bad or wrong ▪ Do you think he's innocent or guilty? ▪ Will the defendant plead guilty or not guilty? ▪ Police have not been able to identify the guilty party. [=the person who committed the crime] ▪ The state will prove that the defendants are guilty as charged. [=that they committed the crime they are accused of committing] ▪ (informal) They're (as) guilty as sin. [=completely/very guilty] — often + of ▪ The jury found her guilty of manslaughter. ▪ The only thing I'm guilty of is bad taste. — sometimes used informally in a joking way ▪ "Did you plan this party?" "Guilty as charged." [=yes, I did] — opposite INNOCENT
2 a : showing that you know you have done something bad or wrong ▪ The children exchanged guilty looks. ▪ He was acting like someone with a guilty conscience. b : feeling bad because you have done something bad or wrong or because you believe you have done something bad or wrong ▪ There's no need to feel guilty about it. ▪ Chocolate is one of my guilty pleasures. [=something that I enjoy even though eating it causes feelings of guilt]
– guilt•i•ly /ˈgɪltəli/ adv ▪ She hung her head guiltily.

guin•ea /ˈgɪni/ noun, pl -eas [count] : an old British coin worth 21 shillings guinea fowl noun, pl ~ fowl or ~ fowls [count] : a gray-and-white spotted bird that is commonly raised for food guinea hen noun, pl ~ hens [count] : a female guinea fowl

guinea pig noun, pl ~ pigs [count]
1 : a small animal that is often kept as a pet — see picture at RODENT
2 : a person or thing used for testing something ▪ He volunteered to act as a guinea pig in the experiment.

guise /ˈgaɪz/ noun, pl guis•es
1 [count] : one of several or many different ways in which something is seen, experienced, or produced ▪ They serve the same basic dish in various guises. [=forms]
2 [singular] : a way of seeming or looking that is not true or real ▪ She swindles people under the guise of friendship. [=by pretending to be their friend] ▪ a story about a demon in the guise of an angel [=a demon disguised as an angel; a demon made to look like an angel]

gui•tar /gɪˈtɑɚ/ noun, pl -tars [count] : a musical instrument that is held against the front of your body and that has usually six strings which are played with your fingers or with a pick ▪ an acoustic/electric guitar ▪ I'm learning to play the guitar. = (US) I'm learning to play guitar. ▪ a guitar player — see picture at STRINGED INSTRUMENT
– gui•tar•ist /gɪˈtɑrɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ She's a very talented guitarist.

gulch /ˈgʌlʧ/ noun, pl gulch•es [count] chiefly US : a small, narrow valley with steep sides : RAVINE gul•den /ˈgu:ldən/ noun, pl gul•dens or gulden [count] : GUILDER

gulf /ˈgʌlf/ noun, pl gulfs [count]
1 : a large area of ocean that is partly surrounded by land — often used in proper names ▪ the Gulf of Mexico ▪ the Persian Gulf — often used before another noun ▪ They have a home on the Gulf Coast. [=the coast of the Gulf of Mexico] ▪ the (Persian) Gulf region ▪ the Gulf states [=the U.S. states next to the Gulf of Mexico or the countries next to the Persian Gulf]
2 : a difference between two people, groups, or things — often + between ▪ The report examines the (widening) gulf [=gap, divide] between the state's rich and poor schools. ▪ The program is intended to help bridge the gulf between younger and older generations.

Gulf War syndrome noun [noncount] : a group of medical problems experienced by people who fought in the war in the Persian Gulf in 1991

[1]gull /ˈgʌl/ noun, pl gulls [count] : a large, common, usually gray and white bird that lives near the ocean : SEAGULL

[2]gull verb gulls; gulled; gull•ing [+ obj] old-fashioned : to fool or trick (someone) ▪ I was gulled [=deceived] by their false promises of easy money.

gul•let /ˈgʌlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : the tube that leads from the mouth through the throat to the stomach : ESOPHAGUS ▪ the fish's gullet

gull•ible /ˈgʌləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easily fooled or cheated; especially : quick to believe something that is not true ▪ I'm not gullible enough to believe something that outrageous. ▪ They sell overpriced souvenirs to gullible tourists.
– gull•ibil•i•ty /ˌgʌləˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – gull•ibly /ˈgʌləbli/ adv

gul•ly also gul•ley /ˈgʌli/ noun, pl -lies also -leys [count] : a long, narrow cut or low area in the ground that water moves through when it rains

gulp /ˈgʌlp/ verb gulps; gulped; gulp•ing
1 [+ obj] : to eat or swallow (something) quickly or in large amounts ▪ She told him not to gulp his food. — often + down ▪ Don't gulp down your dinner like that. ▪ They gulped down a couple of beers and left.
2 : to take (air) into your lungs quickly [+ obj] The exhausted racers lay on the ground, gulping air. [no obj] The exhausted racers were gulping for air.
3 : to swallow because of strong emotion (such as fear or shock) [no obj] I gulped nervously before beginning my speech. [+ obj] "That's a lot of money," she gulped. ▪ He gulped back tears as he thanked the rescuers.
– gulp noun, pl gulps [count] ▪ He ate it in one gulp. ▪ We gobbled up the cookies between gulps of coffee. ▪ She took several gulps of air. – gulp•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ coffee gulpers

[1]gum /ˈgʌm/ noun, pl gums [count] : the flesh that surrounds the roots of your teeth — usually plural ▪ The dentist said my gums are swollen/inflamed. — see picture at MOUTH — compare [3]GUM

[2]gum verb gums; gummed; gum•ming [+ obj] US : to chew (something) with the gums because you do not have teeth ▪ The baby gummed her food. — compare [4]GUM

[3]gum noun, pl gums
1 a [noncount] : CHEWING GUM ▪ a stick/piece of gum ▪ a pack of gum — see also BUBBLE GUM b [count] Brit : GUMDROP ▪ fruit gums
2 [count, noncount] : a sticky substance in some kinds of plants that is hard when it dries by gum informal + old-fashioned — used to show that you are surprised or determined ▪ I looked it up, and by gum, she was right! ▪ By gum, I really mean it this time!
– compare [1]GUM

[4]gum verb gums; gummed; gumming gum up [phrasal verb] gum (something) up or gum up (something) informal : to prevent (something) from working or flowing properly ▪ Don't use that paper with the copier; you'll gum it up. ▪ The highway construction has really gummed up traffic. ▪ The bearings are all gummed up [=clogged up] with mud. — often used in phrase gum up the works ▪ Some dirt got inside the gears and gummed up the works. ▪ The new regulations have really gummed up the works in the office.
– compare [2]GUM

gum•bo /ˈgʌmboʊ/ noun, pl -bos [count, noncount] : a thick soup made in the southern U.S. with meat or seafood and usually okra ▪ a bowl of real Cajun gumbo — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a cultural gumbo [=a mixture of cultures]

gum•drop /ˈgʌmˌdrɑ:p/ noun, pl -drops [count] US : a sweet, chewy candy — called also (Brit) gum gum•my /ˈgʌmi/ adj gum•mi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : made of, containing, or covered with gum or a sticky or chewy substance ▪ gummy candy ▪ How did you get your hands so gummy? ▪ a gummy [=sticky] substance – gum•mi•ness noun [noncount]

gump•tion /ˈgʌmpʃən/ noun [noncount] informal : courage and confidence ▪ It took a lot of gumption to speak up for yourself like that.

gum•shoe /ˈgʌmˌʃu:/ noun, pl -shoes [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a person whose job is to find information about someone or something : a private detective — used especially to imitate the language of old detective novels ▪ The movie's main character is a hard-boiled gumshoe.

gum tree noun
up a gum tree Brit, informal : in a very difficult situation that you cannot get out of ▪ If they don't deliver the parts we need, we'll really be up a gum tree! [=up the creek]

[1]gun /ˈgʌn/ noun, pl guns [count]
1 : a weapon that shoots bullets or shells ▪ big/heavy guns ▪ He pulled/drew a gun on us. [=he took out a gun and pointed it at us] ▪ a loaded gun [=a gun that has bullets in it] ▪ fire/shoot a gun ▪ carry a gun ▪ a gun battle between gang members and the police ▪ She claimed that the gun went off acci-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

dentally. ▪ a toy gun — see also AIR GUN, BB GUN, HANDGUN, MACHINE GUN, SHOTGUN, STUN GUN, SUBMACHINE GUN

2 : STARTING GUN

3 : a tool or device that looks like a gun ▪ a grease/spray/radar gun

– see also BIG GUN, HIRED GUN, SMOKING GUN, TOP GUN, WATER GUN, YOUNG GUN

go great guns informal : to do something or proceed in a very quick, effective, and successful way ▪ The new program has been going great guns since it began last spring.

hold/put a gun to someone's head : to force someone to do something by using threats ▪ You don't have to go if you don't want to. No one's holding a gun to your head.

jump the gun informal : to start or do something too soon ▪ Several racers jumped the gun. [=started to race before the starting gun was fired] ▪ The newspaper jumped the gun [=acted too soon] and announced the wrong candidate as winner of the election.

stick to your guns : to continue to have a particular opinion, plan, etc., when other people criticize you and say that you are wrong ▪ Despite criticism from the press, the governor is sticking to her guns on this issue.

under the gun chiefly US : in a situation in which you are getting a lot of criticism or pressure or in which you have only a short amount of time to do something ▪ We were under the gun to finish the project on time. ▪ Those responsible for the error suddenly found themselves under the gun.

with (all/both) guns blazing : while firing guns ▪ They stepped out from behind the building with guns blazing. — often used figuratively ▪ The team came out with all guns blazing in the second half. [=the team was playing very forcefully and well]

[2]gun verb guns; gunned; gun•ning [+ obj] informal

1 US : to cause (a car or a car's engine) to go very fast by pressing the accelerator ▪ She let the car coast down the hill, then gunned it. ▪ He gunned the engine.

2 US : to throw (something) very hard ▪ The shortstop gunned the ball to first base.

gun down [phrasal verb] gun down (someone) or gun (someone) down : to shoot (someone) with a gun ▪ He was gunned down in the street.

gun for [phrasal verb] 1 gun for (something) : to try to get or achieve (something) in a very determined way ▪ The team is gunning for its third straight championship this year. ▪ That guy is gunning for my job. 2 gun for (someone) : to try to hurt or defeat (someone) ▪ Her political enemies will be gunning for her if she runs for reelection.

gun•boat /ˈgʌnˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a small ship with guns gunboat diplomacy : the threat to use military force against a country as a way of forcing the country to do something gun control noun [noncount] : laws that control how guns are sold and used and who can own them gun dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] Brit : BIRD DOG gun• ght /ˈgʌnˌfaɪt/ noun, pl - ghts [count] : a fight in which people shoot guns at each other ▪ There was a gunfight between the rival gangs.

– gun• ght •er /ˈgʌnˌfaɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

gun• re /ˈgʌnˌfajə/ noun [noncount] : the firing of guns ▪ We heard gunfire in the distance. ▪ There was (an exchange of) gunfire between the gangs. [=they shot guns at each other] gunge /ˈgʌnʤ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : [1]GUNK ▪ The old windows were covered in gunge.

– gun•gy /ˈgʌnʤi/ adj gun•gi•er; -est

gung ho /ˈgʌŋˈhoʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] sometimes disapproving : extremely excited and enthusiastic about doing something ▪ We were really gung ho about joining the team. ▪ gung ho recruits

[1]gunk /ˈgʌŋk/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : material that is dirty, sticky, or greasy ▪ The engine was all full of gunk. ▪ I need to wipe this gunk off my hands.

– gunky /ˈgʌŋki/ adj gunk•i•er; -est ▪ Your hands are all gunky! ▪ a gunky residue

[2]gunk verb gunks; gunked; gunk•ing

gunk up [phrasal verb] gunk up (something) or gunk (something) up US, informal : to cause (something) to be dirty, sticky, or greasy ▪ Don't gunk up your hair with a lot of styling products. ▪ The mechanism gets gunked up if you don't clean it regularly.

gun•man /ˈgʌnmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who uses a gun to shoot someone or to try to shoot someone ▪ They were shot by an unknown gunman.

gun moll noun, pl ~ molls [count] chiefly US, old-fashioned : MOLL gun•ner /ˈgʌnə/ noun, pl -ners [count]

1 : a soldier who operates a large gun

2 Brit : a soldier in the British artillery gun•nery /ˈgʌnəri/ noun [noncount] : the use of large military guns or the study of how such guns can be used effectively — often used before another noun ▪ gunnery practice ▪ a gunnery range gun•ny•sack /ˈgʌniˌsæk/ noun, pl -sacks [count] US : a large bag made of rough, heavy cloth (such as burlap)

gun•point /ˈgʌnˌpoɪnt/ noun

at gunpoint — used to describe a situation in which someone is being threatened by a person with a gun ▪ They forced us out of the car at gunpoint. ▪ They were robbed/held at gunpoint.

gun•pow•der /ˈgʌnˌpaʊdə/ noun [noncount] : a dry explosive substance that is used in guns and to break open sections of rock or earth for mining, building roads, etc.

gun•ship /ˈgʌnˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] : a military aircraft with rockets and machine guns ▪ a helicopter gunship

gun•shot /ˈgʌnˌʃɑːt/ noun, pl -shots

1 : bullets fired from a gun [noncount] death/murder by gunshot [count] He was killed by a gunshot to the head. — often used before another noun ▪ gunshot wounds/victims

2 [count] : the firing of a gun ▪ We heard several gunshots.

3 [noncount] : the distance that a bullet fired from a gun can travel — usually used in the phrase within gunshot ▪ The target was within gunshot (range).

gun•sling•er /ˈgʌnˌslɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone (such as a character in a story, movie, or television show) who is known for being able to handle and shoot a gun extremely well ▪ a gunslinger in the Wild West

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

gun•smith /'gʌnˌsmɪθ/ noun, pl -smiths [count] : a person who designs, makes, or repairs guns gun•wale /'gʌnl/ noun, pl -wales [count] : the upper edge of a ship's or boat's side — see picture at BOAT to the gunwales informal + old-fashioned : as full as possible ▪ The car was loaded to the gunwales with gifts.

gup•py /'gʌpi/ noun, pl -pies [count] : a small tropical fish

gur•gle /'gəgəl/ verb gur•gles; gur•gled; gur•gling [no obj]

1 : to make the quiet sound of water moving over rocks, through a pipe, etc. ▪ Nearby a stream was gurgling. [=burbling, bubbling] ▪ The water gurgled through the pipes.

2 : to make a sound like a liquid boiling or bubbling ▪ I was so hungry that you could hear my stomach gurgling.

3 of a baby : to make happy and quiet sounds ▪ The baby gurgled contentedly.

– gurgle noun, pl gurgles [noncount] the gurgle of running water [count] You could hear the creaks and gurgles of the pipes. ▪ the gurgles of the baby

gur•ney /'gəni/ noun, pl -neys [count] US : a bed on a frame with wheels that is used for moving people who are sick or injured ▪ a hospital gurney

gurney

gu•ru /'guru/ noun, pl -rus [count]

1 : a religious teacher and spiritual guide in Hinduism

2 a : a teacher or guide that you trust ▪ He has been a guru to many young writers. b : a person who has a lot of experience in or knowledge about a particular subject ▪ She's a self-proclaimed financial guru. ▪ Fitness gurus call it the hottest new exercise trend of the year.

[1]gush /'gʌʃ/ verb gush•es; gushed; gush•ing

1 a [no obj] : to flow out very quickly and in large amounts ▪ Oil gushed from the well. ▪ Blood gushed from the wound. b [+ obj] : to produce a large amount of (a quickly flowing liquid) ▪ The well gushed oil.

2 often disapproving a [no obj] : to speak in an extremely enthusiastic way ▪ I'm tired of hearing her gush about her boyfriend. ▪ Everyone has been gushing over/about the baby. b [+ obj] : to say (something) in an extremely enthusiastic way ▪ "Oh, your baby is so cute!" they gushed.

[2]gush noun, pl gushes [count] : a sudden outward flow of a large amount of liquid ▪ A gush of oil came out of the well. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sudden gush of emotion

gush•er /'gʌʃɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone or something that gushes; especially : an oil well that produces a large and forceful flow of oil

gushy /'gʌʃi/ adj gush•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal + usually disapproving : very emotional or enthusiastic ▪ gushy praise

gus•set /'gʌsət/ noun, pl -sets [count] : a piece of cloth usually in the shape of a triangle that is sewn into something (such as the underneath part of a sleeve) to make it wider or stronger

gus•sy /'gʌsi/ verb gus•sies; gus•sied; gus•sy•ing

gussy up [phrasal verb] gussy (someone or something) up or gussy up (someone or something) US, informal 1 : to put fancy clothes, jewelry, etc., on (someone) — usually used as (be) gussied up ▪ She was all gussied up [=dressed up] for the party. 2 : to make (something) more attractive, impressive, or fancy ▪ The streets were gussied up with lights and garlands for the festival. ▪ I made a basic tomato soup and then added fresh herbs to gussy it up.

[1]gust /'gʌst/ noun, pl gusts [count] : a sudden strong wind ▪ His hat was blown off by a sudden gust (of wind). ▪ Today's weather will be windy, with gusts of up to 40 miles per hour. — often used figuratively ▪ gusts of laughter ▪ a gust of emotion

– gust•i•ness /'gʌstinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the gustiness of the winds – gusty /'gʌsti/ adj gust•i•er; -est ▪ a gusty day ▪ gusty winds

[2]gust verb gusts; gust•ed; gust•ing [no obj] of wind : to blow strongly for a short time : to blow in gusts ▪ The forecast calls for winds gusting up to 40 miles per hour.

gus•ta•to•ry /'gʌstəˌtori, Brit 'gʌstətri/ adj, formal : relating to taste or the sense of taste ▪ gustatory pleasures/delights

gus•to /'gʌstoʊ/ noun [noncount] : great enjoyment, energy, and enthusiasm — usually used in the phrase with gusto ▪ She ate her dinner with gusto. ▪ He played the role of the villain with gusto.

[1]gut /'gʌt/ noun, pl guts

1 guts [plural] a : the internal organs of an animal ▪ the guts of the fish ▪ fish guts [=entrails] b informal : the inside parts of something ▪ the guts of a machine c informal : the most important parts of something ▪ the guts of a business deal

2 guts [plural] informal : COURAGE ▪ That decision took a lot of guts. ▪ I didn't have the guts to do it. ✧ The expression no guts, no glory is sometimes used in informal U.S. English to mean that if you do not have courage, you will never achieve success and fame.

3 [count] informal — used to talk about feelings, ideas, etc., that come from your emotions and from what seems true or right rather than from logic or reason ▪ She knew in her gut that he was lying. ▪ He knew he had to trust his gut [=instincts] and do what felt right. ▪ What does your gut tell you to do?

4 [count] informal : a person's stomach or the part of the body that contains the stomach : BELLY ▪ Her cruel remark was like a kick in the gut. ▪ He has a big gut.

5 [count] : INTESTINE ▪ a problem affecting the gut

6 [noncount] : CATGUT ▪ a violin with gut strings

blood and guts : violent acts or images ▪ a movie with lots of blood and guts

bust a gut also bust your gut informal 1 : to work or try extremely hard ▪ We're going to have to bust a gut to finish this project on time. 2 US : to laugh in an uncontrolled way ▪ I thought I'd bust a gut (laughing) when you showed up in that silly outfit.

hate someone's guts informal : to hate or dislike someone very much ▪ That guy really hates my guts.

spill your guts informal : to tell your secrets or private feelings to another person ▪ What makes some people want to spill their guts on national television?

[2]gut adj, always used before a noun

1 : relating to or based on emotions : not based on logic or reason ▪ a gut feeling/reaction ▪ gut instinct

2 : affecting people's emotions ▪ gut issues

[3]gut verb guts; gut•ted; gut•ting [+ obj]

1 : to remove the internal organs from (a fish or an animal) ▪ The salmon is already gutted and filleted.

2 a : to destroy the inside of (a structure) ▪ Fire gutted the building. — often used as (be) gutted ▪ The building was completely gutted by fire. b : to destroy the power of (something) : to make (something) no longer effective ▪ Critics claim that these reforms will gut the law.

gut•less /'gʌtləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : lacking courage : COWARDLY ▪ a gutless wimp

gutsy /'gʌtsi/ adj guts•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 : very tough or brave ▪ the book's gutsy heroine : showing courage ▪ That was a very gutsy decision.

2 : having a strong and appealing flavor ▪ gutsy stews ▪ a rich gutsy wine gutted adj, Brit, informal : very disappointed ▪ "How did you feel when you didn't win the championship?" "I was absolutely gutted!"

[1]gut•ter /'gʌtɚ/ noun, pl -ters

1 [count] a : a long, hollow device that is attached to the edges of a roof to catch rain and carry it away from a building — see picture at HOUSE b : a low area at the side of a road that is used to catch water and carry it away from the road

2 [count] : a long, narrow low section along the sides of a bowling lane

3 the gutter a : the lowest or poorest conditions of human life ▪ He squandered all his money and wound up in the gutter. [=a state of severe poverty] b US, informal — used to refer in usually a joking way to thoughts that relate to sex ▪ Get your mind out of the gutter. [=stop thinking that everything relates to sex]

[2]gutter adj, always used before a noun : of the worst kind : offensive or immoral ▪ gutter language ▪ gutter politics ▪ (Brit) the gutter press [=newspapers that print shocking stories about the personal lives of people] gut•tur•al /'gʌtərəl/ adj : formed or pronounced in the throat ▪ guttural sounds ▪ a guttural grunt

– gut•tur•al•ly adv

gut–wrench•ing /'gʌtˌrɛnʧɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] infor-

G

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−g

mal : causing great mental or emotional pain ▪ gut-wrenching decisions

guv /ˈgʌv/ noun, Brit, informal — used by a man to address another man (such as a customer) ▪ "Where to, guv?" asked the taxi driver.

guy /ˈgaɪ/ noun, pl guys informal
1 [count] : a man ▪ He seems like a nice guy. ▪ Who's that guy she's with? ▪ It's hard to tell the good guys [=the heroes] from the bad guys [=the villains] in this movie. — see also FALL GUY, LITTLE GUY, MR. NICE GUY, WISE GUY
2 guys [plural] chiefly US — used to refer to two or more people ▪ Quiet down, guys—I'm trying to get some sleep here! ▪ You guys [=you both/all] should come visit us sometime. ▪ Would you guys like anything else?

guz•zle /ˈgʌzəl/ verb guz•zles; guz•zled; guz•zling /ˈgʌzlɪŋ/ informal : to drink (something, such as beer or liquor) quickly or in large amounts [+ obj] She spends her days smoking cigarettes and guzzling (down) coffee. [no obj] Sip, don't guzzle. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ devices that guzzle electricity ▪ cars that guzzle gasoline ✧ In British English, guzzle is used for both eating and drinking.
– guz•zler /ˈgʌzələ/ noun, pl -zlers [count] ▪ beer guzzlers — see also GAS-GUZZLER gym /ˈʤɪm/ noun, pl gyms

1 [count] : GYMNASIUM, HEALTH CLUB ▪ He works out at the gym. ▪ a membership at the gym = a gym membership
2 [noncount] : sports and exercise taught as a subject in school : PHYSICAL EDUCATION ▪ Students are required to take gym. — often used before another noun ▪ gym class ▪ gym shoes [=sneakers] — see also JUNGLE GYM gym•na•si•um /ʤɪmˈneɪzijəm/ noun, pl -ums [count] : a room or building that has equipment for sports activities or exercise gym•nast /ˈʤɪmˌnæst/ noun, pl -nasts [count] : a person who performs various physical exercises on a mat or on special equipment as part of an athletic competition : a person who participates in the sport of gymnastics

gym•nas•tics /ʤɪmˈnæstɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] a : physical exercises for developing strength and balance ▪ They limbered up by practicing some gymnastics on the mat. b : a sport in which athletes are judged on how well they perform various physical exercises on a mat or on special equipment ▪ She won an Olympic gold medal in gymnastics. ▪ He teaches gymnastics at the local high school.
2 [plural] : an activity that requires unusual ability or effort ▪ The singer's vocal gymnastics are impressive. ▪ It makes sense, but only after some complicated mental gymnastics.
– gym•nas•tic /ʤɪmˈnæstɪk/ adj ▪ gymnastic moves ▪ a gymnastic exhibition

gy•ne•col•o•gy (US) or chiefly Brit gy•nae•col•o•gy /ˌgaɪnəˈkɑːləʤi/ noun [noncount] medical : the scientific study of the reproductive system of women and its diseases — compare OBSTETRICS
– gy•ne•co•log•i•cal (US) or chiefly Brit gy•nae•co•log•i•cal /ˌgaɪnɪkəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ a gynecological examination
– gy•ne•col•o•gist (US) or chiefly Brit gy•nae•col•o•gist /ˌgaɪnəˈkɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

[1]gyp /ˈʤɪp/ noun [singular] chiefly US, informal : an act of tricking or cheating someone ▪ Is that all they give you? What a gyp! — compare [3]GYP

[2]gyp verb gyps; gypped; gyp•ping [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to cheat (someone) ▪ You paid $100? You got/were gypped. [=you paid too much; you were cheated] — often + out of ▪ They gypped [=cheated] us out of hundreds of dollars. ▪ She got gypped out of a big promotion.

[3]gyp noun
give (someone) gyp Brit, informal : to cause (someone) pain ▪ My leg's been giving me gyp again.
– compare [1]GYP

gyp•sum /ˈʤɪpsəm/ noun [noncount] : a white mineral that is used to make plaster of paris

Gyp•sy also Gip•sy /ˈʤɪpsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] : a member of a group of people who originally came from northern India and now live mostly in Asia, Europe, and North America ✧ The Gypsy people are known for moving from place to place instead of living in one place for a long time.

gypsy moth noun, pl ~ moths [count] : a type of moth gym

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:34:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-g

whose caterpillar does great damage to trees by eating the leaves

gy•rate /ˈʤaɪˌreɪt, Brit ʤaɪˈreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [no obj] : to move back and forth with a circular motion ▪ They gyrated to the music. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The markets have been gyrating [=fluctuating] wildly.
– gy•ra•tion /ʤaɪˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] their gyrations on the dance floor ▪ market gyrations [=fluctuations] [noncount] the gyration of the dancers

[1]gy•ro /ˈʤaɪˌroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] : GYROSCOPE — compare [2]GYRO

[2]gy•ro /ˈjiːˌroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] : a Greek food that consists of a pita wrapped around a filling of usually lamb, onion, tomato, and a yogurt sauce — compare [1]GYRO

gy•ro•scope /ˈʤaɪrəˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] : a wheel that spins quickly and is held in a frame that allows it to tilt in any direction ✧ Gyroscopes are used in steering devices on ships, airplanes, etc., and in other instruments. Some gyroscopes are used as toys.
– gy•ro•scop•ic /ˌʤaɪrəˈskɑːpɪk/ adj ▪ gyroscopic instruments

gyroscope

H

h or H /ˈeɪʧ/ noun, pl h's or hs or H's or Hs /ˈeɪʧəz/ : the eighth letter of the English alphabet [count] The word "hand" begins with an h. [noncount] The word "hand" begins with h.

ha /ˈhɑː/ interj — used especially to express surprise or a feeling of pleasure that you have when you do something or find out about something ▪ Ha! And you thought I couldn't do it!

ha•be•as cor•pus /ˈheɪbijəsˈkoəpəs/ noun [noncount] law : an order to bring a jailed person before a judge or court to find out if that person should really be in jail ▪ apply for a writ of habeas corpus

hab•er•dash•er /ˈhæbəˌdæʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned
1 US : a person who owns or works in a shop that sells men's clothes
2 Brit : a person who owns or works in a shop that sells small items (such as needles and thread) that are used to make clothes

hab•er•dash•ery /ˈhæbəˌdæʃəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 [noncount] : goods sold by a haberdasher
2 [count] : a haberdasher's shop

hab•it /ˈhæbət/ noun, pl -its
1 : a usual way of behaving : something that a person does often in a regular and repeated way [count] It was his habit to take a nap after dinner every evening. ▪ It's important that parents teach their children good study/eating habits. ▪ He fell/got into some bad habits after graduating from college. ▪ It's never easy to break/kick a bad habit. ▪ Old habits die hard. [=it is hard to stop doing things that you have been doing for a long time] — often followed by of + -ing verb ▪ He had a habit of coughing when he was nervous. ▪ He has an annoying/irritating habit of cracking his knuckles. ▪ Things have a nasty habit of not turning out the way you expect them to. [=things often do not turn out the way you expect them to] [noncount] He still gets up early every day from habit. ▪ She always closed the door softly out of habit. ▪ He reached into his pocket for his keys by/from force of habit. [=he did it without thinking because it is what he usually does] ▪ I'm a creature of habit. [=I always do the same things in the same way] ✧ If you are in the habit of doing something, you do it often or usually. ▪ I'm in the habit of reading before I go to bed. ✧ If you say that you are not in the habit of doing something, you mean that you do not do it or that you do not usually do it. ▪ I'm not in the habit of getting involved in other people's arguments. ▪ I'm not in the habit of making predictions, but I don't think there's much doubt about who will win this election. ✧ To get in/into the habit of doing something means to do something in a regular or repeated way so that it becomes a habit. ▪ I had gotten into the habit of reading before going to bed. ▪ She got in the habit of leaving her keys on the counter so she wouldn't forget them. ✧ To fall/slip into the habit of doing something is to begin to do something in a regular way without realizing that you are doing it. ▪ It's easy to fall into the habit of not eating enough for breakfast. ✧ If you make a habit of doing something or make it a habit to do something, you do it often. ▪ They have made a habit of criticizing each other whenever possible. ▪ The team has made a habit of winning the crucial games. ▪ Yes, you can leave work early today, but don't make a habit of it.
2 [count] : a strong need to use a drug, to smoke cigarettes, etc. ▪ He hasn't been able to kick his cocaine habit. ▪ I used to have a three-pack-a-day cigarette habit. [=I used to smoke three packs of cigarettes a day]
3 [count] : a piece of clothing worn by members of a religious group ▪ a monk's/nun's habit

hab•it•able /ˈhæbətəbəl/ adj : suitable or fit to live in ▪ The house is not habitable.

hab•i•tat /ˈhæbəˌtæt/ noun, pl -tats [count] : the place or type of place where a plant or animal naturally or normally lives or grows ▪ a creature's natural habitat ▪ tropical habitats

hab•i•ta•tion /ˌhæbəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of living in a place ▪ The house was not fit for human habitation.
2 [count] formal : a place where someone lives ▪ a wilderness area with few habitations

hab•it–form•ing /ˈhæbətˌfoəmɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a strong need to regularly have something (such as a drug) or do something ▪ Heroin is a habit-forming [=addictive] drug. ▪ Eating chocolate can be habit-forming.

ha•bit•u•al /həˈbɪʧəwəl/ adj
1 : done regularly or repeatedly ▪ He was fired for his habitual lateness. ▪ habitual drug use ▪ They went for their habitual evening walk.
2 always used before a noun : doing something regularly or repeatedly ▪ She was a habitual liar. [=she always lied] ▪ habitual criminals/offenders
– ha•bit•u•al•ly adv ▪ He was habitually late.

ha•bit•u•ate /həˈbɪʧəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (a person or animal) to become familiar with and used to a particular place, situation, etc. — + to ▪ The dog slowly became habituated to its new home. = The dog slowly habituated itself to its new home.
– ha•bit•u•a•tion /həˌbɪʧəˈweɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

ha•bi•tué /həˈbɪʧəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -tu•és [count] : a person who is often at a specified place ▪ a habitué of bars ▪ racetrack habitués

ha•ci•en•da /ˌhɑːsiˈɛndə, Brit ˌhæsiˈɛndə/ noun, pl -das [count] : a large estate in a country where people speak Spanish

[1]hack /ˈhæk/ verb hacks; hack•ed; hack•ing
1 : to cut (something or someone) many times and usually in a rough and violent way. [+ obj] He hacked [=chopped] the tree down with an ax. = He hacked down the tree with an ax. ▪ The victim had been hacked to death. ▪ The table had been hacked to pieces. [no obj] He hacked (away) at the tree with an ax. — see also HACK OFF (below)
2 [+ obj] : to make (a path) by cutting plants ▪ They used a machete to hack a path through the jungle. ▪ They hacked their way through the jungle.
3 [+ obj] informal : to manage or deal with (something) successfully — usually used in negative statements ▪ He just couldn't hack the new job. — often used in the phrase hack it ▪ After two weeks at the new job, he decided that he just couldn't hack it.
4 [no obj] : to cough loudly ▪ I could hear him hacking (away) all night long. ▪ The patient has a hacking cough. [=a loud, dry cough]
5 computers : to secretly get access to the files on a computer or network in order to get information, cause damage,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

etc. [no obj] — + into ▪ She was trying to hack into the network. ▪ Someone hacked into the company's financial records. [+ obj] The Web site had been hacked.

hack off [phrasal verb] 1 hack (something) off or hack off (something) : to cut (something) off in a rough and violent way ▪ She used an ax to hack the dead branch off (the tree). 2 hack (someone) off also hack off (someone) informal : to make (someone) angry and annoyed ▪ It really hacks me off to see people treated so unfairly. — see also HACKED OFF

[2]hack noun, pl hacks [count]
1 : the act of hitting something roughly with an ax, knife, etc. ▪ He took a hack at the branch.
2 baseball, informal : SWING ▪ He took a hack at a high fastball and popped it up.
3 : a loud, dry cough ▪ a smoker's hack
– compare [3]HACK

[3]hack noun, pl hacks [count]
1 disapproving a : a writer who produces a large amount of work mainly to make money ▪ a hack writer b : someone who does work that is not important or original ▪ a political hack
2 US, old-fashioned + informal : TAXI; also : the driver of a taxi : CABDRIVER
3 a : a horse that can be hired for use b : an old, worn-out horse
– compare [2]HACK

hacked off adj [more ~; most ~] informal : angry or irritated ▪ He was really hacked off when they lost the game.

hack•er /ˈhækə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 computers : a person who secretly gets access to a computer system in order to get information, cause damage, etc. : a person who hacks into a computer system
2 US, informal : a person who plays a sport badly ▪ My friends and I have been playing golf for years, but we're still just a bunch of hackers. ▪ a tennis hacker

hack•les /ˈhækəlz/ noun [plural] : hairs along the neck and back of an animal — often used figuratively with raise or rise to describe something that makes people angry or annoyed ▪ The court ruling is sure to raise some hackles. [=sure to upset some people] ▪ Their arrogant attitude is what really made my hackles rise. [=really made me angry]

hack•neyed /ˈhæknid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not interesting, funny, etc., because of being used too often : not fresh or original ▪ hackneyed phrases/jokes hack•saw /ˈhækˌsɑ:/ noun, pl -saws [count] : a saw used for cutting metal — see picture at CARPENTRY had past tense and past participle of HAVE had•dock /ˈhædək/ noun, pl haddock [count, noncount] : a fish that lives in the Atlantic Ocean and that is often eaten as food — see color picture on page C8

Ha•des /ˈheɪˌdi:z/ noun [noncount]
1 : the home of the dead in Greek mythology
2 or hades informal — used as a more polite way of saying "hell" ▪ It's hotter than hades today.

hadn't /ˈhædnt/ — used as a contraction of had not ▪ They hadn't arrived at the party yet. ▪ Hadn't we better be going now?

haemoglobin, haemophilia, haemophiliac, haemorrhage, haemorrhoid Brit spellings of HEMOGLOBIN, HEMOPHILIA, HEMOPHILIAC, HEMORRHAGE, HEMORRHOID

hag /ˈhæg/ noun, pl hags [count] offensive : an ugly, evil, or unpleasant old woman hag•gard /ˈhægəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking very thin and tired especially from great hunger, worry, or pain ▪ She looked tired and haggard. ▪ We were shocked by his haggard appearance.

hag•gis /ˈhægəs/ noun, pl -gis•es [count, noncount] : a Scottish dish made from the organs of a sheep that are chopped up, mixed with suet, onions, oatmeal, and seasonings, and boiled in the stomach of the sheep hag•gle /ˈhægəl/ verb hag•gles; hag•gled; hag•gling [no obj] : to talk or argue with someone especially in order to agree on a price ▪ I dislike having to haggle (with a salesman) over/about the price of a new car. ▪ She is good at haggling.

– hag•gler /ˈhægələ/ noun, pl hag•glers [count] ▪ a skillful haggler

ha•gi•og•ra•phy /ˌhægiˈɑ:grəfi/ noun, pl -phies disapproving : a book about someone's life that makes it seem better than it really is or was : a biography that praises someone too much [count] a hagiography about a famous politician [noncount] The book gives a good idea of his virtues without resorting to hagiography.

ha ha or ha–ha /ˈhɑ:ˈhɑ:/ interj — used to represent laughter ▪ "Ha ha! That's a good one!" he chuckled. — often used in an ironic way ▪ Oh, ha ha. That's very funny. [=that's not really funny at all] hai•ku /ˈhaɪˌku/ noun, pl haiku also hai•kus : a Japanese form of poetry or a poem written in this form [noncount] a master of haiku [count] He has written many beautiful haiku. ✧ A haiku has three lines, with the first line containing five syllables, the second line containing seven syllables, and the third line containing five syllables again.

[1]hail /heɪl/ noun
1 [noncount] : pieces of ice that fall from clouds like rain ▪ Many cars were damaged by hail during the storm.
2 [singular] : a large number of small hard objects (such as bullets or stones) flying or falling together ▪ They were gunned down in a hail of bullets. ▪ a hail of pellets — often used figuratively ▪ The court's decision was met with a hail of criticism. [=was strongly criticized by many people]

[2]hail verb hails; hailed; hailing [no obj] — used with it to say that hail is falling ▪ It's hailing outside. [=hail is falling from the sky] — compare [3]HAIL

[3]hail verb hails; hailed; hailing [+ obj]
1 : to speak of or welcome (someone or something) with praise or enthusiasm ▪ The town hailed him as a hero when he returned with the championship trophy. ▪ His supporters have hailed [=strongly praised] his decision to run for reelection. — often used as (be) hailed ▪ She is being hailed [=acclaimed] for her generosity. ▪ The new drug has been widely hailed as a great breakthrough.
2 : to call out in order to stop or get the attention of (someone or something) ▪ We hailed the passing ship. ▪ He hailed a taxi for me. — see also HAILING DISTANCE hail from [phrasal verb] hail from (a place) : to have been born or raised in (a place) : to come from (a place) ▪ He hails from a small town in western Kansas.

– compare [2]HAIL hailing distance noun [noncount] : the distance within which it is possible to hear someone who is calling out ▪ They were within hailing distance of each other.

Hail Mary /-ˈmeri/ noun, pl ~ Marys [count]
1 : a Roman Catholic prayer to the Virgin Mary 2 American football : a long forward pass thrown into or close to the end zone as playing time runs out ▪ He threw up a Hail Mary at the end of the first half. ▪ a Hail Mary pass hail•stone /ˈheɪlˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a piece of hail hail•storm /ˈheɪlˌstoəm/ noun, pl -storms [count] : a storm that produces hail

hair /ˈheə/ noun, pl hairs
1 a [count] : a thin threadlike growth from the skin of a person or animal ▪ He plucked a hair from his arm. ▪ There are dog/cat hairs all over my coat. b [noncount] : a covering or growth of hairs ▪ The hair on her arms is blond. ▪ He has a lot of hair on his chest. ▪ facial/pubic hair c [noncount] : the covering of hairs on a person's head ▪ He got his hair cut last week. ▪ Your hair looks nice. ▪ She has long/black/straight hair. ▪ He has a thick/full head of hair. ▪ a balding man who is losing his hair ▪ a lock/strand of hair ▪ hair conditioners/curlers ▪ a hair dryer ▪ I'm having a bad hair day. [=my hair does not look nice today]
2 [singular] informal : a very small distance or amount ▪ He won the race by a hair. ▪ He was a hair off on the count.

hair of the dog (that bit you) informal : an alcoholic drink that is taken by someone to feel better after having drunk too much at an earlier time hide or hair, hide nor hair see [2]HIDE

in your hair informal ✧ Someone who is in your hair is bothering or annoying you. ▪ His wife says that since he retired he's in her hair all day because he's at home so much.

keep your hair on Brit, informal — used to tell someone not to become too excited or upset let your hair down informal : to relax and enjoy yourself ▪ We work hard all week, so when Friday comes we like to let our hair down a little and have some fun.

make your hair curl informal ✧ If something makes your hair curl, it frightens, shocks, or surprises you. ▪ I've heard stories about that guy that would make your hair curl.

make your hair stand on end informal ✧ If something makes your hair stand on end, it frightens you. ▪ Just hearing his voice makes my hair stand on end.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

not have a hair out of place informal : to have a very neat appearance ▪ a politician who never has a hair out of place not turn a hair informal : to remain calm even though something frightening or shocking has happened ▪ Most people would have been very nervous in that situation, but she never turned a hair.

out of your hair informal ✧ Someone who is out of your hair is no longer bothering or annoying you. ▪ Let me take the children out of your hair while you cook dinner.

pull your hair out or tear your hair out informal : to be very worried or upset about something ▪ We've been tearing our hair out trying to decide what to do.

split hairs : to argue about small details or differences that are not important ▪ His lawyers are splitting hairs over the wording of his contract. — see also HAIRSPLITTING

– haired /ˈheəd/ adj ▪ a long-haired cat ▪ a dark-haired person – hair•less /ˈheələs/ adj ▪ a hairless breed of cat

hair•brush /ˈheəˌbrʌʃ/ noun, pl -brush•es [count] : a brush for the hair — see picture at GROOMING hair•cut /ˈheəˌkʌt/ noun, pl -cuts [count] : the act or result of cutting and shaping someone's hair ▪ The girls got haircuts yesterday. ▪ He just had a haircut. ▪ Do you like my haircut? ▪ a short haircut

– hair•cut•ter /ˈheəˌkʌtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

hair•do /ˈheəˌduː/ noun, pl -dos [count] : a way of cutting and arranging someone's hair ▪ a stylish hairdo

hair•dress•er /ˈheəˌdrɛsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who cuts and shapes hair – hair•dress•ing /ˈheəˌdrɛsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ She is taking classes in hairdressing.

hair•grip /ˈheəˌgrɪp/ noun, pl -grips [count] Brit : BOBBY PIN

hair•line /ˈheəˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]

1 : a thin line or crack ▪ The plate had a hairline running across it. — often used before another noun ▪ a hairline crack ▪ He suffered a hairline fracture of his shin bone.

2 : the line where your hair starts on your forehead ▪ He has a receding hairline.

hair•net /ˈheəˌnɛt/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a net worn over someone's hair to keep it in place hair•piece /ˈheəˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count] : a section of real or false hair that is worn to cover a bald spot on your head or to make your hair look longer, thicker, or a different color hair•pin /ˈheəˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count]

1 : a pin that is worn in your hair; especially : a pin shaped like a U that is worn to hold your hair in place

2 : an extremely sharp turn in a road that is shaped like a U — often used before another noun ▪ a hairpin turn/curve hair–rais•ing /ˈheəˌreɪzɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very frightening or exciting ▪ a hair-raising adventure/story

– hair–rais•ing•ly adv

hair's breadth or US hair•breadth /ˈheəˌbrɛtθ/ noun [singular] : a very small distance or amount ▪ He came within a hair's breadth of winning the race. [=he came very close to winning the race] — often used before another noun ▪ a hair-breadth escape [=a very narrow escape]

hair slide noun, pl ~ slides [count] Brit : BARRETTE

hair•split•ter /ˈheəˌsplɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who argues about differences that are too small to be important hair•split•ting /ˈheəˌsplɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of arguing about differences that are too small to be important ▪ The lawyers have been engaging in legalistic hairsplitting. — see also split hairs at HAIR

– hairsplitting adj ▪ lawyers making hairsplitting distinctions hair•style /ˈheəˌstajəl/ noun, pl -styles [count] : HAIRDO

hair•styl•ing /ˈheəˌstaɪlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or job of cutting and arranging people's hair ▪ the latest trends in hairstyling

– hair•styl•ist /ˈheəˌstaɪlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a professional hairstylist hair trigger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] : a trigger on a gun that needs very little pressure to cause the gun to shoot hair–trig•ger /ˈheəˌtrɪgə/ adj, always used before a noun : becoming angry very easily ▪ He has a hair-trigger temper.

hairy /ˈheri/ adj hair•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : covered with a lot of hair ▪ hairy arms ▪ a hairy chest

2 informal : causing fear or tension : dangerous or stressful ▪ The taxi ride got a little hairy. ▪ When the deadline approaches, things can get a little hairy.

– hair•i•ness /ˈherinəs/ noun [noncount]

hajj /ˈhæʤ/ noun [singular] : a journey to Mecca that is a religious duty for Muslims

hake /ˈheɪk/ noun, pl hake [count, noncount] : a large fish that lives in the Atlantic Ocean and is often eaten as food

ha•lal /həˈlɑːl/ adj

1 : accepted by Muslim law as fit for eating ▪ halal meat

2 : selling or serving halal food ▪ a halal butcher ▪ a halal restaurant

hal•cy•on /ˈhælsijən/ adj, always used before a noun, literary : very happy and successful — used to refer to a happy and successful time in the past that is remembered as being better than today ▪ She looks back fondly recalling the halcyon days/years of her career, when she was just out of college.

hale /ˈheɪl/ adj hal•er; hal•est [also more ~; most ~] : healthy and strong — usually used in the phrase hale and hearty ▪ His mother remains hale and hearty in her old age.

[1]half /ˈhæf, Brit ˈhɑːf/ noun, pl halves /ˈhævz, Brit ˈhɑvz/

1 : one of two equal or nearly equal parts into which something can be divided [count] She broke each cookie into halves. ▪ "Which half do you want?" "I'll take the smaller half." ▪ Two halves make a whole. [noncount] The price has been reduced by half. [=by 50 percent; by an amount that is equal to one half of the original] — see also BETTER HALF, OTHER HALF

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

2 a [count] : either of the two equal periods of playing time in sports like football and basketball ▪ The team fell behind in the first half but rallied in the second half to win the game.

b the half : the time when the first half of a game ends ▪ The score was tied at the half. [=at halftime]

3 [count] Brit, informal : half a pint of a drink (such as beer) ▪ "What's yours?" "A half of lager, please."

and a half 1 — used in measurements of time, distance, weight, etc., to indicate one half of the unit of measurement ▪ My daughter is two and a half (years old). [=two years and six months old] ▪ The fish was a foot and a half long. [=one foot and six inches long] ▪ ten and a half pounds [=ten pounds and eight ounces] 2 informal — used to say that something is very good, large, difficult, etc. ▪ That was a meal and a half! [=that was a very big meal] ▪ Renovating a house is a job and a half. [=is a very difficult job]

by halves informal : in an incomplete way — used in negative statements to say that someone does things with a lot of energy and effort ▪ She never does anything by halves—it's all or nothing!

go halves also go half and half : to share the cost of something equally ▪ We decided to go halves (with each other) on the expenses.

in half : into two equal parts : into two halves ▪ She cut the apple in half.

the half of it informal — used to say that a situation is even worse than you think it is or than it seems to be ▪ "It sounds like you've been having some problems." "You don't know the half of it!" ▪ Sales are down but that's only the half of it—the company is closing several stores.

too . . . by half chiefly Brit, informal — used to say that someone or something has too much of a particular quality usually in a way that is annoying ▪ an arrogant politician who is too clever by half

[2]half pronoun : a number or amount that is equal to one half of a total ▪ "Do you want the whole piece?" "Half would be enough, please." ▪ Thirty students took the exam; half (that number) passed. [=15 students passed] ▪ Half of 30 is/equals 15. ▪ I seem to spend half (of) the day on the phone. ▪ She gave half (of) her money to charity. ▪ Half a million people live in this area. ▪ Do you want half (of) my sandwich? ▪ Half the time the kids are outside playing. [=the kids are often outside playing] ▪ Getting to your destination is half the fun of a vacation. = Getting there is half the fun. ▪ Half the problem is that we do not have enough employees to handle the increased workload. ▪ I waited for half an hour. [=30 minutes] ▪ Please wait (for) half a minute/second [=for a moment] while I try to connect you. ▪ half a dozen [=six] eggs ▪ He's always chasing women half his age. [=women who are much younger than he is]

half the battle see [1]BATTLE

have half a mind see [1]MIND

[3]half adj, always used before a noun

1 : equal or nearly equal in size, value, amount, etc., to one half of something ▪ a half cup of coffee ▪ He owns a half share in the company. ▪ a half pound of cheese ▪ a half million people ▪ a half mile away ▪ a half circle ▪ a half dozen [=six] eggs — see also HALF HOUR, HALF PRICE

2 : not complete : PARTIAL ▪ She looked at him with a shy half smile. — often used in combination ▪ a shy half-smile ▪ We need resolute action, not timid half-measures.

[4]half adv

1 : to an extent that is equal or nearly equal to half of something ▪ The glass of water is half full/empty. ▪ The crowd was half cheering and half jeering. ▪ She's half French and half Italian. [=one of her parents is French and the other is Italian] ▪ The meeting began at half past two. [=at 2:30] = (Brit) The meeting began at half two. ▪ We arrived at the station at noon, and the train departed at half past. [=at 12:30] ▪ The train departed at half past the hour.

2 : not completely : to some degree : PARTIALLY ▪ He was only half aware of what was happening. ▪ She had half persuaded me to stay. ▪ The door was half open. ▪ These eggs are only half cooked. ▪ I was half asleep [=very tired; not completely awake] when you called. ▪ She looked half dead. [=she looked very tired/ill] half again as much/many (etc.) as (US) or Brit half as much/many (etc.) again as — used to say that the size or amount of one thing is 50 percent more than another ▪ If 100 people were expected and 150 came, half again as many people came as were expected. ▪ This dress costs half again as much as that one.

half as big/much/good (etc.) as — used to say that the size, amount, or quality of one thing is half or nearly half that of another ▪ The bush is half as tall as the tree. [=the tree is twice as tall as the bush] ▪ This dress costs half as much as that one. ▪ If 100 people were expected and 50 came, only half as many people came as were expected. ▪ If he can play the guitar half as well as he can sing, he should have quite a career. [=he will have a very successful career if he can play the guitar well, even if he doesn't play as well as he sings] ▪ The sequel isn't half as good as the original movie. [=the original movie was much better than the sequel] half off — used to say that something is being sold at half the original price ▪ Peaches are half off today.

not half 1 : not nearly ▪ He's not half the fool you think he is. = He's not half so foolish as you think he is. [=he is much smarter than you think he is] ▪ an aging baseball player who is not half the hitter he once was [=he is not nearly as good as a hitter as he once was] 2 Brit, informal — used to emphasize a statement or description ▪ She doesn't half swear! [=she swears a lot] ▪ It's not half cold today! [=it is very cold today] ▪ "Is it cold out?" "Not half!" [=yes, it is very cold]

not half bad informal : surprisingly good ▪ Her singing was not half bad. [=not bad at all] ▪ The food there is not half bad. [=pretty good] half–and–half /ˌhæfnˈhæf, Brit ˌhɑːfnˈhɑːf/ noun [noncount] US : a mixture of cream and whole milk ▪ She usually puts half-and-half in her coffee.

half–assed (US) /ˈhæfˈæst, Brit ˈhɑːfˈæst/ or Brit half–arsed /ˈhæfˈɑəst, Brit ˈhɑːfˈɑːst/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + impolite

1 : poorly done or planned ▪ He did a half-assed job.

2 : stupid or foolish ▪ a half-assed remark

half•back /ˈhæfˌbæk, Brit ˈhɑːfˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count]

1 American football : a player on offense who lines up next to the fullback and who runs with the ball and blocks

2 : a defensive player in games like soccer and field hockey who is positioned in front of the fullback half–baked /ˈhæfˈbeɪkt, Brit ˈhɑːfˈbeɪkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : not well planned : foolish or stupid ▪ a half-baked idea half bath noun, pl ~ baths [count] US : a bathroom that has a sink and toilet but no bathtub or shower half–breed /ˈhæfˌbriːd, Brit ˈhɑːfˌbriːd/ noun, pl -breeds [count] offensive : a person who has parents of different races; especially : a person who has a Native American parent and a white parent half brother noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a brother with the same father but a different mother or the same mother but a different father ▪ George is my half brother.

– half–breed adj

half–caste /ˈhæfˌkæst, Brit ˈhɑːfˌkɑːst/ noun, pl -castes [count] offensive : a person who has parents of different races

– half–caste adj

half–cocked /ˈhæfˌkɑːkt, Brit ˈhɑːfˈkɒkt/ adj, US, informal : showing a lack of preparation or careful thought : stupid or foolish ▪ half-cocked officials/ideas go off half-cocked (US) or Brit go off at half cock informal : to do or say something without preparing for it or thinking about it ▪ Before you go off half-cocked, try listening to the explanation.

half–dol•lar /ˈhæfˈdɑːlə, Brit ˈhɑːfˈdɒlə/ noun, pl -lars US

1 [count] : a coin that is worth 50 cents

2 [singular] : the sum of 50 cents ▪ kids selling lemonade for a half-dollar ▪ a half-dollar price increase half•heart•ed /ˈhæfˈhɑəṭəd, Brit ˈhɑːfˈhɑːṭəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a lack of interest or enthusiasm ▪ a half-hearted smile ▪ half-hearted applause from the audience ▪ He made a half-hearted attempt to contact them.

– half•heart•ed•ly adv ▪ smiling halfheartedly

half hour noun [singular]

1 : 30 minutes ▪ Trains depart every half hour. : a period of time that lasts for 30 minutes ▪ I waited a half hour in line.

2 : the middle point of an hour ▪ Tours start on the half hour. [=at 12:30, 1:30, 2:30, etc.]

half–life /ˈhæfˌlaɪf, Brit ˈhɑːfˌlaɪf/ noun, pl -lives [count] technical : the time it takes for a radioactive substance to lose half its radioactivity ▪ a half-life of 200,000 years — often

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

used figuratively to describe how long something remains useful or popular ▪ Slang usually has a short half-life. [=slang usually is popular for only a short time]

half–light /ˈhæfˌlaɪt, Brit ˈhɑːfˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : dim grayish light ▪ the half-light of early morning half–mast /ˈhæfˈmæst, Brit ˈhɑːfˈmɑːst/ noun [noncount] : the position in the middle of a mast or pole ✧ A flag is flown at half-mast or lowered to half-mast to show respect for a person who has died.

half–moon /ˈhæfˌmuːn, Brit ˈhɑːfˌmuːn/ noun, pl -moons
1 [singular] : the moon when only half of it can be seen — compare FULL MOON, NEW MOON
2 [count] : something that is shaped like a half-moon ▪ The pattern consists of circles and half-moons. ▪ half-moon earrings [=earrings that are shaped like half-moons]

half note noun, pl ~ notes [count] US : a musical note equal in time to half of a whole note — called also (Brit) minim half•pen•ny /ˈheɪpni/ noun, pl -nies /ˈheɪpniz/ [count] Brit : a former British coin worth one half of a penny half–pipe /ˈhæfˌpaɪp, Brit ˈhɑːfˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count] : a curved structure with high sides that is used for doing tricks on a skateboard, snowboard, etc.

half price noun [noncount] : half of the original price ▪ I bought these shoes at half price. = I paid half price for these shoes.
– half–price adj ▪ half-price items ▪ All winter coats are half-price today. – half–price adv ▪ Reserve now and fly half-price.

half shell noun
on the half shell : served in one of the two halves of the shell ▪ oysters on the half shell half sister noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a sister with the same father but a different mother or the same mother but a different father ▪ Emily is my half sister.

half–staff /ˈhæfˈstæf, Brit ˈhɑːfˈstɑːf/ noun [noncount] US : HALF-MAST half step noun, pl ~ steps [count] US, music : SEMITONE half•time /ˈhæfˌtaɪm, Brit ˈhɑːfˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : the period of rest between the end of the first half and the beginning of the second half in games like football and basketball ▪ The score was tied at halftime. ▪ The coaches discussed strategy during halftime.

half•tone /ˈhæfˌtoʊn, Brit ˈhɑːfˌtoʊn/ noun, pl -tones [count] technical 1 : a shade of gray in a photograph ▪ using software to lighten/darken the picture's halftones
2 : an image printed by a method that creates many small dots half–truth /ˈhæfˌtruːθ, Brit ˈhɑːfˌtruːθ/ noun, pl -truths [count] : a statement that is only partly true and that is intended to deceive people ▪ I'm tired of all these half-truths—I want to know the real story.

half•way /ˈhæfˈweɪ, Brit ˈhɑːfˈweɪ/ adj
1 : in the middle between two points ▪ She was leading at the halfway mark/point of the race. ▪ We're halfway toward completing the project.
2 always used before a noun, informal : not total or complete : PARTIAL ▪ They're only offering halfway measures, not a real solution.
meet (someone) halfway see ¹MEET
– halfway adv ▪ I was halfway home when I realized I had forgotten my briefcase. ▪ The project isn't done yet, but we're halfway there. ▪ He stopped halfway up the stairs. ▪ We left halfway through the speech. ▪ (informal) I'm willing to eat anywhere as long as the food is halfway decent. [=fairly good]

halfway house noun, pl ~ houses
1 [count] : a place where people who have recently left a prison, mental hospital, etc., can live until they are considered ready to live by themselves
2 [singular] chiefly Brit : something that combines the qualities or features of two different things ▪ The car is the perfect halfway house between a family caravan and luxury sedan.

half–wit /ˈhæfˌwɪt, Brit ˈhɑːfˌwɪt/ noun, pl -wits [count] informal : a foolish or stupid person ▪ He says the people he works with are a bunch of half-wits.
– half–wit•ted /ˈhæfˈwɪtəd, Brit ˈhɑːfˈwɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] hal•i•but /ˈhæləbət/ noun, pl halibut [count, noncount] : a large fish of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans that is often eaten as food

hal•i•to•sis /ˌhælәˈtoʊsәs/ noun [noncount] medical : the condition of having breath that smells bad : bad breath hall /ˈhɑːl/ noun, pl halls [count]

1 : a usually long, narrow passage inside a building with doors that lead to rooms on the sides ▪ The bathroom is down the hall. ▪ Her office is at the end of the hall.
2 : the area inside the entrance of a building ▪ I'll meet you in the front hall. ▪ The front door opens onto a large hall.
3 a : a large room or building for meetings, entertainment, etc. ▪ We rented a hall for the wedding reception. ▪ a concert/dining/dance hall ▪ a lecture hall [=auditorium] — often used in proper names ▪ Carnegie Hall ▪ the Hampden County Hall of Justice — see also CITY HALL, MESS HALL, MUSIC HALL, TOWN HALL b : a building where students live at a college or university : DORMITORY ▪ (US) a residence hall = (Brit) a hall of residence
4 Brit : a large, impressive house — used in proper names ▪ The family owned Locksley Hall for generations.
the halls of power see ¹POWER
– see also STUDY HALL

¹hal•le•lu•jah /ˌhælәˈluːjә/ interj — used to express praise, joy, or thanks especially to God ▪ Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! ▪ It's the weekend! Hallelujah!

²hallelujah noun, pl -jahs [count] : a shout or song of praise or thanks to God

hall•mark /ˈhɑːlˌmɑәk/ noun, pl -marks [count]
1 : a quality, ability, etc., that is typical of a particular person or thing ▪ He had all the hallmarks of a great baseball player. ▪ Humor is one of the hallmarks of her style. ▪ The murder bore all the hallmarks of a serial killer's work. — compare EARMARK
2 : an official mark that is put on gold and silver objects in Britain to indicate their purity

Hall of Fame noun, pl Halls of Fame [count] chiefly US : a place that is like a museum with exhibits honoring the famous people and events related to a particular activity (such as a sport) ▪ We visited the Basketball Hall of Fame.; also : the group of people who are honored in such a place ▪ He was elected as a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame.
– Hall of Fam•er /ˌhɑːlәˈfeɪmә/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ Hall of Famers [=members of the Hall of Fame] will be at the event to sign autographs.

hal•lowed /ˈhæloʊd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : holy or blessed ▪ The church stands on hallowed ground.
2 : highly respected ▪ hallowed customs/traditions

Hal•low•een /ˌhælәˈwiːn, ˌhɑːlәˈwiːn/ noun, pl -eens [count, noncount] : the night of October 31 when children dress up as ghosts, witches, monsters, etc., and go to houses to ask for candy — compare TRICK OR TREAT

hal•lu•ci•nate /hәˈluːsәˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nating : to see or sense something or someone that is not really there : to have hallucinations [no obj] The patient may hallucinate if she has a fever. [+ obj] His thirst caused him to hallucinate (that there was) an oasis in the desert.

hal•lu•ci•na•tion /hәˌluːsәˈneɪʃәn/ noun, pl -tions [count] : something (such as an image, a sound, or a smell) that seems real but does not really exist and that is usually caused by mental illness or the effect of a drug ▪ He could not tell if what he was seeing was real or if it was a hallucination. ▪ He has been having hallucinations due to the medication.
– hal•lu•ci•na•to•ry /hәˈluːsәnәˌtori, Brit hәˈluːsәnәtri/ adj ▪ hallucinatory drugs [=drugs that cause hallucinations] ▪ hallucinatory images

hal•lu•ci•no•gen /hәˈluːsәnәʤәn/ noun, pl -gens [count] : a substance (such as a drug) that causes people to see or sense things that are not real : a substance that causes hallucinations
– hal•lu•ci•no•gen•ic /hәˌluːsәnәˈʤɛnɪk/ adj ▪ hallucinogenic drugs

hall•way /ˈhɑːlˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count]
1 : HALL 1 ▪ Her office is at the end of the hallway.
2 : HALL 2 ▪ I'll meet you in the front hallway.

ha•lo /ˈheɪloʊ/ noun, pl -los or -loes [count]
1 : a circle of light that is shown in a religious painting, drawing, etc., around the head of a holy figure (such as an angel, saint, or god) — often used figuratively ▪ the child's halo of golden curls ▪ The scandal has tarnished the candidate's halo. [=has damaged his reputation as a morally good person]

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

2 : a bright circle seen around the sun or the moon

[1]halt /ˈhɑːlt/ verb halts; halt•ed; halt•ing

1 [+ obj] : to stop (something or someone) from moving or continuing ▪ The project had to be halted due to lack of funds. ▪ They voted to halt expansion of the shopping mall. ▪ The strike halted subways and buses.

2 [no obj] : to stop moving or happening ▪ The troops halted outside the city. ▪ The fighting halted briefly. ▪ The project halted when funding ran out. ▪ The guard shouted, "Halt! Who goes there?"

[2]halt noun, pl halts

1 [singular] : the stopping or ending of movement, progress, or action ▪ The contract brought a halt to [=ended] the strike. ▪ They put a halt to the rumors. ▪ The chairman called a halt to [=stopped] the proceedings. ▪ The car skidded/slowed to a halt. ▪ The project came to a (grinding) halt. = The project ground to a halt. [=the project stopped completely] ▪ The project came to a screeching/crashing halt. [=the project stopped suddenly and completely]

2 [count] Brit : a small railroad stop at which there is no station

hal•ter /ˈhɑːltə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a set of straps placed around a horse's head so that the horse can be led or tied

2 : a piece of clothing worn on a woman's upper body that is held in place by straps around the neck and back and that leaves the back, arms, and shoulders bare — called also halter top; see color picture on page C14

halting /ˈhɑːltɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : stopping often because of not being sure about what to say or do : not steady ▪ She answered in a halting voice. ▪ The baby took a few halting steps. ▪ Progress in the negotiations has been halting.

– halt•ing•ly adv

halve /ˈhæv, Brit ˈhɑːv/ verb halves; halved; halv•ing [+ obj]

1 : to divide (something) into two equal parts : to divide (something) into halves ▪ He halved the sandwich.

2 : to reduce (something) to one half of the original amount or size ▪ The store is halving the price of many summer items.

halves plural of [1]HALF

[1]ham /ˈhæm/ noun, pl hams

1 : meat from the leg of a hog that is often prepared by smoking or salting [noncount] a piece/slice of ham ▪ We're having ham for dinner. ▪ a ham sandwich [count] a delicious ham

2 [count] informal a disapproving : a bad actor who performs in an exaggerated way ▪ He was once a fine actor, but now he's just an old ham. ▪ a ham actor b : someone who enjoys performing and who tends to behave in an exaggerated or playful way when people are watching ▪ Cameras bring out the ham in her.

3 [count] : someone who operates an amateur radio station — often used before another noun ▪ ham radio ▪ a ham radio operator

[2]ham verb hammed; ham•ming

ham it up informal : to act or behave in an exaggerated or playful way ▪ She likes to ham it up for the camera.

ham•burg /ˈhæmˌbəg/ noun, pl -burgs [count] US, informal : HAMBURGER

ham•burg•er /ˈhæmˌbəgə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a flat, usually round cake of finely chopped beef that is cooked and served usually in a roll or bun ▪ They served hot dogs and hamburgers at the cookout.

2 [noncount] : beef that has been cut into very small pieces : ground beef ▪ Add the cooked hamburger to the sauce. — called also (Brit) mince

ham– st •ed /ˈhæmˌfɪstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : awkward or clumsy : HAM-HANDED ▪ a ham-fisted performance ham–hand•ed /ˈhæmˌhændəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : awkward or clumsy ▪ The actress gave a ham-handed performance. ▪ a ham-handed attempt at humor ▪ The apology was rather ham-handed.

ham•let /ˈhæmlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a small village

[1]ham•mer /ˈhæmə/ noun, pl -mers

1 [count] a : a tool that has a heavy metal head attached to a handle and that is used for hitting nails or breaking things apart — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also SLEDGEHAMMER b : a similar tool made usually of wood and used especially for hitting a surface to make a loud noise ▪ an auctioneer's hammer

2 [count] : the part of a gun that strikes a charge causing the gun to shoot

3 [count] : a piece inside a piano that strikes a string to produce a sound

4 [count] : a stick that is shaped like a hammer and that is used to play a musical instrument

5 a [count] : a heavy metal ball with a flexible handle that people throw as a sport b *the hammer : an event in which people compete by throwing a hammer ▪ He won a gold medal in the hammer. — called also the hammer throw hammer and tongs : in a very forceful and energetic way ▪ Our neighbors were arguing again last night. They were going at it hammer and tongs.

under the hammer — used to describe something that is being sold at an auction ▪ Some valuable paintings went/came under the hammer today.

[2]hammer verb -mers; -mered; -mer•ing

1 a : to force (something) into a particular place or shape by hitting it with a hammer [+ obj] He hammered the dent out of the fender. ▪ I hammered [=drove] the nails into the wall. ▪ The copper was hammered [=pounded] into a flat sheet. [no obj] The carpenters were hammering all afternoon. b [+ obj] : to attach (something) with a hammer and nails ▪ The workers are hammering the studs to the frame.

2 informal a [+ obj] : to hit (something or someone) in a very forceful way ▪ The batter hammered the ball over the fence. ▪ Someone tried to hammer him over the head with a club. ▪ Many towns were hammered by the hurricane. b : to hit (something) hard and repeatedly [+ obj] The typist's fingers were hammering the keys. ▪ He was hammering [=pounding, banging] the door with his fists. [no obj] He was hammering at/on the door. ▪ The rain hammered down on the roof. c [no obj] : to beat very quickly and forcefully ▪ My heart was hammering. [=pounding]

3 [+ obj] informal : to defeat (an opponent) very easily ▪ The home team was hammered 9–0.

4 [+ obj] informal : to harm or criticize (someone or something) severely — often used as (be) hammered ▪ Local businesses are being hammered by the new shopping mall. ▪ He is being hammered by his political opponents for his failure to cut taxes.

5 [no obj] : to keep talking about something or trying to do something — usually + at ▪ He kept hammering at the need for tax relief throughout his speech. — often + away ▪ I know we can solve this problem if we just keep hammering away (at it).

hammer into [phrasal verb] hammer (something) into (someone) : to force (something) to be learned very well by (someone) by repeating it again and again ▪ They are constantly trying to hammer good manners into their children. ▪ She hammered it into me that I could succeed.

hammer out [phrasal verb] hammer out (something) or hammer (something) out : to produce (something, such as an agreement) by a lot of discussion or argument ▪ After hours of discussion, we finally hammered out an agreement/deal. ▪ We'll hammer the details out later.

hammered adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] slang : very drunk ▪ They got/were hammered last night.

ham•mer•ing /ˈhæmərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 : the sound made when something is being hit by a hammer, by rain, etc. [noncount] Loud hammering was coming from next door. ▪ We could hear the hammering of the rain on the roof. [singular] We could hear a loud hammering from next door.

2 [singular] informal — used to say that someone or something has been very forcefully hit, damaged, criticized, etc. ▪ The old church got/took quite a hammering [=was badly damaged] during the storm. ▪ The governor took a hammering from the media for his decision. ▪ Our team got/took quite a hammering [=was badly beaten] in yesterday's game.

hammer throw noun

the hammer throw : [1]HAMMER 5b

ham•mock /ˈhæmək/ noun, pl -mocks [count] : a type of bed that consists of a piece of cloth hung between two trees, poles, etc.

hammock

[1]ham•per /ˈhæmpə/ verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] : to slow the movement, progress, or action of (someone or something) ▪ Bad weather could hamper our search efforts. = Bad weather

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

could hamper us in our search efforts. ▪ The project was hampered by budget restraints. ▪ Construction is hampering traffic on the highway.

[2]hamper noun, pl -pers [count] : a large basket usually with a cover: such as a : a basket for food ▪ a picnic hamper b US : a basket for holding dirty clothes until they can be washed ▪ a clothes hamper — see picture at BATHROOM

ham•ster /ˈhæmstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a small animal that is often kept as a pet

[1]ham•string /ˈhæmˌstrɪŋ/ noun, pl -strings [count]
1 : a tendon at the back of a person's knee
2 : a muscle at the back of a person's upper leg ▪ This exercise will strengthen your hamstrings. = This exercise will strengthen your hamstring muscles.

[2]hamstring verb -strings; -strung /-ˌstrʌŋ/; -string•ing [+ obj] : to damage or ruin the force or effectiveness of (something or someone) ▪ The mayor tried to hamstring our efforts by cutting the budget. ▪ The company claims it is being hamstrung by government regulations.

[1]hand /ˈhænd/ noun, pl hands
1 [count] a : the body part at the end of your arm that includes your fingers and thumb ▪ These gloves will keep your hands warm. ▪ She put her hands over her eyes. ▪ He sat quietly with his hands folded in his lap. b — used in some phrases to refer to a person ▪ I'm afraid this job will need more than one pair of hands. [=more than one person] ▪ It's a big job, but many hands make light work. [=if many people work on it, it will be easier to do]
2 hands [plural] : power, possession, or control ▪ The maps were in the hands of the enemy. [=the enemy had the maps] ▪ The land between these mountains remains in private hands. [=is privately owned]
3 [singular] : physical help : assistance in doing something ▪ Do you need a hand? ▪ I'll be happy to lend a hand. [=help] — often + with ▪ Can you give/lend me a hand with [=help me with] this suitcase? ▪ Let me give you a hand with that. — see also HELPING HAND
4 [count] : a long, thin part that points to a number on a clock or dial ▪ Many clocks have a second hand, a minute hand, and an hour hand.
5 [noncount] somewhat old-fashioned : a promise of marriage ▪ He asked for her hand (in marriage). [=he asked her to marry him] ▪ She offered her hand in marriage to him. [=she said that she would marry him] ▪ She gave him her hand in marriage. [=she married him]
6 [singular] : the act of hitting your hands together to show approval, appreciation, etc. : the act of applauding ▪ Let's give him a big hand! [=a big round of applause]
7 [count] a : the cards that are held by a player in a card game ▪ He studied his hand before deciding how much to bet. — often used figuratively ▪ The program is designed to help children who have been dealt a cruel hand in life. [=children who have suffered or had bad things happen to them] ▪ Even her critics say her chances of succeeding are great since she has been dealt such a strong hand. [=she is in a strong position] — see also overplay your hand at OVERPLAY b : a single round of play in a card game ▪ He lost the first hand but won the next two.
8 [count] a : a hired worker ▪ factory hands ▪ The cowboys were simply hired hands with no ownership rights. — see also FARMHAND, OLD HAND, STAGEHAND b : a member of a ship's crew — usually plural ▪ All hands on deck!
9 [count] : someone who performs or produces something (such as a work of art) — usually singular ▪ These two portraits are by the same hand. [=by the same artist]
10 [singular] : a particular way or style of doing or handling something ▪ The hand of a master is evident in these sculptures. [=these sculptures were obviously done by a very skillful artist] ▪ He runs the business with a firm hand. ▪ a cook who has a heavy hand with the salt [=who uses too much salt] — see also HEAVY-HANDED
11 [singular] old-fashioned : the way a person's writing looks : a type of handwriting ▪ a note written in an elegant hand
12 [count] : a unit of measure equal to 4 inches (about 10.16 centimeters) and used especially to measure the height of horses ▪ a horse that is 15 hands high a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush see BIRD a show of hands see [2]SHOW at first hand see [1]FIRST at hand : close in distance or time ▪ She likes to keep the phone (close) at hand. ▪ We need to address the problem at hand [=the particular problem we are dealing with] and not argue about these other issues.
at the hand(s) of : by or through the action of (someone or something) ▪ They were treated badly at the hands of the prison guards. ▪ The people had suffered at the hands of a cruel dictator.
by hand 1 : with the hands ▪ The stone was carved by hand. 2 : from one person directly to another ▪ I delivered the document to his office by hand.
by the hand : by holding someone's hand ▪ I took him by the hand and led him through the crowd. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You can't expect me to lead you by the hand through every difficult situation.
by your own hand : by your own actions ▪ She died by her own hand. [=she killed herself; she committed suicide]
change hands see [1]CHANGE eat out of someone's hand see EAT fall into the hands of see [1]FALL fall into the wrong hands see [1]FALL force someone's hand see [2]FORCE get your hands dirty see [1]DIRTY get/lay your hands on : to find, get, or control (someone or something) ▪ I'm still trying to lay my hands on my car keys. ▪ He couldn't wait to get his hands on her money. ▪ Wait until I get my hands on you. [=you will be in trouble when I catch you] give your right hand see [1]GIVE good with your hands : skillful at things that require the use of your hands ▪ He's always been good with his hands.
grease the hand of see [2]GREASE hand and foot 1 — used to describe someone whose hands and feet are tied to prevent escape or movement ▪ The prisoner was bound/tied hand and foot. 2 ✧ To wait on someone hand and foot is to provide everything that someone needs or wants. ▪ I can't stand the way they wait on her hand and foot!
hand in glove : very closely ▪ We are working hand in glove with the police to recover the stolen property.
hand in hand 1 : holding hands : grasping another person's hand ▪ They walked on the beach hand in hand. 2 — used to say that two people or things are very closely connected or related ▪ In a film, the images and sounds go hand in hand. ▪ The chef works hand in hand [=very closely] with a nutritionist.
hand over fist informal — used to say that someone is earning or losing money very quickly or in large amounts ▪ They were making/earning money hand over fist.
hands are tied ✧ If your hands are tied you cannot do anything about a situation because you do not have the power to act freely. ▪ I'd like to help you, but my hands are tied. ▪ The judge says her hands are tied because the law requires a harsh sentence in such cases.
hands off — used as a command to tell someone not to touch something ▪ Hands off my property! ▪ "Those cookies look delicious." "Hands off! We're saving them for later."
hand to mouth : without much money : in poverty ▪ They have been living hand to mouth since he lost his job. = It's been hand to mouth since he lost his job. — see also HAND-TO-MOUTH hat in hand (US) or Brit cap in hand : asking or begging for something in a respectful way ▪ He came to me, hat in hand, asking if I could get him a job at the company.
have a hand in : to be involved in (something) ▪ She had a hand in designing the new highway. ▪ Did he have a hand in this decision?
have someone in the palm of your hand see [1]PALM have your hands full : to be very busy ▪ She'll have her hands full with the new baby.
heavy on your hands see [2]HEAVY hold hands or hold someone's hand 1 : to hold a person's hand in one of your hands for a period of time ▪ two people holding hands ▪ He held hands with his daughter. ▪ He held her hand as they walked. 2 : to guide someone through a process by carefully explaining each step ▪ I don't need you to hold my hand.
in good/safe hands : being taken care of very well ▪ With her in charge, the office is in good hands. [=she will do the job well] ▪ You're in safe hands with us. [=you will be safe with us] in hand 1 : in your possession or control ▪ We started our hike with compass and map in hand. ▪ He has the situation well in hand. [=he is in control of the situation] ✧ To take someone in hand is to begin to guide or direct someone who has been behaving badly. ▪ You need someone to take

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

you in hand, young lady, and show you how to behave! 2 chiefly Brit : available for use ▪ If we work at this rate we'll have a month in hand before our deadline is up!

join hands see JOIN

keep your hand in informal : to continue to be involved in some activity ▪ He retired several years ago, but he still comes by the office occasionally because he likes to keep his hand in (the business).

keep/get your hands off (of) : to not touch (something) ▪ Keep your hands off the cookies! We're saving them for later. — often used figuratively ▪ The military is asking lawmakers to keep their hands off [=not change] the defense budget.

know (something) like the back of your hand see ¹KNOW lay a hand on : to touch or harm (someone) ▪ He claims that he never laid a hand on her.

off your hands : no longer in your possession or no longer your responsibility ▪ If you don't want those golf clubs anymore, I'll be glad to take them off your hands. [=I'll be glad to take them] ▪ She's trying to find a way to get some of that extra work off her hands.

on hand 1 : available for use ▪ We have plenty of water on hand. 2 : present and available to do something ▪ Five musicians were on hand to accompany her. ▪ A priest was on hand to console them.

on the one hand, on the other hand — used to introduce statements that describe two different or opposite ideas, people, etc. ▪ On the one hand, I think the price is fair, but on the other (hand), I really can't afford to spend that much money. ▪ He's a good guy. His brother, on the other hand, is a very selfish man.

on your hands — used to say that you have something or are responsible for something ▪ With all that extra work on her hands she'll need all the help she can get. ▪ Once this project is over she should have some time on her hands. [=free time] — see also blood on your hands at BLOOD on your hands and knees : with your hands and knees on the ground : in a crawling position ▪ She went down on her hands and knees.

out of hand 1 : very quickly without serious thought ▪ He rejected the plan out of hand. ▪ Suggestions that the hearing should be delayed were dismissed out of hand. 2 : not controlled ▪ The kids were (getting) out of hand. [=were behaving in a wild and uncontrolled way] ▪ He warns that technology is getting out of hand.

out of your hands — used to say that you cannot control something ▪ The decision is out of my hands.

play into someone's hands see ¹PLAY

putty in your hands see ¹PUTTY

safe pair of hands Brit : someone who can be trusted with responsibility or a job ▪ The next leader of the party should be a safe pair of hands.

sit on your hands see ¹SIT take (something) into your (own) hands : to take control of something ▪ The judge had no sympathy for people who insisted on taking the law into their own hands. [=trying to punish criminals themselves instead of allowing the legal system to do it] ▪ After months of waiting for something to happen, he decided to take matters into his own hands.

to hand : available for use ▪ I don't have all the latest data (immediately) to hand.

try your hand : to try to do something — usually + at ▪ She wanted to try her hand at photography.

turn your hand to : to begin doing (something) usually in a skillful way : to start (a new activity, field of study, etc.) ▪ an actress who has turned her hand to directing ▪ After he left publishing, he turned his hand to law.

wash your hands of see ¹WASH with your bare hands : using only your hands and no tools or weapons ▪ He tried to kill me with his bare hands.

– see also FIRSTHAND, HANDS DOWN, SECONDHAND, SLEIGHT OF HAND, UPPER HAND

²hand verb hands; hand•ed; hand•ing [+ obj] : to give (something) to someone using your hands ▪ He handed her a letter. = He handed a letter to her. ▪ Hand me that picture.

hand back [phrasal verb] hand (something) back or hand back (something) : to return (something) by handing it to someone ▪ He handed the letter back (to her) without reading it. ▪ The clerk handed back my credit card.

hand down [phrasal verb] hand (something) down or hand down (something) 1 : to pass (something) from a person who is older (such as a parent) to a person who is younger (such as a child) ▪ She will hand the diamond ring down to her niece. ▪ The farm was handed down from generation to generation. 2 chiefly US, law : to form and express (a decision or opinion) in writing ▪ The Supreme Court has handed down its decision.

hand in [phrasal verb] hand (something) in or hand in (something) : to give (something) to a person who will review or accept it ▪ Students should hand their papers in on Thursday. ▪ He handed in his resignation.

hand it to informal : to give credit to (someone) for doing something ▪ I've got to hand it to you. You did a great job planning the party.

hand off [phrasal verb] hand (something) off or hand off (something) US : to give (something) to another person ▪ (American football) The quarterback handed off the ball to the halfback. ▪ She handed the job off to her assistant.

hand on [phrasal verb] hand (something) on or hand on (something) formal : to pass (something) from one person to another ▪ These stories have been handed on from generation to generation.

hand out [phrasal verb] hand (something) out or hand out (something) : to give (something) to several or many people ▪ They will hand out [=distribute] copies of the newsletter today. ▪ He's always handing out advice to the people he works with. ▪ She handed flyers out at the grocery store.

hand over [phrasal verb] hand (someone or something) over or hand over (someone or something) : to give up control or possession of (something or someone) ▪ They demanded that he hand the documents over to them. ▪ They agreed to hand over their hostages.

hand•bag /ˈhændˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] : a woman's small bag or purse used for carrying personal things and money — see picture at BAG

hand baggage noun [noncount] : HAND LUGGAGE

hand•ball /ˈhændˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls
1 [noncount] : a game for two or four players who use their hands to hit a ball against a wall
2 [count] : the ball used in handball hand•bas•ket /ˈhændˌbæskət/ noun

go to hell in a handbasket US, informal : to become completely ruined ▪ He's convinced that the country is going to hell in a handbasket.

hand•bill /ˈhændˌbɪl/ noun, pl -bills [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a small printed advertisement or announcement that is given out to many people by hand hand•book /ˈhændˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a small book that gives useful information about a particular subject ▪ a handbook of English ▪ a writer's handbook

hand brake noun, pl ~ brakes [count]
1 : a brake that is operated by pushing or pulling a lever with your hand
2 : PARKING BRAKE

¹hand•craft /ˈhændˌkræft, Brit ˈhændˌkrɑːft/ verb -crafts; -craft•ed; -craft•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) by using your hands ▪ She handcrafted a set of bowls out of red clay.
– handcrafted adj ▪ a handcrafted [=handmade] set of bowls ▪ a beautiful handcrafted bed

²handcraft noun, pl -crafts [count] : HANDICRAFT hand•cuff /ˈhændˌkʌf/ verb -cuffs; -cuffed; -cuf• ng [+ obj] : to put handcuffs on (someone) ▪ handcuff a prisoner hand•cuffs /ˈhændˌkʌfs/ noun [plural] : a set of two metal rings that are joined together and locked around a person's wrists ▪ Police put handcuffs on the prisoner.

hand–eye coordination noun [noncount] : the way that your hands and sight work together so you are able to do things that require speed and accuracy (such as catching or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h hitting a ball) ▪ an athlete with good hand-eye coordination

hand•ful /ˈhændˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls
1 [count] : an amount that you can hold in your hand ▪ The children collected seashells by the handful. — often + of ▪ a handful of strawberries
2 [singular] : a small amount or number — often + of ▪ Only a handful of people showed up for the lecture.
3 [singular] informal : someone or something that is difficult to control ▪ Our dog is a real handful.

hand•gun /ˈhændˌgʌn/ noun, pl -guns [count] : a small gun (such as a revolver or a pistol) designed to be held and shot with one hand

[1]hand•held /ˈhændˌhɛld/ adj, always used before a noun : designed to be used while being held in your hands ▪ a hand-held movie camera

[2]handheld noun, pl -helds [count] : a small electronic device or computer that fits in your hand hand•hold /ˈhændˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count] : a place or part on a surface that you can hold on to with your hand while climbing a cliff, mountain, etc.

hand–hold•ing /ˈhændˌhoʊldɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : patient attention, support, or instruction ▪ New computer users often require a good deal of hand-holding. — see also hold hands at [1]HAND

[1]hand•i•cap /ˈhændiˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count]
1 sometimes offensive : a physical or mental condition that may limit what a person can do : a physical or mental disability ▪ a mental/physical handicap ✧ Some people consider the word handicap offensive in this sense and prefer the word disability.
2 : a problem, situation, or event that makes progress or success difficult ▪ His shyness was a handicap in his job.
3 golf : a number that shows a golfer's level of skill and that is used to allow golfers of different abilities to compete with each other ▪ She's been practicing a lot and her handicap has gone down from 18 to 12.
4 : a horse race in which some horses are required to carry more weight so that all the horses in the race will have an equal chance of winning

[2]handicap verb -caps; -capped; -cap•ping [+ obj]
1 : to make success or progress difficult for (someone) — usually used as (be) handicapped ▪ He was handicapped by his extreme shyness.
2 US : to make a judgment about the likely winner of a race or contest ▪ handicap the horses in a race = handicap a race ▪ It's very hard to handicap the election at this point.
– hand•i•cap•per /ˈhændiˌkæpə/ noun, pl -pers [count]

hand•i•capped /ˈhændiˌkæpt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] sometimes offensive : having a physical or mental condition that limits what a person can do : having a handicap ▪ He has been handicapped since his motorcycle accident. ▪ physically/mentally handicapped ✧ Some people consider the word handicapped offensive in this sense and prefer disabled.
2 : designed or reserved for disabled people ▪ handicapped parking spaces ▪ a handicapped entrance hand•i•craft /ˈhændiˌkræft, Brit ˈhændiˌkrɑːft/ noun, pl -crafts [count]

1 : an activity that involves making something in a skillful way by using your hands ▪ Her favorite handicraft is sewing.
2 : an object made by skillful use of your hands — usually plural ▪ The street is lined with vendors selling handicrafts. — called also handcraft hand•i•ly /ˈhændəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : without trouble : very easily ▪ He won the card game handily.

hand•i•work /ˈhændiˌwɝk/ noun [noncount]
1 : work that is done by using your hands ▪ They admired the potter's beautiful handiwork.
2 : something done by a particular person or group ▪ I think all of these problems are her handiwork.

hand•ker•chief /ˈhæŋkɚtʃəf/ noun, pl -chiefs also -chieves /ˈhæŋkɚtʃəfs/ [count] : a small cloth used for wiping your face, nose, or eyes — called also (informal) hankie

[1]han•dle /ˈhændl/ noun, pl han•dles [count]
1 : a part of something that is designed to be held by your hand ▪ He held the shovel by the/its handle. ▪ The handles on the bag were torn. ▪ a door handle [=the part that you turn with your hand to open a door] — see picture at BAG; see also LOVE HANDLES 2 slang : [1]NICKNAME ▪ What's your handle?
fly off the handle see [1]FLY get/have a handle on informal : to understand (something) ▪ I can't quite get a handle on the way this machine works. ▪ It seemed like she had a good handle on the situation. [=she understood the situation and was able to deal with it]
– han•dled /ˈhændld/ adj — usually used in combination ▪ a wooden-handled basket

[2]handle verb handles; han•dled; han•dling
1 [+ obj] a : to touch, feel, hold, or move (something) with your hand ▪ Handle the fruit carefully or it will bruise. ▪ The baked potatoes were too hot to handle with our bare hands. b : to manage or control (something) with your hands ▪ He knows how to handle a motorcycle. ▪ He handles his motorcycle well. ▪ She learned how to handle a weapon.
2 [+ obj] : to do the work required for (something) ▪ She handles all the bookkeeping. ▪ The system is handled by the main computer. ▪ She's proven that she can handle anything. ▪ The airport handles both passenger and cargo flights.
3 [+ obj] : to deal with (a person, situation, etc.) successfully ▪ She couldn't handle being away from her children for more than a couple of days. ▪ He's having a hard time handling the pressure of his new job. ▪ A good politician knows how to handle the press. ▪ Do you think he can handle the truth?
4 [+ obj] : to express thoughts about (something) in a piece of music, writing, or art ▪ The class discussed how the author handled [=dealt with] the theme of loneliness in the novel.
5 [+ obj] : to be involved with the buying or selling of (something) ▪ They own a store that handles rugs. ▪ He was arrested for handling stolen goods.
6 [no obj] — used to describe how easy or difficult it is to control a vehicle ▪ I'm looking for a car that handles well in the snow. ▪ "How does his motorcycle handle?" "It handles very well."
handle yourself : to behave ▪ She closely watched how the boys handled themselves at the ceremony. ▪ She handled herself well under very difficult circumstances. — see also HANDLING han•dle•bar /ˈhændlˌbɑɚ/ noun, pl -bars [count] : a straight or bent bar with a handle at each end that is used to steer a bicycle, motorcycle, etc. — usually plural ▪ Keep both hands on the handlebars. — see picture at BICYCLE handlebar mustache noun, pl ~ -taches [count] : a thick, long mustache that curves upward at the ends

han•dler /ˈhændlɚ/ noun, pl -dlers [count]
1 : a person who trains or controls an animal ▪ a dog handler and breeder
2 : a person who carries or handles something ▪ a baggage handler ▪ food handlers
3 chiefly US : a person who guides, helps, or manages a political or public figure ▪ a politician and his handlers

han•dling /ˈhændlɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the act of touching, feeling, holding, or moving something ▪ These items require careful handling. b : the way that someone deals with a person, event, situation, etc. — often + of ▪ His handling of the situation could not have been worse. ▪ The media's handling of the tragedy has been criticized.
2 : the act or process of packing and shipping something to someone (such as a customer) ▪ There are additional charges for shipping and handling.
3 : the way a vehicle moves when it is driven or ridden ▪ The car's handling was smooth.

hand luggage noun [noncount] : small pieces of luggage that a passenger can carry onto an airplane ▪ You are entitled to one piece of hand luggage per flight.

hand•made /ˈhændˈmeɪd/ adj : made with the hands or by using hand tools ▪ a handmade rug ▪ handmade furniture hand•maid /ˈhændˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] : HANDMAIDEN

hand•maid•en /ˈhændˌmeɪdn/ noun, pl -ens [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a female servant or maid — usually used figuratively ▪ He feels that government has become the handmaiden of corporate interests. [=the government only serves corporate interests]

hand–me–down /ˈhændmiˌdaʊn/ adj : owned or used by someone else before you : SECONDHAND — used especially of clothing ▪ He was wearing an old, hand-me-down jacket. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has some old-fashioned, hand-me-down notions about the role of women.
– hand–me–down noun, pl -downs [count] ▪ Her closet was full of hand-me-downs from her older sisters.

hand•off /ˈhændˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] American football : an act of handing the ball to another player ▪ He fum-

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h bled the ball while attempting a handoff. — see also hand off at ²HAND hand•out /ˈhændˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : something (such as food, clothing, or money) that is given to someone who is poor ▪ He sat on the sidewalk asking for a handout. ▪ The family wasn't interested in government handouts. — see also hand out at ²HAND
2 : a document that is given to people ▪ The handouts had all the major points of his speech outlined on them. ▪ advertising handouts

hand•over /ˈhændˌoʊvɚ/ noun [singular] : the act or process of giving control of someone or something to another person, country, etc. ▪ the handover of power from the old government to the new government — see also hand over at ²HAND hand•pick /ˈhændˈpɪk/ verb -picks; -picked; -pick•ing [+ obj]

1 : to pick (something, such as a fruit) by using your hand ▪ They run a farm where you can handpick fresh strawberries. ▪ a box of handpicked strawberries
2 : to choose (something or someone) carefully by yourself instead of letting someone else do it ▪ The executive handpicked her successor.

hand puppet noun, pl ~ -pets [count] US : a puppet that fits over your hand like a glove and is moved by the fingers and hand of its wearer — called also (Brit) glove puppet hand•rail /ˈhændˌreɪl/ noun, pl -rails [count] : a narrow bar placed on the side of a walkway or a flight of stairs that you can hold as you walk hand•saw /ˈhændˌsɑː/ noun, pl -saws [count] : a saw designed to be used with one hand hands down /ˈhændzˈdaʊn/ adv, informal

1 : without much effort : very easily ▪ She could win any race hands down.
2 : without any doubt : DEFINITELY ▪ It's hands down the best movie of the year.
– hands–down /ˈhændzˌdaʊn/ adj, informal ▪ the hands-down favorite to win

hand•set /ˈhændˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count] : the part of a telephone that you hold near your ear and mouth for listening and speaking — see picture at TELEPHONE hands–free adj, always used before a noun : designed to be used without being held in your hands ▪ a hands-free cell phone hand•shake /ˈhændˌʃeɪk/ noun, pl -shakes [count] : the act of grasping someone's right hand with your right hand and moving it up and down : the act of shaking hands ▪ She greeted him with a handshake.; also : the manner in which a person shakes hands ▪ He has a firm/weak handshake. ✧ A handshake is often the way people greet each other, but it is also used when people part from each other or when they have made an agreement. ▪ The deal was sealed with a handshake. — see also GOLDEN HANDSHAKE hands–off /ˈhændzˈɑːf/ adj, always used before a noun : allowing people to do what they want to do without bothering or stopping them ▪ His hands-off approach to teaching allows students to choose the focus of their studies.

hand•some /ˈhænsəm/ adj hand•som•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : pleasing to look at : ATTRACTIVE ▪ It was a handsome house situated on a large lot. ▪ The book includes many handsome illustrations.; especially, of a person : having a pleasing appearance that causes romantic or sexual feelings in someone ▪ a handsome face ▪ I predict that someone tall, dark, and handsome is going to come into your life. ✧ Men are more frequently described as handsome than women. synonyms see BEAUTIFUL
2 always used before a noun : large in size or amount ▪ He inherited a handsome fortune. ▪ He made a handsome profit on the sale of the house. ▪ They made handsome [=generous] contributions to charity.
3 always used before a noun : done or achieved in an impressive way ▪ The book is a handsome tribute to a great poet. ▪ (chiefly Brit) She won a handsome victory in the election.
– hand•some•ly adv ▪ The book is handsomely illustrated with ink drawings. ▪ He was handsomely [=generously] rewarded for his loyalty. – hand•some•ness noun [noncount] ▪ an actor known for his rugged handsomeness

hands–on /ˈhændzˈɑːn/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : gained by actually doing something rather than learning about it from books, lectures, etc. ▪ New employees are given hours of hands-on training. ▪ They need hands-on experience with the machinery. b : involving or allowing the use of your hands or touching with your hands ▪ The children's museum is full of hands-on displays. ▪ hands-on activities
2 [more ~; most ~] : actively and personally involved in something (such as running a business) ▪ He felt strongly that the staff needed a more hands-on manager. ▪ She's always been very hands-on when it comes to running the restaurant.

hand•spring /ˈhændˌsprɪŋ/ noun, pl -springs [count] : a fast movement in which you jump forward or backward, land on your hands, swing your legs up and over your body, and then land on your feet ▪ He did a handspring on the lawn.

hand•stand /ˈhændˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] : the act of balancing on your hands with the body and legs straight up in the air hand–to–hand /ˈhændtəˈhænd/ adj, always before a noun : involving physical contact between people — used to describe fighting that is done with the hands or with knives, clubs, etc., instead of guns, arrows, etc. ▪ hand-to-hand combat hand–to–mouth /ˈhændtəˈmaʊθ/ adj : having only enough money to survive ▪ After the factories closed, many people lived a hand-to-mouth existence. [=many people were poor] — see also hand to mouth at ¹HAND hand tool noun, pl ~ tools [count] : a small tool (such as a hammer or wrench) that usually does not use electricity hand towel noun, pl ~ -els [count] : a small towel for drying your hands — see picture at BATHROOM hand•work /ˈhændˌwɚk/ noun [noncount] : work done with your hands and not by a machine ▪ She wore a beaded dress that required many hours of handwork.

hand•wo•ven /ˈhændˈwoʊvən/ adj : woven by hand : woven using a machine (called a loom) that is not powered by electricity ▪ handwoven cloth/fabrics hand–wring•ing /ˈhændˌrɪŋɪŋ/ noun [noncount] disapproving : worried talk or behavior ▪ There has been a lot of silly hand-wringing over the latest hike in interest rates.

– hand•wring•er /ˈhændˌrɪŋɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

hand•writ•ing /ˈhændˌraɪtɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] : the way a person's writing looks ▪ Her handwriting is nearly impossible to read.
handwriting (is) on the wall see ¹WALL hand•writ•ten /ˈhændˌrɪtn/ adj : written with a pen or pencil and not with a computer or typewriter ▪ a handwritten note handy /ˈhændi/ adj hand•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : very useful or helpful ▪ a handy cookbook/gadget ▪ a handy little tool ▪ The extra batteries for the flashlight came in handy [=were useful] when the electricity went off. b : near or close ▪ He always liked to keep a dictionary handy. [=on hand, nearby] ▪ (Brit) My flat is handy for [=near to] the underground.
2 : clever or skillful in using your hands, doing small jobs, etc. ▪ She's handy with a needle and thread. ▪ He's handy around the house.

handy•man /ˈhændiˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who is skillful at doing small jobs (such as household repairs)
handyman's special US, informal : a house that is being sold at a low price because it needs many repairs

¹hang /ˈhæŋ/ verb hangs; hung /ˈhʌŋ/ or in sense 3 hanged; hang•ing
1 a : to attach or place something so that it is held up without support from below [+ obj] He hung the painting on the wall. ▪ We hung paper lanterns from the trees. ▪ My grandmother used to hang the wash on a clothesline. [no obj] A photograph of her family hangs on the wall. ▪ Several of her paintings are hanging in the Museum of Modern Art. ▪ Your coat is hanging in the closet. ▪ The curtains hang all the way (down) to the floor. — see also HANG UP 2 (below) b [+ obj] : to decorate (a surface) by hanging something (such as a picture) on it — usually used as (be) hung ▪ The walls are hung with paintings. [=there are paintings hanging on the walls] c [+ obj] : to put (wallpaper) on a wall ▪ They plan to hang wallpaper in the hallway.
2 [no obj] : to be in a lowered position ▪ He let his arm hang down into the water. ▪ We hung [=leaned] over the side of the boat and waved. ▪ Her hair hung loose/limply.
3 past tense and past participle usually hanged a : to kill (someone) by using a rope that goes around the neck and holds the person's body in the air without any support from below [+ obj] They will hang him in the county jailhouse. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

He was hanged for his crimes. ▪ He hanged himself. [no obj] He hanged for his crimes. b old-fashioned — used to express surprise, anger, etc. ▪ We need those supplies now, hang the cost! [=we need them no matter how much they cost] ▪ I'll be hanged if I'll do anything to help him. [=I won't do anything to help him]

4 [no obj] : to float over a place or object for a long time ▪ Storm clouds were hanging low overhead. ▪ Smoke hung above the crowd. ▪ The smell of perfume hung in the air around her.

5 [no obj] — used to say that a decision has not yet been made ▪ The decision is still hanging. — see also HUNG JURY, HUNG PARLIAMENT

6 [no obj] US, informal : to be or stay somewhere for a period of time without doing much ▪ We were hanging [=hanging around/out] at Suzee's.

7 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to make (a turn) especially while driving ▪ Hang a right at the stoplight.

8 [no obj] baseball, of a pitch : to fail to curve in the desired way ▪ a hanging curveball

a peg to hang something on see [1]PEG hang around or Brit hang about/round [phrasal verb] informal 1 hang around/about/round or hang around/about/round (a place) : to be or stay in a place for a period of time without doing much ▪ We just hung around all afternoon, listening to music. ▪ They hung around the theater after the play was over. 2 hang around/about/round with (someone) : to spend time relaxing, talking, or doing things with (someone) ▪ She hangs around with older kids. ▪ Who does he usually hang around with?

hang back [phrasal verb] 1 : to be or stay behind others ▪ The little girl followed the older children but hung back a little. 2 : to be unwilling to do something because of nervousness, fear, etc. ▪ When there's work to be done, she doesn't hang back.

hang by a thread : to be in a very dangerous situation or state : to be very close to death, failure, etc. ▪ The patient's life was hanging by a thread. [=the patient was very close to dying]

hang fire chiefly Brit : to be delayed ▪ The project has been hanging fire for several years. ▪ The decision is hanging fire.

hang in [phrasal verb] 1 chiefly US, informal : to keep working or trying in a difficult situation ▪ She says she'll hang in until she makes the business work. ▪ She did her best to hang in against some of the more experienced swimmers. — often used in the phrase hang in there ▪ Hang in there, kid! Don't quit! 2 hang in the air : to be incomplete or uncertain ▪ The design of the new currency is still hanging in the air.

hang loose see [2]LOOSE

hang on [phrasal verb] 1 : to keep happening or continuing ▪ He had a terrible cold that hung on all spring. 2 : to wait or stop briefly ▪ "Can we go now?" "Hang on, I'll be ready in just a minute." 3 hang on or hang on (to) (someone or something) : to hold or grip someone or something tightly ▪ Hang on or you'll fall! ▪ Hang on tight! ▪ The children hung on his arm. ▪ Hang on to your purse. ▪ The children hung on to his arm. 4 hang on to (something) : to keep (something) ▪ You should hang on to those old coins; they could be valuable. 5 a hang on (something) : to be determined or decided by (something) : to depend on (something) ▪ The decision hangs on one vote. b hang (something) on (something) : to base (a story, theory, etc.) on (something) ▪ There weren't enough facts on which to hang a newspaper story. ▪ You can't hang your case on her testimony. 6 hang on someone's every word : to listen very carefully or closely to (someone) ▪ The children hung on the teacher's every word.

hang out [phrasal verb] 1 informal : to be or stay somewhere for a period of time without doing much ▪ The gang hangs out at the corner store. ▪ Our dog spends all his time hanging out [=hanging around] on the front porch. — see also HANGOUT 2 hang out with (someone) informal : to spend time relaxing, talking, or doing something with (someone) : to hang around with (someone) ▪ He spent a couple of days hanging out with his old friends. 3 hang (something) out or hang out (something) : to hang (something wet) outside to dry ▪ I hung the laundry out on the clothesline. ▪ I hung out the sheets to dry. 4 hang (someone or something) out to dry informal : to leave (someone or something) in a helpless or unprotected state ▪ When things got tough, the company hung us out to dry.

hang out your shingle see [1]SHINGLE

hang over [phrasal verb] hang over (someone) : to be a threat or danger to (someone) : to cause (someone) to feel worried or guilty ▪ They are glad that the deadline is no longer hanging over them. ▪ I can't relax with that test hanging over my head. [=I can't relax until after I take that test] — see also HANGOVER hang tight [phrasal verb] US, informal : to wait before doing anything ▪ Investors are being advised to hang tight until the stock market rebounds.

hang together [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to stay with someone ▪ If we just hang together a while longer, I know that we can work out our problems. 2 : to work in a logical and effective way ▪ The movie starts out well, but the story doesn't hang together after the first hour.

hang tough chiefly US, informal : to keep working or trying to succeed in a difficult situation ▪ The team hung tough through the whole game, but lost in the end.

hang up [phrasal verb] 1 hang up or hang up (something) or hang (something) up : to end a telephone connection by putting the handset on its base or by turning the telephone off ▪ "Is he still on the phone?" "No, he hung up." ▪ Let me talk to her before you hang up the phone. — often + on ▪ I can't believe he hung up on me! [=that he suddenly hung up while I was talking to him on the phone] 2 hang (something) up or hang up (something) : to put (something) on a hook or hanger ▪ Hang up your coat, please. — see also [1]HANG 1a (above) 3 hang up (something) informal : to stop doing (something) : to finish using (something) for the last time — used figuratively ▪ She decided to hang up her running shoes [=she decided to quit running] and to start riding her bike instead. 4 hang it up US, informal : to stop doing something ▪ After all this time, you're just going to hang it up? [=quit] — see also HUNG UP hang with [phrasal verb] hang with (someone) US, informal 1 : to spend time with (someone) ▪ He's just been hanging with his friends. 2 : to stay close to (someone) : to keep up with (someone) ▪ He hung with the leaders for the first half of the race, but then he began to fall behind.

hang your hat see HAT

hang your head : to have your head turned downward because of shame or embarrassment ▪ He hung his head in shame.

let it all hang out see [1]LET thereby hangs a tale — used to suggest that there is a story about something that has just been mentioned ▪ I realized where I had seen him before—and thereby hangs a tale.

[2]hang noun [singular] : the way in which something hangs ▪ the hang of a skirt get the hang of informal : to learn the skills that are needed to do (something) ▪ He was finally getting the hang of his job. [=he was finally beginning to understand and become skillful in his job] ▪ She's getting the hang of driving.

give a hang informal : to be concerned or worried about something — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't give a hang [=I don't care] what they say.

hang•ar /ˈhæŋɚ/ noun, pl -ars [count] : a building where aircraft are kept hang•dog /ˈhæŋˌdɑːg/ adj [more ~; most ~] : sad or depressed ▪ He came home with a hangdog expression/look on his face.

hang•er /ˈhæŋɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a usually curved piece of metal, plastic, or wood that is used for hanging clothing hang•er–on /ˈhæŋɚˌɑːn/ noun, pl hang•ers–on [count] : someone who spends a lot of time around a person, place, or group in order to get something (such as fame, money, or power) ▪ a star who is always surrounded by hangers-on

hang glider noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a small aircraft that consists of a metal frame covered with strong cloth and that is flown through the air by a person who hangs beneath it; also : a person who flies a hang glider – hang gliding noun [noncount] ▪ I've always wanted to try hang gliding.

hang•ing /ˈhæŋɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 : the act of killing someone by hanging that person from a rope tied around the neck [count] The hanging was scheduled for 3 o'clock. [noncount] He was sentenced to death by hanging.
2 [count] : something (such as a curtain) that is hung on a wall especially for decoration — often plural ▪ There were several antique wall hangings in the house.

hang•man /ˈhæŋmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person who kills criminals by hanging them

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

hang•nail /ˈhæŋˌneɪl/ noun, pl -nails [count] : a small piece of skin hanging loose at the side or bottom of a fingernail hang•out /ˈhæŋˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] informal : a place where a person spends a lot of time ▪ The park was their favorite hangout. — see also hang out at [1]HANG hang•over /ˈhæŋˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count] : a sick feeling or condition that comes after drinking too much alcohol at an earlier time ▪ She woke up with a hangover.

hang time noun [noncount] US, informal : the amount of time that something (especially a ball that is hit, kicked, or thrown) remains in the air ▪ He got some amazing hang time on that pass.

hang–up /ˈhæŋˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : something that causes you to feel worried, afraid, embarrassed, etc. ▪ We all have our hang-ups. — often + about ▪ He has a lot of hang-ups about money.

hank /ˈhæŋk/ noun, pl hanks [count] : an amount of yarn, thread, etc., that has been wound into a large loop or loose ball — compare SKEIN han•ker /ˈhæŋkɚ/ verb -kers; -kered; -ker•ing [no obj] informal + old-fashioned : to have a strong or constant desire for something ▪ She is still hankering after [=longing for] a return to the good old days. = She is still hankering to return to the good old days. ▪ By the middle of the winter, they were hankering for a warm day.

– hankering noun [singular] informal + old-fashioned ▪ They had/felt a hankering for ice cream. ▪ She had a hankering to buy a new car.

han•kie or han•ky /ˈhæŋki/ noun, pl -kies [count] informal : HANDKERCHIEF han•ky–pan•ky /ˌhæŋkiˈpæŋki/ noun [noncount] informal 1 : sexual activity ▪ We thought there was some hanky-panky going on between him and his secretary.

2 : dishonest or suspicious activity ▪ They accused the company of financial hanky-panky.

Ha•nuk•kah also Cha•nu•kah /ˈhɑːnəkə/ noun, pl -kahs [count, noncount] : an eight-day Jewish holiday that is celebrated in November or December hap•haz•ard /ˌhæpˈhæzɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having no plan, order, or direction ▪ We were given a haphazard tour of the city. ▪ a haphazard procedure

– hap•haz•ard•ly adv ▪ Books and papers were scattered haphazardly on the desk.

hap•less /ˈhæpləs/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal + literary : having no luck : very unfortunate ▪ She plays the hapless heroine who is unlucky in love.

– hap•less•ly adv ▪ the movie's haplessly ineffectual hero

hap•pen /ˈhæpən/ verb -pens; -pened; -pen•ing [no obj]
1 : to take place especially without being planned : OCCUR ▪ Mistakes/Accidents will happen. ▪ Something like that was bound to happen sooner or later. ▪ You never know what's going to happen when they get together. ▪ What happened at school today? ▪ "What's happening?" "They're installing new equipment."
2 not used in progressive tenses a : to do or be something by chance — followed by to + verb ▪ The children happened to be asleep when we called. ▪ I happened to overhear their conversation. ▪ I happen to know his brother. ▪ Do you happen to know the way to the station? b — used with it to describe something that occurs by chance ▪ It (so) happened that the children were asleep when we called. ▪ It happened to rain that day. ▪ As it happened, it rained that day. ▪ It (just so) happens that I know his brother. c — used to make an angry or forceful statement; followed by to + verb ▪ The woman you've been looking at happens to be my wife! ▪ I happen to think that the movie was actually very good.

happen along or happen by [phrasal verb] US, literary + old-fashioned : to come to or by a place by chance ▪ He was about to leave when his old girlfriend happened by.

happen into [phrasal verb] happen into (a place) US : to enter (a place) by chance ▪ She happened into the room just as the music started.

happen on/upon [phrasal verb] happen on/upon (someone or something) literary + old-fashioned : to find or meet (someone or something) by chance ▪ She happened on a little cottage in the woods. ▪ I happened upon them at the grocery store.

happen to [phrasal verb] happen to (someone or something) : to affect or involve (someone or something) as the result of an event or action ▪ An odd thing happened to me on my way to the office last week. ▪ I wonder what/whatever happened to that guy. [=I wonder where that guy has gone and what he has been doing]; especially : to affect (someone or something) in a bad or harmful way ▪ I promise nothing will happen to you. ▪ What happened to the car? There's a big scratch on the fender.

[1]hap•pen•ing noun, pl -ings [count] : an event or occurrence — often plural ▪ There were strange happenings at the inn.

[2]happening adj [more ~; most ~] informal : fashionable or popular ▪ This is quite a happening town on the weekends.

hap•pen•stance /ˈhæpənˌstæns/ noun, pl -stances formal + literary : something that happens by chance [noncount] Our meeting was pure happenstance. ▪ We met each other by happenstance. [count] It was an agreeable happenstance that we met.

hap•pi•ly /ˈhæpəli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a happy way or state ▪ They have been happily married for 12 years. ▪ The story ended happily. ▪ She giggled happily. ▪ They lived happily ever after.
2 — used to say that something good or lucky has happened ▪ Happily, no one was injured. [=I am happy to say that no one was injured]
3 : in a very willing way ▪ He says he'll happily [=gladly] postpone the appointment. ▪ We happily accept credit cards.

hap•pi•ness /ˈhæpinəs/ noun, pl -ness•es
1 [noncount] : the state of being happy : JOY ▪ They made a toast to long life and happiness. ▪ They found happiness together.
2 [count] somewhat formal : an experience that makes you happy ▪ I wish the them every happiness. [=I hope that they will be very happy]

hap•py /ˈhæpi/ adj hap•pi•er; -est
1 a : feeling pleasure and enjoyment because of your life, situation, etc. ▪ She was a very happy child. ▪ I can see that you're not happy in your work. [=I can see that you do not enjoy your work] ▪ You don't look happy. What's the problem? ▪ We're all one big, happy family here. ▪ I'd do anything to make/keep her happy. ▪ She's happy playing with her toys. = She's happy when she plays with her toys. b : showing or causing feelings of pleasure and enjoyment ▪ I could hear the children's happy laughter in the other room. ▪ She had a very happy childhood. ▪ They've had a very happy marriage. ▪ remembering happier times ▪ a happy event/occasion ▪ I was glad the movie had a happy ending. c not used before a noun : pleased or glad about a particular situation, event, etc. ▪ We are so happy that you were able to come to the party. ▪ They are not at all happy about the rise in taxes. ▪ He's not happy with the way the project is going. ▪ It's great that he won the scholarship. I'm very happy for him. [=I am glad something good happened to him] d : very willing to do something — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I would be happy to assist you.
2 — used as part of a greeting or wish for someone on a special holiday or occasion ▪ Happy birthday, Mom! ▪ Happy Holidays!
3 always used before a noun : lucky or fortunate ▪ We were brought together by a series of happy accidents. ▪ a happy coincidence
4 always used before a noun : fitting or suitable ▪ a happy choice of words ▪ He was a happy choice for chairman of the committee.
(as) happy as a clam see [1]CLAM happy medium see [1]MEDIUM happy returns see [2]RETURN
– see also TRIGGER-HAPPY

happy camper noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US, informal : someone who is pleased or happy ▪ I was one happy camper when I heard the news. — often used in negative statements ▪ When she found out that the report wasn't ready, she was not a happy camper. [=she was angry or upset] hap•py–go–lucky /ˌhæpigoʊˈlʌki/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not worried about anything ▪ He's always been a happy-go-lucky guy. ▪ She has a happy-go-lucky disposition.

happy hour noun, pl ~ hours [count, noncount] : a time at a bar when drinks are sold at a lower price than usual ▪ Happy hour runs from 5:00 to 7:00.

[1]ha•rangue /həˈræŋ/ noun, pl -rangues [count] : a forceful or angry speech ▪ He delivered a long harangue about the evils of popular culture.

[2]harangue verb -rangues; -rangued; -rangu•ing [+ obj] : to speak to (someone) in a forceful or angry way : to deliver a harangue to (someone) ▪ He harangued us for hours

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

about the evils of popular culture.

ha•rass /hə'ræs, 'herəs/ verb -rass•es; -rassed; -rassing [+ obj]
1 : to annoy or bother (someone) in a constant or repeated way ▪ She was constantly harassed by the other students. ▪ He claims that he is being unfairly harassed by the police. ▪ He was accused of sexually harassing his secretary. [=of making unwanted sexual comments to her]
2 : to make repeated attacks against (an enemy) ▪ The troops harrassed the defeated army throughout its retreat.
– harassed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She looked very harassed and distraught. – ha•rass•ment /hə'ræsmənt, 'herəsmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ police harassment ▪ children subjected to harassment by bullies ▪ He was accused of sexual harassment.

har•bin•ger /'hɑəbənʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : something that shows what is coming — usually + of ▪ The warm weather is a harbinger of spring. ▪ Is this news a harbinger of better days to come? ▪ a harbinger of death/doom

[1]har•bor (US) or Brit har•bour /'hɑəbə/ noun, pl -bors [count]
1 : a part of the ocean, a lake, etc., that is next to land and that is protected and deep enough to provide safety for ships
2 : a place of safety and comfort : HAVEN — often used in the phrase safe harbor ▪ She can always find (a) safe harbor in her home.

[2]harbor (US) or Brit har•bour verb -bors; -bored; -boring [+ obj]
1 : to give shelter to (someone) : to hide and protect (someone) ▪ It is illegal to harbor an escaped convict.
2 : to have (something, such as a thought or feeling) in your mind for a long time ▪ He still harbors deep feelings of resentment toward his former employer. ▪ I don't harbor any illusions about our chances for success. ▪ harbor a grudge ▪ harbor doubts/bitterness
3 : to hold or contain (something) ▪ She studies the genetic material harbored in a cell's nucleus. ▪ Some of these animals may harbor disease that could affect humans.

[1]hard /'hɑəd/ adj hard•er; -est
1 : very firm or solid : not easy to bend, cut, etc. : not soft ▪ hard ground ▪ a hard bench/floor/shell ▪ hard cheese/rubber ▪ This bread is (as) hard as a rock. [=very hard] — opposite SOFT
2 : physically or mentally difficult : not easy ▪ That test was hard. ▪ a hard task ▪ hard work ▪ She was asked a lot of hard questions. ▪ We're going to have to make some hard choices/decisions. ▪ It's hard to solve this problem. = This is a hard problem (to solve). = This problem is hard (to solve). ▪ He's a hard guy to figure out. = He's a guy who's hard to figure out. = It's hard to figure that guy out. ▪ It was very hard to find a replacement for her. ▪ Their story is hard to believe. ▪ It's hard not to worry about her. ▪ It's hard to tell/know what she's thinking. ▪ He was sentenced to five years of hard labor. [=time in prison spent in intense physical labor]
3 a : difficult to experience : severe or harsh ▪ He has learned a hard lesson. ▪ It's been a hard winter. [=a very cold winter with harsh weather] : having a lot of pain, trouble, or worries ▪ She has had a very hard life. = Life has been very hard for her. ▪ I had a hard [=tough] day at the office. ▪ We've been having some hard [=poor, bad] luck. ✧ Hard times are times when there is a lot of trouble, poverty, worry, or failure. ▪ She's stuck with them through all the hard times. ▪ The region has been experiencing some economic hard times. ▪ After years of success, their business has fallen on hard times. b : having a harmful or destructive effect ▪ His health has suffered from years of hard living. ▪ This old bicycle has obviously gotten some hard use.
4 : working or doing something with a lot of energy ▪ She's a hard [=diligent, energetic] worker.
5 : very forceful ▪ The plane made a hard [=jarring] landing. ▪ He hit a hard line drive past the shortstop. ▪ A hard rain was falling. ▪ He was knocked out by a hard right to the jaw. : quick and forceful ▪ hard acceleration ▪ hard braking ▪ a hard left turn
6 : done with a lot of careful thought and attention : thorough or intense ▪ The jeweler gave the gem a long hard look. [=the jeweler looked at the gem very closely and carefully] ▪ Investors are taking a very hard look at how the company does business.
7 : able to be clearly seen and measured : not able to be questioned or doubted ▪ Those are the (cold) hard facts of the case. ▪ She is still collecting hard data on the software's performance. ▪ It's an interesting theory, but there is no hard evidence that supports it.
8 a : not seeming to care about other people or to feel kindness or affection ▪ He's a hard man. ▪ a hard taskmaster ▪ She has an extremely hard [=unfeeling] heart. ▪ He's as hard as nails. [=he's very hard or tough] — opposite SOFT b : not gentle or friendly ▪ hard [=harsh] words
9 : holding extreme political views ▪ a member of the hard [=far, extreme] right/left
10 : relating to serious matters ▪ They only report hard news. — opposite SOFT
11 a : containing a large amount of alcohol ▪ hard liquor ▪ the hard stuff b : containing alcohol ▪ hard cider/lemonade
12 : powerful and extremely harmful to the health ▪ cocaine and other hard drugs — opposite SOFT 13 of water : containing many minerals and therefore unable to make bubbles with soap ▪ hard water — opposite SOFT 14 : having clear, sharp lines ▪ trying to soften the hard edges of the image
15 : very bright and unpleasant ▪ hard lighting ▪ the cold, hard light of day
16 : sounding like the "c" in "cold" or the "g" in "geese" ▪ The "g" in "gorilla" is hard, but the "g" in "giant" is soft. ▪ the hard "c" in "cat" — opposite SOFT 17 informal : physically strong ▪ hard [=muscular] bodies a hard act to follow see FOLLOW a hard nut (to crack) see NUT a hard row to hoe see [1]ROW between a rock and a hard place see [2]ROCK drive a hard bargain see [1]BARGAIN give (someone) a hard time : to criticize or annoy someone ▪ They gave him a hard time about quitting the team.
hard feelings 1 ✧ If you have hard feelings, you feel dislike or anger toward someone who you think has mistreated you. ▪ She felt/had no hard feelings towards him. ▪ The court's decision has caused a lot of hard feelings. 2 ✧ The phrase no hard feelings is used in speech to say that you are not upset or to ask if someone else is upset. ▪ "I'm sorry I broke our date last night." "That's OK; no hard feelings." ▪ "So, we're still friends, right? No hard feelings?"
hard knocks see [2]KNOCK hard of hearing : not able to hear well ▪ He has become a little hard of hearing in his old age.
hard on 1 a : causing damage or strain to (something) ▪ Reading in dim light is hard on your eyes. [=it puts a strain on your eyes; it is not good for them] ▪ This kind of work can be hard on your back. b : causing stress or worry to (someone) ▪ These past few months have been hard on everyone, but things should get better soon. 2 : treating or judging (someone) in a harsh or critical way ▪ Don't be too hard on the boy. [=don't judge or treat the boy too harshly] ▪ She is sometimes too hard on herself. ▪ There's no need to be so hard on yourself—you did the best you could.
hard up informal 1 : lacking money ▪ We're pretty hard up these days. 2 : having not enough of something — + for ▪ She always seems to be hard up for cash. ▪ He's hard up for friends. [=he has few friends] have a hard time ✧ If you have a hard time doing something or with something, it is difficult for you. ▪ She's having a hard time adjusting to college life. ▪ The school has had a hard time recruiting substitute teachers. ▪ He's been having a hard time with his research paper.
play hard to get see [1]PLAY
the hard way : in a way that involves difficult or painful experiences ▪ He found out the hard way that crime doesn't pay. [=he found out by being punished for his crimes] ▪ She insisted on doing things the hard way.

[2]hard adv hard•er; -est
1 : with a lot of effort or energy ▪ You have to work hard in order to succeed. ▪ I know how hard she tried. ▪ She ran as hard as she could. ▪ working/studying/fighting hard ▪ We've thought long and hard about this problem. ✧ If you are hard at work (on something) you are doing work with a lot of effort and energy. ▪ You shouldn't disturb her while she's hard at work. ▪ We're hard at work on the new project.
2 : in a very forceful way ▪ He hit the ball hard. ▪ a hard-hit ball ▪ The ball hit him hard on the wrist. ▪ He pressed his nose hard against the window. ▪ swallowing hard ▪ She pushed hard against the door, but it wouldn't open. ▪ The wind was blowing hard. ▪ The snow/rain came down hard. ▪ The dog bit down hard on the thief's hand. : in a loud and forceful way ▪ She was breathing hard. ▪ laughing/crying hard ✧ If you are hit hard or hard hit by something or if something hits

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

you hard, it affects you powerfully in a very painful or shocking way. ▪ His business was hit hard by the recession. ▪ Her sudden death hit them hard. ✧ If you take something hard you are very upset or hurt by it. ▪ She took it hard [=she was very upset] when he left. ▪ We took the defeat hard.

3 a : in a very direct and intense way ▪ He looked hard into her eyes. b : in an extreme or complete way ▪ He fell hard for the girl next door.

die hard see ¹DIE

hard by old-fashioned : next to ▪ The school stood hard by a church.

hard done by Brit : treated harshly or unfairly ▪ He felt very hard done by when he was laid off after many years of faithful service.

hard on the heels of see ¹HEEL

hard–and–fast /ˌhɑədnˈfæst, Brit ˌhɑːdnˈfɑːst/ adj — used to say that something (such as a rule) cannot be changed ▪ a hard-and-fast rule hard–ass /ˈhɑədˌæs/ noun, pl -ass•es [count] chiefly US, informal + impolite : a very tough person who treats other people harshly ▪ He has a reputation for being a hard-ass.

– hard–assed /ˈhɑədˌæst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a hard-assed cop/journalist hard•back /ˈhɑədˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs : HARDCOVER [count] The store sells only hardbacks. [noncount] The book is sold only in hardback. ▪ a hardback edition hard•ball /ˈhɑədˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal

1 : BASEBALL
2 : forceful and sometimes dishonest methods used to get something you want — often used after play ▪ He's not afraid to play political hardball. [=to use tough and perhaps dishonest methods to meet a political goal] ▪ hardball tactics/politics hard–bit•ten /ˈhɑədˈbɪtn̩/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tough and experienced ▪ hard-bitten journalists ▪ a hard-bitten cynic/skeptic hard–boiled /ˈhɑədˈbojəld/ adj

1 of an egg : boiled until all the inside parts have become solid ▪ hard-boiled eggs — compare SOFT-BOILED
2 a [more ~; most ~] : not feeling or showing emotions such as affection or kindness : emotionally tough ▪ a hard-boiled detective b chiefly US : having a tough detective as the main character ▪ a hard-boiled novel ▪ hard-boiled fiction hard•bound /ˈhɑədˌbaʊnd/ adj, chiefly US, of a book : having a stiff or hard cover ▪ hardbound books [=hardcovers] — compare SOFTBOUND hard candy noun, pl ~ -dies [count, noncount] : a small, hard piece of candy with a sweet and usually fruity flavor — called also (Brit) boiled sweet hard cash noun [noncount] : money that a person has and can use immediately : money in the form of bills and coins rather than checks or credit cards ▪ He wanted hard cash for his watch.

hard–charging adj [more ~; most ~] US : very aggressive, determined, or ambitious : HARD-DRIVING ▪ a hard-charging young executive hard–cooked adj, US : HARD-BOILED 1 ▪ hard-cooked eggs

hard copy noun, pl ~ cop•ies [count] computers : a printed copy of a document ▪ print a hard copy of the report hard core noun [singular] : a small number of very active and enthusiastic members of a group : the most devoted and active members of a group ▪ He knows that he can count on the support of a hard core of party loyalists.

hard–core /ˈhɑədˈkoɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very active and enthusiastic ▪ He knows that he can count on his hard-core supporters. ▪ hard-core fans
2 : showing or describing sex acts very openly ▪ hard-core pornography — compare SOFT-CORE hard•cov•er /ˈhɑədˈkʌvɚ/ noun, pl -ers US : a book that has stiff or hard covers [count] She bought several hardcovers. [noncount] His first novel was published in hardcover last spring. — often used before another noun ▪ the book's hardcover [=hardbound] edition — called also hardback; compare PAPERBACK, SOFTCOVER hard currency noun, pl ~ -cies [count, noncount] : money that comes from a country with a strong government and economy and that is not likely to lose its value hard disk noun, pl ~ disks [count] computers : a disk that is not flexible and that is used to store computer data ▪ Remember to save the file to your hard disk. — compare FLOPPY DISK, HARD DRIVE hard–drinking adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a person who often drinks a lot of alcohol ▪ He had a troubled relationship with his violent, hard-drinking father.

hard drive noun, pl ~ drives [count] computers : a device that is used for storing computer data and that contains one or more hard disks ▪ an external/removable hard drive hard–driv•ing /ˈhɑədˈdraɪvɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very aggressive, determined, or ambitious ▪ a hard-driving businesswoman/entrepreneur hard–earned adj [more ~; most ~] : achieved or acquired through a lot of effort or hard work ▪ Someone stole all her hard-earned money. ▪ a hard-earned victory hard–edged /ˈhɑədˈɛʤd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a tough or sharp quality ▪ Critics have praised her hard-edged satire. ▪ hard-edged realism ▪ a hard-edged campaigner hard•en /ˈhɑədn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 : to become hard or firm or to make (something) hard or firm [no obj] It will take several hours for the concrete to harden (into a solid block). ▪ The gel hardens quickly. ▪ The presence of certain substances in the blood can cause the arteries to harden. [+ obj] These additives are designed to harden the steel. ▪ substances that can harden the arteries
2 : to become more definite and strongly felt or to make (something) more definite and strongly felt [no obj] Opposition to the goverment has hardened as news of further scandals has leaked out. [+ obj] The news has hardened opposition to the government.
3 [+ obj] : to make (someone) hard : to make (someone) less emotional and less likely to feel sorry for other people ▪ He had been hardened by his years of military service.
4 [no obj] : to begin to be or seem harsh, angry, serious, etc. ▪ Her voice/manner hardened as she spoke of her determination to win.
harden your heart ✧ If you harden your heart or if something hardens your heart, you stop having kind or friendly feelings for someone. ▪ She hardened her heart against him.
– hard•en•er /ˈhɑədnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a metal hardener – hardening noun [noncount] ▪ hardening of the arteries hardened adj [more ~; most ~]

1 — used to describe something that has become hard ▪ hardened arteries ▪ a hardened patch of skin
2 : very tough because of harsh experiences : not having the kind of emotions (such as fear, sorrow, etc.) that most people feel in difficult or dangerous situations ▪ a hardened criminal ▪ It's so dangerous that even hardened journalists won't go there. ✧ If you become hardened to something, you are no longer saddened or shocked when you see or experience it. ▪ New doctors quickly become hardened to the terrible injuries suffered by accident victims.

hard–eyed /ˈhɑədˌaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking at things in a very critical way without emotion ▪ a hard-eyed realist ▪ hard-eyed scrutiny hard–fought adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : requiring a lot of effort or hard work ▪ He won a hard-fought campaign for reelection.
2 : achieved or acquired through a lot of effort or hard work ▪ a hard-fought [=hard-earned] victory/triumph hard hat noun, pl ~ hats [count] : a hat that is worn by workers at a building site to protect their heads from falling objects — see picture at HAT hard•head•ed /ˈhɑədˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not willing to change ideas or opinions : very stubborn ▪ He was always hardheaded about getting his way. ▪ a hard-headed old man
2 : having or involving careful and practical thoughts and ideas that are not influenced by emotions : practical and realistic ▪ We need to take a more hardheaded approach to these problems. ▪ She gave him some hardheaded advice. ▪ a hardheaded judgment/analysis – hard•head•ed•ly adv ▪ dealing hardheadedly with the facts – hard•head•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the hardheadedness of the old man

hard–heart•ed /ˈhɑədˈhɑətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing no kindness or sympathy for other people ▪ a hard-hearted businessman ▪ a hard-hearted decision
– hard–heart•ed•ness noun [noncount]

hard–hit•ting /ˈhɑəˈhɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very effective or forceful ▪ a hard-hitting interview/documentary ▪ a hard-hitting [=aggressive] investigative reporter hard line noun [singular] : a strict and forceful way of behaving when you are dealing with other people — usually

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

used after take ▪ She is known for taking a hard line with terrorists. [=for dealing with terrorists in a forceful way] ▪ The government has taken a hard line in treaty negotiations.

– hard–line /ˈhɑəd ˈlaɪn/ adj ▪ a hard-line [=very strict] conservative – hard–lin•er /ˈhɑəˈlaɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ conservative/liberal hard-liners

hard–luck /ˈhɑəd ˌlʌk/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to bad luck ▪ a hard-luck story
2 chiefly US : experiencing or having bad luck ▪ He was the hard-luck [=unlucky] loser of last night's match.

hard•ly /ˈhɑədli/ adv
1 a : BARELY, SCARCELY — used to say that something was almost not possible or almost did not happen ▪ She could hardly bear to look at him. ▪ I could hardly believe my eyes. [=it was difficult to believe what I was seeing] ▪ I can hardly believe it! ▪ She was hardly able to control her excitement. b : almost not at all ▪ We hardly knew them. ▪ It hardly matters what I think. ▪ The changes in service have hardly been noticed. c : almost not ▪ There are hardly any new features in this software. ▪ Hardly anyone showed up for the meeting. ▪ Hardly a day goes by when I don't think about you. d — used to say that something reached a specifed condition or happened only a short time before ▪ I had hardly [=barely] arrived when the telephone rang.
2 : certainly not ▪ The news is hardly surprising. = The news is hardly a surprise. [=the news is not surprising at all] ▪ This is hardly a new idea for a movie. ▪ "Is this a new idea for a movie?" "Hardly! I've seen dozens of movies just like it."
hardly ever see EVER hard•ness /ˈhɑədnəs/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being hard ▪ the hardness of a diamond ▪ The wood's hardness makes it suitable for carving. ▪ There was a hardness [=toughness] in her voice I hadn't heard before.

hard–nosed /ˈhɑəd ˈnoʊzd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very tough ▪ She can be very hard-nosed in her business dealings. ▪ a hard-nosed football player
2 : not influenced by emotions : practical and realistic : HARDHEADED ▪ hard-nosed science/realism ▪ a hard-nosed analysis hard–on /ˈhɑəd ˌɑːn/ noun, pl -ons [count] impolite : an erection of the penis hard–pressed /ˈhɑəd ˈprɛst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 — used to say that it is difficult to do something; followed by to + verb ▪ You would be hard-pressed to find a better solution. [=it would be difficult to find a better solution] ▪ He was hard-pressed to prove the claims he'd made.
2 : in a bad situation because you do not have enough money, time, etc. ▪ a financially hard-pressed public school system ▪ hard-pressed nations/voters/farmers — sometimes + for ▪ families that are hard-pressed for time/money ▪ He's hard-pressed for space [=he does not have much space] in his new apartment.

hard put adj [more ~; most ~] : HARD-PRESSED — used to say that it is difficult to do something; followed by to + verb ▪ He was hard put to describe their musical style. [=it was difficult for him to describe their musical style] ▪ I would be hard put to find an explanation. — sometimes used in the phrase hard put to it ▪ She was hard put to it to say what the story was about. [=she found it hard to say what the story was about] hard rock noun [noncount] : loud rock music that has a heavy regular beat — compare SOFT ROCK hard rocker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone who plays or performs hard rock hard science noun, pl ~ -ences [count, noncount] : a science (such as chemistry, physics, or astronomy) that deals with things that can be observed and measured – hard scientist noun, pl ~ -ist [count]

hard•scrab•ble /ˈhɑəd ˌskræbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] US
1 : having poor soil ▪ a hardscrabble farm ▪ hardscrabble prairies
2 : having harsh and difficult conditions because of poverty ▪ a hardscrabble childhood ▪ He lived a hardscrabble life. ▪ a hardscrabble cotton town hard sell noun [singular]

1 : an aggressive way of selling something — usually used with the ▪ He gives every customer the hard sell. — compare SOFT SELL
2 US : something that is difficult to sell : something that others are not willing or likely to accept ▪ Such an expensive project will be a hard sell during these slow economic times.

hard•ship /ˈhɑəd ˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [noncount] : pain and suffering ▪ He had suffered through considerable/great hardship. ▪ The city has been experiencing a period of financial/economic hardship.
2 [count] : something that causes pain, suffering, or loss ▪ They had to endure the hardships of life on the frontier.

hard shoulder noun, pl ~ -ders [count] Brit : [1]SHOULDER 5

hard•top /ˈhɑəd ˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] : a car that has a metal top which cannot be removed — compare CONVERTIBLE hard•ware /ˈhɑəd ˌweɚ/ noun [noncount]

1 : things (such as tools or parts of machines) that are made of metal ▪ a hardware store
2 : equipment used for a particular purpose ▪ military hardware [=guns, tanks, etc.]; especially : computer equipment ▪ She bought some new hardware for her system. — compare SOFTWARE hard–wearing adj [more ~; most ~] Brit : lasting for a long time : DURABLE ▪ hard-wearing boots hard•wired /ˈhɑəd ˌwajəd/ adj : having permanent electronic circuits and connections ▪ a hardwired network — often used figuratively ▪ Humans are hardwired for speech. = Speech is hardwired in/into the human brain. ▪ Mothers are hardwired to protect their children.

hard–won /ˈhɑəd ˈwʌn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : HARD-EARNED ▪ a hard-won victory ▪ our hard-won reputation for quality hard•wood /ˈhɑəd ˌwʊd/ noun, pl -woods

1 [count, noncount] : the wood of a tree (such as an oak or maple) that is heavy and hard ▪ They used expensive hardwoods for the flooring. — often used before another noun ▪ hardwood floors
2 [count] : a tree that produces hardwood ▪ oaks, maples, and other hardwoods — often used before another noun ▪ hardwood forests — compare SOFTWOOD hard•work•ing /ˈhɑəd ˈwɚkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using a lot of time and energy to do work : INDUSTRIOUS ▪ a hard-working young woman [=a young woman who works hard]

har•dy /ˈhɑədi/ adj har•di•er; -est
1 : able to live through difficult conditions (such as a cold winter or a drought) ▪ a hardy rose ▪ the hardiest plants/animals
2 : strong and able to accept difficult or unpleasant conditions ▪ Most of the soldiers were hardy young men. ▪ Hardy fans stuck with the team through good times and bad. ▪ Only the hardiest pilgrims made the journey.
– har•di•ness /ˈhɑədinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the hardiness of the rose ▪ cattle bred for hardiness

[1]hare /ˈheə/ noun, pl hares also hare [count] : a fast animal that resembles a rabbit

[2]hare verb hares; hared; har•ing [no obj] Brit, informal : to run or go very quickly ▪ He came haring round the corner at top speed.

hare•brained /ˈheəˈbreɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very silly or foolish ▪ a harebrained scheme/idea/plan hare•lip /ˈheəˈlɪp/ noun, pl -lips [count] old-fashioned + often offensive : CLEFT LIP har•em /ˈherəm/ noun, pl -ems [count]

1 a : a house or part of a house in which the women of a Muslim household live b : the women who live in a harem in a Muslim household
2 informal : a group of women who are associated with one man ▪ the pop star and his harem

har•i•cot bean /ˈherɪ ˌkoʊ-/ noun, pl ~ beans [count] Brit : NAVY BEAN

hark /ˈhɑək/ verb harks; harked; hark•ing [no obj] old-fashioned + literary : LISTEN — usually used as a command ▪ "Hark! I hear a rustling of the leaves." —H. D. Thoreau, Walden (1854) ▪ "Hark, she speaks!" —Shakespeare, Macbeth (1605–06) hark back to [phrasal verb] hark back to (something) 1 : to return to or remember (something in the past) ▪ He always harks back to the good old days of his youth. 2 : to look or seem like (something in the past) ▪ The movie has a style that harks back to the golden age of Hollywood.

har•le•quin /ˈhɑəlɪkwən/ noun, pl -quins [count]
1 : a pattern of diamond-shaped figures of different colors — usually used before another noun ▪ fabric decorated with a harlequin pattern ▪ harlequin ice cream
2 or Harlequin : a comic character in old stories and plays who wears a mask and colorful clothes with a diamond pattern

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

har•lot /ˈhɑələt/ noun, pl -lots [count] old-fashioned + disapproving : PROSTITUTE

[1]harm /ˈhɑəm/ noun [noncount] : physical or mental damage or injury : something that causes someone or something to be hurt, broken, made less valuable or successful, etc. ▪ No harm was done. ▪ I never meant to do/cause you any harm. [=I never meant to harm/hurt you in any way] ▪ They threatened him with bodily harm. ▪ The scandal has done irreparable/lasting/great harm to his reputation. ▪ I want to be sure that no harm will come to her. = I want to be sure that she won't come to any harm. [=that she won't be hurt in any way] ▪ She'll do anything to protect her children from harm. ▪ They have suffered serious physical/psychological harm. ▪ These new regulations could cause lasting harm to small businesses. ▪ He claims that he didn't mean any harm. [=that he didn't mean to hurt or bother anyone] ▪ What's the harm in letting her leave early? = I don't see any harm in letting her leave early. = There's no harm in letting her leave early. [=letting her leave early will not hurt anyone or cause a bad result] ▪ He thinks the treatment may do more harm than good. [=be more harmful than helpful]

harm's way : a dangerous place or situation ▪ As a war correspondent, she never hesitated to put herself in harm's way. ▪ The soldiers were sent into harm's way. ▪ The tug towed the sailboat out of harm's way.

no harm done informal — used to tell someone that no apology or concern is necessary because no damage has been done ▪ "I'm so sorry about forgetting to call earlier." "That's OK. No harm done."

[2]harm verb harms; harmed; harm•ing [+ obj] : to cause hurt, injury, or damage to (someone or something) : to cause harm to (someone or something) ▪ He would never intentionally harm his children. ▪ She is trying to destroy weeds without harming [=damaging] her crops. ▪ chemicals that could harm the environment ▪ The scandal has seriously harmed his reputation. synonyms see INJURE harm•ful /ˈhɑəmfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing or capable of causing damage or harm ▪ The chemical kills harmful [=dangerous] bacteria. ▪ They claim that the drug has no harmful [=bad] side effects. — often + to ▪ These conditions can be harmful to plant/animal life.

– harm•ful•ly adv – harm•ful•ness noun [noncount] harm•less /ˈhɑəmləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not causing harm : unable to cause harm : not dangerous ▪ a harmless snake ▪ His ideas seem harmless enough. : not meant to cause harm or offense ▪ We're just having a bit of harmless fun. ▪ It was just a harmless joke. — sometimes + to ▪ These chemicals are deadly to insects but they are supposed to be harmless to animals and people.

– harm•less•ly adv ▪ The incident began harmlessly enough but soon escalated into a riot. – harm•less•ness noun [noncount]

har•mon•ic /hɑəˈmɑːnɪk/ adj, technical : of or relating to musical harmony rather than melody or rhythm ▪ two different harmonic styles – har•mon•i•cal•ly /hɑəˈmɑːnɪkli/ adv ▪ a piece that is harmonically simple but melodically complex har•mon•i•ca /hɑəˈmɑːnɪkə/ noun, pl -cas [count] : a small musical instrument that is played with your mouth ✧ A harmonica has many small openings that produce different sounds when air is blown or sucked through them.

harmonica

har•mo•ni•ous /hɑəˈmoʊnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 music : having a pleasing mixture or combination of notes ▪ a harmonious song ▪ harmonious voices
2 : having parts that are related or combined in a pleasing way ▪ The living room was decorated in harmonious colors. ▪ a harmonious combination of flavors
3 : not experiencing disagreement or fighting ▪ a harmonious family ▪ The two countries have maintained a harmonious [=friendly and peaceful] relationship for many years. ▪ harmonious relations – har•mo•ni•ous•ly adv ▪ Their voices blended together harmoniously. ▪ flavors/colors blending with each other harmoniously ▪ people living together harmoniously – har•mo•ni•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the harmoniousness of their voices har•mo•nize also Brit har•mo•nise /ˈhɑəməˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing

1 [no obj] : to play or sing different musical notes that sound pleasing together : to play or sing in harmony ▪ A group of singers were harmonizing on the street corner.
2 [no obj] : to be combined or go together in a pleasing way : to be in harmony ▪ The flavors harmonize (with one another) beautifully. ▪ Their beliefs did not always harmonize.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (two or more things) to be combined or to go together in a pleasing or effective way ▪ The singers harmonized their voices beautifully. ▪ a recipe that harmonizes flavors from different parts of the world ▪ The background music is not harmonized with the action on-screen.
– har•mo•ni•za•tion also Brit har•mo•ni•sa•tion /ˌhɑəmənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌhɑːməˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

har•mo•ny /ˈhɑəməni/ noun, pl -nies
1 : the combination of different musical notes played or sung at the same time to produce a pleasing sound [noncount] She taught him how to sing harmony. [=how to sing notes that combined with other notes in a pleasing way] — often used after in ▪ She taught him to sing in harmony. ▪ They sang in perfect harmony. [count] a song with complicated harmonies and rhythms
2 [singular] : a pleasing combination or arrangement of different things ▪ a harmony of flavors/colors ✧ When things are in harmony or when one thing is in harmony with something else, they go together well or they agree with each other very well. ▪ Every part was moving in perfect harmony. ▪ The two machines are linked and working in harmony. ▪ That principle is not in harmony with our ideals. ✧ When people are in harmony or in harmony with each other, they live together in a peaceful and friendly way. ▪ She lives in harmony with her neighbors. ✧ To bring something into harmony with something else is to change it so that it agrees with or matches something else. ▪ Our proposal has been revised to bring it into harmony with their requirements. ✧ When things are out of harmony or when one thing is out of harmony with something else, they do not agree or combine well. ▪ The modern furnishings seem out of harmony with the Victorian architecture. ▪ The governor's statement is totally out of harmony with the mayor's earlier comments.

[1]har•ness /ˈhɑənəs/ noun, pl -ness•es [count]
1 : a set of straps that are placed on an animal (such as a horse) so that it can pull something heavy
2 : a set of straps that are used to connect a person to something (such as a parachute or a seat) ▪ The pilot strapped himself into his harness before takeoff. ▪ a safety harness in harness Brit : working at a job : on duty ▪ I was back in harness on Monday, handling paperwork at my desk.

[2]harness verb -nesses; -nessed; -ness•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to put a harness on (an animal) ▪ harness the horses b : to attach (an animal) to something with a harness ▪ The horses were harnessed to the wagon.
2 : to use (something) for a particular purpose ▪ Engineers are finding new ways to harness the sun's energy to heat homes. ▪ The company is harnessing technology to provide better service to its customers. ▪ They harnessed the power of the waterfall to create electricity. ▪ harness anger to fight injustice
3 : to connect or join (things) together ▪ She harnessed several computers (together) to work as one large computer.

harness racing noun [noncount] US : the sport of racing two-wheeled carts that are pulled by horses

[1]harp /ˈhɑəp/ noun, pl harps [count] : a musical instrument that has strings stretched across a large open frame and that is played with your fingers ▪ pluck/play a harp — see picture at STRINGED INSTRUMENT
– harp•ist /ˈhɑəpɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a talented harpist

[2]harp verb harps; harped; harp•ing
harp at [phrasal verb] harp at (someone) US, informal : to tell (someone) constantly or repeatedly to do something ▪ My mother was always harping at me to clean my room.
harp on [phrasal verb] US harp on (something) or Brit harp on about (something) informal : to talk about (a subject) constantly or repeatedly in an annoying way ▪ She's always harping on the importance of a good diet. ▪ He seems to enjoy harping on my shortcomings.

har•poon /hɑəˈpuːn/ noun, pl -poons [count] : a long weapon used especially for hunting large fish or whales
– harpoon /hɑəˈpuːn/ verb -poons; -pooned; -poon•ing [+ obj] ▪ They harpooned the whale. [=killed the whale

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

with a harpoon] – har•poon•er noun, pl -ers [count]

harp•si•chord /ˈhɑəpsɪˌkoəd/ noun, pl -chords [count] : a musical instrument that is similar to a piano but with strings that are plucked rather than struck — see picture at KEYBOARD

– harp•si•chord•ist /ˈhɑəpsɪˌkoədɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a famous harpsichordist

har•py /ˈhɑəpi/ noun, pl -pies [count]

1 Harpy : an evil creature in Greek mythology that is part woman and part bird

2 : an angry and unpleasant woman : SHREW

har•ri•dan /ˈherədən/ noun, pl -dans [count] old-fashioned + literary : an angry and unpleasant woman : HARPY, SHREW har•ried /ˈherid/ adj [more ~; most ~] : bothered by many problems or worries : very worried or anxious ▪ harried shoppers/travelers har•ri•er /ˈherijə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of hawk har•row•ing /ˈherowɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very painful or upsetting ▪ She gives a harrowing account/description of her battle with cancer. ▪ They managed to escape after several harrowing encounters with the enemy. ▪ a harrowing ordeal/experience

– har•row•ing•ly adv ▪ a harrowingly honest description har•rumph /həˈrʌmf/ verb -rumphs; -rumphed; -rumph•ing informal : to say (something) in a disapproving or complaining way — used to suggest that the person who is speaking is very serious, pompous, etc. [+ obj] "These charges are absurd," he harrumphed. [no obj] They stood around harrumphing about the current state of politics.

harsh /hɑəʃ/ adj harsh•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : unpleasant and difficult to accept or experience ▪ The climate there is very harsh. ▪ We've had an extremely harsh winter. ▪ a harsh environment ▪ It's time for her to face the harsh realities of this situation. ▪ The accident serves as a harsh reminder of the importance of wearing a seat belt. b : having an unpleasant or harmful effect because of great strength or force : too intense or powerful ▪ harsh colors ▪ a harsh [=shrill] whistle/voice ▪ The lighting in the room was very harsh. ▪ harsh chemicals/detergents

2 a : severe or cruel : not kind ▪ harsh discipline ▪ a harsh disciplinarian ▪ The state has established harsh penalties for drug dealers. ▪ She has been criticized for her harsh treatment of his students. ▪ He was sentenced to a harsh prison term. b : very critical : strongly negative ▪ He had harsh words for his opponent. ▪ harsh language ▪ She has faced some extremely harsh criticism. ▪ He has been one of her harshest critics.

– harsh•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She promised to deal harshly with all criminals. ▪ He treats his students harshly. ▪ The room was harshly lit. – harsh•ness noun [noncount]

hart /hɑət/ noun, pl harts [count] chiefly Brit : a male deer : STAG; especially : a male red deer — compare [2]HIND

[1]har•vest /ˈhɑəvəst/ noun, pl -vests [count]

1 : the season when crops are gathered from the fields or the activity of gathering crops ▪ The beginning of the harvest varies from year to year. ▪ It is time for the harvest. ▪ harvest time

2 : the amount of crops that are gathered ▪ They prayed for a bountiful harvest. ▪ We had enormous harvests of corn this year.; also : the amount of a natural product gathered in a single season ▪ the salmon/timber harvest — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The government will reap a bitter harvest of discontent [=many people will be extremely unhappy and angry] if it fails to meet the people's needs.

[2]harvest /ˈhɑəvəst/ verb -vests; -vest•ed; -vest•ing [+ obj]

1 : to gather (a crop) ▪ It is time to harvest the wheat.

2 : to gather or collect (something) for use ▪ They want to harvest timber in these woods. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She has harvested the rewards/fruits of her labors.

har•vest•er /ˈhɑəvəstə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who gathers crops or other natural products

2 : a large machine that is used for harvesting crops harvest moon noun [singular] : the full moon in autumn has see HAVE

has–been /ˈhæzˌbɪn/ noun, pl -beens [count] informal : a person who is no longer popular or successful ▪ They called him a washed-up old has-been. ▪ a famous child actor who had become a has-been at 25 — often used before another noun ▪ a has-been singer

[1]hash /ˈhæʃ/ verb hash•es; hashed; hash•ing

hash out [phrasal verb] US, informal hash out (something) or hash (something) out 1 or hash over (something) or hash (something) over : to talk about (something) ▪ The detectives hashed out their theories about who committed the murder. ▪ They've spent quite a bit of time hashing over the problem. ▪ We need to sit down and hash things out. [=talk about things; discuss the situation] 2 a : to find (a solution) by talking ▪ Their lawyers hashed out a resolution. b : to solve (a problem) by talking ▪ We were finally able to hash out our differences.

[2]hash noun, pl hashes [count, noncount] : a dish of chopped meat mixed with potatoes and baked or fried ▪ corned beef hash

make a hash of informal : to ruin (something) by making many mistakes ▪ He made a hash of the whole project!

– compare [3]HASH, [4]HASH

[3]hash noun [noncount] informal : HASHISH — compare [2]HASH, [4]HASH

[4]hash noun, pl hashes [count] Brit : [3]POUND — compare [2]HASH, [3]HASH

hash browns noun [plural] : boiled potatoes that have been cut up, mixed with chopped onions and fat, and fried until brown — called also hash brown potatoes, hashed brown potatoes, hashed browns

hash•ish /ˈhæˌʃi:ʃ, hæˈʃi:ʃ/ noun [noncount] : an illegal drug that comes from the hemp plant and that is usually smoked or chewed hash sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] Brit : [3]POUND hasn't /ˈhæznt/ — used as a contraction of has not ▪ The mail hasn't arrived yet.

hasp /ˈhæsp, Brit ˈhɑ:sp/ noun, pl hasps [count] : a device that is used to fasten a door, lid, etc. ✧ A hasp is a metal strap that fits over a metal loop and is held by a pin or lock.

[1]has•sle /ˈhæsəl/ verb has•sles; has•sled; has•sling informal

1 [+ obj] : to bother or annoy (someone) constantly or repeatedly ▪ Other kids were always hassling her because she was overweight. ▪ I'm sick of being hassled by telemarketers.

2 [no obj] US : to argue or fight ▪ I don't have time to hassle with you about this! Just do what I tell you to do!

[2]hassle noun, pl hassles [count] informal

1 : something that is annoying or that causes trouble ▪ All this paperwork is a hassle. ▪ They've had to deal with flight delays and all of the other hassles of holiday travel. ▪ Cooking is too much of a hassle tonight. [=it is too much trouble; I do not have enough time, energy, etc., to do it]

2 US : a fight or argument ▪ He got into a hassle with his landlord.

has•sock /ˈhæsək/ noun, pl -socks [count]

1 : a cushion that you kneel on while praying

2 US : a cushion or soft stool that is used as a seat or for resting your feet ▪ a sofa and hassock [=(more commonly) ottoman]

haste /ˈheɪst/ noun [noncount] : speed of motion or action : quickness or eagerness that can result in mistakes ▪ The application had been approved with undue haste. — often used with in ▪ He left in haste [=hurriedly, in a hurry], so I didn't get a chance to talk to him. ▪ She sent the letter in haste and later regretted it. ▪ In their haste to leave for the airport, they forgot their passports.

haste makes waste US — used to say that doing something too quickly causes mistakes that result in time, effort, materials, etc., being wasted make haste old-fashioned : to move, act, or go quickly : HURRY ▪ "You will be too late, if you do not make haste." —Jane Austen, Persuasion (1817)

has•ten /ˈheɪsn/ verb has•tens; has•tened; has•ten•ing

1 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to happen more quickly ▪ A factory was built, hastening [=accelerating] the town's growth. ▪ His death was hastened by alcohol abuse.

2 [no obj] old-fashioned : to move or act quickly ▪ When she heard the baby crying, she hastened [=hurried] up the stairs.

hasten to add/say/explain (etc.) : to immediately say something in order to prevent confusion or misunderstanding ▪ The company announced that the initial tests look promising, but they hastened to add that there is still much more testing to be done. ▪ Let me hasten to point out that these changes will not affect our existing clients.

hasty /ˈheɪsti/ adj hast•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : done or made very quickly ▪ I made a hasty sketch of the scene. ▪ Seeing the dog, the cat made/beat a hasty retreat up a tree. b : done or made too quickly ▪ We don't want to make any hasty decisions. ▪ a hasty marriage

2 : acting too quickly : RASH ▪ He later realized that he was

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

too hasty in his decision to quit.
– hast•i•ly /ˈheɪstəli/ adv ▪ She hastily gathered her things and left. ▪ a hastily made decision – hast•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the hastiness [=haste] of his decision hat /ˈhæt/ noun, pl hats [count] : a covering for the head that often has a brim and a rounded or flat top ▪ a straw hat — see also COWBOY HAT, HARD HAT, TOP HAT at the drop of a hat see [1]DROP hang your hat ✧ The place where you hang your hat is the place where you live or stay. ▪ I'm looking for a new place to hang my hat.

hat in hand see [1]HAND hats off to informal — used to give praise or credit to someone ▪ Hats off to Susan for doing such a great job.
I'll eat my hat see EAT
keep (something) under your hat : to keep (something) secret : to not tell anyone about (something) ▪ I'll tell you what happened, but you have to keep it under your hat.
pass the hat : to collect money usually for a particular purpose ▪ They passed the hat at one of their meetings and collected almost $200. ▪ passing the hat for families affected by the disaster take your hat off to informal : to give (someone) praise or credit ▪ I (have to) take my hat off to her. She did a great job.
talk through your hat see [1]TALK throw/toss your hat in/into the ring : to announce that you are going to try to win a contest (such as an election) ▪ Yet another candidate has thrown his hat into the ring.
tip your hat see [1]TIP wear many hats : to have many jobs or roles ▪ She wears many hats: she's a doctor, a musician, and a writer.
– see also OLD HAT

hat•band /ˈhætˌbænd/ noun, pl -bands [count] : a decorative piece of cloth that goes around the base of some hats hat•box /ˈhætˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a round container for storing or carrying hats

[1]hatch /ˈhætʃ/ noun, pl hatch•es [count]
1 a : an opening in the deck of a ship or in the floor, wall, or roof of a building ▪ He squeezed into/through the hatch and crawled below deck. b : the covering of such an opening ▪ He lifted the hatch.
2 : a small door or opening in an airplane or spaceship — see also ESCAPE HATCH batten down the hatches see [1]BATTEN down the hatch informal ✧ If something goes down the hatch, you swallow it. ▪ a whiskey that goes down the hatch smoothly

[2]hatch verb hatches; hatched; hatch•ing
1 a [no obj] of a bird, insect, fish, etc. : to come out of an egg : to be born by coming out of an egg ▪ We watched the chicks hatch. b [+ obj] : to cause (a young bird, insect, fish, etc.) to come out of an egg — usually used as (be) hatched ▪ newly hatched chicks
2 a [no obj] of an egg : to break open as a young bird, insect, fish, etc., is born ▪ The eggs will soon hatch. b [+ obj] : to cause (an egg) to hatch ▪ a hen hatching her eggs
3 [+ obj] : to create or produce (something, such as an idea or a plan) usually in a secret way ▪ They hatched a plot to overthrow the government. ▪ hatch (up) a scheme

hatch•back /ˈhætʃˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a door that opens upward on the back of a car; also : a car that has such a door — see picture at CAR

hatch•ery /ˈhætʃəri/ noun, pl -eries [count] : a place where people raise young chicken, fish, etc., from eggs ▪ a salmon hatchery

hatch•et /ˈhætʃət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a small ax that has a short handle bury the hatchet : to agree to stop arguing or fighting : to end a disagreement and become friendly ▪ After all these years, they've finally buried the hatchet.

hatchet job noun, pl ~ jobs [count] informal : a very harsh and unfair spoken or written attack ▪ The reviewers did a hatchet job on her latest book. [=the reviewers criticized her latest book very harshly or unfairly] hatchet man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a person whose job is to do harsh and unpleasant things that other people do not want to do ▪ She doesn't criticize her opponent's character directly. She has her hatchet men in the media do it for her. ▪ He was fired by his boss's hatchet man.

hatch•ling /ˈhætʃlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a recently hatched animal : a very young bird, fish, etc., that has just come out from an egg

hatch•way /ˈhætʃˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : an opening or passage into an enclosed space (such as a cellar or an attic)

[1]hate /ˈheɪt/ noun, pl hates : a very strong feeling of dislike [noncount] You could see the hate [=hatred] in his eyes. ▪ These crimes are motivated by prejudice and hate. [count] They have been unable to overcome their hates and fears. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ The organization gets a lot of hate mail [=extremely angry letters, e-mail, etc.] from people who disagree with their policies. ▪ a hate crime [=a crime done against someone because of the person's race, religion, etc.] ▪ Hate speech [=speech expressing hatred of a particular group of people] is not allowed at school. — opposite LOVE

[2]hate verb hates; hat•ed; hat•ing
1 : to dislike (someone) very strongly : to feel hate for (someone) [+ obj] He was a cruel tyrant who was hated and feared by his people. ▪ She hated them for betraying her. ▪ They were political rivals who truly/bitterly hated each other. ▪ What is it that you hate about him most? ▪ a hated enemy [no obj] children whose families have taught them to hate — opposite LOVE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

2 [+ obj] : to dislike (something) very strongly : to find (something) very unpleasant ▪ She hates [=really dislikes] cold weather. ▪ I hate spinach. ▪ I hate doing this. ▪ I hate having to do this. = I hate it when I have to do this. ▪ They hate being apart from each other. ▪ I hate the idea of leaving my mother alone all week. ▪ She hates cooking. — often followed by to + verb ▪ They hate to be apart from each other. ▪ She hates to cook. — opposite LOVE
3 [+ obj] — used to apologize for doing something or to express regret or guilt ▪ I hate bothering you [=I'm sorry to bother you], but would you mind moving your car? ▪ I'd hate it if they got the wrong idea. [=I would feel regret if they misunderstood] — often followed by to + verb ▪ I hate to bother you [=I'm sorry to bother you], but would you mind moving your car? ▪ I hate to say it, but I don't think he has much chance of winning. ▪ I'd hate (for) them to get the wrong idea.
hate someone's guts see [1]GUT – hat•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a cat hater [=a person who hates cats]

hate•ful /ˈheɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very bad or evil : causing or deserving hate ▪ a hateful crime
2 : full of hate ▪ hateful enemies/people : showing hate ▪ hateful comments/words – hate•ful•ly adv ▪ It's not clear if the comments were meant hatefully or not. – hate•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the hatefulness of the crime hat•mak•er /ˈhætˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to make hats hat•pin /ˈhætˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count] : a kind of pin used especially in the past by women to fasten hats to their hair ha•tred /ˈheɪtrəd/ noun, pl -treds : a very strong feeling of dislike : HATE [noncount] He had an irrational fear and hatred of foreigners. ▪ She makes no attempt to conceal her hatred for her opponents. ▪ This troubled city is filled with hatred, prejudice, crime, and fear. [count] The war was fueled by hatreds that were centuries old.

hat•ter /ˈhætə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who makes, sells, or repairs hats mad as a hatter informal + old-fashioned : severely mentally ill : CRAZY ▪ He's a nice fellow, but mad as a hatter.

hat trick noun, pl ~ tricks [count] : three goals scored by one player in a game of ice hockey, soccer, etc. ▪ score a hat trick — often used figuratively ▪ She scored a hat trick when her last three novels all won prizes.

haugh•ty /ˈhɑːti/ adj haugh•ti•er; -est : having or showing the insulting attitude of people who think that they are better, smarter, or more important than other people ▪ haughty [=arrogant] aristocrats ▪ He rejected their offer with a tone of haughty disdain. ▪ a haughty attitude
– haugh•ti•ly /ˈhɑːtəli/ adv ▪ haughtily disdainful – haugh•ti•ness /ˈhɑːtinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]haul /ˈhɑːl/ verb hauls; hauled; haul•ing [+ obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to pull or drag (something) with effort ▪ Haul the ropes in. = Haul in the ropes. ▪ They hauled the boat up onto the beach. ▪ The car was hauled away/off to the junkyard. b : to move or carry (something) with effort ▪ We used buckets to haul water up from the river. ▪ She hauled herself to her feet and limped home. ▪ I'm tired of hauling this heavy camera around with me.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to force (someone) to go or come to a place ▪ The police caught him and hauled him (in) to the station. ▪ The prisoner was hauled away in handcuffs. ▪ They hauled her off to court/jail.
3 : to carry (someone or something) in a vehicle ▪ The cattle were hauled by rail. ▪ The company has a fleet of trucks that are used to haul freight.
haul ass US, informal + impolite : to move quickly ▪ You'd better haul ass or you'll miss your flight.
haul in [phrasal verb] haul in (something) or haul (something) in US, sports : to catch (a ball or pass) ▪ He hauled in a long touchdown pass.
haul off and US, informal : to suddenly do (something specified) — followed by a verb that expresses some kind of usually violent action ▪ She hauled off and punched him in the face.
haul on [phrasal verb] haul on (something) : to forcefully pull (something) ▪ haul on the reins haul over the coals see COAL
– haul•er (US) /ˈhɑːlə/ or Brit haul•i•er /ˈhɑːlijə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ cattle haulers

[2]haul noun, pl hauls [count]
1 : the act of pulling or dragging something with effort : the act of hauling something ▪ each haul of the rope
2 : a usually large amount of something that has been stolen, collected, or won ▪ a burglar's haul ▪ Authorities seized the drugs in one of the biggest drug hauls in the history of the county. ▪ The kids always collect a substantial haul of candy on Halloween.
3 : a distance to be traveled ▪ It's just a short haul from our cabin to the beach. — see also LONG HAUL haunch /ˈhɑːntʃ/ noun, pl haunch•es [count] : the upper part of a person's or animal's leg; especially : the upper part of an animal's rear leg used as meat ▪ a haunch of venison on your haunches : sitting on or close to your heels with your knees bent ▪ The girl was sitting/squatting on her haunches in the sand, searching for shells.

[1]haunt /ˈhɑːnt/ verb haunts; haunt•ed; haunt•ing [+ obj]
1 of a ghost : to visit or live in (a place) ▪ Spirits haunted the house. ▪ Some people believe that the ghost of an old sea captain haunts the beach.
2 : to eventually cause problems for (someone) as time passes ▪ If you ignore the problem, it will come back to haunt you. ▪ Their failure to plan ahead is now coming back to haunt them.
3 : to keep coming back to the mind of (someone) especially in a way that makes the person sad or upset ▪ The tune haunted me all day. ▪ He was haunted by his memories of the war. [=he could not forget his memories of the war]
4 : to visit (a place) often ▪ She spent much of her vacation haunting bookstores and antique shops.

[2]haunt noun, pl haunts [count] : a place that you go to often ▪ The restaurant became one of her favorite haunts. ▪ I went back to visit my old childhood haunts. [=the places I often went to when I was a child]

haunted adj
1 : lived in or visited by ghosts ▪ Everyone says that the inn is haunted. ▪ a haunted house
2 : troubled or upset ▪ a mysterious young woman who always has a haunted expression on her face haunting adj [more ~; most ~] : sad or beautiful in a way that is difficult to forget ▪ The old prison camp is a haunting reminder of the country's dark past. ▪ the haunting sounds of the violin ▪ the haunting beauty of her voice – haunt•ing•ly adv ▪ her hauntingly beautiful voice haute cou•ture /ˌoʊtkʊˈtuə, Brit ˌəʊtkʊˈtjʊə/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : the people and companies that create clothes that are very expensive and fashionable; also : the clothes they create ▪ a fashion designer who's a renowned master of haute couture ▪ celebrities wearing haute couture ▪ haute couture fashions/designers/models haute cui•sine /ˌoʊtkwɪˈziːn/ noun [singular] : cooking that is done in a very skillful and complicated way

have /ˈhæv, əv; in "have to" meaning "must" usually ˈhæf/ verb has /ˈhæz, əz; in "has to" meaning "must" usually ˈhæs/; had /ˈhæd, əd/; hav•ing /ˈhævɪŋ/ ✧ For many senses of have, the phrase have got can also be used. Each sense, idiom, or phrasal verb below in which this phrase can occur includes the note "—also have got." See "have got" (below) for more information.
1 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] a : to own, use, or hold (something) ▪ Do they have a new car? ▪ You can have it until I get back. ▪ She has a red bike, and I have a blue one. ▪ She got another part-time job and now she has two jobs. ▪ I'm looking for the newspaper. Do you have it? ▪ He had the newspaper right in his hand. ▪ I used to have a necklace like that, but I lost it. ▪ She used to share a room with her sister, but now she has her own room. — also used for things that cannot be seen or touched ▪ Do you have an appointment? ▪ Do you have any experience in this line of work? [=have you done this kind of work before?] ▪ She has so many things that she wants to do. ▪ They have a deadline that must be met. — also have got ▪ Have they got a new car? ▪ She*'s got* two jobs. ▪ Have you got it? ▪ I*'ve got* an appointment. — see also MUST-HAVE b ✧ If you have (something) to do, finish (etc.), there is something that you must do or want to do in order to complete a task. ▪ We have things to do. = (chiefly Brit) We*'ve* things to do. ▪ I have several more pages to read. ▪ She has six more rows to knit. ▪ "But I have promises to keep . . ." —Robert Frost, "Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening" (1923) — also have got ▪ We*'ve got* things to do.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

2 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to say that something is available or not available ▪ They had nothing to eat or drink, nothing to wear, and nowhere to live. ▪ We didn't want to do it, but we had no choice/alternative. ▪ You have a tremendous opportunity, and you should make the most of it. ▪ The group will have enough tickets for everyone. ▪ Do you have any spare change? ▪ Do you have a minute/moment/second? [=are you available for a short time right now?] I have a few things I'd like to discuss with you. ▪ Give me a call when you have a few minutes/moments. [=when you have a short period of time available] ▪ I don't have the time to talk right now. [=I am too busy to talk right now] — also have got ▪ I haven't got the time to talk right now. ▪ Have you got a minute/moment/second? — see also HAVE THE TIME (below)

3 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to describe a quality, skill, feature, etc., of a person or thing ▪ She has an impressive knowledge of French. [=she knows French very well] ▪ He has a way with words. [=he uses words/language very effectively] ▪ She has a good outlook on life. ▪ The car has power brakes. ▪ That country has a king; this country has a president. ▪ All the children in that family have red hair. ▪ A man who had a foreign accent [=a man with a foreign accent] was asking to see you. ▪ The museum has interesting exhibits. ▪ I have a fear of spiders. [=I am afraid of spiders] — also have got ▪ He*'s got* a way with words. ▪ The car*'s got* power brakes.

4 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to include or contain (something or someone) ▪ The list has my name on it. [=my name is on the list] ▪ April has 30 days. [=there are 30 days in April; April is a month with 30 days] ▪ The club has 100 members. — also have got ▪ The list has got my name on it. ▪ The club*'s got* 100 members.

5 [+ obj] a : to give birth to (a child) ▪ She had her first child when she was 25. ▪ She's going to be having another baby soon. b not used in progressive tenses : to be the parent of (a child) ▪ She and her husband have three children. ▪ They have a son. — also have got ▪ They*'ve got* a son and a daughter.

6 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to describe a relationship between people ▪ I have two sisters and a brother. ▪ She has many friends and few enemies. ▪ I wouldn't want to have him as an enemy. [=I wouldn't want him to be my enemy] ▪ Do you have a big family? [=is your family big?; are there many people in your family?] ▪ Does he have a girlfriend? ▪ They have [=employ] a housekeeper. ▪ We have many satisfied clients. ▪ I have a customer who comes in every Tuesday and orders a tuna sandwich. — also have got ▪ I*'ve got* two sisters and a brother.

7 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to tightly hold (someone) ▪ The dog has him by the leg. [=the dog is tightly holding his leg in its mouth] ▪ She had me by the arm and wouldn't let go. — also have got ▪ The dog*'s got* him by the leg.

8 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to get (something) ▪ Whenever she sees the latest new electronic gadget, she needs to have it. ▪ This piano is the best to be had. [=it is the best that can be bought or owned]

9 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to receive or be given (something) ▪ We had some bad/good news yesterday. ▪ I had a letter from my cousin last week. ▪ "Waiter, can I have the check, please?" "I'll bring it right away." ▪ Could I please have your attention? [=would you please give me your attention?] ▪ Can I have a moment of your time? [=can I speak to you for a moment?]

10 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to describe the position of a person or thing ▪ He had his hands behind his back. [=his hands were behind his back] ▪ She had her back to the door and didn't see me enter the room. ▪ He has a bodyguard with/near him whenever he goes out in public. ▪ The house has a large tree next to it. [=there is a large tree next to the house] — also have got ▪ The house has got a large tree next to it.

11 [+ obj] : to cause or produce (something, such as an effect) ▪ The defeat had a terrible effect/impact on the team's spirits. ▪ Her decision might have serious consequences.

12 [+ obj] a : to experience (something) ▪ "Are you having fun?" "Yes, I'm having a wonderful time!" ▪ Everyone had a good time at the party. = A good time was had by all (at the party). ▪ She's had many strange things happen to her recently. = She's been having a lot of strange things happen to her recently. ▪ I've had a bad/tough/long day. ▪ I'm having trouble getting this computer to work. [=I am unable to get it to work] ▪ I've had a good life. ▪ We've had another setback. ▪ She had [=suffered] a heart attack at the age of 50. b not used in progressive tenses : to experience or be affected by (an illness or injury) ▪ I have a cold. ▪ My uncle has diabetes. ▪ She has a broken leg. — also have got ▪ I*'ve got* a cold. ▪ She*'s got* a broken leg. c : to experience (an emotion or feeling) ▪ I have many regrets. [=I regret many things] ▪ I have complete confidence in your abilities. = I don't have any doubts about your abilities. — also have got ▪ I*'ve got* many regrets. ▪ I haven't got any doubts about your abilities.

13 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to describe a person's thoughts, ideas, etc. ▪ Everyone has a different opinion about what to do. ▪ I have a few thoughts on the matter. ▪ "What time is it?" "I have no idea." = "I've no idea." [=I don't know] ▪ "Was it hard?" "You have no idea (how hard it was)!" [=it was extremely hard] ▪ I don't have a clue. = I haven't a clue. [=I don't know] — also have got ▪ Everyone*'s got* a different opinion. ▪ I haven't got a clue.

14 [+ obj] : to perform (an action) : to do or participate in (an activity) ▪ Did you have a good nap? ▪ I was having a nap [=I was napping] when a loud noise woke me up. ▪ We need to have a long talk. ▪ I have soccer practice every Tuesday. ▪ Please don't interrupt us when we are having a conversation. ▪ (Brit) Have a sleep/lie-down. ▪ (Brit) Have a think. ▪ Have a look at this. [=look at this] ▪ I had a (good) look, but I couldn't find the problem. ▪ Let me have a try. [=let me try]

15 [+ obj] : to provide (something) as entertainment or as a social gathering ▪ We're having [=giving, throwing] a party on Saturday. Can you come? ▪ We're having a little get-together. ▪ The museum is having [=holding] an exhibition of her work. = She's having an exhibition of her work at the museum. [=the museum is exhibiting her work]

16 [+ obj] a : to cause, tell, or ask (someone) to do something ▪ Have her call me [=tell her to call me on the telephone] when she gets back. ▪ Have my assistant schedule another appointment for you. ▪ You should have someone check that out for you. ▪ She's having the children stay with us for the weekend. [=the children are staying with us for the weekend because she wants them to] ▪ He had the barber cut his hair short. [=he got the barber to cut his hair short] ▪ What would you have me do? [=what do you want me to do?] ▪ They would have us believe [=they want/expect us to believe] that all these problems can be fixed by raising taxes. b : to cause (something) to be changed, removed, added, or affected in a specified way ▪ I had my nose straightened by a plastic surgeon. ▪ He had his hair cut short by a barber. ▪ The doctor said I should have this mole removed. ▪ We are having new windows installed. ▪ I just had new tires put on the car. c — used when you hire someone to do something or when you go to a place (such as hospital or a mechanic's shop) so that something can be done ▪ She's having surgery next week. ▪ I had an X-ray. ▪ When was the last time you had a checkup? ▪ We're having some work done on the house. ▪ The car should have regular maintenance checks. [=someone should check the car regularly]

17 [+ obj] — used to say that someone (such as a guest or a worker) is at your home or is coming to your home ▪ We're having guests this weekend. ▪ I'd love to come for a visit, if you'll have me. [=if you would welcome me as a guest] ▪ We're going to have a plumber in to look at the furnace. ▪ She has guests to/for dinner several times a week. ▪ I had my friends back to my place for drinks after the movie. — see also HAVE OVER (below)

18 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to be in a specified state or condition ▪ He had dinner ready by the time she came back. ▪ It's hard to think when she has the radio on so loud. ▪ He had the computer working again very quickly. ▪ Please have your assignment ready/done/finished/completed by tomorrow. — also have got ▪ She*'s got* the radio on so loud. ▪ Have you got your assignment ready? [=is your assignment ready?] b — used when something that belongs to someone or something is damaged, destroyed, or taken ▪ I had [=got] my nose broken in a fight. [=my nose was broken in a fight] ▪ She had her car stolen last week. [=her car was stolen last week] ▪ The house had its roof torn off in the hurricane.

19 [+ obj] : to allow (something) — used in negative statements ▪ We'll have no more of that behavior! = We can't have that sort of behavior! = We can't have you behaving like that! = We can't be having you behave like that!

20 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to accept (someone) ▪ Who will we have as our leader?; specifically : to accept (someone) as a husband or wife ▪ I'll marry her if she'll have me! ▪ She wouldn't have him.

21 a not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to be able to control, capture, or defeat (someone) ▪ We have him now! He can't possibly escape! — also have got ▪ We*'ve got* him now! b ✧ The phrases You have me there and There you have me or (more commonly and informally) You've/You got me (there) are used in speech to mean "I don't know." ▪ "How on earth can he justify his behavior?" "You have me there." ▪ "When exactly was the company founded?" "There you have me." ▪ "Why did she leave?" "You got me." The phrase You got me is sometimes shortened to Got me in very informal speech. ▪ "When does the movie start?" "Got me."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

22 [+ obj] a : to eat or drink (something) ▪ We had steak for dinner last night. ▪ We'll be having [=eating] dinner at six. ▪ Will you have a drink with me? ▪ Would you like to have some black pepper on your salad? ▪ "What will you have (to drink)?" "(I'll have) A glass of red wine, please." ▪ Did you have dessert yet? ▪ Have some cake. It's delicious! b : to smoke (something) ▪ She had a cigarette while she was waiting for the bus. c — used to say how you want food or drink to be cooked or prepared ▪ I'd like to have my steak well done, please. ▪ I usually have [=take] my coffee black.

23 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] informal : to have sex with (someone) ▪ He claims that he's had dozens of women.

24 [auxiliary verb] — used with the past participle to form the perfect tenses of verbs ▪ We have been friends for many years. ▪ She has bought a new car. ▪ They had already left by the time we arrived. ▪ I have not seen that movie yet. ▪ Has the rain stopped? ▪ I have never been so embarrassed! = Never have I been so embarrassed! ▪ Having never been to Chicago, I really don't know much about it.

> usage When have is used as an auxiliary verb, the shortened forms 've for have, 's for has, and 'd for had are common in informal writing and usual in speech. ▪ I*'ve* already seen that movie. ▪ I*'ve* never been so embarrassed! ▪ We*'ve* been friends for years. ▪ She*'s* bought a new car. ▪ They*'d* already left by the time we arrived. The negative forms haven't, hasn't, and hadn't are also common in informal writing and usual in speech. ▪ I haven't seen that movie yet. ▪ Hasn't the rain stopped? ▪ We hadn't arrived yet when they left.

be had : to be tricked or fooled by someone ▪ She doesn't want to buy a used car because she's worried about being had by a dishonest salesman. ▪ I don't trust them. I think we've been had. [=I think they have tricked us] have against [phrasal verb] have (something) against (someone or something) : to have (something) as a reason for not liking (someone or something) ▪ She has a grudge against her former boss. ▪ What do you have against him? [=why do you dislike him?] ▪ I have nothing against her personally—it's her friends I don't like. — also have got ▪ She*'s got* a grudge against her former boss. ▪ What have you got against him?

have back [phrasal verb] 1 have (something) back : to receive (something that is returned to you) ▪ If I lend you this book, can I have it back by next Tuesday? ▪ How I wish I could have my youth back (again)! 2 have (someone) back a : to be with (someone who has returned) again ▪ Welcome home! It's great to have you back (with us again)! ▪ We'd love to have you back for another visit. ▪ He longs to have her back in his life. ▪ The doctor said he'd like to have me back for more tests next week. b : to allow (someone) to return ▪ He wants to return to his wife, but she won't have him back.

have done with old-fashioned : to stop doing (something) : to bring (something) to an end ▪ Let us have done with name-calling.

have got : HAVE > usage Examples of have got are shown above and below for each sense, idiom, and phrasal verb in which it occurs. Note that have got is used only in the present tense. It is common in place of have in informal writing, and it is usual in ordinary speech. The contracted forms 's for has and 've for have are commonly used for the first part of this phrase. ▪ He has it. = He has got it. = (more commonly) He*'s got* it. ▪ We have to go. = We have got to go. = (more commonly) We*'ve got* to go. The usual negative forms of have got are haven't got and hasn't got. ▪ We do not have it. = We have not got it. = (more commonly) We haven't got it. ▪ She doesn't have a chance. = She hasn't got a chance.

have had it informal 1 a : to be too old or damaged to be used ▪ We need a new stove. This one has had it. ▪ My old dictionary has just about had it. Time to get a new one. b : to be so tired or annoyed that you will no longer allow or accept something ▪ That's it. I*'ve had it*. I won't pay these kinds of fees any more. ▪ I've been working all day and I*'ve had it*. c : to be angry about something that has continued for a long time ▪ I*'ve had it* (up to here) with all these delays! [=I am fed up with all these delays; I am very annoyed by all these delays] 2 : to be completely ruined or defeated ▪ After this scandal, he*'s had it* as a politician. [=he will no longer be able to be a politician] ▪ His political career has had it. [=his political career is finished/ruined] have it 1 — used to say that what is being reported is a rumor, a story, etc. ▪ Rumor/word has it [=a rumor says] that the company will be going out of business. ▪ Legend has it [=according to legend] George Washington slept here. 2 — used to describe a person's condition or situation ▪ He's had it pretty tough since his wife died. [=his life has been difficult since his wife died] ▪ You've never had it so good (as you have it now)! ▪ We have it pretty good right now. — also have got ▪ We*'ve got* it pretty good right now.

have it in for : to want to hurt or cause problems for (someone you do not like) ▪ She's had it in for me for a long time. — also have got ▪ She*'s got it in for* me.

have it in you : to have the ability to do something ▪ His last performance was wonderful; I didn't know he had it in him! [=I didn't know he was capable of such a performance] ▪ I don't think she has it in her to be cruel. [=I don't think she's capable of being cruel] — also have got ▪ I don't think she*'s got it in her* to be cruel.

have it out : to settle a disagreement by talking or arguing ▪ If you don't like the way he's treated you, you should have it out with him instead of just brooding about it.

have mercy/pity : to treat someone with mercy or pity ▪ The prisoner begged the judge to have mercy. — usually + on ▪ The prisoner begged the judge to have mercy on him.

have on [phrasal verb] 1 have (something) on or have on (something) : to be wearing (something) ▪ She has on a new suit. ▪ He had nothing on. [=he was naked] — also have got ▪ She*'s got on* a new suit. 2 have (something) on (you) informal : to be carrying (something) ▪ Do you have any spare change on you? ▪ I don't have my wallet on me: I left it at home. — also have got ▪ Have you got any spare change on you? 3 have (something) on : to keep (a device or machine) operating ▪ They have the radio on all the time. 4 have (something) on chiefly Brit : to have plans for (something) ▪ Do you have anything on for tomorrow? [=do you have any plans for tomorrow?] ▪ What do you have on for tomorrow? [=what are your plans for tomorrow?] — also have got ▪ Have you got anything on for tomorrow? 5 have (someone) on Brit, informal : to trick or fool (someone) in a joking way — usually used as (be) having (someone) on ▪ He said he knew the Prime Minister, but I think he was just having me on. [=he was joking; he was just putting me on] 6 have nothing on (someone) or not have anything on (someone) : to have no evidence showing that someone has committed a crime or done something bad ▪ The police were suspicious, but they had nothing on her. ▪ If the police don't have anything on you, they have to let you go. — also have got ▪ They haven't got anything on me. ▪ They*'ve got nothing on* me. 7 have nothing on (someone or something) : to have less of a particular quality than (someone or something) ▪ The winters here are bad, but they have nothing on the winters I remember when I was a child. [=they are not as bad as the winters I remember; the winters I remember were worse] ▪ He says Houston has nothing on Chicago [=Houston is not as good as Chicago] when it comes to fine restaurants. — also have got ▪ Houston*'s got nothing on* Chicago.

have over [phrasal verb] have (someone) over — used to say that someone is coming to your home as a guest ▪ We're having some friends over for dinner tonight. — see also HAVE 17 (above) have (someone or something) (all) to yourself : to be in a situation in which you are not required to share someone or something with anyone else ▪ We have the entire evening to ourselves. [=we have no plans to do anything with anyone else this evening] ▪ She has the house all to herself this weekend. [=she is the only one staying in the house this weekend] ▪ I'm happy to have you to myself tonight; it will give us a chance to talk privately.

have the time ✧ If someone asks you if you have the time, that person is asking if you know what time it is. ▪ "Do you have the time?" [=can you tell me what time it is?] "Yes, it's

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

10 minutes past 3." — also have got ▪ Have you got the time? — see also HAVE 2 (above) have to : MUST: such as a — used to say that something is required or necessary ▪ You have to follow the rules. ▪ You have to stop. [=you must stop; I command you to stop] ▪ I told him what he had to do. [=what he must do] ▪ We have to correct these problems soon or the project will fail. ▪ I have to remember to stop at the store. ▪ "Do you have to go?" "Yes, I'm afraid I really have to." ▪ If you have to go, at least wait until the storm is over. ▪ Do what you have to (do). ▪ I didn't want to do it but I had to. — also have got to ▪ You*'ve got to* stop. ▪ I*'ve got to* go now. ✧ Note the difference in meaning between not have to and must not. ▪ You don't have to do it. [=it is not necessary for you to do it] ▪ You must not do it. [=you are not allowed to do it; you are forbidden to do it] b — used to say that something is required by a rule or law ▪ All passengers have to exit at the next stop. — also have got to ▪ All passengers have got to exit at the next stop. c — used to say that something is desired or should be done ▪ You have to read this book. It's fantastic! ▪ You have to come visit us soon. [=we would like to have you visit us soon] ▪ You really have to see the doctor about that cough. [=I urge you to see the doctor; I really think you need to see the doctor] — also have got to ▪ You*'ve got to* come visit us soon. d — used to say that something is very likely ▪ It has to be close to noon. ▪ She has to be the most beautiful woman I've ever seen. [=I think she is the most beautiful woman I've ever seen] ▪ He has to have a lot of money to live the way he does. ▪ The bus has to be coming soon. ▪ There has to be some mistake. — also have got to ▪ It*'s got to* be close to noon. ▪ There*'s got to* be some mistake. e — used in various spoken phrases to emphasize a statement ▪ I have to say, I was surprised to hear from him. ▪ She's a talented actress, you have to admit. ▪ I have to admit, I expected better results. ▪ It has to be said that the movie was not very good. ▪ I have to warn you, this will not be easy. — also have got to ▪ I've got to say, I was surprised to hear from him. ▪ She's a talented actress, you've got to admit. f — used in questions or statements that express annoyance or anger ▪ Do you have to be so unreasonable? ▪ Why does it always have to rain on the weekend? ▪ Naturally it has to rain on the day when we planned a picnic. — also have got to ▪ It*'s got to* rain on the day when we planned a picnic.

have to do with see ¹DO

have with [phrasal verb] 1 have (someone) with (you) : to be with (someone) ▪ They had their grandchildren with them when they arrived. [=they arrived with their grandchildren] 2 have (something) with (you) : to be carrying (something) with (you) ▪ I don't have my wallet with me.

I have it — used to say that you suddenly remember, understand, or have found something; usually I've got it ▪ Now, what was his name? Tony? Tom? No, I've got it! Tim. His name was Tim.

I'll have you know — used to emphasize something in a somewhat annoyed or angry way ▪ "Did your son go to college?" "Did he go to college? I'll have you know that he was given a full scholarship to Harvard!"

there you have it — used to say that something has just been shown, described, or stated in a very clear and definite way ▪ "But we can't spend more money unless we have more money to spend!" "Precisely. There you have it."

what have you see ¹WHAT

you had to be there — used to say that people cannot understand something because they did not experience it or see it themselves ▪ I know it sounds weird, but it was so funny. I guess you had to be there.

ha•ven /ˈheɪvən/ noun, pl -vens [count] : a place where you are protected from danger, trouble, etc. ▪ The shelter offers/provides a haven from abusive spouses. ▪ The inn is a haven for weary travelers. ▪ This national park provides a safe haven for wildlife. — see also TAX HAVEN

have–nots /ˈhævˌnɑːts/ noun

the have-nots : people who have little money and few possessions : poor people — usually used in the phrase the haves and the have-nots ▪ the gap between the haves and the have-nots [=between rich people and poor people] haven't /ˈhævənt/ — used as a contraction of have not ▪ We haven't tried the new restaurant yet.

haves /ˈhævz/ noun

the haves : people who have a lot of money and possessions : wealthy people — usually used in the phrase the haves and the have-nots ▪ the gap between the haves and the have-nots [=between rich people and poor people]

hav•oc /ˈhævək/ noun [noncount] : a situation in which there is much destruction or confusion ▪ the havoc of war ▪ A powerful tornado wreaked havoc on [=caused great destruction to] the small village. ▪ The disease can play havoc with the body's immune system. ▪ Several small children can create/cause havoc in a house.

haw /hɑː/ verb haws; hawed; haw•ing

hem and haw see ³HEM

¹hawk /hɑːk/ noun, pl hawks [count]

1 : a bird that kills other birds and animals for food — see color picture on page C9

2 : a person who supports war or the use of military force ▪ The hawks voted against the proposed cuts in military spending. — compare DOVE watch (someone or something) like a hawk : to watch (someone or something) very carefully ▪ The storeowner watches those teenagers like a hawk whenever they come in because she's afraid they're going to steal something.

– hawk•ish /ˈhɑːkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a hawkish politician

²hawk verb hawks; hawked; hawk•ing [+ obj] : to offer (something) for sale especially by calling out or by going from one person to another : PEDDLE ▪ Vendors were hawking soda and hot dogs. ▪ hawking newspapers — compare ³HAWK

– hawk•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a newspaper hawker

³hawk verb hawks; hawked; hawking [+ obj] : to clear (material) from your throat by coughing, making a noise with your voice, etc. — usually + up ▪ hawking up phlegm — compare ²HAWK

haw•ser /ˈhɑːzə/ noun, pl -sers [count] technical : a very thick rope or cable for towing or tying up a ship haw•thorn /ˈhɑːˌθoən/ noun, pl -thorns [count] : a type of bush or small tree with white or pink flowers and small red fruits

hay /heɪ/ noun [noncount]

1 : grass that has been cut and dried to be used as food for animals ▪ a bale of hay

2 US, informal : a small amount of money — usually used in negative statements ▪ They made over a million dollars last year, and that ain't hay! [=that is a lot of money]

a roll in the hay see ³ROLL

hit the hay see ¹HIT

make hay (while the sun shines) : to get value or use from an opportunity while it exists : to not waste an opportunity ▪ These good economic conditions won't last forever, so investors need to make hay while the sun shines.

hay fever noun [singular] medical : a sickness that is like a cold and that is caused by breathing in plant pollen

hay• eld /ˈheɪˌfiːld/ noun, pl - elds [count] : a field where grass is grown for hay

hay•loft /ˈheɪˌlɑːft/ noun, pl -lofts [count] : the upper part of a barn where hay is stored hay•mak•er /ˈheɪˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US, informal : a powerful hit with the fist : a very hard punch ▪ He was knocked down by a haymaker to his jaw. ▪ throw/deliver a haymaker

hay•rick /ˈheɪˌrɪk/ noun, pl -ricks [count] chiefly Brit : HAYSTACK

hay•ride /ˈheɪˌraɪd/ noun, pl -rides [count] US : an informal event in which a group of people ride for pleasure in a wagon, sleigh, or open truck that is partly filled with straw or hay hay•stack /ˈheɪˌstæk/ noun, pl -stacks [count] : a large pile of hay

a needle in a haystack see ¹NEEDLE

hay•wire /ˈheɪˌwajə/ adj, informal : not working properly ▪ a haywire immune system — usually used in the phrase go haywire ▪ The disease has caused her immune system to go haywire. [=to stop working properly] ▪ The old radio went haywire. ▪ The stock market has gone completely haywire.

¹haz•ard /ˈhæzəd/ noun, pl -ards

1 [count] : a source of danger ▪ Young people should be educated about the hazards of excessive drinking. [=about how drinking too much alcohol is harmful] ▪ That old staircase is a safety hazard. [=it is dangerous; someone could get hurt by using it] ▪ a fire hazard [=something that could cause a fire] ▪ a health hazard = a hazard to your health [=something that could make you sick] ▪ Hand injuries are an occupational

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

hazard for typists. [=typists are likely to have hand injuries because of the work they do] ▪ a traffic hazard [=something that could cause an accident involving a car, bicycle, etc.]
2 [count] golf : something on a golf course (such as a pond or an area of sand) that makes hitting the ball into the hole more difficult ▪ a water hazard
3 hazards [plural] : HAZARD LIGHTS

[2]hazard verb -ards; -ard•ed; -ard•ing [+ obj]
1 : to risk losing (something, such as money) in an attempt to get, win, or achieve something ▪ His friend asked him to hazard a small sum in a business venture.
2 : to offer (something, such as a guess or an opinion) even though you may be wrong ▪ She was unwilling to hazard [=venture] a guess as to the outcome of the election. ▪ hazard an opinion hazard lights noun [plural] : special lights on a vehicle that flash on and off and are used to warn other drivers of a dangerous situation (such as when the vehicle is not working properly) — called also hazards

haz•ard•ous /ˈhæzɚdəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : involving risk or danger : DANGEROUS ▪ It was a hazardous voyage. ▪ These are hazardous chemicals that can cause death if inhaled. ▪ hazardous driving habits — sometimes + to ▪ Smoking can be hazardous to your health.
– haz•ard•ous•ly adv

hazard pay noun [noncount] US : extra money that someone is paid for doing work that is dangerous — called also (US) danger pay, (Brit) danger money

haze /ˈheɪz/ noun [singular]
1 : dust, smoke, or mist that has filled the air so that you cannot see clearly ▪ The bar was filled with a smoky haze. ▪ a haze of smoke
2 : a state of confusion ▪ She stumbled around in a drug-induced haze.
– hazed /ˈheɪzd/ adj ▪ the pale, hazed sky — usually used in combination ▪ the smoke-hazed sky/bar ▪ a drug-hazed state

ha•zel /ˈheɪzəl/ noun, pl -zels
1 [count] : a kind of bush or small tree that produces nuts
2 [count, noncount] : a color that combines light brown with green and gray
– see also WITCH HAZEL
– hazel adj ▪ hazel eyes

ha•zel•nut /ˈheɪzəlˌnʌt/ noun, pl -nuts [count] : the nut of a hazel — called also (US) filbert; see picture at NUT

haz•ing /ˈheɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US : the practice of playing unpleasant tricks on someone or forcing someone to do unpleasant things ✧ Hazing is done as part of a ritual that people (such as college students) must go through before they are allowed to become members of a group (such as a fraternity).
– haze /ˈheɪz/ verb haz•es; hazing; hazed [+ obj] ▪ Varsity team members hazed the new players by leading them around campus on leashes.

hazy /ˈheɪzi/ adj haz•i•er; -est
1 : partly hidden, darkened, or clouded by dust, smoke, or mist : hidden by haze ▪ We had only a hazy view of the mountain. ▪ hazy sunshine; also : having or filled with haze ▪ hazy weather
2 a : not clear in thought or meaning : VAGUE ▪ He gave us a hazy account of how he had spent the last two weeks. ▪ She has only hazy memories of the accident. b : not certain ▪ I'm a little hazy [=unclear] on/about the details.
– haz•i•ly /ˈheɪzəli/ adv ▪ hazily remembered – haz•i•ness /ˈheɪzinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the haziness of the view/memories

H–bomb /ˈeɪtʃˌbɑ:m/ noun, pl -bombs [count] : HYDROGEN BOMB

HDTV abbr high-definition television

[1]he /ˈhi:, i/ pronoun
1 : that male — used to indicate a male person or animal that is the subject of a verb ▪ He is my father. ▪ Ask your brother where he is going. ▪ He has been planning this trip since January. ▪ (on the telephone) "Hello, I'd like to speak with Jim." "This is he." [=I (the person who answered the phone) am Jim] — compare SHE
2 : that person — used in a general sense or when the sex of the person is unknown ▪ Everyone should do the best he can. ▪ Tell whoever is in there that he had better come out. ▪ He who laughs last, laughs best. ✧ This use of he was common in the past but is now often avoided because it is considered sexist.

[2]he /ˈhi:/ noun [singular] : a boy, man, or male animal ▪ "Somebody called when you were out, but I can't remember who." "Was it a he or a she?" — sometimes used in combination ▪ a he-goat

[1]head /ˈhɛd/ noun, pl heads or in sense 7 head
1 [count] : the part of the body containing the brain, eyes, ears, nose, and mouth ▪ She patted the dog on the head. ▪ He nodded his head in agreement. ▪ The ceiling's low—watch your head! ▪ head injuries ▪ They were covered from head to foot/toe in mud. [=they were completely covered in mud] ▪ He has a full head of hair. [=he has a full amount of hair on his head] — see picture at HUMAN; see also TALKING HEAD
2 [count] : a person's mental ability : mind or intellect ▪ You shouldn't let your heart rule your head. [=you should be guided by reason and not by your emotions] ▪ She did some quick calculations in her head. [=without writing anything; mentally] ▪ I keep hearing that song in my head. = That song keeps running through my head. = I can't get that song out of my head. ▪ It never even entered my head to run for office. [=I never thought of running for office] ▪ The problem is all in his head. [=the problem is not real; he's just imagining it] ▪ Don't go putting ideas in/into his head. [=don't cause him to have ideas or suspicions that he would not have himself] ▪ You should put that idea out of your head. [=you should stop thinking about that idea] ▪ She always says the first thing that comes/pops into her head. [=the first thing that she thinks of] ▪ I'm sure we can solve this problem if we just use our heads. [=think carefully] ▪ That guy should have his head examined. = That guy is not right in the head. [=that guy is crazy] ▪ You need a cool/calm head [=an ability to remain calm] to deal with someone like him. ▪ a clear head [=an ability to think clearly] ✧ If you have a good head on your shoulders, you are intelligent and have good judgment. ▪ You don't have to worry about her—she's got a good head on her shoulders. ✧ When you get/take it into your head to do something, you suddenly decide to do it in a way that seems foolish or surprising. ▪ He's taken it into his head to try skydiving. ▪ I somehow got it into my head to run for public office. ✧ If you get it into your head that something is true, you begin to believe something even though there is no good reason for believing it. ▪ She's somehow gotten it into her head that I don't like her. [=she believes that I don't like her although I do like her]
3 [count] : a person who has a specified mental or emotional quality ▪ A fight was avoided when cooler heads prevailed. [=when calmer or less angry people were able to convince others not to fight] — see also HOTHEAD, SOREHEAD
4 [singular] : a distance equal to the length of a head ▪ The horse won the race by a head. ▪ I'm a head taller than you.
5 [count] : the front side of a coin : the side of a coin that shows a picture of a person's head ▪ the head of a penny — usually used in the plural to refer to one of the two choices you can make when a coin is thrown in the air to decide something ▪ I call heads. ▪ Is it heads or tails? [=did the coin land with heads or tails facing up?] ▪ It landed heads up. — compare [1]TAIL 3
6 head [plural] : individual animals ▪ 100 head of cattle
7 [count] a : an end of something that is like a head in shape or position — usually singular; often + of ▪ She placed the pillows at the head of the bed. ▪ We arrived early so that we'd be at the head [=front] of the line. ▪ The chairman sat at the head of the table. ▪ the head [=top] of a nail/pin/screw — compare FOOT b : the part of an object that hits or touches something else ▪ a grinding head ▪ the hammer's head — often + of ▪ the head of a spear ▪ the head of a golf club — see also ARROWHEAD, SPEARHEAD, WARHEAD
8 [noncount] : the position of being a leader ▪ She's at the head of her class. [=she is the best student in her class]
9 [count] a : a person who leads or directs a group or organization ▪ Have you met the new department head? — often + of ▪ She is the head of our sales division. ▪ heads of families/households ▪ heads of state [=leaders of countries] — often used before another noun ▪ the restaurant's head cook ▪ the team's head coach b chiefly Brit : HEAD TEACHER
10 [count] : a tight mass of leaves or flowers on a plant ▪ The flower heads on the plant are very large. ▪ a head of cabbage/lettuce ▪ a head of garlic
11 [count] : the place where a stream or river begins — usually singular ▪ the head of the Nile 12 [singular] : pressure caused by the water or steam in a machine ✧ When an engine has a full head of steam, it has built up a full amount of power. This phrase is often used figuratively to describe something that is moving forward in a fast and powerful way. ▪ The project started slowly, but

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

now we have a full head of steam.
13 [count] : the bubbles that form on the top of some liquids (such as beer) — usually singular ▪ the foamy head on a beer
14 [singular] : the point at which a situation becomes very serious or when action is required ▪ Things came to a head when the workers threatened to go on strike. ▪ These new revelations brought the scandal to a head.
15 [count] : a small, inflamed area on the skin with a spot in the middle — see also BLACKHEAD a big/swelled head informal : an overly high opinion of yourself ▪ All those compliments have given him a big head. [=have made him very conceited] a head : for each person ▪ The price is $20 a head.
a price on someone's head see [1]PRICE bang heads together see [1]BANG bite someone's head off see [1]BITE butt heads see [3]BUTT count heads see [1]COUNT eyes in the back of your head see [1]EYE get it through someone's head : to cause someone to learn and remember something ▪ She's finally gotten it through their heads that she doesn't eat meat.
get it through your head : to accept or understand (something) ▪ He can't seem to get it through his head that I'm not interested in working with him.
get your head round Brit : to understand (something) ▪ She couldn't get her head round why he had to leave.
go over someone's head : to discuss something with a person who is higher in rank than someone else ▪ He went over his supervisor's head to complain about the policy to the company's president. [=he complained about the policy to the company's president rather than his supervisor] go to your head 1 of an alcoholic drink : to make you feel drunk ▪ I just had one glass of wine, but it went straight to my head. 2 : to make you believe that you are better than other people ▪ He has never let his fame go to his head.
have a head for : to have an ability to understand or deal with (something) ▪ She's always had a (good) head for business. ▪ (Brit) He has a head for heights. [=he is not afraid of heights; being up high does not bother him] have/get your head (screwed) on right/straight informal : to think or act in a smart and sensible way ▪ She's young, but it's clear that she has her head screwed on right. ▪ You think that's a good idea? You need to get your head screwed on straight.
head and shoulders above — used to say that someone or something is much better than others ▪ They are/stand head and shoulders above the competition.
head in the sand ✧ If you bury/have/hide (etc.) your head in the sand, you ignore something unpleasant that you should be dealing with. ▪ He can't just bury his head in the sand every time there's a problem.
head over heels : very deeply in love ▪ We were head over heels (in love). ▪ He fell head over heels for some girl he met at school. ▪ (US) He went head over heels for her.
heads roll informal ✧ If you say that heads will roll or (less commonly) heads are going to roll, you mean that people will be severely punished or will lose their jobs because of something that has happened. ▪ When the boss finds out about the mistake, heads will roll.
hit the nail on the head see [1]HIT hold up your head or hold your head (up) high : to be proud : to not feel ashamed ▪ Even though they lost the game, they can still hold up their heads because they tried their best.
keep your head : to remain calm ▪ She has shown that she can keep her head in a crisis.
keep your head above water : to avoid financial failure while having money problems ▪ We have so much debt that we're barely able to keep our heads above water.
keep your head down informal : to behave in a quiet way that does not attract attention ▪ a politician who is keeping his head down and trying to avoid controversy knock heads see [1]KNOCK knock someone's head off see [1]KNOCK knock some sense into someone's head see [1]SENSE knock (something) on the head see [1]KNOCK lose your head : to become very upset or angry ▪ He lost his head and said some things he regrets.
not make head or/nor tail of or US not make heads or/nor tails (out) of informal : to be unable to understand (something) ▪ I couldn't make heads or tails of her reaction. ▪ His handwriting was so bad that we couldn't make heads or tails out of it.
off the top of your head see [1]TOP off your head Brit, informal : crazy or foolish ▪ He's not just eccentric—he's completely off his head! ▪ He's gone off his head over some girl.
on your head 1 : with the upper and lower parts of your body reversed in position ▪ Can you stand on your head? 2 : in or into great disorder ▪ News of the discovery turned the scientific world on its head. 3 — used to say that you will be blamed for something ▪ If we miss our deadline, it will be on your head. [=it will be your fault] out of your head informal : unable to act or think in a reasonable and controlled way because of drunkenness or strong emotion ▪ He was (drunk) out of his head. [=he was extremely drunk] ▪ Her parents were out of their heads with worry [=were extremely worried and upset] when she didn't come home on time.
over your head : beyond your understanding or ability ▪ The technical details were over my head. [=too complicated for me to understand] ▪ That joke went right over my head. [=I did not get that joke] ▪ We realized after we started the business that we were (in) over our heads. [=we were trying to do something that was too difficult] per head : for each person ▪ The price is $20 per head.
put/stick/raise your head above the parapet see PARAPET put your heads together : to think of a solution to a problem with another person ▪ I'm sure we can solve this problem if we just put our heads together.
rear/raise its ugly head ✧ If something bad rears/raises its ugly head, it suddenly becomes obvious or causes trouble. ▪ Inflation threatened to rear its ugly head.
scratch your head informal : to be confused about something and unable to understand the reason for it ▪ His odd behavior left us all scratching our heads.
scream/shout/yell/laugh (etc.) your head off informal : to scream/shout/yell/laugh (etc.) very loudly or for a long time ▪ She was screaming her head off. ▪ You can shout your head off at him, but he still won't listen. ▪ If they saw me dressed like this, they'd laugh their heads off.
shake your head see [1]SHAKE two heads are better than one — used to say that it is easier for two people who help each other to solve a problem than it is for one person to solve a problem alone turn heads : to attract attention or notice ▪ The car's sleek design is bound to turn heads.

[2]head verb heads; head•ed; head•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to be the leader of (something) ▪ She heads the committee. ▪ The group was headed by the church pastor. ▪ He was accused of heading the revolt. — often + up ▪ The research committee was headed up by several leading scientists. b : to be first on (a list) ▪ He heads [=tops] the list of candidates for the job.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go in a specified direction or toward a specified place ▪ She turned around and headed (for) home. ▪ I hopped in the car and headed down the street. ▪ After lunch, we headed back to the office. ▪ She headed out early this morning. ▪ The birds have already started heading south for the winter. ✧ To be heading or headed somewhere is to be going or directed somewhere. ▪ Where are you heading? = Where are you headed? [=where are you going?] ▪ The ship was heading/headed out to sea. — often + for ▪ We were on a plane headed for Hawaii. — often used figuratively ▪ The economy may be heading into a recession. ▪ If you keep acting like this, you'll be heading/headed for trouble!
3 [+ obj] soccer : to hit (the ball) with your head ▪ The forward headed the ball into the goal.
head off [phrasal verb] 1 : to go to another place ▪ I'll see you later—I'm heading off. ▪ He headed off to work. 2 head (someone) off or head off (someone) : to stop (someone) from moving forward ▪ We can head them off at the pass. 3 head (something) off or head off (something) : to prevent (something) from happening ▪ They tried to head off the crisis by raising interest rates.

head•ache /ˈhɛdˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches
1 : an ache or pain in the head [count] I'm starting to get a headache. [noncount] The symptoms include fever and headache. — see also SPLITTING HEADACHE
2 [count] : a difficult or annoying situation or problem ▪ The city's biggest headache is traffic. ▪ Managing your finances can be a real headache.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

– head•achy /ˈhɛdˌeɪki/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I was feeling tired and headachy.

head•band /ˈhɛdˌbænd/ noun, pl -bands [count] : a band of cloth or some other material worn on or around your head head•board /ˈhɛdˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : an upright board at the end of a bed where you rest your head — see picture at BED

head boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] Brit : an older male student in a British school who is chosen to have special duties and to represent the school head case noun, pl ~ cases [count] informal : a person who has mental or emotional problems : a crazy person ▪ Her brother's a real head case.

head•cheese /ˈhɛdˌʧiːz/ noun [noncount] US : a food made from parts of the head, feet, and sometimes the tongue and heart of a pig — called also (Brit) brawn

head cold noun, pl ~ colds [count] : a cold that mainly affects areas in your nose, throat, etc., and that makes breathing difficult head count noun, pl ~ counts [count] : an act of counting the number of people at a place, event, etc. ▪ She did a head count to make sure all the students were on the bus.

head•dress /ˈhɛdˌdrɛs/ noun, pl -dress•es [count] : a decorative covering for your head ▪ The dancers wore ceremonial headdresses.

head•ed /ˈhɛdəd/ adj : having a head or heads of a specified type or number — usually used in combination with another adjective ▪ a curly-headed child [=a child with curly hair] ▪ a red-headed actress ▪ a two-headed ax — see also WRONG-HEADED

head•er /ˈhɛdə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a word, phrase, etc., that is placed at the beginning of a document, passage, etc., or at the top of a page ▪ a column header ▪ an e-mail header [=lines at the beginning of an e-mail message giving information about the message's origin, etc.] — see picture at TABLE; compare FOOTER
2 informal : a fall in which your head hits the ground ▪ She tripped on the rock and took a header.
3 soccer : a shot or pass made by hitting the ball with your head ▪ He scored with a header past the goalie.
– see also DOUBLEHEADER

head• rst /ˈhɛdˈfəst/ adv
1 : with the head leading ▪ She dove into the water headfirst. — compare FEETFIRST
2 : without taking time to think about your actions ▪ She rushed into the relationship headfirst.
– head rst adj ▪ a headfirst dive/slide head•gear /ˈhɛdˌgiə/ noun [noncount] : things (such as hats and helmets) that are worn on your head ▪ The law requires cyclists to wear protective headgear. ▪ Her preferred form of headgear is a big, floppy hat.

head girl noun, pl ~ girls [count] Brit : an older female student in a British school who is chosen to have special duties and to represent the school head–hunt•ing /ˈhɛdˌhʌntɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of finding people who are suited for a particular job — often used before another noun ▪ They retained a head-hunting firm to fill the position of chief executive officer.

– head•hunt•er /ˈhɛdˌhʌntə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Corporations often use headhunters to find candidates for executive positions.

head•ing /ˈhɛdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]
1 : the direction in which a ship or aircraft points ▪ What is your current heading?
2 : a word, phrase, etc., that is placed at the beginning of a document, passage, etc., or at the top of a page ▪ We organized all the recipes under different subject headings. ▪ a chapter heading — see picture at TABLE
3 : a name or label used for a group of people or things ▪ His paintings usually fall/go/come under the heading of realism.

head•lamp /ˈhɛdˌlæmp/ noun, pl -lamps [count] : HEADLIGHT

head•land /ˈhɛdlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : a narrow area of land that sticks out into the sea : PROMONTORY

head•less /ˈhɛdləs/ adj : having no head ▪ a headless pin ▪ a headless body head•light /ˈhɛdˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a light on the front of a vehicle (such as a car or motorcycle) — see picture at CAR

[1]head•line /ˈhɛdˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines
1 [count] : the title written in large letters over a story in a newspaper ▪ The story of his arrest appeared beneath the headline "Caught!" ▪ She only had time to scan the headlines before she had to rush out the door.
2 headlines [plural] : the major news stories reported in newspapers, magazines, or television news programs ▪ Surprising developments have kept the murder investigation in the headlines for several weeks. ▪ He made/grabbed headlines [=became the subject of major news] with his recent antismoking campaign. ▪ She has grabbed/hit/made the headlines by making public accusations of corruption within the government. ▪ The murder investigation has been in the headlines for several weeks.

[2]headline verb -lines; -lined; -lin•ing [+ obj]
1 : to provide (a newspaper story) with a headline — usually used as (be) headlined ▪ The story of his arrest was headlined "Caught!"
2 US : to be the main performer in (a show or concert) ▪ The band is headlining the music festival.

head•lin•er /ˈhɛdˌlaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : the main performer in a show or concert ▪ He was the headliner at a local night club.

head•lock /ˈhɛdˌlɑːk/ noun, pl -locks [count] : a method of holding someone by putting your arm around the person's head ▪ He had me in a headlock.

head•long /ˈhɛdˈlɑːŋ/ adv
1 : with the head leading : HEADFIRST ▪ I dove headlong to the floor.
2 : without taking time to think about your actions — usually + into ▪ We rushed headlong into marriage.
– head•long /ˈhɛdˌlɑːŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a headlong dive ▪ We made a headlong rush for the door.

head•man /ˈhɛdˈmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˈmɛn/ [count] : a man who is the leader of a tribe or village : CHIEF head•mas•ter /ˈhɛdˈmæstə, Brit ˈhɛdˈmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a man who is the head of a U.S. private school
2 : a man who is the head of a British school head•mis•tress /ˈhɛdˈmɪstrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count]

1 : a woman who is the head of a U.S. private school
2 : a woman who is the head of a British school

head–on /ˈhɛdˈɑːn/ adv
1 : with the head or front hitting first ▪ The two cars collided head-on.
2 : in a very direct way ▪ She decided to confront/meet the challenge head-on.
– head–on adj, always used before a noun ▪ a head-on collision/confrontation head•phones /ˈhɛdˌfoʊnz/ noun [plural] : a device that is worn over your ears and used for listening to music, the radio, etc., without having other people hear it ▪ a pair/set of headphones head•piece /ˈhɛdˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count] : a usually decorative covering for the head ▪ The bride wore a veil with a beaded headpiece.

head•quar•tered /ˈhɛdˌkwoətəd/ adj, not used before a noun : having headquarters in a certain place : based in a particular location ▪ The company is headquartered in Springfield, Massachusetts.

head•quar•ters /ˈhɛdˌkwoətəz/ noun [plural] : a place from which something (such as a business or a military action) is controlled or directed ✧ Headquarters is plural in form but is used with both plural and singular verbs. ▪ The company's headquarters is/are in Atlanta.

head•rest /ˈhɛdˌrɛst/ noun, pl -rests [count] : the part of a seat or chair that supports your head — see picture at CAR head•room /ˈhɛdˌruːm/ noun [noncount] : the space between the top of your head and a ceiling or roof when you are standing or sitting ▪ There isn't much headroom in the basement. [=the ceiling is low in the basement] ▪ He's looking for a car with a lot of headroom.

head•scarf /ˈhɛdˌskɑəf/ noun, pl -scarves [count] : a piece of cloth worn over a woman's or girl's head head•set /ˈhɛdˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count]

1 : a pair of headphones
2 : a device that holds an earphone and a microphone in place on a person's head
– see picture on next page

head•stand /ˈhɛdˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] : the act of positioning your body so that your head and hands are on the floor and your legs and feet are straight up in the air ▪

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

headset

She can do a headstand. [=she can stand on her head]

head start noun, pl ~ starts [count]
1 : an advantage given to a someone at the beginning of a race ▪ They gave me a five-minute head start.
2 : an advantage that you have or get when you are starting to do something ▪ She took some extra classes to get a head start in/on her career. ▪ His natural athletic talent gave him a head start on/over his peers.

head•stone /ˈhɛdˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a stone that marks the place where a dead person is buried and that usually has the person's name and birth and death dates on it — called also gravestone, tombstone head•strong /ˈhɛdˌstrɑːŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not willing to do what other people want : very stubborn ▪ The child is very headstrong. ▪ He is known for his headstrong behavior.

heads up interj, US, informal — used to tell someone to look up because of possible danger ▪ He shouted, "Heads up!" as he threw the ball.

[1]heads–up /ˈhɛdzˈʌp/ noun [singular] US, informal : a message that tells or warns someone about something that is going to happen ▪ She gave him a heads-up that the company's president will be visiting the office.

[2]heads–up adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : showing that you are very aware of what is happening around you : ALERT ▪ a heads-up play by the first baseman head table noun, pl ~ tables [count] : the table at which the most important people sit during a formal meal

head teacher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] Brit : the person who is in charge of a school head–to–head adv : in a direct competition or contest ▪ The two teams will compete head-to-head for the championship. ▪ He'll go head-to-head with his toughest opponent in the upcoming debate.

– head–to–head adj, always used before a noun ▪ a head-to-head competition head•wait•er /ˈhɛdˈweɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a waiter who is in charge of other waiters in a restaurant

head•wa•ters /ˈhɛdˌwɑːtəz/ noun [plural] : the beginning and upper part of a stream or river ▪ the headwaters of the Amazon

head•way /ˈhɛdˌweɪ/ noun
make headway : to move forward or make progress ▪ The wind kept the boat from making headway toward shore. ▪ The boat made little headway [=moved forward very little] against the strong wind. ▪ We're gradually making headway with the project. ▪ They've recently made some headway in their search for a cure.

head•wind /ˈhɛdˌwɪnd/ noun, pl -winds [count] : a wind that is blowing toward something (such as a ship or an airplane) as it moves forward — compare TAILWIND head•word /ˈhɛdˌwɝd/ noun, pl -words [count] : a word placed at the beginning of an entry in a dictionary, encyclopedia, etc.

heady /ˈhɛdi/ adj head•i•er; -est
1 : causing feelings of excitement or dizziness : having a powerful effect on your senses ▪ a heady wine/aroma ▪ The plane soared to heady heights.
2 : very excited and happy ▪ They were heady with their newfound success.

heal /ˈhiːl/ verb heals; healed; heal•ing
1 [no obj] : to become healthy or well again ▪ The cut healed slowly. ▪ You've got to give the injury time to heal. ▪ After the divorce, he needed some time to heal.
2 [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) healthy or well again ▪ The ointment will help heal the wound. ▪ heal the sick ▪ Only time will heal the rift/breach between the two families. [=make the two families become friendly again]
– heal•er /ˈhiːlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Native American healers ▪ Time is a great healer. – healing adj ▪ The tree sap is believed to have healing powers. ▪ the healing process
– healing noun [noncount] ▪ traditional methods of healing — see also FAITH HEALING

[1]health /ˈhɛlθ/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the condition of being well or free from disease ▪ We nursed him back to health. ▪ My aunt is quite elderly, but she still has her health. [=she is still healthy] ▪ She is the picture of health. [=she is very healthy] ✧ If you drink (to) someone's health, you take a drink as a wish for that person to be healthy. b : the overall condition of someone's body or mind ▪ He's in good/poor health these days. ▪ He has continued to enjoy good health in his old age. ▪ Her health is excellent. = She is in the best of health. ▪ Smoking is bad for your health. ▪ He is concerned about his sister's mental health.
2 : the condition or state of something ▪ We must protect the health of our oceans. ▪ The economy is in a period of robust financial health. ▪ Investors are worried about the company's health.
give (someone or something) a clean bill of health see [1]BILL

[2]health adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to medical care ▪ She works in the health field. ▪ health insurance/services ▪ He was treated at the health center.
2 : relating to or affecting the condition of your body or mind ▪ health education ▪ Have you had any health problems recently? ▪ These chemicals pose a health hazard/risk.

health care noun [noncount] : the prevention or treatment of illness by doctors, dentists, psychologists, etc.
– health–care adj, always used before a noun ▪ health-care workers health club noun, pl ~ clubs [count] : a private club where people go to exercise

health farm noun, pl ~ farms [count] chiefly Brit : SPA 1b health food noun, pl ~ foods : a food that is believed to be good for your health : a food that has no artificial ingredients [noncount] He eats only health food. ▪ She shops at the health-food store. [count] The restaurant offers a variety of health foods.

health•ful /ˈhɛlθfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : good for your health : HEALTHY ▪ healthful living ▪ a healthful lifestyle/diet ▪ The meal was both healthful and satisfying.
– health•ful•ly adv – health•ful•ness noun [noncount]

health spa noun, pl ~ spas [count] : SPA 1b healthy /ˈhɛlθi/ adj health•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : having good health : not sick or injured : WELL ▪ healthy babies ▪ tips for staying healthy b : showing good health ▪ a healthy complexion ▪ He has a healthy [=hearty, large] appetite.
2 : good for your health : HEALTHFUL ▪ a healthy lifestyle/diet ▪ healthy living ▪ Those foods aren't healthy (for you). = It's not healthy (for you) to eat those foods.
3 : doing well : successful or growing ▪ a healthy economy ▪ The company is financially healthy.
4 : large in size or amount ▪ A healthy number of her poems were published in the magazine. ▪ She has a healthy bank account. ▪ This line of work requires a healthy dose of self-discipline. ▪ His business earns a healthy profit.
5 : sensible or natural ▪ The students have a healthy curiosity about the world. ▪ a healthy respect for dangerous animals – health•i•ly /ˈhɛlθəli/ adv ▪ living healthily ▪ healthily active people – health•i•ness /ˈhɛlθinəs/ noun [noncount]
– healthy adv, informal ▪ He eats healthy. ▪ She lives healthy by exercising and eating right.

[1]heap /hiːp/ noun, pl heaps [count]
1 : a large, disordered pile of things ▪ He dumped the grass clippings into the compost heap. ▪ a heap of old newspapers ▪ She left her dirty clothes in a heap on the floor. — see also SCRAP HEAP
2 informal : a great number or large amount of something ▪ He's in a heap of trouble! — often plural ▪ They've got heaps of money.
3 informal : an old car that is in poor condition ▪ I can't believe he's still driving that old heap.
at the bottom/top of the heap — used to describe a person's level of success, position in society, etc. ▪ Quite a few people applied for the job, but his past work experience put him at the top of the heap. [=made him the strongest candidate of the group] ▪ People at the bottom of the heap [=poor people] will not be helped much by the new tax cuts.
collapse/fall (etc.) in a heap : to fall very suddenly to the ground and lie there ▪ Overcome by heat exhaustion, he collapsed/fell in a heap.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

[2]heap verb heaps; heaped; heap•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to put (something) in a large pile ▪ He heaped the leaves (up) beside the fence. ▪ They heaped food on our plates. [=they put a lot of food on our plates] — often used as (be) heaped ▪ Books and magazines were heaped in a corner. ▪ Bags of flour were heaped (up) on the counter. b : to put a pile or heap on or in (something) — + with ▪ They heaped our plates with food. ▪ She brought out a basket heaped with fruit. [=filled with a large amount of fruit]
2 : to give (something, such as praise, blame, etc.) in large amounts — + on or upon ▪ The critics heaped scorn on our efforts. [=the critics were very scornful of our efforts] ▪ He was embarrassed by all the praise being heaped upon him.

heaped adj, Brit : HEAPING ▪ a heaped plateful ▪ a heaped tablespoon heaping adj, US

1 : holding a large pile of something ▪ I ate three heaping platefuls of rice and beans.
2 : holding as much as can be held ▪ Add one heaping tablespoon of sugar.

hear /ˈhiə/ verb hears; heard /ˈhəd/; hear•ing
1 not used in progressive tenses a : to be aware of (sound) through the ear [+ obj] Do you hear that music? ▪ I can't hear you. = I can't hear what you are saying. ▪ I couldn't hear a word of what he said over all that noise. ▪ I thought I heard him leave. ▪ He was heard leaving. = He was heard to leave. [no obj] Would you turn the volume up a little? I can't hear. ▪ She doesn't hear well. [=her ability to hear sounds is poor; her hearing is poor] b [+ obj] : to listen to (someone or something) ▪ I heard her in concert a few years ago. ▪ Have you ever heard Wagner sung/performed in English? ▪ The committee will hear witnesses today.
2 : to be told (something) [+ obj] I hear he's leaving town. ▪ "Is he leaving town?" "So I've heard." = "So I hear." ▪ "Is he leaving town?" "That's what I'm hearing." [=that's what people are saying] ▪ I don't know what happened. I'll let you know if I hear anything. ▪ I've heard it said that smoking is bad for your health. ▪ He heard it on the radio. ▪ (old-fashioned) I hear tell that he's leaving town. ▪ Have you heard the one/joke about the traveling salesman and the farmer's daughter? [no obj] Didn't you hear? There's a storm heading our way. — often + about ▪ A week passed before they heard about the incident. ▪ Frankly, I'm sick of hearing about his problems.
3 [+ obj] : to give attention to (someone or something) ▪ Lord, hear our prayers.
4 [+ obj] law : to listen to and make a judgment about (a court case) ▪ The judge will hear the case.
be hearing things : to hear sounds that are not real ▪ She swears she heard someone open the door, but I think she's just hearing things.
hear from [phrasal verb] hear from (someone) : to receive a letter, a telephone call, etc., from (someone) ▪ We heard from them yesterday. ▪ I haven't heard from her lately. ▪ I haven't heard anything from her lately.
Hear! Hear! — used during a speech or meeting to say that you agree with what someone else has just said hear of [phrasal verb] hear of (someone or something) : to be aware of the existence of (someone or something) : to know about (someone or something) ▪ He's supposed to be a famous actor, but this is the first time I've ever (even) heard of him. [=the first time I have heard his name] ▪ I've never heard of such a thing! ▪ If I hear of a job opening, I'll let you know. — see also NOT HEAR OF (below) hear out [phrasal verb] hear (someone) out : to listen to (someone who wants to tell you something) ▪ I know you don't agree but hear me out.
hear yourself think informal — used to say that you cannot think clearly because of loud talking, music, etc. ▪ That music is so loud I can't hear myself think.
I hear what you're saying informal — used to say that you understand what someone is telling you ▪ I hear what you're saying but I still disagree.
make your presence heard see PRESENCE make yourself heard see [1]MAKE never/not hear the end of it informal — used to say that someone will keep talking about something for a long time ▪ If it turns out that he's right, we'll never hear the end of it. [=he will keep reminding us that he was right] not hear of : to not allow (something) ▪ We tried to pay him for his help, but he would*n't hear of* it. [=he wouldn't allow us to pay] — see also HEAR OF (above)
you could hear a pin drop see [1]PIN hear•er /ˈhirə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who hears or listens to someone or something ▪ Different hearers may interpret the same phrase differently.

hear•ing /ˈhirɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [noncount] : the sense through which a person or animal is aware of sound : the ability to hear ▪ Her hearing is good/poor. ▪ He suffered some loss of hearing in his right ear. ▪ She is hearing-impaired. [=not able to hear well] — see also hard of hearing at [1]HARD
2 [noncount] : the distance within which someone's voice can be heard ▪ She stayed within hearing of her mother's voice. [=she stayed close enough to her mother to hear her voice]
3 [count] : an opportunity to explain why you did, said, or believe something — usually singular ▪ They agreed to give both sides a fair hearing. [=they agreed to listen to and consider statements from both sides]
4 [count] : a meeting or session at which evidence and arguments about a crime, complaint, etc., are presented to a person or group who will have to decide on what action should be taken ▪ The judge has granted them a hearing. ▪ The committee held public hearings on the bill.

hearing aid noun, pl ~ aids [count] : an electronic device worn in or on the ear to help a person who has hearing problems to hear better hear•say /ˈhiəˌseɪ/ noun [noncount] : something heard from another person : something that you have been told ▪ You can't judge them solely on the basis of hearsay. ▪ They're supposedly getting married soon, but that's just hearsay. ▪ (law) hearsay evidence [=evidence presented by a witness that is based on another person's statement]

hearse /ˈhəs/ noun, pl hears•es [count] : a large car that is used for carrying a coffin to a grave

heart /ˈhɑɚt/ noun, pl hearts
1 [count] : the organ in your chest that pumps blood through your veins and arteries ▪ I could feel my heart pounding/racing. ▪ He has a bad/weak heart. — often used before another noun ▪ He suffers from a heart condition. ▪ heart failure/disease/surgery ▪ a heart murmur ▪ Aerobic exercise increases your heart rate. [=pulse] — see picture at HUMAN; see also CORONARY HEART DISEASE, OPEN-HEART
2 [count] : the front part of your chest ▪ He put his hand on his heart. ▪ (literary) She clutched the child to her heart. [=breast, bosom]
3 a [count] : the heart thought of as the place where emotions are felt ▪ You shouldn't let your heart rule your head. [=you should be guided by reason and not by your emotions] ▪ When she heard the news, her heart filled with joy/sorrow. ▪ You're a man after my own heart. [=we have similar likes and dislikes] ▪ He offered to help us out of the goodness of his heart. [=because he is a good person and not because he wanted to get anything for himself] ▪ He wears his heart on his sleeve. [=he shows his emotions very openly] ▪ She's not too smart, but at least her heart is in the right place. [=she is a kind person who is trying to do good things] ▪ I just didn't have the heart to tell her that I didn't like her singing. [=I couldn't tell her because I knew that she would be hurt by what I said] ▪ The idea struck fear into their hearts. [=made them very afraid] ▪ I decided to follow my heart [=to do what I truly wanted to do] and take up acting. ▪ My heart goes out to [=I feel very sorry for] the families of the victims. ▪ Her heart's desire [=greatest wish] was to become a movie star. ▪ She just couldn't find it in her heart to forgive them. ▪ I felt in my heart that our relationship was never meant to be. ▪ I think she knows in her heart that they're right. = I think she knows it in her heart of hearts. [=she knows it even though she does not want to admit it] ▪ They said they'd try to fix the problem, but I could see that their hearts (just) weren't in it. [=they did not really feel much interest or enthusiasm about doing it] b : a kind or generous feeling for other people [noncount] a ruler without heart [count] a ruler without a heart ▪ He has a kind heart. [=he treats people kindly] ▪ He has a cold/hard heart. [=he treats people in a harsh or unfriendly way] ▪ She has a big heart. = She is all heart. = She has a heart of gold. [=she is a very kind person] ▪ She has a heart of stone. [=she does not care at all about the feelings of other people] ▪ Have a heart! Can't you see he needs help? — see also CHANGE OF HEART, HEART-TO-HEART, LONELY HEARTS
4 [noncount] : feelings of love or affection ▪ It's best not to interfere in matters/affairs of the heart. [=romantic matters/

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

affairs] ▪ He was determined to win/steal/capture her heart. [=to win her love]
5 [noncount] : emotional strength that allows you to continue in a difficult situation ▪ The team has shown a lot of heart.
6 a the heart : the central or most important part of something ▪ deep in the heart of the forest ▪ Their offices are in the heart of the city. ▪ Let's get right to the heart of the matter. b [count] : the central part of some vegetables ▪ artichoke hearts ▪ cabbage hearts
7 [count] : a shape that looks like a simple drawing of a heart and that is used as a symbol of love and affection ▪ The child decorated the card with hearts and flowers.
8 a [count] : a playing card that is marked with a red heart ▪ one heart, two diamonds, and two clubs — see picture at PLAYING CARD b *hearts [plural] : the suit in a deck of playing cards that consists of cards marked by hearts ▪ the king of hearts — compare CLUB, DIAMOND, SPADE absence makes the heart grow fonder see ABSENCE at heart 1 : at the most basic level ▪ I'm really a romantic at heart. ▪ She's 81 years old, but she's still young at heart. [=she behaves and thinks like a much younger person] 2 : as a main concern ▪ We have your best interests at heart. [=we want to do what is best for you] break someone's heart : to cause someone to feel great sorrow or sadness ▪ He broke her heart when he left her for another woman. ▪ Her boyfriend left her with a broken heart. ▪ It breaks my heart to think of how those children have suffered.
by heart : from memory ▪ She knows the entire poem by heart. [=she has learned the poem and can recite it from memory] ▪ He learned the speech by heart.
close/dear/near to your heart : very personally and emotionally important to you ▪ This topic is one that's very close to my heart. [=I care very much about this subject] ▪ The school is very near and dear to her heart.
cross my heart see [2]CROSS cry your heart out see [1]CRY do your heart good : to make you feel very happy ▪ It does his heart good to know that his daughters have become friends.
eat your heart out see EAT faint of heart see [1]FAINT from the bottom of your heart or from the/your heart : in a very sincere way ▪ He thanked us from the bottom of his heart. ▪ When I said you were my best friend, I meant it from the bottom of my heart. ▪ His speech at the memorial service was straight from the heart.
harden your heart see HARDEN have your heart set on (something) or set your heart on (something) ✧ When you have your heart set on something or when you set your heart on something, you want it very much. ▪ She has her heart set on a new bicycle.
heart in your mouth informal ✧ If your heart is in your mouth, you are very excited or nervous about something. ▪ He waited for her arrival with his heart in his mouth.
heart is knocking see [1]KNOCK heart skips a beat informal ✧ When you say that your heart skipped a beat or that something made your heart skip a beat, it means that you suddenly became very surprised, excited, or nervous about something. ▪ When I learned I was on live television, my heart skipped a beat. ▪ The news was enough to make his heart skip a beat.
heavy heart : a feeling of sadness ▪ It is with a heavy heart that I bring you this bad news.
know your own heart see [1]KNOW light heart : a feeling of happiness ▪ He left for home with a light heart.
lose heart : to begin to feel that you cannot do something that you have been trying to do : to become discouraged ▪ They never lost heart, even in the face of adversity.
lose your heart : to fall in love with someone ▪ He met a beautiful woman and lost his heart. — usually + to ▪ She lost her heart to a dashing young artist.
open your heart 1 : to talk in a very open and honest way about your feelings ▪ He opened his heart (to her) and told her how he really felt. 2 : to begin to be generous and kind ▪ We should all open our hearts and do something to help those poor children.
pour your heart out see POUR sick at heart : very sad and upset ▪ The idea of children suffering from hunger made him sick at heart.
sing/dance/play (etc.) your heart out : to sing/dance/play (etc.) with great energy or effort ▪ The band played their hearts out in hopes of winning the prize.
take heart : to begin to feel better and more hopeful : to stop feeling sad or discouraged ▪ Take heart; things will get better soon.
take (something) to heart : to be deeply affected or hurt by something ▪ He took their criticism (very much) to heart.
to your heart's content : until you feel satisfied : as long or as much as you want ▪ They let him eat and drink to his heart's content. ▪ Let's go somewhere where we can talk to our hearts' content.
warm the cockles of your heart see COCKLE with all your heart : in a very sincere and deeply felt way ▪ I love him with all my heart. ▪ She tried with all her heart to please them.
your heart bleeds for ✧ If your heart bleeds for someone, you feel great sadness or pity for that person.
your heart leaps ✧ When your heart leaps, you become very happy or joyful about something. ▪ Our hearts leapt when we heard that she had won.
your heart melts ✧ When your heart melts, you begin to feel love, affection, or sympathy for someone or something. ▪ When he saw the puppies, his heart melted. ▪ It would have melted your heart to see her lying in that hospital bed. ▪ A warm smile melts the heart.
your heart sinks ✧ When your heart sinks, you become sad or disappointed about something. ▪ My heart sank when I saw the sad expression on her face.

heart•ache /ˈhɑɚtˌeɪk/ noun, pl -aches : a strong feeling of sadness [count] I've had more than my share of heartaches in my life. [noncount] If you ignore the problem, you'll just cause yourself more heartache [=grief] later on.

heart attack noun, pl ∼ -tacks [count] : a sudden painful and dangerous condition in which your heart stops beating properly ▪ Her chest pains turned out to be caused by a minor heart attack. ▪ He died of a massive heart attack. ▪ He fell off the swing and nearly gave me a heart attack. [=scared me very badly]

heart•beat /ˈhɑɚtˌbiːt/ noun, pl -beats [count] : the action or sound of the heart as it pumps blood ▪ The patient had a rapid heartbeat. ▪ irregular heartbeats in a heartbeat US, informal : in a very brief time : without any delay or hesitation ▪ Even though the job was difficult, he says he'd agree to do it again in a heartbeat.

heart•break /ˈhɑɚtˌbreɪk/ noun, pl -breaks : a very strong feeling of sadness, disappointment, etc. [count] He recently suffered a string of romantic heartbreaks. [noncount] She's had more than her share of heartbreak. [=her heart has been broken many times]

heart•break•er /ˈhɑɚtˌbreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone or something that causes you to feel very sad, disappointed, etc. : someone or something that breaks your heart ▪ a handsome actor who has a reputation as a heartbreaker [=as someone who breaks the hearts of many women] ▪ The team's most recent loss was a real heartbreaker.

heart•break•ing /ˈhɑɚtˌbreɪkɪŋ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : causing great sadness, disappointment, etc. ▪ She wrote a heartbreaking story about the death of her grandfather. ▪ It was heartbreaking to know that there was nothing I could do. ▪ The team suffered another heartbreaking defeat.
– heart•break•ing•ly adv [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ a heartbreakingly tragic movie heart•bro•ken /ˈhɑɚtˌbroʊkən/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : filled with great sadness ▪ She is heartbroken [=brokenhearted] that things turned out so badly.

heart•burn /ˈhɑɚtˌbɝn/ noun [noncount] : an unpleasant hot feeling in your chest caused by something that you ate ▪ I like spicy food, but it gives me heartburn.

heart•en /ˈhɑɚtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel more cheerful or hopeful ▪ The team's victory has heartened its fans. — usually used as (be) heartened ▪ The team's fans were heartened by the victory.
– heartening adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ It was heartening to see him looking so happy. ▪ We've received some heartening news.

heart•felt /ˈhɑɚtˌfɛlt/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : deeply felt : very sincere ▪ You have our heartfelt thanks/sympathy/congratulations. ▪ Our most heartfelt wish is for our children to be happy.

hearth /ˈhɑɚθ/ noun, pl hearths [count] : the floor in front of or inside a fireplace ▪ They swept the ashes from the hearth. ▪ (literary) They longed for the comforts of hearth and home. [=the comforts of home]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

heart–healthy /ˈhɑətˌhɛlθi/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US : good for the health of your heart ▪ a heart-healthy diet ▪ heart-healthy foods heart•i•ly /ˈhɑətəli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : in an enthusiastic and energetic way : in a hearty way ▪ The children ate heartily. [=they ate a lot of food] ▪ We all laughed heartily. ▪ I heartily recommend the movie.
2 : completely or fully ▪ I'm heartily sick of their complaints. ▪ I'll be heartily [=very] glad when this job is done. ▪ They heartily agreed.

heart•land /ˈhɑətˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count]
1 a : a central area of land ▪ We drove into Scotland's heartland. b : the central area of the U.S. which is known for traditional values ▪ a politician who is popular in the American heartland
2 : an area that is the center of an industry or activity ▪ the heartland of high technology heart•less /ˈhɑətləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very cruel ▪ a heartless person/act – heart•less•ly adv ▪ She rescues pets that have been heartlessly abandoned. – heart•less•ness noun [noncount]

heart•rend•ing /ˈhɑətˌrɛndɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing great sadness or sorrow ▪ a heartrending [=heartbreaking] story/cry – heart•rend•ing•ly adv

heart•sick /ˈhɑətˌsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very sad or disappointed ▪ They were absolutely heartsick over/about the loss of their home. ▪ I was heartsick to learn of their divorce.

heart–stop•ping /ˈhɑətˌstɑːpɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : extremely shocking or exciting ▪ a heart-stopping adventure ▪ heart-stopping views of the canyon heart•strings /ˈhɑətˌstrɪŋz/ noun [plural] : deep emotions ▪ That movie really tugs/pulls at your heartstrings. [=makes you emotional] ▪ a writer who knows how to play on his readers' heartstrings

heart•throb /ˈhɑətˌθrɑːb/ noun, pl -throbs [count] : an attractive and usually famous man ▪ the latest teen heartthrob

[1]heart–to–heart /ˈhɑəttəˈhɑət/ adj : very sincere and honest ▪ The two of them had a heart-to-heart talk. [=they spoke to each other about their feelings very honestly]

[2]heart–to–heart noun, pl -hearts [count] : an honest, serious, and private conversation ▪ He had a heart-to-heart with his son about the facts of life.

heart•warm•ing /ˈhɑətˌwɑəmɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing pleasant feelings of happiness ▪ The movie is a heartwarming story about a boy and his dog. ▪ It's heartwarming to see how his neighbors have helped him.

hearty /ˈhɑəti/ adj heart•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : done or expressed in a very open, cheerful, and energetic way ▪ He gave us all a hearty welcome/greeting. ▪ Our plan won their hearty [=wholehearted] approval. ▪ a hearty laugh/handshake
2 : strong, healthy, and active ▪ hearty young men and women ▪ His grandmother remains hale and hearty in her old age. ▪ All of the children have hearty appetites. = All of the children are hearty eaters. [=all of the children eat large amounts of food]
3 : large enough to satisfy hunger ▪ a hearty meal ▪ hearty soups – heart•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]heat /ˈhiːt/ noun, pl heats
1 [noncount] : energy that causes things to become warmer ▪ The sun's heat melted the snow. ▪ the intense heat of a fire ▪ She applied heat to the sore muscles in her leg. ▪ body heat
2 [noncount] : hot weather or temperatures ▪ a period of high heat and humidity ▪ The crops were damaged by drought and extreme heat. ▪ the desert's dry heat [=hot temperatures with little moisture in the air] — often used with the ▪ She doesn't like the heat. ▪ The runners performed well despite the 90-degree heat. ▪ These flowers tend to wilt in the heat of summer. ▪ They found a place to rest during the midday/afternoon heat. ▪ They rested during the heat of the day. [=the hottest part of the day]
3 a : the level of temperature that is used to cook something [count] — usually singular ▪ The meat was cooked at a high heat for 10 minutes. ▪ Reduce the heat to low and simmer. [noncount] Cook the milk over low/gentle/medium heat. b [singular] : a source of heat used for cooking something : the hot part of an oven, stove top, etc. ▪ Remove the pan from the heat.
4 [singular] chiefly US : a system that is used to provide warmth to a room or building ▪ The house uses electric/gas/oil/solar heat. [=heating] ▪ Would you please turn up/down the heat? [=(Brit) heating]
5 [noncount] a : strong and often angry feelings ▪ It's a topic that generates a lot of heat. ▪ He responded with some heat [=he responded in an angry way] to the accusations. b : the time when emotions are most strongly felt — used in phrases like in the heat of passion, in the heat of the moment, etc. ▪ The crime was committed in the heat of passion. [=when the criminal was very angry] ▪ She said things in the heat of the moment [=when she was angry for a short period of time] that she later regretted. — see also in the heat of (the) battle at [1]BATTLE
6 [noncount] chiefly US, informal a the heat : pressure to do something ▪ The administration is putting the heat on legislators to approve the tax bill. ▪ She's at her best when the heat is on. [=when she feels a lot of pressure; when she needs to finish something quickly] ▪ The company has turned up the heat on [=has put extra pressure on] its employees to finish the job quickly. ✧ The expression if you can't stand/take the heat, get out of the kitchen means that you should not try to do a difficult job if you cannot deal with the pressure and problems that are part of the job. b : criticism or abuse ▪ He will likely take/get a lot of heat for his decision.
7 [count] : one of several races or contests that are held in order to decide who will be in the final race or contest ▪ The top two finishers in each heat will move on to the finals. — see also DEAD HEAT in heat (US) or Brit on heat — used to describe a female animal that is ready to have sex and is able to become pregnant ▪ The cat is in heat. ▪ like a dog in heat ▪ an animal that is coming into heat [=beginning to be in heat] more heat than light ✧ To produce or generate more heat than light means to cause anger without helping to make something better understood. ▪ Her first book on the issue generated more heat than light.
pack heat US slang, old-fashioned + humorous : to carry a gun ▪ a thug who was packing heat
– see also PRICKLY HEAT
– heat•less /ˈhiːtləs/ adj ▪ heatless buildings

[2]heat verb heats; heat•ed; heat•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become warm or hot ▪ I heated the vegetables in the microwave. ▪ They heat their house with a wood stove.
heat up [phrasal verb] 1 : to become warm or hot ▪ The morning started out cold but it heated up quickly. 2 : to become more active, intense, or angry ▪ Their conversation started to heat up. [=(Brit) hot up] ▪ Competition between the two companies is heating up. 3 heat (something) up or heat up (something) : to cause (something) to become warm or hot ▪ Could you heat up the vegetables, please? — see also PREHEAT

heat•ed /ˈhiːtəd/ adj
1 : including a system that provides warmth ▪ a heated pool/apartment
2 [more ~; most ~] : marked by excited or angry feelings ▪ a heated argument/debate/dispute ▪ Their conversation/discussion quickly became heated.
– heat•ed•ly adv ▪ He heatedly denied the rumors.

heat•er /ˈhiːtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine that heats water or air ▪ a water heater — see also SPACE HEATER heat exhaustion noun [noncount] medical : a condition that happens when someone is too active in extremely hot conditions and that causes a person to sweat and feel very weak, dizzy, etc. — called also (chiefly US) heat prostration; compare HEATSTROKE

heath /ˈhiːθ/ noun, pl heaths [count] : an area of land that is covered with grass and small shrubs hea•then /ˈhiːðən/ noun, pl hea•thens or heathen [count] old-fashioned + often offensive : a person who is not religious or who does not practice Christianity, Judaism, or Islam – heathen adj ▪ heathen gods/practices ▪ a heathen people/nation

heath•er /ˈhɛðə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a low-growing plant of northern areas that has small leaves and tiny white or purplish-pink flowers

Heath Rob•in•son /ˌhiːθˈrɑːbənsən/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit : RUBE GOLDBERG ▪ a Heath Robinson contraption/device heating noun [noncount] : a system that is used to provide warmth to a room or building ▪ a house with electric heating [=heat] ▪ (Brit) Would you please turn up/down the heating? [=(US) heat] ▪ The house has central heating. [=a system that heats all parts of a building]

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

heat lightning noun [noncount] chiefly US : flashes of light in the sky that happen without the sound of thunder and that are produced by distant lightning heat•proof /ˈhiːtˌpruːf/ adj : not able to be burned or melted ▪ a heatproof bowl/dish/plate

heat prostration noun [noncount] chiefly US, medical : HEAT EXHAUSTION

heat rash noun, pl ~ rashes [count, noncount] medical : a skin rash that people sometimes get during hot weather : PRICKLY HEAT

heat resistant adj [more ~; most ~] : not easily burned or melted ▪ heat resistant cooking utensils

heat–seeking adj, always used before a noun : designed to follow the heat from an airplane or rocket in order to destroy it ▪ heat-seeking missiles

heat•stroke /ˈhiːtˌstroʊk/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious condition that happens when someone has been in high temperatures for a long time and that causes a person to stop sweating, have a very high body temperature, and become exhausted or unconscious — compare HEAT EXHAUSTION, SUNSTROKE heat wave noun, pl ~ waves [count] : a period of unusually hot weather

H

[1]heave /ˈhiːv/ verb heaves; heaved; heav•ing

1 : to lift or pull (something) with effort [+ obj] We heaved the box (up) onto the table. ▪ I tried to heave myself (up) out of the chair. ▪ She heaved the door shut. [no obj] — usually + on ▪ The sailors started heaving on the rope.

2 [+ obj] US : to throw (something) with effort ▪ heave a rock ▪ The quarterback heaved the ball down the field.

3 [+ obj] : to breathe in and breathe out (a sigh) in a slow or loud way ▪ She sat down and heaved a sigh of relief.

4 [no obj] a : to move up and down repeatedly ▪ He stopped running and stood there with his chest heaving. ▪ The boat heaved up and down with the waves. b : to be pushed up ▪ The roads have begun to heave with frost.

5 [no obj] informal : VOMIT ▪ The smell made me want to heave. ✧ If your stomach is heaving, you feel like vomiting.

heave into view or heave in/into sight past tense and past participle hove : to slowly move closer and become visible ▪ A ship hove into view on the horizon.

heave to [phrasal verb] past tense and past participle hove of a boat or ship : to stop moving ▪ The ship hove to.

– see also HEAVING

[2]heave noun, pl heaves [count]

1 : an act of lifting or pulling something with effort ▪ We lifted the box onto the table with a heave. ▪ He gave the rope a mighty heave.

2 : a forceful throw ▪ The quarterback uncorked a mighty heave.

– see also DRY HEAVES

heave–ho /ˈhiːvˈhoʊ/ noun

the (old) heave-ho informal : the act of causing someone to leave a job, place, or relationship ▪ The team's coach gave him the heave-ho. [=made him leave the team] ▪ We got the old heave-ho [=we got kicked out; we had to leave] when we couldn't pay the rent on our apartment.

heav•en /ˈhɛvən/ noun, pl -ens

1 or Heaven [singular] : the place where God lives and where good people go after they die according to some religions ▪ She prayed to God in Heaven. ▪ He hopes to go to Heaven when he dies. ▪ Our baby is a gift from heaven.

2 [noncount] : something that is very pleasant or good ▪ The week at the beach was (sheer/pure) heaven. ▪ (chiefly US) The cake tastes like heaven. [=it is delicious] ▪ Her voice sounded like heaven. [=it sounded very beautiful]

3 the heavens : the sky ▪ the brightest star in the heavens ▪ The heavens opened (up) [=it began to rain] and the game had to be stopped.

4 — used informally by itself and in phrases to make a statement or question more forceful or to express surprise, anger, etc. ▪ "Have you ever committed a crime?" "Heavens, no!" ▪ Good heavens! You startled me. ▪ Heaven's above, I haven't seen you in a while. ▪ My heavens, [=(more commonly) my goodness] you've grown! ▪ Who in heaven's name [=on earth, in God's name] could that be? ▪ Where in heaven's name have you been? ▪ For heaven's sake, turn down that music!

(a) heaven on earth : a very pleasant or enjoyable place or situation ▪ We spent our vacation in a real heaven on earth. ▪ The time we spent together was heaven on earth.

heaven forbid see FORBID heaven help someone see [1]HELP

heaven knows see [1]KNOW

made in heaven : very good and successful ▪ Theirs was a marriage made in heaven. ▪ Our partnership is a match made in heaven.

move heaven and earth see [1]MOVE

thank heaven/heavens see THANK to high heaven informal : very much, very badly, etc. ▪ The kids were laughing and screaming to high heaven. [=very loudly] ▪ This whole situation stinks to high heaven. [=it stinks; it is very bad or wrong]

– see also HOG HEAVEN, SEVENTH HEAVEN

heav•en•ly /ˈhɛvənli/ adj

1 always used before a noun : appearing or occurring in the sky ▪ the moon, stars, and other heavenly bodies

2 always used before a noun : of or relating to heaven : divine or blessed ▪ heavenly angels/choirs ▪ heavenly grace

3 [more ~; most ~] informal : very pleasant or good ▪ The weather was heavenly. ▪ a heavenly dessert heav•en–sent /ˈhɛvənˌsɛnt/ adj : very lucky or helpful ▪ a heaven-sent opportunity ▪ Her advice was heaven-sent.

heav•en•ward /ˈhɛvənwəd/ also chiefly Brit heav•en•wards /ˈhɛvənwədz/ adv : toward the sky ▪ Lift your eyes heavenward.

heavi•ly /ˈhɛvəli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : to a great degree : very much ▪ heavily salted foods ▪ heavily armored vehicles ▪ heavily populated/forested areas ▪ He relies heavily on his wife for advice. ▪ These artists borrow heavily from Picasso. ▪ Our flowers were heavily damaged by a late spring frost. ▪ She drank and smoked heavily for years. ▪ The decision weighs heavily on my mind. [=the decision is difficult and causes me to feel worried]

2 : in a slow or heavy way ▪ He sat down heavily on the couch. ▪ He was leaning heavily on the table. ▪ She sighed heavily then said "Okay, I'll do it."

heaving adj, Brit : filled with people and activity ▪ The shop was heaving [=teeming] with customers.

[1]heavy /ˈhɛvi/ adj heavi•er; -est

1 a : having great weight : difficult to lift or move ▪ "Is that box too heavy for you to lift?" "No, it's not very heavy." ▪ a heavy suitcase ▪ heavy pots and pans ▪ The truck was carrying a heavy load. — opposite LIGHT b : large in size and weight ▪ The man was six feet tall with a heavy build. ▪ a tall, heavy [=(less politely) fat] man

2 : having a particular weight ▪ How heavy is it? [=how much does it weigh?]

3 a : greater in amount or degree than usual ▪ Turnout for the election is expected to be heavy. ▪ We got caught in heavy traffic. b : strong ▪ heavy perfume ▪ heavy winds c : great in amount ▪ Heavy rains caused flooding in the area. ▪ heavy bleeding/sweating ▪ She was wearing sunglasses and heavy makeup. ▪ The storm caused heavy damage to the building. ▪ The company is facing heavy losses this quarter. ▪ We suffered heavy casualties. [=many deaths or injuries] ▪ a day of heavy fighting d : difficult to accept or bear ▪ They are paying a heavy price for their mistakes. ▪ It is a heavy burden for one person to bear. : harsh or severe ▪ The stress has taken a heavy toll on his health. ▪ heavy fines/penalties e : great in degree or effect ▪ He came under heavy attack/fire for his comments. ▪ She is the heavy favorite to win. ▪ the country's heavy reliance on oil ▪ (chiefly Brit) He caught a heavy cold. — opposite LIGHT

4 : involving a lot of physical effort ▪ an hour of heavy exercise/exertion ▪ Why do I have to do all the heavy work? ▪ I hurt my back and couldn't do any heavy lifting. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He does all the heavy lifting [=difficult work] while his partner gets the recognition. — opposite LIGHT

5 : very loud or forceful ▪ The song has a heavy beat. ▪ There was a heavy knock at the door. ▪ heavy footsteps ▪ He delivered a heavy blow to his opponent. — often used figuratively ▪ The new government was dealt a heavy blow. — opposite LIGHT

6 : important and serious ▪ We were having a heavy conversation about our son's future. ▪ This is pretty heavy stuff. ▪ doing some heavy reading/thinking ▪ a heavy thinker — opposite LIGHT

7 : difficult to move or lift up because of tiredness ▪ My legs became heavier with every step. ▪ Her eyelids grew heavy.

8 : dense and thick : having a lot of hair, trees, etc., in a small area ▪ He has a heavy beard. ▪ The animals have shed their heavy winter coats. ▪ areas of forest and heavy brush ▪ heavy fog/smoke ▪ heavy clay soil — opposite LIGHT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

9 : made of thick material ▪ a heavy winter coat ▪ heavy blankets
10 : having too much heat, moisture, etc., and not enough fresh air ▪ The air was heavy and still. ▪ The air in the room was heavy with smoke. ▪ the heavy odor of wet dogs
11 a : showing signs of rain or snow ▪ sailing in heavy weather ▪ a heavy sky ▪ heavy clouds b : having large waves ▪ heavy seas
12 : deep and loud ▪ She let out a heavy sigh. ▪ the heavy breathing of a tired runner ✧ The phrase heavy breathing is sometimes used in a joking way to refer to sexual activity. ▪ a night of heavy breathing
13 a : eating, drinking, or using large amounts of something ▪ a heavy eater/drinker/smoker ▪ a cook who has a heavy hand with the salt [=who uses too much salt] b : done often and in large amounts ▪ heavy alcohol consumption ▪ Years of heavy smoking had destroyed her lungs. — opposite LIGHT
14 a : very rich, dense, or thick ▪ fruit in heavy syrup ▪ The bread was a little heavy. b : making your stomach feel full ▪ heavy desserts ▪ a heavy breakfast of pancakes and sausage — opposite LIGHT
15 a : large and powerful ▪ heavy machinery/equipment ▪ the army's tanks and heavy artillery ▪ He flew heavy bombers in World War II. b of a group of soldiers : having more weapons and armor than other groups ▪ heavy infantry/cavalry — opposite LIGHT 16 of a person's accent : very easy to notice ▪ She spoke French/English/German with a heavy [=thick] accent.
heavy date chiefly US, humorous : an important romantic date ▪ He has a heavy date tonight.
heavy going : difficult to do or finish ▪ The cold made the race heavy going for many runners. ▪ The book is really heavy going at the beginning.
heavy heart ✧ If you have a heavy heart, you are sad. ▪ I announced my decision to leave with a heavy heart.
heavy on : having or using a large amount of (something) ▪ His movies are light/low on talk and heavy on action. ▪ She tends to be heavy on the salt. [=she uses a lot of salt]
heavy sleeper : someone who does not wake up easily heavy with : carrying or having a large amount of (something) ▪ The trees are heavy with fruit. ▪ Her comments were heavy with irony.
hot and heavy see [1]HOT make heavy weather of Brit, informal : to treat (something) in a way that makes it seem more important or difficult than it really is ▪ an actor who makes heavy weather of what should be a simple scene
– heavi•ness noun [noncount] the heaviness of the table [singular] He felt a sudden heaviness [=a feeling of pressure] in his chest. — often used figuratively ▪ There was a heaviness [=a feeling of sadness] in his heart.

[2]heavy adv : in a heavy way : HEAVILY ▪ The smoke hung/lay heavy in the air. ▪ The decision weighs heavy on my mind. [=the decision is difficult and causes me to feel worried] go heavy on : to use a lot of (something) ▪ Go heavy on the sauce, please.
heavy on your hands ✧ If time hangs or lies heavy on your hands, it passes very slowly. ▪ Time hung heavy on his hands.

[3]heavy noun, pl heav•ies [count]
1 : a bad person in a movie or play : VILLAIN ▪ He played the heavy in film after film.
2 US, informal : a person or thing that is serious, important, or powerful : HEAVYWEIGHT ▪ The conference will be attended by several media heavies. ▪ They have become one of the industry heavies.

heavy cream noun [noncount] US : very thick cream — called also (Brit) double cream heavy–du•ty /ˈhɛviˈduːti, Brit ˈhɛviˈdjuːti/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : designed to do difficult work without breaking ▪ heavy-duty vehicles/machines
2 US : very intense or serious ▪ heavy-duty efforts ▪ a heavy-duty conservative ▪ I need to do some heavy-duty studying. ▪ Her plan is facing some heavy-duty opposition.

heavy goods vehicle noun, pl ~ -hicles [count] Brit : HGV heavy–hand•ed /ˈhɛviˈhændəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : dealing with people or problems in a severe or harsh way : too strict or controlling ▪ Their efforts to keep the peace have been heavy-handed. ▪ heavy-handed tactics/measures
2 : awkward or clumsy : showing a lack of skill ▪ Her love songs tend to be a bit heavy-handed. ▪ a writer with a heavy-handed style
– heavy–hand•ed•ly adv – heavy–hand•ed•ness noun [noncount]

heavy hitter noun, pl ~ -ters [count] US, informal : an important or powerful person or thing ▪ She spoke to a room full of political heavy hitters. ▪ Their company is one of the industry's heavy hitters.

heavy industry noun [noncount] : the production of goods (such as coal or steel) that are used to make other goods — compare LIGHT INDUSTRY

heavy metal noun, pl ~ -als
1 [noncount] : a type of loud rock music that has a strong beat ▪ He listens to heavy metal.
2 [count, noncount] technical : a metal that is very dense and heavy ▪ lead, gold, and other heavy metals

heavy•set /ˌhɛviˈsɛt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a heavy and often somewhat fat body : THICKSET ▪ a short, heavyset man

heavy•weight /ˈhɛviˌweɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count]
1 : a fighter in the heaviest class of boxers : a boxer who weighs more than 175 pounds (79.5 kilograms) — often used before another noun ▪ They are fighting for the heavyweight title. ▪ the heavyweight champion of the world
2 : someone or something that is very important and powerful ▪ Their company is one of the industry's heavyweights.
3 : something that is heavy — often used before another noun ▪ heavyweight paper ▪ heavyweight cotton/wool/silk

He•bra•ic /hɪˈbreɪɪk/ adj : of or relating to the Hebrews or their language or culture ▪ Hebraic traditions ▪ Hebraic texts/music

He•brew /ˈhiːbru/ noun, pl -brews
1 [count] : a member of an ancient group of people who lived mostly in the kingdom of Israel and practiced Judaism
2 [noncount] a : the language of the ancient Hebrews b : the language of modern Israel – Hebrew adj ▪ the Hebrew people/Bible

heck /ˈhɛk/ noun [noncount] informal — used as a more polite form of hell ▪ Oh, heck, I forgot my keys. ▪ "Did you give her any money?" "Heck, no!" ▪ They were mad as heck. ▪ I decided to go just for the heck of it. ▪ It was one heck of a good fight. ▪ Where in (the) heck did I put my keys? ▪ My back hurts like heck. ▪ Let's get the heck out of here. ▪ What the heck was that? ▪ What the heck, let's try it.

heck•le /ˈhɛkəl/ verb heck•les; heck•led; heck•ling : to interrupt (someone, such as a speaker or performer) by shouting annoying or rude comments or questions [+ obj] Several protesters were heckling the speaker at the rally. ▪ The players were being heckled by the fans. [no obj] People in the crowd were booing and heckling as she tried to speak.
– heck•ler /ˈhɛklə/ noun, pl -lers [count] ▪ There were several hecklers at the rally. – heckling noun [noncount] ▪ She was upset by the crowd's heckling.

hect•are /ˈhɛkˌteə/ noun, pl -ares [count] : a unit of area in the metric system that is equal to 10,000 square meters or 2.47 acres

hec•tic /ˈhɛktɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very busy and filled with activity ▪ We both had hectic days at work. ▪ She maintains a hectic schedule as a journalist and mother. ▪ a hectic lifestyle
– hec•ti•cal•ly /ˈhɛktɪkli/ adv ▪ hectically busy hec•tor /ˈhɛktə/ verb -tors; -tored; -tor•ing [+ obj] : to criticize or question (someone) in a threatening way ▪ The judge ordered the attorney to stop hectoring the witness.

– hectoring adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a hectoring tone of voice he'd /ˈhiːd, id/ — used as a contraction of he had or he would ▪ He thought he'd [=he had] better be leaving. ▪ He'd [=he would] have done the same thing himself.

[1]hedge /ˈhɛʤ/ noun, pl hedg•es [count]
1 : a row of shrubs or small trees that are planted close to each other in order to form a boundary
2 : something that provides protection or defense — usually + against ▪ She invests her money as a hedge against inflation. ▪ hedges against loss/disappointment/uncertainty/failure

[2]hedge verb hedges; hedged; hedg•ing
1 [+ obj] : to surround (an area) with a hedge ▪ The garden is hedged by flowering shrubs.
2 : to avoid giving a promise or direct answer [no obj] She hedged when she was asked to support the campaign. [+ obj] He hedged his earlier comments about the need for new management.
hedge against [phrasal verb] hedge against (something) : to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

protect yourself from (something) ▪ They hedge against inflation by investing their money. ▪ looking for ways to hedge against risk/failure

hedge around or hedge about [phrasal verb] hedge (something) around/about Brit : to limit or restrict (something) — usually used as (be) hedged; usually + with or by ▪ Their offer is so hedged around with conditions [=so restricted by conditions] that it hardly seems worthwhile. ▪ a rule that is hedged about by exceptions hedge in [phrasal verb] 1 hedge in (something) or hedge (something) in : to form a boundary around (something) ▪ a field hedged in [=surrounded] by trees 2 hedge in (someone) or hedge (someone) in : to surround or restrict (someone) in a way that prevents free movement or action ▪ We have been hedged in by their rules and regulations.

hedge your bets : to do things that will prevent great loss or failure if future events do not happen as you plan or hope ▪ They decided to hedge their bets by putting half their money in stocks and the other half in bonds.

hedge fund noun, pl ~ funds [count] finance : a group of investors who take financial risks together in order to try to earn a lot of money hedge•hog /ˈhɛʤˌhɑːg/ noun, pl -hogs [count] : a small, brown animal of Europe, Asia, and Africa that has sharp spines on its back and that can roll itself up into a ball

hedgehog

hedge•row /ˈhɛʤˌroʊ/ noun, pl -rows [count] : a row of shrubs or trees that form the boundary of an area

he•do•nism /ˈhiːdəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that pleasure or happiness is the most important goal in life

– he•do•nis•tic /ˌhiːdəˈnɪstɪk/ adj ▪ a hedonistic lifestyle – he•do•nis•ti•cal•ly /ˌhiːdəˈnɪstɪkli/ adv

he•do•nist /ˈhiːdənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] : a person who believes that pleasure or happiness is the most important goal in life

hee•bie–jee•bies /ˌhiːbiˈʤiːbiz/ noun

the heebie-jeebies informal : nervous feelings ▪ He gave me the heebie-jeebies. [=he made me feel nervous] ▪ I got the heebie-jeebies when I saw him looking at me.

[1]heed /ˈhiːd/ verb heeds; heed•ed; heed•ing [+ obj] : to pay attention to (advice, a warning, etc.) ▪ She failed to heed the warnings. ▪ We must heed the words of our leaders [=listen to our leaders' advice] and make peace. ▪ Many people have heeded his call to volunteer. [=listened to him and volunteered]

[2]heed noun [noncount] : attention or notice — often used with pay or take ▪ She pays no heed to the concerns of others. ▪ She does not pay their concerns any heed. ▪ Sailors take heed. [=listen to this warning] A storm is on the way. ▪ He failed to take heed of our advice. = He failed to pay heed to our advice. [=he failed to follow our advice]

heed•less /ˈhiːdləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not paying careful attention ▪ They remain heedless of their own safety. ▪ the heedless use of natural resources ▪ heedless waste

– heed•less•ly adv

[1]heel /ˈhiːl/ noun, pl heels

1 [count] : the back part of your foot that is below the ankle — see picture at FOOT

2 a [count] : the part of a shoe or sock that covers the heel of your foot b [count] : the part of the bottom of a shoe or boot that is under the heel of your foot ▪ shoes with low/high/cushioned heels — see picture at SHOE; see also HIGH HEELS, SPIKE HEELS, STILETTO HEEL c heels [plural] informal : shoes with high heels ▪ She does not like wearing heels.

3 [count] : the part of the inside of your hand that is closest to your wrist ▪ She scraped the heel of her hand.

4 [count] : the end of a loaf of bread

5 [count] old-fashioned : a bad or selfish man ▪ I felt like a heel when I couldn't stop to help.

at someone's heels : following someone very closely ▪ The dog was (nipping) at my heels. ▪ He once had a big lead in the campaign, but now the other candidates are nipping at his heels.

cool your heels see [2]COOL

dig in your heels see [1]DIG drag your heels see [1]DRAG head over heels see [1]HEAD

kick up your heels see [1]KICK

on someone's or something's heels 1 ✧ If you are (close/hard/hot) on someone's or something's heels, you are chasing or following that person or thing very closely. ▪ The police were hot on his heels. 2 ✧ If something comes or follows close/hard/hot on something's heels or close/hard/hot on the heels of something, it happens very soon afterward. ▪ Her decision drew much criticism, and so did the explanation that followed hard on its heels. ▪ Her second movie followed close on the heels of her successful film debut. ▪ His resignation comes hard on the heels of the announcement that the company is going bankrupt.

spin/turn on your heel : to turn away from someone in a very quick or sudden way ▪ He told us he had nothing more to say, then he turned on his heel and walked away.

take to your heels : to begin to run away ▪ They took to their heels when they saw the policeman approaching.

to heel 1 : to a position that is close behind ▪ She called the dog to heel. [=she told the dog to return close to her] ▪ The dog came to heel. 2 : into a controlled or obedient condition ▪ We hope these measures will help to bring inflation to heel. [=will help to control inflation] ▪ The President is trying to bring to heel his opponents in the legislature. [=to force his opponents to do what he wants them to do] ▪ They are not likely to come to heel.

under heel ✧ If you are under the heel of someone or under someone's heel or US under heel, you are completely controlled by another person, group, etc. ▪ They put us under their heel. ▪ They kept us under heel.

– see also ACHILLES' HEEL, DOWN-AT-THE-HEELS, WELL-HEELED

[2]heel verb heels; heeled; heel•ing [no obj]

1 — used as a command to tell a dog to walk next to you ▪ Heel! Good dog.

2 of a boat or ship : to lean to one side ▪ The boat heeled (over) in the strong wind.

[1]heft /ˈhɛft/ noun [noncount]

1 : weight or heaviness ▪ the heft of a good hammer

2 chiefly US : importance or influence ▪ She uses her political heft [=(more commonly) clout] to get bills passed.

[2]heft verb hefts; heft•ed; heft•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to lift (something) up ▪ He hefted the suitcase (up) onto the bed.

hefty /ˈhɛfti/ adj heft•i•er; -est

1 : large and heavy ▪ He was a tall, hefty man. ▪ a hefty book : big and strong ▪ hefty football players

2 : very large ▪ Her boss gave her a hefty raise. ▪ The new equipment comes with a hefty price tag. [=it is expensive] ▪ a hefty amount/fee/payment/sum ▪ a hefty dose of irony

3 : very forceful ▪ He gave the door a hefty kick/shove.

– heft•i•ly /ˈhɛftəli/ adv – heft•i•ness /ˈhɛftinəs/ noun [noncount]

he•ge•mo•ny /hɪˈʤɛməni, Brit hɪˈgɛməni/ noun [noncount] formal : influence or control over another country, a group of people, etc. ▪ They discussed the national government's hegemony over their tribal community.

heif•er /ˈhɛfə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a young female cow; especially : one that has not had a calf height /ˈhaɪt/ noun, pl heights

1 : a measurement of how tall a person or thing is : the distance from the bottom to the top of a person or thing [count] What's the height of the building? ▪ These bushes grow to heights of up to five feet. [noncount] a woman of average height ▪ We were measured for height and weight. ▪ The ride has a height requirement. You have to be four feet tall to ride. ▪ He is six feet in height. [=(more commonly) he is six feet tall] ▪ She rose/stood (up) to her full height. [=she stood straight up] — see picture at GEOMETRY

2 [noncount] : the condition of being tall ▪ I was surprised by his height.

3 [count] : the distance above a level or surface ▪ The land reaches a height of 600 feet above sea level. ▪ The height of the ceiling is eight feet. [=the ceiling is eight feet above the floor; the ceiling is eight feet high]

4 [count] a : a great distance above the ground ▪ It was frightening to look down from such a dizzying/great height. — usually plural ▪ I'm afraid of heights. b : an area that is higher than the areas around it ▪ The soldiers left the height they were defending. — usually plural; often used in the names of places ▪ We used to live in Washington Heights. ▪ the Golan Heights

5 [singular] : the most advanced or extreme point of some-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

thing ▪ During the height of the violence, dozens of people lost their lives. ▪ He was at the height of his fame when he died. [=he died when he was most famous] ▪ At its height, their civilization was the greatest in the world.

6 heights [plural] : very good or successful levels ▪ Her popularity rose/soared to great heights. ▪ They have taken the company to new heights.

7 the height of — used to say that something is an extreme example of something ▪ It was the height of stupidity to quit the team. [=it was extremely stupid to quit the team] ▪ the height of arrogance/folly/hypocrisy ▪ Long skirts are now the height of fashion. [=are now extremely fashionable] ▪ the height of style/luxury height•en /ˈhaɪtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to increase the amount, degree, or extent of (something) : INCREASE [+ obj] The plan will only heighten tensions between the two groups. ▪ This tragedy has heightened our awareness of the need for improved safety measures. [no obj] Tensions between the two groups have heightened.

– heightened adj ▪ The meeting now has heightened [=more, greater] significance.

hei•nie /ˈhaɪni/ noun, pl -nies [count] US slang : the part of the body you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ Get off your heinie and do some work.

hei•nous /ˈheɪnəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad or evil : deserving of hate or contempt ▪ These murders were especially heinous. ▪ people accused of committing heinous crimes/acts

– hei•nous•ly adv – hei•nous•ness noun [noncount]

heir /ˈeɚ/ noun, pl heirs [count]

1 : a person who has the legal right to receive the property of someone who dies ▪ His heirs could inherit millions of dollars. — often + to ▪ She is the sole heir to her family's fortune.

2 : a person who has the right to become a king or queen or to claim a title when the person holding it dies ▪ The king left no heirs when he died.

heir apparent noun, pl heirs apparent [count]

1 : an heir whose right to receive money, property, or a title cannot be taken away ▪ The Prince of Wales is (the) heir apparent to the throne of England.

2 : a person who is very likely to have a job or position after the person who has it now leaves ▪ The coach named her assistant as her heir apparent.

heir•ess /ˈerəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a girl or woman who is an heir; especially : a girl or woman who inherits a large amount of money heir•loom /ˈeɚˌluːm/ noun, pl -looms [count]

1 : a valuable object that is owned by a family for many years and passed from one generation to another ▪ a priceless family heirloom

2 US : an old type of plant that is still available because individual people have continued to grow it for many years — usually used before another noun ▪ heirloom tomatoes ▪ heirloom roses

heist /ˈhaɪst/ noun, pl heists [count] chiefly US, informal : an act of stealing something from a bank or store ▪ bank heists ▪ a jewel heist

– heist verb heists; heist•ed; heist•ing [+ obj] ▪ The jewels were heisted [=stolen] last night.

held past tense of [1]HOLD

helices plural of HELIX

he•li•cop•ter /ˈhɛləˌkɑːptɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : an aircraft that can stay in the air without moving forward and that has metal blades that turn around on its top helicopter

he•lio•cen•tric /ˌhiːlijoʊˈsɛntrɪk/ adj : having or relating to the sun as the center ▪ Galileo proposed the heliocentric theory that the Earth goes around the sun. — compare GEOCENTRIC he•li•pad /ˈhɛləˌpæd/ noun, pl -pads [count] : a special area where a helicopter can take off and land ▪ The building has a helipad on its roof.

he•li•port /ˈhɛləˌpoɚt/ noun, pl -ports [count] : a small airport that is designed for use by helicopters

he•li•um /ˈhiːlijəm/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is a colorless gas, that is lighter than air, and that is often used to fill balloons

he•lix /ˈhiːlɪks/ noun, pl -li•ces /ˈhɛləˌsiːz/ also -lix•es [count] : the shape formed by a line that curves around and along a central line : SPIRAL — see also DOUBLE HELIX

– he•li•cal /ˈhɛlɪkəl/ adj

hell /ˈhɛl/ noun

1 or Hell [singular] : the place where the devil lives and where evil people go after they die according to some religions

2 : a very difficult or unpleasant situation or experience [noncount] Getting the loan approved was pure/sheer hell. ▪ He went through hell during his divorce. ▪ She had to go through hell to get where she is today. [singular] Living with the disease can be a hell on earth. ▪ The pain has made her life a living hell.

3 informal + impolite — used to express anger, annoyance, etc. ▪ Hell, I don't know why he did it! ▪ But, hell, why not? ▪ Oh, hell, I forgot my keys. ▪ "Did you give her any money?" "Hell, no!"

all hell breaks loose informal — used to describe what happens when violent, destructive, and confused activity suddenly begins ▪ I heard people shouting at each other, and suddenly all hell broke loose.

as hell informal + somewhat impolite — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ It was (as) funny as hell. [=it was very funny] ▪ They were mad as hell. ▪ We've been working as hard as hell to finish on schedule. ▪ "Can you finish on schedule?" "We'll sure as hell try."

catch hell chiefly US, informal + somewhat impolite : to be yelled at or criticized in a very angry and severe way ▪ She caught hell (from her boss) for coming in late.

come hell or high water informal — used to say that something will definitely happen or be done even though other events or situations might make it difficult ▪ I will be there on time, come hell or high water.

for the hell of it informal + somewhat impolite : for the fun of doing something : without having a particular reason ▪ Just for the hell of it, I decided to go. ▪ He likes to start arguments for the hell of it.

from hell informal + somewhat impolite — used to describe someone or something that is very bad or unpleasant ▪ It was the vacation from hell: everything that could go wrong, did. ▪ bosses from hell give (someone) hell informal + somewhat impolite : to yell at or criticize (someone) in an angry way ▪ Her boss gave her hell for coming in late. ▪ Give them hell, John!

go to hell informal + impolite 1 — used to show that you are very angry with someone ▪ I'm not coming, so you can just go to hell! ▪ He told his boss to go to hell. 2 : to become completely ruined : to fail completely ▪ The economy is going to hell.

go to hell in a handbasket see HANDBASKET hell of a informal + somewhat impolite 1 — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ It was one hell of a good fight. [=it was a very good fight] ▪ He is one hell of a nice guy. 2 : very good ▪ She's a hell of a player. [=she's a very good player] 3 : very bad or difficult ▪ We've been having a hell of a time trying to finish on schedule. ▪ This is a hell of a mess we're in.

hell on US, informal + somewhat impolite — used to describe something that causes a lot of damage or trouble ▪ Running can be hell on your knees. [=can do a lot of harm to your knees] ▪ His constant traveling was hell on their relationship.

hell to pay see [1]PAY in hell informal + impolite 1 — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ There is no way in hell I'm going! ▪ We don't have a hope in hell [=we have no hope] of getting out of this mess. 2 or in the hell US — used to make a question more forceful ▪ What in hell is wrong now? ▪ How in the hell did that happen?

like a bat out of hell see [3]BAT

like hell informal + impolite 1 : very much ▪ My back hurts like hell. 2 : with a lot of energy and speed ▪ We've been working like hell since morning. ▪ When I say "go," run like hell. 3 : very bad ▪ This place looks like hell. 4 — used to say in an angry and forceful way that you will not do something, do not agree, etc. ▪ "You're coming with me!" "Like hell I am!" ▪ "It's your fault!" "Like hell it is!"

play hell with or Brit play merry hell with : to cause many problems for (someone or something) : to have a very bad effect on (someone or something) ▪ High oil prices are playing hell with the nation's economy.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

raise hell informal + somewhat impolite 1 : to complain in a loud or angry way ▪ People are raising hell about the new law. 2 : to behave wildly and make a lot of noise ▪ He and his friends used to get drunk and raise hell on the weekends. — see also HELL-RAISER

the hell informal + impolite 1 — used to make a statement or question more forceful ▪ Let's get the hell out of here. ▪ (chiefly US) They moved way the hell up north. ▪ How the hell did you do that? ▪ Who the hell do you think you are? ▪ What the hell is going on? 2 — used to say in an angry and forceful way that you will not do something, do not agree, etc. ▪ "You said you'd pay for it." "The hell I did!" [=I never said that] ▪ "It's your fault!" "The hell it is!" — see also WHAT THE HELL (below)

the hell out of informal + impolite — used for emphasis after words like scare, frighten, and beat ▪ That movie scared the hell out of me. [=scared me very badly] ▪ The boxer beat the hell out of his opponent.

to hell and back informal ✧ Someone who goes to hell and back experiences a very difficult or unpleasant situation often for a long time. ▪ She's been to hell and back since her daughter became ill.

to hell with or the hell with informal + impolite — used to say in a forceful and angry way that you do not care about someone or something. ▪ They want me to stop, but to hell with them! I'll do what I want to do!

what the hell informal + impolite 1 — used to express anger, surprise, etc. ▪ What the hell! Just what do you think you're doing!? 2 — used to say that you are not worried about or bothered by something ▪ So I figured, what the hell, let's give it a try. ▪ We lost a little money, but what the hell, it's not a big deal.

when hell freezes over informal + impolite — used to say that you think that something will never happen ▪ I'll apologize when hell freezes over. [=I'll never apologize]

he'll /hiːl, hɪl/ — used as a contraction of he will ▪ He'll be here soon.

hel•la•cious /ˌhɛˈleɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : very difficult, large, or powerful ▪ Traffic is hellacious this time of day. ▪ hellacious winds hell–bent /ˈhɛlˌbɛnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very determined to do something especially when the results might be bad — usually + on ▪ He's hell-bent on (getting) revenge. ▪ They seem to be hell-bent on starting a war. — sometimes followed by to + verb in U.S. English ▪ They seem to be hell-bent to start a war.

Hel•len•ic /hɛˈlɛnɪk/ adj : of or relating to ancient Greek culture hell• re /ˈhɛlˌfajə/ noun [noncount] : the fire of Hell ▪ a minister who preaches hellfire and damnation [=who talks about how bad people will be tortured in Hell] hell•hole /ˈhɛlˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] informal : a very dirty or unpleasant place ▪ The factory is a hellhole.

hel•lion /ˈhɛljən/ noun, pl -lions [count] US, informal : a person (especially a child) who behaves badly ▪ My children can act like little hellions when they're bored.

hell•ish /ˈhɛlɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad, unpleasant, or shocking ▪ We've been having hellish weather lately. ▪ hellish living conditions ▪ The battlefield was a hellish scene of death and destruction.
– hell•ish•ly adv

hel•lo /həˈloʊ/ noun, pl -los
1 — used as a greeting ▪ Hello there! How are you? ▪ Hello, my name is Linda.
2 [count] : the act of saying the word hello to someone as a greeting ▪ We exchanged hellos. [=we said hello to each other] ▪ They welcomed us with a warm hello.
3 — used when you are answering the telephone ▪ Hello. Who's this? [=who is calling?] ▪ Hello. May I speak to Linda, please?
4 — used to get someone's attention ▪ Hello? Is anybody here?
5 — used to express surprise ▪ Well, hello! What do we have here?

hell–rais•er /ˈhɛlˌreɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal + disapproving : a person who behaves badly or causes trouble for others ▪ He said that the protesters were just a bunch of hell-raisers.
– hell–rais•ing /ˈhɛlˌreɪzɪŋ/ adj ▪ a group of hell-raising teenagers – hell–raising noun [noncount] ▪ He did a lot of hell-raising when he was younger.

hell•uva /ˈhɛləvə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase hell of a ▪ He's a helluva nice guy. [=he's a very nice guy]

helm /ˈhɛlm/ noun, pl helms
1 [count] : a handle or wheel that is used to steer a ship or boat ▪ The ship's captain took the helm. [=steered the ship] ▪ The ship's captain was at the helm. [=steering the ship]
2 [singular] : a position of full control or authority in an organization ▪ She took the helm of the university. ▪ He left after only a year at the helm [=in charge] of the corporation.

hel•met /ˈhɛlmət/ noun, pl -mets [count] : a hard hat that is worn to protect your head — see also CRASH HELMET, PITH HELMET
– hel•met•ed /ˈhɛlmətəd/ adj ▪ helmeted warriors helms•man /ˈhɛlmzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who steers a ship or boat

helms•per•son /ˈhɛlmzˌpəsn/ noun, pl -sons [count] : a person who steers a ship or boat

[1]help /ˈhɛlp/ verb helps; helped; help•ing
1 : to do something that makes it easier for someone to do a job, to deal with a problem, etc. : to aid or assist someone [+ obj] Let me help you with that box. = Let me help you lift/carry that box. ▪ help a child with her homework = help a child (to) do her homework ▪ I helped her up/down the stairs. [=I gave her support so that she could go up/down the stairs] ▪ Help me! I'm drowning! [no obj] Don't blame me: I was only trying to help! ▪ She helped (to) set the table. ▪ Help! Somebody call the police!
2 : to make something less severe : to make something more pleasant or easier to deal with [+ obj] Rest helps a cold. ▪ She took an aspirin to help her headache. ▪ Some color would really help [=improve] this room. ▪ Humor often helps a tense situation. [no obj] Yelling doesn't help. ▪ It's not much money, but every little bit helps. — often followed by to + verb ▪ It helps to know you care. [=I feel better because I know that you care]
3 [+ obj] a : to give (yourself or another person) food or drink ▪ There's plenty of food, so help yourself. [=take as much food as you would like] — often + to ▪ He helped his neighbor to a glass of wine. ▪ Help yourself to whatever you'd like. b informal : to take something for (yourself) without permission ▪ He saw the money lying on the table, and he helped himself. [=he took the money] — usually + to ▪ He helped himself to the money.

can help ✧ If you can help something, you can prevent it from happening. ▪ Can I help it [=is it my fault] if no one listens to my advice? ▪ There will be no more layoffs. At least not if I can help it. [=if I can prevent it; if it is up to me]

cannot help 1 ✧ If you cannot help yourself, you cannot control your actions or stop yourself from doing something. ▪ I know I shouldn't eat any more, but I can't help myself. ▪ They knew they shouldn't go, but they couldn't help themselves. 2 ✧ If you cannot help something, you cannot stop it or prevent it. ▪ I can't help loving you. ▪ I know I shouldn't be angry, but I can't help it—it's just the way I feel. 3 ✧ If you cannot help doing something or cannot help but do something, you cannot stop yourself from doing it. ▪ I couldn't help having some dessert. ▪ We couldn't help laughing. = We couldn't help but laugh. 4 ✧ Something that cannot be helped cannot be avoided. ▪ It's too bad that we have to leave, but it can't be helped.

God/Lord/heaven help (someone) — used to express strong feelings of worry or concern about what is happening or could happen ▪ If he ever gets control of the country, Lord help us! ▪ Heaven help you [=you will be in trouble] when he finds out you dented the car.

help off/on [phrasal verb] help (someone) off/on with (something) : to do something that makes it easier for (someone) to put on or take off (clothing, shoes, etc.) ▪ Let me help you off with your boots. ▪ He helped her on with her coat.

help out [phrasal verb] help out or help (someone) out or help out (someone) : to do something so another person's job or task is easier ▪ I can't do this myself. Won't someone please help me out? ▪ I sometimes help out in the kitchen. ▪ He helped out with the bills whenever he could. [=he helped pay the bills whenever he could] so help me (God) — used to stress that a statement is serious and truthful ▪ I'm going on a diet and, so help me, this time I'll stick to it!

[2]help noun, pl help
1 [noncount] a : activities or efforts that make it easier to do a job, deal with a problem, etc. ▪ He thanked us for our

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

help. ▪ I could use some help with the dishes. ▪ We could hear shouts for help coming from the house. ▪ a help menu/screen [=a part of a computer program that gives instructions and information about how to use the program] b : something (such as money or advice) that is given to someone who needs it ▪ I couldn't have bought this house without financial help. [=without money given to me by someone else] ▪ She is very unhappy and needs some serious/professional help. [=she should see a counselor or psychologist to help her with her problems]
2 [singular] : someone or something that makes it easier to do a job, deal with a problem, etc. ▪ She has always been a real help (to me) in times of trouble. ▪ He's been more of a hindrance than a help.
3 [noncount] a : the fact of being useful to someone ▪ You've been (of) no help at all to me. [=you haven't helped me at all] b : the state of being helped ▪ Is there any help for us? [=is there anything that can be done to help us?] ▪ The situation is beyond help. [=nothing can be done to improve the situation] ▪ (Brit) There was no help for it but to tell her parents. [=there was no way to avoid telling her parents]
4 [plural] : servants or paid workers ▪ We need to hire additional help. ▪ The help have already left for the day. ▪ It's hard to find good help. ▪ (US) I looked through the help wanted ads. [=the part of the newspaper in which jobs are advertised] help desk noun, pl ~ desks [count] : a group of people who provide help and information usually for electronic or computer problems — usually singular ▪ Call the help desk if you have trouble with the software.

help•er /ˈhɛlpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who helps another person with a job or task ▪ The carpenter measured the wall while one of his helpers brought in the tools.

help•ful /ˈhɛlpfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : making it easier to do a job, deal with a problem, etc. : giving help ▪ A helpful neighbor shoveled our walkway. ▪ She offered us helpful [=useful] suggestions. ▪ a helpful hint
2 : willing to help other people ▪ a kind and helpful person come in helpful see come in at [1]COME – help•ful•ly adv ▪ He helpfully offered to carry the groceries for me. – help•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I appreciate your helpfulness.

help•ing /ˈhɛlpɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : an amount of food that is put on a plate at one time : a portion of food : SERVING ▪ He had two helpings of carrots. ▪ Can I give you a second helping? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He needed a generous helping of self-confidence to ask for a raise.

helping hand noun, pl ~ hands [count] : help or assistance ▪ I'm always willing to lend/give a helping hand. [=I am always willing to help]

helping verb noun, pl ~ verbs [count] grammar : AUXILIARY VERB help•less /ˈhɛlpləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not protected : not able to defend yourself ▪ a helpless little baby ▪ The civilians were helpless against their attackers.
2 : unable to do something to make a situation, task, etc., better or easier ▪ Firefighters were helpless against the blaze. ▪ I feel helpless. Isn't there anything I can do?
3 a : not able to be controlled ▪ helpless laughter/rage b : not able to control something (such as laughter or anger) ▪ The crowd was helpless with laughter. ▪ He was helpless with rage.
– help•less•ly adv ▪ We stood by helplessly while the fire destroyed the house. ▪ They were laughing helplessly. – help•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ feelings of helplessness and despair help•line /ˈhɛlpˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : a telephone service that offers help or information ▪ Call our toll-free helpline for more information.

help•mate /ˈhɛlpˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] old-fashioned + literary : a person who is a companion and helper; especially : WIFE

help•meet /ˈhɛlpˌmiːt/ noun, pl -meets [count] old-fashioned + literary : HELPMATE

[1]hel•ter–skel•ter /ˌhɛltəˈskɛltə/ adv
1 : in a confused and careless way ▪ The children raced helter-skelter through the house.
2 : in no particular order ▪ magazines stacked helter-skelter on her desk – helter–skelter adj ▪ a helter-skelter rush through the train station

[2]helter–skelter noun, pl -ters [count] Brit : a slide that twists around a tower at an amusement park

[1]hem /ˈhɛm/ noun, pl hems [count] : the edge of a piece of cloth that is folded back and sewn down ▪ shorten the hem of the dress/skirt/trousers — see color picture on page C12

[2]hem verb hems; hemmed; hem•ming [+ obj] : to sew down a folded edge of cloth on (something) : to give (something) a hem ▪ hem the dress/skirt/trousers ▪ The curtains need to be hemmed.
hem in [phrasal verb] hem (someone or something) in or hem in (someone or something) : to surround (someone or something) very closely or in a way that makes movement or escape difficult — usually used as (be) hemmed in ▪ The town is hemmed in by mountains on all sides. ▪ He was hemmed in by reporters as he tried to leave the courthouse. — often used figuratively ▪ He felt hemmed in by the school's rules. [=he felt that the rules prevented him from acting freely]
– compare [3]HEM

[3]hem verb hems; hemmed; hemming
hem and haw chiefly US, informal 1 : to stop often and change what you are saying during speech because you are not sure of what to say or are trying to avoid saying something ▪ The question surprised her and she hemmed and hawed a bit before answering. 2 : to take a long time before you make a decision about what to do ▪ The city council hemmed and hawed for a year before deciding to build the new school.
– compare [2]HEM

he–man /ˈhiːˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] informal : a man who is very strong and masculine ▪ He plays another he-man in his latest action movie.

hemi•sphere /ˈhɛməˌsfiɚ/ noun, pl -spheres [count]
1 : a half of the Earth ▪ the Northern/Southern Hemisphere [=the half of the Earth that is north/south of the equator] ▪ the Eastern Hemisphere [=the half of the Earth that is east of the Atlantic Ocean and that includes Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia] ▪ the Western Hemisphere [=the half of the Earth that is west of the Atlantic Ocean and that includes North and South America]
2 : half of a sphere : half of a round object
3 technical : either of the two halves of the brain ▪ a tumor in the right/left cerebral hemisphere
– hemi•spher•ic /ˌhɛməˈsfɪrɪk/ or hemi•spher•i•cal /ˌhɛməˈsferɪkəl/ adj, technical ▪ a hemispherical structure hem•line /ˈhɛmˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the bottom edge of a dress, skirt, or coat ▪ The hemline falls just above the knee. ▪ I shortened/raised the hemline on the dress.

hem•lock /ˈhɛmˌlɑːk/ noun, pl -locks
1 [count, noncount] : an evergreen tree with soft wood
2 [noncount] a : a type of poisonous plant that has small white flowers b : a deadly drug or drink made from this plant ▪ Socrates died after drinking hemlock.

he•mo•glo•bin (US) or Brit hae•mo•glo•bin /ˈhiːməˌgloʊbən/ noun [noncount] technical : the part of blood that contains iron, carries oxygen through the body, and gives blood its red color

he•mo•phil•ia (US) or Brit hae•mo•phil•ia /ˌhiːməˈfɪlijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that causes a person who has been cut or injured to keep bleeding for a very long time

he•mo•phil•i•ac (US) or Brit hae•mo•phil•i•ac /ˌhiːməˈfɪliˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : a person who has hemophilia

[1]hem•or•rhage (US) or Brit haem•or•rhage /ˈhɛmərɪʤ/ noun, pl -rhag•es medical : a condition in which a person bleeds too much and cannot stop the flow of blood [count] The patient suffered a cerebral hemorrhage. [noncount] There is a possibility of hemorrhage with the procedure. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company has suffered a financial hemorrhage. [=the company has lost large amounts of money]
– hem•or•rhag•ic (US) or Brit haem•or•rhag•ic /ˌhɛməˈræʤɪk/ adj, medical ▪ a hemorrhagic fever [=a fever that causes hemorrhaging]

[2]hemorrhage (US) or Brit haemorrhage verb -rhages; -rhaged; -rhag•ing
1 [no obj] medical : to bleed in a very fast and uncontrolled way ▪ The patient began to hemorrhage after the surgery.
2 [+ obj] : to lose (people, money, etc.) in a very fast and uncontrolled way ▪ The company is hemorrhaging money. [=the company is losing very large amounts of money]
– hemorrhaging (US) or Brit haem•or•rhag•ing noun

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

[noncount] ▪ The patient has internal hemorrhaging.

hem•or•rhoid (US) or Brit haem•or•rhoid /ˈhɛmˌrɔɪd/ noun, pl -rhoids [count] : a swollen and painful area located at or near the anus — usually plural ▪ a patient who suffers from hemorrhoids

hemp /ˈhɛmp/ noun [noncount] : a plant that is used to make thick ropes and some drugs (such as hashish and marijuana)

hen /ˈhɛn/ noun, pl hens [count]
1 : an adult female chicken — compare ROOSTER
2 : a female bird of any kind

hence /ˈhɛns/ adv, formal
1 : for this reason ▪ He was a newcomer and hence [=consequently, therefore] had no close friends here. ▪ He knew he could not win the election—hence his decision to withdraw. ▪ The company lost a great deal of money. Hence, the CEO was asked to resign.
2 : later than the present time ▪ a week hence [=a week from now] ▪ What will life be like a century hence?

hence•forth /ˈhɛnsˌfɔəθ/ adv, formal : from this time forward : starting now ▪ Henceforth, supervisors will report directly to the manager. ▪ She announced that henceforth she would be running the company.

hence•for•ward /hɛnsˈfɔəwəd/ adv, formal : HENCEFORTH

H

hench•man /ˈhɛntʃmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] disapproving : a trusted follower or supporter who performs unpleasant, wrong, or illegal tasks for a powerful person (such as a politician or criminal) ▪ a gangster surrounded by his henchmen

hen•house /ˈhɛnˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a covered shelter for chickens or other birds hen•na /ˈhɛnə/ noun [noncount] : a reddish-brown dye used especially for coloring hair or skin

hen party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] Brit, informal : a party for women only; especially : a party for a woman who is about to be married — called also hen night

hen•pecked /ˈhɛnˌpɛkt/ adj, informal — used to describe a man who is constantly controlled and criticized by his wife ▪ a henpecked husband

hep /ˈhɛp/ adj hep•per; hep•pest [also more ~; most ~] US slang, old-fashioned : having or showing knowledge about the newest things in music, fashion, etc. : HIP ▪ a hep cafe ▪ She's hep. ✧ Hep is often associated with people who played and listened to jazz music in the mid-20th century.

hep•a•ti•tis /ˌhɛpəˈtaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease of the liver that causes fever and makes your skin and eyes yellow hep•cat /ˈhɛpˌkæt/ noun, pl -cats [count] US slang, old-fashioned : a person who knows about the newest things in music, fashion, etc. : a hip person ▪ a cool hepcat ✧ Hepcat often refers to someone who played or listened to jazz music in the mid-20th century.

hep•ta•gon /ˈhɛptəˌgɑːn/ noun, pl -gons [count] mathematics : a flat shape that has seven sides and seven angles
– hep•tag•o•nal /hɛpˈtægənəl/ adj ▪ a heptagonal shape/room

hep•tath•lon /hɛpˈtæθlən/ noun, pl -lons [count] : an athletic contest for women that consists of seven running, jumping, and throwing events ▪ She won a gold medal in the heptathlon.

[1]her /ˈhə, ɚ/ adj, always used before a noun, possessive form of SHE : relating to or belonging to a certain woman, girl, or female animal ▪ She bought her own house. ▪ Her parents will visit soon. ▪ What is her name? : made or done by a certain woman, girl, or female animal ▪ I would like to read some of her essays. ▪ She was jailed for her crime. ▪ It's her turn to play. — sometimes used figuratively to refer to something thought of as female (such as a ship, car, machine, or country) ▪ The ship is in port to have her hull repaired. ▪ the United States and her allies — see also HERS

[2]her pronoun, objective form of SHE — used to refer to a certain woman, girl, or female animal as the object of a verb or a preposition ▪ Tell her I said hello. ▪ Did you invite her? ▪ I gave the book to her. ▪ a gift for her ▪ The dress fits her sister as well as her.

[1]her•ald /ˈherəld/ verb -alds; -ald•ed; -ald•ing [+ obj]
1 : to be a sign of (something that is beginning to happen or will happen soon) ▪ Rain heralds the arrival of spring. ▪ The technology heralded a new age of space exploration.
2 : to greet (someone or something) with enthusiasm — usually used as (be) heralded ▪ This achievement will be heralded all over the world. ▪ She is being heralded as the year's best new author. ✧ Someone or something that is much-heralded receives a large amount of praise or admiration. ▪ a much-heralded film

[2]herald noun, pl -alds [count] formal
1 : a sign that something will happen ▪ The early flowers are heralds of spring.
2 : an official messenger in the past ▪ Mercury was the herald of the Roman gods.

her•ald•ry /ˈherəldri/ noun [noncount] formal : the activity of creating or studying coats of arms and of tracing and recording family histories
– he•ral•dic /hɛˈrældɪk/ adj ▪ crosses and other heraldic devices

herb /ˈəb, Brit ˈhɜːb/ noun, pl herbs [count] : a plant or a part of a plant that is used as medicine or to give flavor to food ▪ a dish seasoned with chopped fresh herbs ▪ rosemary, sage, and other herbs — see color picture on page C6

her•ba•ceous /həˈbeɪʃəs/ adj
1 : relating to herbs ▪ herbaceous flavors/aromas
2 : relating to a type of plant that has a soft stem ▪ herbaceous plants/perennials ▪ a herbaceous border [=a garden of flowering plants that die in the autumn and grow again in the spring]

herb•al /ˈəbəl, Brit ˈhɜːbəl/ adj, always used before a noun : made of or relating to herbs ▪ herbal tea/supplements ▪ a doctor who practices herbal medicine [=the use of herbs to treat illness]

herb•al•ist /ˈəbəlɪst, Brit ˈhɜːbəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who grows, sells, or uses herbs to treat illness herb doctor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] chiefly US : a person who uses herbs to treat illness her•bi•cide /ˈhəbəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count, noncount] : a chemical used to destroy plants or stop plant growth her•bi•vore /ˈhəbəˌvoə/ noun, pl -vores [count] : an animal that only eats plants

– her•biv•o•rous /ˌhəˈbɪvərəs/ adj ▪ herbivorous animals

her•cu•le•an or Her•cu•le•an /ˌhəkjəˈliːjən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large, difficult, powerful, etc. ▪ a herculean task/effort ▪ Herculean strength ▪ They took on the herculean job of restoring the house after the fire. ▪ a problem of herculean proportions

[1]herd /ˈhəd/ noun, pl herds
1 [count] : a group of animals that live or are kept together ▪ herds of cattle/horses/elephants ▪ The herd grazed peacefully in the pasture.
2 a [count] : a large group of people ▪ A herd of shoppers waited anxiously for the store to open. b the herd : common people : people as a group ▪ the common herd ▪ He always sticks with the herd. [=he always does what other people do; he does not think for himself] ▪ I refuse to follow the herd. [=do what other people do]
ride herd on see [1]RIDE

[2]herd verb herds; herd•ed; herd•ing
1 [+ obj] : to gather and move (a group of animals) ▪ herd cattle ▪ The horses were herded into the corral.
2 a [+ obj] : to move (people) in a group ▪ We left the hotel and were herded onto a bus. ▪ They herded the students into the auditorium. b [no obj] : to form a group or move as a group ▪ The commuters herded onto the train.
– herd•er /ˈhədə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

herds•man /ˈhədzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who watches over a herd of cows, sheep, etc.

[1]here /ˈhiə/ adv
1 a : in this place : at this location ▪ I like it here. ▪ I'm here to help you. ▪ Turn here. ▪ Hello—is anyone here? ▪ I'm sure I left my glasses (right) here. ▪ They have lived here for 30 years. ▪ Please sign here. [=at the place indicated by the speaker] ▪ At last we're here! = Here we are at last! [=we have finally arrived] ▪ "Hey, where are you?" "I'm over/out/down/up/in here." ▪ I'm planning to be back here by 6:00. — used in speech when something is found ▪ Have you seen my glasses? Oh, here they are. ▪ Ah, here's the book I've been looking for. b : to or into this place ▪ Come here. ▪ I've come here to help you. ▪ Bring the book here. ▪ He rode his bicycle here this morning. ▪ When will you get here? ▪ Here comes the bus. [=the bus is coming right now]
2 a : at this point in a process, activity, story, etc. ▪ Here the author introduces a new character. ▪ The speaker paused here for a moment. ▪ Here the film changes from black-and-white to color. b : in the matter that is being considered

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:37:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

: in this case ▪ Here we agree. ▪ The essential conflict here is their different ways of cutting costs. c : appearing or happening now ▪ Here's your chance for a new career. ▪ Winter is here at last.

3 a informal — used to make a statement about the present situation or subject more forceful ▪ Hey, I'm trying to work here! ▪ We're talking about a lot of money here! ▪ Let's get serious here! b informal — used after a noun to emphasize which person, thing, etc. you are referring to ▪ This book here is the one I was talking about. ▪ My brother here just bought a new car. c — used when you are giving something to someone ▪ Here's my phone number. ▪ "Could you pass the salt?" "Sure, here you are." = "Sure, here it is." = "Sure, here you go."

from here on (out) US, informal : from this time forward ▪ From here on out, I'm making all the decisions.

here and now : at the present time ▪ Instead of dwelling on the past, we need to deal with the problems that exist here and now. — often used in the phrase the here and now ▪ We need to deal with the problems that exist in the here and now. [=the problems that exist in the present] here and there : in different places ▪ Books and papers were strewn here and there. ▪ He's traveled here and there.

here goes or chiefly US here goes nothing informal — used when you are about to try doing something new, difficult, or unpleasant ▪ It's hard to explain, but here goes. [=I will try to explain] ▪ I've never skied before, so here goes nothing.

here is — used in speech and informal writing to introduce a person, subject, or action ▪ Here is what I think we should do. ▪ Here's the thing/problem—I already told her I would go. ▪ Here is the latest election news. ▪ Here's how you should hold the golf club.

here's to — used to express good wishes for someone, to say you are pleased about something, etc., before you drink something; used for making a toast to someone or something ▪ Here's to the new couple. May they find great happiness together. ▪ Thank you all for your hard work. And now, here's to another successful year!

here, there, and everywhere informal : in many different places : all over ▪ I've been looking for you here, there, and everywhere.

here to stay : likely to last or be present for a long time ▪ She's convinced that her bad luck is here to stay.

here we go informal — used when something is just beginning to happen or move ▪ "Here we go," I said as the roller coaster began to climb the first hill.

here you go (again) see [1]GO neither here nor there : not important or interesting ▪ What I think is really neither here nor there. You have to make up your own mind.

out of here or outta here informal — used to say that you are leaving ▪ It's five o'clock, so I am out of here. [=I am leaving this place]

up to here see [2]UP

[2]here interj

1 — used to say that you are present ▪ When he calls your name, say "here." ▪ "John Smith?" "Here!"

2 — used for emphasis or to attract someone's attention ▪ Here, let me help you with that. ▪ (chiefly Brit) Here, what are you doing with my bike?

3 — used in calling a pet to you ▪ Here, boy! Good dog!

[3]here noun [noncount]

1 : this place ▪ get away from here

2 : this point ▪ I've done my part. You take it from here. [=you are responsible from now on] here•abouts /ˈhirəˌbaʊts/ also US here•about /ˈhirəˌbaʊt/ adv, informal : near or around this place : in this area ▪ We don't see a lot of snow hereabouts. — compare THEREABOUTS

[1]here•af•ter /hiəˈæftɚ, Brit hɪərˈɑːftə/ adv, formal

1 : after this : from now on ▪ Hereafter the two companies will operate in full partnership. — often used in legal documents ▪ my client, hereafter the plaintiff [=my client, who will be called "the plaintiff" from this point onward]

2 : in a future time or state ▪ We don't know what will happen hereafter.

[2]hereafter noun

the hereafter : an existence that comes after life ends : life after death ▪ belief in the hereafter

here•by /hiəˈbaɪ/ adv, formal : by means of this act, these words, this document, etc. ▪ I hereby declare the Olympic Games officially open. ▪ The sum will hereby be charged to your account. ▪ The parties to the lawsuit hereby agree to settle the matter out of court.

he•red•i•tary /həˈrɛdəˌteri, Brit həˈrɛdətri/ adj

1 : passed or able to be passed from parent to child before birth ▪ hereditary traits/diseases ▪ He suffers from a rare hereditary condition.

2 formal a : passing from a person who has died to that person's child or younger relative ▪ The position is hereditary. [=inherited] ▪ a hereditary monarchy b : holding a position or title that was passed on from your parent or an older relative ▪ a hereditary ruler/monarch he•red•i•ty /həˈrɛdəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the natural process by which physical and mental qualities are passed from a parent to a child ▪ Heredity plays no part in the disease.

here•in /hiəˈɪn/ adv, formal

1 : in this book, document, etc. ▪ For an explanation of the abbreviations used herein, see the section entitled "Abbreviations in this Work."

2 : in this statement, fact, or detail — used to introduce something that is related to the main subject and that is usually followed by an explanation ▪ The company faces more competition every year. Herein lies the challenge. In order to maintain our current standing, we have to increase sales.

here•in•af•ter /ˌhirəˈnæftɚ, Brit ˌhɪərəˈnɑːftə/ adv, formal : [1]HEREAFTER 1

her•e•sy /ˈherəsi/ noun, pl -sies : a belief or opinion that does not agree with the official belief or opinion of a particular religion [noncount] They were accused of heresy. [count] He was preaching dangerous heresies. — often used figuratively ▪ To disagree with the party leadership was heresy.

her•e•tic /ˈherəˌtɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] : someone who believes or teaches something that goes against accepted or official beliefs ▪ The church regards them as heretics.
– he•ret•i•cal /həˈrɛtɪkəl/ adj ▪ heretical ideas/writings ▪ It would be heretical to suggest changing company policy.

here•to /hiəˈtuː/ adv, formal : to this document ▪ I attach hereto my revisions.

here•to•fore /ˈhiətəˌfoə/ adv, formal : until this time : before now ▪ Heretofore her writing has never displayed such depth of feeling. ▪ This technology has created heretofore unimaginable possibilities.

here•with /hiəˈwɪθ, hiəˈwɪð/ adv, formal : with this : included with this note, letter, document, etc. ▪ You will find my check herewith. ▪ Herewith are your instructions. ▪ I enclose herewith my revisions.

her•i•ta•ble /ˈhɛrətəbəl/ adj, formal

1 : able to be passed from parent to child before birth ▪ a heritable disease

2 law : able to be passed from a parent or older relative to a child ▪ a heritable title her•i•tage /ˈherətɪʤ/ noun, pl -tag•es [count] : the traditions, achievements, beliefs, etc., that are part of the history of a group or nation — usually singular ▪ a nation with a rich heritage of folklore ▪ His Polish heritage was very important to him. ▪ These battlefields are an important part of our heritage and should be preserved.

herky–jerky /ˈhəkiˈʤəki/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : not smooth or graceful : marked by sudden movements or changes ▪ a herky-jerky dance ▪ a film criticized for its herky-jerky editing her•maph•ro•dite /hɚˈmæfrəˌdaɪt/ noun, pl -dites [count] : a person, plant, or animal that has both male and female parts – hermaphrodite adj ▪ hermaphrodite populations – her•maph•ro•dit•ic /hɚˌmæfrəˈdɪtɪk/ adj ▪ hermaphroditic species

her•met•ic /hɚˈmɛtɪk/ adj, formal : closed tightly so that no air can go in or out ▪ hermetic [=(more commonly) airtight] seals
– her•met•i•cal•ly /hɚˈmɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ hermetically sealed containers her•mit /ˈhɚmət/ noun, pl -mits [count] : a person who lives in a simple way apart from others especially for religious reasons

her•mit•age /ˈhɚmətɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count]

1 : a place where a hermit lives

2 : a house or building that is far away from other houses, buildings, or people ▪ On weekends he escapes to his hermitage in the mountains.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

hermit crab noun, pl ~ crabs [count] : a type of crab that lives in the empty shell of another animal (such as a snail)

her•nia /ˈhənijə/ noun, pl -ni•as medical : a painful condition in which an organ (such as the intestine) pushes through the muscles that are around it [count] He has a hernia. [noncount] He was treated for hernia. — called also rupture

he•ro /ˈhiroʊ/ noun, pl heroes or in sense 3 heros [count]
1 a : a person who is admired for great or brave acts or fine qualities ▪ He returned from the war a national hero. ▪ the hero of a rescue ▪ She was a hero for standing up to the government. b : a person who is greatly admired ▪ a football hero ▪ His father has always been his hero. ▪ He has always been a hero to his son. ✧ Hero can refer to either a man or a woman, but it is often used to refer specifically to a man. The specific word for a woman who is brave and admired is heroine. — see also FOLK HERO
2 : the chief male character in a story, play, movie, etc. ▪ The hero [=protagonist] of the film is a fisherman.
3 pl usually heros US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH

he•ro•ic /hɪˈrowɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to heroes ▪ the heroic age ▪ heroic legends
2 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing great courage ▪ It was heroic of those women to fight for the right to vote. ▪ The soldiers received medals for their heroic actions.
3 [more ~; most ~] : very large or great in size, amount, etc. ▪ Despite heroic efforts to save the business, it ultimately went bankrupt. ▪ a political battle of heroic proportions ▪ Heroic [=drastic] measures may be required to save the patient.
– he•ro•i•cal•ly /hɪˈrowɪkli/ adv ▪ women who fought heroically for the right to vote he•ro•ics /hɪˈrowɪks/ noun [plural] : actions that show courage : heroic acts or behavior ▪ Despite his heroics on the football field, he has had a troubled life. — often used to describe heroic actions that are regarded as foolish ▪ We need to be cautious now. This is no time for heroics.

her•o•in /ˈherəwən/ noun [noncount] : a powerful illegal drug that is made from morphine her•o•ine /ˈherəwən/ noun, pl -ines [count]

1 : a woman who is admired for great or brave acts or fine qualities ▪ The town remembered her as the heroine of the flood and erected a statue in her honor.
2 : the chief female character in a story, play, movie, etc. ▪ a tragic heroine

her•o•ism /ˈherəˌwɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : great courage ▪ acts/feats of heroism ▪ women who showed heroism by fighting for their right to vote

her•on /ˈherən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a large bird that has long legs and a long neck and bill — see color picture on page C9 hero sandwich noun, pl ~ -wiches [count] US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH hero worship noun [noncount] : foolish or excessive admiration of someone ▪ He objects to the unthinking hero worship of great athletes by their fans.

– hero–worship verb -ships; -shipped also US -shiped; -ship•ping also US -ship•ing [+ obj] ▪ As a child he hero-worshipped his older brother.

her•pes /ˈhəˌpiːz/ noun [noncount] : a disease that causes painful spots on the skin

her•ring /ˈherɪŋ/ noun, pl herring or herrings [count, noncount] : a fish that lives in the northern Atlantic Ocean and is often eaten as food — see also RED HERRING her•ring•bone /ˈherɪŋˌboʊn/ noun [noncount] : a pattern used on cloth that consists of rows of parallel lines that slant in opposite directions to form V shapes — usually used before another noun ▪ a herringbone pattern/design ▪ a herringbone jacket hers /həz/ pronoun

1 : that which belongs to or is connected with her : her one : her ones ▪ The book is hers. [=the book belongs to her; it is her book] ▪ Hers is the book on the left. [=her book is the one on the left] ▪ a former professor of hers [=one of her former professors] ▪ That face of hers [=her face] is hard to forget.
2 Brit, informal : her home ▪ Let's go back to hers for a drink.

her•self /həˈsɛlf/ pronoun
1 : that same woman, girl, or female animal: a — used as the object of a verb or preposition to refer to a woman, girl, or female animal that has already been mentioned ▪ She considers herself lucky. ▪ She accepted the award for her coworkers and herself. ▪ She is proud of herself for finishing college. ▪ She wrapped the blanket around herself. ▪ "I wonder what he meant?" she said/thought to herself. ▪ She had the house (all) to herself. [=she was alone in the house] ▪ She wanted to see it for herself. [=she wanted to see it rather than have someone tell her about it, describe it to her, etc.] b — used for emphasis to refer again to a woman, girl, or female animal that has already been mentioned ▪ She told me herself that she would be here. ▪ It's hard to believe that she was young once herself. ▪ My father wanted my mother to see a doctor, but she herself didn't think it was necessary. ▪ We were welcomed by the company president herself. ▪ She was nervous about meeting them, but I told him to just be herself. [=to behave like she normally does]
2 : her normal or healthy self ▪ She was herself again after a good night's sleep. ▪ She's not herself today; something's bothering her.
by herself 1 : without any help from other people ▪ She shoveled the driveway by herself. ▪ She did her homework (all) by herself. 2 : with nobody else : ALONE ▪ The grandmother still lives in the house by herself. ▪ She went to the store by herself.

hertz /ˈhəts/ noun, pl hertz [count] technical : a unit used for measuring the frequency of sound waves — abbr. Hz

he's /ˈhiːz, iz/ — used as a contraction of he is or he has ▪ He's [=he is] tall. ▪ He's [=he has] told me that before.

hes•i•tant /ˈhɛzətənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : slow to act or speak especially because you are nervous or unsure about what to do : feeling or showing hesitation ▪ She took a hesitant step back from the door. ▪ He seems hesitant about accepting the job. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ He seems hesitant to accept the job.
– hes•i•tan•cy /ˈhɛzəntənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ We were surprised by his hesitancy about accepting the job. – hes•i•tant•ly adv ▪ She hesitantly stepped back from the door. ▪ He hesitantly asked a stranger for directions.

hes•i•tate /ˈhɛzəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 [no obj] : to stop briefly before you do something especially because you are nervous or unsure about what to do ▪ She hesitated and waited for her friend to say something. ▪ He hesitated about/over accepting the job.
2 [+ obj] : to be unwilling to do something because of doubt or uncertainty ▪ I sometimes hesitate to say what I am really thinking. ▪ I hesitated to come without being asked. ▪ I wouldn't hesitate to ask for your help if I felt I needed it. ▪ Don't hesitate to call if there is a problem.
he who hesitates is lost — used to say that it is important to make decisions and do things in a quick and definite way
– hes•i•ta•tion /ˌhɛzəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] A moment's hesitation could have cost him his life. ▪ He showed no hesitation about/over accepting the job. ▪ I would do it again without hesitation. [=with no delay or doubts] [count] After several brief hesitations he proceeded.

hes•sian /ˈhɛʃən, Brit ˈhɛsiən/ noun [noncount] Brit : BURLAP

het•ero•dox /ˈhɛtərəˌdɑːks/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not agreeing with established beliefs or standards : UNORTHODOX ▪ a heterodox religious thinker ▪ heterodox ideas
– het•ero•doxy /ˈhɛtərəˌdɑːksi/ noun, pl -dox•ies [count, noncount]

het•er•o•ge•neous /ˌhɛtərəˈʤiːnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : made up of parts that are different ▪ an ethnically heterogeneous population — opposite HOMOGENEOUS
– het•ero•ge•ne•ity /ˌhɛtəroʊʤəˈniːjəti/ noun [noncount]

het•ero•sex•u•al /ˌhɛtəroʊˈsɛkʃəwəl/ adj
1 : sexually attracted to people of the opposite sex ▪ a heterosexual male
2 : based on sexual attraction to people of the opposite sex ▪ heterosexual behavior — compare BISEXUAL, HOMOSEXUAL – heterosexual noun, pl -als [count] ▪ male heterosexuals
– het•ero•sex•u•al•i•ty /ˌhɛtəroʊˌsɛkʃəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount]

het up /ˈhɛtˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very excited or upset ▪ John can get all/very het up about/over politics. ▪ What are you so het up about?

heu•ris•tic /hjʊˈrɪstɪk/ adj, formal : using experience to learn and improve ▪ heuristic writing techniques ▪ heuristic methods ▪ heuristic computer programs
– heuristic noun, pl -tics [count] ▪ The program uses heuristics [=heuristic methods] to continually improve its performance.

hew /ˈhjuː/ verb hews; hewed; hewed or hewn /ˈhjuːn/; hew•ing [+ obj] : to shape (something) by cutting with a sharp tool (such as an ax) ▪ They hewed logs to build a cabin. ▪ The walls are built of stones hewn by skilled craftsmen. ▪ roughly hewn logs — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Settlers hewed a town from the wilderness. ▪ His father hewed a fortune from the railroads. — see also ROUGH-HEWN hew to [phrasal verb] hew to (something) US : to follow or obey (something) ▪ Everyone must hew to the rules/standards. ▪ He is a politician who has always hewed [=adhered] closely to the party line.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

hex /ˈhɛks/ noun, pl hex•es [count] chiefly US : a magical spell that is meant to cause bad luck for someone ▪ He claimed that a witch had put a hex on him.

– hex /ˈhɛks/ verb hexes; hexed; hex•ing [+ obj] ▪ He claimed that someone had hexed him.

hexa•gon /ˈhɛksəˌgɑːn, Brit ˈhɛksəgən/ noun, pl -gons [count] mathematics : a flat shape that has six angles and six sides — see picture at GEOMETRY

– hex•ag•o•nal /hɛkˈsægənl/ adj ▪ a hexagonal room

hey /ˈheɪ/ interj

1 — used to attract someone's attention or to express surprise, joy, or anger ▪ Hey (there), it's good to see you! ▪ Hey, wait for me! ▪ Hey, what are you doing with my car! ▪ Hey you!—get away from there!

2 — used to indicate that something is not important, that you are not upset about something, etc. ▪ I thought she was my friend, but, hey, it's not the first time I've been wrong. ▪ "We lost." "Hey, you can't win them all." ▪ "I'm sorry to be so late." "Hey, don't worry about it."

hey•day /ˈheɪˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days [count] : the time when someone or something is most successful, popular, etc. — usually singular ▪ In the heyday of big cars nobody cared how much gas cost. ▪ That's when he was in his heyday.

hey presto interj, Brit : PRESTO ▪ A wave of the hand and, hey presto, it's gone!

HGV /ˌeɪtʃˌʤiːˈviː/ noun, pl HGVs [count] Brit : a large truck

✧ HGV is an abbreviation of "heavy goods vehicle."

hi /ˈhaɪ/ interj — used as an informal way of saying "hello" ▪ Hi, how are you? ▪ Aren't you going to say hi to [=greet] him?

HI abbr Hawaii

hi•a•tus /haɪˈeɪtəs/ noun, pl -tus•es : a period of time when something (such as an activity or program) is stopped [count] The band is making an album again after a five-year hiatus. [noncount] (US) The television network put the show on hiatus [=it stopped broadcasting the show] for several months. = The show went on hiatus for several months.

hi•ba•chi /hɪˈbɑːʧi/ noun, pl -chis [count] chiefly US : a small grill (sense 1b) for cooking food over charcoal

hi•ber•nate /ˈhaɪbəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [no obj] of an animal : to spend the winter sleeping or resting ▪ bears hibernating in their dens

– hi•ber•na•tion /ˌhaɪbəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ bears in hibernation

hi•bis•cus /haɪˈbɪskəs/ noun, pl hibiscus or hi•bis•cus•es [count, noncount] : a type of shrub that has large colorful flowers

hic•cup also hic•cough /ˈhɪˌkʌp/ noun, pl -cups also -coughs

1 a [count] : a sound in your throat that is caused by a sudden, uncontrolled movement of muscles in your chest after you have eaten or drunk too much or too quickly b *hiccups [plural] : a condition in which you make hiccups repeatedly ▪ The baby has (the) hiccups. ▪ I got the hiccups.

2 [count] informal : a small problem, change, or delay ▪ Our computer problems were caused by a hiccup in the power supply. ▪ The stock market has continued to rise, except for a slight hiccup earlier this month.

– hiccup also hiccough /ˈhɪˌkʌp/ verb -cups also -coughs; -cuped also -cupped or -coughed; -cup•ing also -cup•ping or -cough•ing [no obj] ▪ Someone in the audience started hiccuping.

hick /ˈhɪk/ noun, pl hicks [count] US, informal + disapproving : an uneducated person from a small town or the country ▪ We felt like a bunch of hicks when we went to the city for the first time. — often used before another noun ▪ a hick town [=a town where the people are hicks]

hick•o•ry /ˈhɪkəri/ noun, pl -ries

1 [count] : a type of tree that has very hard wood and that produces nuts which can be eaten — called also hickory tree

2 [noncount] : the wood of a hickory tree

[1]hidden past participle of [1]HIDE

[2]hidden adj

1 : not seen or known ▪ a hidden [=concealed] microphone/camera ▪ His suggestions have a hidden [=secret] purpose. ▪ hidden motives ▪ He's accused of having a hidden agenda. [=a secret plan]

2 : not easily found or recognized ▪ There was a hidden flaw in the airplane's design. ▪ the hidden costs in buying a home ▪ searching for hidden meanings ▪ a hidden valley

[1]hide /ˈhaɪd/ verb hides; hid /ˈhɪd/; hid•den /ˈhɪdn̩/ or hid; hid•ing /ˈhaɪdɪŋ/

1 [+ obj] a : to put (something) in a place where it cannot be seen or found ▪ She hid the gifts under the bed. ▪ His records were hidden (away) in the back room. b : to prevent (something) from being seen ▪ Clouds hid the sun all day. ▪ She hid her face in her hands. [=she covered her face with her hands] ▪ They live in a house hidden among the trees. ▪ a house hidden (from view) by trees

2 a [no obj] : to go to or stay at a place where you cannot be seen or found ▪ She hid under the bed. ▪ The prisoners hid (out) down by the river after escaping. ▪ criminals hiding (out) from the police ▪ Photographers were hiding behind the fence. ▪ He has nowhere to hide. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He tried to hide from his responsibilities. [=he tried to avoid his responsibilities] ▪ She has been accused of hiding behind her reputation [=using her reputation to protect herself] instead of answering the charges openly. b [+ obj] : to put (someone or yourself) in a place that cannot be seen or found ▪ She hid him/herself under the bed. ▪ She hid him from the police.

3 [+ obj] : to keep (something) from being known ▪ She tried to hide the fact that she was looking for another job. ▪ You shouldn't try to hide your feelings (from me). ▪ He made no attempt to hide his anger. ▪ You can ask me anything. I have nothing to hide.

hide your light under a bushel see BUSHEL

[2]hide noun, pl hides [count]

1 : the skin of a usually large animal ▪ cattle hides

2 informal — used to talk about protecting or saving yourself or someone else from harm ▪ He betrayed his friend to protect his own hide. [=to protect himself] ▪ Thanks for helping me out—you really saved my hide! [=kept me from being harmed; saved me]

3 chiefly Brit : [3]BLIND 2

hide or hair or hide nor hair informal : any sign of a particular person or thing ▪ He hasn't seen hide or hair of his son [=hasn't seen his son at all] since he went off to college. ▪ We haven't seen hide nor hair of a gas station.

tan someone's hide informal + old-fashioned : to beat or whip (someone) very badly ▪ He threatened to tan my hide if I didn't do what he told me to do.

hide–and–go–seek noun [noncount] US : HIDE-AND-SEEK hide–and–seek noun [noncount] : a children's game in which everyone hides from one player who tries to find them ▪ play hide-and-seek hide•away /ˈhaɪdəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count] : a hidden place : a place where someone goes to be alone ▪ The resort is a perfect romantic hideaway for young couples.

hide•bound /ˈhaɪdˌbaʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : not willing to accept new or different ideas ▪ a hidebound conservative ▪ hidebound traditions [=old traditions that are out-of-date and should be changed] hid•eous /ˈhɪdijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very ugly or disgusting ▪ The room was filled with hideous furniture. ▪ a hideous deformity/crime ▪ He let out a hideous [=frightful] laugh.

– hid•eous•ly adv ▪ Her face was hideously deformed by the fire. – hid•eous•ness noun [noncount] hide•out /ˈhaɪdˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : a place where someone (such as a criminal) hides to avoid being found or captured ▪ a secret hideout

[1]hid•ing /ˈhaɪdɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the state of being hidden ▪ She went into hiding [=she went to a secret place where she would not be found by the people who were looking for her] to avoid reporters and television cameras. ▪ He has been in hiding for years. ▪ He came out of hiding to answer the rumors. — compare [2]HIDING

[2]hiding noun, pl -ings [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a severe beating — usually singular ▪ My father threatened to give me a good hiding. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They gave us a good hiding [=they defeated us badly] in that game.

on a hiding to nothing Brit, informal : on the way to failure : certain to fail

– compare [1]HIDING

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

hiding place noun, pl ~ places [count] : a place where someone or something is hidden ▪ My favorite hiding place when I was a kid was in the attic.

hi•er•ar•chy /ˈhajəˌrɑəki/ noun, pl -chies [count]
1 : a group that controls an organization and is divided into different levels ▪ The church hierarchy faced resistance to some of their/its decisions.
2 : a system in which people or things are placed in a series of levels with different importance or status ▪ He was at the bottom of the corporate hierarchy. ▪ a rigid hierarchy of social classes
– hi•er•ar•chi•cal /ˌhajəˈrɑəkɪkəl/ also hi•er•ar•chic /ˌhajəˈrɑəkɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The army has a rigid hierarchical structure. – hi•er•ar•chi•cal•ly /ˌhajəˈrɑəkɪkli/ adv ▪ The church is organized hierarchically.

hi•ero•glyph /ˈhajərəˌglɪf/ noun, pl -glyphs [count] : a written character that looks like a picture : a character used in hieroglyphics

hieroglyphs

hi•ero•glyph•ic /ˌhajərəˈglɪfɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : HIEROGLYPH
– hieroglyphic adj ▪ hieroglyphic writing

hi•ero•glyph•ics /ˌhajərəˈglɪfɪks/ noun [plural] : a system of writing (such as the one used in ancient Egypt) that uses characters that look like pictures

hi– /ˈhaɪˈfaɪ/ noun, pl - s
1 [noncount] : HIGH FIDELITY
2 [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a piece of electronic equipment for reproducing sound in a clear and accurate way ▪ We bought a hi-fi for the bedroom.
– hi– adj ▪ hi-fi sound reproduction ▪ a hi-fi system ▪ hi-fi equipment

hig•gle•dy–pig•gle•dy /ˌhɪgəldiˈpɪgəldi/ adv, informal : in a messy way : without order ▪ All the dishes were stacked higgledy-piggledy next to the sink.
– higgledy–piggledy adj ▪ a higgledy-piggledy assortment of things

[1]high /ˈhaɪ/ adj high•er; -est
1 a : rising or extending upward a great distance ▪ high mountains/peaks ▪ a high [=tall] building ▪ a high fly ball — opposite LOW b : extending or reaching upward more than other things of the same kind ▪ high boots ▪ a high collar ▪ a high fence ▪ high [=tall] grass — opposite LOW c : located far above the ground or another surface ▪ high clouds/altitudes ▪ The sun was high [=far above the horizon] in the eastern sky. ▪ The apartment has high ceilings. ▪ The cat was found high (up) in the tree. ▪ The airplane was high above the clouds. — opposite LOW d : having a specified height ▪ The bush is six feet high. ▪ a building 100 stories high ▪ The grass was knee-high. [=the grass reached a person's knees] ▪ waist-high water — see also SKY-HIGH e always used before a noun : rising above surrounding land ▪ They have a home in the high country. ▪ the high plains ▪ The houses are built on high ground. — opposite LOW
2 a : greater than usual in amount, number, or degree ▪ They were traveling at a high (rate of) speed. = They were traveling at high speed. ▪ They reached speeds as high as 100 mph. ▪ He's being treated for high blood pressure. ▪ high cholesterol ▪ a high fever ▪ She earns a high salary. ▪ high anxiety ▪ high heat/humidity/temperatures ▪ high interest rates ▪ high intelligence ▪ His books are in high demand. ▪ We liked the house, but the price was too high. ▪ He has received high praise for his efforts to help the homeless. ▪ They are paying him a high compliment. — opposite LOW b : near or at the top of a range ▪ Temperatures were in the high 80s. [=were around 87–89] — opposite LOW
3 a : very favorable ▪ He holds you in high regard/esteem. = He has a high opinion of you. [=he thinks highly of you; he regards you favorably] ▪ They started their trip with high hopes/expectations. [=they started their trip hoping/expecting that it would go well] ▪ Hopes are high that the strike will be settled soon. ▪ All the children were in high spirits [=were very happy and excited] on the last day of school. — opposite LOW b : very good ▪ We manufacture products of high quality. ▪ He got high marks/grades throughout college. ▪ high morale ▪ Our vacation ended on a high note. [=it ended in a pleasant or enjoyable way] ▪ Our trip to the museum was the high point [=the most enjoyable part] of our vacation. — opposite LOW c : morally good ▪ She is a woman of high character. ▪ high ideals/principles ▪ high standards of conduct — opposite LOW
4 : above others in power, importance, etc. ▪ high officials = officials of high rank = high-ranking officials ▪ The decision will be reviewed by a higher court. ▪ Losing weight is a high priority for him. ▪ He has friends in high places. [=he has friends who have power and influence] ▪ He is high on the list of possible candidates for the job. [=he is considered to be a very good choice for the job] — opposite LOW
5 : not low in sound ▪ a high voice : occurring near the top of the musical scale ▪ a high note — opposite LOW
6 always used before a noun : very strong or forceful ▪ high winds/explosives
7 : having qualities that appeal to intelligent people ▪ high art ▪ high comedy — opposite LOW
8 always used before a noun : filled with the most activity ▪ The rates at the resort are more expensive during (the) high season. [=the season when it is most busy or popular] ▪ The town is filled with tourists in high summer. [=in the middle of summer]
9 always used before a noun : of or relating to people who have and spend a lot of money on travel, good food, etc. : rich and luxurious ▪ high society/living ▪ the high life
10 : very exciting or intense ▪ high adventure ▪ The hostage crisis has provided many moments of high drama. [=many highly dramatic moments]
11 of a river, stream, etc. : rising farther up the banks than usual : having more water than usual ▪ The river is high. — opposite LOW 12 not used before a noun, informal : intoxicated by alcohol or drugs ▪ All he wanted to do was to get high. ▪ He was as high as a kite. [=very high; very drunk or intoxicated] — often + on ▪ He was high on cocaine.
come hell or high water see HELL
high and mighty informal 1 : having or showing the insulting attitude of people who believe that they are better or more important than other people ▪ He's not so high and mighty now that he needs our help. ▪ I can't stand her when she acts/gets (all) high and mighty like that. 2 the high and (the) mighty : people who are important and powerful ▪ She likes to rub elbows with the high and mighty.
high in : containing a large amount of (something) ▪ These vegetables are high in nitrogen. ▪ a diet high in fiber high on US, informal : excited or enthusiastic about (someone or something) ▪ The coach is very high on this new player. ▪ Party leaders are high on her prospects.
in high dudgeon see DUDGEON
it's high time informal ✧ If it's high time to do something, it is time to do something that should have been done a long time ago. ▪ It's high time we made some changes around here. ▪ It's high time (that) you cleaned your room.
pay a high price see [1]PAY to high heaven(s) see HEAVEN

synonyms HIGH, TALL, and LOFTY mean being above the usual level in height. HIGH is used for things and not people, and it refers to distance from the ground or some other surface. ▪ A high fence surrounded the house. TALL is used for both people and things. ▪ tall buildings ▪ She is tall for her age. LOFTY is a literary word that is used for something that rises to a very great or impressive height. ▪ lofty mountains

[2]high adv high•er; -est
1 : at or to a high place or level ▪ The painter climbed high on the ladder. ▪ The hawks were circling high in the air/sky. ▪ The letters were stacked high on the table. ▪ a high-flying airplane ▪ If you want to be successful, you have to aim high. [=you have to be ambitious]
2 : at a high rate ▪ Don't value yourself too high. [=highly] ▪ a high-paid lawyer
3 : at a high price ▪ buy low and sell high
4 informal : in a rich manner : in the manner of people who have and spend a lot of money ▪ He is living pretty high.
be riding high see [1]RIDE
y high see [1]FLY high and dry : in a helpless position : without help or protection ▪ The company suddenly went out of business and left its customers high and dry.
high and low : EVERYWHERE ▪ They've searched/looked high and low for a new car that they can afford.
high off the hog or high on the hog US, informal : in a luxurious style ▪ Those movie stars live pretty high off the hog.
hold your head (up) high see [1]HEAD

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

run high see [1]RUN set the bar higher see [1]BAR

[3]high noun, pl highs
1 [count] : a high point or level ▪ Oil prices reached a new high last winter. ▪ an all-time/record high ▪ She achieved a career high in points [=she scored more points than she ever had before] in last night's game. ▪ The high [=the highest temperature] today was 75. ▪ The forecast is for showers with highs in the 70s. ▪ He talked about the highs and lows [=the good parts and bad parts] of his college years.
2 [noncount] US : a gear that is used for faster speeds of travel in a vehicle ▪ He shifted into high. — called also (US) high gear
3 [count] informal : a state of intoxication produced by a drug ▪ The high only lasted a few minutes.
4 [count] weather : an area of high atmospheric pressure ▪ A strong high brought clear skies and warm temperatures.
from on high 1 a : from God or heaven ▪ He claimed to have heard a voice from on high. b : from people with power or authority ▪ orders from on high 2 : from a high place ▪ We looked down from on high at the lush valley.
on a high informal : feeling happy and excited ▪ He was on a high after receiving the promotion.
on high : in the sky : up above ▪ the clouds on high : in heaven ▪ the gods on high high·ball /ˈhaɪˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] US, somewhat old-fashioned : a drink of alcoholic liquor mixed with water or another liquid and served in a tall glass high beam noun, pl ~ beams US : the setting of a vehicle's headlights that makes the brightest light [noncount] The car's headlights were on high beam. [plural] Turn off your high beams. — called also (Brit) full beam; compare LOW BEAM high·born /ˈhaɪˈboɚn/ adj, formal : born into a family with very high social status ▪ a highborn lady

high·brow /ˈhaɪˌbraʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : interested in serious art, literature, ideas, etc. ▪ The book was a popular success, but it was trashed by highbrow literary critics. : relating to or intended for people who are interested in serious art, literature, ideas, etc. ▪ It's an art film that you can see only at highbrow theaters. — compare MIDDLEBROW, LOWBROW
– highbrow /ˈhaɪˌbraʊ/ noun, pl -brows [count] ▪ The book is generally looked down upon by literary highbrows.

high chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] : a child's chair that has long legs so that the child sits at the height of a dining table

high–class /ˈhaɪˈklæs, Brit ˈhaɪˈklɑːs/ adj high·er–class; high·est–class [also more ~; most ~] : very fancy, wealthy, or expensive ▪ I felt out of place at such a high-class party. ▪ a high-class neighborhood ▪ The restaurant is trying to attract a higher-class clientele. — compare LOWER-CLASS high command noun [singular] : the most powerful and important leaders of an organization or military force ▪ the Republican high command

High Court noun [singular] : SUPREME COURT

high day noun, pl ~ days [count] Brit : a day when a religious festival or holiday is observed : HOLY DAY — usually used in the phrase high days and holidays

high–de nition adj, always used before a noun, of a television : having a very clear picture and a wide screen ▪ a new high-definition TV — see also HDTV high–end /ˈhaɪˈɛnd/ adj high·er–end; high·est–end [also more ~; most ~] US : higher in price and of better quality than most others ▪ He designs clothes that are available only at high-end [=upscale] boutiques and department stores. ▪ This is a high-end camera with lots of extra features.

high·er /ˈhajɚ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : far above the ground ▪ The forecast is for strong winds at higher elevations.
2 : located toward the north ▪ in the higher latitudes
3 : above another or others in position, rank, or order ▪ higher and lower courts
4 : more advanced or developed ▪ higher and lower animals higher education noun [noncount] : education or learning at a college or university ▪ Students and their parents worry about the rising cost of higher education.

higher learning noun [noncount] : education or learning at a college or university ▪ He founded a prestigious institution of higher learning. [=a college or university]

higher power noun, pl ~ powers [count] : a spirit or being (such as God) that has great power, strength, knowledge, etc., and that can affect nature and the lives of people ▪ belief in a higher power high·er–up /ˌhajɚˈʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a person in an organization or government who has a lot of power and authority ▪ Her hard work and clever ideas impressed the higher-ups and earned her a promotion.

high·fa·lu·tin /ˌhaɪfəˈluːtn̩/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : seeming or trying to seem great or important ▪ I enjoy the opera, but not all of the highfalutin [=pretentious] people it seems to attract. ▪ a highfalutin way of talking high fashion noun [noncount]

1 : the newest fashions that are usually bought by only a small number of people ▪ boutiques that sell high fashion to the very wealthy
2 : HAUTE COUTURE

high delity noun [noncount] : the very good quality that some recorded sounds or copied images have – high– delity adj ▪ high-fidelity [=hi-fi] recordings ▪ high-fidelity sound ▪ high-fidelity speakers high nance noun [noncount] : activities (such as buying companies and investing in stocks) that involve large amounts of money ▪ the world of high finance high ve noun, pl ~ ves [count] chiefly US, informal : a gesture in which you slap the palm of your hand against the palm of someone else's hand in the air usually to show that you are happy about a victory or accomplishment ▪ People began cheering and giving each other high fives.

– high– ve verb - ves ; - ved ; - v·ing US, informal [no obj] People were cheering and high-fiving when the election results were announced. [+ obj] People cheered and high-fived each other.

high– i ·er or high– y ·er /ˈhaɪˈflajɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is very successful or very determined to succeed in business, politics, etc. ▪ young high-fliers in the computer industry high– own /ˈhaɪˈfloʊn/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : using fancy words that are meant to sound important and impressive ▪ Her books are filled with abstract ideas and high-flown language. ▪ high-flown rhetoric high– y ·ing /ˈhaɪˈflajɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~]

1 : flying far above the ground ▪ high-flying airplanes
2 : very successful or determined to succeed ▪ a high-flying young executive ▪ a high-flying company high gear noun [singular] US : [3]HIGH 2 ▪ She shifted the car into high gear.

in/into high gear : in or into a state of great or intense activity ▪ The project is now in high gear. [=(Brit) top gear] ▪ Fuel prices are expected to rise as the summer travel season kicks/moves into high gear.

high–grade /ˈhaɪˈgreɪd/ adj high·er–grade; high·est–grade
1 : of a very good quality ▪ high-grade paper/steel
2 : medically serious : relating to a dangerous medical condition ▪ a high-grade tumor/fever

high ground noun
the high ground : a position in which you have an advantage over others ▪ They claim to have the (intellectual) high ground in this debate. [=they claim to have the (intellectually) better position] — often used in the phase the moral high ground ▪ These countries lost/ceded the moral high ground [=they stopped being morally better than others; they lost the right to consider themselves morally better than others] when they entered the war to protect their economic interests. ▪ She believes she has the moral high ground on this issue. [=she believes her position on the issue is the morally correct one] high–hand·ed /ˈhaɪˈhændəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not having or showing any interest in the rights, opinions, or feelings of other people ▪ arrogant and high-handed public officials ▪ She's notorious for her high-handed treatment of employees.

– high–hand·ed·ly adv ▪ treating her employees high-handedly – high–hand·ed·ness noun [noncount]

high–heeled adj, always used before a noun, of a shoe or boot : having a tall heel ▪ high-heeled pumps high heels noun [plural] : women's shoes that have tall heels ▪ For the party she wore a black silk dress and high heels. — see picture at SHOE

High Holiday noun, pl ~ -days [count] : either one of two important Jewish holidays: a : ROSH HASHANAH b : YOM KIPPUR

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

high horse noun [singular] informal ✧ If you are on a/your high horse, you are talking or behaving in a way that shows that you think you are better than other people or that you know more about something than other people do. ▪ I'm not going to get up on a high horse and tell you that you're wrong for doing this. ▪ Oh, climb/get (down) off your high horse. You don't know any more about it than the rest of us.

high jinks /ˈhaɪˌʤɪŋks/ noun [plural] : wild or playful behavior ▪ It's a silly movie about adolescent high jinks.

high jump noun

be (in) for the high jump Brit, informal : to be certain to be punished ▪ If the boss finds out what we've done, we're (in) for the high jump! [=we're in for it; we're in trouble]

the high jump : an athletic event in which people compete by trying to jump over a bar high above the ground ▪ He won the gold medal in the high jump.

high jump

– high jumper noun, pl ∼ -ers [count]

high•land /ˈhaɪlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : an area where there are many mountains or where the land is high above the level of the sea — usually plural ▪ a home in the highlands ▪ the Scottish Highlands [=the mountainous area in the northern part of Scotland] — compare LOWLAND

– highland adj, always used before a noun ▪ a highland region/village – high•land•er /ˈhaɪləndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ rivalries between highlanders and lowlanders high–lev•el /ˈhaɪˈlevəl/ adj, always used before a noun high•er–level; high•est–level : of great importance or high rank ▪ These military secrets are known only to a few high-level government officials.

[1]high•light /ˈhaɪˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count]

1 : something (such as an event or a detail) that is very interesting, exciting, or important : the best part of something ▪ I missed the game, but I saw the highlights on the evening news. ▪ The jazz concert was the highlight [=high point] of our trip. — compare LOWLIGHT

2 : a light spot or area ▪ brown hair with (natural) gold highlights ▪ She added highlights to her hair. [=she dyed parts of her hair a lighter color than the rest] ▪ (technical) the highlights of a photograph/picture/painting

[2]highlight verb -lights; -light•ed; -light•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to make or try to make people notice or be aware of (someone or something) : to direct attention to (someone or something) ▪ Unfortunately, the media insisted upon highlighting his troubled past. ▪ The speech highlighted [=emphasized] the importance of improving education in rural communities. b : to be a very interesting, exciting, or important part of (something) ▪ Our trip was highlighted by a great jazz concert we attended.

2 : to mark (something, such as text) with a bright color ▪ The students highlighted important vocabulary words in their textbooks. ▪ Important names and dates in each chapter are highlighted. ▪ (computers) Use your mouse to highlight the text that you want to revise.

high•light•er /ˈhaɪˌlaɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a special pen with brightly colored ink that you can see through ✧ People use highlighters to mark parts of a page so that those parts will be easy to see.

high•ly /ˈhaɪli/ adv [more ∼; most ∼]

1 a : to a great degree ▪ She is one of the most highly respected journalists in the country. ▪ This is a highly [=very] sensitive matter. ▪ highly accomplished/successful ▪ That idea seems highly [=extremely] unlikely to me. b : in an amount or number that is greater than usual : to a high degree ▪ a highly paid [=high-paid] executive ▪ highly priced items

2 : in an approving way : with approval ▪ He speaks highly [=favorably] of you. ▪ They regard her highly.

highly strung adj [more ∼; most ∼] chiefly Brit : HIGH-STRUNG high–mind•ed /ˈhaɪˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : having or showing intelligence and a strong moral character ▪ a high-minded person ▪ high-minded intentions ▪ a novel with high-minded themes

– high–mind•ed•ly adv ▪ speaking high-mindedly – high–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

High•ness /ˈhaɪnəs/ noun, pl -ness•es [count] — used as a title for a member of a royal family; used with his, her, or your ▪ Her Highness the Queen ▪ His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales ▪ Your Highness

high noon noun [singular]

1 somewhat old-fashioned : exactly noon ▪ The duel was to take place at high noon.

2 : the time when a fight or contest will happen or be decided ▪ We are approaching high noon of the election campaign.

3 : the most important or active time of something ▪ the high noon of her career high–oc•tane adj

1 of engine fuel : of a good quality that allows an engine to run efficiently ▪ high-octane gasoline

2 informal : very powerful, strong, or effective ▪ high-octane football ▪ high-octane coffee [=coffee that contains a lot of caffeine]

high performance adj, always used before a noun : better, faster, or more efficient than others ▪ high performance cars/airplanes/boats ▪ high performance running shoes high–pitched /ˈhaɪˈpɪʧt/ adj high•er–pitched; high•est–pitched [also more ∼; most ∼] : making a high sound : HIGH ▪ She has a high-pitched voice. ▪ The car's brakes produced a high-pitched squeal.

high–pow•ered /ˈhaɪˈpawɚd/ also high–pow•er /ˈhaɪˈpawɚ/ adj

1 of a person : very successful, important, and powerful ▪ a high-powered executive

2 : very energetic or forceful ▪ a high-powered performance by a rock musician

3 of a machine or device : very powerful ▪ high-powered computers ▪ high-power lasers high–pressure adj, always used before a noun

1 : using or involving forceful methods to sell something ▪ a high-pressure salesman ▪ high-pressure sales tactics

2 [more ∼; most ∼] : causing or involving a lot of mental or emotional stress : very stressful ▪ She has a high-pressure job on Wall Street. ▪ the high-pressure world of advertising

3 a : having or using a lot of force or pressure from air, water, etc. ▪ a high-pressure hose ▪ gas stored in a high-pressure container b of weather : having a high atmospheric pressure ▪ A high-pressure system will bring us better weather later this week. ▪ a high-pressure center/area high priest noun, pl ∼ priests [count]

1 informal : a person (especially a man) who is a leader in a particular profession, subject, etc. — often + of ▪ the high priest of psychotherapy ▪ the high priest of horror fiction

2 : an important priest in some religions

high priestess noun, pl ∼ -esses [count]

1 informal : a woman who is a leader in a particular profession, subject, etc. — often + of ▪ a high priestess of the civil rights movement ▪ the high priestess of the blues

2 : an important priestess in some religions

high–pro le adj [more ∼; most ∼] : attracting a lot of attention in newspapers, on television, etc. ▪ a high-profile legal case ▪ a high-profile athlete ▪ She has a very high-profile job.

high–ranking adj, always used before a noun high•er–ranking; high•est–ranking : having a high rank or position ▪ high-ranking officials high–rise /ˈhaɪˈraɪz/ adj, always used before a noun

1 of a building : very tall : having many floors or stories ▪ a high-rise apartment building

2 : made up of high-rise buildings ▪ a high-rise district – high rise noun, pl ∼ rises [count] ▪ My apartment is in the high rise on the corner.

high–risk adj

1 : likely to result in failure, harm, or injury : having a lot of risk ▪ a high-risk [=dangerous] activity ▪ high-risk investments

2 : more likely than others to get a particular disease, condition, or injury ▪ high-risk patients ▪ patients in the high-risk group high road noun, pl ∼ roads [count] old-fashioned : a main road

the high road 1 chiefly US : a morally proper way of doing something ▪ Several local news programs reported the rumor, but the city newspaper took the high road [=behaved properly] and waited to see if anyone could confirm the story. 2 : an easy way to do something ▪ The book claims to teach the high road to financial success.

high roller noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] informal

1 : a rich person who spends a lot of money ▪ a high roller known for his lavish parties

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

2 : a person who gambles large amounts of money ▪ The casino offers special deals to attract high rollers.

high school noun, pl ~ schools
1 [count, noncount] : a school in the U.S. and Canada for older children ▪ She's in high school. = She goes to high school. = She attends high school. ▪ He graduated from Manchester High School. — often used before another noun ▪ the high school track team ▪ high-school students ✧ Children in the U.S. and Canada attend high school for their last three or usually four years of schooling before possibly going to a college or university. — compare ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, MIDDLE SCHOOL
2 [singular] — used in the U.K. in the names of secondary schools ▪ She sat A levels at Slough High School for Girls.

high schooler noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a high-school student high seas noun [plural] : the open part of a sea or ocean : the part of a sea or ocean that is away from land ▪ The ship was attacked on the high seas.

high–security adj, always used before a noun : carefully locked, protected, or guarded ▪ a high-security prison/facility

High Sheriff noun, pl ~ -iffs [count] Brit : SHERIFF 2

high–sound•ing /ˈhaɪˈsaʊndɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : using words that are meant to sound important and impressive ▪ high-sounding rhetoric/language

high–speed /ˈhaɪˈspi:d/ adj
1 : designed to go or move very fast ▪ high-speed trains
2 : going or moving very fast ▪ The robbers led the police on a high-speed chase. ▪ a high-speed Internet connection high–spir•it•ed /ˈhaɪˈspirətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of energy or enthusiasm : LIVELY ▪ a high-spirited group of school children ▪ She gave a high-spirited performance.

– high–spir•it•ed•ness noun [noncount]

high street noun, pl ~ streets [count] Brit : a town's main street where there are many shops, banks, etc. ▪ 74 High Street — often used before another noun ▪ high street shops/retailers high–strung /ˈhaɪˈstrʌŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US : very nervous or easily upset ▪ stories of high-strung performers who place unreasonable demands on the people who work with them ▪ Dogs of this breed are often high-strung. [=(chiefly Brit) highly strung] high•tail /ˈhaɪˌteɪl/ verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing hightail it US, informal : to leave a place as quickly as possible ▪ When we heard the night watchman, we hightailed it out of there as quick as we could.

high tea noun, pl ~ teas [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : an early evening meal at which tea and often cold meat and sandwiches are usually served high–tech also hi–tech /ˈhaɪˈtɛk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to or using new electronic devices and technology ▪ high-tech devices/materials ▪ high-tech solutions ▪ high-tech businesses ▪ The methods they use are very high-tech.

high tech also hi–tech noun [noncount] : HIGH TECHNOLOGY high technology noun [noncount] : the use or creation of new scientific methods or materials especially when they involve computers or electronic devices ▪ advances in high technology ▪ This region has become a center of high technology. — often used before another noun ▪ high-technology [=high-tech] products/industries high–tension adj, always used before a noun : having or using a very powerful flow of electricity : HIGH-VOLTAGE ▪ high-tension wires high–test adj : HIGH-OCTANE ▪ high-test fuel ▪ high-test vodka high tide noun, pl ~ tides [count, noncount] : the tide when the water is at its highest level ▪ At high tide the water covers the rocks completely. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He became involved in social issues at the high tide of the civil rights movement. [=at the most active and important time of the civil rights movement] — compare LOW TIDE

high–toned /ˈhaɪˌtoʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US
1 : having a high moral or intellectual tone or quality ▪ a high-toned movie/play ▪ high-toned moral themes
2 : HIGH-SOUNDING ▪ high-toned phrases

high–top /ˈhaɪˌtɑ:p/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, of a shoe or sneaker : extending up over the ankle ▪ high-top sneakers – high–tops /ˈhaɪˌtɑ:ps/ noun [plural] ▪ The kids wore jeans and high-tops. [=high-top sneakers] high treason noun [noncount] : TREASON ▪ The conspirators were hanged for high treason.

high–up noun, pl -ups [count] Brit : HIGHER-UP high–volt•age /ˈhaɪˈvoʊltɪʤ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : having or using a very powerful flow of electricity ▪ high-voltage wires
2 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a lot of energy ▪ a high-voltage [=dynamic, electric] performance/performer high water noun

come hell or high water see HELL

high–water mark noun, pl ~ marks [count]
1 : the time when something is most active, successful, etc. : PEAK ▪ It was the high-water mark of her career.
2 : the highest level that water from a river, ocean, etc., reaches especially during a flood high•way /ˈhaɪˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] chiefly US : a main road that connects cities, towns, etc. ▪ I had heard there was a traffic jam on the highway, so I took the side roads. — compare EXPRESSWAY, FREEWAY, INTERSTATE high•way•man /ˈhaɪˌweɪmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man especially in the past who stopped travelers on roads and robbed them highway robbery noun [noncount] US, informal : the practice of charging a price that is very high and usually unfair for something ▪ Charging that much to see a movie is highway robbery!

high wire noun, pl ~ wires [count] : a rope or wire on which a performer walks and does tricks high up in the air to entertain people especially as part of a circus : a high tightrope — usually singular ▪ walking/performing on the high wire — often used before another noun ▪ a high-wire act [=a circus performance on a high wire] — sometimes used figuratively to refer to something that is difficult or dangerous ▪ The company is walking a financial high wire. [=behaving in a financially risky way] ▪ a financial high-wire act

hi•jack /ˈhaɪˌʤæk/ verb -jacks; -jacked; -jack•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to stop and steal (a moving vehicle) ▪ He hijacked a truck, threatening the driver at gunpoint. b : to steal (something) from a moving vehicle that you have stopped ▪ A band of robbers hijacked the load of furs from the truck.
2 : to take control of (an aircraft) by force ▪ A group of terrorists hijacked the plane.
3 : to take or take control of (something) for your own purposes ▪ The organization has been hijacked by radicals.
– hijack noun, pl -jacks [count] ▪ recent airline hijacks
– hi•jack•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ airline hijackers
– hijacking noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ recent airline hijackings

[1]hike /ˈhaɪk/ verb hikes; hiked; hik•ing
1 : to walk a long distance especially for pleasure or exercise : to go on a hike [no obj] We spent the afternoon hiking around the lake. ▪ She hiked 10 miles in the hot desert sun. ▪ We hiked (up) to the camp. [+ obj] We hiked some of the shorter trails. ▪ Our neighbors spent their vacation hiking the Rockies.
2 [+ obj] : to suddenly increase the cost, amount, or level of (something) ▪ The state keeps hiking the tax on cigarettes. ▪ There's talk of hiking the eligibility age.
3 [+ obj] : to pull or lift (something, such as yourself or part of your clothing) with a quick movement ▪ I hiked myself onto the ledge. — usually + up ▪ She hiked up her long skirt and stepped over the hedge.
4 [+ obj] American football : to pass (the ball) back to the quarterback at the start of a play : SNAP ▪ The center hiked the ball too soon, and the quarterback fumbled.
– hik•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The hikers wandered away from the trail and got lost. – hiking adj ▪ hiking boots – hiking noun [noncount] ▪ My hobbies include hiking and photography. ▪ Our neighbors like to go hiking in the mountains.

[2]hike noun, pl hikes [count]
1 : a usually long walk especially for pleasure or exercise ▪ We went for a hike around the lake. ▪ a 10-mile hike
2 : a usually sudden increase in the cost, level, or amount of something ▪ The school lost a number of students after the tuition hike. ▪ a price/tax/wage hike take a hike US, informal + impolite — used in speech as an angry way of telling someone to leave

hi•lar•i•ous /hɪˈlerijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very funny ▪ Some people don't like his comedy, but I think he's hilarious.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

▪ She gave us a hilarious account of her first days as a teacher. ▪ a hilarious comedy
– hi•lar•i•ous•ly adv ▪ a hilariously irreverent comedy hi•lar•i•ty /hɪˈlerəti/ noun [noncount] : noisy fun or laughter ▪ My attempt to carve the turkey was a source of great hilarity at the dinner table.

hill /ˈhɪl/ noun, pl hills
1 [count] : a usually rounded area of land that is higher than the land around it but that is not as high as a mountain ▪ She watched the sun set behind the hills. ▪ The house was built at the very top of the hill.
2 [count] : an area of sloping ground on a road, path, etc. ▪ Our driveway is a long, steep hill. ▪ He came barreling down the hill at 65 miles per hour.
3 [count] : a pile of something : HEAP, MOUND ▪ The plows came and cleared the streets, forming a hill of snow on the street corner.
4 the Hill US, informal — used to refer to the U.S. Congress ▪ a proposed new law that is being debated on the Hill [=on Capitol Hill]
a hill of beans chiefly US, informal : something that has little or no value — used in negative statements ▪ These proposals don't amount to a hill of beans. = These proposals aren't worth a hill of beans. [=these proposals have no value; they are useless] over the hill informal : old and no longer successful, attractive, etc. ▪ an athlete who's over the hill ▪ an over-the-hill actor hill•bil•ly /ˈhɪlˌbɪli/ noun, pl -lies [count] US, usually disapproving : a person who lives in the country far away from cities and who is often regarded as someone who lacks education, who is stupid, etc. ▪ Other kids called her a hillbilly because of her accent and her simple clothes.

hillbilly music noun [noncount] US : COUNTRY MUSIC

hill•ock /ˈhɪlək/ noun, pl -ocks [count] : a small hill

hill•side /ˈhɪlˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : the side of a hill ▪ Streams of rainwater rushed down the hillside. — often used before another noun ▪ a hillside neighborhood

hill•top /ˈhɪlˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] : the top of a hill ▪ They built their house on a hilltop. — often used before another noun ▪ a hilltop view ▪ a hilltop town hilly /ˈhɪli/ adj hill•i•er; -est : having many hills ▪ hilly terrain ▪ hilly roads.

– hill•i•ness noun [noncount]

hilt /ˈhɪlt/ noun, pl hilts [count] : the handle of a sword or dagger to the hilt : as much as possible : to the greatest possible limit or extent ▪ The farm was mortgaged (up) to the hilt. ▪ She played the role to the hilt.

him /ˈhɪm, ɪm/ pronoun, objective form of HE
1 — used to refer to a certain man, boy, or male animal as the object of a verb or preposition ▪ I hadn't heard from my brother in a while, so I gave him a call. ▪ Do you know him? ▪ His mother punished him for hitting his little sister. ▪ I often play basketball with him.
2 — used to indicate either a male or female object of a verb or preposition in general statements or when the sex of the person is unknown ▪ If any student misbehaves, send him to the office. ✧ This use of him was common in the past but is now often avoided because it is considered sexist.

him•self /hɪmˈsɛlf/ pronoun
1 : that same man, boy, or male animal: a — used as the object of a verb or preposition to refer to a man, boy, or male animal that has already been mentioned ▪ He accidentally cut himself while shaving. ▪ He bought himself a new wallet. = He bought a new wallet for himself. ▪ He doesn't consider himself old. = He doesn't think of himself as (being) old. ▪ The cat washed himself. ▪ He wrote a note to himself. ▪ He had the house (all) to himself. [=he was alone in the house] ▪ "It's almost morning," he said to himself. ▪ He wanted to see it for himself. [=he wanted to see it rather than have someone tell him about it, describe it to him, etc.] b — used for emphasis to refer again to a man, boy, or male animal that has already been mentioned ▪ He told me himself that he was broke. = He himself told me (that) he was broke. ▪ He reminded them that he was young once himself. ▪ The proposal was made by the governor himself. ▪ The composer himself conducted the symphony.
2 : that same person — used to indicate either a male or female object of a verb or preposition ▪ Everyone must fend for himself. [=all people must fend for themselves] ✧ This use of himself was common in the past but is now often avoided because it is considered sexist.
3 : his normal or healthy self ▪ After a good night's sleep, he felt like himself again. ▪ He's not himself today; something must be bothering him. ▪ He was nervous about meeting them, but I told him to just be himself. [=to behave like he normally does] by himself 1 : without any help from other people ▪ He shoveled the driveway by himself. ▪ He did his homework (all) by himself. 2 : with nobody else : ALONE ▪ He lives in the house by himself. ▪ He likes to travel by himself.
every man for himself see [1]MAN

[1]hind /ˈhaɪnd/ adj, always used before a noun : at or near the back of something ▪ The dog stood on his hind [=rear] legs, begging for food.

[2]hind noun, pl hinds [count] chiefly Brit : a female deer : DOE; especially : a female red deer — compare HART

hin•der /ˈhɪndɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a task or action) slow or difficult ▪ Their journey was hindered [=impeded, slowed] by snow and high winds. ▪ The witness refused to cooperate, hindering the investigation. ▪ The country's economic growth is being hindered by the sanctions. ▪ It's not clear whether the change will help or hinder our project.
hinder from [phrasal verb] hinder (someone or something) from (something) : to stop (someone) from (doing something) ▪ Financial troubles hindered [=prevented] him from going on the trip. ▪ Unfortunately, her ignorance has never hindered [=stopped] her from giving her opinion.

Hin•di /ˈhɪndi/ noun [singular] : an official language of India
– Hindi adj ▪ Hindi grammar hind•quar•ter /ˈhaɪndˌkwoɚtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : the back left or right part of the body of an animal with four feet — usually plural ▪ the dog's/horse's hindquarters

hin•drance /ˈhɪndrəns/ noun, pl -drance•es
1 [count] : a person or thing that makes a situation difficult : a person or thing that hinders someone or something ▪ She wanted to sign up for the class, but the cost was a hindrance. [=the class cost too much] ▪ Is my presence here a help or a hindrance? — often + to ▪ I'm afraid you're more of a hindrance to me than a help at this point. ▪ These sanctions are a hindrance to the country's economic growth.
2 [noncount] : the act of making it difficult for someone to act or for something to be done : the act of hindering someone or something ▪ He should be allowed to live where he chooses without hindrance. = (chiefly Brit) He should be allowed to live where he chooses without let or hindrance.

hind•sight /ˈhaɪndˌsaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the knowledge and understanding that you have about an event only after it has happened ▪ It's easy for us to say that the war was wrong, but we have the advantage/benefit of hindsight. ▪ In hindsight, it's clear that there were alternatives. = With hindsight, we clearly see that there were alternatives. — see also twenty-twenty hindsight at TWENTY-TWENTY

Hin•du /ˈhɪnˌduː/ noun, pl -dus [count] : a follower of Hinduism
– Hindu adj ▪ Hindu philosophy ▪ They are Hindu. [=they are Hindus]

Hin•du•ism /ˈhɪnˌduːˌɪzəm/ noun [singular] : the main religion of India which includes the worship of many gods and the belief that after you die you return to life in a different form

[1]hinge /ˈhɪnʤ/ noun, pl hing•es [count] : a usually metal piece that attaches a door, gate, or cover to something and allows it to open and close — see picture at DOOR

[2]hinge verb hinges; hinged; hing•ing [+ obj] : to attach (a door, gate, or cover) by hinges — usually used as (be) hinged ▪ a storage trunk with a hinged lid hinge on also hinge upon [phrasal verb] hinge on/upon (something) : to be determined or decided by (something) : to depend on (something) ▪ The outcome of the election hinges on how the candidates perform in the debate.

[1]hint /ˈhɪnt/ noun, pl hints [count]
1 : a small piece of information that helps you guess an answer or do something more easily ▪ I can't tell you the answer, but I'll give you a hint. [=clue] ▪ The book includes helpful hints [=tips] for inexperienced cooks.
2 : information about something given in an indirect way ▪ Her face gave me a hint of what she was thinking.; especially : a statement that suggests something that you do not want to say in a direct way ▪ He's been dropping hints that he'd like to be invited to the party. [=he has been saying things that show that he wants to be invited] ▪ When she told me

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

how much work she had to do, I got/took the hint [=I understood what she was suggesting] and left. ▪ "I have a lot of work to do." "OK, I'll leave. I can take a hint."

3 : a very small amount of something ▪ The sauce has a subtle hint of garlic. ▪ It was late March, but there was still a hint [=trace] of winter in the air. ▪ He had a hint of a German accent. ▪ They'll betray you at the first hint of trouble.

[2]hint verb hints; hint•ed; hint•ing : to say (something) or give information about (something) in an indirect way [+ obj] — usually + that ▪ He's been hinting that he might run for mayor. [no obj] I keep hinting, but she's not catching on. I think I need to be more direct. ▪ The boss hinted about possible layoffs.

hint at [phrasal verb] hint at (something) : to talk about (something) in an indirect way ▪ He's been hinting at the possibility of running for mayor. = He's been hinting at a mayoral run. ▪ The history textbook only hinted at the racial prejudice of that era. ▪ What is she hinting at?

hin•ter•land /ˈhɪntəˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : an area that is not close to any cities or towns : a remote region ▪ a/the rural hinterland ✧ Hinterland is usually singular in British English but is often plural in U.S. English. ▪ She had grown up in the city and knew nothing of life in the hinterlands.

[1]hip /ˈhɪp/ noun, pl hips [count] : the part of your body between your waist and legs on each side ▪ She stood with her hands on her hips. — see picture at HUMAN joined at the hip informal — used to describe two people who are often or usually together ▪ She and her sister used to be joined at the hip [=inseparable] when they were kids.

shoot from the hip see [1]SHOOT

– compare [2]HIP

– hipped /ˈhɪpt/ adj ▪ a wide-hipped woman [=a woman with wide hips]

[2]hip noun, pl hips [count] : ROSE HIP — compare [1]HIP

[3]hip adj hip•per; hip•pest [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 : knowing about and following the newest styles, fashions, etc. ▪ He tried to learn about the latest bands so he could impress his hip new college friends.

2 : very popular or fashionable ▪ She knows how to get into all of the hippest clubs and restaurants.

hip to informal : aware of (something) ▪ He's hip to what's going on in the jazz world.

– hip•ness /ˈhɪpnəs/ noun [noncount]

[4]hip interj — used in a cheer ▪ Hip, hip, hooray!

hip bone noun, pl ~ bones [count] : the large bone between your waist and your legs that has sides that spread outward to form the hips — see picture at HUMAN

hip ask noun, pl ~ asks [count] : FLASK 1

hip–hop /ˈhɪpˌhɑːp/ noun [noncount] : rap music ▪ I listen to hip-hop and reggae. ▪ a hip-hop artist; also : the culture associated with rap music

hip•pie also hip•py /ˈhɪpi/ noun, pl -pies [count] : a usually young person who rejects established social customs (such as by dressing in an unusual way or living in a commune) and who opposes violence and war; especially : a young person of this kind in the 1960s and 1970s ▪ longhaired hippies ▪ draft-dodging hippies ▪ She used to be a hippie, but she's fairly conservative now. ▪ an old/aging hippie [=an old person who still lives like the hippies of the 1960s and 1970s] ▪ The band appeals to a new generation of hippies. — often used before another noun ▪ the hippie generation/movement ▪ my hippie days [=the time when I was a hippie]

hip•po /ˈhɪpoʊ/ noun, pl -pos [count] somewhat informal : HIPPOPOTAMUS

hip•po•pot•a•mus /ˌhɪpəˈpɑːtəməs/ noun, pl -mus•es or -mi /-ˌmaɪ/ [count] : a large African animal that has an extremely large head and mouth and short legs and that spends most of its time in water

hip•ster /ˈhɪpstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] informal : a person who follows the latest styles, fashions, etc. : a hip person ▪ a movie that appeals equally to hipsters and suburbanites

[1]hire /ˈhajə/ verb hires; hired; hir•ing

1 a chiefly US : to give work or a job to (someone) in exchange for wages or a salary [+ obj] She had very little office experience, so the company wouldn't hire her. ▪ a hired hand/worker ▪ We hired someone to clean the office once a week. [no obj] The company isn't hiring right now. b [+ obj] : to use or get the services of (someone) to do a particular job ▪ You should hire [=(more formally) employ] a lawyer to look over the contract.

2 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to pay to use (something) : RENT ▪ hire a hall ▪ a hired car hire out [phrasal verb] 1 hire out (something) or hire (something) out chiefly Brit : to allow someone to use (something) in exchange for money ▪ The hotel hires out [=rents out] boats to guests. 2 hire out or hire (yourself) out US, informal : to take a job : to work for wages or a salary ▪ She hired out as a cook. ▪ He's a teacher most of the year, but in the summer he hires himself out as a tour guide.

– hiring noun [noncount] ▪ Who's in charge of the hiring and firing of the office staff? ▪ the company's hiring practices

[2]hire noun, pl hires

1 [count] US, informal : someone who has been hired for a job ▪ The company has a few new hires.

2 [noncount] Brit : RENTAL ▪ The hire of a car and other equipment will of course incur a supplementary charge. ▪ a car-hire firm — often used before another noun ▪ a hire car [=a car that is or can be rented; a rental car] for hire 1 a : available to be used in exchange for money ▪ They have boats (available) for hire. [=for rent] b : available to do work in exchange for money ▪ Several people in the neighborhood responded to the "gardener for hire" signs she posted. 2 : in exchange for money ▪ He says he'll do farm work for hire.

on hire chiefly Brit : kept to be used by people in exchange for money ▪ The boats are on hire to the guests from the management.

hired gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] chiefly US

1 : a person who is paid to kill someone

2 : a person who is hired to do a specific job and especially one that some people consider to be morally wrong ▪ business executives and the hired guns they pay to polish their images hire•ling /ˈhajəlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] disapproving : a person who is paid for doing a job that is not respected or that is considered morally wrong ▪ She's one of the political hirelings who run the candidate's campaign.

hire purchase noun [noncount] Brit : INSTALLMENT PLAN ▪ They bought the furniture on hire purchase.

hir•sute /ˈhəˌsuːt, Brit ˈhɜːˌsjuːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + often humorous : having a lot of hair especially on the face or body : HAIRY ▪ his hirsute chest

[1]his /ˈhɪz, ɪz/ adj, always used before a noun, possessive form of HE

1 : relating to or belonging to a certain man, boy, or male animal ▪ He bought his own house. ▪ His house is out in the country. ▪ What is his name? ▪ He sat quietly at his desk. : made or done by a certain man, boy, or male animal ▪ I would like to read some of his essays. ▪ He was jailed for three years for his crime. ▪ It's his turn to play.

2 — used to refer to a person of either sex in general statements or when the sex of the person is unknown ▪ Each student should do his own work. [=each student should do his or her own work; all students should do their own work] ✧ This use of his was common in the past but is now often avoided because it is considered sexist.

[2]his /ˈhɪz/ pronoun

1 : that which belongs to or is connected with him : his one : his ones ▪ The book is his. [=the book belongs to him; it is his book] ▪ My eyes are blue and his are brown. ▪ The red car is mine; his is the green one. ▪ Are you a friend of his? [=are you his friend?] ▪ That face of his [=his face] is hard to forget.

2 Brit, informal : his home ▪ Let's go back to his [=his place] after the show.

His•pan•ic /hɪˈspænɪk/ adj : coming originally from an area where Spanish is spoken and especially from Latin America ▪ Hispanic people; also : of or relating to Hispanic people ▪ Hispanic culture

– Hispanic noun, pl -ics [count]

[1]hiss /ˈhɪs/ noun, pl hiss•es [count] : a sound like a long "s" ▪ The air escaped from the balloon with a hiss. ▪ the hiss of a snake ▪ the boos and hisses of the audience

[2]hiss verb hisses; hissed; hiss•ing

1 [no obj] : to produce a sound like a long "s" : to make a hiss ▪ The radiator hissed as it let off steam. ▪ a hissing noise

2 : to show that you dislike or disapprove of someone (such as a performer or speaker) by making a hiss [no obj] The audience booed and hissed (at him) when he came on stage. [+ obj] The audience hissed him off the stage.

3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a loud or angry whisper ▪ "Leave me alone!" he hissed.

hissy t /ˈhɪsi-/ noun, pl ~ ts [count] informal : an uncon-

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

trolled expression of strong emotion : FIT ▪ She threw/had a hissy fit [=she became very angry and upset] when I told her she couldn't go.

his•ta•mine /ˈhɪstəˌmiːn/ noun, pl -mines [count] medical : a chemical substance in the body that causes the symptoms that people experience when they are allergic to something — compare ANTIHISTAMINE his•to•ri•an /hɪˈstorijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who studies or writes about history ▪ a military historian

his•tor•ic /hɪˈstorɪk/ adj
1 a [more ~; most ~] : famous or important in history ▪ a/an historic event ▪ historic landmarks b [more ~; most ~] : having great and lasting importance ▪ It's wonderful to see so many people here on this historic occasion. ▪ She returned safely from her historic flight into space. ▪ The court made a historic decision last week. c : happening or existing in the past ▪ historic interest rates ▪ They know of many historic volcanic eruptions in the area. d : considered in comparison with the past ▪ Unemployment is at a historic low. [=an all-time low; the rate of unemployment is lower than it has ever been]
2 : of or relating to history or the past : HISTORICAL ▪ the historic importance of the river ▪ historic artifacts/relics

his•tor•i•cal /hɪˈstorɪkəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to history ▪ He strove for historical accuracy in the movie. ▪ historical research/facts ▪ a historical museum [=a museum that shows objects relating to the history of a place] ▪ a historical society [=a group of people who work to preserve the history of a place]
2 : based on history ▪ a/an historical novel [=a novel that tells a story about events and people in the past] ▪ historical fiction
3 : arranged in the order that things happened or came to be : CHRONOLOGICAL ▪ The kings are listed in historical order.
– his•tor•i•cal•ly /hɪˈstorɪkli/ adv ▪ The movie is not historically accurate. ▪ historically significant events ▪ Historically [=in the past], the school has had a strong sports program.

his•to•ry /ˈhɪstəri/ noun, pl -ries
1 [noncount] : the study of past events ▪ I studied history in college. ▪ a professor of medieval/American history — see also NATURAL HISTORY
2 [noncount] a : events of the past ▪ They were one of the greatest teams in history. ▪ the dawn of recorded history [=the beginning of the time when important events in the past were written down] ▪ These problems have occurred throughout (human) history. ▪ It was one of the most destructive storms in modern/recent history. ▪ It was a period in American history when most people lived and worked on farms. ▪ Her discoveries have earned her a place in history. [=she will be remembered in the future because of her discoveries] ▪ How will history judge the policies of the current administration? [=how will the policies be regarded in the future?] ▪ History has shown that such attempts have always failed. [=such attempts have always failed in the past] ▪ They believe that they will succeed because history is on their side. [=because other people have succeeded in the past in similar situations] ▪ You can't rewrite history. [=you can't change what has happened in the past] ▪ A talent scout spotted her behind the counter at a soda fountain and the rest is history. [=the rest of the story about her success is well-known] ▪ They won the championship last year. Will history repeat itself this year? [=will the same thing happen again?]
b : past events that relate to a particular subject, place, organization, etc. ▪ He gave us a tour of the building and told us about the company's history. [=about how the company began and how it has developed over time] ▪ The company has been successful throughout its history. [=throughout the entire time of its existence] ▪ Nothing like this has occurred before in the company's 20-year history. [=in the 20 years that the company has existed] ▪ There is quite a bit of history [=much has happened] in this old house. ▪ The history of space exploration is a fascinating topic. ▪ The school can trace its history back to the early 19th century. [=the school has existed since the early 19th century]
3 [count] : a written record of important events that have happened since the beginning of something ▪ He wrote a well-known history of the British empire. ▪ The book begins with a brief/short history of the Internet.
4 [count] : an established record of past events, actions, etc. — usually singular ▪ The patient has no (prior) history of heart problems. [=she has not had heart problems in the past] ▪ The prisoner has a history of violence. [=the prisoner has been violent in the past] ▪ a patient's medical history [=a record of past medical problems and treatments] ▪ a worker's employment history [=a record of jobs that a worker has had] ▪ It's hard to buy a car if you don't have any credit history. [=if you have not borrowed and repaid money in the past] ▪ They have a family history of heart disease. [=many people in their family have suffered from heart disease in the past]
5 [noncount] informal : someone or something that is finished ▪ Their winning streak was history. [=their winning streak was finished/over] ▪ His boss told him that if he was late one more time, he would be history. [=he would be fired] ancient history see ANCIENT go down in history : to be remembered as a very important person or event ▪ The discovery of the structure of DNA will go down in history.
make history : to do something that is very important or famous and that will be remembered as part of history ▪ They made history by discovering the structure of DNA.

his•tri•on•ic /ˌhɪstriˈɑːnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : too emotional or dramatic ▪ histrionic behavior/gestures
– his•tri•on•i•cal•ly /ˌhɪstriˈɑːnɪkli/ adv

his•tri•on•ics /ˌhɪstriˈɑːnɪks/ noun [plural] disapproving : behavior that is too emotional or dramatic : histrionic behavior ▪ a tennis player known for his histrionics on the court ▪ He told the story simply, without any histrionics.

[1]hit /ˈhɪt/ verb hits; hit; hit•ting
1 a : to move your hand, a bat, etc., quickly so that it touches someone or something in a forceful or violent way [+ obj] She told her son to stop hitting his sister. ▪ She hit him hard with her purse. ▪ He hit the fence with a stick. = He hit a stick against/on the fence. ▪ The boxers hit each other with their fists. [no obj] The boxers were hitting furiously at each other. b [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a ball) to move by hitting it forcefully with a bat, racket, etc. ▪ He hit a fastball (over the fence) for a home run. ▪ She hit the ball right to the shortstop. c : to touch (something or someone) in a forceful or violent way after moving at a high speed [+ obj] The ball hit the house. ▪ The plate shattered when it hit the floor. ▪ The tank was hit by enemy fire. ▪ He was hit by a car. ▪ The ship hit an iceberg. [no obj] The plate shattered when it hit. d [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something, such as part of your body) to touch something in a forceful or violent way ▪ I accidentally hit my head on/against the side of the door while I was getting into the car. ▪ She hit her elbow on the edge of the table.
2 a [+ obj] : to attack (something or someone) ▪ Our plan is to hit the enemy before they can hit us. b : to affect (something or someone) in a harmful or damaging way [+ obj] The ship was hit by a sudden storm. ▪ A powerful earthquake hit the city. ▪ Many families have been hit hard by the layoffs. = Many families have been hard hit by the layoffs. [=many families have been badly affected/hurt by the layoffs] ▪ If you really want to teach your son a lesson you should hit him where it hurts and take away his cell phone. [no obj] Many people were unprepared when the storm hit. ▪ The layoffs have hit hard here.
3 [+ obj] a : to come to (something) by chance or accident while you are moving ▪ We hit a west wind coming out of port. ▪ I was late because I hit a traffic jam on the way over. b : to begin to have or experience (problems, trouble, etc.) ▪ The project went smoothly at first, but then we started to hit [=encounter] some problems.
4 [+ obj] informal : to become suddenly or completely clear to (someone) : STRIKE ▪ It suddenly hit [=occurred to] me that I was doing something wrong. [=I suddenly realized that I was doing something wrong] ▪ The importance of the victory hasn't really hit her yet. ▪ I was just about to give up when the solution hit me. ▪ When you meet him, the first thing that hits you [=the first thing that you notice] is his air of confidence. ▪ The smell hit me [=I noticed the smell] as soon as I opened the door.
5 [+ obj] : to get or come to (a goal, level, etc.) : REACH ▪ He hit 100 mph on his motorcycle. ▪ They expect the temperature to hit 90 this afternoon. ▪ Sales hit $100 million last year alone. ▪ Gold prices hit an all-time high last week. ▪ a singer who can hit the high notes ▪ He kept digging until he hit [=struck] water. ▪ The stock market hit bottom. [=reached an extremely low point] ▪ (informal) Next year he'll hit the big four-oh/five-oh. [=turn 40/50 years of age]
6 [+ obj] informal : to arrive or appear at, in, or on (a place) ▪ We hit [=went to] the beach nearly every day this summer. ▪ They got up early and headed out to hit the (ski) slopes. [=to go skiing] ▪ The magazine's new issue hits newsstands tomorrow. [=the new issue becomes available on newsstands tomorrow] ▪ The new product should hit the shelves/market soon. = The new product should hit stores soon. [=the new product should be available in stores soon] ▪ These new illegal drugs only recently hit the street. [=became available for illegal purchase]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 53 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

7 [+ obj] informal a : to turn (something) on or off with a switch ▪ Could someone please hit the lights? b : to move (a switch) to an on or off position ▪ The lights came on when she hit the switch. c : to push down on (the brake pedal or accelerator in a vehicle) in a sudden and forceful way ▪ I had to hit the brakes hard to avoid an accident. ▪ She suddenly hit the accelerator and sped away. = (US) She suddenly hit the gas and sped away.

8 a : to succeed in hitting (something aimed at) with a shot, throw, etc. [+ obj] hit the bull's-eye ▪ hit the target — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her criticism really hit the mark. [=her criticism was very accurate] [no obj] The first shot hit but the second shot missed. b [+ obj] : to succeed in making (a shot) ▪ She hit [=made, sank] 40 percent of her shots last season. ▪ She hit her first basket but then missed the next one. c [+ obj] : to succeed in making a pass to (another player) ▪ The quarterback hit the wide receiver (with a pass) for a touchdown.

9 a [no obj] : to try to hit the ball with a bat in baseball, cricket, or a similar game ▪ It's your turn to hit. [=bat] b [+ obj] : to produce (a home run, a ground ball, etc.) by batting ▪ He hit 30 home runs last year. ▪ He hit a ground ball to the shortstop. ▪ She hit a double to left field. c [no obj] : to have a specified batting average ▪ This year he's hitting [=batting] .300. [=his batting average is .300] d : to hit the pitches thrown by (a pitcher) [+ obj] He has hit this pitcher well/poorly in the past. [no obj] He has hit well/poorly against this pitcher in the past.

10 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] informal : to deal another card to (a player in blackjack) ▪ Hit me. [=deal another card to me]

hit a nerve see NERVE hit a/the wall see [1]WALL

hit back [phrasal verb] : to attack or criticize someone who has attacked or criticized you ▪ If you hit me, I'll hit back. ▪ The team hit back with a touchdown of their own. — often + at ▪ The Senator hit back at his critics.

hit home see [2]HOME hit it informal — used to tell a group of musicians to begin playing ▪ Hit it, boys! [=let's begin playing music]

hit it big or hit big see BIG hit it off informal : to become friends : to get along well ▪ The two of them hit it off (with each other) immediately. ▪ Though we work together, we've never really hit it off.

hit on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 hit on (someone) US, informal : to talk to (someone) in order to try to start a sexual relationship ▪ She's always being/getting hit on at the gym. ▪ Some drunk at the bar was hitting on her. 2 hit on/upon (something) : to succeed in finding (something, such as a solution) ▪ She thought about the problem for days before she finally hit on a solution. ▪ He hit on a new way to do things. ▪ We hit upon the answer accidentally.

hit out at [phrasal verb] hit out at (someone) informal : to make an angry attack against (someone) ▪ The singer hit out at [=(more commonly) lashed out at] her critics.

hit someone for six see SIX hit the books see [1]BOOK hit the buffers see [1]BUFFER hit the deck or hit the dirt or hit the ground : to drop down to the ground or floor suddenly ▪ She hit the deck when the gunfire started.

hit the fan see [1]FAN

hit the ground running : to begin an effort or activity in a quick, energetic, and effective way ▪ The new administration hit the ground running after the inauguration.

hit the hay or hit the sack informal : to go to bed ▪ I'm tired. I'm going to hit the hay.

hit the jackpot see JACKPOT hit the nail on the head informal : to be exactly right ▪ He hit the nail on the head with that analysis.

hit the panic button see PANIC BUTTON

hit the road see ROAD

hit the roof or hit the ceiling informal : to become very angry or upset ▪ His parents really hit the roof when they found out he had flunked out of school.

hit the skids see [2]SKID

hit the spot see [1]SPOT hit the streets or US hit the pavement informal : to go out in search of something or for a specific purpose ▪ I grabbed the classifieds and hit the pavement, looking for a new job. ▪ The reporters hit the streets to interview passersby. — see also [1]HIT 6 (above)

hit the town see TOWN

hit the trail see [2]TRAIL hit up [phrasal verb] hit (someone) up or hit up (someone) US, informal : to ask (someone) for something (such as money) ▪ She's waiting for the right moment to hit up her father for a loan. [=to ask her father for a loan] ▪ I donated money to that charity a few months ago, and they're already hitting me up for more.

hit your stride see [2]STRIDE know what hit you see [1]KNOW

[2]hit noun, pl hits [count]

1 a : an act of hitting someone or something ▪ The player was penalized for an illegal hit from behind. ▪ The torpedo made a direct hit. b — used to describe being hit by something (such as a bullet, bomb, punch, etc.); usually used with take ▪ The bunker took a direct hit from the bombers. ▪ The plane took some hits, but the pilot was able to fly back to the base. — often used figuratively ▪ His pride took a hit. [=his pride was hurt] ▪ The company took a public relations hit when it lost the lawsuit. [=the company's public image was damaged when it lost the lawsuit] ▪ She took a big financial hit when the stock market fell. [=she lost a lot of money]

2 a : something that is very successful ▪ The show was a (smash/big) hit. ▪ The album is a collection of the group's greatest hits. [=the group's most popular and successful songs] — often used before another noun ▪ a hit record/song ▪ a hit movie — see also ONE-HIT WONDER b : someone or something that is liked by someone very much ▪ The pony ride was/made a big hit at the party. — usually + with ▪ The pony ride was a big hit with the kids at the party. [=the kids at the party enjoyed the pony ride very much]

3 : a successful effort to reach a desired goal or result ▪ His business ventures have been a mixture of hits and misses. [=some of his business ventures have been successful and some have failed]

4 baseball : BASE HIT ▪ He got/had two hits in last night's game.

5 computers a : an act of connecting to a particular Web site ▪ The site had/got over a million hits last month. [=people connected to the site more than a million times last month] b : a successful attempt to find something in a search of a computer database or the Internet ▪ A search for his name in the newspaper's database produced/found more than 30 hits.

6 informal : a single dose of an illegal drug ▪ Can I get a hit? ▪ He took a hit of LSD.

7 informal : a planned murder done by a paid killer ▪ an attempted hit on the gang's leader — see also HIT MAN

– hit•less /ˈhɪtləs/ adj ▪ a hitless musical group [=a musical group that has not had any hit songs] ▪ She has gone/been hitless [=has not had any base hits] in her last three games. ▪ He pitched six hitless innings. [=six innings in which no batter got a base hit]

hit–and–miss /ˌhɪtn̩ˈmɪs/ adj : sometimes successful and sometimes not : not always good or successful ▪ The company has relied on a hit-and-miss [=hit-or-miss] approach to developing new products.

[1]hit–and–run /ˌhɪtn̩ˈrʌn/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : involving a driver who does not stop after causing an accident ▪ a hit-and-run accident ▪ Police are looking for an unidentified hit-and-run driver.

2 : involving quick action by someone who then leaves or runs away quickly ▪ hit-and-run raids along the border

[2]hit–and–run noun, pl -runs [count] baseball

: a play in which a base runner begins running as soon as a pitch is thrown and the batter tries to hit the pitch — often used before another noun ▪ a hit-and-run play

[1]hitch /ˈhɪʧ/ verb hitch•es; hitched; hitch•ing

1 [+ obj] : to attach, fasten, or connect (something) with a hook, knot, etc. ▪ hitch a trailer to a car ▪ He hitched his horse to a post outside the saloon. = He tied his horse to a hitching post outside the saloon.

2 informal : HITCHHIKE [no obj] He hitched across the country last summer. [+ obj] He hitched his way across the country last summer.

get hitched informal : to get married ▪ He's getting hitched to his college sweetheart.

hitch a ride or chiefly Brit hitch a lift informal : to get a ride

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

in a passing vehicle ▪ Her car broke down, so she had to hitch a ride/lift with a passing truck.

hitch up [phrasal verb] hitch (something) up or hitch up (something) : to pull (a piece of clothing) up with a quick movement ▪ She hitched her skirt up above her knees.

hitch your wagon to (someone or something) see WAGON

[2]hitch noun, pl hitches [count]

1 : a hidden problem that makes something more complicated or difficult to do ▪ It sounded like a good plan, but there was just one hitch. [=catch] ▪ The plan went off without a hitch.

2 : a device that is used to connect one thing (such as a plow or trailer) to another (such as a tractor, car, or animal) ▪ a trailer hitch

3 US, informal : a period of service in the military, at a job, etc. ▪ He went back to college after doing his hitch in the army. ▪ a seven-year hitch at the newspaper

4 : a type of simple knot that is used to hold or fasten something for a short time hitch•hike /ˈhɪʧˌhaɪk/ verb -hikes; -hiked; -hik•ing : to get a ride in a passing vehicle by holding out your arm with your thumb up as you stand on the side of the road [no obj] Her car broke down, so she had to hitchhike back home. [+ obj] He hitchhiked his way across the country last summer.

– hitch•hik•er noun, pl -ers [count]

hi–tech variant spelling of HIGH TECH

hith•er /ˈhɪðɚ/ adv, old-fashioned + literary : to this place ▪ come hither [=come here] ▪ She has been very busy, traveling hither and yon. [=here and there; traveling to many different places] ▪ traveling/wandering hither and thither [=here and there] — see also COME-HITHER

hith•er•to /ˈhɪðɚˌtuː/ adv, formal : until now : before this time ▪ The biography reveals some hitherto [=formerly, previously] unknown facts about his early life.

hit list noun, pl ~ lists [count] : a list of people, organizations, etc., that a person or group plans to oppose or eliminate ▪ the gunman's hit list ▪ Excess spending is at the top of the governor's hit list. [=it is the first thing the governor plans to eliminate] hit man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a person who is paid to kill someone ▪ She hired a hit man to kill her ex-husband. ▪ Mafia hit men

hit–or–miss /ˌhɪtəˈmɪs/ adj : not carefully planned or directed ▪ a hit-or-miss [=hit-and-miss] method of finding answers ▪ a hit-or-miss procedure/proposition hit•ter /ˈhɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who hits someone or something; especially, baseball : a player who is trying to hit the ball ▪ The pitcher walked the first hitter. [=batter] ▪ He's a good fielder but a poor hitter. — see also DESIGNATED HITTER, HEAVY HITTER, PINCH HITTER

HIV /ˌeɪʧˌaɪˈviː/ noun [noncount] medicine : a virus that causes AIDS ▪ The patient is HIV positive/negative. ✧ HIV is an abbreviation of "human immunodeficiency virus."

[1]hive /haɪv/ noun, pl hives [count]

1 a : a nest for bees — called also beehive b : the bees living in a hive

2 : a place filled with busy activity ▪ The house was a hive of activity as we prepared for the party.

[2]hive verb hives; hived; hiv•ing

hive off [phrasal verb] chiefly Brit 1 a : to separate from a group ▪ The youngest campers hived off into another room. b *hive off (someone or something) or hive (someone or something) off : to separate (someone or something) from a group ▪ They hived off the youngest campers into another room. 2 *hive off (something) or hive (something) off : to give control of (something) to another person or group ▪ The new owners hived off the best parts of the company to another part of their corporate empire.

hives /haɪvz/ noun [noncount] medicine : a condition in which an area of your skin becomes red and itchy ▪ I broke out in hives after being stung by the bee.

hi•ya /ˈhajə/ interj, informal : HI ▪ "Hiya, sweetheart."

HM abbr Her Majesty, Her Majesty's, His Majesty, His Majesty's

hmm also hm /ˈm, ˈhm/ interj — used to represent a sound made by someone who is thinking about what to say or do ▪ I thought to myself, hmm, what's the best way to take advantage of this opportunity?

HMO /ˌeɪʧˌɛmˈoʊ/ noun, pl HMOs [count] US : an organization that provides health care to people who make regular payments to it and who agree to use the doctors, hospitals, etc., that belong to the organization ✧ HMO is an abbreviation of "health maintenance organization." — compare PPO

HMS abbr Her Majesty's ship; His Majesty's ship

[1]ho /hoʊ/ interj

1 — used to attract attention ▪ "Land ho!" [=I see land]

2 ho ho or ho ho ho — used to represent laughter ▪ Ho ho ho! Merry Christmas! — often used in an ironic way ▪ Ho ho. That's very funny. [=that's not really funny at all]

[2]ho noun, pl hos or hoes also ho's [count] US slang, offensive : WHORE hoa•gie /ˈhoʊgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] US : SUBMARINE SANDWICH ▪ She had a meatball hoagie for lunch.

[1]hoard /hoɚd/ noun, pl hoards [count] : a large amount of something valuable that is kept hidden ▪ a hoard of jewels ▪ a squirrel's hoard of nuts

> Do not confuse hoard with horde.

[2]hoard verb hoards; hoard•ed; hoard•ing [+ obj] : to collect and hide a large amount of (something valuable) ▪ hoarding money/food

– hoard•er noun, pl -ers [count]

hoarding /ˈhoɚdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] Brit : BILLBOARD

hoarse /ˈhoɚs/ adj hoars•er; -est : having a harsh or rough sound or voice ▪ She could only speak in a hoarse whisper. ▪ The cold made me a little hoarse. — see also shout yourself hoarse at [1]SHOUT

– hoarse•ly adv – hoarse•ness noun [noncount]

hoary /ˈhori/ adj hoar•i•er; -est

1 a : very old ▪ hoary [=ancient] legends ▪ a hoary tale of revenge b : not interesting, funny, etc., because of being used too often : not fresh or original ▪ a hoary cliché/joke

2 literary : having gray or white hair ▪ He bowed his hoary head. ▪ a man hoary with age

[1]hoax /hoʊks/ noun, pl hoax•es [count] : an act that is meant to trick or deceive people ▪ The bomb threat is probably a hoax, but we should still evacuate the building. ▪ She was the victim of a cruel hoax.

[2]hoax verb hoaxes; hoaxed; hoax•ing [+ obj] : to trick or deceive (someone) — usually used as (be) hoaxed ▪ People were hoaxed by the Web site.

– hoax•er noun, pl -ers [count]

hob /hɑːb/ noun, pl hobs [count] Brit : COOKTOP

hob•ble /ˈhɑːbəl/ verb hob•bles; hob•bled; hob•bling

1 [no obj] : to walk with difficulty because of injury or weakness ▪ She picked up her cane and hobbled across the room.

2 [+ obj] : to slow the movement, progress, or action of (someone or something) ▪ Critics say that his policies will hobble [=hamper] economic growth. ▪ She is sometimes hobbled by self-doubt. ▪ He has been hobbled by a knee injury.

3 [+ obj] : to keep (an animal) from straying or wandering by tying two legs together ▪ hobble a horse hob•by /ˈhɑːbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] : an activity that a person does for pleasure when not working ▪ She collects stamps as a hobby. ▪ He has many hobbies, including photography and gardening.

– hob•by•ist /ˈhɑːbijɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ The camera is perfect for professionals as well as hobbyists.

hob•by•horse /ˈhɑːbiˌhoɚs/ noun, pl -hors•es [count]

1 : a subject that someone speaks about or complains about often ▪ Once he gets on his hobbyhorse and starts talking about taxes, you can't get him to discuss anything else. ▪ She's been riding that hobbyhorse for months.

2 : a stick with a horse's head at one end that a child pretends to ride hob•gob•lin /ˈhɑːbˌgɑːblən/ noun, pl -lins [count]

1 : an ugly or evil creature that plays tricks in children's stories

2 : something that causes fear or worry ▪ intimidated by the hobgoblins of etiquette

hob•nail boot /ˈhɑːbˌneɪl-/ or hob•nailed boot /ˈhɑːbˌneɪld-/ noun, pl ~ boots [count] : a heavy boot with short nails driven into the bottom to protect against wear hob•nob /ˈhɑːbˌnɑːb/ verb -nobs; -nobbed; -nob•bing [no obj] : to spend time with someone (such as a famous or wealthy person) in a friendly way ▪ He loves to hobnob with celebrities.

ho•bo /ˈhoʊboʊ/ noun, pl -boes also -bos [count] US : a person who has no place to live and no money and who travels to many different places ▪ an old hobo [=tramp] riding on a freight train

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 55 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

Hob•son's choice /ˈhɑːbsənz-/ noun, pl ~ choices [count] : a situation in which you are supposed to make a choice but do not have a real choice because there is only one thing you can have or do ▪ He jokingly referred to dinner as a Hobson's choice between soup and salad or salad and soup.

[1]hock /ˈhɑːk/ noun, pl hocks [count]
1 : a small piece of meat from the leg of a pig ▪ ham hocks
2 : the part of the rear leg of a four-footed animal (such as a horse) that is like the human ankle — see picture at HORSE
– compare [2]HOCK, [4]HOCK

[2]hock noun [noncount] informal
1 : the state of being in the possession of a pawnbroker ✧ An item that is in hock has been exchanged for money in an arrangement with a pawnbroker. If the money is returned, the item will be returned, or else the pawnbroker may sell it to someone else. When the item is returned it is out of hock. ▪ His gold watch is in hock. ▪ She got her earrings out of hock.
2 : the state of owing money to someone or something : DEBT ▪ He is in hock to his boss for several thousand dollars. [=he owes his boss several thousand dollars] ▪ She had to go into hock to pay for her college tuition. ▪ He's trying to get out of hock.
– compare [1]HOCK, [4]HOCK

[3]hock verb hocks; hocked; hock•ing [+ obj] : to give (something that you own) to a pawnbroker in exchange for money : to put (something) in hock ▪ He hocked [=pawned] his gold watch to help pay for his medical bills.

[4]hock noun, pl hocks [count, noncount] Brit : a type of German white wine — compare [1]HOCK, [2]HOCK

hock•ey /ˈhɑːki/ noun [noncount]
1 chiefly US : ICE HOCKEY
2 chiefly Brit : FIELD HOCKEY

hockey skate noun, pl ~ skates [count] : a special skate used for ice hockey — see picture at SKATE ho•cus–po•cus /ˌhoʊkəsˈpoʊkəs/ noun [noncount] : language or activity that is meant to trick or confuse people ▪ He misled voters with his political hocus-pocus.

hodge•podge /ˈhɑːʤiˌpɑːʤ/ noun [singular] chiefly US : a mixture of different things ▪ a hodgepodge of styles — called also (Brit) hotchpotch

[1]hoe /ˈhoʊ/ noun, pl hoes [count] : a garden tool that has a flat blade on a long handle — see picture at GARDENING

[2]hoe verb hoes; hoed; hoe•ing : to work on (something, such as a garden or a crop) with a hoe [+ obj] The garden has to be hoed. [no obj] She was hoeing in the garden all day.

hoe•down /ˈhoʊˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] US : an informal country party where people do square dances

[1]hog /ˈhɑːg/ noun, pl hogs also hog [count]
1 a chiefly US : a pig ▪ a hog farmer b Brit : a male pig that has had its sex organs removed and that is raised for meat
2 informal a : a selfish or greedy person ▪ Don't be such a hog! Other people have to eat too! — see also ROAD HOG b : something that takes or uses a large amount or too much of something ▪ This car is a gas hog. [=it uses a lot of gasoline] ▪ The new software is a real memory hog.
go hog wild US, informal : to do something in an extreme or excessive way : to go wild ▪ They went hog wild with special effects in this movie.
go (the) whole hog informal : to do something in a very thorough and complete way ▪ If we're going to have a party, we might as well go the whole hog and hire a band.
high off/on the hog see [2]HIGH

[2]hog verb hogs; hogged; hog•ging [+ obj] informal : to take, keep, or use (something) in a way that prevents other people or things from having or using it ▪ He's been hogging the remote control all night. ▪ Stop hogging the road. [=stop driving in a way that does not allow room for other cars to pass] ▪ I hate when she hogs the bathroom. [=she stays in the bathroom for a long time when other people want to use it] hog heaven noun [noncount] US, informal : a very pleasing or satisfying state or situation ▪ We had plenty of food, good wine, and beautiful weather. We were in hog heaven.

hog•wash /ˈhɑːgˌwɑːʃ/ noun [noncount] informal : foolish or meaningless talk : NONSENSE ▪ You wouldn't believe the hogwash he was spouting at us. ▪ His argument is hogwash.

ho hum /ˈhoʊˈhʌm/ interj — used to show that you are bored, not interested, etc. ▪ As another election campaign gets started, most voters seem to be saying, "Ho hum, here we go again."

ho–hum /ˈhoʊˈhʌm/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : having or showing no excitement or enthusiasm ▪ He's been leading a very ho-hum [=dull, boring] existence. ▪ I don't see how you could be so ho-hum [=indifferent] about this movie.

hoick /ˈhoɪk/ verb hoicks; hoicked; hoick•ing [+ obj] Brit, informal : to lift or pull (something) with a quick movement : YANK ▪ He hoicked up his trousers and waded in.

hoi pol•loi /ˌhoɪpəˈloɪ/ noun [plural] : ordinary people : people who are not rich, famous, etc. — usually used with the ▪ aristocrats who treated the hoi polloi with contempt

[1]hoist /ˈhoɪst/ verb hoists; hoist•ed; hoist•ing [+ obj]
1 : to raise (something) especially by using ropes or machinery ▪ hoist the sail/flag ▪ The steel girders were hoisted into place and securely welded. ▪ The engine was hoisted out with a winch. ▪ The cargo was hoisted up onto the ship.
2 chiefly US, informal : [1]DRINK ▪ He stopped at a bar after work to hoist a few beers with his friends.
3 basketball, informal : to take (a shot) ▪ She hoisted a last-second shot that would have won the game if it had gone in.
hoist by/on/with your own petard see PETARD

[2]hoist noun, pl hoists [count] : a machine used for lifting heavy loads

hoi•ty–toi•ty /ˌhoɪtiˈtoɪti/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : having or showing the insulting attitude of people who think that they are better, smarter, or more important than other people ▪ a bunch of hoity-toity snobs

hok•ey /ˈhoʊki/ adj hok•i•er; -est US, informal + disapproving
1 : obviously fake : PHONY ▪ She gave us some hokey excuse for being late.
2 : very silly, old-fashioned, or sentimental : CORNY ▪ a hokey melodrama ho•kum /ˈhoʊkəm/ noun [noncount] informal 1 chiefly US : foolish or untrue words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ Everyone knows his story is pure hokum.

2 : writing, music, etc., that is too dramatic or sentimental and not very original ▪ His new film is yet another piece of Hollywood hokum.

[1]hold /ˈhoʊld/ verb holds; held /ˈhɛld/; hold•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to have or keep (something) in your hand, arms, etc. ▪ Hold the rail so you won't fall. ▪ He was holding his hat (in his hand). ▪ He was holding a large package in his arms. ▪ Would you hold this for me? ▪ She showed him the correct way to hold the racket. ▪ She held his hand. = She held him by the hand. b : to put your arms around (someone) : to embrace or hug (someone) ▪ Some people just don't like to be held. ▪ He held her close/tight and kissed her.
2 a [+ obj] : to put or keep (something or someone) in a specified place or position ▪ He held the pen in his mouth while he dialed the number. ▪ Hold the pen upright when you write. ▪ She picked up the trophy and held it over her head. ▪ You have to hold the button down for several seconds. ▪ I held the door open for her. ▪ Hold your arms at your sides. b [+ obj] : to keep (something or someone) in the same place or position ▪ I need someone to hold this string while I finish tying the knot. ▪ She held the ladder steady while he climbed up it. ▪ It took six guards to hold him (down). ▪ The board was held in place/position by a couple of nails. ▪ The Federal Reserve has been holding interest rates down/up. ▪ The cover was held on by a piece of tape. c [no obj] : to remain in the same place or position ▪ The anchor held. ▪ The line of soldiers held under constant attack. ▪ Please hold still for a moment. ▪ His weight has held steady for several months now.
3 [no obj] : to continue to be good ▪ We arrived late but our luck held and we were able to get tickets. ▪ We hope the weather holds through the weekend.
4 [+ obj] a : to own or possess (something) ▪ The bank holds (the) title to the car. ▪ Do you hold any shares/stock in the company? b : to have or keep (a job, a position, etc.) ▪ She has never before held public office. ▪ It's been a struggle for him to hold a job. ▪ In the last election the Democratic party managed to hold several seats but lost others. ▪ President Franklin Roosevelt held office for 12 years. = Franklin Roosevelt held the office of president for 12 years. c : to succeed in keeping (something that is being attacked) ▪ The troops were able to hold the bridge. ▪ The line of soldiers held their position/ground and fought off the attack. d : to have (something that you have achieved or earned) ▪ She holds a master's degree in chemistry. ▪ a swimmer who holds several world records
5 [+ obj] : to support the pressure or weight of (something or someone) ▪ The floor will hold 10 tons. ▪ I don't know if the roof can hold all that snow.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

6 [+ obj] a : to have or keep (a belief, a feeling, etc.) in your mind ▪ There's no need for him to hold [=bear] a grudge against me. ▪ I don't hold any resentment toward/against him. ▪ a belief held by many = a widely held belief ▪ I will always hold that memory in my heart. b somewhat formal : to consider or judge (someone or something) in a specified way ▪ They hold me responsible. — often + for ▪ He should be held accountable for his actions. ▪ The store can't be held liable for damage to your vehicle. — often followed by to + verb ▪ The court held his actions to be grounds for a lawsuit. [=the court said/ruled that his actions were grounds for a lawsuit] ▪ His latest book is generally/widely held [=considered] to be the best one. ▪ "We hold these truths to be self-evident . . . " —U.S. Declaration of Independence (1776) c not used in progressive tenses, somewhat formal : to have or express (an opinion, belief, etc.) — + that ▪ I hold [=believe] that such problems should be dealt with at the federal level. ▪ The Supreme Court held [=ruled] that the trial court had acted properly. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Tradition holds that [=it is traditional that] the oldest member of the family be seated first.

7 [+ obj] : to cause (a meeting, class, sale, etc.) to take place ▪ A sale will be held next weekend. ▪ Free elections will be held next month. ▪ We will hold [=have] the meeting at 2 o'clock. ▪ The President has decided to hold [=give] a press conference. ▪ They're holding an art show at the gallery. ▪ The two sides will hold [=have] talks/discussions to resolve the dispute.

8 [+ obj] a : to contain (something) ▪ The box holds his collection of old photographs. b not used in progressive tenses : to have enough room for (an amount) ▪ The disk can hold 1.44 megabytes of data. ▪ How much water can that bucket hold? ▪ The bottle holds two liters. ▪ The dining room holds 500 people.

9 [+ obj] : to continue to have (someone's interest or attention) ▪ The speaker wasn't able to hold [=keep] our interest/attention for long.

10 [+ obj] : to have (a specified quality, feature, etc.) ▪ His eyes held [=had] a quizzical look. ▪ She has always held a special place in my heart. [=I have always had special feelings for her] ▪ This hotel has long held [=claimed] a place among the world's finest. [=has long been considered one of the world's finest] — often + for ▪ Music holds great appeal for many people. [=music appeals greatly to many people] ▪ His job holds no surprises for him. [=nothing about his job surprises him] ▪ Her paintings hold a real fascination for me. [=her paintings fascinate me] ▪ No one can know what the future holds (for us). [=no one can know what will happen (to us) in the future] ▪ These experiments hold great promise for future cancer research.

11 [+ obj] : to stop doing (something) or wait to do (something) ▪ Tell the men to hold their fire [=not shoot] until I give the order. ▪ Hold everything. [=wait; stop] We're not doing this right. ▪ Hold it right there. [=stop right there] Where do you think you're going?

12 [+ obj] a : to keep (something) available for later use ▪ A room at the hotel will be held for us for 24 hours. ▪ We will hold these flight reservations for you until tomorrow. b : to delay the handling of (something, such as a telephone call) for a time ▪ Please hold all my calls while I'm in the meeting.

13 [+ obj] : to prevent (something, such as a vehicle) from leaving ▪ The train was held until the track was cleared. ▪ Would you hold the elevator for me? ▪ Hold that taxi!

14 [+ obj] chiefly US : to not use or include (something) in preparing food ▪ I'd like a roast beef sandwich on rye, and hold the mustard please. [=do not put any mustard on the sandwich]

15 [+ obj] : to force (someone) to stay in a place (such as a prison) ▪ The police are holding him for questioning. ▪ Terrorists are holding the passengers hostage. ▪ They're being held hostage/captive/prisoner. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was held captive by his own fears.

16 [+ obj] : to continue moving on (a course) without change ▪ The ship continued to hold its course.

17 [+ obj] of a vehicle : to stay on (a road) in a safe and secure way when being driven at high speeds ▪ The car holds the road well when turning quickly.

18 [no obj] : to be true : to remain valid ▪ Her advice still holds [=applies] today. ▪ The general rule holds in most cases. — often used in the phrases hold true and (less commonly) hold good ▪ The general rule holds true in most cases. ▪ Their son needs support and understanding. The same holds true for all children. ▪ The advice she gave us 10 years ago still holds good today.

19 : to wait to speak to someone on the telephone [no obj] All operators are currently busy. Please hold. [+ obj] All operators are busy. Please hold the line for a minute.

hold a candle to see CANDLE hold against [phrasal verb] hold (something) against (someone) : to use (something) as a reason to have a bad opinion of (someone) ▪ He lied to her once, and she still holds it against him. ▪ Nobody is going to hold it against you if you don't come. [=no one is going to be angry or upset with you if you don't come]

hold a gun to someone's head see [1]GUN hold all the aces see [1]ACE

hold (all/all of) the cards see [1]CARD

hold back [phrasal verb] 1 a : to stop yourself from doing something ▪ She wanted to introduce herself to him but she held back out of shyness. b : to make a less than complete effort ▪ She could have beaten him in the race, but she held back and let him win. [=she did not run as fast as she could have so that he would win] c *hold (someone) back : to stop (someone) from doing something ▪ Once he starts talking, there's no holding him back. [=it's very hard to get him to stop talking] 2 *hold (something) back or hold back (something) a : to not allow (something) to be seen or known by someone ▪ He was unable to hold back his tears. [=to keep from crying] ▪ The government held back [=withheld] some crucial information from the media. ▪ I know you're angry, so don't hold anything back (from me). [=tell me everything] b : to keep (something) ▪ He held several thousand dollars back in case of an emergency. c : to delay (something) ▪ The company held back the first shipment of the new product until it was completely ready. 3 *hold (someone or something) back or hold back (someone or something) : to stop (someone or something) from moving forward : to stop (someone or something) from advancing to the next level, grade, or stage ▪ She might have been more successful, but bad health held her back. ▪ He was held back [=kept back] in first grade.

hold court see [1]COURT

hold down [phrasal verb] 1 *hold (something) down or hold down (something) a : to stop (something) from being or becoming too high ▪ Could you please hold the noise down? I'm trying to read. ▪ The company is trying to hold down costs/expenses/prices. b : to continue to have (a job) ▪ It's been a struggle for him to hold down [=keep] a job. 2 *hold (someone) down or hold down (someone) : to stop (someone) from doing something or advancing to a higher level, position, etc. ▪ We need to free ourselves of the unfair restrictions that are holding us down.

hold firm : to refuse to change what you have been doing or believing ▪ They are holding firm on their refusal to proceed. ▪ Despite opposition, she has held firm to her decision.

hold forth [phrasal verb] formal : to speak about something for a long time ▪ He held forth about/on the need for reform in his country.

hold hands or hold someone's hand see [1]HAND hold in [phrasal verb] hold (something) in or hold in (something) : to stop (an emotion) from being expressed ▪ Don't hold your feelings in. Let them out.

hold off [phrasal verb] 1 a : to wait to do something ▪ You need to decide now. You can't hold off any longer. ▪ He held off as long as he could. — often + on ▪ She decided to hold off on her vacation for a while longer. ✧ If you hold off doing something or hold off on doing something, you wait to do it at a later time. ▪ He held off on announcing his decision. b : to not happen until later ▪ The rain held off until we got home. [=it didn't rain until we got home] 2 *hold (someone) off or hold off (someone) : to stop (someone) from coming near someone or something ▪ Her bodyguard held off the crowd. [=kept the crowd away from her] 3 *hold (something) off or hold off (something) : to defend against (something) successfully : WITHSTAND ▪ The soldiers held off the attack. ▪ Our team held off a late rally by the other team.

hold on [phrasal verb] 1 : to have or keep your hand, arms, etc., tightly around something ▪ He was holding on [=hanging on] for dear life. ▪ Hold on (tight). It's going to get bumpy. ▪ The steps are slippery; you'd better hold on to the railing. 2 : to succeed in keeping a position, condition, etc. ▪ I hope we can hold on until help arrives. ▪ They were able to hold on for a 10–9 victory. 3 : to wait or stop briefly ▪ "Can we go now?" "Hold on, I'll be ready in just a minute." 4 hold on to (something) : to keep possession of (something) ▪ She's trying very hard to hold on to her money. ▪ He has managed to hold on to his lead in the polls. : to not lose or give up (something) ▪ Despite all his troubles, he has somehow held on to his faith in himself.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

hold out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to continue to exist or be available ▪ I don't know how much longer our supply of food will hold out. [=last] ▪ You should do it while your courage is still holding out. ▪ I'm going to keep writing as long as my money holds out. b : to continue to work ▪ My old car is still holding out. 2 : to continue to oppose someone or defend against something : to refuse to surrender or give in ▪ The troops were able to hold out until help arrived. ▪ Many of the strikers are still holding out. — see also HOLDOUT 3 hold out (something) or hold (something) out a : to reach outward with (something, such as your hand) ▪ He held out [=extended] his hand in greeting. ▪ She held out the car keys and asked him to drive. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I held out the hand of friendship to my enemies. [=I offered friendship to my enemies] b : to say that there is a good reason to have (something, such as hope) ▪ The doctor didn't hold out [=offer] much hope for her recovery. [=the doctor didn't say that there was much hope for her recovery] c : to say that (a possibility) exists ▪ The mayor has held out the possibility that the library will be expanded in the future. [=has said that it is possible that the library will be expanded] 4 hold out for (something) : to refuse to accept or agree to something in order to get (something) ▪ The workers are holding out for higher pay. ▪ The wide receiver is holding out for a new contract. 5 hold out on (someone) informal : to keep something (such as information) from (someone) ▪ She didn't tell me she was rich; she's been holding out on me.

hold over [phrasal verb] 1 hold over (something) or hold (something) over a : to cause (something) to happen later ▪ A vote on the proposal has been held over [=delayed, postponed] until tomorrow. b US : to cause (something) to continue beyond a normal or planned time ▪ The movie is being held over for two more weeks. [=the movie will continue to be shown for two more weeks] 2 hold (something or someone) over or hold over (something or someone) : to keep (something or someone) from an earlier time ▪ He is the only player to have been held over from their previous team. — see also HOLDOVER 3 hold (something) over (someone) : to use your knowledge of (something) to influence or control the behavior of (someone) ▪ She knows about his criminal past and has been holding it over him [=she has been threatening to tell other people about his criminal past] to force him to cooperate.

hold the bag (US) or Brit hold the baby informal : to be given all of the blame or responsibility that should be shared with others ▪ His friends ran away and he was stuck/left holding the bag.

hold the fort see FORT

hold the line see [1]LINE

hold to [phrasal verb] 1 a hold to (something) : to continue to have or follow (a plan, purpose, etc.) ▪ He has held to his plan of exercising regularly. : to not change (a decision, belief, etc.) ▪ Despite opposition, she has held to her decision. b hold (someone) to (something) : to force (someone) to do what is required by (something, such as a promise) ▪ You made a promise and I'm going to hold you to it. ▪ He was held to an impossible standard. [=he was required to meet very high expectations] 2 hold (someone) to (something) : to prevent (an opponent) from having or getting more than (a specified number of scores or shots) ▪ Our team held the other team to just three runs. ▪ The defense held him to only one shot attempt in the first half.

hold together [phrasal verb] 1 : to stay joined together or in one piece ▪ The empire held together for many decades. 2 hold (something) together or hold together (something) : to cause (something) to stay joined together or in one piece ▪ The coach hopes to hold the team together for at least one more season. ▪ The box was held together by a strong glue.

hold up [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue in the same condition without failing or losing effectiveness or force ▪ The sales team was holding up well under the stress. ▪ The nurse came in to see how I was holding up. ▪ Their music still holds up 20 years later. 2 hold (something) up or hold up (something) : to raise (something) ▪ He held up his hand. 3 hold up (something or someone) or hold (something or someone) up a : to delay, stop, or slow the movement, progress, or action of (something or someone) : DELAY ▪ Their decision was held up for months. ▪ A major accident held traffic up for hours. ▪ She was late for the meeting because she got held up in traffic. — see also HOLDUP b : to use a gun to rob (a person, store, etc.) ▪ Someone held up the gas station. ▪ He was held up by a masked robber. — see also HOLDUP c : to cause (someone or something) to be noticed for a particular reason ▪ His work has been held up to ridicule. [=his work has been ridiculed] ▪ Experts have been holding these programs up as examples of government waste.

hold water see [1]WATER

hold with [phrasal verb] hold with (something) : to agree with or approve of (something) — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't hold with all these newfangled notions!

hold your breath see BREATH

hold your ground see [1]GROUND hold your horses see [1]HORSE

hold your liquor see LIQUOR hold your nose see [1]NOSE

hold your own : to do well in a difficult situation ▪ It was a tough interview, but she managed to hold her own. ▪ She's been holding her own against cancer.

hold your tongue also hold your peace : to keep silent : to not say anything about something ▪ It was difficult, but he somehow managed to hold his tongue.

[2]hold noun, pl holds

1 : the act of holding or gripping something [count] — usually singular ▪ He had/kept a tight hold on the rope. ▪ He loosened/tightened his hold on the handle. [noncount] He took hold of the rope. [=he took the rope and held it] ▪ She grabbed hold of his arm. [=she grabbed his arm] — often used figuratively ▪ The idea of being an actress first took/grabbed hold of her when she was in college. [=she first became excited by the idea when she was in college] ▪ Jealousy took hold of him. [=he began to feel very jealous]

2 [count] : a way of holding your opponent in wrestling ▪ The wrestler applied an illegal hold. — see also CHOKE HOLD, STRANGLEHOLD

3 [singular] a : power that is used to control something or someone [noncount] His ideas have lost their hold on/over the public. [=the public is no longer interested in his ideas] ▪ The law has no hold over her. ▪ He is trying to tighten his hold on the company's finances. [=to gain greater control of the company's finances] ▪ He has a hold on her. [=he has power over her; he controls her] b : an understanding of something — usually + on ▪ It's hard to get a hold on the cause of these problems.

4 [count] : something that can be held or stepped on for support while you are climbing ▪ She searched for holds in the rock. — see also FOOTHOLD, HANDHOLD, TOEHOLD

5 [singular] : an order that something is to be kept for a particular person or time ▪ I asked the library to put a hold on the book for me. [=to hold the book for me]

6 [count] : an area on a ship or airplane where cargo is stored

cop hold of see [2]COP

get hold of or chiefly US get a hold of 1 : to get possession of (something) : to succeed in getting (something) ▪ Somehow she managed to get hold of the band's new album before it came out. ▪ Where did you get hold of that idea? [=what led you to believe that idea?] 2 : to find and talk to (someone) : to contact (someone) ▪ I need to talk to my lawyer, but I haven't been able to get hold of him. ▪ I've been trying to get a hold of [=get in touch with] my lawyer for days. 3 get hold of yourself or chiefly US get a hold of yourself : to get control of your thoughts and emotions and stop behaving in a foolish or uncontrolled way ▪ Get a hold of yourself and tell me what happened.

lay hold of 1 : to take and hold (something) : GRAB ▪ Lay hold of that rope and pull. 2 : to understand (something) ▪ The idea is difficult to lay hold of.

no holds barred ✧ If there are no holds barred, there are no limits or rules for what can and cannot be done in a particular situation. — see also NO-HOLDS-BARRED on hold 1 : in the state of waiting to speak to someone on the telephone ▪ The person I wanted to speak to wasn't available, so the operator put my call on hold. ▪ They kept me on hold for hours! 2 : in the state of being delayed for a time ▪ Our vacation plans are on hold. = Our vacation plans have been put on hold.

take hold or chiefly US take a hold : to become effective,

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

established, or popular ▪ The change in the law has not yet taken hold. ▪ new ideas that have recently taken hold in the fashion industry

hold•all /ˈhoʊldˌɑːl/ noun, pl -alls [count] chiefly Brit : CARRYALL hold•er /ˈhoʊldɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who holds or owns something ▪ She is the holder of an honorary degree. ▪ the holder of a world record ▪ the ticket holder — see also CARDHOLDER, OFFICEHOLDER, RECORD HOLDER, SHAREHOLDER, STOCKHOLDER
2 : a device that holds something ▪ a cigarette/cup holder

[1]hold•ing /ˈhoʊldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : property (such as land or stocks) that is owned by someone — usually plural ▪ She has been selling many of her holdings in the stock market.
2 [noncount] sports : the illegal act of using your hands or arms to slow or stop the movement of an opponent in sports like ice hockey and American football ▪ penalized 10 yards for holding

[2]holding adj, always used before a noun
1 : causing or intended to cause a temporary stop or delay ▪ The troops were engaged in a holding action until reinforcements could arrive. ▪ a holding operation
2 — used to describe a place where someone or something is kept for a time before being moved somewhere else ▪ The prisoner was placed in a holding cell. ▪ a holding tank/pen holding company noun, pl ~ -ies [count] business : a company whose main business is owning more than half of another company's stock holding pattern noun, pl ~ -terns [count] : a course flown by an aircraft while waiting for permission to land ▪ Our plane was in a holding pattern for almost an hour because of the fog. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The company has put production in a holding pattern [=has temporarily stopped production] while better testing methods are developed.

hold•out /ˈhoʊldˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]
1 a : a person who refuses to reach an agreement until certain terms are met : a person who holds out ▪ He says he might be a holdout at the start of the next season if the team doesn't agree to pay him more. b : an act of holding out for something ▪ He is expected to end his three-week holdout and join the team tomorrow.
2 : a person who continues to do or use something after others have stopped doing or using it ▪ A few holdouts still use typewriters, but nearly everybody uses computers now.
– see also hold out at [1]HOLD hold•over /ˈhoʊldˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count] US : someone or something that remains or is kept from an earlier time ▪ He is the only holdover from their last championship team. ▪ This policy is a holdover from the previous administration. — see also hold over at [1]HOLD hold•up /ˈhoʊldˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 : a usually brief delay ▪ a traffic holdup ▪ Hey, what's the holdup? [=what is the reason for the delay?] — see also hold up at [1]HOLD
2 : a robbery that is done using a gun ▪ There have been a series of holdups at local banks.

[1]hole /hoʊl/ noun, pl holes
1 [count] : an opening into or through something ▪ I have a hole in my sock. ▪ He fixed the hole in the roof. ▪ a bullet hole ▪ make/poke/drill a hole ▪ a mouse hole in the wall
2 [count] a : a hollow place in the ground ▪ The dog dug a deep/shallow hole. — see also FOXHOLE, SWIMMING HOLE, WATER HOLE b : a place in the ground where an animal lives ▪ a rabbit hole
3 [count] golf a : the cup into which the ball is hit ▪ Her putt rolled right into the hole. b : one of the separate parts of a golf course that includes a tee and a green ▪ She made a birdie on the seventh hole. ▪ The course has 18 holes.
4 [count] : a flaw or weakness ▪ There are plenty of holes in the theory. ▪ There are a couple of holes in their defense. ▪ The police were unable to poke any holes in his story. [=to find evidence showing that his story was not true] — see also LOOPHOLE
5 [singular] informal a : a difficult or embarrassing situation ▪ He's in trouble and needs someone to help get/dig him out of this hole. [=fix, jam] ▪ They found themselves in a hole, trailing by 10 points with not much time left in the game. b US : the state of owing or losing money ▪ She gave them a loan to help get them out of their financial hole. [=debt] ▪ He was hundreds of dollars in the hole [=he owed hundreds of dollars] by the end of the night.
6 [count] — used to describe a situation in which someone or something is gone or missing ▪ When their daughter went to college, it left/made a big hole in their lives. [=they missed their daughter very much when she went to college]
7 informal a [count] : a dirty and unpleasant place ▪ I can't believe he lives there! It's such a hole! — see also HELLHOLE b *the hole US : a prison cell where a prisoner who is being punished is kept alone ▪ He spent a month in the hole. [=(more formally) in solitary confinement]
8 [count] a baseball : an open area between two fielders ▪ He hit a grounder that went through the hole between the first and second basemen. ▪ He hit a sharp ground ball into the hole. [=the area between the shortstop and third baseman] b American football : an open area between defenders that allows an offensive player to move the ball forward ▪ a running back skilled at finding holes
an ace in the hole see [1]ACE like a hole in the head informal ✧ If you do not need something at all, you can say that you need it like a hole in the head. ▪ She already has too many shoes. She needs another pair like a hole in the head.
punch holes in informal : to weaken (an argument, idea, etc.) by proving that parts of it are wrong ▪ Lawyers tried to punch holes in her argument.

[2]hole verb holes; holed; hol•ing golf : to hit (the ball) into the hole [+ obj] She holed a long putt for a birdie. [no obj] — + out ▪ She waited for her partner to hole out [=to finish putting the ball into the hole] before she putted.
hole up [phrasal verb] informal : to stay in a place hidden or apart from other people ▪ The criminals holed up in a downtown motel for a few days. ▪ The band holed up in the recording studio to record their album. ✧ You can hole up in a place or be/stay holed up in a place. ▪ The band was/stayed holed up in the recording studio.

hole in one noun, pl holes in one [count] golf : a score of one on a hole in golf ▪ She got/made/had a hole in one on the eighth hole. — called also (US) ace hole–in–the–wall noun, pl holes–in–the–wall [count] informal 1 chiefly US : a small place (such as a bar or restaurant) that is not fancy or expensive ▪ We had dinner at some hole-in-the-wall downtown.

2 Brit : ATM

hol•ey /ˈhoʊli/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : having holes ▪ holey socks

[1]hol•i•day /ˈhɑːləˌdeɪ, Brit ˈhɒlədi/ noun, pl -days
1 [count] : a special day of celebration ▪ a religious holiday : a day when most people do not have to work ▪ July 4 is a national holiday in the U.S. ▪ The stock market is closed tomorrow because it's a holiday. — often used before another noun ▪ holiday gifts/parties ▪ Do you have any plans for the holiday weekend? [=a weekend that is preceded or followed by a holiday] ✧ In U.S. English, the holiday season and the holidays refer to the time from November until the beginning of January during which many holidays are celebrated. ▪ How are you celebrating the holiday season? ▪ I'm looking forward to going home for the holidays. — see also BANK HOLIDAY, LEGAL HOLIDAY
2 Brit : VACATION [noncount] She'll have four weeks' holiday next year. ▪ She spent two weeks on holiday [=(US) on vacation] in Italy. [count] We're planning on taking a holiday in the Caribbean. — often plural ▪ She went to the Caribbean for her holidays. ▪ He spent the summer holidays in Spain.

[2]holiday verb -days; -dayed; -day•ing [no obj] Brit : to spend a holiday in or at a particular place : VACATION ▪ She likes holidaying in the Caribbean.

holiday–maker noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : VACATIONER

ho•li•er–than–thou /ˌhoʊlijəðənˈðaʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing the annoying attitude of people who believe that they are morally better than other people ▪ a holier-than-thou attitude

ho•li•ness /ˈhoʊlinəs/ noun
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being holy ▪ the holiness of this sacred place
2 Holiness [count] — used in the titles of high religious officials ▪ His Holiness the pope ▪ Does Your Holiness require anything else?

hol•is•tic /hoʊˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to or concerned with complete systems rather than with individual parts ▪ Holistic medicine attempts to treat both the mind and the body. ▪ We need to take a more holistic approach to improving our schools.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

hol•lan•daise /ˌhɑːlənˈdeɪz/ noun [noncount] : a rich sauce made of butter, egg yolks, and lemon juice or vinegar — called also hollandaise sauce

hol•ler /ˈhɑːlə/ verb -lers; -lered; -ler•ing chiefly US, informal
1 : to call out loudly : SHOUT [no obj] He was hollering across the fields to his workers. ▪ They were screaming and hollering at each other all night. [+ obj] He hollered (out) orders to his workers. ▪ She hollered across the street, "Did you hear the news?" ▪ Someone was hollering my name.
2 [no obj] : to make loud or angry complaints ▪ People always holler about tax increases.
– holler noun, pl -lers [count] ▪ If you need any help, just give (me) a holler. [=just let me know if you need any help]

[1]hol•low /ˈhɑːloʊ/ adj hol•low•er; -est
1 : having nothing inside : not solid ▪ a hollow log
2 : curved inward or down ▪ hollow [=sunken] cheeks ▪ There was a hollow spot in the field.
3 : not having real value or meaning ▪ They achieved a hollow victory over a team missing its best players. [=their victory was not an important or impressive one since the other team was missing its best players] ▪ She made hollow promises. [=she made promises she would not keep] ▪ Their threats ring hollow. = Their threats have a hollow ring. [=their threats do not seem truthful or sincere]
4 ✧ A sound that is hollow is like the sound made when you hit something that is empty inside. ▪ He heard a hollow sound when he knocked on the wall.
5 : weak and without any emotion ▪ "It's useless," he said in a hollow voice. ▪ a hollow laugh
– hol•low•ly /ˈhɑːləli/ adv ▪ "It's useless," he said hollowly.
– hol•low•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the hollowness of her promises

[2]hollow noun, pl -lows [count]
1 : a place or area (especially on the ground) that is lower than the area around it ▪ a grassy hollow
2 : an empty space inside of something ▪ The owls nested in the hollow of a tree.
in the hollow of your hand ✧ If you hold something in the hollow of your hand, you hold it in your palm with your hand curved like a cup ▪ I held the bead in the hollow of my hand.

[3]hollow verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing [+ obj] : to remove the inside of (something) ▪ They hollowed the log to make a canoe. — often used as (be) hollowed ▪ a hollowed tree hollow out [phrasal verb] hollow (something) out or hollow out (something) 1 : to remove the inside of (something) : to make an empty space in (something) ▪ The kids were hollowing out pumpkins. ▪ a hollowed-out log 2 : to form (something) by digging or cutting the inside of something ▪ Workers hollowed out a tunnel through the mountain. ▪ He hollowed out a bowl from the wood.

hol•ly /ˈhɑːli/ noun, pl -lies [count, noncount] : a tree or bush with dark green leaves and bright red berries; also : the branches of this plant which are used for decoration especially at Christmas

hol•ly•hock /ˈhɑːliˌhɑːk/ noun, pl -hocks [count] : a tall plant with rounded leaves and brightly colored flowers

[1]Hol•ly•wood /ˈhɑːliˌwʊd/ noun [singular] : the American movie industry ▪ an actor who has had a long career in Hollywood ✧ Hollywood is a part of Los Angeles, California, where the American movie industry is based.

[2]Hollywood adj, always used before a noun
1 : relating to or characteristic of people in the American movie industry ▪ the Hollywood lifestyle
2 : relating to or typical of a movie made in Hollywood ▪ a story with a Hollywood ending [=a happy ending; an ending like the one you often see in movies]

ho•lo•caust /ˈhoʊləˌkɑːst, ˈhɑːləˌkɑːst/ noun, pl -causts formal
1 the Holocaust : the killing of millions of Jews and other people by the Nazis during World War II ▪ The museum is devoted to the Holocaust. ▪ Her parents were survivors of the Holocaust. = Her parents were Holocaust survivors. ▪ a Holocaust memorial 2 [count] : an event or situation in which many people are killed and many things are destroyed especially by fire ▪ There were fears of a nuclear holocaust.

ho•lo•gram /ˈhoʊləˌgræm, ˈhɑːləˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a special kind of picture that is produced by a laser and that looks three-dimensional hols /ˈhɑːlz/ noun [plural] Brit, informal + old-fashioned : VACATION ▪ Where did you have your hols?

Hol•stein /ˈhoʊlˌstiːn/ noun, pl -steins [count] US : a black-and-white cow used for milk

hol•ster /ˈhoʊlstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a leather case that you wear on your body and that holds a small gun

ho•ly /ˈhoʊli/ adj ho•li•er; -est
1 a : connected to a god or a religion ▪ a holy temple ▪ a holy relic worn by one of the saints ▪ the Holy Bible b : religious and morally good ▪ a holy man
2 informal — used in phrases that show surprise or excitement ▪ Holy cow! [=Wow!] ▪ Holy mackerel! You got your hair cut! ▪ Holy smoke!
3 informal — used for emphasis ▪ That boy is a holy terror. [=he is very difficult to control] ▪ He gave them holy hell. [=he scolded them in a very angry way]

Holy Communion noun [noncount] formal : COMMUNION

holy day noun, pl ~ days [count] : a day when a religious festival or holiday is observed

Holy Family noun
the Holy Family : Jesus Christ, his mother Mary, and her husband Joseph

Holy Father noun [singular] — used to refer to the Pope

Holy Ghost noun
the Holy Ghost : HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Grail noun, pl ~ Grails
1 or holy grail [count] : something that you want very much but that is very hard to get or achieve ▪ Finding a cure for cancer is the holy grail of medical researchers.
2 the Holy Grail : the cup that is said to have been used by Jesus Christ and that was sought by knights during the Middle Ages

Holy Land noun
the Holy Land : the area in the Middle East where the events of the Bible happened ▪ We visited the Holy Land.

holy of holies noun
1 the holy of holies : the most holy part of a Jewish temple
2 [singular] humorous : something (such as a place or event) that is thought of as very special and which only a few people are allowed to use, see, etc. ▪ His trophy room is the holy of holies where only his closest friends are allowed.

holy orders noun [plural] : the position of a Christian priest, bishop, etc. ▪ He took holy orders. [=became a priest]

Holy Spirit noun
the Holy Spirit : God in the form of a spirit in Christianity ▪ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit — called also the Holy Ghost

Holy Trinity noun
the Holy Trinity : TRINITY 1

holy war noun, pl ~ wars [count] : a war that is fought to defend or spread one group's religious beliefs

holy water noun [noncount] : water that has been blessed by a priest

Holy Week noun [noncount] : the week before Easter in the Christian church

hom•age /ˈɑːmɪʤ, Brit ˈhɑːmɪʤ/ noun
1 [noncount] : respect or honor ▪ People bowed in homage to [=as a sign of respect for] the king as he passed by. ▪ Her paintings pay homage to [=honor] women artists of the past.
2 [singular] : something that is done to honor someone or something ▪ Her book is a/an homage to her favorite city.

hom•bre /ˈɑːmbreɪ/ noun, pl -bres [count] US, informal : a man : GUY ▪ He is one tough hombre. [=he is very tough]

[1]home /ˈhoʊm/ noun, pl homes
1 : the place (such as a house or apartment) where a person lives [count] Right now his home is a small apartment. ▪ People are concerned about protecting their homes. ▪ (chiefly US) The neighborhood is filled with expensive new homes. [=houses] ▪ They've started on a major home-improvement project. [=a project to make their house better, bigger, more modern, etc.] ▪ They have a second/vacation home on the lake. [noncount] There's no place like home. ▪ Let's stay at home tonight. [=let's not go out tonight] ▪ I must have left my notes at home. ▪ We're a long way from home. [=we are not close to our house] ▪ I will be away from home [=I will not be at my house] for two weeks. ▪ He has no place to call home. [=he does not have a place to live] ▪ He works at/from home. [=he does his work in his house and not in an office building] — see also AT HOME (below), MOBILE HOME, MOTOR HOME

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

2 [count] : a family living together in one building, house, etc. ▪ She made a good home for her husband and children. ▪ She came from a troubled home. [=a family with many problems] ▪ He comes from a broken home. [=a family in which the parents have divorced] ▪ She lived at home [=she lived with her parents or family] until she got married. ▪ He left home [=left his parent's house and lived in his own house] after graduating from high school.

3 a : a place where something normally or naturally lives or is located [count] Australia is the home [=habitat] of the kangaroo. [noncount] The islands are home to many species of birds. b [count] : the place where something began or was created — usually + of ▪ The restaurant advertises itself as the home of the "Big Burger." c [count] : a place where something is placed, stored, etc. ▪ Can you find homes for these files in your office?

4 : the place where someone lives or originally comes from : the place to which you feel most strongly attached [noncount] New York will always be home to me. ▪ They made their home [=they settled] on the banks of the Mississippi. ▪ People back home [=in his hometown; in the place he is from] would never believe how much he has changed. [count] He has fond memories of his boyhood home. [=the place where he lived as a boy]

5 [count] : the place where an organization, a company, etc., is located and operates ▪ This building will be the orchestra's new home. ▪ The big television networks have their homes in the same city.

6 [count] : a place where people who are unable to care for themselves live and are cared for ▪ an orphan's home ▪ an old people's home ▪ She doesn't want to put her mother in a home. — see also NURSING HOME, REST HOME at home 1 : in your own country and not a foreign country ▪ We face serious threats both at home and abroad. 2 sports : in a team's own stadium, park, etc. : in the place where a team is based ▪ The team's next six games are at home. [=in its own stadium] ▪ The team has done much better at home [=in its home games] than on the road. — see also [1]HOME 1 (above) 3 : relaxed and comfortable ▪ She feels at home on the stage. ▪ They made me feel (right) at home my first day at the new job. ▪ Come on in and make yourself at home. [=do what you need to do to feel relaxed and comfortable] ▪ The professor is equally at home in politics and history. [=knows a lot about both politics and history] ▪ I've never really felt/been completely at home with [=comfortable and confident about using] all these newfangled machines.

7 [noncount] : a place that you try to reach in some games (such as baseball) ▪ He was tagged out at home. — see also HOME PLATE

charity begins at home see CHARITY home away from home (US) or Brit home from home : a place that is as pleasant and comfortable as your own home ▪ Whenever he came to the city, his brother's place was like a home away from home.

home sweet home ✧ You say home sweet home to show that you are happy when you return to your home after being away from it.

– home•like /ˈhoʊmˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US ▪ an inn with a homelike atmosphere

[2]home adv

1 : to or at the place where you live ▪ She called home to say she would be late for dinner. ▪ He's sending money home from a job overseas. ▪ She is on her way home. ▪ It's great to be back home. ▪ (chiefly US) They're never home when I try to see them. ▪ I can't wait to come/go/get home. ▪ (chiefly US) Let's stay home tonight. [=let's not go out tonight] ▪ He brings/takes home about $750 a week. [=the amount of money he gets after paying taxes, health insurance, etc., is about $750 each week]

2 a : into a finished or final position ▪ He used a hammer to drive the nail home. ▪ shove the bolt home [=all the way into its place] b sports : to, toward, or into a goal ▪ He fired the puck home. [=he shot the hockey puck into the goal]

bring home the bacon see BACON

bring (something) home : to make (something) very clear and obvious in usually a forceful or unpleasant way — usually + to ▪ The importance of regular exercise was brought home to him when his best friend developed heart problems.

close to home see [2]CLOSE come home to : to become very clear and obvious to (someone) in usually a forceful or unpleasant way ▪ The truth about her marriage came home to her when he left her.

come home to roost see [2]ROOST drive your point home : to say something in a very strong or forceful way : to make a point very forcefully ▪ He drove his point home during the debate.

hit/strike home : to become very clear and obvious in usually a forceful or unpleasant way ▪ The truth about their marriage finally hit home.

home free (US) or Brit home and dry informal : sure of succeeding, winning, etc. : no longer in danger of failing ▪ If we can meet this next deadline, we'll be home free.

nothing to write home about see WRITE ram home see [2]RAM

till/until the cows come home see [1]COW

[3]home adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to a home or family ▪ She has a happy home life. ▪ Please give us your home phone number. ▪ What is your home address?

2 : designed to be used in your home ▪ a home entertainment system : done or made in your home ▪ home cooking — often used in combination ▪ He couldn't wait to have a home-cooked meal. [=a meal made and eaten at home] — see also HOME MOVIE, HOME VIDEO

3 sports : at a team's own field, stadium, arena, etc. ▪ the home team ▪ home games ▪ The team opens its home season in just two weeks. — compare AWAY, ROAD

4 chiefly Brit : of, relating to, or coming from within your own country : DOMESTIC ▪ We can make a profit on home sales alone. ▪ the home market

home brew see [2]BREW

[4]home verb homes; homed; hom•ing

home in on [phrasal verb] home in on (someone or something) : to find and move directly toward (someone or something) ▪ The missile was homing in on its target. — often used figuratively ▪ Researchers are homing in on the cause of the disease.

home base noun, pl ~ bases

1 [count] : the place in which someone or something lives or operates — usually singular ▪ The company's home base is in New York. ▪ (informal) She returned to her home base [=she went back home] after a long month of traveling.

2 [noncount] baseball : HOME PLATE home•body /ˈhoʊmˌbɑːdi/ noun, pl -bod•ies [count] informal : a person who likes to stay home ▪ He's a homebody who hates parties.

home•bound /ˈhoʊmˌbaʊnd/ adj

1 : unable to leave your house because of age, injury, etc. ▪ They deliver meals to homebound people.

2 : going home ▪ Homebound travelers were stranded at the airport. ▪ homebound traffic ▪ a homebound train home•boy /ˈhoʊmˌboɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] US slang

1 : a boy or man from your own neighborhood or hometown ▪ He dedicated his win to his homeboys back home.

2 : a member of your gang ▪ He was hanging out with his homeboys. — called also homey home•buy•er /ˈhoʊmˌbajɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who buys a house, apartment, etc. ▪ The books has helpful information for first-time homebuyers. [=for people who are buying their first home]

home•com•ing /ˈhoʊmˌkʌmɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : the act of returning to your home or to a place that is like your home ▪ A large crowd gathered at the airport for the soldiers' homecoming.

2 or Homecoming [count, noncount] US a : an annual celebration for people who attended a college or university ▪ Homecoming weekend b : an annual celebration for high-school students that includes sports games and a formal dance ▪ Who's taking you to Homecoming? = Who's taking you to the Homecoming dance?

home economics noun [noncount] : a subject or class that teaches cooking, sewing, and other skills that are useful in the home ▪ She learned to sew in home economics. — called also (US, informal) home ec

home fries noun [plural] US : potatoes that have been cut into small pieces and fried — called also home fried potatoes

home front noun

the home front : the people who stay in a country and work while that country's soldiers are fighting in a war in a foreign country ▪ During the war we had to keep up morale on the home front. [=keep up morale among the people living and working in our home country]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

home•girl /ˈhoʊmˌgɚl/ noun, pl -girls [count] US slang
1 : a girl or woman from your own neighborhood or hometown ▪ She was happy to be back home with her homegirls.
2 : a girl or woman who is one of your friends home•grown /ˈhoʊmˈgroʊn/ adj

1 : grown or made at home or in your local area ▪ The family sells their homegrown vegetables at the local market.
2 : raised in or coming from your local area ▪ The music festival will feature some homegrown talent this year.

home help noun, pl ~ helps [count] Brit : a person whose job is to help ill or elderly people in their homes with cooking, cleaning, etc.

home•land /ˈhoʊmˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count]
1 : the country where someone was born or grew up ▪ He returned to his homeland for the first time in many years.
2 : a usually large area where a particular group of people can live ▪ The rebels are fighting for an independent homeland. ▪ the Department of Homeland Security [=a department in the U.S. government that is responsible for the safety of the U.S. and its citizens]

home•less /ˈhoʊmləs/ adj : having no place to live ▪ homeless people ▪ We volunteer at the homeless shelter. [=a building where homeless people can sleep and get food]
the homeless : homeless people : people who have no place to live ▪ a shelter for the homeless
– home•less•ness noun [noncount] home loan noun, pl ~ loans [count] : [1]MORTGAGE home•ly /ˈhoʊmli/ adj home•li•er; -est

1 US : not pretty or handsome : plain or unattractive ▪ She has a homely face. ▪ He's a bit homely but nice.
2 Brit : plain and simple in an appealing or pleasant way ▪ the homely appeal of farm life ▪ The hotel has a homely [=(US) homey] atmosphere.
– home•li•ness noun [noncount] home•made /ˈhoʊmˈmeɪd/ adj : made in the home and not in a factory, store, etc. ▪ homemade bread — compare STORE-BOUGHT home•mak•er /ˈhoʊmˌmeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a wife who does work (such as sewing, cleaning, or cooking) at home and usually does not have another job outside the home : HOUSEWIFE ▪ TV commercials often show happy homemakers.

– home•mak•ing /ˈhoʊmˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the challenges of homemaking home movie noun, pl ~ -ies [count] : a movie that you make for people to watch in your home and that is usually of your family or a family event ▪ We watched home movies of the family reunion. — compare HOME VIDEO home office noun, pl ~ - ces

1 [count] : a room in your house where you do office work ▪ When I began working from home, I set up a home office.
2 the Home Office Brit : the department in the British government that deals with the law, the police, and prisons, and that decides which people can come into the country

ho•me•op•a•thy also Brit ho•moe•op•a•thy /ˌhoʊmiˈɑːpəθi/ noun [noncount] : a system for treating illnesses that uses very small amounts of substances that would in larger amounts produce symptoms of the illnesses in healthy people
– ho•meo•path also Brit ho•moeo•path /ˈhoʊmijəˌpæθ/ noun, pl -paths [count] Maybe you should see a homeopath. – ho•meo•path•ic also Brit ho•moeo•path•ic /ˌhoʊmijəˈpæθɪk/ adj ▪ homeopathic medicine/treatments home•own•er /ˈhoʊmˌoʊnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who owns a home, apartment, etc. ▪ The new law should provide tax relief for homeowners. ▪ Do you have homeowner's insurance? [=insurance that covers damage to your house or the things inside your house]

home page noun, pl ~ pages [count] : the part of a Web site that is seen first and that usually contains links to other parts of the site ▪ They have designed a simpler home page that is easier to use.

home plate noun [noncount] baseball : the base that a runner must touch in order to score ▪ The runner was tagged out at home plate. — called also home base

hom•er /ˈhoʊmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] baseball, informal : HOME RUN ▪ He hit three homers in yesterday's game.
– homer verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] ▪ He homered three times in yesterday's game.

home•room /ˈhoʊmˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms US : a classroom where students go at the beginning of each school day [count] They were assigned to different homerooms. [noncount] He was late for homeroom.

home rule noun [noncount] : government of a place (such as a country or territory) by the people who live there instead of by another country ▪ The citizens petitioned for home rule.

home run noun, pl ~ runs [count] baseball : a hit that allows the batter to go around all the bases and score a run ▪ He hit three home runs. — compare DOUBLE, SINGLE, TRIPLE home•school /ˈhoʊmˌskuːl/ verb -schools; -schooled; -school•ing US : to teach your children at home instead of sending them to a school [+ obj] They homeschooled both their children. [no obj] Parents who homeschool are meeting on Thursday.

– homeschooling noun [noncount] ▪ They believe in homeschooling.

home•school•er /ˈhoʊmˌskuːlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US
1 : a child who is taught at home instead of in a school ▪ Both of their children were homeschoolers.
2 : a parent who teaches a child at home instead of sending the child to a school ▪ His parents are homeschoolers.

home•sick /ˈhoʊmˌsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : sad because you are away from your family and home ▪ He was/got homesick when he went to college. ▪ She was homesick for her mother's cooking.
– home•sick•ness noun [noncount]

home•spun /ˈhoʊmˌspʌn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : plain and simple ▪ People enjoy his folksy, homespun manner.

[1]home•stead /ˈhoʊmˌstɛd/ noun, pl -steads [count]
1 : a house and the farmland it is on ▪ They decided to farm the old homestead.
2 US : a piece of government land that a person could acquire by living on it and farming it when the western part of the U.S. was being settled

[2]homestead verb -steads; -stead•ed; -stead•ing US : to settle on goverment land and farm it [no obj] They homesteaded in Alaska. [+ obj] They homesteaded the territory in the 1860s.
– home•stead•er /ˈhoʊmˌstɛdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

home•stretch /ˈhoʊmˈstrɛtʃ/ noun, pl -stretch•es [count] : the part of a racetrack between the last turn and the finish line ▪ The horses are in the homestretch. — often used figuratively ▪ The presidential race remains extremely close as we enter the homestretch. [=as we near the finish] — called also (Brit) home straight

home theater noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : an entertainment system for your home that usually includes a large television, a DVD player or VCR, and a sound system with many speakers home•town /ˈhoʊmˈtaʊn/ noun, pl -towns [count] : the city or town where you were born or grew up ▪ She returned to her hometown to stay after college. ▪ hometown friends home truth noun, pl ~ truths [count] : an unpleasant fact about someone or something — usually plural ▪ She was all ready to tell him some hard home truths. ▪ The doctor told me the home truths about the dangers of smoking.

home video noun, pl ~ videos
1 [noncount] US : movies that are sold on videotapes or DVDs and are meant to be watched on television at home ▪ the latest releases in home video ▪ the home video market
2 [count] : a home movie that is recorded with a video camera ▪ We watched a home video of their wedding.

home visit noun, pl ~ -its [count] Brit : HOUSE CALL home•ward /ˈhoʊmwɚd/ also chiefly Brit home•wards /ˈhoʊmwɚdz/ adv : in the direction of home ▪ He struggled homeward in the rain. ▪ I am homeward bound. [=going home]

– homeward adj ▪ a homeward voyage/journey home•work /ˈhoʊmˌwɚk/ noun [noncount]

1 : work that a student is given to do at home ▪ Please do/finish your homework. ▪ She started her algebra homework. — compare CLASSWORK
2 : research or reading done in order to prepare for something — used in the phrase do your homework ▪ The candidate did his homework [=studied the issues] before the debate.

[1]hom•ey /ˈhoʊmi/ adj hom•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] chiefly US : comfortable or familiar like home ▪ a homey [=(Brit) homely] restaurant with a warm fireplace ▪ a homey atmosphere
– hom•ey•ness or hom•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ We

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

liked the homeyness of the restaurant.

[2]homey noun, pl -ies [count] US slang : HOMEBOY

ho•mi•cid•al /ˌhɑːməˈsaɪdl/ adj
1 : likely to kill someone ▪ a homicidal maniac
2 : of or relating to murder ▪ a homicidal obsession ▪ homicidal thoughts ho•mi•cide /ˈhɑːməˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides chiefly US : the act of killing another person : MURDER [count] The number of homicides increased last year. [noncount] He has been arrested for homicide.

hom•i•ly /ˈhɑːməli/ noun, pl hom•i•lies formal
1 [count] : a usually short talk on a religious or moral topic ▪ The priest gave a brief homily on forgiveness.
2 : advice that is often not wanted [count] We had to listen to another one of his homilies about the value of public service. [noncount] a politician with a fondness for homily

hom•ing /ˈhoʊmɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : returning home ▪ an animal with a homing instinct [=an ability to return home from a great distance]
2 technical : able to find and follow a target ▪ A homing device guides the missile to the target. ▪ a homing torpedo homing pigeon noun, pl ~ -geons [count] : a pigeon that is trained to return home from a great distance hom•i•ny /ˈhɑːməni/ noun [noncount] : a food made from dried corn ▪ We had pork and hominy stew.

ho•mo /ˈhoʊmoʊ/ noun, pl -mos [count] informal + offensive : a homosexual person

ho•mo•ge•neous /ˌhoʊməˈʤiːnjəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : made up of the same kind of people or things ▪ a racially homogeneous neighborhood [=a neighborhood in which all the people belong to the same race] ▪ a fairly homogeneous collection of examples — compare HETEROGENEOUS
– ho•mo•ge•ne•ity /ˌhoʊməʤəˈniːjəti/ noun [noncount] formal ▪ racial/economic/cultural homogeneity

ho•mog•e•nize also Brit ho•mog•e•nise /hoʊˈmɑːʤəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to treat (milk) so that the fat is mixed throughout instead of floating on top
2 : to change (something) so that its parts are the same or similar ▪ The new curriculum is an attempt to homogenize education throughout the county.
– ho•mog•e•ni•za•tion also Brit ho•mog•e•ni•sa•tion /hoʊˌmɑːʤənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit hɔʊˌmɒʤəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the homogenization of society – homogenized also Brit homogenised adj ▪ a carton of homogenized milk ▪ an increasingly homogenized society

ho•mog•e•nous /hoʊˈmɑːʤənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : HOMOGENEOUS

ho•mo•graph /ˈhɑːməˌgræf, Brit ˈhɒməˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] : a word that is spelled like another word but that is different in origin, meaning, or pronunciation ▪ The words "bow" for a part of a ship and "bow" for a weapon that shoots arrows are homographs.

hom•onym /ˈhɑːməˌnɪm/ noun, pl -nyms [count] : a word that is spelled and pronounced like another word but is different in meaning ▪ The noun "bear" and the verb "bear" are homonyms.

ho•mo•phobe /ˈhoʊməˌfoʊb/ noun, pl -phobes [count] : a person who hates or is afraid of homosexuals or treats them badly
– ho•mo•pho•bia /ˌhoʊməˈfoʊbijə/ noun [noncount] ▪ She was accused of homophobia. – ho•mo•pho•bic /ˌhoʊməˈfoʊbɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ homophobic remarks

ho•mo•phone /ˈhɑːməˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] : a word that is pronounced like another word but is different in meaning, origin, or spelling ▪ "To," "too," and "two" are homophones.

Ho•mo sa•pi•ens /ˌhoʊmoʊˈseɪpijənz, Brit ˌhəʊməʊˈsæpiənz/ noun, pl Homo sapiens technical : the species of human beings that exist today [noncount] All people are members of Homo sapiens. [plural] All Homo sapiens [=human beings] share certain characteristics.

ho•mo•sex•u•al /ˌhoʊməˈsɛkʃəwəl/ adj, somewhat formal
1 : sexually attracted to people of the same sex ▪ a homosexual man
2 : based on or showing a sexual attraction to people of the same sex ▪ homosexual behavior ▪ a homosexual affair — compare BISEXUAL, HETEROSEXUAL – homosexual noun, pl -als [count] ▪ bias against homosexuals – ho•mo•sex•u•al•i•ty /ˌhoʊməˌsɛkʃəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He is very open about his homosexuality.

hon /ˈhʌn/ noun, informal — used to address someone you love ▪ Hey, hon, would you get the door for me? ✧ Hon is a short form of honey.

Hon. also Brit Hon abbr honorable — used in titles ▪ the Hon. Judge Smith presiding

hon•cho /ˈhɑːnʧoʊ/ noun, pl -chos [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who is in charge of other people ▪ corporate honchos ▪ Talk to the head honcho. [=the person with the most authority]

hone /ˈhoʊn/ verb hones; honed; hon•ing [+ obj]
1 : to sharpen (something, such as a knife) with a stone ▪ hone a blade
2 : to make (something, such as a skill) better or more effective ▪ She honed her language skills by reading and writing every day.
hone in on [phrasal verb] US : to find and go directly toward (someone or something) ▪ The missile was honing in on [=homing in on] its target. — usually used figuratively ▪ Researchers are honing in on the cause of the disease. ✧ Although hone in on is widely used, many people regard it as an error for home in on.

[1]hon•est /ˈɑːnəst/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : good and truthful : not lying, stealing, or cheating ▪ They are honest people. ▪ He says that it's impossible to find an honest politician. ▪ These criminals pose a danger to honest citizens. — opposite DISHONEST b : showing or suggesting a good and truthful character ▪ He has an honest face. — opposite DISHONEST
2 : not hiding the truth about someone or something : not meant to deceive someone ▪ Just give me an honest answer. ▪ an honest reply ▪ If you want my honest opinion, you should get a job. ▪ To be perfectly/quite honest, I don't want to go. ▪ You shouldn't be afraid of a little honest criticism. [=criticism that is based on facts] ▪ I'd be less than honest [=I would be lying] if I told you there won't be problems. ▪ He gave us a painfully/brutally/refreshingly honest account of his childhood. ▪ I don't think these people are being honest with me. [=I don't think they're telling me the truth] — opposite DISHONEST
3 a : not deserving blame : not done with the intent of hurting or harming anyone ▪ It was an honest error/mistake. b : done using your own work or effort ▪ He still goes to the office every morning and puts in an honest day's work. : not gotten by cheating, lying, etc. ▪ He's just trying to earn an honest living. [=he is trying to earn a good amount of money for his hard work] ▪ These people work hard, and they deserve an honest wage. [=an amount of money that is fair for the work that is done]
4 : plain and good : not fancy ▪ The restaurant prides itself on serving simple, honest food.
make an honest woman of (someone) or make (someone) an honest woman old-fashioned + humorous : to marry (a woman, especially a woman you have already had sex with) ▪ When will he finally make an honest woman of her?

[2]honest adv, informal — used to stress that a statement is true ▪ I didn't do it—honest I didn't! ▪ She is not my friend, honest. — sometimes used in the phrases honest to God or honest to goodness ▪ Honest to God, I wasn't there that night. ▪ He told you that? Honest to goodness? [=really?; honestly?] — see also HONEST-TO-GOODNESS

hon•est•ly /ˈɑːnəstli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 a : without cheating or lying : in an honest way ▪ Officials counted the votes honestly. ▪ The bank has always dealt honestly with me. ▪ I can honestly say that I have never seen that man before today. ▪ He spoke honestly about the mistakes he had made. b : in a genuine way : without pretending ▪ He was honestly [=truly] frightened by what the doctor told him. ▪ She honestly believes that she has been mistreated.
2 — used to stress that a statement is true ▪ Honestly, I don't know how you can raise kids and work too. ▪ I honestly don't know what to do.
3 informal — used to express annoyance or disapproval ▪ Honestly! Is that the best you can do?!

honest–to–goodness adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : REAL ▪ He is an honest-to-goodness legend. ▪ an honest-to-goodness movie star

hon•es•ty /ˈɑːnəsti/ noun [noncount] : the quality of being fair and truthful : the quality of being honest ▪ She is admired for her kindness and her honesty. ▪ He demands honesty from everyone who works for him. ▪ He didn't even have enough honesty to tell me he was leaving.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

honesty is the best policy — used to say that telling the truth is better than lying even when it is hard to do ▪ He realized honesty is the best policy and told them what really happened to their car.

in all honesty — used to stress that a statement is true ▪ In all honesty, I don't know what you're talking about. ▪ I don't like him, but in all honesty, I don't know why.

hon•ey /ˈhʌni/ noun, pl -eys

1 [noncount] : a thick, sweet substance made by bees ▪ She likes honey in her tea.

2 informal — used to address someone you love ▪ "Honey, would you pass the salt?" ▪ Honey, I'm home!

3 [singular] chiefly US, informal : something that is very good ▪ The shortstop made a honey of a play. [=he made a very good play] ▪ Your car is a real honey.

land of milk and honey see [1]LAND

hon•ey•bee /ˈhʌniˌbi:/ noun, pl -bees [count] : a bee that makes honey — see color picture on page C10

hon•ey•comb /ˈhʌniˌkoʊm/ noun, pl -combs : a group of wax cells with six sides that are built by honeybees in their hive and that contain young bees or honey [noncount] a piece of honeycomb [count] One of the honeycombs was empty.

hon•ey•combed /ˈhʌniˌkoʊmd/ adj : having many holes or open spaces ▪ The car bumper includes a special honeycombed plastic. ▪ The rock is honeycombed with caves.

hon•ey•dew melon /ˈhʌniˌdu:-, Brit ˈhʌniˌdju:-/ noun, pl ~ -ons [count] : a type of large fruit (called a melon) that has a hard, smooth skin and green flesh — see color picture on page C5

[1]hon•ey•moon /ˈhʌniˌmu:n/ noun, pl -moons [count]

1 : a trip or vacation taken by a newly married couple ▪ Where are you going on your honeymoon? ▪ a honeymoon cruise

2 : a pleasant period of time at the start of something (such as a relationship or a politician's term in office) when people are happy, are working with each other, etc. ▪ The honeymoon (period) between the business partners was brief.

[2]honeymoon verb -moons; -mooned; -moon•ing [no obj] : to go on a honeymoon ▪ They honeymooned in Niagara Falls. ▪ a honeymooning couple

– hon•ey•moon•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The resort attracts many honeymooners.

hon•ey•suck•le /ˈhʌniˌsʌkəl/ noun, pl -suck•les [count, noncount] : a type of shrub that has bright, colorful flowers

[1]honk /ˈhɑ:ŋk/ verb honks; honked; honk•ing

1 [no obj] of a goose : to make a loud sound ▪ We could hear the geese honking overhead.

2 a [no obj] of a horn : to make a loud sound ▪ a honking horn b : to cause (a horn) to honk [+ obj] The people in the cars behind us kept honking [=blowing, (Brit) hooting] their horns. [no obj] I honked at the car in front of me.

[2]honk noun, pl honks [count] : the loud sound made by a goose; also : a similar loud sound ▪ the honk of a horn hon•ky or hon•kie /ˈhɑ:ŋki/ noun, pl -kies [count] US, informal + offensive : a white person

hon•ky–tonk /ˈhɑ:ŋkiˌtɑ:ŋk/ noun, pl -tonks

1 [noncount] a : a type of lively music usually performed on a piano b US : a type of country music with a heavy beat

2 [count] US : a cheap nightclub or dance hall that often features country music

– honky–tonk adj, always used before a noun ▪ a honky-tonk piano/song

[1]hon•or (US) or Brit hon•our /ˈɑ:nə/ noun, pl -ors

1 [noncount] : respect that is given to someone who is admired ▪ These people deserve to be treated with honor. ▪ The team brought honor to the school. ▪ Please welcome our guest of honor. [=the person who is being specially honored] ▪ He was given a place of honor at the table. [=a seat for someone who is being specially honored] ▪ The trophy has a place of honor [=a special position for something that is highly valued] on the mantel. ▪ They're having a dinner in honor of the new coach. = They're having a dinner in the new coach's honor. [=they are having a dinner as a way to show respect and admiration for the new coach] ▪ The building was named in honor of the city's founder. ▪ He wore his ethnic heritage as a badge of honor. [=he was proud of his ethnic heritage and did not try to hide it]

2 [noncount] a : good reputation : good quality or character as judged by other people ▪ He was prepared to fight to defend/protect/uphold his family's honor. b : high moral standards of behavior ▪ She has a keen sense of honor. ▪ a code of honor ▪ He would not do it as a matter of honor. ▪ He's a man of honor.

3 [singular] formal a : a special opportunity to do something that makes you proud — usually + of ▪ She was given/granted the honor of christening the ship. ▪ I have the honor of informing you that you have won first prize. ▪ May I have the honor of this dance? [=(more commonly) will you dance with me?] b : something that shows that other people have respect for you ▪ It was an honor to be invited. ▪ It's a great honor (for me) to be here with you tonight. ▪ I hope you'll do me the honor of accepting this invitation. [=it will make me feel happy and proud if you accept this invitation]

4 [count] : something (such as a title or medal) that is given to a person as a sign of respect and admiration ▪ She has received/won many honors and awards for her charitable works. ▪ Charitable organizations have been heaping honors on him. ▪ He was buried with full military honors. [=a special military ceremony for a person who has died] — see also MEDAL OF HONOR

5 [singular] : an admired person who is a source of pride and respect for the other members of a group, organization, etc. — used in the phrase an honor to ▪ She was an honor to [=a credit to] her profession.

6 Honor [count] — used as a title for a judge or mayor ▪ Please welcome His Honor, the mayor. ▪ We request a recess, Your Honor.

7 honors [plural] a : special credit or recognition given to students who have successfully done work at a high level ▪ She graduated with (top/high) honors. b : a special course of study for students who want to take classes at a high level ▪ honors classes/courses ▪ an honours degree from a British university do the honors : to do the actions performed by a host or hostess ▪ My mother cooks a big turkey for Thanksgiving every year, and my father does the honors at the table. [=my father carves and serves the turkey] ▪ The Ambassador did the honors by introducing the guest speaker.

lap of honour see [3]LAP

on your honor formal — used to say that you promise to do something ▪ On my honor, I will do my duty.

word of honor see [1]WORD

– see also MAID OF HONOR

[2]honor (US) or Brit honour verb -ors; -ored; -or•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to regard or treat (someone) with respect and admiration : to show or give honor to (someone) ▪ You should honor [=respect] your parents. ▪ When we got married, we promised to love and honor each other. ▪ We were honored with/by the queen's presence. ▪ (often humorous) Thank you for honoring us with your presence. [=thank you for coming here] b : to show admiration for (someone or something) in a public way : to give a public honor to (someone or something) ▪ She has been honored by several organizations for her charitable works. ▪ We need to find an appropriate way to honor these brave people. ▪ They're holding a dinner at which she is being honored (with an award) as player of the year. ▪ They have established a scholarship as a way to honor his memory/achievements.

2 a : to do what is required by (something, such as a promise or a contract) ▪ He claims that the company failed to honor [=fulfill] the contract/warranty. ▪ honor a warranty b : to accept (something) as payment ▪ honor a credit card ▪ honor a check c : to repay (a debt) ▪ They are accused of failing to honor their debts.

– honored adj ▪ He was welcomed as an honored guest. ▪ I feel honored to have been invited. ▪ an honored tradition

hon•or•able (US) or Brit hon•our•able /ˈɑ:nərəbəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] a : deserving honor and respect ▪ The college has a long and honorable history. ▪ an honorable profession b : having or showing honesty and good moral character ▪ an honorable man ▪ It is not honorable of you to behave like that. c : fair and proper : not deserving blame or criticism ▪ They are trying to find an honorable way out of this dispute. ▪ He assured her that his intentions were honorable. ▪ He received an honorable discharge from the army. — opposite DISHONORABLE

2 Honorable a — used as a title for some government officials ▪ the Honorable Senator/Judge — abbr. Hon. b Brit — used as a title for the children of some members of the nobility; abbr. Hon.

– hon•or•ably (US) or Brit hon•our•ably /ˈɑ:nərəbli/ adv

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

▪ He served honorably in the war. ▪ He was honorably discharged from the service.

honorable mention noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : an award or special praise given to someone who has done something extremely well but who has not won any of the official prizes

hon•o•rar•i•um /ˌɑːnəˈrerijəm/ noun, pl -ia /-ijə/ also -i-ums [count] formal : an amount of money paid for a service ▪ We are willing to offer a small honorarium that we hope you will accept for judging the competition.

hon•or•ary /ˈɑːnəˌreri, Brit ˈɑːnərəri/ adj
1 : given as a sign of honor or achievement ▪ He was awarded an honorary degree/title.
2 always used before a noun a : regarded as one of a group although not officially elected or included ▪ He's an honorary member of the club. b : holding a position for which no payment is given : not paid ▪ He is the honorary president/chairman of the commission.

hon•or•ee /ˌɑːnəˈriː/ noun, pl -ees [count] US : a person who is being given an honor ▪ Three honorees were chosen for the Hall of Fame.

honor guard noun, pl ~ guards [count] chiefly US : a person or group that is the guard at a formal or ceremonial event (such as a military funeral or a parade)

hon•or•if•ic /ˌɑːnəˈrɪfɪk/ adj : giving or expressing honor or respect ▪ an honorific name/title
– honorific noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ The title "Excellency" was used as an honorific.

honor roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count] US : a list of people who deserve to be honored; especially : a list of students who have received good grades in school — called also (Brit) roll of honour; compare DEAN'S LIST honor society noun, pl ~ -ties [count] US : a group of students who are honored for receiving good grades honor system noun, pl ~ -tems [singular] chiefly US : a system in which people are trusted to follow rules and to act in an honest way ▪ Customers are on the honor system to pay for any software they choose to purchase.

honour, honourable Brit spellings of HONOR, HONORABLE hooch /ˈhuːʧ/ noun [noncount] chiefly US slang : alcoholic liquor especially when it is cheap or made illegally ▪ a bottle of hooch

[1]hood /ˈhʊd/ noun, pl hoods [count]
1 a : a soft covering for the head and neck often attached to a coat or cape b : a cloth covering worn over the entire head to hide a person's face ▪ Witnesses reported that the bandits were wearing hoods. — see color picture on page C15
2 a : a cover that is used to protect or shield something (such as part of a machine or a camera lens) ▪ The photographer used a lens hood to cut down on glare. b US : the movable metal covering over the engine of an automobile ▪ What kind of engine do you have under the hood? ▪ a hood ornament — called also (Brit) bonnet; see picture at CAR c US : a device attached above a cooking surface that is used for carrying off smoke and fumes ▪ a range hood
– compare [2]HOOD, [3]HOOD

[2]hood noun, pl hoods [count] US, informal : HOODLUM ▪ a gang of hoods — compare [1]HOOD, [3]HOOD

[3]hood noun, pl hoods [count] US slang : a neighborhood; especially : a poor neighborhood in a large city ▪ his friends in the hood ▪ programs to help kids living in the hood — compare [1]HOOD, [2]HOOD

-hood /-ˌhʊd/ noun suffix
1 : state : condition : quality ▪ likeli*hood* ▪ false*hood* ▪ child*hood* ▪ adult*hood*
2 : people sharing a condition or character ▪ brother*hood*

hood•ed /ˈhʊdəd/ adj
1 : having a hood ▪ a hooded jacket/sweatshirt : wearing a hood ▪ a hooded figure
2 of an animal : having a head that is colored or formed in a way that looks like a hood ▪ a hooded duck/cobra
3 — used to describe eyes that are half closed ▪ He looked at us with hooded eyes.

hood•ie /ˈhʊdi/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : a hooded sweatshirt

hood•lum /ˈhuːdləm, ˈhʊdləm/ noun, pl -lums [count] : a tough and violent criminal : THUG ▪ a small-time hoodlum hood•wink /ˈhʊdˌwɪŋk/ verb -winks; -winked; -wink•ing [+ obj] informal : to deceive or trick (someone) ▪ Don't let yourself be hoodwinked into buying things you don't need.

hoo•ey /ˈhuːwi/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : foolish talk or writing : NONSENSE ▪ Don't waste your money on that book—it's a lot of hooey.

[1]hoof /ˈhʊf/ noun, pl hooves /ˈhuːvz, ˈhʊvz/ also hoofs [count] : the hard covering on the foot of an animal (such as a horse or pig) — see picture at HORSE; see also CLOVEN HOOF on the hoof 1 of an animal : while still living : before being killed for meat ▪ The cattle cost $1.20 a pound on the hoof. 2 informal, of people : while doing something else ▪ She ate lunch on the hoof to get the report done on time.
– hoofed /ˈhʊft/ adj ▪ hoofed animals

[2]hoof verb hoofs; hoofed; hoof•ing [no obj] US, informal : to dance as a performer ▪ The cast was hoofing on the stage.
hoof it informal : to move or travel on foot : to walk or run ▪ We quickly hoofed it down to the subway station.
– hoof•er /ˈhʊfə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a talented hoofer [=dancer] on Broadway hoof–and–mouth disease noun [noncount] : FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE

hoof•beat /ˈhʊfˌbiːt/ noun, pl -beats [count] : the sound made when an animal's hoof hits the ground hoo–ha also hoo–hah /ˈhuːˌhɑː/ noun [noncount] informal + usually disapproving : great excitement or concern about something ▪ Despite all the initial hoo-ha, people came to accept the new building.

[1]hook /ˈhʊk/ noun, pl hooks [count]
1 : a curved or bent tool for catching, holding, or pulling something ▪ He baited the hook [=fishhook] with a worm. ▪ a coat/picture hook
2 : a ball or shot in golf and other games that curves to the side instead of going straight ▪ She hit a hook into the left rough.
3 boxing : a punch coming from the side of the body instead of going straight forward ▪ He threw a right/left hook to his opponent's body. — compare JAB, UPPERCUT
4 basketball : HOOK SHOT
5 baseball, informal — used to describe the action of removing a pitcher from a game ▪ He got the hook [=he was removed] after allowing three runs in the second inning. ▪ The manager gave him the hook.
6 : something (such as part of a song) that attracts people's attention ▪ The song has a catchy hook. ▪ They used the commercial as a hook to get people to visit their Web site.
by hook or by crook informal : by any possible means ▪ She was determined to succeed by hook or by crook.
hook, line and sinker informal : without hesitation or doubt : COMPLETELY ▪ He gave them some ridiculous explanation, and they fell for it hook, line and sinker. [=they believed his explanation completely] off the hook 1 informal — used to describe someone who has avoided trouble or punishment; usually used with get or let ▪ He counted on his friends to get him off the hook. [=to protect him from trouble or punishment] ▪ I wasn't going to let her off the hook so easily. 2 of a telephone : with the receiver not resting in its usual position ▪ They took the phone off the hook so that it wouldn't ring.
on the hook for US, informal : owing money for (something) : responsible for (something) ▪ He's still on the hook for the cost of the repairs.
ring off the hook see [3]RING sling your hook see [1]SLING

[2]hook verb hooks; hooked; hook•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to connect or attach (something) with a hook ▪ The train cars were hooked together. ▪ My sweater was hooked on a branch. ▪ I hooked the door shut. b [no obj] : to be attached by hooks ▪ The dress hooks in the back. ▪ The two parts hooked together.
2 [+ obj] : to catch (something, such as a fish) with a hook ▪ He hooked a large fish.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to bend (a part of your body, such as an arm) and place it around something ▪ He hooked his arm around my neck. ▪ She hooked her fingers around the doorknob. ▪ He hooked his thumb through a loop of his pants.
4 [no obj] : to curve like a hook ▪ The bird's beak hooks downward.
5 sports : to hit or kick (a ball or shot) in a way that causes it to curve to the side : to hit a hook [+ obj] (golf) She hooked her drive into the rough. ▪ (American football) The kicker hooked the ball to the left and missed the field goal. [no obj] (golf) The ball hooked into the rough.
hook into [phrasal verb] hook into (something) informal : to become connected to (something, such as a computer network or a source of electrical power) ▪ We don't have the hardware we need to hook into the network.
hook up [phrasal verb] 1 informal : to join together to do something ▪ The two men hooked up to form a new company. — often + with ▪ She hooked up with a guitarist and drummer. 2 chiefly US, informal : to meet at a place ▪ We are planning to hook up after the game. — often + with ▪ We plan to hook up with our friends after the game. 3 hook (someone) up chiefly US, informal a : to cause (someone) to have a friendly or romantic relationship with someone ▪ They hooked him up with some new friends. [=they introduced him to some new friends] ▪ She tried to hook him up with [=fix him up with] one of her friends. b : to provide (someone) with something that is needed or wanted ▪ Don't worry. I'll hook you up. — usually + with ▪ She hooked me up with some great tickets. 4 hook up (something or someone) or hook (something or someone) up : to attach (something or someone) to a device by means of electrical connections ▪ hook up the wires/speakers ▪ The patient was hooked up to a monitor/respirator. — see also HOOKUP

hooked adj
1 : shaped like a hook ▪ the bird's hooked beak
2 not used before a noun, informal a : addicted to a drug — usually + on ▪ He was hooked on cocaine. b : very interested in and enthusiastic about something ▪ Her friends talked her into playing golf, and now she's hooked. — usually + on ▪ He's hooked on skiing. ▪ She got hooked on the show after watching one episode.

hook•er /ˈhʊkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : PROSTITUTE hook shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] basketball : a shot made by swinging the ball up and over your head with a long movement of your arm hook•up /ˈhʊkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : an arrangement or part by which pieces of equipment can be connected ▪ The interview will be broadcast through a satellite hookup. ▪ The cabin has electric and water hookups. ▪ telephone/computer/Internet hookups — see also hook up at ²HOOK

hooky also hook•ey /ˈhʊki/ noun play hooky US, informal : to be away from school without permission : to not be at school when you should be ▪ He was playing hooky [=skipping school] with his friends.

hoo•li•gan /ˈhu:lɪgən/ noun, pl -gans [count] : a usually young man who does noisy and violent things as part of a group or gang ▪ The windows were broken by a gang of teenage hooligans. ▪ soccer hooligans [=violent soccer fans who fight against other soccer fans]
– hoo•li•gan•ism /ˈhu:lɪgəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

hoop /ˈhu:p/ noun, pl hoops [count]
1 a : a circular object : a large ring ▪ She wore gold hoops as earrings. = She wore hoop earrings. b : a large metal ring used for holding together the sides of a barrel c : a large ring used by performers or for play — see also HULA-HOOP
2 basketball a : a metal ring that the ball must go through in order to score points ▪ He grabbed the rebound and put the ball back up through the hoop. [=basket, net] b informal : a successful shot ▪ They scored a quick hoop [=basket, bucket] on a fast break. c US, informal : BASKETBALL ▪ hoop fans — usually plural ▪ hoops fans ▪ Let's play/shoot some hoops. ▪ a game of hoops ▪ college/pro hoops
3 : an arch through which the ball must be hit in the game of croquet : WICKET jump through hoops see ¹JUMP

hoop•la /ˈhu:ˌplɑ:/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal + usually disapproving : talk or writing that is designed to get people excited about and interested in something ▪ Many people have grown tired of all the hoopla surrounding the opening of the new theater.

hooray variant spelling of HURRAH

hoose•gow /ˈhu:sˌgaʊ/ noun
the hoosegow US, informal + humorous : PRISON, JAIL ▪ The cops threatened to throw him in the hoosegow.

¹hoot /ˈhu:t/ noun, pl hoots [count]
1 : the loud, deep sound made by an owl; also : a similar loud, deep sound ▪ (Brit) the hoot [=honk] of a car's horn
2 : a loud laugh or call made by a person ▪ hoots of laughter ▪ The announcement was met with hoots of derision/scorn.
3 informal : an amusing person or thing — usually singular ▪ Your father is a hoot. ▪ Wasn't that a hoot?
give a hoot also care a hoot informal : to care at all about someone or something — used in negative statements ▪ I don't care a hoot about what they say. ▪ I don't give two hoots about his problems.

²hoot verb hoots; hoot•ed; hoot•ing
1 [no obj] of an owl : to make a hoot ▪ We could hear an owl hooting in the woods.
2 Brit a [no obj] of a horn : to make a loud sound : HONK ▪ a hooting horn b Brit : to cause (a horn) to hoot [+ obj] The people in the cars behind us kept hooting [=(US) honking] their horns. [no obj] I hooted at the car in front of me.
3 : to call out or laugh loudly [no obj] The crowd booed and hooted when it was announced that the show was canceled. [+ obj] The crowd hooted its disapproval. ▪ The speaker was hooted down by a small group of protesters. [=the protesters loudly shouted at the speaker so that the speaker could not be heard] ▪ The speaker was hooted off the platform by a small group of protesters.

hoot•er /ˈhu:tɚ/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] : a person or device that hoots
2 hooters [plural] US, informal + impolite : a woman's breasts
3 [count] Brit slang : ¹NOSE 1 ▪ He has an enormous hooter.

hoo•ver /ˈhu:vɚ/ verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing Brit : VACUUM [no obj] I spent the morning hoovering. [+ obj] She hoovered the carpet.

hooves plural of ¹HOOF

¹hop /ˈhɑ:p/ verb hops; hopped; hop•ping
1 [no obj] : to move by a quick jump or series of jumps ▪ He hopped over the hot sand. ▪ We crossed the stream by hopping from one rock to another. ▪ A frog was hopping along the edge of the pond. ▪ I sprained my ankle and had to hop (on one foot) back to the house to get help.
2 [+ obj] : to jump over (something) ▪ hop a puddle/fence
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] informal a : to move or go quickly ▪ I hopped out of bed, got dressed, and headed off to work. ▪ I need to hop into the shower [=I need to take a quick shower] before we go. ▪ He hopped in the car and drove off. ▪ She hopped on the train/elevator/plane. b : to go from place to place without staying long at any one place ▪ We spent the evening hopping from one night club to another. ▪ She's been hopping from job to job for years.
4 informal a [+ obj] US : to ride on (an airplane, train, etc.) ▪ She hopped [=took] the first available flight to New York. b always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make a short trip especially in an airplane ▪ They plan to hop down/over to the conference. — see also HOPPING hop it Brit, informal : to go away quickly ▪ She told her brother to hop it [=beat it] and leave her alone.
hop to it informal : to act or move quickly ▪ The car was ready to leave and he was told to hop to it.

²hop noun, pl hops [count]
1 a : a short, quick jump ▪ She did a little hop to the left. b : the bounce of a ball ▪ The shortstop fielded the ball on the second hop.
2 old-fashioned : a social event with dancing ▪ a sock hop [=a social event of the 1950s in the U.S. at which teenagers danced in their socks]
3 informal a : a short flight in an airplane ▪ a hop down to Philadelphia b chiefly US : a short trip ▪ a quick hop to the grocery store a hop, skip, and (a) jump informal : a short distance ▪ Her house is just a hop, skip, and jump from mine.
– see also HIP-HOP

¹hope /ˈhoʊp/ verb hopes; hoped; hop•ing : to want something to happen or be true and think that it could happen or be true [no obj] No one knows yet if anyone survived the crash. At this point, we can only hope. ▪ "Will you be able to come to the party?" "I hope so." [=I want to go to the party

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

but am not sure that I will be able to] ▪ "Will you have to miss the party?" "I hope not." [=I do not want to miss the party] — often + for ▪ He's hoping for a promotion. ▪ An apology is the best/most we can hope for. ▪ She was hoping for an invitation to the party. ▪ She finally got her hoped-for promotion. ▪ All we can do is hope for the best. [=hope that things will turn out as well as possible] [+ obj] She hoped that she would be invited to the party. = She hoped to receive an invitation to the party. ▪ We all hope (that) things will be better soon. = We're all hoping (that) things will be better soon. ▪ They hope to succeed. ▪ I hope (that) she remembers. ▪ I hope you're feeling better soon. ▪ That's what she hoped would happen. ▪ It is (to be) hoped that the strike will end soon. ▪ Let's hope that the strike ends soon. ▪ I hope I haven't bored you. ▪ Everyone in your family is well, I hope.

here's hoping informal — used to say that you hope something will happen ▪ Here's hoping (that) it doesn't rain.

hope against hope : to hope for something when you know that it will probably not happen or be true ▪ We're hoping against hope that they survived the crash.

[2]hope noun, pl hopes

1 : the feeling of wanting something to happen and thinking that it could happen : a feeling that something good will happen or be true [noncount] When they started their life together, they were young and full of hope. ▪ Rescuers have not yet abandoned/lost hope that more survivors will be found. ▪ The drug has brought/given hope to thousands of sufferers. [count] We allowed ourselves to entertain hopes that the crisis would end soon. ▪ The goal raised/lifted the hopes of the team. ▪ The hope is that there will be a settlement soon. ▪ The lawyers do not want to raise false hopes of an early settlement. ▪ Our hopes are fading/dwindling. ▪ We had high hopes of winning the game. [=we felt we had a very good chance of winning the game] ▪ You shouldn't get your hopes up. [=feel so hopeful] ▪ She went back to the restaurant with hopes of finding her purse there. = She went back to the restaurant with the hope of finding her purse there. [=because she thought and hoped that she might find her purse there] ▪ He told them the truth with the hope that they would understand.

2 [noncount] : the chance that something good will happen ▪ She believes there's hope of/for a cure. [=that a cure is possible] ▪ He had little/no hope of attending college. ▪ The latest reports hold out hope for a possible end to this crisis. ▪ They have a glimmer/ray of hope [=a small chance] of winning. ▪ His condition is beyond hope. [=his condition is hopeless]

3 [singular] : someone or something that may be able to provide help : someone or something that gives you a reason for hoping ▪ He's our last/best hope. ▪ At this point their only hope is that someone will offer to buy the company. ▪ What hope is there for someone like me?

4 [count] : something that is hoped for ▪ All my hopes have been fulfilled at last. ▪ Our fondest hope is that our children will be happy and healthy. ▪ We all have hopes and dreams for the future. ▪ We have great hopes for the coming year.

fix your hopes on/upon see [1]FIX

in (the) hope of/that or in hopes of/that : with the hope that something will happen or could happen ▪ He returned to the crime scene in (the) hope of finding further evidence. ▪ He waited in hopes that she would show up.

live in hope chiefly Brit : to hope for something when you know that it will probably not happen or be true ▪ We live in hope that there will be some survivors of the crash.

pin (all) your hopes on see pin on at [2]PIN hope chest noun, pl ~ chests [count] US, old-fashioned : a chest or box in which a young woman keeps things (such as silverware and linen) that she will use after she gets married

[1]hope•ful /ˈhoʊpfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : full of hope ▪ The mood is sad rather than hopeful. ▪ a hopeful message : feeling or showing hope ▪ He was hopeful that things would get better soon. ▪ I still feel hopeful about the future. ▪ She is hopeful of winning the race. ▪ a hopeful tone of voice

2 : giving someone feelings of hope ▪ There are hopeful signs that the crisis may end soon. ▪ The movie has a hopeful ending. ▪ Investigators report that there have been some hopeful developments in the case.

– hope•ful•ness noun [noncount]

[2]hopeful noun, pl -fuls [count] : a person who hopes to do something ▪ a presidential hopeful [=a person who hopes to become president] ▪ young hopefuls in Hollywood

hope•ful•ly /ˈhoʊpfəli/ adv

1 : in a hopeful manner ▪ They gazed up at us hopefully.

2 : it is hoped : I hope : we hope ▪ Hopefully, it won't rain tomorrow. [=I hope that it won't rain tomorrow] ▪ Hopefully, things will get better soon.

hope•less /ˈhoʊpləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having or feeling no hope ▪ He felt confused and hopeless after losing his job.

2 a always used before a noun : unable to be changed ▪ She's a hopeless romantic. b informal : unable to be helped or improved : very bad ▪ We were the most hopeless group of golfers you ever saw. ▪ We were hopeless at (playing) golf.

3 : giving no reason for hope ▪ a hopeless situation ▪ He's very ill, but his condition isn't hopeless.

4 : unable to be solved or done : IMPOSSIBLE ▪ a hopeless problem/task

– hope•less•ly /ˈhoʊpləsli/ adv ▪ He stared hopelessly out the window. — used especially to add force to a statement ▪ He's a hopelessly naive person. ▪ She was hopelessly addicted to tobacco. ▪ They fell hopelessly in love. – hope•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ feelings of hopelessness

hopped–up /ˈhɑːptˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal

1 : showing or feeling the effects of a drug ▪ a hopped-up addict ▪ She was hopped-up on morphine.

2 : very energetic or excited ▪ hopped-up music ▪ The cast was hopped-up on opening night.

3 : having more than usual power ▪ a hopped-up [=souped-up] engine hop•per /ˈhɑːpə/ noun, pl -pers

1 [count] : someone or something that hops ▪ (informal) a job hopper [=someone who keeps changing jobs] ▪ The third baseman caught a hopper. [=a ball that bounced on the ground]

2 [count] : a container that is used for pouring material (such as grain or coal) into a machine or opening

3 the hopper US a : a box that bills are put into before they are considered by a legislature b : a mix of things to be considered or done ▪ The company has several new product ideas in the hopper.

[1]hop•ping /ˈhɑːpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] informal : the activity of going from one place to another place of the same kind — usually used in combination ▪ Every night they went club-hopping. [=they went to a number of different clubs every night] ▪ gallery-hopping ▪ bar-hopping

[2]hopping adj, informal : very busy or active ▪ The bar was hopping. ▪ The boss kept me hopping all day.

[3]hopping adv, informal : very or extremely — used in the phrase hopping mad ▪ Many employees are hopping mad over the new contract.

hop•py /ˈhɑːpi/ adj : having the taste or smell of hops ▪ a hoppy beer/flavor hops /ˈhɑːps/ noun [plural] : the dried flowers of a plant that are used to give a bitter flavor to beer and ale

[1]hop•scotch /ˈhɑːpˌskɑːʧ/ noun [noncount] : a child's game in which players hop through a series of squares drawn on the ground

[2]hopscotch verb -scotch•es; -scotched; -scotch•ing [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to move from one place to another ▪ The tour hopscotched from city to city. ▪ We hopscotched across the country.

horde /ˈhoəd/ noun, pl hordes [count] usually disapproving : a large group of people ▪ A horde of tourists entered the museum. ▪ Hordes of reporters were shouting questions.

Do not confuse horde with hoard.

ho•ri•zon /həˈraɪzn/ noun, pl -zons

1 the horizon : the line where the earth or sea seems to meet the sky ▪ We sailed toward the horizon. ▪ The sun rose slowly over/above the eastern horizon. — see color picture on page C7

2 [count] a : the limit or range of a person's knowledge, understanding, or experience ▪ Reading broadens/expands our horizons. b : the limit of what is possible in a particular field or activity ▪ These discoveries have opened up new horizons in the field of cancer research.

on the horizon : coming in the near future ▪ Scientists believe that a major breakthrough is on the horizon.

hor•i•zon•tal /ˌhorəˈzɑːntl/ adj : positioned from side to side rather than up and down : parallel to the ground ▪ a horizontal line/beam — compare VERTICAL – horizontal noun, pl -tals [count] ▪ a design with strong horizontals [=horizontal lines or parts] – hor•i•zon•tal•ly

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

/ˌhorəˈzɑːntli/ adv ▪ The line extends horizontally.

hor•mone /ˈhoəˌmoʊn/ noun, pl -mones [count] : a natural substance that is produced in the body and that influences the way the body grows or develops ▪ sex hormones ▪ a hormone deficiency
– hor•mon•al /hoəˈmoʊnl/ adj ▪ hormonal changes – hormonally adv ▪ hormonally controlled changes hormone replacement therapy noun [noncount] medical : the use of the hormone estrogen to treat symptoms of menopause

[1]horn /ˈhoən/ noun, pl horns
1 [count] a : one of the hard pointed parts that grows on the head of some animals (such as cattle, goats, or sheep) b [count] : a hard pointed part that grows on the nose of a rhinoceros c [noncount] : the hard material of which horns are made ▪ utensils made of horn
2 [count] : something that is shaped like a horn ▪ a saddle horn
3 [count] a : a brass musical instrument (such as a trumpet or trombone) — see also ENGLISH HORN, FRENCH HORN b : an instrument made from an animal's horn that is used for music or for producing loud signals
4 [count] : a device that makes a loud noise ▪ The driver in the car behind me blew/honked his horn. — see picture at CAR
5 the horn US slang : [1]TELEPHONE ▪ When he heard there was trouble, he got on the horn to the police. [=he phoned the police] blow your own horn or toot your own horn US, informal : to talk about yourself or your achievements especially in a way that shows that you are proud or too proud ▪ We've had a very successful year, and I think we have a right to blow our own horn [=(Brit) blow our own trumpet] a little.
lock horns see [2]LOCK on the horns of a dilemma : in a situation in which you have to choose between things that are unpleasant or undesirable pull in your horns also draw in your horns : to begin to behave in a more careful way; especially : to spend or invest money more carefully ▪ The bad economic news has caused many investors to pull in their horns.
take the bull by the horns see [1]BULL
– horn•less /ˈhoənləs/ adj ▪ a hornless animal

[2]horn verb horns; horned; horn•ing
horn in [phrasal verb] US, informal + usually disapproving : to add your comment or opinion to a conversation or discussion that you have been listening to ▪ Whenever I start to talk, he always horns in. — usually + on ▪ He always horns in on the conversation.

horned /ˈhoənd/ adj : having horns or parts that look like horns ▪ a horned dinosaur ▪ horned cattle ▪ a horned owl [=an owl that has feathers on its head that look like ears or horns]

hor•net /ˈhoənət/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a flying insect that has a powerful sting hornet's nest noun [singular]

1 : a situation or place in which there are many dangers ▪ The principal entered the hornet's nest of angry parents.
2 : an angry reaction ▪ His comments stirred up a hornet's nest of angry opposition and criticism.

horn–rimmed glasses noun [plural] : eyeglasses with frames made of a plastic that resembles horn (sense 1c)

horn–rims /ˈhoənˌrɪmz/ noun [plural] : HORN-RIMMED GLASSES

horny /ˈhoəni/ adj horn•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : made of horn (sense 1c) or a similar substance ▪ a horny growth
2 : hard and tough ▪ horny skin
3 informal : sexually excited ▪ horny teenagers

horo•scope /ˈhorəˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] : advice and future predictions based on the date of a person's birth and the positions of the stars and planets ▪ She checked the newspaper for her horoscope.

hor•ren•dous /həˈrɛndəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad or unpleasant : HORRIBLE ▪ horrendous crimes ▪ Her taste in clothes is horrendous. ▪ a horrendous traffic jam
– hor•ren•dous•ly adv

hor•ri•ble /ˈhorəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing horror : very shocking and upsetting ▪ He suffered a horrible death. ▪ The crime scene was too horrible to describe. ▪ a horrible accident
2 : very bad or unpleasant ▪ a horrible [=disgusting] smell ▪ That was a horrible [=terrible, awful] movie. ▪ The team had a horrible season last year. ▪ He realized that he had made a horrible mistake.
– hor•ri•bly /ˈhorəbli/ adv ▪ He died horribly. ▪ He was horribly disfigured in the fire. ▪ Something had gone horribly wrong.

hor•rid /ˈhorəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very shocking or bad ▪ People there are living in horrid conditions. ▪ a horrid [=horrible] crime
2 : very unpleasant ▪ The medicine was horrid. ▪ He's a horrid little man.
– hor•rid•ly adv

hor•ri• c /hoəˈrɪfɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing horror or shock ▪ a horrific crime
– hor•ri• c•al•ly adv ▪ a horrifically brutal murder ▪ horrifically expensive hor•ri•fy /ˈhorəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel horror or shock : to greatly upset and shock (someone) ▪ The details of the crime horrified the nation. ▪ They were horrified by/at the movie's violence.

– horri ed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was horrified to realize that his comments had been overheard. ▪ She had a horrified look on her face. – horrifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a horrifying experience – hor•ri•fy•ing•ly adv ▪ a horrifyingly brutal crime

[1]hor•ror /ˈhorə/ noun, pl -rors
1 [noncount] : a very strong feeling of fear, dread, and shock ▪ There was a look of horror on her face. ▪ He saw to his horror that he couldn't escape. [=he was horrified to see that he couldn't escape] ▪ The crowd watched in horror as the fire spread.
2 [noncount] : the quality of something that causes feelings of fear, dread, and shock : the horrible or shocking quality or character of something ▪ His friends were shocked by the horror of his death. ▪ the horror of war
3 : something that causes feelings of fear, dread, and shock : something that is shocking and horrible [count] His crimes were unspeakable horrors. ▪ His memoirs recount the horrors of the war. [noncount] tales of horror
4 [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a child who behaves very badly ▪ Their children are perfect little horrors!
have a horror of : to have a strong dislike for or fear of (something) ▪ Some students seem to have a horror of using the dictionary. ▪ Like many teenagers, she has a horror of being seen in public with her parents. ▪ He has a horror of being caught unprepared.
horror of horrors informal + humorous — used to describe something as shocking or horrible ▪ There was no television at the cabin, so—horror of horrors!—we had to spend the evenings reading books and playing board games.
shock horror see [3]SHOCK

[2]horror adj, always used before a noun : intended to cause feelings of fear or horror ▪ a horror movie ▪ He writes horror novels.

horror show noun, pl ~ shows [count] informal : something that is difficult to deal with or watch because it is so bad, unpleasant, etc. ▪ The trial has been a horror show.

horror story noun, pl ~ -ries [count] informal
1 : a story about an actual event or experience that is very unpleasant ▪ We've all heard horror stories about airlines losing people's luggage.
2 : an experience that is very unpleasant ▪ Her childhood was a horror story.

hors d'oeuvre /oəˈdəv/ noun, pl hors d'oeuvres [count] : a food served in small portions before the main part of a meal ▪ a tray of assorted hors d'oeuvres

[1]horse /ˈhoəs/ noun, pl hors•es
1 [count] : a large animal that is used for riding and for carrying and pulling things ▪ ride/mount a horse — often used before another noun ▪ a horse farm ▪ horse people [=people who raise or have a special interest in horses] — compare COLT, FILLY, FOAL, GELDING, MARE, PONY, STALLION; see also QUARTER HORSE, RACEHORSE, WORKHORSE
2 [count] a : a frame used to support a piece of wood while it is being cut with a saw : SAWHORSE b : a large piece of equipment used in gymnastics : POMMEL HORSE
3 horses [plural] informal a US : HORSEPOWER ▪ a car with 275 horses b the horses : horse races ▪ He lost a lot of money on the horses.
4 [count] US, informal : an athlete who is strong and who helps a team to win — usually plural ▪ a team with the horses to win the pennant [=a team with the good players needed to win the pennant]

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

a horse of a different color chiefly US, informal : a very different thing or issue ▪ That's what we'll do when he gets here. But if he doesn't show up . . . well, that's a horse of a different color.

beat a dead horse (chiefly US) or flog a dead horse informal 1 : to keep talking about a subject that has already been discussed or decided ▪ I don't mean to beat a dead horse, but I still don't understand what happened. 2 : to waste time and effort trying to do something that is impossible ▪ Is it just beating a dead horse to ask for another recount of the votes?

change horses in midstream : to choose a different leader or policy during a time when serious problems are being dealt with ▪ a politician whose slogan for reelection is "Don't change horses in midstream"

eat a horse informal ✧ Someone who is very hungry can be described as being hungry enough to eat a horse. ▪ I didn't eat today and now I'm so hungry I could eat a horse.

from the horse's mouth informal, of information : from the original source or person and therefore thought to be true ▪ I know it's hard to believe but I heard it (straight) from the horse's mouth.

hold your horses informal — used to tell someone to slow down, stop, or wait for a short time ▪ "Hurry up. We need to get going." "Hold your horses. I'll be ready in a minute."

look a gift horse in the mouth : to look in a critical way at something that has been given to you ▪ I noticed the guitar wasn't made of real wood, but I didn't say anything because you shouldn't look a gift horse in the mouth.

put the cart before the horse see [1]CART

the wrong horse ✧ If you choose/pick/back (etc.) the wrong horse, you choose or support someone or something that is not successful. ▪ The company has been losing money, and many investors are beginning to feel that they may have backed the wrong horse.

– see also CHARLEY HORSE, DARK HORSE, HIGH HORSE, HOBBYHORSE, ONE-HORSE, ROCKING HORSE, SEA HORSE, STALKING HORSE, TROJAN HORSE

[2]horse verb horses; horsed; hors•ing

horse around or Brit horse about [phrasal verb] informal : to play in a rough or loud way : to engage in horseplay ▪ They were horsing around instead of studying. ▪ He horsed around with the kids for a while.

[1]horse•back /ˈhoəsˌbæk/ noun

on horseback : on the back of a horse ▪ Before the invention of the automobile, people often traveled on horseback. [=they traveled by riding horses]

[2]horseback adj, always used before a noun : on the back of a horse ▪ a horseback rider [=a person riding on a horse] ▪ Do you enjoy horseback riding? [=the activity of riding horses]

– horseback adv, chiefly US ▪ riding horseback horse chestnut noun, pl ~ -nuts [count] : a tree with flowers that grow in large bunches and large brown seeds; also : the seed of a horse chestnut tree horse–drawn adj : pulled by a horse or by a group of horses ▪ a horse-drawn carriage horse•feath•ers /ˈhoəsˌfɛðəz/ noun [noncount] US, old-fashioned slang : foolish or untrue words : NONSENSE ▪ He thought the story was a lot of horsefeathers.

horse• y /ˈhoəsˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies [count] : a type of large biting fly horse•hair /ˈhoəsˌheə/ noun [noncount] : hair from the mane or tail of a horse

– horsehair adj ▪ horsehair fabric ▪ a horsehair couch/sofa [=a couch/sofa filled with horsehair]

horse laugh noun, pl ~ laughs [count] informal : a loud laugh horse•man /ˈhoəsmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : a person (especially a man) who rides horses ▪ a skillful horseman

2 : a person (especially a man) who breeds or raises horses — compare HORSEWOMAN

– horse•man•ship /ˈhoəsmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] ▪ a camp where children learn horsemanship [=learn how to ride horses]

horse opera noun, pl ~ -eras [count] chiefly US, old-fashioned : [2]WESTERN ▪ the star of many horse operas horse•play /ˈhoəsˌpleɪ/ noun [noncount] : rough or loud play : energetic and noisy playful activity ▪ The lamp got broken when the kids were engaging in a little horseplay.

horse•pow•er /ˈhoəsˌpawə/ noun, pl horsepower : a unit used to measure the power of engines [noncount] We need an engine with greater/more horsepower. [=a more powerful engine] [count] an engine with 200 horsepower — often used figuratively ▪ intellectual horsepower

horse race noun, pl ~ races [count]

1 : an event in which horses race and people bet on which horse will win

2 chiefly US : a close contest ▪ The election is sure to become a horse race by early summer.

– horse•rac•ing /ˈhoəsˌreɪsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He lost a lot of money betting on horseracing.

horse•rad•ish /ˈhoəsˌrædɪʃ/ noun, pl -ish•es

1 [count] : a tall plant whose root is used for making a sauce

2 [noncount] : a strong sauce made from the root of the horseradish plant — often used before another noun ▪ a spicy horseradish sauce horse's ass noun, pl ~ asses [count] US, informal + impolite : a very stupid or foolish person : ASS ▪ She angrily told him to stop acting like a horse's ass.

horse sense noun [noncount] informal : the ability to make good judgments or decisions : common sense ▪ He credits his success to good old-fashioned horse sense.

horse•shit /ˈhoəsˌʃɪt/ noun [noncount] US, informal + offensive : NONSENSE, BULLSHIT horse•shoe /ˈhoəsˌʃu:/ noun, pl -shoes

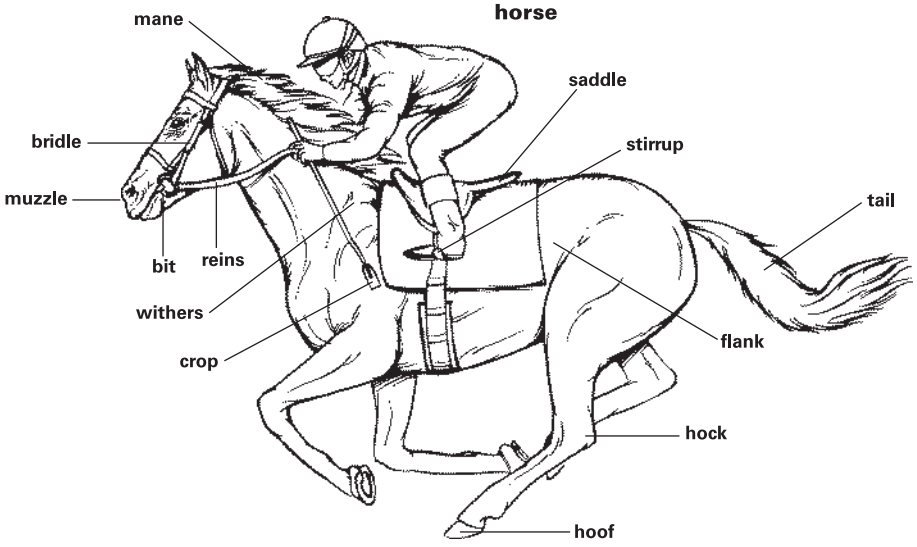
horse



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 54 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

1 [count] a : a U-shaped band of iron nailed to the bottom of a horse's hoof as a shoe b : something shaped like a horseshoe ▪ The lake was a horseshoe surrounded by tall pine trees.

horseshoe

2 horseshoes [plural] US : a game in which players try to get horseshoes around a stake in the ground by throwing them at the stake from a certain distance

horse show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : an event where people bring horses to compete against one another horse trade noun, pl ~ trades [count] : a clever and often secret agreement made by powerful people who are usually trying to get an advantage over others ▪ a political horse trade – horse trader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ a politician who is known as a clever horse trader – horse trading noun [noncount] ▪ political horse trading horse•whip /ˈhoəsˌwɪp/ verb -whips; -whipped; -whip•ping [+ obj] : to hit (someone) with a whip ▪ He thinks that any government official who steals public money should be horsewhipped.

horse•wom•an /ˈhoəsˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count]
1 : a woman who rides horses
2 : a woman who breeds or manages horses — compare HORSEMAN

hors•ey or horsy /ˈhoəsi/ adj hors•i•er; -est
1 : of, relating to, or involved with horses ▪ horsey people [=people who own or are interested in horses] ▪ a horsey family
2 : suggesting a horse or horses ▪ a horsey face

hor•ti•cul•ture /ˈhoətəˌkʌlʧə/ noun [noncount] : the science of growing fruits, vegetables, and flowers — compare AGRICULTURE – hor•ti•cul•tur•al /ˌhoətəˈkʌlʧərəl/ adj ▪ horticultural books – hor•ti•cul•tur•ist /ˌhoətəˈkʌlʧərɪst/ or chiefly Brit hor•ti•cul•tur•al•ist /ˌhoətəˈkʌlʧrəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ They had several horticulturists on staff to care for the orchard.

ho•san•na /hoʊˈzænə, hoʊˈzɑːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : an expression of enthusiastic praise ▪ The book was met with hearty hosannas from literary critics. [=literary critics praised the book enthusiastically] — sometimes used as an interjection ▪ Hosanna in the highest!

[1]hose /ˈhoʊz/ noun
1 pl hos•es : a long, usually rubber tube that liquids or gases can flow through [count] There are several hoses stored in the shed. ▪ a fire hose [=a hose used to spray water on a fire] ▪ a garden hose [=a hose used to water a garden] [noncount] We need another 50 feet of hose. — see pictures at GARDENING, SCUBA DIVING
2 hose [plural] : clothes (such as stockings, socks, and pantyhose) that are worn on the legs and feet ▪ women's hose — called also hosiery

[2]hose verb hos•es; hosed; hos•ing [+ obj]
1 : to spray or wash (something) with water from a hose — usually + down or off ▪ At the end of the day he hosed down/off the sidewalk outside his shop.
2 US slang : to cheat or trick (someone) ▪ We got hosed.

hose•pipe /ˈhoʊzˌpaɪp/ noun, pl -pipes [count] Brit : [1]HOSE 1

ho•siery /ˈhoʊʒəri, Brit ˈhəʊzjəri/ noun [noncount] : [1]HOSE 2 ▪ a shop that sells hosiery

hos•pice /ˈhɑːspəs/ noun, pl -pic•es [count]
1 : a place that provides care for people who are dying ▪ She chose to go to a hospice instead of a hospital. — often used before another noun ▪ He was placed in hospice care for the last three months of his life. ▪ a hospice program
2 somewhat old-fashioned : a place where travelers can stay : INN; especially : an inn kept by people in a religious organization hos•pi•ta•ble /hɑˈspɪtəbəl, ˈhɑːspɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : generous and friendly to guests or visitors ▪ The people of that country are very hospitable. — often + to ▪ They were very hospitable to their guests. — opposite INHOSPITABLE
2 : having an environment where plants, animals, or people can live or grow easily ▪ It's a hearty plant that grows in even the least hospitable climates. ▪ elderly people moving to Florida for its hospitable climate — often + to ▪ The climate here is hospitable to many species. — opposite INHOSPITABLE
3 : ready or willing to accept or consider something — usually + to ▪ a person/company known for being hospitable [=open] to new ideas – hos•pi•ta•bly /hɑˈspɪtəbli, ˈhɑːspɪtəbli/ adv ▪ Their guests are always treated hospitably.

hos•pi•tal /ˈhɑːspɪtl/ noun, pl -tals [count] : a place where sick or injured people are given care or treatment and where children are often born ▪ (US) She's in the hospital. = (Brit) She's in hospital. ▪ (US) She was admitted to the hospital yesterday. = (Brit) She was admitted to hospital yesterday. [=she was hospitalized yesterday] ▪ (US) She'll be discharged from the hospital tomorrow. = (Brit) She'll be discharged from hospital tomorrow. — often used before another noun ▪ hospital beds ▪ a hospital gown hos•pi•tal•i•ty /ˌhɑːspəˈtæləti/ noun [noncount]

1 : generous and friendly treatment of visitors and guests : hospitable treatment ▪ It was refreshing to be met with such hospitality after our long journey.
2 : the activity of providing food, drinks, etc. for people who are the guests or customers of an organization — often used before another noun ▪ a job in the hospitality business/industry ▪ entertaining potential clients in a hospitality suite hos•pi•tal•ize also Brit hos•pi•tal•ise /ˈhɑːspɪtəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to place (someone) in a hospital for care or treatment ▪ The doctor wants to hospitalize her for a few days so that he can run some tests. — usually used as (be) hospitalized ▪ He was hospitalized after the accident.

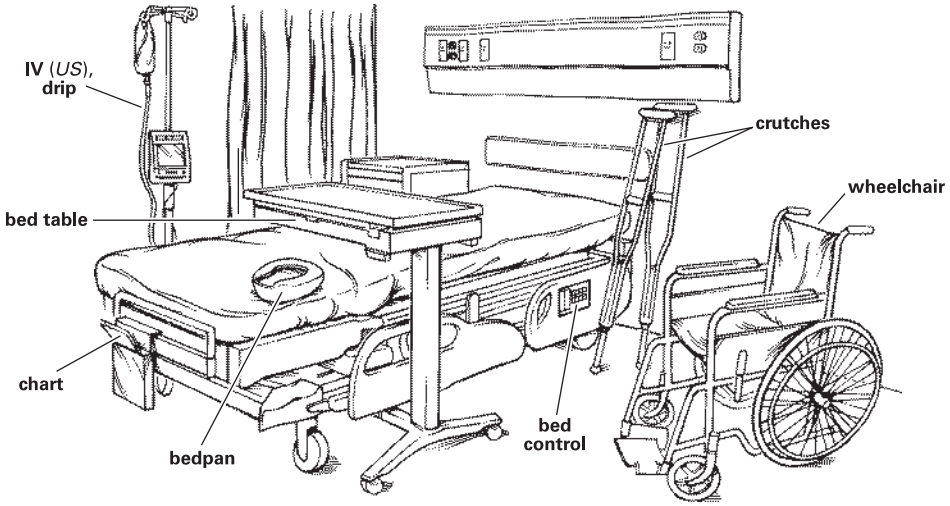
hospital



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

– hos•pi•tal•i•za•tion also Brit hos•pi•tal•i•sa•tion /ˌhɑːspɪtələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌhɑːspɪtəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] He was released after a brief hospitalization. [noncount] Her injuries were not serious enough to require hospitalization.

[1]host /ˈhoʊst/ noun, pl hosts [count]

1 : a person (especially a man) who is entertaining guests socially or as a job ▪ We were greeted at the front door by our host. — compare HOSTESS

2 : a person who talks to guests on a television or radio show ▪ He/she is the host of the talk show. ▪ a game-show host

3 : an animal or plant in which another animal or plant lives and gets its food or protection ▪ A tick can often carry diseases, making it a danger to its hosts. ▪ a human host — compare PARASITE 1 play host to ✧ A place or organization that plays host to an event (such as a meeting or convention) provides the things that are needed for that event. ▪ Each year, the city plays host to [=hosts] the film festival for one week. ▪ The mall was playing host to [=hosting] an auto show.

– compare [3]HOST

H

[2]host verb hosts; host•ed; host•ing [+ obj] : to be the host for (a social event, a group of people, etc.) ▪ He/she is going to host the music awards. ▪ They hosted a dinner party on Saturday.

[3]host noun, pl hosts [count] : a great amount or number ▪ a (whole) host of options — compare [1]HOST

Host /ˈhoʊst/ noun

the Host : a round, thin piece of bread used in the Christian Communion ceremony

hos•tage /ˈhɑːstɪʤ/ noun, pl -tag•es [count] : a person who is captured by someone who demands that certain things be done before the captured person is freed ▪ The terrorists demanded a plane and a pilot in exchange for the hostages. ▪ The hostage crisis is now entering its second week. ▪ The passengers were taken hostage. ▪ They were held hostage for several days. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a neighborhood being held hostage to fear [=a neighborhood controlled or dominated by fear]

a hostage to fortune ✧ In British English, a hostage to fortune is something (such as a promise or an action) that someone has made or done that may cause problems in the future. In U.S. English, this phrase is much less common and is usually understood to mean a person whose future success or failure is controlled by luck or fortune.

hos•tel /ˈhɑːstl/ noun, pl -tels [count]

1 : an inexpensive place for usually young travelers to stay overnight — called also youth hostel

2 Brit : a shelter for homeless people hos•tel•ry /ˈhɑːstlri/ noun, pl -ries [count] old-fashioned : an inn, pub, or hotel

host•ess /ˈhoʊstəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count]

1 : a woman who is entertaining guests socially or as a job ▪ We were greeted by our hostess. — compare HOST

2 : a woman whose job it is to greet and help people in a restaurant or on an airplane or ship

3 : a woman who talks to guests on a television or radio show ▪ She's the hostess of a popular talk show.

hos•tile /ˈhɑːstl, ˈhɑːˌstajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to an enemy ▪ They were entering hostile territory. ▪ hostile [=enemy] troops

2 : not friendly : having or showing unfriendly feelings ▪ a hostile atmosphere/expression ▪ Her suggestions were given a hostile reception. ▪ hostile behavior ▪ an openly hostile critic ▪ It was a small town that was hostile to/toward outsiders. ▪ a hostile witness [=a witness in a legal case who supports the opposing side]

3 : unpleasant or harsh ▪ The camel is specially adapted to its hostile desert habitat. ▪ a hostile workplace

4 business : involving an attempt to buy a company from people who do not want to sell it ▪ a hostile takeover

hos•til•i•ty /hɑˈstɪlətɪ/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : an unfriendly or hostile state, attitude, or action ▪ They were both glad to have gotten through the divorce proceedings without any visible signs of hostility. ▪ The townspeople showed open hostility to/toward outsiders.

2 hostilities [plural] formal : acts of fighting in a war ▪ Peace talks were stalled after recent hostilities. ▪ Both sides are calling for a cessation of hostilities.

[1]hot /ˈhɑːt/ adj hot•ter; hot•test

1 a : having a high temperature ▪ hot August nights ▪ hot and humid weather ▪ taking a hot bath/shower ▪ a hot climate/country ▪ It is/gets hot in the summer and cold in the winter. ▪ The baked potatoes were too hot to handle with our bare hands. ▪ We worked all afternoon in/under the hot sun. ▪ The chicken was fried in hot oil. ▪ Your forehead feels hot. I think you might have a fever. ▪ a blazing/sizzling/steaming hot afternoon ▪ boiling/burning/fiery hot — see also RED-HOT, WHITE-HOT b : having a feeling of high body heat ▪ I was feeling hot and tired. c of food or drink : heated to a hot or warm temperature : served at a hot or warm temperature ▪ hot cereal ▪ a hot meal ▪ a selection of hot beverages — see also PIPING HOT

2 informal a : currently liked or wanted by many people ▪ The new toys are so hot that stores can't keep them in stock. ▪ a hot new restaurant ▪ He's considered a hot [=appealing, desirable] prospect. : currently very active or strong ▪ Her new book is a hot seller. ▪ She spoke about the latest hot trends in the computer industry. : currently causing a lot of interest or discussion ▪ reporters pursuing a hot story ▪ a hot concept/idea ▪ His decision has been a hot topic of conversation. ✧ Something or someone that is a hot commodity/item/property is currently very valuable or popular. ▪ Exotic mushrooms are a hot commodity. ▪ The success of her latest movie has made her a hot property in Hollywood. ▪ Computer games are a hot item in stores this year. b : very good — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't think that's such a hot idea. [=I don't think it's a good idea] ▪ He came home early because he wasn't feeling too hot. [=he wasn't feeling well] ▪ Things aren't looking so hot at this point. c : having a period of unusual success or good luck ▪ The team has been hot recently. = The team has recently been on a hot streak. [=the team has been winning a lot recently] ▪ When you're hot, you're hot. [=when you are having good luck, you keep winning or succeeding repeatedly]

3 a : marked by anger or strong feelings ▪ a hot [=heated] argument ▪ His decision has been a topic of hot debate. ▪ This is an area of hot dispute. ✧ An issue or topic that is too hot to handle causes so much anger or controversy that people avoid discussing or dealing with it. b always used before a noun : easily excited or angered ▪ He's known for his hot [=bad] temper. c : ANGRY ▪ He was starting to get pretty hot about the delays. ▪ You shouldn't allow these little delays to get you all hot and bothered. [=to make you angry and upset] — see also HOT UNDER THE COLLAR (below)

4 of food : having a spicy or peppery flavor ▪ hot chilis ▪ hot sauce/mustard ▪ Do you prefer your curry hot or mild?

5 informal a : sexually excited by or interested in someone — + for ▪ Everyone knows she's hot for the new guy in her office. b : sexually attractive ▪ The girl he's dating is really hot. ▪ He was voted the hottest [=sexiest] actor in Hollywood. c : exciting in a sexual or romantic way ▪ He's nervous because he has a hot date tonight. d of sex : very intense or exciting ▪ hot sex e : EAGER — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She's hot to party. — sometimes + for ▪ The students are hot for reform.

6 music : having an exciting rhythm ▪ hot jazz

7 informal : very strong or determined ▪ We're going to face some hot competition.

8 : newly made : fresh and warm ▪ bread hot from the oven ✧ Something, such as a story or book, that is hot off the press has just recently been completed, published, or printed. ▪ His new book is hot off the press.

9 : following closely ▪ The police are in hot pursuit of the escaped convicts. [=the police are chasing the convicts and are close to catching them] ✧ To be hot on the heels of or hot on the trail of someone is to be chasing someone very closely. ▪ The escaped convicts are heading south, but the police are hot on their heels. ▪ The police are hot on the trail of the escaped convicts. To be/follow/come hot on the heels of something is to come or happen immediately or very soon after something. ▪ Their second album is coming hot on the heels of the first. To be hot on the trail of something is to be very close to doing, finding, or getting something. ▪ The company says it is hot on the trail of a new cancer treatment.

10 : very bright ▪ hot colors ▪ hot pink

11 : carrying electric current ▪ The black wire is hot.

12 informal : recently stolen ▪ hot jewels

13 informal : dangerous and difficult : difficult to deal with because of danger ▪ criminals who leave town when things get hot [=when there is too much danger that they will be caught by the police]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h blow hot and cold see [1]BLOW

hot and heavy informal : sexually intense, active, or exciting ▪ They have a very hot and heavy relationship.

hot on informal : strongly favoring or liking (something) ▪ The company president is very hot on [=big on] the idea of developing new products.

hot tip informal : a valuable piece of information about something (such as the stock market or a horse race) that can help someone get money or an advantage hot to trot informal : very eager to have sex ▪ a movie about a couple of college students who are hot to trot hot under the collar informal : angry or upset ▪ He tends to get a little hot under the collar when his wife keeps him waiting.

like a hot knife through butter see [1]KNIFE

strike while the iron is hot see [1]STRIKE

– hot•ly adv ▪ a hotly contested election ▪ a hotly debated issue ▪ He hotly denied any involvement in the controversy.

– hot•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the hotness [=spiciness] of the pepper

[2]hot verb hots; hot•ted; hot•ting

hot up [phrasal verb] Brit : to become more intense or lively ▪ The controversy has hotted up [=heated up] again.

hot air noun [noncount] informal : talk that is meant to sound important but does not mean very much ▪ She's full of hot air.

hot–air balloon noun, pl ~ -loons [count] : a large balloon that is filled with heated air and that floats in the sky with a basket underneath for people to ride in hot•bed /ˈhɑːtˌbɛd/ noun, pl -beds [count] : a place where something grows or develops easily : a place where something happens very commonly ▪ The neighborhood has become a hotbed of crime. [=a place where many crimes occur] ▪ a hotbed of research ▪ a hotbed of political unrest hot–blood•ed /ˈhɑːtˈblʌdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : becoming angry or excited very easily ▪ a hot-blooded young man

hot button noun, pl ~ -tons [count] : an issue that causes people to feel strong emotions (such as anger) and to argue with each other ▪ The film is considered very controversial for all the hot buttons it pushes. ▪ a political hot button

– hot–button adj, always used before a noun ▪ The budget is a real hot-button issue right now.

hot•cake /ˈhɑːtˌkeɪk/ noun, pl -cakes [count] chiefly US : PANCAKE like hotcakes informal : at a very fast rate : very quickly ▪ The new record is selling/going like hotcakes.

hot chocolate noun, pl ~ -lates [count, noncount] : a hot drink that is chocolate-flavored ▪ a cup of hot chocolate — called also hot cocoa

hotch•potch /ˈhɑːʧˌpɑːʧ/ noun [singular] Brit : HODGEPODGE

hot dog /ˈhɑːtˌdɑːg/ noun, pl ~ dogs [count]

1 : a small cooked sausage that is mild in flavor and is usually served in a long roll (called a hot dog bun)

2 US, informal : a person (such as an athlete) who performs or plays in a way that is meant to attract attention : a person who hotdogs ▪ The other players on the team don't like him because he's such a hot dog.

3 US, old-fashioned + humorous — used to express approval or pleasure ▪ "She said we could go!" "Hot dog!"

hot•dog /ˈhɑːtˌdɑːg/ verb -dogs; -dogged; -dog•ging [no obj] US, informal : to perform or play in a way that is meant to attract attention ▪ hotdogging skiers ▪ His opponents have accused him of hotdogging after he scores a touchdown.

– hot•dog•ger /ˈhɑtˌdɑgɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ They've accused him of being a hotdogger. [=hot dog]

ho•tel /hoʊˈtɛl/ noun, pl -tels [count] : a place that has rooms in which people can stay especially when they are traveling : a place that provides food, lodging, and other services for paying guests ▪ check into a hotel ▪ check out of a hotel

ho•tel•i•er /hoʊˈtɛljɚ/ noun, pl -iers [count] : a person who owns or operates a hotel

hot ash noun, pl ~ ashes [count] US : a sudden brief hot feeling experienced especially by women during menopause hot ush noun, pl ~ ushes [count] Brit : HOT FLASH hot•foot /ˈhɑːtˌfʊt/ verb -foots; -foot•ed; -foot•ing [no obj] informal : to go quickly — usually + it ▪ We had to hotfoot it [=hurry] back home to get there in time for dinner.

hot•head /ˈhɑːtˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a person who gets angry easily : a hotheaded person ▪ Working on the project with such a hothead has been unpleasant.

hot•head•ed /ˈhɑːtˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : easily angered ▪ a hotheaded boss; also : very angry ▪ He wrote a hot-headed letter.

hot•house /ˈhɑːtˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a heated building used for growing plants — compare GREENHOUSE

– hothouse adj, always used before a noun ▪ hothouse tomatoes [=tomatoes grown in a hothouse]

hot line noun, pl ~ lines [count]

1 : a telephone service for the public to use to get help in emergencies ▪ a suicide prevention hot line

2 : a telephone connection that allows leaders of different countries to talk to each other directly and that is always kept ready for use ▪ They set up a hot line between Washington and Moscow.

hot pants noun [plural] : very short and tight shorts for women hot plate noun, pl ~ plates [count] : a small portable device with a metal plate used for cooking or heating food hot pot noun, pl ~ pots [count, noncount] chiefly Brit : a mixture of meat and vegetables cooked together with liquid in a single pot hot potato noun, pl ~ -toes [count] informal : an issue or question about which people have different opinions and feel very strongly ▪ He tried to avoid taking a strong stand on political hot potatoes like abortion.

hot rod noun, pl ~ rods [count] informal : a car that has been changed so that it can be driven and raced at very fast speeds

hots /ˈhɑːts/ noun

the hots informal : strong feelings of sexual attraction for someone ▪ Everyone knows she has the hots for the new guy in her office. [=she is very attracted to the new guy in her office]

hot seat noun

the hot seat : the position of someone who is in trouble or is being asked many difficult or embarrassing questions ▪ When the company ran into financial trouble, it was the accountant who found herself in the hot seat.

hot•shot /ˈhɑːtˌʃɑːt/ noun, pl -shots [count] informal : a talented and successful person ▪ The company has hired a couple of young hotshots to revamp its advertising campaign. : someone who is successful or skillful in a showy or flashy way ▪ That guy thinks he's a real hotshot. — often used before another noun ▪ They've hired a hotshot lawyer.

hot spot noun, pl ~ spots [count] informal

1 : a very popular or active place ▪ The new restaurant is the latest hot spot in town. ▪ a vacation hot spot

2 : a place where there is much danger or fighting ▪ This part of the country is a hot spot of rebel activity. ▪ a global hot spot [=an area in the world where war is possible or likely] hot spring noun, pl ~ springs [count] : a place where hot water flows out of the ground — usually plural ▪ We hiked to the hot springs.

hot stuff noun [noncount] informal

1 : someone or something that is unusually good or popular ▪ I remember when that guy was hot stuff. [=I remember when he was very popular] ▪ His music was hot stuff back in those days.

2 : a person who is considered hot (sense 5b) : a sexually attractive person ▪ The new guy in her office is hot stuff.

hot–tem•pered /ˈhɑːtˈtɛmpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : becoming angry very easily : having or showing a hot temper ▪ a hot-tempered political activist ▪ a hot-tempered reply hot ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] US, informal : someone or something that is very popular ▪ The musical is this season's hot ticket. ▪ She's a hot ticket on the lecture circuit.

hot•tie /ˈhɑːti/ noun, pl -ties [count] informal : a sexually attractive person ▪ His girlfriend is a real hottie.

hot tub noun, pl ~ tubs [count] : a large tub of hot water in which people sit to relax or spend time together hot water noun [noncount] informal : a difficult situation : TROUBLE — used with in or into ▪ He's in hot water [=in trouble] with the IRS for failing to report his income. ▪ The book got her into hot water with people on both sides of the issue. [=the book made people on both sides of the issue angry at her]

hot–water bottle noun, pl ~ bottles [count] : a rubber

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

container that is filled with hot water and used to warm a bed or a part of your body hot–wire /ˈhɑːtˌwajə/ verb -wires; -wired; -wir•ing [+ obj] informal : to start (a car or the engine of a car) by connecting wires in the electrical system without using a key ▪ His car was stolen when somebody broke a window and hot-wired the engine.

[1]hound /ˈhaʊnd/ noun, pl hounds [count]
1 : a dog; especially : a type of dog that has a very good sense of smell and is trained to hunt
2 : a person who is very determined to get something especially for a collection : a very enthusiastic collector ▪ autograph hounds

[2]hound verb hounds; hound•ed; hound•ing [+ obj] : to chase or bother (someone or something) in a constant or determined way ▪ He is being hounded by the press. ▪ They hounded me with questions. ▪ They hounded me for my autograph. ▪ hound a politician out of office hour /ˈawə/ noun, pl hours

1 [count] : one of the 24 equal parts of a day : 60 minutes ▪ She wasn't supposed to eat for six hours before the operation. ▪ You'll be paid by the hour for/on this job. ▪ The job pays ten dollars an hour. ▪ We've been waiting (for) an hour. ▪ She exercises for a full/good/solid hour every day. ▪ He practiced the piano for hours at a time. = He spent hours practicing the piano. ▪ She was half an hour late. ▪ They arrived a few hours later. ▪ A project like that can take hours (to finish). ▪ The project required long/endless hours of work. ▪ He spent all his waking hours [=all of the hours in the day that he was awake] working on the project. ▪ (Brit) She has been working all the hours God sends. [=she has been working very long hours] ▪ He's counting the hours until his retirement. [=he is waiting eagerly for his retirement] ▪ We talked for hours and hours. = We talked for hours on end. = We talked for many hours. ▪ She grew more nervous with each passing hour. [=as each hour passed] ▪ The mood changed from hour to hour. — see also HALF HOUR, QUARTER HOUR
2 [count] a : the time shown on a clock or watch ▪ The hour [=time] is half past ten. [=10:30] ▪ We arrived just as the clock struck the hour. [=we arrived at exactly 12:00, 1:00, 2:00, etc.] ▪ (US) The program is scheduled to start at the top of the hour. [=at the beginning of the hour; at 12:00, 1:00, 2:00, etc.] ▪ The next train will leave on the hour. [=at the beginning of the next hour] ▪ Trains leave the station every hour on the hour. [=at the beginning of each hour; at 12:00, 1:00, 2:00, etc.] ▪ Trains leave the station every hour at ten minutes before the hour. [=trains leave at 12:50 (10 minutes to one), 1:50 (ten minutes to two), etc.] ▪ Trains leave every hour at ten minutes past the hour. = (chiefly US) Trains leave every hour at ten minutes after the hour. [=trains leave at 1:10, 2:10, etc.] b : a particular time during the day ▪ a late hour ▪ What are you doing here at this hour? [=why are you here at such a late hour?] ▪ at the midnight hour [=at midnight] ▪ These animals are most active in the hour just before sunrise. ▪ You can call me at any hour of the day or night. ▪ People began arriving in the early hours of the morning. ▪ The park is open during daylight hours. ▪ We arrived at the appointed hour. [=we arrived at the time that had been agreed upon] ▪ They serve breakfast at all hours. = They serve breakfast at any hour. [=at any time of day] ▪ These animals are active at all hours of the day. [=throughout the day] ▪ They were up till/until all hours. [=they were up very late] ▪ The store is open twenty-four hours a day. [=the store is open all day and night] ✧ The wee/small/early hours are the very early hours of the morning. ▪ They studied into the wee hours. ▪ The negotiations lasted into the small hours (of the morning).
3 a [count] : the time of a specified activity ▪ She likes to go for a walk during her lunch hour. ▪ the breakfast/dinner hour ▪ the cocktail hour — see also ELEVENTH HOUR, HAPPY HOUR, RUSH HOUR, ZERO HOUR b [count] : a particular time or period of time ▪ The hour of reckoning had come. [=the moment of truth had come; the time when something would be decided had come] ▪ They helped us in our hour of need. [=the time when we were most in need of help] ✧ The man/woman (etc.) of the hour is a person who is being honored or praised or who is enjoying success at a particular time. ▪ The success of his latest film has made him the man of the hour in Hollywood. ✧ Someone's or something's darkest hour is a time of great trouble or danger. ▪ They helped us in our darkest hour. ✧ Someone's or something's finest hour is a time of great success, courage, or heroism. ▪ The troops triumphed in our country's finest hour. c hours [plural] : a time scheduled or used for a particular purpose or activity ▪ School hours are from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. ▪ She works regular/normal hours. [=she works a regular schedule; she works during the day on Monday through Friday] ▪ She has been working longer hours. [=she has been working for more hours than usual each day] ▪ Visiting hours on this hospital ward are between 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. ▪ Personal phone calls are not allowed during business/office hours. ▪ He enjoys reading and relaxing in his off hours. [=the time when he is not working] ▪ We keep early hours out here in the country. [=we go to bed early] ▪ She has been keeping late hours at the office. [=she has been working late]
4 [count] : the distance that can be traveled in an hour ▪ She lives two hours away. ▪ Her house is two hours north of here. ▪ Her house is two hours' drive from here. = Her house is a two-hour drive from here.
5 hours [plural] — used to refer to time when time is being measured on a 24-hour clock ▪ In the military, 4:00 p.m. is called 1600 hours.
after hours or Brit out of hours : after the regular hours of work or operation ▪ The professor gave out his phone number so students could reach him after hours.
an/per hour — used in measurements that describe the speed of something ▪ The speed limit is 65 miles per hour. ▪ a fastball thrown at 88 miles an hour hour•glass /ˈawəˌglæs, Brit ˈawəˌglɑːs/ noun, pl -glass•es [count] : a device for measuring time ✧ An hourglass is a glass container with an upper part and a lower part connected by a narrow opening. The upper part contains sand which flows into the lower part in a specified amount of time (such as an hour).

– hourglass adj, always used before a noun ▪ an hourglass shape hour hand noun, pl ~ hands [count] : the short hand that marks the hours on a watch or clock — compare MINUTE HAND, SECOND HAND

hour•ly /ˈawəli/ adj
1 : happening every hour ▪ hourly bus service
2 a : paid for one hour of work ▪ an hourly wage [=an amount paid for each hour of work] b : paid by the hour : earning an hourly wage ▪ hourly workers
– hourly adv ▪ The news was updated hourly. [=every hour]

[1]house /ˈhaʊs/ noun, pl hous•es /ˈhaʊzəz/
1 a [count] : a building in which a family lives ▪ Would you like to come to my house for dinner? ▪ a two-family house ▪ I spent the weekend just puttering around the house. — often used before another noun ▪ house pets/plants ▪ a house guest ▪ house parties b [singular] : the people who live in a house ▪ He made enough noise to wake the whole house.
2 [count] a : a structure or shelter in which animals are kept — see also BIRDHOUSE, DOGHOUSE, HENHOUSE b : a building in which something is stored ▪ a carriage house — see also BOATHOUSE, WAREHOUSE
3 [count] : a building where students or members of a religious group live ▪ a fraternity house
4 a [count] : a group of people who meet to discuss and make the laws of a country ▪ The bill has been approved by both houses of Congress. ▪ The two houses of the U.S. Congress are the Senate [=the upper house] and the House of Representatives. [=the lower house] ▪ The two houses of the British Parliament are the House of Lords [=the upper house] and the House of Commons. [=the lower house] b the House : HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ▪ They hope to win enough seats in the election to regain control of the House. — see also HOUSE OF COMMONS, HOUSE OF LORDS
5 [count] a : a specified kind of business ▪ a publishing house ▪ fashion houses ▪ an investment banking house ▪ a brokerage house b : a place or building where a specified kind of activity or entertainment occurs ▪ an auction house ▪ a house of God/worship [=a place, such as a church, where people go for religious services] ▪ (US) a movie house [=a cinema, (US) a movie theater] : a place where an illegal activity occurs ▪ a gambling house ▪ a house of prostitution — see also OPERA HOUSE c : a particular kind of restaurant ▪ We had dinner at the local fish house. ▪ a seafood house ▪ Oyster stew is a specialty of the house. [=a special dish that is featured in a restaurant] ✧ A house wine is a basic wine that is always available in a restaurant. A house salad and a house (salad) dressing are the regular salad and dressing in a U.S. restaurant. ▪ Would you like the house salad or a spinach salad? ▪ The house dressing is a creamy vinaigrette. — see also COFFEEHOUSE, STEAK HOUSE
6 [count] : the audience in a theater or concert hall ▪ They had a full/packed house on opening night. ▪ When the movie

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

ended, there wasn't a dry eye in the house. [=everyone had tears in their eyes] ✧ To bring down the house or to bring the house down is to get great approval and applause or laughter from an audience. ▪ His performance brought down the house night after night.

7 House [count] : a royal or noble family including ancestors and all the people who are related to them ▪ the House of Tudor clean house US 1 : to clean the floors, furniture, etc., inside a house ▪ He cleans house on Tuesdays. 2 : to make important basic changes in an organization, business, etc., in order to correct problems ▪ After the corruption was revealed, the police chief decided it was time to clean house.

8 [noncount] : a type of electronic dance music with a heavy, regular beat — called also house music

(from) house to house ✧ If you go (from) house to house, you go to each house or apartment in an area and do or ask for something. ▪ Volunteers went from house to house asking for donations. — see also HOUSE-TO-HOUSE house in order ✧ To put/get/set (etc.) your house in order is to improve or correct the way you do things. ▪ We should get our (own) house in order before we criticize others for their mistakes. ▪ The company needs to get its financial house in order. [=to correct its financial problems]

keep house : to do the work that is needed to take care of a house ▪ When I started living on my own I had no idea how to cook or keep house. ▪ You need someone to keep house for you. — see also HOUSEKEEPER, HOUSEKEEPING like a house on fire informal : extremely well ▪ Those two got on/along like a house on fire. [=they liked each other very much] ▪ (US) The business started out like a house on fire. [=the business started very successfully] on the house : without charge : FREE ▪ The drinks are on the house.

people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones see [1]GLASS play house ✧ When children play house they pretend that they are adults and that they are doing the things that adults do in a house, such as cooking and serving food. ▪ She always loved playing house with her little sister.

set up house : to become settled in a house where you are going to live ▪ They moved to California and set up house in a suburb of Los Angeles.

– house•ful /ˈhaʊsˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ a houseful of guests

[2]house /ˈhaʊz/ verb hous•es; housed; hous•ing [+ obj]

1 : to provide shelter or a living space for (someone) ▪ More prisons are needed to house the growing number of inmates. — often used as (be) housed ▪ The soldiers were housed in poorly heated huts.

2 : to be a shelter for (something) : to store or contain (something) ▪ The museum houses an impressive collection of jewels. — often used as (be) housed ▪ The paintings are now housed in the National Gallery.

3 : to surround or enclose (something) in order to protect it ▪ The carpenter built casing to house the hot water pipes.

house arrest noun [noncount] law : the condition of being forced to stay in your home rather than in prison as a form of punishment — often used with under ▪ He was placed under house arrest until the trial.

house•boat /ˈhaʊsˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat that is also used as a house house•bound /ˈhaʊsˌbaʊnd/ adj : unable to leave your home ▪ She has been housebound since she fell.

house•break /ˈhaʊsˌbreɪk/ verb -breaks; -broke /-ˌbroʊk/; -bro•ken /-ˌbroʊkən/; -break•ing [+ obj] US : to train (an animal) to urinate or defecate outside the home or in an acceptable place indoors ▪ She's trying to housebreak [=(chiefly Brit) house-train] a puppy.

house•break•ing /ˈhaʊsˌbreɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of forcefully entering someone's house in order to commit a crime (such as robbery)

– house•break•er /ˈhaʊsˌbreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

housebroken adj, US, of an animal : trained to urinate or defecate outside the home or in an acceptable place indoors ▪ Pigs are said to make very good pets once they are housebroken. [=(chiefly Brit) house-trained] house call noun, pl ~ calls [count] chiefly US : a visit by a doctor to someone's house ▪ Does your doctor make house calls?

house cat noun, pl ~ cats [count] : a cat that is kept as a pet house•clean•ing /ˈhaʊsˌkliːnɪŋ/ noun [singular] : the act or activity of cleaning the inside of a house or apartment and its furniture, appliances, etc. ▪ We gave the place a thorough housecleaning.

house•coat /ˈhaʊsˌkoʊt/ noun, pl -coats [count] : an informal and often long and loose piece of clothing that is worn by a woman at home

house•dress /ˈhaʊsˌdrɛs/ noun, pl -dress•es [count] chiefly US : an informal dress that is usually worn only while cleaning or doing other housework house• y /ˈhaʊsˌflaɪ/ noun, pl - ies [count] : a common fly that lives in or near people's houses — see color picture on page C10 house•guest /ˈhaʊsˌgɛst/ noun, pl -guests [count] : a person who visits and usually stays in someone's home overnight ▪ We have houseguests this weekend.

[1]house•hold /ˈhaʊsˌhoʊld/ noun, pl -holds [count] : the people in a family or other group that are living together in one house ▪ At that time, not many households had telephones. ▪ This form should be filled out by the head of the household. [=the person in the house who is responsible for making decisions and earning money]

[2]household adj, always used before a noun

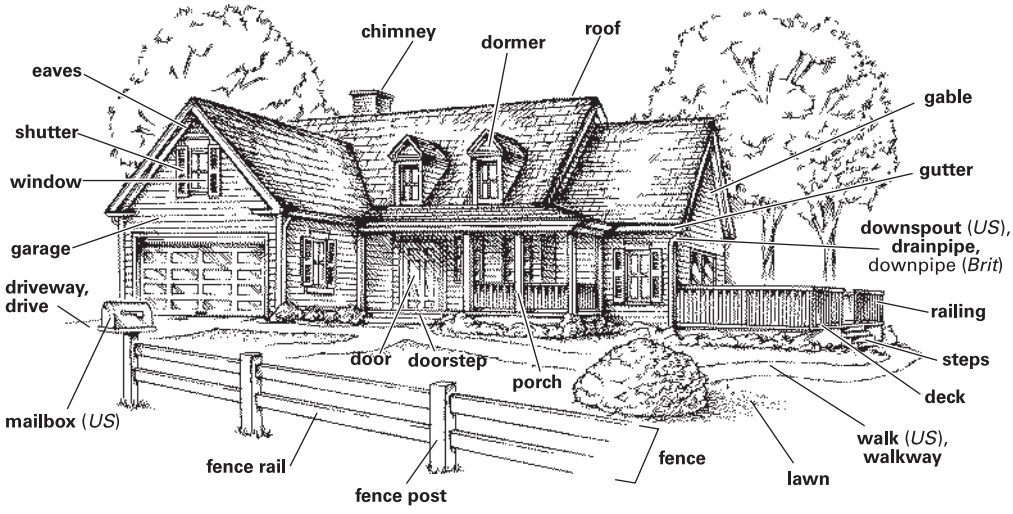
1 : of or relating to a house or to the people living in a house ▪ household appliances/chores

house



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

2 : known to many people : familiar or common ▪ a famous actor who has become a household name [=a person or thing whose name is very well-known] house•hold•er /ˈhaʊsˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit, formal : someone who lives in a house, apartment, etc.

house•hus•band /ˈhaʊsˌhʌzbənd/ noun, pl -bands [count] : a married man who stays at home, does cleaning, cooking, etc., and does not have another job outside the home

house•keep•er /ˈhaʊsˌki:pə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to manage the cooking, cleaning, etc., in a house house•keep•ing /ˈhaʊsˌki:pɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the work (such as cooking and cleaning) that is done in a house : HOUSEWORK ▪ Who does your housekeeping? ▪ housekeeping expenses
2 : the things that must be done regularly to keep something working properly ▪ We took the computer offline to do some basic housekeeping.

house•maid /ˈhaʊsˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : a female servant who does cleaning, laundry, etc.

house•mate /ˈhaʊsˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a person who lives in the same house with another person but is not a part of that person's family ▪ In college, she lived in a house off campus with five housemates. ▪ The TV belongs to my housemate.

house music noun [noncount] : HOUSE 8 house of cards noun, pl houses of cards [count] : a structure built by balancing playing cards on top of each other — often used figuratively to describe something (such as a plan) that is weak and can fail easily ▪ Her elaborate scheme collapsed like a house of cards.

House of Commons noun
the House of Commons : the part of the British or Canadian Parliament whose members are elected by voters

House of Lords noun
the House of Lords : the part of the British Parliament whose members are not elected by voters

House of Representatives noun
the House of Representatives : the larger part of the U.S. Congress or of the Parliament of Australia or New Zealand — compare SENATE house•paint•er /ˈhaʊsˌpeɪntə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is painting houses house party noun, pl ~ -ties [count] : a large party at someone's house that usually lasts for several days house•plant /ˈhaʊsˌplænt, Brit ˈhaʊsˌplɑ:nt/ noun, pl -plants [count] : a plant that is grown or kept indoors — see color picture on page C6

house–proud /ˈhaʊsˌpraʊd/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : proud of your house because you spend time and effort cleaning or improving it house–sit /ˈhaʊsˌsɪt/ verb -sits; -sat; -sit•ting : to stay in and take care of someone's house or apartment while that person is away [no obj] They asked a friend to house-sit for them while they were away. [+ obj] They asked a friend to house-sit their apartment for them while they were away.

– house•sit•ter /ˈhaʊsˌsɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

house–to–house /ˌhaʊstəˈhaʊs/ adj, always used before a noun : going or made by going to each house, apartment, or building in an area ▪ The police made a house-to-house search of the area. — see also (from) house to house at [1]HOUSE house•top /ˈhaʊsˌtɑ:p/ noun, pl -tops [count] : the roof of a house house–train /ˈhaʊsˌtreɪn/ verb -trains; -trained; -train•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : HOUSEBREAK house–trained /ˈhaʊsˌtreɪnd/ adj, chiefly Brit : HOUSEBROKEN house•wares /ˈhaʊsˌweəz/ noun [plural] : small things (such as cooking utensils or lamps) that are used in a house ▪ I bought some housewares for our new place. ▪ the housewares department of a store house•warm•ing /ˈhaʊsˌwoəmɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a party to celebrate moving into a new home — usually singular ▪ Are you going to his housewarming? ▪ a housewarming party/gift house•wife /ˈhaʊsˌwaɪf/ noun, pl -wives /-ˌwaɪvz/ [count] : a married woman who stays at home, does cleaning, cooking, etc., and does not have another job outside the home house•work /ˈhaʊsˌwək/ noun [noncount] : work (such as cleaning, cooking, or laundry) that is done to keep a house clean and running properly ▪ I got up early and did some housework.

hous•ing /ˈhaʊzɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [noncount] : the houses, apartments, etc., in which people live ▪ The cost of housing continued to rise. ▪ The state should provide more/better housing for poor people. [=should provide poor people with more/better places to live] ▪ low-income housing ▪ housing costs — see also SOCIAL HOUSING
2 [count] : something that covers or protects something else (such as a mechanical part) ▪ I had to remove the housing to inspect the vent.

housing development noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : a group of houses that are built near each other and sold or rented by one owner — called also (Brit) housing estate housing project noun, pl ~ -jects [count] US : a group of houses or apartments that are built for poor people — called also (US) project

hove past tense and past participle of [1]HEAVE

hov•el /ˈhʌvəl, ˈhɑ:vəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a small, poorly built and often dirty house

hov•er /ˈhʌvə, Brit ˈhɒvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj]
1 : to float in the air without moving in any direction ▪ Watch as the hummingbird hovers over the flowers. ▪ Helicopters hovered above us. ▪ Bees hovered around the hive.
2 : to stay very close to a person or place ▪ Waiters hovered near our table. ▪ nervous mothers hovering over their children
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to stay near a specified point or level ▪ Unemployment rates were hovering around 10 percent. ▪ Temperatures will continue to hover around freezing. b : to be or remain in a specified state or condition ▪ The patient was hovering between life and death. ▪ The country hovers on the brink of famine.

hov•er•craft /ˈhʌvəˌkræft, Brit ˈhɒvəˌkrɑ:ft/ noun, pl -craft [count] : a vehicle that moves just above the surface of land or water on a cushion of air

[1]how /ˈhaʊ/ adv
1 : in what manner or way ▪ How and where did you meet him? ▪ How shall I address the President? ▪ How will we pay for the trip? : by what means ▪ "How did you get here?" "By bus." ▪ "How did she die?" "She had cancer." ▪ How do you know that? ▪ How did you find us? ▪ How could you have known?
2 : for what reason : WHY ▪ How did you happen to move here? ▪ "Is it going to rain?" "How should/would I know?" [=I don't know]
3 : to what degree, extent, or amount — used before an adjective or adverb ▪ How handsome is he? ▪ How much longer do we have to wait? = How much longer is the wait? ▪ I don't know how good the service is at the new restaurant. ▪ I'm not sure how old he is. ▪ It's a pity how rarely we see each other.
4 — used for emphasis before an adjective ▪ How old he is! [=he is very old] ▪ How wonderful/strange/awful! ▪ How kind of you to ask! ▪ (informal) How cool is that! [=that is really cool]
5 a — used to ask if someone feels good, bad, happy, sad, etc. ▪ "How are you?" "Very well, thank you." ▪ "How are you doing?" "Okay, I guess." ▪ "How is your mother these days?" "Much better." ▪ How do you feel? = How are you feeling? — see also HOW DO YOU DO (below) b — used to ask if something is good, bad, etc. ▪ How's the new job? [=do you like your new job?] ▪ How are things at home? ▪ How did they do/perform [=did they do/perform well or badly] in the tournament? ▪ How was the play? ▪ How do you like the soup? = How is the soup? [=do you like the soup?; is the soup good?] ▪ I can bring it over tomorrow. How's that? [=is that all right?] ▪ Let me get you another blanket. There, how's that? [=is that comfortable?; is that better?] ▪ He will send a check. How will that be? = How would it be if he sent you a check? [=would it be acceptable if he sent you a check?]
and how chiefly US, informal — used for emphasis ▪ Prices are going up, and how! [=prices are going up very quickly] ▪ "Will you be glad when it's over?" "And how!" [=I will be very glad when it's over] as how informal : [2]THAT ▪ I don't know as how your plan would be any better than mine. ▪ Seeing as how things were getting worse [=because things were getting worse], she decided to do something. ▪ (US, informal) She allowed as how the situation was serious. [=she admitted that the situation was serious]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

how about 1 : does that include (someone) : what about ▪ "We're all going to the beach." "How about Kenny?" 2 informal a — used to show that you are very impressed by someone or something ▪ He won again! How about that guy! [=isn't that guy amazing/impressive?] b how about that chiefly US — used to show that you are surprised or pleased by something ▪ He won again! How about that! [=what good news!; isn't that great?] 3 also US (informal) how's about a — used to make a suggestion about what could be done ▪ We'll need to talk about this again. How about (meeting) next month? ▪ How about [=what about] driving to the coast for the weekend? ▪ How about another game? [=would you like to play another game?] ▪ What should we do tonight? How about (seeing) a movie? ▪ How's about some more pie? b — used to ask someone to give you something ▪ How about a couple of dollars until payday? [=can you loan me a couple of dollars until payday?] ▪ How's about (offering me) a drink? c — used to ask if someone will do something ▪ Well, how about it, are you coming? 4 — used to ask someone to tell you something in response to what you have just said ▪ I like skiing and hiking. How about you? [=what sports do you like?] ▪ I'm ready to go. How about you? [=are you ready, too?]

how can/could 1 — used to show you think that someone has done or said something shocking or wrong ▪ "We don't need his help anyway." "How can you say that?!" [=it is very wrong of you to say that] ▪ How could she just walk away from her children like that? 2 — used to express doubt that something will happen, is possible, etc. ▪ How could I (ever/possibly) leave this job? ▪ How can I (ever/possibly) thank you? [=I can never thank you enough; I am extremely grateful to you] 3 how could you informal — used to show disappointment in someone's actions, thoughts, words, etc. ▪ You threw away my gift? Oh, how could you?

how come chiefly US, informal — used to ask why something has happened, is true, etc. ▪ "He said he's not going." "How come?" [=why isn't he going?] ▪ How come you're here so early? [=why are you here so early?] ▪ How come no one told me?

how dare you see [1]DARE

how do you do formal : HELLO — used especially when you are first introduced to someone ▪ How do you do, Miss Smith?

how do you like that — used for emphasis or to show surprise or disapproval ▪ He's moving to Hawaii? Well, how do you like that! [=that's a surprise] ▪ She canceled at the last minute. How do you like that?

how goes it? see [1]GO

how's everything (going) see EVERYTHING

how so : in what way : why do you think that ▪ "This room looks different." "How so?" [=in what way does it look different?]

how's that (again) informal : WHAT — used to request that something be repeated or explained again ▪ How's that? [=what did you say?] I didn't hear you. ▪ I don't understand. How's that again?

how's that for informal — used for emphasis to describe someone or something you think is very impressive ▪ He won first prize! How's that for a guy who almost didn't enter the contest at all! ▪ They took care of everything for us. How's that for hospitality? [=that was very hospitable]

how will/would — used to express doubt that something will happen or is possible ▪ How will we (ever) get everything done on time? ▪ How would he manage without her? [=I don't know if he will be able to manage without her; I doubt he will manage without her]

[2]how conj

1 : in what manner or way ▪ We asked how we could help. ▪ Let me tell you how we'll pay for the trip. ▪ The book tells the story of how the company was founded. ▪ She explained how she came to live here. ▪ I don't know how the service is at the new restaurant. ▪ I remember how they fought. ▪ It's strange how [=the way that] things happen. ▪ Be careful how you talk; you could get fired. ▪ And that's how it is. [=that is the state of the situation] ▪ They want to know how you're doing. [=if you are happy, successful, etc.]

2 : THAT ▪ She told us how she had to work hard. ▪ He knows how you are a valued employee. ▪ It's amazing how they completed the bridge so quickly.

3 : in whatever way : HOWEVER ▪ He'll cook it how you like it.

how'd /ˈhaʊd/ — used as a contraction of how would or how did ▪ How'd [=how did] you like your meal? ▪ How'd [=how would] you like to go to the beach?

how•dy /ˈhaʊdi/ interj, US — used as an informal greeting ▪ Howdy, folks.

[1]how•ev•er /haʊˈɛvə/ adv

1 — used when you are saying something that is different from or contrasts with a previous statement ▪ I'd like to go; however, I'd better not. [=I'd like to go, but I should not] ▪ The forecast is bad. It's possible, however, that conditions could improve. ▪ Sales are up this quarter. However, expenses have increased as well.

2 : to whatever degree or extent : no matter how — used before an adjective or adverb ▪ However many people come [=whether a few people or many people come], we'll be ready. ▪ She couldn't convince him, however hard [=no matter how hard] she tried.

3 — used as a more forceful way of saying how ▪ However did you do that? [=how did you ever do that?]

[2]however conj : in whatever manner or way ▪ Do it however you like. ▪ I will help however I can.

how•it•zer /ˈhawətsə/ noun, pl -zers [count] : a large gun that is used to fire shells high into the air for a short distance howl /ˈhawəl/ verb howls; howled; howl•ing

1 [no obj] of a dog, wolf, etc. : to make a long, loud cry that sounds sad ▪ The dogs were howling at the moon.

2 [no obj] of the wind : to make a long, loud sound ▪ The wind was howling.

3 [no obj] : to cry out loudly in pain, anger, amusement, etc. ▪ He howled in agony. ▪ The audience howled with laughter. [=the audience laughed very loudly]

4 : to say something in a loud and angry way [+ obj] "I can't take it!" she howled. = She howled that she couldn't take it. [no obj] Activists are howling (in protest) over the court's decision. ▪ protesters howling for change

– howl noun, pl howls [count] ▪ We heard the dog's howls. ▪ He let out a howl of protest. ▪ howls of laughter howl•er /ˈhaʊlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a stupid but funny mistake or error ▪ The article was full of howlers.

howling /ˈhaʊlɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : producing the long, low sound made by strong wind ▪ a howling storm

2 informal : very great ▪ The movie was a howling success.

how's /ˈhaʊz/ — used as a contraction of how is ▪ How's your meal? ▪ How's she doing?

[1]how•so•ev•er /ˌhaʊsəˈwɛvə/ adv, formal : [1]HOWEVER

[2]howsoever conj, formal : [2]HOWEVER

[1]how–to /ˈhaʊˈtu:/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : giving practical instruction or advice on how to do something yourself ▪ how-to books on starting your own business

[2]how–to noun, pl -tos [count] chiefly US : a way of doing something yourself : instruction about how to do something ▪ the how-tos of balancing a checkbook

hp abbr horsepower ▪ a 200 hp engine

HQ abbr headquarters ▪ Check in at camp HQ by 8:00.

hr abbr hour ▪ a 35-hr work week

HR abbr, US 1 home run; home runs ▪ He had three HR in the first game.

2 human resources ▪ Talk to HR about benefits.

3 House of Representatives — used in the names of laws being voted on in the House of Representatives ▪ Voting on HR 1740 will start next week.

HRH abbr Her Royal Highness; His Royal Highness

HS abbr high school ▪ Springfield HS

ht. abbr height

HTML /ˌeɪtʃˌti:ˌɛmˈɛl/ noun [noncount] : a computer language that is used to create documents or Web sites on the Internet ▪ Do you know HTML?

http abbr hypertext transfer protocol; hypertext transport protocol — used in Internet addresses ▪ http://www.Merriam-Webster.com

H_2O /ˌeɪtʃˌtu:ˈoʊ/ technical — the chemical symbol for water ▪ two parts H_2O hub /ˈhʌb/ noun, pl hubs [count]

1 : the central and most active part or place ▪ the hub of the city ▪ The island is a major tourist hub. [=a place where many tourists go] ▪ She was at the hub of all the activity.

2 : the airport or the city through which an airline sends most of its flights ▪ All of the airline's coast-to-coast flights pass through its hub.

3 : the center of a wheel, propeller, fan, etc. ▪ The spokes attach to the hub of the wheel.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

hub•bub /ˈhʌˌbʌb/ noun [noncount]
1 : a loud mixture of sound or voices ▪ All the hubbub in the airport made it hard to hear the flight announcements.
2 : a situation in which there is much noise, confusion, excitement, and activity ▪ the hubbub surrounding the film star ▪ We went to the country to escape the hubbub of the city. ▪ What's all the hubbub about?

hub•by /ˈhʌbi/ noun, pl -bies [count] informal : HUSBAND hub•cap /ˈhʌbˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count] : a removable plastic or metal cover on the center of a car or truck wheel — see picture at CAR hu•bris /ˈhju:brəs/ noun [noncount] formal + literary : a great or foolish amount of pride or confidence ▪ His failure was brought on by his hubris.

huck•ster /ˈhʌkstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] US, disapproving : someone who sells or advertises something in an aggressive, dishonest, or annoying way

HUD /ˈhʌd/ abbr, US (Department of) Housing and Urban Development ▪ an official at HUD ✧ The Department of Housing and Urban Development is a part of the U.S. federal government that is responsible for policies that relate to providing housing for U.S. citizens.

[1]hud•dle /ˈhʌdl/ verb hud•dles; hud•dled; hud•dling [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to come close together in a group ▪ People were huddling (together) in doorways to get out of the rain. ▪ We huddled around the campfire. ▪ The sheep huddled together for warmth. ▪ "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free . . ." —Emma Lazarus, "The New Colossus" (1883)
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to sit or lie in a curled or bent position ▪ The students huddled over their desks.
3 a : to come together to talk about something privately ▪ Union representatives are huddling to discuss the proposal. b American football : to gather in a huddle — often + up ▪ The players huddled up.

[2]huddle noun, pl huddles [count]
1 : a group of people or things that are close to each other ▪ sheep standing in a huddle
2 a : a private discussion or meeting ▪ The boss is in a huddle with the marketing director b American football : a group of players who have gathered away from the line of scrimmage for a short time to hear instructions for the next play ▪ The quarterback called the offense into a huddle.

hue /ˈhju:/ noun, pl hues [count]
1 : a color or a shade of a color ▪ We decorated the room in hues of blue and green.
2 : kind or type ▪ politicians of every hue [=of every kind] hue and cry noun [singular] : an angry protest about something ▪ There was a hue and cry in opposition to the film.

hued /ˈhju:d/ adj : having a specified type of color ▪ brightly/richly hued [=colored] cloth ▪ green-hued

[1]huff /ˈhʌf/ verb huffs; huffed; huff•ing [+ obj] : to say (something) in a way that shows you are annoyed or angry ▪ "The project is a complete waste of time," she huffed.
huff and puff 1 : to breathe in a loud and heavy way because of physical effort ▪ He was huffing and puffing when he got to the top of the stairs. 2 : to show you are annoyed or angry ▪ She'll huff and puff for a while, but she'll calm down later.

[2]huff noun
in a huff : in an angry or annoyed state ▪ They argued and she left in a huff. ▪ When he didn't get the promotion, he quit his job in a huff. [=he got angry and suddenly quit his job]

huffy /ˈhʌfi/ adj huff•i•er; -est informal : angry or annoyed ▪ Now, don't get huffy—I was only teasing.
– huff•i•ly /ˈhʌfəli/ adv ▪ He huffily refused to answer.

[1]hug /ˈhʌg/ verb hugs; hugged; hug•ging
1 : to put your arms around someone especially as a way of showing love or friendship [+ obj] I hugged him close. ▪ She hugged her daughter. [no obj] We hugged briefly, and then it was time to say goodbye.
2 [+ obj] : to hold (something) tightly with your arms ▪ I hugged my knees to my chest.
3 [+ obj] : to stay close to (something) ▪ The road hugs the river. ▪ The boat hugged the shore. ▪ body-hugging clothing [=clothes that are tight]
– hug•ga•ble /ˈhʌgəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a cute, huggable puppy

[2]hug noun, pl hugs [count] : the act of putting your arms around someone or something as a way of showing love or friendship ▪ hugs and kisses ▪ He gave me a big hug. [=he hugged me]

huge /ˈhju:ʤ/ adj : very large : very great in size, amount, or degree ▪ a huge building/truck/garden ▪ The crowds were huge. ▪ Renovating the house is a huge undertaking. ▪ The store is having a huge sale tomorrow. ▪ The presentation was a huge success. [=the presentation was very successful] – huge•ly adv ▪ a hugely popular movie

huh /ˈhʌ/ interj, informal
1 chiefly US — used at the end of a statement to ask whether someone agrees with you ▪ It's pretty good, huh?
2 — used when you have not heard or understood something that was said ▪ "His name is Cholmondely." "Huh?" [=what?]
3 — used to show surprise, disbelief, or disapproval ▪ "His wife left him." "Huh! I thought they had a happy marriage."

hu•la /ˈhu:lə/ noun, pl -las [singular] : a Hawaiian dance that has flowing hand and hip movements

Hula–Hoop /ˈhu:ləˌhu:p/ trademark — used for a plastic hoop that is twirled around your body by moving your hips

hulk /ˈhʌlk/ noun, pl hulks [count]
1 : the main part of something (such as a ship, car, or building) that has been ruined and is no longer used ▪ The ship's rusting hulk is still visible on the rocks. ▪ the burned out hulk of the factory
2 informal : a large person ▪ He's a (great) hulk of a man. [=he's a very large man]

hulk•ing /ˈhʌlkɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : very large or heavy ▪ A hulking figure appeared in the doorway. ▪ hulking buildings

[1]hull /ˈhʌl/ noun, pl hulls [count]
1 : the main part of a ship or boat : the deck, sides, and bottom of a ship or boat — see picture at BOAT
2 : the outer covering of a fruit, grain, or seed ▪ sesame seed hulls

[2]hull verb hulls; hulled; hull•ing [+ obj] : to remove the outer covering of (a fruit or seed) ▪ hulling seeds

hul•la•ba•loo /ˈhʌləbəˌlu:/ noun, informal
1 : a very noisy and confused situation [singular] The announcement caused quite a hullabaloo. [noncount] The announcement caused a lot of hullabaloo.
2 : a situation in which many people are upset and angry about something [singular] There was a hullabaloo over his controversial statements. [noncount] There was a lot of hullabaloo over his controversial statements.

hum /ˈhʌm/ verb hums; hummed; hum•ming
1 [no obj] : to make a low continuous sound ▪ The garden was humming with bees. ▪ The refrigerator hummed in the background.
2 : to sing the notes of a song while keeping your lips closed [no obj] I was humming to myself. ▪ We hummed along to the music. [+ obj] Can you hum the tune for me? = Can you hum me the tune? ▪ I hummed a little song.
3 [no obj] : to be very active or busy ▪ By noon, the office was really humming. ▪ The restaurant hums on weekends.
– hum noun [singular] ▪ the hum of insects ▪ We could hear the hum of conversation from the next room.

[1]hu•man /ˈhju:mən/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or affecting people ▪ the human body ▪ the human brain ▪ human suffering ▪ problems that have occurred throughout human history ▪ The accident was blamed on human error. [=the accident was blamed on a person's mistake rather than on the failure of a machine] ▪ a story that has human interest = a human-interest story [=a story that is appealing because it involves the experiences of real people] ▪ The need to be loved is simply part of the human condition. [=part of being a person] ▪ an area where ancient human remains [=parts of the bodies of dead people] have been found
2 [more ~; most ~] a : typical of people ▪ a human failing/weakness ▪ human kindness ▪ human emotions ▪ His desire for revenge was very human. [=was very typical of the way people are] b [more ~; most ~] : having good or bad qualities that people usually have ▪ She is a very kind and human person. ▪ I once thought that he was perfect, but now I know that he's all too human. [=that he has the same problems, weaknesses, etc., that other people have] ✧ If you say that someone is only human, you are saying that the mistakes someone has made could have been made by anyone. ▪ We do the best we can, but we're only human. c : looking or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

human skeleton

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

acting like a person ▪ The dog's expression was almost human. — compare INHUMAN

3 always used before a noun : made up of or consisting of people ▪ The assembly line was a human machine. ▪ Everyone held hands and formed a human chain.

put a human face on ✧ If you put a human face on something, you make it more appealing, easier to understand, or easier to care about by connecting it to an actual person. ▪ The author puts a human face on the disease by interviewing people who have it.

[2]human noun, pl -mans [count] : a person — usually plural ▪ a disease that affects both humans and animals — see picture on the page before this one

– hu•man•like /ˈhju:mənˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ the cat's humanlike reaction human being noun, pl ∼ beings [count] : a person ▪ She's a very warm and generous human being. ▪ We should do more to help our fellow human beings. ▪ The drug has not yet been tested on human beings.

hu•mane /hju:ˈmeɪn/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : kind or gentle to people or animals ▪ a humane prison guard ▪ It's not humane to treat animals that way. ▪ a humane attitude ▪ Conditions in the prison are more humane now. — opposite INHUMANE

– hu•mane•ly adv ▪ treating the animals humanely – hu•mane•ness /hju:ˈmeɪnnəs/ noun [noncount]

human immunode ciency virus noun [noncount] : HIV hu•man•ism /ˈhju:məˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a system of values and beliefs that is based on the idea that people are basically good and that problems can be solved using reason instead of religion — see also SECULAR HUMANISM

– hu•man•ist /ˈhju:mənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ He was one of the best-known humanists of his time. – hu•man•is•tic /ˌhju:məˈnɪstɪk/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ humanistic values hu•man•i•tar•i•an /hjuˌmænəˈterijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who works to make other people's lives better ▪ She has been recognized as a great humanitarian for her efforts to end world hunger.

– humanitarian adj, always used before a noun ▪ humanitarian efforts ▪ humanitarian aid [=help or money given to people, countries, etc., in order to improve living conditions] – hu•man•i•tar•i•an•ism /hjuˌmænəˈterijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ She has been honored for her humanitarianism.

hu•man•i•ty /hjuˈmænəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] a : the quality or state of being human ▪ They were joined together by their (common) humanity. b : the quality or state of being kind to other people or to animals ▪ We appealed to his sense of humanity. — opposite INHUMANITY

2 [noncount] : all people : HUMANKIND ▪ These discoveries will be of benefit to all humanity. ▪ She was cut off from the rest of humanity.

3 humanities [plural] : areas of study (such as history, language, and literature) that relate to human life and ideas ▪ the college of arts and humanities ▪ He's taking courses in both the sciences and the humanities.

hu•man•ize also Brit hu•man•ise /ˈhju:məˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) seem gentler, kinder, or more appealing to people ▪ The new publicity has helped to humanize the corporation's image. ▪ They promised to humanize conditions at the company.

hu•man•kind /ˈhju:mənˌkaɪnd/ noun [noncount] : all people as a group ▪ a discovery that will be of benefit to all humankind

hu•man•ly /ˈhju:mənli/ adv : within the range of human ability ▪ Conditions were not humanly tolerable. [=could not be tolerated by human beings] ▪ We'll do everything humanly possible [=everything we can do] to help. ▪ I need your report as soon as (is) humanly possible. [=as soon as you can] human nature noun [noncount] : the ways of thinking, feeling, and acting that are common to most people ▪ You can't change human nature. ▪ It's only human nature [=it is normal] to want a better life.

hu•man•oid /ˈhju:məˌnɔɪd/ adj, always used before a noun : looking or acting like a human ▪ humanoid robots ▪ The movie is about humanoid aliens invading Earth.

– humanoid noun, pl -oids [count] ▪ a movie about humanoids who invade Earth human race noun

the human race : all people : human beings as a group ▪ the history of the human race ▪ destructive weapons that could wipe out the (whole) human race

human resources noun

1 [noncount] : a department within an organization that deals with the people who work for that organization ▪ She works for human resources. ▪ Human Resources will contact you about your interview. ▪ our human resources department — abbr. HR

2 [plural] : a group of people who are able to do work ▪ We are using human resources to respond to the problem.

human right noun, pl ∼ rights [count] : a basic right (such as the right to be treated well or the right to vote) that many societies believe every person should have ▪ They believe that freedom of speech is a basic human right. — usually plural ▪ The defendant was deprived of his human rights. ▪ human rights violations

[1]hum•ble /ˈhʌmbəl/ adj hum•bler; hum•blest [or more ∼; most ∼]

1 : not proud : not thinking of yourself as better than other people ▪ Despite all his achievements, he has remained humble. ▪ He is very humble about his achievements. ▪ She is too humble to let praise go to her head. ▪ a very humble person

2 a always used before a noun : given or said in a way that shows you do not think you are better than other people ▪ a humble request ▪ Please accept my humble apologies. ▪ (sometimes humorous) In my humble opinion [=in my opinion], he is the most talented actor on the stage today. ▪ Her humble suggestion is that we review the data more carefully. b : showing that you do not think of yourself as better than other people ▪ a humble attitude/manner

3 : not high in rank or status ▪ He comes from a humble background. ▪ She's not ashamed of her humble beginnings.

4 : not special, fancy, or expensive ▪ a meal made of humble ingredients ▪ Welcome to our humble home/abode.

eat humble pie see EAT

– hum•ble•ness /ˈhʌmbəlnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ He accepted the honor with humbleness. [=(more commonly) humility] – hum•bly /ˈhʌmbli/ adv ▪ The business began humbly but quickly became successful. ▪ She accepted his compliments humbly.

[2]humble verb hum•bles; hum•bled; hum•bling [+ obj]

1 : to make (someone) feel less important or proud : to make (someone) humble ▪ The experience humbled him. ▪ Her success has humbled her critics.

2 : to easily defeat (someone or something) in a way that is surprising or not expected ▪ Last year's champion was humbled by an unknown newcomer.

humble yourself : to do or say something which shows that you know you have been wrong, have behaved with too much pride, etc. ▪ He needs to humble himself and ask for their forgiveness.

– humbling adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ It was a humbling experience for me. ▪ a very humbling defeat

hum•bug /ˈhʌmˌbʌg/ noun, pl -bugs

1 [noncount] : language or behavior that is false or meant to deceive people ▪ Their claims are humbug. ▪ She's only 30? Humbug!

2 [count] old-fashioned : someone or something that is not honest or true ▪ He's just an old humbug. [=(more commonly) fraud]

3 [count] Brit : a hard peppermint candy

hum•ding•er /ˈhʌmˈdɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : something that is very impressive or exciting ▪ The last storm was a real humdinger! ▪ I hear we're in for another humdinger of a storm!

hum•drum /ˈhʌmˌdrʌm/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : not interesting : dull, boring, and ordinary ▪ She liked the movie, but I thought it was humdrum. ▪ another humdrum day at the office ▪ humdrum chores hu•mer•us /ˈhju:mərəs/ noun, pl hu•meri /ˈhju:məˌraɪ/ [count] medical : the long bone of the upper arm between the shoulder and the elbow — see picture at HUMAN hu•mid /ˈhju:məd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : having a lot of moisture in the air ▪ humid weather ▪ a humid climate/day/season ▪ It's very hot and humid [=muggy] today.

hu•mid•i• •er /hjuˈmɪdəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine that adds moisture to the air in a room — compare DEHUMIDIFIER hu•mid•i•ty /hjuˈmɪdəti/ noun [noncount] : moisture in the air ▪ the humidity of the region ▪ It's not the heat that will get you—it's the humidity. : the amount of moisture in the air ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

The temperature is 67 degrees with humidity at 75 percent. ▪ an area of low/high humidity

hu•mil•i•ate /hju'mɪli,eɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) feel very ashamed or foolish ▪ I hope I don't humiliate myself during the presentation. ▪ He accused her of trying to humiliate him in public. ▪ She was hurt and deeply humiliated by the lies he told about her.
– humiliating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It was a humiliating defeat. – hu•mil•i•a•tion /hju,mɪli'eɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] I can't take any more humiliation. [count] The loss would be one more humiliation for our team.

hu•mil•i•ty /hju'mɪlәti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of not thinking you are better than other people : the quality or state of being humble ▪ He accepted the honor with humility. ▪ The ordeal taught her humility.

hum•mer /'hʌmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] US, informal : HUMMINGBIRD ▪ A hummer was feeding at the flowers.

hum•ming•bird /'hʌmɪŋ,bəd/ noun, pl -birds [count] : a very small, brightly colored American bird that has wings which beat very fast — see color picture on page C9

hum•mock /'hʌmək/ noun, pl -mocks [count] : a small hill

hum•mus /'hʊməs/ noun [noncount] : a soft food made of ground chickpeas, garlic, and oil hu•mon•gous also hu•mun•gous /hju'mʌŋgəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very large : HUGE ▪ a humongous dish of ice cream

[1]hu•mor (US) or Brit hu•mour /'hju:mə/ noun
1 [noncount] a : a funny or amusing quality ▪ He didn't appreciate the humor of the situation. ▪ Someday, you'll see the humor in this. ▪ Everyone likes the gentle humor of his stories of family life. b : jokes, funny stories, etc., of a particular kind ▪ She doesn't care for ethnic humor. ▪ The book is a collection of American humor. — see also GALLOWS HUMOR
2 [noncount] : the ability to be funny or to be amused by things that are funny ▪ His humor is one of his most attractive qualities. ▪ She has a great sense of humor. [=she says funny things and can see the funny side of things] ▪ He has no sense of humor. [=he does not find things amusing]
3 formal : the way someone feels emotionally [singular] She was in a good/bad humor [=(more commonly) mood] all day. [noncount] He answered the reporter's questions with charm and good humor. [=in a friendly and cheerful way] — compare GOOD-HUMORED, ILL-HUMORED
– hu•mor•less (US) or Brit hu•mour•less /'hju:mələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a dour and humorless man ▪ The film is completely humorless.

[2]humor (US) or Brit humour verb -mors; -mored; -mor•ing [+ obj] : to try to please or satisfy (someone) by doing what is wanted ▪ The only way to get along with him is to humor him. ▪ I know you don't agree, but just humor me. [=listen to me]

hu•mor•ist /'hju:mərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : someone (such as a writer) who tells funny stories hu•mor•ous /'hju:mərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing laughter : FUNNY ▪ a humorous story ▪ a humorous writer ▪ The book is very humorous.

– hu•mor•ous•ly adv ▪ a humorously misleading sign humour Brit spelling of HUMOR

[1]hump /'hʌmp/ noun, pl humps [count]
1 : a rounded lump on the surface of something: such as a : a raised, rounded part of a road ▪ a rough road with many humps [=bulges] and bumps b : a lump on the back of an animal (such as a camel) c : a lump on the back of a person whose spine is curved in an abnormal way
2 the hump Brit, informal : a state in which you are angry or upset ▪ She gets the hump when she loses. = Losing gives her the hump. [=she becomes angry or upset when she loses] over the hump informal : past the most difficult part of something (such as a project or job) ▪ A few more months of hard work should be enough to get/put us over the hump on this project.
– humped /'hʌmpt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a humped back

[2]hump verb humps; humped; hump•ing [+ obj]
1 chiefly Brit : to carry (something heavy) ▪ They had to hump [=lug] the supplies far into the jungle.
2 offensive : to have sex with (someone) hump•back /'hʌmp,bæk/ noun, pl -backs [count]

1 : HUMPBACK WHALE
2 a : HUNCHBACK 1 b offensive : HUNCHBACK 2
– hump•backed /'hʌmp'bækt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a humpbacked fish humpback whale noun, pl ~ whales [count] : a type of large whale that has a curved back and very long flippers

humungous variant spelling of HUMONGOUS

hu•mus /'hju:məs/ noun [noncount] : a brown or black material in soil that is formed when plants and animals decay

[1]hunch /'hʌnʧ/ verb hunch•es; hunched; hunch•ing
1 [no obj] : to bend your body forward and down so that your back is rounded ▪ The generals were hunched [=bent] over the table reading a map.
2 [+ obj] : to raise (your shoulders or back) while bending your head forward especially to hide or protect your face ▪ He hunched his shoulders as he headed out into the storm.

[2]hunch noun, pl hunches [count] : a belief or idea about something (especially a future event) that is not based on facts or evidence ▪ My hunch is that the stock is going to go up in value. ▪ "How did you know I'd be here?" "It was just a hunch." ▪ I had a hunch [=had a feeling] (that) I'd see you here. ▪ She was acting on a hunch. = (chiefly US) She was playing a hunch.

hunch•back /'hʌnʧ,bæk/ noun, pl -backs [count]
1 : a back in which the spine is curved in an abnormal way
2 offensive : a person with a hunchback – hunch•backed /'hʌnʧ'bækt/ adj ▪ a hunchbacked old man/woman hun•dred /'hʌndrəd/ noun, pl -dreds

1 pl hundred [count] : the number 100 ▪ a/one hundred (of them) ▪ a hundred and one = one hundred and one = (chiefly US) a hundred one [=101] ▪ two/several hundred (of them)
2 hundreds [plural] a : an amount that is more than 200 ▪ Hundreds (and hundreds) (of them) came. = They came in the hundreds. = (chiefly Brit) They came in their hundreds. b — used to refer to a specified century ▪ The bridge was built some time in the sixteen-hundreds. [=the 1600s; the 17th century]
3 [count] : a very large number — usually plural ▪ I've seen that movie hundreds of times. [=many times]
4 [count] US : a hundred-dollar bill : a bill that is worth 100 dollars ▪ Can you give me change for a hundred? ▪ He paid with a couple of hundreds.
ninety-nine times out of a hundred informal : almost always ▪ Ninety-nine times out of a hundred, you can fix the problem by restarting the computer.
– hundred adj, always used before a noun ▪ a hundred employees [=100 employees] ▪ several hundred people ▪ We drove a few hundred miles today. ▪ I've seen that movie a hundred times. [=many times] – hundreds pronoun ▪ Hundreds (of them) came. – hun•dredth /'hʌndrəθ/ noun, pl -dredths [count] ▪ one hundredth of a second = one one-hundredth of a second [=1/100 second]
– hundredth adj ▪ the hundredth person to join – hundredth adv ▪ the nation's hundredth largest city hun•dred•weight /'hʌndrəd,weɪt/ noun, pl -weight or -weights [count] : a unit of weight equal to 100 pounds in the U.S. or to 112 pounds in the U.K.

hung past tense and past participle of [1]HANG

Hun•gar•i•an /,hʌŋ'gerijən/ noun, pl -ans
1 [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Hungary
2 [noncount] : the language of the Hungarian people – Hungarian adj ▪ Hungarian food ▪ a Hungarian word

[1]hun•ger /'hʌŋgə/ noun, pl -gers
1 [noncount] a : a very great need for food : a severe lack of food ▪ She has been a leader in the fight against world hunger. ▪ Thousands of people there are dying from/of hunger. [=dying because they do not have enough food; starving to death] b : an uncomfortable feeling in your stomach that is caused by the need for food ▪ One sandwich wasn't enough to satisfy his hunger. ▪ hunger pangs
2 [count] : a strong desire ▪ spiritual/sexual hungers : a strong desire for something or to do something ▪ Her students have a genuine hunger for knowledge. ▪ a hunger to succeed = a hunger for success — compare THIRST from hunger US, informal : of very bad quality : very poorly done ▪ The film's scenery is beautiful, but the plot is (strictly) from hunger.

[2]hunger verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [no obj] literary : to have or feel a strong desire ▪ He hungered to succeed. — usually + after or for ▪ He hungered after success. ▪ The nation hungers for a strong leader. — compare THIRST hunger strike noun, pl ~ strikes [count] : the act of refusing to eat as a way of showing that you strongly disagree with or disapprove of something ▪ She has threatened to go on a hunger strike [=refuse to eat] if her colleagues are not released from prison.

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

– hunger striker noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

hung jury noun, pl ~ juries [count] law : a jury whose members cannot agree about what the verdict should be ▪ The trial ended with a hung jury and the judge declared a mistrial.

hung over adj [more ~; most ~] : sick because you drank too much alcohol at an earlier time : suffering from a hangover ▪ He woke up groggy and hung over.

hung parliament noun, pl ~ -ments [count] Brit : a parliament in which no political party has a clear majority hun•gry /ˈhʌŋgri/ adj hun•gri•er; -est

1 a : suffering because of a lack of food : greatly affected by hunger ▪ There are millions of hungry people throughout the world. ▪ Too many people in the world go hungry every day. [=suffer every day because they do not have enough food to eat] b : having an uncomfortable feeling in your stomach because you need food : feeling hunger ▪ That girl is always hungry. ▪ I'm hungry. When's dinner? ▪ I feel hungry.

2 not used before a noun : feeling a strong desire or need for something or to do something ▪ The prisoners' families were hungry for more information. ▪ They were hungry to learn more. ▪ hungry for success/attention/power — often used in combination ▪ power-hungry politicians

3 always used before a noun : showing hunger or desire ▪ hungry eyes ▪ a hungry look

4 : feeling a strong desire and determination to succeed ▪ The coach wants the players to stay hungry. [=to continue feeling a strong desire to win]

– hun•gri•ly /ˈhʌŋgrəli/ adv ▪ The dog stared hungrily at the food on the table.

hung up adj [more ~; most ~] informal

1 US : delayed for a time ▪ She got hung up at the airport. [=she had to be at the airport longer than she expected to be]

2 : thinking or worrying too much about something or someone ▪ Many people are hung up about their physical appearance. — usually + on ▪ He's still hung up on his ex-wife. ▪ students who are hung up on getting perfect grades

hunk /ˈhʌŋk/ noun, pl hunks [count]

1 : a large lump or piece of something ▪ a hunk of cheese/bread ▪ a steak cut into meaty hunks

2 informal : an attractive man ▪ That actor is such a hunk!

– hunk•y /ˈhʌŋki/ adj hunk•i•er; -est informal ▪ That actor is so hunky!

hun•ker /ˈhʌŋkə/ verb -kers; -kered; -ker•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to lower your body to the ground by bending your legs ▪ The hikers hunkered (down) under a cliff until the storm passed.

hunker down [phrasal verb] : to stay in a place for a period of time ▪ The leaders hunkered down at a country estate for difficult peace negotiations.

hunk•y–do•ry /ˌhʌŋkiˈdori/ adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] informal : free of trouble or problems : FINE ▪ Everything is hunky-dory right now.

[1]hunt /ˈhʌnt/ verb hunts; hunt•ed; hunt•ing

1 : to chase and kill (wild animals) for food or pleasure [+ obj] The wolf was hunting its prey. ▪ These birds have been hunted almost to extinction. ▪ a gun used for hunting squirrels [no obj] He likes to hunt and fish.

2 : to search for something or someone very carefully and thoroughly [no obj] She hunted around in the closet for a pair of shoes. — often + for ▪ The police are hunting for a killer. ▪ He's hunting for a new apartment. ▪ We went to the mall to hunt for bargains. [+ obj] Police hunted the escaped prisoners through several states. ▪ (US) We went to the mall to hunt bargains.

hunt down [phrasal verb] 1 hunt (something) down or hunt down (something) : to succeed in finding (something) ▪ It may take me a while to hunt down the phone number. 2 hunt (someone) down or hunt down (someone) : to find and capture (someone) ▪ The killer was hunted down with help from his relatives.

hunt out [phrasal verb] hunt (something) out or hunt out (something) : to find (something) after searching for it ▪ It took a while to hunt out the papers, but we finally found everything we needed.

hunt up [phrasal verb] hunt (someone or something) up or hunt up (someone or something) : to succeed in finding (someone or something) ▪ You can hunt up a good car at a fair price if you try.

[2]hunt noun, pl hunts [count]

1 : an occasion when people hunt wild animals ▪ They went on a hunt. ▪ a bear/fox/pheasant hunt

2 : an act of searching for something or someone ▪ We finally found a good restaurant after a long hunt. ▪ The hunt for the escaped convicts continues. = The hunt is still on for the escaped convicts. = The police are still on the hunt [=are still searching] for the escaped convicts. — see also SCAVENGER HUNT, TREASURE HUNT, WITCH HUNT

3 chiefly Brit : a group of people who hunt foxes together in the hunt US : having a chance to win or succeed in a contest or competition ▪ At this point in the season, both teams are still in the hunt. [=both teams have a chance of winning the championship]

hunt–and–peck /ˌhʌntn̩ˈpɛk/ noun [noncount] informal : a method of typing that involves looking at the keyboard and using only one finger of each hand to press the keys

hunt•er /ˈhʌntə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a person who hunts wild animals ▪ a deer hunter b : a person who searches for something ▪ My mother is a bargain-hunter. [=a person who searches for good prices on items to buy] ▪ job-hunters [=people trying to find jobs; job-seekers] — see also BOUNTY HUNTER

2 : a strong horse that people use when they hunt foxes hunt•er–gath•er•er /ˈhʌntəˈgæðərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a member of a culture in which people hunt animals and look for plants to eat instead of growing crops and raising animals ▪ a tribe of hunter-gatherers

hunt•ing /ˈhʌntɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity or sport of chasing and killing wild animals ▪ His hobbies include hunting and fishing. ▪ The law prohibits the hunting of migratory birds. ▪ big-game hunting ▪ She likes to go hunting. ▪ We went hunting for bear. = We went bear-hunting. — often used before another noun ▪ hunting boots ▪ a hunting accident ▪ the hunting season ▪ a hunting dog [=a dog people use when they hunt] — see also FOXHUNTING, HEAD-HUNTING

2 : the activity of searching for something ▪ bargain-hunting ▪ job-hunting

hunt•ress /ˈhʌntrəs/ noun, pl -ress•es [count] literary : a woman who hunts wild animals hunts•man /ˈhʌntsmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] formal

1 : a person (especially a man) who hunts wild animals

2 : a person (especially a man) who manages a group of people who are hunting wild animals

[1]hur•dle /ˈhəd̩l/ noun, pl hur•dles

1 a [count] : one of a series of barriers to be jumped over in a race b *the hurdles : a race in which runners must jump over hurdles ▪ He won a medal in the high hurdles. — usually used with a singular verb ▪ The hurdles is his best event.

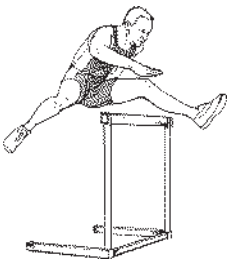
2 [count] : something that makes an achievement difficult ▪ The company faces severe financial hurdles this year. ▪ She overcame many hurdles [=obstacles] on her way to earning a college diploma.



hurdle

[2]hurdle verb hur•dles; hur•dled; hur•dling [+ obj]

1 : to jump over (something) while running ▪ The horse hurdled the fence.

2 : to deal with (a problem or difficulty) successfully ▪ She hurdled [=overcame] many obstacles on her way to earning a college diploma.

– hur•dler /ˈhədlə/ noun, pl hur•dlers [count]

hur•dy–gur•dy /ˌhədiˈgədi/ noun, pl -dies [count]

1 : a stringed musical instrument that is played by turning a handle

2 : BARREL ORGAN

hurl /ˈhərl/ verb hurls; hurled; hurl•ing /ˈhəlɪŋ/

1 [+ obj] : to throw (something) with force ▪ Someone hurled a rock through the window. ▪ He hurled a chair at me. ▪ It looked like she was going to hurl herself down the stairs.

2 [+ obj] : to say or shout (something, such as an insult) in a loud and forceful way ▪ The protesters hurled insults at us.

3 [no obj] US slang : VOMIT

– hurl•er /ˈhələ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a baseball team with several talented hurlers [=pitchers]

hur•ly–bur•ly /ˌhəliˈbəli/ noun [noncount] : a very active or confused state or situation ▪ the hurly-burly of politics ▪ We left the hurly-burly of city life and moved to the countryside.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

hur•rah /hʊˈrɑː/ or hoo•ray /hʊˈreɪ/ also hur•ray /hʊˈreɪ/ interj — used to express joy, approval, or encouragement ▪ Hurrah! I got the job! ▪ Hip, hip, hooray! — sometimes + for ▪ Hurrah for the home team! — see also LAST HURRAH

hur•ri•cane /ˈhərəˌkeɪn, Brit ˈhʌrəkən/ noun, pl -canes [count] : an extremely large, powerful, and destructive storm with very strong winds that occurs especially in the western part of the Atlantic Ocean

hur•ried /ˈhərid/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : happening or done very quickly or too quickly ▪ The general was forced to make a hurried decision. ▪ She had a hurried meeting with her advisers before speaking to the press. ▪ a hurried meal/departure
2 : working very quickly or too quickly ▪ a hurried waitress
– hur•ried•ly /ˈhərədli/ adv ▪ a hurriedly scribbled note ▪ depart hurriedly

[1]hur•ry /ˈhəri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing
1 [no obj] : to move, act, or go quickly ▪ Take your time. There's no need to hurry. ▪ She hurried off to her class. ▪ He hurried after her. ▪ They hurried past us. ▪ Hurry (back) home now. ▪ We hurried through the lesson so that we could finish early. ▪ We'll miss our flight if we don't hurry. = If we don't hurry we'll miss our flight. — often + up ▪ If we don't hurry up we'll miss our flight. ▪ Hurry up! We're going to be late!
2 [+ obj] a : to make (someone) move, act, or go quickly ▪ She hates to be hurried [=rushed] at dinner. ▪ The teacher hurried us through the lesson. — often + up ▪ Somebody needs to hurry them up so we can leave. ▪ Could you hurry it up a little please? [=could you please do what you are doing a little more quickly?] b [+ obj] : to carry or send (someone or something) more quickly than usual ▪ They hurried the children off to bed. ▪ A messenger hurried [=rushed] the package across town.
3 [+ obj] a : to increase the speed of (something) ▪ He heard the train coming and hurried his pace. [=he began to walk more quickly] b : to do (something) quickly or too quickly ▪ Don't hurry [=rush] your homework. ▪ The quarterback was forced to hurry his throw.
hurry up and wait US, informal — used to describe a situation in which you are forced to spend a lot of time waiting ▪ My father says that all he did in the army was hurry up and wait. — sometimes used as a noun phrase ▪ Traveling often involves a lot of hurry up and wait. [=a lot of waiting]

[2]hurry noun [noncount] : a need to do something more quickly than usual : RUSH ▪ "Come on, let's go." "What's the (big) hurry?" [=why do we need to hurry?] ▪ Why the hurry? ▪ Take your time. There's no (great) hurry. ▪ In her hurry to leave she forgot her briefcase.
in a hurry 1 : very quickly ▪ The weather got worse in a hurry. 2 : feeling a strong need to move, act, or go quickly ▪ He was in too much of a hurry to stop and say hello. ▪ teenagers who are in a (big) hurry to grow up [=who are eager to grow up; who want to grow up quickly] ▪ We're not in a/any hurry. = We're in no hurry. [=we do not need to hurry; we have plenty of time] — sometimes used to say that someone does not want to do something ▪ It was getting late, but our guests were not in a/any hurry to leave. = Our guests were in no hurry to leave. [=we wanted our guests to leave, but they did not seem to want to leave] ▪ I'm in no (particular/big/great) hurry to go to the dentist.

[1]hurt /ˈhət/ verb hurts; hurt; hurt•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause pain or injury to (yourself, someone else, or a part of your body) ▪ Be careful with that knife or you could hurt yourself. ▪ Ouch! You're hurting my arm! ▪ I hurt my back (while) carrying a heavy box up the stairs. ▪ She was badly/seriously hurt in a car accident. ▪ My tooth/back still hurts me. ▪ Don't worry about the dog—he wouldn't hurt a y. [=the dog would never bite or attack anyone; the dog is very gentle] synonyms see INJURE b [no obj] : to be a source or cause of pain ▪ My tooth/back hurts (a lot/little). ▪ It hurts [=it is painful] to walk on hot pavement with bare feet. ▪ The injection didn't hurt at all. = It didn't hurt a bit. ▪ Ouch! That hurts! ▪ My arm hurts very badly. = (informally) My arm hurts like hell. ▪ My leg hurt. = (chiefly US) My leg was hurting. c [no obj] : to feel physical pain ▪ When I woke up this morning I hurt all over.
2 a [+ obj] : to make (someone) sad or upset : to cause (someone) to suffer emotionally ▪ Their lack of interest in her work hurt her deeply. ▪ You're only hurting yourself by holding a grudge against them. ▪ It hurt me to see her go. ▪ It hurts me to say this [=I don't enjoy saying this], but I just don't think you can do the job. ▪ I can't tell him the meal was bad because I don't want to hurt his feelings. [=hurt him; make him sad or upset] b [no obj] : to feel emotional pain or distress ▪ My sister has really been hurting [=has been very upset and unhappy] since her boyfriend left her.
3 : to do harm to (someone or something) : to affect (someone or something) in a bad or harmful way : DAMAGE [+ obj] The lack of rain has hurt the corn crop. ▪ If we lose this game it will seriously hurt our chances of making the playoffs. ▪ These new regulations will hurt small businesses. ▪ hurt profits/sales ▪ There's no doubt that this scandal has hurt her image. ▪ Would it hurt you to cook dinner for once? = It wouldn't hurt you to cook dinner for once. [=you should cook dinner] ▪ As far as he's concerned, what he doesn't know can't/won't hurt him. [=he would rather not know about something; he thinks that if he does not know about something, he cannot be damaged by it, blamed for it, etc.] [no obj] The company needs to cut spending, even if it hurts. — usually used in negative statements ▪ I know he's qualified for the job, but it doesn't hurt [=it helps] that the company president is his mother's best friend. ▪ It wouldn't hurt to try a little harder. [=you should try a little harder] ▪ We may not finish on time, but it won't hurt to try. [=we should try] ▪ "Should I ask her for a job?" "It couldn't/can't hurt (to ask)." [=she may give you a job if you ask]
4 [no obj] : to have many problems : to be in a bad situation or condition ▪ Those poor people are hurting and need our help. ▪ The local economy is hurting right now. [=it is doing poorly] hurt for [phrasal verb] US, informal 1 *hurt for (something) : to lack (something needed) ▪ Those children are hurting for attention. [=those children need to be given more attention] ▪ The company is hurting for money right now. 2 *hurt for (someone) : to have sympathy or pity for (someone) ▪ I hurt for [=feel for] those poor people.

[2]hurt adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a physical injury ▪ Those who are most badly/seriously hurt [=injured] will be cared for first. ▪ She has a hurt back.
2 : feeling or showing emotional pain ▪ She gave him a hurt look. ▪ hurt [=wounded] pride ▪ I was/felt deeply hurt by their refusal to help. [=I was very sad or upset because they refused to help] ▪ His behavior at the party caused a lot of hurt feelings. [=it made many people upset or sad]

[3]hurt noun, pl hurts : mental or emotional pain [noncount] Her sympathy eased the hurt he felt after his dog's death. ▪ It takes a long time to get past the hurt [=suffering] of a bitter divorce. [count] They felt a great hurt after their bitter divorce. ▪ She tried to put past hurts behind her.
put the/a hurt on US, informal : to injure or damage (someone or something) ▪ If we adopt a more aggressive strategy, we can really put the hurt on our competitors. ▪ They really put a hurt on him. [=hurt/injured him very badly] hurt•ful /ˈhətfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing injury or emotional pain; especially : cruel or unkind ▪ She can't forgive him for the hurtful things he said. ▪ hurtful gossip ▪ Their comments were really hurtful to me.

– hurt•ful•ly adv ▪ He spoke hurtfully to her. – hurt•ful•ness noun [noncount]

hur•tle /ˈhətl/ verb hur•tles; hur•tled; hur•tling
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move or fall with great speed and force ▪ Boulders hurtled down the hill. ▪ comets hurtling through space ▪ We kept to the side of the road as cars and trucks hurtled past us. — often used figuratively ▪ a country hurtling toward disaster
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to move or go with great speed and force : HURL ▪ The protesters hurtled bottles at the police. ▪ He hurtled himself into the crowd.

[1]hus•band /ˈhʌzbənd/ noun, pl -bands [count] : a married man : the man someone is married to ▪ Have you met her husband? ▪ They were husband and wife [=a married couple] for almost 60 years. — compare WIFE

[2]husband verb -bands; -band•ed; -band•ing [+ obj] formal : to carefully use or manage (something, such as a resource) ▪ The country has husbanded its resources well.

hus•band•ry /ˈhʌzbəndri/ noun [singular] formal : the activity of raising plants or animals for food : FARMING ▪ crop husbandry — see also ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

[1]hush /ˈhʌʃ/ verb hush•es; hushed; hush•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (someone) quiet, calm, or still ▪ The woman in the seat behind me was trying to hush her baby. ▪ The judge hushed the spectators. — often used as (be) hushed ▪

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

The crowd was hushed. ▪ a hushed [=quiet] courtroom ▪ speaking in hushed [=whispering] tones

2 [no obj] : to become quiet ▪ The spectators hushed as the judge entered the courtroom. ▪ The room hushed [=people stopped talking, making noise, etc.] as the theater lights dimmed. — usually used to tell someone to be quiet ▪ Hush, children. I'm going to tell you a story.

hush up [phrasal verb] hush (something) up or hush up (something) : to prevent people from knowing the truth about (something, such as a crime) ▪ hush up a crime/scandal ▪ The city government tried to hush things up when the mayor was arrested.

[2]hush noun [singular] : a time of silence, stillness, or calm especially after noise ▪ A hush fell/came over the theater. = A hush settled/descended on the theater. [=the theater became quiet; people stopped talking, making noise, etc.]

hush–hush /ˈhʌʃˌhʌʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : kept secret : known only to a few people ▪ He wants to keep the relationship hush-hush. ▪ She works for a hush-hush government agency.

hush money noun [noncount] : money paid so that someone will keep information secret : money that you pay someone to hush something up ▪ He's accused of paying her hush money to keep their affair secret.

H

[1]husk /ˈhʌsk/ noun, pl husks [count] : a usually thin, dry layer that covers some seeds and fruits ▪ a corn husk [=(US) shuck] — see color picture on page C4

[2]husk verb husks; husked; husk•ing [+ obj] : to remove the thin, dry layer that covers some seeds and fruits : to remove the husk from (something) ▪ Please husk [=(US) shuck] the corn while I set the table.

[1]hus•ky /ˈhʌski/ adj hus•ki•er; -est

1 of a voice : sounding somewhat rough ▪ a husky [=hoarse] voice

2 : large and strong ▪ a husky [=burly] laborer

[2]husky noun, pl hus•kies [count] : a large dog with thick fur that is used for pulling sleds — see picture at DOG

hus•sy /ˈhʌsi/ noun, pl -sies [count] old-fashioned + offensive : a girl or woman who does things that people consider immoral, improper, etc. ▪ a brazen/wanton hussy ✧ Hussy is now rarely used except in a joking way.

hus•tings /ˈhʌstɪŋz/ noun

on the hustings : making speeches, meeting people, etc., in order to get people to vote for you : campaigning for a political office ▪ candidates who are (out) on the hustings

the hustings : the political speeches, meetings, etc., that happen before an election ▪ news reports from the hustings

[1]hus•tle /ˈhʌsəl/ verb hus•tles; hus•tled; hus•tling /ˈhʌsəlɪŋ/

1 [+ obj] : to quickly move or push (someone) often in a rough way ▪ The guards hustled the prisoners into the jail. ▪ The star's manager hustled him out the back door of the theater to avoid the throngs of fans. ▪ She hustled the children (off) to school.

2 [no obj] chiefly US a : to move or work in a quick and energetic way ▪ If we want to catch that bus, we're going to have to hustle. [=rush] b : to play a sport with a lot of energy and effort ▪ He's not the most talented player on the team, but he always hustles.

3 US, informal a : to get (something, such as money) in an illegal or improper way [+ obj] She spent her mornings hustling change [=asking people for money] on the sidewalk. [no obj] hustling for money b [+ obj] : to sell (something illegal, such as drugs) ▪ He's been hustling drugs for a few years. : to sell (something) in an illegal or improper way ▪ They hustle diamonds, furs—whatever people are buying.

4 [+ obj] informal a : to take something and especially money from (someone) by lying or doing something unfair : to swindle or cheat (someone) ▪ She's accused of running an elaborate scam to hustle elderly people. b chiefly US : to earn money by playing (a gambling game) and especially by playing against people who are less skillful than you are ▪ He made a living by hustling pool.

5 [no obj] US, informal : to work as a prostitute hustle up [phrasal verb] hustle up (something) or hustle (something) up US, informal : to quickly get or find (something) ▪ I'll try to hustle up [=rustle up] some tickets to tonight's game. ▪ Let's see if we can hustle up some grub. [=find something to eat]

[2]hustle noun, pl hustles

1 [noncount] a : energetic activity ▪ I enjoy the hustle and bustle of the city. b chiefly US : effort and energy in playing a sport ▪ The fans admire him for his hustle.

2 [count] informal : a dishonest plan for getting money ▪ She's always trying some kind of hustle [=scam] on the street.

hus•tler /ˈhʌslə/ noun, pl hus•tlers [count] : a person who hustles: such as a chiefly US : a person who regularly earns money by playing a gambling game ▪ a pool hustler b chiefly US, informal : PROSTITUTE hut /ˈhʌt/ noun, pl huts [count] : a small and simple house or building ▪ a mud/wooden hut [=shack]

hutch /ˈhʌʧ/ noun, pl hutch•es [count]

1 US : a piece of furniture that is used for displaying and storing dishes — called also (Brit) dresser, (Brit) Welsh dresser

2 : an enclosed area or cage for an animal ▪ a rabbit hutch

HVAC abbr heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning; heating, ventilation, and air-conditioning

hwy abbr highway

hy•a•cinth /ˈhajəsɪnθ/ noun, pl -cinths [count] : a type of plant that is grown in gardens and has flowers that smell sweet

hy•brid /ˈhaɪbrəd/ noun, pl -brids [count]

1 : an animal or plant that is produced from two animals or plants of different kinds ▪ a hybrid of two roses

2 : something that is formed by combining two or more things ▪ The band plays a hybrid of jazz and rock.

– hybrid adj, always used before a noun ▪ a hybrid rose/tree ▪ The car is a hybrid vehicle that uses both electricity and gasoline.

hy•dra /ˈhaɪdrə/ noun, pl -dras

1 Hydra [singular] : a monster in Greek mythology that has many heads

2 [count] : a very complicated and serious problem that cannot be easily solved ▪ trying to slay the hydra of inflation

hy•drant /ˈhaɪdrənt/ noun, pl -drants [count] : FIRE HYDRANT

[1]hy•drate /ˈhaɪˌdreɪt/ noun, pl -drates [count] technical : a substance that is formed when water combines with another substance

[2]hydrate verb -drates; -drat•ed; -drat•ing [+ obj] somewhat technical : to add water or moisture to (something) ▪ lotions and creams that hydrate the skin : to supply (something) with water ▪ Drink fluids to hydrate the body. — opposite DEHYDRATE – hydrated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Remember to stay hydrated. [=to drink enough water] – hy•dra•tion /haɪˈdreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

hy•drau•lic /haɪˈdrɑːlɪk/ adj

1 : operated by the pressure of a fluid ▪ hydraulic brakes ▪ the airplane's hydraulic system

2 : occurring or used in a hydraulic system ▪ hydraulic fluid ▪ hydraulic pressure

– hy•drau•li•cal•ly /haɪˈdrɑːlɪkli/ adv ▪ hydraulically controlled brakes hy•drau•lics /haɪˈdrɑːlɪks/ noun [noncount] : the science that deals with ways to use liquid (such as water) when it is moving hy•dro•car•bon /ˈhaɪdroʊˌkɑəbən/ noun, pl -bons [count] technical : a substance (such as coal or natural gas) that contains only carbon and hydrogen

hy•dro•chlo•ric acid /ˌhaɪdrəˈklorɪk-/ noun [noncount] chemistry : a strong acid that is used especially in scientific experiments and in manufacturing

hy•dro•elec•tric /ˌhaɪdrowɪˈlɛktrɪk/ adj, technical : of or relating to the production of electricity by using machines that are powered by moving water ▪ a hydroelectric dam ▪ hydroelectric power

– hy•dro•elec•tric•i•ty /ˌhaɪdrowɪˌlɛkˈtrɪsəti/ noun [noncount]

hy•dro•foil /ˈhaɪdrəˌfojəl/ noun, pl -foils [count] : a very fast boat that rises partly out of the water when moving at high speeds

hy•dro•gen /ˈhaɪdrəʤən/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that has no color or smell and that is the simplest, lightest, and most common element hy•dro•ge•nat•ed /ˌhaɪˈdrɑːʤəˌneɪtəd/ adj, technical, of an oil or fat : having hydrogen added ▪ hydrogenated fats/oils ▪ The study showed that partially hydrogenated oils increase the risk of heart disease.

hydrogen bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a bomb that produces an extremely powerful and destructive explosion when hydrogen atoms unite — called also H-bomb

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-h

hydrogen peroxide noun [noncount] : a liquid that is used to make things lighter in color or to kill bacteria

[1]hy•dro•plane /ˈhaɪdrəˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] : a boat that is designed to move over the surface of water at very high speeds

[2]hydroplane verb -planes; -planed; -plan•ing [no obj] US, of a vehicle : to slide on a wet road because a thin layer of water on the road causes the tires to lose contact with it ▪ The car started hydroplaning and skidded off the road.

hy•dro•pon•ics /ˌhaɪdrəˈpɑːnɪks/ noun [noncount] technical : a method of growing plants in water rather than in soil
– hy•dro•pon•ic /ˌhaɪdrəˈpɑːnɪk/ adj ▪ hydroponic gardening/vegetables

hy•dro•pow•er /ˈhaɪdrəˌpawɚ/ noun [noncount] : electricity produced from machines that are run by moving water

hy•dro•ther•a•py /ˌhaɪdrəˈθerəpi/ noun, pl -pies [count, noncount] : the use of water in the treatment of disease or injury

hy•e•na /haɪˈiːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : a large animal of Asia and Africa that eats the flesh of dead animals ▪ a pack of hyenas ✧ The call of the hyena sounds like very loud laughter, and the hyena is sometimes referred to as a laughing hyena. A person who is laughing in a loud or foolish way is sometimes described as laughing like a hyena.

hyena

hy•giene /ˈhaɪˌʤiːn/ noun [noncount] : the things that you do to keep yourself and your surroundings clean in order to maintain good health ▪ Poor sanitation and hygiene caused many of the soldiers to get sick. ▪ He has very poor personal hygiene. ▪ Brushing your teeth regularly is an important part of good dental/oral hygiene.

hy•gien•ic /haɪˈʤiːnɪk, haɪˈʤɛnɪk/ adj
1 : relating to being clean and the the things that are done to maintain good health : of or relating to hygiene ▪ For hygienic reasons, restaurants should wash silverware and drinking glasses more than once.
2 [more ~; most ~] : clean and likely to maintain good health : having or showing good hygiene ▪ The hygienic conditions of the operating room are maintained by the nursing staff. ▪ The prisoners' living quarters were not hygienic.
– hy•gien•i•cal•ly /haɪˈʤiːnɪkli, haiˈʤɛnɪkli/ adv

hy•gien•ist /haɪˈʤiːnɪst, haɪˈʤɛnɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : DENTAL HYGIENIST

hy•men /ˈhaɪmən/ noun, pl -mens [count] : a fold of tissue that partly covers the opening of the vagina hymn /ˈhɪm/ noun, pl hymns [count] : a religious song : a song that praises God ▪ sing a hymn of praise/thanksgiving ▪ a book of hymns = a hymn book — sometimes used figuratively ▪ This sentimental novel is a hymn to childhood and innocence. [=the novel praises childhood and innocence]

hym•nal /ˈhɪmnəl/ noun, pl -nals [count] : a book of hymns

[1]hype /ˈhaɪp/ noun [noncount] informal + often disapproving : talk or writing that is intended to make people excited about or interested in something or someone ▪ There was a great deal of media hype surrounding the senator's announcement. ▪ After months of promotional hype, the band finally released their new album.

[2]hype verb hypes; hyped; hyp•ing [+ obj] informal + often disapproving : to talk or write about (something or someone) in a way that is intended to make people excited or interested ▪ He's being hyped (up) as the next big rap star. ▪ Company executives have been hyping the new software for months.
hype up [phrasal verb] hype (someone) up or hype up (someone) informal : to make (someone) very excited ▪ The announcer was trying to hype the crowd up before the show started. — often used as hyped up ▪ I was so hyped up, I couldn't sleep.

hy•per /ˈhaɪpɚ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very excited, nervous, or active ▪ a hyper [=hyperactive] kid ▪ I get a little hyper when I drink too much coffee.

hyper- /ˈhaɪpɚ/ prefix
1 : excessively or extremely ▪ *hyper*active ▪ *hyper*sensitive
2 : excessive or extreme ▪ *hyper*sensitivity ▪ *hyper*tension hy•per•ac•tive /ˌhaɪpɚˈæktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely active or too active ▪ hyperactive children ▪ All of these wild characters are products of the author's hyperactive [=overactive] imagination.

– hy•per•ac•tiv•i•ty /ˌhaɪpɚˌækˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount]

hy•per•bo•le /haɪˈpɚbəli/ noun, pl -les : language that describes something as better or worse than it really is [noncount] In describing his accomplishments, he's somewhat given to hyperbole. [=he tends to exaggerate his accomplishments] [count] The customer's letter of complaint was filled with hyperboles [=(more commonly) exaggerations] and outrageous claims.
– hy•per•bol•ic /ˌhaɪpɚˈbɑːlɪk/ adj ▪ hyperbolic [=(more commonly) exaggerated] claims about his accomplishments

hy•per•crit•i•cal /ˌhaɪpɚˈkrɪtɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : criticizing other people or things too strongly or too often ▪ a hypercritical boss ▪ a hypercritical movie review hy•per•drive /ˈhaɪpɚˌdraɪv/ noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : a state of extremely fast activity ▪ With only a few weeks left before the election, the campaign has shifted into hyperdrive. [=has shifted into overdrive; has become extremely active]

hy•per•in• a•tion /ˌhaɪpɚɪnˈfleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : extremely rapid increase in the price of goods and services : extremely rapid economic inflation

hy•per•link /ˈhaɪpɚˌlɪŋk/ noun, pl -links [count] computers : a highlighted word or picture in a document or Web page that you can click on with a computer mouse to go to another place in the same or a different document or Web page

hy•per•mar•ket /ˈhaɪpɚˌmɑɚkət/ noun, pl -ets [count] chiefly Brit : a very large supermarket

hy•per•sen•si•tive /ˌhaɪpɚˈsɛnsətɪv/ adj : very sensitive: such as a : having feelings that are very easily hurt ▪ a hypersensitive child ▪ She's hypersensitive about her past. b : very strongly and easily affected or harmed by something (such as a drug) ▪ People who are hypersensitive to the chemical may have violent reactions even to small amounts.
– hy•per•sen•si•tiv•i•ty /ˌhaɪpɚsɛnsəˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount]

hy•per•ten•sion /ˌhaɪpɚˈtɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] medical : high blood pressure ▪ He's being treated for hypertension.
– hy•per•ten•sive /ˌhaɪpɚˈtɛnsɪv/ adj ▪ hypertensive patients

hy•per•text /ˈhaɪpɚˌtɛkst/ noun [noncount] computers : an arrangement of the information in a computer database that allows a user to get information and to go from one document to another by clicking on highlighted words or pictures

hy•per•ven•ti•late /ˌhaɪpɚˈvɛntəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [no obj] : to breathe very quickly and deeply ▪ The boy panicked and began hyperventilating. ✧ When you hyperventilate you breathe so quickly that you begin to feel dizzy. Hyperventilate is also sometimes used figuratively to describe a person who is becoming very upset or excited but not actually breathing quickly. ▪ The latest economic news has prompted a lot of hyperventilating on Wall Street. [=people on Wall Street are very upset about the news]
– hy•per•ven•ti•la•tion /ˌhaɪpɚˌvɛntəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

hy•phen /ˈhaɪfən/ noun, pl -phens [count] : a punctuation mark - that is used to connect words or parts of words

hy•phen•ate /ˈhaɪfəˌneɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to connect (words or parts of words) with a hyphen ▪ In English, we hyphenate some compounds but not others.
– hyphenated adj ▪ "Runner-up" is a hyphenated term.

hyp•no•sis /hɪpˈnoʊsəs/ noun [noncount] : a state that resembles sleep but in which you can hear and respond to questions or suggestions ▪ He underwent hypnosis to treat his fear of water. ▪ While under hypnosis, she described the horrific accident in detail.

hyp•no•ther•a•py /ˌhɪpnoʊˈθerəpi/ noun [noncount] medical : the use of hypnosis to help people with emotional and psychological problems

[1]hyp•not•ic /hɪpˈnɑːtɪk/ adj
1 always used before a noun : of or relating to hypnosis ▪ The psychologist put her into a hypnotic state.
2 [more ~; most ~] : having an effect like hypnosis: such as a : tending to cause sleep or relaxation ▪ Riding in a car often has a hypnotic effect on babies. ▪ the steady, hypnotic rhythm of the train b : attractive or interesting in a powerful or mysterious way ▪ Her voice is powerful and hypnotic. [=spellbinding, fascinating] ▪ a hypnotic personality
– hyp•not•i•cal•ly /hɪpˈnɑːtɪkli/ adv ▪ chanting hypnotically

H

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−h

[2]hypnotic noun, pl -ics [count] medical : a drug that causes sleep

hyp•no•tism /ˈhɪpnəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the act or practice of putting people into a state of hypnosis ▪ a psychologist who employs hypnotism to treat his patients

hyp•no•tist /ˈhɪpnəˌtɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] : a person who puts people into a state of hypnosis : a person who hypnotizes people

hyp•no•tize also Brit hyp•no•tise /ˈhɪpnəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (a person) into a state of hypnosis ▪ The therapist hypnotized him and asked him questions about his traumatic experiences in the war. ▪ a hypnotized patient
2 : to hold the attention of (someone) : to attract (someone) in a powerful or mysterious way ▪ He can hypnotize people with his stare. — often used as (be) hypnotized ▪ I was hypnotized [=fascinated] by her beauty.
– hypnotizing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ hypnotizing beauty

hypo- prefix
1 : under : beneath : down ▪ *hypo*dermic
2 : less than normal or normally ▪ *hypo*tension ▪ *hypo*thermia

hy•po•chon•dria /ˌhaɪpəˈkɑːndrijə/ noun [noncount] : unusual or excessive concern about your health : a tendency to fear or imagine that you have illnesses that you do not actually have ▪ She fueled her hypochondria by reading articles about rare diseases.

hy•po•chon•dri•ac /ˌhaɪpəˈkɑːndriˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : a person who is often or always worried about being ill ▪ My brother is a real hypochondriac. Every time he reads about some new disease, he thinks he has it.

hy•poc•ri•sy /hɪˈpɑːkrəsi/ noun, pl -sies disapproving : the behavior of people who do things that they tell other people not to do : behavior that does not agree with what someone claims to believe or feel [noncount] When his private letters were made public, they revealed his hypocrisy. ▪ the hypocrisy of people who say one thing but do another [count] Teenagers often have a keen awareness of their parents' hypocrisies.

hyp•o•crite /ˈhɪpəˌkrɪt/ noun, pl -crites [count] disapproving : a person who claims or pretends to have certain beliefs about what is right but who behaves in a way that disagrees with those beliefs ▪ the hypocrites who criticize other people for not voting but who don't always vote themselves
– hyp•o•crit•i•cal /ˌhɪpəˈkrɪtɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It's hypocritical of you to demand respect from your students when you don't respect them in return. ▪ a hypocritical remark ▪ hypocritical politicians – hyp•o•crit•i•cal•ly /ˌhɪpəˈkrɪtɪkli/ adv

[1]hy•po•der•mic /ˌhaɪpəˈdəːmɪk/ adj, medical
1 : going under the skin ▪ a hypodermic injection
2 : used for putting fluids into or taking fluids out of the body by going under the skin ▪ a hypodermic needle [=a thin, hollow needle used for giving people injections] ▪ a hypodermic syringe

[2]hypodermic noun, pl -mics [count] medical : a device that uses a thin, hollow needle for putting fluids into or taking fluids out of the body : SYRINGE

hy•po•ten•sion /ˌhaɪpoʊˈtɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] medical : low blood pressure
– hy•po•ten•sive /ˌhaɪpoʊˈtɛnsɪv/ adj ▪ hypotensive patients

hy•pot•e•nuse /ˌhaɪˈpɑːtəˌnuːs, Brit ˌhaɪˈpɒtəˌnjuːz/ noun, pl -nus•es [count] mathematics : the long side opposite the right angle of a triangle

hy•po•ther•mia /ˌhaɪpoʊˈθəːmijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which the temperature of your body is very low ▪ She fell into the cold water and nearly died from hypothermia.

hy•poth•e•sis /ˌhaɪˈpɑːθəsəs/ noun, pl -e•ses /-əˌsiːz/ [count] : an idea or theory that is not proven but that leads to further study or discussion ▪ Other chemists rejected his hypothesis. ▪ put forward a hypothesis = advance a hypothesis ▪ Their hypothesis is that watching excessive amounts of television reduces a person's ability to concentrate. ▪ The results of the experiment did not support/confirm his hypothesis.

hypodermic

hy•poth•e•size also Brit hy•poth•e•sise /ˌhaɪˈpɑːθəˌsaɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing [+ obj] : to suggest (an idea or theory) : to make or suggest (a hypothesis) ▪ Psychologists hypothesized that his odd behavior was caused by a chemical imbalance in the brain. ▪ Biologists have hypothesized a relationship between the two species. [=biologists have suggested that there may be a relationship between the two species]

hy•po•thet•i•cal /ˌhaɪpəˈθɛtɪkəl/ adj
1 : involving or based on a suggested idea or theory : involving or based on a hypothesis ▪ a hypothetical argument/discussion ▪ The theory is hypothetical.
2 : not real : imagined as an example ▪ She described a hypothetical case to clarify her point. ▪ a hypothetical question/situation/example
– hy•po•thet•i•cal•ly /ˌhaɪpəˈθɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ Suppose, hypothetically, that you were offered a large sum of money in exchange for revealing company secrets. Would you accept the offer? ▪ We're just speaking hypothetically.

hys•ter•ec•to•my /hɪstəˈrɛktəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count, noncount] medical : an operation to remove a woman's uterus ▪ a surgeon who has performed many hysterectomies

hys•te•ria /hɪˈstɪrijə, hɪˈstɪrijə/ noun [noncount]
1 : a state in which your emotions (such as fear) are so strong that you behave in an uncontrolled way ▪ A few of the children began to scream, and soon they were all caught up in the hysteria. ▪ fits/attacks of hysteria
2 : a situation in which many people behave or react in an extreme or uncontrolled way because of fear, anger, etc. ▪ Wartime hysteria led to many unfair accusations of treachery. ▪ The spreading of the disease caused/produced mass hysteria in the village.

hys•ter•ic /hɪˈstɛrɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] usually disapproving : a person who behaves or reacts in an extremely or foolishly emotional way : a hysterical person ▪ He dismisses his critics as a bunch of hysterics who are always predicting disaster. — see also HYSTERICS hys•ter•i•cal /hɪˈstɛrɪkəl/ also hysteric adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : feeling or showing extreme and uncontrolled emotion : marked by hysteria ▪ crowds of screaming, hysterical fans ▪ By the time the police arrived, the victim had become hysterical. ▪ She burst into shrieks of hysterical laughter.
2 informal : very funny ▪ I think his movies are hysterical.
– hys•ter•i•cal•ly /hɪˈstɛrɪkli/ adv ▪ The child was crying/laughing hysterically. ▪ His movies are hysterically funny.

hys•ter•ics /hɪˈstɛrɪks/ noun [plural] : uncontrolled laughter, crying, or extreme emotion : a fit of hysteria ▪ My mother went into hysterics [=she became very upset] when she saw my tattoo. = My mother had hysterics when she saw my tattoo. ▪ The audience was in hysterics [=was laughing very hard] throughout the movie.

Hz abbr hertz

I

i or I /ˈaɪ/ noun, pl i's or is or I's or Is /ˈaɪz/
1 : the ninth letter of the English alphabet [count] The word "ice" begins with an i. [noncount] The word "ice" begins with i.
2 [count] : the number one in Roman numerals

[1]I /ˈaɪ/ pronoun : the person who is speaking or writing — used as the subject of a verb ▪ I feel fine ▪ I think (that) we should leave now. ▪ I like to drive. ▪ I can do that myself. ▪ You and I will be going to the movies together. ▪ My brother and I are five years apart in age. ▪ I am here. ▪ Here I am. — compare ME, MINE, MY, WE usage see [1]ME

[2]I abbr island, isle

IA abbr Iowa

iamb /ˈaɪˌæm/ noun, pl iambs [count] technical : a unit of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i rhythm in poetry that consists of one syllable that is not accented or stressed followed by one syllable that is accented or stressed (as in the words away or above)

– iam•bic /aɪˈæmbɪk/ adj ▪ iambic stanzas/poetry ▪ iambic pentameter

-ian see -AN

Ibe•ri•an /aɪˈbirijən/ adj : of or relating to Spain and Portugal ▪ the Iberian Peninsula ▪ Iberian peoples

ibex /ˈaɪˌbɛks/ noun, pl ibex or ibex•es [count] : a wild goat that lives chiefly in the mountains of Europe, Asia, and northeastern Africa ibid abbr — used in formal writing to indicate that a reference is from the same source as a previous reference ✧ Ibid is an abbreviation of the Latin word "ibidem," which means "in the same place."

-ibility see -ABILITY ibis /ˈaɪbəs/ noun, pl ibis or ibis•es [count] : a tall bird that has long legs and a long bill that curves downward

-ible see -ABLE

ibu•pro•fen /ˌaɪbjʊˈproʊfən/ noun [noncount] medical : a medicine that reduces pain and fever

[1]-ic /ɪk/ adj suffix
1 : having the character or form of ▪ panoram*ic* ▪ cherub*ic*
2 a : of or relating to ▪ chival*ric* b : coming from or containing ▪ acid*ic*
3 : in the manner of : like that of ▪ autocrat*ic*
4 : making use of ▪ electron*ic* ▪ atom*ic*

[2]-ic noun suffix
1 : someone belonging to or connected with ▪ academ*ic*
2 : someone affected by ▪ alcohol*ic*

-i•cal /ɪkəl/ adj suffix : [1]-IC ▪ symmetr*ical* ▪ geolog*ical*

ICBM /ˌaɪˌsiːˌbiːˈɛm/ noun, pl ICBM's or ICBMs [count] : a type of missile that can fly from one continent to another ✧ ICBM is an abbreviation of "intercontinental ballistic missile."

[1]ice /ˈaɪs/ noun, pl ic•es
1 [noncount] a : frozen water ▪ The steps were coated with ice. ▪ a piece of ice ▪ Ice formed on the car's windows. ▪ The ice melted quickly in the hot sun. ▪ ice crystals/particles/sculptures ▪ ice cubes — see also DRY ICE b : a sheet of frozen water ▪ She skated out onto the ice. ▪ He almost fell through a hole in the ice. — see also BLACK ICE, CENTER ICE c : cubes or pieces of ice ▪ Fill the glass with ice.
2 a [count, noncount] US : a frozen dessert of crushed ice sweetened with fruit juice ▪ (a) raspberry ice b [count] Brit, old-fashioned : a serving of ice cream
3 [noncount] US slang, old-fashioned : diamonds or jewelry ▪ He gave her some ice for her birthday. ▪ She was dripping with ice. [=she was wearing a lot of diamond jewelry] break the ice informal : to say or do something that helps people to relax and begin talking at a meeting, party, etc. ▪ He told a joke to break the ice. — see also ICEBREAKER 2 cut ice informal : to have importance to someone — usually + with; used in negative statements ▪ His opinion doesn't cut any ice with me. = His opinion cuts no ice with me. [=his opinion is not important to me] on ice 1 : on top of pieces of ice in order to be kept cool ▪ I'll put the champagne on ice. 2 informal : in the state of being delayed for a time ▪ We'll have to put/keep the project on ice until more funds become available. [=we'll have to stop working on the project until more funds become available] 3 US, informal : in a condition that makes victory certain ▪ With that last goal they put the game on ice. [=they iced the game; they made it certain that they would win the game] on thin ice : in a dangerous situation : in a situation that may cause you to get into trouble ▪ In going against his father's wishes, he was (skating/walking) on thin ice.

[2]ice verb ices; iced; ic•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) cold with ice ▪ Ice the glasses before you fill them. ▪ ice [=put ice on] a twisted ankle
2 : to cover (something, such as a cake) with icing ▪ Ice [=(US) frost] the cake after it has cooled.
3 US, informal : to make winning or getting (something) certain ▪ The last goal iced [=clinched] the game/win. ▪ His persuasive talk iced [=secured] the contract.
4 ice hockey : to shoot (the puck) down the rink and beyond the opponent's goal
5 US slang, old-fashioned : to kill or murder (someone) ▪ He had all his enemies iced.
ice over/up [phrasal verb] : to become covered with ice ▪ The freezing rain caused the roads to ice over. ▪ As the weather grew colder, the pond iced over. ▪ The wings of the plane iced up during the storm.

ice age or Ice Age noun, pl ~ ages [count] : a time in the distant past when a large part of the world was covered with ice ▪ changes that occurred during the last ice age ▪ a valley formed during the Ice Age [=the most recent ice age]

ice ax noun, pl ~ axes [count] : a cutting tool that is used in mountain climbing ice•berg /ˈaɪsˌbəːg/ noun, pl -bergs [count] : a very large piece of ice floating in the ocean the tip of the iceberg : a small part of something (such as a problem) that is seen or known about when there is a much larger part that is not seen or known about ▪ The news is shocking, but we may find out that the stories we've heard so far are just the tip of the iceberg.

iceberg lettuce noun [noncount] : a type of light green lettuce that is often eaten in salads — see color picture on page C4 ice•bound /ˈaɪsˌbaʊnd/ adj : surrounded or blocked by ice ▪ The harbor was icebound. ▪ The ship became icebound.

ice•box /ˈaɪsˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] US, old-fashioned : REFRIGERATOR ice•break•er /ˈaɪsˌbreɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a ship designed to clear a passage through ice
2 : something done or said to help people to relax and begin talking at a meeting, party, etc. ▪ using an old joke as a conversational icebreaker — see also break the ice at [1]ICE ice cap noun, pl ~ caps [count] : a very large and thick sheet of ice that covers the North Pole, the South Pole, or another region ▪ the polar ice cap

ice–cold /ˈaɪsˈkoʊld/ adj : very cold ▪ My hands were ice-cold. ▪ ice-cold beer ice cream /ˌaɪsˈkriːm/ noun, pl ~ creams : a frozen food containing sweetened and flavored cream [noncount] What flavor of ice cream do you like? ▪ chocolate/vanilla ice cream [count] Would you like another ice cream? [=another serving of ice cream] — often used before another noun ▪ an ice-cream parlor/stand/soda ice–cream cone noun, pl ~ cones [count] : a thin, crisp cake that is shaped like a cone and used for holding ice cream; also : one filled with ice cream ▪ We each had an ice-cream cone for dessert.

iced adj : containing small pieces of ice or ice cubes ▪ iced coffee/tea ice eld noun, pl ~ elds [count] : a large area of land covered with ice ice shing noun [noncount] : fishing that is done in winter through a hole that is cut in the ice on a lake, pond, etc.

ice oe noun, pl ~ oes [count] : a large, flat area of ice floating in the ocean ice hockey noun [noncount] : a game played on an ice rink in which two teams of six players on skates use curved sticks to try to shoot a puck into the opponent's goal — called also (US) hockey; compare FIELD HOCKEY ice lolly noun, pl ~ lollies [count] Brit : a piece of flavored ice that is eaten off a stick — compare POPSICLE ice pack noun, pl ~ packs [count]

1 : a container or bag filled with ice that is used to cool part of your body ▪ He had an ice pack on his sore elbow.
2 : a large area of ice on the ocean formed from pieces and sheets of ice that have been pushed together by wind and waves ice pick noun, pl ~ picks [count] : a sharp tool used for breaking off small pieces of ice ice rink noun, pl ~ rinks [count] : an often enclosed area that has a sheet of ice for ice-skating ice sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] : a very large and thick area of ice that covers a region ice show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a show in which ice-skaters perform to music ice skate noun, pl ~ skates [count] : a shoe with a special blade on the bottom that is used for skating on ice ▪ a pair of ice skates

ice–skate /ˈaɪsˌskeɪt/ verb -skates; -skat•ed; -skat•ing [no obj] : to skate on ice ▪ I had never ice-skated before.
– ice–skat•er /ˈaɪsˌskeɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ There were several ice-skaters at the rink. – ice–skating noun [noncount] ▪ They use the frozen pond for ice-skating. ▪ Let's go ice-skating.

ice storm noun, pl ~ storms [count] : a storm in which falling rain freezes as it lands

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i ice water noun [noncount] US : water that has ice in it : very cold water ▪ a glass of ice water [=(Brit) iced water] ice water in your veins US, informal ✧ If you have ice water in your veins, you remain very calm and controlled in a situation in which other people would become upset or afraid.

ici•cle /ˈaɪˌsɪkəl/ noun, pl ici•cles [count] : a hanging piece of ice formed when water freezes as it drips down from something (such as a roof)

ic•ing /ˈaɪsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : FROSTING ▪ a cake with chocolate icing icing on the cake : something extra that makes a good thing even better ▪ The concert itself was great, and getting to meet the band afterward was (the) icing on the cake.

icing sugar noun [noncount] Brit : POWDERED SUGAR

icky /ˈɪki/ adj ick•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : having a very unpleasant quality ▪ The trail was icky with mud. ▪ an icky taste icon /ˈaɪˌkɑːn/ noun, pl icons [count]

1 computers : a small picture on a computer screen that represents a program or function ▪ Click on the icon to open your e-mail program. — see picture at COMPUTER
2 a : a person who is very successful and admired ▪ He has become an icon in the movie business. ▪ a singer who has become a pop icon b : a widely known symbol ▪ The Statue of Liberty has become an American cultural icon.
3 also ikon : a religious image in the Orthodox Christian church – icon•ic /aɪˈkɑːnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has achieved iconic status in the movie business.

icon•o•clast /aɪˈkɑːnəˌklæst/ noun, pl -clasts [count] formal : a person who criticizes or opposes beliefs and practices that are widely accepted – icon•o•clasm /aɪˈkɑːnəˌklæzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ The iconoclasm of his views made him unpopular. – icon•o•clast•ic /aɪˌkɑːnəˈklæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ iconoclastic theories – icon•o•clast•ic•al•ly /aɪˌkɑːnəˈklæstɪkli/ adv

ico•nog•ra•phy /ˌaɪkəˈnɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] : the images or symbols related to something ▪ Christian iconography ▪ the iconography of the 1960s

-ics /ɪks/ noun suffix
1 : study : knowledge ▪ electron*ics* ▪ linguist*ics*
2 : characteristic actions or activities ▪ hero*ics* ▪ athlet*ics* ▪ acrobat*ics* ▪ gymnast*ics*

ICU abbr intensive care unit ▪ She spent several days in (the) ICU after the surgery.

icy /ˈaɪsi/ adj ic•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : covered with ice ▪ icy roads/sidewalks
2 : very cold ▪ icy weather ▪ an icy cold [=ice-cold] wind
3 : not friendly or kind ▪ an icy [=cold, frigid] stare
– ic•i•ly /ˈaɪsəli/ adv ▪ His manner was icily formal. – ic•i•ness /ˈaɪsinəs/ noun [noncount]

id /ˈɪd/ noun, pl ids [count] psychology : a part of a person's unconscious mind that relates to basic needs and desires — compare EGO, SUPEREGO

[1]ID /ˈaɪˈdiː/ noun, pl ID's or IDs : a document, card, etc., that has your name and other information about you and that often includes your photograph [noncount] The guard insisted that we show him some ID. [=identification] [count] The guard insisted that we show him our ID's.

[2]ID verb ID's or IDs; ID'd or IDed; ID'ing or IDing [+ obj] informal : to find out the identity of (someone or something) : IDENTIFY ▪ The police have not yet ID'd the victim.

[3]ID abbr Idaho

I'd /ˈaɪd/ — used as a contraction of I had or I would ▪ I'd [=I had] already read the book. ▪ I'd [=I had] better leave. ▪ I'd [=I would] rather do it myself.

ID card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a card that has your name and other information about you and that often includes your photograph — called also identification card, identity card

-ide /aɪd/ noun suffix, chemistry : a chemical made up of two or more elements ▪ sulph*ide* ▪ cyan*ide*

idea /aɪˈdiːjə/ noun, pl ideas
1 [count] : a thought, plan, or suggestion about what to do ▪ My idea is to study law. ▪ Starting her own business seemed like a good idea at the time, but it turned out badly. ▪ I left with the idea that I'd come back later. = I left with the idea of coming back later. ▪ Whose idea was it to leave so early? ▪ My idea was that if we left early we could beat the crowd. ▪ Buying the car was a bad idea. ▪ I have some ideas for redecorating the room. ▪ He has an idea for a movie. ▪ I'm not sure what to do next. Do you have any ideas? ▪ She's always full of new ideas. ▪ It's a good idea to talk to people who have actually been there. ▪ There's/that's an idea! = There's/that's a good idea! ▪ What's the next big idea in the fashion industry? ▪ Tom has the right idea—while the rest of us are fighting traffic every day, he takes the train to work.
2 [count] : an opinion or belief ▪ That guy has some pretty strange ideas. ▪ "I thought he'd help us." "What gave you that idea?" ▪ Where did you get that idea? ▪ I thought we could handle this ourselves, but my boss had other ideas. [=my boss did not agree]
3 : something that you imagine or picture in your mind [count] I formed a good idea of what the place is like by reading about it. ▪ A hamburger and a milkshake isn't exactly my idea of a gourmet meal! [=it is not what I imagine a gourmet meal to be] ▪ A quiet night at home is my idea of a good time. [noncount] Could you give us some idea of what to expect?
4 [singular] : an understanding of something : knowledge about something ▪ He has a clear idea of his responsibilities. [=he knows what his responsibilities are] ▪ Do you have any idea of what these repairs will cost? ▪ I have no idea what you're talking about. = I don't have the faintest/slightest idea what you're talking about. [=I do not know/understand at all what you're talking about] ▪ "Was it hard?" "You have no idea (how hard it was)!" [=yes, it was very hard] ▪ All right, I get the idea. [=I understand] ▪ I think he made a mistake, but don't get the wrong idea [=don't misunderstand me], I still think he has done a good job overall. ▪ I don't want to give you the wrong idea.
5 the idea : the central meaning or purpose of something ▪ The whole idea [=point, object] of the game is to keep from getting caught. ▪ The idea [=goal, aim] is to get people to attend. ▪ I just don't get/understand the idea behind [=the reason for] this change in the rules. ▪ (informal) Hey! What's the big idea!? [=why are you doing that?] give someone ideas or put ideas in/into someone's head : to cause someone to think about doing something that probably should not be done ▪ Don't go giving him ideas. ▪ Don't put ideas in/into his head by telling him he'd be happier if he'd quit his job.

[1]ide•al /aɪˈdiːl/ adj : exactly right for a particular purpose, situation, or person : PERFECT ▪ ideal weather ▪ the ideal man/woman ▪ It was an ideal spot for a vacation. ▪ She is an ideal candidate for the job. ▪ The conference provided us with an ideal opportunity to meet new people. ▪ In an ideal world [=a perfect world without problems] there would be no war. ▪ The conditions were far from ideal. [=were not good at all]

[2]ideal noun, pl -als [count]
1 : an idea or standard of perfection or excellence ▪ an ideal of romantic love ▪ The organization has remained true to its ideals. [=has continued to work for and support the goals that it considers most worthwhile and important] ▪ He hasn't lived up to his high ideals.
2 : someone or something that is believed to be perfect : someone or something that you admire and want to imitate ▪ She considers the actress her ideal.

ide•al•ism /aɪˈdiːjəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the attitude of a person who believes that it is possible to live according to very high standards of behavior and honesty ▪ youthful idealism ▪ political/religious/romantic idealism
– ide•al•ist /aɪˈdiːjəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ The group was a mix of realists and idealists. – ide•al•is•tic /aɪˌdiːjəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ hopeful and idealistic students ▪ She was naïve and idealistic. – ide•al•is•ti•cal•ly /aɪˌdiːjəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv

ide•al•ize also Brit ide•al•ise /aɪˈdiːjəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to think of or represent (someone or something) as being perfect ▪ She tends to idealize her job.
– ide•al•i•za•tion also Brit ide•al•i•sa•tion /aɪˌdiːjələˈzeɪʃən, Brit aɪˌdɪəlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The film presents the subject without (any) idealization. – idealized also Brit idealised adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The movie presents a very idealized version of American life.

ide•al•ly /aɪˈdiːli/ adv
1 : in an ideal way : PERFECTLY ▪ His skills made him ideally suited for the job. ▪ They were ideally suited to one another. ▪ The ski slope was situated ideally.
2 — used to say what should happen or be done to produce the best results ▪ Ideally, each student should be taught individually. ▪ Ideally, you should do these exercises daily.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

iden•ti•cal /aɪˈdɛntɪkəl/ adj
1 : exactly the same ▪ We visited the identical place we stopped at last year
2 : exactly alike or equal ▪ They were wearing identical coats. ▪ The boxes were identical in shape. ▪ They drove virtually identical cars. ▪ The results were identical to/with those of the first test.
– iden•ti•cal•ly /aɪˈdɛntɪkli/ adv ▪ They were dressed identically. ▪ The two words are pronounced identically.

identical twin noun, pl ~ twins [count] : either member of a pair of twins that are produced from a single egg and who look exactly alike — compare FRATERNAL TWIN

iden•ti• •ca•tion /aɪˌdɛntəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act of finding out who someone is or what something is : the act of identifying someone or something [noncount] A member of the family was brought in for identification of the body. ▪ The birds are tagged for easy identification. [count] The police have made a positive identification of the suspect.
2 [noncount] : something that shows who a person is : a document, card, etc., that has your name and other information about you and that often includes your photograph ▪ We were told to carry (some) personal identification at all times. ▪ He needed to show (his) identification before they would cash the check. ▪ You need two forms of identification.
3 [noncount] : a feeling that you share and understand the problems or experiences of another person : the act of identifying with someone ▪ the movie audience's identification with the good guys ▪ They had/felt a (strong) sense of identification with their neighbors.

identi cation card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : ID CARD

identi cation parade noun, pl ~ -ades [count] Brit : LINEUP 3

iden•ti•fy /aɪˈdɛntəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to know and say who someone is or what something is ▪ She identified the dog as her lost pet. ▪ He was able to correctly identify the mushroom. ▪ The witness positively identified the suspect in the crime. ▪ She was easily identified by what she was wearing. [=it was easy to see who she was because of what she was wearing] ▪ He has a talent for identifying [=recognizing] good workers.
2 : to find out who someone is or what something is ▪ The corpse was identified on the basis of dental records. ▪ They could not identify the source of the quotation. ▪ They had no difficulty in identifying the problem. ▪ We began by identifying what we needed for the job. ▪ We need to identify the causes of unemployment.
3 : to show who someone is or what something is ▪ His clothes identified him as a clerk. [=his clothes showed that he was a clerk] ▪ an identifying mark/feature [=a mark/feature that shows who someone is or what something is] identify with [phrasal verb] 1 identify (something) with (something) : to think of (something) as being the same as (something else) ▪ It is a mistake to identify [=equate] being healthy with being thin. 2 identify (someone) with (something) : to think of (someone) as being very closely associated with (something) — often used as (be) identified with ▪ She has always been identified with the civil rights movement. ▪ These groups are identified with conservation. 3 identify with (someone or something) : to think of yourself as having the same problems and feelings as someone ▪ Many readers identify with the characters in her novels. ▪ He could identify with the problems the athlete was having. [=he understood the problems because he had had similar problems himself] identify yourself : to say who you are ▪ When the police asked his name, he refused to identify himself.
– iden•ti• •able /aɪˌdɛntəˈfajəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a clearly/readily identifiable signature – iden•ti• •ably /aɪˌdɛntəˈfajəbli/ adv ▪ The band has an identifiably British sound.

iden•ti•ty /aɪˈdɛntəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 : who someone is : the name of a person [count] The identity of the criminal/victim is not known. ▪ The face of the witness was hidden in order to protect her identity. [=to keep her name from being known] ▪ The documents proved/established his identity. [=proved/established who he was] ▪ They produced their passports as proof of their identities. [noncount] You will need to show proof of identity. [=something that shows that you are who you say you are] ▪ They arrested the wrong man. It was a case of mistaken identity.
2 : the qualities, beliefs, etc., that make a particular person or group different from others [count] As children grow, they establish their own identities. ▪ She did not want to be known only as the wife of her husband. She insisted on having her own identity. [=on being known for her own qualities, achievements, etc.] [noncount] people who seem to lack individual identity ▪ He has a strong sense of personal identity. [=a strong feeling about exactly the kind of person he is] ▪ His art reflects his cultural/racial identity.

identity card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : ID CARD identity crisis noun, pl ~ crises [count] : a feeling of unhappiness and confusion caused by not being sure about what type of person you really are or what the true purpose of your life is ▪ He is suffering from an identity crisis.

identity parade noun, pl ~ -rades [count] Brit : LINEUP 3 identity theft noun [noncount] : the illegal use of someone else's personal identifying information (such as a Social Security number) in order to get money or credit ▪ How can we protect ourselves against identity theft?

ide•ol•o•gist /ˌaɪdiˈɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] : IDEOLOGUE

ideo•logue /ˈaɪdijəˌlɑːg/ noun, pl -logues [count] formal + often disapproving : someone who very strongly supports and is guided by the ideology of a particular group ▪ conservative/liberal ideologues

ide•ol•o•gy /ˌaɪdiˈɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies : the set of ideas and beliefs of a group or political party [count] progressive/liberal/conservative ideologies ▪ the ideology of a totalitarian/capitalist society [noncount] He says that the election is not about ideology.
– ideo•log•i•cal /ˌaɪdijəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The two groups divided along ideological lines. ▪ ideological conflicts – ideo•log•i•cal•ly /ˌaɪdijəˈlɑːdʒɪkli/ adv ides /ˈaɪdz/ noun [plural] : the 15th day of March, May, July, or October or the 13th day of any other month in the ancient Roman calendar ▪ "Beware the ides of March." —Shakespeare, Julius Caesar (1599)

id•i•o•cy /ˈɪdijəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : extreme stupidity ▪ an act of sheer idiocy
2 [count] : something that is extremely stupid or foolish : an idiotic action or statement ▪ He was complaining again about the idiocies of the people he works for.

id•i•om /ˈɪdijəm/ noun, pl -oms
1 [count] : an expression that cannot be understood from the meanings of its separate words but that has a separate meaning of its own ▪ The expression "give way," meaning "retreat," is an idiom.
2 [count, noncount] : a form of a language that is spoken in a particular area and that uses some of its own words, grammar, and pronunciations : DIALECT
3 : a style or form of expression that is characteristic of a particular person, type of art, etc. [count] a poet's idiom ▪ rock and roll and other musical idioms [noncount] a feature of modern jazz idiom
– id•i•om•at•ic /ˌɪdijəˈmætɪk/ adj ▪ an idiomatic expression/phrase [=an expression/phrase that is an idiom] ▪ a use of language that is not idiomatic [=that does not sound natural or correct] – id•i•om•at•i•cal•ly /ˌɪdijəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ That phrase is idiomatically acceptable/correct.

id•io•syn•cra•sy /ˌɪdijəˈsɪŋkrəsi/ noun, pl -sies [count]
1 : an unusual way in which a particular person behaves or thinks ▪ Her habit of using "like" in every sentence was just one of her idiosyncrasies.
2 : an unusual part or feature of something ▪ The current system has a few idiosyncracies.
– id•io•syn•crat•ic /ˌɪdijoʊˌsɪnˈkrætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She has an idiosyncratic [=unusual] singing voice. ▪ His taste in music was very idiosyncratic. ▪ an idiosyncratic writing style – id•io•syn•crat•i•cal•ly /ˌɪdijoʊˌsɪnˈkrætɪkli/ adv

id•i•ot /ˈɪdijət/ noun, pl -ots [count] : a very stupid or foolish person ▪ Don't be such an idiot! ▪ I really made an idiot of myself [=I acted very stupidly] at the party last night. ▪ Some idiot [=fool] of a driver kept trying to pass me!
– id•i•ot•ic /ˌɪdiˈɑːtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an idiotic movie ▪ idiotic drivers ▪ My behavior last night was idiotic. – id•i•ot•i•cal•ly /ˌɪdiˈɑːtɪkli/ adv

id•i•ot–proof /ˈɪdijətˌpruːf/ adj, informal : extremely easy to use or do ▪ idiot-proof software idiot savant noun, pl idiots savants or idiot savants [count] : SAVANT 2

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

[1]idle /ˈaɪdl/ adj
1 : not working, active, or being used ▪ idle workers [=workers who do not have jobs] ▪ The company's competitor's have not been idle [=they have been active/busy] in recent months. ▪ The factory has been lying/sitting/standing idle [=has not been used] for the past year. ▪ the idle rich [=rich people who do not have to work]
2 : not having any real purpose or value ▪ idle rumors/gossip ▪ There has been a lot of idle speculation about what might happen, but no one really knows. ▪ (formal) It is idle [=useless, pointless] to want what you cannot have. ▪ She said she would leave him, but he knew it was an idle threat. [=he knew that she did not mean it]
3 : not having much activity ▪ the idle days of summer
4 somewhat old-fashioned : trying to avoid work : LAZY ▪ a careless and idle worker ▪ There was a group of idle boys standing on the corner.
– idle•ness /ˈaɪdlnəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]idle verb idles; idled; idling
1 of an engine or vehicle : to run without being connected for doing useful work [no obj] She left the engine idling for a few seconds before she turned it off. ▪ The cars idled in traffic. [+ obj] idle an engine
2 : to spend time doing nothing or nothing useful [no obj] A group of boys idled in the doorway. [+ obj] — + away ▪ We idled away the evening playing cards.
3 [+ obj] US : to cause (someone or something) to stop working : to make (someone or something) idle ▪ The factory closed, idling several hundred workers. ▪ Thousands of workers have been idled by the bad economy. ▪ The factory has been idled by the strike.

idler /ˈaɪdlə/ noun, pl idlers [count] somewhat old-fashioned : someone who is lazy or does not work ▪ a rich idler idly /ˈaɪdli/ adv : without much thought, effort, or concern ▪ We sat idly, waiting for something to happen. ▪ I idly wondered what they were doing.

idol /ˈaɪdl/ noun, pl idols [count]
1 : a greatly loved or admired person ▪ a sports/teen/pop idol ▪ an actor who is the idol of millions ▪ a fallen idol [=a person who is no longer greatly admired] — see also MATINEE IDOL
2 : a picture or object that is worshipped as a god idol•a•try /aɪˈdɑːlətri/ noun [noncount] : the worship of a picture or object as a god – idol•a•trous /aɪˈdɑːlətrəs/ adj ▪ idolatrous worship idol•ize also Brit idol•ise /ˈaɪdəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to love or admire (someone) very much or too much ▪ The young boy idolized his father. [=he loved his father and thought that he never did anything wrong] ▪ an actor who is idolized by millions – idol•i•za•tion also Brit idol•i•sa•tion /ˌaɪdələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌaɪdəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The idolization of the novelist continued after his death.

idyll also idyl /ˈaɪdl/ noun, pl idylls also idyls [count] literary
1 : a simple poem or other piece of writing that describes peaceful country life
2 : a happy and enjoyable scene or experience ▪ a pastoral/romantic idyll

idyl•lic /aɪˈdɪlɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very peaceful, happy, and enjoyable ▪ He had an idyllic childhood. ▪ an idyllic retreat/setting in the countryside ▪ an idyllic summer day – idyl•li•cal•ly /aɪˈdɪlɪkli/ adv ▪ He had an idyllically happy childhood. ▪ The village is idyllically situated.

i.e. abbr that is — used to introduce something that explains a preceding statement more fully or exactly ▪ The medicine needs be taken for a short period of time; i.e., three to five days. ✧ The abbreviation i.e. comes from the Latin phrase "id est," which means "that is."

-ie also -y /i/ noun suffix, informal
1 : little one ▪ boot*ie* ▪ bird*ie* : dear little one ▪ sonn*y*
2 : someone or something that is ▪ smart*y* ▪ biggi*e* ▪ toughi*e*
3 : someone belonging to ▪ townie : someone having to do with ▪ druggi*e*

-ier see [2]-ER

[1]if /ɪf/ conj
1 — used to talk about the result or effect of something that may happen or be true ▪ If it rains, (then) we won't go to the park. ▪ If he actually did commit the crime, he deserves to be punished. ▪ If you believe that, you'll believe anything! ▪ Come to the party if you can. ▪ If you really want to know, you should ask. ▪ What will happen if I fail the test? ▪ You should study. If not, you won't pass the test. = If you don't (study), you won't pass the test. ▪ Please arrive early if possible. = Please arrive early if it is possible. ▪ I'll do the work myself if necessary. = I'll do the work myself if it is necessary. ▪ If and when he comes, you can ask him. = When and if he comes, you can ask him.
2 — used to discuss the imaginary result or effect of something that did not happen or that is or was not true ▪ If you had studied, you would have passed the test. ▪ The situation would be funny if it weren't so tragic. = (informal) The situation would be funny if it wasn't so tragic. ▪ The harvest would have been good if it had rained. ▪ The news would be interesting if (it were) true, but it's not true.
3 — used to say that something must happen before another thing can happen ▪ He said he'll come to the party if she comes too. = (more strongly) He said he'll come to the party only if she comes too. = (most strongly) He says he'll come to the party if and only if she comes too.
4 — used to indicate a result that always occurs when something happens ▪ He gets angry if [=when] you disagree with him. ▪ The engine stalls if you let it get too hot.
5 : even though : ALTHOUGH ▪ It was an interesting if unbelievable story. ▪ Her actions were understandable, if not forgivable. ▪ He had to perform an annoying, if necessary, task. ▪ a fair, if tough, boss ▪ The weather was good, if not great.
6 — used to introduce a statement or question about something that is not certain ▪ I'll see if [=whether] I can come. ▪ Do you know if he'll come to the party? ▪ I wonder if it's true (or not). ▪ Frankly, I doubt if he'll pass the exams. ▪ She asked if the mail had come. ▪ We should determine/decide if it is safe to go swimming.
7 a — used to make a polite request or suggestion ▪ Would you mind if I sat here? [=may I sit here?] ▪ If you will/would (be good enough to) follow me, ladies and gentlemen, I'll take you to your seats. ▪ If I could make a suggestion, why don't we sit closer to the front of the theater? ▪ I'd like to stay a little longer, if you don't mind. = I'd like to stay a little longer, if it's/that's all right with you. b — used to state an opinion in a polite way ▪ You're looking particularly lovely today, if I may say so.
8 — used in statements that describe feelings (such as regret) about a possible situation ▪ I'm sorry if you think I insulted you. ▪ I'd be sorry if you thought I had insulted you. ▪ I don't care if we're late.
9 — used in statements and questions that express doubt ▪ I met Brenda last week—if that is/was in fact her real name. ▪ If you're so smart, why aren't you rich?
10 — used to introduce an even stronger alternative to what has just been said ▪ These changes will have little if any impact on the problem. ▪ Few if any of the town's original settlers are left. ▪ Rarely, if ever, does that happen. ▪ His efforts have helped to save thousands, if not millions, of lives. ▪ My car is as fast as yours if not (even) faster.
11 — used to express surprise about meeting someone when it is not expected ▪ So I went to the game and who should I see there if not [=but] my old friend Tom! ▪ Well, if it isn't my old friend Tom! ▪ So I went to the game and who did I see there if it wasn't my old friend Tom!
12 — used to emphasize the truth of a statement ▪ The idea is true if any idea has ever been! [=the idea is certainly true] ▪ "He claims that he's never met her." "Well, if that isn't the biggest load of nonsense I've ever heard!" [=that is a lot of nonsense; that is completely untrue] ▪ I'll get my revenge if it's the last thing I do! [=I am determined to get my revenge]
as if see [2]AS even if see [2]EVEN if anything — used to make a statement that strongly disagrees or contrasts with a preceding statement ▪ We don't see each other too often—if anything we don't see each other often enough! ▪ The economy has not improved. It has gotten worse, if anything.
if it comes to that see [1]COME if I were you — used when giving advice to people about how they should behave ▪ I'd study more if I were you. [=I think you should study more] if not for : in the absence of (something or someone) : WITHOUT ▪ If not for modern medicine, fewer babies would survive. ▪ If not for him, I wouldn't be where I am today. — often used in the phrases if it were not for and if it had not been for ▪ If it were not for your donations, many more children would go hungry. ▪ If it hadn't been for him, I wouldn't be where I am today.
if nothing else : at least — used to stress that an approving statement is true even though a stronger statement might not be ▪ If nothing else, he's polite! ▪ The food was hot, if nothing else. [=the food may not have been very good, but at least it was hot]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

if only — used to talk about something that you want to happen or be true ▪ If only she loved me in return! ▪ If only it would stop raining.

if you ask me — used in statements that express an opinion ▪ If you ask me [=in my opinion], he's a liar.

if you must see [1]MUST

what if see [1]WHAT

[2]if noun, pl ifs [count] : something that is not certain : something that could either happen or not happen ▪ There are too many ifs in this proposal. ▪ They could win if everyone plays his best, but that's a big if. [=it is not likely that everyone will play his best] ▪ (US) She's the most qualified candidate, and there are no ifs, ands, or buts about it! = (Brit) She's the most qualified candidate, and there are no ifs and buts about it! [=it is certain that she is the most qualified candidate]

if•fy /ˈɪfi/ adj if•fi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal 1 : having many uncertain or unknown qualities or conditions : not certain ▪ an iffy situation/proposal/decision ▪ It's iffy [=doubtful] whether he can play in the game.
2 : not certain to be good ▪ I'm hoping to play golf tomorrow, but the weather looks a bit iffy. [=there's a chance that the weather will be bad]

-i•fy /əˌfaɪ/ verb suffix : -FY ig•loo /ˈɪˌglu:/ noun, pl -loos [count] : a house made of blocks of snow or ice in the form of a dome

ig•ne•ous /ˈɪgnijəs/ adj, technical : formed when hot, liquid rock cools and becomes hard ▪ igneous rock

ig•nite /ɪgˈnaɪt/ verb -nites; -nit•ed; -nit•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to set (something) on fire : to cause (something) to burn : LIGHT ▪ ignite a bonfire ▪ The fire was ignited by sparks. b [no obj] : to begin burning : to catch fire ▪ The paper ignited on contact with sparks. ▪ a material that ignites easily 2 [+ obj] a : to give life or energy to (someone or something) ▪ Three wins in a row ignited the team. ▪ The story ignited [=fired] her imagination. b : to cause the sudden occurrence of (something) ▪ Her comments have ignited [=sparked] a controversy. ▪ His proposal is igniting opposition.
– ig•nit•able /ɪgˈnaɪtəbəl/ adj ▪ a material that is easily ignitable ▪ ignitable fuel

ig•ni•tion /ɪgˈnɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : the electrical system in an engine that causes the fuel to burn so that the engine begins working ▪ There's a problem with the car's ignition. b : the device that is used to start a car's engine — usually singular ▪ Put the key in the ignition. ▪ Turn on/off the ignition. — see picture at CAR
2 [noncount] : the act of causing something to start burning : the act of igniting something ▪ ignition of the fire

ig•no•ble /ɪgˈnoʊbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not deserving respect : not noble or honorable ▪ an ignoble past ▪ ignoble thoughts
– ig•no•bly /ɪgˈnoʊbli/ adv ▪ His career ended ignobly.

ig•no•min•i•ous /ˌɪgnəˈmɪnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing disgrace or shame ▪ They suffered an ignominious [=humiliating] defeat.
– ig•no•min•i•ous•ly adv ▪ failed ignominiously

ig•no•mi•ny /ˈɪgnəˌmɪni/ noun, pl -nies formal : a situation or event that causes you to feel ashamed or embarrassed [noncount] She had to endure the ignominy of being forced to resign. [count] the small/petty ignominies that are a part of everyone's life

ig•no•ra•mus /ˌɪgnəˈreɪməs/ noun, pl -mus•es [count] : a person who does not know much : an ignorant or stupid person ▪ I can't believe they let an ignoramus like that run the company.

ig•no•rance /ˈɪgnərəns/ noun : a lack of knowledge, understanding, or education : the state of being ignorant [noncount] His racist attitudes were born out of ignorance. — often + of ▪ Ignorance of the law is no excuse (for violating it). ▪ Their decisions were made in ignorance of [=without knowing] the true nature of the situation. ▪ When asked about the reasons for these drastic changes, she pleaded/pled ignorance. [=she said that she did not know the reasons] [singular] an appalling ignorance about/of other cultures ignorance is bliss — used to say that a person who does not know about a problem does not worry about it

ig•no•rant /ˈɪgnərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : lacking knowledge or information ▪ He is an ignorant old racist. ▪ She was ignorant about the dangers of the drug. — often + of ▪ They were ignorant [=unaware] of the facts. ▪ He remains ignorant of the changes. ▪ We were blissfully ignorant of the problems that had occurred.
2 : resulting from or showing a lack of knowledge ▪ It was an ignorant mistake. ▪ ignorant opinions
– ig•no•rant•ly adv

ig•nore /ɪgˈnoə/ verb -nores; -nored; -nor•ing [+ obj]
1 : to refuse to show that you hear or see (something or someone) ▪ She tried to ignore him but he wouldn't leave her alone. ▪ I'll ignore that last remark.
2 : to do nothing about or in response to (something or someone) ▪ If we continue to ignore these problems they will only get worse. ▪ They ignored the warning signs. ▪ ignoring the poor igua•na /ɪˈgwɑ:nə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : a large lizard that lives in the tropical regions of Central and South America

iguana

ikon variant spelling of ICON 3

il- see IN-

IL abbr Illinois

ilk /ˈɪlk/ noun [singular] : sort or kind ▪ The club attracts punk rockers and others of that ilk.

[1]ill /ˈɪl/ adj
1 a : not well or healthy : sick or unhealthy ▪ a chronically/critically/terminally ill patient ▪ mentally ill adults — usually used after a verb ▪ I felt ill [=sick] all afternoon. ▪ What's wrong? You look ill. ▪ He had been ill for several years. ▪ More than half of those exposed to the virus eventually become ill. ▪ She suddenly fell ill. = She was suddenly taken ill. = (US) She suddenly took ill. ▪ (US) The sight made her physically ill. [=the sight made her nauseated] ▪ (US) He became violently ill. [=he vomited] ✧ The comparative form iller and the superlative form illest are sometimes used for this sense. ▪ I have never seen him looking iller. [=worse, (US) sicker] ▪ That's the illest [=worst, (US) sickest] I have ever seen him. b of health : not normal or good ▪ Her ill [=poor] health forced her to retire early.
2 always used before a noun : harmful or damaging ▪ That dog can eat almost anything with no ill effects. ▪ They had been subjected to months of ill treatment.
3 always used before a noun : not helpful or lucky ▪ They seem to be plagued by ill [=bad] luck/fortune. ▪ an ill omen ✧ The saying it's an ill wind that blows no good or it's an ill wind that blows nobody (any) good means that something that is bad in most ways is usually also good in some way.
4 always used before a noun : not kind or friendly ▪ an angry customer's ill humor/temper ▪ We harbor no ill intentions toward them. ▪ Her comment caused some ill feeling/feelings. [=feelings of anger or resentment] — see also ILL WILL ill repute see REPUTE with ill grace see [1]GRACE

[2]ill adv
1 : in a bad or imperfect way : BADLY, POORLY ▪ He is being ill served by his advisers. — often hyphenated ▪ He is ill-equipped [=he does not have the experience or preparation that is needed] to handle so much responsibility. ▪ They were ill-prepared for the cold weather. ▪ Her arrival was ill-timed. [=she arrived at a bad time] ▪ a pet ill-suited for travel [=a pet that is difficult to take with you when you travel]
2 : in an unfavorable or unkind way ▪ Please don't think ill of me. ▪ He was a good man who never spoke ill of anyone. — see also bode ill at BODE ill afford ✧ If you can ill afford something, you should not do it or get it because it will cause problems. ▪ We can ill afford more bad publicity. ▪ She bought a new car, which she could ill afford.

[3]ill noun, pl ills
1 [noncount] : bad or unlucky things ▪ She does not wish ill on/upon anyone. = She does not wish anyone ill. ▪ After the war, the country was changed, for good and for ill. [=in good ways and in bad ways]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

2 a [count] : a sickness or disease ▪ They claimed to have a cure for every ill. [=ailment] — usually plural ▪ childhood ills b ills [plural] : troubles or problems ▪ the ills of society

I'll /ˈajəl/ — used as a contraction of I will ▪ I'll call you.

ill-ad•vised /ˌɪləd'vaɪzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not wise or sensible : FOOLISH ▪ an ill-advised decision ▪ You would be ill-advised [=you would be making a mistake] to invest all your money in one company. — opposite WELL-ADVISED – ill-ad•vis•ed•ly /ˌɪləd'vaɪzədli/ adv ill-assorted adj [more ~; most ~] : having a mixture of people or things that do not seem to belong together ▪ the room's ill-assorted furniture ill at ease adj [more ~; most ~] : not comfortable or relaxed : nervous or embarrassed ▪ Their stares made us (feel) ill at ease. ▪ He seemed ill at ease when we spoke with him.

ill-bred /ˈɪlˈbrɛd/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat old-fashioned : rude and impolite : having or showing bad manners ▪ His ill-bred behavior embarrassed her at the restaurant. ▪ an ill-bred child — opposite WELL-BRED ill-con•ceived /ˈɪlkənˈsi:vd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : badly planned : not showing good judgment ▪ an ill-conceived attempt to save money ill-con•sid•ered /ˈɪlkənˈsɪdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing careful thought : ILL-ADVISED, ILL-CONCEIVED ▪ an ill-considered decision ill-de• ned /ˈɪldɪˈfaɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not easy to see or understand ▪ The property's borders are ill-defined. [=they are not clearly marked] ▪ an ill-defined mission — opposite WELL-DEFINED ill-dis•posed /ˈɪldɪˈspoʊzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not having a friendly or favorable feeling about someone or something — often + to or toward ▪ She is ill-disposed to joining the organization. ▪ Many people remain ill-disposed toward his plan. — opposite WELL-DISPOSED

il•le•gal /ɪˈli:gəl/ adj
1 : not allowed by the law : not legal ▪ illegal [=illicit, unlawful] drugs ▪ In this state, it is illegal for anyone under the age of 21 to drink alcohol. ▪ an illegal alien/immigrant [=a foreign person who is living in a country without having official permission to live there]
2 : not allowed by the rules in a game ▪ The team was penalized for an illegal play.
– il•le•gal•i•ty /ˌɪlɪˈgæləti/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] He claims that he was unaware of the illegality of these activities. [count] The campaign was accused of many fund-raising illegalities. [=illegal activities] – il•le•gal•ly /ɪˈli:gəli/ adv ▪ She was parked illegally in a handicapped parking spot. ▪ Her camera was illegally seized at the border. ▪ people who are in the country illegally

il•leg•i•ble /ɪˈlɛʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not clear enough to read : not legible ▪ illegible handwriting – il•leg•i•bil•i•ty /ɪˌlɛʤəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – il•leg•i•bly /ɪˈlɛʤəbli/ adv ▪ He scribbled his name illegibly on the back of the envelope.

il•le•git•i•mate /ˌɪlɪˈʤɪtəmət/ adj : not legitimate: such as a : born to a father and mother who are not married ▪ an illegitimate child b : not allowed according to rules or laws ▪ They took over the government in an illegitimate [=illegal] seizure of power. ▪ an illegitimate government c [more ~; most ~] : not reasonable or fair ▪ She thinks that my concerns are illegitimate. ▪ They were fired from their jobs for illegitimate reasons.
– il•le•git•i•ma•cy /ˌɪlɪˈʤɪtəməsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ high rates of illegitimacy and teenage pregnancy ▪ the illegitimacy of the government – il•le•git•i•mate•ly adv

ill-fat•ed /ˈɪlˈfeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : ending in disaster : very unlucky ▪ Everyone on the ill-fated trip died. ▪ an ill-fated decision ill-got•ten /ˈɪlˈgɑ:tn/ adj : obtained in a dishonest or illegal way ▪ an ill-gotten fortune ▪ ill-gotten gains [=money and other valuable things gotten through dishonest methods]

ill-hu•mored (US) or Brit ill-hu•moured /ˈɪlˈhju:məd/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : easily angered or annoyed ▪ ill-humored old men

il•lib•er•al /ɪˈlɪbərəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not allowing people to think and act as they choose : not liberal ▪ an illiberal attitude toward sex ▪ illiberal policies/views

il•lic•it /ɪˈlɪsət/ adj
1 : not allowed by law : unlawful or illegal ▪ illicit drugs ▪ He was arrested for selling illicit copies of the software.
2 : involving activities that are not considered morally acceptable ▪ She had an illicit affair with her boss. ▪ illicit sex – il•lic•it•ly adv ▪ The drug is sold illicitly on the streets.

ill-informed adj
1 : not having a lot of knowledge especially about current news and events ▪ ill-informed political candidates
2 : not based on facts ▪ an ill-informed decision/opinion — opposite WELL-INFORMED

il•lit•er•a•cy /ɪˈlɪtərəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : the state of not knowing how to read or write ▪ the government's efforts to reduce illiteracy
2 [noncount] : the state of not having knowledge about a particular subject ▪ scientific illiteracy [=lack of knowledge about science] ▪ cultural illiteracy ▪ computer illiteracy
3 [count] : a mistake that is made in the use of language : an illiterate statement or expression ▪ His letters contain many misspellings and illiteracies.

[1]il•lit•er•ate /ɪˈlɪtərət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not knowing how to read or write ▪ an illiterate person ▪ She didn't want anyone to know that she was illiterate. — opposite LITERATE
2 : having or showing a lack of knowledge about a particular subject ▪ She is politically illiterate and has never voted in an election. ▪ He's illiterate when it comes to computers. — opposite LITERATE
3 : not grammatically correct ▪ an illiterate expression

[2]illiterate noun, pl -ates [count] : a person who is illiterate ▪ His parents were illiterates. ▪ a class for computer illiterates ill-judged adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing poor judgment or thinking ▪ He lost all his money in an ill-judged attempt to start his own company.

ill-man•nered /ˈɪlˈmænəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing bad manners : rude or impolite ▪ an ill-mannered child ▪ an ill-mannered remark — opposite WELL-MANNERED ill-natured adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not friendly or pleasant ▪ an ill-natured man ▪ an ill-natured remark — opposite GOOD-NATURED ill•ness /ˈɪlnəs/ noun, pl -ness•es

1 [noncount] : a condition of being unhealthy in your body or mind ▪ Her body was not able to defend itself against illness. ▪ Hundreds of soldiers died from illness and hunger. ▪ He showed no signs of illness. ▪ mental illness
2 [count] : a specific condition that prevents your body or mind from working normally : a sickness or disease ▪ Scientists have not yet found a cure for this illness. ▪ cancer, diabetes, and other illnesses ▪ an acute/chronic illness ▪ She died at the age of 60 after a brief/long illness.

il•log•i•cal /ɪˈlɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing good judgment : not thinking about things in a reasonable or sensible way : not logical ▪ It is illogical to think that things will change on their own. ▪ an illogical argument ▪ You're being completely illogical.
– il•log•i•cal•ly /ɪˈlɑ:ʤɪkli/ adv ▪ They illogically decided to stay.

ill-starred /ˈɪlˈstɑəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : very unlucky : certain to end in disaster ▪ an ill-starred [=ill-fated] romance ill-tem•pered /ˈɪlˈtɛmpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : easily annoyed or angered : BAD-TEMPERED ▪ We try to avoid our ill-tempered neighbor.
2 : showing that you are annoyed or angry ▪ an ill-tempered reply ill-timed adj [more ~; most ~] : done or happening at a time that is not good or suitable ▪ an ill-timed question ▪ The movie's release was ill-timed. — opposite WELL-TIMED il•lu•mi•nate /ɪˈlu:məˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to supply (something) with light : to shine light on (something) ▪ Candles illuminate [=light] the church. ▪ the part of the moon illuminated by the sun
2 : to make (something) clear and easier to understand ▪ A university study has illuminated the problem.
– illuminating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The lecture was very illuminating. ▪ an illuminating discussion

illuminated adj
1 : lit by bright lights ▪ an illuminated entrance
2 of an old book, document, etc. : decorated with gold or colored designs and pictures ▪ an illuminated manuscript from the Middle Ages

il•lu•mi•na•tion /ɪˌlu:məˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : light that comes into a room, that shines on something, etc. ▪ The room's only illumination [=lighting]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i came from a small window. ▪ When taking photographs indoors, use a flash for illumination.

2 [noncount] formal : knowledge or understanding ▪ They traveled to the temple in search of spiritual illumination.
3 [count] : a gold or colored decoration in an old book ▪ an old manuscript with beautiful illuminations
4 illuminations [plural] Brit : lights used as decorations ▪ Illuminations were hung throughout the city.

il•lu•mine /ɪˈluːmən/ verb -mines; -mined; -min•ing [+ obj] literary : ILLUMINATE ▪ streets illumined by gaslight ill–used adj [more ~; most ~] formal : treated in a bad or unfair way ▪ Some of the students felt ill-used. ▪ ill-used factory workers

il•lu•sion /ɪˈluːʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count]
1 : something that looks or seems different from what it is : something that is false or not real but that seems to be true or real ▪ The video game is designed to give the illusion that you are in control of an airplane. ▪ They used paint to create the illusion of metal. ▪ She says that all progress is just an illusion. — see also OPTICAL ILLUSION
2 : an incorrect idea : an idea that is based on something that is not true ▪ She had/harbored no illusions about how much work the project would require. [=she knew the project would require a lot of work] ▪ He was under the illusion [=he mistakenly believed] that he was a good player.

Do not confuse illusion with allusion.

il•lu•sion•ist /ɪˈluːʒənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : an entertainer who performs magic tricks : MAGICIAN

il•lu•so•ry /ɪˈluːsəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : based on something that is not true or real : based on an illusion ▪ an illusory hope ▪ an illusory sense of security

il•lus•trate /ˈɪləˌstreɪt/ verb -trates; -trat•ed; -trat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give examples in order to make (something) easier to understand ▪ He illustrated his lecture with stories of his own experiences in the field. ▪ Please give a few examples to illustrate your point.
2 : to be proof or evidence of (something) ▪ These recent events illustrate [=show, demonstrate] the need for change in the country. ▪ The results illustrate how important it is to wear your seatbelt.
3 : to explain or decorate a story, book, etc., with pictures ▪ The students will write and illustrate their own stories. — often used as (be) illustrated ▪ The book is illustrated with many diagrams and charts.
– il•lus•tra•tor /ˈɪləˌstreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ an illustrator of children's books

il•lus•tra•tion /ˌɪləˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a picture or drawing in a book, magazine, etc. ▪ The illustration on page 30 shows the parts of an engine. ▪ a book with many photographs and illustrations
2 [count] : an example or story that is used to make something easier to understand ▪ The illustrations that he provided in his speech were very effective.
3 [noncount] : the act or process of illustrating something: such as a : the act or process of producing or providing pictures for a book, magazine, etc. ▪ They selected photographs to use for the illustration of the book. b : the act or process of giving examples to make something easier to understand ▪ Illustration is the key to good communication. ▪ By way of illustration, [=as an example] let us examine this poem.

il•lus•tra•tive /ɪˈlʌstrətɪv, Brit ˈɪləstrətɪv/ adj, formal
1 : used to illustrate or explain something ▪ illustrative examples/stories
2 : serving as an example of something ▪ Her struggle is illustrative of [=is a good example of] the difficulties facing women in her culture.

il•lus•tri•ous /ɪˈlʌstrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : admired and respected very much because a lot was achieved ▪ He has had an illustrious military career. ▪ the company's illustrious history/past ill will noun [noncount] : an unfriendly feeling : a feeling of hatred or dislike ▪ We bear/feel/harbor/have/hold no ill will toward each other.

im- see IN-

I'm /ˈaɪm/ — used as a contraction of I am ▪ I'm happy to meet you.

im•age /ˈɪmɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es
1 [count] : a picture that is produced by a camera, artist, mirror, etc. ▪ She studied her image in the mirror. ▪ The kids sat staring at the images on the TV screen. ▪ painters capturing images of war ▪ black-and-white images of the city — see also MIRROR IMAGE
2 [count] : a mental picture : the thought of how something looks or might look ▪ I can't get the image (of the accident) out of my mind. ▪ When you told the story I got this image (in my mind) of you as a child. ▪ His poem evokes images of the sea and warm summer days.
3 : the idea that people have about someone or something [count] She is worried about what motherhood will do to her image [=reputation] as a rock star. ▪ He is trying hard to improve/protect his image. ▪ The law suit has negatively affected the company's public image. ▪ a tarnished corporate image [noncount] a politician who cares more about image than about telling the truth
4 [singular] a : the form or appearance of someone or something ▪ "... God created man in his own image ..." —Genesis 1:27 (KJV) b : someone who looks very much like another person ▪ He's the (very/living) image of his father. [=he looks like his father] — see also SPITTING IMAGE c : someone who looks very much like a certain kind of person ▪ She was the (very) image of a successful businesswoman.
5 [count] : an interesting or memorable way of showing or describing something in a book, movie, etc. ▪ The book contains many striking/startling images.
6 [count] : a statue or picture that is made to look like a person or thing ▪ Her image still hangs on their living room wall. ▪ images carved in stone ▪ religious images — see also GRAVEN IMAGE

im•ag•ery /ˈɪmɪʤri/ noun [noncount]
1 technical : pictures or photographs ▪ They used satellite imagery [=pictures taken from satellites] to see the ice caps.
2 a : language that causes people to imagine pictures in their mind ▪ The book contains a great deal of sexual imagery. b : pictures of people or things in a work of art ▪ The movie was full of biblical/religious imagery. ▪ visual imagery

imag•in•able /ɪˈmæʤənəbəl/ adj : possible for people to imagine ▪ Computers now allow us to do things that were hardly imaginable only a few years ago. ▪ The store has fruits of every kind imaginable. ▪ We tried every imaginable therapy. — often used to give emphasis ▪ We had the worst imaginable weather. = We had the worst weather imaginable. — opposite UNIMAGINABLE

imag•i•nary /ɪˈmæʤəˌneri, Brit ɪˈmæʤənri/ adj : not real : existing only in your mind or imagination ▪ The two groups were separated by an imaginary line down the middle of the room. ▪ an imaginary world of dragons and unicorns ▪ a child's imaginary friend

imag•i•na•tion /ɪˌmæʤəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : the ability to imagine things that are not real : the ability to form a picture in your mind of something that you have not seen or experienced [noncount] You can find a solution if you use a little imagination. ▪ His plans to build a new stadium are the product of pure imagination. [=they are not based on reality; they are not likely to happen] [count] children with vivid/fertile/overactive imaginations ▪ The author does not tell us what happens to the characters. We have to use our imagination. ▪ He insists that these dangers are real and not just a figment of his imagination. [=something that he has imagined] b [noncount] : the ability to think of new things ▪ Her painting shows a great deal of imagination. [=creativity] ▪ He's a competent writer, but he lacks imagination. ▪ He has no imagination.
2 [noncount] : something that only exists or happens in your mind ▪ Is it just my imagination, or is it getting warm in here?
by any/no stretch of the imagination see ²STRETCH capture/catch someone's imagination : to make someone very interested or excited ▪ Her books have captured the imaginations of children from around the world. ▪ The story caught the public imagination. [=the public became very interested in the story] leave (something) to the imagination : to not show or describe all of the parts or details of (something) ▪ Try to leave something to the imagination. ▪ The movie's sex scenes leave nothing to the imagination. [=they show everything] ▪ His explicit description of the crime scene left little to the imagination.

imag•i•na•tive /ɪˈmæʤənətɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to think of new and interesting ideas : having or showing imagination ▪ an imaginative [=creative] filmmaker ▪ She wrote an imaginative story about life on the planet Venus. ▪ The restaurant's

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:38:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i menu is quite imaginative. ▪ imaginative thinking/writing 2 always used before a noun : of or relating to imagination ▪ a child's imaginative life

– imag•i•na•tive•ly adv ▪ an imaginatively designed menu

imag•ine /ɪˈmædʒən/ verb -ines; -ined; -in•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to think of or create (something that is not real) in your mind ▪ a writer who has imagined an entire world of amazing creatures b : to form a picture or idea in your mind of (something that is not real or present) ▪ He asked us to imagine a world without poverty or war. ▪ It's hard for me to imagine having children. — often + that ▪ Imagine that you are relaxing on the beach. — often + what, why, etc. ▪ It's hard to imagine what it would be like to be so wealthy. ▪ I'm sure you can imagine how I felt. ▪ I can't imagine why she would be so late. [=I do not understand why she is so late] ▪ "Why is she so late?" "I can't imagine." — sometimes used in phrases that express surprise ▪ Can you imagine! A person like him being elected mayor! [=it is surprising or ridiculous to think of a person like him being elected mayor] ▪ Just imagine what such a change would mean! ▪ "This tree is more than 300 years old." "Imagine that!" [=isn't that remarkable]
2 : to have or form (an idea or opinion that is not accurate or based on reality) ▪ She imagines that she is very charming. = She imagines herself to be very charming. [=she thinks that she is charming but actually she is not charming] ▪ He was imagining all sorts of terrible things happening. ▪ "What was that sound? I think there's someone in the house!" "Oh, you're just imagining things."
3 : to think or believe (something) ▪ I imagine it will snow at some point today. ▪ It's difficult to imagine that these changes will really be effective. ▪ The company will do better next year, I imagine. ▪ It was worse than they had imagined.

im•ag•ing /ˈɪmədʒɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the process of creating and showing images on a computer ▪ digital imaging technology ▪ the imaging of a human heart — see also MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING imag•in•ings /ɪˈmædʒənɪŋz/ noun [plural] : ideas, stories, etc. that are thought of in your mind but that are not true or real ▪ He has achieved a level of success beyond his wildest imaginings.

imam /ɪˈmɑːm/ noun, pl imams [count] : a Muslim religious leader im•bal•ance /ɪmˈbæləns/ noun, pl -anc•es [count] : a state or condition in which different things do not occur in equal or proper amounts ▪ There is an imbalance between his work life and family life. [=he needs to spend less time at work and more time with his family] ▪ Her depression is caused by a chemical imbalance in the brain. ▪ the problem of racial imbalance in schools im•be•cile /ˈɪmbəsəl, Brit ˈɪmbəˌsiːl/ noun, pl -ciles [count] : a very stupid person : an idiot or fool ▪ He drank too much and started acting like a complete imbecile.

– imbecile or im•be•cil•ic /ˌɪmbəˈsɪlɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ imbecilic behavior – im•be•cil•i•ty /ˌɪmbəˈsɪləti/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] the imbecility of his behavior [count] He was repeating all his usual imbecilities about politics.

imbed variant spelling of EMBED im•bibe /ɪmˈbaɪb/ verb -bibes; -bibed; -bib•ing formal + often humorous

1 [+ obj] : to drink (something) ▪ She imbibed vast quantities of coffee.
2 [no obj] : to drink alcohol ▪ She never imbibes but isn't offended when others do.

im•bro•glio /ɪmˈbroʊlˌjoʊ/ noun, pl -glios [count] formal : a complex dispute or argument ▪ a political/legal imbroglio

im•bue /ɪmˈbjuː/ verb -bues; -bued; -bu•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be deeply affected by a feeling or to have a certain quality ▪ A feeling of optimism imbues her works. ▪ His war experiences imbued in him [=caused him to feel] a strong sense of patriotism. — usually + with ▪ His war experiences imbued him with a strong sense of patriotism. — often used as (be) imbued ▪ He was imbued with a strong sense of patriotism. [=he felt very patriotic]

IMHO abbr in my humble opinion — used in e-mail, chatrooms, etc., to indicate that what is being said is just an opinion

im•i•tate /ˈɪməˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make or do something the same way as (something else) ▪ Their competitors soon imitated [=copied] the idea. ▪ Her style has been imitated by many other writers.
2 a : to do the same thing as (someone) ▪ She's always imitating [=copying] her older sister. b : to copy (someone's or something's behavior, sound, appearance, etc.) ▪ He's very good at imitating his father's voice. ▪ She can imitate the calls of many different birds.
– im•i•ta•tor /ˈɪməˌteɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ His style of directing has spawned/inspired a number of imitators.

[1]im•i•ta•tion /ˌɪməˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act of copying or imitating someone or something [noncount] Children learn by imitation of adults. ▪ The restaurant was designed in imitation of a Japanese temple. [count] He did a hilarious imitation of his father.
2 [count] : something that is made or produced as a copy ▪ The real diamonds are in a museum. These are just imitations. ▪ a cheap/poor imitation ▪ The remake of the movie was a pale imitation [=an inferior version] of the original.

[2]imitation adj, always used before a noun : made to look like something that is valuable : not genuine ▪ imitation pearls ▪ imitation leather im•i•ta•tive /ˈɪməˌteɪtɪv, Brit ˈɪmətətɪv/ adj, formal : made or done to be like something or someone else ▪ imitative behavior ▪ The architecture is imitative of a Japanese temple.

im•mac•u•late /ɪˈmækjələt/ adj
1 : perfectly clean ▪ The house was always immaculate. [=spotless]
2 : having no flaw or error : PERFECT ▪ She had an immaculate record of service.
– im•mac•u•late•ly adv ▪ an immaculately dressed man im•ma•te•ri•al /ˌɪməˈtirijəl/ adj : not important or significant ▪ Whether or not he intended to cause problems is immaterial. ▪ The fact that she is a woman is immaterial and irrelevant. — often used in legal contexts ▪ The judge did not admit the evidence on the grounds that it was immaterial. — opposite [2]MATERIAL 2

im•ma•ture /ɪməˈtuə, ɪməˈʧə/ adj : not mature: such as a : not fully developed or grown ▪ The flock included both adult and immature birds. ▪ The fruit was still immature. [=unripe] b [more ~; most ~] : acting in a childish way : having or showing a lack of emotional maturity ▪ emotionally immature adults ▪ His teachers have complained about his immature behavior.
– im•ma•tu•ri•ty /ɪməˈturəti, ɪməˈʧərəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ His tantrums are a sign of immaturity.

im•mea•sur•able /ɪˈmɛʒərəbəl/ adj, formal : very great in size or amount : impossible to measure ▪ The war has caused immeasurable damage. ▪ The new medicine has brought about an immeasurable improvement in her life.
– im•mea•sur•ably /ɪˈmɛʒərəbli/ adv ▪ Her life has improved immeasurably.

im•me•di•a•cy /ɪˈmiːdijəsi/ noun : the quality that makes something seem important or interesting because it is or seems to be happening now [noncount] Television coverage gave the war greater immediacy than it had ever before had. [singular] There is an immediacy to watching a live performance that you cannot get from hearing a recording.

im•me•di•ate /ɪˈmiːdijət/ adj
1 a : happening or done without delay ▪ This requires your immediate attention. ▪ The new restaurant was an immediate success. ▪ This crisis calls for immediate action. ▪ The response to the crisis was immediate. b : happening or existing now ▪ The wildfire poses no immediate threat to any houses in the area. ▪ The danger is not immediate. c always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : important now ▪ Our (most) immediate concern is to provide aid to the victims.
2 always used before a noun a : close to a particular place ▪ They have evacuated everyone in the immediate area/vicinity of the wildfire. ▪ outside the immediate neighborhood/surroundings b : close to a particular time or event ▪ Many people suffered in the war's immediate aftermath. ▪ The effect of the new policy will be unknown for the immediate future.
3 always used before a noun : having no other person or thing in between ▪ Turn right onto Main Street and then take your immediate left. [=quickly turn onto the next street on your left] ▪ He was sitting to my immediate right. ▪ The company president will choose her immediate successor. ▪ She was my immediate predecessor ▪ He referred me to his immediate superior. ▪ Hospital visits are limited to immediate family. [=a person's parents, brothers and sisters, husband or wife, and children]
4 always used before a noun : coming straight from a cause or reason ▪ The immediate [=direct] cause of death was pneu-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i monia. ▪ There is an immediate connection between the two events.

[1]im•me•di•ate•ly /ɪˈmiːdijətli/ adv
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : with no person or thing in between ▪ They live in the house immediately [=directly] behind this one. ▪ the person immediately to my left ▪ Dinner was served immediately after the ceremony.
2 : without any delay ▪ We need to leave immediately. [=at once, right away] ▪ The new law will become effective immediately. ▪ The cause of the problem was not immediately clear. [=is was not known right away]

[2]immediately conj, Brit, formal : immediately after : as soon as ▪ Immediately you fill out this form, we can start processing your request.

im•me•mo•ri•al /ˌɪməˈmorijəl/ adj, formal + literary : very old or ancient : from a time so long ago that it cannot be remembered ▪ the immemorial roots of human spirituality ▪ People have been creating art since time immemorial. [=a very long time ago] ▪ stories passed down from time immemorial
– im•me•mo•ri•al•ly /ˌɪməˈmorijəli/ adv ▪ an immemorially ancient custom im•mense /ɪˈmɛns/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very great in size or amount ▪ He inherited an immense fortune. ▪ immense power/wealth ▪ Her movies continue to enjoy immense [=enormous, tremendous] popularity. ▪ She is an artist of immense talent.

– im•mense•ly adv ▪ immensely popular/successful/wealthy ▪ We enjoyed ourselves immensely. [=very much] im•men•si•ty /ɪˈmɛnsəti/ noun [noncount] : extremely great size ▪ the immensity of the universe/ocean ▪ She couldn't understand the immensity of their problem.

im•merse /ɪˈməs/ verb -mers•es; -mersed; -mers•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) in a liquid so that all parts are completely covered ▪ Immerse the fabric completely in the dye.
2 : to make (yourself) fully involved in some activity or interest ▪ She had immersed herself in writing short stories. ▪ He immersed himself in the culture of the island. — often used as (be) immersed ▪ He became completely/totally immersed in their culture. ▪ She was immersed in her work.

im•mer•sion /ɪˈməʒən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of putting someone or something completely in a liquid or the state of being completely in a liquid ▪ immersion in hot water
2 a : complete involvement in some activity or interest ▪ We were surprised by his complete immersion in the culture of the island. b : a method of learning a foreign language by being taught entirely in that language ▪ He learned French through immersion. ▪ I'm taking an immersion course in German.

im•mi•grant /ˈɪməgrənt/ noun, pl -grants [count] : a person who comes to a country to live there ▪ Millions of immigrants came to America from Europe in the 19th century. ▪ The city has a large immigrant population. ▪ an illegal immigrant [=a person who enters and lives in a country without official permission] — compare EMIGRANT, MIGRANT im•mi•grate /ˈɪməˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; -grat•ing [no obj] : to come to a country to live there — often + to ▪ My grandparents immigrated to America. — sometimes + from ▪ My grandparents immigrated from Hungary. — compare EMIGRATE, MIGRATE

– im•mi•gra•tion /ˌɪməˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ waves of immigration from eastern Europe ▪ immigration policies

im•mi•nent /ˈɪmənənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happening very soon ▪ We are awaiting their imminent arrival. ▪ Their arrival is imminent. ▪ These patients are facing imminent death. ▪ The species is in imminent danger of extinction. [=the species is very close to becoming extinct]

Do not confuse imminent with eminent.

– im•mi•nence /ˈɪmənəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the imminence of danger – im•mi•nent•ly adv

im•mo•bile /ɪˈmoʊbəl, ɪˈmoʊˌbajəl/ adj
1 : unable to move ▪ The tranquilizer made the animal immobile. ▪ The accident left her immobile.
2 : not moving ▪ The guard stood immobile [=motionless] by the gate.
– im•mo•bil•i•ty /ˌɪmoʊˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ physical immobility

im•mo•bi•lize also Brit im•mo•bi•lise /ɪˈmoʊbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing [+ obj] : to keep (something or someone) from moving or working : to make (something or someone) immobile ▪ Doctors immobilized her wrist by putting it in a cast. ▪ I was immobilized by fear/uncertainty.
– im•mo•bi•li•za•tion also Brit im•mo•bi•li•sa•tion /ɪˌmoʊbələˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – im•mo•bi•liz•er also Brit im•mo•bi•lis•er /ɪˈmoʊbəˌlaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The car comes with an (engine) immobilizer. [=a device that prevents the engine from being started without a key] im•mod•er•ate /ɪˈmɑːdərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : going beyond reasonable limits : not moderate ▪ He talked to us about the dangers of immoderate [=excessive] drinking.

– im•mod•er•ate•ly adv ▪ He drinks immoderately.

im•mod•est /ɪˈmɑːdəst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not modest: such as a : having or showing a high or too high opinion of yourself or your worth ▪ Although it might sound immodest of me to say so, I am very proud of what we have accomplished. b of clothing : showing a lot of your body in a way that is considered improper ▪ She wore a rather immodest [=revealing] dress to the party.
– im•mod•est•ly adv ▪ He immodestly named the company after himself. ▪ She was dressed immodestly. – im•mod•es•ty /ɪˈmɑːdəsti/ noun [noncount] im•mo•late /ˈɪməˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] formal : to kill or destroy (someone or something) by fire ▪ a man who immolated himself as an act of protest

– im•mo•la•tion /ˌɪməˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

im•mor•al /ɪˈmorəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not morally good or right : morally evil or wrong ▪ Don't condemn her: there was nothing immoral about what she did. ▪ It was immoral of her to tell lies like that. ▪ immoral behavior/acts — compare AMORAL, MORAL – im•mo•ral•i•ty /ˌɪmoəˈæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ sexual immorality ▪ the immorality of their behavior – im•mor•al•ly /ɪˈmorəli/ adv

[1]im•mor•tal /ɪˈmoətl/ adj
1 : not capable of dying : living forever ▪ the immortal soul ▪ immortal gods — opposite MORTAL
2 — used to say that something will last or be remembered forever ▪ immortal [=everlasting] fame ▪ his immortal [=timeless] melodies

[2]immortal noun, pl -tals [count]
1 : an immortal being (such as a god or goddess) — compare MORTAL
2 : a famous person who will never be forgotten ▪ baseball immortals

im•mor•tal•i•ty /ˌɪmoəˈtæləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of someone or something that will never die or be forgotten : the quality or state of being immortal ▪ She believed in the immortality of the soul. ▪ He found/achieved immortality through his films. — opposite MORTALITY im•mor•tal•ize also Brit im•mor•tal•ise /ɪˈmoətəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be remembered forever ▪ The battle was immortalized in a famous poem. ▪ The explorers were immortalized when the mountains were named after them.

im•mov•able /ɪˈmuːvəbəl/ adj
1 : not able to be moved : firmly fixed in place ▪ an immovable object — opposite MOVABLE
2 : not able to be changed or persuaded ▪ He has remained immovable [=steadfast] in his opposition to the proposed law.

im•mune /ɪˈmjuːn/ adj
1 not used before a noun a : not capable of being affected by a disease — usually + to ▪ Most people are immune to the disease. b : not influenced or affected by something — + to ▪ They are immune to persuasion/criticism. ▪ She is immune to the power of advertising.
2 not used before a noun : having special protection from something that is required for most people by law ▪ The court ruled that he was immune from prosecution [=that he could not be prosecuted] because of his diplomatic status. ▪ immune [=exempt] from punishment
3 always used before a noun : of or relating to the body's immune system ▪ immune cells ▪ an immune response/reaction immune system noun, pl ~ -tems [count] : the system that protects your body from diseases and infections ▪ a strong/healthy immune system

im•mu•ni•ty /ɪˈmjuːnəti/ noun
1 medical : the power to keep yourself from being affected by a disease — usually + to [noncount] They have developed immunity to the virus. [singular] They have developed an immunity to the virus.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

2 [noncount] : special protection from what is required for most people by law — usually + from ▪ He was granted immunity from prosecution. — see also DIPLOMATIC IMMUNITY im•mu•nize also Brit im•mu•nise /ˈɪmjəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] : to give (someone) a vaccine to prevent infection by a disease ▪ Many people had to be immunized after being exposed to the disease. — often + against ▪ All the children have been immunized against polio.

– im•mu•ni•za•tion also Brit im•mu•ni•sa•tion /ˌɪmjənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌɪmjəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

im•mu•no•de• •cien •cy /ˌɪmjəˌnoʊdɪˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] medical : a condition in which your body cannot produce enough of the substances or cells that it would normally produce to fight infection

im•mu•nol•o•gy /ˌɪmjəˈnɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with the ways in which the body protects itself from diseases and infections

im•mu•ta•ble /ɪˈmjuːtəbəl/ adj, formal : unable to be changed ▪ the immutable laws of nature ▪ immutable opposition – im•mu•ta•bil•i•ty /ɪˌmjuːtəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – im•mu•ta•bly /ɪˈmjuːtəbli/ adv ▪ She was not immutably opposed to the plan.

imp /ˈɪmp/ noun, pl imps [count]
1 : a small creature that plays harmful tricks in children's stories
2 : a child who causes trouble in a playful way : a mischievous child ▪ a lovable imp — see also IMPISH

[1]im•pact /ˈɪmˌpækt/ noun, pl -pacts
1 : the act or force of one thing hitting another [count] No one could have survived such an impact. [noncount] The bomb exploded on/upon impact (with the ground). [=when it hit the ground]
2 [count] : a powerful or major influence or effect ▪ These warnings have been heard so often that they have lost their impact. ▪ The book had a huge impact when it first came out. ▪ We need to be concerned about the environmental impacts of all this construction. ▪ She expects to make an immediate impact at work. — often + on ▪ The stress of her job is having a negative impact on her health. [=is harming her health] ▪ We hope that these programs will have a positive impact on the community. [=will help the community]

[2]im•pact /ˌɪmˈpækt/ verb -pacts; -pact•ed; -pact•ing
1 : to have a strong and often bad effect on (something or someone) : AFFECT [+ obj] No one is sure how these changes will impact our relations with other countries. ▪ Both events negatively impacted her life. ▪ The tax increase will impact low-income families the most. [no obj] The poor economy is impacting on/upon small businesses.
2 [+ obj] formal : to hit (something) with great force ▪ A crater was formed at the point where the meteor impacted the planet's surface.

im•pact•ed /ɪmˈpæktəd/ adj, of a tooth : growing under another tooth ▪ impacted wisdom teeth

im•pair /ɪmˈpeə/ verb -pairs; -paired; -pair•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) weaker or worse ▪ Smoking can impair your health. ▪ Drinking impairs a person's ability to think clearly. ▪ His memory was so impaired by age that he often forgot where he was. synonyms see INJURE – im•paired /ɪmˈpeəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The disease causes impaired vision/hearing in elderly people. — sometimes used in combination ▪ hearing-impaired people [=people with impaired hearing]

im•pair•ment /ɪmˈpeəmənt/ noun, pl -ments : a condition in which a part of your body or mind is damaged and does not work well [count] a hearing/memory/visual impairment [noncount] The loud noise caused impairment of her hearing.

im•pa•la /ɪmˈpɑːlə/ noun, pl im•pa•las or impala [count] : a large brownish African animal im•pale /ɪmˈpeɪl/ verb -pales; -paled; -pal•ing [+ obj] : to cause a pointed object to go into or through (someone or something) — often + on ▪ He slipped and impaled his leg on a metal spike. — usually used as (be) impaled ▪ The matador was impaled by the bull's horns. = The matador was impaled on the bull's horns.

im•pan•el or em•pan•el /ɪmˈpænl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling [+ obj] law : to choose people to serve on a jury ▪ impanel jurors = impanel a jury im•part /ɪmˈpɑːt/ verb -parts; -part•ed; -part•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to give (something, such as a quality) to a thing ▪ Her presence imparted a sense of importance to the meeting. ▪ The oil imparts a distinctive flavor to the sauce. ▪ The chemicals imparted a bluish color to the paper.
2 : to make (something) known to someone ▪ He has clever ways of imparting [=conveying, communicating] knowledge to his students.

im•par•tial /ɪmˈpɑːʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : treating all people and groups equally : not partial or biased ▪ an impartial analysis of the case ▪ an impartial judge/jury/observer
– im•par•tial•i•ty /ɪmˌpɑːʃiˈæləti/ noun [noncount] – im•par•tial•ly /ɪmˈpɑːʃəli/ adv

im•pass•able /ɪmˈpæsəbəl/ adj : impossible to pass, cross, or travel over ▪ The roads were made impassable by the flood/snow.

im•passe /ˈɪmˌpæs, Brit æmˈpɑːs/ noun, pl -pass•es [count] : a situation in which no progress seems possible ▪ Negotations are at an impasse. = Negotations have reached/hit an impasse. ▪ An arbitrator was called in to break the impasse. ▪ She had reached an impasse in her career.

im•pas•sioned /ɪmˈpæʃənd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or feeling very strong emotions ▪ Her lawyer made an impassioned argument in her defense. ▪ an impassioned speech/plea ▪ impassioned [=passionate] animal-rights activists im•pas•sive /ɪmˈpæsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing emotion ▪ an impassive observer ▪ Her face/expression remained impassive throughout the trial.

– im•pas•sive•ly adv ▪ She sat impassively throughout the trial. – im•pas•siv•i•ty /ɪmˌpæˈsɪvəti/ noun [noncount]

im•pa•tient /ɪmˈpeɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : not willing to wait for something or someone : not patient ▪ After months of delays, customers are becoming/growing impatient. ▪ Customers have grown impatient with/at the repeated delays. ▪ "Aren't you ready yet?" "Don't be so impatient. There's no need to hurry." — often + for ▪ He was impatient for the departure of his flight. ▪ She was becoming more impatient for the opportunity to begin working. b : wanting or eager to do something without waiting ▪ She was impatient to leave.
2 : showing that you do not want to wait : showing a lack of patience ▪ an impatient answer/gesture/look – im•pa•tience /ɪmˈpeɪʃəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ He sighed with impatience. ▪ Her impatience with/at the many delays was obvious. ▪ Her impatience to leave was obvious. – im•pa•tient•ly adv ▪ Customers are waiting impatiently for the delays to end.

im•peach /ɪmˈpiːʧ/ verb -peach•es; -peached; -peach•ing [+ obj] law
1 : to charge (a public official) with a crime done while in office ▪ Congress will vote on whether or not to impeach the President. ▪ impeach a judge
2 formal : to cause doubts about the truthfulness of (a witness, testimony, etc.) ▪ The defense lawyers tried to impeach the witness's testimony by forcing him to admit that he had changed his story.
– im•peach•able /ɪmˈpiːʧəbəl/ adj ▪ an impeachable offense/crime – im•peach•ment /ɪmˈpiːʧmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

im•pec•ca•ble /ɪmˈpɛkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : free from fault or error ▪ The craftsmanship is impeccable. [=flawless] ▪ He speaks impeccable [=perfect] English. ▪ She has impeccable taste in music. ▪ His manners are impeccable.
– im•pec•ca•bly /ɪmˈpɛkəbli/ adv ▪ He behaved impeccably. ▪ She was impeccably dressed.

im•pe•cu•nious /ˌɪmpɪˈkjuːnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having little or no money : POOR ▪ an impecunious student im•pede /ɪmˈpiːd/ verb -pedes; -ped•ed; -ped•ing [+ obj] : to slow the movement, progress, or action of (someone or something) ▪ He claims that economic growth is being impeded by government regulations. ▪ They were accused of impeding [=blocking, hindering] the administration of justice. ▪ The soldiers could not impede the enemy's advance.

im•ped•i•ment /ɪmˈpɛdəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : something that makes it difficult to do or complete something : something that interferes with movement or progress — often + to ▪ There were no legal impediments to the deal.
2 : a condition that makes it difficult to speak normally ▪ a speech impediment im•pel /ɪmˈpɛl/ verb -pels; -pelled; -pel•ling [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel a strong need or desire to do something ▪ They were impelled [=driven] by their sense of adventure. ▪ His interest in the American Civil War impelled him to make repeated visits to Gettysburg. ▪ She felt impelled to give a speech after the performance.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

im•pend•ing /ɪmˈpɛndɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : happening or likely to happen soon ▪ She's worried about an impending business trip. ▪ We need to prepare for their impending arrival.

im•pen•e•tra•ble /ɪmˈpɛnətrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : impossible to pass or see through ▪ an impenetrable wall/barrier/jungle ▪ The fort's defenses were thought to be impenetrable. ▪ impenetrable darkness/fog
2 : impossible to understand ▪ an impenetrable mystery ▪ an impenetrable secret code
– im•pen•e•tra•bil•i•ty /ɪmˌpɛnətrəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – im•pen•e•tra•bly /ɪmˈpɛnətrəbli/ adv ▪ an impenetrably complex mystery ▪ an impenetrably thick wall

[1]im•per•a•tive /ɪmˈpɛrətɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] formal : very important ▪ an imperative duty ▪ It is imperative that the public be informed about these dangers. = It is imperative to inform the public about these dangers.
2 grammar : having the form that expresses a command rather than a statement or a question ▪ "Eat your spinach!" is an imperative sentence. ▪ "Help" in the sentence "Help me!" is an imperative verb. ▪ a verb in the imperative mood — compare DECLARATIVE, INDICATIVE, INTERROGATIVE, SUBJUNCTIVE
3 formal : expressing a command in a forceful and confident way ▪ People resented his imperative tone of voice.

[2]imperative noun, pl -tives
1 [count] formal : a command, rule, duty, etc., that is very important or necessary ▪ She considers it a moral imperative to help people in need. ▪ legal imperatives
2 grammar a *the imperative : the form that a verb or sentence has when it is expressing a command ▪ "Eat your spinach!" is in the imperative. b [count] : an imperative verb or sentence ▪ "Go" and "buy" are imperatives in the sentence "Please go to the store and buy some milk."

im•per•cep•ti•ble /ˌɪmpəˈsɛptəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : impossible to see or notice ▪ imperceptible changes/differences ▪ an almost imperceptible smile/breeze ▪ These changes will be imperceptible to most people.
– im•per•cep•ti•bly /ˌɪmpəˈsɛptəbli/ adv

[1]im•per•fect /ɪmˈpəfɪkt/ adj
1 : having mistakes or problems : not perfect ▪ an imperfect society ▪ It's an imperfect solution to a difficult problem. ▪ He had an imperfect understanding of the task. ▪ imperfect [=defective] clothing
2 grammar : of or relating to a verb tense used to express an incomplete action in the past or a state that continued for a period of time in the past ▪ In "He was singing when I came in," "was singing" is in the imperfect tense.
– im•per•fect•ly adv ▪ an imperfectly patched hole

[2]imperfect noun
the imperfect grammar : the imperfect tense of a verb ▪ a verb in the imperfect

im•per•fec•tion /ˌɪmpəˈfɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a small flaw or bad part ▪ He detected several imperfections in the surface of the jewel. ▪ She tried to hide the imperfection in the cloth. ▪ skin imperfections [=blemishes]
2 [noncount] : the state of being imperfect : lack of perfection ▪ human imperfection

im•pe•ri•al /ɪmˈpiriəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to an empire or an emperor ▪ the Roman imperial age ▪ a member of the imperial family/army ▪ imperial power ▪ the imperial palace

im•pe•ri•al•ism /ɪmˈpiriəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : a policy or practice by which a country increases its power by gaining control over other areas of the world ▪ British imperialism created the enormous British Empire.
2 : the effect that a powerful country or group of countries has in changing or influencing the way people live in other, poorer countries ▪ Western imperialism ▪ economic/cultural imperialism

im•pe•ri•al•ist /ɪmˈpirijəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who practices or supports imperialism – imperialist adj ▪ imperialist power/expansion – im•pe•ri•al•is•tic /ɪmˌpirijəˈlɪstɪk/ adj ▪ imperialistic aims/goals

im•per•il /ɪmˈpɛrəl/ verb -ils; US -iled or Brit -illed; US -il•ing or Brit -il•ling [+ obj] formal : to put (something or someone) in a dangerous situation : ENDANGER ▪ The toxic fumes imperiled the lives of the trapped miners. ▪ The financial health of the company was imperiled by a string of bad investments. ▪ a list of imperiled species

im•pe•ri•ous /ɪmˈpirijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing the proud and unpleasant attitude of someone who gives orders and expects other people to obey them ▪ an imperious manner/tone/gesture ▪ imperious bureaucrats
– im•pe•ri•ous•ly adv – im•pe•ri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

im•per•ish•able /ɪmˈpɛrɪʃəbəl/ adj, formal : never to be forgotten : lasting forever ▪ imperishable fame ▪ an imperishable masterpiece

im•per•ma•nent /ɪmˈpəmənənt/ adj, formal : not lasting forever : not permanent ▪ an impermanent [=temporary] solution ▪ impermanent materials
– im•per•ma•nence /ɪmˈpəmənəns/ noun [noncount]

im•per•me•able /ɪmˈpəmijəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] technical : not allowing something (such as a liquid) to pass through ▪ an impermeable layer of rock ▪ a fabric impermeable to moisture
– im•per•me•abil•i•ty /ɪmˌpəmijəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

im•per•mis•si•ble /ɪmˌpəˈmɪsəbəl/ adj, formal : not allowed or permitted : not permissible ▪ Such behavior is impermissible under the new guidelines. ▪ an impermissible breach of etiquette
– im•per•mis•si•bly /ɪmˌpəˈmɪsəbli/ adv

im•per•son•al /ɪmˈpəsənəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : having or showing no interest in individual people or their feelings : lacking emotional warmth ▪ cold, impersonal cities ▪ a giant impersonal corporation b : not relating to or influenced by personal feelings ▪ We discussed the weather and other impersonal topics. ▪ He maintained an impersonal, professional attitude.
2 grammar : having no specified subject or no subject other than "it" ▪ "Rained" in "it rained" is an impersonal verb. ▪ an impersonal sentence/construction
– im•per•son•al•ly /ɪmˈpəsənəli/ adv ▪ They were treated impersonally.

im•per•son•ate /ɪmˈpəsəˌneɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to pretend to be (another person) ▪ He was arrested for impersonating a police officer. ▪ a comedian with a talent for impersonating famous politicians and actors
– im•per•son•a•tion /ɪmˌpəsəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] He does a great impersonation of the President. [noncount] He was arrested for impersonation of a police officer.

im•per•son•a•tor /ɪmˈpəsəˌneɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who pretends to be someone else; especially : a person who entertains people by pretending to be another person ▪ an Elvis impersonator [=an entertainer who pretends to be Elvis Presley] ▪ a female impersonator [=a male entertainer who plays the role of a woman]

im•per•ti•nent /ɪmˈpətṇənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : rude and showing a lack of respect ▪ She asked a few impertinent questions. ▪ an impertinent young woman
– im•per•ti•nence /ɪmˈpətṇəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ I was shocked by the impertinence of her questions. – im•per•ti•nent•ly adv

im•per•turb•able /ˌɪmpəˈtəbəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very calm : very hard to disturb or upset ▪ Although he seems outwardly imperturbable, he can get very angry at times. ▪ an imperturbable demeanor/disposition – im•per•turb•abil•i•ty /ˌɪmpəˌtəbəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – im•per•turb•ably /ˌɪmpəˈtəbəbli/ adv ▪ He sat there imperturbably as they insulted him.

im•per•vi•ous /ɪmˈpəvijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 technical : not allowing something (such as water or light) to enter or pass through — usually + to ▪ a substance impervious to light ▪ a coat impervious to rain
2 formal : not bothered or affected by something — usually + to ▪ He seems impervious to criticism.
– im•per•vi•ous•ness noun [noncount]

im•pet•u•ous /ɪmˈpɛʧəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : acting or done quickly and without thought : controlled by emotion rather than thought : IMPULSIVE ▪ He's always been an impetuous young man. ▪ an impetuous decision
– im•pet•u•os•i•ty /ɪmˌpɛʧəˈwɑːsəti/ noun [noncount] – im•pet•u•ous•ly adv – im•pet•u•ous•ness noun [noncount]

im•pe•tus /ˈɪmpətəs/ noun
1 : a force that causes something (such as a process or activity) to be done or to become more active [noncount] His discoveries have given impetus to further research. ▪ The movement is now gaining/losing impetus. [=momentum] [singular] Her work provided the major impetus [=stimulus] behind the movement. — often + for ▪ The tragic accident became an impetus for changing the safety regulations. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ His discoveries have given researchers the impetus to try something new.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

2 [noncount] technical : a force that causes an object to begin moving or to continue to move im•pi•ety /ɪmˈpajəti/ noun [noncount] formal : lack of respect for God : the quality or state of being impious ▪ accusations of impiety

im•pinge /ɪmˈpɪnʤ/ verb -ping•es; -pinged; -ping•ing impinge on/upon [phrasal verb] impinge on/upon (something) formal : to affect (something) in a way that is unwanted : to have a bad effect on (something) ▪ His lawyers argued that the publicity will impinge on the defendant's right to a fair trial. ▪ Her work is impinging on [=encroaching on, hindering] her social life. ▪ The government wants to avoid impinging upon the affairs of private citizens.

im•pi•ous /ˈɪmpijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : feeling or showing a lack of respect for God : not pious ▪ impious books ▪ He was fearful of seeming impious.

imp•ish /ˈɪmpɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a playful desire to cause trouble : playful and mischievous ▪ an impish grin/smile ▪ an impish face/look – imp•ish•ly adv ▪ grinning impishly – imp•ish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ his youthful impishness

im•pla•ca•ble /ɪmˈplækəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : opposed to someone or something in a very angry or determined way that cannot be changed ▪ He has an implacable hatred for his political opponents. ▪ an implacable [=unyielding] opponent – im•pla•ca•bly /ɪmˈplækəbli/ adv ▪ They are implacably opposed to his proposals.

[1]im•plant /ɪmˈplænt/ verb -plants; -plant•ed; -plant•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) in a specified place ▪ The police obtained permission to implant [=plant] a recording device in the suspect's home.; especially, medical : to place (something) in a person's body by means of surgery ▪ a hearing aid that is surgically implanted in the ear
2 : to cause (something) to become a part of the way a person thinks or feels ▪ She implanted a love of reading in her students. [=she taught her students to love reading]
– im•plant•able /ɪmˈplæntəbəl/ adj ▪ implantable devices
– im•plan•ta•tion /ˌɪmˌplænˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the implantation of a hearing aid [count] (chiefly US) a surgeon who has performed many implantations

[2]im•plant /ˈɪmˌplænt/ noun, pl -plants [count] medical : something placed in a person's body by means of surgery ▪ breast implants

im•plau•si•ble /ɪmˈplɑːzəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not believable or realistic : not plausible ▪ She's been making implausible claims. ▪ He gave an implausible excuse for showing up late for work. ▪ The novel has an implausible ending.
– im•plau•si•bil•i•ty /ɪmˌplɑːzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the implausibility of the novel's ending – im•plau•si•bly /ɪmˈplɑːzəbli/ adv ▪ an implausibly happy ending ▪ Implausibly (enough), the hero was saved at the last minute.

[1]im•ple•ment /ˈɪmpləmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : an object used to do work : TOOL ▪ farming implements ▪ stone implements used in prehistoric times ▪ a sharp-edged implement used to chop wood > synonyms IMPLEMENT, TOOL, INSTRUMENT, and UTENSIL mean a device used for doing work. IMPLEMENT is a general word and may refer to anything that is needed to complete a task. ▪ gardening implements such as rakes and hoes TOOL is also a general word but may suggest a device that is designed for a specific job and that requires some skill to be used properly. ▪ carpenter's tools INSTRUMENT suggests a device that can be used for very precise work. ▪ surgical instruments UTENSIL suggests a fairly simple device used for jobs in a person's house. ▪ kitchen utensils

[2]im•ple•ment /ˈɪmpləˌmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] : to begin to do or use (something, such as a plan) : to make (something) active or effective ▪ The government implemented [=carried out] a series of reforms. ▪ I wondered how I might best implement his plan. ▪ Due to high costs, the program was never fully implemented.
– im•ple•men•ta•tion /ˌɪmpləmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ implementation of the plan im•pli•cate /ˈɪmpləˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to show that someone or something is closely connected to or involved in something (such as a crime) ▪ The evidence implicated many government officials in the conspiracy. [=the evidence showed that many government officials were involved in the conspiracy] ▪ His business partner was implicated in the theft. ▪ Scientists have discovered a gene that is implicated [=involved] in the development of Alzheimer's disease.

im•pli•ca•tion /ˌɪmpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a possible future effect or result — usually plural ▪ We must consider the long-term implications of the new trade policies. [=we must consider the effect the policies may have in the future] ▪ The closing of the factory has economic implications for the entire community. [=the closing will affect the economy of the entire community] ▪ He needs to be aware of the political implications of his decision.
2 : something that is suggested without being said directly : something that is implied [count] I'm offended by his implication that women can't be good at mathematics. ▪ I resent that/your implication! [noncount] He condemned the court and, by implication, the entire legal system.
3 [noncount] : the fact or state of being involved in or connected to something (such as a crime) : the fact or state of being implicated in something ▪ He was shocked by the implication of his partner in the theft.

im•plic•it /ɪmˈplɪsət/ adj
1 : understood though not clearly or directly stated ▪ an implicit agreement/warning/promise ▪ Their plans are based on the implicit [=implied] assumption that the proposal will be accepted. ▪ There is a sense of moral duty implicit in her writings. — opposite EXPLICIT
2 : not affected by doubt : ABSOLUTE, COMPLETE ▪ I have implicit trust/confidence/faith in her honesty.
– im•plic•it•ly adv ▪ In his criticism of the court he implicitly condemns the entire legal system. ▪ I trust her implicitly. [=completely]

im•plode /ɪmˈploʊd/ verb -plodes; -plod•ed; -plod•ing [no obj] : to collapse inward in a very sudden and violent way ▪ an imploding star — often used figuratively ▪ He warns that the nation's economy is about to implode under the weight of its debt. — compare EXPLODE
– im•plo•sion /ɪmˈploʊʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count, noncount]

im•plore /ɪmˈploə/ verb -plores; -plored; -plor•ing [+ obj] formal
1 a : to make a very serious or emotional request to (someone) : BEG ▪ Don't go. I implore you. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She implored her son not to go. ▪ He implored her to think of the children. b : to say (something) as a serious or emotional request ▪ "Think of the children!" he implored.
2 : to ask or beg for (something) in a very serious or emotional way ▪ He implored their help.
– imploring adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an imploring look ▪ an imploring request for help – im•plor•ing•ly adv ▪ "Don't go!" she said imploringly.

im•ply /ɪmˈplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing [+ obj]
1 : to express (something) in an indirect way : to suggest (something) without saying or showing it plainly ▪ Your remark implies (to me) that you think I'm wrong. ▪ Early reports implied that the judge's death was not an accident. ▪ His words implied a threat. — compare INFER
2 : to include or involve (something) as a natural or necessary part or result ▪ War implies fighting and death.

im•po•lite /ˌɪmpəˈlaɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not polite : RUDE ▪ It's impolite to talk during the performance. ▪ He made some impolite comments about her appearance. ▪ an impolite child ▪ an impolite word
– im•po•lite•ly adv ▪ They felt they were being treated impolitely. – im•po•lite•ness noun [noncount]

im•pon•der•a•ble /ɪmˈpɑːndərəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be measured or judged exactly ▪ the imponderable vastness of space
– imponderable noun, pl -ables [count] ▪ the imponderables of human nature [=the mysteries of human nature; the questions about human nature that cannot be fully answered or understood]

[1]im•port /ɪmˈpoət/ verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing [+ obj]
1 : to bring a product into a country to be sold ▪ a dealer who imports cars from Italy to the U.S. — opposite EXPORT
2 computers : to bring (something, such as data) into a file, system, etc., from another source ▪ software that makes it

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

simple to import digital photographs onto your hard drive – imported adj ▪ imported cars/coffee – im•port•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an importer of Italian cars

²im•port /ˈɪmˌpoət/ noun, pl -ports
1 a [count] : something that is imported : a product brought into a country to be sold there ▪ This car is an import from Italy. ▪ They sell luxury imports from around the world. b [noncount] : the act of importing something : IMPORTATION ▪ laws affecting the import of foreign goods ▪ an import tax
2 [noncount] formal : IMPORTANCE ▪ This is an issue of little import to voters. ▪ a matter of great import
3 [singular] formal : the meaning of something ▪ Researchers are still debating the import [=meaning] of the test results.

im•por•tance /ɪmˈpoətns/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being important : value or significance ▪ The teacher lectured the students on the importance of mutual respect. ▪ a medical discovery of great/major importance [=a very important medical discovery] ▪ He exaggerated the importance of his role in the rescue mission. ▪ The negotiations have taken on added importance in the wake of the bomb attack. ▪ a matter of little/minor importance ▪ Nothing of importance [=nothing important] was decided.

im•por•tant /ɪmˈpoətnt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having serious meaning or worth ▪ She's an important [=significant] part of the team. ▪ Diet and exercise are important for health. : deserving or requiring serious attention ▪ an important problem ▪ In his editorial, he made several important points. ▪ It's important that you remember to send these forms on time. = It's important for you to remember to send these forms on time. ▪ Scientists have made an important discovery. ▪ Doing her job well is important to her. ▪ The new policy will help businesses and, more important [=importantly], it will create thousands of new jobs. [=it is more important that the new policy will create thousands of new jobs] ▪ critically/crucially/vitally important
2 : having power, authority, or influence ▪ He's one of the most important scholars in his field. ▪ an important artist

im•por•tant•ly /ɪmˈpoətntli/ adv
1 [more ~; most ~] — used to say that something is important ▪ More importantly, [=it is more important that] the proposed law will have a harmful effect on funding for public schools.
2 a : in an important way ▪ Her research has contributed importantly to our understanding of the disease. b : in the manner of people who think that they are important : in an arrogant or pompous manner ▪ He strutted to and fro importantly, ordering everybody around.

im•por•ta•tion /ˌɪmˌpoəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of importing products ▪ illegal importation of weapons

im•por•tu•nate /ɪmˈpoətʃənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : making repeated or annoying requests or demands ▪ an importunate salesman
2 : causing annoyance or trouble ▪ importunate demands – im•por•tu•nate•ly adv ▪ importunately demanding help

im•por•tune /ˌɪmpəˈtuːn, Brit ˌɪmpəˈtjuːn/ verb -tunes; -tuned; -tun•ing [+ obj] formal : to ask (someone) for something or to do something in a repeated or annoying way : BEG ▪ He stood on the street corner, importuning passersby for help/money. ▪ He importuned them to help.

im•pose /ɪmˈpoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to cause (something, such as a tax, fine, rule, or punishment) to affect someone or something by using your authority ▪ The judge imposed a life sentence. — usually + on or upon ▪ The judge imposed a life sentence on the defendant. ▪ impose [=levy] a tax on liquor ▪ A curfew has been imposed upon the city's youth. b : to establish or create (something unwanted) in a forceful or harmful way ▪ I needed to break free from the limits imposed by my own fear of failure.
2 [+ obj] : to force someone to accept (something or yourself) — + on or upon ▪ He imposed his will on his subjects. [=he forced his subjects to do what he wanted them to do] ▪ He imposes his personal beliefs on his employees. ▪ I don't like having to impose myself on other people.
3 [no obj] : to ask for or expect more than is fair or reasonable ▪ She asked if I wanted a ride, but I declined. I didn't want to impose. [=I didn't want to cause trouble or inconvenience for her] — often + on or upon ▪ I didn't want to impose on her. = I didn't want to impose on her kindness. ▪ You shouldn't impose on/upon your friend's good nature.

im•pos•ing /ɪmˈpoʊzɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very large or impressive ▪ He's an imposing man with a powerful voice. ▪ an imposing building ▪ an imposing figure
– im•pos•ing•ly adv ▪ an imposingly large building

im•po•si•tion /ˌɪmpəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a demand or request that is not reasonable or that causes trouble for someone ▪ Your kids can stay with me the night you're away—it's really not an imposition.
2 [noncount] : the act of establishing or creating something in an official way : the act of imposing something ▪ the imposition of a life sentence on the defendant ▪ the imposition of a tax on liquor

im•pos•si•bil•i•ty /ɪmˌpɑːsəˈbɪləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : something that is impossible : something that cannot be done or that cannot happen ▪ The blizzard made travel an impossibility. ▪ a logical/mathematical impossibility
2 [noncount] : the quality or state of being impossible ▪ the impossibility of knowing what the future will bring

im•pos•si•ble /ɪmˈpɑːsəbəl/ adj
1 a : unable to be done or to happen : not possible ▪ It's impossible to predict the future. ▪ The heavy rain made it impossible to see the road. ▪ It's logically/mathematically impossible. ▪ It's physically impossible for a child to lift that much at once. ▪ It's virtually/nearly/almost impossible to book a flight just before the holiday. ▪ I find it impossible to believe [=I cannot believe] that he's telling the truth. ▪ an impossible dream b : very difficult ▪ an impossible [=hopeless] situation ▪ These math problems are impossible!
2 [more ~; most ~] of a person : very difficult to deal with : very irritating or annoying ▪ You refuse to help and then criticize me for not doing it right? You're impossible! ▪ My boss is just an impossible woman.
the impossible : something that cannot be done or that is very difficult ▪ Expecting people to do a good job in such a short time is asking the impossible.
– im•pos•si•bly /ɪmˈpɑːsəbli/ adv ▪ The restaurants in this city are impossibly [=extremely, ridiculously] expensive. ▪ impossibly high standards im•pos•tor or im•pos•ter /ɪmˈpɑːstə/ noun, pl -tors or -ters [count] : a person who deceives others by pretending to be someone else ▪ He claimed he was an experienced pilot, but he turned out to be an impostor.

im•pos•ture /ɪmˈpɑːstʃə/ noun, pl -tures formal : the act of deceiving others by pretending to be someone else [noncount] He was accused of imposture. [count] his elaborate impostures

im•po•tent /ˈɪmpətənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : lacking power or strength ▪ an impotent political party
2 of a man : unable to have sex : unable to get or keep an erection – im•po•tence /ˈɪmpətəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the impotence [=weakness] of the current regime ▪ sexual impotence – im•po•tent•ly adv ▪ We could only watch impotently [=helplessly] as the fire consumed our home.

im•pound /ɪmˈpaʊnd/ verb -pounds; -pound•ed; -pound•ing [+ obj] : to use legal powers to get and hold (something) ▪ The police impounded her car because it was illegally parked. ▪ impound evidence for a trial

im•pov•er•ish /ɪmˈpɑːvərɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) poor ▪ The dictator enriched himself but impoverished his people.
2 : to use up the strength or richness of (something, such as land) ▪ Poor farming practices impoverished the soil.
– impoverished adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ the most impoverished areas [=the poorest areas] of the country ▪ acres of impoverished soil – im•pov•er•ish•ment /ɪmˈpɑːvərɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the impoverishment of the people/soil

im•prac•ti•ca•ble /ɪmˈpræktɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : difficult or impossible to do or use : not practicable ▪ an impracticable plan ▪ an impracticable solution
– im•prac•ti•ca•bil•i•ty /ɪmˌpræktɪkəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the impracticability of his plan

im•prac•ti•cal /ɪmˈpræktɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not practical: such as a : not easy to do or use : not suitable for the situation ▪ Little sports cars are impractical for large families. ▪ an attractive but completely impractical pair of shoes [=shoes that look nice but are not comfortable for walking] ▪ an impractical plan/solution b of a person : not sensible : not able to deal with practical matters effectively ▪ He was a dreamy and impractical young man.
– im•prac•ti•cal•i•ty /ɪmˌpræktɪˈkæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count] They adopted the plan despite all its impracticali-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

ties. [noncount] the impracticality of the plan – im•prac•ti•cal•ly /ɪmˈpræktɪkli/ adv ▪ an impractically large book im•pre•ca•tion /ˌɪmprɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : an offensive word or phrase that people say when they are angry : CURSE ▪ He muttered imprecations under his breath.

im•pre•cise /ˌɪmprɪˈsaɪs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not clear or exact : not precise ▪ imprecise language/measurements ▪ an imprecise description ▪ It's an imprecise translation of the original sentence.
– im•pre•cise•ly adv ▪ The passage had been translated imprecisely. – im•pre•ci•sion /ˌɪmprɪˈsɪʒən/ noun [noncount]

im•preg•na•ble /ɪmˈprɛgnəbəl/ adj
1 : not able to be captured by attack : very strong ▪ an impregnable fortress ▪ impregnable defenses
2 : not likely to be weakened or changed ▪ an impregnable reputation ▪ Her arguments seemed impregnable.

im•preg•nate /ɪmˈprɛgˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (a material) to be filled or soaked with something ▪ a cake impregnated with brandy
2 technical : to make (a woman or a female animal) pregnant – im•preg•na•tion /ɪmˌprɛgˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

im•pre•sa•rio /ˌɪmprəˈsɑriˌoʊ/ noun, pl -ri•os [count] : a person who manages a performance (such as a concert or play)

im•press /ɪmˈprɛs/ verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing
1 : to cause (someone) to feel admiration or interest [+ obj] He's trying to impress her. [=he is trying to win her admiration; he wants her to like him] ▪ The candidate impressed us with his qualifications. = The candidate's qualifications impressed us. ▪ What really impressed me was their enthusiasm. = It really impressed me that they were so enthusiastic. — often used as (be) impressed ▪ We were (favorably/deeply/very) impressed by/with his credentials. ▪ I am impressed that you can play the violin so well. ▪ I was particularly/especially impressed by their enthusiasm. [no obj] She's bright, ambitious, and eager to impress.
2 [+ obj] : to put (something) in someone's mind : to produce a clear idea or image of (something) — + on or upon ▪ The speaker tried to impress the dangers of drugs on the children. = The speaker tried to impress on the children how dangerous drugs can be. [=tried to make the children understand very clearly how dangerous drugs can be]
3 [+ obj] : to produce (something, such as a picture) by pushing something against a surface ▪ a design impressed on the book's cover

im•pres•sion /ɪmˈprɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count]
1 : the effect or influence that something or someone has on a person's thoughts or feelings ▪ Her words made a strong impression (on us). ▪ The candidate made a favorable/positive/good/bad impression. ▪ What was your impression of the candidate? [=what did you think of the candidate?] ▪ My first impression of him was that he was a kind and thoughtful young man. ▪ First impressions are important but can be misleading. ▪ In her journal, she recorded her impressions of the city. ▪ Her kindness left a lasting impression on her students. ▪ I was trying to make an impression. = I was trying to make a good impression. ▪ He's trying to avoid (giving) the impression that he's insensitive. ▪ a fleeting impression
2 : an idea or belief that is usually not clear or certain ▪ It was my impression [=I thought] that admission was free. ▪ I'm sorry if I gave you the wrong impression. [=I'm sorry if I misled you] ▪ I got/had the distinct impression that they didn't mean to stay long. ▪ They gave (us) the impression that they didn't mean to stay long. ▪ an erroneous/false/mistaken impression ▪ I was under the impression [=I thought] that admission was free.
3 : an appearance or suggestion of something ▪ The garden is designed in tiers to give/create the impression of steps. [=the garden is designed so that it looks like steps] ▪ His lifestyle conveyed the impression of great wealth. [=his lifestyle led people to believe that he was very wealthy]
4 : something (such as a design or a footprint) made by pressing or stamping a surface ▪ The child used her hand to make an impression in the mud.
5 : an imitation of a famous person that is done for entertainment ▪ He does a funny impression [=impersonation] of Elvis Presley.

im•pres•sion•able /ɪmˈprɛʃənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easy to influence ▪ The teacher was accused of forcing his political beliefs on impressionable teenagers. ▪ The book had a profound effect on his impressionable young mind.
– im•pres•sion•abil•i•ty /ɪmˌprɛʃənəˈbɪlɪti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the impressionability of youth

im•pres•sion•ism or Im•pres•sion•ism /ɪmˈprɛʃəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a style of painting that began in France around 1870, that uses spots of color to show the effects of different kinds of light, and that attempts to capture the feeling of a scene rather than specific details
– impressionist or Impressionist adj ▪ an Impressionist painting

im•pres•sion•ist /ɪmˈprɛʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 or Impressionist : a painter who practices impressionism
2 : an entertainer who does impressions (sense 5)

im•pres•sion•is•tic /ɪmˌprɛʃəˈnɪstɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : involving general feelings or thoughts rather than specific knowledge or facts ▪ He wrote an impressionistic account of the battle scene.
2 chiefly US : of or relating to impressionism ▪ an impressionistic painting
– im•pres•sion•is•ti•cal•ly /ɪmˌprɛʃəˈnɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ He wrote vaguely and impressionistically about his life.

im•pres•sive /ɪmˈprɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : deserving attention, admiration, or respect : making a good impression ▪ He has an impressive vocabulary for a 10-year-old. ▪ Her first performance was very impressive. ▪ He has an impressive manner. ▪ a large and impressive [=imposing] building
– im•pres•sive•ly adv ▪ an impressively large vocabulary/building

im•pri•ma•tur /ˌɪmprəˈmɑːˌtuə/ noun, pl -turs [count] formal : official approval ▪ He gave the book his imprimatur.

[1]im•print /ɪmˈprɪnt/ verb -prints; -print•ed; -print•ing [+ obj]
1 : to create a mark by pressing against a surface ▪ imprint [=stamp] a design on a sheet of paper ▪ wearing a T-shirt imprinted with the company logo
2 : to cause (something) to stay in your mind or memory ▪ The image of her beautiful face will always be imprinted on my mind. [=I will always remember her beautiful face] ▪ a picture imprinted in my memory

[2]im•print /ˈɪmˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count]
1 : a mark created by pressing against a surface : something imprinted or printed ▪ We saw an imprint of a bike tire on the dirt trail. ▪ a fossil imprint of a dinosaur's foot
2 : a strong effect or influence ▪ She was determined to put her imprint on the company. [=to use her ideas and influence to make the company better]
3 technical : a publisher's name on the title page of a book

im•pris•on /ɪmˈprɪzn̩/ verb -ons; -oned; -on•ing [+ obj] : to put (someone) in prison ▪ He was imprisoned for murder. ▪ He has threatened to imprison his political opponents. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has a brilliant mind imprisoned in an unhealthy body.
– im•pris•on•ment /ɪmˈprɪzn̩mənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ He was released after six months' imprisonment. ▪ sentenced to life imprisonment

im•prob•a•ble /ɪmˈprɑːbəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not probable : not likely to be true or to happen : UNLIKELY ▪ There really isn't enough evidence to prove that he committed the crime, so it's (highly) improbable that he'll be convicted. ▪ The team made an improbable comeback. ▪ an improbable story
– im•prob•a•bil•i•ty /ɪmˌprɑːbəˈbɪlɪti/ noun [noncount] the improbability of their success [count] The story includes a number of absurd improbabilities. [=improbable events or situations] – im•prob•a•bly /ɪmˈprɑːbəbli/ adv ▪ an improbably gifted child

im•promp•tu /ɪmˈprɑːmptu, Brit ɪmˈprɒmptju/ adj : not prepared ahead of time : made or done without preparation ▪ Two of my friends came by unexpectedly, and we had an impromptu little party in my kitchen. ▪ He made an impromptu speech about honor and responsibility.
– impromptu adv ▪ speaking impromptu

im•prop•er /ɪmˈprɑːpə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not proper, right, or suitable: such as a : not correct ▪ The doctor gave him an improper diagnosis. ▪ improper grammar b : not following rules of acceptable behavior : legally or morally wrong ▪ They claim to have evidence of improper police conduct. ▪ improper use of public land c : not suitable for the situation : not appropriate ▪ This is an improper diet for a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

growing teenager. ▪ improper dress/attire d : not polite ▪ It would be improper for me to ask such a favor of her. ▪ He made some improper remarks. ▪ improper behavior
– im•prop•er•ly adv ▪ He came to school improperly dressed. ▪ She pronounced the word improperly. ▪ behaving improperly

im•pro•pri•ety /ˌɪmprəˈprajəti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] a : rude or immoral behavior : improper behavior ▪ He has a reputation for impropriety. ▪ The judge excused herself from the case to avoid any appearance of impropriety. ▪ She was shocked by the young man's impropriety. b : a rude or improper quality ▪ She was shocked by the impropriety of his behavior/language.
2 [count] : a wrong or immoral act : an improper act ▪ He has been accused of financial/sexual improprieties.

im•prov /ˈɪmˌpraːv/ noun [noncount] informal : the act of performing without preparation : the act of improvising ▪ a comedian with a talent for improv [=improvisation]

im•prove /ɪmˈpruːv/ verb -proves; -proved; -prov•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) better ▪ This operation will greatly/dramatically/significantly improve her chances of survival. ▪ The advertising campaign has improved sales.
2 [no obj] : to become better ▪ Maybe we'll buy a house when our financial situation improves. ▪ Her writing has improved since the beginning of the school year. ▪ The company has been having steadily improving sales.
improve on/upon [phrasal verb] improve on/upon (something) : to do better than (something previously done) ▪ After months of study, I improved on my original score. ▪ It'll be hard to improve upon the success they had last year.
– improved adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The campaign resulted in greatly improved sales. ▪ She was voted the most improved player on the team.

im•prove•ment /ɪmˈpruːvmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the act of improving something : the act or process of making something better ▪ Doctors were amazed by the sudden improvement in her medical condition. ▪ His cooking needs improvement. = There's still room for improvement in his cooking.
2 [count] a : the quality of being better than before ▪ I've noticed a significant improvement in your work since the spring. b : an addition or change that makes something better or more valuable ▪ The editor made some improvements to/in the article before it was printed. ▪ They spent the money on new kitchen cabinets and other home improvements. ✧ An improvement on or (chiefly US) over something is a better version of it or a better way of doing it. ▪ The food isn't fancy, but it's certainly an improvement over what we're served at school.

im•prov•i•dent /ɪmˈprɑːvədənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not providing or saving for the future : not wise or sensible regarding money ▪ Her improvident habits left her with no retirement savings. ▪ an improvident [=irresponsible, unwise] use of public money
– im•prov•i•dence /ɪmˈprɑːvədəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ financial improvidence

im•pro•vise /ˈɪmprəˌvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing
1 : to speak or perform without preparation [no obj] If you forget any of your lines, try to improvise. ▪ Good jazz musicians know how to improvise. [+ obj] He had to improvise his opening speech when he forgot his notes. ▪ The trumpet player performed an improvised solo.
2 [+ obj] : to make or create (something) by using whatever is available ▪ I wasn't expecting guests, so I had to improvise a meal with what I had in my refrigerator.
– im•pro•vi•sa•tion /ɪmˌprɑːvəˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] an actor who is good at improvisation [count] His performance featured several clever improvisations.
– im•pro•vi•sa•tion•al /ɪmˌprɑːvəˈzeɪʃənl/ also im•pro•vi•sa•to•ry /ɪmˌprəˈvaɪzəˌtori, Brit ɪmˌprəˈvaɪzətri/ adj ▪ an improvisational performance ▪ improvisational theater
– im•pro•vis•er also chiefly US im•pro•vis•or /ˈɪmprəˌvaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers also -ors [count] ▪ jazz improvisers

im•pru•dent /ɪmˈpruːdn̩t/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not wise or sensible : not prudent ▪ She made some imprudent [=foolish, unwise] investments that she would later regret. ▪ It's politically imprudent to stir up such controversy during an election year.
– im•pru•dence /ɪmˈpruːdn̩s/ noun [noncount] ▪ financial imprudence – im•pru•dent•ly adv ▪ She invested imprudently.

im•pu•dent /ˈɪmpjədənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : failing to show proper respect and courtesy : very rude ▪ The boy was punished for his impudent behavior/attitude. ▪ an impudent [=insolent, disrespectful] soldier – im•pu•dence /ˈɪmpjədəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ The boy was punished for his impudence. – im•pu•dent•ly adv ▪ He behaved impudently.

im•pugn /ɪmˈpjuːn/ verb -pugns; -pugned; -pugn•ing [+ obj] formal : to criticize (a person's character, intentions, etc.) by suggesting that someone is not honest and should not to be trusted ▪ He impugned his rival's character. ▪ Her motives have been scrutinized and impugned.

im•pulse /ˈɪmˌpʌls/ noun, pl -puls•es [count]
1 : a sudden strong desire to do something ▪ He has to learn to control his impulses. ▪ a natural/creative/sudden impulse ▪ a generous impulse — often followed by to + verb ▪ He had to resist the impulse [=urge] to shout. ▪ My first/initial impulse was to say no. ✧ To do something on (an) impulse or on a sudden impulse is to do it suddenly and without thinking about it first. ▪ He bought a new camera on impulse. ▪ She quit her job on a sudden impulse. An impulse buy/purchase is something that is bought on impulse and that usually is not really needed. ▪ The camera was an impulse buy. Impulse buying is the act or practice of buying things on impulse. ▪ Shopping with a credit card can lead to impulse buying.
2 technical : a small amount of energy that moves from one area to another ▪ an electrical impulse ▪ a nerve impulse [=a wave of electrical energy that is carried through the nerves to the brain]

im•pul•sive /ɪmˈpʌlsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : doing things or tending to do things suddenly and without careful thought : acting or tending to act on impulse ▪ She's impulsive and often does things that she later regrets.
2 : done suddenly and without planning : resulting from a sudden impulse ▪ He needs to learn to control his impulsive behavior. ▪ She made an impulsive decision to quit her job.
– im•pul•sive•ly adv ▪ She impulsively decided to quit her job. ▪ acting impulsively – im•pul•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ Her impulsiveness gets her in trouble. ▪ the impulsiveness of her decision im•pu•ni•ty /ɪmˈpjuːnəti/ noun [noncount] : freedom from punishment, harm, or loss — usually used in the phrase with impunity ▪ They broke the law with (complete/total) impunity. [=without fear of punishment; very freely and openly] ▪ The rioters set fires and looted with impunity.

im•pure /ɪmˈpjuə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not pure: such as a : DIRTY, UNCLEAN ▪ impure water b : mixed with something else that is usually not as good ▪ an impure chemical ▪ selling impure drugs c : sexual in a way that is considered morally wrong ▪ impure thoughts im•pu•ri•ty /ɪmˈpjurəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being impure ▪ the impurity of the water ▪ moral impurity
2 [count] : an unwanted substance that is found in something else and that prevents it from being pure ▪ The syrup is strained to remove impurities. ▪ The water is free of impurities.

im•pute /ɪmˈpjuːt/ verb -putes; -put•ed; -put•ing [+ obj] formal : to say or suggest that someone or something has or is guilty of (something) ▪ They're trying to impute selfish motives to my actions. [=they're trying to say that my actions were motivated by selfishness] ▪ He insists that he is not responsible for all the crimes that have been imputed to him. [=the crimes that he has been blamed for] – im•pu•ta•tion /ˌɪmpjəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] the imputation of blame [count] I deny all your imputations of blame.

[1]in /ˈɪn, ən/ prep
1 — used to indicate location or position within something ▪ We went for a swim in the lake. ▪ They have a house in the country. ▪ Albuquerque is in New Mexico. ▪ There wasn't a cloud in the sky. ▪ I like to read in bed. [=while sitting or lying on my bed] ▪ He was wounded in the leg. ▪ We had to stand in line for tickets. ▪ Why don't you look it up in the dictionary? ▪ There's something in my eye. [=between my eyelid and my eyeball] ▪ There was fear in their eyes. [=I could tell they were afraid when I looked at their eyes] ▪ I held her in my arms. ▪ He saw his reflection in the mirror.
2 : to the inside of (a room, container, etc.) ▪ She went in [=into] the house. ▪ Don't come in here with those muddy feet! ▪ I threw it in [=into] the garbage.
3 a — used to indicate that someone or something belongs

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

to or is included as part of something ▪ She used to play in [=as a member of] a band. ▪ There are 12 in a dozen. [=a dozen is equal to 12] b — used to indicate the existence of something or someone within a story, movie, etc. ▪ a character in a story ▪ a scene in a movie ▪ He saw it in a dream.

4 a : during (a period of time, a season, etc.) ▪ It happened in the 1930s. ▪ She likes to travel in [=during] the summer. ▪ Call us sometime in [=during] the morning/afternoon/evening. ▪ They plan to open in September. ▪ We haven't seen them in [=for] ages! ▪ Back in those days, we didn't have computers. ▪ an important moment in history ▪ Never in my life have I heard such a thing! ▪ I lost track of them in [=during] all the commotion/confusion. b : at the end of (a period of time) ▪ I'll be there in a minute. ▪ The movie is coming out in a few months. ▪ He got his degree in only three years. c — used to indicate an approximate age or number ▪ a woman in her thirties [=a woman who is between 30 and 39 years old] ▪ Our members number in the thousands. [=more than 2,000]

5 a — used to indicate the method, materials, or form of something ▪ a note written in pencil [=using a pencil] ▪ a note written in French ▪ a symphony in (the key of) C ▪ The book is bound in leather. ▪ They were covered in mud from head to toe. ▪ She gave us 50 dollars in cash. ▪ The measurements are listed in both inches and centimeters. ▪ The shirts come in three sizes. b — used to indicate the color of something ▪ I decorated the room in blues and grays. [=using different shades of blue and gray]

6 a — used to indicate the state or condition of someone or something ▪ We'll be in trouble if we can't get the brakes to work! [=we will experience a situation that is difficult, dangerous, etc.] ▪ She was in and out of trouble for many years. ▪ young people in love [=experiencing romantic love] ▪ Are you in much pain? ▪ I just stood there gaping in amazement. ▪ They're not in any danger. b : to a specified state, condition, or form ▪ They were always getting in [=into] trouble. ▪ The vase broke in [=into] pieces. ▪ They divided the money in [=into] thirds.

7 — used to indicate how people or things are arranged ▪ They stood in a circle. ▪ The chairs were placed in a row.

8 — used to indicate the conditions that are around someone or something ▪ I found her sitting in the dark. = I found her sitting in darkness. ▪ Don't just stand there in the rain!

9 : while or as a result of (doing something) ▪ In trying to please everyone, I ended up pleasing no one. ▪ Many mistakes were made in planning the project.

10 — used to indicate the manner or purpose of something ▪ "No way!" she said in reply. ▪ The remark was made in jest. ▪ They sure left in a hurry! ▪ We held a banquet in his honor. [=to honor him] ▪ They went in search of lost treasure. [=to search for lost treasure] ▪ She moved to the city in hopes of finding a better job. [=with the hope that she would find a better job] ▪ They increased the penalties in an attempt to discourage lawbreakers.

11 — used to make a statement or description more limited or specific in meaning ▪ They are slow in their movements. [=their movements are slow] ▪ The two are alike in some ways/respects. [=they have some similarities] ▪ It measures two feet in length. [=it is two feet long] ▪ The idea works in theory, but not in practice. ▪ In a way, it makes sense. [=it makes sense if you consider a particular fact, idea, etc.]

12 — used to indicate the person who is being described ▪ We've lost a valuable employee in Mike. ▪ In her, you have a true friend.

13 — used to indicate the object of a belief, opinion, or feeling ▪ Have a little faith in them! ▪ Do you believe in ghosts? [=do you think ghosts are real?] ▪ I really don't know what she sees in him. [=I don't know why she likes/loves him] ▪ I have no interest in sports. [=sports do not interest me]

14 — used to indicate a job or area of activity ▪ She has a job in marketing. ▪ I hear he's in advertising. [=he has a job that involves advertising] ▪ She's struggling in math.

15 — used to indicate the existence of something as a part of someone's character ▪ He has no pity in him. ▪ I tried to be tough with them, but I just didn't have it in me. [=I wasn't able to be tough with them]

16 : wearing (something) as clothes ▪ He showed up in his best suit. ▪ the boy in the red jacket ▪ a lady in black [=a lady wearing black clothes]

17 — used to describe how common something is by comparing a smaller number to a larger number ▪ This condition affects one in five [=1 in 5; one out of every five] Americans.

[2]in /ˈɪn/ adv

1 : to or toward the inside of something (such as a building) ▪ She went in and closed the door. ▪ I lost my keys and now I can't get in. ▪ Please come in! ▪ The burglars broke in through the kitchen window. ▪ The pool is deep. Be careful not to fall in. ▪ Is everyone in [=inside]? Then we can start. ▪ The shot went in. [=into the goal]

2 a : to or toward a place ▪ They flew in yesterday. ▪ The boss called us in for a conference. ▪ The fog was closing in fast. ▪ The tide is coming in. [=towards shore] ▪ Get your orders in early! b : at the place where someone or something arrives after traveling ▪ Is the train in yet? ▪ We expect to get in around noon. [=we expect to arrive around noon]

3 : at or inside a home, office, etc. ▪ The doctor is in. [=the doctor is in his/her office and is available to see patients] ▪ Are your parents in? [=are your parents at home?]

4 : at or to a location that is near to something or that seems near to something ▪ The coach told them to play closer in. [=nearer to the area where the most activity is happening or is expected to happen] ▪ Pull the car further in. [=closer to the curb, house, etc.]

5 a : in a way that will blend into or join with something ▪ Gradually mix in the flour. b : to or at a proper or indicated place ▪ I can't seem to fit this piece in. ▪ Please fill in your name and address on the application. c : in a way that will agree or be in harmony ▪ Do you think he'll fit in with the other kids?

6 : in a way that surrounds something or someone or prevents something or someone from leaving ▪ They fenced in the property. = They fenced the property in. [=they put a fence around the property] ▪ After the blizzard we were snowed in for a week. [=we could not leave our home because of the snow] — sometimes used in combination ▪ a house with a fenced-in yard

7 : in the position of someone who is involved or participating in something ▪ Count me in. [=include me in your plans] ▪ "Does anyone want to go to a movie tonight?" "Sure, I'm in." [=I want to go] ▪ She was in at the beginning/start, when the company began.

8 : in or into a position or job ▪ They voted him in [=they elected him] by an overwhelming margin.

9 : in a friendly relationship with someone ▪ She was in with the city's most powerful people. [=she had friendly relationships with the city's most powerful people]; also : in a specified sort of relationship ▪ He got in good/bad with the boss. [=he was liked/disliked by the boss]

10 : present or in your possession and available for use ▪ Are all the votes/results in?

11 sports : inside the area where players or the ball must stay in sports like tennis, basketball, and American football : not out of bounds ▪ Her serve was just barely in.

all in informal : very tired ▪ I'm all in. I'm going to bed.

in for informal : sure to experience (something) ▪ Boy, is she in for a surprise! — see also have it in for at HAVE

in for it see [1]FOR

in on ✧ If you are in on something you have knowledge about it or are involved in it. ▪ They were all in on the scheme. ▪ The characters are convinced that they're on another planet, but the audience is in on the joke. [=the audience knows they are not on another planet] ▪ I let them in on our little secret. [=I told them our secret]

in that — used to introduce a statement that explains or gives more specific information about what you have just said ▪ The book is good, in that it's well written, but I didn't actually like reading it.

[3]in /ˈɪn/ adj

1 : popular or fashionable ▪ the in thing to do ▪ the in place to go ▪ Tall boots are in [=in style] this year.

2 : aware of and strongly influenced by what is new and fashionable ▪ It's what the in crowd is wearing this season. — see also IN-GROUP, IN-JOKE

[4]in /ˈɪn/ noun, pl ins [count] chiefly US, informal : a way of becoming involved in something or of influencing someone ▪ When you're trying to get started in show business, it helps to have an in. ▪ They must have an in with the boss. — see also INS AND OUTS

in. abbr inch, inches — see also INS.

IN abbr Indiana

in- or il- or im- or ir- prefix : not ▪ *in*conclusive ▪ *in*accurate ▪ *il*logical ▪ *im*moral ▪ *im*practical ▪ *ir*rational

in•abil•i•ty /ˌɪnəˈbɪləti/ noun : the condition of not being able to do something : lack of ability [singular] She has shown an inability to concentrate. [noncount] the inability of the government to cope with the problem

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in ab•sen•tia /ˌɪnæbˈsɛnʃijə/ adv, formal : without being present ▪ They presented the award to him in absentia. [=they presented the award to him although he was not there to receive it himself] ▪ She was convicted of the crime in absentia.

in•ac•ces•si•ble /ˌɪnɪkˈsɛsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : difficult or impossible to reach, approach, or understand : not accessible ▪ The area is inaccessible by road. ▪ an inaccessible goal ▪ His prose is inaccessible to many readers.
– in•ac•ces•si•bil•i•ty /ˌɪnɪkˌsɛsəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ The town's inaccessibility discourages tourism. – inaccessibly adv

in•ac•cu•ra•cy /ɪnˈækjərəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : lack of correctness or exactness : lack of accuracy ▪ I pointed out the inaccuracy of his statement.
2 [count] : a statement that is not correct : an error or mistake ▪ The text is filled with inaccuracies.

in•ac•cu•rate /ɪnˈækjərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not correct or exact : having a mistake or error : not accurate ▪ The book makes several inaccurate [=false, incorrect] claims. ▪ an inaccurate quotation ▪ Our research isn't complete, so these figures are somewhat inaccurate. [=inexact, approximate]
– in•ac•cu•rate•ly adv ▪ She claims that the newspaper quoted her inaccurately.

in•ac•tion /ɪnˈækʃən/ noun [noncount] : failure to do something that should be done : lack of action or activity ▪ The protesters criticized the administration's inaction on environmental issues. ▪ We must consider the consequences of continued inaction.

in•ac•tive /ɪnˈæktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not active: such as a : not doing things that require physical movement and energy : not exercising ▪ Inactive people suffer higher rates of heart disease. b : not involved in the activities of a group or organization ▪ an inactive club member c : no longer being used ▪ an inactive mine : not currently being used ▪ the bank's inactive accounts d of a volcano : not capable of erupting e : not having a chemical effect ▪ inactive ingredients
– in•ac•tive•ly adv ▪ inactively traded stocks

in•ac•tiv•i•ty /ɪnˌækˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] : the state of not acting or moving : lack of activity ▪ His job involved long periods of (physical) inactivity.

in•ad•e•quate /ɪnˈædɪkwət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not enough or not good enough : not adequate ▪ These supplies are inadequate to meet our needs. ▪ We were given very/woefully/wholly inadequate information. ▪ an inadequate leader ▪ I felt inadequate to the task. ▪ Her brother's success and popularity always made her feel inadequate.
– in•ad•e•qua•cy /ɪnˈædɪkwəsi/ noun, pl -cies [noncount] feelings of inadequacy [count] I'm fully aware of my own inadequacies as a parent. – in•ad•e•quate•ly adv ▪ He was inadequately prepared for adulthood.

in•ad•mis•si•ble /ˌɪnədˈmɪsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to be allowed or considered in a legal case : not admissible ▪ The evidence was inadmissible in court.
– in•ad•mis•si•bil•i•ty /ˌɪnədˌmɪsəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

in•ad•ver•tent /ˌɪnədˈvətənt/ adj : not intended or planned : ACCIDENTAL ▪ an inadvertent error/omission – in•ad•ver•tence /ˌɪnədˈvətəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ mistakes made by/through inadvertence – in•ad•ver•tent•ly adv ▪ I inadvertently [=accidentally, mistakenly] dialed the wrong number.

in•ad•vis•able /ˌɪnədˈvaɪzəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not wise, sensible, or reasonable : not advisable ▪ The procedure is inadvisable because of the risks involved. ▪ It would be highly/very inadvisable to attempt to do this ourselves.
– in•ad•vis•abil•i•ty /ˌɪnədˌvaɪzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

in•alien•able /ˌɪnˈeɪljənəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to take away or give up ▪ inalienable rights in•amo•ra•ta /ɪˌnæməˈrɑːtə/ noun, pl -tas [count] literary : the woman that a man loves ▪ a story about a powerful politician and his inamorata

inane /ɪˈneɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very silly or stupid ▪ I quickly tired of their inane comments/questions/chatter. ▪ The film's plot is inane and full of clichés.
– inane•ly adv ▪ an inanely simplistic idea ▪ She just sat there grinning inanely at the TV. – inan•i•ty /ɪˈnænəti/ noun [noncount] the inanity of their questions [count] the tiresome inanities [=inane comments or actions] of the political world in•an•i•mate /ɪnˈænəmət/ adj : not living : not capable of life ▪ Stones are inanimate. ▪ an inanimate object — opposite [1]ANIMATE in•ap•pli•ca•ble /ɪnˈæplɪkəbəl, ˌɪnəˈplɪkəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be used in a particular situation : not applicable or relevant ▪ The rules are inapplicable [=irrelevant] in this instance.

in•ap•pro•pri•ate /ˌɪnəˈproʊprijət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not right or suited for some purpose or situation : not appropriate or suitable ▪ We won't tolerate such inappropriate behavior/conduct/language. ▪ Her informal manner seemed wholly/entirely inappropriate to/for the occasion. ▪ The movie's subject matter is inappropriate for small children (to see). = It's inappropriate for small children to see the movie. = It's inappropriate that small children should see the movie.
– in•ap•pro•pri•ate•ly adv ▪ They were dressed inappropriately for such a formal affair. – in•ap•pro•pri•ate•ness noun [noncount] ▪ We were shocked by the inappropriateness of his comments.

in•apt /ɪnˈæpt/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not appropriate or suitable : not apt ▪ an inapt [=inappropriate] analogy/metaphor/comparison ▪ His description of the experience as "weird" isn't altogether inapt. [=it is somewhat accurate] — compare INEPT
– in•apt•ly adv ▪ We had lunch at the inaptly named "Good Eats Diner." – in•apt•ness noun [noncount]

in•ar•gu•able /ɪnˈɑɚgjəwəbəl/ adj, chiefly US, somewhat formal : certain or clearly true : not open to argument, doubt, or question ▪ It's an inarguable [=indisputable, unquestionable] fact.
– in•ar•gu•ably /ɪnˈɑɚgjəwəbli/ adv ▪ She is inarguably [=unquestionably, indisputably] the world's foremost expert on the subject.

in•ar•tic•u•late /ɪnˌɑɚˈtɪkjələt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : not able to express ideas clearly and effectively in speech or writing : not articulate ▪ He's smart, but somewhat inarticulate. ▪ an inarticulate drunk b : not able to speak ▪ I was almost inarticulate with rage.
2 a : not expressed clearly or easily understood ▪ an inarticulate explanation ▪ an inarticulate reply b : not understandable as spoken words ▪ an inarticulate cry ▪ inarticulate murmurs c : not able to be expressed ▪ inarticulate longings
– in•ar•tic•u•late•ly adv ▪ Her only response was to mumble inarticulately. – in•ar•tic•u•late•ness noun [noncount]

in•as•much as /ˌɪnəzˈmʌʧəz/ conj, formal — used to introduce a statement that explains, limits, or gives more specific information about what you have just said ▪ They were lucky inasmuch as no one was hurt in the fire. ▪ They abide by the rules only inasmuch as [=insofar as] it suits them.

in•at•ten•tion /ˌɪnəˈtɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] : failure to carefully think about, listen to, or watch someone or something : lack of attention ▪ Many traffic accidents are the result of driver inattention. ▪ They lost several potential clients through their inattention to detail.
– in•at•ten•tive /ˌɪnəˈtɛntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ inattentive drivers ▪ inattentive behavior – in•at•ten•tive•ly adv ▪ I was listening inattentively and missed what she said. – in•at•ten•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ mistakes due to inattentiveness [=inattention]

in•au•di•ble /ɪnˈɑːdəbəl/ adj : impossible to hear : not audible ▪ She spoke so quietly that she was almost inaudible. ▪ The sound is inaudible to humans but can be heard by dogs.
– in•au•di•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌɑːdəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – in•au•di•bly /ɪnˈɑːdəbli/ adv ▪ He whispered inaudibly to the person beside him.

in•au•gu•ral /ɪnˈɑːgjərəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : happening as part of an official ceremony or celebration when someone (such as a newly elected official) begins an important job : happening as part of an inauguration ▪ the President's inaugural address ▪ They attended the inaugural ball.
2 : happening as the first one in a series of similar events ▪ The new train will make its inaugural [=first] run next week.
– inaugural noun, pl -rals [count] chiefly US ▪ President Franklin D. Roosevelt's first inaugural [=inauguration]

in•au•gu•rate /ɪnˈɑːgjəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to introduce (someone, such as a newly elected official) into a job or position with a formal ceremony ▪ He was inaugurated (as President) on the 20th of January.
2 : to celebrate the fact that something (such as a new hospital or school) is officially ready to be used ▪ They inaugurated the new headquarters with a brief ceremony.
3 a : to be the beginning of (something, such as a period of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

time) ▪ This event inaugurated [=introduced] a new era in our history. b : to begin to use or have (something) for the first time ▪ The airline will inaugurate [=introduce] five new routes this summer.

– in•au•gu•ra•tion /ɪnˌɑːgjəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] presidential inaugurations ▪ We attended the inauguration of the new museum. [=the event celebrating the fact that the new museum is officially ready to be used] [noncount] a discovery that led to (the) inauguration of a new era in our history in•aus•pi•cious /ˌɪnˌɑːˈspɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not showing or suggesting that future success is likely : not auspicious ▪ The team got off to an inauspicious [=unpromising] start/beginning with a series of early losses. ▪ Despite its inauspicious beginnings, the company eventually became very profitable.

– in•aus•pi•cious•ly adv ▪ His movie career started inauspiciously with several box-office flops.

in•au•then•tic /ˌɪnˌɑːˈθɛntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not real, accurate, or sincere : not authentic ▪ Their Mexican dishes are tasty but somewhat inauthentic. [=they are not quite like real Mexican food]

– in•au•then•tic•ity /ˌɪnˌɑːˌθɛnˈtɪsəti/ noun [noncount] in–be•tween /ˌɪnbɪˈtwiːn/ noun, pl -tweens [count] : a state or position that is in the middle between two other things : a middle position ▪ The switch is either on or off; there's no in-between.

– in–between adj ▪ available in small, large, and in-between sizes in•board /ˈɪnˌbɔəd/ adj, technical : located inside and towards the center of a boat, car, or airplane ▪ an inboard engine/motor — compare OUTBOARD

– inboard adv ▪ The wheels are inboard of the engines.

in•born /ˈɪnˈbɔən/ adj : existing from the time someone is born : natural or instinctive ▪ Humans have the inborn [=innate] ability to adapt. ▪ She has an inborn talent for music. ▪ That kind of knowledge is acquired, not inborn.

in•bound /ˈɪnˌbaʊnd/ adj : traveling into a place : inward bound ▪ inbound flights [=flights coming to an airport] ▪ The bridge is closed to inbound traffic. [=traffic coming into a city or town] — opposite OUTBOUND in•bounds pass /ˈɪnˈbaʊndz-/ noun, pl ~ passes [count] basketball : a pass to start play from a player who is standing out of bounds to a player who is on the court in–box /ˈɪnˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count]

1 US : a box or other container on a desk in which letters, notes, etc., that are sent to the desk are placed — called also (Brit) in tray; see picture at OFFICE; compare OUT-BOX

2 computers : a computer folder that holds new e-mail messages ▪ There are five new messages in your in-box.

in•bred /ˈɪnˈbrɛd/ adj

1 : existing as a basic part of a person's nature or character ▪ They have an inbred love of freedom.

2 : born from or produced by animals, plants, or people that are closely related : produced by inbreeding ▪ inbred mice in•breed•ing /ˈɪnˈbriːdɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a process by which animals, plants, or people are born from or produced by closely related parents ▪ genetic defects caused by inbreeding

in•built /ˈɪnˈbɪlt/ adj, Brit : BUILT-IN ▪ It comes with several inbuilt features. ▪ She has an inbuilt resistance to change.

Inc. abbr incorporated ▪ Merriam-Webster Inc.

in•cal•cu•la•ble /ɪnˈkælkjələbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be calculated: such as a : very large or great ▪ The extent of the damage is incalculable. ▪ The collection is of incalculable value to historians. b : not able to be predicted ▪ The future consequences of their decision are incalculable.

– in•cal•cu•la•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌkælkjələˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

– in•cal•cu•la•bly /ɪnˈkælkjələbli/ adv ▪ an incalculably large amount of damage

in•can•des•cent /ˌɪnkənˈdɛsnt/ adj

1 a : white or glowing because of great heat ▪ incandescent gas b : producing bright light when heated ▪ an incandescent light bulb [=a light bulb whose light is produced by the glow of a wire heated by an electric current]

2 a : very impressive, successful, or intelligent ▪ a play full of incandescent [=brilliant] performances b : happy and lively ▪ children with incandescent [=bright] smiles

3 Brit : feeling or showing great anger ▪ She was incandescent with rage. [=she was very angry]

– in•can•des•cence /ˌɪnkənˈdɛsns/ noun [noncount]

in•can•ta•tion /ˌɪnˌkænˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a series of words used to make something magic happen [count] ritual prayers and incantations [noncount] trying to produce a miracle by incantation in•ca•pa•ble /ɪnˈkeɪpəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to do something : not capable ▪ an incapable assistant — usually + of ▪ He seemed incapable of understanding the seriousness of the situation. ▪ Some birds are physically incapable of flight. ▪ She's completely incapable of telling a lie.

– in•ca•pa•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌkeɪpəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

in•ca•pac•i•tate /ˌɪnkəˈpæsəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) unable to work, move, or function in the usual way : DISABLE ▪ The class teaches you how to incapacitate an attacker. ▪ The stroke left her completely incapacitated. ▪ He was incapacitated by the pain. ▪ a computer system incapacitated by software problems

– incapacitating adj ▪ an incapacitating illness/injury – in•ca•pac•i•ta•tion /ˌɪnkəˌpæsəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ physical/mental incapacitation

in•ca•pac•i•ty /ˌɪnkəˈpæsəti/ noun, pl -ties formal : a lack or loss of the ability to do something in the usual or desired way [noncount] Who will run the company in the event of your death or incapacity? [=if you die or become unable to run it] [count] I'm aware of my weaknesses and incapacities. ▪ They have a complete incapacity for dealing with numbers. [=they are not able to deal with numbers] in•car•cer•ate /ɪnˈkɑəsəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to put (someone) in prison : IMPRISON — usually used as (be) incarcerated ▪ They were both incarcerated for armed robbery.

– in•car•cer•a•tion /ɪnˌkɑəsəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ They were each sentenced to six months' incarceration. [=imprisonment]

[1]in•car•nate /ɪnˈkɑənət/ adj, formal : having a human body ▪ an incarnate deity ▪ He treats her as though she's the devil incarnate. [=a human devil; a very evil person] ▪ goodness/evil incarnate

[2]in•car•nate /ɪnˈkɑəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] formal : to represent (something, such as an idea or quality) in a clear and obvious way : EMBODY ▪ He incarnates the nation's political ideals. = The nation's political ideals are incarnated in him.

in•car•na•tion /ˌɪnkɑəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : one of a series of lives that a person is believed to have had in the past in some religions ▪ He claims that he was a Greek soldier in a previous incarnation. [=in a previous life; when he lived in the past as a different person] — often used figuratively ▪ In an earlier incarnation [=an earlier phase of her life] she was a rock musician. ▪ The TV and movie incarnations [=versions] of the story differ significantly. ▪ The software's latest incarnation [=version] includes many new features. — compare REINCARNATION

2 [count] : a person who represents a quality or idea ▪ She is the incarnation [=embodiment] of goodness. [=she is a very good person]

3 the Incarnation in the Christian religion : the belief in Jesus Christ as both God and a human being ▪ the doctrine of the Incarnation in•cau•tious /ɪnˈkɑːʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not careful about avoiding danger or risk : not cautious : CARELESS ▪ He offended several people with his incautious remarks. ▪ Their incautious behavior is going to get them into trouble someday.

– in•cau•tious•ly adv ▪ an incautiously worded statement

in•cen•di•ary /ɪnˈsɛndiˌeri, Brit ɪnˈsɛndiəri/ adj

1 : containing chemicals that explode into flame : producing a fire ▪ The fire was started by an incendiary bomb/device.

2 [more ~; most ~] : causing anger ▪ They use incendiary [=inflammatory] rhetoric to get public attention. ▪ incendiary words/language

[1]in•cense /ˈɪnˌsɛns/ noun [noncount] : a substance that is used often in religious ceremonies to produce a strong and pleasant smell when it is burned

[2]in•cense /ɪnˈsɛns/ verb -cens•es; -censed; -cens•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very angry ▪ Her arrogance so incensed them that they refused to speak to her. ▪ She incensed them with/by her arrogance. ▪ We were incensed (to find) that such behavior was tolerated.

in•cen•tive /ɪnˈsɛntɪv/ noun, pl -tives : something that encourages a person to do something or to work harder [count] Our salespeople are given financial incentives for reaching their quotas. [=if they reach their quotas they are

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i paid more money] ▪ The rising cost of electricity provides a strong/powerful incentive to conserve energy. ▪ The government offers special tax incentives for entrepreneurs. ▪ The company is offering a special low price as an added incentive for new customers. [noncount] employees who lack incentive — opposite DISINCENTIVE in•cep•tion /ɪnˈsɛpʃən/ noun, formal : the time at which something begins : BEGINNING, START [singular] The project has been shrouded in controversy from/since its inception. ▪ Since its inception, the business has expanded to become a national retail chain. [noncount] We'll assist you at every stage from inception to completion.

in•ces•sant /ɪnˈsɛsnt/ adj : continuing without stopping : not stopping — used to describe something that is unpleasant or annoying ▪ The neighbors were bothered by the dog's incessant barking. ▪ Their incessant talking often distracts the other students.
– in•ces•sant•ly adv ▪ She pestered us incessantly.

in•cest /ˈɪnˌsɛst/ noun [noncount] : sexual intercourse between people who are very closely related ▪ commit incest ▪ the crime of incest

in•ces•tu•ous /ɪnˈsɛstʃəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : involving sexual intercourse between closely related people : involving incest ▪ There were rumors that the father and daughter had had an incestuous relationship. — often used figuratively ▪ lobbyists who have an incestuous relationship [=an excessively close relationship] with politicians – in•ces•tu•ous•ly adv

[1]inch /ˈɪntʃ/ noun, pl inch•es [count]
1 : a unit of measurement equal to 1/36 yard or 1/12 of a foot (2.54 centimeters) ▪ It measures six inches from top to bottom. ▪ an insect that is an inch long = an inch-long insect ▪ I'm five feet, two inches tall. = I'm five foot two (inches).
2 : a small amount, distance, or degree ▪ The bullet missed my head by inches. [=the bullet came very close to hitting my head] ▪ I begged him to reconsider, but he wouldn't give/budge an inch. [=he wouldn't make even a slight change in his opinion or attitude] ▪ I tried to improve the system, but she opposed me every inch of the way. [=she opposed everything that I tried to do] ▪ We searched every inch of the house. [=we searched the house completely] ✧ The expression (if you) give them an inch, (and) they'll take a mile means that if you allow people to have a small amount of something that they want, they will take much more of it. ▪ The school is considering allowing older students to leave the campus for lunch on Fridays, but I'm concerned that if we give them an inch, they'll take a mile. [=students will leave campus more often] every inch : to the highest degree ▪ He's every inch a winner. [=he's a winner in every way] inch by inch : by moving very slowly ▪ We made our way inch by inch through the darkened corridor.
within an inch of : almost to the point of (something) ▪ She came within an inch of death/dying. [=she came very close to dying] ▪ They beat him (to) within an inch of his life. [=they beat him so badly that he nearly died]

[2]inch verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition inch•es; inched; inch•ing : to move very slowly or by a small amount in a specified direction or manner [no obj] We inched along in heavy traffic. ▪ As she neared the finish line, she inched ahead of the other racers. ▪ Gas prices are inching up again. [+ obj] I inched the car into the garage.

in•cho•ate /ɪnˈkowət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not completely formed or developed yet : VAGUE ▪ inchoate yearnings ▪ inchoate ideas in•ci•dence /ˈɪnsədəns/ noun, pl -denc•es [count]

1 : the number of times something happens or develops : the rate at which something occurs ▪ The drug has been linked with a higher incidence of certain cancers. [=the drug seems to cause certain cancers; people who take the drug seem to be more likely to get certain cancers] ▪ an increased incidence of diabetes ▪ a high/low incidence of criminal behavior ▪ a disease with an incidence of one in 100,000 [=a disease that affects one person out of every 100,000]
2 technical : the angle at which a ray (such as a ray of light) hits a surface ▪ the angle of incidence

in•ci•dent /ˈɪnsədənt/ noun, pl -dents
1 : an unexpected and usually unpleasant thing that happens [count] We just want to put that embarrassing incident behind us. ▪ Two people were shot yesterday in two separate incidents. ▪ Aside from a few isolated incidents, the crowd was well-behaved. ▪ a shooting incident ▪ Many such incidents go unreported. [noncount] The suspects were arrested without incident. [=without any unexpected trouble]
2 [count] : an event or disagreement that is likely to cause serious problems in relations between countries ▪ a border incident ▪ The bombing caused/provoked an international incident.

[1]in•ci•den•tal /ˌɪnsəˈdɛntl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happening as a minor part or result of something else ▪ You may incur some incidental expenses on the trip. ▪ an incidental part of the job ▪ an incidental observation ▪ He writes incidental music for plays. — often + to ▪ This chapter is incidental to the plot.

[2]incidental noun, pl -tals [count] : something that happens as a minor part or result of something else : something that is incidental — usually plural ▪ We received a bill for tuition plus incidentals. [=incidental expenses] ▪ You should bring enough money to cover incidentals like cab fare and tips.

in•ci•den•tal•ly /ˌɪnsəˈdɛntli/ adv
1 : as something that is less interesting or important ▪ The report discusses the problem only incidentally. [=in passing] ▪ Not incidentally, the market slump was followed by widespread layoffs.
2 — used to introduce a statement that provides added information or that mentions another subject ▪ I recently met his wife who, incidentally [=by the way], is a well-known author. ▪ This product is the best—and, incidentally [=by the way], the most expensive—of its kind. ▪ Incidentally [=by the way], I saw Susan yesterday and she asked about you.

in•cin•er•ate /ɪnˈsɪnəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to burn (something) completely ▪ The waste is incinerated in a large furnace.
– in•cin•er•a•tion /ɪnˌsɪnəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the incineration of hazardous materials in•cin•er•a•tor /ɪnˈsɪnəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a machine or container that is used for burning garbage, waste, etc.

in•cip•i•ent /ɪnˈsɪpijənt/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : beginning to develop or exist ▪ The project is still in its incipient stages. ▪ an incipient romance [=a romance that is just beginning] in•cise /ɪnˈsaɪz/ verb -cis•es; -cised; -cis•ing [+ obj] formal : to cut or carve (letters, patterns, etc.) into a surface ▪ The design is incised into the clay.; also : to mark (a surface) by cutting or carving ▪ The clay is incised to create a design.

– incised adj ▪ an incised pattern ▪ incised tablets in•ci•sion /ɪnˈsɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : a cut made in something; especially, medical : a cut made into the body during surgery ▪ a small abdominal incision in•ci•sive /ɪnˈsaɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very clear and direct ▪ an incisive analysis/commentary/observation : able to explain difficult ideas clearly and confidently ▪ She's known for her incisive mind and quick wit.

– in•ci•sive•ly adv ▪ an incisively funny film ▪ He has written incisively about the problem. – in•ci•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the incisiveness of her analysis in•ci•sor /ɪnˈsaɪzə/ noun, pl -sors [count] : a tooth that has a sharp edge for biting : one of the four front teeth of the upper or lower jaw in•cite /ɪnˈsaɪt/ verb -cites; -cit•ed; -cit•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to act in an angry, harmful, or violent way ▪ The victim had done nothing to incite [=provoke] the attackers. — often + to ▪ They were clearly trying to incite the crowd to violence. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He incited the students to riot.
2 : to cause (an angry, harmful, or violent action or feeling) ▪ They were arrested and charged with inciting [=provoking] a riot. ▪ The news incited widespread fear and paranoia.
– in•cite•ment /ɪnˈsaɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] His words were an incitement to riot. [noncount] They were charged with incitement to violence.

in•ci•vil•i•ty /ˌɪnsəˈvɪləti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] : a rude or impolite attitude or behavior : lack of civility ▪ Never before have I been treated with such incivility! [=rudeness]
2 [count] : a rude or impolite act ▪ We chose to ignore their little insults and incivilities.

incl. abbr include; included; including; inclusive in•clem•ent /ɪnˈklɛmənt, ˈɪnkləmənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having rain and storms : STORMY ▪ The game was postponed due to inclement weather. — compare CLEMENT

in•cli•na•tion /ˌɪnkləˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a feeling of wanting to do something : a tendency to do

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i something [noncount] She shows no/little inclination to give in to their demands. ▪ He's a loner by inclination. [count] My first/initial/natural inclination was to say no, but I finally decided to do what she asked. ▪ We can either go now or plan to go later. What's your inclination? [=what are you inclined to do?; what do you want to do?] ▪ I have neither the time nor the inclination to learn about such matters. ▪ a person with artistic inclinations [=a person who wants to do artistic things] ▪ Her natural inclination [=tendency] is to do what other people are doing. ▪ The door has an inclination to stick. [=the door often sticks; the door tends to stick] ▪ He has an inclination to brag. = He has an inclination towards bragging. — opposite DISINCLINATION

2 [count] : a slanting surface : SLOPE ▪ a steep inclination

3 [count] : the act of bending your head or body forward : the act of inclining your head or body ▪ He acknowledged us with a slight inclination [=(more commonly) nod] of his head.

[1]in•cline /ɪnˈklaɪn/ verb -clines; -clined; -clin•ing

1 : to bend forward or to cause (something) to bend forward [no obj] Her head inclined forward. [+ obj] He inclined [=(more commonly) nodded] his head slightly. ▪ She listened with her eyes closed and her head inclined.

2 [no obj] : to lean or slope ▪ The road inclines at an angle of about 12 degrees.

3 [+ obj] formal : to cause (someone) to want to do something or to be likely to do something ▪ His love of books inclined him toward a literary career.

4 formal : to think or to cause (someone) to think that something is probably true or correct — followed by to + verb [no obj] I incline to agree with you. [=(more commonly) I am inclined to agree with you] [+ obj] The evidence inclines me to think that she isn't guilty. [=makes me think that she probably isn't guilty] — see also INCLINED

[2]in•cline /ˈɪnˌklaɪn/ noun, pl -clines [count] : a slanting surface : SLOPE ▪ We drove up a steep incline to the summit. ▪ You can adjust the incline of the ramp. ▪ a slight incline

in•clined /ɪnˈklaɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 not used before a noun : wanting to do something or likely to do something ▪ people who are inclined toward volunteering ▪ Feel free to leave early if you're so inclined. [=if you want to] — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I'm inclined to leave early [=I would like to leave early], if that's OK with you. ▪ She didn't seem inclined [=disposed] to help us. ▪ He's inclined to brag about his accomplishments. [=he often brags about his accomplishments] ▪ The door is inclined to stick. [=the door often sticks]

2 — used with verbs like agree, think, believe, suppose, etc., to express a thought or opinion that is not strong or certain ▪ I'm inclined to agree with you. [=I think you are probably correct] ▪ We're inclined to think she was mistaken. [=we think she was probably mistaken] — see also [1]INCLINE 4

3 : having an interest in or a talent for something ▪ a special school for children who are inclined toward the arts — usually used after an adverb (such as artistically, mechanically, or musically) ▪ She's always been artistically inclined. [=she has always had a talent for art]

4 : having a slope ▪ an inclined surface

in•clude /ɪnˈklu:d/ verb -cludes; -clud•ed; -clud•ing [+ obj]

1 not used in progressive tenses : to have (someone or something) as part of a group or total : to contain (someone or something) in a group or as a part of something ▪ The speakers will include several experts on the subject. ▪ The price of dinner includes dessert. ▪ Admission to the museum is included in the tour package. — opposite EXCLUDE

2 : to make (someone or something) a part of something ▪ The results came in too late for us to include them in the study. ▪ He says he doesn't want to be included in the project. [=he doesn't want to participate in the project] — opposite EXCLUDE

– in•clu•sion /ɪnˈklu:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions [noncount] I was surprised by the inclusion of his name in the credits. ▪ the inclusion of parents at the school board meeting [count] The collection has some surprising inclusions. [=it includes some surprising things] included adj, not used before a noun — used to say that someone or something is part of a group or total ▪ Everyone, myself/me included [=everyone, including me], liked the book better than the movie. ▪ We should invite everyone, George included. ▪ The price is $122, tax included. [=including tax]

in•clud•ing /ɪnˈklu:dɪŋ/ prep : having (someone or something) as part of a group or total ▪ Everyone, including me, liked the book better than the movie. ▪ All his doctors, including the chief surgeon, agree on the diagnosis. ▪ It costs $7.99, not including sales tax. — opposite EXCLUDING

in•clu•sive /ɪnˈklu:sɪv/ adj

1 : covering or including everything ▪ an inclusive fee/tour ▪ an inclusive insurance policy — opposite EXCLUSIVE; see also ALL-INCLUSIVE

2 [more ~; most ~] : open to everyone : not limited to certain people ▪ an inclusive club ▪ an inclusive political movement — opposite EXCLUSIVE

3 not used before a noun : including the stated limits and everything in between ▪ a program for children seven to ten years of age inclusive [=children seven, eight, nine, and ten years of age] ▪ Our assignment is to read pages 10 to 20 inclusive. [=pages 10 to/through 20]

inclusive of formal : including (something) ▪ The price is inclusive of tax. [=the price includes tax]

– in•clu•sive•ly adv – in•clu•sive•ness noun [noncount) – in•clu•siv•i•ty /ɪnˌklu:ˈsɪvəti/ noun [noncount] formal in•cog•ni•to /ˌɪnˌkɑ:gˈni:toʊ/ adv : with your true identity kept secret (as by using a different name or a disguise) ▪ He travels incognito.

– incognito adj ▪ He remained incognito while living there. ▪ The food critic made an incognito visit to the restaurant.

in•co•her•ent /ˌɪnkoʊˈhirənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not coherent: such as a : not able to talk or express yourself in a clear way that can be easily understood ▪ The fever made her incoherent. ▪ He was very upset and practically incoherent after the accident. ▪ an incoherent patient b : not logical or well-organized : not easy to understand ▪ an incoherent story [=a story that does not make sense] ▪ The memo is completely incoherent.

– in•co•her•ence /ˌɪnkoʊˈhirəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ The patient experiences periods of incoherence. ▪ They criticized him for the incoherence of his writing. – in•co•her•ent•ly adv ▪ She responded incoherently.

in•come /ˈɪnˌkʌm/ noun, pl -comes : money that is earned from work, investments, business, etc. [noncount] Any income from investments must be reported. ▪ taxable income ▪ Farming is his main source of income. [count] Even on two incomes, we're having a hard time keeping up with our bills. ▪ He earns a good income as a consultant. ▪ What was the company's annual income? ▪ families with low/high incomes ▪ a two-income family [=a family in which both adults have jobs that provide income] ▪ low-income housing [=housing for people who have low incomes]

in•com•er /ˈɪnˌkʌmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : a person who comes to a place to live income tax noun, pl ~ taxes : a tax paid on the money that a person or business receives as income [noncount] Federal income tax will be deducted from your pay. [count] The new law will lower income taxes for most taxpayers.

in•com•ing /ˈɪnˌkʌmɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : coming in: such as a : arriving at or coming to a place ▪ All incoming phone calls are monitored for quality control. ▪ incoming mail/messages ▪ Incoming [=arriving] flights were delayed by the storm. ▪ the incoming tide b : taking a place or position that is being left by another person or group ▪ the incoming president ▪ the incoming [=new] freshman class — opposite OUTGOING in•com•mu•ni•ca•do /ˌɪnkəˌmju:nəˈkɑ:doʊ/ adj, not used before a noun, formal : not able to communicate with other people : in a situation or state that does not allow communication with other people ▪ The prisoner was held/kept incommunicado for six weeks. ▪ She remained incommunicado while working on her book.

in•com•pa•ra•ble /ɪnˈkɑ:mpərəbəl/ adj : better than any other : having no equal ▪ The quality of their products is incomparable. ▪ an incomparable musician ▪ an incomparable view of the valley

– in•com•pa•ra•bly /ɪnˈkɑ:mpərəbli/ adv ▪ an incomparably beautiful view

in•com•pat•i•ble /ˌɪnkəmˈpætəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not compatible: such as a : not able to exist together without trouble or conflict : not going together well ▪ incompatible people [=people who do not get along well with each other] ▪ Their personalities were incompatible. ▪ incompatible colors ▪ a policy that is incompatible with my beliefs [=that does not agree with my beliefs] b : not able to be used together ▪ incompatible computer systems ▪ incompatible drugs

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

▪ This printer is incompatible with some PCs.
– in•com•pat•i•bil•i•ty /ˌɪnkəmˌpætəˈbɪlətiː/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] She sued for divorce on the grounds of incompatibility. ▪ software incompatibility ▪ incompatibility between drugs [count] Certain incompatibilities can prevent the program from running correctly.

in•com•pe•tence /ɪnˈkɑːmpətəns/ noun [noncount] : lack of the ability to do something well : the quality or state of not being competent ▪ mental incompetence ▪ Because of his incompetence, we won't make our deadline. ▪ She was fired for gross incompetence. — opposite COMPETENCE in•com•pe•ten•cy /ɪnˈkɑːmpətənsi/ noun [noncount] : INCOMPETENCE

[1]in•com•pe•tent /ɪnˈkɑːmpətənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not competent: such as a : lacking necessary ability or skills ▪ an incompetent worker/doctor ▪ He is too incompetent to be trusted with such an important responsibility. ▪ The patient is mentally incompetent. b law : not able to take part in a trial ▪ The defendant was declared incompetent to stand trial. ▪ an incompetent witness – in•com•pe•tent•ly adv ▪ The investigation was handled incompetently.

[2]incompetent noun, pl -tents [count] : a person who is not able to do something well : an incompetent person ▪ That department is full of incompetents.

in•com•plete /ˌɪnkəmˈpliːt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : lacking some part : not finished : not complete ▪ an incomplete set of encyclopedias ▪ The sentence is incomplete. ▪ She handed in an incomplete assignment.
2 American football, of a forward pass : not caught by the player the ball was thrown to ▪ an incomplete pass – in•com•plete•ly adv ▪ incompletely digested food ▪ an incompletely understood disease – in•com•plete•ness noun [noncount]

in•com•pre•hen•si•ble /ɪnˌkɑːmprɪˈhɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : impossible to understand : not comprehensible ▪ I found his behavior utterly incomprehensible. ▪ It's incomprehensible to me that he could have acted that way. ▪ an incomprehensible theory/decision – in•com•pre•hen•si•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌkɑːmprɪˌhɛnsəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] – in•com•pre•hen•si•bly /ɪnˌkɑːmprɪˈhɛnsəbliː/ adv

in•com•pre•hen•sion /ɪnˌkɑːmprɪˈhɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] : lack of understanding ▪ She gave me a look of complete/utter incomprehension. ▪ He viewed the situation with incomprehension.

in•con•ceiv•able /ˌɪnkənˈsiːvəbəl/ adj : impossible to imagine or believe : not conceivable ▪ It's inconceivable (to me) that anyone could have survived such a violent crash. ▪ The fire caused an inconceivable amount of damage. ▪ After coming this far, to quit now would be inconceivable.
– in•con•ceiv•ably /ˌɪnkənˈsiːvəbliː/ adv ▪ The fire caused an inconceivably large amount of damage.

in•con•clu•sive /ˌɪnkənˈkluːsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing that something is certainly true : not conclusive ▪ The results of the test were/proved inconclusive. ▪ inconclusive evidence ▪ an inconclusive argument ▪ The first two rounds of the boxing match were inconclusive.
– in•con•clu•sive•ly adv ▪ The first round ended inconclusively, with no clear winner.

in•con•gru•ous /ɪnˈkɑːŋgrəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : strange because of not agreeing with what is usual or expected ▪ His outburst seemed incongruous to those who know him well. ▪ The style of the porch is incongruous with [=does not match] the style of the house overall. ▪ The modern sculpture seems incongruous [=out of place] among all the antiques.
– in•con•gru•i•ty /ˌɪnkənˈgruːwətiː/ noun, pl -ties [count, noncount] – in•con•gru•ous•ly adv

in•con•se•quen•tial /ɪnˌkɑːnsəˈkwɛnʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not important ▪ inconsequential evidence/differences ▪ His opinion is inconsequential.

in•con•sid•er•able /ˌɪnkənˈsɪdərəbəl/ adj, formal : not large enough in size or amount to be considered important — used in negative statements ▪ a woman of not inconsiderable wealth [=a wealthy woman] ▪ It was a not inconsiderable accomplishment. [=it was not a trivial accomplishment; it was an important or impressive accomplishment] ▪ He played no inconsiderable role [=his role was important] in resolving the crisis.

in•con•sid•er•ate /ˌɪnkənˈsɪdərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not thinking about the rights and feelings of other people : not considerate ▪ an inconsiderate [=thoughtless] remark ▪ He was rude and inconsiderate to the waiter. ▪ There is no excuse for such inconsiderate behavior. — often + of ▪ It was inconsiderate of you to keep me waiting. ▪ She is very inconsiderate of her neighbors.
– in•con•sid•er•ate•ly adv ▪ He treats people inconsiderately.

in•con•sis•ten•cy /ˌɪnkənˈsɪstənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : the quality or fact of being inconsistent: such as a [noncount] : the quality or fact of not staying the same at different times ▪ Police noticed inconsistency in his two statements. ▪ Customers have been complaining about the inconsistency in the quality of service they have received. ▪ The team's biggest problem has been inconsistency: it has played well at times, but at other times it has played very poorly. b : the quality or fact of having parts that disagree with each other [noncount] There is some inconsistency in her argument. [count] Careful editing of the entire text has eliminated inconsistencies of style.
2 [count] : a difference or disagreement between two statements which means that both cannot be true ▪ We noted a major inconsistency in his story.

in•con•sis•tent /ˌɪnkənˈsɪstənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not consistent: such as a : not always acting or behaving in the same way ▪ His pitching has been very inconsistent. [=unreliable] ▪ Customers have been complaining about the inconsistent service they have received. b : not continuing to happen or develop in the same way ▪ The pain has been inconsistent. ▪ Her grades have been inconsistent this school year. c : having parts that disagree with each other ▪ Their descriptions of the accident were inconsistent. ▪ The results of the two experiments were inconsistent. ▪ She was inconsistent in her argument. [=her argument included parts that did not agree with one another] : not in agreement with something ▪ His statements were inconsistent with the truth. [=were not true] ▪ The decision was inconsistent with the company's policy.
– in•con•sis•tent•ly adv ▪ The team has been playing inconsistently all season.

in•con•sol•able /ˌɪnkənˈsoʊləbəl/ adj : extremely sad and not able to be comforted ▪ She was inconsolable when she learned that he had died.
– in•con•sol•ably /ˌɪnkənˈsoʊləbliː/ adv ▪ The child cried inconsolably.

in•con•spic•u•ous /ˌɪnkənˈspɪkjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not very easy to see or notice : not conspicuous ▪ an inconspicuous brick building ▪ She tried to remain as inconspicuous as possible so that no one would see her there.
– in•con•spic•u•ous•ly adv ▪ He always dressed inconspicuously in a gray suit.

in•con•stant /ɪnˈkɑːnstənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 literary : likely to change in feelings ▪ an inconstant friend/lover
2 formal : changing often ▪ an inconstant world ▪ the inconstant nature of the business in•con•test•able /ˌɪnkənˈtɛstəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be doubted or questioned : INDISPUTABLE ▪ The evidence against him is incontestable. ▪ an incontestable fact – in•con•test•ably /ˌɪnkənˈtɛstəbliː/ adv ▪ They proved incontestably that the painting was an original. ▪ incontestably true in•con•ti•nent /ɪnˈkɑːntənənt/ adj, medical : not having control of your bladder or bowels ▪ special products for incontinent patients – in•con•ti•nence /ɪnˈkɑːntənəns/ noun [noncount]

in•con•tro•vert•ible /ɪnˌkɑːntrəˈvətəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be doubted or questioned : INDISPUTABLE ▪ incontrovertible evidence/proof – in•con•tro•vert•ibly /ɪnˌkɑːntrəˈvətəbliː/ adv ▪ proved the point incontrovertibly

[1]in•con•ve•nience /ˌɪnkənˈviːnjəns/ noun, pl -nienc•es
1 [noncount] : trouble or problems ▪ I hope this delay doesn't cause you any inconvenience. ▪ Bridge repairs cannot be done without some inconvenience to the public.
2 [count] : something that causes trouble or problems : something that is inconvenient ▪ Parking in the city can be a major inconvenience. ▪ The delay was an inconvenience.

[2]inconvenience verb -niences; -nienced; -nienc•ing [+ obj] : to cause trouble or problems for (someone) ▪ I wouldn't want to inconvenience you. ▪ We were inconvenienced by the bad weather.

in•con•ve•nient /ˌɪnkənˈviːnjənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

: causing trouble or problems : not convenient ▪ The restaurant is in an inconvenient location. ▪ I can call back if this is an inconvenient time to talk. = I can call back if it's inconvenient for you to talk now. ▪ an inconvenient delay
– in•con•ve•nient•ly adv

in•cor•po•rate /ɪnˈkoəpəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to include (something) as part of something else ▪ This design incorporates the best features of our earlier models. ▪ a diet that incorporates many different fruits and vegetables — often + in or into ▪ The results of the study were incorporated in the final report. ▪ The committee recommended that we incorporate several new rules into the bylaws.
2 business : to form into a corporation [+ obj] The company was incorporated in 1981. [no obj] The company incorporated in 1981.
– in•cor•po•ra•tion /ɪnˌkoəpəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the incorporation of different musical styles ▪ plans for the eventual incorporation of the company in•cor•por•a•ted /ɪnˈkoəpəˌreɪtəd/ adj : formed into a legal corporation in the U.S. ▪ The company is incorporated in the state of Delaware. — often used in the names of corporations ▪ Merriam-Webster, Incorporated — abbr. Inc.

in•cor•po•re•al /ˌɪnkoəˈporijəl/ adj, formal : having no physical body or form ▪ incorporeal spirits

in•cor•rect /ˌɪnkəˈrɛkt/ adj : not correct: such as a : not true or accurate : WRONG ▪ an incorrect answer ▪ The doctor's diagnosis was incorrect. ▪ The story in the newspaper is incorrect. ▪ incorrect information b : having errors or mistakes ▪ a grammatically incorrect sentence ▪ incorrect pronunciation/punctuation/spelling/usage c : not proper or appropriate in a particular situation ▪ Their behavior was incorrect. = It was incorrect of them to behave like that. ▪ The restaurant considers jeans and T-shirts incorrect attire for dinner. — see also POLITICALLY INCORRECT – in•cor•rect•ly adv ▪ You filled out the form incorrectly. ▪ He answered several questions incorrectly. – in•cor•rect•ness noun [noncount] in•cor•ri•gi•ble /ɪnˈkorəʤəbəl/ adj : not able to be corrected or changed ▪ an incorrigible gambler/optimist/prankster ▪ an incorrigible habit of playing practical jokes ▪ He is always the class clown and his teachers say he is incorrigible.

– in•cor•ri•gi•bly /ɪnˈkorəʤəbli/ adv ▪ incorrigibly [=hopelessly, incurably] romantic in•cor•rupt•ible /ˌɪnkəˈrʌptəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very honest : incapable of being corrupted ▪ He was trusted, respected, and completely incorruptible. ▪ the town's incorruptible mayor – in•cor•rupt•ibil•i•ty /ˌɪnkəˌrʌptəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

[1]in•crease /ɪnˈkri:s/ verb -creas•es; -creased; -creas•ing
1 [no obj] : to become larger or greater in size, amount, number, etc. ▪ Sales increased [=rose] this year. ▪ The store is increasing [=raising] its prices. ▪ Skill increases with practice. ▪ The population is increasing [=growing] dramatically. ▪ The house increased in value.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) larger or greater in size, amount, number, etc. ▪ They will soon increase [=raise] the price from $50 to $60. ▪ She increased her wealth substantially. ▪ The pilot increased speed. — opposite DECREASE – increased adj ▪ These symptoms are associated with an increased risk of heart disease. – increasing adj ▪ There has been increasing criticism of his policies.

[2]in•crease /ˈɪnˌkri:s/ noun, pl -creas•es
1 : the act of becoming larger or of making something larger or greater in size, amount, number, etc. [count] a tax increase ▪ population increases ▪ increases in sales ▪ an increase in life expectancy [noncount] The employees expect some increase in wages. ▪ The construction will probably cause some increase in traffic delays.
2 [count] : the amount by which something is made larger or greater ▪ The report showed increases of between 20 and 30 percent. ▪ an increase of three dollars — opposite DECREASE on the increase : becoming more in size, amount, number, etc. : increasing ▪ The number of college applications is on the increase. [=on the rise] in•creas•ing•ly /ɪnˈkri:sɪŋli/ adv : more and more : to an increasing degree ▪ People are becoming increasingly aware of this problem. ▪ Increasingly, scientists are questioning the data. ▪ The situation grew increasingly hopeless.

in•cred•i•ble /ɪnˈkrɛdəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : difficult or impossible to believe ▪ The movie tells an incredible story of survival. ▪ an incredible coincidence ▪ I find his explanation pretty incredible. ▪ Incredible as it may seem, she's had no formal training as an artist. ▪ It's incredible to me that such a lazy person could be so successful.
2 : extremely good, great, or large ▪ a person of incredible [=extraordinary] skill/talent/intelligence ▪ a landscape of incredible beauty ▪ The new job is an incredible opportunity. ▪ We have put an incredible amount of work into this project.
– in•cred•i•bly /ɪnˈkrɛdəbli/ adv ▪ The snow fell incredibly fast. ▪ Incredibly, she has had no formal training as an artist. ▪ an incredibly [=extremely] dangerous sport ▪ The exam was incredibly difficult.

in•cre•du•li•ty /ˌɪnkrɪˈdu:ləti, Brit ˌɪnkrɪˈdju:ləti/ noun [noncount] : a feeling that you do not or cannot believe or accept that something is true or real : DISBELIEF ▪ The news of his death was met with expressions of incredulity.

in•cred•u•lous /ɪnˈkrɛʤələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able or willing to believe something : feeling or showing a lack of belief ▪ She listened to his explanation with an incredulous smile. ▪ He was incredulous at the news. ▪ Many people were incredulous that such a small fire could have caused so much damage.
– in•cred•u•lous•ly adv ▪ She listened incredulously as he explained his decision.

in•cre•ment /ˈɪŋkrəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a usually small amount or degree by which something is made larger or greater ▪ They increased the dosage of the drug in small increments over a period of several weeks. ▪ Fines increase in increments of $10. ▪ The volume is adjustable in 10 equal increments. ▪ (Brit) Employees receive an annual increment [=an annual raise in salary; an annual salary increase] of three percent.
– in•cre•men•tal /ˌɪŋkrəˈmɛntl/ adj ▪ incremental changes [=changes that occur in small amounts or very gradually] ▪ incremental additions – in•cre•men•tally /ˌɪŋkrəˈmɛntli/ adv ▪ The business grew incrementally.

in•crim•i•nate /ɪnˈkrɪməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to appear guilty of or responsible for something (such as a crime) ▪ Material found at the crime scene incriminates the defendant.
– incriminating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ incriminating evidence ▪ a very incriminating conversation/document – in•crim•i•na•tion /ɪnˌkrɪməˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

in•cu•bate /ˈɪŋkjəˌbeɪt/ verb -bates; -bat•ed; -bat•ing
1 a [+ obj] of a bird : to sit on eggs so that they will be kept warm and will hatch ▪ The female bird incubates the eggs. b [no obj] of an egg : to be kept warm before hatching ▪ The eggs needs to incubate for two weeks.
2 technical : to keep (something) in the proper conditions for development [+ obj] Researchers incubated the cells in the laboratory. [no obj] The cultures must incubate for five more days. ▪ The virus will incubate in the body for several days before the patient experiences any symptoms. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The plan had been incubating [=developing] in his mind for several weeks.
– in•cu•ba•tion /ˌɪŋkjəˈbeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] The temperature must remain steady during incubation. ▪ a long incubation period [=a time during which something (such as an egg) is incubating or being incubated] [count] a long incubation

in•cu•ba•tor /ˈɪŋkjəˌbeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a device that is used to keep eggs warm before they hatch
2 medical : a piece of equipment in which very weak or sick babies are placed for special care and protection after their birth
3 business : an organization or place that helps in the development of new businesses in•cul•cate /ɪnˈkʌlˌkeɪt, ˈɪnˌkʌlˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (something) to be learned by (someone) by repeating it again and again ▪ The teacher inculcated in her students the importance of good study habits. ▪ A sense of responsibility was inculcated in the students. = The students were inculcated with a sense of responsibility.

in•cum•ben•cy /ɪnˈkʌmbənsi/ noun, pl -cies formal
1 [count] : the time during which a person holds a particular office or position ▪ Hundreds of new jobs were created during her incumbency.
2 : the state of holding a particular office or position [noncount] the advantages of incumbency during an election [count] a politician seeking to keep his incumbency

[1]in•cum•bent /ɪnˈkʌmbənt/ noun, pl -bents [count] : a person who holds a particular office or position ▪ Voters will have the chance to see the incumbent and her opponent in a series of three debates. ▪ Incumbents often have an advantage in elections.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

²incumbent /ɪnˈkʌmbənt/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : holding an office or position ▪ the incumbent president/mayor/senator ▪ incumbent members of Congress incumbent on or incumbent upon formal : necessary as a duty for (someone) ▪ It is incumbent on us to help. [=it is our duty to help] ▪ It is incumbent upon all employees to participate. [=all employees are required to participate] in•cur /ɪnˈkɚ/ verb -curs; -curred; -cur•ring [+ obj] formal : to cause yourself to have or experience (something unpleasant or unwanted) ▪ incur expenses/debt ▪ What did he do to incur such wrath?

in•cur•able /ɪnˈkjɚrəbəl/ adj
1 : impossible to cure : not curable ▪ an incurable disease
2 : not likely to be changed ▪ He's an incurable romantic. ▪ an incurable gossip/optimist – in•cur•ably /ɪnˈkjɚrəbli/ adv ▪ incurably ill ▪ incurably [=hopelessly] romantic in•cu•ri•ous /ɪnˈkjɚrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having no desire to learn or know more about something or someone : not curious ▪ She is remarkably incurious about the natural world.

in•cur•sion /ɪnˈkɚʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count] formal : a sudden invasion or attack : an act of entering a place or area that is controlled by an enemy ▪ a military incursion ▪ an incursion into enemy airspace — often used figuratively ▪ an incursion of foreign traders into the domestic market ▪ his only incursion [=foray] into the arts in•debt•ed /ɪnˈdɛtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : owing something (such as money or thanks) to someone or something : in debt ▪ heavily/deeply indebted countries/companies — often + to ▪ The museum is deeply indebted to its many generous patrons. ▪ She will forever be indebted to the hospital staff for saving her son's life.

– in•debt•ed•ness noun [noncount] — often + to ▪ She readily acknowledges her great indebtedness to the hospital staff for saving her son's life.

in•de•cen•cy /ɪnˈdiːsṇsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : a morally or sexually offensive quality : an indecent quality ▪ The book has been criticized for indecency. ▪ I was shocked by the indecency of their language.
2 : behavior that is morally or sexually offensive : indecent behavior [noncount] He was arrested for public indecency. [=for doing something indecent in public, such as exposing his sexual organs] [count] He was accused of sexual indecencies.

in•de•cent /ɪnˈdiːsṇt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not decent: such as a : sexually offensive or shocking ▪ indecent photos b of clothes : not covering enough of your body ▪ indecent clothing c : using language that offends people : including behavior or ideas that people find offensive ▪ an indecent joke ▪ indecent language d : not appropriate or proper ▪ He took indecent pleasure in her troubles.
– in•de•cent•ly adv ▪ an indecently short skirt ▪ indecently dressed indecent assault noun [noncount] law : the crime of touching someone sexually without that person's permission indecent exposure noun [noncount] law : the crime of showing your sexual organs to other people in public in•de•ci•pher•able /ˌɪndɪˈsaɪfərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : impossible to read or understand : not decipherable ▪ His handwriting is almost indecipherable. ▪ an indecipherable code/message in•de•ci•sion /ˌɪndɪˈsɪʒən/ noun [noncount] : difficulty in making a decision ▪ They were paralyzed by indecision.

in•de•ci•sive /ˌɪndɪˈsaɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not decisive: such as a : not able to make choices quickly and confidently ▪ an indecisive person ▪ She's always been very indecisive. b : not settling something or making something final or certain ▪ an indecisive battle ▪ The meeting was indecisive.
– in•de•ci•sive•ly adv ▪ The conflict ended indecisively.
– in•de•ci•sive•ness noun [noncount]

in•deed /ɪnˈdiːd/ adv
1 : without any question — used to stress the truth of a statement ▪ Indeed, he is a great poet. = He is indeed a great poet. ▪ This is indeed [=certainly] a matter of great importance. ▪ They were indeed heroes, though they were never honored. ▪ She does indeed work here. ▪ I will indeed be there. ▪ The problem is a serious one indeed. ▪ "Do you know him?" "I do indeed." = "Indeed I do." ▪ "Do you know him?" "Yes, indeed!" [=I certainly do] — often used after very ▪ This is a very nice house indeed. ▪ Thank you very much indeed.
2 — used in response to a statement that is regarded as doubtful or surprising ▪ "I did my best." "Did you indeed?" ▪ "The project is still on schedule." "Is it indeed?" ▪ "He claims that it was just a misunderstanding." "Indeed?"
3 formal — used when making a statement that adds to or strengthens a previous statement ▪ He likes to have things his own way; indeed, he can be very stubborn. ▪ She is quite lovely, indeed a beauty. ▪ Many people objected. Indeed, my uncle complained in writing. ▪ It is possible—indeed, probable—that the crime was an inside job.
4 — used in a question that repeats and emphasizes a preceding question to show that you do not know the answer ▪ "How can we help them?" "How, indeed?" ▪ "When will they come here again?" "When, indeed?"

a friend in need is a friend indeed see FRIEND in•de•fat•i•ga•ble /ˌɪndɪˈfætɪgəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : able to work or continue for a very long time without becoming tired : TIRELESS ▪ an indefatigable campaigner ▪ a person of indefatigable patience/enthusiasm/optimism – in•de•fat•i•ga•bly /ˌɪndɪˈfætɪgəbli/ adv ▪ She works indefatigably on behalf of her clients.

in•de•fen•si•ble /ˌɪndɪˈfɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not defensible: such as a : not able to be thought of as good or acceptable ▪ The company adopted an indefensible position on the issue. ▪ His behavior is ethically indefensible. ▪ Slavery is morally indefensible. b : not able to be kept safe from damage or harm ▪ The city is in an indefensible location.

in•de• n•able /ˌɪndɪˈfaɪnəbəl/ adj : impossible to describe or explain ▪ He has an indefinable quality that draws people to him.
– in•de• n•ably /ˌɪndiˈfaɪnəbli/ adv

in•def•i•nite /ɪnˈdɛfənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not definite: such as a : not certain in amount or length ▪ We're stuck here for an indefinite period of time. ▪ Their plans have been put on indefinite hold. b : not clear or certain in meaning or details : VAGUE ▪ an indefinite answer/boundary ▪ She is indefinite about her plans. ▪ Our plans are indefinite.
– in•def•i•nite•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the indefiniteness of their plans inde nite article noun, pl ~ -cles [count] : the word a or an used in English to refer to a person or thing that is not identified or specified ▪ In "I gave a book to the boy" the word "a" is an indefinite article and the word "the" is a definite article.; also : a word that has a similar use in another language in•def•i•nite•ly /ɪnˈdɛfənətli/ adv : for a period of time that might not end ▪ It's foolish to think that economic growth will continue indefinitely. [=forever] ▪ Their vacation has been postponed indefinitely. [=until a later time that has not yet been decided] inde nite pronoun noun, pl ~ -nouns [count] : a pronoun that does not refer to a specific person or thing ▪ "Anyone," "something," and "few" are indefinite pronouns.

in•del•i•ble /ɪnˈdɛləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : impossible to remove or forget ▪ Her performance made an indelible [=unforgettable] impression on me. ▪ His achievements left an indelible [=enduring] mark on the era. ▪ an indelible image
2 : producing marks that cannot be erased ▪ an indelible pencil ▪ indelible [=permanent] ink
– in•del•i•bly /ɪnˈdɛləbli/ adv ▪ scenes/images indelibly captured on film ▪ two names indelibly [=permanently] linked in the public mind in•del•i•cate /ɪnˈdɛlɪkət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not polite : having or showing bad manners or taste : RUDE ▪ Many consider it indelicate to talk about such things in mixed company. ▪ an indelicate question – in•del•i•ca•cy /ɪnˈdɛlɪkəsi/ noun, pl -cies [count, noncount] ▪ Everyone was shocked by the indelicacy [=rudeness] of his questions. – in•del•i•cate•ly adv

in•dem•ni•fy /ɪnˈdɛmnəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] law
1 : to protect (someone) by promising to pay for the cost of possible future damage, loss, or injury ▪ The policy indemnifies [=insures] you against/for any losses caused by fire. [=the policy promises that if fire destroys things that you own, you will be given money to buy new things]
2 : to give (someone) money or another kind of payment for some damage, loss, or injury ▪ He was required to indemnify [=compensate] his neighbor for the damage he caused.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

– in•dem•ni• •ca•tion /ɪnˌdɛmnəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ indemnification for loss/damages

in•dem•ni•ty /ɪnˈdɛmnəti/ noun, pl -ties law
1 [noncount] : a promise to pay for the cost of possible damage, loss, or injury ▪ an agreement providing indemnity against prosecution/loss — often used before another noun ▪ an indemnity plan/agreement
2 [count] : a payment made to someone because of damage, loss, or injury ▪ has paid $2 million in indemnities

[1]in•dent /ɪnˈdɛnt/ verb -dents; -dent•ed; -dent•ing
1 : to start (one or more lines of text) farther to the right than other lines of text [+ obj] The first line of each paragraph should be indented. [no obj] Don't forget to indent when starting a new paragraph.; also [+ obj] : to end (one or more lines of text) farther to the left than other lines of text ▪ The second paragraph is indented from the right margin.
2 [+ obj] : to make the edge of (something) go sharply inward : to create an indentation in (something) ▪ Many tiny inlets indent the coast. [=there are many tiny inlets along the coast]
3 [no obj] Brit : to order something from the person or place that can supply it ▪ We indented (on headquarters) for supplies.
– in•dent•ed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an indented paragraph ▪ deeply indented leaves ▪ an indented coastline

[2]in•dent /ˈɪnˌdɛnt/ noun, pl -dents [count] : a space at the beginning of a written line or paragraph ▪ Start each paragraph with an indent. ▪ a half-inch indent

in•den•ta•tion /ˌɪnˌdɛnˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [count] : a space at the beginning of a written line or paragraph : INDENT ▪ a smaller/larger indentation b [noncount] : the act of indenting a line or paragraph ▪ Our style guidelines call for indentation of the first line of each paragraph.
2 [count] a : a cut in or into the edge of something ▪ A slight indentation [=notch] was cut into the wood. b : an area where the edge of something goes sharply inward ▪ a coastline with many indentations
3 [count] : a small hole or inward curve made by pressure : DENT ▪ There were several small indentations in the surface of the table. ▪ bowl-shaped indentations

in•den•tured /ɪnˈdɛnʧəd/ adj : required by a contract to work for a certain period of time ▪ immigrants who came to the U.S. as indentured servants 200 years ago

in•de•pen•dence /ˌɪndəˈpɛndəns/ noun
1 : freedom from outside control or support : the state of being independent [noncount] They are fighting for independence from colonial rule. [=fighting because they want to stop being a colony ruled by another country] ▪ Her ambition is to achieve financial independence. [=to earn all the money she needs; to not depend on money given by anyone else] ▪ She asserted her independence from her parents by getting her own apartment. ▪ The country declared (its) independence. [=said that it would no longer accept the rule of another country] ▪ a war of independence [=a war that is fought to gain independence] [singular] He has shown a fierce independence of spirit/thought.
2 [noncount] : the time when a country or region gains political freedom from outside control ▪ A month after independence, elections were held.

Independence Day noun [noncount] : a holiday celebrating the anniversary of a country's independence from another country that ruled it in the past; especially : July 4 celebrated as a legal holiday in the U.S. in honor of the day when the Declaration of Independence was signed in 1776

[1]in•de•pen•dent /ˌɪndəˈpɛndənt/ adj
1 : not dependent: such as a : not controlled or ruled by another country ▪ The country recently became independent. ▪ an independent nation b : not controlled by other people ▪ They have a good deal of independent authority. ▪ an independent investigator [=a person who is not directly involved in a situation or dispute and who is free to investigate problems and make judgments about what should be done] c : not requiring or relying on other people for help or support ▪ She has an independent income. ▪ She is a woman of independent means. [=she has enough money to support herself without help from others] d : not associated with or owned by a larger business ▪ an independent record label ▪ an independent film studio ▪ an independent bookstore ▪ They hired an independent contractor [=a person hired to do work who controls how the work is done] to fix the roof.; also : produced by an independent company ▪ an independent film
2 : separate from and not connected to other people, things, etc. ▪ Another laboratory has provided independent confirmation of the test results. ▪ She is doing an independent study in Art History this semester. [=a course of study done by a student without an instructor or with help from an instructor but not as part of an organized class] ▪ This car has four-wheel independent suspension. [=each of the four wheels has its own set of supports for the body of the car] — often + of ▪ The women enjoyed rights independent of their husbands. ▪ The speed of the particle is independent of its wavelength. [=is not connected/related to its wavelength]
3 [more ~; most ~] : acting or thinking freely instead of being guided by other people ▪ She is a very independent person. ▪ She has an independent mind/spirit. ▪ She's an independent thinker. ▪ They lead an independent life.
4 politics : not belonging to a political party ▪ independent voters ▪ an independent candidate – in•de•pen•dent•ly adv ▪ They were working independently from/of one another. ▪ Every store is independently owned and operated. ▪ She's independently wealthy. ▪ He continues to live independently despite his injuries.

[2]independent noun, pl -dents [count]
1 : someone or something that is not connected to others of the same kind ▪ He started publishing a trendy independent [=an independent newspaper or magazine] that covers controversial topics. ▪ The school left the conference to become an independent. [=a school whose sports teams are not associated with a league]
2 or Independent politics : a person who does not belong to a political party ▪ She registered to vote as an Independent.

independent clause noun, pl ~ clauses [count] grammar : MAIN CLAUSE in–depth /ɪnˈdɛpθ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : covering many or all important points of a subject : THOROUGH ▪ an in-depth investigation/analysis ▪ in-depth news coverage ▪ This film takes an in-depth look at life on the farm.

in•de•scrib•able /ˌɪndɪˈskraɪbəbəl/ adj : impossible to describe : very great or extreme ▪ indescribable beauty/joy/relief ▪ indescribable pain
– in•de•scrib•ably /ˌɪndɪˈskraɪbəbli/ adv ▪ an indescribably delicious meal in•de•struc•ti•ble /ˌɪndɪˈstrʌktəbəl/ adj : impossible to break or destroy ▪ indestructible toys ▪ They claim that the watch is virtually/nearly indestructible. [=unbreakable] ▪ He was 20 years old and felt that he was indestructible. [=he felt that nothing could harm him]

– in•de•struc•ti•bil•i•ty /ˌɪndəˌstrʌktəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He had a feeling of indestructibility.

in•de•ter•mi•nate /ˌɪndɪˈtəmənət/ adj, formal : not able to be stated or described in an exact way ▪ a man of indeterminate [=uncertain] age ▪ an indeterminate number of people ▪ an indeterminate color
– in•de•ter•mi•na•cy /ˌɪndɪˈtəmənəsi/ noun [noncount]
– in•de•ter•mi•nate•ly adv ▪ an indeterminately large number

[1]in•dex /ˈɪnˌdɛks/ noun, pl in•dex•es or in•di•ces /ˈɪndəˌsi:z/ [count]
1 pl usually indexes : an ordered list: such as a : an alphabetical list at the end of a book that shows the page where each thing in the list can be found ▪ Look up the recipe for potato soup in the index. ▪ Potato soup is listed under "soup" in the index. b : a group of related things that are in alphabetical or numerical order ▪ The card catalog is an index to the materials in the library.
2 : a sign or number that shows how something is changing or performing ▪ The price of goods is an index [=indication] of business conditions. : a number that indicates changes in the level of something (such as a stock market) when it rises or falls ▪ a stock index ▪ certain economic indexes/indices ▪ (Brit) an index-linked pension [=a pension that is linked to an index (such as the retail price index) so that it rises or falls as the index does] — see also CONSUMER PRICE INDEX, RETAIL PRICE INDEX
3 : a device used to point to something (such as a number) ▪ the index on a scale

[2]index verb -dexes; -dexed; -dex•ing [+ obj]
1 : to provide an index for (something, such as a book) — usually used as (be) indexed ▪ an indexed book [=a book that has an index]
2 : to list or include (something) in an index ▪ This search engine has indexed hundreds of millions of Web sites. — often used as (be) indexed ▪ Each term in the book is indexed.
3 : to link wages, benefits, etc., to a measurement of changes

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in the price of goods and services so that they increase at the same rate — usually used as (be) indexed to ▪ Social security benefits are indexed to inflation. [=social security benefits increase when inflation occurs]

index card noun, pl ~ cards [count] : a thin paper card used especially for creating an alphabetical index

index finger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] : the finger next to the thumb : FOREFINGER — see picture at HAND

In•dia ink /ˈɪndijə-/ noun [noncount] US : black ink used especially for drawing — called also (Brit) Indian ink

In•di•an /ˈɪndijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]
1 : a person born, raised, or living in India
2 often offensive : NATIVE AMERICAN usage see NATIVE AMERICAN – Indian adj ▪ Indian culture/food/music ▪ a person of Indian descent ▪ an Indian word

Indian corn noun [noncount] US
1 : [1]CORN 1a
2 : corn that has seeds (called kernels) of several different colors on each ear and that is used for decoration

Indian summer noun, pl ~ -mers [count]
1 : a period of warm weather in late autumn or early winter
2 : a happy or pleasant period near the end of someone's life, career, etc. ▪ She is in the Indian summer of her career.

in•di•cate /ˈɪndəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to show (something) ▪ Our records indicate a depth of 3,000 feet here. ▪ Studies indicate (that) this chemical could cause cancer. ▪ The map indicates where the treasure is buried. : to show that (something) exists or is true ▪ There is nothing to indicate that the two events are connected. ▪ The size of his offer indicates that he is eager to buy the house. ▪ His hot forehead indicates a fever. = His hot forehead indicates that he has a fever.
2 [+ obj] : to direct attention to (someone or something) usually by pointing ▪ The general used a long ruler to indicate on the map exactly where the troops would land. ▪ We asked how to get to the rear entrance, and he indicated a path leading around the right side of the building.
3 [+ obj] : to show or suggest that (something) is needed — usually used as (be) indicated ▪ Further testing is indicated. [=is called for; is necessary] ▪ He feels that a different approach is indicated.
4 [+ obj] : to represent or be a symbol of (something or someone) ▪ A pronoun used as a direct object indicates the person or thing receiving the action. ▪ The markers indicate a distance of 50 yards. ▪ A new paragraph indicates a change in topic. ▪ In "my mother's coat," the apostrophe and "s" indicate possession.
5 [+ obj] : to say or express (something) briefly ▪ They have indicated their willingness/desire to cooperate. ▪ She indicated [=wrote, said] in her letter that she's planning to arrive next week. ▪ He nodded his head to indicate his approval. = He indicated his approval with a nod of his head.
6 [no obj] Brit : to make a signal which shows that you are going to turn when you are driving a vehicle ▪ You forgot to indicate [=(US) signal] before you made your turn.

in•di•ca•tion /ˌɪndəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : something (such as a sign or signal) that points out or shows something [noncount] She gave no indication that she was angry. = She gave no indication [=hint] of her anger. ▪ There is some indication [=suggestion] that the economy is recovering. [count] Her evaluation will give me a good indication of where I stand in the class. ▪ There were indications that he was thinking of changing jobs. ▪ There's every indication that the strike will end soon. [=it appears to be very likely that the strike will end soon]

[1]in•dic•a•tive /ɪnˈdɪkətɪv/ adj
1 not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] formal : showing something : indicating something — usually + of ▪ His bitter remarks are indicative of the resentment he stills feels over losing his job. [=his bitter remarks show that he still feels resentment over losing his job] ▪ Thin tree rings are indicative of slow growth. [=thin tree rings indicate that a tree has grown slowly]
2 grammar : of or relating to the verb form that is used to state a fact that can be known or proved ▪ In "I walked to school," the verb walked is in the indicative mood. ▪ an indicative verb form — compare IMPERATIVE, SUBJUNCTIVE

[2]indicative noun
the indicative grammar : the form that a verb or sentence has when it is stating a fact that can be known or proved ▪ a verb in the indicative

in•di•ca•tor /ˈɪndəˌkeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a sign that shows the condition or existence of something ▪ Economic indicators suggest that prices will go up. — often + of ▪ The size of the new building is an indicator of how much the company has grown. ▪ Her expression is usually a good/reliable indicator of how she's feeling.
2 a : a pointer or light that shows the state or condition of something ▪ a control panel with various indicator lights b : a device that shows a measurement : GAUGE ▪ an airspeed indicator c Brit : TURN SIGNAL

indices plural of [1]INDEX

in•dict /ɪnˈdaɪt/ verb -dicts; -dict•ed; -dict•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, law : to formally decide that someone should be put on trial for a crime ▪ A grand jury is expected to indict him for murder. — often used as (be) indicted ▪ She was arraigned in front of a judge and then indicted by a grand jury three weeks later. ▪ He has been indicted by the grand jury on murder charges.
– in•dict•able /ɪnˈdaɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an indictable offense/crime

in•dict•ment /ɪnˈdaɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 chiefly US, law a [count] : an official written statement charging a person with a crime ▪ The grand jury has handed down indictments against several mobsters. b [noncount] : the act of officially charging someone with a crime : the act of indicting someone ▪ No one was surprised by her indictment. ▪ He is under indictment [=he has been indicted] for perjury by two federal grand juries.
2 [count] : an expression or statement of strong disapproval ▪ She intended the film to be an indictment of the media.

in•die /ˈɪndi/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : not connected with or created by a major producer of music or movies : INDEPENDENT ▪ indie rock bands ▪ an indie (record) label ▪ the hit indie film of the year in•dif•fer•ence /ɪnˈdɪfərəns/ noun : lack of interest in or concern about something : an indifferent attitude or feeling [noncount] She was amazed that some people could watch the trial with indifference. — often + to ▪ You can go or you can stay. It's a matter of complete indifference to me. [=I do not care at all if you go or stay] ▪ The government has shown complete/utter indifference to the struggles of organized labor. [singular] She watched them with a cool indifference.
– indie noun, pl -dies [count] ▪ This film is not like other low-budget indies.

in•dif•fer•ent /ɪnˈdɪfərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not interested in or concerned about something ▪ She was amazed that people could be so indifferent about the trial. [=could care so little about the trial] ▪ The movie was poorly received by an indifferent public. — often + to ▪ They seem to be indifferent to the problems of poor people.
2 : neither good nor bad : not very good ▪ She was tired and gave a rather indifferent [=unimpressive] performance. ▪ indifferent [=mediocre] leadership ▪ Was the food good, bad, or indifferent?
– in•dif•fer•ent•ly adv ▪ a biography received indifferently by the critics in•dig•e•nous /ɪnˈdɪʤənəs/ adj : produced, living, or existing naturally in a particular region or environment ▪ He grows a wide variety of both indigenous [=native] and exotic plants. ▪ an indigenous culture/language ▪ There are several indigenous groups that still live in the area. — sometimes + to ▪ These birds are indigenous to South America.

– in•dig•e•nous•ly adv

in•di•gent /ˈɪndɪʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : lacking money : very poor ▪ Because he was indigent, the court appointed a lawyer to defend him. ▪ The clinic provides free care for indigent patients.

in•di•gest•ible /ˌɪndaɪˈʤɛstəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not capable of being used in the body as food ▪ indigestible carbohydrates — sometimes + to ▪ a substance that is indigestible to most mammals — often used in an exaggerated way to describe bad or unappealing food ▪ an indigestible meal
2 : difficult to understand : complicated or confusing ▪ Their presentation was an indigestible mass of information.

in•di•ges•tion /ˌɪndaɪˈʤɛsʧən/ noun [noncount] : an unpleasant feeling (such as pain or a burning sensation) in your stomach or chest that is caused by difficulty in digesting food ▪ The patient complained of indigestion and nausea. ▪ I like spicy foods but they always give me indigestion. ▪ an attack of indigestion ▪ acid indigestion

in•dig•nant /ɪnˈdɪgnənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i showing anger because of something that is unfair or wrong : very angry ▪ She wrote an indignant letter to the editor. ▪ He was/got/became very indignant about/over the changes. ▪ an indignant tone of voice – in·dig·nant·ly adv ▪ She indignantly [=angrily] denied all the accusations.

in·dig·na·tion /ˌɪndɪgˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : anger caused by something that is unfair or wrong ▪ The decision to close the factory has aroused the indignation of the townspeople. ▪ He adopted a tone of moral/righteous indignation.

in·dig·ni·ty /ɪnˈdɪgnəti/ noun, pl -ties : an act or occurrence that hurts someone's dignity or pride : an insulting or embarrassing act or occurrence [count] He remembers all the indignities he had to suffer in the early years of his career. ▪ We must endure the indignities of growing old. [noncount] He suffered the indignity of being forced to leave the courtroom. ▪ The indignity of it all was too much to bear.

in·di·go /ˈɪndɪˌgoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a deep purplish-blue color — see color picture on page C2
– indigo adj ▪ an indigo sky

in·di·rect /ˌɪndəˈrɛkt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : not direct: such as a : not going straight from one point to another ▪ We took an indirect route. ▪ These plants grow best in bright indirect light/sun. b : not said or done in a clear and direct way ▪ He gave only vague, indirect answers to our questions. ▪ They used indirect methods of investigation. ▪ There were many indirect references to his earlier books. ▪ Looking at her watch was her indirect way of telling him it was time to leave. c : not having a clear and direct connection ▪ Poor nutrition may have been an indirect cause of the disease. ▪ The cigarette stubs were indirect evidence that someone had been smoking in the room.
2 grammar : stating what an original speaker said without exactly quoting the words ▪ "He said that he would call later," is an example of indirect speech/discourse since his actual words were "I'll call later." ▪ an indirect question such as "She asked whether the doctor had arrived" ▪ an indirect quotation
– in·di·rect·ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was indirectly involved in the robbery. ▪ The disease can be spread directly or indirectly. ▪ He answered our questions indirectly. – in·di·rect·ness noun [noncount] indirect object noun, pl ~ -jects [count] grammar : a noun, pronoun, or noun phrase that occurs in addition to a direct object after some verbs and indicates the person or thing that receives what is being given or done ▪ In "He gave me the book," the direct object is "book" and the indirect object is "me." — compare DIRECT OBJECT in·dis·cern·ible /ˌɪndɪˈsɚnəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : impossible to see, hear, or know clearly ▪ Hidden under vines and moss, the crumbling wall was almost indiscernible. ▪ a change made for indiscernible reasons in·dis·creet /ˌɪndɪˈskri:t/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not having or showing good judgment : revealing things that should not be revealed : not discreet ▪ He was indiscreet about his love affairs. [=he told people about his love affairs when he should have kept them secret]; also : not polite ▪ Should I ask you how you got that bruise, or would that be indiscreet? [=(more commonly) impolite, rude] ▪ an indiscreet question – in·dis·creet·ly adv ▪ He spoke indiscreetly about his love affairs.

in·dis·cre·tion /ˌɪndɪˈskrɛʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : lack of good judgment or care in behavior and especially in speech : lack of discretion ▪ He has been criticized for showing indiscretion in his remarks. [=for carelessly saying things that should not be said]
2 [count] : an act or remark that shows a lack of good judgment : an indiscreet act or remark ▪ She committed a few minor indiscretions. ▪ He describes his drug use in college as just a youthful indiscretion. [=a minor mistake made by a young person]

in·dis·crim·i·nate /ˌɪndɪˈskrɪmənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : affecting or harming many people or things in a careless or unfair way ▪ They participated in the indiscriminate slaughter of countless innocent victims. ▪ He objects to the indiscriminate use of pesticides. ▪ an indiscriminate attack
2 : not careful in making choices ▪ She has been indiscriminate in choosing her friends.
– in·dis·crim·i·nate·ly adv

in·dis·pens·able /ˌɪndɪˈspɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely important and necessary ▪ She is an indispensable [=essential] part of the team. ▪ an indispensable employee/tool — often + for or to ▪ A calculator is an indispensable tool for solving these problems. ▪ She is indispensable to the team.
– in·dis·pens·abil·i·ty /ˌɪndɪˌspɛnsəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

in·dis·posed /ˌɪndɪˈspoʊzd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : slightly ill : not feeling well ▪ He was (somewhat) indisposed by/with a cold. — often used as a polite way of saying that someone is sick or unable to be present without giving a specific reason ▪ He was indisposed and unable to attend the banquet.
2 : not willing or likely to do something — followed by to + verb ▪ Officials are indisposed to grant their request. [=officials do not want to grant their request] in·dis·po·si·tion /ɪnˌdɪspəˈzɪʃən/ noun, formal 1 [count] : a slight illness ▪ He blamed his absence on a minor indisposition.

2 [singular] : lack of willingness to do something — followed by to + verb ▪ The officials have shown an indisposition to grant their request.

in·dis·put·able /ˌɪndɪˈspju:təbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : impossible to question or doubt : not disputable ▪ He had indisputable [=unquestionable] proof that he had been there. ▪ Her success is indisputable. [=undeniable]
– in·dis·put·ably /ˌɪndɪˈspju:təbli/ adv ▪ an indisputably certain fact in·dis·sol·u·ble /ˌɪndɪˈsɑ:ljəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to destroy, break up, or get rid of ▪ an indissoluble contract ▪ They are bound together by/with indissoluble [=permanent] ties/bonds.

– in·dis·sol·u·bil·i·ty /ˌɪndɪˌsɑ:ljəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – in·dis·sol·u·bly /ˌɪndɪˈsɑ:ljəbli/ adv ▪ They are indissolubly [=permanently] linked/connected.

in·dis·tinct /ˌɪndɪˈstɪŋkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not easily seen, heard, or recognized : not distinct or clear ▪ indistinct figures in the fog ▪ a far-off indistinct light ▪ The sound was indistinct [=faint] at first, then gradually became louder.
– in·dis·tinct·ly adv ▪ Her voice could only be heard indistinctly. [=faintly] – in·dis·tinct·ness noun [noncount]

in·dis·tin·guish·able /ˌɪndɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃəbəl/ adj : unable to be recognized as different : impossible to distinguish clearly from something else ▪ The copy and the original are practically indistinguishable. [=identical] — usually + from ▪ The copy is practically indistinguishable from the original. [=the copy and the original are so similar that it is almost impossible to see any difference between them]
– in·dis·tin·guish·ably /ˌɪndɪˈstɪŋgwɪʃəbli/ adv ▪ The flavors merged indistinguishably together.

[1]in·di·vid·u·al /ˌɪndəˈvɪʤəwəl/ adj
1 always used before a noun : of, relating to, or existing as just one member or part of a larger group ▪ What are the individual traits/characteristics of the breed? ▪ The doctor carefully evaluates the individual needs of her patients. ▪ Students will receive as much individual attention as possible. ▪ The book is divided into individual [=separate] chapters. ▪ Each individual [=particular] case is different.
2 [more ~; most ~] : having a special and unusual quality that is easily seen ▪ She has a very individual style of writing. ▪ a pattern as individual as a fingerprint
3 always used before a noun : intended or designed for one person ▪ individual servings of dessert
– in·di·vid·u·al·ly adv ▪ Each student met individually [=separately] with the teacher. ▪ bowls individually crafted from wood ▪ Individually they don't amount to much, but as a group they're very powerful.

[2]individual noun, pl -als [count]
1 : a single person : a person who is considered separate from the rest of a group ▪ They promote a philosophy that sacrifices the rights of the individual for the public welfare.
2 : a particular person ▪ They are both rather odd individuals. ▪ Are you the individual I spoke with on the telephone? ▪ She's a very talented individual.
3 : a single member or part of a group ▪ The markings on tigers are unique to each individual.

in·di·vid·u·al·ism /ˌɪndəˈvɪʤəwəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : the belief that the needs of each person are more important than the needs of the whole society or group ▪ a society that believes strongly in individualism
2 : the actions or attitudes of a person who does things without being concerned about what other people will think ▪ He was respected for his self-reliance and individualism.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in•di•vid•u•al•ist /ˌɪndəˈvɪʤəwəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who does things without being concerned about what other people will think ▪ The school encourages children to be individualists.
– in•di•vid•u•al•is•tic /ˌɪndəˌvɪʤəwəˈlɪstɪk/ also individualist adj ▪ an individualistic approach to jazz music in•di•vid•u•al•i•ty /ˌɪndəˌvɪʤəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality that makes one person or thing different from all others ▪ She uses her clothing to express her individuality. ▪ materials that highlight the individuality of each piece in the collection in•di•vid•u•al•ize also Brit in•di•vid•u•al•ise /ˌɪndəˈvɪʤəwəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) different from other things ▪ The author uses different styles to individualize the characters.
2 : to change (something) so that it fits each person's needs ▪ Teachers should individualize their lessons to address differences in their students. ▪ individualized computer programs – in•di•vid•u•al•i•za•tion also Brit in•di•vid•u•al•i•sation /ˌɪndəˌvɪʤəwələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌɪndəˌvɪʤəwəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the individualization of lesson plans individual retirement account noun, pl ~ -counts [count] : IRA in•di•vis•i•ble /ˌɪndəˈvɪzəbəl/ adj, formal + literary : impossible to divide or separate : not divisible ▪ an indivisible nation – in•di•vis•i•bil•i•ty /ˌɪndəˌvɪzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He believes in the indivisibility of the mind and soul.

Indo- /ˈɪndoʊ/ combining form : Indian and ▪ He studies Indo-European languages.

in•doc•tri•nate /ɪnˈdɑːktrəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] disapproving : to teach (someone) to fully accept the ideas, opinions, and beliefs of a particular group and to not consider other ideas, opinions, and beliefs ▪ The goal should be to teach politics, rather than to indoctrinate students in/with a narrow set of political beliefs.
– in•doc•tri•na•tion /ɪnˌdɑːktrəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the indoctrination of the new recruits

In•do–Eu•ro•pe•an /ˌɪndoʊˌjʊrəˈpiːjən/ adj : of or relating to a group of languages that includes many of the languages spoken in Europe, in the parts of the world colonized by Europeans, and in parts of Asia ▪ Hindi, Polish, and English are Indo-European languages.

in•do•lent /ˈɪndələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not liking to work or be active : LAZY ▪ an indolent young man ▪ She is indolent and irresponsible.
– in•do•lence /ˈɪndələns/ noun [noncount] ▪ Some argue that television encourages indolence. – in•do•lent•ly adv

in•dom•i•ta•ble /ɪnˈdɑːmətəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to defeat or discourage ▪ Her spirit was indomitable. [=unconquerable] ▪ her indomitable courage/strength/will – in•dom•i•ta•bly /ɪnˈdɑːmətəbli/ adv ▪ indomitably courageous in•door /ˈɪnˌdoə/ adj, always used before a noun : done, living, located, or used inside a building ▪ an indoor sport ▪ an indoor pet [=a pet that only lives inside] ▪ an indoor pool — compare OUTDOOR in•doors /ˈɪnˈdoəz/ adv : in, inside, or into a building ▪ The game will be played indoors. ▪ He worked indoors all afternoon. ▪ We went indoors when it began to rain. — compare OUTDOORS

indorse, indorsement variant spellings of ENDORSE, ENDORSEMENT

in•du•bi•ta•ble /ɪnˈduːbətəbəl, Brit ɪnˈdjuːbətəbəl/ adj, formal : certainly true : not able to be doubted ▪ an indubitable truth – in•du•bi•ta•bly /ɪnˈduːbətəbli, Brit ɪnˈdjuːbətəbli/ adv ▪ He was indubitably [=undoubtedly] the most capable officer on the staff.

in•duce /ɪnˈduːs, Brit ɪnˈdjuːs/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj]
1 somewhat formal : to cause (someone or something) to do something ▪ The advertisement is meant to induce people to eat more fruit. ▪ No one knows what induced him to leave.
2 : to cause (something) to happen or exist ▪ medication to induce vomiting ▪ Her illness was induced by overwork. ▪ drug-induced sleep ▪ a stress-induced illness
3 medical : to give (a pregnant woman) special medicine in order to make her give birth ▪ The mother was induced. : to cause (labor or birth) to begin by giving special drugs to a pregnant woman ▪ They will induce labor to avoid complications.
– in•duc•er noun, pl -ers [count] technical ▪ He uses the herb as a sleep inducer.

in•duce•ment /ɪnˈduːsmənt, Brit ɪnˈdjuːsmənt/ noun, pl -ments formal : something that gives you a reason for doing something and makes you want to do it [count] Was his decision influenced by any illegal financial inducements? ▪ Employees were offered a bonus as an inducement to finish the project on schedule. [noncount] The low interest rate was little inducement for individuals to save money.

in•duct /ɪnˈdʌkt/ verb -ducts; -duct•ed; -duct•ing [+ obj]
1 : to have (someone) officially begin a new job, position, or government office — usually used as (be) inducted; usually + into ▪ The new president was inducted into office last year.
2 a : to officially make (someone) a member of a group or organization ▪ The club will induct six new members this year. — usually used as (be) inducted; usually + into ▪ She was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. b US : to enroll (someone) for military training or service — usually used as (be) inducted; usually + into ▪ He was inducted into the army.
– in•duct•ee /ɪnˌdʌkˈtiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] chiefly US ▪ After the ceremony, we met the new inductees. [=the people who had just been inducted]

in•duc•tion /ɪnˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : the formal act or process of placing someone into a new job, position, government office, etc. ▪ Many people attended the bishop's induction. ▪ The induction ceremony was held at a banquet hall. b US : the formal act of making someone a member of the military ▪ the registration and induction of draftees
2 [noncount] medical : the act of giving a pregnant woman special drugs so that she will give birth ▪ induction of labor
3 [noncount] technical : a kind of reasoning that uses particular examples in order to reach a general conclusion about something
4 [noncount] technical : the process by which an electric current, an electric charge, or magnetism is produced in objects by being close to an electric or magnetic field in•duc•tive /ɪnˈdʌktɪv/ adj, technical : using particular examples to reach a general conclusion about something ▪ inductive reasoning

in•dulge /ɪnˈdʌlʤ/ verb -dulg•es; -dulged; -dulg•ing
1 : to allow (yourself) to have or do something as a special pleasure [+ obj] It's my birthday. I'm going to indulge myself and eat whatever I want to eat. — often + in ▪ He indulged himself in the pleasure of a day spent entirely at the beach. [no obj] It's my birthday. I'm going to indulge. — often + in ▪ For our anniversary, we indulged in an expensive dinner.
2 [+ obj] a : to allow (someone) to have or do something even though it may not be proper, healthy, appropriate, etc. ▪ He knows that his aunt is always willing to indulge [=spoil] him. ▪ They always indulged their grandchildren's whims. [=they always allowed their grandchildren to do whatever they wanted to do] b : to patiently allow (someone) to do or say something ▪ Please indulge me while I review the topics we covered yesterday.
3 [+ obj] : to do the things that you want to do because of (a feeling, interest, desire, etc.) ▪ The museum is an excellent place to let children indulge their curiosity about dinosaurs. ▪ She bought a house with a big yard so that she could indulge her passion for gardening.
indulge in [phrasal verb] indulge in (something) : to become involved in (something, especially something that is considered wrong or improper) ▪ Both candidates have promised not to indulge in [=take part in] further personal attacks for the remainder of the campaign.

in•dul•gence /ɪnˈdʌlʤəns/ noun, pl -genc•es
1 [noncount] : the behavior or attitude of people who allow themselves to do what they want or who allow other people to do what they want ▪ She lived a life of selfish indulgence. ▪ They treated the sick boy with indulgence. = They showed great indulgence toward the sick boy. ▪ Ladies and gentlemen, I ask your indulgence [=patience] for a moment while my assistant prepares the next act. — see also SELF-INDULGENCE
2 [noncount] : the act of doing something that you enjoy but that is usually thought of as wrong or unhealthy ▪ his indulgence in forbidden pleasures
3 [count] : something that is done or enjoyed as a special pleasure ▪ She found that she couldn't afford the indulgences she had once enjoyed. ▪ For our anniversary we allowed ourselves the indulgence of an elegant dinner at our favorite restaurant. ▪ Good food is my only indulgence.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

in•dul•gent /ɪnˈdʌldʒənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 sometimes disapproving : willing to allow someone to have or enjoy something even though it may not be proper, healthy, appropriate, etc. ▪ These children are being spoiled by (overly) indulgent parents. ▪ He gave the child an indulgent smile. — see also SELF-INDULGENT
2 : done or enjoyed as a special pleasure ▪ an indulgent dessert
– in•dul•gent•ly adv ▪ She smiled indulgently.

in•dus•tri•al /ɪnˈdʌstrijəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to industry : of or relating to factories, the people who work in factories, or the things made in factories ▪ industrial development ▪ There are thousands of industrial uses for plastic. ▪ an industrial engineer ▪ He had an industrial accident. [=an accident at work]
2 [more ~; most ~] : having a developed industry : having factories that actively make a product ▪ an industrial nation/region/city
3 : coming from or used in industry : made or used in factories ▪ industrial diamonds ▪ an industrial chemical; also : stronger than most other products of its kind ▪ an industrial cleaner – in•dus•tri•al•ly adv ▪ industrially made glass ▪ Most crops are grown industrially. [=by large corporations and not individual farmers]

industrial action noun, pl ~ -tions [count] Brit : JOB ACTION industrial arts noun [noncount] US : a subject that teaches students how to work with tools and machines ▪ Industrial arts is her favorite class.

industrial estate noun, pl ~ -tates [count] Brit : INDUSTRIAL PARK in•dus•tri•al•ism /ɪnˈdʌstrijəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a social system in which industry and factories are the basis of a country's economy in•dus•tri•al•ist /ɪnˈdʌstrijəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : someone who owns or manages an industry ▪ a meeting of industrialists to discuss environmental issues in•dus•tri•al•ize also Brit in•dus•tri•al•ise /ɪnˈdʌstrijəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing : to build and operate factories and businesses in a city, region, country, etc. [+ obj] The government hopes to industrialize some of the agricultural regions. [no obj] This region industrialized [=this region gained industry] before the rest of the country.

– in•dus•tri•al•i•za•tion also Brit in•dus•tri•al•i•sa•tion /ɪnˌdʌstrijələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ɪnˌdʌstrijəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The country is in the early stages of industrialization. – industrialized also Brit industrialised adj ▪ industrialized regions/nations industrial park noun, pl ~ parks [count] US : an area outside of a town or city that is designed especially for factories or offices — called also (Brit) industrial estate industrial relations noun [plural] : the ways in which businesses relate to and deal with workers, the government, and the public

Industrial Revolution noun
the Industrial Revolution : the major social and economic changes that occurred in Britain, Europe, and the U.S. in the late 18th and early 19th centuries when new machinery, new sources of power, and new ways of manufacturing products were developed industrial–strength adj, often humorous : stronger, more powerful, or more intense than others of its kind ▪ She was wearing industrial-strength boots. ▪ He served us industrial-strength coffee.

in•dus•tri•ous /ɪnˈdʌstrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : working very hard : not lazy ▪ He is an industrious worker.
– in•dus•tri•ous•ly adv ▪ She was working industriously.
– in•dus•tri•ous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He was praised for his industriousness.

in•dus•try /ˈɪndəstri/ noun, pl -tries
1 a [noncount] : the process of making products by using machinery and factories ▪ He favors policies that promote industry. b [count] : a group of businesses that provide a particular product or service ▪ the automobile/oil/computer industry ▪ the tourist/entertainment industry ▪ She invested in several large industries. ▪ She became so popular that a whole industry grew up around her and her image. — see also CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY, COTTAGE INDUSTRY
2 [noncount] : the habit of working hard and steadily ▪ She is admired for her industry. [=industriousness]

ine•bri•at•ed /iˈniːbriˌeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : affected by drinking too much alcohol : DRUNK ▪ He was clearly inebriated when he left the bar.
– ine•bri•a•tion /iˌniːbriˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ public inebriation [=drunkenness] in•ed•i•ble /ɪnˈɛdəbəl/ adj : not suitable or safe to eat : not edible ▪ inedible mushrooms ▪ The steak was overcooked, but not inedible.

in•ef•fa•ble /ɪnˈɛfəbəl/ adj, formal : too great, powerful, beautiful, etc., to be described or expressed ▪ She felt ineffable [=inexpressible] joy at the sight of her children. ▪ His paintings have an ineffable [=indescribable] beauty.
– in•ef•fa•bly /ɪnˈɛfəbli/ adv ▪ an ineffably beautiful film in•ef•fec•tive /ˌɪnəˈfɛktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not producing or having the effect you want : not effective ▪ The treatment was ineffective against the disease. ▪ an ineffective law/leader – in•ef•fec•tive•ly adv ▪ She argued her point ineffectively.

– in•ef•fec•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He has been criticized for his ineffectiveness as a leader.

in•ef•fec•tu•al /ˌɪnəˈfɛktʃəwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not producing or able to produce the effect you want ▪ an ineffectual politician ▪ an ineffectual struggle – in•ef•fec•tu•al•ly /ˌɪnəˈfɛktʃəwəli/ adv ▪ They struggled ineffectually for reform.

in•ef• •cien •cy /ˌɪnəˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies : the lack of ability to do something or produce something without wasting materials, time, or energy : the quality or state of being inefficient [noncount] The candidate blamed her opponent for the local government's inefficiency. [count] She claims that money can be saved by reducing inefficiencies.

in•ef• •cient /ˌɪnəˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not capable of producing desired results without wasting materials, time, or energy : not efficient ▪ an inefficient worker ▪ The delivery system was very inefficient. ▪ an inefficient use of fuel – in•ef• •cient •ly adv ▪ The engine uses fuel inefficiently.

in•el•e•gant /ɪnˈɛlәgənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not graceful, attractive, or polite : not elegant ▪ an inelegant dancer ▪ inelegant language – in•el•e•gance /ɪnˈɛlәgəns/ noun [noncount] formal – in•el•e•gant•ly adv ▪ an inelegantly named car in•el•i•gi•ble /ɪnˈɛlәdʒәbəl/ adj : not allowed to do or be something : not eligible ▪ Previously ineligible patients may now be able to participate in the study. ▪ She was ineligible for the contest. = She was ineligible to participate in the contest. ▪ They are ineligible for a loan.

– in•el•i•gi•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌɛlәdʒәˈbɪlәti/ noun [noncount]

in•eluc•ta•ble /ˌɪnɪˈlʌktәbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be avoided or changed ▪ You cannot escape an ineluctable [=unavoidable] fate. ▪ an ineluctable conclusion
– in•eluc•ta•bly /ˌɪnɪˈlʌktәbli/ adv

in•ept /ɪˈnɛpt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : lacking skill or ability ▪ an inept mechanic ▪ He was completely inept at sports. ▪ a socially inept teenager [=a teenager who is shy or awkward around other people]
2 : showing a lack of skill or ability : not done well ▪ inept planning ▪ He made an inept attempt to apologize. — compare INAPT
– in•ept•ly adv ▪ It was ineptly done. – in•ept•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the ineptness of the coaching staff in•ep•ti•tude /ɪˈnɛptәˌtuːd, Brit ɪˈnɛptәˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] : a lack of skill or ability ▪ The team's poor play is being blamed on the ineptitude of the coaching staff. ▪ social ineptitude

in•equal•i•ty /ˌɪnɪˈkwɑːlәti/ noun, pl -ties : an unfair situation in which some people have more rights or better opportunities than other people [noncount] social/sexual/economic/racial inequality ▪ They discussed the problem of inequality between students. ▪ He accused the company of inequality in its hiring practices. [count] He has proposed a new system designed to remove inequalities in health care. ▪ the inequalities of education/income in•eq•ui•ta•ble /ɪnˈɛkwәtәbәl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not fair or equal : UNFAIR ▪ They protested the inequitable treatment of employees.

– in•eq•ui•ta•bly /ɪnˈɛkwәtәbli/ adv ▪ The law is being applied inequitably. [=unfairly]

in•eq•ui•ty /ɪnˈɛkwәti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] : lack of fairness : unfair treatment ▪ She has been a leader in the fight against racial inequity. [=injustice]
2 [count] : something that is unfair ▪ the inequities in wages paid to men and women ▪ educational inequities

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

Do not confuse inequity with iniquity.

in•erad•i•ca•ble /ˌɪnɪˈrædɪkəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to remove or forget ▪ an ineradicable problem ▪ She made an ineradicable impression on us.

in•ert /ɪˈnɚt/ adj
1 : unable to move ▪ an inert and lifeless body
2 [more ~; most ~] : moving or acting very slowly ▪ How does he propose to stimulate the inert economy and create jobs? ▪ a politically inert government
3 chemistry : not able to affect other chemicals when in contact with them : not chemically reactive ▪ an inert gas ▪ inert ingredients – in•ert•ly adv ▪ He sat inertly in front of the television. – in•ert•ness noun [noncount] ▪ chemical inertness

in•er•tia /ɪˈnɚʃə/ noun [noncount]
1 a : lack of movement or activity especially when movement or activity is wanted or needed ▪ He blames governmental/bureaucratic inertia for the holdup. b : a feeling of not having the energy or desire that is needed to move, change, etc. ▪ After 10 years in an unsatisfying job she overcame her inertia and went back to school.
2 physics : a property of matter by which something that is not moving remains still and something that is moving goes at the same speed and in the same direction until another thing or force affects it – in•er•tial /ɪˈnɚʃəl/ adj, physics ▪ an inertial sensor in•es•cap•able /ˌɪnəˈskeɪpəbəl/ adj : impossible to deny or avoid ▪ It's an inescapable truth that these problems have no easy solution. ▪ an inescapable conclusion – in•es•cap•ably /ˌɪnəˈskeɪpəbli/ adv ▪ an inescapably obvious truth in•es•sen•tial /ˌɪnəˈsɛnʃəl/ adj, formal : not needed : not essential ▪ inessential details

– inessential noun, pl -tials [count]

in•es•ti•ma•ble /ɪnˈɛstəməbəl/ adj, formal : too great, valuable, or excellent to be measured ▪ He has made inestimable contributions to our society. ▪ inestimable value/worth in•ev•i•ta•ble /ɪˈnɛvətəbəl/ adj : sure to happen ▪ the inevitable result ▪ Some criticism was inevitable. [=unavoidable]

the inevitable : something that is sure to happen ▪ They're just trying to delay/postpone the inevitable.
– in•ev•i•ta•bil•i•ty /ɪˌnɛvətəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the inevitability of change – in•ev•i•ta•bly /ɪˈnɛvətəbli/ adv ▪ The changes inevitably resulted in criticism.

in•ex•act /ˌɪnɪgˈzækt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not completely correct or precise : not exact ▪ The measurements were somewhat inexact, but they were close enough. ▪ an inexact word/calculation/description
– in•ex•act•ness noun [noncount]

in•ex•cus•able /ˌɪnɪkˈskjuːzəbəl/ adj : too bad or wrong to be excused or ignored ▪ her inexcusable rudeness ▪ The mistake was inexcusable.
– in•ex•cus•ably /ˌɪnɪkˈskjuːzəbli/ adv ▪ The salesperson was inexcusably rude. ▪ He behaved inexcusably.

in•ex•haust•ible /ˌɪnɪgˈzɑːstəbəl/ adj : impossible to use up completely : impossible to exhaust ▪ The world's supply of oil is not inexhaustible. ▪ He seems to have inexhaustible energy.
– in•ex•haust•ibly /ˌɪnɪgˈzɑːstəbli/ adv ▪ We do not have an inexhaustibly large supply of oil.

in•ex•o•ra•ble /ɪnˈɛksərəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be stopped or changed ▪ an inexorable conclusion ▪ the inexorable rise of a political movement – in•ex•o•ra•bi•li•ty /ɪnˌɛksərəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – in•ex•o•ra•bly /ɪnˈɛksərəbli/ adv ▪ We are inexorably linked to the past. ▪ Will a break in negotiations lead inexorably to conflict?

in•ex•pen•sive /ˌɪnɪkˈspɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : low in price : not expensive ▪ The hotel room was surprisingly inexpensive. [=cheap] ▪ an inexpensive meal – in•ex•pen•sive•ly adv ▪ Everything at that store is priced fairly inexpensively.

in•ex•pe•ri•ence /ˌɪnɪkˈspirijəns/ noun [noncount] : lack of experience ▪ He blames his mistakes on inexperience.
– in•ex•pe•ri•enced /ˌɪnɪkˈspirijənst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She's an inexperienced driver.

in•ex•pert /ɪnˈɛkspɚt/ adj, formal : not skillful at doing something ▪ an inexpert tailor ▪ The painting looks to be fake to my inexpert [=untrained] eye.
– in•ex•pert•ly adv ▪ It was inexpertly painted.

in•ex•pli•ca•ble /ˌɪnɪkˈsplɪkəbəl, ɪnˈɛksplɪkəbəl/ adj : not able to be explained or understood ▪ an inexplicable mystery ▪ He had a series of seemingly inexplicable accidents.
– in•ex•pli•ca•bly /ˌɪnɪkˈsplɪkəbli, ɪnˈɛksplɪkəbli/ adv ▪ The files have inexplicably disappeared.

in•ex•press•ible /ˌɪnɪkˈspresəbəl/ adj, somewhat formal : too strong or great to be expressed or described ▪ inexpressible joy/pain
– in•ex•press•ibly /ˌɪnɪkˈspresəbli/ adv ▪ an inexpressibly sad story in ex•tre•mis /ˌɪnɪkˈstriːməs/ adv, formal

1 : at the point of death ▪ a patient in extremis
2 : in a very difficult situation ▪ They are helping a family in extremis.

in•ex•tri•ca•ble /ˌɪnɪkˈstrɪkəbəl, ɪnˈɛkstrɪkəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to separate : closely joined or related ▪ He argues that there is an inextricable link between poverty and poor health.
– in•ex•tri•ca•bly /ˌɪnɪkˈstrɪkəbli, ɪnˈɛkstrɪkəbli/ adv ▪ He claims poverty is inextricably linked to poor health. ▪ Our lives are bound inextricably with others.

in•fal•li•ble /ɪnˈfæləbəl/ adj
1 : not capable of being wrong or making mistakes : not fallible ▪ I never claimed to be infallible. ▪ an infallible memory
2 : certain to work properly or succeed ▪ There is no infallible remedy to these problems.
– in•fal•li•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌfælәˈbɪlәti/ noun [noncount] ▪ I never made any claims of infallibility. — see also PAPAL INFALLIBILITY – in•fal•li•bly /ɪnˈfæləbli/ adv ▪ The computer program can infallibly identify each type of file.

in•fa•mous /ˈɪnfəməs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : well-known for being bad : known for evil acts or crimes ▪ an infamous traitor ▪ a city infamous for poverty and crime
2 : causing people to think you are bad or evil ▪ He committed an infamous crime. ▪ (humorous) We experienced some of the city's infamous weather.
– in•fa•mous•ly adv ▪ an infamously shocking crime

in•fa•my /ˈɪnfəmi/ noun, pl -mies
1 [noncount] : the condition of being known for having done bad things or for being evil ▪ He never escaped the infamy his crimes had earned him. ▪ a day of infamy [=an infamous day; a day on which something very bad happened]
2 [count] formal : an evil or terrible act — usually plural ▪ The book recounts the infamies committed by the regime.

in•fan•cy /ˈɪnfənsi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the first part of a child's life : the time in your life when you are a baby ▪ She was often sick during her infancy. ▪ a skill developed in infancy
2 : a beginning : an early stage of development ▪ She has been a member of the church since its infancy. ▪ when the Internet was still in its infancy [=very new]

[1]in•fant /ˈɪnfənt/ noun, pl -fants [count] : a very young child : BABY ▪ The infant was healthy. ▪ a study of health problems that can affect young infants ▪ He showed us a picture of his infant daughter.

[2]infant adj, always used before a noun
1 : made or suitable for babies ▪ infant formula ▪ an infant bathtub
2 Brit : of, relating to, or for children between the ages of about four and seven ▪ children attending infant school [=a school for young children] ▪ She is an infant teacher.
3 : very new and still developing ▪ our infant steel industry ▪ an infant navy in•fan•ti•cide /ɪnˈfæntəˌsaɪd/ noun [noncount] : the act of killing a baby

in•fan•tile /ˈɪnfənˌtajəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : annoying and childish : very silly in a way that is not appropriate or polite ▪ His behavior was infantile. ▪ infantile jokes
2 always used before a noun, medical : affecting babies or very young children ▪ infantile diseases infantile paralysis noun [noncount] old-fashioned : POLIO

in•fan•try /ˈɪnfəntri/ noun : the part of an army that has soldiers who fight on foot [noncount] He joined the infantry after leaving school. ▪ The infantry is coming. [plural] The infantry are coming. — compare CAVALRY in•fan•try•man /ˈɪnfəntrimən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a soldier who is in the infantry in•fat•u•ated /ɪnˈfæʧəˌweɪtəd/ adj : filled with foolish or very strong love or admiration — usually + with ▪ He was infatuated with his teacher. ▪ She became infatuated with the charms of city life.

in•fat•u•a•tion /ɪnˌfæʧəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a feeling

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

of foolish or very strong love or admiration for someone or something [noncount] The attraction he felt for her was just infatuation, not true love. ▪ They condemn society's infatuation with Hollywood. [count] It was just an infatuation. ▪ She had a series of frivolous infatuations with younger men.

in•fect /ɪnˈfɛkt/ verb -fects; -fect•ed; -fect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone or something) to become sick or affected by disease ▪ If you're sick you should stay home to avoid infecting other people in the office. ▪ The virus has infected many people. ▪ They were unable to prevent bacteria from infecting the wound. — often used as (be) infected ▪ He was infected by a coworker. ▪ He was infected with AIDS.
2 a : to cause (someone) to feel an emotion — usually + with ▪ She has infected everyone with her enthusiasm. [=her enthusiasm has made other people feel enthusiastic too] b of an emotion : to spread to (other people) ▪ Her enthusiasm has infected everyone.
3 of a computer virus : to cause (a computer or computer file) to stop working as it should ▪ The virus has infected many computers. ▪ All the computers in the office were infected by/with the same virus.

infected adj
1 a : containing germs that cause disease ▪ an infected wound b : having a disease caused by germs ▪ infected children
2 : affected by a computer virus ▪ an infected file/computer

in•fec•tion /ɪnˈfɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of infecting someone or something : the state of being infected ▪ Poor hygiene can increase the danger of infection. ▪ The wound has so far remained free of infection. ▪ steps you can take to decrease your computer's risk of infection
2 [count] : a disease caused by germs that enter the body ▪ viral/bacterial infections ▪ a painful ear infection

in•fec•tious /ɪnˈfɛkʃəs/ adj
1 a : capable of causing infection ▪ viruses and other infectious agents b [more ~; most ~] : capable of being passed to someone else by germs that enter the body ▪ an acute infectious illness ▪ a highly infectious disease — compare CONTAGIOUS c : suffering from a disease that can be spread to other people by germs ▪ an infectious patient
2 [more ~; most ~] : capable of being easily spread to other people ▪ Their enthusiasm was infectious. [=contagious] ▪ She has an infectious grin. ▪ infectious laughter – in•fec•tious•ly adv ▪ infectiously cheerful/enthusiastic

in•fer /ɪnˈfɚ/ verb -fers; -ferred; -fer•ring [+ obj]
1 : to form (an opinion) from evidence : to reach (a conclusion) based on known facts ▪ It's difficult to infer how these changes will affect ordinary citizens. — often + from ▪ She said she was pleased, but her true feelings could be inferred from the look of disappointment on her face. — often + that ▪ I inferred from his silence that he was angry about my decision. — compare IMPLY
2 informal : to hint or suggest (something) : IMPLY ▪ Are you inferring that I'm wrong? ✧ Many people regard this use of infer as an error, but it occurs commonly in spoken English.

in•fer•ence /ˈɪnfɚəns/ noun, pl -enc•es
1 [noncount] : the act or process of reaching a conclusion about something from known facts or evidence ▪ Its existence is only known by inference.
2 [count] : a conclusion or opinion that is formed because of known facts or evidence ▪ The program uses records of past purchases to make/draw inferences about what customers will buy in the future. ▪ What inference can we draw from these facts?

[1]in•fe•ri•or /ɪnˈfiriɚ/ adj
1 : of poor quality : low or lower in quality ▪ inferior goods/materials/products ▪ an inferior performer/performance ▪ These pearls are of inferior quality. — often + to ▪ These pearls are inferior (in quality) to others I have seen.
2 : of little or less importance or value ▪ They were considered a socially inferior group. ▪ He always felt inferior around his brother. — often + to ▪ He always felt inferior to his brother.
3 : low or lower in rank ▪ The judges voted to overturn a ruling made by an inferior court.
– in•fe•ri•or•i•ty /ɪnˌfiriˈɔrəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the inferiority of the cheaper materials ▪ He had a sense of social inferiority among wealthy people.

[2]inferior noun, pl -ors [count] : a person of low rank or status ▪ She treated her employees as social inferiors.

inferiority complex noun, pl ~ -plexes [count] : a belief that you are less worthy or important than other people ▪ His shyness is the result of an inferiority complex.

in•fer•nal /ɪnˈfɚnl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 literary : of or relating to hell ▪ the infernal regions of the dead
2 informal + old-fashioned : very bad or unpleasant ▪ Stop making that infernal racket! ▪ an infernal nuisance/pest – in•fer•nal•ly /ɪnˈfɚnḷi/ adv ▪ an infernally [=extremely] difficult problem in•fer•no /ɪnˈfɚnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] : a very large and dangerous fire ▪ By the time help arrived, the fire had grown to a raging inferno.

in•fer•tile /ɪnˈfɚtḷ/ adj : not fertile: such as a : not able to reproduce : not able to produce children, young animals, etc. ▪ infertile married couples ▪ an infertile man/woman b : not suited for raising crops : unable to support the growth of plants ▪ infertile soil ▪ infertile land/fields – in•fer•til•i•ty /ɪnˌfɚˈtɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ male/female infertility ▪ the infertility of the land in•fest /ɪnˈfɛst/ verb -fests; -fest•ed; -fest•ing [+ obj] of something harmful or unwanted : to be in or over (a place, an animal, etc.) in large numbers ▪ Lice infested his scalp. — often used as (be) infested ▪ The area was infested with snakes/insects. [=there was a very large number of snake/insects in the area] ▪ The trees were infested by/with caterpillars. ▪ a neighborhood infested with crime ▪ shark-infested waters – in•fes•ta•tion /ˌɪnˌfɛˈsteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] an infestation of caterpillars [noncount] There were signs of insect infestation.

in• •del /ˈɪnfədl/ noun, pl -dels [count] disapproving : a person who does not believe in a religion that someone regards as the true religion ▪ a holy war against the infidels in• •del•i•ty /ˌɪnfəˈdɛləti/ noun, pl -ties : the act or fact of having a romantic or sexual relationship with someone other than your husband, wife, or partner [noncount] She was convinced that her husband was guilty of infidelity. [count] He has admitted to a number of marital infidelities.

in• eld /ˈɪnˌfi:ld/ noun, pl - elds [count]
1 a : the part of a baseball field that includes the area within and around the three bases and home plate ▪ He threw the ball across the infield. — often used before another noun ▪ an infield grounder ▪ an infield hit b : the part of a cricket field that is close to the wickets c : the players who are positioned in the infield ▪ The team has one of the best infields in the league. — compare OUTFIELD
2 chiefly US : the area that a racetrack or running track goes around : the area inside a track – in• eld•er /ˈɪnˌfi:ldɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US ▪ a skillful infielder [=a baseball player who plays in the infield]

in• ght •ing /ˈɪnˌfaɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : fighting or disagreement among the members of a group or organization ▪ political infighting

in• l•trate /ɪnˈfɪlˌtreɪt, ˈɪnfɪlˌtreɪt/ verb -trates; -trat•ed; -trat•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to secretly enter or join (something, such as a group or an organization) in order to get information or do harm ▪ The gang was infiltrated by undercover agents. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ An attitude of cynicism has infiltrated the staff. [=the staff has become cynical] b : to cause (someone) to secretly enter or join a group, organization, etc. ▪ Attempts to infiltrate undercover agents into the gang have failed.
2 technical : to pass into or through (something) ▪ Water can easily infiltrate the soil.
– in• l•tra•tion /ˌɪnfɪlˈtreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the infiltration of undercover agents into the gang – in• l•tra•tor /ɪnˈfɪlˌtreɪtɚ, ˈɪnfɪlˌtreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The gang discovered an infiltrator among its members.

in• •nite /ˈɪnfənət/ adj
1 : having no limits : ENDLESS ▪ infinite space ▪ an infinite series of numbers
2 : extremely large or great ▪ She has infinite patience when she's dealing with children. ▪ There seemed to be an infinite number of possibilities. ▪ an infinite variety of choices – in• •nite•ly adv ▪ The universe is infinitely large. ▪ infinitely subtle variations ▪ an infinitely large number in• n•i•tes•i•mal /ˌɪnˌfɪnəˈtɛsəməl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely small ▪ an infinitesimal moment in time ▪ an infinitesimal difference – in• n•i•tes•i•mal•ly /ˌɪnˌfɪnəˈtɛsəməli/ adv ▪ an infinitesimally small difference in• n•i•tive /ɪnˈfɪnətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] grammar

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

: the basic form of a verb ✧ In English the infinitive form of a verb is usually used with to ("I asked him to go") except with modal verbs like should and could ("He should go") and certain other verbs like see and hear ("I saw him go"). — see also SPLIT INFINITIVE

– in nitive adj ▪ an infinitive clause/form/phrase

in• n•i•ty /ɪnˈfɪnəti/ noun

1 [noncount] a : the quality of having no limits or end : the quality of being infinite ▪ the infinity of space b : a space, amount, or period of time that has no limits or end ▪ The view tapers off into infinity. ▪ a series of numbers that continues to infinity

2 [singular] : a very great number or amount ▪ The night sky was filled with an infinity of stars. ▪ an infinity of choices in• rm /ɪnˈfɚm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a condition of weakness or illness that usually lasts for a long time and is caused especially by old age ▪ The clinic provides free care for elderly and infirm people who lack health insurance. ▪ mentally and physically infirm

the infirm : people who are weak, ill, etc. : infirm people ▪ providing care for the elderly and the infirm

in• r•ma•ry /ɪnˈfɚməri/ noun, pl -ries [count]

1 : a place where sick people stay and are cared for in a school, prison, summer camp, etc. ▪ One of the students became ill and was sent to the infirmary.

2 Brit : HOSPITAL — used especially in names ▪ the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary

in• r•mi•ty /ɪnˈfɚməti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being weak or ill especially because of old age ▪ In recent years she has had to reduce her schedule because of age and infirmity.

2 [count] : a disease or illness that usually lasts for a long time ▪ the infirmities of old age

in• ame /ɪnˈfleɪm/ verb - ames ; - amed ; - am •ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cause (a person or group) to become angry or violent ▪ His angry speech inflamed the mob. b : to make (something) more active, angry, or violent ▪ ideas that inflame the imagination ▪ His comments have inflamed an already tense situation. ▪ inflaming the passions of the mob

2 : to cause (a part of your body) to grow sore, red, and swollen ▪ a chemical that can inflame the skin in amed adj [more ~; most ~] of a part of your body : sore, red, and swollen from disease, injury, etc. ▪ an inflamed appendix ▪ inflamed skin in• am•ma•ble /ɪnˈflæməbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : capable of being set on fire and of burning quickly : FLAMMABLE ▪ highly inflammable chemicals

2 : easily excited or angered ▪ an inflammable temper in• am•ma•tion /ˌɪnfləˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a condition in which a part of your body becomes red, swollen, and painful [noncount] The drug is used to reduce inflammation. [count] a chronic inflammation ▪ inflammations of the throat and ears

in• am•ma•to•ry /ɪnˈflæməˌtori, Brit ɪnˈflæmətri/ adj

1 medical : causing or having inflammation ▪ inflammatory diseases ▪ chronic inflammatory conditions ▪ She had an acute inflammatory reaction to the drug. — compare ANTI-INFLAMMATORY

2 [more ~; most ~] : causing anger ▪ He incited the mob with an inflammatory speech. ▪ inflammatory remarks/language in• ate /ɪnˈfleɪt/ verb - ates ; - at•ed ; - at•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to add air or gas to (something, such as a tire or a balloon) and make it larger ▪ We used a pump to inflate the raft. ▪ inflate [=blow up] a balloon b [no obj] : to become larger by being filled with air or gas ▪ The balloon slowly inflated. — opposite DEFLATE

2 [+ obj] a : to think or say that (something) is larger or more important than it really is ▪ His memoirs inflate [=exaggerate] his contributions to the war effort. b : to cause (a person's ego, reputation, etc.) to become too large or great ▪ All the publicity was inflating his ego. [=was making him too proud and conceited]

3 : to increase prices, costs, etc., in a way that is not normal or expected [+ obj] Economists warn that rapid economic growth could inflate prices. ▪ Increased competition has inflated salaries among professional athletes. [no obj] Rapid economic growth may cause prices to inflate.

– in• at•able /ɪnˈfleɪtəbəl/ adj ▪ an inflatable raft

in ated adj

1 : filled and made larger with air or gas ▪ an inflated balloon/raft

2 a : too large or high ▪ He has an inflated opinion of his value to the company. [=he thinks he is more valuable than he really is] ▪ He has an inflated ego. [=he has an overly high opinion of himself] ▪ a writer with an inflated reputation ▪ inflated [=exaggerated] claims of greatness b of language : too serious or fancy ▪ an inflated style of writing ▪ inflated [=overblown] language

3 of prices, wages, etc. : too high : increased to a level that is not normal or proper ▪ She objects to the inflated salaries that many professional athletes now receive. ▪ inflated prices

in• a•tion /ɪnˈfleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 : an act of inflating something ▪ the inflation of a balloon : the state of being inflated ▪ It's important to maintain proper tire inflation. [=pressure]

2 : a continual increase in the price of goods and services ▪ The government has been unable to control/reduce/curb inflation. ▪ The rate of inflation is high/low/rising. ▪ The annual inflation rate is three percent. [=prices are rising three percent each year] ▪ economic inflation

in• a•tion•ary /ɪnˈfleɪʃəˌneri, Brit ɪnˈfleɪʃənri/ adj

1 : of or relating to economic inflation ▪ inflationary theories ▪ inflationary increases

2 [more ~; most ~] : causing, experiencing, or affected by economic inflation : causing, experiencing, or affected by rising prices ▪ He blames the bad economy on the government's inflationary policies. ▪ inflationary pressures ▪ an inflationary environment/period in• ect /ɪnˈflɛkt/ verb - ects ; - ect •ed; - ect •ing grammar : to change the form of a word when using it in a particular way [+ obj] Most nouns in English are inflected for plural use by adding "-s" or "-es." [no obj] Most nouns in English inflect for plural use by adding "-s" or "-es." ▪ Most adjectives in English do not inflect for gender or number.

– in ected adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Some languages are more (highly) inflected than others. [=the words in some languages change their forms for different uses more than the words in other languages] ▪ "Gone" and "went" are inflected forms of the verb "go."

in• ec•tion also Brit in• ex•ion /ɪnˈflɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : a rise or fall in the sound of a person's voice : a change in the pitch or tone of a person's voice [noncount] She spoke with no inflection. [count] She read the lines with an upward/rising inflection. ▪ vocal inflections

2 grammar a [noncount] : a change in the form of a word that occurs when it has a particular use ▪ Most English adjectives do not require inflection. b [count] : a form of a word that occurs when it has a particular use : an inflected form ▪ "Gone" and "went" are inflections of the verb "go." c [count] : a part of a word (such as a suffix) that is used to change a word's form for a particular use ▪ English has fewer inflections than many other languages.

– in• ec•tion•al also Brit in• ex•ion•al /ɪnˈflɛkʃənl/ adj ▪ inflectional rules/forms in• ex•i•ble /ɪnˈflɛksəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not flexible: such as a : not easily influenced or persuaded ▪ an inflexible judge b : not easily bent or twisted ▪ inflexible [=stiff] plastic c : not easily changed ▪ inflexible laws/rules ▪ an inflexible deadline/schedule

– in• ex•i•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌflɛksəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the inflexibility of the schedule – in• ex•i•bly /ɪnˈflɛksəbli/ adv

in• ict /ɪnˈflɪkt/ verb - icts ; - ict •ed; - ict •ing [+ obj] : to cause someone to experience or be affected by (something unpleasant or harmful) ▪ These insects are capable of inflicting a painful sting. ▪ inflict a wound ▪ inflict pain/injury/punishment/damage — often + on or upon ▪ He shows no regret for the suffering he has inflicted on/upon these innocent people. ▪ They continue to inflict their strange ideas about nutrition on/upon their children.

– in• ic•tion /ɪnˈflɪkʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the infliction of a knife wound ▪ the infliction of pain/guilt/humiliation

in– ight /ˈɪnˈflaɪt/ adj, always used before a noun : made, done, or provided while you are flying in an airplane ▪ an inflight meal/movie in• ow /ˈɪnˌfloʊ/ noun, pl - ows : a flow or movement of something into a place, organization, etc. [count] The campaign has seen a massive inflow of funds/money/cash in recent months. [noncount] The vents provide improved inflow of air/water. — opposite OUTFLOW

[1]in• u•ence /ˈɪnˌfluːwəns/ noun, pl -enc•es

1 : the power to change or affect someone or something

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

: the power to cause changes without directly forcing them to happen [noncount] Recent years have seen a decline in the company's influence within the industry. ▪ Her ideas have gradually gained influence in the company. ▪ He used/wielded his influence to reform the company's policies. ▪ She was under the influence of drugs. [=she was affected by drugs] ▪ He came under the influence of new ideas [=he was influenced by new ideas] when he went away to college. ▪ She has remained under the influence of her parents. — often + on, upon, or over ▪ She claims that her personal problems played/had no/little influence upon her decision to resign. ▪ His health problems may have had some influence on his decision. ▪ Her parents still have a great deal of influence over her. ▪ The chairman wields considerable influence over the board's decisions. [singular] Her parents are concerned that her new friends may have a bad influence on her. ▪ Emily Dickinson has had a major influence on his poetry. ▪ His health problems had a big influence on his decision. ▪ They exert a strong cultural/economic influence over their neighbors in the region.

2 [count] : a person or thing that affects someone or something in an important way ▪ My parents have been major influences in my life. ▪ Emily Dickinson has been a major influence on his poetry. ▪ Her parents are concerned that her new friends may be a bad influence on her. ▪ The decision was affected by outside influences.

under the influence : affected by alcohol : DRUNK ▪ He was arrested for driving under the influence.

²influence verb -ences; -enced; -enc•ing [+ obj] : to affect or change (someone or something) in an indirect but usually important way : to have an influence on (someone or something) ▪ I was deeply/greatly influenced by my parents. ▪ She claims that her decision to resign was not influenced by her personal problems. ▪ No one knows how this decision will influence the outcome of the election. ▪ He's accused of illegally attempting to influence the jury. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ No one knows what may have influenced them to commit these crimes.

in•flu•en•tial /ˌɪnfluˈɛnʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having the power to cause changes : having influence ▪ She became an (enormously/extremely) influential critic/writer. ▪ a highly/very influential book ▪ His theories have become more influential in recent years. ▪ My parents have been the most influential people in my life. — sometimes + in ▪ She has been influential in establishing programs to help the poor.
– in•flu•en•tial•ly /ˌɪnfluˈɛnʃəli/ adv

in•flu•en•za /ˌɪnfluˈɛnzə/ noun [noncount] medical : a common illness that is caused by a virus and that causes fever, weakness, severe aches and pains, and breathing problems ▪ patients suffering from influenza [=the flu]

in•flux /ˈɪnˌflʌks/ noun, pl -flux•es [count]
1 : the arrival of a large number of people ▪ The city is preparing for a large influx of tourists this summer.
2 : the arrival or inward flow of a large amount of something (such as money) ▪ The company has had a sudden influx of capital.

in•fo /ˈɪnfoʊ/ noun [noncount] informal : INFORMATION ▪ It contains a surprising amount of info for such a little book.

in•fo•mer•cial /ˈɪnfoʊˌməːʃəl/ noun, pl -cials [count] chiefly US : a television program that is a long advertisement and that usually includes people talking about and using the product that is being sold in•form /ɪnˈfoəm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing

1 : to give information to (someone) [+ obj] The book will entertain and inform you. ▪ The arresting officer failed to inform the suspect of his rights. ▪ He failed to inform the suspect that he had the right to remain silent. ▪ We haven't yet been informed of/about her decision. ▪ Frequent reports from the battlefield kept the general informed about how the attack was progressing. ▪ I am sorry to have to inform [=tell] you that your flight has been delayed. [no obj] The book will both entertain and inform.
2 [+ obj] formal : to be or provide the essential quality of (something) : to be very noticeable in (something) ▪ His Catholic upbringing informs all his writing.
inform on also inform against [phrasal verb] inform on/against (someone) : to give information about the secret or criminal activity of (someone) to the police ▪ Despite pressure from the police he refused to inform on the other conspirators.

in•for•mal /ɪnˈfoəməl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not formal: such as a : having a friendly and relaxed quality ▪ an informal party ▪ We had an informal meeting over lunch. ▪ an informal conversation ▪ an informal writing style ▪ He has an informal manner that puts people at ease. b : suited for ordinary use when you are relaxing ▪ informal clothes ▪ an informal dining area c of language : relaxed in tone : not suited for serious or official speech and writing ▪ He spoke to them in informal Spanish/English. ▪ The term is common in informal contexts. ▪ informal language/speech/writing ▪ an informal word d : done in a way that is not especially careful or scientific ▪ He took an informal poll/survey among his coworkers.
– in•for•mal•i•ty /ɪnˌfoəˈmæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ She liked the easy/casual informality of his manner. – in•for•mal•ly /ɪnˈfoəməli/ adv ▪ We met to discuss the situation informally. ▪ speak/write informally ▪ The word is used informally in this sense. ▪ She was informally dressed in blue jeans.

in•for•mant /ɪnˈfoəmənt/ noun, pl -mants [count]
1 : a person who gives information to the police about secret or criminal activities : INFORMER ▪ The police were alerted to the plot by a paid informant.
2 technical : a person who gives information about his or her culture or language to a researcher ▪ We learned the language with the help of a native informant.

in•for•ma•tion /ˌɪnfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : knowledge that you get about someone or something : facts or details about a subject ▪ They're working to collect/gather information about the early settlers in the region. ▪ The pamphlet provides a lot of information on/about/concerning recent changes to the tax laws. ▪ detailed/specific information ▪ He gave the police false/misleading information about his background. ▪ The conference will give us an opportunity to exchange/share information with other researchers. ▪ We can't make a decision until we have more/further/additional information. ▪ The tests have not yet uncovered any new information. ▪ I don't like having to reveal personal/private information when I fill in a job application. ▪ He's accused of withholding useful/valuable/vital information. ▪ My information is [=I have been told, I understand] that he will be arriving early this evening. ▪ We enclose a price list for your information. [=to provide you with information that we think will interest you] ✧ The phrase for your information is sometimes used informally in speech when responding to an annoying statement or question by someone who has accused or blamed you wrongly. ▪ "Are these the best tickets you could get?" "For your information, I had to stand in line for two hours to get these!"
2 US : a service that telephone users can call to find out the telephone number for a specified person or organization : DIRECTORY ASSISTANCE ▪ I couldn't remember his number so I had to call information.
– in•for•ma•tion•al /ˌɪnfəˈmeɪʃənl/ adj ▪ an informational brochure ▪ informational books information superhighway noun

the information superhighway : the Internet ▪ He claims he can find out anything he needs to know on the information superhighway.

in•for•ma•tive /ɪnˈfoəmətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : providing information ▪ a highly/very/most informative book

in•formed /ɪnˈfoəmd/ adj
1 : having information ▪ Informed sources told us of the new policy. ▪ fully informed citizens/consumers/voters ▪ Please keep me informed on any changes. [=please tell me about any changes when they happen]
2 : based on information ▪ We need to spend more time researching our options so that we can make an informed choice/decision. — see also informed guess at ²GUESS informed consent noun [singular] medical : a formal agreement that a patient signs to give permission for a medical procedure (such as surgery) after having been told about the risks, benefits, etc.

in•form•er /ɪnˈfoəmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who gives information to the police about secret or criminal activities ▪ He worked for the police/government as a paid informer. [=informant]

in•fo•tain•ment /ˌɪnfoʊˈteɪnmənt/ noun [noncount] : television programs that present information (such as news) in a way that is meant to be entertaining in•frac•tion /ɪnˈfrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : an act that breaks a rule or law : VIOLATION ▪ He was penalized for an infraction of the rules. = He was penalized for a rules infraction. ▪ a minor traffic infraction

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in•fra dig /ˈɪnfrəˈdɪg/ adj, chiefly Brit : not appropriate for a person's social position : beneath someone's dignity ▪ Isn't it a bit infra dig to go to a launderette when you can afford a washing machine of your own?

in•fra•red /ˌɪnfrəˈrɛd/ adj, technical : producing or using rays of light that cannot be seen and that are longer than rays that produce red light ▪ infrared radiation/beams ▪ infrared photography

in•fra•struc•ture /ˈɪnfrəˌstrʌkʧə/ noun, pl -tures : the basic equipment and structures (such as roads and bridges) that are needed for a country, region, or organization to function properly [noncount] More money is needed to save the crumbling infrastructure of the nation's rural areas. ▪ We need to spend more money on maintaining and repairing infrastructure. [count] town/city infrastructures
– in•fra•struc•tur•al /ˈɪnfrəˌstrʌkʧərəl/ adj ▪ infrastructural maintenance and repair

in•fre•quent /ɪnˈfri:kwənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not happening often : not frequent ▪ an infrequent event ▪ We made infrequent stops/visits along the way. ▪ Problems with the network have become a not infrequent occurrence. [=have become a rather frequent occurrence]
– infrequency noun [noncount] ▪ She complained about the infrequency of her son's visits. [=she complained because her son did not visit her often] – in•fre•quent•ly adv ▪ a word that is infrequently used ▪ an error not infrequently made [=an error rather frequently made] by beginners

in•fringe /ɪnˈfrɪnʤ/ verb -fring•es; -fringed; -fring•ing
1 : to do something that does not obey or follow (a rule, law, etc.) [+ obj] infringe [=violate] a treaty/patent ▪ They claim that his use of the name infringes their copyright. [no obj] (chiefly US) — + on or upon ▪ They claim that his use of the name infringes on their copyright.
2 : to wrongly limit or restrict (something, such as another person's rights) [+ obj] Her rights must not be infringed. [no obj] — + on or upon ▪ He argues that the proposed law infringes upon our guaranteed right of free speech.
– in•fringe•ment /ɪnˈfrɪnʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] repeated infringements of our rights [noncount] He faces charges of copyright infringement. – in•fring•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a copyright infringer

in•fu•ri•ate /ɪnˈfjərɪˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) very angry : to make (someone) furious ▪ His arrogance infuriates me! = It infuriates me that he is so arrogant! ▪ I was infuriated by his arrogance.
– infuriated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The sales clerk was being shouted at by an infuriated customer. – infuriating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He has an infuriating habit of ignoring me. – in•fu•ri•at•ing•ly /ɪnˈfjəriˌeɪtɪŋli/ adv ▪ an infuriatingly arrogant man in•fuse /ɪnˈfju:z/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to cause (a person or thing) to be filled with something (such as a quality) ▪ She has infused her followers with confidence. b : to cause (something, such as a quality) to be added or introduced into a person or thing ▪ He has found ways to infuse new energy into his performances. ▪ She has infused confidence into her followers. ▪ His work is infused with anger.
2 : to allow something (such as tea or herbs) to stay in a liquid (such as hot water) in order to flavor the liquid [no obj] The tea should be allowed to infuse for several minutes. [+ obj] You should infuse the tea for several minutes.

in•fu•sion /ɪnˈfju:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 [count] : the addition of something (such as money) that is needed or helpful ▪ The company has received an infusion of cash/capital/funds. = There has been an infusion of cash/capital/funds into the company. ▪ Her ideas have brought a new infusion of vitality to the organization.
2 a [count] : a drink made by allowing something (such as tea) to stay in a liquid (such as hot water) : a drink made by infusing something ▪ a strong infusion of tea ▪ herbal infusions b [noncount] : the act of infusing something ▪ a medicinal drink made by infusion of herbs

[1]-ing /ɪŋ, ɪn/ verb suffix or adj suffix — used to form the present participle of a verb ▪ sail*ing* ▪ go*ing*

[2]-ing noun suffix
1 : action or process ▪ run*ning* ▪ sleep*ing* ▪ meet*ing* ▪ draw*ing* ▪ wash*ing*
2 : product or result of an action or process ▪ a paint*ing* ▪ an engrav*ing*
3 : something used in or connected with making or doing (a specified thing) ▪ bedd*ing* ▪ roof*ing* ▪ scaffold*ing* in•ge•nious /ɪnˈʤi:njəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very smart or clever : having or showing ingenuity ▪ The book has an ingenious plot. ▪ an ingenious device/plan/solution ▪ an ingenious person ▪ She was ingenious at finding ways to work more quickly. ▪ It was ingenious of him to arrange the schedule so precisely.

– in•ge•nious•ly adv ▪ an ingeniously clever design/solution in•ge•nue (US) or in•gé•nue /ˈænʤəˌnu:, ˈɑ:nʤəˌnu:, Brit ˈænʒəˌnju:/ noun, pl -nues [count] : an innocent girl or young woman ▪ In her latest film she plays the part of an ingenue.

in•ge•nu•ity /ˌɪnʤəˈnu:wəti, Brit ˌɪnʤəˈnju:wəti/ noun, pl -ities
1 [noncount] : skill or cleverness that allows someone to solve problems, invent things, etc. ▪ She showed amazing ingenuity in finding ways to cut costs. ▪ It will take considerable/much/some ingenuity to fix these problems.
2 [count] : a clever device or method ▪ musical ingenuities

in•gen•u•ous /ɪnˈʤɛnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the innocence, trust, and honesty that young people often have ▪ an appealingly ingenuous young woman/man ▪ an ingenuous smile/response — compare DISINGENUOUS
– in•gen•u•ous•ly adv ▪ smiling ingenuously – in•gen•u•ous•ness noun [noncount]

in•gest /ɪnˈʤɛst/ verb -gests; -gest•ed; -gest•ing [+ obj] : to take (something, such as food) into your body : to swallow (something) ▪ The drug is more easily ingested in pill form. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She ingested [=absorbed] large amounts of information very quickly.
– in•ges•tion /ɪnˈʤɛsʧən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the ingestion of food/alcohol in•gle•nook /ˈɪŋgəlˌnʊk/ noun, pl -nooks [count] chiefly Brit : a space with a seat by the side of a large open fireplace in•glo•ri•ous /ɪnˈglorijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : causing shame or disgrace ▪ an inglorious [=disgraceful] defeat/failure ▪ His command came to an inglorious [=shameful] end when he surrendered the fort.

– in•glo•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ His command ended ingloriously.

in•got /ˈɪŋgət/ noun, pl -gots [count] : a solid piece of metal that has been formed into a particular shape (such as a brick) so that it is easy to handle or store ▪ gold ingots

in•grained /ˈɪnˌgreɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : existing for a long time and very difficult to change : firmly established ▪ an ingrained habit/tradition ▪ These attitudes are very deeply ingrained in the culture.

in•grate /ˈɪnˌgreɪt/ noun, pl -grates [count] formal : a person who does not show proper appreciation or thanks for something : an ungrateful person ▪ a spoiled ingrate in•gra•ti•ate /ɪnˈgreɪʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] often disapproving : to gain favor or approval for (yourself) by doing or saying things that people like — usually + with ▪ She has tried to ingratiate herself with voters by promising a tax cut.

ingratiating adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : intended to gain someone's favor or approval ▪ an ingratiating smile/manner
– in•gra•ti•at•ing•ly adv ▪ smiling ingratiatingly

in•grat•i•tude /ɪnˈgrætəˌtu:d, Brit ɪnˈgrætəˌtju:d/ noun [noncount] : lack of proper appreciation or thanks for something (such as a kind or helpful act) : lack of gratitude ▪ He was hurt by his friends' ingratitude. [=ungratefulness] ▪ an act of ingratitude

in•gre•di•ent /ɪnˈgri:dijənt/ noun, pl -ents [count]
1 : one of the things that are used to make a food, product, etc. ▪ He uses only the finest/freshest ingredients in his cooking. ▪ the ingredients of a salad ▪ the ingredients in/of the soap
2 : a quality or characteristic that makes something possible ▪ Honesty is an essential ingredient of/for a successful marriage. ▪ The show has all the ingredients needed to attract a large audience.

in•gress /ˈɪnˌgrɛs/ noun [noncount] formal : a way to enter a place or the act of entering a place : ENTRANCE ▪ Ingress to and egress from the freeway were made difficult by the construction. — compare EGRESS

in•ground /ˈɪnˌgraʊnd/ adj, always used before a noun, US : located in the ground : not built above the ground ▪ an inground swimming pool — compare ABOVEGROUND, UNDERGROUND

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in–group /ˈɪnˌgruːp/ noun, pl -groups [count] usually disapproving : a small group of people who share a particular interest or activity and who do not allow other people to join their group in•grow•ing /ˈɪnˌgrowɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit : INGROWN ▪ an ingrowing toenail

in•grown /ˈɪnˌgroʊn/ adj : having a tip or edge that has grown back into the flesh ▪ an ingrown toenail/hair in•hab•it /ɪnˈhæbət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]

1 : to live in (a place) : to have a home in (a place) ▪ Several hundred species of birds inhabit the island. ▪ This part of the country is inhabited by native tribes. ▪ The island is no longer inhabited. [=no people live there]
2 : to be present in (something) ▪ There is a romantic quality that inhabits all her paintings. ▪ The novel is inhabited by a cast of eccentric characters.
– in•hab•it•able /ɪnˈhæbətəbəl/ adj ▪ The house is in such poor condition that it's barely inhabitable.

in•hab•it•ant /ɪnˈhæbətənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] : a person or animal that lives in a particular place ▪ The city has more than a million inhabitants. [=residents] in•hal•ant /ɪnˈheɪlənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] medical : a medicine or illegal drug that is breathed into the lungs ▪ The medicine is now available as an inhalant.

in•hale /ɪnˈheɪl/ verb -hales; -haled; -hal•ing
1 : to breathe in [+ obj] This medicine can now be inhaled. ▪ She inhaled the fresh country air. [no obj] He inhaled deeply and exhaled slowly, trying to relax. — opposite EXHALE
2 [+ obj] US, informal : to eat or drink (something) very quickly ▪ After inhaling their dinner, the children ran out the door without even saying goodbye.
– in•ha•la•tion /ˌɪnhəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ (an) inhalation of chemical fumes ▪ Several survivors of the fire are suffering from smoke inhalation. [=a serious injury caused by breathing a lot of smoke]

in•hal•er /ɪnˈheɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] medical : a device used for inhaling a medicine in•here /ɪnˈhiə/ verb -heres; -hered; -her•ing

inhere in [phrasal verb] inhere in (someone or something) formal : to be a natural part of (someone or something) ▪ He believes that liberty inheres in [=(more commonly) is inherent in] humanity as a natural right. ▪ Does selfishness inhere in each of us?

in•her•ent /ɪnˈhɪrənt, ɪnˈherənt/ adj, formal : belonging to the basic nature of someone or something ▪ He has an inherent sense of fair play. ▪ She believes strongly in the inherent [=fundamental, natural] goodness of all people. — often + in ▪ She believes that goodness is inherent in all people. ▪ There are a number of problems inherent in the design/plan.
– in•her•ent•ly adv ▪ Are people inherently good? ▪ There is nothing inherently illegal about what he did.

in•her•it /ɪnˈherət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to receive (money, property, etc.) from someone when that person dies ▪ She inherited the family business from her father. — compare DISINHERIT
2 a biology : to have (a characteristic, disease, etc.) because of the genes that you get from your parents when you are born ▪ Baldness is inherited from the mother's side of the family. ▪ She inherited her father's deep blue eyes. b : to get (a personal quality, interest, etc.) because of the influence or example of your parents or other relatives ▪ She inherited a love of baseball/cooking from her dad.
3 a : to receive (something) from someone who had it previously ▪ When my brother left for college, I inherited his old computer. b : to have to deal with (a situation, problem, etc.) when you take a job or position that someone else had before you ▪ The company's new president will inherit some complicated legal problems. ▪ When the coach quit, her assistant inherited a last-place team.
– in•her•it•able /ɪnˈherətəbəl/ adj ▪ an inheritable disease – inherited adj ▪ an inherited estate ▪ inherited [=hereditary] titles ▪ an inherited disease/disorder – in•her•i•tor /ɪnˈherətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ inheritors of the estate ▪ The new coach is an inheritor of a great team legacy. ▪ inheritors of a longtime family tradition

in•her•i•tance /ɪnˈherətəns/ noun, pl -tanc•es
1 [count] : money, property, etc., that is received from someone when that person dies ▪ She began her own business with the inheritance she got from her grandfather. ▪ He left sizable inheritances to his children. ▪ an inheritance tax [=a tax on inherited property or money]
2 [singular] : something from the past that is still important or valuable ▪ The buildings are part of the city's architectural inheritance. ▪ our cultural inheritance
3 [noncount] : the act of inheriting something ▪ the inheritance of an estate ▪ the inheritance of a genetic trait

in•hib•it /ɪnˈhɪbət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to keep (someone) from doing what he or she wants to do ▪ You shouldn't allow fear of failure to inhibit you. ▪ He was inhibited by modesty. ▪ Fear can inhibit people from expressing their opinions.
2 : to prevent or slow down the activity or occurrence of (something) ▪ drugs that are used to inhibit infection ▪ Strict laws are inhibiting economic growth.
– in•hib•i•tor /ɪnˈhɪbətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a powerful inhibitor of infection ▪ a growth inhibitor

inhibited adj [more ~; most ~] : unable to express thoughts and feelings freely ▪ She wanted to feel less inhibited. ▪ a shy, inhibited child — opposite UNINHIBITED

in•hi•bi•tion /ˌɪnhəˈbɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a nervous feeling that prevents you from expressing your thoughts, emotions, or desires [count] — usually plural ▪ After a few drinks, he lost his inhibitions. ▪ a release/relaxation of inhibitions ▪ She seems to have no inhibitions about stating her opinion. [noncount] She laughed loudly and without inhibition. ▪ a loss of inhibition
2 [noncount] technical : the act of preventing or slowing the activity or occurrence of something ▪ inhibition of muscle growth in•hos•pi•ta•ble /ˌɪnhɑˈspɪtəbəl, ɪnˈhɑːspɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not hospitable: such as a : not generous and friendly to guests or visitors ▪ It's very inhospitable of him to be so rude to strangers. — often + to ▪ He was inhospitable to his guests. b : having an environment where plants, animals, or people cannot live or grow easily ▪ an inhospitable [=barren] desert/habitat — often + to ▪ soil inhospitable to plant growth c : not ready or willing to accept or consider something — usually + to ▪ a person/company known for being inhospitable [=closed] to new ideas in–house /ˈɪnˌhaʊs/ adj, usually used before a noun : created, done, or existing within a company or organization ▪ in-house testing ▪ an in-house investigation/adviser – in–house adv ▪ All the testing was done in-house.

in•hu•man /ɪnˈhjuːmən/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : very fierce or cruel ▪ inhuman [=savage] punishment ▪ a brutally inhuman tyrant ▪ the most inhuman deeds/crimes b : having or showing no interest in individual people or their feelings : lacking emotional warmth ▪ an inhuman [=impersonal] bureaucracy
2 : not good enough for people to use or live in : extremely poor, dirty, or unhealthy ▪ inhuman living conditions
3 : unlike what might be expected from a human being ▪ He let out an inhuman moan. ▪ She had an almost inhuman desire to succeed. — compare NONHUMAN, SUBHUMAN
– in•hu•man•ly adv ▪ an inhumanly cruel punishment in•hu•mane /ˌɪnhjuːˈmeɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not kind or gentle to people or animals : not humane ▪ the inhumane [=cruel] treatment of prisoners – in•hu•mane•ly adv ▪ treating the animals inhumanely

in•hu•man•i•ty /ˌɪnhjuːˈmænəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being cruel to other people or to animals ▪ She cannot understand man's inhumanity to man. [=she cannot understand why people treat each other in a cruel way] ▪ the inhumanity [=brutality] of war in•im•i•cal /ɪˈnɪmɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : likely to cause damage or have a bad effect : HARMFUL — usually + to ▪ habits inimical to health ▪ Dry conditions can be inimical to plant life.
2 : not friendly ▪ the judge's inimical glare in•im•i•ta•ble /ɪˈnɪmətəbəl/ adj : impossible to copy or imitate ▪ She delivered the speech in her own inimitable [=unique] style.

in•iq•ui•tous /ɪˈnɪkwətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very unfair or evil ▪ an iniquitous deed/war in•iq•ui•ty /ɪˈnɪkwəti/ noun, pl -ties formal

1 [noncount] : the quality of being unfair or evil ▪ a system plagued by corruption and iniquity [=injustice] ▪ a notorious den of iniquity [=a place where immoral things are done]
2 [count] : something that is unfair or evil ▪ the iniquities of slavery

Do not confuse iniquity with inequity.

[1]ini•tial /ɪˈnɪʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun : occurring at the beginning of something ▪ The symptoms are mild in the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

initial [=early] stages of the disease. ▪ Her initial [=first] reaction was to say no, but she eventually agreed to help.
– ini•tial•ly /ɪˈnɪʃəli/ adv ▪ The reason I initially [=originally] came here was to find work. ▪ It turned out that the situation was not as serious as we had initially believed. ▪ Initially [=at first], the symptoms are mild.

[2]initial noun, pl -tials
1 [count] : a first letter of a name ▪ President Franklin D. Roosevelt's middle initial stood for "Delano."
2 initials [plural] : the first letters of each of a person's names ▪ She put her initials on each page of the contract. ▪ The initials F.D.R. stood for "Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

[3]initial verb -tials; US -tialed or Brit -tialled; US -tial•ing or Brit -tial•ling [+ obj] : to mark (something) with your initials ▪ She initialed each page of the contract.

initial public offering noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : the first sale of a company's stock to the public : IPO

[1]ini•ti•ate /ɪˈnɪʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to cause the beginning of (something) : to start or begin (something) ▪ initiate a new project ▪ Doctors have initiated a series of tests to determine the cause of the problem. ▪ The company initiated judicial proceedings against them.
2 : to formally accept (someone) as a member of a group or organization usually in a special ceremony ▪ The new recruits will be initiated tomorrow night. ▪ He was initiated into a secret society.
3 : to teach (someone) the basic facts or ideas about something — usually + into ▪ They initiated her into the ways of the corporate world.
– ini•ti•a•tor /ɪˈnɪʃiˌeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ the initiator of the project

[2]ini•tiate /ɪˈnɪʃiət/ noun, pl -tiates [count] : a person who is being formally accepted or who has been formally accepted as a member of a group or organization ▪ These secrets are known only to a small group of initiates.

ini•ti•a•tion /ɪˌnɪʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [noncount] : the process of being formally accepted as a member of a group or organization : the process of being initiated ▪ his initiation as a member of the club — often + into ▪ her initiation into the sorority b [count] : a ceremony or series of actions that makes a person a member of a group or organization ▪ crimes committed as part of gang initiations ▪ an initiation rite/ritual
2 [noncount] : the act of starting something : the beginning of something ▪ the initiation of therapy ▪ the initiation of judicial proceedings

ini•tia•tive /ɪˈnɪʃətɪv/ noun, pl -tives
1 the initiative : the power or opportunity to do something before others do ▪ If you want to meet her, you're going to have to take the initiative and introduce yourself. ▪ The company has the opportunity to seize the initiative by getting its new products to the market before its competitors. ▪ By failing to get its products to the market on schedule, the company has lost the initiative (to its competitors).
2 [noncount] : the energy and desire that is needed to do something ▪ She has ability but lacks initiative. [=drive] ✧ If you do something on your own initiative, you do it because you choose to, not because someone has told you to do it. ▪ I'm doing this on my own initiative. [=because I want to] ✧ If you use your (own) initiative, you decide for yourself what to do instead of waiting to be told by someone else. ▪ You should use your own initiative to come up with a solution.
3 [count] : a plan or program that is intended to solve a problem ▪ The governor has proposed a new initiative to improve conditions in urban schools. ▪ anti-poverty initiatives

in•ject /ɪnˈʤɛkt/ verb -jects; -ject•ed; -ject•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to force a liquid medicine or drug into someone or something by using a special needle — often + into ▪ The medicine is injected directly into the muscle. — often + with ▪ The patients were injected with the vaccine. b : to force (a liquid) into something — usually + into ▪ inject fuel into an engine — sometimes used in combination ▪ a fuel-injected engine
2 a : to add (something) to something : to introduce (a particular quality) into something ▪ She told a few jokes to inject a little humor into her speech. ▪ We need to inject some life into this party. b : to provide or add (something needed, such as money) — + into ▪ Several wealthy investors have injected money into the project.
– in•jec•tor /ɪnˈʤɛktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a fuel injector

in•jec•tion /ɪnˈʤɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act or process of forcing a liquid medicine or drug into someone or something by using a special needle [noncount] The medicine cannot be taken orally; it must be given/administered by injection. [count] Nurses give the injections. ▪ an injection of a painkiller
2 : the act or process of forcing a liquid into something [noncount] an engine with fuel injection [=a system that injects fuel directly into the cylinders of an engine] [count] injections of fuel
3 [count] : the addition of something (such as money) that is needed to support something ▪ The struggling company needed an injection of cash.

in–joke /ˈɪnˌʤoʊk/ noun, pl -jokes [count] : a joke that is only understood by a particular group of people in•ju•di•cious /ˌɪnʤuˈdɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not having or showing good judgment : not sensible or judicious ▪ an injudicious [=unwise] lawsuit ▪ He made several injudicious comments to the press.

– in•ju•di•cious•ly adv

in•junc•tion /ɪnˈʤʌŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] law : an order from a court of law that says something must be done or must not be done ▪ The group has obtained an injunction to prevent the demolition of the building. — often + against ▪ The court has issued/granted an injunction against the strike.

in•jure /ˈɪnʤɚ/ verb -jures; -jured; -jur•ing [+ obj] : to harm or damage (someone or something) ▪ She fell and injured herself. ▪ She fell and slightly injured her arm. ▪ The criticism injured [=wounded] his pride. ▪ The scandal has injured [=tarnished] her reputation. ▪ Several people were badly/seriously/critically injured in the accident. ▪ He believes that the tax will injure [=hurt] small businesses.

> synonyms INJURE, HURT, HARM, DAMAGE, and IMPAIR mean to cause something or someone to no longer be healthy or in good condition. INJURE is usually used when the body of a person or animal has been harmed by something, such as an accident. ▪ Two people were badly injured in the accident. ▪ She injured her muscle/leg while running. HURT and HARM are both often used to mean the same thing as INJURE, but HURT often emphasizes physical or emotional pain. ▪ He hurt his back and was unable to walk for a week. ▪ I was hurt by their unkind remarks. HARM often emphasizes a bad change in health. ▪ The plant is poisonous to humans but will not harm deer. DAMAGE is often used when something loses value or becomes less useful. ▪ The table was damaged in shipping. ▪ fruit trees damaged by frost ▪ Very loud music may damage your ears. IMPAIR suggests that something has been made weaker or worse. ▪ a disease that impairs memory/vision ▪ Years of smoking had impaired his health.

injured adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : suffering from an injury : physically hurt or harmed ▪ An ambulance took the injured boy to the hospital. ▪ Her severely/badly injured arm took a long time to heal. ▪ One of the players is injured.
2 always used before a noun a law : having been treated unfairly ▪ A lawsuit is being filed on behalf of the injured party/person. b : showing a feeling that you have been treated unfairly or insulted in some way ▪ He gave her an injured look.
the injured : injured people ▪ The injured were treated at a nearby hospital.

in•ju•ri•ous /ɪnˈʤurijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing injury : HARMFUL ▪ injurious behavior ▪ The decision has had an injurious effect. — often + to ▪ behavior injurious to others – in•ju•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ They have been injuriously affected by the decision.

in•ju•ry /ˈɪnʤəri/ noun, pl -ries : harm or damage : an act or event that causes someone or something to no longer be fully healthy or in good condition [noncount] Hikers need to take sensible precautions to prevent injury. ▪ She's concerned about the risk of injury to her reputation. ▪ The team has been weakened by illness and injury. ▪ Careless use of these tools can cause serious bodily injury. ▪ She survived the accident without injury. ▪ an athlete who is injury-prone [=an athlete who is frequently injured] [count] She fell and suffered an injury to her arm. ▪ His athletic career has been slowed by injuries. ▪ minor/serious/severe injuries
add insult to injury see [2]INSULT do yourself an injury chiefly Brit : to hurt yourself : to become injured because of your own actions ▪ If you keep on

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i lifting those heavy weights, you'll do yourself an injury.

injury time noun [noncount] Brit : time that is added at the end of a game of hockey, soccer, etc., because of time lost when players are injured in•jus•tice /ɪnˈʤʌstəs/ noun, pl -tic•es : unfair treatment : a situation in which the rights of a person or a group of people are ignored [noncount] The organization is devoted to fighting economic/racial/social injustice. ▪ protection against injustice [count] the injustices of apartheid ▪ The law is part of an effort to correct an old injustice. ▪ He suffered a great/terrible injustice [=wrong] at their hands.

do (someone or something) an injustice : to treat (someone or something) in an unfair way ▪ They did her a great/terrible/grave injustice by not allowing her to file a complaint. ▪ I think you do the book an injustice when you call it "trash." ▪ The weak punishment does an injustice to the criminal's victims.

[1]ink /ˈɪŋk/ noun, pl inks

1 : colored liquid that is used for writing or printing [noncount] Fill out the form using blue or black ink. ▪ The printer is out of ink. ▪ pen and ink drawings/sketches [count] We're using four different inks for this poster.

2 [noncount] US slang : public attention : PUBLICITY ▪ Her exploits have been getting a lot of ink lately. [=there have been many newspaper stories about her exploits lately]

3 [noncount] biology : the black liquid that is used by some sea creatures for protection ▪ squid ink

– see also RED INK

[2]ink verb inks; inked; ink•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put ink on (something) ▪ ink the printing block

2 US, informal a : to sign (a document) to show that you accept or agree with what is written on it ▪ They just inked a new partnership agreement/deal. b : to hire (someone) to do something by having that person sign a contract ▪ The team has inked [=signed] both players to a new contract.

ink in [phrasal verb] ink in (something) or ink (something) in : to write or draw (something) in ink ▪ She carefully inked in the letters.

in–kind /ˈɪnˈkaɪnd/ adj, always used before a noun, US : made up of something other than money ▪ The charity also accepts in-kind donations such as food or clothing.

ink–jet printer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] computers : a printer that works by spraying small drops of ink onto paper — compare LASER PRINTER in•kling /ˈɪŋklɪŋ/ noun, pl -klings [count] : a slight, uncertain idea about something : a slight amount of knowledge about something — usually singular ▪ I didn't have an inkling [=clue] of what it all meant. ▪ Nothing gave me any inkling that it would happen.

ink pad noun, pl ~ pads [count] : a piece of soft material that is soaked with ink and used to get ink onto a rubber stamp ink•well /ˈɪŋkˌwɛl/ noun, pl -wells [count] : a small container in the surface of a desk that was used in the past for holding ink

inky /ˈɪŋki/ adj

1 literary : very dark or black like ink ▪ the inky blackness/darkness of the sea

2 : made dirty by ink ▪ inky hands

in•laid /ˈɪnˈleɪd/ adj

1 : set into the surface of something in a decorative pattern ▪ inlaid designs/marble

2 : decorated with an inlaid design ▪ an inlaid box/tabletop

[1]in•land /ˈɪnˌlænd/ adv : in, into, or toward the middle of a country : away from the coast ▪ They traveled inland from the sea. ▪ They live inland about three miles.

[2]inland adj [more ~; most ~] : of, relating to, or in the part of a country that is away from the coast or boundaries ▪ inland transportation routes ▪ an inland sea

Inland Revenue noun

the Inland Revenue : the department of the British government that is responsible for collecting taxes — compare INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE in–law /ˈɪnˌlɑ:/ noun, pl -laws [count] : a person you are related to because of your marriage; especially : the father or mother of your husband or wife — usually plural ▪ She was nervous when she met her in-laws for the first time.

in–law apartment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : a small apartment that is part of or next to a house and that is used especially as a place for an older relative to live — called also (US) mother-in-law apartment, (Brit) granny flat

[1]in•lay /ɪnˈleɪ/ verb -lays; -laid /ɪnˈleɪd/; -lay•ing [+ obj] : to set pieces of wood, metal, etc., into the surface of (something) for decoration — often + with ▪ The desk is inlaid with ivory. ▪ The carpenter inlaid the furniture with intricate designs.

[2]in•lay /ˈɪnˌleɪ/ noun, pl -lays : material that is set into the surface of something for decoration : inlaid material [noncount] decorative/marble inlay [count] The cabinet doors are decorated with inlays.

in•let /ˈɪnˌlɛt/ noun, pl -lets [count]

1 : a narrow area of water that goes into the land from a sea or lake ▪ The coast is dotted with tiny inlets.

2 : an opening through which air, gas, or liquid can enter something (such as a machine) ▪ a gas/air inlet

in–line skate noun, pl ~ skates [count] : a shoe with wheels set in a straight line on the bottom that is used for skating ▪ a pair of in-line skates — see picture at SKATE

– in–line skater noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – in–line skating noun [noncount]

in lo•co pa•ren•tis /ɪnˈloʊkoʊpəˈrɛntəs/ adv, law, formal : in the place of a parent ▪ Some feel that the university should act in loco parentis. [=should be responsible for the students in the same way parents are responsible for their children] in•mate /ˈɪnˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a person who is kept in a prison or mental hospital ▪ prison inmates in me•mo•ri•am /ˌɪnməˈmorijəm/ prep, formal : in memory of (someone who has died) — used especially on the stone that marks a grave in•most /ˈɪnˌmoʊst/ adj, always used before a noun : INNERMOST ▪ She revealed her inmost thoughts and feelings.

inn /ˈɪn/ noun, pl inns [count]

1 : a house usually in the country where people can eat and rent a room to sleep in ▪ We stayed at a cozy/charming little inn in the country. — often used in the names of hotels ▪ We stayed at the Lakeside Inn.

2 chiefly Brit : a pub ▪ an old country inn

in•nards /ˈɪnədz/ noun [plural] informal

1 : the internal organs of a person or an animal ▪ the chicken's edible innards

2 : the inside parts of something ▪ the robot's complicated innards ▪ tinkering with the car's innards

in•nate /ɪˈneɪt/ adj

1 : existing from the time a person or animal is born ▪ an innate ability/talent ▪ She has an innate sense of rhythm.

2 : existing as part of the basic nature of something ▪ the innate problems of wireless communication – in•nate•ly adv ▪ innately curious in•ner /ˈɪnə/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : located toward the inside of something : not on or at the edge or outside of something ▪ She led the guests to an inner room. ▪ the inner face of the arch ▪ the inner lining of the jacket — opposite OUTER

2 : not known to or seen by most people ▪ the poem's inner meaning ▪ He wanted to experience the inner workings of the political campaign. [=the parts of the campaign that are only known by the people who work on it]

3 a : of or relating to a person's mind or spirit ▪ inner peace/conflict ▪ his inner life/self ▪ listening to her inner voice ▪ a person's inner beauty b : existing as a part of a person's character ▪ He's trying to get in touch with his inner artist. [=the part of his character that is artistic]

inner circle noun, pl ~ -cles [count] : a small group of people who lead a government or an organization or who are close to its leader — usually singular ▪ The President has an inner circle of advisers.

inner city noun, pl ~ cities [count] : the central section of a large city where mostly poor people live ▪ The mayor is trying to attract new businesses to the inner city.

– inner–city adj, always used before a noun ▪ inner-city kids/neighborhoods/schools/crime inner ear noun, pl ~ ears [count] biology : the part of the ear that is located within your head and that controls hearing and balance — compare OUTER EAR

in•ner•most /ˈɪnəˌmoʊst/ adj

1 always used before a noun : most private and personal ▪ She revealed her innermost feelings/secrets.

2 : closest to the center or inside of something ▪ Jupiter's innermost moon ▪ the innermost part of the cave — opposite OUTERMOST inner sanc•tum noun, pl ~ -tums [count] somewhat formal : a very private room or place ▪ She was admitted to the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i building's inner sanctum. — often used figuratively ▪ the inner sanctum of the CIA inner tube noun, pl ~ tubes [count] : a round tube that holds air inside a tire in•ning /ˈɪnɪŋ/ noun, pl -nings [count] baseball : one of the usually nine parts of a game in which each team bats until three outs are made ▪ She hit a double in the fourth inning. ▪ He pitched three innings.

innings /ˈɪnɪŋz/ noun, pl innings [count] cricket : one of the parts of a game in which a team or player bats had a good innings Brit, informal — used to say that someone who has died lived a long life ▪ We're sad she's gone, but she had a good innings.

inn•keep•er /ˈɪnˌki:pə/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned : a person who owns or manages an inn in•no•cence /ˈɪnəsəns/ noun [noncount] : the state of being innocent: such as a : the state of being not guilty of a crime or other wrong act ▪ The defendant maintained/protested his innocence. [=he said that he was not guilty] ▪ He vows that he will prove his innocence in court. — opposite GUILT b : lack of experience with the world and with the bad things that happen in life ▪ the trusting innocence of childhood ▪ The age of innocence was over. c somewhat formal : lack of knowledge about something ▪ Your innocence [=(more commonly) ignorance] of the rules is no excuse for such behavior. ▪ I mentioned in all innocence what turned out to be a very painful topic for her. [=I mentioned the topic without knowing that it was so painful for her to talk about it] in•no•cent /ˈɪnəsənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not guilty of a crime or other wrong act ▪ He says that he is innocent of the crime. ▪ She was found innocent of all charges. ▪ A person accused of a crime is considered innocent until proven guilty. ▪ Someone told your secret, but it wasn't me. I'm innocent. — opposite GUILTY

2 always used before a noun : not deserving to be harmed ▪ an innocent victim ▪ innocent bystanders

3 : lacking experience with the world and the bad things that happen in life ▪ an innocent child

4 : not intended to cause harm or trouble ▪ an innocent question ▪ I made an innocent mistake; I'm sorry. ▪ innocent [=harmless] fun

5 not used before a noun, somewhat formal : having no knowledge of something ▪ He was entirely innocent of what had happened. [=he did not know what had happened]

– innocent noun, pl -cents [count] ▪ a war that caused the death of thousands of innocents [=innocent people] ▪ She was an innocent when it came to romance. – in•no•cent•ly adv ▪ I innocently mentioned what turned out to be a very painful topic. ▪ She smiled innocently. ▪ Everything started out innocently [=harmlessly] enough.

in•noc•u•ous /ɪˈnɑ:kjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not likely to bother or offend anyone : INOFFENSIVE ▪ He told a few innocuous jokes. ▪ an innocuous question

2 : causing no injury : HARMLESS ▪ an innocuous gas

– in•noc•u•ous•ly adv – in•noc•u•ous•ness noun [noncount]

in•no•vate /ˈɪnəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing : to do something in a new way : to have new ideas about how something can be done [no obj] The company plans to continue innovating and experimenting. [+ obj] The company innovated a new operating system.

– in•no•va•tor /ˈɪnəˌveɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ She is known as a great/brilliant/gifted innovator in her field.

in•no•va•tion /ˌɪnəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a new idea, device, or method ▪ She is responsible for many innovations in her field. ▪ the latest innovation in computer technology

2 [noncount] : the act or process of introducing new ideas, devices, or methods ▪ Through technology and innovation, they found ways to get better results with less work. ▪ the rapid pace of technological innovation

in•no•va•tive /ˈɪnəˌveɪtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : introducing or using new ideas or methods ▪ an innovative approach/solution to the problem ▪ an innovative design

2 : having new ideas about how something can be done ▪ a creative and innovative young designer

– in•no•va•tive•ly adv

in•no•va•to•ry /ˈɪnəvəˌtori, Brit ˈɪnəˌveɪtri/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit : INNOVATIVE in•nu•en•do /ˌɪnjəˈwɛndoʊ/ noun, pl -dos or -does : a statement which indirectly suggests that someone has done something immoral, improper, etc. [count] His reputation has been damaged by innuendos about his drinking and gambling. [noncount] His reputation has been damaged by innuendo. ▪ The movie relies on sexual innuendo for its humor.

Innuit variant spelling of INUIT in•nu•mer•a•ble /ɪˈnu:mərəbəl, Brit ɪˈnju:mərəbəl/ adj : too many to be counted : very many ▪ the innumerable [=countless] stars in the sky ▪ There are innumerable errors in the book.

in•nu•mer•ate /ɪˈnu:mərət, Brit ɪˈnju:mərət/ adj : unable to understand and do basic mathematics ▪ an innumerate person

– in•nu•mer•a•cy /ɪˈnu:mərəsi, Brit ɪˈnju:mərəsi/ noun [noncount] in•oc•u•late /ɪˈnɑ:kjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] medical : to give (a person or animal) a weakened form of a disease in order to prevent infection by the disease — often + against ▪ All the children have been inoculated against smallpox.

– in•oc•u•la•tion /ɪˌnɑ:kjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] in•of•fen•sive /ˌɪnəˈfɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not likely to offend or bother anyone : not offensive ▪ The priest was a mild-mannered inoffensive fellow.

– in•of•fen•sive•ly adv ▪ an inoffensively mild wine – in•of•fen•sive•ness noun [noncount]

in•op•er•a•ble /ɪnˈɑ:pərəbəl/ adj

1 medical : not able to be corrected or removed by surgery ▪ an inoperable tumor ▪ a patient with inoperable cancer

2 formal : not capable of being used ▪ The device makes the car inoperable when a key is not used to start it.

in•op•er•a•tive /ɪnˈɑ:pərətɪv/ adj, formal

1 : not capable of being used ▪ The accident had rendered the vehicle inoperative.

2 : having no force or effect ▪ With the new federal law in place, the state law has become inoperative.

in•op•por•tune /ɪnˌɑ:pəˈtu:n, Brit ɪnˈɒpəˌtju:n/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not suitable or right for a particular situation : INCONVENIENT ▪ He always shows up at the most inopportune times.

2 : done or happening at the wrong time ▪ an inopportune sale of stocks

– in•op•por•tune•ly adv

in•or•di•nate /ɪnˈoədnət/ adj : going beyond what is usual, normal, or proper ▪ I waited an inordinate amount of time. ▪ They have had an inordinate number of problems with the schedule.

– in•or•di•nate•ly adv ▪ We had to wait an inordinately long time.

in•or•gan•ic /ˌɪnoəˈgænɪk/ adj : made from or containing material that does not come from plants or animals ▪ inorganic fertilizer ▪ producing energy from inorganic materials — opposite ORGANIC

– in•or•gan•i•cal•ly /ˌɪnoəˈgænɪkli/ adv

inorganic chemistry noun [noncount] : a branch of chemistry concerned with substances that contain little or no carbon — compare ORGANIC CHEMISTRY

in•pa•tient /ˈɪnˌpeɪʃənt/ noun, pl -tients [count] medical : a patient who stays for one or more nights in a hospital for treatment — often used before another noun ▪ inpatient surgery [=surgery performed on inpatients] ▪ inpatient care/treatment — compare OUTPATIENT

[1]in•put /ˈɪnˌpʊt/ noun, pl -puts

1 [noncount] : advice or opinions that help someone make a decision ▪ I need your input on what to have for dinner. ▪ She provided some valuable input at the start of the project.

2 technical a [noncount] : information that is put into a computer ▪ The computer gets its input from a keyboard or mouse. ▪ an input device b [noncount] : something (such as power or energy) that is put into a machine or system ▪ electrical input c [count] : the place at which information, power, etc., enters a computer, machine, or system ▪ This VCR has several audio/video inputs.

3 : the act or process of putting something in or into something else [singular] The job will require a considerable input of money. [noncount] The data is ready for input into/to a computer. — compare OUTPUT

[2]input verb -puts; -put•ted or -put; -put•ting [+ obj] : to enter (information) into a computer ▪ She inputted the sales figures into the spreadsheet. — compare OUTPUT in•quest /ˈɪnˌkwɛst/ noun, pl -quests [count] law : an official investigation to find the reason for something (such as a person's death) ▪ a coroner's inquest ▪ The court has ordered

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

an inquest into his death/disappearance.

in•quire or chiefly Brit en•quire /ɪn'kwajɚ/ verb -quires; -quired; -quir•ing somewhat formal : to ask for information [no obj] When I inquired, they told me she was not here. — usually + about ▪ I called to inquire about the schedule. ▪ He was inquiring about a friend who used to work here. [+ obj] We inquired the way to the station. ▪ "So, what do you want?" he inquired.

inquire after [phrasal verb] inquire after (someone or something) : to ask for information about (someone or something) ▪ She inquired after my wife's health. ▪ He greeted us warmly and inquired after our families.

inquire into [phrasal verb] inquire into (something) : to gather or collect information about (something) ▪ A panel has been appointed to inquire into their activities. ▪ The commission should not have inquired into her personal life.

inquire of [phrasal verb] inquire of (someone) formal : to ask (someone) a question ▪ The police inquired of his neighbors if they knew where he was.

– in•quir•er noun, pl -ers [count] inquiring or chiefly Brit enquiring adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~]

1 : asking questions : wanting to learn more ▪ He got a call from an inquiring journalist/reporter. ▪ She has an inquiring [=inquisitive] mind.

2 : showing a desire to ask a question or learn more ▪ an inquiring look/gaze

– in•quir•ing•ly /ɪn'kwajəɹɪŋli/ adv ▪ She looked at him inquiringly. [=questioningly]

in•qui•ry or chiefly Brit en•qui•ry /ɪn'kwaɪri, 'ɪnkwəri/ noun, pl -ries

1 [count] : a request for information ▪ She refused to answer inquiries from the media about her marriage. — often + into ▪ She was told that she could not make an inquiry into [=she could not ask about] the salaries of her coworkers.

2 [count] : an official effort to collect and examine information about something : INVESTIGATION ▪ judicial/legislative inquiries ▪ The board ordered an inquiry to determine whether the rules had been followed. — often + into ▪ The police are conducting an inquiry into (the circumstances of) his death. ✧ In British English, a person who is being questioned by the police as a suspect or a witness is said to be helping the police with their inquiries.

3 [noncount] : the act of asking questions in order to gather or collect information ▪ Further inquiry showed that he had visited the city twice before. ▪ scientific/academic inquiry ▪ The police are pursuing a new line of inquiry.

in•qui•si•tion /ˌɪnkwə'zɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 the Inquisition : an organization in the Roman Catholic Church in the past that was responsible for finding and punishing people who did not accept its beliefs and practices ▪ the Spanish Inquisition

2 [count] : a harsh and unfair investigation or series of questions ▪ His political enemies were conducting an inquisition into the details of his personal life.

in•quis•i•tive /ɪn'kwɪzətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : tending to ask questions : having a desire to know or learn more ▪ She was very inquisitive [=curious] as a child. ▪ an inquisitive mind

2 disapproving : asking too many questions about other people's lives ▪ an overly inquisitive neighbor

– in•quis•i•tive•ly adv ▪ She looked at me inquisitively. – in•quis•i•tive•ness noun [noncount]

in•quis•i•tor /ɪn'kwɪzətɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a person who asks many difficult questions in a harsh or unkind way ▪ He had to answer his inquisitors' questions or be thrown out of school.

2 : a member or officer of the Inquisition

– in•quis•i•to•ri•al /ɪnˌkwɪzə'torijəl/ adj

in•road /'ɪnˌroʊd/ noun, pl -roads [count] — used to describe a situation in which someone or something becomes more successful or important often by making someone or something else less successful; usually plural ▪ We need to protect our company against the inroads of competitors. — usually used with make ▪ Despite the recent inroads made by competitors in the industry, the company is still doing well. ▪ The party hopes to make serious inroads in Congress. [=the party hopes that many more of its members will be elected to serve in Congress] ▪ The sport is making inroads in the U.S. [=it is becoming more popular in the U.S.] in•rush /'ɪnˌrʌʃ/ noun [singular] : a fast inward flow or movement into a place ▪ a sudden inrush of water/air

ins. abbr inches

in•sa•lu•bri•ous /ˌɪnsə'luːbrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not clean or healthy ▪ the city's insalubrious air — opposite SALUBRIOUS ins and outs /ˌɪnzən'aʊts/ noun

the ins and outs : the details about how something works or is done — often + of ▪ I'm still learning all the ins and outs of American politics.

in•sane /ɪn'seɪn/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not sane: such as a : having or showing severe mental illness ▪ an insane person ▪ The murderer was found to be criminally insane.

> usage The use of insane to describe a person with severe mental illness is now often considered offensive. The phrase mentally ill is preferred. Insane in this sense now occurs chiefly in such legal phrases as criminally insane and temporarily insane.

b : unable to think in a clear or sensible way ▪ She was insane with jealousy/anger. c — used in the phrase drive/make (someone) insane to describe annoying or bothering someone very much. ▪ That noise is driving me insane. [=it is annoying me very much] ▪ It makes me insane [=I feel very annoyed] when people drive like that.

2 : wild and uncontrolled ▪ He had an insane look in his eyes.

3 [more ~; most ~] : very foolish or unreasonable : CRAZY ▪ She likes to drive at insane speeds. ▪ He had this insane idea that he could get rich by selling old computers.

4 : used for people who have severe mental illnesses ▪ an insane asylum [=(now more commonly) a mental hospital]

go insane : to become mentally ill : to go crazy ▪ She went insane and started thinking that everyone was trying to kill her. — usually used in an exaggerated way ▪ I must be going insane. I can't find my car keys anywhere. ▪ If you don't stop making that noise, I'm going to go (completely) insane!

the insane : insane people : people who have severe mental illness ▪ a hospital for the insane [=(now more commonly) the mentally ill]

– in•sane•ly adv ▪ Her boyfriend was insanely jealous.

in•san•i•tary /ɪn'sænəˌteri/ adj, chiefly Brit : dirty and likely to cause disease : UNSANITARY ▪ insanitary living conditions ▪ an insanitary bathroom

in•san•i•ty /ɪn'sænəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : severe mental illness : the condition of being insane ▪ She was found not guilty by reason of insanity. ▪ temporary insanity

2 : something that is very foolish or unreasonable [noncount] His friends thought his decision to quit his job was pure insanity. ▪ Please, no more violence. It's time to stop this insanity. [count] the insanities of modern life in•sa•tia•ble /ɪn'seɪʃəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : always wanting more : not able to be satisfied ▪ an insatiable appetite/thirst ▪ Her desire for knowledge was insatiable.

– in•sa•tia•bly /ɪn'seɪʃəbli/ adv ▪ an insatiably curious student in•scribe /ɪn'skraɪb/ verb -scribes; -scribed; -scrib•ing [+ obj]

1 : to write or cut (words, a name, etc.) on something — + on or in ▪ The winner's name is inscribed on the trophy. ▪ He inscribed a message in the book before giving it to his son. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The image is inscribed in my memory. [=I remember the image very clearly]

2 : to write words, a name, etc., on (something) ▪ They inscribed the monument with the soldiers' names. ▪ The book was inscribed with the author's signature.

in•scrip•tion /ɪn'skrɪpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : words that are written on or cut into a surface ▪ The painting had an inscription that read, "To my loving wife." ▪ the inscription on a stone monument in•scru•ta•ble /ɪn'skruːtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : difficult to understand : causing people to feel curious or confused ▪ an inscrutable [=mysterious] expression/smile ▪ an inscrutable work of art ▪ He was a quiet, inscrutable man.

– in•scru•ta•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌskruːtə'bɪləti/ noun [noncount] – in•scru•ta•bly /ɪn'skruːtəbli/ adv

in•seam /'ɪnˌsiːm/ noun, pl -seams [count] US : the line where two parts of a pair of pants are sewn together from the top of the inside of the leg to the bottom; also : the length of this line ▪ a 32-inch inseam

in•sect /'ɪnˌsɛkt/ noun, pl -sects [count]

1 : a small animal that has six legs and a body formed of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

three parts and that may have wings ▪ flies, bees, and other insects [=(chiefly US, informal) bugs] ▪ a swarm of flying insects — often used before another noun ▪ an insect bite ▪ Use plenty of insect spray/repellent to keep the mosquitoes from biting you. — see color picture on page C10
2 : an animal (such as a spider) that is similar to an insect — compare ARACHNID

in•sec•ti•cide /ɪnˈsɛktəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count, noncount] : a chemical substance that is used to kill insects
– in•sec•ti•cid•al /ɪnˌsɛktəˈsaɪdl/ adj in•sec•ti•vore /ɪnˈsɛktəˌvoə/ noun, pl -vores [count] technical : an animal that eats insects

– in•sec•tiv•o•rous /ˌɪnˌsɛkˈtɪvərəs/ adj

in•se•cure /ˌɪnsɪˈkjə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not secure: such as a : not confident about yourself or your ability to do things well : nervous and uncomfortable ▪ I feel shy and insecure around strangers. — often + about ▪ She used to be insecure about her height. ▪ He felt insecure about the idea of becoming a father. ▪ Many young people are insecure about the future. [=they believe that bad things might happen in the future] b : not certain to continue or be successful for a long time ▪ an insecure investment ▪ He has always held low-paying, insecure jobs. [=jobs that people can lose easily] ▪ Most of these families are economically insecure. [=they do not have a dependable source of money] c : not locked or well protected ▪ One of the building's rear doors was insecure. ▪ The country's borders remain insecure.
– in•se•cu•ri•ty /ˌɪnsɪˈkjərətɪ/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] They share a sense of insecurity about the future. ▪ job/economic insecurity [count] the insecurities of teenagers in•sem•i•nate /ɪnˈsɛməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] technical : to put semen into (a woman or a female animal) in order to cause pregnancy ▪ She was artificially inseminated in January.

– in•sem•i•na•tion /ɪnˌsɛməˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] — see also ARTIFICIAL INSEMINATION in•sen•si•ble /ɪnˈsɛnsəbəl/ adj, formal

1 [more ~; most ~] : not able to feel pain, emotions, etc. — often + to ▪ He was insensible to pain. ▪ insensible to fear
2 [more ~; most ~] : not aware of something — often + of ▪ They were insensible [=unaware] of the danger ahead.
3 : not conscious ▪ She was knocked insensible by the collision. ▪ They drank themselves insensible. [=they drank until they became unconscious]
– in•sen•si•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌsɛnsəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ his insensibility to pain – in•sen•si•bly /ɪnˈsɛnsəblɪ/ adv ▪ changes that occur insensibly [=without people being aware that they are occurring]

in•sen•si•tive /ɪnˈsɛnsətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not sensitive: such as a : showing that you do not know or care about the feelings of other people ▪ He's just a rude, insensitive jerk. ▪ a racially insensitive comment [=an offensive comment about a person's race] ▪ It was insensitive of her to say that. b : not responding to or caring about problems, changes, or needs ▪ an insensitive bureaucracy — often + to ▪ The government has been insensitive to the public's demands. ▪ Managers must not be insensitive to the needs of their employees. c not used before a noun : not greatly affected by something — usually + to ▪ He was insensitive to the risks involved in starting a business. ▪ insensitive to pain – in•sen•si•tive•ly adv ▪ They had acted insensitively. – in•sen•si•tiv•i•ty /ɪnˌsɛnsəˈtɪvətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ racial insensitivity

in•sep•a•ra•ble /ɪnˈsɛpərəbəl/ adj : not able to be separated ▪ One problem is inseparable from the other. ▪ Growing up, the two of us were inseparable. [=we were very close friends; we spent a lot of time together] ▪ We were inseparable friends.
– in•sep•a•ra•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌsɛpərəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] – in•sep•a•ra•bly /ɪnˈsɛpərəblɪ/ adv ▪ Your future is inseparably linked/tied to ours.

[1]in•sert /ɪnˈsət/ verb -serts; -sert•ed; -sert•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) in something ▪ Insert your credit card here. ▪ You need to insert a comma between these two words. ▪ insert a space between paragraphs — often + in or into ▪ He inserted the key in the lock. ▪ She inserted a tape in the VCR. ▪ insert a word in a sentence ▪ Try inserting a couple of jokes into your speech to keep your audience's attention.
2 : to cause (someone) to be involved in an activity ▪ They tried to insert themselves into the conversation.

[2]in•sert /ˈɪnˌsət/ noun, pl -serts [count] : something that is put into something else ▪ shoe inserts ▪ The pot comes with an insert for steaming.; especially : a small section or piece of paper with information that is placed inside something ▪ advertising inserts in the Sunday paper ▪ Each box includes an insert explaining the product's proper use.

in•ser•tion /ɪnˈsəʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of putting something into something else : the act or process of inserting something ▪ Treatment may include the insertion of a tube in his ear.
2 [count] : something (such as a comment) that is added to a piece of writing : something that is inserted ▪ The report contains a number of insertions.

in–ser•vice /ˈɪnˈsəvəs/ adj, always used before a noun : happening while you are being paid to work ▪ a day of in-service training for teachers

[1]in•set /ˈɪnˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count]
1 : a small map or picture that is shown on or next to a larger map or picture in order to show more detail
2 : a piece of something that is added to something larger often for decoration ▪ The floor is decorated with an inset of marble tiles. ▪ velvet dresses with silk insets

[2]inset verb -sets; -set; -set•ting [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) in something larger for decoration, to give information, etc. ▪ inset a map in a larger map
2 : to put something into (something) often for decoration — usually used as (be) inset ▪ The ring is inset with diamonds. ▪ floors inset with marble tiles – inset adj ▪ a table with an inset glass top ▪ an inset map/photograph

in•shore /ˈɪnˈʃoə/ adj
1 : moving toward the shore away from the water ▪ an inshore breeze
2 : located near the shore ▪ They fish in the shallow inshore waters of the Atlantic.
– inshore adv ▪ The animals move inshore to feed.

[1]in•side /ɪnˈsaɪd, ˈɪnˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides
1 [count] : an inner side, edge, or surface of something — usually singular ▪ The door can only be locked from the inside. — often + of ▪ I had a sore on the inside of my mouth.
2 a the inside : an inner part of something (such as a building or machine) ▪ The inside of the church is quite beautiful. ▪ I've never seen the inside of a computer before. — often plural ▪ the insides of a computer b [count] informal : the inner parts (such as the heart and stomach) of a person's body — usually plural ▪ I felt like my insides were tied up in knots.
on the inside 1 : on the inner side, edge, or surface of something ▪ The number 22 car tried to pass the leader on the inside (of the track). 2 baseball : on the side of home plate nearest the batter ▪ The next pitch was a fastball on the inside. 3 — used to describe how someone is feeling ▪ She may have seemed happy, but really she was sad on the inside. 4 : in a position within an organization or group ▪ The bank robbers must have had help from someone on the inside. [=someone working for the bank that was robbed] 5 : in prison ▪ He wondered what life was like on the inside.

[2]inside adj, always used before a noun
1 : located on or near the inner side, edge, or surface of something ▪ an inside wall/corner/door ▪ the inside edge of her foot ▪ (baseball) He struck out on an inside pitch.
2 a : coming from someone within a group or organization : relating to or having information that is known only to a special group of people ▪ inside sources/information ▪ He gave us an inside view of the situation. ▪ I got the inside story from a friend who works there. ▪ It's an inside joke. [=a joke that is understood only by people with special knowledge about something] b : done by someone within a group or organization ▪ No one knows who robbed the bank, but the police suspect that it may have been an inside job. [=that it may have been robbed by or with the help of someone who works in the bank]

[3]inside prep
1 : in or into the inner part of (something or someone) ▪ We waited inside the store. ▪ Several people were trapped inside the burning building. ▪ She kept her hands inside her pockets. ▪ His feelings were building up inside him.
2 a : within the borders or limits of (something) ▪ He lives inside the city limits. ▪ They make sure to stay inside the law. [=to not break any laws] ▪ She always kept well inside [=she drove slower than] the speed limit. b : before the end of (a period of time) ▪ Their marriage ended inside [=within] a year. ▪ We should hear the results inside [=in less than] an hour.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

3 : belonging to (a group or organization) ▪ Sources inside the company indicate that there are disagreements about the change in management.

inside of chiefly US : INSIDE ▪ We waited inside of the store. ▪ He lives inside of the city limits. ▪ The results should be known inside of an hour. ▪ information from sources inside of the company

[4]inside adv

1 : in the inner part of something ▪ I cleaned my car inside and out. ▪ The candy is chewy inside. ▪ He keeps all his feelings locked up inside. [=he does not express his feelings]

2 : in or into the inner part of a building, room, etc. ▪ We went/stayed inside during the storm. ▪ Step inside and look at our menu.

3 informal : in prison ▪ He got put inside for burglary.

inside out 1 : so that the inner surface becomes the outer surface ▪ He was wearing his socks inside out. ▪ The wind blew my umbrella inside out. 2 informal : very well and thoroughly ▪ She knows this area inside out.

turn (something) inside out informal 1 : to cause (a place) to become disorganized while you are trying to find something ▪ I turned the closet inside out and still couldn't find those shoes. 2 : to change (something) completely ▪ Her life was turned inside out after the accident.

in•sid•er /ɪnˈsaɪdɚ, ˈɪnˌsaɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who belongs to a group or organization and has special knowledge about it ▪ Political insiders say that she is planning to run for president. ▪ The book gives fans an insider's view of Hollywood. — opposite OUTSIDER insider trading noun [noncount] finance : the illegal activity of buying and selling a company's stocks while using secret information from a person who works for the company

inside track noun

the inside track : a position that gives someone an advantage over others in a competition ▪ The owner's son has the inside track for the job. ▪ She is on the inside track to get a promotion.

in•sid•i•ous /ɪnˈsɪdijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing harm in a way that is gradual or not easily noticed ▪ Most people with this insidious disease have no idea that they are infected. ▪ an insidious enemy

– in•sid•i•ous•ly adv ▪ The disease progresses insidiously. – in•sid•i•ous•ness noun [noncount]

in•sight /ˈɪnˌsaɪt/ noun, pl -sights

1 [noncount] : the ability to understand people and situations in a very clear way ▪ He is a leader of great insight.

2 : an understanding of the true nature of something [noncount] The author analyzes the problem with remarkable insight. — often + into ▪ We need to gain insight into the politics of the region. [count] I had a sudden insight. ▪ Her book provides us with fresh new insights into this behavior.

in•sight•ful /ˈɪnˌsaɪtfəl, ɪnˈsaɪtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a very clear understanding of something : having or showing insight ▪ Her analysis of the problem was very insightful. ▪ an insightful comment/remark ▪ insightful leaders – in•sight•ful•ly adv – in•sight•ful•ness noun [noncount]

in•sig•nia /ɪnˈsɪgnijə/ noun, pl insignia or US in•sig•ni•as [count] : a badge or sign which shows that a person is a member of a particular group or has a particular rank ▪ Their jackets have the school's insignia on the front. ▪ a military insignia — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Both attacks bore the insignia of the terrorist group.

in•sig•nif•i•cant /ˌɪnsɪgˈnɪfɪkənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : small or unimportant : not significant ▪ They lost an insignificant amount of money. ▪ insignificant details ▪ Looking up at the stars always makes me feel so small and insignificant. ▪ These problems are not insignificant.

– in•sig•nif•i•cant•ly adv ▪ an insignificantly small amount – in•sig•nif•i•cance /ˌɪnsɪgˈnɪfɪkəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ feelings of insignificance ▪ (chiefly Brit) Your financial debt pales into insignificance [=seems much smaller] when you compare it with mine.

in•sin•cere /ˌɪnsɪnˈsiə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not expressing or showing true feelings : not sincere ▪ He said he was sorry, but I could tell that he was being insincere. ▪ insincere praise/flattery ▪ an insincere apology

– in•sin•cere•ly adv ▪ smiling insincerely – in•sin•cer•i•ty /ˌɪnsɪnˈserəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the insincerity of his apology

in•sin•u•ate /ɪnˈsɪnjəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say (something, especially something bad or insulting) in an indirect way ▪ Just what are you insinuating? [=implying] — often + that ▪ Are you insinuating that I cheated!?

2 formal : to gradually make (yourself) a part of a group, a person's life, etc., often by behaving in a dishonest way — usually + into ▪ He gradually insinuated himself into her life. ▪ She has managed to insinuate herself into the city's highest social circles.

– insinuating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He made an insinuating remark/comment about my weight.

in•sin•u•a•tion /ɪnˌsɪnjəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a usually bad or insulting remark that is said in an indirect way ▪ I resent her insinuation that I can't do it without her help.

2 [noncount] : the act of saying something bad or insulting in an indirect way ▪ He criticizes his opponents by insinuation rather than directly.

in•sip•id /ɪnˈsɪpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : not interesting or exciting : dull or boring ▪ an insipid movie/novel

2 : lacking strong flavor : BLAND ▪ The soup was rather insipid.

– in•sip•id•ly adv – in•si•pid•i•ty /ˌɪnsəˈpɪdəti/ noun [noncount]

in•sist /ɪnˈsɪst/ verb -sists; -sist•ed; -sist•ing

1 : to demand that something happen or that someone do something [no obj] I didn't want to go, but she insisted. ▪ "Come on, let's go." "Oh, all right, if/since you insist." [+ obj] — usually + that ▪ She insisted that I (should) go. ▪ The source for my story insisted that I not reveal his/her name.

2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a way that is very forceful and does not allow disagreement ▪ She insists the money is hers. — usually + that ▪ She kept insisting that she was right. ▪ He insists that these problems are not his fault. ▪ Both men insist that they are innocent.

insist on also insist upon [phrasal verb] 1 *insist on/upon (something) or insist on/upon doing (something) : to say or show that you believe that something is necessary or very important ▪ My source insisted on anonymity. ▪ She insists on doing everything her own way. ▪ They adamantly insisted upon (their) being included in the meeting. 2 *insist on/upon doing (something) informal : to continue doing (something that other people think is annoying or unimportant) ▪ The people sitting next to us insisted on talking during the entire movie.

in•sis•tence /ɪnˈsɪstəns/ noun [noncount]

1 : the act of demanding something or saying something in a way that does not allow disagreement — often + on ▪ I was surprised by their insistence on privacy. ▪ her insistence on being honest — often + that ▪ No one believed him despite his insistence that he was innocent. ✧ If you do something at the insistence of someone or at someone's insistence, you do it because someone tells you that you must do it. ▪ She was fired from her job at the insistence of the mayor. ▪ He enrolled in the army at his father's insistence.

2 : the quality or state of being insistent ▪ He spoke with great insistence of the need for reform. ▪ the insistence of the crashing waves in•sis•tent /ɪnˈsɪstənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : demanding that something happen or that someone do something ▪ My friends were insistent that I go. = They were insistent on my going. [=they insisted that I go] ▪ He was insistent about paying for dinner. [=he insisted on paying for dinner; he insisted that he should pay for dinner]

2 : happening for a long time and very difficult to ignore ▪ an insistent drumbeat ▪ We listened to the insistent crashing of waves on the beach.

– in•sis•tent•ly adv ▪ He spoke very insistently of the need for reform.

in•so•far as /ˌɪnsəˈfɑɚ-/ also in so far as conj, formal : to the extent or degree that ▪ She helped us insofar as she was able. [=she helped us as much as she could] ▪ The news is good insofar as it suggests that a solution may be possible.

in•sole /ˈɪnˌsoʊl/ noun, pl -soles [count]

1 : the bottom of the inside of a shoe

2 : a thin piece of material that you put at the bottom of the inside of a shoe for comfort in•so•lent /ˈɪnsələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : rude or impolite : having or showing a lack of respect for other people ▪ an insolent [=impudent, disrespectful] child ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

Insolent behavior will not be tolerated.
– in•so•lence /ˈɪnsələns/ noun [noncount] ▪ The boy was punished for his insolence. – in•so•lent•ly adv

in•sol•u•ble /ɪnˈsɑːljəbəl/ adj
1 formal : not able to be solved or explained ▪ a seemingly insoluble [=(less formally) unsolvable] dilemma/mystery/problem
2 technical : not able to be dissolved in a liquid ▪ a substance insoluble in water — opposite SOLUBLE in•sol•vent /ɪnˈsɑːlvənt/ adj : not having enough money to pay debts ▪ The company has become insolvent. [=bankrupt] ▪ insolvent debtors

– in•sol•ven•cy /ɪnˈsɑːlvənsi/ noun [noncount]

in•som•nia /ɪnˈsɑːmnijə/ noun [noncount] : the condition of not being able to sleep ▪ She suffers from insomnia.

in•som•ni•ac /ɪnˈsɑːmniˌæk/ noun, pl -ni•acs [count] : a person who is not able to sleep : a person with insomnia in•sou•ci•ance /ɪnˈsuːsijəns/ noun [noncount] formal : a relaxed and calm state : a feeling of not worrying about anything ▪ her youthful insouciance [=nonchalance]

– in•sou•ci•ant /ɪnˈsuːsijənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ his insouciant [=(less formally) carefree] charm

in•spect /ɪnˈspɛkt/ verb -spects; -spect•ed; -spect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to look at (something) carefully in order to learn more about it, to find problems, etc. ▪ The border guard inspected [=examined] their passports. ▪ She had the car inspected by a mechanic before she bought it. ▪ The candles are inspected for damage/defects before being packaged. ▪ After the storm, we went outside to inspect the damage.
2 : to officially visit a school, hospital, etc., in order to see if rules are being followed and things are in their proper condition ▪ He inspected the soldiers' barracks. ▪ inspecting a restaurant for health code violations

in•spec•tion /ɪnˈspɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act of looking at something closely in order to learn more about it, to find problems, etc. : the act of inspecting something [noncount] Close inspection of the candles revealed some small defects. ▪ On closer inspection, [=when it was examined more closely] the painting proved to be a fake. [count] The mechanic made/did a thorough inspection of the car. = The mechanic carried out a thorough inspection.
2 : an official visit to a school, hospital, etc., in order to see if rules are being followed and things are in their proper condition [count] Regular inspections are required of all restaurants in the area. [noncount] The barracks are ready for inspection.

in•spec•tor /ɪnˈspɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person whose job is to inspect something ▪ a building inspector ▪ safety/health inspectors [=people who make sure that a place or thing is safe/healthy]
2 : a police officer who is in charge of several police departments inspector general noun, pl inspectors general [count] : a person who is in charge of a group of inspectors or a system of inspection in•spi•ra•tion /ˌɪnspəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a [noncount] : something that makes someone want to do something or that gives someone an idea about what to do or create : a force or influence that inspires someone ▪ Where does the inspiration for your art come from? ▪ His paintings take/draw their inspiration from nature. ▪ Her early childhood provided (the) inspiration for her first novel. ▪ Her courage is a source of inspiration to us all. [=her courage makes us all want to be more courageous] ▪ Her most recent plays seem to lack inspiration. [=they are not very original or creative] ▪ divine inspiration [=inspiration that comes from God] b [count] : a person, place, experience, etc., that makes someone want to do or create something — usually singular ▪ His children are his greatest inspiration. ▪ Her courage is an inspiration to us all. ▪ She truly is an inspiration.
2 : a good idea [singular] She had a sudden inspiration. They would have the party outdoors! [noncount] Deciding to have the party outdoors was sheer inspiration.

in•spi•ra•tion•al /ˌɪnspəˈreɪʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing people to want to do or create something : giving inspiration ▪ an inspirational speaker ▪ Her courage is inspirational.

in•spire /ɪnˈspajə/ verb -spires; -spired; -spir•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) want to do something : to give (someone) an idea about what to do or create ▪ He inspired generations of future scientists. ▪ Her courage has inspired us. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She has inspired us to live better lives. ▪ Her early childhood inspired her to write her first novel.
2 : to cause (something) to happen or be created ▪ His discoveries inspired a whole new line of scientific research. ▪ Her first novel was inspired by her early childhood.
3 : to cause someone to have (a feeling or emotion) ▪ The news inspired hope that the war might end soon. ▪ His unusual management style does not inspire confidence. [=it makes people worry about his ability to manage properly]

inspired adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very good or clever ▪ She gave an inspired performance. ▪ He was an inspired choice for the role. ▪ an inspired guess — opposite UNINSPIRED
2 : having a particular cause or influence ▪ Her comments were politically inspired. [=they were made for political reasons] — often used in combination ▪ Italian-inspired architecture inspiring adj [more ~; most ~] : causing people to want to do or create something or to lead better lives ▪ an inspiring leader ▪ His generosity is inspiring. ▪ an inspiring [=inspirational] true story of one family's struggles to overcome poverty — opposite UNINSPIRING

– in•spir•ing•ly adv ▪ He is inspiringly optimistic.

in•sta•bil•i•ty /ˌɪnstəˈbɪlәti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being unstable: such as a : the state of being likely to change ▪ Investors are worried about the current instability of the stock market. ▪ political/social instability b : the tendency to change your behavior very quickly or to react to things in an extremely emotional way ▪ The patient has a history of emotional/mental instability.

in•stall /ɪnˈstɑːl/ verb -stalls; -stalled; -stall•ing
1 : to make (a machine, a service, etc.) ready to be used in a certain place [+ obj] New locks were installed on all the doors. ▪ We thought about installing a new phone system. ▪ a newly installed door ▪ The computer comes with the software already installed. [no obj] The software installs easily/automatically on your hard drive.
2 [+ obj] : to put (someone) in an official or important job ▪ The college recently installed its first woman president.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be or stay in a particular place ▪ He installed himself on the leather couch. [=he sat down on the couch and stayed there] ▪ They were temporarily installed in the guest bedroom.
– in•stall•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a professional carpet installer

in•stal•la•tion /ˌɪnstəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of making a machine, a service, etc., ready to be used in a certain place : the act of installing something ▪ The cable company offers lower prices and free installation. ▪ These products are designed for easy installation.
2 [singular] : a ceremony in which someone is put in an official or important job ▪ Her installation as president will take place tomorrow.
3 [count] : something (such as a piece of equipment) that is put together and made ready for use ▪ The room contained the company's large computer installation.
4 [count] : a place that is used for training soldiers, keeping military supplies and machinery, etc. ▪ bases, forts, training camps, and other army installations
5 [count] : a work of art that usually has several parts (such as a sculpture, lights, and sound) and that is usually shown in a large space in•stall•ment (US) also chiefly Brit in•stal•ment /ɪnˈstɑːlmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 : any one of a series of small payments that you make over a long time until you have paid the total cost of something [count] He just paid the last installment of a $20,000 loan. ▪ We are paying for the computer in installments. [noncount] (US) We are paying on installment.
2 [count] : any one of several parts of a long book, television program, etc., that are published or shown over a period of time ▪ The first installment of the five-part series will appear tonight at ten o'clock.

installment plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] US : a way of paying for something by making a series of small payments over a long time ▪ We used an installment plan to buy the furniture. ▪ We bought it on the installment plan. — called also (Brit) hire purchase in•stance /ˈɪnstəns/ noun, pl -stanc•es [count] : an example of a particular type of action or situation : an occasion of

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

something happening ▪ an instance of great courage ▪ These delays are just another instance of bureaucratic inefficiency. ▪ We have seen too many instances [=cases] in which poor families have had to leave their homes. ▪ In most instances the disease can be controlled by medication. ▪ They have decided not to oppose the decision in this instance.

for instance : as an example : for example ▪ Lack of insurance is a problem for a lot of older people, like my grandmother, for instance. ▪ Now, take this car, for instance.

in the first instance formal : before other events happen : as the first thing in a series of actions ▪ You will be seen in the first instance by your own doctor who may then send you to a specialist.

[1]in•stant /ˈɪnstənt/ noun, pl -stants [count] : a very short period of time : MOMENT ▪ For an instant, I forgot where I was. ▪ The ride was over in an instant. ▪ I knew it was him the instant (that) [=as soon as] I heard his voice. ▪ Come in the house, this instant! [=right now, immediately]

[2]instant adj

1 : becoming something very quickly ▪ The movie was an instant hit/sensation/success. ▪ He became an instant celebrity with the publication of his first novel. ▪ Her trip made her an instant expert on the region. [=it made her believe that she knew everything about the region]

2 : happening or done without delay : IMMEDIATE ▪ We got an instant response from the company. ▪ The Internet provides instant access to an enormous amount of information. ▪ They took an instant dislike to each other. [=they immediately disliked each other] ▪ He expects instant gratification.

3 of food : able to be made very quickly : partially prepared by the manufacturer so that final preparation is quick and easy ▪ Is this coffee instant or regular? ▪ instant pudding/rice in•stan•ta•neous /ˌɪnstənˈteɪnijəs/ adj : happening very quickly : happening in an instant ▪ We got an almost instantaneous response from the company. ▪ Their deaths were instantaneous.

– in•stan•ta•neous•ly adv ▪ They died instantaneously.

in•stant•ly /ˈɪnstəntli/ adv : without delay : IMMEDIATELY ▪ His voice is instantly recognizable. ▪ They instantly fell in love. ▪ She was killed instantly when her car hit a tree.

instant messaging noun [noncount] : a system for sending messages quickly over the Internet from one computer to another computer – instant message noun, pl ~ -sages [count] ▪ We sent each other instant messages all night.

instant replay noun, pl ~ -plays US : a recording of an action in a sports event that can be shown on television immediately after the original play happens [count] They showed the winning goal again in an instant replay. [noncount] We watched the goal again on instant replay. — called also (Brit) action replay

in•stead /ɪnˈstɛd/ adv — used to say that one thing is done or that one thing or person is chosen when another is not chosen, cannot be done, etc. ▪ I was going to write you an e-mail, but I decided to call instead. ▪ I couldn't afford a new car. Instead, I bought a used one. ▪ I don't have any milk—do you mind juice instead? ▪ John couldn't attend the conference so Mary went instead. [=in his place] ▪ They didn't choose me: they chose her instead. ▪ She didn't want to live in the city and longed instead for the peace and quiet of the country. — often + of ▪ I decided to call instead of writing. [=to call and not write] ▪ Instead of buying a new car, I bought a used one. ▪ They chose her instead of [=rather than; and not] me. ▪ He had juice instead of milk.

in•step /ˈɪnˌstɛp/ noun, pl -steps [count]

1 : the raised middle part of the top of your foot between the toes and the ankle — see picture at FOOT

2 : the part of a shoe, sock, etc., that fits over the instep in•sti•gate /ˈɪnstəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something) to happen or begin ▪ There has been an increase in the amount of violence instigated by gangs. ▪ She blamed him for instigating [=starting] the argument. ▪ The government has instigated an investigation into the cause of the accident.

– in•sti•ga•tor /ˈɪnstəˌgeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ the instigators of the violence in•sti•ga•tion /ˌɪnstəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of causing something to happen or begin : the act of instigating something ▪ the instigation of divorce proceedings ✧ Something that is done at the instigation of someone or at someone's instigation is done because that person causes it to be done. ▪ He was hired at the instigation of the company's president. ▪ The changes were made at her instigation.

in•still (US) or Brit in•stil /ɪnˈstɪl/ verb -stills; -stilled; -still•ing [+ obj] : to gradually cause someone to have (an attitude, feeling, etc.) ▪ instill character/discipline — usually + in or into ▪ They have instilled a love of music in their children. ▪ The coach is trying to instill in/into the players a feeling of confidence.

in•stinct /ˈɪnˌstɪŋkt/ noun, pl -stincts

1 a : a way of behaving, thinking, or feeling that is not learned : a natural desire or tendency that makes you want to act in a particular way [count] Our first instinct was to run. ▪ Cats possess a natural hunting instinct. ▪ Seeing the baby aroused all her maternal instincts. [noncount] The decision was based on (gut) instinct. — see also KILLER INSTINCT b : something you know without learning it or thinking about it [count] Her instincts told her that something was wrong. [=she believed that something was wrong even though there was no obvious reason to believe it] ▪ You have to learn to trust/follow your instincts. [=to trust your feelings about what is right or true even when you cannot be sure that it is right or true] ▪ He has been guided throughout his career by his political instincts. [noncount] Mere instinct alerted her to the danger. ▪ He knew by instinct what not to say. ▪ She seemed to know by instinct that something was wrong. — compare INTUITION

2 [count] : a natural ability ▪ He has a strong survival instinct. ▪ an athlete with good instincts — often + for ▪ He has a strong instinct for survival. ▪ She has a natural instinct for making the right decisions in her job. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ a strong instinct to survive in•stinc•tive /ɪnˈstɪŋktɪv/ adj : relating to or based on instinct : based on feelings or desires that do not come from thinking or learning ▪ Cats have an instinctive desire to hunt. ▪ an instinctive reaction/response ▪ instinctive behavior

– in•stinc•tive•ly adv ▪ She felt instinctively that something was wrong. = Instinctively, she felt (that) something was wrong. ▪ He knew instinctively what not to say.

in•stinc•tu•al /ɪnˈstɪŋktʃəwəl/ adj : relating to or based on instinct : INSTINCTIVE ▪ instinctual behaviors

[1]institute noun, pl -tutes [count] : an organization created for a particular purpose (such as research or education) ▪ They founded an institute for research into the causes of mental illness. ▪ an art institute ▪ a technical institute ▪ the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

[2]in•sti•tute /ˈɪnstəˌtu:t, Brit ˈɪnstəˌtju:t/ verb -tutes; -tut•ed; -tut•ing [+ obj] formal : to begin or create (something, such as a new law, rule, or system) ▪ By instituting these programs, we hope to improve our children's education. ▪ They have instituted new policies to increase public safety. ▪ The organization was instituted [=established] in 1910.

in•sti•tu•tion /ˌɪnstəˈtu:ʃən, Brit ˌɪnstəˈtju:ʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] a : an established organization ▪ an educational/academic institution ▪ banks and other financial institutions ▪ an institution of higher learning b : a place where an organization takes care of people for a usually long period of time ▪ She committed herself to a mental institution. [=a hospital for people with mental or emotional problems] ▪ a correctional institution [=a prison]

2 [count] a : a custom, practice, or law that is accepted and used by many people ▪ Family visits are a Thanksgiving institution. ▪ She's not interested in the institution of marriage. ▪ the institution of slavery b : someone or something that is very well known and established in a particular field or place ▪ He is an institution in local politics. [=he has participated in local politics for such a long time that people consider him to be a regular part of local politics] ▪ The play has become something of an institution on Broadway.

3 [noncount] : the act of beginning or creating something (such as a new law, rule, or system) : the act of instituting something ▪ the institution of new rules and regulations

– in•sti•tu•tion•al /ˌɪnstəˈtu:ʃənl, Brit ˌɪnstəˈtju:ʃənl/ adj ▪ institutional power ▪ institutional funds ▪ institutional living ▪ institutional care in•sti•tu•tion•al•ize also Brit in•sti•tu•tion•al•ise /ˌɪnstəˈtu:ʃənəˌlaɪz, Brit ˌɪnstəˈtju:ʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (a custom, practice, law, etc.) to become accepted and used by many people : to establish (something) as an institution ▪ It will take time to institutionalize these reforms.

2 : to put (someone, such as a mentally ill person) in an institution (sense 1b) ▪ They had to institutionalize their youngest

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

son. ▪ She was institutionalized for seven years.
– in•sti•tu•tion•al•i•za•tion also Brit in•sti•tu•tion•al•i•sa•tion /ˌɪnstəˌtuːʃənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌɪnstəˌtjuːʃənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

institutionalized also Brit institutionalised adj
1 a : created and controlled by an established organization ▪ institutionalized housing ▪ institutionalized religion b : established as a common and accepted part of a system or culture ▪ an institutionalized practice ▪ institutionalized beliefs and values ▪ protests against institutionalized racism
2 [more ~; most ~] — used to describe a person who has been living in an insitution (such as a prison) for a very long time and is no longer able to live an independent life in the outside world ▪ After 20 years in prison, he had become completely institutionalized.

in–store /ˈɪnˈstoə/ adj : existing, happening, or available in a store ▪ in-store displays/advertising ▪ in-store cafés in•struct /ɪnˈstrʌkt/ verb -structs; -struct•ed; -struct•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to teach (someone) a subject, skill, etc. — usually + in or on ▪ His friend instructed him in English. ▪ Many doctors are instructing their patients on the importance of exercise. ▪ She instructed us on how to interpret the text.
2 a : to give (someone) an order or command ▪ She instructed us that we were to remain in our seats. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ She instructed us to remain in our seats. — often used as (be) instructed ▪ We were instructed to remain in our seats. b law : to give an order or an explanation of a law to (a jury) ▪ The judge instructed the jury that they should disregard the testimony of the last witness.
3 Brit : to hire (a lawyer) to represent you in a legal case ▪ She advised him to instruct a solicitor.

in•struc•tion /ɪnˈstrʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : a statement that describes how to do something ▪ You should read each instruction carefully. — usually plural ▪ Our teacher gave us instructions for building the model. = Our teacher gave us instructions on how to build the model. ▪ The manual provides complete/detailed instructions [=directions] for installing the software. ▪ an instruction manual b : an order or command ▪ Their instruction was to deliver the package by five o'clock. — usually plural ▪ We had instructions not to admit anyone. ▪ I gave you explicit instructions to be here by six o'clock. ▪ Don't you know how to follow instructions? [=directions] ▪ I did everything according to your instructions.
2 [noncount] : the action or process of teaching : the act of instructing someone ▪ The after-school program offers/provides reading instruction to students who need it. — often + in ▪ The students are receiving instruction in algebra.
3 [count] computers : a set of letters, numbers, etc., that tells a computer to do something ▪ The computer can handle one million instructions per second.

in•struc•tion•al /ɪnˈstrʌkʃənl/ adj, always used before a noun : giving information about how to do or use something : providing instruction ▪ We need more instructional materials in our classrooms. ▪ instructional videos ▪ These models are used for instructional purposes.

in•struc•tive /ɪnˈstrʌktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : providing knowledge or information : helping to instruct someone ▪ It was very instructive [=informative, educational] to watch the doctors work. ▪ an interesting and instructive lesson in•struc•tor /ɪnˈstrʌktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a person who teaches a subject or skill : someone who instructs people ▪ a swimming/driving instructor
2 US : a teacher in a college or university who is not a professor ▪ He's a poetry instructor at a local community college.

in•stru•ment /ˈɪnstrəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : a tool or device used for a particular purpose ▪ instruments of torture ▪ The murder weapon was a blunt instrument. [=an object without sharp edges or points]; especially : a tool or device designed to do careful and exact work ▪ surgical/laboratory instruments synonyms see ¹IMPLEMENT
2 : a device that measures something (such as temperature or distance) ▪ an instrument designed to measure the Earth's atmosphere ▪ Part of her training as a pilot involved learning to fly by instruments. [=learning to fly only by looking at the instruments in the airplane]
3 : a device that is used to make music ▪ The piano was his favorite musical instrument. ▪ Do you play any instruments? — see also WIND INSTRUMENT
4 : someone or something that can be used to do or achieve something ▪ Movies can be useful instruments of social change. [=movies can be used to cause social change] ▪ She believed that she was an instrument of God. [=she believed that God was using her to do things; she believed that God was acting through her]
5 law : an official document that shows legal rights or duties ▪ a mortgage instrument ▪ stocks, bonds, and other financial instruments

in•stru•men•tal /ˌɪnstrəˈmɛntl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : very important in helping or causing something to happen or be done — often + in ▪ He was instrumental in organizing the club. = He played an instrumental part/role in organizing the club. ▪ Her influence was instrumental in bringing the painting to the museum.
2 music : written for or performed on musical instruments : not including singing ▪ They played instrumental music at the wedding. ▪ an instrumental version of a song – in•stru•men•tal•ly /ˌɪnstrəˈmɛntlji/ adv ▪ an instrumentally and vocally beautiful song ▪ He was instrumentally involved in the organization of the club.

in•stru•men•tal•ist /ˌɪnstrəˈmɛntlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who plays a musical instrument ▪ a talented instrumentalist

in•stru•men•ta•tion /ˌɪnstrəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a way of writing or arranging music so that it can be performed in a particular style or by particular instruments ▪ jazz instrumentation
2 : a set of instruments ▪ There was a problem with the airplane's instrumentation.

instrument panel noun, pl ~ -els [count] : a flat surface across the front of an airplane's cockpit that contains the instruments used to fly the plane — compare DASHBOARD

in•sub•or•di•nate /ˌɪnsəˈbɔədənət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not obeying authority : refusing to follow orders ▪ His behavior was unprofessional and insubordinate. ▪ an insubordinate attitude – in•sub•or•di•na•tion /ˌɪnsəˌbɔədəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ She was fired for gross insubordination.

in•sub•stan•tial /ˌɪnsəbˈstænʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not substantial: such as a : not large or important ▪ Their contribution to the fund was insubstantial. ▪ a very insubstantial [=small] amount of money ▪ insubstantial differences b : not strong or solid ▪ The scarf is beautiful but too thin and insubstantial [=flimsy] to keep you warm. c : not real : not made of a real substance ▪ an insubstantial [=imaginary] place ▪ as insubstantial as a ghost
– in•sub•stan•ti•al•i•ty /ˌɪnsəbˌstænʃiˈæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the insubstantiality of the fabric/evidence in•suf•fer•able /ɪnˈsʌfrəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad or unpleasant : too unpleasant to deal with or accept ▪ I can't take any more of her insufferable arrogance. ▪ He's an insufferable bore. ▪ insufferable [=unbearable, intolerable] heat – in•suf•fer•ably /ɪnˈsʌfrəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ an insufferably arrogant woman in•suf• •cient /ˌɪnsəˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : not having or providing enough of what is needed : not sufficient ▪ The case was thrown out because of insufficient evidence. — often followed by to + verb ▪ There was insufficient evidence to prove their case. — often + for ▪ His income was insufficient for the family's needs.

– in•suf• •cien •cy /ˌɪnsəˈfɪʃənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count, noncount] ▪ an insufficiency [=deficiency] of evidence – in•suf• •cient •ly adv ▪ insufficiently strong evidence in•su•lar /ˈɪnsʊlə, Brit ˈɪnsjʊlə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : separated from other people or cultures : not knowing or interested in new or different ideas ▪ an insular [=isolated] group ▪ the insular world of boarding schools ▪ an insular [=narrow] way of thinking – in•su•lar•i•ty /ˌɪnsʊˈlerəti, Brit ˌɪnsjʊˈlærəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the insularity of the boarding school world in•su•late /ˈɪnsəˌleɪt, Brit ˈɪnsjʊˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 : to add a material or substance to (something) in order to stop heat, electricity, or sound from going into or out of it [+ obj] They used a special type of fiberglass to insulate the attic. [no obj] a material that is able to insulate against cold
2 [+ obj] : to prevent (someone or something) from dealing with or experiencing something : to keep (someone or something) separate from something unpleasant, dangerous, etc. ▪ The company has tried to insulate itself from the region's political turmoil. ▪ I wish I could insulate my children from/against painful experiences.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

– insulated adj ▪ insulated windows and doors ▪ an insulated ceiling ▪ insulated wires ▪ Our heating bills are high because our house is poorly insulated.

in•su•la•tion /ˌɪnsəˈleɪʃən, Brit ˌɪnsjʊˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a material or substance that is used to stop heat, electricity, or sound from going into or out of something : a material that insulates something ▪ They used fiberglass insulation.
2 a : the quality or state of being insulated ▪ These materials provide the insulation needed in cold weather. b : the act of insulating something ▪ I hired them to do the insulation of the attic. [=to insulate the attic] in•su•la•tor /ˈɪnsəˌleɪtɚ ˈɪnsjʊˌleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a material that allows little or no heat, electricity, or sound to go into or out of something ▪ Metal is not a good insulator.

in•su•lin /ˈɪnsələn, Brit ˈɪnsjʊlən/ noun [noncount] medical : a substance that your body makes and uses to turn sugar into energy ✧ If your body does not produce enough insulin, you will develop diabetes. ▪ His insulin level is too low.

[1]in•sult /ɪnˈsʌlt/ verb -sults; -sult•ed; -sult•ing [+ obj] : to do or say something that is offensive to (someone) : to do or say something that shows a lack of respect for (someone) ▪ She felt they had insulted her by repeatedly ignoring her questions. ▪ We were greatly insulted by his rudeness. ▪ They're understandably insulted when no one asks for their opinion on a matter that affects them so much. ▪ You're saying those photos are real? Don't insult my intelligence. [=don't treat me as though I am stupid; don't expect me to believe those photos are real]

[2]in•sult /ˈɪnˌsʌlt/ noun, pl -sults [count] : a rude or offensive act or statement : something that insults someone ▪ The fans hurled/shouted insults at the referee as he walked off the field after the game. ▪ Their decision to cancel the project was an insult to all my hard work. ▪ They got into a fight over a minor insult. ▪ We could hear them angrily trading/exchanging insults (with each other). ▪ The assignment was an insult to our intelligence. [=the assignment was too simple] add insult to injury : to do or say something that makes a bad situation even worse for someone ▪ Most people were forced to work longer hours each week, and to add insult to injury, the company decided not to give pay raises.

insulting adj [more ~; most ~] : rude or offensive : showing a lack of respect ▪ an insulting remark/attitude ▪ insulting language — sometimes + to ▪ jokes/lyrics that are insulting to women – in•sul•ting•ly /ɪnˈsʌltɪŋli/ adv ▪ an insultingly simplistic plot in•su•per•a•ble /ɪnˈsuːpərəbəl, Brit ɪnˈsjuːpərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal, of a problem, difficulty, etc. : impossible to solve or get control of : impossible to overcome ▪ They succeeded despite some nearly insuperable [=insurmountable] difficulties. ▪ insuperable barriers in•sup•port•able /ˌɪnsəˈpoətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : more or worse than can be dealt with or accepted ▪ insupportable [=insufferable, intolerable] behavior ▪ an insupportable [=unbearable] burden in•sur•ance /ɪnˈʃɚəns/ noun [noncount]

1 : an agreement in which a person makes regular payments to a company and the company promises to pay money if the person is injured or dies, or to pay money equal to the value of something (such as a house or car) if it is damaged, lost, or stolen ▪ life insurance ▪ insurance against theft or damage ▪ health/medical insurance ▪ auto insurance ▪ He was very glad that he had taken out insurance on the boat. [=that he had insured the boat] — see also NATIONAL INSURANCE
2 a : the amount of money a person regularly pays an insurance company as part of an insurance agreement ▪ What's the monthly insurance on your car? [=how much money do you pay each month for insurance for your car?] b : the amount of money that a person receives from an insurance company ▪ After the fire, we used the insurance (money) to buy a new house.
3 : the business of providing insurance ▪ She has a job in insurance. ▪ I work for an insurance company.
4 : protection from bad things that may happen in the future — usually + against ▪ Education provides insurance against instability in the job market. ▪ The contract provides insurance against future price changes.

insurance adjuster noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a person who works for an insurance company and whose job is to decide how much money the company will pay people when they are injured or when their property is damaged, lost, or stolen — called also (Brit) loss adjuster insurance agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] : a person whose job is to provide people with insurance — called also insurance broker

insurance policy noun, pl ~ -cies [count] : [2]POLICY

in•sure /ɪnˈʃɚ/ verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to buy insurance for (something, such as property or health) ▪ He insured the boat. ▪ We insured our house against fire and flood damage. b : to provide insurance for (something, such as property or health) ▪ I found a company that will insure my car for less than I've been paying. ▪ This policy will insure your car against theft.; also : to provide (someone) with insurance ▪ She had difficulty finding a company that would insure her.
2 US : to make (something) sure, certain, or safe : ENSURE ▪ They take great care to insure the safety and security of their home. ▪ We hope that careful planning will insure success.
insure against [phrasal verb] 1 insure against (something) : to make (something bad) less likely to happen usually by planning and preparing ▪ Doctors recommend exercising to insure against health problems. ▪ Despite all of our planning, we can't insure against bad weather. 2 insure (someone) against (something) : to protect (someone) from (something bad) ▪ We can't insure our children against all life's problems.

insured adj : having insurance (sense 1) ▪ an insured person ▪ insured property ▪ All cars in this state must be insured in order to legally be driven. ▪ "I lost the ring." "Was it fully insured?" — often + against ▪ Was your ring insured against loss?
the insured law : a person who has insurance : a person whose life, health, or property is insured ▪ In the event of an injury, the insured will receive payment in 90 days.

in•sur•er /ɪnˈʃɚɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a company that provides insurance ▪ In this policy, the insurer agrees to pay for all medical expenses. ▪ the country's leading insurers

in•sur•gen•cy /ɪnˈsɚʤənsi/ noun, pl -cies : a usually violent attempt to take control of a government : a rebellion or uprising [count] The insurgency [=insurrection] has continued for three years. [noncount] a campaign of insurgency in•sur•gent /ɪnˈsɚʤənt/ noun, pl -gents [count] : a person who fights against an established government or authority ▪ Insurgents are trying to gain control of the country's transportation system. — often used before another noun ▪ an insurgent group ▪ insurgent attacks in•sur•mount•able /ˌɪnsəˈmaʊntəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] of a problem, difficulty, etc. : impossible to solve or get control of : impossible to overcome ▪ They were faced with several insurmountable obstacles/problems. ▪ insurmountable debt – in•sur•mount•ably /ˌɪnsəˈmaʊntəbli/ adv ▪ insurmountably difficult in•sur•rec•tion /ˌɪnsəˈrɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a usually violent attempt to take control of a government [count] He led an armed insurrection [=rebellion, uprising] against the elected government. [noncount] acts of insurrection

– in•sur•rec•tion•ary /ˌɪnsəˈrɛkʃəˌneri, Brit ˌɪnsəˈrɛkʃnri/ adj ▪ insurrectionary violence ▪ an insurrectionary group – in•sur•rec•tion•ist /ˌɪnsəˈrɛkʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a group of armed insurrectionists

in•tact /ɪnˈtækt/ adj : not broken or damaged : having every part ▪ The house survived the war intact. ▪ After 25 years, their friendship remained intact.

in•take /ˈɪnˌteɪk/ noun, pl -takes
1 : the amount of something (such as food or drink) that is taken into your body [noncount] You should limit your daily intake of fats and sugars. [count] a larger intake of fluids ▪ the recommended daily intakes of selected vitamins
2 [count] : the act of taking something (such as air) into your body ▪ a sudden intake of breath
3 [count] : a place or part where liquid or air enters something (such as an engine) ▪ the fuel intake
4 Brit : the number of things or people that are taken into something (such as an organization) [count] The new intake of Labour MPs includes many women. [noncount] The school's intake of students has increased in recent years.

in•tan•gi•ble /ɪnˈtænʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not made of physical substance : not able to be touched : not tangible ▪ Leadership is an intangible asset to a company. ▪ an intangible benefit – intangible noun, pl -gibles [count] ▪ Success may depend upon such intangibles as talent and experience.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

in•te•ger /ˈɪntɪʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] mathematics : any number that is not a fraction or decimal : any whole number or its negative ▪ positive and negative integers ▪ Both 10 and -10 are integers. — compare WHOLE NUMBER in•te•gral /ˈɪntɪgrəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very important and necessary ▪ Industry is an integral [=essential] part of modern society. ▪ She had become an integral part of their lives. — often + to ▪ His character is integral [=essential] to the story. ▪ Luck was integral to our success.

– in•te•gral•ly /ˈɪntɪgrəli/ adv ▪ She was integrally involved in their lives.

in•te•grate /ˈɪntəˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; -grat•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to combine (two or more things) to form or create something ▪ The car's design successfully integrates art and/with technology. ▪ She integrates elements of jazz and rock in her music. b : to make (something) a part of another larger thing — usually + into ▪ He feels that these books should be integrated into the curriculum. [=should be included in the curriculum]
2 a : to make (a person or group) part of a larger group or organization — usually + into [+ obj] They have resisted efforts to integrate women into the military. [no obj] Many immigrants have found it difficult to integrate into American culture. b : to end a policy that keeps people of different races apart in (a place, such as a school) [+ obj] She has been a leader in the efforts to integrate [=desegregate] public schools. [no obj] a law requiring schools to integrate — opposite SEGREGATE – in•te•gra•tion /ˌɪntəˈgreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the integration of art and/with technology ▪ the integration of women into the military ▪ racial/social integration

integrated adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having different parts working together as a unit ▪ an integrated system of hospitals ▪ an integrated company
2 : allowing all types of people to participate or be included : not segregated ▪ integrated schools ▪ an integrated neighborhood integrated circuit noun, pl ~ -cuits [count] computers : MICROCHIP

in•te•gra•tion•ist /ˌɪntəˈgreɪʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who supports racial integration ▪ integrationists versus segregationists

in•teg•ri•ty /ɪnˈtɛgrəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : the quality of being honest and fair ▪ He has a reputation for integrity [=honesty] in his business dealings. ▪ He's a man of the highest/greatest integrity. ▪ academic integrity ▪ I admire her artistic/personal integrity. ▪ She had the integrity to refuse to compromise on matters of principle.
2 : the state of being complete or whole ▪ Without music, the film loses its integrity. ▪ They are trying to preserve the cultural integrity of the community. ▪ The earthquake may have damaged the building's structural integrity.

in•tel•lect /ˈɪntəˌlɛkt/ noun, pl -lects
1 : the ability to think in a logical way [noncount] She is a woman of superior intellect. [count] She has a sharp/keen intellect. ▪ We were required to read a book every week in order to develop our intellects. ▪ music that appeals to the intellect while still satisfying the emotions
2 [count] : a very smart person : a person whose intellect is well developed ▪ He's recognized as one of the greatest intellects [=minds] currently working in this field.

[1]in•tel•lec•tu•al /ˌɪntəˈlɛkʧəwəl/ adj
1 : of or relating to the ability to think in a logical way ▪ a child's intellectual development/growth ▪ intellectual challenges ▪ intellectual activities/exercises
2 [more ~; most ~] a : involving serious study and thought ▪ the social and intellectual life of the campus ▪ the library's commitment to intellectual freedom [=freedom that allows people to think about or study what they want] b of a person : smart and enjoying serious study and thought ▪ a rather intellectual poet
– in•tel•lec•tu•al•ly /ˌɪntəˈlɛkʧəwəli/ adv ▪ He has grown both emotionally and intellectually.

[2]intellectual noun, pl -als [count] : a smart person who enjoys serious study and thought : an intellectual person ▪ He thinks that he's an intellectual, but he doesn't know what he's talking about. ▪ She's a hard worker but she's no great intellectual. ▪ a café where artists and intellectuals mingle intellectual property noun [noncount] law : something (such as an idea, invention, or process) that comes from a person's mind ▪ Any song that you write is your intellectual property. ▪ the protection of intellectual property rights [=the rights of a person who has thought of or invented something that other people want to use, profit from, etc.]

in•tel•li•gence /ɪnˈtɛləʤəns/ noun [noncount]
1 : the ability to learn or understand things or to deal with new or difficult situations ▪ She impressed us with her superior intelligence. ▪ a person of average/normal/high/low intelligence ▪ human intelligence — see also ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE
2 : secret information that a government collects about an enemy or possible enemy ▪ military intelligence ▪ gathering intelligence about a neighboring country's activities — often used before another noun ▪ intelligence sources/operations ▪ a national intelligence agency; also : a government organization that collects such information ▪ He was appointed (as the) head of army intelligence.

intelligence quotient noun, pl ~ -tients [count] : IQ intelligence test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : a test designed to measure a person's intelligence

in•tel•li•gent /ɪnˈtɛləʤənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the ability to easily learn or understand things or to deal with new or difficult situations : having or showing a lot of intelligence ▪ highly/very intelligent [=smart] people ▪ She asked some intelligent questions. ▪ He's a hard worker but he's not very intelligent. ▪ an intelligent decision
2 : able to learn and understand things ▪ intelligent beings ▪ Dogs are intelligent animals. ▪ They are looking for signs of intelligent life [=creatures that can learn and understand things] on other planets.
3 : having an ability to deal with problems or situations that resembles or suggests the ability of an intelligent person ▪ intelligent software ▪ an intelligent machine – in•tel•li•gent•ly adv ▪ He spoke/wrote intelligently about the changes that are needed. ▪ an intelligently designed computer system in•tel•li•gen•tsia /ɪnˌtɛləˈʤɛntsijə, ɪnˌtɛləˈgɛntsijə/ noun [singular] : a group of intelligent and well-educated people who guide or try to guide the political, artistic, or social development of their society — usually used with the ▪ Her new book has been embraced by the intelligentsia. ▪ His proposals were ridiculed by the intelligentsia. ✧ Intelligentsia can be used with either a singular or plural verb. ▪ The intelligentsia has/have embraced her new book.

in•tel•li•gi•ble /ɪnˈtɛləʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be understood ▪ an intelligible plan ▪ the ability to make complex concepts intelligible to the average reader; especially : clear enough to be heard, read, etc. ▪ His diaries include passages that are barely intelligible. [=almost impossible to read] ▪ Very little of the recording was intelligible. — opposite UNINTELLIGIBLE
– in•tel•li•gi•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌtɛləʤəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the intelligibility of the concepts – in•tel•li•gi•bly /ɪnˈtɛləʤəbli/ adv ▪ She has trouble speaking intelligibly. [=clearly, in a voice that is loud enough, etc.]

in•tem•per•ate /ɪnˈtɛmpərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not temperate: such as a : having extreme conditions ▪ an intemperate [=extremely hot/cold] climate/zone ▪ intemperate [=severe, stormy] weather b : having or showing a lack of emotional calmness or control ▪ He wrote an intemperate [=angry] letter to his congresswoman. ▪ an intemperate discussion c old-fashioned : often drinking too much alcohol ▪ an intemperate drinker – in•tem•per•ance /ɪnˈtɛmpərəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ He later regretted the intemperance of his words. ▪ the intemperance of the weather

in•tend /ɪnˈtɛnd/ verb -tends; -tend•ed; -tend•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to plan or want to do (something) : to have (something) in your mind as a purpose or goal ▪ He intended that his daughter would inherit the business. = (Brit) He intended leaving the business to his daughter. ▪ I didn't intend any disrespect. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I didn't intend to show any disrespect. ▪ He intended to leave the business to his daughter. ▪ She clearly intends to stay here. ▪ He didn't intend to hurt anybody. b : to plan for or want (someone or something) to do or be something ▪ We intended that she come with us. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ We intended her to come with us. ▪ They intended the wedding to be formal. ▪ If everything goes as intended [=if everything happens in the way that has been planned], he will graduate this spring.
2 a : to want (something that you control, provide, or have made) to be used for a particular purpose or by a particular person — often followed by to + verb ▪ The person who donated the computers intended them to be used in classrooms. — often + for ▪ The author intended the book for adults. — usually used as (be) intended ▪ The book was intended for adults. ▪ These computers were intended [=meant] to be used in classrooms. ▪ The bullet was intended for him. [=the person who shot the gun wanted the bullet to hit him] ▪ The film was intended to educate people. ▪ The program is intended to make life easier for working parents. — sometimes + as ▪ It was never intended as a substitute for the real thing. b : to want (something) to express a particular meaning — usually used as (be) intended ▪ What was intended by the author? [=what meaning was the author trying to express?] — often + as ▪ The comment was not intended [=meant] as an insult. ▪ The arrests were intended as a warning to other criminals. — often followed by to + verb ▪ The comment was not intended to be an insult.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

[1]intended adj : in your mind as a purpose or goal ▪ He was unable to pursue his intended career. [=the career that he wanted/planned to have] ▪ What's your intended destination? ▪ The book failed to reach its intended audience.

[2]intended noun, pl -eds [count] old-fashioned : a person to whom someone is engaged to be married — usually singular ▪ a young man and his intended

in•tense /ɪnˈtɛns/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very great in degree : very strong ▪ intense [=extreme] heat/cold/pain/pressure ▪ He shielded his eyes from the intense flash of light. ▪ She has an intense dislike for/of her husband's friend. ▪ intense anger

2 a : done with or showing great energy, enthusiasm, or effort ▪ After many years of intense study, he received his medical degree. ▪ an intense effort ▪ School reform is a subject of intense debate. ▪ The work requires intense concentration. b of a person : very serious ▪ He was an intense young man who was very determined to do well in school.

– in•tense•ly adv ▪ an intensely ambitious woman ▪ The students competed intensely for the prize. ▪ He gazed at her intensely.

in•ten•si• •er /ɪnˈtɛnsəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] grammar : a word (such as really or very) that gives force or emphasis to a statement ▪ "So" can function as an intensifier, as in "I'm so tired." — called also intensive in•ten•si•fy /ɪnˈtɛnsəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing

1 [no obj] : to become stronger or more extreme : to become more intense ▪ We could hear the wind howling outside as the storm intensified. ▪ The fighting has intensified.

2 [+ obj] : to make (something) stronger or more extreme : to make (something) more intense ▪ They intensified their efforts to increase sales. ▪ an intensified search for survivors

– in•ten•si• •ca•tion /ɪnˌtɛnsəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] a process of intensification [singular] an intensification of violence in•ten•si•ty /ɪnˈtɛnsəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being intense : extreme strength or force ▪ the intensity of the sun's rays ▪ the intensity of the argument

2 : the degree or amount of strength or force that something has [count] hurricanes of different intensities [noncount] The noise grew in intensity. [=the noise became louder] ▪ The sun shone with great intensity.

[1]in•ten•sive /ɪnˈtɛnsɪv/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : involving very great effort or work ▪ an intensive effort ▪ intensive study/research ▪ an intensive course in business writing

2 grammar : giving force or emphasis to a statement ▪ an intensive pronoun/adverb

3 of farming : designed to increase production without using more land ▪ intensive farming/agriculture

– see also CAPITAL-INTENSIVE, LABOR-INTENSIVE

– in•ten•sive•ly adv ▪ She trained intensively for two years.

[2]intensive noun, pl -sives [count] grammar : INTENSIFIER intensive care noun [noncount] : a section of a hospital where special medical equipment and services are provided for patients who are seriously injured or ill ▪ patients in intensive care = patients in the intensive care unit [=ICU]; also : the medical care provided in such a section ▪ Her condition will require intensive care.

[1]in•tent /ɪnˈtɛnt/ noun, pl -tents [count] : the thing that you plan to do or achieve : an aim or purpose ▪ She thinks I'm trying to make things difficult for her, but that's not my intent. ▪ What was the the writer's intent? ▪ The intent of the law is to protect consumers. ▪ He was charged with assault with intent to kill.

to all intents and purposes also US for all intents and purposes — used to say that one thing has the same effect or result as something else ▪ Their decision to begin bombing was, to all intents and purposes, a declaration of war.

[2]intent adj [more ~; most ~] : showing concentration or great attention ▪ an intent gaze intent on/upon (something) : giving all of your attention and effort to a specific task or goal ▪ She seems intent on destroying our credibility. [=she seems to be determined to destroy our credibility] ▪ They were intent on their work. [=they were focused on their work] – in•tent•ly adv ▪ She listened intently to the news report.

in•ten•tion /ɪnˈtɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : the thing that you plan to do or achieve : an aim or purpose ▪ She announced her intention to run for governor. ▪ He seemed to think that I was trying to cause problems, but that was never my intention. ▪ He said he loved her, but he actually had no intention of marrying her. [=he did not intend to marry her] ▪ We have every intention of continuing with this project [=we intend to continue with this project], whatever the cost. ▪ He bought a dog with the intention of training it to attack intruders. ▪ He has good intentions, but his suggestions aren't really helpful. ▪ Sometimes plans don't work out well, despite the best (of) intentions. — see also WELL-INTENTIONED in•ten•tion•al /ɪnˈtɛnʃənl/ adj : done in a way that is planned or intended : DELIBERATE ▪ an intentional drug overdose ▪ an intentional and premeditated killing ▪ I apologize for the omission of your name from the list. It was not intentional. — opposite UNINTENTIONAL

– in•ten•tion•al•ly adv ▪ Investigators suspect that the fire was set intentionally. ▪ The test is intentionally designed to trick students.

in•ter /ɪnˈtə/ verb -ters; -terred; -ter•ring [+ obj] formal : to bury (a dead body) ▪ a burial site where people have been interred for over a thousand years — opposite DISINTER

inter- /ɪntə/ prefix

1 : between : among : together ▪ *inter*lock ▪ *inter*twine ▪ *inter*relation ▪ *inter*relate

2 : involving two or more ▪ *inter*national ▪ *inter*departmental ▪ *inter*faith in•ter•act /ˌɪntəˈækt/ verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [no obj]

1 : to talk or do things with other people ▪ They're quiet children who don't interact much. — often + with ▪ She interacts with other children at nursery school.

2 : to act together : to come together and have an effect on each other — often + with ▪ When these two drugs interact (with each other), the results can be deadly.

– in•ter•ac•tion /ˌɪntəˈækʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] social interactions ▪ the interactions between the two drugs [noncount] ways to encourage more interaction among children in•ter•ac•tive /ˌɪntəˈæktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : designed to respond to the actions, commands, etc., of a user ▪ interactive software ▪ an interactive Web site

2 : requiring people to talk with each other or do things together ▪ interactive learning

– in•ter•ac•tive•ly adv – in•ter•ac•tiv•i•ty /ˌɪntərækˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount]

in•ter•agen•cy /ˌɪntəˈeɪʤənsi/ adj, always used before a noun : occurring between or involving different government agencies ▪ an interagency task force in•ter alia /ˌɪntəˈeɪlijə/ adv, formal : among other things ▪ The collection of paintings included, inter alia, several Rembrandts and several Picassos. [=the collection included several Rembrandts, several Picassos, and other things as well] in•ter•breed /ˌɪntəˈbri:d/ verb -breeds; -bred /-ˈbrɛd/; -breed•ing : to cause animals of two different species to produce young animals that are a mixture of the two species [+ obj] interbreed horses with/and donkeys [no obj] horses interbreeding with donkeys in•ter•cede /ˌɪntəˈsi:d/ verb -cedes; -ced•ed; -ced•ing [no obj] formal : to try to help settle an argument or disagreement between two or more people or groups ▪ Their argument probably would have become violent if I hadn't interceded. : to speak to someone in order to defend or help another person ▪ When the boss accused her of lying, several other employees interceded on her behalf.

– in•ter•ces•sion /ˌɪntəˈsɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [noncount] Even the intercession of the United Nations failed to bring an end to the war. [count] She thanked them for their intercessions on her behalf.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in•ter•cept /ˌɪntəˈsɛpt/ verb -cepts; -cept•ed; -cept•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop and take someone or something that is going from one place to another place before that person or thing gets there ▪ Detectives have been intercepting her mail. ▪ The police intercepted him as he was walking out. ▪ intercept a secret message
2 sports : to catch or receive (a pass made by an opponent) ▪ He intercepted the pass/ball. ▪ (American football) The quarterback has been intercepted twice. [=two passes thrown by the quarterback have been intercepted] – in•ter•cep•tion /ˌɪntəˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] They used a secret code because of the possibility of interception by spies. [count] He has made 143 passes without an interception.

in•ter•cep•tor /ˌɪntəˈsɛptə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a fast military plane or missile used to defend against enemy planes or enemy missiles

[1]in•ter•change /ˈɪntəˌʧeɪnʤ/ noun, pl -chang•es
1 : the act of sharing or exchanging things [count] a friendly interchange [=exchange] of ideas [noncount] electronic data interchange
2 [count] : an area where two or more highways meet that is designed to allow traffic to move from one highway to another without stopping

[2]in•ter•change /ˌɪntəˈʧeɪnʤ/ verb -chang•es; -changed; -chang•ing [+ obj] : to put each of two or more things in the place of the other ▪ We interchanged the two tires. ▪ We interchanged the front tire with the rear tire. [=we put the front tire on the rear and the rear tire on the front] in•ter•change•able /ˌɪntəˈʧeɪnʤəbəl/ adj : capable of being used in place of each other ▪ These words have similar meanings but they're not (freely) interchangeable (with each other).

– in•ter•change•abil•i•ty /ˌɪntəˌʧeɪnʤəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] – in•ter•change•ably /ˌɪntəˈʧeɪnʤəblɪ/ adv ▪ He uses the terms interchangeably.

in•ter•city /ˌɪntəˈsɪtɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : traveling or occurring between cities ▪ intercity rail services ▪ intercity trade in•ter•col•le•giate /ˌɪntəkəˈliːʤət/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : involving or involved in competition between colleges ▪ intercollegiate sports/athletics in•ter•com /ˈɪntəˌkɑːm/ noun, pl -coms [count] : a system which allows a person speaking into a microphone to be heard on a speaker by people in a different room or area ▪ I heard my name called on the intercom. ▪ His secretary's voice came over the intercom, telling him that he had a visitor.

in•ter•com•mu•ni•ca•tion /ˌɪntəkəˌmjuːnəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : communication between people or groups ▪ intercommunication between employees in•ter•con•nect /ˌɪntəkəˈnɛkt/ verb -nects; -nect•ed; -nect•ing : to connect (two or more things) with each other [+ obj] The systems are interconnected with/by a series of wires. ▪ These political issues are closely interconnected. [=related] [no obj] The lessons are designed to show students how the two subjects interconnect. ▪ a series of interconnecting stories ▪ interconnecting rooms [=rooms that are connected to each other] – in•ter•con•nec•tion /ˌɪntəkəˈnɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

in•ter•con•ti•nen•tal /ˌɪntəˌkɑːntəˈnɛntl/ adj
1 : traveling or occurring between continents ▪ intercontinental flights/trade/travel
2 : capable of traveling from one continent to another ▪ an intercontinental ballistic missile [=ICBM]

in•ter•course /ˈɪntəˌkoəs/ noun [noncount]
1 : SEXUAL INTERCOURSE
2 formal : communication and actions between people ▪ the unspoken rules of social intercourse

in•ter•de•nom•i•na•tion•al /ˌɪntədɪˌnɑːməˈneɪʃənl/ adj : involving different religious groups ▪ an interdenominational service in•ter•de•part•ment•al /ˌɪntədɪˌpɑətˈmɛntl/ adj : occurring between or involving different departments (as of a college) ▪ interdepartmental research in•ter•de•pen•dent /ˌɪntədɪˈpɛndənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : related in such a way that each needs or depends on the other : mutually dependent ▪ The two nations are politically independent but economically interdependent.

– in•ter•de•pen•dence /ˌɪntədɪˈpɛndəns/ also in•ter•de•pen•den•cy /ˌɪntədɪˈpɛndənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ the economic interdependence of the two nations – in•ter•de•pen•dent•ly adv ▪ The nations' economies function interdependently.

in•ter•dis•ci•plin•ary /ˌɪntəˈdɪsəpləˌneri/ adj : involving two or more academic, scientific, or artistic areas of knowledge : involving two or more disciplines ▪ interdisciplinary studies

[1]in•ter•est /ˈɪntrəst/ noun, pl -ests
1 a : a feeling of wanting to learn more about something or to be involved in something [noncount] She told us about her lifelong interest in music. ▪ I have no interest in politics. [=I am not interested in politics] ▪ The kids listened to the speaker for a little while, but then lost interest. ▪ The speaker wasn't able to hold/keep their interest. ▪ I've been following his career with (great) interest. [singular] She took/had an active interest in the political debate. ▪ He expressed/showed an interest in learning more about photography. b [noncount] : a quality that attracts your attention and makes you want to learn more about something or to be involved in something ▪ The stories about his personal life add interest to the book. ▪ He looked through the available magazines, but found nothing of interest. [=nothing interesting] ▪ I thought this article might be of interest to you. ▪ We visited many places of interest on our vacation. ▪ The price of the ticket was a matter of interest to everyone. ▪ a story that has human interest = a human-interest story [=a story that is interesting because it involves the experiences of real people]
2 [count] : something (such as a hobby) that a person enjoys learning about or doing ▪ Music is one of her many interests. ▪ She has a number of outside interests. [=things that she enjoys doing when she is not working]
3 [count] — used when discussing what is the best or most helpful thing for someone ▪ It's in your (own) interest to keep silent. ▪ The judge decided that it would be in the (best) interests of the child to continue living with her mother. ▪ If he refuses to cooperate, he'll be acting against his own interests. [=he'll be acting in a way that is harmful to himself] ▪ a policy that is not in the national/public interest [=that is more likely to harm than to help the nation/public] ▪ The law is intended to protect/safeguard the interests of people who have no health insurance. ▪ He claims that he has her (best) interests at heart. [=that he is concerned about her and wants to help her] ▪ In the interest of [=for the sake of] fairness, we decided to get everyone's opinion before making a decision.
4 [noncount] a : the money paid by a borrower for the use of borrowed money ▪ We pay six percent interest on the loan. ▪ The loan was repaid with interest. ▪ monthly interest payments/charges ▪ interest rates ▪ an interest-free loan [=a loan that the borrower does not have to pay any interest on] b : money paid to you by a bank for the money you have in a bank account ▪ He made about $500 in interest last year. — see also COMPOUND INTEREST, SIMPLE INTEREST
5 [count] : a legal share in a business or property ▪ They offered to buy out his interest in the company.
6 interests [plural] : a group financially involved in an industry or business ▪ This law is opposed by the oil interests.
– see also SPECIAL INTEREST

[2]interest verb -ests; -est•ed; -est•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to want to learn more about something or to become involved in something ▪ Military history doesn't really interest me. ▪ It might interest you to know that the woman in this photograph is your great-grandmother. ▪ It interested me to learn that she had once lived in California.
2 : to persuade (someone) to have, take, or participate in (something) ▪ Can I interest you in a game of tennis? [=would you like to play tennis?] ▪ Could I interest you in another cup of coffee? [=would you like another cup of coffee?] ▪ The salesman tried to interest me in a more expensive computer.

interested adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : wanting to learn more about something or to become involved in something ▪ The listeners were all greatly/very interested in the lecture. ▪ students who are interested in archaeology ▪ I'd be interested to learn more about his background. ▪ I'm interested to hear what you have to say. ▪ I was very interested to learn that she had once lived in California. b : having the desire to do or have something ▪ Are you interested in playing tennis? [=would you like to play tennis?] ▪ Would you be interested in another cup of coffee? [=would you like another cup of coffee?] ▪ I asked him if he wanted to play tennis, but he said he wasn't interested.
2 : having a direct or personal involvement in something ▪ The plan will have to be approved by all interested parties.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

interest group noun, pl ~ groups [count] : a group of people who try to influence politics or the policies of government, business, etc., in a way that helps their own interests — compare PRESSURE GROUP in•ter•est•ing /ˈɪntrəstɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : attracting your attention and making you want to learn more about something or to be involved in something : not dull or boring ▪ This is one of the most interesting books I've read all year. ▪ It will be interesting to see how she decides to spend the money. ▪ This building has an interesting history. ▪ I don't find politics very interesting. ▪ I found it interesting to learn that she had once lived in California. ▪ Most of what he said wasn't interesting to me.

– in•ter•est•ing•ly adv ▪ He was interestingly dressed. ▪ Interestingly (enough), these animals rarely fight. [=it is interesting that these animals rarely fight]

[1]in•ter•face /ˈɪntəˌfeɪs/ noun, pl -fac•es [count]
1 : the place or area at which different things meet and communicate with or affect each other ▪ the man-machine interface ▪ the interface between engineering and science
2 a : a system that is used for operating a computer : a system that controls the way information is shown to a computer user and the way the user is able to work with the computer ▪ The software has a user interface that's easy to operate. ▪ a friendly/clunky interface b : an area or system through which one machine is connected to another machine ▪ We installed an interface between the computer and the typesetting machine.

[2]interface verb -faces; -faced; -fac•ing : to connect or become connected : to connect by means of an interface [+ obj] interface a machine with a computer [no obj] the point at which the two machines interface

in•ter•faith /ˌɪntəˈfeɪθ/ adj, always used before a noun : involving people of different religions ▪ an interfaith dialogue in•ter•fere /ˌɪntəˈfiə/ verb -feres; -fered; -fer•ing [no obj] : to become involved in the activities and concerns of other people when your involvement is not wanted ▪ I tried to offer advice without interfering. — often + in ▪ I'm sick and tired of the way he's always interfering in my life. ▪ We shouldn't interfere [=meddle] in the affairs of other countries.

interfere with [phrasal verb] 1 interfere with (something) : to stop or slow (something) : to make (something) slower or more difficult ▪ The drug might interfere with a child's physical development. ▪ All of the noise was interfering with my concentration. [=was making it hard for me to concentrate] 2 interfere with (someone) Brit : to touch (a child) in a sexual and improper way
– interfering adj ▪ an interfering old busybody – interfering noun [noncount] ▪ I'm sick and tired of all his interfering.

in•ter•fer•ence /ˌɪntəˈfɪrəns/ noun [noncount]
1 : involvement in the activities and concerns of other people when your involvement is not wanted : the act of interfering ▪ We had to put up with loud noise and constant interference from the neighbors. ▪ interference in the affairs of another nation ▪ trying to avoid governmental interference
2 : additional signals that weaken or block the main signal in a radio or television broadcast ▪ It was hard to hear the radio program because of all the interference. ▪ electrical interference ▪ The TV picture had a lot of interference.
3 sports : the act of illegally hitting or getting in the way of an opponent ▪ a hockey player receiving a penalty for interference run interference American football : to run in front of the player who is carrying the ball in order to block opponents — often used figuratively ▪ He was able to survive the scandal only because he had several clever assistants who ran interference for him.

in•ter•ga•lac•tic /ˌɪntəgəˈlæktɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : existing or occurring between galaxies ▪ intergalactic space/travel in•ter•gen•er•a•tion•al /ˌɪntəˌʤɛnəˈreɪʃənl/ adj : occurring between or involving people of different age groups ▪ intergenerational conflicts in•ter•gov•ern•men•tal /ˌɪntəˌgʌvənˈmɛntl/ adj, always used before a noun : occurring between or involving two or more governments ▪ intergovernmental relations ▪ an intergovernmental panel

[1]in•ter•im /ˈɪntərəm/ noun [singular] : a period of time between events : INTERVAL ▪ The regulations are scheduled to change next winter, and in the interim [=meanwhile], we'll be working hard to make all of the appropriate changes.

[2]interim adj, always used before a noun : used or accepted for a limited time : not permanent ▪ an interim solution ▪ He served as the college's interim [=temporary] president while the committee searched for a permanent replacement.

[1]in•te•ri•or /ɪnˈtirijə/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : located on the inside of something ▪ an interior [=inner] surface ▪ a large car with lots of interior room ▪ interior walls b : suited for use in the inside or on inside surfaces ▪ interior paint ▪ interior lights. — opposite [1]EXTERIOR
2 : occurring in the mind ▪ interior [=(more commonly) inner] thoughts ▪ an interior monologue [=a section of a novel, story, or play in which a character's inner thoughts are expressed]

[2]interior noun, pl -ors [count]
1 : an inner part, area, or surface ▪ a black car with gray leather interior ▪ the interior of the house — opposite [2]EXTERIOR
2 : the part of a country that is far from the coast ▪ They traveled deep into the interior of Australia.
3 : the events and activities of a country that involve the country itself rather than foreign countries ▪ Secretary of the Interior

interior design noun [noncount] : the art or job of planning how the rooms of a building should be furnished and decorated — called also interior decoration

interior designer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person whose job is to plan how the rooms of a building should be furnished and decorated — called also interior decorator

interj abbr interjection

in•ter•ject /ˌɪntəˈʤɛkt/ verb -jects; -ject•ed; -ject•ing formal : to interrupt what someone else is saying with (a comment, remark, etc.) [+ obj] "That's an interesting idea," he interjected, "but I don't think you've considered all of the details." ▪ She listened to us, interjecting remarks every so often. [no obj] If I may interject, I have things I'd like to add.

in•ter•jec•tion /ˌɪntəˈʤɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] grammar : a spoken word, phrase, or sound that expresses sudden or strong feeling ▪ interjections such as "oh," "alas," and "wow"

in•ter•lace /ˌɪntəˈleɪs/ verb -lac•es; -laced; -lac•ing : to join together (narrow things, such as strings or branches) by crossing them over and under each other [+ obj] Interlace the branches and bend them into a circle. [no obj] The vines interlaced with each other.
– interlaced adj ▪ interlaced fibers/branches in•ter•link /ˌɪntəˈlɪŋk/ verb -links; -linked; -link•ing : to connect (two or more things) together : LINK [+ obj] interlink Web sites [no obj] The Web sites interlink.

in•ter•lock /ˌɪntəˈlɑːk/ verb -locks; -locked; -lock•ing : to connect or lock (two or more things) together [+ obj] She interlocked her fingers with his. [no obj] The pieces of the puzzle interlock (with each other).

in•ter•loc•u•tor /ˌɪntəˈlɑːkjətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] formal : a person who is having a conversation with you ▪ He often challenges his interlocutors [=the people he is speaking to] with difficult questions.

in•ter•lop•er /ˌɪntəˈloʊpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is not wanted or welcome by the other people in a situation or place ▪ I had hoped to help my neighbors, but they regarded me as an interloper.

in•ter•lude /ˈɪntəˌluːd/ noun, pl -ludes [count]
1 : a period of time between events or activities ▪ She left for a brief interlude. ▪ He has resumed his acting career after a two-year interlude.
2 : a brief romantic or sexual meeting or relationship ▪ They always met in the city for their romantic interludes.
3 : a short piece of music that is played between the parts of a longer one, a drama, or a religious service ▪ an orchestral interlude ▪ a drama with musical interludes in•ter•mar•ry /ˌɪntəˈmeri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [no obj] : to marry a member of a different racial, social, or religious group ▪ The settlers and the native people seldom intermarried.

– in•ter•mar•riage /ˌɪntəˈmerɪʤ/ noun, pl -riag•es [count, noncount] in•ter•me•di•ary /ˌɪntəˈmiːdiˌeri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a person who works with opposing sides in an argument or dispute in order to bring about an agreement ▪ He served as an intermediary between the workers and the executives.

– intermediary adj ▪ He was an intermediary agent in the negotiations.

[1]in•ter•me•di•ate /ˌɪntəˈmiːdijət/ adj

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

1 : occurring in the middle of a process or series ▪ an intermediate stage of growth
2 : relating to or having the knowledge or skill of someone who is more advanced than a beginner but not yet an expert ▪ I'm taking intermediate French this year. ▪ an intermediate swimming class ▪ an intermediate swimmer

[2]intermediate noun, pl -ates [count] : a person who has the knowledge or skill of someone who is more advanced than a beginner but not yet an expert ▪ a class for intermediates

in•ter•ment /ɪnˈtɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] formal : the act of burying a dead person in•ter•mez•zo /ˌɪntɚˈmetˌsoʊ/ noun, pl -zi /-ˌsi:/ or -zos [count] : a short part of a musical work (such as an opera) that connects major sections of the work in•ter•mi•na•ble /ɪnˈtɚmənəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or seeming to have no end : continuing for a very long time ▪ an interminable war ▪ an interminable wait – in•ter•mi•na•bly /ɪnˈtɚmənəbli/ adv ▪ an interminably long wait in•ter•min•gle /ˌɪntɚˈmɪŋgəl/ verb -min•gles; -min•gled; -min•gling : to mix together [+ obj] In her short stories, science fiction and romance are intermingled. = In her short stories, science fiction is intermingled with romance. [no obj] In her short stories, science fiction and romance intermingle. ▪ The colors intermingle perfectly (with each other) in the painting.

in•ter•mis•sion /ˌɪntɚˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : a short break between the parts of a performance (such as a play, movie, or concert) ▪ We'll return after a brief intermission. — called also (Brit) interval in•ter•mit•tent /ˌɪntɚˈmɪtn̩t/ adj : starting, stopping, and starting again : not constant or steady ▪ The patient was having intermittent pains in his side. ▪ The forecast is for intermittent rain. ▪ There are reports of intermittent [=sporadic] fighting along the border.

– in•ter•mit•tent•ly adv ▪ It has been raining intermittently for the past several days.

in•ter•mix /ˌɪntɚˈmɪks/ verb -mix•es; -mixed; -mix•ing : to mix together [+ obj] When they talk, they often intermix English and/with Spanish. [no obj] groups of people that don't intermix (with one another)

[1]in•tern /ˈɪnˌtɚn/ noun, pl -terns [count] US
1 : a student or recent graduate who works for a period of time at a job in order to get experience ▪ a teaching intern
2 : a person who works in a hospital in order to complete training as a doctor ▪ After medical school, he worked as an intern at the university hospital.

[2]intern verb -terns; -terned; -tern•ing [no obj] US : to work as an intern ▪ After medical school, he interned at the university hospital. — compare [3]INTERN

[3]in•tern /ˈɪnˌtɚn, ɪnˈtɚn/ verb -terns; -terned; -tern•ing [+ obj] : to put (someone who has not been accused of a crime) in prison for political reasons especially during a war ▪ They are protesting the government's decision to intern citizens without evidence of wrongdoing. — compare [2]INTERN

in•ter•nal /ɪnˈtɚnl/ adj
1 : existing or located on the inside of something ▪ the internal structure of the planet ▪ The theory has some internal inconsistencies. [=some parts of the theory are not consistent with other parts] — opposite EXTERNAL
2 : coming from inside ▪ internal pressures — opposite EXTERNAL
3 a : existing or occurring within your body ▪ a patient who is experiencing internal bleeding ▪ internal organs b : existing or occurring within your mind ▪ internal doubts ▪ internal thoughts — opposite EXTERNAL
4 a : existing or occurring within a country ▪ internal affairs ▪ the office of internal revenue — opposite EXTERNAL b : existing or occurring within an organization (such as a company or business) ▪ The new policy was spelled out in an internal memo
– in•ter•nal•ly adv ▪ an internally inconsistent theory ▪ a patient who is bleeding internally ▪ This medicine is to be taken internally. [=orally]

internal clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count]
1 : BODY CLOCK
2 : a clock or timing device that is inside a computer internal combustion engine noun, pl ~ -gines [count] : a type of engine that is used for most vehicles : an engine in which the fuel is burned within engine cylinders in•ter•nal•ize also Brit in•ter•nal•ise /ɪnˈtɚnəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as an idea or an attitude) an important part of the kind of person you are ▪ They have internalized their parents' values.

– in•ter•nal•i•za•tion also Brit in•ter•nal•i•sa•tion /ɪnˌtɚnələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ɪnˌtɚːnəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ internalization of moral standards internal medicine noun [noncount] US : the work of a doctor who treats diseases that do not require surgery ▪ a doctor who specializes in internal medicine

Internal Revenue Service noun
the Internal Revenue Service : the department of the U.S. federal government that is responsible for collecting taxes — abbr. IRS; compare INLAND REVENUE in•ter•na•tion•al /ˌɪntɚˈnæʃənl/ adj

1 : involving two or more countries : occurring between countries ▪ international trade ▪ studying international relations ▪ an international agreement ▪ international flights ▪ the international community ▪ international law
2 : made up of people or groups from different countries ▪ an international association of chemists
3 : active or known in many countries ▪ an international star ▪ She has achieved international fame/recognition.
– in•ter•na•tion•al•ly adv ▪ The process is now recognized internationally. ▪ an internationally televised event international date line noun

the international date line : an imaginary line that runs through the Pacific Ocean from the North Pole to the South Pole and that marks the place where each day officially begins ▪ crossing the international date line — called also date line

in•ter•na•tion•al•ism /ˌɪntɚˈnæʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that it is good for different countries to work together ▪ a proponent of economic internationalism
– in•ter•na•tion•al•ist /ˌɪntɚˈnæʃənəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – internationalist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ adopting internationalist positions in•ter•na•tion•al•ize also Brit in•ter•na•tion•al•ise /ˌɪntɚˈnæʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing : to place (something) under international control : to make (something) involve or affect two or more countries [+ obj] internationalize a business ▪ an internationalized economy [no obj] a business that has begun to internationalize

– in•ter•na•tion•al•i•za•tion also Brit in•ter•na•tion•al•i•sa•tion /ˌɪntɚˌnæʃənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌɪntəˌnæʃənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] international relations noun [noncount] : an area of study or knowledge concerned with relations between different countries in•ter•ne•cine /ˌɪntɚˈnɛˌsi:n, Brit ˌɪntɚˈni:ˌsaɪn/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : occurring between members of the same country, group, or organization ▪ a brutal internecine war/battle ▪ internecine feuds ▪ a political party that has suffered because of bitter internecine rivalries

In•ter•net /ˈɪntɚˌnɛt/ noun
the Internet : a system that connects computers throughout the world ▪ She spent hours surfing the Internet. — compare INTRANET, WORLD WIDE WEB – Internet adj, always used before a noun ▪ an Internet connection ▪ an Internet site

Internet service provider noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : ISP

in•ter•nist /ˈɪnˌtɚnɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] US, medical : a doctor who specializes in diseases that do not require surgery : a doctor who specializes in internal medicine in•tern•ment /ɪnˈtɚnmənt/ noun [noncount] : the act of putting someone in a prison for political reasons or during a war : the act of interning someone ▪ protesting the government's internment of citizens without evidence of wrongdoing : the state of being interned ▪ trying to escape internment — sometimes used before another noun ▪ internment camps in•tern•ship /ˈɪnˌtɚnˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count]

1 : a position as an intern ▪ She got an internship at the city newspaper.
2 : the period of time when a person is an intern ▪ He will finish his internship in April.

in•ter•of• ce /ˌɪntɚˈɑ:fəs/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : going or happening between people who are part of the same company or organization ▪ an interoffice memo ▪ interoffice mail

in•ter•per•son•al /ˌɪntɚˈpəsənəl/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : relating to or involving relations between people : existing or happening between people ▪ interpersonal communication ▪ interpersonal skills/relationships

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in•ter•plan•e•tary /ˌɪntəˈplænəˌteri/ adj, always used before a noun, astronomy : existing or occurring between planets ▪ interplanetary travel ▪ interplanetary space

in•ter•play /ˈɪntəˌpleɪ/ noun : the ways in which two or more things, groups, etc., affect each other when they happen or exist together [noncount] — often + between or of ▪ the interplay between the old and the new ▪ enjoys the interplay of three very different flavors [singular] — + of ▪ a complex interplay of light and color

In•ter•pol /ˈɪntəˌpoʊl, Brit ˈɪntəˌpɒl/ noun [singular] : an international police organization that works with the police of different countries to fight crime in•ter•po•late /ɪnˈtəpəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] formal : to put (something) between other things or parts ▪ He smoothly interpolates fragments from other songs into his own.; especially : to put (words) into a piece of writing or a conversation ▪ He interpolated a very critical comment in/into the discussion.

– in•ter•po•la•tion /ɪnˌtəpəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] in•ter•pose /ˌɪntəˈpoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to place (someone or something) between two or more things or people ▪ The new system has interposed a bureaucratic barrier between doctors and patients. ▪ He tried to interpose himself between the people who were fighting.
2 : to interrupt a conversation with (a comment) ▪ Please allow me to interpose a brief observation.

in•ter•pret /ɪnˈtəprət/ verb -prets; -pret•ed; -pret•ing
1 [+ obj] : to explain the meaning of (something) ▪ interpret a dream ▪ We need someone to interpret these results for us. ▪ How should we interpret the law/rules/decision?
2 [+ obj] : to understand (something) in a specified way ▪ I interpreted his behavior to mean that he disliked me. — often + as ▪ I interpreted his behavior as indicating that he disliked me. ▪ Her comment was meant to be interpreted as sarcasm.
3 [+ obj] : to perform (something, such as a song or a role) in a way that shows your own thoughts and feelings about it ▪ Every actor interprets the role of Hamlet a little differently.
4 [no obj] : to translate the words that someone is speaking into a different language : to repeat what someone says in a different language than the language originally used ▪ I'll need someone to interpret for me when I travel to China. — compare TRANSLATE – in•ter•pret•able /ɪnˈtəprətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ These results are not easily interpretable.

in•ter•pre•ta•tion /ɪnˌtəprəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act or result of explaining or interpreting something : the way something is explained or understood [count] We did not agree with his interpretation [=explanation] of the results. ▪ There were many interpretations of [=many ways to interpret] his behavior. ▪ a literal/loose interpretation of the law [noncount] The truth will only be found by careful interpretation of the evidence. ▪ His remarks need further interpretation. ✧ If something is open/subject to interpretation it can be understood in different ways ▪ Every art form is subject to interpretation.
2 [count] : a particular way of performing something ▪ an actor's interpretation of the role of Hamlet – in•ter•pre•tive /ɪnˈtəprətɪv/ or in•ter•pre•ta•tive /ɪnˈtəprəˌteɪtɪv/ adj ▪ a series of interpretive essays in•ter•pret•er /ɪnˈtəprətə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who translates the words that someone is speaking into a different language ▪ He has now learned English well enough that he can conduct interviews without an interpreter. ▪ He gave his statement through an interpreter. [=an interpreter translated his statement] in•ter•ra•cial /ˌɪntəˈreɪʃəl/ adj : involving people of different races ▪ an interracial marriage in•ter•re•late /ˌɪntərɪˈleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 [no obj] : to have a close or shared relationship ▪ I like the way the characters interrelate in the novel. ▪ Linguists have found that language interrelates closely with culture.
2 [+ obj] : to make or show a relationship between (things or people) ▪ Linguists have tried to interrelate language with/and culture.
– interrelated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a number of interrelated topics ▪ Linguists have found that language and culture are closely interrelated. – in•ter•re•lat•ed•ness noun [noncount] – in•ter•re•la•tion /ˌɪntərɪˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ understanding the interrelations of/between/among different animal species – in•ter•re•la•tion•ship /ˌɪntərɪˈleɪʃənˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count, noncount] ▪ the interrelationships among all forms of life in•ter•ro•gate /ɪnˈterəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] : to ask (someone) questions in a thorough and often forceful way ▪ interrogate a prisoner of war ▪ The suspect was interrogated (by the police) for several hours.

– in•ter•ro•ga•tion /ɪnˌterəˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ He conducted a skillful interrogation of the witness. – in•ter•ro•ga•tor /ɪnˈterəˌgeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a skillful interrogator

[1]in•ter•rog•a•tive /ˌɪntəˈrɑːgətɪv/ adj
1 grammar a : having the form of a question rather than a statement or command ▪ "Did you go to school today?" is an interrogative sentence. b : used to ask a question ▪ an interrogative pronoun such as "who" — compare DECLARATIVE, IMPERATIVE
2 formal : asking a question : having the form or force of a question ▪ She had an interrogative expression/look on her face. ▪ an interrogative tone of voice

[2]interrogative noun, pl -tives [count] grammar : a word (such as who, what, or which) that is used in asking a question the interrogative : the form that a phrase or sentence has when it is asking a question ▪ "Is this sentence in the interrogative?" "Yes, it is."

in•ter•rupt /ˌɪntəˈrʌpt/ verb -rupts; -rupt•ed; -rupt•ing
1 : to ask questions or say things while another person is speaking : to do or say something that causes someone to stop speaking [+ obj] Please don't interrupt me (while I'm talking). [no obj] It's not polite to interrupt. ▪ Please don't interrupt (while I'm talking).
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to stop happening for a time ▪ His dinner was interrupted by a phone call. ▪ We interrupt this program to bring you a special announcement.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to not be even or continuous : to change or stop the sameness or smoothness of (something) ▪ Every summer periods of cool weather occasionally interrupt the intense heat. — often used as (be) interrupted ▪ The intense heat is occasionally interrupted by periods of cool weather. ▪ a grassy plain interrupted by a lone tree – in•ter•rup•tion /ˌɪntəˈrʌpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The dynasty lasted several hundred years, with only a few interruptions. ▪ I wish it were possible to watch television without all the commercial interruptions. ▪ frequent/annoying interruptions [noncount] She spoke for an hour without interruption. ▪ There shouldn't be any interruption in/to your phone service.

in•ter•scho•las•tic /ˌɪntəskəˈlæstɪk/ adj, always used before a noun, US : existing or done between schools ▪ interscholastic sports/athletics in•ter•sect /ˌɪntəˈsɛkt/ verb -sects; -sect•ed; -sect•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to divide (something) by passing through or across it : CROSS ▪ A dry stream bed intersects the trail in several places. ▪ Line A intersects line B. = Line B is intersected by line A. = Line A and line B intersect each other b [no obj] : to meet and cross at one or more points ▪ Line A intersects with line B. ▪ intersecting lines/paths/streets ▪ The two roads intersect at the edge of town.
2 [no obj] : to share some common area ▪ the place where politics and business intersect [=overlap] = the place where politics intersects with business in•ter•sec•tion /ˌɪntəˈsɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : the place or point where two or more things come together; especially : the place where two or more streets meet or cross each other ▪ The accident occurred at a busy intersection.
2 [noncount] : the act or process of crossing or intersecting ▪ two possible points of intersection ▪ the intersection of line A and/with line B in•ter•sperse /ˌɪntəˈspɜːs/ verb -spers•es; -spersed; -spers•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (something) at different places among other things ▪ You should intersperse these pictures evenly throughout the book. ▪ Some seagulls were interspersed among the ducks.
2 : to put things at different places within (something) — + with ▪ intersperse a book with illustrations — usually used as (be) interspersed ▪ The book was nicely interspersed with illustrations. ▪ The forecast calls for scattered showers interspersed with sunny periods. [=scattered showers with sunny periods between the showers]

[1]in•ter•state /ˌɪntəˈsteɪt/ adj, always used before a noun : re-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

lating to or connecting different states : existing or occurring between states especially in the U.S. ▪ an interstate highway ▪ interstate commerce/transportation

[2]in•ter•state /ˈɪntəˌsteɪt/ noun, pl -states [count] US : a major highway that connects two or more states : an interstate highway ▪ You'll get there quicker if you take the interstate. ▪ Interstate 90

in•ter•stel•lar /ˌɪntəˈstɛlə/ adj, always used before a noun : existing or occurring between stars ▪ interstellar space/gas/dust in•ter•stice /ɪnˈtəstəs/ noun, pl -stic•es /ɪnˈtəstəˌsiːz/ [count] formal : a small space that lies between things : a small break or gap in something — usually plural ▪ the interstices [=cracks] of/between the bricks

in•ter•tid•al /ˌɪntəˈtaɪdl/ adj, always used before a noun, technical : of or relating to the area of the shore that is between the low point and the high point of the tide ▪ animals that live in the intertidal zone in•ter•tri•bal /ˌɪntəˈtraɪbəl/ adj, always used before a noun : existing or occurring between tribes ▪ intertribal warfare/politics in•ter•twine /ˌɪntəˈtwaɪn/ verb -twines; -twined; -twining

1 : to twist (things) together [+ obj] — often used as (be) intertwined ▪ The branches are intertwined (with each other) and grow into a solid wall. ▪ Colored ribbons were intertwined in her hair. [no obj] The branches intertwine (with each other) to make a solid wall. ▪ intertwining branches
2 : to be or become very closely involved with each other [no obj] He's always telling stories in which the present and the past intertwine. [+ obj] His fate is intertwined with hers.

in•ter•val /ˈɪntəvəl/ noun, pl -vals [count]
1 : a period of time between events : PAUSE ▪ a three-month interval between jobs ▪ There might be long intervals during/in which nothing happens. ▪ The sun shone for brief intervals throughout the day.
2 music : the difference in pitch between two notes
3 Brit : INTERMISSION ▪ There will be a 20-minute interval between acts one and two.
at intervals 1 : with an amount of space in between ▪ There are signs at regular intervals along the outside wall. ▪ The chairs were placed at intervals of two feet. 2 : with an amount of time in between ▪ It recurs at (regular) intervals of every six months.

in•ter•vene /ˌɪntəˈviːn/ verb -venes; -vened; -ven•ing [no obj]
1 : to come or occur between two times or events ▪ Twenty years intervened between their first and last meetings.
2 : to become involved in something (such as a conflict) in order to have an influence on what happens ▪ The prisoner asked me to intervene with the authorities on his behalf. ▪ The military had to intervene to restore order. — often + in ▪ We need the courts to intervene in this dispute.
3 : to happen as an unrelated event that causes a delay or problem ▪ We will leave on time unless some crisis intervenes.
– intervening adj, always used before another noun ▪ They have spent the intervening years trying to figure out what happened. – in•ter•ven•tion /ˌɪntəˈvɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] praying for divine intervention ▪ This situation called for military intervention. ▪ The program is able to run without intervention by the user. ▪ medical intervention [=treatment] [count] military interventions

in•ter•ven•tion•ism /ˌɪntəˈvɛnʃəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a government policy or practice of doing things to directly influence the country's economy or the political affairs of another country ▪ a proponent of aggressive economic interventionism
– in•ter•ven•tion•ist /ˌɪntəˈvɛnʃənɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ interventionist policies/government – intervention•ist noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a die-hard interventionist

in•ter•ver•te•bral disc /ˌɪntəˈvətəbrəl-/ noun, pl ~ discs [count] : DISC 4

[1]in•ter•view /ˈɪntəˌvjuː/ noun, pl -views [count]
1 : a meeting at which people talk to each other in order to ask questions and get information: such as a : a formal meeting with someone who is being considered for a job or other position ▪ The company is holding interviews for several new jobs. ✧ If you have an interview, you have an appointment to speak to someone who could hire you. ▪ I have a job interview tomorrow morning. b : a meeting between a reporter and another person in order to get information for a news story ▪ a journalist conducting/doing interviews with political leaders ▪ an actor who has stopped giving/granting/doing interviews [=an actor who no longer talks to reporters]; also : a written or taped record of such a meeting ▪ The interview will be shown on tonight's news. ▪ This library has a large collection of his interviews. ▪ a published interview
2 US, informal : a person who is interviewed : INTERVIEWEE ▪ He is a very entertaining interviewer. ▪ She's always been known as one of Hollywood's best/toughest interviews.

[2]interview verb -views; -viewed; -view•ing
1 [+ obj] : to question or talk with (someone) in order to get information or learn about that person ▪ The company will start interviewing candidates for the job tomorrow. ▪ Few of the people interviewed for the job seemed at all suitable. ▪ She's been interviewed on television many times. ▪ The police are interviewing [=interrogating] several witnesses.
2 [no obj] US : to participate in an interview for a position (such as a job) ▪ He has interviewed with many companies, but he still hasn't found a job. — often + for ▪ Several people are now interviewing for the position.
– in•ter•view•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an interviewer who is known for asking tough questions in•ter•view•ee /ˌɪntəˌvjuːˈiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : a person who is interviewed ▪ He asked the interviewee some very personal questions.

in•ter•war /ˌɪntəˈwoə/ adj, always used before a noun : occurring between wars; especially : occurring between World War I and World War II ▪ during the interwar years in•ter•weave /ˌɪntəˈwiːv/ verb -weaves; -wove /ˌɪntəˈwoʊv/; -woven /ˌɪntəˈwoʊvən/; -weav•ing [+ obj] : to twist or weave (threads, fibers, etc.) together ▪ The long strands of ribbon are interwoven (together). ▪ a house built from poles interwoven with vines ▪ a mat of interwoven fibers — often used figuratively ▪ The two themes are interwoven throughout the poem. ▪ He interweaves advice and amusing stories to create an entertaining book. ▪ His life is closely interwoven with hers.

in•tes•tate /ɪnˈtɛˌsteɪt/ adj, law : not having made a will ▪ He died intestate. [=he did not have a will when he died] in•tes•tine /ɪnˈtɛstən/ noun, pl -tines [count] : a long tube in the body that helps digest food after it leaves the stomach — see also LARGE INTESTINE, SMALL INTESTINE – in•tes•ti•nal /ɪnˈtɛstənl/ adj ▪ the intestinal tract/wall ▪ intestinal tissue ▪ intestinal gas ▪ an intestinal disease — see also intestinal fortitude at FORTITUDE

in•ti•ma•cy /ˈɪntəməsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 : an intimate quality or state: such as a : emotional warmth and closeness [noncount] the intimacy of old friends ▪ the intimacy of their relationship ▪ a fear of intimacy [singular] He felt he achieved a certain intimacy with her. b [noncount] : a quality that suggests informal warmth or closeness ▪ The band liked the intimacy of the nightclub.
2 [noncount] : sexual relations ▪ sexual/physical intimacy
3 [count] : something that is very personal and private — usually plural ▪ They shared intimacies about their private lives.

[1]in•ti•mate /ˈɪntəmət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a very close relationship : very warm and friendly ▪ an intimate acquaintance ▪ They remained intimate friends throughout their lives. ▪ We have an intimate friendship with our neighbors. = We are on intimate terms with our neighbors. [=we are very close friends with our neighbors]
2 : very personal or private ▪ intimate thoughts/feelings ▪ intimate secrets ▪ sharing an intimate moment ▪ an intimate conversation ▪ (chiefly US) a store that sells intimate apparel [=women's underwear and clothes for sleeping]
3 : involving sex or sexual relations ▪ They are in an intimate and committed relationship. ▪ He denies that they were ever intimate. = He denies that he was ever intimate with her. [=that he ever had sexual relations with her]
4 of a place : private and pleasant in a way that allows people to feel relaxed and comfortable ▪ The room is small and intimate. ▪ an intimate nightclub
5 : very closely related or connected : very close ▪ There is an intimate connection/relationship between diet and health.
6 : very complete ▪ She has an intimate [=very detailed] knowledge of the company. ▪ The story is now known in intimate detail. ▪ an intimate understanding of the process – in•ti•mate•ly adv ▪ She is intimately associated/involved with the production. ▪ The problem is intimately connected with/to our culture. ▪ intimately familiar with the experience ▪ Diet and health are intimately [=very closely] relat-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

ed. ▪ Their careers are intimately linked. ▪ She knows the city intimately. [=very well]

[2]in•ti•mate /ˈɪntəmət/ noun, pl -mates [count] somewhat formal : a very close and trusted friend : an intimate friend ▪ His coworkers knew him as "Robert," but his intimates called him "Robbie."

[3]in•ti•mate /ˈɪntəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] : to say or suggest (something) in an indirect way ▪ He intimated (to us) that we should plan to arrive early.
– in•ti•ma•tion /ˌɪntəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] the earliest intimations [=hints] of spring ▪ Even at the beginning, there were intimations [=suggestions] that the project was in trouble. [noncount] He hasn't given any intimation of his plans.

in•tim•i•date /ɪnˈtɪməˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) afraid ▪ He tries to intimidate his opponents. ▪ You shouldn't allow his reputation to intimidate you. — often used as (be) intimidated ▪ Many people are intimidated by new technology. ▪ Some people are easily intimidated. ▪ She was intimidated by the size of the campus.
– intimidated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I feel less intimidated now than I did when I started the job. – intimidating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He is one of the most intimidating men I have ever met. ▪ Speaking in front of a large audience can be very intimidating. – in•tim•i•dat•ing•ly /ɪnˈtɪməˌdeɪtɪŋli/ adv ▪ The system is intimidatingly complex. – in•tim•i•da•tion /ɪnˌtɪməˈdeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ intimidation of jurors/witnesses ▪ enforcing agreement by intimidation or violence – in•tim•i•da•tor /ɪnˈtɪməˌdeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

intl. or intnl. abbr international

in•to /ˈɪntu, ˈɪntə/ prep
1 : to or toward the inside of (something) ▪ She came into the room/house. ▪ a medicine injected into the bloodstream ▪ Please put the bowl into the sink/cupboard. ▪ They were heading into town. ▪ He jumped into the pool.
2 : in the direction of (something) ▪ You should never look directly into [=toward] the sun. ▪ She was just staring into space. ▪ peering/looking into the past/future
3 — used to describe hitting or touching something or someone ▪ He ran into [=against] a wall. ▪ She bumped into me.
4 : to the state, condition, or form of (something) ▪ She was shocked into silence. ▪ come into being/existence ▪ as day turns into night ▪ I got into trouble again. ▪ her slow descent into madness ▪ converting sunlight into electricity ▪ He translated the poem from Latin into English. ▪ change dollars into euros ▪ breaking up into smaller pieces
5 a — used to say that something or someone has become a part of something ▪ They entered into an alliance. ▪ He was born into a once-proud family. b — used to say that someone has become involved in something (such as a profession) ▪ She wants to get into politics. ▪ He decided to go into farming. [=he decided to be a farmer] c — used to say that someone has been forced or persuaded to do something ▪ He was pressured into doing this by his boss. ▪ I was talked into joining the class.
6 informal — used to say that someone is interested in and excited about (something) ▪ He was never into sports. ▪ I'm really into her music. ▪ I usually enjoy her books, but I just couldn't get into this one.
7 — used to say how long something lasts ▪ The party continued well/far/long/late into the night. ▪ This snow should last well into the spring. ▪ The heat wave will continue into next week.
8 : relating to or concerning (something) ▪ an investigation into the causes of the accident 9 — used to describe dividing one number by another number ▪ Six goes into 18 three times. ▪ Dividing 3 into 6 gives 2.
be into (someone) for US, informal : to owe someone (an amount of money) ▪ I'm into him for a thousand dollars.

in•tol•er•a•ble /ɪnˈtɑːlərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : too bad, harsh, or severe to be accepted or tolerated : not tolerable ▪ The situation was totally intolerable [=unacceptable] to us. ▪ intolerable [=unbearable] pain/behavior ▪ She divorced him on the grounds of intolerable cruelty.
– in•tol•er•a•bly /ɪnˈtɑːlərəbli/ adv ▪ intolerably cruel/dull/boring.

in•tol•er•ant /ɪnˈtɑːlərənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : not willing to allow or accept something — often + of ▪ He is intolerant of weakness/failure. ▪ They were intolerant of his lifestyle. b disapproving : not willing to allow some people to have equality, freedom, or other social rights ▪ an intolerant [=bigoted] racist
2 medicine : unable to take a certain substance into the body without becoming sick ▪ people who are lactose intolerant [=unable to eat foods that contain lactose] — often + of ▪ patients who are intolerant of certain drugs – in•tol•er•ance /ɪnˈtɑːlərəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ intolerance towards/to outsiders ▪ fighting the forces of racism and intolerance ▪ a campaign against religious intolerance ▪ lactose intolerance – in•tol•er•ant•ly adv

in•to•na•tion /ˌɪntoʊˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the rise and fall in the sound of your voice when you speak [noncount] identical sentences, differing only in intonation [count] sentences with different intonations

in•tone /ɪnˈtoʊn/ verb -tones; -toned; -ton•ing [+ obj]
1 : to speak (a prayer, poem, etc.) in a way that sounds like music or chanting ▪ intone a prayer
2 : to say (something) in a slow and even voice ▪ "Coming soon to a theater near you," the announcer intoned.

in to•to /ɪnˈtoʊˌtoʊ/ adv, formal : as a whole : totally or completely ▪ The judge accepted/rejected the testimony in toto.

in•tox•i•cant /ɪnˈtɑːksɪkənt/ noun, pl -cants [count] formal : something (such as an acoholic drink) that causes people to become excited or confused and less able to control what they say or do : an intoxicating substance ▪ The use of intoxicants and stimulants is prohibited. ▪ He was driving under the influence of intoxicants.

in•tox•i•cate /ɪnˈtɑːksɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cating [+ obj] somewhat formal
1 of alcohol, a drug, etc. : to make (someone) unable to think and behave normally ▪ The little bit of beer I drank was not enough to intoxicate me.
2 : to excite or please (someone) in a way that suggests the effect of alcohol or a drug — usually used as (be) intoxicated ▪ He was intoxicated by the power of his position in the government. ▪ He was intoxicated by her beauty.
– in•tox•i•ca•tion /ɪnˌtɑːksəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ She drank to the point of intoxication. ▪ He was arrested for public intoxication. [=for being drunk in public] ▪ the intoxication of power in•tox•i•cat•ed /ɪnˈtɑːksɪˌkeɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : affected by alcohol or drugs; especially : DRUNK ▪ He appeared to be very intoxicated. ▪ Driving while intoxicated is illegal.

intoxicating adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal
1 : causing intoxication; especially : able to make someone drunk ▪ intoxicating beverages ▪ the intoxicating effects of alcohol
2 : causing someone to have strong feelings of excitement or pleasure ▪ the intoxicating power of his position in the government ▪ her intoxicating beauty in•tra- /ˈɪntrə/ prefix

1 : within something ▪ *intra*mural — opposite EXTRA-2 : in or into something ▪ *intra*venous

in•trac•ta•ble /ɪnˈtræktəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : not easily managed, controlled, or solved ▪ an intractable problem ▪ an intractable mystery/question
2 : not easily relieved or cured ▪ a patient experiencing intractable pain ▪ an intractable infection/disease
– in•trac•ta•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌtræktəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the intractability of the problem/disease – in•trac•ta•bly /ɪnˈtræktəbli/ adv ▪ an intractably complicated problem in•tra•mu•ral /ˌɪntrəˈmjərəl/ adj, US : existing or occurring within a particular group or organization (such as a school) ▪ intramural sports [=sports in which the students of one school compete against each other instead of competing against other schools] in•tra•net /ˈɪntrəˌnɛt/ noun, pl -nets [count] computers : a network that works like the Internet but can only be used by certain people (such as the employees of a company) ▪ a corporate intranet in•tran•si•gent /ɪnˈtrænsəʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : completely unwilling to change : very stubborn ▪ intransigent enemies/opponents ▪ He has remained intransigent in his opposition to the proposal.

– in•tran•si•gence /ɪnˈtrænsəʤəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ fighting bureaucratic intransigence – in•tran•si•gent•ly adv

in•tran•si•tive /ɪnˈtrænsətɪv/ adj, grammar, of a verb : not taking or having a direct object ▪ an intransitive verb ▪ In "I ran" and "The bird flies," "ran" and "flies" are intransitive. — compare TRANSITIVE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

– in•tran•si•tive•ly adv ▪ Some verbs can be used both intransitively and transitively.

in•tra•state /ˌɪntrəˈsteɪt/ adj, always used before a noun : occurring within a state ▪ intrastate commerce/trucking ▪ intrastate football rivals in•tra•uter•ine /ˌɪntrəˈju:tərən, ˌɪntrəˈju:təˌraɪn/ adj, always used before a noun, medical : used or occurring within the uterus ▪ an intrauterine growth intrauterine device noun, pl ~ -vices [count] medical : a device that is inserted in the uterus and left there to prevent pregnancy — called also IUD

in•tra•ve•nous /ˌɪntrəˈvi:nəs/ adj, always used before a noun : through, in, or into a vein : entering the body through a vein ▪ intravenous feedings/drugs ▪ an intravenous needle

– in•tra•ve•nous•ly adv ▪ She is being given the medication intravenously.

in tray noun, pl ~ trays [count] : IN-BOX

in•trep•id /ɪnˈtrɛpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary + often humorous : feeling no fear : very bold or brave ▪ an intrepid explorer

in•tri•ca•cy /ˈɪntrəkəsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being complex or having many parts : the quality or state of being intricate ▪ She admired the composition for its beauty and intricacy. ▪ the intricacy [=complexity] of the design/plan
2 [count] : something that is complex or detailed : something intricate ▪ I had trouble following all the intricacies in the plot. ▪ the intricacies of English grammar in•tri•cate /ˈɪntrəkət/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having many parts ▪ intricate machinery ▪ an intricate [=complex] design/pattern ▪ The movie has an intricate plot.

– in•tri•cate•ly adv ▪ intricately woven fabric ▪ an intricately carved mantel

[1]in•trigue /ɪnˈtri:g/ verb -trigues; -trigued; -trigu•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (someone) want to know more about something : to cause (someone) to become interested ▪ Your idea intrigues me. — often used as (be) intrigued ▪ She was intrigued with/by what he had to say.
2 [no obj] formal : to make secret plans — usually + against ▪ They were arrested for intriguing against the government.

[2]in•trigue /ˈɪnˌtri:g/ noun, pl -trigues
1 [noncount] : the activity of making secret plans ▪ a novel of intrigue and romance ▪ an administration characterized by intrigue and corruption
2 [count] : a secret plan ▪ political intrigues

in•trigu•ing /ɪnˈtri:gɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely interesting : FASCINATING ▪ an intriguing idea/person/question ▪ The offer is very intriguing.

– in•trigu•ing•ly adv

in•trin•sic /ɪnˈtrɪnzɪk/ adj : belonging to the essential nature of a thing : occurring as a natural part of something ▪ the intrinsic value of a gem ▪ the intrinsic brightness of a star ▪ intrinsic beauty — often + to ▪ Creativity is intrinsic to human nature. — opposite EXTRINSIC

– in•trin•si•cal•ly /ɪnˈtrɪnzɪkli/ adv ▪ an intrinsically difficult language ▪ intrinsically evil/valuable in•tro /ˈɪnˌtroʊ/ noun, pl -tros [count] informal : a short introduction to something (such as a performance or a musical work) ▪ a brief intro

in•tro•duce /ˌɪntrəˈdu:s, Brit ˌɪntrəˈdju:s/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) known to someone else by name ▪ introduce two strangers ▪ He introduced his guest. ▪ Let me introduce myself: my name is John Smith. — often + to ▪ He introduced himself to the class. ▪ She introduced her mother to her friends.
2 a : to cause (something) to begin to be used for the first time ▪ They have been slow to introduce changes in procedure. b : to make (something) available for sale for the first time ▪ The designer is introducing a new line of clothes. c : to present (something) for discussion or consideration ▪ He introduced several issues during the meeting. ▪ New evidence was introduced at the trial. ▪ introduce a bill to Congress
3 : to bring (something, such as a type of plant or animal) to a place for the first time — often + to ▪ an Asian plant that has been introduced to America
4 : to speak briefly to an audience about (someone who is about to speak, perform, etc., or something that is about to begin) ▪ She introduced the speaker. ▪ He introduced the show's second act.
5 : to mention or refer to (something) for the first time ▪ The main topics are introduced in the first chapter.
6 : to cause (someone) to learn about or try (something) for the first time — + to ▪ The program introduces children to different sports. ▪ I was introduced to painting in college. ▪ The class introduces students to computer programming. ▪ She helped to introduce Americans to European fashions. = She helped to introduce European fashions to America.
7 : to put or insert (something) into something else ▪ introduce a needle into a vein ▪ The new carpet introduces some color into [=adds some color to] the living room. ▪ The rivalry introduced more drama to/into the competition.

in•tro•duc•tion /ˌɪntrəˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : the act of making a person known to others by name — usually plural ▪ Once we finished the introductions [=once everyone was introduced], the meeting began. ▪ I'll make the introductions. [=I'll introduce everyone]
2 [noncount] : the act of introducing something: such as a : the act of bringing something into practice or use for the first time ▪ the introduction of telephone service to the area b : the act of making a product available for sale for the first time ▪ Since its introduction last year, over a million copies of the software have been sold. c : the act of presenting something for discussion or consideration ▪ the introduction of evidence at the trial ▪ the introduction of a new topic for conversation ▪ the introduction of the bill to Congress ▪ She told the audience, by way of introduction, that the research was completed a year ago. d : the act of bringing something (such as a plant or animal) to a place for the first time ▪ the introduction of an Asian plant species to America
3 [count] : a statement made to an audience about someone who is about to speak, perform, etc., or something that is about to begin ▪ After a brief introduction, the performer took the stage. ✧ A person who needs no introduction is well-known to the audience. ▪ Our speaker this evening needs no introduction.
4 [count] a : the beginning part of a book, essay, speech, etc., that explains what will follow in the main part ▪ Did you read the introduction? ▪ His introduction outlined the main points of the speech. b : the beginning part of a piece of music
5 [count] : something (such as a book or a course of study) that provides basic information about a subject — + to ▪ The book/course is an introduction to computer programming.
6 [singular] : a person's first experience with something — + to ▪ That concert was my introduction to her music. [=it was the first time I had heard her music]
7 [count] : something that is added or introduced to something else ▪ The plant is a recent introduction from Asia.

in•tro•duc•to•ry /ˌɪntrəˈdʌktəri/ adj
1 : providing information about someone who is about to speak, perform, etc., or something that is about to begin ▪ I'd like to make a few introductory remarks before we start the program. ▪ the book's introductory chapter
2 : providing basic information about a subject ▪ an introductory text ▪ a class in introductory physics
3 : intended to attract customers when a new product, service, etc., is introduced ▪ a special introductory offer/price in•tro•spec•tion /ˌɪntrəˈspɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] : the process of examining your own thoughts or feelings ▪ a moment of quiet introspection

– in•tro•spec•tive /ˌɪntrəˈspɛktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ As a student, he was very quiet and introspective.

in•tro•vert /ˈɪntrəˌvət/ noun, pl -verts [count] : a shy person : a quiet person who does not find it easy to talk to other people — opposite EXTROVERT

– in•tro•vert•ed /ˈɪntrəˌvətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an introverted person/personality in•trude /ɪnˈtru:d/ verb -trudes; -trud•ed; -trud•ing [no obj]

1 : to come or go into a place where you are not wanted or welcome ▪ Excuse me, sir. I don't mean to intrude, but you have a phone call. ▪ Would I be intruding if I came along with you? ▪ The plane intruded into their airspace.
2 : to become involved with something private in an annoying way ▪ Reporters constantly intruded into the couple's private life. ▪ He didn't want to intrude upon their conversation.

– in•tru•sion /ɪnˈtru:ʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count] The phone call was an unwelcome intrusion. ▪ Please excuse the intrusion. We'll be finished shortly. ▪ They have grown tired of all the intrusions into their private lives. [noncount] These laws are meant to protect citizens from improper government intrusion. ▪ The animals are sensitive to human intrusion into their habitat.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

in•trud•er /ɪnˈtruːdə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who is not welcome or wanted in a place ▪ The other children regarded him as an intruder.
2 : a person who enters a place illegally ▪ The police arrested the intruder.

in•tru•sive /ɪnˈtruːsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : annoying someone by interfering with their privacy : intruding where you are not wanted or welcome ▪ a loud and intrusive person ▪ She tried to be helpful without being intrusive. ▪ Intrusive reporters disturbed their privacy. ▪ intrusive questions – in•tru•sive•ness noun [noncount]

in•tu•it /ɪnˈtuːwət, Brit ɪnˈtjuːət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj] formal : to know or understand (something) because of what you feel or sense rather than because of evidence : to know or understand (something) through intuition ▪ He was able to intuit the answer immediately. ▪ She intuited a connection between the two crimes.

in•tu•i•tion /ˌɪntuˈɪʃən, Brit ˌɪntjuˈɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : a natural ability or power that makes it possible to know something without any proof or evidence : a feeling that guides a person to act a certain way without fully understanding why ▪ Intuition was telling her that something was very wrong. ▪ "How did you know I would drop by?" "Oh, I don't know. It must have been intuition." ▪ I trusted my intuition [=instincts] and ended the relationship.
2 [count] : something that is known or understood without proof or evidence ▪ I had an intuition [=(more commonly) feeling, hunch] that you would drop by.

in•tu•i•tive /ɪnˈtuːwətɪv, Brit ɪnˈtjuːətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having the ability to know or understand things without any proof or evidence : having or characterized by intuition ▪ She has an intuitive mind ▪ an intuitive person
2 : based on or agreeing with what is known or understood without any proof or evidence : known or understood by intuition ▪ She has an intuitive [=instinctive] understanding of the business. ▪ a doctor with an intuitive awareness of his patients' concerns
3 a : agreeing with what seems naturally right ▪ The argument makes intuitive sense. b : easily and quickly learned or understood ▪ The software has an intuitive interface.
– in•tu•i•tive•ly adv ▪ a chef who works intuitively, rather than from a recipe ▪ The solution is intuitively obvious.

In•u•it also In•nu•it /ˈɪnjuwət, ˈɪnuwət/ noun, pl Inuit or In•u•its also Innuit or In•nu•its
1 [count] : a member of a group of native people of northern North America and Greenland
2 [noncount] : the language of the Inuit people in•un•date /ˈɪnənˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone or something) to receive or take in a large amount of things at the same time ▪ Hundreds of letters inundated [=flooded] the office. — often + with ▪ The salesman inundated [=overwhelmed] them with information. — often used as (be) inundated ▪ The office was inundated with calls/letters. ▪ She was inundated [=swamped] with requests.
2 formal : to cover (something) with a flood of water : FLOOD ▪ Rising rivers could inundate low-lying areas. — often used as (be) inundated ▪ Low-lying areas could be inundated by rising rivers.
– in•un•da•tion /ˌɪnənˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] in•ure /ɪˈnuə, ɪˈnjuə/ verb -ures; -ured; -ur•ing [+ obj] formal : to cause (someone) to be less affected by something unpleasant : to cause (someone) to be less sensitive to something unpleasant ▪ Does violence on television inure children to violence in real life?

– inured adj — + to ▪ Are children inured to violence? ▪ We quickly became inured to his sarcasm.

in•vade /ɪnˈveɪd/ verb -vades; -vad•ed; -vad•ing
1 : to enter (a place, such as a foreign country) in order to take control by military force [+ obj] invade a country [no obj] The troops invaded at dawn.
2 a : to enter (a place) in large numbers [+ obj] Ants invaded the kitchen. ▪ Tourists invaded the town. [no obj] When tourists invade, the town is a very different place. b [+ obj] : to enter or be in (a place where you are not wanted) ▪ She was invading my space. [=she was too close to me; she was in the place/space where I was or where I wanted to be]
3 : to spread over or into (something) in a harmful way [+ obj] The cancer eventually invaded the brain. ▪ Weeds had invaded the garden. ▪ Doubts invaded my mind. [=I began to have many doubts] [no obj] Bacteria invaded and caused an infection.
4 [+ obj] : to affect (something, such as your life or privacy) in an unwanted way ▪ He thinks people were happier before TV and the Internet invaded our lives. ▪ Photographers invaded her privacy. [=caused her to lose her privacy; intruded on her privacy]
– in•vad•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The city was attacked by invaders from the north.

[1]in•val•id /ɪnˈvælɪd/ adj : not valid: such as a : having no force or effect ▪ The judge declared that the contract was invalid. b : not based on truth or fact : not logical or correct ▪ an invalid argument

[2]in•va•lid /ˈɪnvəlɪd, Brit ˈɪnvəˌliːd/ noun, pl -lids [count] : a person who needs to be cared for because of injury or illness ▪ Her husband has become an invalid. — often used before another noun ▪ She cares for her invalid husband at home.

[3]in•va•lid /ˈɪnvəlɪd, Brit ˈɪnvəˌliːd/ verb -lids; -lid•ed; -lid•ing [+ obj] Brit : to release (someone) from active military service because of illness or injury — usually used as (be) invalided ▪ He was invalided out of the army. ▪ He was invalided home.

in•val•i•date /ɪnˈvælɪˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -da•ting [+ obj] : to make (something) invalid: such as a : to weaken or destroy the effect of (something) ▪ actions that will invalidate the contract ▪ invalidate a marriage ▪ invalidate an election b : to show or prove (something) to be false or incorrect ▪ The study invalidates earlier theories. ▪ factors that may invalidate the test results in•val•id•i•ty /ˌɪnvəˈlɪdəti/ noun [noncount] formal

1 : the state of having no force or effect : the state of being invalid ▪ the invalidity of the contract/election
2 Brit : the state or condition of being unable to work because of illness or injury : the state or condition of being an invalid ▪ an injured worker forced to live on invalidity benefit in•valu•able /ɪnˈvæljəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely valuable or useful ▪ an invaluable experience ▪ Their help has been invaluable to us. ▪ invaluable information/advice in•vari•able /ɪnˈverijəbəl/ adj : not changing or capable of change : staying the same : not variable ▪ an invariable routine – in•vari•ably /ɪnˈverijəbli/ adv ▪ He is invariably [=always] courteous. ▪ The disease is invariably fatal.

in•va•sion /ɪnˈveɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : the act of invading something: such as a : the act of entering a place in an attempt to take control of it [count] The enemy launched/mounted an invasion. ▪ the invasion of Poland [noncount] The people live under a constant threat of invasion. b : the act of entering a place in large numbers especially in a way that is harmful or unwanted [count] The town is gearing up for the annual tourist invasion. ▪ an invasion of/by insects [noncount] protecting the house from insect invasion
2 ✧ An invasion of privacy is a situation in which someone tries to get information about a person's private life in an unwanted and usually improper way. ▪ I consider these questions to be an invasion of my privacy. ▪ Is drug testing an invasion of privacy?

in•va•sive /ɪnˈveɪsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : tending to spread ▪ The cancer is invasive. ▪ invasive plants
2 medical : involving entry into the body by cutting or by inserting an instrument ▪ an invasive medical procedure in•vec•tive /ɪnˈvɛktɪv/ noun [noncount] formal : harsh or insulting words : rude and angry language ▪ a barrage/stream of racist invective

in•veigh /ɪnˈveɪ/ verb -veighs; -veighed; -veigh•ing inveigh against [phrasal verb] inveigh against (someone or something) formal : to protest or complain about (something or someone) very strongly ▪ Employees inveighed against mandatory overtime.

in•vei•gle /ɪnˈveɪgəl/ verb -vei•gles; -vei•gled; -vei•gling [+ obj] formal
1 : to persuade (someone) to do something in a clever or deceptive way ▪ She inveigled him to write the letter. — usually + into ▪ They tried to inveigle her into taking the job.
2 : to get (something) in a clever or deceptive way ▪ We inveigled the information from him. ▪ He inveigled his way into a position of authority. [=he gained a position of authority by using trickery]

in•vent /ɪnˈvɛnt/ verb -vents; -vent•ed; -ven•ting [+ obj]
1 : to create or produce (something useful) for the first time

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

▪ Thomas Edison invented the phonograph. ▪ She is credited with inventing a procedure that has helped to save thousands of lives. ▪ invent a new word

2 : to create or make up (something, such as a story) in order to trick people ▪ She invented a clever excuse/story. ▪ We found out that he had invented the stories he told us about his military service.

– in•ven•tor /ɪn'vɛntə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ Thomas Edison was a great inventor.

in•ven•tion /ɪn'vɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : something invented: such as a [count] : a useful new device or process ▪ The light bulb was one of the most important inventions of the 19th century. b : something (such as a false story) that is made up [count] The stories he told about his military service were just inventions. [noncount] His explanation was pure invention. ▪ Parts of the movie were accurate, but much of it was invention.

2 [noncount] : the act of inventing something ▪ the invention of a new product ▪ the invention of a false story ▪ Don't believe everything she tells you. She's prone to invention. [=exaggeration, lying]

3 [noncount] : the ability to think of new ideas ▪ an artist with exceptional powers of invention — see also necessity is the mother of invention at [1]MOTHER in•ven•tive /ɪn'vɛntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to think of new ideas and methods : creative or imaginative ▪ an inventive child/artist ▪ They have given their new company an inventive name.

– in•ven•tive•ly adv – in•ven•tive•ness noun [noncount]

[1]in•ven•to•ry /'ɪnvən,tori, Brit 'ɪnvəntri/ noun, pl -ries

1 [count] : a complete list of the things that are in a place ▪ an inventory of supplies ▪ We made an inventory of the library's collection.

2 chiefly US : a supply of goods that are stored in a place [count] The dealer keeps a large inventory of used cars and trucks. ▪ Inventories at both stores were low. [noncount] How can a small business afford to keep so much inventory?

3 [noncount] chiefly US : the act or process of making a complete list of the things that are in a place : the act or process of making an inventory ▪ We'll be doing inventory on the collection soon. — called also (Brit) stocktaking

[2]inventory verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [+ obj] : to make a complete list of (the things in a place) : to make an inventory of (something) ▪ We'll be inventorying the collection soon.

[1]in•verse /ɪn'vəs, 'ɪn,vəs/ adj, always used before a noun

1 — used to describe two things that are related in such a way that as one becomes larger the other becomes smaller ▪ The study indicates an inverse relationship between the unemployment rate and inflation. [=as the unemployment rate drops, inflation rises] ▪ My interest in his books declined in inverse proportion to his popularity. [=my interest declined as his books became more popular]

2 technical : opposite in nature or effect ▪ Addition and subtraction are inverse operations.

– in•verse•ly adv

[2]inverse /ɪn'vəs, 'ɪn,vəs/ noun [singular] formal + technical : something that is the opposite of something else ▪ the inverse of your argument inversely proportional adj : related so that as one becomes larger the other becomes smaller ▪ The study indicates that the unemployment rate and inflation are inversely proportional. — compare DIRECTLY PROPORTIONAL in•ver•sion /ɪn'vəʒən/ noun, pl -sions

1 formal : a change in the position, order, or relationship of things so that they are the opposite of what they had been [count] an inversion of the roles of parent and child [noncount] Inversion of the two words changes the meaning of the sentence.

2 [count, noncount] weather : a condition in which air close to the ground is cooler than the air above it ▪ (a) temperature inversion

in•vert /ɪn'vət/ verb -verts; -vert•ed; -ver•ting [+ obj] formal

1 : to turn (something) upside down ▪ invert a bowl ▪ The lens inverts the image. ▪ The number 9 looks like an inverted 6. ▪ an inverted image

2 : to change the position, order, or relationship of things so that they are the opposite of what they had been ▪ invert the order of two words in a sentence in•ver•te•brate /ɪn'vətəbrət/ noun, pl -brates [count] : a type of animal that does not have a backbone ▪ Worms are invertebrates. — compare VERTEBRATE

– invertebrate adj ▪ invertebrate species

inverted comma noun, pl ~ -mas [count] Brit : QUOTATION MARK

in•vest /ɪn'vɛst/ verb -vests; -vest•ed; -ves•ting

1 : to use money to earn more money : to use your money to purchase stock in a company, to buy property, etc., in order to make future profit [no obj] She has always invested conservatively/aggressively. — often + in ▪ He made a fortune by investing in real estate. [+ obj] She invested her inheritance money. ▪ invested money — often + in ▪ He invested his savings in the business.

2 a : to spend (money) on building or improving something — usually + in [+ obj] The city will invest millions of dollars in two new schools. [no obj] The city plans to invest heavily in its educational system this year. b [+ obj] : to give your time or effort in order to do something or make something better — usually + in ▪ A lot of effort was invested in the project. ▪ We need to invest more time in educating our children. ▪ (chiefly US) She is deeply invested in this project [=she has given a lot of time and effort to this project and cares about it very much] and wants it to succeed.

3 [+ obj] formal : to provide (someone or something) with (something) ▪ The United States Constitution invests the President with certain powers. [=gives certain powers to the President] ▪ The emperor claimed to be invested with power by the gods. ▪ The promotion invested her with confidence. [=made her confident] invest as [phrasal verb] invest (someone) as (something) formal : to give (someone) the power and authority of (a particular position or title) ▪ The group invested her as chairperson.

invest in [phrasal verb] invest in (something) informal : to spend money on (something useful or helpful to yourself) ▪ I am planning to invest in [=buy, purchase] a good coat.

– investing noun [noncount] ▪ I read a book on investing before I bought stocks and bonds. – in•ves•tor /ɪn'vɛstə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

in•ves•ti•gate /ɪn'vɛstə,geɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing

1 : to try to find out the facts about (something, such as a crime or an accident) in order to learn how it happened, who did it, etc. [+ obj] The police are still investigating the murder. ▪ The accident was thoroughly investigated. [no obj] The manager promised to investigate when we pointed out an error on our bill.

2 [+ obj] : to try to get information about (someone who may have done something illegal) ▪ He was investigated for his involvement in the incident.

– in•ves•ti•ga•tion /ɪn,vɛstə'geɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] Police began an investigation into/of the incident. [noncount] The accident is under investigation. [=being investigated] – in•ves•ti•ga•tor /ɪn'vɛstə,geɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ Investigators revealed their findings.

in•ves•ti•ga•tive /ɪn'vɛstə,geɪtɪv/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or involving investigation ▪ investigative methods/work/journalism/reporting in•ves•ti•ga•to•ry /ɪn'vɛstɪgə,tori, Brit ɪn'vɛstɪgətri/ adj, always used before a noun : INVESTIGATIVE in•ves•ti•ture /ɪn'vɛstəʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count, noncount] formal : a formal ceremony at which someone is placed in an office or given an official rank ▪ the investiture of the Prince of Wales

in•vest•ment /ɪn'vɛstmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 a : the act of using money to earn more money : the act of investing money [noncount] He became wealthy by shrewd investment of his money in the stock market. ▪ She got a good return on her investment. [=her investment earned a good profit] ▪ The company hopes to attract foreign investment. [=hopes that foreign people/companies will invest money in it] [count] Buying the house was a good investment. ▪ The financial company offers several kinds of investments. b [count] : an amount of money that is invested in something ▪ Her initial investment was $2,000.

2 [count] : something that you buy with the idea that it will increase in value, usefulness, etc. ▪ The house turned out to be a good investment. [=the house increased in value and they made a good profit when they sold it] ▪ A college education is a very good investment.

3 a : the act of spending money on something that is valuable or expected to be useful or helpful [noncount] The government has set aside money for investment in public transportation. [count] The company needs to make more

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i investments in technology. b [count, noncount] : the act of giving your time or effort in order to accomplish something or make something better ▪ The project will require (a) substantial investment of time and energy.

in•vet•er•ate /ɪnˈvɛtərət/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + often disapproving
1 : always or often doing something specified ▪ She's an inveterate reader/traveler. ▪ an inveterate liar
2 : always or often happening or existing ▪ her inveterate optimism ▪ his inveterate tendency to overlook the obvious
– in•vet•er•ate•ly adv ▪ inveterately optimistic

in•vid•i•ous /ɪnˈvɪdijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : unpleasant and likely to cause bad feelings in other people ▪ invidious remarks ▪ an invidious comparison/choice ▪ The boss made invidious distinctions between employees.

in•vig•i•late /ɪnˈvɪʤəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing Brit : to watch students who are taking an examination : PROCTOR [+ obj] invigilate an exam [no obj] He was asked to invigilate next week.
– in•vig•i•la•tor /ɪnˈvɪʤəˌleɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]

in•vig•o•rate /ɪnˈvɪgəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give life and energy to (someone) ▪ A brisk walk in the cool morning air always invigorates me. ▪ He was invigorated by the positive feedback.
2 : to cause (something) to become more active and lively ▪ The mayor has plans to invigorate the downtown economy.
– invigorating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an invigorating walk in•vin•ci•ble /ɪnˈvɪnsəbəl/ adj : impossible to defeat or overcome : UNBEATABLE ▪ an invincible army ▪ The loss proved that the team is not invincible.

– in•vin•ci•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌvɪnsəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

in•vi•o•la•ble /ɪnˈvajələbəl/ adj, formal : too important to be ignored or treated with disrespect ▪ an inviolable oath/law/right – in•vi•o•la•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌvajələˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the inviolability of the law in•vi•o•late /ɪnˈvajələt/ adj, formal : not harmed or changed ▪ These rights must remain inviolate.

in•vis•i•ble /ɪnˈvɪzəbəl/ adj
1 : impossible to see : not visible ▪ Sound waves are invisible. ▪ a thriller about an invisible man ▪ With the telescope we can see details of the planet's surface that are ordinarily invisible. ▪ It felt like I was invisible at the party. [=no one was paying any attention to me at the party] ▪ She feels as if her success is being blocked by an invisible barrier. ▪ Homelessness is no longer an invisible problem for this city. ▪ a letter written in invisible ink [=ink that can only be seen when it is specially treated in some way]
2 chiefly Brit, finance — used to describe money from foreign countries that is received from providing services (such as banking and tourism) rather than from selling products ▪ invisible earnings ▪ invisible exports – in•vis•i•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌvɪzəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] – in•vis•i•bly /ɪnˈvɪzəbli/ adv ▪ a hearing aid that fits invisibly in the ear

in•vi•ta•tion /ˌɪnvəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a written or spoken request for someone to go somewhere or to do something ▪ We sent out more than 100 invitations for the party. ▪ He accepted/declined our invitation. ▪ an invitation to lunch/dinner ▪ a wedding invitation ▪ You have a standing/open invitation [=you are always welcome; you are always invited] to visit us any time.
2 [noncount] : the act of inviting someone ▪ She attended the fund-raiser at the invitation of the committee chairperson. [=she attended because she was invited by the committee chairperson] ▪ The event is by invitation only. [=only people who have been invited to the event can attend it]
3 [singular] : something that encourages someone to do something or that makes something more likely to happen — + to ▪ She treated his request for help as an invitation to take control of his life. ▪ Leaving valuables unattended is an (open) invitation to thieves (to steal them). ▪ His letter to the newspaper was an invitation to criticism. ▪ Speeding is an invitation to disaster/trouble.

in•vi•ta•tion•al /ˌɪnvəˈteɪʃənl/ adj, US, sports : limited to people who have been invited to compete ▪ an invitational tournament – invitational noun, pl -als [count] ▪ The tournament is an invitational.

[1]in•vite /ɪnˈvaɪt/ verb -vites; -vit•ed; -vit•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to ask (someone) to go somewhere or do something ▪ He invited a few friends (to come) over to his house after work. ▪ She invited them (to go) out to dinner. ▪ I visited their house once, but they've never invited me back. ▪ I'm planning to invite them for the weekend. ▪ Aren't you going to invite me in for a coffee? ▪ The event is limited to invited guests. b : to ask (someone) formally or politely to do something ▪ Employees are invited to apply for the new position. ▪ The college invited her to speak at the graduation ceremony. c : to request (something) formally or politely ▪ The company invites suggestions from customers.
2 : to make (something unwanted) more likely to happen ▪ behavior that invites criticism ▪ invite disaster by speeding

[2]in•vite /ˈɪnˌvaɪt/ noun, pl -vites [count] informal : INVITATION 1 ▪ Did you send out the invites to the party? ▪ Thanks for the invite!

in•vit•ing /ɪnˈvaɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : attractive in a way that makes you want to do something, go somewhere, be near someone, etc. ▪ an inviting prospect ▪ The room is very inviting. [=pleasant, cozy] ▪ He has an inviting [=friendly, warm] smile.
– in•vit•ing•ly adv ▪ desserts arranged invitingly on the table in vi•tro /ɪnˈviːtroʊ/ adj, technical : outside the body ▪ an in vitro study/test ▪ a baby conceived through in vitro fertilization [=fertilization of an egg outside the mother's body]

– in vitro adv ▪ an egg fertilized in vitro

in•vo•ca•tion /ˌɪnvəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 formal : the act of mentioning or referring to someone or something in support of your ideas : the act of invoking something — + of [count] his repeated invocations of the ancient philosophers [noncount] justifying his position by invocation of the past
2 literary : the act of asking for help or support especially from a god [count] The poem begins with an invocation of/to the Muses. [noncount] by invocation of God
3 [count] US : a prayer for blessing or guidance at the beginning of a service, ceremony, etc. ▪ They began the meeting with an invocation.

[1]in•voice /ˈɪnˌvoɪs/ noun, pl -voic•es [count] : a document that shows a list of goods or services and the prices to be paid for them : BILL ▪ Payment is due within 30 days after receipt of the invoice. — see also PRO FORMA INVOICE

[2]invoice verb -voices; -voiced; -voic•ing [+ obj] : to send or give (someone) a bill for a purchase or service : to submit an invoice to (someone) ▪ They will invoice you directly.

in•voke /ɪnˈvoʊk/ verb -vokes; -voked; -vok•ing [+ obj] formal
1 a : to mention (someone or something) in an attempt to make people feel a certain way or have a certain idea in their mind ▪ He invoked the memory/name of his predecessor. b : to refer to (something) in support of your ideas ▪ She invoked history to prove her point.
2 : to make use of (a law, a right, etc.) ▪ He invoked his Fifth Amendment privileges. ▪ The suspect invoked his right to an attorney.
3 : to ask for help or protection from (something or someone) ▪ They invoked God's mercy. ▪ invoke the authority of the court in•vol•un•tary /ɪnˈvɑːlənˌteri, Brit ɪnˈvɒləntri/ adj : not voluntary: such as a : not done or made consciously ▪ Breathing and circulation are involuntary processes. ▪ involuntary bodily movements ▪ When the door burst open, she let out an involuntary shriek. b : not done by choice ▪ involuntary [=forced] labor ▪ The lawyer argued that the client's confession was involuntary. ▪ involuntary unemployment – in•vol•un•tar•i•ly /ɪnˌvɑːlənˈterəli, Brit ɪnˈvɒləntrəli/ adv

in•volve /ɪnˈvɑːlv/ verb -volves; -volved; -volv•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to have or include (someone or something) as a part of something ▪ Does this involve me? ▪ The accident involved three cars. = Three cars were involved in the accident. ▪ He told us a story involving life on a farm. b : to cause (someone) to be included in some activity, situation, etc. : to cause (someone) to take part in something — usually + in ▪ I didn't intend to involve you in this mess. ▪ The teacher tried to involve all the children in the game. ▪ She involves herself in [=she participates in] everything they do. c : to cause (someone) to be associated with someone or something ▪ She remained involved with the organization for many years.
2 : to require (something) as a necessary part ▪ "Just what does this job involve?" "It involves [=entails] traveling and a lot of overtime." ▪ Renovating the house involved hiring a contractor.
3 : to affect (something) ▪ The disease continued to spread

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

until it involved the entire jaw.

– in•volve•ment /ɪnˈvɑːlvmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ Involvement with/in the community is important to him. ▪ Her involvement with the museum lasted over two decades. ▪ He denied any involvement in the crime. ▪ No one knew of their romantic involvement. [=no one knew that they had a romantic relationship]

in•volved /ɪnˈvɑːlvd/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : very complicated ▪ a long and involved story ▪ The instructions for assembling the toy are very involved. ▪ The process is quite involved.

2 not used before a noun a : having a part in something : included in something ▪ Those of us who were involved knew exactly what happened. — often + in ▪ He is involved in a lawsuit. ▪ I don't want to become involved in this argument. ▪ This department was not involved in the decision. b [more ~; most ~] : actively participating in something ▪ Students who stay involved get more out of the program. ▪ If you want to make things better, you need to get involved. — often + in ▪ You need to get involved in making things better. ▪ She was so involved [=engrossed] in her work that she didn't hear the phone ring. c : having a romantic or sexual relationship ▪ They quickly became romantically involved. ▪ No one knew that they were involved. — often + with ▪ She became romantically involved with a married man.

in•vul•ner•a•ble /ɪnˈvʌlnərəbəl/ adj : impossible to harm, damage, or defeat ▪ teenagers who think they are invulnerable ▪ The candidate seems to be in an invulnerable position. ▪ The team seems invulnerable this season. — often + to ▪ a city invulnerable to invasion

– in•vul•ner•a•bil•i•ty /ɪnˌvʌlnərəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

[1]in•ward /ˈɪnwəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 always used before a noun : of or relating to a person's mind or spirit ▪ inward [=(more commonly) inner] peace ▪ inward feelings

2 : directed or moving toward the inside of something ▪ an inward flow/curve — opposite OUTWARD

[2]inward also chiefly Brit in•wards /ˈɪnwədz/ adv

1 : toward the inside of something ▪ The window faces inward toward the courtyard. ▪ The door opens inward. — opposite OUTWARD

2 : toward the mind or spirit ▪ He turned his attention inward.

in•ward•ly /ˈɪnwədli/ adv : in a way that is not openly shown or stated : on the inside ▪ He chuckled/smiled/cursed inwardly. ▪ She was outwardly calm but inwardly nervous. — opposite OUTWARDLY in–your–face /ˌɪnjəˈfeɪs/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very direct and forceful : very aggressive ▪ in-your-face advertising ▪ an in-your-face style of basketball — see also in someone's face at [1]FACE

io•dine /ˈajəˌdaɪn, Brit ˈajəˌdiːn/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is used especially in medicine and photography

ion /ˈaɪˌɑːn, ˈajən/ noun, pl ions [count] technical : an atom or group of atoms that has a positive or negative electric charge from losing or gaining one or more electrons

-ion noun suffix

1 a : act or process ▪ validat*ion* ▪ refrigerat*ion* ▪ rebell*ion* b : result of an act or process ▪ regulat*ion* ▪ reject*ion*

2 : state or condition ▪ perfect*ion*

io•ta /aɪˈoʊtə/ noun [singular] : a very small amount — usually used in negative statements ▪ That doesn't bother me one iota. [=that doesn't bother me at all] ▪ There isn't an iota of truth in what he says.

IOU /ˌaɪˌoʊˈjuː/ noun, pl IOUs [count] informal : a usually written promise to pay a debt ▪ I don't have any cash, so I'll have to give you an IOU. — often used figuratively ▪ The governor has acquired some political IOUs over the years. [=other people owe the governor political favors] ✧ IOU is from the pronunciation of the phrase "I owe you."

IPA /ˌaɪˌpiːˈeɪ/ noun [noncount] : a system of symbols that represent all of the sounds made in speech ✧ IPA is an abbreviation of "International Phonetic Alphabet."

IPO /ˌaɪˌpiːˈoʊ/ noun, pl IPOs [count] : the first time a company's stock is offered for sale to the public ✧ IPO is an abbreviation of "initial public offering."

ip•so fac•to /ˈɪpsoʊˈfæktoʊ/ adv, formal : because of that fact : because of the fact that has just been mentioned ▪ He thinks that anyone wearing a suit and tie is ipso facto a conservative. [=that anyone wearing a suit and tie must be a conservative]

IQ /ˌaɪˈkjuː/ noun, pl IQs [count] : a number that represents your intelligence and that is based on your score on a special test ▪ children with high IQs ▪ They wanted me to take an IQ test. ✧ IQ is an abbreviation of "intelligence quotient."

ir- see IN-

[1]IRA /ˌaɪˌɑəˈeɪ/ noun, pl IRAs [count] US : a special account in which you can save and invest money for your retirement without having to pay taxes on the money until a later time ✧ IRA is an abbreviation of "individual retirement account."

[2]IRA abbr Irish Republican Army ▪ a representative of the IRA ▪ an IRA attack iras•ci•ble /ɪˈræsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : becoming angry very easily : having a bad temper ▪ an irascible old football coach ▪ He has an irascible disposition/temper.

irate /aɪˈreɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very angry ▪ Irate viewers called the television network to complain about the show. ▪ an irate neighbor ire /ˈajə/ noun [noncount] : intense anger ▪ He directed his ire at the coworkers who reported the incident. ▪ The proposal has raised/roused/provoked the ire of environmentalists. [=has made environmentalists angry]

ir•i•des•cent /ˌɪrəˈdɛsnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : shining with many different colors when seen from different angles ▪ an iridescent gemstone

– ir•i•des•cence /ˌɪrəˈdɛsns/ noun [noncount] ▪ The stone shone with a beautiful iridescence.

iris /ˈaɪrəs/ noun, pl iris•es [count]

1 : the colored part of your eye — see picture at EYE

2 pl irises also iris : a plant with long pointed leaves and large blue or yellow flowers — see color picture on page C6

[1]Irish /ˈaɪrɪʃ/ adj : of or relating to Ireland, its people, or the Gaelic language that is spoken in Ireland ▪ Irish culture ▪ the Irish coast ▪ people of Irish descent ▪ Irish grammar

[2]Irish noun, pl Irish

1 [plural] : the people of Ireland : Irish people ▪ the Irish in America ▪ How many Irish are there in England?

2 [noncount] : the Gaelic language of Ireland ▪ Do you speak Irish?

Irish coffee noun, pl ~ -fees [count, noncount] : a drink of hot coffee with sugar, whiskey, and usually whipped cream

Irish•man /ˈaɪrɪʃmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : an Irish man

Irish•wom•an /ˈaɪrɪʃˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : an Irish woman

irk /ˈərk/ verb irks; irked; irk•ing [+ obj] : to bother or annoy (someone) ▪ Drivers were irked by the higher gasoline prices. ▪ It irks me to have to clean up after you.

irk•some /ˈərksəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : annoying or irritating ▪ the irksome task of cleaning up ▪ irksome rules

[1]iron /ˈajən/ noun, pl irons

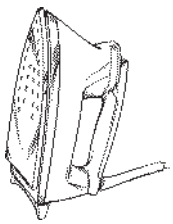
1 [noncount] : a heavy type of metal that is very common, occurs naturally in blood, and is used to make steel and in many products ▪ The bars/chains are (made of) iron. ▪ She has an iron deficiency. [=she does not have enough iron in her blood] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an athlete with legs/muscles of iron [=very strong legs/muscles] ▪ She has a will of iron. [=she has a very strong will] — see also CAST IRON, WROUGHT IRON

2 [count] : a device with a flat metal base that is heated and is used to press wrinkles out of clothing ▪ a heated iron — see also CURLING IRON, SOLDERING IRON, WAFFLE IRON



iron

3 [count] : a golf club that has a metal head and is identified by a number ▪ a five-iron — compare WOOD

4 irons [plural] : chains placed on a prisoner's arms or legs ▪ They clapped/put the prisoner in irons. ▪ They slapped leg irons on him.

irons in the fire : activities or projects that someone is involved in ▪ Although he won't say exactly what he's working on now, he says he has quite a few irons in the fire.

pump iron see [2]PUMP

strike while the iron is hot see [1]STRIKE

[2]iron adj

1 : made of iron ▪ iron bars/chains ▪ an iron fence

2 always used before a noun : very strong ▪ He has an iron constitution. [=he is very strong and healthy] ▪ She has an

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

iron will. [=she is very determined to get what she wants] ▪ an iron grip iron man : a man who is very strong and is able to do something (such as play a sport) for a long time without injury or illness rule with an iron fist/hand, rule with a rod of iron see [2]RULE

[3]iron verb irons; ironed; iron•ing : to use a heated iron to make clothing or fabric smooth [+ obj] I ironed the shirt. [no obj] I ironed all morning.

iron out [phrasal verb] iron (something) out or iron out (something) 1 : to remove (wrinkles) in cloth by using a heated iron ▪ She ironed the wrinkles out of the dress. ▪ Do you think we can iron out the creases in those curtains? 2 a : to find a solution to (something) : to fix or correct (something) ▪ It'll take us a while longer to iron out the wrinkles/kinks in the network. [=to fix the small problems in the network] ▪ We haven't been able to iron out our differences. ▪ They're trying to iron things out. [=work out their difficulties] b : to reach an agreement about (something) ▪ The final details of the contract still have to be ironed out.

Iron Age noun

the Iron Age : a period of time between about 3000 B.C. and 1000 B.C. in which people used iron to make weapons and tools ▪ The Iron Age followed the Bronze Age. ▪ an Iron Age tool — compare BRONZE AGE, STONE AGE

iron•clad /ˈajənˈklæd/ adj

1 : not able to be changed ▪ The company has an ironclad policy/rule against revealing secrets to competitors. ▪ an ironclad promise

2 : too strong to be doubted or questioned ▪ He has an ironclad alibi. ▪ ironclad proof/evidence

Iron Curtain noun

the Iron Curtain : the political and military barrier in the past that separated the communist countries of Europe from the rest of Europe ▪ a spy novel that takes place behind the Iron Curtain iron•ic /ˌaɪˈrɑːnɪk/ also iron•i•cal /ˌaɪˈrɑːnɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : using words that mean the opposite of what you really think especially in order to be funny ▪ an ironic remark ▪ She has an ironic sense of humor. ▪ an ironic writing style

2 : strange or funny because something (such as a situation) is different from what you expected ▪ It's ironic that computers break down so often, since they're meant to save people time. ▪ It is ironic that the robber's car crashed into a police station.

– iron•i•cal•ly /aɪˈrɑːnɪkli/ adv ▪ He wrote ironically [=in an ironic way] about his experiences during the war. ▪ Ironically, [=it is ironic that] the robber's car crashed into a police station.

iron•ing /ˈajənɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity of using an iron to smooth out clothes or fabric ▪ I hate ironing.

2 : clothes that need to be ironed ▪ a pile of ironing

ironing board noun, pl ~ boards [count] : a flat, padded surface on which clothes are ironed iron•mon•ger /ˈajənˌmɑːŋgə, ˈajənˌmʌŋgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] Brit : a person who sells iron or metal tools iron•mon•gery /ˈajənˌmɑːŋgəri, ˈajənˌmʌŋgəri/ noun [noncount] Brit : tools or equipment used in a house or garden iron•work /ˈajənˌwɝk/ noun [noncount] : fences, railings, decorations, etc., that are made of iron ▪ We admired the ironwork in front of the house.

iron•works /ˈajənˌwɝks/ noun, pl ironworks [count] : a place where iron or steel is processed or where iron or steel products are made – iron•work•er /ˈajənˌwɝkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He was an ironworker for 20 years.

iro•ny /ˈaɪrəni/ noun, pl -nies

1 [noncount] : the use of words that mean the opposite of what you really think especially in order to be funny ▪ a writer known for her clever use of irony ▪ "What a beautiful view," he said, his voice dripping with irony, as he looked out the window at the alley. ▪ She described her vacation with heavy irony as "an educational experience." — compare SARCASM

2 : a situation that is strange or funny because things happen in a way that seems to be the opposite of what you expected [count] It was a tragic irony that he made himself sick by worrying so much about his health. ▪ The (awful/bitter) irony is that in trying to forget her, he thought of her even more. ▪ That's just one of life's little ironies. [noncount] The irony of the situation was apparent to everyone. ▪ He has a strong sense of irony.

ir•ra•di•ate /ɪˈreɪdiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] technical : to expose (someone or something) to radiation ▪ irradiate a tumor ▪ The food was irradiated to kill any germs.

– ir•ra•di•a•tion /ɪˌreɪdiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the irradiation of the tumor ir•ra•tio•nal /ɪˈræʃənəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not rational: such as a : not thinking clearly : not able to use reason or good judgment ▪ He became irrational as the fever got worse. b : not based on reason, good judgment, or clear thinking ▪ She had an irrational fear of cats. ▪ an irrational prejudice

– ir•ra•tio•nal•i•ty /ɪˌræʃəˈnæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the irrationality of her fear – ir•ra•tio•nal•ly /ɪˈræʃənəli/ adv ▪ He was behaving irrationally.

ir•rec•on•cil•able /ɪˌrɛkənˈsaɪləbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : so different that agreement is not possible ▪ irreconcilable theories ▪ theories that are irreconcilable with each other ▪ They are filing for divorce, citing irreconcilable differences. [=they cannot agree on most things or on important things]

– ir•rec•on•cil•ably /ɪˌrɛkənˈsaɪləbli/ adv ▪ The two sides are irreconcilably opposed.

ir•re•cov•er•able /ˌɪrɪˈkʌvərəbəl/ adj, formal : impossible to recover or get back ▪ The past is irrecoverable. ▪ an irrecoverable loss ir•re•deem•able /ˌɪrɪˈdiːməbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be saved, helped, or made better : HOPELESS ▪ She does not believe that anyone is completely irredeemable. ▪ Without intervention, the country could fall into irredeemable chaos.

– ir•re•deem•ably /ˌɪrɪˈdiːməbli/ adv ▪ The government was irredeemably corrupt.

ir•re•duc•ible /ɪrɪˈduːsəbəl, Brit ˌɪrɪˈdjuːsəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be made smaller or simpler ▪ They thought the world was made up of four irreducible elements: earth, air, fire, and water. ▪ an irreducible fraction

– ir•re•duc•ibly /ɪrɪˈduːsəbli, Brit ˌɪrɪˈdjuːsəbli/ adv

ir•re•fut•able /ˌɪrɪˈfjuːtəbəl, ɪˈrɛfjətəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be proved wrong : not capable of being refuted ▪ There is irrefutable evidence that he committed these crimes.

– ir•re•fut•ably /ˌɪrɪˈfjuːtəbli, ɪˈrɛfjətəbli/ adv ▪ The evidence shows irrefutably that he committed these crimes.

[1]ir•reg•u•lar /ɪˈrɛgjələ/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not normal or usual : not following the usual rules about what should be done ▪ His behavior as a teacher was highly irregular. ▪ Her application was handled in an irregular manner.

2 [more ~; most ~] : not even or smooth : not regular in form or shape ▪ an irregular outline ▪ a very jagged, irregular surface ▪ The stone has an irregular shape.

3 [more ~; most ~] a : happening or done at different times that change often ▪ She has been working irregular hours. [=she has been working for different amounts of time and at different times on different days] ▪ He has a very irregular schedule. b : not happening at times that are equally separated ▪ The festival has been held at irregular intervals. ▪ an irregular heartbeat

4 grammar : not following the normal patterns by which word forms (such as the past tenses of verbs) are usually created ▪ "Sell" is an irregular verb because its past tense is "sold."

5 US : not able to have normal bowel movements : CONSTIPATED

6 : not belonging to a country's official army ▪ irregular troops/soldiers

– ir•reg•u•lar•ly adv ▪ He has been behaving irregularly. ▪ an irregularly shaped stone

[2]irregular noun, pl -lars [count] : a soldier who does not belong to a country's official army

ir•reg•u•lar•i•ty /ɪˌrɛgjəˈlɛrəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being irregular ▪ the irregularity of his behavior

2 [count] a : something that is irregular ▪ an irregularity [=a raised or rough area] on the surface of the jewel ▪ cardiac irregularities b : something that is not usual or proper and that usually indicates dishonest behavior — usually plural ▪ We uncovered irregularities in the town's finances.

3 [noncount] US : the state of not being able to have normal bowel movements : CONSTIPATION ▪ He is suffering from irregularity.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−i

ir•rel•e•vant /ɪˈrɛləvənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not important or relating to what is being discussed right now : not relevant ▪ His comment is completely irrelevant. — sometimes + to ▪ Her comments were irrelevant to our discussion.
– ir•rel•e•vance /ɪˈrɛləvəns/ also ir•rel•e•van•cy /ɪˈrɛləvənsi/ noun, pl -van•cies also -vanc•es [noncount] the irrelevance of his comments [count] He talked about the weather and other irrelevancies. – ir•rel•e•vant•ly adv ▪ He talked irrelevantly about the weather.

ir•re•li•gious /ˌɪrɪˈlɪʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : not believing in or practicing any religion ▪ irreligious people
2 : having or showing a lack of respect for religion ▪ irreligious remarks ir•re•me•di•a•ble /ˌɪrɪˈmiːdijəbəl/ adj, formal : not able to be repaired or corrected ▪ There was an irremediable split between the two sides of the family.

ir•rep•a•ra•ble /ɪˈrɛprəbəl/ adj, formal : too bad to be corrected or repaired ▪ The oil spill did irreparable harm to the bay. ▪ The damage to their relationship was irreparable.
– ir•rep•a•ra•bly /ɪˈrɛprəbli/ adv ▪ His business was irreparably injured.

ir•re•place•able /ˌɪrɪˈpleɪsəbəl/ adj : too valuable or rare to be replaced : not replaceable ▪ irreplaceable works of art

ir•re•press•ible /ˌɪrɪˈprɛsəbəl/ adj
1 : impossible to hold back, stop, or control ▪ He has irrepressible curiosity.
2 : very lively and cheerful ▪ an irrepressible child ▪ She has an irrepressible sense of humor.
– ir•re•press•ibly /ˌɪrɪˈprɛsəbli/ adv ▪ He is irrepressibly cheerful.

ir•re•proach•able /ˌɪrɪˈproʊʧəbəl/ adj, formal : not deserving criticism or blame : having no fault ▪ His conduct as a police officer was irreproachable. ▪ irreproachable manners
– ir•re•proach•ably /ˌɪrɪˈproʊʧəbli/ adv ▪ He acted irreproachably at all times.

ir•re•sist•ible /ˌɪrɪˈzɪstəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : impossible to resist especially because of strength or attractiveness ▪ The force of the waves was irresistible. ▪ She had an irresistible [=very strong] craving for chocolate. ▪ Women find him irresistible. [=women think he is very attractive] – ir•re•sist•ibly /ˌɪrɪˈzɪstəbli/ adv ▪ He was irresistibly attracted to her.

ir•res•o•lute /ɪˈrɛsəˌluːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not certain about what to do : not resolute ▪ He has been criticized as an irresolute [=indecisive] leader.
– ir•res•o•lute•ly adv ▪ He has wavered irresolutely from one opinion to another.

ir•re•spec•tive of /ˌɪrɪˈspɛktɪv-/ prep, formal : without thinking about or considering (something) ▪ They are protected by the law, irrespective of race. [=regardless of race]

ir•re•spon•si•ble /ˌɪrɪˈspɑːnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not having or showing maturity or good judgment : not responsible ▪ He's too irresponsible to keep a job for more than a week. ▪ She made irresponsible comments that helped cause the riot. ▪ It would be irresponsible to ignore the threats.
– ir•re•spon•si•bil•i•ty /ˌɪrɪˌspɑːnsəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] ▪ The students were criticized for their irresponsibility. – ir•re•spon•si•bly /ˌɪrɪˈspɑːnsəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She acted irresponsibly. ▪ The funds were used irresponsibly.

ir•re•triev•able /ˌɪrɪˈtriːvəbəl/ adj, somewhat formal : impossible to recover or get back ▪ The data was irretrievable after the computer crashed. ▪ the irretrievable breakdown of a marriage – ir•re•triev•ably /ˌɪrɪˈtriːvəbli/ adv ▪ Their pictures were irretrievably lost in the flood. ▪ Their marriage had broken down irretrievably.

ir•rev•er•ent /ɪˈrɛvərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a lack of respect for someone or something that is usually treated with respect : treating someone or something in a way that is not serious or respectful ▪ He has a delightfully irreverent sense of humor. ▪ irreverent portrayals of nuns ▪ an irreverent comedian – ir•rev•er•ence /ɪˈrɛvərəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ She's a comedian known for her irreverence. – ir•rev•er•ent•ly adv ▪ He joked irreverently about religion.

ir•re•vers•ible /ˌɪrɪˈvəsəbəl/ adj, somewhat formal : impossible to change back to a previous condition or state ▪ He suffered an irreversible loss of vision. ▪ The crisis has done irreversible harm to the countries' relations.
– ir•re•vers•ibly /ˌɪrɪˈvəsəbli/ adv ▪ Their relationship has been irreversibly harmed.

ir•rev•o•ca•ble /ɪˈrɛvəkəbəl/ adj, formal : not capable of being changed : impossible to revoke ▪ She has made an irrevocable decision. ▪ an irrevocable change
– ir•rev•o•ca•bly /ɪˈrɛvəkəbli/ adv ▪ Her life has been irrevocably changed.

ir•ri•gate /ˈɪrəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to supply (something, such as land) with water by using artificial means (such as pipes) ▪ irrigate a field ▪ We irrigate our crops.
2 medical : to clean (a wound or a part of the body) with flowing liquid (such as water) ▪ The surgeon irrigated the wound.
– ir•ri•ga•tion /ˌɪrəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ irrigation of the fields/crops

ir•ri•ta•ble /ˈɪrətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : becoming angry or annoyed easily ▪ My father is always irritable after a nap. ▪ I came home from work feeling tired and irritable.
– ir•ri•ta•bil•i•ty /ˌɪrətəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ Side effects include fatigue and increased irritability. – ir•ri•ta•bly /ˈɪrətəbli/ adv ▪ "What's taking so long?" he asked irritably.

ir•ri•tant /ˈɪrətənt/ noun, pl -tants [count]
1 : something that makes part of your body sore and painful ▪ dust and other lung irritants ▪ skin irritants
2 : something that is unpleasant or annoying : something that irritates you ▪ The delay was a minor irritant.

ir•ri•tate /ˈɪrəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) impatient, angry, or annoyed ▪ It's his arrogance that really irritates me. ▪ The other passengers were irritated by the child's rudeness.
2 : to make (part of your body) sore or painful ▪ Harsh soaps can irritate the skin.
– irritated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I've never seen him looking so irritated. ▪ an area of skin that is very irritated and sore – irritating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He's an irritating child. ▪ The child's rudeness was very irritating to us. ▪ Harsh soaps can be very irritating to the skin. – ir•ri•tat•ing•ly /ˈɪrəˌteɪtɪŋli/ adv ▪ He's an irritatingly rude child. – ir•ri•ta•tion /ˌɪrəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] You'll get over the irritation of being delayed. ▪ harsh soaps that can cause irritation of the skin [count] We had to put up with delays and other irritations. ▪ skin irritations

IRS abbr Internal Revenue Service ▪ He was being audited by the IRS.

is see BE

Is. abbr island

ISBN /ˌaɪˌɛsˌbiːˈɛn/ noun, pl ISBNs [count] : a number that is given to a book when it is published and that is used to help identify the book — usually singular ▪ Can you give me the 10-digit ISBN? ✧ ISBN is an abbreviation of "International Standard Book Number."

-ise Brit spelling of - IZE

-ish adj suffix : almost or approximately ▪ The car is greenish. [=the car is a color that is almost green] ▪ She looks to be about fiftyish. [=she looks like she is around 50 years old]

Is•lam /ɪˈslɑːm, ˈɪzˌlɑːm/ noun [noncount]
1 : the religion which teaches that there is only one God and that Muhammad is God's prophet : the religion of Muslims
2 : the modern nations in which Islam is the main religion – Is•lam•ic /ɪˈslɑːmɪk, ɪzˈlɑːmɪk/ adj ▪ Islamic faith/law ▪ the Islamic world is•land /ˈaɪlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count]

1 : an area of land that is surrounded by water ▪ He lives on an island in the Caribbean. ▪ Long Island ▪ the Greek islands — see color picture on page C7
2 : an area or object that is separated from other things: such as a : a raised area within a road, parking lot, or driveway that is used to separate or direct traffic — called also traffic island b chiefly US : a separate raised area with a flat surface on which food is prepared in a kitchen ▪ a kitchen island

is•land•er /ˈaɪləndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person born or living on an island ▪ Pacific islanders

isle /ˈajəl/ noun, pl isles [count] literary : ISLAND 1 ▪ a tropical isle — often used in proper nouns ▪ the British Isles ▪ the Emerald Isle [=Ireland] is•let /ˈaɪlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a small island

ism /ˈɪzəm/ noun, pl isms [count] : a belief, attitude, style, etc., that is referred to by a word that ends in the suffix -ism ▪ Cubism, Impressionism, and other artistic isms ▪ ageism, rac-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

ism, sexism, and all the other familiar isms

-ism /ɪzəm/ noun suffix
1 a : the act, practice, or process of doing something — used to form nouns from verbs that end in -ize ▪ criticism ▪ plagiarism ▪ hypnotism b : behavior like that of a specified kind of person or thing ▪ heroism c : unfair treatment of a group of people who have a particular quality ▪ racism ▪ sexism
2 : the state or fact of being a specified kind of person or thing ▪ skepticism ▪ fanaticism
3 medical : abnormal state or condition ▪ alcoholism ▪ dwarfism
4 : teachings or beliefs ▪ Buddhism ▪ Marxism ▪ socialism ▪ stoicism ▪ realism
5 a : a word that is from a specified source ▪ a Latinism [=a word or phrase that comes from a Latin word or phrase] b : a word that has a specified quality ▪ a colloquialism isn't /ˈɪznt/ — used as a contraction of is not ▪ This isn't the way I expected it to be. ▪ She isn't coming to dinner.

iso•late /ˈaɪsəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put or keep (someone or something) in a place or situation that is separate from others ▪ These policies will only serve to isolate the country politically and economically. ▪ Certain patients must be isolated in a separate ward. ▪ When he wants to work, he isolates himself in his office and won't talk to anyone. — often + from ▪ Certain patients must be isolated from the others in a separate ward.
2 a : to find and deal with (something, such as a problem) by removing other possibilities ▪ It may take several days to isolate the problem. [=to find out exactly what the problem is] b technical : to separate (something, such as a chemical) from another substance : to get (something) or an amount of (something) that is not mixed with or attached to anything else ▪ Scientists have isolated the gene/virus that causes the disease. — often + from ▪ The chemical/compound was originally isolated from a kind of seaweed.

iso•lat•ed adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : separate from others ▪ The town remains a very isolated community. ▪ The camp is located in an isolated area. ▪ isolated places/populations ▪ She felt isolated [=alone] in her new school. [=she felt unhappy because of being separated from people she knew]
2 : happening just once ▪ The arrest was an isolated incident in his youth. ▪ an isolated instance/case
3 : happening in different places and at different times ▪ There have been reports of isolated [=sporadic] outbreaks of the disease. ▪ a few isolated cases of vandalism

iso•la•tion /ˌaɪsəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state of being in a place or situation that is separate from others : the condition of being isolated ▪ the isolation of the mountain community ▪ political and economic isolation ▪ a feeling of isolation [=loneliness]
2 : the act of separating something from other things : the act of isolating something ▪ isolation of the gene/virus in isolation : apart from others ▪ The researchers work in isolation. ▪ Their culture developed in isolation [=separately] from the rest of the world.

iso•la•tion•ism /ˌaɪsəˈleɪʃəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that a country should not be involved with other countries : a policy of not making agreements or working with other countries
– iso•la•tion•ist /ˌaɪsəˈleɪʃənɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ isolationist policies – isolationist noun, pl -ists [count]

iso•met•rics /ˌaɪsəˈmɛtrɪks/ noun [plural] : exercises in which muscles are made stronger by pushing against other muscles or against something that does not move
– iso•met•ric /ˌaɪsəˈmɛtrɪk/ adj ▪ an isometric exercise

isos•ce•les triangle /aɪˈsɑːsəˌliːz-/ noun, pl ~ -angles [count] mathematics : a triangle in which two sides have the same length

iso•tope /ˈaɪsəˌtoʊp/ noun, pl -topes [count] chemistry : any one of various forms in which the atoms of a chemical element can occur ▪ carbon isotopes ▪ radioactive isotopes

ISP /ˌaɪˌɛsˈpiː/ noun, pl ISPs [count] computers : a company which provides the services that make it possible for people using computers to connect to the Internet and to send and receive e-mail ✧ ISP is an abbreviation of "Internet service provider."

Is•rae•li /ɪzˈreɪli/ noun, pl -lis [count] : a person born, raised, or living in modern Israel
– Israeli adj ▪ Israeli politicians ▪ a team of Israeli scientists

Is•ra•el•ite /ˈɪzriːjəˌlaɪt, ˈɪzrəˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : a person who was born in or who lived in the ancient kingdom of Israel is•su•ance /ˈɪʃəwəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the official act of making something available or of giving something to people to be used : the act of officially issuing something ▪ the issuance of stock ▪ a visa issuance ▪ the issuance of a search warrant

[1]is•sue /ˈɪˌʃuː/ noun, pl -sues
1 [count] : something that people are talking about, thinking about, etc. : an important subject or topic ▪ She is concerned with a variety of social/moral/economic issues. ▪ Water purity is a public health issue. ▪ The President's speech addressed a number of important issues. ▪ campaign issues like education and defense ▪ The company insists that race was not an issue in its decision. [=that its decision was not related to race in any way] ▪ The issue is poverty, not race: to talk about race is simply to confuse the issue. ▪ The case involves some complicated legal issues. ▪ He should stop dodging/avoiding the issue and make a decision now.
2 [count] : the version of a newspaper, magazine, etc., that is published at a particular time ▪ There's an interesting article on page 12 of this issue. ▪ the most recent issue of the magazine/journal ▪ the current/latest issue ▪ The library has a large collection of back issues. [=magazines, newspapers, etc., published before the current issue]
3 [singular] : the act of officially making something available or giving something to people to be used : the act of issuing something ▪ Several senators are calling for the issue [=issuance] of new guidelines. ▪ a government-issue gun [=a gun that the government has officially given to someone] — see also STANDARD-ISSUE
4 issues [plural] : problems or concerns ▪ the health issues associated with aging at issue : being discussed or considered ▪ At issue is the city's budget plan for next year. ▪ What is at issue is not the candidate's private life but her politics.
force the issue : to force someone to do something or to make a decision about something ▪ They would never have addressed the problem if that newspaper article hadn't forced the issue. ▪ Neither side is willing to force the issue.
have issues informal 1 : to have problems that make you unhappy and difficult to deal with ▪ He seemed nice enough at first, but it turns out he has (a lot of) issues. ▪ She has serious anger issues. [=she often gets so angry that she is difficult to deal with] 2 : to have reasons for disliking someone or something : to disagree with or disapprove of someone or something — + with ▪ I have some issues with his behavior.
make an issue of : to argue about (something) or insist that (something) be treated as an important problem ▪ I knew they'd made a mistake, but I was too tired to make an issue of it. ▪ They kept making an issue of his smoking. [=they continued to criticize him because he smokes cigarettes] take issue with : to disagree with (someone or something) ▪ She took issue with the conclusions reached by the study. ▪ I take issue with their whole approach to the problem.
without issue law : without having children ▪ He died without issue.

[2]issue verb -sues; -sued; -su•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to give (something) to someone in an official way ▪ The police have issued [=handed out] numerous tickets for speeding in recent days. : to give or supply (something) to (someone) ▪ The jail issued him an orange uniform. = (Brit) The jail issued him with an orange uniform. ▪ Each employee will be issued an identification card. b : to make (something) available to be sold or used ▪ The Post Office will issue a new first-class stamp. ▪ The company plans to raise money by issuing more stock. ▪ The bank will be issuing a new credit card. ▪ the bank's newly issued credit card
2 [+ obj] : to announce (something) in a public and official way ▪ The king issued a decree forbidding all protests. ▪ A severe storm warning has been issued. ▪ The police have issued a warrant for her arrest. ▪ issue a press release
3 [no obj] formal : to go, come, or flow out from some source ▪ A steady flow of lava issued from a crack in the rock.
– is•su•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ credit card issuers = issuers of credit cards

[1]-ist /ɪst/ noun suffix
1 a : a person who does a specified action or activity ▪ typist b : a person who makes or produces something specified ▪ novelist c : a person who plays a specified musical instrument ▪ pianist ▪ violinist d : a person who operates a specified machine or vehicle ▪ machinist ▪ bicyclist

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i

2 : a person who has a specified job or skill ▪ geologist ▪ hairstylist ▪ dental hygienist ▪ artist
3 : a person who has particular beliefs — used to form nouns from related nouns that end in -ism ▪ socialist ▪ purist ▪ populist ▪ Methodist ▪ Buddhist ▪ Darwinist
4 : a person who has a particular quality — used to form nouns from related nouns that end in -ism ▪ pessimist ▪ optimist ▪ idealist

[2]-ist adj suffix : of, relating to, or characterized by a specified quality — used to form adjectives from related nouns that end in -ism ▪ an elitist attitude

isth•mus /ˈɪsməs/ noun, pl -mus•es [count] : a narrow area of land that connects two larger land areas — often used in names ▪ the Isthmus of Panama

-is•tic /ɪstɪk/ also -is•ti•cal /ɪstɪkəl/ adj suffix : of, relating to, or characterized by a (specified) quality — used to form adjectives from related nouns that end in -ism ▪ altruistic ▪ realistic ▪ egotistical

[1]it /ˈɪt, ət/ pronoun
1 : that one just mentioned — used to refer to an object or substance ▪ I caught the ball and threw it back. ▪ He saw the car and immediately wanted to buy it. ▪ She tasted the powder and it was sweet. — used to refer to a living thing whose sex is unknown or is being ignored ▪ I don't know who it is. ▪ "Who is it?" "It's only me." ▪ There is a rosebush near the fence, and it is now blooming. ▪ A fly landed on the table and I swatted it. ▪ He heard the baby crying and brought it some milk. — used to refer to an idea, quality, emotion, etc. ▪ Beauty is everywhere, and it is a source of great joy.
2 — used as the subject of a verb that describes a condition or occurrence ▪ It is cold/hot/raining/snowing outside. ▪ It is (getting) late/dark. ▪ It will soon be summer. ▪ What time is it? ▪ It is ten (minutes) after four (o'clock). ▪ It hurts when I sneeze. ▪ It is almost summer. ▪ It is only a short walk to the beach from here.
3 — used in the place of a noun, phrase, or clause that usually comes later ▪ It hurts me to sneeze. [=to sneeze hurts me] ▪ It is not necessary (for you) to repeat the whole thing. ▪ It makes me happy just to think about her. ▪ It is wonderful being back here again! ▪ It is a long way to the next town. ▪ It is said/believed that he died of a broken heart. ▪ They made it clear that they needed our help. ▪ I take it that there was some problem. ▪ It is me you are looking for. = (formal) It is I you are looking for. ▪ It was here that I lost my way. ▪ It was in this city that the treaty was signed.
4 — used to refer to something that has been done or is being done or is going to be done ▪ We're going to have to do it again. ▪ Quit it! [=stop doing what you are doing] ▪ You've been arguing all afternoon. Now cut it out! [=stop arguing] ▪ Please do it right away. ▪ Okay, go to it! [=do the thing you are going to do]
5 — used as a direct object with little or no meaning ▪ We hoofed it all the way back to camp. [=we walked all the way back to camp] ▪ We decided to rough it on vacation this year. [=to have our vacation somewhere where we would not have our normal comforts] ▪ living it up [=doing exciting and enjoyable things; spending money freely while enjoying life] ▪ She offered to come with me, but I decided to go it alone. [=to go by myself; to go alone]
6 : the general situation : things in general ▪ How's it going? ▪ It hasn't been the same since you left.
7 : something previously discussed or known ▪ When the bell rings, it means that class is over.
ask for it see ASK do it see [1]DO
in for it see [1]FOR nothing to it see [1]NOTHING out of it see [1]OUT
