put down [phrasal verb] 1 put (someone or something) down also put down (someone or something) a : to place (someone or something that you have been holding or carrying) on a table, on the floor, etc. ▪ She carefully put the vase down on the table. ▪ The police ordered him to put down the gun. ▪ I don't need you to carry me. Put me down! b : to add (someone or something) to a list ▪ Don't forget to put down milk and bread on the shopping list. c informal : to say critical or insulting things about (someone or something) ▪ He frequently puts down her work. ▪ Her parents are always putting her down. ▪ He puts himself down a lot, but he's really quite an attractive man. — see also PUT-DOWN 2 put (something) down or put down (something) a : to write (something) : to record (something) in writing ▪ She says that the reporter put her quote down incorrectly. ▪ Every night, he puts his thoughts down in a journal. ▪ I need to put down my thoughts on paper before I forget them. ▪ What answer did you put down on the test? b : to give (an amount of money) as a first payment when you are buying something that costs a lot of money ▪ We put 10 percent down on the house. = We put down a 10 percent deposit on the house. ▪ Put no money down and pay no interest on the car until next year. c : to put (something) in place on the floor or ground ▪ Putting down [=installing] a new hardwood floor would greatly increase the value of your home. ▪ We put down a layer of mulch in the rose garden. d : to stop (a violent or dangerous activity) by using force ▪ Federal troops were brought in to help put down the riot. ▪ put down a rebellion/revolt/uprising e : to kill (an animal) in a way that causes it little pain usually because it is injured or sick ▪ They had to have their dog put down [=put to sleep] by the vet. f Brit : to end a telephone connection ▪ She said goodbye and put down the phone. [=hung up the phone] ▪ She put the phone down on him. [=she hung up the phone while he was still talking to her] g Brit : to formally suggest (something) as an idea to be discussed and voted on by a group of people : to propose or introduce (something) ▪ putting down an amendment in Parliament 3 put down or put (something) down or put down (something) chiefly Brit : to land or to cause (an airplane) to land ▪ Our plane put down [=landed] in New York around 2 p.m. ▪ The pilot was forced to put [=set] the plane down in a field. 4 put (someone) down or put down (someone) : to place (a baby or child) in a bed to sleep ▪ He put the baby down (in her crib) for a nap. 5 put (someone) down as (something) : to think of (someone) as (a specified kind of person or thing) ▪ Most people put him down as [=believe that he is] a fanatic. 6 put (someone) down for (something) : to write the name of (someone) on a list of people who will do or give (something) ▪ Can I put you down for a donation? [=can I write that you will give a donation?] ▪ Sure, put me down for $20. 7 put (something) down to (something) : to say or think that (something) happened because of (something) ▪ Let's put the mistake down to your inexperience and forget about it. ▪ The mistake was put down to [=attributed to] his inexperience.

put forth [phrasal verb] put forth (something) or put (something) forth somewhat formal 1 : to suggest (an idea, plan, etc.) for people to think about or consider ▪ The same argument has been put forth by many people in the opposition. ▪ I would like to put forth some alternatives. ▪ putting forth a plan/proposal/theory 2 : to use (something, such as energy) for a particular purpose ▪ She put forth all her energy to win the race. ▪ They put forth a good effort. 3 of a plant : to produce or send out (something) by growing ▪ The trees are starting to put forth new leaves.

put forward [phrasal verb] put (something) forward or put forward (something) somewhat formal : to suggest (something) for consideration : PROPOSE ▪ He put forward [=put forth] a theory about how the accident may have occurred.

put in [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) in or put in (something) a : to make (something) ready to be used in a certain place : INSTALL ▪ We put in new cabinets just last year. ▪ In order to fix the car they have to put in a new engine. b : to add (a comment) to a conversation or argument ▪ She put a quick comment in about her busy schedule. ▪ I'd like to put in a few words on his behalf. [=to say something that supports him] ▪ Would you mind putting in a good word for me? [=would you say something good about me?] ▪ You will each have a chance to put in your two cents. [=to express your opinion] c : to make an official statement, offer, or request ▪ She put in a plea of not guilty. [=she pleaded not guilty] ▪ I need to put in [=make, submit] a report about this. ▪ You have two weeks to put in [=submit] a claim with the insurance company. ▪ They are putting in [=making] a $300,000 offer for the house. ▪ I'd like to put in [=place] an order for a dozen roses. ▪ Contractors have begun putting in bids for the job. d : to perform (a particular action) ▪ They put in an amazing performance last night. ▪ The prime minister put in a call to [=called] the White House. ▪ I won't be able to stay at the party long, but I'll at least try to put in an appearance. [=to go to the party for a short time] e : to work or do something for (an amount of time) ▪ She put in 10 hours at the office yesterday. ▪ She put in a long day at work. ▪ He has put in his time (in jail), and now he is a free man. 2 put in (something) or put (something) in (something) : to use (a certain amount of energy or effort) when doing something ▪ If we put in a little more effort, we could finish by this afternoon. ▪ He puts a lot of energy in his performances. 3 put (something) in (something) a : to invest (money) into (something) ▪ She put her money in stocks and bonds. b — used to say what causes you to have faith, confidence, etc. ▪ He puts his faith in reason/science. ▪ putting her trust in God 4 put in for (something) : to ask for (something) in an official way : to formally request (something) ▪ He put in for a leave of absence. ▪ putting in for a promotion 5 of a boat or ship : to enter a harbor or port ▪ The ship put in at Sydney.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 156 SESS: 82 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:47:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-p

put into [phrasal verb] put (something) into (something) 1 : to use (a certain amount of energy or effort) when doing (something) ▪ He puts a lot of energy into his performances. ▪ She put her heart into (writing) the letter. [=she expressed her feelings in a very open and honest way] 2 : to invest (time, money, etc.) in (something) ▪ They put their entire life savings into the company. ▪ We put a lot of money into (fixing up) that house.

put it there or put her there informal + old-fashioned — used to invite someone to shake hands with you ▪ Put her there, pal!

put off [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) off or put off (something) : to decide that (something) will happen at a later time : POSTPONE ▪ The meeting has been put off until next week. = We put off (holding) the meeting until next week. ▪ I've been meaning to call him, but I keep putting it off. ▪ I've been putting off calling him. 2 put (someone) off or put off (someone) a : to cause (someone) to wait ▪ I need to come up with an excuse to put off the bill collector. ▪ She finally called him after putting him off all week. b : to cause (someone) to dislike someone or something ▪ Don't let the restaurant's dingy appearance put you off—their food is great. ▪ I was put off by his rudeness. ▪ (chiefly Brit) His rudeness put me off him [=made me dislike him] at once. — see also OFF-PUTTING c Brit : to allow (someone) to get off a bus or other vehicle ▪ Could you put [=let] me off (the bus) at the next stop, please?

put on [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) on or put on (something) a : to dress yourself in (clothing) ▪ She put on her new dress. ▪ Put on a hat and gloves. ▪ I'll put some clothes on and be right there. b : to apply (something) to your face or body ▪ putting on lipstick/mascara/lotion ▪ She puts on far too much makeup. ▪ We tried to put on a happy/brave face [=we tried to appear happy/brave] despite our concern. c : to add to or increase the amount of (something) ▪ The fire was getting low and we needed to put on more wood. ▪ She put on [=gained] 40 pounds during her pregnancy. ▪ He's put on some weight recently. d : to cause (a machine, a light, etc.) to begin to work ▪ Would you mind if I put [=turned] the TV on? ▪ Somebody put on the lights. e : to cause (something) to begin to be heard, seen, produced, etc. ▪ put on a record/CD/album ▪ putting on some music ▪ We put on the air-conditioning/heat in the car. f : to start cooking or making (something) ▪ Let me know when to put on the rice. ▪ He put on a pot of coffee for his guests. g : to produce (something that entertains people, such as a play, a party, etc.) ▪ They're putting on a concert. ▪ He always puts on a great show/performance. ▪ The town puts on a fireworks display every Independence Day. ▪ We are putting on a barbecue for everyone in the neighborhood. 2 put (something) on (someone or something) a : to say that (someone or something) is responsible for or guilty of (something) ▪ Responsibility for the accident was put on the other driver. ▪ He puts much of the blame for his problems on the government. b : to bet (an amount of money) on (someone or something) ▪ We put $2 on the favorite to win. ▪ putting money on horse races 3 put (someone or something) on (something) : to add (someone or something) to (a list or group of related things) ▪ She asked to have her name put on the list of candidates. ▪ They put her on the list. ▪ We put several new dishes on the menu. ▪ "Bartender, I'll have another beer." "Okay, I'll put it on your bill." 4 put (someone) on or put on (someone) chiefly US, informal : to say things that are not true to (someone) in a joking way : to trick or fool (someone) for amusement ▪ He said he knew the President, but I think he was just putting me on. [=(Brit) having me on] — see also [2]PUT-ON 5 — used to say that you would like to speak to someone on the phone ▪ Hi Dad. Could you put Mom on? [=could you give Mom the phone so that I can speak to her?] ▪ Put Dave on the phone, please. 6 put (someone) on (something) : to tell (someone) to use or do (something) ▪ Her doctor put her on medication. [=her doctor prescribed medication for her] ▪ He decided to put himself on a diet. [=to go on a diet] 7 put (someone) on to (something) : to give (someone) information about (something) : to tell (someone) about (something that he or she did not know about before) ▪ A friend of mine put me on to this book in high school.

put out [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) out or put out (something) a : to cause (something) to stop burning : EXTINGUISH ▪ She put the fire out by pouring water on it. ▪ She put out her cigarette in an ashtray. b : to stop (something) from working ▪ Who put out [=turned off] the lights? c : to take (something) outside and leave it there ▪ I put the dog out in the backyard before leaving the house. ▪ putting horses out to graze ▪ (US) Don't forget to put out the trash/garbage. = (Brit) Don't forget to put out the rubbish. d : to extend (something) outward ▪ I put out my hand and he shook it eagerly. ▪ She put out her arm for them to stop. e : to place (something) where people may use it ▪ He always put out a bowl of candy for the grandchildren. ▪ We should put out a few extra chairs in case more people arrive. f : to produce (something) ▪ This small radiator puts out a surprising amount of heat. ▪ They will have to put out considerable effort to meet the deadline. ▪ It was early spring, and the trees were just starting to put out their leaves. g : to make (something) available to be bought, used, etc. ▪ She plans to put out a new album in March. ▪ They need to be putting out cars that get better gas mileage. ▪ The information was given in a pamphlet put out by the university's health department. ▪ Researchers recently put out a report/study on the issue. ▪ The police have put out [=issued] a warrant for his arrest. ▪ Someone put the word out [=started telling people] that the police were looking for her. 2 put (someone) out or put out (someone) a : to annoy or bother (someone) ▪ All the attention didn't seem to put her out at all. ▪ I'm a little put out that no one called to tell me they would be late. b : to cause (someone) to do extra work : to cause trouble for (someone) ▪ I hope my visit didn't put you out. [=didn't inconvenience you] ▪ Please don't put yourself out just for us. c : to make (someone) unconscious ▪ The anesthesia put him out for a little over three hours. d sports : to cause (someone) to be out in baseball or cricket ▪ The runner was put out at second base. — see also PUTOUT 3 chiefly US, informal + impolite : to have sex with someone ▪ Did she put out last night? 4 of a boat or ship : to leave a harbor or port ▪ The ship put out to sea.

put over [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) over or put over (something) : to cause (something) to be clearly understood : to put (something) across ▪ He puts over very complicated concepts in a way that his students can understand. 2 put (yourself) over as (something) : to cause (yourself) to appear to be (a particular type of person) ▪ She puts herself over as [=makes other people believe that she is] a modern, independent woman. 3 put (something) over on (someone) : to lie about (something) to (someone) : to trick or deceive someone ▪ Don't try to put anything over on her. She'll see right through you.

put paid to see [2]PAID

put (someone) in mind of see [1]MIND

put through [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) through or put through (something) : to cause (something) to be accepted or done successfully ▪ They put through a number of reforms. ▪ tax cuts that were put through by former administrations ▪ I asked Human Resources to help me put through [=to help me get] a transfer to a different department. 2 put (someone) through (something) : to pay for (someone) to attend (school) ▪ She has a full-time job and is putting herself through college. 3 put (someone or something) through (something) : to cause (someone or something) to experience (something) ▪ His doctor put him through a series of tests. ▪ She put her parents through a lot when she was a teenager. ▪ You've been put through quite an ordeal. ▪ I've been put through hell! ▪ We put that truck

P

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 157 SESS: 82 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:47:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−p

through a lot when we owned it. ▪ The new software still needs to be put through its paces [=it still needs to be tested] before it can be made available to the public. 4 put (someone or something) through or put through (someone or something) a : to cause a phone call from (someone) to be sent to another person's phone ▪ Please hold while I put you through (to the manager). b : to cause (a phone call) to be sent to another person's phone ▪ Please hold while I put your call through (to the manager).

put to death see DEATH

put together [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) together or put together (something) a : to create (something) by joining or gathering parts together ▪ You'll need a screwdriver to put the toy together. ▪ They put their first band together when they were in high school. ▪ Help me put together a list of what we need at the store. ▪ She put a proposal together to give to the committee for consideration. ▪ Her outfit was very well put together. [=the parts looked good together] b — used to say that someone or something is greater than the total of all the other people or things mentioned ▪ You're smarter than all of those other guys put together. 2 put (something) together with (something) : to add or combine (something) with (something) ▪ I never would have thought of putting this wine together with fish. ▪ The lack of rain put together with [=along with, combined with] the heat ruined many of the region's crops.

put up [phrasal verb] 1 put (something) up or put up (something) a : to place (something) in a higher position ▪ They put up the flag in the morning and take it down at night. ▪ Sit down. Put your feet up and relax. ▪ If you have a question, please put up [=raise] your hand. ▪ Stop! Put your hands up (over your head)! ▪ When she goes to work, she usually puts her hair up (in a ponytail). b : to cause (something) to be on a wall, to hang from a ceiling, etc. ▪ She went around town putting up posters for the concert. ▪ I just put up new curtains. c : to set or place (something) so that it stands up ▪ putting up a tent ▪ They put up a display of new products. ▪ They put up a "for sale" sign in front of their house. d : to build (something) ▪ They're putting up a new office building on Main Street. ▪ putting up a fence e : to make (something) available for people to buy or have ▪ The lamps were put up at auction. — often + for ▪ They put all of their possessions up for sale. ▪ They put the puppies up for adoption. f : to provide (money, property, etc.) in order to pay for something ▪ They decided not to put up the money for her bail. ▪ They put up the company's assets as collateral on the loan. g : to offer (something) as a prize ▪ The police have put up a $1,000 reward for information leading to his capture. h chiefly Brit : to increase (something) : RAISE ▪ They are likely to put up interest rates again this year. i US : to return (something) to the place where it belongs ▪ It's time to put up [=put away] your toys and get ready for bed. ▪ He washed, dried, and put up the dishes after dinner. j chiefly US : to preserve (fruits, vegetables, etc.) to be used later : CAN ▪ Their grandmother spent the afternoon putting up peaches. 2 put up (something) a : to do (something) as a way of resisting or struggling against someone or something ▪ We're not leaving without putting up a fight. [=without fighting] ▪ As expected, the kids put up a fuss when we said it was time for bed. ▪ They are likely to put up stiff resistance to any new proposals. b : to offer (something) as an argument, a suggestion, etc. ▪ She put up a good/solid argument in his defense. ▪ putting up a proposal c : to score (points) ▪ They put up 20 points in the first half. ▪ She needs to put up big numbers [=to score a lot of points] in today's game. 3 a put (someone) up : to give food and shelter to (someone) : to allow or pay for (someone) to stay in someone's home, a hotel, etc., for the night ▪ Could you put me up for the night? ▪ His employers put him up at a hotel. ▪ We put our guests up in the spare bedroom. b chiefly Brit : to stay in someone's home, a hotel, etc., for the night ▪ He put up with a friend while he was in town. ▪ putting up at a hotel 4 put (someone) up or put up (someone) : to choose or suggest (someone) to be a candidate or competitor ▪ The party put her up (as its candidate) for governor. ▪ They put up their best man to compete against the champion. 5 put (someone) up to (something) : to convince (someone) to do (something stupid or foolish) ▪ His friends put him up to (playing) the prank. ▪ Who put you up to this? 6 put up with (something or someone) : to allow (someone or something unpleasant or annoying) to exist or happen : TOLERATE ▪ At this school, we will not put up with bad behavior. ▪ I can't put up with much more of this. 7 put up or shut up informal — used to tell someone in a somewhat rude way to start doing something or to stop talking about it ▪ You've complained long enough. It's time to put up or shut up.

[2]put noun, pl puts [count] sports : the act of throwing a shot put stay put : to stay where you are : to not move or go anywhere ▪ Stay put until I get back.

[3]put adj

– see also HARD PUT pu•ta•tive /ˈpju:tətɪv/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : generally believed to be something ▪ a putative expert ▪ the child's putative father [=the man who is believed to be the child's father]

– pu•ta•tive•ly adv

put–down /ˈpʊtˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] : a statement that criticizes or insults someone ▪ humiliating put-downs — see also put down at [1]PUT

[1]put–on /ˈpʊtˈɑ:n/ adj, always used before a noun : not real or genuine : FAKE ▪ a put-on British accent — see also put on at [1]PUT

[2]put–on /ˈpʊtˌɑ:n/ noun, pl -ons [count] chiefly US : the act of saying things that are not true in a joking way ▪ He said he knew the President, but I'm sure that was just a put-on. [=I'm sure he was just putting me on] — see also put on at [1]PUT put•out /ˈpʊtˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] baseball : an action that causes a batter or runner on the opposite team to be out ▪ The shortstop fielded the grounder and threw to first base for the putout. — see also put out at [1]PUT pu•tre•fac•tion /ˌpju:trəˈfækʃən/ noun [noncount] : the process or result of decaying ▪ the smell/stench of putrefaction

pu•tre•fy /ˈpju:trəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [no obj] formal : to be slowly destroyed by natural processes : to rot and become putrid ▪ putrefying meat/flesh synonyms see [1]DECAY

pu•trid /ˈpju:trəd/ adj

1 : decayed with usually a very bad or disgusting smell ▪ putrid [=rotten] meat ▪ a putrid odor/smell/stench [=a bad smell that something has when it is decaying]

2 informal : very ugly, bad, or unpleasant ▪ a putrid shade of green ▪ a putrid performance

putt /ˈpʌt/ verb putts; putt•ed; putt•ing [no obj] : to hit a golf ball with a special club (called a putter) so that it rolls along the ground toward the hole

– putt noun, pl putts [count] ▪ Her putt was a few feet short of the hole. ▪ She made/sank/holed the putt. [=she putted the ball and it went in the hole] ▪ She missed the putt. [=she putted the ball and it did not go in the hole] – putting noun [noncount] ▪ Her putting has improved considerably.

[1]putt•er /ˈpʌtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a golf club that is used to putt the ball

2 : a person who putts golf balls ▪ a golfer who's a good/bad putter [=a golfer who putts well/badly]

[2]put•ter /ˈpʌtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] Brit : to make small popping sounds while moving slowly ▪ the motorboat puttered across the lake putter around [phrasal verb] US : to spend time in a relaxed way doing small jobs and other things that are not very important ▪ I didn't do much last weekend. I just puttered around. [=(Brit) pottered around/about] ▪ He spent his vacation puttering around the house/garden.

– put•ter•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]put•ting present participle of [1]PUT

[2]putt•ing present participle of PUTT

putt•ing green /ˈpʌtɪŋ-/ noun, pl ~ greens [count] golf : an area covered with very short grass around the hole into which the ball must be played : GREEN; also : a similar area that has many holes and that is used for practice put•ty /ˈpʌti/ noun [noncount] : a soft, sticky substance that becomes hard when it dries and that is used for holding glass in window frames or for filling small holes in wood putty in your hands ✧ If someone is putty in your hands, you are able to control that person very easily. ▪ He does whatever she wants. He's putty in her hands.

– putty verb put•ties; put•tied; put•ty•ing [+ obj] ▪ She puttied the window to stop drafts.

put–up job noun, pl ~ jobs [count] informal + disapproving : something that is secretly arranged or decided at an earlier time in order to trick or deceive someone ▪ That talent contest was a put-up job: you never had a chance to win!

P

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 158 SESS: 84 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:47:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−p

put–up•on /ˈpʊtəˌpɑːn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling that someone is taking advantage of you or treating you unfairly ▪ I was beginning to feel rather put-upon by the end of their visit. ▪ a put-upon secretary putz /ˈpʌts/ noun, pl putz•es [count] US, informal : a stupid or foolish person who is not well liked ▪ I can't believe what a putz that guy is.

[1]puz•zle /ˈpʌzəl/ noun, pl puz•zles [count]
1 a : a question or problem that requires thought, skill, or cleverness to be answered or solved ▪ a book of puns, riddles, and puzzles — see also CROSSWORD PUZZLE b : JIGSAW PUZZLE — often used figuratively ▪ The restaurant is trying to attract more customers, and the new menu is an important piece of the puzzle. [=an important part of what is being done] ▪ Researchers are close to finding a solution, but they haven't found the final pieces of the puzzle.
2 : something or someone that is difficult to understand — usually singular ▪ The cause of the explosion was a puzzle. [=no one knew what caused the explosion] ▪ His strange behavior is a puzzle to his friends. [=his friends don't understand the reason for his strange behavior]

[2]puz•zle verb puz•zles; puz•zled; puz•zling [+ obj] : to confuse (someone) : to be difficult for (someone) to understand ▪ The question puzzled me. [=I did not know the answer to the question] ▪ The cause of the accident has puzzled investigators. ▪ I was puzzled by his behavior. [=I did not understand the reason for his behavior] puzzle out [phrasal verb] puzzle (something) out or puzzle out (something) : to understand or find (something, such as the answer to a difficult problem) by careful thinking ▪ She puzzled out the meaning of the strange phrase.
puzzle over [phrasal verb] puzzle over (something) : to think or worry for a long time about (something) ▪ He's been puzzling over whether to buy a new car. ▪ We puzzled over the best arrangement for the furniture.

puzzled adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing confusion because something is difficult to understand ▪ Investigators are puzzled about the cause of the accident. ▪ He had a very puzzled [=confused] look on his face.

puz•zle•ment /ˈpʌzəlmənt/ noun, formal
1 [noncount] : a feeling of being confused because something is difficult to understand ▪ The cause of the accident has been a source of puzzlement. ▪ The explanation only increased their puzzlement.
2 [singular] chiefly US : something that is difficult to understand ▪ The cause of the accident is a puzzlement. [=puzzle]

puz•zler /ˈpʌzələ/ noun, pl puz•zlers [count] informal : something that is confusing or difficult to understand — usually singular ▪ The question is a real puzzler.

puz•zling /ˈpʌzəlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing or likely to cause confusion : difficult to solve or understand ▪ puzzling questions ▪ a puzzling metaphor/statement/event ▪ The directions are somewhat puzzling.

PVC /ˌpiːˌviːˈsiː/ noun [noncount] : a type of plastic used for pipes that carry water and for many other products ✧ PVC is an abbreviation of "polyvinyl chloride."

Pvt. abbr, US private ▪ Pvt. David Logan

PX abbr, US post exchange

[1]pyg•my also pig•my /ˈpɪgmi/ noun, pl -mies [count]
1 Pygmy : a member of a group of very small people who live in Africa
2 disapproving : a person who is regarded as very weak, stupid, etc. ▪ an intellectual pygmy

[2]pygmy also pigmy adj, always used before a noun, biology — used to describe a type of plant or animal that is smaller than the usual size ▪ a pygmy elephant pyjamas Brit spelling of PAJAMAS

py•lon /ˈpaɪˌlɑːn/ noun, pl -lons [count]
1 a : a tall tower or similar structure ▪ The bridge is supported by concrete pylons. b : a tall, metal structure that is part of a series of structures supporting a long stretch of electrical wire ▪ a row of electricity pylons
2 US : TRAFFIC CONE
3 American football : one of the upright markers that are positioned at the corners of the end zone

pyr•a•mid /ˈpirəˌmɪd/ noun, pl -mids [count]
1 a : a very large structure built especially in ancient Egypt that has a square base and four triangular sides which form a point at the top ▪ the ancient pyramids of Egypt b : a shape, object, or pile that is wide near the bottom and narrows gradually as it reaches the top ▪ a pyramid of apples/oranges — see picture at GEOMETRY
2 : something that resembles a pyramid in the way its parts are arranged or organized ▪ the social pyramid ▪ (US) the food pyramid [=a drawing or chart that is shaped like a pyramid and that shows the type of food you should eat for a healthy diet]
– py•ra•mi•dal /pəˈræmədl/ adj ▪ a pyramidal structure pyramid scheme noun, pl ~ schemes [count] : a dishonest and usually illegal business in which many people are persuaded to invest their money and the money of later investors is used to pay the people who invested first — called also (US) Ponzi scheme

pyre /ˈpajə/ noun, pl pyres [count] : a pile of wood for burning a dead body ▪ a funeral pyre

Py•rex /ˈpaɪˌrɛks/ trademark — used for a type of special glass that can get very hot without breaking py•rite /ˈpaɪˌraɪt/ noun [noncount] : a common mineral that is shiny and pale yellow in color

py•ro•ma•nia /ˌpaɪrouˈmeɪnijə/ noun [noncount] : a mental illness that makes people have a strong desire to set fires – py•ro•ma•ni•ac /ˌpaɪrouˈmeɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] ▪ The fire was set by a pyromaniac.

py•ro•tech•nics /ˌpaɪrəˈtɛknɪks/ noun [plural]
1 : a bright display of fireworks
2 : a very impressive show or display that requires great skill ▪ The visual pyrotechnics of the film are stunning. ▪ verbal/musical pyrotechnics

Pyr•rhic victory /ˈpirɪk-/ noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a victory that is not worth winning because so much is lost to achieve it ▪ The company won the lawsuit, but it was a Pyrrhic victory because of all the bad publicity they received during the trial.

py•thon /ˈpaɪˌθɑːn/ noun, pl -thons [count] : a very large snake that kills the animals it eats by wrapping itself around them

Q

Q

q or Q /ˈkjuː/ noun, pl q's or qs or Q's or Qs : the 17th letter of the English alphabet [count] The word "quart" begins with a q. [noncount] The word "quart" begins with q.
mind your p's and q's see [1]P

QA abbr quality assurance

Q and A or Q & A noun, pl Q and A's or Q & A's [count] : a period of time or an occasion when someone answers questions that are asked by a reporter, by the people in an audience, etc. ▪ There will be a brief Q and A following the speech. — often used before another noun ▪ a Q and A session

QB abbr quarterback

QC abbr 1 quality control 2 Brit Queen's Counsel

QED /ˌkjuːˌiːˈdiː/ abbr — used to say that something (such as a particular fact or a logical statement) proves what you were trying to prove ✧ QED is an abbreviation of the Latin phrase "quod erat demonstrandum," /ˌkwɑːdˈeəˌɑːtˌdɛmənˈstrændəm/ which means "which was to be demonstrated."

qt. abbr quart

q.t. /ˌkjuːˈtiː/
on the q.t. or on the Q.T. informal : in a secret or quiet way ▪ All the arrangements were made on the q.t. ▪ She told me about it on the q.t. ▪ This information is private, so keep it on the q.t. [=don't tell anyone about it]

Q–tips /ˈkjuːˌtɪps/ trademark — used for short sticks that have pieces of soft cotton at both ends

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

qtr. abbr quarter

qty. abbr quantity

qua /ˈkwɑ:/ prep, formal : in the character or role of (someone or something) : AS — used to indicate that someone or something is being referred to or thought about in a particular way ▪ The artist qua artist is less interesting to me than the artist as a human being. — see also SINE QUA NON

[1]quack /ˈkwæk/ verb quacks; quacked; quack•ing [no obj] of a duck : to make a loud sound ▪ We could hear the ducks quacking.

[2]quack noun, pl quacks [count] : the loud sound that is made by a duck — compare [3]QUACK

[3]quack noun, pl quacks [count] informal
1 disapproving : an unskillful doctor or a person who falsely claims to have medical skills ▪ That quack almost killed me by prescribing the wrong medication. ▪ Her doctor turned out to be a real quack.
2 Brit — used in usually a negative or humorous way to refer to a doctor ▪ a visit to the quack
– compare [2]QUACK
– quack adj, always used before a noun ▪ quack medicines ▪ a quack doctor quack•ery /ˈkwækəri/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the methods and treatments used by unskillful doctors or by people who pretend to be doctors ▪ His cure was nothing but quackery.

quad /ˈkwɑ:d/ noun, pl quads [count] informal
1 : QUADRANGLE 2 ▪ Meet me at the quad after class.
2 : QUADRICEPS ▪ She suffered a quad injury. — usually plural ▪ I overworked my quads at the gym.
3 : QUADRUPLET ▪ She gave birth to quads.

quad•ran•gle /ˈkwɑ:ˌdræŋgəl/ noun, pl -ran•gles [count]
1 geometry : a flat shape that has four sides and four angles : QUADRILATERAL
2 : an open square or rectangular area at a college, school, etc., that is surrounded by buildings on all four sides quad•rant /ˈkwɑ:drənt/ noun, pl -rants [count] : one part of something that is evenly divided into four parts ▪ Draw two intersecting lines that divide the page into four quadrants. ▪ The town is located in the northwest quadrant of the state.; especially, geometry : one part of a circle that is evenly divided into four parts qua•drat•ic equation /kwɑˈdrætɪk-/ noun, pl ~ -tions [count] mathematics : an equation in which the highest unknown variable is multiplied by itself only once ▪ $x^2 + 4x + 4 = 0$ is a quadratic equation.

quad•ri•ceps /ˈkwɑ:drəˌsɛps/ noun, pl quadriceps [count] : a large muscle at the front of your upper leg ▪ He felt a pain in his right quadriceps. ▪ My quadriceps are sore.

quad•ri•lat•er•al /ˌkwɑ:drəˈlætərəl/ noun, pl -als [count] geometry : a flat shape that has four sides and four angles – quadrilateral adj ▪ The sheet of metal was cut into even quadrilateral shapes.

qua•drille /kwɑˈdrɪl/ noun, pl -drilles [count] : a dance for four couples who each form one side of a square ✧ This dance was popular in the 18th and 19th centuries.

qua•dril•lion /kwɑˈdrɪljən/ noun, pl quadrillion or qua•dril•lions [count] : the number 1,000,000,000,000,000 : one thousand trillion quad•ri•ple•gia /ˌkwɑ:drəˈpli:ʤijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition in which you are permanently unable to move or feel your arms and legs and most of your body because of injury or illness quad•ri•ple•gic /ˌkwɑ:drəˈpli:ʤɪk/ noun, pl -gics [count] medical : a person who is permanently unable to move or feel both arms and both legs because of injury or illness — compare PARAPLEGIC

– quadriplegic adj, always used before a noun ▪ quadriplegic patients quad•ru•ped /ˈkwɑ:drəˌpɛd/ noun, pl -peds [count] technical : an animal that has four feet ▪ Horses and cows are quadrupeds. — compare BIPED

[1]qua•dru•ple /kwɑˈdru:pəl/ verb -dru•ples; -dru•pled; -dru•pling
1 [no obj] : to become four times bigger in value or number ▪ The value of the stock has quadrupled in the past year. ▪ The town's population has quadrupled in the past 50 years.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become four times bigger ▪ He quadrupled his winnings. ▪ The company has quadrupled the number of its employees.

[2]quadruple adj
1 : four times bigger in size or amount ▪ She ordered a quadruple espresso.
2 always used before a noun : having four parts or including four people or things ▪ a quadruple murder [=a murder of four people]

qua•dru•plet /kwɑˈdru:plət/ noun, pl -plets [count] : one of four babies that are born at the same time to the same mother — usually plural ▪ She had (a set of) quadruplets. [=she gave birth to four babies] — compare QUINTUPLET, SEXTUPLET, TRIPLET, TWIN quaff /ˈkwɑ:f/ verb quaffs; quaffed; quaff•ing [+ obj] old-fashioned + literary : to drink a large amount of (something) quickly ▪ We stopped at a bar and quaffed a few beers.

quag•mire /ˈkwægˌmajə/ noun, pl -mires [count]
1 : an area of soft, wet ground — usually singular ▪ After a lot of rain, the dirt road becomes a quagmire.
2 : a situation that is hard to deal with or get out of : a situation that is full of problems — usually singular ▪ The trial became a legal quagmire. ▪ She's caught in a quagmire of debt.

qua•hog /ˈkoʊˌhɑ:g/ noun, pl -hogs [count] US : a type of large clam that is eaten as food

[1]quail /ˈkweɪl/ noun, pl quail or quails
1 [count] : a kind of small wild bird that is often hunted
2 [noncount] : the meat of quail eaten as food ▪ We had quail for dinner.

quail

[2]quail verb quails; quailed; quail•ing [no obj] literary : to feel afraid and often to show your fear in a way that can be clearly seen ▪ Other politicians quailed before him. ▪ He quailed at the thought of seeing her again.

quaint /ˈkweɪnt/ adj quaint•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] : having an old-fashioned or unusual quality or appearance that is usually attractive or appealing ▪ The fishing village was very quaint. ▪ The writer talks about the quaint customs of the natives. ▪ They have some quaint [=outdated] notions about how women should behave.
– quaint•ly adv ▪ The town is quaintly old-fashioned.

[1]quake /ˈkweɪk/ verb quakes; quaked; quak•ing [no obj]
1 : to shake because of fear, anger, etc. : TREMBLE ▪ He quaked with fear. ▪ She was quaking with rage.
2 : to shake violently ▪ The explosion made the whole house quake.

[2]quake noun, pl quakes [count] informal : EARTHQUAKE

Quak•er /ˈkweɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a member of a Christian religious group whose members dress simply, are against violence, and have meetings without any special ceremony or priests — called also Friend
– Quaker adj ▪ a Quaker school/family

qual•i• •ca•tion /ˌkwɑ:ləfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] a : a special skill or type of experience or knowledge that makes someone suitable to do a particular job or activity — usually plural ▪ He has the best qualifications for the job. ▪ She has the proper qualifications to teach. ▪ academic/educational/technical qualifications b : something that is necessary in order for you to do, have, or be a part of something — usually plural ▪ What are the qualifications for owning a gun? ▪ He met all the health qualifications for joining the army.
2 formal : something that is added to a statement to limit or change its effect or meaning [noncount] I agree with the statement without qualification. [=I agree completely] [count] They will agree to the deal only with the qualification [=stipulation] that they get 40 percent of the profits.
3 [count] Brit : an official record or document (such as a degree, certificate, or diploma) which shows that you have completed a course of study or training and are qualified to do something ▪ She is finishing up her qualification in marketing. ▪ He is studying for his teaching qualification. ▪ Students working towards their qualifications. ▪ Her paper qualifications [=her qualifications on paper; her qualifications as shown by documents] make her a good candidate, but do you think she has the right personality for the job?
4 [noncount] : the act of qualifying for something or the fact of having qualified for something ▪ Your credit card will be sent to you by mail upon qualification. [=when you have qualified to receive it] ▪ The team earned qualification for the tournament. [=the team qualified to play in the tournament]

qual•i• ed /ˈkwɑ:ləˌfaɪd/ adj

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

1 [more ~; most ~] : having the necessary skill, experience, or knowledge to do a particular job or activity : having the qualifications to do something ▪ She is highly qualified for the job. ▪ He is qualified [=eligible] to run for president. ▪ She is qualified [=licensed] to practice law in this state. ▪ fully qualified teachers/nurses ▪ I'm not qualified to give you advice about what you should do.

2 formal : not complete : limited in some way : PARTIAL ▪ She gave a qualified yes to the question. ▪ The plan was given qualified approval.

qual•i•fi•er /ˈkwɑːləˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person or team that has defeated others to enter a competition ▪ She's one of the qualifiers for the tournament.

2 : a game or contest that a person or team must win in order to enter a particular competition ▪ She'll be playing in the tournament this year after winning the qualifier.

3 grammar : a word (such as an adjective or adverb) or phrase that describes another word or group of words : MODIFIER

qual•i•fy /ˈkwɑːləˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to give (someone) the necessary skill or knowledge to do a particular job or activity ▪ His experience qualifies him for the job. ▪ The training will qualify you to sell insurance. b [no obj] : to have the necessary skill or knowledge to do a particular job or activity : to have the qualifications to do something ▪ They both qualify for the job.

2 [no obj] : to pass an exam or complete a course of study that is required in order to do something ▪ Lawyers may only work in the state in which they qualified. [=passed the exam] — often + as ▪ He has just qualified as a doctor/pilot.

3 a [no obj] : to have the right to do, have, or be a part of something ▪ Did she qualify to receive financial aid? ▪ Financial assistance is available for those who qualify. — often + for ▪ Town residents qualify for a discount on the tickets. ▪ To qualify for the contest, you must be at least 18 years old. b [+ obj] : to give (someone) the right to do, have, or be a part of something ▪ The win qualifies her to compete in the final race. ▪ The certification qualifies you to teach only in this state. — often + for ▪ The insurance plan qualifies you for an eye exam every two years. ▪ Further education will qualify you for a pay raise.

4 [no obj] : to have the skills that are required or do the things that are required to become a member of a team or to be allowed in a competition ▪ Only those racers who qualify will continue to the next round. ▪ She tried to get into the tournament, but she failed to qualify. — often + for ▪ She qualified for the Olympic team.

5 a [no obj] : to have all the necessary qualities to be thought of or described in a particular way — + as ▪ Does this shirt qualify as business attire? ▪ Living in a camper for a weekend does not qualify as outdoor camping. ▪ A 10–3 victory qualifies as a blowout. ▪ The book is too short to qualify as a novel. b [+ obj] : to give (someone or something) the right to be thought of or described in a particular way — + as ▪ His brief time in the army doesn't qualify him as a military expert.

6 [+ obj] formal : to make (a statement) more specific or limited in meaning or effect ▪ I would like to qualify [=modify] what I said earlier to avoid any misinterpretation.

7 [+ obj] grammar : to limit or describe the meaning of (a word or group of words) : MODIFY ▪ Adjectives qualify nouns.

qual•i•ta•tive /ˈkwɑːləˌteɪtɪv/ adj : of or relating to how good something is : of or relating to the quality of something ▪ a qualitative analysis of the product [=an analysis concerned with the quality of the product] ▪ The research showed a qualitative difference between the two teaching methods. [=showed that one teaching method is better than the other] — compare QUANTITATIVE

– qual•i•ta•tive•ly adv

[1]qual•i•ty /ˈkwɑːləti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : how good or bad something is ▪ Pollution affects air/water quality. ▪ The restaurant serves food of high quality. [=the food at the restaurant is very good] ▪ The dress material is of poor quality. [=the dress material is not good] — often + of ▪ The quality of the service we received was very good. ▪ The quality of their products has gone down. ▪ His attention to detail shows in the quality of his work. ▪ She has raised/improved her quality of life [=she has become more successful] with her new career. ▪ The drug is used to improve the quality of life for patients who have chronic illnesses. [=to make their lives more pleasant and enjoyable]

2 [count] : a characteristic or feature that someone or something has : something that can be noticed as a part of a person or thing ▪ Honesty is a desirable quality. ▪ Stubbornness is one of his bad qualities. ▪ She has strong leadership qualities. ▪ The house has many fine qualities. ▪ His music has a primitive quality. — often + of ▪ Hardness is a quality of steel. ▪ He considered the good and bad qualities of the car before buying it.

3 [noncount] : a high level of value or excellence ▪ wine of quality [=very good wine] ▪ They offer quality at a reasonable price.

[2]quality adj, always used before a noun

1 : very good or excellent ▪ The restaurant offers quality service. ▪ The store sells quality furniture at reasonable prices. ▪ It can be difficult to find quality childcare. ▪ He had a quality education.

2 Brit : intended for people who are educated and who care about serious matters ▪ a quality newspaper/paper ▪ the quality press quality assurance noun [noncount] : the activity of checking goods or services to make sure that they are good — abbr. QA quality control noun [noncount] : the activity of checking goods as they are produced to make sure that the final products are good — abbr. QC quality time noun [noncount] : time that you spend giving all of your attention to someone who is close to you (such as your child) ▪ Spending some quality time after work with your children is very important. ▪ Dad and I spent some quality time together.

qualm /ˈkwɑːm/ noun, pl qualms [count] : a feeling of doubt or uncertainty about whether you are doing the right thing ▪ He accepted their offer without a qualm. — usually plural; often + about ▪ She had/felt some qualms about moving to the big city. ▪ He had no qualms about accepting their offer.

quan•da•ry /ˈkwɑːndri/ noun, pl -ries [count] formal : a situation in which you are confused about what to do ▪ The unexpected results of the test have created a quandary for researchers. ▪ He was in a quandary [=unsure, confused] about which candidate to choose.

quan•go /ˈkwæŋˌgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] Brit : an organization that deals with public matters and is supported by the government but that works independently and has its own legal powers ✧ Quango was formed as an abbreviation of "quasi-nongovernmental organization."

quanta plural of [1]QUANTUM

quan•ti•fi•er /ˈkwɑːntəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] grammar : a word or number (such as "many," "few," "some," "two," or "2") that is used with a noun to show the amount of something ▪ "Five" in "the five men" is a quantifier.

quan•ti•fy /ˈkwɑːntəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal : to find or calculate the quantity or amount of (something) ▪ It is difficult to quantify intelligence. ▪ Doctors have quantified the risks of smoking cigarettes. ▪ It is impossible to quantify the number of Web sites on the Internet.

– quan•ti•fi•able /ˌkwɑːntəˈfajəbəl/ adj ▪ The health risks are not quantifiable. ▪ quantifiable benefits quan•ti•ta•tive /ˈkwɑːntəˌteɪtɪv/ adj : of or relating to how much there is of something : of or relating to the quantity or amount of something ▪ a quantitative analysis/measurement ▪ Scientists are gathering quantitative information about human intelligence. — compare QUALITATIVE

– quan•ti•ta•tive•ly adv

quan•ti•ty /ˈkwɑːntəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 : an amount or number of something [count] The wine is made in small/large quantities. — often + of ▪ I ate a large quantity of food. [=I ate a lot of food] ▪ Farmers grow large quantities of wheat and corn. ▪ Add a half a cup of oil, and the same quantity of vinegar. [noncount] The boss is worried about quantity as well as quality. ▪ Production saw an increase in quantity. [=there was an increase in the amount produced] — abbr. qty.

2 : a large amount or number of something [count] — + of ▪ Police found quantities of drugs and guns in the house. ▪ There is a quantity of information [=a lot of information] available on this topic. [noncount] Blood cells are produced in quantity. [=in large amounts] ▪ The family buys food in quantity.

known quantity : someone or something whose abilities or characteristics are well known ▪ When she was cast in the role of the princess, she was already a known quantity from her work in several films.

Q

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

unknown quantity : someone or something whose abilities or characteristics are not yet known ▪ If you've never been published before, you're an unknown quantity, so you're going to have difficulty selling your first novel.

quantity surveyor noun, pl ~ -ors [count] Brit : someone whose job is to estimate the amount and cost of materials needed for building something and how long it will take to build

[1]quan•tum /ˈkwɑːntəm/ noun, pl quan•ta /ˈkwɑːntə/ [count] physics : the smallest amount of many forms of energy (such as light)

[2]quantum adj, always used before a noun, physics : of, relating to, or using the principles of quantum theory ▪ quantum physics quantum leap noun, pl ~ leaps [count] : a sudden large change, development, or improvement ▪ Prices have taken a quantum leap upward. ▪ The new drug is a quantum leap in the fight against cancer. — called also quantum jump

quantum mechanics noun [noncount] physics : a branch of physics that deals with the structure and behavior of very small pieces of matter quantum theory noun [noncount] physics : a theory in physics that is based on the idea that energy (such as light) is made of small separate units of energy

[1]quar•an•tine /ˈkworənˌtiːn/ noun [noncount]
1 : the period of time during which a person or animal that has a disease or that might have a disease is kept away from others to prevent the disease from spreading ▪ a six-month quarantine
2 : the situation of being kept away from others to prevent a disease from spreading ▪ The infected people were put into quarantine. ▪ The cows will be kept/held in quarantine for another week. ▪ The dog was put/placed under quarantine.

[2]quarantine verb -tines; -tined; -tin•ing [+ obj] : to keep (a person or animal) away from others to prevent a disease from spreading : to put or keep (a person or animal) in quarantine ▪ The hospital quarantined the infected patients. ▪ The dog was immediately quarantined.

quark /ˈkwoək/ noun, pl quarks [count] physics : any one of several types of very small particles that make up matter

[1]quar•rel /ˈkwɔrəl/ noun, pl -rels [count]
1 : an angry argument or disagreement ▪ a lover's quarrel = a quarrel between lovers ▪ They had a quarrel about/over money. ▪ a quarrel between husband and wife ▪ She had a quarrel with her mother.
2 : a reason to disagree with or argue about something — + with ▪ I have a few quarrels with your plan. ▪ I have no quarrel with [=I do not object to] your plan. ▪ It would be foolish to pick a quarrel [=start a quarrel] with him.

[2]quarrel verb -rels; US -reled or Brit -relled; US -rel•ing or Brit -rel•ling [no obj] : to argue about or disagree with something ▪ The children quarrel all the time. ▪ She and her husband are always quarreling about/over money. ▪ I don't want to quarrel with you. ▪ I won't quarrel [=disagree] with your version of what happened.

quar•rel•some /ˈkwɔrəlsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : ready or likely to argue or disagree ▪ She is very quarrelsome. ▪ a quarrelsome person

[1]quar•ry /ˈkwori/ noun [singular] : an animal or person that is being hunted or chased ▪ The dogs chased their quarry. ▪ The detective followed his quarry into a nightclub. — compare [2]QUARRY

[2]quarry noun, pl quar•ries [count] : a place where large amounts of stone are dug out of the ground ▪ a limestone quarry — compare [1]QUARRY

[3]quarry verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing
1 : to dig or take (stone or other materials) from a quarry [+ obj] — often used as (be) quarried ▪ Limestone is quarried in this area. ▪ The stone used for these buildings was quarried from a nearby site. [no obj] an area where workers are quarrying for limestone
2 [+ obj] : to make a quarry in (a place) — usually used as (be) quarried ▪ This area has been quarried for limestone.
– quarrying /ˈkworijɪŋ/ noun [noncount] quart /ˈkwoət/ noun, pl quarts [count]

1 US : a unit of liquid measurement equal to two U.S. pints or 0.946 liters — abbr. qt.
2 Brit : a unit of liquid measurement equal to two British pints or 1.14 liters — abbr. qt.

[1]quar•ter /ˈkwoətə/ noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : one of four equal parts of something ▪ Cut the pie into quarters. ▪ A quarter [=fourth] of the class voted "no."
2 [count] : a unit of something (such as weight or length) that equals one fourth of some larger unit ▪ an inch and a quarter ▪ a quarter of a cup of sugar ▪ It happened three quarters of a century ago. [=75 years ago]
3 [count] : one of four divisions of an hour : a period of 15 minutes ▪ He was three quarters of an hour early. ▪ It is now (a) quarter to four. = (US) It is now (a) quarter of four. [=it is 15 minutes before four o'clock] ▪ The alarm went off at (a) quarter past six. = (US) The alarm went off at (a) quarter after six. [=15 minutes after six o'clock]
4 [count] : one of four divisions of a year : a period of three months ▪ The company's profits rose in the second quarter. ▪ (Brit) quarter day [=the first day of a financial quarter when payments are due]
5 [count] : one of four divisions of a school term usually lasting about 12 weeks ▪ She received her grades for the first quarter. — compare SEMESTER, TERM, TRIMESTER
6 [count] : one of the four equal parts of the playing time of a game (such as basketball or American football) ▪ There are two minutes left in the third quarter. ▪ The final quarter of the game was very exciting.
7 [count] : a coin of the United States and Canada that is worth 25 cents ▪ Do you have a quarter for the parking meter?; also : the sum of 25 cents ▪ The candy costs a quarter.
8 [count] : a person or group of people or an area in which people live ▪ Concern has been expressed in many quarters. [=many people have expressed concern] ▪ The move was met with dismay in this quarter. ▪ My brother and I have not spoken in years so I expect no help from that quarter. [=I expect no help from my brother] ▪ Complaints came from all quarters. [=from many people or places]
9 [count] : a part or area of a city ▪ She lives in the historic quarter. [=district]
10 quarters [plural] : the place where someone lives ▪ Our living quarters were very comfortable. ▪ soldiers'/servants' quarters
11 [count] : one of the two times during a month when a quarter of the moon's surface can be seen ▪ The moon was in its/the first quarter. ▪ a quarter moon at/in close quarters : close together usually in a very small space ▪ The sailors were living in close quarters. ▪ We could observe the behavior of all the animals at close quarters. [=from a short distance] no quarter literary : no pity or mercy — used to say that an enemy, opponent, etc., is treated in a very harsh way ▪ The soldiers showed/gave no quarter to the enemy. ▪ They received no quarter or sympathy.

[2]quarter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to divide or separate (something) into four parts ▪ The hunters quartered the deer. ▪ She quartered the potatoes.
2 : to provide (someone) with a place to stay for a usually short period of time : to provide living quarters for (someone) ▪ We were quartered in log cabins at the camp.

[3]quarter adj, always used before a noun : equal or about nearly equal in size, value, amount, etc., to one fourth of something ▪ a quarter century ago ▪ a quarter acre of land ▪ They live less than a quarter mile from us.

[1]quar•ter•back /ˈkwoətəˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] American football : a player who leads a team's attempts to score usually by passing the ball to other players — abbr. QB; see also MONDAY-MORNING QUARTERBACK

[2]quarterback verb -backs; -backed; -back•ing [+ obj] US
1 American football : to play the position of quarterback for (a team) ▪ He quarterbacked his high school team.
2 : to lead or organize (something) by making important decisions ▪ She quarterbacked the company's latest ad campaign.

quarterback sneak noun, pl ~ sneaks [count] American football : a play in which the quarterback runs forward immediately after receiving the ball instead of handing it or throwing it to another player ▪ He ran a quarterback sneak up the middle for a touchdown.

quar•ter•deck /ˈkwoətəˌdɛk/ noun, pl -decks [count] : the upper level of a ship's deck that is located toward the rear of the ship and that is used mainly by officers quar•ter• nal (US) or Brit quar•ter– nal /ˌkwoətəˈfaɪnl/ noun, pl -nals [count] : one of four matches, games, or contests to decide the four people or teams that will continue playing in a competition (such as a tennis tournament) ▪ He

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

lost in the quarterfinal. — often plural ▪ She won in the quarterfinals but lost in the semifinals. — often used before another noun ▪ a quarterfinal match quarter horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] : a small, strong horse that can run very fast for short distances quarter hour noun, pl ~ hours [count] : 15 minutes ▪ Trains depart every quarter hour. : a period of time that lasts for 15 minutes ▪ I waited a quarter hour in line.

[1]quar•ter•ly /ˈkwoətəli/ adj : happening, done, or produced four times a year ▪ The company holds quarterly meetings. ▪ a quarterly report – quarterly adv ▪ The payments are made quarterly. [=four times a year] ▪ The interest on the account is compounded quarterly.

[2]quarterly noun, pl -lies [count] : a magazine that is published four times a year ▪ a literary quarterly

quar•ter•mas•ter /ˈkwoətəˌmæstə, Brit ˈkwɔːtəˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 : an army officer who provides clothing and supplies for soldiers
2 : a navy officer who is in charge of the steering of a ship and the use of signals on a ship quarter note noun, pl ~ notes [count] US : a musical note equal in time to ¼ of a whole note — called also (Brit) crotchet quar•tet /kwoəˈtɛt/ noun, pl -tets [count]

1 : a group of four singers or musicians who perform together ▪ He is a member of a jazz quartet.
2 : a song or piece of music performed by four singers or musicians ▪ a string quartet by Beethoven
3 : a group or set of four people or things ▪ The author wrote a quartet of novels about the same character.

quartz /ˈkwoəts/ noun [noncount] : a mineral that is often found in the form of a hard crystal and that is used especially to make clocks and watches qua•sar /ˈkweɪˌzɑə/ noun, pl -sars [count] astronomy : a very bright object in space that is similar to a star and that is very far away from the Earth and gives off powerful radio waves

quash /ˈkwɑːʃ/ verb quash•es; quashed; quash•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop (something) from continuing by doing or saying something ▪ The riot was quashed by police. ▪ The couple quashed rumors that they were engaged.
2 law : to decide that (a ruling, decision, etc.) is wrong and no longer valid ▪ The judge quashed [=overturned] the verdict of the lower court and ordered a new trial.

qua•si- /ˈkweɪˌzaɪ, ˈkwɑːzi/ combining form : in some way or sense but not in a true, direct, or complete way ▪ His appearance on TV earned him quasi-celebrity [=near-celebrity] status. ▪ a quasi-historical novel ▪ a quasi-official organization [=an organization that is like an official organization but that is not actually official] qua•train /ˈkwɑːˌtreɪn/ noun, pl -trains [count] : a poem or verse that has four lines

[1]qua•ver /ˈkweɪvə/ verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing [no obj] of your voice : to produce sound in an unsteady way especially because you are afraid or nervous : TREMBLE ▪ Her voice quavered during the speech. ▪ He spoke in quavering tones.
– qua•very /ˈkweɪvəri/ adj ▪ a quavery voice

[2]quaver noun, pl -vers [count]
1 : an unsteady sound in someone's voice that is caused by fear or other strong emotions ▪ There was a quaver in his voice.
2 Brit : EIGHTH NOTE

quay /ˈkiː/ noun, pl quays [count] : a structure built on the land next to a river, lake, or ocean that is used as a place for boats to stop for loading and unloading freight and passengers quay•side /ˈkiːˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : the area of land next to a quay ▪ a quayside café quea•sy /ˈkwiːzi/ adj quea•si•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a sick feeling in the stomach : suffering from nausea ▪ The boat ride made me a little queasy. ▪ She complained of a queasy stomach. ▪ a queasy sensation
2 : having an unpleasantly nervous or doubtful feeling ▪ He feels queasy about taking the test. ▪ She had the queasy feeling that she was being watched.
– quea•si•ness noun [noncount]

queen /ˈkwiːn/ noun, pl queens [count]
1 a : a woman who rules a country and who usually inherits her position and rules for life ▪ She was crowned queen of England. ▪ the reign of Queen Elizabeth b : the wife of a king ▪ the king and his queen
2 a : a girl or woman who is highly respected and very successful or popular ▪ She's a fashion queen. ▪ the queen of the blues b : a girl or woman who is awarded the highest honor for an event or contest ▪ She was voted queen of the prom. ▪ the homecoming queen c : something that is thought of as female and that is considered better than all others ▪ This ship is the queen of all the ocean liners.
3 : the most powerful piece in the game of chess that can move any number of free squares in any direction — see picture at CHESS
4 : a playing card that has a picture of a queen ▪ the queen of hearts/spades/clubs/diamonds — see picture at PLAYING CARD
5 : a female insect (such as a bee or ant) that lays eggs ▪ a queen bee
6 informal + offensive : a homosexual man who usually acts like a woman — see also DRAG QUEEN queen•ly /ˈkwiːnli/ adj : resembling a queen or suitable for a queen ▪ She maintained a queenly posture. ▪ queenly dignity

Queen Mother noun
the Queen Mother : the widow of a king who is the mother of the current king or queen

Queen's Counsel noun, pl ~ -sels [count] : a barrister who is chosen to represent the British royal family in a court of law — used when Britain is ruled by a queen; abbr. QC

Queen's evidence noun
turn Queen's evidence Brit, law ✧ If you are charged with a crime and you turn Queen's evidence (or turn King's evidence), you agree to give information (such as the names of other criminals) to the court in order to reduce your own punishment. ▪ One of the gang members turned Queen's evidence [=(US) turned state's evidence] and testified against the other members.

queen–size /ˈkwiːnˌsaɪz/ or queen–sized /ˈkwiːnˌsaɪzd/ adj, US, of a bed : having a size of about 60 inches by 80 inches (about 1.5 by 1.9 meters) — compare FULL-SIZE, KING-SIZE, TWIN-SIZE

[1]queer /ˈkwiə/ adj queer•er; -est
1 old-fashioned : odd or unusual ▪ The sky was a queer shade of red. ▪ a queer odor ▪ I had a queer feeling that something bad was about to happen. ▪ He's a bit queer in the head. [=he's mentally strange or unwell; he's slightly crazy] — see also queer fish at [1]FISH
2 informal + usually offensive : HOMOSEXUAL ✧ Queer in this sense is offensive in most of its uses, but it is also now sometimes used in a neutral or positive way especially by some homosexual and bisexual people. ▪ queer culture ▪ She is interested in taking a class in queer studies.
– queer•ly adv ▪ a queerly shaped cloud ▪ He looked at her queerly. – queer•ness noun [noncount]

[2]queer noun, pl queers [count] informal + usually offensive : a homosexual person

[3]queer verb queers; queered; queer•ing [+ obj] informal : to spoil or ruin (something) ▪ The sudden storm queered our plans. ▪ (US) Something queered the deal. ▪ (Brit) The unexpected delay queered his pitch. [=ruined his plans]

quell /ˈkwɛl/ verb quells; quelled; quell•ing [+ obj]
1 : to end or stop (something) usually by using force ▪ Police quelled [=quashed] the riot.
2 : to calm or reduce (something, such as fear or worry) ▪ The president's remarks quelled [=eased] employees' fears.

quench /ˈkwɛnʧ/ verb quench•es; quenched; quench•ing [+ obj] formal : to stop (a fire) from burning : to put out (a fire) ▪ Firefighters quenched [=extinguished] the flames.
quench your thirst : to cause you to stop feeling thirsty ▪ a drink that will quench your thirst ▪ He quenched his thirst by drinking a bottle of water.

quer•u•lous /ˈkweəjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : complaining in an annoyed way ▪ The child said in a querulous [=whining] voice that he didn't like carrots. ▪ querulous customers
– quer•u•lous•ly adv – quer•u•lous•ness noun [noncount]

[1]que•ry /ˈkwiri/ noun, pl que•ries [count] : a question or a request for information about something ▪ I have a query about my order. ▪ an Internet query ▪ The librarian responded to my query.

[2]query verb queries; que•ried; que•ry•ing [+ obj]

Q

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-q

1 chiefly US : to ask (someone) a question ▪ The reporter queried [=questioned] several citizens about the tax hike. ▪ They conducted a survey in which several hundred people were queried about their dietary habits.
2 : to ask questions or express doubt about (something) ▪ She queried [=questioned] the teacher's decision.
3 : to ask (a question) ▪ "What's that?" he queried.

que•sa•dil•la /ˌkeɪsəˈdi:jə/ noun, pl quesadillas [count] : a Mexican food which consists of a flat piece of bread (called a tortilla) that is folded around a filling of meat, cheese, or other ingredients and usually fried

[1]quest /ˈkwɛst/ noun, pl quests [count] formal + literary
1 : a journey made in search of something ▪ They went on a quest for gold.
2 : a long and difficult effort to find or do something ▪ a quest for answers ▪ The team's quest to win a championship finally came to an end. ▪ He refuses to give up his quest to discover the truth.
in quest of : searching for (something) ▪ She is in quest of the perfect wine.

[2]quest verb quests; quest•ed; quest•ing [no obj] formal + literary : to go on a journey to find something ▪ They were questing for gold.

[1]ques•tion /ˈkwɛstʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a sentence, phrase, or word that asks for information or is used to test someone's knowledge ▪ Can I ask you a personal question? ▪ Please answer my question. ▪ I don't understand the question. ▪ Are there any more questions? ▪ I have a couple of legal questions (for you). ▪ In answer to your question, our next meeting will be on Friday. ▪ The essay questions on the test were easy/hard. ▪ There are 10 multiple-choice questions on the exam. ▪ The exam included several questions on/about current events. ▪ The question arose as to who would be responsible for caring for our grandmother. ▪ I expected him to ask where I worked, but the question never came up. ▪ I am sure to get a raise. The question is [=what I want to know is], how much it will be? ▪ The key question in solving the mystery is, how did the murderer enter the house? ▪ One question still remains: Do we have the funding for this project? ▪ (formal) She posed the question of [=she asked] whether we could get funding for the project. ▪ Stop avoiding the question and answer me! ▪ She hoped to avoid awkward/embarrassing questions about her personal life during the interview. ▪ Whether voters will support him remains an open question. [=no one knows yet whether voters will support him] ▪ There are still many unanswered questions about his past. ▪ It was a rhetorical question. I didn't expect an answer. ▪ "How can we reduce expenses without cutting important programs?" "(That's a) good question." [=I don't know] ▪ The big question [=the thing everyone would like to know] is, will he be number one in the football draft? ▪ There will be a question and answer session [=a period of time when people can have their questions answered] following the speech. ▪ (formal) The lawyer would like to put another question to the defendant. [=ask the defendant another question] — see also LEADING QUESTION
2 [count] : a matter or problem that is being discussed : a subject or topic ▪ Her paper raises several questions [=issues] that need to be discussed/addressed. ▪ It is still an open question whether or not you may go. — often + of ▪ The class discussed the question of stem cell research. ▪ The question of buying or leasing a car is really up to the buyer to decide on.
3 [noncount] a : doubt or uncertainty about something ▪ There was little question of her being able to do the work. ▪ There is considerable question about the actual value of the property. — often used in negative statements ▪ There is no question but that there will be some protest about his decision. ▪ There was no question of/about his loyalty. ▪ There is no question that he was one of the greatest players of the game. ▪ There's no question about it—that girl has talent! ▪ Without question, it was his best performance by far. [=it was definitely his best performance ever] ▪ She trusted him without question. b : a state of doubt or uncertainty ▪ The results of the study have come into question. = The results of the study have been called into question. [=people are expressing doubts about the results] ▪ The fact that he plagiarized throws/brings/calls into question the authenticity of his earlier writings.
4 [noncount] : the possibility or chance of something happening or of someone doing something — used in negative statements ▪ There was no question of escape. [=escape was not possible] ▪ There was no question of him forgetting about what happened.
a question of — used to say that one thing results from or requires another ▪ "I can't go!" "If it's just a question of money [=if money is the only problem], I can let you borrow some." ▪ It's only a question of time [=a matter of time] before/until we catch him. ▪ Is success all just a question of being in the right place at the right time?
beg the question see BEG beyond question 1 : completely certain or definite ▪ His genius is beyond question. 2 : in a way that is completely certain : without any doubt ▪ The new evidence establishes his innocence beyond (all) question.
in question 1 — used to indicate the specific thing that is being discussed or referred to ▪ The painting in question is by Rembrandt. ▪ What is in question is not the candidate's private life but her policies. ▪ Where were you on the Sunday in question? 2 : in a state of doubt or uncertainty ▪ His suitability for the job is in question. ▪ The results of the study are in question.
open to question : not known for sure : UNCERTAIN ▪ Her intentions are open to question. ▪ The author's exact meaning is open to question.
out of the question : not possible or allowed ▪ Asking my father for money was completely out of the question. ▪ Wearing a stained blouse to dinner was out of the question.
pop the question see [1]POP

[2]question verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj]
1 : to ask (someone) questions about something ▪ The reporter questioned her at length on her life as the First Lady. ▪ The witness was questioned by the defense. ▪ Police questioned [=interrogated] the suspect carefully. — often + about ▪ She was questioned about her husband's mysterious disappearance.
2 : to have or express doubt about (something) ▪ I could tell that she was questioning my decision. ▪ He began to question his ability to do the job. ▪ I trusted him and I never questioned what he told me. ▪ The lawyer questioned the truth of the witness's statement. ▪ He began to question whether the things she had said were really true.
– ques•tion•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ The mayor's first questioner at the town meeting asked about the new parking regulations.

ques•tion•able /ˈkwɛstʃənəbəl/ adj
1 : not likely to be true or correct : giving reason to doubt or question something ▪ The truth of the statements was highly questionable. ▪ a questionable conclusion ▪ It is questionable whether this is the right decision. [=I question/doubt whether this is the right decision]
2 : likely to be bad : not worthy of trust ▪ The water available in the village is of questionable quality. ▪ a man of questionable character ▪ They acquired the money through questionable means.
3 : not certain : unknown or undecided ▪ The company is facing a questionable future.
– ques•tion•ably /ˈkwɛstʃənəbli/ adv ▪ questionably obtained money

[1]questioning adj : showing a feeling of doubt or a desire to ask a question in order to get information ▪ She gave him a questioning look.
– ques•tion•ing•ly adv ▪ She looked at him questioningly.

[2]questioning noun [noncount] : the activity or process of asking questions ▪ The police took him in for questioning. ▪ the questioning of authority question mark noun, pl ~ marks [count]

1 : the punctuation mark ? that is used after a direct question or to indicate that something (such as a birth date) is uncertain
2 a chiefly US : someone or something that causes feelings of doubt or uncertainty ▪ The future of the company remains a question mark. [=no one knows what will happen in the company's future] ▪ His leg is still sore and he remains a question mark for next week's game. [=it is not certain that he will be able to play in next week's game] ▪ The team's pitching is a big question mark this season. b ✧ If there is a question mark over something, there is doubt about it. ▪ Her injured elbow puts a big question mark over her chances in the tournament.

question master noun, pl ~ -ters [count] Brit : QUIZMASTER

ques•tion•naire /ˌkwɛstʃəˈneə/ noun, pl -naires [count] : a written set of questions that are given to people in order to collect facts or opinions about something ▪ (US) Would you please fill out this questionnaire? = (Brit) Would you please fill in this questionnaire?

Q

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

[1]queue /ˈkju:/ noun, pl queues [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a line of people who are waiting for something ▪ The people formed a queue [=(US) line] at the ticket window. ▪ We were forced to stand/wait in a queue. ▪ a bus/taxi queue
2 computers : a series of instructions that are stored in a computer so that they can be processed later ▪ Three jobs remain in the printer queue.
jump the queue Brit : to go ahead of the other people in a queue : to go to the front of a queue instead of waiting ▪ He tried to jump the queue but they wouldn't let him. — see also QUEUE-JUMPING

[2]queue verb queues; queued; queu•ing or queue•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit : to form or wait in a line ▪ Hundreds of people queued [=(US) lined up] for a chance to meet him. ▪ The crowd was queuing at the snack bar. — often + up ▪ The crowd was queuing up at the snack bar.

queue–jumping noun [noncount] Brit : the act of going ahead of other people in a queue instead of waiting your turn ▪ Police say that the fight broke out over queue-jumping. [=(US) cutting in line] — see also jump the queue at [1]QUEUE

[1]quib•ble /ˈkwɪbəl/ verb quib•bles; quib•bled; quib•bling [no obj] : to argue or complain about small, unimportant things — usually + about or over ▪ People ignored the main point of the speech and quibbled about its length. ▪ Why are you quibbling over such a small amount of money?

[2]quibble noun, pl quibbles [count] : a small complaint or criticism usually about something unimportant ▪ Our only quibble about the trip was that it rained a lot. ▪ a minor quibble

quiche /ˈki:ʃ/ noun, pl quich•es [count, noncount] : a pie made with eggs, milk, cheese, and vegetables or meat

[1]quick /ˈkwɪk/ adj quick•er; -est
1 : done or happening in a short amount of time ▪ a quick look/glance ▪ They had a quick drink at the bar. ▪ She took a quick shower. ▪ She gave him a quick kiss. ▪ You're back already? That was quick! ▪ We made a quick decision, but it turned out to be a good one. ▪ He got a quick reply to his inquiry. ▪ The car made a quick [=sudden] left turn.
2 : fast in thinking, learning, or understanding ▪ a quick mind/learner ▪ quick students ▪ His quick thinking/wits allowed him to escape trouble. ▪ (US) She is a quick study who learned her job easily. ▪ Her friends admired her quick wit.
3 a : fast in moving or reacting ▪ He walked with quick steps. ▪ She has quick, agile hands. ▪ Please be quick. We can't wait much longer. ▪ He has a quick temper. [=he gets angry very quickly and easily] b : tending to do something very quickly or too quickly — followed by to + verb ▪ He is always quick to criticize other people, but he gets angry if anyone criticizes him. ▪ She was quick to excuse her son's behavior.
4 : able to be done, obtained, or achieved easily and in a short amount of time ▪ a quick and easy recipe ▪ He made a quick profit/buck selling the car. ▪ There is no quick fix for these problems. [=there is no fast and easy solution for these problems] be quick on the draw see [2]DRAW quick off the mark see [1]MARK the quick and the dead literary : living people and dead people – quick•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The track coach was impressed with her quickness. ▪ He is known for his quickness of wit. ▪ The child amazes me with his quickness to learn.

[2]quick adv quicker; -est informal : in a fast or quick manner : QUICKLY ▪ a scheme to get rich quick ▪ "Come quick!" she shouted. ▪ I got used to living with a roommate pretty quick. ▪ I can't run any quicker. ▪ The new student learned (the) quickest. ▪ Quick! [=come/move quickly] The train is leaving. ▪ They came quick as a flash. [=very quickly] — often used in combination ▪ quick-growing birches ▪ a quick-thinking rescuer

[3]quick noun
cut (someone) to the quick : to make (someone) very upset ▪ Her harsh words cut him to the quick. [=he was deeply hurt by her harsh words] the quick : the very sensitive area of flesh under a fingernail or toenail ▪ He had bitten his nails to the quick.

quick•en /ˈkwɪkən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) faster ▪ She quickened [=hastened] her steps. ▪ We quickened the pace. [=we started to walk faster] ▪ Stimulants can quicken the heart rate. b [no obj] : to become faster ▪ His pulse quickened at the thought of seeing her again. ▪ a quickening tempo
2 formal + literary a [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a feeling) stronger or more active ▪ The approach of the deadline quickened our sense of urgency. b [no obj] : to become stronger or more active ▪ The drama quickened when police arrived at the scene.

quick– re adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : done or coming very quickly one after another : RAPID-FIRE ▪ quick-fire responses/questions/jokes quick•ie /ˈkwɪki/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal

1 : something that is done very quickly ▪ "Do you have any other questions?" "Just a quickie." ▪ I would like to have a meeting. It'll be a quickie. — often used before another noun ▪ a quickie divorce/marriage
2 : an act of sexual intercourse that is done in a very short amount of time

quick•lime /ˈkwɪkˌlaɪm/ noun [noncount] : [2]LIME quick•ly /ˈkwɪkli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in a fast or quick manner ▪ They quickly moved away when they saw the oncoming car. ▪ The investigators must act quickly. ▪ Please get here as quickly as possible. ▪ We ate too/very quickly. ▪ They quickly settled the dispute.

quick•sand /ˈkwɪkˌsænd/ noun, pl -sands
1 [noncount] : deep, wet sand into which heavy objects sink easily
2 : a situation that is dangerous and difficult to escape from [noncount] the quicksand of depression [plural] freed from the quicksands of war

[1]quick•sil•ver /ˈkwɪkˌsɪlvɚ/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned + literary : MERCURY 1a

[2]quicksilver adj, always used before a noun, literary : changing quickly and often ▪ his quicksilver [=mercurial] temperament

quick–tem•pered /ˈkwɪkˈtɛmpɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : becoming angry quickly and easily : having a quick temper ▪ a quick-tempered coach

quick–wit•ted /ˈkwɪkˈwɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the ability to think and understand things quickly ▪ a quick-witted opponent/defendant ▪ quick-witted humor ▪ a quick-witted reply — opposite SLOW-WITTED quid /ˈkwɪd/ noun, pl quid also quids [count] Brit, informal : one pound in money ▪ We lost a few quid on the horses. ▪ The ticket costs five quid.

quids in Brit, informal ✧ If you are quids in, you have made a good profit. ▪ I was quids in by the time I left the horse races.

quid pro quo /ˌkwɪdˌproʊˈkwoʊ/ noun, pl quid pro quos [count] : something that is given to you or done for you in return for something you have given to or done for someone else ▪ If he helps us, he'll expect a quid pro quo. [=he'll expect us to do something for him]

qui•es•cent /kwaɪˈɛsnt/ adj
1 formal : not active : QUIET ▪ a quiescent state
2 medical : not now developing or causing symptoms ▪ quiescent disease ▪ a quiescent virus
– qui•es•cence /kwaɪˈɛsns/ noun [noncount] ▪ long periods of quiescence

[1]qui•et /ˈkwajət/ adj qui•et•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : making very little noise ▪ a quiet engine ▪ the quiet hum of the refrigerator ▪ He spoke in a very quiet voice. ▪ She was as quiet as a mouse. [=very quiet]
2 a : not talking ▪ Surprisingly, the class was quiet. ▪ "Be quiet!" she scolded. ▪ Can't you be quiet for one minute? [=can't you stop talking?] ▪ She suddenly turned/became/went quiet. [=she suddenly stopped talking] b : tending not to talk very much ▪ He's a very quiet person. ▪ She has a quiet disposition/temperament.
3 : not having much activity or movement ▪ a quiet [=calm] sea ▪ During the morning, business was quiet. ▪ Some days at the store are quieter than others. ▪ a quiet town/village/neighborhood ▪ a quiet stretch of road ▪ He led a quiet life.
4 : not disturbed by noise or people ▪ We enjoyed a quiet [=peaceful] dinner for two. ▪ I was looking forward to a quiet cup of tea. ▪ I decided to do a little quiet reading.
5 : not shown or done in an obvious way ▪ She worked with quiet determination. ▪ There is a quiet confidence about him. ▪ He was filled with quiet desperation/rage. ▪ A quiet revolution was underway.
keep quiet 1 : to not say anything or make any noise ▪ Please keep quiet during the movie. ▪ He thought about telling the police what he knew, but he decided to keep quiet.

Q

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−q

[=he decided not to say anything] 2 keep quiet about (something) or keep (something) quiet : to not say anything about (something) ▪ She kept quiet about her plans to change jobs. ▪ She kept her plans quiet. 3 keep (someone) quiet a : to prevent (someone) from speaking or to prevent (someone or something) from making noise ▪ She gave the dog a bone to keep him quiet. b : to prevent (someone) from revealing information about something ▪ They paid money to the witness to keep him quiet. ▪ What'll it take to keep you quiet?

– qui•et•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ He spoke/moved quietly. ▪ She was quietly reading in her room. ▪ He is quietly confident that he will win. ▪ She quietly retired from the sport. – qui•et•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the quietness of the forest/neighborhood ▪ His quietness bothered her.

[2]quiet verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to make (someone or something) quieter, calmer, or less intense ▪ The announcer was trying to quiet [=(Brit) quieten] the crowd. ▪ She tried to quiet [=calm, soothe] the crying baby. ▪ Her comments have done nothing to quiet [=lessen] the controversy. ▪ Unfortunately, his efforts did little to quiet [=dispel] our doubts. — often + down ▪ The announcer was trying to quiet down [=(Brit) quieten down] the crowd.

quiet down [phrasal verb] chiefly US : to become quiet or quieter : to become calmer or less noisy ▪ The children started to quiet down [=(Brit) quieten down] after dinner. ▪ He told the crowd to quiet down. ▪ Things are quieting down in town. [=the town is becoming less busy] on the quiet : in a secret or quiet way : without people knowing ▪ The deal was made on the quiet.

[3]quiet noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being quiet or calm ▪ the quiet of a wooded trail ▪ Can I have some quiet here? I'm trying to study. ▪ I need a little peace and quiet.

qui•et•en /ˈkwajətən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj] Brit : [2]QUIET ▪ trying to quieten (down) the crowd quieten down [phrasal verb] Brit : to become quiet or quieter ▪ The children quietened down after dinner.

qui•etude /ˈkwajəˌtu:d, Brit ˈkwajəˌtju:d/ noun [noncount] literary : the state of being quiet or calm : QUIETNESS ▪ the quietude [=calm] of the forest quiff /ˈkwɪf/ noun, pl quiffs [count] Brit : hair at the front of a person's head that is brushed upward; also : POMPADOUR quill /ˈkwɪl/ noun, pl quills [count]

1 a : the hollow central part of a feather b : a large, stiff feather from the wing or tail of a bird

2 : a pen that is made from a feather — called also quill pen

3 : one of the hollow, sharp parts on the back of a porcupine quilt /ˈkwɪlt/ noun, pl quilts [count] : a bed cover with stitched designs that is made of two layers of cloth filled with wool, cotton, or soft feathers quilt•ed /ˈkwɪltəd/ adj : having two layers of stitched cloth filled with wool, cotton, or soft feathers ▪ a quilted jacket/coat quilt•er /ˈkwɪltə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who makes quilts quilt•ing /ˈkwɪltɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity or process of making a quilt ▪ Her hobbies include knitting and quilting.

2 : the material or stitching that is used in making quilts ▪ diamond quilting

quin /ˈkwɪn/ noun, pl quins [count] Brit, informal : QUINTUPLET

quince /ˈkwɪns/ noun, pl quinc•es

1 [count, noncount] : the yellow fruit of an Asian tree that is used for making jam, jelly, etc.

2 [count] : the tree that produces quince ▪ a flowering quince

qui•nine /ˈkwaɪˌnaɪn, Brit ˈkwɪˌni:n/ noun [noncount] : a drug that is made from the bark of a tree and used especially to treat malaria

quint /ˈkwɪnt/ noun, pl quints [count] US, informal : QUINTUPLET

quin•tes•sence /kwɪnˈtɛsns/ noun

the quintessence formal 1 : the most important part of something ▪ The quintessence of music is the melody. 2 : the perfect example of something ▪ He was the quintessence of calm. [=he was perfectly calm]

– quint•es•sen•tial /ˌkwɪntəˈsɛnʃəl/ adj ▪ He was the quintessential cowboy. [=he was the perfect example of a cowboy] ▪ She's the quintessential New Yorker. – quint•es•sen•tial•ly adv ▪ The humor in the movie is quintessentially British.

quin•tet /kwɪnˈtɛt/ noun, pl -tets [count]

1 : a group of five singers or musicians who perform together ▪ a famous brass/jazz quintet

2 : a piece of music for five singers or musicians ▪ a piano/string quintet

[1]quin•tu•ple /kwɪnˈtʌpəl, Brit ˈkwɪntjʊpl/ verb -tu•ples; -tupled; -tu•pling

1 [no obj] : to become five times bigger in value or number ▪ The town's population has quintupled in the past 50 years.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become five times bigger ▪ We quintupled our earnings. ▪ The company has quintupled the number of its employees.

[2]quintuple adj

1 : five times bigger in size or amount ▪ Share prices are quintuple what they were a few days ago.

2 always used before a noun : having five parts or including five people or things ▪ a quintuple homicide/murder [=a murder of five people]

quin•tu•plet /kwɪnˈtʌplət, Brit ˈkwɪntjʊplət/ noun, pl -plets [count] : one of five babies that are born at the same time to the same mother — usually plural ▪ She had (a set of) quintuplets. [=she gave birth to five babies] — compare QUADRUPLET, SEXTUPLET, TRIPLET, TWIN

[1]quip /ˈkwɪp/ noun, pl quips [count] : a clever remark ▪ witty/amusing quips ▪ They traded quips over a beer.

[2]quip verb quips; quipped; quip•ping [+ obj] : to make (a clever remark)

quirk /ˈkwə·k/ noun, pl quirks [count]

1 : an unusual habit or way of behaving ▪ Everyone has their little quirks.

2 : something strange that happens by chance ▪ Their meeting was a (strange) quirk of fate/nature.

quirky /ˈkwə·ki/ adj -i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : unusual especially in an interesting or appealing way ▪ quirky ideas/behavior ▪ He has a quirky sense of humor. ▪ a quirky new sitcom quis•ling /ˈkwɪzlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] old-fashioned : a person who helps an enemy that has taken control of his or her country : TRAITOR — often used before another noun ▪ a quisling regime/government quit /ˈkwɪt/ verb quits; quit also quit•ted; quit•ting

1 informal : to leave (a job, school, career, etc.) [+ obj] He quit his job. ▪ She quit college after one semester. ▪ She decided to quit show business. ▪ He quit teaching after five years. [no obj] Many workers are quitting because of poor pay. ▪ She hates her job and she's thinking about quitting. ▪ I quit!

2 chiefly US, informal : to stop doing (an action or activity) [+ obj] She quit smoking/drinking years ago. ▪ I wish you would quit bothering her. ▪ He angrily told her to quit it. [=to stop doing what she was doing] [no obj] We're going to quit for the day. It's too hot to keep working.

3 [no obj] informal : to stop working ▪ The engine suddenly quit. ▪ The car quit [=broke down] a few miles down the road.

4 formal : to leave (the place where you live) [+ obj] They quit the city for a quiet life in the country. ▪ The landlord gave the tenants notice to quit the premises. [=the landlord formally told them that they had to leave] [no obj] The landlord gave the tenants notice to quit.

quite /ˈkwaɪt/ adv

1 a : to a very noticeable degree or extent : VERY ✧ Quite is a more forceful word than fairly but it is a less forceful word than extremely. It is used more often in British English than in U.S. English, but it is not an unusual or rare word in U.S. English. ▪ She did quite well. ▪ He is quite ill/rich/busy. ▪ The room is quite large/small. ▪ They were quite surprised. ▪ Blue jays are quite common in this area. ▪ We go out to dinner quite frequently. ▪ The entertainment was quite good. ▪ We live quite near the school. ▪ Quite frankly, we felt it was not our responsibility. ▪ Quite simply, we do not have the resources. ▪ She sings quite wonderfully. b — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ I quite liked/enjoyed the music. ▪ "We're sorry for the trouble." "That's quite all right." ▪ The work has value in itself, quite apart from the good effects it produces. ▪ I haven't seen her for quite some time. [=a long period of time] ▪ I decided I had heard quite enough. ▪ It was quite something [=a major event] for a small-town boy to be interviewed for the national news. — often used with a, an, or the before a noun ▪ She is quite a beauty. [=she's very beautiful] ▪ The news was quite a shock. [=the news was very shocking] ▪ My promotion was quite a surprise. ▪ We had quite a lot of food at the dinner party. ▪ It was quite an eventful week. ▪ We were in line for quite a while. ▪ She has made quite a career for herself. [=she has had a very successful career] ▪ The award is quite an honor. [=is a very impressive honor]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-q

2 : completely or entirely ▪ "Are you quite finished?" "Not quite." ▪ We quite agree. ▪ I am quite capable of doing it myself, thank you. ▪ They assured me that I was quite mistaken. ▪ Something wasn't quite right. ▪ We hadn't quite made up our minds. ▪ She's quite right, you know. ▪ I quite forgot your birthday.
3 : exactly or precisely ▪ No one realized quite what was happening. ▪ Quite why he left is unclear. ▪ That is not quite what I said.
4 Brit — used to express agreement ▪ "We need to let children be children." "Quite." ▪ "There is little violence in his films." "Quite so." ▪ "They have no one but themselves to blame." "Quite right."
quite a bit see ¹BIT
quite a few see ¹FEW quite the contrary see ¹CONTRARY quits /ˈkwɪts/ adj, chiefly Brit, informal : having nothing owed by either side ▪ Here's the money I owed you. Now, we're quits. [=even] call it quits informal : to quit or end something (such as a job, relationship, or activity) ▪ She decided to call it quits after many years in office. ▪ After eight years of marriage, she and her husband are calling it quits. ▪ I'm ready to call it quits.

double or quits see ³DOUBLE

quit•ter /ˈkwɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] informal + disapproving : a person who easily gives up or stops doing something : a person who quits ▪ Don't be a quitter. I know you can do it.

¹quiv•er /ˈkwɪvɚ/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] : to shake because of fear, cold, nervousness, etc. : TREMBLE ▪ Her lips quivered when she heard the bad news. — often + with ▪ He was quivering with excitement/rage.

²quiver noun, pl -vers [count]
1 : a shaking sound, movement, or feeling that is caused by fear or other strong emotions — usually singular ▪ I could hear a quiver [=quaver] in her voice. — often + of ▪ He felt a quiver of excitement/anticipation.
2 : a case used for carrying arrows quix•ot•ic /kwɪkˈsɑːtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : hopeful or romantic in a way that is not practical ▪ a quixotic solution/pursuit ▪ They had quixotic dreams/visions about the future.

¹quiz /ˈkwɪz/ noun, pl quiz•zes [count]
1 US : a short spoken or written test that is often taken without preparation ▪ The teacher gave us a quiz on the material we studied yesterday. — see also POP QUIZ
2 : a set of questions about a particular subject that people try to answer as a game or competition ▪ a trivia/health quiz

²quiz verb quizzes; quizzed; quiz•zing [+ obj]
1 : to ask (someone) questions about something — usually + on or about ▪ They quizzed him on his knowledge of old jazz tunes. ▪ He is being quizzed by investigators about his possible involvement in the crime.
2 US : to give (someone) a quiz — usually + on ▪ The teacher quizzed us on the material we studied yesterday.

quiz•mas•ter /ˈkwɪzˌmæstɚ, Brit ˈkwɪzˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who asks the questions for people to answer on a quiz show — called also (Brit) question master

quiz show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a radio or television program during which people compete with each other by trying to answer questions ▪ a popular TV quiz show ▪ a quiz show contestant/host quiz•zi•cal /ˈkwɪzɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing that you do not understand something or that you find something strange or amusing ▪ He gave me a quizzical look. ▪ There was a quizzical expression on his face. ▪ She raised a quizzical eyebrow when she saw what he was wearing.

– quiz•zi•cal•ly /ˈkwɪzɪkli/ adv ▪ He looked at me quizzically.

quoit /ˈkwɔɪt/ noun, pl quoits
1 quoits [noncount] : a game in which players try to throw rings over a small post that is standing upright in the ground
2 [count] : a ring that is used in quoits

Quon•set /ˈkwɑːnsət/ trademark — used for a type of metal shelter that has a curved roof quo•rum /ˈkwɔrəm/ noun [singular] : the smallest number of people who must be present at a meeting in order for decisions to be made ▪ We need five people to make a quorum.

quo•ta /ˈkwoʊtə/ noun, pl -tas [count]
1 : an official limit on the number or amount of people or things that are allowed ▪ import/export quotas ▪ The agency imposes strict fishing/hunting quotas. ▪ The company has imposed quotas on hiring. ▪ He lost his driver's license because he exceeded the quota of traffic violations.
2 : a specific amount or number that is expected to be achieved ▪ The department set new sales quotas in January. ▪ They filled/met their quota for new members. [=they got the number of new members that they were trying to get] quot•able /ˈkwoʊtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : deserving to be quoted : interesting or clever enough to be quoted ▪ a quotable phrase/author quo•ta•tion /kwoʊˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : something that a person says or writes that is repeated or used by someone else in another piece of writing or a speech ▪ literary/illustrative quotations [=quotes] ▪ He gathered quotations from the trial transcript to prove his point. ▪ a well-known quotation attributed to Abraham Lincoln ▪ a book of humorous quotations
2 [noncount] : the act of using quotations in a piece of writing or a speech ▪ She relied heavily on quotation in her essays, which made them less original.
3 [count] : a written statement of how much money a particular job will cost to do ▪ The builder gave us several price quotations [=quotes] for the new housing complex.
4 [count] finance : a statement of the current value of stocks, bonds, or goods ▪ foreign stock quotations [=quotes]

quotation mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : one of a pair of punctuation marks " " or ' ' that are used to show the beginning and the end of a quotation, to show that something is a title, to show that a word or phrase is being used in a special way, etc. — usually plural ▪ There were quotations marks around the phrase. = The phrase was in quotation marks. ▪ Titles of newspaper articles should be placed/put in quotation marks. — called also (Brit) inverted comma

¹quote /ˈkwoʊt/ verb quotes; quot•ed; quot•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to repeat (something written or said by another person) exactly — often + from ▪ She quoted a passage from the book in her article. b [+ obj] : to write or say the exact words of (someone) ▪ He began his speech by quoting Shakespeare. ▪ Can I quote you on that? [=can I tell other people that you said that?] ▪ He was quoted as saying that there would be further delays. [=it was reported that he said that there would be further delays] ▪ The reporter quoted the police chief as saying that an investigation would be launched soon. c : to write or say a line or short section from (a piece of writing or a speech) [+ obj] He quotes the Bible frequently. [no obj] — + from ▪ He quotes from the Bible frequently. d — used in speech to show that you are exactly repeating someone else's words. ▪ When I asked him if he'd be seeing her again, he said, quote, "Not if I can help it." ▪ He said, and I quote, "Not if I can help it." — often followed by unquote ▪ She said it was quote, "time for a change," unquote. ▪ He said he's been living under, quote, unquote, "intense pressure."
2 [+ obj] : to mention (something) as an example to support an idea or statement ▪ She said this kind of occurrence is common, and she quoted [=cited] several instances of almost identical behavior.
3 [+ obj] a : to tell someone the price at which something can be bought or done — often + for ▪ The sales associate quoted (us) an unreasonably high price for the car. b finance : to state the current price of (something, such as a stock) — usually used as (be) quoted ▪ Shares for the stock are being quoted at $68. ▪ a list of companies that are quoted on the stock exchange [=companies whose stocks are sold on the stock exchange]

²quote noun, pl quotes [count]
1 : QUOTATION ▪ Each chapter of the book began with an inspirational quote. ▪ She included quotes from the poem in her essay. ▪ The article included quotes from the mayor and several councilors. ▪ The price quotes exceeded our expectations. ▪ I checked the stock quotes online.
2 : QUOTATION MARK ▪ The phrase was in quotes. [=there were quotation marks around it] ▪ Titles of newspaper articles should be placed/put in quotes.

quoth /kwoʊθ/ verb, old-fashioned + literary — used to mean "said" in phrases like quoth I, quoth he, etc. ▪ "What a fool," quoth he. [="what a fool," he said] ▪ " . . . Quoth the raven, 'Nevermore.'" —Edgar Allan Poe, "The Raven" (1845) quo•tid•i•an /kwoʊˈtɪdijən/ adj, formal + literary 1 : ordinary or very common ▪ a quotidian existence/life

Q

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-q

2 : done each day ▪ quotidian [=everyday] routines quo•tient /ˈkwoʊʃənt/ noun, pl -tients [count]

1 mathematics : the number that results when one number is divided by another
2 : the degree to which a specific quality or characteristic exists ▪ an actress whose likability quotient is high [=an actress who is very likable] — see also INTELLIGENCE QUOTIENT

Quran or Qur'an variant spellings of KORAN

qv abbr which see — used to direct a reader to another page where more information can be found ✧ Qv comes from the Latin phrase "quod vide."

QWER•TY /ˈkwə·ti/ adj, of a keyboard : having the letters q, w, e, r, t, and y arranged in a row in the top row of letter keys ▪ Most computers come equipped with a monitor and a full QWERTY keyboard.

R

[1]r or R /ˈɑə/ noun, pl r's or rs or R's or Rs : the 18th letter of the English alphabet [count] There are two r's in "tomorrow." [noncount] "River" begins and ends with r. — see also THREE R'S roll your r's see [1]ROLL

[2]r abbr 1 radius 2 or R right ▪ L or R

[1]R — used as a special mark to indicate that people over the age of 17 or 18 may see a particular movie but that younger people may only see the movie in a movie theater with a parent or guardian ▪ The movie is rated R. — compare G, NC-17, PG, PG-13, X; see also R-RATED

[2]R abbr 1 registered trademark 2 Republican ▪ Sen. Jane Smith R-PA 3 R. river ▪ R. Trent

rab•bi /ˈræˌbaɪ/ noun, pl -bis [count] : a person who is trained to make decisions about what is lawful in Judaism, to perform Jewish ceremonies, or to lead a Jewish congregation ▪ He is a rabbi. ▪ Rabbi Jane Smith rab•bin•ic /rəˈbɪnɪk/ or rab•bin•i•cal /rəˈbɪnɪkəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to rabbis, their writings, or their teachings ▪ rabbinic commentaries/texts ▪ rabbinical traditions

[1]rab•bit /ˈræbət/ noun, pl rab•bits or rabbit
1 [count] : a small animal that usually lives in holes in the ground and has long ears, soft fur, and back legs that are longer than its front legs ▪ We keep rabbits as pets. ▪ a rabbit hutch ▪ a rabbit hole
2 [noncount] : the fur or meat of a rabbit ▪ a stew made with rabbit = a rabbit stew ▪ a rabbit coat rabbit

[2]rabbit verb -bits; -bit•ed; -bit•ing
rabbit on [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to talk for too long about something that is not important or interesting — often + about ▪ He rabbited on about all his problems.

rabbit punch noun, pl ~ punches [count] : a quick punch to the back of the neck or the kidneys that is illegal in boxing rabbit warren noun, pl ~ -rens [count]

1 : a series of underground tunnels where rabbits live
2 : a building or place with many connected rooms, passages, etc., where you can get lost very easily ▪ The Pentagon is a rabbit warren of corridors.

rab•ble /ˈræbəl/ noun, disapproving
1 [singular] : a large group of loud people who could become violent : MOB ▪ an angry/unruly rabble
2 the rabble : ordinary or common people who do not have a lot of money, power, or social status — often used in a humorous or exaggerated way to suggest the attitudes of wealthy and powerful people ▪ celebrities who live in beautiful homes far away from the rabble

rab•ble–rous•er /ˈræbəlˌraʊzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] disapproving : a person who makes a group of people angry, excited, or violent (such as by giving speeches) especially in order to achieve a political or social goal – rab•ble–rous•ing /ˈræbəlˌraʊzɪŋ/ adj ▪ a rabble-rousing speech/politician – rabble–rousing noun [noncount]

ra•bid /ˈræbəd/ adj
1 : affected with rabies ▪ rabid dogs
2 [more ~; most ~] : having or expressing a very extreme opinion about or interest in something ▪ a politician with rabid supporters ▪ Her husband is a rabid baseball fan.
– ra•bid•ly adv ▪ Photographers rabidly pursued her wherever she went.

ra•bies /ˈreɪbiz/ noun [noncount] : a very serious and often fatal disease that affects animals (such as dogs) and that can be passed on to people if an infected animal bites them rac•coon /ræˈkuːn/ noun, pl raccoon or rac•coons

1 [count] : a small North American animal with grayish-brown fur that has black fur around its eyes and black rings around its tail
2 [noncount] : the fur of a raccoon ▪ a raccoon coat raccoon

[1]race /ˈreɪs/ noun, pl rac•es
1 a [count] : a competition between people, animals, vehicles, etc., to see which one is fastest ▪ a bicycle/boat/car/yacht race — see also DRAG RACE, FOOTRACE, HORSE RACE, RAT RACE, SACK RACE b the races : an event at which there is a series of horse races ▪ Let's go to the races this weekend.
2 [count] : a contest or competition in which different people or teams try to win something or to do something first ▪ the race for governor ▪ a baseball pennant race ▪ the race to find a cure for the disease
3 [singular] : a situation in which someone has to do something very quickly because there is not much time ▪ It was a race against time to disarm the bomb. ▪ It was a race against the clock to finish the job on time.
– compare [3]RACE

[2]race verb races; raced; rac•ing
1 a [no obj] : to compete in a race ▪ Eight horses will race for the cup. ▪ That horse will never race again. b [+ obj] : to compete in a race against (someone) ▪ She's going to race the champion. ▪ They raced each other home. ▪ I'll race you to see who gets there first.
2 [+ obj] : to drive or ride (something) in a race ▪ She races cars/horses for a living.
3 [no obj] : to go, move, or function at a very fast speed ▪ The people raced [=(more commonly) ran] for safety. ▪ The flood raced through the valley. ▪ His heart was racing. [=was beating very fast] ▪ Her mind was racing. [=she had many thoughts going quickly through her mind] ▪ The truck's engine was racing. ▪ The dog raced ahead of me.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (the engine of a vehicle) to go very fast ▪ The drivers raced [=revved] their engines while waiting at the starting line.
5 [no obj] : to try to do something very quickly because there is not much time ▪ She is racing against the clock to be sure the assignment is handed in on time. ▪ Researchers are racing (against time) to find a cure.

[3]race noun, pl races
1 : one of the groups that people can be divided into based on certain physical qualities (such as skin color) [count] It is their hope that the races can live in harmony. [noncount] The company does not discriminate on grounds of race, age, sex, or religion. — often used before another noun ▪ Politicians are trying to improve race relations. ▪ race discrimination — see also HUMAN RACE
2 [count] : a group of people who share the same history, language, culture, etc. ▪ the English race ▪ She is the descen-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

dant of a noble race. ▪ a mythical race of giants 3 [count] : a group of related or similar animals or plants ▪ a distinct race of birds
– compare [1]RACE

race–bait•ing /ˈreɪsˌbeɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US, disapproving : the unfair use of statements about race to try to influence the actions or attitudes of a particular group of people ▪ a politician who is being accused of race-baiting

race car noun, pl ~ cars [count] US : a very fast car that is used in professional auto racing — called also racing car; see picture at CAR race course (US) or Brit race•course /ˈreɪsˌkoəs/ noun, pl ~ cours•es [count] : a course or track that is used for racing; especially, chiefly Brit : a grass track that is used for horse racing race•go•er /ˈreɪsˌgowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a person who goes to a race race•horse /ˈreɪsˌhoəs/ noun, pl -hors•es [count] : a horse that is bred and trained for racing

rac•er /ˈreɪsə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or animal that races ▪ He is a stock car racer. ▪ His horse will be a great racer.
2 : a car, boat, etc., that is used in racing race riot noun, pl ~ -ots [count] : a violent fight between people of different races : a riot that is caused by racial anger, hatred, etc.

race•track /ˈreɪsˌtræk/ noun, pl -tracks [count] : a track or course that is used for racing ▪ a bicycle racetrack; especially, US : a track that is used for horse racing race•way /ˈreɪsˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] chiefly US : a course or track that is used for racing : RACETRACK

ra•cial /ˈreɪʃəl/ adj
1 : relating to or based on race ▪ racial stereotypes/prejudices ▪ What is your racial identity? ▪ a racial minority
2 always used before a noun : existing or happening between people of different races ▪ striving for racial equality/harmony ▪ There was racial tension on campus. ▪ racial segregation – ra•cial•ly adv ▪ a racially mixed population ra•cial•ism /ˈreɪʃəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : RACISM – ra•cial•ist /ˈreɪʃəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – racialist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ racialist [=racist] thinking racing noun [noncount] : the sport or profession of racing horses, cars, etc. ▪ auto/yacht racing — often used before another noun ▪ his racing career ▪ racing fans racing car noun, pl ~ cars [count] : RACE CAR

rac•ism /ˈreɪˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving
1 : poor treatment of or violence against people because of their race ▪ Have you experienced racism? ▪ a protest against racism
2 : the belief that some races of people are better than others ▪ the racism that was the basis of apartheid – rac•ist /ˈreɪsɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ racists and bigots – racist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was accused of making a racist remark. ▪ racist attitudes/practices

[1]rack /ˈræk/ noun, pl racks
1 [count] : a frame or stand that has shelves, hooks, slots, etc., in which or on which you place things ▪ a bike/hat/luggage/magazine/wine rack ▪ The store has racks of dresses. ▪ Place the pie on the middle rack in the oven. ▪ During the store's sales, the clothes were flying off the rack. [=people were buying the clothes very quickly] — see also DISH RACK, ROOF RACK
2 the rack : a machine used in the past to hurt people by stretching their bodies ▪ The prisoners were tortured on the rack. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The interviewer put me on the rack and asked some really tough questions.
3 [count] technical : a bar with teeth that fit into a gear or a wheel in a machine ▪ a car with rack and pinion steering
4 [count] : a pair of antlers ▪ a deer with a huge rack
5 [count] US, informal : [1]BED 1 ▪ soldiers heading back to the rack after a long day
6 [count] US a : a triangular frame that is used to group the balls together in a billiard game b : a group of billiard balls that have been set up with a rack ▪ a tight/loose rack off the rack US : in a store where clothes are sold in different sizes that are not made to fit a particular person ▪ He bought that suit off the rack. [=(Brit) off the peg] — see also OFF-THE-RACK on the rack Brit, informal : in a very bad or difficult situation ▪ They had their opponents on the rack in the first half.
– compare [3]RACK, [4]RACK

[2]rack verb racks; racked; rack•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone or something) to suffer pain or damage — usually used as (be) racked ▪ He was racked with/by jealousy [=he was very jealous] when he saw his ex-wife with another man. ▪ a body racked by disease ▪ The team has been racked by dissension. [=the team has experienced a lot of dissension] ▪ The country was racked by civil war.
2 US : to put (balls) in a rack for a game of billiards ▪ Rack the balls (up) and we'll play some pool.
rack up [phrasal verb] rack up (something) informal : to achieve or get (something) as time passes : ACCUMULATE ▪ I wanted to rack up as many points as possible. ▪ The company has racked up huge losses/sales.
rack your brain/brains : to think very hard in order to try to remember something, solve a problem, etc. ▪ I've been racking my brain, but I can't remember his name.

[3]rack noun, pl racks [count, noncount] : a cut of meat from a lamb or pig that includes some of the ribs ▪ We had (a) rack of lamb for dinner. — compare [1]RACK, [4]RACK

[4]rack noun [noncount] : the state of being destroyed or ruined ▪ The old house has gone to rack and ruin. [=has become ruined] — compare [1]RACK, [3]RACK

[1]rack•et or rac•quet /ˈrækət/ noun, pl rackets or rac•quets [count] : a piece of sports equipment that is used to hit a ball or other object in games like tennis, badminton, squash, etc. ▪ a tennis racket — compare [2]RACKET

[2]racket noun, pl -ets
1 [singular] : a loud, unpleasant noise ▪ The kids have been making a terrible racket. ▪ What's all the racket?
2 [count] : a business that makes money through illegal activities ▪ He was a member of a criminal racket. ▪ He ran protection rackets for the mob.
3 [singular] US, informal a : an easy way to make money ▪ Is that all you do for a living? What a racket. b : a job or business ▪ Acting has got to be a tough racket to succeed in.
– compare [1]RACKET

rack•e•teer /ˌrækəˈtiə/ noun, pl -teers [count] : a person who makes money through illegal activities rack•e•teer•ing /ˌrækəˈtirɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or crime of making money through illegal activities ▪ He was arrested and charged with racketeering.

ra•con•teur /ˌrækɑːnˈtə/ noun, pl -teurs [count] formal : someone who is good at telling stories rac•quet•ball /ˈrækətˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls

1 [noncount] : a game played on a court with four walls by two or four players who use rackets to hit a soft ball against the walls ▪ They were playing (a game of) racquetball.
2 [count] : the ball that is used in racquetball racy /ˈreɪsi/ adj rac•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : exciting, lively, or amusing often in a way that is slightly shocking ▪ a racy [=risqué] novel/movie ▪ racy humor

– rac•i•ly /ˈreɪsəli/ adv ▪ a racily explicit movie – rac•i•ness /ˈreɪsinəs/ noun [noncount]

rad /ˈræd/ adj rad•der; rad•dest [also more ~; most ~] US slang : very appealing or good ▪ The party was totally rad. [=awesome, cool] ra•dar /ˈreɪˌdaə/ noun, pl -dars : a device that sends out radio waves for finding out the position and speed of a moving object (such as an airplane) [count] a powerful radar [noncount] The approaching planes were detected by radar. — often used figuratively in informal U.S. English ▪ A career in politics wasn't even on my radar (screen) at that point. [=I wasn't thinking at all about a career in politics] ▪ an actor who has fallen off the radar [=who has stopped being noticed or talked about] ▪ He tried to stay under the radar [=unnoticed] as he went about his business.

radar gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a small device that

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

uses radar to measure the speed of a moving object (such as a car or a ball)

[1]ra•di•al /'reɪdijəl/ adj : arranged or having parts arranged in straight lines coming out from the center of a circle ▪ the radial form of a starfish
– ra•di•al•ly adv ▪ The streets extend radially from the city's center.

[2]radial noun, pl -als [count] : a type of strong tire in which cords underneath the rubber run across the tire's surface — called also radial tire

ra•di•ance /'reɪdijəns/ noun
1 : a quality of brightness and happiness that can be seen on a person's face [singular] She had a youthful radiance about her. [noncount] Her face glowed with radiance.
2 [singular, noncount] : a warm, soft light that shines from something ▪ the radiance of the rising sun

ra•di•ant /'reɪdijənt/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an attractive quality of happiness, love, health, etc. ▪ a radiant smile ▪ She had a radiant inner glow. ▪ She looked radiant at her wedding.
2 [more ~; most ~] : bright and shining ▪ the radiant sun ▪ radiant blue skies
3 always used before a noun, technical : sent out from something in rays or waves that you cannot see ▪ radiant heat ▪ radiant energy – ra•di•ant•ly adv ▪ She smiled radiantly as she accepted the award.

ra•di•ate /'reɪdi,eɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go out in a direct line from a central point or area ▪ Spokes radiate (out/outward) from the center of the wheel.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move in a specified direction from a source ▪ The pain was radiating down my arm.
3 a [+ obj] : to send out (something, such as heat or energy) in rays ▪ The sun radiates heat and light. b [no obj] : to come or go out in the form of rays ▪ Heat radiates from the sun.
4 [+ obj] : to show (a feeling or quality) very clearly ▪ She has a smile that radiates warmth. ▪ He radiated pride in his achievements.

ra•di•a•tion /,reɪdi'eɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a type of dangerous and powerful energy that is produced by radioactive substances and nuclear reactions ▪ She was exposed to high levels of radiation.
2 medical : the use of controlled amounts of radiation for the treatment of diseases (such as cancer) ▪ He goes in for radiation next week. — called also radiation therapy, radiotherapy
3 a : energy that comes from a source in the form of waves or rays you cannot see ▪ ultraviolet radiation b technical : the process of giving off energy in the form of waves or rays you cannot see ▪ the sun's radiation of heat radiation sickness noun [noncount] medical : an illness that results from exposure to too much radiation ra•di•a•tor /'reɪdi,eɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a large, metal device that is next to the wall in a room and that becomes hot and provides heat for the room when hot water passes through it
2 : a device that is used to keep the engine of a vehicle from getting too hot — see picture at CAR

[1]rad•i•cal /'rædɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : very new and different from what is traditional or ordinary ▪ The computer has introduced radical innovations. ▪ radical ideas about education b : very basic and important ▪ There are some radical differences between the two proposals. ▪ The new president has made some radical changes to the company. ▪ radical reforms
2 : having extreme political or social views that are not shared by most people ▪ radical liberals/conservatives ▪ a radical wing of extremists
3 US slang, somewhat old-fashioned : very appealing or good ▪ The party was totally radical! [=cool]
– rad•i•cal•ly /'rædɪkli/ adv ▪ She has proposed a radically different approach to the problem. ▪ The hurricane radically changed the landscape. ▪ radically new technology
– rad•i•cal•ness noun [noncount]

[2]radical noun, pl -cals [count] : a person who favors extreme changes in government : a person who has radical political opinions ▪ He was a radical when he was young, but now he's much more moderate.

rad•i•cal•ism /'rædɪkə,lɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the opinions and behavior of people who favor extreme changes especially in government : radical political ideas and behavior ▪ political radicalism rad•i•cal•ize also Brit rad•i•cal•ise /'rædɪkə,laɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to become more radical especially in politics ▪ The war has radicalized an entire generation of young people.

ra•dic•chio /ræ'dɪkijoʊ/ noun, pl -chios [count, noncount] : a plant which has reddish or green leaves that have a bitter taste and that are eaten in salads

radii plural of RADIUS

[1]ra•dio /'reɪdi,oʊ/ noun, pl -di•os
1 [noncount] : the system or process that is used for sending and receiving signals through the air without using wires ▪ The news was sent/received by/over radio. — often used before another noun ▪ radio communications/signals
2 [noncount] : programs that are broadcast by radio ▪ I listen to the radio all the time. ▪ I heard the news/song on the radio. — often used before another noun ▪ radio programs/shows/stations — see also TALK RADIO
3 [count] a : a device that is used to receive the signals that are broadcast by radio ▪ There's a problem with the car's radio. ▪ a portable/transistor radio ▪ The radio was playing very loudly. ▪ Turn up/down/on/off the radio. b : a device that is used to send and receive messages by radio ▪ two-way radios ▪ The pilot's radio wasn't working.
4 [noncount] : the business that makes and broadcasts radio programs ▪ He became the most popular talk show host in radio. ▪ She is a powerful force in radio.

[2]radio verb -dios; -di•oed; -dio•ing : to send a message to someone by radio [no obj] The police radioed for backup. ▪ The stranded sailors were radioing for help. ▪ The pilot radioed in to the control tower. [+ obj] The police radioed a report back to the station. ▪ They radioed the Coast Guard for help.

ra•dio•ac•tive /,reɪdijoʊ'æktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or producing a powerful and dangerous form of energy (called radiation) ▪ Uranium and plutonium are radioactive. ▪ radioactive material/waste – ra•dio•ac•tive•ly adv – ra•dio•ac•tiv•i•ty /,reɪdijowæk'tɪvəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the radioactivity of certain elements ra•dio•car•bon dating /,reɪdijoʊ'kɑɚbən-/ noun [noncount] technical : CARBON DATING radio–controlled adj : controlled by radio signals sent from somewhere else ▪ a radio-controlled toy car ra•di•og•ra•phy /,reɪdi'ɑ:grəfi/ noun [noncount] medical : the process of taking a photograph of the inside of a person's body by using X-rays – ra•di•og•ra•pher /,reɪdi'ɑ:grəfɚ/ noun, pl -phers [count] medical ra•di•ol•o•gist /,reɪdi'ɑ:lə‿ʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] medical : a doctor who is trained in radiology ra•di•ol•o•gy /,reɪdi'ɑ:lə‿ʤi/ noun [noncount] medical : a branch of medicine that uses some forms of radiation (such as X-rays) to diagnose and treat diseases radio telescope noun, pl ~ -scopes [count] technical : a piece of equipment that receives radio waves from space and that is used for finding stars and other objects ra•dio•ther•a•py /,reɪdioʊ'θerəpi/ noun [noncount] medical : RADIATION 2

– ra•dio•ther•a•pist /,reɪdioʊ'θerəpɪst/ noun, pl -pists [count]

radio wave noun, pl ~ waves [count] : an electromagnetic wave that is used for sending signals through the air without using wires

rad•ish /'rædɪʃ/ noun, pl -ish•es [count] : a small, round vegetable that is red or white, is eaten raw in salads, and has a sharp spicy taste; also : the plant that produces this vegetable — see color picture on page C4; see also HORSERADISH ra•di•um /'reɪdijəm/ noun [noncount] : a radioactive element that is used medically in cancer treatments

ra•di•us /'reɪdijəs/ noun, pl ra•dii /'reɪdi,aɪ/ [count]
1 technical : a straight line from the center of a circle or sphere to any point on the outer edge ▪ Measure the radius of the circle.; also : the length of this line ▪ a radius of 10 inches — see picture at GEOMETRY; compare DIAMETER
2 : an area that goes outward in all directions from a particular place ▪ The new museum is expected to draw people from a wide radius. ▪ More than 100,000 students live within a 10-mile radius of the university. [=within 10 miles of the university] ▪ There are three restaurants within a one-block radius of our apartment.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

3 medical : the bone in the lower part of your arm on the same side as your thumb — see picture at HUMAN ra•don /'reɪˌdɑ:n/ noun [noncount] : a radioactive element which is a gas that is used medically in cancer treatments

RAF abbr Royal Air Force

raf•fia /'ræfijə/ noun [noncount] : material that looks like string, is made from palm leaves, and is used to make baskets, hats, etc.

raff•ish /'ræfɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not completely acceptable or respectable but interesting and attractive ▪ raffish charm ▪ raffish behavior ▪ He's a raffish character.
– raff•ish•ly adv – raff•ish•ness noun [noncount]

[1]raf•fle /'ræfəl/ noun, pl raf•fles [count] : a contest that a group or organization uses to earn money and that involves people buying numbered tickets in exchange for a chance to win a prize ▪ We're having a raffle to raise money for new playground equipment. ▪ We are selling raffle tickets.

[2]raffle verb raf•fles; raf•fled; raf•fling [+ obj] : to give (something) as a prize in a raffle — usually + off ▪ Our church will raffle off turkeys this Thanksgiving.

[1]raft /'ræft, Brit 'rɑ:ft/ noun, pl rafts [count]
1 : a flat structure that is used for floating or sailing on water
2 : a plastic or rubber boat that you have to fill with air in order to use — see also LIFE RAFT
– compare [2]RAFT

[2]raft noun, pl rafts [count] : a large amount or number or people or things ▪ a raft of political supporters — compare [1]RAFT

[1]raf•ter /'ræftɚ, Brit 'rɑ:ftə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : one of the large, long pieces of wood that support a roof — usually plural ▪ a room with beautiful exposed rafters — compare [2]RAFTER

[2]rafter noun, pl -ters [count] : a person who makes or travels in a raft ▪ whitewater rafters — compare [1]RAFTER

raft•ing /'ræftɪŋ, Brit 'rɑ:ftɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of traveling down a river on a raft ▪ whitewater rafting — often used before another noun ▪ a rafting trip ▪ rafting equipment

[1]rag /'ræg/ noun, pl rags
1 [count] : a piece of cloth that is old and no longer in good condition : a scrap of cloth ▪ She used a rag to mop up the spill. ▪ I tore the old towel into rags. — see also DO-RAG
2 rags [plural] a informal : CLOTHES ▪ expensive French rags — see also GLAD RAGS b : clothing that is in poor condition ▪ He threw away a bunch of old rags. ▪ a homeless person wearing rags = a homeless person (dressed) in rags
3 [count] informal : a newspaper of poor quality ▪ He's a writer for our local rag.
4 [count] : a piece of ragtime music ▪ a piano rag
a red rag to a bull see [1]RED chew the rag see [1]CHEW
from rags to riches : from being poor to being wealthy : from a state of having very little money to a state of having a lot of money ▪ She went from rags to riches overnight.

[2]rag verb rags; rag•ged; rag•ging informal : to laugh at and make jokes about (someone) [+ obj] The other kids ragged [=teased, razzed] him for having a crush on the teacher. [no obj] (US) — + on ▪ The other kids were always ragging on me because I wasn't good at sports.

rag•a•muf•fin /'rægəˌmʌfən/ noun, pl -fins [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a child who is dressed in rags and is usually dirty and poor rag•bag /'rægˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] chiefly Brit : a collection of very different things ▪ a ragbag of ideas

rag doll noun, pl ~ dolls [count] : a soft doll made of cloth

[1]rage /'reɪʤ/ noun, pl rag•es
1 a [noncount] : a strong feeling of anger that is difficult to control ▪ Her note to him was full of rage. ▪ He was shaking with rage. ▪ a fit of rage — see also ROAD RAGE synonyms see [1]ANGER b [count] : a sudden expression of violent anger ▪ She was seized by a murderous rage. ▪ His rages rarely last more than a few minutes. ▪ He flew into a rage. [=he suddenly became extremely angry]
2 [singular] a : something that is suddenly very popular ▪ Karaoke is (all) the rage these days. [=karaoke is very popular] b : a strong desire by many people to have or do something — + for ▪ I don't understand the current rage for flavored coffee. [=I don't understand why flavored coffee is so popular]

[2]rage verb rages; raged; rag•ing [no obj]
1 : to talk in an extremely angry way ▪ She raged about the injustice of their decision. ▪ Protesters and activists have raged against the company [=have angrily criticized the company] for years. : to shout loudly and angrily ▪ The manager raged at the umpire.
2 : to happen or continue in a destructive, violent, or intense way ▪ A storm was raging outside, but we were warm and comfortable indoors. ▪ The fire raged for hours. — often + on ▪ The debate rages on in Congress.

rag•ged /'rægəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having an edge or surface that is not straight or even ▪ a ragged outline ▪ ragged [=(more commonly) jagged] cliffs
2 a : in bad condition especially because of being torn ▪ a ragged dress ▪ a boy in ragged jeans ▪ the notebook's ragged [=tattered] pages b : wearing clothes that are torn and in poor condition ▪ a ragged orphan
3 : tired from effort or stress ▪ You look a little ragged—did you have a rough week?
4 : not as good as possible : having good parts and bad parts ▪ a ragged performance
5 : harsh and not regular : not smooth or even ▪ The patient's breathing is ragged. ▪ a ragged cough/breath on the ragged edge US, informal : very close to failure ▪ We are running on the ragged edge financially. ▪ Our budget is on the ragged edge as it is.
run (someone) ragged informal : to make (someone) very tired ▪ All this travel is running me ragged! ▪ He was run ragged [=worn out] with/by all the travel.
– rag•ged•ly adv ▪ coughing raggedly ▪ dressed raggedly – rag•ged•ness noun [noncount]

rag•gedy /'rægədi/ adj rag•ged•i•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] informal : not in good condition : RAGGED ▪ a raggedy old doll ▪ raggedy clothes ▪ a raggedy group of soldiers raging adj, always used before a noun

1 : very wild and violent ▪ a raging storm ▪ The fire quickly turned into a raging inferno.
2 : very great, strong, or impressive ▪ raging ambition ▪ The book was a raging success.
3 : causing a lot of pain or distress ▪ a raging headache ▪ her raging anguish rag•lan /'ræglən/ adj, always used before a noun : attached at a line that goes from your neck to the area under your arm ▪ a sweater with raglan sleeves; also : having sleeves like this ▪ a raglan sweater/shirt ra•gout /ræ'gu:/ noun, pl -gouts [count, noncount] : a stew of meat, vegetables, and spices rag•tag /'rægˌtæg/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : made up of different people or things and not organized or put together well ▪ a ragtag group of musicians rag•time /'rægˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : a type of lively music that is often played on the piano and that was very popular in the U.S. in the early part of the 20th century rag•top /'rægˌtɑ:p/ noun, pl -tops [count] chiefly US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a car with a roof that can be folded down : CONVERTIBLE rag trade noun

the rag trade chiefly Brit, informal : the business of designing, making, and selling clothes : the fashion industry rag•weed /'rægˌwi:d/ noun [noncount] : any one of a group of North American plants that release a lot of pollen into the air and that can cause allergic reactions in some people

rah–rah /'rɑ:ˌrɑ:/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : showing a lot of enthusiasm usually in a way that is annoying ▪ We were getting sick of his rah-rah attitude about the school. ▪ rah-rah cheerleaders

[1]raid /'reɪd/ noun, pl raids [count]
1 : a surprise attack on an enemy by soldiers or other military forces ▪ They launched/mounted a raid against the enemy. ▪ The building was destroyed in a bombing raid. [=a surprise attack in which bombs are used] — see also AIR RAID
2 : an occurrence in which police suddenly enter a place in a forceful way to find criminals, illegal drugs, etc. ▪ Weapons were also seized during the drug raid. ▪ They caught five smugglers in the raid.
3 chiefly Brit : an act of going into a place (such as a bank) in order to steal something : HEIST ▪ a bank raid

[2]raid verb raids; raid•ed; raid•ing [+ obj]
1 : to attack (a place or group) in a sudden and unexpected way ▪ The village was raided often by neighboring tribes.
2 a : to enter (a place) suddenly in a forceful way in order to look for someone or something ▪ Police raided the house and

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

found drugs. ▪ Federal agents raided the warehouse, seizing stolen property and arresting five smugglers. b : to enter (a place) in order to steal or take something ▪ Two armed men raided [=(more commonly) robbed] the bank on Tuesday. ▪ The boys raided the fridge [=took food from the refrigerator] when they got home from soccer practice. ▪ She raided her sister's closet to find something to wear to the party.
– raiding adj ▪ The village needs protection from raiding tribes. ▪ a raiding party [=a group of people who attack a place or group]

raid•er /ˈreɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who suddenly and unexpectedly attacks a place or group ▪ The village needs protection from enemy raiders.
2 : a person who enters a place in order to steal or take something ▪ Raiders had emptied the tomb of treasure.
3 : a person who tries to take control of a business by buying a lot of its stock ▪ He made his fortune as a corporate raider.

[1]rail /ˈreɪl/ noun, pl rails
1 [count] a : a bar that goes from one post or support to another and that is used to form a barrier ▪ She leaned over the rail of the ship. ▪ We sat on the fence rail and watched the cows. — see picture at HOUSE; see also GUARDRAIL, HANDRAIL b : a bar used to hang something from ▪ He hung the curtains on the rail.
2 a [count] : one of the bars of steel that form a train's track — usually plural ▪ The train went off the rails. = (chiefly Brit) The train jumped the rails. — see also THIRD RAIL b [noncount] : [1]RAILROAD ▪ transportation by rail ▪ commuter rail [=part of a railroad made especially for people who work in a city but live outside it] — often used before another noun ▪ rail travel ▪ passenger rail service [=trains that take passengers rather than cargo] between the two cities — see also MONORAIL go off the rails informal : to lose control and start to behave in a way that is not normal or acceptable ▪ He was a promising student but he went off the rails after he started taking drugs. ▪ The government has gone (completely) off the rails.

[2]rail verb rails; railed; rail•ing [+ obj] : to use rails to create a barrier around or at the edge of (something) — usually + off ▪ They've railed off [=(more commonly) fenced off] the garden. — compare [3]RAIL
– railed adj ▪ a railed balcony/platform

[3]rail verb rail; railed; railing [no obj] formal : to complain angrily about something ▪ old men railing at/against the government ▪ The workers railed about the unfair treatment they'd received. — compare [2]RAIL rail•card /ˈreɪlˌkɑɚd/ noun, pl -cards [count] Brit : a card that you can use to buy railroad tickets at a price that is lower than the usual price ▪ a student railcard rail•ing /ˈreɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a barrier that is made of rails supported by posts ▪ He leaned on the deck's railing and watched the sun set. — see picture at HOUSE rail•lery /ˈreɪlərɪ/ noun [noncount] formal : friendly joking about or with somebody ▪ affectionate raillery

rail•man /ˈreɪlmən/ noun, pl -men [count] Brit : RAILWAYMAN

[1]rail•road /ˈreɪlˌroʊd/ noun, pl -roads [count] US
1 : a system of tracks on which trains travel ▪ a transcontinental railroad [=(chiefly Brit) railway] — often used before another noun ▪ a railroad station ▪ railroad cars/workers/travel
2 : a company that owns and operates trains ▪ an employee of the railroad [=(chiefly Brit) railway]

[2]railroad verb -roads; -road•ed; -road•ing [+ obj]
1 : to force (something) to be officially approved or accepted without much discussion or thought ▪ a controversial law that is being railroaded through Congress ▪ a bill that was railroaded into law
2 US : to convict (someone) of a crime unfairly ▪ They claim she was railroaded.
3 : to force (someone) into doing something quickly or without enough information — usually + into ▪ He railroaded her into signing the contract. ▪ She's trying to railroad us into buying the house.
– rail•road•er noun, pl -ers [count] US ▪ He worked as a railroader [=a person who works for a railroad company] all his life. – rail•road•ing noun [noncount] ▪ the history of railroading [=of trains, railroads, the people who work on them, etc.]

railroad crossing noun, pl ~ -ings [count] US : a place where a road crosses railroad tracks — called also (Brit) level crossing rail•way /ˈreɪlˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] chiefly Brit : [1]RAILROAD rail•way•man /ˈreɪlˌweɪmən/ noun, pl -men [count] Brit : a man who works for a railroad company

rai•ment /ˈreɪmənt/ noun [noncount] literary : CLOTHING ▪ gorgeous/glamorous raiment

[1]rain /ˈreɪn/ noun, pl rains
1 : water that falls in drops from clouds in the sky [noncount] The weatherman forecasts rain for this afternoon. ▪ We could hear the sound of (the) rain on the roof. ▪ Everyone went inside when the rain began to fall. ▪ He was standing outside in the pouring rain. [=rain falling in large drops and with a lot of force] ▪ Take an umbrella with you. It looks like rain. [=the sky looks the way it does when there is going to be rain] [count] spring/summer rains ▪ What the garden needs is a good, soaking rain. ▪ A light/heavy rain began to fall. ▪ There has been some flooding due to the recent heavy rains. — see also ACID RAIN
2 [noncount] : weather in which there is a lot of rain : rainy weather ▪ We've had a week of rain.
3 rains [plural] : large amounts of rain that fall at a particular time of year ▪ The rains came and flooded the valley.
4 [singular] : a large amount of something falling from above ▪ a rain of ash/ashes
(as) right as rain see [1]RIGHT rain or shine or come rain, come shine or come rain or come shine — used to say that something will happen even it rains ▪ The party will be on Tuesday, rain or shine. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I'll always love you, come rain or come shine. [=I will love you no matter what happens]
– rain•less adj ▪ a rainless week

[2]rain verb rains; rained; rain•ing
1 [no obj] — used with it to say that rain is falling ▪ Take an umbrella with you. It's raining. [=rain is falling from the sky] ▪ The weatherman said it will rain later this afternoon. ▪ It rained all day. ▪ It's raining (pretty) hard/heavily. [=there is a lot of rain falling] ▪ It's raining lightly. [=there is a small amount or rain falling]
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to fall from above in large amounts ▪ Ashes rained (down) from the volcano. ▪ Sparks from the fireworks rained on the field.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to fall in large amounts ▪ The volcano rained ashes on the city. ▪ The boxers rained blows/punches on each other. [=the boxers hit each other many times] be rained out (US) or Brit be rained off : to be canceled because of rain ▪ Today's game was rained out and will be played tomorrow instead.
rain cats and dogs informal : to rain very hard rain on someone's parade US, informal : to spoil someone's pleasure ▪ I don't mean to rain on your parade, but I have some bad news.
when it rains, it pours (US) or chiefly Brit it never rains but it pours informal — used to say that when something bad happens other bad things usually happen at the same time ▪ The team not only lost the game but three of its best players were injured. When it rains, it pours.

[1]rain•bow /ˈreɪnˌboʊ/ noun, pl -bows [count] : a curved line of different colors that sometimes appears in the sky when the sun shines through rain

[2]rainbow adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or including people of different races, cultures, etc. ▪ a rainbow coalition

rain check noun, pl ~ checks [count] US
1 : a ticket given to people so that they can go to another event (such as a baseball game) if the one they were watching or planning to go to is canceled or stopped because of rain
2 : a promise to allow someone to buy or do something in the future because it is not possible to buy or do it now ▪ The store offered rain checks when the sale items had all sold. ▪ She asked if she could have/take a rain check on the invitation for dinner. [=she said she wasn't able to come to dinner and asked if she could be invited again at a future time] ▪ "Would you like to go to lunch with me?" "I'm afraid I can't today. Can I take a rain check?" [=can I go to lunch with you another day?]

rain•coat /ˈreɪnˌkoʊt/ noun, pl -coats [count] : a coat that you wear when it rains in order to stay dry — see color picture on page C15 rain date noun, pl ~ dates [count] US : a date for something to happen if it cannot happen on its original date because of rain ▪ The bike trip is scheduled for May 18th, with a rain date of May 25th.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

rain•drop /ˈreɪnˌdrɑːp/ noun, pl -drops [count] : a single drop of rain rain•fall /ˈreɪnˌfɑːl/ noun, pl -falls : the amount of rain that falls on a particular area [count] This area has an average annual rainfall of 12 inches. ▪ areas with heavy rainfalls [noncount] an increase in annual rainfall rain forest noun, pl ~ -ests [count, noncount] : a tropical forest that receives a lot of rain and that has very tall trees ▪ the Amazon rain forest — called also tropical rain forest rain•proof /ˈreɪnˌpruːf/ adj : able to keep rain out : not allowing rain to come through ▪ a rainproof jacket ▪ The tent is rainproof.

rain•storm /ˈreɪnˌstoəm/ noun, pl -storms [count] : a storm that produces rain rain•wa•ter /ˈreɪnˌwɑːtə/ noun [noncount] : water that falls as rain ▪ a bucket filled with rainwater

rain•wear /ˈreɪnˌweə/ noun [noncount] : clothing that you wear when it rains in order to stay dry rainy /ˈreɪni/ adj rain•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a lot of rain ▪ It's been rainy all day today. [=rain has been falling all day] ▪ rainy weather for a rainy day informal : for a time in the future when something will be needed ▪ He set a little money aside for a rainy day. [=he saved a little money so that he would have it if he needed it in the future] ▪ I have some money that I'm saving for a rainy day.

[1]raise /ˈreɪz/ verb rais•es; raised; rais•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to lift or move (something or someone) to a higher position ▪ Raise your hand if you know the answer. ▪ Raise your arms above your head. ▪ He raised his head and looked around. ▪ She raised her eyes from her book and stared at him. ▪ He raised the cup to his lips and drank. ▪ I raised the lid and peeked inside. ▪ Let's raise the windows and get some fresh air in here. ▪ We raised the flag to the top of the pole.

b : to lift or move (something or someone) to a standing or more upright position ▪ They raised [=erected, put up] a flagpole in the quadrangle. ▪ I carefully raised her to a sitting position. ▪ She raised herself onto her knees. — often + up ▪ He slowly raised himself up off the floor. ▪ The men raised up the barn's walls with pulleys. — opposite LOWER

2 a : to increase the amount or level of (something) ▪ Our landlord is raising the rent. ▪ The store is raising its prices. ▪ The governor wants to raise the minimum wage. ▪ He matched the bet and then raised it. ▪ The college is raising its standards for admission. ▪ Exercise raises your body temperature. ▪ The ad campaign is intended to raise awareness of the importance of a healthy diet. ▪ Exposure to secondhand smoke raises the risk of lung cancer. ▪ The captain tried to raise the spirits of his crew. [=the captain tried to cheer them up] b : to increase the quality of (something) ▪ She needs to raise her game in the play-offs. [=she needs to play better in the play-offs]

3 : to collect (money) from people for a particular cause ▪ The organization is raising money to help the hurricane victims. — usually + for ▪ The students are raising money for their school.

4 : to form (something, such as an army) by gathering a group of people together ▪ The rebels were able to raise an army quickly.

5 a : to mention (something) for people to think or talk about ▪ The issue of money was never raised. ▪ I'm sorry that I have to raise this subject, but we can't ignore it any longer.

b : to cause people to think about or be aware of (something) ▪ The book raises many questions about our biological origins. ▪ The discovery raises the possibility of a cure for the disease. [=the discovery makes it possible that a cure for the disease will be found]

6 : to cause (something) to happen or exist : to produce (something) ▪ The news raised hopes for peace. ▪ The news raised fears of war. ▪ Her comment raised a few smiles/laughs. ▪ He was so tired he could barely raise a smile. [=he could barely smile] ▪ The laws were passed without raising much opposition. ▪ A passerby saw the intruders and raised [=sounded] the alarm. ▪ The audience raised a cheer [=the audience cheered] at the end of the speech. ▪ Some people are raising a ruckus/fuss/stink [=are complaining or objecting very angrily] about the proposed tax.

7 chiefly US : to take care of and teach (a child) : to bring up or rear (a child) ▪ We have raised two wonderful girls. ▪ They have raised their children to be well-mannered. ▪ She was raised by her grandparents. ▪ He was raised (as) a Baptist. = He was raised Baptist. ▪ My dad was raised on a farm. ▪ Some kids are raised on (a diet of) junk food. ▪ I was born and raised here. ▪ This is a wonderful place to raise a family.

8 : to keep and take care of (animals or crops) ▪ He raises [=breeds] chickens on his farm. ▪ They're raising [=growing] corn this year.

9 : to cause (a dead person) to live again : RESURRECT ▪ He claimed that he could raise people from the dead. = He claimed that he could raise the dead. ▪ That noise is loud enough to raise the dead.

10 formal : to stop or remove (something that is preventing or blocking an activity) often for only a short period of time ▪ They raised the siege/embargo/blockade. ▪ The city has temporarily raised [=lifted] its ban on smoking in bars.

11 : to build (a monument, statue, etc.) : ERECT ▪ The city raised a monument in his honor.

12 mathematics : to multiply (a number) by itself a specified number of times ▪ Raise two to the fourth power. ▪ Two raised to the fourth power is 16.

13 : to get (someone) to speak with you on a radio : to contact (someone) by radio ▪ We tried to raise him on the radio, but we couldn't get through.

14 : to bet more than (a previous player in a card game) ▪ I'll match that bet and raise you five. [=I'll increase your bet by 5]

raise a glass see [1]GLASS

raise an/your eyebrow, raise eyebrows see EYEBROW

raise Cain US, old-fashioned 1 : to behave wildly and make a lot of noise ▪ They were always getting drunk and raising Cain. 2 : to complain in a loud or angry way ▪ The townsfolk raised Cain [=raised hell] about the tax increase.

raise hell see HELL

raise its ugly head see [1]HEAD

raise the bar see [1]BAR

raise the roof see [1]ROOF

raise your voice : to speak loudly especially because you are angry ▪ Don't you raise your voice at me! ▪ The baby is sleeping, so try not to raise your voice. ▪ Many people raised their voices [=spoke out] in protest. = Many voices were raised in protest.

[2]raise noun, pl raises [count] US : an increase in the amount of your pay ▪ I asked my boss for a raise. [=(Brit) rise] ▪ a raise in salary = a pay raise raised adj : higher than the surrounding area or surface ▪ a raised platform ▪ a raised flower bed ▪ a plaque with raised lettering raised ranch noun, pl ~ ranches [count] US : a house that has two floors with its front entry located between the floors rai•sin /ˈreɪzn̩/ noun, pl -sins [count] : a dried grape used for food — see also GOLDEN RAISIN rai•son d'être /ˌreɪˌzoʊnˈdɛtrə/ noun, pl rai•sons d'être /ˌreɪˌzoʊnzˈdɛtrə/ [count] formal : the thing that is most important to someone or something : the reason for which a person or organization exists ▪ Art is his raison d'être.

ra•ja or ra•jah /ˈrɑːʤə/ noun, pl -jas or -jahs [count] : a king or prince in India

[1]rake /ˈreɪk/ noun, pl rakes [count] : a tool that has a series of metal, wooden, or plastic pieces at the end of a long handle and that is used to gather leaves, break apart soil, make ground smooth, etc. ▪ a leaf rake — compare [3]RAKE, [4]RAKE

[2]rake verb rakes; raked; rak•ing

1 : to use a rake to gather leaves, break apart soil, make ground smooth, etc. [+ obj] rake (up) leaves ▪ I raked the gravel smooth. ▪ Rake (out) the soil until it's level. ▪ rake the lawn [=use a rake to remove leaves, sticks, etc., from the lawn] [no obj] We raked all afternoon.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to move (your fingers or something similar) through or along something ▪ He raked his fingers through his hair. ▪ The cat raked its claws along/down the post.

3 [+ obj] : to shoot many bullets along (something) ▪ Two men raked the car with gunfire.

4 [no obj] Brit, informal : to search through something by using your hand ▪ He raked [=rifled] through the drawers, trying to find the letter. ▪ She raked around in her handbag.

rake in [phrasal verb] informal 1 rake (something) in or rake in (something) : to earn or receive (a large amount of money) ▪ The movie raked in over $300 million. 2 rake it in

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

: to earn a lot of money ▪ The owners of that restaurant must be really raking it in.

rake over [phrasal verb] rake over (something) chiefly Brit, informal : to continue to think or talk about (something that happened in the past) ▪ Don't spend so much time raking over the past.

rake (someone) over the coals see COAL

rake up [phrasal verb] rake (something) up or rake up (something) informal : to talk about (something unpleasant that happened in the past) ▪ There's no need to rake those old controversies up again. ▪ She didn't like to rake up [=dredge up] bad memories.

[3]rake noun [singular] : an upward or downward slant : SLOPE ▪ the slight/steep rake of the stage ▪ the forward rake of the barge — compare [1]RAKE, [4]RAKE rake–off /ˈreɪkˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a share of a profit that is usually earned illegally ▪ The bookmaker took a 20 percent rake-off.

[4]rake noun, pl rakes [count] old-fashioned : a man who leads an immoral life and is mainly interested in pleasure ▪ a selfish rake — compare [1]RAKE, [3]RAKE

rak•ish /ˈreɪkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 somewhat old-fashioned : having an unusual quality that is attractive and stylish ▪ a rakish smile ▪ He wore his hat at a rakish angle. [=tipped to one side in a way that is attractive]
2 old-fashioned, of a man : immoral and devoted to pleasure ▪ a rakish [=dissolute] aristocrat – rak•ish•ly adv ▪ He smiled rakishly.

[1]ral•ly /ˈræli/ noun, pl -lies [count]
1 : a public meeting to support or oppose someone or something ▪ a political rally ▪ Supporters held a rally for the candidate. ▪ Protesters staged an antiwar rally. ▪ a youth rally [=a public meeting for teenagers and young adults] — see also PEP RALLY
2 finance : an increase in price or value after a decrease in price or value ▪ Stock prices are up after the dollar's rally yesterday.
3 sports : an occurrence in which a team or player that has been behind or playing badly begins to play well ▪ The team's late-game rally [=comeback] helped them win the game.
4 sports : a continuous series of hits back and forth between players in tennis or a similar game ▪ She ended the rally with a hard overhand shot to the far corner.
5 : a car race that is usually held on public roads ▪ a road rally ▪ a professional rally driver

[2]rally verb -lies; -lied; -ly•ing
1 a [no obj] : to meet publicly to support or oppose something : to come together for a rally ▪ His supporters will rally tomorrow morning outside the capitol. b [+ obj] : to cause (people) to join together to publicly support or oppose something ▪ The group is trying to rally voters for the election. ▪ The shootings rallied protesters who say the city neglects poorer neighborhoods.
2 [no obj] : to publicly support or oppose something or someone as a group ▪ Many people in the community have rallied to the mayor's side. [=have publicly shown support for the mayor] ▪ Parents rallied for/behind [=publicly showed support for] the new dress code guidelines. ▪ Students rallied against [=publicly showed opposition to] the new dress code guidelines.; also : to join together as a group to do something ▪ Concerned people around the country have rallied (together) to help raise money for the victims.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (a group of people) to have new energy and enthusiasm in a difficult time or situation ▪ The coach rallied his players for the second half of the game. ▪ As the deadline approached, it was clear that we needed to rally the troops. [=to urge everyone to work harder]
4 [no obj] : to improve suddenly after a period of weakness, failure, etc. ▪ We were trailing for most of the game, but we rallied in the fourth quarter and ended up winning. ▪ Stocks rallied [=increased in price or value] at the close of trading today. ▪ The patient briefly rallied [=got healthier] but then became much worse and died a few days later.

rally around or chiefly Brit rally round [phrasal verb] rally around/round (someone or something) : to join together to support (someone or something) in a difficult time or situation ▪ We rallied around our neighbors when their house burned down. ▪ When the town library lost its funding, the community rallied around it.

rallying cry noun, pl ~ cries [count] : a word or phrase that is used to make people join together to support an idea, cause, etc. ▪ the rallying cry of a political movement ▪ "We believe!" became the rallying cry of the fans.

rallying point noun, pl ~ points [count] : someone or something that makes people join together to support a person, cause, etc. ▪ His promise to improve education has become a rallying point for his supporters.

[1]ram /ræm/ noun, pl rams [count]
1 : an adult male sheep — compare EWE, [1]LAMB
2 a : a piece of machinery that is used to hit or lift something else ▪ a hydraulic ram b : BATTERING RAM

[2]ram verb rams; rammed; ram•ming
1 a : to forcefully hit something [+ obj] His car/boat rammed mine. ▪ They deliberately rammed my car from behind. [no obj] They rammed [=crashed] into my car from behind. ▪ The car slid and rammed against the wall. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to forcefully hit something ▪ He deliberately rammed his car into mine. ▪ She rammed her fist against the wall in anger.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to push (something) into a position or place with force ▪ She rammed the cork into the barrel. ▪ He opened the chute and rammed the clothes down. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The law was rammed [=pushed] through Congress.

ram (something) down someone's throat see THROAT

ram (something) home : to make (something) very clear and obvious in a forceful way ▪ He tried to ram home the importance of meeting the deadline. ▪ She hoped that the pictures and examples would ram her point home.

RAM /ræm/ noun [noncount] computers : the part of a computer in which information is stored temporarily when a program is being used ▪ My computer is slow because it needs more RAM. — called also random-access memory; compare ROM

Ram•a•dan /ˈrɑːməˌdɑːn, Brit ˈræməˌdæn/ noun, pl -dans [count, noncount] : the ninth month of the Islamic year when Muslims do not eat or drink anything between sunrise and sunset

[1]ram•ble /ˈræmbəl/ verb ram•bles; ram•bled; ram•bling [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to walk or go from one place to another place without a specific goal, purpose, or direction ▪ He often rambled [=roamed] around/about the countryside in an old truck. ▪ She rambled [=wandered] along the riverbank. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The trail rambles [=meanders] through the woods for miles.
2 : to go from one subject to another without any clear purpose or direction ▪ She rambled for several minutes before introducing the main speaker. ▪ He's funny, but he tends to ramble. — often + on ▪ The novel's first chapter rambles on for about 100 pages.

[2]ramble noun, pl rambles [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a long walk for pleasure ▪ We went for a ramble along the beach. ▪ He encountered many interesting people in his rambles in the country.
2 : a long speech or piece of writing that goes from one subject to another without any clear purpose or direction ▪ The first chapter is a 100-page ramble. ▪ We had to listen to another one of his long rambles about politics and religion.

ram•bler /ˈræmblə/ noun, pl -blers [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a person who goes on long walks for pleasure
2 : a plant that grows up and over fences, walls, etc. ▪ These roses are ramblers, so they will eventually cover the fence.

[1]ram•bling /ˈræmblɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 of a building : big and having many rooms that are arranged in an irregular shape ▪ a rambling old farmhouse
2 : not having a specific goal, purpose, or direction ▪ a rambling car ride ▪ a rambling lecture
3 of a plant : growing up and over fences, walls, etc., in an irregular way ▪ rambling roses

[2]rambling noun, pl -blings
1 [noncount] chiefly Brit : the activity of walking for pleasure : HIKING ▪ She enjoys rambling, swimming, and biking. ▪ Would you like to go rambling?
2 ramblings [plural] : spoken or written words that go from one subject to another without any clear purpose or direction ▪ We ignored her drunken ramblings.

ram•bunc•tious /ræmˈbʌŋkʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : uncontrolled in a way that is playful or full of energy ▪ a class full of rambunctious [=boisterous, (Brit) rumbustious] children ▪ a rambunctious crowd/audience

ram•e•kin /ˈræməkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] : a small, usually round bowl that has steep sides and that is used for cooking and serving food for one person

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

ra•men /ˈrɑːmən/ noun [noncount] : very thin, long noodles used in Asian cooking ▪ a bowl of ramen ram•i•fi•ca•tion /ˌræməfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal : something that is the result of an action, decision, etc. — usually plural ▪ They discussed the possible ramifications [=consequences] of the new treaty. ▪ The government's actions in this case could have major political ramifications.

[1]ramp /ˈræmp/ noun, pl ramps [count]
1 US : a usually sloping road that connects a road to a highway ▪ an exit/entrance ramp — called also (Brit) slip road; see also OFF-RAMP, ON-RAMP
2 : a piece of equipment with a slope that is used to join two surfaces that are at different levels or heights ▪ The loading dock has a ramp. ▪ a wheelchair ramp [=a ramp for someone in a wheelchair to use instead of stairs to enter into a building]

[2]ramp verb ramps; ramped; ramp•ing
ramp up [phrasal verb] ramp up or ramp up (something) or ramp (something) up : to increase or to cause (something) to increase in speed, size, etc. ▪ Work started slowly, but now we're ramping up to full speed. ▪ The company has been ramping up production. ▪ The work is going too slowly. We need to ramp it up a bit.

[1]ram•page /ˈræmˌpeɪʤ/ noun, pl -pag•es [count] : an occurrence of wild and usually destructive behavior ▪ a murderous rampage ▪ (chiefly US) Rioters were/went on a rampage, looting shops and setting fires. = (chiefly Brit) Rioters were/went on the rampage.

[2]rampage verb -pages; -paged; -pag•ing [no obj] : to act or move in a wild and usually destructive way ▪ Rioters rampaged through the streets of the city. ▪ rampaging soccer fans

ram•pant /ˈræmpənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 usually disapproving — used to describe something that is very common or that is spreading very quickly and in a way that is difficult to control ▪ There is evidence of rampant corruption in the local government. ▪ rampant crime/disease ▪ Rumors of her engagement were rampant. = Rumors of her engagement ran rampant. [=there were many rumors that she was engaged to be married]
2 : growing quickly and in a way that is difficult to control ▪ a weed that's rampant in this area
– ram•pant•ly adv

ram•part /ˈræmˌpɑɚt/ noun, pl -parts [count] : a tall, thick stone or dirt wall that is built around a castle, town, etc., to protect it from attacks — usually plural ▪ The city's ramparts crumbled long ago.

ram–raiding noun [noncount] Brit : the crime of driving a car or truck into a store window in order to steal the things that are in the store ram•rod /ˈræmˌrɑːd/ noun, pl -rods [count] : a metal bar that is used to push explosive material down into the barrel of some old-fashioned guns straight as a ramrod or ramrod straight : in a very straight and stiff way — used especially to describe the way someone stands or sits ▪ The guard stood straight as a ramrod. ▪ He sat in the saddle, ramrod straight.

ram•shack•le /ˈræmˌʃækəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a very bad condition and needing to be repaired ▪ a ramshackle [=dilapidated] old house ▪ a ramshackle [=run-down] neighborhood
2 : not carefully made or put together ▪ The movie's ramshackle plot is confusing and not believable.

ran past tense of [1]RUN

[1]ranch /ˈrænʧ, Brit ˈrɑːnʧ/ noun, pl ranch•es [count]
1 : a large farm especially in the U.S. where animals (such as cattle, horses, and sheep) are raised — see also DUDE RANCH
2 chiefly US : a farm for a special crop or kind of animal ▪ an almond ranch ▪ a cattle/mink ranch
3 US : RANCH HOUSE 2 — see also RAISED RANCH

[2]ranch verb ranches; ranched; ranch•ing
1 : to live or work on a ranch [no obj] My grandfather started ranching here 150 years ago. [+ obj] The family has ranched 10,000 acres here for the past 150 years.
2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to raise (an animal) on a ranch ▪ The family has been ranching cattle here for 150 years.

ranch dressing noun, pl ~ -ings [count, noncount] US : a creamy salad dressing ranch•er /ˈrænʧɚ, Brit ˈrɑːnʧə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who lives or works on a ranch ▪ a cattle rancher ranch house noun, pl ~ houses [count]

1 : the main house on a ranch
2 US : a house that has a single story and a roof that is not very steep ranching noun [noncount] : the activity of raising animals on a ranch ▪ cattle ranching ▪ The land is highly suitable for ranching.

ran•cid /ˈrænsəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 of food : having a strong and unpleasant smell or taste from no longer being fresh ▪ rancid butter ▪ Some foods become/go/turn rancid quickly.
2 chiefly US : full of anger and bitterness ▪ The argument turned rancid.

ran•cor (US) or Brit ran•cour /ˈræŋkɚ/ noun [noncount] formal : an angry feeling of hatred or dislike for someone who has treated you unfairly ▪ She answered her accusers calmly and without rancor. ▪ In the end, the debate created a degree of rancor among the committee members.
– ran•cor•ous (US) or Brit ran•cour•ous /ˈræŋkərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a rancorous debate rand /ˈrænd/ noun, pl rand [count] : the basic unit of money in the Republic of South Africa

R & B abbr rhythm and blues ▪ an R & B band = a band that plays R & B

R & D abbr research and development ▪ She works for a computer firm doing R & D. ▪ She works in the R & D department.

ran•dom /ˈrændəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : chosen, done, etc., without a particular plan or pattern ▪ a random sequence of letters ▪ A random sample/sampling/selection of doctors from around the country were selected for the study. ▪ We tasted the wines in random order and then rated each. ▪ a random collection of buttons ▪ random drug testing ▪ She collects random photographs that she finds in antique shops. ▪ Pick a random word on the page. ▪ The computer program generates a list of random numbers.
at random : in a way that does not follow a particular plan or pattern ▪ Our names were chosen/selected/picked at random from the list. ▪ People drifted in and out of the gallery at random all evening.
– ran•dom•ly adv ▪ The ropes had been cut randomly to different lengths. ▪ We were each asked to randomly pick a word on the page. – ran•dom•ness noun [noncount] random–access memory noun [noncount] : RAM ran•dom•ize also Brit ran•dom•ise /ˈrændəˌmaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] technical : to arrange or choose (something) in a random way or order : to make (something) random ▪ The numbers have been randomized. ▪ a randomized selection/sequence ▪ A randomized study of patients treated with the drug showed it to be effective.

R & R abbr rest and recreation; rest and recuperation; rest and relaxation ▪ We rented a cottage in the country to get a little R & R.

randy /ˈrændi/ adj rand•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit, informal : sexually excited ▪ a randy [=horny] bachelor ▪ She was feeling a little randy.

rang past tense of [3]RING

[1]range /ˈreɪnʤ/ noun, pl rang•es
1 [count] : a group or collection of different things or people that are usually similar in some way — usually singular; usually + of ▪ We'll be covering a range of topics in this class. ▪ The rugs are available in a range of colors. ▪ The new computer system should solve a whole range of problems.
2 [count] : a series of numbers that includes the highest and lowest possible amounts — usually singular ▪ What's the salary range for the job? [=what are the highest and lowest salaries that people are paid for the job?] ▪ The car is out of our price range. [=it is too expensive] ▪ Bicycles come in every price range. ▪ The game is designed for children in the 7 to 13 age range. ▪ His blood pressure is in the normal range. ▪ Tickets cost in the $200 range. [=tickets cost approximately $200]
3 [count] : the total amount of ability, knowledge, experience, etc., that a person has — usually singular ▪ an actor with an impressive range [=an impressive ability to act many roles] ▪ The technical vocabulary is a little outside my range (of expertise).
4 [count] : all of the notes that a particular person can sing or that a particular musical instrument can make — usually singular ▪ The song is out of my vocal range. ▪ The singer's range has gotten broader over the years.
5 a : a specified distance [noncount] The photograph was taken at close/short range. [=taken from a close distance] ▪ You can see the whole playing field at long range. [=from far away] [count] Both photographs were shot at close ranges.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

b : the distance over which someone or something can see, hear, or reach someone or something else [noncount] We were within the siren's range. = We were within range of the siren. [=we could hear the siren] ▪ I can't get the radio station west of the mountains because I'm out of range there. ▪ She told the children not to wander out of range of her voice/vision. ▪ The troops were within range of the enemy's artillery. [count] a missile with a 400-mile range = a missile with a range of 400 miles ▪ The antenna gives the radio a range of about 20 miles. c [count] : the distance that an airplane or other vehicle can travel before it needs more fuel ▪ The airplane has a 1,200-mile range. = The airplane has a range of 1,200 miles.

6 [count] : a series of mountains or hills in a line ▪ the northern and southern mountain ranges — sometimes used in the names of mountain ranges ▪ the Cascade Range

7 US : open land that farm animals (such as cows and sheep) use for grazing and roaming : RANGELAND [noncount] the areas of open range in Wyoming [count] The book identifies plants that grow on the western ranges.

8 [noncount] : the ability to move around ▪ He wears loose clothing to give his arms and legs free range of motion.

9 [count] : the area in which an animal or plant naturally lives ▪ The grizzly bear's range is largely limited to the northwestern parts of North America.

10 [count] a : a place where people can practice shooting guns ▪ a firing/shooting/rifle range b : a place where weapons are tested ▪ a missile range c : a place where people can practice hitting golf balls : DRIVING RANGE

11 [count] US : a large piece of kitchen equipment that consists of an oven and a stove ▪ a gas/electric range [=(Brit) cooker] — see picture at KITCHEN

12 [count] chiefly Brit : a group of related products that are sold by one company ▪ The company has a wide product range. ▪ a full range [=line] of electrical supplies

[2]range verb ranges; ranged; rang•ing

1 [no obj] : to include everything between specified limits ▪ The selection of food ranged from mild to very spicy. ▪ The game is designed for children whose ages range between 7 and 13. = The game is designed for children ranging in age from 7 to 13. ▪ The rugs range in size/price/color. [=there is a variety of rugs in different sizes/prices/colors] ▪ Items on the menu range from American fare like hamburgers and hot dogs to Italian pasta dishes.

2 [no obj] : to live or grow in a particular area ▪ Grizzly bears range over a much smaller area than they once did. ▪ The plant once ranged across the island.

3 [no obj] : to move around an area ▪ The tribe ranged [=roamed] far and wide in search of good land. ▪ The farmers let the horses range [=rove] freely. — often used figuratively ▪ The essay ranges widely over a variety of topics.

4 [+ obj] formal : to arrange (people or things) in a particular place or area ▪ The children ranged themselves around the teacher's chair to listen to the story. — usually used as (be) ranged ▪ Chairs were ranged along the edge of the garden. ▪ Soldiers were ranged along the palace walls.

5 [+ obj] formal : to join with other people who support or oppose someone or something ▪ They have ranged themselves in opposition to the proposed new law. — often used as (be) ranged ▪ Several groups are ranged against the proposed new law. [=several groups have joined together to fight/oppose the proposed new law]

range•land /'reɪnʤˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands [count, noncount] US : open land that farm animals (such as cows and sheep) use for grazing and roaming rang•er /'reɪnʤɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a person in charge of managing and protecting part of a public forest ▪ She's now a ranger at a national forest in Montana. — called also forest ranger b : a person in charge of managing and protecting part of a national park ▪ We were fortunate enough to get a tour from a ranger when we visited Yellowstone National Park. — called also park ranger

2 : a soldier in the U.S. Army who has special training especially in fighting at close range

3 Ranger Brit : a girl between the ages of 14 and 19 who is a member of the Girl Guides organization — called also Ranger Guide rangy /'reɪnʤi/ adj rang•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 of a person : tall and thin ▪ a rangy teenager

2 of an animal : having a long body and long legs ▪ rangy cattle

3 of a plant : tall and having few leaves ▪ a rangy shrub ▪ the plant's rangy stems

[1]rank /'ræŋk/ noun, pl ranks

1 a : a position in a society, organization, group, etc. [noncount] people of high rank and profession ▪ She's not concerned about rank or wealth. ▪ Unlike in chess, all the game pieces in checkers are of equal rank. [=value] [count] officers with the rank of captain ▪ He rose to the rank of partner in the law firm. ▪ He longed to join the upper social ranks. ▪ military ranks such as private, corporal, and sergeant ▪ He moved up/rose through the ranks to become vice president of the company. ▪ a photographer in the front rank [=an excellent photographer] ▪ a writer of the first rank [=an excellent writer] b [noncount] : a high position in a society, organization, group, etc. — usually used after of ▪ Expensive cars are sometimes seen as a badge of rank. ▪ The guest lecturer is a novelist of rank [=of high regard; of esteem] who has won many prestigious awards.

2 ranks [plural] a : the people or things that belong to a particular organization or group ▪ A company spokesperson announced that the company will be decreasing its ranks by 200. [=laying off 200 employees] ▪ The organization's ranks have doubled in the past two years. ▪ The restaurant has made it to the city's front ranks. [=the restaurant is one of the best in the city] — often + of ▪ More older adults are choosing to join the ranks of college students. ▪ the growing/swelling ranks of vegetarians b : the people in the army, navy, air force, etc., who are not officers ▪ The flu swept through the ranks, infecting almost every soldier. ▪ Several men were selected from the ranks.

3 [count] : a row of people or things ▪ The troops stood in ranks. ▪ Twelve soldiers stood in the front rank. — compare [5]FILE

4 [count] Brit : TAXI STAND

break ranks also break rank 1 : to step out of a line ▪ The soldier was disciplined for breaking ranks. 2 : to no longer agree with or support a person or group — often + with ▪ The senator decided to break ranks with others in his party and support the proposal. ▪ One scientist has broken ranks with her colleagues and questioned the research.

close ranks : to join together to support or protect someone or something that is in trouble ▪ The police officers closed ranks when their captain was being investigated for misconduct. ▪ The family closed ranks to protect one of their own.

pull rank : to use your high position in a society, organization, group, etc., to order someone to do something or to get special treatment or privileges ▪ He's their boss, but he doesn't like to pull rank (on them) if he can avoid it.

[2]rank verb, not used in progressive tenses ranks; ranked; rank•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to place (someone or something) in a particular position among a group of people or things that are being judged according to quality, ability, size, etc. ▪ A magazine recently ranked the school as one of the best in the country. — often used as (be) ranked ▪ The museum is ranked among the best in the U.S. ▪ The young gymnast is ranked fifth in the world. — see also OUTRANK b [no obj] : to have a particular position in a group of people or things that are being judged according to quality, ability, size, etc. ▪ The city currently ranks as the world's largest. ▪ Our professor ranks with/among the best in her field. [=is one of the best in her field] ▪ This kind of mistake ranks right up there with [=is as bad as] forgetting your mother's birthday. ▪ Students who rank in the top third of their class have a better chance of being accepted to the college of their choice.

2 [+ obj] : to arrange (people or things) in a line or row — usually used as (be) ranked ▪ The books were neatly ranked in rows.

[3]rank adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : having a strong, unpleasant smell ▪ the rank [=foul] smell of the alley ▪ a rank odor

2 a [more ~; most ~] : very bad and obvious ▪ His rank [=flagrant] dishonesty makes it impossible to trust him. ▪ rank [=glaring] hypocrisy b always used before a noun : complete or total ▪ You can't expect a rank beginner like her to know all the rules of the game.

3 of plants : growing too quickly and over too much land ▪ rank weeds rank and file noun

the rank and file 1 : the people in the army, navy, air force, etc., who are not officers 2 : the members of a group or organization who are not leaders ▪ The rank and file is/are unhappy with the chairman's decision. ▪ the rank and file of the union

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– rank–and– le adj, always used before a noun ▪ rank-and-file members

[1]rank•ing /ˈræŋkɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : having a high position or the highest position in a group or organization ▪ a ranking news analyst ▪ Who is the ranking officer here? ▪ the country's ranking law school — see also HIGH-RANKING, LOW-RANKING, TOP-RANKING

[2]ranking noun, pl -ings
1 rank•ings [plural] : a list of people or things that are ordered according to their quality, ability, size, etc. ▪ She is currently fifth in the world gymnastics rankings. [=she is ranked as the fifth best gymnast in the world] ▪ He is number two in the class rankings.
2 [count] : the position of a person or thing in the rankings ▪ The new coach led the team to a No. 1 ranking.

ran•kle /ˈræŋkəl/ verb ran•kles; ran•kled; ran•kling : to cause (someone) to feel angry or irritated especially for a long time [+ obj] The joke about her family rankled her. [no obj] The fact that he never repaid the money still rankles (with her) years later.

ran•sack /ˈrænˌsæk/ verb -sacks; -sacked; -sack•ing [+ obj] : to search (a place) for something in a way that causes disorder or damage ▪ Robbers ransacked the apartment looking for money. ▪ The room had been ransacked.

[1]ran•som /ˈrænsəm/ noun, pl -soms : money that is paid in order to free someone who has been captured or kidnapped [count] The kidnappers demanded a ransom of one million dollars. [noncount] The family is willing to pay ransom for his release. ▪ The ransom note explained the terms under which she would be released. ▪ ransom money/payment ▪ (chiefly US) A group of men is holding the ship's crew for ransom. = (Brit) A group of men is holding the ship's crew to ransom. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ (Brit) The boy used his bad temper to hold his mother to ransom, forcing her to buy him sweets. — see also KING'S RANSOM rant /ˈrænt/ verb rants; rant•ed; rant•ing : to talk loudly and in a way that shows anger : to complain in a way that is unreasonable [no obj] "You can rant and rave all you want," she said, "but it's not going to change things." — often + about ▪ He always rants about the evils of the film industry. — often + on ▪ She ranted on for hours about the smoking ban. [+ obj] He ranted that they were out to get him.

[2]ransom verb -soms; -somed; -som•ing [+ obj] : to pay money in order to free (a person who has been captured or kidnapped) ▪ He was held captive for a week before he was ransomed and returned to his family.

– rant noun, pl rants [count] ▪ We had to listen to his rant about the evils of the film industry.

rant•ings /ˈræntɪŋz/ noun [plural] : loud and angry comments that continue for a long time ▪ the rantings of a crazy person

[1]rap /ˈræp/ noun, pl raps
1 [count] : a quick hit or knock ▪ I was startled by a sharp rap on/against/at the window/door. ▪ He gave me a rap on the knee.
2 [count] US, informal : a statement by police or the government saying that someone has committed a crime — usually singular ▪ She faces a murder rap [=charge] for the death of her boyfriend. — see also BEAT THE RAP (below)
3 the rap informal : the blame or punishment for something ▪ He took the rap for his brother in order to protect him.
4 [count] US, informal : a complaint against someone or something : something that someone or something is criticized for — usually singular ▪ The main rap against him is that he isn't totally honest about what he knows.
a rap on/over/across the knuckles informal : criticism or punishment that is given in a gentle way for something that you did wrong ▪ I received a rap on the knuckles for missing the meeting.
beat the rap US, informal : to avoid being sent to jail for a crime ▪ He was arrested for assault, but he beat the rap.
bum rap informal 1 US : an unfair claim that someone has committed a crime or done something wrong ▪ The defendant was sent to jail on a bum rap. 2 chiefly US : a criticism or bad opinion that is not deserved or fair ▪ The teenagers say they've all gotten a bum rap because one person damaged some property. ▪ She thinks motorboats get a bum rap from environmentalists. ▪ He was given a bum rap by reviewers.
– compare [3]RAP

[2]rap verb raps; rapped; rap•ping
1 : to quickly hit or knock (something) several or many times [+ obj] The teacher rapped the desk with her knuckles. ▪ The boy teased the dog by rapping a stick on the fence. [no obj] Someone was rapping on the door.
2 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to say (something) quickly and forcefully — usually + out ▪ The officer rapped out [=barked out] a command.
3 [+ obj] : to criticize (someone or something) publicly ▪ The report raps the organization for failing to develop a plan.
rap someone on/over/across the knuckles or rap someone's knuckles : to criticize or punish someone in a gentle way for doing something wrong ▪ The boss rapped me over/on the knuckles for missing the meeting.
– compare [4]RAP

[3]rap noun, pl raps
1 [noncount] : a type of music that has words that are spoken with the rhythm instead of being sung ▪ He listens mostly to rap. — often used before another noun ▪ a rap album/artist/group/song ▪ rap music
2 [count] : a rap song ▪ He performed a rap.
– compare [1]RAP

[4]rap verb raps; rapped; rapping [no obj]
1 : to perform rap music or a rap song ▪ The band has been rapping at local clubs. ▪ He raps in the band.
2 informal : to talk in a free and informal way ▪ I enjoyed rapping with him about sports.
– compare [2]RAP

ra•pa•cious /rəˈpeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : always wanting more money, possessions, etc. : wanting more than is needed or deserved ▪ a rapacious thief ▪ a rapacious [=greedy] businessman – ra•pa•cious•ly adv – ra•pa•cious•ness noun [noncount] – ra•pac•i•ty /rəˈpæsəti/ noun [noncount]

[1]rape /ˈreɪp/ verb rapes; raped; rap•ing [+ obj] : to force (someone) to have sex with you by using violence or the threat of violence ▪ He is accused of raping the girl. ▪ She was raped by a fellow student.

[2]rape noun, pl rapes
1 : the crime of forcing someone to have sex with you by using violence or the threat of violence [noncount] He has been charged with (committing) rape. [count] There has been a decrease in the number of reported rapes. ▪ a rape trial [=the trial of someone who has been accused of rape] ▪ rape victims — see also DATE RAPE, GANG RAPE, STATUTORY RAPE
2 [noncount] literary : the act of ruining or destroying something — usually + of ▪ the rape of the land ▪ the rape of privacy
– compare [3]RAPE

[3]rape noun [noncount] : a plant that is grown as food for farm animals and as a source of oil ▪ rape oil — called also (chiefly Brit) oilseed rape, rapeseed — compare [2]RAPE rape•seed /ˈreɪpˌsi:d/ noun, pl -seeds

1 [noncount] : [3]RAPE
2 [count] : the seed of the rape plant rap•id /ˈræpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : happening in a short amount of time : happening quickly ▪ a rapid [=quick] change in temperature ▪ There's been rapid growth in the number of new businesses in the town. ▪ Scientists are concerned about the rapid disappearance of the island's coral reefs.
2 : having a fast rate ▪ a rapid heartbeat ▪ rapid breathing
3 : moving quickly ▪ She carefully guided the boat through the rapid water.
– ra•pid•i•ty /rəˈpɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ Doctors were amazed by the rapidity [=speed] of his recovery. – rap•id•ly adv ▪ the rapidly [=quickly] changing temperature ▪ He was breathing rapidly. ▪ Her heart beat rapidly.

rapid eye movement sleep noun [noncount] : REM SLEEP

rap•id– re /ˌræpədˈfajə/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : coming quickly one after another ▪ The comedian's rapid-fire jokes kept the audience laughing. ▪ rapid-fire changes
2 of a weapon : able to quickly shoot bullets one after another ▪ a rapid-fire rifle rap•ids /ˈræpədz/ noun [plural] : a part of a river where the water flows very fast usually over rocks shoot the rapids see [1]SHOOT rapid transit noun [noncount] chiefly US : the system that is used in cities for quickly bringing people to and from places on trains, buses, etc. ▪ We'll use rapid transit to get from the airport to the hotel.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

[1]ra•pi•er /ˈreɪpijə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a straight sword that has a narrow blade with sharp edges

[2]rapier adj, always used before a noun : extremely sharp ▪ his rapier wit

rap•ist /ˈreɪpɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who rapes someone : a person who commits rape ▪ a convicted rapist rap•pel /rəˈpɛl/ verb -pels; -pelled; -pel•ling [no obj] US : to move down a steep cliff, rock, etc., by pushing your feet against its surface and sliding down a rope ▪ They rappelled [=(chiefly Brit) abseiled] down the rock's face.

rap•per /ˈræpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a person who performs rap music or speaks the words of a rap song rap•port /ræˈpoə/ noun, formal : a friendly relationship [singular] He quickly developed a good rapport with the other teachers. [noncount] She works hard to build rapport with her patients. ▪ There is a lack of rapport between the members of the group.

rap•por•teur /ˌræˌpoəˈtə/ noun, pl -teurs [count] : a person whose job is to do research and present official reports on a particular subject ▪ He was selected to be the UN's rapporteur on nuclear energy.

rap•proche•ment /ˌræˌproʊʃˈmɑːnt, Brit ræˈprɒʃmɒŋ/ noun, formal : the development of friendlier relations between countries or groups of people who have been enemies [singular] Officials hope that these talks will lead to a rapprochement with the rebels. [noncount] The possibility of rapprochement between the two countries seems unlikely.

rap session noun, pl ~ -sions [count] US, informal : a meeting at which a group of people talk informally about a particular subject ▪ a rap session for teenagers about/on drunk driving rap sheet noun, pl ~ sheets [count] US, informal : a list kept by the police of all the times a person has been arrested ▪ He has a long rap sheet. [=he has been arrested many times] — called also (Brit) charge sheet

rapt /ˈræpt/ adj, literary + formal : showing complete interest in something ▪ The students listened with rapt attention. ▪ rapt audiences ▪ The children sat rapt as the puppets danced.
– rapt•ly adv ▪ The students listened raptly.

rap•tor /ˈræptə/ noun, pl -tors [count] technical
1 : a bird (such as an eagle or hawk) that kills and eats other animals for food : BIRD OF PREY
2 : a small or medium-sized dinosaur that ate other animals

rap•ture /ˈræptʃə/ noun, pl -tures literary + formal : a state or feeling of great happiness, pleasure, or love [noncount] We listened with rapture as the orchestra played. ▪ a smile of rapture ▪ He listened to the wind in the trees, his eyes closed in rapture. [count] — usually plural ▪ This dessert will send people who like chocolate into raptures. [=this dessert will be loved by people who like chocolate] ▪ Critics went into raptures over her performance.

rap•tur•ous /ˈræptʃərəs/ adj : showing extreme pleasure, love, or enthusiasm for someone or something ▪ The novel has received rapturous [=ecstatic] reviews. ▪ rapturous applause ▪ a rapturous description of the landscape
– rap•tur•ous•ly adv

[1]rare /ˈreə/ adj rar•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not common or usual : not often done, seen, or happening ▪ She has the rare [=uncommon] ability to make people feel comfortable even in difficult situations. ▪ These colors are rare [=infrequent] among birds of North America. ▪ a rare disease ▪ It is still rare [=unusual] for a woman to hold an executive position in some industries. ▪ He had the rare opportunity of meeting the President. ▪ Only in rare instances is surgery necessary to treat the condition. ▪ He eats meat only on rare occasions.
2 : having only a few of its kind in existence ▪ a collection of rare books ▪ a list of rare and endangered species ▪ a rare [=scarce] gem
3 technical, of air : not having much oxygen : RAREFIED ▪ It's difficult to breathe in the rare air at these heights.
– compare [2]RARE
– rare•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The gem's rareness [=rarity, scarcity] makes it very expensive.

[2]rare adj, of meat : cooked for only a short time so that the inside is still red ▪ rare roast beef ▪ I like my steak rare. — compare MEDIUM, WELL-DONE — compare [1]RARE – rare adv ▪ "How would you like your steak cooked/done?" "Rare, please."

rare bird noun, pl ~ birds [count] : an unusual or uncommon person or thing ▪ The little diner is a rare bird in a city full of expensive restaurants.

rare•bit /ˈreəbət/ noun, pl -bits [count, noncount] : WELSH RAREBIT rar•e• ed /ˈrerəˌfaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 often disapproving : understood by only a small group of people : only for people who know about a particular thing ▪ She has never been comfortable in the rarefied [=esoteric] world of art dealers.
2 technical, of air : not having much oxygen because of being high up in the atmosphere ▪ It's difficult to breathe in the rarefied air near the mountain's peak.

rare•ly /ˈreəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : not very often ▪ She rarely talks about her past. ▪ These machines only need to be fixed very rarely. = These machines rarely need to be fixed. ▪ The temperature rarely [=seldom] drops below freezing here. ▪ Rarely do we see this kind of weather in our area. ▪ Only rarely is surgery necessary to treat this condition.
rarely ever see EVER rarely if ever see EVER

rar•ing /ˈrerən/ adj, informal : ready and excited to start to do something : very eager ▪ The kids are raring to get to work on the tree house. ▪ She's been raring to go since dawn.

rar•i•ty /ˈrerəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : a person or thing that is not common or usual : a person or thing that is not seen or does not happen often ▪ In most sports, athletes over the age of 50 are rarities. ▪ Snow is a rarity in this part of the world.
2 [count] : something that is valuable because there are few of its kind ▪ He is selling most of his collection, keeping only the real rarities.
3 [noncount] : the quality of being rare ▪ The rarity of the disease makes it difficult to diagnose.

ras•cal /ˈræskəl, Brit ˈrɑːskəl/ noun, pl -cals [count]
1 informal + humorous : a person and especially a young person who causes trouble or does things that annoy people ▪ Which one of you rascals woke me up?
2 old-fashioned : a cruel or dishonest man ▪ a lying rascal
– ras•cal•ly adj, old-fashioned ▪ rascally kids ▪ a rascally man

[1]rash /ˈræʃ/ noun, pl rash•es
1 : a group of red spots on the skin that is caused by an illness or a reaction to something [count] The baby has a skin rash. ▪ The doctor said she developed the rash because of the medicine. ▪ an itchy rash ▪ I break out in a rash if I eat shellfish. [noncount] Symptoms of the disease include rash and fever. — see also DIAPER RASH, HEAT RASH
2 [singular] : a series of usually unpleasant things or events that happen in a short period of time ▪ There has been a rash of robberies in the city this summer. ▪ a rash of fires

[2]rash adj
1 : done or made quickly and without thought about what will happen as a result ▪ He later regretted having made such a rash [=hasty] promise. ▪ Their rash actions resulted in a serious accident that could have killed someone. ▪ a rash statement ▪ Please don't do anything rash. [=foolish]
2 not used before a noun : doing something quickly and without thinking carefully about what will happen as a result ▪ Don't be rash about this decision. Take your time. ▪ It was rash of you to make that promise.
– rash•ly adv ▪ He had promised rashly to take care of the farm for her. – rash•ness noun [noncount] rash•er /ˈræʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit : a thin piece of bacon or ham ▪ We were served eggs, a few rashers (of bacon), and coffee.

[1]rasp /ˈræsp, Brit ˈrɑːsp/ verb rasps; rasped; rasp•ing
1 [+ obj] : to speak in a way that sounds rough or harsh ▪ "Let go of my arm," she rasped.
2 [no obj] : to make a rough, harsh sound ▪ The metal boxes rasped as they were dragged across the floor.
3 [+ obj] : to rub (something) with a rough object or substance ▪ I used a rock to rasp (away) the rough parts of the stick.
– rasping adj ▪ a rasping [=rough, harsh] voice

[2]rasp noun, pl rasps
1 [count] : a metal tool that has sharp points and that is used to make rough surfaces smooth
2 [singular] : a rough, harsh sound — often + of ▪ He heard the rasp of metal boxes being dragged across the floor.

rasp•ber•ry /ˈræzˌberi, Brit ˈrɑːzbri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a soft, red berry that is sweet and juicy ▪ ice cream with raspberries ▪ raspberry jam — see color picture on page C5
2 informal : a rude sound made by pushing your tongue outside your lips and blowing air out of your mouth ▪ One of the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

children made/blew a raspberry at him. — called also (US) Bronx cheer raspy /ˈræspi, Brit ˈrɑːspi/ adj rasp•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a rough, harsh sound ▪ Her voice was raspy from yelling so much.

Ras•ta /ˈrɑːstə, Brit ˈræstə/ noun, pl -tas [count] informal : RASTAFARIAN

Ras•ta•far•i•an /ˌrɑːstəˈfɑrijən, Brit ˌræstəˈfɛrɪən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a member of a religious movement among black Jamaicans which teaches that black people will eventually return to Africa and which worships Haile Selassie, the former Emperor of Ethiopia ✧ Rastafarians usually wear dreadlocks and do not eat meat.
– Ras•ta•far•i•an•ism /ˌrɑːstəˈfɑrijəˌnɪzəm, Brit ˌræstəˈfɛrɪəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

[1]rat /ˈræt/ noun, pl rats [count]
1 : a small animal that has a pointed nose and a long, thin tail ▪ a dirty old building infested by rats and mice ▪ a lab/laboratory rat [=a rat that is used by scientists for experiments] ▪ He came in from the rain looking like a drowned rat. [=looking very wet and miserable] — see picture at RODENT
2 informal a : a person who is not loyal or who cannot be trusted ▪ I can't believe that rat turned us in to the police! b : a person who is bad or cruel ▪ No one understands why she's with a rat like him.
3 US, informal : a person who spends a lot of time in a specified place ▪ a mall rat ▪ Every night he goes to work out with the other gym rats.
smell a rat informal : to think or suspect that something is wrong about a situation ▪ She smelled a rat when her husband came home with lipstick on his collar.
– see also PACK RAT, RUGRAT

[2]rat verb rats; rat•ted; rat•ting informal : to tell someone in authority (such as the police) about something wrong that someone has done : to betray someone [no obj] The teacher knows what we did, which means that somebody ratted. — often + on ▪ I am trying to find out who ratted on me. [+ obj] (US) — + out ▪ Someone ratted him out to the police. ▪ They accused him of ratting out his own brother.

rat–arsed /ˈræt-ˌɑəst/ adj, not used before a noun, Brit slang : very drunk rat–a–tat /ˈrætəˌtæt/ or rat–a–tat–tat /ˌrætəˌtætˈtæt/ noun [singular] : a quick series of knocking, tapping, or cracking sounds ▪ the rat-a-tat of gunfire ra•ta•tou•ille /ˌræˌtæˈtwiː/ noun [noncount] : a thick stew that is made of vegetables (such as eggplant, tomatoes, and squash) and sometimes meat

[1]ratch•et /ˈrætʃət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a device made up of a wheel or bar with many teeth along its edge in between which a piece fits so that the wheel or bar can move only in one direction

[2]ratchet verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [+ obj] : to increase or decrease (something) especially by a series of small steps or amounts — usually + up or down ▪ Banks are ratcheting up interest rates. ▪ A little salt will ratchet up the flavor. ▪ The company ratcheted down costs by using cheaper materials.

[1]rate /ˈreɪt/ noun, pl rates [count]
1 : the speed at which something happens over a particular period of time ▪ The cold weather meant a slower growing rate for many crops. ▪ At the rate we're moving, it will be morning before we arrive. ▪ People work at different rates. ▪ Gun violence is increasing at an alarming rate. ▪ Snow was falling at a rate of three inches per hour. ▪ There has been a fall in the rate of inflation.
2 : the number of times something happens or is done during a particular period of time ▪ There is a high success rate for this surgery. [=this surgery is often/usually successful] ▪ Economists are concerned about the city's rising unemployment rate. [=the increasing number of people who are unemployed] ▪ Crime rates have declined in recent years. ▪ The nurse will check your heart/pulse rate. [=the number of times your heart beats in a minute] — see also BIRTHRATE, DEATH RATE
3 : an amount that is paid : a price or amount to be paid that is set according to a scale or standard ▪ The hotel's rates start at $65/night. [=the least expensive rooms at the hotel cost $65 for one night's stay and other rooms cost more than $65] ▪ What's the interest rate on the loan? ▪ tax rates ▪ Regular admission to the theater is $12, the student rate is $8, and the rate for senior citizens is $6. — see also EXCHANGE RATE, PRIME RATE at any rate — used to indicate that something is true or certain regardless of what else has happened or been said ▪ This restaurant has the best food—or at any rate, the best pasta dishes—in the city. ▪ At any rate [=in any case], cooking with fresh ingredients makes everything taste better. ▪ It is possible that she was nervous. At any rate, her singing was still good.
at a rate of knots Brit, informal : very fast or quickly ▪ We were bowling along the motorway at a rate of knots.
at this/that rate : if things continue to happen in the same way they have been happening ▪ At this rate, the town's farmland will be gone within 20 years.
going rate : the average or usual price that is charged for something ▪ What's the going rate for a new computer? ▪ You can hire a babysitter for a going rate of $10/hour.

[2]rate verb rates; rat•ed; rat•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make a judgment about the quality, ability, or value of (someone or something) ▪ On a scale of 1 to 5, I'd rate the book at/a 4. ▪ Judges rated each song according to a number of criteria. — often used as (be) rated ▪ The school is rated above average. ▪ the highest rated [=ranking] radio show — see also OVERRATE, UNDERRATE b [no obj] : to be judged as having a particular level of quality, ability, or value ▪ The car rates as one of the best on the market. [=the car is one of the best on the market] ▪ The movie rates among the worst ever. ▪ The shoes rate high as far as comfort goes, but they're not very stylish.
2 [+ obj] : to consider something or someone to be (something) ▪ The boat is just large enough to be rated a ship. ▪ Based on recent polls, the policy should be rated a failure.
3 [+ obj] : to officially state that a movie, video game, etc., is appropriate for a specific audience — usually used as (be) rated ▪ The movie is rated G for general audiences.
4 [+ obj] : to state the normal power or limit of (a machine, engine, etc.) — usually used as (be) rated ▪ The submarine is rated to withstand tons of pressure. — usually + at ▪ The engine is rated at 500 horsepower. ▪ an outlet rated at 15 amps
5 [+ obj] : to deserve (something) because of being important, good, etc. ▪ The new museum rates a visit. [=the new museum is worth visiting] ▪ I don't understand why the ceremony didn't even rate [=merit] a mention in the newspaper. [=I don't understand why the ceremony wasn't mentioned in the newspaper]
6 [no obj] US, informal : to be liked by someone and get special treatment or privileges — usually + with ▪ He really rates with the boss. [=the boss really likes him]
7 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to think of (someone or something) as being good or of a high quality : LIKE ▪ I don't rate their chances (of winning). ▪ They didn't rate him as a player.

rate of exchange noun, pl rates of exchange [count] : EXCHANGE RATE

rath•er /ˈræðɚ, Brit ˈrɑːðə/ adv
1 : to some degree or extent ▪ Yesterday was a rather [=fairly] hot day. ▪ That sounded rather [=quite a bit] like thunder. ▪ a rather [=quite] common flower ▪ It's getting rather [=pretty] late. We'd better get to bed. ▪ The movie is a comedy, but rather a dull one. ▪ a rather [=somewhat] serious condition ▪ I think the children watch rather too much television. ▪ It rather annoyed me that he was late picking me up. — often used to make a statement less forceful ▪ He has been spending rather a lot of money lately. ▪ She rather likes chocolate. ▪ To tell you the truth, I rather think you are wrong. ▪ You're driving rather fast, don't you think?
2 a — used to introduce a statement that indicates what is true after you have said what is not true ▪ I don't like chocolate—rather, I love chocolate. ▪ What matters is not how often you call, but rather what you say. ▪ It wasn't red but rather a shade of bright orange. b — used to introduce a statement that corrects what you have just said ▪ We can take the car, or rather, the van. ▪ My father, or rather, my stepfather, will be visiting soon.
3 Brit, old-fashioned — used to express agreement ▪ "Wasn't the show fantastic?" "Rather!"
rather than 1 : in place of (something or someone) : instead of (something or someone) ▪ He writes at a table rather than a desk. ▪ Why do one thing rather than another? ▪ Rather than using dried herbs, he picked fresh ones from the garden. : and not ▪ She reacted by laughing rather than by getting upset. ▪ He was happy rather than sad. 2 — used to say what is not chosen or done because something else is chosen or done instead ▪ Rather than continue the argument, she walked away. ▪ I chose to sing rather than play an instrument.
would rather — used to indicate what you want or prefer to

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

do, have, etc. ▪ She would rather drive than take the train. ▪ I would rather you didn't tell them. [=I would prefer it if you didn't tell them] ▪ We'd rather go somewhere warm. [=we'd prefer to go somewhere warm] ▪ "If you'd rather, we can go outside." "No, thanks—I'd rather not." ▪ Which beach would you rather [=would you like to] go to?

rat•i•fy /ˈrætəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (a treaty, agreement, etc.) official by signing it or voting for it ▪ A number of countries have refused to ratify the treaty.
– rat•i•fi•ca•tion /ˌrætəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ ratification of the treaty

rating noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : a measurement of how good, difficult, efficient, etc., something or someone is ▪ The President's approval rating is lower than it was a month ago. [=fewer people approve of the President this month] ▪ The school has an above-average academic rating. ▪ The article compares the fuel-economy ratings of various cars. — see also CREDIT RATING
2 the ratings : numbers that show how many people watch or listen to a particular television or radio program ▪ "How is the show doing in the ratings?" "It's down in the ratings [=few people are watching it]. I think it'll be canceled."
3 [count] : a symbol that is officially given to a movie, video game, etc., to tell people what audience it is appropriate for ▪ Both movies received G ratings. [=both movies are rated G; both movies are appropriate for people of all ages]
4 [count] : a statement about the normal power or limit of a machine, engine, etc. ▪ a 15 amp rating ▪ The car has a horsepower rating of 500.
5 [count] Brit : someone in the navy who is not an officer ra•tio /ˈreɪʃiˌoʊ/ noun, pl -tios [count] : the relationship that exists between the size, number, or amount of two things and that is often represented by two numbers ▪ The college has a 12:1 ratio between students and teachers. = The college's student-to-teacher ratio is 12 to 1. [=for every 12 students, there is one teacher] ▪ What is the length-to-width ratio? — often + of ▪ The ratio of students to teachers is 12 to 1. ▪ Women outnumbered men by a ratio of three to two. [=for every three women, there were two men] ▪ The office has a high ratio of males to females. [=there are many more males that work at the office than females] — see also ASPECT RATIO

[1]ra•tion /ˈræʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [count] : a particular amount of food that is given to one person or animal for one day ▪ The soldiers were given their rations for the day. ▪ The horse was fed its ration of oats. ▪ The prisoners were kept on short rations. [=were given very little to eat each day] b rations [plural] : food or supplies ▪ The campers were getting low on rations. [=had used most of their food]
2 [count] : a particular amount of something (such as gasoline or food) that the government allows you to have when there is not enough of it ▪ a gas ration ▪ weekly sugar and butter rations

[2]ration verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] : to control the amount of (something, such as gasoline or food) that people are allowed to have especially when there is not enough of it ▪ During the war, the government rationed gasoline. — often used as (be) rationed ▪ Gasoline was rationed during the war.
– rationing noun [noncount] ▪ The drought has forced the government to institute water rationing.

ra•tio•nal /ˈræʃənl/ adj
1 : based on facts or reason and not on emotions or feelings ▪ a rational decision/choice ▪ I'm sure there is a rational [=sensible, reasonable] explanation for his decision.
2 : having the ability to reason or think about things clearly ▪ No rational [=sane] person would behave like that. ▪ Humans are rational beings. [=are able to use reason when thinking about something] — opposite IRRATIONAL – ra•tio•nal•i•ty /ˌræʃəˈnæləti/ noun [noncount] formal ▪ The rationality of that statement is questionable. – ra•tio•nal•ly adv ▪ Think about the problem rationally. ▪ She stayed calm and acted rationally. [=sensibly] ra•tio•nale /ˌræʃəˈnæl/ noun, pl -nales [count] somewhat formal : the reason or explanation for something — usually singular ▪ That was a strange decision. What was their rationale? — often + for, behind, or of ▪ What was her rationale for leaving school? ▪ He explained the rationale behind his early retirement. ▪ I don't understand the rationale of his decision.

ra•tio•nal•ism /ˈræʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] philosophy : the belief that reason and experience and not emotions or religious beliefs should be the basis for your actions, opinions, etc.
– ra•tio•nal•ist /ˈræʃənəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – rationalist or ra•tio•nal•is•tic /ˌræʃənəˈlɪstɪk/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a rationalist philosophy/thinker ra•tio•nal•ize also Brit ra•tio•nal•ise /ˈræʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing

1 : to think about or describe something (such as bad behavior) in a way that explains it and makes it seem proper, more attractive, etc. [+ obj] She tried to rationalize her grandson's strange behavior by blaming it on the boy's father. ▪ He couldn't rationalize buying such an expensive car. [no obj] She knows she shouldn't have done it—she's just trying to rationalize.
2 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to find ways to make (something, such as an industry, a company, etc.) waste less time, effort, and money ▪ Management is thinking of ways to rationalize our system of production.
– ra•tio•nal•i•za•tion also Brit ra•tio•nal•i•sa•tion /ˌræʃənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌræʃənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ Listening to his rationalizations [=excuses] makes me angry.

rat race noun
the rat race : the unpleasant life of people who have jobs that require them to work very hard in order to compete with others for money, power, status, etc. ▪ She is quitting the rat race to spend time with her family. ▪ He wants to get out of the rat race.

rat run noun, pl ~ runs [count] Brit, informal : a small street that connects larger roads and that drivers use to get more quickly to the place they are going rats /ˈræts/ interj, informal — used to express disappointment or annoyance ▪ Rats! I lost again. ▪ Rats! I left my pocketbook in the car.

rat•tan /ræˈtæn/ noun [noncount] : a plant with very long, strong stems that are woven together to make baskets, furniture, etc. ▪ baskets made of rattan — often used before another noun ▪ a rattan [=wicker] chair

[1]rat•tle /ˈrætl/ verb rat•tles; rat•tled; rat•tling
1 a [no obj] : to hit against something repeatedly and make a quick series of short, loud sounds ▪ The window rattled as the truck drove by. ▪ The coins rattled in the box. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to move or shake and make a series of noises : to cause (something) to rattle ▪ She rattled the jar with the coins in it. = She rattled the coins in the jar.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make quick, short, loud sounds while moving ▪ The old truck rattled down the street. ▪ The train rattled by.
3 [+ obj] : to upset or disturb (someone) ▪ The question rattled [=unnerved] the speaker. — often used as (be) rattled ▪ I was rattled by his questions. ▪ He's an experienced performer who is not easily rattled.
rattle around [phrasal verb] rattle around or rattle around (something) informal : to live or spend time in a place that is very big ▪ Her husband died last year, and now she's just rattling around in that huge house by herself. ▪ rattle around the house ▪ We rattled around Europe last summer. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ An old song has been rattling around in my head all day.
rattle off [phrasal verb] rattle (something) off or rattle off (something) informal : to say (something) quickly or easily from memory ▪ The teacher rattled off the answers. ▪ She rattled off the names of all 50 states.
rattle on [phrasal verb] informal : to talk for a long time about things that are not interesting or important — often + about ▪ Grandpa would rattle on [=go on] about his childhood for hours. ▪ She rattled on and on about the party. [=she talked for a long time about the party] rattle someone's cage see CAGE rattle through [phrasal verb] rattle through (something) Brit : to do (something) quickly ▪ We rattled through the meeting.
– see also SABER-RATTLING

[2]rattle noun, pl rattles [count]
1 : a series of short, loud sounds — usually singular ▪ We heard a rattle from inside the box. ▪ the rattle of machine guns
2 : a baby's toy that makes a series of short sounds when it is shaken
3 : the group of hard, loose pieces (called scales) that cover the end of a rattlesnake's tail

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

rat•tler /ˈrætlə/ noun, pl rat•tlers [count] informal : RATTLESNAKE

rat•tle•snake /ˈrætlˌsneɪk/ noun, pl -snakes [count] : a poisonous American snake with a group of hard, loose pieces (called scales) at the end of its tail that it shakes to make a noise rat•tle•trap /ˈrætlˌtræp/ noun, pl -traps [count] US, informal : something (such as a car) that is old, noisy, and not in good condition ▪ Are you still driving that old rattletrap? — often used before another noun ▪ a rattletrap car/bus rattling /ˈrætlɪŋ/ adv, Brit, informal + old-fashioned : very or extremely ▪ a rattling good story rat•ty /ˈræti/ adj rat•ti•er; -est informal 1 US : in very bad condition ▪ a ratty [=shabby] old sweater ▪ ratty [=unkempt] hair ▪ Those shoes are getting pretty ratty.

2 Brit : easily angered or annoyed ▪ She gets ratty [=(chiefly US) cranky] if she doesn't get enough sleep.

rau•cous /ˈrɑːkəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : loud and unpleasant to listen to ▪ raucous shouts/laughter
2 : behaving in a very rough and noisy way ▪ a raucous crowd
– rau•cous•ly adv – rau•cous•ness noun [noncount] raunch /ˈrɑːntʃ/ noun [noncount] informal + sometimes disapproving : something that deals with or relates to sex in usually a shocking or offensive way ▪ a movie full of raunch

raun•chy /ˈrɑːntʃi/ adj raun•chi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal
1 : dealing with or suggesting sex in a way that is somewhat shocking ▪ a raunchy [=dirty] magazine/movie/joke
2 US, disapproving : very dirty, smelly, etc. ▪ raunchy old sneakers ▪ a raunchy smell
– raun•chi•ness /ˈrɑːntʃinəs/ noun [noncount]

rav•age /ˈrævɪʤ/ verb rav•ag•es; rav•aged; rav•ag•ing [+ obj] formal : to damage or harm (something) very badly ▪ The enemy ravaged [=plundered] the village. — often used as (be) ravaged ▪ The village was ravaged [=devastated] by the plague. ▪ The forest was ravaged by fire. ▪ the ravaged people/city/land

rav•ages /ˈrævɪʤəz/ noun [plural] literary : destruction or damage — usually + of ▪ the ravages of war/disease — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her face showed the ravages of time. [=her face looked old, wrinkled, etc.]

[1]rave /ˈreɪv/ verb raves; raved; rav•ing
1 : to talk or write about someone or something in an excited or enthusiastic way [no obj] — usually + about or over ▪ Critics raved about the new play. ▪ Customers rave over the restaurant's pizza. [+ obj] "It's his best performance yet," raved one movie critic.
2 [no obj] : to talk loudly in an angry or wild way ▪ The guy on the corner was raving like a madman. ▪ The coach ranted and raved at the referee.

[2]rave noun, pl raves [count]
1 : a statement of enthusiastic praise or approval ▪ Her review of the movie was a rave. — often plural in U.S. English ▪ The movie got raves from the critics. [=the critics praised the movie very enthusiastically] — often used in the phrase rave review ▪ The movie got rave reviews from the critics. [=was highly praised by the critics] ▪ My kids give my cooking rave reviews.
2 : a large party that lasts all night in which people dance to electronic dance music rav•el /ˈrævəl/ verb -els; US -eled or chiefly Brit -elled; US -el•ing or chiefly Brit -el•ling [no obj] formal + literary : to become divided into separate threads : UNRAVEL ▪ The fabric will ravel.

– raveled (US) or chiefly Brit ravelled adj ▪ a ravelled edge ▪ a raveled sleeve

[1]ra•ven /ˈreɪvən/ noun, pl -vens [count] : a bird that has shiny black feathers and looks like a crow but is larger

[2]raven adj, always used before a noun, literary : shiny and black ▪ raven hair

rav•en•ing /ˈrævənɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, literary : hungry and eager to kill ▪ ravening wolves — often used figuratively ▪ the ravening paparazzi

rav•en•ous /ˈrævənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very hungry ▪ By the time dinner was ready, we were ravenous. ▪ a ravenous wolf ▪ After hiking all day, I had a ravenous appetite. [=I was extremely hungry] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was ravenous for public attention.
– rav•en•ous•ly adv ▪ I felt ravenously hungry. ▪ The birds were feeding ravenously after their long flight.

rav•er /ˈreɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : someone who goes to a rave
2 Brit : someone who goes to many parties ra•vine /rəˈviːn/ noun, pl -vines [count] : a small, deep, narrow valley

[1]raving adj, always used before a noun, informal
1 : talking or acting in a crazy way ▪ a raving lunatic
2 : very great — used to make a description more forceful ▪ She's cute, but she's no raving beauty. ▪ a raving success

[2]raving adv, informal : completely or fully ▪ That guy is (stark) raving mad. [=that guy is completely insane]

rav•ings /ˈreɪvɪŋz/ noun [plural] : statements that have no meaning or that sound crazy ▪ Don't listen to her ravings. ▪ the ravings of a madman

rav•i•o•li /ˌrævɪˈoʊli/ noun, pl ravioli also rav•i•o•lis [count, noncount] : pasta that is shaped like a square and is filled with meat, cheese, or vegetables ▪ a plate of ravioli ▪ These ravioli are delicious. — see picture at PASTA rav•ish /ˈrævɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] literary

1 : to fill (someone) with pleasure, joy, or happiness — usually used as (be) ravished ▪ She was ravished by the country's beauty. ▪ He was ravished by her charm.
2 : to force (a woman) to have sex with you by using violence or the threat of violence : RAPE

rav•ish•ing /ˈrævɪʃɪŋ/ adj : very beautiful ▪ She looked ravishing. [=stunning] ▪ She is a ravishing beauty. ▪ a ravishing view of the ocean
– rav•ish•ing•ly adv ▪ She is ravishingly beautiful.

[1]raw /ˈrɑː/ adj raw•er; raw•est
1 : not cooked ▪ raw meat/vegetables ▪ You can eat carrots raw. = You can eat raw carrots.
2 a : in a natural state : not treated or prepared ▪ raw silk/steel ▪ raw sewage ▪ Fold the raw [=unfinished] edge of the fabric under. — see also RAW MATERIAL b : not yet organized or changed in any way ▪ He entered the raw data into a spreadsheet.
3 : very sore : damaged and painful from harsh conditions, rubbing, etc. ▪ hands raw from windburn ▪ The shoes rubbed my heels raw. ▪ His throat was raw from the cold air. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The article touched/struck/hit a raw nerve. [=the article hurt or upset the people who read it]
4 : powerful and not controlled ▪ I was impressed by the raw energy of his performance. ▪ The town was destroyed by the raw power of the tornado. ▪ raw emotion/anger
5 : having no experience or training ▪ raw [=green] recruits/soldiers ▪ The team has a lot of raw talent. [=the team has a lot of talented but inexperienced players]
6 : wet and cold ▪ a raw winter day
7 US : rude or offensive ▪ raw language – raw•ness noun [noncount]

[2]raw noun
in the raw 1 : in a natural or unfinished state ▪ The sculpture is still in the raw. ▪ a firsthand look at poverty in the raw 2 : not wearing clothes : NAKED ▪ He sleeps in the raw. [=in the nude] raw bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] US : an area in a restaurant where uncooked shellfish is served raw•boned /ˈrɑːˌboʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : thin with bones that show under the skin ▪ He was tall and raw-boned.

raw deal noun, pl ~ deals [count] : an unfair way of treating someone — usually singular ▪ We're getting a raw deal [=are being treated unfairly] with the new tax laws.

raw•hide /ˈrɑːˌhaɪd/ noun [noncount] : the skin of a cow before it has been prepared or made into leather raw material noun, pl ~ -als [count, noncount] : the basic material that can be used to make or create something ▪ Wheat and rye are the raw materials for a flour mill. ▪ His experiences during the war were the raw material for the story.

[1]ray /ˈreɪ/ noun, pl rays [count]
1 a : one of the lines of light that you can see coming from an object ▪ A ray of sunlight shone on her face. ▪ We were blinded by the sun's rays. ▪ Rays of light reflected off the mirror. ✧ In informal English, if you catch some rays, catch a few rays, soak up a few rays, etc., you sit or lie in the sun. ▪ I'm going to the beach to catch some rays. [=to sunbathe] b technical : a thin beam of energy (such as heat or light) that moves in the form of waves ▪ harmful ultraviolet rays — see also CATHODE-RAY TUBE, DEATH RAY, GAMMA RAY, X-RAY
2 : a very small amount of something ▪ I saw a tiny ray of recognition in his eyes. ▪ We're finally starting to see a ray of hope [=a reason to start being hopeful] ▪ The announcement is/brings a ray of hope to all of us who have been fighting this disease.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

ray of sunshine : someone or something that makes a person happier or a place more cheerful ▪ Their baby girl was their own little ray of sunshine. ▪ He was a ray of sunshine to his patients.

– compare [2]RAY

[2]ray noun, pl rays [count] : a fish with a flat body and a long, narrow tail — see color picture on page C8; see also STINGRAY — compare [1]RAY

ray•on /ˈreɪˌɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a smooth fiber that is used in making clothing ▪ The shirt is made of rayon. ▪ a rayon shirt raze /ˈreɪz/ verb raz•es; razed; raz•ing [+ obj] : to destroy (something, such as a building) completely : DEMOLISH — often used as (be) razed ▪ The old factory was razed to make room for a parking lot.

ra•zor /ˈreɪzə/ noun, pl -zors [count] : a tool or device with a sharp edge that is used to shave or cut hair from the face, body, or head ▪ an electric razor ▪ a disposable/safety razor — see picture at GROOMING razor's edge or razor edge — used in various phrases to refer to a dangerous position or a position in which two different things are carefully balanced ▪ He's a thrill-seeker who likes living on the razor's edge. ▪ The country's future is balanced on a razor's edge. ▪ He walks a/the razor edge [=walks a/the fine line] between humor and bad taste in his comedy.

razor blade noun, pl ~ blades [count] : a small, thin, sharp piece of metal that is used in a razor — see picture at GROOMING razor–sharp adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very sharp ▪ Sharks have razor-sharp teeth.

2 : showing a lot of intelligence or the ability to think quickly ▪ She was razor-sharp in the debate. ▪ He has a razor-sharp wit/mind.

razor–thin adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : very small or thin ▪ razor-thin models ▪ He won by a razor-thin margin. ▪ It was a razor-thin victory. [=a victory that was won by a very small margin or amount] razor wire noun [noncount] : strong wire that has many sharp metal pieces on it and is put around an area to keep people out or in razz /ˈræz/ verb razz•es; razzed; razz•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to make playful or unkind comments about (someone) : TEASE ▪ We razzed the other team's pitcher. ▪ Quit razzing me!

raz•zle–daz•zle /ˌræzəlˈdæzəl/ noun [noncount]

1 : noisy and exciting activity meant to attract attention ▪ The kids enjoyed the razzle-dazzle of the circus.

2 American football : an action, movement, etc., that is done to confuse an opponent ▪ The team used a little razzle-dazzle to score the winning touchdown.

– razzle–dazzle adj, always used before a noun ▪ a razzle-dazzle dance routine ▪ some razzle-dazzle piano work

razz•ma•tazz /ˌræzməˈtæz/ also chiefly Brit razz•a•ma•tazz /ˌræzəməˈtæz/ noun [noncount] : noisy and exciting activity meant to attract attention ▪ show-business razzmatazz

RBI /ˌɑːbiˈaɪ/ noun, pl RBIs or RBI [count] baseball : a run that is scored as a result of a specific batter's hit, walk, etc. ✧ RBI is an abbreviation of "run batted in." ▪ A runner scored from third base on his long fly out, so he'll get (credited with) an RBI on that play. ▪ He leads the league in RBIs.

RC abbr Roman Catholic

Rd or Rd. abbr road ▪ 14 Wisteria Rd.

RD abbr, US rural delivery ✧ The U.S. Postal Service chooses official routes for the delivery of mail in rural areas, where houses are fairly far apart. ▪ John Smith lives on RD 2. [=on the rural mail-delivery route numbered 2 in his town] ▪ John Smith, RD 2, Box 237

-rd — used in writing after the number 3 for the word third ▪ my 3*rd* [=third] try ▪ I placed 43*rd* in the class.

RDA abbr, US recommended daily allowance; recommended dietary allowance ▪ 50 percent of the U.S. RDA of iron

[1]re /ˈreɪ/ noun [noncount] music : the second note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti

[2]re /ˈreɪ, ˈriː/ prep, formal : on the subject of : regarding or concerning — used in business and legal writing and e-mail before a word or phrase that states the subject you will be discussing ▪ re your letter of last month ▪ Re: Changes in procedure

RE abbr, Brit religious education ▪ He teaches RE at the local school.

re- /ri/ prefix

1 : again ▪ *re*fill [=fill again] ▪ *re*do [=do over; do again]

2 : back to an original place, condition, etc. ▪ *re*call [=call something back]

[1]reach /ˈriːʧ/ verb reach•es; reached; reach•ing

1 a : to be able to touch, pick up, or grab (something) by moving or stretching [+ obj] She couldn't reach the apple. She was too short. ▪ He couldn't reach the apple, even with a stick. ▪ Can you reach me that pencil? = Can you reach that pencil for me? [=can you pick up that pencil and give it to me?] [no obj] It's no good. I can't reach. [=I can't touch what I'm trying to touch] b : to move or stretch (your hand, arm, etc.) when you are trying to touch or grab something [+ obj] — + out, into, up, etc. ▪ I reached my hand out (to her). = I reached out my hand (to her). ▪ She reached her hand into her purse to get her wallet. [no obj] She can't reach that far. — usually + out, into, up, etc. ▪ I reached up to pull the cord. ▪ She reached into her purse. ▪ He was reaching out to grab the railing when he fell.

2 [+ obj] : to arrive at (a place that you have been traveling to) ▪ We reached California after driving for two days. ▪ The rescue team reached the stranded hikers this morning. [=the rescue team arrived this morning at the place where the hikers were stranded] — often used figuratively ▪ He reached [=got to] the play-offs but was eliminated in the first round.

3 — used to say that something is big or long enough to touch a certain place or point [+ obj] Their land reaches the river. ▪ The phone cord doesn't reach the table. = The phone cord isn't long enough to reach the table. ▪ When she is sitting, her feet don't reach the ground. [=her feet don't touch the ground because her legs are short] [no obj] Skirts must reach (down) below the knees. ▪ Their land reaches to the river. ▪ The phone cord doesn't reach.

4 [+ obj] a : to grow, develop, or increase to (a particular amount, size, etc.) ▪ You are an adult when you reach [=become] 18. ▪ The lottery is expected to reach $50 million. ▪ The temperature could reach 100°F this afternoon. ▪ These plants can reach (up to) 6 feet tall. ▪ The winds could reach 60 mph. b : to come to (a particular situation or condition) ▪ The situation has reached [=gotten to, arrived at] a critical point. ▪ We've reached a crisis in the negotiations. c : to succeed in achieving (something) after making an effort over a period of time ▪ The school has reached their goal of raising $10,000. ▪ They are still trying to reach an agreement. ▪ Have you reached a decision? ▪ Has the jury reached a verdict?

5 not used in the progressive tenses [+ obj] a : to be seen or heard by (someone) ▪ Your letter reached me yesterday. [=I received your letter yesterday] ▪ The news just reached us. [=we just heard the news] ▪ The news won't reach his parents until tomorrow. ▪ She left a message for her boss, but it didn't reach him. b : to call or write to (someone) : to communicate with (someone) ▪ I tried to reach [=contact] you by phone. ▪ You can reach me by e-mail.

6 [+ obj] : to get the attention or interest of (someone) ▪ The company is using TV commercials to reach a bigger audience. ▪ Her music reaches young people.

7 [+ obj] informal : to make (someone) understand or accept something ▪ I don't think I'm reaching my son.

reach for [phrasal verb] 1 reach for (someone or something) : to move your hand in order to get or touch (someone or something) ▪ She reached for the salt and pepper. ▪ He reached into his pocket for a dime. ▪ She reached inside the bag for a pen. ▪ The frog jumped as she reached for it. 2 reach for (something) : to try hard to achieve or succeed at (something) ▪ Success won't come to you, you have to reach for it. — see also reach for the moon at [1]MOON, reach for the stars at [1]STAR reach out [phrasal verb] 1 : to make an effort to do something for other people ▪ The church is reaching out to help the poor. 2 reach out to (someone) a : to offer help or support to (someone) ▪ The students are reaching out to the homeless. ▪ a community reaching out to refugees b : to try to get the attention and interest of (someone) ▪ He's reaching out to young voters.

– reach•able /ˈriːʧəbəl/ adj ▪ The island is only reachable by boat. ▪ a reachable goal ▪ She is always reachable by cell phone. ▪ Some children are just not reachable. [=some children refuse to accept what their parents, teachers, etc., tell them]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[2]reach noun, pl reaches

1 : the distance that you can stretch your arm to touch, pick up, or grab something [singular] The toy was within/in her reach. [=she was able to touch/reach the toy] ▪ Keep chemicals out of the reach of [=away from] children. ▪ The ball was just out of her reach. [=she was not quite able to touch or grab the ball] ▪ The ball was beyond her reach. [=the ball was too far away for her to grab] ▪ The boxer has a long reach. [=can reach a long way; has long arms] [noncount] He kept a dictionary within reach. [=nearby] ▪ The child tried to grab anything in reach. [=anything that was close enough to touch] ▪ The ball was just out of reach.

2 : the ability or power of someone or something to do, achieve, or control something [singular] Victory was within their reach. [=they were close to victory] ▪ Buying a new car is beyond our reach right now. [=we do not have enough money to buy a new car right now] ▪ His illness was beyond the reach of medicine. [=medicine could not cure his illness] [noncount] Victory was within reach. ▪ Their goal is out of reach.

3 reaches [plural] a : the parts of an area that are a long way from the center ▪ The country's farthest reaches had not been explored. — often + of ▪ the outer reaches of the universe ▪ the further reaches of the valley ▪ the northern reaches of the country — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Scientists are still discovering the far reaches of the human mind. b : levels of an organization ▪ the upper/higher/lower reaches of the business c : a straight part of a stream or river ▪ the upper/lower reaches of the river within (easy) reach of : close to (something) ▪ Our house is within easy reach of the highway.

re•act /riˈækt/ verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [no obj]

1 : to behave or change in a particular way when something happens, is said, etc. ▪ When I told her what happened, she reacted with anger. ▪ I didn't expect him to react that way. ▪ The firefighters reacted quickly when they heard the alarm. — often + to ▪ She reacted to the news by getting angry. ▪ Most people reacted positively to the smoking ban. — see also OVERREACT

2 of a chemical substance : to change after coming into contact with another substance — often + with ▪ The chemicals react with each other to form a gas. — often + together ▪ Ozone is formed in the atmosphere when sunlight and hydrocarbons react together.

3 medical : to be affected by a drug, food, etc., in usually a bad way ▪ He reacted badly to the drug.

react against [phrasal verb] react against (someone or something) : to do things that are opposed to (something or someone that you disagree with) ▪ He belonged to a group of artists who reacted against convention by doing things in a completely new way.

re•ac•tant /riˈæktənt/ noun, pl -tants [count] chemistry : a substance that changes when it is combined with another substance in a chemical reaction

re•ac•tion /riˈækʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : the way someone acts or feels in response to something that happens, is said, etc. [count] Their reaction to the news was positive. ▪ When I told him what happened, his immediate reaction was one of shock. ▪ The announcement produced an angry/stunned reaction from most of the people at the meeting. ▪ My first reaction when I met him was not to trust him. ▪ There has been a mixed reaction [=people have reacted in different ways] to the new policy. [noncount] There hasn't yet been much reaction to the announcement. ▪ The newspaper received many angry letters in reaction to [=in response to] the editorial.

2 : an action or attitude that shows disagreement with or disapproval of someone or something [count] — usually singular; often + against ▪ The modernist movement in literature was a reaction against traditional literary conventions. [noncount] There has been strong reaction against the government's policies.

3 reactions [plural] : the ability to act and move quickly in order to avoid sudden danger ▪ A good driver has quick reactions. ▪ The speed of his reactions saved his life.

4 medical : an occurrence in which your body is affected by a drug, food, etc., in usually a bad way [count] I had/suffered a (bad) reaction to the medicine. ▪ Something she ate caused/triggered an allergic reaction. [noncount] There is a risk of adverse reaction to the medicine.

5 a chemistry : a chemical change that occurs when two or more substances combine to form a new substance [count] The reaction of hydrogen with oxygen makes water. ▪ chemical reactions [noncount] a substance produced by chemical reaction b [count, noncount] physics : a process in which the nucleus of an atom is changed by being split apart or joined with the nucleus of another atom — called also nuclear reaction; see also CHAIN REACTION

6 [count, noncount] physics : a physical force that opposes the action of an equal and opposite force ▪ For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction.

7 [noncount] formal : a strong tendency or desire to oppose new political or social ideas ▪ They have had to fight against the forces of reaction.

re•ac•tion•ary /riˈækʃəˌneri, Brit riˈækʃənri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] disapproving : a person who is strongly opposed to new political or social ideas – reactionary adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ reactionary views/opinions/ideas ▪ a reactionary politician re•ac•ti•vate /riˈæktəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something) to start working or happening again : to activate (something) again ▪ reactivate the alarm ▪ Once his debt was paid, his account was reactivated.

re•ac•tive /riˈæktɪv/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : done in response to a problem or situation : reacting to problems when they occur instead of doing something to prevent them ▪ a reactive strategy ▪ The government's response to the problem was reactive rather than proactive. — compare PROACTIVE

2 chemistry : tending to change into something else when mixed with another substance ▪ a reactive chemical/substance re•ac•tor /riˈæktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] physics : a large device that produces nuclear energy — called also nuclear reactor

[1]read /ˈriːd/ verb reads; read /ˈrɛd/; read•ing /ˈriːdɪŋ/

1 a : to look at and understand the meaning of letters, words, symbols, etc. [no obj] She learned to read at a very early age. [+ obj] Can you read decimals/music/Braille? ▪ I can't read your handwriting. ▪ He claimed that he could read my palm. [=look at the lines on the palm of my hand and tell me what was going to happen to me in the future] b : to read the words of (a book, magazine, etc.) [+ obj] He likes reading the newspaper. ▪ She reads a lot of mystery novels. ▪ We will be reading (works by) Milton in the class. ▪ She starts work every day by reading her e-mail. ▪ Didn't you read the instructions? [no obj] He likes to read. ▪ She doesn't read much. ▪ Please read from Chapter 5 through Chapter 10. c : to speak aloud the words of (something written) [+ obj] He read the poem aloud. ▪ The teacher read a story to us. = The teacher read us a story. ▪ He wrote down the address I gave him and read it back to me. [no obj] Her mother read to her every night at bedtime. — see also READ OUT (below)

2 : to learn information about something from a book, newspaper, etc. [no obj] — often + about ▪ I read about the fire in the newspaper. — sometimes + of ▪ I have read of such things happening elsewhere. [+ obj] — + that ▪ I read somewhere that he's making a new movie. ▪ I read that they got married.

3 [+ obj] a : to learn information about (someone) by looking at how that person behaves ▪ I can't read her—I'm not sure if she likes me or not. ▪ You're an easy person to read. b : to learn information about (something) by looking at particular characteristics ▪ A good canoeist can read the rapids. ▪ (golf) She missed the putt because she didn't read the green correctly. ▪ (American football) The quarterback read the defense correctly.

4 [+ obj] : to understand (something) in a particular way ▪ The way I read it, we're supposed to show up at 3 p.m. ▪ The situation is hard to read. [=interpret] — often + as ▪ I read his actions as a cry for help.

5 [+ obj] a : to show (words) for someone to read ▪ The sign reads [=says] "No Trespassing." b : to show (a temperature, weight, number, etc.) ▪ The thermometer reads 90 degrees. ▪ The clock read 4:30.

6 [no obj] : to be written in a particular way ▪ The definition reads awkwardly. [=the definition is awkwardly written] ▪ This essay will read better if you reorganize it. ▪ The speech reads well. [=the speech is written well] ▪ The first chapters read like a lecture.

7 [+ obj] : to get information from (something) ▪ Someone reads the water meter once a month. ▪ A scanner reads the bar codes on packages. ▪ The computer can't read that disk.

8 [+ obj] : to hear and understand (someone) over a radio ▪ Can you read me now? ▪ I read you loud and clear.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

9 [+ obj] : to replace (a word or number) with another word or number — used to indicate how something written or said should be changed or corrected ▪ In the second problem, read 5 instead of 3. [=the number should be 5, not 3]

10 Brit : to study (a subject) especially at a university [+ obj] He read history at Oxford. [no obj] — often + for ▪ She is reading for a business degree.

read between the lines : to look for or find a hidden meaning that is not directly stated or obvious in something that someone writes or says ▪ Her letter seemed pretty cheerful, but if you read between the lines, you can tell that she's not really happy.

read into [phrasal verb] read into (something) : to think of (something, such as a comment or situation) as having a meaning or importance that does not seem likely or reasonable ▪ You're reading too much into her remarks. [=her remarks do not have the meaning or importance that you think they have] read lips : to understand what people are saying by watching the movement of their lips : LIP-READ ▪ deaf people who know how to read lips ▪ I couldn't hear what he was saying, but I was able to read his lips. ✧ People who tell you to read their lips mean that you should pay close attention to what they are saying. ▪ "Can't I please go?" "Read my lips: you're not going, and that's final!"

read out [phrasal verb] read (something) out or read out (something) : to read (something) aloud especially to other people ▪ I read out the names on the list.

read over [phrasal verb] read over (something) or read (something) over : to read (something) from beginning to end especially to look for mistakes or check details ▪ He read over [=read through] the directions/contract carefully.

read (someone) like a book : to easily understand the true thoughts and feelings of (someone) by looking at how that person acts or behaves ▪ My mom always knows when I'm lying. She can read me like a book.

read someone's thoughts or read someone's mind : to know or guess what someone is thinking ▪ She looked deep into his eyes, trying to read his thoughts. ▪ "I think we should go out to a movie tonight." "You read my mind. I was thinking the same thing."

read (someone) the riot act see ¹RIOT

read through [phrasal verb] read through (something) or read (something) through : to read (something) from beginning to end especially to look for mistakes or check details ▪ Remember to read through [=read over] the essay before you hand it in. ▪ He read the instructions through twice before he tried to assemble the bicycle.

read up on [phrasal verb] read up on (something) : to read a lot about (something) in order to learn about it ▪ I read up on the history of the war.

take (something) as read Brit : to accept or assume that something is true and does not need to be proved ▪ You can take it as read [=you can be sure] that there's nothing really new in their proposal.

²read /ˈriːd/ noun, pl reads [count] informal

1 : something (such as a book) that is read — usually singular ▪ The book is an easy read. [=the book is easy to read; reading the book is easy] ▪ The book is a good/quick/enjoyable read.

2 : an act of reading something (such as a book, article, etc.) ▪ He reviewed the book after several reads. — usually singular ▪ Give this article a read [=read this article] and tell me what you think of it.

3 chiefly Brit : a period of time spent reading ▪ She was lying in bed having a peaceful read.

³read /ˈrɛd/ adj : having knowledge that has been gained from reading books, articles, etc. — used after an adverb ▪ He is well-read. ▪ He is better read than most people. ▪ She is widely read in [=she has read a lot of] American literature.

read•able /ˈriːdəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : easy and enjoyable to read ▪ a highly readable book ▪ The travel guide is very readable.

2 : clear and easy to read ▪ She has such beautiful, readable [=legible] handwriting. — opposite UNREADABLE; see also MACHINE-READABLE – read•abil•i•ty /ˌriːdəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] ▪ I enjoy the clarity and readability of his writing style.

read•er /ˈriːdə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who reads a book, magazine, newspaper, etc. ▪ The book's ending leaves readers to draw their own conclusions. ▪ She's a fast/slow/avid/voracious reader. ▪ He's not much of a reader. [=he doesn't enjoy reading books, magazines, etc.] ▪ a magazine with three million readers — often + of ▪ a reader of science fiction ▪ regular readers of the newspaper — see also MIND READER, NEWSREADER

2 : a machine that is used for reading text or information that is stored on film, tape, etc. ▪ a microfilm reader ▪ a card reader

3 : a book that is used to learn how to read or to practice reading in your own language or in a foreign language ▪ a first-grade reader

4 or Reader Brit : a teacher at a university who ranks just below a professor read•er•ship /ˈriːdəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count]

1 : the number or group of people who read a particular newspaper or magazine — usually singular ▪ The magazine's readership decreased when the editors changed the format. ▪ an enthusiastic/devoted readership ▪ The newspaper has a readership of around 5,000.

2 or Readership Brit : the position of a reader at a university ▪ She holds/has a readership in chemistry.

read•i•ly /ˈrɛdəliː/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : quickly and easily ▪ readily understandable/available ▪ simple instructions that anyone can readily understand

2 : in a way that shows you are willing to do something : without hesitation or complaint ▪ She readily [=willingly] admits that she is to blame. ▪ He readily agreed to help us.

read•i•ness /ˈrɛdinəs/ noun [noncount]

1 : the state of being ready or prepared for something ▪ The soldier lay in readiness. — often + for ▪ They're unsure of their daughter's readiness for kindergarten.

2 : the state of being willing to do something — usually followed by to + verb ▪ He showed a readiness [=willingness] to help us.

read•ing /ˈriːdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 a [count] : the act of reading something ▪ She gave the manuscript a careful reading. [=she read the manuscript carefully] ▪ The family attended the reading of her will. ▪ The speech ended with a reading from his latest novel. ▪ After several readings, I finally understood the meaning of the poem. b [noncount] : the activity of reading a book, magazine, etc. ▪ He needs help in reading. ▪ They both love reading. ▪ The teacher gave us a list of books for further reading on the subject. ▪ The book makes for interesting/good reading. [=the book is interesting/good] ▪ He has done a lot of reading on this subject. — often used before another noun ▪ reading glasses ▪ a reading light

2 a : a book, article, etc., that is being read or that is intended to be read [count] The reading for today is about human cloning. — often plural ▪ The teacher assigned several readings to the class. ▪ What are the readings for the next class? [noncount] Moby-Dick is required reading for any scholar of 19th-century American literature. ▪ Shakespeare is not exactly light reading. [=the works of Shakespeare are not easy to read] — often used before another noun ▪ Did you bring any reading material/matter for the trip? ▪ Students were given a summer reading list. ▪ What is your child's reading level? [=how difficult are the books, articles, etc., that your child reads?] b [count] : a part of the Bible that is read aloud as part of a religious service ▪ The pastor selected a reading for tonight's service.

3 [count] : a particular opinion or understanding of something ▪ We need to get a better reading on [=a better idea of] what they intend to do. — often + of ▪ I disagree with his reading [=interpretation] of what happened. ▪ Her reading of the text is that the main character is depressed. ▪ The judge made his ruling according to a strict reading of the law.

4 [count] : an event at which something is read aloud to an audience ▪ a poetry/book reading

5 [count] : the temperature, weight, number, etc., that is shown on a measuring instrument ▪ The thermometer reading was 20 degrees. ▪ Meter readings are taken once a month. ▪ The scale gave an inaccurate reading.

6 [count] : an occurrence in which a proposed bill is discussed in a legislature before it becomes law

re•ad•just /ˌriːjəˈʤʌst/ verb -justs; -just•ed; -just•ing

1 [no obj] : to change in order to work or do better in a new situation : to get used to a new situation or change ▪ It takes time to readjust after a loved one dies. — often + to ▪ The children need time to readjust to the new school.

2 [+ obj] : to change or move the position of (something) slightly ▪ She was constantly readjusting her glasses. ▪ He readjusted the picture on the wall.

– re•ad•just•ment /ˌriːjəˈʤʌstmənt/ noun, pl -ments

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[count] She was constantly making readjustments to her glasses. [noncount] After the divorce, he had a tough period of readjustment.

re•ad•mit /ˌri:jədˈmɪt/ verb -mits; -mit•ted; -mit•ting [+ obj]
1 : to allow (someone) to again join a club, group, etc., or enter a place ▪ They refused to readmit her to/into the club. ▪ Only people who have ticket stubs will be readmitted (to the theater).
2 : to take (someone) into a hospital as a patient again ▪ He was readmitted soon after being discharged.

read–only adj, computers : capable of being viewed but not of being changed or deleted ▪ a read-only file/document

read–only memory noun [noncount] computers : ROM read•out /ˈri:dˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] computers : a small screen that shows information ▪ The calculator has a digital readout.; also : the information shown on such a screen ▪ He checked the readout on the screen.

[1]ready /ˈrɛdi/ adj read•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 not used before a noun : prepared to do something ▪ I'll be ready in 10 minutes. ▪ "Can we leave now?" "I'm ready when you are." ▪ We didn't have much time to get ready [=to prepare] before they arrived. ▪ (somewhat formal) We need more time to make ready. — often followed by to + verb ▪ We are ready to make changes. ▪ The kids are ready to go/leave. ▪ Are you ready to learn/listen? ▪ The boss is ready to speak to you now. ▪ She got/made herself ready to go. ▪ Doctors are ready and waiting to give help when it's needed. — often + for ▪ She's busy getting the children ready for school. ▪ Are you ready for your test? ▪ We need time to get/make ready for the long trip. ▪ The soldiers are ready for anything that the enemy might do.
2 not used before a noun : properly prepared or finished and available for use ▪ Dinner is ready. ▪ The college's new dormitory will be ready (by) next year. ▪ Your prescription will be ready in about 20 minutes. ▪ The car won't be ready until tomorrow. ▪ We got everything ready for the party before the guests arrived.
3 not used before a noun : almost about to do something ▪ He looked like he was ready to cry. [=like he was about to start crying] ▪ I was ready to walk out of the room [=I felt like walking out of the room] when he said that.
4 not used before a noun a : willing and eager to do something ▪ She's always ready with advice. = She's always ready to give advice. [=she likes to give advice] ▪ He is always ready to help his friends. ▪ He was angry and ready for a fight. b : needing or wanting something as soon as possible — usually + for ▪ I'm tired and ready for bed. [=I want to go to bed] ▪ The house looks like it's ready for a paint job. [=looks like it needs to be painted]
5 always used before a noun : quick and clever ▪ a ready answer/wit
6 always used before a noun : available for immediate use ▪ ready money/cash ▪ (Brit) a ready meal ▪ She has ready access to the files. [=she can get and use the files very quickly and easily]
(get) ready, (get) set, go also Brit ready, steady, go — used as a command to start a race ready to roll see [1]ROLL

[2]ready verb read•ies; read•ied; ready•ing [+ obj] formal : to prepare (someone or something) ▪ They readied the room for guests. ▪ She readied herself to speak. ▪ We have to ready ourselves for a tough fight ahead.

[3]ready noun, pl readies
at the ready : available for immediate use ▪ The tourists kept their cameras at the ready.
the ready or the readies Brit, informal : money that can be used immediately ▪ I'm a bit short of the ready just now.

ready–made /ˌrɛdiˈmeɪd/ adj
1 : prepared in advance for immediate use ▪ ready-made clothing/meals
2 always used before a noun : already created or provided ▪ The snowstorm gave us a ready-made excuse not to go to the party. ▪ a ready-made solution ready–to–wear adj : made in a standard size and not made for a particular person ▪ a ready-to-wear suit

re•af• rm /ˌri:əˈfəm/ verb - rms ; - rmed ; - rm •ing [+ obj] : to formally state (something) again in order to emphasize that it is true ▪ The President reaffirmed his commitment to cutting taxes. ▪ She reaffirmed her stance on the issue.
– re•af• r•ma•tion /riˌæfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•agent /riˈeɪʤənt/ noun, pl -agents [count] chemistry : a substance that is used to test for the presence of another substance by causing a chemical reaction with it

[1]re•al /ˈri:jəl/ adj
1 : actually existing or happening : not imaginary ▪ The movie is based on real events. ▪ The detective Sherlock Holmes is not a real person. ▪ He has no real power; he is just a figurehead. ▪ The battle scenes in the movie seemed very real to me. ▪ The team has a real chance at winning. ▪ There is a very real possibility that we will be moving to Maine. ▪ In real life, relationships are not perfect. ▪ The actor looks taller on TV than he does in real life. ▪ I finally got to talk to a real live person [=an actual person] instead of a machine. ▪ He's always daydreaming and seems to be out of touch with the real world. ▪ Their son finally went out into the real world [=the world where people have to work, deal with daily problems, etc.] and got a job.
2 : not fake, false, or artificial ▪ real [=genuine] leather ▪ a real diamond ▪ Your real friends [=the people who are truly your friends] would be here to help you. ▪ What is his real name? ▪ Tell me the real reason you need the money.
3 : important and deserving to be regarded or treated in a serious way ▪ This is a very real problem/danger/concern. ▪ They have avoided talking about the real issues. ▪ There is no real reason to worry.
4 always used before a noun — used for emphasis ▪ There's a real surprise at the end of the movie. ▪ Receiving this award is a real thrill. ▪ He's being a real jerk.
5 : strong and sincere ▪ I have no real interest in sports. [=I'm not very interested in sports] ▪ He made a real effort to improve his grades. ▪ There was a look of real [=genuine] astonishment on her face. ▪ She showed real delight/happiness when I told her the good news.
6 always used before a noun, finance : measured by what money can actually buy at a particular time ▪ a real increase in wages as compared to inflation ▪ Charitable donations declined in real dollars last year.
for real informal 1 : true and genuine ▪ The information is for real. 2 US a : honest and serious ▪ He convinced us that he was for real and really wanted to help. ▪ Is that guy for real? b : genuinely good, skillful, etc. ▪ The team has proven that it's for real this year. [=has proven that it's good and has a real chance of winning] 3 : seriously or truly ▪ He's in trouble for real. [=he's really in trouble] ▪ They were just pretending to argue before, but now they're doing it for real.
get real informal : to start to think in a serious or reasonable way : to stop having foolish ideas, hopes, etc. ▪ We have to get real about this problem. ▪ You think you can get into Harvard with those grades? Get real.
keep it real informal : to talk and behave in an honest and serious way that shows who you really are ▪ He says he's just trying to keep it real.
the real deal see [3]DEAL the real McCoy see MCCOY
the real thing see THING
– re•al•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The jeweler verified the realness [=genuineness] of the diamond. ▪ The audience was impressed by the realness [=realism] of the movie.

[2]real adv, chiefly US, informal : very or really ▪ We had a real good time. ▪ The water is real warm. ▪ He is real fast. ▪ We went to bed real late. ▪ a real old car real estate noun [noncount] chiefly US

1 : property consisting of buildings and land ▪ He sells real estate. — often used before another noun ▪ a real estate broker/business/investment ▪ real estate prices/values
2 : the business of selling land and buildings ▪ She works in real estate.

real estate agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] chiefly US : a person in the business of selling land and buildings — called also (Brit) estate agent

re•align /ˌri:jəˈlaɪn/ verb -aligns; -aligned; -align•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change the position or direction of (something) slightly usually in relation to something else ▪ She realigned the mirror. ▪ We had to realign the text to fit it on the page. ▪ The car's wheels were realigned.
2 : to organize (something) in a different way ▪ The company has realigned [=reorganized] several departments.
realign yourself : to begin to have different opinions, beliefs, practices, etc. : to become a member or supporter of a different group ▪ She has realigned herself with the conservatives.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

– re•align•ment /ˌriːjəˈlaɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] His car is due for a realignment. [noncount] the benefits of corporate realignment

re•al•ism /ˈriːjəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : the quality of a person who understands what is real and possible in a particular situation and is able to deal with problems in an effective and practical way ▪ He has a sense of realism about what can be done to improve the economy.
2 : the quality of being very much like real life : the quality of seeming to be real ▪ The realism of her dream was alarming.
3 : a style of art or literature that shows or describes people and things as they are in real life ▪ the stark realism of the play/painting

re•al•ist /ˈriːjəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person who understands what is real and possible in a particular situation : a person who accepts and deals with things as they really are ▪ I'd like to think that these problems can be solved easily, but I'm a realist. I know that a lot of hard work will be needed.
2 : an artist or writer who shows or describes people and things as they are in real life – realist adj, always used before a noun ▪ a realist [=realistic] approach to the problem ▪ a realist painting

re•al•is•tic /ˌriːjəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to see things as they really are and to deal with them in a practical way ▪ He tried to be realistic about the situation. ▪ We have to be realistic and accept the fact that these problems cannot be solved easily. — opposite UNREALISTIC
2 : based on what is real rather than on what is wanted or hoped for : sensible and appropriate ▪ The plan is not very realistic. ▪ a realistic approach/goal ▪ It's not realistic to expect people to spend that much money on wedding gifts. — opposite UNREALISTIC
3 : showing people and things as they are in real life ▪ a realistic painting/novel/description ▪ The battle scene in the movie was very realistic. [=it seemed very much like a real battle] — opposite UNREALISTIC
– re•al•is•ti•cal•ly /ˌriːjəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ We need to deal with these problems realistically. ▪ We can't realistically expect the war to end soon. = Realistically, we can't expect the war to end soon. ▪ The movie portrayed the battle very realistically.

[1]re•al•i•ty /riˈæləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the true situation that exists : the real situation ▪ He refused to face/accept reality. [=the truth] ▪ the difference between fiction/fantasy and reality ▪ She's out of touch with reality. [=she does not know what is really true] ▪ The reality is that we can't afford to buy a house. ▪ He used television as an escape from reality.
2 [count] : something that actually exists or happens : a real event, occurrence, situation, etc. ▪ The movie shows the harsh/grim/stark realities of war. [=the things that really happen in a war] ▪ Her dream of competing in the Olympics became a reality. [=she competed in the Olympics, as she had dreamed of doing] ▪ They made the plan a reality. — see also VIRTUAL REALITY in reality : in truth — used to stress that something is true or real especially when it is different from what was believed or expected ▪ They talked as if they had accomplished a lot, but in reality they did very little. ▪ In reality, she was 15 years younger than she looked.

[2]reality adj, always used before a noun — used to describe television shows in which people who are not actors are shown living with, dealing with, and often competing against each other in real-life situations ▪ reality television/TV/shows reality check noun, pl ~ checks [count] informal : something which shows you that the real situation is different from what you believed or hoped — usually singular ▪ Her friends gave her a reality check about her boyfriend. [=told her the truth about her boyfriend] ▪ He was starting to think he was infallible, so the criticism from his boss served as a reality check.

re•al•iz•able also Brit re•al•is•able /ˌriːjəˈlaɪzəbəl/ adj
1 : possible to achieve ▪ a realizable goal/plan
2 finance : in a form that can be easily sold for money ▪ realizable assets

re•al•i•za•tion also Brit re•al•i•sa•tion /ˌriːjələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌriəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [singular] : the state of understanding or becoming aware of something ▪ There is a growing realization that changes need to be made to the coaching staff. ▪ She had a/the sudden realization [=she suddenly realized] that things had changed between them. ▪ He came to the realization [=he realized] that he was adding up the wrong numbers.
2 [count] formal : the act of achieving something that was planned or hoped for — usually singular; usually + of ▪ He was thrilled by the realization of his lifelong dream.
3 [noncount] finance : the act of selling property in order to get money ▪ the realization of assets

re•al•ize also Brit re•al•ise /ˈriːjəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to understand or become aware of (something) ▪ They did not realize the risk/danger that was involved. ▪ He finally realized the scope of the problem. ▪ I realize (that) this is an unusual situation. ▪ She realizes how much things have changed. ▪ Do you realize how difficult that stunt is? ▪ You just have to realize that you can't always get what you want. ▪ She slowly realized what he was trying to say.
2 : to cause (something) to become real — usually used as (be) realized ▪ Our worst fears have been realized. [=the things that we most feared have actually happened]
3 formal : to achieve (something, such as a goal, dream, etc.) ▪ He realized a lifelong dream/goal by winning an Olympic medal. ▪ He finally realized his ambition to start his own business. ▪ She hasn't yet realized her potential as a golfer. [=she hasn't become as good as she can be]
4 formal : to earn or get (money) by sale or effort ▪ We can realize a profit by selling the stock. ▪ The furniture of the estate realized $10,000 at the auction.

real–life adj, always used before a noun : happening in the real world rather than in a story : happening in the real life of someone ▪ real-life problems/events ▪ a real-life drama re•al•lo•cate /ˌriːˈæləˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to move or direct (something) so that it can be used for a different purpose ▪ After the class trip was canceled, the money was reallocated to cover the cost of the dance. ▪ We need to reallocate our resources.

– re•al•lo•ca•tion /ˌriːˌæləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•al•ly /ˈriːjəli/ adv
1 — used to refer to what is true or real ▪ She didn't really mean it. ▪ Is that really a word? ▪ It turned out that the bone wasn't really broken. ▪ He might really be the one she's going to marry. ▪ They really are twins. ▪ What really happened? ▪ There are really only two choices. ▪ Who really cares? ▪ I'm not hurt—really. [=I am being honest when I say I'm not hurt] ▪ Did you really [=honestly] think I wouldn't notice?
2 : without question or doubt — used to make a statement more definite or forceful ▪ You should really see a doctor about your back pains. ▪ I really believe she's not coming back. ▪ You really should try some of this cake. ▪ She really is a nice person. ▪ We really need the extra money. ▪ He really likes her. [=he likes her very much]
3 : to a great degree : VERY ▪ The dog runs really fast. ▪ The water is really hot/cold. ▪ She's a really nice person. ▪ It's a really [=truly] beautiful day. ▪ a really frightening/funny story ▪ I had a really good time at the party.
4 — used to reduce the force of a negative statement ▪ I don't really agree with you. ▪ It really doesn't matter.
5 — used in speech to show surprise, doubt, or interest ▪ "They're getting divorced." "Really?" [=I am surprised to hear that and would like to hear more] ▪ "I think she likes me." "Oh, really?" [=I am doubtful that she really likes you]
6 US — used in speech to express agreement with what someone has just said ▪ "He shouldn't be allowed to do that." "Yeah, really. Who does he think he is?"
7 — used in speech to show that you are annoyed ▪ Really, you could have mentioned it sooner. ▪ Really, you're being ridiculous.
not really — used to say "no" in a way that is not very forceful or definite ▪ "Was the movie good?" "Not really." [=the movie wasn't very good] ▪ "Do you want to go to a movie?" "No, not really." [=no, I am not very interested in going]

realm /ˈrɛlm/ noun, pl realms [count]
1 : an area of activity, interest, or knowledge ▪ new discoveries in the realm of medicine ▪ in political and legal realms ▪ the realm of art/science/education ▪ A victory by the team seems within the realm of possibility. [=a victory seems possible] ▪ It's not beyond the realm of possibility [=it's not impossible] that he will return.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

2 : a country that is ruled by a king or queen ▪ a peaceful realm

re•al•po•li•tik /reɪˈɑːlˌpoʊlɪˌtiːk/ noun [noncount] : a system of politics based on a country's situation and its needs rather than on ideas about what is morally right and wrong real–time adj, always used before a noun : happening or shown at the speed at which a computer receives and processes information ▪ real-time data/chatting/video – real time noun [noncount] ▪ We chatted online in real time.

Re•al•tor /ˈriːjəltə/ service mark — used for a real estate agent who is a member of a national licensing association

re•al•ty /ˈriːjəlti/ noun [noncount] US : REAL ESTATE

[1]ream /ˈriːm/ noun, pl reams

1 [count] : an amount of paper that equals 480, 500, or 516 sheets

2 reams [plural] informal : a large amount of writing — usually + of ▪ She took reams of notes. [=she took a very large amount of notes]

[2]ream verb reams; reamed; ream•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to criticize (someone) in an angry way ▪ He got reamed in the press for his comments. — often + out ▪ She reamed him out for leaving the lights on.

re•an•i•mate /ˌriːˈænəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] : to give new life or energy to (something) ▪ The touchdown reanimated the crowd. ▪ She knows how to reanimate a dull conversation.

reap /ˈriːp/ verb reaps; reaped; reap•ing

1 [+ obj] : to get (something, such as a reward) as a result of something that you have done ▪ She is now reaping the benefits/rewards of her hard work. ▪ He reaped large profits from his investments.

2 : to cut and collect (a plant, crop, etc.) from a field [+ obj] The workers were out reaping the crops. [no obj] The workers were out reaping in the fields.

reap what you sow : to experience the same kind of things that you have caused other people to experience ▪ If you're rude to everyone, you'll reap what you sow. [=people will be rude to you]

reap•er /ˈriːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or machine that cuts and collects crops — see also GRIM REAPER

re•ap•pear /ˌriːjəˈpiə/ verb -pears; -peared; -pear•ing [no obj] : to appear again after not being seen, felt, etc., for a period of time ▪ We watched the fireflies in the field vanish and then reappear. ▪ Call the doctor if the symptoms reappear. [=come back]

– re•ap•pear•ance /ˌriːjəˈpirəns/ noun, pl -anc•es [count] — usually singular ▪ The bird was believed to be extinct until its recent reappearance. [noncount] The vaccine prevents reappearance of the disease.

re•ap•ply /ˌriːjəˈplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing

1 [+ obj] : to put or spread (something) again on a surface, a part of the body, etc. ▪ She reapplied her makeup. ▪ The finish needs to be reapplied.

2 [no obj] : to ask formally for something (such as a job, admission to a school, a loan, etc.) again usually in writing ▪ She plans to reapply to the school. ▪ He reapplied for the job.

3 [+ obj] : to cause (force, pressure, etc.) to have an effect or to be felt again ▪ The defense reapplied the pressure in the second half.

re•ap•praise /ˌriːjəˈpreɪz/ verb -prais•es; -praised; -prais•ing [+ obj] formal

1 : to make a new judgment about the value of (something) ▪ Our house is being reappraised for tax purposes.

2 : to think about (something) again in order to decide whether you should change your opinion about it : REASSESS ▪ The bad economic news is forcing many people to reappraise their investment strategies.

– re•ap•prais•al /ˌriːjəˈpreɪzəl/ noun, pl -als [count] tax reappraisals [noncount] The situation has changed and requires some careful reappraisal.

[1]rear /ˈriə/ noun, pl rears

1 [noncount] : the part of something that is opposite to or away from the front part : the back part of something ▪ There are two bedrooms at the rear. — often + of ▪ The store is in the rear of the building. ▪ We sat toward the rear of the train/boat.

2 [count] informal : the part of your body that you sit on : BUTTOCKS — usually singular ▪ He slipped and fell on his rear. [=rear end]

bring up the rear : to be in the last position in a group, line, etc. ▪ At this point in the voting, Jones is leading with Smith in second place and Johnson bringing up the rear. ▪ They entered the room first and I brought up the rear.

[2]rear adj, always used before a noun : at or near the back of something ▪ The car's rear bumper was damaged. ▪ We used the rear [=back] entrance of the hotel. ▪ the horse's rear [=hind] legs ▪ the car's rear lights/window

[3]rear verb rears; reared; rear•ing

1 [+ obj] : to take care of (a young person or animal) ▪ His family rears [=raises] cattle. ▪ They reared [=brought up, (chiefly US) raised] their children to be polite and well-mannered. ▪ books on child-rearing — often + on ▪ The kitten was reared on special food. ▪ He was reared on comic books. [=he read a lot of comic books when he was young]

2 [no obj] of an animal : to rise up on the back legs with the front legs in the air ▪ The horse reared (up) in fright.

3 [no obj] : to rise high in the air ▪ The cliff wall reared (up) above us.

rear its ugly head see [1]HEAD rear admiral noun, pl ~ -als [count] : an officer of high rank in the navy rear end noun, pl ~ ends [count]

1 : the part of the body you sit on : BUTTOCKS ▪ She stood up and brushed off her rear end.

2 : the back part of something (such as a vehicle) ▪ The car's rear end was badly damaged in the accident.

rear–end /ˈriəˈend/ verb -ends; -end•ed; -end•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to drive into the back of (a vehicle) ▪ Someone rear-ended my car at a stoplight. = My car was rear-ended at a stoplight. ▪ I got rear-ended.

rear guard noun, pl ~ guards [count] : a group of soldiers who are placed at the back of an army and who protect the army from being attacked from behind rear•guard /ˈriəˌgɑəd/ adj, always used before a noun : fought or conducted by a group of soldiers at the rear of an army especially during a retreat ▪ a rearguard battle/defense ▪ The army fought a courageous rearguard action. — often used figuratively to describe an effort or fight to change or stop something that is very close to happening or being done ▪ The town has been fighting a rearguard action to prevent the multiplex from being built.

re•arm /riˈɑəm/ verb -arms; -armed; -arm•ing

1 [no obj] : to obtain new weapons ▪ The treaty forbids the country to rearm.

2 [+ obj] : to supply (someone or something) with new weapons ▪ Another country was rearming their enemies.

– re•ar•ma•ment /riˈɑəməmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ naval rearmament ▪ They announced plans for rearmament.

rear•most /ˈriəˌmoʊst/ adj, always used before a noun : at the very rear of something : farthest back from the front ▪ the rearmost part of the building ▪ the rearmost seats

re•ar•range /ˌriːjəˈreɪnʤ/ verb -rang•es; -ranged; -rang•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to change the position or order of (things) ▪ He rearranged the furniture. ▪ She rearranged the letters of her name to spell different words. b : to change the position or order of the things in (something) ▪ Because of the cancellation, he had to rearrange his schedule. ▪ rearrange the living room

2 : to change the time or location of (something) ▪ He asked his secretary to rearrange [=reschedule] the appointment.

– re•ar•range•ment /ˌriːjəˈreɪnʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ Her schedule required rearrangement.

rear•view mirror /ˈriəˌvjuː-/ noun, pl ~ -rors [count] : a mirror in a vehicle that allows the driver to see what is behind the vehicle — see picture at CAR

[1]rear•ward /ˈriəwəd/ adj, somewhat formal

1 : located at, near, or toward the back of something ▪ the rearward section of the store

2 : directed toward the rear of something : BACKWARD ▪ a rearward glance ▪ rearward motion

[2]rear•ward (chiefly US) /ˈriəwəd/ or chiefly Brit rear•wards /ˈriəwədz/ adv, somewhat formal : at, near, or toward the rear ▪ He glanced rearward. [=backward]

rear–wheel drive noun [noncount] : a system that applies engine power to the rear wheels of a vehicle ▪ a car with rear-wheel drive

[1]rea•son /ˈriːzn/ noun, pl -sons

1 [count] : a statement or fact that explains why something is the way it is, why someone does, thinks, or says something, or why someone behaves a certain way ▪ I gave a reason for my absence. ▪ Is there a reason for your strange behavior? ▪ There is a reason why they don't want to come. ▪ I can't give you the report for the simple reason that it isn't yet finished.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

▪ She explained her reasons for deciding to change jobs. ▪ He wanted to know the reason for their decision. ▪ "Why don't you want to go to the party?" "No (particular) reason. I just feel like staying home tonight." ▪ Give me one good reason why I should believe you. ▪ For obvious reasons, we can't do that yet. ▪ For reasons of space, some of the charts and graphs have been omitted from the article. ▪ She resigned for personal reasons. ▪ He is always late, for some/whatever reason. [=he is always late, and no one knows why] ▪ He tends to get upset for no reason. ▪ She did things for no good reason. [=there was no acceptable explanation for her actions]

2 [noncount] : a fact, condition, or situation that makes it proper or appropriate to do something, feel something, etc. ▪ There is no reason [=cause] to panic. ▪ There's no reason for you to feel that way. ▪ I had sufficient/adequate/enough reason [=justification] to leave. ▪ He saw no reason to pursue the issue any further. ▪ They want to try something different, and that's reason enough for the change. ▪ He was found not guilty by reason of insanity. [=not guilty because he was insane when he committed the crime] ▪ We have (every) reason to believe he is lying. ▪ The company fired him with/without reason. [=there was/wasn't a good reason for the company to fire him] ▪ She decided, with reason, to find somewhere else to live. ▪ Poor work conditions are all the more reason to find another job.

3 [noncount] : the power of the mind to think and understand in a logical way ▪ Human beings possess the power of reason. ▪ (old-fashioned) He lost his reason. [=he became insane]

4 [noncount] : ideas and opinions that are fair, sensible, and appropriate ▪ I can't get him to listen to (the voice of) reason. = I can't get him to see reason. ▪ He is not open to reason. [=he is not listening to logical or sensible thinking]

rhyme or reason see [1]RHYME stand to reason : to be sensible or understandable ▪ If her friends don't want to go, it stands to reason [=it makes sense] that she won't want to go either.

within reason : within reasonable or sensible limits ▪ You can do anything you want, within reason. ▪ The price is within reason.

[2]reason verb -sons; -soned; -son•ing

1 [no obj] : to think in a logical way ▪ He lost the ability to reason.

2 [+ obj] : to form (a conclusion or judgment) by thinking logically ▪ He reasoned that both statements couldn't be true. ▪ She reasoned that something must be wrong.

reason out [phrasal verb] reason (something) out or reason out (something) : to find an explanation or solution to (something, such as a problem, question, mystery, etc.) by thinking about the possibilities ▪ He reasoned out [=worked out] the problem by himself.

reason with [phrasal verb] reason with (someone) : to talk with (someone) in a sensible way in order to try to change that person's thoughts or behavior ▪ They tried to reason with him, but he wouldn't listen.

rea•son•able /ˈriːznəbəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : fair and sensible ▪ We have reasonable cause not to believe him. ▪ She offered a reasonable compromise. ▪ Your idea sounds reasonable. ▪ It's not reasonable to expect perfect weather. ▪ Please be more reasonable. There is no way I'll be able to finish all this work in so little time. ▪ A reasonable man would not expect such a thing. ▪ Our boss has reasonable expectations of his employees. ▪ The request/offer seems reasonable. ▪ We finished within a reasonable [=acceptable] amount of time. — opposite UNREASONABLE

2 : fairly or moderately good ▪ The team has a reasonable chance of winning. ▪ He makes a reasonable amount of money. — see also reasonable facsimile at FACSIMILE

3 [more ~; most ~] : not too expensive ▪ The store's prices are reasonable. ▪ The hotel offers excellent accommodations at reasonable rates. — opposite UNREASONABLE – rea•son•able•ness /ˈriːznəbəlnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ We appreciated the reasonableness of his decision.

rea•son•ably /ˈriːznəbli/ adv

1 : to a fair or moderate degree : FAIRLY ▪ The estimate was reasonably accurate. ▪ They're doing a reasonably good job. ▪ He is doing reasonably well in school. ▪ The food is reasonably affordable/inexpensive/cheap. ▪ She is reasonably intelligent. ▪ I'm reasonably sure that the work will be done soon.

2 [more ~; most ~] : in a logical and sensible way ▪ "Why don't we take turns?" she suggested reasonably. ▪ We might reasonably assume he'll be available. ▪ The judge reasonably believes that some form of punishment is necessary. ▪ We need to discuss this problem reasonably.

3 [more ~; most ~] : in a fair or appropriate way ▪ a reasonably priced car [=a car that is not too expensive] ▪ She can reasonably be expected to show up on time.

reasoned adj, always used before a noun : based on sensible and logical thinking ▪ a reasoned argument/conclusion ▪ a reasoned appeal ▪ a place for reasoned debate

rea•son•ing /ˈriːznɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the process of thinking about something in a logical way in order to form a conclusion or judgment ▪ Could you explain your reasoning? ▪ They told everyone the reasoning behind the decision. ▪ a conclusion based on fallacious/flawed/false/sound reasoning ▪ scientific/logical/legal reasoning ▪ a method/mode/pattern of reasoning ▪ She chose to follow a particular line of reasoning. [=she chose to use a specific set of reasons in order to reach a conclusion]

2 : the ability of the mind to think and understand things in a logical way ▪ Humans possess the power of reasoning.

re•as•sem•ble /ˌriːjəˈsɛmbəl/ verb -sem•bles; -sem•bled; -sem•bling

1 [+ obj] : to put the parts of (something) back together : to assemble (something) again ▪ She reassembled the puzzle.

2 [no obj] : to meet as a group again after a period of time : to assemble again ▪ The committee will reassemble [=reconvene] next month.

re•as•sert /ˌriːjəˈsət/ verb -serts; -sert•ed; -sert•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make other people accept or respect (something that has been in doubt) ▪ He tried to reassert his authority/leadership/power/control.

2 : to state or declare (something) more strongly or clearly : to state again that (something) is true ▪ She reasserted her innocence. = She reasserted that she was innocent.

reassert itself : to start to have an effect again after a period of not having an effect ▪ Traditional values have reasserted themselves. ▪ An earlier pattern may reassert itself.

– re•as•ser•tion /ˌriːjəˈsəʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•as•sess /ˌriːjəˈsɛs/ verb -sess•es; -sessed; -sess•ing [+ obj] : to think about (something) again in order to decide whether to change your opinion or judgment of it : to assess (something) again ▪ The doctor reassessed the injury. ▪ She convinced him to reassess the issue.

– re•as•sess•ment /ˌriːjəˈsɛsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

re•as•sur•ance /ˌriːjəˈʃərəns/ noun, pl -anc•es : something that is said or done to make someone feel less afraid, upset, or doubtful [count] Experts offered their reassurances that the accident wouldn't happen again. [noncount] He received reassurance from his family. ▪ Children need a lot of reassurance.

re•as•sure /ˌriːjəˈʃə/ verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) feel less afraid, upset, or doubtful ▪ Experts reassured the public that the accident wouldn't happen again. ▪ I tried to reassure myself that the children were safe. ▪ The news didn't reassure him.

reassuring adj [more ~; most ~] : making someone feel less afraid, upset, or doubtful ▪ The news was somewhat/slightly reassuring. ▪ a reassuring change ▪ She gave me a reassuring smile. ▪ It was deeply reassuring to hear his voice.

– re•as•sur•ing•ly adv ▪ She smiled reassuringly.

re•bate /ˈriːˌbeɪt/ noun, pl -bates [count]

1 : an amount of money that is paid back to you because you have paid too much ▪ a tax rebate [=refund]

2 : an amount of money that a business or company pays back to you because you have bought a particular product or service ▪ a mail-in/store rebate ▪ There is a $50 rebate offered with the printer.

[1]reb•el /ˈrɛbəl/ noun, pl -els [count]

1 : a person who opposes or fights against a government ▪ The government captured six armed rebels. — often used before another noun ▪ a rebel army/leader ▪ rebel forces/groups ▪ the rebel movement

2 : a person who opposes a person or group in authority ▪ He was a rebel against the school administration. : a person who does not obey rules or accept normal standards of behavior, dress, etc. ▪ He is a typical teenage rebel. ▪ a fashion rebel

[2]re•bel /rɪˈbɛl/ verb -bels; -belled; -bel•ling [no obj]

1 : to oppose or fight against a government ▪ When the government imposed more taxes, the people rebelled. ▪ The protesters are rebelling against the new tax law.

2 : to oppose a person or group in authority ▪ Children often

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

rebel against their parents. : to refuse to obey rules or accept normal standards of behavior, dress, etc. ▪ He rebeled against the social conventions of his time.

re•bel•lion /rɪˈbɛljən/ noun, pl -lions
1 : an effort by many people to change the government or leader of a country by the use of protest or violence [count] The king's army suppressed/quelled/crushed the rebellion. ▪ The unfair tax laws sparked a rebellion. ▪ A rebellion broke out. [noncount] The peasants rose in rebellion.
2 : open opposition toward a person or group in authority [count] She's the head of a rebellion against the leaders of the party. [noncount] Recent election losses have led to open rebellion among some party members, who are calling for a complete change of leadership.
3 [noncount] : refusal to obey rules or accept normal standards of behavior, dress, etc. ▪ signs of teenage rebellion

re•bel•lious /rɪˈbɛljəs/ adj
1 : fighting against a government ▪ a rebellious army ▪ rebellious peasants
2 [more ~; most ~] : refusing to obey rules or authority or to accept normal standards of behavior, dress, etc. : having or showing a tendency to rebel ▪ a rebellious child ▪ a rebellious look ▪ He's always had a rebellious streak. [=he has always been inclined to disobey]
– re•bel•lious•ly adv ▪ She glared back rebelliously. ▪ He responded rebelliously. – re•bel•lious•ness noun [noncount]

re•birth /riˈbəθ/ noun, pl -births [count]
1 : a period in which something becomes popular again after a long period of time when it was not popular — often + of ▪ the rebirth of pop music ▪ The war generated a rebirth [=revival, renaissance] of patriotic feeling.
2 : a period of new life, growth, or activity ▪ the natural cycle of birth, death, and rebirth in plants ▪ the rebirth [=revival, renaissance] of the old shopping district ▪ a spiritual rebirth re•boot /riˈbuːt/ verb -boots; -boot•ed; -boot•ing computers : to turn off a computer and then immediately turn it on [+ obj] She tried to reboot her computer after it froze. [no obj] After you install the software, you will have to reboot.

re•born /riˈboɚn/ adj : having new or stronger religious beliefs ▪ a reborn Christian be reborn : to be born again : to become alive again after death ▪ The phoenix is a mythical bird that is reborn from its own ashes. — often used figuratively to describe something that becomes active or popular again ▪ After years of renovations and improvements, the city has been reborn as a tourist destination.

[1]re•bound /ˈriːˌbaʊnd/ noun, pl -bounds [count]
1 : the act of bouncing back after hitting something ▪ The fielder caught the ball on the rebound off the wall. [=caught the ball when it rebounded off the wall]
2 : a ball, puck, etc., that bounces back after hitting something ▪ He caught/grabbed the rebound.
3 basketball : the act of catching the ball after a shot has missed going in the basket ▪ He led the league in rebounds last year.
4 : an increase or improvement after a decrease or decline ▪ There has been a recent rebound in stock prices.
on the rebound 1 : sad and confused because a romantic relationship has recently ended ▪ She refused to date him while he was still on the rebound. 2 chiefly US : getting better ▪ His health is on the rebound.

[2]rebound verb -bounds; -bound•ed; -bound•ing
1 [no obj] : to bounce back off something after hitting it ▪ The baseball rebounded off the wall.
2 [no obj] : to increase or improve after a recent decrease or decline ▪ Share prices are rebounding. ▪ She rebounded quickly from the loss. ▪ He is rebounding [=recovering] from the injury well.
3 basketball : to catch the ball after a shot has missed going in the basket [no obj] She is good at both shooting and rebounding. [+ obj] He rebounded the ball and quickly passed it to a teammate.

re•buff /rɪˈbʌf/ verb -buffs; -buffed; -buff•ing [+ obj] formal : to refuse (something, such as an offer or suggestion) in a rude way ▪ Our suggestion was immediately rebuffed. ▪ The company rebuffed the bid. ▪ She rebuffed him when he asked her for a date.
– rebuff noun, pl -buffs [count] ▪ Our suggestion was met with a sharp rebuff.

re•build /riˈbɪld/ verb -builds; -built /riˈbɪlt/; -build•ing
1 : to build (something) again after it has been damaged or destroyed [+ obj] He rebuilt his house after it was destroyed by a fire. [no obj] They tried to rebuild after the earthquake.
2 : to make important improvements or changes in (something) [+ obj] They are rebuilding [=renovating, remodeling] an old house. ▪ He is trying to rebuild [=restore] his reputation. ▪ The new owner plans to rebuild the franchise. [no obj] The team is rebuilding after losing most of its top players.

re•buke /rɪˈbjuːk/ verb -bukes; -buked; -buk•ing [+ obj] formal : to speak in an angry and critical way to (someone) — often + for ▪ She was rebuked [=reprimanded] for being late. ▪ The boss rebuked us for talking too much.
– rebuke noun, pl -bukes [count] ▪ He was stunned by the harsh rebuke from his father.

re•bus /ˈriːbəs/ noun, pl -bus•es [count] : a riddle or puzzle made up of letters, pictures, or symbols whose names sound like the parts or syllables of a word or phrase re•but /riˈbʌt/ verb -buts; -but•ted; -but•ting [+ obj] formal : to prove (something) is false by using arguments or evidence ▪ Her lawyer attempted to rebut the witness's testimony.

– re•but•tal /rɪˈbʌtl/ noun, pl -tals formal [count] Her report is a rebuttal of some common misconceptions. ▪ In an angry rebuttal, the researchers claimed they were being unfairly scrutinized. [noncount] He said in rebuttal that he hadn't cheated.

re•cal•ci•trant /rɪˈkælsətrənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : stubbornly refusing to obey rules or orders ▪ a recalcitrant prisoner
– re•cal•ci•trance /rɪˈkælsətrəns/ noun [noncount]

[1]re•call /rɪˈkɑːl/ verb -calls; -called; -call•ing
1 not used in progressive tenses, somewhat formal : to remember (something) from the past [+ obj] She wanted to send him a letter but couldn't recall his address. ▪ I don't recall what time they said they would be here. ▪ It is important to recall that not very long ago cell phones did not exist. ▪ From what I recall, I think the library is two blocks down on the left. ▪ "The first time we met," he recalled, "we got into a big argument." [no obj] As you may recall, we had agreed that decisions would require prior approval. ▪ "What's his address?" "I don't recall."
2 [+ obj] a : to ask or order (someone) to return ▪ The government recalled the soldiers to active duty. = The soldiers were recalled to active duty. ▪ The ambassador was recalled from abroad. b : to ask people to return (a product with a defect or problem) ▪ The factory is recalling all the cars because of a problem with the brakes. ▪ Officials recalled two tons of contaminated meat today.
3 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be thought of : to bring (an image, idea, etc.) into your mind ▪ The old stone town hall recalls [=resembles] a stone house from medieval Europe. ▪ Seeing her again recalled memories of the happy times we spent together.

[2]re•call /ˈriːˌkɑːl/ noun, pl -calls
1 [singular] : an official order for someone or something to return ▪ They issued a recall of workers after the layoff.
2 [count] : a request by a company for people to return a product that has a defect or problem ▪ The factory has issued a recall of all cars with the defective brakes. ▪ a beef recall
3 [noncount] : the ability to remember what has been learned or experienced in the past ▪ She did mental exercises meant to improve her recall. ▪ He has total recall. [=the ability to remember all the details of things exactly as they happened]
4 [singular] US : a way in which a public official may be removed from office by a special vote of the people ▪ Many people are calling for a recall of the mayor. ▪ a recall election beyond recall : impossible to bring back : not able to be brought back or remembered ▪ Her youth was (gone) beyond recall. [=her youth was gone and could not be brought back] ▪ events that are now beyond recall re•cant /rɪˈkænt/ verb -cants; -cant•ed; -cant•ing formal : to publicly say that you no longer have an opinion or belief that you once had [no obj] Church officials asked the minister/priest to recant. [+ obj] Witnesses threatened to recant their testimony when the court released their names to the paper.

– re•can•ta•tion /ˌriːˌkænˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•cap /ˈriːˌkæp/ verb -caps; -capped; -cap•ping : to give a brief summary of what has been done or said before [+ obj] At the end of the program, the announcer recapped the day's news. ▪ Before we continue, let's recap what we have done so far. [no obj] Before we continue, let's recap.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– recap noun, pl -caps [count] ▪ The article provides a short recap of recent political developments. ▪ Before we continue, here's a recap of what we have done so far.

re•ca•pit•u•late /ˌriːkəˈpɪtʃəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing formal : to give a brief summary of something : RECAP [+ obj] To recapitulate what was said earlier, we need to develop new ways to gain customers. [no obj] We understood your point, there's no need to recapitulate.

– re•ca•pit•u•la•tion /ˌriːkəˌpɪtʃəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] She provided a recapitulation [=summary] of events leading up to this point. [noncount] His speech was so complex that recapitulation is impossible.

re•cap•ture /riˈkæptʃə/ verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj]

1 : to catch (someone or something that has escaped) ▪ The guards recaptured the escaped prisoner.

2 : to gain control of (a place or position) again after losing it ▪ The soldiers recaptured the hill they had lost the day before. ▪ In the final lap of the race, he recaptured the lead.

3 : to experience or bring back (a feeling, quality, or situation) again ▪ They are trying to recapture those happy times they had together. ▪ The documentary recaptures the social tensions of the 1960s.

– recapture noun [noncount] ▪ The escaped prisoners have so far avoided recapture.

re•cast /riˈkæst, Brit riˈkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast; -cast•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to change the actors in (a play, movie, or television show) ▪ The director decided to recast the movie with unknowns. b : to give a new role to (an actor) ▪ When she quit the movie, I was recast in the leading role. ▪ The director recast some of the actors in the play.

2 : to present (something) in a different way ▪ You should recast the last sentence in your essay to make it clearer. ▪ He recast his political image to fit the times.

rec•ce /ˈrɛki/ noun, pl -ces [count, noncount] Brit, informal : RECONNAISSANCE rec'd abbr received ▪ your letter rec'd March 3

re•cede /rɪˈsiːd/ verb -cedes; -ced•ed; -ced•ing [no obj]

1 : to move away gradually ▪ The floodwaters slowly receded. ▪ I felt sad as I watched the ship recede from view.

2 : to become smaller or weaker ▪ We listened as the sound of the sirens receded [=faded] into the distance. ▪ The pain from my headache slowly began to recede.

3 ✧ If your hair is receding, you are gradually losing the hair that is at the front of your head. ▪ His hair started receding when he was in his thirties. ▪ He has a receding hairline.

4 ✧ A receding chin/forehead is a chin/forehead that slants backward.

re•ceipt /rɪˈsiːt/ noun, pl -ceipts

1 [count] : a piece of paper on which the things that you buy or the services that you pay for are listed with the total amount paid and the prices for each ▪ Keep your receipt in case you need to return anything.

2 [noncount] formal : the act of receiving something ▪ The form should be completed and returned within 30 days of receipt. ▪ Open immediately upon/on receipt of the package. ▪ I am in receipt of your instructions. [=I have received your instructions]

3 receipts [plural] : money that a business, bank, or government receives ▪ Our company deposits cash receipts every day.

re•ceiv•able /rɪˈsiːvəbəl/ adj, always used after a noun, business : not yet paid ▪ accounts receivable [=the amounts of money that people and (other) businesses owe you] re•ceiv•ables /rɪˈsiːvəbəlz/ noun [plural] business : the amounts of money that other people and businesses owe you ▪ Our receivables are down this quarter.

re•ceive /rɪˈsiːv/ verb -ceives; -ceived; -ceiv•ing

1 [+ obj] : to get or be given (something) ▪ You will be charged a late fee if the electric company does not receive your payment on time. ▪ I received a letter/call from her yesterday. ▪ You will receive a discount if you spend over $100. ▪ This spring he'll receive [=be awarded] his PhD in physics.

2 [+ obj] : to react to (something) in a specified way ▪ She received the news of his death with remarkable calmness. — often used as (be) received ▪ Her new book was well/poorly received by the critics. [=the critics liked/disliked her new book] ▪ The results of the study were received with considerable skepticism.

3 [+ obj] formal : to welcome (someone) in usually a formal way ▪ The ambassador received [=greeted] his guests as they arrived at the party.

4 [+ obj] : to accept (someone) as a member of an organization, church, etc. — + into ▪ She was received into the church/university.

5 [+ obj] a : to suffer (an injury) ▪ He received [=got] a broken nose when he slipped and fell on the ice. b : to be given (a punishment) ▪ She received a heavy sentence from the judge.

6 [+ obj] : to experience or take (a medical treatment) ▪ He receives an injection once a week to treat his allergies. ▪ Only one of the patients receiving the new treatment is experiencing bad side effects. ▪ He received a kidney transplant.

7 [+ obj] a : to get (signals that are sent to a television, radio, etc.) ▪ We were unable to receive the broadcast. ▪ A satellite receives the signals and then sends them back to earth. b : to be able to hear (someone who is talking to you on a radio) ▪ I'm receiving you loud and clear.

8 American football : to be the player or team to which the ball is kicked when play begins [no obj] They won the coin toss and chose to receive. [+ obj] They chose to receive the kickoff.

9 [+ obj] law : to buy or take (goods that have been stolen) illegally ▪ He was found guilty of receiving stolen goods.

on/at the receiving end ✧ If you are on/at the receiving end of something bad or unpleasant, you are the person it is directed at. ▪ It's not often that I find myself on the receiving end of such insults.

received adj, always used before a noun, formal : widely accepted ▪ What was radical thinking in times past has become received wisdom today.

Received Pronunciation noun [noncount] : the British pronunciation of words that is based on the speech of educated people and is sometimes considered to be the standard pronunciation — abbr. RP

re•ceiv•er /rɪˈsiːvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : the part of a telephone that you pick up and hold near your face when you are making or receiving a phone call ▪ She angrily slammed down the phone's receiver.

2 : radio or television equipment that changes signals into sound and pictures ▪ a satellite receiver

3 American football : a player who catches passes thrown by the quarterback — see also WIDE RECEIVER

4 law : a person who is chosen to take control of a bankrupt business or its property ▪ She was listed as the receiver in the bankruptcy proceedings.

5 law : a person who buys or takes goods knowing that they have been stolen ▪ a receiver of stolen property re•ceiv•er•ship /rɪˈsiːvəˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] law : the state of a business that has been placed under the control of a receiver because it is bankrupt ▪ Years of financial difficulty eventually placed the company into receivership.

receiving line noun, pl ~ lines [count] US : a group of family members and friends who stand in line at a wedding, funeral, or other formal occasion to welcome or greet guests and receive their good wishes, their sympathy, etc.

re•cent /ˈriːsnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : happening or beginning not long ago ▪ Recent events have brought attention to the problem. ▪ I usually watch that show every week, but I missed the most recent episode. ▪ Medical science has made amazing progress in recent decades/years. ▪ She's a recent college graduate. [=she graduated from college a short time ago] ▪ The change was recent. ▪ That was the biggest earthquake in recent history/memory.

re•cent•ly /ˈriːsntli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : during the period of time that has just passed : not long ago ▪ She recently graduated from college. ▪ I was going to paint the room white, but more recently I've been considering a light blue. ▪ I saw him recently for the first time in many years. ▪ Only recently did they decide to move. ▪ Until recently I had no idea where I would end up finding a job.

re•cep•ta•cle /rɪˈsɛptɪkəl/ noun, pl -ta•cles [count]

1 formal : a container that is used to hold something ▪ She used the box as a receptacle for her jewelry. ▪ a trash receptacle — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He became a receptacle for his father's love and kindness.

2 US : a device into which an electric cord can be plugged in order to provide electricity for a lamp, television, etc. ▪ an electrical receptacle [=outlet]

re•cep•tion /rɪˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : the kind of welcome that someone or something

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

is given — usually singular ▪ The performers did not get the warm reception they had hoped for. ▪ His suggestion was given a cool reception. [=people were not enthusiastic about his suggestion]

2 [count] : a social gathering to celebrate something or to welcome someone ▪ The school held a reception for the new students and their families. ▪ a wedding reception

3 [noncount] : the act or process of receiving, welcoming, or accepting something or someone ▪ He decided to run for a seat on the school committee only a year after his reception into the community. ▪ Her job is to deal with the reception of donations.

4 [noncount] — used to describe how well or badly a radio, television, etc., is able to receive signals ▪ Our TV gets poor reception because of all the trees around the house. ▪ My cell phone reception is terrible.

5 [noncount] : a desk or area in a hotel, office building, etc., where visitors first go after entering ▪ Check in at reception when you arrive. = Check in at the reception desk when you arrive. ▪ I waited in the reception area. [=lobby]

6 [count] American football : the act of catching a forward pass ▪ He had three receptions [=he caught three passes] in today's game.

reception class noun, pl ~ classes [count] Brit : a class for young children who are just starting to go to school re•cep•tion•ist /rɪˈsɛpʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person whose job is to deal with the people who call or enter an office, hotel, etc.

reception room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] Brit : a room in a house (such as a living room) that is used for sitting and not for cooking, sleeping, etc. ▪ For sale: house with 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, and 2 reception rooms.

re•cep•tive /rɪˈsɛptɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : willing to listen to or accept ideas, suggestions, etc. ▪ I was happy to be speaking before such a receptive audience. — often + to ▪ He was receptive to the idea of going back to school.
– re•cep•tive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He was pleased by the receptiveness of the audience. – re•cep•tiv•i•ty /ˌrisˌɛpˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the audience's receptivity to his theories

re•cep•tor /rɪˈsɛptə/ noun, pl -tors [count] biology : a nerve ending that senses changes in light, temperature, pressure, etc., and causes the body to react in a particular way

[1]re•cess /ˈriːˌsɛs/ noun, pl -cess•es

1 [noncount] US : a short period of time during the school day when children can play ▪ The students play outside after lunch and at/during recess. ▪ Do you have morning recess? — called also (Brit) playtime

2 : a usually brief period of time during which regular activity in a court of law or in a government stops [count] The judge called for a recess [=break] for lunch. ▪ The Senate debates will continue after the August recess. [noncount] The Senate wanted to vote on the bill before recess.

3 [count] : a dark, hidden place or part — usually plural; often + of ▪ the dark recesses of the forest ▪ He buried the memory in the deepest recesses of his mind.

4 [count] : a part of a wall that is set back from the rest of the wall

[2]recess verb -cesses; -cessed; -cess•ing US : to stop regular activity in a court of law or in a government for a usually short period of time [no obj] The trial recessed for the holidays. [+ obj] The judge decided to recess the trial for the holidays.

recessed adj : set back into a wall or ceiling ▪ The shelf is recessed into the wall. ▪ The room has recessed lights/lighting. ▪ recessed shelves

re•ces•sion /rɪˈsɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 : a period of time in which there is a decrease in economic activity and many people do not have jobs [count] Many people lost their jobs during the recent recession. ▪ an economic recession [noncount] The economy is in deep recession. ▪ The President helped pull the country out of recession.

2 [noncount] formal : the act of moving back or away slowly : the act of receding ▪ the recession of the floodwaters

re•ces•sion•ary /rɪˈsɛʃəˌneri, Brit rɪˈsɛʃənri/ adj : of or relating to an economic recession ▪ in these recessionary times re•ces•sive /rɪˈsɛsɪv/ adj, biology : causing or relating to a characteristic or condition that a child will have only if both of the child's parents have it ▪ recessive genes ▪ Red hair is a recessive trait. = Red hair is recessive. — opposite DOMINANT

re•charge /riˈʧɑəʤ/ verb -charg•es; -charged; -charg•ing

1 : to refill (a battery) with electricity [+ obj] When the computer beeps, you need to recharge the battery. [no obj] It takes about an hour for the battery to recharge.

2 [no obj] : to regain your energy and strength ▪ Take a break to give yourself time to recharge.

recharge your batteries informal : to rest and relax in order to regain your energy and strength ▪ We took a nap after work to recharge our batteries before going out dancing.
– re•charge•able adj ▪ rechargeable batteries

re•charg•er /riˈʧɑəʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a machine that recharges batteries ▪ The digital camera has a built-in recharger.

re•cher•ché /rəˌʃeəˈʃeɪ, Brit rəˈʃɛəˌʃeɪ/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : unusual and not understood by most people ▪ recherché references re•cid•i•vist /rɪˈsɪdəvɪst/ noun, pl -vists [count] formal : a person who continues to commit crimes even after being caught and punished

– re•cid•i•vism /rɪˈsɪdəˌvɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ We hope the new program will lower recidivism rates.

rec•i•pe /ˈrɛsəpi/ noun, pl -pes [count]

1 : a set of instructions for making food ▪ The recipe calls for fresh thyme. ▪ I didn't read the recipe carefully. ▪ This is one of my grandmother's recipes. ▪ a recipe book [=cookbook] — often + for ▪ a recipe for beef stew

2 : a way of doing something that will produce a particular result — + for ▪ He says he has an infallible recipe for success. ▪ "She's planning to do the plumbing herself." "That's a recipe for disaster." [=that will result in disaster]

re•cip•i•ent /rɪˈsɪpijənt/ noun, pl -ents [count] formal : a person who receives something ▪ welfare recipients — often + of ▪ She is the recipient of many honors. [=she has received many honors]

re•cip•ro•cal /rɪˈsɪprəkəl/ adj — used to describe a relationship in which two people or groups agree to do something similar for each other, to allow each other to have the same rights, etc. ▪ a reciprocal trade agreement between two countries ▪ a reciprocal exchange of information ▪ The plan will only work if both sides fulfill their reciprocal [=mutual] obligations.
– re•cip•ro•cal•ly /rɪˈsɪprəkli/ adv

re•cip•ro•cate /rɪˈsɪprəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing

1 a : to do (something) for or to someone who has done something similar for or to you [no obj] She was harshly criticized, but she did not defend herself or reciprocate in any way. [=she did not criticize the people who criticized her] [+ obj] They appreciated her kindness but were not ready to reciprocate the gesture. b [+ obj] : to have (a feeling) for someone who has the same feeling for you ▪ It broke his heart to learn that his love was not reciprocated. [=that the person he loved did not love him]

2 [no obj] technical : to move back and forth again and again ▪ a reciprocating saw
– re•cip•ro•ca•tion /rɪˌsɪprəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

rec•i•proc•i•ty /ˌrɛsəˈprɑːsəti/ noun [noncount] formal : a situation or relationship in which two people or groups agree to do something similar for each other, to allow each other to have the same rights, etc. : a reciprocal arrangement or relationship ▪ The proposal calls for reciprocity in trade relations.

re•cit•al /rɪˈsaɪtl/ noun, pl -als [count]

1 : a dance or musical performance ▪ piano recitals ▪ a dance recital

2 : the act of reading something out loud or saying something from memory usually for an audience ▪ a poetry recital — often + of ▪ He gave a recital of his own poems before a large group of students.

3 : a long description or list that includes many things — often + of ▪ Her speech was actually just a long recital of names, places, and dates.

rec•i•ta•tion /ˌrɛsəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act of reciting something: such as a : the act of saying or repeating something out loud for an audience [noncount] the recitation of poetry/prayers [count] a poetry recitation b [count] : the act of describing or listing many things in a series — often + of ▪ a recitation of our successes and failures ▪ dry recitations of statistics rec•i•ta•tive /ˌrɛsətəˈtiːv/ noun, pl -tives music : a passage in vocal music (such as an opera) in which the words are sung in a way that resembles speech [count] the second recitative of Act II [noncount] The opera made use of recitative.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

re•cite /rɪˈsaɪt/ verb -cites; -cit•ed; -cit•ing
1 : to read (something) out loud or say (something) from memory usually for an audience [+ obj] He recited the poem/passage with great feeling. [no obj] He began to recite from the Koran.
2 [+ obj] : to say or describe (a series or list of things) ▪ He can easily recite all the facts about any player on the team.

reck•less /ˈrɛkləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing proper concern about the possible bad results of your actions ▪ He is a wild and reckless young man. ▪ She has gotten two tickets for reckless driving. [=driving a car in a dangerous manner] ▪ He showed a reckless disregard for the safety of others. ▪ He spends money with reckless abandon.
– reck•less•ly adv ▪ They recklessly threw themselves into battle. – reck•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ financial recklessness

reck•on /ˈrɛkən/ verb -ons; -oned; -on•ing [+ obj]
1 informal : to think or suppose (something) : to believe that (something) is true or possible ▪ I reckon that we'll have to leave early. ▪ Do you reckon you'll be able to go to the grocery store after work? ▪ We'll have to leave early, I reckon. ▪ "Do you think it will rain?" "(I) Reckon so." [=I think it will]
2 : to calculate or guess (an amount, number, value, etc.) : to have or form a general idea about (something) ▪ They reckoned that they would reach their destination by noon. ▪ I reckon [=estimate] the height of the building to be 70 feet. ▪ Losses were reckoned to be over a million dollars.
3 : to think of (someone or something) as being something specified — usually used as (be) reckoned ▪ She was reckoned [=considered] to be among the group's leaders. = She was reckoned as one of the group's leaders.
reckon on [phrasal verb] reckon on (something) : to expect (something) to happen : to plan on (something) ▪ The train was an hour late, which was something we hadn't reckoned on. ▪ She reckoned on winning the election. [=she expected to win the election] reckon up [phrasal verb] reckon up (something) or reckon (something) up chiefly Brit : to calculate the total number or amount of (something) ▪ He reckoned up the bill.
reckon with [phrasal verb] 1 *reckon with (something) : to consider or think about (something) when you are making plans ▪ They hadn't reckoned with all the paperwork that went along with buying a new house. 2 *reckon with (someone or something) : to deal with (someone or something that can cause problems or trouble) ▪ Anyone who tries to change the system will have to reckon with me. = Anyone who tries to change the system will have me to reckon with. [=I will oppose/fight anyone who tries to change the system] ✧ If you are a person/force to be reckoned with or a person/force to reckon with, you are someone who is strong and cannot be ignored. ▪ When he won his first three matches, the other players realized that he was a force/man to be reckoned with.
reckon without [phrasal verb] reckon without (something or someone) chiefly Brit : to fail to consider (something or someone) when making plans ▪ They thought they could defeat him, but they reckoned without his determination.

reckoning noun
1 [noncount] : the act of calculating the amount of something ▪ I was more than $10 off in my reckoning. ▪ By my reckoning [=by my calculations], he should be in his 80s by now.
2 a [noncount] : the time when your actions are judged as good or bad and you are rewarded or punished ▪ When the day of reckoning comes, we will have to face some unpleasant truths. b [count] : the act of judging something — usually singular ▪ In the final reckoning her earliest books are the best.
3 [noncount] Brit : the group of people or things that are considered likely to win or be successful ▪ Our football team hardly comes into the reckoning. ▪ Because of his injury, he is out of the reckoning. ▪ The team is still in the reckoning.

re•claim /rɪˈkleɪm/ verb -claims; -claimed; -claim•ing [+ obj]
1 : to get back (something that was lost or taken away) ▪ Sons and daughters are proudly reclaiming the traditions that their parents had forgotten. ▪ She reclaimed the title of world champion this year. ▪ You might be able to reclaim some of the money you contributed.
2 : to make (land) available for use by changing its condition ▪ Environmental groups have been reclaiming contaminated sites. ▪ Acres of land were reclaimed by conservationists. ▪ reclaimed swampland
3 : to get (a usable material) from materials that have been used before ▪ The factory reclaims fibers from textile wastes. ▪ These bottles were made from reclaimed [=(more commonly) recycled] plastic.
– rec•la•ma•tion /ˌrɛkləˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ land reclamation

re•cline /rɪˈklaɪn/ verb -clines; -clined; -clin•ing
1 [no obj] formal : to sit back or lie down in a relaxed manner ▪ She was reclining on the sofa, watching TV.
2 : to lean backward [no obj] Does that chair recline? ▪ The theater has reclining seats. [+ obj] He reclined his seat so that he could nap more comfortably.

re•clin•er /rɪˈklaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a comfortable chair which has a back that can lean back at an angle — see picture at LIVING ROOM re•cluse /ˈrɛˌkluːs, Brit rɪˈkluːs/ noun, pl -cluses [count] : a person who lives alone and avoids other people ▪ My neighbor is a recluse—I only see him about once a year.

– re•clu•sive /rɪˈkluːsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ my reclusive neighbor ▪ a reclusive lifestyle

rec•og•ni•tion /ˌrɛkɪgˈnɪʃən/ noun
1 a : the act of accepting that something is true or important or that it exists [noncount] The procedure is gaining recognition as the latest advance in organ transplant surgery. ▪ The Olympic Committee gave official/formal recognition to the sport. [singular] His smile was a recognition that things were not so bad. b [noncount] : the act of accepting someone or something as having legal or official authority — often + of ▪ the recognition of the territory as a state ▪ They demand legal recognition of their rights.
2 [noncount] : the act of knowing who or what someone or something is because of previous knowledge or experience ▪ She somehow escaped recognition. [=she was not recognized; no one knew who she was when they saw her] ▪ The renovations changed the house beyond (all) recognition. [=changed the house so much that it looked completely different and could not be recognized as the same house]
3 [noncount] : special attention or notice especially by the public for someone's work or actions ▪ Her paintings received recognition from her fellow artists. ▪ All she wanted was some recognition for her work. ▪ He finally received the recognition that he deserved. ▪ They were awarded medals in recognition of their bravery.
4 [noncount] computers : the ability of a computer to understand and process human speech or writing ▪ speech/voice/handwriting recognition

re•cog•ni•zance /rɪˈkɑːgnəzəns/ noun [noncount] US, law : a legal promise made by someone before a court of law that must be kept to avoid being punished ▪ He was released on his own recognizance. [=he promised to do what the court wanted him to do and the court let him go]

rec•og•nize also Brit rec•og•nise /ˈrɛkɪgˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj]
1 not used in progressive tenses : to know and remember (someone or something) because of previous knowledge or experience ▪ I didn't recognize you at first with your new haircut. ▪ I can always recognize him from far away by/from the way he walks. ▪ They recognized the odor at once.
2 : to accept or be aware that (something) is true or exists ▪ It's important to recognize [=be aware of] your own faults. ▪ They started talking and quickly recognized [=realized] how much they had in common.
3 : to accept and approve of (something) as having legal or official authority ▪ The U.S. government has now recognized the newly formed country. ▪ They refused to recognize the treaty.
4 : to think of (someone or something) as being something specified ▪ The institute is an internationally recognized authority on eye surgery. ▪ Walt Whitman is recognized as one of America's great poets.
5 : to publicly give special attention or notice to (someone or something) ▪ They recognized her years of service with a special award. ▪ We want to find an appropriate way to recognize his achievements.
– rec•og•niz•able also Brit rec•og•nis•able /ˈrɛkɪgˌnaɪzəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She has one of the most recognizable faces in the movie industry. ▪ The bird is easily recognizable because of its bright red feathers.
– rec•og•niz•ably also Brit rec•og•nis•ably /ˈrɛkɪgˌnaɪzəbli/ adv ▪ recognizably different versions

[1]re•coil /rɪˈkɔjəl/ verb -coils; -coiled; -coil•ing [no obj]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

1 : to quickly move away from something that is shocking, frightening, or disgusting : to react to something with shock or fear ▪ We recoiled in horror at the sight of his wounded arm. ▪ He recoiled from her touch. — often used figuratively ▪ We recoiled at the prospect of having to spend that much money to fix the car.

2 of a gun : to move back suddenly when fired ▪ The rifle recoiled and bruised my shoulder.

[2]re•coil /ˈriːˌkɔjəl/ noun [singular] : the sudden backward movement of a gun that happens when the gun is fired ▪ The gun has a sharp recoil.

rec•ol•lect /ˌrɛkəˈlɛkt/ verb -lects; -lect•ed; -lect•ing [+ obj] : to remember (something) ▪ I've been trying to recollect what happened. ▪ I don't recollect telling him anything, but maybe I did. ▪ She couldn't recollect who had mentioned his name in the first place. ▪ From what I recollect, they said four of them were coming.

rec•ol•lec•tion /ˌrɛkəˈlɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act of remembering something or the ability to remember something ▪ Her recollection of the accident is very different from mine. ▪ To the best of my recollection [=from what I can remember], I only met them once.

2 [count] : something from the past that is remembered : MEMORY ▪ She has only a vague recollection of her seventh birthday party. ▪ His novel is largely based on his own recollections of his childhood in the inner city. ▪ He says he has no recollection of what happened. [=he doesn't remember what happened]

re•com•mence /ˌriːkəˈmɛns/ verb -menc•es; -menced; -menc•ing formal : to begin (something) again after stopping [+ obj] The countries agreed to recommence the peace talks. [no obj] Production will recommence in early fall.

rec•om•mend /ˌrɛkəˈmɛnd/ verb -mends; -mend•ed; -mend•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say that (someone or something) is good and deserves to be chosen ▪ A friend recommended this restaurant. ▪ I can't decide between the lasagna and the salmon. Which do you recommend? ▪ They recommended her for a promotion after only two years. ▪ The film is recommended to anyone who liked her earlier movies.

2 : to suggest that someone do (something) ▪ It is strongly recommended that you change the oil in your car every 5,000 miles. ▪ Take only the recommended dose of cough syrup. ▪ I recommend [=suggest] getting to the theater an hour early to be sure you get tickets. = I recommend that you get to the theater an hour early. ▪ You may decide to pursue the matter in court, but I wouldn't recommend it.

3 : to make (something or someone) seem attractive or good ▪ As a vacation destination, the area has much to recommend it. [=there are many things that make it a good vacation destination] ▪ He has little/nothing to recommend him as a political candidate. [=he has little/nothing that suggests he would be an attractive or successful candidate]

rec•om•men•da•tion /ˌrɛkəmənˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act of saying that someone or something is good and deserves to be chosen ▪ My boss wrote me a glowing letter of recommendation. ▪ We picked this restaurant on his recommendation. [=because he recommended it] ▪ Employees are frequently hired on the recommendation of a friend in the company.

2 [count] : a suggestion about what should be done ▪ The report made very specific recommendations for policy reform. ▪ He rejected his doctor's recommendation [=advice] that he work less and exercise more. ▪ The committee's recommendation to hire a new director has been well received.

3 [count] chiefly US : a formal letter that explains why a person is appropriate or qualified for a particular job, school, etc. ▪ The application requires two written recommendations. [=references]

[1]rec•om•pense /ˈrɛkəmˌpɛns/ noun, formal : something that is given to or done to thank or reward someone or to pay someone for loss or suffering [singular] He is asking for a just/fair recompense for the work he's done. [noncount] She is seeking recompense [=compensation] for medical fees. ▪ He received $10,000 in recompense for his injuries.

[2]recompense verb -pens•es; -pensed; -pens•ing [+ obj] formal : to give something (such as money) to (someone) as a reward or as a payment for loss or suffering ▪ The company has agreed to recompense [=(more commonly) compensate] her for the injuries she sustained on the job.

re•con /ˈriːˌkɑːn/ noun, pl -cons [count, noncount] US, informal : RECONNAISSANCE rec•on•cile /ˈrɛkənˌsajəl/ verb -ciles; -ciled; -cil•ing formal

1 [+ obj] : to find a way of making (two different ideas, facts, etc.) exist or be true at the same time ▪ I'm afraid her story cannot be reconciled with the proven facts. [=her story must be false because it does not agree with the proven facts] ▪ You'll need to reconcile [=settle] your differences with her. ▪ It can be difficult to reconcile your ideals with reality.

2 : to cause people or groups to become friendly again after an argument or disagreement [+ obj] His attempt to reconcile his friends (with each other) was unsuccessful. — often used as (be) reconciled ▪ After many years, they are finally reconciled (with each other). [=they are friendly again] [no obj] We will never reconcile. ▪ After many years, they finally reconciled (with each other).

reconcile to [phrasal verb] reconcile (someone) to (something) : to cause (someone) to accept (something unpleasant) ▪ He eventually became reconciled to his position in life. ▪ I reconciled myself to the loss.

– rec•on•cil•able /ˌrɛkənˈsaɪləbəl/ adj ▪ Your theory is easily reconcilable with our results.

rec•on•cil•i•a•tion /ˌrɛkənˌsɪliˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal

1 : the act of causing two people or groups to become friendly again after an argument or disagreement [noncount] Signing the trade agreement was praised as an act of reconciliation between the two countries. [count] He contacted us in hopes of a reconciliation.

2 : the process of finding a way to make two different ideas, facts, etc., exist or be true at the same time [noncount] The differences in their philosophies are beyond reconciliation. [=cannot be reconciled] [count] a reconciliation of opposing views re•con•dite /ˈrɛkənˌdaɪt/ adj, formal : not understood or known by many people ▪ a recondite subject/fact re•con•di•tion /ˌriːkənˈdɪʃən/ verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] : to return (something) to good condition by repairing it, cleaning it, or replacing parts ▪ He reconditioned the old car. ▪ a reconditioned engine re•con• g•ure /ˌriːkənˈfɪgjə˞, Brit ˌriːkənˈfɪgə/ verb -ure; -ures; -ur•ing [+ obj] : to change the way (something) is arranged or prepared for a particular purpose ▪ We reconfigured the floor space to make it easier to work in. ▪ The network has been reconfigured.

re•con•nais•sance /rɪˈkɑːnəzəns/ noun, pl -sanc•es : military activity in which soldiers, airplanes, etc., are sent to find out information about an enemy [noncount] There are two helicopters available for reconnaissance. ▪ reconnaissance missions/aircraft [count] They did/conducted a reconnaissance of the enemy's position.

re•con•noi•ter (US) or Brit re•con•noi•tre /ˌriːkəˈnɔɪtə˞/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing : to go to (a place or area) in order to find out information about a military enemy : to do a reconnaissance of (a place) [+ obj] An expedition reconnoitered the coast to find out the exact location of enemy forces. [no obj] They were sent ahead to reconnoiter.

re•con•sid•er /ˌriːkənˈsɪdə˞/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing : to think carefully about (someone or something) again especially in order to change a choice or decision you have already made [+ obj] She refused to reconsider her decision not to loan us the money. ▪ Local opposition has forced the company to reconsider building a new warehouse here. [no obj] We hope you will reconsider.

– re•con•sid•er•a•tion /ˌriːkənˌsɪdəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The plan was sent back to the board for reconsideration.

re•con•sti•tute /riˈkɑːnstəˌtuːt, Brit riˈkɒnstəˌtjuːt/ verb -tutes; -tut•ed; -tut•ing [+ obj]

1 formal : to form (an organization or group) again in a different way ▪ They have plans to reconstitute the bankrupt company. ▪ a newly reconstituted committee

2 technical : to return (something, such as dried food) to a former state by adding water ▪ reconstituted potatoes

– re•con•sti•tu•tion /riˌkɑːnstəˈtuːʃən, Brit riˌkɒnstəˈtjuːʃən/ noun [noncount]

re•con•struct /ˌriːkənˈstrʌkt/ verb -structs; -struct•ed; -struct•ing [+ obj]

1 : to build (something damaged or destroyed) again ▪ After the earthquake, many houses needed to be reconstructed. ▪ Archaeologists were able to reconstruct most of the ancient village from their findings.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

2 : to find out and describe or show the way an event or series of events happened ▪ They are attempting to reconstruct the events that led to the bridge's collapse. ▪ Police reconstructed the crime.

re•con•struc•tion /ˌriːkənˈstrʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of building something that was damaged or destroyed again ▪ the reconstruction of the dam
2 [noncount] : the process of putting something (such as a country) back into a good condition ▪ the reconstruction of postwar Europe ▪ reconstruction of the health-care system
3 : a process in which an event or series of events is carefully examined in order to find out or show exactly what happened [noncount] They were able to determine the cause of the accident by careful reconstruction of the events leading up to it. [count] The police staged a reconstruction of the crime/accident.
4 or Reconstruction [noncount] US : the period from 1867 to 1877 when the southern states joined the northern states again after the American Civil War re•con•struc•tive /ˌriːkənˈstrʌktɪv/ adj, medical : done on a body part to return it to a former shape or to change the way that it looks ▪ a reconstructive operation ▪ His face was badly damaged and will require reconstructive surgery.

re•con•vene /ˌriːkənˈviːn/ verb -venes; -vened; -ven•ing
1 [no obj] : to meet again after a break ▪ Congress/Parliament will reconvene after the holiday.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (a group of people) to meet again after a break ▪ The association reconvened the conference every three years.

[1]rec•ord /ˈrɛkəd/ noun, pl -ords [count]
1 : an official written document that gives proof of something or tells about past events ▪ There is no record of their first meeting. ▪ Please submit your school records [=an official list of your classes, grades, etc.] with your application. ▪ dental/medical/financial/court records ▪ Unfortunately, there is no record of the transaction. ▪ keep/maintain (good) records
2 a — used to talk about the things that someone or something has done in the past ▪ The candidate has a strong environmental record. [=has a history of voting for laws, supporting projects, etc., that help the environment] ▪ a voting record ▪ She has a good driving record. [=she has not had any car accidents, traffic tickets, etc.] ▪ The company has a perfect safety record. [=the company has had no accidents, injuries, etc.] ▪ The team had a losing/winning record last season. [=the team lost/won most of the games it played last season] — see also TRACK RECORD b : CRIMINAL RECORD ▪ The defendant does not have a record. [=has not been arrested in the past for a crime]
3 : a performance or achievement that is the best of its kind ▪ a new record for the high jump ▪ He broke the record for the high jump. [=he jumped higher than anyone else had ever jumped] ▪ She set a record for the most sales in the history of the company. [=she made more sales for the company than anyone else ever had] ▪ He holds the world/Olympic record for the shot put. [=he has thrown the shot put farther than anyone else in the world/Olympics] ▪ She holds the (team/school's) record for the most strikeouts in a game.
4 a : a flat, round disc on which sound or music is recorded ▪ He has a collection of old records. ▪ play a record — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He sounds like a broken record. [=he keeps saying the same thing over and over again] b : a musical recording on a record, CD, etc. ▪ Have you heard the band's latest record? ▪ a hit record [=a record or CD that is very popular and sells many copies] — often used before another noun ▪ an independent record label/company [=a company that produces musical recordings] ▪ She just signed her first record [=(more commonly) recording] contract.
a matter of record see [1]MATTER for the record 1 — used to indicate that a statement will be written down in an official record ▪ The judge asked her to state her name for the record. 2 — used to indicate that you are making a statement which is important and should be remembered ▪ I'll do what you want, but (just) for the record, I don't think this is a good idea.
off the record — used to describe a statement that is not official and should not be repeated or made public by being used in a newspaper, magazine, etc. ▪ Government officials did speak to reporters, but only off the record. [=the reporters were not allowed to publish the things the officials said] ▪ Her remarks were strictly off the record. ▪ Off the record, I don't think he has any real chance of winning.
of record formal 1 : having an official status ▪ his attorney of record ▪ the company's shareholders of record 2 : regarded as an accurate and trusted source of information ▪ a newspaper of record on record 1 — used to indicate that someone is making or has made an official or public statement ▪ She is on record as supporting the program. [=she has publicly stated that she supports the program] ▪ The judge's opinion is on record. ▪ The governor went on record as being opposed to higher taxes. 2 : included or described in official records ▪ This has been one of the worst years on record [=one of the worst years ever recorded] for winter storms.
on the record — used to describe a statement that is official and can be repeated or made public by being used in a newspaper, magazine, etc. ▪ The reporter made it clear that the interview was on the record.
set/put the record straight : to provide the facts about something that people have a false understanding or idea about ▪ Let me set the record straight about what really happened last week.

[2]re•cord /rɪˈkoəd/ verb -cords; -cord•ed; -cord•ing
1 [+ obj] : to write (something) down so that it can be used or seen again in the future : to produce a record of (something) ▪ Be sure to record all your business expenditures. ▪ He recorded the incident in his journal. = The incident was recorded in his journal. = His journal recorded the incident. ▪ The first recorded [=known] case of the disease occurred two years ago. ▪ There are similar events all throughout recorded history.
2 [+ obj] : to show a measurement of (something) : to indicate (something) ▪ The thermometer recorded 40 degrees below zero. ▪ A seismograph is a device that measures and records the intensity of earthquakes.
3 : to store (something, such as sounds, music, images, etc.) on tape or on a disk so that it can be heard or seen later : to produce a recording of (something) [+ obj] Please record the television program for me. ▪ He recorded the birthday party with his new video camera. ▪ He just recorded his latest album. ▪ The show is recorded in front of a live audience. [no obj] The band spent all night recording. — see also PRERECORD

[3]rec•ord /ˈrɛkəd/ adj, always used before a noun : best or most remarkable among other similar things ▪ We've had record temperatures. [=temperatures that are higher/lower than temperatures have ever been at this time of year] ▪ He finished in record time. [=in the least amount of time ever] ▪ A record number [=the highest number ever] of voters turned out for the election. ▪ Gas prices are at a record high. [=higher than they have ever been] record book noun, pl ~ books [count] : a book that has records of the best or most remarkable performances or achievements in a particular sport or activity — usually used figuratively ▪ His long jump earned him a place in the record book. [=his long jump set a record] ▪ That game was one for the record books. [=many records were set during that game]

record–breaking adj, always used before a noun : better, greater, higher, etc., than any other in the past : beyond any previous record ▪ a record-breaking high jump ▪ The outdoor concert drew a record-breaking crowd to the park. [=the largest crowd to ever be at the park]
– record breaker noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

recorded delivery noun [noncount] Brit : CERTIFIED MAIL ▪ I sent the package by recorded delivery.

re•cord•er /rɪˈkoədə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a device that records sounds or images or both so that they can be heard or seen again — see also COCKPIT VOICE RECORDER, FLIGHT RECORDER, TAPE RECORDER
2 : a musical instrument that is shaped like a tube with holes and that is played by blowing into the top of the tube — see picture at WOODWIND
3 : a judge in some courts of law
4 : a person whose job is to record official information ▪ She works as the clerk and recorder at the county courthouse.

record holder noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : the person or thing that has achieved something no other person or thing has achieved : a person or thing that holds a record ▪ He is the marathon world record holder. [=he has run a marathon in less time than any other person in the world] ▪ They're developing an airplane that is expected to be faster than the current record holder.

re•cord•ing /rɪˈkoədɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : music, sounds, or images that have been stored on

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

a record, CD, computer, etc., so that they can be heard or seen again ▪ a digital recording ▪ early recordings of jazz 2 [noncount] : the act or process of storing sounds or images on tape or a disk — usually used before another noun ▪ a recording studio/session ▪ a recording artist [=a person who performs music for recordings]

record player noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] : a device used for playing musical records

[1]re•count /rɪˈkaʊnt/ verb -counts; -count•ed; -count•ing [+ obj] formal : to tell someone about (something that happened) : to describe or give an account of (an event) ▪ John later recounted how he got lost on the way home. ▪ He recounted the conversation that he had with his boss. — compare [2]RECOUNT

[2]re•count /riˈkaʊnt/ verb -counts; -count•ed; -count•ing [+ obj] : to count (something) again ▪ They carefully recounted the votes. ▪ We recounted the money to make sure it was all there. — compare [1]RECOUNT

[3]re•count /ˈriːˌkaʊnt/ noun, pl -counts [count] : a second count of the votes in a very close election ▪ The election was very close and the loser demanded a recount.

re•coup /rɪˈkuːp/ verb -coups; -couped; -coup•ing [+ obj] : to get back (money that has been spent, invested, lost, etc.) : RECOVER ▪ It will be hard for us to recoup the loss. ▪ Movie studios can turn to video sales to recoup the costs of a movie that does poorly at the box office. ▪ She recouped only a portion of her investment.

re•course /ˈriːˌkoəs, Brit rɪˈkɔːs/ noun [noncount] : an opportunity or choice to use or do something in order to deal with a problem or situation ▪ His only recourse [=the only thing he can do] is to file a complaint with the management. ▪ She has no legal recourse against the magazine. [=there is no legal action she can take against the magazine] ▪ He had no recourse to legal help. [=he was not able to get legal help] ▪ The dispute was settled without recourse to law.

re•cov•er /rɪˈkʌvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 [no obj] a : to become healthy after an illness or injury : to return to normal health ▪ She had a heart attack but is recovering well. — often + from ▪ He's at home recovering from the flu. ▪ I feel fully recovered from my surgery. b : to return to a normal state after a period of difficulty ▪ Share prices will be down until the economy recovers. — often + from ▪ The team never recovered from the devastating loss. ▪ The city will recover from this recession eventually.
2 [+ obj] a : to get (something, such as an ability or feeling) again ▪ He'll try again when he recovers [=regains] his confidence. ▪ She recovered consciousness in the hospital. ▪ I slipped, but somehow recovered my balance. ▪ He suffered a stroke and hasn't yet recovered the use of his left arm. b : to get back (something stolen or lost) ▪ The police recovered his stolen wallet. ▪ The program helps users recover computer files that have been deleted. ▪ a recovered computer file — often + from ▪ Very little was recovered from the wrecked ship. c : to get back (money that has been spent, invested, etc.) ▪ The author gets no royalties until the publisher recovers [=recoups] the expenses of publication. ▪ He may sue the company to recover damages for injuries caused by the device. [=to get money from the company to make up for being injured by the device]
– re•cov•er•able /rɪˈkʌvərəbəl/ adj

re–cov•er /riˈkʌvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) again : to put a new cover on (something) ▪ She re-covered the old chair with a new fabric.

re•cov•er•ing /rɪˈkʌvərɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : in a state in which you have stopped or are trying to stop a behavior (such as drinking alcohol or using drugs) that you have been doing for a long time and that is harmful to you ▪ a recovering alcoholic ▪ recovering drug addicts ▪ (humorous) He describes himself as "a recovering politician."

re•cov•ery /rɪˈkʌvəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 [count] : the act or process of becoming healthy after an illness or injury : the act or process of recovering — usually singular ▪ The patient made a miraculous recovery. ▪ Therapy played a vital role in his recovery. ▪ The card said, "Best wishes for a speedy recovery." [=a quick return to health] ▪ She is expected to make a complete/full recovery. [=to recover fully; to have no lasting health problems] ▪ She's on the road to recovery. [=in the process of becoming healthy again]
2 : the act or process of returning to a normal state after a period of difficulty [count] — usually singular ▪ the forest's natural recovery after a fire ▪ The army helped with the recovery efforts after the storm. ▪ We should see a gradual economic recovery in the next few months. [noncount] This policy may slow the pace of economic recovery.
3 [noncount] : the return of something that has been lost, stolen, etc. ▪ We hope for the recovery of the stolen paintings. ▪ Their mission was the recovery of the space capsule. ▪ programmers trained in data recovery [=getting back computer files that are or seem to be lost]
4 [noncount] : the act or process of stopping the use of drugs, alcohol, etc., and returning to a healthy way of living ▪ Admitting that you are addicted to a drug is an important step toward recovery. ▪ She's battled alcoholism most of her life, but she's in recovery now.
5 [noncount] : the act of getting something (such as oil, gas, gold, etc.) out of a substance that is deep in the ground ▪ a technique used in oil and gas recovery recovery room noun, pl ∼ rooms [count] : a room in a hospital where patients are taken for special care after an operation re–cre•ate /ˌriːkriˈeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to make (something from the past) exist or seem to exist again : to create (something) again ▪ The movie set re-creates a London street of 1895. ▪ The scene of the crime was re-created based upon police photographs.

– re–cre•a•tion /ˌriːkriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] a perfect re-creation of a colonial village [noncount] The investigation involved careful re-creation of the crime scene.

rec•re•a•tion /ˌrɛkriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : something people do to relax or have fun : activities done for enjoyment [noncount] The fields next to the school are used for recreation. ▪ a recreation center/area/facility [count] Hiking and gardening are our favorite recreations. [=pastimes]

rec•re•a•tion•al /ˌrɛkriˈeɪʃənl/ adj
1 : done for enjoyment ▪ recreational activities
2 of a drug : used for pleasure instead of for medical purposes ▪ Marijuana is a recreational drug. ▪ recreational drug users recreational vehicle noun, pl ∼ -cles [count] US : a large vehicle that often has a bathroom, kitchen, and beds for use during travel and camping; especially : MOTOR HOME — called also RV; compare CAMPER recreation ground noun, pl ∼ grounds [count] Brit : an area of public land that is used for sports and outdoor games recreation room noun, pl ∼ rooms [count]

1 : a public room in a school, hospital, etc., that is used for games and social activities
2 US : a room in a house that is used for playing games, watching television, etc. — called also (informal) rec room

re•crim•i•na•tion /rɪˌkrɪməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : an angry statement in which you accuse or criticize a person who has accused or criticized you [count] The discussion turned into a heated debate with recriminations flying back and forth. [noncount] The meeting ended with bitterness and recrimination. ▪ words of recrimination

rec room /ˈrɛk-/ noun, pl ∼ rooms [count] US, informal : RECREATION ROOM

[1]re•cruit /rɪˈkruːt/ verb -cruits; -cruit•ed; -cruit•ing
1 a : to find suitable people and get them to join a company, an organization, the armed forces, etc. [+ obj] He was recruited by the army after high school. ▪ Public schools are recruiting new teachers. ▪ College football coaches spend a lot of time recruiting high school athletes. [no obj] College football coaches spend a lot of time recruiting. ▪ Some parents don't think the military should be recruiting from high schools. b [+ obj] : to form or build (a group, team, army, etc.) by getting people to join ▪ We recruited a crew of volunteers to help us. ▪ recruit a regiment ▪ recruit an army
2 [+ obj] : to persuade (someone) to join you in some activity or to help you ▪ I recruited my brother to drive us to the concert. ▪ She recruited four friends to distribute food to the homeless with her.
– re•cruit•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an army recruiter – re•cruit•ment /rɪˈkruːtmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ recruitment of college graduates

[2]recruit noun, pl -cruits [count]
1 : a person who has recently joined the armed forces ▪ army recruits
2 : a person who has recently joined a company, organization, etc. ▪ the newest recruit on the team ▪ She's one of the department's new recruits.

rec•tal /ˈrɛktl/ adj, medical : relating to, affecting, or located near the rectum ▪ rectal cancer rect•an•gle /ˈrɛkˌtæŋgəl/ noun, pl -an•gles [count] geometry : a four-sided shape that is made up of two pairs of parallel lines and that has four right angles; especially : a shape in which one pair of lines is longer than the other pair ▪ squares and rectangles — see picture at GEOMETRY

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– rect•an•gu•lar /rɛkˈtæŋgjələ/ adj ▪ a rectangular shape rec•ti•fy /ˈrɛktəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal : to correct (something that is wrong) ▪ The hotel management promised to rectify the problem/situation.

– rec•ti• •ca•tion /ˌrɛktəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

rec•ti•lin•e•ar /ˌrɛktəˈlɪnijə/ adj, technical : made with straight lines ▪ rectilinear forms/designs/shapes : having many straight lines ▪ the rectilinear skyline/architecture of a modern city rec•ti•tude /ˈrɛktəˌtuːd, Brit ˈrɛktəˌtjuːd/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being honest and morally correct ▪ No one questioned his moral rectitude. [=integrity]

rec•tor /ˈrɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a priest or minister who is in charge of a church or parish 2 chiefly Brit : a person who is in charge of a university or school rec•to•ry /ˈrɛktəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : the house where the rector of a Christian church lives rec•tum /ˈrɛktəm/ noun, pl -tums [count] medical : the end of the tube in your body that helps digest food : the last part of the large intestine — see picture at HUMAN re•cum•bent /rɪˈkʌmbənt/ adj, formal : lying down ▪ The Egyptian sphinx has the body of a recumbent lion. ▪ a recumbent position

re•cu•per•ate /rɪˈkuːpəˌreɪt, Brit rɪˈkjuːpəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 [no obj] : to return to normal health or strength after being sick, injured, etc. : RECOVER ▪ She took a day off to recuperate. — often + from ▪ Dad is recuperating from knee surgery.
2 [+ obj] Brit : to get back (money that has been spent, invested, lost, etc.) ▪ The company is expected to recuperate [=recoup, recover] its losses in the next two months.
– re•cu•per•a•tion /rɪˌkuːpəˈreɪʃən, Brit rɪˌkjuːpəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

re•cu•per•a•tive /rɪˈkuːpəˌreɪtɪv, Brit rɪˈkjuːpərətɪv/ adj, formal : helping you to return to normal health or strength : helping you to recuperate ▪ the recuperative [=healing] powers of the body [=the body's ability to heal] re•cur /rɪˈkɚ/ verb -curs; -curred; -cur•ring [no obj] : to happen or appear again : to occur again ▪ There is only a slight chance that the disease will recur. ▪ The same problem keeps recurring.

– recurring adj ▪ She suffers from recurring headaches. ▪ a recurring injury/nightmare re•cur•rence /rɪˈkɚrəns/ noun, pl -renc•es : a new occurrence of something that happened or appeared before [count] We hope to prevent a recurrence of the disease. [noncount] high/low rates of recurrence re•cur•rent /rɪˈkɚrənt/ adj : happening or appearing again and again ▪ a recurrent fever/infection ▪ The loss of innocence is a recurrent theme in his stories.

– re•cur•rent•ly adv

re•cy•cle /riˈsaɪkəl/ verb -cy•cles; -cy•cled; -cy•cling 1 a [+ obj] : to make something new from (something that has been used before) ▪ The company recycles plastic. ▪ They're studying various ways to recycle garbage into fuel. ▪ The oil is recycled. ▪ The doormat is made from recycled tires.
b : to send (used newspapers, bottles, cans, etc.) to a place where they are made into something new [+ obj] Town residents are required to recycle cans and bottles. [no obj] We make efforts to recycle.
2 [+ obj] : to use (something) again ▪ The author recycles a familiar story in her latest novel.
– re•cy•cla•ble /riˈsaɪkləbəl/ adj ▪ recyclable bottles
– recyclable noun, pl -cla•bles [count] ▪ Put all recyclables [=recyclable materials] in the green bin.
– recycling noun [noncount] ▪ The recycling of plastics is encouraged. ▪ (US) Put the recycling [=the materials that can be recycled] out by the curb in the morning. — often used before another noun ▪ a recycling plant [=a factory that recycles materials] ▪ the city's recycling program

[1]red /ˈrɛd/ adj red•der; red•dest [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having the color of blood ▪ a shiny red fire truck ▪ bright red shoes ▪ dark red apples
2 : reddish brown or reddish orange in color ▪ She has red hair. [=she is a redhead] ▪ a red fox
3 of a person's face : pink because of embarrassment, anger, etc. ▪ His face turns red when he gets angry. ▪ When she realized her mistake, she turned beet red. [=she blushed] ▪ (Brit) His face went red with embarrassment.
4 of eyes : having many red lines from lack of sleep, drunkenness, etc. : BLOODSHOT ▪ Her eyes were red from crying.
5 somewhat old-fashioned, informal + disapproving : supporting Communism : COMMUNIST a red rag to a bull Brit, informal : something that makes a person very angry ▪ Just mentioning his poor marks to him was waving a red rag to a bull.
not one red cent see CENT paint the town red see [2]PAINT
– red•ness /ˈrɛdnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ There was swelling and redness around the site of the bee sting.

[2]red noun, pl reds
1 : the color of blood [noncount] The artist uses red to symbolize passion. ▪ a lady dressed in red [count] the reds and oranges of autumn leaves — see color picture on page C1
2 [count, noncount] : RED WINE
3 Red [count] somewhat old-fashioned, informal + disapproving : a Communist or someone who supports Communists in the red : spending and owing more money than is being earned ▪ Apparently the company had been in the red [=had been losing money] for some time before it went out of business. — compare in the black at [2]BLACK see red informal : to become very angry ▪ The construction delays on the highway have many commuters seeing red.

red alert noun, pl ~ alerts : a warning that there is great danger [count] — usually singular ▪ The commander issued a red alert. ▪ A red alert was sounded on the island as the storm approached. [noncount] The troops have been put on red alert.

red blood cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : a red-colored blood cell that carries oxygen from the lungs to other parts of the body — called also red blood corpuscle, red cell, red corpuscle; compare WHITE BLOOD CELL

red–blood•ed /ˈrɛdˈblʌdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : full of energy, strength, and strong emotion ▪ Every red-blooded teenager wants a car. ▪ your average red-blooded sports fan ▪ I did what any red-blooded woman would do: I demanded an apology.

red•brick /ˈrɛdˌbrɪk/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : made of red bricks ▪ a historic redbrick mansion
2 Brit — used to describe British universities that were created in the late 19th or early 20th century and that have buildings made of red bricks ▪ He attended a redbrick university. — compare OXBRIDGE red card noun, pl ~ cards [count] soccer : a red card that a referee holds in the air to indicate that a player who has broken the rules of the game will not be allowed to continue playing — compare YELLOW CARD

red carpet noun
roll out the red carpet : to formally greet or welcome an important guest who has just arrived ▪ The governor rolled out the red carpet for his dinner guests.
– red–carpet adj, always used before a noun ▪ a red-carpet welcome ▪ We got the red-carpet treatment [=we were treated like very important people] when we arrived.

red cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : RED BLOOD CELL

red•coat /ˈrɛdˌkoʊt/ noun, pl -coats [count] : a British soldier of the 18th and early 19th centuries and especially during the American Revolution

red corpuscle noun, pl ~ -puscles [count] : RED BLOOD CELL

Red Crescent noun
the Red Crescent : an organization in Islamic countries that helps people who are suffering because of a war or natural disaster

Red Cross noun
the Red Cross : an international organization that helps people who are suffering because of a war or natural disaster

red deer noun, pl ~ deer [count] : a large kind of deer with big antlers that lives in Europe, Asia, and Africa — compare ELK 1 red•den /ˈrɛdn/ verb -dens; -dened; -den•ing : to make something red or to become red [+ obj] First-degree burns redden the skin. [no obj] Her face reddened when her name was announced.

red•dish /ˈrɛdɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : somewhat red ▪ the reddish clay ▪ She has reddish-brown hair.

re•dec•o•rate /riˈdɛkəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing : to change the appearance of the inside of a house, building, or room by painting the walls, changing the furniture, etc.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[+ obj] They redecorated [=redid] three rooms in their house. [no obj] She helped us redecorate.
– re•dec•o•ra•tion /ri,dɛkə'reɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

re•deem /rɪ'di:m/ verb -deems; -deemed; -deem•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something that is bad, unpleasant, etc.) better or more acceptable ▪ The exciting ending partially redeems what is otherwise a very dull movie. ▪ The restaurant's excellent service is not enough to redeem [=compensate for] the mediocre food. ▪ He wants to redeem his reputation.
2 : to exchange (something, such as a coupon or lottery ticket) for money, an award, etc. ▪ You can redeem this coupon at any store. ▪ You have 90 days to redeem your winning lottery ticket. ▪ This voucher can be redeemed for a free meal at several local restaurants.
3 : to buy back (something, such as a stock or bond) ▪ The government will pay you interest when it redeems the bonds you bought. ▪ The company redeemed some of its stock.
4 : to pay back (money that is owed) ▪ redeem a debt
5 formal : to do what is required by (a pledge or a promise) : FULFILL ▪ The President redeemed his campaign promise. [=he did what he promised to do]
6 Christianity : to save (people) from sin and evil ▪ They believe that Jesus Christ was sent here to redeem us from sin.
redeem yourself : to succeed or do something good after you have failed or done something bad ▪ They can redeem themselves for yesterday's loss by winning today's game.

re•deem•able /ri'di:məbəl/ adj
1 : able to be exchanged for money or goods ▪ The gift certificate is redeemable at any store location. ▪ (Brit) The voucher is redeemable against any purchase.
2 US : able to make something that is bad or unpleasant more acceptable, enjoyable, etc. ▪ That movie had no redeemable [=redeeming] qualities whatsoever. [=nothing about the movie was good, enjoyable, etc.]

re•deem•ing /rɪ'di:mɪŋ/ adj : making a bad or unpleasant thing or person better or more acceptable ▪ He had few redeeming qualities. [=he had few good qualities to offset his bad qualities] ▪ The job's only redeeming feature is the employee discount.

re•deem•er /rɪ'di:mə/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] : a person who brings goodness, honor, etc., to something again : a person who redeems something ▪ He was considered the redeemer of the family's reputation/virtue.
2 the Redeemer : JESUS CHRIST

re•demp•tion /rɪ'dɛmpʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act, process, or result of redeeming something or someone: such as a [noncount] : the act of making something better or more acceptable ▪ the redemption of his reputation ▪ The situation is beyond/past redemption. [=it is too bad to be corrected or improved] b : the act of exchanging something for money, an award, etc. [count] stock redemptions [noncount] the redemption of coupons c [noncount] Christianity : the act of saving people from sin and evil ▪ the redemption of sinners : the fact of being saved from sin or evil ▪ a sinner's search for redemption ▪ bad people who are beyond/past redemption [=who cannot be saved]
– re•demp•tive /rɪ'dɛmptɪv/ adj ▪ the redemptive power of art/love/sports

re•de•ploy /,ri:dɪ'plɔɪ/ verb -ploys; -ployed; -ploy•ing
1 : to move (soldiers or equipment) to a new area [+ obj] The soldiers were redeployed to the country's capital. [no obj] Most units will redeploy to their home bases.
2 [+ obj] formal : to move (something, such as money) from one area or activity to another ▪ They redeployed their assets into mutual funds.
– re•de•ploy•ment /,ri:dɪ'plɔɪmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

re•de•sign /,ri:dɪ'zaɪn/ verb -signs; -signed; -sign•ing [+ obj] : to change the design of (something) ▪ The book's cover has been redesigned for the new edition. ▪ We're redesigning our kitchen. ▪ a newly redesigned Web site – redesign noun, pl -signs [count, noncount] ▪ The redesign of the Web site has been a great success.

re•de•vel•op /,ri:dɪ'vɛləp/ verb -ops; -oped; -op•ing
1 : to change the appearance of an area especially by repairing and adding new buildings, stores, roads, etc. [+ obj] The city has plans to redevelop the neighborhood. — often used as (be) redeveloped ▪ A portion of the property is being redeveloped into condos. [no obj] The city has plans to redevelop.
2 [no obj] : to happen or develop again ▪ We need to make sure that these problems don't redevelop.
– re•de•vel•op•ment /,ri:dɪ'vɛləpmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ urban redevelopment

red–eye /'rɛd,aɪ/ noun, pl -eyes
1 [count] US, informal : a flight in a passenger airplane that happens late at night or that continues through the night ▪ He caught/took the red-eye to Los Angeles. ▪ a red-eye flight red–faced adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a red face especially because you are embarrassed, angry, or ashamed ▪ I was red-faced [=very embarrassed] when I realized the stupid mistake I'd made. ▪ He was red-faced with rage/shame.
2 [noncount] : the appearance of a person's eyes as red in a photograph that was taken with a flash ▪ The digital photo editing program can be used to remove red-eye.

red ag noun, pl ~ ags [count] : a warning sign : a sign that there is a problem that should be noticed or dealt with ▪ Gaps in your employment history are red flags to employers.

red giant noun, pl ~ giants [count] astronomy : a very large star that has a reddish color

red–hand•ed /'rɛd'hændəd/ adv : while doing something wrong or illegal ▪ The robbers were caught red-handed by the police. [=the robbers were caught while they were stealing] red•head /'rɛd,hɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a person who has red hair ▪ Her brothers are both redheads.

– red•head•ed /'rɛd,hɛdəd/ adj ▪ a redheaded actress red herring noun, pl ~ -rings [count] : something unimportant that is used to stop people from noticing or thinking about something important ▪ The argument is a red herring. It actually has nothing to do with the issue. ▪ The plot of the mystery was full of red herrings.

red–hot /'rɛd'hɑ:t/ adj
1 a : glowing red because of being very hot ▪ red-hot coals b : extremely hot ▪ a red-hot iron ▪ a bowl of red-hot chili
2 informal a : very active or successful ▪ The local economy has been red-hot. ▪ The team is red-hot again this year. b : extremely popular ▪ a red-hot vacation destination c : new and exciting ▪ red-hot news

re•dial /'ri:,dajəl/ verb -dials; US -dialed or Brit -dialled; US -dial•ing or Brit -dial•ling : to select a series of numbers on a telephone again : to dial again [+ obj] Did you redial the number? [no obj] The number was busy, so she redialed.
– redial noun [noncount] ▪ The phone has a redial function. ▪ You can dial the same number again by pressing the redial button.

redid past tense of REDO

red ink noun [noncount] chiefly US — used to describe a situation in which a business, organization, etc., is spending more money than it is earning and has a lot of debt ▪ The company was drowning/awash in red ink. [=deeply in debt]

re•di•rect /,ri:də'rɛkt/ verb -rects; -rect•ed; -rect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change the path or direction of (something) ▪ They dug trenches near the river to redirect the flow of the water. ▪ Traffic will be redirected to avoid downtown. ▪ Visitors to the old Web site address are redirected automatically to the new one. ▪ I tried to redirect their attention to the other painting.
2 : to use (something) for a different purpose ▪ redirect tax dollars ▪ It's time to redirect your energy to your homework.
3 Brit : to send (a letter or package) to a new mailing address : FORWARD
– re•di•rec•tion /,ri:də'rɛkʃən/ noun [noncount]

re•dis•cov•er /,ri:dɪ'skʌvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to find (something lost or forgotten) again : to discover (something) again ▪ She rediscovered her love of ballet when she was in her 50s.

re•dis•trib•ute /,ri:dɪ'strɪ,bju:t/ verb -utes; -ut•ed; -ut•ing [+ obj] : to divide (something) among a group in a different way ▪ Unused federal funds will be redistributed to other states. ▪ The government redistributed the land to the settlers.
– re•dis•trib•u•tion /ri,dɪstrə'bju:ʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the redistribution of wealth re•dis•trict /ri'dɪstrɪkt/ verb -tricts; -trict•ed; -trict•ing [+ obj] US : to divide (a town, state, etc.) into new political or school districts ▪ The town was redistricted last year.

red–letter day noun, pl ~ days [count] informal : a very happy and important day ▪ Yesterday was a red-letter day for the graduating class.

red–light adj, always used before a noun : having many prostitutes ▪ the city's red-light district/area

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

red meat noun [noncount] : meat that is red when it is raw — used especially to refer to beef; compare WHITE MEAT

red•neck /ˈrɛdˌnɛk/ noun, pl -necks [count] US, informal + usually disapproving : a white person who lives in a small town or in the country especially in the southern U.S., who typically has a working-class job, and who is seen by others as being uneducated and having opinions and attitudes that are offensive

– redneck also red•necked /ˈrɛdˌnɛkt/ adj ▪ a redneck sheriff ▪ a redneck town

re•do /riˈduː/ verb -does /riˈdʌz/; -did /riˈdɪd/; -done /riˈdʌn/; -do•ing /riˈduːwɪŋ/ [+ obj]

1 : to do (something) again especially in order to do it better ▪ Let's hope we don't have to redo our paperwork.

2 : to change (something, such as a room or part of a room) so that it looks new or different ▪ I want to redo the kitchen and put in new cabinets and new appliances.

– re•do /ˈriːˌduː/ noun, pl -dos [count] informal ▪ There are no redos in the Olympics. [=there are no opportunities to do something again if you do not like how you did it the first time]

red•o•lent /ˈrɛdələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary + formal

1 : having a strong smell : full of a fragrance or odor ▪ a redolent bouquet — often + of ▪ a room redolent of spices — often + with ▪ The sauce was redolent with the smell of basil.

2 : causing thoughts or memories of something ▪ a room redolent [=reminiscent] of the 1940s re•dou•ble /riˈdʌbəl/ verb -dou•bles; -dou•bled; -dou•bling : to greatly increase the size or amount of (something) [+ obj] They redoubled their efforts to finish the work on time. [no obj] Their efforts to finish the work redoubled as the deadline drew near.

re•doubt /rɪˈdaʊt/ noun, pl -doubts [count]

1 : a small building or area that gives protection to soldiers under attack

2 : a safe or protected place ▪ The refugees gathered in a hilly redoubt several miles outside the city.

re•doubt•able /rɪˈdaʊtəbəl/ adj, literary + formal : causing or deserving great fear or respect : very powerful, impressive, etc. ▪ a redoubtable [=formidable] warrior ▪ There is a new biography of the redoubtable Winston Churchill.

re•dound /rɪˈdaʊnd/ verb -dounds; -dound•ed; -dound•ing [no obj] formal : to have a particular result — used especially to describe how something affects someone or something or affects the opinion that people have about someone or something; + to ▪ It redounds to his credit that he worked so hard to prevent this crisis. [=he deserves credit for working so hard] ▪ a policy that may redound to the advantage of our competitors [=that may help our competitors]

red panda noun, pl ~ panda also ~ pandas [count] : a small Asian animal that has reddish-brown fur and a long tail

red pepper noun, pl ~ -pers

1 [count] : a type of hollow vegetable (called a pepper) that is red and that can be eaten raw or cooked

2 [count] : a hot pepper that is red and that is added to food to make it spicy; also [noncount] : CAYENNE PEPPER

re•draft /riˈdræft, Brit riˈdrɑːft/ verb -drafts; -draft•ed; -draft•ing [+ obj] : to make a new version of (a document, plan, etc.) ▪ A meeting was called to redraft the state budget proposal.

re•draw /riˈdrɑː/ verb -draws; -drew; -drawn; -draw•ing [+ obj] : to draw (something) again usually in a different way ▪ The company is redrawing its logo. — often used figuratively ▪ The country's borders were redrawn after the war. [=the borders were changed]

[1]re•dress /rɪˈdrɛs/ verb -dress•es; -dressed; -dress•ing [+ obj] formal : to correct (something that is unfair or wrong) ▪ We hope that all these grievances/problems will be redressed [=remedied] immediately. ▪ It is time to redress the injustices of the past. ▪ They've been treated unfairly, and it's time to redress the balance. [=make the situation fair]

[2]redress noun [noncount] formal : something (such as money) that is given to someone to make up for damage, trouble, etc. ▪ Their lawyer has said that they intend to seek redress [=compensation] through the courts.

red•shirt /ˈrɛdˌʃɜt/ noun, pl -shirts [count] US, sports : a college athlete who practices with a team but does not play any official games ✧ Since college athletes are only officially allowed to play for four years, being a redshirt for a year makes it possible for an athlete to attend the school for five years and play for four of those years. ▪ a redshirt freshman red•skin /ˈrɛdˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins [count] informal + offensive : NATIVE AMERICAN ✧ The word redskin is very offensive and should be avoided.

– redshirt verb -shirts; -shirt•ed; -shirt•ing [+ obj] He was redshirted his freshman year. [no obj] He redshirted (during) his freshman year.

red–tailed hawk /ˈrɛdˌteɪld-/ noun, pl ~ hawks [count] : a type of American hawk that has a reddish tail — called also redtail red tape noun [noncount] disapproving : a series of actions or complicated tasks that seem unnecessary but that a government or organization requires you to do in order to get or do something ▪ bureaucratic red tape ▪ You would not believe the red tape involved in getting the required permits.

re•duce /rɪˈduːs, Brit rɪˈdjuːs/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (something) smaller in size, amount, number, etc. : DECREASE ▪ The medicine reduces the risk of infection. ▪ We are trying to reduce our debt. ▪ Stricter speed limit enforcement has reduced the number of car accidents. ▪ Her prison sentence was reduced from 15 years to 10. ▪ a drastically reduced price

2 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone) to be in a specified state or condition — + to ▪ The movie's ending reduced them to tears. [=made them cry] ▪ The crowd was reduced to silence. [=became suddenly silent] b : to cause (something) to be in a specified form by breaking it, burning it, etc. — + to ▪ reduce stone to powder ▪ mountains that will someday be reduced to sand ▪ Their house was reduced to ashes [=was completely burned/destroyed] by the fire. ▪ The city was reduced to rubble/ruins by the bombing. c : to force (someone) to do something that causes shame, embarrassment, etc. — followed by to + -ing verb ▪ The museum has been reduced to begging for funding.

3 [+ obj] : to describe (something) in a way that includes only some of the facts and details — + to ▪ You're reducing religion to a list of do's and don'ts. ▪ Her argument can be reduced to a few essential points.

4 : to boil (a liquid) so that there is less of it [+ obj] Simmer the broth until it is reduced to 2 cups. [=until there are only two cups of it] [no obj] Simmer the broth until it reduces to 2 cups.

5 [+ obj] : to change (someone's rank) to a lower or less important one ▪ As part of her sentence, the sergeant's rank was reduced to private.

6 [no obj] US, informal : to gradually decrease your weight by eating less ▪ He's on a (weight) reducing diet.

7 [+ obj] mathematics : to change (a fraction) so that it is written with the lowest possible numbers ▪ You can reduce ⅔ to ½.

reduced circumstances formal : a situation in which you have less money than you used to have ▪ He found himself living in reduced circumstances after he lost his job. ▪ We will have to adjust to our reduced circumstances.

– re•duc•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a fever reducer ▪ noise/weight reducers – re•duc•ible /rɪˈduːsəbəl, Brit rɪˈdjuːsəbəl/ adj ▪ The theories are not reducible to easy interpretation. ▪ The fraction is reducible.

re•duc•tion /rɪˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : the act of making something smaller in size, amount, number, etc. : the act of reducing something [count] a drastic/marked/sharp/significant reduction in size ▪ troop reductions = reductions in the number of troops ▪ cost/price/rate reductions [noncount] Many voters want to see some reduction of the deficit.

2 [count] : an amount by which something is reduced ▪ There is a 20 percent reduction on selected items during this sale.

re•duc•tive /rɪˈdʌktɪv/ adj, formal + often disapproving : dealing with or describing something complicated in a simple or too simple way ▪ a reductive interpretation of the theory ▪ reductive methods of analysis

re•dun•dan•cy /rɪˈdʌndənsi/ noun, pl -cies

1 a [noncount] : the act of using a word, phrase, etc., that repeats something else and is therefore unnecessary ▪ Avoid redundancy in your writing. b [count] : a word, phrase, etc., that repeats something else and is therefore unnecessary : a redundant word, phrase, etc. ▪ Try to avoid using redundancies in your writing.

2 technical : a part in a machine, system, etc., that has the same function as another part and that exists so that the entire machine, system, etc., will not fail if the main part fails [count] The design incorporates several redundancies. [noncount] a system with a high level of redundancy

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

3 Brit a : the act of ending the employment of a worker or group of workers [count] compulsory/voluntary redundancies [=layoffs] [noncount] The restructuring is expected to result in the redundancy of several hundred workers. b [noncount] : the fact of being dismissed from a job because you are no longer needed ▪ The workers are now facing redundancy.

re•dun•dant /rɪˈdʌndənt/ adj
1 : repeating something else and therefore unnecessary ▪ He edited the paper and removed any redundant information or statements. ▪ Avoid redundant expressions in your writing. ▪ Some people say that since all adages are old, the phrase "old adage" is redundant.
2 technical — used to describe part of a machine, system, etc., that has the same function as another part and that exists so that the entire machine, system, etc., will not fail if the main part fails ▪ The design incorporates several redundant features.
3 Brit : dismissed from a job because you are no longer needed ▪ More than 200 of the company's employees have already been made redundant. [=laid off]
– re•dun•dant•ly adv ▪ In the phrase "old adage," "old" is sometimes thought of as being used redundantly.

red wine noun, pl ~ wines [count, noncount] : wine that has a red color red•wood /ˈrɛdˌwʊd/ noun, pl -woods

1 [count] : a very tall evergreen tree
2 [noncount] : the wood of a redwood red zone noun

the red zone American football : the area of the field that is inside an opponent's 20-yard line ▪ The team has had trouble scoring when it gets into the red zone.

reed /ˈri:d/ noun, pl reeds [count]
1 : a tall, thin grass that grows in wet areas ▪ the reeds along the edge of a pond
2 a : a thin strip of wood, metal, or plastic inside some musical instruments (such as clarinets and oboes) that makes a sound when you blow over it b : a musical instrument that has a reed ▪ the orchestra's reeds ▪ the reed section of the orchestra

re•ed•u•cate /riˈɛʤəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to teach (someone) to do or understand something in a new way ▪ The program reeducates people about how to eat in a more healthful way. ▪ (disapproving) camps that were used to "reeducate" political prisoners [=to force political prisoners to accept the official ideas and beliefs of the government]
2 : to train (someone) for a different job ▪ We need to reeducate the workers who lost their jobs when the factory closed.
– re•ed•u•ca•tion /riˌɛʤəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a need for reeducation about how to eat in a more healthful way ▪ reeducation camps for political prisoners reedy /ˈri:di/ adj reed•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : full of or covered with reeds ▪ a reedy marsh
2 : having a weak, high-pitched sound ▪ reedy music/voices
3 US : long and thin ▪ reedy legs/arms reef /ˈri:f/ noun, pl reefs [count] : a long line of rocks or coral or a high area of sand near the surface of the water in the ocean — see also BARRIER REEF, CORAL REEF

ree•fer /ˈri:fə/ noun, pl -fers informal + old-fashioned
1 [noncount] : MARIJUANA ▪ smoking reefer
2 [count] : a marijuana cigarette ▪ smoking a reefer reef knot noun, pl ~ knots [count] chiefly Brit : SQUARE KNOT

reek /ˈri:k/ verb reeks; reeked; reek•ing [no obj]
1 : to have a very strong and unpleasant smell ▪ The garbage reeks. [=stinks] — often + of ▪ The room reeked of smoke.
2 usually disapproving — used to say that it is very obvious that someone or something has a lot of a specified thing; usually + of ▪ a neighborhood that reeks of poverty [=a neighborhood in which everyone is clearly very poor] ▪ She reeks of money. [=she dresses, acts, etc., in a way that shows that she has a lot of money]

[1]reel /ˈri:l/ noun, pl reels [count]
1 a : a device shaped like a cylinder that a string, cord, etc., is wrapped around ▪ a garden hose reel ▪ (Brit) a cotton reel [=(US) a spool of thread] b : a device that is attached to the handle of a fishing pole and used to wrap and release the line ▪ He bought a new rod and (fishing) reel. — see picture at FISHING c : an object that is used to hold and release film or tape ▪ a reel of film
2 : a part of a movie that is on a reel of film ▪ There's an exciting chase scene in the movie's second reel.
– compare [4]REEL

[2]reel verb reels; reeled; reel•ing reel in [phrasal verb] reel (something) in or reel in (something) : to pull in (a fish that is caught on a hook on the end of a fishing line) by turning the reel of a fishing rod reel off [phrasal verb] reel (something) off or reel off (something) : to say (something) easily and quickly ▪ She reeled off the right answers without hesitation.
– compare [3]REEL

[3]reel verb reels; reeled; reeling [no obj]
1 : to be very shocked, confused, and upset ▪ Still reeling from the death of her husband, she was now dealing with having to find a new job. ▪ I couldn't believe what I was hearing. My head reeled.
2 : to move or fall back suddenly ▪ He suddenly reeled back against the wall. ▪ The surprise attack sent the enemy reeling.
3 : to move or walk in a way that is very unsteady ▪ He was reeling drunkenly down the street. ▪ They reeled around the room, laughing hysterically. ▪ When she opened her eyes, the room was reeling. [=the room looked like it was moving in an unsteady way]
– compare [2]REEL

[4]reel noun, pl reels [count] : a lively dance originally from Scotland and Ireland; also : the music for this dance — see also VIRGINIA REEL — compare [1]REEL

re•elect /ˌri:jəˈlɛkt/ verb -elects; -elect•ed; -elect•ing [+ obj] : to elect (someone) again ▪ The town reelected her (to be) mayor. ▪ He was reelected to the school committee.
– re•elec•tion /ˌri:jəˈlɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The senator decided to run for reelection.

re•emerge /ˌri:jɪˈməʤ/ verb -emerg•es; -emerged; -emerg•ing [no obj]
1 : to come out of something you have entered ▪ The rescuers didn't reemerge from the cave until hours later.
2 : to be seen or known again ▪ an old style that has reemerged [=has become popular again] ▪ The former actor has reemerged as a candidate for mayor.

re•en•act /ˌri:jəˈnækt/ verb -acts; -act•ed; -act•ing [+ obj] : to repeat the actions of (an event) ▪ The group reenacted a famous American Civil War battle.
– re•en•act•ment /ˌri:jəˈnæktmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

re•en•ter /riˈɛntə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing : to enter again: such as a : to go into (a place you have left) again [+ obj] They've reentered the country. ▪ The space shuttle has safely reentered the Earth's atmosphere. [no obj] If you leave the theater, you won't be allowed to reenter without showing a ticket stub. b [+ obj] : to go back into (a game that you were participating in earlier) ▪ The quarterback reentered the game in the second half. c [+ obj] : to type in (words, data, etc.) again on a computer ▪ The original file was corrupted, so they had to reenter the data.
– re•en•try /riˈɛntri/ noun, pl -tries [noncount] Reentry to the theater will be permitted with a ticket stub. ▪ The space shuttle needs to be controlled precisely during reentry. [count] shuttle reentries

re•es•tab•lish /ˌri:jɪˈstæblɪʃ/ verb -lish•es; -lished; -lish•ing [+ obj] : to establish (someone or something) again: such as a : to cause (someone or something) to be widely known and accepted again ▪ The city is trying to reestablish itself as a tourist destination. b : to make (something) exist again ▪ The school was reestablished last year in a new town. ▪ She is working hard to reestablish her political influence. ▪ The crew has reestablished communication with the ship.
– re•es•tab•lish•ment /ˌri:jɪˈstæblɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount]

re•eval•u•ate /ˌri:jɪˈvælјəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to judge the value or condition of (someone or something) again ▪ We will reevaluate your progress after six months.

re•ex•am•ine /ˌri:ɪgˈzæmən/ verb -ines; -ined; -in•ing [+ obj] : to examine (someone or something) again usually in a new or different way ▪ The book reexamines traditional family roles.

ref /ˈrɛf/ noun, pl refs [count] informal : a referee in a game or sport

ref. abbr reference

re•fec•to•ry /rɪˈfɛktəri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a large room where meals are served at a place (such as a seminary or monastery) where many people live re•fer /rɪˈfə/ verb -fers; -ferred; -fer•ring [+ obj] : to send

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

(someone or something) to a particular person or place for treatment, help, advice, etc. ▪ How can doctors refer patients for treatment without examining them first? ▪ Most of the patients we see here were referred by other doctors. — usually + to ▪ My doctor referred me to a specialist. ▪ The Senate bill has been referred to the Finance Committee. ▪ The company is referring people to its Web site for more information. refer to [phrasal verb] 1 refer to (something) : to look at or in (something) for information ▪ She often refers to her notes when giving a speech. ▪ Please refer to our Web site for more information. 2 refer to (something) : to have a direct connection or relationship to (something) ▪ The word "finch" refers to a kind of bird. ▪ The numbers shown in the text refer to footnotes at the bottom of the page. 3 a refer to (someone or something) : to talk about or write about (someone or something) especially briefly : to mention (someone or something) in speech or in writing ▪ No one referred to the incident. b refer to (something or someone) as (something) : to call (something or someone) by (a specified name or title) ▪ The victim was referred to only as "John Doe." ▪ At one time, people referred to the city as the Paris of the East.

[1]ref•er•ee /ˌrɛfəˈriː/ noun, pl -ees [count]
1 : a person who makes sure that players act according to the rules of a game or sport ▪ a football/soccer referee
2 Brit : [1]REFERENCE 3a

[2]referee verb -ees; -eed; -ee•ing sports : to act as a referee in (a game or sport) [+ obj] She refereed the basketball game. [no obj] He has refereed for several years now.

[1]ref•er•ence /ˈrɛfrəns/ noun, pl -enc•es
1 : the act of mentioning something in speech or in writing : the act of referring to something or someone [count] references to an earlier event ▪ Bob's nickname was "Elvis," a reference to the way he styled his hair. [=people called Bob "Elvis" because he styled his hair in the same way Elvis Presley did] [noncount] She made reference to our agreement. [=she mentioned our agreement] ▪ The numbers were calculated by reference to the most recent census. — see also FRAME OF REFERENCE, POINT OF REFERENCE
2 [noncount] : the act of looking at or in something for information ▪ The report was filed for future reference. [=so that people could look at it later] ▪ Reference to a map will make the position clear. — see also CROSS-REFERENCE
3 a [count] : a person who can be asked for information about another person's character, abilities, etc. ▪ She listed her former teacher as a reference when she applied for the job. — called also (Brit) referee b : a statement about someone's character, abilities, etc. [count] Her former teacher gave her a reference when she applied for the job. [noncount] Her teacher gave her a letter of reference.
4 [count] : something (such as a book, dictionary, encyclopedia, etc.) that people can look at or in to find information about something ▪ a small dictionary that is a handy reference ▪ How many references do you use in your essay?
in reference to or with reference to formal : about or concerning (something or someone) : in relation to ▪ I have something further to add with reference to [=with respect to, in regard to] what was said earlier. ▪ I am writing in reference to your recent letter. ▪ The course covers ancient history with special reference to the Roman Empire. [=the course is about ancient history and especially about the Roman Empire]
terms of reference see [1]TERM

[2]reference verb -ences; -enced; -enc•ing [+ obj] : to mention (something or someone) in speech or in writing : to refer to (something or someone) ▪ The book references many other authors who have written on this topic.

[3]reference adj, always used before a noun
1 : used to find information about something ▪ a reference book ▪ a list of reference materials/sources
2 : used to tell people where information can be found ▪ a reference mark/number reference library noun, pl ~ -braries [count]

1 : a collection of books often about a particular subject ▪ a reference library of science
2 : a library that lets you use books while you are there but does not allow you to take the books home — compare LENDING LIBRARY reference point noun, pl ~ points [count] : POINT OF REFERENCE ref•er•en•dum /ˌrɛfəˈrɛndəm/ noun, pl -da /-də/ or -dums

: an event in which the people of a county, state, etc., vote for or against a law that deals with a specific issue : a public vote on a particular issue [count] They are having/holding a referendum to decide the issue. = They are having/holding a referendum on the issue. [noncount] The issue was decided by referendum.

re•fer•ral /rɪˈfərəl/ noun, pl -rals [count] : the act of sending someone to another person or place for treatment, help, advice, etc. ▪ She got a referral (to a specialist) from her doctor. = Her doctor gave her a referral.

[1]re•fill /riːˈfɪl/ verb -fills; -filled; -fill•ing
1 [+ obj] : to fill (something) again ▪ He refilled his glass from the nearby pitcher. ▪ I need to refill my prescription. [=to get more of a prescribed medicine]
2 [no obj] : to be filled again ▪ The reservoir will refill once it begins raining.
– re•fill•able /riːˈfɪləbəl/ adj ▪ a refillable propane tank ▪ The prescription is refillable.

[2]re•fill /ˈriːˌfɪl/ noun, pl -fills [count] : a new supply of something ▪ The restaurant advertised free refills (of soda). ▪ prescription refills re•fi•nance /ˌriːfəˈnæns, riˈfaɪˌnæns/ verb -nanc•es; -nanced; -nanc•ing [+ obj] : to get a new loan to pay (an older debt) : to finance (something) again ▪ refinance a mortgage ▪ They're refinancing their home.

re•fine /rɪˈfaɪn/ verb -fines; -fined; -fin•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove the unwanted substances in (something) ▪ refine oil/sugar
2 : to improve (something) by making small changes ▪ The inventor of the machine spent years refining the design. ▪ The class is meant to help you refine your writing style.
– re•fin•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ oil/sugar refiners [=companies that refine oil/sugar] – refining noun [noncount] ▪ oil production and refining

refined adj
1 : free of unwanted substances : PURE ▪ refined flour/metals/oil/sugar
2 [more ~; most ~] : improved to be more precise or exact ▪ She has become more refined in her painting technique. ▪ refined testing methods
3 [more ~; most ~] : having or showing the good education, polite manners, etc., that are expected in people who belong to a high social class ▪ refined and civilized people ▪ He has very refined manners. ▪ refined and elegant works of art

re•fine•ment /rɪˈfaɪnmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the act or process of removing unwanted substances from something : the act or process of making something pure ▪ oil refinement
2 [noncount] : the act or process of improving something — often + of ▪ the refinement of testing methods
3 [count] : an improved version of something — often + of ▪ The game is a refinement of last year's version.
4 [count] : a small change that improves something ▪ Several engine refinements have resulted in increased efficiency.
5 [noncount] : the quality of a person who has the good education, polite manners, etc., that are expected in people who belong to a high social class ▪ a person of great refinement

re•fin•ery /rɪˈfaɪnəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] : a place where the unwanted substances in something (such as oil or sugar) are removed : a place where something is refined ▪ oil/sugar refineries

re•fin•ish /riˈfɪnɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] US : to remove the coating on the surface of (furniture, a floor, etc.) and put on a new coating : to put a new finish on (something) ▪ She made her living repairing and refinishing wood floors. ▪ refinished antique furniture re•fit /riˈfɪt/ verb -fits; -fit•ted; -fit•ting [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a boat) ready for use again especially by adding new parts ▪ refit a ship for service ▪ They're refitting the building with hardwood floors.

– re•fit /ˈriːˌfɪt/ noun, pl -fits [count] ▪ The ship was in port for a refit. – refitting noun, pl -tings [count, noncount]

re•flect /rɪˈflɛkt/ verb -flects; -flect•ed; -flect•ing
1 a [no obj] of light, sound, etc. : to move in one direction, hit a surface, and then quickly move in a different and usually opposite direction — usually + off ▪ The light reflected off the mirror. ▪ The sound of our voices reflected off the walls of the tunnel. b [+ obj] ✧ When a surface reflects light, sound, or heat, it causes the light, sound, or heat that hits it to move or bounce away in a different direction. ▪ A polished surface reflects light. ▪ The tiles are used to reflect heat. ▪ The moon shines with reflected light. [=the moon shines because it is reflecting the light that shines on it from the sun]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

2 [+ obj] : to show the image of (something) on a surface ▪ The old church is reflected in the glass exterior of the skyscraper. ▪ The clouds were reflected [=mirrored] in the surface of the lake.
3 [+ obj] : to show (something) : to make (something) known ▪ Her book clearly reflects her beliefs. ▪ Where you learned a language is reflected in your accent.
4 [no obj] a : to cause people to think of someone or something in a specified way — + on or upon ▪ The book leaves out things that might reflect badly/poorly on him. [=things that might make him look bad] ▪ Your achievement reflects well on your school. = Your achievement reflects credit on your school. [=your achievement shows that your school taught you well] b : to cause people to disapprove of someone or something — + on or upon ▪ His bad behavior reflects on all of us.
5 a [no obj] : to think carefully about something ▪ You should take some time to reflect before you make a decision. — often + on or upon ▪ I've been reflecting on my experiences here. b [+ obj] : to think or say (something) after careful thought ▪ She was disappointed with their decision, but she reflected that it could have been worse. ▪ "It could have been worse," she reflected.

reflected glory noun [noncount] : respect or admiration that you get because of something that someone else has done ▪ He enjoyed basking in the reflected glory of his famous brother's success.

re•flec•tion or chiefly Brit re•flex•ion /rɪˈflɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : an image that is seen in a mirror or on a shiny surface ▪ She was looking at her reflection in the mirror. ▪ He saw the reflections of the clouds on the lake.
2 [count] : something that shows the effect, existence, or character of something else — often + of ▪ The high crime rate is a reflection of the violence of our society. ▪ artistic styles that are reflections of different cultures ▪ The movie is an accurate reflection of what life is like in small towns.
3 [singular] : something that causes people to disapprove of a person or thing — + on or upon ▪ His bad behavior is a reflection on all of us. [=it makes people think badly of all of us] ▪ You're not to blame for these problems. They're no reflection on you. [=they do not show anything about your character]
4 [noncount] : careful thought about something ▪ She had no time for reflection. ▪ spending time in quiet reflection ▪ On/Upon reflection [=after thinking about it], I decided to accept their offer.
5 [count] : an opinion that you form or a remark that you make after carefully thinking about something — usually plural ▪ The book features the writer's reflections on America and its people. ▪ personal reflections

re•flec•tive /rɪˈflɛktɪv/ adj
1 a [more ~; most ~] : causing light, sound, or heat to move away : reflecting light, sound, or heat ▪ The material is highly reflective. [=it easily reflects light] ▪ reflective surfaces b : relating to or caused by light that reflects off a surface ▪ the reflective glare of the shiny metal
2 [more ~; most ~] : thinking carefully about something : THOUGHTFUL ▪ She was in a very reflective mood.
3 — used to say that one thing shows what something else is like; + of ▪ The school is reflective of society: the same problems that exist in society exist at the school.
– re•flec•tive•ly adv ▪ He spoke softly and reflectively about his experiences.

re•flec•tor /rɪˈflɛktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : an object that is used to reflect light ▪ safety devices such as bicycle reflectors ▪ Reflectors are placed along the lanes of the highway.

re•flex /ˈriːˌflɛks/ noun, pl -flex•es
1 [count] : an action or movement of the body that happens automatically as a reaction to something ▪ the cough/gag reflex ▪ reflexes such as swallowing and blinking ▪ a reflex action/response
2 [count] : something that you do without thinking as a reaction to something ▪ Disagreeing with my suggestions has become almost a reflex for him.
3 reflexes [plural] : the natural ability to react quickly ▪ an athlete with great/quick reflexes ▪ My reflexes are slower now that I'm older.

re•flex•ive /rɪˈflɛksɪv/ adj
1 grammar : showing that the action in a sentence or clause happens to the person or thing that does the action ▪ In "I hurt myself," the verb "hurt" is reflexive. ▪ In the sentence "We forced ourselves to finish the assignment," the word "ourselves" is a reflexive pronoun.
2 : happening or done without thinking as a reaction to something ▪ For many people, the reflexive response to this kind of demand is to say no. ▪ music that triggers reflexive toe tapping – re•flex•ive•ly adv ▪ Many people respond reflexively to this kind of demand by saying no.

re•flex•ol•o•gy /ˌriːˌflɛkˈsɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : a method of relieving pain or curing illness by pressing on particular parts of a person's hands or feet
– re•flex•ol•o•gist /ˌriːˌflɛkˈsɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

re•flux /ˈriːˌflʌks/ noun [noncount] medical : a backward flow of the contents of the stomach into the esophagus that causes heartburn ▪ acid reflux

re•fo•cus /riˈfoʊkəs/ verb -cus•es; -cused; -cus•ing : to focus again: such as a : to adjust (something, such as a camera or a lens) again to make an image clear [+ obj] She refocused the camera. [no obj] The camera refocuses automatically. b : to cause (something, such as attention) to be directed at something different [+ obj] She refocused her energies toward a career in music. ▪ He needs to refocus his attention on his schoolwork. [no obj] Sports are not a priority now. You need to refocus and improve your grades.

re•for•es•ta•tion /riˌfɔrəˈsteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of planting tree seeds or young trees in an area where there used to be a forest — compare DEFORESTATION – re•for•est /riˈfɔrəst/ verb -ests; -est•ed; -est•ing [+ obj] ▪ They are reforesting the burned areas of land.

[1]re•form /rɪˈfoəm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing
1 [+ obj] : to improve (someone or something) by removing or correcting faults, problems, etc. ▪ The program is designed to reform prisoners. ▪ They want to reform campaign spending. ▪ The laws need to be reformed.
2 [no obj] : to improve your own behavior or habits ▪ The program is designed to help former gang members who are trying to reform.
– re•form•able /rɪˈfoəməbəl/ adj ▪ Some prisoners are not reformable. – reformed adj, always used before a noun ▪ reformed tax laws ▪ a reformed criminal

[2]reform noun, pl -forms
1 [noncount] : the improvement of something by removing or correcting faults, problems, etc. ▪ A group of senators are calling for reform of the nation's health-care system. ▪ economic/educational/political/tax reform ▪ a reform movement
2 [count] : an action, plan, rule, etc., that is meant to improve something ▪ He has proposed a list of political reforms.

Re•form /rɪˈfoəm/ adj : accepting and following only some of the traditional beliefs and customs of Judaism ▪ Reform Judaism ▪ a Reform congregation re–form /riˈfoəm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing : to form (something) again [+ obj] They decided to re-form the band. [=to bring the members of the band together again] [no obj] The ice re-formed on the lake. [=ice formed on the lake again]

ref•or•ma•tion /ˌrɛfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 formal : the act or process of improving something or someone by removing or correcting faults, problems, etc. [noncount] the reformation of our justice system ▪ education reformation [=(more commonly) reform] [count] — usually singular ▪ a radical reformation of society
2 the Reformation : the 16th-century religious movement that led to the establishment of the Protestant churches

re•for•ma•to•ry /rɪˈfoəməˌtori, Brit rɪˈfɔːmətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] US, old-fashioned : REFORM SCHOOL re•form•er /rɪˈfoəmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who works to change and improve a society, government, etc. ▪ an economic/educational/social reformer

re•form•ist /rɪˈfoəmɪst/ adj
1 : wanting to change and improve a society, government, etc. ▪ a reformist group/movement
2 : of or relating to the work of a reformer ▪ reformist efforts/views reform school noun, pl ~ schools [count] US, old-fashioned : a place where young people who have committed crimes are sent to live and be taught to behave in ways that are socially acceptable re•fract /rɪˈfrækt/ verb -fracts; -fract•ed; -fract•ing [+ obj] technical, of an object or substance : to make (light) change direction when it goes through at an angle ▪ Prisms refract light. ▪ Light is refracted when it hits water.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– re•frac•tion /rɪˈfrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ the refraction of light through water – re•frac•tive /rɪˈfræktɪv/ adj ▪ the refractive properties of the glass re•frac•to•ry /rɪˈfræktəri/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 medical : difficult to treat or cure ▪ a refractory disease
2 formal : difficult to control or deal with ▪ a refractory [=disobedient] child

[1]re•frain /rɪˈfreɪn/ verb -frains; -frained; -frain•ing [no obj] formal : to stop yourself from doing something that you want to do ▪ I was going to make a joke but I refrained. — usually + from ▪ Please refrain from smoking. ▪ She refrained from saying what she truly felt.

[2]refrain noun, pl -frains [count]
1 : a phrase or verse that is repeated regularly in a poem or song : CHORUS
2 : a comment or statement that is often repeated ▪ A common/familiar refrain among teachers these days is that the schools need more funding.

re•fresh /rɪˈfrɛʃ/ verb -fresh•es; -freshed; -fresh•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) have more energy and feel less tired or less hot ▪ A cold shower should refresh you. [=make you feel better] ▪ Sleep refreshes the body.
2 : to give someone more of (a drink) : to fill (someone's glass, cup, etc.) again ▪ Can I refresh your drink? [=would you like me to fill your glass again?]
3 computers : to put (something, such as a page on the Internet) into a computer's memory again in order to show any new information : to cause an updated version of (something, such as an Internet page) to appear on a computer screen ▪ Try refreshing [=reloading] the home page.
refresh someone's memory : to remind someone about something : to help someone to remember something ▪ I'm not sure of the address. Can you refresh my memory? [=can you remind me?]
– refreshed adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I felt very refreshed after taking a nap.

re•fresh•er /rɪˈfrɛʃɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : something that helps you to remember something you have forgotten : a reminder about something — usually singular; usually + on ▪ Before we play, I need a refresher on the rules. [=I need someone to remind me about the rules] ▪ Some people need a refresher on how to be polite.

refresher course noun, pl ~ courses [count] : a training class which helps people review information or learn new skills needed for their jobs ▪ The staff is required to take refresher courses every three years.

re•fresh•ing /rɪˈfrɛʃɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : pleasantly new, different, or interesting ▪ Working on the new project was a refreshing change. ▪ It is refreshing to hear some good news about him.
2 : making you feel more rested, energetic, cool, etc. ▪ a refreshing glass of cold water ▪ My swim was very refreshing.
– re•fresh•ing•ly adv ▪ refreshingly different/honest ▪ The water was refreshingly cool.

re•fresh•ment /rɪˈfrɛʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 refreshments [plural] : drinks and small amounts of food ▪ Light refreshments will be served/provided at the meeting. ▪ They provided plenty of liquid refreshments. [=drinks, especially alcoholic drinks]
2 [noncount] : food and drink ▪ The workers were in need of refreshment. ▪ (humorous) Would you like some liquid refreshment? [=an alcoholic drink]
3 [noncount] : the process of becoming rested and regaining strength or energy ▪ We went camping for relaxation and refreshment.

re•fried beans /ˈriːˌfraɪd-/ noun [plural] : a Mexican food that consists of beans that are cooked with seasonings, fried, then mashed and fried again re•frig•er•ate /rɪˈfrɪʤəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to put or keep (something, such as food) in a refrigerator in order to make it cold or keep it fresh ▪ Refrigerate the mixture for an hour before serving. ▪ The potato salad needs to be (kept) refrigerated.

– refrigerated adj ▪ Ice cream is delivered in a refrigerated truck. [=a truck that has a refrigerator for keeping things cold] – re•frig•er•a•tion /rɪˌfrɪʤəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ The salad does not need refrigeration.

re•frig•er•a•tor /rɪˈfrɪʤəˌreɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a device or room that is used to keep things (such as food and drinks) cold — called also fridge; see picture at KITCHEN re•fu•el /riˈfjuːl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -eling or Brit -el•ling : to add fuel to (an airplane, a truck, etc.) [+ obj] The crew refueled the airplane. — often used as (be) refueled ▪ The airplane needs to be refueled. [no obj] The airplane landed to refuel.

ref•uge /ˈrɛˌfjuːʤ/ noun, pl -ug•es
1 [noncount] : shelter or protection from danger or trouble ▪ They were seeking refuge. = They were seeking a place of refuge. [=a safe place] — often + in or from ▪ We took refuge in [=we took shelter in, we went into] a nearby barn during the storm. = We found refuge from the storm in a nearby barn. ▪ They sought refuge in another country. [=went to another country for protection] — often used figuratively ▪ After the death of her husband, she took/sought/found refuge in her music.
2 [count] : a place that provides shelter or protection ▪ wildlife refuges [=areas where wild animals are protected] — often + for ▪ The area is a refuge for wildlife. ▪ The shelter is a refuge for abused women.

ref•u•gee /ˌrɛfjʊˈʤiː/ noun, pl -gees [count] : someone who has been forced to leave a country because of war or for religious or political reasons ▪ Thousands of refugees have fled the area. ▪ refugee camps

[1]re•fund /rɪˈfʌnd/ verb -funds; -fund•ed; -fund•ing [+ obj] : to give back money that someone paid for something (such as a product that was returned or a service that was not acceptable) ▪ If you are not completely satisfied, we will refund the purchase price. ▪ We will refund (you) your money. ▪ They refused to refund the ticket. [=to give back the money that I had paid for the ticket]
– re•fund•able /rɪˈfʌndəbəl/ adj ▪ The fee is not refundable. ▪ a refundable security deposit

[2]re•fund /ˈriːˌfʌnd/ noun, pl -funds [count] : an amount of money that is given back to someone who has returned a product, paid too much, etc. ▪ No refunds or exchanges are allowed. ▪ She demanded a refund. ▪ The store gave me a full refund. [=gave me back all the money I paid] ▪ We received a tax refund this year. [=this year we paid too much income tax so we got some money back]

re•fur•bish /rɪˈfɚbɪʃ/ verb -bish•es; -bished; -bish•ing [+ obj] : to repair and make improvements to (something, such as a building) ▪ They are refurbishing [=renovating] the old house. ▪ They sell refurbished computers. [=old computers that have been repaired so that they are in good condition]
– re•fur•bish•ment /rɪˈfɚbɪʃmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ The hotel is closed for refurbishment. [=renovation]

re•fus•al /rɪˈfjuːzəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : an act of saying or showing that you will not do, give, or accept something : an act of refusing ▪ My request for more money was met with a flat/firm refusal. — often + of ▪ Her refusal of the job surprised us. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She worried about his stubborn/steadfast refusal to eat.
(the right of) first refusal : the right to accept or refuse something before it is offered to anyone else ▪ If we decide to sell the house, we'll give our tenants first refusal. [=we will offer to sell the house to our tenants before offering to sell to other people]

[1]re•fuse /rɪˈfjuːz/ verb -fus•es; -fused; -fus•ing
1 : to say that you will not accept (something, such as a gift or offer) [+ obj] He refused the job. [=he did not accept the job] ▪ I could hardly refuse [=could not refuse] the money. ▪ The offer was too good to refuse. [=the offer was so good that I had to accept it] [no obj] When they offered me the money, I couldn't refuse.
2 : to say or show that you are not willing to do something that someone wants you to do [no obj] They asked her to help but she refused. [+ obj] — usually followed by to + verb ▪ He refused to answer the question. ▪ She flatly/stubbornly/steadfastly refused to help. ▪ They refuse to accept the truth.
3 [+ obj] : to not allow someone to have (something) ▪ They were refused [=denied] admittance to the game. ▪ They refused him a visa. [=they did not give him a visa]

[2]ref•use /ˈrɛˌfjuːs/ noun [noncount] formal : something (such as paper or food waste) that has been thrown away : trash or garbage ▪ a pile of refuse [=rubbish]

re•fute /rɪˈfjuːt/ verb -futes; -fut•ed; -fut•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to prove that (something) is not true ▪ The lawyer refuted the testimony of the witness. ▪ refute an argument/claim
2 : to say that (something) is not true ▪ He refuted [=denied] the rumor about him. ▪ He refutes the notion that he's planning to retire soon. ▪ She refuted the allegations against her.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

– ref•u•ta•tion /ˌrɛfjʊˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] formal ▪ a refutation of the theory

[1]reg /ˈrɛg/ noun, pl regs [count] US, informal : REGULATION ▪ a list of proposed regs

[2]reg abbr 1 register; registered; registration 2 regular

re•gain /rɪˈgeɪn/ verb -gains; -gained; -gain•ing [+ obj]
1 : to get (something) again : to get back (something that you lost) ▪ I regained [=recovered] my health/strength. ▪ She fell into a coma and never regained consciousness. ▪ He slipped but quickly regained his footing. ▪ The actor has recently regained some of his former popularity. ▪ The pilot struggled to regain control of the plane. ▪ The home team attempted/tried to regain possession of the ball.
2 literary : to get back to (something) : to reach (a place) again ▪ They finally regained the shore.

re•gal /ˈriːgəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of, relating to, or suitable for a king or queen ▪ He has a regal bearing. [=he is very dignified, authoritative, etc.] ▪ a ceremony of regal [=royal] splendor
– re•gal•ly /ˈriːgəli/ adv ▪ She waved regally to the crowd.

re•gale /rɪˈgeɪl/ verb -gales; -galed; -gal•ing regale with [phrasal verb] regale (someone) with (something) somewhat formal : to entertain or amuse (someone) by telling stories, describing experiences, etc. ▪ He regaled his party guests with stories of his adventures abroad.

re•ga•lia /rɪˈgeɪljə/ noun [noncount]
1 : special clothes and decorations (such as a crown or scepter) for official ceremonies ▪ Her royal/ceremonial regalia was quite impressive. ▪ The queen was in full regalia.
2 : special clothing of a particular kind ▪ The war regalia of the tribe is on display at the museum. ▪ He was dressed in cowboy regalia.

[1]re•gard /rɪˈgɑəd/ noun, pl -gards
1 [noncount] : care or concern for someone or something — often + for or to ▪ He has no regard for my feelings. [=he doesn't care at all about my feelings] ▪ She seems to have little regard for her health. ▪ Would you please show some regard for others? ▪ The company acted without regard for the safety of its workers. ▪ She was hired without regard to race, age, or gender. [=race, age, and gender did not influence the decision to hire her] ▪ The President acted with due regard to [=with the proper care for] the welfare of the nation.
2 : a feeling of respect and admiration for someone or something [singular] — often + for ▪ I have a great regard for his ability. ▪ The students have a high regard for their teacher. [=the students respect and admire their teacher very much] [noncount] She has won the regard [=esteem, respect] of the other scientists in her field. ▪ I have no/little regard for his opinions. ▪ His work is held in high regard. [=his work is greatly respected]
3 regards [plural] : friendly greetings ▪ Give/Send them my (warm/kind) regards. [=greet them for me; tell them I am thinking of them] — sometimes used to end a letter ▪ I look forward to seeing you soon. Regards, John.
in that/this regard formal — used to refer to something just mentioned ▪ He is studying law and in that regard he is doing very well. [=he is doing well studying law] ▪ We will take care of supplying the food, so you have nothing to worry about in that regard.
in/with regard to formal : relating to (something) ▪ This letter is in regard to your unpaid balance. [=this letter concerns your unpaid balance] ▪ I have a question with regard to [=concerning, regarding] your last statement.

[2]regard verb -gards; -gard•ed; -gard•ing [+ obj]
1 : to think of (someone or something) in a particular way ▪ He is highly regarded by his coworkers. [=his coworkers have a very high opinion of him] — often + as ▪ She regards him as a friend. [=she considers him a friend] ▪ He regards himself as an expert. ▪ The book is widely regarded as his best. [=many people think the book is the best that he has ever written]
2 formal : to look at (someone or something) ▪ The police officer regarded the group of teenagers with suspicion.
as regards formal : relating to (something) : in or with regard to (something) ▪ As regards [=regarding] your first question, we cannot assist you.

regarding prep, somewhat formal : relating to (something) : ABOUT ▪ The teacher talked to the students regarding their homework. ▪ I have a question regarding your earlier comments.

re•gard•less /rɪˈgɑədləs/ adv : in spite of difficulty, trouble, etc. : without being stopped by difficulty, trouble, etc. ▪ It may rain, but I will go regardless. [=I will go even if it rains; I will not be stopped from going] ▪ It was raining, but we went for a walk regardless. [=anyway] regardless of : without being stopped or affected by (something) ▪ He runs every day regardless of the weather. [=he runs every day no matter what the weather is like] ▪ Regardless of [=despite] our request, he would not alter his plans.

re•gat•ta /rɪˈgɑːtə, Brit rɪˈgætə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : a race or a series of races between boats (such as sailboats) re•gen•cy /ˈriːʤənsi/ noun, pl -cies [count] : a government or period of time in which a person (called a regent) rules in place of a king or queen ▪ The people supported the regency. ▪ Peace was restored during the regency.

Re•gen•cy /ˈriːʤənsi/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or like the styles in Britain during the period 1811–20 ▪ an example of Regency furniture/architecture/style

re•gen•er•ate /rɪˈʤɛnəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 biology : to grow again after being lost, damaged, etc. [no obj] The lizard's tail can regenerate. ▪ The tissue cells regenerated. [+ obj] The lizard is able to regenerate its tail. ▪ The tissue cells can regenerate themselves.
2 [+ obj] formal : to give new life to (something) ▪ The land is regenerated [=renewed] by the rotation of the crops. ▪ The plan is meant to regenerate [=revive] the economy.
– re•gen•er•a•tion /rɪˌʤɛnəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] – re•gen•er•a•tive /rɪˈʤɛnəˌreɪtɪv, Brit rɪˈʤɛnərətɪv/ adj ▪ the regenerative process re•gent /ˈriːʤənt/ noun, pl -gents [count] : a person who rules a kingdom when the king or queen is not able to rule because he or she is sick, too young, etc.

Regent adj, always used after a noun : ruling because the king or queen is unable to rule : acting as a regent ▪ the Prince Regent

reg•gae /ˈrɛgeɪ/ noun [noncount] : popular music that is originally from Jamaica and that combines native styles with elements of rock and soul music

reg•i•cide /ˈrɛʤəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides
1 [noncount] : the crime of killing a king or queen
2 [count] : someone who kills a king or queen

re•gime /reɪˈʒiːm/ noun, pl -gimes [count]
1 : a form of government ▪ a socialist/Communist/military regime : a particular government ▪ The new regime is sure to fall.
2 : a system of management ▪ Under the new regime, all workers must file a weekly report.
3 : REGIMEN ▪ He was put on a strict exercise regime.

reg•i•men /ˈrɛʤəmən/ noun, pl -mens [count] : a plan or set of rules about food, exercise, etc., to make someone become or stay healthy ▪ a daily training/exercise regimen ▪ a strict treatment/drug regimen — often + of ▪ a regimen of daily exercise

[1]reg•i•ment /ˈrɛʤəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a military unit that is usually made of several large groups of soldiers (called battalions) ▪ infantry/cavalry regiments
– reg•i•men•tal /ˌrɛʤəˈmɛntl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ the regimental commander/headquarters

[2]reg•i•ment /ˈrɛʤəˌmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj]
1 : to organize and control (something) strictly ▪ They carefully regiment their son's diet/schedule/life.
2 : to control the behavior of (people) strictly ▪ She criticized the way the school regiments its students by having strict rules.
– reg•i•men•ta•tion /ˌrɛʤəmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ She did not like the school's regimentation. – regimented adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The school was highly regimented. ▪ a regimented schedule/routine/lifestyle ▪ He's following a regimented diet.

re•gion /ˈriːʤən/ noun, pl -gions
1 [count] : a part of a country, of the world, etc., that is different or separate from other parts in some way ▪ The bird returns to this region every year. ▪ The plant grows in tropical regions. [=areas] ▪ He's the company sales manager for the entire Southwest region. — often + of ▪ the agricultural/coastal/mountainous regions of the country ▪ the Amazon region of South America ▪ the desert regions of the world ▪ the winemaking regions of France ▪ the unknown regions of outer space
2 [count] : a place on your body : an area that is near a specified part of your body ▪ She has a pain in the lower back re- gion. — often + of ▪ He felt a pain in the region [=vicinity] of his heart.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

3 the regions Brit : the parts of a country that are not close to the capital city ▪ attempts to go outside of London and stimulate cultural life in the regions

(somewhere) in the region of : close to (an amount) ▪ He makes somewhere in the region of [=about, approximately] $100,000 a year.

– re•gion•al /ˈriːʤənl/ adj ▪ He spoke with a regional accent. [=an accent that occurs in a particular region] ▪ a regional newspaper/school – re•gion•al•ly adv ▪ The newspaper is sold regionally. ▪ a regionally based newspaper

re•gion•al•ism /ˈriːʤənəˌlɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms

1 [noncount] : interest in or loyalty to a particular region ▪ The residents have a strong sense of regionalism.

2 [count] : a word that is used in a particular region ▪ The word "pop" for "soda" is a Midwest regionalism.

[1]reg•is•ter /ˈrɛʤəstə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : an official list, book, or system for keeping records of something — often + of ▪ The church keeps a register of births, marriages, and deaths. ▪ a national register of historic places ▪ a register [=(US) registry] of voters ▪ (Brit) After the students were seated, the teacher called/took the register. [=read a list of the students' names out loud and noted which students were there and which were not]

2 formal : a part of the range of musical notes that a person's voice or an instrument can reach ▪ a singer's upper/middle/lower register

3 : CASH REGISTER ▪ She works at the register in a grocery store.

4 US : a cover on an opening (such as a heating vent) that has parts which can be opened or closed to control the flow of air

[2]register verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to record information about (something) in a book or system of public records ▪ He registered the birth of his child. ▪ She registered her new car. ▪ The car was registered under my name. ▪ The company registered its trademark. ▪ Only 32 cases of the disease have been registered. b : to put your name on an official list [no obj] Did you register to vote? — often + at or for ▪ We registered at the hotel. ▪ Patients must register at the front desk. ▪ The students registered for classes. [=the students enrolled in classes] ▪ All men between the ages of 18 and 25 must register for the draft. [+ obj] She is busy registering the students/voters/guests. — see also PREREGISTER ✧ If you register as something or if you are registered as something, you enter or have entered your name on an official list which indicates what group you belong to. ▪ He registered as a Republican. = He is registered (to vote) as a Republican. ▪ She registered as unemployed/disabled.

2 [+ obj] : to show or record (an amount, value, etc.) ▪ Roast the meat for two hours or until the meat thermometer registers 140 degrees. ▪ an earthquake that registered 6.3 on the Richter scale

3 [+ obj] : to get or reach (something) : ACHIEVE ▪ The team finally registered a victory after losing three games in a row. ▪ The company registered over one billion dollars in sales.

4 a [no obj] : to be recognized or remembered ▪ It took a moment for what she was saying to register. [=it took a moment before I understood what she was saying] — often used in negative statements ▪ The name didn't register with me. [=I didn't recognize the name] b [+ obj] : to notice or realize (something) — often used in negative statements ▪ She didn't register my presence until I spoke to her.

5 formal : to show (a feeling or emotion) [+ obj] Her face registered anger/fear/surprise. ▪ Fear was registered on her face. [no obj] Fear registered on her face.

6 [+ obj] : to send (a letter, package, etc.) by registered mail to protect it from damage or loss ▪ Please register this letter.

7 [+ obj] formal : to make (something) known officially and publicly ▪ I want to register a protest over their decision.

registered adj

1 a : having the owner's name entered in an official list or register ▪ a registered trademark/security b : having your name entered in an official list or register ▪ Are you a registered voter?

2 : sent by registered mail ▪ a registered letter registered mail noun [noncount] : mail that is recorded in the post office where it is mailed and then recorded again in each post office it reaches and that is treated with special care — called also (Brit) registered post; compare CERTIFIED MAIL registered nurse noun, pl ~ nurses [count] : a nurse who has more training and experience than a licensed practical nurse and who has passed a special exam — called also RN — compare LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE, PRACTICAL NURSE

register office noun, pl ~ - ces [count] Brit : REGISTRY OFFICE

reg•is•trar /ˈrɛʤəˌstrɑə/ noun, pl -trars [count]

1 : someone who is in charge of keeping records especially of births, marriages, and deaths

2 : an officer of a college or university who is in charge of registering students and keeping academic records

3 Brit : a doctor who is training at a hospital to become a specialist in a particular field of medicine : RESIDENT

reg•is•tra•tion /ˌrɛʤəˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a : the act or process of entering information about something in a book or system of public records [noncount] — often + of ▪ the registration of motor vehicles ▪ the registration of trademarks [count] trademark registrations b : the act or process of entering names on an official list [noncount] Student registration (for courses) ends today. ▪ Voter registration begins today. ▪ A $75 registration fee is due. [count] Registrations for the test/course are lower this year than they were last year. [=fewer people have registered for the test/course this year]

2 [count] US : a document showing that something (such as a vehicle) has been officially registered ▪ The police officer asked to see my driver's license and registration.

registration number noun, pl ~ -bers [count] Brit : LICENSE NUMBER

reg•is•try /ˈrɛʤəstri/ noun, pl -tries [count]

1 : a place where official records are kept ▪ the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles

2 US : a book or system for keeping an official list or record of items ▪ a voter registry [=register] ▪ a gift registry [=a list kept by a store of the things that someone wants as gifts]

registry office noun, pl ~ - ces [count] Brit : a place where marriages are performed and where records of births, marriages, and deaths are kept re•gress /ˈriːˌgrɛs/ verb -gress•es; -gressed; -gress•ing [no obj] technical : to return to an earlier and usually worse or less developed condition or state ▪ The patient is regressing to a childlike state.

– re•gres•sion /rɪˈgrɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count, noncount]

[1]re•gret /rɪˈgrɛt/ verb -grets; -gret•ted; -gret•ting [+ obj]

1 : to feel sad or sorry about (something that you did or did not do) : to have regrets about (something) ▪ Don't say anything you might regret later. ▪ I deeply regret what I said. ▪ She does not regret leaving him. ▪ He regrets not traveling more when he was younger. ▪ He says he doesn't regret anything that he's done in his life. ▪ If you don't travel now, you might live to regret it. [=you might feel sorry or disappointed about it in the future]

2 not used in progressive tenses — used formally and in writing to express sad feelings about something that is disappointing or unpleasant ▪ We regret to inform you [=we are sorry to tell you] that we have offered the job to someone else. ▪ We regret any inconvenience these delays may cause. ▪ Dr. Smith regrets that she will be unable to attend. [=Dr. Smith cannot attend] ▪ It is to be regretted [=it is regrettable/unfortunate] that the program has lost its funding.

[2]regret noun, pl -grets

1 : a feeling of sadness or disappointment about something that you did or did not do [count] She has no regrets about leaving him. ▪ My greatest regret is not going to college. [noncount] She expressed (her) regret for calling me a liar. ▪ To my regret, I never visited Europe. ▪ It is with deep regret that he is announcing his resignation. ▪ Much to the regret of my parents, I decided not to go to college. = Much to my parents' regret, I decided not to go to college. [=my parents were disappointed that I did not go to college]

2 regrets [plural] : a statement saying politely that you will not be able to go to a meeting, party, etc. ▪ My coworker gives/sends her regrets for not being able to attend the meeting.

re•gret•ful /rɪˈgrɛtfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing regret : sad or disappointed ▪ He is regretful about not coming with us.

re•gret•ful•ly /rɪˈgrɛtfəli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

1 : with regret : with sadness or disappointment ▪ "I must leave now," he said regretfully. ▪ I must regretfully decline your invitation.
2 — used to say that something is regretted ▪ Regretfully [=regrettably, unfortunately], we can't go. [=we are disappointed that we can't go] re•gret•ta•ble /rɪ'grɛtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing sadness or disappointment : UNFORTUNATE ▪ His decision to quit is regrettable. ▪ It was a regrettable mistake.

re•gret•ta•bly /rɪ'grɛtəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 — used to say that something is disappointing or regrettable ▪ Regrettably [=unfortunately], I cannot go. ▪ Regrettably, the movie theater was shut down.
2 : to an extent that causes disappointment or regret ▪ There has been a regrettably [=disappointingly] large decline in wages. ▪ The progress of the work was regrettably slow.

re•group /ri'gru:p/ verb -groups; -grouped; -group•ing
1 : to form into a group again [no obj] Members of the search party will regroup in the morning. [+ obj] The general regrouped his forces after the retreat.
2 [no obj] : to stop for a short time and prepare yourself before you continue doing something that is difficult : to stop and think, reorganize, etc., before continuing ▪ Let's regroup and try this again. ▪ Wait a minute. I need to regroup. ▪ The coach called a time-out to give his players time to regroup.

[1]reg•u•lar /'rɛgjələ/ adj
1 a : happening over and over again at the same time or in the same way : occurring every day, week, month, etc. ▪ He works regular hours. [=he works at the same time every work day] ▪ He has never held a regular [=steady] job. ▪ Most days she follows a regular routine/schedule. ▪ The music has a regular [=steady] beat. b : happening at times that are equally separated ▪ The town holds regular meetings. ▪ five regular payments of $100 ▪ His breathing/heartbeat is regular. [=normal] ▪ The sales team meets on a regular basis. [=regularly] ▪ The buses run from 4 a.m. to midnight at regular intervals. [=there is the same amount of time between buses] — opposite IRREGULAR
2 always used before a noun a : happening or done very often ▪ Seeing wildlife is a regular [=common] occurrence where she lives. ▪ We made regular use of the pool. ▪ Getting regular exercise is important. ▪ Exercise has become a regular part of my lifestyle. ▪ The theater was in regular use [=was used continuously] for over 20 years. b : doing the same thing or going to the same place very often ▪ He is a regular contributor to the magazine. ▪ She is a regular [=frequent] guest on the TV show. ▪ He is one of the store's regular customers. [=customers who shop at the store frequently]
3 : spaced an equal distance apart ▪ The seedlings were planted in regular rows. ▪ The wallpaper has a regular pattern of stripes. ▪ The boards are placed at regular intervals. [=the space between each board is the same]
4 always used before a noun a : normal or usual ▪ Our regular business/office hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. ▪ The regular price is $45, but it is on sale for $30. ▪ I saw a different doctor because my regular doctor was on vacation. ▪ He is substituting today for the regular quarterback. ▪ The class will meet at the regular time tomorrow. ▪ The regular [=scheduled] television programming was interrupted by a special report. ▪ The regular season for football begins soon. ▪ Parties are a regular feature of college life. ▪ He sat down in his regular spot. b chiefly US : not special or unusual ▪ Do you use regular or premium gas in your car? ▪ Would you like a regular [=normal size] soda or a large? ▪ He's a regular [=average, ordinary] guy. ▪ It's nothing special, just a regular [=basic] stereo. = It's just a regular old stereo. ▪ He drinks regular coffee. [=coffee that has caffeine]
5 [more ~; most ~] a : having a shape that is smooth or even ▪ a regular surface/outline b : having parts that are arranged in an even or balanced way ▪ He has very regular features.
6 grammar : following the normal patterns by which word forms (such as the past tenses of verbs) are usually created ▪ "Talk" is a regular verb because its past tense is "talked." ▪ nouns with regular plural forms
7 always used before a noun, informal — used for emphasis ▪ She's become a regular [=real] expert on fitness.
8 : able to have normal bowel movements : not constipated ▪ Eating plenty of fiber helps me keep/stay regular.
9 [more ~; most ~] : having or being menstrual cycles that usually last the same number of days each time ▪ She is very regular. = Her cycle is very regular.
10 always used before a noun : belonging to a country's official army ▪ the regular army/troops/soldiers

[2]regular noun, pl -lars
1 [count] : someone who goes somewhere very often ▪ They are regulars at the bar/restaurant.
2 [count] : someone who often or usually performs, plays, etc. ▪ He is a regular on the television show. ▪ the regulars on a baseball team
3 US : something that is average or usual in quality or size [noncount] Do you drink decaf or regular? [=regular coffee] ▪ "What kind of gas do you put in your car?" "I use regular." [count] We'll have one large soda and two regulars.
4 [count] : a soldier who belongs to a country's permanent army — usually plural ▪ The regulars were called to battle. — compare IRREGULAR

reg•u•lar•i•ty /ˌrɛgjə'lerəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality of being regular: such as a : the quality of something that happens very often or with the same amount of time between each occurrence — often + of ▪ the regularity of the seasons — often used after with ▪ She appears with regularity [=appears regularly] on the show. ▪ Fights break out with some regularity. ▪ Robberies have been occurring with increasing/alarming regularity. b : the quality of something that has parts which are arranged in an even or balanced way ▪ the regularity of his features
2 [count] : something that happens very often or with the same amount of time between each occurrence ▪ Scientists analyzed regularities [=patterns] in the sun's emissions.

reg•u•lar•ize also Brit reg•u•lar•ise /'rɛgjələˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a situation) regular, legal, or officially accepted ▪ Under the program, illegal immigrants would be able to apply to regularize their status.

reg•u•lar•ly /'rɛgjələli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 a : at the same time every day, week, month, etc. : on a regular basis ▪ The sales team meets regularly. ▪ We go to church regularly. ▪ a regularly scheduled program b : very often ▪ They play golf regularly. ▪ She goes out to dinner quite regularly.
2 : with the same amount of space between each thing ▪ a series of regularly [=evenly] spaced lines

reg•u•late /'rɛgjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to set or adjust the amount, degree, or rate of (something) : CONTROL ▪ The dam regulates the flow of water into the river. ▪ The thermostat regulates the room's temperature. = The room's temperature is regulated by the thermostat.
2 a : to bring (something) under the control of authority ▪ We need better laws to regulate the content of the Internet. ▪ Laws have been made to regulate working conditions. b : to make rules or laws that control (something) ▪ The government regulates how much lead may be found in our water supply. ▪ The department regulates foreign trade.

[1]reg•u•la•tion /ˌrɛgjə'leɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : an official rule or law that says how something should be done ▪ safety regulations [=codes] ▪ Builders must comply with the regulations. ▪ federal/state/government regulations ▪ regulations on the disposal of waste ▪ Each agency has its own set of rules and regulations. synonyms see LAW
2 [noncount] : the act of regulating something — + of ▪ the regulation of gun sales by the government ▪ the body's regulation of blood pressure

[2]regulation adj : in agreement with the official rules ▪ a regulation [=official] baseball ▪ Students must wear regulation uniforms. ▪ The length of the field is not regulation. = The field is not regulation size.

reg•u•la•tor /'rɛgjəˌleɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a device for controlling the level or amount of something (such as speed or temperature) ▪ a pressure regulator
2 : an official who works for the part of the government that controls a public activity (such as banking or insurance) by making and enforcing rules ▪ federal/state regulators

reg•u•la•to•ry /'rɛgjələˌtori, Brit ˌrɛgjə'leɪtri/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : making or concerned with making official rules about what is acceptable in a particular business, activity, etc. ▪ a regulatory agency/authority ▪ They are seeking regulatory approval for the merger.

re•gur•gi•tate /ri'gɚʤəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 : to bring food that has been swallowed back to and out of the mouth [no obj] The bird regurgitates to feed its young. [+ obj] The bird regurgitates food to feed its young. ▪ regurgitated food
2 [+ obj] disapproving : to repeat (something, such as a fact, idea, etc.) without understanding it ▪ She memorized the historical dates only to regurgitate them on the exam. ▪ The speaker was just regurgitating facts and figures.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– re•gur•gi•ta•tion /riˌgɚʤəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]re•hab /ˈriːˌhæb/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : a program for helping people who have problems with drugs, alcohol, etc. — often used after in or into ▪ He is in rehab. ▪ She checked herself into rehab. — compare DETOX
2 : the process of helping someone (such as an injured patient or a drug user) to become healthy again : the process of rehabilitating someone ▪ He has had two months of rehab. = He has been/gone through two months of rehab. ▪ The rehab for his leg injury is going well. ▪ a rehab center/program

[2]rehab verb -habs; -habbed; -hab•bing US, informal : REHABILITATE [+ obj] It could take him several months to rehab his knee. ▪ trying to rehab drug addicts ▪ They're planning to rehab that old building. [no obj] He's still rehabbing from the injury.

re•ha•bil•i•tate /ˌriːjəˈbɪləˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 : to bring (someone or something) back to a normal, healthy condition after an illness, injury, drug problem, etc. [+ obj] The clinic rehabilitates drug addicts. ▪ He's still rehabilitating the knee he injured last summer. ▪ They try to rehabilitate horses that have suffered injuries. [no obj] She's still rehabilitating [=recovering] from her ankle injury.
2 [+ obj] : to teach (a criminal in prison) to live a normal and productive life ▪ The program is intended to rehabilitate criminals.
3 [+ obj] : to bring (someone or something) back to a good condition : RESTORE ▪ The country has rehabilitated its image since the war. ▪ The city plans to rehabilitate its slum areas.
– re•ha•bil•i•ta•tion /ˌriːjəˌbɪləˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ His rehabilitation was successful. ▪ the rehabilitation of drug abusers/criminals ▪ a rehabilitation [=rehab] center/program

re•hash /riˈhæʃ/ verb -hash•es; -hashed; -hash•ing [+ obj] disapproving
1 : to present (something) again in a slightly different form ▪ You're just rehashing the same argument all over again.
2 : to talk about or discuss (something) again ▪ rehashing old memories
– re•hash /ˈriːˌhæʃ/ noun, pl -hash•es [count] ▪ The newest book is just a rehash of her earlier work.

re•hears•al /rɪˈhəsəl/ noun, pl -als : an event at which a person or group practices an activity (such as singing, dancing, or acting) in order to prepare for a public performance [noncount] She was 15 minutes late to rehearsal. ▪ The production of King Lear has been in rehearsal for nearly a month. [=the actors have been practicing their parts in the play together for nearly a month] [count] There are only three more rehearsals before the concert. — often used figuratively ▪ This tournament is a rehearsal for the Olympics. — see also DRESS REHEARSAL, WEDDING REHEARSAL rehearsal dinner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] US : a formal meal after a wedding rehearsal for the people participating in a wedding ceremony

re•hearse /rɪˈhəs/ verb -hears•es; -hearsed; -hears•ing
1 a : to prepare for a public performance of a play, a piece of music, etc., by practicing the performance [+ obj] The orchestra is rehearsing a piece by Schumann. ▪ rehearse a play/scene/dance [no obj] The band stayed up late rehearsing for the big show. b [+ obj] : to direct (a group of people) as they prepare for a public performance ▪ We were allowed to watch the director rehearse the dancers.
2 [+ obj] : to say or do (something) several times in order to practice ▪ lawyers rehearsing their closing arguments ▪ He rehearsed his dance moves in front of the mirror.
– rehearsed adj ▪ well-rehearsed dancers [=dancers who have been rehearsed well; dancers who have been directed well during rehearsal] ▪ a rehearsed statement ▪ Her story sounded rehearsed. [=it seemed like a story she had practiced telling; it did not sound natural or true]

re•heat /riˈhiːt/ verb -heats; -heat•ed; -heat•ing [+ obj] : to make (cooked food that has become cool) hot again ▪ I'm just going to reheat some leftovers for dinner.

re•hire /riˈhajɚ/ verb -hires; -hired; -hir•ing [+ obj] : to hire (someone) back into the same company or job ▪ His contract expired, but the company decided to rehire him for another project.

re•house /riˈhaʊz/ verb -hous•es; -housed; -hous•ing [+ obj] Brit : to give (a person or animal) a different and usually better place to live ▪ The organization is working to rehouse families who were displaced in the fire.

[1]reign /ˈreɪn/ noun, pl reigns [count]
1 : the period of time during which a king, queen, emperor, etc., is ruler of a country ▪ She was a popular ruler throughout her reign. ▪ the reign of Queen Elizabeth
2 : the period of time during which someone is in charge of a group or organization ▪ his reign as department chairperson ▪ her reign as team president
3 : the period of time during which someone or something is the best or the most important, powerful, etc. ▪ his reign as heavyweight boxing champion ▪ the reign of digital technology

[2]reign verb reigns; reigned; reign•ing [no obj]
1 : to rule as a king, queen, emperor, etc. ▪ The king reigned in a time of peace and prosperity. — often + over ▪ She reigned over her kingdom for many decades.
2 : to be the best or the most powerful or important person or thing ▪ The lion reigns as king of the jungle. ▪ As a director, he still reigns supreme. [=he is still the best]
3 — used to say that a quality exists to such a degree in a place or situation that it affects everything about that place or situation ▪ Silence reigns in the old library's dusty aisles. ▪ Chaos reigned in the city [=chaos was everywhere in the city] after the military coup.
– reigning adj ▪ the reigning king/queen ▪ She remains the reigning diva of pop music. ▪ the reigning champion re•ig•nite /ˌriːjɪgˈnaɪt/ verb -nites; nit•ed; nit•ing

1 : to begin to burn again or to cause (something) to begin to burn again [no obj] Be careful that the embers don't reignite. [+ obj] Heat will reignite the smoldering rags.
2 [+ obj] a : to give new life or energy to (someone or something) ▪ The incident reignited racial tensions. b : to cause (something) to suddenly occur again ▪ The study has reignited debate on the issue.

reign of terror noun, pl reigns of terror [count] : a period during which a person or group commits violent acts against many people and causes a lot of fear ▪ The dictator seized power and began a reign of terror. ▪ The sheriff put an end to the killer's reign of terror. — often used figuratively ▪ a temperamental CEO's reign of terror

re•im•burse /ˌriːjəmˈbɚs/ verb -burs•es; -bursed; -burs•ing [+ obj] : to pay someone an amount of money equal to an amount that person has spent — often + for ▪ We will reimburse you for your travel expenses. = We will reimburse your travel expenses. ▪ I should be reimbursed for the fees.
– re•im•burs•able /ˌriːjəmˈbɚsəbəl/ adj ▪ reimbursable expenses – re•im•burse•ment /ˌriːjəmˈbɚsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ I received a partial reimbursement for my travel expenses.

[1]rein /ˈreɪn/ noun, pl reins [count]
1 : a strap that is fastened to a device (called a bridle) placed on the head of an animal (such as a horse) and that is used to guide and control the animal — usually plural ▪ The rider pulled on the reins to stop his horse. — see picture at HORSE
2 a : the ability to limit or control something ▪ We need to keep a rein on our spending. [=we need to limit/control our spending] ▪ He has people working for him, but he has/keeps a tight rein on every part of the process. b : the power to guide or control someone or something — usually plural ▪ They held the reins of government/power. [=they controlled the government] ▪ She handed the reins of the company to her successor. = She handed over the reins of the company to her successor. ▪ The President-elect will officially take the reins [=take control] in January.
free/full rein : the opportunity to act freely ▪ The studio gave the director free rein [=complete control] over the movie. ▪ Give full rein to your imagination.

[2]rein verb reins; reined; rein•ing rein in [phrasal verb] rein (someone or something) in or rein in (someone or something) 1 : to limit or control (someone or something) ▪ Congress must rein in spending. ▪ You had better rein that kid in before she gets hurt. 2 : to make (an animal) stop by using reins ▪ The rider reined in his horse.

re•in•car•nate /ˌriːjənˈkɑɚˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing be reincarnated : to be born again with a different body after death ▪ Some religions teach that we are reincarnated [=reborn] many times on the way to enlightenment. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The old mill is being reincarnated as a condominium complex.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

– reincarnated adj ▪ They believe that the boy is their reincarnated leader.

re•in•car•na•tion /ˌriːjənˌkɑəˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the idea or belief that people are born again with a different body after death ▪ Many people believe in reincarnation.
2 [count] : someone who has been born again with a different body after death — often + of ▪ They believe that the boy is the reincarnation of their leader. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The café is a reincarnation of an eatery of the same name that existed across town years ago.

rein•deer /ˈreɪnˌdiə/ noun, pl reindeer [count] : a large type of deer that lives in northern parts of the world : CARIBOU ▪ a large herd of reindeer

re•in•force /ˌriːjənˈfoəs/ verb -forc•es; -forced; -forc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to strengthen (a group of people) with new supplies or more people ▪ The captain sent out another squad to reinforce the troops. ▪ Our camp is reinforced with supplies flown in by helicopter.
2 : to strengthen (something, such as clothing or a building) by adding more material for support ▪ She reinforced the elbows of the jacket. [=she sewed more material onto the elbows of the jacket] ▪ The soldiers reinforced [=strengthened] the barricades with sandbags. ▪ The levees will need to be reinforced.
3 : to encourage or give support to (an idea, behavior, feeling, etc.) ▪ The bad weather forecast only reinforces our decision to leave early tomorrow. ▪ Some critics say that the movie reinforces negative stereotypes about the military. ▪ We do our best to reinforce good conduct in the classroom.

reinforced concrete noun [noncount] : concrete that has metal bars inside of it to make it stronger

re•in•force•ment /ˌriːjənˈfoəsmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 reinforcements [plural] : people and supplies that are sent to help or support an army, military force, etc. ▪ "We're outnumbered! Call for reinforcements!" ▪ We need to prevent enemy reinforcements from reaching the front line.
2 a [noncount] : the act of strengthening or encouraging something ▪ The bridge is in need of reinforcement. ▪ the reinforcement of stereotypes b [count] : a thing that strengthens or encourages something ▪ The teacher introduced the new vocabulary words and then used a game as a reinforcement. [=as something that would help the students understand/remember the words]
3 : a response to someone's behavior that is intended to make that person more likely to behave that way again [count] positive/negative reinforcements [noncount] You should encourage good behavior with positive reinforcement.

re•in•state /ˌriːjənˈsteɪt/ verb -states; -stat•ed; -stat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (someone) back in a job or position that had been taken away ▪ After his name was cleared, he was reinstated as committee chairperson. ▪ The company promised to reinstate [=rehire] the employees that had been laid off.
2 : to begin using or dealing with (a law, policy, system, etc.) again ▪ The school board voted to reinstate the school's uniform policy. ▪ the year the death penalty was reinstated ▪ The court case was dismissed by the judge but reinstated [=reopened] on appeal.
– re•in•state•ment /ˌriːjənˈsteɪtmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the reinstatement of the death penalty

re•in•sure /ˌriːjənˈʃə/ verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing [+ obj] : to insure (something) again so that the insurance is shared by more than one company
– re•in•sur•ance /ˌriːjənˈʃərəns/ noun [noncount] – re•in•sur•er /ˌriːjənˈʃərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

re•in•ter•pret /ˌriːjənˈtəprət/ verb -prets; -pret•ed; -pret•ing [+ obj] : to understand and explain or show (something) in a new or different way ▪ New information may force us to reinterpret the evidence. ▪ The director wants to reinterpret the old play for a modern audience.
– re•in•ter•pre•ta•tion /ˌriːjənˌtəprəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] modern reinterpretations of Shakespeare's plays [noncount] These works of art are always open to reinterpretation. [=can always be explained or understood in a different way]

re•in•tro•duce /ˌriːjɪntrəˈduːs, Brit ˌriːjɪntrəˈdjuːs/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj]
1 : to begin using (something) again ▪ The school has decided to reintroduce some of its old policies.
2 : to return (an animal or plant) to the area where it used to live ▪ Several species of endangered fish are being reintroduced into the river.
– re•in•tro•duc•tion /ˌriːɪntrəˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•in•vent /ˌriːjənˈvɛnt/ verb -vents; -vent•ed; -vent•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make major changes or improvements to (something) ▪ The candidate promised to reinvent Social Security.
2 : to present (something) in a different or new way ▪ chefs who reinvent regional favorites using exotic ingredients reinvent the wheel informal : to waste time trying to do something that has already been done successfully by someone else ▪ When designing new software, there's no need to reinvent the wheel.
reinvent yourself : to become a different kind of person, performer, etc. ▪ She's a classical singer who's trying to reinvent herself as a pop artist.
– re•in•ven•tion /ˌriːjənˈvɛnʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ the reinvention of the education system

re•in•vest /ˌriːjənˈvɛst/ verb -vests; -vest•ed; -vest•ing
1 a : to use (the profits of an investment) to buy more investments [+ obj] Many investors reinvest their dividends. [no obj] Before you reinvest, consider your options carefully. b [+ obj] : to use (money that a business has earned) to improve the business ▪ The company reinvests a portion of its profits in new products.
2 [no obj] US : to spend money, time, energy, etc., to make improvements to something valuable — often + in ▪ We need to reinvest in our neighborhoods.
– re•in•vest•ment /ˌriːjənˈvɛstmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ the reinvestment of earnings/dividends ▪ neighborhood/community reinvestment

re•is•sue /riˈɪʃuː/ verb -is•sues; -is•sued; -is•su•ing [+ obj] : to publish or produce (something, such as a book or recording) again : to issue (something) again ▪ The publisher has decided to reissue the author's out-of-print books. ▪ My favorite album is being reissued on CD. [=my favorite album is being produced again as a CD] – reissue noun, pl -is•sues [count] ▪ That's not the original album—it's a reissue.

re•it•er•ate /riˈɪtəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to repeat something you have already said in order to emphasize it ▪ reiterate a claim/view/point ▪ She avoided answering our questions directly, instead reiterating that the answers could be found in her book. ▪ Allow me to reiterate: if I am elected, I will not raise taxes.
– re•it•er•a•tion /riˌɪtəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The report was nothing more than a reiteration of statements by officials. [noncount] the reiteration of certain themes in the author's books

[1]re•ject /rɪˈʤɛkt/ verb -jects; -ject•ed; -ject•ing [+ obj]
1 : to refuse to believe, accept, or consider (something) ▪ My teacher rejected my excuse for being late. ▪ The committee rejected my proposal/idea/suggestion/motion. ▪ I agree with several points of her argument, while rejecting [=disagreeing with] her conclusions. ▪ She rejected the package/letter [=she did not accept the delivery of the package, letter, etc.] and returned it unopened.
2 : to decide not to publish (something) or make (something) available to the public because it is not good enough ▪ My article/book/paper was rejected. ▪ The produce inspector rejected several crates of berries that had begun to grow mold.
3 a : to refuse to allow (someone) to join a club, to attend a school, etc. ▪ The college rejects hundreds of applicants each year. b : to decide not to offer (someone) a job or position ▪ We rejected 5 of the 10 job applicants right away.
4 : to refuse to love, care for, or give attention to (someone) ▪ The mother cat rejected the smallest kitten and refused to feed it. ▪ Rejected by society, these street kids have to fend for themselves. ▪ He still loves her even though she's rejected him before. ▪ He wanted to ask her on a date, but he was afraid of being rejected.
5 medical, of a person's body : to produce substances that try to harm or destroy (a transplanted organ, a skin graft, etc.) ▪ The patient's immune system rejected the transplanted heart. = The patient rejected the transplanted heart.
– re•jec•tion /rɪˈʤɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The committee was unanimous in its rejection of my proposal. ▪ After many rejections, her novel was finally accepted for publication. [noncount] In any transplant operation, there is a risk of organ rejection. ▪ a rejection letter [=a letter saying that you or something you have written, made, etc., has been rejected]

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[2]re•ject /ˈriːˌʤɛkt/ noun, pl -jects [count]
1 : something that is not good enough for some purpose : something that cannot be used or accepted ▪ Stack the promising applications here, and put the rejects over there. ▪ One way to save on clothing costs is to buy (factory) rejects. [=clothes that are sold for a lower price because they have flaws]
2 : a person who is not accepted or liked by other people ▪ the rejects of society = society's rejects ▪ (informal) Ignore him, he's a (total/complete) reject.

re•jig /riˈʤɪg/ verb -jigs; -jigged; -jig•ging [+ obj] Brit, informal : REJIGGER

re•jig•ger /riˈʤɪgɚ/ verb -jig•gers; -jig•gered; -jig•ger•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to change or adjust (something) : REARRANGE ▪ We'll have to rejigger [=(Brit) rejig] the family finances to pay for the new car. ▪ The TV network is rejiggering its schedule.

re•joice /rɪˈʤɔɪs/ verb -joic•es; -joiced; -joic•ing [no obj] : to feel or show that you are very happy about something ▪ We all rejoiced over/about/in/at our friend's good luck. ▪ The fans rejoiced when their team finally won the World Series. = The fans rejoiced in their team's World Series victory.
rejoice in the name/title of Brit, humorous : to have a name/title that makes people laugh or smile ▪ a woman who rejoices in the name of Eugenia Whelpbottom – rejoicing noun [noncount] ▪ There was much rejoicing when the soldiers returned home.

re•join verb -joins; -joined; -join•ing
1 /ˌriːˈʤɔɪn/ : to become a member of (a group or organization) again [+ obj] I'll be rejoining my family for the last part of our vacation. ▪ Now that the kids are in school, I'm ready to rejoin the workforce. [no obj] The original drummer left the band in 2000 but rejoined two years later.
2 /rɪˈʤɔɪn/ : to come together with (something) again [+ obj] This trail eventually rejoins the main trail. [no obj] The river divides here, but the two streams rejoin downstream.
3 /ˌriːˈʤɔɪn/ [+ obj] formal : to reply to (something said or written) especially in a rude or angry way ▪ "You're a fine one to talk," she rejoined. [=replied, retorted]

re•join•der /rɪˈʤɔɪndɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count] formal : a usually rude or angry reply to something written or said ▪ The article was a stinging rejoinder to her critics. ▪ a witty rejoinder

re•ju•ve•nate /rɪˈʤuːvəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) feel or look young, healthy, or energetic again ▪ The spa treatment rejuvenated me.
2 : to give new strength or energy to (something) ▪ Each candidate claims to have a plan to rejuvenate the sagging economy. ▪ Her efforts to rejuvenate her career have so far been unsuccessful.
– rejuvenated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I felt rejuvenated [=refreshed] after a nap and a shower. ▪ a rejuvenated economy – rejuvenating adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ rejuvenating face cream ▪ The swim was very rejuvenating. – re•ju•ve•na•tion /rɪˌʤuːvəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] physical/economic rejuvenation [singular] The city has experienced a rejuvenation.

re•kin•dle /riˈkɪndl/ verb -kin•dles; -kin•dled; -kin•dling [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a feeling) to be strong or active again ▪ The movie has rekindled public interest in the trial. ▪ The court's controversial decision is sure to rekindle debate about this issue. ▪ rekindle an old romance
– rekindling noun [singular] ▪ a rekindling of interest/debate

[1]re•lapse /ˈriːˌlæps/ noun, pl -laps•es
1 : the return of an illness after a period of improvement [count] Everyone thought she was well until a sudden relapse sent her back to the hospital. [noncount] Patients who stop taking the medication have a higher risk of relapse. [=they are more likely to get sick again]
2 : a return to bad behavior that you had stopped doing [count] a drug addict who has had a relapse [noncount] a drug addict who has a history of relapse ▪ The program has a low rate of relapse. [=most people who use the program do not return to the bad behavior they had stopped doing]

[2]re•lapse /rɪˈlæps/ verb -laps•es; -lapsed; -laps•ing [no obj]
1 a : to become ill again after a period of improvement in health ▪ If you don't continue your treatment, you could relapse. b of an illness : to return or become worse after leaving or improving for a period of time ▪ Malaria can relapse years after the original infection.
2 : to return to a bad condition, form of behavior, etc. ▪ The country soon relapsed into chaos. ▪ She stayed out of trouble for a long time, but then she relapsed into her old ways. ▪ Many former smokers relapse [=begin smoking again] in times of stress.

re•lat•able /rɪˈleɪtəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] US : possible to understand because of being like something you have known, experienced, etc. ▪ The show has likable characters in relatable situations. [=in situations that people can relate to] re•late /rɪˈleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 [+ obj] : to show or make a connection between (two or more things) ▪ relate cause and effect — often + to ▪ Few of the people who became sick related their symptoms to the food they'd eaten the day before.
2 [no obj] : to understand and like or have sympathy for someone or something ▪ You must be feeling awful. I went through something similar myself last year, so I can relate. — usually + to ▪ I can relate to your feelings. ▪ I've never been able to relate to him very well. ▪ The audience needs to be able to relate to the characters in the story. ▪ He writes songs that people can really relate to.
3 [+ obj] formal : to tell (something, such as a story) ▪ The book relates [=recounts] a tale of jealousy and heartache. ▪ We listened eagerly as she related the whole exciting story.
4 [no obj] — used to describe how people talk to, behave toward, and deal with each other; usually + to or with ▪ The way a child relates to [=interacts with] her teacher can affect her education. ▪ They are very formal in the way they relate [=interact] with each other.
relate to [phrasal verb] relate to (someone or something) : to be connected with (someone or something) : to be about (someone or something) ▪ The readings relate to the class discussions. ▪ Their grudge relates back to a misunderstanding that took place years ago. ▪ other information relating to his performance — often used as (be) related to ▪ The survey suggests that financial success is closely/strongly/directly related to a person's level of education. — see also RELATE 1, 2, 4 (above)

related adj
1 : connected in some way ▪ ancient history and other related subjects/areas/fields ▪ drug-related crimes [=crimes that are connected to illegal drugs]
2 not used before a noun : in the same family ▪ I just found out that my best friend and I are related through distant cousins. ▪ We all call her "auntie," but we're not actually related. [=we're not in the same family] ▪ My stepmother and I are not related by blood. [=my stepmother and I do not share biological ancestors; our biological families are different] ▪ My sister-in-law and I are related by marriage. [=my sister-in-law is married to someone in my family]
3 : belonging to the same group because of shared characteristics, qualities, etc. ▪ Horses and donkeys are related. ▪ closely/distantly related species ▪ The words "play" and "playful" are related.

re•la•tion /rɪˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 relations [plural] a : the way in which two or more people, groups, countries, etc., talk to, behave toward, and deal with each other ▪ The incident led to tense international relations. — see also INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS b formal : SEXUAL INTERCOURSE ▪ sexual relations outside of marriage
2 : the way in which two or more people or things are connected [count] the relations [=(more commonly) relationships] between weather events and erosion [noncount] This movie bears no relation to the book by the same title. [=it is not connected to the book at all; the movie and the book do not tell the same story, have the same characters, etc.]
3 : a person who is a member of your family [count] We threw a big party for all our friends and relations. [=relatives] ▪ Is he a relation of yours? [=are you related to him?] [noncount] I'm Jill Jones, and this is Mike Jones—no relation. [=we have the same last name but we are not related; we are not members of the same family] in relation to formal 1 — used to talk about what something is like by comparing it to something else or by seeing how it is related to something else ▪ The monkey's eyes are large in relation to its head. ▪ understanding literature in relation to history 2 : about (something or someone) ▪ I have several comments to make in relation to [=in/with reference to, regarding] the subject at hand.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

re•la•tion•ship /rɪˈleɪʃənˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [count] : the way in which two or more people, groups, countries, etc., talk to, behave toward, and deal with each other ▪ The relationship between the two countries has improved. ▪ She has a close relationship with her sister. ▪ We have a good working relationship. [=we work well together] ▪ I have a love-hate relationship with my ex. [=I have strong feelings of both love and hatred for my ex]
2 [count] : a romantic or sexual friendship between two people ▪ She has had many bad relationships. ▪ I am not in a relationship right now.
3 : the way in which two or more people or things are connected [count] the relationship between mental and physical health ▪ the doctor-patient relationship [noncount] "What is your relationship to the witness?" "He is my father/friend/boss." ▪ Her earlier paintings bear little relationship to her later work. [=her earlier paintings are very different from her later work; her earlier paintings are not obviously connected to her later work]

[1]rel•a•tive /ˈrɛlətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count]
1 : a member of your family ▪ At the family reunion, I saw relatives I haven't seen in years. ▪ He inherited a small piece of land from a distant relative.
2 : something that belongs to the same group as something else because of shared characteristics, qualities, etc. ▪ The donkey is a relative of the horse.

[2]relative adj
1 a : compared to someone or something else or to each other ▪ the relative value of two houses ▪ What are the relative advantages of the different methods? [=what are the advantages of each method compared to the others?] ▪ the relative positions of the islands ▪ We discussed the relative merits of each school. ▪ The car might seem expensive, but it's all relative. [=the car is expensive compared to some cars but not to other cars] b : seeming to be something when compared with others ▪ I'm a relative newcomer to the area. [=I am not really new to the area but I am more of a newcomer than many people] ▪ We did it with relative [=comparative] ease.
2 grammar : referring to a noun, a part of a sentence, or a sentence that was used earlier ▪ "Who," "whom," "whose," "which," and "that" are all relative pronouns. ▪ The phrase "that won" in "the book that won" is a relative clause.
relative to formal 1 — used to describe what someone or something is like when compared with or measured against someone or something else ▪ Dolphins have large brains relative to their body size. ▪ The value of the house is low relative to similar houses in the area. 2 : concerning or about (something) : referring to (something) ▪ We will discuss matters relative to peace and security.

rel•a•tive•ly /ˈrɛlətɪvli/ adv : when compared to others ▪ The car's price is relatively high/low. [=the car's price is fairly/somewhat high/low when compared to the price of other cars] ▪ We've had a relatively [=comparatively] warm/cool/dry spring. ▪ There were relatively few people [=a fairly small number of people] at the meeting last night. ▪ The house is relatively [=fairly] new.
relatively speaking 1 : when compared to others that are similar ▪ The procedure was quick, relatively speaking. ▪ This is a pretty good college, relatively speaking. ▪ Relatively speaking, the movie wasn't bad. 2 — used to say that something is true or correct as a general statement even if it is not entirely true or correct ▪ The trip was, relatively speaking, a disaster.

rel•a•tiv•ism /ˈrɛlətəˌvɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that different things are true, right, etc., for different people or at different times ▪ moral/cultural relativism
– rel•a•tiv•ist /ˈrɛlətɪvɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ cultural relativists – relativist also rel•a•tiv•is•tic /ˌrɛlətəˈtɪvɪstɪk/ adj ▪ a relativist view

rel•a•tiv•i•ty /ˌrɛləˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] physics : a theory developed by Albert Einstein which says that the way that anything except light moves through time and space depends on the position and movement of someone who is watching re•launch /riˈlɑːntʃ/ verb -launch•es; -launched; -launch•ing [+ obj] : to launch (something) again: such as a : to send or shoot (something, such as a rocket) into the air or water or into outer space again ▪ relaunch the space shuttle b : to offer or sell a new version of (something, such as a product) ▪ The company is preparing to relaunch its software. ▪ The editor relaunched the magazine with a new title and a better format.

– re•launch /ˈriːˌlɑːntʃ/ noun, pl -launch•es [count] ▪ The company has announced the relaunch of its software.

re•lax /rɪˈlæks/ verb -lax•es; -laxed; -lax•ing
1 : to become or to cause (something) to become less tense, tight, or stiff [no obj] Her grip on my hand relaxed [=loosened] only after the roller coaster had come to a complete stop. ▪ The muscles in my neck and shoulders should relax after a nice hot shower. [+ obj] When the roller coaster stopped, she relaxed [=loosened] her grip on my hand. ▪ A hot shower relaxed the tight muscles in my neck and shoulders. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Winter has finally relaxed its grip on the country.
2 [no obj] : to stop feeling nervous or worried ▪ I can't relax with all this noise! ▪ Just relax, there's nothing to worry about. ▪ Try to relax and enjoy the ride.
3 [no obj] : to spend time resting or doing something enjoyable especially after you have been doing work ▪ After work I like to come home and relax [=unwind] for a while in front of the television. ▪ She likes to relax with a glass of wine [=to have a glass of wine] before bed.
4 : to become or to cause (something, such as a rule or law) to become less severe or strict [+ obj] The commission has voted to relax industry regulations/restrictions/standards. [no obj] Fashion rules have relaxed a lot in recent years.
5 [+ obj] formal : to allow (something, such as your attention or concentration) to become weaker ▪ We mustn't relax our vigilance for a moment!
6 [+ obj] chiefly US : to use a chemical treatment on (hair) in order to make it straight or straighter re•lax•ant /rɪˈlæksənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] : a substance (such as a drug) that relaxes you, your muscles, etc. ▪ a muscle relaxant

re•lax•a•tion /ˌriːˌlækˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] a : a way to rest and enjoy yourself ▪ I like to play the guitar for relaxation. b : time that you spend resting and enjoying yourself ▪ What I need is some rest and relaxation.
2 : something that you do to stop feeling nervous, worried, etc. [noncount] relaxation techniques/exercises [count] (Brit) Her favourite relaxation is listening to music.
3 [noncount] : the act of making something (such as a muscle) less tense, tight, or stiff ▪ the relaxation of muscles = muscle relaxation — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the relaxation of winter's grip on the country
4 : the act of becoming or causing something to become less severe or strict [noncount] Workers demanded the relaxation of the company's strict dress code. [count] a relaxation of rules ▪ relaxations of safety regulations

re•laxed /rɪˈlækst/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : calm and free from stress, worry, or anxiety : not worried or tense ▪ Nothing makes me feel more relaxed than a nice hot bath. ▪ I used to get really nervous performing, but I'm pretty relaxed about it now. ▪ He's a very relaxed guy.
2 : informal and comfortable : CASUAL ▪ The restaurant had a relaxed atmosphere. ▪ The seminar was very relaxed—we met at the professor's house instead of the lecture hall. ▪ We have a relaxed dress code at the office.
3 : not strict or carefully controlled ▪ a relaxed set of rules ▪ He has a relaxed attitude towards his studies. [=he is not very serious about his studies]
4 chiefly US, of hair : made straight or straighter with a chemical treatment ▪ relaxed hair
5 of clothing : not tight ▪ relaxed [=loose-fitting] jeans

re•lax•er /rɪˈlæksə/ noun, pl -ers [count, noncount] chiefly US : a chemical treatment that is used to make curly hair straight or straighter re•lax•ing /rɪˈlæksɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : helping you to rest and to feel less tense, worried, nervous, etc. ▪ quiet, relaxing music ▪ We spent three relaxing days at the beach.

[1]re•lay /ˈriːˌleɪ/ noun, pl -lays [count]
1 : a race between teams in which each team member runs, swims, etc., a different part of the race ▪ I'm running (in) the relay at tomorrow's track meet. ▪ the 4x100 relay [=a relay with four parts that are 100 meters each] ▪ Our relay team is training for next weekend's race.
2 : the act of passing something from one person or device to another ▪ a satellite relay of a television signal ▪ (baseball) The shortstop's relay (throw) from center field was too late to catch the runner at home.; also : a system for doing this ▪ We set up a relay to carry buckets of water to the campsite. ▪ a satellite relay system
3 : a group of people, horses, etc., that takes the place of others so that something (such as a job or an activity) is done

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

continuously ▪ They worked in relays to clear the rubble.
4 technical : a device that is used to cause a switch to open or close automatically when there is a change in the current that is flowing through a circuit ▪ an electromagnetic relay

[2]re•lay /rɪˈleɪ/ verb -lays; -layed; -lay•ing [+ obj] : to pass (something, such a message or information) from one person or device to another ▪ Messengers on horseback relayed battle plans to the front lines. ▪ Please relay the news to the rest of the team. — often used as (be) relayed ▪ This report is being relayed to us by our crew at the scene of the accident. ▪ Data relayed from the aircraft will be recorded on the ground.

[1]re•lease /rɪˈliːs/ verb -leas•es; -leased; -leas•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to allow (a person or animal) to leave a jail, cage, prison, etc. : to set (someone or something) free ▪ The hostages have been released. ▪ The judge released the prisoner. ▪ The lion was released from its cage. ▪ There is a lot of controversy over whether or not wolves should be released into the park. b : to stop holding (someone or something) ▪ The hot-air balloon pilot signaled the ground crew to release [=let go of] the ropes. ▪ I released my son's hand, and he ran out onto the playground. c : to allow (a substance) to enter the air, water, soil, etc. ▪ Plastic releases [=emits] dangerous chemicals when it burns. ▪ The factory faced serious fines for releasing dangerous chemicals into the river. ▪ Heat is released into the atmosphere by cars. ▪ During exercise, the body releases chemicals in the brain that make you feel better. d : to cause (an emotion, a feeling, etc.) to go away by expressing it or dealing with it in some way ▪ She started to cry, releasing all of her repressed emotion. ▪ Exercise is a good way to release stress/tension.
2 : to free (someone) from a duty, responsibility, etc. ▪ The contract was declared null, and we were released from our agreement/obligation. ▪ I released him from his promise. [=I said that he did not have to do what he had promised to do]
3 : to give up control or possession of (something) ▪ The local police released the evidence to the FBI.
4 : to make (something) available to the public ▪ The band hopes to release their new album by next summer. ▪ The police will not release the names of the teenagers involved in the robbery. ▪ They released a statement this afternoon.
5 : to allow (part of a machine, device, etc.) to go back to its normal position ▪ The camera's shutter will stay open until the button is released. ▪ release [=disengage] the parking brake

[2]release noun, pl -leases
1 : the act of releasing someone or something: such as a : the act of allowing a person or animal to leave a jail, cage, prison, etc. [noncount] the release of the hostages ▪ The prisoner is eligible for early release. ▪ There was a controversy over the release of wolves into the park. [count] The prisoner was given an early release. b : the act of allowing a substance to enter the air, water, soil, etc. [noncount] the release of heat into the atmosphere ▪ Exercise triggers the release of chemicals in the brain that make you feel better. [count] an accidental release of pollutants into the river c : the act of freeing someone from a duty, responsibility, etc. [noncount] They've filed a request for release from the contract. [count] They're requesting a release from their contractual obligations. d [noncount] : the act of making something available to the public ▪ The release of the book is scheduled for next month. ▪ The government has tried to bar the release of the documents. ▪ The film's general release is Friday. [=the film will begin to be shown in theaters on Friday] ▪ (Brit) The film is on general release. [=the film is being shown in theaters]
2 a [singular] : a way of dealing with and getting rid of unpleasant emotions, feelings, etc. ▪ Dancing is a great release (from stress). ▪ activities that offer a release from stress b formal : an end to pain, distress, etc. [noncount] We mourned her death, but were glad it brought her release from pain. ▪ a feeling of release [singular] Her death brought her a release from pain.
3 [count] : something (such as a new product or an official statement) that is made available to the public ▪ new product releases ▪ the band's latest release ▪ the year's top CD releases ▪ The company has issued a release about the new software. — see also PRESS RELEASE
4 [count] : an official document which states that a company, person, etc., is not responsible if you are hurt while doing something ▪ The company requires visitors to the mine to sign a release before they go below ground. ▪ a release form
5 [count] : a device that allows a part of a machine to move freely ▪ the shutter release on a camera
6 [count] US, sports : the action or manner of throwing a ball — usually singular ▪ The quarterback has a quick release.

rel•e•gate /ˈrɛlə,geɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to put (someone or something) in a lower or less important position, rank, etc. — usually used as (be) relegated; usually + to ▪ an important historical figure who is usually relegated to footnote status ▪ The team's best player has been relegated to a backup role because of injuries. ▪ old books relegated to the attic
2 formal : to give (something, such as a job or responsibility) to another person or group ▪ The bill has been relegated to committee for discussion.
3 Brit : to move (a sports team) to a lower position in a league — usually used as (be) relegated; usually + to ▪ The team have been relegated to the Second Division. — opposite PROMOTE – rel•e•ga•tion /ˌrɛləˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ her relegation to a backup role re•lent /rɪˈlɛnt/ verb -lents; -lent•ed; -lent•ing [no obj] somewhat formal 1 : to agree to do or accept something that you have been resisting or opposing ▪ Our application was initially refused, but the city relented in the end and the permit was issued. ▪ They had refused to pay and relented only after being threatened with a lawsuit.

2 : to become less severe, harsh, strong, determined, etc. ▪ He will not relent [=give up] in his effort to clear his name. ▪ The winds would not relent.

re•lent•less /rɪˈlɛntləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : continuing without becoming weaker, less severe, etc. ▪ Her relentless optimism held the team together. ▪ relentless winds
2 : remaining strict or determined ▪ The hunter was relentless in pursuit of his prey. ▪ a relentless opponent of deregulation
– re•lent•less•ly adv ▪ She is relentlessly optimistic. ▪ a hunter relentlessly pursuing his prey [=pursuing without stopping]

rel•e•vant /ˈrɛləvənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to a subject in an appropriate way ▪ a relevant [=pertinent] question ▪ The ideas and observations expressed in the book are still relevant today. — often + to ▪ Her comments were not relevant [=(more formally) germane] to the discussion. ▪ Do you have any experience that is relevant to this job? — opposite IRRELEVANT
– rel•e•vance /ˈrɛləvəns/ or rel•e•van•cy /ˈrɛləvənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ The question lacks relevance. – rel•e•vant•ly adv ▪ It's a funny story, and more relevantly, it's true.

re•li•able /rɪˈlajəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to be trusted to do or provide what is needed : able to be relied on ▪ a reliable car ▪ a reliable source of safe drinking water [=a way to get safe drinking water every time you need it] ▪ He's not very reliable. You can't always count on him to do what he says he'll do.
2 : able to be believed : likely to be true or correct ▪ a reliable witness ▪ It's a rumor, but I heard it from a reliable source. [=someone who is likely to have accurate information] ▪ We can't write a report without reliable data. ▪ We need more reliable information before we can take action.
– re•li•abil•i•ty /rɪˌlajəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ These cars are known for their reliability. – re•li•ably /rɪˈlajəbli/ adv ▪ How can I get my computer to work reliably? ▪ Few analysts can reliably estimate corporate profits.

re•li•ance /rɪˈlajəns/ noun [singular] : the state of needing someone or something for help, support, etc. — usually + on or upon ▪ The region's reliance on tourism has only grown in recent years. ▪ Some farmers are taking steps to reduce their reliance on pesticides.

re•li•ant /rɪˈlajənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : needing someone or something for help, support, etc. : DEPENDENT — usually + on or upon ▪ Most college students remain reliant on their parents' support. ▪ Students have become too reliant on/upon calculators and don't truly understand basic mathematical principles. — see also SELF-RELIANT

rel•ic /ˈrɛlɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]
1 : something that is from a past time, place, culture, etc. — often + of or from ▪ relics of ancient China ▪ relics from the war ▪ This law is a relic of a bygone era. ▪ Typewriters are a relic of the past. [=typewriters are no longer used or considered modern]
2 : an object (such as a piece of clothing or the bone of a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

saint) that is considered holy ▪ holy/sacred relics

re•lief /rɪˈliːf/ noun, pl -liefs
1 : a pleasant and relaxed feeling that someone has when something unpleasant stops or does not happen [noncount] I felt such a sense of relief after I finished my thesis. ▪ He expressed relief that the crisis was finally over. ▪ Much to everyone's relief, the airplane took off without any problems. ▪ She breathed a sigh of relief. [=she no longer felt tension, worry, fear, etc.] [singular] What a relief it is to be back home.
2 [noncount] : the removal or reducing of something that is painful or unpleasant ▪ I want relief from my headaches. [=I want my headaches to stop] ▪ pain relief ▪ Exercise is an excellent source of stress relief. ▪ Both candidates promised tax relief for middle-class families.
3 [noncount] a : things (such as food, money, or medicine) that are given to help people who are victims of a war, earthquake, flood, etc. ▪ disaster/famine relief ▪ Countries from around the world have been sending relief to the flood victims. ▪ Relief workers [=people whose job it is to provide aid] delivered medical supplies. ▪ We donated to the relief effort for the hurricane victims. b chiefly US, old-fashioned : money that is given by the government to poor people : WELFARE ▪ My father lost his job and we had to go on relief.
4 [noncount] : a person or group that replaces another person or group that needs rest or has finished a period of work ▪ 30,000 troops will be sent abroad as relief for the deployed soldiers. — often used before another noun ▪ The relief driver took over after the midway point of the race. ▪ a relief crew
5 : something that is enjoyable and that replaces for a short time something that is boring, unpleasant, or difficult [singular] Just one day of sunshine would be a welcome relief from the rainy weather we've been having lately. [noncount] His character provides a little comic relief in what is otherwise a very serious and dramatic movie.
6 a [noncount] : a way of decorating wood, stone, metal, etc., with designs that stick out above the surface ▪ Each gold coin depicts the queen's head in relief on the front. b [count] : a work of art with designs that stick out above the surface ▪ ancient marble reliefs — see also BAS-RELIEF
7 [noncount] : a situation in which something is more noticeable when it is compared to something else ▪ The trees stood in stark relief against the sky. ▪ Her political activism throws the apathy of others into sharp relief. [=makes the apathy of others very noticeable] relief map noun, pl ~ maps [count] : a map that uses different colors or textures to show the height or depth of mountains, hills, valleys, etc.

relief pitcher noun, pl ~ -ers [count] baseball : a pitcher who comes into a game when another pitcher is removed from the game — called also reliever relief road noun, pl ~ roads [count] Brit : a road that can be used to avoid a busy area, another road with heavy traffic, etc.

re•lieve /rɪˈliːv/ verb -lieves; -lieved; -liev•ing [+ obj]
1 : to reduce or remove (something, such as pain or an unpleasant feeling) ▪ I took a pill to relieve my headache. ▪ I wish I could relieve your suffering. ▪ What's the best way to relieve stress? ▪ She tried to relieve the tension by making a joke.
2 : to make (a problem) less serious ▪ an effort to relieve traffic congestion ▪ relieve poverty ▪ We need to find ways to relieve overcrowding in our schools.
3 : to take the place of (someone who has been working, fighting, etc.) ▪ I've come to relieve the guard on duty. ▪ The soldiers were relieved by 30,000 fresh troops. ▪ (baseball) He relieved the starting pitcher in the sixth inning.
4 : to make (something) less boring, dull, etc., by including a part that is different ▪ His latest book is a long, serious novel relieved only by the occasional joke.
relieve of [phrasal verb] relieve (someone) of (something) 1 formal : to take (something that is difficult or unpleasant) from (someone) ▪ She signed a contract that relieved him of all responsibility regarding the business. ▪ The law relieves you of any liability. [=under the law, you will not be liable] 2 informal + humorous : to steal (something) from (someone) ▪ Someone relieved him of his wallet. [=someone stole his wallet] 3 : to remove (someone who has done something wrong) from (a post, duty, job, etc.) ▪ The general was relieved of his command.
relieve yourself : to pass waste from your body ▪ He stopped the car and went out into the woods to relieve himself. [=urinate] ▪ The puppy relieved himself on the carpet.

relieved adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling relaxed and happy because something difficult or unpleasant has been stopped, avoided, or made easier : feeling relief ▪ I was relieved to hear that you're feeling better. ▪ He was greeted at the door by his much relieved mother.

re•liev•er /rɪˈliːvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : something that relieves pain, stress, etc. ▪ pain relievers like aspirin and ibuprofen ▪ Exercise is a good stress reliever.
2 baseball : RELIEF PITCHER

re•li•gion /rɪˈlɪʤən/ noun, pl -gions
1 [noncount] : the belief in a god or in a group of gods ▪ Many people turn to religion for comfort in a time of crisis.
2 : an organized system of beliefs, ceremonies, and rules used to worship a god or a group of gods [count] There are many religions, such as Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism. ▪ Shinto is a religion that is unique to Japan. ▪ I think that children should be taught about different religions. [=faiths] ▪ It is against my religion [=my beliefs do not allow me] to drink alcohol. [noncount] They advocated for freedom of religion. [=the right to choose what religion to follow and to worship without interference] ▪ She no longer participates in organized religion. [=a belief system that has large numbers of followers and a set of rules that must be followed]
3 informal : an interest, a belief, or an activity that is very important to a person or group [count] Hockey is a religion in Canada. ▪ Politics are a religion to him. [noncount] Where I live, high school football is religion. ▪ Food is religion in this house.
find/get religion informal + sometimes disapproving 1 : to become religious : to decide to follow a particular religion ▪ Lots of people get religion in prison. ▪ My dad found religion after surviving a car accident. 2 : to stop doing something that others think is wrong and begin to do something others think is good or correct ▪ Automakers have found religion, finally bringing more hybrid vehicles to market. ▪ The mayor got religion on public transit and is now pushing plans to build a new subway.

re•li•gi•os•i•ty /rɪˌlɪʤiˈɑːsəti/ noun [noncount] sometimes disapproving : the state of being religious ▪ a man of deep religiosity [=a very/deeply religious man]

re•li•gious /rɪˈlɪʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : of or relating to religion ▪ My religious beliefs forbid the drinking of alcohol. ▪ religious groups/organizations/schools ▪ Religious leaders called for an end to the violence.
2 : believing in a god or a group of gods and following the rules of a religion ▪ She is very religious. ▪ My grandfather was a deeply religious [=spiritual] man. ▪ His wife is very active in the church, but he's not religious himself.
3 informal a : very careful to do something whenever it can or should be done — usually + about ▪ She's religious about using her seatbelt [=she always uses her seatbelt] when she drives. b : very interested in or involved with something — usually + about ▪ The people here are religious about college football.

re•li•gious•ly /rɪˈlɪʤəsli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : concerned or connected with religion ▪ He is religiously observant. ▪ Voters in this part of the country tend to be religiously and socially liberal.
2 : very regularly or carefully ▪ She swims and lifts weights religiously. ▪ I read the classified ads religiously. ▪ This recipe must be followed religiously.

re•lin•quish /rɪˈlɪŋkwɪʃ/ verb -quish•es; -quished; -quish•ing [+ obj] formal : to give up (something) : to give (something, such as power, control, or possession) to another person or group ▪ I will not relinquish my rights. ▪ She was forced to relinquish control of the project. ▪ The court ordered him to relinquish custody of his child.
– re•lin•quish•ment /rɪˈlɪŋkwɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount]

rel•i•quary /ˈrɛləˌkweri/ noun, pl -quar•ies [count] : a container that is used to hold holy objects (called relics)

[1]rel•ish /ˈrɛlɪʃ/ noun, pl -ish•es
1 [count, noncount] : a seasoned sauce that is used to add flavor to other foods and that is made of chopped fruit or vegetables ▪ mango relish; especially : such a sauce made from pickles ▪ I like to eat hot dogs with mustard and relish.
2 a [noncount] : enjoyment of or delight in something ▪ She plays the role with great relish. ▪ He took particular relish in pointing out my error. b [singular] : a feeling of liking

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

something ▪ He showed little relish for the job. [=he did not like the job]

[2]relish verb -ishes; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] : to enjoy or take pleasure in (something) ▪ I relish traveling to new places. ▪ I don't relish the idea/prospect/thought of working late tonight. ▪ He relishes the chance/opportunity to compete again.

re•live /ri'lɪv/ verb -lives; -lived; -liv•ing [+ obj] : to experience (something) again in your imagination : to remember (something) so clearly that the same emotions you felt in the past are felt again ▪ an athlete trying to relive his glory days ▪ He would sometimes relive the battle in his dreams.

re•load /ri'loʊd/ verb -loads; -load•ed; -load•ing
1 : to put bullets, film, etc., into something (such as a gun or camera) again [+ obj] They reloaded their rifles. ▪ I need to reload the camera. [no obj] The soldiers reloaded.
2 : to put data into a computer's memory again [+ obj] If the images don't display, reload the page. [no obj] Exit the program and reload.

re•lo•cate /ri'loʊˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing : to move to a new place [no obj] He relocated to Los Angeles for his new job. ▪ How can we convince more businesses to relocate to/in this city? [+ obj] The company decided to relocate its headquarters.
– re•lo•ca•tion /ˌri:loʊ'keɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ corporate relocations

re•luc•tant /rɪ'lʌktənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing doubt about doing something : not willing or eager to do something ▪ We were reluctant to get involved. ▪ He might agree but seems reluctant to admit it. ▪ a reluctant participant – re•luc•tance /rɪ'lʌktəns/ noun [singular] They have shown a reluctance to take risks. [noncount] He agreed to help us with much/great reluctance. – re•luc•tant•ly adv ▪ She reluctantly agreed to pay the fine.

re•ly /rɪ'laɪ/ verb -lies; -lied; -ly•ing rely on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 rely on/upon (someone or something) a : to need (someone or something) for support, help, etc. : to depend on (someone or something) ▪ My mother relied on me for financial support. ▪ They rely on a well for all their water. ▪ She relies on her sister to drive her to school. ▪ He no longer relies upon his parents for money. b : to trust or believe (someone or something) ▪ She's someone you can rely on. ▪ You can rely on him to do it right. ▪ I relied heavily upon your advice. ▪ You could always rely on [=count on] him to disagree. [=you could always be sure that he would disagree] 2 rely on/upon (something) : to expect (something) with confidence : to be certain that (something) will happen or exist ▪ The economy may improve next year, but it's not something you can rely on.

REM /'rɛm, ˌɑəˌi:'ɛm/ noun [noncount] : REM SLEEP

re•main /rɪ'meɪn/ verb -mains; -mained; -main•ing
1 [no obj] : to be left when the other parts are gone or have been used ▪ Little remained after the fire. ▪ Only two minutes still remain in the game. ▪ The memory of that day will remain [=stay] with me for the rest of my life.
2 not used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to be something that still needs to be done, dealt with, etc. ▪ The question/mystery remains: who fired the shot? — often followed by to + verb ▪ Much work remains to be done. [=there is much work still to be done] ▪ It remains to be seen [=it is uncertain] whether or not she was lying.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] somewhat formal : to stay in the same place or with the same person or group : to stay after others have gone ▪ She remained in Boston after she finished college. ▪ The soldiers were ordered to remain at their posts. ▪ I remained behind after the class had ended. ▪ He remained with the team.
4 not used in progressive tenses [linking verb] : to continue in a specified state, condition, or position ▪ She remained [=kept, stayed] calm. ▪ Please remain standing/seated. : to continue to be something specified ▪ It remains true that the best wines are not always the most expensive. ▪ The weather remained cold. ▪ The victim's identity remains a mystery. ▪ They have remained friends. [=they are still friends]
the fact remains see FACT – remaining adj ▪ Add the remaining ingredients to the sauce. ▪ a few remaining guests

[1]re•main•der /rɪ'meɪndə/ noun, pl -ders
1 the remainder : the part that is left when the other people or things are gone, used, etc. ▪ Most of the university's students live on campus and the remainder [=the rest] rent apartments in town. — often + of ▪ The players will be suspended for the remainder of the season. ▪ The remainder of the money will be donated to charity.
2 [count] mathematics a : the number that is left when one number is subtracted from another number ▪ 2 subtracted from 5 gives a remainder of 3. b : the number that is left over when one number does not divide evenly into another number ▪ 5 goes into 29 five times with a remainder of 4.
3 [count] : a book that is sold at a reduced price by the publisher : a book that is remaindered

[2]remainder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to sell (a book) at a reduced price because not many copies are being sold and no more copies will be produced ▪ The book did not sell well and ended up being remaindered.

re•mains /rɪ'meɪnz/ noun [plural]
1 : the dead body of a person or animal ▪ Her remains will be returned to her family for burial. ▪ fossil remains of prehistoric animals ▪ human remains
2 : the parts of something that are left when the other parts are gone or used ▪ These photos show the remains of a star that exploded thousands of years ago. ▪ the remains of a medieval castle mortal remains formal : the dead body of a person

[1]re•make /ri'meɪk/ verb -makes; -made /-'meɪd/; -mak•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make a new or different version of (something, such as a movie, song, etc.) ▪ They will be remaking the film with American actors.
2 : to make (something) into something else ▪ The city is trying to remake [=transform] itself into a regional center for arts and tourism.

[2]re•make /'ri:ˌmeɪk/ noun, pl -makes [count] : a new or different version of a movie, song, etc. ▪ The director's next project will be a remake of King Kong.

re•mand /rɪ'mænd, Brit rɪ'mɑ:nd/ verb -mands; -mand•ed; -mand•ing [+ obj] law
1 US : to send (a case) back to another court of law to be tried or dealt with again ▪ The judge remanded the case for further consideration.
2 always followed by a preposition : to order (someone) to go somewhere — usually used as (be) remanded ▪ He was remanded into custody [=he was sent to prison to wait for his trial] until the end of the month. ▪ She was remanded to drug rehab as part of her sentencing. ▪ (Brit) She was remanded on bail. [=she was allowed to post bail and wait for her trial at home instead of in prison]
– remand noun, pl -mands [count, noncount] ▪ (US) The appellate court will hear the case on remand. [=the case has been remanded and will be heard by the appellate court] ▪ (Brit) He's in prison on remand awaiting trial. [=he has been remanded to prison and is awaiting trial]

remand centre noun, pl ~ -tres [count] Brit, law : a jail for people who are waiting for trial or sentencing

[1]re•mark /rɪ'mɑək/ noun, pl -marks
1 [count] : something that someone says or writes to express an opinion or idea : COMMENT ▪ I was offended by his remark. ▪ I've heard many disparaging remarks about him. ▪ an author known for making witty/clever remarks
2 [noncount] formal : the act of noticing or making a comment about something ▪ The incident passed without remark.
3 remarks [plural] : a short speech or a part of a speech ▪ opening/closing remarks

> synonyms REMARK, OBSERVATION, and COMMENT mean something that is said or written and that gives an opinion. REMARK often suggests a quick thought or an informal judgment. ▪ He made a casual remark about the food. OBSERVATION often suggests an opinion expressed after looking closely at and thinking about something. ▪ She published her observations on whales after 10 years of study. COMMENT often suggests a remark that is meant to explain or criticize. ▪ I asked her to give me her comments on the book when she finished it.

[2]remark verb -marks; -marked; -mark•ing : to make a statement about someone or something : to make a remark [+ obj] "It's so hot today," she remarked. ▪ He remarked [=commented] that the movie was disappointing. [no obj] — + on or upon ▪ The mayor remarked on/upon how quickly the construction of the new civic center was progressing.

re•mark•able /rɪ'mɑəkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unusual or surprising : likely to be noticed ▪ Competing in the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

Olympics is a remarkable achievement. ▪ a remarkable new theory ▪ The girl has a remarkable talent.

– re•mark•ably /rɪˈmɑɚkəbli/ adv ▪ Remarkably (enough), no one was hurt. ▪ They were remarkably successful.

re•mar•ry /riˈmeri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing : to marry again [no obj] I'm not sure if I'll ever remarry. ▪ She never remarried after her husband died. [+ obj] Is he going to remarry his ex-wife?

– re•mar•riage /riˈmerɪʤ/ noun, pl -riag•es [count, noncount]

re•mas•ter /riˈmæstɚ, Brit riˈmɑːstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] technical : to make a new copy of (a recording or film) with the sound or image improved ▪ The movie was digitally remastered [=improved using digital technology] for release on DVD.

re•match /ˈriːˌmæʧ/ noun, pl -match•es [count] : a match or game that is played by the same people or teams after an earlier match or game — usually singular ▪ After he lost the first game he demanded a rematch.

re•me•di•a•ble /rɪˈmiːdijəbəl/ adj, formal : capable of being solved or cured ▪ This problem is easily remediable.

re•me•di•al /rɪˈmiːdijəl/ adj

1 a : done to correct or improve something : done to make something better ▪ Officials have pledged remedial action/measures to repair damaged bridges. b : done to cure or treat someone ▪ remedial therapy

2 : involving students who need special help to improve in a particular subject ▪ Thirty percent of the new students need remedial classes/courses in math. ▪ remedial education ▪ He's taking a course in remedial reading. ▪ (US) a remedial student [=a student who is taking a remedial class]

[1]rem•e•dy /ˈrɛmədi/ noun, pl -dies

1 [count] : a medicine or treatment that relieves pain or cures a usually minor illness ▪ a remedy for fever ▪ The store now sells herbal remedies. [=medicines made from plants] ▪ a shelf of cold remedies [=medicines to take when you have a cold] ▪ Do you know of a good home remedy [=a medicine made at home] for heartburn? ▪ folk remedies [=traditional medicines that are not prescribed by a doctor]

2 : a way of solving or correcting a problem [count] Building more roads isn't always the best remedy for traffic congestion. ▪ You may have no legal remedy [=way of finding a solution using the law] in this dispute. [noncount] The problem was beyond remedy. ▪ She was left without remedy since the court did not recognize her claim.

[2]remedy verb -dies; -died; -dy•ing [+ obj] : to solve, correct, or improve (something) ▪ Something must be done to remedy the problem/situation. ▪ The conflict can be remedied by scheduling the meeting for next week.

re•mem•ber /rɪˈmɛmbɚ/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing

1 : to have or keep an image or idea in your mind of (something or someone from the past) : to think of (something or someone from the past) again [+ obj] I remember my first day of school like it was yesterday. ▪ Do you remember me? I used to work with you many years ago. ▪ Remember when we went hiking last summer? ▪ I remember telling him not to do it, but he did it anyway. ▪ I remember what that felt like. ▪ It was a day to remember. [=it was a special/memorable day] [no obj] As far as I can remember, I've never been late to a meeting. ▪ My family has lived in New York for as long as I can remember. [=for a very long time]

2 : to cause (something) to come back into your mind [+ obj] I couldn't remember how to spell her name. ▪ I can't remember where I put that book. ▪ I remembered that I had left my wallet at home. ▪ Sorry, I don't remember your name. [=I have forgotten your name] [no obj] What was it that I was going to ask him? I can't remember.

3 : to keep (information) in your mind : to not forget (something) [+ obj] Remember the dates for the test. ▪ Thank you for remembering my birthday. ▪ I remembered to feed the cat. ▪ Remember, the trains stop running at 12:30 a.m. ▪ Please remember to take out the trash tomorrow. ▪ (formal) It should be remembered [=it is important to keep in mind] that he made many important contributions to the campaign. [no obj] I don't need to write it down, I'll remember. — see also remember your manners at MANNER

4 [+ obj] : to think about (someone who has died) in a respectful way ▪ On this day, let us remember our nation's veterans. ▪ We should remember the victims of the tragedy. ▪ She is remembered for her contributions to physics.

5 [+ obj] : to give money or a gift to (someone) ▪ Her brother was remembered in her will. [=she wrote in her will that her brother should receive some of her things after her death] ▪ They remembered him on his birthday.

remember me to old-fashioned — used to ask someone to give your greetings to another person ▪ Remember me to your aunt when you see her today.

re•mem•brance /rɪˈmɛmbrəns/ noun, pl -branc•es literary

1 [noncount] : the act of remembering a person, thing, or event ▪ a time for remembrance — often + of ▪ The remembrance of his loss seemed to darken his mood.

2 [noncount] : something that is done or made to honor the memory of a person, thing, or event — often + of ▪ The dinner was held in remembrance of my mother.

3 [count] : a memory of a person, thing, or event — often + of ▪ I have many fond remembrances of my youth.

Remembrance Sunday noun, pl ~ -days [count, noncount] Brit : a holiday that is observed on the Sunday closest to November 11 to honor the people who were killed in the two World Wars — called also Remembrance Day

re•mind /rɪˈmaɪnd/ verb -minds; -mind•ed; -mind•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) think about something again : to cause (someone) to remember something ▪ She'll forget to call the doctor if you don't remind her. ▪ Remind me to buy some groceries after work. ▪ I constantly have to be reminded how to pronounce her name. ▪ I had to remind him that we were supposed to leave early. ▪ The audience was reminded to turn their cell phones off in the theater. ▪ (humorous) "We have a test tomorrow." "Don't remind me." [=I don't want to hear about it because it's something unpleasant that I'm trying not to think about] ▪ The mail just arrived. That reminds me, did you mail that letter I gave you yesterday?

remind of [phrasal verb] 1 remind (someone) of (something) : to cause (someone) to remember (something) ▪ I reminded him of his promise to help me. [=I reminded him that he had promised to help me] ▪ This song reminds me of our wedding day. 2 remind (someone) of (someone or something) : to cause (someone) to think of (a similar person or thing) ▪ He reminds me of my uncle. [=he is like my uncle; he looks/acts like my uncle] ▪ This painting reminds me of a picture I saw at the Metropolitan Museum.

re•mind•er /rɪˈmaɪndɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something that causes you to remember or to think about something ▪ The accident was a sobering reminder of the dangers of climbing. ▪ a constant reminder of his past ▪ She sent him an e-mail reminder about the meeting. ▪ I wrote myself a reminder to take out the trash.

rem•i•nisce /ˌrɛməˈnɪs/ verb -nisc•es; -nisced; -nisc•ing [no obj] : to talk, think, or write about things that happened in the past ▪ He reminisced with old buddies at his high school reunion. ▪ She reminisced about her time in Europe.

rem•i•nis•cence /ˌrɛməˈnɪsn̩s/ noun, pl -cenc•es formal

1 [count] : a story that someone tells about something that happened in the past — usually plural; often + of ▪ I listened to my grandmother's reminiscences of her childhood.

2 [noncount] : the act of remembering or telling about past experiences ▪ a time for reminiscence

rem•i•nis•cent /ˌrɛməˈnɪsn̩t/ adj

1 : reminding you of someone or something else : similar to something else — often + of ▪ His singing is reminiscent of the crooners of the '40s and '50s. ▪ It had a taste reminiscent of spinach.

2 always used before a noun, literary + formal : thinking about the past : having many thoughts of the past ▪ I'm in a reminiscent mood.

re•miss /rɪˈmɪs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not showing enough care and attention ▪ It would be remiss (of me) if I forgot to mention them in my lecture. ▪ I was remiss in paying my bills. [=I neglected to pay my bills]

re•mis•sion /rɪˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 : a period of time during a serious illness when the patient's health improves [noncount] Her cancer has gone into remission. = Her cancer is in remission. [=the symptoms of her cancer have become much less severe] ▪ The patient is in remission. [count] a temporary remission of symptoms

2 formal : the act of reducing or canceling the amount of money that you owe [noncount] The university offers tuition remission to teaching assistants. [=teaching assistants do not have to pay tuition] [count] tax remissions ▪ fee remissions

3 [noncount] Brit : the reduction of a prison sentence ▪ He was given remission for good behavior.

[1]re•mit /rɪˈmɪt/ verb -mits; -mit•ted; -mit•ting [+ obj] formal

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

1 : to send (money) as a payment ▪ Please remit $1,000 upon receipt of this letter. ▪ Payment can be remitted by check.
2 : to cancel or free someone from (a punishment, debt, etc.) ▪ The governor remitted the remainder of her life sentence.
remit to [phrasal verb] remit (something) to (someone or something) : to send (something, such as a dispute or a court case) to an authority that can make a decision about it — often used as (be) remitted to ▪ The matter was remitted to a new committee for discussion. ▪ The case was remitted to the state court.

[2]remit noun, pl -mits [count] Brit, formal : an area of responsibility and authority — usually singular ▪ The problem was outside/beyond our remit. ▪ She will have a wide remit to reform the company.

re•mit•tance /rɪˈmɪtns/ noun, pl -tanc•es formal
1 [count] : an amount of money that is sent as a payment for something ▪ Please return the form with your remittance. [=payment]
2 [noncount] : the act of sending money as a payment for something ▪ Remittance can be made by check or credit card.

re•mix /ˈriːˌmɪks/ noun, pl -mix•es [count] : a new or different version of a recorded song that is made by changing or adding to the original recording of the song ▪ dance remixes of rock songs
– re•mix /riˈmɪks/ verb -mix•es; -mixed; -mix•ing [+ obj] ▪ He remixed the song for the new album. – re•mix•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He is the band's remixer.

rem•nant /ˈrɛmnənt/ noun, pl -nants [count]
1 : the part of something that is left when the other parts are gone — usually plural; often + of ▪ These villages are the last surviving remnants of a great civilization. ▪ A new police force was formed from the remnants of the army.
2 : a small piece of cloth that is left after the rest of the cloth has been sold ▪ Remnants go on sale next week.

re•mod•el /riˈmɑːdl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling [+ obj] : to change the structure, shape, or appearance of (something) ▪ We remodeled the kitchen last year.
– remodeled (US) or Brit remodelled adj ▪ newly remodeled [=renovated] bathrooms – remodeling (US) or Brit remodelling noun [noncount] ▪ The office will be closed during remodeling.

re•mold (US) or Brit re•mould /riˈmoʊld/ verb -molds; -mold•ed; -mold•ing [+ obj] formal : to change (something, such as an idea, a system, or a habit) ▪ She resisted the efforts to remold her image. ▪ The company needs to remold itself [=transform itself] into a smaller and more competitive business.

re•mon•strance /rɪˈmɑːnstrəns/ noun, pl -stranc•es formal : a protest or complaint about something [count] an angry remonstrance [noncount] Many residents wrote letters of remonstrance to city officials.

re•mon•strate /ˈrɛməˌnstreɪt, rɪˈmɑːnˌstreɪt/ verb -strates; -strat•ed; -strat•ing [no obj] formal : to disagree and argue or complain about something ▪ He got angry when I politely remonstrated with him about littering.
– re•mon•stra•tion /ˌrɛməˈnstreɪʃən, rəˌmɑːnˈstreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] an official remonstration [=protest, complaint] [noncount] letters of remonstration

re•morse /rɪˈmoəs/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of being sorry for doing something bad or wrong in the past : a feeling of guilt ▪ I could forgive him for what he did if he showed some remorse. — often + for ▪ She was filled with remorse for not visiting her father more often. [=she was very sorry that she did not visit her father more often] ▪ I felt a bit of remorse [=regret] for being so impatient.
– re•morse•ful /rɪˈmoəsfəl/ adj ▪ She seemed truly remorseful for what she had done. – re•morse•ful•ly /rɪˈmoəsfəli/ adv ▪ She remorsefully pleaded guilty.

re•morse•less /rɪˈmoəsləs/ adj
1 : very cruel and showing no pity or sympathy for other people : MERCILESS ▪ a remorseless murderer
2 : continuing in a way that does not end or that seems impossible to stop ▪ his remorseless pursuit of justice
– re•morse•less•ly adv ▪ She attacked her opponent's position remorselessly.

re•mort•gage /riˈmoəgɪʤ/ verb -gag•es; -gaged; -gag•ing : to get a second mortgage on a house or to change the mortgage that you have [+ obj] We had to remortgage our house. [no obj] I'd like to remortgage at a lower rate.

[1]re•mote /rɪˈmoʊt/ adj re•mot•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 a : far away : DISTANT ▪ She enjoys reading about remote lands. ▪ remote galaxies b : far away from other people, houses, cities, etc. ▪ a remote island/village ▪ The mission is to transport medical supplies to remote areas/places/regions of the globe.
2 always used before a noun : far away in time : happening a long time ago or far into the future ▪ a tradition that dates back to remote antiquity ▪ an invention that may be available in the remote future
3 : very small : SLIGHT ▪ There is a remote possibility that I'll be free Friday night. ▪ a remote chance [=a very small possibility]
4 always used before a noun : not closely related ▪ remote ancestors
5 : very different from something ▪ Their traditions are remote from our own.
6 : not friendly or involved with other people : distant or cold in manner ▪ She became very remote in her old age.
7 always used before a noun a computers : connected to a computer system from another place ▪ a remote computer/machine/terminal ▪ Remote users cannot access these files. ▪ The computer is capable of remote access. [=it is possible to become connected to this computer from another place] b : capable of being controlled from a distance ▪ a remote camera ▪ remote sensors
– re•mote•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The remoteness of his location made it hard for rescuers to reach him. ▪ his remoteness as a father

[2]remote noun, pl -motes [count] informal : REMOTE CONTROL remote control noun, pl ~ -trols

1 [count] : a small device that is used to operate electronic equipment (such as a television) from a distance by using electronic signals ▪ Where did you put the remote control? — called also (informal) remote, (chiefly US, informal) clicker, (Brit, informal) zapper
2 [noncount] : a process or system that makes it possible to control something from a distance by using electronic signals ▪ The bomb was detonated by remote control. ▪ a DVD player with remote control ▪ a remote control camera – remote–controlled adj ▪ a remote-controlled toy car

re•mote•ly /rɪˈmoʊtli/ adv
1 : to a very small degree ▪ It's remotely [=barely] possible that they could have met, but I don't think it's very likely. — usually used in negative statements ▪ I've never seen anything remotely like it. [=never seen anything that was like it at all] ▪ I wasn't even remotely involved in that decision. ▪ Nothing he said was even remotely true. [=nothing he said was at all true]
2 technical : from a distance ▪ I can log in remotely to my computer. [=I can log in to my computer by using another computer that is connected to it] ▪ a remotely operated submarine ▪ They can remotely monitor the building. ▪ The door can be unlocked remotely.

remote sensing noun [noncount] technical : the use of satellites to collect information about and take photographs of the Earth

remould Brit spelling of REMOLD

re•mount /riˈmaʊnt/ verb -mounts; -mount•ed; -mount•ing
1 [+ obj] : to attach (something) to a support again ▪ a diamond remounted in a new setting ▪ I had to remount the tires on my car. ▪ I had trouble remounting the door.
2 : to get on a horse, bicycle, motorcycle, etc., again after getting off or falling off [no obj] She fell off her horse but quickly remounted. [+ obj] She remounted her horse and finished her ride.

re•mov•able /rɪˈmuːvəbəl/ adj : able to be removed : made to be detached or taken out ▪ The hard drive is removable. ▪ I'm looking for a digital camera with a removable lens.

re•mov•al /rɪˈmuːvəl/ noun, pl -als
1 [noncount] : the act of moving or taking something away from a place ▪ We arranged for the removal of the old car. ▪ The city is having problems with trash/waste/snow removal. ▪ Surgical removal of the tumor might be necessary.
2 [noncount] : the act of making something go away so that it no longer exists ▪ stain removal ▪ the removal of doubt
3 [noncount] : the act of forcing someone to leave a job ▪ removal from office ▪ The scandal resulted in the director's removal. [=dismissal]
4 [count] Brit : the act of moving furniture and other things from one house to another ▪ Local removals [=(US) moves] can be done cheaply. — often used before another noun ▪ a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Wed Dec 3 12:00:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

removal [=(US) moving] company ▪ removal expenses removal van noun, pl ~ vans [count] Brit : MOVING VAN

[1]re•move /rɪˈmu:v/ verb -moves; -moved; -mov•ing [+ obj]
1 : to move or take (something) away from a place ▪ Remove the trash from the front yard. ▪ My tonsils were removed when I was five years old. ▪ Trees help to remove carbon dioxide from the atmosphere.
2 : to cause (something) to no longer exist ▪ These new findings should remove any doubt about his innocence. ▪ What's a good way to remove stains from a silk dress? ▪ The new law would remove obstacles to obtaining a work permit.
3 : to force (someone) to leave a job : to dismiss (someone) from a job ▪ He was removed from office.
4 somewhat formal : to take off (something, such as a piece of your clothing) ▪ Please remove your shoes. ▪ He removed his sunglasses.

[2]remove noun, pl -moves formal : a distance separating one person or thing from another — used with at [count] — usually singular ▪ His anger remains, even at a remove of 20 years. [=even after 20 years have passed] ▪ He keeps the children at a safe remove from the dangers of the city. [noncount] She thrives when she's at some remove from mainstream society.

removed adj, not used before a noun
1 : away from something : DISTANT ▪ We're looking for an apartment somewhat removed from the noise of downtown.
2 : of a younger or older generation ▪ The child of your first cousin is your first cousin once removed.
far removed from : very different from (something) ▪ a pampered life far removed from the poverty of his youth ▪ Hockey and soccer are not that far removed from each other.

re•mov•er /rɪˈmu:vɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : something (such as a chemical) that removes something unwanted from something else ▪ paint/stain remover ▪ nail polish remover
2 Brit : a person or company that is hired to take furniture and possessions from one place to another — usually plural ▪ Don't let the removers [=(US) movers] pack your dishes.

REM sleep noun [noncount] : a stage of sleep during which you dream and your eyes make quick movements — called also rapid eye movement sleep, REM re•mu•ner•ate /rɪˈmju:nəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to pay someone for work that has been done ▪ They were remunerated for their services. = Their services were remunerated.

re•mu•ner•a•tion /rɪˌmju:nəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : an amount of money paid to someone for the work that person has done [noncount] an increase in remuneration ▪ a remuneration package [count] She was given generous remunerations for her work.

re•mu•ner•a•tive /rɪˈmju:nərətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : paying a lot of money : PROFITABLE ▪ Our investors are seeking more remunerative opportunities.

re•nais•sance /ˈrɛnəˌsɑ:ns, Brit rɪˈneɪsns/ noun
1 the Renaissance : the period of European history between the 14th and 17th centuries when there was a new interest in science and in ancient art and literature especially in Italy ▪ a book on the Renaissance — often used as Renaissance before another noun ▪ a Renaissance scholar/painter ▪ Renaissance art
2 [singular] a : a situation or period of time when there is a new interest in something that has not been popular in a long time ▪ The magazine began when the country was undergoing a culinary renaissance. [=rebirth] ▪ The city has experienced a renaissance [=renewal, revival] of interest in historic preservation. b : a period of new growth or activity ▪ the city's economic renaissance [=revival, rebirth]

Renaissance man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a man who is interested in and knows a lot about many things

Renaissance woman noun, pl ~ -men [count] : a woman who is interested in and knows a lot about many things re•nal /ˈri:nl/ adj, always used before a noun, medical : relating to or involving the kidneys ▪ renal disease/failure re•name /riˈneɪm/ verb -names; -named; -nam•ing [+ obj] : to give a new name to (someone or something) ▪ Ceylon was renamed Sri Lanka in 1972. ▪ The bridge is being renamed in honor of the city's former mayor.

re•na•scent /rɪˈnæsnt/ adj, formal : existing, happening, or popular again ▪ renascent inflation/nationalism

rend /ˈrɛnd/ verb rends; rent /ˈrɛnt/ also US rend•ed; rend•ing [+ obj] literary : to tear (something) into pieces with force or violence ▪ They rent the cloth to shreds. ▪ mourners rending their clothes/garments in grief — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a family rent [=torn apart] by divorce

ren•der /ˈrɛndɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to cause (someone or something) to be in a specified condition ▪ Depression can render a person helpless. ▪ Both passengers were rendered unconscious in the accident. ▪ The sight of her rendered him speechless. ▪ The virus rendered the computer useless.
2 formal : to give (something) to someone ▪ render an apology ▪ He witnessed a car accident and stopped to render aid/assistance. ▪ a fee/payment for services rendered [=for something that a person, company, etc., has done for you]
3 law : to officially report or declare (a legal judgment, such as a verdict) ▪ The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.
4 formal : to present or perform (something) ▪ The novel renders a portrait of life in ancient Rome. ▪ poems rendered in the original German ▪ perfectly rendered songs
5 formal : TRANSLATE ▪ render Latin into English ▪ The word was incorrectly rendered as "light."
6 : to melt (fat) especially as a way of removing it from meat ▪ It's important to render the fat from the duck.
7 : to change (something) into a different substance by some process ▪ trees rendered into wood pulp ▪ animal fat rendered into tallow ren•der•ing /ˈrɛndərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] formal 1 : a performance of a song, play, etc. ▪ She gave an emotional rendering [=rendition] of the national anthem.

2 : a description, explanation, or translation ▪ The book is a faithful rendering of life in a rural community. ▪ a new rendering of the text in English

[1]ren•dez•vous /ˈrɑ:ndiˌvu:/ noun, pl ren•dez•vous /ˈrɑ:ndiˌvu:z/ [count]
1 : a meeting with someone that is arranged for a particular time and place and that is often secret ▪ a romantic rendezvous ▪ He was late for their rendezvous.
2 a : a place where people agree to meet at a particular time ▪ The restaurant will be our rendezvous. b : a place where many people go to spend time ▪ This park/café is a popular/favorite rendezvous [=hangout, haunt] for local teens.

[2]ren•dez•vous /ˈrɑ:ndiˌvu:/ verb -vouses /-ˌvu:z/; -voused /-ˌvu:d/; -vous•ing /-ˌvu:wɪŋ/ [no obj] : to meet at a particular time and place ▪ The cousins rendezvoused in New York before they flew to London.

ren•di•tion /rɛnˈdɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a performance of something ▪ a moving rendition of an old gospel song
2 : TRANSLATION ▪ a new rendition of the text in English ren•e•gade /ˈrɛnɪˌgeɪd/ noun, pl -gades [count]

1 : a person who leaves one group, religion, etc., and joins another that opposes it ▪ renegades from the Republican/Democratic Party — usually used before another noun ▪ a renegade Republican/Democrat
2 : someone or something that causes trouble and cannot be controlled ▪ stories about pirates and renegades on the high seas — often used before another noun ▪ drugs that attack renegade cells in cancer patients

re•nege /rɪˈnɛg, Brit rɪˈni:g/ verb -neges; -neged; -neg•ing [no obj] : to refuse to do something that you promised or agreed to do ▪ They had promised to pay her tuition but later reneged. — usually + on ▪ They reneged on their promise to pay her tuition.

re•ne•go•ti•ate /ˌri:nəˈgoʊʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing : to discuss again the details of a formal agreement especially in order to change them : to negotiate (something) again [+ obj] renegotiate a contract/lease/agreement [no obj] The deal is done. I won't renegotiate.
– re•ne•go•ti•a•tion /ˌri:nɪˈgoʊʃiˌeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•new /rɪˈnu:, Brit rɪˈnju:/ verb -news; -newed; -new•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) new, fresh, or strong again ▪ When you sleep, your body has a chance to renew itself. ▪ This discussion has renewed my hope of finding a solution to the problem. ▪ At the start of each school year, we renew our commitment to helping students succeed.
2 : to make (a promise, vow, etc.) again ▪ She renewed her promise to come see me. ▪ They celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary by renewing their wedding vows.
3 : to begin (something) again especially with more force or enthusiasm ▪ They have renewed their efforts to find a peaceful solution. ▪ The incident has renewed hostilities between the groups. ▪ We hope to renew [=(more commonly) resume] negotiations soon. ▪ They recently renewed their acquaintance/friendship after more than 10 years apart. ▪ If you haven't listened to this music since the 1960s, it's time to renew your acquaintance with these songs.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

4 : to put in a fresh supply of (something) : REPLACE ▪ You should renew the water in the fish tank once a week.

5 : to cause (something) to continue to be effective or valid for an additional period of time ▪ The landlord agreed to renew our lease for another year. ▪ You can renew your driver's license online. ▪ He forgot to renew his passport and now it's expired. ▪ You should renew your magazine subscription before it runs out. ▪ She renewed the library book. [=she had the library extend the period of time that she can borrow the book]

– renewed adj ▪ She wrote with renewed [=fresh] enthusiasm after meeting with her editor. ▪ We felt renewed [=restored, revived] after a good night's sleep. ▪ There was more violence in spite of renewed efforts to make peace. ▪ We have a renewed sense of pride in our town. ▪ High fuel prices have led to renewed interest in electric cars.

re•new•able /rɪˈnuːwəbəl, Brit rɪˈnjuːwəbəl/ adj

1 : able to be extended for another time period : able to be renewed ▪ a renewable life insurance policy ▪ a renewable lease

2 : restored or replaced by natural processes : able to be replaced by nature ▪ Forests are renewable natural resources, but they must be treated with care. ▪ Wind and water are renewable fuel sources. — opposite NONRENEWABLE

re•new•al /rɪˈnuːwəl, Brit rɪˈnjuːwəl/ noun, pl -als

1 : the act of extending the period of time when something is effective or valid : the act of renewing something [count] The lease calls for yearly renewals. ▪ License renewals can be done online. ▪ You can get a 10 percent savings on subscription renewals. [noncount] His contract is up for renewal at the end of the season. [=it will be time to consider renewing his contract at the end of the season]

2 : the state of being made new, fresh, or strong again : the state of being renewed [singular] High fuel prices have led to a renewal of interest in electric cars. [noncount] She uses flowers in her art as symbols of rebirth and renewal. — see also URBAN RENEWAL

re•nom•i•nate /riˈnɑːməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] : to nominate (someone) again ▪ The President is likely to be renominated for a second term. ▪ The President has renominated a judge that Congress previously rejected.

– re•nom•i•na•tion /riˌnɑːməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•nounce /rɪˈnaʊns/ verb -nounc•es; -nounced; -nounc•ing [+ obj]

1 : to say especially in a formal or official way that you will no longer have or accept (something) : to formally give up (something) ▪ The king renounced [=abdicated] the throne. ▪ She renounced her inheritance. ▪ We will not deal with them until they renounce (the use of) violence/terrorism.

2 : to say in a formal or definite way that you refuse to follow, obey, or support (someone or something) any longer ▪ Many of his former supporters have renounced him. ▪ He renounced his old way of life. ▪ psychiatrists who renounce [=reject] the teachings of Freud ren•o•vate /ˈrɛnəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj] : to make changes and repairs to (an old house, building, room, etc.) so that it is back in good condition ▪ renovate an old farmhouse ▪ a newly renovated theater ▪ It's an old factory that has been renovated as office space. ▪ We renovated the kitchen three years ago.

– ren•o•va•tion /ˌrɛnəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl ~ tions [count] a costly renovation — often plural ▪ The restaurant is closed for renovations. [noncount] The park will be closed during renovation. – ren•o•va•tor /ˈrɛnəˌveɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ good advice for home renovators

re•nown /rɪˈnaʊn/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : great fame and respect ▪ He achieved/gained/won great renown for his discoveries. ▪ Her photographs have earned her international renown. ▪ writers of renown [=renowned writers]

re•nowned /rɪˈnaʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : known and admired by many people for some special quality or achievement ▪ a restaurant renowned for its wine list ▪ a renowned scientist

[1]rent /ˈrɛnt/ noun, pl rents : money that you pay in return for being able to use property and especially to live in an apartment, house, etc., that belongs to someone else [noncount] How much do you pay in rent? ▪ Rent is due on the first of the month. [count] Our landlord raised the rent. ▪ Rents near the college have risen.

for rent chiefly US : available for use in return for payment : available to be rented ▪ houses for rent [=to let] ▪ bicycles/costumes/rooms for rent

– compare [4]RENT

[2]rent verb rents; rent•ed; rent•ing

1 : to pay money in return for being able to use (something that belongs to someone else) [+ obj] We rented our friends' cottage for the month of August. ▪ (US) We rented tables and chairs for the wedding. ▪ (US) We rented [=(Brit) hired] a car at the airport. ▪ (US) Do you want to rent a movie/DVD/video tonight? [no obj] When they first moved to town, they rented. [=they lived in a house, apartment, etc., that was rented] ▪ Do you own or rent?

2 [+ obj] : to allow someone to use (something) in return for payment ▪ They rented [=let] their cottage to friends. ▪ We rented them the upstairs apartment in our house. ▪ We rent (out) a room in our house to a college student.

3 [no obj] : to be available for use in return for payment : to be for rent ▪ The cottage rents for $400 a week.

– rent•able /ˈrɛntəbəl/ adj ▪ rentable storage space ▪ The house is rentable in the winter. – rent•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Renters don't get the tax breaks that home owners get. ▪ The company is the largest car renter in the area.

[3]rent past tense and past participle of REND

[4]rent noun, pl rents [count] formal + literary : a hole made by tearing something ▪ a rent in the fabric — compare [1]RENT

rent•al /ˈrɛntl/ noun, pl -als

1 : the amount of money paid or collected as rent [count] — usually singular ▪ The average rental is $400 per month. [noncount] thousands of dollars paid in rental ▪ rental fees/income ▪ (Brit) line rental [=money that you pay to use a telephone line]

2 : the act of renting something [count] There are restrictions against rentals to people with pets. [noncount] The movie is available for rental. ▪ a rental agreement

3 [count] chiefly US : something that can be rented ▪ Boat rentals are available on the island. ▪ a two-bedroom rental ▪ I had a rental while my car was being repaired. ▪ a rental car rent control noun [noncount] chiefly US : a system in which the government determines how much rent can be charged for an apartment, house, etc.

– rent–controlled adj ▪ rent-controlled housing ▪ a rent-controlled apartment re•nun•ci•a•tion /rɪˌnʌnsiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the act of renouncing something or someone [count] the king's renunciation of the throne [noncount] renunciation of violence ▪ Their vows include renunciation of all wealth.

re•open /riˈoʊpən/ verb -opens; -opened; -open•ing

1 : to open again after being closed [no obj] The restaurant will reopen in April. ▪ I'm sorry, but the store is closed. We reopen at nine on Monday. ▪ The cut on his knee reopened when he tried to run. [+ obj] The company announced plans to reopen its Detroit factory. ▪ a procedure to reopen a clogged artery — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Telling that story will only reopen old wounds. [=cause people to think of things from the past that make them sad, angry, etc.]

2 a : to start (something) again after a period without activity [+ obj] They reopened [=resumed] the negotiations. ▪ The district attorney reopened the murder case because new evidence was found. [no obj] The negotiations have reopened.

b [+ obj] US : to discuss and make changes to (something that had been considered finished) again ▪ He wants the team to reopen his contract.

– reopening noun [singular] The mayor was present for the library's official reopening. ▪ a reopening of negotiations [noncount] The factory is set for reopening.

re•or•der /riˈoɚdɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing

1 : to order (something) again [+ obj] I had to reorder the shirt because they sent the wrong size. ▪ The book sold out the first day, and the store reordered 500 copies. [no obj] Call us when you're ready to reorder.

2 [+ obj] : to arrange (something) in a different order ▪ You need to reorder your priorities. ▪ The coach reordered the batting lineup. ▪ After her husband's death, she reordered her life.

re•or•ga•nize also Brit re•or•ga•nise /riˈoɚgəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing : to organize (something) again or in a different way [+ obj] The staff is still reorganizing the files according to the new system. ▪ The company was reorganized after it went bankrupt. [no obj] The company is reorganizing as a corporation. ▪ The club had to reorganize when most of its members moved away.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– re•or•ga•ni•za•tion also Brit re•or•ga•ni•sa•tion /riˌoəgənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit riˌɔːgəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]rep /ˈrɛp/ noun, pl reps [count] informal : REPRESENTATIVE ▪ sales reps — compare [2]REP, [3]REP

[2]rep noun, pl reps [count] informal : a motion or exercise that is repeated — usually plural ▪ When he does push-ups, he does 3 sets of 12 reps. [=repetitions] — compare [1]REP, [3]REP

[3]rep noun, pl reps [count] US slang : REPUTATION ▪ He's worried about protecting his rep. — compare [1]REP, [2]REP

Rep. abbr 1 Republican 2 representative ▪ a letter to Rep. Richard Jones re•pack•age /riˈpækɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (something) into a new package ▪ Large pieces of meat are cut and repackaged at the butcher's shop.

2 : to present (something) to the public in a new or more attractive way ▪ repackage newspaper comic strips as books ▪ TV studios repackage real-life dramas as entertainment.

[1]re•pair /rɪˈpeə/ verb -pairs; -paired; -pair•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (something that is broken or damaged) back into good condition : FIX ▪ He repairs clocks. ▪ This old lawn mower isn't worth repairing. ▪ She repaired an old chest that was coming apart. ▪ He underwent surgery to repair a torn ligament in his knee. ▪ There was no hope of repairing the damage—she had to buy a new car.

2 : to correct or improve (something, such as a relationship or reputation) ▪ The school is trying to repair its damaged reputation. ▪ Can their marriage be repaired?

– compare [3]REPAIR

– re•pair•able /rɪˈperəbəl/ adj ▪ The computer is not repairable. – re•pair•er /rɪˈperə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a repairer of clocks

[2]repair noun, pl -pairs

1 : the act or process of repairing something [noncount] The roof is in need of repair. [=the roof needs to be repaired; the roof is damaged, in poor condition, etc.] ▪ a shoe/car repair shop ▪ The car was damaged beyond repair. [=the car was so damaged that it could not be repaired] [count] The repairs were expensive. ▪ We had to make repairs to the roof. ▪ He made a few repairs to the stairs.

2 [noncount] : a specified physical condition ▪ His job is to keep the buildings in good repair. [=in good condition] ▪ The roof is in poor repair. ▪ The fence is in excellent repair.

[3]repair verb -pairs; -paired; -pairing

repair to [phrasal verb] repair to (a place) old-fashioned + formal : to go to (a place) ▪ After dinner, the guests repaired to the drawing room for coffee. ▪ (humorous) Shall we repair to the coffee shop?

– compare [1]REPAIR

re•pair•man /rɪˈpeəˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) whose job is to repair things ▪ a TV repairman

rep•a•ra•ble /ˈrɛpərəbəl/ adj, formal : capable of being repaired ▪ The roof is reparable. [=(more commonly) repairable] ▪ The situation is serious but reparable. — opposite IRREPARABLE rep•a•ra•tion /ˌrɛpəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 reparations [plural] : money that a country or group that loses a war pays because of the damage, injury, deaths, etc., it has caused ▪ The country paid millions in reparations.

2 formal : something that is done or given as a way of correcting a mistake that you have made or a bad situation that you have caused [noncount] They've offered no apologies and seem to have no thoughts of reparation. [plural] She says she's sorry and wants to make reparations.

rep•ar•tee /ˌrɛpəˈtiː, Brit ˌrɛpɑːˈtiː/ noun [noncount] : conversation in which clever statements and replies are made quickly ▪ The two comedians engaged in witty repartee.

re•past /rɪˈpæst, Brit rɪˈpɑːst/ noun, pl -pasts [count] literary : MEAL ▪ our traditional Thanksgiving repast ▪ She offered us a light repast before we set out on our trip.

re•pa•tri•ate /riˈpeɪtriˌeɪt, Brit riˈpætriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]

1 : to return (someone) to his or her own country ▪ Countries are required to repatriate prisoners of war when conflict has ended. ▪ repatriated refugees

2 business : to send (money) back to your own country ▪ repatriate capital/profits – re•pa•tri•a•tion /riˌpeɪtriˈeɪʃən, Brit riˌpætriˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] forced repatriations of political refugees [noncount] displaced persons seeking repatriation

re•pay /riˈpeɪ/ verb -pays; -paid /-ˈpeɪd/; -pay•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to pay back (money that you have borrowed) ▪ repay a loan/debt ▪ You can repay the mortgage over 30 years. b : to make a payment to (a person or organization that has loaned you money) ▪ She would rather have to repay the bank than borrow from her parents and have to repay them.

2 a : to do or give something in return for (something) ▪ How can I ever repay your kindness? ▪ He repaid her kindness with cruelty. [=he was cruel to her after she had been kind to him] b : to provide something in return for (work, effort, etc.) ▪ Our efforts will be repaid [=our effort will have been worthwhile] if even one person who has never voted before votes on election day. b : to do something for (someone) in return for what that person has done for you ▪ How can I ever repay you for your kindness?

re•pay•able /riˈpeɪəbəl/ adj, not used before a noun — used to describe how a loan can be or should be repaid ▪ The loan is repayable in monthly installments. ▪ These loans are repayable over 10 years.

re•pay•ment /riˈpeɪmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] : the act or process of paying back money that you have borrowed ▪ Repayment on education loans begins when you are no longer a student. ▪ The company will use the money for debt repayment. ▪ a repayment plan/program

2 [count] chiefly Brit : an amount of money that is paid regularly in order to pay back a loan ▪ monthly repayments [=payments]

re•peal /rɪˈpiːl/ verb -peals; -pealed; -peal•ing [+ obj] : to officially make (a law) no longer valid ▪ The state legislature eventually repealed [=rescinded] the tax (law).

– repeal noun, pl -peals [count, noncount] ▪ Most voters oppose the repeal of the law.

[1]re•peat /rɪˈpiːt/ verb -peats; -peat•ed; -peat•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to say (something) again ▪ Will you repeat the question? ▪ He kept repeating the same thing over and over. ▪ He often has to ask people to repeat themselves because he's a little deaf. ▪ The group's message is one that bears repeating. [=is important enough to state more than once] — sometimes used in speech to emphasize a word or phrase ▪ "There are five—(I) repeat—five ways to do this." b : to say (something) after someone else has said it ▪ Repeat after me: "I promise to do my best . . . " ▪ You are simply repeating, in slightly different words, what has been said already.

2 [+ obj] : to say (something that you have memorized) : RECITE ▪ My five-year-old can repeat her favorite stories word for word.

3 [+ obj] : to tell (something that you have heard) to someone else ▪ Please don't repeat what I've told you (to anyone).

4 a : to make, do, or achieve (something) again [+ obj] The doctors had to repeat the operation. ▪ We need to avoid repeating the mistakes of the past. ▪ I'm not so sure the team can repeat the success they had last season. ▪ I had trouble in school when I was young and had to repeat (the) third grade. [=I had to stay in the third grade for another year] ▪ She's been absent so much that she is going to have to repeat her sophomore year. ▪ They won the championship last year. Will history repeat itself this year? [=will the same thing happen again?; will they win the championship again this year?] [no obj] (US) ▪ They're trying to repeat as champions this year. [=to win the championship again after winning it last year] b [+ obj] : to present (something) again ▪ The workshop will be repeated in the fall. ▪ The radio station broadcasts the show live on Saturday mornings, and then repeats it on Wednesday nights.

5 [no obj] : to begin again ▪ The cycle repeats every 24 hours. ▪ The pattern on the wallpaper repeats every foot or so.

repeat yourself : to say again what you have already said ▪ I've already told you what to do, and I'm not going to repeat myself.

[2]re•peat /rɪˈpiːt, ˈriːˌpiːt/ noun, pl -peats [count]

1 a : an occurrence in which something happens or is done again — usually + of ▪ We're hoping to avoid a repeat of last year's budget problems. b : something that happens or is done again — usually used before another noun ▪ a repeat win ▪ The company gets a lot of repeat business. [=business from customers who have bought something from the company before] c : someone who does something again ▪ Most of the customers are repeats. — usually used before another noun ▪ repeat customers ▪ There are tougher penalties for re-

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

peat offenders. [=people who have committed a crime more than once]

2 : a radio or television show that is broadcast again ▪ No, I don't want to watch that. It's a repeat.

3 music : a section of music that is repeated; also : the symbol in written music that shows that a section should be repeated

re•peat•able /rɪˈpi:təbəl/ adj

1 : appropriate to say again to someone else ▪ He said things that aren't repeatable in front of the children. [=things that are too impolite, offensive, etc., to say again in front of the children]

2 : possible to do or make again ▪ repeatable test results

re•peat•ed /rɪˈpi:təd/ adj, always used before a noun : said, done, or happening again and again ▪ The landlord ignored her repeated requests to have the stove repaired. ▪ He never succeeded in spite of repeated attempts. ▪ repeated failures – re•peat•ed•ly adv ▪ I've told her repeatedly [=many times] to shut the gate when she goes out.

re•peat•er /rɪˈpi:tə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a gun that fires several times without needing to be reloaded

re•pel /rɪˈpɛl/ verb -pels; -pelled; -pel•ling [+ obj]

1 : to keep (something) out or away ▪ a fabric that repels water ▪ The candle repels insects.

2 : to force (an enemy, attacker, etc.) to stop an attack and turn away ▪ Their superior forces repelled the invasion.

3 physics : to force (something) to move away or apart ▪ one electron repelling another ▪ Two positive electrical charges repel each other. ▪ Magnets can both repel and attract one another. — opposite ATTRACT 5

4 : to cause (someone) to feel disgust ▪ Everyone was repelled [=repulsed] by the sight.

[1]re•pel•lent also re•pel•lant /rɪˈpɛlənt/ adj

1 : keeping something out or away ▪ The candle has a repellent effect on insects. — often used in combination ▪ a water-repellent fabric [=a fabric that repels water]

2 [more ~; most ~] formal : causing someone to feel disgust : REPULSIVE ▪ a repellent sight ▪ ideas that are repellent to me [=ideas that disgust me]

– re•pel•len•cy /rɪˈpɛlənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ a fabric known for its water repellency

[2]repellent also repellant noun, pl -lents also -lants : a substance that is used to keep something out or away [noncount] a can of insect repellent [count] a mosquito repellent ▪ Coat the exterior with a water repellent.

re•pent /rɪˈpɛnt/ verb -pents; -pent•ed; -pent•ing formal : to feel or show that you are sorry for something bad or wrong that you did and that you want to do what is right [no obj] The preacher told us that we would be forgiven for our sins if we repented. ▪ criminals who have repented for their crimes — sometimes + of ▪ We must repent of our sins/wrongdoings. [+ obj] The preacher told us that we would be forgiven if we repented our sins.

– re•pen•tance /rɪˈpɛntn̩s/ noun [noncount] ▪ His behavior is a sign of true repentance. ▪ a holy day of fasting, prayer, and repentance – re•pen•tant /rɪˈpɛntn̩t/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He seemed genuinely repentant. ▪ repentant sinners re•per•cus•sion /ˌri:pəˈkʌʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : something usually bad or unpleasant that happens as a result of an action, statement, etc., and that usually affects people for a long time — usually plural ▪ We didn't expect the decision to have such serious/enormous/tremendous repercussions. [=consequences] ▪ We did not consider the possible repercussions of our actions.

rep•er•toire /ˈrɛpəˌtwɑə/ noun, pl -toires [count]

1 : all the plays, songs, dances, etc., that a performer or group of performers knows and can perform ▪ The band's repertoire includes both classic and modern jazz.

2 : all the things that a person is able to do ▪ He has a limited repertoire when it comes to cooking. — often + of ▪ She has quite a repertoire of funny stories.

rep•er•to•ry /ˈrɛpəˌtori, Brit ˈrɛpətri/ noun, pl -ries

1 : an organized group of actors that performs many kinds of plays with each play being performed for only a short time [noncount] She acted in repertory for many years. ▪ repertory theater [count] Several repertories perform here.

2 [count] : REPERTOIRE 1 ▪ a ballet company's repertory

rep•e•ti•tion /ˌrɛpəˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act of saying or doing something again : the act of repeating something ▪ Sometimes repetition is necessary to drive a point home. ▪ Find a synonym for "nice" in order to avoid repetition. [=using the same word again] ▪ Children's songs involve lots of repetition. ▪ I quit my job at the factory because I hated the mindless repetition.

2 [count] : something that is done or said again ▪ the poem's rhythmic repetitions ▪ Let's determine what caused the error in order to avoid a repetition (of it). ▪ When he does push-ups, he does 3 sets of 12 repetitions. [=(informal) reps] rep•e•ti•tious /ˌrɛpəˈtɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having parts, actions, etc., that are repeated many times in a way that is boring or unpleasant : having too much repetition ▪ He was bored by the repetitious work. ▪ repetitious lyrics ▪ Her writing can be repetitious.

– rep•e•ti•tious•ly adv – rep•e•ti•tious•ness noun [noncount]

re•pet•i•tive /rɪˈpɛtətɪv/ adj

1 : happening again and again : repeated many times ▪ an injury caused by repetitive wrist movements ▪ a repetitive pattern ▪ repetitive stress/strain

2 : having parts, actions, etc., that are repeated many times in a way that is boring or unpleasant : REPETITIOUS ▪ She left the job because the work was too repetitive. ▪ At the risk of being/sounding repetitive, I must remind you again to be careful.

– re•pet•i•tive•ly adv ▪ an injury caused by repetitively flexing the wrist – re•pet•i•tive•ness noun [noncount] re•phrase /riˈfreɪz/ verb -phras•es; -phrased; -phras•ing [+ obj] : to say or write (something) again using different words in order to make the meaning clearer ▪ Let me rephrase the question.

re•place /rɪˈpleɪs/ verb -plac•es; -placed; -plac•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to be used instead of (something) ▪ Will computers ever completely replace books? ▪ Paper bags have been largely replaced by plastic bags. b : to do the job or duty of (someone) ▪ She was hired to replace the previous manager.

2 : to put someone or something new in the place or position of (someone or something) ▪ I replaced the old rug with a new one. ▪ They recently replaced the old phone system. ▪ The team's manager was replaced last season. ▪ The patient needed a transfusion to replace lost blood. ▪ They've appointed a new minister to replace the one who just retired. ▪ I guess it's finally time to replace the stove.

3 : to put (something) where it was before ▪ He carefully replaced the vase on the shelf.

– re•place•able /rɪˈpleɪsəbəl/ adj ▪ Don't worry about the broken vase—it's easily replaceable. — opposite IRREPLACEABLE

re•place•ment /rɪˈpleɪsmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [noncount] : the act of replacing something ▪ She underwent a hip replacement. [=a doctor replaced her hip with an artificial hip] ▪ Is your old dictionary in need of replacement? [=do you need a new dictionary?] ▪ Your car's replacement cost is less than the cost to repair it. [=it costs less to buy a new car than it does to fix your car]

2 [count] : a person or thing that replaces someone or something else ▪ I'm training my replacement. ▪ We need a replacement for our old vacuum cleaner. ▪ Where can we get replacement parts for the tractor?

[1]re•play /ˈri:ˌpleɪ/ noun, pl -plays [count]

1 : a game that is played again because there was no winner in a previous game ▪ They scheduled the replay for Saturday.

2 : a recording of something (such as an action in a sports event) that is being shown again ▪ You could see the fumble on the replay. — see also ACTION REPLAY, INSTANT REPLAY

3 : an occurrence in which something happens or is done again : REPEAT — often + of ▪ We don't want a replay of that unfortunate incident.

[2]re•play /riˈpleɪ/ verb -plays; -played; -play•ing [+ obj]

1 : to play (a game) again because there was no winner in a previous game ▪ The tied game will be replayed on Saturday.

2 : to play (recorded images, sounds, etc.) ▪ The game's highlights were replayed on the evening news. ▪ The footage has been played and replayed on television. — often used figuratively ▪ That night I replayed the conversation in my mind. [=I thought carefully about what had been said during the conversation]

re•plen•ish /rɪˈplɛnɪʃ/ verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to fill or build up (something) again ▪ An efficient staff of workers replenished the trays of appetizers almost as quickly as guests emptied them. ▪ He replenished his supply of wood in preparation for the winter. ▪ Drink this—you need to replenish your fluids after your

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

hike. ▪ plants that replenish soil nutrients
– re•plen•ish•ment /rɪˈplɛnɪʃmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ The clinic's drug supply is in serious need of replenishment. ▪ the replenishment of soil nutrients re•plete /rɪˈpliːt/ adj, not used before a noun, formal

1 : having much or plenty of something : filled with something ▪ The book is replete with photographs. ▪ The country's history is replete with stories of people who became successful by working hard.
2 : having had plenty to eat : pleasantly full ▪ feeling replete rep•li•ca /ˈrɛplɪkə/ noun, pl -cas [count] : an exact or very close copy of something ▪ We toured a replica of the ship. ▪ It's an authentic/exact/faithful/perfect replica of an ancient Greek urn.

rep•li•cate /ˈrɛpləˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing formal : to repeat or copy (something) exactly [+ obj] Scientists have failed to replicate [=duplicate] the results of his experiment. ▪ They are working on computer-generated speech that replicates the human voice. ▪ DNA replicates itself in the cell nucleus. [no obj] DNA replicates in the cell nucleus.
– rep•li•ca•tion /ˌrɛpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

[1]re•ply /rɪˈplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing : to say, write, or do something as an answer or response [no obj] I wrote to him, but he never replied. [=wrote back] ▪ He never replied [=responded] to my letter/e-mail/invitation. ▪ I called out to them, but no one replied. ▪ He didn't reply to her greeting. ▪ The company has replied to the recent protests by posting an ad in the local newspaper. ▪ She replied to the accusation with a stack of documents proving her innocence. [+ obj] "Do you feel better?" "A little," he replied. [=answered] ▪ He replied politely that he felt a little better.

[2]reply noun, pl -plies : something said, written, or done as an answer or response [count] A timely reply will be appreciated. ▪ His reply was rude. ▪ The invitations have been sent, but we haven't received any replies yet. [noncount] I asked her what was wrong. In reply, she handed me a letter. ▪ He wrote a brief note in reply to her letter.

reply–paid adj, always used before a noun, Brit : POSTAGE-PAID ▪ a reply-paid envelope

re•po /ˈriːˌpoʊ/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : of or relating to the business of taking property from people who have stopped making the payments that they agreed to make to pay for it ▪ a repo company ▪ Their car was taken/repossessed by the repo man. [=a man whose job is to take things from people who are not paying for them]

[1]re•port /rɪˈpoɚt/ noun, pl -ports [count]
1 : a story in a newspaper or on radio or television that is about something that happened or that gives information about something ▪ a news/weather/financial report ▪ a special report on/about health ▪ a report from our correspondent in China
2 a : a written or spoken description of a situation, event, etc. ▪ She wrote/made a report of the meeting. ▪ He gave a detailed/full report on/about the project. ▪ a medical report ▪ a book report ▪ She filled out a police report at the scene of the accident. ▪ Can you give us a quick progress report? [=an explanation of how something is developing] b : an official document that gives information about a particular subject ▪ the government's report on crime in 2006 ▪ The company issued/published/released its annual (business) report.
3 : a written or spoken statement about something that may or may not be true ▪ Unconfirmed reports state that over 100 people were hurt. ▪ Police have received reports of gang activity in the neighborhood. ▪ By/from all reports, you are a very hard worker. [=everyone says that you are a very hard worker]
4 formal : a loud noise made by a gun or an explosion ▪ the sharp report of a rifle
5 Brit : REPORT CARD

[2]report verb -ports; -port•ed; -port•ing
1 : to give information about (something) in a newspaper or on television or radio [+ obj] The murder was reported in the national news. ▪ Several TV stations are reporting that the police are close to making an arrest. ▪ Their job is to report the news accurately and fairly. ▪ It was reported (on the news) that two people died in the fire. = Two people were reported to have died in the fire. [no obj] — often + on ▪ He reports on political news for a local TV station.
2 : to tell people about (something) : to make a report about (something) [+ obj] He was asked to report the details of the meeting. ▪ Tomorrow the committee will report its findings on air pollution. [no obj] — often + on ▪ She reported on the project to her manager.
3 [+ obj] a : to describe (a feeling, condition, etc.) ▪ He reported feeling depressed. = He reported that he felt depressed. [=he said that he felt depressed] ▪ The doctor reported some improvement in her condition. b ✧ Something that is reported is said by people and may or may not be true. ▪ Her manner was reported as arrogant. = Her manner was reported to be arrogant. [=people said that she was arrogant] ▪ It is reported that the herb helps reduce anxiety.
4 [+ obj] : to tell the police, fire department, etc., about (something, such as a crime or accident). ▪ He called 911 and reported a fire. ▪ She reported the burglary to the police. ▪ They reported their son missing. [=they told the police that their son was missing]
5 [+ obj] : to tell someone with authority about (someone who has broken a rule, done something wrong, etc.) ▪ They threatened to report him to the police. — often + for ▪ The teacher reported him to the principal for misbehaving in class.
6 [no obj] : to go somewhere and tell someone that you have arrived — usually + for or to ▪ The new recruits are expected to report for duty next week. ▪ Please report to the office immediately when you arrive. ▪ He was asked to report for work at 7:00 a.m.
report back [phrasal verb] 1 : to return to a place in order to report information you have found, do more work, etc. ▪ Report back to my office in two hours. = Report back (to me) in two hours. ▪ Patients must report back to the center for a second treatment. 2 report back or report back (something) or report (something) back* : to give (information that you have found) to someone ▪ The policeman reported back that he found nothing wrong. ▪ A committee will study the matter and report back their findings. — often + to ▪ Each researcher reports his results back to the project director.
report sick : to tell your boss, employer, etc. that you are sick and cannot work ▪ He reported sick on Friday (to his supervisor).
report to [phrasal verb] report to (someone) ✧ The person you report to at your job is the person who is directly in charge of what you do, who reviews your work, etc. ▪ She reports to the president of the company.
– reported adj, always used before a noun ▪ the reported findings/facts ▪ a reported crime ▪ The company has suffered losses of a reported two million dollars.

re•port•able /rɪˈpoɚtəbəl/ adj, US : required by law to be publicly reported to the government ▪ a reportable disease ▪ reportable income

re•port•age /rɪˈpoɚtɪʤ/ noun [noncount] formal : REPORTING ▪ war reportage ▪ reportage of the news report card noun, pl ~ cards [count] US : a written statement of a student's grades that is given to the student's parents — called also (Brit) report

re•port•ed•ly /rɪˈpoɚtədli/ adv : according to what has been said — used to indicate what has been said or reported ▪ The medication's side effects are reportedly few and mild. ▪ They reportedly stole one million dollars.

re•port•er /rɪˈpoɚtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who writes news stories for a newspaper, magazine, etc., or who tells people the news on radio or television ▪ a news/television reporter ▪ She's a reporter for one of the major networks. — see also CUB REPORTER reporting noun [noncount] : the act or activity of telling people the news in a newspaper or on television or radio ▪ firsthand reporting ▪ She is very skilled at reporting.

[1]re•pose /rɪˈpoʊz/ noun [noncount] formal + literary : a state of resting or not being active ▪ His face in repose [=at rest] is serious and thoughtful.

[2]repose verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing formal + literary
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to rest or lay (something) somewhere [+ obj] She reposed her head on a cushion. [no obj] I found her reposing [=relaxing] on the couch.
2 : to place (trust, hope, confidence, etc.) in someone or something ▪ They reposed confidence in their leader. [=they had confidence in their leader]

re•pos•i•to•ry /rɪˈpɑːzəˌtori, Brit rɪˈpɒzətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] formal
1 : a place where a large amount of something is stored ▪ a repository for nuclear waste ▪ huge repositories of data
2 : a person who possesses a lot of information, wisdom, etc.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

▪ He is the repository of many secrets. ▪ She is the repository of her family's history.

re•pos•sess /ˌriːpəˈzɛs/ verb -sess•es; -sessed; -sess•ing [+ obj] : to take (something) back from a buyer because payments are not being made ▪ The bank repossessed her truck.

– repossessed adj ▪ a repossessed house/car ▪ repossessed property – re•pos•ses•sion /ˌriːpəˈzɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count, noncount] ▪ The judge allowed repossession of the house.

rep•re•hen•si•ble /ˌrɛprɪˈhɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very bad : deserving very strong criticism ▪ reprehensible [=contemptible] acts – rep•re•hen•si•bly /ˌrɛprɪˈhɛnsəbli/ adv ▪ They behaved reprehensibly.

rep•re•sent /ˌrɛprɪˈzɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to act or speak officially for (someone or something) ▪ He represented his company at the meeting. ▪ She hired an agent to represent her in the contract negotiations. b : to have a government position in which you speak or act for (a particular group, state, etc.) ▪ Senator Smith represents the state of Connecticut. c : to speak or act for (someone or something) in a court of law ▪ He represented himself at the trial. [=he spoke for himself at the trial and did not have a lawyer] ▪ The company is represented by a local law firm.

2 [+ obj] a : to be part of a sports event or other competition for (a particular country, city, school, etc.) ▪ She represented the United States in figure skating at the Olympics. b be represented — used to say that people from a particular place or group are present at an event, meeting, etc. ▪ The town was well represented at the meeting. [=there were many people from the town at the meeting]

3 not used in progressive tenses [linking verb] : to form or be something ▪ The money he makes from his investments represents [=constitutes] over half his income. ▪ The court's decision represents a victory for small businesses. ▪ The new prices represent a substantial increase over last year's prices.

4 [+ obj] : to be an example of (someone or something) ▪ He represents everything I dislike about politics/politicians. ▪ They have a collection of animals representing more than 50 species.

5 [+ obj] : to be a sign or symbol of (someone or something) ▪ The flag represents our country. ▪ Letters represent sounds. ▪ High and low temperatures are represented by colored lines on the graph. ▪ She is beginning to question the company and everything it represents. [=stands for]

6 [+ obj] : to show (someone or something) in a picture, painting, photograph, etc. ▪ This painting represents [=portrays, depicts] Queen Elizabeth.

7 [+ obj] : to describe (someone or something) in a particular way ▪ The politician was angry with the newspaper for representing [=portraying] his party negatively. — often used to suggest that a description is false ▪ He represented himself as poor, but I saw him driving an expensive new car.

rep•re•sen•ta•tion /ˌrɛprɪˌzɛnˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : a person or group that speaks or acts for or in support of another person or group ▪ He had no legal representation [=he did not have a lawyer] during the trial. ▪ Each state has equal representation in the Senate. — see also PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION

2 [count] : something (such as a picture or symbol) that stands for something else ▪ The letters of the alphabet are representations of sounds.

3 [count] : a painting, sculpture, etc., that is created to look like a particular thing or person ▪ carved representations of flowers

4 [noncount] : the act of presenting or describing a person or thing in a particular way ▪ the film's heroic representation of America ▪ We discussed the representation of women in Jane Austen's novels.

5 [count] formal a : a statement made to influence the opinions or actions of others ▪ Her representation of the situation was very confusing. ▪ He was accused of making false representations. b chiefly Brit : a formal and official complaint about something ▪ Our ambassador has made representations to their government.

rep•re•sen•ta•tion•al /ˌrɛprɪˌzɛnˈteɪʃənl/ adj : showing people and things as they appear in real life : REALISTIC ▪ representational art ▪ a representational painter

[1]rep•re•sen•ta•tive /ˌrɛprɪˈzɛntətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : typical of a particular group of people or of a particular thing ▪ a representative example ▪ The paintings are representative of English art in the early 19th century.

2 : including examples of the different types of people or things in a group ▪ The students chosen for the survey are a fairly representative sample/sampling of college students from across the U.S.

3 : having people who are chosen in elections to act or speak for or in support of the people who voted for them ▪ representative government ▪ representative democracy

– rep•re•sen•ta•tive•ness noun [noncount]

[2]representative noun, pl -tives [count]

1 a : someone who acts or speaks for or in support of another person or group ▪ a sales representative [=a salesperson] ▪ the actor's personal representative [=agent] b : a member of the House of Representatives of the U.S. Congress or of a state government ▪ Do you know who your representatives are? ▪ state representatives ▪ The bill was introduced by Representative Smith.

2 : a person or thing that is typical of a group ▪ a representative of her age group

re•press /rɪˈprɛs/ verb -press•es; -pressed; -press•ing [+ obj]

1 : to not allow yourself to do or express (something) ▪ She repressed a laugh. [=she stopped herself from laughing] ▪ He repressed his anger.

2 : to not allow yourself to remember (something, such as an unpleasant event) ▪ repress a painful memory

3 : to control (someone or something) by force ▪ The dictator brutally repressed [=subdued, suppressed] political disagreement. ▪ Religious groups were severely repressed.

re•pressed /rɪˈprɛst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : stopped from being expressed or remembered ▪ repressed sexuality/anger ▪ a repressed memory

2 : having feelings or desires that are not allowed to be expressed ▪ a repressed child ▪ a sexually repressed man

3 : kept under control by force ▪ a repressed minority

re•pres•sion /rɪˈprɛʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 a : the act of using force to control someone or something ▪ the state's repression of its citizens b : the state of being controlled by force ▪ They survived 60 years of political repression.

2 : the act of not allowing a memory, feeling, or desire to be expressed ▪ sexual repression re•pres•sive /rɪˈprɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : controlling people by force ▪ a repressive government

2 : not allowing certain feelings or desires to be expressed ▪ a sexually repressive culture

– re•pres•sive•ly adv – re•pres•sive•ness noun [noncount]

[1]re•prieve /rɪˈpriːv/ noun, pl -prieves [count]

1 : an official order that delays the punishment of a prisoner who is sentenced to death ▪ He won/got a (temporary) reprieve from his death sentence.

2 a : a delay that keeps something bad from happening ▪ They wanted to close the library, but we managed to get/secure a reprieve for it. b : a period of relief from pain, trouble, etc. ▪ This warm spell has given us a reprieve from the winter cold.

[2]reprieve verb -prieves; -prieved; -priev•ing [+ obj]

1 : to delay the punishment of (someone, such as a prisoner who is sentenced to death) ▪ He was sentenced to death but then reprieved.

2 : to prevent (something) from being closed, destroyed, etc., for a period of time ▪ The library has been reprieved and will remain open for at least another year.

rep•ri•mand /ˈrɛprəˌmænd, Brit ˈrɛprəˌmɑːnd/ verb -mands; -mand•ed; -mand•ing [+ obj] : to speak in an angry and critical way to (someone who has done something wrong, disobeyed an order, etc.) ▪ The soldiers were severely reprimanded. — often + for ▪ She was reprimanded for being late. ▪ The boss reprimanded us for talking too much.

– reprimand noun, pl -mands [count] a severe/mild reprimand [noncount] a letter of reprimand

[1]re•print /riˈprɪnt/ verb -prints; -print•ed; -print•ing [+ obj] : to print (something, such as a book, article, etc.) again ▪ She gave permission to reprint her article.

[2]re•print /ˈriːˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count]

1 : the act of printing more copies of a book ▪ The novel is already on its fifth reprint. ▪ The publisher does reprints of books written in the early 1900s.

2 : a book, story, etc., that is printed again ▪ This is a reprint

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

of an article that was originally published in the New York Times.

re•pri•sal /rɪˈpraɪzəl/ noun, pl -sals : something that is done to hurt or punish someone who has hurt you or done something bad to you [count] Enemy officers suffered harsh reprisals. ▪ The allies threatened economic reprisals against the invading country. [noncount] The prisoners kept silent for fear of reprisal. [=punishment] ▪ The hostages were taken in reprisal for the bombing.

[1]re•prise /rɪˈpri:z/ noun, pl -pris•es [count] : something (such as a piece of music) that is repeated ▪ They ended their performance with a reprise of the opening number. ▪ The team is hoping to avoid a reprise of last year's defeat.

[2]reprise verb -prises; -prised; -pris•ing [+ obj] : to repeat (something, such as a performance of a piece of music) ▪ reprise a song/play/film ▪ He will reprise his role in the play.

[1]re•proach /rɪˈproʊʧ/ noun, pl -proach•es formal
1 : a expression of disapproval or disappointment [noncount] She looked at him with reproach. ▪ His actions were above/beyond reproach. [=his actions could not be criticized] [count] Accusations and reproaches from both parties made it difficult to pursue discussions.
2 [noncount] : loss of reputation : DISGRACE ▪ His conduct has brought shame and reproach to his family.
3 [count] : something that causes shame or disgrace — usually singular ▪ This situation is a scandal and a reproach to the entire country.
– re•proach•ful /rɪˈproʊʧfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a reproachful look – re•proach•ful•ly /rɪˈproʊʧfəli/ adv ▪ She shook her head reproachfully.

[2]reproach verb -proaches; -proached; -proach•ing [+ obj] formal : to speak in an angry and critical way to (someone) : to express disapproval or disappointment to (someone) — often + for ▪ She reproached her daughter for her selfishness.
reproach yourself : to feel shame or regret because of something you have done ▪ He reproached himself for not telling the truth.

rep•ro•bate /ˈrɛprəˌbeɪt/ noun, pl -bates [count] formal : a person who behaves in a morally wrong way ▪ drunken reprobates
– reprobate adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a reprobate lifestyle re•pro•duce /ˌri:prəˈdu:s, Brit ˌri:prəˈdju:s/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to make a copy of (something) ▪ reproduce a photograph ▪ The concert will be reproduced on compact disc. b : to produce something that is the same as or very similar to (something else) ▪ Sound effects can reproduce the sound of thunder.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to happen again in the same way ▪ They haven't been able to reproduce the results of the first experiment.
3 : to produce babies, young animals, new plants, etc. [no obj] Flies reproduce rapidly. [+ obj] Salmon return to the stream to reproduce offspring. ▪ The virus is able to reproduce itself very rapidly.
– re•pro•duc•ible /ˌri:prəˈdu:səbəl, Brit ˌri:prəˈdju:səbəl/ adj ▪ The results of the experiment were not reproducible.

re•pro•duc•tion /ˌri:prəˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the process that produces babies, young animals, or new plants ▪ sexual/asexual reproduction
2 [noncount] : the act of copying something (such as a document, book, or sound) ▪ the mass reproduction of fine art ▪ methods of sound reproduction
3 [count] : something that is made to look exactly like an original : COPY ▪ photographic/digital reproductions ▪ a reproduction of the painting

re•pro•duc•tive /ˌri:prəˈdʌktɪv/ adj, always used before a noun : relating to or involved in the production of babies, young animals, or new plants ▪ the reproductive tract/organs/system/cycle ▪ reproductive health/success ▪ (US) He is a leading supporter of reproductive rights. [=a woman's right to choose whether or not she will have a baby]

re•proof /rɪˈpru:f/ noun, pl -proofs formal 1 [noncount] : criticism or blame ▪ The fear of reproof prevented them from complaining.
2 [count] : a statement that criticizes or blames someone ▪ She responded to their reproofs [=rebukes] by walking off angrily.

re•prove /rɪˈpru:v/ verb -proves; -proved; -prov•ing [+ obj] formal : to criticize or correct (someone) usually in a gentle way ▪ The teacher reproved the student for being late.
– reproving adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a long reproving speech ▪ He gave me a reproving look. – re•prov•ing•ly adv ▪ She looked at me reprovingly.

rep•tile /ˈrɛpˌtajəl/ noun, pl -tiles [count]
1 : an animal (such as a snake, lizard, turtle, or alligator) that has cold blood, that lays eggs, and that has a body covered with scales or hard parts
2 informal : a person who cannot be trusted or who is not likable ▪ He called the governor's top aide a reptile.
– rep•til•ian /rɛpˈtɪlijən/ adj ▪ a reptilian brain/jawbone/claw ▪ The bird was reptilian in appearance. ▪ a reptilian smile

re•pub•lic /rɪˈpʌblɪk/ noun, pl -lics [count] : a country that is governed by elected representatives and by an elected leader (such as a president) rather than by a king or queen ▪ an independent republic ▪ an eastern European republic — see also BANANA REPUBLIC

[1]re•pub•li•can /rɪˈpʌblɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count]
1 Republican : a member of the Republican party of the U.S. ▪ Our state representative is a Republican. ▪ The state's voters are mostly Republicans. — compare DEMOCRAT 2
2 : a person who believes in or supports a republican form of government
3 Republican : a person from Northern Ireland who believes that Northern Ireland should be part of the Republic of Ireland rather than the United Kingdom — opposite LOYALIST

[2]republican adj [more ~; most ~]
1 Republican US : of or relating to one of the two major political parties in the U.S. ▪ Republican candidates/proposals/voters ▪ the leader of the Republican Party — compare DEMOCRATIC 2
2 : relating to or based on a form of government in which representatives are elected and there is no king or queen ▪ republican reforms ▪ a republican government – re•pub•li•can•ism or Republicanism /rɪˈpʌblɪkəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ moderate/conservative Republicanism ▪ Roman republicanism

re•pu•di•ate /rɪˈpju:diˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to refuse to accept or support (something) : to reject (something or someone) ▪ a generation that has repudiated the values of the past ▪ He has publicly repudiated the government's policies.
2 : to say or show that (something) is not true ▪ He published an article that repudiates the study's claims. ▪ She says she has evidence which repudiates the allegations.
– re•pu•di•a•tion /rɪˌpju:diˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ His statements are a repudiation of the government's policies.

re•pug•nance /rɪˈpʌgnəns/ noun [noncount] formal : a strong feeling of dislike or disgust ▪ They expressed their repugnance at the idea. ▪ They felt nothing but repugnance for the group's violent history.

re•pug•nant /rɪˈpʌgnənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing a strong feeling of dislike or disgust : REPULSIVE ▪ a morally repugnant act — often + to ▪ The idea was completely repugnant to us.

re•pulse /rɪˈpʌls/ verb -puls•es; -pulsed; -puls•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to force (someone) to stop attacking you : REPEL ▪ The troops repulsed the attack. ▪ The invaders were repulsed. [=driven back]
2 : to cause dislike or disgust in (someone) ▪ I was repulsed by the movie's violence. ▪ The moldy bread repulsed him.
3 : to reject (someone or something) in a rude or unfriendly way ▪ He repulsed all attempts to help him.

re•pul•sion /rɪˈpʌlʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 : a feeling of strong dislike or disgust [noncount] I read about what happened with a feeling of shock and repulsion. [singular] She felt a repulsion for politics.
2 physics : a force that pushes something away from something else [noncount] magnetic repulsion [count] a repulsion between the particles — opposite ATTRACTION
3 [noncount] : the act of pushing someone or something away : the act of repulsing something or someone ▪ their successful repulsion of the attack/attackers

re•pul•sive /rɪˈpʌlsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing strong dislike or disgust ▪ repulsive and evil acts ▪ a repulsive [=repellent] man ▪ The rotten meat was repulsive. [=nauseating, revolting]
2 physics : of or relating to the force that pushes something

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

away from something else ▪ Magnets have a repulsive effect on each other.
– re•pul•sive•ly adv ▪ a repulsively hideous man – re•pul•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ physical repulsiveness

re•pur•pose /riˈpəpəs/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] : to change (something) so that it can be used for a different purpose ▪ finding ways to repurpose old computer equipment

rep•u•ta•ble /ˈrɛpjətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : respected and trusted by most people : having a good reputation ▪ a reputable source/brand/company ▪ reputable businessmen/scientists/writers — opposite DISREPUTABLE

rep•u•ta•tion /ˌrɛpjəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : the common opinion that people have about someone or something : the way in which people think of someone or something [count] This car dealership has a good/bad reputation. [=people think that the car dealership is good/bad] ▪ He has earned/established/acquired a reputation as a first-class playwright. ▪ a teacher with a reputation for patience ▪ Poor customer service has ruined/damaged/destroyed the company's reputation. ▪ The cruise ship lived up to its reputation. [=the cruise ship was as good, enjoyable, etc., as we were told it would be] [noncount] I know that the restaurant, by reputation, is excellent. [=the restaurant has an excellent reputation]

re•pute /rɪˈpjuːt/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : REPUTATION ▪ They are held in high/good/bad/low repute. [=they have a good/bad reputation]
2 : good reputation ▪ a scientist of repute [=distinction] ill repute : bad reputation ▪ She was a woman of ill repute. [=prostitute, whore] ▪ a house of ill repute [=brothel, whorehouse]

re•put•ed /rɪˈpjuːtəd/ adj : said to be true, to exist, to have a specified identity, etc. ▪ He is reputed to be a millionaire. [=people say that he is a millionaire] ▪ a reputed gang member ▪ She was hired for her reputed talents as a manager.
– re•put•ed•ly adv ▪ Their pizza is reputedly the best in town. [=people say that their pizza is the best in town]

[1]re•quest /rɪˈkwɛst/ noun, pl -quests
1 : an act of politely or formally asking for something [count] They made a request to begin work immediately. ▪ She filed/sent/submitted a formal request for more information. ▪ He denied/refused/rejected her request. ▪ He fulfilled/granted her request. ▪ The radio program takes requests. [=people can ask for certain songs to be played] ▪ At your request, I am enclosing a full refund of your payment. ▪ Troops were sent at the request of our allies. [noncount] Catalogs are available by/on/upon request. [=you can get a catalog by requesting one]
2 [count] : something (such as a song) that a person asks for ▪ The radio station plays requests. [=songs that people ask the radio station to play] ▪ This next song is a request from one of our listeners.

[2]request verb -quests; -quest•ed; quest•ing [+ obj]
1 : to ask for (something) in a polite or formal way ▪ He requested a table near the window. [=he asked to be seated at a table near the window] ▪ The governor will request that the legislature raise taxes.
2 : to ask (someone) to do something in a polite or formal way ▪ Gentlemen are requested to wear a jacket and tie. ▪ I am sending your medical records as requested. [=as I have been asked to do]

re•qui•em or Requiem /ˈrɛkwijəm/ noun, pl -ems [count]
1 : a Christian religious ceremony for a dead person — called also Requiem Mass
2 : a piece of music for a requiem

re•quire /rɪˈkwajɚ/ verb -quires; -quired; -quir•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to need (something) ▪ We require your assistance. ▪ He is very sick and requires constant care. [=he has to be given constant care] — used to say that something is necessary ▪ The game requires great skill and coordination. [=you must have great skill and coordination to play the game] ▪ It requires great strength to lift 500 pounds. = Lifting 500 pounds requires great strength. ▪ Experience is required for this job. [=you must have experience for this job] ▪ English is a required course. [=a course that must be taken in order to graduate] ▪ The newspaper is required reading [=reading that must be done] in my politics course.
2 : to make it necessary for someone to do something ▪ The law requires everyone to pay the tax. = The law requires that everyone pay the tax. ▪ What will be required of me if I accept the job? = What will I be required to do if I accept the job? ▪ The truck driver carries a special license, as the law requires (him to do). = The truck driver carries a special license, as required by law.

re•quire•ment /rɪˈkwajɚmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 : something that is needed or that must be done ▪ nutritional requirements ▪ a legal/statutory requirement ▪ (Brit) Her services were surplus to requirements. [=more than what was needed]
2 : something that is necessary for something else to happen or be done ▪ He has met the basic/minimum requirements for graduation. ▪ She has fulfilled/satisfied the general requirements of the course.

[1]req•ui•site /ˈrɛkwəzət/ adj, formal : needed for a particular purpose ▪ She has the requisite [=necessary, required] skills/experience for the job.

[2]requisite noun, pl -sites [count] formal : something that is needed for a particular purpose ▪ Five years of previous experience is a requisite for this job.

req•ui•si•tion /ˌrɛkwəˈzɪʃən/ verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] formal : to ask for or demand and take (something) for your use ▪ The officer requisitioned supplies for his troops. ▪ The car was requisitioned by the police.
– requisition noun, pl -tions [count] ▪ The office manager made a requisition [=an official request] for supplies.

re•quite /rɪˈkwaɪt/ verb -quites; -quit•ed; -quit•ing [+ obj] formal : to give or do something in return for (something that another person has given or done) ▪ His love for her was not requited. [=she did not return his love; she did not love him] — compare UNREQUITED re•read /riˈriːd/ verb -reads; -read; -read•ing [+ obj] : to read (something) again ▪ We carefully reread the contract.

re•route /riˈruːt/ verb -routes; -rout•ed; -rout•ing [+ obj] : to change the normal route of (something) ▪ The airplanes were rerouted due to bad weather.

[1]re•run /ˈriːˌrʌn/ noun, pl -runs [count]
1 : a television program or movie that is shown again ▪ She spent her vacation watching summer reruns.
2 : an occurrence in which something happens or is done again ▪ Voters do not want a rerun [=repeat] of the last election.

[2]re•run /riˈrʌn/ verb -runs; -ran /-ˈræn/; -run; -run•ning [+ obj]
1 : to show (a television program or movie) again ▪ Last week's show is being rerun tomorrow night.
2 : to do or run (something) again ▪ They reran the race, but the result was the same. ▪ He reran the software on my computer. ▪ They reran [=repeated] the lab tests.

re•sale /ˈriːˌseɪl/ noun, pl -sales : the act of selling something that you have bought [count] They earned thousands of dollars on resales of the baseball tickets. [noncount] He buys baseball collectibles and then holds them for resale. ▪ The resale price/value of the car is $8,000.

re•sched•ule /riˈskɛˌʤuːl, Brit riˈʃɛˌʤuːl/ verb -ules; -uled; -ul•ing [+ obj]
1 : to schedule (something) for a different time or date ▪ She called to reschedule her appointment. ▪ The meeting was rescheduled for Tuesday.
2 : to arrange (a loan or debt) to be paid back at a later date than was originally planned ▪ He rescheduled his college loans.

re•scind /rɪˈsɪnd/ verb -scinds; -scind•ed; -scind•ing [+ obj] formal : to end (a law, contract, agreement, etc.) officially : to say officially that (something) is no longer valid ▪ The navy rescinded its ban on women sailors. ▪ The company later rescinded its offer/decision.

[1]res•cue /ˈrɛskju/ verb -cues; -cued; -cu•ing [+ obj] : to save (someone or something) from danger or harm ▪ The survivors were rescued by the Coast Guard. — often + from ▪ A fireman rescued three children from the burning building. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She rescued an old chair from the trash.
– res•cu•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Rescuers struggled to free the young man from the car wreck.

[2]rescue noun, pl -cues [count] : an act of saving someone or something from danger, harm, or trouble ▪ The lifeguard performed a heroic rescue. ▪ The policeman came/went to the rescue of the lost boy. [=the policeman rescued the lost boy] ▪ When her brother lost his job, she came to his rescue by paying his rent. — often used before another noun ▪ a rescue team/squad ▪ a rescue operation/mission

[1]re•search /ˈriːˌsɚʧ/ noun, pl -search•es
1 : careful study that is done to find and report new knowl-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

edge about something [noncount] cancer/AIDS/drug research ▪ medical/scientific/scholarly research ▪ She conducts research into/on the causes of Alzheimer's disease. ▪ Recent research shows/indicates that the disease is caused in part by bad nutrition. ▪ The study is an important piece of research. — often used before another noun ▪ research data/findings ▪ a research group/organization/scientist ▪ a research assistant ▪ a research program/project ▪ a research lab/laboratory/library/center ▪ a research paper/report [plural] (formal + old-fashioned) We read about Sigmund Freud's researches into the human psyche.

2 [noncount] : the activity of getting information about a subject ▪ He did a lot of research before buying his car. — see also MARKET RESEARCH

– re•search•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Medical researchers say that the drug is useless.

[2]re•search /rɪˈsɚtʃ/ verb -search•es; -searched; -search•ing [+ obj]

1 : to study (something) carefully ▪ She is researching [=investigating] the relationship between stress and heart disease. ▪ He spent the summer researching his dissertation.

2 : to collect information about or for (something) ▪ Before going out to eat, she researched area restaurants. ▪ The reporter made hundreds of telephone calls while researching the story.

research and development noun [noncount] : studies and tests that are done in order to design new or improved products ▪ The company spends millions of dollars each year on research and development. — abbr. R & D

research park noun, pl ~ parks [count] US : an area where companies have offices and laboratories and do work involving science and technology — called also technology park, (chiefly Brit) science park

re•sell /riˈsɛl/ verb -sells; -sold; -sell•ing [+ obj] : to sell (something that you bought) ▪ He repaired the motorcycle and resold it for a profit.

re•sem•blance /rɪˈzɛmbləns/ noun, pl -blanc•es

1 : the state of looking or being like someone or something else [singular] He bears/has a close/striking/strong/uncanny resemblance to his father. [=he looks a lot like his father] ▪ When she showed me her niece's picture, I immediately saw a/the family resemblance. [=a similarity in the way they look because they are related] [noncount] He doesn't look exactly like his father, but there is some resemblance. ▪ There is no resemblance between her and her sister.

2 [count] : something that makes one person or thing like another : SIMILARITY ▪ I noticed some resemblances between them. [=I noticed some ways in which they resemble each other]

re•sem•ble /rɪˈzɛmbəl/ verb, not used in progressive tenses -sem•bles; -sem•bled; -sem•bling [+ obj] : to look or be like (someone or something) ▪ He strongly resembles his father in appearance and in temperament. ▪ Terrier dogs closely resemble each other. ▪ We couldn't find anything resembling [=like] a good restaurant. [=we couldn't find a good restaurant]

re•sent /rɪˈzɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing [+ obj] : to be angry or upset about (someone or something that you think is unfair) ▪ I resent that remark. ▪ She resented being told what to do. ▪ He resented his boss for making him work late.

re•sent•ful /rɪˈzɛntfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a feeling of anger or displeasure about someone or something unfair ▪ She is resentful about being demoted. ▪ He's resentful of his boss. = He feels resentful toward his boss. ▪ a resentful child ▪ She gave me a resentful glare. ▪ a resentful letter to the editor

– re•sent•ful•ly adv – re•sent•ful•ness noun [noncount]

re•sent•ment /rɪˈzɛntmənt/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of anger or displeasure about someone or something unfair ▪ She bore/felt/harbored bitter feelings of resentment toward her ex-husband. ▪ He's filled with resentment at/against his boss. ▪ He expressed his resentment of the new policies.

res•er•va•tion /ˌrɛzɚˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : an arrangement to have something (such as a room, table, or seat) held for your use at a later time ▪ We made dinner reservations at the restaurant for 6 o'clock. ▪ I have a hotel reservation.

2 : a feeling of doubt or uncertainty about something [count] My only reservation about buying the car was its high price. — often plural ▪ She had reservations about changing jobs. [noncount] He supported her decision without reservation. [=he completely supported her decision]

3 [count] : an area of land in the U.S. that is kept separate as a place for Native Americans to live ▪ a Navajo reservation

4 [count] US : an area of land on which hunting animals is not allowed ▪ a wildlife reservation [=reserve]

[1]re•serve /rɪˈzɚv/ verb -serves; -served; -serv•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make arrangements so that you will be able to use or have (something, such as a room, table, or seat) at a later time ▪ We reserved a hotel room. ▪ This table is reserved for someone else. ▪ The seats are reserved under my name.

2 : to keep (something) for a special or future use ▪ We will reserve this wine for a special occasion. ▪ She usually reserved her best dishes for very important dinners. ▪ She spoke in a tone of voice that she usually reserved for her students. [=that she usually only used for her students]

3 : to choose to do (something) at a later time : DEFER ▪ I will reserve judgment [=will not make a judgment/decision] until I know the full story.

4 : to have or keep (something, such as a right) for possible use at a future time ▪ We reserve the right to make further changes to the agreement if necessary.

[2]reserve noun, pl -serves

1 [count] : a supply of something that is stored so that it can be used at a later time ▪ oil reserves ▪ a cash reserve ▪ He had to call upon his inner reserves of strength to keep going.

2 [count] : a military force that is additional to the regular forces and that is available if it is needed ▪ the army reserve — often plural ▪ He is a member of the reserves.

3 [count] : an area of land where animals and plants are given special protection ▪ a forest/wildlife reserve — see also NATURE RESERVE

4 [count] : an area of land where Native Americans live : RESERVATION ▪ a Navajo reserve

5 [noncount] : the quality of a person who does not express feelings, opinions, etc., in an easy and open way ▪ His natural reserve is sometimes mistaken for unfriendliness.

6 [count] : a player on a team who takes the place of a regular player who is injured or cannot play ▪ the reserves on a football team in reserve : kept for future or special use ▪ She has a lot of money (kept) in reserve in case problems arise.

without reserve : in a free and complete way ▪ They trusted him without reserve. [=trusted him completely]

re•served /rɪˈzɚvd/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not openly expressing feelings or opinions ▪ She is a very reserved young woman.

2 : kept for use only by a particular person or group ▪ a reserved parking space ▪ The front row is reserved for faculty.

reserve price noun, pl ~ prices [count] : the lowest price that a seller will accept for the thing that is being sold at an auction

re•serv•ist /rɪˈzɚvɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a member of a military reserve ▪ an army reservist

res•er•voir /ˈrɛzɚˌvwɑɚ/ noun, pl -voirs [count]

1 : a usually artificial lake that is used to store a large supply of water for use in people's homes, in businesses, etc.

2 : a place (such as a part of a machine) where a liquid is stored ▪ The pen has a large ink reservoir. ▪ the engine's oil reservoir

3 : an extra supply of something ▪ Colleges and universities provide reservoirs of talent for job recruiters. ▪ She found the reservoirs of energy she needed to finish the job.

re•set /rɪˈsɛt/ verb -sets; -set; -set•ting [+ obj] : to set (something) again: such as a : to move (something) back to an original place or position ▪ The machine reset the bowling pins. b : to put (a broken bone) back in the correct position for healing ▪ His broken leg had to be reset. c : to put (a gem) into a new piece of jewelry ▪ reset a diamond d : to change (something) so that it shows a different time or can be used again ▪ He reset his watch. ▪ reset the timer to 10 minutes ▪ The fire alarm was reset. ▪ reset a trap

re•set•tle /riˈsɛtl/ verb -set•tles; -set•tled; -set•tling

1 : to begin to live in a new area after leaving an old one : to settle again [no obj] They left town and resettled out west. [+ obj] He resettled his family in the valley.

2 [+ obj] : to begin to use (an area) again as a place to live — usually used as (be) resettled ▪ The area was resettled in the 1800s.

– re•set•tle•ment /riˈsɛtlmənt/ noun [noncount]

re•shape /riˈʃeɪp/ verb -shapes; -shaped; -shap•ing [+ obj] : to give a new form or shape to (something) ▪ The body of the car was reshaped to allow for more cargo space. ▪

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

These changes will reshape the future. ▪ He reshaped the plot of his story.

re•shuf•fle /riˈʃʌfəl/ verb -shuf•fles; -shuf•fled; -shuf•fling [+ obj]
1 : to shuffle (cards) again ▪ The dealer reshuffled the cards.
2 : to change the way the parts of (something) are arranged or organized ▪ The President reshuffled his Cabinet. [=changed the jobs/positions of the people in his Cabinet] ▪ We had to reshuffle [=rearrange] our schedule.
– reshuffle noun, pl -shuffles [count] ▪ There has been a major reshuffle in the department.

re•side /rɪˈzaɪd/ verb -sides; -sid•ed; -sid•ing [no obj] formal
1 : to live in a particular place ▪ He resides in St. Louis. ▪ He still resides at his parents' house.
2 : to exist or be present ▪ The power of veto resides with the President. [=the President has the power of veto] ▪ Meaning resides within the text of the poem. ▪ The importance of this decision resides in the fact that it relates to people across the country.

res•i•dence /ˈrɛzədəns/ noun, pl -denc•es formal
1 [noncount] : the state of living in a particular place ▪ He recently ended his residence at the apartment complex. ▪ Birds have taken up residence [=established a home] in the barn. ▪ (US) a residence hall = (Brit) a hall of residence [=a place where students live at a college or university]
2 [count] : the place where someone lives ▪ a two-story residence ▪ Police surrounded the residence. — often used to refer especially to a large and impressive house where an important or wealthy person lives ▪ He spent three months at his summer residence. ▪ the prime minister's residence
3 [noncount] : legal permission to live in a country ▪ They were granted/denied residence in this country.
in residence 1 : living in a particular place at a particular time ▪ The Queen was not in residence at the palace when the fire broke out. 2 : having an official position as a writer, artist, etc., who has been chosen to live and work at a college or other institution for a period of time ▪ She is the artist in residence at the museum this summer.

res•i•den•cy /ˈrɛzədənsi/ noun, pl -cies formal
1 a [noncount] : the state or fact of living in a place ▪ proof of residency [=residence] ▪ You must meet the town's residency requirement in order to vote. b [singular] : a period of time when someone lives in a place ▪ a four-year residency in the country
2 [count] : legal permission to live in a place ▪ He was granted/denied residency. [=residence]
3 [count, noncount] chiefly US : a period when a doctor receives advanced training at a hospital in order to become a specialist in a particular field of medicine ▪ She recently completed her residency in pediatrics. ▪ a residency program
4 [count, noncount] : a period of time when a writer, artist, etc., lives and works at a college or other institution

[1]resident /ˈrɛzədənt/ noun, pl -dents [count]
1 : someone who lives in a particular place ▪ She is a resident of New York. [=she lives in New York] ▪ apartment residents
2 US : a doctor who is training at a hospital to become a specialist in a particular field of medicine ▪ a first-year resident

[2]res•i•dent adj
1 : living in a particular place usually for a long period of time ▪ the city's resident voters ▪ Several tribes are resident in this part of the country.
2 always used before a noun : working regularly at a particular place ▪ the magazine's resident critic — often used humorously to refer to the person in a group who has a particular skill, area of knowledge, etc. ▪ He is our resident trivia expert.

res•i•den•tial /ˌrɛzəˈdɛnʃəl/ adj
1 : containing mostly homes instead of stores, businesses, etc. ▪ a residential area/street/neighborhood
2 : used as a place to live ▪ residential property
3 : of or relating to the places where people live ▪ The company offers insurance for commercial and residential customers. ▪ residential insurance policies
4 a : providing students a place to live ▪ residential colleges b : requiring students to live at a school while taking classes ▪ residential study ▪ a residential course
5 a : provided to patients who are staying at a place for medical care ▪ residential drug treatment b : requiring patients to stay while they are receiving medical care ▪ a residential treatment center

re•sid•u•al /rɪˈzɪʤəwəl/ adj, formal : remaining after a process has been completed or something has been removed ▪ She's still dealing with the residual effects of the accident.

re•sid•u•als /rɪˈzɪʤəwəlz/ noun [plural] : additional payments that are made to a person (such as a writer or actor) who worked on a commercial or television program every time the commercial or program is shown again ▪ She earns a lot in residuals.

res•i•due /ˈrɛzəˌduː, Brit ˈrɛzəˌdjuː/ noun, pl -dues
1 : a usually small amount of something that remains after a process has been completed or a thing has been removed [count] The grill was covered in a greasy residue from the hamburgers. ▪ The divorce left a residue of pain in the family. [noncount] There was some kind of sticky residue on the floor.
2 [count] formal : the amount of something valuable (such as an estate) that is left after all debts have been paid ▪ She left the residue of her estate to her daughter.

re•sign /rɪˈzaɪn/ verb -signs; -signed; -sign•ing : to give up (a job or position) in a formal or official way [+ obj] The senator was forced to resign his position. [no obj] The newspaper's editor resigned after the scandal. ▪ He resigned from his job as principal of the school.
resign yourself : to make yourself accept something that is bad or that cannot be changed — usually + to ▪ We resigned ourselves to the fact that we were going to lose the game. ▪ You don't have to resign yourself to doing a job that you don't enjoy. — see also resigned to at RESIGNED

res•ig•na•tion /ˌrɛzɪgˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : an act of giving up a job or position in a formal or official way [count] The chairman accepted their resignations. [noncount] a letter of resignation
2 [count] : a letter which states that a person has given up a job or position ▪ The manager received resignations from three members of the staff.
3 [noncount] : the feeling that something unpleasant is going to happen and cannot be changed ▪ We accepted the news with resignation. ▪ a sigh of resignation resigned adj, always used before a noun : feeling or showing acceptance that something unpleasant will happen or will not change ▪ She gave a resigned sigh. ▪ "OK, you can go," he said, in a resigned voice.

resigned to ✧ If you are resigned to something, you accept a bad situation that cannot be changed. ▪ She was resigned to a long visit with his mother. ▪ I'm resigned to having to work this weekend. ▪ He was resigned to the fact that an expensive vacation would have to wait.
– re•sign•ed•ly /rɪˈzaɪnədli/ adv ▪ She shook her head and sighed resignedly when he told her the news.

re•sil•ience /rɪˈzɪljəns/ noun [noncount]
1 : the ability to become strong, healthy, or successful again after something bad happens ▪ The rescue workers showed remarkable resilience in dealing with the difficult conditions.
2 : the ability of something to return to its original shape after it has been pulled, stretched, pressed, bent, etc. ▪ the resilience of rubber ▪ Cold temperatures caused the material to lose resilience.

re•sil•ien•cy /rɪˈzɪljənsi/ noun [noncount] : RESILIENCE re•sil•ient /rɪˈzɪljənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : able to become strong, healthy, or successful again after something bad happens ▪ resilient young people ▪ resilient competitors ▪ The local economy is remarkably resilient.
2 : able to return to an original shape after being pulled, stretched, pressed, bent, etc. ▪ a resilient material
– re•sil•ient•ly adv

res•in /ˈrɛzɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count, noncount]
1 : a yellow or brown sticky substance that comes from some trees and that is used to make various products
2 : an artificial substance that is similar to natural resins and that is used to make plastics — compare ROSIN
– res•in•ous /ˈrɛzɪnəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a resinous substance

re•sist /rɪˈzɪst/ verb -sists; -sist•ed; -sist•ing
1 [+ obj] : to fight against (something) : to try to stop or prevent (something) ▪ He was charged with resisting arrest. ▪ Many people resisted [=opposed] the efforts of lawmakers to raise taxes.
2 [+ obj] : to remain strong against the force or effect of (something) : to not be affected or harmed by (something) ▪ These windows can resist very high winds. ▪ The drug will help your body resist infection.
3 : to prevent yourself from doing something that you want to do [+ obj] She couldn't resist telling us what she'd heard. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

He was able to resist the urge to tell her his secret. ▪ It was hard resisting the temptation to open the box. ▪ The offer was hard to resist. [no obj] I know I shouldn't have any more cake, but I can't resist.
– re•sist•er /rɪˈzɪstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ military draft resisters

re•sis•tance /rɪˈzɪstəns/ noun
1 : refusal to accept something new or different [noncount] — often + from ▪ She sensed resistance from some of the staff regarding the changes in policy. — often + to ▪ There was a lot of resistance to the plan when it was first suggested. [singular] They have shown a stubborn resistance to change.
2 [noncount] : effort made to stop or to fight against someone or something ▪ He offered no resistance when he was arrested. [=he did not try to prevent himself from being arrested] ▪ The troops met heavy/stiff resistance as they approached the city. — see also PASSIVE RESISTANCE
3 : the ability to prevent something from having an effect [noncount] The paint shows good weather resistance. — often + to ▪ the body's resistance to disease [singular] Over time the patient/infection could develop a resistance to the drug.
4 [noncount] : a force that slows down a moving object (such as an airplane) by going against the direction in which the object is moving ▪ reducing wind resistance
5 or Resistance [singular] : a secret organization that fights against enemy forces who have gained control of a region, country, etc. ▪ a member of the French Resistance ▪ resistance forces
6 [noncount] technical : the ability of a substance to prevent electricity from passing through it ▪ electrical resistance take/follow the path/line of least resistance : to choose the easiest way to do something instead of trying to choose the best way ▪ She tends to follow the path of least resistance instead of going after what she really wants.

re•sis•tant /rɪˈzɪstənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : opposed to something : wanting to prevent something from happening — usually + to ▪ People are often resistant to change.
2 : not affected or harmed by something ▪ These plants are resistant to cold temperatures. ▪ He became resistant to the medication. — often used in combination ▪ a water-resistant watch

re•sis•tor /rɪˈzɪstə/ noun, pl -tors [count] technical : a device that is used to control the flow of electricity in an electric circuit re•sit /riˈsɪt/ verb re•sits; re•sat /riˈsæt/; re•sit•ting [+ obj] Brit : to take (an examination) again ▪ He has to resit [=retake] the exam he failed.

– re•sit /ˈriːˌsɪt/ noun, pl -sits [count] ▪ He passed the resit.

res•o•lute /ˈrɛzəˌluːt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very determined : having or showing a lot of determination ▪ She is a resolute competitor. ▪ He has remained resolute in his opposition to the bill. ▪ a leader with a stern and resolute manner
– res•o•lute•ly adv ▪ The senator is resolutely opposed to the bill.

res•o•lu•tion /ˌrɛzəˈluːʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [noncount] : the act of finding an answer or solution to a conflict, problem, etc. : the act of resolving something ▪ a court for the resolution of civil disputes ▪ conflict resolution
b [count] : an answer or solution to something ▪ We found a resolution to the dispute.
2 : the ability of a device to show an image clearly and with a lot of detail [count] computer screens with high resolutions [noncount] The monitor has excellent resolution. ▪ a high-resolution copier/monitor/camera
3 [count] : a promise to yourself that you will make a serious effort to do something that you should do ▪ He made a resolution to lose weight. [=he resolved to lose weight] ▪ Her New Year's resolution [=her promise to do something differently in the new year] is to exercise regularly.
4 [noncount] : the quality of being very determined to do something : DETERMINATION ▪ They admired his courage and resolution. [=resolve]
5 [count] : a formal statement that expresses the feelings, wishes, or decision of a group ▪ The assembly passed a resolution calling for the university president to step down.
6 [noncount] : the point in a story at which the main conflict is solved or ended ▪ the resolution of the plot

[1]re•solve /rɪˈzɑːlv/ verb -solves; -solved; -solv•ing
1 [+ obj] : to find an answer or solution to (something) : to settle or solve (something) ▪ The brothers finally resolved their conflict. ▪ The issue of the book's authorship was never resolved. ▪ His speech did nothing to resolve doubts about the company's future. ▪ They haven't been able to resolve their differences.
2 [+ obj] : to make a definite and serious decision to do something ▪ She resolved to quit smoking. ▪ He resolved that he would start dating again.
3 [+ obj] : to make a formal decision about something usually by a vote ▪ The committee resolved to override the veto.
4 formal : to change into separate parts or a different form by usually a gradual process [+ obj] The mixture was resolved into two parts. [no obj] The image eventually resolved into the shape of a person's body.
– re•solv•able /rɪˈzɑːlvəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a resolvable conflict

[2]resolve noun [noncount] : a strong determination to do something ▪ His comments were intended to weaken her resolve but they only served to strengthen it.

resolved /rɪˈzɑːlvd/ adj : feeling strong determination to do something ▪ I was resolved [=determined] to find out the truth.

res•o•nance /ˈrɛzənəns/ noun [noncount]
1 formal : the quality of a sound that stays loud, clear, and deep for a long time ▪ the resonance of the singer's voice
2 formal : a quality that makes something personally meaningful or important to someone ▪ His story didn't have much resonance with the audience.
3 technical : a sound or vibration produced in one object that is caused by the sound or vibration produced in another

res•o•nant /ˈrɛzənənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : producing a loud, clear, deep sound ▪ a resonant church bell ▪ the resonant tones of the piano ▪ He has a deep, resonant voice.
2 : strongly affecting someone especially with a particular quality ▪ resonant images of heroism ▪ His words were resonant with meaning.
– res•o•nant•ly adv

res•o•nate /ˈrɛzəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [no obj]
1 : to continue to produce a loud, clear, deep sound for a long time ▪ The siren resonated throughout the city.
2 : to have particular meaning or importance for someone : to affect or appeal to someone in a personal or emotional way — usually + with ▪ Her speech resonated with voters. [=voters liked and were impressed by her speech]

res•o•na•tor /ˈrɛzəˌneɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a device used to make something (such as a musical instrument) louder

[1]re•sort /rɪˈzoət/ noun, pl -sorts
1 [count] : a place where people go for vacations ▪ a ski/beach/golf resort ▪ a resort hotel
2 [count] : something that you choose for help ▪ "We may have to ask them for more time." "That should be our last resort." [=that should be something we do only if nothing else works] ▪ Our first resort was to go to the police. ▪ The company will only declare bankruptcy as a last/final resort. = (Brit) The company will only declare bankruptcy in the last resort. ▪ a weapon of last resort [=a weapon that is only used if its use cannot be avoided]
3 [noncount] : the act of doing or using something especially because no other choices are possible — usually + to ▪ The police hope to end the standoff without resort to force. [=without using force]

[2]resort verb -sorts; -sort•ed; -sort•ing resort to [phrasal verb] resort to (something) : to do or use (something) especially because no other choices are possible ▪ We want to resolve this crisis without resorting to violence. ▪ He had to resort to asking his parents for money.

re•sound /rɪˈzaʊnd/ verb -sounds; -sound•ed; -sound•ing [no obj]
1 : to become filled with sound — usually + with ▪ The hall resounded with cheers.
2 : to make a loud, deep sound ▪ The organ resounded throughout the church.
3 : to make a strong impression or have a great effect on people ▪ His speech resounded throughout the world.

re•sound•ing /rɪˈzaʊndɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : producing a loud, deep sound that lasts for a long time ▪ a resounding crash
2 : leaving no doubt : very definite ▪ The play was a resounding [=great, huge] success. ▪ a resounding victory ▪ The class answered with a resounding no.
– re•sound•ing•ly adv

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

re•source /ˈriːˌsoəs, Brit rɪˈzɔːs/ noun, pl -sourc•es
1 [count] : something that a country has and can use to increase its wealth ▪ Oil is essentially their only resource. — usually plural ▪ The country has vast mineral resources. ▪ coal, oil, and other natural resources
2 [plural] : a supply of something (such as money) that someone has and can use when it is needed ▪ Their financial resources are severely limited. [=they do not have much money] ▪ If we pool our resources [=if we combine our money] we can buy the car. — see also HUMAN RESOURCES
3 [count] : a place or thing that provides something useful ▪ The library/Internet is a useful resource [=source] for information. ▪ The computer laboratory is an essential resource for students.
4 a [count] : an ability or quality that allows you to do the things that are necessary — usually plural ▪ Does he have the intellectual resources to do the job? ▪ During his illness she discovered vast inner resources that gave her the strength she needed. b [noncount] formal : an ability to deal with and find solutions for problems ▪ She is a worker of tremendous resource. [=resourcefulness]

re•source•ful /rɪˈsoəsfəl, Brit rɪˈzɔːsfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to deal well with new or difficult situations and to find solutions to problems ▪ a resourceful leader
– re•source•ful•ly adv ▪ She handled the problem very resourcefully. – re•source•ful•ness noun [noncount]

[1]re•spect /rɪˈspɛkt/ noun, pl -spects
1 : a feeling of admiring someone or something that is good, valuable, important, etc. [noncount] He has earned/gained/won their respect. ▪ The soldier saluted as a sign of respect. ▪ Despite our differences, I have enormous respect for him. ▪ She has a lot of respect for his opinion. [=she values his opinion very highly] [singular] I have a great respect for his accomplishments.
2 : a feeling or understanding that someone or something is important, serious, etc., and should be treated in an appropriate way [noncount] She showed no respect [=consideration] for my feelings. ▪ I expect to be treated with respect. ▪ He has no respect for the rules. [=he does not obey/follow the rules; he disregards the rules] [count] He has a healthy respect for the dangers of the work he does. [=he is aware of the dangers and does the work in a careful way]
3 [count] : a particular way of thinking about or looking at something ▪ The show was perfect in all respects. [=in every way] ▪ Your theory makes sense in one respect. ▪ In many respects [=in many ways], her life has been a hard one.
4 respects [plural] : a polite greeting or expression of kind feelings ▪ Please give/send my respects to your parents. [=please tell your parents I said hello] ▪ I paid my respects [=offered my condolences] to the family at the funeral. ▪ We went to his funeral to pay our last/final respects.
with (all) (due) respect — used as a polite or formal way of saying that you disagree with someone ▪ I have to say, with all respect, that I don't think your solution will work. ▪ With all due respect, I must disagree with your conclusions.
with respect to also in respect to or chiefly Brit in respect of formal : about or concerning (something or someone) : in relation to (something or someone) ▪ There is a question with respect to your earlier comments. ▪ There have been problems with respect to transferring the data from the old computer to the new one.

[2]respect verb -spects; -spect•ed; -spec•ting [+ obj]
1 : to feel admiration for (someone or something) : to regard (someone or something) as being worthy of admiration because of good qualities ▪ The students respect the principal for his honesty. ▪ I respect what she has accomplished.
2 : to act in a way which shows that you are aware of (someone's rights, wishes, etc.) ▪ He respected my wish for quiet. [=he was quiet because he knew that was what I wanted] ▪ Please respect my privacy. ▪ You must learn to respect other people's property.
3 a : to treat or deal with (something that is good or valuable) in a proper way ▪ We need to respect the environment. b : do what is required by (a law, rule, etc.) ▪ She always respects [=observes] the speed limit.
as respects formal : about or concerning (something) : with respect to (something) ▪ She is very liberal as respects human rights.
– re•spect•er /rɪˈspɛktə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He wants to be seen as a respecter of the environment. ▪ (formal) The law is no respecter of persons. [=the law applies to all people in the same way]

re•spect•able /rɪˈspɛktəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : considered to be good, correct, or acceptable : decent or correct in character, behavior, or appearance ▪ respectable people ▪ She comes from a very respectable family. ▪ wearing respectable clothes
2 : fairly good ▪ She makes a respectable [=decent] salary. ▪ Her grades were respectable [=satisfactory] but not great.
– re•spect•abil•i•ty /rɪˌspɛktəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] ▪ He has an air of respectability about him. – re•spect•ably /rɪˈspɛktəbliː/ adv ▪ He was respectably dressed.

respected adj [more ~; most ~] : admired by many people ▪ She is a highly respected professor. ▪ He is one of the most respected people in the film industry.

re•spect•ful /rɪˈspɛktfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or having respect ▪ a respectful manner — often + of ▪ Children should be respectful of their elders.
– re•spect•ful•ly /rɪˈspɛktfəliː/ adv ▪ He respectfully removed his hat when he entered the building. – re•spect•ful•ness noun [noncount] re•spect•ing /rɪˈspɛktɪŋ/ prep, formal : about or relating to (something) : with respect to (something) ▪ We have heard no information respecting [=concerning, regarding] the path of the storm.

re•spec•tive /rɪˈspɛktɪv/ adj : belonging or relating to each one of the people or things that have been mentioned ▪ The brother and sister returned to their respective [=own] bedrooms. ▪ They are all very successful in their respective [=individual] fields.
– re•spec•tive•ly /rɪˈspɛktɪvliː/ adv ▪ The boy and girl are 12 and 13 years old respectively. [=the boy is 12 and the girl is 13]

res•pi•ra•tion /ˌrɛspəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] medical : the act or process of breathing ▪ The doctor checked his heartbeat and respiration. — see also ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

res•pi•ra•tor /ˈrɛspəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a device that you wear over your mouth and nose so that you can breathe when there is a lot of dust, smoke, etc., in the air
2 medical : a device that helps people to breathe when they are not able to breathe naturally ▪ The doctors put her on a respirator.

re•spi•ra•to•ry /ˈrɛspərəˌtoriː, Brit rɪˈspɪrətriː/ adj, medical : of or relating to breathing or the organs of the body that are used in breathing ▪ respiratory diseases/illnesses/infections ▪ the respiratory system [=the lungs or other organs used in respiration]

re•spire /rɪˈspajə/ verb -spires; -spired; -spir•ing [no obj] technical : BREATHE 1 ▪ Fish use their gills to respire.

re•spite /ˈrɛspɪt, Brit ˈrɛˌspaɪt/ noun, pl -spites : a short period of time when you are able to stop doing something that is difficult or unpleasant or when something difficult or unpleasant stops or is delayed [count] — usually singular ▪ The weekend provided a nice respite from the pressures of her job. ▪ a temporary respite [noncount] The bad weather has continued without respite.

re•splen•dent /rɪˈsplɛndənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : very bright and attractive ▪ The fields were resplendent with flowers. ▪ She looked resplendent in her green evening gown. ▪ a bird with resplendent yellow feathers
– re•splen•dent•ly adv

re•spond /rɪˈspɑːnd/ verb -sponds; -spond•ed; -spond•ing
1 : to say or write something as an answer to a question or request : REPLY [no obj] She hasn't yet responded to my letter. ▪ My mother responded to my request with a firm no. ▪ The teacher asked a question, but the student didn't respond. [+ obj] "Are you ready?" he asked. "No," she responded. ▪ When I asked him what he was doing, he responded that it was none of my business.
2 [no obj] : to do something as a reaction to something that has happened or been done ▪ Police quickly responded to the call for help. ▪ She responded to their decision by threatening to quit. : to have a particular reaction to something ▪ He doesn't respond [=react] well to criticism. ▪ Most readers responded favorably to the book. [=most readers liked the book]
3 [no obj] : to have a good or desired reaction to something ▪ The patient is responding to the treatment. [=the patient is getting better because of the treatment]

re•spon•dent /rɪˈspɑːndənt/ noun, pl -dents [count] : a person who gives a response or answer to a question that is asked especially as part of a survey ▪ A majority of respondents said they disagreed with the mayor's plan.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

re•sponse /rɪˈspɑːns/ noun, pl -spons•es
1 : something that is said or written as a reply to something [count] He got a response to his letter. [noncount] I am writing in response to your letter of July 17. ▪ She asked him but he gave/made no response. [=he did not answer]
2 : something that is done as a reaction to something else [count] When I told him my plan, I wasn't expecting such an enthusiastic response. ▪ Her response to their decision was to threaten to quit her job. ▪ The patient suffered an adverse response to the medication. [=the patient became worse after taking the medication] [noncount] When you knocked on the door, was there any response?

re•spon•si•bil•i•ty /rɪˌspɑːnsəˈbɪləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the state of being the person who caused something to happen ▪ He accepted full responsibility for the accident. [=he admitted that the accident was his fault] ▪ The boys denied any responsibility for the damage to the fence. ▪ A terrorist group has claimed responsibility for the bombing.
2 a : a duty or task that you are required or expected to do [count] The janitor has many responsibilities. ▪ Mowing the lawn is your responsibility. ▪ She has to deal with a lot of family and work responsibilities. ▪ It is your responsibility to give the company two weeks notice if you decide to leave. ▪ A teacher's most important responsibility is to help her students. = A teacher's first responsibility is to/toward her students. [noncount] In her new position, she will have much more responsibility. b [count] : something that you should do because it is morally right, legally required, etc. ▪ We have a responsibility to protect the environment. ▪ The government's responsibility is to serve the public.
3 [noncount] : the state of having the job or duty of dealing with and taking care of something or someone ▪ The principal has responsibility for 450 students and a staff of 35.
4 [noncount] : the quality of a person who can be trusted to do what is expected, required, etc. ▪ She is completely lacking in responsibility. ▪ The boy developed a sense of responsibility with his first job.
on your own responsibility ✧ To do something on your own responsibility is to do it without being told to and to accept the blame if it has a bad result. ▪ He changed the schedule on his own responsibility.

re•spon•si•ble /rɪˈspɑːnsəbəl/ adj
1 — used to describe the person or thing that causes something to happen ▪ Those responsible will be punished/rewarded. — usually + for ▪ The technicians found the glitch that was responsible for [=that caused] the computer crash. ▪ Police caught the youths responsible for the vandalism. ▪ Who was responsible for the accident? ▪ She's responsible for most of the improvements here in recent months. ▪ He holds me responsible for [=blames me for] the project's failure.
2 : having the job or duty of dealing with or taking care of something or someone — + for ▪ She is responsible for the company's publicity. ▪ Each child is responsible for his or her own belongings. ▪ The committee is responsible for organizing the dance. ▪ You are responsible for mowing the lawn. ▪ Who was responsible for choosing this location? ▪ Parents are responsible for their own children.
3 [more ~; most ~] : able to be trusted to do what is right or to do the things that are expected or required ▪ She is a very responsible worker. ▪ Is he responsible enough to have a car? — opposite IRRESPONSIBLE
4 [more ~; most ~] : involving important duties, decisions, etc., that you are trusted to do ▪ She got a higher salary and a more responsible position at the company.
5 : working under the direction and authority of a particular person — + to ▪ I am responsible to her, and she is directly responsible to the company president.
– re•spon•si•bly /rɪˈspɑːnsəbli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ Our leaders must act responsibly.

re•spon•sive /rɪˈspɑːnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : reacting in a desired or positive way ▪ The patient was not responsive to the treatment. ▪ They weren't very responsive to my suggestion. [=they did not respond very favorably to my suggestion]
2 : quick to react or respond ▪ The store is very responsive to the needs of its customers. ▪ a car with responsive steering [=steering that works quickly when you move the steering wheel]
– re•spon•sive•ly adv – re•spon•sive•ness noun [noncount]

[1]rest /ˈrɛst/ noun
the rest* : the part that is left when other people or things are gone, used, etc. ▪ You bring these bags in, and I'll bring the rest. [=the remainder] ▪ Thanks for your help. I can handle the rest. ▪ Linda, Joan, Donna, and the rest — often + of ▪ He would regret that decision for the rest of his life. ▪ She went shopping and spent the rest of her money on dinner. ▪ We finished the rest of the cake. ▪ He worked in the morning and relaxed (for) the rest of the day.
– compare [2]REST

[2]rest noun, pl rests
1 : a period of time in which you relax, sleep, or do nothing after you have been active or doing work [noncount] a day of rest ▪ I was ordered to get some rest. ▪ None of us had/got much rest last night. [count] — usually singular ▪ I need a rest. [=break] ▪ The coach canceled practice to give his team a rest. ▪ a 10-minute rest period — see also BED REST
2 [noncount] : a state in which there is no motion ▪ an object in a state of rest
3 [count] : an object that is designed to support or hold something ▪ a knife/spoon rest ▪ the violin's chin rest — see also ARMREST, FOOTREST, HEADREST
4 [count] a : a period of silence between musical notes b : a symbol in music that shows a period of silence between notes at rest* 1 : not moving ▪ The object is at rest. [=motionless] 2 : no longer living : DEAD ▪ After years of suffering, she is finally at rest. 3 : in a relaxed and comfortable state ▪ You can set/put your mind at rest. [=you can relax and stop worrying] come to rest* : to stop moving ▪ The ball came to rest against the curb. ▪ Her eyes came to rest on a mysterious man. [=she stopped looking around and looked at the mysterious man] give it a rest informal — used to tell someone to stop talking about something ▪ Oh, give it a rest! I don't want to hear it.
give (something) a rest informal : to stop doing or using (something) ▪ Hey, give the TV remote a rest and go outside to play!
lay (someone) to rest* : to bury (someone who has died) — usually used as (be) laid to rest ▪ She was laid to rest in the church's graveyard.
lay/put to rest (something) or lay/put (something) to rest : to make someone stop thinking about or believing (something) by showing it is not true ▪ I want to lay/put to rest any lingering doubts about my decision.
– compare [1]REST

[3]rest verb rests; rest•ed; rest•ing
1 [no obj] : to stop doing work or an activity ▪ We will not rest until we discover the truth. : to spend time relaxing, sleeping, or doing nothing after you have been active or doing work ▪ The workers were resting in the shade. ▪ They expect to rest [=relax] while on vacation. ▪ He is resting comfortably after his ordeal. ▪ She went to her room to rest for a while.
2 [+ obj] a : to give rest to (someone) ▪ The coach canceled practice to rest his team. ▪ May God rest her soul. [=I pray that God will give her soul peace now that she has died] b : to stop using (something) so that it can become strong again ▪ He rested his horse before continuing the journey. ▪ You should rest your eyes after all that reading. ▪ The pitcher needs to rest his arm.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [no obj] : to sit or lie on something ▪ The spoon was resting in the cup. ▪ The house rests on a concrete foundation. — often used figuratively ▪ The real authority rests with the committee. ▪ The blame rests (solely) on/with me. [=I am to blame; I am responsible for what happened] b [+ obj] : to place (something) on or against something else ▪ He rested his hand on her shoulder. ▪ She rested her bike against a tree. ▪ He rested his chin in his hands. ▪ Don't rest your elbows on the table.
4 [no obj] : to lie in a grave after death ▪ My grandfather rests [=is buried] next to my grandmother. ▪ May she rest in peace. [=may she have peace in her death]
5 : to stop presenting evidence in a legal case [no obj] The defense rests, Your Honor. [+ obj] The defense rested its case. — see also I rest my case at [1]CASE
let (something) rest* : to stop mentioning or talking about (something) ▪ You just won't let this rest, will you? ▪ They told them their decision, but he won't let the matter rest.
rest easy* : to stop worrying about something : to not worry about something ▪ I can rest easy knowing that he will be in charge.
rest on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 *rest on/upon (someone or something) a : to depend or rely on (someone or something) ▪ All our hopes rested on one man. b : to stop moving and look at (someone or something) ▪ His eyes/gaze rested on the letter. 2 rest on/upon (something) : to be based on (something) ▪ His theory rested upon two important pieces of evidence.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

rest on your laurels see LAUREL rest with [phrasal verb] rest with (someone or something) : to be the responsibility of (someone or something) ▪ The final decision rests with you.

rest area noun, pl ~ -eas [count] US : an area next to a highway where people can stop to rest, use the bathroom, get food, etc. — called also (US) rest stop

re•start /riˈstɑət/ verb -starts; -start•ed; -start•ing
1 : to make (something) start again after it has stopped [+ obj] Restart your computer. ▪ restart the video game ▪ They plan to restart negotiations next week. [no obj] After you restart [=restart your computer], go to the main menu.
2 [no obj] : to start again after stopping ▪ The tournament will restart tomorrow. ▪ The tractor won't restart.
– restart noun, pl -starts [count] ▪ a computer restart

re•state /riˈsteɪt/ verb -states; -stat•ed; -stat•ing [+ obj] : to say (something) again or in a different way especially to make the meaning clearer ▪ She needs to restate her arguments.
– re•state•ment /riˈsteɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ a restatement of familiar ideas

res•tau•rant /ˈrɛstəˌrɑːnt/ noun, pl -rants [count] : a place where you can buy and eat a meal ▪ a Mexican/Italian/Chinese restaurant [=a restaurant that serves Mexican/Italian/Chinese food] restaurant car noun, pl ~ cars [count] chiefly Brit : DINING CAR

res•tau•ra•teur /ˌrɛstərəˈtə/ also res•tau•ran•teur /ˌrɛstəˌrɑːnˈtə/ noun, pl -teurs [count] : a person who owns or manages a restaurant rest•ed /ˈrɛstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having had enough rest or sleep ▪ They were (well) rested after a long vacation. ▪ She appears rested and sharp. ▪ I want to be rested for the exam.

rest•ful /ˈrɛstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : peaceful and quiet in a way that makes you relax ▪ It's restful by the stream. ▪ a restful weekend
– rest•ful•ly adv

rest home noun, pl ~ homes [count] : a place where people who are old or who are unable to take care of themselves can live and be taken care of : NURSING HOME rest•ing /ˈrɛstɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, technical : taken or measured when you are relaxed and not moving much ▪ your resting heart rate ▪ the resting metabolic rate resting place noun, pl ~ places [count]

1 : a place where you can stop and rest ▪ We found a good resting place by the side of the trail.
2 : a place where someone is buried ▪ This is her final/last resting place.
3 : a place where something has been put ▪ The monument was moved to a new resting place.

res•ti•tu•tion /ˌrɛstəˈtuːʃən, Brit ˌrɛstəˈtjuːʃən/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : the act of returning something that was lost or stolen to its owner ▪ the restitution of her stolen property
2 : payment that is made to someone for damage, trouble, etc. ▪ He was ordered to make restitution to the victim.

res•tive /ˈrɛstɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : feeling bored or impatient while waiting for something to happen or change ▪ a restive audience ▪ The audience grew/became restive.
– res•tive•ly adv – res•tive•ness noun [noncount] rest•less /ˈrɛstləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : feeling nervous or bored and tending to move around a lot : not relaxed or calm ▪ restless children who can't sit still ▪ The audience was becoming restless.
2 : unhappy about a situation and wanting change ▪ He started to feel restless and discontent in his job.
3 : having little or no rest or sleep ▪ a restless night
– rest•less•ly adv ▪ They searched restlessly for something new to do. ▪ He tossed restlessly in bed. – rest•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the restlessness of the crowd re•stock /riˈstɑːk/ verb -stocks; -stocked; -stock•ing [+ obj] : to provide a new supply of something to replace what has been used, sold, taken, etc. ▪ We restocked the merchandise after the store closed. ▪ The shelves need to be restocked. ▪ The pond is restocked with trout every spring.

res•to•ra•tion /ˌrɛstəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act or process of returning something to its original condition by repairing it, cleaning it, etc. [noncount] The building is undergoing restoration. [count] — often + of ▪ They have undertaken a careful restoration of the building.
2 somewhat formal : the act of bringing back something that existed before — usually + of [noncount] the restoration of peace after war ▪ the restoration of law and order by the police [count] The town called for a restoration of the law.
3 [count, noncount] somewhat formal : the act of returning something that was stolen or taken — often + of ▪ (a) restoration of stolen property
4 the Restoration : the period in 17th-century English history when Charles II was king after a long period of no king or queen on the throne ▪ The play was written during the Restoration. — often used as Restoration before another noun ▪ a Restoration play

[1]re•stor•ative /rɪˈstorətɪv/ adj, formal : having the ability to make a person feel strong or healthy again ▪ the restorative powers of rest ▪ a restorative herb

[2]restorative noun, pl -atives [count] formal : something that makes a person feel strong or healthy again ▪ Sleep is a powerful restorative.

re•store /rɪˈstoə/ verb -stores; -stored; -stor•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give back (someone or something that was lost or taken) : to return (someone or something) — often + to ▪ The police restored the stolen purse to its owner. ▪ The police restored the lost child to her parents.
2 : to put or bring (something) back into existence or use ▪ Surgery will restore his hearing. [=surgery will let him hear again] ▪ The police restored law and order. ▪ The team's victory has restored a sense of pride to the community. [=the team's victory has made the community feel proud again] ▪ The government needs to restore confidence in the economy.
3 : to return (something) to an earlier or original condition by repairing it, cleaning it, etc. ▪ The crew is trying to restore the old house (to its original condition). ▪ He restores old paintings. ▪ an antique car that is being carefully restored ▪ newly/recently restored churches
4 a : to bring (someone) back to an earlier and better condition — usually + to ▪ Her care restored the child to health. b : to put (someone) back in a position — usually + to ▪ His allies restored the king to the throne.
– re•stor•able /rɪˈstorəbəl/ adj ▪ The car is in restorable condition. – re•stor•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an art restorer ▪ a restorer of antique furniture

re•strain /rɪˈstreɪn/ verb -strains; -strained; -strain•ing [+ obj]
1 : to prevent (a person or animal) from doing something ▪ He could not restrain the dog from attacking. ▪ I wanted to have another serving, but I somehow restrained myself. = I somehow restrained myself from having another serving. ▪ He could restrain himself no longer.
2 : to prevent (a person or animal) from moving by using physical force ▪ Hospital orderlies needed to restrain the patient. ▪ He was restrained and placed in a holding cell.
3 : to keep (something) under control ▪ He could barely restrain his anger. ▪ The manufacturer took measures to restrain costs.

re•strained /rɪˈstreɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : showing careful self-control ▪ She was admired for her restrained behavior. ▪ a restrained smile restraining order noun, pl ~ -ders [count] US, law : a legal order saying that someone is not allowed to go near a particular person ▪ The judge issued a restraining order. — often + against ▪ She took out a restraining order against her former husband.
2 : not too colorful or fancy ▪ a restrained style of architecture ▪ The room was decorated with restrained colors.

re•straint /rɪˈstreɪnt/ noun, pl -straints
1 [count] somewhat formal : a way of limiting, controlling, or stopping something — usually plural; often + on ▪ The government has placed/put/imposed restraints on imports.
2 [count] formal : a device that limits a person's movement ▪ Make sure the child safety restraint is in place. ▪ The prisoner was placed in restraints.
3 [noncount] : control over your emotions or behavior ▪ His angry response showed a lack of restraint. ▪ The government has acted with restraint in dealing with this crisis. ▪ You should exercise restraint.
4 [noncount] formal : physical force that prevents someone from moving ▪ (US) She was charged with unlawful restraint. ▪ He was placed under restraint. [=he was restrained]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

re•strict /rɪˈstrɪkt/ verb -stricts; -strict•ed; -strict•ing [+ obj]
1 : to limit the amount or range of (something) ▪ Her eye problem restricts her reading. ▪ She was told to restrict the amount of salt she uses. ▪ They want to restrict access to the beach. [=they want to limit who can use the beach] ▪ The new law restricts smoking in public places. ▪ They have accused the government of trying to restrict free speech. — often used as (be) restricted ▪ Visits are restricted to 30 minutes. [=visits cannot be longer than 30 minutes] ▪ The damage from the fire was restricted to the rear of the building. [=the rear of the building was the only part damaged by the fire]
2 : to prevent (someone) from doing something ▪ They say the government is trying to restrict them from speaking out.
3 : to allow (someone) to only have or do a particular thing — usually + to ▪ The doctor restricted her to a low-fat diet. [=she was only allowed to eat a low-fat diet] ▪ He restricts himself to one cup of coffee a day. [=he allows himself to have only one cup of coffee a day]

re•strict•ed /rɪˈstrɪktəd/ adj
1 : having a set limit ▪ Only a restricted [=limited] number of students will be allowed in the class.
2 [more ~; most ~] : having definite rules about what or who is allowed and not allowed ▪ He is on a severely/very restricted diet. ▪ The beach has restricted access. [=only certain people can go on the beach]
3 : allowing use or entry by only certain people ▪ a restricted country club ▪ You have entered a restricted area.
4 : kept secret from all but a few people : CLASSIFIED ▪ a restricted document ▪ That information is restricted.

re•stric•tion /rɪˈstrɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a law or rule that limits or controls something ▪ Building in that area came with some restrictions. ▪ travel restrictions ▪ They placed/imposed restrictions on smoking indoors. ▪ They will lift/remove export restrictions.
2 [noncount] : the act of limiting or controlling something ▪ illegal restriction of free speech

re•stric•tive /rɪˈstrɪktɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : limiting or controlling someone or something ▪ restrictive laws/regulations ▪ a very restrictive diet
2 grammar, of a word or group of words : giving information about a person or thing that is needed to understand which person or thing is meant ▪ In the sentence "The book that you ordered is out of print," "that you ordered" is a restrictive clause. — compare NONRESTRICTIVE rest•room /ˈrɛstˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] US : a room in a public place with a sink and toilet : BATHROOM 2 ▪ a public restroom re•struc•ture /riˈstrʌktʃɚ/ verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj] : to change the basic organization or structure of (something) ▪ You should restructure this sentence to make its meaning clearer. ▪ The college is restructuring its Humanities Department.

– restructuring noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] ▪ A restructuring of the health-care system is needed.

rest stop noun, pl ~ stops [count] US : REST AREA

[1]re•sult /rɪˈzʌlt/ noun, pl -sults
1 : something that is caused by something else that happened or was done before [count] The book is the result of years of hard work and dedication. ▪ The end/final result of his work was a classic American novel. ▪ As a result of [=because of] the accident, he was out of work for three months. ▪ He sprained his wrist and, as a result [=because of this], he will not be playing in the tournament. ▪ Bad weather caused several delays with the result that the work was not completed on time. [=the work was not completed on time because bad weather caused delays] [noncount] The investigation continued without result.
2 [count] a : the final score or a description of who won and lost in a game, election, etc. ▪ What was the result of last night's game? [=who won last night's game?] — often plural ▪ Election results will be posted later. ▪ The play-off roster depends on the results of tonight's game. b Brit, informal : a win especially in a soccer match — usually singular ▪ After several drawn matches, we finally got a result. [=we finally won]
3 [count] Brit : the grade received on a test or examination — usually plural ▪ Have you gotten your exam results yet?
4 [count] : information that you get from a scientific or medical test ▪ My blood test result was fine.
5 results [plural] : something you want that is achieved successfully ▪ We are waiting for the experiment to produce results. ▪ This method gets results. [=this method is effective and successful]

[2]result verb -sults; -sult•ed; -sult•ing [no obj] : to happen because of something else that happened or was done before : to be caused by something else ▪ If you take this drug, side effects may result. — usually + from ▪ The fire resulted from an explosion.
result in [phrasal verb] result in (something) : to cause (something) to happen ▪ The disease resulted in his death. : to produce (something) as a result ▪ The trial resulted in an acquittal.
– resulting adj, always used before a noun ▪ the accident and his resulting death re•sul•tant /rɪˈzʌltn̩t/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : coming from or caused by something else ▪ She deserves credit for the increase in sales and the resultant increase in profit.

re•sume /rɪˈzuːm, Brit rɪˈzjuːm/ verb -sumes; -sumed; -sum•ing formal
1 : to begin again after stopping [no obj] The game resumed after the rain stopped. ▪ Negotiations have resumed. [+ obj] After the rain stopped, the teams resumed play. ▪ She sat down and resumed her work.
2 [+ obj] : to take (a seat, place, position, etc.) again : to go back to (something) ▪ He shook his visitor's hand and resumed his seat. ▪ I resumed my place at the podium. ▪ She will be resuming her position at the company.

ré•su•mé or re•su•me also re•su•mé /ˈrɛzəˌmeɪ, Brit ˈrɛzjʊˌmeɪ/ noun, pl -més or -mes [count]
1 US a : a short document describing your education, work history, etc., that you give an employer when you are applying for a job ▪ If you would like to be considered for the job, please submit your résumé. — called also (chiefly Brit) curriculum vitae b : a list of achievements ▪ His musical résumé includes performances at Carnegie Hall, a stint with the New York Philharmonic, and two Grammys.
2 formal : a short description of things that have happened : SUMMARY ▪ a brief résumé of the news re•sump•tion /rɪˈzʌmpʃən/ noun, formal : an act of starting something again after it has stopped : an act of resuming something — usually + of [singular] The rain has stopped, but we're still waiting for the resumption of the game. [noncount] Resumption of peace talks is expected soon.

re•sur•face /riˈsɚfəs/ verb -fac•es; -faced; -fac•ing
1 [no obj] : to rise to the surface again after being underwater or underground ▪ The submarine resurfaced.
2 [no obj] : to suddenly be found or appear again ▪ A few of the writer's journals have resurfaced. ▪ His resentment toward her resurfaced.
3 [+ obj] : to put a new surface on (something) : to refinish or repair the surface of (something) ▪ He resurfaced the table. ▪ The road needs to be resurfaced.

re•sur•gence /rɪˈsɚʤəns/ noun : a growth or increase that occurs after a period without growth or increase [singular] a resurgence of interest/popularity [noncount] There has been some resurgence in economic activity recently.

re•sur•gent /rɪˈsɚʤənt/ adj, formal : becoming popular, active, or successful again after a period of being less popular, active, or successful ▪ a resurgent stock market ▪ a resurgent politician

res•ur•rect /ˌrɛzəˈrɛkt/ verb -rects; -rect•ed; -rect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to bring (a dead person) back to life ▪ The story is about a scientist who claimed that he could resurrect the dead.
2 : to cause (something that had ended or been forgotten or lost) to exist again, to be used again, etc. ▪ He is trying to resurrect his acting career. ▪ an old government program that is being resurrected ▪ Her reputation has been resurrected. [=restored]

res•ur•rec•tion /ˌrɛzəˈrɛkʃən/ noun
1 in Christianity a *the Resurrection : the event told about in the Bible in which Jesus Christ returned to life after his death b *the resurrection or the Resurrection : the event told about in the Bible in which dead people will be brought back to life before the day of final judgment
2 [singular] : the act of causing something that had ended or been forgotten or lost to exist again, to be used again, etc. ▪ He was enjoying the resurrection of his career. ▪ a resurrection of an old theory

re•sus•ci•tate /rɪˈsʌsəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] : to bring (someone who is unconscious, not breathing, or close to death) back to a conscious or active state

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

again ▪ The patient stopped breathing but doctors were able to resuscitate him. — often used figuratively ▪ He is trying to resuscitate his political career.
– re•sus•ci•ta•tion /rɪˌsʌsəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The patient stopped breathing and required emergency resuscitation. — see also CARDIOPULMONARY RESUSCITATION, MOUTH-TO-MOUTH RESUSCITATION

ret. or Ret. abbr retired ▪ General Smith, U.S. Army (Ret.)

[1]retail /ˈriːˌteɪl/ noun [noncount] : the business of selling things directly to customers for their own use ▪ She has a job in retail. — compare WHOLESALE

[2]retail adj : relating to the business of selling things directly to customers for their own use ▪ a retail establishment/shop/store ▪ the manufacturer's suggested retail price [=the price of something when it is sold to the final customer] ▪ Is that price retail or wholesale?

[3]retail adv : in a store that sells things directly to customers for their own use : from a retailer ▪ You usually have to pay more if you buy something retail than if you buy it wholesale. ▪ The product sells retail for about $100.

[4]re•tail verb -tails; -tailed; -tail•ing
1 [+ obj] : to sell (something) to customers for their own use ▪ We retail clothing at the best possible prices.
2 [no obj] : to be sold to the final customer for a specified price ▪ jewelry that retails from $100 — often + at ▪ The item retails at $59.
3 [+ obj] formal : to tell (something) to one person after another : to tell (something) again ▪ retailing [=retelling] gossip re•tail•er /ˈriːˌteɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or business that sells things directly to customers for their own use ▪ The company is a leading retailer of women's clothing.

re•tail•ing /ˈriːˌteɪlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the business of selling things directly to customers for their own use ▪ She works in retailing.

retail park noun, pl ~ parks [count] Brit : a large shopping area that contains many different kinds of stores

retail price index noun
the retail price index Brit : CONSUMER PRICE INDEX

re•tain /rɪˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to continue to have or use (something) : KEEP ▪ A landlord may retain part of your deposit if you break the lease. ▪ They insisted on retaining old customs. ▪ You will retain your rights as a citizen. ▪ The TV show has retained its popularity for many years.
2 : to keep (someone) in a position, job, etc. ▪ The company's goal is to attract and retain good employees. ▪ The team failed to retain him, and he became a free agent.
3 : to pay for the work of (a person or business) ▪ They have decided to retain a firm to conduct a survey. ▪ You may need to retain an attorney.
4 : to keep (something) in your memory especially for a long period of time ▪ I studied French in college, but I haven't retained much of what I learned. ▪ She has a remarkable ability to retain odd facts.
5 : to continue to hold (something, such as heat or moisture) as time passes ▪ Topping the soil with mulch will help it to retain moisture.

re•tain•er /rɪˈteɪnə/ noun, pl -ers
1 : an amount of money that you pay to someone (such as a lawyer) to make sure that you will have that person's services when you need them [count] They paid a retainer to the lawyer. ▪ They have her on a retainer. [noncount] They have/keep the lawyer on retainer.
2 [count] US : a device that you put in your mouth to keep your teeth in the correct position especially after you have had braces
3 [count] old-fashioned : a servant in a wealthy home ▪ a faithful old retainer

retaining wall noun, pl ~ walls [count] : a wall that is built to keep the land behind it from sliding

[1]re•take /riːˈteɪk/ verb -takes; -took /-ˈtʊk/; -tak•en /-ˈteɪkən/; -tak•ing [+ obj] : to take (something) again ▪ They helped their party retake the Senate. ▪ He retook the lead close to the finish line. ▪ We will have to retake the photograph. ▪ Students can retake the test.

[2]re•take /ˈriːˌteɪk/ noun, pl -takes [count]
1 : the act of filming, photographing, or recording something again ▪ The director called for a retake.
2 Brit : an examination that a student takes again after failing or doing poorly the first time re•tal•i•ate /rɪˈtæliˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to do something bad to someone who has hurt you or treated you badly : to get revenge against someone ▪ After the company announced plans to reduce benefits, the union threatened to retaliate by calling for a strike.

– re•tal•i•a•tion /rɪˌtæliˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] They lived under the threat of retaliation. ▪ The union has threatened a strike in retaliation for the company's plans to reduce benefits. [count] a quick retaliation – re•tal•ia•to•ry /rɪˈtælijəˌtori/ adj ▪ retaliatory attacks

[1]re•tard /rɪˈtɑəd/ verb -tards; -tard•ed; -tard•ing [+ obj] formal : to slow down the development or progress of (something) ▪ The chemical will retard the spread of fire. ▪ The problems have retarded the progress of the program.

[2]re•tard /ˈriːˌtɑəd/ noun, pl -tards [count] informal + offensive : a person who has slow mental development; also : a stupid or foolish person re•tar•dant /rɪˈtɑədnt/ adj, always used before a noun, technical : able to slow down the progress or development of something — usually used in combination ▪ flame-retardant fabrics [=fabrics that do not catch fire easily] – retardant noun, pl -dants [count] ▪ a fire retardant

re•tar•da•tion /ˌriːˌtɑəˈdeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 old-fashioned + sometimes offensive : an unusual slowness of mental development ▪ The child suffered severe mental retardation.
2 formal : an act of slowing down the development or progress of something ▪ The chemical induced a retardation of cell growth.

re•tard•ed /rɪˈtɑədəd/ adj, old-fashioned + often offensive : slow or limited in mental development ▪ mentally retarded

retch /ˈrɛʧ/ verb retch•es; retched; retch•ing [no obj] : to vomit or feel as if you are about to vomit ▪ I nearly retched. ▪ The smell made him retch. [=gag] re•tell /riːˈtɛl/ verb -tells; -told /-ˈtoʊld/; -tell•ing [+ obj] : to tell (a story) again especially in a different way ▪ The movie retells the story of Romeo and Juliet.

– retelling noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ The story is a retelling of a Greek legend.

re•ten•tion /rɪˈtɛnʃən/ noun [noncount] formal
1 a : the act of keeping someone or something ▪ the recruitment and retention of good employees ▪ the retention of profits from all sales b : the act of keeping extra liquid, heat, etc., inside the body ▪ pills to offset water retention ▪ the retention of fluid
2 : the ability to keep something ▪ The fabric has good color retention. [=the fabric's colors do not fade]
3 : the ability to remember things easily or for a long time ▪ the retention of things learned in school ▪ They say the herb promotes memory retention.

re•ten•tive /rɪˈtɛntɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having the ability to remember things easily or for a long time ▪ a retentive mind/memory — see also ANAL-RETENTIVE
– re•ten•tive•ness noun [noncount]

re•think /riˈθɪŋk/ verb -thinks; -thought /-ˈθɑːt/; -think•ing : to think carefully about (someone or something) again especially in order to change a choice or decision : RECONSIDER [+ obj] You had better rethink your decision. ▪ The government is rethinking its policy. [no obj] He took a moment to rethink.
– re•think /ˈriːˌθɪŋk/ noun [singular] ▪ The situation calls for a rethink of the government's policy. – rethinking noun [noncount] ▪ The problem demands some careful/serious rethinking.

ret•i•cent /ˈrɛtəsənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not willing to tell people about things ▪ a quiet, reticent [=reserved] person — often + about ▪ He is reticent about discussing his past.
– ret•i•cence /ˈrɛtəsəns/ noun [noncount] ret•i•na /ˈrɛtənə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : the sensitive tissue at the back of the eye that receives images and sends signals to the brain about what is seen – ret•i•nal /ˈrɛtənəl/ adj, technical ▪ the retinal image ▪ a retinal detachment ret•i•nue /ˈrɛtəˌnuː, Brit ˈrɛtəˌnjuː/ noun, pl -nues [count] : a group of helpers, supporters, or followers ▪ the king and his retinue ▪ a pop star traveling with his retinue ▪ a retinue of servants

re•tire /rɪˈtajə/ verb -tires; -tired; -tir•ing
1 a [no obj] : to stop a job or career because you have reached the age when you are not allowed to work anymore or do not need or want to work anymore ▪ I want to be healthy when I retire. ▪ She plans to retire (from her job) in two years. ▪ We plan to retire in/to Florida. = We plan to re- tire and move to Florida. ▪ The boxer retired undefeated. b [+ obj] : to cause (someone, such as a military officer) to end a job or career — usually used as (be) retired ▪ The general was retired with honors.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

2 [no obj] : to stop playing in a game, competition, etc., especially because of injury ▪ She had to retire during the first set because of a muscle strain.
3 [+ obj] : to take (something) out of use, service, or production ▪ The Navy is retiring the old battleship. ▪ The manufacturer plans to retire that car model in a few years. ▪ The team is retiring his jersey number in honor of his great career.
4 [no obj] formal : to move to a different place ▪ He retired to the library to study. ▪ Shall we retire to the parlor?
5 [no obj] literary : to go to bed ▪ She retired for the night.
6 [no obj] formal : to move away from action or danger : RETREAT ▪ The army was forced to retire from the battlefield.
7 [+ obj] baseball : to cause (a batter) to be out ▪ The pitcher retired seven batters in a row. ▪ She was retired on a fly ball to center field. ▪ He struck out Jones to retire the side. [=to end the inning by getting the final out] retired adj : not working anymore : having ended your working or professional career ▪ elderly retired people ▪ She's a retired teacher.

re•tir•ee /rɪˌtaɪˈriː/ noun, pl -ees [count] US : someone who has permanently stopped working in a job or profession : a person who has retired ▪ a group of elderly retirees

[1]re•tire•ment /rɪˈtajəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 a [count] : the act of ending your working or professional career : the act of retiring ▪ She decided to take an early retirement. ▪ Many fans were surprised by the champion's retirement. ▪ The staff is smaller because of several retirements.
b [noncount] : the state of being retired ▪ I'm looking forward to retirement. ▪ He is ready for retirement. ▪ He came out of retirement to play baseball again.
2 : the period after you have permanently stopped your job or profession [noncount] She has remained very active during retirement. [singular] The staff all wished her a long and happy retirement.
3 [noncount] US : the age at which a person usually retires ▪ She reaches retirement [=(more commonly) retirement age] next May.
4 [noncount] US : money that you receive from a savings plan or pension once you retire from a job or profession ▪ We can't live on his retirement alone.

[2]retirement adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or designed for people who are retired ▪ a retirement community [=a place for people who are retired] ▪ retirement benefits/age retirement home noun, pl ~ homes [count] : a place where retired people can live and sometimes be taken care of retirement plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] US : a system for saving money for use during your retirement ▪ My employer offers a good retirement plan.

retiring adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : quiet and shy ▪ a shy, retiring young woman
2 — used to describe a person who will be retiring from a job or profession soon ▪ A banquet was held to honor the retiring senator.

re•tool /riˈtuːl/ verb -tools; -tooled; -tool•ing
1 [+ obj] : to change or replace the tools or machines in (a factory, workshop, etc.) ▪ The factory has been retooled.
2 US : to make changes to (something) in order to improve it [+ obj] The company is retooling its sales strategies. [no obj] The company is retooling for the future.

[1]re•tort /rɪˈtoɚt/ verb -torts; -tort•ed; -tort•ing [+ obj] : to reply to something in a quick and often angry way ▪ "That's not true!" she retorted. ▪ She retorted angrily that it wasn't true.

[2]retort noun, pl -torts [count] : a quick and often angry reply ▪ He hurled a retort at his accuser. ▪ She made a clever retort.

re•touch /riˈtʌʧ/ verb -touch•es; -touched; -touch•ing [+ obj] : to make small changes to (something, such as a photograph) in order to improve the way it looks ▪ The photo had been retouched to remove the wrinkles around his eyes. ▪ a retouched photograph – retouching noun [noncount] ▪ They did a lot of retouching to her picture.

re•trace /riˈtreɪs/ verb -trac•es; -traced; -trac•ing [+ obj]
1 : to go back along the same course, path, etc., that you or someone else has taken earlier ▪ retrace a path/route ▪ The crew will attempt to retrace the last voyage of Captain Cook. ▪ He carefully retraced his steps/footsteps back to the road.
2 : to find out about and describe (someone's past movements or actions) ▪ Her biographer carefully retraced her childhood. ▪ The police are attempting to retrace his movements on the night of the robbery.

re•tract /rɪˈtrækt/ verb -tracts; -tract•ed; -tract•ing
1 : to pull (something) back into something larger that usually covers it [+ obj] A cat can retract its claws. ▪ The pilot retracted the plane's landing gear. [no obj] The plane's landing gear failed to retract.
2 [+ obj] : to say that something you said or wrote is not true or correct ▪ The newspaper retracted [=withdrew] the story. ▪ She was forced to retract [=take back] her statement.
3 [+ obj] formal : to take back (something, such as an offer or promise) ▪ Their college grants were retracted. ▪ They retracted the job offer.
– re•tract•able /rɪˈtræktəbəl/ adj ▪ the plane's retractable landing gear ▪ The stadium's roof is retractable.

re•trac•tion /rɪˈtrækʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal
1 [count] : a statement saying that something you said or wrote at an earlier time is not true or correct ▪ His charges were false, and he was forced to make/issue a retraction.
2 [noncount] : the act of moving something back into a larger part that usually covers it : the act of retracting something ▪ the retraction of the plane's landing gear

re•train /riˈtreɪn/ verb -trains; -trained; -train•ing
1 [+ obj] : to teach (someone) new skills : to train (someone) again ▪ The organization retrains people who have lost their jobs.
2 [no obj] : to learn new skills especially for a different job ▪ He is retraining for another job. ▪ He retrained as a mechanic.

re•tread /ˈriːˌtrɛd/ noun, pl -treads [count]
1 : an old tire whose surface has been given a new layer of rubber
2 US, informal + disapproving : something that uses ideas, stories, etc., that have been used before ▪ The show is just another TV sitcom retread.

[1]re•treat /rɪˈtriːt/ noun, pl -treats
1 : movement by soldiers away from an enemy because the enemy is winning or has won a battle [noncount] The forces are now in (full) retreat. [count] The army passed through the town on/during its retreat (from the battlefield). ▪ He sounded/signaled the retreat. [=made the signal telling soldiers to begin a retreat]
2 [count, noncount] : movement away from a place or situation especially because it is dangerous, unpleasant, etc. ▪ Some of her friends were surprised by her retreat from public life following her defeat in the election. ▪ He made/beat a hasty retreat [=he left quickly] when he realized he had entered the wrong office.
3 [count] : the act of changing your opinion or position on something because it is unpopular — usually singular ▪ The mayor was forced to make a retreat from his earlier position.
4 : the act or process of moving away [count] — usually singular ▪ Scientists continue to measure the slow retreat of the glacier. ▪ the retreat of the floodwaters [noncount] Studies show the glaciers are in retreat. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her political influence has been in retreat since the scandal.
5 a [count] : a place that is quiet and private ▪ She went to her mountain retreat for a quiet weekend. ▪ an idyllic/island/isolated retreat b : a trip to a place where you can quietly pray, think, study, etc. [count] We went on a corporate/spiritual retreat. ▪ The church offers retreats several times a year. [noncount] She went on retreat for several weeks last year.

[2]retreat verb -treats; -treat•ed; -treat•ing [no obj]
1 : to move back to get away from danger, attack, etc. ▪ When the enemy attacked, our troops were forced to retreat. ▪ They retreated behind trees for safety.
2 : to move or go away from a place or situation especially because it is dangerous, unpleasant, etc. ▪ He quickly retreated from the room. ▪ After her defeat, she retreated from politics.
3 : to change your opinion or statement about something because it is unpopular — usually + from ▪ The mayor was forced to retreat from his original position.
4 : to move backward ▪ As the temperatures warm, the glaciers begin to retreat. ▪ The floodwaters are retreating.
5 : to go to a place that is quiet and private ▪ They retreated into the next room to talk privately.

re•trench /rɪˈtrɛnʧ/ verb -trench•es; -trenched;

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

-trench•ing [no obj] formal : to change the way things are done in order to spend less money ▪ When the economy slowed, the company was forced to retrench.
– re•trench•ment /rɪˈtrɛnʧmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ The company is going through a (period of) retrenchment.

re•tri•al /riˈtrajəl/ noun, pl -als : a second trial in a court of law in order to make a new judgment on a case that has been judged before [noncount] His case is coming up for retrial. [count] a series of retrials ret•ri•bu•tion /ˌrɛtrəˈbju:ʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : punishment for doing something wrong ▪ The killer acted without fear of retribution. ▪ divine retribution [=punishment by God] — often + for ▪ They are seeking retribution for the killings.

– re•trib•u•tive /rɪˈtrɪbjətɪv/ adj ▪ retributive justice re•triev•al /rɪˈtri:vəl/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of getting and bringing back something : the act or process of retrieving something ▪ the retrieval of stolen goods ▪ property retrieval ▪ The system allows quick storage and retrieval of data.

beyond retrieval 1 : not able to be brought back ▪ The satellite is beyond retrieval. ▪ The old data is now beyond retrieval. 2 : not able to be corrected, cured, etc. ▪ The patient may be beyond retrieval. [=the patient may die; the patient may not be able to be saved] ▪ The situation is beyond retrieval.

re•trieve /rɪˈtri:v/ verb -trieves; -trieved; -triev•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to get and bring (something) back from a place ▪ Many archaeological relics were retrieved from the site. ▪ Police retrieved his stolen car. b : to find and get (information) from a computer or disk ▪ You can quickly retrieve data/information. ▪ The files were retrieved from the computer. ▪ He was able to retrieve the document.
2 : to find and bring birds or animals that have been shot back to a hunter [no obj] The dog is learning how to retrieve. [+ obj] The dog has been trained to retrieve birds.
3 [+ obj] formal : to keep (something) from failing or becoming worse ▪ They were able to retrieve [=save] the situation. ▪ Can their relationship be retrieved? [=salvaged]
– re•triev•able /rɪˈtri:vəbəl/ adj ▪ The data should be retrievable.

re•triev•er /rɪˈtri:vɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a dog that is used for retrieving birds or animals that have been shot by a hunter — see also GOLDEN RETRIEVER, LABRADOR RETRIEVER ret•ro /ˈrɛtroʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking like or relating to styles or fashions from the past ▪ the retro look in fashion ▪ retro music – retro noun [noncount] ▪ Retro is in.

retro- prefix : backward : back ▪ *retro*grade

ret•ro•ac•tive /ˌrɛtroʊˈæktɪv/ adj, formal : effective from a particular date in the past ▪ They all received a retroactive pay raise. ▪ The new tax will be retroactive to January 1.
– ret•ro•ac•tive•ly adv ▪ The new law will be applied retroactively.

ret•ro• t /ˌrɛtroʊˈfɪt/ verb - ts ; - t•ted ; - t•ting [+ obj] : to provide (something) with new parts that were not available when it was originally built ▪ The factory has been retrofitted to meet the new safety regulations. ▪ We can retrofit your car with the new fuel system.

ret•ro•grade /ˈrɛtrəˌgreɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 formal : returning to an earlier and usually worse state or condition ▪ a retrograde policy that would leave more people poorer than they are now
2 technical : moving backward ▪ retrograde motion ret•ro•gres•sive /ˌrɛtrəˈgrɛsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing a return to an earlier and usually worse state ▪ retrogressive [=(more commonly) regressive] government policies ret•ro•spect /ˈrɛtrəˌspɛkt/ noun

in retrospect : when thinking about the past or something that happened in the past ▪ In retrospect, I made the right decision. ▪ What is interesting in retrospect is how wrong our assumptions were.

ret•ro•spec•tion /ˌrɛtrəˈspɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the act of thinking about the past or something that happened in the past ▪ This is a time of retrospection for many people.

[1]ret•ro•spec•tive /ˌrɛtrəˈspɛktɪv/ adj
1 : of or relating to the past or something that happened in the past ▪ They issued a retrospective report. ▪ a retrospective analysis of what went wrong ▪ The museum is having a retrospective exhibit of the artist's early works.
2 : effective from a particular date in the past ▪ retrospective [=(more commonly) retroactive] laws
– ret•ro•spec•tive•ly adv ▪ Their actions could only be understood retrospectively. ▪ The new law will be applied retrospectively.

[2]retrospective noun, pl -tives [count] : an exhibition of work that an artist has done in the past ▪ The museum is featuring a retrospective of Picasso's early works.

re•try /riˈtraɪ/ verb -tries; -tried; -try•ing [+ obj]
1 : to try (something) again ▪ He retried (entering) the password.
2 : to judge (a court case) for a second time ▪ The judge will retry the case. ▪ The case will be retried.

[1]re•turn /rɪˈtɚn/ verb -turns; -turned; -turn•ing
1 [no obj] : to come or go to a place again : to come back or go back again ▪ We waited for you to return. ▪ She is returning home tomorrow. ▪ I'm leaving but will return at 2 p.m. ▪ She left home never to return. [=she never went home again] — often + from or to ▪ No one was home when I returned from work. ▪ He returned from his trip last night. ▪ I returned to Paris 10 years later. ▪ The bird returns to this area each spring. ▪ He returned to find the house empty. [=he returned and found that the house was empty] — see also RETURN TO (below)
2 [+ obj] a : to bring, give, send, or take (something) to the place that it came from or the place where it should go ▪ I have to return a book to the library. ▪ I'm returning your ladder. Thanks for letting me borrow it. ▪ Return [=bring] this application to me when you have filled it out. ▪ Please fill out the application and return [=send] it to the address below. ▪ She returned the gun to its holster. [=she put the gun in its holster] b : to bring or send (something that you bought) to the place that it came from because it does not work or fit properly, because it is damaged, etc. ▪ The dishes were broken when they were delivered, so I had to return them. ▪ I had to return the shirt and get a bigger size. c : to bring (empty bottles or cans) to a place that collects them so that they can be used again ▪ I'm going to return these bottles and cans (for recycling).
3 [no obj] : to happen or exist again ▪ The pain returned [=recurred, came back] about two hours after I took the pill. ▪ His jealousy returned when he saw his ex-wife with her new husband. ▪ Hope has returned to the city. [=the city's people are hopeful again]
4 [+ obj] : to respond to (something) in the same way ▪ He smiled at her, and she returned the smile. [=she smiled at him] ▪ When I told her that she looked beautiful, she returned [=repaid] the compliment by saying that I looked very handsome. ▪ He never returned my phone calls. [=he did not call me back] ▪ Thanks for helping me. I'll be sure to return the favor. [=I will help you when you need help] ▪ When the suspect started shooting, the police were forced to return fire. [=to shoot back at the suspect]
5 [+ obj] formal : to make an official report of (a decision or order) ▪ The jury returned a verdict of guilty.
6 [+ obj] tennis : to hit back (a ball that was hit to you) ▪ He returned her serve. ▪ Her serve is difficult to return.
7 [+ obj] American football : to run with the ball after getting it because of a kick, fumble, etc. ▪ He returned the ball/kick 50 yards.
8 [+ obj] Brit : to elect (someone) to office — usually used as (be) returned ▪ He was returned to Parliament. — often + as ▪ She was returned as prime minister.
9 [+ obj] finance : to produce or earn (something, such as a profit or loss) ▪ The investment returned a huge profit. ▪ bonds that return [=yield] five percent annually return to [phrasal verb] return to (something) 1 : to go to (a place where you work, study, etc.) again after being away for a time ▪ When do you return to school? ▪ She hopes to return to the office next week. — see also [1]RETURN 1 (above) 2 : to start doing or using (something) again especially after a long time ▪ She hopes to return to work [=to start working again] next week. ▪ She hopes to return to working at home next week. ▪ He returned to the old ways of farming. 3 : to start an activity again that relates to (something) ▪ He returned to his book [=he started reading his book again] after feeding the cat. ▪ Let's return to your first question. [=let's discuss the first question you asked earlier] ▪ He returned to football not as a player but as a coach. 4 : to change back to (an earlier or original condition or state) ▪ She soon returned [=reverted] to her old hab-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

its. ▪ His breathing returned to normal. [=his breathing became normal again]

[2]return noun, pl -turns

1 [singular] : the act of coming or going back to the place you started from or to a place where you were before ▪ We are looking forward to your return. ▪ We're looking forward to our return to Europe. ▪ What is the date of her return from Mexico? [=when is she coming back from Mexico?] ▪ Upon/on his return [=(less formally) when he returned; when he came back], he found a note taped to the door. ▪ The bad weather delayed his return home. [=his return to his home] ▪ I stopped by your house on my return home. [=on my way home] ▪ She became sick on her return from America. [=she became sick at the time she returned from America]

2 [singular] : the act of going back to an activity, job, situation, etc. : the act of starting to do something again after stopping ▪ The team looked forward to his return to coaching. ▪ a return to the old ways of farming ▪ He managed the team last year, so his return as a player [=his return to the team as a player and not as a manager] was a surprise.

3 [singular] a : the fact that something (such as a condition, feeling, or situation) happens again — + of ▪ the return of peace to the region ▪ Scientists noticed a return [=recurrence] of the disease in the monkeys. ▪ She noticed a return of his old habits. ▪ the return of spring b : the fact that someone or something changes to a condition or state that existed before ▪ the department's return to normal ▪ The people celebrated their leader's return to power.

4 [singular] : the act of taking someone or something back to the proper place — + of ▪ The police arranged for the return of the stolen goods. [=for the goods to be taken to the place they were stolen from] ▪ The mother demanded a safe return of her child. [=demanded that her child would be brought back to her and not be hurt]

5 a [count] : something that is brought or sent back to a store or business because it does not work or fit properly, is damaged, is not needed, etc. ▪ The store does not accept returns more than 30 days after purchase. b *returns [plural] chiefly US : empty cans or bottles that are brought back to a store so that they can be used again

6 finance : the profit from an investment or business [count] Investors are promised a return. ▪ The company had poor returns last year. — often + on ▪ He received a large return on his investment. [=he made a lot of money on his investment] [noncount] The stock has had a high rate of return. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her son's success in college was an excellent return on her investment. ▪ She expected some return from the company for all her years of loyal service.

7 returns [plural] : a report of the results of voting ▪ election returns

8 [count] : a report that you send to the government about the money that you have earned and the taxes that you have paid in one year ▪ He has copies of his returns for the last 15 years. ▪ We filed our (income) tax return. [=we sent our tax return to the government] ▪ He filed his 2007 tax return in February of 2008.

9 [count] sports : the act of returning a ball ▪ (tennis) She hit a powerful return. [=she hit back the ball that was served to her very hard] ▪ (American football) a 50-yard kickoff/punt/fumble return [=a 50-yard run with the ball after getting it on a kickoff/punt/fumble]

10 [count] Brit : a ticket for a trip that takes you to a place and back to the place you started from : a round-trip ticket ▪ One return is often less expensive than buying two one-way tickets. ▪ a day return [=a reduced-price ticket for traveling to a place and back on the same day]

by return or by return of post Brit : immediately by mail ▪ I replied by return of post. ▪ I wrote you by return.

happy returns old fashioned — used for wishing someone a happy birthday and to express the hope that he or she will live to celebrate many more birthdays in the future ▪ They wished me (many) happy returns.

in return : in payment or exchange ▪ He helps out and expects nothing in return. ▪ He will not help unless he gets something in return. ▪ The prisoner told the police who had ordered the killing. In return, his sentence was reduced by two years. — often + for ▪ I will lend you the money in return for a favor. ▪ He worked in return for a free meal.

– see also POINT OF NO RETURN

[3]return adj, always used before a noun

1 : used in or taken for returning to a place ▪ a return flight/trip ▪ the return road ▪ a return envelope [=an envelope that has an address on it and that you can use to mail something back to the person who sent it to you]

2 : happening or done for the second time ▪ a return visit

3 chiefly Brit : used or paying for a trip that takes you to a place and back to the place you started from ▪ a return [=(US) round-trip] ticket/fare

re•turn•able /rɪˈtɚnəbəl/ adj

1 : allowed to be exchanged for a small amount of money at a place that collects empty bottles and cans so that they can be used again ▪ returnable bottles/cans

2 : allowed to be returned ▪ Sale items are not returnable.

return address noun, pl ~ -dress•es [count] : an address on an envelope or package that shows where the envelope or package should be returned to if it cannot be delivered — see picture at MAIL re•turn•ee /rɪˌtɚˈniː/ noun, pl -ees [count] : someone who returns to a place or activity; especially : someone who returns to a country after being in another country in prison, in military service, etc.

re•turn•er /rɪˈtɚnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 Brit : someone who goes back to work after not working for a long period of time

2 American football : a player who returns a punt or kickoff ▪ a punt returner return game noun, pl ~ games [count] : a second game played between the same players or teams — called also (chiefly Brit) return match

returning officer noun, pl ~ -cers [count] Brit : an official who organizes an election and announces the result return mail noun [noncount] US : mail that answers or responds to something ▪ We received a lot of return mail after the announcement. ▪ Fill out the enclosed form and send it back by return mail. [=(Brit) by return of post] [=immediately; as soon as possible]

Reu•ben /ˈruːbən/ noun, pl -bens [count] US : a grilled sandwich that is made from a kind of sliced beef (called corned beef), cheese, and prepared sour cabbage (called sauerkraut)

re•uni•fy /riˈjuːnəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing : to make (something, such as a divided country) whole again : to unify (something) again [+ obj] Our goal is to reunify [=reunite] this family by returning the children to their parents. — often used as (be) reunified ▪ East and West Germany were reunified in 1990. [no obj] Germany reunified in 1990.

– re•uni• •ca•tion /riˌjuːnəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the reunification of Germany – reuni ed adj, always used before a noun ▪ a reunified Germany

re•union /riˈjuːnjən/ noun, pl -unions [count]

1 : an act of getting people together again after they have been apart : an act of reuniting ▪ an emotional reunion between mother and son ▪ He dreamed of a reunion with his son.

2 : an organized gathering of people who have not been together for a long time ▪ We attended a family reunion. [=a usually large gathering for family members] ▪ (US) a high school reunion [=a reunion of people who studied at a high school at the same time] ▪ (US) Are you going to our 20th class reunion? [=a reunion of the people who graduated with us 20 years ago]

re•unite /ˌriːjuˈnaɪt/ verb -unites; -unit•ed; -unit•ing

1 [+ obj] : to bring (people or things) together again especially after they have been apart for a long time ▪ The police reunited the woman and her son. ▪ We need a candidate who can reunite the party. — often + with ▪ The police reunited her with her son. — often used as (be) reunited ▪ She was reunited with her son.

2 [no obj] : to be together again after being apart for a long time ▪ The band reunited for a special concert.

re–up /riˈʌp/ verb -ups; -upped; -up•ping US, informal

1 [no obj] : to officially agree to stay in the military, on a team, with a company, etc., for an additional period of time ▪ When war broke out last year, many soldiers re-upped. ▪ The team's top scorer has re-upped for another three years.

2 [+ obj] : to officially agree or persuade someone to officially agree that an existing arrangement will continue for an additional period of time ▪ Now I have to decide if I should re-up [=renew] my lease/contract. ▪ The team wants to re-up their star player for another two years.

re•use /riˈjuːz/ verb -us•es; -used; -us•ing [+ obj] : to use (something) again ▪ I can reuse that container.

– re•use /riˈjuːs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the reuse of packing materials as insulation ▪ The motor oil has been processed for reuse. – re•us•able /riˈjuːzəbəl/ adj ▪ reusable containers

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[1]rev /ˈrɛv/ verb revs; revved; rev•ving [+ obj] : to cause (an engine) to run more quickly : to increase the revolutions per minute of (a motor in a vehicle) ▪ She sat in the car and revved the engine [=she pressed the car's accelerator when the engine was on but the car was not in gear] while she waited for us. — often + up ▪ He revved up the motorcycle by making adjustments to its engine.

rev up [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to become more active ▪ The campaign is revving up. 2 rev (someone or something) up or rev up (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) more active or effective ▪ Big business spending is revving up the economy. ▪ The company is getting revved up for the launch of its new product line. — see also REVVED UP

[2]rev noun, pl revs [count] informal : a complete turn of an engine part : REVOLUTION — usually plural ▪ a motor with a speed of 5,000 revs per minute

Rev. (US) or Brit Rev or Brit Revd abbr reverend ▪ Rev. Antonio Weiss ▪ the Revd Peter Smith

re•val•ue /riˈvælju/ verb -ues; -ued; -u•ing

1 finance : to change the value of a country's money so that it is worth less or more when it is traded for another country's money [+ obj] Three of the nations are expected to revalue their currencies soon. [no obj] Most analysts predict that the country will revalue before the end of the year.

2 [+ obj] : to make a new judgment about the value of (something, such as a house or an investment) ▪ Under state law, the town is required to revalue [=reassess] residential properties every five years.

– re•val•u•a•tion /riˌvæljəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

re•vamp /riˈvæmp/ verb -vamps; -vamped; -vamp•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) better or like new again ▪ The company has revamped the design of its best-selling car. ▪ They are revamping [=renovating] the old house.

– revamp or revamping noun, pl -vamps or -vampings [count] — usually singular ▪ They gave the car's design a revamp. ▪ a complete revamping [=reorganization] of our department

re•veal /rɪˈviːl/ verb -veals; -vealed; -veal•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to make (something) known ▪ She would not reveal the secret. ▪ The test revealed the true cause of death. ▪ It was revealed that they stole over $1 million. ▪ They revealed the plans for the new building. — opposite CONCEAL b : to show or prove that (someone) is a particular type of person — often + to be ▪ The book reveals him to be an expert at chess. ▪ She revealed herself to be a talented pianist. — often + as ▪ She revealed the reporter as a liar.

2 : to show (something) plainly or clearly : to make (something that was hidden) able to be seen ▪ The expression on his face revealed how he felt. ▪ The curtain was lifted to reveal the grand prize. ▪ Pulling up the carpeting revealed the home's beautiful hardwood floors. — opposite CONCEAL re•veal•ing /rɪˈviːlɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : giving information about something that was not known before ▪ The book is a revealing account of being part of a gang. ▪ Her comments about her childhood were revealing.

2 : showing parts of the body that are usually hidden from view ▪ She wore a very revealing shirt. ▪ That skirt is much too revealing.

– re•veal•ing•ly adv ▪ The actor talked revealingly about his life.

rev•eil•le /ˈrɛvəli, Brit rɪˈvæli/ noun [noncount] military : a signal given on a musical instrument (such as a bugle or drum) in the early morning to call soldiers or sailors to duty ▪ He awoke at reveille.

[1]rev•el /ˈrɛvəl/ verb rev•els; US rev•eled or Brit rev•elled; US rev•el•ing or Brit rev•el•ling revel in [phrasal verb] revel in (something) : to enjoy (something) very much ▪ She reveled in her success. ▪ He reveled in other people's misfortune.

[2]revel noun, pl -els [count] literary + old-fashioned : a noisy and wild celebration — usually plural ▪ holiday revels

rev•e•la•tion /ˌrɛvəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a usually secret or surprising fact that is made known ▪ The book includes many shocking/startling revelations about the mayor's personal life. ▪ damaging personal revelations ▪ The revelation that she was a drug user was not a surprise to me.

2 [count] : an act of making something known : an act of revealing something in usually a surprising way ▪ Revelations by the newspaper caused a scandal. — often + of ▪ His outburst was a revelation of his true character. ▪ The revelation of her gambling problem followed her bankruptcy.

3 [singular] : something that surprises you ▪ Her talent came as a revelation. [=was completely unexpected] — often + to ▪ The movie was a revelation to me. I didn't know he was such a good actor.

4 : a sign or message from God [count] a divine revelation [noncount] a prophecy made known by revelation

re•ve•la•to•ry /ˈrɛvələˌtori, Brit ˌrɛvəˈleɪtri/ adj, formal : making something known : revealing something in usually a surprising way ▪ a revelatory experience/biography

rev•el•er (US) or Brit rev•el•ler /ˈrɛvələ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is celebrating with other people in usually a wild and noisy way : a person who is taking part in revelry ▪ The streets were crowded with revelers on New Years Eve.

rev•el•ry /ˈrɛvəlri/ noun, pl -ries : a wild and noisy celebration [count] a drunken revelry [noncount] a night of revelry

[1]re•venge /rɪˈvɛnʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the act of doing something to hurt someone because that person did something that hurt you ▪ an act of revenge ▪ She swore that she would have her revenge. ▪ She wants revenge against her enemies. ▪ He got his revenge. ▪ revenge attacks/killings ▪ He swore to take (his) revenge on his enemies. [=to harm his enemies] ▪ He is seeking revenge for his father's murder. [=he wants to harm the person who killed his father] ▪ The bombing was in revenge for the assassination of their leader.

2 : the act of defeating an opponent who has defeated you in the past ▪ The team is seeking revenge for the loss earlier in the season.

– re•venge•ful /rɪˈvɛnʤfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

[2]revenge verb -veng•es; -venged; -veng•ing revenge yourself on formal : to do something to hurt (someone who has hurt you) : to take revenge on (someone) ▪ She vowed to revenge herself on her father's killer.

rev•e•nue /ˈrɛvəˌnuː, Brit ˈrɛvəˌnjuː/ noun, pl -nues finance

1 : money that is made by or paid to a business or an organization [noncount] The factory lost revenue because of the strike by the workers. ▪ The company receives millions of dollars in advertising revenue. [=money paid by advertisers] ▪ The firm is looking for another source of revenue. [plural] advertising and sales revenues

2 : money that is collected for public use by a government through taxes [noncount] Government officials have reported a decrease in revenue. [plural] state and federal tax revenues — see also INLAND REVENUE, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

re•ver•ber•ate /rɪˈvəbəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] somewhat formal

1 : to continue in a series of quickly repeated sounds that bounce off a surface (such as a wall) ▪ Her voice reverberated [=echoed] throughout the stadium. — often used figuratively ▪ The effects of that event still reverberate today.

2 : to become filled with a sound ▪ The room reverberated [=echoed, rang] with laughter.

re•ver•ber•a•tion /rɪˌvəbəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 somewhat formal : a sound that echoes [count] the reverberations of her voice [noncount] Although the room was very big, her voice could be heard with little reverberation.

2 [count] : an effect or result that is not wanted — usually plural ▪ The reverberations [=repercussions] of his actions will be felt for years to come. ▪ economic/political reverberations re•vere /rɪˈviə/ verb -veres; -vered; -ver•ing [+ obj] formal : to have great respect for (someone or something) : to show devotion and honor to (someone or something) ▪ The family reveres old traditions. — often + as ▪ The town reveres him as a hero. — often used as (be) revered ▪ He is revered as a hero. ▪ Her poems are revered by other poets.

rev•er•ence /ˈrɛvərəns/ noun, formal : honor or respect that is felt for or shown to (someone or something) [noncount] Her poems are treated with reverence by other poets. — often + for ▪ a feeling of reverence for tradition [singular] Their religion has/shows a deep reverence for nature.

rev•er•end /ˈrɛvərənd/ noun, pl -ends [count] : a priest or minister in the Christian church

Reverend adj, always used before a noun — used as a title for a priest or minister in the Christian church ▪ We welcome Reverend John Smith as our guest. — often used after the ▪ the Reverend Mr. Smith ▪ the Reverend John Smith — abbr. Rev. or (Brit) Revd

Reverend Mother noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a woman who is the head of a convent : MOTHER SUPERIOR ▪ I will ask the Reverend Mother what to do. — often used as a form of address ▪ Good morning, Reverend Mother.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

rev•er•ent /'rɛvərənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing a lot of respect : very respectful ▪ a reverent crowd of worshippers ▪ a reverent tone of voice — opposite IRREVERENT
– rev•er•ent•ly adv ▪ They all spoke of her reverently.

rev•er•en•tial /ˌrɛvə'rɛnʃəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing or having a lot of respect : REVERENT ▪ a reverential attitude
– rev•er•en•tial•ly adv

rev•er•ie /'rɛvəri/ noun, pl -er•ies formal + literary : a state in which you are thinking about pleasant things [count] I drifted into a reverie. [=daydream] [noncount] He was lost in reverie. [=he was daydreaming] re•ver•sal /rɪ'vəsəl/ noun, pl -sals : a change to an opposite state, condition, decision, etc. [count] In a sudden reversal, the mayor has decided not to run for reelection. ▪ the reversal of a decision/position/policy ▪ a surprising/sudden reversal in the value of the stock ▪ We had a role reversal. I became the leader and he became the follower. ▪ In a reversal of roles, he is now taking care of his mother. [noncount] Reversal of the decision is unlikely. ✧ Reversal often means a change to a worse state or condition. ▪ He suffered a financial reversal. ▪ The company had a complete reversal of fortune and went bankrupt.

[1]re•verse /rɪ'vəs/ verb -vers•es; -versed; -vers•ing
1 [+ obj] : to change (something) to an opposite state or condition ▪ Our roles as caregiver and patient have been reversed. [=switched] ▪ The runners reversed their direction on the track. ▪ The Supreme Court reversed [=overturned] the decision. ▪ The college is trying to reverse the decline in applicants. [=the college is trying to get more people to apply] ▪ Had our situations been reversed [=if I had been in the situation that you were in], I would have done things differently.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a process) to stop or return to an earlier state ▪ We cannot reverse [=undo] the damage that is already done. ▪ The medicine may reverse the course of this disease. [=the medicine may stop this disease from getting worse] ▪ There is no way to reverse the aging process. ▪ The operation cannot be reversed. [=undone] ▪ Can anything reverse the trend toward higher prices?
3 [+ obj] a : to change the order or position of (two things or a series) ▪ Reverse the "i" and "e" in "recieve" to spell "receive" correctly. ▪ My mother and I reversed our roles. Now I'm taking care of her. ▪ We're going to reverse our usual order and start with Z. b : to switch the positions of the top and bottom or the front and back of (something) ▪ You need to reverse the paper [=to turn the paper around] in the printer so that the letterhead is up. ▪ Reverse that painting [=turn that painting over] so that I can see the back.
4 chiefly Brit : to drive (a vehicle) backward [+ obj] Reverse [=(US) back, back up] the car into/out of the parking space. [no obj] Reverse [=(US) back, back up] into/out of the parking space. ▪ The car reversed. [=(US) backed up] reverse the charges or reverse the charge Brit : to arrange to have the cost of a phone call paid by the person who is called ▪ He telephoned and reversed the charges. [=(US) he called collect] reverse yourself US, formal : to change your decision or opinion about something ▪ The mayor has reversed himself on the issue of raising taxes.

[2]reverse noun, pl -verses
1 the reverse : something that is opposite to something else ▪ The river flows south to north, rather than the reverse. [=north to south] ▪ Women may play in the men's league, but not the reverse. [=but men cannot play in the women's league] ▪ I thought she would like the movie, but actually the reverse was true. [=she didn't like the movie] ▪ You don't owe me any money. If anything, the reverse is true. [=I owe you money] ▪ "Did you think it would be difficult?" "Quite the reverse. [=quite the contrary] I thought it would be easy." — often + of ▪ The ending of the book was the reverse of what I expected.
2 the reverse : the back side of a coin, document, etc. ▪ The building appears on the reverse of the coin. ▪ Please sign your name on the reverse.
3 [noncount] : REVERSE GEAR ▪ I put the car in/into reverse and backed out of the garage. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The economy seems to be stuck in reverse. [=the economy is continuing to get worse]
4 [count] formal : a change that makes something worse ▪ The loss of their support was a serious reverse for the project. — usually plural ▪ The company has had some financial reverses. [=setbacks]
5 [count] American football : a play in which one player gives the ball to another player who is moving in the opposite direction in reverse 1 a : in an order in which the last part is first and the first part is last : BACKWARD ▪ In her latest film, the story is told in reverse. We see the main character as an adult in the beginning and as a child at the end. ▪ The winners were called in reverse from last place to first place. b : in a way that is opposite to what is normal or to what happened earlier ▪ Ten years ago, American tourists flocked to Europe. But now that the dollar is weak, we have the same situation in reverse. Europeans are coming to the U.S. in record numbers. 2 : toward an opposite or worse state or condition ▪ The talks between the labor union and workers seem to be moving in reverse.
into reverse : into an opposite state or condition ▪ The decrease in profit has been put into reverse. ▪ The economy has gone into reverse. [=has gotten worse]

[3]reverse adj, always used before a noun
1 : opposite to what is usual or stated ▪ Can you say the alphabet in reverse order? ▪ The wheel will not turn in the reverse [=other] direction. ▪ The drug is used to lower blood pressure but may have the reverse effect in some patients.
2 : opposite to the front ▪ Please sign your name on the reverse [=back] side.

reverse–charge adj, Brit : [2]COLLECT ▪ a reverse-charge phone call reverse discrimination noun [noncount] : the practice of making it more difficult for a certain type of person (such as a white man) to get a job, to go to a school, etc., because other people who were treated unfairly in the past are now being given an advantage ▪ He claimed that reverse discrimination was to blame for his unemployment.

reverse engineer verb ~ -neers; ~ -neered; ~ -neering [+ obj] technical : to study the parts of (something) to see how it was made and how it works so that you can make something that is like it ▪ They reverse engineered the software.
– reverse engineering noun [noncount]

reverse gear noun, pl ~ gears : a part (called a gear) that makes a motor move a vehicle in a backward direction [noncount] Put the car in/into reverse gear. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The economy seems to be stuck in reverse gear. [=the economy seems to be getting worse] [count] — usually singular ▪ The tractor does not have a reverse gear.

reverse mortgage noun, pl ~ -gages [count] chiefly US, finance : a legal agreement in which a bank pays you an amount of money equal to the part of your home's value that you actually own, and you agree that when you sell your home or when you move or die, that amount of money plus interest will be paid to the bank reverse psychology noun [noncount] : a method of getting someone to do what you want by pretending not to want it or by pretending to want something else

re•vers•ible /rɪ'vəsəbəl/ adj
1 a : able to be changed back to an earlier or original state ▪ a reversible chemical reaction b : able to be stopped and not causing permanent damage or changes ▪ Some diseases are reversible. ▪ Fortunately, the damage is reversible. — opposite IRREVERSIBLE
2 a : having two sides that can be used ▪ reversible fabrics ▪ The rug is reversible. b : able to be worn with either side facing outward ▪ This coat is reversible.
– re•vers•ibil•i•ty /rɪˌvəsə'bɪləti/ noun [noncount]

re•ver•sion /rɪ'vəʒən, Brit rɪ'vəːʃən/ noun, pl -sions
1 technical + formal : an act or process of returning to an earlier condition or state — usually + to [count] — usually singular ▪ a reversion to a primitive state ▪ a reversion to old customs/habits [noncount] His photos document the land's reversion to swamp.
2 [count, noncount] law : the returning of property to a former owner or to a person who received the right to it when the former owner died ▪ the reversion of the estate re•vert /rɪ'vət/ verb -verts; -vert•ed; -vert•ing revert to [phrasal verb] revert to (something) 1 : to go back or return to (an earlier state, condition, situation, etc.) ▪ She has reverted (back) to her old habits. ▪ My blood pressure has reverted to normal. [=has returned to normal; has become normal again] ▪ After playing badly in the last two games, he seems to have reverted to form. [=he is now playing as well as he usually does] ▪ (chiefly Brit) After this one atypical comedy, will he revert to type [=will he do what he usually does] in his next film? 2 revert to (someone or something) law, of property : to be given to (a former owner or a former owner's heir) ▪ The estate reverted to a distant cousin.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[1]re•view /rɪˈvju:/ noun, pl -views

1 : an act of carefully looking at or examining the quality or condition of something or someone : examination or inspection [count] Changes to the building had to be made after the review by the safety inspectors. — often + of ▪ a review of the case ▪ a review of their research/evidence ▪ a review of the policy/rules/regulations ▪ I was disappointed with my salary/pay review. [=a review of an employee's work and performance by an employer to decide by how much his or her pay or salary should be increased] [noncount] After hours of review, the committee made its decision. ▪ a review board/committee ▪ The medical records were sent to the doctor for review. ▪ The grant application is up for review. [=the application for the grant will be looked at] ▪ The book/policy/ruling is under review. [=is being reviewed] ▪ (formal) On review of [=after reviewing] the evidence, the jury finds the defendant guilty. ▪ Upon further review of your situation [=after spending more time looking at and thinking about your situation], we have decided to grant your request. ▪ The decision is subject to review by a higher authority. [=the decision might be studied and then changed by someone who has more power] — see also PEER REVIEW

2 a : a report that gives someone's opinion about the quality of a book, performance, product, etc. [count] I read the book/film reviews in the newspaper. ▪ Reviews of the play were good. [=the people who wrote the reviews liked the play] ▪ Critics gave the new album mixed reviews. [=some critics liked the album, while other critics did not] ▪ a favorable review ▪ The movie received rave reviews. [=reviews that say it is excellent] [noncount] Copies of the book were sent to critics for review. = Review copies of the book were sent to critics. [=copies of the book were sent to critics so that they could read it and then write reviews about it] ▪ The educational software was sent to teachers for review. b [count] : a magazine filled mostly with reviews and articles that describe the writer's thoughts or opinions about a subject — often used in titles ▪ He wrote an article for The Annual Review of Biology. ▪ The Western New England Law Review

3 [count] : a class, a book, an article, etc., that studies or describes something (such as events from a particular time) : SURVEY — usually + of ▪ a review of 19th-century American art ▪ a review of the year's major events ▪ The seminar is a review of the writer's career.

4 US : the act of studying information that was studied before [count] The teacher allowed one more review of our notes before the test. [noncount] I haven't done enough review [=(Brit) revision] for the exam.

5 [count] military : a formal inspection by officers of high rank or by an important person ▪ a review of the cadets

Do not confuse review with revue.

[2]review verb -views; -viewed; -view•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to look at or examine (something) carefully especially before making a decision or judgment ▪ Scientists are reviewing the results of the study. ▪ I need time to review the situation. ▪ The ruling will be reviewed by the Supreme Court. ▪ The committee reviewed the applications/regulations. ▪ The television show will review last year's major events. b US : to study or look at (something) again [+ obj] She reviewed her notes for the speech. ▪ Please review [=go over, check] your answers before handing in your test. ▪ I need to review [=(Brit) revise] chemistry. [no obj] Students were given time to review [=(Brit) revise] for the test. c [+ obj] : to describe or show (a series of things or events from the past) ▪ The television show will review last year's major events. ▪ The biography reviewed her accomplishments.

2 [+ obj] : to report on or judge the quality of a book, show, product, etc. ▪ Critics have not yet reviewed the movie/play. ▪ The book/album/car was reviewed in this magazine.

3 [+ obj] military : to make an official inspection of (someone or something) ▪ The President reviewed the troops.

– re•view•er /rɪˈvju:wɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ the newspaper's movie/book reviewer

re•vile /rɪˈvajəl/ verb -viles; -viled; -vil•ing [+ obj] formal : to speak about (someone or something) in a very critical or insulting way ▪ Many people reviled him for his callous behavior. — usually used as (be) reviled ▪ The committee's decision was reviled by reporters. ▪ The policy was reviled as racist. [=people said that the policy was racist]

re•vise /rɪˈvaɪz/ verb -vis•es; -vised; -vis•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make changes especially to correct or improve (something) ▪ Please revise this essay. ▪ We have to revise our plans because of the delays. ▪ I would like to revise my estimate. ▪ You need to buy the revised [=corrected and updated] edition of the textbook.

2 Brit : to study (something) again [+ obj] She revised [=(US) reviewed] chemistry. [no obj] I need to revise [=(US) review] for the exam.

re•vi•sion /rɪˈvɪʒən/ noun, pl -sions

1 : a change or a set of changes that corrects or improves something [count] This edition is filled with revisions. ▪ A revision of the theory will be necessary. ▪ They made revisions to the book. [noncount] The essay needs revision. ▪ The teacher gave me some suggestions for revision.

2 [count] : a new version of something : something (such as a piece of writing or a song) that has been corrected or changed ▪ This is the original version, not the revision. ▪ Here is my revision of the paragraph.

3 [noncount] Brit : study of information that was studied before ▪ Have you done enough revision [=(US) review] for the exam?

re•vi•sion•ism /rɪˈvɪʒəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] formal + often disapproving : support of ideas and beliefs that differ from and try to change accepted ideas and beliefs especially in a way that is seen as wrong or dishonest ▪ She rejects the author's historical revisionism. [=the author's new interpretation of history]

– re•vi•sion•ist /rɪˈvɪʒənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – revisionist adj ▪ a revisionist argument/view

re•vis•it /riˈvɪzət/ verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]

1 : to go to (a place) again especially after a long period of time ▪ He revisited his old house. ▪ The police revisited the crime scene.

2 : to think about or look at (something) again ▪ The police revisited the case of the unsolved murder. ▪ The book/idea is worth revisiting. ▪ The judge said that he will revisit [=reconsider] his decision.

re•vi•tal•ize also Brit re•vi•tal•ise /riˈvaɪtəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) active, healthy, or energetic again ▪ The mayor hopes to revitalize the city. ▪ This shampoo revitalized my hair. [=made my hair look healthy] ▪ The drink revitalized me. [=made me feel full of energy]

– re•vi•tal•i•za•tion also Brit re•vi•tal•i•sa•tion /riˌvaɪtələˈzeɪʃən, Brit riˌvaɪtəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] economic revitalization ▪ revitalization efforts/plans [singular] a revitalization of the city

re•viv•al /rɪˈvaɪvəl/ noun, pl -als

1 [count] : a period in which something becomes popular again after a long period of time ▪ a jazz revival ▪ a revival of biographical writing ▪ a revival in Gothic architecture ▪ Fashions from the 1970s are enjoying a revival.

2 : the growth of something or an increase in the activity of something after a long period of no growth or activity [count] — usually singular ▪ After four slow years, our business is seeing a revival. ▪ the recent revival of interest in mythology [noncount] The city is showing signs of revival.

3 [count] : the showing of a play, a movie, etc., to the public usually many years after it was last shown : a new production of an old show ▪ There are three musical revivals on Broadway this season. ▪ The opera company is staging a revival of Verdi's Don Carlos.

4 [count] US, religion : REVIVAL MEETING

re•viv•al•ist /rɪˈvaɪvəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

1 religion : someone who organizes and leads a revival meeting

2 formal : someone who uses or practices something that was popular in the past ▪ a musical revivalist

– re•viv•al•ism /rɪˈvaɪvəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious revivalism – revivalist adj, always used before a noun ▪ a revivalist preacher/movement revival meeting noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a meeting or series of meetings led by a preacher to make people interested in a Christian religion — called also (US) revival

re•vive /rɪˈvaɪv/ verb -vives; -vived; -viv•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) strong, healthy, or active again ▪ The doctors were trying to revive

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

the patient. [=to make the unconscious patient conscious again] ▪ Visiting my old house has revived [=brought back] childhood memories. ▪ The water revived [=refreshed] the flowers. ▪ The success of the movie has revived her career. ▪ The government is trying to revive the economy. ▪ Our spirits were revived by his enthusiasm. b [no obj] : to become strong, healthy, or active again ▪ The store's business is beginning to revive.

2 [+ obj] : to bring (something) back into use or popularity ▪ The family is trying to revive an old custom.

3 [+ obj] : to arrange to have (an old play, opera, etc.) performed in front of an audience ▪ He has decided to revive Molière's Tartuffe.

re•viv•i•fy /rɪˈvɪvəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (someone or something) strong, healthy, or active again : REVIVE ▪ looking for ways to revivify the city's economy re•voke /rɪˈvoʊk/ verb -vokes; -voked; -vok•ing [+ obj] formal : to officially cancel the power or effect of (something, such as a law, license, agreement, etc.) : to make (something) not valid ▪ The judge revoked her driver's license. ▪ Their work permits were revoked. ▪ He threatened to revoke [=retract, cancel] his offer. ▪ Their privileges were revoked after they misbehaved.

– re•vo•ca•tion /ˌrɛvəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ Not paying the fine may mean revocation of your driver's license.

[1]re•volt /rɪˈvoʊlt/ verb -volts; -volt•ed; -volt•ing

1 [no obj] : to fight in a violent way against the rule of a leader or government ▪ The group threatened to revolt. — often + against ▪ The peasants revolted against the king. ▪ They revolted against the government.

2 [no obj] : to act in a way that shows that you do not accept the control or influence of someone or something — often + against ▪ Teenagers tend to revolt [=rebel] against their parents. ▪ He revolted against [=disobeyed] religious traditions.

3 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel disgust or shock ▪ All the violence revolted me. — often used as (be) revolted ▪ He was revolted by the smell.

[2]revolt noun, pl -volts

1 : violent action against a ruler or government : REBELLION [count] the revolt of/by the slaves ▪ The peasants' revolt was crushed by the king. ▪ They staged a revolt, but it was quickly put down. [=they started a revolt, but it was quickly defeated] — often + against ▪ a revolt against the government [noncount] The leader of the group called for revolt. ▪ The people rose (up) in revolt (against the king). [=the people fought against the king]

2 : something which shows that you will not accept something or will not agree to be controlled or influenced by someone or something [count] a revolt by consumers over high prices = a consumer revolt over high prices — often + against ▪ His book is a revolt against conservative thinking. [noncount] Consumers are in revolt against high prices.

re•volt•ing /rɪˈvoʊltɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely unpleasant or offensive ▪ a revolting [=disgusting] smell ▪ The bloody scenes in the movie were positively revolting.

– re•volt•ing•ly adv ▪ The movie was revoltingly violent.

rev•o•lu•tion /ˌrɛvəˈluːʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a : the usually violent attempt by many people to end the rule of one government and start a new one [count] the American/French Revolution ▪ The group started a revolution. [noncount] The king knew that there was a threat of revolution. — see also COUNTERREVOLUTION b [count] : a sudden, extreme, or complete change in the way people live, work, etc. ▪ This new theory could cause a revolution in elementary education. ▪ the computer revolution [=the changes created by the widespread use of computers] ▪ The growth of the middle class forced a social revolution. [=a major change in society] ▪ the sexual revolution [=a major change in people's attitudes about sex] — see also INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

2 technical a : the action of moving around something in a path that is similar to a circle : ROTATION [count] the revolution of the Earth around the Sun [noncount] The period of revolution of the Earth around the Sun is equal to one year. b [count] : a complete turn that is made by something around its center point or line ▪ The Earth makes one revolution on its axis in about 24 hours. ▪ This motor operates at a speed of 5,000 revolutions per minute.

[1]rev•o•lu•tion•ary /ˌrɛvəˈluːʃəˌneri, Brit ˌrɛvəˈluːʃənri/ adj

1 always used before a noun : relating to, involving, or supporting a political revolution ▪ a revolutionary war/movement ▪ a revolutionary leader/party

2 [more ~; most ~] : causing or relating to a great or complete change ▪ revolutionary [=radical] ideas ▪ The invention was revolutionary. ▪ a revolutionary new product

[2]revolutionary noun, pl -aries [count] : someone who leads, joins, or wants a revolution

rev•o•lu•tion•ize also Brit rev•o•lu•tion•ise /ˌrɛvəˈluːʃəˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to change (something) very much or completely : to cause a revolution in (something) ▪ The invention of the airplane revolutionized travel. ▪ This new drug may revolutionize cancer treatment. ▪ This discovery has revolutionized our understanding of how the human brain works.

re•volve /rɪˈvɑːlv/ verb -volves; -volved; -volv•ing : to turn around a center point or line : ROTATE [no obj] As the gear revolves, it turns the other gears. ▪ The Earth revolves on its axis. [+ obj] The software allows you to revolve images.

revolve around [phrasal verb] 1 revolve around (something) : to move around (something) in a path that is similar to a circle ▪ The planets revolve around the sun. 2 revolve around (someone or something) : to have (someone or something) as a main subject or interest ▪ The discussion revolved around the question of how much money should be given to each department. ▪ Her world revolves around her work/son. [=her work/son is extremely important to her] ▪ His life revolves around playing basketball. [=he plays basketball a lot] ▪ He thinks the world revolves around him. [=he thinks that he is the most important person in the world] ▪ The world does not revolve around you. [=you are not the most important person in the world]

re•volv•er /rɪˈvɑːlvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small gun with a container for bullets that turns after the gun is fired and puts another bullet into position to be fired next revolving adj, always used before a noun : able to be turned around a center point ▪ The band played on a revolving stage.

revolving door noun, pl ~ doors

1 [count] : a type of door that turns in its frame when it is used and allows people to go both in and out of a large building at the same time

2 [singular] a — used to describe a situation in which the people who have a particular job or position are constantly or frequently changing ▪ The team has gone through a revolving door of coaches. [=has had many different coaches] ▪ The manager's position has become a revolving door. b — used to describe a situation in which someone leaves and returns to a place or position many times ▪ criminals who have entered a revolving door of arrest, prison, release, and then arrest again – revolving–door adj, always used before a noun ▪ revolving-door management ▪ a revolving-door roster of players

re•vue /rɪˈvjuː/ noun, pl -vues [count] : a show in a theater that includes funny songs, dances, short plays, etc., usually about recent events

Do not confuse revue with review.

re•vul•sion /rɪˈvʌlʃən/ noun, somewhat formal : a very strong feeling of dislike or disgust [noncount] She was struck with revulsion at the sight of the dead animal. ▪ I felt revulsion at the thought of [=I was revolted by] his cruelty. [singular] a growing revulsion to war

revved up adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very excited ▪ a rousing song that got the crowd all revved up ▪ He came home all revved up because he had won the tournament. ▪ She is revved up for [=ready for and excited about] her trip. — see also rev up at [1]REV

[1]re•ward /rɪˈwoəd/ noun, pl -wards : money or another kind of payment that is given or received for something that has been done or that is offered for something that might be done [count] The contest offered a cash reward to the first person who could breed a blue rose. ▪ Hard work brings its own rewards. ▪ She is reaping the rewards of success. [=is getting all the good things that come with success] — often + for ▪ You deserve a reward for being so helpful. ▪ A (cash) reward is being offered for the return of the lost dog. ▪ The police are offering a reward for information leading to the capture of the fugitive. ▪ You can go to bed late tonight as a reward for doing so well on that test. ▪ Winning the game was a just reward [=an appropriate result] for the team's effort. ▪ That lying crook got his just rewards. [=just deserts] [noncount] Members will receive a discount in reward for getting friends

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

or family to join. ▪ Her success is just reward for her hard work. [=she deserves her success because of her hard work]

[2]reward verb -wards; -ward•ed; -ward•ing [+ obj] : to give money or another kind of payment to (someone or something) for something good that has been done ▪ She rewarded herself by buying a new pair of shoes. — often + for or with ▪ She rewarded her children with ice cream for being so patient. — often used as (be) rewarded ▪ She was rewarded with a cash bonus. ▪ He was rewarded for his effort. = His effort was rewarded.

re•ward•ing /rɪˈwoɚdɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : giving you a good feeling that you have done something valuable, important, etc. ▪ It was a rewarding [=valuable] experience. ▪ Nursing is a very rewarding [=satisfying] career.
2 : giving you money or profit ▪ The investment has been very rewarding. [=profitable] ▪ Her work is financially rewarding.

[1]re•wind /riˈwaɪnd/ verb -winds; -wound /-ˈwaʊnd/; -wind•ing [+ obj] : to make (a recording) go backwards ▪ Rewind the tape so that we can hear that song again. — opposite [2]FAST-FORWARD

[2]re•wind /ˈriːˌwaɪnd/ noun [noncount] : a function that causes a recording (such as an audiotape or a videotape) to go backwards ▪ Hit the rewind button. — opposite [1]FAST-FORWARD re•wire /riˈwajɚ/ verb -wires; -wired; -wir•ing [+ obj] : to put new electrical wires in (a building, machine, etc.) ▪ He rewired the entire house.

re•word /riˈwɚd/ verb -words; -word•ed; -word•ing [+ obj] : to state (something) again using different and often simpler words ▪ You should reword this sentence. ▪ Let me reword [=rephrase] the question. ▪ They reworded the rule.

re•work /riˈwɚk/ verb -works; -worked; -work•ing [+ obj] : to make changes to (something, such as a piece of writing or music) in order to improve it ▪ The teacher told me to rework [=revise] my essay. ▪ The design has been completely reworked.

re•write /riˈraɪt/ verb -writes; -wrote /-ˈroʊt/; -writ•ten /-ˈrɪtn̩/; -writ•ing [+ obj] : to write (something) again especially in a different way in order to improve it or to include new information ▪ The teacher asked him to rewrite the essay. ▪ I had to rewrite the computer program/code. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You can't rewrite history. [=you can't change the past]
– re•write /ˈriːˌraɪt/ noun, pl -writes [count] ▪ I usually do several rewrites of my essays.

RH abbr right hand

rhap•so•dize also Brit rhap•so•dise /ˈræpsəˌdaɪz/ verb -diz•es; -dized; -diz•ing [no obj] formal : to praise or describe something or someone with a lot of enthusiasm and emotion — usually + about or over ▪ He rhapsodized about his favorite musician. ▪ She rhapsodizes over the food at that restaurant.

rhap•so•dy /ˈræpsədi/ noun, pl -dies [count]
1 : a piece of music that is meant to express a lot of emotion and does not have a regular form
2 : a written or spoken expression of great enthusiasm, praise, etc. ▪ The mayor launched/went into a long rhapsody about his plans for the city. ▪ rhapsodies of praise
– rhap•sod•ic /ræpˈsɑːdɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ They waxed rhapsodic [=they became very enthusiastic] about the beauty of the area. ▪ rhapsodic music

Rhe•sus factor /ˈriːsəs-/ noun [noncount] medical : RH FACTOR

rhe•sus monkey /ˈriːsəs-/ noun, pl ~ -keys [count] : a small monkey that is often used in medical research rhet•o•ric /ˈrɛtərɪk/ noun [noncount] formal

1 often disapproving : language that is intended to influence people and that may not be honest or reasonable ▪ absolutist/activist/racist rhetoric ▪ angry rhetoric ▪ a speech free of (empty) rhetoric ▪ the rhetoric of politics
2 : the art or skill of speaking or writing formally and effectively especially as a way to persuade or influence people ▪ a college course in rhetoric ▪ classical rhetoric
– rhet•o•ri•cian /ˌrɛtəˈrɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] formal ▪ an expert rhetorician [=a person who is able to use language in a very effective way]

rhe•tor•i•cal /rɪˈtorɪkəl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or concerned with the art of speaking or writing formally and effectively especially as a way to persuade or influence people ▪ a rhetorical device/style
2 of a question : asked in order to make a statement rather than to get an answer ▪ "Should we be leaving soon?" "Is that a rhetorical question?" [=is that a question you're asking as a way to say that we should be leaving soon?] ▪ My question was rhetorical. I wasn't really expecting an answer.
– rhe•tor•i•cal•ly /rɪˈtorɪkli/ adv ▪ "Why does it have to rain?" she asked rhetorically.

rheumatic fever noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease especially of young people that causes fever, swelling and pain in the joints, and sometimes damage to the heart

rheu•ma•tism /ˈruːməˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that causes stiffness and pain in the muscles and swelling and pain in the joints
– rheu•mat•ic /ruˈmætɪk/ adj ▪ a rheumatic disease ▪ rheumatic pain

rheu•ma•toid arthritis /ˈruːməˌtoɪd-/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that continues to become worse over a long period of time and that causes the joints to become very painful, stiff, and swollen

Rh factor /ˌɑɚˈeɪʧ-/ noun [noncount] medical : a substance that is present in the red blood cells of most people ✧ If you do not have Rh factor in your blood, you can become ill by receiving blood from someone who has Rh factor. — called also Rhesus factor; see also RH-NEGATIVE, RH-POSITIVE rhine•stone /ˈraɪnˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a small stone that is made to look like a diamond and that is used in jewelry or for decoration

rhi•no /ˈraɪnoʊ/ noun, pl rhi•nos also rhino [count] somewhat informal : RHINOCEROS

rhi•noc•er•os /raɪˈnɑːsərəs/ noun, pl rhi•noc•er•os•es also rhinoceros [count] : a large, heavy animal of Africa and Asia that has thick skin and either one or two large horns on its nose rhinoceros

rhi•zome /ˈraɪˌzoʊm/ noun, pl -zomes [count] botany : a thick plant stem that grows underground and has shoots and roots growing from it

Rh–neg•a•tive /ˌɑɚˌeɪʧˈnɛgətɪv/ adj, medical : not having Rh factor in the blood ▪ The baby is Rh-negative. ▪ Rh-negative blood rho•do•den•dron /ˌroʊdəˈdɛndrən/ noun, pl -drons [count] : an evergreen bush that has large, bright flowers and that is often grown in gardens rhom•boid /ˈrɑːmˌbɔɪd/ noun, pl -boids [count] geometry : a shape with four sides where only the opposite sides and angles are equal

rhom•bus /ˈrɑːmbəs/ noun, pl -bus•es [count] geometry : a shape with four sides that are equal in length and with four angles that are not always right angles

Rh–pos•i•tive /ˌɑɚˌeɪʧˈpɑːzətɪv/ adj, medical : having Rh factor in the blood ▪ The baby is Rh-positive. ▪ Rh-positive blood

rhu•barb /ˈruːˌbɑɚb/ noun, pl -barbs
1 [noncount] : a plant with large green leaves and with thick pink or red stems that are cooked and used in pies, jams, etc. ▪ rhubarb pie
2 [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : an angry argument ▪ The coach got into a rhubarb with the umpire.

rhumba variant spelling of RUMBA

[1]rhyme /ˈraɪm/ noun, pl rhymes
1 [count] : one of two or more words or phrases that end in the same sounds ▪ She used "moon" as a rhyme for "June." ▪ He couldn't think of a rhyme for "orange."
2 [count] : a poem or song whose lines end in rhymes ▪ children's rhymes ▪ a catchy rhyme — see also NURSERY RHYME
3 [noncount] : the use of rhymes in a poem or song ▪ They're learning about meter and rhyme. ▪ He delivered the speech in rhyme. [=he used words that rhyme in the speech] ▪ poems that use rhyme rhyme or reason : a good reason or explanation for something — used in negative statements ▪ There seems to be no rhyme or reason to/for some of the things he does. ▪ She does things without rhyme or reason.

[2]rhyme verb rhymes; rhymed; rhym•ing
1 [no obj] : to have or end with the same sounds ▪ Please find the two lines that rhyme. ▪ words that don't rhyme — often + with ▪ "Bug" rhymes with "rug."
2 [no obj] : to have lines that end with the same sounds ▪ po-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

ems that rhyme ▪ rhyming verse/couplets 3 [+ obj] : to use (a rhyme) in a poem, song, etc. ▪ She rhymed "moon" with "June."

rhythm /ˈrɪðəm/ noun, pl rhythms
1 : a regular, repeated pattern of sounds or movements [count] The music has a fast/slow/steady rhythm. [=beat] ▪ African/Caribbean rhythms — often + of ▪ the rhythm of the poetry ▪ the rhythm of his breathing ▪ the rhythm of the tides [noncount] the composer's use of jazz rhythm ▪ He can't play/dance in rhythm. = He has no sense of rhythm. [=he cannot play/dance at the correct speed to stay with the rhythm of the music]
2 [count] : a regular, repeated pattern of events, changes, activities, etc. ▪ She enjoyed the rhythms of country life. ▪ Travel can disrupt your body's daily/biological/circadian rhythm.

rhythm and blues noun [noncount] : a type of popular music performed by African-Americans that was developed originally by combining elements of blues and jazz — abbr. R & B rhyth•mic /ˈrɪðmɪk/ or rhyth•mi•cal /ˈrɪðmɪkəl/ adj : having a regular repeated pattern of sounds or movements ▪ We could hear a rhythmic drumming/chant outside.

– rhyth•mi•cal•ly /ˈrɪðmɪkli/ adv ▪ She rhythmically tapped her feet.

rhythm method noun [singular] medical : a method of birth control in which a couple does not have sexual intercourse during the time when pregnancy is most likely to happen rhythm section noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : the part of a band that plays the rhythm in a piece of music and that typically includes drums and bass

RI abbr Rhode Island

[1]rib /ˈrɪb/ noun, pl ribs [count]
1 : any one of the curved bones of the chest that connect to the spine — see picture at HUMAN
2 : a piece of meat from an animal that includes a rib and that is used as food — see also SPARERIB
3 : a long curved piece of metal, wood, etc., that forms the frame of a boat, roof, etc. ▪ the ribs of an umbrella

[2]rib verb ribs; ribbed; rib•bing [+ obj] informal : to make jokes about (someone) in a friendly way : to kid or tease (someone) — often + about or over ▪ They ribbed him about/over his silly outfit.

rib•ald /ˈrɪbəld/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : referring to sex in a rude but amusing way ▪ ribald jokes/comments/songs
– rib•ald•ry /ˈrɪbəldri/ noun, pl -dries [count] comedians exchanging ribaldries [=ribald remarks/jokes] [noncount] a scandal that has been the subject of much ribaldry ribbed adj : having raised lines ▪ ribbed fabric ▪ a ribbed sweater

ribbing noun [noncount]
1 : friendly jokes about someone ▪ a little good-natured ribbing between friends — usually used with take ▪ He took some ribbing for the silly hat he was wearing. ▪ I've taken a lot of ribbing about my accent.
2 : raised lines on a surface ▪ the ribbing on a sweater

rib•bon /ˈrɪbən/ noun, pl -bons
1 : a narrow piece of cloth (such as silk) that is used to tie things or for decoration [count] She wore pink ribbons in her hair. ▪ She tied a ribbon around the present. [noncount] a length/piece of ribbon ▪ The present was tied with ribbon.
2 [count] : a short piece of cloth that is given as a military award ▪ The soldier proudly wore his ribbons and medals.
3 [count] chiefly US : a piece of colored cloth that is given as an award in a competition ▪ Her pie won a ribbon at the county fair. — see also BLUE RIBBON
4 [count] : something that is long and narrow like a strip of cloth ▪ a ribbon of road
5 [count] : a long and narrow piece of cloth with ink that is used for producing printed characters in a typewriter or printer
6 ribbons [plural] : narrow pieces of something that has been cut or torn apart ▪ Her pants were torn/cut to ribbons. [=to pieces]

rib cage noun, pl ~ cages [count] medical : the curved wall of ribs that surrounds and protects the chest rib eye noun, pl ~ eyes [count, noncount] : a large, tender cut of beef from the outer side of the rib — called also rib eye steak

ri•bo• a•vin /ˌraɪboʊˈfleɪvən/ noun [noncount] technical : a natural substance (called a vitamin) that is found in certain foods (such as milk, eggs, and leafy vegetables) and that helps your body to be healthy — called also vitamin B_2 ri•bo•nu•cle•ic acid /ˌraɪboʊnuˈkli:jɪk-, Brit ˌraɪbəʊ-njuˈkli:jɪk-/ noun [noncount] technical : RNA

rice /ˈraɪs/ noun [noncount]
1 : small white or brown grains that come from a southeast Asian plant and that are used for food ▪ a bowl/grain of rice ▪ steamed/fried rice ▪ brown/white rice
2 : the plant that produces rice ▪ Rice is the main crop of the country. ▪ a field of rice = a rice field/paddy rice paper noun [noncount]

1 : a type of thin paper that is made from an Asian plant
2 : a food that looks like paper and that is used for wrapping other foods rice pudding noun [noncount] : a sweet food made of rice cooked with milk and sugar rich /ˈrɪʧ/ adj rich•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a lot of money and possessions : WEALTHY ▪ a rich person ▪ Her investments have made her rich. ▪ a rich country/area/neighborhood ▪ She is very rich. ▪ (informal + often disapproving) She is filthy rich. = She is stinking rich. [=she is extremely rich; she has so much money that her wealth is disgusting or offensive] ▪ He wrote a book on how to get rich quick. [=how to make a large amount of money quickly] — opposite POOR
2 : very expensive and beautiful, impressive, etc. ▪ rich [=luxurious] robes ▪ rich decorations
3 a : having or supplying a large amount of something that is wanted or needed ▪ The dictionary is a rich source of information. ▪ a rich gold mine ▪ rich [=fertile] soils ▪ protein-rich foods [=foods that contain a lot of protein] — often + in or with ▪ a land rich in resources ▪ foods that are rich in protein ▪ He had a life rich with blessings. b : containing a large amount of fat, oil, etc. : having a lot of flavor and making your stomach feel full ▪ rich [=heavy] foods ▪ a rich and spicy soup ▪ The food was a little too rich for me. c : very interesting and full of many different things ▪ Their country has a rich cultural heritage. ▪ This area has a rich history. ▪ She has a rich vocabulary.
4 : having a pleasingly strong quality ▪ a rich [=dark and vivid] red ▪ a singer with a full, rich voice ▪ rich perfumes
5 informal — used to say that a person's comment or criticism is surprising or amusing because the same comment or criticism could be made about that person ▪ His remarks about the importance of saving money are pretty rich coming from a man who just bought another new car. ▪ "She says we're working too slowly." "Oh, that's rich. She's the one who keeps delaying things with all her meetings."
strike it rich see [1]STRIKE the rich : people who are rich ▪ the rich and famous/powerful – rich•ness /ˈrɪʧnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the richness of the soil ▪ the richness of the food ▪ the richness of the painter's colors rich•es /ˈrɪʧəz/ noun [plural]

1 : large amounts of money and possessions ▪ He acquired riches [=wealth] and fame.
2 : good things that are available to use or choose ▪ We live in a culture that offers many riches. ▪ With so many fine restaurants in the city, diners are faced with an embarrassment of riches. [=there are so many fine restaurants that it is difficult to choose one] from rags to riches see [1]RAG rich•ly /ˈrɪʧli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : in a beautiful and expensive way ▪ The room was richly decorated/ornamented. ▪ richly dressed
2 : in a pleasingly strong way ▪ richly fragrant/colored/flavored ▪ a richly rewarding [=very satisfying] experience
3 : in a generous way ▪ They were richly rewarded for their efforts.
4 : completely or fully ▪ The reward/punishment he received was richly deserved.
5 : having a large amount of something ▪ The book is richly illustrated. [=the book has many illustrations] ▪ a richly detailed description

Rich•ter scale /ˈrɪktə-/ noun
the Richter scale technical : a system of measurement used for showing the strength of an earthquake ▪ The earthquake was a 4.5 on the Richter scale. = The earthquake measured 4.5 on the Richter scale.

rick /ˈrɪk/ verb ricks; ricked; rick•ing [+ obj] Brit : to injure

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

(a body part) by twisting it ▪ I ricked [=sprained, wrenched] my back/neck.

rick•ets /ˈrɪkəts/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in children that is caused by a lack of vitamin D and that causes bones to become soft and to bend

rick•ety /ˈrɪkəti/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not strong or stable and likely to break ▪ rickety stairs ▪ a rickety little/old table

rick•shaw /ˈrɪkˌʃɑː/ noun, pl shaws [count] : a small, light vehicle with two wheels that is pulled by one person on foot or on a bicycle and that is used in some Asian countries

[1]ric•o•chet /ˈrɪkəˌʃeɪ/ verb -chets; -cheted /-ˌʃeɪd/; -cheting /-ˌʃejɪŋ/ [no obj] : to bounce off a surface and continue moving in a different direction ▪ The bullet ricocheted off the wall.

[2]ricochet noun, pl -chets

1 [count] : something (such as a bullet or stone) that ricochets off a surface ▪ He was hit by a ricochet.

2 [noncount] : the action of ricocheting off a surface ▪ the richochet of the bullet off the wall ri•cot•ta /rɪˈkɑːtə/ noun [noncount] : a soft, white Italian cheese — called also ricotta cheese

rid /ˈrɪd/ verb rids; rid also rid•ded; rid•ding

be rid of : to no longer have or be affected or bothered by (someone or something that is unwanted or annoying) ▪ I thought I'd never be rid of that cold. [=I thought that cold would never go away] ▪ He thought he'd never be rid of her. ▪ It's just as well that he left you. You're well rid of him. [=you're better off without him] get rid of : to do something so that you no longer have or are affected or bothered by (something or someone that is unwanted) ▪ It's time to get rid of [=throw away] our old computer and buy a new one. ▪ I got rid of some old furniture by selling/giving it to my nephew. ▪ I've tried everything to get rid of this cold, but it just won't go away. ▪ He kept talking and talking. She finally got rid of him [=she finally got him to leave] by saying she had to make dinner.

rid of [phrasal verb] rid (someone or something) of (someone or something) : to cause (someone or something) to no longer have or be affected by (someone or something unwanted) ▪ The police are trying to rid the town of drug dealers. ▪ rid the garden of pests ▪ She went to the beach to relax and rid herself of all her worries.

want rid of chiefly Brit : to want to no longer have or be affected or bothered by (something or someone unwanted) : to want to be rid of (something or someone) ▪ I could tell that he wanted rid of me.

rid•dance /ˈrɪdns/ noun

good riddance — used to say that you are glad that someone is leaving or that something has gone ▪ "Did you hear? Jack is leaving for a new job." "Well, good riddance (to him)! We'll be better off without him!" ▪ Winter is finally over, and I say good riddance!

[1]rid•den /ˈrɪdn/ adj : filled with or containing something unpleasant or unwanted ▪ He was ridden with guilt. [=he felt very guilty] — usually used in combination ▪ a flea-ridden dog ▪ a slum-ridden city ▪ He was/felt guilt-ridden for the way he had neglected his son.

[2]ridden past participle of [1]RIDE

[1]rid•dle /ˈrɪdl/ noun, pl rid•dles [count]

1 : a difficult question that is asked as a game and that has a surprising or funny answer ▪ The first person to solve the riddle wins a candy bar. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Stop speaking in riddles. [=stop speaking in a confusing way]

2 : someone or something that is difficult to understand or solve ▪ the riddle of the origins of the universe ▪ My brother has always been a riddle to me.

[2]riddle verb riddles; rid•dled; rid•dling [+ obj]

1 : to make many holes in (something or someone) with something ▪ The robbers riddled the car with bullets.

2 : to fill (something) with something that is bad or unpleasant — usually used as (be) riddled with ▪ The book is riddled with mistakes. [=the book has many mistakes] ▪ Their theory is riddled with contradictions.

[1]ride /ˈraɪd/ verb rides; rode /ˈroʊd/; rid•den /ˈrɪdn/; rid•ing

1 : to sit on and control the movements of (a horse, motorcycle, bicycle, etc.) [+ obj] She learned how to ride a horse when she was young. ▪ Most children learn to ride a bicycle at an early age. ▪ He rides his motorcycle to work every day. [no obj] I never rode on a horse before. ▪ She got on her bicycle and rode away.

2 a : to travel to a place as a passenger on or in (something that is moving, such as a bus, a train, or an elevator) [+ obj] (chiefly US) ▪ He decided to walk to the movies instead of riding the bus. ▪ She rides the subway home from school. ▪ They rode the elevator/escalator to the second floor. [no obj] We rode through the park in a horse-drawn carriage. ▪ The dog rode in the back of the truck. ▪ He has never ridden aboard a cruise ship. b : to go on a mechanical ride at an amusement park or similar place [no obj] We rode on the Ferris wheel. [+ obj] We rode the roller coaster five times.

3 [+ obj] chiefly US : to travel over or on (a road, railway, trail, etc.) in a car, on a train, on a bicycle, etc. ▪ He spends hours riding the back roads in his truck. ▪ riding the rails ▪ We rode the bike trails for hours.

4 [no obj] of a vehicle : to move over the surface of a road in a specified way ▪ The car rides smoothly/well.

5 [+ obj] : to be supported or carried on (a wave) : to move on (a wave) ▪ We watched the surfers riding the waves.

6 [+ obj] US, informal : to criticize or make jokes about (someone) constantly or frequently in usually a harsh or annoying way ▪ The fans have been riding him pretty hard.

be riding for a fall informal : to be doing something that is likely to lead to failure or disaster ▪ They're feeling pretty confident now, but if you ask me, they*'re riding for a fall*.

be riding high informal 1 : to be very happy and excited ▪ She*'s riding high* [=flying high] after her recent win. 2 : to be very successful ▪ The company's stock was riding high after the merger.

let (something) ride informal : to allow (something) to go unnoticed : to ignore (something) ▪ He made a rude remark, but I let it ride. ▪ You have to let his comment ride.

ride herd on US, informal : to keep (someone or something) under close watch or control ▪ We had to ride herd on them to make sure they completed the work on time.

ride on [phrasal verb] ride on (something or someone) 1 : to depend on (something or someone) ▪ The future of the company rides on the success of this deal. ▪ Our hopes are riding on you. 2 ✧ If you have money riding on something or someone, you have bet money on that thing or person. ▪ I have a lot of money riding on this game. ▪ There is a lot of money riding on the outcome of the race.

ride out [phrasal verb] ride (something) out or ride out (something) : to succeed in surviving or getting through (something dangerous or harmful that cannot be stopped or avoided) ▪ The ship/crew rode out the storm. ▪ We managed to ride out the stock market downturn.

ride shotgun informal : to ride in the front passenger seat of a vehicle ▪ You can drive, but only if I can ride shotgun.

ride up [phrasal verb] of clothing : to move up your body as you move ▪ These jeans keep riding up on me. ▪ Her skirt rode up when she sat down.

[2]ride noun, pl rides [count]

1 a : a usually short journey in or on a vehicle ▪ a two-hour car ride ▪ We went for a ride in the country. ▪ He took me for a ride on his motorcycle. = He gave me a ride on his motorcycle. ▪ I had my first ride in a limousine. ▪ Can I take your bike for a ride? = Can I go for a ride on your bike? [=can I ride your bike?] ▪ Can you give me a ride [=lift] back to town? ▪ I need a ride to work. ▪ She caught/hitched a ride with her coworker. — see also HAYRIDE, JOYRIDE b : a usually short journey on a horse or other animal ▪ We went on a horseback ride. ▪ The kids had a ride on a horse. ▪ They offered pony rides at the fair.

2 — used to describe what the experience of riding in a car or other vehicle is like; usually singular ▪ The car has/offers a smooth/comfortable ride. ▪ The road wasn't paved, so we had a pretty bumpy ride. — often used figuratively ▪ Investors are preparing for a bumpy/rough ride [=a difficult time] in the stock market.

3 a : a large machine at an amusement park, fair, etc., that people ride on for enjoyment ▪ The Ferris wheel is my favorite ride. b : the act of riding on such a machine ▪ We went for a ride on the roller coaster. — see also FREE RIDE along for the ride informal : doing something with other people without being seriously involved in it or having a serious interest in it ▪ He wasn't really interested in buying anything when we went to the store; he was just along for the ride. ▪ He wasn't really interested, but he came/went along for the ride.

take (someone) for a ride informal : to trick or fool (someone) especially in order to get money ▪ I figured out that he was taking me for a ride.

rid•er /ˈraɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who rides something ▪ a horseback rider ▪ Watch

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

out for bike riders while driving. ▪ riders on the bus — see also DISPATCH RIDER

2 a : an official document that is attached to another document and that adds to or changes information in the original document ▪ She added a rider to her life insurance policy that increased her coverage. b : an additional part added to a legislative bill ▪ Congress added a rider to the health insurance bill.

ridge /ˈrɪʤ/ noun, pl ridg•es [count]

1 : a long area of land that is on top of a mountain or hill ▪ We hiked along the ridge.

2 : a raised part or area on the surface of something ▪ the ridges on the sole of a boot

3 : the place where two sloping surfaces meet ▪ the ridge of a roof

4 weather : a long area of high atmospheric pressure ▪ A ridge of high pressure is coming up from the south. — compare TROUGH 4

ridged /ˈrɪʤd/ adj : having ridges ▪ ridged potato chips

[1]rid•i•cule /ˈrɪdəˌkjuːl/ noun [noncount] : the act of making fun of someone or something in a cruel or harsh way : harsh comments made by people who are laughing at someone or something ▪ She didn't show anyone her artwork for fear of ridicule. ▪ He was a subject/object of ridicule to his coworkers. [=he was ridiculed by his coworkers] ▪ They held him up to (public) ridicule. [=they made fun of him publicly]

[2]ridicule verb -cules; -culed; -cul•ing [+ obj] : to laugh at and make jokes about (someone or something) in a cruel or harsh way : to make fun of (someone or something) ▪ The other kids ridiculed him for the way he dressed. ▪ They ridiculed all of her suggestions.

ri•dic•u•lous /rəˈdɪkjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely silly or unreasonable ▪ She looks ridiculous in that outfit. ▪ Don't be ridiculous! ▪ It was a ridiculous suggestion. ▪ That's an absolutely ridiculous price for that sweater. ▪ He makes a ridiculous amount [=an extremely large amount] of money.

– ri•dic•u•lous•ly adv ▪ The movie was ridiculously long.

– ri•dic•u•lous•ness noun [noncount]

[1]rid•ing /ˈraɪdɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the sport or activity of riding a horse, bicycle, motorcycle, etc. ▪ (US) horseback riding = (Brit) horse riding ▪ We'll go riding after the rain stops.

[2]riding adj, always used before a noun

1 : related to or used for riding and especially for riding a horse ▪ riding lessons/gear/boots ▪ a riding helmet

2 US : controlled by a person who sits on it ▪ a riding lawnmower [=a lawnmower that you ride on] rife /ˈraɪf/ adj, not used before a noun : very common and often bad or unpleasant ▪ She visited a country where malaria was rife. [=widespread] ▪ Speculation about who would be fired ran rife for weeks.

rife with : having a large amount of (something bad or unpleasant) : full of (something bad or unpleasant) ▪ The school was rife with rumors. ▪ a history rife with scandal

[1]riff /ˈrɪf/ noun, pl riffs [count]

1 music : a short and usually repeated pattern of notes in a song ▪ a guitar riff ▪ He stole that riff from another song.

2 US, informal : a short set of comments on a particular subject — often + on ▪ a comedian's riff on modern love

[2]riff verb riffs; riffed; riff•ing [no obj]

1 music : to play a riff ▪ The guitarist riffed over the bass line.

2 US, informal : to talk about a particular subject in usually a quick and lively way : to deliver a riff on or about a particular subject ▪ He riffed on/about how great the economy was doing.

rif• e /ˈrɪfəl/ verb rif• es ; rif• ed ; rif• ing chiefly Brit : to look through something quickly and not very closely [no obj] He riffled through [=rifled through] her purse while she was out of the room. ▪ I riffled through [=flipped through] the magazine. [+ obj] He riffled the pages of the magazine.

riff•raff /ˈrɪfˌræf/ noun [noncount] disapproving : people who are not respectable : people who have very low social status ▪ Try not to associate with that riffraff. — often used in a humorous or exaggerated way to suggest the attitudes of wealthy and powerful people ▪ The doorman kept the riffraff out of the hotel.

[1]ri• e /ˈraɪfəl/ noun, pl ri• es [count] : a gun that has a long barrel and that is held against your shoulder when you shoot it — see picture at GUN; see also AIR RIFLE, ASSAULT RIFLE

[2]ri e verb ri es ; ri• ed ; ri• ing : to search through something quickly and carelessly often in order to take or steal something [+ obj] He rifled the papers on his desk. ▪ Someone rifled his wallet and took his money. [no obj] He rifled through the papers on his desk. — compare [3]RIFLE

[3]ri e verb ri es ; ri ed ; ri ing [+ obj] : to throw or hit (a ball) with a lot of speed and force ▪ The shortstop rifled a throw to second base for the out. ▪ The forward rifled the ball toward the goal. — compare [2]RIFLE

ri• e•man /ˈraɪfəlmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 : a soldier who carries a rifle

2 : a person who is skilled at shooting a rifle rift /ˈrɪft/ noun, pl rifts [count]

1 : a situation in which two people, groups, etc., no longer have a friendly relationship ▪ The fight will only widen the rift with his brother. — often + between ▪ Nothing could heal the rift between them.

2 a : a deep crack or opening in the ground, a rock, etc. ▪ the rift in the rock ▪ We could see some stars through the rifts in the clouds. b geology : a break in the Earth's crust ▪ Scientists are studying the Mid-Atlantic Rift.

rift valley noun, pl ~ -leys [count] geology : a long, steep valley formed when two parallel rifts form in the Earth's crust and the land between them sinks

[1]rig /ˈrɪg/ verb rigs; rigged; rig•ging [+ obj] : to control or affect (something, such as a game or election) in a dishonest way in order to get a desired result ▪ They are suspected of rigging [=fixing] the election. — compare [3]RIG

– rigged adj ▪ The boxing match was rigged. ▪ a rigged election

[2]rig noun, pl rigs [count]

1 : equipment or machinery that is used for a particular purpose ▪ an oil-drilling rig = an oil rig ▪ a radio rig

2 US : a large truck that is attached to a trailer ▪ He drives a big rig.

3 : the way the sails and masts are arranged on a ship or boat ▪ the rig of a schooner

[3]rig verb rigs; rigged; rigging [+ obj]

1 a : to build or set up (something) usually quickly and for temporary use ▪ We rigged (up) a lean-to. ▪ Aid workers rigged (up) a shelter for the hurricane victims. — see also JERRY-RIGGED, JURY-RIG b : to place (something) in the proper position for use ▪ The stage crew rigged (up) the lights.

2 : to provide (a boat or ship) with ropes, sails, etc. ▪ They rigged (up) the ship and prepared to set sail.

3 a : to provide (someone or something) with particular clothing or equipment — usually + out ▪ They rigged the volunteer firefighters out in nonflammable suits. b : to put something secretly in (a place) — usually + with ▪ They rigged the enemy base with explosives.

– compare [1]RIG

– rigged adj ▪ a fully-rigged ship

rigamarole variant spelling of RIGMAROLE rig•a•to•ni /ˌrɪgəˈtoʊni/ noun [noncount] : a type of pasta that is shaped like short, wide tubes rig•ging /ˈrɪgɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the ropes and chains that are used on a ship to help support the masts and sails ▪ They checked the rigging before they set sail.

2 : equipment that is used for supporting and using lights, curtains, etc., in a theater

[1]right /ˈraɪt/ adj

1 usually not used before a noun : morally or socially correct or acceptable ▪ Stealing is not right. ▪ You can't treat me like this! It's not right! ▪ You were right to tell the teacher about the girl who you saw cheating. ▪ Telling the teacher was the right thing to do. ▪ (chiefly Brit) "After I was treated so rudely, I complained to the management." "And quite right, too!" [=complaining was the right thing to do] ▪ Since they helped him, it's only right that he should help them too. [=since they helped him, he should help them too] — opposite WRONG

2 a : agreeing with the facts or truth : accurate or correct ▪ the right answer ▪ "Is that clock right? Is it noon already?" "Yes. That's right." ▪ There's something not quite right about his story. ▪ Their theory was proved right. ▪ Let me get this right—you want me to lend you $1,000?! — opposite WRONG b not used before a noun : speaking, acting, or judging in a way that agrees with the facts or truth ▪ You're right; the answer is six. ▪ I bet you like baseball. Am I right? ▪ Am I right in thinking that he should have never loaned her the money? ▪ We thought it was a bad idea, and time proved us right. — often + about ▪ He was right about her not having a job. ▪ "Relationships aren't easy." "You're definitely right about that." ▪ Let me put/set you right about one thing: I did not start this argument! — often followed by to + verb ▪ You're right to take things slowly with your new boyfriend. — opposite WRONG c — used in speech to ask if a statement is correct or to say that a statement is correct ▪ "You took the dog out for a walk, right?" "Yes, I did." ▪ "We met her at the party." "(That's) Right. Now I remember." ▪ "I'll pay for the damages." "(You're) Damn right you will!" [=(more politely) you certainly will] ▪ (Brit) "I'll pay for the damages." "Too right you will." ▪ (Brit) "Things are going from bad to worse." "Too right, mate!" d — used in speech to say you understand and accept what someone has said ▪ "It's getting late." "Oh, right. I'll be ready in a minute." ▪ "I'd like a coffee, please." "Right." = "Right you are." e — used for emphasis at the beginning of a statement ▪ Right. [=all right, OK] Let's get this over with. f — used in speech to express disbelief ▪ "I'm actually quite famous." "Right. And I'm the Pope." "No, it's true." "Yeah, right. I don't believe you."

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

3 : suitable or appropriate for a particular purpose, situation, or person ▪ She is the right person for the job. ▪ They're not right for each other. ▪ You made the right decision. ▪ Let me show you the right way to do it. ▪ He kept practicing his technique until he got it right. ▪ Hold the bat like this—that's right! ▪ This apartment is just the right size. ▪ That picture would be just right [=perfect] for my living room. ▪ I need to find the right moment to ask him for the money. ▪ I don't have the right tools to do the job. ▪ I'll buy the car if the price is right. ▪ He knows all the right people to succeed in this business. ▪ Becoming a star is often a matter of being in the right place at the right time. ▪ He always knows the right thing to say. — opposite WRONG; see also MR. RIGHT

4 a : in a normal or healthy state or condition ▪ I don't feel quite right. [=I feel somewhat ill] ▪ The fish you bought doesn't smell right. [=it doesn't smell the way it should] ▪ (informal) That boy is not right in the head. ▪ She is not in her right mind. [=she is mentally ill] b not used before a noun : in a proper state or condition ▪ Things are not right between them. [=they do not have a good/happy relationship] ▪ He apologized and tried to put/set things right (with her).

5 always used before a noun a : located on the side of your body that is away from your heart ▪ He felt a pain in his right side. ▪ her right hand/leg b : done with your right hand ▪ He hit him with a right hook to the jaw. c : located nearer to the right side of your body than to the left ▪ on the right side of the street ▪ a chair's right arm ▪ taking a right turn — opposite LEFT

6 US — used to refer to the side of something that is meant to be on top, in front, or on the outside ▪ The CD fell and landed right side up/down. ▪ He turned his socks right side out. — opposite WRONG

7 always used before a noun, Brit, informal : complete or total — used for emphasis ▪ I felt a right fool after making that mistake! ▪ We were in a right mess!

(as) right as rain informal : in excellent health or condition ▪ After a few days of rest, you'll be right as rain again.

get off on the right foot see [1]FOOT give your right arm see [1]GIVE push the right buttons see [1]BUTTON

– see also ALL RIGHT

– right•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She questioned the rightness of his actions/decision.

R

[2]right adv

1 : in the exact location, position, or moment that is mentioned ▪ The keys are right where I said they would be. ▪ "Where are my keys?" "They're right here/there." ▪ The bank is right next to the pharmacy. ▪ The parking lot is right in front/back of the building. ▪ He left his bags right in the middle of the floor. ▪ She was waiting right outside the door. ▪ The ball hit me right in the face. ▪ We arrived right at noon. ▪ I'm right behind you. ▪ You are right on time. ▪ When the boss yelled at him, he quit right then and there. ▪ If you need me, I am right here for you. [=I am available to support/help you]

2 : in a direct course or manner ▪ We went right [=straight, directly] home after the game. ▪ He walked right past me without saying hello. ▪ Come right this way, please. ▪ She came right out and said it. [=she said it without hesitating]

3 : in a way that agrees with the facts or truth : CORRECTLY ▪ You guessed right. ▪ You heard right. I got the job. — opposite WRONG

4 : in a suitable, proper, or desired way ▪ He eats right and exercises daily. ▪ You're not doing it right. [=correctly] ▪ Nothing is going right for me today. — opposite WRONG

5 : all the way ▪ We stayed up to watch the game right to the very end. ▪ The car went right [=completely] off the road. ▪ The baby slept right through the night.

6 : without delay : very soon or immediately ▪ She got pregnant right after they got married. ▪ I'll be right with you. ▪ He stepped out for a moment, but he'll be right back.

7 a : toward the right ▪ Turn right. ▪ She looked right and then left. ▪ Please move right. ▪ She ran right and caught the ball. b : towards the political right ▪ a political party that has shifted right ▪ His political views are slightly right of center. [=are slightly conservative] c US : using the right hand ▪ He bats/throws right. [=right-handed] — opposite LEFT

8 : in a complete manner ▪ He felt right [=completely] at home at his new job. ▪ She knew right [=(more commonly) very] well what was happening.

play your cards right see [1]CARD

right and left or Brit right, left, and centre : in a very quick and uncontrolled way ▪ She has been spending money right and left. : in all directions ▪ He was calling out names right and left. ▪ The police were stopping cars right and left.

right away also right off : without delay or hesitation : IMMEDIATELY ▪ Please send out this letter right away. ▪ I could tell right off that he was lying.

right now 1 : in the next moment : IMMEDIATELY ▪ Please clean up this mess right now. 2 : at the present time ▪ He is out of the office right now.

serve someone right see [1]SERVE

[3]right noun, pl rights

1 : behavior that is morally good or correct [noncount] He's old enough to know the difference between right and wrong. = He's old enough to know right from wrong. ▪ You did right [=you did the right thing] to tell the teacher. ▪ (old-fashioned) He always tried to do right by his employees. [=to treat his employees fairly] [count] We discussed the rights and wrongs of genetic cloning. — opposite WRONG

2 [count] : something that a person is or should be morally or legally allowed to have, get, or do ▪ women fighting for equal rights ▪ The government has denied the people their rights. [=has not allowed the people to do the things that they should be allowed to do] ▪ Knowing the truth is her right. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She has a right to know the truth. ▪ They demanded the right to vote. ▪ You have no right to order me around! ▪ What gives you the right to read my diary? ▪ He has every right to be angry. ▪ You are within your rights to demand a refund. [=you have the right to demand a refund] — often + of ▪ The government must protect the rights of its citizens. ▪ the constitutional right of privacy — see also BILL OF RIGHTS, BIRTHRIGHT, BRAGGING RIGHTS, CIVIL RIGHTS, DIVINE RIGHT, HUMAN RIGHT, WOMEN'S RIGHTS

3 rights [plural] : the legal authority to reproduce, publish, broadcast, or sell something ▪ broadcast rights ▪ movie rights — often + to ▪ The poet's family owns the publishing rights to all his books. — see also COPYRIGHT

4 a [noncount] : a location closer to the right side of your body than to the left : the right side ▪ Swing the bat from right to left. — often used with on ▪ As you come down the street, my house will be on your/the right. — often used with to ▪ Move it to the right. ▪ The picture is to the right of the window. b [count] : a turn or movement toward the right ▪ Take a right at the next intersection. = (US) Make/hang a right at the next intersection. ▪ two rights and then a left

5 [count] : a punch made with the right hand ▪ He hit him with a left to the stomach followed by a right to the jaw.

6 a the Right : political groups who favor traditional attitudes and practices and conservative policies ▪ His nomination is opposed by the country's Right. ▪ The new law is disliked by the Right. ▪ Members of the Right have voiced their opinions on this matter. b the right : the position of people who support the beliefs and policies of the political Right ▪ The party has shifted to the right. [=has become more conservative] — compare LEFT; see also the far right at [2]FAR

by right : according to what is legally or morally correct ▪ The money is mine by right. [=I have the right to have the money]

by rights also by all rights : according to what is proper and reasonable ▪ By rights, you should have been the one to receive the promotion.

dead to rights US 1 or Brit bang to rights : with proof that you are guilty ▪ The police had him dead to rights. ▪ She was caught dead to rights on a bribery charge. 2 sports : with no chance of winning or succeeding ▪ The other team had us dead to rights by the end of the first half.

in its own right : because of its own special qualities and not because of a connection with something else ▪ Though

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:48:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

it's based on a best-selling novel, the movie is great in its own right.

in the right : in the position or situation of being right ▪ You are in the right to demand a refund/apology. ▪ The judge agreed that he was in the right.

in your own right : because of your own efforts, talent, etc., and not because of your connection with someone else ▪ Her husband is a well-known novelist, but she is a successful writer in her own right.

might makes right see [2]MIGHT of right formal : according to what is legally or morally correct ▪ The estate belongs of right to him. ▪ (law) The federal court may intervene as of right. [=the federal court has a right to intervene] put/set (something) to rights : to put (something) back into the normal or proper condition ▪ He helped his mother put things to rights [=put things in order] after his father died.

two wrongs don't make a right see [3]WRONG

[4]right verb rights; right•ed; right•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) right : to correct (something wrong or unjust) ▪ It was time to right an old wrong. ▪ No one can right all the wrongs in the world.
2 : to return (something) to a proper state or condition ▪ The government needs to do something to right the economy.
3 : to put (something or someone) back in an upright position ▪ They righted the capsized boat. ▪ He quickly righted himself after he fell off the chair.

right angle noun, pl ∼ angles [count] : an angle formed by two lines that are perpendicular to each other : an angle that measures 90° ▪ A square has four right angles. ▪ Hold the nail at a right angle to the board. ▪ The two boards are joined at right angles to each other.

right–angled triangle noun, pl ∼ -angles [count] Brit : RIGHT TRIANGLE

right–click verb -clicks; -clicked; -clicking [no obj] computers : to press the button on the right side of a mouse or similar device in order to make something happen on a computer ▪ Right-click on the icon and select "Open" from the menu. — compare [1]CLICK 2 righ•teous /'raɪʧəs/ adj, formal

1 : morally good : following religious or moral laws ▪ a righteous person ▪ leading a righteous life
2 always used before a noun : caused by something that you believe is not morally right or fair ▪ righteous anger/indignation — see also SELF-RIGHTEOUS
– righ•teous•ly adv – righ•teous•ness noun [noncount] right eld noun [noncount] : the part of a baseball outfield that is to the right when you are looking out from home plate ▪ a fly ball to (deep/shallow) right field; also : the position of the player defending right field ▪ He plays right field.

– right elder noun, pl ∼ -ers [count]

right•ful /'raɪtfəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal 1 : according to the law ▪ The property should be returned to its rightful owner.
2 : proper or appropriate ▪ He will be given his rightful place in the history books.
– right•ful•ly adv ▪ The property is rightfully mine. ▪ She was rightfully praised for all the work she did.

right–hand /'raɪt,hænd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : located closer to your right hand : located on the right side ▪ Our building will be on the right-hand side. ▪ Please write your name on the bottom right-hand corner of the page. ▪ Take a right-hand turn. — compare LEFT-HAND
2 : made for the right hand ▪ right-hand [=(more commonly) right-handed] tools — compare LEFT-HAND

right–hand•ed /'raɪt'hændəd/ adj
1 : using the right hand more easily than the left hand ▪ a right-handed person/pitcher ▪ Most people in my family are right-handed, but I'm left-handed.
2 a : made for the right hand ▪ a right-handed glove b : using or done with the right hand ▪ a right-handed pitch/punch
3 : swinging from the right side of the body to the left side in sports like baseball and golf ▪ a right-handed batter/hitter
– right–handed adv ▪ She bats right-handed. – right–hand•ed•ness noun [noncount]

right–hand•er /'raɪt'hændə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a right-handed person; especially : a right-handed pitcher in baseball ▪ The team has more right-handers than left-handers.

right–hand man noun [singular] : a very important assistant who helps someone do a job ▪ He/She is the CEO's right-hand man.

Right Honourable adj, Brit — used as a title for a member of Parliament right•ist or Right•ist /'raɪtɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who belongs to or supports the political Right — compare LEFTIST – rightist or Rightist adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ a rightist government ▪ rightist intellectuals right•ly /'raɪtli/ adv

1 : in a way that is correct : CORRECTLY ▪ If I remember rightly, today is his birthday. ▪ She rightly anticipated a decline in the value of the stock. ▪ He points out, quite rightly, that there are flaws in the theory. ▪ Many people, rightly or wrongly, believe the economy will soon improve.
2 : for a good reason : in a way that is proper or appropriate ▪ She rightly admires his paintings. ▪ People are rightly upset about the city's rising crime rate. ▪ Quite rightly, the police commissioner is being blamed for the city's rising crime rate. ▪ She is proud of her children, and rightly so.
3 informal : with certainty : for sure — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't rightly know where she went. [=I don't know where she went; I'm not sure where she went] ▪ I can't rightly say what happened.

right–mind•ed /'raɪt'maɪndəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : having beliefs, opinions, etc., that most people think are morally or socially right ▪ right-minded citizens righto /ˌraɪt'oʊ/ interj, Brit, informal + old-fashioned — used to say that you agree with, understand, or accept something that you have been told ▪ "We need to leave soon." "Righto. I'll get ready."

right–of–way /ˌraɪtəv'weɪ/ noun, pl rights–of–way also right–of–ways
1 [noncount] : the right to move onto or across a road before other people or vehicles ▪ The other car has the right-of-way. ▪ Pedestrians have the right-of-way here.
2 [count] a : a legal right to go across another person's land b : a path on a person's land which other people have a legal right to use c : a long, narrow area of land that is used for a road, railway, etc. ▪ a railroad right-of-way

right on adj
1 US a : exactly correct ▪ Her assessment of the situation was right on. b informal + somewhat old-fashioned — used to say that you agree completely with what someone has said ▪ "Make love, not war!" "Right on, man!"
2 usually right-on [more ∼; most ∼] chiefly Brit, informal + sometimes disapproving : having or supporting liberal or left-wing beliefs and opinions about how people should be treated ▪ one of the right-on people

Right Reverend adj — used as a title for a high-ranking member of the clergy right•size /'raɪt,saɪz/ verb -siz•es; -sized; -siz•ing : to make a company smaller and more efficient by reducing the number of workers : DOWNSIZE [no obj] The company plans to rightsize. [+ obj] The company has rightsized [=downsized] its staff.

right–to–life /'raɪttə'laɪf/ adj, always used before a noun : opposed to abortion ▪ right-to-life groups/activists – right–to–life•er /'raɪttə'laɪfə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

right triangle noun, pl ∼ -angles [count] US : a triangle that has a right angle — called also (Brit) right-angled triangle

right•ward (chiefly US) /'raɪtwəd/ or chiefly Brit right•wards /'raɪtwəʤ/ adv : toward the right ▪ Turn the boat rightward. ▪ She stepped rightward into the light. ▪ He has moved rightward in his political beliefs. — opposite LEFTWARD – rightward adj ▪ a rightward turn right wing noun [singular] : the part of a political group that consists of people who support conservative or traditional ideas and policies : the part of a political group that belongs to or supports the Right ▪ His nomination is supported by the party's left wing but opposed by the right wing.

right–wing /'raɪt'wɪŋ/ adj : of, relating to, or belonging to the political Right : having or supporting ideas and policies that are associated with conservative groups ▪ right-wing politics/politicians – right–wing•er /'raɪt'wɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a policy opposed by right-wingers

righty /'raɪti/ noun, pl right•ies [count] chiefly US, informal : RIGHT-HANDER ▪ Our starting pitcher is a righty. — compare LEFTY rig•id /'rɪʤəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] 1 : not able to be bent easily : STIFF ▪ a rigid steel beam ▪ The patient's legs were rigid.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

2 : not easily changed ▪ a rigid procedure ▪ The periodical has rigid [=strict, inflexible] guidelines for submissions. ▪ a rigid [=strict, unwavering] adherence to the rules
3 : not willing to change opinions or behavior ▪ He is a rigid disciplinarian.
– ri•gid•i•ty /rə'ʤɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the rigidity of the plant's stem ▪ the rigidity of the guidelines – rig•id•ly adv ▪ The law was rigidly enforced. ▪ The soldiers stood rigidly at attention.

rig•ma•role or US rig•a•ma•role /'rɪgəmə,roʊl, 'rɪgmə,roʊl, Brit 'rɪgmə,rəʊl/ noun : a long, complicated, and annoying process, description, etc. [singular] We had to go through the rigmarole of installing, registering, and activating the software before we found out it wouldn't work. [noncount] He just told us what to do without all the usual rigamarole.

rig•or (US) or Brit rig•our /'rɪgə/ noun, pl -ors
1 rigors [plural] : the difficult and unpleasant conditions or experiences that are associated with something ▪ They underwent the rigors of military training. ▪ the rigors of life in the wilderness
2 [noncount] : the quality or state of being very exact, careful, or strict ▪ They conducted the experiments with scientific rigor. ▪ a scholar known for her intellectual rigor rig•or mor•tis /,rɪgə'moətəs/ noun [noncount] : a temporary stiffness of the body that happens soon after death rig•or•ous /'rɪgərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very strict and demanding ▪ rigorous enforcement of the rules ▪ rigorous training ▪ a rigorous course of study
2 : done carefully and with a lot of attention to detail ▪ We subjected the data to a rigorous analysis. ▪ a rigorous investigation
3 : difficult to endure because of extreme conditions ▪ a harsh, rigorous climate – rig•or•ous•ly adv ▪ The rules must be rigorously followed. ▪ The data was rigorously analyzed. – rig•or•ous•ness noun [noncount]

rile /'rajəl/ verb riles; riled; ril•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (someone) angry : to irritate or annoy (someone) ▪ Her comments riled the professor. — usually + up ▪ It doesn't take much to get him riled up. [=angry]
2 US, informal : to make (someone) very excited — usually + up ▪ His antics got the kids all riled up.

[1]rim /'rɪm/ noun, pl rims [count]
1 : the outer edge of a usually round object ▪ There were chips on the rim of the plate. ▪ eyeglasses with wire rims ▪ The basketball bounced off the rim (of the hoop). ▪ the rim of the volcano
2 : the part of a wheel that the tire is put on ▪ He bought stainless steel rims for his new car. — see picture at BICYCLE – rim•less /'rɪmləs/ adj ▪ rimless glasses

[2]rim verb rims; rimmed; rim•ming [+ obj] : to form or put a rim around (something) ▪ Sharp rocks rimmed [=bordered] the pond. ▪ She rimmed her eyes with eyeliner. ▪ a porcelain bowl rimmed with gold rime /'raɪm/ noun [noncount] : FROST ▪ a heavy coating of rime ▪ rime ice rimmed /'rɪmd/ adj : having a particular type of rim — used in combination ▪ horn-rimmed glasses ▪ dark-rimmed glasses ▪ a gold-rimmed plate rind /'raɪnd/ noun, pl rinds

1 : the tough, outer skin of some fruits that is usually removed before the fruit is eaten [count] an orange rind ▪ the rind of a watermelon [noncount] grated lemon rind — see color picture on page C5
2 [count, noncount] : a tough, outer surface of some foods (such as certain cheeses) ▪ the rind of a cheese ▪ bacon rind — see also PORK RIND

[1]ring /'rɪŋ/ noun, pl rings [count]
1 a : a piece of jewelry that is worn usually on a finger ▪ He gave her an engagement/diamond ring. — see color picture on page C11 b : a piece of jewelry that is shaped like a circle and worn in a special hole made in the skin ▪ a navel/nose ring — see also EARRING
2 a : something that is shaped like a circle ▪ He blew smoke rings. ▪ the rings of the planet Saturn ▪ Put the napkins in/through the napkin rings. ▪ I can't find my key ring. [=a metal circle to which keys are attached] — see also ONION RING, TEETHING RING b : something that forms a circle around something else ▪ They built a ring of houses around an open area. ▪ The moon was surrounded by a ring of clouds. c : a circular or curved mark or shape ▪ a white ring around the dog's eye ▪ a ring of dirt in the bathtub ▪ I hadn't slept all night and had dark rings [=(more commonly) circles] under my eyes.
3 : an area that is used for shows and contests and is usually surrounded by ropes or a fence ▪ a circus/rodeo ring ▪ a boxing/wrestling ring — see also BULLRING
4 : a group of people who are involved in some illegal or dishonest activity ▪ Police broke up a ring of car thieves. ▪ a smuggling ring
5 Brit : the part on the top of a stove where the heat or flame is produced : BURNER rings around — used in phrases like run rings around to say that one person or thing is much better than others ▪ There's an architect in our firm who runs rings around [=does much better work than] the rest of us. ▪ These are talented kids who can dance rings around [=dance much better than] most of their peers.
throw/toss your hat in/into the ring see HAT
– compare [4]RING

[2]ring verb rings; ringed; ring•ing [+ obj]
1 : to form a circle around (something or someone) : to surround (something or someone) ▪ Police ringed the building. ▪ Little cottages ring the lake.
2 Brit : to draw a circle around (something) ▪ He ringed [=circled] the words that were misspelled.
– compare [3]RING
– ringed /'rɪŋd/ adj ▪ a bird with a ringed bill ▪ Saturn, the ringed planet

[3]ring verb rings; rang /'ræŋ/; rung /'rʌŋ/; ringing
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (an object or device, such as a bell) to make a sound ▪ She rang the little bell. ▪ Ring the doorbell. ▪ When she discovered the fire she immediately rang [=(more commonly) sounded] the alarm. b [no obj] of an object or device : to make a sound especially as a signal of something ▪ The church bells were ringing. ▪ The alarm/doorbell is ringing. ▪ Excuse me, my cell phone is ringing. [=my cell phone is making the sound which signals that someone is calling] c [no obj] : to call someone or something by ringing a bell ▪ You rang, madam? [=you rang a bell to call for me; how can I help you?] — usually + for ▪ She rang for the servants. ▪ He rang for a nurse.
2 [no obj] a : to fill a place or area with sound ▪ Cheers rang through the hall as the winner was announced. ▪ Gunshots rang in the air. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His words were still ringing in my ears/head. [=I was still thinking about or remembering what he had said] ▪ She entered cautiously, the teacher's warning ringing in her ears. b : to be filled with the sound of something ▪ The hall rang with their cheers. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The whole town rang with news of the victory. [=many people in the town were talking about the victory] c of the ears : to be filled with a sound that other people cannot hear ▪ His ears were ringing after the concert.
3 [no obj] : to seem to have a specified quality or character ▪ Her explanation didn't ring true. = Her explanation rang false. [=her explanation didn't seem true; it seemed false] ▪ His apology rang hollow. [=his apology did not sound sincere]
4 chiefly Brit : to make a telephone call to someone or something : CALL [+ obj] I'll ring you (up) tomorrow. ▪ He called me yesterday, and I rang him back today. [no obj] I rang this morning. ▪ He's not here right now. Can you ring back later?
have/get your bell rung see BELL ring a bell informal : to be familiar ▪ Yes, that name rings a bell. ▪ The term didn't ring a bell with me.
ring in [phrasal verb] 1 *ring in (something) also ring (something) in : to celebrate the beginning of (something, such as a new year) ▪ How did you ring in the new millennium? ▪ We're going to New York to ring in the New Year. 2 chiefly Brit a : to make a telephone call to a place (such as the place where you work) ▪ She rang in sick [=(US) called in sick] yesterday. [=she telephoned the place where she works to say that she was sick and would not be coming to work] b : to make a telephone call to a radio or television program ▪ Thousands of people rang in [=(US) called in] to make a donation. 3 *ring in at (an amount) : to cost (a certain amount of money) ▪ These hats ring in at 200 dollars.
ring off [phrasal verb] Brit : to end a telephone call : to hang up ▪ He said he didn't have time to talk and quickly rang off.
ring off the hook US, of a telephone : to ring constantly or frequently ▪ The phone was ringing off the hook all morning. [=many people called during the morning]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

ring out [phrasal verb] : to be heard loudly and clearly ▪ A shot rang out. [=a loud shot was heard] ▪ Cheers rang out as the winner was announced.

ring the changes Brit : to make changes in order to do something differently, make it more interesting, etc. ▪ The team's manager rang the changes at halftime so that more players would have a chance to play.

ring up [phrasal verb] ring (something) up or ring up (something) 1 : to use a special machine (called a cash register) to calculate the cost of (something, such as goods or services) ▪ The cashier rang up our purchases. 2 : to achieve (something) ▪ The company rang up huge profits last quarter. ▪ She rang up another tournament win.

– compare [2]RING

[4]ring noun, pl rings

1 [count] a : the sound that a bell makes ▪ the ring of the doorbell b : the act of making a bell ring ▪ He gave the doorbell a ring. [=he rang the doorbell]

2 [count] a : the sound that a telephone makes when someone is calling ▪ The telephone's ring is loud. — compare RINGTONE b : one of the sounds in the series of sounds that a telephone makes when someone is calling ▪ She waited until the third ring to answer the phone.

3 [singular] : a specified quality ▪ Her story had a ring of truth about it. [=her story seemed true] ▪ His name had a familiar ring to it. [=his name was familiar] give (someone) a ring chiefly Brit : to make a telephone call to (someone) ▪ I'll give you a ring [=give you a call] tomorrow.

– compare [1]RING

ring binder noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a cover for sheets of paper that are fastened into rings that pass through holes on the edge of the paper ring•er /ˈrɪŋɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone who rings a bell ▪ a bell ringer

2 : the part of a telephone that rings to signal that someone is calling ▪ Turn off the ringer on the telephone.

3 informal : a person or animal that enters a contest illegally by using a false name, pretending not to have much skill, etc. ▪ One of the players on the winning team was a ringer.

4 informal : someone who looks very much like another person ▪ He's a ringer for the President. ▪ She's a dead ringer for my cousin Julie. [=she looks exactly like my cousin Julie] ring–fence verb -fenc•es; -fenced; -fenc•ing [+ obj] Brit : to put (an amount of money) aside for a specific purpose : EARMARK ▪ The money was ring-fenced for education programs.

ring nger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] : the third finger especially of your left hand when you count the index finger as the first finger — see picture at HAND ring•ing /ˈrɪŋɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 a : very loud and clear ▪ a ringing voice b : like the sound a bell or alarm makes ▪ Do you hear that ringing sound?

2 : made forcefully or with confidence ▪ a ringing endorsement/condemnation ring•lead•er /ˈrɪŋˌliːdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : the leader of a group that causes trouble or is involved in an illegal activity ▪ the ringleader of a gang of criminals ring•let /ˈrɪŋlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a long curl of hair — usually plural ▪ She wore her hair in ringlets.

ring•mas•ter /ˈrɪŋˌmæstɚ, Brit ˈrɪŋˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person whose job is to introduce the performers in a circus and to talk to the audience between performances ring pull noun, pl ~ pulls [count] Brit : PULL TAB ring road noun, pl ~ roads [count] Brit : a road that goes around a city or town ring•side /ˈrɪŋˌsaɪd/ noun [noncount] : the area that is closest to the space used for circus acts, boxing matches, etc. : the seats that are closest to the ring ▪ We were seated at ringside.

– ringside adj, always used before a noun ▪ We had ringside seats. – ringside adv ▪ We sat ringside.

ring•tone /ˈrɪŋˌtoʊn/ noun, pl -tones [count] : the sound that a cell phone makes when someone is calling ring toss noun, pl ~ tosses [count, noncount] US : a game in which players try to throw a ring so that it will fall over an upright stick ring•worm /ˈrɪŋˌwɚm/ noun [noncount] : a disease that causes ring-shaped marks to appear on the skin rink /ˈrɪŋk/ noun, pl rinks [count] : an often enclosed area that has a special surface of ice, smooth pavement, etc., and that is used for skating ▪ an ice-skating/roller-skating rink ▪ a hockey rink ▪ The hockey team is practicing at the rink.

rinky–dink /ˈrɪŋkiˌdɪŋk/ adj, US, informal + disapproving : not very large or important : involving only a few people or only a small area ▪ a rinky-dink operation/business ▪ a rinky-dink [=small-time] drug dealer

[1]rinse /ˈrɪns/ verb rins•es; rinsed; rins•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to wash (something) with clean water and without soap ▪ I rinsed my face in the sink. ▪ Rinse out your mouth. ▪ Rinse (off) the apple before you eat it. ▪ rinse (out) a cup ▪ He washed the dishes and then rinsed them thoroughly. b : to wash (something) with a liquid other than clean water ▪ The tools were rinsed in alcohol.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to remove (something) from an object by washing the object with clean water ▪ She rinsed the dirt off the lettuce. ▪ He rinsed the soap out of the cup.

[2]rinse noun, pl rinses

1 [count] : an act of washing something with a liquid and especially with clean water ▪ Give the apple a rinse [=rinse the apple] before you eat it.

2 : liquid that is used for rinsing something [count] a mouth rinse [noncount] She dunked the dish in the rinse water. ▪ Use sanitizing rinse on the scissors.

3 [count, noncount] : a dye that you put on your hair to change its color for a short time ▪ a bottle of hair rinse

[1]ri•ot /ˈrajət/ noun, pl ri•ots

1 [count] : a situation in which a large group of people behave in a violent and uncontrolled way ▪ The news about the election caused/started/sparked a riot in the city. ▪ a prison riot ▪ A lot of property was damaged in the recent riots. ▪ riot gear/police

2 [singular] : a place that is filled with something ▪ The field was a riot of wildflowers. [=the field was filled with many kinds of wildflowers] ▪ The woods are a riot of color in the autumn.

3 [singular] informal : someone or something that is very funny ▪ She's a riot. ▪ The movie was an absolute riot.

read (someone) the riot act : to speak in an angry and critical way to (someone who has done something wrong) : to tell (someone) that bad behavior will be severely punished if it continues ▪ His boss read him the riot act for making careless mistakes.

run riot : to behave in a violent and uncontrolled way ▪ People were running riot in the streets. — often used figuratively ▪ Crazy thoughts were running riot through my head. ▪ The weeds have run riot over our poor garden. [=the weeds in our garden have grown quickly and have taken over the garden]

[2]riot verb riots; ri•ot•ed; ri•ot•ing [no obj] of a group of people : to behave in a violent and uncontrolled way ▪ Students rioted after their team lost the football game.

– ri•ot•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Rioters looted the store. – rioting noun [noncount] ▪ Police stopped the rioting.

ri•ot•ous /ˈrajətəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 of a group of people : behaving in a violent and uncontrolled way ▪ a riotous assembly/crowd

2 : very exciting, fun, or full of energy ▪ a riotous party/celebration ▪ riotous humor

3 : existing or occurring in large amounts : ABUNDANT ▪ a riotous profusion of flowers

– ri•ot•ous•ly adv ▪ The fans celebrated riotously. ▪ He gave a riotously funny performance.

[1]rip /ˈrɪp/ verb rips; ripped; rip•ping

1 a [+ obj] : to tear, split, or open (something) quickly or violently ▪ She ripped the fabric in half. ▪ He ripped open the package. ▪ The dog ripped the pillow to shreds/pieces. ▪ The dog ripped a hole [=made a hole] in the pillow. ▪ The force of the explosion ripped a hole in the wall. b [no obj] : to become torn or split ▪ Her coat ripped when it caught on the doorknob. ▪ The seam has ripped.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to remove (something) quickly or violently ▪ I ripped the poster off the wall. ▪ The sink had been ripped from the wall. ▪ He ripped the page out of the magazine. ▪ She ripped off her mask. ▪ He ripped the letter from my hands.

3 [no obj] : to go or move very quickly through or into something ▪ The fire ripped through the forest. ▪ an epidemic that ripped through the region ▪ The bullet ripped into her leg.

4 [+ obj] : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way ▪ (US) The coach ripped [=ripped into] his team for their sloppy play. ▪ His latest movie was ripped to shreds/pieces by the critics.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

let rip informal 1 : to do something in a way that is full of anger or energy ▪ For the concert finale, the band let rip with a fantastic version of the song that made them famous. ▪ I don't think anyone expected the senator to let rip at the press conference like that. [=to speak in such an angry way] 2 let (something) rip : to make (a car, boat, machine, etc.) go very fast — usually used in phrases like let it rip and let her/'er rip ▪ Once we got the boat out into the open water, we let it rip.

rip apart [phrasal verb] 1 rip (something) apart or rip apart (something) : to completely destroy (something) by tearing it into pieces ▪ The child ripped the toy apart. ▪ Strong winds had ripped apart many of the little beach bungalows. — often used figuratively ▪ a tragedy/scandal that almost ripped the family apart 2 rip (someone or something) apart or rip apart (someone or something) : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way especially by describing weaknesses, flaws, etc. ▪ Critics ripped the author's latest novel apart. ▪ an article that rips apart the mayor's plan rip into [phrasal verb] rip into (someone or something) : to criticize (someone or something) in a very harsh or angry way ▪ The coach ripped into [=tore into] the team after the game. ▪ She ripped into the band's last performance.

rip off [phrasal verb] informal 1 rip (someone) off or rip off (someone) : to steal from or cheat (someone) ▪ Hundreds of people were ripped off in a scam involving two people who claimed to be collecting money for disaster victims. ▪ The store had been ripping customers off for years. ▪ I wasn't trying to rip you off. I thought $50 was a fair price. 2 rip (something) off or rip off (something) a : to steal (something) ▪ The organization's treasurer ripped off almost $6,000 before being caught. ▪ Somebody ripped off [=stole] all our equipment. = All our equipment got ripped off. [=stolen] b disapproving : to copy or imitate (something) improperly : to make something that is too much like (something made by someone else) ▪ The film has done well, but its makers have been accused of ripping off another movie made 30 years ago. — see also RIP-OFF rip up [phrasal verb] rip (something) up or rip up (something) : to completely destroy (something) by tearing it into pieces ▪ He ripped up the letter.

[2]rip noun, pl rips [count] : a long tear in something ▪ She has a rip in her coat.

R.I.P. or chiefly Brit RIP /ˌɑəˌaɪˈpi:/ abbr rest in peace ✧ R.I.P. is often written on a gravestone as a wish that the person buried there will have peace in death.

rip cord noun, pl ~ cords [count] : a cord or wire that is pulled to open a parachute ripe /ˈraɪp/ adj rip•er; rip•est [also more ~; most ~]

1 of fruits and vegetables : fully grown and developed and ready to be eaten ▪ a ripe tomato ▪ The apples are nearly ripe. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the violin's full, ripe sound ▪ a story ripe with details [=a story that includes many details] — opposite UNRIPE
2 not used before a noun : ready or suitable for something — usually + for ▪ The army was ripe for action. ▪ a system that is ripe for abuse [=a system that is in such bad condition that it could easily be used wrongly] ▪ The time was ripe for proposing his plan. ▪ We'll make these changes when the time is ripe.
3 of food and especially cheese : brought to full flavor or the best state by being stored for a period of time ▪ a ripe cheese ripe old age : a very old age ▪ She took up painting at the ripe old age of 85. ▪ They both lived to a ripe old age. — sometimes used humorously ▪ She decided at the ripe old age of 23 that she'd learned all there was to know about human nature.
4 : having a strong and unpleasant smell ▪ Those old sneakers smell pretty ripe.

– ripe•ness noun [noncount] ▪ Check the ripeness of the fruit before you buy it. ▪ the cheese's ripeness

rip•en /ˈraɪpən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [no obj] : to become ripe and ready to eat ▪ The tomatoes finished ripening on the windowsill.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) ripe ▪ You can ripen the fruit by placing it in a paper bag and storing it at room temperature for a few days.

rip–off /ˈrɪpˌɑ:f/ noun, pl -offs [count] informal + disapproving
1 : something that is too expensive : something that is not worth its price ▪ The food was decent but the drinks were a rip-off. ▪ The bike turned out to be a real rip-off.
2 : something that is too much like something made by someone else ▪ The song is an obvious rip-off. ▪ His new movie's just a rip-off of another movie made 30 years ago. — see also rip off at [1]RIP ri•poste /rɪˈpoʊst/ noun, pl -postes [count] formal : a quick and clever reply ▪ a witty riposte [=retort]

ripped adj
1 : having rips : torn, split, or opened ▪ She was wearing ripped jeans.
2 US, informal : having a strong and muscular body or shape with little fat ▪ ripped [=chiseled] abs ▪ a ripped body ▪ He is ripped.

[1]rip•ple /ˈrɪpəl/ verb rip•ples; rip•pled; rip•pling
1 : to move in small waves [no obj] Water rippled under the dock. ▪ We could see the lion's muscles ripple. [+ obj] A cool breeze rippled the water.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to pass or spread through or over (someone or something) ▪ Fear/excitement rippled through the room. [=people in the room suddenly felt fear/excitement] ▪ Economists predict that these costs will ripple through the economy. [=will affect the entire economy]

[2]ripple noun, pl ripples [count]
1 a : a small wave on the surface of a liquid ▪ The pebble made ripples in the pond when I threw it in. b : a shape or pattern having small waves ▪ ripples of sand
2 : a sound that gradually becomes louder and then quieter — usually + of ▪ ripples of laughter
3 : something that passes or spreads through or over someone or something — usually singular; often + of ▪ A ripple of fear/excitement spread through the room. [=people in the room suddenly felt fear/excitement]

ripple effect noun, pl ~ -fects [count] : a situation in which one event causes a series of other events to happen ▪ These kinds of crimes create a ripple effect throughout the city. [=they cause more crimes, problems, etc.] ▪ These costs will have a huge/major ripple effect on the economy. [=the costs will cause important changes in the economy]

rip–roar•ing /ˈrɪpˈrorɪŋ/ adj, informal : very loud, lively, and exciting ▪ a rip-roaring party – rip–roaring adv ▪ He was rip-roaring drunk. [=he was very drunk in a lively and noisy way]

rip•tide /ˈrɪpˌtaɪd/ noun, pl -tides [count] : a strong usually narrow current of water that flows away from a shore

[1]rise /ˈraɪz/ verb ris•es; rose /ˈroʊz/; ris•en /ˈrɪzn/; ris•ing /ˈraɪzɪŋ/ [no obj]
1 a : to move upward ▪ Smoke was rising into the air. ▪ Bubbles rose to the surface of water. ▪ The airplane rose [=(more formally) ascended] into the sky. — often + up ▪ Smoke was rising up into the air. ▪ The airplane rose up from the runway. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His spirits rose [=he began to feel happier] when he heard the good news. b : to become higher ▪ The tide rose and fell. ▪ The river is rising. c : to slope or extend upward ▪ The land rises as you move away from the coast. ▪ The road rose gently/steeply. ▪ a tower rising above the little town ▪ steeply/sharply rising mountain peaks — often + up ▪ The mountains rose up before us.
2 : to advance to a higher level or position : to become more popular, successful, etc. ▪ a politician who rose to fame/power/prominence very quickly ▪ Empires rise [=become powerful, important, etc.] and fall. ▪ The book has risen to the top of best-seller lists. ▪ She rose through the ranks of the company to become president. [=she began her career with the company with little power or authority and gradually gained more power and authority until she had become president] ▪ She has risen in my estimation. [=I think more highly of her; I respect/admire her more]
3 a : to increase in amount, number, level, etc. : to become more ▪ Sales have risen [=increased] in recent months. ▪ People are angry about rising gasoline prices. ▪ The population has been rising [=growing] dramatically/sharply/markedly. ▪ Stocks rose (by) several points in early trading today. ▪ The market is continuing to rise. b : to become stronger : to increase in strength ▪ The wind rose in the afternoon. ▪ My anger rose as I thought about what she had said. c : to become louder : to increase in volume ▪ The music rose and fell. ▪ Her voice rose to an angry shout.
4 a : to stand up ▪ He rose slowly (to his feet). ▪ She quickly rose from the chair and began to walk away. b : to get up from sleeping in a bed ▪ He rose refreshed after a good night's sleep. ▪ Rise and shine! [=wake up and get out of bed]
5 of the sun or moon : to appear above the horizon ▪ The sun

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

rises [=comes up] in the morning and sets at night. ▪ We watched as the moon rose in the eastern sky. — opposite [1]SET 11

6 of bread, cake, etc. : to become bigger because of being filled with air bubbles made through a chemical process ▪ Yeast will make the dough rise.

7 : to begin to fight in order to remove a ruler or government ▪ The people rose in rebellion/revolt. — often + up ▪ He told the people that they should rise up and overthrow the corrupt government.

8 : to live again after dying : to come back to life ▪ a belief that the dead will rise again [=will live again] ▪ Christians believe that Jesus Christ rose from the dead.

rise above [phrasal verb] rise above (something) 1 : to not allow yourself to be hurt or controlled by (something bad or harmful) ▪ We need to rise above our anger/frustration and find a way to get along with each other. ▪ She rose above the prejudice of her time to become a great civil rights leader. ▪ It's time to rise above petty bickering/politics. 2 : to be or become better than (something) ▪ The quality of the food never rises above average.

rise to the occasion/challenge : to make the special effort that is required to successfully deal with a difficult situation ▪ No one was sure if he could handle the pressure of making a speech, but he rose to the occasion and did an excellent job. ▪ When the company needed to increase its sales, its employees rose to the challenge.

your gorge rises see [1]GORGE

[2]rise noun, pl rises

1 [count] : an increase in amount, number, level, etc. — usually singular ▪ There has been a sharp/dramatic rise in property values. ▪ The town's population has grown by 200—a rise of more than 20 percent. ▪ a steady rise [=increase] in the number of available jobs ▪ a rise in prices/taxes = (chiefly Brit) a price/tax rise — opposite DECREASE

2 [singular] : an upward movement ▪ We watched the rise and fall of the waves.

3 [singular] : the act of advancing to a higher level or position : the process by which something or someone becomes established, popular, successful, etc. ▪ The book describes the empire's rise and fall. ▪ the meteoric/sudden rise of the Internet ▪ a politician's rise to fame/power/prominence ▪ the rise of nationalism/feminism

4 [count] a : an upward slope ▪ There was a gentle/steep rise in the road as we approached the town. b : an area of ground that is higher than the ground around it : a small hill ▪ We could see the valley below us as we came over the rise.

5 [count] Brit : an increase in the amount of money paid to a worker : RAISE ▪ I asked my boss for a rise. ▪ a pay rise get a rise out of informal : to cause (someone) to react in an angry way : to make (someone) angry or upset ▪ Ignore her. She's just trying to get a rise out of you.

give rise to : to cause or produce (something) ▪ His strange behavior gave rise to rumors about his health. ▪ The recent increase in prices has given rise to concerns about inflation.

on the rise 1 : increasing in amount, number, level, etc. ▪ Prices were falling last year, but now they are on the rise again. ▪ The water level in the lake is on the rise. 2 : becoming more successful, popular, etc. ▪ an actress whose career is on the rise

ris•er /ˈraɪzɚ/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a person who gets out of bed after sleeping — used in the phrases early riser and late riser ▪ I'm an early/late riser. [=I get out of bed early/late in the morning]

2 [count] technical : the upright board between two stairs

3 risers [plural] US : a set of tall and wide steps for standing or sitting on ▪ The school choir stood on the risers for the concert.

ris•i•ble /ˈrɪzəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : deserving to be laughed at : very silly or unreasonable ▪ a risible [=(more commonly) ridiculous] title ▪ The suggestion was downright risible.

rising noun, pl -ings [count] chiefly Brit : a violent attempt by a group of people in a country to remove a leader or government : UPRISING ▪ He was the leader of an armed rising against the elected government.

rising star noun, pl ~ stars [count] : a person who is quickly becoming popular, successful, etc. ▪ a politician who is a rising star in the Republican/Democratic Party

[1]risk /ˈrɪsk/ noun, pl risks

1 : the possibility that something bad or unpleasant (such as an injury or a loss) will happen [noncount] I prefer not to expose my money to too much risk. ▪ The degree of risk is minimal. ▪ All investments have/involve an element of risk. [count] The trip didn't seem like much of a risk. ▪ I'm aware of the risks associated with this treatment. ▪ There is a risk of liver damage with this medication. ▪ Wearing a seatbelt greatly reduces the risk of injury or death in a car accident. ▪ We feel that this product presents a significant risk to public health. ▪ To me, skydiving is not worth the risk.

2 [count] : someone or something that may cause something bad or unpleasant to happen ▪ Smoking is a risk to your lungs. ▪ Kids think it's fun, but they don't realize the risks involved. ▪ Excess body fat is a serious/significant health risk. ▪ The government claims she is a risk to national security. — see also SECURITY RISK

3 [count] : a person or thing that someone judges to be a good or bad choice for insurance, a loan, etc. ▪ Drivers who are considered poor risks have to pay more for car insurance. ▪ The bank will determine if a potential borrower is a good/bad credit risk. [=someone who is likely/unlikely to pay back money the bank loans]

at risk : in a dangerous situation : in a situation in which something bad or harmful could happen ▪ They believe that the policy puts the country at risk. ▪ people who are at risk of developing heart disease [=who might develop heart disease] ▪ The program is designed for students who are at risk for/of failure. [=who are in danger of failing] ▪ Many residents remain at risk from floodwaters. ▪ He placed his life at risk to save them. [=he risked his life to save them] ▪ The firefighter went back into the burning building to save the dog—at considerable risk to his own life.

at the risk of (doing something) : despite the possibility of (doing something that could be considered improper, wrong, etc.) ▪ At the risk of being/sounding rude, I have to ask you how old you are. [=I have to ask how old you are even though you may consider me rude for asking] ▪ At the risk of sounding repetitive, I want to say again that our basic problem is a lack of effective leadership.

at your own risk : with full understanding that what you are doing is dangerous and that you are responsible for your own safety ▪ There's no lifeguard here, so if you swim you'll be doing it at your own risk.

calculated risk see CALCULATED run a risk : to do something that may result in loss, failure, etc. ▪ He is not afraid of running risks. [=(more commonly) taking risks] run the risk of : to do something that may result in (something bad or unpleasant happening) ▪ You run the risk of being misunderstood if you don't explain your purpose carefully. ▪ That strategy runs the risk of undermining their authority. ▪ It's a dangerous policy that runs the risk of failure/failing.

take a risk : to do something that may result in loss, failure, etc. ▪ Every time you invest money, you're taking a risk.

[2]risk verb risks; risked; risk•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (something) in a situation in which it could be lost, damaged, etc. ▪ She risked her life to save her children. ▪ He risked all his money on starting his own business. — see also risk life and limb at [1]LIFE, risk your neck at [1]NECK

2 : to do something that could result in (something bad or unpleasant) ▪ He risked breaking his neck. ▪ She's risking being considered too sentimental. ▪ The country risked a war. ▪ brave people who risked being killed to help others ▪ I'm not willing to risk getting lost. I'm going to buy a map. ▪ The company is risking the loss of millions of dollars.

3 : to do (something that may have harmful or bad results) ▪ It's not wise to risk traveling so soon after surgery. ▪ We should stop for more gas. We probably have enough, but I don't want to risk it. [=I don't want to possibly not have enough gas] risk factor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : something that increases risk; especially : something that makes a person more likely to get a particular disease or condition ▪ Age is one of the risk factors for this disease.

risk–taking noun [noncount] : the act or fact of doing something that involves danger or risk in order to achieve a goal ▪ Starting a business always involves some risk-taking. – risk–taker noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ I'm not much of a risk-taker. [=I don't like to take risks]

risky /ˈrɪski/ adj risk•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : involving the possibility of something bad or unpleasant happening : involving risk ▪ The proposal seems risky. ▪ It's not as risky [=dangerous] as people think. ▪ a less/slightly risky investment ▪ Her plan is too risky. ▪ Love is a risky business.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

[=love involves the possibility of being hurt] ▪ It's a risky move [=an action that may result in something bad or unpleasant happening] for the company.
– risk•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I don't like the riskiness of the plan.

ri•sot•to /rɪˈsɑːtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos [count, noncount] : an Italian dish made with rice and often vegetables or meat

ris•qué /rɪˈskeɪ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : referring to sex in a rude and slightly shocking way ▪ a risqué joke/topic ▪ a song with risqué lyrics

ris•sole /ˈrɪˌsoʊl/ noun, pl -soles [count] Brit : a small mass or ball of chopped and fried meat

Rit•a•lin /ˈrɪtələn/ trademark — used for a drug that is given to people who suffer from attention deficit disorder

rite /ˈraɪt/ noun, pl rites [count] : an act that is part of a usually religious ceremony ▪ Incense is often burned in their religious rites. ▪ funeral/purification rites ▪ Police suspect that the crime was a gang initiation rite. [=an act that someone must do in order to officially join a gang] — see also LAST RITES rite of passage noun, pl rites of passage [count] : an act that is a symbol of an important change in someone's life ▪ Her ears were pierced as a rite of passage. ▪ For many, going to college is a rite of passage.

[1]rit•u•al /ˈrɪʧəwəl/ noun, pl -als
1 : a formal ceremony or series of acts that is always performed in the same way [count] a religious ritual ▪ an ancient fertility ritual ▪ The priest will perform the ritual. [noncount] He was buried simply, without ceremony or ritual.
2 : an act or series of acts done in a particular situation and in the same way each time [count] the daily ritual of preparing breakfast ▪ the bird's mating ritual [noncount] His day-to-day life is based on ritual.

[2]ritual adj, always used before a noun
1 : done as part of a ceremony or ritual ▪ a ritual dance ▪ perform a ritual purification
2 : always done in a particular situation and in the same way each time ▪ ritual acts ▪ a ritual greeting/gesture
– rit•u•al•ly adv

rit•u•al•is•tic /ˌrɪʧəwəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to or done as part of a rite or ritual ▪ ritualistic acts ▪ the ritualistic use of incense – rit•u•al•is•ti•cal•ly /ˌrɪʧəwəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv

ritzy /ˈrɪtsi/ adj ritz•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very fashionable and expensive often in a showy way ▪ a ritzy resort/club/wedding

[1]ri•val /ˈraɪvəl/ noun, pl -vals [count]
1 : a person or thing that tries to defeat or be more successful than another ▪ The teams have been longtime rivals. ▪ The men are romantic rivals for her affection. ▪ her rival [=competitor, opponent] in the election ▪ the company's chief/main rival — often used before another noun ▪ a rival team/gang/candidate/company/school ▪ He told a rival version of the story. [=a version that disagrees with another version]
2 : something or someone that is as good or almost as good as another person or thing ▪ The company's paper is the rival of any in the world. [=it is as good as any paper in the world] ▪ The company's latest cell phone has no rival/rivals. [=the company's newest cell phone is much better than all others available]

[2]rival verb rivals; US ri•valed or Brit ri•valled; US ri•val•ing or Brit ri•val•ling [+ obj] : to be as good or almost as good as (someone or something) ▪ The company manufactures paper that rivals the world's best. ▪ The new museum will rival the largest in the world.

ri•val•ry /ˈraɪvəlri/ noun, pl -ries : a state or situation in which people or groups are competing with each other [count] There is a bitter/friendly rivalry between the two groups. [noncount] a strong sense of rivalry ▪ In our family there was plenty of sibling rivalry. [=competition or jealousy between sisters and brothers]

rive /ˈraɪv/ verb rives; rived; riv•en /ˈrɪvən/; riv•ing [+ obj] formal : to divide or split (something) especially in a forceful or violent way — usually used as (be) riven ▪ The country was riven by civil war. ▪ a family riven with jealousy

riv•er /ˈrɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a large natural flow of water that crosses an area of land and goes into an ocean, a lake, etc. ▪ the Mississippi River ▪ The raft is too small to use on this part of the river. ▪ They have a house on the river. [=on land next to the river] ▪ Large boats came up/down the river. [=in the opposite/same direction that the river is flowing] ▪ the mouth of the river = the river's mouth = the river mouth [=the place where the river enters the ocean] — see color picture on page C7; compare STREAM
2 : a large flow of something ▪ Rivers of mud flowed down the hillside. — often + of ▪ The jet stream is a river of air. ▪ I cried a river of tears. [=I cried a lot] sell (someone) down the river see [1]SELL up the river US, old-fashioned + informal : to prison ▪ They sent him up the river for 10 years.

riv•er•bank /ˈrɪvəˌbæŋk/ noun, pl -banks [count] : the ground at the edge of a river ▪ They set up their camp next to the riverbank. [=next to the edge of the river]

riv•er•bed /ˈrɪvəˌbɛd/ noun, pl -beds [count] : the ground at the bottom of a river riv•er•boat /ˈrɪvəˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat that is used on a river riv•er•front /ˈrɪvəˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] chiefly US : the land that is next to a river ▪ We went for a walk down at the riverfront. — often used before another noun ▪ riverfront property

riv•er•side /ˈrɪvəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : the land that is next to a river ▪ We walked along the riverside. — often used before another noun ▪ a riverside community/camp

[1]riv•et /ˈrɪvət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a special kind of metal bolt or pin that is used to hold pieces of metal together

[2]rivet verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [+ obj]
1 : to attract and hold all of someone's attention — usually used as (be) riveted ▪ I was riveted by her story. [=her story was so interesting that I was giving all of my attention to it] ▪ All eyes were riveted on her as she walked past. [=everyone watched her as she walked past] ▪ the kind of performance that keeps an audience riveted
2 : to make (someone) unable to move because of fear, shock, etc. — usually used as (be) riveted ▪ He was riveted to the spot with fright/amazement. ▪ She stood riveted in place, staring straight ahead.
3 : to fasten (something) with rivets ▪ The iron plates are riveted rather than welded.
– riv•et•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He worked as a riveter in an airplane factory.

riv•et•ing /ˈrɪvətɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very exciting or interesting ▪ The movie/book/narrative was riveting. ▪ a riveting story

Ri•vi•era /ˌrɪviˈerə/ noun
the Riviera : an area by the sea that has warm weather and is a popular place for people to go for vacations ▪ the French/Italian Riviera riv•u•let /ˈrɪvjələt/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a small stream of water or liquid ▪ rivulets of water/sweat

rm. abbr room

[1]RN /ˌɑəˈɛn/ noun, pl RNs [count] : REGISTERED NURSE

[2]RN abbr, Brit Royal Navy

RNA /ˌɑəˌɛnˈeɪ/ noun [noncount] technical : a substance in the cells of plants and animals that helps make proteins — called also ribonucleic acid; compare DNA

[1]roach /ˈroʊʧ/ noun, pl roach•es [count]
1 US : COCKROACH
2 informal : the part of a marijuana cigarette that is left after it has been smoked
– compare [2]ROACH

[2]roach noun, pl roach also roaches [count] : a small European fish that lives in rivers and lakes — compare [1]ROACH road /ˈroʊd/ noun, pl roads

1 : a hard flat surface for vehicles, people, and animals to travel on [count] a paved/gravel/dirt road ▪ We'll cross the road up ahead at the crosswalk. ▪ He drove off the road. ▪ We parked by the side of the road. ▪ There are lots of cars on the road this morning. ▪ The roads around here are pretty bad. [=the roads are in bad condition] ▪ This is a busy road. [=many cars, trucks, etc., use this road] ▪ These country/mountain roads are beautiful. ▪ icy roads ▪ The post office is up/down this road a bit. [=a short distance further on this road] ▪ There's likely to be a lot of traffic on the main/major roads [=the roads most commonly used], so you may want to take back/side roads. [=roads that are less commonly used and that do not go through the main part of a city, town, etc.] ▪ the county's public/private roads — often used in names ▪ The library is on River Road. [noncount] a desolate stretch of road ▪ Miles of road lay ahead. ▪ The cabin is accessible by road. ▪ traveling on the open road [=on roads that are away from cities and towns] — see also MIDDLE-OF-THE-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

ROAD, OFF-ROAD, SERVICE ROAD

2 [count] : a process or a course of action that leads to a certain result ▪ the road to riches/success/victory ▪ They're heading down a dangerous road. [=they're following a course of action that could lead to a bad result] ▪ She had a stroke recently but is on the road to recovery. [=in the process of becoming healthy again] ▪ I've been/gone down this road before. [=I've had this kind of experience before; I've done this kind of thing before] — see also HIGH ROAD down the road : in or into the future ▪ We don't know what the situation will be like a month/year down the road. ▪ They hope to expand the business somewhere down the road. [=at some time in the future] for the road — used to refer to an alcoholic drink that you have quickly before leaving a place ▪ I'll just have one (more) for the road. [=I'll have one more drink before I leave]

get the/this show on the road see ²SHOW hit the road informal : to begin a journey ▪ We got up early and hit the road around 7:00. : to go away : LEAVE ▪ Well, I guess it's time to hit the road. ▪ She angrily told him to hit the road. [=get lost] on the road 1 : traveling especially in a car, truck, bus, etc. ▪ We've been on the road since Tuesday. ▪ Musicians often spend many months on the road. 2 of a vehicle a : being used ▪ You don't see too many of those cars on the road anymore. b : in good enough condition to be legally driven ▪ It will cost $1,500 to get the car back on the road.

the end of the road see ¹END

road•block /ˈroʊdˌblɑːk/ noun, pl -blocks [count]
1 : a place where police or military officers stop drivers especially in order to examine vehicles
2 US : something that stops progress ▪ That's the one roadblock to the plan. ▪ roadblocks on the path to success road hog noun, pl ~ hogs [count] informal + disapproving : someone who drives a vehicle in a way that blocks other drivers road•house /ˈroʊdˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -houses [count] US, old-fashioned : a restaurant or bar that is on a main road outside a city or town road•ie /ˈroʊdi/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : a person whose job is to help move and set up the equipment of traveling musicians road•kill /ˈroʊdˌkɪl/ noun [noncount] : animals that have been killed by being hit by cars and other vehicles ▪ There is a lot of roadkill along the highway.

road map noun, pl ~ maps [count]
1 : a map that shows the roads in a particular area ▪ Did you bring a road map?
2 chiefly US : a plan for achieving a goal ▪ a road map to/for peace road rage noun [noncount] : anger and aggressive behavior by a driver who is upset by how another person is driving road•run•ner /ˈroʊdˌrʌnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a North American bird that lives in the desert and runs very fast road show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a group of people who travel to different places to entertain people or to advertise something road•side /ˈroʊdˌsaɪd/ noun [noncount] : the land that is along a road : the area beside a road ▪ a hamburger stand on/by/at the roadside — often used before another noun ▪ a roadside restaurant ▪ roadside vegetation road sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] : a sign near a road that has information for drivers road•ster /ˈroʊdstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a car that has two seats and a fabric top that folds back road test noun, pl ~ tests [count]

1 : a test to see how well a vehicle works when it is driven on roads ▪ The car performed well on the road test.
2 US : a test to see how well someone is able to drive a car or other vehicle ▪ I have to take a road test [=driving test] before I can get my license.
– road test verb ~ tests; ~ tested; ~ testing [+ obj] ▪ The car has not yet been road tested.

road trip noun, pl ~ trips [count] US
1 : a long trip in a car, truck, etc. ▪ a cross-country road trip
2 : a trip that is taken by a sports team in order to play one or more games ▪ The team won three of five games on its road trip.

road warrior noun, pl ~ -riors [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who travels a lot especially as part of his or her job ▪ a lightweight laptop computer that's perfect for road warriors road•way /ˈroʊdˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] : the part of a road that is used by vehicles ▪ Police cleared the roadway for the parade.

road•work /ˈroʊdˌwəːk/ noun [noncount] US : work that is done to build or repair roads ▪ The roadwork caused a backup in traffic. — called also (Brit) roadworks road•wor•thy /ˈroʊdˌwəːði/ adj : safe and suitable for using on a road ▪ a roadworthy vehicle — compare AIRWORTHY, SEAWORTHY – road•wor•thi•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The trucks were all tested for roadworthiness.

roam /ˈroʊm/ verb roams; roamed; roam•ing : to go to different places without having a particular purpose or plan [no obj] The cattle roamed in search of water. ▪ Goats roam free on the mountain. ▪ He roamed about in search of work. ▪ The chickens are able to roam around freely in the farmyard. ▪ We roamed around town for a while before dinner. ▪ She liked to roam through the woods. [+ obj] Sheep roamed the hills. ▪ Tourists roamed the streets. ▪ She spent the day roaming [=surfing] the Internet. ▪ His eyes roamed [=he looked carefully around] the room in search of the cat.

roaming noun [noncount] : the use of a cell phone in an area that is outside the usual area and that requires the use of a different network ▪ There are high fees for roaming. — often used before another noun ▪ roaming charges/fees

roan /ˈroʊn/ noun, pl roans [count] : a horse that has white hairs mixed in with hairs of a darker color
– roan adj, always used before a noun ▪ a roan horse/mare/colt

¹roar /ˈroə/ verb roars; roared; roar•ing
1 [no obj] a : to make the loud sound of a wild animal (such as a lion) ▪ We heard a lion roar in the distance. b : to make a long, loud sound ▪ The guns/siren roared. ▪ The fans were roaring [=yelling and cheering loudly] after their team scored. ▪ The campfire was roaring. [=the campfire was burning brightly and loudly] ▪ The engine suddenly roared (back) to life. [=it made the loud sound of an engine and began running well] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His career suddenly roared back to life.
2 [no obj] : to laugh loudly ▪ The joke got the crowd roaring. ▪ The audience roared with laughter. [=the audience laughed loudly for a long time]
3 : to shout (something) very loudly [+ obj] "Watch out," he roared. ▪ The crowd roared its approval. — often + out ▪ The general roared out his orders. [no obj] She roared at him for being late.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move noisily and quickly ▪ The truck roared away/off. ▪ The car roared down the street. ▪ The wind roared through the open barn. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The team came roaring back in the second half to win the game.

²roar noun, pl roars [count]
1 : the loud sound of a wild animal (such as a lion)
2 : a loud, low sound that continues for a long time ▪ the roar of the airplane engines ▪ the roar of the river/crowd ▪ roars of laughter/approval

¹roaring /ˈrorɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : very loud, active, or strong ▪ the roaring river ▪ a roaring fire ▪ The store does a roaring business/trade. [=the store is very busy and successful] ▪ The show was a roaring success. [=a very great success] ▪ life during the roaring twenties [=the 1920s, when many people lived in a very wild and lively way]

²roaring adv, informal : extremely or very ▪ We had a roaring good time. ▪ He was roaring drunk. [=very drunk]

¹roast /ˈroʊst/ verb roasts; roast•ed; roast•ing
1 a : to cook (food such as chicken, potatoes, or beef) with dry heat in an oven or over a fire [+ obj] He roasted the chicken. [no obj] The chicken is roasting in the oven. — compare BAKE, GRILL b : to dry (something, such as a bean or nut) with heat [+ obj] We roasted the peanuts over the fire. [no obj] The peanuts roasted over the fire.
2 [no obj] informal : to be very hot ▪ We were roasting in the hot sun. ▪ You must be roasting [=baking, sweltering] in that sweater.
3 [+ obj] informal : to criticize (someone or something) severely ▪ The movie is being roasted by the critics.
4 [+ obj] US, informal : to criticize (someone who is being honored at a special event) in a friendly or joking way : to tell jokes or funny stories about (someone) ▪ Friends and family roasted him at his 40th birthday party.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– roasted adj ▪ roasted potatoes/garlic/tomatoes ▪ roasted coffee beans ▪ roasted peanuts – roasting adj ▪ the smell of roasting meat ▪ a roasting pan [=a pan used for roasting]

[2]roast noun, pl roasts

1 : a piece of meat that is roasted [count] She made a roast for dinner. [noncount] We're having pork roast for dinner. — see also POT ROAST

2 [count] US : an outdoor party at which food is cooked over an open fire ▪ a pig roast

3 [count] US : an event at which someone is honored and people tell jokes or funny stories about that person in a friendly way ▪ a celebrity roast

[3]roast adj, always used before a noun : cooked by roasting ▪ roast [=roasted] chicken/pork/potatoes

roast•er /ˈroʊstɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a device used for roasting meat

2 chiefly US : a young chicken that is suitable for roasting — compare BROILER, FRYER roasting noun [singular] Brit : the act of severely criticizing someone ▪ My father gave me a roasting [=yelled at me] for coming home late. ▪ He got a roasting from his boss. [=his boss criticized him severely]

rob /ˈrɑːb/ verb robs; robbed; rob•bing [+ obj]

1 : to take money or property from (a person or a place) illegally and sometimes by using force, violence, or threats ▪ Someone tried to rob me. ▪ They robbed the bank. ▪ The cashier was robbed at gunpoint. — often + of ▪ They robbed her of her life savings. ▪ He was robbed of all his money. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ You paid $300 to fix that old car? You got robbed. [=you were overcharged; you spent too much]

2 : to keep (someone) from getting something expected or wanted ▪ He made a great shot, but the goalie robbed him. [=the goalie blocked his shot and prevented him from scoring a goal] — often + of ▪ The other team robbed them of a victory by getting a last-minute goal. ▪ The center fielder made a great catch to rob him of a home run. ▪ Her illness robbed her of a normal childhood. [=she wasn't able to have a normal childhood because of her illness]

rob Peter to pay Paul : to take money that was meant for one person or thing and use it to pay someone else or to pay for something else ▪ She was trying to keep her creditors at bay by robbing Peter to pay Paul. [=using one credit card to make the payments on another credit card] rob (someone) blind : to steal a lot of things or money from someone ▪ If you're not careful, they'll rob you blind.

rob the cradle see [1]CRADLE rob•ber /ˈrɑːbɚ/ noun, pl -bers [count] : a criminal who steals money or property : a thief who robs people ▪ The store was held up by a gang of robbers. ▪ a bank robber robber baron noun, pl ~ -ons [count] old-fashioned : a wealthy person who tries to get land, businesses, or more money in a way that is dishonest or wrong

rob•bery /ˈrɑːbəri/ noun, pl -ber•ies : the crime of stealing money or property : the crime of robbing a person or place [count] a series of armed robberies ▪ They foiled a bank robbery. [noncount] He is charged with attempted robbery. ▪ She was arrested for robbery. — see also HIGHWAY ROBBERY robe /ˈroʊb/ noun, pl robes [count]

1 : a long, loose piece of clothing that is worn on top of other clothes to show that someone has a high rank or an important job ▪ The priest wore a purple robe. — often plural ▪ a judge's robes ▪ The king was dressed in red robes.

2 chiefly US : a loose piece of clothing that wraps around your body and that you wear before or after bathing, swimming, etc., or while resting at home — called also dressing gown; see also BATHROBE robed /ˈroʊbd/ adj : covered with a robe : dressed in robes ▪ The priests were robed in black. ▪ robed monks

rob•in /ˈrɑːbən/ noun, pl -ins [count]

1 : a North American bird with a grayish back and reddish breast — see color picture on page C9

2 : a small European bird with a brownish back and orange face and breast

ro•bot /ˈroʊˌbɑːt/ noun, pl -bots [count]

1 : a real or imaginary machine that is controlled by a computer and is often made to look like a human or animal ▪ a talking toy robot ▪ science fiction robots ▪ a robot dog — sometimes used figuratively to describe a person who seems to do things automatically or who seems to have no feelings or emotions ▪ He answered the questions like a robot.

2 : a machine that can do the work of a person and that works automatically or is controlled by a computer ▪ The cars are assembled by robots. ▪ robot technology

– ro•bot•ic /roʊˈbɑːtɪk/ adj ▪ A robotic arm is used to mix the chemicals. ▪ robotic movements – ro•bot•i•cal•ly /roʊˈbɑːtɪkli/ adv ▪ The cars are assembled robotically. ▪ He answered their questions robotically.

ro•bot•ics /roʊˈbɑːtɪks/ noun [noncount] : technology that is used to design, build, and operate robots ro•bust /roʊˈbʌst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : strong and healthy ▪ robust young men and women ▪ He is in robust health.

2 a : strongly formed or built ▪ robust furniture b : successful or impressive and not likely to fail or weaken ▪ a robust company ▪ a robust economy ▪ She offered a robust [=forceful] argument against the plan. c : impressively large ▪ a robust [=hearty] dinner ▪ robust profits

3 : having a rich, strong flavor ▪ a robust [=full-bodied] wine ▪ The sauce has a robust flavor.

– ro•bust•ly adv ▪ robustly healthy young men and women ▪ The food was robustly seasoned. – ro•bust•ness /roʊˈbʌstnəs/ noun, pl -nesses [count, noncount]

[1]rock /ˈrɑːk/ verb rocks; rocked; rock•ing

1 : to move (someone or something) back and forth or from side to side [+ obj] She gently rocked the baby to sleep. ▪ Waves rocked the boat. [no obj] He rocked back and forth while he stood waiting. ▪ The boat rocked back and forth on the waves.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to shake violently ▪ An earthquake rocked the town. ▪ The building was rocked by an explosion. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The discovery rocked [=shook] the very foundations of their theory.

3 [+ obj] informal a : to cause (someone or something) to be upset or shocked ▪ The news of the murders rocked the town. b : to affect or influence (someone or something) very powerfully ▪ Their invention rocked the computer industry. c : to entertain (someone) in a very powerful and effective way ▪ The band rocked the crowd. ▪ His performance rocked the house. [=the audience loved his performance] ▪ The new video game will rock your world. [=you will really like the new video game]

4 [no obj] informal : to sing, dance to, or play rock music ▪ We were rocking all night long.

5 [no obj] slang : to be very enjoyable, pleasing, or effective ▪ Her new car really rocks. [=her new car is really great] rock out [phrasal verb] informal : to play music in a loud or energetic way ▪ The band rocks out on their new album.

rock the boat see [1]BOAT

– rocking noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] ▪ a slow rocking

[2]rock noun, pl rocks

1 a [noncount] : the hard, solid material that the surface of the Earth is made of ▪ They drilled through several layers of solid rock. ▪ Moss can grow on bare rock. ▪ The miners made a tunnel through the rock. ▪ volcanic rock — often used before another noun ▪ The mountain had many amazing rock formations. — see also BEDROCK, SHEETROCK b [count] : a piece of rock ▪ a flat rock ▪ (US) We threw rocks [=stones] into the water. ▪ a pile of rocks c [count] : a large piece of rock that sticks up from the surface of the Earth ▪ She climbed the rock. ▪ The ship crashed into the rocks.

2 — used in phrases to say that something is very hard, steady, etc. ▪ This bread is (as) hard as a rock. = The bread is rock-hard. [=the bread is very hard] ▪ Her hand was steady as a rock. [=her hand was very steady] ▪ His muscles are solid as a rock. [=very strong/solid] ▪ The frozen chicken is rock-solid. ▪ The beat of the drum was rock-steady.

3 [singular] informal a : a strong person who can be relied on ▪ We could always count on him—he was our rock. b : someone whose ideas, values, ways of doing things, etc., do not change ▪ Once she makes up her mind, she's (like) a rock. [=nobody can change her mind once she decides something]

4 [count] informal : a diamond or other jewel ▪ Look at the size of that rock on her finger.

5 [noncount] Brit : hard candy that is made in a stick ▪ a stick of rock — compare ROCK CANDY

6 [count] informal : a small hard piece of a drug ▪ a rock of crack cocaine between a rock and a hard place informal : in a very difficult or bad position or situation with no good way of getting out of it ▪ He is caught/stuck between a rock and a hard place.

get your rocks off informal 1 of a man : to have an orgasm 2 : to feel great pleasure or satisfaction ▪ He gets his rocks off bossing everyone around.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

live under a rock : to be unaware of things that most people know about ▪ How could you have not heard about it? Do you live under a rock?

on the rocks 1 : having a lot of problems and likely to fail ▪ Their marriage is on the rocks. [=in trouble] 2 of an alcoholic drink : with ice cubes ▪ He ordered a whiskey/Scotch on the rocks.

– compare [3]ROCK

[3]rock noun [noncount] : a kind of popular music with a strong beat that is played on instruments that are made louder electronically ▪ My favorite types of music are jazz and rock. — often used before another noun ▪ rock music ▪ a rock concert/band/star — see also HARD ROCK, SOFT ROCK — compare [2]ROCK rock•a•bil•ly /ˈrɑːkəˌbɪli/ noun [noncount] : a kind of popular music that combines rock and country music rock and roll or rock 'n' roll /ˌrɑːkənˈroʊl/ noun [noncount] : rock music

– rock and roll•er or rock 'n' roll•er /ˌrɑːkənˈroʊlə/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

rock bottom noun [noncount] : the lowest possible level or point ▪ Prices have hit/reached rock bottom. [=have reached the lowest point they can reach] ▪ After years of heavy drug use, she has finally reached rock bottom. ▪ Their marriage has hit rock bottom.

rock–bottom adj, always used before a noun, of a price : very low ▪ The furniture is being sold at rock-bottom prices.

rock candy noun [noncount] US : hard candy that is made on a string rock climbing noun [noncount] : the sport or activity of climbing the steep sides of a mountain or cliff ▪ a book about rock climbing ▪ We are going rock climbing.

– rock climb verb ~ climbs; ~ climbed; ~ climbing [no obj] ▪ He rock climbs and skydives. – rock climber noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ She's a skillful rock climber.

rock•er /ˈrɑːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a curved piece of wood or metal on which an object (such as a cradle or chair) moves back and forth or from side to side

2 chiefly US : ROCKING CHAIR

3 a : someone who plays or performs rock music b : someone who enjoys listening to rock music off your rocker informal : CRAZY ▪ You must be off your rocker if you think I'm going to do that!

rock•ery /ˈrɑːkəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] chiefly Brit : ROCK GARDEN

[1]rock•et /ˈrɑːkət/ noun, pl -ets

1 [count] : a type of very powerful engine that is powered by gases that are released from burning fuel ▪ a car powered by a rocket = a rocket-powered car — often used before another noun ▪ a rocket engine

2 [count] : a spacecraft or missile that is powered by a rocket engine ▪ a moon rocket ▪ antiaircraft rockets ▪ a rocket launcher

3 [count] : a firework that goes high in the air before exploding — called also skyrocket

4 [noncount] Brit : ARUGULA

[2]rocket verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing

1 [no obj] : to increase quickly and suddenly ▪ Prices rocketed. [=skyrocketed] ▪ Sales rocketed from 1,000 units last week to 5,000 units this week. — often + up ▪ Interest rates have been rocketing up.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move or rise quickly [no obj] The train rocketed through the tunnel. ▪ The spacecraft rocketed into outer space. ▪ He rocketed to stardom. ▪ Her novel rocketed to the top of the best-seller list. ▪ Their album rocketed up the charts. [+ obj] His role in the movie rocketed him to fame.

rocket science noun [noncount]

1 : the science of designing or building rockets

2 : something that is very difficult to learn or understand ▪ The job is challenging, but it's not exactly rocket science.

– rocket scientist noun, pl ~ -tists [count] ▪ You don't have to be a rocket scientist [=you don't have to be unusually smart] to understand the instructions.

rocket ship noun, pl ~ ships [count] : a spaceship that is powered by rockets rock garden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] : a garden in which plants grow between rocks — called also (chiefly Brit) rockery

rocking chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] : a chair that moves back and forth on rockers that are attached to its legs — see picture at LIVING ROOM rocking horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] : a toy horse that is attached to rockers and that moves back and forth while a child sits on it

rock 'n' roll variant spelling of ROCK AND ROLL

rock salt noun [noncount] : salt that is in the form of large pieces or crystals ▪ I put some rock salt on the sidewalk to melt the ice.

rock•slide /ˈrɑːkˌslaɪd/ noun, pl -slides [count] : a large mass of rocks that suddenly and quickly moves down the side of a mountain or hill ▪ a dangerous rockslide rocky /ˈrɑːki/ adj rock•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : full of rocks : having many rocks ▪ The soil is very rocky. ▪ a rocky coastline

2 : full of problems or difficulties ▪ a rocky journey/marriage ▪ The team had a rocky start this season. ▪ He knew he had a long rocky road ahead of him if he wanted to become a doctor. [=he knew that becoming a doctor would be very difficult]

ro•co•co /rəˈkoʊkoʊ/ adj : of or relating to a style of artistic expression that involves fancy curved forms and much decoration and was popular in the 18th century ▪ The chairs are carved in a rococo style. ▪ rococo art rod /ˈrɑːd/ noun, pl rods [count]

1 : a straight, thin stick or bar ▪ a curtain rod — see also LIGHTNING ROD, RAMROD

2 : a pole with a line and usually a reel that is used in fishing ▪ a fishing rod

3 old-fashioned : a stick used to hit or whip someone as a form of punishment ▪ He grew up in a time when people still believed in the old saying: spare the rod and spoil the child. [=believed that children should be physically punished for bad behavior in order to be raised correctly] rule with a rod of iron see [2]RULE

– see also HOT ROD

rode past tense of [1]RIDE

ro•dent /ˈroʊdnt/ noun, pl -dents [count] : a small animal (such as a mouse, rat, squirrel, or beaver) that has sharp front teeth — see picture on next page ro•deo /ˈroʊdiˌoʊ, roʊˈdejoʊ/ noun, pl -de•os [count] : an event in which people compete at riding horses and bulls, catching animals with ropes, etc.

roe /ˈroʊ/ noun, pl roes [count, noncount] : the eggs of a fish or sea animal ▪ salmon roe

rog•er /ˈrɑːʤə/ interj — used to say that a message has been received and understood when you are talking to someone on a radio

[1]rogue /ˈroʊg/ noun, pl rogues [count]

1 old-fashioned : a man who is dishonest or immoral ▪ a lying rogue [=scoundrel]

2 : a man who causes trouble in a playful way ▪ He's a lovable old rogue.

[2]rogue adj, always used before a noun — used to describe something or someone that is different from others in usually a dangerous or harmful way ▪ A rogue wave flipped the boat over. ▪ rogue police officers [=dishonest police officers who commit crimes] ▪ rogue states/regimes [=dangerous states/regimes that do not obey international laws] ▪ a rogue elephant [=a dangerous elephant that lives apart from other elephants] rogues' gallery noun [singular]

1 : a collection of pictures of criminals

2 : a collection or list of bad or dangerous people or things ▪ a rogues' gallery of dictators ▪ a rogues' gallery of deadly viruses rogu•ish /ˈroʊgɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing in a playful way that you have done something wrong ▪ a roguish wink/smile

– rogu•ish•ly adv

roil /ˈrɔjəl/ verb roils; roiled; roil•ing chiefly US

1 [+ obj] : to upset (someone or something) very much : to cause (someone or something) to become very agitated or disturbed ▪ Financial markets have been roiled by the banking crisis.

2 [no obj] : to move in a violent and confused way ▪ roiling river rapids — often used figuratively ▪ A lot of different emotions were roiling (around) inside her. [=she was experiencing many emotions in a way that was disturbing or confusing] role /ˈroʊl/ noun, pl roles [count]

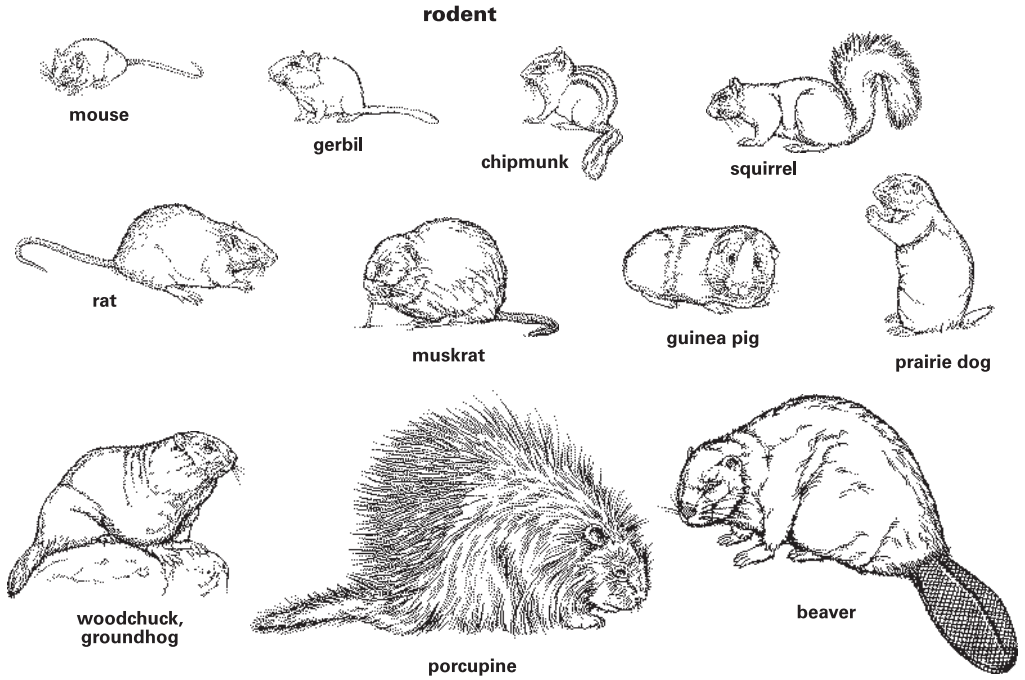
1 : the character played by an actor ▪ He plays the role of the

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r



villain. ▪ She was given the starring/lead/leading role. ▪ I had a minor/major role in the play.

2 a : a part that someone or something has in a particular activity or situation — usually + in ▪ Everyone had a role [=hand] in winning the game. [=everyone helped to win the game] ▪ The government is taking an active role in improving public schools. [=the government is actively involved in improving public schools] ▪ He had a key role in designing the bridge. ▪ She talked about the roles of exercise and a healthy diet in preventing heart disease. ▪ Newspapers play a major role in determining how people think about politics. ▪ Religion plays an important role in his life. [=religion is very important to him] b : the part that someone has in a family, society, or other group ▪ After her husband left her, she had to take on the dual role of mother and father for her children. ▪ She likes to play the role of matchmaker with her friends. ▪ She challenged the traditional roles assigned to women. ▪ We'll switch/reverse roles this time, and you can wash the dishes while I dry them. ▪ It was a case of role reversal: the father stayed home with the children while the mother worked.

role model noun, pl ~ -els [count] : someone who another person admires and tries to be like ▪ Parents need to be good role models (for their children). ▪ Athletes should remember that they are role models.

role–play /ˈroʊlˌpleɪ/ noun, pl -plays : an activity in which people do and say things while pretending to be someone else or while pretending to be in a particular situation [noncount] The teacher used role-play to show how people should act at an interview. [count] The students did role-plays to practice for their interviews.

– role–play verb -plays; -played; -play•ing [no obj] ▪ children learning to role-play – role–playing noun [noncount] ▪ We do a lot of role-playing in this class.

[1]roll /ˈroʊl/ verb rolls; rolled; rol•ling

1 a : to move across the ground or another surface by turning over and over [no obj] The children rolled down the hill. ▪ The ball rolled slowly to a stop. [+ obj] She rolled the dice. ▪ He rolled the ball to me. = He rolled me the ball. b : to turn over one or more times [no obj] He rolled (over) onto his back. ▪ The pigs roll (around) in the mud to keep cool. ▪ The car rolled (over) into the ditch. [+ obj] Roll the chicken wings in the batter. ▪ The paramedics rolled him onto the gurney. ▪ (US) He rolled his car in the accident.

2 : to move smoothly on wheels [no obj] The car rolled slowly to a stop. ▪ A police car rolled up next to us. [+ obj] The children rolled the toy car to each other. ▪ The patient was rolled into the emergency room.

3 [no obj] : to move in a smooth, continuous way ▪ We left the movie theater as the final credits rolled. [=were moving across the screen] ▪ The fog soon rolled away. ▪ The clouds rolled past.

4 [+ obj] a : to form (something) into the shape of a ball or tube ▪ She rolled the dough into a ball. ▪ He rolled up the newspaper and swatted the fly. b : to put (something) inside a tube ▪ He rolled the coins. c : to wrap up (something or someone) in a way that forms the shape of a tube ▪ He rolls his own cigarettes. — often + up ▪ She rolled up the meat in a tortilla. ▪ He lay there snugly rolled up in blankets.

5 : to form your body into a ball — usually + up [no obj] He lay down on the bed and rolled [=curled] up (into a ball). [+ obj] He rolled himself up (into a ball).

6 [+ obj] a : to make (something) smooth, even, or flat with a special tool (called a roller or rolling pin) ▪ She rolled (out) the dough. ▪ He rolled the clay flat. ▪ rolled steel/oats b : to spread (something) on a surface with a special tool (called a roller) ▪ She rolled the paint on (the wall).

7 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move forward along the normal course of time ▪ The days rolled [=passed] quickly by. ▪ It got hotter as the day rolled on/along.

8 [no obj] : to move or lean from side to side ▪ The ship heaved and rolled in the storm. ▪ He walked with a rolling gait.

9 [no obj] a : to make a deep, continuous sound ▪ Thunder rolled in the distance. ▪ rolling thunder b : to make a continuous, quick, beating sound ▪ The drums rolled.

10 : to operate (something, such as a movie camera) [+ obj] Roll the cameras when I say "action." [no obj] The camera was not rolling [=filming] at the time.

11 [no obj] : to have a series of successes ▪ The team rolled through the play-offs.

12 : to cause (your eyes) to look up toward the sky in an expression which shows that you think someone or something is foolish or annoying [+ obj] He rolled his eyes at her suggestion. [no obj] Her eyes rolled when he told her his idea.

get rolling informal 1 : to leave ▪ We ought to get rolling if we don't want to be late. 2 : to start doing something ▪ You should get rolling on that assignment. ▪ The project finally got rolling. [=got started]

get/set/start the ball rolling see [1]BALL heads roll see [1]HEAD

keep the ball rolling see [1]BALL

let's roll chiefly US, informal — used to tell another person

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

or a group of people to start leaving a place or to start doing something ▪ "Let's roll," the sergeant shouted to his men.

ready to roll informal 1 : ready to leave ▪ I am all packed and ready to roll. 2 : ready to start doing something ▪ After we got the loan approved, we were ready to roll.

roll around also Brit roll about [phrasal verb] informal : to arrive or happen again ▪ By the time Friday rolls around, I'm ready for the weekend. ▪ We'll be better prepared the next time the elections roll around.

roll back [phrasal verb] roll back (something) or roll (something) back chiefly US 1 : to reduce (something, such as a price) ▪ The store is rolling back its prices for this weekend only. 2 : to change (something) back to the way it was at an earlier time : to reverse or undo (something) ▪ The manufacturers are lobbying to roll back [=rescind] environmental regulations. ▪ His proposal would roll back the clock on civil rights.

roll down [phrasal verb] roll down (something) or roll (something) down 1 : to move (something) down especially by turning a handle ▪ She rolled down the car window. 2 : to unfold the edge of (something, such as a shirt sleeve or pants leg) to make it longer ▪ He rolled down his sleeves.

rolled into one : combined together into one thing or person ▪ It's a shopping center, amusement park, and nightclub (all) rolled into one.

roll in [phrasal verb] informal 1 be rolling in (something) : to have a large amount of (something) ▪ They were rolling in money/cash. = They were rolling in (the) dough. = They were rolling in it. 2 : to appear or arrive in large numbers or amounts ▪ The money has been rolling in. ▪ Donations rolled in to help the hurricane victims. 3 : to arrive at a place especially later than usual or expected ▪ Delegates rolled in from all parts of the country. ▪ He finally rolled in at 3:30 in the morning.

rolling in the aisles see AISLE roll off the tongue see [1]TONGUE

roll on Brit, informal — used to say that you want a time or event to come quickly ▪ Roll on Friday. I can't wait for the weekend!

roll out [phrasal verb] roll out (something) or roll (something) out 1 : to offer or sell (something) for the first time ▪ The company is expected to roll out [=launch] several new products next year. — see also ROLLOUT 2 : to make (something that has been rolled into the shape of a tube) long and flat again ▪ He rolled out [=unrolled] the sleeping bags.

roll out of bed informal : to rise after sleeping in a bed and especially after sleeping later than usual ▪ She rolled out of bed just before noon.

roll out the red carpet see RED CARPET roll over [phrasal verb] 1 informal : to allow yourself to be easily defeated or controlled : to make no effort to fight or compete ▪ I'm not going to just roll over and let them do what they want. 2 roll over (something) or roll (something) over a : to delay the payment of (something, such as a debt) ▪ He wanted to roll over the repayment of the loan until later. b : to place (invested money) in a new investment of the same kind ▪ She rolled over her investments from one fund to another. — see also ROLLOVER

roll the dice see [1]DICE

roll up [phrasal verb] 1 roll up (something) or roll (something) up a : to move (something) up especially by turning a handle ▪ She rolled up the car window. b : to fold up the ends of (something, such as a shirt sleeve or pants leg) to make it shorter ▪ She rolled up her jeans and stepped into the water. 2 informal : to arrive at a place in a vehicle ▪ Celebrities rolled up in their limousines. 3 Brit — used to invite people to gather around to see a show or to buy things ▪ Roll up, roll up [=(chiefly US) step right up]— you won't find cheaper watches anywhere else! — see also [1]ROLL 4c, 5 (above) roll up your sleeves informal : to prepare to work hard ▪ It's time to roll up our sleeves and get the job done. ▪ Congress needs to roll up its sleeves and pass the bill now.

roll with the punches informal : to not allow yourself to become upset by things that happen ▪ Roll with the punches and don't let life get you down!

roll your r's : to pronounce the sound /r/ with a trill ▪ He rolls his r's when he speaks Spanish.

[2]roll /ˈroʊl/ noun, pl rolls [count]

1 : a long piece of cloth, paper, film, tape, etc., that is rolled to form the shape of a tube or ring ▪ There are two photos left on this roll. ▪ rolls of film/tape ▪ a roll of toilet paper

2 : a paper tube that holds candies, coins, etc., inside ▪ a roll of mints/quarters

3 a : a small loaf of bread for one person to eat ▪ a dinner roll ▪ tuna salad (served) on a roll ▪ a hamburger roll [=bun] b : a sandwich made with a bread roll ▪ a ham/cheese roll ▪ (US) a clam/lobster roll c : a usually round sweet cake ▪ cinnamon/sweet rolls — compare STICKY BUN; see also JELLY ROLL, SWISS ROLL

4 : a food that is rolled up for cooking or serving ▪ cabbage/sausage/sushi rolls ▪ rolls of sliced ham/turkey — see also EGG ROLL

5 : a thick fold of fat, skin, etc. ▪ A roll of fat stuck out from under his shirt. ▪ rolls of flesh/skin

6 : an official list of names ▪ the voter rolls = (US) the election rolls [=a list of the people who can vote in an election] ▪ welfare rolls [=a list of people on welfare] ▪ The teacher called out the names on the roll. = The teacher called/took the roll. — see also HONOR ROLL, PAYROLL

– compare [3]ROLL; see also BANKROLL

[3]roll noun, pl rolls [count]

1 : a sound that is produced by a series of quick hits on a drum ▪ a roll of the drum — see also DRUM ROLL

2 : a deep, continuous sound ▪ We heard the roll of thunder/cannons in the distance.

3 : an act of rolling something ▪ With a roll of the dice, he won $100. ▪ She showed her annoyance with a roll of her eyes. [=showed her annoyance by rolling her eyes]

4 chiefly US : a movement in which your body makes a complete turn forward or backward on the ground ▪ a forward/backward roll [=somersault]

5 : the act of moving or leaning from side to side ▪ We felt the roll of the ship.

6 : a movement of an airplane in which the airplane is turned upside down and then right side up again a roll in the hay informal + old-fashioned : an act of having sex with someone

a roll of the dice see [1]DICE on a roll informal : experiencing a series of successes ▪ The team has been on a roll [=has been playing well and winning many games] since midseason. ▪ He's a funny guy, and last night he was really on a roll. [=he was saying many funny things]

– compare [2]ROLL; see also ROCK AND ROLL

roll•back /ˈroʊlˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] chiefly US : the act of rolling back something: such as a : a reduction or decrease in something ▪ rollbacks in mortgage rates ▪ a government-ordered rollback of gasoline prices ▪ a rollback in environmental regulations b : the act of reversing or undoing something ▪ a rollback of previous wage concessions roll bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] : a metal bar in the roof of a car or other vehicle that is designed to protect riders if the vehicle rolls over roll call noun, pl ~ calls

1 : the act of saying each of the names on a list to find out who is present [count] — usually singular ▪ The sergeant began a/the roll call. [noncount] Two students missed roll call.

2 [count] : a list of people or things — usually singular ▪ The policy is supported by an impressive roll call of scientists.

roll•er /ˈroʊlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a part that rolls and is used to move, press, shape, spread, or smooth something ▪ the rollers of a conveyor belt ▪ They moved the monument on rollers. ▪ He flattened the clay with a roller. ▪ a paint roller — see also STEAMROLLER b : a cylinder or rod on which something (such as a window shade or a map) is rolled up

2 : a small plastic or metal tube around which hair is wrapped to make it curl ▪ Her hair was in rollers. [=curlers]

3 : a long, powerful ocean wave

4 : a ball that rolls slowly along the ground ▪ (baseball) He hit a slow roller to the shortstop.

– see also HIGH ROLLER

Roll•er•blade /ˈroʊlɚˌbleɪd/ trademark — used for a skate that has wheels set in a straight line on the bottom roll•er coast•er /ˈroʊlɚˌkoʊstɚ/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

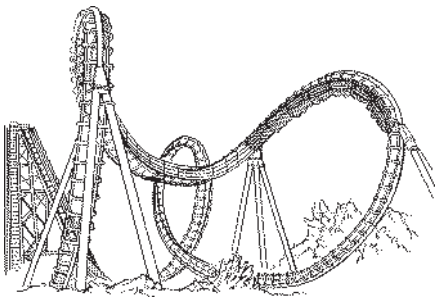
1 : a ride at an amusement park which is like a small, open train with tracks that are high off the ground and that have sharp curves and steep hills ▪ We went for a ride on the roller coaster. ▪ a roller-coaster ride

2 : a situation or experience that involves sudden and extreme changes ▪ The divorce was an emotional roller coaster

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r



roller coaster

for both of them. ▪ He's had a roller-coaster career. [=a career with many ups and downs]

Roller Derby service mark — used for a sports event in which two teams skate on roller skates around an oval track roller rink noun, pl ~ rinks [count] chiefly US : an enclosed area with a smooth floor that is used for roller-skating roller skate noun, pl ~ skates [count] : a shoe that has wheels on the bottom and that you wear on your foot in order to skate on a flat surface — usually plural ▪ a pair of roller skates — see picture at SKATE roller–skate verb -skates; -skat•ed; -skat•ing [no obj] : to skate on a flat surface with roller skates ▪ I had never roller-skated until last week.

– roller skater noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – roller–skating noun [noncount] ▪ She loves roller-skating. ▪ Let's go roller-skating.

[1]rol•lick•ing /ˈrɑːlɪkɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : enjoyable in a lively or noisy way ▪ We had a rollicking good time. ▪ a rollicking tale/tune

[2]rollicking noun, pl -ings [count] Brit, informal : the act of angrily criticizing someone who has done something wrong ▪ Their boss gave them a rollicking. [=scolding, tongue-lashing] = They got a rollicking from their boss.

rolling /ˈroʊlɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : having gentle slopes or hills ▪ rolling hills/prairies rolling pin noun, pl ~ pins [count] : a long cylinder that is used for making dough flat and smooth — see picture at KITCHEN rolling stock noun [noncount] : the wheeled vehicles that are owned and used by a railroad roll of honour noun, pl rolls of honour [count] Brit : HONOR ROLL roll–on /ˈroʊlˌɑːn/ adj, always used before a noun : rubbed or spread on the body with a bottle that has a rolling ball set into its top ▪ a roll-on deodorant/antiperspirant – roll–on noun, pl -ons [count] ▪ deodorants sold as roll-ons, sprays, or sticks roll•out /ˈroʊlˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count, noncount] : an occasion when a new product or service is first offered for sale or use ▪ the national rollout of a new wireless service — see also roll out at [1]ROLL roll•over /ˈroʊlˌoʊvɚ/ noun, pl -overs [count, noncount]

1 a : the act of delaying the payment of a debt b : the act of placing invested money in a new investment of the same kind — see also roll over at [1]ROLL
2 chiefly US : an accident in which a car, truck, etc., turns over ▪ He was injured in a rollover (accident) on the highway.
3 chiefly Brit : prize money in a lottery that is not won and so is added to the prize money of the next lottery roll•up /ˈroʊlˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : something that is rolled into the shape of a tube: such as a US : a food that is rolled up for cooking or serving b usually roll-up Brit : a cigarette that you roll yourself – roll–up adj ▪ roll-up blinds

[1]ro•ly–po•ly /ˌroʊliˈpoʊli/ adj, informal : short and fat ▪ a roly-poly man

[2]roly–poly noun, pl -lies [count, noncount] Brit : a sweet dough that is spread with jam, rolled up, and baked or steamed — called also roly-poly pudding

ROM /ˈrɑːm/ noun [noncount] : the part of a computer in which information that cannot be changed is stored — called also read-only memory; compare RAM; see also CD-ROM

ro•maine /roʊˈmeɪn/ noun [noncount] US : a type of lettuce that has long, crisp leaves — called also (US) romaine lettuce, (Brit) cos lettuce; see color picture on page C4

[1]Ro•man /ˈroʊmən/ noun, pl -mans
1 [count] a : a person born, raised, or living in Rome b : a citizen of the ancient Roman Empire
2 roman [noncount] : letters, numbers, etc., that stand upright instead of slanting : roman type ▪ The type should be set in roman. — see picture at FONT

[2]Roman adj
1 a : of or relating to Rome or the people of Rome ▪ the Roman population ▪ the Roman skyline b : of or relating to the ancient Roman Empire ▪ a Roman emperor ▪ Roman law
2 roman : having letters, numbers, etc., that stand upright instead of slanting ▪ These words are roman. ▪ roman type

Roman alphabet noun
the Roman alphabet : the alphabet that was used for writing Latin and that is now used for writing English and many other European languages

Roman candle noun, pl ~ -dles [count] : a firework that is a long tube that shoots out balls or stars of fire one at a time

Roman Catholic adj : belonging or relating to the Christian church that is led by the pope ▪ a Roman Catholic priest – Roman Catholic noun, pl ~ -lics [count] ▪ Most of the people in this part of the country are Roman Catholics.
– Roman Catholicism noun [noncount]

[1]ro•mance /roʊˈmæns/ noun, pl -manc•es
1 : an exciting and usually short relationship between lovers [count] They had a brief romance when they were younger. ▪ a summer romance ▪ They've ended their romance. [noncount] Their friendship blossomed into romance. ▪ a tale of love and romance
2 [noncount] : the feeling of being in love ▪ After only three years together, the romance in their relationship was gone.
3 [count] a : an exciting story often set in the past ▪ a medieval romance b : a love story ▪ She likes reading paperback romances. ▪ an old-fashioned Hollywood romance — often used before another noun ▪ a romance novel
4 [noncount] a : the quality of something that makes it exciting and attractive ▪ the romance of the old West ▪ The novel evoked the romance of Paris in the 20s. b : the excitement or emotional attraction that people feel for something ▪ a book about America's romance with the open road

[2]romance verb -mances; -manced; -manc•ing
1 [+ obj] : to have or try to have a romantic relationship with (someone) ▪ He was always romancing younger women. ▪ She was romanced by several wealthy young men.
2 [+ obj] US : to give special attention to (someone) in order to get something that you want from that person ▪ The museum's director spends a lot of time romancing potential donors. ▪ a college athlete who's being romanced by several pro teams
3 [no obj] : to talk about something in a way that makes it seem better than it really is ▪ They were romancing about the past.

Ro•mance language /roʊˈmæns-/ noun, pl ~ -guages [count] : a language (such as French, Italian, or Spanish) that developed from Latin

Ro•man•esque /ˌroʊməˈnɛsk/ adj : of or relating to a style of architecture that was used in Europe during the 11th and 12th centuries and that included round arches, thick and heavy walls, and small windows ▪ a Romanesque cathedral

Roman nose noun, pl ~ noses [count] : a large nose that curves outward at the top

Roman numeral noun, pl ~ -als [count] : one of the letters that were used by the ancient Romans to represent numbers and that are still used today ▪ In Roman numerals "X" is equal to the number 10. — compare ARABIC NUMERAL

[1]ro•man•tic /roʊˈmæntɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : of, relating to, or involving love between two people ▪ She had romantic feelings for him. ▪ He had a romantic relationship with a coworker. ▪ Her latest movie is a romantic comedy. [=a comedy about two people who fall in love with each other] ▪ His brother was having romantic troubles at the time. ▪ She won't discuss her romantic life with the press. b : making someone think of love : suitable for romance ▪ a romantic sunset/dinner/song c : thinking about love and doing and saying things to show that you love someone ▪ Why can't you be more romantic?
2 : not realistic or practical : not based on what is real ▪ He has some romantic notions about life on a farm. ▪ She had a lot of big romantic dreams of becoming an actress.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

3 Romantic : of or relating to Romanticism : stressing or appealing to the emotions or imagination ▪ the Romantic poets/movement ▪ Beethoven was the first great Romantic composer.

– ro•man•ti•cal•ly /roʊˈmæntɪkli/ adv ▪ They were romantically involved. [=they had a romantic/sexual relationship with each other]

[2]romantic noun, pl -tics [count]
1 : a person who thinks a lot about love and does and says things that show strong feelings of love for someone ▪ She married a real romantic who brings her roses every day.
2 : someone who is not realistic or practical : someone who thinks that things are better or more exciting than they really are ▪ Law school is no place for idealists and romantics. ▪ She's a hopeless/incurable romantic.
3 Romantic : a writer, musician, or artist whose work stresses emotion and imagination : a writer, musician, or artist of Romanticism ▪ Beethoven was the first great Romantic among composers.

ro•man•ti•cism /roʊˈmæntəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 Romanticism : a style of art, literature, etc., during the late 18th and early 19th centuries that emphasized the imagination and emotions
2 : the quality or state of being impractical or unrealistic : romantic feelings or ideas ▪ Try not to discourage the romanticism of college students.

ro•man•ti•cize also Brit ro•man•ti•cise /roʊˈmæntəˌsaɪz/ verb -ciz•es; -cized; -ciz•ing : to think about or describe something as being better or more attractive or interesting than it really is : to show, describe, or think about something in a romantic way [+ obj] The movie romanticizes [=idealizes] the old South. ▪ He has romanticized notions of army life. ▪ a romanticized view of politics [no obj] We were romanticizing about the past.

Rom•a•ny /ˈrɑːməni, ˈroʊməni/ noun, pl -nies
1 [count] : GYPSY
2 [noncount] : the language of the Gypsies
– Romany adj

Ro•meo /ˈroʊmijoʊ/ noun, pl -me•os [count] : a man who has many lovers or who shows strong feelings of love by doing romantic things ▪ He was quite a Romeo when he was younger.

[1]romp /ˈrɑːmp/ noun, pl romps [count] informal
1 : an enjoyable time of rough and noisy play ▪ The dogs love a good romp through the woods.
2 : an easy victory ▪ The game turned into a romp in the second half.
3 : an enjoyable and lively movie, book, play, etc. ▪ His latest film is a wildly amusing romp.
4 often humorous : an act of sexual intercourse ▪ a movie about a businessman having a romp with his secretary

[2]romp verb romps; romped; romp•ing [no obj]
1 : to play in a rough and noisy way ▪ The kids were romping in the yard.
2 : to easily win a race, contest, etc. — often + to ▪ The home team romped to a 21–6 win/victory. ▪ (chiefly Brit) He is now the favorite to romp home (to victory) in the upcoming election.
3 informal : to move, go, or proceed in a quick, easy, or playful way — usually + through ▪ Hundreds of fans romped through the streets. ▪ She romped through the early rounds of the tournament. ▪ The team romped through the season undefeated.

romp•er /ˈrɑːmpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a piece of clothing that consists of a shirt with attached pants and that is worn especially by children — usually plural ▪ a little girl wearing rompers — called also (chiefly Brit) romper suit ron•do /ˈrɑːndoʊ/ noun, pl -dos [count] : a type of music for instruments in which the main tune at the beginning is repeated after each of the other tunes that are used

[1]roof /ˈruːf/ noun, pl roofs [count]
1 : the cover or top of a building, vehicle, etc. ▪ a shingle/slate/tile roof ▪ The roof is leaking. ▪ the roof of a car ▪ The roof of the old barn collapsed. ▪ We don't have much money, but at least we have a roof over our heads. [=at least we have somewhere to live] ▪ You'll do what I say as long as you're living under my roof. [=as long as you are living in my house] ▪ They all live under the same roof. [=in the same house] ▪ We hope to have sales and service under one roof [=at the same location] in the near future. — see also MOONROOF, SUNROOF
2 : the top of the inside of a tunnel, cave, etc.
3 : the top of the inside of your mouth ▪ He bit into a hot slice of pizza and burned the roof of his mouth.

go through the roof informal 1 : to become very angry or upset ▪ When they realized he'd lied to them, his parents went through the roof. 2 : to rise to a very high level ▪ Sales of their new CD have gone through the roof.

hit the roof see [1]HIT raise the roof informal : to make a lot of noise by playing music, celebrating, shouting, etc. ▪ The crowd raised the roof when the winning goal was scored. ▪ His mother raised the roof when he came home late.

through the roof chiefly US, informal : at an extremely high level ▪ Ticket prices are through the roof.

– roof•less /ˈruːfləs/ adj ▪ a roofless stadium

[2]roof verb roofs; roofed; roof•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something, such as a building) with a roof — often + over or in ▪ We roofed over/in the patio. — often used as (be) roofed ▪ Our house is roofed with asphalt shingles.

– roofed /ˈruːft/ adj ▪ a roofed front porch ▪ thatch-roofed houses roof•er /ˈruːfə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who builds or repairs roofs roof•ing /ˈruːfɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : material that is used for building or repairing a roof ▪ asphalt shingles used for roofing
2 : the work of building or repairing roofs ▪ He did some roofing in the summer. ▪ a roofing contractor roof•line /ˈruːfˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the outline or outer edge of a roof roof rack noun, pl ~ racks [count] : a frame that is attached to the roof of a vehicle and that is used for holding luggage, bicycles, skis, etc.

roof•top /ˈruːfˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] : the upper surface of a roof ▪ They have a garden on the rooftop of the apartment building. ▪ He wanted to shout from the rooftops when he got the job. — often used before another noun ▪ a rooftop television antenna ▪ a rooftop garden rook /ˈrʊk/ noun, pl rooks [count]

1 : a large, black European bird that is related to the crow
2 : a piece in the game of chess that looks like a castle tower : CASTLE — see picture at CHESS rook•ie /ˈrʊki/ noun, pl -ies [count] chiefly US

1 : a first-year player in a professional sport ▪ There are three rookies in the starting lineup. — often used before another noun ▪ a rookie quarterback ▪ This is his rookie season. [=his first season playing]
2 : a person who has just started a job or activity and has little experience : BEGINNER ▪ an experienced policeman whose partner is a rookie — often used before another noun ▪ a rookie cop

[1]room /ˈruːm/ noun, pl rooms
1 [count] a : a part of the inside of a building that is divided from other areas by walls and a door and that has its own floor and ceiling ▪ Cigarette smoke filled the room. ▪ I could hear the TV from the next room. ▪ The salesman went into the back room [=a room in the back of a building] to get another pair of shoes for me to try. b : a room in a house, hotel, etc., where someone sleeps ▪ a double room [=a room in a hotel where two people can sleep] ▪ Go to your room! ▪ He rents rooms to college students. — see also BEDROOM, GUEST ROOM
2 [noncount] : space that is used for something ▪ We're running out of room in the office. ▪ The sofa takes up too much room. ▪ In the backyard there is enough room to run and play. ▪ Is there enough room to turn the car around? ▪ There's only room for five people in the car. ▪ Don't eat too much. You should leave some room for dessert. ▪ There's no more room on the computer disk to save the file. ▪ Can we make/find room in the garage for the bicycles? — see also ELBOW ROOM, HEADROOM, LEGROOM, STANDING ROOM
3 [singular] : the people in a room ▪ The whole room cheered/applauded.
4 [noncount] : the possibility for something to happen or exist — often + for ▪ There is room for improvement in your essay. [=your essay is not as good as it could be] ▪ There is no room for doubt about his guilt. [=his guilt is certain]
5 rooms [plural] Brit, old-fashioned : APARTMENT ▪ I visited his rooms in London.

[2]room verb rooms; roomed; room•ing [no obj] US : to live in a room, apartment, or house with another person — + together or with ▪ We roomed together in college. [=we were

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

roommates in college] ▪ He roomed with his brother for several years.

room and board noun [noncount] chiefly US : a place to stay with meals provided and included in the price ▪ We paid $50 (for) room and board. [=(chiefly Brit) bed and board] room•er /ˈruːmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a person who pays rent to live in a house with its owner room•ful /ˈruːmfəl/ noun, pl room•fuls /ˈruːmfəlz/ also rooms•ful /ˈruːmzfəl/ [count] : the amount of people or things that are in a room — usually + of ▪ a roomful of strangers ▪ A roomful of wiring and circuits can now be reduced to a tiny computer chip.

room•ie /ˈruːmi/ noun, pl -ies [count] US, informal : ROOMMATE ▪ She was my roomie in college.

rooming house noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a house where rooms with furniture are rented to people to live in ▪ After losing his job, he moved to a cheap rooming house.

room•mate /ˈruːmˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a person who shares a room, apartment, or house with someone else ▪ She was my college roommate. = We were roommates in college.

room service noun [noncount] : the service that is provided to hotel guests so that they can have food, drinks, etc., brought to their rooms ▪ Room service is available. ▪ He ordered a meal from room service. ▪ She called room service.

room temperature noun [noncount] : a comfortable temperature that is not too hot or too cold ▪ Store the wine at room temperature.

roomy /ˈruːmi/ adj room•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having plenty of space or room ▪ The car was roomy [=spacious] inside.
– room•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the roominess of the car

[1]roost /ˈruːst/ noun, pl roosts [count] : a place where birds rest or sleep rule the roost informal : to have the most control or authority in a group ▪ In my small elementary school, bullies ruled the roost.

[2]roost verb roosts; roost•ed; roost•ing [no obj] of a bird : to rest or sleep somewhere ▪ Pigeons roost on the building's ledge.
come home to roost ✧ If something from your past comes home to roost or your/the chickens come home to roost, you experience problems that you deserve because they are caused by your past actions or are like the problems you have caused for other people. ▪ Her bad decisions are coming home to roost. ▪ He's been cheating people for years but now the chickens are (finally) coming home to roost. [=he is getting what he deserves]

roost•er /ˈruːstə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : an adult male chicken ▪ We heard the crow of a rooster. — called also cock; compare HEN

[1]root /ˈruːt/ noun, pl roots
1 [count] : the part of a plant that grows underground, gets water from the ground, and holds the plant in place ▪ Elm trees have shallow roots. ▪ Pull weeds up by the roots so that they don't grow back. — see color picture on page C6
2 [count] : the part of a tooth, hair, fingernail, etc., that is attached to the body ▪ You can tell that she dyes her hair blonde because her dark roots are showing.
3 [count] a : the cause or source of something — usually singular ▪ He believes that money is the root of all evil. [=money causes people to do bad things] ▪ We need to get to the root of the problem. = We need to get to the root cause of the problem. ▪ Simple greed was at the root of the robbery. [=was the reason for the robbery] b : the origin of something — usually plural ▪ Rock-and-roll music has its roots in blues music. [=rock-and-roll music originated/developed from blues music]
4 roots [plural] a : the family history of a person or a group of people ▪ They have traced their roots [=ancestry] back several generations. b : a special connection to something — + in ▪ She's a dedicated teacher with roots in the community. ▪ His family has roots in the New York theater scene. ▪ a novelist with roots deep in Southern life — see also GRASS ROOTS
5 [count] mathematics : a number that is multiplied by itself a certain number of times to produce another number ▪ 2 is the 4th root of 16. [=2 x 2 x 2 x 2 = 16] — see also CUBE ROOT, SQUARE ROOT
6 [count] : a word from which other words are formed ▪ "Butler" and "bottle" come from the same Latin root. ▪ "Hold" is the root of "holder."
put down roots : to become a member of a community and begin to feel that it is your home : to settle and live in one place ▪ The family put down roots in New England. [=they made New England their home] root and branch chiefly Brit 1 : complete or thorough ▪ a root and branch overhaul of local schools 2 : completely or thoroughly ▪ The laws were reformed root and branch.
take root 1 of a plant : to grow and develop roots ▪ There isn't enough time for the grass to take root before winter. 2 : to begin to develop ▪ The classroom should be a place where creativity can take root and flourish. ▪ It was years before democratic ideals took root in that part of the world.

[2]root verb roots; root•ed; root•ing
1 of a plant a [no obj] : to grow and develop roots ▪ The plants had difficulty rooting in the poor soil. b [+ obj] : to make (a plant) grow and develop roots ▪ She rooted the seedlings in pots before planting them in the garden. ▪ The lichen rooted itself to the rock. ▪ The lichen was rooted to the rock.
2 [+ obj] : to make (someone) unable to move ▪ Fear rooted me to my chair. — usually used as (be) rooted ▪ I was rooted to my chair by/with fear.
root in [phrasal verb] root (something) in (something) : to form, make, or develop (something) by using (something) as a basis ▪ He roots his art in reality. [=bases his art on the real world] — usually used as (be) rooted in ▪ His art is rooted in reality. ▪ Her opinions are deeply rooted in her faith. ▪ a dance rooted in African tradition
– compare [3]ROOT, [4]ROOT

[3]root verb roots; rooted; rooting [no obj]
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to search for something by moving around or by turning things over ▪ We rooted through the desk drawers for the phone bill. ▪ She rooted around in her purse to find her keys. ▪ I think I'll root around for some leftovers in the fridge.
2 of animals : to look for food under the ground by digging with the nose : GRUB ▪ a rooting pig root out [phrasal verb] root (something or someone) out or root out (something or someone) 1 : to find and remove (something or someone) ▪ The mayor was determined to root out corruption in city government. 2 : to find (something or someone) after searching for a long time ▪ He finally rooted out the cause of the problem.
– compare [2]ROOT, [4]ROOT

[4]root verb roots; rooted; rooting
root for [phrasal verb] root for (someone or something) : to express or show support for (a person, a team, etc.) ▪ They always root for the home team. ▪ We're rooting for the underdog. : to hope for the success of (someone or something) ▪ Remember that we're all rooting for you. [=we all want to see you succeed] root on [phrasal verb] root (someone or something) on US : to help (someone or something) to win or succeed by expressing or showing strong support ▪ The team is playing for the championship tomorrow, and thousands of fans will be there to root them on. ▪ Her friends and family were there to root her on to victory.
– compare [2]ROOT, [3]ROOT
– root•er /ˈruːtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

root beer noun, pl ~ beers [count, noncount] : a sweet, brown drink that is flavored with roots and herbs and that contains bubbles ▪ a bottle of root beer root canal noun, pl ~ -nals [count] : a dental procedure to save a tooth by removing the diseased or injured tissue in its root ▪ I need to have a root canal.

root cellar noun, pl ~ -lars [count] chiefly US : a room or large hole in the ground where vegetables (such as potatoes and carrots) are kept root•less /ˈruːtləs/ adj : having no home or connection to a place ▪ He was leading a rootless existence. ▪ a rootless drifter – root•less•ness noun [noncount]

root vegetable noun, pl ~ -tables [count] : a vegetable (such as a carrot or potato) that grows under the ground

[1]rope /ˈroʊp/ noun, pl ropes
1 : a strong, thick string that is made by twisting many thin strings or fibers together [count] Tie the end of the rope to the post. ▪ She made a knot in the rope. [noncount] a six-foot length of rope ▪ We used rope to tie down the furniture in the trailer. ▪ The hostages were tied up with rope. — see also JUMP ROPE, SKIPPING ROPE, TIGHTROPE, TOWROPE
2 [count] : a string on which a number of similar things are held together ▪ a rope of pearls

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

3 the ropes : the special way things are done at a particular place or in a particular activity ▪ The veteran cop showed the rookie the ropes. ▪ It will take a few weeks for new employees to learn the ropes. ▪ someone who knows the ropes

4 the ropes : a fence made of rope that encloses a boxing or wrestling ring ▪ The boxer was pushed back against the ropes.

jump/skip rope US : to jump over a rope that is being swung near the ground for exercise or as a game ▪ He jumps rope to warm up before the game. ▪ The kids are outside jumping rope.

money for old rope see MONEY on the ropes informal : in a very bad position or situation : very close to failure or defeat ▪ The company is on the ropes and in danger of closing.

the end of your rope see [1]END

[2]rope verb ropes; roped; rop•ing [+ obj]

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to bind, fasten, or tie (something or someone) with a rope ▪ The dog was roped to the fence. ▪ The boats were roped together at the dock. ▪ Mountain climbers often rope themselves together for safety.

2 chiefly US : to catch (an animal) by throwing a circle of rope around it : LASSO ▪ He tried to rope the calf.

3 informal : to use clever or tricky methods to get (someone) to do something — + in or into ▪ I didn't want to go to the party, but my friends somehow roped me in. ▪ My friends roped me into going to the party. ▪ I always seem to get roped into driving.

rope off [phrasal verb] rope off (something) or rope (something) off : to separate (an area) from another area with rope ▪ The police roped off the street for the summer festival. ▪ Part of the exhibit had been roped off.

rope ladder noun, pl ~ -ders [count] : a ladder that has short pieces (called rungs) which are held between two long ropes ropy also rop•ey /ˈroʊpi/ adj rop•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : similar to rope : like rope in appearance ▪ ropy noodles/vines

2 Brit, informal a : in bad condition ▪ a ropy [=worn] suit : of bad quality ▪ ropy [=shoddy] plumbing b : ill or unwell ▪ The passengers looked a bit ropy after the bumpy flight.

ro–ro /ˈroʊˌroʊ/ noun, pl ro–ros [count] Brit : a ship that is designed and equipped to allow vehicles (such as cars or tanks) to be driven on and off ✧ Ro-ro is an abbreviation of "roll on, roll off."

Ror•schach test /ˈroʊrˌʃɑːk-/ noun, pl ~ tests [count] technical : a personality and intelligence test in which someone looks at ink blots of different shapes and then describes what the shapes look like ro•sa•ry /ˈroʊzəri/ noun, pl -ries

1 [count] : a string of beads that are used by Roman Catholics for counting prayers

2 the Rosary : a set of Roman Catholic prayers that are repeated in a specific order ▪ recite/say the Rosary

[1]rose past tense of [1]RISE

[2]rose /ˈroʊz/ noun, pl ros•es

1 [count] : a flower with a sweet smell that is usually white, yellow, red, or pink and that grows on a bush which has thorns on the stems ▪ a bouquet of roses ▪ He sent a dozen red roses to his girlfriend on Valentine's Day. — see color picture on page C6; see also BED OF ROSES

2 [noncount] : a slightly purplish-pink color — see color picture on page C3

come out/up smelling like a rose or come out/up smelling like/of roses informal : to have success or good fortune in a situation in which you were likely to fail, be harmed, etc. ▪ The scandal forced several board members to resign, but the chairman came out smelling like a rose. [=the chairman's reputation was not damaged at all] coming up roses informal : turning out to be good ▪ Now that he finally has a job, everything's coming up roses for him. [=many good things are happening in his life]

(stop and) smell the roses informal : to stop being busy and enjoy the pleasant things in life ▪ You shouldn't work so hard. You need to take some time to stop and smell the roses.

wake up and smell the roses see [1]WAKE ro•sé /roʊˈzeɪ, Brit ˈrəʊzeɪ/ noun, pl -sés [count, noncount] : wine that has a pink color ro•se•ate /ˈroʊzijət/ adj, literary : having a pink color ▪ a bird with roseate feathers rose•bud /ˈroʊzˌbʌd/ noun, pl -buds [count] : the flower of a rose that has not opened : the bud of a rose rose•bush /ˈroʊzˌbʊʃ/ noun, pl -bush•es [count] : a bush that produces roses

rose–col•ored (US) or Brit rose–col•oured /ˈroʊzˌkʌlərd/ adj

1 : having a pink color ▪ a rose-colored wine

2 : tending to think of things as being better than they really are ▪ They always take a rose-colored view of the problem. ✧ If you see or view something through rose-colored glasses/spectacles, you think of it as being better than it really is. ▪ He looks at the world through rose-colored glasses. [=he looks at the world in an overly optimistic way]

rose hip noun, pl ~ hips [count] : a small fruit that grows on some rosebushes rose•mary /ˈroʊzˌmeri/ noun [noncount] : an herb that has a sweet smell and that is used in cooking and perfumes ▪ The recipe calls for a tablespoon of rosemary. — see color picture on page C6

rose–tinted /ˈroʊzˌtɪntəd/ adj : ROSE-COLORED

ro•sette /roʊˈzɛt/ noun, pl -settes [count]

1 : a badge or ornament that is made of ribbon and folded in the shape of a rose

2 : a design shaped like a rose that is used as a decoration ▪ a rosette of chocolate frosting ▪ Rosettes are carved in the base of the statue.

rose water noun [noncount] : liquid made from roses that has a pleasant smell and is used as a perfume or flavoring rose window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] : a circular window in a church that is made from stained glass with a decorative pattern

rose•wood /ˈroʊzˌwʊd/ noun [noncount] : the hard, dark, red wood of some tropical trees that is used especially for making furniture and musical instruments

Rosh Ha•sha•nah /ˌrɑːʃhəˈʃɑːnə/ noun [noncount] : the Jewish New Year observed as a religious holiday in September or October

ros•in /ˈrɑːzn/ noun [noncount] : a hard and slightly sticky substance that has various uses (such as to make the bows of violins and similar instruments move more easily across the strings) — compare RESIN

[1]ros•ter /ˈrɑːstɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 a : a list of the people or things that belong to a particular group, team, etc. ▪ His name has been added to the team roster. ▪ a membership roster b US : a group of people or things whose names are included on a roster ▪ The team has a roster of 40 players.

2 : a list that shows the order in which a job or duty is to be done by the members of a group ▪ a duty roster

[2]roster verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] Brit : to include (someone) on a roster of people who will be doing work ▪ He was rostered for extra duty.

ros•trum /ˈrɑːstrəm/ noun, pl ros•trums or ros•tra /ˈrɑːstrə/ [count] formal : a small raised platform on a stage rosy /ˈroʊzi/ adj ros•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a pink color ▪ rosy cheeks/peaches

2 : having or producing hope for success or happiness in the future ▪ A young man with a rosy [=promising] future. ▪ She has a rosy [=optimistic] outlook on life. ▪ He painted a rosy picture of the company's future. [=he made the company's future sound very good]

[1]rot /ˈrɑːt/ verb rots; rot•ted; rot•ting : to slowly decay or cause (something) to decay [no obj] The wood had rotted away. ▪ The apples were left to rot. ▪ the smell of rotting garbage — often used figuratively ▪ He was left to rot in jail. [=he was left in jail for a very long time] ▪ I hope he rots in hell! [+ obj] Eating too much candy can rot your teeth. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Too much TV will rot your brain. synonyms see [1]DECAY

[2]rot noun [noncount]

1 : the process of rotting or the condition that results when something rots ▪ They found a lot of rot in the house's roof. — often used figuratively ▪ moral rot ▪ (chiefly Brit) The rot set in [=things started getting really bad] when the factory closed down. ▪ (Brit) The team stopped the rot [=stopped things from getting worse] with a 5–0 win last night. — see also DRY ROT

2 informal + somewhat old-fashioned : foolish words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ That's a lot of rot! ▪ all that rot

ro•ta /ˈroʊtə/ noun, pl -tas [count] Brit : a list that shows who must do a certain job ▪ a rota of housekeeping duties

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

Ro•tar•i•an /roʊˈterijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a member of a Rotary Club

[1]ro•ta•ry /ˈroʊtəri/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : turning around a central point like a wheel ▪ a rotary blade ▪ the rotary action of the wheel
2 : having a part that turns around a central point like a wheel ▪ an old-fashioned rotary phone [=a phone with a dial that turns around a central point]

[2]rotary noun, pl -ries [count] US : TRAFFIC CIRCLE

Rotary Club noun, pl ~ Clubs [count] : an international organization of businesspeople who raise money to help the sick or poor in their local area

ro•tate /ˈroʊˌteɪt, Brit rəʊˈteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 : to move or turn in a circle [no obj] As the gear rotates, it turns the other gears. ▪ The Earth rotates on its axis. ▪ The planets rotate around the sun. ▪ a rotating propeller [+ obj] The software allows you to rotate images. ▪ Rotate the sheet of paper 90 degrees.
2 : to regularly change the person who does a particular job so that all the members of a group do it at different times [+ obj] The staff rotates the weekend shift. [no obj] We rotate—she does the dishes one week; I do them the next. ▪ The work is done by volunteers on a rotating basis. [=the volunteers take turns doing the work]
3 : to regularly change the place or position of things or people so that each takes the place of another [+ obj] You should rotate your car's tires once a year. ▪ (US) The soldier was rotated home after six months. [=the soldier was sent home after six months and another soldier took his place] [no obj] The seasons rotate.
4 [+ obj] : to regularly change (crops grown on one piece of land) to make sure the soil stays healthy ▪ They rotate alfalfa and/with corn. [=grow alfalfa one year and corn the next]
– ro•tat•able /ˈroʊˌteɪtəbəl, Brit rəʊˈteɪtəbəl/ adj ▪ a rotatable platform

ro•ta•tion /roʊˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [noncount] : the act or process of moving or turning around a central point ▪ the rotation of the Earth around its axis ▪ the rotation of the Moon around the Earth b [count] : a complete turn around a central point ▪ The Earth makes one rotation every day.
2 a [noncount] : the act of regularly changing something by replacing it with something else ▪ crop rotation ▪ Alfalfa and corn are planted in rotation. b : the act of regularly changing the place or position of things or people so that each takes the place of another [noncount] the rotation of the job of club president [count] The car needs a tire rotation.
3 [count] US : the group of people who take turns doing something ▪ Where are we in the rotation? [=when is it our turn?] ▪ (baseball) The team has a good (starting) rotation. [=group of pitchers who start games]
– ro•ta•tion•al /roʊˈteɪʃənl/ adj, always used before a noun, technical ▪ the rotational axis ▪ rotational motion

ro•ta•tor cuff /ˈroʊˌteɪtə-/ noun, pl ~ cuffs [count] chiefly US, medical : a group of muscles and tendons that are around your shoulder and that allow it to move in all directions

ROTC /ˌɑəˌoʊˌtiːˈsiː, ˈrɑːtsi/ noun [noncount] US : a military program that provides training and financial assistance for college students who become officers in the military at the end of the program ▪ He joined (the) ROTC. ▪ ROTC training begins tomorrow. ✧ ROTC is an abbreviation of "Reserve Officers' Training Corps."

rote /roʊt/ noun [noncount] : the process of learning something by repeating it many times without thinking about it or fully understanding it ▪ The children learned the words to the poem by rote.
– rote adj, always used before a noun ▪ rote learning/memorization ro•tis•ser•ie /roʊˈtɪsəri/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a piece of equipment that turns meat over a source of heat so that it cooks on all sides ▪ a chicken cooked on a rotisserie = a rotisserie chicken

ro•tor /ˈroʊtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] technical : a part of a machine that turns around a central point ▪ the rotor (blade) of a helicopter ▪ brake rotors

[1]rot•ten /ˈrɑːtn/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having rotted or decayed and no longer able to be used, eaten, etc. ▪ rotten wood ▪ rotten teeth ▪ rotten eggs ▪ The bananas went rotten. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The whole political system is rotten. [=corrupt]
2 informal a : very bad or unpleasant ▪ What rotten [=lousy] luck! ▪ They did a rotten job. ▪ We played a rotten game. [=we did not play well] ▪ What rotten weather we're having. b not used before a noun : not well or healthy ▪ I feel rotten today. c not used before a noun : not happy or pleased ▪ I feel rotten [=I feel guilty; I am upset] about what I said. d : not morally good : not honest, kind, etc. ▪ He was a rotten husband. [=he was not a very good husband] ▪ She's rotten to the core. [=she's a very bad person; she's a very dishonest person] — see also rotten apple at APPLE
3 always used before a noun, informal — used for emphasis when you are angry ▪ You can keep your rotten money!
– rot•ten•ness /ˈrɑːtn̩nəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]rotten adv, informal
1 : very badly or poorly ▪ He treats her rotten.
2 : very much ▪ (Brit) He fancies you (something) rotten. [=he likes you very much] ▪ Those kids were spoiled rotten by their mother.

rot•ter /ˈrɑːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a very bad person ▪ a selfish rotter

Rott•wei•ler /ˈrɑːtˌwaɪlə/ noun, pl -lers [count] : a type of large dog that is often used as a guard dog — see picture at DOG

ro•tund /roʊˈtʌnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary + humorous : fat and round ▪ a rotund face ▪ a short, rotund man
– ro•tun•di•ty /roʊˈtʌndəti/ noun [noncount]

ro•tun•da /roʊˈtʌndə/ noun, pl -das [count] : a large, round room and especially one covered by a dome ▪ We stood inside the rotunda of the U.S. Capitol Building.

rouble chiefly Brit spelling of RUBLE rouge /ˈruːʒ/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : a red powder or cream that is used to make your cheeks pinker ▪ She was wearing too much rouge.

– rouged /ˈruːʒd/ adj ▪ rouged ladies ▪ heavily rouged cheeks

[1]rough /rʌf/ adj rough•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having a surface that is not even ▪ rough tree bark ▪ a cat's rough tongue ▪ He trimmed the rough edge of the paper. ▪ We traveled over rough dirt roads. ▪ They hiked through rough terrain/country. — opposite SMOOTH
2 : having or causing sudden, violent movements ▪ a rough [=bumpy] ride on an old wooden roller coaster ▪ We were a bit shaken from the plane's rough landing. — opposite SMOOTH
3 somewhat informal : difficult or unpleasant to deal with ▪ She's had a rough [=tough] life/year/time. ▪ He went through a rough patch/period after his divorce. ▪ They've hit a few rough spots in their marriage. ▪ Despite a rough start, the team won more games this season than last. ▪ I had a rough night last night. [=I did not sleep well] ▪ It was rough going [=things were difficult] for a while. ▪ Our ancestors had it rough [=had a difficult existence] compared to us. ▪ He's having a rough time (of it). = He's going through a rough time. [=he is having a difficult time; his life has been difficult recently]
4 : not calm : having large waves, strong winds, storms, etc. ▪ The sea is rough today. ▪ rough waters off the coast ▪ We ran into some rough [=stormy] weather.
5 : not gentle or careful : causing or likely to cause harm or injury ▪ These dishes are not made to withstand rough handling. ▪ The prisoners complained about rough treatment by the guards. ▪ She says the kids are too rough [=rowdy] when they play. ▪ He doesn't like rough sports like hockey. ▪ All right kids—no rough stuff. [=no behaving or playing in a rough way] ▪ Don't be so rough on them [=don't punish or criticize them so harshly] for making a mistake.
6 : having a lot of crime or danger ▪ I live in a pretty rough neighborhood/area.
7 : made or done in a way that is simple or that needs further changes, improvements, etc. ▪ He made a rough sketch of the house. ▪ They built a rough [=crude] shelter out of branches. ▪ He submitted a rough draft of the article. ▪ The project still has a few rough edges. [=the project still has a few things that need to be changed or finished] ▪ The design is still a bit rough around the edges.
8 always used before a noun : not precise or exact : not including all the details ▪ If I were to make a rough guess, I might say there were 100,000 people at the parade. ▪ a rough translation of a Chinese proverb ▪ This sketch will give you a rough idea of what the house looks like.
9 : having a harsh sound ▪ She has a rough voice.
10 Brit, informal : not well ▪ I'm feeling too rough to go out tonight.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– rough•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the roughness of the waves ▪ surfaces with varying degrees of roughness and smoothness

²rough adv
1 : in a rough way ▪ The engine is running a little rough. ▪ Life has been treating her pretty rough. ▪ He plays rough with the dog.
2 Brit : outside and without shelter ▪ people living/sleeping rough on the streets

³rough noun, pl roughs
1 the rough golf : an area on a golf course covered with tall grass that makes it difficult to hit the ball ▪ He hit his drive into the rough.
2 [count] : something (such as a drawing) that is done quickly and is not detailed or finished ▪ He showed me a few roughs of the new building.
3 [count] informal + old-fashioned : a person who is loud and violent ▪ a gang of roughs [=rowdies, hoodlums] in rough Brit : in an unfinished form ▪ The plans were done in rough for preapproval.
in the rough chiefly US : in an unfinished or rough state ▪ Some of the turquoise is polished and some is in the rough. [=not polished] ▪ He admired the beauty of nature in the rough. — see also DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH take the rough with the smooth chiefly Brit : to accept and deal with the bad or unpleasant things that happen in addition to the good or pleasant things ▪ In this business, you have to learn to take the rough with the smooth.

⁴rough verb roughs; roughed; rough•ing [+ obj] American football + ice hockey : to hit (a player) very hard in a way that is not allowed by the rules ▪ He was called for roughing the kicker/passer.
rough in [phrasal verb] rough (something) in or rough in (something) : to make a rough or unfinished version of (something, such as a design) as the first step in creating the finished version ▪ Rough in the lettering on your poster. ▪ He roughed in the frame of the new door.
rough it informal : to live usually for a short time without the normal things that make life comfortable ▪ She was roughing it in the wilderness.
rough out [phrasal verb] rough (something) out or rough out (something) : to make (something, such as a drawing or a list) quickly and without including all the details ▪ We'll rough out a general plan.
rough up [phrasal verb] rough (someone) up or rough up (someone) informal : to hit and hurt (someone) ▪ The prisoner claimed that he was roughed up by the guards.

rough•age /ˈrʌfɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : plant material that cannot be digested but that helps you to digest other food : FIBER rough–and–ready /ˌrʌfənˈrɛdi/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not complete but good enough to be used ▪ a rough-and-ready solution/method
2 : not having polite manners or fancy skills but ready and able to do what needs to be done ▪ rough-and-ready soldiers rough–and–tum•ble /ˌrʌfənˈtʌmbəl/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~]

1 : disorderly, loud, and rough ▪ a rough-and-tumble group of soccer fans ▪ a rough-and-tumble game
2 : very competitive and aggressive ▪ the rough-and-tumble world of politics ▪ a rough-and-tumble competitor – rough–and–tumble noun [noncount] ▪ the rough-and-tumble of our neighborhood soccer games ▪ She joined the rough-and-tumble of politics.

rough diamond noun, pl ~ -monds [count] Brit : DIAMOND IN THE ROUGH 1

rough–edged /ˈrʌfˈɛʤd/ adj : having a rough quality : not smooth or refined ▪ rough-edged blues music ▪ rough-edged writing rough•en /ˈrʌfən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to become rough or cause (something) to become rough [+ obj] Roughen the surface with a file before you apply the glue. ▪ Her hands were roughened by years of hard work. [no obj] Age caused his skin to roughen.

rough–hewn /ˈrʌfˈhju:n/ adj
1 : having a rough and uneven surface ▪ rough-hewn ceiling beams
2 : not polite or educated ▪ a rough-hewn peasant rough•house /ˈrʌfˌhaʊs/ verb -hous•es; -housed; -hous•ing [no obj] US, informal : to play in a rough and noisy way ▪ The kids were roughhousing in the living room.

rough•ly /ˈrʌfli/ adv
1 : not exactly but close in number, quality, meaning, etc. ▪ Roughly translated, it means "hurry up!" ▪ The new product is modeled roughly on an earlier design. ▪ Roughly [=approximately] 20 percent of our land is farmland.
2 [more ~; most ~] a : in a way that is not gentle or careful ▪ He threw the package roughly in the truck. ▪ The guard told us roughly that we had to stand back. ▪ He pushed her roughly. b : in a very simple or basic way ▪ a roughly [=crudely] built shelter ▪ roughly sketched drawings c : in a way that produces a rough surface ▪ roughly cut timber rough•neck /ˈrʌfˌnɛk/ noun, pl -necks [count] chiefly US, informal 1 : someone who behaves in a rough, rude, or aggressive way ▪ a town overrun by roughnecks

2 : someone who works on an oil rig or at an oil well rough paper noun [noncount] Brit : SCRAP PAPER rough•shod /ˈrʌfˌʃɑ:d/ adv : without thinking or caring about the opinions, rights, or feelings of others ▪ They accused the government of riding roughshod over international law. [=of completely ignoring international law] ▪ (US) He achieved success by ruthlessly running roughshod over anyone who got in his way.

rou•lette /ruˈlɛt/ noun [noncount] : a game in which a small ball is dropped onto a numbered wheel that is spinning and players bet on which numbered section the ball will rest in — see also RUSSIAN ROULETTE

¹round /ˈraʊnd/ adj round•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : shaped like a circle or ball ▪ The Earth is round. ▪ little round meatballs ▪ a round table ▪ The baby has a round face. ▪ the owl's big, round eyes
2 : shaped like a cylinder ▪ a round peg
3 : having curves rather than angles ▪ He has round shoulders. ▪ a shirt with a round collar ▪ The corners are round. ▪ the plant's round leaves
4 : slightly fat : PLUMP ▪ a large, round man ▪ his big, round belly
5 always used before a noun a ✧ A round number is a whole number that often ends in 0 or 5 and that is used instead of a more exact number. ▪ The total actually came to $33.02, but the cashier made it a round $33. ▪ In round numbers/figures, the cost of the project adds up to two million dollars. ▪ "How much do you want for it?" "How about 50 dollars? That's a nice round number." b : exact or complete ▪ a round dozen/million – round•ness /ˈraʊndnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the perfect roundness of the stone

²round adv
1 chiefly Brit : AROUND
2 : from beginning to end ▪ The bush stays green all year round. [=stays green throughout the entire year] — see also YEAR-ROUND

³round noun, pl rounds
1 [count] a : one of a series of similar events — often + of ▪ A new round of negotiations is scheduled to begin next week. ▪ Her second round of chemotherapy recently ended. b : a series of similar actions, events, or things — usually + of ▪ She prepared herself for a round of appearances on television and radio shows. ▪ an endless round of business meetings c : a regular series of activities — usually + of ▪ my usual round of chores
2 rounds [plural] : a series of regular or similar visits or stops ▪ The doctor is on her rounds at the hospital. = (US) The doctor is making/doing her rounds at the hospital. [=the doctor is visiting the different patients she sees every day at the hospital] ▪ (US) She made the rounds of the stores [=she went to many different stores] looking for bargains.
3 : a route that is regularly covered as part of a job [plural] (chiefly US) The mailman was on his rounds. [count] (Brit) The postman was on his round.
4 [count] a : a stage of a sports competition in which each player or team plays against an opponent and the winner is allowed to continue to the next stage ▪ The team made it to the final round of the play-offs. ▪ He made it to the next round. b : one of the three-minute periods into which a boxing match is divided ▪ The match lasted five rounds. c : a complete set of holes played in golf : 18 holes of golf ▪ a round of golf
5 [count] : a number of drinks that are served at the same time to each person in a group ▪ I'll buy the next round (of drinks).
6 [singular] : a usually short period of applause, cheering, etc. ▪ The winner got a huge round of applause.

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 92 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

7 [count] a : a shot fired from a weapon ▪ Several rounds were fired. b : a bullet for one shot ▪ There was only one round left in the gun.
8 [count] music : a song in which three or more singers sing the same melody and words but start at different times
9 [count] : a round shape ▪ Cut the carrots into rounds. [=round slices] ▪ a round [=wheel] of cheese
10 [count] Brit a : a whole slice of bread or toast b : a sandwich that is made with two whole slices of bread — usually + of ▪ a round of ham sandwich [=a ham sandwich] in the round 1 : in a position that allows something to be seen from all sides ▪ a sculpture in the round 2 : with a center stage surrounded by an audience ▪ The play was presented in the round. ▪ a theater in the round
make the rounds (US) or chiefly Brit do/go the rounds ✧ When a rumor, a piece of news, etc. makes/does/goes the rounds, it is passed from one person to another person and becomes widely known. ▪ Rumors about his resigning as CEO were making the rounds. [=were spreading] — see also [3]ROUND 2 (above)

[4]round verb rounds; round•ed; round•ing [+ obj]
1 : to go or pass around (something) ▪ When we rounded the bend (in the road), we saw two deer in a field. ▪ He slipped when he was rounding first base.
2 : to finish or complete (something) in a good or suitable way — + off or out ▪ They rounded off the meal with coffee and dessert. ▪ Winning the tournament was the perfect way to round out her career. ▪ Two Nobel Prize winners round out the distinguished staff.
3 : to cause (something) to have a round shape — often + off ▪ He rounded off the corners of the table.
4 mathematics : to increase or decrease (a number) to the nearest whole or round number ▪ He rounded 10.6 (up) to 11 and 10.3 (down) to 10. — often + off ▪ You can round off the amounts to the nearest dollar.
round on [phrasal verb] round on (someone) Brit : to suddenly turn toward and attack (someone) — usually figuratively to describe suddenly beginning to speak to someone in an angry or critical way ▪ She rounded on him and called him a liar.
round up [phrasal verb] round up (someone or something) or round (someone or something) up : to find and gather together (people, animals, or things) ▪ They rounded up the cattle. ▪ The police rounded up all the suspects. ▪ She rounded up people to play basketball. — see also ROUNDUP

[5]round prep, chiefly Brit
1 : AROUND
2 : all during : THROUGHOUT ▪ The bush stays green (all) round the year. [=(more commonly) year-round]

[1]round•about /ˈraʊndəˌbaʊt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not direct ▪ He took a roundabout route to town.
2 : not simple, clear, or plain : long and confusing ▪ a roundabout explanation ▪ In a roundabout way, he told me that my help was not wanted.

[2]roundabout noun, pl -abouts [count] Brit
1 : TRAFFIC CIRCLE
2 : MERRY-GO-ROUND

round•ed /ˈraʊndəd/ adj
1 : having a round or curving shape ▪ a countertop with rounded corners ▪ Her shoulders are rounded. ▪ rounded leaves
2 : fully developed ▪ a wine with a rounded character ▪ The novel gives a rounded picture of life as an illegal immigrant in the U.S. — see also WELL-ROUNDED

roun•del /ˈraʊndl/ noun, pl -dels [count] chiefly Brit : a round figure or object round•er /ˈraʊndɚ/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a boxing match lasting a specified number of rounds ▪ a 10-rounder [=a boxing match that lasts 10 rounds]
2 rounders [plural] Brit : a game that is played with a ball and bat and that is like baseball round•ly /ˈraʊndli/ adv

1 a : thoroughly or completely ▪ He was roundly defeated. b : by nearly everyone : WIDELY ▪ Her leadership is roundly praised. ▪ He was roundly disliked/ignored.
2 : using plain or strong language ▪ She roundly criticized the plan. ▪ He told them roundly [=bluntly] that they would get no help.

round–rob•in /ˈraʊndˌrɑːbən/ noun, pl -ins [count] sports : a competition in which every player or team plays once against every other player or team round–shoul•dered /ˈraʊndˌʃoʊldɚd/ adj : having shoulders that slope downward or forward round•ta•ble /ˈraʊndˌteɪbəl/ noun, pl -tables [count] : a meeting at which people discuss something and everyone has an equal chance to express an opinion — often used before another noun ▪ a roundtable discussion/conference round–the–clock adj, always used before a noun : AROUND-THE-CLOCK round trip noun, pl ~ trips [count] : a trip to a place and back usually over the same route ▪ It's a 50-mile round trip to my parents' house.

– round trip adv, US ▪ The drive is 50 miles round trip.
– round–trip /ˈraʊndˌtrɪp/ adj, always used before a noun, US ▪ a round-trip ticket [=(Brit) return]

round•up /ˈraʊndˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]
1 a : the act or process of gathering together animals (such as cattle) by circling around them in vehicles or on horses b : the act or process of finding and gathering together people or things of the same kind ▪ The police ordered a roundup of all the suspects. — see also round up at [4]ROUND
2 : a brief statement of the most important information : SUMMARY ▪ Here's a roundup of today's news.

round•worm /ˈraʊndˌwɚm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a small worm with a long, round body that lives inside the bodies of people and animals rouse /ˈraʊz/ verb rous•es; roused; rous•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal

1 : to wake (someone) from sleep ▪ He was roused (from sleep) by a loud crash. ▪ I've been unable to rouse her. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He stood staring into space until he was roused by a tap on his shoulder. ▪ The music roused their spirits.
2 : to cause (someone who is tired or not interested) to become active ▪ What will it take to rouse voters (from their indifference)? ▪ I was so tired I could barely rouse myself to prepare dinner.
3 a : to cause (an emotional response) in someone ▪ His comments roused [=aroused] the anger of many military leaders. b : to make (a person or animal) angry ▪ These animals are dangerous when roused. ▪ She was roused to anger by their indifference.
4 : to cause (something) to happen ▪ The report roused [=(more commonly) aroused] speculation.

rousing adj, always used before a noun
1 : done or said with great enthusiasm or excitement ▪ She was met with a rousing reception. ▪ a rousing speech
2 : causing great emotion, excitement, or enthusiasm ▪ They played a rousing [=stirring] rendition of the national anthem. ▪ a rousing finale/victory
3 : unusually good ▪ The play was a rousing [=remarkable] success.

roust /ˈraʊst/ verb rousts; roust•ed; roust•ing [+ obj] US : to force (someone or something) to move from a place ▪ The soldiers were rousted from their beds before sunrise.

roust•about /ˈraʊstəˌbaʊt/ noun, pl -abouts [count] chiefly US : a worker in an oil field, at a circus, etc., whose job requires strength but little skill

[1]rout /ˈraʊt/ noun, pl routs
1 [count] : a game or contest in which the winner easily defeats the loser by a large amount ▪ The game turned into a rout in the second half. ▪ After they scored their fourth goal, the rout was on. [=the game became a rout]
2 : a confused and disorderly retreat from a place [count] — usually singular ▪ the attack and the rout that followed [noncount] They put the enemy to rout. [=they forced the enemy to run away]

[2]rout verb routs; rout•ed; rout•ing [+ obj]
1 : to defeat (someone) easily and completely in a game or contest ▪ The reigning champion routed the contender. ▪ The Nationalist party was routed in the polls.
2 : to force (someone or something) to move from a place ▪ The army routed the enemy from their stronghold. — often + out ▪ People were routed out of their homes by the soldiers.

[1]route /ruːt, ˈraʊt/ noun, pl routes [count]
1 a : a way to get from one place to another place ▪ We didn't know what route to take/follow. ▪ an escape route in case of fire ▪ a parade route ▪ We took the scenic route. [=a way that is not the fastest way but that has beautiful scenery] b : a way that someone or something regularly travels along ▪ a major bird migratory route ▪ a bus/truck route ▪ a mail route ▪ (US) She has a paper route. [=(Brit) paper round; a job of delivering newspapers to the same places every day]
2 : a way of achieving or doing something ▪ the route [=road]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 93 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

to success ▪ You could take a different route and still arrive at the same conclusion. ▪ I decided to go/take the traditional route [=do the traditional thing] and have a big wedding.

3 US : a usually minor highway ▪ Take Route 2 into town. ▪ We live on a rural route.

[2]route verb routes; rout•ed; rout•ing [+ obj] : to send (someone or something) along a particular route ▪ Traffic was routed around the accident. ▪ When the doctor is out, his calls are routed to his answering service.

rout•er noun, pl -ers [count]

1 /ˈraʊtə/ : a machine used for cutting a groove into the surface of wood or metal

2 /ˈruːtə, ˈraʊtə/ technical : a device that sends data from one place to another within a computer network or between computer networks

[1]rou•tine /ruˈtiːn/ noun, pl -tines

1 : a regular way of doing things in a particular order [count] Grandma gets upset if we change her routine. ▪ A brisk walk is part of her morning routine. ▪ The job will be easier once you settle into a routine. ▪ You must go through the whole routine [=all the steps] of disarming the alarm. ▪ an exercise routine [=a set of exercises always done in the same order] [noncount] We keep a copy of all correspondence as a matter of routine. [=as a standard procedure]

2 [noncount] : a boring state or situation in which things are always done the same way ▪ The meeting was a welcome break from routine. [=the meeting was different from what we normally do] ▪ the boring routine of paperwork

3 [count] a : a series of things (such as movements or jokes) that are repeated as part of a performance ▪ a comedy/dance/gymnastics routine b informal : something that is said or done the same way very often — usually singular ▪ Every time I ask him to do something, I get the old "I'm too busy" routine. [=he says "I'm too busy"]

4 [count] : a set of instructions that will perform a particular job on a computer ▪ the installation routine

[2]routine adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : done very often ▪ The surgery has become a very routine operation and poses little danger. ▪ He criticized her routine absence from important meetings.

2 : done or happening as a normal part of a job, situation, or process ▪ a routine luggage search ▪ a routine annual physical ▪ routine [=ordinary] business practices

3 [more ~; most ~] a : easily done according to a set way or method ▪ The more you do it, the more routine it becomes. ▪ They hire high-school students for routine work such as filing. b disapproving : boring because of always being done in the same way ▪ Data entry becomes routine very quickly.

– rou•tine•ly adv ▪ They routinely turn down at least half the applicants.

rove /roʊv/ verb roves; roved; rov•ing literary : to go to different places without having a particular purpose or plan [no obj] We roved [=roamed, wandered] around town/Europe. [+ obj] They roved [=roamed, wandered] the streets of the village. ▪ His eyes roved the room [=he looked around the room] in search of her.

rov•er /ˈroʊvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 literary : a person who wanders to different places ▪ an aimless rover

2 : a vehicle used for exploring the surface of a moon, planet, etc. ▪ the Mars rover

roving adj, always used before a noun : going to many different places ▪ a roving reporter ▪ roving bands of Gypsies roving eye ✧ If you have a roving eye, you tend to look at and have sexual thoughts about other people even though you already have a wife, husband, etc. ▪ His wife wasn't willing to tolerate his roving eye. [=wandering eye]

[1]row /roʊ/ noun, pl rows [count]

1 : a straight line of people or things that are next to each other ▪ rows of corn ▪ The desks are arranged in six rows. ▪ The table of figures should include totals at the end of each row and column. ▪ The bookstore has row upon row [=many rows] of self-help books.

2 : a line of seats in a theater, stadium, etc. ▪ I see three empty seats in the second/front/back row. ▪ We have front-row seats for the concert.

3 Row : a street or road — used in names ▪ I live on Vassar Row. ▪ a house on Church Row

a tough/hard row to hoe : something that is difficult to do or deal with ▪ I am considering becoming a doctor, but I know that it's a tough row to hoe.

in a row : following one after another ▪ There are three blue houses in a row. ▪ She had her birthday party at the bowling alley three years in a row. [=three consecutive years]

– compare [3]ROW, [4]ROW; see also DEATH ROW, SKID ROW

[2]row verb rows; rowed; row•ing

1 : to move a boat through water using oars [no obj] Let's row (over) to the island after lunch. ▪ We'll take turns rowing. [+ obj] They rowed the boat all the way across the lake.

2 [+ obj] : to carry (someone or something) in a boat that you row ▪ I rowed the kids out to the island.

– compare [5]ROW

[3]row noun [singular] : an act of rowing a boat ▪ I went for a row on the lake. — compare [1]ROW, [4]ROW

[4]row /raʊ/ noun, pl rows chiefly Brit, informal

1 [count] : a noisy argument ▪ She got into a terrible row [=quarrel] with her boyfriend.

2 [count] : a lot of loud arguing or complaining usually involving many people ▪ The proposal to build a new nuclear energy plant caused a huge row. [=uproar]

3 [singular] : a loud, unpleasant noise ▪ The children got hold of the drums and made an awful row. [=racket]

– compare [1]ROW, [3]ROW

[5]row verb rows; rowed; row•ing [no obj] Brit : to have a noisy argument with someone ▪ They were rowing again. ▪ He's always rowing with his wife about/over trivial things. — compare [2]ROW

row•an /ˈrawən, ˈroʊən/ noun, pl -ans [count, noncount] Brit : MOUNTAIN ASH row•boat /ˈroʊˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] US : a small boat that is moved through water using oars — called also (Brit) rowing boat; see picture at BOAT

[1]row•dy /ˈraʊdi/ adj row•di•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : rough or noisy ▪ a rowdy crowd ▪ rowdy children ▪ a rowdy game of basketball

– row•di•ness /ˈraʊdinəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]rowdy noun, pl -dies [count] : a person who causes trouble in a noisy way — usually plural ▪ a gang of young rowdies

– row•dy•ism /ˈraʊdiˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ rowdyism among sports fans row•er /ˈroʊə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who rows a boat : OARSMAN, OARSWOMAN ▪ Olympic rowers

row house /ˈroʊ-/ noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a house in a row of houses that shares a wall with the houses next to it — called also (Brit) terraced house

row•ing /ˈroʊɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the sport of racing in long, narrow boats that are moved by using oars ▪ She was on the rowing team.

2 : the activity of moving a boat by using oars ▪ Rowing is good exercise.

rowing boat noun, pl ~ boats [count] Brit : ROWBOAT rowing machine noun, pl ~ -chines [count] : an exercise machine that you use by moving your body as if you are rowing a boat — see picture at GYM

row•lock /ˈrɑːlək/ noun, pl -locks [count] chiefly Brit : OARLOCK

[1]roy•al /ˈrɔjəl/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to a king or queen ▪ the royal family/household/palace ▪ He comes from royal blood. [=he is in some way related to a king or queen]

2 Royal — used in names of organizations that are supported by or that serve a king or queen ▪ the Royal Army ▪ the Royal College of Art ▪ the Royal National Theatre

3 : suitable for a king or queen : elaborate or impressive ▪ They received a royal welcome as they stepped off the plane. ▪ The hotel gave us the royal treatment. [=they treated us like very important people]

4 chiefly US, informal — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ My little brother is a royal pain in the neck.

the royal "we" : the word "we" used by a king or queen instead of "I" ▪ When Queen Victoria said, "We are not amused," she was using the royal "we."

[2]royal noun, pl -als [count] informal : a member of a royal family ▪ magazine stories about the private lives of royals

royal blue noun [noncount] : a bright purplish blue — see color picture on page C2

– royal blue adj ▪ a royal blue shirt

Royal Commission noun, pl ~ -sions [count] : a group of people chosen by the British government to examine a particular topic or issue and recommend changes in the law ▪ a Royal Commission on the death penalty royal ush noun, pl ~ ushes [count] : a set of cards that a player has in a card game (such as poker) that are all of the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 94 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

same suit (such as diamonds) and are the most valuable cards (the ace, king, queen, jack, and ten) in that suit

Royal Highness noun, pl ~ -nesses [count] — used as a title for a member of a royal family; used with his, her, their, or your ▪ their Royal Highnesses, the Prince and Princess of Wales ▪ Her/His Royal Highness will receive you now. ▪ Thank you, your Royal Highness.

roy•al•ist /'rojəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who believes that a country should have a king or queen or who supports a particular king or queen
– royalist adj

roy•al•ly /'rojəli/ adv
1 : by a king or queen ▪ a royally appointed prime minister
2 : in a way suitable for a king or queen ▪ We were treated royally. [=we were treated like very important people]
3 US, informal — used to add emphasis to statements that usually express anger, frustration, etc. ▪ (impolite) He's royally pissed. [=he's extremely angry] ▪ I screwed up royally. [=very badly]

roy•al•ty /'rojəlti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : members of a royal family ▪ It was an honor and a privilege to dine with royalty. ▪ On our wedding day, we were treated like royalty.
2 [count] a : an amount of money that is paid to the original creator of a product, book, or piece of music based on how many copies have been sold — usually plural ▪ After he died, his family continued to collect royalties on/from his books. ▪ The book has earned $40,000 in royalties. ▪ royalty checks/payments for artists b : an amount of money that is paid by a mining or oil company to the owner of the land the company is using — usually plural ▪ The company pays royalties to the government for drilling rights.

RP abbr 1 Brit Received Pronunciation 2 baseball relief pitcher rpm abbr revolutions per minute ✧ Rpm is used after a number to indicate how many times something turns one complete circle during one minute. ▪ The engine produces 187 horsepower at 6,000 rpm. ▪ a 78-rpm record

RR abbr 1 railroad ▪ Turn left at the RR crossing. 2 or R.R. US rural route ✧ The abbreviation RR is used in mailing addresses to places that are located in the country to show which delivery route the mailbox is located on. ▪ RR 5, Box 653

R–rated adj, US, of a movie : having a rating of R : not suitable to be seen by children because of violence, offensive language, or sexual activity ▪ an R-rated movie — often used figuratively ▪ an R-rated joke

RSI abbr repetitive strain injury; repetitive stress injury

[1]RSVP abbr please reply — used on invitations to ask the invited guests to indicate whether they will be able to attend ✧ RSVP comes from the French phrase "répondez s'il vous plaît."

[2]RSVP /ˌɑɚˌɛsˌvi:'pi:/ verb RSVP's or RSVPs; RSVP'd or RSVPed; RSVP'•ing or RSVP•ing [no obj] chiefly US : to respond to an invitation ▪ They asked us to RSVP by this Friday. ▪ Have you RSVP'd?

Rt or Rt. abbr, US route ▪ Take Rt 70 west.

Rte. or Rte abbr, US route ▪ Take Rte. 70 west.

Rt Hon abbr, Brit Right Honourable

[1]rub /'rʌb/ verb rubs; rubbed; rub•bing
1 : to move something (such as your hand or an object) back and forth along the surface of (something) while pressing [+ obj] Could you rub my shoulders? ▪ He blinked and rubbed his eyes. ▪ The cat rubbed itself against my leg. [no obj] The cat rubbed against my leg. ▪ Don't rub too hard or you'll tear the paper.
2 : to move (two things) back and forth against each other [+ obj] He rubbed his hands with glee. — often + together ▪ I rubbed my hands together to warm them up. ▪ The sound you hear is the crickets rubbing their legs together. ▪ We learned how to rub two sticks together to start a fire. [no obj] There was a squeak when the boards rubbed together.
3 : to move back and forth many times against something in a way that causes pain or damage [no obj] The back of my shoe is rubbing against my heel and giving me a blister. ▪ There are marks where the chair has rubbed against the wall. [+ obj] There are marks where the chair has been rubbing the wall. ▪ I rubbed my knees raw scrambling over the rocks.
4 [+ obj] : to spread (something) over and into a surface by pressing firmly with your hands ▪ We rubbed the steaks with spices before we grilled them. = We rubbed spices onto the steaks before we grilled them. ▪ I rubbed the ointment onto my sore muscles.

rub along [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to work, play, etc., together with little or no difficulty ▪ We rub along [=get along] well enough, but we're not really close friends.

rub down [phrasal verb] rub (someone or something) down or rub down (someone or something) : to rub (a person or animal's body) with your hands in order to clean, dry, or massage it ▪ The trainer rubbed down the players after the game to keep them from getting sore. — see also RUBDOWN rub elbows with (US) or rub shoulders with informal : to meet and talk with (someone) in a friendly way ▪ The award dinner gave me the opportunity to rub elbows with some of today's greatest American poets.

rub in [phrasal verb] rub (something) in or rub in (something) informal : to keep reminding someone of (something that person would like to forget) ▪ She keeps rubbing in the fact that she makes more money than I do. ▪ I know I made a mistake, but you don't have to rub it in.

rub off [phrasal verb] 1 : to come off of a surface and often stick to another surface when the surfaces touch each other ▪ Be careful that the ink doesn't rub off on your fingers. ▪ The paint on the desk is beginning to rub off. — often used figuratively ▪ Her positive attitude rubbed off on other people. [=other people began to have a positive attitude from being around her] ▪ I wish some of your good luck would rub off on me. [=I wish that I would start having good luck too] 2 rub (something) off or rub off (something) : to remove (something) from a surface by rubbing ▪ I rubbed the dirt off (of) the penny.

rub out [phrasal verb] 1 rub (something) out or rub out (something) chiefly Brit : to remove (something) by rubbing especially with an eraser ▪ She rubbed out [=(chiefly US) erased] the wrong answer from her paper and filled in the correct one. 2 rub (someone) out or rub out (someone) US, informal : to murder (someone) ▪ They say that the Mafia rubbed him out.

rub salt in/into someone's wounds or rub salt in/into the wound informal : to make a difficult situation even worse for someone ▪ It's bad enough that he beat me, but the way he keeps talking about it is just rubbing salt in the wound.

rub someone's nose in informal : to repeatedly remind someone of (a mistake, failure, etc.) ▪ He beat us all in the race and then rubbed our noses in it.

rub (someone) the wrong way (US) or Brit rub (someone) up the wrong way informal : to cause (someone) to be angry or annoyed : IRRITATE ▪ She meant to be helpful but her suggestion really rubbed me the wrong way.

[2]rub noun, pl rubs
1 [count] : an act of rubbing a surface with your hands or an object — usually singular ▪ After the car was washed, they gave the windshield a quick rub with a dry cloth. ▪ Let me give you a back rub. [=let me rub/massage your back]
2 the rub formal : something that causes a difficulty or problem ▪ Therein/There lies the rub. [=that's the problem] ▪ She's an amazing cook, but she rarely has time to make meals. There's the rub.
3 [count] US : a combination of spices that is rubbed into the surface of meat before the meat is cooked ▪ He used his favorite rub on the steaks. ▪ a dry rub for chicken

[1]rub•ber /'rʌbɚ/ noun, pl -bers
1 [noncount] : a strong substance that stretches and that is made out of chemicals or from the juice of a tropical tree ▪ tires made of rubber — often used before another noun ▪ He was wearing rubber gloves and safety goggles. ▪ shoes with rubber soles ▪ a red rubber ball ▪ a rubber raft — see also FOAM RUBBER
2 [count] Brit : ERASER
3 rubbers [plural] US, informal + old-fashioned : shoes or boots that are made of rubber and that fit over your regular shoes to keep them dry — compare GALOSHES
4 [count] US, informal : CONDOM
5 [count] baseball : a flat piece of hard, white rubber on which the pitcher stands while pitching burn rubber informal : to drive very fast ▪ They were burning rubber up and down the road.
– compare [2]RUBBER

[2]rubber noun, pl -bers [count]
1 : a contest that consists of a series of games and that is won by the player or team that wins the most games (such as two games out of three) ▪ Let's play a rubber of bridge.
2 US, sports : a game that decides who will be the winner of a series of games — usually used before another noun ▪ The teams will play today in the rubber game of the series.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 95 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

– compare [1]RUBBER

rubber band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a thin, flexible loop that is made of rubber and used to hold things together — called also (US) elastic, (Brit) elastic band; see picture at OFFICE

rubber boot noun, pl ~ boots [count] US : a tall boot that is made out of rubber and that keeps your feet and lower legs dry — called also (Brit) Wellington rubber bullet noun, pl ~ -lets [count] : a bullet that is made out of rubber so that it hurts but does not kill people and that is used by the police and military to control a crowd rubber cement noun [noncount] : a thick, stretchy glue that contains rubber rub•ber•ized also Brit rub•ber•ised /ˈrʌbəˌraɪzd/ adj, always used before a noun : coated or soaked with rubber ▪ rubberized clothing rub•ber•neck /ˈrʌbəˌnɛk/ verb -necks; -necked; -neck•ing [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to look around or stare with great curiosity; especially : to slow down while you are driving in order to stare at something (such as an accident) ▪ She was rubbernecking and almost got in an accident herself.

– rub•ber•neck•er /ˈrʌbəˌnɛkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a traffic jam caused by rubberneckers

rubber plant noun, pl ~ plants [count] : a plant with large, shiny, dark green leaves that is often grown indoors

rubber stamp noun, pl ~ stamps [count]
1 : a small tool that consists of a handle attached to a piece of carved rubber and that is dipped in ink and then pressed on paper to print a date, name, symbol, etc.
2 disapproving : a person or organization that automatically approves everything that someone does or decides ▪ The legislature has been nothing more than a rubber stamp for the President.

rubber stamp

rubber–stamp verb -stamps; -stamped; -stamp•ing [+ obj] usually disapproving : to approve or allow (something) without seriously thinking about it ▪ They expected the proposal to be rubber-stamped by the legislature.

rub•bery /ˈrʌbəri/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : similar to rubber ▪ The hard-boiled eggs were tough and rubbery. ▪ a rubbery material
2 of legs or knees : bending like rubber : weak, shaky, and unstable ▪ Her legs were/felt rubbery when she stepped off the roller coaster.

rubbing noun, pl -bings [count] : an image of a surface that is made by placing paper over it and rubbing the paper with a pencil, crayon, etc. ▪ He made a rubbing of the old tombstone.

rubbing alcohol noun [noncount] US : a liquid that contains alcohol and water and that is used to clean wounds or skin — called also (Brit) surgical spirit

[1]rub•bish /ˈrʌbɪʃ/ noun [noncount]
1 : things that are no longer useful or wanted and that have been thrown out : TRASH ▪ Please, pick the rubbish up off the ground. ▪ (Brit) We saw a rat run through the rubbish tip/dump. [=(US) garbage dump; an area of land where people can dump their rubbish] ▪ (chiefly Brit) Put the potato peels in the rubbish bin. [=(US) garbage can, (chiefly US) trash can]
2 chiefly Brit, informal : words or ideas that are foolish or untrue ▪ I think what he says is absolute rubbish! ▪ That's (a load of) rubbish! I didn't cheat on the test. ▪ "I'm sorry, but I had to do it." "Rubbish!"
3 informal : something that is worthless, unimportant, or of poor quality ▪ The food at that restaurant is complete rubbish. ▪ I can't believe you waste your time reading that rubbish. [=garbage]

[2]rubbish verb -bish•es; -bished; -bish•ing [+ obj] Brit, informal : to severely criticize (someone or something) ▪ The critics rubbished [=(US) trashed] her new book.

rub•bishy /ˈrʌbəʃi/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : of very low quality ▪ a rubbishy film/book rub•ble /ˈrʌbəl/ noun [noncount] : broken pieces of stone, brick, etc., from walls or buildings that have fallen ▪ Rescue workers managed to pull two injured people out of the rubble. ▪ The earthquake reduced the whole town to rubble.

rub•down /ˈrʌbˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] chiefly US : an act of rubbing someone's body to relax the muscles ▪ The trainer gave him a rubdown after the game. — see also rub down at [1]RUB

rube /ˈruːb/ noun, pl rubes [count] US, informal : an uneducated person who is usually from the country ▪ They treated us as if we were a bunch of rubes.

Rube Gold•berg /ˈruːbˈgoʊldˌbɚg/ adj, always used before a noun, US : doing something simple in a very complicated way that is not necessary ▪ a Rube Goldberg [=(Brit) Heath Robinson] contraption/device/machine ✧ Rube Goldberg was an American cartoonist who was known especially for drawing humorously complicated machines that performed very simple tasks.

ru•bel•la /ruˈbɛlə/ noun [noncount] medical : GERMAN MEASLES

Ru•bi•con /ˈruːbɪˌkɑːn/ noun
the Rubicon : a limit or point that you reach when the results of your actions cannot be changed ▪ Once you've crossed the Rubicon there's no going back. ✧ This word comes from the name of a stream that separated Gaul from Italy. In 49 B.C., Julius Caesar started a war by illegally marching his army across the Rubicon and into Italy.

ru•bi•cund /ˈruːbəkənd/ adj, literary : having red or pink skin : RUDDY ▪ the rubicund face/features of his father ru•ble (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit rou•ble /ˈruːbəl/ noun, pl ru•bles

1 [count] : the basic unit of money of Russia ▪ It costs 40 rubles. ▪ a hundred-ruble bill
2 [count] : a coin representing one ruble ▪ She gave the driver a ruble. ▪ a handful of rubles
3 the ruble technical : the value of the ruble compared with the value of the money of other countries ▪ The ruble fell against the U.S. dollar.

ru•bric /ˈruːbrɪk/ noun, pl -brics [count] formal
1 : a name or heading under which something is classified ▪ They classify very different problems under a general rubric. [=category]
2 : an explanation or a set of instructions at the beginning of a book, a test, etc.

ru•by /ˈruːbi/ noun, pl -bies
1 [count] : a deep red stone that is used in jewelry ▪ diamonds and rubies — see color picture on page C11
2 [count, noncount] : a dark red color — see color picture on page C3
– ruby adj ▪ her ruby lips ▪ ruby red ruched /ˈruːʃt/ adj, of fabric or clothing : gathered into folds ▪ a ruched skirt

ruck /ˈrʌk/ noun, pl rucks
1 [count] rugby : a group of players who are trying to get the ball while it is on the ground
2 the ruck Brit : ordinary or normal people or events ▪ Her outstanding poetry eventually allowed her to emerge from the ruck. [=the crowd]
3 [singular] Brit, informal : a fight especially among a group of people ▪ He got drunk and started a ruck with the police.

ruck•sack /ˈrʌkˌsæk/ noun, pl -sacks [count] chiefly Brit : BACKPACK

ruck•us /ˈrʌkəs/ noun [singular] chiefly US, informal : a noisy argument, fight, etc. ▪ They caused quite a ruckus [=(Brit) rumpus] with their yelling. ▪ He raised a ruckus [=got upset and complained very loudly] over the cost of the repairs.

ruc•tions /ˈrʌkʃənz/ noun [plural] chiefly Brit : angry arguments or complaints ▪ There were ructions over how the opera should be staged.

rud•der /ˈrʌdə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a flat, movable piece usually of wood or metal that is attached to a ship, boat, airplane, etc., and is used in steering — see picture at BOAT

rud•der•less /ˈrʌdələs/ adj : without a leader, plan, or goal ▪ When the Speaker of the House resigned, the party was left rudderless. ▪ a rudderless young man

[1]rud•dy /ˈrʌdi/ adj
1 : having a healthy reddish color ▪ She has a ruddy face/complexion. ▪ ruddy cheeks
2 literary : RED ▪ the ruddy surface of Mars
3 always used before a noun, Brit, informal — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ The ruddy squirrels keep eating my birdseed! ▪ He's a ruddy fool!
– rud•di•ness /ˈrʌdinəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]ruddy adv, Brit, informal : VERY, EXTREMELY — used to make an angry or critical statement more forceful ▪ It's ruddy awful!

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 96 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

ruddy well Brit, informal — used before a verb to stress anger, annoyance, or disapproval ▪ I can ruddy well do as I like.

rude /ˈruːd/ adj rud•er; rud•est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : not having or showing concern or respect for the rights and feelings of other people : not polite ▪ He made rude remarks/gestures. ▪ I was shocked by her rude behavior. ▪ I can't believe that he was so rude to me. ▪ It is rude (of/for you) to always keep us waiting for you.

2 : relating to sex or other body functions in a way that offends others ▪ rude jokes ▪ I heard someone make a rude noise.

3 always used before a noun : happening suddenly in usually an unpleasant or shocking way ▪ If you think this job is going to be easy, you're in for a rude shock. [=you will be unpleasantly shocked when you find out that this job is not easy at all] ▪ He's about to have a rude awakening. [=he's about to find out something that will shock him unpleasantly]

4 literary : made or done in a simple or rough way : CRUDE ▪ a rude stone farmhouse in rude health Brit, old-fashioned : strong and healthy ▪ We hope to find you in rude health when we arrive.

– rude•ly adv ▪ He rudely interrupted me. ▪ I was rudely [=suddenly and unpleasantly] awakened from my nap. – rude•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I was shocked by his rudeness.

ru•di•men•ta•ry /ˌruːdəˈmɛntəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : basic or simple ▪ This class requires a rudimentary knowledge of human anatomy. ▪ He speaks rudimentary English.

2 : not very developed or advanced ▪ rudimentary technology ▪ When baseball was in its rudimentary stages, different teams played by different rules. ▪ Some insects have only rudimentary wings.

ru•di•ments /ˈruːdəmənts/ noun [plural] formal : basic facts or skills ▪ the rudiments of grammar/government rue /ˈruː/ verb rues; rued; ru•ing [+ obj] formal : to feel sorrow or regret for (something) ▪ He must be ruing his decision now. ▪ I rue the day (that) I signed that contract.

rue•ful /ˈruːfəl/ adj : showing or feeling regret for something done ▪ He gave me a rueful smile and apologized.

– rue•ful•ly adv ▪ "I still have a scar from the accident," he said ruefully.

ruff /ˈrʌf/ noun, pl ruffs [count]

1 : a large, round collar of folded fabric that was worn by men and women in the 16th and 17th centuries

2 : a mass of fur or feathers growing around or on the neck of an animal or bird ruf• •an /ˈrʌfijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] old-fashioned : a strong and violent person (especially a man) who threatens and hurts other people ▪ a gang of ruffians

[1]ruf• e /ˈrʌfəl/ verb ruf• es ; ruf• ed ; ruf• ing [+ obj]

1 : to move or lift (something) so that it is no longer smooth ▪ Her hair was ruffled by the wind. ▪ The bird ruffled (up) its feathers.

2 : to make (someone) irritated, annoyed, worried, etc. ▪ He ruffled some people with his constant complaining. — usually used as (be) ruffled ▪ That boy is a lot of trouble. It's a good thing his parents aren't easily ruffled. [=don't become upset easily] ▪ The actress was obviously ruffled by the reporter's question.

ruffle feathers informal : to upset or offend someone ▪ His critical remarks ruffled some feathers. = His critical remarks ruffled a few feathers. ▪ His critical remarks ruffled the feathers of the board members. ▪ Her research has been ruffling feathers [=upsetting people] for years. ▪ I agreed to do what they wanted because I didn't want to ruffle any feathers.

[2]ruffle noun, pl ruffles [count] : a piece of cloth that is gathered together along one edge and used to decorate something ▪ The dress has a ruffle around the collar.

– ruffled /ˈrʌfəld/ adj ▪ a ruffled collar

rug /ˈrʌg/ noun, pl rugs [count]

1 : a piece of thick, heavy material that is used to cover usually a section of a floor ▪ I accidentally spilled wine on the rug. — see picture at LIVING ROOM; see also PRAYER RUG, THROW RUG

2 chiefly US, informal : a small wig that is usually worn by a man to cover a bald spot : TOUPEE ▪ You could tell that he was wearing a rug.

3 Brit : a blanket that you put over your lap and legs to keep them warm cut a rug see [1]CUT pull the rug (out) from under informal : to very suddenly take something needed or expected from (someone or something) ▪ We were ready to start work on the project when the mayor pulled the rug out from under us and cut the funding.

sweep (something) under the rug see [1]SWEEP rug•by also Rugby /ˈrʌgbi/ noun [noncount] : a game played by two teams in which each team tries to carry or kick a ball over the other team's goal line — called also (chiefly Brit) rugby football; see picture at BALL

Rugby League noun [noncount] : a type of rugby played with 13 people on each team

Rugby Union noun [noncount] : a type of rugby played with 15 people on each team rug•ged /ˈrʌgəd/ adj

1 : having a rough, uneven surface ▪ the rugged surface of the moon ▪ She did a painting of the region's rugged coastline.

2 of a man's face : having rough but attractive features ▪ People are attracted to his rugged good looks.

3 : strong and determined ▪ rugged pioneers ▪ I admire her rugged individualism.

4 : made to be strong and tough ▪ The chair is made of rugged plastic. ▪ The fabric is lightweight but rugged.

5 : involving great difficulties or challenges : testing your physical, mental, or moral strength ▪ a long and rugged winter ▪ a rugged climb to the top of the mountain ▪ the rugged life of a sailor – rug•ged•ly adv ▪ a ruggedly handsome man – rug•ged•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the ruggedness of the terrain rug•ger /ˈrʌgɚ/ noun, pl -gers

1 [count] US, informal : a person who plays rugby ▪ college ruggers

2 [noncount] Brit, informal : RUGBY UNION ▪ He plays rugger.

rug•rat /ˈrʌgˌræt/ noun, pl -rats [count] US slang : a young child ▪ a mother and her little rugrats

[1]ru•in /ˈruːwən/ verb -ins; -ined; -in•ing [+ obj]

1 : to damage (something) so badly that it is no longer useful, valuable, enjoyable, etc. : to spoil or destroy (something) ▪ Moths ruined the sweater. ▪ Years of computer use ruined his eyesight. [=made his eyesight very poor] ▪ The bad weather ruined the party. ▪ I ruined the sauce by adding too much garlic. ▪ His low test scores ruined his chances of getting into a good school. ▪ Poor customer service ruined the company's reputation. ▪ You ruined my life! [=you made my life very difficult or unpleasant]

2 : to cause (someone) to lose money, social status, etc. ▪ He was ruined by debt. ▪ The scandal ruined the mayor.

[2]ruin noun, pl -ins

1 [noncount] : a state of complete destruction : a state of being ruined ▪ The incident led to the ruin of their relationship. ▪ The abandoned town had gone to ruin. ▪ Don't let the house your grandfather built fall into ruin.

2 [count] : the remaining pieces of something that was destroyed ▪ The castle is now a ruin. — usually plural ▪ the ruins of the ancient city ▪ We saw the (ancient) Mayan/Roman ruins. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He searched through the ruins of his childhood for the cause of his unhappiness.

3 [noncount] : the state of having lost money, social status, etc. ▪ The drought brought economic/financial ruin to local farmers. ▪ Her drug addiction brought her to the brink of ruin.

4 [singular] : something that badly damages someone physically, morally, economically, or socially ▪ Her drug addiction was her ruin. ▪ Street violence is the ruin of too many young people today.

in ruins : destroyed with some pieces or parts remaining ▪ The building was/lay in ruins. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ After her death, the family was in ruins.

ru•in•a•tion /ˌruːwəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the act or process of destroying something ▪ Water pollution is causing the ruination of the fishing industry.

ruined adj, always used before a noun : destroyed or badly damaged so that only parts remain ▪ ruined buildings ▪ a ruined Greek temple ru•in•ous /ˈruːwənəs/ adj, formal

1 : causing or likely to cause damage or destruction ▪ Smoking is ruinous [=(more commonly) dangerous, hazardous] to

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 97 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

your health. ▪ ruinous effects/consequences
2 : costing far too much money ▪ ruinous price increases
3 chiefly Brit, formal : falling apart : badly damaged ▪ a ruinous building ▪ The house has fallen into a ruinous state.
– ru•in•ous•ly adv ▪ Funding the project would be ruinously expensive.

[1]rule /ˈru:l/ noun, pl rules
1 [count] a : a statement that tells you what is or is not allowed in a particular game, situation, etc. ▪ I understand the basic rules of chess. ▪ As long as you're living under our roof, you'll follow/obey our rules. ▪ The college has strict rules for qualifying for financial assistance. ▪ The new rule allows/permits employees to dress casually on Fridays. ▪ Under the new rules, casual dress is now allowed. ▪ the company's rules and regulations ▪ It's important to learn the rules of the road before taking your driving test. ▪ It's against the rules to eat during class. ▪ He violated the unwritten/unspoken rule that you must thank your host before you leave a party. ▪ We cannot bend/stretch the rules [=change or ignore the rules] just for you. ▪ If you break the rules, you'll be asked to leave. — see also GAG RULE, GROUND RULE synonyms see LAW
b : a statement that tells you what is allowed or what will happen within a particular system (such as a language or science) ▪ the rules of grammar ▪ the rules of geometry
2 [count] : a piece of advice about the best way to do something ▪ Your speech will go well as long as you follow one simple rule: be confident. ▪ The first rule of driving is to pay attention. ▪ A good rule to follow when traveling is to do as the locals do.
3 [singular] : the way something usually is done or happens ▪ As a rule, I don't drive in the snow. [=I don't usually drive in the snow] ▪ As a general rule, electronic gadgets become smaller as they develop. ▪ Friendly customer service seems to be the exception rather than the rule nowadays. [=friendly customer service seems to be rare these days] ▪ They make it a rule to treat everyone fairly. [=they always treat everyone fairly]
4 [noncount] : the control and power that a particular person, group, or government has over a country or area ▪ Today we celebrate the anniversary of the country's independence from colonial rule. ▪ Under her rule, the country prospered. — see also HOME RULE, MAJORITY RULE
5 [count] old-fashioned : a stick used for measuring things : RULER — see also SLIDE RULE by the rules : in the way that is most common, expected, and acceptable ▪ After years of boredom, he grew tired of living by the rules. ▪ She has always played by the rules throughout her career.
rule of law : a situation in which the laws of a country are obeyed by everyone ▪ The courts uphold the rule of law.
rule of thumb 1 : a method of doing something that is based on experience and common sense rather than exact calculation ▪ A good rule of thumb for keeping your closet organized is to get rid of any clothes you haven't worn in the past year. 2 : a principle that is believed and followed and that is based on the way something usually happens or is done ▪ As a rule of thumb, stocks that involve greater risk also have the potential of earning you more money.

[2]rule verb rules; ruled; rul•ing
1 : to have control and power over a country, area, group, etc. [no obj] The queen ruled for 25 years. ▪ A dynasty ruled over this region during the 11th century. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ After the overthrow of the government, chaos ruled. [=there was a lot of chaos] [+ obj] Who will be the next leader to rule the country? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ That summer, his band ruled the airwaves.
2 [+ obj] : to have great influence over (someone) ▪ Football ruled their lives. ▪ All of his actions were ruled by his religion.
3 : to make a legal decision about something [no obj] The court ruled in favor of the defendant. ▪ The jury ruled against the tobacco companies. ▪ How will the court rule on the motion? [+ obj] The Supreme Court ruled the law unconstitutional. ▪ The board ruled that her behavior was cheating.
4 not used in progressive tenses [no obj] slang : to be very good or popular — used to express strong admiration for someone or something ▪ That movie rules! [=that movie is great] ▪ Your new sneakers rule.
divide and rule see [1]DIVIDE rule out [phrasal verb] 1 rule (someone or something) out or rule out (someone or something) : to no longer consider (someone or something) as a possibility after careful thought or study ▪ The police ruled them out as suspects when it was proved that they were out of town when the crime was committed. ▪ There are some diseases your doctor will want to rule out before making a diagnosis. 2 rule (something) out or rule out (something) : to make (something) impossible : to prevent (something) from happening ▪ The bad weather ruled out a picnic. 3 rule (someone) out : to remove (someone) from a competition, contest, etc. ▪ He applied for the job, but his lack of experience quickly ruled him out. ▪ (chiefly Brit) She has been ruled out of today's game with a broken thumb.
rule the roost see [1]ROOST rule with an iron fist/hand (chiefly US) or Brit rule with a rod of iron : to rule a country, area, group, etc., in a very strict and often cruel way ▪ The dictator ruled (the island) with an iron fist.

rule book noun, pl ∼ books [count] : a book that contains the official set of rules that must be followed in a game, job, etc. — usually singular ▪ If you're not sure what to do, look in the rule book. — often used figuratively ▪ The rule book says [=the rules say] that once the puck fully crosses the line it is a goal.

ruled adj : printed with lines on which to write ▪ a ruled notebook ▪ wide-ruled notebook paper

rul•er /ˈru:lə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person (such as a king or queen) who rules a country, area, group, etc. ▪ a summit attended by a number of rulers from around the world
2 : a straight piece of plastic, wood, or metal that has marks on it to show units of length and that is used to measure things ▪ This ruler shows inches and centimeters. — see picture at CARPENTRY

[1]ruling noun, pl -ings [count] : an official decision made by a judge, referee, etc. ▪ The decision overturns the Supreme Court's earlier ruling. ▪ She disputed the referee's ruling.

[2]ruling adj, always used before a noun : having control and power over a country, area, group, etc. ▪ members of the ruling class ▪ the ruling family/party

[1]rum /ˈrʌm/ noun, pl rums [count, noncount] : an alcoholic drink that is made from sugar ▪ a bottle/glass of rum ▪ rum punch

[2]rum adj, Brit, old-fashioned + informal : strange or odd ▪ They're a pretty rum lot.

rum•ba also rhum•ba /ˈrʌmbə/ noun, pl -bas
1 [count] : a type of dance originally from Cuba in which dancers move their hips a lot ▪ They danced a/the rumba.
2 : the music for a rumba [count] The band played a rumba. [noncount] The band plays rumba.

[1]rum•ble /ˈrʌmbəl/ verb rum•bles; rum•bled; rum•bling
1 [no obj] : to make a low, heavy, continuous sound or series of sounds ▪ Thunder rumbled in the distance. ▪ I got hungry and my stomach started rumbling. [=growling] ▪ rumbling machines
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move along with a low, heavy, continuous sound ▪ The train rumbles through town twice a day. ▪ We watched as the trucks rumbled past/by.
3 [no obj] US, informal + old-fashioned : to fight especially in the street ▪ The gangs rumbled in the alley.
4 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to reveal or discover the true character of (someone) ▪ He knows I've rumbled him.
rumble on [phrasal verb] : to continue for a long period of time ▪ The debate rumbled on through newspaper articles.

[2]rumble noun, pl rumbles [count]
1 : a low, heavy sound or series of sounds ▪ I was awakened by the rumble of a train passing by.
2 US, informal + old-fashioned : a fight in the street especially between gangs rumble seat noun, pl ∼ seats [count] US, old-fashioned : a seat in the back of a car that folds down and is not covered by the top ✧ Rumble seats were most common in cars made during the 1920s and 1930s.

rumble strip noun, pl ∼ strips [count] : a set of grooves along the edge of a highway or across a road that cause noise and shaking when they are driven over and that are used to warn drivers that they need to slow down or are too close to the edge of the road

rum•bling /ˈrʌmbəlɪŋ/ noun, pl -blings
1 [count] : a low, heavy, continuous sound or series of sounds ▪ rumblings of thunder — usually singular ▪ The rumbling of the thunder frightened the cat. ▪ the rumbling of distant traffic
2 rumblings [plural] : written or spoken comments showing that people are unhappy about something ▪ There were rum-

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 98 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

blings about rising prices. ▪ the rumblings of revolution

rum•bus•tious /ˌrʌmˈbʌstʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit : RAMBUNCTIOUS ru•mi•nant /ˈru:mənənt/ noun, pl -nants [count] technical : an animal (such as a cow or sheep) that has more than one stomach and that swallows food and then brings it back up again to continue chewing it – ruminant adj ▪ ruminant animals

ru•mi•nate /ˈru:məˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [no obj]
1 formal : to think carefully and deeply about something ▪ The question got us ruminating on the real value of wealth. ▪ He ruminated over/about the implications of their decision.
2 technical, of an animal : to bring up and chew again what has already been chewed and swallowed ▪ a ruminating cow – ru•mi•na•tion /ˌru:məˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] ruminations on the meaning of life [noncount] Cows break down their food by rumination.

ru•mi•na•tive /ˈru:məˌneɪtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing careful thought about something : very thoughtful ▪ The poem is dark and ruminative. ▪ She was in a ruminative mood.

[1]rum•mage /ˈrʌmɪʤ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -mag•es; -maged; -mag•ing [no obj] : to search for something especially by moving and looking through the contents of a place ▪ He rummaged through the attic for his baseball card collection. ▪ He rummaged in his pocket for the receipt. ▪ I heard you rummaging around/about in the refrigerator.

[2]rummage noun [singular] chiefly Brit : the act of looking for something among a group of things ▪ Have a rummage through the box [=look through the box] and see if you can find the toy you're looking for.

rummage sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] US : a sale of used items (such as old clothes or toys) especially to raise money for a church, school, charity, etc. — called also (Brit) jumble sale

rum•my /ˈrʌmi/ noun [noncount] : a card game in which each player tries to collect groups of three or more cards — see also GIN RUMMY ru•mor (US) or Brit ru•mour /ˈru:mə/ noun, pl -mors : information or a story that is passed from person to person but has not been proven to be true [count] There are rumors that they are making a new film. ▪ She accused him of starting/spreading rumors about her. ▪ Ever since his sudden resignation, rumors have been flying. ▪ I heard a rumor that they broke up. ▪ "Did you hear that they broke up?" "That's just/only a rumor." ▪ The rumor turned out to be false/unfounded. [noncount] You can't fire him solely based on rumor. ▪ Rumor has it that they broke up.

the rumor mill : a group of people who start and spread rumors ▪ That news should keep the rumor mill churning/running/going for a while!

ru•mored (US) or Brit ru•moured /ˈru:məd/ adj — used to describe what is being said in rumors ▪ The estate sold for a rumored $12 million. [=people say that it sold for $12 million, but that may not be true] ▪ It was rumored that the factory was going to move overseas, but that turned out to be false. ▪ The new boss is rumored to be a bit of a tyrant.

ru•mor•mon•ger (US) or Brit ru•mour•mon•ger /ˈru:məˌmɑ:ŋgə, ˈru:məˌmʌŋgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] disapproving : a person who enjoys spreading rumors rump /ˈrʌmp/ noun, pl rumps

1 a [count] : the back part of an animal's body where the thighs join the hips ▪ a horse's/cow's rump b [count, noncount] : a piece of meat that comes from the rump of a cow — called also rump steak
2 [count] humorous : the part of the body you sit on : BOTTOM ▪ I slipped and fell on my rump.
3 [singular] chiefly Brit : the part of a group that remains after most of the members of that group have left or been forced to leave rum•ple /ˈrʌmpəl/ verb rum•ples; rum•pled; rum•pling [+ obj] : to make (something) messy or wrinkled ▪ He rumpled her hair affectionately.

– rumpled adj ▪ She put on a rumpled shirt she had worn the day before. ▪ a rumpled bed rum•pus /ˈrʌmpəs/ noun [singular] chiefly Brit, informal : a noisy argument, fight, etc. : RUCKUS ▪ They caused a rumpus [=commotion] with their fighting.

rumpus room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] US, somewhat old-fashioned : a room usually in the basement of a house that a family uses for games, parties, etc.

[1]run /ˈrʌn/ verb runs; ran /ˈræn/; run; run•ning
1 [no obj] a : to move with your legs at a speed that is faster than walking ▪ How fast can you run? ▪ He runs faster than anyone else on the team. ▪ She ran up the stairs to get her jacket. ▪ We ran for the train—but missed it. ▪ I heard her scream and ran to help. ▪ She ran to me for help. ▪ The dog ran away from me. ▪ The dog ran toward me. ▪ When I called the dog, he came running. ▪ Don't expect me to come running every time you want something. I'm not your servant. ▪ The chickens were running loose in the yard. ▪ The horses ran wild. ▪ He ran at me with a knife. [=he ran toward me with a knife in his hand] — often used figuratively ▪ He ran back to his ex-girlfriend after I dumped him. ▪ You can't keep running away from your problems. ▪ Don't come running to me when you get in trouble. ▪ Don't let your imagination run wild. I'm sure nothing bad has happened. b : to leave a place quickly by running ▪ When the alarm sounded, the robbers ran. ▪ He dropped the gun and ran. ▪ Quick! Run and get a doctor! ▪ The ambushed soldiers ran for cover. ▪ They had the enemy running scared. — often + away ▪ When she saw all the people in the audience, she had a sudden urge to run away. ▪ They ran away screaming. — often + off ▪ When they saw the police, they quickly ran off.
2 a : to run as part of a sport, for exercise, or in a race [no obj] He ran on the track team in college. ▪ She's running in the marathon this year. ▪ The horse will not be running in this race. [+ obj] I run six miles every day. ▪ She ran a great race. [=she ran very well in the race] ▪ He ran track in college. ▪ She's running the marathon this year. ▪ The marathon will be run tomorrow. [=people will be running the marathon tomorrow] b American football : to carry and run with (the ball) [+ obj] He ran the football for a 20-yard gain. ▪ He ran the kick back to the 40-yard line. [no obj] He ran for 15 yards. c baseball : to run from base to base [no obj] He runs well and might attempt a steal. [+ obj] He runs the bases well.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (an animal) to run ▪ He ran the horse through the fields.
4 [no obj] chiefly US : to be a candidate in an election for a particular office — often + for ▪ She is running [=(Brit) standing] for mayor. — often + against ▪ He is running against her in the upcoming election.
5 [+ obj] a : to direct the business or activities of (something) ▪ She runs [=manages] the restaurant/hotel/store. ▪ He runs the after-school program. ▪ The President is doing a good job running the country. ▪ The company is badly/privately run. ▪ state/family-run companies ▪ I'm old enough to run my own life! [=make my own decisions] b : to do (a test or check) on someone or something ▪ The doctors need to run some more tests. — often + on ▪ The doctors ran some tests on the blood samples. ▪ The police ran a security check on him.
6 a [+ obj] : to use and control (something) ▪ I'm not licensed to run [=operate] a forklift. b [+ obj] : to put (something) into operation ▪ You should run the engine for a few minutes before you start driving. ▪ He ran the program (on the computer). c [no obj] : to function or operate ▪ Never leave your car unattended while the engine is running. ▪ He didn't know the camera was still running. ▪ He had his new computer up and running in no time. — often + on ▪ This software runs on most computers. ▪ The car runs on [=uses] diesel.
7 a usually followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to go on a particular route or at particular times ▪ The bus/ferry runs every hour. ▪ The train runs between New York and Washington. ▪ Trains no longer run on this track. ▪ The buses are running late. [=the buses are late] b [+ obj] : to have (a bus, train, ferry, etc.) traveling on a route ▪ They run extra trains on Saturdays.
8 a [no obj] : to make a quick trip to a place for something ▪ She ran (up/down) to the store for bread and milk. ▪ He ran over to the neighbors for some sugar. b [+ obj] : to drive (someone) a short distance to a place or event ▪ I have to run the kids to soccer practice. c always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to bring (something) quickly to someone who is at a particular place ▪ Wait here. I'm just going to run this in/inside to her. ▪ He ran an umbrella out to her before she drove off. d [+ obj] : to do (something that involves making a quick trip) : to do (an errand) ▪ I have a few errands to run after I leave work today.
9 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to cause (a driver or vehicle) to move in a particular direction ▪ That car tried to run me off the road! ▪ She ran her car off the road. ▪ He ran the car into a tree. b [no obj] of a driver or vehicle : to move in a particular direction ▪ His car ran off the road. = He ran off the road. — see also RUN INTO (below), RUN OVER (below)

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 99 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

10 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to pass through, over, along, or into something else ▪ She ran her fingers through my hair. ▪ He ran a brush over the dog's fur. ▪ I quickly ran my eyes over/down the list of names. b [no obj] : to travel or spread in a fast or uncontrolled way ▪ Whispers ran through the crowd. ▪ A chill ran up/down my spine.

11 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to go or extend in a particular direction ▪ The boundary line runs east. ▪ The road runs through the mountain. ▪ The highway runs from Boston to New York. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ My tastes in novels run to/toward science fiction and thrillers. [=I tend to like science fiction and thrillers] ▪ Such behavior runs counter to [=such behavior does not agree with] the values of our society. ▪ He does nothing that would run against [=go against] his moral principles. b — used to describe the position of a road, path, etc. ▪ The highway runs close to the shore. ▪ The route runs the length of the eastern coast. ▪ A path runs along the ridge. ▪ The pipes run beneath the floor. ▪ There was a scratch running down the side of the car.

12 [+ obj] : to cause (something, such as a wire or cable) to go or extend from one point to another ▪ He ran the wires up from the basement.

13 [+ obj] : to bring (something) from one country into another country illegally and secretly ▪ He was arrested for running [=smuggling] drugs into the country.

14 a [no obj] : to flow ▪ He left the water running. : to flow in a particular direction ▪ The river runs down to the valley. ▪ The river runs into the gulf. ▪ The tide was running out. ▪ Sand ran out of the bag. ▪ Steam runs through the pipes. ▪ Blood was running down his leg. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to flow or to produce a flow of water ▪ She ran the tap/faucet. ▪ Run the water until it gets hot. c [+ obj] : to prepare (a bath) by running a faucet ▪ She ran a hot bath for her husband. = She ran her husband a hot bath.

15 [no obj] a : to produce a flow of liquid ▪ Chopping the onions made my eyes run. [=water] ▪ I knew I was getting sick when my nose started to run. ▪ a running sore b : to spread or flow into another area ▪ Your eyeliner is running. ▪ Mascara ran from her eyes. ▪ The paint ran in some spots. ▪ The writing was blurred where the ink ran. c : to have a color that spreads onto other pieces of clothing when clothes are washed together ▪ Her red shirt ran and made my blue jeans look purple. ▪ colors that run

16 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to continue or remain effective for a particular period of time ▪ His contract runs until next season. ▪ She received six months on each charge, and the sentences are to run concurrently. ▪ The course runs over a six-week period of time. ▪ The televised game ran 30 minutes over the scheduled time. ▪ The play has run for six months. ▪ Things ran smoothly at the office while the boss was away.

17 [no obj] : to be or to begin to be something specified ▪ The well has run dry. ▪ Her creativity has run dry. ▪ We are running low on fuel. [=our supply of fuel is getting low] ▪ Supplies were running low/short. ▪ We ran short of money. [=we did not have enough money] ▪ I have to hurry. I'm running late. [=I'm late; I'm behind schedule] ▪ The project is running behind schedule.

18 [no obj] : to include everything between specified limits : RANGE ▪ The prices for tickets run from $10 to $50.

19 [+ obj] : to allow charges on (a bill) to add up before paying ▪ He ran a tab at the bar.

20 a [+ obj] : to have (an amount of money) as a price ▪ The rooms run [=cost] $100 a night. b [no obj] : to have or reach a particular length, size, or amount ▪ The book runs (to) nearly 500 pages. ▪ Their annual budget runs to about 5 million dollars. ▪ Their yearly income runs into/to six figures. [=their yearly income is more than $100,000] ▪ Gas is running at over $4 per gallon. [=gas prices are over $4 per gallon]

21 a [+ obj] : to print or broadcast (something) ▪ Every newspaper in the city ran the story. ▪ The ad was run in yesterday's newspaper. ▪ The news station ran a feature on how to eat healthier. b [no obj] : to appear in print or on television ▪ Many of his stories ran in national magazines. ▪ The show has run for five seasons.

22 [+ obj] : to produce (a copy of a document, newspaper, etc.) using a printer or copying machine ▪ 10,000 copies were run for the first edition. — see also RUN OFF (below)

23 a [+ obj] : to have (particular words) in writing or print ▪ "We Will Not Lose" ran the headline. [=the headline was/said "We Will Not Lose"] b [no obj] : to be expressed in words ▪ The definition runs as follows . . .

24 [+ obj] : to drive past or through (a stop sign or red traffic light) illegally without stopping ▪ He ran a red light. = He ran the light. ▪ She ran the stop sign.

25 [no obj] US, of stockings : to start to have a long hole that continues to get longer ▪ The nylons are guaranteed not to run. [=(Brit) ladder]

26 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to own and maintain (a vehicle) ▪ I can't afford to run a car on my salary.

In addition to the phrases shown below, run occurs in many idioms that are shown at appropriate entries throughout the dictionary. For example, cut and run can be found at ¹CUT and run a tight ship can be found at ¹SHIP.

run across [phrasal verb] run across (someone or something) : to meet (someone) or find (something) by chance ▪ I ran across [=ran into] an old roommate of mine today. ▪ I ran across some old photos from when I was a kid.

run a fever/temperature ✧ If you are running a fever/temperature, you have a body temperature that is higher than normal.

run after [phrasal verb] 1 run after (someone or something) : to run toward (someone or something) in an attempt to catch that person or thing ▪ The dog ran after [=chased] the squirrel. 2 run after (someone) informal + disapproving : to try to start a romantic relationship with (someone) ▪ He's always running after younger women.

run along [phrasal verb] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to go away : LEAVE ▪ He told the boy to run along home. ▪ Run along now, kid. This doesn't concern you.

run around or chiefly Brit run about or run round [phrasal verb]

1 : to run in an area while playing ▪ The children were running around outside. 2 informal : to go from place to place in a busy or hurried way ▪ I spent the whole day running around doing errands. 3 run around/about/round with (someone) informal + disapproving : to spend a lot of time with (someone) ▪ He runs around with younger women.

run away [phrasal verb] 1 : to leave your home suddenly without permission and go somewhere else to live ▪ He ran away (from home) at a young age. ▪ They ran away [=ran off] together because their families objected to their marriage. — see also RUNAWAY 2 : to avoid a person or situation that makes you feel uncomfortable ▪ You shouldn't keep running away. You should face your mom and tell her how you feel. 3 a run away with (someone) disapproving : to leave a person or place in order to live with and have a sexual relationship with (someone) ▪ He left his wife and ran away with [=ran off with] his secretary. ▪ She ran away with a man old enough to be her father. b run away with (something) : to leave a place with (something that does not belong to you) ▪ The butler ran away with [=stole, ran off with] the family silver. 4 run away with (something) informal a : to be the best or most popular performer in (a performance) ▪ She ran away with [=stole] the show. b : to win (something) very easily ▪ She ran away with the election. ▪ He ran away with first place. 5 run away with (someone) : to make (someone) do something that is not sensible or reasonable ▪ Don't let your imagination run away with you. [=don't let yourself imagine all kinds of things that aren't true] — see also ¹RUN 1b (above)

run by/past [phrasal verb] run (something) by/past (someone) : to tell (something) to (someone) so that it can be considered, approved, etc. ▪ You'd better run this past the boss. [=you'd better tell the boss about this and find out if he/she thinks it is a good idea] ▪ He ran some ideas by her. ▪ (informal) Can you run that by me again? [=can you repeat what you just said?]

run down [phrasal verb] 1 run (someone or something) down or run down (someone or something) : to hit and knock down (a person or animal) with a vehicle ▪ He says she deliberately tried to run him down. 2 a run (someone or something) down or run down (someone or something) : to chase after and catch (a person or animal) ▪ The cops ran the robber down in an alley. b : to find (someone or something) after searching ▪ He wasn't in his office, but I finally ran him down in the faculty lounge. 3 run down or run down (something) or run (something) down a : to use

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 100 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

up or cause (something) to use up all of its power ▪ The clock ran down. [=the clock slowed down and stopped working because it did not have any more power] ▪ The watch's battery ran down. ▪ Turn off the radio so you don't run down the batteries. b Brit : to become or cause (something, such as a business or activity) to become gradually smaller ▪ The company has been running down for decades. ▪ The company has been running down its factories/inventory. 4 run (someone or something) down or run down (someone or something) informal : to criticize (someone or something) in usually an unfair way ▪ Don't keep running yourself down like that: you have a lot to offer! 5 run down (something) : to say or repeat (a list of people or things) from the beginning to the end ▪ Let me just run down all the things we need to do. ▪ He ran down the list of names. — see also RUNDOWN run for it informal : to run to avoid being caught ▪ It's the cops! Run for it!

run high : to be or become very strong or intense ▪ Passions often run high in these debates. [=people often get very angry in these debates] ▪ Emotions are running high between the two teams.

run in [phrasal verb] 1 run (someone) in or run in (someone) informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to arrest (someone) ▪ The police ran him in for being drunk and disorderly. 2 run (something) in or run in (something) Brit : to drive (a new vehicle) carefully for a period of time until it is ready for regular use ▪ You shouldn't drive a new car too fast while you're running it in. [=breaking it in]

run into [phrasal verb] 1 run into (someone or something) : to move into (someone or something) in a sudden or forceful way ▪ He went off the road and ran into a tree. = His car went off the road and ran into a tree. ▪ Some guy on a bike almost ran into me! ▪ She wasn't paying attention and ran right into the table. 2 run into (someone) : to meet (someone) by chance ▪ I ran into [=ran across] an old classmate the other day. 3 run into (something) : to experience (something that is unpleasant or difficult) : ENCOUNTER ▪ We ran into some bad weather on our way home. ▪ We ran into some problems setting up the computer.

run its course ✧ When something runs its course, it begins, continues for a time, and then ends. ▪ The disease usually runs its course in a few days.

run off [phrasal verb] 1 a : to leave or abandon a person or place ▪ Her husband ran off and left her with two small children to care for. — see also ¹RUN 1b (above) b run off with (someone or something) informal : to leave a place with (someone or something) : to run away with (someone or something) ▪ Her husband ran off with his secretary. ▪ She ran off with all the money. 2 run off (something) or run (something) off : to repeat or produce (something) quickly ▪ Would you please run off five copies of this letter? — see also ¹RUN 22 (above) 3 run (someone or something) off or run off (someone or something) US : to force (a person or animal) off your land ▪ He ran us off his property.

run on [phrasal verb] 1 : to talk about something for a long time ▪ He ran on (and on) about politics until everybody was bored. 2 : to keep going without being stopped or interrupted for a long period of time ▪ The meeting ran on for hours.

run out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to come to an end ▪ Time ran out [=expired] before we could tie the game. ▪ My contract will run out soon. b : to become used up ▪ The gasoline ran out before we got to Denver. ▪ Our money finally ran out. [=our money was all used; we had no more money] 2 run (someone) out or run (someone) out of (something) old-fashioned : to force (someone) to leave a place ▪ An angry mob ran him out of town. 3 run out (something) or run (something) out baseball, of a batter : to run hard to first base after hitting (a batted ball) ▪ His manager got angry because he failed to run out a grounder. 4 run out or run out of (something) : to use up the available supply of (something) ▪ We're low on gas. We'd better stop before we run out. ▪ He ran out of space and had to put his address on the other side of the paper. ▪ You have to work faster. We're running out of time. 5 run out on (someone) informal : to leave (someone you should stay with) : to abandon or desert (someone) ▪ She ran out on her husband and children to be with a man old enough to be her father.

run over [phrasal verb] 1 : to go beyond a limit ▪ The meeting ran over. [=the meeting was longer than it was expected or planned to be] 2 a : to flow over the top or edge of something : OVERFLOW ▪ The water was running over onto the floor. b of a container : to have a liquid flow over its edge : OVERFLOW ▪ His cup ran over. 3 run over (someone or something) or run (someone or something) over a : to knock down and drive over or go over (someone or something) ▪ The dog was run over by a car. ▪ The running back ran over two defenders. b : to read, repeat, or practice (something) quickly ▪ Let's run the lines over together one more time. ▪ Can you run over the instructions again?

run past see RUN BY (above)

run through [phrasal verb] 1 run through (something) a : to spend or use up (something) quickly : SQUANDER ▪ He ran through his winnings in a short time. b run through (something) : to read, repeat, or practice (something) quickly ▪ Let's run through our lines one more time. ▪ He quickly ran through the dance routine. — see also RUN-THROUGH c : to occur repeatedly in (something) or throughout (something) ▪ The song has been running through my head all morning. ▪ Thoughts and memories of home kept running through his mind. ▪ A note of despair runs through the narrative. 2 run (something) through (something) : to enter (information) into (a computer) for processing ▪ She ran his name through the police computer to see if he had any previous arrests. ▪ He ran the data through. 3 run (someone) through literary : to push a sword through (someone) ▪ He ran him through with his sword.

run up [phrasal verb] 1 run up (something) or run (something) up a : to raise (a flag) to the top of a flagpole ▪ To celebrate our victory, we ran up our flag. b : to achieve (a large score or lead) ▪ Our team ran up a big lead in the first quarter. ▪ (US) She angrily accused the other coach of deliberately running up the score. [=continuing to try to score more points even though they are not needed to win a game] c : to increase the amount of (something) ▪ These extras will run the bill up another $100. d : to get (a large bill, debt, etc.) by buying many things without making payments — often + up ▪ She ran up a large phone bill. ▪ He ran up a lot of debt on his credit cards. 2 run up against (something) : to experience (something difficult) : ENCOUNTER ▪ She has run up against a lot of opposition. ▪ He has run up against a bug in his computer program.

run with [phrasal verb] run with (something) informal : to use (something) in a very energetic, enthusiastic, and effective way ▪ He took the idea and ran with it.

run your mouth informal : to talk too much and in a foolish way ▪ He's always running his mouth about what a great athlete he is.

walk before you (can) run see ¹WALK

²run noun, pl runs

1 [count] : an act of running ▪ He goes for a six-mile run every evening. ▪ She took the dogs out for a run. ▪ When they realized they might miss the train, they broke into a run. [=started running] ▪ The robbers heard the police sirens and made a run for it. [=ran away to avoid being captured] ▪ The dog was coming toward us at a run. [=the dog was running toward us] — see also HIT-AND-RUN

2 [count] a : a continuous series of similar things — often + of ▪ We had a long run of cloudy days. ▪ a run of good/bad luck ▪ a long run of wins/losses b : a continuous series of performances or showings ▪ The play had a run of six months on Broadway. = The play had a six-month run on Broadway.

3 [count] : the amount of a product that is produced at one time — often + of ▪ The book had a print run of 10,000 copies. [=10,000 copies of the book were printed at the one time]

4 [count] US : an attempt to win or do something ▪ The team is making a run at the championship. [=the team is playing well and has a chance to win the championship] ▪ She made an unsuccessful run for a seat in the Senate. [=she tried to be elected to a seat in the Senate, but she lost the election] ▪ (informal) "I can't solve this math problem." "Let me take a run at it." [=let me try it]

5 [singular] : the usual or normal kind of person or thing ▪ She's not like the average/normal/general/usual run of students. [=she's not like most students] ▪ The place is different from the usual run of restaurants.

6 [count] a : a score made in baseball when a player reaches home plate after going around the bases ▪ The home team took the lead with three runs in the bottom of the fifth (inning). ▪ a three-run lead — see also HOME RUN b : a score made in cricket

7 [count] American football : a play in which a player tries to move the ball forward by running with it ▪ He scored on a 25-yard run.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 101 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-r

8 a [count] : a regular journey that is made by a bus, train, etc. ▪ The bus makes four runs daily. ▪ a delivery run ▪ (Brit) the school run [=a regular trip in which parents take their children to or from school each day] ▪ The planes were sent out on a bomb/bombing run. b [singular] : a short trip in a vehicle ▪ I have to make a quick run to the store.
9 [count] : a track that slopes down and that is used for skiing, sledding, etc. ▪ a ski run [=slope] ▪ a bobsled run
10 [count] : a path that is used regularly by animals ▪ a deer run — see also RAT RUN
11 [count] : an enclosed area for animals where they feed and exercise ▪ a chicken run
12 [count] US : a long hole in a stocking ▪ She had a run in her stocking/nylons. — called also (Brit) ladder
13 [count] music : a series of notes that are sung or played quickly up or down a scale
14 [count] : a situation in which many people want to have, get, or do something at the same time — usually singular; usually + on ▪ There's been a big run on tickets for the game. [=a lot of people have been trying to get tickets for the game] ▪ There was a run on the bank. [=a lot of people were taking their money out of the bank because they were afraid that the bank would fail]
15 [count] : the general way in which something is moving or changing ▪ Investors are anxiously watching the run of the stock market. [=are watching to see if the stock market is going up or down]
16 the runs informal : DIARRHEA ▪ a bad case of the runs
17 [count] technical : an occurrence in which a large number of fish (such as salmon) swim up a river to return to the place where they were hatched and produce young ▪ a salmon run a run for your money ✧ Someone who gives you a (good) run for your money in a game or contest makes it difficult for you to win by trying hard and playing or performing well. ▪ Though they lost, they gave last year's champions a run for their money.
on the run 1 a : running away from someone in order to avoid being captured ▪ an escaped convict on the run ▪ He is on the run from the cops. b : running away because you are about to be defeated ▪ The army had the enemy on the run. 2 : while going somewhere or while doing something else ▪ We ate lunch on the run. 3 informal : continuously busy ▪ He's always on the run.
the run of : the freedom to go anywhere or do anything you want in (a place) ▪ With his parents gone, he had the run of the house.
– see also DRY RUN, DUMMY RUN, LONG RUN, SHORT RUN, TRIAL RUN run•about /ˈrʌnəˌbaʊt/ noun, pl -abouts [count]

1 chiefly US : a small motorboat
2 chiefly Brit : a small car run•around /ˈrʌnəˌraʊnd/ noun

the runaround informal ✧ If someone gives you the runaround or you get the runaround, you are not given the information or help that you need because someone will not answer your questions or deal with your problem directly. ▪ I'm tired of getting the runaround from your customer representatives. ▪ They keep giving me the runaround.

[1]run•away /ˈrʌnəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -aways [count] : someone (such as a child) who leaves home without permission : someone who runs away from home ▪ teenage runaways — see also run away at [1]RUN

[2]runaway adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to describe a person who has left home without permission or who has escaped from someplace ▪ runaway teenagers ▪ a runaway slave
2 : operating, running, increasing, etc., in a fast and dangerous way that cannot be controlled ▪ a runaway horse/train ▪ a runaway oil well ▪ runaway inflation
3 : extremely successful ▪ a runaway best seller ▪ The play was a runaway success.
4 a : won very easily by a large amount ▪ a runaway victory b : having won very easily by a large amount ▪ She was the runaway winner of the race.

run batted in noun, pl runs batted in [count] baseball : RBI run–down /ˈrʌnˈdaʊn/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : in very bad condition because of age or lack of care ▪ They lived in a run-down farmhouse in rural Maine.
2 not used before a noun : in poor health or physical condition : worn-out or exhausted ▪ You look run-down.

run•down /ˈrʌnˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count]
1 : a quick report about the main parts of something ▪ They gave us a rundown on/of the main points of the news.
2 Brit : a gradual reduction in the size of a business, activity, etc. ▪ a rundown of/in our public services — see also run down at [1]RUN
3 baseball : a play in which a runner is chased by two or more opposing players who throw the ball to each other in an attempt to tag the runner out ▪ He was caught in a rundown.

rune /ˈruːn/ noun, pl runes [count] : any of the characters in the alphabets that were used in ancient times by people of Northern Europe
– ru•nic /ˈruːnɪk/ adj ▪ a runic inscription

[1]rung past participle of [3]RING

[2]rung /ˈrʌŋ/ noun, pl rungs [count]
1 : a piece of wood or metal that is placed between the legs of a chair for support
2 : one of the pieces of wood or metal that is used as a step on a ladder
3 : a position or level within a group, organization, etc., that is higher or lower than others ▪ He was on the bottom rung on the corporate ladder. ▪ the top rung of society ▪ the lowest/highest rung of the pay scale run–in /ˈrʌnˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] informal : an angry argument — usually + with ▪ He had a run-in with the cops.

run•nel /ˈrʌnl/ noun, pl -nels [count] formal + literary : a small stream run•ner /ˈrʌnɚ/ noun, pl -ners [count]

1 a : a person who runs as part of a sport, for exercise, or in a race ▪ a long-distance/cross-country/marathon runner ▪ She's a fast runner. b : an animal (such as a horse) that runs in a race
2 a : a person who delivers messages, reports, materials, or products either within a business or organization or to outside locations : MESSENGER b : a person who brings drugs, guns, etc., to a place illegally and secretly ▪ a drug runner
3 baseball : a player who is on base or is trying to reach a base : BASE RUNNER ▪ The runner slid into third base.
4 : a long, thin piece or part on which something (such as a sled, skate, or drawer) slides
5 : a stem of a plant that grows along the ground and that forms new plants ▪ a plant that spreads by sending out runners
6 a : a long, narrow carpet for a hall or staircase b : a narrow cloth cover for a table or other piece of furniture do a runner Brit, informal : to leave a place quickly by running especially to avoid paying a bill or to escape punishment run•ner–up /ˈrʌnɚˌʌp/ noun, pl run•ners–up /ˈrʌnɚzˌʌp/ [count] : a person or team that does not win first place in a competition but that does well enough to get a prize ▪ the first and second runners-up in the beauty pageant; especially : a person or team that finishes in second place ▪ The winner will receive $1,000 and the runner-up will receive $100.

[1]run•ning /ˈrʌnɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the activity or sport of running ▪ He took up running for exercise. ▪ long-distance running ▪ They go running every evening.
2 : the activity of managing or operating something — usually + of ▪ She's in charge of the day-to-day running of the entire operation. ▪ the smooth running of the events
3 : the activity of bringing drugs, guns, etc., to a place illegally and secretly ▪ drug running in the running 1 : competing in a contest ▪ The enthusiasm of his supporters made him decide to stay in the running for mayor. 2 : having a chance to win a contest ▪ She is still in the running for the prize.
out of the running 1 : not competing in a contest ▪ He declared himself officially out of the running for mayor. 2 : having no chance to win a contest ▪ She is now out of the running for the prize.

[2]running adj, always used before a noun
1 : operating or flowing ▪ Never add fuel to a running engine. ▪ a running faucet — see also RUNNING WATER
2 : going on steadily or repeatedly for a long period of time ▪ The farmer had a running battle with pests and disease. ▪ a running joke/gag [=a joke/gag that is repeated many times in slightly different ways]

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 102 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

3 : made during the course of a process or activity ▪ The major television stations provided running commentaries on the election results. ▪ She kept a running total of their expenses on the trip.
4 : done while running or immediately after running ▪ a running catch/jump
5 American football — used to describe play in which the ball is moved forward by running rather than by passing ▪ a running play ▪ The team has a strong running game. [=the team is good at moving the ball by running with it]
6 : designed for use by runners ▪ a running track ▪ running shoes

[3]running adv, always used after a noun : following or happening one after the other ▪ It has rained (for) three days running. [=for three days in a row; for three consecutive days] ▪ He has won the competition three times running.

running back noun, pl ∼ backs [count] American football : a player who carries the football on running plays running board noun, pl ∼ boards [count] : a long, narrow board that is attached to the side of a vehicle to make it easier for people to get in and out running mate noun, pl ∼ mates [count] chiefly US : the person who runs with someone in an election (such as an election to choose a new president) and who is given the less important position (such as vice president) if they are elected ▪ When John F. Kennedy ran for president, his running mate was Lyndon Johnson.

running start noun [singular] chiefly US — used to say that a person or animal is running at the start of a race, jump, etc. ▪ How fast can you cover 100 meters if you have a running start? [=if you are already running when you pass the starting point of that 100 meters?] ▪ The sprinters were given a running start. [=were allowed to be running at the start of the race] — often used figuratively ▪ The new mayor is off to a running start. [=flying start] [=the new mayor has been successful very quickly] ▪ The company was given a running start [=head start, advantage] by its experience with similar projects in the past.

running time noun, pl ∼ times [count, noncount] : the amount of time that a movie, performance, recording, etc., lasts from beginning to end running water noun [noncount] : water that comes into a building through pipes ▪ a cabin with hot and cold running water run•ny /ˈrʌni/ adj run•ni•er; -est

1 of a food : soft and with a lot of liquid ▪ The scrambled eggs are runny. ▪ The pudding is runnier than I like it.
2 : having a thin flow of liquid flowing out ▪ a little boy with a runny nose ▪ My eyes felt itchy and runny.

run•off /ˈrʌnˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs
1 [count] : an additional race, contest, or election that is held because an earlier one has not resulted in a winner
2 [noncount] : water from rain or snow that flows over the surface of the ground into streams run–of–the–mill /ˌrʌnəvðəˈmɪl/ adj, often disapproving : average or ordinary ▪ a run-of-the-mill performance

runt /ˈrʌnt/ noun, pl runts [count]
1 : the smallest animal in a group that is born to one mother at the same time ▪ the runt of the litter
2 informal + disapproving : a very small or weak person ▪ a skinny little runt
– runty /ˈrʌnti/ adj -i•er; -i•est ▪ a runty kid run–through /ˈrʌnˌθruː/ noun, pl -throughs [count] : an activity in which you quickly do or read all the different parts of something especially in order to practice or prepare for something (such as a performance) ▪ She gave her lines/notes a quick run-through. ▪ They did a run-through [=rehearsal] of the play. — see also run through at [1]RUN run–up /ˈrʌnˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 : a usually sudden increase in price ▪ a run-up in stock prices
2 : the period immediately before an action or event ▪ during the run-up to the war/election run•way /ˈrʌnˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count]

1 : a long strip of ground where airplanes take off and land
2 US : a raised structure along which models walk in a fashion show : CATWALK ru•pee /ruˈpiː/ noun, pl -pees [count] : the basic unit of money in some Asian countries including India and Pakistan ru•pi•ah /ruˈpiːjə/ noun, pl rupiah or ru•pi•ahs [count] : the basic unit of money in Indonesia

[1]rup•ture /ˈrʌpʧɚ/ noun, pl -tures
1 [count, noncount] : a crack or break in something (such as a pipe) ▪ A rupture in the pipeline resulted in major water damage.
2 medical a : a break or tear in a part of the body [count] a rupture of an artery [noncount] an infection that could cause rupture of the eardrum b [count] : HERNIA
3 [count] : a break in good relations between people or countries ▪ The conflict caused a rupture in relations between the former allies. ▪ They're trying to heal the rupture in their relationship.

[2]rupture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing
1 a : to break or burst [no obj] The pipe ruptured because of high water pressure. [+ obj] High water pressure ruptured the pipe. b [+ obj] medical : to cause a break or tear in (a part of the body) ▪ The impact ruptured his liver. ▪ a ruptured eardrum ▪ I almost ruptured myself [=I almost gave myself a hernia] trying to lift that heavy box.
2 [+ obj] : to damage or destroy (a relationship, situation, etc.) ▪ The scandal ruptured relations between the two countries. ▪ The crime ruptured the peace of a small town.

ru•ral /ˈrʊrəl/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : of or relating to the country and the people who live there instead of the city ▪ She lives in a rural area. ▪ a rural community/setting ▪ rural voters — opposite URBAN ruse /ˈruːs, Brit ˈruːz/ noun, pl rus•es [count] : a trick or act that is used to fool someone ▪ His act was just a clever ruse to get me to go out with him.

[1]rush /ˈrʌʃ/ verb rush•es; rushed; rush•ing
1 [no obj] : to move or do something very quickly or in a way that shows you are in a hurry ▪ Firefighters rushed to the accident scene. ▪ The children rushed down the stairs. ▪ She rushed past me. ▪ I rushed home from work to get ready for the party. ▪ She rushed through dinner. ▪ I'm getting everything ready tonight so I won't have to rush (around) in the morning. ▪ She rushed to close the window when she heard the rain. ▪ We were rushing to catch the bus.
2 a [+ obj] : to cause or force (someone) to do something too quickly ▪ He got nervous because they rushed him. ▪ Please stop rushing me! — often + into ▪ They rushed her into making a bad decision. b [no obj] : to do something too quickly and often with little thought, attention, or care ▪ He rushed through his work and made a lot of careless mistakes. — often + into ▪ She rushed into (making) a bad decision. ▪ After the divorce, he rushed into another marriage.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to flow or move very quickly in a particular direction ▪ Water rushed through the pipes. ▪ The rushing water broke through the barrier. — often used figuratively ▪ When he saw her photo, memories came rushing back.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to bring or send (someone or something) very quickly to a particular place ▪ He rushed his wife to the hospital. ▪ Supplies for the victims were rushed in. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Lawmakers rushed the bill through Congress.
5 [+ obj] : to do (something) quickly in a short period of time ▪ He asked the clerk to rush his order.
6 [+ obj] : to run toward (someone or something) very quickly ▪ Several hostages rushed the gunman and knocked him to the ground. ▪ The crowd rushed the stage at the concert.
7 [+ obj] US a : to go through the process of becoming a member of (a fraternity or sorority) ▪ She is rushing a sorority. b : to try to get (a student) to join a fraternity or sorority ▪ He is being rushed by a fraternity.
8 American football : to move a football down the field by running with it instead of throwing it [no obj] He rushed [=ran] for 100 yards in last week's game. = He had 100 yards rushing in last week's game. ▪ The team has a strong rushing defense/attack. [+ obj] He rushed [=ran] the ball for 100 yards in last week's game.
rush out [phrasal verb] rush (something) out or rush out (something) : to produce (something) very quickly ▪ We had to rush the manuscript out so that it could be copied. ▪ Reporters rushed out the story for the morning edition of the newspaper.

[2]rush noun, pl rushes
1 [singular] a : a quick, strong, or fast movement ▪ He made a sudden rush toward the door. b : a quick and forceful movement of air, water, etc. ▪ We felt a rush of cold/hot air from the vent. ▪ When the levees broke, the rush of water flooded the area.
2 [singular] : a situation in which someone is doing something very quickly or hurrying ▪ In his rush to get out the door, he forgot his hat. [=he forgot his hat because he was rushing/hurrying to get out the door] ▪ We are in no rush [=hurry] to finish.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 103 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−r

3 [count] : a situation in which a large number of people move to or toward one place at the same time usually to do a specific thing or to search for something ▪ Shop early to avoid the Christmas/holiday rush. [=the time when everyone else is doing their shopping] — see also GOLD RUSH
4 [count] : a sudden demand for something by many people ▪ There is always a rush for fans and air conditioners during the first heat wave.
5 [count] US : the process of finding new people to join a fraternity or sorority ▪ a fraternity rush
6 rushes [plural] : the first prints of scenes of a film or movie that have not been edited ▪ The director and the actors watched the rushes from the previous day's filming.
7 [count] : a strong feeling or emotion caused by a drug or by something exciting ▪ The roller-coaster ride gave me a rush. [=thrill] ▪ an adrenaline rush [=high] ▪ I felt a rush of relief after hearing the news.
– compare [3]RUSH

[3]rush noun, pl rushes [count] : a tall plant similar to grass that grows in wet areas and that is used to make baskets and other things when dried — compare [2]RUSH rush•er /ˈrʌʃə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone or something that rushes; especially, American football : a player who carries the ball during running plays ▪ He was the team's leading rusher last year.

rush hour noun, pl ~ hours [count, noncount] : a time during the day early in the morning or late in the afternoon when many people are traveling on roads to get to work or to get home from work ▪ We got caught in the morning rush hour. ▪ rush hour traffic

rusk /ˈrʌsk/ noun, pl rusks [count] chiefly Brit : a dry, hard cookie that is eaten especially by young children

rus•set /ˈrʌsət/ noun [noncount] : a reddish-brown color — see color picture on page C3

Rus•sian /ˈrʌʃən/ noun, pl -sians
1 [count] a : a person born, raised, or living in Russia b : a person whose family is from Russia
2 [noncount] : the language of the Russian people – Russian adj ▪ Russian food/literature

Russian dressing noun [noncount] US : a type of salad dressing that typically contains chili sauce, chopped pickles, or pimientos

Russian roulette noun [noncount] : a dangerous game in which people fire a gun with a single bullet at their heads without knowing if the bullet will be shot or not — often used figuratively ▪ He was playing Russian roulette with his life. [=he was doing something that was very foolish and dangerous and that could destroy or end his life]

[1]rust /ˈrʌst/ noun [noncount]
1 : a reddish substance that forms on iron or some other metal usually when it comes in contact with moisture or air ▪ an old pump covered in rust ▪ rust spots/patches
2 : a disease that causes plants to develop reddish-brown spots
3 : a reddish-brown color

[2]rust verb rusts; rust•ed; rust•ing
1 [no obj] : to form rust : to become rusty ▪ Your bicycle will rust if you leave it out in the rain. ▪ rusting nails ▪ The paint prevents rusting.
2 [+ obj] : to cause rust to form on (something) ▪ The moist air rusted the latch on the door. ▪ The old iron fence was rusted.

Rust•belt /ˈrʌstˌbɛlt/ noun
the Rustbelt : the northeastern and midwestern states of the U.S. in which many factories (such as steel mills) have closed because of changes in the economy ▪ Many people have moved from the Rustbelt to the Sunbelt.

[1]rus•tic /ˈrʌstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : of, relating to, or suitable for the country or people who live in the country ▪ The inn has a rustic atmosphere. ▪ a rustic village
2 : made of rough wood ▪ simple, rustic furniture
– rus•tic•i•ty /ˌrʌˈstɪsəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the rusticity of the inn

[2]rustic noun, pl -tics [count] : a person who lives in the country

[1]rus•tle /ˈrʌsəl/ verb rus•tles; rus•tled; rus•tling
1 a [no obj] : to make a soft, light sound because parts of something are touching or rubbing against each other ▪ The trees rustled in the wind. ▪ Her skirt rustled as she walked. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to make a soft, light sound ▪ He rustled the papers on his desk.
2 [+ obj] : to steal (animals) from a farm or ranch ▪ rustle sheep/cattle rustle up [phrasal verb] rustle (something) up or rustle up (something) informal 1 : to prepare (food, a meal, etc.) quickly ▪ He rustled up a full meal in no time. 2 : to find or get (something) ▪ I'll see if I can rustle up some information about that for you.
– rus•tler /ˈrʌsələ/ noun, pl rus•tlers [count] ▪ a cattle rustler – rustling noun [singular] He heard a rustling in the bushes. [noncount] They were accused of cattle rustling.

[2]rustle noun [singular] : a quick series of soft, light sounds caused when things (such as leaves or pieces of paper) rub against each other ▪ He heard a rustle of leaves behind him.

rust•proof /ˈrʌstˌpru:f/ adj : protected against rusting ▪ a rustproof pipe rusty /ˈrʌsti/ adj rust•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : covered with rust ▪ a rusty old car ▪ rusty nails
2 : not as good as usual or as in the past because you have not done or practiced something for a long time ▪ My tennis skills are a little rusty. ▪ The singers were a bit rusty after the long break.
3 : of the color of rust : reddish brown ▪ rusty hair – rust•i•ness /ˈrʌstinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]rut /ˈrʌt/ noun, pl ruts
1 [count] : a long, narrow mark made by the wheels of a vehicle passing over an area ▪ The truck left deep ruts in the muddy ground.
2 [singular] : a situation or way of behaving that does not change ▪ She was stuck in a rut at her old job, so she quit work and went back to school. ▪ It is easy to get into a rut if you're not careful.
– compare [2]RUT
– rut•ted /ˈrʌtəd/ adj ▪ a rutted dirt road – rut•ty /ˈrʌti/ adj ▪ a rutty track/road

[2]rut noun [noncount] : the time when male animals (such as deer) become sexually active ▪ Bucks will defend their territory during the rut. ▪ a stag in rut — compare [1]RUT
– rut•ting /ˈrʌtɪŋ/ adj ▪ a rutting elk/buck ▪ the rutting season ru•ta•ba•ga /ˌru:təˈbeɪgə/ noun, pl -gas [count, noncount] US : a large, yellowish root vegetable that is a type of turnip — called also (Brit) swede ruth•less /ˈru:θləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having no pity : cruel or merciless ▪ a ruthless killer ▪ The journalist was ruthless in his criticism.

– ruth•less•ly adv ▪ The slaves were ruthlessly abused by their owners. – ruth•less•ness noun [noncount]

RV /ˌɑəˈvi:/ noun, pl RVs [count] : RECREATIONAL VEHICLE

Rx /ˌɑəˈɛks/ noun, pl Rx's [count] US : a doctor's prescription ▪ an Rx for heartburn — often used figuratively ▪ an Rx for boredom [=a way to stop being bored] ✧ Rx comes from the Latin word "recipe," which means "take." It traditionally appears in places where medicines are sold and is often used on signs, in newspaper headlines, etc.

-ry noun suffix : -ERY ▪ wizard*ry* ▪ citizen*ry*

rye /ˈraɪ/ noun
1 [noncount] : a type of grass that is grown as a grain and used to make flour or whiskey
2 [count, noncount] US : bread that is made from rye flour ▪ a ham sandwich on rye — called also rye bread
3 [count, noncount] : whiskey that is made from rye ▪ a bottle of rye — called also rye whiskey

R

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

S

[1]S or S /ˈɛs/ noun, pl S's or S's : the 19th letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that starts with an s [noncount] a word that starts with s

[2]S or S abbr 1 small — usually used for a clothing size ▪ The shirt comes in S, M, L, or XL. 2 S south, southern

[1]-S noun plural suffix
1 — used to form the plural of most nouns ▪ heads ▪ books ▪ boys ▪ beliefs ▪ mothers-in-law ▪ the Taylors
2 — used with or without a preceding apostrophe to form the plural of abbreviations, numbers, letters, and symbols that are used as nouns ▪ MCs ▪ PhD's ▪ the 1940's ▪ men in their 50s — compare [1]-ES

[2]-S verb suffix — used to form the third person singular present tense of most verbs ▪ falls ▪ takes ▪ plays — compare [2]-ES

'S /s after p, t, k, f, or θ; əz after s, z, ʃ, ʒ, ʧ, or ʤ; z elsewhere/ verb — used as a contraction of is, was, has, and does ▪ She's here. [=she is here] ▪ When's [=when was] the last time you ate? ▪ He's [=he has] seen them already. ▪ What's he want? [=what does he want?]

-'S /s after p, t, k, f, or θ; əz after s, z, ʃ, ʒ, ʧ, or ʤ; z elsewhere/ noun suffix or pronoun suffix — used to form the possessive of singular nouns, of plural nouns not ending in s, of some pronouns, and of word groups that function as nouns or pronouns ▪ The boy's books were missing. ▪ I called the doctor's (office). ▪ children's clothes ▪ anyone's dog ▪ the man on the corner's hat ▪ someone else's car ✧ The possessive of a plural noun that ends in s is formed by adding an apostrophe alone instead of 's. ▪ The boys' books were missing. The possessive of singular nouns and names that end in s can usually be formed by adding 's. If adding 's would make the word difficult to say, an apostrophe alone may be used instead. ▪ James's mother ▪ Moses' mother

Sa. abbr Saturday

Sab•bath /ˈsæbəθ/ noun
the Sabbath : a weekly day of rest and worship that is observed on Sunday by most Christians and on Saturday (from Friday evening to Saturday evening) by Jews and some Christians ▪ Our family keeps/observes the Sabbath. [=obeys the rules about what should be done on the Sabbath] ▪ We are careful not to break the Sabbath.
– Sabbath adj, always used before a noun ▪ Sabbath day/dinner/observances sab•bat•i•cal /səˈbætɪkəl/ noun, pl -cals : a period of time during which someone does not work at his or her regular job and is able to rest, travel, do research, etc. [count] Several professors will be taking sabbaticals this year. ▪ She recently returned to work after a two-year sabbatical from her acting career. ▪ a paid sabbatical [noncount] Several professors will be on sabbatical this year.

– sabbatical adj, always used before a noun ▪ I chose to take sabbatical leave next year. ▪ a sabbatical year sa•ber (US) or Brit sa•bre /ˈseɪbə/ noun, pl -bers [count]

1 : a long, heavy sword with a curved blade
2 : a lightweight sword that is used in fencing

saber–rattling (US) or Brit sabre–rattling noun [noncount] : actions and statements that are meant to frighten or threaten an enemy by suggesting the possible use of force saber–toothed tiger (US) or Brit sabre–toothed tiger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] : a type of large cat that lived in very ancient times and had long, curved teeth — called also saber-toothed cat

sa•ble /ˈseɪbəl/ noun, pl sa•bles or sable
1 [count] : a small animal that lives in northern Asia and has soft, brown fur
2 [noncount] : the fur of the sable ▪ a brush/coat made of sable
– sable adj ▪ a sable brush/coat

[1]sab•o•tage /ˈsæbəˌtɑːʒ/ noun [noncount] : the act of destroying or damaging something deliberately so that it does not work correctly ▪ Angry workers were responsible for the sabotage of the machines. ▪ terrorists engaging in (deliberate) acts of sabotage ▪ Officials have not yet ruled out sabotage as a possible cause of the crash. ▪ industrial sabotage

[2]sabotage verb -tag•es; -taged; -tag•ing [+ obj]
1 : to destroy or damage (something) deliberately so that it does not work correctly ▪ They sabotaged the enemy's oil fields. ▪ The airplane crashed because it was sabotaged.
2 : to cause the failure of (something) deliberately ▪ The lawyer is trying to sabotage the case by creating confusion. ▪ The deal was sabotaged by an angry employee. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Bad weather sabotaged [=ruined] our plans.

sab•o•teur /ˌsæbəˈtə/ noun, pl -teurs [count] : a person who destroys or damages something deliberately : a person who performs sabotage ▪ The car's tires were slashed by saboteurs.

sac /ˈsæk/ noun, pl sacs [count] : a part inside the body of an animal or plant that is shaped like a bag and that usually contains liquid or air ▪ a food storage sac ▪ an air/egg sac

sac•cha•rin /ˈsækərən/ noun [noncount] : a very sweet, white substance that does not have any calories and that is used instead of sugar to sweeten food ▪ soft drinks flavored with saccharin

sac•cha•rine /ˈsækərən, Brit ˈsækəˌriːn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : too sweet or sentimental : sweet or sentimental in a way that does not seem sincere or genuine ▪ a saccharine smile ▪ a saccharine love story

sa•chet /sæˈʃeɪ, Brit ˈsæʃeɪ/ noun, pl -chets [count]
1 : a small bag that has a powder or a mixture of dried flowers and spices inside it and that is used to give a pleasant smell to clothes, sheets, etc.
2 Brit : a small, thin package : PACKET ▪ a sachet of shampoo/sugar

[1]sack /ˈsæk/ noun, pl sacks
1 [count] : a bag that is made of strong paper, cloth, or plastic ▪ a sack containing flour = a sack of flour ▪ sacks of cement ▪ a grocery sack — see also GUNNYSACK, RUCKSACK
2 [count] : the amount that is contained in a sack ▪ We peeled an entire sack [=sackful] of potatoes.
3 the sack chiefly US, informal : a person's bed ▪ He's still in the sack. Do you want me to wake him? ▪ It's time to hit the sack. [=go to bed] ▪ She has a reputation for being good/great in the sack. [=for being a good sexual partner] ▪ He's ready to jump/climb in the sack [=have sex] with any woman who'll have him.
4 the sack informal : a sudden dismissal from a job ▪ She got the sack [=she was fired] for always being late. ▪ The company gave him the sack [=fired him] for improper conduct.
5 [count] American football : the act of tackling the quarterback behind the line of scrimmage ▪ He was credited with three sacks in yesterday's game.
– compare [4]SACK; see also SAD SACK

[2]sack verb sacks; sacked; sack•ing [+ obj]
1 informal : to dismiss (someone) from a job ▪ They sacked [=fired] her for always being late.
2 American football : to tackle (the quarterback) behind the line of scrimmage ▪ The quarterback was sacked twice during the game.
3 US, informal : to put (something) in a sack ▪ Let me sack [=bag] those groceries for you.
sack out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to lie down for sleep ▪ I went upstairs to sack out. ▪ He sacked out on the living room couch. ✧ A person who is sacked out is sleeping. ▪ He was sacked out on the living room couch.
– compare [3]SACK

[3]sack verb sacks; sacked; sack•ing [+ obj] : to destroy and take things from (a place, such as a city or town) especially during a war ▪ The invading army sacked [=plundered, pillaged] the city. — compare [2]SACK

[4]sack noun [singular] : the act of destroying and taking things from a place (such as a city or town) especially during a war : the act of sacking a place — usually + of ▪ the sack of Rome — compare [1]SACK

sack•cloth /ˈsækˌklɑːθ/ noun [noncount] : rough cloth that is used for making sacks sackcloth and ashes ✧ To don/wear sackcloth and ashes means to publicly express or show sorrow or regret for having done something wrong. ▪ He should be forced to wear sackcloth and ashes and apologize for his lies.

sack•ful /ˈsækˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] : the amount that

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

is contained in a sack ▪ a sackful [=sack] of mail/potatoes sack race noun, pl ~ races [count] : a race in which people stand inside large sacks and move forward by jumping ▪ a children's sack race

sac•ra•ment /'sækrəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [count] : an important Christian ceremony (such as baptism or marriage)
2 the Sacrament : the bread and wine that are eaten and drunk during the Christian ceremony of Communion ▪ They stood in line to receive the Sacrament.
– sac•ra•men•tal /ˌsækrə'mɛntl/ adj ▪ sacramental wine sa•cred /'seɪkrəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : worthy of religious worship : very holy ▪ a sacred shrine ▪ The burial site is sacred ground. ▪ the sacred image of the Virgin Mary — often + to ▪ The shrine is sacred to millions of worshippers.
2 : relating to religion ▪ sacred scriptures/songs/texts
3 : highly valued and important : deserving great respect ▪ the sacred pursuit of liberty ▪ We have a sacred duty to find out the truth. ▪ Freedom is a sacred right. ▪ They'll make jokes about anything. Nothing is sacred to those guys. ▪ I can't believe they would do that. Is nothing sacred?
– sa•cred•ly adv ▪ sacredly held beliefs – sa•cred•ness noun [noncount] sacred cow noun, pl ~ cows [count] disapproving : someone or something that has been accepted or respected for a long time and that people are afraid or unwilling to criticize or question ▪ The old government program has become a sacred cow.

[1]sac•ri• ce /'sækrəˌfaɪs/ noun, pl - c•es
1 : the act of giving up something that you want to keep especially in order to get or do something else or to help someone [count] The war required everyone to make sacrifices. ▪ No sacrifice is too great when it comes to her children. ▪ He made many personal sacrifices to provide help to the city's homeless people. ▪ He made the final/supreme/ultimate sacrifice [=he died] for his country. [noncount] The war required much sacrifice from everyone. ▪ He provided help to the city's homeless people at great personal sacrifice (to himself).
2 a : an act of killing a person or animal in a religious ceremony as an offering to please a god [count] a place where priests performed human/animal sacrifices in ancient rituals [noncount] a place where people were offered (up) in sacrifice to the gods b [count] : a person or animal that is killed in a sacrifice ▪ The villagers hoped the gods would accept their sacrifice. ▪ The goat was offered as a sacrifice.
3 [count] baseball : SACRIFICE BUNT ▪ The runner went to second base on a sacrifice.

[2]sacri ce verb - ces ; - ced ; - c•ing
1 : to give up (something that you want to keep) especially in order to get or do something else or to help someone [+ obj] She's had to sacrifice a lot for her family. ▪ He sacrificed his personal life in order to get ahead in his career. ▪ I want to follow a diet that is healthful without sacrificing taste. ▪ She was able to ask for their help without sacrificing her dignity. ▪ They sacrificed their lives [=they died] for their country. [no obj] She was willing to suffer, sacrifice, and work for success.
2 [+ obj] : to kill (a person or animal) in a religious ceremony as an offering to please a god ▪ a place where people/animals were sacrificed in ancient rituals
3 baseball a [no obj] : to make a sacrifice bunt ▪ He sacrificed in his first at bat. b [+ obj] : to cause (a base runner) to go to the next base by making a sacrifice bunt — usually used as (be) sacrificed ▪ The runner was sacrificed to second base.

sacri ce bunt noun, pl ~ bunts [count] baseball : a bunt that allows a runner to go to the next base while the batter is put out — called also sacrifice, sacrifice hit sacri ce y noun, pl ~ ies [count] baseball : a fly ball that is caught by a fielder but allows a base runner to score after it is caught sac•ri• •cial /ˌsækrə'fɪʃəl/ adj : of, relating to, or involving sacrifice ▪ sacrificial rites/rituals/offerings ▪ a sacrificial altar ▪ their sacrificial acts of self-denial – sac•ri• •cial•ly adv ▪ a sacrificially slaughtered animal sac•ri•lege /'sækrəlɪʤ/ noun : an act of treating a holy place or object in a way that does not show proper respect [singular] They accused him of committing a sacrilege. [noncount] They accused him of sacrilege. ▪ an act of sacrilege against the church — often used figuratively ▪ It would be (a) sacrilege to cut down such beautiful trees.

– sac•ri•le•gious /ˌsækrə'lɪʤəs/ adj ▪ a sacrilegious act sac•ro•sanct /'sækroʊˌsæŋkt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : too important and respected to be changed, criticized, etc. ▪ the government's most sacrosanct institutions ▪ The tradition is regarded as sacrosanct.

sad /'sæd/ adj sad•der; -dest [also more ~; most ~]
1 : not happy : feeling or showing grief or unhappiness ▪ He's feeling sad because his pet died. ▪ People were sad that he was leaving. ▪ The experience left her sadder but wiser. ▪ big sad eyes
2 : causing a feeling of grief or unhappiness ▪ Have you heard the sad news about his wife's illness? ▪ It'll be a sad day when you leave us. ▪ a sad love song ▪ a sad poem ▪ a movie with a sad ending ▪ He lived a sad life.
3 : causing feelings of disappointment or pity ▪ The sad fact/truth of the matter is that they are right. ▪ I live a pretty sad [=pathetic] life. I never go out on the weekend. ▪ The government is in sad [=bad] shape. ▪ The new version is a sad imitation of the original movie. ▪ He's a sad excuse for a father. [=he's not a good father] ▪ a sad-looking birthday cake ▪ We needed more money but, sad to say, there wasn't any. ▪ Sad but true, we couldn't afford to go away for even a weekend at the beach. — see also SAD SACK – sad•ness noun [noncount] His leaving caused much sadness. [singular] I felt a deep sadness upon hearing the news.

sad•den /'sædn/ verb -dens; -dened; -den•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be sad ▪ It saddens me that we could not agree. ▪ We were saddened to see how ill she looks. ▪ She was saddened over/by the death of her friend.
2 [no obj] : to become sad : to show sadness ▪ Her face/eyes saddened when she heard the news.
– saddening adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Her death is a saddening loss.

[1]sad•dle /'sædl/ noun, pl sad•dles [count]
1 : a leather-covered seat that is put on the back of a horse — see picture at HORSE
2 : a seat on a bicycle or motorcycle — see picture at BICYCLE a burr in/under the saddle see BURR in the saddle 1 : riding on a horse ▪ a cowboy in the saddle
2 : in control : in a position to decide what happens ▪ After a few setbacks, he's back in the saddle again.

[2]saddle verb saddles; sad•dled; sad•dling [+ obj] : to put a saddle on (a horse) ▪ He saddled his horse and mounted it. — often + up ▪ He saddled up his horse.
saddle up [phrasal verb] : to get on a horse ▪ He saddled up and rode away.
saddle with [phrasal verb] saddle (someone or something) with (something) : to cause (someone or something) to have (a problem, burden, responsibility, etc.) ▪ His actions have saddled the company with too much debt. ▪ My boss saddled me with the task of organizing the conference. — often used as (be) saddled with ▪ The company is saddled with an enormous amount of debt. ▪ She is saddled [=burdened] with a reputation for not being dependable.

sad•dle•bag /'sædlˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] : one of a pair of bags that are laid across the back of a horse behind the saddle or that hang over the rear wheel of a bicycle or motorcycle saddle horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] US : a horse that is used for riding sad•dler /'sædlɚ/ noun, pl -dlers [count] : a person who makes, repairs, or sells saddles and other equipment for horses sad•dlery /'sædlərɪ/ noun, pl -dler•ies

1 [noncount] : the work of making, repairing, or selling saddles and other equipment for horses
2 [noncount] : saddles and other equipment for horses
3 [count] : a place where saddles and other equipment for horses is sold or stored saddle shoe noun, pl ~ shoes [count] US : a shoe that has one color on the toe and heel and a different color on the middle part saddle sore noun, pl ~ sores [count]

1 : a sore on the back of a horse caused by a saddle that is not fitted correctly
2 : a sore area on a horse rider's body that is caused by rubbing against the saddle sa•dism /'seɪˌdɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : enjoyment that someone gets from being violent or cruel or from causing

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s pain; especially : sexual enjoyment from hurting or punishing someone ▪ sexual sadism — compare MASOCHISM

– sa•dist /'seɪdɪst/ noun, pl -dists [count] ▪ sexual sadists – sa•dis•tic /sə'dɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ sadistic behavior ▪ a sadistic criminal – sa•dis•ti•cal•ly /sə'dɪstɪkli/ adv

sad•ly /'sædli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a way that shows sadness or unhappiness ▪ She shook her head sadly.
2 : in a way that causes feeling of sadness, disappointment, regret, etc. ▪ A cohesive plot was sadly lacking from the novel. ▪ Her work had been sadly neglected. — sometimes used for emphasis ▪ If you think she'll forgive you, you are sadly mistaken.
3 : UNFORTUNATELY — used to say that something is disappointing, sad, etc. ▪ I tried to help but, sadly, nothing could be done. ▪ Sadly, her negative attitude began to spread to other people.

sa•do•mas•och•ism /ˌseɪdoʊ'mæsəˌkɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : sexual behavior that involves getting pleasure from causing or feeling pain
– sa•do•mas•och•ist /ˌseɪdoʊ'mæsəkɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – sa•do•mas•och•is•tic /ˌseɪdoʊˌmæsə'kɪstɪk/ adj ▪ sadomasochistic sexual practices sad sack noun, pl ~ sacks [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a person who is not successful or able to do things well : an inept person who causes feelings of pity or disgust in other people ▪ The team is just a bunch of sad sacks. [=losers]

– sad–sack adj, always used before a noun ▪ a sad-sack team ▪ a sad-sack performance

SAE abbr 1 self-addressed envelope 2 stamped addressed envelope sa•fa•ri /sə'fɑri/ noun, pl -ris : a journey to see or hunt animals especially in Africa [count] He went on a safari in Africa last year. [noncount] a group of hunters on safari safari jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a type of lightweight jacket that usually has a belt and four large pockets safari park noun, pl ~ parks [count] chiefly Brit : a park in which wild animals move around freely and are watched by people from their vehicles

[1]safe /seɪf/ adj saf•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 not used before a noun a : not able or likely to be hurt or harmed in any way : not in danger ▪ I don't feel safe in this neighborhood. ▪ The kids were safe in the cabin. ▪ We need to make sure that the children are safe and sound. b : not able or likely to be lost, taken away, or given away ▪ "Is the money safe?" "Yes, it's in the bank." ▪ Be sure to keep your wallet safe. [=keep it in a place where it can't be stolen] ▪ The election is next week, and the polls show that her lead is safe. [=her lead is large; she will not lose her lead] ▪ Don't worry. Your secret is safe with me. [=I will not tell anyone else your secret]
2 a : not involving or likely to involve danger, harm, or loss ▪ a world made safe from war ▪ Is it safe to walk here? ▪ He wished us a safe trip. ▪ We are all hoping for their safe return. [=hoping that they will return without being harmed] b : providing protection from danger, harm, or loss ▪ I found a safe place to take shelter from the storm. ▪ They live in a perfectly/relatively safe neighborhood. ▪ a safe harbor ▪ We watched the fireworks from a safe distance. ▪ You should keep your money in a safe [=secure] place. ▪ Bigger cars tend to be safer than smaller ones. ▪ the safest way to travel ▪ The shelter provides a safe haven for the homeless.
3 : not causing harm : not dangerous ▪ safe medicine ▪ a safe vaccine ▪ safe drinking water ▪ The book describes which mushrooms are safe to eat and which are not.
4 a : not likely to cause a bad result : not risky ▪ a safe investment/bet b : not likely to take risks : cautious or careful ▪ She's a very safe driver. ▪ It's probably not necessary to check the figures again, but (it's) better (to be) safe than sorry. [=it is better to be careful now so that problems do not occur later on] ▪ To be on the safe side, I checked the figures again. = To be safe, I checked the figures again. ▪ I decided to play it safe [=to be careful and avoid risk or danger] and leave early so that I would be sure to arrive on time.
5 : not likely to cause disagreement or argument ▪ That's a safe assumption. ▪ It's safe to assume that she isn't married. ▪ Politics is not a safe subject around him. He's always angry about something. ▪ I think it's safe to say that he won't be causing any further problems. ▪ She is a safe bet to win the tournament. [=she will probably win the tournament]
6 baseball : successful at getting to a base without being put out ▪ The runner was safe on a close play at first base.
in safe hands see [1]HAND
– safe•ly adv ▪ We arrived home safely. [=without experiencing any problems, accidents, etc.] ▪ Be sure to drive safely. ▪ I can safely say that he won't be causing any further problems.

[2]safe adv, chiefly US, informal : in a safe way ▪ Be sure to drive safe. [=safely]

[3]safe noun, pl safes [count] : a strong metal box with a lock that is used to store money or valuable things safe–con•duct /'seɪf'kɑːndəkt/ noun, pl -ducts : protection from the government, police, etc., that is given to a person who is passing through an area that might be dangerous [noncount] They were given safe-conduct through the city. [count] The rebels' leader was granted a safe-conduct to talk with the president.

safe•crack•er /'seɪfˌkrækɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who steals things by opening safes ▪ The bank was robbed by a professional safecracker.

safe–deposit box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a strong metal box in a bank that has a lock and that is used to store money or other valuable things — called also safety-deposit box

[1]safe•guard /'seɪfˌgɑɚd/ noun, pl -guards [count] formal : something that provides protection against possible loss, damage, etc. ▪ The new law has safeguards to protect the rights of citizens. ▪ There are many safeguards built into the system to prevent fraud. ▪ Practicing good nutrition can be an important safeguard [=defense] against cancer.

[2]safeguard verb -guards; -guard•ed; -guard•ing formal : to make (someone or something) safe or secure : PROTECT [+ obj] laws that safeguard the rights of citizens ▪ You need to safeguard your computer against viruses. [no obj] There are steps you can take to safeguard against identity theft.

safe house noun, pl ~ houses [count] : a place where a person hides from the police, stays to be protected by the police, or is involved in secret activities safe•keep•ing /'seɪf'kiːpɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the act of keeping something safe ▪ I gave her my jewelry for safekeeping while I was away. [=I gave her my jewelry so that she could keep it safe while I was away]
2 : the state of being kept safe ▪ His will is in safekeeping with his lawyer.

safe seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] Brit : a seat in Parliament that is very unlikely to be lost to the opposition in an election safe sex noun [noncount] : sexual activity in which people protect themselves from diseases (such as AIDS) by using condoms or by other methods ▪ a book advising young people to practice safe sex safe•ty /'seɪfti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : freedom from harm or danger : the state of being safe ▪ The changes were made in the interest of public safety. ▪ He made some suggestions about how to improve airline safety. ▪ bike/traffic safety ▪ I'm worried about the safety of the people who were left behind. ▪ He sought safety in a church. [=he went into a church to be safe] ▪ She fears for her own safety. [=she is afraid because she thinks she is in danger] ▪ We were reluctant to leave the relative safety of our hotel. ▪ She was only a mile from the safety of her home when the accident occurred. ▪ The climbers were roped together for safety. = The climbers were roped together for safety's sake. ▪ There is safety in numbers. [=you are safer in a group of people than you are when you are alone] ▪ "Safety first" [=the most important thing is to be safe]—that's what I always say. — often used before another noun ▪ safety experts/hazards/precautions ▪ a safety violation ▪ a safety harness/catch ▪ safety devices/features ▪ safety glasses/goggles
2 [noncount] : the state of not being dangerous or harmful ▪ The car has been redesigned for improved/added/increased safety. ▪ The toys are inspected for safety.
3 [noncount] : a place that is free from harm or danger : a safe place ▪ They were led/pulled/dragged to safety by the rescuers. ▪ The injured hiker was finally able to reach safety.
4 [count] US : a device that prevents a gun from being fired accidentally — called also safety catch
5 [count] American football a : a defensive player whose position is far back from the line of scrimmage b : a score of two points for the defensive team when an offensive player who has the ball is tackled behind his own team's goal line safety belt noun, pl ~ belts [count]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

1 : a belt that is used to prevent someone from falling or getting injured by holding that person in place
2 : SEAT BELT

safety–deposit box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : SAFE-DEPOSIT BOX safety glass noun [noncount] : a type of strong glass that breaks into tiny pieces that are not sharp when it is hit hard safety net noun, pl ~ nets [count]

1 : a net that is placed below acrobats to catch them if they fall
2 : something that helps someone who is in a difficult situation ▪ a financial safety net ▪ The program provides a safety net for people who have lost their jobs.

safety pin noun, pl ~ pins [count] : a metal pin that is used for attaching things and that has a point at one end and a cover at the other into which the pointed end fits safety pin

safety razor noun, pl ~ -zors [count] : a razor with a cover for part of the blade to prevent deep cuts in the skin safety valve noun, pl ~ valves [count]

1 : a part in a machine that opens automatically to release steam, water, gas, etc., when pressure becomes too great 2 : something that allows someone to release mental stress and tension in a harmless way ▪ His hobbies act as a safety valve, relieving some of the pressure he feels from his job.

saf·fron /ˈsæˌfrɑːn, Brit ˈsæfrən/ noun [noncount]
1 : an orange powder that is made from a type of flower (called a crocus) and that is used to color and flavor food
2 : an orange to orange-yellow color — see color picture on page C3

sag /ˈsæg/ verb sags; sagged; sag·ging [no obj]
1 : to bend or hang down in the middle especially because of weight or weakness ▪ The roof is sagging in the middle. ▪ Her cheeks sagged [=drooped] with age. ▪ The shelf sagged [=bowed] under the weight of so many books. ▪ a sagging mattress
2 : to become weaker or fewer ▪ The economy began to sag. ▪ As all our efforts failed, our spirits sagged. ▪ the company's sagging sales – sag noun, pl sags [count] ▪ a sag in sales sa·ga /ˈsɑːgə/ noun, pl -gas [count]

1 : a long and complicated story with many details ▪ the saga of a shipwrecked crew ▪ Her first novel was a family saga set in Iowa.
2 : a long and complicated series of events ▪ Getting our car back turned into quite a saga.
3 : a long story about past heroes from Norway and Iceland sa·ga·cious /səˈgeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing an ability to understand difficult ideas and situations and to make good decisions : WISE ▪ a sagacious old man ▪ sagacious advice/counsel

– sa·ga·cious·ly adv – sa·gac·i·ty /səˈgæsəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ The old man was respected for his sagacity. [=wisdom]

[1]sage /ˈseɪʤ/ noun, pl sag·es [count] formal : a person who is very wise — compare [3]SAGE

[2]sage adj, always used before a noun sag·er; sag·est [also more ~; most ~] formal : very wise ▪ sage advice – sage·ly adv ▪ He sagely suggested that she wait a few days.

[3]sage noun [noncount]
1 : an herb that has grayish-green leaves which are used in cooking
2 : a light grayish-green color — see color picture on page C6
– compare [1]SAGE

sage·brush /ˈseɪʤˌbrʌʃ/ noun [noncount] : a small plant that has leaves with a strong smell and that grows in dry areas of the western U.S.

sag·gy /ˈsægi/ adj sag·gi·er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : bending or hanging down too much : not firm ▪ a saggy mattress

Sag·it·tar·i·us /ˌsæʤəˈteriəs/ noun, pl -us·es
1 [noncount] : the ninth sign of the zodiac : the sign that comes between Scorpio and Capricorn and that has a centaur shooting a bow and arrow as its symbol 2 [count] : a person born under the sign Sagittarius : a person born between November 22 and December 21 ▪ Are you a Sagittarius or a Capricorn?

sa·go /ˈseɪgoʊ/ noun, pl -gos [count] : a substance that is made from a type of palm tree and used especially in cooking

[1]said past tense and past participle of [1]SAY

[2]said /ˈsɛd/ adj, always used before a noun, formal + law : mentioned or referred to before ▪ The following is a description of how said property [=the property mentioned before] is divided. ▪ by order of the judge of said court

[1]sail /ˈseɪl/ verb sails; sailed; sail·ing
1 a : to travel on water in a ship or boat [no obj] sail across/on/over the sea/ocean ▪ We'll sail along/up/down the coast. ▪ He sailed around the world on a luxury liner. [+ obj] She sailed the Atlantic coastline. b : to control a ship or boat (especially one that has sails) while traveling on water [+ obj] She's sailing a boat in tomorrow's race. ▪ The ship was sailed by a crew of 8. [no obj] I've been sailing since I was a child. ▪ learning to sail c of a ship or boat : to travel on water [+ obj] a ship that has sailed the seven seas [no obj] We sat on the shore watching boats sail by.
2 [no obj] : to begin a journey on water in a ship or boat ▪ We sail at 9 a.m. tomorrow. ▪ They sail for/to San Francisco next week. ▪ The ship will be ready to sail in a week.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move or proceed in an easy, quick, and smooth way ▪ He sailed into the room. [=he walked quickly into the room in a very confident and easy way] ▪ The ball sailed [=flew] over the shortstop's head. ▪ The bill sailed through the legislature. [=the bill passed through the legislature very easily; the bill quickly became a law] ▪ She sailed through the exam/course. [=she easily passed the exam/course] sail close to the wind Brit : to do something that is dangerous or that may be illegal or dishonest ▪ The company was sailing close to the wind, but it's not clear if they were breaking the law or not.

[2]sail noun, pl sails
1 [count] : a large piece of strong cloth that is connected to a ship or boat and that is used to catch the wind that moves the ship or boat through the water ▪ Wind filled the sails and our journey had begun. ▪ raising and lowering the ship's sails — see picture at BOAT
2 [singular] : a trip in a ship or boat ▪ a sail to San Francisco in full sail also at full sail of a ship or boat : moving through the water by using all of its sails ▪ a yacht in full sail set sail : to begin a journey on water in a ship or boat ▪ They set sail for/from San Francisco tomorrow.
take the wind out of someone's sails see [1]WIND under sail of a ship or boat : moving through the water by using sails ▪ a ship under sail sail·board /ˈseɪlˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a flat board that has a sail and that you stand on to ride over the surface of water : a board that is used for windsurfing — see picture at BOAT – sail·board·er /ˈseɪlˌboəʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ We watched the sailboarders [=windsurfers] from the shore.

– sail·board·ing /ˈseɪlˌboəʤɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He likes sailboarding. [=windsurfing] sail·boat /ˈseɪlˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] US : a boat that has a sail — called also (Brit) sailing boat; see picture at BOAT sail·ing /ˈseɪlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the sport or activity of traveling on water in a sailboat ▪ She likes sailing. ▪ They're going sailing next week.

clear sailing (US) or chiefly US smooth sailing or chiefly Brit plain sailing : easy progress : progress that is not blocked by anything ▪ Now that the permit has been approved, we expect to have clear sailing from here on. [=we expect that we will not have any problems from here on] ▪ Her time at college wasn't all smooth sailing. [=she had some problems/difficulties during her time at college] sailing ship noun, pl ~ ships [count] : a ship that has sails sail·or /ˈseɪlə/ noun, pl -ors [count]

1 : a person who works on a boat or ship as part of the crew ▪ He worked as a sailor on a cargo ship.
2 : someone who controls a boat or ship that has sails ▪ She's a skillful sailor.

sailor suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] : a suit especially for a child that looks like an old-fashioned sailor's uniform

saint /ˈseɪnt/ noun, pl saints [count]
1 : a person who is officially recognized by the Christian church as being very holy because of the way he or she lived ▪ He was declared a saint in the fifth century. — used as a title before a saint's name ▪ Saint Anne — abbr. St.; see also PATRON SAINT 2 : a person who is very good, kind, or patient ▪ The salesperson was a saint for putting up with them. ▪ a teacher with the patience of a saint [=a very patient teacher]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

– saint•hood /ˈseɪntˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ The Pope elevated four people to sainthood. [=he made four people saints] ▪ She recently entered the sainthood. [=she recently became a saint]

Saint Ber•nard /ˈseɪntbəˈnɑəd/ noun, pl ∼ -nards [count] : a very large, strong dog that was used in the past to find and help lost travelers

saint•ed /ˈseɪntəd/ adj
1 old-fashioned : unusually good, kind, or patient ▪ my sainted old grandmother
2 : admired by many people ▪ They believed whatever they were told by their sainted leader.

saint•ly /ˈseɪntli/ adj saint•li•er; -est [also more ∼; most ∼] : like a saint : very good and kind ▪ a saintly old man ▪ a saintly smile [=a smile that is like the smile of a saint]
– saint•li•ness noun [noncount]

Saint Pat•rick's Day /ˌseɪntˈpætrɪks-/ noun [noncount] : March 17 celebrated in honor of Saint Patrick saint's day noun [singular] : a day of the year on which a particular saint is remembered

Saint Valentine's Day noun [noncount] : VALENTINE'S DAY

[1]sake /ˈseɪk/ noun, pl sakes [count]
1 : the benefit of someone or something — used in phrases with for to say that something is done to help a particular person or thing ▪ Please do it for her sake. [=do it for her; do it to help her] ▪ They sacrificed their lives for all our sakes. [=to help all of us] ▪ We must do it for the sake of our country. — used in phrases with for to say that something is done for a particular purpose or to achieve a particular goal or result ▪ For simplicity's sake [=to make this discussion simpler], we'll consider these two options as basically the same. ▪ Let's assume, for argument's sake, that it was a mistake. = Let's assume, for the sake of argument, that it was a mistake. [=let's say for now that it was a mistake so that we can see how that will affect our discussion] ▪ For the sake of clarity [=in order to be clear], I've listed each item separately. ▪ They'll do anything for the sake of (making a) profit. ▪ scholars who pursue knowledge for its own sake [=because they want to learn] ▪ I don't paint for money. My motto is "Art for art's sake." [=I believe in making art for no other reason than that art is important]
2 informal — used in phrases with for to express anger, annoyance, surprise, etc. ▪ For heaven's/Pete's sake, could you hurry up? ▪ Stop asking me questions, for God's sake! ▪ For pity's/God's/Christ's sake, what's taking so long? ▪ "You won!" "Oh, for goodness'/heaven's/Pete's sake. I can't believe it!" ✧ The use of God and Christ in these phrases is offensive to some people.
for old times' sake ✧ If you do something for old times' sake, you do it because you did it in the past and you want to experience it again. ▪ He and his old friends from college went back to the bar for old times' sake.
for the sake of it : for no particular reason ▪ We drove around town just for the sake of it.
– compare [2]SAKE

[2]sa•ke or sa•ki /ˈsɑːki/ noun, pl -kes or -kis [count, noncount] : a Japanese alcoholic drink that is made from rice — compare [1]SAKE sal•able or sale•able /ˈseɪləbəl/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : capable of being sold : good enough to be sold ▪ We'll have to repaint the house for it to be salable. ▪ a salable commodity/product – sal•abil•i•ty /ˌseɪləˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] sa•la•cious /səˈleɪʃəs/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] formal + disapproving : relating to sex in a way that is excessive or offensive ▪ a song with salacious lyrics ▪ salacious pictures/messages – sa•la•cious•ly adv – sa•la•cious•ness noun

sal•ad /ˈsæləd/ noun, pl -ads
1 : a mixture of raw green vegetables (such as different types of lettuce) usually combined with other raw vegetables [count] For dinner we had roast chicken and a salad. ▪ a salad of fresh/local greens ▪ a spinach salad ▪ I tossed the salad with some oil and vinegar and set it on the table. [noncount] a bowl of salad ▪ Would you like soup or salad with your sandwich? ▪ salad greens [=vegetables that are grown for their leaves and commonly used in salads]
2 [count, noncount] : a mixture of small pieces of raw or cooked food (such as pasta, meat, fruit, eggs, or vegetables) combined usually with a dressing and served cold ▪ a delicious pasta/potato/fruit salad ▪ chicken/tuna salad

salad bar noun, pl ∼ bars [count] : a place in a restaurant where there is a selection of ingredients that customers can use to make their own salads salad cream noun [noncount] Brit : a thick liquid that is eaten on salads, sandwiches, etc.

salad days noun [plural] somewhat old-fashioned
1 : the period of life when someone is young and does not have much experience ▪ during her salad days as a young reporter in New York city
2 : an early period of success ▪ in his salad days as an actor, when he made one hit movie after another salad dressing noun, pl ∼ -ings [count, noncount] : DRESSING 1 sal•a•man•der /ˈsæləˌmændə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a small animal that looks like a lizard with smooth skin and that lives both on land and in water salamander

sa•la•mi /səˈlɑːmi/ noun, pl -mis [count, noncount] : a large, spicy, and dry sausage that is usually eaten cold

sal•a•ried /ˈsælərid/ adj
1 of a person : receiving a salary ▪ salaried employees
2 of a job : giving payment in the form of a salary ▪ a salaried position sal•a•ry /ˈsæləri/ noun, pl -ries : an amount of money that an employee is paid each year ✧ A salary is divided into equal amounts that are paid to a person usually once every two weeks or once every month. [count] She was offered a salary of $50,000 a year. [noncount] Employees receive an annual increase in salary. — compare [1]WAGE sale /ˈseɪl/ noun, pl sales

1 a [count] : the act of selling something : the exchange of goods, services, or property for money ▪ They profited from the sale of the house. ▪ the company's online/Internet sales ▪ Salespeople are paid a commission whenever they make a sale. [=sell something] b *sales [plural] : the total amount of money that a business receives from selling goods or services ▪ Sales are up by $6,000 this month. ▪ the company's annual sales ▪ The company made over one million dollars in sales this quarter. ▪ an increase/decrease in sales ▪ disappointing sales figures [=numbers that show how much money was made from sales]
2 [count] : an event or occasion during which a business sells goods or services at prices that are lower than usual ▪ The store is having/holding a spring sale. ▪ Everything in the store will be 15 percent off during the sale. ▪ There is a sale on flights between New York and Paris. ▪ (Brit) I bought these shoes in the sales. [=at a time when many stores have a sale] — see also CLEARANCE SALE
3 sales [plural] : the business or activity of selling goods or services ▪ He has a job in sales. ▪ The department is in charge of sales and marketing. — often used before another noun ▪ the sales department/manager ▪ a new sales campaign
4 [count] : a public event at which things are sold ▪ They're having/holding a sale of fine antiques next week. — see also GARAGE SALE, RUMMAGE SALE, TAG SALE, YARD SALE for sale : available to be bought ▪ That painting is not for sale. ▪ The restaurant is (up) for sale. ▪ houses for sale on sale 1 : available to be bought ▪ These shoes are on sale at most department stores. ▪ Tickets go on sale [=become available to be bought] next week. 2 chiefly US : selling at a price that is lower than usual ▪ I bought a shirt on sale for $5. ▪ All computers will go on sale [=will be sold for a reduced price] later this month.
on sale or return Brit, business : with the agreement that products which are not sold will be taken back without having to be paid for ▪ The bookstore operates on sale or return. [=books in the store can be returned to the book supplier if the store does not sell them]

saleable variant spelling of SALABLE

sale•room /ˈseɪlˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] Brit : SALESROOM 2

sales•clerk /ˈseɪlzˌklək, Brit ˈseɪlzˌklɑːk/ noun, pl -clerks [count] US : a person whose job is to sell things in a store sales•girl /ˈseɪlzˌgəl/ noun, pl -girls [count] old-fashioned +

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sometimes offensive : a woman (especially a young woman) whose job is to sell things ▪ a salesgirl in a department store sales•man /ˈseɪlzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) whose job is to sell things ▪ a car salesman ▪ He was the company's best salesman last year.

sales•man•ship /ˈseɪlzmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the skill of persuading people to buy things or to accept or agree to something ▪ good/poor salesmanship ▪ political salesmanship sales•per•son /ˈseɪlzˌpɚsn̩/ noun, pl sales•peo•ple /ˈseɪlzˌpiːpəl/ also sales•per•sons [count] : a person whose job is to sell things ▪ The company is hiring new salespeople.

sales pitch noun, pl ~ pitches [count] : a speech that you give in order to persuade someone to buy something ▪ He's good at getting customers to listen to his sales pitch. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ It's not clear if voters liked the governor's sales pitch enough to reelect her.

sales•room /ˈseɪlzˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] US
1 : a place where things that are for sale are displayed ▪ a car salesroom [=(more commonly) showroom]
2 : a room in which things are sold at an auction — called also (Brit) saleroom sales slip noun, pl ~ slips [count] US : a piece of paper on which a list of the things that you have bought is printed with the price for each item : RECEIPT sales tax noun, pl ~ taxes [count, noncount] : a tax that is added to the price of goods and services sales•wom•an /ˈseɪlzˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman whose job is to sell things ▪ a retail saleswoman

sa•lient /ˈseɪljənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very important or noticeable ▪ the salient facts ▪ a salient characteristic/feature – salience noun [noncount]

[1]sa•line /ˈseɪˌliːn, Brit ˈseɪˌlaɪn/ adj, technical : containing salt ▪ a saline solution ▪ a saline lake
– sa•lin•i•ty /seɪˈlɪnəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ testing the salinity of the water

[2]saline noun [noncount] technical : a mixture of salt and water sa•li•va /səˈlaɪvə/ noun [noncount] : the liquid produced in your mouth that keeps your mouth moist and makes it easier to swallow food – sal•i•vary /ˈsælə̱ˌveri/ adj, technical ▪ a salivary enzyme salivary gland noun, pl ~ glands [count] medical : a small organ that produces saliva in your mouth sal•i•vate /ˈsælə̱ˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [no obj]

1 : to have a lot of saliva produced in your mouth because you see or smell food that you want to eat ▪ The smell alone was enough to make me salivate.
2 : to have great interest in or desire for something ▪ She was salivating at the prospect of traveling to Europe. ▪ He salivated [=(informally) drooled] over his neighbor's new car.
– sal•i•va•tion /ˌsælə̱ˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount] sal•low /ˈsæloʊ/ adj : slightly yellow in a way that does not look healthy ▪ a sallow complexion/face ▪ The child looked sallow.

– sal•low•ness noun [noncount]

[1]sal•ly /ˈsæli/ noun, pl -lies [count] formal
1 : a clever and funny remark ▪ a witty sally [=quip]
2 : a sudden attack in which a group of soldiers rush forward against an enemy

[2]sally verb -lies; -lied; -ly•ing
sally forth also sally out [phrasal verb] literary : to leave a place ▪ After having breakfast and packing our bags, we sallied forth on the next leg of our trip.

salm•on /ˈsæmən/ noun, pl salmon
1 [count, noncount] : a large fish that is born in streams but that lives most of its life in the ocean and that is commonly used for food — see color picture on page C8
2 [noncount] : SALMON PINK — see color picture on page C3 sal•mo•nel•la /ˌsælməˈnɛlə/ noun [noncount] : a kind of bacteria that is sometimes in food and that makes people sick salmon pink noun [noncount] : an orange-pink color — see color picture on page C3

sa•lon /səˈlɑːn, Brit ˈsæˌlɒn/ noun, pl -lons [count]
1 : a business that gives customers beauty treatments (such as haircuts) ▪ a hair/tanning/nail salon — see also BEAUTY SALON
2 old-fashioned : a large room in a fashionable house that is used for entertaining guests
3 : a regular meeting of writers, artists, etc., at someone's home ✧ Salons were common in the 18th and 19th centuries. ▪ a literary salon

sa•loon /səˈluːn/ noun, pl -loons [count]
1 : a place where alcoholic drinks are served; especially : such a place in the western U.S. during the 19th century
2 : a large, comfortable room on a ship where passengers can talk, relax, etc.
3 Brit : SEDAN — called also (Brit) saloon car
4 Brit : a comfortable room in a pub sal•sa /ˈsɑːlsə/ noun, pl -sas

1 : a spicy sauce made with tomatoes, onions, and hot peppers that is commonly served with Mexican food [noncount] a jar of salsa ▪ chips and salsa [count] a delicious salsa
2 [count, noncount] a : a type of popular Latin-American music ▪ The band was playing salsa. ▪ a salsa band b : dancing that is done to salsa music ▪ We're taking classes in salsa.

[1]salt /ˈsɑːlt/ noun, pl salts
1 [noncount] : a natural white substance that is used especially to flavor or preserve food ▪ The soup needs a little more salt. ▪ Season the meat with salt and pepper. ▪ Add a pinch of salt. [=a small amount of salt] — see also SEA SALT, TABLE SALT
2 [count] technical : a chemical compound formed when part of an acid is replaced by a metal or something like a metal ▪ mineral/potassium salts
rub salt in/into someone's wounds see [1]RUB take (something) with a grain/pinch of salt informal : to not completely believe (something) : to be doubtful about the truth or accuracy of (something) ▪ He seems confident, but you should take what he says with a grain of salt.
the salt of the earth : a very good and honest person or group of people ▪ These folks are the salt of the earth.
worth your salt : worthy of ordinary respect — used to say what should be expected from someone who does a job properly, from something that is as good as it should be, etc. ▪ A detective writer worth his salt [=a good detective writer] keeps his readers from solving the mystery. ▪ Any doctor worth her salt [=any good/capable doctor] would have advised you to get a second opinion before having major surgery.
– see also EPSOM SALT, SMELLING SALTS

[2]salt verb salts; salt•ed; salt•ing [+ obj]
1 : to flavor or preserve (food) with salt ▪ He salted his potatoes. ▪ The meat was preserved by being salted and smoked.
2 : to put salt on (a surface) especially in order to melt ice ▪ The city salted the roads after the snowstorm.
salt away [phrasal verb] salt (something) away or salt away (something) informal 1 : to put (money) in a safe place especially secretly or dishonestly ▪ He salted millions away in a foreign bank account. 2 US : to make your victory in (a game, contest, etc.) certain ▪ They salted away the game by scoring 21 points in the last quarter.
salt with [phrasal verb] salt (something) with (something) : to put something in many places in (a story, speech, etc.) ▪ She salted her speech with many religious references. ▪ The book is salted with witty anecdotes. [=the book has many witty anecdotes throughout it]

[3]salt adj, always used before a noun
1 : containing salt ▪ salt water
2 : preserved or seasoned with salt ▪ salt [=salted] pork salt–and–pepper adj : having many small spots of black and white ▪ He has a salt-and-pepper beard. ▪ His hair had turned salt-and-pepper.

salt•box /ˈsɑːltˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] US : a house that has two or more levels in the front, one level in the back, and a steep roof that slopes down from the front to the back

salt cel•lar /ˈsɑːltˌsɛlə/ noun, pl ~ -lars [count] Brit : SALT SHAKER salted adj

1 : having salt added ▪ Cook the pasta in boiling salted water. ▪ salted butter/peanuts — opposite UNSALTED
2 : preserved with salt ▪ salted fish/meat/pork sal•tine /sɑlˈtiːn/ noun, pl -tines [count] US : a thin, salty cracker salt•pe•ter (US) or Brit salt•pe•tre /ˈsɑːltˈpiːtə/ noun [noncount] : a white powder that exists naturally in some soils and that is used especially as a fertilizer, in medicine, and to make gunpowder

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

salt shak•er /ˈsɑːltˌʃeɪkə/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a small container that has holes in its top and that is used for sprinkling small amounts of salt onto food — called also (Brit) salt cellar; see picture at PLACE SETTING salt•wa•ter /ˈsɑːltˌwɑːtə/ adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or living in salt water ▪ saltwater fish ▪ a saltwater pond — compare FRESHWATER salty /ˈsɑːlti/ adj salt•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : containing salt or too much salt ▪ salty foods ▪ a salty lake ▪ I think the soup tastes salty.
2 US, old-fashioned : somewhat rude or shocking ▪ salty language/talk – salt•i•ness /ˈsɑːltinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the saltiness of tears

sa•lu•bri•ous /səˈluːbrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : making good health possible or likely ▪ salubrious weather ▪ a salubrious climate/area sal•u•tary /ˈsæljəˌteri, Brit ˈsæljətri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a good or helpful result especially after something unpleasant has happened ▪ The accident should be a salutary lesson to be more careful. ▪ a salutary effect sal•u•ta•tion /ˌsæljəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a word or phrase (such as "Gentlemen," "Dear Sir," "Dear Madam," or "To whom it may concern") that is used to begin a letter
2 formal : the act of greeting someone [count] A handshake and saying "hello" are common salutations. [noncount] Shaking hands is a form of salutation.

sa•lu•ta•to•ri•an /səˌluːtəˈtorijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] US : the student who has the second best grades in a graduating class — compare VALEDICTORIAN

[1]sa•lute /səˈluːt/ verb -lutes; -lut•ed; -lut•ing
1 : to give a sign of respect to (a military officer, flag, etc.) by moving your right hand to your forehead : to give a salute to (someone or something) [+ obj] He saluted the officer. ▪ Salute the flag. [no obj] The officer saluted.
2 [+ obj] : to show respect for (someone or something) : to publicly praise (someone or something) ▪ We salute our country's soldiers. ▪ The players saluted the fans. ▪ The president saluted her bravery.

[2]salute noun, pl -lutes
1 : the act of moving your right hand to your forehead as a sign of respect to a military officer, flag, etc. [count] The officers gave the general a salute. [noncount] They raised their hands in salute.
2 : an act or ceremony that shows respect for someone [count] a 21-gun salute [=a military ceremony where 21 guns are fired in the air to honor someone] ▪ The concert was a salute to country music legends. [noncount] Twenty-one guns were fired in salute. ▪ We raise our glasses in salute to the newlyweds.

[1]sal•vage /ˈsælvɪʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of saving something (such as a building, a ship, or cargo) that is in danger of being completely destroyed ▪ The ship was beyond salvage. ▪ salvage attempts/efforts/operations
2 : something (such as cargo) that is saved from a wreck, fire, etc. ▪ the salvage from the wrecked ship ▪ (US) I got the part from an auto salvage place. [=from a junkyard; from a place where broken cars are taken so that their parts can be removed and sold]

[2]salvage verb -vag•es; -vaged; -vag•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove (something) from a place so that it will not be damaged, destroyed, or lost ▪ Divers salvaged some of the sunken ship's cargo. ▪ Few of their possessions were salvaged from the fire.
2 : to save (something valuable or important) : to prevent the loss of (something) ▪ He is trying to salvage his marriage/reputation.
– sal•vage•able /ˈsælvɪʤəbəl/ adj ▪ The marriage was not salvageable.

sal•va•tion /sælˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 in Christianity : the act of saving someone from sin or evil : the state of being saved from sin or evil ▪ Pray for salvation.
2 : something that saves someone or something from danger or a difficult situation ▪ The new medication has been her salvation. [=has saved her] ▪ Tourism has been the salvation of the island.

Salvation Army noun
the Salvation Army : an international Christian group that helps poor people

[1]salve /ˈsæv, Brit ˈsælv/ noun, pl salves [count, noncount] : a creamy substance that you put on a wound to heal it or to make it less painful ▪ a salve for rashes/sunburns

[2]salve verb salves; salved; salv•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) less painful ▪ The lotion salved the pain. ▪ He bought her flowers to salve his guilty conscience.

sal•ver /ˈsælvə/ noun, pl -vers [count] chiefly Brit : a tray that is used for serving food or drinks on formal occasions sal•vo /ˈsælvoʊ/ noun, pl sal•vos or sal•voes [count]

1 : the act of firing several guns or bombs at the same time ▪ We were driven back by a salvo of cannon fire.
2 : a sudden occurrence of applause, laughter, etc., from many people ▪ a salvo [=burst] of cheers
3 : a strong or sudden attack ▪ The newspaper article was intended as a salvo against the mayor's policies. ▪ He fired the opening salvo of the debate.

Sa•mar•i•tan /səˈmerətən/ noun, pl -tans [count] : GOOD SAMARITAN ▪ A Samaritan called a tow truck for us.

sam•ba /ˈsæmbə/ noun [singular] : a lively Brazilian dance ▪ They danced the samba.; also : the music for this dance ▪ The band played a samba.

[1]same /ˈseɪm/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : not different — used when referring to a particular person or thing that is connected to more than one person, time, place, etc. ▪ He has lived in the same city all his life. [=he has only lived in one city] ▪ She and her cousin go to the same school. [=she goes to a particular school, and her cousin also goes to that school] ▪ We graduated the same year. ▪ She saw the same man at several different times and places yesterday. ▪ I'd met him earlier that exact same day. = (US) I'd met him earlier that same exact day. ▪ "Puma" and "cougar" are different names for the very same animal. ▪ The restaurant's owner and chef are one and the same person. [=the owner is also the chef]
2 a : exactly like someone or something else ▪ The words "their" and "there" are pronounced in exactly the same way but spelled differently. ▪ They were wearing the exact same shirt. = (US) They were wearing the same exact shirt. ▪ He should help us—and the same thing goes for you! [=and you should help us too] b : not changed : exactly like an earlier version, event, etc. ▪ She gave the same answer as before. ▪ He eats the same breakfast every day. ▪ The same thing happened to me yesterday. ▪ She is not the same person (that) she used to be—she's changed.
3 — used to describe a quality or characteristic that is shared by more than one person or thing ▪ two people of the same sex [=two people who are both male or both female] ▪ The buildings are the same age/style. ▪ She has the same dark hair and eyes as her father.
at the same time see [1]TIME same difference see DIFFERENCE
the same old informal + usually disapproving — used to refer to something that has not changed ▪ I was hoping for something different, but all I got was more of the same old thing. ▪ They brought up the same old argument/story yet again!
the same thing — used to say that two things are alike or have the same meaning ▪ Lying and cheating amount to much the same thing.
two sides of the same coin see [1]COIN

[2]same pronoun
1 the same a : someone or something that is exactly like another person or thing being discussed or referred to ▪ He ordered the salmon, and I had the same. [=I also had the salmon] ▪ "I'll have a coffee with cream and two sugars." "Make mine the same." ▪ Your idea is the same as his. ▪ (chiefly Brit) "Would you like another drink?" "Yes. (The) Same again, please." [=please bring me another drink that is like the one you have already brought me] ▪ All of your classmates have begun their projects, and I suggest you do the same. ▪ The band's last album was a bunch of bubble-gum pop, and their new release is just more of the same. ▪ He should help us—and the same goes for you! [=and you should help us too] b ✧ Two or more things that are the same are exactly like each other or very similar to each other. ▪ The lunch specials are always the same. ▪ No two fingerprints are ever the same. ▪ The two cars are basically the same.
2 the same : someone or something that has not changed : something that is exactly like it was at an earlier time ▪ After the accident, he was never quite the same again. ▪ Things would never be the same without you! ▪ Things are very much the same as before.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

all the same or just the same : despite what has just been said : NEVERTHELESS ▪ Of course it won't be easy. But you should try all the same. ▪ I'm afraid I can't accept your offer. But thank you just the same.

all the same to — used to say that someone does not care about what is chosen or done in a particular situation ▪ We can do it either today or tomorrow—it's all the same to me. [=I am willing to do it either today or tomorrow] ▪ I'd like to go fishing tomorrow morning, if it's all the same to you. [=if you don't object to that] one and the same : one person or thing and not two ▪ The restaurant's owner and chef are one and the same. [=the owner is also the chef] same here informal — used to say that you think, feel, or want the same thing as someone else ▪ "I'm tired." "Same here." [=me too; I'm tired too] ▪ "I'll have a coffee." "Same here, please."

the same to you — used to return a greeting or insult ▪ "Merry Christmas!" "(And) the same to you!" [=Merry Christmas to you too] ▪ "Go to hell!" "The same to you!"

[3]same adv : in a way that is alike or very similar — usually used after the ▪ The two brands of soda taste the same [=alike] to me. ▪ The words "their" and "there" are pronounced the same but spelled differently. ▪ I feel exactly the same as I did yesterday. ▪ I don't like to dress the same as everyone else. ▪ The business is run much the same as it was 50 years ago. ▪ He ate a sandwich and apple for lunch, same as usual. [=as he usually does]

same•ness /ˈseɪmnəs/ noun [singular] : the quality or state of being alike or of not changing ▪ the sameness of the two methods ▪ There is a sameness to his stories that makes them too predictable. ▪ the sameness [=monotony] of daily life same–sex adj, always used before a noun : involving members of the same sex ▪ same-sex twins [=twins that are both boys or both girls] ▪ same-sex couples/relationships ▪ same-sex marriages/unions samey /ˈseɪmi/ adj, Brit, informal : similar and boring ▪ He has written five samey novels.

[1]sam•ple /ˈsæmpəl, Brit ˈsɑːmpəl/ noun, pl sam•ples [count]
1 : a small amount of something that gives you information about the thing it was taken from ▪ a blood/water/soil sample ▪ We would like to see a sample of your work.
2 : a small amount of something that is given to people to try ▪ I tasted a sample of the new cereal. ▪ Free samples were handed out at the store.
3 : a group of people or things that are taken from a larger group and studied, tested, or questioned to get information ▪ The sample included 96 women over the age of 40. ▪ a sample group ▪ A random sample of people filled out the survey. ▪ We looked at a representative sample of public schools.
4 : a small part of a recording (such as a song) that is used in another performer's recording

[2]sample verb samples; sam•pled; sam•pling [+ obj]
1 : to taste a small amount of (something) ▪ We sampled the wine/food.
2 : to try or experience (something) ▪ She sampled everything the resort had to offer, from golfing to yoga.
3 technical : to test, study, or question (a group of people or things taken from a larger group) to get information ▪ A low percentage of the women sampled said that they smoked during pregnancy. ▪ Five of the 20 schools sampled did not meet the standards.
4 : to use a small part of (a recording, such as a song) in another recording ▪ The rap group sampled the song.

[3]sample adj, always used before a noun : used as an example of something ▪ The teacher handed out a sample essay/exam. ▪ Here are some sample questions for the test.

sam•pler /ˈsæmplə, Brit ˈsɑːmplə/ noun, pl -plers [count]
1 : a piece of cloth with letters and words sewn in different kinds of stitches and made as an example of a person's sewing skill
2 : a collection that includes different examples of a particular type of thing ▪ a chocolate sampler ▪ The collection serves as a sampler of American poetry.

sam•pling /ˈsæmplɪŋ, Brit ˈsɑːmplɪŋ/ noun, pl -plings
1 [count] : a small group of people or things taken from a larger group and used to represent the larger group ▪ The reporter asked a sampling of people about their eating habits. ▪ a sampling of the menu's entrées
2 [count] : a small amount of something that is offered to someone to try ▪ We were given a sampling of the food.
3 [noncount] : the act of using a small part of a recording (such as a song) as part of another recording ▪ The band does a lot of sampling.

sam•u•rai /ˈsæməˌraɪ/ noun, pl samurai [count] : a member of a Japanese military class in the past ▪ a powerful samurai ▪ a samurai sword/warrior

san•a•to•ri•um /ˌsænəˈtorijəm/ noun, pl -to•ri•ums or -to•ria /-ˈtorijə/ [count] old-fashioned : a place for the care and treatment of people who are recovering from illness or who have a disease that will last a long time — called also (US) sanitarium, (US) sanitorium sanc•ti•fy /ˈsæŋktəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] formal 1 : to make (something) holy ▪ The priest sanctified their marriage.

2 : to give official acceptance or approval to (something) ▪ The constitution sanctified the rights of the people.
– sanc•ti• •ca•tion /ˌsæŋktəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the sanctification of their marriage sanc•ti•mo•nious /ˌsæŋktəˈmoʊnijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : pretending to be morally better than other people ▪ sanctimonious politicians ▪ a sanctimonious speech/lecture

– sanc•ti•mo•nious•ly adv ▪ She sanctimoniously criticized our plans.

[1]sanc•tion /ˈsæŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal
1 [count] : an action that is taken or an order that is given to force a country to obey international laws by limiting or stopping trade with that country, by not allowing economic aid for that country, etc. — usually plural ▪ The United Nations has decided to impose trade/economic sanctions on the country. — often + against ▪ Sanctions against the country have been lifted.
2 [noncount] : official permission or approval ▪ The country acted without the sanction of the other nations. ▪ Their policy has/lacks legal sanction.

[2]sanction verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj] formal : to officially accept or allow (something) ▪ The government has sanctioned the use of force. ▪ His actions were not sanctioned by his superiors.

sanc•ti•ty /ˈsæŋktəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being holy, very important, or valuable — often + of ▪ the sanctity [=sacredness] of marriage/life/tradition

sanc•tu•ary /ˈsæŋkʧəˌweri, Brit ˈsæŋkʧuəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies
1 [count] : a place where someone or something is protected or given shelter ▪ wildlife/bird sanctuaries ▪ The house was a sanctuary for runaway teens. — often used figuratively ▪ Her garden was a sanctuary from the stress of daily life. [=she felt relaxed and free from stress when she was in her garden]
2 [noncount] : the protection that is provided by a safe place ▪ The refugees found/sought sanctuary when they crossed the border.
3 [count] a US : the room inside a church, synagogue, etc., where religious services are held b : the most sacred or holy part of a religious building ▪ The sanctuary contains the altar of sacrifice.

sanc•tum /ˈsæŋktəm/ noun, pl -tums [count] somewhat formal
1 : a place where you are not bothered by other people ▪ Her office was her sanctum. — see also INNER SANCTUM
2 : a holy or sacred place ▪ the sanctum of a church

[1]sand /ˈsænd/ noun, pl sands
1 [noncount] : the very tiny, loose pieces of rock that cover beaches, deserts, etc. ▪ The beaches are covered with pinkish sand. ▪ a grain of sand ▪ I have sand in my shoe. — see also QUICKSAND
2 a [noncount] : an area of sand ▪ The children are playing in the sand. ▪ She walked across the hot sand. b sands [plural] literary : the beach or desert ▪ Tourists walked the sands. ▪ They journeyed across the (desert) sands.
head in the sand see [1]HEAD shifting sands — used to refer to changes that happen as time passes ▪ the shifting sands of war the sands of time — used to refer to the passage of time ▪ Many civilizations have been buried by the sands of time. [=many civilizations have been forgotten because of the passage of time]

[2]sand verb sands; sand•ed; sand•ing
1 : to make the surface of something smooth by rubbing it with sandpaper [+ obj] You should sand the shelf before painting it. — often + down ▪ Sand down the table. [no obj] Be sure to sand before you paint the shelf.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 [+ obj] US : to spread sand over (an icy street, sidewalk, etc.) : to cover (something) with sand ▪ The streets are slippery because they haven't been sanded yet.

san•dal /'sændl/ noun, pl -dals [count] : a shoe with a bottom part that is held in place with straps around the foot and sometimes the ankle ▪ a pair of sandals ▪ I'm missing a sandal. — see picture at SHOE

san•dal•wood /'sændl,wʊd/ noun [noncount] : a yellowish wood with a pleasant smell that is often used to make carved objects and whose oil is used in making perfumes and soaps; also : the tree that this wood comes from

[1]sand•bag /'sænd,bæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] : a bag filled with sand and used as a weight or to build temporary walls, dams, etc.

[2]sandbag verb -bags; -bagged; -bag•ging

1 [+ obj] : to put sandbags around, on, or in (something) ▪ They sandbagged (the area around) the house to protect it from the flood.

2 [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to hit (someone) with a sandbag — usually used figuratively to describe treating or criticizing someone unfairly ▪ He would have won the election but he got sandbagged by the media.

3 US, informal : to hide your true abilities or purpose in order to deceive people, gain an advantage, etc. [no obj] He claimed he was playing badly because of an injury, but I think he was sandbagging. [+ obj] I think he was sandbagging us.

– sand•bag•ger noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US

sand•bank /'sænd,bæŋk/ noun, pl -banks [count] : a raised area of sand in a river, ocean, etc. ▪ The ship ran aground on a sandbank.

sand•bar /'sænd,bɑə/ noun, pl -bars [count] : a raised area of sand with a top that is near or just above the surface of the water in an ocean, lake, or river ▪ We walked out onto the sandbar at low tide.

sand•blast /'sænd,blæst, Brit 'sænd,blɑ:st/ verb -blasts; -blast•ed; blast•ing [+ obj] : to clean, polish, or decorate the surface of (something) by spraying sand on it with a powerful machine ▪ sandblast a building ▪ The metal was sandblasted to remove old paint. = The old paint was sandblasted off the metal.

– sand•blast•er noun, pl -ters [count]

sand•box /'sænd,bɑ:ks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] US : a low box filled with sand that children can play in — called also (Brit) sandpit; see picture at PLAYGROUND sand castle noun, pl ~ castles [count] : a small model of a castle or other building that is made with wet sand on a beach sand dollar noun, pl ~ -lars [count] US : the round, flat shell of a small sea animal; also : the small sea animal itself sand dune noun, pl ~ dunes [count] : DUNE sand•er /'sændə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : an electric tool that is used to make a surface smooth — see picture at CARPENTRY

2 US : a machine that is used for spreading sand on icy roads

S&H abbr, US shipping and handling

S&L noun, pl S&Ls [count] US : SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION — usually used before another noun ▪ S&L executives sand•lot /'sænd,lɑ:t/ noun, pl -lots [count] US : an empty area of land in a city where children play games or sports

– sandlot adj, always used before a noun ▪ sandlot games/baseball

S and M or S&M noun [noncount] : SADOMASOCHISM

sand•man /'sænd,mæn/ noun

the sandman — used to refer to sleep as an imaginary man who makes people sleepy by sprinkling sand in their eyes ▪ The kids are fighting off the sandman. [=the kids are trying not to fall asleep]

[1]sand•pa•per /'sænd,peɪpə/ noun [noncount] : stiff paper that has a rough surface on one side and that is rubbed against something (such as a piece of wood) to make it smooth

[2]sandpaper verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) smooth by rubbing it with sandpaper ▪ You should sandpaper [=(more commonly) sand] the shelf before you paint it.

sand•pip•er /'sænd,pɑɪpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of bird that has long legs and a long bill and that lives near the sea

sand•pit /'sænd,pɪt/ noun, pl -pits [count] Brit : SANDBOX sand•stone /'sænd,stoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count, noncount] : a type of soft stone that is made from grains of sand stuck together sand•storm /'sænd,stoəm/ noun, pl -storms [count] : an occurrence in which very strong winds blow sand around very forcefully in the desert ▪ They were caught in a sandstorm.

sandpiper

sand trap noun, pl ~ traps [count] US, golf : an area on a golf course that is filled with sand : BUNKER

[1]sand•wich /'sænd,wɪʧ, Brit 'sæn,wɪʤ/ noun, pl -wich•es [count]

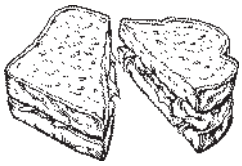
1 : two pieces of bread with something (such as meat, peanut butter, etc.) between them ▪ I had a ham sandwich for lunch. ▪ a peanut butter and jelly sandwich — see also CLUB SANDWICH, OPEN-FACED SANDWICH

2 : two or more cookies, crackers, or slices of cake with something between them ▪ (chiefly US) an ice-cream sandwich [=two cookies with ice cream between them]



sandwich

[2]sandwich verb -wiches; -wiched; -wich•ing [+ obj] somewhat informal : to put (someone or something) in the space between two other things or people — usually used as (be) sandwiched between ▪ The little boy was sandwiched between his brother and sister in the back seat of the van. ▪ a thin sheet of aluminum sandwiched between two pieces of plastic ▪ She lives in an old neighborhood sandwiched between the river and the railroad tracks.

sandwich board noun, pl ~ boards [count] : two signs that are worn on the front and back of a person's body and that are used especially for advertising something sandwich course noun, pl ~ courses [count] Brit : a course of study in a college or university during which the students spend some time working in a business or industry sandy /'sændi/ adj sand•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : full of or covered with sand ▪ The soil in my garden is very sandy. ▪ a sandy beach

2 : having a yellowish-gray or yellowish-brown color ▪ sandy hair – sand•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the sandiness of the soil sane /'seɪn/ adj san•er; san•est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having a healthy mind : able to think normally ▪ He is perfectly sane. [=he is not mentally ill] ▪ No sane person could do something so horrible. ▪ Trips to the beach keep me sane. [=keep me feeling happy and able to deal with life without becoming too upset, nervous, etc.] ▪ It's hard to stay/remain sane [=to stay relaxed, calm, etc.] when I'm so busy. — opposite INSANE

2 : based on reason or good judgment : rational or sensible ▪ Leaving was the only sane option she had. ▪ a sane policy/decision – sane•ly adv ▪ He spoke sanely.

sang past tense of SING sang•froid /ˌsɑ:ŋ'frwɑ:/ noun [noncount] literary : the ability to stay calm in difficult or dangerous situations ▪ He displayed remarkable sangfroid when everyone else was panicking during the crisis.

san•gria /sæŋ'gri:jə/ noun [noncount] : an alcoholic drink made of red wine, fruit juice, and often soda water san•guine /'sæŋgwən/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : confident and hopeful ▪ She has a sanguine disposition/temperament. ▪ He is sanguine about the company's future.

san•i•tar•i•um /ˌsænə'terijəm/ noun, pl -i•ums or -ia /-ijə/ [count] US, old-fashioned : SANATORIUM

san•i•tary /'sænəˌteri, Brit 'sænətri/ adj

1 always used before a noun : of or relating to good health or protection from dirt, infection, disease, etc. ▪ sanitary laws ▪ poor sanitary conditions [=conditions that are likely to give people diseases or infection] ▪ The park had clean sanitary facilities. [=bathrooms]

2 [more ~; most ~] : free from dirt, infection, disease, etc. ▪ The public bathrooms were not very sanitary. [=clean] ▪ san-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

itary packaging — opposite INSANITARY, UNSANITARY sanitary napkin noun, pl ~ -kins [count] US : a thick piece of soft material that is used to absorb blood during menstruation — called also sanitary pad, (Brit) sanitary towel; compare TAMPON

san•i•ta•tion /ˌsænəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the process of keeping places free from dirt, infection, disease, etc., by removing waste, trash and garbage, by cleaning streets, etc. ▪ Diseases can spread from poor sanitation. — often used before another noun ▪ sanitation workers/trucks san•i•tize also Brit san•i•tise /ˈsænəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) free from dirt, infection, disease, etc., by cleaning it : to make (something) sanitary ▪ The housekeeping staff sanitized the bathroom.
2 often disapproving : to make (something) more pleasant and acceptable by taking things that are unpleasant or offensive out of it ▪ They're trying to sanitize the news.
– sanitized also Brit sanitised adj ▪ He gave them a sanitized account of his life that did not include his time in prison. – sanitizing also Brit sanitising adj ▪ sanitizing equipment

san•i•to•ri•um /ˌsænəˈtorijəm/ noun, pl -to•ri•ums or -to•ria /-ˈtorijə/ [count] US, old-fashioned : SANATORIUM

san•i•ty /ˈsænəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : the condition of having a healthy mind : the condition of being sane ▪ People have begun to doubt his sanity. ▪ She is the mother of six children but somehow keeps her sanity. ▪ I need a vacation to regain/recover my sanity. [=to begin to feel normal and relaxed again] — opposite INSANITY
2 : the condition of being based on reason or good judgment ▪ The sanity of the decision was never in question.

sank past tense of [1]SINK sans /ˈsænz/ prep : WITHOUT ▪ She went to the party sans her husband.

San•skrit /ˈsænˌskrɪt/ noun [noncount] : a language that was spoken many years ago in India and is still used in the practice of Hinduism ▪ chanting in Sanskrit
– Sanskrit adj, always before a noun ▪ a Sanskrit word/verse/scholar sans ser•if /sænˈserəf/ noun [noncount] technical : one of a group of typefaces that do not have short lines across the top and bottom of the long parts of the letters — see picture at FONT; compare SERIF

San•ta Claus /ˈsæntəˌklɑːz/ noun [singular] : an imaginary fat man with a white beard and a red suit who gives toys to children at Christmas — called also Santa, (Brit) Father Christmas

[1]sap /ˈsæp/ noun, pl saps
1 [noncount] : a watery juice inside a plant that carries the plant's food ▪ Sap is taken from maple trees to make syrup.
2 [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who is easily tricked or cheated ▪ The poor sap believed everything she told him.

[2]sap verb saps; sapped; sap•ping [+ obj]
1 : to use up the supply of (something, such as a person's courage, energy, strength, etc.) ▪ Moving the couch up the stairs sapped her strength. ▪ Months of rejections after job interviews sapped his confidence.
2 : to cause (someone) to lose courage, energy, strength, etc. — usually + of ▪ The illness sapped him of his strength. ▪ Her last three losses have sapped her of her confidence.

sap•ling /ˈsæplɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a young tree sap•per /ˈsæpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] Brit : a member of a military unit that builds structures to defend and protect a position sap•phic /ˈsæfɪk/ adj, always used before a noun, formal + literary : of or relating to sexual relations between women : LESBIAN ▪ a sapphic relationship ▪ sapphic lovers

sap•phire /ˈsæˌfajə/ noun, pl -phires
1 [count, noncount] : a clear, usually deep blue jewel — see color picture on page C11
2 [noncount] : a deep blue color

sap•py /ˈsæpi/ adj sap•pi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 US, informal a : sad or romantic in a foolish or exaggerated way ▪ The movie was pretty sappy. [=sentimental] ▪ a sappy [=(Brit) soppy] love story b : foolish or silly : not thinking clearly or showing good judgment ▪ She gets all sappy when she is around babies. ▪ a sappy idea
2 : full of sap ▪ sappy wood

Sa•ran Wrap /səˈræn-/ trademark, US — used for a thin sheet of clear plastic that is used to wrap food sar•casm /ˈsɑəˌkæzəm/ noun [noncount] : the use of words that mean the opposite of what you really want to say especially in order to insult someone, to show irritation, or to be funny ▪ biting/dry sarcasm ▪ a voice full of sarcasm — compare IRONY sar•cas•tic /sɑəˈkæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using or showing sarcasm ▪ a sarcastic person/remark/reply

– sar•cas•ti•cal•ly /sɑəˈkæstɪkli/ adv

sar•coph•a•gus /sɑəˈkɑːfəgəs/ noun, pl -gi /-ˌgaɪ/ also -gus•es [count] : a stone coffin from ancient times ▪ Egyptian/Roman sarcophagi sar•dine /sɑəˈdiːn/ noun, pl -dines [count] : a very small fish that is used for food and is usually packed in a can like sardines : without enough room to move around ▪ A large crowd of reporters was crammed/packed like sardines into a small room.

sar•don•ic /sɑəˈdɑːnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : showing that you disapprove of or do not like someone or something : showing disrespect or scorn for someone or something ▪ The movie is a sardonic look at modern life. ▪ sardonic humor/comments ▪ a sardonic expression/smile
– sar•don•i•cal•ly /sɑəˈdɑːnɪkli/ adv ▪ She smiled sardonically when she heard what had happened.

sarge /ˈsɑəʤ/ noun [singular] informal : SERGEANT — usually used as a form of address ▪ What should I do, Sarge?

sa•ri /ˈsɑri/ noun, pl -ris [count] : a long piece of cloth that is wrapped around the body and head or shoulder and worn by women in southern Asia — see color picture on page C16

sarky /ˈsɑəki/ adj sark•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : SARCASTIC ▪ sarky comments/remarks sar•nie /ˈsɑəni/ noun, pl -nies [count] Brit, informal : SANDWICH ▪ a bacon/jam sarnie

sa•rong /səˈrɑːŋ/ noun, pl -rongs [count] : a long strip of cloth that is wrapped loosely around the body and worn by men and women of Malaysia and many Pacific islands — see color picture on page C16

SARS /ˈsɑəz/ noun [noncount] : a serious disease that is caused by a virus and that affects your ability to breathe ✧ SARS is an abbreviation of "severe acute respiratory syndrome."

sar•sa•pa•ril•la /ˌsæspəˈrɪlə, Brit ˌsɑːspəˈrɪlə/ noun, pl -las [count, noncount] old-fashioned : a sweetened drink that is flavored with a substance made from the root of a plant sar•to•ri•al /sɑəˈtorijəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : of or relating to clothes ▪ They accused him of having poor sartorial taste. ▪ The wedding party arrived in sartorial splendor.

– sar•to•ri•al•ly adv ▪ my sartorially conservative friend [=my friend who wears conservative clothes]

SAS /ˌɛsˌeɪˈɛs/ noun
the SAS : a part of the British military that consists of soldiers who are specially trained for difficult and secret duties — called also the Special Air Service; compare SPECIAL FORCES

SASE abbr, US self-addressed stamped envelope

[1]sash /ˈsæʃ/ noun, pl sash•es [count] : a long piece of cloth that you wear around your waist or over one shoulder — compare [2]SASH

[2]sash noun, pl sashes [count] : the frame that holds glass in a window and that allows the window to open or close by sliding up and down — see picture at WINDOW — compare [1]SASH sa•shay /sæˈʃeɪ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -shays; -shayed; -shay•ing [no obj] : to walk in a slow and confident way that makes people notice you ▪ The model sashayed down the runway. ▪ She sashayed into the room.

sa•shi•mi /ˈsɑːʃəmi, sɑˈʃiːmi/ noun [noncount] : a Japanese food made of thinly sliced raw fish sash window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] Brit : DOUBLE-HUNG WINDOW — compare CASEMENT

Sas•quatch /ˈsæˌskwæʧ/ noun [singular] : a large, hairy creature that walks on two feet like a man and that some people claim to have seen in the northwestern U.S. and western Canada — called also bigfoot; compare ABOMINABLE SNOWMAN

sass /ˈsæs/ verb sass•es; sassed; sass•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to talk to (someone) in a rude way that does not show proper respect ▪ He got drunk and sassed a cop.
– sass noun [noncount] ▪ Don't give me any sass. [=back talk, (Brit) backchat]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sas•sa•fras /ˈsæsəˌfræs/ noun, pl sassafras
1 [count, noncount] : a tall tree of eastern North America
2 [noncount] : the dried bark from the root of the sassafras that is used in medicine and as a flavoring

Sas•se•nach /ˈsæsəˌnæk/ noun, pl -nachs [count] Scotland, disapproving + humorous : an English person sassy /ˈsæsi/ adj sass•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal

1 : having or showing a rude lack of respect ▪ sassy children ▪ a sassy answer
2 : very stylish ▪ her sassy new hairdo ▪ She bought some sassy high heels.
3 : confident and energetic ▪ the heroine's sassy charm

[1]sat past tense and past participle of SIT

[2]sat abbr satellite

Sat. abbr Saturday

SAT abbr Scholastic Assessment Test

Sa•tan /ˈseɪtn/ noun [noncount] : DEVIL 1a ▪ He went to the Halloween party dressed up as Satan. [=the Devil]

sa•tan•ic /seɪˈtænɪk/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or worshipping the Devil ▪ a satanic cult/rite
2 : very cruel or evil ▪ a satanic serial killer sa•tan•ism /ˈseɪtəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : worship of the Devil – sa•tan•ist /ˈseɪtənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

satch•el /ˈsætʃəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : a small bag that is carried over your shoulder and that is used for carrying clothes, books, etc.

sate /ˈseɪt/ verb sates; sat•ed; sat•ing [+ obj] formal
1 : to fill (someone) with food so that no more is wanted — usually used as (be) sated ▪ He ate until he was completely sated. [=full] ▪ feel sated
2 : to end (something, such as hunger or curiosity) by providing everything that is required or wanted : SATISFY ▪ The meal was more than enough to sate his hunger/appetite. ▪ The information sated their curiosity.

sa•teen /sæˈtiːn/ noun [noncount] : smooth cloth that is like satin

sat•el•lite /ˈsætəˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lites
1 a [count] : an object (such as a moon) that moves around a much larger planet b : a machine that is sent into space and that moves around the earth, moon, sun, or a planet ✧ Satellites are used for radio, television, and other types of communication and for studying the objects they move around. [count] Satellites help meteorologists predict the weather. [noncount] Images of the planet are sent by satellite. — often used before another noun ▪ satellite broadcasting/channels/images/radio/TV
2 [count] : a country, organization, etc., that is controlled by a larger and more powerful country, organization, etc.

satellite dish noun, pl ~ dishes [count] : a device that is shaped like a large dish and that receives television signals from a satellite high above the earth satellite dish

sa•ti•ate /ˈseɪʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to satisfy (a need, desire, etc.) fully ▪ Her curiosity was never satiated. [=sated]
– sa•ti•a•tion /ˌseɪʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

sa•ti•ety /səˈtajəti/ noun [noncount] technical : a feeling or condition of being full after eating food ▪ eating beyond the point of satiety

[1]sat•in /ˈsætn/ noun [noncount] : cloth that has a smooth, shiny surface ▪ a dress made of satin

[2]satin adj
1 : made of or covered with satin ▪ satin sheets/shoes
2 : having a smooth and shiny surface : SATINY ▪ satin paint sat•iny /ˈsætṇi/ adj : smooth and shiny like satin ▪ There's a satiny feel to the material. ▪ a smooth satiny finish/texture

sat•ire /ˈsæˌtajə/ noun, pl -ires
1 [noncount] : a way of using humor to show that someone or something is foolish, weak, bad, etc. : humor that shows the weaknesses or bad qualities of a person, government, society, etc. ▪ His movies are known for their use of satire.
2 [count] : a book, movie, etc., that uses satire ▪ The movie is a political/social satire.
– sa•tir•ic /səˈtɪrɪk/ or sa•tir•i•cal /səˈtɪrɪkəl/ adj ▪ The play is a satiric/satirical comedy. ▪ her dry satiric/satirical wit ▪ a satiric/satirical novel – sa•tir•i•cal•ly /səˈtɪrɪkli/ adv ▪ a political subject that is usually treated satirically

sat•i•rist /ˈsætərɪst/ noun, pl -rists [count] : a person who uses satire in books, movies, etc. ▪ social satirists of the American Dream ▪ the great British satirist, Jonathan Swift sat•i•rize also Brit sat•i•rise /ˈsætəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing [+ obj] : to show that (someone or something) is foolish, weak, bad, etc., by using satire ▪ The book satirizes contemporary life.

sat•is•fac•tion /ˌsætəsˈfækʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a happy or pleased feeling because of something that you did or something that happened to you [noncount] He gets/derives great satisfaction from volunteering. ▪ the satisfaction of a job well done ▪ There is some satisfaction in knowing I was right. [singular] She finds a certain satisfaction in helping others. — opposite DISSATISFACTION
2 [noncount] : the act of providing what is needed or desired : the act of satisfying a need or desire ▪ sexual satisfaction ▪ the satisfaction of his deep craving for love
3 [noncount] formal : a result that deals with a problem or complaint in an acceptable way ▪ I complained to the manager about the poor service but did not get any satisfaction.
4 [count] US : something that makes you happy, pleased, or satisfied ▪ Helping others is one of the greatest satisfactions of my life.
to someone's satisfaction : so that someone is happy, pleased, or satisfied ▪ The work was not done to my satisfaction. [=I was not satisfied with the work] ▪ The charge must be proved to the satisfaction of the court. [=the court must be convinced that the charge is true]

sat•is•fac•to•ry /ˌsætəsˈfæktəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : good enough for a particular purpose : ACCEPTABLE ▪ The job requires a satisfactory level of performance. ▪ Results are less satisfactory than had been anticipated. ▪ He gave a satisfactory account/explanation of how the accident had happened. ▪ The movie was brought to a satisfactory close/conclusion/end. ▪ His work has been satisfactory, but not outstanding. — opposite UNSATISFACTORY
– sat•is•fac•to•ri•ly /ˌsætəsˈfæktərəli/ adv ▪ My questions had been answered satisfactorily. ▪ They performed satisfactorily on the exam.

satis ed adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a happy or pleased feeling because of something that you did or something that happened to you ▪ a satisfied customer ▪ There was a satisfied look/smile on her face. ▪ She sat back from the table, satisfied. — often + with ▪ He's satisfied with things as they are. ▪ They were satisfied with the compromise. — opposite DISSATISFIED
2 not used before a noun : completely certain or sure about something : CONVINCED ▪ He was satisfied that she was not lying to him. ▪ You're quite satisfied that he's right?

sat•is•fy /ˈsætəsˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to be happy or pleased ▪ His job satisfies him. ▪ Nothing satisfies her so much as doing a good job. ▪ The movie's ending failed to satisfy audiences. — opposite DISSATISFY
2 : to provide, do, or have what is required by (someone or something) ▪ He ate a little food, but not enough to satisfy his hunger. [=not enough to stop him from being hungry] ▪ His curiosity was satisfied by their explanation. ▪ He has satisfied all of his graduation requirements. [=he has done all the things required for graduation] ▪ She satisfied [=fulfilled] all conditions for approval of the loan.
3 formal : to cause (someone) to believe that something is true : CONVINCE ▪ They have satisfied themselves that the story is only a rumor.

satisfying adj [more ~; most ~] : making you feel satisfied : giving you what you want or need ▪ You can have a very satisfying lunch at that restaurant. ▪ a totally satisfying movie/novel ▪ It is one of the most satisfying jobs I've ever had.
– sat•is•fy•ing•ly adv ▪ The movie has a satisfyingly happy ending.

sat•u•rate /ˈsætʃəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) very wet ▪ Saturate the sponge with water. ▪ That last rain really saturated [=soaked] the ground.
2 : to fill (something) completely with something ▪ Images of the war saturated the news. ▪ Their new products are saturating the market.

sat•u•rat•ed /ˈsætʃəˌreɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : completely wet ▪ a saturated sponge/towel ▪ His shirt was saturated with sweat.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : completely filled with something ▪ the area's already saturated freeways — often + with ▪ Newspapers were saturated with stories about the election. ▪ The room was saturated with the smell of her perfume.
3 technical — used to describe a type of oil or fat that is found in foods such as meat and butter and that is bad for your health ▪ Saturated fats are not easily processed by the body. — compare UNSATURATED

sat•u•ra•tion /ˌsætʃəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act or result of making something very wet ▪ Heavy rains resulted in the saturation of the soil.
2 : the act or result of supplying so much of something that no more is wanted ▪ the saturation of advertising on television ▪ a product that has reached market saturation [=a product that has saturated the market] — often used before a noun ▪ saturation coverage of a news story ▪ The number of game shows on TV may have reached the saturation point. [=the point at which there are so many that no more can be added successfully]
3 : the act of using military force over a whole area — usually used before another noun ▪ saturation bombing [=bombing in which a very large number of bombs are dropped to cover an entire area instead of being aimed at a specific target]

Sat•ur•day /ˈsætəˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days : the day of the week between Friday and Sunday [count] They left last Saturday. ▪ He will arrive next/this Saturday. ▪ His birthday falls on a Saturday this year. ▪ (Brit) He will arrive on the Saturday and leave on the Wednesday. ▪ The club meets on Saturdays. = The club meets every Saturday. [noncount] I will arrive on Saturday. = (chiefly US) I will arrive Saturday. — abbr. Sat.
– Sat•ur•days /ˈsætəˌdeɪz/ adv ▪ He visits his parents Saturdays. [=he visits his parents every Saturday]

Sat•urn /ˈsætən/ noun [singular] : the planet that is sixth in order from the sun and that is surrounded by large rings sat•ur•nine /ˈsætəˌnaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : very serious and unhappy ▪ his saturnine [=sullen] looks ▪ He is saturnine in temperament.

sa•tyr or Sa•tyr /ˈseɪtɚ, Brit ˈsætə/ noun, pl -tyrs [count] : one of the forest gods in Greek mythology who have faces and bodies like men and ears, legs, and tails like goats sauce /ˈsɑːs/ noun, pl sauc•es

1 : a thick liquid that is eaten with or on food to add flavor to it [count] a delicious spaghetti/meat sauce ▪ She tried several sauces before she found one she liked. ▪ chicken in/with a cream sauce ▪ Cover the strawberries with the chocolate sauce. [noncount] This pizza needs more sauce. — see also SOY SAUCE, TARTAR SAUCE, WHITE SAUCE
2 [count] : boiled or canned fruit ▪ cranberry sauce — see also APPLESAUCE
3 [singular] chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned : rude or impolite language or actions ▪ I've had enough of your sauce!
4 the sauce US slang : alcoholic drinks : LIQUOR ▪ He's been off the sauce [=he has not drunk any alcohol] for a month now. ▪ He's back on the sauce. [=he's drinking alcohol again]
what's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander see [1]GOOSE sauce•boat /ˈsɑːsˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a long and narrow container that has a handle and a special curved end for pouring and that is used for serving a sauce or gravy with a meal sauce•pan /ˈsɑːsˌpæn, Brit ˈsɔːspən/ noun, pl -pans [count] : a deep, round cooking pan with a handle — see picture at KITCHEN

sau•cer /ˈsɑːsɚ/ noun, pl -cers [count] : a small, round dish that you put a cup on — see picture at PLACE SETTING; see also FLYING SAUCER saucy /ˈsɑːsi/ adj sauc•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 somewhat old-fashioned : rude usually in a lively and playful way ▪ a saucy actress ▪ saucy language
2 : served with a sauce ▪ saucy foods ▪ a saucy dish
– sauc•i•ly /ˈsɑːsəli/ adv ▪ He spoke saucily. – sauc•i•ness /ˈsɑːsinəs/ noun [noncount] sau•er•kraut /ˈsawɚˌkraʊt/ noun [noncount] : a German food made of a vegetable (called a cabbage) that is cut into small pieces and soaked in a salty and sour liquid sau•na /ˈsɑːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count]

1 : a special heated room in which people sit or lie down in order to get hot and sweat ▪ The health club has a pool and a sauna.
2 : a health treatment in which people sit or lie down in a sauna ▪ He talked about the benefits of taking/having a sauna regularly.

saun•ter /ˈsɑːntɚ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to walk along in a slow and relaxed manner : STROLL ▪ They sauntered slowly down the street. ▪ Some girls sauntered by. ▪ He sauntered into the store.
– saunter noun [singular] ▪ We took a saunter around the town.

sau•sage /ˈsɑːsɪʤ/ noun, pl -sag•es : spicy ground meat (such as pork) that is usually stuffed into a narrow tube of skin or made into a small flat cake [noncount] Would you like any/some sausage? [count] breakfast sausages ▪ They bought sausages for the picnic.
not a sausage Brit, informal + old-fashioned : NOTHING ▪ What did they find? Not a sausage.

sausage dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] Brit, informal : DACHSHUND

[1]sau•té /sɑˈteɪ, Brit ˈsəʊˌteɪ/ verb -tés also -tes; -téed also -teed; -té•ing also -te•ing [+ obj] : to fry (food) in a small amount of fat ▪ Sauté the onion and garlic. ▪ peppers sautéed in olive oil ▪ meat sautéed with herbs

[2]sauté noun, pl -tés [count] : a food that is fried in a small amount of fat ▪ a shrimp sauté = (US) a sauté of shrimp
– sauté adj, always used before a noun ▪ sauté [=sautéed] potatoes

[1]sav•age /ˈsævɪʤ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 of an animal : not under human control : WILD ▪ savage [=wild] beasts
2 : very cruel or violent ▪ a savage criminal ▪ He was the victim of a savage attack/beating. ▪ a savage battle ▪ The coast was lashed by savage storms.
3 : very critical or harsh ▪ savage criticism ▪ He wrote savage satires about people he didn't like.
4 old-fashioned + offensive : having a way of life that is simple and not highly advanced : uncivilized or primitive ▪ a savage country/tribe
– sav•age•ly adv ▪ She was savagely attacked by the dog. ▪ He was savagely beaten. – sav•age•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the savageness [=(more commonly) savagery] of the battle/crime

[2]savage noun, pl -ag•es [count]
1 old-fashioned + offensive : a person who has a way of life that is simple and not highly advanced ▪ a wild savage
2 : a person who is very violent or cruel ▪ What kind of savage could have committed such a terrible crime?

[3]savage verb -ages; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] : to attack or treat (someone or something) in a very cruel, violent, or harsh way ▪ He looked like he'd been savaged by a wild animal. ▪ A hurricane savaged the city. ▪ The newspapers savaged his reputation.

sav•age•ry /ˈsævɪʤəri/ noun, pl -ries
1 [noncount] : a cruel or violent quality : a savage quality ▪ The savagery of the attack was horrifying. ▪ an act of pure savagery
2 [count] : a cruel or violent act or action ▪ the savageries committed by the soldiers ▪ the savageries of war

sa•van•na also sa•van•nah /səˈvænə/ noun, pl -nas also -nahs [count] : a large flat area of land with grass and very few trees especially in Africa and South America sa•vant /sæˈvɑːnt, Brit ˈsævənt/ noun, pl -vants [count] formal

1 : a person who knows a lot about a particular subject ▪ a computer savant
2 : a person who does not have normal intelligence but who has very unusual mental abilities that other people do not have

[1]save /ˈseɪv/ verb saves; saved; sav•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to keep (someone or something) safe : to stop (someone or something) from dying or being hurt, damaged, or lost ▪ He risked his life to save his friend (from drowning). ▪ The organization is dedicated to saving [=protecting] endangered animals. ▪ We need to save the rain forests (from destruction). ▪ He grabbed her arm to save her from falling. [=to stop/prevent her from falling so that she would not be hurt] ▪ The doctors managed to save the soldier's wounded leg. [=to keep the leg from having to be cut off] b : to stop (something) from ending or failing : to make (something that is in danger of failing) successful ▪ He is trying to save his marriage by going to counseling for his drug addiction. ▪ The new CEO saved the company (from bankruptcy). ▪ She saved a tense situation by staying calm.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : to keep (something) from being lost or wasted [+ obj] This new plan will help us save time. = The new plan will save us some time. ▪ Thinner computer monitors save space. [no obj] — + on ▪ A more efficient furnace will save on energy.
3 a : to keep money instead of spending it : to put money away especially in a bank so that you will have it in the future [no obj] She would rather save than spend. ▪ He has been saving (up) for a new car. [+ obj] Save a little money for later. ▪ She saves part of her pay every week. ▪ I saved $20,000 for a down payment on the house. b : to spend less money [no obj] Buy now and save! — often + on ▪ Save on everything in the store! ▪ He saved on [=spent less money for] his car insurance by switching to a different insurance company. [+ obj] She saved $15 at the grocery store by using coupons. — often + on ▪ We're trying to save money on our electric bill.
4 [+ obj] a : to keep (something) available for use in the future ▪ Be sure to save some cookies for your sister. ▪ You need to save (up) your energy for tomorrow. ▪ He saves his best jacket for special occasions. [=he only wears his best jacket on special occasions] ▪ The runners saved their energy for the last lap. = The runners saved themselves for the last lap. b : to keep (something) for someone to use or have ▪ She saved a seat for her friend. ▪ Please save the next dance for me. = Please save me the next dance. [=please don't plan to dance the next dance with anyone but me]
5 [+ obj] : to make (something) unnecessary ▪ Check that you have everything before you leave. It will save your having to go back again. ▪ The shortcut saves an hour's driving.
6 [+ obj] : to keep (someone) from doing something ▪ Thanks for sending out that package. It saved me a trip to the post office. ▪ I'll make the appointment for you to save you the trouble/bother. [=so that you don't have to do it yourself] — often + from ▪ You should cut up the vegetables to save you from doing it later when the guests are here.
7 [+ obj] : to collect or keep (something) ▪ She saved all his letters.
8 : to store (data) in a computer or on a storage device (such as a CD) so that it can be used later [+ obj] You should save your work on/to a disk. ▪ save a file [no obj] Don't forget to save before you close the file.
9 [+ obj] sports a : to stop (an opponent's shot) from scoring a goal ▪ He saved the penalty kick/shot. b : to keep (a game) from being lost to an opponent ▪ The relief pitcher saved the game.
10 in Christianity : to protect or free (someone) from sin or evil [+ obj] He believes that Jesus Christ will save him. [no obj] Jesus saves.
a penny saved (is a penny earned) see PENNY save face see [1]FACE
save someone's bacon/hide/neck/skin informal : to save someone : to help someone get out of a dangerous or difficult situation ▪ You really saved my bacon by helping out yesterday. ▪ He doesn't care what happens to us. All he's worried about is saving his own skin/neck. [=saving himself] save someone's life 1 or save a life : to stop (someone) from dying or being killed : to rescue (someone) who is in terrible danger ▪ She thanked the firefighters who saved her life. [=rescued her] ▪ a surgical procedure that has saved the lives of thousands of people ▪ The use of seat belts can save lives. ▪ If you donate blood, you might save a life. 2 informal : to help (someone) in an important way — often used to thank someone who helped you ▪ Thanks for covering for me. You really saved my life.
save the day : to make a bad situation end successfully ▪ Just when things looked hopeless, my brother came along and saved the day.
save your breath see BREATH to save your life informal ✧ If you cannot do something to save your life, you are completely unable to do it. ▪ She can't sing to save her life. [=she is a very bad singer]

[2]save noun, pl saves [count]
1 : a play that stops an opponent from scoring a goal ▪ The goalie made a spectacular save.
2 baseball, of a relief pitcher : the act of keeping a team's lead when replacing another pitcher at the end of a game ▪ He leads the league in saves.

[3]save prep, formal : other than : but or except ▪ We had no hope save one.
save for : not including (someone or something) : except for (someone or something) ▪ The park was deserted save for a few joggers.

[4]save conj, formal : EXCEPT ▪ Little is known about his early years save that he left home when he was very young.

sav•er /ˈseɪvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : someone who saves money for future use ▪ He is a compulsive saver who always watches his spending.
2 : something that prevents unnecessary waste or loss — used in combination ▪ This recipe is a real time-saver. [=this recipe saves a lot of time] ▪ The new product is an energy-saver.
– see also LIFESAVER

[1]saving noun, pl -ings
1 [count] : an amount of something that is not spent or used ▪ The new system will provide a saving in labor. ▪ a saving on fuel — often plural ▪ a savings of 50 percent ▪ The investment offers tax savings. ▪ The savings at the end of the first year will be considerable.
2 savings [plural] : the amount of money that you have saved especially in a bank over a period of time ▪ How much money do you have in savings? ▪ She has her savings in stocks. ▪ They were able to retire on their savings. ▪ His parents lost their life savings [=all the money they had] when the stock market crashed.

[2]saving adj
1 : preventing the unnecessary waste or loss of something — used in combination ▪ energy-saving technology ▪ space-saving furniture
2 : preventing the unnecessary spending of money — used in combination ▪ money-saving tips ▪ cost-saving strategies saving grace noun, pl ~ graces [count] : a good quality that makes a bad or unpleasant person or thing better or more acceptable ▪ It's expensive, but the machine's saving grace is its ease of operation. ▪ One of her saving graces is a good sense of humor.

savings account noun, pl ~ -counts [count] : a bank account in which people keep money that they want to save ▪ She opened a savings account.

savings and loan association noun, pl ~ -tions [count] US : a business that is like a bank and that holds and invests the money saved by its members and makes loans to home buyers — called also savings and loan, S&L savings bank noun, pl ~ banks [count] : a business where people keep money that they are saving in order to earn interest on it and where they can borrow money to buy homes, cars, etc.

savings bond noun, pl ~ bonds [count] finance : a bond sold by the U.S. government that comes in values of $50 to $10,000

sav•ior (US) or Brit sav•iour /ˈseɪvjɚ/ noun, pl -iors
1 [count] : someone who saves something or someone from danger, harm, failure, etc. ▪ We all felt that she was our savior. ▪ Many people expected him to be the savior of his (political) party.
2 Savior (US) or Brit Saviour — used by Christians to refer to Jesus Christ ▪ saying a prayer to the/our Savior sa•voir faire /ˌsævˌwɑɚˈfeɚ/ noun [noncount] formal : the ability to behave in a correct and confident way in different situations ▪ I admire her sophistication and savoir faire. ▪ He handled the problem with his usual savoir faire.

[1]sa•vor (US) or Brit sa•vour /ˈseɪvɚ/ noun, pl -vors formal
1 [count] : a good taste or smell — usually singular ▪ She enjoys the savor of a baking pie. ▪ There was a savor to the dish that I couldn't identify. ▪ a savor of mint ▪ an earthy savor
2 [noncount] literary : the quality that makes something interesting or enjoyable ▪ Without her love, life has lost its savor for me.

[2]savor (US) or Brit savour /ˈseɪvɚ/ verb -vors; -vored; -vor•ing formal
1 [+ obj] : to enjoy the taste or smell of (something) for as long as possible ▪ He savored the aroma of the baking pies. ▪ They savored every last morsel of food.
2 [+ obj] : to enjoy (something) for a long time ▪ She was just savoring the moment. ▪ The team is still savoring its victory. ▪ He savored the memories of his vacation.
savor of [phrasal verb] savor of (something) formal : to seem to suggest or involve (something unpleasant) ▪ That suggestion savors of [=smacks of] hypocrisy.

[1]sa•vory (US) or Brit sa•voury /ˈseɪvəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : having a pleasant taste or smell ▪ a savory aroma
2 : having a spicy or salty quality without being sweet ▪ They prepared an assortment of both sweet and savory foods.
3 : morally good — usually used in negative statements ▪ His

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

reputation was anything but savory. [=his reputation was unsavory] ▪ her less savory friend

[2]savory (US) or Brit savoury noun, pl -vor•ies [count] formal : a small serving of food that is spicy or salty but not sweet : a savory food ▪ They prepared assorted sweets and savories.

[1]sav•vy /ˈsævi/ noun [noncount] : practical understanding or knowledge of something ▪ He is admired for his business savvy. [=shrewdness]

[2]savvy adj sav•vi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US : having practical understanding or knowledge of something ▪ She's a very savvy investor. ▪ He is savvy about computers.

[1]saw past tense of [1]SEE

[2]saw /ˈsɑ:/ noun, pl saws [count] : a tool that has a blade with sharp teeth and that is used to cut through wood, metal, and other hard material ▪ a power saw — see picture at CARPENTRY; see also CHAIN SAW, CIRCULAR SAW, HACKSAW, HANDSAW, JIGSAW — compare [4]SAW saw at [phrasal verb] saw at (something) : to try to cut (something) by moving a saw, knife, etc., backwards and forwards ▪ She was sawing (away) at the turkey with a dull knife. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The violinist sawed (away) at the strings.

[3]saw verb saws; sawed /ˈsɑ:d/; sawed or Brit sawn /ˈsɑ:n/; saw•ing /ˈsɑ:ɪŋ/ : to cut or shape (wood, metal, etc.) with a saw [+ obj] He sawed the boards in half. [no obj] This blade is too dull for sawing.

saw down [phrasal verb] saw down (something) or saw (something) down : to cut (something) with a saw and bring it to the ground : to cut (something) down ▪ The trees were sawed down.

saw off [phrasal verb] saw off (something) or saw (something) off : to remove (something) by cutting it with a saw ▪ She sawed off the branch.

saw up [phrasal verb] saw up (something) or saw (something) up : to cut (something) into pieces with a saw ▪ He sawed up the boards into foot-long pieces.

[4]saw noun, pl saws [count] : a common saying : PROVERB ▪ His grandfather recited the old saw about an apple a day keeping the doctor away. — compare [2]SAW saw•dust /ˈsɑ:ˌdʌst/ noun [noncount] : tiny particles of wood that are formed from sawing or sanding wood sawed–off shotgun noun, pl ~ -guns [count] US : a shotgun that has a shorter barrel than a regular shotgun — called also (Brit) sawn-off shotgun saw•horse /ˈsɑ:ˌhoəs/ noun, pl -hors•es [count] : a frame on which wood is placed when it is being cut with a saw saw•mill /ˈsɑ:ˌmɪl/ noun, pl -mills [count] : a mill or factory where logs are sawed to make boards sax /ˈsæks/ noun, pl sax•es [count] informal : SAXOPHONE ▪ a tenor sax

Sax•on /ˈsæksən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a member of the Germanic people who entered and conquered England in the fifth century A.D. — see also ANGLO-SAXON

– Saxon adj ▪ Saxon kings

sax•o•phone /ˈsæksəˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] : a musical instrument that has a curved metal tube and that is played by blowing into a mouthpiece and pressing keys with your fingers — see picture at WOODWIND

sax•o•phon•ist /ˈsæksəˌfoʊnɪst, Brit sækˈsɒfənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : someone who plays the saxophone

[1]say /ˈseɪ/ verb says /ˈsɛz/; said /ˈsɛd/; say•ing /ˈseɪjɪŋ/

1 : to use your voice to express (something) with words [+ obj] "Is anybody there?" he said. ▪ "Good morning," said the woman behind the counter. ▪ I said three words before he interrupted me again. ▪ I just stopped by to say hello. ▪ He left without saying goodbye. ▪ I wanted to say thank you for all you've done for me. ▪ She said something about going to the store after work. ▪ He said something in French. ▪ Anything you say to the police can be used as evidence against you. ▪ Don't believe a word he says. ▪ Please be quiet. I have something to say. ▪ Listen closely, because I'm not going to say this again/twice. ▪ What did you say? ▪ Who shall I say is calling, Sir? ▪ Did she say how to get there? ▪ I said to myself, "I can do it." ▪ He said (that) he was a doctor. ▪ I can honestly say (that) I had never seen that man before today. ▪ I already said (that) I was sorry. ▪ You know what they say, "If you can't beat 'em, join 'em." ▪ As people/they say, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks." ▪ Her eyes are hazel, which is to say [=which means that] they are greenish brown. ▪ "A word of advice: don't mention the war." "Say no more [=I understand you; you do not need to explain it further]—I'll stay off the subject!" [no obj] "What happened next?" "I'd rather not say."

2 [+ obj] : to express (an opinion) ▪ She thinks I should break up with him. What do you say? [=what's your opinion?] ▪ What would/do you say to seeing a movie tonight? [=would you like to see a movie tonight?] ▪ "After all, he was the last person to see her alive." "Are you saying that (you think) he killed her?" ▪ I say you're wrong. [=my opinion is that you're wrong] ▪ I wouldn't say (that) he's a great guitarist [=I don't think he's a great guitarist]; he's just OK. ▪ They say (that) you should drink eight glasses of water a day. = It's said that you should drink eight glasses of water a day. [=the opinion of people who know about this subject is that you should drink eight glasses of water a day] ▪ New England is said to be [=many people think New England is] very beautiful in the Fall. ▪ "Is the island nice?" "So they/people say." ▪ I must say it was quite a surprise to hear from him. = I have to say it was quite a surprise to hear from him. ▪ I'm not saying we shouldn't buy the car. All I'm saying is that we should think about it some more. ▪ I didn't really enjoy the movie, but that's not to say it was bad. ▪ Say what you like (about it), I thought it was a good movie. ▪ Seeing your reaction, I would say that you're jealous that he has a new girlfriend. ▪ The dress seems too fancy for the party, wouldn't you say? [=don't you agree?; do you think the same thing?] ▪ I'll say this for him—he's very generous with his money. ▪ "She's a great singer!" "If you say so."

3 : to express (a fact) with certainty [+ obj] No one can say for sure whether it will happen. ▪ It is hard to say what caused the injury. ▪ There's no saying [=it is impossible to know] how many people died in the earthquake. [no obj] "When will you be done?" "I couldn't/can't say." [=I don't know] ✧ This sense is often used in indirect questions beginning with who to express disagreement or to say that something cannot be known for sure. ▪ Who says I can't do it? I can do anything if I put my mind to it. ▪ Who's to say they wouldn't have won if their team was healthy? ▪ Who can say what will happen? [=no one knows what will happen]

4 : to give (an order) : to tell someone to do (something) [+ obj] I said leave me alone! ▪ "Why do we have to go?" "Because your father and I said so." ▪ Mom said to wait here. ▪ She's the boss. What she says goes! [=you have to do what she tells you to do] ▪ "Let's try installing the program one more time." "Whatever you say—you're the expert." ▪ "Don't you ever bring that subject up again, do you hear me?!" "Okay, okay. Whatever you say." [no obj] Don't start until I say (so/to).

5 [+ obj] : to pronounce (a word) ▪ How do you say your name?

6 [+ obj] : to repeat or recite (something) ▪ We always say our prayers before going to bed. ▪ Can you say the poem from memory? ▪ A new priest said Mass this morning.

7 [+ obj] : to use written words to give (information) ▪ What does the card say? ▪ Does the article say how the fire happened? ▪ The letter says that I've been accepted to the college. ▪ It says here that there will be a special guest at the concert. ▪ The instructions say to add two eggs.

8 [+ obj] : to show or indicate (something) by using numbers, pictures, etc. ▪ The clock says five minutes after ten. ▪ The calendar says that Christmas falls on a Monday.

9 [+ obj] : to express (a meaning, emotion, etc.) without using words ▪ She likes art that really says something. ▪ The kind of car you drive says a lot about the kind of person you are. ▪ The look on her face said "I'm sorry." ▪ His face said it all. = His face said everything. [=his face showed how he felt]

10 a — used to suggest an example or possibility ▪ Let's pick a math problem. Say problem number 3. ▪ Say you do get accepted to the college. Will you go? ▪ We could leave on any day—say on Monday. ▪ Let's say you're right, for argument's sake. ▪ Suppose you won, shall we say, one million dollars. What would you do with it? b — used to suggest a possible or approximate amount, value, etc. ▪ The property is worth, say, four million dollars. = The property is worth four million dollars, say. [=the property is worth about four million dollars] can't say fairer than that Brit, informal — used to say that you cannot make a better offer than the one you have made ▪ What do you think? I can't say fairer than that, now, can I?

enough said see [3]ENOUGH

fair to say see [1]FAIR go without saying : to be obvious and true ▪ It goes without saying that I'll do whatever I can to help you.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

hasten to say see HASTEN have anything/something (etc.) to say about 1 : to have an opinion to express about (something) ▪ I asked what she thought about the movie, but she didn't have anything to say about it. 2 : to have the ability to influence (something) ▪ "I'm going to the party." "Not if I have anything/something to say about it." [=not if I can stop you] have something/nothing/much (etc.) to say for yourself : to be able or unable to say something that explains what you are doing, have done, etc. ▪ I asked him about school, but he didn't have much to say for himself. ▪ Your teacher says you were caught cheating. What do you have to say for yourself?
having said that or that said : despite what I just said ▪ Their work has been fairly good. Having said that, I still think there's a lot of room for improvement. ▪ Much of the book was very dull. That said, I have to admit that the ending was extremely clever.
I dare say see [1]DARE
if I may say so also if I might say so — used to express criticism or disagreement in a polite way ▪ The whole affair—if I may say so—was a waste of time.
if I say so myself — used when you are saying something that praises your own work, skill, etc. ▪ I did a fine job painting the room, if I say so myself. ▪ I'm a pretty good golfer, if I say so myself.
I hear what you're saying see HEAR
I'll say informal — used to indicate that you completely agree with something just said ▪ "Isn't it hot today!" "I'll say (it is). It's unbearable!"
I say Brit, old-fashioned 1 — used to express surprise, shock, etc. ▪ I say! Isn't that your friend over there? ▪ I say! That's a wonderful idea. 2 — used to attract the attention of someone ▪ I say (there). Can you help me?
needless to say see NEEDLESS never say die see [1]DIE never say never see NEVER not to say — used to introduce a more forceful or critical way of describing someone or something ▪ His manner was discourteous, not to say offensive. ▪ He was impolite, not to say downright rude!
say cheese see CHEESE
say no : to say that you will not accept or agree to something ▪ We requested more time, but she said no. [=she refused to allow us to have more time] — often + to ▪ She said no to our request. ▪ I never say no to dessert.
say something/little/a lot (etc.) for : to show that (someone or something) does or does not deserve to be praised, admired, etc. ▪ It says a lot for her that she stayed in the game even though she was injured. ▪ The students' low test scores don't say much for the education they're receiving. [=the low test scores show/suggest that the students are not getting a good education]
say the word see [1]WORD say what US, informal — used to express surprise at what someone has just said ▪ "I'm moving out." "Say what?"
say yes : to say that you accept or agree to something — often + to ▪ They said yes to our plan.
say your piece see [1]PIECE suffice (it) to say see SUFFICE that is to say see [1]THAT that said see HAVING SAID THAT (above)
that's not saying much — used to indicate that a fact, achievement, etc., is not unusual or impressive ▪ He is a better golfer than me, but that's not saying much (because I'm not a good golfer).
there is something/a lot/much (etc.) to be said for — used to indicate that something has advantages which deserve to be considered when you are thinking about what to do ▪ There is something to be said for small weddings. ▪ It is not necessary, but there is something to be said for traveling abroad to learn a language.
to say nothing of — used when referring to another thing that relates to what you have just said ▪ We need more time, to say nothing of [=not to mention] money. [=we also need more money] ▪ The restaurant makes its own delicious bread, to say nothing of a great spaghetti sauce.
to say the least see [2]LEAST when all is said and done see [3]ALL you can say that again informal — used to indicate that you completely agree with something just said ▪ "She's in a bad mood." "You can say that again." [=she certainly is] you don't say — used to express surprise ▪ "She ran off with another man." "You don't say!" — often used ironically to show that you are not at all surprised by something ▪ "They lost again." "You don't say. What's that, eight in a row?"
you might say — used to suggest a possible way of describing or thinking about something ▪ The experience was, you might say, a glimpse into the future.
you said it informal — used to indicate that you completely agree with something just said ▪ "That was a pretty selfish thing for him to do." "You said it." ▪ "Let's grab something to eat." "You said it. I'm starving."

[2]say noun
1 [singular] : an opportunity to express your opinion ▪ Everybody had a say at the meeting. ▪ We won't make a decision until all members have had their say.
2 : the power to decide or help decide something [singular] The judge will have the final say on/over the divorce settlement. — usually + in ▪ The students want a greater say in decisions that affect their education. [noncount] He had no/some/little say in the matter.

[3]say interj, chiefly US, informal
1 — used to express surprise, shock, etc. ▪ Say, isn't that your friend over there? ▪ Say, that's a wonderful idea.
2 — used to attract the attention of someone ▪ Say there. Can you help me? ▪ Say, do you want to see a movie tonight?

say•ing /ˈsejɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : an old and well-known phrase that expresses an idea that most people believe is true ▪ "Two minds are better than one," as the (old) saying goes.

say–so /ˈseɪˌsoʊ/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : a statement that is not supported by any proof ▪ He said he did the work himself, but we have only his say-so that that's what actually happened.
2 : permission that is given by a person who has authority ▪ She left the hospital on the say-so of her doctor. ▪ Nothing was done without his say-so.
3 : the power to decide something ▪ She has the ultimate say-so on/over what will be taught.

S–bend /ˈɛsˌbɛnd/ noun, pl -bends [count] Brit : a bend in a road or pipe in the shape of the letter S

SC abbr 1 South Carolina 2 supreme court scab /ˈskæb/ noun, pl scabs [count]

1 : a hard covering of dried blood that forms over a wound to cover and protect it as it heals
2 informal + disapproving : a worker who does not join a strike or who takes the place of another worker who is on strike scab•bard /ˈskæbəd/ noun, pl -bards [count] : a protective case for a sword that covers the blade sca•bies /ˈskeɪbiz/ noun [plural] : a disease that is caused by small insects and that causes itching and red spots on the skin sca•brous /ˈskæbrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 technical : having a rough surface ▪ scabrous skin/leaves
2 formal : referring to sex in a rude or shocking way ▪ a movie with scabrous humor scads /ˈskædz/ noun [plural] informal : a large amount of something — usually + of ▪ We have scads [=lots] of time left. ▪ scads of money

scaf•fold /ˈskæfəld/ noun, pl -folds [count]
1 : a temporary or movable platform or structure on which a person stands or sits while working high above the floor or ground
2 : a platform or structure on which criminals are killed by being hanged or beheaded ▪ The condemned man was led to the scaffold.

scaffold

scaf•fold•ing /ˈskæfəldɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the metal poles and wooden boards that are used to build or support a scaffold (sense 1) scal•able /ˈskeɪləbəl/ adj, technical : easy to make larger, more powerful, etc. ▪ a scalable computer network

– scal•abil•i•ty /ˌskeɪləˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

scal•a•wag (US) or chiefly Brit scal•ly•wag /ˈskælɪˌwæg/ noun, pl -wags [count] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a usually young person who causes trouble : RASCAL ▪ an amusing little scalawag

[1]scald /ˈskɑːld/ verb scalds; scald•ed; scald•ing [+ obj]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : to burn (someone or something) with hot liquid or steam ▪ The steam scalded his skin. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Tears scalded her face.
2 a : to put (something) in hot liquid or steam for a brief time ▪ Scald the tomatoes in boiling water so that you can peel them more easily. b : to heat (a liquid) until it is very hot but not boiling ▪ scald milk

[2]scald noun, pl scalds [count] : a burn left on the skin that is caused by hot liquid or steam scald•ing /ˈskɑːldɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very hot ▪ The men worked in the scalding sun. ▪ scalding hot water ▪ a scalding bowl of soup
2 : very critical : very harsh or severe ▪ a scalding [=scathing] review of the book

[1]scale /ˈskeɪl/ noun, pl scales : a device that is used for weighing people or things [count] (US) a bathroom scale [plural] (Brit) He stepped onto the bathroom scales. — see picture at BATHROOM tip the scales see [1]TIP
– compare [2]SCALE, [4]SCALE

[2]scale noun, pl scales [count] : one of many small thin plates that cover the bodies of some animals (such as fish or snakes) — compare [1]SCALE, [4]SCALE

[3]scale verb scales; scaled; scal•ing [+ obj] : to remove the scales from (a fish) ▪ You should scale, bone, and clean the fish before you cook it. — compare [5]SCALE

[4]scale noun, pl scales
1 [count] : a series of musical notes that go up or down in pitch ▪ the C-minor scale ▪ a major scale
2 [count] : a line on a map or chart that shows a specific unit of measure (such as an inch) used to represent a larger unit (such as a mile) : the relationship between the distances on a map and the actual distances ▪ The map uses a scale of one centimeter for every 10 kilometers.
3 [count] : a range of numbers that is used to show the size, strength, or quality of something — usually singular ▪ On a scale of 1 to 10, I give the movie a 9. [=the movie was extremely good] ▪ On a scale of 1 to 5—1 being mild pain and 5 being extreme pain—tell me how much pain you are in. — see also RICHTER SCALE
4 [count] : a range of levels of something from lowest to highest ▪ He is at the top of the pay scale for his position. ▪ Primates are high up on the evolutionary scale. — see also SLIDING SCALE
5 [noncount] — used to describe a model, drawing, etc., in which all of the parts of something relate to each other in the same way that they do in the larger form ▪ The model of the new city hall is to scale. [=the model shows exactly how the parts will relate to each other when it is built] ▪ The diagram was not drawn to scale. ▪ a scale model of a car
6 [singular] : the size or level of something especially in comparison to something else ▪ The company does things on a larger scale than most others. ▪ The mayor surveyed the full scale [=extent] of the damage. ▪ The war could impact the economy on a global scale. [=could impact the economy of the entire world] ▪ They exposed fraud on a grand scale. — see also FULL-SCALE, LARGE-SCALE, SMALL-SCALE
7 [noncount] technical : a hard substance that is formed in pipes or containers holding water
8 [noncount] Brit : a hard substance that forms on teeth : TARTAR ▪ buildup of plaque and scale on the teeth
– compare [1]SCALE, [2]SCALE

[5]scale verb scales; scaled; scaling [+ obj] : to climb to the top of (something) ▪ Hikers scaled the mountain. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She scaled the heights of the publishing industry. [=she rose to a very high position in the publishing industry] scale back/down [phrasal verb] scale back/down (something) or scale (something) back/down : to decrease the size, amount, or extent of (something) ▪ The committee scaled down the budget. ▪ The company has scaled back production. ▪ We scaled back our original plans.
scale up [phrasal verb] scale up (something) or scale (something) up : to increase the size, amount, or extent of (something) ▪ The company hopes to scale up production soon.
– compare [3]SCALE

scal•lion /ˈskæljən/ noun, pl -lions [count] US : GREEN ONION

scal•lop /ˈskɑːləp, ˈskæləp/ noun, pl -lops [count]
1 : a type of shellfish that has a flat, round shell with two parts and that is often eaten as food — see color picture on page C8
2 : one of a series of similar curves that form a decorative edge on something scal•loped /ˈskɑːləpt, ˈskæləpt/ adj

1 : baked in a sauce usually with bread crumbs on top ▪ scalloped potatoes
2 : having a series of similar, decorative curves along the edge ▪ a scalloped lace collar ▪ Her skirt had a scalloped hem.

scallywag chiefly Brit spelling of SCALAWAG

[1]scalp /ˈskælp/ noun, pl scalps [count]
1 : the skin on the top of your head where hair grows
2 : hair and skin that is cut or torn from the head of an enemy as a sign of victory — often used figuratively ▪ His boss wants his scalp. [=wants to fire him] ▪ Parents of some students are (going) after the principal's scalp.

[2]scalp verb scalps; scalped; scalp•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove the hair and skin from the head of (an enemy) as a sign of victory ▪ Some members of the tribe were scalped by the attacking warriors.
2 US : to buy tickets for an event and resell them at a much higher price ▪ People were scalping [=(Brit) touting] tickets outside the stadium.
– scalp•er noun, pl -ers [count] US ▪ ticket scalpers [=(Brit) ticket touts] scal•pel /ˈskælpəl/ noun, pl -pels [count] : a small knife with a thin, sharp blade that is used in surgery scaly /ˈskeɪli/ adj scal•i•er; -i•est [also more ~; most ~] : covered with scales or flakes ▪ a scaly crocodile ▪ His skin was dry and scaly.

[1]scam /ˈskæm/ noun, pl scams [count] : a dishonest way to make money by deceiving people ▪ She was the victim of an insurance scam. ▪ a sophisticated credit card scam ▪ a scam artist

[2]scam /ˈskæm/ verb scams; scammed; scam•ming [+ obj]
1 : to deceive and take money from (someone) ▪ The company scammed hundreds of people out of their life savings. ▪ I could tell they were scamming you and charging too much.
2 : to get (something, such as money) by deceiving someone ▪ They scammed a lot of money from unwary customers.
– scam•mer noun, pl -mers [count]

scamp /ˈskæmp/ noun, pl scamps [count] old-fashioned : a child who causes trouble usually in a playful way : RASCAL ▪ a mischievous little scamp scam•per /ˈskæmpɚ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -pers; -pered; -per•ing [no obj] : to run or move quickly and often playfully ▪ The kids were scampering around the yard. ▪ A mouse scampered across the floor.

scam•pi /ˈskæmpi/ noun [noncount]
1 US : a dish of large shrimp prepared with a garlic-flavored sauce ▪ shrimp scampi
2 Brit : large shrimp that are often breaded and fried ▪ scampi and chips scam•ster /ˈskæmstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count] informal : a person who deceives people to get their money : a person who scams people ▪ con artists, swindlers, and scamsters

[1]scan /ˈskæn/ verb scans; scanned; scan•ning
1 [+ obj] : to look at (something) carefully usually in order to find someone or something ▪ He scanned the field with binoculars. ▪ He scanned the audience looking for his parents. ▪ She scanned his face for any clue to what he was thinking. ▪ The program is scanning [=searching] the computer's files.
2 : to look over or read (something) quickly [+ obj] She quickly scanned the pages of the newspaper. [no obj] She scanned through the list to find her name.
3 [+ obj] : to look at the inside of (something) by using a special machine ▪ Their bags were scanned at the airport. ▪ This machine scans a patient's brain.
4 : to use a special machine to read or copy (something, such as a photograph or a page of text) into a computer [+ obj] She scanned her photos into her computer. ▪ scan in the number ▪ The cashier scanned the bar code on the box. [no obj] The bar code won't scan. [=the machine is unable to read the bar code]
5 [no obj] technical, of a poem : to have a correct or regular rhythm ▪ These lines do not scan.

[2]scan noun, pl scans [count]
1 : the act or process of scanning something: such as a : the act of looking at something carefully or quickly — usually singular ▪ a careful scan of the area ▪ The investigator did a full scan of the computer's files. ▪ She gave the list a quick scan. b : the act or process of using a special machine to see the inside of something (such as a part of the body) ▪ The patient underwent a brain scan.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : a picture of the inside of something that is made by a special machine ▪ The doctor examined the bone scans. — see also CAT SCAN scan•dal /ˈskændl/ noun, pl -dals

1 : an occurrence in which people are shocked and upset because of behavior that is morally or legally wrong [count] There was a major scandal involving the mayor's ties with the Mob. ▪ Government officials were caught in an embezzlement scandal. ▪ Her behavior caused a scandal at school. ▪ a drug/sex scandal [noncount] His actions brought scandal on the team. [=his actions disgraced the team] ▪ There was never a hint/trace of scandal during her time in office.
2 [noncount] : talk about the shocking or immoral things that people have done or are believed to have done ▪ The gossip magazine is filled with rumors and scandal.
3 [singular] : something that is shocking, upsetting, or unacceptable ▪ The high price of gas these days is a scandal. ▪ It's a scandal that this city doesn't have a movie theater.

scan•dal•ize also Brit scan•dal•ise /ˈskændəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to shock or offend (someone) by doing something immoral or illegal ▪ She was scandalized by her son's behavior.

scan•dal•ous /ˈskændələs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : shocking or offensive ▪ scandalous behavior ▪ Sex was a scandalous subject back then. ▪ The magazine published scandalous pictures of the movie star. ▪ The high price of gas these days is scandalous.
2 : involving immoral or shocking things that a person has done or is believed to have done ▪ scandalous allegations ▪ She was spreading scandalous rumors about him.
– scan•dal•ous•ly adv ▪ scandalously high prices

Scan•di•na•vian /ˌskændəˈneɪvijən/ noun, pl -vians [count] : a person born, raised, or living in the countries of Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway, and Denmark)
– Scandinavian adj ▪ Scandinavian furniture scan•ner /ˈskænəɹ/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a device that scans things: such as a : a device that reads or copies information or images into a computer ▪ a price scanner at a supermarket ▪ a photo scanner b : a device that is used to see inside something ▪ a luggage scanner c : a radio receiver that searches for a signal ▪ a police scanner [=a device that is used for listening to the police as they talk to each other over the radio] scant /ˈskænt/ adj : very small in size or amount ▪ Food was in scant supply. ▪ She paid scant attention to the facts. ▪ Police found scant evidence of fraud.

scanty /ˈskænti/ adj -i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : very small in size or amount ▪ The cheerleaders wore scanty outfits. ▪ scanty data synonyms see MEAGER – scant•i•ly /ˈskæntəli/ adv ▪ scantily dressed/clad dancers [=dancers wearing very little clothing]

scape•goat /ˈskeɪpˌgoʊt/ noun, pl -goats [count] : a person who is unfairly blamed for something that others have done ▪ The CEO was made the scapegoat for the company's failures.
– scapegoat verb -goats; -goat•ed; -goat•ing [+ obj] ▪ He was scapegoated for the company's failures. ▪ He's a victim of scapegoating.

scap•u•la /ˈskæpjələ/ noun, pl -lae /-ˌli:/ or -las [count] medical : SHOULDER BLADE

S

[1]scar /ˈskɑəɹ/ noun, pl scars [count]
1 : a mark that is left on your skin after a wound heals ▪ The operation left a scar on his stomach. ▪ the soldier's battle scars ▪ scar tissue
2 : a mark on something showing where it has been damaged ▪ The table had several scars on its top.
3 : a feeling of great emotional pain or sadness that is caused by a bad experience and that lasts for a long time ▪ The divorce left her with deep emotional scars.

[2]scar verb scars; scarred; scar•ring [+ obj]
1 : to mark (something) with a scar ▪ His arm was badly scarred after the accident.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel great emotional pain or sadness because of a bad experience ▪ The tragedy left her emotionally scarred. ▪ Divorce can scar a child for life. = Divorce can leave a child scarred for life.
3 : to make marks on (something) that show damage or wear ▪ Your shoes are scarring the floor. ▪ The fence was scarred by rust.

scar•ab /ˈskerəb/ noun, pl -abs [count] : a large beetle with a black shell ✧ In ancient Egypt the scarab was a symbol of good luck and eternal life.

[1]scarce /ˈskeəs/ adj scarc•er; scarc•est [also more ~; most ~] : very small in amount or number : not plentiful ▪ Food was getting scarce during the drought. ▪ scarce resources make yourself scarce informal : to leave so that you will not be seen in a certain place ▪ You'd better make yourself scarce before my parents get home.
– scarce•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The scarceness [=scarcity] of the metal made it valuable.

[2]scarce adv, literary : almost not at all : scarcely or hardly ▪ I could scarce believe what I was hearing.

scarce•ly /ˈskeəsli/ adv
1 : almost not at all : HARDLY ▪ He could scarcely control his joy. ▪ Scarcely a day goes by when they don't see or talk to each other.
2 : by only a small amount of time, space, etc. : BARELY ▪ I had scarcely [=only just] closed the door when the doorbell rang again. ▪ The truck scarcely [=just] made it underneath the low bridge. ▪ He had scarcely enough money.
3 : certainly not ▪ This is scarcely a time to laugh. ▪ I could scarcely tell them they were wrong.
scarcely ever see EVER scar•ci•ty /ˈskeəsəti/ noun, pl -ties : a very small supply : the state of being scarce [count] — usually singular ▪ There was a scarcity of food. [=there was very little food; there was not enough food] ▪ wartime scarcities [noncount] Scarcity of food forced the herds to move.

[1]scare /ˈskeəɹ/ verb scares; scared; scar•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to become afraid : FRIGHTEN ▪ You scared me. I didn't see you there. ▪ Stop that, you're scaring the children. ▪ The loud noise scared them. = They were scared by the loud noise. ▪ You nearly scared me to death. [=you scared me very much]
2 [no obj] : to become afraid ▪ I don't scare easily.
scare away/off [phrasal verb] scare (someone or something) away/off or scare away/off (someone or something) : to cause (someone or something) to go away and stay away because of fear or because of possible trouble, difficulty, etc. ▪ The dog scared the prowler away. ▪ The noise scared off the birds. ▪ Tourists have been scared off by the recent violence in the city. [=tourists have not visited the city because of the recent violence there] ▪ She finally found a man who's not scared away by the fact that she is a single mom raising two children.
scare into [phrasal verb] scare (someone) into (something) : to cause (someone) to do (something) because of fear ▪ The police scared him into confessing his crime. ▪ They tried to scare us into buying more insurance.
scare up [phrasal verb] scare (someone or something) up or scare up (someone or something) US, informal : to find or get (someone or something) with some difficulty ▪ We managed to scare up [=scrape up] the money. ▪ Let's try to scare up some people to play football.

[2]scare noun, pl scares [count]
1 : a sudden feeling of fear ▪ You gave me (quite) a scare. [=you scared me] ▪ She had a pregnancy scare. [=she was afraid she was pregnant]
2 : a situation in which a lot of people become afraid because of some threat, danger, etc. ▪ There have been scares about the water supply being contaminated. ▪ a bomb scare [=a situation in which people are afraid because someone says that a bomb is going to explode] – scare adj, always used before a noun ▪ a scare story about a possible epidemic ▪ They used scare tactics to teach their children not to smoke cigarettes.

scare•crow /ˈskeəˌkroʊ/ noun, pl -crows [count] : an object that looks like a person and that is placed in a field to scare birds away from crops scared adj [more ~; most ~] : afraid of something : nervous or frightened ▪ The rabbit looked scared. ▪ I am really scared about speaking in front of the class. ▪ He was scared that his mother wouldn't let him go to the movies with his friends. ▪ She's scared to walk alone at night. ▪ The children got scared [=became frightened] and ran away. — often + of ▪ He was scared of asking her out. ▪ She's scared of snakes. ▪ I want to look in the file, but I'm scared of what I'll find. ▪ She was scared to death of flying. = She was scared stiff of flying. [=she was very scared of flying] scaredy–cat /ˈskeəɹdiˌkæt/ noun, pl -cats [count] informal : someone who is very afraid of something — used mainly by children or when speaking to children ▪ Don't be a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 58 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

scaredy-cat. The frog won't hurt you.

scare•mon•ger•ing /ˈskeəˌmɑːŋgərɪŋ, ˈskeəˌmʌŋgərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] formal + disapproving : the act or practice of saying things to make people afraid ▪ They used scaremongering about the economy to influence voters.

– scare•mon•ger /ˈskeəˌmɑːŋgə, ˈskeəˌmʌŋgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] ▪ scaremongers warning the public of global catastrophe

[1]scarf /ˈskɑəf/ noun, pl scarves /ˈskɑəvz/ or scarfs [count] : a long piece of cloth that is worn on your shoulders, around your neck, or over your head — see color picture on page C15

[2]scarf verb scarfs; scarfed; scarf•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to eat (something) quickly ▪ I scarfed [=(chiefly Brit) scoffed] a big breakfast. — often + down ▪ He scarfed down his lunch and went right back outside.

scarf up [phrasal verb] scarf (something) up or scarf up (something) US, informal : to take (something) in a quick and eager way ▪ People scarfed up [=snapped up] the free gifts.

scar•let /ˈskɑələt/ noun, pl -lets [count, noncount] : a bright red color — see color picture on page C3

– scarlet adj ▪ a bird with scarlet feathers scarlet fever noun [noncount] : a very serious disease that causes a fever, sore throat, and a red rash scary /ˈskeri/ adj scar•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : causing fear ▪ a scary [=frightening] movie ▪ The stranger is scary looking. = He looks scary. = He's scary looking.

– scar•i•ly /ˈskerəli/ adv ▪ a scarily accurate prediction ▪ Scarily, the story is true. – scar•i•ness noun [noncount]

[1]scat /ˈskæt/ interj — used to scare away an animal

[2]scat noun [noncount] : jazz singing with sounds or words that mean nothing scath•ing /ˈskeɪðɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : very harsh or severe ▪ a scathing review of the book ▪ a scathing look/comment

– scath•ing•ly adv

scat•o•log•i•cal /ˌskætəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : relating to things that are disgusting or offensive ▪ scatological humor

[1]scat•ter /ˈskætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (things or people) to separate and go in different directions ▪ The wind scattered the pile of leaves. b [no obj] : to separate and go in different directions ▪ The crowd scattered [=dispersed] when the police arrived. ▪ The marbles scattered across the floor.

2 [+ obj] : to place or leave (things) in different places ▪ He scattered [=spread] the grass seed over the soil. ▪ She scattered the books on the table. ▪ He scatters his toys all around the house.

[2]scatter noun [singular] : a small number or group of things placed or found apart from each other — usually + of ▪ There was a scatter of empty cans and bottles on the lawn. ▪ a scatter of houses along the river scat•ter•brain /ˈskætəˌbreɪn/ noun, pl -brains [count] informal : a person who is unable to concentrate or think clearly ▪ Where did I put my keys? I'm such a scatterbrain today.

– scat•ter•brained /ˈskætəˌbreɪnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ scatterbrained people ▪ scatterbrained ideas scatter cushion noun, pl ~ -ions [count] Brit : THROW PILLOW scattered adj : placed or found far apart ▪ The toys were scattered all over the house. ▪ Clothes were scattered about the room. ▪ The weather forecast calls for scattered [=occasional] showers all day. ▪ Houses are scattered along the river. ▪ My family is scattered throughout the country.

scat•ter•ing /ˈskætərɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a small number or group of things or people that are seen or found at different places or times — usually + of ▪ The museum had a scattering of visitors last week. ▪ There were scatterings of geese in the park.

scatter rug noun, pl ~ rugs [count] : THROW RUG

scat•ty /ˈskæti/ adj scat•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : not having or showing the ability to think clearly ▪ My scatty [=scatterbrained] mother is always losing her keys.

scav•enge /ˈskævənʤ/ verb -eng•es; -enged; -eng•ing

1 of an animal : to search for food to eat [no obj] Rats scavenged in the trash. — often + for ▪ The bears scavenged for food in the woods. [+ obj] The bears scavenged the woods for food.

2 : to search through waste, junk, etc., for something that can be saved or used [no obj] — often + for ▪ They scavenged for antiques at the flea market. [+ obj] He scavenged the town dump for automobile parts.

– scav•en•ger /ˈskævənʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] scavenger hunt noun, pl ~ hunts [count] : a game in which players try to find specified items within a particular period of time

sce•nar•io /səˈnerijoʊ, Brit səˈnɑːriəʊ/ noun, pl -ios [count]

1 : a description of what could possibly happen ▪ A possible scenario would be that we move to the city. ▪ The most likely scenario is that he goes back to school in the fall. ▪ The best-case scenario would be for us to finish the work by tomorrow. ▪ In the worst-case scenario, we would have to start the project all over again.

2 formal : a written description of a play, movie, opera, etc.

scene /ˈsiːn/ noun, pl scenes

1 [count] a : a division of an act in a play during which the action takes place in a single place without a break in time ▪ The play's opening scene takes place in the courtyard. ▪ Act I, Scene 3 b : a part of a play, movie, story, etc., in which a particular action or activity occurs ▪ a famous love/fight/chase scene ▪ The actor was nervous about his big scene.

2 [count] : a view or sight that looks like a picture ▪ a winter scene ▪ scenes [=images] of poverty

3 [count] : the place of an event or action ▪ This is the scene [=location] where the movie was filmed. ▪ a crime scene ▪ Police are now at/on the scene. — often + of ▪ the scene of the crime/attack/accident ▪ The scene [=setting] of the story is New York City in the 1920s.

4 [count] : an occurrence in which someone becomes angry and loud in a noticeable way in a public place — usually singular ▪ There was quite an ugly/angry scene at the restaurant. ▪ The little boy made a scene because his mother wouldn't buy him candy.

5 [noncount] a : a particular area of activity that involves many people ▪ The music scene is changing in the city. ▪ The nightclub scene isn't for me. = (informal) Nightclubs are not my scene. [=I do not like to go to nightclubs] ▪ He is new to the political scene. [=arena] ▪ After years of making movies, she suddenly vanished from the scene. b : someone's usual area of activity or surroundings : the place where someone lives, works, etc. — used in the phrase change of scene ▪ I'm sick of the cold weather. I need a change of scene. [=I need to go somewhere else]

6 [count] : something that happens : an event or occurrence ▪ The book describes scenes [=episodes] from his childhood. — often + of ▪ scenes of violence ▪ a scene of celebration behind the scenes : in or into a private or secret place where things are done without being seen or known by the public ▪ The workers behind the scenes have made the event a success. ▪ They made the deal behind the scenes. ▪ We were taken behind the scenes to see the making of the movie. — see also BEHIND-THE-SCENES

enter the scene see ENTER on the scene — used to say that someone or something is or has become an important part of a situation, activity, etc. ▪ She was lonely for a while, but now there's a new boyfriend on the scene. [=she has a new boyfriend] ▪ a popular singer who first burst on the scene last year ▪ Our lives have changed a lot since computers have come/appeared on the scene. — see also SCENE 3 (above) set the scene 1 : to give someone information that is needed to understand something ▪ Before I tell the story, let me set the scene (for you). 2 : to create the conditions in which something can happen ▪ His comments set the scene for an argument.

scen•ery /ˈsiːnəri/ noun [noncount]

1 : the walls, furniture, trees, etc., that are used on a stage during a play or other performance to show where the action is taking place ▪ She designed the scenery for the play. ▪ The scenery showed a forest/bedroom.

2 : a view of natural features (such as mountains, hills, valleys, etc.) that is pleasing to look at ▪ beautiful mountain scenery ▪ We went for a drive to enjoy the scenery.

3 : the things that can be seen where a person lives, works, etc. — used in the phrase change of scenery ▪ He was looking for a new job because he felt he needed a change of scenery. [=he needed to be in a different place] ▪ We decided to go to a new restaurant for a change of scenery.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sce•nic /ˈsi:nɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having, providing, or relating to a pleasing or beautiful view of natural scenery (such as mountains, hills, valleys, etc.) ▪ the scenic beauty of the countryside ▪ Our hotel had a scenic view of the lake. ▪ a scenic route/drive ▪ The country around here is very scenic.

[1]scent /ˈsɛnt/ noun, pl scents
1 [count] a : a pleasant smell that is produced by something ▪ The flower has a wonderful scent. ▪ the scent of flowers/perfume b : a smell that is left by an animal or person and that can be sensed and followed by some animals (such as dogs) ▪ The dogs followed the fox's scent. ▪ The prisoner escaped because the dogs lost his scent. — often used figuratively ▪ The reporter was on the scent of a big story. [=was following/investigating a big story] ▪ Scientists are on the scent of a cure. [=are looking for and are close to finding a cure] ▪ He was being investigated by federal officials but he somehow managed to put them off the/his scent.
2 [singular] a : a slight indication of something that is going to happen or that might happen ▪ There was a scent [=hint] of trouble in the air. [=trouble was developing] b : a quality that suggests or shows the existence of something ▪ Her story has a/the scent of truth. [=her story seems to be true]
3 [count, noncount] : a liquid that is put on your body to give it a pleasant odor : PERFUME ▪ a bottle of scent

[2]scent verb scents; scent•ed; scent•ing [+ obj]
1 : to become aware of (something) by smell ▪ The dog scented a rabbit. — often used figuratively ▪ We scented [=sensed, detected] trouble and left. ▪ The reporter scented a big story.
2 : to give (something) a pleasing smell ▪ Roses scented [=perfumed] the air. ▪ She scented her handkerchief. ▪ She scented the air with perfume. — often used as (be) scented ▪ The room was scented by the flowers. ▪ The air was scented with/by her perfume.

scent•ed /ˈsɛntəd/ adj : having a pleasing smell ▪ sweetly scented flowers/oils ▪ The soap is scented. ▪ a pine-scented candle

scep•ter (US) or Brit scep•tre /ˈsɛptə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a long decorated stick that is carried by a king or queen sceptic, sceptical, scepticism chiefly Brit spellings of SKEPTIC, SKEPTICAL, SKEPTICISM

scha•den•freu•de /ˈʃɑ:dn̩ˌfrɔɪdə/ noun [noncount] formal : a feeling of enjoyment that comes from seeing or hearing about the troubles of other people

[1]sched•ule /ˈskɛˌʤu:l, Brit ˈʃɛˌdju:l/ noun, pl -ules
1 : a plan of things that will be done and the times when they will be done [count] I have a hectic/busy/full schedule this week. ▪ Students are planning their class/course schedules for next year. ▪ I have a flexible schedule [=I can change the times when I need to do things], so I can meet you at any time. ▪ Sorting the mail is part of her daily schedule. ▪ We have a tight schedule to get this project done. [=we have a small amount of time to finish the project] [noncount] The bus arrived on schedule. [=on time; arrived at the time it was expected] ▪ So far, everything is on schedule. [=everything is happening at the time that was planned] ▪ The builders were ahead of schedule. [=the builders were completing work earlier than planned] ▪ If we get too far behind/off schedule [=if we do things later than planned] we will not be able to catch up later. ▪ The project is going according to schedule. [=things are happening as planned]
2 [count] a : a written or printed list of things and the times when they will be done ▪ I lost my class/course schedule. b US : a list of the times when buses, trains, airplanes, etc., leave or arrive ▪ a bus/train/airplane/flight schedule [=(Brit) timetable] c : a list of the television or radio programs that are on a particular channel and the times that they begin ▪ a programming schedule d : a list of prices or rates ▪ the doctor's fee schedule ▪ a tax schedule

[2]schedule verb -ules; -uled; -ul•ing [+ obj] : to plan (something) at a certain time ▪ We scheduled a meeting for next week. ▪ I need to schedule a doctor's appointment. — often used as (be) scheduled ▪ The release of the movie/album is scheduled for next month. ▪ The bus arrived earlier than (it was) scheduled. ▪ I am scheduled to arrive at noon. ▪ The test is scheduled to begin in one hour. ▪ The train will be leaving as scheduled. [=on time; will be leaving at the planned time]
– scheduled adj ▪ a list of the scheduled events ▪ The plane's scheduled arrival/departure is midnight.

sche•mat•ic /skɪˈmætɪk/ adj, technical : showing the main parts of something usually in the form of a simple drawing or diagram ▪ a schematic diagram/representation of their business model

[1]scheme /ˈski:m/ noun, pl schemes [count]
1 : a clever and often dishonest plan to do or get something ▪ a scheme [=plot] to seize control of the government ▪ a scheme to cheat people out of their money — see also PYRAMID SCHEME
2 chiefly Brit : an official plan or program of action ▪ The company has a new scheme for insurance coverage. ▪ a scheme to improve the economy ▪ a training/pension/marketing scheme
3 : the way that something is arranged or organized ▪ the color/decorative scheme of a room ▪ a poem's rhyme scheme
the scheme of things : the general way that things are organized and relate to each other ▪ Everyone has their role to play in the (overall) scheme of things. ▪ Our problems aren't really that important in the grand scheme of things. [=aren't really that important when you think about the larger situation]

[2]scheme verb schemes; schemed; schem•ing [no obj] : to make plans to do or get something in a secret and often dishonest way ▪ He felt that the other men were scheming against him. ▪ He was betrayed by a scheming friend. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She schemed [=plotted] to take control of the company from her brother.
– schem•er noun, pl -ers [count]

scher•zo /ˈskeəʳtsoʊ/ noun, pl -zos [count] formal : a lively, humorous piece of music that is played quickly schism /ˈsɪzəm, ˈskɪzəm/ noun, pl schisms formal : a division among the members of a group that occurs because they disagree on something [count] a schism between leading members of the party ▪ The controversy created a schism [=rift] in the group. [noncount] The church was divided by schism.

– schis•mat•ic /ˌsɪzˈmætɪk, ˌskɪzˈmætɪk/ adj ▪ schismatic groups schist /ˈʃɪst/ noun [noncount] technical : a type of rock that can be broken into thin, flat pieces

schiz•oid /ˈskɪtˌsoɪd/ adj
1 technical : relating to or having schizophrenia ▪ schizoid symptoms/patients
2 : changing frequently between opposite states ▪ With his schizoid nature, you never know whether he will disagree or agree with you. ▪ The biography shows how schizoid [=changeable, varied] his career has been.

schizo•phre•nia /ˌskɪtsəˈfri:nijə/ noun [noncount] technical : a very serious mental illness in which someone cannot think or behave normally and often experiences delusions

[1]schizo•phren•ic /ˌskɪtsəˈfrɛnɪk/ adj
1 technical : relating to or having schizophrenia ▪ schizophrenic symptoms/patients ▪ She has been diagnosed as schizophrenic.
2 : changing frequently between opposite states ▪ He criticized the government's schizophrenic foreign policy.

[2]schizophrenic noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who has schizophrenia schlep or schlepp /ˈʃlɛp/ verb schleps or schlepps; schlepped; schlep•ping [+ obj] US, informal : to carry or pull (something) with difficulty : to drag or haul (something) ▪ We schlepped our luggage through the airport.

schlock /ˈʃlɑ:k/ noun [noncount] US, informal + usually disapproving : things that are of low quality or value ▪ a film director who's known as a master of schlock
– schlock adj ▪ schlock horror movies – schlocky /ˈʃlɑ:ki/ adj schlock•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ a movie with schlocky special effects schmaltz also schmalz /ˈʃmɑ:lts/ noun [noncount] informal + disapproving : music, art, etc., that is very sad or romantic in usually a foolish or exaggerated way ▪ The movie has too much schmaltz for me. ▪ orchestral schmaltz

– schmaltzy /ˈʃmɑ:ltsi/ adj schmaltz•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ a schmaltzy love story ▪ The music is very schmaltzy.

schmo or schmoe /ˈʃmoʊ/ noun, pl schmoes [count] US slang : an ordinary person who is not interesting or unusual in any way ▪ They treated us like a bunch of schmoes. ▪ I'm just an ordinary schmo trying to make a living.

schmooze or shmooze /ˈʃmu:z/ verb schmooz•es or shmooz•es; schmoozed or shmoozed; schmooz•ing or shmooz•ing informal : to talk with someone in a friendly way often in order to get some advantage for yourself [no obj] People will have time to schmooze during the cocktail

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

hour. — often + with ▪ She schmoozed with the reporters/boss. [+ obj] He schmoozed his teachers.
– schmooz•er /ˈʃmuːzə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

schmuck /ʃmʌk/ noun, pl schmucks [count] US slang : a stupid or foolish person : JERK ▪ I can't believe what a schmuck that guy is.

schnapps /ʃnæps/ noun, pl schnapps [count, noncount] : a type of strong liquor schol•ar /ˈskɑːlə/ noun, pl -ars [count]

1 : a person who has studied a subject for a long time and knows a lot about it : an intelligent and well-educated person who knows a particular subject very well ▪ a biblical/classical/literary/Shakespearean scholar ▪ She's a renowned scholar of African-American history.
2 : someone who has been given a scholarship ▪ a Rhodes scholar

schol•ar•ly /ˈskɑːləli/ adj
1 : concerned with or relating to formal study or research ▪ His writings have been recently given scholarly attention. ▪ She has a scholarly interest in music. ▪ a scholarly study of words and their origins ▪ scholarly journals/work/writings
2 [more ~; most ~] : having the characteristics of a scholar ▪ a very serious and scholarly young man [=a young man who studies serious subjects and who is learning or has learned a lot about those subjects]

schol•ar•ship /ˈskɑːləˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 [count] : an amount of money that is given by a school, an organization, etc., to a student to help pay for the student's education ▪ She got/received/won a scholarship to Yale University. ▪ The organization is offering five $5,000 scholarships. ▪ He is going to college on a football scholarship. [=a scholarship offered for his ability to play football] ▪ She is attending college on a full scholarship. [=a scholarship that pays fully for a student's tuition]
2 [noncount] : serious formal study or research of a subject ▪ The essay is a work of serious scholarship. ▪ standards of academic scholarship ▪ The book is about his life and scholarship. ▪ biblical/literary scholarship

Scholarship level noun, pl ~ levels [count] Brit : S LEVEL

scho•las•tic /skəˈlæstɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to education ▪ scholastic achievement/aptitude

[1]school /ˈskuːl/ noun, pl schools
1 a : a place where children go to learn [count] He is going to a different school this year. ▪ The town is building a new school. [noncount] Where do you go to school? ▪ He learned to play the flute at/in school. ▪ Their daughter will start attending school next year. ▪ He left/quit school [=he stopped going to school] when he was 16. — often used before another noun ▪ the school building/newspaper ▪ school lunches/functions/plays/friends ▪ The town has an excellent school system. [=the schools in the town are excellent] b US : a college or university [count] He is transferring to a different school next semester. [noncount] He goes to school in New York. ▪ He is attending law/business/medical school. ▪ She is away at school. c [count] : a division within a university or college for study and research in a particular area of knowledge — usually singular ▪ She is a student at the law/business/medical school. — often + of ▪ the school of art/engineering d [count] : a place where people go to learn a particular skill ▪ acting/driving/language schools
2 [noncount] a : the activity or process of learning or teaching in a school ▪ School is hard for her. ▪ Their daughter will start school next year. ▪ (US) Where do you teach school? ▪ (US) My parents won't let me get a job while I'm in school. = (Brit) My parents won't let me get a job while I'm at school. [=while I am a student in a school] ▪ Stay in school and get your diploma. ▪ He never did well in school. b : the period of time during which students are in school ▪ I missed school yesterday. ▪ He was late for school. [=he was not at the school on time] ▪ Let's meet after school. ▪ School starts at 8:00 a.m. — often used before another noun ▪ the school day/year
3 [count] : the students or students and teachers of a school ▪ The whole school was at the assembly. ▪ Five schools donated money to the homeless shelter.
4 [count] : a group of people who share the same opinions, beliefs, or methods ▪ artists from the Impressionist/Romantic school — often + of ▪ the German school of philosophers/philosophy ▪ a new school of painters/painting ▪ The two authors come from different schools of writing. ▪ There are two main schools of thought [=ways of thinking] on that topic.
– compare [3]SCHOOL

[2]school verb schools; schooled; school•ing [+ obj] somewhat old-fashioned : to teach or train (someone or something) to do something ▪ They schooled their children at home. — often + in ▪ She schooled herself in patience. — often used as (be) schooled ▪ He is schooled in five different languages. ▪ The horse is well schooled. [=trained]

[3]school noun, pl schools [count] : a large group of fish or other ocean animals that are swimming together ▪ Fish swim in schools. — often + of ▪ a school of fish/dolphins — compare [1]SCHOOL school age noun [noncount] : the age when a child is allowed to go to a school ▪ children of school age – school–age adj, always used before a noun ▪ school-age children school•bag /ˈskuːlˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] : a bag for carrying schoolbooks and school supplies school board noun, pl ~ boards [count] US : a group of people who are in charge of local schools — called also (US) school committee school•book /ˈskuːlˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book that is used in schools : TEXTBOOK school•boy /ˈskuːlˌbɔɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] : a boy who goes to a school – schoolboy adj, always used before a noun ▪ schoolboy [=childish, childlike] pranks/humor school bus noun, pl ~ buses [count] : a bus for carrying children to and from a school school•child /ˈskuːlˌʧajəld/ noun, pl -children [count] : a child who goes to a school school district noun, pl ~ -tricts [count] US : an area or region containing the schools that a school board is in charge of school•girl /ˈskuːlˌgəl/ noun, pl -girls [count] : a girl who goes to a school school•house /ˈskuːlˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -houses [count] : a building that is used as a school schooling noun [noncount] : teaching that is done in a school : EDUCATION ▪ public schooling ▪ He has had little schooling.

school•kid /ˈskuːlˌkɪd/ noun, pl -kids [count] informal : a child or teenager who goes to a school school–leav•er /ˈskuːlˌliːvə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : someone who has left school usually after completing a course of study instead of continuing on to a college or university ▪ School-leavers are having trouble finding jobs.

school•marm /ˈskuːlˌmɑəm/ also school•ma'am /ˈskuːlˌmæm/ noun, pl -marms or -ma'ams [count] US, old-fashioned : a woman who teaches in a school in a small town or in the country ▪ a New England schoolmarm school•mas•ter /ˈskuːlˌmæstə, Brit ˈskuːlˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] old-fashioned : a man who teaches in a school school•mate /ˈskuːlˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : someone who goes to or went to the same school as you ▪ my old schoolmates school•mis•tress /ˈskuːlˌmɪstrəs/ noun, pl -tress [count] old-fashioned : a woman who teaches in a school school•room /ˈskuːlˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room where classes meet in a school : CLASSROOM school•teach•er /ˈskuːlˌtiːʧə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who teaches in a school school•work /ˈskuːlˌwək/ noun [noncount] : work that is done in classes in a school or given to students to be done at home — compare HOMEWORK school•yard /ˈskuːlˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : the area next to or surrounding a school where children play schoo•ner /ˈskuːnə/ noun, pl -ners [count]

1 : a ship that has usually two masts with the larger mast located toward the center and the shorter mast toward the front
2 : a large, tall glass ▪ (US) a schooner of beer/ale ▪ (Brit) a schooner of sherry schtick variant spelling of SHTICK schwa /ʃwɑː/ noun, pl schwas [count] technical 1 : a vowel that has the sound of the first and last vowels of the English word America

2 : the symbol ə that is used for the schwa sound sci•at•ic /saɪˈætɪk/ adj, medical : relating to or near the hip ▪ sciatic pains sci•at•i•ca /saɪˈætɪkə/ noun [noncount] medical : pain in the lower back, hip, and especially the back of the thigh that is caused by pressure on the sciatic nerve

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sciatic nerve noun, pl ~ nerves [count] medical : a nerve that goes from the lower back down the back of the leg

sci•ence /'sajəns/ noun, pl -enc•es
1 [noncount] : knowledge about or study of the natural world based on facts learned through experiments and observation ▪ modern science ▪ the laws of science ▪ The program encourages students to pursue a career in science. ▪ a list of terms commonly used in science ▪ a new branch/field of science ▪ advances in science and technology — often used before another noun ▪ science teachers/students/classes ▪ Each student is required to complete two science projects.
2 [count] : a particular area of scientific study (such as biology, physics, or chemistry) : a particular branch of science ▪ Students are required to take two sciences. ▪ students majoring in a science — see also COMPUTER SCIENCE, LIFE SCIENCE, NATURAL SCIENCE, PHYSICAL SCIENCE, ROCKET SCIENCE
3 [count] : a subject that is formally studied in a college, university, etc. ▪ the science of linguistics — see also POLITICAL SCIENCE, SOCIAL SCIENCE
4 [singular] : an activity that is done by using methods that are known to produce particular results ▪ Proper pitching is a science. ▪ Cooking is both a science and an art. ▪ He travels so much that he has packing his clothes down to a science. [=he can pack his clothes very quickly and efficiently because he does it so often] science fair noun, pl ~ fairs [count] : an event at which science projects created by students are shown and often judged for prizes ▪ She won first place at the science fair.

science fiction noun [noncount] : stories about how people and societies are affected by imaginary scientific developments in the future ▪ Time travel exists only in the realm of science fiction. ▪ a science-fiction movie/writer science park noun, pl ~ parks [count] chiefly Brit : RESEARCH PARK

sci•en•tif•ic /ˌsajən'tɪfɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to science ▪ scientific techniques/knowledge/research ▪ the scientific community
2 [more ~; most ~] : done in an organized way that agrees with the methods and principles of science ▪ scientific thinking/reasoning ▪ a scientific approach — opposite UNSCIENTIFIC
– sci•en•tif•i•cal•ly /ˌsajən'tɪfɪkli/ adv

scientific method noun
the scientific method technical : the process that is used by scientists for testing ideas and theories by using experiments and careful observation

sci•en•tist /'sajəntɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] : a person who is trained in a science and whose job involves doing scientific research or solving scientific problems ▪ a soil/marine/computer scientist sci–fi /'saɪ'faɪ/ noun [noncount] informal : SCIENCE FICTION ▪ She enjoys watching sci-fi.

– sci–fi adj ▪ a sci-fi novel/story/movie scim•i•tar /'sɪmɪtə/ noun, pl -tars [count] : a sword with a curved blade that was used in the past especially in the Middle East and western Asia scin•til•la /sɪn'tɪlə/ noun [singular] : a very small amount of something — usually used in negative statements ▪ There's not even a scintilla of evidence to support his story.

scin•til•lating /'sɪntəˌleɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very clever, amusing, and interesting ▪ a scintillating lecture/discussion

sci•on /'sajən/ noun, pl -ons [count]
1 formal : a person who was born into a rich, famous, or important family ▪ He's a scion of a powerful family.
2 botany : a piece of a plant that is attached to part of another plant scis•sors /'sɪzəz/ noun [plural] : a tool used for cutting paper, cloth, etc., that has two blades joined together in the middle so that the sharp edges slide against each other ▪ He handed her the scissors. = He handed her a pair of scissors.

scissors

scle•ro•sis /sklə'roʊsəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which soft parts inside the body (such as arteries or muscles) become hard — see also MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS
– scle•rot•ic /sklə'rɑːtɪk/ adj ▪ sclerotic patients/tissue

[1]scoff /'skɑːf/ verb scoffs; scoffed; scoff•ing : to laugh at and talk about someone or something in a way that shows disapproval and a lack of respect [no obj] He scoffed when she told him that she planned to become an actress. ▪ He scoffed at the idea/notion/suggestion of her becoming an actress. [+ obj] "You! An actress?!" he scoffed. "You have no more talent than I do!" — compare [2]SCOFF

[2]scoff verb scoffs; scoffed; scoffing [+ obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to eat (something) quickly ▪ She scoffed [=(US) scarfed] her breakfast. — compare [1]SCOFF

[1]scold /'skoʊld/ verb scolds; scold•ed; scold•ing [+ obj] : to speak in an angry or critical way to (someone who has done something wrong) ▪ He scolded [=reprimanded] the children for making a mess. ▪ The article scolds [=(more formally) berates, upbraids] the United Nations for not doing enough about the situation. ▪ "You should never have done that," she scolded.
– scolding noun, pl -ings [count] — usually singular ▪ The children got a scolding for making a mess. [noncount] Scolding was not necessary.

[2]scold noun, pl scolds [count] : a person who often criticizes other people in an angry way : someone who scolds other people too often ▪ He can be a bit of a scold sometimes.

sconce /'skɑːns/ noun, pl sconc•es [count] : an object that is attached to a wall and that holds a candle or an electric light — see picture at LIGHTING

scone /'skoʊn, 'skɑːn/ noun, pl scones [count] : a small, often sweet bread that sometimes has pieces of dried fruit in it — see picture at BAKING

[1]scoop /'skuːp/ noun, pl scoops
1 [count] a : a kitchen tool like a spoon that has a usually thick handle and a deep bowl for taking something from a container ▪ an ice-cream scoop ▪ a flour scoop b : something that is shaped like a bowl or bucket and used to pick up and move things ▪ a backhoe with a large scoop ▪ the scoop of a shovel [=the part of a shovel that is like a bowl] c : the amount of something that is held in a scoop ▪ a scoop [=scoopful] of ice cream
2 [count] : a news story that is reported before other news reporters know about it ▪ The story turned out to be the political scoop of the year.
3 the scoop US, informal : information about something that is currently important or happening or that is interesting to many people ▪ Did you talk to him? What's the scoop? [=what did he say?; what is happening?] ▪ She always knows the scoop. ▪ Here's the scoop on how to clean leather. ▪ I was with them when it happened, so I've got the inside scoop. [=information known only by a particular group of people]
4 [count] : the act of picking up something with a quick, continuous motion : the act of scooping something ▪ With one scoop, he gathered up all the clothes on the floor.
– scoop•ful /'skuːpˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls [count] ▪ a scoopful [=scoop] of ice cream ▪ scoopfuls of dirt

[2]scoop verb scoops; scooped; scoop•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to pick up and move (something) with a scoop, a spoon, etc. ▪ She has a job scooping ice cream. ▪ He scooped flour into the bowl. ▪ A backhoe was scooping dirt from the hole. ▪ The children scooped handfuls of marbles from the pile. — often + out ▪ Cut the melon in half and scoop the seeds out. ▪ He scooped out the leaves from the pool with the net. b : to pick up (something or someone) in one quick, continuous motion ▪ He scooped the dice off the table and rolled again. — often + up ▪ She quickly scooped up her child. ▪ The shortstop scooped the ball up and threw it to first base.
2 : to make (a hole, hollow, etc.) by using a scoop, spoon, etc. ▪ Scoop a hole in the dough for the filling. — often + out ▪ The mother turtle scoops [=digs] out a hollow in the sand and lays her eggs in it. ▪ a lake that was scooped out by glaciers long ago
3 : to report a news story before (any other newspaper, news program, etc.) ▪ The city's biggest newspaper got scooped by a weekly paper that released the story a full day before.
4 Brit, informal : to win (something, such as a large prize or reward) ▪ He managed to scoop first place.
scoop up [phrasal verb] scoop up (something) or scoop (something) up informal : to take or buy (something) in a quick and eager way ▪ Customers scooped up [=scarfed up] the free samples. — see also [2]SCOOP 1b (above)
– scoop•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an ice-cream scooper scoop neck noun, pl ~ necks [count] : a round, low neck-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 59 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

line on a woman's shirt or dress — called also scoop neckline scoot /ˈskuːt/ verb scoots; scoot•ed; scoot•ing informal 1 [no obj] : to go or leave suddenly and quickly ▪ I'm late, so I have to scoot. [=run] ▪ She talked to us for a few minutes before scooting off to some appointment.

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition, chiefly US : to move (yourself, your chair, etc.) a short distance in a particular direction [+ obj] She scooted her chair back a few inches. [no obj] He scooted closer to the table. — often + over ▪ She scooted over so he could sit down. ▪ Can you scoot over a little?

scoot•er /ˈskuːtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a child's vehicle that is made of a narrow board with two small wheels attached underneath and an upright handle attached on top and that is moved by pushing with one foot while holding onto the handle
2 : MOTOR SCOOTER

scooter

[1]scope /ˈskoʊp/ noun
1 : the area that is included in or dealt with by something [noncount] The essay is sweeping/comprehensive in scope. [=the essay includes information, ideas, etc., about many topics] ▪ The law is of limited scope. [=the law applies only to a few situations, people, etc.] ▪ I was impressed by the size and scope of the book. ▪ That problem is somewhat beyond the scope of this discussion. ▪ We want to widen the scope of the study. [singular] This study has a wider/broader scope than previous studies on the subject have had.
2 [noncount] : space or opportunity for action, thought, etc. ▪ A bigger budget will allow more scope [=room] for innovation. ▪ The work has been good, but there's still some scope for improvement.
– compare [2]SCOPE

[2]scope noun, pl scopes [count] chiefly US : an instrument (such as a telescope or microscope) that is used to look at things ▪ We looked through the scope at the moon. ▪ the scope of a rifle — compare [1]SCOPE

[3]scope verb scopes; scoped; scop•ing scope out [phrasal verb] scope (someone or something) out or scope out (someone or something) US, informal : to look at (someone or something) especially in order to get information ▪ They scoped out [=checked out] the area before setting up the tent. ▪ Players were scoping out the competition. ▪ He wants to scope out [=consider, examine] all of the possibilities before deciding what to do.

[1]scorch /ˈskoɚʧ/ verb scorch•es; scorched; scorch•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to burn the surface of (something) ▪ Roast the peanuts while being careful not to scorch them. ▪ The hot pan scorched the table. b [no obj] : to be burned on the surface ▪ The fabric/material scorches at high temperatures.
2 [+ obj] : to damage (something) by making it extremely dry ▪ The hot sun scorched the grass. ▪ The land was scorched by drought.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] Brit, informal : to travel very fast ▪ The car went scorching down the street.
– scorched adj ▪ Dinner is a bit scorched. [=burned] ▪ scorched grass scorched–earth /ˈskoɚʧtˈɚθ/ adj — used to describe a military policy in which all the houses, crops, factories, etc., in an area are destroyed so that an enemy cannot use them ▪ The retreating army adopted a scorched-earth policy.

[2]scorch noun, pl scorches [count] : a damaged area or mark that is caused by burning ▪ There was a scorch (mark) on the tabletop.

scorch•er /ˈskoɚʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a very hot day ▪ Tomorrow is going to be a real scorcher.

scorching adj : very hot ▪ several days of scorching heat ▪ a scorching summer afternoon – scorching adv ▪ The day was scorching hot. [=extremely hot]

[1]score /ˈskoɚ/ noun, pl scores
1 [count] a : the number of points, goals, runs, etc., that each player or team has in a game or contest ▪ The score was tied at 1–1 [=each team had scored one run] after the second inning. ▪ The score (of the game) at halftime was 21–14. ▪ What's the score? ▪ The final score was 4–3. [=the score was 4–3 at the end of the game] b chiefly US : the number of points that someone gets for correct answers on a test, exam, etc. ▪ students with low/high test scores ▪ Only one person had/got a perfect score on the test. [=only one person answered all the questions correctly]
2 [count] a : a document showing all the notes of a piece of music ▪ a musical/orchestral score b : the music that is written for a movie or play ▪ The film's score is by a famous composer.
3 [count] : a mark or cut that is made in a surface with a sharp object
4 pl score [count] formal + literary a : the number 20 ▪ She has written more than a score of books. [=more than 20 books] b : a group of 20 people or things ▪ three score years [=60 years] ▪ A score of people were in attendance. — see also FOURSCORE, THREESCORE
5 scores [plural] formal : a large number or amount of people or things — usually + of ▪ We have received scores of suggestions.
by the score : in large numbers or amounts ▪ Factories are closing by the score. [=a lot of factories are closing] ▪ He's had girlfriends by the score. [=he has had lots of girlfriends] even the score 1 : to get enough points, goals, runs, etc., to have the same score as your opponent : to tie the score in a game ▪ They evened the score at 5–5. ▪ We evened the score in the second quarter. 2 : to harm or punish someone who has harmed you ▪ She felt they had mistreated her, and she was determined to even the score.
keep score : to officially record the number of points, goals, runs, etc., that each player or team gets in a game or contest ▪ We'll just play for fun. We won't even keep score. ▪ Who's keeping score? — sometimes used figuratively ▪ If you're keeping score at home, this is the third time that he has run for mayor and lost.
know the score informal : to have a good understanding of a situation ▪ Now that she knows the score, she won't make the same mistake again.
on that/this score : with regard to the thing that is being discussed ▪ The work will be done on time. You have nothing to worry about on that score.
settle a/the score : to harm or punish someone who has harmed you ▪ The movie is about a woman who seeks out an old enemy to settle a score. ▪ He says he has a few (old) scores to settle. ▪ She wants to settle the score with her ex-husband.

[2]score verb scores; scored; scor•ing
1 a : to get points, goals, runs, etc., in a game or contest [no obj] She scored twice in the game. [+ obj] He scored a run/goal/touchdown. b [+ obj] : to be worth (a particular number of points) in a game or contest ▪ Each correct answer scores two points. ▪ In American football, a touchdown scores six points.
2 : to officially record the number of points, goals, runs, etc., that each player or team gets in a game or contest [no obj] Who's going to score? [=keep score] [+ obj] Who's going to score the game?
3 : to give (someone or something) a grade or a particular number of points based on the number of correct answers on a test, the quality of a performance, etc. [+ obj] Judges will score the performances based on their artistic and technical features. [no obj] Which judges are scoring tonight?
4 [+ obj] : to write the music for (a movie, play, etc.) ▪ The movie was scored by a famous composer.
5 [+ obj] : to mark or cut the surface of (something) with a sharp object ▪ He used a sharp blade to score the glass.
6 [+ obj] : to achieve or earn (something) ▪ He scored a big success/hit in his first movie.
7 [no obj] : to have success ▪ He has scored again with his latest thriller.
8 a slang : to buy or get (illegal drugs) [+ obj] He couldn't score any drugs. [no obj] Druggies come downtown looking to score. b [+ obj] US, informal : to get (something) ▪ I managed to score a couple of tickets to the game.
9 [no obj] slang : to have sex with someone and especially with someone you do not know well ▪ Did you score (with her) last night?
score off [phrasal verb] score off (someone) Brit, informal : to say or do something in order to get an advantage over (someone) ▪ They're always trying to score off each other.

score•board /ˈskoɚˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a large board on which the score of a game or contest is shown score•card /ˈskoɚˌkɑɚd/ noun, pl -cards [count]

1 : a card on which the score of a game or contest is record-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

ed ▪ a golfer's scorecard ▪ I always like to keep a scorecard when I watch a baseball game.
2 US : a report that gives information about the status, condition, or success of someone or something ▪ The candidate rates highly on the magazine's legislative scorecard.

score•keep•er /ˈskoəˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who records the official score in a game or contest

score•less /ˈskoələs/ adj
1 — used to describe a game in which no points, goals, runs, etc., have been scored ▪ The game was scoreless after three innings. ▪ a scoreless game
2 — used to describe a player or team that has not scored ▪ He has been held scoreless in the past three games.

score•line /ˈskoəˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] Brit : the score and especially the final score of a game or contest

scor•er /ˈskorə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who scores points, goals, runs, etc., in a game or contest ▪ He's the team's leading/high/top scorer.
2 : SCOREKEEPER

score•sheet /ˈskoəˌʃiːt/ noun, pl -sheets [count] : a piece of paper on which the score of a game or contest is recorded ▪ an official scoresheet

[1]scorn /ˈskoən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a feeling that someone or something is not worthy of any respect or approval ▪ I have nothing but scorn [=contempt] for people who are cruel to animals. ▪ They treated his suggestion with scorn. ▪ an expression full of scorn
2 : harsh criticism that shows a lack of respect or approval for someone or something ▪ Her political rivals have poured/heaped scorn on her ideas for improving the tax system.

[2]scorn verb scorns; scorned; scorn•ing [+ obj]
1 : to show that you think (someone or something) is not worthy of respect or approval : to feel or express scorn for (someone or something) ▪ He scorns anyone who earns less money than he does. ▪ Her actions were scorned by many people. ▪ They were scorned as fanatics.
2 formal : to refuse or reject (someone or something that you do not think is worthy of respect or approval) ▪ She scorned his invitation. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ He scorned to reply to their accusations.

scorn•ful /ˈskoənfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing scorn ▪ a scornful look/expression/laugh ▪ He's scornful of anyone who disagrees with his political beliefs.
– scorn•ful•ly adv ▪ She stared at him scornfully.

Scor•pio /ˈskoəpiˌoʊ/ noun, pl -pios
1 [noncount] : the eighth sign of the zodiac that comes between Libra and Sagittarius and that has a scorpion as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC
2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Scorpio : a person born between October 24 and November 21 ▪ I'm a Virgo, and my sister is a Scorpio.

scor•pi•on /ˈskoəpijən/ noun, pl -ons [count] : a small animal related to spiders that has two front claws and a curved tail with a poisonous stinger at the end — see color picture on page C10

Scot /ˈskɑːt/ noun, pl Scots [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Scotland scotch /ˈskɑːʧ/ verb scotch•es; scotched; scotch•ing [+ obj] : to stop (something) from continuing by doing or saying something ▪ The administration did everything possible to scotch [=squelch] the rumors.

[1]Scotch or scotch /ˈskɑːʧ/ noun, pl Scotch•es or scotch•es : a kind of whiskey that is made in Scotland [noncount] a bottle of Scotch [count] I'll have another Scotch [=a glass of Scotch], please.

[2]Scotch adj, old-fashioned : of or relating to Scotland or its people : SCOTTISH

[3]Scotch trademark — used for a type of adhesive tape

scot–free /ˈskɑːtˈfriː/ adj, informal : without the punishment that is deserved ▪ It's not fair. I was punished and they got off scot-free. [=they were not punished at all]

Scot•land Yard /ˌskɑːtlənˈjɑəd/ noun [noncount] : the detective department of the London police ▪ The case is being investigated by Scotland Yard.

[1]Scots /ˈskɑːts/ adj : of or relating to Scotland or its people : SCOTTISH ▪ a Scots accent ▪ Scots law

[2]Scots noun [noncount] : the English language of Scotland

Scots•man /ˈskɑːtsmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man born, raised, or living in Scotland

Scots•wom•an /ˈskɑːtsˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman born, raised, or living in Scotland

Scot•tish /ˈskɑːtɪʃ/ adj : of or relating to Scotland or its people ▪ He spoke with a Scottish accent. ▪ the Scottish countryside ▪ Robert Burns was a great Scottish poet.

scoun•drel /ˈskaʊndrəl/ noun, pl -drels [count] old-fashioned : a person (especially a man) who is cruel or dishonest ▪ He's a rotten scoundrel.

[1]scour /ˈskawə/ verb scours; scoured; scour•ing [+ obj] : to search (something) carefully and thoroughly ▪ We scoured the woods for the missing child. ▪ I scoured the book for information. — compare [2]SCOUR

[2]scour verb scours; scoured; scouring [+ obj]
1 : to clean (something) by rubbing it hard with a rough object ▪ He scoured the pan with steel wool. ▪ She scoured spots from the stove.
2 : to cause parts of (something) to be carried away by the movement of water, ice, etc. ▪ Spring rains scoured the hillside. ▪ The river's banks had been scoured [=eroded] by floodwaters.
– compare [1]SCOUR
– scouring adj, always used before a noun ▪ a scouring pad/cleanser [=a pad/cleanser that is used to scour something] scour•er /ˈskawərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : a small, rough object that is used to clean dishes, pans, etc.

[1]scourge /ˈskəʤ/ noun, pl scourg•es [count]
1 formal + literary : someone or something that causes a great amount of trouble or suffering ▪ a city ravaged by the scourge of unemployment/poverty ▪ The disease continues to be a scourge in the developing world. ▪ Spelling is the scourge of learners of English. [=spelling is very difficult for people who are learning English]
2 : a whip that was used to punish people in the past

[2]scourge verb scourges; scourged; scourg•ing [+ obj] formal + literary
1 : to cause a lot of trouble or suffering for (someone or something) ▪ a neighborhood scourged by crime
2 : to hit (someone) with a whip as punishment ▪ The prisoner was scourged with a whip.

[1]scout /ˈskaʊt/ noun, pl scouts [count]
1 or Scout a : BOY SCOUT b : GIRL SCOUT
2 : a soldier, airplane, etc., that is sent to get information about the size, location, equipment, etc., of an enemy
3 : a person whose job is to search for talented performers, athletes, etc. ▪ a baseball scout — see also TALENT SCOUT good scout US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a person who is friendly, kind, helpful, etc. ▪ He's a good scout. [=good egg]

[2]scout verb scouts; scout•ed; scout•ing
1 a always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to search an area or place for something or someone ▪ Two small ships were sent to scout for information about the enemy. ▪ My brother set up the tent while I scouted (around) for firewood. ▪ We scouted around the store to see if anyone was available to help us. b [+ obj] : to explore (an area) in order to find information about it ▪ Several soldiers were sent ahead to scout the area. ▪ She scouted out the town to see if she'd like to live there.
2 : to watch or look at (someone or something) in order to decide if that person or thing is suited for a particular job or purpose [+ obj] He's a talented pitcher who is being scouted by several major-league teams. ▪ She scouts young musicians for one of the country's top orchestras. ▪ The site is being scouted as a possible location for the factory. [no obj] She scouts for one of the country's top orchestras.

scout•ing or Scouting /ˈskaʊtɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activities of Boy Scout and Girl Scout groups scout•mas•ter /ˈskaʊtˌmæstə, Brit ˈskaʊtˌmɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : the leader of a group of Boy Scouts

[1]scowl /ˈskawəl/ verb scowls; scowled; scowl•ing [no obj] : to look at someone or something in a way that shows anger or disapproval ▪ The teacher scowled [=glowered] at me when I walked in late. ▪ She scowled [=frowned] in response to his question.

[2]scowl noun, pl scowls [count] : an expression on someone's face that shows anger or disapproval ▪ The teacher gave me a scowl when I walked in late. ▪ She responded to his question with a scowl.

scrab•ble /ˈskræbəl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition scrab•bles; scrab•bled; scrab•bling [no obj] : to move the hands or feet in an awkward and hurried way in order to find or do something ▪ She scrabbled around in her handbag for a pen. ▪ He scrabbled at the slippery rock. — see also HARDSCRABBLE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

scrag•gly /ˈskrægəli/ adj scrag•gli•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : growing in a way that is not neat and even : having a ragged appearance ▪ a scraggly beard ▪ scraggly hair/bushes scrag•gy /ˈskrægi/ adj scrag•gi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 Brit : very thin in a way that does not look healthy : SCRAWNY ▪ a scraggy mongrel ▪ her scraggy neck
2 : having a ragged appearance : SCRAGGLY ▪ a scraggy beard scram /ˈskræm/ verb, not used in progressive tenses scrams; scrammed; scram•ming [no obj] informal + old-fashioned : to leave immediately ▪ The vandals scrammed before the police could arrive. — often used as a command to tell a person or animal to leave ▪ Scram! You're not wanted here!

[1]scram•ble /ˈskræmbəl/ verb scram•bles; scram•bled; scram•bling
1 [no obj] a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move or climb over something quickly especially while also using your hands ▪ We scrambled over the boulders and kept climbing up the mountain. ▪ He scrambled up the ramp. b : to move or act quickly to do, find, or get something often before someone else does ▪ reporters scrambling to finish stories by deadline ▪ Both players scrambled for the ball. ▪ News of the factory closing found workers scrambling to find jobs. ▪ It started to rain, and we all scrambled for cover.
2 [+ obj] : to prepare (eggs) by mixing the white and yellow parts together and then stirring the mixture in a hot pan ▪ I'll scramble some eggs for breakfast.
3 [+ obj] : to put (parts of something) in the wrong order — often used as (be) scrambled ▪ The letters of the words are scrambled. [=mixed up]
4 [+ obj] : to change (a radio or electronic signal) so that whoever receives it will not be able to understand it ▪ We will have to scramble our radio communications. ▪ The cable company scrambles the channels that you do not pay for.
5 [no obj] American football, of a quarterback : to run with the ball while being chased by defensive players ▪ The quarterback scrambled for a 5-yard gain.
– scrambled adj ▪ scrambled eggs and toast ▪ a scrambled signal

[2]scramble noun, pl scrambles : an act of scrambling: such as a [singular] : the act of moving or climbing over something quickly especially while also using your hands ▪ a quick scramble over boulders b [singular] : the act of moving or acting quickly to do, find, or get something ▪ the scramble for power in the country ▪ a scramble for the ball ▪ There was a mad scramble to fill vacant positions at the school. c [count] American football : a play in which the quarterback runs with the ball while being chased by defensive players — usually singular ▪ He gained 10 yards on a scramble.

scram•bler /ˈskræmblə/ noun, pl -blers [count] : a person or thing that scrambles: such as a : a device that is used to change a radio or electronic signal so that whoever receives it will not be able to understand it ▪ Spies used a scrambler to encode their messages. b American football : a quarterback who scrambles well ▪ Our quarterback is a great scrambler.

[1]scrap /ˈskræp/ noun, pl scraps
1 [singular] : a very small amount — usually used in negative statements ▪ After the scandal, he had no scrap of dignity left. [=he had no dignity left at all] ▪ There is not a scrap [=shred] of evidence that she committed the crime.
2 scraps [plural] : pieces of food that are not eaten and could be thrown away ▪ The dogs begged for scraps from the table. ▪ scraps of dough
3 [count] : a small piece of something that is left after you have used the main part ▪ a scrap (piece) of paper ▪ She made a quilt from fabric scraps. ▪ All that is left of the blanket is a scrap or two. ▪ scrap fabric — see also SCRAP PAPER
4 [noncount] : things from an unwanted or broken object (such as a car) that are useful only in making or fixing something else ▪ scrap metal ▪ He sold the car for scrap. [=he sold it to someone who wanted the parts of the car]
– compare [3]SCRAP

[2]scrap verb scraps; scrapped; scrap•ping [+ obj] : to get rid of (something) because it is damaged, no longer useful, etc. ▪ He scrapped his car after the accident. ▪ The company had to scrap plans for the new building. ▪ Should we scrap the idea?

[3]scrap noun, pl scraps [count] informal : a physical fight ▪ I got into quite a few scraps when I was a kid. — compare [1]SCRAP scrap•book /ˈskræpˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book with blank pages to which you attach photographs, letters, newspaper stories, etc., that help you remember a person or time ▪ My mother keeps a scrapbook of all the articles I've ever written.

[1]scrape /ˈskreɪp/ verb scrapes; scraped; scrap•ing
1 [+ obj] : to damage (the surface of something) or hurt (a part of your body) by rubbing something rough or sharp against it or by making it rub against something rough or sharp ▪ Someone had scraped the car with a key. ▪ I scraped one of the chairs while bringing it up the stairs. ▪ I scraped my knee when I fell.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to rub or cause (something) to rub against a hard surface and make a harsh and usually unpleasant sound [no obj] fingernails scraping against a blackboard ▪ the sound of chairs scraping on the floor as people stood to leave ▪ The boat scraped against the edge of the dock. [+ obj] She scraped her fingernails across the blackboard. ▪ The deer scraped its antlers against the tree.
3 a [+ obj] : to remove (something) from a surface by rubbing an object or tool against it ▪ Scrape the seeds into a bowl. ▪ Scrape the paint from the wood. — often + off ▪ The tool was used to scrape hair off buffalo skins. ▪ Scrape the scales off the fish. ▪ He scraped off the dirt from his shoes. b : to clean (something) by rubbing an object or tool against it ▪ Please scrape your plate into the trash.
4 [+ obj] : to barely succeed in collecting or gathering (something needed or wanted) by making an effort — + together or up ▪ He managed to scrape up enough money for lunch. ▪ We scraped enough players together to play basketball.
bow and scrape see [1]BOW scrape by also scrape along [phrasal verb]
1 : to live with barely enough money : to be able to buy only the things you need most ▪ Money was tight, but we somehow managed to scrape by. [=survive] ▪ She's scraping along on just a few hundred dollars a month. 2 or scrape through : to succeed at doing something but just barely ▪ He didn't study for the exam and just barely scraped by. [=he passed the exam but came very close to failing]

[2]scrape noun, pl scrapes [count]
1 : a mark or injury that is caused by something rubbing against something else ▪ There's a scrape on the fender that wasn't there yesterday. ▪ I got a scrape on my knee when I fell. ▪ We survived the accident with a few minor bumps and scrapes.
2 informal : a bad, dangerous, or unpleasant situation ▪ legal/financial scrapes ▪ She got into a few scrapes with the police/law when she was younger.
3 : a harsh and usually unpleasant sound that is made when something rubs against a hard surface ▪ the scrape of fingernails on a blackboard scrap•er /ˈskreɪpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool that is used to scrape something off a surface ▪ a paint scraper

scrap heap noun, pl ~ heaps [count] : a place where broken or useless things are taken and left ▪ Her car was sent off to the scrap heap [=dump] after the accident. — often used figuratively ▪ He may be past his prime, but he's not ready for the scrap heap yet. ▪ a minor event consigned to the scrap heap of history

scra•pie /ˈskreɪpi/ noun [noncount] : a usually fatal brain disease that affects sheep scrap•ing /ˈskreɪpɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : an object or substance that has been removed from a surface by rubbing an object or tool against it : something that is scraped off of a surface — usually plural ▪ The carpenter brushed the scrapings aside as she worked. ▪ DNA tests on fingernail scrapings from the victim's hands [=on material scraped from the underside of the victim's fingernails] were inconclusive.

scrap paper noun [noncount] : paper that is partly used or is of poor quality but that you can use for unimportant things ▪ Please take out a piece of scrap paper and practice the math problems on the board. — called also (Brit) rough paper, (US) scratch paper scrap•per /ˈskræpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who fights or struggles against something or to do something ▪ He's quite a scrapper.

scrap•ple /ˈskræpəl/ noun [noncount] US : a dish of meat

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

mixed with spices, broth, and boiled cornmeal that is placed in a mold and served sliced and fried scrap•py /ˈskræpi/ adj scrap•pi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal 1 US : ready or eager to fight ▪ He's a scrappy guy you don't want to mess with.

2 US : willing to work hard in order to succeed : determined and tough ▪ a scrappy football player ▪ a scrappy journalist
3 chiefly Brit : not organized or done well ▪ a scrappy essay that should be rewritten scrap•yard /ˈskræpˌjɑrd/ noun, pl -yards [count] chiefly Brit : JUNKYARD

[1]scratch /ˈskrætʃ/ verb scratch•es; scratched; scratch•ing
1 a : to rub your skin with something sharp (such as your fingernails) especially in order to stop an itch [+ obj] Will you scratch my back for me? ▪ Scratching the itch only makes it worse. ▪ The dog scratched its ear. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Maybe it's time to scratch the/that itch to travel I've had since I was a kid. [=maybe it's time to satisfy the urge I've had to travel] [no obj] You shouldn't scratch. It'll just make your itch worse. — see also SCRATCH SOMEONE'S BACK (below) b : to make a shallow and narrow cut in (your skin) with something sharp (such as fingernails, claws, etc.) [+ obj] The cat scratched me. ▪ Thorns scratched our legs as we climbed through the briars. [no obj] Careful, the cat will scratch. c [no obj] : to rub a surface or object with something sharp or rough in a way that produces a harsh sound ▪ The dog was scratching at the door.
2 [+ obj] a : to make a line or mark in the surface of (something) by rubbing or cutting it with something rough or sharp ▪ Be careful not to scratch the table. ▪ Someone scratched the paint on my car. b : to make (something, such as a line or letters) in the surface of something by using a stick, a sharp tool, etc. ▪ The little boy scratched lines in the dirt with a stick. ▪ They scratched their initials in the old bridge. c : to write (something) in a quick and untidy way ▪ She scratched a note to herself on a napkin.
3 [+ obj] informal a : to decide not to do or continue with (something) ▪ We had to scratch our picnic plans because of the weather. ▪ We should go to the movies tonight. No, scratch [=forget] that. Let's rent a DVD instead. b : to remove (someone) from the list of players who will be playing in a game ▪ She was scratched from the starting lineup.
scratch a living or US scratch out a living : to earn barely enough money to live ▪ He scratched out a living as a farmer.
scratch off [phrasal verb] scratch (something) off or scratch off (something) 1 : to remove (something) from an object or surface by rubbing with a sharp edge or tool ▪ Scratch off the gray box on the ticket to see if you've won! ▪ She scratched the gum off her shoe with a stick. 2 : to draw a line through (something that is written down) ▪ He scratched his name off the list.
scratch out [phrasal verb] scratch (something) out or scratch out (something) : to draw a line through (something that is written down) ▪ I scratched out the mistake.
scratch someone's back informal : to do something that helps someone else but that is often wrong or difficult to do ▪ You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours. [=if you do something to help me, I'll do something to help you] scratch the surface : to deal with or learn about only a small part of something ▪ If you think she only did it for the money, you haven't even scratched the surface. [=there are many other factors, reasons, etc., involved] ▪ There's so much to learn about this subject. I feel like I've only scratched the surface.
scratch your head informal : to be confused about something : to think about something you do not understand ▪ His odd behavior left us all scratching our heads. [=we could not understand his odd behavior]
– scratch•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a long-handled back scratcher [=a device you can use to scratch your back]

[2]scratch noun, pl scratches
1 [count] a : a line or mark in the surface of something that is caused by something rough or sharp rubbing against it ▪ There's a scratch in the paint on the new car! ▪ The table is an antique but it doesn't have any dents or scratches. b : a shallow and narrow cut in the skin that is caused by something sharp ▪ I got a scratch on my leg when I climbed the fence. ▪ He escaped the fire without a scratch. [=without getting hurt; without any injuries]
2 [count] : the sound made when something sharp rubs against a surface or object ▪ The only sound in the room during the test was the scratch of pencils on paper.
3 [noncount] US slang : MONEY ▪ We don't have the scratch to buy a new car.
from scratch 1 : with ingredients you have prepared yourself rather than with a prepared mixture of ingredients bought from a store ▪ bread/cookies made from scratch ▪ I used a frozen pie crust rather than making one from scratch. 2 : from a point at which nothing has been done yet ▪ We will have to start the project from scratch. ▪ He built the company from scratch.
up to scratch chiefly Brit, informal : good enough : as good as expected or wanted — usually used in negative statements ▪ Her performance wasn't up to scratch. [=(US) up to snuff]

[3]scratch adj, always used before a noun
1 of a golfer : having no handicap ▪ a scratch golfer [=an excellent golfer whose score is usually close to par]
2 chiefly Brit : put together quickly and without enough planning or thought ▪ a scratch team scratching post noun, pl ~ posts [count] : an upright piece of wood that is covered with carpet and kept in a house for a pet cat to scratch scratch pad noun, pl ~ pads [count] US : a small book of blank paper that is used for writing notes, brief messages, etc.

scratch paper noun [noncount] US : SCRAP PAPER scratch ticket noun, pl ~ tickets [count] chiefly US : a small card that has covered areas that you remove by rubbing with the edge of a coin, fingernail, etc., to see if you have won a prize (such as money) — called also (chiefly Brit) scratch card

scratchy /ˈskrætʃi/ adj scratch•i•er; -est
1 : having a rough sound : having a sound like the sound made when something sharp or rough rubs against a surface or object ▪ listening to scratchy old records ▪ He has a scratchy [=gravelly] voice.
2 informal : rough and irritating to the skin : likely to make you itch ▪ The costume is made from scratchy material.
3 : swollen and sore ▪ He is sick with a scratchy throat.
4 : written in a careless way that is difficult to read ▪ I could barely read her scratchy notes.

[1]scrawl /ˈskrɑːl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition scrawls; scrawled; scrawl•ing [+ obj] : to write or draw (something) very quickly or carelessly ▪ She scrawled her signature on the receipt.

[2]scrawl noun, pl scrawls [count] : something that has been written or drawn very quickly or carelessly ▪ Her signature was just a scrawl.

scraw•ny /ˈskrɑːni/ adj scraw•ni•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : very thin in a way that is not attractive or healthy ▪ a scrawny [=skinny] kid ▪ The only plants in their yard were a couple of scrawny bushes.

[1]scream /ˈskriːm/ verb screams; screamed; scream•ing
1 a [no obj] : to suddenly cry out in a loud and high voice because of pain, surprise, etc. ▪ She screamed when the door suddenly slammed shut. ▪ This is so irritating I could scream. ▪ The crowd screamed with excitement. ▪ He was dragged, kicking and screaming, from the room. b : to say (something) in a loud and high voice because you are angry, afraid, etc. [no obj] He screamed at/for her to stop. [+ obj] "Help!" he screamed. — often + out ▪ The general screamed out orders. c [no obj] : to make a very loud, high sound ▪ Sirens were screaming in the distance.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to move very quickly through a place while making a lot of noise ▪ Police cars screamed down the street.
3 [no obj] : to speak, write, or express something in a way that shows intense or uncontrolled emotion ▪ Newspaper headlines screamed about the spike in crime.
4 [+ obj] : to bring (an idea, word, etc.) into your mind very clearly ▪ The amount she paid in taxes was so low that it practically screamed "fraud." [=it very strongly suggested that she had committed fraud] ▪ That big white dress screams "Marry me."
scream bloody murder (US) or Brit scream blue murder informal : to scream, yell, or complain in a very loud or angry way ▪ His political opponents screamed bloody murder when he was appointed to office.
scream for [phrasal verb] scream for (something) informal 1 : to demand or need (something) ▪ People are screaming

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 60 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

for news about the virus. ▪ These policies just scream (out) for reform. [=these policies very badly need to be reformed] 2 : to be very suitable or appropriate for (something) ▪ Hot summer days like this just scream for ice cream and visits to the pool.

[2]scream noun, pl screams

1 [count] : a loud and high cry or sound ▪ She let out a piercing scream. — often + of ▪ screams of terror ▪ the screams of the fire trucks as they raced by

2 [singular] informal + old-fashioned : a person or thing that is very funny ▪ She's an absolute scream.

scream•er /ˈskri:mə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal

1 : something that moves or works very quickly ▪ The batter hit a screamer right at the shortstop. ▪ She kicked a screamer into the net. ▪ My last computer was pretty fast, but this one's a real screamer.

2 : a person who tends to scream : a person who screams more often or more easily than most people ▪ Don't startle her—she's a screamer.

scream•ing /ˈskri:mɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : very noticeable and difficult to ignore ▪ The room's walls were painted in a screaming yellow. ▪ screaming headlines ▪ a screaming need for reform ▪ (US) I have a screaming headache.

2 US : very fast or powerful ▪ The batter hit a screaming line drive right at the shortstop.

scream•ing•ly /ˈskri:mɪŋli/ adv, informal : very or extremely ▪ a screamingly funny film scree /ˈskri:/ noun, pl screes [count, noncount] : an area of loose stones on the side of a mountain

[1]screech /ˈskri:ʧ/ noun, pl screech•es [count]

1 : a loud and very high cry that usually expresses extreme pain, anger, or fear ▪ With a loud screech, she smashed the plate against the wall.

2 : a loud and very high sound ▪ the screech of brakes

[2]screech verb screeches; screeched; screech•ing

1 : to cry out or shout in a loud and very high voice because of extreme pain, anger, fear, etc. [no obj] I screeched when I saw the mouse. ▪ He kept screeching at the children to pay attention. [+ obj] "You can't do this to me!" she screeched.

2 [no obj] : to make a loud and very high sound ▪ The car screeched to a halt/stop. [=made a loud and very high sound as it stopped] — often used figuratively ▪ Her promising career screeched to a halt [=suddenly stopped/ended] when she was caught stealing.

– screeching adj ▪ The car came to a screeching halt. ▪ The project came to a screeching halt.

screech owl noun, pl ∼ owls [count] : a kind of small American owl that has bunches of feathers that look like ears on the sides of its head screed /ˈskri:d/ noun, pl screeds [count] disapproving : a long and often angry piece of writing that usually accuses someone of something or complains about something ▪ In her screed against the recording industry, she blamed her producer for ruining her career.

[1]screen /ˈskri:n/ noun, pl screens

1 [count] a : the usually flat part of a television or computer monitor that shows the images or text : the part of a television or computer that you look at when you are using it ▪ Don't sit too close to the screen or you'll get a headache. ▪ A pop-up ad appeared on the screen. ▪ a television/TV screen ▪ a computer/display screen — see picture at COMPUTER b : a large, flat, white surface on which images or movies are shown ▪ When I go to the movies, I like to sit close to the screen.

2 [noncount] : the art or profession of acting in movies ▪ a star of stage and screen [=a famous actor who acts in plays and movies] ▪ The two actors perform well together on screen. [=in movies or on TV] — often used before another noun ▪ a screen actor ▪ She has tremendous screen presence. [=a powerful quality that attracts attention in movies] — see also BIG SCREEN, SILVER SCREEN

3 [count] chiefly US : a sheet that is made of very small wire or plastic strings which are woven together and that is set in a frame in a window, door, etc., to let air in but keep insects out ▪ a window screen ▪ a screen door [=a door that has a screen built into it]

4 [count] : something that is used to hide, protect, cover, or block a person or thing: such as a : a group of trees or plants that separates one area from another ▪ We planted a screen of shrubs so the neighbors couldn't see into our yard. b : a large, thin piece of wood, paper, or cloth that is set in a frame and used to separate one room or part of a room from another ▪ You can change your clothes behind the screen. c : something that hides the real nature of an activity, feeling, etc. ▪ His activities were just a screen for his real plans. d sports : a planned action in some sports (such as basketball or ice hockey) in which a player or a player's view is legally blocked by an opponent ▪ The goalie couldn't see the puck because of the screen. — see also SMOKE SCREEN, SUNSCREEN, WINDSCREEN

5 [count] American football : SCREEN PASS ▪ The quarterback threw a screen to the halfback.

– see also SILK SCREEN

[2]screen verb screens; screened; screen•ing [+ obj]

1 : to examine (people or things) in order to decide if they are suitable for a particular purpose ▪ A committee will screen candidates for the job, but the final hiring decision will be made by Ms. Brown. ▪ someone who screens luggage at the airport [=someone who examines the luggage of airplane passengers in order to make sure that nothing dangerous is brought onto an airplane] ▪ We screen the kids' music so that we can approve what they listen to. ▪ He usually screens his (telephone/phone) calls. [=he usually lets his answering machine answer his phone so that he can hear who is calling before he decides to talk to whoever it is]

2 a : to do a test on (someone) to find out if that person has or is likely to develop a disease — usually + for ▪ All blood donors are screened for AIDS. ▪ She was screened for breast cancer. b : to do a test on (a person's blood, urine, etc.) to find out if the person has been using an illegal substance — usually + for ▪ All athletes will be screened for performance-enhancing drugs prior to the events.

3 : to show (a movie, television show, etc.) to the public on a screen ▪ We'll be screening his latest film in two weeks.

4 : to hide, protect, cover, or block (someone or something) with a screen ▪ I was screened by the cars so no one saw me. ▪ The altar was screened. ▪ We planted a row of shrubs to screen our backyard from the neighbors. ▪ The goalie was screened on that play. [=players blocked the goalie from seeing the puck] ▪ a screened porch [=a porch that has walls made of screens] — often used figuratively ▪ We try to screen our children from the violence on TV.

screen out [phrasal verb] 1 screen (someone or something) out or screen out (someone or something) : to remove (someone or something that is not suitable for a particular purpose) from a group that is being examined ▪ Not all students will be allowed to participate. Students receiving a D or lower will be screened out. 2 screen (something) out or screen out (something) : to prevent (something harmful) from passing through ▪ The lotion is supposed to screen out [=block] the sun's harmful rays.

screen•er /ˈskri:nə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or thing that screens something or someone; especially : a person whose job is to examine airplane passengers and their luggage in order to make sure that nothing dangerous is brought onto an airplane ▪ Airline screeners found a suspicious package in his luggage which turned out to be a bomb.

screen•ing /ˈskri:nɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : the act of screening people or things: such as a [count] : an event in which a movie is shown to an audience ▪ We were late for the (movie) screening. b : the act of doing a test on a person or a person's blood, urine, etc., to look for evidence of a disease, illegal drug, etc. [noncount] methods of screening for cancer [count] Players must pass three random drug screenings. c : the act of examining people or things in order to decide if they are suitable for a particular purpose [noncount] Federal agents handle passenger and luggage screening at the airport. [count] The company will be conducting applicant screenings Wednesday.

screen pass noun, pl ∼ passes [count] American football : a pass to a receiver who is behind the line of scrimmage and is protected by a line of blockers screen•play /ˈskri:nˌpleɪ/ noun, pl -plays [count] : the written form of a movie that also includes instructions on how it is to be acted and filmed : the script for a movie ▪ an award for best screenplay screen saver noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] : a computer program that shows a moving image or set of images on a computer screen when the computer is on but is not being used screen test noun, pl ∼ tests [count] : a recording of a short performance by an actor that is made with a movie or video camera and that is used to decide if that person should be given a part in a movie

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

screen•writ•er /ˈskri:nˌraɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who writes screenplays

[1]screw /ˈskru:/ noun, pl screws [count]
1 : a narrow, pointed metal cylinder that has a wide flat or rounded top and a ridge (called a thread) that goes around it in a spiral ✧ A screw is used to hold things together or to attach things. It is inserted into wood, metal, etc., by being turned. ▪ Tighten the screws. — see picture at CARPENTRY; compare [1]NAIL 1
2 : an object that has a thread like a screw which is used to attach or connect it to something — usually used before another noun ▪ The bottle has a screw cap/top. [=a cap/top that is attached and removed by turning it]
3 informal + offensive a : an act of sexual intercourse b : a sexual partner
4 slang : a prison guard have a screw loose or have a loose screw informal : to be crazy ▪ He acts like he has a screw loose. ▪ You've got to have a loose screw to think that's a good idea. = You've got to have a few loose screws to think that's a good idea.
put the screws on/to (someone or something) informal : to use force or the threat of force to make (someone or something) do what you want ▪ The government is finally putting the screws to an industry that's been evading environmental laws for years.
tighten the screws informal : to put more pressure on someone or something to do something ▪ We need to tighten the screws on people who've been evading the tax.

[2]screw verb screws; screwed; screw•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to attach (something) with a screw ▪ I screwed the boards together. ▪ The cupboards are screwed to the wall.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition a [+ obj] : to turn (something) so that it attaches or connects to something ▪ Screw the cap on tight. ▪ Screw the light bulb into the fixture. b [no obj] : to fit onto or into something by being turned ▪ The lid screws onto the jar. ▪ The light bulb screws right in.
3 informal + offensive a [no obj] : to have sex b [+ obj] : to have sex with (someone)
4 [+ obj] informal a : to take something from (someone) by lying or breaking a rule ▪ I'd given them all of my savings before I realized I was being screwed. [=cheated] — often + out of ▪ The company screwed them out of thousands of dollars of investment money. b : to prevent (someone) from having or getting something that is deserved or expected ▪ He will screw you if you give him the chance. — often + out of or (US) over ▪ She was screwed out of the job. [=she should have gotten the job but she didn't get it] ▪ The company changed its return policy and (totally) screwed me over.
5 [+ obj] informal + impolite — used to express anger, disgust, etc. ▪ She doesn't like it? Well, screw her. ▪ Screw it [=forget it], I'm not waiting around forever.
6 [+ obj] : to press or squeeze (something) so that it is no longer flat or smooth — often + up ▪ He screwed [=crumpled] up the letter into a ball and threw it into the trash.
have/get your head screwed on right/straight see [1]HEAD screw around [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal 1 : to do things that are not useful or serious : to waste time ▪ Quit screwing around [=messing around, fooling around] and get back to work. 2 : to have sex with someone who is not your husband, wife, or regular partner ▪ She found out he's been screwing around. [=fooling around] — often + with ▪ She was screwing around with her boss. 3 : to use or do something in a way that is not very serious ▪ I spent the afternoon screwing around [=messing around] on the piano. — often + with ▪ screwing around with paints 4 *screw around with (something) : to handle or play with (something) in a careless or foolish way ▪ It's really dangerous to screw around with your cell phone while you're driving.
screw up [phrasal verb] informal 1 a : to make a mistake : to do something incorrectly ▪ Sorry about that, I screwed up. ▪ You really screwed up this time. b *screw (something) up or screw up (something) : to make a mistake in (something) ▪ The waiter screwed up our order. ▪ This performance is important, so don't screw it up. 2 *screw (something) up or screw up (something) : to damage or ruin (something) ▪ Drugs screwed up her life. : to damage or change (something) so that it does not work properly ▪ I don't know what I did, but I somehow screwed up the computer. 3 *screw (someone) up or screw up (someone) : to make (someone) very upset and unhappy for a long time ▪ The divorce really screwed him up. 4 *screw (something) up or screw up (something) : to tighten the muscles of (your face or eyes) ▪ He screwed his face up into a frown. ▪ She screwed up her eyes [=she squinted] and tried to read the sign. 5 *screw up the/your courage : to make yourself brave enough to do something difficult ▪ I finally screwed up the courage to tell them that I was quitting. — see also [2]SCREW 6

[1]screw•ball /ˈskru:ˌbɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls [count]
1 baseball : a pitch that is thrown with spin so that the ball curves in a direction that is opposite to the direction of a curveball
2 chiefly US, informal : a crazy person : a person who is not able to think in a clear or sensible way ▪ She really did that? What a screwball.

[2]screwball adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : funny in a very silly and strange way ▪ a screwball comedy screw•driv•er /ˈskru:ˌdraɪvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool that is used for turning screws — see picture at CARPENTRY screwed–up adj [more ~; most ~] informal : not right or normal : not acting or functioning the way a person or thing should ▪ He's a pretty screwed-up kid. ▪ Our computer network is all screwed-up.

screw–top adj, always used before a noun : having a top or lid that that it can be attached and removed by being turned ▪ a screw-top jar [=a jar with a top that screws on] screw•up /ˈskru:ˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal + disapproving

1 : a mistake or error ▪ That was a major screwup.
2 : a person who often makes mistakes especially about important things : someone who often screws up ▪ She's a screwup who can't hold down a job.

screwy /ˈskru:wi/ adj screw•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal
1 : different from what you expect because of being strange or unusual ▪ I knew something was screwy. ▪ a screwy idea
2 : not sensible or reasonable ▪ screwy people ▪ a screwy foreign policy

[1]scrib•ble /ˈskrɪbəl/ verb scrib•bles; scrib•bled; scrib•bling
1 : to write (something) quickly and in a way that makes it difficult to read [+ obj] She scribbled a note to him and then dashed off to her meeting. ▪ He scribbled down his phone number. [no obj] Students scribbled furiously as the professor lectured. ▪ She was scribbling away in a notebook.
2 [no obj] : to draw lines, shapes, etc., that have no particular meaning in a quick and careless way ▪ The toddler scribbled all over the paper.
– scribbling noun, pl scribblings [count] ▪ I couldn't read the doctor's illegible scribblings.

[2]scribble noun, pl scribbles
1 [noncount] : writing that is difficult to read because it has been done quickly or carelessly ▪ She could barely make out the doctor's scribble.
2 scribbles [plural] : lines, shapes, etc., that have no particular meaning and are drawn in a quick and careless way ▪ The chalkboard was adorned with the children's scribbles.

scrib•bler noun, pl -blers [count] humorous + disapproving : a writer or author ▪ My wife's a banker, but I'm just a scribbler who writes for the newspaper.

[1]scribe /ˈskraɪb/ noun, pl scribes [count]
1 : a person in the past whose job was to copy manuscripts and books ▪ Medieval scribes were often monks.
2 chiefly US, informal : a journalist or writer ▪ She was interviewed for the newspaper by a local scribe.

[2]scribe verb scribes; scribed; scrib•ing [+ obj] : to make (a shape, design, mark, etc.) in something by cutting or scratching with a sharp pointed tool ▪ Scribe a line along the board where you will be trimming it.

[1]scrim•mage /ˈskrɪmɪʤ/ noun, pl -mag•es
1 [noncount] American football : the point in a game at which the center passes or throws the ball to the quarterback ▪ The first play from scrimmage netted them a touchdown. — see also LINE OF SCRIMMAGE
2 [count] US : an informal game that is played for practice : a game that is not official ▪ a preseason scrimmage

[2]scrimmage verb -mages; -maged; -mag•ing [no obj] US : to play in a scrimmage ▪ We scrimmage every Saturday. ▪ Last weekend we scrimmaged against Bell High.

scrimp /ˈskrɪmp/ verb scrimps; scrimped; scrimp•ing [no obj] : to spend as little money as you can : to be careful about spending money ▪ They scrimped and saved for their big vacation.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 80 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[1]scrip /ˈskrɪp/ noun, pl scrips [count] technical
1 : a document which says that the person who has the document has the right to something (such as stock or land)
2 : special money that a government makes during an emergency and that can only be used for a short period of time
– compare [2]SCRIP

[2]scrip noun, pl scrips [count] US, informal : PRESCRIPTION 1a ▪ I need to get my scrip filled. — compare [1]SCRIP

[1]script /ˈskrɪpt/ noun, pl scripts
1 [count] a : the written form of a play, movie, television show, etc. ▪ The actors haven't had time to study the script. ▪ She sent her script to several television production studios. ▪ an early version of the script b : a plan for what is going to be done or said in a particular situation ▪ When questioned, officials followed the script and declined comment.
2 a [noncount] : a type of handwriting in which all the letters in a word are connected to each other ▪ She wrote in script [=cursive] instead of printing. b : a particular style of writing or printing : a way that a particular set of letters, numbers, etc., is written or printed [noncount] words written in cuneiform script [count] roman and italic scripts c : the letters of a language arranged in their usual order : ALPHABET [noncount] languages that use the Cyrillic script [count] The message was written in a foreign script.

[2]script verb scripts; script•ed; script•ing [+ obj]
1 : to write the script for (a play, movie, television show, etc.) ▪ I scripted three episodes of the show. — often used as (be) scripted ▪ The actors' dialogue was carefully scripted.
2 : to plan how (something) will happen, be done, etc. ▪ The discussion couldn't have gone better if we had scripted it. ▪ The trip didn't go as scripted.

scripted adj : written at an earlier time ▪ a scripted speech/joke; also : planned in a careful way at an earlier time ▪ a scripted campaign ▪ Her public appearances are all scripted events.

scrip•ture /ˈskrɪptʃɚ/ noun, pl -tures
1 Scripture or the Scriptures : the books of either the Old Testament or the New Testament or of both : the Bible ▪ someone who frequently quotes Scripture ▪ Each day they read (from) the Scriptures. ▪ the Hebrew Scriptures
2 scriptures [plural] : the sacred writings of a religion ▪ sacred/holy scriptures
– scrip•tur•al /ˈskrɪptʃərəl/ adj ▪ a scriptural passage script•writ•er /ˈskrɪptˌraɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who writes the written form of a play, movie, television show, etc. : a person who writes a script ▪ Hollywood scriptwriters

scrod /ˈskrɑːd/ noun, pl scrod [count, noncount] US : a young fish (such as a cod or a haddock) that is eaten as food

[1]scroll /ˈskroʊl/ noun, pl scrolls [count]
1 : a long piece of paper that rolls around one or two cylinders and that usually has something written or drawn on it ▪ the Dead Sea Scrolls ▪ He read from the scroll.
2 : a decoration that looks like the curled ends of a scroll ▪ a scarf with lovely green scrolls on it scroll

[2]scroll verb scrolls; scrolled; scroll•ing computers : to move text or images of a Web page, document, etc., up, down, or to the side on a computer screen so that you can see all of it [no obj] scroll through an e-mail ▪ She scrolled (down) to the bottom of the screen. [+ obj] You have to scroll the screen to see the bottom of the Web page.

scroll bar noun, pl ~ bars [count] computers : a narrow bar along the bottom or side of a window that you click on with a mouse to see parts of the window that are hidden scroll saw noun, pl ~ saws [count] US : a machine that has a narrow blade for cutting curves and decorative patterns in wood, metal, plastic, etc.

Scrooge or scrooge /ˈskruːʤ/ noun, pl Scroog•es or scrooges [count] informal : a selfish and unfriendly person who is not willing to spend or give away money — usually singular ▪ His boss is a real Scrooge who never gives people raises. ✧ Scrooge is from the name of Ebenezer Scrooge, the main character in the story A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens.

scro•tum /ˈskroʊtəm/ noun, pl scro•tums or scro•ta /ˈskroʊtə/ [count] : the sack of skin that contains the testicles of men and male animals scrounge /ˈskraʊnʤ/ verb scroung•es; scrounged; scroung•ing

1 : to persuade someone to give you (something) for free [+ obj] I managed to scrounge enough money for a bus ticket. — often + off or from ▪ I scrounged a few bucks off my friend for lunch. ▪ She scrounged some money from her folks. [no obj] He's always scrounging off his friends instead of paying for things himself.
2 US : to get or find something by looking in different places, asking different people, etc. [no obj] We scrounged around for firewood. [+ obj] We managed to scrounge some firewood. — often + up ▪ I tried to scrounge up some tickets to the show, but I didn't have any luck.
– scroung•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]scrub /ˈskrʌb/ noun [noncount]
1 : small bushes and trees ▪ A chipmunk hid in the scrub.
2 : land that is covered with small bushes and trees ▪ In the desert scrub, temperatures can reach well over 100 degrees.
– compare [2]SCRUB

[2]scrub noun, pl scrubs
1 [count] a : the act of rubbing something hard with a rough object or substance and often with soap in order to clean it : the act of scrubbing something — usually singular ▪ He gave the pan a good scrub. [=he scrubbed the pan] b : a powerful cleanser that is used to clean the skin ▪ a face scrub
2 scrubs [plural] US : special loose clothing that is worn by people who work in hospitals ▪ hospital/surgical scrubs
– compare [1]SCRUB

[3]scrub verb scrubs; scrubbed; scrub•bing
1 : to rub (something) hard with a rough object or substance and often with soap in order to clean it [+ obj] She scrubbed the potatoes. [no obj] We scrubbed and scrubbed until the floor was clean.
2 [+ obj] informal : to decide that (something, such as a game, performance, etc.) will not happen : to cancel (something) ▪ They scrubbed the game because of the bad weather.
scrub off [phrasal verb] scrub off (something) or scrub (something) off : to remove (something) from a surface by scrubbing ▪ I scrubbed off the heavy stage makeup. ▪ scrubbing dirt and grime off the walls scrub out [phrasal verb] scrub out (something) or scrub (something) out 1 : to remove (something) from an object by scrubbing ▪ a stain in the carpet that was impossible to scrub out 2 : to scrub the inside of (something) ▪ She scrubbed out the flower pots and filled them with fresh soil.
scrub up [phrasal verb] : to wash your hands and arms thoroughly ▪ The doctor scrubbed up for surgery.

scrub•ber /ˈskrʌbɚ/ noun, pl -bers [count]
1 : a tool or machine that is used for scrubbing something ▪ a vegetable scrubber [=a brush that is used for scrubbing vegetables] ▪ a floor scrubber
2 : a person whose job is to scrub something ▪ She got a job as a pot scrubber.
3 technical : a machine that removes a dangerous substance from air, water, etc. ▪ The scrubbers will reduce the power plant's sulfur emissions.

scrub brush (US) or Brit scrubbing brush noun, pl ~ brushes [count] : a small brush with stiff bristles that is used for scrubbing things scrub•by /ˈskrʌbi/ adj scrub•bi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : covered with small bushes and trees ▪ scrubby land
2 : small and not growing well ▪ scrubby trees/bushes scrub•land /ˈskrʌbˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands : land that is covered with small bushes and trees [noncount] a large area of scrubland [count] the scrublands of the American West scruff /ˈskrʌf/ noun [singular] : the skin on the back of the neck ▪ She held the kitten by the scruff of its neck.

scruffy /ˈskrʌfi/ adj scruff•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : not neat, clean, or orderly ▪ a scruffy beard ▪ scruffy college students ▪ The neighborhood is full of dilapidated houses with scruffy backyards.

scrum /ˈskrʌm/ noun, pl scrums [count]
1 rugby a : a way of starting play again in which players from each team come together and try to get control of the ball by pushing against each other and using their feet when the ball is thrown in between them b : the group of players who are involved in a scrum
2 : a large group of people who are close together in one place ▪ He pushed through the scrum [=crowd, throng] of holiday shoppers. ▪ The actress was caught in a media scrum. [=a crowd of reporters, photographers, etc.]

scrump•tious /ˈskrʌmpʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

: very pleasant to taste : DELICIOUS ▪ a scrumptious cake

scrunch /ˈskrʌnʧ/ verb scrunch•es; scrunched; scrunch•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make your body lower or shorter by bending your legs, making your back bend forward, lowering your head, etc. ▪ I scrunched down in the chair. ▪ I spent the night scrunched (up) in the back of the car.
2 [+ obj] : to tighten the muscles of (your face or nose) — usually + up ▪ She scrunched up her face/nose.
3 [+ obj] a : to put (several or many people or things) in a space that is too small — usually used as (be) scrunched ▪ The restaurant's tables are all scrunched together. b : to press or squeeze (something) so that it is no longer flat or smooth ▪ I scrunched the fabric in my hand. — often + up ▪ He scrunched [=crumpled] up the paper and threw it away.
4 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make the loud sound of something being crushed ▪ The snow was scrunching [=(more commonly) crunching] under our feet.

scrunch•ie or scrunchy /ˈskrʌnʧi/ noun, pl scrunch•ies [count] US : a piece of elastic in the shape of a circle that is covered with fabric and used to hold hair back in a ponytail, bun, etc. — see picture at GROOMING

[1]scru•ple /ˈskru:pəl/ noun, pl scruples : a feeling that prevents you from doing something that you think is wrong [count] — usually plural ▪ They seem to have no scruples [=qualms] about distorting the truth. ▪ moral/religious scruples ▪ a woman without scruples [noncount] She acted without scruple.

[2]scruple verb scruples; scru•pled; scru•pling [+ obj] formal : to be unwilling to do something because you think it is improper, morally wrong, etc. — usually used in negative statements ▪ He did not scruple to lie about it. [=he was willing to lie about it; lying about it did not bother him]

scru•pu•lous /ˈskru:pjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very careful about doing something correctly ▪ She was always scrupulous about her work. ▪ The work requires scrupulous attention to detail. ▪ They were scrupulous [=meticulous] in their testing.
2 : careful about doing what is honest and morally right ▪ Less scrupulous companies find ways to evade the law.
– scru•pu•lous•ly adv ▪ a scrupulously clean house scru•ti•nize or Brit scru•ti•nise /ˈskru:tə,naɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] : to examine (something) carefully especially in a critical way ▪ I closely scrutinized my opponent's every move. ▪ Her performance was carefully scrutinized by her employer.

scru•ti•ny /ˈskru:təni/ noun, formal : the act of carefully examining something especially in a critical way : the act of scrutinizing something [noncount] the close/careful scrutiny of data ▪ judicial/public/scientific scrutiny ▪ I'd never faced that kind of scrutiny before. ▪ Because of their past crimes, everything they do now will be subject to scrutiny. ▪ Their behavior is under scrutiny again. = Their behavior has come under scrutiny again. [=people are examining their behavior in a critical way again] [singular] Her opinion is based on a careful scrutiny of the text.

scu•ba /ˈsku:bə/ adj, always used before a noun : used in scuba diving ▪ scuba gear ▪ a scuba tank scuba diving noun [noncount] : a sport or activity in which you swim underwater using an air tank and a special breathing machine that you strap on your body ▪ Her hobbies include sailing and scuba diving. ▪ We went scuba diving for the first time this summer.

– scuba dive verb ~ dives; ~ dived; ~ div•ing [no obj] ▪ He plans to scuba dive while on vacation. – scuba diver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ He's an expert scuba diver.

scud /ˈskʌd/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition scuds; scud•ded; scud•ding [no obj] literary : to move or go quickly ▪ Clouds scudded across the sky.

[1]scuff /ˈskʌf/ verb scuffs; scuffed; scuff•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make a mark or scratch in the surface of (something) by scraping it ▪ I scuffed (up) my new shoes the very first time I wore them.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to walk without lifting your feet : to drag your feet while you walk ▪ She scuffed down the hall towards her room.
– scuffed adj ▪ scuffed shoes/boots ▪ an old, scuffed leather jacket

[2]scuff noun, pl scuffs
1 [count] : a mark that is made by scuffing something ▪ I tried to rub the scuff (mark) out of my shoe.
2 scuffs [plural] US : slippers that are open at the heel ▪ She slid into her scuffs and headed into the kitchen.

scuf• e /ˈskʌfəl/ verb scuf• es ; scuf• ed ; scuf• ing [no obj]
1 : to fight briefly and usually not very seriously ▪ Children scuffled on the playground. ▪ Protesters and police scuffled.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move quickly and with short steps : SCURRY ▪ Small creatures scuffled in the underbrush.
– scuffle noun, pl scuf• es [count] ▪ They got in/into a scuffle. ▪ A scuffle broke out between the players.

[1]scull /ˈskʌl/ noun, pl sculls
1 [count] : a long and very narrow boat that is usually rowed by one or two people ▪ a double scull [=a scull for two people]
2 sculls [plural] : a race using sculls ▪ He took first place in the single sculls.

[2]scull verb sculls; sculled; scull•ing [no obj] : to row a scull or other small boat ▪ She sculled along the river.
– scull•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's one of the top scullers in the state. – scull•ing noun [noncount] ▪ She joined the sculling team. ▪ He went sculling early that morning.

scul•lery /ˈskʌlərɪ/ noun, pl -ler•ies [count] old-fashioned : a room that is near the kitchen in a large and usually old house and that is used for washing dishes, doing messy kitchen tasks, etc.

sculpt /ˈskʌlpt/ verb sculpts; sculpt•ed; sculpt•ing
1 : to make (something) by carving or molding clay, stone, etc. : to make (a sculpture) [+ obj] She carefully sculpted the wood. — often used as (be) sculpted ▪ The figures were sculpted from wood. ▪ The statue was sculpted in ice. — often used figuratively ▪ She carefully sculpted the narrative of the story. [no obj] The children painted and sculpted all morning.
2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to make (a part of your body) more muscular by doing exercises ▪ Sculpt your back with push-ups.

sculpt•ed /ˈskʌlptəd/ adj
1 a : carved or molded into a particular shape from wood, stone, clay, etc. ▪ a sculpted facade b : made into a particular shape by someone or something ▪ her sculpted bangs ▪ a wind-sculpted rock formation
2 a : having a clear shape ▪ sculpted cheekbones b chiefly US : very muscular and attractive ▪ a lean, sculpted athlete/body sculp•tor /ˈskʌlptə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who makes sculptures sculp•tress /ˈskʌlptrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a woman who makes sculptures

sculp•ture /ˈskʌlpʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 : a piece of art that is made by carving or molding clay, stone, metal, etc. [count] a sculpture of an elephant ▪ an abstract sculpture [noncount] an exhibit of African sculpture — compare STATUE
2 [noncount] : the process or art of carving or molding clay, stone, metal, etc., into a sculpture ▪ She's studying sculpture.
– sculp•tur•al /ˈskʌlpʧərəl/ adj ▪ the sculptural arts ▪ a sculptural piece sculp•tured /ˈskʌlpʧəd/ adj : carved or molded into a particular shape from wood, stone, clay, etc. ▪ a sculptured [=(more commonly) sculpted] facade

scum /ˈskʌm/ noun, pl scums
1 [noncount] : a layer of something unpleasant or unwanted

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

that forms on top of a liquid ▪ Boil the chicken and use a spoon to remove any scum that floats to the surface. ▪ pond scum [=a layer of algae on top of a pond]

2 informal : a dishonest, unkind, or unpleasant person [noncount] Ignore him; he's scum. ▪ They are the scum of the earth. [=the worst people on the earth] [count] He's a complete scum.

– scum•my /ˈskʌmi/ adj scum•mi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ scummy water ▪ a scummy person scum•bag /ˈskʌmˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count] slang : a dishonest, unkind, or unpleasant person ▪ She's a total scumbag.

[1]scup•per /ˈskʌpɚ/ verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] Brit : to cause (something) to stop or fail ▪ The boss scuppered [=(US) scuttled] the plan. ▪ The latest information could scupper the peace talks.

[2]scupper noun, pl -pers [count] technical : a hole in the side of a boat that allows water to drain from the deck scur•ri•lous /ˈskɚrələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : said or done unfairly to make people have a bad opinion of someone ▪ scurrilous attacks on the senator ▪ scurrilous rumors

– scur•ri•lous•ly adv

scur•ry /ˈskɚi/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [no obj] : to move quickly and with short steps ▪ She scurried off to finish the job. ▪ Mice scurried around the house.

scur•vy /ˈskɚvi/ noun [noncount] : a disease that is caused by not eating enough fruits or vegetables that contain vitamin C

[1]scut•tle /ˈskʌtl/ verb scut•tles; scut•tled; scut•tling [+ obj]

1 US : to cause (something) to end or fail ▪ He tried to scuttle [=(Brit) scupper] the conference/sale.

2 : to sink (a ship) by putting holes in the bottom or sides – compare [2]SCUTTLE

[2]scuttle verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition scuttles; scuttled; scuttling [no obj] : to move quickly and with short steps ▪ Crabs scuttled along the ocean floor. ▪ He scuttled away to find his hat. — compare [1]SCUTTLE

[3]scuttle noun, pl scuttles [count] : a metal pail for carrying coal scut•tle•butt /ˈskʌtlˌbʌt/ noun [noncount] US, informal : talk or stories about someone that may not be true ▪ There's some scuttlebutt [=there's a rumor] that he might be planning to leave his wife.

scuz•zy /ˈskʌzi/ adj scuz•zi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] US slang : dirty, dishonest, or unpleasant ▪ He is a scuzzy guy. ▪ a scuzzy bathroom

[1]scythe /ˈsaɪð/ noun, pl scythes [count] : a farming tool with a curved blade and long handle that is used for cutting grass, grain, etc.

scythe

[2]scythe verb scythes; scythed; scyth•ing : to cut (something, such as grass or grain) with a scythe [+ obj] scything the wheat — often used figuratively ▪ Her hands scythed [=cut through] the air. [no obj] — usually used figuratively ▪ Her hands scythed through the air.

SD abbr South Dakota

SE abbr southeast; southeastern sea /ˈsi:/ noun, pl seas

1 a : the salt water that covers much of the Earth's surface [noncount] We traveled by sea. [=on a ship] — often used with the ▪ The ship sank to the bottom of the sea. [=the ocean] ▪ creatures of the sea ▪ He was sailing the open sea. [=sailing far away from land] — often used before another noun ▪ a sea voyage ▪ a sea animal/creature ▪ the sea floor [plural] (literary) ▪ the uncharted seas — see also HIGH SEAS b or Sea [count] : a large body of water that is part of the sea or that has land around part or all of it ▪ the Mediterranean Sea ▪ the seas of the Southern Hemisphere — see color picture on page C7; see also SEVEN SEAS

2 [count] : an area of the sea — used to describe the movement of the water in the sea ▪ a calm/rough sea — often plural ▪ We sailed in heavy seas. [=in very large waves]

3 [count] : a large amount or number of people or things spread over a large area — usually singular ▪ a sea of screaming fans ▪ a golden sea of wheat — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sea of sadness

4 or Sea [count] technical : one of the large, flat areas on the moon or on Mars ▪ lunar seas ▪ the Sea of Tranquility at sea 1 : sailing or traveling on the sea ▪ The navy spent as much time in port as they did at sea. ▪ The crew was lost at sea. [=the crew disappeared while traveling on the sea] 2 : confused and not confident ▪ She felt completely at sea when she started her new job.

between the devil and the deep blue sea see DEVIL

fish in the sea see [1]FISH go to sea somewhat old-fashioned : to become a sailor ▪ He went to sea at a young age.

out to sea : toward or into a part of the ocean that is far away from land ▪ The boat headed out to sea. ▪ He fell overboard and was swept out to sea.

put (out) to sea : to leave a port, harbor, etc., and begin traveling on the sea ▪ The ship put to sea. ▪ We will dock tonight and put out to sea tomorrow.

sea air noun [noncount] : the air near the sea ▪ He breathed in the sea air.

sea anemone noun, pl ~ -nes [count] : a small, brightly colored sea animal that looks like a flower and sticks to rocks, coral, etc.

sea•bed /ˈsi:ˌbɛd/ noun

the seabed : the ground that is at the bottom of the sea sea•bird /ˈsi:ˌbɚd/ noun, pl -birds [count] : a bird that lives on or near the sea and finds food in it ▪ gulls and other seabirds

sea•board /ˈsi:ˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : the part of a country that is along or near the sea ▪ He lives on the eastern seaboard. ▪ a seaboard city sea•borne /ˈsi:ˌboɚn/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : carried in a ship sailing across the sea ▪ seaborne cargo

2 : involving or using ships that sail across the sea ▪ seaborne trade sea breeze noun, pl ~ breezes [count] : a light wind that blows from the sea toward land sea captain noun, pl ~ -tains [count] : the captain of a ship that travels on the sea sea change noun, pl ~ changes [count] : a big and sudden change — usually singular ▪ There's been a sea change in public opinion. ▪ Her attitude has undergone a sea change [=her attitude has changed completely] in recent months.

sea•coast /ˈsi:ˌkoʊst/ noun, pl -coasts : the land along the edge of a sea [count] a beautiful seacoast ▪ the eastern seacoast [noncount] a stretch of seacoast [=coast, shore, shoreline] ▪ a seacoast [=coastal] town sea dog noun, pl ~ dogs [count] old-fashioned + literary : an experienced sailor sea•far•er /ˈsi:ˌferɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] old-fashioned : someone who works or travels on a boat or ship on the sea : SAILOR sea•far•ing /ˈsi:ˌferɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of traveling on the sea especially while working on a boat or a ship ▪ He began a life of seafaring.

– seafaring adj, always used before a noun ▪ He always tells stories from his seafaring days. ▪ a seafaring people ▪ a seafaring adventure sea• oor /ˈsi:ˌfloɚ/ noun, pl - oors [count] : the ground that is at the bottom of the sea — usually singular ▪ a sunken ship lying on the seafloor

sea•food /ˈsi:ˌfu:d/ noun [noncount] : fish and shellfish that live in the ocean and are used for food ▪ I'm allergic to seafood. ▪ a seafood dish/restaurant sea•front /ˈsi:ˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] : the part of a town, area, etc., that is near the sea — usually singular ▪ hotels on/along the seafront — often used before another noun ▪ seafront [=(US) oceanfront] property sea•go•ing /ˈsi:ˌgoʊɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : made or used for traveling on the sea ▪ a seagoing [=ocean-going] ship/craft/vessel sea green noun [noncount] : a bluish-green color like the sea — see color picture on page C2

– sea–green adj ▪ She has sea-green eyes.

sea•gull /ˈsi:ˌgʌl/ noun, pl -gulls [count] : a large, common, usually gray and white bird that lives near the ocean : GULL — see color picture on page C9 sea horse noun, pl ~ horses [count] : a small fish that has a head that looks like a horse's head and that swims with its head above its body and tail

[1]seal /ˈsi:l/ verb seals; sealed; seal•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to close (something) tightly so that air, liquid, etc., cannot get in or out ▪ He sealed the jar. — often + up ▪ He sealed up the cracks in the wall. b [+ obj] : to close (an envelope, bag, etc.) by sticking or pressing two of its parts together ▪ Would you seal this envelope? c [no obj] : to become closed tightly ▪ Make sure the bag seals properly.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 61 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 [+ obj] : to cover the surface of (something) with a substance that will protect it ▪ We used a sealant/sealer to seal the wood to make it waterproof.
3 [+ obj] : to make (something) definite and final ▪ His home run sealed the victory. [=his home run made it certain that his team would win] ▪ (informal) They finally sealed the deal. [=they finally reached an agreement and made a deal] ▪ Their decision sealed her fate. = Once they made their decision, her fate was sealed. [=their decision made it certain that something bad or unwanted would happen to her]
4 [+ obj] : to prevent someone from going into or through (an area or place) ▪ Troops have sealed the border between the two countries. ▪ The room/chamber has been sealed and no one can enter.
my lips are sealed see LIP seal in [phrasal verb] seal (something) in or seal in (something) : to prevent (something that is in something else) from getting out or escaping ▪ He seared the steak to seal in the juices.
seal off [phrasal verb] seal off (something) or seal (something) off : to prevent people from entering or leaving (an area or place) ▪ Police sealed off the crime scene.
– sealed adj ▪ a sealed jar

[2]seal noun, pl seals [count]
1 a : an official mark that is stamped on paper or on a small piece of wax to show that something (such as a document) is genuine and has been officially approved ▪ The paperwork must have a notary's seal. b : a small piece of stamped wax or a small sticker that is put on a letter or envelope to keep it closed or to show that it has not been opened
2 : a device with a raised design that can be pressed into something (such as paper or wax) to make a seal
3 a : a piece of material (such as rubber) that is used on the lid of a container to keep air, water, etc., out of the container or to show the container has not been opened ▪ a rubber seal on the jar ▪ The plastic seal on the bottle was broken. b : the state of being closed tightly so that no air, water, etc., can pass through ▪ The caulk gives the window an airtight seal.
seal of approval : an action or statement that shows approval or official acceptance ▪ The bill has the President's seal of approval. ▪ Fans have given the band's new song their seal of approval. [=fans like the band's new song] set the seal on Brit, formal : to make (something) final or definite ▪ The goal set the seal on their victory. [=the goal sealed/assured their victory] under seal law, formal : having an official seal that prevents the public from seeing or reading it ▪ a document/contract under seal
– compare [3]SEAL

[3]seal /ˈsi:l/ noun, pl seals
1 [count] : a large animal that lives in the sea near coasts, has flippers, and eats fish
2 [noncount] : the skin of a seal usually used for fur ▪ a jacket made of seal
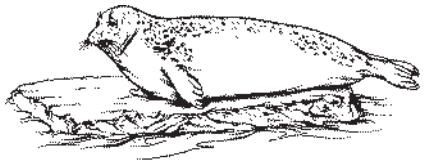
– compare [2]SEAL



seal

SEAL /ˈsi:l/ noun, pl SEALs [count] US : a soldier in the U.S. Navy who has special training and belongs to a small group that performs dangerous missions ▪ a Navy SEAL

sea lane /ˈsi:ˌleɪn/ noun, pl ~ lanes [count] : a route that ships regularly take across the sea

seal•ant /ˈsi:lənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] : a substance that is put on a surface in order to protect it from air, water, etc. — called also sealer sea legs noun [plural] : the ability to walk steadily and not feel sick while traveling on a boat or ship ▪ When I first started sailing, it took me a while to get my sea legs.

[1]seal•er /ˈsi:lə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : SEALANT — compare [2]SEALER

[2]sealer noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who hunts seals
2 : a ship that is used in hunting seals
– compare [1]SEALER

sea level noun [noncount] : the average height of the sea's surface ✧ Sea level is a standard level that is used when measuring the height or depth of a place on land ▪ The city is a mile above sea level. ▪ The valley sits well below sea level.

seal•ing /ˈsi:lɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of hunting seals sealing wax noun [noncount] : a type of wax used especially in the past for making seals on letters and documents sea lion noun, pl ~ lions [count] : a large seal that lives near coasts in the Pacific Ocean seam /ˈsi:m/ noun, pl seams [count]

1 a : a line where two pieces of cloth or other material are sewn together ▪ the seams of a dress b : a line where two pieces of wood, metal, dough, etc., are joined together ▪ the seams of a boat
2 technical : a layer of coal, rock, etc., that is between two other layers of rock underground ▪ coal seams ▪ a rich seam of iron ore — sometimes used figuratively to describe a good source of something valuable ▪ The book is a rich seam of information about the history of baseball.
be bursting at the seams see [1]BURST come/fall apart at the seams informal : to break into parts or pieces — usually used figuratively to describe someone or something that is in very bad condition ▪ The plan/company is falling apart at the seams. ▪ She looks like she's going to come apart at the seams.

sea•man /ˈsi:mən/ noun, pl -men [count]
1 : an experienced sailor
2 : a sailor in the U.S. or British Navy or the U.S. Coast Guard who is not an officer sea•man•ship /ˈsi:mənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : skill in sailing or operating a ship ▪ The captain shows great seamanship.

seamed /ˈsi:md/ adj
1 : having a visible line where two pieces of material are joined together ▪ seamed stockings
2 : having deep lines or wrinkles ▪ her seamed face seam•less /ˈsi:mləs/ adj

1 : having no seams ▪ a seamless rug/boat
2 : moving from one thing to another easily and without any interruptions or problems ▪ The transitions from scene to scene were seamless. ▪ a seamless transfer of power
3 : perfect and having no flaws or errors ▪ a seamless [=flawless] performance – seam•less•ly adv ▪ The speaker moved from one subject to the next seamlessly.

seam•stress /ˈsi:mstrəs/ noun, pl -stress•es [count] : a woman who sews clothes, curtains, etc., as a job seamy /ˈsi:mi/ adj seam•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : of or relating to unpleasant and usually illegal things (such as crime, drugs, etc.) ▪ the seamy [=seedy] side of the city ▪ She was involved in a seamy corruption scandal.

sé•ance /ˈseɪˌɑ:ns/ also se•ance noun, pl -anc•es [count] : a meeting where people try to communicate with the spirits of dead people ▪ They're having/holding a séance.

sea•plane /ˈsi:ˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] : an airplane that can take off from and land on water sea•port /ˈsi:ˌpoət/ noun, pl -ports [count] : a town or city with a harbor where ships stop to load and unload cargo : PORT ▪ Boston is a major seaport in the northeastern U.S.

sea power noun, pl ~ -ers
1 [count] : a country that has a large and powerful navy ▪ Britain was the world's greatest sea power at one time.
2 [noncount] : the strength and size of a country's navy ▪ a massive increase in sea power

sear /ˈsiə/ verb sears; seared; sear•ing [+ obj]
1 : to burn and damage the surface of (something) with strong and sudden heat ▪ The tree was seared by lightning. ▪ The flames seared my skin. — often used figuratively ▪ That image was seared [=burned] into my memory. [=I cannot forget that image] — see also SEARING
2 US : to cook the surface of (something, such as a piece of meat) quickly with intense heat ▪ The steak was seared over a hot grill.

[1]search /ˈsəʧ/ noun, pl search•es
1 : an attempt to find someone or something : the act or process of looking for someone or something [count] a thorough/exhaustive/quick search ▪ We will begin/launch/conduct a search for a new manager this week. ▪ A search and rescue team [=a group of people trained to find and help lost people] was sent out for the hikers. — often + for ▪ The search for the crew was called off. ▪ Police are continuing their search for the killer. [noncount] Scientists are in search of the answer. [=scientists are searching for the answer] — see also STRIP SEARCH

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 62 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 [count] : an attempt to find information in a database, network, Web site, etc., by using a computer program ▪ I performed a search for the file. ▪ I did a Web search for restaurants in that area.

[2]search verb searches; searched; search•ing

1 a [no obj] : to carefully look for someone or something : to try to find someone or something ▪ They haven't found him yet, so they have to keep searching. ▪ They searched among/through the wreckage (for survivors). ▪ We searched [=looked] everywhere but we couldn't find the keys. — often + for ▪ They're still searching for the lost child. — often used figuratively ▪ Scientists are searching for a cure. [=are doing research to try to find a cure] ▪ He searched for the words to comfort her. [=he tried to think of words that he could say to comfort her] ▪ She searched for an answer to his question. b [+ obj] : to carefully look for someone or something in (something) ▪ Police searched the vehicle. — often + for ▪ He searched his room for his wallet. c [+ obj] : to carefully look through the clothing of (someone) for something that may be hidden ▪ The police searched her for concealed weapons. ▪ He was searched by the guard before he was allowed to enter the courtroom.

2 : to use a computer to find information in (a database, network, Web site, etc.) [+ obj] The software allows you to search thousands of sites at the same time. — often + for ▪ She searched the Web for information about the car. [no obj] She searched for information on the Web.

3 [+ obj] : to look carefully at (something) in order to get information about it ▪ He searched her face, hoping to see some glimmer of emotion.

search me informal — used in speech to say that you do not know the answer to a question ▪ "Why did they do that?" "Search me." [=I don't know] search out [phrasal verb] search (someone or something) out or search out (someone or something) : to find (someone or something) by carefully looking ▪ She searched out the relevant information.

– search•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Searchers couldn't find the lost hikers.

search engine noun, pl ~ -gines [count] : a computer program that is used to look for information on the Internet searching adj, always used before a noun : carefully made, done, asked, etc., in order to find out more information about someone or something ▪ a searching question ▪ a searching gaze/look – search•ing•ly adv ▪ She looked searchingly at us.

search•light /ˈsəɹ͡ʧˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a very bright light that can be aimed in different directions and that is used to find people or things in the dark search party noun, pl ~ parties [count] : an organized group of people who are looking for someone or something that is missing ▪ If the hikers don't return by tomorrow, a search party will be sent out.

search warrant noun, pl ~ -rants [count] : a legal document that gives the police permission to search a place for evidence sear•ing /ˈsɪrɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very hot ▪ the searing heat of the fire

2 : extremely intense, severe, etc. ▪ She felt a searing pain in her foot. ▪ (chiefly US) It was a searing experience.

3 of writing or speech : very strong and critical ▪ a searing review ▪ She made/launched a searing attack on her political enemies.

– sear•ing•ly adv ▪ searingly hot food sea salt noun [noncount] : a type of salt that is made from seawater and is used in cooking sea•scape /ˈsiːˌskeɪp/ noun, pl -scapes [count] : a picture or painting of the sea ▪ an artist known for her seascapes sea•shell /ˈsiːˌʃɛl/ noun, pl -shells [count] : the hard, empty shell of a small sea creature (such as a clam) ▪ She collects seashells.

sea•shore /ˈsiːˌʃoɚ/ noun

the seashore : the land along the edge of the sea that is usually covered with sand or rocks ▪ They built a house near the seashore.

– seashore adj, always used before a noun ▪ the seashore ecosystem sea•sick /ˈsiːˌsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling sick because of the movement of a boat or ship that you are traveling on ▪ The storm/waves made her seasick.

– sea•sick•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The medicine prevents seasickness.

[1]sea•side /ˈsiːˌsaɪd/ adj, always used before a noun : located in the area near the sea ▪ a seaside hotel ▪ a quaint seaside town/community

[2]seaside noun

the seaside chiefly Brit : the areas or towns along or near the sea ▪ a trip to the seaside

[1]sea•son /ˈsiːzn̩/ noun, pl -sons

1 [count] : one of the four periods (spring, summer, autumn, and winter) into which the year is commonly divided ▪ Spring is my favorite season (of the year). ▪ I enjoy watching the seasons change every year.

2 : a particular period of time during the year: such as a [count] : a period of time when a particular sport is being played ▪ the baseball/football season ▪ The team had a good season last year. [=the team played well last year] — see also OFF-SEASON, POSTSEASON, PRESEASON b : a period of time when a particular event, process, activity, etc., occurs [count] These plants have a short growing season. ▪ the breeding/mating season [=the period of time when animals, birds, etc., are mating] ▪ the Christmas season ▪ (US) the holiday season [=the time from late November through January when several holidays (such as Christmas, Hanukkah, and New Year's Eve) happen] [noncount] The article talks about ways to stay healthy during flu season. [=the time of year, and especially the winter, when many people get influenza and other mild illnesses] ▪ June marks the beginning of tourist season. [=the time when many people go to visit places as tourists] ▪ During peak season [=the time when tourists visit the most], the island is very crowded. c [count, noncount] : a period of time when people are legally allowed to hunt, fish, etc. ▪ Deer season starts next week. ▪ lobster season ▪ hunting/fishing season — see also OPEN SEASON d [count, noncount] : the time of the year during which something grows and can be harvested ▪ blueberry season e : a time of the year during which a particular type of weather usually happens [count] the hot/dry/rainy season [noncount] Monsoon season is coming soon. f [singular] : a time of the year when a new fashion, color, hair style, etc., is popular ▪ This season's fashions are very feminine. ▪ Pink is in style this season. g [noncount] : a period of time when a series of new television shows, plays, etc., are being shown or performed ▪ I can't wait until the new (television) season starts. ▪ The theater company will be putting on plays by Shakespeare this season. ▪ one of the shows in the network's season lineup in season/out of season 1 ✧ When fruits and vegetables are in season, it is the time of year when they are being harvested and are easily available. When they are out of season, they are not being harvested in a place near you and are more difficult or expensive to get. ▪ Strawberries are in season. ▪ They import asparagus when it is out of season here. 2 ✧ When animals, fish, etc., are in season, it is the time of year when they can be legally hunted, caught, etc. When they are out of season, they cannot be legally hunted, caught, etc. ▪ Deer may only be hunted in season. ▪ That fish is not in season. = That fish is out of season.

Season's Greetings — used in writing as a greeting in the time of year when Christmas and several other holidays happen near each other

[2]season verb -sons; -soned; -son•ing

1 : to add salt, pepper, spices, etc., to (something) to give it more flavor [+ obj] He seasoned the stew. [no obj] Season to taste. [=add as much seasoning as you like so it tastes good to you]

2 [+ obj] : to make (wood) ready for use by slowly drying it ▪ You must season the firewood.

sea•son•able /ˈsiːzn̩əbəl/ adj, of weather : normal for a certain time of year ▪ We've been having seasonable weather. ▪ These temperatures are seasonable. — opposite UNSEASONABLE – sea•son•ably /ˈsiːzn̩əbli/ adv ▪ The weather has been seasonably cool.

sea•son•al /ˈsiːzn̩əl/ adj

1 : happening or needed during a particular time of the year ▪ The rise in gas prices is seasonal. ▪ The store hires seasonal workers during the holidays.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : normal for a certain time of year ▪ seasonal decorations ▪ I have seasonal allergies.
– sea•son•al•i•ty /ˌsi:zəˈnæləti/ noun [noncount] technical ▪ We tracked the seasonality of rainfall levels. – sea•son•al•ly adv ▪ The restaurant changes its menu seasonally.

seasonal affective disorder noun [noncount] medical : an illness that makes people feel sad and tired during the winter because there is less light during the day

seasoned adj
1 of food : having a lot of spices, herbs, salt, pepper, etc., added ▪ a highly seasoned stew
2 always used before a noun : having a lot of experience doing something ▪ a seasoned actor/writer/traveler
3 of wood : dry and ready for use ▪ seasoned lumber sea•son•ing /ˈsi:zn̩ɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a substance (such as salt, pepper, a spice, or an herb) that is used to add flavor to food [count] My favorite seasonings are black pepper and oregano. [noncount] Add some seasoning to the marinade. ▪ The soup needs more seasoning.

season ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : a ticket for a certain place, activity, or series of events (such as sports contests) that you can use many times during a particular period of time ▪ I have/hold season tickets for our team's games. ▪ I get a season ticket for the commuter train from my employer. ▪ season ticket holders

[1]seat /ˈsi:t/ noun, pl -seats
1 [count] : something (such as a chair) that you sit on : a place for sitting ▪ There were seats for six people at the table. ▪ an uncomfortable bicycle seat ▪ a car with leather seats ▪ He used the box as a seat. ▪ He couldn't find his seat in the concert hall. ▪ The city recently built a new 1,000-seat theater. ▪ She booked/reserved a seat on the next flight to Rome. ▪ Please have/take a seat. [=please sit down] ▪ The teacher asked us to take our seats. [=sit down in our usual or assigned places] — see picture at BICYCLE; see also BACKSEAT, CATBIRD SEAT
2 a [count] : the part of a chair or other piece of furniture that a person sits on ▪ The stool's seat is broken. ▪ The chairs have woven seats. b [singular] : the part of a piece of clothing (such as a skirt or pair of pants) that you sit on — + of ▪ You have a tear in the seat of your pants. c [count] somewhat old-fashioned : the part of the body on which you sit ▪ I fell off the horse and had a sore seat [=bottom] for weeks.
3 [count] : an official position within an organization and the right to be present when that organization meets ▪ The Democrats gained two more seats in the last election. ▪ She won a Senate seat. ▪ a seat on the federal court ▪ a seat on the board ▪ (chiefly Brit) He took his seat [=began his official duties as a member] in Parliament.
4 [singular] a : a place or area where a particular activity, function, etc., occurs — + of ▪ The university has been a seat of learning since the Middle Ages. ▪ the part of the brain that is the seat of reasoning b : a place (such as a city) where the people who run a government, religion, etc., are based — + of ▪ the seat of government/power ▪ The Vatican is the seat of the Roman Catholic Church. — see also COUNTY SEAT by the seat of your pants : by using your own judgment and feelings to deal with each new problem or task without planning, preparation, or help from others ▪ He was running the company by the seat of his pants. ▪ We were flying by the seat of our pants when we started our business. — see also SEAT-OF-THE-PANTS get/put bums on seats see [5]BUM in the driver's seat see DRIVER on the edge of your seat see [1]EDGE

[2]seat verb seats; seat•ed; seat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (a person) a place to sit ▪ I could seat you here if you wish. — often used as (be) seated ▪ Please be seated. [=please sit down] ▪ She was seated in the front row.
2 : to have enough seats for (a certain number of people) ▪ The restaurant seats 120 (people). ▪ The plans call for a stadium seating 30,000 people.

seat belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] : a strap on a vehicle's seat that holds a person in the seat if there is an accident ▪ Fasten your seat belt. — see picture at CAR seat•er /ˈsi:tɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something (such as a vehicle) that has a specified number of seats — used in combination ▪ Our couch is a three-seater. — see also TWO-SEATER seat•ing /ˈsi:tɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : seats or places to sit ▪ There won't be enough seating for everyone. ▪ The auditorium has seating for 400. ▪ There is additional seating on the deck. ▪ The auditorium has a seating capacity of 400. ▪ Here is the seating arrangement/plan [=a plan that shows where people should sit] for our wedding reception.
2 [count] : a scheduled time when people are allowed into a performance, a meal, etc. ▪ There are two seatings for tea. ▪ We bought tickets for the 5:30 seating of the show.

seat•mate /ˈsi:tˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] US : a person who sits next to you in a bus, airplane, etc. ▪ My seatmate on the flight to Rome was very friendly.

seat–of–the–pants adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : done or made by using your own judgment and feelings without planning, preparation, or help from others ▪ It was a seat-of-the-pants decision.

sea turtle noun, pl ~ turtles [count] : a type of large turtle that lives in the sea sea urchin noun, pl ~ -chins [count] : a small sea animal that lives on the ocean floor and is covered in sharp spines sea•wall /ˈsi:ˌwɑ:l/ noun, pl -walls [count] : a wall built to keep sea waves from coming up onto land sea•ward /ˈsi:wɚd/ also sea•wards /ˈsi:wɚdz/ adv : toward the sea ▪ We drifted seaward. ▪ She gazed seaward.

– seaward adj, always used before a noun ▪ the seaward slope of the mountain sea•wa•ter /ˈsi:ˌwɑ:tɚ/ noun [noncount] : water in or from the sea sea•weed /ˈsi:ˌwi:d/ noun, pl -weeds [count, noncount] : a type of plant that grows in the sea sea•wor•thy /ˈsi:ˌwɚði/ adj [more ~; most ~] : fit or safe to travel on the sea ▪ a seaworthy ship — compare AIRWORTHY, ROADWORTHY – sea•wor•thi•ness /ˈsi:ˌwɚðinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ He doubted the ship's seaworthiness.

se•ba•ceous /sɪˈbeɪʃəs/ adj, always used before a noun, biology : producing an oily substance in the body ▪ sebaceous glands

[1]sec abbr 1 second, seconds ▪ 2 min, 45 sec 2 section ▪ Sec 2, Row K, Seat 45 3 Sec. secretary ▪ Sec. of Internal Affairs

[2]sec /ˈsɛk/ noun [singular] informal : a very brief time : SECOND ▪ Wait just a sec.

SEC abbr, US Securities and Exchange Commission ✧ The Securities and Exchange Commission is a part of the U.S. federal government that enforces laws about securities like stocks.

sec•a•teurs /ˌsɛkəˈtɚz/ noun [plural] Brit : PRUNING SHEARS se•cede /sɪˈsi:d/ verb -cedes; -ced•ed; -ced•ing [no obj] : to separate from a nation or state and become independent ▪ South Carolina seceded from the Union in 1860.

se•ces•sion /sɪˈsɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : the act of separating from a nation or state and becoming independent ▪ the secession of the Southern states

se•ces•sion•ist /sɪˈsɛʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who thinks that a nation, state, etc., should separate from another and become independent se•clude /sɪˈklu:d/ verb -cludes; -clud•ed; -clud•ing [+ obj] : to keep (someone) away from other people ▪ He secluded himself in his room to study for the exam.

secluded adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : hidden from view : private and not used or seen by many people ▪ a secluded beach ▪ We looked for a secluded spot in the park to have our picnic.
2 : placed apart from other people ▪ She led a secluded [=solitary] life on the family farm.

se•clu•sion /sɪˈklu:ʒən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of placing or keeping someone away from other people : the act of secluding someone ▪ the seclusion of women that occurs in some countries
2 : the state of being away from other people : a secluded state or condition ▪ I enjoyed the seclusion of the island. ▪ After his wife died he lived in seclusion. [=he lived by himself and kept away from other people]

[1]sec•ond /ˈsɛkənd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : occupying the number two position in a series ▪ We sat in the second row. ▪ the second house on the left ▪ the author's second novel ▪ B is the second letter in the alphabet. ▪ That's the second time I've seen him today. ▪ The office is on the second floor. [=(US) the floor just above the lowest floor; (Brit) the floor that is two floors above the lowest floor] b : next to the first in importance or rank ▪ Chocolate is my first choice; vanilla is my second choice. ▪ I won second prize.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

c : another of the same kind ▪ They needed a second car. [=they needed two cars] ▪ The chair needs a second coat of paint. ▪ The word has a second meaning. [=the word has two meanings] ▪ She took a second helping [=she took another serving] of carrots. ▪ English as a second language [=a language that you learn in addition to the language you first learned when you were a young child] ▪ I could have fired him, but I gave him a second chance. [=I gave him another chance] ▪ I recommend you get a second opinion. [=advice from another doctor to make sure the first advice is right] ▪ He passed her by without (giving her) a second glance. [=he didn't notice her] ▪ She liked the house enough to give it a second look. [=she looked at the house again]

2 — used to refer to the forward gear or speed of a vehicle that is next to the lowest forward gear ▪ You should put the car in second gear when you go up the hill. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The movie never really gets out of second gear. ▪ The program is shifting into second gear now that all the proposals have been approved.

3 : having or playing the part in a group of instruments that is one level lower than the first ▪ She plays second violin in the city orchestra. — see also play second fiddle at ¹FIDDLE

every second — used to indicate how often a repeated activity happens or is done ▪ We elect a mayor every second year. [=in alternate years; every other year] second only to : only less important than (something or someone) ▪ Rice is second only to corn as the state's major crop.

second to none see ¹NONE

²second adv

1 : in a position that only comes after one other in time, order, or importance ▪ The university ranks second in the nation. ▪ This is the second most common error made by job applicants. ▪ Milan is Italy's second largest city. ▪ I placed/finished second in the race. = (US) I came in second in the race. = (Brit) I came second in the race. ▪ The misspelled word is in the second to last paragraph. [=in the paragraph that comes just before the last one] — see also SECOND BEST

2 — used to introduce a statement that is the second in a series of statements ▪ It's pointless to plan a trip—first, we can't afford one, and second, we don't have time to take one.

³second noun, pl -onds

1 [singular] : something that is second : the second thing in a series ▪ His birthday is on the second of June. [=on June 2] ▪ The win was his second of the year. — see also a close second at ²CLOSE

2 seconds [plural] : another serving of food taken after you are finished with the first serving ▪ Who wants seconds?

3 [singular] : a statement made to support or approve a motion in a meeting ▪ There's been a motion to vote on the proposal. Do I hear a second?

4 [count] : a product that is cheaper than normal because it is damaged or imperfect — usually plural ▪ These curtains are seconds. ▪ The store sells factory seconds.

5 [noncount] : the forward gear or speed in a vehicle that is one speed higher than first gear ▪ Put the car/bicycle in second when you go up the hill.

6 [count] Brit : an undergraduate degree of the second highest level from a British university ▪ He took/received a second in history.

7 [noncount] baseball : SECOND BASE ▪ He stole second. ▪ There's a runner on second.

8 [count] : a person whose job is to help someone who is fighting in a boxing match or duel

– compare ⁴SECOND

⁴second noun, pl -onds [count]

1 a : a unit of time that is equal to ⅙₀ of a minute ▪ There was a delay of several seconds. ▪ a 30-second TV commercial ▪ phone lines transmitting data at 1,200 bits per second ▪ The sound came on for a second or two and then went off again. b informal : a very brief period of time ▪ For a second (there) I thought you were kidding. ▪ This will (just/only) take a second. ▪ I'll be back in a second. [=I'll be back very soon] ▪ I can't come right this second. [=at this very moment] ▪ "Did you enjoy her visit?" "I enjoyed every second." [=I enjoyed the entire visit] ▪ I expect her back any second now. [=very soon] ▪ It could happen at any second. [=at any time] — see also SPLIT SECOND

2 technical : one of 60 equal parts into which a minute can be divided for measuring angles ▪ 40 degrees, 27 minutes, and 45 seconds

just a second see ²JUST

just this second see ²JUST

– compare ³SECOND

⁵second verb sec•onds; sec•ond•ed; sec•ond•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to approve (something, such as a motion) during a meeting so that discussion or voting can begin ▪ I would like to second the motion to adjourn. b informal : to agree with (a suggestion or statement) ▪ "Let's call it a day." "I'll second that."

2 /sɪˈkɑːnd/ Brit : to move (someone) from a regular job to a different place, department, etc., for a short period of time — usually used as (be) seconded ▪ She was seconded to the Birmingham office for six months.

– sec•ond•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Nomination forms must be signed by a nominator and a seconder.

¹sec•ond•ary /ˈsɛkənˌderi, Brit ˈsɛkəndri/ adj

1 : not as important or valuable as something else ▪ Winning is secondary—we play for the fun of the sport. ▪ There are some secondary issues/considerations which must be taken into account as well. ▪ secondary goals ▪ I want a car that's reliable; the color is of secondary importance. ▪ The secondary roads are indicated on the map with a green line. — often + to ▪ In some children's books, the text is secondary to the illustrations. — compare PRIMARY, TERTIARY

2 : of or relating to education of students who have completed primary school ▪ This job requires at least a secondary [=high school] education. ▪ a secondary English textbook — see also SECONDARY SCHOOL

3 : caused by or coming from something else ▪ a secondary infection ▪ Better gas mileage is a secondary benefit of reduced speed limits. ▪ The biography uses mostly secondary sources. [=information that did not come from original/primary sources but came from research done by others]

– sec•ond•ar•i•ly /ˌsɛkənˈderəli/ adv ▪ The building planners are only secondarily concerned with accessibility.

²secondary noun, pl -aries [count] American football : the players on the defense who are positioned away from the line of scrimmage and who mainly try to stop forward passes by the offense ▪ The team has a strong secondary.

secondary color noun, pl ~ -ors [count] : a color (such as green, orange, or purple) that is formed by mixing two primary colors secondary school noun, pl ~ schools [count]

1 US : HIGH SCHOOL 1 ▪ a job that requires at least a secondary school education

2 Brit : a school for children between the ages of 11 and 16 or 18 — compare PRIMARY SCHOOL second banana noun, pl ~ -nanas [count] US, informal : a someone who is not as important or powerful as another person ▪ an actor who always plays (the) second banana to some big star — compare TOP BANANA second base noun [singular] baseball : the base that must be touched second by a base runner ▪ He slid into second base.; also : the position of the player who defends the area near second base ▪ He used to play second base for the Red Sox. — compare FIRST BASE, HOME PLATE, THIRD BASE second baseman noun, pl ~ -men [count] baseball : the player who defends the area near second base : the fielder who plays second base second best noun [noncount] : something that is good but not the best ▪ He won't settle for second best.

come off second best chiefly Brit : to finish in second place : to fail to win ▪ Our team came off second best.

– sec•ond–best /ˌsɛkəndˈbɛst/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ We were seated at the second-best table. ▪ He was considered the team's second-best pitcher.

second childhood noun [noncount] : a time when an old person whose mind is failing begins to behave like a child again ▪ an old man going through his second childhood

second class noun

1 [noncount] a : a level of service on a train, ship, etc., that is just below first class ▪ The airline offers special services for travelers in first and second class. b : a class of mail in the U.S. that includes newspapers, magazines, etc. c : a class of mail in the UK that costs less and takes longer to arrive than first class

2 [singular] Brit : an undergraduate degree of the second highest level given by a British university ▪ She got an upper second class in English at Oxford.

second-class adj

1 : of or relating to second class ▪ a second-class seat ▪ second-class postage

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 a : not given the same rights or treatment as the rest of the people in a society ▪ They complained that they were being treated like second-class citizens. [=being treated as if they were less important and deserving of respect than other people] b : not of the best quality ▪ They received second-class treatment. ▪ a second-class mind/intellect – second-class adv ▪ She always travels second-class.

Second Coming noun
the Second Coming : the time when Christians believe that Jesus Christ will return to judge humanity at the end of the world

second cousin noun, pl ~ -sins [count] : a child of your parent's cousin ▪ Susan is my second cousin. — compare FIRST COUSIN second-degree adj, always used before a noun

1 US, of a crime : of a level of seriousness that is less than first-degree : deserving punishment but not the most severe punishment ▪ second-degree assault/murder
2 : causing a moderate level of injury ▪ He received/suffered second-degree burns. ▪ a second-degree concussion — compare FIRST-DEGREE, THIRD-DEGREE – second degree noun [singular] US ▪ He was charged with assault in the second degree.

sec•ond-guess /ˌsɛkənd'gɛs/ verb -guess•es; -guessed; -guess•ing [+ obj]
1 US : to criticize or question the actions or decisions of someone ▪ Don't second-guess the umpire. = Don't second-guess the umpire's decision.
2 : to try to guess or predict what (someone or something) will do ▪ He gave up trying to second-guess the stock market.
– sec•ond-guess•er noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US ▪ He received criticism from second-guessers in the media.

sec•ond•hand /'sɛkənd'hænd/ adj
1 a : having had a previous owner : USED ▪ He buys second-hand CDs. ▪ a dealer in secondhand furniture b : buying or selling things that have already been owned or used ▪ He's always haunting the secondhand shops for bargains. ▪ a second-hand bookstore
2 : not original : taken from someone who was not directly involved ▪ secondhand information/reports — compare FIRSTHAND – secondhand adv ▪ She buys all her clothes secondhand. ▪ I heard about the news secondhand.

second hand noun, pl ~ hands [count] : the hand that marks the seconds on a watch or clock — compare HOUR HAND, MINUTE HAND secondhand smoke noun [noncount] : smoke from a cigarette, cigar, pipe, etc., that can be inhaled by people who are near the person who is smoking second-in-command noun, pl seconds-in-command [count] : someone who is ranked second in a group or organization ▪ He served as second-in-command to the sheriff. ▪ the police chief's second-in-command second lieutenant noun, pl ~ -ants [count] : an officer in the U.S. Army, Air Force, or Marine Corps who ranks below a first lieutenant sec•ond•ly /'sɛkəndli/ adv — used to introduce a statement that is the second statement in a series ▪ I'm moving because, for one thing, my apartment is too small, and, secondly, I found one closer to my job. — compare FIRSTLY, THIRDLY se•cond•ment /sɪ'kɑːndmənt/ noun [noncount] Brit : a period of time when you are away from your regular job while you do another job ▪ She returned to London after her secondment in/to Birmingham.

second nature noun [noncount] : something you can do easily or without much thought because you have done it many times before ▪ After a while, using the gearshift becomes second nature.

second person noun [noncount]
1 grammar : a set of words or forms (such as pronouns or verb forms) that refer to the person that the speaker or writer is addressing — often used before another noun ▪ "You" is the second person singular and plural pronoun in English.
2 : a writing style that uses second person pronouns and verbs ▪ The author begins the story in the second person with the sentence "You open the door and step into the room." — compare FIRST PERSON, THIRD PERSON sec•ond-rate /ˌsɛkənd'reɪt/ adj : not very good : of ordinary or inferior quality ▪ a second-rate education ▪ The meal was only second-rate.

sec•ond-string /ˌsɛkənd'strɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, sports : not used as one of the regular players on a team ▪ a second-string quarterback — compare FIRST-STRING – second stringer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US

second thought noun, pl ~ thoughts [count] : a feeling of guilt, doubt, worry, etc., that you have after you have decided to do something or after something has happened ▪ After she agreed to lend him the money, she had second thoughts. ▪ She was having second thoughts about getting married. ▪ They throw away perfectly good food without (so much as) a second thought. [=without worrying about it] ▪ Don't give a second thought to [=don't worry about] that broken vase. ▪ He hardly gave it a second thought.
on second thought (US) or Brit on second thoughts : after thinking about something again ▪ On second thought, I think I'll go after all.

second wind noun [singular] : a feeling of new energy that allows you to continue to do something after you had begun to feel tired ▪ The sight of the finish line gave the runners a second wind. ▪ He suddenly got his second wind and was able to complete the project on time.

se•cre•cy /'siːkrəsi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of keeping information secret ▪ She swore him to secrecy. [=made him promise to keep a secret]
2 : the quality or state of being hidden or secret ▪ The project was cloaked/shrouded in secrecy. [=the true nature of the project was kept secret]

[1]se•cret /'siːkrət/ adj
1 : kept hidden from others : known to only a few people ▪ the robbers' secret hideout ▪ a secret compartment/passage/cave ▪ a secret formula/ingredient ▪ Her secret wish is to become a senator. ▪ The message was written in secret code. ▪ I don't know the secret password. ▪ He was sent on a secret mission. ▪ They engaged in secret negotiations with the enemy. ▪ She tried to keep her marriage secret. ▪ She has a secret admirer. [=someone admires her but she does not know who it is] ▪ She has a secret lover. [=a lover that no one else knows about] — see also SECRET AGENT, SECRET POLICE, SECRET SERVICE, TOP SECRET
2 [more ~; most ~] : keeping information hidden from others : SECRETIVE ▪ They've been very secret about their plans.
– se•cret•ly adv ▪ She wrote to him secretly. ▪ He was secretly delighted by their decision. ▪ They got married secretly.

[2]secret noun, pl -crets [count]
1 : a fact or piece of information that is kept hidden from other people ▪ Don't tell him about the party—it's a secret. ▪ I'm going to tell you a secret, but you have to promise not to tell anyone else. ▪ They're getting married. The secret is out. [=everyone now knows that they're getting married] ▪ He knows how to keep a secret. [=if you tell him a secret he won't tell it to anyone else] ▪ This wine may be Italy's best-kept secret. [=something very good that not many people know about] ▪ It's no secret [=many people know] that he has connections to the Mafia. ▪ I'll let you in on a (little) secret. [=I'll tell you a secret] ▪ The report disclosed the company's dirty little secret. [=something bad that the company does not want people to know] ▪ Don't worry. Your secret is safe with me. [=I won't tell anyone your secret] — see also TRADE SECRET
2 : a special or unusual way of doing something to achieve a good result ▪ You always look great. What's your secret? ▪ She shared her beauty secrets with the group. ▪ The secret to/of a good sauce is the base. ▪ What is the secret to your success? [=why are you so successful?]
3 : something that cannot be explained ▪ the secrets of the universe ▪ one of nature's greatest secrets in secret : in a private place or manner ▪ They met in secret. [=secretly] make no secret of : to show or express (something) openly : to not try to hide (something) ▪ She made no secret of her dislike for him.

secret agent noun, pl ~ agents [count] : a person who tries to get secret information about another country, government, etc. ▪ He was accused of being a secret agent for a foreign government.

sec•re•tar•i•at /ˌsɛkrə'terijət/ noun, pl -ats [count] : a department in a governmental organization that is headed by a secretary or a secretary-general ▪ the United Nations secretariat

sec•re•tary /'sɛkrəˌteri, Brit 'sɛkrətri/ noun, pl -tar•ies [count]
1 : a person whose job is to handle records, letters, etc., for another person in an office ▪ You can set up an appointment

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

with my secretary. ▪ He works as a legal secretary. ▪ She is our executive/administrative secretary. [=a secretary with some management duties] — see also PRESS SECRETARY

2 : a person in a club or other organization who is in charge of keeping letters and records ▪ He was the club's secretary.

3 a US : an official who is selected by the President and is in charge of a particular department of the government ▪ the Secretary of Commerce ▪ the Treasury Secretary b Brit : a government official who helps a minister, an ambassador, etc. ▪ He is a junior secretary at the embassy. c Brit : SECRETARY OF STATE 2 — see also FOREIGN SECRETARY

– sec•re•tar•i•al /ˌsɛkrəˈterijəl/ adj ▪ secretarial duties

Secretary–General noun, pl Secretaries–General [count] : an official who is in charge of an organization ▪ the Secretary-General of the United Nations

Secretary of State noun, pl Secretaries of State [count]

1 : the head of the U.S. government department that is in charge of how the country relates to and deals with foreign countries ▪ The President appointed the Secretary of State.

2 : the head of one of several important departments of the British government ▪ the Secretary of State for Home Affairs

[1]se•crete /sɪˈkri:t/ verb -cretes; -cret•ed; -cret•ing [+ obj] biology : to produce and give off (a liquid) ▪ glands that secrete saliva — compare [2]SECRETE

[2]secrete verb -cretes; -creted; -creting [+ obj] somewhat formal : to put (something) in a hidden place ▪ He secreted [=hid] the money under the mattress. — compare [1]SECRETE

se•cre•tion /sɪˈkri:ʃən/ noun, pl -tions biology

1 [noncount] : the production of a liquid by part of a plant or animal ▪ the secretion of stomach acids ▪ insulin secretion

2 [count] : a substance produced and given off by a plant or animal part ▪ gastric secretions ▪ root secretions that repel insects se•cre•tive /ˈsi:krətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not letting people see or know what you are doing or thinking : tending to act in secret ▪ a highly secretive organization ▪ He's very secretive about his work.

– se•cre•tive•ness noun [noncount]

secret police noun

the secret police : a police organization that is run by a government and that operates in a secret way to control the actions of people who oppose the government secret service noun

1 the Secret Service : a U.S. government department in charge of protecting elected leaders of the U.S. and visiting leaders

2 [singular] : a government department that protects a country's secrets and obtains secret information about other countries ▪ the British secret service

sect /ˈsɛkt/ noun, pl sects [count]

1 : a religious group that is a smaller part of a larger group and whose members all share similar beliefs ▪ Buddhist sects ▪ a sect of Judaism

2 : a religious or political group that is connected to a larger group but that has beliefs that differ greatly from those of the main group ▪ a fundamentalist Christian sect ▪ radical Muslim sects

sec•tar•i•an /sɛkˈterijən/ adj : relating to religious or political sects and the differences between them ▪ sectarian movements ▪ The country was split along sectarian lines. ▪ sectarian violence

– sec•tar•i•an•ism /sɛkˈterijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ The country was split by sectarianism.

[1]sec•tion /ˈsɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] a : one of the parts that form something ▪ the upper section of the bridge ▪ This section of the road is closed. b : a particular area that is part of a larger place ▪ the frozen food section in the supermarket ▪ the library's reference section ▪ the Crown Heights section of Brooklyn ▪ Do you want to sit in the nonsmoking section? c : a part of a newspaper, play, book, etc. ▪ Can I see the sports section (of the newspaper)? ▪ The dictionary includes a section on signs and symbols. ▪ Section 1123 of the bankruptcy code d : a part of a group of people ▪ ads that target one section of the population ▪ He had his own cheering section in the stands. [=his own group of people who were cheering for him]

2 [count] : one of several parts made so that something can be put together easily ▪ The siding comes in five-foot sections.

3 [count] : a part of a band or orchestra that has instruments of a particular kind ▪ the brass section ▪ the rhythm section

4 [count] US : one of the parts of an orange, grapefruit, or similar fruit that can be easily separated from each other ▪ a section of grapefruit — see color picture on page C5

5 [count] medical : a layer cut from a part of the body ▪ He examined tissue sections of the brain under a microscope. — see also CESAREAN SECTION

6 a [noncount] : a diagram showing how something would look if it was cut from the top to the bottom : CROSS SECTION ▪ a drawing of a ship in section b [count] mathematics : a shape that is made when a line cuts through a solid figure ▪ a conical section

7 [count] US : a piece of land that is one mile wide and one mile long

[2]section verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj]

1 : to divide (something) into parts ▪ Peel and section the orange. ▪ Section the chicken and marinate the parts.

2 Brit : to officially send (a mentally ill person) to a psychiatric hospital ▪ She was sectioned by the judge.

section off [phrasal verb] section (something) off or section off (something) : to separate (an area) from a larger area ▪ Part of the field was sectioned off for parking.

[1]sec•tion•al /ˈsɛkʃənl/ adj

1 : showing how something would look if it were cut from the top to the bottom ▪ a sectional drawing/view of a ship

2 : concerned only with one part of a group or community ▪ sectional [=(more commonly) local] interests ▪ sectional conflict

3 : made up of sections that can be put together or taken apart easily ▪ sectional shelving

[2]sectional noun, pl -als [count] US : a type of long seat (called a sofa) that has three or more separate sections ▪ a leather sectional — called also sectional sofa

sec•tion•al•ism /ˈsɛkʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a tendency to be more concerned with the interests of your particular group or region than with the problems and interests of the larger group, country, etc. ▪ a nation divided by sectionalism

sec•tor /ˈsɛktə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : an area of an economy : a part of an economy that includes certain kinds of jobs ▪ the industrial/agricultural/service sector — see also PRIVATE SECTOR, PUBLIC SECTOR

2 : an area for which someone (such as a military commander) is responsible ▪ He was assigned to the northern sector.

3 computers : one of the parts that a computer disk is divided into ▪ Data is stored on the disk in 512-byte sectors.

4 geometry : an area in a circle that lies between two straight lines drawn from the center of the circle to the edge of the circle ▪ a 90-degree sector

sec•u•lar /ˈsɛkjələ/ adj

1 a [more ~; most ~] : not spiritual : of or relating to the physical world and not the spiritual world ▪ secular concerns b : not religious ▪ secular music ▪ a secular society ▪ Both secular and religious institutions can apply for the funds. c : of, relating to, or controlled by the government rather than by the church : CIVIL ▪ secular courts

2 — used to describe a member of the clergy who lives in ordinary society and not in a monastery ▪ a secular priest secular humanism noun [noncount] chiefly US : HUMANISM; especially : humanism viewed as a system of values and beliefs that are opposed to the values and beliefs of traditional religions – secular humanist noun, pl ~ -ists [count]

sec•u•lar•ism /ˈsɛkjələˌrɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that religion should not play a role in government, education, or other public parts of society

– sec•u•lar•ist /ˈsɛkjələrɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

– secularist or sec•u•lar•is•tic /ˌsɛkjələˈrɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ the more secularist wing of the party ▪ a secularistic view

sec•u•lar•ize also Brit sec•u•lar•ise /ˈsɛkjələˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]

1 : to take religion out of (something) : to make (something) secular ▪ attempts to secularize the government ▪ a secularized society

2 : to transfer the ownership or control of (something) from a religious organization to the state ▪ The government secularized the hospital.

– sec•u•lar•i•za•tion also Brit sec•u•lar•i•sa•tion /ˌsɛkjələrəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsɛkjələˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]se•cure /sɪˈkjə/ adj se•cur•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 a : protected from danger or harm ▪ We need to make our network more secure against attacks by hackers. ▪ The children were safe and secure in their beds. ▪ A safe is provided

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

to keep your valuables secure from potential thieves. b : providing protection from danger or harm ▪ You should store your valuables in a secure place. ▪ How secure is your front door? c : guarded so that no one can enter or leave without approval ▪ You are now entering a secure area. ▪ (chiefly Brit) a secure unit for young offenders

2 : feeling safe and free from worries or doubt : CONFIDENT ▪ I'm feeling secure about my place in the company. ▪ I was secure in the belief/knowledge that I had done all I could. [=I felt confident because I believed/knew that I had done all I could] ▪ They are financially secure. [=they have enough money to live on; they do not have to worry about money] — opposite INSECURE

3 a : firmly attached ▪ Is that shelf secure? ▪ Make sure the door is secure. [=shut tightly] b : in a firm position that prevents unwanted movement ▪ a secure grip ▪ secure footing c : not in danger of being lost or taken away ▪ The company has established a secure foothold in the market. ▪ He believes his job is secure. ▪ a secure investment ▪ They didn't begin to celebrate until they knew their victory was secure.

4 : known only to certain people ▪ You can access your bank account online using a secure [=secret] password.

[2]secure verb -cures; -cured; -cur•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal

1 a : to make (something) safe by guarding or protecting it ▪ Police secured the building. ▪ We must secure the country's borders. b : to put (something) in a place or position so that it will not move ▪ Secure your belongings under the seat. ▪ secure a child safety seat ▪ The metal rod is secured (in place) with a pin. ▪ The seat is secured to the base by three screws.

2 : to make (something) certain ▪ She scored a goal to secure the team's victory. ▪ She secured the zoo's future with a handsome bequest.

3 : to guarantee that (an amount owed) will be paid usually by offering your property if you cannot pay ▪ He secured a loan using his house as collateral.

4 : to get (something) by using effort : OBTAIN ▪ We secured permission to visit the school. ▪ I secured a place in the final round. ▪ He secured a position with the insurance company. ▪ He secured her release.

se•cure•ly /sɪ'kjɚli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : not loosely : so as not to move or be removed : FIRMLY ▪ He made sure the balloon was securely fastened to his little girl's wrist. ▪ Tie the boat securely to the dock. ▪ Place your items securely in the overhead bins.

2 a : so as not to be found ▪ The jewels were securely [=safely] hidden. b : in a manner that prevents secret information from being seen by others ▪ insuring that everyone can vote securely ▪ You can shop and bank securely on the Internet.

se•cu•ri•ty /sɪ'kjɚrəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] a : the state of being protected or safe from harm ▪ We must insure our national security. — often used before another noun ▪ an electronic security system ▪ random security checks ▪ security measures b : things done to make people or places safe ▪ The college failed to provide adequate security on campus after dark. ▪ increased security at airports ▪ There was a lapse in security and the inmates escaped. c : the area in a place (such as an airport) where people are checked to make sure they are not carrying weapons or other illegal materials ▪ We have to go through security at the airport. d : the part of a company or other organization that provides protection for workers, equipment, etc. ▪ We called security when we found the door open.

2 [noncount] : the state of being closely watched or guarded ▪ The meeting was held under tight security. ▪ The prisoner was being kept under maximum security.

3 [noncount] : the state of being free from anxiety or worry : the state of being or feeling secure ▪ financial security ▪ She is concerned about job security. [=about the possibility of losing her job] ▪ I like the security of knowing there will be someone there to help me when I need help. ▪ Growing up in a close family gave her a sense of security.

4 [count] a : something given as proof of a promise to make a payment later ▪ security for a loan b : a document showing that someone owns or has invested in a company, organization, etc. ▪ government securities

– see also SOCIAL SECURITY security blanket noun, pl ~ -kets [count] : a blanket that is carried by a child because it makes the child feel safe — often used figuratively ▪ The job was her security blanket. [=the job was the thing that made her feel safe and secure]

security deposit noun, pl ~ -its [count] : an amount of money that you pay when you begin to rent property (such as an apartment) and that can be used to pay for any damage that you cause to the property security guard noun, pl ~ guards [count] : a person whose job is to guard a place (such as a store or museum) and make sure the people and things in it are not harmed security risk noun, pl ~ risks [count]

1 : someone who could damage an organization by giving information to an enemy or competitor ▪ We can't let him see this information—he's a security risk.

2 : someone or something that is a risk to safety ▪ Any package left unattended will be deemed a security risk.

se•dan /sɪ'dæn/ noun, pl -dans [count] US : a car that has four doors and that has room for four or more people — called also (Brit) saloon, (Brit) saloon car; see picture at CAR; compare COUPE

sedan chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] : a covered chair that is carried on poles by two people and that was used in the past for carrying a passenger through the streets of a city

[1]se•date /sɪ'deɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : slow and relaxed ▪ We walked the beach at a sedate pace.

2 : quiet and peaceful : CALM ▪ a sedate neighborhood/town ▪ the sedate countryside ▪ He remained sedate under pressure. ▪ a sedate horse

[2]sedate verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj] : to give (a person or animal) drugs that cause relaxation or sleep ▪ The doctor sedated the patient heavily. — often used as (be) sedated ▪ The patient had to be sedated. ▪ The animal was heavily sedated during the procedure.

se•da•tion /sɪ'deɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 : a relaxed, calm, or sleepy condition that results from taking a drug (called a sedative) ▪ Patients are kept under (heavy) sedation during the surgery.

2 : the act of giving a person or animal a drug that causes calmness or relaxation ▪ For some patients, sedation may be necessary.

sed•a•tive /'sɛdətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : a drug that calms or relaxes someone ▪ The patient was given a powerful sedative. — often used before another noun ▪ sedative drugs/medicine ▪ the sedative effects of the drug sed•en•tary /'sɛdn̩,teri, Brit 'sɛdn̩tri/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : doing or involving a lot of sitting : not doing or involving much physical activity ▪ Editing the dictionary is a sedentary job. ▪ The work is very sedentary. ▪ Their health problems were caused by their sedentary lifestyles/lives. ▪ He became sedentary later on in his life.

2 : staying or living in one place instead of moving to different places ▪ sedentary birds ▪ sedentary tribes/people se•der or Se•der /'seɪdɚ/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a Jewish religious service and dinner that is held on the first or first and second evenings of the Passover sedge /'sɛʤ/ noun, pl sedg•es [count, noncount] : a plant like grass that grows in wet ground or near water

sed•i•ment /'sɛdəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount]

1 : material that sinks to the bottom of a liquid ▪ There was a layer of sediment in the bottom of the tank.

2 : material (such as stones and sand) that is carried into water by water, wind, etc.

sed•i•men•ta•ry /ˌsɛdə'mɛntəri/ adj, technical : made from material that sinks to the bottom of a liquid : made from sediment ▪ sedimentary layers/deposits ▪ Sandstone is a sedimentary rock. [=a type of rock formed when sediments that were deposited in ancient times were pressed together and became hard]

sed•i•men•ta•tion /ˌsɛdəmən'teɪʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the natural process in which material (such as stones and sand) is carried to the bottom of a body of water and forms a solid layer ▪ rock formed by sedimentation se•di•tion /sɪ'dɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the crime of saying, writing, or doing something that encourages people to disobey their government ▪ The leaders of the group have been arrested and charged with sedition.

– se•di•tious /sɪ'dɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was arrested for making seditious statements.

se•duce /sɪ'du:s, Brit sɪ'dju:s/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj]

1 : to persuade (someone) to have sex with you ▪ He tried to seduce her. ▪ She was seduced by an older man.

2 : to persuade (someone) to do something ▪ The other team seduced him with a better offer. — often + into ▪ He seduced people into following him by telling them lies. — often used

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

as (be) seduced ▪ The people were seduced into thinking/believing that he was a prophet. ▪ She was seduced (into acting) by thoughts of fame and fortune. ▪ He was seduced into a life of crime.

– se•duc•er /sɪˈduːsɚ, Brit sɪˈdjuːsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ the seducer of a young woman

se•duc•tion /sɪˈdʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : the act of persuading someone to have sex with you [count] The book describes his seductions of young women. [noncount] a story of seduction

2 [count] : something that interests and attracts people — usually plural ▪ Tourists cannot resist the seductions of the island. ▪ the seductions of fame and fortune se•duc•tive /sɪˈdʌktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : sexually attractive ▪ a seductive woman/smile/voice/dress ▪ He looks seductive.

2 : making someone do or want something : very attractive ▪ The idea of moving to New York City is highly/very seductive. [=tempting] ▪ The wine has a seductive [=alluring] aroma. ▪ the seductive power of advertising

– se•duc•tive•ly adv ▪ She walks/talks seductively. ▪ She was dressed seductively. ▪ The desserts sound seductively sweet. – se•duc•tive•ness noun [noncount]

se•duc•tress /sɪˈdʌktrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count] : an attractive woman who seduces someone

[1]see /ˈsiː/ verb sees; saw /ˈsɑː/; seen /ˈsiːn/; see•ing /ˈsiːɪŋ/

1 a : to notice or become aware of (someone or something) by using your eyes [+ obj] It was so dark that I couldn't see anything. ▪ I can't see a thing without my glasses. ▪ Would you turn on the light? I can hardly see a thing. ▪ Let me see what you're holding in your hand. ▪ I saw your sister at the party, but I didn't talk to her. ▪ I saw her take the money. ▪ Nobody saw the accident happen. ▪ He was last seen leaving his house yesterday morning. ▪ This is the prettiest garden I've ever seen! = I've never seen such a pretty garden (before)! ▪ You have to see it to believe it. ▪ "He says he's coming." "I'll believe it when I see it." ▪ It's nice to see you (looking) so happy! ▪ I can see how happy you are. ▪ I could see (that) she was tired. ▪ I see (that) you bought a new car. = You bought a new car, I see. ▪ This club is the place to be seen (at) these days. [=this club is the place where people go to be noticed by important or fashionable people] ▪ "Have you met the new guy yet?" "No, but I've seen him around." [=I have noticed him in some of the places I often go to] ▪ A mall's a mall. If you've seen one, you've seen them all. [=all shopping malls look the same] [no obj] It was so dark that I couldn't see. ▪ He can no longer see to read without his glasses. ▪ I couldn't see through/out the foggy window. ▪ I can't see over the person in front of me. ▪ On a clear day, you can see for miles from the top of the mountain. ▪ "He broke his leg." "So I see." [=I can see that his leg is broken] ▪ If you don't believe me, go and see for yourself. b [no obj] : to have the ability to see : to have the power of sight ▪ She doesn't/can't see very well. ▪ She cannot see. [=she is blind]

2 : to be or become aware of (something) [+ obj] He saw the opportunity and took it. ▪ He only sees [=notices] my faults. ▪ I saw a big difference in her behavior. ▪ It was easy to see that she was lying. ▪ Can't you see that he needs help? ▪ Anyone can see that they're in love. ▪ I can see there has been a mistake. ▪ I see that the school has raised its tuition again. ▪ He claims that he can see the future. [=that he knows what will happen in the future] ▪ I see by/from the newspaper that they've won the election. ▪ Looking at the sales figures, we can see a steady rise in profits. ▪ Investors never saw this turn in the stock market coming. ▪ The book's ending is so predictable that you can see it coming a mile away/off. [no obj] He claims that he can see into the future. ▪ As you can see, the sales figures show a steady rise in profits.

3 : to learn or find out (something) especially by looking or waiting [+ obj] Please see who's at the door. ▪ It will be interesting to see if the team can pull off a win. ▪ I'm not sure if I'm going to the party. I have to see how I feel tomorrow. ▪ You should try on the dress to see if it fits. ▪ Can you check to see if the car needs oil? ▪ She brought the car to a mechanic to see what was wrong with it. ▪ I'll see what I can do to help. ▪ We'll have to see how it goes. ▪ We saw, in the previous lecture, how Newton came up with his theory. ▪ He called to see if we would be home tonight. ▪ I have to wait and see whether or not I got the job. ▪ It remains to be seen [=it is uncertain] whether or not she was lying. [no obj] "Can you fix the car?" "I will have to see." ▪ "Can I go to the party?" "We'll see." [=maybe, perhaps] ▪ Things will get better, you'll see.

4 [+ obj] a not used in progressive tenses : to read (something written or printed) ▪ Have you seen today's newspaper? ▪ I saw in the newspaper that the team lost. ▪ I need to see your license. ▪ He posted his journal online for all (the world) to see. b — used to tell someone where to look for information ▪ For further information, see Appendix A. ▪ See the explanatory notes at the beginning of the book. ▪ See [=look] below for details.

5 [+ obj] a : to watch (a television program, movie, etc.) ▪ Did you see the baseball game (on TV) last night? ▪ I saw that movie, too. b : to go to and watch (a performance, play, event, etc.) ▪ We saw the parade. ▪ We are seeing a play tonight.

6 [no obj] — used in speech to direct someone's attention to something or someone ▪ See, I told you it would rain. ▪ See, the bus is coming.

7 [+ obj] a : to think of (someone or something) in a certain way ▪ Looking back, I see things differently now. ▪ I see myself to be an understanding person. ▪ I see you now for what you really are: a liar and cheat. ▪ Try to see things from my point of view. ▪ In order to understand them, you have to see the world through their eyes. — often + as ▪ She saw herself as an independent woman. [=she thought of herself as independent] ▪ He is seen as one of the best players in baseball. ▪ I see the job as a great opportunity. b — used to say what your opinion is about something ▪ "Can we do it?" "I don't see why not." [=yes, I believe that we can do it] ▪ As I see it, you have only two choices. ▪ The way he sees it, we should be done by Friday. [=he thinks we should be done by Friday]

8 [+ obj] a : to imagine (someone) as being or doing something specified ▪ Can you really see yourself any happier than you are now? ▪ I can't see her becoming a doctor. ▪ I can't see him objecting to our plan, can you? — often + as ▪ She sees herself as a doctor in the future. ▪ I can still see her as she was years ago. ▪ Somehow, I just couldn't see him as a banker. b : to form a mental picture of (something) ▪ He saw a great future for himself in baseball. ▪ I can see it now in my mind: you and her married with two kids.

9 : to understand (something) [+ obj] I see what you mean. ▪ I can see why/how you would feel that way. ▪ I don't see the point of your story. ▪ What's so funny? I don't see the joke. ▪ I don't see why we have to do that. ▪ I don't see how/that/why it matters. ▪ I can't get him to see reason/sense. [no obj] "You should hold the club like this." "Oh, I see."

10 [+ obj] a : to meet with (someone) ▪ I can see you later this afternoon. ▪ I'll be seeing my lawyer on Friday. ▪ Do you see your dentist regularly? ▪ The doctor is seeing a patient at the moment. ▪ He has been seeing a psychotherapist. — often + about ▪ You should see a doctor about your rash. ▪ What would you like to see me about? b : to visit (someone) ▪ I saw him at the hospital. ▪ I am seeing an old friend tomorrow. c : to allow yourself to be visited by (someone) ▪ He's not seeing anyone today. d : to be with and talk to (someone) ▪ I can't tell you how glad/pleased I am to see you again! ▪ We'll see you again real soon. ▪ They see each other less [=they spend less time together] now that he has a new job. e — used in phrases like see more/less of and see a lot of to describe how much time people spend with each other ▪ I'd like to see more of you. [=I'd like to spend more time with you] ▪ They've been seeing a lot of each other lately. [=they've been spending a lot of time together lately]

11 [+ obj] : to spend time with (someone) as part of a romantic relationship — usually used as be seeing ▪ They've been seeing each other for over a year. ▪ Are you seeing [=dating] anyone right now?

12 [+ obj] : to make sure (something) is done : to check that (something) is done ▪ See (that) the work gets finished on time. [=make sure that the work is finished on time] ▪ See that the door is locked before you leave the building.

13 [+ obj] : to experience (something) ▪ He saw a lot of action during the war. ▪ I never thought I would live to see the day when gas would cost so much. ▪ Nothing bothers him—he's seen it all before. ▪ Oil prices have seen a large increase.

14 [+ obj] : to be the place or time in which (something) happens ▪ The city has seen a lot of growth in recent years. [=the city has grown a lot in recent years] ▪ This year has seen a drop in profits. [=profits have dropped this year] ▪ The last decade saw many technological advances.

15 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to go somewhere with (someone) ▪ I'll see [=accompany] you home. ▪ They saw [=escorted] him out (of the club). ▪ My secretary will see you to the door. ▪ I can see myself out, thank you. [=I can leave without having anyone show me where to go] ▪ He kissed her goodbye and saw her onto the plane. [=he watched her get onto the plane] — see also SEE OFF (below) 16 [+ obj] : to help or support (someone or something) for a particular period of time ▪ We had enough supplies to see us (out) to the end of winter. [=the supplies were enough to last until the end of winter] — usually + through ▪ The support of his friends saw him through his depression. [=helped him to get through his depression] ▪ The legislators vowed to see the bill through Congress to make sure that it became a law. ▪ They have enough money to see them through.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:49:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

17 [+ obj] : to make a bet that is equal to (another player's bet) in poker ▪ I'll see your 10 and raise you 10. ▪ I'll see you and raise 10.
has seen better days see ¹BETTER
I'll be seeing you informal — used to say goodbye let me see, let's see see ¹LET long time no see see ¹LONG not see the forest/wood for the trees see TREE see about [phrasal verb] see about (something) 1 : to do what is required for (something) : to deal with (something) ▪ She is seeing about getting tickets to the concert. ▪ I should see about [=attend to] dinner soon. 2 *we'll (soon) see about that — used in speech to say that you are not going to allow someone to do something or to behave in a particular way ▪ "He says that he's not going." "Well, we'll (soon) see about that."
see after [phrasal verb] see after (someone or something) : to take care of (someone or something) ▪ See after [=look after] the baggage, while I see if our flight is on time. ▪ Can you see after the baby for me?
see and be seen : to see and be noticed by important or fashionable people ▪ We go to the club to see and be seen.
see around/round [phrasal verb] see around/round (something) Brit : to move about while looking at (something) : to tour (something) ▪ If you'd like to see around [=look around] the factory, someone can accompany you.
see double see ⁴DOUBLE
see eye to eye : to have the same opinion : AGREE — usually used in negative statements ▪ They don't see eye to eye on this issue.
see fit see ¹FIT
see here — used to introduce a statement when you want someone to notice what you are saying ▪ See here [=look here], you need to start behaving more responsibly.
see if I care see ²CARE see in [phrasal verb] see (something) in (someone or something) : to notice or perceive (something good or attractive) in (someone or something) ▪ She saw great musical talent in her son. ▪ I think their plan is crazy, but he apparently sees something in it. ▪ I can't understand what she sees in him. = I don't know what she sees in him. [=I don't know why she likes/admires him] seeing is believing see BELIEVE see off [phrasal verb] see (someone) off or see off (someone) 1 : to go to an airport, train station, etc., with (someone who is leaving) in order to say goodbye ▪ She saw him off at the train station. 2 Brit a : to chase or force (someone) away from a place ▪ The police finally saw them off. b : to defeat or stop (an enemy, opponent, etc.) ▪ They saw off the opposition.
see out [phrasal verb] see (something) out : to continue to work at (something) until it is completed ▪ He saw the project out to its very end.
see over [phrasal verb] see over (something) Brit : to walk around and examine (a place) carefully ▪ They went to see the house over. [=look the house over] see red see ²RED
see stars see ¹STAR
see the back of see ¹BACK
see the light, see the light of day see ¹LIGHT see things : to see things that do not really exist : HALLUCINATE ▪ There's no one there—you must be seeing things.
see through [phrasal verb] 1 *see through (someone or something) : to realize the true nature of (someone or something) ▪ She saw through his lies. [=she knew he was lying] ▪ I can't lie to her—she'd see right through me. 2 *see (something) through : to continue to work at (something) until it is completed ▪ He saw the project through to the end. — see also ¹SEE 16 (above) see to [phrasal verb] 1 *see to (something) : to do or provide what is needed for (something) ▪ His uncle saw to his education. [=his uncle made the necessary payments, arrangements, etc., for his education] ▪ The hotel staff saw to [=attended to] my every need. : to deal with (something) ▪ I have to see to [=attend to] dinner. ▪ I'll see to your order at once. ▪ You really ought to have that rash seen to by a doctor. 2 *see to it : to make sure that something is done ▪ Can you see to it that everyone gets a copy of this memo?
see you or see you around or see you later informal — used to say goodbye ▪ "I guess I'll be going now." "OK. (I'll) See you later."
see your way (clear) to see ¹WAY what/who should you see but see SHOULD ²see noun, pl sees formal

1 [count] : the area in which a bishop has authority : DIOCESE
2 [noncount] : the authority or power of a bishop
3 [count] : the office of a bishop

¹seed /ˈsi:d/ noun, pl seeds
1 : a small object produced by a plant from which a new plant can grow [count] a packet of sunflower seeds ▪ He planted/sowed the seeds three inches apart. ▪ (US) apple/orange seeds [=(Brit) pips] [noncount] She raked the grass seed into the soil. ▪ She grows her plants from seed. [=by planting seeds rather than by some other method] — see color picture on page C5
2 [count] : the beginning of something which continues to develop or grow ▪ Her comment planted/sowed a seed of doubt in his mind. [=caused him to begin to have doubts] ▪ The government's policies planted/sowed the seeds of war/destruction. [=created a situation that led to war/destruction]
3 [count] : a player or team that is ranked as one of the best in a competition (such as a tennis tournament) in order to be sure that the best players or teams do not play against each other in the early part of the competition ▪ The top seed won the tournament. ▪ Our team is the number one seed. ▪ She is ranked as the third seed.
4 [noncount] a literary : all the children, grandchildren, etc., of a particular man ▪ the seed of Abraham b old-fashioned + humorous : a man's semen ▪ a man spreading his seed [=fathering many children] go to seed or run to seed 1 : to produce seeds ▪ The flowers will go to seed and spread. ▪ The plant runs to seed rapidly in hot weather. 2 : to become less attractive, effective, etc., because of age or lack of care ▪ He let himself go to seed after he lost his job.

²seed verb seeds; seed•ed; seed•ing
1 [+ obj] : to plant (an area of ground) with seeds ▪ We seeded the field with corn. ▪ a newly seeded lawn
2 [no obj] of a plant : to produce seeds ▪ These plants will seed late in the fall.
3 [+ obj] : to remove (seeds) from a fruit or vegetable ▪ After you wash and seed the peppers you can chop them.
4 [+ obj] : to give (a player or team) a particular rank which shows how likely that person or team is to win a competition (such as a tennis tournament) — usually used as (be) seeded ▪ The team/player was seeded first/last in the tournament. ▪ the top-seeded player seed itself of a plant : to produce new plants from its own seeds ▪ This plant spreads quickly because it seeds itself.

³seed adj, always used before a noun : used for producing a new crop of plants ▪ seed corn/potatoes seed•bed /ˈsi:dˌbɛd/ noun, pl -beds [count] : an area of soil prepared for planting seeds — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a seedbed for innovation [=a place/situation in which innovation can occur]

seed•less /ˈsi:dləs/ adj : having no seeds inside ▪ seedless grapes ▪ a seedless orange seed•ling /ˈsi:dlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a young plant that is grown from seed seed money noun [noncount] : money that is used for starting a new business, program, project, etc. ▪ He provided seed money for the campaign. — called also seed capital seedy /ˈsi:di/ adj seed•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : dirty or in bad condition ▪ a seedy motel ▪ He was wearing a seedy suit.
2 : not respectable or decent ▪ a seedy bar ▪ a seedy area of the city
3 : having bad morals : DISHONEST ▪ a seedy lawyer
4 : having a lot of seeds ▪ seedy fruit see•ing /ˈsi:jɪŋ/ conj — used to explain the reason for a statement ▪ Seeing how often she gets into trouble [=since she gets into trouble so often], I don't think we should help her this time. — often + that or as ▪ There's not much we can do, seeing that [=since] they've already made their decision. ▪ See- ing as you've met my family, don't you think I should meet yours? ▪ Seeing as how [=since] I'm not busy right now, I can help you.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

Seeing Eye trademark, US — used for a dog that is trained to guide a blind person seek /ˈsi:k/ verb seeks; sought /ˈsɑ:t/; seek•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal

1 : to search for (someone or something) : to try to find (someone or something) ▪ He is seeking employment. [=he is looking for a job] ▪ The office is seeking a salesperson. ▪ The prince is seeking a wife. ▪ Snakes seek the sun to warm their bodies. ▪ thrill-seeking travelers [=travelers who want to have very exciting/thrilling experiences]

2 : to ask for (help, advice, etc.) ▪ You should visit your doctor and seek his advice. ▪ You should seek medical help immediately if you experience any chest pain or shortness of breath. ▪ The church is seeking donations/volunteers.

3 a : to try to get or achieve (something) ▪ He sought revenge for his son's murder. ▪ During the war, she sought asylum in Spain. ▪ They sought refuge in Canada. ▪ The company is seeking new ways to improve service. ▪ The mayor is seeking reelection. ▪ She seeks perfection in her work. ▪ attention-seeking behavior ▪ Immigrants come to America to seek their fortune. [=to try to become rich] ▪ They are seeking compensation/damages [=they are trying to get money] for their loss. b : to make an attempt to do something ▪ Doctors have been seeking [=trying] to find a cure. ▪ The builders sought to make the bridge stronger.

seek out [phrasal verb] seek (someone or something) out or seek out (someone or something) : to search for and find (someone or something) ▪ His parents sought out the best doctors in the field. ▪ White blood cells seek out and destroy infections.

– see also HEAT-SEEKING – seek•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ seekers of perfection ▪ job/thrill/pleasure/autograph seekers

seem /ˈsi:m/ verb seems; seemed; seem•ing [linking verb]

1 : to appear to be something or to do something : to have a quality, appearance, etc., that shows or suggests a particular characteristic, feeling, etc. ▪ She seemed happy. ▪ He didn't seem interested. ▪ Their request seems reasonable/strange. ▪ What they're doing doesn't seem right to me. ▪ The letter seems important. ▪ Her story seems true. — often followed by to + verb ▪ Her story seems to be true. ▪ She seems to know our secret. [=I have the feeling/impression that she knows our secret] ▪ He didn't seem to remember that part of the story. — often used in the phrases seem like, seem as if, and seem as though ▪ He seems like a nice man. = He seems (to be) a nice man. ▪ We waited for what seemed like hours. ▪ Buying a new car seemed like a good idea at the time. ▪ It seemed as if/though the work would never end.

2 — used with it to make a statement about what appears to be true based on what is known ▪ It seems (that) they forgot about the meeting. ▪ The concert will not take place, it seems. ▪ "Are we on schedule?" "So it seems." [=yes, I think that we are on schedule] ▪ They are very rude, or so it seems (to me).

3 — used to make a statement less definite or more polite; followed by to + verb ▪ I seem to remember that you said you'd help me. — often used in negative statements ▪ I can't seem to solve the problem. [=I have tried to solve the problem, but I can't] ▪ I couldn't seem to hit the ball straight. ▪ What seems to be the problem? [=what is the problem?]

seem•ing /ˈsi:mɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, somewhat formal : appearing to be true but not being true or certain : APPARENT ▪ Parents discussed the teacher's seeming lack of interest in the students. ▪ I was fooled by the seeming simplicity of the instructions.

– seem•ing•ly adv ▪ seemingly contradictory statements [=statements that seem to be contradictory] ▪ a seemingly impossible stunt ▪ a seemingly simple job

seem•ly /ˈsi:mli/ adj seem•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~] formal + old-fashioned : proper or appropriate for the situation ▪ seemly behavior ▪ a seemly reply — opposite UNSEEMLY seen past participle of [1]SEE seep /ˈsi:p/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition seeps; seeped; seep•ing [no obj] : to flow or pass slowly through small openings in something ▪ Blood was seeping through the bandage. ▪ The chemicals seeped into the ground. ▪ Water was seeping in (through the cracks). — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The secret seeped out.

seep•age /ˈsi:pɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es formal : an occurrence in which a liquid or gas flows or passes slowly through small openings [count] gas/oil seepages ▪ the seepage of water [noncount] Check for seepage in the basement.

seer /ˈsiɚ/ noun, pl seers [count] : someone who predicts things that will happen in the future ▪ prophets and seers ▪ political seers [=people who make predictions about politics]

seer•suck•er /ˈsiɚˌsʌkɚ/ noun [noncount] : a light type of cloth that has an uneven surface and a pattern of lines — often used before another noun ▪ a seersucker dress/jacket/suit

[1]see•saw /ˈsi:ˌsɑ:/ noun, pl -saws

1 [count] : a long, flat board that is balanced in the middle so that when one end goes up the other end goes down ✧ Children play on a seesaw by sitting on each of its ends and moving each other up and down by pushing off the ground with their feet. ▪ Let's play/ride on the seesaw. — called also (US) teeter-totter; see picture at PLAYGROUND

2 [singular] : a situation in which something keeps changing from one state to another and back again ▪ Their relationship was an emotional seesaw. — often used before another noun ▪ a seesaw battle for power ▪ a seesaw economy

[2]seesaw verb -saws; -sawed; -saw•ing [no obj] : to keep changing from one state or condition to another and then back again ▪ The lead seesawed between the two runners right up to the finish line. ▪ Stock prices have continued to seesaw. [=to go up and down]

seethe /ˈsi:ð/ verb seethes; seethed; seeth•ing [no obj]

1 : to feel or show strong emotion (such as anger) even though you try to control it ▪ He seethed at his brother's success. — often + with ▪ He seethed with anger/jealousy. ▪ The letter seethes with resentment. ▪ a seething letter

2 : to be in a state of constant activity ▪ We found ourselves in the middle of a seething crowd. — often used as (be) seething with ▪ The island is seething with tourists. [=there are very many tourists moving around on the island] ▪ The field was seething with crickets. ▪ His brain was seething with ideas.

see–through /ˈsi:ˌθru:/ adj : thin enough to be seen through ▪ a see-through blouse/container ▪ The plastic is see-through. [=transparent]

[1]seg•ment /ˈsɛgmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]

1 : one of the parts into which something can be divided : SECTION ▪ The railroad track is divided into segments. — often + of ▪ in the final segment of the book ▪ The segment of the population over 70 years of age is growing larger. ▪ The company controls a large segment of the market. ▪ the segments of an orange

2 geometry a : a part of a circle formed by drawing a straight line between two points on the circle b : a part of a straight line between two points

[2]seg•ment /ˈsɛgˌmɛnt, Brit sɛgˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing [+ obj] : to divide (something) into parts ▪ Market researchers have segmented the population into different age groups.

– segmented adj ▪ a worm that has a segmented body = a segmented worm [=a worm whose body is made of different segments or sections]

seg•men•ta•tion /ˌsɛgmənˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the process of dividing something into parts or segments ▪ the segmentation of the population

seg•re•gate /ˈsɛgrɪˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj]

1 : to separate groups of people because of their particular race, religion, etc. ▪ The civil rights movement fought against practices that segregated blacks and whites. — often + from ▪ He grew up at a time when blacks were segregated from whites. ▪ During religious services, women are segregated from men. — opposite INTEGRATE

2 : to not allow people of different races to be together in (a place, such as a school) ▪ Many states at that time continued to segregate public schools. ▪ racially segregated schools ▪ a segregated neighborhood — opposite INTEGRATE

seg•re•ga•tion /ˌsɛgrɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the practice or policy of keeping people of different races, religions, etc., separate from each other ▪ racial/religious segregation ▪ They fought to end the segregation of public schools. ▪ the segregation of men and women

seg•re•ga•tion•ist /ˌsɛgrɪˈgeɪʃənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who supports racial segregation ▪ segregationists versus integrationists ▪ a segregationist politician/state/attitude/view se•gue /ˈsɛˌgweɪ/ verb se•gues; se•gued; se•gue•ing [no obj] : to move without stopping from one activity, topic,

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

song, etc., to another ▪ She quickly segued to the next topic. ▪ The band smoothly segued from one song to the next. ▪ In the movie, a shot of the outside of the house segued neatly to/into a shot of the family inside the house.

– segue noun, pl segues [count] ▪ a nice segue to the next song ▪ She used the question as a segue to her next topic.

seis•mic /ˈsaɪzmɪk/ adj, always used before a noun

1 technical : of, relating to, or caused by an earthquake ▪ seismic activity/data/waves/zones

2 [more ~; most ~] : very great or important ▪ Seismic social changes have occurred. ▪ The discovery caused a seismic shift [=a great change] in public attitudes.

– seis•mi•cal•ly /ˈsaɪzmɪkli/ adv ▪ a seismically active region [=a region where many earthquakes occur]

seis•mo•graph /ˈsaɪzməˌgræf, Brit ˈsaɪzməˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] : a device that measures and records the movement of the earth during an earthquake seis•mol•o•gy /saɪzˈmɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of earthquakes

– seis•mo•log•i•cal /ˌsaɪzməˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj ▪ seismological research – seis•mol•o•gist /saɪzˈmɑːlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

seize /ˈsiːz/ verb seiz•es; seized; seiz•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to use legal or official power to take (something) ▪ Police seized [=confiscated] the weapons and drugs. ▪ The bank seized their property. b : to get or take (something) in a forceful, sudden, or violent way ▪ The army has seized control of the city. ▪ A rebel group attempted to seize power. ▪ He suddenly seized the lead in the final lap of the race. c : to attack and take control of (a place) by force or violence ▪ The soldiers seized [=captured] the fort.

2 a : to forcefully take and hold (someone or something) with your hand or arms : GRAB ▪ He seized her by the arm. ▪ He tried to seize the gun from him. ▪ She seized hold of my hand. [=she seized my hand] b : to take (someone) as a prisoner ▪ The police seized [=arrested] the robbers. ▪ Seize that man! ▪ She was seized by kidnappers and carried off to a hidden location.

3 : to take or use (something, such as a chance or opportunity) in a quick and eager way ▪ He seized the chance/initiative/opportunity to present his ideas to his boss. ▪ My father taught me to seize the day. [=to do the things I want to do when I have the chance instead of waiting for a later time] ▪ Seizing the moment, she introduced herself to the famous film director.

4 a : to begin to affect (someone) suddenly ▪ Panic seized him. = He was seized by panic. b : to have a powerful effect on (someone) ▪ His movies seized the public's imagination. [=the public became very interested in and enthusiastic about his movies] ▪ She was suddenly seized with the idea [=she suddenly had the idea] of owning her own restaurant.

seize on/upon [phrasal verb] seize on/upon (something) : to take or use (something, such as a chance or opportunity) in a quick and eager way ▪ His critics have seized on the scandal to call for his resignation. ▪ She seized on the opportunity to tell her side of the story.

seize up [phrasal verb] : to stop working because the moving parts can no longer move ▪ The engine/brakes suddenly seized up. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her brain seized up when she tried to answer the question.

sei•zure /ˈsiːʒɚ/ noun, pl -zures

1 [noncount] : the act of taking control of something especially by force or violence ▪ the seizure of power by the rebels

2 law : the act of taking something by legal authority [noncount] property that is protected from seizure ▪ the seizure of evidence by the police [count] Not all searches and seizures by the police require a warrant.

3 [count] medical : an abnormal state in which you become unconscious and your body moves in an uncontrolled and violent way ▪ an epileptic seizure [=fit] ▪ The patient has been experiencing seizures. [=convulsions] sel•dom /ˈsɛldəm/ adv : not often : almost never ▪ We seldom [=rarely] eat pork. ▪ We seldom go to the movies. ▪ This type of turtle seldom grows over four inches in length. ▪ We seldom agree. = (somewhat formal) Seldom do we agree. ▪ I have seldom had to wait so long. = (somewhat formal) Seldom have I had to wait so long.

seldom ever see EVER seldom if ever see EVER

[1]se•lect /səˈlɛkt/ verb -lects; -lect•ed; -lect•ing

1 : to choose (someone or something) from a group [+ obj] Please select one item from the list. ▪ The school will only select 12 applicants for enrollment. — often used as (be) selected ▪ People were selected at random to take the survey. ▪ The restaurant was recently selected as one of the best in the area. ▪ She was selected to work on the project. ▪ The book is a collection of selected essays and letters. [no obj] Knowing the importance of making the right choice, he selected carefully.

2 [+ obj] computers : to choose (a particular action, section of text, etc.) especially by using a mouse ▪ Use the mouse to select [=highlight] the text you want to copy. ▪ Copy the selected text. ▪ Select "Insert" from the "Edit" menu.

[2]select adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : chosen from a group to include the best people or things ▪ Only a few select employees attended the meeting. ▪ A select committee was formed to plan the project. ▪ The group was small and select. ▪ A select number of people are invited. ▪ Only a select few will be accepted into the program.

2 always used before a noun : of the highest quality ▪ a select hotel ▪ The statue was made from a select [=choice] piece of marble. ▪ He only drinks select wines.

se•lec•tion /səˈlɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : the act of choosing something or someone from a group ▪ The selection of the best poem was difficult. ▪ His selection as athlete of the year surprised many people. [=people were surprised when he was selected/chosen as athlete of the year] ▪ It was not easy to make my selection. [=it was not easy to choose] — sometimes used before another noun ▪ the selection process/committee/criteria — see also NATURAL SELECTION

2 [count] a : someone or something that is chosen from a group ▪ Who is your selection [=choice] for president? ▪ She sang selections from her new album. [=she sang songs that she selected from her new album] b : a collection of things chosen from a group of similar things — usually singular; usually + of ▪ The pub has a wide selection of beers. [=has many different beers]

se•lec•tive /səˈlɛktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : careful to choose only the best people or things ▪ He is very selective [=picky, choosy] about which tomatoes to use for the sauce. ▪ The club is selective in choosing members. ▪ The college has a highly selective admissions process.

2 : involving the selection of people or things from a group ▪ selective breeding ▪ She has a selective memory. [=she remembers only what she wants to remember]

– se•lec•tive•ly adv ▪ The advertisement selectively targets men between the ages of 18 and 24. ▪ The dog is selectively bred for its calm temperament. – se•lec•tiv•i•ty /səˌlɛkˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount]

se•lec•tor /səˈlɛktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count]

1 : a device used for choosing a function, setting, etc., on a piece of equipment ▪ a channel selector ▪ a gear selector ▪ the input/output selector — often used before another noun ▪ Flip the selector switch from 25 volts to 70 volts.

2 Brit : someone who chooses the best or most suitable people for a sports team ▪ a selectors committee se•le•ni•um /səˈliːnijəm/ noun [noncount] technical : a chemical element that is used in electronic devices to make them sensitive to light self /ˈsɛlf/ noun, pl selves /ˈsɛlvz/

1 [count] : the person that someone normally or truly is — used to describe the way someone acts or feels ▪ He's just not his usual/normal self today. ▪ She was her old self again after some sleep. [=she returned to behaving/feeling as she normally did after some sleep] ▪ He was a mere ghost/shadow of his former self after the illness. [=he was much weaker after his illness] ▪ She showed her true/real self. [=she stopped pretending and showed what type of person she really was]

2 [count] : a particular part of your personality or character that is shown in a particular situation ▪ She showed her better self at the party. ▪ Her public self is very different from her private self. ▪ He started taking yoga and meditation classes to get in touch with his inner self. [=the emotional and spiritual part of himself]

3 [noncount] : the personality or character that makes a person different from other people : the combination of emotions, thoughts, feelings, etc., that make a person different from others ▪ We each develop a unique sense of self. [=a unique idea about who we are] ▪ Philosophers have written about the conception/idea of the self.

4 [noncount] formal : your own personal interest or advantage ▪ She helped without any thought of self. [=without any thought of trying to make things better for herself]

5 [count] — used to refer to a person ▪ a photo of her younger self ▪ He puts his whole self into each and every game. [=he tries very hard to play his best in each game] ▪ (informal) "Go get me another beer." "You can get it your (own) damn self!" ▪ (informal) I could barely drag my sorry self out of bed.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

self- /ˌsɛlf/ combining form
1 a : yourself or itself ▪ self-pitying b : of yourself or itself ▪ self-destructive ▪ self-sacrifice
2 : by, to, with, for, or toward yourself or itself ▪ self-made ▪ self-evident ▪ self-propelled ▪ self-addressed ▪ self-respect self–ab•sorbed /ˌsɛlfəbˈsoəbd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : only caring about and interested in yourself ▪ self-absorbed people ▪ He's so (completely/totally) self-absorbed that he didn't even notice I was crying!

– self–ab•sorp•tion /ˌsɛlfəbˈsoəpʃən/ noun [noncount] self–abuse /ˌsɛlfəˈbjuːs/ noun [noncount]

1 : things that you do that harm your own body or health ▪ drug addiction and other forms of self-abuse
2 old-fashioned + disapproving : MASTURBATION self–ac•tu•al•i•za•tion also Brit self–ac•tu•al•i•sa•tion /ˌsɛlfˌæktʃəwələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsɛlfˌæktʃuəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the process of fully developing and using your abilities self–ad•dressed /ˌsɛlfəˈdrɛst/ adj : having the sender's address on it so that it can be sent back to that person ▪ a self-addressed envelope self–ad•he•sive /ˌsɛlfədˈhiːsɪv/ adj : able to stick to something without first being made wet ▪ self-adhesive labels/stamps self–ap•point•ed /ˌsɛlfəˈpɔɪntəd/ adj, disapproving : thinking of yourself as having a particular position, job, responsibility, etc., without considering the opinions or wishes of other people ▪ a self-appointed guardian of public morals self–as•sem•bly /ˌsɛlfəˈsɛmbli/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit — used to describe a product that is bought in parts that you have be put together ▪ self-assembly furniture – self–assembly noun [noncount] ▪ The box says "self-assembly [=assembly] required."

self–as•ser•tive /ˌsɛlfəˈsətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very confident and willing to express opinions ▪ a bold and self-assertive young lawyer – self–as•ser•tive•ness noun [noncount] self–as•ser•tion /ˌsɛlfəˈsəʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of expressing or defending your rights, claims, or opinions in a confident or forceful way self–as•sess•ment /ˌsɛlfəˈsɛsmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] : the act or process of judging your own achievements or progress self–as•sur•ance /ˌsɛlfəˈʃərəns/ noun [noncount] : confidence in yourself and your abilities ▪ I was impressed by his self-assurance.

self–as•sured /ˌsɛlfəˈʃərd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing confidence in yourself and your abilities ▪ She was calm and self-assured. ▪ He has a self-assured manner.

self–aware•ness /ˌsɛlfəˈweərnəs/ noun [noncount] : knowledge and awareness of your own personality or character ▪ Her self-awareness was unusual in such a young child.
– self–aware /ˌsɛlfəˈweər/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a remarkably self-aware child self–ca•ter•ing /ˌsɛlfˈkeɪtərɪŋ/ adj, Brit : provided with equipment that allows you to cook your own food while you are on holiday ▪ a self-catering cottage/apartment ▪ self-catering holidays – self–catering noun [noncount] Brit ▪ Prices start at £199 for a week's self-catering.

self–cen•tered (US) or Brit self–cen•tred /ˌsɛlfˈsɛntərd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : too interested in yourself and not caring about the needs or feelings of other people : SELFISH ▪ I think he's a self-centered and opinionated jerk.
– self–cen•tered•ness (US) or Brit self–cen•tred•ness noun [noncount] self–con•cept /ˈsɛlfˈkɑːnˌsɛpt/ noun, pl -cepts [count] formal : the idea that you have about the kind of person you are ▪ Children need to develop a positive self-concept.

self–con•fessed /ˌsɛlfkənˈfɛst/ adj, always used before a noun : freely and openly admitting that you are a particular type of person ▪ a self-confessed forger ▪ a self-confessed television addict self–con• •dent /ˌsɛlfˈkɑːnfədənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing confidence in yourself and your abilities ▪ a quietly self-confident man ▪ She has a self-confident look about her.

– self–con• •dence /ˌsɛlfˈkɑːnfədəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ He lacks the self-confidence to speak his mind. – self–con• •dent •ly adv

self–con•grat•u•la•tion /ˌsɛlfkənˌgrætʃəˈleɪʃən, ˌsɛlfkənˌgrædʒəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving : a way of behaving or speaking which shows that you are very happy about something that you have done ▪ The president's speech was full of self-congratulation about making the company profitable again.
– self–con•grat•u•la•to•ry /ˌsɛlfkənˈgrætʃələˌtori, ˌsɛlfkənˈgrædʒələˌtori, Brit ˌsɛlfkənˌgrætʃəˈleɪtri/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a self-congratulatory attitude/tone self–con•scious /ˌsɛlfˈkɑːnʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : uncomfortably nervous about or embarrassed by what other people think about you ▪ She's self-conscious whenever she has to give a speech. — often + about ▪ He's very self-conscious about his appearance.
2 usually disapproving : done in a way that shows an awareness of the effect that is produced : done in a deliberate way ▪ the self-conscious irony in the play ▪ a self-conscious attempt to win people's sympathy – self–con•scious•ly adv ▪ He self-consciously smoothed his hair. – self–con•scious•ness noun [noncount]

self–con•tained /ˌsɛlfkənˈteɪnd/ adj
1 : not requiring help or support from anyone or anything else : complete by itself ▪ a self-contained community [=a community that provides all the supplies, services, etc., that people need for everyday life] ▪ This machine is a self-contained unit/system.
2 [more ~; most ~] : tending to keep thoughts and feelings private and to deal with things without help from other people ▪ He is a very self-contained young man.
3 Brit : having a kitchen and bathroom ▪ a self-contained flat self–con•tra•dic•to•ry /ˌsɛlfˌkɑːntrəˈdɪktəri/ adj : having two or more parts that disagree with each other ▪ Your argument is self-contradictory. ▪ a self-contradictory statement self–con•trol /ˌsɛlfkənˈtroʊl/ noun [noncount] : control over your feelings or actions ▪ a lack of self-control ▪ You have to show/learn a little self-control. ▪ He lost his self-control and lashed out at the other player. ▪ When it comes to chocolate, I lose all self-control. [=I cannot stop myself from eating too much chocolate] – self–con•trolled /ˌsɛlfkənˈtroʊld/ adj [more ~; most ~] self–crit•i•cism /ˌsɛlfˈkrɪtəˌsɪzəm/ noun, pl -cisms : criticism of your own faults and weaknesses [noncount] His autobiography is full of self-criticism. [count] There are many self-criticisms in his autobiography.

– self–crit•i•cal /ˌsɛlfˈkrɪtɪkəl/ adj ▪ a self-critical evaluation self–de•cep•tion /ˌsɛlfdɪˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] : the act of making yourself believe something that is not true ▪ He was unaware of his own self-deceptions.

self–de•feat•ing /ˌsɛlfdɪˈfiːtɪŋ/ adj
1 : meant to solve a problem but actually causing the same or another problem : causing more problems than it solves ▪ Violence is a self-defeating solution. ▪ a self-defeating strategy/policy
2 : preventing you from doing or achieving something ▪ Don't just assume you'll fail! That's a self-defeating attitude.

self–de•fense (US) or Brit self–de•fence /ˌsɛlfdɪˈfɛns/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of defending yourself, your property, etc. ▪ He argued that shooting the burglar was self-defense. ▪ She hit back in self-defense.
2 : skills that make you capable of protecting yourself during an attack ▪ Women are advised to take at least one class in self-defense. ▪ a self-defense instructor self–de•ni•al /ˌsɛlfdɪˈnajəl/ noun [noncount] : the act of not allowing yourself to have or do something you want ▪ Dieting is an exercise in self-denial. ▪ The monks lead a life of self-denial. = The monks practice self-denial.

self–dep•re•cat•ing /ˌsɛlfˈdɛprɪˌkeɪtɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : meant to make yourself or the things you do seem unimportant ▪ He spoke in a self-deprecating tone. ▪ self-deprecating humor – self–dep•re•ca•tion /ˌsɛlfˌdɛprɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ his humble self-deprecation self–de•struct /ˌsɛlfdɪˈstrʌkt/ verb -structs; -struct•ed; -struct•ing [no obj] : to destroy itself ▪ The missile automatically self-destructs if it goes off course. — often used figuratively ▪ The team had a large lead most of the game but self-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

destructed in the ninth inning and lost. ▪ a rock star who self-destructed on drugs

– self–destruct adj, always used before a noun ▪ a self-destruct button/mechanism/system self–de•struc•tion /ˌsɛlfdɪˈstrʌkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : the act of hurting or killing yourself ▪ an act of self-destruction ▪ His drinking started him on the path/road to self-destruction.

– self–de•struc•tive /ˌsɛlfdɪˈstrʌktɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ self-destructive behavior self–de•ter•mi•na•tion /ˌsɛlfdɪˌtɜmɪˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 : the right of the people of a particular place to choose the form of government they will have

2 : the freedom to make your own choices self–dis•ci•pline /ˌsɛlfˈdɪsəplən/ noun [noncount] : the ability to make yourself do things that should be done ▪ It's hard to exercise every day. You have to have a lot of self-discipline. ▪ a lack of self-discipline

– self–dis•ci•plined /ˌsɛlfˈdɪsəplənd/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ self-disciplined students self–dis•cov•ery /ˌsɛlfdɪˈskʌvəri/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of gaining knowledge or understanding of your abilities, character, and feelings ▪ She was on a voyage of self-discovery.

self–doubt /ˈsɛlfˈdaʊt/ noun, pl -doubts : a feeling of doubt about your own abilities or actions [noncount] a moment of self-doubt [count] Right before the start of the race, all his self-doubts returned.

self–drive /ˈsɛlfˈdraɪv/ adj, always used before a noun, Brit

1 of a car : rented from a company ▪ a self-drive [=(chiefly US) rental] car

2 : done by driving yourself ▪ a self-drive holiday/tour self–ed•u•cat•ed /ˌsɛlfˈɛdʒəˌkeɪtəd/ adj : educated by your own efforts (such as by reading books) rather than in a school ▪ a self-educated businessman self–ef•fac•ing /ˌsɛlfɪˈfeɪsɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : not trying to get attention or praise for yourself or your abilities : MODEST ▪ He has a self-effacing manner. ▪ She is quiet and self-effacing.

– self–ef•face•ment /ˌsɛlfɪˈfeɪsmənt/ noun [noncount] self–em•ployed /ˌsɛlfɪmˈplɔɪd/ adj : earning income from your own business or profession rather than by working for someone else ▪ a self-employed businessman – self–em•ploy•ment /ˌsɛlfɪmˈplɔɪmənt/ noun [noncount] self–es•teem /ˌsɛlfəˈstiːm/ noun [noncount] : a feeling of having respect for yourself and your abilities ▪ low/high self-esteem ▪ programs to raise/build self-esteem among children self–ev•i•dent /ˌsɛlfˈɛvədənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : clearly true and requiring no proof or explanation ▪ The meaning is self-evident. ▪ self-evident truths

– self–ev•i•dent•ly adv

self–ex•am /ˌsɛlfɪgˈzæm/ noun, pl -ams [count] : SELF-EXAMINATION self–ex•am•i•na•tion /ˌsɛlfɪgˌzæməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [noncount] : careful examination of your own behavior and beliefs to see whether they are good or bad ▪ the process of self-examination

2 [count] medical : the act or practice of checking your body for symptoms of illness ▪ Doctors recommend a breast self-examination once a month.

S

self–ex•plan•a•to•ry /ˌsɛlfɪkˈsplænəˌtori, Brit ˌsɛlfɪkˈsplænətri/ adj : easy to understand without explanation ▪ a self-explanatory phrase ▪ The chapter titles of the book are self-explanatory.

self–ex•pres•sion /ˌsɛlfɪkˈspreʃən/ noun [noncount] : the expression of your thoughts or feelings especially through artistic activities (such as painting, writing, dancing, etc.) ▪ a form/means/medium/mode of self-expression ▪ The strict rules leave little room for self-expression.

self– ag •el•la•tion /ˌsɛlfˌflæʤəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of hitting yourself with a whip as a way to punish yourself or as part of a religious ritual — often used figuratively ▪ journalists engaging in self-flagellation [=journalists cricitizing themselves very harshly]

self–ful• ll•ing /ˌsɛlffʊlˈfɪlɪŋ/ adj

1 : becoming real or true because it was predicted or expected ▪ The prediction of a rise in the stock market became a self-fulfilling prophecy when investors heard the report and began buying stock.

2 [more ~; most ~] : providing happiness and satisfaction : FULFILLING ▪ She finds running her own business very self-fulfilling.

self–ful• ll•ment (US) or Brit self–ful• l•ment /ˌsɛlfˈfʊlˈfɪlmənt/ noun [noncount] : the feeling of being happy and satisfied because you are doing something that fully uses your abilities and talents ▪ She found self-fulfillment [=fulfillment] by starting her own business.

self–gov•ern•ing /ˌsɛlfˈgʌvənɪŋ/ adj : controlled or ruled by its own members : having self-government ▪ a self-governing territory/body self–gov•ern•ment /ˌsɛlfˈgʌvənmənt/ noun [noncount] : government or control of a country, group, etc., by its own members rather than by the members of a different country, group, etc. ▪ the island's right to self-government

self–help /ˈsɛlfˈhɛlp/ noun [noncount] : the action or process of doing things to improve yourself or to solve your problems without the help of others ▪ books on self-help

– self–help adj, always used before a noun ▪ self-help books/manuals self•hood /ˈsɛlfˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] : the quality that makes a person or thing different from others : INDIVIDUALITY self–iden•ti• •ca•tion /ˌsɛlfaɪˌdɛntəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

1 : the feeling that you share and understand the problems or experiences of someone else ▪ the young teacher's self-identification [=identification] with his students

2 : the act of identifying yourself as a particular kind of person ▪ the teenager's self-identification as a rebel self–iden•ti•ty /ˌsɛlfaɪˈdɛntəti/ noun [noncount] : the quality that makes a person or thing different from others : INDIVIDUALITY self–im•age /ˈsɛlfˈɪmɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the way you think about yourself and your abilities or appearance ▪ She has a positive/negative/strong/poor self-image.

self–im•por•tant /ˌsɛlfɪmˈpoətnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having too high an opinion of your own importance ▪ a self-important businessman

– self–im•por•tance /ˌsɛlfɪmˈpoətns/ noun [noncount] self–im•posed /ˌsɛlfɪmˈpoʊzd/ adj : required by you of yourself : not given to you by someone else ▪ a self-imposed task/deadline/limit ▪ self-imposed exile/isolation/punishment self–in•dul•gent /ˌsɛlfɪnˈdʌlʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : allowing yourself to have or do whatever you want in a way that is excessive or wasteful ▪ a self-indulgent lifestyle ▪ a self-indulgent millionaire

– self–in•dul•gence /ˌsɛlfɪnˈdʌlʤəns/ noun, pl -gen•ces [noncount] a moment of self-indulgence [count] a small self-indulgence self–in• ict•ed /ˌsɛlfɪnˈflɪktəd/ adj : caused by your own actions ▪ a self-inflicted wound ▪ His problems are mainly self-inflicted.

self–in•ter•est /ˌsɛlfˈɪntrəst/ noun [noncount]

1 disapproving : concern only for getting what you want or need and not about what happens to other people ▪ They acted out of self-interest and fear.

2 : your own interest or advantage ▪ Our self-interest demands that we help them. [=it benefits us to help them]

– self–in•ter•est•ed /ˌsɛlfˈɪntrəstəd/ adj ▪ self-interested behavior self•ish /ˈsɛlfɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing concern only for yourself and not for the needs or feelings of other people ▪ selfish behavior/motives ▪ a selfish man ▪ She's interested only in her own selfish concerns. ▪ I wish he'd spend less time with his friends and more time with me. Am I being selfish?

– self•ish•ly adv ▪ He selfishly kept the money for himself. ▪ She acted selfishly. – self•ish•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the selfishness of their behavior self•less /ˈsɛlfləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing great concern for other people and little or no concern for yourself ▪ a selfless act ▪ selfless dedication/devotion/love

– self•less•ly adv ▪ He selflessly volunteered to help. – self•less•ness noun [noncount] self–made /ˈsɛlfˈmeɪd/ adj : made rich and successful by your own efforts ▪ a self-made man self–mu•ti•la•tion /ˌsɛlfˌmjuːtəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] medical : the act of wounding yourself on purpose especially because you are mentally ill self–per•cep•tion /ˌsɛlfpəˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

noncount] : the idea that you have about the kind of person you are ▪ People's self-perceptions are often very different from the way other people perceive them.

self–pity /ˈsɛlfˈpɪti/ noun [noncount] disapproving : a feeling of pity for yourself because you believe you have suffered more than is fair or reasonable ▪ He was wallowing in self-pity. ▪ She spoke without a trace/hint of self-pity.

– self–pity•ing /ˈsɛlfˈpɪtiɪŋ/ adj ▪ a self-pitying complainer self–por•trait /ˌsɛlfˈpoətrət/ noun, pl -traits [count] : a painting or drawing of yourself that is done by yourself self–pos•sessed /ˌsɛlfpəˈzɛst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing control of your feelings or actions especially in a difficult situation ▪ She is a remarkably calm and self-possessed young woman.

– self–pos•ses•sion /ˌsɛlfpəˈzɛʃən/ noun [noncount] self–pres•er•va•tion /ˌsɛlfˌprɛzəˈveɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : protection of yourself from harm or death ▪ We all have an instinct for self-preservation.

self–pro•claimed /ˌsɛlfproʊˈkleɪmd/ adj, always used before a noun, usually disapproving : giving yourself a particular name, title, etc., usually without any reason or proof that would cause other people to agree with you ▪ the self-proclaimed king of pop ▪ a self-proclaimed expert self–pro•fessed /ˌsɛlfprəˈfɛst/ adj, always used before a noun, usually disapproving

1 : SELF-PROCLAIMED ▪ self-professed experts
2 : SELF-CONFESSED ▪ a self-professed sports junkie self–pro•pelled /ˌsɛlfprəˈpɛld/ adj : able to move itself by means of a motor ▪ a self-propelled lawn mower [=a lawn mower that you do not have to push]

self–rais•ing our /ˈsɛlfˈreɪzɪŋ-/ noun [noncount] Brit : SELF-RISING FLOUR self–re•al•i•za•tion /ˌsɛlfˌriːjələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsɛlfˌrɪəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the act of achieving the full development of your abilities and talents ▪ Work is often a means of self-realization.

self–re• ec•tion /ˌsɛlfrɪˈflɛkʃən/ noun [noncount] : careful thought about your own behavior and beliefs : SELF-EXAMINATION ▪ a moment of self-reflection self–re•li•ant /ˌsɛlfrɪˈlajənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : confident in your own abilities and able to do things for yourself : not needing help from other people ▪ She worked very hard to be self-reliant. ▪ a self-reliant adult

– self–re•li•ance /ˌsɛlfrɪˈlajəns/ noun [noncount] self–re•spect /ˌsɛlfrɪˈspɛkt/ noun [noncount] : proper respect for yourself as a human being ▪ a sense of dignity and self-respect ▪ I lost my job, but not my self-respect.

self–re•spect•ing /ˌsɛlfrɪˈspɛktɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : having proper respect for yourself as a human being ▪ No self-respecting person would do something like that.

self–re•straint /ˌsɛlfrɪˈstreɪnt/ noun [noncount] : control over your own actions or feelings that keeps you from doing things you want to do but should not do ▪ I know you like to shop, but you need to exercise/show some self-restraint.

self–righ•teous /ˌsɛlfˈraɪʧəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing a strong belief that your own actions, opinions, etc., are right and other people's are wrong ▪ a self-righteous person/tone ▪ self-righteous indignation ▪ It's OK to criticize, but don't be/get self-righteous about it.

– self–righ•teous•ly adv – self–righ•teous•ness noun [noncount] self–ris•ing our /ˈsɛlfˈraɪzɪŋ-/ noun [noncount] US : a mixture of flour, salt, and baking powder — called also (Brit) self-raising flour

self–rule /ˈsɛlfˈruːl/ noun [noncount] : SELF-GOVERNMENT self–rul•ing /ˈsɛlfˈruːlɪŋ/ adj : SELF-GOVERNING self–sac•ri• ce /ˈsɛlfˈsækrəˌfaɪs/ noun [noncount] : the act of giving up something that you want to have or keep in order to help someone else ▪ We should honor the courage and self-sacrifice of the brave soldiers who died for our country.

– self–sa•cri• c•ing /ˈsɛlfˈsækrəˌfaɪsɪŋ/ adj ▪ self-sacrificing parents who put their children first self•same /ˈsɛlfˌseɪm/ adj, always used before a noun, literary : exactly the same ▪ These selfsame [=very same] people who complain about the problem also refuse to help correct it.

self–sat•is•fac•tion /ˌsɛlfˌsætəsˈfækʃən/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving : a feeling of being very pleased or satisfied with yourself and what you have done ▪ his smug self-satisfaction

self–sat•is• ed /ˌsɛlfˈsætəsˌfaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~] usually disapproving : feeling or showing self-satisfaction ▪ a self-satisfied young woman ▪ a self-satisfied smirk

self–seek•ing /ˌsɛlfˈsiːkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : concerned only about getting what you want or need and not caring about what happens to other people ▪ a self-seeking opportunist ▪ self-seeking behavior/motives – self–seek•er /ˌsɛlfˈsiːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's a self-seeker who'll do anything to get ahead.

self–ser•vice /ˌsɛlfˈsəvəs/ adj : allowing or requiring customers to serve themselves without help from workers ▪ a self-service café ▪ a self-service gas station

– self–service noun [noncount] ▪ The gas station only has self-service.

self–serv•ing /ˌsɛlfˈsəvɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing concern only about your own needs and interests ▪ self-serving motives ▪ a self-serving politician self–start•er /ˌsɛlfˈstɑətə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is able to work without needing a lot of instruction or help ▪ The job requires a highly motivated self-starter.

self–styled /ˌsɛlfˈstajəld/ adj, always used before a noun : called a particular thing by yourself : SELF-PROCLAIMED ▪ self-styled experts self–suf• •cient /ˌsɛlfsəˈfɪʃənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to live or function without help or support from others ▪ self-sufficient villages/farms ▪ His new job allowed him to become more self-sufficient.

– self–suf• •cien •cy /ˌsɛlfsəˈfɪʃənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ economic self-sufficiency self–sup•port•ing /ˌsɛlfsəˈpoətɪŋ/ adj : earning enough money to live without getting help from other people ▪ She hopes to find a better job so she'll finally be self-supporting.

self–taught /ˈsɛlfˈtɑːt/ adj
1 : educated by your own efforts (such as by reading books) rather than by a teacher ▪ a self-taught musician
2 : learned by your own efforts rather than at school ▪ self-taught knowledge self–willed /ˈsɛlfˈwɪld/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : determined to do what you want even though other people may not want you to do it ▪ a stubborn and self-willed child self–worth /ˈsɛlfˈwəθ/ noun [noncount] : a feeling that you are a good person who deserves to be treated with respect : SELF-ESTEEM ▪ a healthy sense of self-worth

[1]sell /ˈsɛl/ verb sells; sold /ˈsoʊld/; sell•ing
1 : to exchange (something) for money [+ obj] He sold his car. ▪ He buys and remodels houses and then sells them at a profit. ▪ She sold him a watch for $20. = She sold a watch to him for $20. [no obj] Stock prices are increasing, so now is a good time to sell. — opposite BUY
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) available to be bought ▪ Only a few stores sell that type of equipment. ▪ She sells insurance. [=she has the job of selling insurance to people] ▪ He is selling his car for $1,000. [=he is offering his car for sale at a price of $1,000]
3 [no obj] : to be able to be bought for a particular price — + for or at ▪ Those cookies sell for a dollar apiece. ▪ All items in the store are selling at half price.
4 a [no obj] : to be bought by someone or by many people ▪ That house still hasn't sold. [=no one has bought that house] ▪ The houses in that neighborhood aren't selling. [=people aren't buying the houses that are for sale in that neighborhood] ▪ They hope the new version will sell better than the old one. [=they hope that more people will buy the new version] ▪ The dictionary is selling well. [=many people are buying copies of the dictionary] ▪ The newest model just didn't sell. [=very few people bought it] b [+ obj] — used to say how many copies of something have been sold ▪ Their first album sold more than a a million copies. [=more than a million copies of the album were bought]
5 : to cause people to want to buy (something) : to cause the sale of (something) [+ obj] His name on the cover sells the book. [no obj] Good advertising sells.
6 [+ obj] : to persuade someone to accept or approve of (something or someone) ▪ He had a difficult time selling his theory to other scientists. ▪ You will really have to sell yourself at the interview to get that job.

sell a pup see PUP

sell off [phrasal verb] sell (something) off or sell off (something) : to sell (something) especially for a low price in order to get rid of it quickly or to get money that you need ▪ He sold off his car so he could move overseas. ▪ The family plans to sell some of the property off. — see also SELL-OFF sell on [phrasal verb] sell (someone) on (something) : to per-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

suade (someone) to be interested in and excited about (something) ▪ He tried to sell them on the value of the project he was proposing. — often used as (be) sold on ▪ She wasn't sold on the idea. [=she wasn't convinced that it was a good idea]

sell out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to be bought until no more are available : to be entirely sold ▪ Tickets to the concert sold out quickly. ▪ The book has sold out in stores across the country. b : to sell the entire amount of something ▪ Many stores sold out quickly when the book was first published. ▪ The concert sold out quickly. [=all the tickets to the concert were quickly bought] c be sold out : to have sold the entire amount of something ▪ "Are there any more tickets?" "No, I'm sorry, We're (all) sold out." [=we've sold all the tickets] — often + of ▪ The store was sold out of milk again. [=there was no milk at the store because it had all been sold] d sell (something) out or sell out (something) : to sell all of (something) ▪ The tickets were (all) sold out quickly. [=all of the tickets were sold quickly] 2 : to sell all that you own of a business, company, etc. ▪ In the end, the other owners forced her to sell out. 3 disapproving : to do something that does not agree with your beliefs, values, etc., especially in order to make money ▪ Many of the band's fans accused them of selling out when they started appearing in television commercials. ▪ The union sees the deal as selling out to management. [=the union sees the deal as going against their principles and favoring management] 4 *sell (someone) out or sell out (someone) informal : to do something that harms or causes trouble for (someone who trusted you) in order to get something for yourself : to betray (someone) ▪ She sold out her accomplices [=she told police who her accomplices were] in exchange for a lower sentence. — see also SELLOUT, SOLD-OUT sell (someone) down the river informal : to do something that harms (someone who trusted you) especially in order to get something for yourself : to betray (someone) ▪ I can't believe my best friend would sell me down the river.

sell (someone or something) short : to put too low a value on the ability, importance, or quality of (someone or something) ▪ Don't sell yourself short. You have some great skills and experience. ▪ I think you're selling the book short; it's a lot more interesting than that.

sell up [phrasal verb] Brit : to sell your possessions, business, etc., especially so that you can move away ▪ They were forced to sell up and go out of business.

sell your body : to accept money in exchange for sex sell your soul (to the devil) : to gain wealth, success, power, etc., by doing something bad or dishonest ▪ He has sold his soul (to the devil) for fame and prosperity.

[2]sell noun, pl sells [count] chiefly US : something that is sold — used to say that it is easy or difficult to get people to buy or accept something; usually singular ▪ Her new novel was an easy sell. [=her new novel sold well; many people wanted to buy it] ▪ We need to raise taxes, but that's a tough sell. [=it's hard to persuade people to accept a tax increase] — see also HARD SELL, SOFT SELL sell–by date noun, pl ~ dates [count] : a date that is printed on food packages which shows the last day on which the food can be sold — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He wants to get married before he's past his sell-by date. [=before he's too old]

sell•er /'sɛlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or business that sells something ▪ a ticket seller ▪ The seller said that the car was in excellent condition. ▪ We're the number one seller of appliances in the country. — opposite BUYER; see also BOOKSELLER
2 : a product that sells in a particular way or amount ▪ Her new CD is a hot seller. [=a lot of people are buying her new CD] ▪ That book is our top/biggest seller. — see also BEST SELLER

seller's market noun [singular] : a situation in which few things of the same kind are for sale, prices are high, and sellers have an advantage over buyers — opposite BUYER'S MARKET selling point noun, pl ~ points [count] : a quality or feature that makes people want to buy something ▪ The car's new sound system is a selling point. ▪ The house's big/main/major selling point is its location.

selling price noun [singular] : the price for which something actually sells ▪ They asked $200,000 for the house, but the eventual selling price was $175,000. — compare ASKING PRICE sell–off /'sɛlˌɑ:f/ noun [noncount]

1 US : the sale of a large number of stocks or shares that causes their price to drop ▪ The decline in technology stocks prompted a sell-off that made matters even worse. — see also sell off at [1]SELL
2 Brit : the sale of an industry that is owned by the government to private buyers

Sellotape /'sɛlə,teɪp/ trademark, Brit — used for a type of adhesive tape sell•out /'sɛlˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a game, concert, etc., for which all seats are sold ▪ The concert/game/performance was a sellout.
2 a : an occurrence in which you do something that does not agree with your beliefs, values, etc., especially in order to make money ▪ The union sees the deal as a sellout. b : someone who does something that does not agree with that person's beliefs or values especially in order to make money ▪ Angry fans called him a sellout when he started appearing in television commercials. — see also sell out at [1]SELL selt•zer /'sɛltsə/ noun [noncount] : water that has bubbles added to it selves plural of SELF se•man•tic /sɪ'mæntɪk/ adj, linguistics

1 : of or relating to the meanings of words and phrases ▪ the process of semantic development/change
2 : of or relating to semantics ▪ semantic theory ▪ a semantic analysis/interpretation – se•man•ti•cal•ly /sɪ'mæntɪkli/ adv ▪ The words are semantically related.

se•man•tics /sɪ'mæntɪks/ noun [noncount] linguistics
1 : the study of the meanings of words and phrases in language
2 : the meanings of words and phrases in a particular context ▪ The whole controversy is a matter of semantics. [=the controversy was caused by people understanding the same words in different ways]
– se•man•ti•cist /sɪ'mæntəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count]

sema•phore /'sɛməˌfoə/ noun [noncount] : a system used for sending signals by using two flags that are held in your hands sem•blance /'sɛmbləns/ noun [singular] : the state of being somewhat like something but not truly or fully the same thing — usually + of ▪ They found it hard to maintain any semblance of control. [=to maintain any appearance of having control; to maintain any control at all] ▪ Her life finally returned to some semblance of order/normality. [=her life finally became a little more ordered/normal]

se•men /'si:mən/ noun [noncount] : the sticky, whitish liquid containing sperm that is produced by a male's sex organs

se•mes•ter /sə'mɛstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] US : one of two usually 18-week periods that make up an academic year at a school or college — compare QUARTER, TERM, TRIMESTER semi noun, pl sem•is [count] informal

1 /'sɛˌmaɪ/ : SEMIFINAL — usually plural ▪ The team made it to the semis.
2 /'sɛˌmaɪ/ US : a short, heavy truck that has a long trailer attached to the back and that is used to move goods : SEMITRAILER
3 /'sɛmi/ Brit : a house that is attached to another house : a semidetached house

semi- prefix
1 : half ▪ a *semi*circle ▪ *semi*circular
2 : happening twice during a particular period of time ▪ *semi*annual ▪ *semi*monthly 3 : partly : not completely ▪ *semi*tropical 4 : partial : not complete ▪ *semi*consciousness semi•an•nu•al /ˌsɛmi'ænjəwəl/ adj, chiefly US : happening or produced every six months or twice in each year ▪ my semiannual visit to my cousin ▪ a semiannual journal/report

– semi•an•nu•al•ly adv

semi•au•to•mat•ic /ˌsɛmiˌɑ:tə'mætɪk/ adj, of a gun : able to fire bullets one after the other quickly but not automatically ▪ a semiautomatic rifle/weapon/pistol – semiautomatic noun, pl -ics [count] ▪ The police found a semiautomatic in his car.

semi•breve /'sɛmiˌbri:v/ noun, pl -breves [count] Brit : WHOLE NOTE semi•cir•cle /'sɛmiˌsə:kəl/ noun, pl -cir•cles [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : half of a circle
2 : an arrangement of people or things that forms a semicircle ▪ The children sat in a semicircle. ▪ The houses are built in a semicircle.
– semi•cir•cu•lar /ˌsɛmiˈsɚkjələ/ adj ▪ a semicircular driveway semi•co•lon /ˈsɛmiˌkoʊlən/ noun, pl -lons [count] : the punctuation mark ; that is used to separate major parts in a sentence and to separate items in a series if the items contain commas semi•con•duc•tor /ˌsɛmikənˈdʌktɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a material or object that allows some electricity or heat to move through it and that is used especially in electronic devices ▪ Silicon is a semiconductor.

– semi•con•duct•ing /ˌsɛmikənˈdʌktɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ semiconducting materials/properties semi•con•scious /ˌsɛmiˈkɑːnʃəs/ adj : partially conscious : only somewhat awake and able to understand what is happening around you ▪ The victim was semiconscious and could barely talk.

semi•de•tached /ˌsɛmidɪˈtætʃt/ adj, Brit : attached to another house by a shared wall on one side ▪ a semidetached house/villa – semidetached noun [singular] ▪ He lives in a semidetached.

semi• •nal /ˈsɛmiˌfaɪnl/ noun, pl -nals [count] : either one of two matches, games, or contests to decide which people or teams will be in the final part of a competition (such as a series of races or a tennis tournament) ▪ She played against a lesser-known rival in the (women's) semifinal. — often plural ▪ She won in the quarterfinals but lost in the semifinals. — often used before another noun ▪ the semifinal round ▪ semifinal teams
– semi• •nal•ist /ˌsɛmiˈfaɪnlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ She was a semifinalist in the tennis tournament.

semi•for•mal /ˌsɛmiˈfoɚməl/ adj, US : somewhat formal : not informal but not highly formal ▪ She wore a semiformal gown to the wedding. ▪ a semiformal dinner party ▪ a semiformal meeting/proposal semi•month•ly /ˌsɛmiˈmʌnθli/ adj : happening or produced two times in each month ▪ a semimonthly meeting/newsletter

sem•i•nal /ˈsɛmənl/ adj
1 formal : having a strong influence on ideas, works, events, etc., that come later : very important and influential ▪ a seminal book/work/writer
2 always used before a noun, medical : of or containing semen ▪ seminal fluid ▪ the seminal duct sem•i•nar /ˈsɛməˌnɑɚ/ noun, pl -nars [count]

1 : a meeting in which you receive information on and training in a particular subject ▪ a writing seminar ▪ a seminar on career planning ▪ educational/investment seminars
2 : a class offered to a small group of students at a college or university ▪ a graduate/philosophy seminar ▪ a seminar room sem•i•nar•i•an /ˌsɛməˈnerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : someone who is studying at a seminary sem•i•nary /ˈsɛməˌneri, Brit ˈsɛmənəri/ noun, pl -nar•ies [count] : a school for training religious leaders (such as priests, ministers, and rabbis)

se•mi•o•tics /ˌsiːmiˈɑːtɪks, sɛmiˈɑːtɪks/ noun [noncount] technical : the study of signs and symbols and how they are used – se•mi•o•tic /ˌsiːmiˈɑːtɪk, sɛmiˈɑːtɪk/ adj ▪ a semiotic analysis/theory semi•pre•cious /ˌsɛmiˈprɛʃəs/ adj, of a jewel : fairly valuable : having somewhat less value than a precious stone ▪ semiprecious stones such as aquamarines and garnets

semi•pri•vate /ˌsɛmiˈpraɪvət/ adj
1 : available to a small number of people : providing some but not complete privacy ▪ a semiprivate terrace/pool
2 : shared by two patients ▪ a semiprivate room in a hospital semi•pro /ˈsɛmiˌproʊ/ adj, always used before a noun : SEMIPROFESSIONAL – semipro noun, pl -pros [count]

semi•pro•fes•sion•al /ˌsɛmiprəˈfɛʃənəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : paid to participate in a sport or activity but not doing it as a full-time job ▪ a semiprofessional pitcher/musician
2 : involving semiprofessional athletes ▪ semiprofessional soccer/football – semiprofessional noun, pl -als [count]

semi•qua•ver /ˈsɛmiˌkweɪvɚ/ noun, pl -vers [count] Brit : SIXTEENTH NOTE semi•retired /ˌsɛmirɪˈtajɚd/ adj, US : working only part-time at a career, job, etc., especially because you have reached the age at which you no longer need or want to work full-time ▪ a semiretired executive/nurse semi•skilled /ˌsɛmiˈskɪld/ adj : having or requiring some training : having or requiring less training than skilled labor and more than unskilled labor ▪ semiskilled labor/jobs ▪ semiskilled and unskilled assembly workers semi–skimmed milk /ˌsɛmiˈskɪmd-/ noun [noncount] Brit : milk from which some of the cream has been removed — compare SKIM MILK

semi•sweet /ˌsɛmiˈswiːt/ adj, US : slightly sweet ▪ semisweet chocolate

Sem•ite /ˈsɛˌmaɪt, Brit ˈsiːˌmaɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : a member of a group of people originally of southwestern Asia that includes Jews and Arabs

Se•mit•ic /səˈmɪtɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to the language family that includes Hebrew and Arabic
2 : of or relating to the Semites semi•tone /ˈsɛmiˌtoʊn/ noun, pl -tones [count] music : a difference in sound that is equal to 1/12 of an octave — called also (US) half step

semi•trail•er /ˈsɛˌmaɪˌtreɪlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US
1 : a long trailer that has wheels at the rear and is attached at its forward end to a large truck
2 : a large truck with a long trailer attached to the back of it — see picture at TRUCK semi•trop•i•cal /ˌsɛmiˈtrɑːpɪkəl/ adj : SUBTROPICAL semi•week•ly /ˌsɛmiˈwiːkli/ adj : happening twice a week ▪ semiweekly classes sem•o•li•na /ˌsɛməˈliːnə/ noun [noncount]

1 : a type of wheat flour that is often used to make pasta
2 Brit : a sweet dessert made from semolina and milk

sen. abbr 1 senate; senator 2 senior sen•ate /ˈsɛnət/ noun, pl -ates

1 the Senate : the smaller group of the two groups of people who meet to discuss and make the laws of a country, state, etc. ▪ the New York State Senate; especially : the smaller group of the two groups that form the U.S. Congress ▪ The Senate approved the bill. ▪ The Senate voted to repeal the tax cut. — often used before another noun ▪ The Senate bill was approved. ▪ the Senate race ▪ the Senate majority leader ▪ a Senate aide — compare HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2 [count] : a group of people who govern some colleges and universities
3 the Senate : the group of officials who led the ancient Roman government sen•a•tor /ˈsɛnətɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a member of a senate or the Senate ▪ Democratic/Republican senators ▪ a former senator ▪ Senator Inouye

sen•a•to•ri•al /ˌsɛnəˈtorijəl/ adj : of or relating to a senator or a senate ▪ senatorial offices/candidates send /ˈsɛnd/ verb sends; sent /ˈsɛnt/; send•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (a letter, an e-mail, a package, etc.) to go or to be carried from one place or person to another ▪ I sent [=mailed] the letter/package/check to her. ▪ (US) I sent it to her by mail. = (Brit) I sent it to her by post. ▪ Please fill out the form and send it back (to us). ▪ He sent me an e-mail. = He sent an e-mail to me. ▪ Supplies were sent (out) to the troops. ▪ Satellites receive signals in space and send them back to Earth.
2 : to give (a message) to someone ▪ Please send my compliments to the chef. [=tell the chef that I enjoyed the food] ▪ Tell her that I send my love. [=tell her that I think of her in a loving way] ▪ When you write to him, please send him my very best wishes. ▪ Send word to the others [=tell the others] that we'll be late.
3 : to tell or cause (someone or something) to go to a place ▪ He became ill and was sent home from school. ▪ She sent the kids to bed immediately after supper. ▪ He was sent to prison for armed robbery. ▪ He sent me (to the store) for bread and milk. ▪ The company sent me to the conference. ▪ "There is a Ms. Jones here to see you." "Send her in." ▪ He was sent on a secret mission. ▪ Helicopters were sent (out) to search for the lost hikers. ▪ They sent a limo to pick her up at the airport. ▪ He asked us to send a taxi for him.
4 : to make the arrangements and payments that allow (someone) to attend a school, camp, etc. ▪ They are able to send both their children to private school. ▪ They sent their daughter to soccer camp during the summer. ▪ They are sending their son (away/off) to military school.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

5 : to tell (someone or something) to go to a particular person or place for treatment, help, information, etc. ▪ She sent him to the information desk. ▪ The teacher sent [=referred] the students to the dictionary for the meaning of the word. ▪ My doctor sent me to a specialist. ▪ The Senate sent the bill to a committee.
6 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to cause (someone or something) to move in a particular direction or manner ▪ News of the strike sent stock prices down. ▪ The surprise attack sent the enemy running. ▪ The punch sent him to the floor. ▪ He sent the ball into right field. ▪ Her performance sent a chill/shiver up/down my spine. [=made me feel very excited and emotional]
7 : to put (someone) into a particular state or condition ▪ Her lectures often send students to sleep. — usually + into ▪ Their decision sent him into a rage.
send away for [phrasal verb] send away for (something) or send away to (someone) for (something) : to ask to receive (something) by sending a letter, coupon, etc., to someone by mail ▪ I sent away for [=sent off for] a free sample. ▪ You will have to send away to the manufacturer for a refund.
send down [phrasal verb] send down (someone) or send (someone) down Brit, informal : to send (someone) to prison ▪ He was sent down for six years for the robbery.
send for [phrasal verb] 1 send for (someone) : to ask (someone) to come to a place ▪ Someone should send for a doctor. 2 send for (something) : to ask someone to bring or send (something) to you ▪ Send for our free product catalog. ▪ The general has already sent for reinforcements. ▪ She sent for help.
send forth [phrasal verb] send forth (something) formal 1 : to cause (something) to be heard ▪ She sent forth [=emitted, (less formally) let out] a loud cry. 2 : to cause (light, heat, etc.) to move outward from a source ▪ The tropical flowers sent forth [=emitted, (less formally) gave off] a wonderful fragrance. 3 : to produce (something) in the process of growing or developing ▪ The plant began to send forth [=send out] its shoots.
send in [phrasal verb] 1 send in (someone) or send (someone) in a : to tell (someone) to go to a place to deal with a difficult situation ▪ Police were sent in to restore order. b : to tell (a player) to enter a game ▪ He was sent in to replace the starting goaltender. 2 send in (something) or send (something) in : to mail or e-mail (something) to a place ▪ Please send in your poems by October 1.
send off [phrasal verb] 1 send off (something) or send (something) off : to send (something) by mail or another service ▪ I sent off the package yesterday. 2 send off (someone) or send (someone) off chiefly Brit : to order (a player who has broken a rule) to leave the field for the remainder of the game ▪ He was sent off [=ejected] for striking another player. 3 send off for (something) : to ask to receive (something) by sending a letter, coupon, etc., to someone by mail ▪ I sent off for [=sent away for] a sample.
send on [phrasal verb] send on (something) or send (something) on : to cause (something) to go or to be carried from one place to another ▪ I had my mail/post sent on [=forwarded, sent] to my new address. ▪ He had his baggage sent on ahead. [=sent to the place he is going to] send out [phrasal verb] 1 send out (something) or send (something) out a : to mail (something) to many different people or places ▪ Have you sent out the invitations yet? b : to cause (a signal) to go out ▪ The pilot sent out a distress signal. c : to cause (light, heat, etc.) to move outward from a source ▪ The coals sent out [=gave off] a reddish glow. d : to produce (something) in the process of growing or developing ▪ The plant began to send out its shoots. 2 send out for (something) : to ask a restaurant to deliver (food) to you ▪ We sent out for pizza.
send (someone or something) packing informal : to force (someone or something) to leave a place or situation ▪ We were sent packing after the first day of tryouts. ▪ A loss in tomorrow's game will send them packing. [=will eliminate them from the competition]
send up [phrasal verb] 1 send up (something) or send (something) up a : to cause (something) to be heard ▪ He sent up a loud cry. [=he cried out loudly] b : to cause (something) to move upward ▪ The campfire sent up sparks. ▪ If you need help, send up a flare so that we can locate you. c : to produce (something) in the process of growing or developing ▪ plants sending up new shoots d : to suggest or propose (something) to a more powerful person or group so that a decision can be made ▪ The bill has been sent up to the Senate for a vote. ▪ They are sending up a new name/applicant for consideration. 2 send up (someone or something) or send (someone or something) up chiefly Brit, informal : to imitate (someone or something) in an amusing way ▪ The show sends up [=parodies] soap operas. — see also SEND-UP send•er /ˈsɛndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who sends a letter, package, message, etc. ▪ He wrote "return to sender" on the package.

send–off /ˈsɛndˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] : an occasion when people gather together to say goodbye to someone who is leaving — usually singular ▪ A crowd of friends gave them a fine send-off.

send–up /ˈsɛndˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a movie, song, etc., that imitates the style of someone or something else in an amusing way — often + of ▪ a send-up [=parody] of horror films — see also send up at SEND se•nes•cence /sɪˈnɛsns/ noun [noncount] technical + formal : the state of being old or the process of becoming old ▪ premature senescence

– se•nes•cent /sɪˈnɛsnt/ adj ▪ senescent cells

se•nile /ˈsiːˌnajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing a loss of mental ability (such as memory) in old age ▪ a senile man in his eighties ▪ Her mother is becoming/getting/going senile.
– se•nil•i•ty /sɪˈnɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ Paranoia is a possible sign of senility.

senile dementia noun [noncount] medical : a condition that affects the mind of aging people and causes them to be confused, to forget things, etc.

[1]se•nior /ˈsiːnjə/ adj
1 not used before a noun, US a : older in age — usually + to ▪ She is five years senior to me. = She is senior to me by five years. [=she is five years older than I am] b — used chiefly in its abbreviated form Sr. to identify a father who has the same name as his son. ▪ John Smith, Jr. and John Smith, Sr. — compare JUNIOR
2 : higher in standing or rank than another person in the same position ▪ a senior officer/manager/executive ▪ the senior vice president of marketing ▪ She is a senior aide to the president. ▪ a senior editor for the magazine ▪ He recently became a senior partner in the accounting/consulting firm. — often + to ▪ He is senior to me. — compare JUNIOR
3 always used before a noun a : of, relating to, or designed for older people ▪ a senior center ▪ senior housing b : designed for or done by adults or people over a certain age ▪ the men's senior baseball league ▪ senior golf

[2]senior noun, pl -niors [count]
1 : a person who is older than another person ▪ She is five years my senior. = She is my senior by five years. [=she is five years older than I am] — compare JUNIOR
2 : a person who is of a higher rank than another person ▪ As his senior, she commanded quite a bit of respect. ▪ She was his senior in rank.
3 US : a student in the final year of high school or college ▪ high school juniors and seniors — often used before another noun ▪ the senior class/yearbook/prom ▪ She skipped her senior year and went straight to college. ▪ the senior captain of a team — compare FRESHMAN, JUNIOR, SOPHOMORE
4 chiefly US : SENIOR CITIZEN

senior citizen noun, pl ~ -zens [count] chiefly US : an old person ▪ programs/activities for senior citizens : a person who is at least a certain age (such as 55) ▪ Senior citizens qualify for a discount at the movie theater.

senior high school noun, pl ~ schools [count] US : a school that includes the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades and often also the 9th grade : HIGH SCHOOL — compare JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

se•nior•i•ty /sinˈjɔrəti/ noun [noncount]
1 : the amount of time you have worked at a job or for a company compared to other employees ▪ Promotions are based on merit and seniority. ▪ a teacher with less/more seniority ▪ He has worked here longer than I have, so he has seniority over me.
2 : the state of having a higher rank than another person ▪ a position of seniority

sen•sa•tion /sɛnˈseɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a particular feeling or effect that your body experiences ▪ I experienced a stinging/prickling/tingling sensation in my arm. ▪ She felt a burning sensation in her throat. ▪ visual/bodily sensations ▪ a sensation of hunger ▪ She craved new experiences and sensations.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 [count] : a particular feeling or experience that may not have a real cause ▪ I had a sensation of falling. [=I felt as if I were falling] ▪ She had the strange sensation that someone was watching her. ▪ I couldn't quite shake the sensation that I'd been fooled.
3 [noncount] : the ability to feel things through your physical senses ▪ Her injury left her with no sensation in her legs.
4 [count] a : a lot of excitement and interest — usually singular ▪ The news created (quite) a sensation. ▪ News of the corporate merger caused a sensation on the stock market. b : someone or something that causes a lot of excitement and interest — usually singular ▪ The rave reviews turned the book into a nationwide sensation overnight. ▪ a music/pop sensation

sen•sa•tion•al /sɛnˈseɪʃənl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing very great excitement or interest with shocking details ▪ a particularly sensational trial/crime ▪ sensational headlines ▪ sensational news stories
2 : very excellent or great ▪ a sensational performance/idea ▪ a sensational (new) talent
3 informal : very attractive ▪ She looked sensational in her new dress.
– sen•sa•tion•al•ly adv ▪ The books sold sensationally well.

sen•sa•tion•al•ism /sɛnˈseɪʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the use of shocking details to cause a lot of excitement or interest ▪ The network was accused of sensationalism in its reporting.
– sen•sa•tion•al•ist /sɛnˈseɪʃənəlɪst/ also chiefly US sen•sa•tion•al•is•tic /sɛnˌseɪʃənəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ sensationalist tabloids/reporting ▪ sensationalistic newspaper stories sen•sa•tion•al•ize also Brit sen•sa•tion•al•ise /sɛnˈseɪʃənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] disapproving : to describe or show something in a way that makes it seem more shocking than it really is ▪ Journalists should report the news accurately without trying to sensationalize it.

– sensationalized adj ▪ a sensationalized story of a kidnapping

[1]sense /ˈsɛns/ noun, pl sens•es
1 a [count] : one of the five natural powers (touch, taste, smell, sight, and hearing) through which you receive information about the world around you ▪ All of my senses were on the alert for danger. — often + of ▪ The dog lost his sense of smell. ▪ an acute/poor sense of hearing — see also SIXTH SENSE b [singular] : a physical feeling : something that your body experiences — usually + of ▪ a sense of fatigue/hunger ▪ Ear problems can sometimes affect a person's sense of balance.
2 a [singular] : a particular feeling : an emotion that you are aware of ▪ We had a sense that something wasn't quite right. — usually + of ▪ Once the speech was over, he was filled with a tremendous sense of relief. ▪ a sense of loss/urgency/pride ▪ a sense of well-being ▪ Their sense of accomplishment was obvious. ▪ We felt a growing sense of danger. ▪ The gun gave him a false sense of security. [=made him feel safer than he really was] ▪ She has a strong sense of self. [=she has strong ideas about who she is] b [count] : a personal quality : a specific quality that is part of your personality — usually singular; + of ▪ He had a great sense of adventure. [=he liked adventure very much] ▪ a sense of order/duty ▪ She lacked any sense of responsibility about financial matters. ▪ He had no sense of purpose [=he did not know what he wanted to do with his life] after his divorce. ▪ She has a great sense of humor. [=she says funny things and can see the funny side of things] ▪ He has no sense of humor. [=he does not find things amusing] ▪ His excellent sense of direction [=ability to find his way around easily in a new place] was useful during our travels. ▪ The chairman's speech gave us a clear sense of direction. [=helped us to know what we should try to accomplish]
3 senses [plural] : the ability to think clearly or in a reasonable way ▪ His senses were clear despite his illness. ▪ They hoped recent events would bring them to their senses. [=make them act sensibly] ▪ I was scared out of my senses. [=I was so scared that I couldn't think clearly] ▪ (chiefly Brit) Are you out of your senses? [=out of your mind]
4 [noncount] : a proper or reasonable way of thinking about something : an awareness of what is appropriate ▪ He had the sense to leave when the crowd got rowdy. [=he acted in a sensible way and left when the crowd got rowdy] ▪ She had the good sense to stop before she said too much. ▪ I wish she would see sense [=act in a sensible way] and go to college. — see also COMMON SENSE, HORSE SENSE
5 [noncount] : a reason for doing something : a reason why something was done ▪ There's no sense [=point] in waiting. ▪ I fail to see the sense of/in that decision. [=I fail to see why that decision was made]
6 [count] : the meaning of something (such as a word or phrase) ▪ Many words have more than one sense. ▪ in the biblical/religious/legal sense of the word ▪ an abstract/broad sense ▪ The American sense of this word differs from the British sense. ▪ He learned the speech by heart but missed the sense entirely. [=he memorized the speech but he did not understand it] — often + of ▪ The oldest sense of the word dates from 1890. ▪ The intended sense of the passage was lost in translation. ▪ The book is a classic in every sense of the word. [=in every possible way] come to your senses : to begin to think in a sensible or correct way after being foolish or wrong ▪ He finally came to his senses and gave up his plans to quit his job and become an artist. ▪ When will you come to your senses? Don't you realize that she's been lying to you?

in a/one sense : in one way : from one point of view ▪ In one sense [=in a way], he was correct.
in no sense : in no way : definitely not ▪ This book is in no sense intended for beginners. = In no sense is this book intended for beginners. [=this book is too hard or advanced for beginners] in some senses : in some ways ▪ In some senses, it was a wasted effort.
knock some sense into someone's head or knock some sense into someone informal : to cause someone to stop thinking or behaving foolishly ▪ I tried to knock some sense into the boy's head, but he just wouldn't see reason.
make (any) sense of : to understand (something) ▪ We couldn't make (any) sense of the instructions. ▪ Were you able to make any sense of what he said?
make sense 1 : to have a clear meaning : to be easy to understand ▪ We read the recommendations and thought they made (perfect) sense. ▪ The instructions don't make any sense (at all). = The instructions make no sense (at all). = The instructions make little sense. ▪ You're not making much sense (to me). [=I can't understand what you're saying] 2 : to be reasonable ▪ It makes sense to leave early to avoid traffic. ▪ It makes little/no sense to continue. [=there is little/no point in continuing] ▪ Why would he do such an awful thing? It makes no sense (to me).
take leave of your senses see [2]LEAVE talk (some) sense into/to informal : to cause (someone) to stop thinking or behaving foolishly ▪ I couldn't talk sense to him. ▪ He talked (some) sense into her and she promised she would get rid of that dangerous car.

[2]sense verb senses; sensed; sens•ing [+ obj]
1 not used in progressive tenses : to understand or be aware of (something) without being told about it or having evidence that it is true ▪ We sensed danger. ▪ She immediately sensed my dislike. — often + that, what, when, etc. ▪ He sensed what was going on and decided to intervene. ▪ I sensed that I may have offended you. ▪ My mother told me later that even though she was miles away, she could sense [=tell] that something wasn't right at home. ▪ People can sense [=perceive] when someone isn't being honest.
2 of a machine : to detect the presence or occurrence of (something) ▪ A motion detector can sense movement. ▪ a device that senses (the presence of) fine particles in the air — often + that, when, whether, etc. ▪ The system can sense if there is a readable CD in the drive.

sense•less /ˈsɛnsləs/ adj
1 : done or happening for no reason ▪ a senseless crime/tragedy ▪ senseless deaths ▪ senseless acts of violence
2 — used after beat, knock, etc., to say that someone is hurt badly and becomes unconscious ▪ I was knocked senseless by the fall. [=I fell and hit my head and lost consciousness] ▪ They beat him senseless. = He was beaten senseless. [=he was beaten until he was unconscious]
3 : stupid or foolish ▪ a senseless practical joke ▪ Don't be such a senseless idiot!
– sense•less•ly adv – sense•less•ness noun [noncount] sense organ noun, pl ~ -gans [count] : a part of your body (such as your eyes, ears, nose, or tongue) that you use to see, hear, smell, taste, or feel things sen•si•bil•i•ty /ˌsɛnsəˈbɪləti/ noun, pl -ties formal

1 [count] : the kinds of feelings that you have when you hear, see, read, or think about something ▪ The speaker gave no thought to the sensibilities of his audience. [=the speaker did not worry about how his audience would feel about what he said] ▪ We don't want to offend the viewers' sensibilities.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[=we don't want to upset the people who watch this]
2 [count] : the kinds of feelings that a certain type of person tends to have ▪ This movie appeals to people with a feminist sensibility. [=this movie appeals to feminists] ▪ The cartoon seems out of line with modern sensibilities. [=the cartoon seems strange or offensive to modern people]
3 : the ability to feel and understand emotions [count] The writer is remembered most for his sensibility. [noncount] She's a woman of poetic/artistic sensibility.

sen•si•ble /ˈsɛnsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing good sense or judgment : REASONABLE ▪ sensible people ▪ a sensible choice/solution/diet ▪ sensible prices ▪ a sensible answer/question ▪ My teacher gave me some sensible advice. ▪ She was sensible enough to stop driving when she got too tired.
2 : designed to be comfortable, useful, etc., rather than stylish ▪ sensible shoes/clothes ▪ She wore a sensible coat.
– sen•si•bly /ˈsɛnsəbli/ adv ▪ My doctor advised me to eat sensibly. ▪ He was sensibly dressed.

sen•si•tive /ˈsɛnsətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : easily upset by the things that people think or say about you ▪ a moody, sensitive teenager ▪ He acts like a tough guy, but he's really very sensitive to criticism. — often + about ▪ She's painfully/overly sensitive about her looks. [=she cares very/too much about what people say or think about her looks] ▪ a sensitive soul [=a person who is easily hurt emotionally] — opposite INSENSITIVE b : likely to cause people to become upset ▪ sensitive [=touchy] topics/issues ▪ a politically sensitive decision
2 a : aware of and understanding the feelings of other people ▪ I found him to be a sensitive and caring person. — often + to ▪ She was sensitive to the fears of her patients. — opposite INSENSITIVE b : having an understanding of something : aware of something — + to ▪ We are sensitive to the need to act quickly in this situation.
3 : easily affected by something in a way that is not pleasant or good : reacting to something in, on, or around you in a bad way ▪ sensitive skin — often + to ▪ She is sensitive to pollen (in the air). ▪ My teeth are sensitive to cold foods. ▪ I am sensitive to wheat. [=I become ill when I eat wheat] ▪ Now that I'm older, I'm more sensitive to (the) cold. [=I feel colder in cold surroundings now than I did in the past]
4 : able to express thoughts and feelings through writing, music, dance, etc. ▪ a sensitive poet/artist ▪ an exquisitely sensitive dance performance
5 technical a : able to sense very small changes in something ▪ a highly sensitive device/instrument ▪ sensitive scales b : changing in response to something ▪ light-sensitive film = film that is sensitive to light
6 : needing to be handled in a careful or secret way in order to protect someone or something ▪ highly sensitive information [=information that could be harmful if many people knew it; information that should be kept secret] ▪ sensitive financial data – sen•si•tive•ly adv ▪ The problem was handled sensitively.

sen•si•tiv•i•ty /ˌsɛnsəˈtɪvəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 a : the tendency to become upset about things that are done to you, are said about you, or relate to you [noncount] I was surprised by her extreme sensitivity about even the smallest suggestions that we made. — often + to ▪ his sensitivity to criticism [count] Their sensitivities were inflamed by his remarks. [=they became very upset by his remarks] b [noncount] : the tendency to cause people to be upset ▪ the racial sensitivity of this issue [=the tendency of people of certain races to become upset about this issue] ▪ This is a matter of great political sensitivity.
2 a : an awareness and understanding of the feelings of other people [noncount] He handled the situation with great sensitivity. ▪ Her decision shows a lack of sensitivity. ▪ I would have appreciated a little more sensitivity from you. [singular] — often + to ▪ She has shown a great sensitivity to the needs of her students. b : an awareness of the details or qualities of something — often + to ▪ He displays a remarkable sensitivity to the subtle nuances of language.
3 : the quality of being easily affected by something in a bad or unpleasant way [noncount] skin sensitivity [=the skin's tendency to react in a bad way to substances that touch it] ▪ drug sensitivity = sensitivity to drugs/medications [count] He has chemical sensitivities. [=his body reacts badly to certain chemicals] ▪ He has food sensitivities. [=he can't eat certain kinds of food] — often + to ▪ a sensitivity to light/pollen
4 [singular] : the ability to express your thoughts and feelings through writing, music, etc. ▪ Her singing is characterized by a rich emotional sensitivity.
5 [noncount] : the quality of needing to be handled in a careful or secret way ▪ the sensitivity of this document/data
6 [noncount] technical : the ability of a device to sense very small changes in something ▪ The new refinements have improved the sensitivity of the motion detector.

sen•si•tize also Brit sen•si•tise /ˈsɛnsəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) sensitive or more sensitive: such as a : to make (someone) more aware of something — usually + to ▪ The program is intended to sensitize students to the dangers of drug use. b medical : to cause (someone) to become sensitive to a substance and to react to it in a bad way — usually + to; usually used as (be) sensitized ▪ If you have become sensitized to an allergen, even an extremely small amount of the allergen in your environment can trigger an attack.
– sen•si•ti•za•tion also Brit sen•si•ti•sa•tion /ˌsɛnsətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsɛnsəˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] sen•sor /ˈsɛnˌsoɚ, ˈsɛnsə/ noun, pl -sors [count] : a device that detects or senses heat, light, sound, motion, etc., and then reacts to it in a particular way ▪ a motion/optical sensor ▪ Image sensors are used in digital cameras. ▪ Infrared sensors can track an object's movement.

sen•so•ry /ˈsɛnsəri/ adj : of or relating to your physical senses ▪ A study was conducted on sensory stimulation and its effects on the brain. ▪ sensory perceptions ▪ sensory deprivation sen•su•al /ˈsɛnʃəwəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to, devoted to, or producing physical or sexual pleasure ▪ sensual desires/pursuits/excesses ▪ a very sensual man/woman ▪ Certain fragrances apparently heighten sensual experiences. ▪ a sensual mouth ▪ sensual delights

– sen•su•al•i•ty /ˌsɛnʃəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ The actress exuded sensuality on screen. – sen•su•al•ly /ˈsɛnʃəwəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a sensually pleasing experience

sen•su•ous /ˈsɛnʃəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : affecting the senses in a pleasing way : pleasant, attractive, or appealing in a way that produces or suggests feelings of physical or sexual pleasure ▪ a sensuous voice/mouth ▪ her sensuous lips ▪ The sensuous sounds of soul music created a warm atmosphere. ▪ A gentle, sensuous breeze caressed our faces.
– sen•su•ous•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a sensuously smooth finish – sen•su•ous•ness noun [noncount] sent past tense and past participle of SEND

[1]sen•tence /ˈsɛntns/ noun, pl -tenc•es
1 [count] : a group of words that expresses a statement, question, command, or wish ✧ Sentences usually contain a subject and verb. In written English, the first word of a sentence is capitalized and the sentence ends with a period, question mark, or exclamation point. ▪ write/construct/analyze a sentence ▪ complete/incomplete sentences
2 law : the punishment given by a court of law [count] a harsh/lenient sentence ▪ a prison/jail sentence ▪ He is serving a 10-year sentence for armed robbery. [noncount] The judge passed/pronounced sentence on him. [=announced what his punishment would be] — see also DEATH SENTENCE, LIFE SENTENCE, SUSPENDED SENTENCE

[2]sentence verb -tences; -tenced; -tenc•ing [+ obj] law : to officially state the punishment given to (someone) by a court of law ▪ The defendant was sentenced and fined. — usually + to ▪ The judge sentenced him to prison.
– sentencing /ˈsɛntnsɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ He will return to the court on Wednesday for sentencing. — often used before another noun ▪ sentencing laws/guidelines sentence adverb noun, pl ~ -verbs [count] grammar : an adverb that limits or describes the meaning of an entire statement rather than just a single word or phrase ▪ "Similarly" and "hopefully" often function as sentence adverbs.

sentence fragment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] grammar : a group of words that is written out as a sentence but that lacks a subject or verb sen•ten•tious /sɛnˈtɛnʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : having or expressing strong opinions about what people should and should not do ▪ a smug and sententious writer ▪ a sententious speech – sen•ten•tious•ly adv ▪ He spoke sententiously.

sen•tient /ˈsɛnʃiənt/ adj, technical + formal : able to feel, see, hear, smell, or taste ▪ sentient beings

sen•ti•ment /ˈsɛntəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 : an attitude or opinion [count] His criticism of the court's

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

decision expresses a sentiment that is shared by many people. ▪ an expression of antiwar sentiments ▪ a noble sentiment ▪ "The lecture was interesting, but it was much too long." "My sentiments exactly!" [=I agree with you completely] [noncount] A good politician understands public sentiment. [=understands the opinions held by many or most people]

2 [noncount] : feelings of love, sympathy, kindness, etc. ▪ She likes warmth and sentiment in a movie. ▪ You have to be tough to succeed in the business world. There's no room for sentiment.

sen·ti·men·tal /ˌsɛntəˈmɛntl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : based on, showing, or resulting from feelings or emotions rather than reason or thought ▪ He has a sentimental attachment to his old high school. ▪ She saved her wedding gown for sentimental reasons. ▪ He has sentimental ideas about the past. ✧ A sentimental journey is a visit to a place that was once very familiar and that brings back memories of the past. ▪ They took a sentimental journey to England, the country where they had met. ✧ Something that has sentimental value is important to someone because of its connection with a happy time of life, a special person, etc. ▪ I keep this picture because it has sentimental value for me.

2 a : appealing to the emotions especially in an excessive way ▪ a sentimental melodrama b : having or expressing strong feelings of love, sadness, etc., in a way that may seem foolish or excessive ▪ a sentimental person ▪ I tend to get very sentimental when I think about my childhood.

– sen·ti·men·tal·ly adv

sen·ti·men·tal·ism /ˌsɛntəˈmɛntəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a tendency to have or express feelings of love, sadness, etc., especially in a way that seems foolish or excessive : a sentimental quality ▪ the sentimentalism of 19th-century art

– sen·ti·men·tal·ist /ˌsɛntəˈmɛntəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]

sen·ti·men·tal·i·ty /ˌsɛntəˌmɛnˈtæləti/ noun [noncount] : the quality of being sentimental especially in an excessive way ▪ the sentimentality of Romantic poetry sen·ti·men·tal·ize also Brit sen·ti·men·tal·ise /ˌsɛntəˈmɛntəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz·es; -ized; -iz·ing : to describe or show (something) in an emotional way that makes it seem more attractive or interesting than it really is : to describe or show (something) in a sentimental way [+ obj] The movie sentimentalizes the past. ▪ sentimentalized stories of childhood [no obj] He does not sentimentalize in his biography.

sen·ti·nel /ˈsɛntənəl/ noun, pl -nels [count] : SENTRY ▪ armed sentinels — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The trees stand sentinel [=stand in a row like soldiers] on the cliffs.

sen·try /ˈsɛntri/ noun, pl -tries [count] : a soldier who guards a door, gate, etc. ▪ The general placed/posted an armed sentry at the bridge. ▪ The company hired a policeman to stand sentry [=be a guard] by the door.

Sep. abbr September

sep·a·ra·ble /ˈsɛpərəbəl/ adj : capable of being separated ▪ The top and bottom sections are easily separable (from each other). ▪ His religious and political beliefs are not always separable from each other. — opposite INSEPARABLE

– sep·a·ra·bil·i·ty /ˌsɛpərəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

[1]sep·a·rate /ˈsɛpərət/ adj

1 : not joined, connected, or combined : placed or kept apart ▪ two separate building ▪ There are separate restrooms for men and women. ▪ The boys/girls have separate rooms. ▪ They slept in separate beds. ▪ We use the same Internet service provider but have separate accounts. ▪ The company broke up into three separate [=independent] entities. ▪ Each state has a separate set of laws [=has its own set of laws] concerning marriage. ▪ He tries to keep his private life and public life separate (from each other). = He tries to keep his private life separate from his public life.

2 : different from something else ▪ I met him on four separate [=different] occasions. : not related ▪ That's an entirely separate issue.

go your separate ways 1 : to end a relationship with someone ▪ After 20 years of marriage, they decided to go their separate ways. 2 : to go in different directions after being together ▪ After dinner we went our separate ways.

under separate cover see [2]COVER

– sep·a·rate·ness noun [noncount]

[2]sep·a·rate /ˈsɛpəˌreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat·ed; -rat·ing

1 [+ obj] : to cause (two or more people or things) to stop being together, joined, or connected : to make (people or things) separate ▪ He separated the fighters (from each other). ▪ They described the process used to separate cream from milk. ▪ (US) He fell and separated [=dislocated] his shoulder. [=caused the bone in his shoulder to move out of its proper position]

2 [+ obj] : to be between (two things or people) ▪ A river separates the two towns. = The two towns are separated by a river. [=there is a river between the two towns] ▪ A great distance separated the sisters from each other.

3 [no obj] : to stop being together, joined, or connected : to become separate ▪ They walked together to the corner, but then they separated and went their separate ways. ▪ The main group separated into several smaller groups. ▪ Oil and water separate when combined together. ▪ The oil separated from the water. ▪ The salt crystals separated out of the liquid.

4 [no obj] : to stop living with a husband, wife, or partner ▪ They separated six months after their wedding. ▪ She separated from her boyfriend last week.

5 [+ obj] : to see or describe the differences between (two things) ▪ We need to separate [=distinguish] fact and/from fiction.

6 [+ obj] : to be the quality that makes (people or things) different : DIFFERENTIATE ▪ Their personalities and political beliefs separate them. ▪ Our ability to reason is what separates us from animals.

7 [+ obj] — used to describe how much difference there is in the scores or positions of people or teams in a race, game, etc. ▪ One goal separated the teams at the beginning of the third period. ▪ Polls show that the candidates are separated by only a narrow margin as the election approaches.

separate off [phrasal verb] separate (someone or something) off or separate off (someone or something) : to cause (someone or something) to be separate from other people or things ▪ He separated himself off from the crowd in the subway.

separate out [phrasal verb] separate out (someone or something) or separate (someone or something) out : to remove (someone or something) from a group ▪ Before you put out the trash, you have to separate out the bottles and cans. ▪ Most schools separate out children with learning problems.

separate the men from the boys : to show which people are really strong, brave, etc., and which are not ▪ The competition has been easy to this point, but now it gets tough and we'll really begin to separate the men from the boys.

separate the sheep from the goats or separate the wheat from the chaff chiefly Brit : to judge which people or things in a group are bad and which ones are good ▪ The magazine describes many different products and then separates the sheep from the goats.

separated adj

1 : not living with a husband, wife, or partner ▪ My sister is separated from her husband. = My sister and her husband are separated.

2 US, medical : not attached because of an injury : DISLOCATED ▪ He suffered a separated shoulder.

3 : located far apart from each other ▪ The birds live on two widely separated islands.

sep·a·rate·ly /ˈsɛpərətli/ adv : not together with someone or something else ▪ The two vegetables should be cooked separately. ▪ The software is sold separately from the hardware. ▪ The professor met with each student separately.

sep·a·rates /ˈsɛpərəts/ noun [plural] : pieces of women's clothing that can be worn with other pieces in different combinations to form different outfits

sep·a·ra·tion /ˌsɛpəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 : the act of separating people or things or the state of being separated [count] After a separation of 30 years, she visited her family in Cuba. [noncount] Moving away meant separation from his family. ▪ The U.S. Constitution calls for the separation of church and state. [=calls for government and religion to be kept separate from each other]

2 [count] : a situation in which a husband and wife live apart from each other — usually singular ▪ She wanted a separation from her husband.

separation anxiety noun [noncount] : a feeling of strong fear and anxiety that is experienced by a young child when the child is separated from a parent sep·a·rat·ist /ˈsɛpərətɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a member of a group of people who want to form a new country, religion, etc., that is separate from the one they are in now

– sep·a·rat·ism /ˈsɛpərəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ religious separatism – separatist adj ▪ a separatist movement/group/leader sep·a·ra·tor /ˈsɛpəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : someone

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 63 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

or something that separates two or more things from each other se•pia /ˈsi:pijə/ noun [noncount] : a reddish-brown color – sepia adj ▪ sepia photographs/prints sep•sis /ˈsɛpsəs/ noun [noncount] medical : illness caused by an infection in a part of the body ▪ She was treated for sepsis of the urinary tract.

Sept. abbr September

Sep•tem•ber /sɛpˈtɛmbə/ noun, pl -bers : the ninth month of the year [noncount] early/mid-/late September ▪ early/late in September ▪ School begins on September the fifth. = (US) School begins on September fifth. = School begins on the fifth of September. [count] The weather has been very mild during the past two Septembers.

sep•tet /sɛpˈtɛt/ noun, pl -tets [count]
1 : a group of seven singers or musicians who perform together
2 : a piece of music that is meant to be performed by seven people sep•tic /ˈsɛptɪk/ adj, chiefly Brit, medical : infected with bacteria ▪ a septic leg ▪ The cut went septic. [=the cut became infected]

sep•ti•ce•mia (US) or Brit sep•ti•cae•mia /ˌsɛptəˈsi:mijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a dangerous infection of the blood : BLOOD POISONING septic tank noun, pl ~ tanks [count] : a tank under the ground that holds human waste from toilets sep•tu•a•ge•nar•i•an /ˌsɛpˌtu:wəʤəˈnerijən, Brit ˌsɛpˌtjuəʤəˈnɛəriən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who is between 70 and 79 years old

se•pul•chral /səˈpʌlkrəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] literary : very sad and serious : very dismal or gloomy ▪ sepulchral silence/darkness
2 always used before a noun : of or relating to a sepulchre ▪ sepulchral walls ▪ a sepulchral inscription sep•ul•chre or US sep•ul•cher /ˈsɛpəlkə/ noun, pl -chres or US -chers [count] old-fashioned : a place of burial : TOMB

se•quel /ˈsi:kwəl/ noun, pl -quels [count]
1 : a book, movie, etc., that continues a story begun in another book, movie, etc. ▪ The new film is a sequel to the very successful comedy that came out five years ago. ▪ He is busy writing the book's sequel. — compare PREQUEL
2 : something that happens after and usually as a result of a previous event ▪ There is an interesting sequel to my date with her that I'll share with you later.

se•quence /ˈsi:kwəns/ noun, pl -quenc•es
1 : the order in which things happen or should happen [count] a sequence of events [noncount] He listened to the telephone messages in sequence. ▪ After she dropped the photographs, they were out of sequence. [=not in order, out of order]
2 [count] : a group of things that come one after the other : SERIES ▪ a sequence of numbers/thoughts/poems/photographs
3 [count] : a part of a movie, television show, etc., that deals with one subject, action, or idea ▪ a chase sequence in a spy movie ▪ I enjoyed the movie's opening sequence.

se•quen•tial /sɪˈkwɛnʃəl/ adj, formal
1 : of, relating to, or arranged in a particular order or sequence ▪ sequential filing systems ▪ Put the cards in sequential order.
2 : happening in a series or sequence ▪ sequential actions/events – se•quen•tial•ly adv ▪ I arranged the photos sequentially.

se•ques•ter /sɪˈkwɛstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to keep (a person or group) apart from other people ▪ The jury was sequestered until a verdict was reached. ▪ He was sequestered in his room.
2 law : to take (property) until a debt has been paid ▪ Their property was sequestered.

sequestered adj, literary : located in a quiet and private place : SECLUDED ▪ a sequestered house/village se•ques•trate /ˈsi:kwəˌstreɪt/ verb -trates; trat•ed; -trating [+ obj] chiefly Brit, law : SEQUESTER 2

se•ques•tra•tion /ˌsi:kwəˈstreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 US : the act of keeping a person or group apart from other people or the state of being kept apart from other people ▪ the sequestration of a jury ▪ During their sequestration, jurors were not allowed to speak to reporters.
2 chiefly Brit, law : the act of taking someone's property until a debt has been paid ▪ the sequestration of property

se•quin /ˈsi:kwən/ noun, pl -quins [count] : a small piece of shiny metal or plastic that is sewn onto clothes as a decoration – se•quined or se•quinned /ˈsi:kwənd/ adj ▪ a sequined dress/gown se•quoia /sɪˈkwojə/ noun, pl -quoi•as [count] : a very tall evergreen tree that grows in California

sera plural of SERUM

ser•aph /ˈsɛrəf/ noun, pl ser•a•phim /ˈsɛrəˌfɪm/ or ser•aphs [count] : a type of angel that is described in the Bible : an angel of the highest rank se•raph•ic /səˈræfɪk/ adj, literary : very beautiful or pure like that of an angel ▪ a seraphic smile ▪ her seraphic face

[1]ser•e•nade /ˌserəˈneɪd/ noun, pl -nades [count] : a love song that is sung or played outdoors at night for a woman

[2]serenade verb -nades; -nad•ed; -nad•ing [+ obj] : to sing or play a serenade for (someone) ▪ He serenaded her from the garden below her window. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The crickets seranaded us all night long.

ser•en•dip•i•ty /ˌserənˈdɪpəti/ noun [noncount] literary : luck that takes the form of finding valuable or pleasant things that are not looked for ▪ They found each other by pure serendipity. – ser•en•dip•i•tous /ˌserənˈdɪpətəs/ adj ▪ a serendipitous discovery

se•rene /səˈri:n/ adj [more ~; most ~] : calm and peaceful ▪ a serene face ▪ serene music/skies – se•rene•ly adv ▪ She smiled serenely. ▪ The sunset was serenely beautiful. – se•ren•i•ty /səˈrɛnəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ a feeling of peace and serenity

serf /ˈsəf/ noun, pl serfs [count] : a person in the past who belonged to a low social class and who lived and worked on land owned by another person ▪ medieval serfs

serf•dom /ˈsəfdəm/ noun [noncount] : the state of being a serf serge /ˈsəʤ/ noun [noncount] : a strong cloth that is used to make clothes ▪ a coat made of serge ▪ a blue serge suit ser•geant /ˈsɑəʤənt/ noun, pl -geants [count]

1 : an officer of low rank in the army or marines — see also STAFF SERGEANT
2 : an officer in a police force with a rank below captain or lieutenant — abbr. Sgt.

sergeant major noun, pl sergeants major or sergeant majors [count] : an officer of low rank in the U.S. Army or Marines Corps

[1]se•ri•al /ˈsirijəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : arranged or happening in a series ▪ The pictures are numbered and arranged in serial order. ▪ Scientists made serial observations over a period of two weeks.
2 a of a crime : committed many times usually in the same way ▪ serial murders/rapes b of a criminal : committing a series of crimes ▪ a serial killer/rapist
3 : broadcast or published in separate parts over a period of time ▪ a serial story/novel/publication
4 computers : designed for a computer system in which very small pieces of information are sent one at a time over a single wire ▪ a serial cable/connection/port/printer — compare [1]PARALLEL 3
– se•ri•al•ly adv ▪ serially numbered items ▪ serially connected printers ▪ The story was published serially.

[2]serial noun, pl -als [count] : a story that is broadcast on television or radio or that is published in a magazine in separate parts over a period of time ▪ a daytime television serial se•ri•al•ize also Brit se•ri•al•ise /ˈsirijəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to broadcast or publish (something, such as a story) in separate parts over a period of time ▪ Her story was serialized in the magazine.

– se•ri•al•i•za•tion also Brit se•ri•al•i•sa•tion /ˌsirijələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌsɪərɪəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] serial number noun, pl ~ -bers [count] : a number that is put on a product and that is used to identify it ▪ the serial number of a computer

se•ries /ˈsiriz/ noun, pl series [count]
1 : a number of things or events that are arranged or happen one after the other — usually singular ▪ the summer concert series at the park — often + of ▪ a series of experiments/explosions ▪ We've had a series of problems with our computer network. ▪ an unusual series of events
2 a : a set of regularly presented television shows involving

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

the same group of characters or the same subject ▪ a popular television series ▪ a five-part series on/about the history of baseball b : a set of books, articles, etc., that involve the same group of characters or the same subject ▪ a comic book series ▪ a series of articles on global warming
3 sports : a set of games that are played between two teams one after the other on different days ▪ The Yankees played a three-game series against the Red Sox last week. ▪ The play-off series between the two teams begins next week. — see also WORLD SERIES in series : one after the other in a particular order ▪ She placed the items in series.

ser•if /ˈserəf/ noun, pl -ifs [count] technical : one of the short lines near the top and bottom of the long parts of some printed letters — see picture at FONT; see also SANS SERIF se•ri•ous /ˈsirijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having an important or dangerous possible result ▪ a serious injury/illness/condition ▪ "You sound terrible." "It's just a bad cold. Nothing serious." ▪ serious risks ▪ For my brother, not going to college was a serious mistake. ▪ Crime is a serious problem in this neighborhood.
2 : involving or deserving a lot of thought, attention, or work ▪ a serious study ▪ The team is a serious contender for the championship. ▪ If you want to quit smoking, you have to make a serious effort. ▪ They had a serious conversation about their relationship. ▪ a serious novel about modern life ▪ The story raises serious questions about our system of justice. ▪ Dog shows are a serious business.
3 : giving a lot of attention or energy to something ▪ serious musicians ▪ She is a serious cyclist who rides 200 miles each week. ▪ Serious journalists do not pry into the personal lives of famous people. ▪ When it comes to fishing, he's very serious. = He's very serious about fishing. ▪ My sister is serious about her grades.
4 : not joking or funny ▪ a serious story/opera ▪ Don't laugh. I'm serious! ▪ Can you be serious just this once? This is important. ▪ He is serious about moving down South. [=he truly wants/intends to move down South] ▪ "He says he won't do it." "Are you serious?" ▪ "I'm joining the army." "You can't be serious." [=you have to be joking; I can't believe that you're really joining the army]
5 always used before a noun, informal : large or impressive in quality or amount ▪ After business school, he started making some serious money. [=he started making a large amount of money] ▪ These are serious shoes! ▪ They did some serious drinking at the bar. [=they drank a lot]
6 : having or involving strong romantic feelings ▪ Their romance is quite serious. They're even talking about marriage. ▪ We've dated a few times, but it's nothing serious. ▪ They are a serious couple. ▪ He's never really had a serious relationship with a woman. — often + about ▪ She and her boyfriend are serious about each other.
7 : thoughtful or quiet in appearance or manner ▪ He looks like a serious person. ▪ You look serious. What's the matter?

se•ri•ous•ly /ˈsirijəsli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a serious way ▪ No one was seriously injured in the accident. ▪ I thought seriously about death while I was in the hospital. ▪ You should seriously consider buying a new car. ▪ You don't mean that seriously, do you? ▪ If you like arguing so much, you should be a lawyer! Seriously, you would be good at it. [=I was joking when I said you should be a lawyer, but I actually think you would be good at it] ▪ It was so hot that we nearly melted. But seriously, it was hotter than I've ever experienced. ▪ (informal) "I'll pay for dinner." "Seriously?" [=are you being serious when you say that you'll pay for dinner?]
2 : to a large or great degree or extent ▪ I think you are seriously mistaken. ▪ During her first year in the United States, she was seriously [=very, extremely] unhappy. ▪ She's a seriously beautiful woman. [=a very beautiful woman] take (someone or something) seriously : to treat (someone or something) as being very important and deserving attention or respect ▪ He takes his religious faith seriously. ▪ She's well qualified for the job, so she hopes the company will take her seriously. ▪ His parents threatened to punish him, but he didn't take them seriously. [=he didn't believe that they would actually punish him] ▪ Police are taking the matter very seriously. ▪ Don't take him seriously—he loves to say crazy things. ▪ Most politicians take themselves too seriously. [=think of themselves as being more important than they really are] se•ri•ous•ness /ˈsirijəsnəs/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of being serious ▪ We were shocked by the seriousness of her illness. ▪ The child's seriousness was surprising. ▪ You have to consider the seriousness of the charges against you. ▪ She spoke with great seriousness.

in all seriousness : in a serious way — used to stress that a statement, question, etc., is not a joke ▪ "I was the queen of England in a previous life," she said in all seriousness. ▪ In all seriousness, if he does propose, what will you say?

ser•mon /ˈsərmən/ noun, pl -mons [count]
1 : a speech about a moral or religious subject that is usually given by a religious leader ▪ He preached/delivered/gave a sermon on the importance of kindness.
2 informal + usually disapproving : a serious talk about how someone should behave ▪ Dad gave me a sermon yesterday about doing my homework.

ser•mon•ize also Brit ser•mon•ise /ˈsərməˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [no obj] : to give a sermon to someone; especially, disapproving : to give someone unwanted advice about good moral behavior ▪ She's a teacher who can talk to her students about serious subjects without sermonizing.

ser•pent /ˈsərpənt/ noun, pl -pents [count] literary : a usually large snake ser•pen•tine /ˈsərpənˌti:n, Brit ˈsə:pənˌtaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having many bends and turns ▪ a serpentine [=twisting] path through the woods ser•rat•ed /ˈseəˌeɪtəd, səˈreɪtəd/ adj : having a row of small points or teeth along the side like a saw ▪ a knife with a serrated blade/edge ser•ried /ˈserid/ adj, always used before a noun, literary : crowded or pressed together ▪ Flowers came up every spring in their serried ranks.

se•rum /ˈsirəm/ noun, pl se•rums or se•ra /ˈsirə/
1 [noncount] medical : the part of blood that is like water and that contains substances (called antibodies) that fight disease ▪ blood serum
2 medical : serum from an animal's blood that can be added to a person's blood to prevent or cure disease [noncount] The patient was administered serum. [count] mouse sera
3 [noncount] biology : the watery part of a fluid found in a plant

ser•vant /ˈsəvənt/ noun, pl -vants [count]
1 : a person who is hired to do household or personal duties such as cleaning and cooking ▪ domestic/household servants — see also CIVIL SERVANT, PUBLIC SERVANT
2 : a person who is devoted to or guided by something — often + of ▪ a servant of the truth ▪ She is a servant of her religion.

[1]serve /ˈsəv/ verb serves; served; serv•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to give (food or drink) to someone at a meal, in a restaurant, etc. ▪ Soup was served as the first course. ▪ The waiter served our meals quickly. ▪ The restaurant serves excellent Italian food. ▪ Dinner is served. [=dinner is on the table and ready to be eaten] — see also SERVE UP (below) b : to give food or drink to (someone) [+ obj] The waiter who served us was very nice. ▪ Feel free to serve yourself at the salad bar. [no obj] You carve the turkey, and I'll serve.
2 [+ obj] : to be enough food for (a particular number of people) ▪ We need to make enough soup to serve [=feed] eight people. ▪ The roast should serve six.
3 [+ obj] : to provide service to (a customer) : to help (a customer) make purchases ▪ I'm afraid all of our salespeople are serving other customers right now. ▪ What can we do to serve our customers better?
4 [no obj] a : to be used or seen in a particular way — + as ▪ The trees can serve as shelter from the rain. ▪ The organization serves as a model of social responsibility. ▪ The accident serves as [=is] a reminder of the dangers of drunk driving. ▪ Let that serve as [=be] a lesson to you. b : to have a particular result or effect — often + as ▪ Babysitting his nieces served as a test of his patience. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She tried hard but her efforts only served to bring more attention to her lack of experience.
5 a [+ obj] : to be useful or helpful to (someone) ▪ Her quick wit has served her well on many occasions. b : to provide what is needed by or for (someone or something) [+ obj] The library serves the community. = The library serves the needs of the community. [=provides things that the community needs] ▪ He argued that government too often serves the interests of big business. [=does things to help big business instead of ordinary people] ▪ Arguing with him serves no purpose. [=is not useful or helpful in any way] ▪ If (my) memory serves me (right/correctly) [=if I remember correctly], she is from Los Angeles. [no obj] If memory serves, she is

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 64 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

from Los Angeles. ▪ Many people do not believe that justice has been served in his case. [=that he has been given proper punishment or fair treatment by the legal system] — see also SELF-SERVING c [+ obj] : to provide (an area or group of people) with a particular service ▪ This neighborhood is not served with/by garbage collection. ▪ Two elementary schools serve the town.

6 : to hold a particular office, position, etc. : to perform a duty or job [no obj] They served on the jury. ▪ She served on the city council for years. ▪ He served as the club's adviser. ▪ He served for five years in the army. = He served in the army for five years. ▪ She was elected to serve for a second term. [+ obj] We honor those who serve our country. ▪ She served a two-year apprenticeship.

7 [+ obj] : to be in prison for or during (a period of time) ▪ He's serving two years for robbery. ▪ She is serving a life/10-year sentence. ▪ He has served time [=spent time in prison] for drug possession.

8 [+ obj] law : to send or give (someone) official legal papers ▪ He served her with divorce papers. ▪ The police officer served a summons/writ on him.

9 [+ obj] : to give respect and service to (someone or something) ▪ She dedicated her whole life to serving God.

10 sports : to throw a ball into the air and hit it over a net to start play in tennis, volleyball, etc. [no obj] It's your turn to serve. [+ obj] They flipped a coin to decide who would serve the ball first.

first come, first served see [2]FIRST serve out [phrasal verb] serve (something) out or serve out (something) : to complete (a term in office, a prison sentence, etc.) ▪ He vowed that he would serve out his five-year term as chairperson. ▪ She served out her sentence in a prison in New York.

serve (someone) right — used to say that someone who has behaved badly deserves a particular punishment, problem, etc. ▪ "I hear his wife is divorcing him." "It serves him right after the way he's treated her." ▪ "He won't even talk to me." "(It) Serves you right for lying to him."

serve two masters : to give equal support to two different causes, groups, etc. ▪ You cannot serve two masters.

serve up [phrasal verb] serve up (something) or serve (something) up : to give (food) to someone at a meal, in a restaurant, etc. ▪ That little restaurant serves up some of the best Indian food in the city. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The movie serves up a ton of laughs. [=the movie is very funny]

[2]serve noun, pl serves [count] sports : the act or action of throwing a ball into the air and hitting it over a net to start play in tennis, volleyball, etc. ▪ She started the game with a powerful serve. ▪ It's your serve. [=it's your turn to serve the ball]

serv•er /ˈsə·və/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 US : a person who brings your food and drinks at a restaurant : a waiter or waitress ▪ She asked our server for another glass of wine.

2 : the main computer in a network which provides files and services that are used by the other computers ▪ the file/mail/Web server

3 : the player who begins play in tennis, volleyball, etc., by serving the ball

4 : something (such as a tray or spoon) that is used to serve food

serv•ery /ˈsə·vəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] Brit : a counter in a restaurant where customers pick up their food and bring it back to their tables

[1]ser•vice /ˈsə·vəs/ noun, pl -vic•es

1 [count] : an organization, company, or system that provides something to the public ▪ the National Park Service ▪ the National Weather Service [=a government agency that provides information about the weather] ▪ Students go to health services for medical attention. ▪ He runs a landscaping service. ▪ Their housing is provided through government services. — see also ANSWERING SERVICE, CIVIL SERVICE, DATING SERVICE, FOREIGN SERVICE, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, POSTAL SERVICE, PUBLIC SERVICE, SECRET SERVICE, SOCIAL SERVICES, WIRE SERVICE

2 : work done by an organization or person that does not involve producing goods [count] Take advantage of their free delivery service. ▪ bus/Internet/telephone service — often plural ▪ He offered his services as a babysitter [=he offered to be a babysitter] during the party. ▪ The lawyers offer their services for free to those who cannot afford to pay. ▪ We received a bill for services rendered. [=for work that had been done] ▪ the consumption of goods and services [noncount] We guarantee excellent service. ▪ They have jobs in the service industries. [=jobs that involve providing services to customers and not producing a product]

3 [noncount] a : work done for a business or organization : EMPLOYMENT ▪ She retired from the company after 34 years of service. ▪ Pay is determined by length of service. b : work done for your country, government, etc. ▪ a family tradition of public service ▪ Reporters began investigating his record of military service. [=time spent serving in the army, navy, air force, etc.] — see also COMMUNITY SERVICE c old-fashioned : employment as a servant ▪ He entered the queen's service. ▪ In those days it wasn't unusual for a person to go into service [=become a servant] as a child. ▪ He was in service all his life.

4 [noncount] : the act of helping or serving customers at a restaurant, hotel, store, etc. ▪ The food was good but the service was terribly slow. ▪ The company is known for its excellent customer service. — see also FULL-SERVICE, LIP SERVICE, ROOM SERVICE

5 [noncount] : use of a machine or vehicle ▪ Our car has given us great service over the years. [=has served us very well over the years] : the state of being available for use ▪ The copier is currently out of service. [=out of order] ▪ The new planes will be put into service [=will begin being used] next year.

6 : work that is done to repair something (such as a vehicle) or to keep it in good condition [noncount] He brought his car in for service. ▪ The store provides television sales and service. [count] (Brit) He brought his car in for a service.

7 : a regularly scheduled trip on a bus, airplane, boat, etc. [count] The 10:30 bus service to Boston is canceled today. [noncount] There is ferry service to the island four times a day. [=the ferry goes to the island four times a day]

8 [count] : a religious ceremony ▪ a funeral/memorial/burial service ▪ She goes to the synagogue for services on Friday nights.

9 US the service or Brit the services : a country's military forces : a country's army, navy, air force, etc. ▪ He entered/joined the service when he was 19. ▪ She was in the service for 20 years.

10 [count] : a set of dishes, cups, etc., that match each other ▪ a tea service ▪ I have a china/dinner service for 12 people.

11 [count] sports : the act of serving the ball in tennis, volleyball, etc. : SERVE ▪ a first/second service

12 [noncount] law : the act of giving legal papers to someone ▪ the service of a subpoena

13 services Brit : a place along a highway for drivers to get food, gasoline, etc. — used both as a singular noun and as a plural noun ▪ We stopped at a services.

at someone's service : ready or available for someone's use ▪ I am happy to be at your service if you have any questions. ▪ They made sure there was a car at her service when she got there.

be of service : to be helpful or useful to someone ▪ I am glad to be of service. ▪ May I be of service to you?

do (someone) a service : to do something that helps (someone) ▪ The journalists did the public a service by exposing the corruption. ▪ You are doing us no service by criticizing everything.

[2]service verb -vices; -viced; -vic•ing [+ obj]

1 : to do the work that is needed to keep (a machine or vehicle) in good condition ▪ I need to get my car serviced. ▪ The shop services sewing machines and old typewriters.

2 technical : to pay interest on (a loan or debt) ▪ The company was unable to service the loan.

3 : to provide (someone) with something that is needed or wanted ▪ The bookstore primarily services people looking for out-of-print books.

ser•vice•able /ˈsə·vəsəbəl/ adj : ready to use or able to be used ▪ I bought an old but still serviceable bicycle.

service area noun, pl ~ areas [count] chiefly Brit : REST AREA service charge noun, pl ~ charges [count]

1 : an amount of money that is charged for a particular service in addition to a basic fee ▪ Tickets are $25 each plus a $3 service charge per ticket. — called also (US) service fee

2 Brit : an amount of money that is paid to the owner of an apartment building for services (such as garbage collection)

3 Brit : a charge added to a bill in a restaurant to pay for the work of the waitress or waiter

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

service club noun, pl ~ clubs [count] US : a national organization that is made up of groups of local people who work to improve their communities ser•vice•man /'sə·vəsˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a man who is a member of the military service mark noun, pl ~ marks [count] : a name, word, symbol, etc., that an organization uses to identify its services — compare TRADEMARK service road noun, pl ~ roads [count] : a road that is near and parallel to a major road and that allows people to go to local stores, houses, etc.

service station noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : GAS STATION ser•vice•wom•an /'sə·vəsˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is a member of the military servicing noun [noncount] : work done to repair a machine or vehicle or to keep it in good condition ▪ The photocopier needs servicing.

ser•vi•ette /ˌsə·vi'ɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] Brit : NAPKIN

ser•vile /'sə·vəl, Brit 'sə:ˌvaɪl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : very obedient and trying too hard to please someone ▪ In the presence of an authority, he immediately adopted a servile [=submissive] attitude. ▪ a servile assistant — ser•vil•i•ty /sə'vɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount]

[1]serving noun, pl -ings [count] : an amount of food or drink that is enough for one person ▪ This recipe makes four servings [=helpings] of rice and beans. ▪ This is my third serving of mashed potatoes. ▪ According to the package, one serving size is 6 ounces.

[2]serving adj, always used before a noun : used to serve or give out food ▪ a serving bowl ▪ serving utensils ser•vi•tude /'sə·vəˌtu:d, Brit 'sə:vəˌtju:d/ noun [noncount] formal : the condition of being a slave or of having to obey another person ▪ indentured/involuntary servitude

ses•a•me /'sɛsəmi/ noun [noncount] : a plant that is grown in warm regions and that produces small flat seeds that are used in cooking and as a source of oil — often used before another noun ▪ sesame seeds ▪ sesame oil — see also OPEN SESAME

ses•sion /'sɛʃən/ noun, pl -sions

1 [count] : a period of time that is used to do a particular activity ▪ a practice session ▪ Her health insurance will cover 12 one-hour sessions of therapy per year. ▪ a recording/photo session ▪ After the speech there will be a question and answer session. [=a period of time when people can have their questions answered] — see also BULL SESSION, JAM SESSION, RAP SESSION

2 : a formal meeting or series of meetings of a group of people (such as a court of law or legislature) [count] the U.N. Special Session on Disarmament [noncount] The board met in closed session [=with no one else present] for four hours to discuss the issue. ▪ Congress is in session [=is meeting] right now.

3 US : a period of time during the year in which a school, college, or university has classes [count] I'm going to take classes during the summer session. [noncount] School will be back in session at the beginning of September. [=school will start again at the beginning of September]

[1]set /'sɛt/ verb sets; set; set•ting

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] a : to put (something) in a place or position ▪ Set your books (down) on the table. ▪ We need to set some extra chairs around the table. ▪ He set the ladder against the wall and walked away. ▪ I remember setting my bag right here. b : to put (something) into the surface of something ▪ They set the bricks along the walkway. — often used as (be) set ▪ The posts are set firmly in the ground. ▪ The tiles are set into the wall. c : to attach (something, such as a jewel) to a piece of jewelry or other decoration ▪ The jeweler can set the stone several different ways. — often used as (be) set ▪ Her wedding ring is set [=inlaid] with seven diamonds. ▪ a diamond set in a simple gold band

2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to cause the action of (a film, story, etc.) to happen in a certain place or during a certain time — often used as (be) set ▪ The play is set in Verona, Italy. [=the action of the play takes place in Verona] ▪ The novel is set in 1943. ▪ a novel set during World War II ▪ The story is set against (the backdrop of) the Second World War. [=the story takes place during the Second World War]

3 [+ obj] a : to make (something) ready to be used : to put (something) in a position to be used ▪ He turned off the car and set the parking brake. ▪ Rangers will set a trap to catch the bear. b : to put plates, forks, spoons, knives, etc., on a table before serving a meal ▪ Would you please set [=(Brit) lay] the table? ▪ We set an extra place at the table for our guest. ▪ The table was set for two. [=it had two place settings]

4 [+ obj] : to cause (a clock) to show a particular time ▪ We set the clocks ahead one hour for daylight saving time. : to cause the controls of (a clock or other device) to be in a particular position ▪ The alarm was set for 7:00 a.m. = The alarm was set to go off at 7:00 a.m. ▪ I set the timer for/to twenty minutes. ▪ Set the oven to 350 degrees. ▪ In the winter, she sets the thermostat at/to 68 degrees.

5 [+ obj] : to decide on or choose (something) ▪ I set a goal (for myself) to lose 15 pounds by the end of the year. ▪ The company must meet certain conditions set by the government in order to stay in business. ▪ She will be setting the agenda for this afternoon's meeting. ▪ setting boundaries/limits/rules ▪ NASA has not yet set [=named] the date for the shuttle launch. ▪ He has set his sights on becoming [=he has decided to try to become] the next president. ▪ We don't have enough time to do everything. We have to set priorities. [=to decide which things are most important to do]

6 [+ obj] a : to give (a particular price or value) to something ▪ An antiques appraiser set the value of the chair at $500. ▪ If you set your prices too high, no one will buy your products. ▪ Her bail was set at $10,000. = The judge set (her) bail at $10,000. [=the judge decided that she will have to pay $10,000 or stay in jail until her trial] b : to give (a high value or importance) to something ▪ They set a high value on their privacy. [=they value their privacy very highly] ▪ Our family sets great store by/on tradition. [=our family believes that tradition is very important]

7 [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to be accepted as an example, rule, etc. : to establish (a standard, trend, etc.) for others to follow or try to copy ▪ They are improving the safety of their vehicles and setting a higher standard for other companies (to follow). ▪ His style of directing has set a new trend in moviemaking. [=other directors are copying his way of making movies] ▪ His behavior sets a good/bad example for the rest of the children. ▪ The ruling is likely to set a precedent for how future cases are decided. [=future cases will be decided based on this case] ▪ Her lighthearted question set the tone for the rest of the interview. [=it gave the rest of the interview a light and easy feeling] b : to establish (a record) as the performance or achievement that is the best of its kind ▪ She set a record for the most sales in the company's history. [=she made more sales for the company than anyone else ever had] ▪ He set the world record for/in the 100-meter dash.

8 [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to be in a specified condition ▪ The slaves were set free. ▪ He made a raft and set it afloat in the river. ▪ They set the house on fire. = They set fire to the house. = (more formally) They set the house afire/aflame/ablaze. [=they caused the house to begin burning] ▪ I wish I knew how to set your mind at ease. [=to help you stop worrying] ▪ She set him right/straight about what happened. [=she told him that he was wrong and explained what really happened] ▪ We should set our own house in order [=correct the way we do things] before we criticize them.

9 : to cause (someone or something) to start doing something [+ obj] We have no idea what set [=got] her crying. — often + to ▪ Her question set me to wondering if I had made the right decision. ▪ They are ready to set the plan in motion. [=they are ready to cause the plan to start happening] ▪ The plan has been set in motion. ▪ Sources say that the governor has set the wheels in motion for a run for the presidency. [=the governor has started to run for president] [no obj] He immediately set to work [=started working] on the project.

10 [+ obj] Brit : to give (someone) a particular job : to require someone to do (a task) ▪ My boss set me to organizing the files. ▪ She set [=assigned] her students the task of writing a three-page report. ▪ setting homework for the children

11 [no obj] of the sun or moon : to move down in the sky and go below the horizon ▪ We sat on the beach and watched the sun set. — opposite [1]RISE 5

12 [+ obj] : to put and hold (your jaw, mouth, etc.) firmly into a certain position ▪ She crossed her arms, set her jaw, and refused to answer any questions. ▪ He set his lips firmly.

13 a [no obj] of a liquid : to become thick or hard ▪ The gelatin needs a few hours to set. ▪ My nail polish is still setting. ▪ a quick-setting cement b : to become permanent [no obj] If you don't wash your shirt right away, the stain will set. [=you will not be able to remove the stain] [+ obj] Hot water will set the stain.

14 : to put (a broken bone) into its normal position so it can

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

heal [+ obj] Doctors set her broken leg last week. [no obj] The bones will take several weeks to set. [=grow together]

15 [+ obj] : to give a particular style to (someone's hair) by wetting it, putting it in curlers or clips, and drying it ▪ She gets her hair set and styled twice a week.

16 [+ obj] : to type or print (a word, sentence, etc.) in a particular form or style ▪ a word set in italics set about [phrasal verb] set about (something) : to begin to do (something) ▪ They set about (the task of) creating a new Web site. — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ They set about to create a new Web site.

17 [+ obj] : to add music to (words) : to create (music) to accompany words — usually + to ▪ She wrote the lyrics, and he set them to music.

set against [phrasal verb] 1 set (something) against (something) a : to compare (something) to (something else) ▪ Let's set the advantages against the disadvantages. — often used as (be) set against ▪ The challenges of fixing the problem now must be set against the dangers of waiting until later to act. ▪ The fines were small when set against the company's huge annual profits. — see also ¹SET 2 (above) b Brit : to list (something) as an expense in order to reduce (income for which you must pay tax) ▪ You can set your mortgage payments against your rental income. 2 set (yourself) against (someone or something) : to decide that you do not support (something or someone) : to be or become opposed to (something or someone) ▪ She set herself against the prevailing beliefs of the time. ▪ He has set himself against (joining) them. 3 set (someone) against (someone) : to cause (someone) to disagree with or oppose (someone) ▪ The incident set brother against sister.

set apart [phrasal verb] 1 set (someone or something) apart : to be a quality that makes (someone or something) better than or different from other people or things — usually + from ▪ What sets her apart (from the other teachers) is her great passion for her work. ▪ His great height set him apart from the other men in his family. 2 set (something) apart : to keep or save (something) for a particular purpose — often used as (be) set apart; usually + for ▪ A few acres of the city were set apart for a park.

set aside [phrasal verb] set (something) aside or set aside (something) 1 : to move (something) to the side because you are not working on it, dealing with it, etc. ▪ Mix the dry ingredients in a small bowl and set the mixture aside. : to wait until later to use or deal with (something) ▪ I've set your memo aside for now but I'll read it this afternoon. ▪ The committee set aside discussion of the proposal until their next meeting. 2 : to keep or save (something) for a particular purpose ▪ The hotel set aside [=set apart] 20 rooms for the guests of the bride and groom. ▪ We need to set some money aside for our vacation. 3 : to stop thinking about, talking about, or being affected by (something) ▪ They decided to set aside their differences and work together. ▪ Setting aside the fact that the meal was extremely expensive, dinner was very enjoyable. 4 law : to change or reverse (a legal decision, conviction, etc.) ▪ The verdict was set aside [=overturned] by the court.

set back [phrasal verb] 1 set (something or someone) back or set back (something or someone) : to make the progress of (something or someone) slower or more difficult : to cause (something or someone) to go back to an earlier or worse condition ▪ A recent lack of funding has set back research on the disease. ▪ If the law is reversed, it will set us back 20 years. [=it will undo 20 years of progress] ▪ setting back progress 2 set (someone) back informal : ²COST ▪ A new suit will set you back at least $200.

set down [phrasal verb] 1 set down (something) : to create or establish (a rule, requirement, etc.) ▪ All participants must follow the guidelines set down [=established] by the organization. ▪ Once she sets down the rules, there's no changing her mind. 2 set (something) down or set down (something) a : to record (something) by writing it down ▪ She took out her notebook and started setting down her thoughts. ▪ When an idea for a song comes to me, I set it down on paper. ▪ setting an agreement down in writing b : to land (an airplane) on the ground or water ▪ We had to set the plane down in a field. 3 set (someone) down : to allow (someone) to get off a bus, airplane, etc. ▪ I asked the taxi driver to set me down [=drop me off, (US) let me off] in front of the library.

set eyes on see ¹EYE

set foot in/on see ¹FOOT

set forth [phrasal verb] 1 literary : to begin a journey ▪ We will set forth [=set out] at dawn. 2 set forth (something) or set (something) forth formal : to explain or describe (something) in an organized way ▪ The author sets forth [=states] the book's premise in its first two pages.

set forward [phrasal verb] set (something) forward or set forward (something) : to explain or describe (something) so that it can be considered ▪ She has set forward [=presented] an ambitious plan to fix the nation's health-care system.

set in [phrasal verb] : to begin to be present, seen, etc. — used of something unpleasant or unwanted that often lasts for a long time ▪ The kids should go outside and play before the rain sets in again. ▪ An infection set in after the surgery. ▪ Reality was starting to set in. [=become obvious] We were not going to win.

set in stone see ¹STONE

set loose see let loose at ²LOOSE

set off [phrasal verb] 1 : to begin traveling in a particular direction ▪ We set off for home. ▪ They set off in a different direction. ▪ In the first chapter, the hero sets off on a long voyage across the ocean. 2 set off (something) also set (something) off : to cause (something) to start or happen ▪ set off an explosion ▪ Her comments set off [=touched off] a chain of events that led to two people losing their jobs. ▪ The incident set off a debate about how public land should be used. 3 set off (something) or set (something) off a : to cause (something) to begin making noise ▪ The thick smoke set off the school's fire alarms. ▪ Your watch will probably set the metal detectors off. b : to cause (fireworks, a bomb, etc.) to explode ▪ They were accused of setting off the bomb that destroyed the building. ▪ It was set off by remote control. c : to make (something) easy to see or notice ▪ The blue in your sweater sets off [=accents] your eyes. ▪ Bright yellow police tape set off the area where the crime occurred. ▪ a quote set off by quotation marks 4 set (someone) off : to cause (someone) to suddenly start yelling, crying, laughing, etc. ▪ I wonder what set her off.

set on [phrasal verb] set (someone or something) on (someone) : to make (a person or animal) suddenly attack (someone) ▪ Police dogs were set on the protesters. ▪ She set her friends on him.

set out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to begin traveling in a particular direction ▪ We got out of the car and set out for the nearest gas station. ▪ They set out toward the east. b : to start doing something : to begin an activity or effort with a particular plan or purpose ▪ She set out with the goal of going to the Olympics. — often followed by to + verb ▪ She accomplishes whatever she sets out [=intends] to do. ▪ I never set out to hurt you. [=I was not trying to hurt you] ▪ He set out to become a lawyer but ended up teaching history instead. 2 set (something) out or set out (something) a : to explain or describe (something) ▪ In the article, the group sets out the role of parents in a child's education. ▪ He set out the basic argument between the two groups. b : to move and organize (a group of things) so that they can be seen or used ▪ We'll need to set a few extra chairs out for our guests. ▪ They set out maps and travel brochures for the tourists to take.

set pen to paper see ¹PEN

set sail see ²SAIL

set the pace see ¹PACE set the record straight see ¹RECORD set the scene see SCENE

set the stage see ¹STAGE

set to [phrasal verb] Brit, literary : to begin doing something in an active and serious way ▪ We set to and soon finished the work.

set up [phrasal verb] 1 : to prepare for something by putting things where they need to be ▪ We have one hour left to set up for the party. ▪ We had better start setting up. 2 set up (something) or set (something) up a : to create or establish (something) for a particular purpose ▪ A panel needs to be set up to investigate the issue. ▪ She hopes that in a few years she can set up a private practice of her own. ▪ A foundation was set up for people with the disease. ▪ The church set up a school for the city's homeless children. ▪ The hikers set up camp [=they prepared an area where they could sleep outside] just before sunset. b : to arrange and plan (an event or activity) ▪ I'll ask my secretary to set up a meeting with our clients. ▪ Let's set up a time to get together. ▪ He was the one who set up the bank robbery. c : to put (something) in an upright position ▪ They set up flags along the street for the parade. ▪ Help me set the tent up. d : to make (a machine, system, etc.) ready to be used ▪ They set up the movie camera next to the door. ▪ This computer wasn't set up to run so many programs at one time. 3 set (someone) up or set up (someone) a : to cause (someone) to be in a bad situation or to appear guilty ▪ Those aren't his drugs. Someone must have set him up! [=framed him; made it look like the drugs were his] ▪ He claimed he was set up by the police. b Brit : to help (someone) feel healthy and full of energy ▪ She says that daily exercise has set her up to face the challenges of getting old. c : to give (someone) a job, a place to live, etc. ▪ She set me up in a great apartment in the city. ▪ He set his son up with a job at his company. d : to do something that makes it likely or possible for (someone) to do, get, or experience something ▪ The team's excellent defense set them up to score the winning touchdown. — usually + for ▪ I think you're just setting yourself up for a big disappointment. [=you're expecting something that won't happen and you will be disappointed when it doesn't] e : to cause (someone) to meet someone in order to start a romantic relationship ▪ "How did you first meet your husband?" "My best friend set us up." — often + with ▪ She wants to set him up with her sister. 4 set (yourself) up as (something) a : to try to make people believe that you are (something) ▪ She has set herself up as the best alternative to the current administration. ▪ He sets himself up as a defender of the people, but he's really only interested in getting more power. b also set up as (something) or set up in (something) : to start your own business ▪ She set (herself) up as a wedding planner. [=she began working as a wedding planner] ▪ He set up in business after finishing college. — see also SETUP

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

set up house see [1]HOUSE set upon [phrasal verb] set (someone or something) upon (someone) : to attack (someone or something) — often used as (be) set upon ▪ The protesters were set upon by police dogs.

set up shop see [1]SHOP set your heart on see HEART set your mind to see [1]MIND set your teeth on edge see TOOTH

[2]set noun, pl sets

1 [count] a : a group of similar things that belong together — often + of ▪ an extra set of keys ▪ There were two sets of footprints leading to the door. ▪ Her parents bought her a complete set of Shakespeare. [=all of the poems and plays written by Shakespeare] ▪ a set of instructions ▪ a complex set of emotions/ideas b : a group of things that are used together ▪ I need to buy a new set of golf clubs. ▪ a set of dishes ▪ a chess set ▪ an electric train set ▪ a dining (room) set [=a group of furniture for a dining room] — see also TEA SET

2 [count] : a piece of electronic equipment ▪ a radio/stereo set ▪ a television set = (US) a TV set ▪ The kids are allowed to watch two hours of television. After that, I turn off the set. — see also HEADSET

3 [count] a : a place where a movie or television program is filmed or a play is performed ▪ We met on the set of Hamlet. ▪ The actors got along well both on and off the set. [=while they were performing and while they were not] ▪ Quiet on the set! b : the rooms, painted backgrounds, furniture, etc., that are used for a scene in a movie, television program, or play ▪ elaborate stage sets ▪ a set designer — called also (US) setting

4 [count] : one of the parts into which a tennis or volleyball match is divided : a group of tennis or volleyball games ▪ He won a five-set match by three sets to two. — see also SET POINT

5 [count] : a group of songs or pieces that a musician or band performs at a concert ▪ Her band opened the show with a 30-minute set.

6 [singular] somewhat old-fashioned : a group of people who have similar interests or characteristics ▪ His music has become especially popular with the college set. [=with college students] ▪ the younger set ▪ the town's wealthy horsey set [=people who are interested in riding horses] — see also JET SET

7 [count] Brit : a group of students who perform at the same level in a particular subject ▪ She's in the top set for science.

8 [count] mathematics : a group of numbers, points, etc. ▪ the set of positive integers ▪ a finite set of points

9 [count] : the number of times that you perform a group of repeated movements when you exercise ▪ He did 3 sets of 12 push-ups.

10 [singular] : the way you move or hold your body, shoulders, etc. ▪ The set of her shoulders suggested confidence and strength. ▪ the firm set of his jaw — see also MIND-SET

11 [count] : a small bulb that you use to grow a new plant ▪ onion sets

[3]set adj

1 : having a particular position or location ▪ Her college is set in the countryside. ▪ Their house is set back from the road. ▪ a man with deep-set eyes — see also CLOSE-SET

2 : particular and not changing — used to describe something that has been decided by someone with authority ▪ All the cars on our lot have a set [=fixed] price. ▪ All contestants must write a 200-word essay on a set subject. ▪ Schools must be in session a set number of days each year. ▪ The office is open at set hours during the week. ▪ (Brit) The book is now a set book/text [=a book that students must read] in schools. ▪ (chiefly Brit) The restaurant has a very good set menu. [=a menu with items that cannot be changed]

3 [more ~; most ~] : not likely to change ▪ She has very set ideas about how children should behave. ▪ We're both getting older and more set in our ways. [=more unwilling to change the way we do or think about things]

4 of a person's face or expression : in a firm position that does not move or change ▪ He stared at me with angry eyes and a set jaw. ▪ a set smile ▪ a crowd of set faces

5 not used before a noun, informal : ready or prepared for something ▪ Is everyone set to go? ▪ We're all set. ▪ She's all set for an early-morning start. ▪ If we win the lottery, we'll be set for life. [=we will have everything we need for the rest of our lives]

6 not used before a noun : scheduled or supposed to happen at a certain time — often + for ▪ Your package is set [=slated] for delivery on the 11th. ▪ Her trial is set for October. ▪ The album is set for an early March release. — often followed by to + verb ▪ The album is set to be released in early March. ▪ The game is set to begin at 6:00.

be set against : to feel strongly that you do not want (something) or will not do (something) ▪ Everyone was set against going. ▪ He was dead set against the deal. [=he was very strongly opposed to the deal] be set on : to feel strongly that you want (something) or will do (something) ▪ She has been set on becoming a doctor since she was a child. ▪ I'm not completely set on red for this room.

(get) ready, (get) set, go see [1]READY have your heart set on see HEART have your mind set on see [1]MIND set in stone see [1]STONE

set–aside /ˈsɛtəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -asides

1 [count] : something that is saved and used for a particular purpose; especially, US : a program that requires jobs, money, etc., to be saved for people who have not been given as much as others in the past ▪ minority set-asides

2 Brit a [noncount] : a plan in the European Union in which farmers are paid not to grow a certain crop on a piece of land so that the price for that crop will not decrease too much b [count] : a piece of land on which the crop is not grown set•back /ˈsɛtˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : a problem that makes progress more difficult or success less likely ▪ Despite some early setbacks, they eventually became a successful company. ▪ a serious/minor/temporary setback set piece noun, pl ~ pieces [count]

1 : a scene in a movie or play, an image in a painting, a piece of music, etc., that has a familiar style or pattern and that creates a particular and usually dramatic effect ▪ a movie with some lovely set pieces

2 chiefly Brit : a carefully planned and performed group of movements in sports ▪ She scored with a set piece.

set point noun, pl ~ points tennis : a situation in which one player or team can win the set by winning the next point [count] He won with an ace on his second set point. [noncount] He won with an ace on/at set point.; also [count] : the point that must be won to win a set set square noun, pl ~ squares [count] Brit : TRIANGLE 5

sett /ˈsɛt/ noun, pl setts [count] Brit : a hole in the ground in which a badger lives set•tee /sɛˈti:/ noun, pl -tees [count]

1 : a long seat that has a back and arms and that two or more people can sit on

2 Brit : SOFA

set•ter /ˈsɛtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a person or thing that determines or establishes some-

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

thing ▪ As a teenager, she was a style setter for her younger sister. [=her younger sister copied her style] ▪ world record setters [=people who set world records] — often used in combination ▪ I like to use the joke as a tone-setter for my speeches. [=use the joke to set the tone for my speeches] — see also PACESETTER, TRENDSETTER

2 : a large dog that has long ears and long, smooth hair ▪ English/Irish setters set•ting /ˈsɛtɪŋ/ noun, pl -tings [count]

1 : the place and conditions in which something happens or exists ▪ This would be a beautiful/perfect/ideal setting for a picnic. ▪ You will have the opportunity to view the animals in their natural setting. [=environment] ▪ He tends to be shy in social settings. ▪ dining in a casual/formal setting ▪ urban versus rural settings

2 a : the time, place, and conditions in which the action of a book, movie, etc., takes place ▪ The movie changes the play's setting from the late 18th century to the year 2000. ▪ She uses modern-day Los Angeles as the setting for her book. b US : the rooms, painted backgrounds, furniture, etc., that are used for a scene in a movie or play : SET ▪ stage settings

3 : a particular way of positioning the controls of a machine, system, etc., in order to produce a desired result ▪ Save money by turning the temperature settings up in the summer and down in the winter. ▪ She just learned how to change the settings on her camera.

4 : the metal that attaches a stone or jewel to a piece of jewelry ▪ The ring has a single diamond in a gold setting.

5 : PLACE SETTING

6 : the music that is written to go with a piece of writing ▪ the musician's settings of poems by W. B. Yeats

[1]set•tle /ˈsɛtl/ verb set•tles; set•tled; set•tling

1 : to end (something, such as an argument) by reaching an agreement [+ obj] They were determined to settle the dispute/argument before going home for the day. ▪ settle a case/lawsuit ▪ The two sides have settled their differences. [no obj] He agreed to settle out of court. [=to reach an agreement about a legal case without going to court]

2 [+ obj] : to make a final decision about (something) : DECIDE ▪ We need to settle this question once and for all. ▪ That settles it. I can't take the day off from work, so I'm not going. — often used as (be) settled ▪ It's settled then: you pay for dinner and I'll pay for the movie.

3 : to move to a place and make it your home [no obj] His grandparents were immigrants from Germany who settled in Pennsylvania. ▪ He always thought he'd leave the city and settle in the country. [+ obj] the people who settled the West — often used as (be) settled ▪ The region was settled by German immigrants. ▪ The area was settled in the 18th century.

4 a always followed by an adverb or preposition : to put or place (someone) in a comfortable position [+ obj] He settled the baby into its crib. ▪ She settled herself behind the wheel and pulled the car out of the driveway. [no obj] He settled back into his chair. b [no obj] : to begin to feel comfortable in a new place, job, position, etc. — + in or into ▪ I'm glad to finally be settling in at my new job. ▪ The children are settling into their new school just fine.

5 a [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) quiet or calm ▪ Rocking settled the baby. ▪ She had a drink to settle her nerves. b [no obj] : to become quiet or calm ▪ I'm still waiting for my nerves to settle. [=settle down]

6 [+ obj] : to relieve pain and discomfort in (the stomach) ▪ Ginger and peppermint tea are good for settling the/your stomach.

7 [no obj] a : to move slowly downward : to sink gradually ▪ The foundation of the house has settled a little. ▪ an area where the ground has settled b : to go or fall down to a surface ▪ Dust settled on the shelves. ▪ The cocoa settled to the bottom of the mug. ▪ Some of the contents (of the package) may have settled during shipping. ▪ Fog settles [=collects] in the valley. — see also the dust settles at [1]DUST c : to stop flying, moving, etc., and rest on something — often + on ▪ The birds settled on a branch. ▪ His eyes settled on the woman in the red dress. [=his eyes stopped moving and he looked at the woman in the red dress] — often used figuratively ▪ A hush settled on the crowd. = A hush settled over the room. [=everyone in the crowd/room became quiet] ▪ Boredom settled on the faces of the students. [=the students began to look bored]

8 : to pay money that is owed [no obj] — often + with or up ▪ Before moving he settled with the utility company. ▪ We can settle up later. [+ obj] We settled the bill. ▪ When do you intend to settle your account? [=pay what you owe]

9 [+ obj] a : to arrange who will be given control or ownership of (a property, business, etc.) ▪ She had to settle her aunt's estate after her death. b : to put (something) in order so that nothing else needs to be done ▪ He settled his affairs before entering the army.

settle a/the score see [1]SCORE settle down [phrasal verb] 1 a : to become quiet, calm, or orderly ▪ Settle down, children. ▪ When things settle down here, I'll come for a visit. b settle (someone or something) down or *settle down (someone or something) : to make (someone or something) quiet, calm, or orderly ▪ He managed to settle the dog down long enough to give her the medicine. 2 : to begin to live a quiet and steady life by getting a regular job, getting married, etc. ▪ They swore they would never settle down and get married. 3 : to put yourself into a comfortable position ▪ She settled down on the bed. ▪ He settled down for the night. 4 : to become quiet and begin giving your attention to something ▪ They quickly settled down to their work.

settle for [phrasal verb] settle for (something) : to be happy or satisfied with (something) : to accept (something) ▪ Neither team would settle for a tie score. ▪ He asked his parents if he could borrow $20 but settled for $10. [=he accepted $10 because that was all they would give him] ▪ I'm determined to win the championship and I won't settle for less.

settle on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 *settle on/upon (something or someone) : to choose (something or someone) after thinking about other possible choices ▪ We weren't sure what color we'd paint the kitchen, but we finally settled on a soft yellow. ▪ Hours later, they settled on a plan. 2 *settle (something) on (someone) chiefly Brit : to arrange to give (money or property) to (someone) ▪ She settled her whole fortune on her grandchildren.

[2]settle noun, pl settles [count] : a long wooden bench with arms, a high solid back, and often with space under the seat which can be used to store things settled adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not likely to move or change ▪ settled peoples ▪ She had to adjust to the settled habits of her new coworkers. ▪ He hated moving so often and longed for a more settled life.

2 : comfortable or happy with your home, job, etc. ▪ You'll feel more settled once you make some new friends.

3 : having people living in it ▪ settled areas of the country ▪ a densely/sparsely settled neighborhood [=a neighborhood where many/few people live]

set•tle•ment /ˈsɛtlmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 a [count] : a formal agreement or decision that ends an argument or dispute ▪ I got the house in the divorce settlement. ▪ The parties have not been able to reach/negotiate a settlement in the case. ▪ an out-of-court settlement [=an agreement made to avoid a court case]; also : an amount of money that someone receives as part of such an agreement ▪ a cash settlement ▪ a settlement of two million dollars = a two-million-dollar settlement b [singular] : the act or process of settling an argument or disagreement ▪ We were hoping for a quick settlement of the dispute between the neighbors.

2 [noncount] : the act of paying back money that is owed — often + of ▪ the settlement of our debts ▪ He paid $20,000 in settlement of a loan.

3 a [count] : a place where people have come to live and where few or no people lived before ▪ English settlements in North America ▪ This was the island's first colonial settlement. b [noncount] : the act or process of moving to a new area or place to live there : the act or process of settling an area or place — often + of ▪ The rifle played a big role in the early settlement of North America. c [count] : a small village ▪ They came upon the ruins of an ancient settlement.

settlement house noun, pl ~ houses [count] US : a place or organization that provides various community services to people in a crowded part of a city set•tler /ˈsɛtlɚ/ noun, pl -tlers [count] : a person who goes to live in a new place where usually there are few or no people ▪ The town was established by British settlers [=colonists] in 1769.

set–to /ˈsɛtˌtu:/ noun, pl -tos [count] chiefly Brit : a usually short fight or argument ▪ He left after a set-to with his girlfriend. — see also set to at [1]SET set–top box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a device that is connected to a television so that the television can receive digital signals set•up /ˈsɛtˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups

1 : the process of making something (such as a machine or

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

computer program) ready to be used [count] an online account setup [noncount] The tent is designed for quick and easy setup. [=is designed to be set up quickly and easily] ▪ Set-up of the new software is a breeze. — often used before another noun ▪ How much setup time is needed? ▪ Run the set-up program on your computer.

2 [count] : the way that something is done or organized ▪ It took me a while to learn the setup of the office's filing system. ▪ We had a great setup. On my days off, my wife would work from home while I took care of the kids. ▪ The software makes it easy to create custom setups.

3 [count] informal : a situation in which someone is deliberately put in a bad position or made to look guilty — usually singular ▪ Those aren't my drugs. This is a setup! Someone is trying to frame me!

4 [count] : the beginning of a story, joke, etc., that explains and leads to what follows — usually singular ▪ This sounds like the setup to one of your jokes. ▪ the setup for a television crime drama — see also set up at [1]SET

sev•en /ˈsɛvən/ noun, pl -ens

1 [count] : the number 7

2 [count] : the seventh in a set or series ▪ the seven of hearts

3 [noncount] : seven o'clock ▪ "What time is it?" "It's seven." ▪ I leave each day at seven.

at sixes and sevens see SIX

– seven adj ▪ waiting for seven hours – seven pronoun ▪ Seven (of them) passed the test.

sev•en•fold /ˈsɛvənˌfoʊld/ adj : seven times as great or as many ▪ There has been a sevenfold increase in membership in the past year.

– sevenfold adv ▪ Membership has increased sevenfold.

seven seas noun [plural] : all the waters or oceans of the world ▪ He sailed the seven seas.

sev•en•teen /ˌsɛvənˈtiːn/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 17

– seventeen adj ▪ They lived together for seventeen years. – seventeen pronoun ▪ We interviewed seventeen (of them). – sev•en•teenth /ˌsɛvənˈtiːnθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ I'll see you on the seventeenth of April. ▪ The bill is due on the seventeenth (of the month). ▪ one seventeenth of the total – seventeenth adj ▪ The paintings were made in the seventeenth century. ▪ He finished in seventeenth place. – seventeenth adv ▪ She finished seventeenth in the race.

[1]sev•enth /ˈsɛvənθ/ noun, pl -enths

1 [singular] : number seven in a series ▪ I'll be flying in on the seventh. [=the seventh day of the month] ▪ (baseball) He got a base hit in the seventh. [=the seventh inning]

2 [count] : one of seven equal parts of something ▪ Only about a seventh of the town voted for her.

[2]seventh adj : occupying the number seven position in a series ▪ on the seventh day ▪ the book's seventh edition ▪ her seventh goal of the season ▪ I finished in seventh place in the competition.

– seventh adv ▪ She finished seventh in the race. ▪ the nation's seventh largest city seventh heaven noun [singular] informal : a state of extreme happiness and joy ▪ When I told her she was going to be a grandmother, she was in seventh heaven. [=she was very happy]

sev•en•ty /ˈsɛvənti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [count] : the number 70

2 seventies [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 70 to 79 ▪ a salary in the low seventies [=between $70,000 and $74,000] b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 70 to 79 ▪ She grew up in the seventies. [=1970–1979] ▪ She is in her seventies.

– sev•en•ti•eth /ˈsɛvəntijəθ/ noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one seventieth of the total – seventieth adj ▪ his seventieth birthday – seventy adj ▪ seventy books – seventy pronoun ▪ Seventy (of them) came to the performance. ▪ seventy of her classmates

sev•er /ˈsɛvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cut off (something) : to remove or separate (something) by cutting ▪ He severed the lowest tree limbs. ▪ His finger was severed in the accident. ▪ a severed head/hand

2 : to end (a relationship, connection, etc.) completely ▪ When she went off to college, she severed [=cut off] (all) ties with her high school friends. ▪ Activists are asking the government to sever all diplomatic relations with the country.

[1]sev•er•al /ˈsɛvərəl/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : more than two but not very many ▪ It took several days/weeks for the package to arrive. ▪ He arrived several hours ago. ▪ several million people ▪ We added several more names to the list. ▪ The meat can be cooked several ways. ▪ There are several similar stores at the mall.

2 formal : different and separate ▪ a federal union of the several states ▪ After college, we each went our several ways. [=(more commonly) went our separate ways; stopped being together]

– sev•er•al•ly /ˈsɛvərəli/ adv, formal + law ▪ Both spouses are jointly and severally liable for the tax. [=are liable both together and separately]

[2]several pronoun : more than two but not very many ▪ Several of the guests left early. ▪ I haven't read all of her books, but I've read several.

sev•er•ance /ˈsɛvərəns/ noun [singular] formal

1 : the act of ending someone's employment ▪ a severance of employment — usually used before another noun ▪ severance pay [=money given to someone who has been fired or laid off from a job] ▪ She received a good severance package [=money and other benefits given when employment is ended] when she was laid off.

2 : the act of ending a relationship, connection, etc. — usually + of ▪ a severance of diplomatic relations se•vere /səˈviə/ adj se•ver•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 a : very bad, serious, or unpleasant ▪ severe weather conditions ▪ The storm caused severe damage to the roof. ▪ a severe economic depression ▪ The patient is in severe pain. ▪ children with severe learning disabilities ▪ In the most severe cases, the disease can lead to blindness. b : causing a lot of physical pain or suffering ▪ He suffered a severe head injury. ▪ a severe cold/infection ▪ severe burns/wounds

2 : very harsh ▪ He faces severe penalties for his actions. ▪ The punishment was severe. ▪ severe criticism ▪ a severe critic

3 : requiring great effort ▪ The war was a severe test of his leadership. ▪ a severe challenge

4 : very formal, strict, and serious ▪ a severe young woman ▪ He's very generous despite his somewhat severe manner.

5 : not having much decoration : very plain ▪ a very severe style of architecture ▪ severe clothing ▪ a severe hairstyle

– se•vere•ly adv ▪ severely injured/punished ▪ The accident has severely limited her mobility. – se•ver•i•ty /səˈverəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ At first, they didn't understand the severity of the problem/situation. ▪ We were shocked at the severity of the penalty. ▪ Treatment varies according to the severity of the symptoms.

sew /ˈsoʊ/ verb sews; sewed; sewn /ˈsoʊn/ or sewed; sew•ing : to make or repair something (such as a piece of clothing) by using a needle and thread [+ obj] She sews her own dresses by hand. ▪ He sewed a patch onto his sleeve. ▪ I sewed the button back on the shirt. ▪ The surgeon sewed the wound shut. [no obj] She designs her own dresses and sews in her free time.

sew up [phrasal verb] sew (something) up or sew up (something) 1 : to close or repair (something) by using a needle and thread ▪ He sewed up the tear in his shirt. ▪ The surgeon sewed up the wound. 2 informal a : to do the final things that are needed to complete (something) in a successful way ▪ They're sewing up the details of the agreement. — often used as (be) sewn/sewed up ▪ The deal was sewn up by lunchtime. b : to make (something, such as a victory) certain ▪ He scored a touchdown that sewed up the win/game. — often used as (be) sewn/sewed up ▪ They felt they had the win/game sewn up. [=they felt that they were certainly going to win] ▪ It looks like he has the nomination all sewn up.

sew•age /ˈsuːwɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : waste material (such as human urine and feces) that is carried away from homes and other buildings in a system of pipes ▪ raw sewage sewage treatment plant noun, pl ~ plants [count] chiefly US : a place where sewage is cleaned so that it is not harmful or dangerous to the environment — called also (US) sewage plant, (Brit) sewage farm, (Brit) sewage treatment works, (Brit) sewage works

[1]sew•er /ˈsuːwə, Brit ˈsjuːə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a pipe that is usually underground and that is used to carry off water and sewage ▪ a sewer pipe ▪ The water ran into the sewer. — compare [2]SEWER

[2]sew•er /ˈsowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who sews things ▪ Both of the children were good sewers and cooks. — compare [1]SEWER

sew•er•age /ˈsuːwərɪʤ, Brit ˈsjuːərɪʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 : a system or process used for carrying away water and sewage ▪ municipal sewerage

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : SEWAGE ▪ raw sewerage

sewing noun [noncount]
1 : the act or process of using a needle and thread to make or repair something (such as a piece of clothing) ▪ She enjoys sewing.
2 : things that are used for sewing or that are being sewn ▪ She left her sewing in the living room.

sewing machine noun, pl ~ machines [count] : a machine that is used for sewing things sewn past participle of SEW

sex /ˈsɛks/ noun, pl sexes
1 [noncount] : the state of being male or female : GENDER ▪ The form asks for your name, age, and sex. ▪ The couple didn't know what the sex of their baby would be. ▪ How do you tell the sex of a hamster? ▪ discrimination on the basis of sex ▪ the female/male sex ▪ a sex change (operation) [=an operation in which a man's body is changed to be like a woman's body or a woman's body is changed to be like a man's]
2 [count] : men or male animals as a group or women or female animals as a group ▪ This movie will appeal to both sexes. [=will appeal to both men and women] ▪ a battle of the sexes [=a battle between men and women] ▪ Some feel men are the more aggressive sex. ▪ a single-sex dormitory [=a dormitory where only women or men stay] — see also OPPOSITE SEX
3 [noncount] : physical activity in which people touch each other's bodies, kiss each other, etc. : physical activity that is related to and often includes sexual intercourse ▪ All he ever thinks about is sex. ▪ Her mom talked to her about sex. ▪ She doesn't like all the sex and violence in movies. ▪ premarital sex ▪ He had sex with his girlfriend. — often used before another noun ▪ He has a low sex drive. [=he does not have a strong desire to have sex] ▪ a sex shop [=a store that sells items relating to sex] ▪ She has an active sex life. [=she has sex often] — see also PHONE SEX, SAFE SEX sex act noun, pl ~ acts [count] : an action performed with another person for sexual pleasure ▪ paid to perform a sex act ▪ a pair of actors simulating the sex act [=sexual intercourse]

sex·a·ge·nar·i·an /ˌsɛksəʤəˈnerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who is between 60 and 69 years old sex appeal noun [noncount] : the quality of being sexually attractive ▪ an actor with a lot of sex appeal

sexed /ˈsɛkst/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe how much sexual interest or desire a person has ▪ a highly sexed man/woman [=a man/woman who has a strong desire for sex]

sex education noun [noncount] : education in schools about sex — called also (informal) sex ed

sex gland noun, pl ~ glands [count] : GONAD sex·ism /ˈsɛkˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : unfair treatment of people because of their sex; especially : unfair treatment of women ▪ Have you experienced sexism? ▪ the problem of sexism in language – sex·ist /ˈsɛksɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was accused of being sexist. ▪ Many people thought the ad was sexist. ▪ a sexist remark – sexist noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ He was accused of being a sexist.

sex·less /ˈsɛksləs/ adj
1 : not having sexual activity : not including sex ▪ a sexless marriage
2 : not looking like either a male or female ▪ sexless dolls – sex·less·ness noun [noncount]

sex object noun, pl ~ -jects [count] : someone who is thought of only as being sexually attractive or desirable ▪ movies that portray/treat women as sex objects sex offender noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who is guilty of a crime involving sex (such as rape) sex symbol noun, pl ~ -bols [count] : a usually famous person who is very sexually attractive ▪ a Hollywood sex symbol sex·tant /ˈsɛkstənt/ noun, pl -tants [count] : an instrument used to determine the position of a ship or airplane by measuring the positions of the stars and sun sex·tet /sɛkˈstɛt/ noun, pl -tets [count]

1 : a piece of music written for six performers
2 : a group of six people or things; especially : a group of six singers or musicians who perform together sex·ton /ˈsɛkstən/ noun, pl -tons [count] : a person who takes care of church buildings and property and often rings the church's bell during services sex·tu·plet /sɛkˈstʌplət, Brit ˈsɛkstjʊplət/ noun, pl -plets [count] : one of six babies born at the same time to the same mother ▪ She gave birth to sextuplets. — compare QUADRUPLET, QUINTUPLET, TRIPLET, TWIN sex·u·al /ˈsɛkʃəwəl/ adj

1 : of, relating to, or involving sex ▪ sexual activity/reproduction ▪ sexual abuse/desire/attraction ▪ a person's sexual organs ▪ He denied that he had a sexual relationship with her. ▪ sexual partners [=people who have sex with each other]
2 : of or relating to males and females ▪ sexual differences/characteristics ▪ sexual roles – sex·u·al·ly /ˈsɛkʃəwəli/ adv ▪ Some teenagers are sexually active. [=some teenagers have sex] ▪ The movie has some sexually explicit scenes. [=the movie has scenes that show sex] sexual intercourse noun [noncount] : sexual activity between two people; especially : sexual activity in which a man puts his penis into the vagina of a woman ▪ a doctor who is accused of having sexual intercourse with one of his patients — called also intercourse

sex·u·al·i·ty /ˌsɛkʃəˈwælɪti/ noun [noncount] : the sexual habits and desires of a person ▪ She is comfortable with her sexuality. ▪ a study of male sexuality sexually transmitted disease noun, pl ~ -eases [count] medical : STD sexual orientation noun [count] : a person's sexual preference or identity as bisexual, heterosexual, or homosexual sewing

tape measure, measuring tape thimble

pincushion

spool of thread (US), cotton reel (Brit)

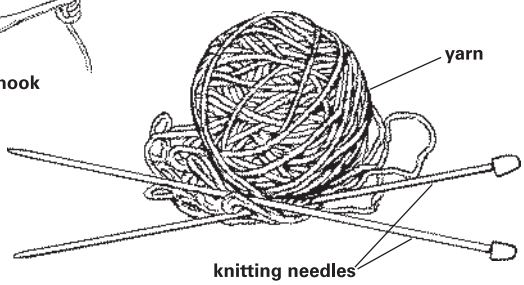
crochet hook



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

: the state of being bisexual, heterosexual, or homosexual ▪ His sexual orientation has never been a problem for him at work. ▪ people of different sexual orientations — called also orientation

sexy /ˈsɛksi/ adj sex•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : sexually appealing, attractive, or exciting ▪ She wore a sexy skirt. ▪ a sexy young actor ▪ Her legs are long and sexy. ▪ a sexy photograph
2 : having interesting or appealing qualities ▪ a sexy story ▪ sexy music – sex•i•ly /ˈsɛksəli/ adv ▪ sexily dressed dancers – sex•i•ness /ˈsɛksinəs/ noun [noncount]

SF abbr science fiction

Sgt. abbr sergeant sh or shh or shhh /ˈʃ often prolonged/ interj — used to tell someone to be quiet ▪ Shh! The baby is sleeping.

shab•by /ˈʃæbi/ adj shab•bi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : in poor condition especially because of age or use ▪ The furniture was old and shabby. ▪ He wore a shabby coat. ▪ Her first apartment was pretty shabby.
2 : dressed in clothes that are old and worn ▪ shabby workmen
3 informal : not fair, generous, or reasonable ▪ They complained about the shabby treatment they received at the hotel. ▪ Backing out of the deal was a shabby thing to do.
not (too) shabby informal : fairly good or quite good ▪ He came in second in the race. That's not too shabby for an inexperienced runner. [=that's not bad at all for an inexperienced runner]
– shab•bi•ly /ˈʃæbəli/ adv ▪ The man was shabbily dressed. – shab•bi•ness /ˈʃæbinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]shack /ˈʃæk/ noun, pl shacks [count] : a small house or building that is not put together well ▪ an old shack in the woods

[2]shack verb shacks; shacked; shacking shack up [phrasal verb] informal : to live with someone without being married ▪ She shacked up with her boyfriend. ▪ young couples shacking up

[1]shack•le /ˈʃækəl/ noun, pl shack•les
1 [count] : one of two rings or bands that are placed around a person's wrists or ankles and that are connected by a chain — usually plural ▪ The prisoner was placed in shackles.
2 shackles [plural] : something that prevents people from acting freely — + of ▪ The country was freed from the shackles of tyranny.

[2]shackle verb shackles; shack•led; shack•ling [+ obj] : to put shackles on (someone or something) ▪ The guard shackled the prisoner. — often used as (be) shackled ▪ Their legs were shackled together. — often used figuratively ▪ The people were shackled by poverty.

[1]shade /ˈʃeɪd/ noun, pl shades
1 [noncount] : an area of slight darkness that is produced when something blocks the light of the sun ▪ The buildings cast shade on the plaza. ▪ The tree provided plenty of shade. ▪ These plants grow well in shade. ▪ It was a hot sunny day, but luckily their seats for the game were in the shade. ▪ We sat in the shade of a willow tree.
2 [count] a : something that is used to block strong light ▪ He used his hand as a shade as he looked out into the bright sunlight. ▪ an eye shade b : LAMPSHADE ▪ a lamp with a broken shade c US : WINDOW SHADE ▪ She pulled down the shades.
3 shades [plural] informal : SUNGLASSES ▪ She was wearing a cool pair of shades.
4 [noncount] : a darkened area in a drawing, painting, etc. ▪ a painting with contrasting areas of light and shade
5 [count] : a particular type of a color that is lighter, darker, etc., than other types — usually + of ▪ different shades of brown ▪ lipstick in several shades of red ▪ a bright shade of blue
6 [count] : a particular form of something that is usually slightly different from other forms ▪ The word has many shades of meaning.
7 [count] : a very small amount ▪ He saw shades [=traces] of himself in his son. ▪ He is just a shade [=a bit, a little] taller than his brother. ▪ The shirt is a shade too large for me.
draw the shades on see [1]DRAW have it made in the shade US, informal : to have a very easy life or to be in a very good situation ▪ She had to work hard for many years to achieve success, but now she has it made in the shade.
put (someone or something) in the shade chiefly Brit, informal : to be much better than (someone or something) ▪ Their performance really put ours in the shade.
shades of — used to say what or who you are reminded of when you look at or think about someone or something ▪ a former actor who's now a politician—shades of Ronald Reagan – shade•less adj ▪ Their yard is bare and shadeless.

[2]shade verb shades; shad•ed; shad•ing [+ obj]
1 : to shelter (something) from strong light and especially from sunlight ▪ He shaded his eyes (with his hand). [=he placed his hand near his eyes to block the sun] ▪ Several large trees shade the house.
2 : to make an area in a drawing, on a graph, etc., darker than other areas ▪ She shaded the drawing to give it depth. ▪ The shaded part of the graph represents the amount of sales. — sometimes + in ▪ Shade in the circle that indicates the correct answer.
3 US : to change (something, such as the truth) slightly in order to deceive people ▪ The article shaded the truth by revealing only one side of the story. ▪ shading the facts shade into [phrasal verb] shade into (something) : to slowly or gradually change into (something) or become the same as (something) ▪ as day shades into night shading noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the use of dark areas in a drawing, on a graph, etc.
2 shadings [plural] : small differences ▪ shadings of blue ▪ subtle shadings of meaning

[1]shad•ow /ˈʃædoʊ/ noun, pl -ows
1 [count] : a dark shape that appears on a surface when someone or something moves between the surface and a source of light ▪ The tree cast/threw a long shadow across the lawn. ▪ You can see your own shadow on a sunny day. — often used figuratively ▪ a town located in the shadow of the Rocky Mountains [=a town located very close to the Rocky Mountains] ▪ The bad news cast a shadow on the party. [=made the party much less enjoyable] ▪ His death left a shadow over her heart. ▪ For years they lived under the shadow of a dictator. [=they were ruled by a dictator] ▪ He couldn't escape his father's shadow. [=he couldn't escape the influence of his powerful/successful father] ▪ She grew up in the shadow of her very popular sister. [=people did not notice her because of all the attention that was given to her sister]
2 : an area of darkness created when a source of light is blocked [noncount] Part of the valley was in shadow. [plural] He saw something moving in the shadows.
3 [singular] : a very small amount of something ▪ I sensed a shadow of disappointment in his expression. ▪ There is not a shadow of (a) doubt [=there is no doubt] that he is lying.
4 [count] : someone who follows another person or who is always seen with another person ▪ He is the President's adviser and shadow.
5 [count] : a dark area of skin under a person's eyes — usually plural ▪ She woke up with dark shadows [=circles] under her eyes.
6 [count] : someone or something that is now much weaker, less impressive, etc., than in the past — + of ▪ The city today is just/only a shadow of what it once was. ▪ He was once a great player, but now he's just a shadow of his former self.
– see also EYE SHADOW, FIVE-O'CLOCK SHADOW

[2]shadow verb -ows; -owed; -ow•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cover (something) with a shadow — usually used as (be) shadowed ▪ The yard was shadowed [=shaded] by trees.
2 a : to follow and watch (someone) especially in a secret way : TRAIL ▪ Police shadowed the suspect for several days. b : to follow and watch (someone who is doing a job) in order to learn how to do the job yourself ▪ She spent the night shadowing other waiters at the restaurant.

[3]shadow or Shadow adj, always used before a noun — used to describe the members of the main opposition party in British politics who would be given important positions in the government if their party won a national election ▪ the shadow cabinet/Chancellor ▪ Shadow Ministers shad•ow•box /ˈʃædoʊˌbɑːks/ verb -box•es; -boxed; -box•ing [no obj] : to box with an imaginary opponent as a form of training ▪ He was shadowboxing to stay in shape.

– shadowboxing noun [noncount] shad•owy /ˈʃædowi/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : full of shade or shadows ▪ a shadowy lane
2 : dark and mysterious ▪ She was pursued by a shadowy figure.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

3 : not clearly seen or understood ▪ He had only a shadowy idea of what they wanted him to do.

shady /ˈʃeɪdi/ adj shad•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : giving or providing shade ▪ a shady tree b : sheltered from the sun's light : having shade ▪ Their backyard is nice and shady. ▪ a shady area
2 informal : seeming to be dishonest ▪ a shady business deal ▪ I don't trust him. He seems like a pretty shady character.

[1]shaft /ʃæft, Brit ʃɑːft/ noun, pl shafts
1 [count] : the long, narrow part of a weapon, tool, instrument, etc. ▪ the shaft of a spear ▪ the shaft of a golf club
2 [count] : a bar in a machine which holds or turns other parts that move or spin ▪ a propeller shaft — see also DRIVESHAFT
3 [count] : one of two poles between which a horse is tied to pull a vehicle (such as a carriage)
4 [count] a : an opening or passage straight down through the floors of a building ▪ an air/elevator shaft b : an opening or passage in a mine ▪ a mine shaft
5 [count] formal + literary : a narrow beam of light ▪ They stood in a shaft of sunlight.
6 the shaft US, informal : harsh or unfair treatment ▪ Her boss really gave her the shaft [=treated her unfairly] when he promoted someone less experienced instead of her. ▪ He got promoted and she got the shaft.

[2]shaft verb shafts; shaft•ed; shaft•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, informal : to treat (someone) unfairly or harshly ▪ You really got shafted in that deal.

[1]shag /ʃæg/ noun, pl shags
1 [noncount] : long pieces of material (such as wool) that are twisted together to make a rug or carpet — often used before another noun ▪ a shag rug ▪ shag carpeting
2 [noncount] : a type of strong tobacco that is cut into very small pieces
3 [count] chiefly Brit : a black bird that lives near the sea : CORMORANT
– compare [4]SHAG

[2]shag verb shags; shagged; shag•ging [+ obj] US : to catch or retrieve (a ball that someone has hit) ▪ (baseball) They shagged fly balls in the outfield during batting practice. — compare [3]SHAG

[3]shag verb shags; shagged; shag•ging Brit, informal + impolite : to have sexual intercourse with (someone) [+ obj] He shagged her last night. [no obj] They shagged all night. — compare [2]SHAG

[4]shag noun, pl shags [count] chiefly Brit, informal + impolite : an act of sexual intercourse ▪ a quick shag — compare [1]SHAG shag•gy /ˈʃægi/ adj shag•gi•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : long and tangled ▪ shaggy hair ▪ the dog's shaggy coat
2 : covered with hair or fur that is long and tangled ▪ a shaggy dog shaggy–dog story /ˌʃægiˌdɑːg-/ noun, pl ~ -ries [count] old-fashioned : a long story or joke with an ending that is disappointing or that makes no sense shah /ʃɑː/ noun, pl shahs [count] : a king of Iran in past times

[1]shake /ʃeɪk/ verb shakes; shook /ʃʊk/; shak•en /ˈʃeɪkən/; shak•ing
1 a : to move sometimes violently back and forth or up and down with short, quick movements [no obj] The ground shook during the earthquake. ▪ The house shook as the train rumbled by. [+ obj] The earthquake shook the ground. ▪ Shake the salad dressing well before using it. ▪ He shook his fist (in the air) and yelled at the driver who cut them off. b [no obj] : to move or have parts of your body move in short, quick movements and in a way that you are not able to control ▪ His hand shook [=trembled] as he reached for the phone. ▪ He was shaking [=shivering] with cold. ▪ She was shaking with laughter [=laughing very hard] as he told us the story. ▪ I could see that he was shaking with anger/rage. [=he was so angry that he was shaking] ▪ I was so nervous that I was shaking like a leaf. ▪ She was shaking in her boots/shoes [=she was very nervous] as she waited for the doctor.
2 [+ obj] : to free yourself from (someone or something) : to get away from or get rid of (someone or something) ▪ The fugitive couldn't shake the police. ▪ It's hard to shake the feeling that I'm forgetting something. — sometimes + off ▪ He is trying to shake off a cold.
3 [+ obj] : to cause (a belief, feeling, etc.) to become weaker ▪ The news did nothing to shake my belief that things will be okay. ▪ Her confidence was badly shaken by the accident. [=she became much less confident because of the accident] ▪ Nothing could shake his faith in God.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel fear, anxiety, shock, etc. ▪ The whole town was shaken by the news. — see also SHAKE UP 1 (below)
5 [+ obj] : to force (something) out of something by shaking ▪ He shook (out) the sand from his sandals.
6 : to grasp (someone's hand) with your hand and move it up and down when you are meeting or saying goodbye to each other or as a sign of friendship or agreement [+ obj] I shook his hand. = I shook hands with him. = (somewhat old-fashioned) I shook him by the hand. [no obj] They shook on the deal. = They shook on it. [=they shook hands to show that they agreed]
7 [no obj] of your voice : to produce sound in an unsteady way because you are nervous, angry, sad, etc. ▪ His voice shook as he started his speech. ▪ Her voice shook with rage.
more than you can shake a stick at chiefly US, informal : more than you can count ▪ She has more cats than you can shake a stick at. [=she has a lot of cats] shake a leg informal : to move or go quickly ▪ It's time to shake a leg—we're running late. — often used as a command ▪ "Shake a leg! We're going to be late."
shake down [phrasal verb] US, informal 1 *shake (someone) down or shake down (someone) : to get money from (someone) by using deception or threats ▪ mobsters shaking down store owners for protection 2 *shake (someone or something) down or shake down (someone or something) : to search (someone or something) thoroughly ▪ The police shook the car down looking for illegal drugs.
shake out [phrasal verb] 1 informal : to happen or end in a particular way ▪ We are just going to wait to see how things shake out. [=turn out] 2 *shake (something) out or shake out (something) : to shake (something) back and forth or up and down in order to remove dirt, wrinkles, etc., from it ▪ She shook out the clothes as she took them from the dryer. ▪ He shook the rug out.
shake up [phrasal verb] 1 *shake (someone) up or shake up (someone) : to upset (someone) : to shock or frighten (someone) ▪ The accident shook up both drivers. ▪ She was shaken up when she heard what happened. ▪ The layoffs shook up the whole department. — see also [1]SHAKE 4 (above) 2 *shake (something) up or shake up (something) : to make many changes in (something, such as a company or organization) ▪ The coach shook things up by hiring new assistants. ▪ The new CEO shook up the company by asking some senior managers to leave. — see also SHAKE-UP shake your head : to turn your head from side to side as a way of answering "no" or of showing disagreement or refusal ▪ When I asked her if she wanted help, she just shook her head.

[2]shake noun, pl shakes
1 [count] : a short, quick movement back and forth or up and down ▪ He responded to the question with a shake of his head. ▪ Give the dice a shake.
2 the shakes informal : a condition in which parts of your body move in a way that you are not able to control ▪ The whole experience gave me the shakes. [=made me shake with fear/nervousness] ▪ He drank too much coffee and got a bad case of the shakes.
3 [count] : MILKSHAKE ▪ a chocolate shake a fair shake informal : a fair deal : fair treatment ▪ The judge gave him a fair shake. [=the judge treated him fairly] ▪ She expected to get a fair shake from her boss.
in two shakes informal : very quickly or soon ▪ I'll be ready to go in two shakes.
no great shakes informal : not very good or skillful at something ▪ He's no great shakes as a poker player. = He's no great shakes at playing poker.

shake•down /ˈʃeɪkˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] informal
1 US : the act of taking something (such as money) from someone by using threats or deception ▪ He was the victim of a shakedown by a street gang.
2 US : a thorough search of something ▪ The guards conducted a shakedown of the prisoners' cells to look for weapons.
3 : a thorough test of a new ship, airplane, etc., in order to make sure there are no problems or defects ▪ They're putting the system through a shakedown. — often used before another noun ▪ a shakedown cruise/flight shak•er /ˈʃeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 65 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

1 : a container that is shaken to mix something or to make something come out ▪ a cocktail shaker ▪ a shaker of salt ▪ a dice shaker — see also PEPPER SHAKER, SALT SHAKER
2 Shaker : a member of a U.S. religious group that is known for living simply in close communities ▪ a member of the Shakers movers and shakers see MOVER
– Shaker adj, always used before a noun ▪ a Shaker village/community ▪ Shaker furniture [=furniture made in the simple style used by Shakers]

Shake•spear•ean /ʃeɪk'spirijən/ adj : of or relating to William Shakespeare or his writings ▪ Shakespearean drama ▪ a Shakespearean actor shake–up /'ʃeɪkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : an important change or series of changes in the way a company or other organization is organized or run ▪ There has been a major shake-up in the company. ▪ a management shake-up — see also shake up at ¹SHAKE shaky /'ʃeɪki/ adj shak•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : not strong or steady in movement, sound, etc. : tending to shake because of weakness, strong emotion, etc. ▪ I was so nervous that my hands were shaky. [=shaking, trembling] ▪ She took a few shaky steps before she collapsed. ▪ His voice was shaky.
2 : weak and likely to break down, collapse, or fail ▪ a shaky ladder ▪ The company's future is looking pretty shaky. [=the company's future does not look good] ▪ a shaky economy ▪ Her commitment to the cause seems shaky. ▪ His argument/theory rests on shaky ground. [=his argument/theory is not supported by strong evidence] ▪ Their marriage is on shaky ground.
3 : not impressive or effective ▪ the pitcher's shaky performance ▪ The team has performed better lately after getting off to a shaky start. ▪ My memory of that day is a little shaky. [=I don't remember exactly what happened on that day]
– shak•i•ly /'ʃeɪkəli/ adv ▪ He stood shakily on the ladder. ▪ The pitcher started the game shakily. – shak•i•ness /'ʃeɪkinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the shakiness of her voice shale /'ʃeɪl/ noun [noncount] : a soft kind of rock that splits easily into flat pieces shall /'ʃæl, ʃəl/ verb, past tense should /'ʃʊd, ʃəd/ present tense for both singular and plural shall; negative shall not or shan't /'ʃænt, Brit 'ʃɑ:nt/ [modal verb] formal

1 — used to say that something is expected to happen in the future ▪ We shall [=will] arrive tomorrow evening. ▪ I shall not mention it again. = I shan't mention it again. ▪ Perhaps it will happen. We shall see.
2 — used to ask for someone's opinion ▪ "Shall [=should] I call a taxi?" "Please do." ▪ When shall we leave? [=when do you think we should leave?] ▪ Shall we dance? [=would you like to dance?] ▪ Let's dance, shall we?
3 — used to give a command or to say that you will or will not allow something to happen ▪ You shall leave at once! ▪ They shall not pass.
4 — used in laws or rules to say that something is required ▪ It shall be unlawful to carry firearms. ▪ The jury alone shall decide the verdict. ▪ There shall be no talking during the test. — see also SHALT shal•lot /ʃə'lɑ:t, 'ʃælət/ noun, pl -lots [count, noncount] : a small type of onion that is used in cooking — see color picture on page C4

shal•low /'ʃæloʊ/ adj shal•low•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : having a small distance to the bottom from the surface or highest point ▪ a shallow dish/pond/grave ▪ The shallow end of the pool is only three feet deep. — opposite DEEP b : not going far inward from the outside or the front edge of something ▪ a shallow closet — opposite DEEP
2 disapproving : not caring about or involving serious or important things ▪ Her boyfriends were all shallow creeps. ▪ She is only interested in shallow [=superficial] things like clothes and money.
3 : taking in a small amount of air ▪ She could only take shallow breaths. ▪ His breathing became very shallow. — opposite DEEP
4 sports : located near the inside edges of an area ▪ (baseball) He hit a fly ball to shallow right field. — opposite DEEP
– shal•low•ly adv ▪ He was breathing shallowly. – shal•low•ness noun [noncount] ▪ They measured the shallowness of the water. ▪ She could no longer tolerate his shallowness.

shal•lows /'ʃæloʊz/ noun [plural] : a shallow area in a river, lake, etc. ▪ The fish lay their eggs in the shallows of the river.

shalt /'ʃælt, ʃəlt/ second person singular present tense of SHALL, old-fashioned — used after thou ▪ Thou shalt not kill.

¹sham /'ʃæm/ noun, pl shams
1 [count] a : something that is not what it appears to be and that is meant to trick or deceive people ▪ He claims that the trial was a sham. ▪ Their marriage was a sham. b : someone who deceives people by pretending to be a particular kind of person, to have a particular skill, etc. ▪ Many people believed he could help them, but I knew he was a sham.
2 [noncount] : words or actions that are not sincere or honest ▪ She exposed their sham and hypocrisy.

²sham adj, always used before a noun : not real : FALSE, FAKE ▪ sham marriages ▪ sham pearls ▪ a sham doctor

³sham verb shams; shammed; sham•ming : to act in a way that is meant to trick or deceive people [no obj] She wasn't really hurt; she was only shamming. [+ obj] He was shamming illness to avoid work.

sha•man /'ʃɑ:mən, 'ʃeɪmən/ noun, pl -mans [count] : someone who is believed in some cultures to be able to use magic to cure people who are sick, to control future events, etc.

sham•ble /'ʃæmbəl/ verb sham•bles; sham•bled; sham•bling [no obj] : to walk in an awkward, unsteady way without lifting your feet very high off the ground ▪ He shambled into the room.

sham•bles /'ʃæmbəlz/ noun : a place or state in which there is great confusion, disorder, or destruction [singular] The city was a shambles after the hurricane. ▪ This room is a shambles. [=mess] ▪ His life was a shambles after the divorce. [noncount] The room was in shambles.

sham•bol•ic /ʃæm'bɑ:lɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly Brit : very messy or disorganized ▪ a shambolic system of public transportation

¹shame /'ʃeɪm/ noun
1 [noncount] : a feeling of guilt, regret, or sadness that you have because you know you have done something wrong ▪ He felt shame for his lies. ▪ The defendant hung his head in shame. [=looked down because he was ashamed] ▪ Shame on you [=you should feel shame] for being so rude.
2 [noncount] : ability to feel guilt, regret, or embarrassment ▪ How could you be so rude? Have you no shame?
3 [noncount] : dishonor or disgrace ▪ Her crimes brought shame upon her family. ▪ There is no shame in admitting your mistakes. [=you should not feel ashamed/embarrassed about admitting your mistakes] ▪ He had to endure the shame of being fired.
4 [singular] : something that is regretted : PITY ▪ It would be a shame to give up now. We're so close to the end. ▪ It's a shame that you'll miss the show. ▪ What a shame that they lost the game. ▪ I heard you lost your job. That's (such) a shame.
a crying shame see CRYING put (someone or something) to shame : to be much better than (someone or something) ▪ Her art project put mine to shame. [=her art project was much better than mine]

²shame verb shames; shamed; sham•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to feel ashamed ▪ Her crimes shamed [=disgraced] her family. ▪ He was shamed by his behavior at the party.
2 : to force (someone) to act in a specified way by causing feelings of shame or guilt — + into ▪ The suspects were shamed into confessing. ▪ My sister shamed me into giving the money back.

shame•faced /'ʃeɪmˌfeɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing shame ▪ He stood there, looking shamefaced. ▪ a shamefaced apology/grin – shame•faced•ly /'ʃeɪmˌfeɪsədli/ adv ▪ He shamefacedly apologized for breaking the window.

shame•ful /'ʃeɪmfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very bad : bad enough to make someone ashamed ▪ There is no excuse for such shameful behavior. ▪ a shameful scandal ▪ What a shameful sight.
– shame•ful•ly /'ʃeɪmfəli/ adv ▪ He has behaved shamefully. [=very badly; disgracefully] ▪ She looked away shamefully. [=she looked away because she was ashamed] ▪ He shamefully turned himself in to the police. – shame•ful•ness noun [noncount] shame•less /'ʃeɪmləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing no shame ▪ The actor made a shameless plug for his movie. ▪ a shameless display of poor sportsmanship – shame•less•ly adv ▪ He shamelessly gave himself a raise. – shame•less•ness noun [noncount]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]sham•poo /ʃæm'pu:/ noun, pl -poos
1 [count, noncount] a : a special liquid that is used for cleaning your hair ▪ a bottle of shampoo b : a special liquid used for cleaning rugs, carpets, etc.
2 [count] : an act of cleaning hair, a carpet, etc., with shampoo — usually singular ▪ She gets a shampoo every morning.

[2]shampoo verb -poos; -pooed; -poo•ing [+ obj] : to clean (something, such as hair, a carpet, etc.) with shampoo ▪ She shampoos her hair every morning. ▪ We need to shampoo the rug.

sham•rock /'ʃæm,rɑ:k/ noun, pl -rocks [count] : a small plant with three leaves on each stem that is the national symbol of Ireland

shandy /'ʃændi/ noun, pl -dies [count, noncount] Brit : a drink made of beer mixed with lemonade shang•hai /ʃæŋ'haɪ/ verb -hais; -haied; -hai•ing [+ obj] somewhat old-fashioned

1 : to bring (someone) onto a ship by force ▪ a shanghaied sailor
2 informal : to make (someone) do something by using force or tricks — usually + into ▪ I somehow got shanghaied into babysitting for my sister's kids.

shank /'ʃæŋk/ noun, pl shanks [count]
1 : the straight, narrow part of a tool that connects the part that does the work with the part that you hold ▪ the shank of a drill bit
2 : a piece of meat cut from the upper part of the leg ▪ a lamb/beef shank
3 : the part of the leg between the knee and the ankle — usually plural ▪ an old man with skinny shanks shan't /'ʃænt, Brit 'ʃɑ:nt/ chiefly Brit : shall not

[1]shan•ty /'ʃænti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a small, simple building that is roughly made from sheets of wood, plastic, etc., and that is used as a house by poor people — compare [2]SHANTY

[2]shanty noun, pl -ties [count] : a song that sailors sang in the past while they worked — compare [1]SHANTY

shan•ty•town /'ʃænti,taʊn/ noun, pl -towns [count] : a town or a part of a town where the people are poor and live in shanties

[1]shape /ʃeɪp/ noun, pl shapes
1 : the form or outline of an object [count] circles, squares, triangles, and other geometric shapes ▪ The cake has a rectangular/circular shape. ▪ The pieces came in many different sizes and shapes. ▪ a cookie in the shape of a heart [=a cookie shaped like a heart] ▪ The cloud took the shape of a dog. [=the cloud looked like a dog] [noncount] The pieces were sorted by size and shape. ▪ The cloud kept changing shape. ▪ The cake was rectangular/circular in shape. ▪ The bike's rim was bent out of shape. [=it was bent so that it was not its usual round shape]
2 [noncount] a : the condition of something or someone — usually used with in ▪ The car was in good/bad/poor shape. ▪ He's in better/worse shape now. ▪ All the players are in top/exellent shape. ▪ She has had quite a few glasses of wine and is in no shape to drive. [=she shouldn't drive because she has drunk too much wine] ▪ Their marriage is in bad/good shape. b : a physically strong and healthy condition ▪ I need to start exercising and get back in shape. ▪ I'm out of shape because I haven't been exercising. ▪ The players were in poor condition, but the coach quickly whipped/licked/knocked/got them into shape. ▪ She stays/keeps in shape by exercising daily and eating well. — often used figuratively ▪ It will cost billions of dollars to get the company back in shape. [=back into good condition]
3 [noncount] : the way something is done : the form of something ▪ Computer technology has changed the shape of communication. ▪ They offered help in the shape of [=in the form of] a loan. [=the help they offered was a loan] ▪ That behavior is not acceptable in any way, shape, or form. [=it is not at all acceptable] ▪ Another newspaper has stopped publication. Is this the shape of things to come in the newspaper business? [=is this what the future of the newspaper business is going to be like?]
4 [noncount] : a definite form or arrangement of something ▪ The plan is finally taking shape. ▪ His discussions with fellow professors and his students gave shape to his book.
5 [count] : a person or thing that cannot be seen clearly ▪ I saw a vague shape [=figure] in the dark. ▪ dark shapes moving in the shadows bent out of shape see [1]BENT

[2]shape verb shapes; shaped; shap•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give a particular form or shape to (something) : to work with (a material) in order to make something from it ▪ The artist shaped the stone with a hammer and chisel. — often + into ▪ Shape the dough into loaves.
2 : to influence the development of (something) : to help (something) become what it is ▪ Schools shape the minds of future leaders. ▪ Ads help shape public opinion.
3 : to make (something, such as a plan) by a process of careful thought ▪ They have shaped [=devised] a careful strategy for winning the election.
shape up [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to happen or develop in a particular way ▪ Our plans are shaping up nicely. ▪ This is shaping up to be an exciting year. [=it looks like this will be an exciting year] 2 a : to start behaving in a better or more acceptable way ▪ You'd better shape up and start studying. ▪ If he doesn't shape up, he's going to be fired. ✧ In informal U.S. English, if you are told to shape up or ship out, you will have to leave your job, position, etc., if you do not improve your behavior. b shape up (someone or something) or shape (someone or something) up : to cause (someone or something) to start behaving in a better or more acceptable way ▪ She has really shaped up the sales department. 3 : to make your body stronger and healthier by exercising ▪ He has been shaping up at the gym.
– shap•er noun, pl -ers [count]

shaped /'ʃeɪpt/ adj
1 : having a particular shape or form ▪ a cookie shaped like a heart — often used in combination ▪ an egg-shaped toy ▪ a shirt with a V-shaped collar
2 : shaped or formed in a particular way ▪ a carefully shaped ice sculpture shape•less /'ʃeɪpləs/ adj

1 a : not having a particular or definite shape ▪ a shapeless blob b : not having the usual or normal shape ▪ an old, shapeless baseball cap
2 : not organized or arranged in a way that is clear and understandable ▪ a shapeless essay/argument – shape•less•ly adv – shape•less•ness noun [noncount] shape•ly /'ʃeɪpli/ adj shape•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having an attractive shape or form ▪ She has a shapely figure.

– shape•li•ness noun [noncount]

shard /'ʃɑəd/ also sherd /'ʃəd/ noun, pl shards also sherds [count] : a sharp piece of something (such as glass or pottery) — often + of ▪ shards of glass

[1]share /'ʃeə/ verb shares; shared; shar•ing
1 [+ obj] : to have or use (something) with others ▪ We share a house/car (together). — often + with ▪ I share an office with two other people.
2 [+ obj] of two or more people : to divide (something) into parts and each take or use a part ▪ They shared the last cookie. ▪ We shared the money equally.
3 : to let someone else have or use a part of (something that belongs to you) [+ obj] The children need to learn to share their toys. — often + with ▪ He doesn't share his toys with other kids. ▪ Share the cookies with your sister. [no obj] The children need to learn to share (with each other).
4 : to have (something that someone or something else also has) : to have (something) in common [+ obj] We share an interest in baseball. [=we are both interested in baseball] ▪ The two countries share a border. ▪ I know you're worried about the schedule, but I don't share your concerns. [=I don't have the same concerns that you have; I am not worried about the schedule] — often + with ▪ I share these concerns with others in the group. [no obj] — + in ▪ I don't share in your concerns about the schedule.
5 : to tell someone about (your feelings, opinions, thoughts, etc.) [+ obj] Please share any ideas that you may have. — often + with ▪ Would you like to share your feelings with the group? ▪ Thanks for sharing that (with me). [no obj] Thanks for sharing.
6 : to have equal responsibility for or involvement in (something) [+ obj] I share the blame for what happened. [no obj] — + in ▪ We all share in the responsibility for this tragedy. ▪ The whole family shares in the household chores.
share out [phrasal verb] share out (something) or share (something) out chiefly Brit : to divide (something) into parts and give the parts to different people ▪ In her will, she shared out her property to her nephews and nieces. — see also SHARE-OUT
– shar•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]share noun, pl shares

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

1 [singular] : a part of something that has been divided into parts and given to different people ▪ I deserve a share in the winnings. — often + of ▪ I sold my share [=portion] of the business. ▪ I got my share of the profits. — see also LION'S SHARE, TIME-SHARE
2 [count] : any of the equal parts into which the ownership of a property or business is divided ▪ 100 shares of stock — see also MARKET SHARE
3 [singular] : the amount of something that someone owes or deserves or is responsible for — often + of ▪ Everybody should have to pay their share [=portion] of the dinner bill. ▪ Everyone must accept their share of the blame. ▪ I've done my (fair) share of the work.
a share of the pie see PIE share•crop•per /ˈʃeəˌkrɑːpəɹ/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a farmer especially in the southern U.S. who raises crops for the owner of a piece of land and is paid a portion of the money from the sale of the crops share•hold•er /ˈʃeəˌhoʊldəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who owns shares in a company or business : STOCKHOLDER share•hold•ing /ˈʃeəˌhoʊldɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the amount of shares that someone owns in a company or business ▪ He has a substantial shareholding [=he owns a large number of shares] in the company.

share option noun, pl ~ -tions [count] Brit : STOCK OPTION share–out noun, pl -outs [count] Brit : an act of dividing something into parts and giving them to two or more people — usually singular ▪ There was an equal share-out of the money. — see also share out at [1]SHARE share•ware /ˈʃeəˌweəɹ/ noun [noncount] : computer software that you can try for free for a certain period of time before choosing whether or not to buy it — compare FREEWARE sha•ria /ʃəˈriːjə/ noun [noncount] : the religious laws based on the Koran that Muslims follow shark /ˈʃɑəɹk/ noun, pl sharks [count]

1 : a large and often dangerous sea fish with very sharp teeth — see color picture on page C8
2 informal : a person who gets money from people by deceiving or cheating them; especially : a person who wins money in a game by playing well and by being dishonest ▪ a pool shark ▪ a card shark — see also LOAN SHARK
– shark•like /ˈʃɑəɹkˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a sharklike smile/appetite

[1]sharp /ˈʃɑəɹp/ adj sharp•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having a thin edge that is able to cut things or a fine point that is able to make a hole in things ▪ a sharp knife/pencil ▪ sharp teeth/claws — opposite BLUNT, DULL; see also RAZOR-SHARP
2 a : sudden and quick ▪ a sharp drop/rise/decrease/increase in temperature ▪ a sharp break from tradition [=a sudden change from the traditional way of doing things] b : involving a sudden change in direction ▪ He took a sharp left turn. ▪ a sharp curve in the road
3 a : clear and easy to see ▪ a sharp image/picture/photograph [=an image/picture/photograph in which the small details can be clearly seen] b : very noticeable ▪ a sharp difference/distinction ▪ Her cheerful mood stands in sharp contrast to her dreary surroundings.
4 : having or showing a quick ability to notice and understand things ▪ a sharp student ▪ sharp questions ▪ You have sharp eyes.
5 : very sudden and severe ▪ a sharp pain ▪ a sharp disappointment
6 : critical or harsh ▪ a sharp reply/attack/criticism/rebuke ▪ He was very sharp with her. [=he spoke to her in a very harsh way] ▪ She has a sharp tongue. [=she tends to say very critical things to people]
7 : loud, short, and sudden ▪ a sharp noise
8 of cheese : having a strong odor and flavor ▪ sharp cheddar cheese
9 : very strong and cold ▪ a sharp, biting wind
10 disapproving : clever in a bad or dishonest way ▪ sharp business practices
11 : ending in a point or edge ▪ a sharp nose ▪ sharp mountain peaks
12 informal : stylish or fashionable ▪ He's a sharp dresser. ▪ a sharp outfit ▪ You're looking very sharp today.
13 music a : higher than the true pitch ▪ Her singing was slightly sharp. b : higher than a specified note by a semitone ▪ F sharp — compare [1]FLAT 10, [1]NATURAL 8 keep a sharp eye on : to watch (someone or something) carefully ▪ Keep a sharp eye on the kids to make sure they don't hurt themselves.
– sharp•ness noun [noncount]

[2]sharp adv
1 : EXACTLY — used to refer to an exact time ▪ It's four o'clock sharp.
2 : above the correct musical pitch ▪ He sang slightly sharp. — compare [3]FLAT 4 3 : SUDDENLY ▪ turn sharp [=sharply] left/right look sharp informal : to act quickly : HURRY ▪ You'd better look sharp if you want to be ready on time.

[3]sharp noun, pl sharps [count] : a musical note that is one semitone higher than a specified note ▪ C sharp; also : a written symbol ♯ that is placed before a note to show that it should be played a semitone higher — compare [2]FLAT 3, [2]NATURAL 2 sharp•en /ˈʃɑəpən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (something) sharp or sharper ▪ sharpen a knife/pencil
2 a [+ obj] : to make (something) clearer or more distinct ▪ Can you sharpen the image? ▪ The lecture sharpened my understanding of the topic. b [no obj] : to become clearer or more distinct ▪ The outlines of the mountains sharpened as we got closer.
3 [+ obj] : to improve (something) ▪ I took a course to sharpen (up) my computer skills.
4 [no obj] : to become more severe ▪ The pain suddenly sharpened.
sharpen up [phrasal verb] : to become better, smarter, more skillful, etc. ▪ You'd better sharpen up if you want to keep your job.

sharp•en•er /ˈʃɑəpənəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool or machine that makes something sharp ▪ a pencil/knife sharpener

sharp–eyed /ˈʃɑəpˈaɪd/ adj
1 : having very good eyesight ▪ a sharp-eyed bird
2 : having a strong ability to notice things ▪ A sharp-eyed [=perceptive] reader will notice the book's repeating themes.

sharp•ish /ˈʃɑəpɪʃ/ adv, Brit, informal : QUICKLY ▪ getting the work done sharpish sharp•ly /ˈʃɑəpli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : in a harsh, critical, or angry way ▪ He spoke sharply to the children and made them cry. ▪ He criticized her sharply.
2 : suddenly and by a large amount ▪ The temperature dropped/fell/rose sharply. ▪ Prices are expected to increase/decline sharply. ▪ The car turned/veered sharply to the left. ▪ a sharply angled curve in the road
3 : clearly or distinctly ▪ a sharply defined image ▪ Her cheerful mood contrasts sharply with her dreary surroundings.
4 : loudly and suddenly ▪ She cried out sharply.
5 : with a very sharp edge or point ▪ The knife is sharply pointed.

sharp•shoot•er /ˈʃɑəpˌʃuːtəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who is skilled at shooting a target with a gun
– sharp•shoot•ing /ˈʃɑəpˌʃuːtɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

sharp–tongued /ˈʃɑəpˈtʌŋgd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : tending to say very critical things to people : having a sharp tongue ▪ a comedy about a mild man and his sharp-tongued wife sharp–wit•ted /ˈʃɑəpˈwɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to think and react very quickly ▪ a sharp-witted young woman ▪ a sharp-witted reply

shat past tense and past participle of SHIT

shat•ter /ˈʃætəɹ/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 : to break suddenly into many small pieces [no obj] The window shattered (into a thousand pieces) when it was hit by a rock. [+ obj] The rock shattered the window. ▪ She shattered her leg [=she broke her leg very badly] in a fall.
2 [+ obj] : to damage (something) very badly ▪ His dreams were shattered by their rejection. ▪ The end of his marriage shattered him emotionally.

shattered adj
1 : very shocked and upset ▪ The end of his marriage left him emotionally shattered.
2 Brit, informal : very tired ▪ I was shattered when I got home from work.

shattering adj : very shocking and upsetting ▪ The end of his marriage was an emotionally shattering experience.

shat•ter•proof /ˈʃætəɹˌpruːf/ adj : made so that it does not break easily and will not form sharp, dangerous pieces if it does break ▪ shatterproof glass

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[1]shave /ˈʃeɪv/ verb shaves; shaved; shaved or shav•en /ˈʃeɪvən/; shav•ing
1 a : to cut the hair, wool, etc., off (someone or something) very close to the skin [+ obj] He shaves himself [=cuts off the hair that grows on his face] every morning before breakfast. ▪ He shaved his head. ▪ She cut herself while shaving her legs. ▪ The sheep were all shaved. ▪ shaved/shaven heads/legs [no obj] He shaves every morning before breakfast. ▪ I cut myself shaving this morning. b [+ obj] : to cut off (hair, wool, a beard, etc.) very close to the skin ▪ He shaved his beard. ▪ She shaves her dog's fur in the summer. — often + off ▪ He shaved off his beard.
2 [+ obj] : to remove a thin layer of (something) from something ▪ He shaved some butter from the container. — usually + off ▪ Shave the bark off the tree.
3 [+ obj] : to reduce something by taking away (a small amount) — usually + off ▪ Can you shave a little off the price? [=can you reduce the price by a small amount?] ▪ She was able to shave a few seconds off the record. [=to beat the record by a few seconds]

[2]shave noun, pl shaves [count] : an act of shaving — usually singular ▪ He gave himself a shave. [=he shaved himself] — see also CLOSE SHAVE shaven adj : having had the hair, wool, etc., removed : having been shaved ▪ a shaven head — see also CLEAN-SHAVEN

shav•er /ˈʃeɪvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a tool or device that is used to shave hair from your face, body, or head ▪ an electric shaver [=razor] — see picture at GROOMING
2 : a person who shaves ▪ a careful shaver
3 old-fashioned : a young boy ▪ when he was just a shaver shaving noun, pl -ings [count] : a very thin piece removed from something with a sharp tool — usually plural ▪ wood shavings

shaving cream noun [noncount] : a special cream or foam that is spread over your face or another part of your body before shaving — called also shaving foam

Sha•vu•ot /ʃəˈvuːˌoʊt/ noun [noncount] : a Jewish holiday celebrated 50 days after the first day of Passover shawl /ˈʃɑːl/ noun, pl shawls [count] : a piece of cloth that is used especially by women as a covering for the head or shoulders

[1]she /ˈʃiː/ pronoun
1 : that female — used to indicate a female person or animal that is the subject of a verb ▪ She is my mother. ▪ Ask your sister where she is going. ▪ She has been planning this trip since January. ▪ (on the telephone) "Hello, I'd like to speak with Jane." "This is she." [=I (the person who answered the phone) am Jane] — compare HE
2 somewhat old-fashioned — used to refer to something (such as a ship) that is thought of as having female qualities ▪ She was a fine ship.

[2]she noun [singular] : a girl, woman, or female animal ▪ "Somebody called when you were out, but I can't remember who." "Was it a he or a she?" — sometimes used in combination ▪ a little black she-cat [=a little, black female cat] s/he /ˈʃiːˈhiː, ˈʃiːjəˈhiː, ˈʃiːˌslæʃˈhiː/ pronoun : she or he — used in writing as a pronoun when the subject of the sentence can be either female or male ▪ Once a student has chosen a project, s/he should write a brief description of it.

sheaf /ˈʃiːf/ noun, pl sheaves /ˈʃiːvz/ [count]
1 : a bunch of stalks and ears of grain that are tied together after being cut ▪ sheaves of wheat
2 : a group of things fastened together ▪ a sheaf of arrows/papers shear /ˈʃiɚ/ verb shears; sheared; sheared or shorn /ˈʃoɚn/; shear•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to cut the hair, wool, etc., off (an animal) ▪ The farmers sheared the sheep. b : to cut off (an animal's hair, wool, etc.) ▪ The farmers sheared the wool from the sheep. — often + off ▪ The farmers sheared off the wool from the sheep.
2 : to cut off a person's hair — usually used as (be) shorn ▪ His long locks were shorn. ▪ the monk's shorn head
3 literary : to take something away from (someone) — usually used as (be) shorn ▪ a tyrant who has been shorn of power [=a tyrant whose power has been taken away] shear off [phrasal verb] 1 : to become separated suddenly because of great force ▪ The excess weight caused the bolt to shear off. 2 shear (something) off or shear off (something) : to remove (something) with great force ▪ The impact of the crash sheared off the airplane's wing.
– shear•er noun, pl -ers [count] shears /ˈʃiɚz/ noun [plural] : a large, heavy pair of scissors — see also PINKING SHEARS sheath /ˈʃiːθ/ noun, pl sheaths /ˈʃiːðz/ [count]

1 : a cover for the blade of a knife, sword, etc. ▪ the sheath of a sword
2 : a protective covering ▪ a piece of wire covered with a plastic sheath ▪ a nerve sheath
3 Brit : CONDOM
4 : a close-fitting dress that does not usually have a belt sheathe /ˈʃiːð/ verb sheathes; sheathed; sheath•ing [+ obj]

1 literary : to put (something, such as a sword) into a sheath ▪ He sheathed his sword.
2 : to cover (something) with something that protects it — usually used as (be) sheathed ▪ The ship's bottom is sheathed with/in copper.

sheath•ing /ˈʃiːðɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a protective outer covering ▪ copper sheathing

she•bang /ʃɪˈbæŋ/ noun
the whole shebang informal : the whole thing : everything that is included in something ▪ You can buy the whole shebang for just $50.

[1]shed /ˈʃɛd/ verb sheds; shed; shed•ding
1 [+ obj] : to get rid of (something) ▪ I've been trying to shed some extra pounds. ▪ The company has had to shed many jobs. ▪ She hasn't been able to shed her image as a troublemaker. [=to make people stop thinking of her as a troublemaker]
2 : to lose (leaves, skin, fur, etc.) naturally [+ obj] Snakes shed their skin. ▪ The dog is shedding its fur. ▪ The trees are shedding their leaves. [no obj] The cat is shedding.
3 [+ obj] a : to take off (something you are wearing) ▪ He quickly shed his hat and coat. b Brit : to lose or drop (a load, cargo, etc.) ▪ The lorry shed its load.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (water) to flow off instead of soaking into something ▪ Raincoats shed water. shed blood see BLOOD shed light on see [1]LIGHT shed tears see [3]TEAR

[2]shed noun, pl sheds [count]
1 : a small, simple building that is used especially for storing things — see also COWSHED, POTTING SHED, TOOLSHED, WOODSHED
2 Brit : a large industrial building ▪ a railway shed she'd /ˈʃiːd, ʃɪd/ — used as a contraction of she had or she would ▪ She'd [=she had] already eaten by the time we arrived. ▪ She'd [=she would] prefer to wait until next week.

sheen /ˈʃiːn/ noun [singular] : a soft, smooth, shiny quality ▪ Her hair has a sheen to it. ▪ the sheen of satin sheep /ˈʃiːp/ noun, pl sheep [count]

1 : an animal with a thick woolly coat that is often raised for meat or for its wool and skin ▪ a flock of sheep
2 : a person who does what other people say to do ▪ They followed every new fad like (a flock of) sheep.
a wolf in sheep's clothing see [1]WOLF separate the sheep from the goats see [2]SEPARATE – see also BLACK SHEEP

sheep

sheep•dog /ˈʃiːpˌdɑːg/ noun, pl -dogs [count] : a dog that is trained to control sheep sheep•herd•er /ˈʃiːpˌhɚdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who controls a flock of sheep : a person who herds sheep sheep•ish /ˈʃiːpɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or feeling embarrassment especially because you have done something foolish or wrong ▪ a sheepish look/grin/smile ▪ He felt a little sheepish.

– sheep•ish•ly adv ▪ He sheepishly admitted his mistake. ▪ She grinned at us sheepishly.

sheep•skin /ˈʃiːpˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins
1 [count, noncount] a : the skin of a sheep usually with the wool still on it b : a type of leather made from the skin of a sheep ▪ a bag/coat made of sheepskin
2 [count] US, informal + humorous : a diploma from a college or university ▪ jobs that don't require a sheepskin

[1]sheer /ˈʃɪɚ/ adj
1 always used before a noun — used to emphasize the large

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

amount, size, or degree of something ▪ The sheer amount of work was staggering. ▪ The sheer number of questions overwhelmed her. ▪ The sheer force of the wind knocked me to the ground.
2 always used before a noun : complete and total ▪ sheer [=utter] nonsense ▪ sheer [=pure] luck/coincidence/joy
3 : very steep : almost straight up and down ▪ a sheer drop to the sea ▪ sheer cliffs/walls
4 : very thin ▪ sheer stockings/curtains

[2]sheer adv : straight up or down ▪ mountains rising sheer from the plains

[3]sheer verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition sheers; sheered; sheer•ing [no obj] : to turn suddenly ▪ The boat sheered [=swerved] away from the rocks.

[1]sheet /ˈʃi:t/ noun, pl sheets [count]
1 a : a large piece of cloth that is used to cover something ▪ We used sheets to protect the furniture when we painted. b : a large piece of thin cloth used on a bed ▪ The sheets are changed daily at the hotel. ▪ He slid between the sheets and went to sleep. — called also bedsheet; see picture at BED
2 : a usually rectangular piece of paper — see also BALANCE SHEET, RAP SHEET, SPREADSHEET, TIME SHEET, WORKSHEET, clean sheet at [1]CLEAN
3 : a thin, flat, rectangular or square piece of something ▪ a sheet of iron/glass — see also BAKING SHEET, COOKIE SHEET
4 : a wide, flat surface or area of something ▪ A sheet of ice covered the driveway. — see also ICE SHEET
5 : a large moving area of something (such as fire or water) ▪ a sheet of flame ▪ sheets of rain
– compare [2]SHEET

[2]sheet noun, pl sheets [count] technical : a rope or chain attached to the lower corner of a sail and used to change the position of the sail three sheets to the wind old-fashioned + humorous : very drunk ▪ When he staggered out of the bar, he was three sheets to the wind.
– compare [1]SHEET

sheet•ing /ˈʃi:tɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : material (such as plastic) in the form of thin layers used to cover or protect something ▪ We covered the wall with clear plastic sheeting.
2 : cloth that is used to make sheets for a bed sheet lightning noun [noncount] : lightning that appears as a wide flash of light over a large area of sky sheet metal noun [noncount] : thin, flat pieces of metal sheet music noun [noncount] : music printed on sheets of paper that are not bound together

Sheet•rock /ˈʃi:tˌrɑ:k/ trademark — used for drywall sheikh or sheik /ʃi:k/ noun, pl sheikhs or sheiks [count]

1 : an Arab chief, ruler, or prince
2 : a leader of a Muslim organization or group sheikh•dom or sheik•dom /ˈʃi:kdəm/ noun, pl -doms [count] : an area ruled by a sheikh shei•la /ˈʃi:lə/ noun, pl -las [count] Australia + New Zealand, informal : a girl or young woman shek•el /ˈʃɛkəl/ noun, pl -els [count] : the basic unit of money in Israel shelf /ˈʃɛlf/ noun, pl shelves /ˈʃɛlvz/ [count]

1 : a flat board which is attached to a wall, frame, etc., and on which objects can be placed ▪ Put the vase on the shelf. ▪ the top/bottom shelf of the kitchen cabinet ▪ Will you get that book down off the shelf? ▪ We don't have much shelf space. — see also BOOKSHELF
2 geology : a flat area of rock, sand, etc., especially underwater ▪ a coastal shelf — see also CONTINENTAL SHELF off the shelf : directly from a store without having to be specially made or ordered ▪ The dress was a perfect fit right off the shelf. ▪ equipment purchased off the shelf on the shelf : in an inactive state : not active or being used ▪ They put their plan to remodel the house on the shelf for the time being. ▪ The quarterback remains on the shelf [=is still not playing] with a severe injury.

shelf life noun, pl ~ lives [count]
1 : the length of time that food may be stored and still be good to eat — usually singular ▪ Rice has a long shelf life.
2 : the length of time during which something or someone lasts or remains popular — usually singular ▪ a movie with a short shelf life

[1]shell /ˈʃɛl/ noun, pl shells
1 a : the hard outer covering of an animal, insect, etc., that protects it [count] a turtle's shell ▪ the shell of a crab ▪ We collected shells at the beach. [noncount] jewelry made of shell — see also SEASHELL, TORTOISESHELL b : the hard outer covering of an egg : EGGSHELL [count] broken shells [noncount] a piece of shell c : the hard outer covering of a nut, fruit, or seed [count] a coconut shell [noncount] pieces of walnut shell
2 [count] US : something (such as pasta) that is shaped like a shell ▪ We're going to have stuffed shells for dinner.
3 [count] : the hard outer structure of a building, car, airplane, etc. — usually singular ▪ the shell of an unfinished house ▪ the shell of an airplane ▪ The building was just a bombed-out shell.
4 [count] chiefly US : a hard or crisp piece of bread, dough, etc., that is used to hold a filling ▪ a pastry/pie shell ▪ taco/tortilla shells
5 [count] a : a metal case that is filled with an explosive and that is shot from a cannon ▪ mortar shells b chiefly US : a metal tube that you put into a gun and that holds an explosive and a bullet : CARTRIDGE ▪ The police found several spent shells at the scene of the shooting.
6 a — used in phrases that describe becoming less shy and more willing to talk to other people ▪ Making new friends helped her come out of her shell. = Making new friends brought her out of her shell. b — used in phrases that describe becoming quieter, less active, etc. ▪ He lost confidence in himself and retreated/withdrew into his shell.

[2]shell verb shells; shelled; shell•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove the shell or outer covering of (something) ▪ shell peanuts/peas
2 : to shoot shells at (someone or something) using large guns ▪ They shelled the enemy troops. ▪ The town was shelled during the battle.
3 US, informal : to score heavily against (a pitcher) in baseball — usually used as (be) shelled ▪ He was shelled in the second inning.
shell out [phrasal verb] shell out or shell out (money) informal : to pay a large amount of money for something — usually + for ▪ I'm going to have to shell out for these shoes. ▪ He shelled out $400 for the tickets.

she'll /ʃi:l, ʃɪl/ — used as a contraction of she will ▪ She'll be home soon.

[1]shel•lac /ʃəˈlæk/ noun, pl -lacs [count, noncount] : a clear liquid that dries into a hard coating and that is put on a surface to protect it

[2]shellac verb -lacks; -lacked; -lack•ing [+ obj]
1 : to coat (something) with shellac ▪ shellac the table
2 US, informal : to defeat (a person or team) easily and completely — usually used as (be) shellacked ▪ They were shellacked 14–2 in yesterday's game.

shellacking noun, pl -ings [count] US, informal : a very bad defeat ▪ They took a shellacking in yesterday's game.

shelled /ˈʃɛld/ adj
1 : having a shell especially of a specified kind ▪ pink-shelled ▪ hard-shelled
2 : having the shell removed ▪ shelled nuts/oysters shell• re /ˈʃɛlˌfajə/ noun [noncount] : the firing of shells from large guns ▪ The soldiers traded shellfire. [=the soldiers fired shells at each other] ▪ The town came under shellfire.

shell• sh /ˈʃɛlˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl shell sh : an animal (such as a crab or an oyster) that has a hard outer shell and that lives in water [count] lobsters, crabs, and other shellfish [noncount] a serving of shellfish — see color picture on page C8 shell game noun, pl ~ games [count] US : a dishonest betting game in which someone hides a ball under one of three cups or shells, moves the cups or shells around quickly, and asks an observer to guess which one the ball is under — often used figuratively to describe dishonest actions that are done to trick people ▪ The company was playing an elaborate shell game.

shelling noun [noncount] : the firing of shells from large guns ▪ The town sustained weeks of heavy shelling.

shell shock noun [noncount] old-fashioned : BATTLE FATIGUE shell–shocked adj

1 old-fashioned : affected with battle fatigue ▪ a shell-shocked veteran
2 [more ~; most ~] : very confused, upset, or exhausted because of something that has happened : very shocked ▪ She was shell-shocked when she heard the news.

shell suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] Brit : a pair of usually brightly colored light, nylon pants and a matching jacket

[1]shel•ter /ˈʃɛltə/ noun, pl -ters

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

1 a [count] : a structure that covers or protects people or things ▪ a bomb/fallout shelter ▪ We made a shelter from branches. b [count] : a place that provides food and protection for people or animals that need assistance ▪ a shelter for battered women ▪ an animal shelter ▪ homeless shelters c [noncount] : a place to live ▪ The organization provides food and shelter for homeless people.
2 [noncount] : the state of being covered and protected from danger, bad weather, etc. ▪ The crowd ran for shelter when the rain started. ▪ They sought shelter from the storm. ▪ They found/took shelter in a cave during the storm. [=they went into a cave to get out of the storm]
– see also TAX SHELTER

[2]shelter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [+ obj] : to protect (someone) from danger, bad weather, etc. : to provide shelter for (someone) ▪ A cave sheltered the climbers during the storm. ▪ They were accused of sheltering a criminal. [=giving a criminal a place to hide] — often + from ▪ They sheltered themselves from the sudden rain. — often used figuratively ▪ Most parents want to shelter their children from pain and sadness. [=to prevent their children from experiencing pain and sadness] ▪ Investors are trying to shelter themselves from rising interest rates.
2 [no obj] : to be in a place that provides protection from danger, bad weather, etc. : to take shelter ▪ They sheltered in a cave while they waited for the storm to pass.

sheltered adj
1 : providing protection from bad weather ▪ sheltered bays/harbors ▪ The flowers were planted in a sheltered location.
2 [more ~; most ~] sometimes disapproving : protected from dangerous or unpleasant experiences in the world ▪ She has lived a very sheltered life.
3 always used before a noun, Brit : providing care for people (such as old or disabled people) who need help with daily activities ▪ They are moving to sheltered accommodation/housing. ▪ sheltered employment shel•tie or shel•ty /ˈʃɛlti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : SHETLAND SHEEPDOG shelve /ˈʃɛlv/ verb shelves; shelved; shelv•ing [+ obj]

1 : to put (something) on a shelf ▪ He shelved the books/products. ▪ The books were shelved according to category.
2 : to stop doing or thinking about (something) for a period of time ▪ The idea/plan/project was shelved.
3 US : to make (someone) unable to play or perform — usually used as (be) shelved ▪ He was shelved by injury last year. [=he was unable to play because he was injured]

shelves plural of SHELF shelving noun [noncount] : shelves or the materials that are used to make shelves ▪ a laundry room with shelving ▪ We need more shelving to finish the bookcase.

she•nan•i•gans /ʃəˈnænɪgənz/ noun [plural] informal : activity or behavior that is not honest or proper ▪ They were engaging in some political/financial shenanigans.

[1]shep•herd /ˈʃɛpəd/ noun, pl -herds [count] : a person whose job is to take care of sheep — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He was a good shepherd to new students. — see also GERMAN SHEPHERD

[2]shepherd verb -herds; -herd•ed; -herd•ing [+ obj] : to guide (someone or something) ▪ She carefully shepherded the children across the street. ▪ They shepherded the bill through Congress.

shep•herd•ess /ˈʃɛpədəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] old-fashioned : a woman whose job is to take care of sheep shepherd's pie noun, pl ~ pies [count, noncount] : a dish of meat and sometimes vegetables covered with a crust of mashed potatoes sher•bet /ˈʃəbət/ also US sher•bert /ˈʃəbət/ noun, pl -bets also -berts

1 [count, noncount] US : a frozen sweet dessert made from fruit or fruit juices ▪ a lemon sherbet
2 [noncount] Brit : a sweet powder used to make a bubbly drink or eaten by itself sherd variant spelling of SHARD sher•iff /ˈʃerəf/ noun, pl -iffs [count]

1 : an elected official who is in charge of enforcing the law in a county or town of the U.S.
2 Brit : the highest official in a county or shire in England or Wales who represents the king or queen and who attends ceremonies and has legal duties — called also High Sheriff
3 : the most important judge in a county or district in Scotland

Sher•pa or sher•pa /ˈʃɚpə/ noun, pl -pas [count] : a member of a people who live in the Himalayas and who are often hired to help guide mountain climbers and carry their equipment sher•ry /ˈʃeri/ noun, pl -ries [count, noncount] : a type of strong wine with a nutty flavor that is made especially in Spain

she's /ˈʃiːz, ʃɪz/ — used as a contraction of she is or she has ▪ She's [=she is] quite right! ▪ She's [=she has] been teaching for several years.

Shet•land pony /ˈʃɛtlənd-/ noun, pl ~ pon•ies [count] : a type of small, strong horse

Shetland sheepdog noun, pl ~ -dogs [count] : a type of small dog that has a long, thick coat — called also sheltie

Shia or Shi•'a /ˈʃiːˌɑː/ noun, pl Shia or Shi'a also Shi•as also Shi•'as
1 [noncount] : one of the two main branches of Islam — often used before a noun ▪ the Shia faith/tradition — compare SUNNI
2 [count] : a Muslim who is a member of the Shia branch of Islam : SHIITE

Shi•at•su /ʃiˈɑːtsu/ noun [noncount] : a Japanese method of relieving pain or curing illness by pressing on particular points on a person's body with the fingertips or thumbs

shib•bo•leth /ˈʃɪbələθ/ noun, pl -leths [count]
1 : an old idea, opinion, or saying that is commonly believed and repeated but that may be seen as old-fashioned or untrue ▪ She repeated the old shibboleth that time heals all wounds.
2 : a word or way of speaking or behaving which shows that a person belongs to a particular group shied past tense and past participle of SHY

[1]shield /ˈʃiːld/ noun, pl shields [count]
1 : a large piece of metal, wood, etc., carried by someone (such as a soldier or police officer) for protection
2 : something that defends or protects someone or something ▪ the heat shield on a space shuttle ▪ The thief tried to use a hostage as a human shield. [=the thief hid behind the hostage so the police would not shoot] ▪ Exercise and good nutrition are a shield against disease. [=exercise and good nutrition protect you from disease] — see also WINDSHIELD
3 US : a police officer's badge
4 : a picture shaped like a soldier's shield that has a coat of arms on it
5 Brit : an award for winning a competition or game

[2]shield verb shields; shield•ed; shield•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cover and protect (someone or something) ▪ She shielded her eyes. — often + from ▪ She lifted her hand to shield her eyes from the glare. ▪ He was shielded from the rain. — often used figuratively ▪ I think she's shielded her child from the real world for too long. ▪ His friends tried to shield him from the press.
2 : to prevent (someone or something) from being seen — usually + from ▪ A line of trees shields the house from view.

[1]shift /ˈʃɪft/ verb shifts; shift•ed; shift•ing
1 : to move or to cause (something or someone) to move to a different place, position, etc. [+ obj] I shifted the bag to my other shoulder. ▪ She shifted her position slightly so she could see the stage better. ▪ I shifted [=turned] my gaze toward the horizon. ▪ They shifted him to a different department. [no obj] The wind shifted. ▪ He nervously shifted from foot to foot. ▪ She shifted in her seat. ▪ The population is shifting [=moving] away from the city.
2 : to change or to cause (something) to change to a different opinion, belief, etc. [no obj] Public opinion has shifted dramatically in recent months. [+ obj] Their efforts to shift public opinion have failed. ▪ She refused to shift her ground. [=she refused to change her opinion]
3 : to go or to cause (something) to go from one person or thing to another [+ obj] I wanted to shift the discussion back to the main point. ▪ They tried to shift the blame onto/to us. ▪ Their attempts at shifting attention away from the controversy seemed to be working. ▪ The mayor plans to shift some resources to the development project. [no obj] The focus of the debate quickly shifted to more controversial topics. ▪ shifting alliances/demands/patterns
4 US : to change the gear you are using in a vehicle [no obj] She shifted into first gear. ▪ I hear a loud noise when the car shifts. [+ obj] She shifted the car into low gear. — see also DOWNSHIFT, UPSHIFT, shift gears at [1]GEAR
5 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to get rid of (something) ▪ I can't seem to shift this cold. ▪ This detergent will shift even the most stubborn stains.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

shift for yourself : to do things without help from others ▪ She left them to shift for themselves. [=fend for themselves] shifting sands see [1]SAND shift the goalposts see GOALPOST shift yourself Brit, informal : to move quickly : HURRY ▪ We need to shift ourselves [=get moving] if we're going to make it home before dark.

[2]shift noun, pl shifts [count]
1 a : a change in position or direction ▪ There will be a shift of responsibility when she takes the new position. — often + in ▪ a shift in the wind ▪ unpredictable shifts in weather ▪ The shift in leadership will take place at the end of the year. b always followed by an adverb or preposition : a change in how something is done or how people think about something ▪ a shift away from tradition ▪ a gradual shift toward more liberal policies ▪ a shift in voter opinion
2 a : a group of people who work together during a scheduled period of time ▪ The day/night shift worked overtime. ▪ The restaurant needed only one shift for lunch. b : the scheduled period of time during which a person works ▪ He works the day/night shift. ▪ waiters working long shifts — see also GRAVEYARD SHIFT, SWING SHIFT
3 : SHIFT KEY
4 : a woman's loose, straight dress shift•er /ˈʃɪftɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : GEARSHIFT shift key noun, pl ~ keys [count] : a key on a computer keyboard or a typewriter that you press to type capital letters — called also shift shift•less /ˈʃɪftləs/ adj, disapproving : lacking ambition and energy ▪ a lazy, shiftless person – shift•less•ness noun [noncount] shifty /ˈʃɪfti/ adj shift•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 : having an appearance or way of behaving that seems dishonest ▪ a shifty salesman ▪ shifty eyes
2 US : difficult to catch : able to move and change directions quickly ▪ a shifty runner – shift•i•ly /ˈʃɪftəli/ adv ▪ He eyed them shiftily. – shift•i•ness /ˈʃɪftinəs/ noun [noncount] shii•ta•ke /ʃiˈtɑːki/ noun, pl -kes [count] chiefly US : a type of Asian mushroom used in cooking Shi•ite or Shi•'ite /ˈʃiːˌaɪt/ noun, pl -ites or -'ites [count] : a Muslim who is a member of the Shia branch of Islam — compare SUNNI – Shiite or Shi'ite adj, always used before a noun ▪ a Shiite Muslim ▪ the Shiite community shill /ʃɪl/ verb shills; shilled; shill•ing [no obj] US, informal + disapproving : to talk about or describe someone or something in a favorable way because you are being paid to do it — often + for ▪ celebrities shilling for politicians – shill noun, pl shills [count] ▪ He's just a political shill.
shil•ling /ˈʃɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count]
1 : a British coin used before 1971 that was equal to ⅕₀ of a British pound
2 : the basic unit of money in Kenya, Somalia, Tanzania, and Uganda shilly–shally /ˈʃɪliˌʃæli/ verb -shal•lies; -shal•lied; -shal•ly•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to hesitate and take a long time to do or decide something ▪ They continue to shilly-shally about what to do.
– shilly–shallying noun [singular] ▪ Congress should stop all the shilly-shallying and just vote.
shim•mer /ˈʃɪmɚ/ verb -mers; -mered; -mer•ing [no obj] : to shine with a light that seems to move slightly ▪ The road shimmered in the heat. ▪ The landscape shimmers [=glimmers] with light. ▪ shimmering colors/light
– shimmer noun [singular] ▪ the shimmer of the jewels
– shim•mery /ˈʃɪmɚi/ adj ▪ a shimmery glow/luster shim•my /ˈʃɪmi/ verb -mies; -mied; -my•ing
1 : to move or shake your body from side to side [no obj] They were shimmying on the dance floor. ▪ I shimmied into my jacket. [+ obj] She shimmied her hips.
2 [no obj] US : to vibrate or move very quickly from side to side ▪ One of the car's wheels was shimmying.
– shimmy noun, pl -mies [count] ▪ She gave her hips a shimmy.

[1]shin /ʃɪn/ noun, pl shins [count] : the front part of the leg below the knee ▪ She kicked him in the shin. ▪ a shin pad/guard — see picture at HUMAN
[2]shin verb shins; shinned; shin•ning [no obj] Brit : SHINNY — + up or down ▪ The sailor shinned up the mast. ▪ He shinned down the drainpipe.
shin•bone /ˈʃɪnˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : the large bone at the front of the leg between the knee and the ankle : TIBIA shin•dig /ˈʃɪnˌdɪg/ noun, pl -digs [count] informal : a big party ▪ an informal shindig
[1]shine /ʃaɪn/ verb shines; shone /ʃoʊn, Brit ʃɒn/ or chiefly US shined; shin•ing
1 [no obj] : to give off light ▪ The moon/stars shined brightly. ▪ The sun was shining through the clouds. ▪ lamps shining from the windows
2 [no obj] : to have a smooth surface that reflects light ▪ He polished the silver until it shone. [=gleamed]
3 not used in progressive tenses [no obj] : to be very good or successful at an activity ▪ She found a sport where she can really shine.
4 [no obj] : to have a bright, glowing appearance ▪ Her face was shining with joy/excitement. ▪ His eyes were shining.
5 [+ obj] : to point (something that produces light) in a particular direction ▪ Please shine the flashlight over here.
6 past tense and past participle shined [+ obj] : to make (something) bright and shiny by polishing ▪ I shined my shoes. ▪ He had his shoes shined.
make hay while the sun shines see HAY rise and shine informal — used to tell someone to wake up and get out of bed ▪ C'mon, kids! Rise and shine!
shine through [phrasal verb] : to be seen, expressed, or shown clearly ▪ Once she relaxed, her talent really began to shine through.

[2]shine noun [singular]
1 : the brightness that results when light is reflected from a surface ▪ the shine of polished silver ▪ He had a nice shine on his shoes. — see also SUNSHINE
2 : the act of polishing a pair of shoes ▪ Would you like a shine? — see also SHOESHINE rain or shine see [1]RAIN take a shine to informal : to begin to like (someone or something) ▪ She really took a shine to [=took a liking to] her new neighbor.

shin•er /ˈʃaɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : BLACK EYE ▪ He got a shiner during a fight at school.
[1]shin•gle /ˈʃɪŋgəl/ noun, pl shin•gles [count] : a small, thin piece of building material that is used to cover the roof or sides of a building hang out your shingle US, informal : to start your own business especially as a doctor or lawyer ▪ She graduated from law school and hung out her shingle.
– compare [3]SHINGLE shingles

[2]shingle verb shin•gles; shin•gled; shin•gling [+ obj] : to cover (something) with shingles ▪ shingle a house/roof ▪ a house shingled with cedar [3]shingle noun [noncount] : small stones that form a beach ▪ She walked along the shingle. ▪ a shingle beach — compare [1]SHINGLE – shin•gly /ˈʃɪŋgəli/ adj ▪ a strip of shingly beach shin•gles /ˈʃɪŋgəlz/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that causes pain and red marks on your skin along the path of a nerve shining adj
1 : producing or reflecting a bright, steady light ▪ a shining star
2 : excellent or perfect ▪ Her latest movie is a shining example of what a film can be. ▪ a shining success shin•ny /ˈʃɪni/ verb -nies; -nied; -ny•ing [no obj] US : to climb up or down something (such as a pole) by grasping it with your arms and legs — + up or down ▪ He shinnied up [=(Brit) shinned up] the tree to get a better look. ▪ She shinnied down the drainpipe.
Shin•to /ˈʃɪnˌtoʊ/ noun [noncount] : the traditional religion of Japan — called also Shin•to•ism /ˈʃɪnˌtoʊˌɪzəm/shiny /ˈʃaɪni/ adj shin•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having a smooth, shining, bright appearance ▪ shiny black shoes ▪ a shiny new car – shin•i•ness noun [noncount]
[1]ship /ʃɪp/ noun, pl ships
1 : a large boat used for traveling long distances over the sea [count] a sailing/cruise/merchant ship ▪ the captain of the

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

ship [noncount] He will travel by ship. — see also FLAGSHIP, STEAMSHIP, TALL SHIP, TROOPSHIP, WARSHIP 2 [count] : a large airplane or spacecraft — see also AIRSHIP, ROCKET SHIP, SPACESHIP abandon ship see [1]ABANDON jump ship 1 : to leave a ship without the captain's permission ▪ He planned to jump ship at the next port. 2 : to suddenly or unexpectedly leave a group, team, etc. ▪ She jumped ship when the competition offered her a better job.
run a tight ship : to manage or handle a group of people in a strict and effective way ▪ The boss runs a tight ship.
ship comes in ✧ When your ship comes in, you become very successful or wealthy. ▪ She's still waiting for her ship to come in.

[2]ship verb ships; shipped; ship•ping
1 a : to send (something) to a customer [+ obj] The goods were shipped from a foreign port. ▪ We shipped the items to you last week. = We shipped you the items last week. [no obj] Your order is expected to ship soon. b : to send (a new product) to stores so that it can be bought by customers [+ obj] The company will ship its new software next month. [no obj] The software will ship next month.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to send (someone) to a place that is usually far away ▪ The soldiers were shipped overseas for duty. ▪ Her parents are shipping her (off) to boarding school.
3 [+ obj] of a ship or boat : to take in (water) over the side ▪ When the waves increased, the boat began shipping water.
ship out [phrasal verb] : to leave one place and go to another for military duties ▪ The troops will be shipping out next month. — see also shape up or ship out at [2]SHAPE

-ship /ˌʃɪp/ noun suffix
1 : the state or condition of being something ▪ friend*ship* ▪ apprentice*ship*
2 : the position, status, or duties of something ▪ professor*ship*
3 : skill or ability as someone or something ▪ horseman*ship* ▪ penman*ship* ship•board /ˈʃɪpˌboəd/ adj, always used before a noun : happening or existing on a ship ▪ shipboard entertainment/meals ▪ a shipboard romance on shipboard : on a ship ▪ They celebrated their honeymoon on shipboard.

ship•build•er /ˈʃɪpˌbɪldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person or company that designs and builds ships – ship•build•ing /ˈʃɪpˌbɪldɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ a shipbuilding company ship•load /ˈʃɪpˈloʊd/ noun, pl -loads [count] : an amount or number that will fill a ship ▪ a shipload of corn ▪ Shiploads of settlers came to the New World.

ship•mate /ˈʃɪpˌmeɪt/ noun, pl -mates [count] : a sailor who works or sails on the same ship as another sailor ship•ment /ˈʃɪpmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : a load of goods that are being sent to a customer, store, etc. ▪ We sent out another shipment of books. ▪ arms/grain/oil shipments ▪ My order was delivered in two shipments.
2 [noncount] : the act of sending something to a customer, store, etc. ▪ This box is ready for shipment.

ship•per /ˈʃɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : a person or company that ships goods or products ▪ fruit/oil/wine shippers

ship•ping /ˈʃɪpɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act or business of sending goods to people, stores, etc. ▪ The fruit was ready for shipping. ▪ a shipping clerk [=a person whose job involves shipping things] ▪ What do you charge for shipping and handling? [=for packaging and sending something to a customer]
2 formal : a group of ships ▪ They protected our shipping from submarines during wartime. ▪ international shipping lanes [=paths through the sea that commercial ships can take] ship•shape /ˌʃɪpˈʃeɪp/ adj, not used before a noun : clean, neat, and tidy : organized and in good condition ▪ I like to keep my car shipshape. ▪ Everything had to be shipshape before we could sell the house.

ship•wreck /ˈʃɪpˌrɛk/ noun, pl -wrecks
1 : the destruction or sinking of a ship at sea [count] Only a few sailors survived the shipwreck. [noncount] The crew narrowly avoided shipwreck.
2 [count] : a ruined or destroyed ship ▪ Divers searched the sunken shipwreck. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His marriage was a shipwreck.
– shipwreck verb -wrecks; -wrecked; -wreck•ing [+ obj] — usually used as (be) shipwrecked ▪ The boat was shipwrecked on the reef. ▪ shipwrecked sailors ▪ a shipwrecked boat ship•yard /ˈʃɪpˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : a place where ships are built or repaired shire /ˈʃajə/ noun, pl shires [count]

1 Brit : a county in England — used in the names of British counties ▪ Northampton*shire*
2 or Shire : a type of tall, strong horse used for pulling heavy loads — called also shire horse

shirk /ˈʃək/ verb shirks; shirked; shirk•ing : to avoid doing something that you are supposed to do [+ obj] He's too conscientious to shirk his duty/responsibility. [no obj] He never shirked from doing his duty. ▪ They did their duty without shirking or complaining.
– shirk•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's no shirker.

shirt /ˈʃət/ noun, pl shirts [count] : a piece of clothing for the upper body that has sleeves and usually a collar and buttons down the front — see also NIGHTSHIRT, POLO SHIRT, STUFFED SHIRT, SWEATSHIRT, T-SHIRT, UNDERSHIRT keep your shirt on informal — used to tell someone to calm down or be more patient ▪ "Aren't you ready yet?" "Keep your shirt on! I'll be ready in a minute."
lose your shirt chiefly US, informal : to lose a lot of money because of a bad bet or investment ▪ He lost his shirt betting on football games. ▪ Many investors lost their shirts when the market crashed.
put your shirt on chiefly Brit, informal : to bet a lot of money on (someone or something) ▪ I put my shirt on a horse in the second race.
the shirt off your back informal ✧ People who would give you the shirt off their back would do anything to help you. ▪ She'd give me the shirt off her back if I ever needed help.

[1]shirt•sleeve /ˈʃətˌsliːv/ noun, pl -sleeves [count] : the sleeve of a shirt in (your) shirtsleeves : wearing a shirt but no coat or jacket ▪ a man in his shirtsleeves ▪ It was hot and most of the crowd was in shirtsleeves.

S

ship cruise ship, cruise liner

tanker container ship

freighter, cargo ship

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[2]shirtsleeve also shirt•sleeves /ˈʃətˌsliːvz/ adj, always used before a noun, US
1 : not wearing a coat or jacket ▪ a shirtsleeve crowd
2 : warm enough so that you do not need a coat or jacket ▪ shirtsleeves weather
3 : informal and direct ▪ shirtsleeve diplomacy shirt•tail /ˈʃətˌteɪl/ noun, pl -tails [count] : the part of a shirt that hangs below the waist especially in the back — usually plural ▪ His shirttails were untucked.

shirty /ˈʃəti/ adj shirt•i•er; -est Brit, informal : angry or irritated ▪ shirty letters of complaint ▪ He was/got shirty with the people who arrived late.

shish ke•bab /ˈʃɪʃkəˌbɑːb, Brit ˈʃɪʃkəˌbæb/ noun, pl ~ -babs [count] : KEBAB

[1]shit /ˈʃɪt/ noun, pl shits informal
1 offensive a [noncount] : solid waste that is passed out of the body b [singular] : the act of passing solid waste from the body — used in the phrases take a shit and (Brit) have a shit c *the shits : DIARRHEA
2 [noncount] offensive : foolish or untrue words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ Don't give me that shit! ▪ Why are you telling me this shit? ▪ Just cut the shit [=stop saying meaningless things] and get to the point. ▪ He's full of shit. [=he is lying]
3 [noncount] offensive : something that is worthless, unimportant, etc. ▪ That movie was total shit. ▪ We need to get rid of all that shit [=junk] in the basement. ▪ There's always some shit going on.
4 [noncount] offensive : bad or unfair behavior or treatment ▪ Do what I say, and don't give me any shit. ▪ He's a tough teacher who won't take shit from anyone.
5 [count] offensive : a very bad or annoying person ▪ He's been acting like a total shit.
6 offensive a *the shit — used for emphasis after words like beat, scare, surprise, etc. ▪ I'm going to beat/kick the (living) shit out of you! ▪ She surprised the shit out of me. b — used as an interjection ▪ Shit! I dropped my coffee! ▪ Oh, shit. Here she comes.
get/pull your shit together US, offensive : to begin to live in a good and sensible way : to stop being confused, foolish, etc. ▪ I really need to get my shit together and start looking for a job. ▪ He can never seem to pull his shit together enough to keep a job.
give a shit offensive : to care at all about someone or something — usually used in negative statements ▪ I don't give a shit what happens.
in deep shit also Brit in the shit offensive : in a lot of trouble ▪ If his parents find out, he'll be in deep shit.
like shit offensive : very bad ▪ The food tasted like shit. : very badly ▪ She treats him like shit. ✧ If you feel like shit, you feel very sick, unhappy, etc. ▪ I got drunk at the party, and the next morning I felt like shit. [=I felt sick] ▪ When I saw how badly I had hurt his feelings, I felt like shit.
no shit offensive — used to show that you are surprised or impressed by what has been said ▪ "They got married." "No shit!" — often used in an ironic way when someone makes an obvious statement ▪ "It's cold out there." "No shit." [=no kidding] shit happens offensive — used to say that bad things happen as part of life and cannot be prevented the shit hits the fan offensive — used to describe what happens when people find out about something that makes them very angry ▪ I told him I was dropping out of school and the shit hit the fan.

[2]shit verb shits; shit or shat /ʃæt/; shit•ting informal
1 [no obj] offensive : to pass solid waste from the body : DEFECATE
2 [+ obj] US, offensive : to try to deceive or trick (someone) ▪ Are you shitting me?!
shit yourself or US shit your pants offensive : to become so afraid, surprised, worried, etc., that you defecate ▪ He jumped out from behind a tree and I nearly shit my pants.

shit–faced adj, US, informal + offensive : very drunk ▪ He went out last night and got shit-faced.

shit•head /ˈʃɪtˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal + offensive : a very annoying, stupid, or unpleasant person ▪ He's acting like a complete shithead.

shit•less /ˈʃɪtləs/ adv, informal + offensive : very much : to a very high degree — used for emphasis ▪ I was bored/scared shitless.

shit•load /ˈʃɪtˌloʊd/ noun, pl -loads [count] informal + offensive : a very large amount of something ▪ You're in a shitload of trouble. ▪ They have shitloads of money.

shit•ty /ˈʃɪti/ adj shit•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal + offensive
1 : very bad or unpleasant ▪ What shitty weather!
2 : cruel or unkind ▪ He's been pretty shitty to her lately.

[1]shiv•er /ˈʃɪvə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] : to shake slightly because you are cold, afraid, etc. ▪ It was so cold that I was shivering. ▪ She was shivering [=trembling] with fear/excitement.

[2]shiver noun, pl -ers [count] : a small shaking movement caused by cold or strong emotion ▪ She felt a shiver of delight/pleasure when she opened the gift. ▪ Her performance was so brilliant that it sent shivers up (and down) my spine. [=it thrilled or excited me] ▪ The look in his eyes gave me the shivers. [=made me very afraid]

shiv•ery /ˈʃɪvəri/ adj
1 : shaking because of cold, fear, illness, etc. ▪ He woke up feeling sweaty and shivery.
2 always used before a noun, US, informal : causing shivers ▪ shivery [=cold] weather ▪ a shivery [=scary] horror story

shmooze variant spelling of SCHMOOZE

[1]shoal /ˈʃoʊl/ noun, pl shoals [count]
1 : an area where the water in a sea, lake, or river is not deep ▪ fish lurking in the shoals
2 : a small, raised area of sand just below the surface of the water ▪ The boat ran aground on the shoal.
– compare [2]SHOAL

[2]shoal noun, pl shoals [count] : a large group or number — often + of ▪ a shoal [=(more commonly) school] of fish ▪ (chiefly Brit) a shoal of letters from angry readers — compare [1]SHOAL

[1]shock /ʃɑːk/ noun, pl shocks
1 a [count] : a sudden usually unpleasant or upsetting feeling caused by something unexpected — usually singular ▪ If you haven't been there for a while, prepare yourself for a shock: the place has changed a lot. ▪ a terrible/nasty shock ▪ You're in for a big/rude shock if you think this job will be easy. — often + of ▪ the shock of discovering that someone you love has betrayed you ▪ He got the shock of his life [=he was very unpleasantly surprised] when he saw his own name on the list. — see also CULTURE SHOCK, STICKER SHOCK b [count] : something unexpected that causes a sudden usually unpleasant or upsetting feeling — usually singular ▪ Seeing his parents at the rock concert was a shock. ▪ Her death came as a shock to the family. ▪ It came as quite a shock. ▪ It is something of a shock to learn/discover that she is guilty. c [noncount] : a state in which you are experiencing a sudden usually unpleasant or upsetting feeling because of something unexpected ▪ She stood there in shock as he told her what had happened. ▪ They were in a state of shock after hearing the news. = They were in shock over the news. d [count] : a sudden bad change in something ▪ Unfortunately, it's the poor who are most vulnerable to this kind of economic shock. ▪ oil/energy price shocks
2 [noncount] medical : a serious condition in which the body is not able to get enough blood to all the parts of the body ✧ Shock is caused by a severe injury, a large loss of blood, etc. ▪ She was treated/hospitalized for shock after the accident. ▪ He was in (a state of) shock. = He was suffering from shock. — see also SHELL SHOCK, TOXIC SHOCK SYNDROME
3 [count] : the effect of a strong charge of electricity passing through the body of a person or animal — usually singular ▪ When the wires touched, I got a shock. ▪ an electric shock ▪ I walked across the carpet and then got a shock when I touched the metal doorknob.
4 [count] : SHOCK ABSORBER — usually plural ▪ The car needs new shocks.
5 : a violent shake [count] an earthquake shock ▪ The building is made to withstand large shocks. — often + of ▪ the shock of the explosion [noncount] The car's bumper absorbs shock on impact.
a shock to the/your system : something that has a sudden and usually unpleasant effect on you ▪ The cold weather was a shock to my system after being in the tropics. ▪ For freshmen, college life can be a real shock to the system.
– compare [4]SHOCK

[2]shock verb shocks; shocked; shock•ing
1 [+ obj] : to surprise and usually upset (someone) ▪ The attack shocked the world. ▪ His anger shocked us. — often used as (be) shocked ▪ They were shocked to discover/learn that their son was taking drugs. — often + at or by ▪ I am shocked at/by how easy it was to do. ▪ Everyone was deeply shocked at/by her behavior. ▪ We were shocked by the news of her death. — often + into ▪ We were shocked into silence by what we saw. [=we were so surprised and upset by what we saw that we could not say anything] ▪ The news was so upsetting that people were finally shocked into (taking) action.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : to cause (someone) to feel horror or disgust [+ obj] He enjoys shocking his readers. ▪ I was shocked by their bad language. [no obj] The art exhibit is meant to shock.

– shocked adj ▪ She had a shocked look on her face. ▪ He stood in shocked silence after hearing the news.

[3]shock adj, always used before a noun — used to describe something that surprises and usually upsets people ▪ Bikinis have lost their shock effect. [=bikinis no longer shock people] ▪ It was a shock [=very surprising] defeat/victory for the team. ▪ He dresses as a woman for shock value. [=in order to shock people] ▪ I don't think there's anything wrong with using shock tactics [=actions, images, stories, etc., that surprise and upset people] to discourage people from driving while drunk. ▪ shock radio/TV [=radio/television programs that are meant to shock and usually offend people] shock horror Brit, informal — used to say that you are surprised by something unpleasant or upsetting when you really are not ▪ Teenagers are—shock horror—having sex.

[4]shock noun, pl shocks [count] : a thick and full mass of hair — usually singular ▪ a shock of hair — compare [1]SHOCK shock absorber noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a device that is connected to the wheel of a vehicle in order to reduce the effects of traveling on a rough surface ▪ The car needs new shock absorbers.

shock•er /ˈʃɑːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : something that shocks people ▪ The ending of the movie is a real shocker. ▪ Their divorce was a shocker.

shock•ing /ˈʃɑːkɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very surprising and upsetting or causing a sudden feeling of horror or disgust ▪ a shocking crime ▪ The fact that he was married to another woman was a shocking discovery. = It was shocking to discover that he was married to another woman. ▪ shocking news ▪ The number of young teenagers who smoke is shocking.

2 chiefly Brit, informal : very bad ▪ a shocking waste of money/time ▪ The building is in a shocking state.

– shock•ing•ly adv ▪ The movie was shockingly violent.

shocking pink noun [noncount] : a very bright pink color – shocking–pink adj ▪ a shocking-pink dress shock jock noun, pl ~ jocks [count] chiefly US : a person who talks on the radio and says things that are offensive to many people : a radio disc jockey who says shocking things shock•proof /ˈʃɑːkˌpruːf/ adj : not damaged if dropped, hit, etc. : resistant to shock ▪ The watch is supposed to be waterproof and shockproof.

shock therapy noun [noncount] : a treatment for mental illness in which the patient is given electric shocks — called also ECT, electroconvulsive therapy, shock treatment shock troops noun [plural]

1 : troops who are specially trained for sudden attacks against an enemy ▪ Shock troops were sent in for a surprise attack.

2 : a group of people who are very active in fighting for a cause ▪ the shock troops of the civil rights movement shock wave noun, pl ~ waves [count]

1 : a movement of extremely high air pressure that is caused by an explosion, an earthquake, etc.

2 : a usually negative response or reaction that many people have to a particular thing ▪ The decision created a shock wave of criticism. — usually plural ▪ The court's ruling sent shock waves throughout the nation.

shod /ˈʃɑːd/ adj, literary : wearing shoes — often + in ▪ His feet were shod in slippers. = He was shod in slippers. [=he was wearing slippers] shod•dy /ˈʃɑːdi/ adj shod•di•er; -est : poorly done or made ▪ shoddy work/workmanship/furniture/goods ▪ They gave a shoddy performance. ▪ shoddy journalism

– shod•di•ly /ˈʃɑːdəli/ adv ▪ a shoddily built barn ▪ a shoddily managed business – shod•di•ness /ˈʃɑːdinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]shoe /ˈʃuː/ noun, pl shoes

1 [count] : an outer covering for your foot that usually has a stiff bottom part called a sole with a thicker part called a heel attached to it and an upper part that covers part or all of the top of your foot ▪ She bought a pair of shoes. ▪ He took off his shoes and socks. ▪ high-heeled shoes ▪ dress shoes [=shoes for formal events or times] ▪ athletic/running shoes ▪ shoe polish ▪ a shoe store/shop

2 shoes [plural] : another person's situation or position ▪ I wouldn't want to be in his shoes right now. ▪ Anyone in her shoes would have done the same thing. ▪ Try to put yourself in their shoes [=try to imagine yourself in their situation] and think of how you would want to be treated. ▪ I don't think anyone will be able to fill her shoes [=do what she does as well as she does it] after she retires. ▪ He stepped into the shoes [=took the role] of president with ease.

3 [count] : a flat U-shaped piece of iron that is nailed to the bottom of a horse's hoof : HORSESHOE

4 [count] : the part of a brake that presses on the wheel of a vehicle — usually plural ▪ The brake shoes are worn out.

if the shoe fits or if the shoe fits, wear it US — used to say that something said or suggested about a person is true and that the person should accept it as true ▪ "Are you calling me a cheater?" "Well, if the shoe fits, wear it." [=(Brit) if the cap fits, wear it]

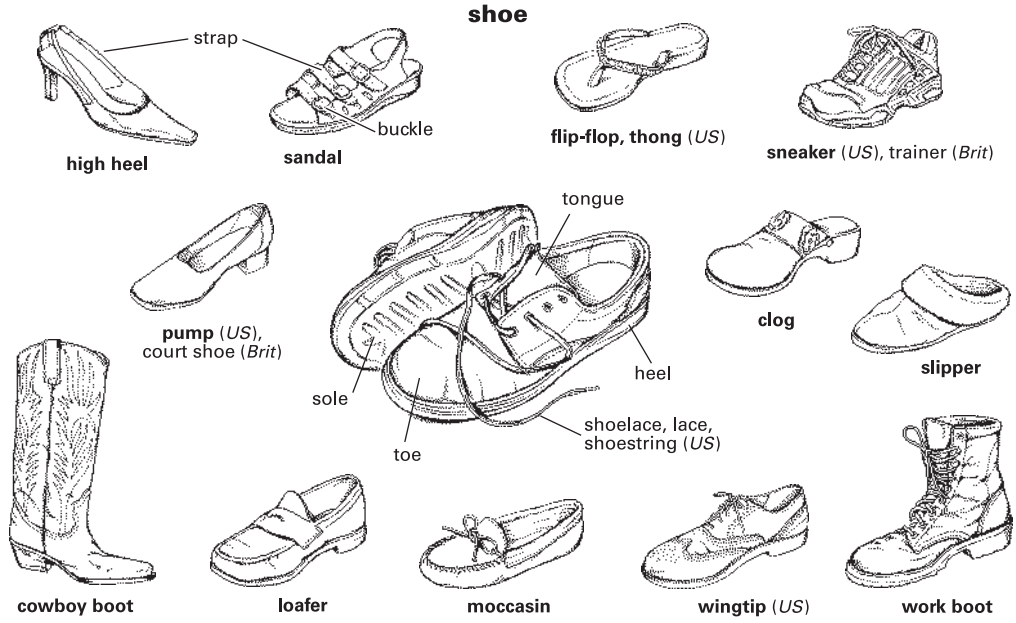
shoe



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

the shoe is on the other foot see [1]FOOT

[2]shoe verb shoes; shod /ˈʃɑːd/ also chiefly US shoed /ˈʃuːd/; shoe•ing /ˈʃuːwɪŋ/ [+ obj] : to put a horseshoe on (a horse) ▪ The blacksmith shod the horse. ▪ The horse was taken to be shod.

shoe•box /ˈʃuːˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count]
1 : a box that shoes are sold in
2 : a very small home, apartment, room, etc. ▪ Their apartment was just a shoebox.

[1]shoe•horn /ˈʃuːˌhoɚn/ noun, pl -horns [count] : a curved device that you use to slide the heel of your foot into a shoe

[2]shoehorn verb -horns; -horned; -horn•ing [+ obj] : to force (something or someone) into a small space, a short period of time, etc. ▪ A parking garage has been shoehorned between the buildings. ▪ She's trying to shoehorn a year's worth of classes into a single semester. ▪ I don't know how they managed to shoehorn everyone into that little room.

shoe•lace /ˈʃuːˌleɪs/ noun, pl -lac•es [count] : a long, thin material like a string that is used for fastening a shoe ▪ Tie your shoelaces. ▪ Your shoelace is undone/untied. — called also lace, (US) shoestring; see picture at SHOE shoe•mak•er /ˈʃuːˌmeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who makes or repairs shoes – shoe•mak•ing /ˈʃuːˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] shoe•shine /ˈʃuːˌʃaɪn/ noun, pl -shines [count] : the act of polishing someone's shoes in exchange for money — usually singular ▪ Mister, would you like a shoeshine? — often used before another noun ▪ a shoeshine boy/man [=a boy/man who earns money by polishing/shining shoes] ▪ a shoeshine stand shoe•string /ˈʃuːˌstrɪŋ/ noun, pl -strings

1 [count] US : SHOELACE
2 [singular] informal : a small amount of money — usually used in the phrase on a shoestring ▪ She started/began the business on a shoestring. [=using very little money] ▪ The newspaper operates/runs on a shoestring. ▪ The movie was made on a shoestring. — often used before another noun ▪ The business is operating on a shoestring budget. ▪ The store is a shoestring operation right now.

shoestring catch noun, pl ∼ catches [count] baseball : a catch made when the ball is just above the ground ▪ The left fielder made a shoestring catch.

shoestring potatoes noun [plural] US : potatoes cut into very thin long pieces and fried in deep fat : very thin french fries shoe tree noun, pl ∼ trees [count] : a device shaped like a foot that is placed inside a shoe when it is not being worn to keep it the right shape sho•gun /ˈʃoʊgən/ noun, pl -guns [count] : any one of the military leaders who ruled Japan until the revolution of 1867–68

shone past tense and past participle of [1]SHINE

[1]shoo /ˈʃuː/ interj — used when repeatedly moving your hand away from you in a short motion with your fingers down to tell an animal or person to leave ▪ Shoo! Get out of here!

[2]shoo verb shoos; shooed; shoo•ing [+ obj] : to tell (an animal or person) to leave ▪ We tried to help her, but she shooed us away. ▪ He shooed the cat out of the house.

shoo–in /ˈʃuːˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] chiefly US, informal : someone or something that will win easily or is certain to win ▪ The horse is a shoo-in to win the race. — often + for ▪ a shoo-in for the tournament/job/award shook past tense of [1]SHAKE

[1]shoot /ˈʃuːt/ verb shoots; shot /ˈʃɑːt/; shoot•ing
1 a : to cause a bullet, arrow, etc., to move forward with great force from a weapon [no obj] Does this gun shoot accurately? ▪ Don't shoot. I surrender. ▪ He shot at the deer. ▪ The enemy was shooting at the rescue helicopter. ▪ The sniper was shooting to kill. [=shooting with the purpose of killing someone] [+ obj] She shot the arrow into the air. ▪ I tried shooting a gun for the first time. ▪ He shot a spitball into the girl's hair. ▪ a stunt in which she was shot from a cannon b [+ obj] : to wound or kill (a person or animal) with a bullet, arrow, etc., that is shot from a weapon ▪ He shot two deer this hunting season. ▪ The police shot the suspect in the leg. ▪ She accidentally shot herself in the foot. ▪ Two people were shot dead [=killed with bullets] during the robbery. ▪ The guards were ordered to shoot on sight anyone who tried to escape. [=to immediately shoot anyone they saw trying to escape] c [+ obj] : to remove or destroy (something) with a bullet, rocket, etc., that is shot from a weapon — often + off ▪ He shot the lock off the door. — often + out ▪ She shot out the lights.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition a : to go, move, or pass quickly and suddenly in a particular direction or to a particular place [no obj] They shot past us on skis. ▪ A cat shot [=darted] across the street. ▪ Sparks from the fire were shooting all over. ▪ A sharp pain shot through her chest. ▪ The album shot straight to number one on the charts. [+ obj] The frog shot out its tongue at a fly. ▪ The album shot the band straight to the top of the charts. b : to flow forcefully or to cause (something) to flow forcefully in a particular direction or to a particular place [no obj] Blood was shooting [=spurting] from her neck. [+ obj] The snake shot venom into his eyes.
3 a sports : to kick, hit, or throw (a basketball, hockey puck, etc.) toward or into a goal [+ obj] She shot the ball from midfield. ▪ He shot the eight ball into the side pocket. [no obj] He shoots; he scores! ▪ You can't really play hockey if you don't have a goal to shoot at. b [+ obj] basketball : to score (a goal) by shooting ▪ He shot 10 field goals during the game. ▪ She is outside shooting baskets. [=practicing basketball] c [+ obj] golf : to achieve (a particular score) ▪ She shot an 81. ▪ He shot a hole in one. d [+ obj] : to play (a sport or game) ▪ They are in the back shooting craps/dice. ✧ This sense is usually used with sports or games that involve shooting a ball. ▪ They shot a round of golf. ▪ Let's shoot some pool. ▪ (US, informal) Let's shoot some hoops. [=let's play basketball]
4 : to film or photograph (something) [+ obj] The movie was shot in Australia. ▪ The scene was shot in slow motion. ▪ Where did you shoot [=take] this photo? [no obj] The director says we'll begin shooting [=filming] next week.
5 [+ obj] : to direct (a look, comment, etc.) at (someone) quickly and suddenly ▪ She shot her sister a disapproving glance/look. — usually + at ▪ She shot a disapproving glance/look at her sister. ▪ He shot some angry words at me when the others left the room.
6 [no obj] US, informal — used to tell someone to begin to speak ▪ You wanted to tell me something? OK, shoot. ▪ "Can I ask you a few questions?" "Shoot."
7 [+ obj] informal : to inject (an illegal drug) into a vein ▪ She began shooting heroin when she was 20.

have shot your bolt see [1]BOLT shoot daggers at see DAGGER shoot down [phrasal verb] 1 *shoot down (something) or shoot (something) down a : to cause (something) to fall to the ground by hitting it with a bullet, rocket, etc., that is shot from a weapon ▪ The helicopter was shot down. b : to end or defeat (something) ▪ The bill was shot down in the Senate. ▪ Her hopes were shot down. c : to reject (something) completely ▪ My idea was immediately shot down. = My idea was shot down in flames. 2 *shoot down (someone) or shoot (someone) down a : to kill (someone) with a bullet shot from a gun ▪ He was shot down in cold blood. ▪ Someone shot him down. b informal : to refuse to accept the offer made by (someone) ▪ I asked her on a date, but she shot me down. [=she said no to me] shoot for [phrasal verb] shoot for (something) chiefly US, informal : to have (something) as a goal ▪ "When would you like to have this completed by?" "Let's shoot for [=aim for] Friday."

shoot for the moon see [1]MOON shoot from the hip : to act or speak quickly without thinking about the possible results ▪ I admit I'm shooting from the hip here, but I think it's a decent idea.

shoot it out : to shoot guns at someone during a fight until one side is killed or defeated ▪ The two gangs shot it out in the street. — often + with ▪ The escaped convict shot it out with the police. — see also SHOOT-OUT shoot off [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to leave a place quickly and suddenly ▪ I have to shoot off to my next appointment.

shoot the breeze also shoot the bull US, informal : to talk informally about unimportant things ▪ I enjoy shooting the breeze with my neighbors.

shoot the messenger see MESSENGER shoot the rapids : to move quickly in a river where the water flows very fast usually over rocks ▪ whitewater rafters shooting the rapids shoot the shit US, informal + offensive : to talk informally about unimportant things : to shoot the breeze shoot up [phrasal verb] 1 : to grow or increase quickly and

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 66 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

suddenly ▪ He shot up to six feet tall over the summer. ▪ Sales have shot up this month. 2 *shoot up or shoot up (something) informal : to inject an illegal drug into a vein ▪ They shot up before the party. ▪ shooting up heroin 3 *shoot up (something) or shoot (something) up : to shoot many bullets at or inside (something) ▪ He walked in and just started shooting up the place. ▪ He shot the place up.

shoot your mouth off also shoot off at the mouth informal : to talk foolishly, carelessly, or too much about something ▪ She tends to shoot her mouth off. ▪ Try not to shoot your mouth off about this to anyone.

shoot yourself in the foot informal : to do or say something that causes trouble for yourself ▪ By complaining about this you're only bringing attention to your mistakes. You're shooting yourself in the foot.

[2]shoot noun, pl shoots [count]

1 a : the part of a new plant that is just beginning to grow above the ground b : a new branch and its leaves on an established plant ▪ Small green shoots grew from the base of the tree.

2 a : an occasion when a movie, television show, etc., is being filmed ▪ She is currently on a movie shoot in London. b : PHOTO SHOOT

3 chiefly Brit a : an occasion when people hunt and kill wild animals ▪ They went on a duck shoot. [=hunt] b : a piece of usually privately owned land that is used for hunting ▪ a 5,000-acre shoot

[3]shoot interj, US — used to show that you are annoyed or surprised ▪ "We've missed the train!" "Oh, shoot!"

shoot•around /ˈʃuːtəˌraʊnd/ noun, pl -arounds [count] US : a usually informal basketball practice shoot–'em–up /ˈʃuːtəmˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] informal : a movie, television show, or video game that has a lot of killing with guns, bombs, etc.

shoot•er /ˈʃuːtə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a person who shoots a weapon ▪ The police are looking for the shooter. — see also SHARPSHOOTER b : a person who throws, kicks, or hits a ball or puck

2 : a small amount (called a shot) of liquor (such as whiskey or tequila) often mixed with another liquid ▪ a whiskey shooter

– see also SIX-SHOOTER, TROUBLESHOOTER

[1]shooting adj, always used before a noun

1 a : relating to the act of shooting a gun ▪ a shooting range b : relating to an occurrence in which a person is shot with a gun ▪ The shooting victims [=the people who were shot] remain hospitalized. ▪ a shooting death [=a death caused by being shot]

2 : relating to the action of photographing or filming someone or something ▪ the movie's shooting schedule

3 : moving through part of your body in sudden painful bursts ▪ I've been having shooting pains in my leg.

[2]shooting noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : an occurrence in which a person is shot with a gun ▪ There was a shooting last night.

2 [noncount] : the activity or sport of killing wild animals with a gun ▪ They are going shooting [=(more commonly) going hunting] this weekend.

3 [noncount] : the action of photographing or filming someone or something ▪ Shooting of the movie begins next week.

shooting gallery noun, pl ∼ -ler•ies [count] : a place where people shoot guns at objects for practice or to win prizes shooting guard noun, pl ∼ guards [count] basketball : a player who is one of the two guards on a team and whose main role is to score points shooting match noun

the whole shooting match informal : the entire thing : EVERYTHING ▪ They said that they would pay for the food, music, decorations—the whole shooting match.

shooting star noun, pl ∼ stars [count] : a streak of light in the night sky that looks like a star falling but that is actually a piece of rock or metal (called a meteor) falling from outer space into the Earth's atmosphere shoot–out /ˈʃuːtˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a fight in which people shoot guns at each other until one side is killed or defeated

2 soccer or hockey : a competition that is used to decide the winner at the end of a tie game by giving each team a particular number of chances to shoot the ball or puck into the goal

3 : a competition between two people or groups that remains very close until the end ▪ The two studios are in a shoot-out for the movie rights to the novel.

[1]shop /ʃɑːp/ noun, pl shops

1 [count] a : a building or room where goods and services are sold — see also BARBERSHOP, BOOKSHOP, COFFEE SHOP, PAWNSHOP, PRO SHOP, SPECIALTY SHOP, THRIFT SHOP usage In U.S. English, store is more common than shop. When shop is used, it is usually for particular types of small businesses that sell one kind of product or service. Store is used for both small and large businesses, especially ones that sell many kinds of goods and services. In British English store is only used for large businesses that sell many kinds of goods and services and for a few types of smaller business that sell equipment. ▪ (US + Brit) a gift/sandwich/doughnut/flower shop ▪ (US + Brit) an antique shop [=(US) store] ▪ (US + Brit) a pet/card shop [=(US, more commonly) store] ▪ (Brit) a computer shop [=(US + Brit) store] ▪ (Brit) a hardware shop [=(US + Brit) store] ▪ (Brit) The shops [=(US) stores] are always crowded around the holiday season. ▪ (Brit) I'm going to the shops this afternoon. [=(US) I'm going shopping this afternoon; I'm going to stores to look at and buy things]

b : the place where a specified kind of worker works : a worker's place of business ▪ (US) the butcher shop = (Brit) the butcher's shop ▪ (Brit) a chemist's shop [=(US) drugstore]

2 [count] : a place for making or repairing goods, machinery, vehicles, etc. ▪ a repair shop ▪ I took the car to the shop to get new brakes. — see also BODY SHOP, MACHINE SHOP, SWEATSHOP, WORKSHOP

3 [noncount] US : a class in school in which students are taught to work with tools and machinery ▪ I am taking shop this semester. ▪ I made a table in shop.; also [count] : a room in which a shop class is taught ▪ The wood/metal shop is down the hall.

4 [noncount] informal : talk that is related to or about your work or special interests : SHOPTALK ▪ They are always talking shop.

5 [singular] Brit, informal : the activity of shopping for food or other things that are needed regularly ▪ I did my weekly shop. [=(US) (grocery/food) shopping]

a bull in a china shop see [1]BULL all over the shop Brit : all over the place : EVERYWHERE close up shop see [1]CLOSE mind the shop see [2]MIND set up shop : to start a business or activity in a particular place ▪ The restaurant set up shop three blocks from here. ▪ He moved to France, where he set up shop as a writer. ▪ I set up shop in the living room and made phone calls all afternoon.

[2]shop verb shops; shopped; shop•ping

1 : to visit places where goods are sold in order to look at and buy things [no obj] Where do you like to shop? ▪ I like to shop at locally owned stores. ▪ They shopped all day. = They spent the day shopping. ▪ She is shopping for a new car. ▪ He is out shopping. ▪ Many people now shop online. [+ obj] (US) They shopped the store(s) in search of gift ideas. [=looked throughout the store(s) for a gift to buy] — see also COMPARISON SHOP, WINDOW-SHOP

2 [+ obj] US : to try to get a company to publish or produce (something) ▪ She's shopping her idea for a film. — often + around ▪ He shopped his manuscript around, but no publishers were interested.

3 [+ obj] Brit, informal : to give information about the secret or criminal activity of (someone) to an authority (such as the police) ▪ His own mother shopped him to the police.

shop around [phrasal verb] : to visit several different places where a thing is sold in order to find the most suitable item or service for the lowest price ▪ She is shopping around for a new car. ▪ Shop around first before you buy a car. ▪ She is shopping around for a bank with low fees. — see also [2]SHOP 2 (above)

– shop•per /ˈʃɑːpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] ▪ The stores were crowded with shoppers. ▪ Christmas shoppers [=people who are shopping for Christmas gifts] shop•a•hol•ic /ˌʃɑːpəˈhɑːlɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] informal : a person who likes to shop very much shop–bought adj, Brit : STORE-BOUGHT shop oor noun [singular] Brit : the area where products are made in a factory ▪ proper safety procedures for the shop floor ▪ managerial control of the shop floor [=of the workers in a factory]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

shop front noun, pl ~ fronts [count] : STOREFRONT shop•keep•er /ˈʃɑːpˌkiːpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who owns or manages a shop or store : STOREKEEPER shop•lift /ˈʃɑːpˌlɪft/ verb -lifts; -lift•ed; -lift•ing : to steal things from a shop or store [no obj] The manager saw the kids shoplift and called the police. ▪ He was caught shoplifting. [+ obj] The kids shoplifted candy from the store.

– shop•lift•er /ˈʃɑːpˌlɪftə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Police watched for shoplifters. – shoplifting noun [noncount] ▪ She was arrested for shoplifting.

shoppe /ˈʃɑːp/ noun, pl shoppes [count] old-fashioned : [1]SHOP 1a — used in the names of small businesses that sell one type of product or service ▪ Amy's Toy Shoppe ▪ a new mall called "The Shoppes at Woodford Hills"

shopping noun [noncount]

1 : the activity of visiting places where goods are sold in order to look at and buy things (such as food, clothing, etc.) ▪ We do (our) grocery shopping once a week. = We go grocery shopping once a week. [=we shop for groceries once a week] ▪ I can do your shopping for you. ▪ When are you going to do the shopping? ▪ I'm going shopping. [=(Brit) going to the shops] ▪ We went shopping for a gift at the mall. — often used before another noun ▪ a shopping area/basket/cart ▪ We're going on a shopping trip in New York City. ▪ a shopping bag [=(Brit) carrier bag; a bag that a store gives you to carry any items you have bought there] ▪ We went on a shopping spree. [=we bought a lot of things in a short period of time]

2 Brit : the things that are bought at a shop or store ▪ Put the shopping in the car.

shopping cart noun, pl ~ carts [count] : [1]CART 2 shopping center (US) or Brit shopping centre noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a group of shops or stores in one area — called also shopping plaza shopping list noun, pl ~ lists [count]

1 : a list of things to be bought at a shop or store

2 : a long list of related things ▪ a shopping list [=laundry list] of things to be fixed around the house shopping mall noun, pl ~ malls [count] chiefly US : a large building or group of buildings containing many different stores : MALL

shop–soiled /ˈʃɑːpˌsɔjəld/ adj, Brit : SHOPWORN shop steward noun, pl ~ -ards [count] : a member of a labor union in a factory or company who is elected by the other members to meet with the managers shop•talk /ˈʃɑːpˌtɑːk/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : talk that is related to your work or special interests ▪ There was a lot of shoptalk at the office party.

shop•worn /ˈʃɑːpˌwoən/ adj, US

1 : faded or damaged from being in a shop or store for too long ▪ shopworn [=(Brit) shop-soiled] books/goods

2 : not interesting because of being used too often ▪ shopworn [=(Brit) shop-soiled] stories/sayings/clichés

[1]shore /ˈʃoə/ noun, pl shores

1 : the land along the edge of an area of water (such as an ocean, lake, etc.) [count] a rocky/sandy shore [=coast] ▪ Houses were built on the shores of the lake. ▪ The boat hugged the shore. [=stayed close to the shore] [noncount] We swam to shore. ▪ The boat was about a mile from shore. ▪ The boat headed for shore.

2 shores [plural] literary : a country that touches a sea or ocean : a country that has a coast ▪ My family came to these shores [=came to this country] 100 years ago. ▪ The plant was brought to our shores from Europe. ▪ We arrived on American/British shores.

[2]shore verb shores; shored; shor•ing

shore up [phrasal verb] shore (something) up or shore up (something) 1 : to support (something) or keep (something) from falling by placing something under or against it ▪ They shored up [=propped up] the roof/wall. 2 : to support or help (something) ▪ The tax cuts are supposed to shore up the economy. ▪ The new player should shore up the team's defense.

shore leave noun [noncount] : official permission for a sailor to leave a ship and go onto land for a period of time shore•line /ˈʃoəˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines : the land along the edge of an area of water (such as an ocean, lake, etc.) : a coast or shore [count] rocky shorelines ▪ The road runs along the shoreline. [noncount] 1,000 miles of shoreline

shorn past participle of SHEAR

[1]short /ˈʃoət/ adj short•er; -est

1 a : extending a small distance from one end to the other end : having little length : not long ▪ Her hair is short. = She has short hair. ▪ It's just a short distance from here. = It's just a short distance away. ▪ the shortest rope ▪ One of my legs is slightly shorter than the other. ▪ The coat is short on him. = The coat is too short for him. [=the coat should be longer in order to fit him correctly] b : not great in distance ▪ a short walk/drive/trip ▪ This way is shorter. c : having little height : not tall ▪ He is short for his age. ▪ a short girl

2 a : lasting or continuing for a small amount of time : BRIEF ▪ a short delay/vacation/speech ▪ the shortest day of the year ▪ Life's too short to worry about the past. ▪ The movie/meeting was very short. ▪ You have done a lot in a short space/period of time. ▪ a short burst of speed ▪ I've only lived here for a short time/while. ▪ It's just a short walk from here. [=you can walk there from here in a few minutes] ▪ She has a very short memory. [=she forgets about events, conversations, etc., soon after they happen] b always used before a noun : seeming to pass quickly ▪ She has made great progress in a few short years. ▪ He visited for two short weeks.

3 : having few pages, items, etc. ▪ a short book/poem ▪ I have a list of things I need to do before we go, but it's pretty short. ▪ short sentences

4 of clothing : covering only part of the arms or legs ▪ boys in short pants ▪ a shirt with short sleeves [=sleeves that end at or above the elbows] ▪ a short skirt [=a skirt that ends above the knees and especially several inches above the knees]

5 a : existing in less than the usual or needed amount ▪ We should hurry. Time is short. [=we don't have much time] ▪ Money has been short lately. [=I haven't had enough money lately] ▪ Gasoline is in short supply. [=little gasoline is available] ▪ (US) We can be ready on short notice. = (Brit) We can be ready at short notice. [=very quickly] ▪ (US) Thank you for meeting with me on such short notice. = (Brit) Thank you for meeting with me at such short notice. [=even though you did not know that I wanted to meet with you until a short time ago] b not used before a noun : having less than what is needed : not having enough of something ▪ I can't pay the bill. I'm a little short (of money). [=I don't have enough money] ▪ The team was short (by) two players. = The team was two players short. — often + on ▪ short on time/food/money ▪ She's a little short on patience today. [=she is feeling somewhat impatient] ▪ He's not short on self-confidence. [=he has plenty of self-confidence] ▪ He was long on criticism but short on useful advice. [=he was very critical but did not give any useful advice] c : less than — used in the phrase nothing short of to give emphasis to a statement or description ▪ His recovery is nothing short of a miracle. = His recovery is nothing short of miraculous. [=his recovery is a miracle; his recovery is miraculous] d : not reaching far enough ▪ The throw to first base was short. ▪ a short throw

6 : made smaller by having part removed ▪ a short tax form — often + for ▪ "Doc" is short for "doctor." ▪ "Ben" is short for "Benjamin." ▪ "www" is short for "World Wide Web."

7 not used before a noun : talking to someone in a very brief and unfriendly way : rudely brief ▪ I'm sorry I was short [=abrupt, curt] with you.

8 linguistics, of a vowel — used to identify certain vowel sounds in English ▪ long and short vowels ▪ the short "a" in "bad" ▪ the short "e" in "bet" ▪ the short "i" in "sit" ▪ the short "o" in "hot" ▪ the short "u" in "but" — compare [1]LONG 6

a short fuse see [2]FUSE draw the short straw see [1]DRAW fall short see [1]FALL

in short order : quickly and without delay ▪ In short order the group set up camp. ▪ The papers were organized in short order.

make short work of see [2]WORK

short and sweet : pleasantly brief : not lasting a long time or requiring a lot of time ▪ That's the way we like the meetings—short and sweet. ▪ I've got a few announcements, but I'll keep it short and sweet. [=I will talk for only a few minutes] short of breath ✧ If you are short of breath, it is difficult for you to breathe. ▪ He is overweight and gets short of breath [=out of breath] just walking to his car. ▪ She was short of breath and unable to talk after her run.

the short end of the stick see [1]STICK

– short•ness /ˈʃoətnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ I was surprised by the shortness of the meeting. ▪ One symptom is shortness of breath.

[2]short adv short•er; -est

1 : to or at a point that is not as far as expected or desired : to a point not reaching what is needed for something ▪ The

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

ball fell short. ▪ He threw the ball short. ▪ He began to run/answer and then pulled up short. [=stopped suddenly and did not finish] ▪ We made as many cookies as we could, but we came up short [=we had fewer than we needed to have] and there weren't enough for everyone. ▪ Time is running short. [=there is little time left to do, accomplish, etc., something] — often + of ▪ He finished in 30 seconds—just one second short of the world record. [=he finished in 30 seconds and the world record is 29 seconds] ▪ She quit school a month short of [=before] graduation. ▪ We came up short of [=we did not achieve] our goal. ▪ Sales for the month came short of our estimates. [=we sold less than we had predicted we would sell] ▪ The attack was just short of a full invasion. ▪ She's just short of six feet tall. [=she is almost six feet tall] ▪ The performance was just short of perfection. = The performance was (only a) little short of perfect. ▪ The running back was stopped short of the goal line. [=was stopped just before the goal line] ▪ He stopped well short of the line. [=long before reaching the line] ▪ The boss said that she was unhappy with some employees, but she stopped short of naming which ones. [=but she did not say which employees she was unhappy with] ▪ We have plenty of shirts left, but we're running short of [=running out of] smaller sizes. [=the available supply of smaller sizes is almost used up]

2 : in a sudden manner ▪ The hunter stopped short [=suddenly] when he saw the deer. ▪ I was wandering through the exhibit when I was brought up short by a striking photograph. [=when a striking photograph made me suddenly stop]

3 : for or during a short time ▪ Her career was short-lasting.

4 : in a way that makes something short ▪ Keep the grass mowed short. ▪ Her dark hair was cut/cropped short. [=she had short hair]

caught short see [1]CATCH cut short : to end (something) earlier than expected ▪ We had to cut our vacation short. ▪ The speech was cut short. [=the speech was interrupted and not finished]

fall short see [1]FALL

sell (someone or something) short see [1]SELL short of : except for (something) : other than (something) ▪ Short of replacing the motor, I have tried everything to fix the car. ▪ Short of a catastrophe [=unless something terrible happens], I think we'll succeed.

taken/caught short Brit, informal : suddenly needing to use a toilet when there is no toilet available

[3]short noun, pl shorts

1 shorts [plural] a : pants that end at or above the knees ▪ a pair of shorts ▪ Your shorts are dirty. ▪ short shorts [=shorts that cover very little of the legs] — see color picture on page C14; see also BERMUDA SHORTS b : BOXER SHORTS

2 [count] : a short movie ▪ The short before the main movie was very funny.

3 [count] : SHORT CIRCUIT

4 [noncount] baseball, informal : SHORTSTOP ▪ Who's playing short?

5 [count] Brit : a small amount of liquor that you drink quickly : SHOT ▪ a short of vodka for short : in a shorter form : as an abbreviation ▪ My name is Benjamin, or Ben for short.

in short : in a few words — used to indicate that you are saying something in as few words as possible ▪ The trip was, in short, a disaster. ▪ In short [=in summary], the company is doing extremely well.

the long and (the) short of it see [3]LONG

[4]short verb shorts; short•ed; short•ing

1 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to have a short circuit : SHORT-CIRCUIT ▪ The lightning shorted the TV. — often + out in U.S. English ▪ Water shorted out the flashlight.

2 [no obj] : to stop working because of a short circuit : SHORT-CIRCUIT ▪ The hair dryer must have shorted. — often + out in U.S. English ▪ The toaster oven shorted out.

short•age /'ʃoɚtɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es : a state in which there is not enough of something that is needed [count] a gasoline/water shortage — often + of ▪ a shortage of cash/gasoline/teachers/water ▪ There is no shortage of restaurants [=there are many restaurants] in the city. [noncount] (chiefly Brit) ▪ periods of food shortage short•bread /'ʃoɚtˌbrɛd/ noun [noncount] : a thick cookie made of flour, sugar, and a lot of butter or other shortening short•cake /'ʃoɚtˌkeɪk/ noun [noncount]

1 chiefly US : a dessert made with a rich cake that is served with sweetened fruit on top ▪ strawberry shortcake

2 chiefly Brit : SHORTBREAD short•change /ˌʃoɚtˈʧeɪnʤ/ verb -chang•es; -changed; -chang•ing [+ obj]

1 : to give (someone) less than the correct amount of change ▪ The cashier shortchanged me. I gave her 10 dollars to pay for an $8.95 book, and she only gave me a dollar back.

2 : to give (someone) less than what is expected or deserved ▪ The band shortchanged its fans by playing for only 30 minutes. — often used as (be) shortchanged ▪ He was shortchanged [=was cheated] out of a promotion (by the company). ▪ Many people felt they were being shortchanged by the policy. = Many people felt shortchanged by the policy.

short circuit noun, pl ~ circuits [count] : the failure of electricity to flow properly in a circuit because the wires or connections in the circuit are damaged or not connected properly ▪ The fire was caused by a short circuit.

short–circuit verb -circuits; -circuited; -circuiting

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to have a short circuit ▪ The lightning short-circuited the TV. b [no obj] : to stop working because of a short circuit ▪ The lamp must have short-circuited.

2 [+ obj] : to avoid doing (something) ▪ The owners short-circuited [=bypassed, circumvented] the required inspection.

3 [+ obj] : to stop (efforts, plans, etc.) from succeeding ▪ The lawyers short-circuited [=frustrated, impeded] any attempt to sue the company.

short•com•ing /'ʃoɚtˌkʌmɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]

1 : a weakness in someone's character : a personal fault or failing ▪ Her lack of attention to detail is her biggest shortcoming. — usually plural ▪ He has many more strengths than shortcomings.

2 : a bad feature : a flaw or defect in something ▪ The main/major shortcoming of this camera is that it uses up batteries quickly.

short•cut /'ʃoɚtˌkʌt/ noun, pl -cuts [count]

1 : a shorter, quicker, or easier way to get to a place ▪ Wait, I know a shortcut. Turn left here. ▪ We took a shortcut home. ▪ Let's take the shortcut through the woods.

2 : a quicker or easier way to do something ▪ I used a shortcut to calculate the total weight. ▪ There are no shortcuts to/for learning another language. ▪ Mistakes were made because too many shortcuts were taken.

short•en /'ʃoɚtn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [no obj] : to become shorter ▪ The days have begun to shorten. [=last for a smaller amount of time]

2 [+ obj] : to make (something) shorter ▪ shorten a pair of pants ▪ He had to shorten the speech. ▪ Not changing the oil regularly will shorten the life of the engine. [=will cause the engine to fail sooner] ▪ "Franklin D. Roosevelt" is often shortened to "FDR."

– shortened adj ▪ "I've" is the shortened form of "I have." ▪ I heard a shortened version of the song on the radio.

short•en•ing /'ʃoɚtnɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a fat (such as butter) that is used in cooking or baking short•fall /'ʃoɚtˌfɑːl/ noun, pl -falls [count] formal : a failure to get what is expected or needed ▪ a shortfall in milk production ▪ profit shortfalls ▪ We had a budget shortfall. [=our costs were higher than the available amount of money]; also : the amount of such a failure ▪ a $2 million shortfall = a shortfall of $2 million [=$2 million less than is needed]

short•hair /'ʃoɚtˌheɚ/ noun, pl -hairs [count] : a cat that has short, thick fur — compare LONGHAIR short–haired adj : having short fur or hair ▪ short-haired cats ▪ a short-haired student — opposite LONG-HAIRED short•hand /'ʃoɚtˌhænd/ noun [noncount]

1 : a method of writing quickly by using symbols or abbreviations for sounds, words, or phrases : STENOGRAPHY ▪ The notes were written in shorthand. [=using special symbols] ▪ The secretary takes shorthand. [=writes in shorthand] — compare LONGHAND

2 : a short or quick way of showing or saying something — usually + for ▪ "ASAP" is shorthand for "as soon as possible."

– shorthand adj, always used before a noun ▪ shorthand symbols ▪ a shorthand reporter [=someone whose job is to record in shorthand exactly what is said in a court of law or in a meeting] ▪ (Brit) a shorthand typist [=(chiefly US) stenographer; someone whose job is to record in shorthand what is said and then type it] ▪ "The Far East" is a shorthand term for all the countries of eastern Asia and the Malay Archipelago.

short•hand•ed /ˌʃoɚtˈhændəd/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : having fewer than the usual number of people available ▪ The crew was shorthanded. [=someone who is usually in the crew wasn't there] ▪ a shorthanded staff ▪ We're very shorthanded this week. [=many people who are usually here are not here this week]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 always used before a noun, ice hockey : made when a team member is off the ice for a penalty ▪ a shorthanded goal short–haul /ˈʃoətˌhɑːl/ adj, always used before a noun : traveling or involving a short distance ▪ short-haul flights

shortie variant spelling of SHORTY short list noun, pl ~ lists [count] : a list of a small number of people or things that have been selected from a larger group and are being considered to receive an award, to get a job, etc. — usually singular ▪ She is on the short list for the Nobel Prize. ▪ The book is on the short list for the National Book Award.

– short–list verb -lists; -list•ed; -list•ing [+ obj] — usually used as (be) short-listed ▪ He*'s been short-listed* for the position. [=he has been put on a short list for the position] ▪ The novel was short-listed to win the award.

short–lived /ˈʃoətˈlɪvd/ adj short•er–lived; short•est–lived [or more ~; most ~] : living or lasting for a short time ▪ short-lived insects ▪ Her happiness was short-lived. — compare LONG-LIVED

short•ly /ˈʃoətli/ adv

1 : in or within a short time : SOON ▪ They should arrive shortly. ▪ I'll be ready shortly. ▪ He left shortly after/before you did. ▪ Shortly after [=soon after] she hung up, the phone rang again.

2 : in a very brief and unfriendly way ▪ "I can't help you right now," he said shortly.

short–or•der /ˈʃoətˌoədə/ adj, always used before a noun : making or serving food that can be cooked quickly when a customer orders it ▪ a short-order cook short–range /ˈʃoətˈreɪnʤ/ adj, always used before a noun short•er–range; short•est–range

1 : able to travel or be used over short distances ▪ short-range missiles/weapons ▪ a short-range radio

2 : involving a short period of time ▪ short-range [=short-term] goals ▪ a short-range weather forecast short run noun

the short run : a short period of time at the beginning of something ▪ One plan had advantages over the short run. — usually used in the phrase in the short run ▪ It won't make any difference in the short run. [=when a small amount of time has passed] ▪ These changes may improve profits in the short run [=in the short term, in the near future], but they are going to cost us money in the long run. — compare LONG RUN

– short–run adj, always used before a noun ▪ short-run benefits [=benefits that will exist or continue for a short period of time]

short–sheet verb -sheets; -sheeted; -sheeting [+ obj] US

1 : to arrange the top sheet on a bed in a way that leaves no space for the feet of a person getting into the bed ✧ Short-sheeting a bed is a playful trick. ▪ Somebody short-sheeted my bed at summer camp.

2 : to give (someone) less than what is expected or deserved ▪ Our school district was short-sheeted [=(more commonly) shortchanged] by the state government.

short shrift noun [noncount] : little or no attention or thought ▪ He gives short shrift to the author's later works. ▪ The lower classes have gotten/received short shrift from the city government. [=the city government has not paid attention to the problems of the people in the lower classes] short•sight•ed /ˈʃoətˌsaɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : not considering what will or might happen in the future ▪ shortsighted politicians who only care about how they do in the next election b : made or done without thinking about what will happen in the future ▪ The plan was dangerously shortsighted. ▪ shortsighted policies/investments — opposite (US) FARSIGHTED, (Brit) LONG-SIGHTED

2 Brit : NEARSIGHTED

– short•sight•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ We're victims of our own shortsightedness.

short–staffed adj [more ~; most ~] : having fewer than the usual number of people available ▪ The team/department is short-staffed. [=shorthanded] ▪ a short-staffed hospital short–stay adj, always used before a noun, Brit

1 : providing a specified service for short periods of time ▪ a short-stay car park

2 : staying at a place (such as a hospital or nursing home) for a short period of time ▪ short-stay patients/residents short•stop /ˈʃoətˌstɑːp/ noun, pl -stops [count] baseball : the player who defends the area between second and third base ▪ an all-star shortstop short story noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a short written story usually dealing with few characters : a short work of fiction short temper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] : a tendency to become angry easily ▪ She has a short temper.

short–tem•pered /ˌʃoətˈtɛmpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easily made angry ▪ short-tempered children ▪ She is short-tempered.

short term noun

the short term : a short period of time at the beginning of something ▪ It will meet our needs, at least for the short term. ▪ His plan has advantages over the short term. — usually used in the phrase in the short term ▪ It won't make any difference in the short term. [=when a small amount of time has passed] ▪ These changes may improve profits in the short term [=in the near future, in the short run], but they are going to cost us money in the long term. — compare LONG TERM short–term /ˈʃoətˌtəm/ adj : lasting for, relating to, or involving a short period of time ▪ the short-term effects of the plan ▪ The company is using a short-term plan/strategy to increase profits. ▪ Her memory of events that happened long ago is still okay, but her short-term memory is failing. [=it is difficult for her to remember things that happened recently] ▪ a short-term contract/investment ▪ short-term [=short-range] goals — opposite LONG-TERM short time noun [noncount] Brit : a work schedule in which an employee works fewer hours than usual ▪ The company hasn't laid anyone off, but a number of employees have been put on short time.

short•wave /ˈʃoətˌweɪv/ noun, pl -waves [count]

1 : a radio wave with a wavelength between 10 and 100 meters

2 : a radio or receiver that uses shortwaves

– shortwave adj, always used before a noun ▪ shortwave frequencies ▪ a shortwave radio/receiver shorty or short•ie /ˈʃoəti/ noun, pl short•ies [count] informal : someone who is not tall : a short person ▪ when I was just a shorty — often used as a form of address ▪ How are you today, shorty? ✧ Shorty is often used humorously but can be insulting.

[1]shot /ˈʃɑːt/ noun, pl shots

1 [count] : an act of shooting a gun ▪ Two shots were heard. = Two shots rang out. ▪ She fired a warning shot into the air. [=she fired/shot a gun into the air as a warning] ▪ He took a shot at the deer. [=he tried to shoot the deer; he fired a gun at the deer] — see also GUNSHOT, POTSHOT

2 [noncount] a : BUCKSHOT b : the objects (called ammunition) that are shot from cannons and other old-fashioned weapons ▪ musket/cannon shot — see also SLINGSHOT

3 [count] : a person who shoots a gun ▪ She is a very good shot. [=she is skilled in shooting a gun] ▪ You're not a bad shot. [=you are able to shoot a gun fairly well] — see also BIG SHOT

4 [count] : a critical or hurtful remark ▪ They took shots at each other throughout the debate. ▪ As her parting shot [=her final critical comment], she said that the other candidate simply did not understand the needs of the city's citizens. — see also CHEAP SHOT, POTSHOT

5 [count] : the act of hitting someone or something with your hand or an object ▪ The boxer got in a few good shots on his opponent. ▪ She took a shot at me [=tried to hit me] with a snowball but missed.

6 [count] a : an act of kicking, hitting, or throwing a ball or puck toward or into a goal ▪ She scored on a perfect shot from the right wing. ▪ Wow! That was a good/great shot! ▪ He made the shot. [=got the ball or puck in the goal] ▪ He took a shot [=threw the ball toward the goal] but missed. b : a ball or puck that is kicked, hit, or thrown toward or into a goal ▪ The shot went between the goalie's legs. ▪ Her shot landed on the putting green. — see also CHIP SHOT, FOUL SHOT, JUMP SHOT, SLAP SHOT

7 [count] a : an attempt to do something successfully — usually singular ▪ You should give it a shot. [=you should try to do it] ▪ I'll give you one more shot. [=I'll let you try one more time] ▪ They lost, but at least they gave it their best shot. [=try, effort] — often + at ▪ Take another shot at the math problem. ▪ I never changed a tire before, but I'll have a shot at it. ▪ I took/had a shot at (guessing) the answer and guessed right. b : a chance that something will happen or be achieved — usually singular ▪ The horse has a 12 to 1 shot of winning. ▪ It's a 10 to 1 shot that he'll be on time. — often + at ▪ The team has a good shot at winning. ▪ She has a shot at (winning) the title. — see also LONG SHOT

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

8 [count] informal : [1]PHOTOGRAPH — often + of ▪ I got some good shots [=pictures] of the kids. ▪ Be sure to take/get a couple shots of the car. — see also MUG SHOT, SNAPSHOT

9 [count] : a part of a movie or a television show that is filmed by one camera without stopping ▪ the movie's opening shot ▪ a close-up shot of a beehive

10 [count] chiefly US : an act of putting something (such as medicine or vaccine) into the body with a needle : INJECTION ▪ a flu shot — often + of ▪ a shot of morphine/Novocain

11 [count] a : a small amount of a drink and especially a strong alcoholic drink ▪ tequila shots ▪ a shot glass — often + of ▪ a shot of whisky/espresso — called also (Brit) short b : a small amount of something — often + of ▪ The pilot took a shot of oxygen. ▪ My speech could use a shot of humor.

12 [count] : a heavy metal ball that people throw as far as they can in the athletic event called the shot put a shot US, informal : for each one : APIECE ▪ They cost $5 a shot.

a shot across the/someone's bow(s) : a warning to not do something or to stop doing something ▪ The fine is a shot across the bow to an industry that thinks it can ignore the law.

a shot in the arm : something that makes someone or something stronger or more active, confident, etc. ▪ The award has given the school a much needed shot in the arm.

a shot in the dark 1 : a guess that is based on very little or no information or evidence ▪ Estimating the cost of a project like this is often a shot in the dark. 2 : an attempt that is not likely to succeed ▪ I know it's a shot in the dark, but I still think we can convince them to join us.

call the shots informal : to be in charge or control of something ▪ Who's the one who calls the shots around here?

like a shot : immediately and very quickly ▪ He started the car and took off like a shot.

[2]shot past tense and past participle of [1]SHOOT

[3]shot adj, not used before a noun

1 informal : in a very bad condition ▪ The tires on the car are shot. ▪ It's such a stressful job—my nerves are shot (to pieces).

2 a of a fabric : having threads of a different color woven in — often + with ▪ The dress is blue shot with silver. ▪ blue fabric shot through with silver thread b : having a particular color, quality, feature, etc., throughout — usually + with ▪ His stories are shot with comedy. ▪ black hair shot through with gray shot of Brit, informal : no longer having someone or something that you do not want ▪ I'm ready to get/be shot of [=rid of] this job. ▪ The band wants to be shot of its manager.

shot clock noun, pl ~ clocks [count] basketball : a clock that shows how much time a player has left to shoot the ball shot·gun /ˈʃɑːtˌgʌn/ noun, pl -guns [count]

1 : a gun with a long barrel that shoots a large number of small metal balls (called buckshot) — see picture at GUN; see also SAWED-OFF SHOTGUN

2 American football : an offensive formation in which the quarterback is a few yards behind the line of scrimmage at the start of a play

ride shotgun see [1]RIDE shotgun wedding noun, pl ~ -dings [count] : a wedding that happens because the bride is pregnant — called also shotgun marriage

shot put noun

the shot put : an athletic event in which people compete by trying to throw a heavy metal ball (called a shot) as far as possible

– shot–put·ter /ˈʃɑːtˌpʊtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

shot put

should /ˈʃʊd, ʃəd/ verb, past tense of SHALL [modal verb]

1 a — used to say or suggest that something is the proper, reasonable, or best thing to do ▪ You should [=ought to] get some rest. ▪ They should be punished. ▪ We should leave a few minutes early to make sure we get there on time. ▪ Maybe you should consider finding a new job. ▪ I should emphasize that these numbers are only estimates. ▪ My friends say that I should quit the team. ▪ What time should we meet? [=what is the best time for us to meet?; what time do you want to meet?] ▪ Patients should inform the receptionist upon their arrival. b — used with have to say that something was the proper, reasonable, or best thing to do but was not done ▪ You should have been more careful. ▪ She shouldn't have spoken to him so rudely. ▪ What should I have done? ▪ Should I not have gone? [=was it wrong for me to go?] ▪ I should have known that he would be late. [=I didn't know that he would be late, but it would have been reasonable for me to expect it because he is often late] c — used with have to say that you wish someone had seen, heard, or experienced something ▪ You should have seen her face [=I wish that you had seen her face] when she opened the present. ▪ It was so funny. You should have been there.

2 — used to ask for someone's opinion ▪ Should [=(more formally) shall] I turn the music down? ▪ What should we have for lunch?

3 — used to say that something is expected or correct ▪ Everyone should [=ought to] have a copy of the handout. ▪ There should be four place settings at the table, not six. ▪ "He feels very sorry about what happened." "Well, he should!" ▪ You should be ashamed of yourself, behaving so rudely to our guests! ▪ They should be here by now. = They should have arrived by now. [=I expected them to be here by now]

4 a — used when saying that you feel a specified way about someone's words or behavior ▪ I'm surprised that he should intentionally be so rude to you. ▪ It's strange (that) you should say that. ▪ Funny you should mention it. [=I think it's odd/strange that you mentioned it] I've been thinking the same thing. b — used to emphasize what you believe, think, hope, etc. ▪ I should imagine it won't take more than two hours to drive there. [=I am fairly certain that it won't take more than two hours] ▪ I should think not. [=I really don't think so] ▪ I should hope that she would apologize. [=I expect her to apologize] ▪ "She apologized for her rude behavior." "Well, I should hope so!"

5 — used with have in negative statements as a polite way of thanking someone for doing something ▪ You really should not have gone to all that trouble on my account—but I'm glad you did! ▪ Flowers for me? You shouldn't have.

6 somewhat formal — used to talk about the result or effect of something that may happen or be true ▪ Should [=if] you change your mind, please let us know. ▪ I will feel very guilty should anything go wrong. [=if anything goes wrong] — usually used with if ▪ I will feel very guilty if anything should [=were to] go wrong. ▪ If he should call [=if he calls], tell him I'm not home. ▪ If you should see them [=if you see them], say hello for me.

7 Brit — used to say that you would do or feel something if something specified happened; only used after I or we ▪ If my husband treated me like that, I should [=would] divorce him. ▪ I should be surprised if many people go to the fair on such a rainy day. ▪ I should not be surprised if no one goes. ▪ I shouldn't [=wouldn't] be surprised at all.

8 Brit — used when giving someone advice; only used after I or we ▪ I should [=would] see a doctor if I were you.

9 Brit — used to say that you want to do or want to have something; only used after I or we ▪ "They really need some help." "Well, I should be glad to help them." ▪ I should like to call my lawyer. ▪ "Would you care for a drink?" "I should like one very much."

how/why should I/we know — used to say that you do not know the answer to a question and are surprised that you were asked it ▪ "Where did they go?" "How should I know?"

what/who should you see but — used to say that you are surprised to see something or someone ▪ I looked up and what should I see but a hummingbird hovering over my head. ▪ They were walking along when who should they see but Kim!

[1]shoul·der /ˈʃoʊldə/ noun, pl -ders

1 [count] : the part of your body where your arm is connected ▪ He rested the baby's head on his shoulder. ▪ He grabbed my shoulder and turned me around. ▪ She carried a backpack on one shoulder. ▪ He has broad shoulders. — often used figuratively ▪ The responsibility for the failure falls squarely on her shoulders. [=she is completely responsible for the failure] — see picture at HUMAN; see also COLD SHOULDER

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 a [count] : the part of an animal's body where a front leg is connected ▪ The horse is five feet high at the shoulder. b : a cut of meat from the shoulder of an animal [count] a shoulder of lamb [noncount] We had pork shoulder for dinner.
3 [count] : the part of a piece of clothing that covers your shoulders — usually plural ▪ The jacket is tight in the shoulders. ▪ The blouse has padded shoulders.
4 [count] : a part of something that is near the top and that resembles a person's shoulder in shape — often + of ▪ the shoulder of the hill/bottle
5 [singular] US : the outside edge of a road that is not used for travel ▪ They pulled over to the shoulder to fix the flat tire. — called also (Brit) hard shoulder
a good head on your shoulders see ¹HEAD a shoulder to cry on 1 : a person who gives you sympathy and support ▪ She's always been a sympathetic shoulder to cry on. 2 : sympathy and support ▪ He offered me a shoulder to cry on when my husband left me.
have a chip on your shoulder see ¹CHIP head and shoulders above see ¹HEAD look over your shoulder : to worry or think about the possibility that something bad might happen, that someone will try to harm you, etc. ▪ You can never feel confident in this business. You always have to be looking over your shoulder.
rub shoulders with see ¹RUB shoulder to shoulder 1 : physically close together ▪ Everyone was standing/squeezed shoulder to shoulder on the crowded bus. 2 : united together to achieve a shared goal ▪ I stand shoulder to shoulder with the other legislators in this effort.

²shoulder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing
1 [+ obj] : to deal with or accept (something) as your responsibility or duty ▪ He shouldered the blame for the project's failure. ▪ The company will shoulder the costs of the repairs. ▪ She shouldered the full burden of raising three children.
2 a [+ obj] : to push (something) with your shoulder ▪ He shouldered the door open. b always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move forward by pushing through something with the shoulders [no obj] She shouldered through the crowd. [+ obj] She shouldered her way through the crowd.
3 [+ obj] : to place or carry (something) on your shoulder ▪ The soldiers shouldered their rifles and marched away.

shoulder bag noun, pl ~ bags [count] : a bag that is designed to be carried on one shoulder by a strap shoulder blade noun, pl ~ blades [count] : one of the two flat, triangular bones of the shoulder that are located in the upper back — called also scapula; see picture at HUMAN

-shoul•dered /ˌʃoʊldəd/ adj : having shoulders of a specified kind — used in combination ▪ round-shouldered ▪ broad-shouldered shoulder–high adj : reaching as high as your shoulder ▪ a shoulder-high wall shoulder–length adj, of a person's hair : reaching your shoulders ▪ She has shoulder-length hair.

shoulder strap noun, pl ~ straps [count] : a strap that is used to carry or hold something on your shoulder or to hold up a piece of clothing shouldn't /ˈʃʊdnt/ — used as a contraction of should not ▪ You shouldn't do that.

should've /ˈʃʊdəv/ — used as a contraction of should have ▪ I should've known that she would come. ▪ He should've been ready to go.

¹shout /ˈʃaʊt/ verb shouts; shout•ed; shout•ing
1 : to say (something) very loudly [+ obj] Protesters shouted [=screamed, yelled] insults as city officials passed by. ▪ Someone was shouting "Fire!" — often + out ▪ The general shouted out orders to his men. [no obj] There's no need to shout at me.
2 [no obj] : to make a sudden, loud cry ▪ They shouted [=screamed] with delight. — often + out ▪ He shouted out in pain when the doctor moved his broken ankle.
shout down [phrasal verb] shout (someone) down : to shout so that (someone who is speaking) cannot be heard ▪ The crowd shouted him down when he tried to give his speech. [=the crowd stopped him from giving his speech by shouting] shout your head off see ¹HEAD shout yourself hoarse : to make your voice hoarse by shouting ▪ He shouted himself hoarse at the game.

²shout noun, pl shouts
1 [count] : a sudden, loud cry — often + of ▪ She gave a shout of surprise.
2 [singular] Brit, informal : a person's turn to buy drinks ▪ It's your shout.
be in with a shout Brit, informal : to have a good chance of winning or achieving something ▪ We aren't too far behind, so we're still in with a shout.
give (someone) a shout informal : to tell (someone) about something when it happens or is ready to be done ▪ I'll give you a shout when it's time to leave.

shouting distance noun [noncount] informal : a short distance ▪ We live within shouting distance of my parents.

shouting match noun, pl ~ matches [count] : a loud, angry argument in which people shout at each other ▪ He got into a shouting match with his neighbor.

shout–out /ˈʃaʊtˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] US, informal : an expression of greeting or praise that is given to someone in the presence of many people — usually singular ▪ I would like to give a shout-out to all the men and women in our armed forces. ▪ During his awards speech, the director gave a shout-out to his production crew.

¹shove /ˈʃʌv/ verb shoves; shoved; shov•ing
1 [+ obj] : to push (something) with force ▪ He shoved the door until it finally opened.
2 : to push (someone or something) along or away in a rough or careless way [+ obj] A large man shoved me out of the way. ▪ She shoved her plate aside. ▪ He shoved me into the pool. [no obj] A group of security guards shoved through the crowd. ▪ The children were pushing and shoving to see the clowns.
shove it US, informal + impolite — used to say that you will not accept or do something ▪ They can take their suggestion and shove it.
shove off [phrasal verb] informal : to leave a place ▪ It's getting late, so I guess I should shove off. ▪ She angrily told him to shove off.
shove over or chiefly Brit shove up [phrasal verb] informal : to move over to make room for someone else ▪ Shove over [=push over] so that I can sit down, too.
shove (something) down someone's throat see THROAT

²shove noun, pl shoves [count] : a strong, forceful push ▪ He gave the door a shove, and it opened.
push comes to shove see ²PUSH

¹shov•el /ˈʃʌvəl/ noun, pl -els [count]
1 : a tool with a long handle that is used for lifting and throwing dirt, sand, snow, etc.
2 : the part of a machine (such as a backhoe) that picks up and moves dirt, sand, snow, etc. — see also STEAM SHOVEL

²shovel verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling
1 [+ obj] : to lift and throw (dirt, sand, snow, etc.) with a shovel ▪ He is outside shoveling snow.
2 US a : to remove snow from (a sidewalk, driveway, etc.) with a shovel [+ obj] I have to shovel the driveway. [no obj] I had to shovel for an hour to clear the driveway. b [+ obj] : to create (a path) by removing snow with a shovel ▪ The snow was so deep we had to shovel a path to our front door.
3 [+ obj] informal : to put large amounts of (something, such as food) into something in a quick way ▪ Stop shoveling food into your mouth.

shov•el•ful /ˈʃʌvəlˌfʊl/ noun, pl shov•el•fuls /ˈʃʌvəlˌfʊlz/ also shov•els•ful /ˈʃʌvəlzˌfʊl/ [count] : the amount that a shovel will hold ▪ a shovelful of snow shovel pass noun, pl ~ passes [count] American football : a short pass made by throwing the ball underhand or with a sidearm motion

¹show /ˈʃoʊ/ verb shows; showed /ˈʃoʊd/; shown /ˈʃoʊn/ or showed; show•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something) to be seen ▪ He showed her a picture. = He showed a picture to her. ▪ You have to show your tickets/passports at the gate. ▪ You're the only person that I've shown this letter to. ▪ Give them a chance to show (you) what they can do.
2 [+ obj] : to give information that proves (something) ▪ The study/research shows (that there is) a link between cigarettes and lung cancer. ▪ The medication has been shown [=proven] to reduce high blood pressure. ▪ They showed the theory to be faulty. ▪ He seemed perfectly healthy before he had his heart attack. That just goes to show [=shows, proves] that appearances can be deceptive.
3 [+ obj] : to teach (someone) how to do or use something especially by letting that person see you do or use it ▪ You will have to show me how to play the game. ▪ He showed them a card trick. ▪ Definitions tell you the meanings of words; examples show you how the words are used.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 78 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

4 [+ obj] : to tell (someone) what or where something is by touching or pointing to it ▪ Show me which video game you want to play. ▪ She showed me where Laos was on the globe. ▪ Show me where it hurts. ▪ The guide showed us the church. [=pointed to the different parts of the church and told us about them]

5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to lead (someone) to a place ▪ He showed us to our seats. ▪ Please show him in/out. [=lead him to the entrance/exit] ▪ She showed them the way to the door.

6 [+ obj] — used to describe what can be seen or noticed when you look at or examine something ▪ Her grades have shown some improvement. [=her grades have improved] ▪ The city's education system is showing signs of improvement. [=the city's education system seems to be improving]

7 [+ obj] : to have an image or picture of (someone or something) ▪ The postcard shows a sunset on the beach. ▪ The photograph shows her as a young woman.

8 : to give (information) in the form of numbers, pictures, etc. [+ obj] The thermostat showed 68 degrees. ▪ The pie chart shows that 20 percent of the money is spent on supplies. [no obj] 3:15 showed on the clock.

9 a [no obj] : to be able to be seen or noticed ▪ The sun showed through the clouds. ▪ The scar hardly shows. ▪ Pull down your skirt. Your slip is showing. [=I can see your slip] ▪ He's been working out a lot, and it shows. — sometimes + up ▪ The mountains showed up clearly against the sky. b [+ obj] : to cause or allow (something) to be easily seen or noticed ▪ A light-colored carpet will show dirt.

10 a [+ obj] : to cause or allow (a feeling, quality, or condition) to be seen or known ▪ The expression on his face showed how disappointed he was. ▪ She is not afraid of showing her true feelings. ▪ Show your support by wearing one of these yellow ribbons. ▪ When you say you dislike computers, you're really showing your age. b [no obj] of a feeling, quality, or condition : to be able to be seen ▪ His disappointment showed in his face.

11 [+ obj] : to give (mercy, respect, etc.) to someone ▪ The judge showed no mercy. ▪ Students must show respect for their teachers. = Students must show their teachers respect. ▪ Please show some compassion.

12 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to see your true ability, power, etc. ▪ They think I'm too old to run the race, but I'll show them! [=I'll run the race and prove that I'm not too old to do it] ▪ He thinks he can tell me what to do, but I'll show him who's boss.

13 : to make (a movie, television show, piece of art, etc.) available for the public to see [+ obj] Some news programs have decided not to show [=air] the video. ▪ She is showing her paintings at an art gallery. [no obj] The movie is now showing [=playing] in local theaters. ▪ She has shown at the art gallery several times.

14 [no obj] chiefly US, informal : to arrive or appear at a place ▪ Many passengers failed to show. — usually + up ▪ Everyone showed up on time. ▪ He didn't show up for work today. — see also NO-SHOW

15 : to enter (an animal) in a competition in which it is judged against other animals of the same kind [+ obj] He breeds and shows poodles. [no obj] Two of our dogs will be showing in the national competition.

16 — used in phrases like have something/nothing to show for to say what someone has achieved or produced by doing something ▪ We worked all day but had nothing to show for it. [=we worked all day but did not achieve/accomplish anything] ▪ He invested millions of dollars into the company, but he has little to show for it. ▪ She has two Olympic gold medals to show for her years of training and practice. [=she won two Olympic gold medals as a result of her years of training and practice] show around also Brit show round [phrasal verb] show (someone) around/round : to act as a guide for someone who is visiting a place : to lead (someone) around a place and point to and talk about the interesting or important things you see ▪ She showed us around (the city).

show off [phrasal verb] informal 1 disapproving : to try to impress someone with your abilities or possessions ▪ The boys were showing off in front of the girls. ▪ Stop trying to show off. 2 show off (someone or something) or *show (someone or something) off : to cause (someone or something that you are proud of) to be seen or noticed by a lot of people ▪ She showed her baby off at the office. ▪ He drove around town, showing off his new car. 3 show off (something) or *show (something) off : to make (something) very noticeable ▪ She wears tight clothes that show off her figure. — see also SHOW-OFF show (someone) the door, show (someone) to the door see DOOR

show the ag see [1]FLAG show up [phrasal verb] show up (someone) or show (someone) up informal : to embarrass (someone) : to do something that makes (someone) look foolish, weak, etc. ▪ He was deliberately trying to show up the boss. — see also [1]SHOW 9a, 14 (above) show willing Brit : to show that you are willing and eager to do what is needed ▪ I got in to work extra early to show willing and impress my boss.

show your face : to appear in public and allow people to see you ▪ I don't know how he can stand to show his face around here after what happened.

show your hand also show your cards 1 : to put down your playing cards on a table so that their values can be seen 2 : to tell other people what you are planning to do, want to do, or are able to do ▪ The company wants to avoid showing its hand about its decision until next month.

show yourself 1 : to move out from a hidden place so that you can be seen ▪ The guard ordered him to show himself. 2 : to show that you are a particular kind of person, that you have a particular skill, etc. — followed by to + verb ▪ They showed themselves to be cowards. [=they behaved in a cowardly way] ▪ She has shown herself to be capable of running the company. [=has shown that she is capable of running the company]

show your stuff see [1]STUFF show your true colors see [1]COLOR

[2]show noun, pl shows

1 [count] a : a performance in a theater that usually includes singing and dancing ▪ We saw a show last night. = We went to a show last night. ▪ a Broadway/musical show ▪ She was the star of the show. b : a public performance that is intended to entertain people ▪ a one-woman comedy show ▪ a puppet show ▪ The band always puts on a good show. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The team put on a poor show [=played poorly] in the second half. — see also FLOOR SHOW, HORROR SHOW, ICE SHOW, PEEP SHOW, PUNCH-AND-JUDY SHOW, ROAD SHOW, SIDESHOW

2 [count] : a television or radio program ▪ my favorite (TV) show — see also GAME SHOW, QUIZ SHOW, TALK SHOW

3 [count] : an event at which things of the same kind are put on display for people to look at or buy ▪ an agricultural show ▪ fashion/auto/boat shows ▪ a show of his early paintings — see also TRADE SHOW

4 [singular] a : an action, performance, etc., which clearly shows an ability, feeling, quality, etc. — usually + of ▪ a show of the country's great military strength ▪ a remarkable show of generosity ▪ All of the students signed the petition in a show of unity/solidarity with their classmate. b : an event at which something is done or shown to impress or entertain people — usually + of ▪ a spectacular show of fireworks

5 disapproving : an act of pretending to feel a particular way : an act of behaving a certain way in order to make others like or approve of you [count] — usually singular; usually + of ▪ He made a great show of friendship. ▪ She put on a big show of sympathy, but she really didn't care about his troubles. [noncount] Her friendliness is all show. [=she does not truly have friendly feelings toward others]

6 [singular] : an event, business, etc., and all of the activities that are involved in its success ▪ The new president tried to run the whole show [=be in charge of everything] himself. ▪ A new manager is running the show.

7 [count] : a competition at which animals of the same kind are judged against one another ▪ a dog show ▪ They have two show dogs. [=dogs that compete in dog shows] — see also HORSE SHOW a show of hands : an occurrence in which people put a hand in the air to indicate that they want something, agree with something, etc. ▪ Let me see a show of hands: how many people want a piece of cake?

dog and pony show see [1]DOG for show 1 : intended to be seen but not used or bought ▪ We're not supposed to eat the fruit on the table. It's just for show. [=it's just being used as decoration] 2 : done in order to make others like or approve of you ▪ He says he enjoys classical music, but it's only for show. [=he pretends to like classical music] get the/this show on the road informal : to begin an activity or journey ▪ Everyone ready? OK, let's get this show on the road!

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 67 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

on show : put somewhere for people to see ▪ Her paintings are on show [=on display] at the art gallery. ▪ The artifacts will be put on show in the museum. ▪ His work goes on show tomorrow.

the show must go on informal — used to say that a performance, event, etc., must continue even though there are problems show–and–tell /ˈʃowənˌtɛl/ noun [noncount] : a school activity in which children show an item to the class and talk about it ▪ She brought in a seashell for show-and-tell.

show•biz /ˈʃoʊˌbɪz/ noun [noncount] informal : SHOW BUSINESS ▪ Sometimes the critics love you and sometimes they hate you. That's showbiz.

[1]show•boat /ˈʃoʊˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count]

1 : a large boat that has a theater and a group of performers and that gives plays at towns and cities along a river

2 chiefly US, informal + usually disapproving : a person (such as an athlete) who behaves or performs in a way that is meant to attract the attention of a lot of people ▪ The fans like him, but the other players think he's a showboat.

[2]showboat verb -boats; -boat•ed; -boat•ing [no obj] chiefly US, informal + usually disapproving : to behave or perform in a way that is meant to attract the attention of a lot of people ▪ She was showboating for the cameras when she tripped and fell.

show business noun [noncount] : the entertainment industry involved in making movies, television shows, plays, etc. ▪ She has been in show business for over 30 years. ▪ actors trying to break into show business ▪ show business executives

[1]show•case /ˈʃoʊˌkeɪs/ noun, pl -cas•es [count]

1 : a box that has a glass top or sides and that is used for displaying objects in a store, museum, etc.

2 : an event, occasion, etc., that shows the abilities or good qualities of someone or something in an attractive or favorable way ▪ The convention was a showcase of the company's new products. — usually + for ▪ The program is a showcase for up-and-coming musicians. ▪ The movie is a showcase for her talents.

[2]showcase verb -cases; -cased; -cas•ing [+ obj] : to show (something or someone) in an attractive or favorable way ▪ The program showcases up-and-coming musicians.

show•down /ˈʃoʊˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count]

1 : a meeting, argument, fight, etc., that will finally settle a disagreement between people or groups — often + with ▪ Supporters of the bill are in a showdown with the opposition.

2 : an important game or competition — often + with ▪ The team is getting ready for tonight's showdown with last year's champions.

[1]show•er /ˈʃaʊə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a device that produces a spray of water for you to stand under and wash your body b : a room or an enclosed area in a room that contains a shower ▪ My hotel room had a shower but no bathtub. ▪ a shower curtain/stall ▪ I couldn't answer the phone because I was in the shower. ▪ The team hit the showers after practice. [=the team went to the locker room and used the showers there after practice] — see picture at BATHROOM c : the act of washing your body with a shower ▪ She took a shower after her run. = (Brit) She had a shower after her run. ▪ a shower cap [=a cap that you wear while you are taking a shower]

2 a : a brief fall of rain or snow over a small area ▪ Light/Heavy showers are expected later today. — see also THUNDERSHOWER b : a large number of small things that fall or happen at the same time — often + of ▪ a shower of sparks/tears ▪ He gave the baby a shower of kisses. [=he showered the baby with kisses]

3 US : a party where gifts are given to a woman who is going to be married or have a baby ▪ a bridal/baby shower

[2]shower verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing

1 [no obj] : to wash yourself by using a shower ▪ Please shower before using the pool.

2 : to fall on someone or something in the way that rain falls from the sky [no obj] Sparks from the machine showered onto the floor of the garage. ▪ Rice showered down on the newlyweds as they left the church. [+ obj] A passing car showered her with muddy water. = A passing car showered muddy water on her.

3 [+ obj] : to provide (someone) with something in large amounts ▪ He showered her with gifts/kisses. = He showered gifts/kisses on her. [=he gave her many gifts/kisses]

show•er•head /ˈʃaʊəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : the device that controls the spray of water in a shower — see picture at BATHROOM show•ery /ˈʃaʊəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a lot of rain showers ▪ Weve been having showery weather lately. ▪ It may be showery [=rainy] tomorrow.

show•girl /ˈʃoʊˌgəl/ noun, pl -girls [count] : a woman who sings or dances in a musical show showing noun, pl -ings [count]

1 : the act of making a movie, television show, piece of art, etc., available for the public to see ▪ The movie's last showing tonight is at 10:30.

2 : a performance or appearance of a particular kind — usually singular ▪ He had a poor showing [=he performed poorly] in the tournament. ▪ Both candidates are expected to make a good/strong showing [=to get many votes] in next week's election.

show jumping noun [noncount] : the sport of riding a horse over a set of fences as quickly and skillfully as possible show•man /ˈʃoʊmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person who is good at entertaining people show•man•ship /ˈʃoʊmənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the ability to attract attention and entertain people ▪ political showmanship

shown past participle of [1]SHOW show–off /ˈʃoʊˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] informal + disapproving : a person who tries to impress other people with his or her abilities or possessions — see also show off at [1]SHOW show•piece /ˈʃoʊˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count]

1 : something that is the best or most attractive thing being shown ▪ The museum's showpiece is a painting by Picasso.

2 : something that is seen as an excellent or outstanding example of something ▪ The house is an architectural showpiece.

show•place /ˈʃoʊˌpleɪs/ noun, pl -plac•es [count] : a beautiful or important place that people enjoy seeing ▪ They have transformed their home into a showplace.

show•room /ˈʃoʊˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a large room where things that are for sale are displayed ▪ a car showroom ▪ The stereo was a showroom model.

show•stop•per /ˈʃoʊˌstɑːpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] : an act, song, or performer that receives so much applause that the performance is interrupted

– show•stop•ping /ˈʃoʊˌstɑːpɪŋ/ adj, usually used before a noun ▪ a showstopping performance show•time /ˈʃoʊˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : the time when a play, movie, etc., begins ▪ We have five minutes until showtime. ▪ Showtime is in five minutes. — often used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ We've been making plans for months. Now it's showtime.

show trial noun, pl ~ trials [count] : a trial in a court of law in which the verdict has been decided in advance ▪ They were forced to confess their guilt in public show trials.

show window noun, pl ~ -dows [count] : a large window in the front of a store that is used for displaying goods that are for sale

showy /ˈʃoʊi/ adj show•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having an appearance that attracts attention ▪ showy blossoms ▪ Perhaps you should wear something a little less showy. ▪ (disapproving) showy [=gaudy] jewelry shrank past tense of [1]SHRINK

shrap•nel /ˈʃræpnəl/ noun [noncount] : small metal pieces that scatter outwards from an exploding bomb, shell, or mine ▪ He has a piece of shrapnel in his leg. ▪ Shrapnel from the explosion wounded many people.

[1]shred /ˈʃrɛd/ noun, pl shreds

1 [count] : a long, thin piece cut or torn off of something ▪ The cats tore/ripped the curtain to shreds. [=into many long, thin pieces] ▪ The wallpaper is in shreds. — often + of ▪ shreds of paper/cloth

2 shreds [plural] : a completely ruined condition ▪ An air attack tore the village to shreds. [=completely destroyed the village] ▪ His reputation was in shreds after the arrest. ▪ Critics picked/pulled/tore/ripped the movie to shreds. [=criticized the movie very severely]

3 [singular] : a very small amount of something ▪ He struggled to retain a shred of his dignity. — usually used in negative statements ▪ There's not a shred of evidence showing that

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s he committed the crime. ▪ She made the accusation without a shred of proof.

[2]shred verb shreds; shred•ded; shred•ding [+ obj] : to cut or tear (something) into long, thin pieces ▪ He shredded the paper/cloth. ▪ Shred the cabbage and add it to the salad. ▪ He shredded the documents. [=he put the documents into a shredder to cut them into pieces]

shredded wheat noun [noncount] : a breakfast cereal that is made from cooked wheat that is shredded and formed into biscuits shred•der /ˈʃrɛdə/ noun, pl -ders [count] : a machine used for cutting something (such as paper) into long, thin pieces ▪ a document shredder — see picture at OFFICE shrew /ˈʃru:/ noun, pl shrews [count]

1 : a small animal that looks like a mouse with a long, pointed nose
2 old-fashioned : an unpleasant, bad-tempered woman shrewd /ˈʃru:d/ adj shrewd•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to understand things and to make good judgments : mentally sharp or clever ▪ a shrewd observer/businessman ▪ She's shrewd about her investments. ▪ a shrewd observation – shrewd•ly adv – shrewd•ness noun [noncount]

shrew•ish /ˈʃru:wɪʃ/ adj, old-fashioned, of a woman : unpleasant and bad-tempered ▪ a shrewish old hag

[1]shriek /ʃri:k/ verb shrieks; shrieked; shriek•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a loud, high-pitched cry ▪ The birds were shrieking in the trees. ▪ The baby shrieked [=screamed] with delight. ▪ She shrieked when she saw a mouse.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a loud, high-pitched voice ▪ "Mommy!" she shrieked.

[2]shriek noun, pl shrieks [count] : a loud, high-pitched cry or sound ▪ The baby gave a shriek [=scream] of delight. ▪ the shriek of the train's brakes

shrift /ʃrɪft/ see SHORT SHRIFT

[1]shrill /ʃrɪl/ adj shrill•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having a very loud, high-pitched sound ▪ a shrill whistle/scream
2 : loud and difficult to ignore but often unreasonable ▪ shrill protests/accusations – shrill•ness noun [noncount] – shril•ly adv ▪ He whistled shrilly.

[2]shrill verb shrills; shrilled; shrill•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a very loud, high-pitched sound ▪ The bell shrilled.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a very loud, high-pitched voice ▪ "What!?" she shrilled.

shrimp /ʃrɪmp/ noun, pl shrimp or shrimps [count]
1 : a small shellfish that has a long body and legs and that is eaten as food — see color picture on page C8; compare PRAWN
2 informal : a very small or unimportant person ▪ He's a little shrimp of a boy.

shrimp•ing noun [noncount] : the activity or business of catching shrimp shrine /ʃraɪn/ noun, pl shrines [count]

1 : a place connected with a holy person or event where people go to worship ▪ a Buddhist shrine ▪ the shrine of Saint Mary ▪ They erected a shrine to the saint.
2 : a place that people visit because it is connected with someone or something that is important to them ▪ tourists visiting the shrines of American independence ▪ The writer's house has become a shrine to/for his fans.

[1]shrink /ʃrɪŋk/ verb shrinks; shrank /ʃræŋk/ or shrunk /ʃrʌŋk/; shrunk or shrunk•en /ʃrʌŋkən/; shrink•ing
1 a [no obj] : to become smaller in amount, size, or value ▪ The sweater shrank when it was washed. ▪ Meat shrinks as it cooks. ▪ The town's population shrank during the war. b [+ obj] : to make (something) smaller in amount, size, or value ▪ Hot water shrank the sweater. ▪ The treatment should shrink the tumor.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to quickly move away from something shocking, frightening, or disgusting ▪ He shrank in horror when he saw the dead cat.
shrink from [phrasal verb] shrink from (something) : to try to avoid (something difficult or unpleasant) : to be unwilling to do (something) ▪ He doesn't shrink from telling the truth, no matter how painful it may be. ▪ She won't shrink from the task.

[2]shrink noun, pl shrinks [count] informal : a psychiatrist or psychologist ▪ He is seeing a shrink.

shrink•age /ˈʃrɪŋkɪʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the amount by which something becomes smaller or less ▪ The shrinkage in contributions is significant. ▪ a shrinkage of 10 percent
2 : the act or process of becoming smaller in amount, size, or value ▪ the shrinkage of the polar ice caps shrinking violet noun, pl ~ -lets [count] informal : a person who is very shy ▪ He's no shrinking violet when it comes to competition.

shrink–wrap /ˈʃrɪŋkˌræp/ noun [noncount] : tough, clear, thin plastic that is placed around a product (such as a book or a package of food) and shrunk in order to wrap it tightly – shrink–wrapped /ˈʃrɪŋkˌræpt/ adj ▪ a shrink-wrapped book

shriv•el /ˈʃrɪvəl/ verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling
1 [no obj] : to become dry and wrinkled from heat, cold, or old age ▪ plants shriveling in the heat — often + up ▪ The leaves shriveled up in the hot sun.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to become dry and wrinkled — often + up ▪ The heat shriveled up the plant's leaves.
– shriveled adj ▪ She was small and shriveled with age. ▪ a shriveled grape

[1]shroud /ˈʃraʊd/ noun, pl shrouds [count]
1 : a cloth that is used to wrap a dead body
2 literary : something that covers or hides something — usually + of ▪ covered in a shroud of secrecy/fog

[2]shroud verb shrouds; shroud•ed; shroud•ing [+ obj] literary : to cover or hide (something) ▪ Fog shrouded the land. ▪ The mountains were shrouded in fog. ▪ Their work is shrouded in secrecy.

Shrove Tuesday /ˈʃroʊv-/ noun [noncount] : the day before the first day of the Christian holy period of Lent : the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday — called also (US) Fat Tuesday, (Brit) Pancake Day; compare MARDI GRAS shrub /ˈʃrʌb/ noun, pl shrubs [count] : a plant that has stems of wood and is smaller than a tree : BUSH — see color picture on page C6 shrub•bery /ˈʃrʌbəri/ noun, pl -ber•ies

1 [noncount] : a group of shrubs planted together ▪ a patch of tangled shrubbery
2 [count] : an area planted with shrubs ▪ a large shrubbery shrug /ˈʃrʌg/ verb shrugs; shrugged; shrug•ging : to raise and lower your shoulders usually to show that you do not know or care about something [no obj] I asked if he wanted to go out to dinner, and he just shrugged. [+ obj] He just shrugged his shoulders.

shrug off [phrasal verb] shrug off (something) or shrug (something) off 1 : to think of or treat (something) as not important : to pay no attention to (something) ▪ She shrugged off their concerns. ▪ I warned him about the storm but he just shrugged it off. 2 : to take off (a piece of clothing) by moving your shoulders back and forth ▪ She shrugged off her coat.
– shrug noun, pl shrugs [count] ▪ The suggestion was met with nothing but shrugs. ▪ She answered me with a shrug of the/her shoulders.

shrunk past tense and past participle of [1]SHRINK shrunk•en /ˈʃrʌŋkən/ adj : made smaller or shorter ▪ a shrunken old man [=a man who has gotten smaller/shorter in old age]

shtick also schtick /ʃtɪk/ noun, pl shticks also schticks [count] US, informal 1 : a usual way of performing, behaving, speaking, etc. ▪ That joke is part of his shtick.
2 : something that a person likes to do or does well ▪ Sports are just not my shtick.

[1]shuck /ʃʌk/ noun, pl shucks [count] US
1 : the outer covering of a nut or a plant (such as corn)
2 : the shell of an oyster or clam

[2]shuck verb shucks; shucked; shuck•ing [+ obj] US : to remove the outer covering of (a plant, such as corn) or the shell of (an oyster or clam) ▪ shuck the corn/oysters shuck off [phrasal verb] shuck off (something) informal : to remove and throw aside (something) ▪ He shucked off his coat.

shucks /ʃʌks/ interj, US, old-fashioned — used to show that you are disappointed or embarrassed ▪ Oh, shucks, I completely forgot.

shud•der /ˈʃʌdə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]
1 of a person : to shake because of fear, cold, etc. — often + with ▪ He shuddered [=quivered, trembled] with fear when he heard the scream. — often used figuratively ▪ I shudder at the thought of what might happen. = I shudder to think (of) what might happen. [=I am very worried/fearful about what might happen]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 68 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 of a thing : to shake violently ▪ The old car shuddered to a halt. ▪ The house shuddered as a plane flew overhead.

– shudder noun, pl -ders [count] ▪ I felt a shudder [=tremble] in the floor as the truck drove by. ▪ a shudder of fear

[1]shuf•e /ˈʃʌfəl/ verb shuf•es ; shuf•ed ; shuf•ing

1 : to slide your feet along the ground or back and forth without lifting them completely [no obj] He shuffled across the floor. [+ obj] She stood there, shuffling her feet, waiting for the bus to arrive.

2 a [+ obj] : to move things or people into a different order or into different positions ▪ She shuffled the papers on her desk. ▪ The manager shuffled the batting order. b : to mix (playing cards) before playing a game so that no one knows what order they are in [+ obj] He shuffled the cards/deck. [no obj] Whose turn is it to shuffle and deal?

[2]shuffle noun, pl shuffles

1 [singular] : the act of moving by sliding your feet without lifting them off the ground ▪ We heard the shuffle of feet outside the door.

2 [count] : the act of mixing the order of playing cards : the act of shuffling cards ▪ He gave the cards a good shuffle and then dealt. ▪ Whose shuffle is it? [=whose turn is it to shuffle?]

lost in the shuffle US : not noticed or given attention because there are many other people or things to consider or deal with ▪ With six older kids, the baby sometimes is/gets lost in the shuffle.

shuf•e•board /ˈʃʌfəlˌbo͡ɚd/ noun [noncount] : a game in which players use a long stick with a curved piece at one end to slide discs into scoring areas that are marked on the ground shun /ˈʃʌn/ verb shuns; shunned; shun•ning [+ obj] : to avoid (someone or something) ▪ He shuns parties and social events. ▪ After his divorce he found himself being shunned by many of his former friends.

shunt /ˈʃʌnt/ verb shunts; shunt•ed; shunt•ing [+ obj]

1 : to move (someone or something) to a different and usually less important or noticeable place or position ▪ The company shunted him (off) to the mail room. — often used figuratively ▪ Her suggestions were shunted aside. [=ignored]

2 : to move (a train or railway car) from one track to another

[1]shush /ˈʃʌʃ, ˈʃʊʃ/ verb shush•es; shushed; shush•ing [+ obj] : to tell (someone) to be quiet ▪ The librarian shushed the noisy children.

[2]shush interj — used to tell someone to be quiet ▪ Shush! I can't hear the movie.

[1]shut /ˈʃʌt/ verb shuts; shut; shut•ting

1 a [+ obj] : to close (something) ▪ Please shut the door/window/lid/drawer. ▪ He shut his eyes and went to sleep. ▪ She shut the book loudly. ▪ I accidentally shut the door on her fingers. b [no obj] : to become closed ▪ flowers that shut at night ▪ The door shut slowly behind me.

2 : to stop the services or activities of (a business, school, etc.) for a period of time or forever : CLOSE [+ obj] The owner is shutting the pub for the weekend. ▪ They plan to shut the factory by the end of the year. [no obj] (Brit) The restaurant shuts [=closes] at 11.

shut away [phrasal verb] shut (someone or something) away : to put (someone or something) in a place that is separate from others ▪ She was shut away in prison for three years. ▪ He shut himself away (in his room) to study.

shut down [phrasal verb] 1 shut down or shut down (something) or shut (something) down a : to close or to cause (a business, factory, etc.) to close for a period of time or forever ▪ They were forced to shut down the store. ▪ The factory shut down. ▪ The vendors started shutting down for the night. b : to stop operating or to cause (a machine) to stop operating ▪ The computer suddenly shut down. [=turned off] ▪ She shut down her computer and went home. — see also SHUTDOWN 2 shut down (someone or something) or shut (someone or something) down informal : to cause (an opponent) to be unsuccessful, unable to score, etc. ▪ The defense shut down the opposition.

shut in [phrasal verb] 1 shut (someone or something) in (something) : to put (someone or something) in a room and close or lock the door ▪ Someone shut the cat in the closet. ▪ He shut himself in his room to study. 2 shut (something) in (something) : to have (something, such as your hand or finger) in between the parts of (something, such as a door or window) when it closes ▪ He accidentally shut his hand in the car door.

shut off [phrasal verb] 1 shut off or shut off (something) or shut (something) off : to stop operating or to cause (a machine, light, etc.) to stop operating ▪ The camera shuts off [=turns off] automatically when not in use. ▪ She shut off the car. ▪ Who shut off the lights? ▪ Shut the television off and go to bed. 2 shut off (something) or shut (something) off : to stop the flow or supply of (something) ▪ Make sure to shut off the water/gas/electricity before beginning any work. 3 shut (yourself) off : to keep (yourself) in a place that is away from other people — usually + from ▪ He shut himself off from his family. 4 shut (someone or something) off from (something) : to separate (someone or something) from (something) — usually used as (be) shut off from ▪ Here on the island, people are shut off from (contact with) the outside world.

shut out [phrasal verb] 1 shut out (someone or something) or shut (someone or something) out : to stop (someone or something) from entering a place ▪ She locked the door and shut him out of the room. ▪ He closed the curtain to shut out the sunlight. ▪ Try shutting out the draft by putting a blanket at the bottom of the door. — often used figuratively ▪ He tried to shut out the memory of that day. = He tried to shut the memory out of his mind. 2 shut out (someone) or shut (someone) out : to not allow (someone) to be involved in your life, to know your personal thoughts and feelings, etc. ▪ I can't help you if you keep shutting me out. — often + of ▪ She shut him out of her life completely. 3 shut out (someone) or shut (someone) out chiefly US : to keep (a player or team) from scoring in a game or contest ▪ The team was shut out [=the team did not score any points] in the first half. — see also SHUTOUT shut up [phrasal verb] 1 informal a : to stop talking, laughing, etc. ▪ He won't shut up about how he won the game. ▪ Can someone get that dog to shut up? — often used as a rude way to tell someone to stop talking ▪ Shut up for a second and listen to what I have to say. b shut (someone) up informal : to cause (someone) to stop talking, laughing, etc. ▪ Nothing shuts her up. 2 shut up (something) or shut (something) up : to close and lock all the doors of (a house, store, etc.) ▪ They shut up the house and left town. ✧ In British English, to shut up shop is to go out of business forever or stop performing all services or activities for a period of time. ▪ Rather than shutting up shop [=closing up shop] entirely, the company laid off half of its workers. ▪ The store has already shut up shop for the day. 3 shut (someone or something) up : to put (someone or something) in a place that is away from other people ▪ He shut himself up in his room all day to study.

shut your mouth or shut your face informal — used to tell someone in a rude way to stop talking ▪ She angrily told him to shut his mouth. ✧ This phrase is also used with other informal words for mouth, such as yap, trap and gob.

[2]shut adj

1 : not open : CLOSED ▪ She listened to the music with her eyes shut. ▪ The door slammed shut. ▪ Check to make sure that all the windows are shut. — see also OPEN-AND-SHUT

2 Brit : not operating or open to the public ▪ The store is shut [=closed] for remodeling.

keep your mouth shut see [1]MOUTH with your eyes shut see [1]EYE shut•down /ˈʃʌtˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] : the act of stopping the operation or activity of a business, machine, etc., for a period of time or forever ▪ the shutdown of the factory ▪ a maintenance shutdown — see also shut down at [1]SHUT shut–eye /ˈʃʌtˌaɪ/ noun [noncount] informal : SLEEP ▪ You'd better get some shut-eye.

shut–in /ˈʃʌtˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] US : a sick or disabled person who rarely or never leaves home ▪ a service that delivers food to elderly shut-ins

shut•out /ˈʃʌtˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] US : a game or contest in which one side does not score ▪ They beat us in a 9–0 shutout. ▪ He pitched a shutout. — see also shut out at [1]SHUT

[1]shut•ter /ˈʃʌtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : one of a pair of outside covers for a window that open and close like a door — usually plural ▪ She opened the shutters. — see picture at HOUSE

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

2 : the part of a camera that opens to allow light in when a picture is taken

[2]shutter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] US
1 : to cover (a window) with shutters ▪ They locked the doors and shuttered the windows.
2 : to close (a business, store, etc.) for a period of time or forever ▪ They declared bankruptcy and shuttered the store.

shut•ter•bug /'ʃʌtəˌbʌg/ noun, pl -bugs [count] US, informal : a person who enjoys taking photographs

shuttered adj
1 : having shutters or having closed shutters ▪ shuttered windows ▪ He kept the house shuttered.
2 chiefly US : closed for business for a period of time or forever ▪ old, shuttered factories

[1]shut•tle /'ʃʌtl/ noun, pl shut•tles [count]
1 : a vehicle that travels back and forth between places ▪ A shuttle takes people from the parking lot to the airport. — often used before another noun ▪ a shuttle bus/train/service
2 : SPACE SHUTTLE
3 : a pointed tool that is used to weave cloth by pulling a thread from side to side across other threads

[2]shuttle verb shuttles; shut•tled; shut•tling
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to travel back and forth between places ▪ We shuttled between the city and the country all summer.
2 [+ obj] : to bring (people) back and forth between places ▪ A bus shuttled people from the parking lot to the dock.

shut•tle•cock /'ʃʌtlˌkɑːk/ noun, pl -cocks [count] : a light object shaped like a cone that is hit over the net in the game of badminton — called also (US) birdie; see picture at RACKET shuttle diplomacy noun [noncount] : activity in which a person travels back and forth between two countries and talks to their leaders in order to bring about agreement, prevent war, etc.

[1]shy /'ʃaɪ/ adj shi•er or shy•er /'ʃajəɹ/; shi•est or shy•est /'ʃajəst/ [also more ~; most ~]
1 a : feeling nervous and uncomfortable about meeting and talking to people ▪ a shy, quiet girl ▪ I was painfully shy as a teenager. ▪ She was too shy to ask for help. b : showing that you are nervous and uncomfortable about meeting and talking to people ▪ her shy manner ▪ He gave her a shy smile.
2 : tending to avoid something because of nervousness, fear, dislike, etc. ▪ publicity shy ▪ camera shy — often + of ▪ He was never shy of controversy.
3 : hesitant about taking what you want or need ▪ Help yourself if you want more. Don't be shy.
4 of an animal : easily frightened : TIMID ▪ animals that are nocturnal and shy
5 chiefly US : having less than a full or expected amount or number : SHORT ▪ We were shy about 10 dollars. — usually + of ▪ He was two weeks shy of his 19th birthday when he joined the army. ▪ The ball stopped just a few inches shy of the hole. ▪ He's three credits shy of his bachelor's degree.
fight shy of Brit : to try to avoid something ▪ She has always fought shy of publicity.
once bitten, twice shy see [1]BITE
– shy•ly adv ▪ He answered/smiled shyly. – shy•ness noun [noncount]

[2]shy verb shies; shied; shy•ing [no obj] : to move away from something because of fear ▪ The horse shied when the gun went off.
shy from (US) or shy away from [phrasal verb] shy from (something) (US) or shy away from (something) : to try to avoid (something) because of nervousness, fear, dislike, etc. ▪ They never shied from publicity. ▪ She shies away from making any predictions. ▪ He shied away from discussing his divorce.

shy•ster /'ʃaɪstəɹ/ noun, pl -sters [count] chiefly US, informal : a dishonest person; especially : a dishonest lawyer or politician — often used before another noun ▪ a shyster lawyer

Si•a•mese cat /ˌsajəˌmiːz-/ noun, pl ~ cats [count] : a type of cat that has blue eyes and short light-colored hair on the body with darker-colored ears, paws, tail, and face

Si•a•mese twin /ˌsajəˌmiːz-/ noun, pl ~ twins [count] : CONJOINED TWIN

[1]sib•i•lant /'sɪbələnt/ adj, formal : making or having a sound like the letters s or sh ▪ sibilant consonants/whispers ▪ the sibilant hiss of a snake

[2]sibilant noun, pl -lants [count] technical : a sibilant sound (such as \s\ or \ʃ\)

sib•ling /'sɪblɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] formal : a brother or sister ▪ Do you have any siblings? [=brothers or sisters] ▪ younger/older siblings ▪ sibling relationships ▪ There was barely any sibling rivalry [=competition between brothers and sisters] in our family.

[1]sic /'sɪk/ verb sics; sicced /'sɪkt/; sic•cing [+ obj] US, informal : to attack (someone or something) — usually used as a command to a dog ▪ Sic 'em, boy.
sic (something) on (someone or something) : to order (an animal, such as a dog) to attack (someone or something) ▪ He sicced his dog on me. — often used figuratively ▪ The company sicced their lawyers on me.

[2]sic — used in writing after an error (such as a spelling error) in a quotation to show that the error was made by the speaker or writer who is being quoted and not by you ▪ His letter said the people were "very freindly [sic] to me."

[1]sick /'sɪk/ adj sick•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : affected with a disease or illness : ILL ▪ He is at home sick in bed. ▪ She is sick with the flu. ▪ I'm too sick to go to work. ▪ a sick dog ▪ The medicine just made me sicker. ▪ The sickest patients are in intensive care. ▪ My poor rosebush looks sick. ▪ (US) I hardly ever get sick. ▪ (US) She has been out sick all week. = (Brit) She has been off sick all week. [=she has not been at work all week because she is sick] ▪ (formal) Dozens of workers fell sick [=became ill] from exposure to the fumes. ▪ (old-fashioned) He took sick [=became ill] and died. ▪ (informal) He was (as) sick as a dog. [=he was very sick] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sick economy — see also AIRSICK, CARSICK, SEASICK
2 always used before a noun : of or relating to people who are ill ▪ She has been on the sick list all week. ▪ the hospital's sick ward
3 a not used before a noun, informal : very annoyed or bored by something because you have had too much of it — + of ▪ He was sick of her lies. ▪ I'm getting sick of this cold weather. ▪ I'm sick of pizza—I had it three times this week already. ▪ What are you most sick of? ▪ I'm sick and tired of hearing you two argue. = I'm sick to death of hearing you two argue. b : very disgusted or angry ▪ The way they treat people makes me sick.
4 : not mentally normal or healthy ▪ I know it sounds sick, but I like reading about murders. ▪ He has a sick [=perverted] mind. ▪ sick [=morbid, disturbing] thoughts
5 : relating to very unpleasant or offensive things ▪ sick jokes/humor
6 a : very unpleasant ▪ I had a sick feeling that we were hopelessly lost. b : powerfully affected by a strong and unpleasant emotion — usually + with ▪ She was sick with shame/fear/longing/guilt. ▪ We have been sick with worry about her. = We've been worried sick [=very worried] about her. — see also HOMESICK, LOVESICK be sick : to vomit ▪ I was sick [=vomited, threw up] several times. ▪ The last time I ate oysters, I was violently sick. [=I vomited a lot] ▪ Stop the car—I'm going to be sick. [=I'm going to throw up] call/phone in sick ✧ If you call/phone in sick, you make a phone call to your place of work to say you will not be working that day because you are sick. ▪ Two of the waiters called in sick, so we're very short-staffed.
feel sick 1 US : to feel ill ▪ I was feeling sick, so I went home early. 2 : to feel like you will vomit ▪ After eating a whole plate of cookies, I felt sick. 3 US : to feel very upset ▪ I feel sick about what happened.
report sick see [2]REPORT sick at heart see HEART sick to your stomach 1 US : caused to vomit ▪ I was sick to my stomach [=I vomited] last night. : feeling like you are going to vomit ▪ When I had the flu, just the thought of eating made me sick to my stomach. [=nauseous] 2 : feeling very disgusted or angry ▪ The way they treat people makes me sick to my stomach.
the sick : people who are sick : sick people ▪ She spent her life caring for the sick and dying.

[2]sick noun [noncount] Brit, informal : VOMIT

[3]sick verb sicks; sicked; sick•ing sick up [phrasal verb] sick up (something) or sick (something) up Brit, informal : to vomit (something) ▪ He sicked up [=threw up] his dinner.

sick bay noun, pl ~ bays [count] : a place on a ship that is used to care for sick or injured people sick•bed /'sɪkˌbɛd/ noun, pl -beds [count] : the bed on which a sick person lies ▪ The general gave the orders from his sickbed.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

sick day noun, pl ~ days [count] : a paid day in which an employee does not work because he or she is sick sick•en /'sɪkən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 somewhat formal : to become sick or to cause (someone) to become sick [no obj] Many people sickened and died on the long voyage. [+ obj] The bacteria in the drinking water sickened the whole village.
2 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel disgusted or angry ▪ We were sickened by the reports of violence.
be sickening for Brit, informal : to be starting to have or suffer from (an illness) ▪ I've been sneezing all day. I must be sickening for something.
sicken of [phrasal verb] sicken of (something) US : to lose interest in (something) because you have had too much of it ▪ He soon sickened of [=got sick of] busy city life and moved out to the country.

sick•en•ing /'sɪkənɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing you to feel sick ▪ a sickening [=nauseating] odor/stench ▪ We had reached a sickening [=dizzying] height.
2 : causing a strong feeling of disgust ▪ a sickening display of selfishness ▪ sickening cruelty
3 of a sound : causing great concern especially because someone or something may have been badly harmed ▪ We heard the squeal of brakes and a sickening thud/crash.
– sick•en•ing•ly adv ▪ The cake was sickeningly sweet. ▪ a sickeningly familiar pattern of behavior sick•ie /'sɪki/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal

1 US : SICKO ▪ He's a real sickie.
2 Brit : a day when someone who is not really sick claims to be sick and does not go to work ▪ He took/pulled/threw a sickie to go to the football game.

sick•le /'sɪkəl/ noun, pl -les [count] : a tool with a curved metal blade attached to a short handle that is used for cutting grass, grain, etc.

sick leave noun [noncount]
1 : the number of days per year for which an employer agrees to pay workers who are unable to work because they are sick ▪ employee benefits such as vacation time and sick leave ▪ We are allotted three weeks annual sick leave. — called also sick time
2 : an absence from work because of sickness ▪ He's been on sick leave since last Thursday.

sickle–cell anemia (US) or Brit sickle–cell anaemia noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that affects the red blood cells and occurs mostly in people of African, Mediterranean, or southwest Asian ancestry sick•ly /'sɪkli/ adj sick•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : often affected by a disease or illness : not healthy and strong ▪ a sickly child ▪ a sickly plant b : caused by or relating to sickness ▪ a sickly complexion/appetite
2 a : causing a person to feel sick ▪ A sickly [=nauseating] odor filled the room. b : causing feelings of dislike or disgust ▪ The walls were painted a sickly yellow.
3 : weak and pale ▪ The lamp gave off a sickly glow.
– sickly adv ▪ The dessert has a sickly sweet taste.

sick•ness /'sɪknəs/ noun, pl -ness•es
1 [noncount] : unhealthy condition of body or mind : the state of being sick ▪ She missed work due to sickness. [=illness]
2 [count] : a specific type of disease or illness ▪ He died from an unknown sickness. — see also RADIATION SICKNESS, SLEEPING SICKNESS
3 [noncount] : the feeling you have in your stomach when you think you are going to vomit ▪ The patient complained of sickness [=nausea] and stomach pains. — see also MORNING SICKNESS, MOTION SICKNESS, TRAVEL SICKNESS sickness bene t noun [noncount] Brit : money that is paid by the government to someone who is too sick to work sicko /'sɪkoʊ/ noun, pl sick•os [count] informal : a person who does disturbing things that a person who is mentally normal would not do ▪ She was afraid to walk alone for fear some sicko might be lurking in the shadows.

sick pay noun [noncount] : money that is paid by an employer to a person who misses work because of sickness sick•room /'sɪkˌru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a room in which a sick person stays ▪ We brought father home from the hospital and converted a spare room into a sickroom.

sick time noun [noncount] : SICK LEAVE

[1]side /'saɪd/ noun, pl sides
1 [count] : a place, space, or direction that is away from or beyond the center of something ▪ The army was attacked from all sides. ▪ the right-hand side of the street ▪ the opposite side of the room ▪ Move over. This is my side of the bed. — often used with on or to ▪ You have some dirt on the side of your face. ▪ The car was hit on the driver's side. ▪ They live on the other side of town. ▪ The cabins are on the east side of the lake. ▪ Guards stood on either side of the gate. ▪ The army was surrounded on every side. ▪ He sat on the side [=edge] of the bed. ▪ The statue is leaning to the side. ▪ The dog tilted its head to one side. ▪ Pull over to the side of the road.
2 [count] a : an outer surface or part of something ▪ The box says, "THIS SIDE UP." — often + of ▪ the dark side of the moon ▪ You should season both sides of the steak before you grill it. b : one of the surfaces of an object that is not the front, back, top, or bottom — often + of ▪ Nutritional information can be found on the side of the box. ▪ Red cloth decorated the front and sides of the platform. ▪ The side of the car was badly dented. c : one of the two surfaces of a thin object ▪ Flip the record over and play the other side. — often + of ▪ She wrote on both sides of the paper. ▪ Look on the back side of the note.
3 [count] : a line that forms part of a geometric shape ▪ A square has four sides. : a surface that forms part of a geometric object ▪ A cube has six sides.
4 [count] : one of the slopes of a hill or mountain — often + of ▪ the steep side of the hill ▪ They built a house on the side of a mountain. — see also HILLSIDE, MOUNTAINSIDE
5 [count] a : the right or left part of your body ▪ She likes to sleep on her right side. : the right or left part of your body from your shoulder to your hip ▪ I have a pain in my left side. ▪ We laughed so much that our sides hurt. b : the place directly to the right or left of someone — usually singular ▪ I stood at/by her side as she spoke to reporters. ▪ I was standing on her left side. ▪ She set/put the book to the/one side and looked out the window. — often used figuratively ▪ His wife stood at/by his side [=remained loyal to him] throughout the scandal. ▪ Promise me that you will not leave my side. [=abandon me] — see also BLIND SIDE
6 [count] : one of two or more opinions, positions, etc., that disagree with each other ▪ He listened to both sides of the argument. ▪ My side [=version] of the story is different from his. ▪ She has since changed sides on that issue. ▪ You are both my friends, so I don't want to choose/pick/take sides. [=support one person and not the other] ▪ Are you on my side or his? [=do you support me or him?] ▪ Whose side are you on, anyway? ▪ People on both sides of the dispute [=people who support one position and people who support the other position] agree that changes are necessary. — see also ON YOUR SIDE (below)
7 [count] : one of the two or more people or groups that are involved in an argument, war, etc. ▪ All sides agreed on the treaty. ▪ Each side accuses the other of delaying progress.
8 [count] a : a sports team ▪ There are 11 players on each side. ▪ Our side won the game. ▪ (Brit) a football side ▪ We need to choose/pick sides [=to decide which players will be on each team] before we start playing. b baseball : the players on a team who bat in an inning — usually singular ▪ The pitcher struck out the side [=struck out three batters] in the first inning.
9 a [count] : a particular part or feature of something that is opposite to or different from another part or feature ▪ There are good/positive and bad/negative sides to owning your own business. — often + of ▪ He's learning about the sales side of the business. ▪ She kept her side of the bargain/deal. [=she did what she agreed to do] — see also DOWNSIDE, FLIP SIDE, UPSIDE b — used in phrases like on the large side, on the heavy side, etc., to describe someone or something as somewhat heavy, large, etc. ▪ She has always been a little on the heavy side. [=has always been somewhat heavy] ▪ These pants are on the tight side. [=are a little tight] ▪ The sauce is a bit on the spicy side. [=is a bit spicy] ▪ Your boyfriend is on the young side for you, isn't he?
10 [count] a : a part of someone's personality that is opposite or different from another part ▪ I have never seen this side of you before. ▪ He is in touch with his feminine side. b — used in phrases like be/get on someone's good/bad side and be/get on the right/wrong side of someone to talk about doing things that cause someone to like you or dislike you ▪ Trust me. You don't want to get on his bad side. [=you don't want to make him annoyed or angry] ▪ She tries to keep/stay on her boss's good side by finishing all of her work on time. ▪ If you get on the wrong side of him [=if you make him annoyed or angry] he can be very mean.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:21 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

11 [count] : the ancestors or relatives of your mother or your father ▪ She gets her red hair from her mother's side. ▪ Both sides of his family are Irish. ▪ my grandfather on my father's side [=my father's father]
12 [count] US : a small amount of food that is ordered in addition to the main meal — often + of ▪ I ordered a side of fries with my hamburger.
13 [count] : one of the two halves of an animal that is eaten as food — usually + of ▪ a side of bacon/pork/beef
14 [count] chiefly Brit : a page of writing on one side of a piece of paper ▪ I wrote two sides in response to the question.
15 [count] Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a television channel — usually singular ▪ What's on the other side?
a thorn in the/your side see THORN
err on the side of see ERR
(from) side to side : moving to the left and then to the right ▪ She shook her head from side to side in disagreement. ▪ waving the flags from side to side ▪ He moved side to side on the tennis court.
let the side down Brit : to disappoint your family, friends, etc., by failing to do what is needed or expected ▪ I feel like I really let the side down. [=let everyone down] on side Brit : included among the group of people who support a particular goal, project, etc. ▪ We need to keep everyone on side. [=on board] on the bright side see BRIGHT on the credit side see [1]CREDIT on the debit side see [1]DEBIT on the right/wrong side of 30, 40, 50 (etc.) informal : younger/older than 30, 40, 50 (etc.) ▪ She's still on the right side of 40. [=younger than 40] on the side 1 a : in addition to the main item in a meal ▪ We were served salmon with rice and grilled vegetables on the side. b : served next to something rather than on top of it ▪ For my salad, I'd like Italian dressing on the side. 2 : in addition to your main job ▪ She sells insurance on the side. 3 : as part of a secret romantic relationship that is outside of your marriage or main romantic relationship ▪ a married man with a girlfriend on the side ▪ She had a fiancé but was seeing another man on the side.
on the wrong/right side of the law — used to say that someone is or is not living the life of a criminal ▪ He has been on the wrong side of the law since he stole a car at the age of 17. ▪ Now that she's out of prison she's trying to stay on the right side of the law. [=trying not to get into trouble with the police] on your side : as an advantage ▪ He is not a very tall basketball player, but he does have quickness on his side. : helping you to succeed ▪ Luck seems to be on your side tonight. ▪ Time is on our side. [=we have a lot of time to do what we need to do] — see also [1]SIDE 6 (above) side by side 1 : next to each other and facing in the same direction ▪ We walked side by side down the hallway. ▪ They stood side by side at the altar. 2 : together or very close to each other ▪ The tribes have lived peacefully side by side for many years. ▪ People worked side by side to rescue the trapped coal miners.
split your sides (laughing) see [1]SPLIT the other side of the coin see [1]COIN the wrong side of the tracks see [1]TRACK this side of 1 a : very nearly (something) ▪ Their actions were just this side of illegal. [=were almost but not quite illegal] b : that is not (something) : other than (something) ▪ the worst punishment this side of death 2 Brit : BEFORE ▪ She's not likely to be back this side of Monday week.
to the/one side 1 : to a place that is on one side : ASIDE ▪ Please move/step to the side. I need to get past you. ▪ He put his luggage to one side. ▪ She took the boy to the side [=away from other people] and told him to behave. 2 : in a state in which something is not dealt with, done, or used until a later time : ASIDE ▪ Let's put/leave that question to the side for a moment. ▪ He set his household chores to the side to finish writing his essay. ▪ They managed to put some money to the side every month. — see also [1]SIDE 1 (above)
two sides of the same coin see [1]COIN
– compare [4]SIDE

[2]side adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or located on the side of something ▪ a front and side view of the car ▪ The jacket has side pockets. ▪ Please use the side door/entrance.
2 : happening or done in addition to the main or most important thing ▪ A side benefit of the drug is that it helps patients relax. ▪ She took on a side project/job during the summer. ▪ a side remark/issue
3 : in addition to the main meal ▪ a side salad ▪ I had a burger with a side order of fries. ▪ I'll have rice as a side dish.

[3]side verb sides; sid•ed; sid•ing [+ obj] US : to cover the outside walls of (a building) with long pieces of material (called siding) ▪ They just sided their house.
side against [phrasal verb] side against (someone) : to not agree with (someone) : to not support the opinions or actions of (someone) ▪ They both sided against [=opposed] me. ▪ His father sided with his mother against him.
side with [phrasal verb] side with (someone) : to agree with or support the opinions or actions of (someone) ▪ She sided with her friend in the argument. ▪ They betrayed their country and sided with the enemy.

[4]side noun [noncount] Brit, informal : an unpleasantly proud attitude or way of behaving ▪ He was a war hero and yet there was no side to him. [=he was not arrogant or pretentious] — compare [1]SIDE

[1]side•arm /ˈsaɪdˌɑɚm/ noun, pl -arms [count] : a weapon (such as a sword or handgun) that is worn on your hip or in your belt

[2]sidearm adj, chiefly US : done with your arm moving out to the side ▪ The pitcher has a sidearm delivery. ▪ a sidearm pass – sidearm adv ▪ He throws sidearm.

side•board /ˈsaɪdˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards
1 [count] : a piece of furniture that has drawers and shelves for holding dishes, silverware, table linen, etc.
2 sideboards [plural] Brit : SIDEBURNS side•burns /ˈsaɪdˌbɚnz/ noun [plural] : hair that grows on the side of a man's face in front of his ears — see picture at BEARD side–by–side adj, always used before a noun : positioned next to each other ▪ side-by-side beds : involving things that are positioned next to each other ▪ a side-by-side comparison of the two paintings side•car /ˈsaɪdˌkɑɚ/ noun, pl -cars [count] : a small vehicle that is attached to the side of a motorcycle for a passenger to ride in sided adj : having sides usually of a specified number or kind — used in combination ▪ a two-sided letter ▪ glass-sided buildings — see also DOUBLE-SIDED, ONE-SIDED side effect noun, pl ~ -fects [count]

1 : an often harmful and unwanted effect of a drug or chemical that occurs along with the desired effect ▪ Nausea and diarrhea are the side effects of the drug. ▪ the harmful side effects of using chemicals to kill insects
2 : a result of an action that is not expected or intended ▪ The merger created positive side effects for both companies.

side•kick /ˈsaɪdˌkɪk/ noun, pl -kicks [count] informal : a person who helps and spends a lot of time with someone who is usually more important, powerful, etc. ▪ the mayor and his sidekick side•light /ˈsaɪdˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count]

1 : a piece of information that is in addition to the main information ▪ The book includes some amusing sidelights about his childhood
2 Brit : PARKING LIGHT

[1]side•line /ˈsaɪdˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]
1 a : a line that marks the outside edge of a sports field or court b : the space outside the area where a game is played on a field or court — usually plural ▪ We stood on the sidelines to watch the game. ▪ He was forced to watch the game from the sidelines. — often used figuratively ▪ His injury has kept him on the sidelines [=has kept him from playing] this season. ▪ He stayed on the sidelines and let his daughter run the family business her way.
2 : a job that is done in addition to your main job ▪ She makes and sells jewelry as a sideline.

[2]sideline verb -lines; -lined; -lin•ing [+ obj] : to prevent (a player) from playing in a game especially because of injury, illness, etc. — usually used as (be) sidelined ▪ He was sidelined with a knee injury. — often used figuratively ▪ a lawyer sidelined by illness ▪ Her career had been sidelined for several years by motherhood.

side•long /ˈsaɪdˌlɑːŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : made to the left or right or out of the corner of your eye ▪ a sidelong look/glance side road noun, pl ~ roads [count] : a smaller road that is connected to a main road ▪ We like driving on side roads when we travel.
– sidelong adv ▪ She glanced sidelong at her brother.

side•sad•dle /ˈsaɪdˌsædl/ noun, pl -sad•dles [count] : a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s saddle that is made for a rider to sit with both legs on one side of the horse – sidesaddle adv ▪ She rode/sat sidesaddle. [=she rode/sat with both legs on one side of the horse]

side•show /ˈsaɪdˌʃoʊ/ noun, pl -shows [count]
1 : a smaller show that is performed in addition to a main show ▪ a circus sideshow
2 : an activity or event that is less important than the main activity or event ▪ Their disagreement is just a political sideshow when compared to the real issues at hand.

side•split•ting /ˈsaɪdˌsplɪtɪŋ/ adj, informal : very funny ▪ a sidesplitting comedy/performance side•step /ˈsaɪdˌstɛp/ verb -steps; -stepped; -step•ping

1 : to avoid walking into or being hit by (someone or something) by stepping to the right or left [+ obj] She sidestepped the puddle. [no obj] He sidestepped to avoid (being hit by) his opponent.
2 [+ obj] : to avoid answering or dealing with (something) directly ▪ She sidestepped the reporter's question. ▪ They're sidestepping the real issue.

side street noun, pl ~ streets [count] : a smaller street that connects to and often ends at a main road ▪ We live on a quiet side street.

[1]side•swipe /ˈsaɪdˌswaɪp/ verb -swipes; -swiped; -swip•ing [+ obj] US : to hit the side of a vehicle with the side of another vehicle ▪ The taxi sideswiped a parked car.

[2]sideswipe noun, pl -swipes [count] : a critical remark about someone or something that is made while talking about someone or something else ▪ She took a sideswipe at the senator's voting record.

side table noun, pl ~ tables [count] : a table that is designed to be placed against a wall side•track /ˈsaɪdˌtræk/ verb -tracks; -tracked; -track•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to talk about or do something different and less important — usually used as (be/get) sidetracked ▪ Now, what was I saying? I got sidetracked by that phone call.
2 US a : to change the direction or use of (something) — usually used as (be) sidetracked ▪ The grant money was sidetracked [=diverted] to fund unrelated research projects. b : to prevent (something) from being dealt with — usually used as (be) sidetracked ▪ The real issue has been sidetracked.

side–view mirror noun, pl ~ -rors [count] US : a mirror on the outside of a vehicle that allows the driver to see what is behind and to the right or left of the vehicle ▪ the right/left side-view mirror — called also (Brit) wing mirror

side•walk /ˈsaɪdˌwɑːk/ noun, pl -walks [count] US : a usually concrete path along the side of a street for people to walk on ▪ Bicycles are not allowed on the sidewalk. ▪ sidewalk cafés ▪ a sidewalk sale [=an event in which a store displays its goods outside on a sidewalk] — called also (Brit) pavement; see picture at STREET side•ways /ˈsaɪdˌweɪz/ adv

1 : with one side facing forward ▪ We had to turn sideways to let them through the crowded hallway. ▪ crabs walking sideways along the beach
2 : to or toward the right or left side ▪ Helicopters can fly up, down, forward, backward, and sideways. ▪ She fell sideways and landed on her shoulder. ▪ I looked sideways at him to see if he was smiling.
– sideways adj ▪ a sideways movement/glance

sid•ing /ˈsaɪdɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [noncount] US : long pieces of material that are used to cover the outside walls of a building ▪ vinyl siding — called also (chiefly Brit) cladding
2 [count] : a short railroad track that is connected with the main track

si•dle /ˈsaɪdl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition si•dles; si•dled; si•dling [no obj]
1 : to move close to someone in a quiet or secret way ▪ He sidled up to me and slipped me a note. ▪ She sidled over and whispered, "Do you see that guy?"
2 : to go or move with one side forward ▪ The crab sidled away. ▪ She sidled through the narrow opening.

SIDS abbr sudden infant death syndrome siege /ˈsiːʤ/ noun, pl sieg•es

1 : a situation in which soldiers or police officers surround a city, building, etc., in order to try to take control of it [count] the siege of Paris ▪ The castle was built to withstand a siege. [noncount] The city is in a state of siege.
2 [count] : a serious and lasting attack of something — usually singular ▪ He's recovering from a siege of depression. ▪ a long siege of bitterly cold temperatures lay siege to (something or someone) 1 : to surround (a city, building, etc.) with soldiers or police officers in order to try to take control of it ▪ The army laid siege to the city. 2 : to attack (something or someone) constantly or repeatedly — usually used figuratively ▪ Angry taxpayers laid siege to city hall with letters and phone calls.
under siege 1 : surrounded with soldiers or police officers in a siege ▪ The city was under siege and food was getting scarce. 2 : very seriously attacked or criticized by many people ▪ The newspaper has been under siege lately by its readers for printing a false story.

siege mentality noun [singular] : a strong feeling that you are in constant danger or are surrounded by enemies ▪ Living in a high-crime area can create a siege mentality.

si•en•na /siˈɛnə/ noun [noncount]
1 : a brownish-yellow color
2 : a reddish-brown color

si•er•ra /siˈɛrə/ noun, pl -ras [count]
1 : a range of mountains with sharply pointed peaks ▪ The Sierra Nevada is a mountain range in California.
2 : a mountain in a sierra — usually plural ▪ The sierras rose up sharply before us.

si•es•ta /siˈɛstə/ noun, pl -tas
1 : a regular period of sleep or rest in the afternoon in some hot countries [count] Most of the shops were closed after lunch for a two-hour siesta. [noncount] The shops are closed during siesta. ▪ It's siesta time.
2 [count] : a brief sleep : NAP ▪ He's taking a little siesta out there on the patio.

[1]sieve /ˈsɪv/ noun, pl sieves [count] : a kitchen tool that has many small holes and that is used to separate smaller particles from larger ones or solids from liquids have a memory/mind like a sieve informal : to have a very bad memory : to be unable to remember things ▪ I'm sorry. I have a memory like a sieve. What was your name again?

[2]sieve verb sieves; sieved; siev•ing [+ obj] : to put (something) through a sieve ▪ She sieved [=sifted] the flour into a mixing bowl.

sift /ˈsɪft/ verb sifts; sift•ed; sift•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to put (flour, sugar, etc.) through a sifter or sieve ▪ Sift the flour into a mixing bowl. ▪ sifted flour b : to separate or remove (something) by using a sifter or sieve ▪ Sift the lumps from the sugar. — often + out ▪ Sift out the rocks from the sand. — often used figuratively ▪ The lawyer sifted out the relevant facts of the case.
2 : to go through (something) very carefully in order to find something useful or valuable [+ obj] The police sifted the evidence in hopes of finding a clue. [no obj] The police sifted for clues. ▪ The lawyer sifted through the hundreds of pages of testimony. ▪ Firefighters sifted through the debris.

sift•er /ˈsɪftə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 chiefly US : [1]SIEVE; especially : a special kitchen tool used for sifting flour, sugar, etc.
2 Brit : SHAKER 1

sigh /ˈsaɪ/ verb sighs; sighed; sigh•ing
1 [no obj] : to take in and let out a long, loud breath in a way that shows you are bored, disappointed, relieved, etc. ▪ He sighed with/in relief when he saw that he passed the test.
2 [no obj] literary : to make a sound like sighing ▪ The wind sighed through the trees.
3 [+ obj] : to say (something) with a sigh ▪ "I may never see my old home again," she sighed.
– sigh noun, pl sighs [count] ▪ She gave a long, weary sigh. ▪ He sank into the chair with a sigh. — often + of ▪ a sigh of disappointment ▪ I can breathe a sigh of relief [=stop worrying] now that she's safe.

[1]sight /ˈsaɪt/ noun, pl sights
1 [noncount] : the sense through which a person or animal becomes aware of light, color, etc., by using the eyes : the ability to see ▪ Your sight [=vision, eyesight] weakens as you get older. ▪ She regained sight in her left eye. ▪ He lost his sight [=he became blind] at a young age.
2 [noncount] : the act of seeing someone or something ▪ I know him by sight [=I have seen him], but I don't know his name. ▪ She hated him on sight. [=she hated him the first time she saw him] ▪ The officers were ordered to shoot on sight. — often + of ▪ The (mere) sight of her ex-boyfriend filled her with rage. ▪ We lost sight of the plane. [=we could no longer see the plane] ▪ He faints at the sight of [=when he sees] blood. ▪ He can't stand/bear the sight of blood. ▪ She caught sight of an eagle gliding through the air. — often used figuratively ▪ We must not lose sight of our goal. [=we must keep thinking about our goal]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

3 [noncount] : a position in which someone or something can be seen ▪ The ship came into sight. [=into view] ▪ When I looked out the door, there was no one in sight. [=no one could be seen] ▪ Keep out of sight until I tell you it's OK to come out. ▪ The child wandered out of sight. ▪ Get out of my sight! [=go away from me; I don't want to see you] ▪ Don't let the puppy out of your sight. ▪ The rabbit disappeared from sight into the tall grass. ▪ The controls are hidden from sight behind a panel. ▪ She left her purse out in plain sight. = Her purse was in plain sight of anyone passing by. ▪ We finally came in/within sight of the mountains. [=we finally came to a place where we could see the mountains] ▪ A large pole was directly in my line of sight. [=a large pole was blocking my view] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The end of the project is finally in/within sight. [=the end of the project is finally near] ✧ The phrase out of sight, out of mind means that you stop thinking about something or someone if you do not see that thing or person for a period of time.

4 [count] a : someone or something that is seen ▪ The old dog was a pathetic/sorry sight. ▪ Deer are a common/familiar sight in this area. ▪ I've seen what he looks like when he gets out of bed in the morning, and believe me, it's not a pretty sight. ▪ The birth of the calf was a sight to see/behold. [=was an amazing or wonderful thing to see] ▪ We enjoyed the sights and sounds of the casino. b : a famous or interesting place in an area — usually plural ▪ Our tour guide showed us the sights. ▪ We saw all the sights of/in the city.

5 [singular] informal : someone or something that is strange, funny, messy, etc. ▪ I'd invite you in, but the living room is a sight. ▪ He was all dressed up as a pirate. It was quite a sight (to see)! ▪ (chiefly Brit) You should get some sleep. You look a sight.

6 sights [plural] : a goal or expectation ▪ The company has raised/lowered its sights for annual sales by five percent. ▪ She has set her sights on becoming a doctor. [=she wants to become a doctor]

7 [count] : a device that is used to aim a gun ▪ He adjusted the sight of the rifle. — usually plural ▪ The deer was in her sights. = She could see the deer in her sights. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He always had a law career in his sights. [=his goal was always to have a law career]

8 [singular] informal : a large amount or extent : a lot ▪ The car is a sight less expensive and has better gas mileage. ▪ The book is a far sight [=a great deal] better than the movie. ▪ You'll have to work a damn/darn sight quicker than that if you want to get done on time.

a sight for sore eyes : a person or thing that you are very glad to see ▪ After being away from home for so long, my friends and family were a sight for sore eyes.

at first sight see ¹FIRST

drop out of sight see ²DROP

heave in/into sight see ¹HEAVE

no end in sight see ¹END out of sight US, informal + old-fashioned : very good ▪ The show was really out of sight.

sight gag see ²GAG

sight unseen : without seeing or examining something ▪ They bought the house sight unseen. [=they bought the house without first looking at it]

S

²sight verb sights; sight•ed; sight•ing [+ obj] : to see (something or someone that is being looked for or that is rarely seen or difficult to see) ▪ They sighted a ship in the distance. ▪ Several bears have been sighted in the area.

sight•ed /ˈsaɪtəd/ adj : able to see : not blind ▪ blind and sighted people ▪ partially sighted people [=people who are not blind but have only a limited ability to see] — see also CLEAR-SIGHTED, FARSIGHTED, LONG-SIGHTED, NEAR-SIGHTED, SHORTSIGHTED sighting noun, pl -ings [count] : an act of seeing something or someone that is rarely seen or difficult to see — often + of ▪ There have been several sightings of whales swimming off the island.

sight•less /ˈsaɪtləs/ adj, literary : not able to see : BLIND ▪ sightless eyes sight–read /ˈsaɪtˌri:d/ verb -reads; -read /-ˌrɛd/; -read•ing /-ˌri:dɪŋ/ : to perform (written music) while reading it for the first time without practicing it [+ obj] The orchestra hired her because she could sight-read even the most difficult scores. [no obj] She sight-reads well.

– sight reader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – sight–reading noun [noncount] sight•see•ing /ˈsaɪtˌsi:ɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activity of visiting the famous or interesting places of an area ▪ We spent the afternoon sightseeing. ▪ We did a lot of sightseeing on our vacation.

– sight•seer /ˈsaɪtˌsi:ə/ noun, pl -seers [count] ▪ The church attracts a lot of sightseers.

sig•ma /ˈsɪgmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : the 18th letter of the Greek alphabet — Σ or σ or ς

¹sign /ˈsaɪn/ noun, pl signs [count]

1 : a piece of paper, wood, etc., with words or pictures on it that gives information about something ▪ The sign in the store window says "OPEN." ▪ After you get off the highway, follow the signs for Route 25. ▪ road/street/traffic signs ▪ He ran the stop sign. ▪ There was a "For Sale" sign on the car.

2 : something (such as an action or event) which shows that something else exists, is true, or will happen ▪ All the signs point to him as the guilty party. ▪ She ignored me, which was a sure sign that she was mad at me. ▪ "The company called me in for a second interview." "That's a good sign." ▪ It was a bad sign that he couldn't walk on the injured leg. ▪ There are plenty of warning signs that the company is in danger of bankruptcy. — often + of ▪ Chest pain could be a sign of a heart attack. ▪ We remained alert for any signs of danger. ▪ the telltale signs of the disease ▪ the first signs of spring ▪ The bartender called the police at the first sign of trouble. [=as soon as there was trouble] ▪ The runner showed signs of fatigue. [=appeared to be tired] ▪ His writing is showing signs of improvement. [=appears to be improving] ▪ He showed no sign of remorse. ▪ The planet showed no signs of life. [=there was no evidence of living things on the planet] — see also VITAL SIGNS

3 : a motion, action, or movement that you use to express a thought, command, or wish ▪ They bowed before the king as a sign of respect. ▪ The teacher made a sign for the students to be quiet. ▪ a picture of the president giving the thumbs-up sign — see also SIGN OF THE CROSS

4 : any one of the hand movements that are used in sign language — often + for ▪ Do you know the sign for "thank you"? ▪ the sign for the letter B

5 : a symbol that is used to represent something especially in mathematics ▪ The symbol ÷ is the sign for division. — see also CALL SIGN, DIVISION SIGN, DOLLAR SIGN, MINUS SIGN, MULTIPLICATION SIGN, PLUS SIGN a sign of the times : something that shows the kinds of things that are happening, popular, important, etc., in a culture at a particular period in history ▪ Having metal detectors in schools is a sign of the times.

6 : STAR SIGN ▪ What's your sign?

²sign verb signs; signed; sign•ing

1 a : to write (your name) on something [+ obj] Sign your name on the bottom line. ▪ She met with fans and signed autographs. [no obj] Please sign at the bottom of the application. ▪ Make sure you get all the details before you sign on the dotted line. [=officially agree to buy or do something by signing a document] b [+ obj] : to write your name on (something) especially to show that you accept, agree with, or will be responsible for something ▪ You forgot to sign the document/letter/check. ▪ He was forced to sign the confession. ▪ The contract was signed by both parties. ▪ The author will be signing copies of his books today. ▪ a signed confession ▪ The contract should be signed, sealed, and delivered by tomorrow. ▪ The President signed the bill into law. [=made the bill a law by signing an official document]

2 a [+ obj] : to hire (someone) to do something especially by having that person sign a contract ▪ The team signed the pitcher to a three-year contract. ▪ He is signed to a three-year contract. ▪ The studio signed her to do another movie. = The studio signed her for another movie. — see also SIGN ON (below), SIGN UP (below) b [no obj] : to agree to work for or to produce something for an organization, business, etc., especially by signing a contract ▪ She signed to direct two movies for the studio. — usually + with ▪ She signed with the studio to direct two movies. ▪ He signed with the team for one season. ▪ The band signed with an independent label. — see also SIGN ON (below), SIGN UP (below)

3 : to communicate by using sign language [no obj] The child is learning how to sign. [+ obj] She signed "please."

sign away [phrasal verb] sign (something) away or sign away (something) : to give (something, such as rights or property) to someone by signing a document ▪ He signed away his share of the property.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:22 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

sign for [phrasal verb] sign for (something) : to sign a document to show that you have received (a package, letter, etc.) ▪ I signed for the package when it was delivered.

sign in [phrasal verb] 1 a : to sign your name on a list, in a book, etc., to show that you have arrived ▪ All visitors must sign in upon arrival. b *sign (someone) in or sign in (someone) : to write the name of (someone) on a list, in a book, etc., to show that they have arrived ▪ The receptionist signed the guests in. 2 *sign (something) in or sign in (something) : to sign your name on a list, in a book, etc., to show that you have returned (something that you borrowed) ▪ He signed the video equipment (back) in.

sign off [phrasal verb] 1 : to end a letter or broadcast by signing or saying your name ▪ She signed off with "Yours Truly, Maria." ▪ "This is DJ Fresh signing off. Peace." ▪ The radio station signs off [=stops broadcasting] at midnight. 2 US sign off or Brit sign (something) off or Brit sign off (something) : to approve something officially by signing your name ▪ (US) She refused to sign off until the wording was changed. ▪ (Brit) He inspected the memo before signing it off. — usually + on in U.S. English ▪ He signed off on the memo [=he approved the memo by signing it] and gave it back to his secretary for distribution.

sign on [phrasal verb] 1 a : to agree to do something (such as a job) especially by signing a contract ▪ She signed on to the new project. ▪ He signed on [=signed up] as a member of the crew. b *sign (someone) on or sign on (someone) : to hire (someone) to do something especially by having that person sign a contract ▪ The studio has signed her on [=signed her up] to do another movie. ▪ She's signed on for another movie. — see also ²SIGN 2 (above) 2 : to start a broadcast by saying your name ▪ "This is DJ Fresh signing on." ▪ The radio station signs on [=begins broadcasting] at 5:00 a.m. 3 Brit : to report officially that you are unemployed in order to receive money from the government ▪ She lost her job and had to sign on.

sign out [phrasal verb] 1 a : to sign your name on a list, in a book, etc., to show that you have left a place ▪ Did the visitors sign out? b *sign (someone) out or sign out (someone) : to write the name of (someone) on a list, in a book, etc., to show that they have left a place ▪ The receptionist signed the guests out. 2 *sign (something) out or sign out (something) : to sign your name on a list, in a book, etc., to show that you have borrowed (something) ▪ He signed the video equipment out. ▪ The library book is signed out.

sign over [phrasal verb] sign (something) over or sign over (something) : to give (something that you own, such as rights or property) to someone by signing a document ▪ He signed over the property to his brother.

sign up [phrasal verb] 1 a : to sign your name on a document or list in order to get, do, or take something ▪ She signed up for health insurance. ▪ He signed up for tennis lessons. ▪ Students can now sign up for classes. b : to indicate that you will definitely do a job, join a team, etc., especially by signing a contract ▪ He signed up [=signed on] as an Army reservist. ▪ She signed up with another team. 2 *sign (someone) up or sign up (someone) a : to add the name of (someone) to an official list in order for that person to get, do, or take something ▪ The church has signed up more than enough volunteers for the festival. b : to hire (someone) to do something especially by having that person sign a contract ▪ The team signed up [=signed on] several new players. ▪ The record label signed the band up. — see also ²SIGN 2 (above) sign·age /ˈsaɪnɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : signs or a system of signs used to show information about something (such as a business or a road) ▪ Recent airport improvements include more lighting and better signage.

¹sig·nal /ˈsɪgnl/ noun, pl -nals [count]
1 : an event or act which shows that something exists or that gives information about something : SIGN ▪ The change in his behavior is clearly a signal [=indication] that there is a problem. ▪ He likes her but he is sending the wrong signals with his constant teasing. — often + of ▪ Inflammation is a signal of infection.
2 : something (such as a sound, a movement of part of the body, or an object) that gives information about something or that tells someone to do something ▪ Don't start until I give the signal. [=sign] ▪ The teacher gave us the signal to finish what we were working on and hand in our tests. ▪ The pilot sent out a distress signal [=a message that the airplane was in danger] before the plane crashed. ▪ They communicated with each other by using hand signals. [=movements of a person's hands that mean something]
3 : a piece of equipment with colored lights that is used on railways and roads to tell people when to go, to slow down, or to stop ▪ Faulty wiring in the train station caused a signal to malfunction. ▪ The traffic signal [=traffic light] was not working.
4 technical a : a message, sound, or image that is carried by waves of light or sound ▪ The video/TV signal is scrambled. ▪ Satellite dishes receive television signals. ▪ a digital signal ▪ The transmitter beams radio signals into space. b : a wave of light or sound that carries a message, sound, or image ▪ We'll need better equipment to generate a 50 Hz signal.
busy signal see ¹BUSY
mixed signals see MIXED

²signal verb -nals; US -naled or Brit -nalled; US -nal·ing or Brit -nal·ling
1 [+ obj] : to be a sign of (something) : to show the existence of (something) ▪ Robins signal the arrival of spring. ▪ The election results surely signal the start/beginning of a new era. ▪ He signaled [=showed, communicated] his irritation by sighing and rolling his eyes dramatically. ▪ Redness, swelling, and painful itching signal [=indicate] an infection. ▪ A lock on the suitcase might signal that there's something of value inside.
2 : to make a sound or motion that tells someone something [no obj] Did he signal before he made the left turn? ▪ They signaled at me to come over to their table. ▪ We signaled for help. [+ obj] He signaled us that it was time to begin the meeting. ▪ The umpire signaled a strike.

³signal adj, always used before a noun, formal : very important or great : SIGNIFICANT ▪ Is he worthy of such a signal honor? ▪ The bill's passage was a signal [=notable] victory for environmentalists.
– sig·nal·ly /ˈsɪgnəli/ adv ▪ The mayor has signally failed to do what he promised to do.

sig·nal·er (US) or Brit sig·nal·ler /ˈsɪgnələ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : SIGNALMAN 2

sig·nal·man /ˈsɪgnlmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]
1 chiefly Brit : a person who has the job of operating signals on a railway
2 : a person in the military who is trained to send and receive signals

sig·na·to·ry /ˈsɪgnəˌtori, Brit ˈsɪgnətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] formal : a person, country, or organization that has signed an official document ▪ signatories to the treaty/petition ▪ a signatory of the Declaration of Independence

¹sig·na·ture /ˈsɪgnəʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 [count] : a person's name written in that person's handwriting ▪ There is a place for your signature at the bottom of the form. ▪ If we can collect 200,000 signatures on our petition, then our candidate will be included on the ballot. ▪ We presented the document to the president for her signature.
2 [noncount] formal : the act of signing something ▪ The contract requires signature by both parties. [=must be signed by both parties] ▪ The bill passed and went to the governor for signature a week ago.
3 [count] : something (such as a quality or feature) that is closely associated with someone or something — usually singular ▪ Her latest movie includes the humor and fast pace that have become her signature.

²signature adj, always used before a noun : closely associated with someone or something : making a person or thing easy to recognize ▪ the chef's signature dish ▪ "Respect" is her signature song/tune. ▪ The director's new movie is a return to his signature style.

sign·board /ˈsaɪnˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a board with writing or a picture on it that gives information about something (such as a business) sign·ee /ˌsaɪˈni:/ noun, pl -ees [count] US, formal : a person, organization, etc., that has signed an official document (such as a treaty or contract) ▪ signees [=signatories] to the treaty/petition sign·er /ˈsaɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person, country, or organization that has signed an official document ▪ He was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.
2 : a person who uses sign language sig·net ring /ˈsɪgnət-/ noun, pl ~ rings [count] : a ring that is decorated with a special design and worn on the finger — see color picture on page C11

sig·nif·i·cance /sɪgˈnɪfɪkəns/ noun
1 : the quality of being important : the quality of having notable worth or influence [noncount] The discovery has great

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

significance to researchers. ▪ His age is of little significance. ▪ This building should be preserved because of its historical significance. ▪ Does the ceremony have any religious significance? [singular] Her work has a significance that will last beyond her lifetime. — opposite INSIGNIFICANCE

2 : the meaning of something [noncount] I failed to understand/grasp/appreciate the significance of her remarks. ▪ Does the date March 16 have some special significance to/for you? [singular] People in ancient times assigned a particular significance to the number seven.

sig•nif•i•cant /sɪgˈnɪfɪkənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : large enough to be noticed or have an effect ▪ A significant number of customers complained about the service. ▪ He won a significant amount of money. ▪ There is a significant difference in prices between the two stores. ▪ The study found a statistically significant decrease in symptoms in patients who had taken the drug. ▪ His influence on me was significant. = He had a significant influence on me.

2 : very important ▪ a significant event in the history of our nation ▪ Fish is a significant part of their diet. ▪ It is significant that she never mentioned him. — opposite INSIGNIFICANT

3 : having a special or hidden meaning ▪ He gave us a significant wink/look. ▪ a significant [=suggestive] glance

sig•nif•i•cant•ly /sɪgˈnɪfɪkəntli/ adv

1 : in a way that is large or important enough to be noticed or have an effect ▪ People who smoke have a significantly greater risk of developing lung cancer than people who don't. ▪ Another store sold the game for a significantly lower price. ▪ If you take my advice, your chances of winning will increase/improve significantly.

2 [more ~; most ~] — used to say that something is important or meaningful ▪ Significantly, William broke with family tradition and decided not to name his newborn son "William." ▪ It was the first time I had ever traveled outside of the country, but, more significantly, it was the first time I had ever been outside of my parents' supervision.

3 : in a way that has a special or hidden meaning ▪ He looked/glanced significantly in her direction when he said that some of us are not doing our jobs.

significant other noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone that you have a romantic relationship with : your husband, wife, boyfriend, or girlfriend ▪ Before you make such an important decision, you should talk it over with your significant other. — abbr. SO

sig•ni•fy /ˈsɪgnəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing

1 [+ obj] : to be a sign of (something) : to mean (something) ▪ Black clothing signifies mourning. ▪ A check mark next to your name signifies that you have met all the requirements. ▪ The recent decline of the stock market does not necessarily signify the start of a recession.

2 [+ obj] : to show (your feelings, intentions, opinions, etc.) by doing something ▪ He nodded to signify his approval. = He nodded to signify that he approved. ▪ He gave her a diamond ring to signify his love.

3 [no obj] formal + somewhat old-fashioned : to have importance : MATTER ▪ Whether he agrees or not does not signify.

sign•ing /ˈsaɪnɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the act of writing your name on something (such as a contract or document) to show that you agree to something — often + of ▪ the signing of the Declaration of Independence ▪ Two people witnessed the signing of the will.

2 [noncount] : the use of sign language ▪ The child uses signing to communicate.

3 a [noncount] : the act of having someone sign a contract with a sports team, record company, etc. ▪ The team has announced the signing of several new players. b [count] : someone who has signed a contract with a sports team, record company, etc. ▪ a list of the team's recent signings sign language noun, pl ~ -guages [count, noncount] : a system of hand movements used for communication especially by people who are deaf sign of the cross

the sign of the cross : a movement of the hand that forms a cross shape and that is done as an expression of the Christian faith ▪ She knelt and made the sign of the cross.

[1]sign•post /ˈsaɪnˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] : a sign beside a road showing the direction and distance to a place ▪ The signpost says it is 10 miles to the city. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ There are no signposts pointing to a solution.

[2]signpost verb -posts; -post•ed; -post•ing [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to provide (something) with signposts or guides ▪ The road from here to London is well/clearly signposted. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His success has signposted the way for others.

Sikh /ˈsi:k/ noun, pl Sikhs [count] : a follower of Sikhism – Sikh adj

Sikh•ism /ˈsi:ˌkɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a religion founded in India around 1500 that is based on the belief that there is one God si•lage /ˈsaɪlɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : food for farm animals that is stored inside a silo

[1]si•lence /ˈsaɪləns/ noun, pl -lenc•es

1 [noncount] : a lack of sound or noise : QUIET ▪ I find it hard to sleep unless there is complete silence. ▪ The silence was broken by the sound of footsteps in the hallway.

2 : a situation, state, or period of time in which people do not talk [noncount] We sat there in dead/total/complete silence. ▪ My sister's revelation was met with stunned silence. ▪ Silence fell/descended upon the room. [=the room became quiet] ▪ The professor asked for silence. [count] There was an awkward silence after he confessed his love for her. ▪ A long silence followed her reply.

3 : a situation or state in which someone does not talk about or answer questions about something [noncount] We must break 50 years of silence on issues like the government's involvement in assassination and espionage. ▪ I will not be intimidated into silence. ▪ You don't have to suffer in silence. [=suffer or be unhappy without saying anything] [singular] She finally ended her silence and spoke to the media about what happened. — see also CONSPIRACY OF SILENCE deafening silence see DEAFENING

silence is golden — used to say that it is often better to remain silent than to speak

[2]silence verb -lences; -lenced; -lenc•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone or something) to stop speaking or making noise : to cause (someone or something) to become silent ▪ My sister's revelation silenced everyone around the table. ▪ Police silenced the crowd. ▪ Disconnecting the battery will silence the alarm.

2 a : to stop (someone) from expressing opinions that are opposed to your own or from telling people about bad things that you have done ▪ The mayor tried to silence his critics. ▪ I will not be silenced! b : to stop (something) from being expressed or revealed : SUPPRESS ▪ It's obvious that the purpose of this law is to silence dissent.

si•lenc•er /ˈsaɪlənsə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 US : a device that is attached to a handgun to reduce the noise that the gun makes when it is fired

2 Brit : MUFFLER 1

si•lent /ˈsaɪlənt/ adj

1 : not speaking or making noise : QUIET ▪ She was silent for a few minutes as she thought about how to answer him. ▪ Please be silent. ▪ The crowd fell silent as the horrible news was read aloud.

2 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : tending not to talk much ▪ My father was a very silent man. ▪ He was the strong, silent type.

3 : not having or making any sound or noise ▪ He said he would call me, but the phone was silent all day. ▪ The radio went silent. [=dead] ▪ A long, silent pause followed her reply.

4 always used before a noun : done, felt, or expressed without speaking ▪ She offered a silent prayer of thanks for her family's safety. ▪ They nodded their heads in silent agreement. ▪ He turned his back on the president in silent protest.

5 : giving no information about something or refusing to discuss something ▪ History books are silent about this shameful incident in our nation's past. ▪ The president remained silent on the issue of funding. ▪ You have the right to remain silent. [=the legal right not to say anything when you are arrested]

6 grammar : written in the spelling of a word but not pronounced ▪ There is a silent "e" in "cane." ▪ The "b" in "debt" is silent.

7 always used before a noun, of movies a : not having spoken dialogue ▪ silent movies/films b : of or relating to movies that have no spoken dialogue ▪ filmmakers of the silent era

– si•lent•ly adv ▪ She sat silently beside me. ▪ The tiger moved silently through the jungle.

silent auction noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : an auction in which people write down their bids for the things being sold silent majority noun

the silent majority : the largest part of a country's population that consists of people who are not actively involved

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:23 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s in politics and do not express their political opinions publicly silent partner noun, pl ~ -ners [count] chiefly US : a partner who invests money in a business but is not involved in running the business — called also (Brit) sleeping partner

silent treatment noun

the silent treatment : the act of ignoring someone because you are angry at him or her ▪ I told him that I thought he was crazy and got the silent treatment for the rest of the day. [=he refused to talk to me for the rest of the day] ▪ Whenever she gets mad at me, she gives me the silent treatment. [=she does not speak to me]

[1]sil•hou•ette /ˌsɪlə'wɛt/ noun, pl -ettes

silhouette

1 a : a dark shape in front of a light background [count] the silhouettes of buildings against the sky [noncount] The buildings appeared in silhouette against the sky. b : a picture of something showing it as a dark shape on a light background; especially : such a picture showing a person's face from the side [count] My piano teacher has a framed silhouette of Mozart on her wall. [noncount] a portrait of my mother done in silhouette

2 [count] : the shape or outline of something ▪ He admired the sports car's sleek silhouette.

[2]silhouette verb -ettes; -ett•ed; -ett•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone or something) appear as a dark shape in front of a light background — often used as (be) silhouetted ▪ The house was silhouetted against the sky.

sil•i•ca /'sɪlɪkə/ noun [noncount] : a chemical that contains silicon, that is found in sand and quartz, and that is used to make glass

sil•i•cate /'sɪləˌkeɪt/ noun, pl -cates [count, noncount] : a chemical that contains silicon and that is used in building materials (such as bricks, cement, and glass) ▪ aluminum silicate

sil•i•con /'sɪlɪkən, 'sɪləˌkɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is found in the Earth's crust and is used especially in computers and electronics

sil•i•cone /'sɪləˌkoʊn/ noun [noncount] : a chemical that does not let water or heat pass through and that is used to make rubber, grease, and in plastic surgery ▪ a prosthesis made of silicone — often used before another noun ▪ silicone breast implants silk /'sɪlk/ noun, pl silks

1 : a smooth, soft, and shiny cloth that is made from thread produced by silkworms; also : the thread that is used to make silk [count] silks from China ▪ a variety of silks and satins ▪ embroidery silks [noncount] a dress (made) of blue silk ▪ pure silk ▪ The robe has butterflies embroidered in silk on the sleeves. ▪ Her hair is as smooth as silk. [=very smooth] — often used before another noun ▪ a silk blouse/scarf

2 [noncount] : the thread that is produced by a spider ▪ the silk of a spider's web ▪ spider silk

3 [noncount] : the thin strings in an ear of corn ▪ corn silk

4 silks [plural] : the cap and shirt worn by a jockey ▪ the stable's red and green racing silks

5 Brit : a lawyer who has reached the highest rank : a Queen's Counsel or King's Counsel [count] She maintains a busy practice as a leading silk in employment law. [noncount] He took silk [=reached the highest barrister's rank] in 2001.

silk•en /'sɪlkən/ adj

1 : made of silk or a cloth that is like silk ▪ silken [=silk] robes ▪ a silken cord ▪ silken cushions

2 : smooth, soft, and shiny like silk ▪ her silken [=(more commonly) silky] black hair ▪ the baby's silken skin

3 of food : smooth, soft, and rich ▪ silken pudding/pâté

4 of a sound : smooth and pleasant to hear ▪ his silken voice ▪ the silken tones of his violin silk screen noun, pl ~ screens

1 [noncount] : a method of printing in which ink or paint is forced through a stretched piece of silk cloth ▪ artists who work in silk screen — often used before another noun ▪ silk screen printing/designs

2 [count] : a print that is made by silk screen ▪ He decorated the office with paintings and silkscreens.

– silk–screen verb -screens; -screened; -screen•ing [+ obj] ▪ The logo was silk-screened onto T-shirts.

silk•worm /'sɪlkˌwɜm/ noun, pl -worms [count] : a caterpillar that produces silk which is used to make thread or cloth silky /'sɪlki/ adj silk•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : made of silk or of material that is soft, smooth, and shiny like silk ▪ silky lingerie/pantyhose ▪ a silky nightgown

2 : smooth, soft, and shiny like silk ▪ her silky brown hair ▪ The cat has a silky coat. ▪ The material has a silky feel.

3 of food : smooth, soft, and rich ▪ silky chocolate mousse

4 of a sound : smooth and pleasant to hear ▪ a silky voice

5 : having a smooth motion ▪ This car gives a silky ride. ▪ a golfer with a silky swing

– silk•i•ly /'sɪlkəli/ adv ▪ a silkily smooth fabric – silk•i•ness /'sɪlkinəs/ noun [noncount] – silky adv ▪ This lotion will make your skin feel smooth and silky. ▪ The dog's fur is silky soft. ▪ He has such a silky smooth voice.

sill /'sɪl/ noun, pl sills [count]

1 a : the shelf at the bottom of a window frame : WINDOWSILL — see picture at WINDOW b : a piece of wood, metal, or stone at the bottom of a door frame

2 : the part of the frame of a car that is directly under its doors

[1]sil•ly /'sɪli/ adj sil•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having or showing a lack of thought, understanding, or good judgment : foolish or stupid ▪ I hope I didn't make any silly mistakes. ▪ The idea does seem a bit silly. ▪ That's the silliest thing I've ever heard. ▪ You drove in this weather? What a silly thing to do! ▪ Silly me. I locked myself out of the car again. ▪ Ask a silly question, and you get a silly answer. ▪ He looks silly [=ridiculous] wearing that huge floppy hat. ▪ "I can't ask you to do that." "Don't be silly. It is my pleasure."

2 : not practical or sensible ▪ What a silly little purse. It looks too small to hold everything that I'd need to carry.

3 a : not serious, meaningful, or important ▪ I'm tired of watching silly movies. ▪ The book was a silly waste of time. b : playful and funny ▪ I like a man who can be silly without being immature. ▪ He made a silly face. ▪ He has a silly sense of humor.

4 not used before a noun : in a condition in which you are unable to think clearly ▪ The ball hit him in the head and knocked him silly. ▪ He was beaten silly by thugs. ▪ They drank themselves silly. [=they got extremely drunk]

– sil•li•ness /'sɪlinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the silliness of the whole idea

[2]silly adv, informal : to an extreme degree ▪ I'm scared silly [=I'm very scared] of speaking to such a large group. ▪ She was bored silly throughout much of the class.

[3]silly noun [noncount] informal — used to address someone who is being silly ▪ No, silly, I don't need that one; I need the other one.

si•lo /'saɪloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count]

silo

1 : a tower that is used to store food (such as grain or grass) for farm animals

2 : an underground structure that is used for storing and firing a missile

[1]silt /'sɪlt/ noun [noncount] : sand, soil, mud, etc., that is carried by flowing water and that sinks to the bottom of a river, pond, etc.

– silty /'sɪlti/ adj silt•i•er; -est ▪ silty water

[2]silt verb silts; silt•ed; silt•ing

1 [no obj] : to become blocked, filled, or covered with silt ▪ The marsh silted over. — often + up ▪ The river delta has silted up over the centuries.

2 [+ obj] : to block, fill, or cover (something) with silt ▪ The entrance to the creek had silted shut. ▪ heavily silted areas — often + up ▪ Sand had silted up the stream bed.

[1]sil•ver /'sɪlvə/ noun, pl -vers

1 [noncount] : a soft grayish-white metal that is very valuable and is used to make jewelry, coins, knives, forks, etc. ▪ a bracelet made of silver ▪ an artist who works in silver and gold ▪ a wooden statue inlaid with silver ▪ pure/sterling silver

2 [noncount] : objects (such as knives, forks, teapots, candlesticks, etc.) that are made of or covered with silver ▪ We need to polish the silver.

3 [noncount] : coins that are made of silver ▪ a bag of silver

4 [count, noncount] : a shiny light gray color

5 [count] : SILVER MEDAL ▪ She won two silvers in the last Olympics.

[2]silver adj

1 a : made of silver ▪ silver jewelry/coins ▪ a silver teapot ▪ a silver belt buckle b : containing silver ▪ silver ore ▪ a silver

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

mine c : of or relating to silver ▪ Silver prices have risen.
2 [more ~; most ~] : having the whitish-gray color of silver ▪ silver hair ▪ a silver car ▪ a dress trimmed with silver ribbon
3 always used before a noun : of or relating to the 25th anniversary of an important event (such as a marriage) ▪ They will celebrate their silver (wedding) anniversary this year. = (Brit) They will celebrate their silver wedding this year. ▪ a silver jubilee — compare DIAMOND, GOLDEN born with a silver spoon in your mouth see BORN

[3]silver verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing [+ obj]
1 technical : to cover (something, such as a mirror) with a thin layer of silver or something that looks like silver
2 literary : to make (something) shine like silver ▪ The surface of the lake was silvered by the moonlight.
– silvered adj ▪ a container lined with silvered glass silver bullet noun, pl ~ -lets [count] US : something that very quickly and easily solves a serious problem — usually singular ▪ There is no silver bullet that will solve all our economic problems.

silver dollar noun, pl ~ -lars [count] US : a large silver coin worth one dollar that was used in the past ✧ Silver dollar is now often used to describe the size of something. ▪ He had a bald spot the size of a silver dollar on his head.

sil•ver• sh /ˈsɪlvəˌʃɪʃ/ noun, pl silver sh [count] : a small silver-colored insect that does not have wings and that lives inside houses silver foil noun [noncount] Brit : a very thin sheet of metal (such as aluminum) : FOIL silver lining noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : something good that can be found in a bad situation ▪ If there's a silver lining to losing my job, it's that I'll now be able to go to school full-time and finish my degree earlier.

every cloud has a silver lining — used to say that every bad situation holds the possibility of something good ▪ When my closest friend moved away, my mother reminded me that "every cloud has a silver lining."

silver medal noun, pl ~ -dals [count] : a medal made of silver that is given as a prize to someone who wins second place in a contest ▪ She won a silver medal in the Olympics. — compare BRONZE MEDAL, GOLD MEDAL

silver paper noun [noncount] Brit
1 : paper that is shiny on one side like silver and that is used for wrapping food (such as chocolate)
2 : SILVER FOIL

silver–plated adj : covered with a thin layer of silver ▪ a silver-plated tray silver screen noun

the silver screen old-fashioned 1 : a screen in a movie theater ▪ one of the greatest films ever to hit the silver screen [=one of the greatest films ever shown in movie theaters]
2 : movies in general ▪ stars of the silver screen [=movie stars]

sil•ver•smith /ˈsɪlvəˌsmɪθ/ noun, pl -smiths [count] : a person who makes things out of silver

Silver Star noun, pl ~ Stars [count] : a U.S. military award that is given to a soldier who is extremely brave in battle — called also Silver Star Medal

sil•ver–tongued /ˈsɪlvəˌtʌŋd/ adj : able to speak in a way that makes other people do or believe what you want them to do or believe ▪ a silver-tongued politician

sil•ver•ware /ˈsɪlvəˌweə/ noun [noncount]
1 : objects (such as forks, knives, spoons, dishes, teapots, etc.) for serving food and drink that are made of or covered with silver
2 US : forks, knives, and spoons that are made of stainless steel, plastic, etc. — called also flatware
3 Brit, informal : something (such as a large cup or trophy) that is given as a prize in a sports contest ▪ The team has gone two seasons without winning any silverware.

sil•very /ˈsɪlvəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary
1 : shiny and white or light gray in color like silver ▪ a pond full of silvery fish ▪ a dress of silvery gray/white silk ▪ Silvery light reflected off the water.
2 of sound : high, clear, soft, and pleasant ▪ The violinist played with a bright, silvery tone. ▪ a singer with a beautiful silvery voice

[1]sim•i•an /ˈsɪmijən/ adj
1 technical : of or relating to monkeys or apes ▪ a study of simian viruses
2 literary : like a monkey or ape ▪ his simian facial features

[2]simian noun, pl -ans [count] technical : a monkey or ape

sim•i•lar /ˈsɪmələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : almost the same as someone or something else ▪ Our cats are similar in size/color/appearance. ▪ You two look very/quite similar to each other. ▪ They had similar experiences growing up, even though they came from vastly different backgrounds. ▪ We got remarkably/strikingly similar results. ▪ I was going to say something similar. ▪ I would have reacted in a similar way if it had happened to me. — opposite DISSIMILAR

sim•i•lar•i•ty /ˌsɪməˈlerəti/ noun, pl -ties : a quality that makes one person or thing like another [count] I doubt that these words are related beyond a similarity in sound. ▪ The books share a similarity of ideas. ▪ I see a lot of similarities in them. — often + between ▪ Have you noticed a similarity between these movies? ▪ We discussed the similarities between the author's books. [noncount] Looking at these fossils, I see some similarity to modern-day birds. ▪ I see very little similarity between your situation and his. ▪ Both women have two children and like sports but there the similarity ends. [=they are not alike in other ways]

sim•i•lar•ly /ˈsɪmələli/ adv
1 [more ~; most ~] : in a similar way : in almost the same way ▪ My friend and I were similarly affected by the new tax law. ▪ The houses are decorated similarly.
2 — used to say that two situations, actions, statements, etc., are alike ▪ People still painted after photography became popular. Similarly [=likewise], there will still be people who prefer to shoot on film even after digital cameras become the norm.

sim•i•le /ˈsɪməli/ noun, pl -les grammar : a phrase that uses the words like or as to describe someone or something by comparing it with someone or something else that is similar [count] "She's as fierce as a tiger" is a simile, but "She's a tiger when she's angry" is a metaphor. [noncount] What do you think of the author's use of simile? — compare METAPHOR

[1]sim•mer /ˈsɪmə/ verb -mers; -mered; -mer•ing
1 : to cook (something) so that it is almost boiling for a certain period of time [+ obj] Simmer the stew for 40 minutes or until the sauce has thickened. ▪ The chicken was simmered in a cream sauce. [no obj] Let the stew simmer (for) 40 minutes.
2 [no obj] a : to be filled with a strong feeling that is difficult to control or hide — usually + with ▪ He was simmering with anger/resentment. b : to be felt strongly by someone without being directly shown or expressed ▪ Anger simmered inside him.
3 [no obj] : to continue for a long time without producing a definite result ▪ The dispute simmered for years before any progress was made. ▪ It's a debate that has simmered for 30 years and is likely to continue. ▪ simmering conflicts/controversies ▪ Long-simmering tensions between the two groups eventually sparked violence.
4 [no obj] : to develop slowly ▪ The idea for my novel simmered in my mind for quite some time.
simmer down [phrasal verb] : to become calm after being very angry or excited ▪ After he simmered down, we were able to work out a solution to the problem. ▪ "Simmer down! I was just joking. Don't take it so personally."

[2]simmer noun [singular] : a state of simmering : a way of cooking that is close to boiling ▪ Bring the mixture to a simmer.

sim•per /ˈsɪmpə/ verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing
1 [no obj] : to smile in a way that is not sincere or natural ▪ He simpered and smirked while he talked to the boss.
2 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a way that is not sincere or natural ▪ She simpered that she had gone to all this trouble for a reason.
– simper noun [singular] ▪ an annoying simper – simper•ing adj ▪ a simpering reporter sim•ple /ˈsɪmpəl/ adj sim•pler; -plest [or more ~; most ~]

1 : not hard to understand or do ▪ a simple task ▪ The solution to the problem was relatively simple. ▪ The answer is really quite simple. ▪ a simple [=straightforward] explanation ▪ a simple recipe ▪ There are three simple steps/rules to follow. ▪ The camera is simple to use. ▪ The directions seem simple enough. [=seem fairly simple] ▪ Just press the button. It is as simple as that. = Just press the button. It is that simple. ▪ Don't go into too much detail in the report. Just keep it simple and to the point.
2 : having few parts : not complex or fancy ▪ The engine has a simple [=basic] design. ▪ a simple machine ▪ The melody is very simple. ▪ She wore a simple [=plain, unadorned] black dress. ▪ We don't want to spend a lot of money on the party,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 92 SESS: 69 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:24 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

so we're keeping it simple. [=we're not having an extravagant party]

3 always used before a noun : not special or unusual : ORDINARY ▪ simple folks ▪ I'm a simple farmer just trying to make a living. ▪ He enjoys the simple pleasure of spending time with his wife and kids after work. ▪ Relaxing on the beach and watching the sunset is one of life's simple pleasures.

4 always used before a noun : complete and total — used for emphasis ▪ I watch what I eat, but the simple truth is that I can't resist chocolate. ▪ The simple fact is that he did not study for the exam. ▪ I don't want to go for the simple reason that [=because] I'm very tired.

5 grammar, of a sentence : having only one main clause and no additional clauses ▪ "Last summer was unusually hot" is a simple sentence.

6 old-fashioned : not very intelligent ▪ a mentally simple man ▪ She looked at me as if I were simple.

pure and simple see PURE

the simple life ✧ If you live the simple life, you do not own many things or use many modern machines and you usually live in the countryside. ▪ He lives in a small cabin and enjoys the simple life.

simple fracture noun, pl ~ -tures [count] medical : a break in a bone in which no parts stick out through the skin — compare COMPOUND FRACTURE simple interest noun [noncount] finance : interest paid only on the original amount of money and not on the interest it has already earned — compare COMPOUND INTEREST sim•ple•mind•ed /ˌsɪmpəlˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not very intelligent ▪ a superstitious and very simpleminded man ▪ He took a simpleminded approach to the problem.

2 : having or showing a lack of good sense or judgment ▪ a simpleminded [=stupid, silly] mistake sim•ple•ton /ˈsɪmpəltən/ noun, pl -tons [count] old-fashioned : someone who is not very intelligent or who does not have or show good sense or judgment ▪ The instructions were so complicated I felt like a complete simpleton.

sim•plic•i•ty /sɪmˈplɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality of being easy to understand or use ▪ People like the simplicity of the instructions/camera. ▪ For simplicity's sake [=to make it simpler and easier], we have rounded off the numbers to the nearest whole number. = We have rounded off the numbers for the sake of simplicity.

2 a [noncount] : the state or quality of being plain or not fancy or complicated ▪ the simplicity of the music/writing/design b [count] : something that is simple or ordinary but enjoyable — usually plural ▪ He loved the simplicities of country life.

3 [noncount] : something that is easy to do ▪ Making the dish is simplicity itself. [=very easy] sim•pli•fy /ˈsɪmpləˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) easier to do or understand ▪ Microwave ovens have simplified cooking. ▪ The new software should simplify the process. ▪ The forms have been simplified.

– simplified adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Can you explain the problem in more simplified terms? ▪ a simplified version of the instructions – sim•pli•fi•ca•tion /ˌsɪmpləfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ Voters are pushing for simplification of the tax code.

sim•plis•tic /sɪmˈplɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : too simple : not complete or thorough enough : not treating or considering all possibilities or parts ▪ a simplistic approach to a complicated problem ▪ His interpretation of the theory was too simplistic. ▪ simplistic thinking – sim•plis•ti•cal•ly /sɪmˈplɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ He described the problem too simplistically.

sim•ply /ˈsɪmpli/ adv

1 a : nothing more than : only, merely, or just ▪ Simply add water to the mix and stir. ▪ Simply click on the computer icon and follow the directions. ▪ If he continues to bother you, simply ignore him. ▪ You can order new checks simply by calling or going online. ▪ It is simply a matter of time before something goes wrong. b : without any question — used to stress the simple truth of a description or statement ▪ That is simply [=just] not true. ▪ The opera was simply marvelous. ▪ She simply can't sing. ▪ I simply could not decide which one I wanted. ▪ She simply does not understand the work that is involved. ▪ There is simply not enough time to visit everyone. ▪ We want to buy the car, but we simply can't afford it. ▪ He is, quite simply, one of the best players ever to play the game. ▪ Quite simply, the countryside is beautiful.

2 a : in way that is clear and understandable ▪ The instructions are simply written. b : in a way that is plain or not fancy or complicated ▪ She dresses simply. ▪ simply drawn figures ▪ He lived simply on the farm. c : in a way that is direct and uses few words ▪ The diner is called simply "Joe's." ▪ "Sorry, I can't help you," he said simply. ▪ The problem, put simply, is money. ▪ Simply put, the movie was horrible. ▪ Simply speaking, he's not capable of doing the job.

sim•u•late /ˈsɪmjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj] : to look, feel, or behave like (something) ▪ The wall surface is made to simulate stone. = The wall surface simulates stone. ▪ The model will be used to simulate the effects of an earthquake. ▪ The material simulates [=imitates] the look and feel of real fur.

simulated adj : made to look, feel, or behave like something : not real ▪ simulated leather ▪ They are trained in simulated combat. ▪ Dummies are used in simulated car crashes.

sim•u•la•tion /ˌsɪmjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : something that is made to look, feel, or behave like something else especially so that it can be studied or used to train people [count] — often + of ▪ a computer simulation of spaceflight ▪ simulations of body movements ▪ a simulation of the planet's surface [noncount] They use computer simulation to predict weather conditions.

sim•u•la•tor /ˈsɪmjəˌleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a machine that is used to show what something looks or feels like and is usually used to study something or to train people ▪ a flight simulator used by pilots ▪ an earthquake simulator

si•mul•cast /ˈsaɪməlˌkæst, Brit ˈsɪməlˌkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast; -cast•ing [+ obj] : to broadcast (a program) by radio and television at the same time ▪ The network will simulcast the game on its radio and television stations. — often used as (be) simulcast ▪ The President's speech will be simulcast this afternoon.

– simulcast noun, pl -casts [count] ▪ a TV/radio simulcast of the concert si•mul•ta•neous /ˌsaɪməlˈteɪnijəs, Brit ˌsɪməlˈteɪniəs/ adj : happening at the same time ▪ The two gunshots were simultaneous. ▪ simultaneous events — often + with ▪ The release of the new album will be simultaneous with the release of the DVD.

– si•mul•ta•neous•ly adv ▪ The speech will be broadcast simultaneously on radio and TV.

[1]sin /ˈsɪn/ noun, pl sins

1 : an action that is considered to be wrong according to religious or moral law [count] He committed the sin of stealing. ▪ Murder is a sin. ▪ I confessed my sins. [noncount] We are not free from sin. ▪ a world of sin — see also CARDINAL SIN, DEADLY SIN, MORTAL SIN, ORIGINAL SIN, VENIAL SIN

2 [count] : an action that is considered to be bad — usually singular ▪ It's a sin to waste food. — see also BESETTING SIN

(as) guilty/miserable/ugly as sin informal : very guilty/miserable/ugly ▪ Even though he was acquitted, most people think he is guilty as sin. ▪ That house is as ugly as sin.

for your sins chiefly Brit, humorous — used to say that you are doing something unpleasant, difficult, etc., as a form of punishment ▪ For my sins, I was made chairman of the board.

live in sin see [1]LIVE

[2]sin verb sins; sinned; sin•ning [no obj] : to do something that is considered wrong according to religious or moral law : to commit a sin ▪ Forgive me, for I have sinned.

[1]since /ˈsɪns/ prep : in the time after (a specified time or event in the past) : from (a point in the past) until the present time ▪ I haven't seen him since yesterday. ▪ I haven't eaten since breakfast. ▪ Since the party, she has not spoken to him at all. ▪ The company has been in its present location since the beginning of the century. ▪ We've been waiting for you since 10 o'clock. ▪ We have been friends since [=ever since] college. ▪ The company started as a small local business 10 years ago and has grown a lot since then. [=within that time] ▪ The house was built in 1919. Since that time [=from 1919 to the present], it has changed owners several times.

since the year one see YEAR since when? — used to show that you are surprised and often angry, annoyed, or doubtful about what someone has said or done ▪ "I'm a vegetarian." "Since when?" ▪ "You told me to do it." "Since when did you start listening to me?" ▪ Since when is it okay to cheat?

[2]since conj

1 : in the period after the time when ▪ We've played better since you joined the team. ▪ He has had two jobs since he graduated.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 93 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

2 : from the time in the past when ▪ I have wanted to be a pilot since [=ever since] I was a child. ▪ He hasn't ridden a bike since he was a boy. ▪ (US) It has been over 10 years since I last visited Europe. = (Brit) It is over 10 years since I last visited Europe. ▪ They haven't won a championship since Truman was President.

3 — used to introduce a statement that explains the reason for another statement ▪ Since you've finished all your chores, you may go out and play. ▪ Should we invite someone else since he can't go?

[3]since adv

1 : from a past time until now ▪ He moved to New York one year ago and has lived there since. [=(more commonly) ever since]

2 : after a time in the past ▪ She graduated four years ago and has since married. ▪ He left home two years ago and has since become a soldier.

3 : before the present time ▪ I received your letter some time since. [=(more commonly) ago] — see also long since at [2]LONG sin•cere /sɪn'siə/ adj sin•cer•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]

1 : having or showing true feelings that are expessesd in an honest way ▪ He sounded sincere in his promises. ▪ She seemed sincere in her commitment to finish school.

2 : genuine or real : not false, fake, or pretended ▪ She has a sincere interest in painting. ▪ He showed a sincere concern for her health. ▪ Her apology was sincere. ▪ He made a sincere attempt/effort to quit smoking. ▪ Please accept our sincere thanks. — opposite INSINCERE – sin•cer•i•ty /sɪn'serəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ Some people are questioning the sincerity of her promises. ▪ Her apology was spoken with sincerity. ▪ In all sincerity [=in all honesty], we could not have done this project without your help.

sin•cere•ly /sɪn'siəli/ adv

1 : genuinely or truly : in a sincere or truthful way ▪ He sincerely apologized for breaking the vase. ▪ Do you sincerely [=really] believe that the country is better off now? ▪ I sincerely hope that you do a better job next time. ▪ I am sincerely sorry for your loss. ▪ He tried sincerely to make up for his mistake.

2 ✧ Sincerely, yours sincerely, and (chiefly US) sincerely yours are often used at the end of a formal letter before the sender's signature.

sine /saɪn/ noun, pl sines [count] geometry : the ratio between the long side (called the hypotenuse) and side that is opposite to an acute angle in a right triangle si•ne•cure /'saɪnɪˌkjɚ/ noun, pl -cures [count] formal : a job or position in which someone is paid to do little or no work si•ne qua non /ˌsɪnɪˌkwɑ:'nɑ:n/ noun, pl ~ nons [count] formal : something that is absolutely needed ▪ Patience is a sine qua non for this job.

sin•ew /'sɪnˌju:/ noun, pl -ews [count, noncount] : strong tissue that connects muscles to bones ▪ cutting through bone and sinew — often used figuratively ▪ the sinews of power sin•ewy /'sɪnjəwi/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having strong and lean muscles ▪ sinewy arms ▪ The lion has a sinewy body. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ sinewy writing

2 : tough and difficult to cut or chew ▪ a sinewy piece of meat sin•ful /'sɪnfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : wrong according to religious or moral law ▪ a sinful act [=an act that is a sin] ▪ It is sinful to steal.

2 : very bad or wicked ▪ sinful people

3 informal : extremely enjoyable in a way that makes you feel guilty ▪ a sinful chocolate cake – sin•ful•ly adv ▪ They acted sinfully. ▪ The cake is sinfully delicious. ▪ sinfully rich chocolate – sin•ful•ness noun [noncount]

sing /sɪŋ/ verb sings; sang /sæŋ/ or sung /sʌŋ/; sung; sing•ing

1 : to use your voice to make musical sounds in the form of a song or tune [no obj] She sings in the choir. ▪ The children danced and sang. ▪ She sings beautifully. ▪ He sang softly to the baby. ▪ She's a great actress, and she can dance and sing, too. [+ obj] We all stood and sang the national anthem. ▪ He sang a tune to us. = He sang us a tune. ▪ I can't sing the high notes. ▪ She sang the baby to sleep. [=she sang to the baby until it fell asleep]

2 [no obj] : to make pleasant sounds that sound like music ▪ Do you hear the birds singing?

3 [no obj] : to make a high-pitched whistling sound ▪ The kettle sang on the stove. ▪ The bullet sang past his helmet.

sing a different tune see [1]TUNE sing along [phrasal verb] : to sing a song together with someone who is already singing or with a recording of the song ▪ If you know the words, sing along (with us). ▪ He loves to sing along with the radio. — see also SING-ALONG sing of [phrasal verb] sing of (someone or something) literary + old-fashioned : to speak or write about (someone or something) especially with enthusiasm ▪ The poet sang of knights and medieval times.

sing out [phrasal verb] sing out or sing out (something) or sing (something) out 1 : to say or shout something loudly ▪ If you need any help, just sing out. ▪ The children sang out [=cried out] "good morning" to the teacher. ▪ The crowd sang out insults. 2 : to sing something loudly ▪ The singer stopped and the crowd sang out the rest of the chorus.

sing someone's/something's praises or sing the praises of someone/something : to say good things about someone or something ▪ His patients all sing his praises. ▪ They were singing the praises of their new equipment.

– singing noun [noncount] ▪ What beautiful singing. ▪ folk singing ▪ There was singing and dancing all night long. – singing adj ▪ She has a wonderful singing voice. ▪ His singing career is ruined.

sing. abbr singular

sing–along /'sɪŋəˌlɑ:ŋ/ noun, pl -alongs [count] : an informal occasion or event at which people sing songs together ▪ a Christmas sing-along — called also (Brit) singsong; see also sing along at SING

singe /'sɪnʤ/ verb singe•s; singed; singe•ing [+ obj] : to burn (something) slightly ▪ The flame singed his hair. = His hair was singed by the flame. ▪ The wood was singed by the candle.

sing•er /'sɪŋɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who sings ▪ My sister is a pretty good singer.; especially : a performer who sings ▪ He is the lead singer in the band. ▪ a country/opera/pop/rock singer — see also FOLKSINGER, TORCH SINGER singer–songwriter noun, pl -ers [count] : a performer who writes songs and sings them

[1]sin•gle /'sɪŋgəl/ adj

1 always used before a noun : not having or including another : only one ▪ They lost by a single point. [=they lost by one point] ▪ A single shoe was found. ▪ It costs $10 for a single glass of wine! ▪ a single serving of carrots ▪ He earns $2,000 in a single week. ▪ There is a single [=uniform] standard for men and women. — sometimes used to emphasize the largeness or importance of something ▪ The fingerprint turned out to be the single most important piece of evidence. ▪ Tobacco is the single greatest/largest/biggest industry in the state. ▪ Drunk driving is the greatest/largest/biggest single killer of high school students. — sometimes used in negative statements to emphasize that there is a complete lack of something ▪ Not a single cookie was left. ▪ Not a single sound was heard. ▪ I could not hear a single word of what he said. ▪ We didn't get a single reply.

2 : not married or not having a serious romantic relationship with someone ▪ a club for single [=unattached, unmarried] people ▪ Are you single? ▪ a single parent/mother/father [=a mother or father who takes care of a child alone]

3 — used for emphasis after words like any, each, every, etc. ▪ He has more home runs than any other single player. [=than any other player] ▪ These laws apply to each single citizen. ▪ I drink milk every single day. ▪ She can't watch him every single minute.

4 always used before a noun : made for one person to use ▪ I stayed in a single room. ▪ I slept in a single bed. [=(US) twin bed]

5 Brit : ONE-WAY ▪ a single ticket ▪ How much is the single fare?

[2]single noun, pl sin•gles

1 [count] : an unmarried person and especially one who is young and socially active — usually plural ▪ The party is for singles. — often used before another noun ▪ a singles bar/club

2 [count] a baseball : a hit that allows the batter to reach first base ▪ He hit a single to right field. — compare DOUBLE, HOME RUN, TRIPLE b cricket : a hit that scores one run

3 singles [plural] : a game of tennis or a similar sport that is played between two players ▪ Do you want to play singles or doubles? ▪ a singles match

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 94 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

4 [count] : a music recording having one main song and sometimes one or more other songs ▪ I bought the single.; also : one song from a recording that includes many songs ▪ Have you heard the latest single from the album? ▪ The song was released as a single before the album came out. — compare ALBUM

5 [count] : a room in a hotel, inn, etc., for one person ▪ The hotel has only singles available. — compare DOUBLE

6 [count] US : a one-dollar bill ▪ Do you have five singles for this five?

7 [count] Brit : a one-way ticket ▪ A single to Bath, please.

[3]single verb singles; sin•gled; sin•gling [no obj] : to hit a single in baseball ▪ He singled to right field.

single out [phrasal verb] single out (someone or something) or single (someone or something) out : to treat or to speak about (someone or something in a group) in a way that is different from the way you treat or speak about others ▪ The teacher singled him out as the only student to get a perfect score on the test. ▪ The coach singled out the players who played poorly. ▪ The reviewer singled her performance out for praise/criticism. — often used as (be) singled out ▪ She was singled out for special treatment.

single bond noun, pl ~ bonds [count] technical : a chemical bond in which two atoms in a molecule share one pair of electrons — compare DOUBLE BOND, TRIPLE BOND sin•gle–breast•ed /ˈsɪŋgəlˈbrɛstəd/ adj, of a coat, jacket, or suit : having one row of buttons ▪ He wore a single-breasted blazer. — compare DOUBLE-BREASTED sin•gle–deck•er /ˈsɪŋgəlˈdɛkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : a bus that has only one level — often used before another noun ▪ a single-decker bus — compare DOUBLE-DECKER, TRIPLE-DECKER single digits noun [plural] chiefly US : a number or percentage that is 9 or less ▪ They won the game by single digits. [=by 9 points or fewer than 9 points] ▪ The state's unemployment rate is in the single digits. — called also single figures

– sin•gle–dig•it /ˈsɪŋgəlˈdɪʤɪt/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ the state's single-digit unemployment rate ▪ a single-digit increase single file noun [noncount] : a line of people, animals, or things arranged one behind another — used after in ▪ They stood/walked in single file.

– single file adv ▪ The students walked single file out of the classroom. ▪ Boys and girls, please line up single file.

sin•gle–hand•ed /ˌsɪŋgəlˈhændəd/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : done by one person ▪ single-handed sailing

2 : working alone ▪ a single-handed sailor

– single–handed adv ▪ He sailed the boat home single-handed. – sin•gle–hand•ed•ly adv ▪ She raised the children single-handedly. [=she raised the children by herself] ▪ He is credited with almost single-handedly saving the company from bankruptcy.

single malt noun, pl ~ malts [count, noncount] : a kind of whiskey that comes from one place and that is not blended with other kinds of whiskey — often used before another noun ▪ single-malt Scotch single market noun [singular] economics : a group of countries that have an agreement which allows goods to be moved, bought, or sold between them very easily ▪ the European Union's single market sin•gle–mind•ed /ˌsɪŋgəlˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having only one purpose, goal, or interest : focused on one thing ▪ He worked with single-minded dedication/determination/devotion to help the poor. ▪ She is very single-minded and determined to succeed.

– sin•gle–mind•ed•ly adv ▪ He is single-mindedly devoted to his job. – sin•gle–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount] sin•glet /ˈsɪŋglət/ noun, pl -glets [count] chiefly Brit : a shirt that has no sleeves or collar and that is worn for playing sports sin•gly /ˈsɪŋgəli/ adv, formal : without another ▪ The birds can be seen singly or in groups. ▪ The books in the set cannot be sold singly. [=(more commonly) individually]

sing•song /ˈsɪŋˌsɑːŋ/ noun, pl -songs

1 [singular] : a way of speaking in which the sound of your voice rises and falls in a pattern ▪ They spoke in a singsong. — often used before another noun ▪ a singsong voice

2 [count] Brit : SING-ALONG

[1]sin•gu•lar /ˈsɪŋgjələ/ adj

1 grammar : showing or indicating no more than one thing ▪ In the phrase "his car is red," the word "car" is a singular noun. ▪ "Walks" in "she walks everyday" is a singular verb. — abbr. sing.; compare PLURAL

2 a formal : better or greater than what is usual or normal ▪ the singular [=exceptional] beauty of the landscape ▪ Her father noticed her singular [=unique] talent for music. ▪ the singular [=remarkable] importance of the discovery ▪ She showed a singular [=noticeable, obvious] lack of interest. b literary : strange or odd ▪ He had a singular appearance. ▪ singular customs – sin•gu•lar•ly adv ▪ a singularly important discovery ▪ Passion was singularly [=noticeably] lacking in his music.

[2]singular noun

the singular : a form of a word that is used to refer to one person or thing ▪ "Wolf" is the singular and "wolves" is the plural. ▪ "Mouse" is the singular of "mice." ▪ The verb should be in the singular. ▪ Rewrite the sentence in the singular. [=using singular forms of words] sin•gu•lar•i•ty /ˌsɪŋgjəˈlerəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being strange or odd ▪ People could not understand the singularity of his imagination.

Sin•ha•la /sɪnˈhɑːlə/ noun [noncount] : SINHALESE 2

Sin•ha•lese /ˌsɪnhəˈliːz/ noun, pl Sinhalese

1 [count] : a member of a group of people who live in Sri Lanka

2 [noncount] : the language of the Sinhalese people ▪ He speaks Sinhalese.

– Sinhalese adj

sin•is•ter /ˈsɪnəstə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having an evil appearance : looking likely to cause something bad, harmful, or dangerous to happen ▪ There was something sinister about him. ▪ He looked sinister. ▪ sinister black clouds

– sin•is•ter•ly adv

[1]sink /ˈsɪŋk/ verb sinks; sank /ˈsæŋk/ or sunk /ˈsʌŋk/; sunk; sink•ing

1 a [no obj] : to go down below the surface of water, mud, etc. ▪ The passengers were rescued from the boat before it sank. ▪ a sinking ship ▪ The rock sank to the bottom of the pool. ▪ My foot sank into the deep mud. ▪ She sank up to her knees in the snow. b [+ obj] : to cause (a ship or boat) to go down below the surface of water ▪ The torpedo sank the ship.

2 [no obj] : to move down to a lower position ▪ The sun sank behind the hills. ▪ He sank to his knees and prayed. [=he knelt down and prayed] ▪ She sank back into the cozy chair.

3 [no obj] : to become lower in amount, value, etc. : to decline or decrease ▪ The temperature sinks quickly after the sun sets. ▪ The lake's water level is slowly sinking. ▪ His strength is slowly sinking. ▪ The company's stock sank after it announced that profits were less than expected. ▪ The currency's value is sinking.

4 [+ obj] : to use force to cause (something) to go into the ground or another surface — often + into ▪ He sank [=drove] the fence posts into the ground. ▪ He sank the ax into the tree. ▪ The nail was sunk all the way into the wall. ▪ The cat sank its claws into my arm.

5 [no obj] a : to do something that is morally wrong ▪ How could you sink [=stoop] to cheating? ▪ I never thought he could sink so low. [=do something so wrong] b : to begin to feel sad, depressed, etc. ▪ She sank into a deep depression. ▪ Her heart sank [=she became very sad] at the thought of moving so far away. ▪ With a sinking heart [=with great sadness], she signed the papers to sell the house. ▪ She got that sinking feeling [=a feeling of dread or discouragement] as she viewed the storm damage. c : to go or change to a worse or less active state — often + into ▪ The patient sank into a coma. ▪ He's sinking fast and won't live much longer.

6 [no obj] of a person's voice : to become quieter ▪ Her voice sank to a whisper. [=she began to whisper]

7 a [no obj] : to become less successful : to move toward failure ▪ The company is sinking under the weight of heavy debt. [=the company is failing because it has too much debt] b [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to fail ▪ Bad weather sank their plans for a picnic. ▪ If we don't get that money soon, we'll be sunk.

8 [+ obj] : to make (a well, shaft, mine, etc.) by digging down into the earth ▪ The workers are sinking a well.

9 [+ obj] : to spend (a lot of money, work, time, etc.) on something — + in or into ▪ He sank [=invested] five million dollars in the new company. ▪ He keeps sinking money into that old car. ▪ She has sunk a lot of work into the project.

10 [+ obj] : to throw, hit, or roll (a ball) into a hole or basket ▪ He sank [=dropped, holed] the putt. ▪ In pool, you need to sink [=pocket] the eight ball to win. ▪ She sank the jump shot.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 95 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

11 [+ obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to drink (something) completely ▪ They sank [=downed] one more pint before leaving.
sink in [phrasal verb] : to become completely known, felt, or understood ▪ I had to tell him what to do over and over before it finally sank in. ▪ The fact that she's left me still hasn't really sunk in.
sink like a stone : to sink very suddenly and quickly ▪ The ship hit an iceberg and sank like a stone. — often used figuratively ▪ His last movie sank like a stone.
sink or swim ✧ A situation in which you either sink or swim is one in which you must succeed by your own efforts or fail completely. ▪ They left me to sink or swim on my own. ▪ In this job, it's sink or swim.
sink without a trace (US) or Brit sink without trace : to sink beneath the water to a place that cannot be seen or found ▪ The boat sank without a trace. — often used figuratively ▪ Her first album was a big success, but after that she sank without a trace.
sink your teeth into see TOOTH

[2]sink noun, pl sinks [count] : a wide bowl that has a faucet for water and a drain at the bottom and is usually positioned in a counter or on a pedestal ▪ a kitchen sink ▪ (chiefly US) a bathroom sink [=(chiefly Brit) washbasin] — see pictures at BATHROOM, KITCHEN sink•er /ˈsɪŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a weight used for holding a fishing line or net underwater
2 baseball : a fast pitch that drops lower as it reaches home plate — called also sinker ball hook, line and sinker see [1]HOOK sink•hole /ˈsɪŋkˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : a low area or hole in the ground that is formed especially when soil and rocks are removed by flowing water — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The new highway is a financial sinkhole. [=something that constantly uses up money, resources, etc.]

sin•ner /ˈsɪnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : someone who has done something wrong according to religious or moral law : someone who has sinned

Si•no- /ˈsaɪnoʊ/ combining form : Chinese and ▪ Sino-Japanese relations [=relations between China and Japan] sin•u•ous /ˈsɪnjəwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary 1 : having many twists and turns ▪ a sinuous [=winding] road ▪ sinuous vines

2 : moving and bending in a smooth and attractive way ▪ a sinuous dancer ▪ She moved with sinuous grace.
– sin•u•ous•ly adv

si•nus /ˈsaɪnəs/ noun, pl -nus•es [count] : any of several spaces in the skull that connect with the nostrils — usually plural ▪ My sinuses are blocked. [=they are filled with mucus that will not drain properly] — often used before another noun ▪ a sinus infection/problem

si•nus•itis /ˌsaɪnjəˈsaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : painful swelling of the tissues inside the sinuses

Sioux /ˈsu:/ noun, pl Sioux /ˈsu:/ [count] : a member of a Native American people originally from the north central U.S.

sip /ˈsɪp/ verb sips; sipped; sip•ping : to drink (a liquid) slowly by taking only small amounts into your mouth [+ obj] She sipped her coffee while she watched the sun rise. [no obj] He sipped on the bottle of water. — sometimes + at ▪ He sipped at his wine.
– sip noun, pl sips [count] ▪ Have/take a sip of water.

[1]si•phon also sy•phon /ˈsaɪfən/ noun, pl -phons [count] : a bent tube used to move a liquid from one container into another container by means of air pressure

[2]siphon also syphon verb -phons; -phoned; -phon•ing [+ obj]
1 : to move (a liquid) from one container to another by using a siphon ▪ The water needs to be siphoned from the pool. — often + off ▪ He siphoned off gas from the car's tank.
2 : to take and use (something, such as money) for your own purpose ▪ She illegally siphoned money out of other people's bank accounts. ▪ Funds were siphoned from the schools to build a new stadium. ▪ The large chain stores are siphoning profits from the small local stores.

sir /ˈsə/ noun, pl sirs
1 [noncount] a — used without a name as a form of polite address to a man you do not know ▪ May I help you, sir? ▪ Sir, your order is ready. — compare MA'AM, MADAM, MISS b — used without a name as a form of polite address to a man of rank or authority (such as a military or police officer, teacher, or master) ▪ "At ease, lieutenant." "Yes sir, captain." ▪ Sir, I don't think I was speeding. ▪ Sir, can you help me with this math problem? ▪ Dinner is ready, sir.
2 Sir [count] — used without a name as a form of address at the beginning of a formal letter ▪ Dear Sir or Madam ▪ Dear Sir/Sirs
3 Sir [noncount] — used as a title before the name of a knight or baronet ▪ Sir Lancelot ▪ Sir Charles ▪ Sir Elton John ▪ Sir Walter Scott
4 [noncount] US, informal — used in the phrases no sir and yes sir for emphasis, to show surprise, etc. ▪ I will not have that man in my home, no sir. [=no sirree] ▪ That was a wonderful dinner. Yes sir. [=yes sirree] ▪ "She couldn't have said that to her mom." "Yes sir, she sure did." ▪ "The teacher caught them kissing." "No sir! She did?"

[1]sire /ˈsajə/ noun, pl sires
1 [noncount] — used formerly to address a man of rank or authority (such as a king or lord) ▪ Your horses are ready, sire. [=my lord]
2 [count] technical : a male parent of some animals (such as dogs and horses) ▪ the foal's sire — compare [3]DAM

[2]sire verb sires; sired; sir•ing [+ obj]
1 of an animal : to become the father of (an animal) ▪ The horse sired several champion racers.
2 old-fashioned : to become the father of (a child) ▪ He sired [=fathered] six children.

si•ren /ˈsaɪrən/ noun, pl -rens [count]
1 : a piece of equipment that produces a loud, high-pitched warning sound ▪ an ambulance siren ▪ the wailing of air-raid sirens ▪ We heard police sirens. [=sirens on police cars]
2 : a woman who is very attractive but also dangerous : TEMPTRESS ▪ a Hollywood siren
3 Siren : one of a group of female creatures in Greek mythology whose singing attracted sailors and caused them to sail into dangerous water or toward rocks siren song noun, pl ~ songs [count] : something that is very appealing and makes you want to go somewhere or do something but that may have bad results — often + of ▪ They could not resist the siren song of fame and money. — called also siren call

sir•loin /ˈsəˌlɔɪn/ noun, pl -loins [count, noncount] : a piece of beef from the lower back area of a cow — often used before another noun ▪ a sirloin steak ▪ sirloin tips sir•ree also sir•ee /səˈri:/ noun [noncount] US, informal — used in the phrases no sirree and yes sirree for emphasis, to show surprise, etc. ▪ I won't let them do it. No sirree. [=no sir] ▪ "Did you like the movie?" "Yes sirree, I sure did."

sis /ˈsɪs/ noun [noncount] informal : SISTER — used as a name for your sister especially when you are talking to her ▪ Sis, can you help me with this?

si•sal /ˈsaɪsəl/ noun [noncount] : a strong white fiber made from a tropical plant — often used before another noun ▪ sisal fibers/rope/twine ▪ a sisal rug

sis•sy also Brit cis•sy /ˈsɪsi/ noun, pl sis•sies [count] informal + disapproving
1 : a boy who is weak or who likes things that girls usually like ▪ The other kids laughed at him and called him a sissy because he didn't like sports.
2 : a person who is weak and fearful ▪ Don't be such a sissy. [=wimp] It's just a frog.
– sissy adj ▪ He thinks golf is a sissy sport.

[1]sis•ter /ˈsɪstə/ noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : a girl or woman who has one or both of the same parents as you ▪ my little/younger sister ▪ his big/older sister ▪ She's my twin sister. ▪ He has two sisters. — compare HALF SISTER, SISTER-IN-LAW, STEPSISTER
2 informal — used when talking to a woman ▪ Sister, you have got to relax. ▪ Sister, you don't need him in your life.
3 or Sister [count] : a member of a religious community of women : NUN ▪ The sisters live in the convent. — often used as a title ▪ the Sisters of St. Joseph ▪ Sister Christine — abbr. Sr.
4 [count] : a woman who is from the same group or country as you ▪ her college sorority sisters ▪ We must support our brothers and sisters fighting overseas. ▪ She speaks for her Asian sisters.
5 [count] US, informal : a black woman — used especially by African-Americans
6 or Sister [count] chiefly Brit : a nurse in a hospital ward or clinic
– see also WEAK SISTER

[2]sister adj, always used before a noun : belonging to the same kind or group : having similar qualities or characteristics ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 96 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

The two cruise liners are sister ships. ▪ sister companies/schools sister city noun, pl ~ cit•ies [count] US : one of two cities or towns in different areas that have a special relationship and are usually similar in some way ▪ A choir from our sister city in France is performing here next week. — called also (Brit) twin town

sis•ter•hood /ˈsɪstəˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods
1 [noncount] : the close relationship among women based on shared experiences, concerns, etc. ▪ The bonds of sisterhood have helped unite women to fight for social equality.
2 [count] : a community or society of women — usually singular ▪ She is a member of the sisterhood.; especially : a community of nuns — usually singular ▪ Sister Katherine joined the sisterhood 10 years ago.

sis•ter–in–law /ˈsɪstərənˌlɑ:/ noun, pl sis•ters–in–law /ˈsɪstəzənˌlɑ/ [count]
1 : the sister of your husband or wife
2 : the wife of your brother

sis•ter•ly /ˈsɪstəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or suggesting the closeness of a sister ▪ She gave her brother a sisterly kiss on the cheek. ▪ She received sisterly support from other women. ▪ a sisterly friendship sit /ˈsɪt/ verb sits; sat /ˈsæt/; sit•ting

1 a [no obj] : to be in a position in which your bottom is resting on a chair, the ground, etc., especially with your back upright ▪ He was sitting in a chair next to the window. ▪ She sat across from me during dinner. ▪ The children sat cross-legged on the floor playing a game. ▪ Are you going to sit there and watch TV all day? ▪ Don't just sit there—do/say something! ▪ You can't expect young children to sit still [=sit without moving around] for that long. b [no obj] : to begin to sit : to put yourself in a sitting position ▪ He went over and sat [=sat down] in a chair next to the window. ▪ She walked around the table and sat across from me. c always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be seated : to put (someone) in a sitting position ▪ She sat the toddler in the chair.
2 [no obj] a of an animal : to rest with the tail end of the body on the floor and the front legs straight ▪ The cat likes to sit by the window. ▪ He taught the dog to sit (on command). ▪ Sit! Good dog! b of a bird : to rest on the top or the edge of something ▪ The bird sat on the ledge.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to be or stay in a particular place, position, or condition ▪ The limousine is sitting outside. ▪ A vase sat on the table. ▪ The sled sits unused in the garage during the summer.
4 [no obj] : to be a member of an official group that has meetings ▪ She sits on the board of directors.
5 [no obj] : to meet in order to carry on official business : to hold a session ▪ The court is now sitting. ▪ Parliament will sit for four months.
6 [no obj] a : to take care of a child while the child's parents are away : BABYSIT ▪ She sits for the neighbors' kids. = She sits for the neighbors. b : to take care of something while the owner is away — usually used in combination ▪ Can you dog-sit [=take care of my dog] for me this weekend? — see also HOUSE-SIT 7 [+ obj] US : to have enough seats for (a certain number of people) ▪ The car sits [=seats] five (people).
8 [no obj] : to pose for a portrait, photograph, etc. ▪ She agreed to sit for the painting/painter.
9 Brit : to take (an examination) [+ obj] Students will sit the exam next week. [no obj] The course prepares students to sit for the exam.

sit around also chiefly Brit sit about [phrasal verb] : to spend time doing nothing useful ▪ He sits around and does nothing while I do all the work. ▪ She just sits around watching television all day.

sit back [phrasal verb] 1 : to get into a comfortable and relaxed position in a chair, seat, etc. ▪ Sit back and enjoy the ride. 2 : to make no effort to do something ▪ He sat back and watched us do all the work. ▪ How can you just sit back and let him insult you like that?

sit by [phrasal verb] : to make no effort to stop something bad or unpleasant from happening ▪ We cannot just sit by and watch him ruin his life. ▪ I won't sit idly by while he ruins his life!

sit down [phrasal verb] 1 : to begin to sit : to put yourself into a sitting position ▪ She called just as we were sitting down to eat. ▪ Come on in and sit down. [=have a seat] ▪ Please sit down and be quiet. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We need to sit down and figure this problem out. [=we need to give our attention to figuring this problem out] 2 be sitting down : to be in a sitting position ▪ She made sure everyone was sitting down before she began. ▪ I have some shocking news. Are you sitting down? 3 sit (someone) down : to cause (someone) to be seated : to put or get (someone) in a sitting position ▪ He sat the child down. ▪ You need to sit him down and have a talk with him. ▪ She sat herself down on the couch.

sit in [phrasal verb] 1 : to take the place of someone who is not present ▪ The President could not attend the meeting, so the Vice President is sitting in. = The Vice President is sitting in for the President. 2 sit in on (something) : to attend (something, such as a class or meeting) without officially participating ▪ She's been asked to sit in on the meetings. ▪ I would like to sit in on one of your classes.

sit on [phrasal verb] sit on (something) informal : to delay dealing with or talking about (something) ▪ Let's sit on the problem for a while and see if anything changes. ▪ They have been sitting on my insurance claim for months! ▪ Let's just sit on this news for the time being.

sit on your hands : to make no effort to deal with or respond to something ▪ She accused the administration of sitting on its hands while industries violated the law.

sit on your laurels see LAUREL sit out [phrasal verb] sit out (something) or sit (something) out 1 : to stay in a place and wait for (something) to end ▪ Though the movie was very boring, he sat it out to see how it ended. 2 : to not take part in (something) ▪ She sat out several dances/practices. ▪ You can start the game without me. I'm going to sit this one out.

sit pretty informal : to be in a very good or favorable situation ▪ Our team sits pretty at the top of the rankings. — usually used as be sitting pretty ▪ He bought stock in the company early on, and now he is sitting pretty.

sit through [phrasal verb] sit through (something) : to go to (something) and stay until the end ▪ We had to sit through another boring meeting. ▪ I can't believe the kids sat through the whole movie.

sit tight 1 : to not move or change your position : to stay where you are ▪ Sit tight, I'll go get help. 2 : to not change your situation : to stay in the same situation ▪ This isn't a good time to sell a house. Let's just sit tight and see if the market improves.

sit up [phrasal verb] 1 : to stay awake until late at night ▪ They sat up talking until almost dawn. 2 : to sit with your back very straight ▪ Quit slouching and sit up (straight). 3 sit up or sit (someone) up : to move or help (someone) to move into a sitting position ▪ He sat up in bed. ▪ She sat the child up.

sit up and take notice : to suddenly pay attention to (someone or something) ▪ The news made them sit up and take notice.

sit well/comfortably (etc.) ✧ If something does not sit well/comfortably (etc.) with you, you do not like it. ▪ The decision didn't sit well with him. ▪ That attitude doesn't sit comfortably with me.

si•tar /sɪˈtɑə/ noun, pl -tars [count] : a musical instrument from India that is like a guitar and that has a long neck and a round body sit•com /ˈsɪtˌkɑ:m/ noun, pl -coms [count, noncount] : a show that is on television regularly and that is about a group of characters who are involved in different funny situations — called also situation comedy

[1]sit–down /ˈsɪtˈdaʊn/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : done or used while sitting down ▪ a sit-down job/interview ▪ a sit-down lawn mower
2 a : served to people who are sitting down at a table ▪ Will the reception be a sit-down dinner or a buffet? b : serving sit-down meals ▪ a sit-down restaurant

[2]sit–down /ˈsɪtˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs
1 [count] : a strike or protest in which a group of people sit down to block a road, entrance, etc., and refuse to leave until they are given what they demand ▪ The students staged a sit-down. — often used before another noun ▪ a sit-down strike/protest
2 [count] chiefly US : a meeting held to talk about a problem or disagreement ▪ The group arranged a sit-down with city officials.
3 [singular] Brit : a short rest while sitting down ▪ I need a sit-down and a cup of tea.

[1]site /ˈsaɪt/ noun, pl sites [count]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 97 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 : the place where something (such as a building) is, was, or will be located ▪ Hard hats must be worn on the construction site. ▪ They visited the site of their future house. ▪ The company has chosen a new site for its office building.
2 : a place where something important has happened ▪ the site of the battle ▪ Federal investigators combed through the crash site.
3 : a place that is used for a particular activity ▪ an archaeological site ▪ a nuclear test site
4 : WEB SITE

[2]site verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition sites; sit•ed; sit•ing [+ obj] formal : to place or build (something) in a particular location — usually used as (be) sited ▪ The office building will be sited on this lot.

sit–in /ˈsɪtˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : a strike or protest in which people sit or stay in a place and refuse to leave until they are given what they demand ▪ The activists staged a sit-in at the State House to protest the treatment of prisoners.

sit•ter /ˈsɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 chiefly US : a person who takes care of a child while the child's parents are away : BABYSITTER ▪ They hired a sitter so they could go out.
2 : a person who poses for a portrait or photograph

[1]sit•ting /ˈsɪtɪŋ/ noun, pl -tings [count]
1 : a period of time during which someone sits and does a particular activity ▪ I got through the book in one sitting.
2 : a period of time when a person poses for a portrait or photograph ▪ He finished the portrait in one sitting.
3 : a time when a meal is served to a number of people at the same time ▪ We'll eat at the second sitting. ▪ We have reservations for the 5:30 sitting.
4 : a formal meeting of a court of law, a legislature, etc. ▪ a sitting of the legislature

[2]sitting adj, always used before a noun
1 : currently holding an office ▪ a sitting President ▪ a sitting member of Parliament
2 : used in or for sitting ▪ a sitting position
3 : easily hit ▪ a sitting target sitting duck noun, pl ~ ducks [count] : a person or thing that is easy to hit, attack, trick, etc. ▪ The tourists were sitting ducks for local thieves.

sitting room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : LIVING ROOM sitting tenant noun, pl ~ -ants [count] Brit : a person who is living in a rented house or apartment and has the legal right to stay there sit•u•ate /ˈsɪtʃəˌweɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to place (someone or something) in a particular location ▪ They decided to situate the new office building near the airport. ▪ We situated ourselves in the seats nearest the exit. — often used figuratively ▪ You need to situate the events in the proper historical context.

situated adj, formal
1 : located in a particular place ▪ The building is situated in the bad part of town. ▪ Situated above the valley, the house offers beautiful views. ▪ beautifully/ideally/well situated 2 : in a particular living situation ▪ My parents are not rich, but they're comfortably situated.

sit•u•a•tion /ˌsɪtʃəˈweɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : all of the facts, conditions, and events that affect someone or something at a particular time and in a particular place ▪ He's in a bad/difficult/dangerous situation. ▪ You may find yourself in a situation where you lose control of the vehicle. ▪ How is your financial situation? ▪ I'm worried about the current political/economic situation. ▪ I've been in your situation [=position] before, so I think I can help you. ▪ My parents are retired and in a good situation.
2 : an important or sudden problem ▪ I have a situation that I have to deal with at the moment.
3 somewhat formal + old-fashioned : a place or location ▪ The house is in a wonderful situation overlooking the valley.
4 old-fashioned : JOB 1 ▪ She found a situation as a governess.

situation comedy noun, pl ~ -dies [count] : SITCOM sit–up /ˈsɪtˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : an exercise in which you lie on your back and use your stomach muscles to raise the top part of your body to a sitting position ▪ She does 50 sit-ups every morning. — compare [2]CRUNCH 4 six /ˈsɪks/ noun, pl sixes

1 [count] : the number 6
2 [count] : the sixth in a set or series ▪ the six of hearts
3 [noncount] : six o'clock ▪ "What time is it?" "It's six." ▪ I leave each day at six.
at sixes and sevens chiefly Brit, informal : disorganized and confused ▪ The change left everyone at sixes and sevens. ▪ Everything will be at sixes and sevens until our computer system is fixed.
hit/knock (someone) for six Brit, informal : to have an unpleasant and shocking effect on (someone) ▪ The news of the accident really hit me for six.
six of one, half (a) dozen of the other (US) or chiefly Brit six of one and half a dozen of the other informal — used to say that you do not see any real difference between two possible choices ▪ "Which do you prefer?" "I don't care; it's six of one, half a dozen of the other."
– six adj ▪ six possibilities/hours – six pronoun ▪ Six (of them) will be coming tonight.

six– gure adj, always used before a noun : in the hundreds of thousands : totaling 100,000 or more but less than one million ▪ a six-figure income/salary six•fold /ˈsɪksˌfoʊld/ adj : six times as great or as many ▪ a sixfold increase – six•fold /ˈsɪksˈfoʊld/ adv ▪ Membership has increased sixfold.

six–gun /ˈsɪksˌgʌn/ noun, pl -guns [count] : SIX-SHOOTER six–pack /ˈsɪksˌpæk/ noun, pl -packs [count]

1 : a group of six cans or bottles sold together ▪ We bought/drank a six-pack. ▪ a six-pack of soda/beer
2 informal : a group of strong and well-shaped muscles that can be seen on a person's stomach ▪ Check out his six-pack. ▪ He has six-pack abs.

six•pence /ˈsɪkspəns/ noun, pl sixpence or six•penc•es [count] : a coin formerly used in Britain that was worth six pennies six–shoot•er /ˈsɪksˌʃuːtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of gun (called a revolver) that can hold six bullets — used especially to describe guns used in the old American West ▪ a cowboy's six-shooter — called also six-gun

six•teen /ˌsɪkˈstiːn/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 16
– sixteen adj ▪ sixteen years – sixteen pronoun ▪ Sixteen (of them) will be coming tonight. – six•teenth /ˌsɪkˈstiːnθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ I'll see you on the sixteenth of April. ▪ The bill is due on the sixteenth (of the month). ▪ one sixteenth of the total – sixteenth adj ▪ The paintings were made in the sixteenth century. ▪ He finished in sixteenth place. – sixteenth adv ▪ She finished sixteenth in the race. ▪ the nation's sixteenth largest city sixteenth note noun, pl ~ notes [count] US : a musical note equal in time to 1/16 of a whole note — called also (Brit) semiquaver

[1]sixth /ˈsɪksθ/ noun, pl sixths
1 [singular] : the number six in a series ▪ I'll be flying in on the sixth. [=the sixth day of the month] ▪ He got a base hit in the sixth. [=the sixth inning]
2 [count] : one of six equal parts of something ▪ Only about a sixth of the town voted for her.

[2]sixth adj : occupying the number six position in a series ▪ on the sixth day ▪ the book's sixth edition ▪ I finished in sixth place in the competition.
– sixth adv ▪ She finished sixth in the race. ▪ the nation's sixth largest city sixth form noun [singular] Brit : the two final years of secondary school in Britain for students aged 16 to 18

– sixth–former noun, pl -mers [count] Brit

sixth form college noun, pl ~ -leges [count] Brit : a school in Britain providing education for students aged 16 to 18 sixth sense noun [singular] : a special ability to know something that cannot be learned by using the five senses (such as sight or hearing) ▪ She claimed to have a sixth sense for knowing when someone was about to call her.

six•ty /ˈsɪksti/ noun, pl six•ties
1 [count] : the number 60
2 sixties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 60 to 69 b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 60 to 69 ▪ She likes music from the sixties. [=from 1960 to 1969] ▪ He retired when he was in his sixties.
– six•ti•eth /ˈsɪkstijəθ/ noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one sixtieth of the total – sixtieth adj ▪ his sixtieth birthday – sixty adj ▪ sixty books – sixty pronoun ▪ Sixty (of them) arrived this morning.

siz•able or size•able /ˈsaɪzəbəl/ adj : fairly large ▪ a sizable contribution/donation ▪ a sizable portion/percentage/proportion of the population ▪ He won by a sizable margin.
– siz•ably /ˈsaɪzəbli/ adv, chiefly US ▪ Costs have increased sizably.

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 98 SESS: 70 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

[1]size /saɪz/ noun, pl siz•es
1 a : the total amount of physical space that a person or thing occupies : how large or small someone or something is [count] The size of the box is 12 inches long, 6 inches wide, and 5 inches tall. ▪ The bug was about the size of a dime. ▪ The twins are the same size. [=height] ▪ The tomatoes haven't quite reached their full size. ▪ The house is a good size. ▪ pieces of wood in all shapes and sizes ▪ televisions in large and small sizes [noncount] The cars are similar in size. b : the total number of people or things in a group [count] I was impressed by the size of the audience. ▪ The size of the population keeps increasing. [noncount] There is a big difference in size between 50 people and a hundred! c [noncount] : the very large size of something ▪ It's hard to imagine the canyon's size until you see it in person. ▪ You should have seen the size of the shark they caught!
2 [noncount] : a specific size ▪ The lumber can be cut to size. [=cut to the specific size you need]
3 : one of a series of standard measurements in which clothing, shoes, etc., are made [count] What is your shoe size? ▪ The dress is a size 12. ▪ Do you have this dress in a larger size? ▪ She's a size six. [=the clothes that fit her are size six] [noncount] Try this shoe on for size. [=try this shoe on to see if it is the correct size] down to size ✧ If people cut/bring (etc.) you down to size, they make you realize that you are not as powerful and important as you thought you were. ▪ He thinks he's so smart! I wish someone would cut him down to size.
that's about the size of it informal — used to say that what has been stated about a situation is correct ▪ "So there's no chance of getting finished on time?" "That's about the size of it, I'm afraid."
– compare [4]SIZE

[2]size verb sizes; sized; siz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) a particular size ▪ The jeweler sized the ring (up/down) to fit her finger.
2 : to arrange or classify (things) in different groups according to size — usually used as (be) sized ▪ Men's pants are sized in inches.
size up [phrasal verb] size (something or someone) up or size up (something or someone) informal : to consider (something or someone) in order to form an opinion or conclusion ▪ The news media has been sizing the candidates up. ▪ She quickly sized up the situation.
– compare [5]SIZE

[3]size adj : having a specified size — used in combination ▪ medium-size cars ▪ a decent-size house

[4]size noun [noncount] : SIZING — compare [1]SIZE

[5]size verb sizes; sized; siz•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something, such as paper) with a sticky substance (called sizing) in order to make it stiff or smooth or to attach something else to it — compare [2]SIZE sized /saɪzd/ adj : having a specified size — used in combination ▪ a small-sized dog ▪ a modest-sized apartment sizing noun [noncount] : a sticky substance that is used to make a material (such as paper) stiff or smooth or to attach something (such as wallpaper) to a surface — called also size

siz•zle /ˈsɪzəl/ verb siz•zles; siz•zled; siz•zling [no obj]
1 : to make a hissing sound like the sound water makes when it hits hot metal ▪ bacon sizzling in the pan
2 chiefly US, informal : to be very exciting, romantic, etc. ▪ Their romance sizzled throughout the whole summer. ▪ The book sizzles with excitement.
– sizzle noun [singular] ▪ I heard the sizzle of frying bacon.

siz•zler /ˈsɪzlə/ noun, pl -zlers [count] US, informal
1 : a very hot day ▪ It looks like tomorrow's going to be another sizzler.
2 : something that is very exciting, thrilling, sexy, etc. ▪ a sizzler of a movie sizzling adj, chiefly US, informal

1 : very hot ▪ a sizzling summer
2 : very exciting, romantic, etc. ▪ a sizzling love affair

ska /ˈskɑ:/ noun [noncount] : a type of fast popular music that combines elements of traditional Caribbean rhythms and jazz skank /ˈskæŋk/ noun, pl skanks [count] chiefly US, informal + impolite : a person and especially a woman who is very sexually active or dresses in an overly sexual way ▪ She was dressed like a skank.

– skanky /ˈskæŋki/ adj skank•i•er; -est

[1]skate /ˈskeɪt/ noun, pl skates [count] : a kind of shoe with blades or wheels on the bottom that allow you to glide or roll on a surface: such as a : ICE SKATE b : ROLLER SKATE c : IN-LINE SKATE get/put your skates on Brit, informal — used to tell someone to hurry
– compare [3]SKATE

[2]skate verb skates; skat•ed; skat•ing
1 : to move or glide over a surface on skates [no obj] hockey players skating into position ▪ Couples skated around the rink. [+ obj] She skated an excellent program in the competition.
2 [no obj] : to ride or perform tricks on a skateboard ▪ We skate at the park.
3 [no obj] : to move or glide quickly along a surface ▪ The bugs skated along the surface of the water.
skate over/around [phrasal verb] skate over/around (something) : to avoid talking about (something) especially because it is difficult to talk about or embarrassing ▪ He skated over the issue/question.
– skat•er /ˈskeɪtə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's a very good skater. ▪ Olympic ice skaters

[3]skate noun, pl skates [count, noncount] : a type of fish that has a flat, wide body and a long narrow tail — compare [1]SKATE

[1]skate•board /ˈskeɪtˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a short board that is on wheels and that a person stands on to move along a surface or to perform tricks

skateboard

[2]skateboard verb -boards; -board•ed; -board•ing [no obj] : to ride or perform tricks on a skateboard ▪ He skateboards to school every day.
– skate•board•er /ˈskeɪtˌboədə/ noun, pl -board•ers [count]
– skateboarding noun [noncount] ▪ Skateboarding is not allowed in the parking lot.

skate park noun, pl ~ parks [count] chiefly US : a place with special structures and surfaces on which people can roller-skate or skateboard skating noun [noncount] : the activity or sport of gliding on skates or a skateboard ▪ No skating is allowed in the parking lot. ▪ We used to go skating on the pond every winter.

skating rink noun, pl ~ rinks [count] : an area or place that is used for skating ske•dad•dle /skɪˈdædl/ verb -dad•dles; -dad•dled; -dad•dling [no obj] informal + humorous : to leave a place very quickly ▪ I've got to skedaddle or I'll be late.

skeet shooting /ˈski:t-/ noun [noncount] US : the sport of shooting at targets (called clay pigeons) that are thrown in the air skein /ˈskeɪn/ noun, pl skeins [count] : a long piece of yarn or thread that is loosely wound — compare HANK

skel•e•tal /ˈskɛlətl/ adj
1 technical : of or relating to a skeleton ▪ skeletal muscles ▪ the skeletal system ▪ The archaeologist found skeletal remains.
2 : very thin ▪ She was skeletal after her illness.

[1]skel•e•ton /ˈskɛlətən/ noun, pl -tons [count]

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 99 SESS: 71 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

1 a : the structure of bones that supports the body of a person or animal ▪ They found the fossil skeleton of a mastodon. b : a set or model of all the bones in the body of a person ▪ He hung a plastic skeleton on the door for Halloween. — see picture at HUMAN

2 : a very thin person or animal ▪ She was a skeleton after her illness.

3 a : the frame of a building ▪ Only the charred skeleton of the house remained after the fire. b : a basic outline of a plan, piece of writing, etc. ▪ We saw a skeleton of the report before it was published. ▪ a skeleton draft skeletons in the/your closet or Brit skeletons in the/your cupboard informal : something bad or embarrassing that happened in your past and that is kept secret ▪ He asked if she had any skeletons in her closet that might affect her political campaign.

[2]skeleton adj : having the smallest possible number of people who can get a job done ▪ a skeleton crew/staff skeleton key noun, pl ~ keys [count] : a key that is made to open many different locks

skep•tic (US) or Brit scep•tic /'skɛptɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] : a person who questions or doubts something (such as a claim or statement) ▪ Skeptics have pointed out flaws in the researchers' methods. ▪ You can believe in ghosts if you like, but I'm still a skeptic. : a person who often questions or doubts things ▪ He is a skeptic and a cynic.

skep•ti•cal (US) or Brit scep•ti•cal /'skɛptɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or expressing doubt about something (such as a claim or statement) ▪ She's highly skeptical of/about the researchers' claims. ▪ I'm skeptical that he can win. [=I doubt he can win] ▪ He says he can win, but I remain skeptical. ▪ When I said I'd finished my homework early, Mom looked skeptical.

– skep•ti•cal•ly (US) or Brit scep•ti•cal•ly /'skɛptɪkli/ adv ▪ People regarded the claims skeptically. ▪ She looked at me skeptically.

skep•ti•cism (US) or Brit scep•ti•cism /'skɛptə,sɪzəm/ noun : an attitude of doubting the truth of something (such as a claim or statement) [noncount] She regarded the researcher's claims with skepticism. [singular] It's good to maintain a healthy skepticism about fad diets.

[1]sketch /'skɛʧ/ noun, pl sketch•es [count]

1 : a quick, rough drawing that shows the main features of an object or scene ▪ He made/drew a sketch of his house.

2 : a short description of something ▪ He wrote up a sketch of the plot. ▪ There is a biographical sketch of the author on the book's back cover. ▪ She gave us a thumbnail sketch [=short description] of the movie's plot.

3 : a short, funny performance ▪ a comedy sketch

[2]sketch verb sketches; sketched; sketch•ing

1 : to make a quick, rough drawing of (something) [+ obj] He sketched the trees outside his window. [no obj] He likes to sit outside and sketch. — often + out ▪ He sketched out the house's floor plans.

2 [+ obj] : to describe (something) briefly ▪ She sketched the plan for us. — often + out ▪ She sketched out the company's financial situation.

sketch in [phrasal verb] sketch in (something) or sketch (something) in : to add (something, such as details) to a drawing, description, etc. ▪ She looked over her picture and then sketched in a few more clouds. ▪ The author decided to sketch in some minor characters.

sketch•book /'skɛʧ,bʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a book filled with paper that is used for drawing sketch•pad /'skɛʧ,pæd/ noun, pl -pads [count] : SKETCHBOOK sketchy /'skɛʧi/ adj sketch•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : not complete or clear ▪ The details about the accident are still a little sketchy. ▪ sketchy information/reports ▪ I have only a sketchy idea of how it works.

2 : done quickly without many details ▪ a sketchy drawing

3 US, informal : likely to be bad or dangerous ▪ a sketchy neighborhood – sketch•i•ly /'skɛʧəli/ adv ▪ a sketchily drawn figure – sketch•i•ness /'skɛʧinəs/ noun [noncount]

skew /'skju:/ verb skews; skewed; skew•ing [+ obj]

1 : to change (something) so that it is not true or accurate ▪ They were accused of skewing the facts to fit their theory. ▪ A few unusual cases may have skewed the data. [=may have made the data show something that is not normal or typical]

2 : to make (something) favor a particular group of people in a way that is unfair ▪ He accused them of skewing the rules in their favor. — usually used as (be) skewed; usually + toward ▪ The tax cuts are skewed toward the wealthy.

skewed adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not true or accurate ▪ skewed facts ▪ The ratio seems skewed.

2 : not straight ▪ The line is skewed.

[1]skew•er /'skju:wə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a long pointed piece of metal or wood that is pushed through pieces of food to keep them together or hold them in place for cooking

[2]skewer verb -ers; -ered; -ering [+ obj]

1 : to push a skewer through (food) ▪ skewer a marshmallow

2 chiefly US, informal : to criticize (someone or something) very harshly ▪ Critics skewered the movie.

skew–whiff /,skju:'wɪf/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : not straight : CROOKED ▪ a slightly skew-whiff door — often used figuratively ▪ Their plans went a little skew-whiff.

[1]ski /'ski:/ noun, pl skis [count]

1 : one of a pair of long narrow pieces of wood, metal, or plastic that curve upward slightly in front, are attached to shoes, and are used for gliding over snow

2 : WATER SKI

[2]ski verb skies; skied; ski•ing : to move or glide on skis over snow or water [no obj] He loves to ski. [+ obj] I have skied that mountain before. — see also WATER-SKI

– ski•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ My brother is a very good skier. ▪ Skiers love fresh snow.

[3]ski adj, always used before a noun : of, relating to, or used in skiing ▪ ski equipment/goggles ▪ a ski slope ▪ She is on her school's ski team. ▪ a ski instructor ▪ ski resorts/lodges

ski boot noun, pl ~ boots [count] : a boot or shoe made to be fastened to skis — see picture at SKI

[1]skid /'skɪd/ verb skids; skid•ded; skid•ding [no obj] : to slide along a road or other surface in an uncontrolled way ▪ The truck skidded on/across the icy road. ▪ The car skidded off the road and into the gully. ▪ He slammed on the brakes, and the car skidded to a halt. ▪ I skidded on the ice and fell.

[2]skid noun, pl skids [count]

1 : a sudden, uncontrolled sliding movement ▪ The car hit a patch of ice and went into a skid. ▪ The police measured the skid marks [=marks made by a skidding vehicle] on the road.

2 : one of a pair of long narrow parts on which a helicopter or airplane rests — usually plural ▪ the skids of a helicopter

3 US, sports : a series of losses that happen one after the other : a losing streak ▪ This victory ends a five-game skid.

4 : PALLET 1 ▪ They loaded the packages onto a skid.

hit the skids informal : to begin to fail or get worse very suddenly and quickly ▪ After he was injured his career hit the skids. ▪ The stock market has hit the skids.

on the skids informal : failing or getting worse : in a bad state or situation that is likely to result in failure ▪ The company is on the skids. ▪ Her marriage was on the skids.

put the skids under Brit, informal : to make (something or someone) likely or certain to fail ▪ He scored the goal that put the skids under our hopes for victory.

skid row noun [noncount] chiefly US, informal : a poor part of a town or city where people who are homeless or who drink too much often go on skid row chiefly US, informal : having no money, job,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 100 SESS: 71 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

home, etc., and not able to take care of yourself ▪ You'll end up on skid row if you don't stop drinking so much.

skiff /ˈskɪf/ noun, pl skiffs [count] : a small, light boat that is usually for only one person skiing noun [noncount] : the activity or sport of gliding on skis ▪ cross-country/downhill skiing ▪ Skiing is my favorite winter activity. ▪ We are planning to go skiing tomorrow.

ski jump noun, pl ~ jumps [count] : a large, steep platform that slopes downward but curves upward slightly at the end so that skiers can glide down it and jump off the end – ski jumper noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – ski jumping noun [noncount] ▪ He won a gold medal in Olympic ski jumping.

skilful Brit spelling of SKILLFUL ski lift noun, pl ~ lifts [count] : a series of seats or handles that are attached to a moving cable and that are used to carry skiers up a mountain skill /ˈskɪl/ noun, pl skills : the ability to do something that comes from training, experience, or practice [noncount] Poker is a game of luck and skill. ▪ I was impressed by her skill at writing. = I was impressed by her skill as a writer. ▪ The work is difficult and requires a lot of skill. [count] Cooking is a useful skill. ▪ He has excellent social skills. ▪ reading and writing skills — see also PEOPLE SKILLS

skilled /ˈskɪld/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having the training, knowledge, and experience that is needed to do something : having a lot of skill ▪ skilled workers ▪ a very skilled and talented writer ▪ He is skilled at cooking.
2 always used before a noun : requiring training ▪ Carpentry is a skilled trade. — opposite UNSKILLED skil•let /ˈskɪlət/ noun, pl -lets [count] chiefly US : FRYING PAN

skill•ful (US) or Brit skil•ful /ˈskɪlfəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having the training, knowledge, and experience that is needed to do something well : having a lot of skill ▪ a skillful artist ▪ He is skillful at diplomacy. ▪ an artist skillful in the use of color
2 : showing or requiring skill ▪ the skillful manner in which the doctor and nurses treated the patient ▪ These issues require skillful handling.
– skill•ful•ly (US) or Brit skil•ful•ly adv ▪ The furniture was skillfully made. ▪ The manager handled the problem skillfully. – skill•ful•ness (US) or Brit skil•ful•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the skillfulness of a craftsman skim /ˈskɪm/ verb skims; skimmed; skim•ming

1 [+ obj] : to remove a layer of something from the surface of a liquid ▪ I skimmed the fat from the broth. = I skimmed the broth to remove the fat. ▪ He skimmed the leaves from the pool. ▪ The cream is skimmed from the milk. ▪ The milk is skimmed before it is bottled. — see also SKIM MILK
2 : to look over or read (something) quickly especially to find the main ideas [+ obj] She only skimmed the reading assignment. [no obj] She only skimmed through/over the reading assignment.
3 [+ obj] Brit : to throw (a flat stone) along the surface of water so that it bounces ▪ He is really good at skimming [=(US) skipping] stones.
4 : to move quickly or lightly along, above, or near the surface of something [no obj] The ducks skimmed across/over the water before landing. [+ obj] The ducks skimmed the surface of the pond before landing.
skim off [phrasal verb] skim off (something) or skim (something) off : to take (something valuable) for yourself out of something else ▪ He skimmed off some of the profits.

ski mask noun, pl ~ masks [count] : a knitted fabric mask that covers your head, has openings for your eyes, mouth, and sometimes your nose, and is worn especially by skiers for protection from the cold skim•mer /ˈskɪmɚ/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a spoon with holes in it that is used by cooks for skimming things skim milk noun [noncount] chiefly US : milk from which all the cream and fat has been removed — called also (chiefly Brit) skimmed milk

skimp /ˈskɪmp/ verb skimps; skimped; skimp•ing [no obj] : to spend less time, money, etc., on something than is needed ▪ Parents shouldn't skimp when it comes to their child's safety. — often + on ▪ Don't skimp on sleep. ▪ The book doesn't skimp on details. [=the book provides plenty of details] ▪ The roof is already leaking because the builder skimped on materials. [=the builder bought cheap materials]

skimpy /ˈskɪmpi/ adj skimp•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : very small in size or amount ▪ a skimpy portion ▪ skimpy evidence ▪ a skimpy dress [=a dress which does not cover very much of the body]
– skimp•i•ly /ˈskɪmpəli/ adv ▪ skimpily [=scantily] clad/dressed – skimp•i•ness /ˈskɪmpinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ I dislike the skimpiness of that restaurant's portions.

[1]skin /ˈskɪn/ noun, pl skins
1 : the natural outer layer of tissue that covers the body of a person or animal [noncount] I have dry skin. ▪ She has pale/dark/fair skin. ▪ the rough skin of a shark ▪ skin creams/lotions ▪ skin cancer ▪ Choose makeup that matches your skin tone. ▪ The horrible things I saw made my skin crawl/creep. [=made me feel disgusted, afraid, etc.] [count] These snakes shed their skins once a year.
2 : the skin of an animal that has been removed from the body often with its hair or feathers still attached and that is used to make things (such as clothes) [count] Native Americans had many uses for animal skins. [noncount] His boots are made of alligator skin.
3 : the outer covering of a fruit, vegetable, etc. [count] apple/sausage skins [noncount] Potato skin is very nutritious.
(a) thick/thin skin ✧ If you have (a) thin skin, you are easily upset or offended by the things other people say or do. ▪ He has such a thin skin that he can't even take a little good-natured teasing. If you have (a) thick skin, you are not easily upset or offended by the things other people say and do. ▪ She has pretty thick skin when it comes to criticism. ▪ If you want to perform publicly, you'll need to grow a thicker skin. [=become less sensitive to criticism]
by the skin of your teeth informal : only by a small difference in time, space, or amount : just barely ▪ He escaped by the skin of his teeth. [=he just barely escaped] ▪ She only passed the test by the skin of her teeth. [=she almost did not pass the test] get under your skin informal 1 : to irritate or upset you ▪ She really gets under my skin. 2 : to affect you emotionally even though you do not want or expect to be affected ▪ I used to hate the city, but after a while it kind of got under my skin. [=I grew to like it] ▪ The actress accepted the role because the character really got under her skin.
jump out of your skin informal ✧ If you almost/nearly (etc.) jump out of your skin, you are suddenly surprised or frightened very much by something. ▪ I didn't hear her come in, so I nearly jumped out of my skin when she spoke to me.
no skin off my nose informal — used to say that you do not care or do not have a strong opinion about something ▪ Go if you like—it's no skin off my nose.
save someone's skin see [1]SAVE skin and bones or skin and bone informal : very thin in a way that is unattractive and unhealthy ▪ After the illness, he was skin and bones. ▪ The starving dog was nothing but skin and bones.
– skin•less /ˈskɪnləs/ adj ▪ skinless chicken breast

[2]skin verb skins; skinned; skin•ning [+ obj]
1 : to remove the skin of (an animal, fruit, or vegetable) ▪ The hunter skinned the rabbit and prepared it for cooking. ▪ Skin [=(more commonly) peel] the tomatoes/peppers.
2 : to scrape or rub off some of the skin from (a body part) ▪ I skinned my knee when I fell.
keep your eyes skinned see [1]EYE skin (someone) alive informal : to punish (someone) severely ▪ Mom is going to skin me alive when she finds out about the broken window.

skin–deep /ˈskɪnˈdi:p/ adj : not very deep at all : relating to, affecting, or involving only the surface ▪ Beauty is only skin-deep. ▪ These reforms are more than skin-deep.

skin–dive verb -dives; -dived; -div•ing [no obj] : to swim underwater with special equipment (such as a face mask, snorkel, and flippers) but without a diving suit or air tank ▪ We plan to skin-dive while on vacation.
– skin diver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – skin diving noun [noncount] ▪ We went skin diving while on vacation.

skin• int /ˈskɪnˌflɪnt/ noun, pl - ints [count] informal + disapproving : a person who hates to spend money ▪ She is a penny-pinching skinflint.

skin•head /ˈskɪnˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : a person with a shaved head; especially : a young white person who belongs to a gang whose members shave their heads and have racist beliefs skinned /ˈskɪnd/ adj : having skin of a specified kind — used in combination ▪ pale-skinned ▪ dark-skinned ▪ smooth-skinned

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 101 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−s

[1]skin•ny /ˈskɪni/ adj skin•ni•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : very thin or too thin ▪ a skinny actress ▪ skinny arms/legs synonyms see [2]LEAN

[2]skinny noun
the skinny US, informal : the true information about someone or something that is not known by most people ▪ What's the skinny on their supposed breakup? ▪ Give me the inside/straight/real skinny.

skin•ny–dip /ˈskɪniˌdɪp/ verb -dips; -dipped; -dip•ping [no obj] informal : to swim without wearing any clothes ▪ We used to skinny-dip in the lake.
– skinny–dip noun, pl -dips [count] ▪ They went for a skinny-dip in the lake. – skin•ny–dip•per /ˈskɪniˌdɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] – skinny–dipping noun [noncount] ▪ Let's go skinny-dipping.

skint /ˈskɪnt/ adj, Brit, informal : having no money : BROKE ▪ I'm completely skint.

skin•tight /ˈskɪnˈtaɪt/ adj : very closely fitted to the body : very tight ▪ a skintight dress

[1]skip /ˈskɪp/ verb skips; skipped; skip•ping
1 [+ obj] : to not do (something that is usual or expected) ▪ He skipped the meeting. [=he didn't go to the meeting] ▪ I skipped breakfast, and now I'm really hungry. ▪ (chiefly US) They got in trouble for skipping school/class. — see also skip bail at [1]BAIL
2 : to not discuss, read, do, or deal with (something) and go instead to the next thing : to pass over or leave out (something) [+ obj] I skipped the boring parts of the book. ▪ If you are having trouble with one of the questions on the test, skip it and come back to it later. ▪ She will skip a grade and go right from the fourth to the sixth grade next September. — often + over ▪ You can skip over the introduction if you want. [no obj] I don't like this song. Let's skip to the next one.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] a : to change quickly from one subject, place, etc., to another ▪ It's hard to understand him when he skips from topic to topic like that. ▪ The movie skips around in time. b ✧ If a CD, DVD, record, etc., skips, it fails to play part of a song or movie properly because it is damaged. ▪ The record keeps skipping.
4 [no obj] : to move forward in a light or playful way by taking short, quick steps and jumps ▪ The kids skipped happily down the street.
5 [+ obj] informal : to leave (a place) in a sudden and unexpected way especially to avoid trouble, punishment, etc. ▪ Police are afraid he might try to skip the country. ▪ They skipped town while awaiting trial.
6 US : to throw (a flat stone) along the surface of water so that it bounces [+ obj] She's really good at skipping [=(Brit) skimming] stones. [no obj] I got the rock to skip six times!
7 [no obj] Brit : to jump over a rope that is being swung near the ground for exercise or as a game ▪ The children are outside skipping. [=(US) skipping rope, jumping rope] heart skips a beat see HEART skip it chiefly US, informal — used to say that you do not want to do something, talk about something, etc. ▪ I meant to . . . oh, skip it. It's not important anyway.
skip out (US) or Brit skip off [phrasal verb] informal : to leave a place quickly in a secret and improper way ▪ They skipped out before the check arrived. ▪ She skipped out with all the money. — often + on in U.S. English ▪ They skipped out on the bill/check. ▪ She skipped out on me and took all the money.
skip rope see [1]ROPE

[2]skip noun, pl skips [count]
1 : a short, quick step and jump forward ▪ a quick skip 2 Brit : a large metal container for putting trash in a hop, skip, and (a) jump see [2]HOP ski pole noun, pl ~ poles [count] : one of two long sticks that are used to control your movements and balance while you are skiing — see picture at SKI

[1]skip•per /ˈskɪpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] informal
1 : the captain of a ship or boat
2 informal : someone who leads a group; especially : the manager of a baseball team

[2]skipper verb -pers; -pered; -per•ing [+ obj] informal
1 : to be the captain of (a ship or boat) ▪ The boat was skippered by a skilled veteran sailor.
2 : to be the person who leads or manages (a team) ▪ He skippered the team to their latest World Series win.

skipping rope noun, pl ~ ropes [count] Brit : JUMP ROPE

[1]skir•mish /ˈskəːmɪʃ/ noun, pl -mish•es [count]
1 : a brief and usually unplanned fight during a war ▪ Skirmishes broke out between rebel groups. ▪ Violent skirmishes with the enemy continue despite talks of peace.
2 : a minor or brief argument or disagreement ▪ a political skirmish

[2]skirmish verb -mishes; -mished; -mish•ing [no obj] : to be involved in a skirmish ▪ Rebel groups are skirmishing with military forces. ▪ The presidential candidates skirmished over their economic plans.

[1]skirt /ˈskəːt/ noun, pl skirts [count]
1 a : a piece of clothing worn by women and girls that hangs from the waist down ▪ She was wearing a short/long skirt. — see color picture on page C14; see also MINISKIRT b : the part of a dress, coat, etc., that hangs from the waist down ▪ The skirt of her coat got caught in the car door. — sometimes plural ▪ He gathered up the skirts of his robe as he climbed the stairs. ▪ a dress with full skirts
2 : an outer covering that hangs down to protect something ▪ They put a protective skirt around the base of the machine.

[2]skirt verb skirts; skirt•ed; skirt•ing
1 : to avoid (something) especially because it is difficult or will cause problems [+ obj] The mayor skirted the issue by saying that a committee was looking into the problem. ▪ They tried to skirt the new regulations. [no obj] He tried to skirt around the question.
2 : to lie or go along the edge of (something) [+ obj] Pine trees skirt the northern edge of the pond. [no obj] The road skirts around the lake. ▪ We skirted around the edge of the city.

skirting board noun, pl ~ boards [count, noncount] Brit : BASEBOARD — called also (Brit) skirting skit /ˈskɪt/ noun, pl skits [count] : a short, funny story or performance ▪ One of the funniest skits in the show was about cheerleading.

skit•ter /ˈskɪtə/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to move quickly and lightly along a surface ▪ Dry leaves skittered over the sidewalk. ▪ Mice skittered across the floor.

skit•tish /ˈskɪtɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 of an animal : easily frightened or excited ▪ a skittish horse
2 : nervous or fearful about doing something ▪ We've been skittish about taking on such a large mortgage. ▪ skittish consumers/investors
3 chiefly US : tending to change often : not dependable or stable ▪ a skittish stock market – skit•tish•ly adv – skit•tish•ness noun [noncount]

skit•tle /ˈskɪtl/ noun, pl skit•tles
1 skittles [noncount] : a British game played by rolling a wooden ball toward a set of objects in order to knock over as many objects as possible
2 [count] : one of the objects that a player tries to knock over in a game of skittles skive /ˈskaɪv/ verb skives; skived; skiv•ing Brit, informal : to avoid school or work by staying away or by leaving without permission — often + off [no obj] He works for his mother and feels he can skive off whenever he feels like it. [+ obj] She skived off school twice last month.

– skiv•er /ˈskaɪvə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

Skiv•vies /ˈskɪviz/ trademark, US — used for men's underwear

skiv•vy /ˈskɪvi/ noun, pl -vies [count] Brit, informal : a female servant who does work that is dirty and unpleasant ▪ I'm tired of being treated like a skivvy.

skul•dug•gery or skull•dug•gery /ˌskʌlˈdʌgəri/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned : secret or dishonest behavior or activity ▪ tales of espionage and skulduggery skulk /ˈskʌlk/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition skulks; skulked; skulk•ing [no obj] : to move or hide in a secret way especially because you are planning to do something bad ▪ A man was skulking around outside. ▪ She skulked into her sister's room.

skull /ˈskʌl/ noun, pl skulls [count] : the structure of bones that form the head and face of a person or animal ▪ He had a fractured skull. ▪ (informal) You need to get it into/through your thick skull [=you need to realize/understand] that you can't just sit there and expect everyone else to do your work for you! ▪ (informal) He can't seem to get it through his skull that I don't like him. — see picture at HUMAN skull and cross•bones /ˌskʌlənˈkrɑːsˌboʊnz/ noun [singular] : a picture of a human skull above two crossed bones that was used on the flags of pirate ships in the past and is

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 102 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s now used as a warning label on containers of poisonous or dangerous substances skull•cap /ˈskʌlˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count]

1 : a small, round cap that fits on top of the head and that is worn especially by Jewish men and Catholic clergymen
2 : a tight-fitting cap that is made of material that stretches

skunk /ˈskʌŋk/ noun, pl skunks [count]
1 : a small black-and-white North American animal that produces a very strong and unpleasant smell when it is frightened or in danger
2 US, informal : a very bad or unpleasant person ▪ Her brother's a low-down, dirty skunk.

skunk

skunk cabbage noun [noncount] : a North American plant that grows in wet, shady areas and that produces a strong odor sky /ˈskaɪ/ noun, pl skies : the space over the Earth where the sun, moon, stars, and clouds appear [count] a starry sky ▪ the night/desert sky ▪ There wasn't a cloud in the sky. ▪ Dark clouds moved quickly across the sky. ▪ Hailstones suddenly fell out of the sky. ▪ The sun/moon was high in the sky. ▪ The forecast is for sunny/blue/gray/overcast skies tomorrow. ▪ partly cloudy skies [noncount] a patch of blue sky praise (someone or something) to the skies see [1]PRAISE take to the sky/skies chiefly US : to begin flying ▪ The new airliner will take to the skies next year.

the sky's the limit see [1]LIMIT
– see also PIE IN THE SKY

sky blue noun [noncount] : a pale to light blue color — see color picture on page C2

sky•box /ˈskaɪˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] US : an area with a roof and private seats near the top of a sports stadium sky•cap /ˈskaɪˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count] US : a person whose job is to carry people's luggage at an airport sky•div•ing /ˈskaɪˌdaɪvɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the sport of jumping from an airplane and falling through the sky before opening a parachute – sky•dive /ˈskaɪˌdaɪv/ verb -dives; -dived; -div•ing [no obj] ▪ Have you ever skydived? – sky•div•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]sky–high /ˈskaɪˈhaɪ/ adj : extremely high ▪ sky-high prices ▪ Her blood pressure is sky-high.

[2]sky–high adv : to a very high degree, level, or amount ▪ Stock prices rose sky-high. ▪ Rubble was piled sky-high.

sky•lark /ˈskaɪˌlɑːk/ noun, pl -larks [count] : a small bird of Europe, Asia, and northern Africa that sings while it flies sky•light /ˈskaɪˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a window in the roof of a house or on a ship's deck sky•line /ˈskaɪˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the outline of buildings, mountains, etc., against the background of the sky ▪ the New York City skyline

[1]sky•rock•et /ˈskaɪˌrɑːkət/ verb -ets; -et•ed; -et•ing [no obj] : to increase quickly to a very high level or amount ▪ Costs/Sales have skyrocketed. ▪ skyrocketing prices ▪ His popularity skyrocketed after his latest movie.

[2]skyrocket noun, pl -ets [count] : [1]ROCKET 3 sky•scrap•er /ˈskaɪˌskreɪpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a very tall building in a city sky•ward /ˈskaɪwəd/ also chiefly Brit sky•wards /ˈskaɪwədz/ adv : toward the sky : up into the sky ▪ Everyone looked skyward as the jets passed by. ▪ The bird soared skyward.

slab /ˈslæb/ noun, pl slabs [count]
1 : a thick, flat piece of a hard material (such as stone or wood) ▪ concrete slabs ▪ slabs of rock
2 : a thick, flat piece of food (such as bread or meat) ▪ a slab of bacon ▪ a thick slab of homemade bread

[1]slack /ˈslæk/ adj
1 : not stretched or held in a tight position : LOOSE ▪ slack rope ▪ His broken arm hung slack at his side. ▪ The rope suddenly went slack. ▪ Her jaw went slack [=fell open] in amazement.
2 : not busy : lacking the expected or desired activity ▪ The fall is our slack [=slow] season. ▪ a slack market
3 a : doing something poorly because you are not putting enough care or effort into it ▪ I've been a little slack [=careless] about taking my medication lately. b : done poorly and carelessly ▪ He accused the government of slack supervision of nuclear technology.
– slack•ly adv ▪ Streamers hung slackly from the walls. – slack•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the slackness of the rope ▪ His slackness at work has been noticed.

[2]slack noun, pl slacks
1 [noncount] : the part of a rope, chain, etc., that hangs loosely ▪ Take in/up the slack of the rope. — sometimes used figuratively to describe a part of something that is available but not used ▪ We left some slack in the budget so that we can hire more people if we have to.
2 slacks [plural] chiefly US : pants or trousers ▪ He was wearing a white shirt and (a pair of) cotton slacks. ▪ She wore dress slacks and a nice blouse.
give/cut (someone) some slack informal : to treat (someone) in a less harsh or critical way ▪ Would you give/cut me some slack? I'm doing the best I can.
pick/take up the slack : to provide or do something that is missing or not getting done ▪ When he didn't get the pay raise he was expecting, he had to take another job to pick up the slack. [=to make up for the money he was not making] ▪ The manager has to take up the slack when employees don't do their jobs correctly.

[3]slack verb slacks; slacked; slack•ing [no obj] : to give little or no effort or attention to work ▪ They need to stop slacking and get down to work.
slack off [phrasal verb] 1 : to do something with less effort or energy than you did it with before ▪ I was exercising regularly last summer, but I've been slacking off recently. 2 : to become less active, forceful, etc. ▪ Their business has been slacking off in recent months.

slack•en /ˈslækən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 a [no obj] : to become slower or less active : to slow down ▪ Sales show no sign of slackening. ▪ The wind slackened (off) and the sky cleared. b [+ obj] : to make (something) slower or less active ▪ She slackened her speed/pace [=she slowed down] after she slipped on the ice.
2 : to become less tight or to make (something) less tight : LOOSEN [no obj] As he began to relax, his grip on the steering wheel slackened. [+ obj] He slackened his grip. ▪ The captain ordered us to slacken the sails.

slack•er /ˈslækə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a person who avoids work and responsibilities ▪ The people I work with are a bunch of slackers.

[1]slag /ˈslæg/ noun [noncount] : the material that is left when rocks that contain metal are heated to get the metal out ▪ a slag heap [=a large pile of slag] — compare [2]SLAG

[2]slag noun, pl slags [count] Brit slang, offensive : a woman who has many sexual partners — compare [1]SLAG

[3]slag verb slags; slagged; slag•ging
slag off [phrasal verb] slag (someone) off or slag off (someone) Brit slang : to criticize (someone) harshly ▪ She often slags off other musicians to try to make herself look good.

slain past participle of SLAY

slake /ˈsleɪk/ verb slakes; slaked; slak•ing [+ obj] literary : to provide, do, or have what is required by (something) : SATISFY ▪ trying to slake his curiosity/lust slake your thirst : to cause you to stop feeling thirsty : to quench your thirst ▪ They slaked their thirst with cold water.

sla•lom /ˈslɑːləm/ noun, pl -loms [count, noncount] : a race especially on skis over a winding course that is marked by flags — often used before another noun ▪ a slalom course/race ▪ slalom skiers/racers/skis

[1]slam /ˈslæm/ verb slams; slammed; slam•ming
1 : to close (something) in a forceful way that makes a loud noise [+ obj] He slammed the door in my face. ▪ She slammed the drawer shut. [no obj] He stepped inside and let the door slam behind him. ▪ The window slammed shut.
2 [+ obj] : to set or throw (something) in a forceful way that makes a loud noise ▪ In her anger, she slammed the ball against the fence. — usually + down ▪ He slammed the books down on the table and ran outside. ▪ She slammed down the phone.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to hit something with a lot of force ▪ The car slid on the ice and slammed into a tree. ▪ Her arm slammed against the table.
4 [+ obj] informal : to criticize (someone or something) harshly ▪ Her decision is getting slammed in the press. — often + for ▪ Many people have slammed the company for not paying its workers decent wages.
slam on the brakes : to press down hard on the brakes of a

S

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 103 SESS: 71 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:50:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-s

car to make it stop suddenly ▪ He slammed on the brakes to avoid hitting the dog.

[2]slam noun, pl slams [count]
1 a : an act of closing something in a forceful way that makes a loud noise — usually singular ▪ He closed the book with a slam. b : a loud noise that is made when something is closed in a forceful way — usually singular ▪ I heard the slam of a car door in the driveway.
2 chiefly US : a competition in which people read their poetry out loud so that it can be judged by other people ▪ a poetry slam ▪ slam poets
– see also GRAND SLAM

slam dunk noun, pl ~ dunks [count]
1 basketball : [2]DUNK
2 US, informal : something that is sure to happen or be successful ▪ The vote proved to be a slam dunk for our side with a 24 to 5 win. ▪ There's no doubt that he's guilty. The case is a slam dunk.

slam–dunk verb -dunks; -dunked; -dunk•ing basketball : to jump high in the air and push (the ball) down through the basket : DUNK [+ obj] He slam-dunked the ball. [no obj] At his height, it's not so hard to slam-dunk.

slam•mer /ˈslæmə/ noun
the slammer informal : a prison or jail ▪ He got 10 years in the slammer.

[1]slan•der /ˈslændə/ noun, pl -ders
1 [noncount] : the act of making a false spoken statement that causes people to have a bad opinion of someone ▪ She is being sued for slander. ▪ He was a target of slander. — compare LIBEL
2 [count] : a false spoken statement that is made to cause people to have a bad opinion of someone ▪ We've heard countless unsupported slanders about her.
– slan•der•ous /ˈslændərəs/ adj ▪ slanderous claims/attacks/allegations

[2]slander verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj] : to make a false spoken statement that causes people to have a bad opinion of someone ▪ She was accused of slandering her former boss.

slang /ˈslæŋ/ noun [noncount] : words that are not considered part of the standard vocabulary of a language and that are used very informally in speech especially by a particular group of people ▪ American slang ▪ local/military/street slang
– slang adj ▪ a slang word/expression/term ▪ The word "phat" is slang. – slangy /ˈslæŋi/ adj ▪ slangy expressions

slang•ing match /ˈslæŋɪŋ-/ noun, pl ~ matches [count] Brit, informal : an angry argument in which people insult each other : SHOUTING MATCH

[1]slant /ˈslænt/ verb slants; slant•ed; slant•ing
1 : to not be level or straight up and down [no obj] The floor slants [=slopes] down slightly. ▪ a slanting table ▪ His handwriting slants [=leans] to the left. ▪ The sunlight slanted down through the leaves and branches of the trees. [+ obj] She slanted her hat a little to the right.
2 [+ obj] : to present (something, such as a news story) in a way that favors a particular group, opinion, etc. ▪ They deliberately slanted the story to make themselves look good. — often used as (be) slanted ▪ The media coverage of the strike was slanted against the union.
– slanted adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ Her attic bedroom has slanted ceilings. ▪ a slanted roof/floor ▪ The news program claimed to be objective but was very slanted. [=biased]

[2]slant noun, pl slants
1 [singular] : a direction, line, or surface that is not level or straight up and down ▪ The computer keyboard is positioned at a slant so that typing is more comfortable for the wrists. ▪ He sliced the carrots on a/the slant.
2 [count] : a way of thinking about, describing, or discussing something — usually singular ▪ The book offers a new slant on the history of the country. ▪ The latest evidence puts an entirely different slant on the case. ▪ His writings have a liberal/religious slant.

[1]slap /ˈslæp/ verb slaps; slapped; slap•ping
1 a [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) with the front or back of your open hand ▪ She slapped him across/in the face. ▪ She slapped his face. ▪ He slapped me on the back and said "Good job!" ▪ He called the dog by slapping his hand against his thigh. b : to hit something with a sound like the sound made when your hand slaps something [no obj] Waves were slapping against the side of the boat. [+ obj] Gentle waves slapped the side of the raft.
2 [+ obj] : to put (something) on a surface quickly or forcefully — + down or on ▪ He slapped the book down on the desk. ▪ She slapped down her cards and shouted "I win!" ▪ He slapped a fresh coat of paint on (the wall). ▪ I grabbed a slice of bread and slapped on some peanut butter.
3 [+ obj] sports : to hit (something) with a forceful swing of your arms, hands, etc. ▪ (ice hockey) He slapped the puck into the net. ▪ (baseball) She slapped a single to right field.
slap around [phrasal verb] slap (someone) around also slap around (someone) informal : to hit or slap (someone) many times ▪ The children screamed when they saw him slapping her around. [=beating her up] slap on [phrasal verb] slap (something) on or slap on (something) informal : to add (something, such as an extra charge) to an amount ▪ The hotel slapped an extra $100 on his bill to cover the damage. ▪ The judge slapped on an additional fine. — see also [1]SLAP 2 (above) slap together [phrasal verb] slap together (something) or slap (something) together informal : to create (something) by putting parts together in a quick or careless way ▪ I slapped a sandwich together as I was running out the door. ▪ The company slapped together a Web site and then waited for the customers to come pouring in.
slap with [phrasal verb] slap (someone) with (something) US, informal : to punish (someone) with (a fine, lawsuit, etc.) ▪ They were slapped with a lawsuit. ▪ The judge slapped the company with a fine for polluting the river.

[2]slap noun, pl slaps [count]
1 : a hit with the front or back of your open hand ▪ I was so angry that I felt like giving him a slap.
2 : a loud sound made when something hits a flat surface ▪ I could hear the slap of the waves against the side of the boat.
a slap in the face : a surprising act that offends or insults someone ▪ Her decision to leave the company to work for our competitors was a slap in the face.
