that is it or that's it informal 1 — used to say that something is finished or completed ▪ Okay, that's it. You can go now. 2 — used to say that something is all that is needed or wanted ▪ I came here to visit the museum and that's it. [=that is all I wanted to do here] 3 — used to say that something is correct ▪ "I can't remember his name." "I think it was Brian Johnson." "Yes, that's it." 4 — used in an angry or annoyed way to say that you will not accept any more of something ▪ That's it! I'm leaving!
this is it informal — used to say that this is the most important or final point ▪ Well, this is it—the day we've been waiting for.

[2]it /ˈɪt/ noun, pl its [count] : the player in some children's games (such as hide-and-seek and tag) who performs the main action of the game (such as finding or catching other players) ▪ You're it!

ital abbr italic, italicized
Ital abbr Italian
Ital•ian /ɪˈtæljən/ noun, pl -ians
1 [count] a : a person born, raised, or living in Italy b : a person whose family is from Italy
2 [noncount] : the language of the Italians – Italian adj ▪ Italian food/politics

Ital•ian•ate /ɪˈtæljənət/ adj : showing the influence of the art or culture of Italy ▪ Italianate architecture ▪ a beautiful Italianate painting/villa

Italian dressing noun [noncount] US : a salad dressing that is made of oil, vinegar, and herbs

[1]ital•ic /ɪˈtælɪk/ adj
1 : having letters, numbers, etc., that slant upward to the right ▪ These words are italic. ▪ italic type — abbr. ital
2 Italic : of or relating to ancient Italy, the people who lived there, or the languages spoken there ▪ Italic languages/dialects

[2]italic noun, pl -ics : letters, numbers, etc., that slant upward to the right : italic type [noncount] These words are printed in italic. [plural] The type should be set in italics. ▪ These words are printed in italics. — abbr. ital; see picture at FONT

ital•i•cize also Brit ital•i•cise /ɪˈtælə,saɪz/ verb -ciz•es; -cized; -ciz•ing [+ obj] : to put letters, numbers, etc., in italics : to print (text) in italics ▪ italicize a word ▪ italicized text

[1]itch /ˈɪʧ/ verb itch•es; itched; itch•ing [no obj]
1 : to have or produce an unpleasant feeling on your skin or inside your mouth, nose, etc. that makes you want to scratch ▪ My back really itches. ▪ His eyes began to burn and itch because of his allergies. ▪ My nose itches. [=I have an itchy nose] ▪ This sweater makes me itch. ▪ Most rashes itch.
2 informal : to have a strong desire to do something or for something — always used as (be) itching ▪ I'm itching to get started in my garden again. [=I'm very eager to begin working in my garden again] ▪ She was itching for a fight. ▪ He seemed to be itching for an excuse to say something rude.
– itching noun [noncount] ▪ Rashes can cause intense itching. ▪ Symptoms include minor itching and redness. ▪ This lotion should soothe/stop/relieve the itching. [=itchiness]

[2]itch noun, pl itch•es [count]
1 : an uncomfortable or unpleasant feeling on your skin or inside your mouth, nose, etc., that makes you want to scratch ▪ I had a slight itch on my back. ▪ Scratching only makes the itch worse.
2 somewhat informal : a constant and strong desire for something or to do something ▪ She's always had an itch for adventure. ▪ He has an itch to travel.
scratch the/an itch chiefly US, informal : to satisfy a desire or need for something ▪ Sign up for a tour of Asia and scratch the itch to travel.

itchy /ˈɪʧi/ adj itch•i•er; -est
1 a : feeling or having an itch ▪ My eyes are/feel itchy. ▪ itchy skin ▪ an itchy back b : causing an itch ▪ an itchy rash ▪ This sweater is itchy.
2 informal : feeling a strong desire to do something, to change something, etc. ▪ Voters are itchy for change. ▪ He was itchy to get going. ✧ If you have itchy feet, you have a strong desire to leave a place, job, etc., and go somewhere else. ▪ She's had the same job for five years, and she's starting to get itchy feet. ✧ If you have an itchy finger or itchy fingers, you have a strong desire to do or get something, especially something that other people think is wrong or dangerous. ▪ a movie about a gunman who has an itchy (trigger) finger [=a gunman who wants to shoot his gun; a gunman who is eager or likely to shoot someone] – itch•i•ness /ˈɪʧinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ The chemical causes itchiness and inflammation if it gets on your skin.

it'd /ˈɪtəd/ — used as a contraction of it would and it had ▪ We knew it'd [=it would] be dark soon. ▪ It'd [=it had] been like that for a while.

-ite /aɪt/ noun suffix
1 : a person born, raised, or living in a specified area ▪ suburbanite ▪ New Jerseyite
2 : a follower or supporter of a specified person or group ▪ Reaganite

item /ˈaɪtəm/ noun, pl items
1 [count] : an individual thing : a separate part or thing ▪ There are several items for sale. ▪ an item [=article] of clothing ▪ an item [=article, piece] of furniture ▪ I need to buy a few household items like soap. ▪ He always orders the most ex-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:39:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-i pensive item on the menu. ▪ There are a lot of items on our agenda tonight, so let's start the meeting. — see also COLLECTOR'S ITEM, hot item at [1]HOT

2 [count] : a separate piece of news or information ▪ I saw an item in today's paper about the mayor's campaign plans.

3 [singular] informal : two people who are in a romantic or sexual relationship ▪ They were rumored to be an item. [=a couple]

item•ize also Brit item•ise /'aɪtəˌmaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to create a detailed list of (things) ▪ You'll need to itemize [=list] all of your deductions/expenses. ▪ a list of itemized expenses

– item•i•za•tion also Brit item•i•sa•tion /ˌaɪtəmə'zeɪʃən, Brit ˌaɪtəˌmaɪ'zeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the itemization of all your expenses

itin•er•ant /aɪ'tɪnərənt/ adj, always used before a noun : traveling from place to place : staying in a place for only a short amount of time ▪ an itinerant preacher/lecturer/performer

itin•er•ary /aɪ'tɪnəˌreri, Brit aɪ'tɪnərəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : the places you go to or plan to go to on a journey ▪ We planned a detailed itinerary. ▪ Our itinerary included stops at several famous cathedrals.; also : a document in which the places you will be going to are listed ▪ I'll mail you a copy of my itinerary so you'll know where to reach me.

-i•tis /aɪtəs/ noun suffix, medical : inflammation of something specified ▪ tonsill*itis* ▪ bronch*itis* ▪ laryng*itis* — sometimes used humorously to describe having too much of something ▪ Hollywood has a bad case of sequel*itis* this summer. [=too many movies being shown this summer are sequels]

it'll /'ɪtl/ — used as a contraction of it will ▪ It'll be good to see her again. ▪ It'll be dark soon.

its /'ɪts, əts/ adj, always used before a noun, possessive form of IT : relating to or belonging to a certain thing, animal, etc. ▪ the dog in its kennel ▪ The landscape is beautiful in its own unique way. ▪ Each region has its own customs. : made or done by a certain thing, animal, etc. ▪ The company is hoping to increase its sales. — compare IT'S

it's /'ɪts, əts/ — used as a contraction of it is and it has ▪ It's [=it is] going to rain. ▪ It's [=it has] been fun, but I must go now. ▪ It's [=it is] a long way to the bottom. — compare ITS

it•self /ɪt'sɛlf/ pronoun

1 : that same one: a — used as the object of a verb or preposition to refer to something that has already been mentioned ▪ The cat washed itself. ▪ History keeps repeating itself. ▪ The problem should work itself out. ▪ The chain folds back on itself. ▪ The restaurant has built quite a reputation for itself. b — used for emphasis to refer to something that has already been mentioned ▪ I found the envelope, but the letter itself was missing. ▪ That itself was enough of an excuse. ▪ The city itself is fairly small.

2 — used after a noun to say that someone or something has a lot of a particular quality ▪ She was/seemed kindness itself. [=she was extremely kind] ▪ Your cake is perfection itself. [=your cake is perfect]

by itself 1 : on its own : without being directly controlled by a person ▪ The computer shuts off by itself if you don't use it. ▪ The sprinkler will turn on by itself. [=automatically] 2 : with nothing nearby : ALONE ▪ The house stood by itself at the end of the street.

in itself : in its own nature : when considered as something separate from other things ▪ The idea was not in itself bad. ▪ This is not in itself a new idea. : without anything else added ▪ That's a story in itself. — see also an end in itself at [1]END

it•sy–bit•sy /'ɪtsi'bɪtsi/ or it•ty–bit•ty /'ɪti'bɪti/ adj, informal : extremely small : TINY ▪ a baby taking itsy-bitsy steps ▪ an itsy-bitsy piece of cake

-ity /əti/ noun suffix : quality, state, or degree ▪ availabil*ity* ▪ stabil*ity* ▪ absurd*ity* ▪ complex*ity* ▪ salin*ity*

IUD /ˌaɪˌju:'di:/ noun, pl IUDs [count] medical : INTRAUTERINE DEVICE

[1]IV /ˌaɪ'vi:/ noun, pl IVs [count] US, medical : a device that is used to allow a fluid (such as blood or a liquid medication) to flow directly into a patient's veins ▪ The nurse started an IV. ▪ The patient was hooked up to an IV. — see picture at HOSPITAL ✧ IV is an abbreviation of intravenous.

[2]IV adj, always used before a noun, US : INTRAVENOUS ▪ IV drug users [=people who inject themselves with illegal drugs]

-ive /ɪv/ adj suffix : doing or tending to do something specified ▪ exhaust*ive* ▪ explos*ive*

I've /'aɪv, əv/ — used as a contraction of I have ▪ The food was good, but I've had better. ▪ It was the best movie I've ever seen. ▪ I've got lots of work to do today. = (chiefly Brit) I've lots of work to do today.

ivied /'aɪvid/ adj : covered with ivy ▪ the college's ivied walls

ivo•ry /'aɪvəri/ noun, pl -ries

1 [noncount] : a hard white substance that forms the tusks of elephants and other animals ▪ a carved piece of ivory

2 [noncount] : a slightly yellowish white color — see color picture on page C2

3 [count] informal : a piano key — usually plural ✧ To tickle the ivories is to play the piano.

ivory tower noun, pl ~ -ers [count] disapproving : a place or situation in which people make and discuss theories about problems (such as poverty and racism) without having any experience with those problems ▪ The book was written by some college professor who's spent her entire professional life in an ivory tower. — often used before another noun ▪ an ivory-tower intellectual ivy /'aɪvi/ noun, pl ivies [count, noncount] : a plant that has long stems and that often grows on the outsides of buildings ▪ walls covered with ivy = ivy-covered walls — called also English ivy; see color picture on page C6; see also POISON IVY

Ivy League noun [singular] : a group of eight colleges and universities in the eastern U.S. that have been respected for providing an excellent education for a long time — often used before another noun ▪ an Ivy League diploma/degree ▪ an Ivy League university/college ✧ The Ivy League consists of Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Columbia, Brown, and Cornell universities, the University of Pennsylvania, and Dartmouth College.

-ize also Brit -ise /aɪz/ verb suffix

1 a : to cause to become or become like something specified ▪ Americani*ze* : to become or become like (something specified) ▪ crystalli*ze* ▪ unioni*ze* b : to treat like something specified ▪ idoli*ze* ▪ lioni*ze* ▪ commerciali*ze*

2 : to talk or write about someone or something in a specified way ▪ satiri*ze* ▪ romanti*cize*

3 : to make or suggest something specified ▪ hypothe*size* ▪ theori*ze* ▪ philosophi*ze*

4 : to place someone in something specified ▪ hospitali*ze* ▪ institutionali*ze*

J

j or J /'ʤeɪ/ noun, pl j's or js or J's or Js : the 10th letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that begins with a j [noncount] a word that begins with j

[1]jab /'ʤæb/ verb jabs; jabbed; jab•bing

1 : to push something sharp or hard quickly or suddenly into or toward someone or something [+ obj] The nurse jabbed the needle into his arm. = The nurse jabbed his arm with a needle. ▪ She jabbed her elbow into my ribs. = She jabbed me in the ribs with her elbow. [no obj] He jabbed at the other player with his hockey stick.

2 : to be pushed quickly and suddenly into someone or a part of someone's body [+ obj] The needle jabbed his arm. [no obj] The needle jabbed into his arm.

[2]jab noun, pl jabs [count]

1 : a quick or sudden hit with something sharp or hard ▪ She gave him a jab in the ribs. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ In his speech, he took a jab at [=criticized] the senator.

2 boxing : a short, straight punch ▪ He threw a right/left jab to his opponent's body. — compare HOOK, UPPERCUT

3 Brit, informal : an injection of something (such as medicine) into your body with a needle ▪ a flu jab [=(chiefly US) shot] jab•ber /ˈʤæbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing informal : to talk in a fast, unclear, or foolish way [no obj] They jabbered away for hours. [+ obj] She rushed into the room jabbering something about a dog.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:25 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-j

– jabber noun [noncount] ▪ listening to their silly jabber

[1]jack /ˈʤæk/ noun, pl jacks

1 [count] : a device used for lifting something heavy (such as a car)

2 [count] : a playing card that has a picture of a soldier or servant and that is worth more than a ten and less than a queen ▪ the jack of hearts/spades/clubs/diamonds — see picture at PLAYING CARD

3 [count] : a small opening where something connects with a wire to something else ▪ a telephone/stereo jack

4 a [count] : a small usually metal object that has six points and that is used in the game of jacks b jacks [plural] : a child's game in which jacks are thrown and picked up while bouncing and catching a small ball ▪ children playing jacks

5 [noncount] US slang : anything at all — used in negative statements ▪ You don't know jack. = (offensive) You don't know jack shit.

[2]jack verb jacks; jacked; jack•ing

jack in [phrasal verb] jack in (something) or jack (something) in Brit, informal : to stop doing (something) ▪ He was building a new shed but jacked it in. ▪ He jacked in [=quit, gave up] his job and became a hippie.

jack off [phrasal verb] US, informal + impolite, of a man : MASTURBATE jack up [phrasal verb] jack up (something) or jack (something) up 1 : to lift (something, such as a car) with a jack ▪ He jacked up the car and changed the tire. 2 informal : to increase (something, such as a price) by a large amount ▪ The restaurant has jacked up its prices in recent months.

jack•al /ˈʤækəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : a wild dog found in Africa and Asia

jackal

jack•ass /ˈʤækˌæs/ noun, pl -ass•es [count]

1 : a male donkey

2 chiefly US, informal + impolite : a stupid person : ASS ▪ Some jackass spilled his drink on my shoes.

jack•boot /ˈʤækˌbu:t/ noun, pl -boots [count] : a heavy military boot that reaches above the knee — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They suffered under the fascist jackboot. [=they suffered under fascist rule]

– jack•boot•ed /ˈʤækˌbu:təd/ adj ▪ jackbooted thugs

jack•et /ˈʤækət/ noun, pl -ets [count]

1 : a piece of clothing that is worn on your upper body over another piece of clothing (such as a shirt) : a usually short and light coat ▪ a suit with a double-breasted jacket ▪ a warm jacket — see color picture on page C15; see also DINNER JACKET, FLAK JACKET, LIFE JACKET, SPORTS JACKET, STRAITJACKET

2 : an outer covering: such as a : a paper cover that protects a book and that can be removed : DUST JACKET b chiefly US : a paper, cardboard, or plastic envelope for holding a record, CD, or DVD — called also sleeve

– see also YELLOW JACKET

jacket potato noun, pl ~ -toes [count] Brit : a potato baked with its skin left on Jack Frost noun — used as a way to refer to frost or cold weather ▪ Jack Frost may arrive early this year.

jack•ham•mer /ˈʤækˌhæmə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a heavy tool used to break hard substances (such as concrete) into pieces by a repeated pounding action — called also pneumatic drill

jack–in–the–box /ˈʤækənðəˌbɑ:ks/ noun, pl jack–in–the–box•es or jacks–in–the–box [count] : a toy that is a small box containing a clown or other figure which jumps up when the box is opened

[1]jack•knife /ˈʤækˌnaɪf/ noun, pl -knives [count]

1 : a small knife that has a folding blade : POCKETKNIFE

2 : a dive in which you bend from the waist and touch your ankles and then straighten out

[2]jackknife verb -knifes; -knifed; -knif•ing [no obj] : to bend in the middle like a folding jackknife; especially, of a large truck : to have the back part slide out of control toward the front part ▪ The truck jackknifed on the icy road.

jack–of–all–trades /ˌʤækəvˌɑ:lˈtreɪdz/ noun, pl jacks–of–all–trades [count] : a person who has many skills : a person who can do many different jobs ✧ If you are a jack-of-all-trades, master of none, you can do many things but are not an expert in any of them.

jack–o'–lan•tern /ˈʤækəˌlæntən/ noun, pl -terns [count] : a pumpkin that has had its insides removed and a face cut into it for Halloween ✧ You put a candle in a jack-o'-lantern so that light shines out through its eyes, nose, and mouth.

jack•pot /ˈʤækˌpɑ:t/ noun, pl -pots [count] : a usually large amount of money won in a game of chance ▪ The lottery jackpot is up to one million dollars.

hit the jackpot 1 : to win all the money that can be won in a game of chance ▪ He hit the jackpot on the slot machine. 2 : to have unexpected success or good luck ▪ He really hit the jackpot with his new restaurant. [=he became very successful with his new restaurant] ▪ They hit the jackpot when they hired her. [=she is a very valuable employee]

jack•rab•bit /ˈʤækˌræbət/ noun, pl -bits [count] : a North American animal that resembles a large rabbit and that is very fast

Jac•o•be•an /ˌʤækəˈbi:jən/ adj : of or relating to James I of England or the time (1603–25) when he was king ▪ Jacobean drama ▪ a Jacobean mansion

Ja•cuz•zi /ʤəˈku:zi/ trademark — used for a bathtub in which a pump causes water and air bubbles to move around your body

jade /ˈʤeɪd/ noun [noncount]

1 : a usually green stone that is used for jewelry — see color picture on page C11

2 : a light bluish-green color — called also jade green; see color picture on page C2

jad•ed /ˈʤeɪdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a lack of interest and excitement caused by having done or experienced too much of something ▪ He became jaded from years of work as a police officer. ▪ a public jaded by political scandals ▪ a jaded attitude jag /ˈʤæg/ noun, pl jags [count] chiefly US, informal : a short period of time when you do something in an uncontrolled way ▪ a crying jag

jag•ged /ˈʤægəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a sharp, uneven edge or surface ▪ a jagged mountain peak ▪ jagged pieces of broken glass

jag•uar /ˈʤæˌgwɑɚ, Brit ˈʤægjəwə/ noun, pl -uars [count] : a large, brown, wild cat with black spots that lives in Central and South America — see picture at CAT

[1]jail also Brit gaol /ʤeɪl/ noun, pl jails : a place where people are kept when they have been arrested and are being punished for a crime [count] He was locked up in the county jail. [noncount] He was arrested and sent/sentenced to jail. ▪ He went to jail for his crimes. ▪ He just got out of jail a few weeks ago. ▪ He was kept in jail overnight.

> synonyms JAIL, PRISON, and PENITENTIARY all refer to places where criminals are kept. In U.S. English, jail usually refers to a small local place for holding criminals. ▪ He was arrested for drunkenness and spent a night in the city jail. Prison refers to a much larger building for more serious criminals, such as murderers. ▪ He was sentenced to 40 years in a state/federal prison. Penitentiary always refers to a large state or federal prison. ▪ He is serving a life sentence at a federal penitentiary. In British English, there is no clear difference between jail and prison, and the word penitentiary is not now used.

[2]jail also Brit gaol verb jails; jailed; jail•ing [+ obj] : to put (a person) in jail — usually used as (be) jailed ▪ He was jailed for assaulting a police officer.

jail•bird also Brit gaol•bird /ˈʤeɪlˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count] informal + old-fashioned : a person who has often been in jail or prison jail•break also Brit gaol•break /ˈʤeɪlˌbreɪk/ noun, pl -breaks [count] : an escape from jail or prison jail•er also jail•or or Brit gaol•er /ˈʤeɪlə/ noun, pl -ers also -ors [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a person who is in charge of a jail or who guards the prisoners in a jail jail•house /ˈʤeɪlˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] US : [1]JAIL — usually used before another noun ▪ a jailhouse informant [=an informant who is in jail]

ja•la•pe•ño also ja•la•pe•no /ˌhɑ:ləˈpeɪnjoʊ/ noun, pl -ños also -nos [count] : a small green pepper that is very hot and

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:26 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

is used especially in Mexican cooking — called also jalapeño pepper, jalapeno pepper

ja•lopy /ʤəˈlɑːpi/ noun, pl -lop•ies [count] informal : an old car that is in poor condition ▪ He fixed up an old jalopy.

[1]jam /ˈʤæm/ verb jams; jammed; jam•ming

1 a : to fill (a place) completely [+ obj] Thousands of people jammed the hall. = The hall was jammed [=jam-packed, packed] with thousands of people. [no obj] Thousands of people jammed into the hall. b [+ obj] : to fill (something, such as a door or a road) so that movement is slow or stopped ▪ People were jamming the exits after the concert. ▪ All the roads and bridges were jammed (with traffic). — sometimes used figuratively ▪ All the telephone lines were jammed with calls from angry customers.

2 a [+ obj] : to press or push (an object) into a tight place ▪ He jammed the book back into the bookcase. ▪ A piece of paper got/was jammed [=stuck] in the copy machine. b : to push (a part of your body, a lever, etc.) suddenly and forcefully [+ obj] She jammed her foot down hard on the brakes. [no obj] She jammed on the brakes. c [+ obj] : to cause (a part of your body) to be painfully crushed, squeezed, etc. ▪ I jammed my finger in the car door. = My finger got jammed in the car door. = I got my finger jammed in the car door. ▪ I jammed [=stubbed] my toe on the chair's leg.

3 a [no obj] : to stop working properly because something inside prevents movement ▪ The copy machine jammed (up) again. ▪ The lock/gun jammed. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to stop working properly by preventing its parts from moving ▪ A piece of paper jammed the copy machine.

4 [+ obj] : to make (a radio signal or broadcast) impossible to understand by sending out signals or messages that weaken or block it ▪ jam a radio broadcast

5 [no obj] : to play music informally together without preparation ▪ We like to get together and jam (with each other).

6 [+ obj] baseball : to throw a pitch that is close to a batter and that the batter is unable to hit well ▪ The pitcher jammed him with an inside fastball.

[2]jam noun, pl jams [count]

1 : a situation in which a machine does not work properly because something inside prevents its parts from moving ▪ There's a paper jam in the printer.

2 : a situation in which something (such as a road) is so filled that movement is stopped or slowed ▪ I got stuck in a traffic jam on the way home from work. — see also LOGJAM

3 informal : a difficult situation ▪ He got in/into a real jam with his girlfriend. ▪ She asked her parents for money to help her get out of a jam.

– compare [3]JAM

[3]jam noun, pl jams [count, noncount] : a sweet food made of fruit and sugar thickened by boiling ▪ a jar of raspberry jam

money for jam see MONEY

– compare [2]JAM

jamb /ˈʤæm/ noun, pl jambs [count] : a board that forms the side of a door or window — see also DOORJAMB jam•ba•laya /ˌʤʌmbəˈlajə, Brit ˌʤæmbəˈlajə/ noun [noncount] : a spicy dish of rice cooked usually with ham, sausage, chicken, shrimp, or oysters

jam•bo•ree /ˌʤæmbəˈriː/ noun, pl -rees [count]

1 : a large party or celebration with music and entertainment ▪ a country music jamboree

2 : a large gathering of Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts

jam•mies /ˈʤæmiz/ noun [plural] US, informal : PAJAMAS ✧ Jammies is a word used mainly by children and when speaking to children.

jam•my /ˈʤæmi/ adj jam•mi•er; -est

1 : resembling or suggesting jam ▪ jammy flavors

2 Brit, informal : having good luck : LUCKY ▪ He's a jammy bastard. [=lucky guy]

jam–packed /ˈʤæmˈpækt/ adj : filled completely ▪ The theater was jam-packed (with people) for the performance.

jam session noun, pl ~ -sions [count] : a gathering or performance in which musicians play together informally without any preparation : a session in which musicians jam with each other

Jan. abbr January

Jane Doe /ˈʤeɪnˈdoʊ/ noun, pl ~ Does [count] US, law — used as a name for a woman whose true name is not known or is being kept secret; compare JOHN DOE

jan•gle /ˈʤæŋgəl/ verb jan•gles; jan•gled; jan•gling

1 [no obj] : to make a harsh ringing sound ▪ Coins jangled out of the machine.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to make a harsh ringing sound ▪ He jangled his keys loudly outside the door.

jangle nerves ✧ If something jangles your nerves, it makes you feel very nervous and tense. ▪ The pressure of performing jangled her nerves. ▪ He took a deep breath to try to calm his jangled nerves.

– jangle noun, pl jangles [count] — usually singular ▪ the jangle of loose coins

jan•i•tor /ˈʤænətə/ noun, pl -tors [count] chiefly US : a person who cleans a building and makes minor repairs — called also (Brit) caretaker

– jan•i•to•ri•al /ˌʤænəˈtoriəl/ adj

Jan•u•ary /ˈʤænjəˌweri/ noun, pl -ar•ies : the first month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) January ▪ early/late in January ▪ They arrived on January the fourth. = (US) They arrived on January fourth. = They arrived on the fourth of January. [count] Sales are up (for) this January in comparison with the previous two Januaries. — abbr. Jan.

Jap /ˈʤæp/ noun, pl Japs [count] informal + offensive : a Japanese person ✧ The word Jap is very offensive and should be avoided.

[1]Jap•a•nese /ˌʤæpəˈniːz/ noun

1 the Japanese : the people of Japan : Japanese people ▪ the customs of the Japanese

2 [noncount] : the language of the Japanese ▪ He is learning to speak Japanese.

[2]Japanese adj : of or relating to Japan, its people, or their language ▪ Japanese history/food ▪ She is Japanese. ▪ The custom is Japanese.

Japanese beetle noun, pl ~ beetles [count] : a small green and brown beetle that is originally from Asia and that causes damage to plants in the U.S. — see color picture on page C10

[1]jar /ˈʤɑə/ noun, pl jars [count]

1 a : a glass container that has a wide opening and usually a lid ▪ a pickle jar b : a clay container that has a wide opening ▪ a pottery jar

2 : the amount of something inside a jar ▪ We ate an entire jar of pickles.

jar

[2]jar verb jars; jarred; jar•ring

1 : to have a harsh or unpleasant effect on someone or something [no obj] — usually + on ▪ The loud music jarred on my ears. [+ obj] The attack jarred [=shook, rattled] her sense of security. ▪ The loss jarred his confidence in the team.

2 : to hit or shake (something) forcefully [+ obj] The earthquake jarred the tiles loose. ▪ He jarred [=knocked] the ball from his opponent's hands. [no obj] The tiles jarred loose in the earthquake.

3 [+ obj] : to make (someone) feel uneasy ▪ Visitors are often jarred [=unsettled] by the conditions at the hospital.

4 [no obj] chiefly Brit : to look bad or ugly together ▪ The two colors of the wallpaper jar [=clash] (with each other).

– jarring adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ It was jarring to see how frail she was. ▪ a jarring contrast jar•gon /ˈʤɑəgən/ noun [noncount] usually disapproving : the language used for a particular activity or by a particular group of people ▪ legal/sports jargon ▪ medical jargon that the layman cannot understand ▪ an academic essay filled with jargon

jar•head /ˈʤɑəˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] US slang : a member of the United States Marine Corps

jas•mine /ˈʤæzmən/ noun [noncount] : a plant that has flowers with a very pleasant and sweet smell jaun•dice /ˈʤɑːndəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that causes a person's skin to turn yellow jaun•diced /ˈʤɑːndəst/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 medical : having a disease that causes your skin to turn yellow : affected with jaundice ▪ a severely jaundiced patient

2 : feeling or showing dislike, distrust, or anger because of past experiences : likely to think that people, organizations, etc., are bad ▪ a jaundiced critic ▪ She has a very jaundiced view of politics and politicians.

jaunt /ˈʤɑːnt/ noun, pl jaunts [count] : a brief trip taken for pleasure ▪ a four-day jaunt to the mountains

jaun•ty /ˈʤɑːnti/ adj jaun•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : lively in manner or appearance ▪ jaunty tunes ▪ a jaunty greeting : having or suggesting a lively and confident quality ▪ He struck a jaunty pose for the camera. ▪ She was wearing a jaunty white cap.

– jaunt•i•ly /ˈʤɑːntəli/ adv ▪ She posed jauntily for the camera. – jaunt•i•ness /ˈʤɑːntinəs/ noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

ja•va /ˈʤɑvə, ˈʤɑːvə/ noun [noncount] US, informal : COFFEE ▪ a hot cup of java

jav•e•lin /ˈʤævələn/ noun, pl -lins
1 [count] : a long spear that people throw as far as they can as a sport
2 the javelin : an event in which people compete by trying to throw a javelin farther than everyone else ▪ winner of the javelin

[1]jaw /ˈʤɑː/ noun, pl jaws
1 [count] a : either one of the two bones of the face where teeth grow ▪ He broke his upper/lower jaw. ▪ The crocodile tried to grab him in its jaws. [=mouth] ▪ the jaws of a tiger/shark — often used figuratively ▪ He barely escaped from the jaws of death. [=he barely escaped death] ▪ The team was able to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat [=the team won] by scoring in the final seconds of the game. — see picture at FACE b : the lower part of a person's face — usually singular ▪ I'd like to give that guy a punch in the jaw.
2 jaws [plural] : two parts of a machine or tool that open and close to hold or crush something ▪ the jaws of a vise jaw drops ✧ If your jaw drops, you open your mouth in a way that shows you are very surprised or shocked. ▪ His jaw dropped when he heard who had won.

[2]jaw verb jaws; jawed; jaw•ing [no obj] informal : to talk in an angry way or for a very long time ▪ The coach was jawing with/at the referee. ▪ She was on the phone jawing with her sister all night.

jaw•bone /ˈʤɑːˌboʊn/ noun, pl -bones [count] : the bone that forms the lower jaw : MANDIBLE — see picture at HUMAN jaw•break•er /ˈʤɑːˌbreɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a round, hard candy jaw•line /ˈʤɑːˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the line of the face formed by the lower jaw : the bottom edge of a person's face ▪ He has a strong jawline.

jay /ʤeɪ/ noun, pl jays [count] : a noisy bird that is often brightly colored — see also BLUE JAY

jay•bird /ˈʤeɪˌbəd/ noun, pl -birds [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : JAY naked as a jaybird : completely naked ▪ He was standing at the window, naked as a jaybird.

jay•walk /ˈʤeɪˌwɑːk/ verb -walks; -walked; -walk•ing [no obj] : to cross a street carelessly or at an illegal or dangerous place ▪ The police officer warned us not to jaywalk.
– jay•walk•er noun, pl -ers [count] – jaywalking noun [noncount] ▪ She was arrested for jaywalking.

[1]jazz /ʤæz/ noun [noncount]
1 : a type of American music with lively rhythms and melodies that are often made up by musicians as they play ▪ He likes/plays jazz. ▪ She was listening to (some) jazz. — often used before another noun ▪ a jazz band/festival/musician
2 informal a : meaningless or foolish talk ▪ What's all this jazz about you leaving? b : similar things : STUFF ▪ She loves hiking, biking, and all that jazz.

[2]jazz verb jazz•es; jazzed; jazz•ing
jazz up [phrasal verb] jazz up (something) or jazz (something) up informal : to make (something) more interesting, exciting, or attractive ▪ The company wants to jazz up its image. ▪ She tried to jazz the room up with a new rug.

jazzed adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] US, informal : very excited ▪ He was really jazzed for the game. ▪ She was jazzed (up) to be playing in the band.

jazzy /ˈʤæzi/ adj jazz•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having the qualities of jazz music ▪ jazzy tunes ▪ a jazzy piano solo
2 informal : bright, lively, or fancy in a way that is meant to attract attention ▪ jazzy decorations ▪ He wore a jazzy suit to the party. ▪ You're looking pretty jazzy [=snazzy] today.

J.D. abbr doctor of jurisprudence; doctor of law

jeal•ous /ˈʤɛləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling or showing jealousy: such as a : feeling or showing an unhappy or angry desire to have what someone else has ▪ His success has made some of his old friends jealous. — often + of ▪ Some of his old friends are jealous [=envious] of his success. = Some of his old friends are jealous of him because of his success. ▪ He feels jealous of his rich friends. b : feeling or showing unhappiness or anger because you think that someone you love (such as your husband or wife) likes or is liked by someone else ▪ a jealous husband ▪ She became very jealous whenever he talked to other women. ▪ He was in a jealous rage.
2 somewhat formal : very concerned about protecting or keeping something — + of ▪ She was jealous of her good reputation. ▪ He has always been very jealous of his privacy.
– jeal•ous•ly adv ▪ He spoke jealously of his friend's success. ▪ He jealously accused his wife of flirting with other men. ▪ a jealously [=closely] guarded secret

jeal•ou•sy /ˈʤɛləsi/ noun, pl -sies
1 : an unhappy or angry feeling of wanting to have what someone else has [noncount] professional jealousy [=resentment of the success of someone who is in the same profession as you] [count] petty jealousies among political rivals
2 : an unhappy or angry feeling caused by the belief that someone you love (such as your husband or wife) likes or is liked by someone else [noncount] a marriage ruined by infidelity and jealousy ▪ He was driven crazy with jealousy. [count] He was unable to control his jealousies.

jeans /ʤiːnz/ noun [plural] : pants made of a strong cloth (called denim) ▪ He was wearing (a pair of) jeans. — see color picture on page C14

Jeep /ʤiːp/ trademark — used for a small truck that can be driven over very rough surfaces

jee•pers /ˈʤiːpəz/ interj, informal + old-fashioned — used to express surprise ▪ Jeepers, it's cold out here!

jeer /ʤɪə/ verb jeers; jeered; jeer•ing : to shout insulting words at someone : to laugh at or criticize someone in a loud and angry way [no obj] The crowd jeered (at him) when he struck out. ▪ He tried to ignore the jeering crowd. [+ obj] The crowd jeered him when he struck out. ▪ The prisoner was jeered by an angry mob.
– jeer noun, pl jeers [count] ▪ His appearance drew jeers from the crowd.

jeez variant spelling of GEEZ

Je•ho•vah /ʤɪˈhoʊvə/ noun [singular] — used as the name of God in the Old Testament of the Bible

Jehovah's Witness noun, pl ~ -nesses [count] : a member of a religious group that believes that the world will end soon and that tries to get people to become members so they will be saved

je•june /ʤɪˈʤuːn/ adj, formal
1 : not interesting : BORING ▪ the novel's jejune plot
2 : too simple ▪ She made jejune remarks about life and art.

Je•kyll and Hyde /ˈʤɛkələnˈhaɪd/ noun [singular] : someone who is sometimes good and pleasant and sometimes very rude or bad ▪ He's a real Jekyll and Hyde who can become violent without warning. ▪ his Jekyll and Hyde tendencies ✧ This term comes from "The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," a story by Robert Louis Stevenson. In the story, Dr. Jekyll is a scientist who creates a liquid that changes him from a good man to the evil Mr. Hyde when he drinks it.

jell /ʤɛl/ verb jells; jelled; jell•ing [no obj]
1 : to become clear and definite : GEL ▪ The idea jelled. ▪ Our plans are finally starting to jell. ▪ A few scenes in the movie don't jell. [=work]
2 : to change into a thick substance that is like jelly ▪ Boil the jam until it begins to jell.

Jell–O /ˈʤɛloʊ/ trademark — used for a fruit-flavored dessert made with gelatin

jel•ly /ˈʤɛli/ noun, pl -lies
1 : a sweet and soft food made by boiling sugar and fruit juice until it is thick [count] a selection of different jellies and jams [noncount] He spread some jelly on his toast. ▪ a jar of grape jelly ▪ a peanut butter and jelly sandwich ▪ a jelly doughnut [=a doughnut with jelly inside of it] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ One look from her reduces me to jelly. [=makes me feel very weak and nervous] ▪ Shock and fear turned my legs to jelly. [=made my legs feel very weak]
2 [noncount] Brit : a fruit-flavored dessert made with gelatin ✧ In the U.S., this kind of dessert is known by the trademark Jell-O.
3 [noncount] old-fashioned : a food made from meat juices and gelatin ▪ a meat glaze made with stock and jelly
4 : a substance that is soft and thick like jelly [count] liquid ointments and jellies [noncount] lubricating jelly — see also PETROLEUM JELLY
– jel•lied /ˈʤɛlid/ adj ▪ jellied candies – jel•ly•like /ˈʤɛliˌlaɪk/ adj ▪ a thick jellylike substance jelly baby noun, pl ~ -bies [count] Brit : a soft candy shaped like a baby and made with gelatin jelly bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a candy that is shaped like a bean and has a hard sugar shell with a soft center

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:27 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

jel•ly•fish /ˈʤɛliˌfɪʃ/ noun, pl jellyfish [count] : a sea animal that has a very soft body and that can sting

jellyfish

jelly roll noun, pl ~ rolls [count] US : a thin sheet of cake that is spread with jelly and rolled up — called also (Brit) Swiss roll

[1]jem•my /ˈʤɛmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] Brit : [1]JIMMY

[2]jemmy verb -mies; -mied; -my•ing [+ obj] Brit : [2]JIMMY

je ne sais quoi /ʒənəˌseɪˈkwɑ:/ noun [singular] sometimes humorous : a pleasant quality that is hard to describe ▪ Although the sculpture had flaws, it also had a certain je ne sais quoi that made it very appealing. ✧ In French the phrase je ne sais quoi means literally "I know not what."

jeop•ar•dize also Brit jeop•ar•dise /ˈʤɛpəˌdaɪz/ verb -diz•es; -dized; -diz•ing [+ obj] : to put (something or someone) in danger ▪ The wrong decision could (seriously) jeopardize your career. ▪ His health has been jeopardized by poor nutrition.

jeop•ar•dy /ˈʤɛpəɹdi/ noun

in jeopardy : in a situation in which someone or something is exposed to possible injury, loss, or evil : in danger ▪ He is responsible for placing innocent lives in jeopardy. ▪ The wrong decision could place your career in (serious) jeopardy. ▪ Public opinion puts this proposal in serious jeopardy.

– see also DOUBLE JEOPARDY

[1]jerk /ˈʤɚk/ noun, pl jerks [count]

1 informal : a stupid person or a person who is not well-liked or who treats other people badly ▪ That jerk can't do anything right. ▪ Most of the kids are nice, but some are jerks.

2 a : a quick pull or twist ▪ The dead branch came loose after a few jerks. ▪ He felt the jerk of the line as a fish took the bait. ▪ The door was stuck, but I gave it a jerk [=pulled on it very hard and very quickly] and it opened. b : a sudden sharp movement ▪ The car started with a jerk.

[2]jerk verb jerks; jerked; jerk•ing

1 [+ obj] : to push, pull, or twist (something) with a quick movement ▪ I jerked the door open. ▪ She jerked the phone out of my hand.

2 a : to move (something) with a sharp, quick motion [+ obj] He jerked his head in the direction of the door and said, "Let's go." [no obj] The car jerked into motion. b always followed by an adverb, adjective, or preposition : to cause (someone) to move suddenly [+ obj] He was jerked awake by the sound of a baby crying. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was jerked back to reality by the baby's crying. [no obj] He jerked awake when the baby started to cry.

jerk around [phrasal verb] jerk (someone) around chiefly US, informal : to be unfair or dishonest with (someone) : to lie to or cheat (someone) ▪ I felt like that salesman was trying to jerk me around. — often used as (be/get) jerked around ▪ I felt like I was getting jerked around by that salesman.

jerk off [phrasal verb] informal + impolite, of a man : MASTURBATE

jer•kin /ˈʤɚkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] : a type of short jacket that has no sleeves and that was worn in the past jerk•wa•ter /ˈʤɚkˌwɑ:tɚ/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal + disapproving — used to describe a small town, village, etc., that is out in the country far from cities ▪ He lives in some jerkwater town in the middle of nowhere.

[1]jer•ky /ˈʤɚki/ noun [noncount] US : meat that has been cut into long strips and dried ▪ beef jerky

[2]jerky /ˈʤɚki/ adj jerk•i•er; -est

1 : marked by quick rough motions or sudden starts and stops ▪ He made jerky movements. ▪ The movie was jerky and hard to watch.

2 informal : foolish, stupid, or rude ▪ jerky behavior

– jerk•i•ly /ˈʤɚkəli/ adv ▪ The train moved jerkily into the station. – jerk•i•ness /ˈʤɚkinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the jerkiness of her movements ▪ I can't believe his jerkiness!

jer•ry–built /ˈʤeriˌbɪlt/ adj, informal + disapproving : built cheaply and quickly : not well-built ▪ jerry-built houses

jer•ry–rigged /ˈʤeriˌrɪgd/ adj, chiefly US : made in a quick or careless way : not built or designed well ▪ We'll have to replace the building's jerry-rigged heating system.

jer•sey /ˈʤɚzi/ noun, pl -seys

1 [count] a : a loose shirt worn by a member of a sports team as part of a uniform ▪ a football jersey b : a shirt made of knitted cloth

2 [count] Brit : SWEATER a

3 [noncount] : a soft knitted cloth ▪ The dress is made of cotton/wool jersey.

4 Jersey [count] : a type of small and light brown cow that produces rich milk ▪ We keep a herd of Jerseys. ▪ Jersey cows

Je•ru•sa•lem artichoke /ʤəˌru:sələm-/ noun, pl ~ -chokes [count] : the root of a plant that looks like a potato and is eaten as a vegetable

[1]jest /ˈʤɛst/ noun, pl jests formal + old-fashioned : something said or done to cause laughter : JOKE [count] It was a harmless jest. [noncount] I didn't mean to upset you; I only said it in jest. [=I was only joking]

[2]jest verb jests; jest•ed; jest•ing [no obj] formal + old-fashioned : to say things that are meant to cause laughter : JOKE ▪ You voted for him? Surely you jest. [=you must be joking]

jest•er /ˈʤɛstɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a man who in the past was kept by a ruler to amuse people by acting silly and telling jokes ▪ the court jester

Je•su•it /ˈʤɛzuwət, Brit ˈʤɛzjuət/ noun, pl -its [count] : a man who is a member of a religious group called the Roman Catholic Society of Jesus

Je•sus Christ /ˈʤi:zəsˈkraɪst/ noun [singular] : the man who Christians believe is the son of God and whose life, death, and resurrection as reported in the New Testament of the Bible are the basis of the Christian religion — called also Christ, Jesus ✧ Jesus Christ, Christ, and Jesus are commonly used as interjections to express surprise and anger. These uses are avoided in polite speech.

[1]jet /ˈʤɛt/ noun, pl jets [count]

1 : a fast airplane that has one or more jet engines ▪ a private/commercial/corporate jet — often used before another noun ▪ a jet airplane/plane ▪ a jet pilot — see also JUMBO JET

2 a : a very strong stream of liquid or gas that comes out through a narrow opening ▪ The telescope has photographed jets of gas shooting out from the distant star. b : a tube that contains and directs a very strong stream of liquid or gas ▪ One of the fountain's jets was blocked.

– compare [3]JET

[2]jet verb jets; jet•ted; jet•ting

1 : to travel by jet airplane [no obj] She jetted (off) from London to New York for a meeting. [+ obj] We jetted our representative from London to New York for the meeting.

2 : to come through a narrow opening with great force [no obj] Steam jetted from the kettle's spout. [+ obj] The geyser jets a tower of water into the air.

[3]jet noun [noncount] : a hard black stone that is often used for jewelry — compare [1]JET

jet black noun [noncount] : a very dark black color

– jet–black /ˈʤɛtˈblæk/ adj ▪ He had jet-black hair.

jet engine noun, pl ~ -gines [count] : an engine in which a very strong stream of heated air and gases shoots out from the rear of the engine and pushes the engine forward — see picture at AIRPLANE jet lag noun [noncount] : a tired and unpleasant feeling that you sometimes get when you travel by airplane to a place that is far away ▪ I had bad jet lag after that last trip overseas.

– jet–lagged /ˈʤɛtˌlægd/ adj ▪ jet-lagged tourists

jet•lin•er /ˈʤɛtˌlaɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a large jet airplane used for carrying passengers jet–pro•pelled /ˈʤɛtprəˈpɛld/ adj : moved forward by a jet engine ▪ a jet-propelled missile jet propulsion noun [noncount] : the use of a jet engine to create forward movement of an airplane, missile, etc.

jet•sam /ˈʤɛtsəm/ noun [noncount] : floating objects that are thrown into the water from a ship — usually used in the phrase flotsam and jetsam ▪ We walked along the flotsam and jetsam that had washed up onto the beach. — often used figuratively ▪ She was sorting through the flotsam and jetsam that had accumulated on her desk. — compare FLOTSAM

jet set noun

the jet set somewhat old-fashioned : wealthy people who often travel to different parts of the world ▪ It was a trend started by the jet set.

– jet–set•ter /ˈʤɛtˌsɛtɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ a luxurious hotel that is popular among jet-setters – jet–set•ting /ˈʤɛtˌsɛtɪŋ/ adj ▪ jet-setting film stars

Jet Ski trademark — used for a small and fast vehicle that is used on water and carries one or two people jet stream noun, pl ~ streams [count] technical : a strong current of fast winds high above the Earth's surface — usually singular ▪ unusual weather patterns caused by changes in the jet stream

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-j

jet•ti•son /ˈʤɛtəsən/ verb -sons; -soned; -son•ing [+ obj] 1 : to drop (something) from a moving ship, airplane, etc. ▪ The captain gave orders to jettison the cargo. ▪ They jettisoned the fuel and made an emergency landing. 2 : to get rid of (something) ▪ We should jettison these old computers and get new ones. : to reject (something, such as a plan or idea) ▪ They jettisoned plans for a vacation.

jet•ty /ˈʤɛti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a long structure that is built out into water and used as a place to get on, get off, or tie up a boat

Jew /ˈʤu:/ noun, pl Jews [count] : someone whose religion is Judaism, who is descended from Jewish people, or who participates in the culture surrounding Judaism – Jew•ish /ˈʤu:wɪʃ/ adj ▪ a Jewish temple ▪ Are you Jewish?
– Jew•ish•ness noun [noncount]

jew•el /ˈʤu:l/ noun, pl -els [count]
1 : a valuable stone (such as a ruby or diamond) that has been cut and polished ▪ That diamond is one of world's largest jewels.
2 : a piece of jewelry (such as a necklace or a bracelet) that is made of valuable metal and precious stones — usually plural ▪ She was dressed in an evening gown and jewels.
3 : someone or something that is highly valued or admired ▪ This painting is the jewel in our gallery. ▪ She's a jewel. ▪ The building is regarded as one of the jewels of modern architecture. ▪ He owns several successful businesses but this company is the jewel in the crown. [=this company is the most valuable/important/admired] — see also CROWN JEWEL
4 : the part of a watch that is made of a crystal or a precious stone the family jewels 1 : jewelry that has been passed from one generation to another ▪ She inherited the family jewels after the death of her grandmother. 2 informal + humorous : a man's sexual organs

– jew•eled (US) or Brit jew•elled /ˈʤu:ld/ adj ▪ a jeweled sword [=a sword decorated with jewels] ▪ The guests were heavily jeweled. [=the guests were wearing a lot of jewelry]

jewel case noun, pl ~ cases [count] : a clear plastic case in which a CD or DVD is stored — called also jewel box

jew•el•er (US) or Brit jew•el•ler /ˈʤu:lə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who makes, repairs, or sells jewelry and watches jew•el•ry (US) or Brit jew•el•lery /ˈʤu:lri/ noun [noncount] : decorative objects (such as rings, necklaces, and earrings) that people wear on their body ▪ silver and turquoise jewelry ▪ a store that sells jewelry ▪ jewelry stores — see color picture on page C11; see also COSTUME JEWELRY

Jew•ry /ˈʤu:ri/ noun [noncount] formal : Jewish people as a group ▪ American Jewry

[1]jib /ˈʤɪb/ noun, pl jibs [count]
1 : a small triangular sail near the front of a sailboat
2 technical : the long part of a crane that carries the weight of the object that the crane is lifting

[2]jib verb jibs; jibbed; jib•bing [no obj] Brit, old-fashioned : to hesitate or refuse to do or accept something : BALK — usually + at ▪ Investors jibbed at putting more money into the company.

[1]jibe /ʤaɪb/ verb jibes; jibed; jib•ing [no obj] US, informal : to agree with someone or something ▪ His story didn't jibe with the testimony of other witnesses. ▪ What he told me doesn't jibe with my experience. — compare [2]JIBE

[2]jibe verb jibes; jibed; jibing [no obj] : to cause a sailboat to change direction by swinging the sail to the opposite side of the boat — compare [1]JIBE

[3]jibe variant spelling of GIBE

jif•fy /ˈʤɪfi/ noun [singular] informal : a very brief time : MOMENT — usually used in the phrase in a jiffy ▪ I'll be there in a jiffy.

Jiffy bag trademark, Brit — used for a thick, padded mailing envelope

[1]jig /ˈʤɪg/ noun, pl jigs [count] : a type of lively dance ▪ She did/danced a little jig.; also : the music played for such a dance ▪ Hey, play us a jig!
the jig is up US, informal + old-fashioned — used to say that a dishonest plan or activity has been discovered and will not be allowed to continue ▪ The jig is up: where did you hide the stolen goods?

[2]jig verb jigs; jigged; jig•ging
1 : to move with quick sudden movements [+ obj] He jigged [=jiggled] his fishing line. [no obj] (chiefly Brit) The horses jigged around nervously.
2 [no obj] : to dance a jig ▪ We jigged to the fiddle music.

jig•ger /ˈʤɪgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a small cup or glass that is used to measure alcohol; also : the amount held in a jigger ▪ He poured a jigger of whiskey into the glass.

jig•gery–pok•ery /ˈʤɪgərɪˈpoʊkərɪ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : dishonest or suspicious activity ▪ There's some jiggery-pokery [=hanky-panky] going on behind the scenes.

jig•gle /ˈʤɪgəl/ verb jig•gles; jig•gled; jig•gling : to move or cause (something) to move with quick, short movements up and down or side to side [+ obj] He jiggled the doorknob. ▪ Try to avoid jiggling the camera. [no obj] His belly jiggled like a bowlful of jelly.
– jiggle noun, pl jiggles [count] ▪ You have to give the doorknob a jiggle to open the door. ▪ It's hard to avoid a few jiggles when you're using a video camera.

jig•saw /ˈʤɪgˌsɑ:/ noun, pl -saws [count]
1 : a machine that has a narrow blade for cutting curved lines in thin pieces of wood, metal, plastic, etc.
2 chiefly Brit : JIGSAW PUZZLE

jigsaw puzzle noun, pl ~ puzzles [count] : a puzzle made of many small pieces that are cut into various shapes and can be fit together to form a picture ▪ We spent many nights working on a jigsaw puzzle of Mount Everest. — often used figuratively ▪ Ecologists no longer view different species as independent, but instead see them as pieces of the same jigsaw puzzle. — called also (chiefly Brit) jigsaw

jigsaw puzzle

ji•had /ʤɪˈhɑ:d/ noun, pl -hads [count] : a war fought by Muslims to defend or spread their beliefs

jilt /ʤɪlt/ verb jilts; jilt•ed; jilt•ing [+ obj] : to end a romantic relationship with (someone) in a sudden and painful way ▪ She was crushed when he jilted her. — often used as (be) jilted ▪ She was jilted at the altar. [=the man who was supposed to marry her did not show up for the wedding] ▪ a jilted lover

Jim Crow /ˈʤɪmˈkroʊ/ noun [noncount] : the unfair treatment of black people in the past in the southern U.S. when laws were passed that did not give them the same rights as white people ▪ the era of Jim Crow ▪ Jim Crow laws

jim–dan•dy /ˈʤɪmˈdændi/ adj, US, informal : very fine or excellent ▪ We had a jim-dandy vacation.

jim•mies /ˈʤɪmiz/ noun [plural] US : small and thin pieces of candy often sprinkled on ice cream

[1]jim•my /ˈʤɪmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] US : a short metal bar used to force things open or as a lever ▪ The burglar used a jimmy to open the window. — called also (Brit) jemmy

[2]jimmy verb -mies; -mied; -my•ing [+ obj] US : to force (something, such as a lock, door, or window) open with a metal bar or a similar tool ▪ The burglar jimmied [=(Brit) jemmied] the window (open).

[1]jin•gle /ˈʤɪŋgəl/ noun, pl jin•gles [count]
1 : a light ringing sound that is made when metal objects hit each other ▪ I heard the jingle of bells.
2 : a short song that is easy to remember and that is used to help sell a product on television or radio ▪ an advertising jingle

[2]jingle verb jingles; jin•gled; jin•gling : to make or cause (something) to make a light ringing sound [no obj] Bells jingled in the distance. ▪ jingling bracelets/bells/coins ▪ a jingling sound [+ obj] She jingled the coins in her pocket.

jin•go•ism /ˈʤɪŋgoʊˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the feelings and beliefs of people who think that their country is always right and who are in favor of aggressive acts against other countries ▪ When the war began many people were caught up in a wave of jingoism.
– jin•go•is•tic /ˌʤɪŋgoʊˈɪstɪk/ adj ▪ jingoistic attitudes

jin•ni /ʤɪˈni:/ or jinn /ʤɪn/ also djinn /ʤɪn/ noun, pl jinn or jinns also djinns [count] : GENIE

[1]jinx /ʤɪŋks/ noun, pl jinx•es [count] informal : someone or something that causes bad luck ▪ That guy is a jinx.; also : a state or period of bad luck caused by a jinx ▪ He felt like he'd finally broken the jinx. ▪ She threatened to put a jinx on him.

[2]jinx verb jinxes; jinxed; jinx•ing [+ obj] informal : to bring bad luck to (someone or something) ▪ I thought they were going to win but I didn't say so because I didn't want to jinx them. ▪ His luck has been so bad he feels jinxed.

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:28 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

jit•ter•bug /ˈʤɪtəˌbʌg/ noun [singular] : a very lively type of dance from the 1940s

– jitterbug verb -bugs; -bugged; -bug•ging [no obj] ▪ Couples were jitterbugging on the dance floor.

jit•ters /ˈʤɪtəz/ noun

the jitters informal : a very nervous feeling ▪ I always get the jitters before I have to give a speech. = Having to give a speech gives me (a bad case of) the jitters.

jit•tery /ˈʤɪtəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very nervous ▪ I always get/feel jittery when I have to give a speech. ▪ The latest economic news has made some investors jittery.

[1]jive /ˈʤaɪv/ noun, pl jives informal + somewhat old-fashioned

1 [noncount] US a : informal language that includes many slang terms ▪ She grew up talking street jive. b : deceptive or foolish talk ▪ I'm tired of listening to your jive.

2 [noncount] : a type of fast lively music that was especially popular in the early part of the 20th century ▪ play some jive; also [count] : a dance performed to this type of music ▪ dancing a jive

[2]jive verb jives; jived; jiv•ing informal + somewhat old-fashioned

1 US : to say foolish or deceptive things to (someone) [+ obj] I know he's just jiving me. [no obj] Don't take him seriously—he's just jiving.

2 [no obj] : to dance to or play jive music ▪ Everyone was jiving to the beat.

Jnr abbr, Brit junior ▪ Dave Smith Jnr

job /ˈʤɑːb/ noun, pl jobs [count]

1 : the work that a person does regularly in order to earn money ▪ He took/got a job as a waiter. ▪ She has a high-paying job on Wall Street. ▪ She's trying to get/land/find a job in New York. ▪ The new factory will create thousands of jobs. ▪ They offered him the job but he turned it down. ▪ a part-time/full-time job ▪ a job interview/offer/description ▪ job-hunting ▪ job-hunters ▪ My teenage son is looking for a summer job. [=a job for the summer only] ▪ If the restaurant closes, she'll lose her job. = If the restaurant closes, she'll be out of a job. [=she will no longer have a job] ▪ Although he plays music at night, he hasn't been able to give up his day job. [=the regular job that he does during the day] ▪ You shouldn't blame her for what happened. She was just/only doing her job. [=she was doing things that her job requires her to do] ▪ We wouldn't be having these problems if everyone had just done their job/jobs. [=if everyone had properly done the work they were supposed to do]

2 : a duty, task, or function that someone or something has ▪ It was your job to mow the lawn. = You had the job of mowing the lawn. ▪ The blood's job is to carry oxygen to the different parts of the body. ▪ When I asked her to clean up the mess, she said, "That's not my job." [=I'm not supposed to do that] ▪ Construction of the bridge turned out to be a bigger job than they had expected. ▪ a small job ▪ It's a dirty job, but someone has to do it. ▪ The computer was processing a print job. [=the computer was printing a document or file] ▪ The car needs a brake/valve job. [=the car needs to have its brakes/valves repaired] ✧ Odd jobs are small tasks of different kinds that are not planned and do not happen regularly. ▪ He does odd jobs around the farm. synonyms see [1]TASK

3 — used to describe how well or badly something has been done ▪ Whoever planned the party did a good/great job. [=that person planned the party very well] ▪ He did a bad job of explaining his reasons. [=he did not explain his reasons well] ▪ "I finished the project ahead of schedule." "Good job!" ✧ The phrase a good job is used in informal British English to refer to something fortunate. ▪ It's a good job I had my seat belt on! = I had my seat belt on—and a good job, too! [=it's good/lucky for me that I had my seat belt on] ✧ The phrase a bad job is used in informal British English to refer to something that is very difficult or impossible to do. ▪ I tried my best to persuade him, but in the end I gave it up as a bad job. [=I stopped trying to do it because it could not be done]

4 : something that requires very great effort ▪ It was a real job to talk over all that noise.

5 informal : a thing of some kind ▪ I bought one of those little quilted jobs [=items, numbers] at the craft fair.

6 informal : a criminal act such as robbery ▪ They've finally caught the gang that pulled the bank job. [=the gang that robbed the bank] ▪ Police suspect that the bank robbery may have been an inside job. [=that the bank robbery was done by or with the help of someone who works in the bank]

do a job on US, informal : to damage (something or someone) badly ▪ The collision really did a job on their car. ▪ Moving all that furniture did a job on my back.

do the job informal : to achieve a desired result ▪ The new system isn't working yet, but a few more adjustments ought to do the job. [=do the trick]

fall down on the job see [1]FALL on the job 1 : while working on a job ▪ He was injured on the job. ▪ New employees are given on-the-job training. 2 Brit slang : having sex ▪ They were in the back room, on the job.

walk off the/your job see [1]WALK

– see also HATCHET JOB, NOSE JOB, PUT-UP JOB

– job•less /ˈʤɑːbləs/ adj ▪ The factory closing left 5,000 people jobless. – job•less•ness noun [noncount] ▪ Joblessness [=unemployment] is on the rise.

job action noun, pl ~ -tions [count] US : something (such as a strike or a slowing of work) done by workers to protest bad conditions, low wages, etc. ▪ The union has threatened a job action if wages are not increased. — called also (Brit) industrial action

job lot noun, pl ~ lots [count] Brit : a collection of goods that are being sold as a group ▪ The warehouse bought the pieces as a job lot.

job sharing noun [noncount] : a situation in which two people share the work, hours, and pay of one job ▪ Job sharing is becoming more common. ▪ a job-sharing arrangement

jock /ˈʤɑːk/ noun, pl jocks [count]

1 chiefly US, informal + sometimes disapproving : someone who is very involved in sports : ATHLETE ▪ She was a jock in high school and led her basketball team to the state championship. ▪ He's just a dumb jock.

2 US, informal : DISC JOCKEY — see also SHOCK JOCK

[1]jock•ey /ˈʤɑːki/ noun, pl -eys [count]

1 : someone who rides horses in races

2 informal : someone who operates or works with a specified vehicle, device, object, or material ▪ a bus jockey [=a bus driver] ▪ computer jockeys — see also DISC JOCKEY

[2]jockey verb -eys; -eyed; -ey•ing

1 [no obj] : to do something in an effort to get an advantage ▪ There was a lot of political jockeying at the fund-raiser. — often used in the phrase jockey for position ▪ Several companies are jockeying for position [=are trying to get a better position or situation] in the market.

2 [+ obj] chiefly US : to change the position of (something) by slow and careful movements ▪ The driver carefully jockeyed the truck into a narrow space in the crowded parking lot.

jock•strap /ˈʤɑːkˌstræp/ noun, pl -straps [count] : a piece of underwear worn by men and boys to protect their sexual organs while playing sports — called also (chiefly US) athletic supporter

jo•cose /ʤoʊˈkoʊs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : very cheerful ▪ his jocose demeanor

– jo•cose•ly adv

joc•u•lar /ˈʤɑːkjələ/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal

1 : liking to tell jokes ▪ a jocular man who could make the most serious people smile

2 : said or done as a joke ▪ a jocular comment

– joc•u•lar•i•ty /ˌʤɑːkjəˈlerəti/ noun [noncount] – joc•u•lar•ly adv

jodh•purs /ˈʤɑːdpəz/ noun [plural] : tight pants that are worn for horseback riding ▪ a pair of jodhpurs

joe /ˈʤoʊ/ noun, pl joes US, informal

1 or Joe [count] : an ordinary man : GUY ▪ He's just an average/ordinary Joe.

2 [singular] : COFFEE — usually used in the phrase a cup of joe ▪ She starts the day with a cup of joe.

Joe Blow noun, pl ~ Blows [count] US, informal : an average or ordinary man — usually singular ▪ His movies have no appeal for the average Joe Blow. ▪ He's just some Joe Blow from off the streets. — called also (Brit) Joe Bloggs

jo•ey /ˈʤowi/ noun, pl joeys [count] : a baby kangaroo

[1]jog /ˈʤɑːg/ verb jogs; jogged; jog•ging

1 [no obj] : to run slowly especially for exercise ▪ She jogs three miles a day.

2 [+ obj] : to push or bump (someone or something) lightly ▪ She jogged [=(more commonly) nudged] him with her elbow.

3 [no obj] : to move up and down heavily with a short motion ▪ The bag jogged against her hip as she walked.

jog along [phrasal verb] : to continue in an ordinary or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

steady way ▪ Their marriage jogged along for several years without any major problems.

jog someone's memory : to cause or help someone to remember something ▪ Maybe this photograph will jog your memory.

– jogging noun [noncount] ▪ Her hobbies include gardening and jogging. ▪ She goes jogging every day. ▪ a jogging suit [=a set of clothes people wear when they jog]

[2]jog noun, pl jogs [count]

1 : a slow run done for exercise ▪ Some people depend on a morning jog to give them energy. ▪ We're going to go for a jog around the park.

2 : a light shake or push ▪ She gave him a jog with her elbow.

jog•ger /ˈʤɑːgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] : someone who runs for exercise : someone who jogs ▪ joggers out for their morning exercise

john /ˈʤɑːn/ noun, pl johns [count] chiefly US, informal

1 : a toilet or bathroom ▪ Excuse me, I have to go to the john.

2 : a man who pays money to a prostitute for sex

John Bull /ˈʤɑːnˈbʊl/ noun, old-fashioned

1 [noncount] : the people or country of England

2 [singular] : a typical Englishman

John Doe /ˈʤɑːnˈdoʊ/ noun, pl ∼ Does [count] US, law — used as a name for a man whose true name is not known or is being kept secret; compare JANE DOE

John Han•cock /ˈʤɑːnˈhænˌkɑːk/ noun, pl ∼ -cocks [count] US : a person's signature ▪ He put his John Hancock on the contract. [=he signed the contract]

john•ny /ˈʤɑːni/ noun, pl john•nies [count] US : a loose piece of clothing that is open at the back and that is worn by someone (such as a hospital patient) who is being examined, treated, etc., by a doctor

John•ny–come–late•ly /ˈʤɑːniˌkʌmˈleɪtli/ noun, pl -lies [count] informal : a person who has recently joined a group, started a new activity, etc. : NEWCOMER ▪ When it comes to investing, she's no Johnny-come-lately.

joie de vi•vre /ˌʒwɑːdəˈviːvrə/ noun [noncount] formal : a feeling of happiness or excitement about life ▪ She is admired for her energy and joie de vivre. ✧ Joie de vivre is a French phrase that means literally "joy of living."

join /ˈʤɔɪn/ verb joins; joined; join•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to put or bring (two or more things) together ▪ She joined [=fastened] the blocks of wood (together) with glue. : to connect (two or more things) ▪ The islands are joined by a bridge. b : to come together with (something) [+ obj] where the river joins the sea [=where the river flows into the sea] ▪ The roads/rivers join [=meet] each other near here. [no obj] the place where two roads/rivers join (together) ▪ Atoms join (together) to make molecules. — often + up ▪ The two paths eventually join up (with each other).

2 a [+ obj] : to go somewhere in order to be with (a person or group) ▪ He insisted that I join them for lunch. ▪ We're going out for lunch. Would you like to join us? ▪ May I join you? ▪ The magician asked for a volunteer from the audience to join him on stage. b : to do something with (a person or group) [+ obj] Everyone here joins me in congratulating you on a job well done! [no obj] All of us join (together) in congratulating you on a job well done! ▪ Several companies have joined (together) to support this policy. ▪ The singer started alone but soon the whole audience joined in. c : to become involved in or part of (something, such as an activity) [+ obj] I joined the line and waited patiently to buy a ticket. ▪ Hundreds of people have joined the effort to save the building from demolition. ▪ He agreed to join the debate. [no obj] — + in ▪ Hundreds of people have joined in the effort to save the building. ▪ She joined in the conversation/fun.

3 : to become a member of (a group or organization) [+ obj] She joined the band/club. ▪ Join the Navy and see the world! [no obj] The Navy offers great career opportunities, so join [=enlist] today! — often + up ▪ More than 100 people have joined up.

if you can't beat them, join them see [1]BEAT

join battle formal : to begin fighting : to engage in battle ▪ troops joining battle against a hated enemy

join forces see [1]FORCE

join hands : to hold the hand of another person ▪ The priest asked us all to join hands and bow our heads in prayer. — often used figuratively ▪ We can accomplish great things if we all join hands and work together.

join (someone) in marriage/matrimony formal : to marry (someone) ▪ a young couple joined in marriage

join the club see [1]CLUB

join the crowd see [2]CROWD

join up [phrasal verb] : to meet each other at a particular place ▪ We're planning to join up (with each other) and have a few drinks after the game.

join•er /ˈʤɔɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 US : a person who joins many organizations ▪ He's not a joiner. He prefers to do things by himself.

2 chiefly Brit : a person whose job is to build things (such as door or window frames) by joining pieces of wood join•ery /ˈʤɔɪnəri/ noun [noncount] : the work done by a joiner (sense 2)

[1]joint /ˈʤɔɪnt/ noun, pl joints

1 [count] a : a point where two bones meet in the body ▪ the elbow/knee/shoulder joint ▪ She's been having pain in her muscles and joints. b : a place where two things or parts are joined ▪ seal the joints of the pipes

2 [count] informal a : a particular place ▪ People were running all over the joint. [=everywhere] b : a cheap bar or club ▪ I can't believe we came to a (cheap) joint like this. c : an informal restaurant ▪ a hamburger/pizza joint

3 [count] informal : a marijuana cigarette ▪ smoking a joint

4 the joint US slang : PRISON ▪ five years in the joint

5 [count] chiefly Brit : a large piece of meat for roasting ▪ a joint of beef out of joint 1 of a bone : not in the correct position : out of its socket ▪ His shoulder kept slipping out of joint. 2 informal : not in agreement or order ▪ My schedule has gotten a little out of joint [=disorganized] in the past few weeks. 3 informal ✧ If you have your nose out of joint, you are angry or annoyed. ▪ We had to wait a while, but that wasn't any reason for him to get his nose out of joint.

stink up the joint US, informal : to perform or play very badly ▪ This year the team is really stinking up the joint.

[2]joint adj, always used before a noun

1 : combining the work of two or more people or groups of people ▪ It took a joint [=united] effort to get the job done. ▪ a joint session of (both houses of) Congress

2 : done by or involving two or more people ▪ a joint venture ▪ joint research ▪ filing a joint tax return ▪ They had a joint account at the bank. ▪ divorced parents who have joint custody of their child ▪ (Brit) They came in joint third. [=they both finished in third place]

3 : doing something together ▪ joint owners – joint•ly adv ▪ a study conducted jointly by scientists in two countries ▪ jointly owned property

Joint Chiefs of Staff noun [plural] : a group made up of the leaders of the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines that advises the President on important military decisions joint•ed /ˈʤɔɪntəd/ adj : having joints that allow parts to move ▪ a doll with jointed arms and legs — see also DOUBLE-JOINTED

joist /ˈʤɔɪst/ noun, pl joists [count] : a strong, heavy board that supports a floor or ceiling

[1]joke /ˈʤoʊk/ noun, pl jokes [count]

1 a : something said or done to cause laughter ▪ She meant it as a joke, but many people took her seriously. ▪ Is this your idea of a joke? [=do you think that what you are saying/doing is funny?] ▪ They played a harmless joke on him. ▪ They are always making jokes about his car. ▪ He thought he could embarrass us, but now the joke is on him. [=he is the one who looks foolish] ▪ He just can't take a joke. [=he does not like it when other people make jokes about him] b : a brief story with a surprising and funny ending ▪ I heard a funny joke yesterday. ▪ the punch line of a joke ▪ She's always cracking/telling jokes. ▪ I didn't get/understand the joke. ▪ an inside joke [=a joke that is understood only by people with special knowledge about something] — see also IN-JOKE, PRACTICAL JOKE

2 disapproving : someone or something that is not worth taking seriously ▪ That exam was a joke. ▪ Their product became a joke in the industry. ▪ He's in danger of becoming a national joke. ▪ It's no joke to be lost in the woods. = Being lost in the woods is no joke. [=being lost in the woods is a serious situation]

[2]joke verb jokes; joked; jok•ing : to say things that are meant to cause laughter : to make jokes about someone or something [no obj] My friends would joke about the uniform I had to wear at work. ▪ She joked about the possibility of losing her job. ▪ I thought he was joking when he said he might quit, but it turned out that he really meant it. ▪ Don't take it seriously: I was only joking. ▪ She spent a few minutes joking with reporters after giving her speech. ▪ "The report is to be done by tomorrow." "You're joking." = "You must be joking." [=you must be kidding; what you say is very surprising or hard to believe] ▪ It's no joking matter. [=it is no joke; it is a serious matter] [+ obj] She joked that she could always get work as a truck driver if she lost her job.

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:29 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

joking aside or Brit joking apart — used to introduce a serious statement that follows a humorous statement ▪ It looks like this is a job for Superman! But joking aside, this is a serious problem and we're going to need help.

– jok•ing•ly /ˈʤoʊkɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ She spoke jokingly about the possibility of losing her job.

jok•er /ˈʤoʊkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who tells or makes many jokes ▪ a constant joker

2 : an extra card used in some card games usually as a wild card ▪ Jokers are wild in this game.

3 informal : an annoying, stupid, or offensive person ▪ I can't believe I let that joker beat me. ▪ Some joker hit our car.

joke•ster /ˈʤoʊkstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : a person who tells or makes many jokes : JOKER ▪ the family jokester

jok•ey /ˈʤoʊki/ adj, informal : tending or intended to make people laugh ▪ a jokey movie ▪ the jokey tone of his stories

– jok•i•ness /ˈʤoʊkinəs/ noun [noncount]

jol•lies /ˈʤɑːliz/ noun

get your jollies US, informal + disapproving : to get a feeling of enjoyment or excitement ▪ She doesn't think much of people who get their jollies from watching violent movies. [=people who enjoy watching violent movies]

jol•li•ty /ˈʤɑːləti/ noun [noncount] formal : a happy and cheerful quality or state : the quality or state of being jolly ▪ His jollity is infectious. ▪ a scene of jollity

[1]jol•ly /ˈʤɑːli/ adj jol•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : full of happiness and joy : happy and cheerful ▪ Our boss was a very jolly man, always laughing. ▪ jolly laughter/singing

2 old-fashioned : very pleasant or enjoyable ▪ She had a jolly time at the party.

[2]jolly adv, Brit, informal + old-fashioned : very or extremely ▪ a jolly good time/fellow/book ▪ "I've finished my assignment." "Jolly good!" ▪ She learned to be jolly careful in his presence.

jolly well Brit, informal + old-fashioned — used to emphasize anger, annoyance, or disapproval ▪ I'm your father and you'll jolly well do as you're told!

[1]jolt /ˈʤoʊlt/ verb jolts; jolt•ed; jolt•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to move in a quick and sudden way ▪ The explosion jolted the ship. ▪ He was jolted forward when the bus stopped suddenly. ▪ The loud bang jolted me awake. ▪ The attack jolted the country into action. b [no obj] : to move with a quick and sudden motion ▪ The car jolted [=jerked] forward when he let the clutch out too quickly.

2 [+ obj] : to surprise or shock (someone) ▪ She jolted the medical world with her announcement.

– jolting adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a jolting ride ▪ a jolting experience

[2]jolt noun, pl jolts [count]

1 : a sudden, rough movement ▪ the initial jolt [=shock] of the earthquake ▪ I sprang out of bed with a jolt. ▪ The car stopped with a jolt.

2 : a sudden shock or surprise ▪ I got/had quite a jolt when I heard the door slam. ▪ The defeat was quite a jolt to the team. ▪ a severe financial jolt ▪ The stock market suffered a major jolt yesterday.

3 : a small but powerful amount of something ▪ She needed a jolt of caffeine to start her day. ▪ a jolt of electricity ▪ The unexpected praise he received gave him a jolt of confidence.

[1]jones /ˈʤoʊnz/ noun [singular] US slang : a very strong desire for something or to do something ▪ She has a crazy jones [=craving] for fried chicken. ▪ a basketball/writing jones

[2]jones verb jones•es; jonesed; jones•ing [no obj] US slang : to have a very strong desire for something or to do something — usually used as (be) jonesing ▪ He was jonesing for a cigarette.

Jones•es /ˈʤoʊnzəz/ noun

keep up with the Joneses informal + often disapproving : to show that you are as good as other people by getting what they have and doing what they do ▪ people trying to keep up with the Joneses by buying expensive cars and clothes that they can't afford josh /ˈʤɑːʃ/ verb josh•es; joshed; josh•ing informal : to talk to someone in a friendly and joking way [no obj] Don't take him seriously. He's just joshing. [+ obj] He's just joshing [=kidding] you.

jos•tle /ˈʤɑːsəl/ verb jos•tles; jos•tled; jos•tling : to push against (someone) while moving forward in a crowd of people [+ obj] Everyone in the crowd was jostling each other trying to get a better view. [no obj] — often + for ▪ Everyone in the crowd was jostling for room/space. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ political candidates jostling for position as the election nears

[1]jot /ˈʤɑːt/ verb jots; jot•ted; jot•ting [+ obj] : to write down (something) quickly ▪ He paused to jot a few notes on a slip of paper. — usually + down ▪ He jotted down her name and phone number.

[2]jot noun [singular] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : the smallest amount — usually used in negative statements ▪ She has not changed a/one jot [=has not changed at all] since we last saw her. ▪ It doesn't make a jot of difference.

jot•tings /ˈʤɑːtɪŋz/ noun [plural] : notes that are written down quickly ▪ a story based on the jottings in his notebooks

joule /ʤuːl/ noun, pl joules [count] physics : a unit of work or energy

jour•nal /ˈʤɚnl/ noun, pl -nals [count]

1 : a book in which you write down your personal experiences and thoughts : DIARY ▪ I've been keeping a journal for several years. ▪ She records her dreams in a journal.

2 a : a newspaper — usually used in titles ▪ the Wall Street Journal b : a magazine that reports on things of special interest to a particular group of people ▪ an academic/scholarly journal ▪ a medical journal — often used in titles ▪ the Journal of the American Medical Association

jour•nal•ism /ˈʤɚnəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the activity or job of collecting, writing, and editing news stories for newspapers, magazines, television, or radio ▪ investigative/broadcast journalism ▪ She plans to major in journalism when she goes to college. ▪ bad/good/responsible journalism

– jour•nal•ist /ˈʤɚnəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ She is an investigative journalist. – jour•nal•is•tic /ˌʤɚnəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her journalistic career/experience ▪ journalistic styles/standards/techniques – jour•nal•is•ti•cal•ly /ˌʤɚnəˈlɪstɪkli/ adv

[1]jour•ney /ˈʤɚni/ noun, pl -neys [count] : an act of traveling from one place to another : TRIP ▪ a long journey across the country ▪ a journey by train/bus ▪ She's on the last leg of a six-month journey through Europe. ▪ We wished her a safe and pleasant journey. — often used figuratively ▪ the journey from innocence to experience ▪ a journey through time ▪ a spiritual journey

[2]journey verb -neys; -neyed; -ney•ing [no obj] : to go on a journey : TRAVEL ▪ They journeyed across Europe. ▪ She was the first woman to journey into space.

jour•ney•man /ˈʤɚnimən/ noun, pl -men [count]

1 : a worker who learns a skill and then works for another person — often used before another noun ▪ a journeyman carpenter

2 : a worker, performer, or athlete who is experienced and good but not excellent — often used before another noun ▪ a journeyman musician ▪ a journeyman baseball player

joust /ˈʤaʊst/ verb jousts; joust•ed; joust•ing [no obj] of knights in the Middle Ages : to fight on horseback with lances ▪ The knights jousted against each other. — often used figuratively ▪ The two teams jousted [=competed] for first place. ▪ There was a lot of verbal jousting between the lawyers.

– joust noun, pl jousts [count] ▪ a joust between two knights – joust•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an armored jouster ▪ a skilled verbal jouster

Jove /ʤoʊv/ noun

by Jove chiefly Brit, old-fashioned + sometimes humorous — used to express surprise or agreement ▪ By Jove, she's really done it! ▪ By Jove, you're right!

jo•vi•al /ˈʤoʊvijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of happiness and joy : CHEERFUL ▪ The audience was in a jovial mood. ▪ He's a very jovial man.

– jo•vi•al•i•ty /ˌʤoʊviˈæləti/ noun [noncount] – jo•vi•al•ly adv

jowl /ʤawəl/ noun, pl jowls [count] : loose flesh on the cheeks, lower jaw, or throat — usually plural ▪ a man with heavy jowls ▪ a dog with big, floppy jowls

cheek by jowl see CHEEK

– jowly /ˈʤaʊli/ adj ▪ a jowly face/man

joy /ʤoɪ/ noun, pl joys

1 [noncount] : a feeling of great happiness ▪ Their sorrow turned to joy. ▪ I can hardly express the joy I felt at seeing her again. ▪ Seeing her again brought tears of joy to my eyes. ▪ He found great joy in (doing) his work. ▪ She answered the phone and, to her great joy, heard her son's voice on the line.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

[=she felt very happy when she heard her son's voice] ▪ They were shouting/jumping for joy. [=they shouted/jumped because they were very happy] — see also (little) bundle of joy at ¹BUNDLE

2 [count] : a source or cause of great happiness : something or someone that gives joy to someone ▪ The flowers are a joy to behold! ▪ What a joy it was to see her again. ▪ the joy of sailing ▪ the joys of parenthood ▪ Her son is her pride and joy. [=her son makes her very proud and happy]

3 [noncount] Brit, informal : success in doing, finding, or getting something ▪ "You've spent hours looking for it. Any joy? [=luck]" "No joy whatsoever, I'm afraid. I can't find it."

joy•ful /ˈʤɔɪfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling, causing, or showing great happiness : full of joy ▪ a joyful family reunion ▪ the children's joyful faces ▪ joyful news ▪ We were joyful at the news.
– joy•ful•ly adv ▪ They greeted each other joyfully. – joy•ful•ness noun [noncount] joy•less /ˈʤɔɪləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not feeling, causing, or showing happiness : sad or unhappy ▪ a joyless occasion/person/look

– joy•less•ly adv ▪ He smiled joylessly. – joy•less•ness noun [noncount]

joy•ous /ˈʤojəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling, causing, or showing great happiness : JOYFUL ▪ a joyous celebration ▪ a joyous day ▪ a mood of joyous anticipation
– joy•ous•ly adv – joy•ous•ness noun [noncount]

joy•ride /ˈʤɔɪˌraɪd/ noun, pl -rides [count] : a fast car ride taken for pleasure; especially : a ride in a stolen car ▪ Some teenager stole my car and took it for a joyride. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ This movie is a wonderful joyride. [=is very exciting and enjoyable]
– joy•rid•er /ˈʤɔɪˌraɪdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] – joy•rid•ing /ˈʤɔɪˌraɪdɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ Some teenager went joyriding in my car.

joy•stick /ˈʤɔɪˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count]
1 : an upright lever used to control an airplane — called also stick
2 : a lever used to control the movement of images on the screen in a computer or video game ▪ This game works with either a mouse or joystick.

J.P. abbr justice of the peace

JPEG /ˈʤeɪˌpɛg/ noun, pl JPEGs also JPEG's [noncount] : a type of computer file used for storing images; also [count] : an image that is stored as this type of file ▪ Most of the pictures are JPEGs. — often used before another noun ▪ a JPEG file/image ✧ JPEG is an abbreviation of "Joint Photographic Experts Group."

Jr. abbr junior ▪ John Smith, Jr.

ju•bi•lant /ˈʤu:bələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or expressing great joy : very happy ▪ the jubilant winners ▪ a jubilant celebration
– ju•bi•lant•ly adv ▪ The fans celebrated jubilantly.

ju•bi•la•tion /ˌʤu:bəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : great happiness or joy ▪ The team's victory was the cause of great jubilation. [=rejoicing] ▪ the jubilation of the crowd

ju•bi•lee /ˈʤu:bəˌli:, ˌʤu:bəˈli:/ noun, pl -lees [count] : a special anniversary; also : a celebration at the time of such an anniversary ▪ a silver/golden/diamond jubilee

Ju•da•ism /ˈʤu:diˌɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the religion developed among the ancient Hebrews that stresses belief in God and faithfulness to the laws of the Torah : the religion of the Jewish people
– Ju•da•ic /ʤuˈdejɪk/ adj ▪ Judaic law/heritage/tradition

Ju•das /ˈʤu:dəs/ noun, pl Ju•das•es [count] : someone who betrays someone else : TRAITOR ▪ He was called a Judas by the press.

jud•der /ˈʤʌdə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj] Brit : to shake in a forceful way ▪ The car juddered (and came) to a halt.
– judder noun, pl -ders [count] ▪ The car gave a judder and came to a halt.

Ju•deo–Chris•tian /ʤuˌdejoʊˈkrɪsʧən/ adj : relating to both Judaism and Christianity ▪ Judeo-Christian values/tradition

¹judge /ˈʤʌʤ/ verb judg•es; judged; judg•ing
1 : to form an opinion about (something or someone) after careful thought [+ obj] You should not judge people by their appearance. ▪ They judged her pie (as) the best. = They judged her pie to be the best. = They judged that her pie was the best. = Her pie was judged (to be) the best. ▪ He was trying to judge the strength of his opponent. ▪ It can be difficult to judge [=estimate] distances/sizes accurately. ▪ We should do whatever we judge to be the right thing. [no obj] Judging from this schedule, we have a busy week ahead. [=this schedule indicates that we have a busy week ahead] ▪ Judging by its smell, I'd say the milk is spoiled. = To judge from its smell, I'd say the milk is spoiled.
2 [+ obj] : to regard (someone) as either good or bad ▪ Who are you to judge me? ▪ He feels that they have judged him unfairly. ▪ Don't judge her too severely/harshly.
3 [+ obj] law a : to make an official decision about (a legal case) ▪ judge [=try] a case b : to decide about the guilt or innocence of someone ▪ The jury will be asked to judge the defendant's guilt. ▪ If you are accused of a crime you have the right to be judged by a jury of your peers.
4 [+ obj] : to decide the winner of (a competition) ▪ judge a contest

²judge noun, pl judges [count]
1 a law : a person who has the power to make decisions on cases brought before a court of law ▪ a federal judge ▪ She's one of the strictest judges in the state. — often used as a title ▪ The case is being heard by Judge Smith. b : a person who decides the winner in a contest or competition ▪ He served as a judge at the baking contest. ▪ a panel of judges
2 a : a person who makes a decision or judgment ▪ "These problems don't concern you." "I'll be the judge of that!" [=I'll decide if they concern me; I am not interested in your opinion] ▪ "I don't think we should trust her." "Let me be the judge of that." b : a person who is good, bad, etc., at making judgments ▪ She is a good judge of character.

judge•ship /ˈʤʌʤˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] chiefly US, law : the position of being a judge ▪ She was appointed to a federal judgeship.

judg•ment or chiefly Brit judge•ment /ˈʤʌʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 a [count] : an opinion or decision that is based on careful thought ▪ We have to make a judgment about the value of their services. ▪ In my judgment [=opinion], the stock has performed badly. = It is my judgment that the stock has performed badly. ▪ The judgment of the editors is final. ▪ I agreed to let him join us, even though it was against my better judgment. [=even though I did not think it was the best thing to do] ▪ a snap judgment [=a hasty decision or opinion] ▪ value judgments [=opinions about the worth or value of something] b [noncount] : the act or process of forming an opinion or making a decision after careful thought : the act of judging something or someone ▪ Don't rush to judgment without examining the evidence. ▪ It would be premature to pass judgment on [=to state an opinion on] his place in history. ▪ Don't pass judgment on me [=don't criticize me] until you know all the facts. ▪ "Were his policies good or bad?" "I'll have to reserve/suspend judgment on that. It's too soon to know." — see also LAST JUDGMENT, VALUE JUDGMENT
2 [noncount] : the ability to make good decisions about what should be done ▪ Use your own best judgment. ▪ He showed bad judgment. = He showed a lack of judgment.
3 [count] law : a decision made by a court ▪ The court granted/pronounced a judgment in favor of the plaintiffs. ▪ the judgment of the court ▪ I won a judgment against the bank.
4 [count] formal : something bad or unpleasant that is thought to be a punishment from God — usually singular ▪ a divine judgment against sinners sit in judgment : to say whether or not someone or something is morally good, proper, etc. ▪ He has no right to sit in judgment on/of/over me. [=he has no right to judge me]

judg•ment•al or chiefly Brit judge•ment•al /ˌʤʌʤˈmɛntl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : tending to judge people too quickly and critically ▪ He's judgmental about everyone except himself. ▪ You should try to avoid being so judgmental. ▪ a very judgmental person
2 : of, relating to, or involving judgment ▪ a judgmental error judgment call or chiefly Brit judgement call noun, pl ~ calls [count] : a decision that is based on your opinion ▪ The rules aren't clear in this case, so officials are required to make a judgment call.

Judgment Day or chiefly Brit Judgement Day noun [noncount] : the day at the end of the world when according to some religions all people will be judged by God

ju•di•cial /ʤuˈdɪʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : of or relating to courts of law or judges ▪ judicial power ▪ the judicial system b : ordered or done by a court ▪ a judicial decision/action

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:30 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

2 : responsible for dealing with all legal cases involving the government ▪ the judicial branch of government — compare EXECUTIVE, LEGISLATIVE
– ju•di•cial•ly adv

ju•di•cia•ry /ʤuˈdɪʃiˌeri, ʤuˈdɪʃəri/ noun [noncount] : the courts of law and judges in a country : the branch of government that includes courts of law and judges ▪ the federal judiciary

ju•di•cious /ʤuˈdɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing good judgment : WISE ▪ judicious use of our resources ▪ Judicious planning now can prevent problems later. ▪ a judicious decision
– ju•di•cious•ly adv ▪ judiciously chosen examples – ju•di•cious•ness noun [noncount]

ju•do /ˈʤu:ˌdoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a sport developed in Japan in which opponents attempt to throw or wrestle each other to the ground

jug /ˈʤʌg/ noun, pl jugs [count]
1 a chiefly US : a large, deep container with a narrow opening and a handle ▪ a jug of cider b chiefly Brit : [2]PITCHER
2 : the amount held by a jug ▪ a jug of milk/wine

jug•ger•naut /ˈʤʌgəˌnɑ:t/ noun, pl -nauts [count]
1 : something (such as a force, campaign, or movement) that is extremely large and powerful and cannot be stopped ▪ an advertising/political juggernaut
2 Brit : a very large, heavy truck — called also juggernaut lorry

jug•gle /ˈʤʌgəl/ verb jug•gles; jug•gled; jug•gling
1 : to keep several objects in motion in the air at the same time by repeatedly throwing and catching them [no obj] He is learning to juggle. [+ obj] He juggled four balls at once.
2 [+ obj] : to do (several things) at the same time ▪ She somehow manages to juggle a dozen tasks at once. ▪ It can be hard to juggle family responsibilities and/with the demands of a full-time job. — see also juggling act at [1]ACT
3 [+ obj] : to make changes to (something) in order to achieve a desired result ▪ I'll have to juggle my schedule a bit to get this all to work out.
– jug•gler /ˈʤʌglə/ noun, pl -glers [count] ▪ a juggler at the circus

jug•u•lar /ˈʤʌgjələ/ noun, pl -lars [count] : JUGULAR VEIN go for the jugular informal : to attack or criticize an opponent in a very aggressive way ▪ He will very quickly go for the jugular in the debate.

jugular vein noun, pl ~ veins [count] : a large vein in the neck that takes blood from the head to the heart

[1]juice /ˈʤu:s/ noun, pl juic•es
1 a : the liquid part that can be squeezed out of vegetables and fruits [noncount] a glass of apple/orange/carrot juice [count] a variety of fruit juices b : the liquid part of meat [noncount] the juice of a steak [plural] gravy made with real beef juices
2 [noncount] informal : something (such as electricity) that provides power ▪ Turn on the juice. ▪ His camera ran out of juice because he forgot to replace the battery.
3 [count] : the natural fluids in your stomach — usually plural ▪ digestive/gastric/stomach juices
4 [plural] informal : energy that gives you the ability to do something in a very effective way — used with flow ▪ He can be very tough to beat when he gets his competitive juices flowing. ▪ She came up with some great ideas when her creative juices started flowing.
stew in your own juice/juices see [2]STEW

[2]juice verb juices; juiced; juic•ing [+ obj] : to remove juice from (a fruit or vegetable) ▪ juice a lemon/orange juiced /ˈʤu:st/ adj [more ~; most ~] US, informal : very excited : full of energy ▪ The band's fans were juiced about the upcoming concert. — often + up ▪ He didn't realize just how juiced up his opponent would be.

juic•er /ˈʤu:sə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool or machine for removing juice from fruit or vegetables ▪ a fruit/lemon juicer

juicy /ˈʤu:si/ adj juic•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : containing a lot of juice ▪ The meat is tender and juicy. ▪ fresh, juicy oranges
2 informal : very interesting and exciting especially because of shocking or sexual elements ▪ a juicy scandal ▪ a juicy bit of news/gossip ▪ I want to know all the juicy details.
3 informal : involving or providing a large amount of money ▪ a juicy [=fat] contract ▪ She sued her former boss and won a juicy settlement in court.
– juic•i•ness /ˈʤu:sinəs/ noun [noncount]

ju•jit•su /ʤuˈʤɪtˌsu:/ noun [noncount] : a form of fighting without weapons that was developed in Japan : a Japanese martial art juke /ˈʤu:k/ verb jukes; juked; juk•ing US, sports, informal : to make a false movement in order to deceive (an opponent) [+ obj] He juked a couple of defenders and scored. [no obj] She juked and weaved around the defense. ▪ He juked [=faked] left and went right.

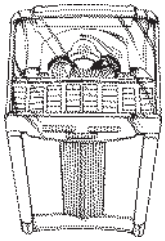
juke•box /ˈʤu:kˌbɑ:ks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a machine that plays music when money is put into it



jukebox

juke joint noun, pl ~ joints [count] US, informal : a cheap bar or club that has a jukebox

Jul. abbr July

ju•lep /ˈʤu:ləp/ noun, pl -leps [count] : a drink of bourbon, sugar, and mint served with crushed ice ▪ a mint julep

ju•li•enne /ˌʤu:liˈɛn/ or ju•li•ened /ˌʤu:liˈɛnd/ adj : cut into long, thin strips ▪ julienne carrots
– julienne noun, pl -ennes [count] ▪ a julienne of carrots

Ju•ly /ʤʊˈlaɪ/ noun, pl -lys : the seventh month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) July ▪ early/late in July ▪ They arrived on July the first. = (US) They arrived on July first. = They arrived on the first of July. [count] Sales are up (for) this July in comparison with the previous two Julys. ▪ It happens every July. — abbr. Jul.; see also FOURTH OF JULY

[1]jum•ble /ˈʤʌmbəl/ verb jum•bles; jum•bled; jum•bling [+ obj] : to cause (things) to be mixed together in a way that is not neat or orderly — often + together ▪ Earrings, bracelets, and necklaces were all jumbled together in the box. — often + up ▪ He jumbled the wires up when he moved the TV.
– jumbled adj ▪ jumbled thoughts

[2]jumble noun, pl jumbles
1 [count] : a group of things that are not arranged in a neat or orderly way ▪ The letters formed a meaningless jumble. ▪ a jumble of wires ▪ a jumble of hats and coats
2 [noncount] Brit : unwanted things (such as old clothes) that are being sold in an informal sale ▪ a bag/box of jumble

jumble sale noun, pl ~ sales [count] Brit : RUMMAGE SALE

jum•bo /ˈʤʌmboʊ/ adj, always used before a noun : very large ▪ The stadium has a jumbo TV screen. ▪ jumbo shrimp ▪ The soda is sold in small, medium, large, and jumbo sizes.

jumbo jet noun, pl ~ jets [count] : a very large airplane that can carry many passengers

[1]jump /ˈʤʌmp/ verb jumps; jumped; jump•ing
1 a [no obj] : to move your body upward from the ground and often forward, backward, or sideways through the air by pushing with your legs ▪ The cat jumped [=leaped] (up) onto the table. ▪ Grasshoppers were jumping [=hopping] around in the field. ▪ The circus lion jumped through the hoop. ▪ The fans were jumping up and down with excitement. ▪ Everyone was jumping for joy when we found out that we had won an award. b [no obj] : to cause your body to drop or fall down from something by pushing with your legs ▪ The cat jumped down off/from the table. ▪ jump off a bridge c : to move forward through the air and over (something) [+ obj] The runner jumped a hurdle. ▪ The car jumped the curb. [no obj] — + over ▪ The runner jumped over a hurdle. ▪ The car jumped over the curb.
2 [no obj] a : to move quickly ▪ Everyone jumped into/in the pool. ▪ He jumped into/in his truck and drove away. ▪ She jumped up on [=quickly got up on] a chair and began to sing the national anthem. ▪ She jumped up [=she stood up quickly] and ran out the door. — often used figuratively ▪ The team jumped from last place to first place. ▪ If anyone criticizes her husband, she always jumps to his defense. [=she always quickly defends him] ▪ They jumped into action. [=acted immediately] b : to make a sudden movement because of surprise or shock ▪ She jumped when she heard a loud knock late at night. ▪ I almost jumped out of my skin when I heard her say my name. [=I was very surprised when I heard her say my name]
3 [no obj] : to start or go forward quickly ▪ She jumped to an early lead in the race. — sometimes + off ▪ She jumped off to a big lead.
4 [no obj] : to suddenly increase in value or amount ▪ The price of gasoline jumped (by) 10 percent in the spring. = Gasoline jumped in price by 10 percent in the spring.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

5 [no obj] a : to go in a sudden and unexpected way ▪ She was always jumping from job to job. b : to suddenly go forward to a later point ▪ He jumped to the end of the chapter to find the answers. ▪ The movie jumps ahead/forward to when she was in college.
6 [no obj] : to be lively with activity ▪ The city really jumps on New Year's Eve. ▪ The bar/joint/place was jumping.
7 [+ obj] : to physically attack (a person) especially in a robbery ▪ He was jumped by a mugger while he was walking home from the store.
8 [no obj] : to move or behave in an energetic way especially to please another person ▪ When the boss walks in, everybody is supposed to jump.
9 [+ obj] chiefly US : to get onto (a moving train) ▪ jump a train
10 [+ obj] : to begin moving before (a signal to begin) ▪ The car ahead of me jumped the light. [=started moving before the traffic light turned green]
11 : to move a piece in a board game so that it moves over another piece and lands on the next space [+ obj] She jumped three of my checkers in one move. [no obj] In this version of the game, jumping is not permitted. — sometimes + over ▪ She jumped over three of my checkers.
(go) jump in a/the lake see LAKE jump all over informal : to become very angry at (someone) : to angrily criticize or shout at (someone) ▪ His mother jumped all over [=jumped on] him for wrecking the car.
jump at [phrasal verb] jump at (something) : to eagerly take (a chance, offer, etc.) ▪ She jumped at the chance/opportunity to show her boss what she could do. ▪ He jumped at the offer of a better job.
jump bail see [1]BAIL jump down someone's throat see THROAT jump in [phrasal verb] informal : to say something about a subject that another person is already talking about : to join a conversation ▪ Jump in if you have any questions.
jump off the page see [1]PAGE
jump on [phrasal verb] informal 1 *jump on (someone) : to become very angry at (someone) : to angrily criticize or shout at (someone) ▪ The teacher jumped on [=jumped all over] us for being late. ▪ The coach jumped on him for not playing hard enough. 2 *jump on (something) a : to strongly attack or criticize (something) ▪ She was quick to jump on her rival's poor record as governor. b : to get on (a train, bus, etc.) ▪ She jumped on [=hopped] a bus to Denver. ▪ He jumped on a plane and headed home.
jump out at [phrasal verb] jump out at (someone) 1 : to suddenly come at (someone) from a hiding place ▪ The hidden assailant jumped out at them. 2 : to immediately get the attention of (someone) ▪ The sculpture jumps out at you when you enter the house. ▪ I checked for errors, but nothing jumped out at me. [=I did not notice any errors]
jump rope see [1]ROPE jump ship see [1]SHIP jump the gun see [1]GUN jump the queue see [1]QUEUE jump the track(s) (US) or chiefly Brit jump the rails of a train : to come off the track ▪ Dozens of people were injured when the train jumped the track.
jump through hoops informal : to do a complicated or annoying series of things in order to get or achieve something ▪ We had to jump through a lot of hoops to get a loan from the bank. ▪ It shouldn't be necessary to jump through hoops to get a computer to work properly.
jump to conclusions see CONCLUSION jump to it informal : to begin doing something ▪ We don't have much time to finish this job, so we better jump to it.

[2]jump noun, pl jumps
1 [count] : an act of jumping ▪ He got over the fence with a running jump. [=a jump made while running] — see also HIGH JUMP, LONG JUMP
2 [singular] : a sudden movement because of surprise or shock — usually used in the phrase give a jump ▪ He gave a jump [=start] when she entered the room.
3 [count] a : something to be jumped over ▪ The horse took/cleared the first jump easily but balked at the second. b : something (such as a ramp) that you ride over in order to jump through the air on a motorcycle, bicycle, etc. ▪ a motorcycle jump — see also SKI JUMP
4 [count] : a sudden increase ▪ a jump in the price of gasoline ▪ a jump in sales
a hop, skip, and (a) jump see [2]HOP get/have/gain a/the jump on : to get or have an early advantage over (someone) by acting quickly or doing something first ▪ The company came out with its software earlier than expected and got the jump on its competitors.
one jump ahead ✧ If you are/keep/stay one jump ahead of someone, you have or keep an advantage over someone by learning about or doing something new. ▪ The company has continued to be successful because it always stays one jump ahead of its competitors.
take a running jump Brit, informal + impolite — used to tell someone who angers or annoys you to go away ▪ She told him to (go) take a running jump. [=(US) take a flying leap] jumped–up /ˌʤʌmptˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, disapproving : having a too high opinion of your own importance ▪ She thinks that politicians are all just a bunch of jumped-up nobodies.

[1]jump•er /ˈʤʌmpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person or animal (such as a horse) that jumps ▪ a good jumper
2 basketball : JUMP SHOT
– compare [2]JUMPER

[2]jumper noun, pl -ers [count]
1 US : a type of dress that has no sleeves and that is usually worn with a blouse — called also pinafore
2 Brit : SWEATER, PULLOVER
– compare [1]JUMPER

jumper cables noun [plural] US : a pair of electrical cables that are used to start a car, truck, etc., when its battery is not working by connecting the battery to another source of power (such as another car's battery) : cables used to jump-start a vehicle jumping bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a seed that moves when a small insect moves inside it — called also Mexican jumping bean jumping jack noun, pl ~ jacks [count] US : an exercise in which a standing person jumps to a position with the legs and arms spread out and then jumps back to the original position ▪ We did a few jumping jacks to warm up.

jumping–off point noun, pl ~ points [count] : a place or point from which something begins ▪ The essay provides a good jumping-off point [=starting point] for further discussions. ▪ a jumping-off point for a journey — called also jumping-off place jump rope noun, pl ~ ropes US

1 [count] : a rope used in exercise or a children's game that involves jumping over it when it is swung near the ground — called also (Brit) skipping rope
2 [noncount] : the game of jumping over a jump rope ▪ children playing jump rope

jump rope

jump shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] : a basketball shot made while jumping ▪ make/sink/hit a jump shot

jump–start /ˈʤʌmpˈstaɚt/ verb -starts; -start•ed; -start•ing [+ obj]
1 : to start (a vehicle whose battery is not working) by connecting its battery to another source of power (such as the battery of another vehicle) ▪ I had to use his truck to jump-start my car.
2 a : to cause (something) to start quickly ▪ Advertising can jump-start a political campaign. ▪ Publishers often attempt to jump-start a new book with TV appearances by the author. b : to give new energy to (something) ▪ a plan to jump-start the economy
– jump–start noun, pl -starts [count] ▪ We had to give the car a jump-start. ▪ give the economy a jump-start

jump•suit /ˈʤʌmpˌsu:t/ noun, pl -suits [count] : a piece of clothing that consists of a blouse or shirt with attached pants or shorts

jumpy /ˈʤʌmpi/ adj jump•i•er; -est informal : very nervous : easily frightened ▪ trying to calm jumpy passengers

Jun. abbr June

junc•tion /ˈʤʌŋkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 : a place where two things join ▪ a junction of nerves and muscle
2 a : a place where roads or railroad lines come together ▪ the junction of Route 12 and Route 87 ▪ a railroad junction b Brit : a road or ramp that you use when getting off a highway : EXIT

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:31 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

junc•ture /ˈʤʌŋkʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 : an important point in a process or activity ▪ Negotiations between the countries reached a critical juncture. ▪ At this juncture it looks like they are going to get a divorce.
2 : a place where things join : JUNCTION ▪ the juncture of two rivers

June /ʤu:n/ noun, pl Junes : the sixth month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) June ▪ early/late in June ▪ They arrived on June the first. = (US) They arrived on June first. = They arrived on the first of June. [count] Sales are up (for) this June in comparison with the previous two Junes. ▪ It happens every June. — abbr. Jun.

jun•gle /ˈʤʌŋgəl/ noun, pl jun•gles [count]
1 : a tropical forest where plants and trees grow very thickly ▪ a dense jungle ▪ jungle wildlife
2 : a harsh or dangerous place or situation in which people struggle for survival or success ▪ the asphalt/concrete/urban jungle [=the city] ▪ life in the corporate jungle ▪ It's hard to succeed in the business world. It's a jungle out there.
3 : a confusing or complex mixture of things ▪ a jungle of alleys ▪ a jungle of environmental laws
the law of the jungle see LAW jungle gym noun, pl ~ gyms [count] US : a structure of metal bars for children to climb on

[1]ju•nior /ˈʤu:njə/ adj
1 not used before a noun, US a : younger in age ▪ He is six years junior to me. = He is junior to me by six years. [=he is six years younger than I am] b — used chiefly in its abbreviated form Jr. to identify a son who has the same name as his father ▪ John Smith Jr. and John Smith Sr. — compare SENIOR
2 always used before a noun : lower in standing or rank ▪ She is a junior partner in the law firm. ▪ a junior army officer — compare SENIOR
3 always used before a noun : designed for or done by young people ▪ junior hockey/tennis

[2]junior noun, pl -niors [count]
1 : a person who is younger than another person ▪ He is six years my junior. [=he is six years younger than I am] — compare SENIOR
2 : a person who is of a lower rank than another person ▪ They are my juniors in rank. — compare SENIOR
3 a US : a student in the third of four years in a high school or college ▪ She's a junior at the state college. — often used before another noun ▪ the junior class ▪ the junior prom — compare FRESHMAN, SOPHOMORE, SENIOR b Brit : a student at a junior school
4 US, informal — used like a name for a male child or son ▪ They love to bring junior to the park. ▪ How did you do on the exam, junior?

junior college noun, pl ~ -leges [count] US : a school that has two years of studies similar to those in the first two years of a four-year college junior high school noun, pl ~ schools [count] US : a school usually including the seventh, eighth, and sometimes ninth grades — called also junior high; compare HIGH SCHOOL, MIDDLE SCHOOL, SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL junior school noun, pl ~ schools [count] Brit : a school for children aged 7 to 11

junior varsity noun, pl ~ -ties [count, noncount] US : a team whose members are less experienced and usually younger than members on a varsity team

ju•ni•per /ˈʤu:nəpə/ noun, pl -pers [count, noncount] : an evergreen shrub or tree that has tiny fruits that look like berries

[1]junk /ˈʤʌŋk/ noun [noncount]
1 a : old things that have been thrown away or that have little value ▪ a junk collector ▪ The yard was cluttered with junk like broken bicycles and old washing machines. b : something that is in very poor condition ▪ That car is junk. = That car is a piece of junk. c : material that has no real value or interest ▪ There's nothing but junk on TV tonight. ▪ movies that fill people's minds with junk
2 slang : HEROIN
– compare [2]JUNK

[2]junk noun, pl junks [count] : an Asian boat that is high in the front and has four-cornered sails — compare [1]JUNK

[3]junk verb junks; junked; junk•ing [+ obj] informal : to get rid of (something) because it is worthless, damaged, etc. ▪ We decided to junk our old computer and buy a new one. ▪ junk an old car — sometimes used figuratively ▪ They had to junk [=scrap] their vacation plans when their son got sick.

junk bond noun, pl ~ bonds [count] business : a type of bond that pays high interest but also has a high risk junk e–mail noun [noncount] : SPAM

junk•er /ˈʤʌŋkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US, informal : an old car, truck, etc., that is in very poor condition ▪ I can't believe he's still driving that old junker.

jun•ket /ˈʤʌŋkət/ noun, pl -kets [count] chiefly US : a trip or journey that is paid for by someone else: such as a : a trip made by a government official and paid for by the public ▪ The senator has been criticized for expensive junkets to foreign countries. b : a free trip by a member of the press to a place where something (such as a new movie) is being promoted ▪ a film's press junket junk food noun, pl ~ foods informal : food that is not good for your health because it contains high amounts of fat or sugar [noncount] worrying about kids eating too much junk food [count] eating too many junk foods junk•ie also junky /ˈʤʌŋki/ noun, pl junk•ies [count] informal 1 : a person who uses illegal drugs : a drug addict ▪ a heroin junkie

2 : a person who gets an unusual amount of pleasure from or has an unusual amount of interest in something ▪ a news junkie ▪ a political junkie [=a fan of politics] ▪ a sugar junkie

junk mail noun [noncount] : mail that is not wanted : mail that consists mostly of advertising ▪ bombarded with junk mail

[1]junky /ˈʤʌŋki/ adj junk•i•er; -est chiefly US, informal : of very poor quality ▪ junky furniture junk•yard /ˈʤʌŋkˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] : a place where you can buy, sell, or leave junk ▪ The car was hauled off to the junkyard.

[2]junky variant spelling of JUNKIE

jun•ta /ˈhʊntə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : a military group controlling a government after taking control of it by force ▪ a military junta

Ju•pi•ter /ˈʤu:pətə/ noun [singular] : the planet that is fifth in order from the sun and that is the largest of the planets

ju•ris•dic•tion /ˌʤərəsˈdɪkʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the power or right to make judgments about the law, to arrest and punish criminals, etc. ▪ The court has jurisdiction over most criminal offenses. ▪ His attorney claimed the court lacked jurisdiction in this matter. ▪ The matter falls outside/within the jurisdiction of this court. synonyms see [1]POWER
2 [noncount] : the power or right to govern an area ▪ territory under the jurisdiction of the federal government
3 [count] : an area within which a particular system of laws is used ▪ He was arrested in another jurisdiction.
– ju•ris•dic•tion•al /ˌʤərəsˈdɪkʃənl/ adj

ju•ris•pru•dence /ˌʤərəsˈpru:dəns/ noun [noncount] formal : the study of law ▪ a professor of jurisprudence

ju•rist /ˈʤərɪst/ noun, pl -rists [count] : a person who has a thorough knowledge of law; especially : [1]JUDGE 1 ju•ror /ˈʤərə/ noun, pl -rors [count] : a member of a jury

ju•ry /ˈʤəri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 : a group of people who are members of the public and are chosen to make a decision in a legal case ▪ The jury failed to reach a verdict. ▪ The jury found the defendant guilty/innocent. = The jury returned a verdict of guilty/innocent. ▪ She was selected to serve/sit on a jury. ▪ (US) She was selected for jury duty. = (Brit) She was selected for jury service. ▪ I demand my right to a trial by jury. = I demand my right to a jury trial. [=a trial that is decided by a jury] — see also GRAND JURY, HUNG JURY
2 : a group of people who decide the winners in a contest ▪ The jury [=judges] found her pie to be the best.
jury is out informal ✧ If you say the jury is still out on something, you mean that something has not yet been decided or has not yet become clear. ▪ The jury is still out on whether the new company will succeed. [=no one knows yet whether the new company will succeed]

jury panel noun, pl ~ -els [count] US : [1]PANEL 1c

ju•ry–rig /ˈʤəriˌrɪg/ verb -rigs; -rigged; -rig•ging [+ obj] chiefly US : to build or put together (a simple device or structure) using the materials that you have available ▪ He jury-rigged a new antenna out of coat hangers.
– jury–rigged adj ▪ a jury-rigged antenna

[1]just /ʤʌst/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 a : agreeing with what is considered morally right or good

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j

: FAIR ▪ a just society ▪ a just cause for war ▪ a just decision b : treating people in a way that is considered morally right ▪ a just man

2 a : reasonable or proper ▪ The college treated the allegation with just seriousness. b : deserved and appropriate ▪ They got their just punishment for the crime. ▪ a just reward ▪ We all want to see this criminal get his just deserts. [=get the punishment that he deserves]

– just•ly adv ▪ She is justly [=properly] admired for her charitable work. – just•ness /ˈʤʌstnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the justness of their decision

²just adv

1 : to an exact degree or in an exact manner ▪ You look just [=exactly] like your father. ▪ The store has just the tool you need. ▪ That's just what I expected. ▪ You have to accept me just as I am. ▪ This shirt fits just right. ▪ She called him a liar and told him he was just like all the other men she'd met. ▪ It's just like you to be jealous every time I speak to another woman. [=you're always jealous when I speak to another woman] — see also just my luck at ¹LUCK

2 a : very recently ▪ The bell just rang. ▪ He was just here a minute ago. ▪ She had just returned when he entered. ▪ She has just acted in her first play. = (chiefly US) She just acted in her first play. ▪ I've just been trying to call you! = (chiefly US) I was just trying to call you! b : at this or that exact moment or time ▪ I was just going to telephone you! ▪ She's just finishing a letter, and she'll be with you shortly. c — used to say that two or more events are happening at the same time or with very little time between them ▪ He confessed just before he died. ▪ The phone rang just as/when we were leaving. ▪ I came just as soon as I heard the news. d — used to emphasize that a moment or time is not far from the present moment ▪ She'll be back in just a minute. [=she'll be back very soon] ▪ I saw her here just yesterday.

3 a : by a small amount ▪ I had just [=barely] enough time to eat breakfast before leaving. ▪ I arrived just in time to see him win. ▪ We could (only) just see the ship coming over the horizon. ▪ The horse's time for the race was just short of the record. = The horse just missed breaking the record. ▪ It should take us just [=slightly] under/over an hour to get there. b : by a small distance ▪ She lives just west of here. ▪ The bathroom is just down the hall. ▪ Just [=directly] across from the bank is a hotel. ▪ The restaurant is just around the corner. — see also just around the corner at ¹CORNER

4 a : nothing more than : ONLY ▪ This is just [=simply] a note to say I love you. ▪ He is just an assistant to the manager. ▪ She was just a baby when her father went off to war. ▪ Is it just a coincidence that I see him everywhere I go? ▪ He has just two months left before his retirement. ▪ "Will you have another drink?" "Well, perhaps just (the) one." ▪ I don't know him well: I've met him just (the) once. [=I've met him only one time] ▪ "Who is she?" "Oh, just somebody who works in the same office as me." ▪ I love just you and nobody else but you. ▪ She'll be away from her desk for just a few minutes. = She'll just be away from her desk for a few minutes. ▪ They took a nice field and turned it into just another shopping mall. ▪ He's just another guy trying to get rich without working too hard. b — used to stress the simple truth of a description or statement ▪ We'd like to buy a new car. We just [=simply] don't have enough money. ▪ Sometimes a person just wants to be left alone. ▪ She just wanted to say goodbye. ▪ You'll just have to be patient. ▪ I'm sorry if I seem grouchy. I'm just tired. ▪ The wedding was just wonderful. ▪ I feel just great! ▪ The kids want to camp in the backyard, just for fun. [=simply to have fun] c — used in polite requests ▪ Could I just borrow that pen for a minute? Thanks! ▪ Would you just step this way, please, ladies and gentlemen. d — used for emphasis when you give an order or make a suggestion ▪ Why don't we just forget the whole thing. ▪ Just hold on a minute! Did you say you'd solved the problem?! ▪ Just [=simply] tell him you don't feel like going out. ▪ Just (you) wait until your father sees this mess, young lady! ▪ Don't argue with me: just do it! ▪ Just imagine how silly she'll feel when she realizes that she was wrong. ▪ Just look at the size of that thing! ▪ Just think how happy we could be. e — used to describe what someone does instead of doing what is necessary or expected ▪ Don't just stand there: do something! ▪ She just stood there watching as he walked away. ▪ I can't just pretend nothing happened.

5 — used with words like might and may to refer to something that is possible ▪ I know you don't expect him to succeed, but he might just surprise you. [=he might succeed] ▪ It's a crazy idea, but it just might work! ▪ You know, you just might be right about that.

6 Brit, informal : INDEED ▪ Isn't the city hot, just!

just about : almost or nearly ▪ It was just about time to leave. ▪ The work is just about done. ▪ That is just about the biggest horse I have ever seen. [=that is a very big horse] ▪ That is just about the stupidest thing she has ever done.

just a minute/second/moment 1 — used to ask someone to wait or stop briefly ▪ Just a second and I will get that book for you. 2 — used to demand that someone stop or listen ▪ Just a minute, young lady! You can't park there!

just anyone : any person at all ▪ I don't lend money to just anyone.

just as : to an equal degree as ▪ Our house is just as nice as theirs. ▪ This one is just as good as that one. ▪ She performs just as well as he does. : in the same way as ▪ Just as we hope to be forgiven, so we should forgive others. ▪ Just as I thought/suspected, the door is locked. [=I thought that the door would be locked, and it is] just as soon ✧ If you would just as soon do something, you would prefer to do it. ▪ We asked him to come with us, but he said he'd just as soon stay home.

just as well ✧ If it is just as well that something happens, then it is a good thing, even if it was not expected or intended. ▪ It's just as well she didn't get that job, since she will now be closer to home. ▪ I really didn't want to stay home this weekend, but it's just as well. I have a lot to do.

just because see BECAUSE

just like that : very suddenly ▪ The girl vanished just like that. ▪ Just like that it started raining.

just now or just this minute/second 1 : a moment ago ▪ I saw him just now. ▪ I was just this minute thinking about calling you. 2 : at this moment ▪ They are just now heading out the door.

just on Brit, informal : EXACTLY ▪ It was just on midnight.

just so : in a particular way ▪ They feel they have to dress just so to be popular. : arranged in a very neat and tidy way ▪ Everything in her house has to be just so or she gets upset. [=everything has to be exactly as she likes it]

just the same see ²SAME

just the thing : the best or perfect thing ▪ I have just the thing for your hair.

just yet : right now — used in negative constructions to say that something is not done yet or true yet but will be soon ▪ I don't have the table finished just yet. ▪ "Are you ready to leave?" "Not just yet."

not just — used to say that one thing is true and that another thing is also true ▪ She's not just my friend, she's my lawyer.

jus•tice /ˈʤʌstəs/ noun, pl -tic•es

1 [noncount] : the process or result of using laws to fairly judge and punish crimes and criminals ▪ They received justice in court. ▪ the justice system ▪ the U.S. Department of Justice ▪ criminals attempting to escape justice ▪ The role of the courts is to dispense justice fairly to everyone. ▪ Many people do not believe that justice has been served/done in his case. [=that he has been given proper punishment or fair treatment by the legal system] ▪ His supporters claim that he is an innocent man and that his conviction was a miscarriage of justice. [=an error made in a court of law that results in an innocent person being punished or a guilty person being freed] ✧ Someone who is brought to justice is arrested and punished for a crime in a court of law. ▪ The police couldn't bring the killer to justice. — see also POETIC JUSTICE

2 a [count] US : a judge in a court of law ▪ She is a justice of the state supreme court. — see also CHIEF JUSTICE b Justice — used as a title for a judge (such as a judge of the U.S. Supreme Court) ▪ Justice Marshall

3 [noncount] a : the quality of being fair or just ▪ a sense of justice ▪ I saw no justice in the court's decision. b : fair treatment ▪ We should strive to achieve justice for all people.

do justice ✧ To do justice to something or someone or to do someone or something justice is to treat or show something or someone in a way that is as good as it should be. ▪ Words could never do justice to her beauty. [=could not adequately describe her beauty] ▪ The movie does not do justice to the book. = The movie does not do the book justice. [=the movie is not as good as the book] ▪ a brief summary that does not do justice to [=does not adequately show] the complexity of this issue

J

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:41:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−j obstruction of justice see OBSTRUCTION pervert the course of justice see [1]PERVERT

justice of the peace noun, pl justices of the peace [count] : a local official who has the power to decide minor legal cases and in the U.S. to perform marriages — abbr. J.P.

jus•ti•fi•ca•tion /ˌʤʌstəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : an acceptable reason for doing something : something that justifies an action [count] He tried to present a justification for his behavior. ▪ There is no possible justification for what she did. [noncount] His behavior is without justification. ▪ He told lies in justification of his behavior. [=in order to make people think that his behavior was reasonable] ▪ She noted with some justification that other people had experienced similar problems. [=it was not unreasonable of her to note that other people had experienced similar problems]

jus•ti•fy /ˈʤʌstəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to provide or be a good reason for (something) : to prove or show (something) to be just, right, or reasonable ▪ He tried to justify his behavior by saying that he was being pressured unfairly by his boss. ▪ The fact that we are at war does not justify treating innocent people as criminals. ▪ It's hard to justify the cost of a new car right now. = It's hard to justify spending money on a new car right now. — see also the end justifies the means at [1]END
2 : to provide a good reason for the actions of (someone) ▪ Why should I have to justify myself [=to provide an explanation for my actions] when it was their fault?
3 technical : to position (text) so that the edges form a straight line
– jus•ti•fi•able /ˈʤʌstəˌfajəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ They felt justifiable pride in their son. ▪ justifiable expenses – jus•ti•fi•ably /ˈʤʌstəˌfajəbli/ adv ▪ were justifiably proud – justified adj, not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] ▪ She was (perfectly/fully) justified in complaining to her boss. [=she had a good reason for complaining to her boss]

jut /ˈʤʌt/ verb juts; jut•ted; jut•ting : to stick out, up, or forward [no obj] mountains jutting into the sky — often + out ▪ The peninsula juts out [=projects] into the bay. ▪ The edge of the roof juts out a few feet. [+ obj] — usually + out ▪ He jutted out his jaw in defiance.

jute /ˈʤu:t/ noun [noncount] : a natural fiber that is used for making rope and cloth

[1]ju•ve•nile /ˈʤu:vəˌnajəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : unpleasantly childish : IMMATURE ▪ She criticized his juvenile behavior at the party. ▪ juvenile pranks
2 always used before a noun a : relating to or meant for young people ▪ juvenile fiction b : of or relating to young people who have committed crimes ▪ the juvenile justice system ▪ a juvenile court ▪ a juvenile crime [=a crime committed by a young person]
3 : not yet fully grown ▪ juvenile birds/animals

[2]juvenile noun, pl -niles [count]
1 : a young person : a person who is not yet old enough to be legally considered an adult ▪ She works to keep juveniles away from drugs. ▪ crimes committed by juveniles
2 : a young bird or animal juvenile delinquent noun, pl ~ -quents [count] : a young person who has committed a crime

– juvenile delinquency noun [noncount]

jux•ta•pose /ˈʤʌkstəˌpoʊz/ verb -pos•es; -posed; -pos•ing [+ obj] formal : to place (different things) together in order to create an interesting effect or to show how they are the same or different ▪ a display that juxtaposes modern art with classical art
– jux•ta•po•si•tion /ˌʤʌkstəpəˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ an interesting juxtaposition of colors

K

K

k or K /ˈkeɪ/ noun, pl k's or ks or K's or Ks
1 : the 11th letter of the English alphabet [count] There is one k in "book." [noncount] The word ends in k.
2 pl K [count] a informal : THOUSAND ▪ She earned a salary of $30*K*. ▪ The car costs $35*K*. b computers : KILOBYTE ▪ The program uses 350*K* of disk space.
3 [count] baseball, informal : STRIKEOUT ▪ The pitcher had more than 10 Ks in his last game.

K abbr 1 Kelvin ▪ a temperature of 200 degrees K 2 kilometer ▪ a 5K run 3 or k karat

kabob variant spelling of KEBAB

Ka•bu•ki /kəˈbu:ki/ noun [noncount] : a traditional form of Japanese entertainment with singing and dancing

kaftan variant spelling of CAFTAN

kai•ser /ˈkaɪzə/ noun, pl -sers [count] : the title of the ruler of Germany from 1871 to 1918 ▪ Kaiser Wilhelm

kale /ˈkeɪl/ noun, pl kales [count, noncount] : a type of cabbage that has wrinkled leaves — see color picture on page C4

ka•lei•do•scope /kəˈlaɪdəˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes
1 [count] : a tube that has mirrors and loose pieces of colored glass or plastic inside at one end so that you see many different patterns when you turn the tube while looking in through the other end
2 [singular] a : a changing pattern or scene ▪ The landscape was a kaleidoscope of changing colors. b : a mixture of many different things ▪ a kaleidoscope of flavors
– ka•lei•do•scop•ic /kəˌlaɪdəˈskɑ:pɪk/ adj ▪ kaleidoscopic patterns/variety

ka•mi•ka•ze /ˌkɑ:mɪˈkɑ:zi, Brit ˌkæmɪˈkɑ:zi/ noun, pl -zes [count] : one of a group of Japanese pilots in World War II who were assigned to crash their planes into their targets — usually used before another noun ▪ a kamikaze pilot ▪ a kamikaze attack/mission — often used figuratively ▪ kamikaze drivers [=reckless drivers] kan•ga•roo /ˌkæŋgəˈru:/ noun, pl -roos [count] : an Australian animal that moves by hopping on its powerful rear legs ✧ The female kangaroo has a pouch in which the young are carried.

kangaroo

kangaroo court noun, pl ~ courts [count] : a court that uses unfair methods or is not a proper court of law

ka•put /kəˈpʊt/ adj, not used before a noun, informal 1 : no longer working ▪ Our washing machine is kaput. [=broken] ▪ Our washing machine was working perfectly, and then suddenly it went kaput. [=it broke]
2 : no longer able to continue : completely ruined or defeated ▪ His career is kaput. [=finished, over]

kar•a•o•ke /ˌkeriˈoʊki/ noun [noncount] : a form of entertainment in which a device plays the music of popular songs and people sing the words to the songs they choose ▪ That bar has karaoke on Saturday night. — often used before another noun ▪ a karaoke bar/club/machine ▪ karaoke music

kar•at (US) or chiefly Brit car•at /ˈkerət/ noun, pl -ats [count] : a unit for measuring how pure a piece of gold is ▪ She was wearing an 18 karat gold bracelet. ▪ Pure gold is 24 karats. — abbr. K or k

ka•ra•te /kəˈrɑ:ti/ noun [noncount] : a form of fighting that was developed in Japan in which your feet and hands are used to kick and hit an opponent : a Japanese martial art — often used before another noun ▪ karate chops/kicks

kar•ma /ˈkɑəmə/ noun [noncount]
1 often Karma : the force created by a person's actions that is believed in Hinduism and Buddhism to determine what that person's next life will be like
2 informal : the force created by a person's actions that some people believe causes good or bad things to happen to that person ▪ She believes that helping people produces good karma.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

ka•ty•did /ˈkeɪtiˌdɪd/ noun, pl -dids [count] US : a large green insect that looks like a large grasshopper

kay•ak /ˈkaɪˌæk/ noun, pl -aks [count] : a long narrow boat that is pointed at both ends and that is moved by a paddle with two blades — see picture at BOAT; compare CANOE

ka•zoo /kəˈzu:/ noun, pl -zoos [count] : a toy musical instrument that is shaped like a short tube and that produces a buzzing sound when you hum into the smaller end of the tube ▪ play a kazoo

KB abbr kilobyte

KC abbr, Brit King's Counsel

ke•bab /kəˈbɑ:b, Brit kəˈbæb/ also chiefly US ka•bob /kəˈbɑ:b/ noun, pl ke•babs also ka•bobs [count] : a dish made by pushing a long, thin stick (called a skewer) through pieces of meat and vegetables and cooking them on a grill — called also shish kebab

[1]keel /ˈki:l/ noun, pl keels [count] : a long piece of wood or metal along the center of the bottom of a boat — see picture at BOAT on an even keel : strong and not likely to fail or get worse : in a stable condition ▪ They struggled to keep the company on an even keel during its early years. ▪ I'm trying to get back on an even keel [=to return to a normal life] now that the lawsuit is settled.

[2]keel verb keels; keeled; keel•ing

keel over [phrasal verb] informal : to fall down suddenly ▪ He just keeled over and died. We found out later that he'd had a heart attack. ▪ I almost keeled over with/in laughter.

[1]keen /ˈki:n/ adj keen•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having or showing an ability to think clearly and to understand what is not obvious or simple about something ▪ a keen intellect/intelligence/mind ▪ She's a very keen observer of the political world. ▪ She made some keen [=acute] observations. ▪ a keen wit

2 : very strong and sensitive : highly developed ▪ The dog has a keen sense of smell. = The dog has a keen nose. ▪ keen [=acute] eyesight/hearing ▪ She had a keen awareness of what was happening. [=she knew exactly what was happening] ▪ She has a keen ear for languages. [=she is able to easily learn and understand languages] ▪ He has a keen eye for details. [=he is good at noticing details]

3 a : very excited about and interested in something ▪ She's a keen tennis player. = She's keen about tennis. ▪ He's a keen student of art history. = He has a keen interest in art history. b : feeling a strong and impatient desire to do something ▪ He is keen [=eager] to learn more about art history.

4 : strong or intense ▪ After his death, she felt a keen [=profound] sense of loss. ▪ The two firms are in keen competition. ▪ (chiefly Brit) a keen wind

5 informal + old-fashioned : very good : WONDERFUL ▪ Gee, that's keen. ✧ This sense is now usually used in a playful or ironic way. — see also PEACHY KEEN

6 literary : having a sharp edge or point ▪ a keen knife/sword

7 Brit, of a price : very low ▪ They sell reliable products at very keen prices.

(as) keen as mustard Brit : very excited and interested : very enthusiastic ▪ I gave him the job because he was willing to learn and seemed as keen as mustard.

keen on 1 : very excited about and interested in (something) ▪ She's very keen on tennis. ▪ I'm not keen on that idea. [=I don't like that idea] ▪ (Brit) He's mad keen on golf. 2 chiefly Brit : interested in or attracted to (someone) ▪ He's been very keen on her since they met at my party.

– keen•ly adv ▪ They were keenly interested in how well I was doing. ▪ a keenly felt change ▪ The parents were keenly aware of the teacher's importance. – keen•ness /ˈki:nnəs/ noun [noncount] The keenness of the saw made cutting the board easier. [singular] a keenness of sight

[2]keen verb keens; keened; keen•ing [no obj] old-fashioned + literary : to make a loud and long cry of sorrow ▪ mourners keening at a funeral

[1]keep /ˈki:p/ verb keeps; kept /ˈkɛpt/; keep•ing

1 [+ obj] : to continue having or holding (something) : to not return, lose, sell, give away, or throw away (something) ▪ She's going to keep the money she found. ▪ I can't decide whether to sell my old car or keep it for another year. ▪ While the company laid off some employees, others had hopes of keeping their jobs. ▪ The shirt will keep [=retain] its shape after many washings. ▪ an actress who has kept her looks/beauty [=continued to be attractive/beautiful] as she has grown older ▪ "The fare is $4." "Here's $5. Keep the change." ▪ He struggled to keep his cool/composure. [=to remain calm; to not become upset or angry] ▪ He vowed to keep his silence about what he had seen. [=to not tell anyone about what he had seen]

2 a [linking verb] : to continue in a specified state, condition, or position ▪ I asked them to keep quiet. ▪ keep still/warm ▪ He vowed to keep silent about what he had seen. [=to not tell anyone about what he had seen] ▪ She likes to keep [=stay] busy. ▪ The program teaches kids how to keep safe near water. ▪ Have you kept in touch with your college roommate? [=have you continued to talk to or write to your college roommate?] b [+ obj] : to cause (someone or something) to continue in a specified state, condition, or position ▪ I tried to keep the children quiet during the ceremony. ▪ The local newspaper keeps people informed about what's happening in town. ▪ The article offers tips on how to keep kids safe near water. ▪ The movie will keep you on the edge of your seat. ▪ We need to keep costs under control. ▪ This scarf will help keep you warm. ▪ She keeps herself fit by jogging. ▪ He kept his hands behind his back while we were talking. ▪ Keep both hands on the steering wheel. ▪ It was so cold inside that I kept my coat on. ▪ I promise I'll keep your decision a secret. [=I will not tell anyone your decision] ▪ Keep the mixture chilled until you are ready to serve it.

3 [+ obj] a : to cause or force (someone) to stay in a place ▪ I won't keep you (here) much longer. ▪ The doctors want to keep me in (the hospital) for further tests. ▪ If you're in a hurry, don't let me keep you. ▪ keep a prisoner in jail ▪ She kept the children in the house during the storm. ▪ There was nothing to keep me in the city. b : to cause (someone) to be late ▪ You're late. What kept you? [=what delayed you?; why are you late?]

4 [+ obj] a : to do (something) continuously or again and again — + -ing verb ▪ The teacher asked them to be quiet, but they just kept talking. ▪ The rain kept falling all afternoon. ▪ The dog keeps running away. ▪ Keep walking/driving until you come to a traffic light. — often + on ▪ The band's music just keeps on getting better (and better). ▪ I'll never get this work done if you keep on interrupting me. b : to cause (someone or something) to do something continuously or again and again — + -ing verb ▪ She has a desire for success that keeps her striving to do better. ▪ His boss kept him waiting [=forced him to wait] for over an hour. ▪ They want to keep the company growing. — see also KEEP GOING (below)

5 [+ obj] a : to do what is required by (something, such as a promise) ▪ She always keeps her promises/word. [=she always does what she promises to do; she always does what she says she will do] ▪ He failed to keep his appointment. [=he did not go to his appointment; he missed his appointment] b : to not tell (a secret) ▪ I can keep a secret. ▪ a poorly kept secret [=a secret that has been told to many people] ▪ a well-kept secret [=a secret that has not been told to people] c somewhat formal : to act properly in relation to (something) ▪ He keeps [=observes] the Sabbath. ▪ They keep kosher.

6 [+ obj] a : to store (something) in a specified place ▪ They keep the ketchup in the refrigerator. ▪ I keep my socks in a drawer. ▪ The sheets are kept in the closet. ▪ He keeps his wallet in his back pocket. b : to have or hold (something) for later use instead of using it now ▪ We'll eat some of the cookies now and keep [=save] some for later. ▪ I'll keep my news until later. [=I'll tell you my news later] ▪ (Brit) Would you keep [=(US) save] a seat for me?

7 [no obj] of food : to continue to be in a good condition ▪ Carrots and potatoes keep well. ▪ The meat will keep in the freezer for several months. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I have something to tell you, but it will keep. [=I can tell you later]

8 [+ obj] formal : to protect (someone) ▪ May the Lord bless you and keep you. — usually + from ▪ May the Lord keep you from harm.

9 [+ obj] : to produce (something, such as a journal or record) by putting information in a book, document, etc., over a period of time ▪ She kept a diary/journal. ▪ He keeps a detailed record of all his purchases. ▪ She keeps a list of books for future reading.

10 [+ obj] a : to take care of (something) ▪ keep [=tend] a garden ▪ We kept chickens and goats when I was a child. b : to operate (something, such as a business) : MANAGE ▪ They keep [=(more commonly) run] a bed-and-breakfast. ▪ (chiefly Brit) keep a shop

11 [+ obj] somewhat old-fashioned a : to have (something) available for use ▪ He keeps a car even though he lives in the city. b : to have a continuing sexual relationship with (someone who is not your husband or wife) ▪ a married man

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

who keeps a mistress ▪ She never married but she kept a lover for years. ▪ a kept man/woman [=a man/woman who is kept as a lover by someone]

How are you keeping? Brit — used to ask if someone feels good, bad, happy, well, etc. ▪ "How are you keeping [=how are you doing], Jill?" "Oh, pretty well, thanks."

keep after [phrasal verb] 1 keep after (someone) informal : to tell (someone) again and again to do something ▪ My kids kept after me to quit smoking, so I finally did. ▪ I wasn't going to audition, but my friends kept after me. 2 keep (someone) after US : to require (a student) to stay at school after classes have ended ▪ The teacher kept him after (school) for misbehaving in class.

keep at [phrasal verb] 1 keep at it : to continue doing or trying to do something ▪ If you keep at it long enough you'll succeed. ▪ The project was difficult, but we kept at it and eventually it was done. 2 keep (someone) at it : to force or cause (someone) to continue doing something ▪ The coach kept us (hard) at it until late afternoon.

keep back [phrasal verb] 1 : to not go near something ▪ The police asked the spectators to keep back. [=stay back] ▪ The guide told us to keep back from the edge of the cliff. 2 keep (someone) back or keep back (someone) a : to not allow (someone) to go near something ▪ The police kept the spectators back. b US : to not allow (a student) to advance to the next grade level — usually used as (be) kept back ▪ Students who fail the exam may be kept back a year. c Brit : to require (a student) to stay at school after classes have ended ▪ She was kept back [=(US) kept after, kept after school] for talking in class. 3 keep (something) back or keep back (something) : to not allow (something) to appear or be known ▪ He struggled to keep back his tears. [=he tried hard not to cry] ▪ The government kept back [=withheld] some crucial information from the media.

keep company [phrasal verb] 1 keep company with (someone) : to spend time with (someone) — usually used figuratively ▪ In her garden, roses keep company with lilies. 2 keep (someone) company : to spend time with (someone who would be alone if you were not there) ▪ I'll keep you company while you wait for the train.

keep down [phrasal verb] 1 : to stay close to the ground or floor ▪ The soldiers were ordered to keep down. [=stay down] 2 keep (someone) down : to prevent (someone) from succeeding, winning, etc. ▪ You can't keep a good man down. [=you can't prevent a good or talented person from succeeding] 3 keep (something) down or keep down (something) a : to prevent (something) from increasing or rising ▪ The company is trying to keep down costs/expenses/prices. ▪ She watered the path to keep the dust down. b : to prevent (something) from coming up from your stomach and into your mouth again ▪ He was so ill that he could only keep down a small amount of food. 4 keep it down — used to ask someone to be quiet ▪ Please keep it down in there. I'm trying to study.

keep from [phrasal verb] 1 keep from (doing something) or keep (someone or something) from (doing something) : to not do or experience (something) : to prevent or stop (someone or something) from doing or experiencing (something) ▪ She found it hard to keep from laughing. [=she found it hard not to laugh] ▪ She's been trying to keep herself from eating too much candy. ▪ An umbrella will keep you from getting wet. ▪ It's difficult to keep from feeling worried about this situation. ▪ He was anxious to keep his son from getting into trouble. ▪ Her happy nature kept her from worrying. ▪ I don't want to keep you from (doing) your work. = I don't want to keep you from working. ▪ She tied the knot tightly to keep it from loosening. ▪ The company has taken steps to keep the building from being broken into again. ▪ It was hard to keep from [=avoid] confusing the twins. 2 keep (something) from (someone) : to not tell (something) to (someone) ▪ What information are you keeping from me? [=what information are you not telling me?] ▪ They think the government is keeping [=withholding] the truth from us.

keep going [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue moving forward ▪ He walked right past me and just kept going. 2 : to continue doing something ▪ I was ready to give up on the search, but they convinced me to keep going. [=to continue searching] 3 keep (someone) going : to make (someone) able to continue doing something at a difficult time ▪ I don't know what keeps her going after all these years. ▪ Their grandson is the only thing keeping them going. 4 keep (something) going : to cause (something) to continue to exist or function ▪ They tried everything they could think of to keep the business going. ▪ He kept the conversation going.

keep house see [1]HOUSE

keep in [phrasal verb] 1 keep (something) in : to not show or express (something, such as an emotion) ▪ You shouldn't keep your anger in all the time. 2 keep (someone) in (something) : to continue to provide (someone) with (something needed or wanted) ▪ It's very expensive keeping my children in clothes that fit. 3 keep in with (someone) chiefly Brit : to remain friendly with (someone) ▪ She's always kept in with the people with power.

keep off [phrasal verb] 1 keep off (something) or keep (someone or something) off (something) : to stop or prevent (someone or something) from being on (something) ▪ Keep [=stay] off the grass. [=do not walk on the grass] ▪ Please keep the dog off the sofa. 2 keep (weight) off : to continue to weigh a lower amount than you formerly weighed : to not regain weight that you have lost ▪ She has managed to keep (most of) the weight off for two years. ▪ Losing weight is not as hard as keeping it off. 3 a keep off (something) : to not talk about (something) ▪ I think we'd better keep off [=avoid] the subject of the war. b keep (someone) off (something) : to prevent (someone) from talking about (something) ▪ We tried to keep them off (the subject of) the war.

keep on [phrasal verb] 1 informal : to continue happening, doing something, working, etc. ▪ The rain kept on [=kept up] throughout the day. ▪ He talked and talked. At one point I thought he would keep on all night. 2 keep (someone) on : to continue to have (someone) as an employee ▪ The chef was kept on even after the restaurant was sold. 3 keep on at (someone) chiefly Brit, informal : to say the same thing to (someone) again and again in a way that is annoying ▪ My parents kept on at me to go back to college.

keep out [phrasal verb] 1 : to not enter a place ▪ The sign on the door said "Keep out!" 2 keep out of (something) a : to not enter (a place) ▪ We were told to keep out of his office. ▪ Please keep [=stay] out of the way. b : to not become involved in (something) ▪ This argument doesn't involve you, so you should just keep [=stay] out of it. 3 keep out (someone or something) or keep (someone or something) out (of a place) : to stop or prevent (someone or something) from entering (a place) ▪ The curtains help keep out the drafts. ▪ Keep the cat out of the bedroom.

keep pace with see [1]PACE

keep score see [1]SCORE

keep tabs on see [1]TAB

keep the faith see FAITH

keep time see [1]TIME

keep to [phrasal verb] 1 keep to (something) a : to stay in or on (something) : to not leave (something) ▪ He kept to the house most of the time. ▪ She keeps to the main roads when she travels. b : to not go beyond (something) ▪ He tried to keep [=stick] to his budget. c : to act or behave in the way required by (something) ▪ keep to [=abide by, obey] the rules of the game d : to not move away from or change (something) ▪ I wish you'd just keep to [=stick to] the point. ▪ They kept to their story. 2 keep to yourself a or chiefly Brit keep yourself to yourself : to stay apart from other people : to avoid other people ▪ She was a shy girl who kept pretty much to herself. b keep (something) to yourself : to keep (something) secret ▪ He knew what the facts were but kept them to himself. [=he did not tell anyone what the facts were] ▪ She likes to keep things to herself.

keep track see [1]TRACK

keep up [phrasal verb] 1 : to go or make progress at the same rate as others : to stay even with others in a race, competition, etc. ▪ The leader began to run faster, and the other runners found it hard to keep up. — often + with ▪ The other runners struggled to keep up with the leader. ▪ He found it difficult to keep up with the rest of the class. 2 : to continue to know the newest information about something ▪ There is so much happening in the world now that I find it hard to keep up. [=stay informed] ▪ I find it hard to keep up on/with the news. 3 : to continue happening ▪ The rain kept up all night. ▪ The gunfire kept up for a long time. 4 keep up with (someone) informal : to continue to talk to or write to (someone) ▪ She still keeps up with [=keeps in touch with] her old friends from college. 5 keep (someone) up : to prevent (someone) from sleeping ▪ I hope our party didn't keep you up all night! 6 keep (something) up or keep up (something) a : to continue doing (something) ▪ Keep up the good work. ▪ Keep that up

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

and you'll get into trouble! b : to prevent (something) from getting worse, weaker, etc. ▪ We need to keep standards up. ▪ Keep your spirits up! ▪ The house had been kept up [=maintained] nicely. ▪ You need to exercise more to keep your strength up. c ✧ If you keep up your end of something (such as a bargain or agreement) you do what you have promised or agreed to do. ▪ I'm never sure if she will keep up her end of the deal.

keep up appearances see APPEARANCE

keep up with the Joneses see JONESES

keep your chin up see CHIN

keep your distance see [1]DISTANCE

keep your head see [1]HEAD

[2]keep noun, pl keeps [count] : the strongest part of a castle built in the Middle Ages

for keeps informal 1 : forever or permanently ▪ He moved back to the city for keeps. [=for good] 2 : with the understanding that you may keep what you win ▪ playing marbles for keeps your keep : the amount of money you need to pay for food, clothing, a place to live, etc. — used in the phrase earn your keep ▪ She's been living off her parents long enough. It's time for her to get a job and start earning her keep.

keep•er /'ki:pɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 a : a person whose job is to guard or take care of something or someone ▪ a lion keeper ▪ " . . . am I my brother's keeper?" —Genesis 4:9 (KJV) — see also DOORKEEPER, GAMEKEEPER, GATEKEEPER, SHOPKEEPER, STOREKEEPER, ZOOKEEPER b Brit : CURATOR

2 US, informal : something or someone that is worth keeping : something or someone that is good, valuable, etc. ▪ Hold on to that boyfriend of yours—he's a keeper!

3 : GOALKEEPER

4 American football : a play in which the quarterback runs with the ball ▪ The quarterback gained five yards on a keeper.

finders keepers (losers weepers) see FINDER

keep•ing /'ki:pɪŋ/ noun

in keeping with 1 a : agreeing with or sharing important qualities with (something) ▪ The decorations in the house are in (perfect) keeping with her personality. ▪ The book is in keeping with novels of the time. [=it is like novels written around that same time] b : in a way that agrees with, obeys, or matches (something) ▪ In keeping with the overall design of the park, the playground will remain small. ▪ The new bus station offers wireless Internet access in keeping with the expectations of modern travelers.

in your keeping ✧ If someone or something is in your keeping, you are expected to protect or take care of that person or thing ▪ What happened to the money that had been left in his keeping? [=(more commonly) in his care] out of keeping with : not agreeing with or sharing important qualities with (something) ▪ Her comments revealed a nervousness that seemed out of keeping with her calm appearance. ▪ The modern décor was out of keeping with the church's architecture.

keep•sake /'ki:p,seɪk/ noun, pl -sakes [count] : something that you keep to help you remember a person, place, or event : a memento or souvenir ▪ We were given books as keepsakes of the trip.

keg /'kɛg/ noun, pl kegs [count]

1 : a barrel for holding or serving something (such as beer) ▪ We bought a keg (of beer) for the party. — see also POWDER KEG

2 : the amount of something contained in a keg ▪ They drank an entire keg of beer.

keg•ger /'kɛgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] US, informal : a party at which people drink beer from a keg — called also keg party

kelp /'kɛlp/ noun [noncount] : a type of brown seaweed ▪ a bed of kelp

Kel•vin /'kɛlvən/ adj, technical : relating to or having a scale for measuring temperature on which the boiling point of water is at 373.1 degrees above zero and the freezing point is at 273.15 degrees above zero ▪ the Kelvin scale ▪ a temperature of 200 degrees Kelvin — abbr. K; compare CELSIUS, FAHRENHEIT

ken /'kɛn/ noun

beyond someone's ken : not within the range of what someone knows or understands ▪ These changes occurred for reasons that are beyond my ken. [=reasons that I do not know or understand] ▪ miracles that are beyond human ken [=miracles that cannot be understood by human beings]

ken•nel /'kɛnl/ noun, pl -nels [count]

1 : a place where dogs are kept while their owners are away ▪ While I was on vacation my dog went to a kennel. — called also (Brit) kennels; compare CATTERY

2 : a container or very small building for a dog or cat to sleep or stay in kept past tense and past participle of [1]KEEP

kerb, kerbside Brit spelling of [1]CURB 1, CURBSIDE

ker•chief /'kɚ·tʃəf/ noun, pl -chiefs [count] : a square piece of cloth that is worn around your neck or as a covering for your head

ker•nel /'kɚnl/ noun, pl -nels [count]

1 a : the small, somewhat soft part inside a seed or nut b : a whole seed; especially : one of the yellow seeds that cover an ear of corn ▪ a kernel of corn — see color picture on page C4

2 : a very small amount of something ▪ There's not a kernel of truth in what they say. ▪ kernels of wisdom

3 : the origin or basis of something ▪ the kernel [=germ] of the idea for the book

ker•o•sene /'kerə,si:n/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a type of oil that is burned as a fuel — often used before another noun ▪ a kerosene heater/lamp — called also (Brit) paraffin

ketch /'kɛtʃ/ noun, pl ketch•es [count] : a type of sailboat that has two masts ketch•up /'kɛtʃəp/ noun, pl -ups [count, noncount] : a thick sauce made with tomatoes ▪ a bottle of ketchup ▪ She put ketchup on her hamburger. — called also tomato ketchup

ket•tle /'kɛtl/ noun, pl ket•tles [count] : a container used for heating or boiling liquid ▪ a soup kettle; especially : TEAKETTLE ▪ Put the kettle on (the stove) so we can have a cup of tea. ▪ The kettle is boiling. [=the water in the kettle is boiling] — see picture at KITCHEN

kettle of fish informal 1 : a bad situation : MESS ▪ Well, this is a fine/nice/pretty kettle of fish. 2 : something or someone that is being considered or dealt with ▪ I have experience in domestic law, but international law is another kettle of fish. [=matter]

ket•tle•drum /'kɛtl,drʌm/ noun, pl -drums [count] : a large drum that has a rounded bottom — see picture at PERCUSSION

[1]key /'ki:/ noun, pl keys [count]

1 a : a device that is used to open a lock or start an automobile ✧ The usual type of key is a small metal object that you insert into a narrow opening and turn. ▪ You need the key to get into the drawer. ▪ She turned the key and opened the door. ▪ house/car keys ▪ the ignition key of a car ▪ the key to the lock — often used figuratively ▪ That woman holds the key to his heart. — see also LATCHKEY, PASSKEY, SKELETON KEY b : a device that looks like a key and that is used to turn something ▪ a key for winding a clock

2 : something that is necessary in order to do or achieve something — usually singular ▪ If you want to improve your health, exercise is the key. — usually + to ▪ The key to hitting the ball well is following through on your stroke. ▪ Hard work is the key to success.

3 a : something that provides an explanation or solution — usually + to ▪ the key to a riddle b : a list of words or phrases that explain the meaning of symbols or abbreviations ▪ Use the key to decode the symbols. ▪ a pronunciation key

4 a : any one of the buttons of a computer or typewriter that you push with your fingers ▪ He tapped away at the keys, typing his letter. — see picture at COMPUTER; see also FUNCTION KEY, SHIFT KEY b : any one of the parts that you push with your fingers to play a piano or similar musical instrument ▪ She sat down at the piano and put her hands on the keys.

5 music : a system of musical tones based on a scale beginning on the note for which the system is named ▪ the key of C ▪ The symphony changes key from G major to E minor.

under lock and key see [2]LOCK

– compare [4]KEY

[2]key adj : extremely important ▪ He's a key player/person in the organization. ▪ The key question is "Can we afford it?" ▪ Underline key words and phrases as you read. ▪ Their votes were key in getting the bill passed.

[3]key verb keys; keyed; key•ing [+ obj]

1 : to enter (information) by using the keys of a computer, typewriter, etc. ▪ The changes to the manuscript are being keyed by the typist. — often + in ▪ In order to gain access to the network, you first have to key in [=type in] your name and password. — often + into ▪ The cashier keyed each price into the cash register.

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

2 US, informal : to have the most important part in (something) ▪ Defense keyed the victory.
key to [phrasal verb] chiefly US 1 key (something) to (something or someone) : to make (something) suitable for (a particular use or type of person) ▪ I try to key my lectures to my audience. — often used as (be) keyed to ▪ The educational program is keyed to the needs of working women. 2 key (something) to (something) : to change (something) in a way that is closely related to (something else) — usually used as (be) keyed to ▪ The amount of money they receive is keyed to the rate of inflation. [=the amount increases or decreases if the rate of inflation increases or decreases] ▪ Diets are keyed to a person's lifestyle and weight-loss goal.

[4]key noun, pl keys
1 [count] : a low island or reef
2 the Keys : a group of small islands off the southern coast of Florida
– compare [1]KEY

[1]key•board /ˈkiːˌbɔəd/ noun, pl -boards [count]
1 a : a row or set of keys that are pushed to play a musical instrument (such as a piano) — sometimes used before another noun ▪ The piano is a keyboard instrument. b : a musical instrument that is played by means of a keyboard like that of a piano and that produces sounds electronically ▪ She plays the keyboard. — often plural ▪ She plays keyboards.
2 : the set of keys that are used for a computer or typewriter — see picture at COMPUTER keyboard instruments

organ

[2]keyboard verb -boards; -board•ed; board•ing : to enter (information) into a computer by using a keyboard [+ obj] keyboard [=key] a manuscript [no obj] learning how to keyboard
– key•board•er noun, pl -ers [count] – keyboarding noun [noncount] ▪ He is taking a class in keyboarding.

key•board•ist /ˈkiːˌbɔəɹɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a musician who plays a keyboard (sense 1b)

key chain noun, pl ~ chains [count] : a device that is used to hold keys and that usually consists of a metal ring, a short chain, and a small decoration — called also key ring

keyed up adj [more ~; most ~] informal : excited or nervous ▪ The students were all keyed up for the test. ▪ I was too keyed up to sleep.

key•hole /ˈkiːˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : the opening in a lock into which a key is placed — see picture at DOOR

key lime noun, pl ~ limes [count] : a small lime that is grown especially in the Florida Keys ▪ key lime pie [=a sweet pie that is usually made with key limes]

key•note /ˈkiːˌnoʊt/ noun, pl -notes [count] : the most important idea or part of something ▪ Humor is the keynote of the play.

keynote address noun, pl ~ -dresses [count] : the main speech given at a gathering (such as a political convention) ▪ Many of the convention guests left after the keynote address. — called also keynote speech

key•not•er /ˈkiːˌnoʊɾəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : KEYNOTE SPEAKER

keynote speaker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who gives a keynote address ▪ Senator Williams was the keynote speaker at the convention. — called also keynoter

key•pad /ˈkiːˌpæd/ noun, pl -pads [count] : a set of keys or buttons for entering information into a calculator, telephone, etc. ▪ a numeric keypad [=a set of keys or buttons that have numbers on them] — see picture at TELEPHONE

key ring noun, pl ~ rings [count] : KEY CHAIN

key•stone /ˈkiːˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count]
1 : a large stone at the top of an arch that locks the other stones in place
2 : something on which other things depend for support ▪ Tourism is the city's economic keystone. ▪ the keystone of his faith

key•stroke /ˈkiːˌstɹoʊk/ noun, pl -strokes [count] : the act of pushing down a key on a keyboard ▪ He deleted all of my work with a single keystroke.

key•word /ˈkiːˌwəd/ noun, pl -words [count] : a word that is used to find information in a piece of writing, in a computer document, or on the Internet ▪ She typed the keywords "Medieval" and "medicine" into the search engine and pulled up a lot of results. ▪ a keyword search of the database kg abbr kilogram

KGB abbr ✧ KGB is the abbreviation of the Russian name for the former Soviet organization responsible for national security and for collecting information about other countries or foreign groups. ▪ a member of the KGB

kha•ki /ˈkæki, ˈkɑːki/ noun, pl -kis
1 [noncount] : a yellowish-brown cloth ▪ a military uniform made of khaki — often used before another noun ▪ khaki pants
2 khakis [plural] : pants made of khaki ▪ a pair of khakis
3 [noncount] : a yellowish-brown color — see color picture on page C3

kHz abbr kilohertz

kib•butz /kɪˈbʊts/ noun, pl kib•but•zim /kɪˌbʊtˈsiːm/ [count] : a farm in Israel on which a group of people live and work together ki•bitz /ˈkɪbəts/ verb -bitz•es; -bitzed; -bitz•ing US, informal 1 [no obj] : to talk to someone in a friendly and informal way : CHAT ▪ They sat around kibitzing about their children.

2 : to watch other people and make unwanted comments about what they are doing [no obj] My uncle likes to kibitz when I play poker with my cousins. [+ obj] He likes to kibitz our poker games.
– ki•bitz•er /ˈkɪbətsəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a kibitzer at a card game

ki•bosh /ˈkaɪˌbɑːʃ/ noun
put the kibosh on informal : to stop or end (something) : to prevent (something) from happening or continuing ▪ His mother put the kibosh on his smoking habit. [=his mother forced him to stop smoking]

[1]kick /ˈkɪk/ verb kicks; kicked; kick•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to hit (someone or something) with your foot ▪ The attacker kicked him in the stomach. ▪ She lost her temper and kicked over the box. ▪ He kicked the ball into the goal. ▪ She kicked the ball to me. ▪ The policeman kicked the door open. b : to move your leg or legs in the air or in water especially in a strong or forceful way [+ obj] The baby kicked his legs in the air. ▪ The swimming instructor reminded the children to kick their legs as they swam. [no obj] The baby kicked with pleasure. ▪ The boy kicked and screamed as his mother carried him out of the room. = The boy was carried out of the room kicking and screaming. — often used figuratively ▪ They told him he needed a computer, but he had to be dragged kicking and screaming into the 21st century. [=he had to be forced to stop doing things the old way and use a computer]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

2 [+ obj] sports : to score (a goal) by kicking a ball ▪ He kicked the winning field goal.

3 [+ obj] informal : to completely stop doing (something harmful to yourself) : to put an end to (a bad or dangerous habit) ▪ When he was 25, he kicked his cocaine habit and went back to school. ▪ I've been smoking for years, but this year I'm determined to kick the habit.

4 [no obj] informal : to be full of life and energy — always used as (be) kicking ▪ He's almost 90 years old, but he's still kicking. ▪ The movement is still alive and kicking.

kick around [phrasal verb] informal 1 kick around (a place) or kick around : to spend time in (a place) without having a goal or purpose : to wander around (a place) ▪ After graduation, he kicked around Boston for a while, trying to decide what to do next. = After graduation, he kicked around for a while, trying to decide what to do next. 2 : to be lying somewhere within a general area or place ▪ I think I have a copy of that book kicking around [=lying around] somewhere in my house. 3 a : to be considered or discussed in an informal way over a period of time ▪ These ideas have been kicking around for years. b kick around (something) or kick (something) around : to consider or talk about (ideas, plans, etc.) in an informal way ▪ We should have a meeting to kick around some ideas about possible new products. 4 kick (someone) around or kick around (someone) : to treat (someone) in a very bad or unfair way ▪ He gets kicked around by his older brother.

kick ass US, informal + impolite 1 : to succeed or win in a very impressive way ▪ a lawyer who kicks ass in the courtroom ▪ Our team kicked ass in the soccer tournament. 2 : to use force to achieve some purpose ▪ If they don't start answering my questions, I'm going to go over there and kick some ass. 3 kick someone's ass a : to attack and injure someone severely ▪ Some drunk threatened to kick his ass. ▪ He got his ass kicked by some drunk. b : to defeat someone easily or completely ▪ We got our asses kicked [=we lost badly] in the last game. — see also KICK-ASS kick back [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal : to relax and enjoy yourself ▪ After work, he likes to kick back and watch some TV. ▪ I spent the weekend just kicking back.

kick butt US, informal + sometimes impolite — used in the same ways as kick ass (above) ▪ Our team kicked butt in the soccer tournament. ▪ I'm going to go over there and kick some butt. ▪ Some drunk threatened to kick his butt.

kick in [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to begin to work or to have an effect ▪ Once the heat kicks in, it will be a lot more comfortable in here. ▪ waiting for the new law to kick in 2 kick in (something) or kick (something) in US : to give (an amount of money) as your share : CONTRIBUTE ▪ We each kicked in a few dollars for her gift.

kick off [phrasal verb] 1 : to start play in a game (such as American football or soccer) by kicking the ball ▪ Jones will kick off from the 30-yard line. — see also KICKOFF 2 a kick off (something) or kick (something) off : to begin (something, such as a performance, an event, or a discussion) ▪ The chairman's speech will kick off the conference. b : to get started : BEGIN ▪ The conference kicked off with a speech by the chairman. ▪ The game kicks off at 1:00. 3 kick (someone) off (something) : to force (someone) to leave (a team or group) ▪ The coach threatened to kick him off the team if he continued to be late for practice. 4 kick off (your shoes) or kick (your shoes) off : to remove (your shoes) by making a kicking motion ▪ She kicked off her shoes and started to dance. 5 informal : to die ▪ I was so sick that I felt like I might kick off at any time.

kick out [phrasal verb] kick (someone) out or kick out (someone) : to force (someone) to leave a place, group, school, etc. ▪ He was/got kicked out [=thrown out] of the school when he was caught cheating again. ▪ They threatened to kick him out (of the bar) if he didn't stop annoying people. ▪ She kicked her husband out (of the house).

kick (someone) upstairs informal : to promote (someone) to a higher but less powerful or important position ▪ He was kicked upstairs, given a fancy title, and stripped of most of his power.

kick the bucket informal + somewhat old-fashioned : to die ▪ He inherited the house after his uncle kicked the bucket.

kick up [phrasal verb] 1 kick up (something) or kick (something) up : to cause (something) to rise upward ▪ The car sped away, kicking up dirt and gravel. 2 informal a kick up (something) or kick (something) up : to cause (something) to become stronger ▪ The praise kicked up her confidence. ▪ The intensity of the game got kicked up a notch when a fight broke out. b : to become stronger ▪ The wind suddenly kicked up. 3 kick up (something) or kick (something) up informal : to cause (something) to happen ▪ The high winds kicked up huge waves. ▪ The service in the restaurant wasn't very good, but we decided not to kick up a fuss/stink [=complain] about it.

kick up your heels US, informal : to relax and enjoy yourself : to have a good and lively time ▪ After exams were over, the students had a little time to kick up their heels.

kick yourself informal : to blame or criticize yourself for something you have done ▪ You've got to stop kicking yourself. It wasn't your fault that the project failed. ▪ He was kicking himself for having forgotten the meeting. ▪ He could have kicked himself [=he was very angry at himself] when he realized that he had forgotten the meeting.

[2]kick noun, pl kicks [count]

1 a : an act of hitting someone or something with your foot ▪ He gave me a kick in the leg. ▪ If you give the machine a little kick, it should start working again. : a sudden forceful movement with your foot ▪ a karate kick b : an act of hitting a ball with your foot ▪ a soccer kick ▪ a long kick in football — see also CORNER KICK, DROPKICK, FREE KICK, PENALTY KICK, PLACEKICK

2 a : a sudden forceful movement — usually singular ▪ I felt the kick of the engine when it started. ▪ The rifle has a powerful kick. b informal : a quality that produces a sudden powerful effect — usually singular ▪ The drink has a kick [=a strong effect from alcohol] to it. ▪ chili with a kick [=a very hot and spicy flavor]

3 informal : a feeling or source of pleasure ▪ She gets a kick out of watching old movies. [=she enjoys watching old movies] ▪ I got a kick out of seeing her again. = Seeing her again was a kick. ▪ We play for kicks [=for enjoyment], not for money. ▪ He gets his kicks from embarrassing his teammates. [=he enjoys embarrassing his teammates]

4 informal — used with on to say that someone is doing a lot of something for usually a brief period of time ▪ He's been on a health-food kick lately. [=he has been eating a lot of health food lately]

5 : an increase in speed at the end of the race ▪ a runner who has a strong finishing kick

a kick in the teeth informal : something that is very shocking and disappointing ▪ Losing that game was a real kick in the teeth.

kick–ass /ˈkɪkˌæs/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal + impolite

1 : very tough and aggressive ▪ a kick-ass career woman who is determined to get to the top ▪ an executive with a kick-ass attitude/style

2 : very good or impressive ▪ a kick-ass stereo/movie/song — see also kick ass at [1]KICK kick•back /ˈkɪkˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] : an amount of money that is given to someone in return for providing help in a secret and dishonest business deal ▪ Several company executives were accused of accepting kickbacks.

kick•ball /ˈkɪkˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] US : a game for children that is like baseball but that is played with a large rubber ball that is kicked instead of being hit with a bat kick•box•ing /ˈkɪkˌbɑːksɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a form of boxing in which fighters are allowed to kick each other with their bare feet

kick•er /ˈkɪkə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a person who kicks something; especially : a person who specializes in kicking the ball in a sport like American football

2 [singular] US, informal : a sudden and surprising occurrence, remark, etc. ▪ The real kicker came when the chairman announced that he was quitting.

kick•off /ˈkɪkˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]

1 : a kick that starts play in a game (such as American football or soccer) ▪ a long kickoff ▪ The kickoff (of the game) is at 1:00. [=the game begins at 1:00]

2 : the start of something ▪ At his campaign kickoff, the senator gave a passionate speech about combating poverty. ▪ His speech marked the kickoff of his campaign. — see also kick off at [1]KICK kick•stand /ˈkɪkˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] : a metal

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

bar on a bicycle or motorcycle that swings down to hold it in an upright position when it is not in use kick–start /ˈkɪkˌstɑɚt/ verb -starts; -start•ed; -start•ing [+ obj]

1 : to start (a motorcycle) by pushing down on a lever with your foot
2 a : to cause (something) to start quickly ▪ Advertising can help to kick-start [=jump-start] a political campaign. b : to give new energy to (something) ▪ a plan to kick-start [=jump-start] the economy – kick–start noun, pl -starts [count] ▪ a plan to give the economy a kick-start

[1]kid /ˈkɪd/ noun, pl kids
1 [count] informal a : a son or daughter : CHILD ▪ She has to leave early and pick up her kids at school. ▪ He has a wife and two kids. b : a young person ▪ I loved to play hopscotch when I was a kid. [=child] ▪ I wish I could do something to help that poor kid. ▪ I know he seems very mature, but he's really still just a kid. [=he's still very young] ▪ a bunch of college kids [=young people who are attending college] — sometimes used as a form of address ▪ Hey, kid! ▪ You'd better listen to me, kid, because I'm not going to say this twice.
2 a [count] : a young goat b [noncount] : a soft leather made from the skin of a young goat ▪ gloves made of kid ▪ kid leather new kid on the block : someone who has recently joined a particular group ▪ I was the new kid on the block, having just been hired the week before.
– see also KID GLOVES

[2]kid adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : younger ▪ my kid brother/sister [=my brother/sister who is younger than I am]

[3]kid verb kids; kid•ded; kid•ding informal
1 : to speak to (someone) in a way that is not serious : to say things that are not true to (someone) in a joking way [+ obj] It's the truth. I wouldn't kid you about something so important. ▪ I'm not kidding you when I say that this is one of the best meals I've ever eaten. ▪ I panicked when he said the test was tomorrow, but then I realized he was just kidding me. ▪ The test is tomorrow? You must be kidding me! ▪ "The test is tomorrow." "Are you kidding me?!" "I kid you not." [=I am not kidding you] [no obj] Don't be offended by what he said. He was just/only kidding. — often + around ▪ I'm not really angry—I'm just kidding around.
2 [+ obj] : to make fun of (someone) in a friendly way : TEASE ▪ We kidded her about her old car.
3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a joking way ▪ "I might eat this whole pie by myself," she kidded. ▪ She kidded that she might eat the whole pie by herself.
kid yourself : to fail to admit the truth to yourself : to deceive yourself ▪ If you think he'll help us, you're just kidding yourself. ▪ "I think he'll help us if we ask him." "Don't kid yourself—he's only interested in his own problems."
no kidding informal 1 — used to emphasize the truth of a statement ▪ No kidding, the test is tomorrow. 2 — used to ask if a statement is really true ▪ "The test is tomorrow." "No kidding?" 3 — used to show that you are surprised by or interested in what has been said. ▪ "My brother got engaged last month." "No kidding! That's great news!" — often used in an ironic way in response to a statement that is regarded as very obvious ▪ "If we don't start going faster, we're not going to finish on time." "Gee, no kidding."
– kid•der noun, pl -ders [count] ▪ He's quite a kidder. [=he likes to kid around]

kid•die also kid•dy /ˈkɪdi/ noun, pl -dies [count] informal : a young child ▪ It's a scary movie that might not be appropriate for the kiddies. — often used before another noun ▪ a kiddie movie [=a movie intended for small children] ▪ a kiddie pool for the toddlers kid•do /ˈkɪdoʊ/ noun, chiefly US, informal — used by an adult to speak to a young person ▪ Pay attention to me, kiddo, or you're going to get hurt!

kid gloves noun
with kid gloves : in a very gentle or careful way : with special care in order to avoid causing damage or offense ▪ He's very temperamental and needs to be treated with kid gloves. ▪ School reform is a sensitive issue, and many politicians treat it with kid gloves.
– kid–glove /ˈkɪdˈglʌv/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ Many politicians give the issue the kid-glove treatment.

kid•nap /ˈkɪdˌnæp/ verb -naps; -napped also US -naped; -nap•ping also US -nap•ing [+ obj] : to take away (someone) by force usually in order to keep the person as a prisoner and demand money for returning the person ▪ She had been kidnapped (from her home).
– kid•nap•per also US kid•nap•er noun, pl -nap•pers also US -nap•ers [count] ▪ The kidnapper demanded one million dollars in ransom. – kidnapping also US kid•naping noun [noncount] He was found guilty of kidnapping. [count] There have been several recent kidnappings.

kid•ney /ˈkɪdni/ noun, pl -neys [count]
1 : either of two organs in your body that remove waste products from your blood and make urine ▪ a patient with a damaged kidney — often used before another noun ▪ kidney failure ▪ a kidney transplant — see picture at HUMAN
2 : an animal kidney used as food ▪ steak and kidney pie kidney bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a type of large and dark red bean kidney stone noun, pl ~ stones [count] medical : a hard object like a small stone that sometimes forms in a kidney and that can cause great pain kid stuff or kid's stuff noun [noncount] informal 1 : something that is suited only for children ▪ toys and other kid stuff

2 : something that is very simple or easy ▪ It's time to cut out the kid's stuff and get down to business.

kike /ˈkaɪk/ noun, pl kikes [count] informal + offensive : a Jewish person ✧ The word kike is very offensive and should be avoided.

[1]kill /ˈkɪl/ verb kills; killed; kill•ing
1 : to cause the death of (a person, animal, or plant) : to end the life of (someone or something) [+ obj] This poison kills rats. ▪ The disease has killed thousands of people. ▪ Three people were killed in the accident. ▪ a chemical that kills weeds ▪ In despair he threatened to kill himself. [=to commit suicide] ▪ If he keeps working this hard, he's going to kill himself. [=he's going to have health problems that cause his death] — often used figuratively ▪ My father will kill me [=he will be very angry] when he finds out that I dented the car. ▪ I'll finish this job if it kills me! [=I am very determined to finish this job] ▪ It wouldn't kill you to help me clean up the kitchen. = Would it kill you to help me clean up the kitchen? [=you should help me clean up the kitchen] [no obj] Drunk driving kills. ▪ a disease that can kill ▪ I've never seen her so angry. If looks could kill, I'd be dead right now. [=she looked at me in a very angry way] — often used figuratively ▪ I'd kill for hair like hers! [=I wish I had hair like hers]
2 [+ obj] : to cause the end of (something) ▪ If she enters the contest, it will kill [=destroy] our chances of winning. ▪ She took an aspirin to kill [=stop] her headache. ▪ taking drugs to kill the pain ▪ Despite protests, the mayor killed the program. ▪ The committee killed the bill. ▪ This delay has killed our chances of finishing the project on schedule. ▪ The editor decided to kill [=to not publish] the controversial news story.
3 [+ obj] informal : to turn (something) off with a switch ▪ She told him to kill the lights. ▪ He killed [=shut off] the engine and got out of the car.
4 [+ obj] informal : to spend (time) doing something while you are waiting ▪ We killed time by reading magazines. ▪ We have a couple of hours to kill before we board the plane.
5 [+ obj] informal a : to cause (someone) to feel extreme pain or to suffer ▪ My feet are killing me. [=my feet hurt very much] ▪ Working these long hours is killing me. b : to make (someone) nervous or unhappy ▪ I'm still waiting to hear if I got the job. The suspense is killing me. ▪ It really kills me to think of how much money I could have made if I had invested in that company.
6 [+ obj] informal : to amuse or entertain (someone) very much ▪ That guy kills me. [=I think he's very funny] ▪ His jokes always kill me. ▪ Her performance killed the audience. [=the audience loved her performance]
7 [+ obj] informal : to drink (something) completely ▪ He killed three beers in less than an hour.
dressed to kill see DRESSED fit to kill see [1]FIT kill off [phrasal verb] kill off (something) or kill (something) off 1 : to kill all of (something) : to kill every one of (a group) ▪ Scientists aren't certain what killed off the dinosaurs. ▪ She killed off her relatives to get the inheritance. 2 : to remove (something) completely : to get rid of (something) ▪ The company has become so successful that it has killed off the competition.
kill (someone) with kindness : to treat (someone) in a way that is too kind or helpful and that actually causes harm

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-k

kill the clock see [1]CLOCK

kill two birds with one stone : to achieve two things by doing a single action ▪ We can kill two birds with one stone by dropping off the mail when we go the grocery store.

[2]kill noun, pl kills [count]

1 : an act of killing someone or something ▪ The tiger has made several kills in this area. ▪ The lion was moving in for the kill. [=was coming closer to another animal in order to kill it] — often used figuratively ▪ Her political opponents believe that she can be defeated, and they are moving in for the kill.

2 : an animal that has been killed ▪ The lion was devouring its kill. [=the animal that it had killed] — see also ROADKILL

[1]kill•er /ˈkɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person or thing that kills someone or something ▪ The police finally captured the killer. [=murderer] ▪ Heart disease is the leading killer of both men and women. ▪ The chemical is used as a weed killer.

2 informal : something that is very difficult ▪ That exam was a (real) killer. = That sure was a killer of an exam.

[2]killer adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US

1 : causing death or destruction ▪ a killer tornado

2 informal : very impressive or appealing ▪ She has a killer smile. [=a very attractive smile] ▪ a killer résumé

3 informal : very difficult ▪ a killer exam killer app noun, pl ~ apps [count] : an extremely valuable or useful computer program

killer bee noun, pl ~ bees [count] : a dangerous type of bee that is originally from Africa killer instinct noun, pl ~ -stincts [count] : a very strong desire to succeed or win ▪ Her killer instincts have helped her become one of the top tennis players in the world.

killer whale noun, pl ~ whales [count] : a black-and-white whale that kills and eats other animals (such as seals) — called also orca

kill•ing /ˈkɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]

1 : an act of killing someone or something ▪ The oil spill is responsible for the killing of thousands of birds. ▪ A series of horrific killings [=murders] have made headlines across the nation. — see also MERCY KILLING

2 informal : a large amount of money — usually singular ▪ He made a killing in the stock market.

kill•joy /ˈkɪlˌʤɔɪ/ noun, pl -joys [count] disapproving : a person who spoils other people's fun or enjoyment ▪ I don't want to sound like a killjoy, but shouldn't we study tonight?

kiln /ˈkɪln/ noun, pl kilns [count] : an oven or furnace that is used for hardening, burning, or drying something (such as pottery)

ki•lo /ˈkiːloʊ/ noun, pl -los [count] : KILOGRAM

kilo- /ˈkɪlə/ combining form : thousand ▪ *kilo*gram ▪ *kilo*meter ki•lo•byte /ˈkɪləˌbaɪt/ noun, pl -bytes [count] : a unit of computer information equal to 1,024 bytes — abbr. KB; compare GIGABYTE, MEGABYTE

ki•lo•gram /ˈkɪləˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a unit of weight equal to 1,000 grams — abbr. kg ki•lo•hertz /ˈkɪləˌhəts/ noun, pl -hertz [count] technical : a unit of frequency equal to 1,000 hertz ▪ a frequency of 80 kilohertz — abbr. kHz

kilo•li•ter (US) or Brit ki•lo•li•tre /ˈkɪləˌliːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a unit for measuring the volume of a liquid or gas that is equal to 1,000 liters — abbr. kl ki•lo•me•ter (US) or Brit ki•lo•me•tre /kəˈlɑːmətə, ˈkɪləˌmiːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a unit of length equal to 1,000 meters — abbr. km

kilo•watt /ˈkɪləˌwɑːt/ noun, pl -watts [count] : a unit of electrical power equal to 1,000 watts — abbr. kW; compare MEGAWATT kilowatt–hour noun, pl -hours [count] technical : a unit of work or energy equal to the amount produced by one kilowatt in one hour — abbr. kWh

kilt /ˈkɪlt/ noun, pl kilts [count]

1 : a type of skirt traditionally worn by men in Scotland — see color picture on page C16

2 : a woman's skirt that resembles a Scottish kilt

– kilt•ed /ˈkɪltəd/ adj ▪ a kilted Scotsman

kil•ter /ˈkɪltə/ noun

out of kilter or off kilter — used to describe something that is not in the exactly right position or condition, is not working in the usual or proper way, etc. ▪ Unexpected expenses threw the budget out of kilter. ▪ Our schedule has been knocked off kilter. — see also OFF-KILTER ki•mo•no /kəˈmoʊnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] : a loose piece of clothing with wide sleeves that is traditionally worn on formal occasions in Japan — see color picture on page C16

kin /ˈkɪn/ noun [plural] somewhat old-fashioned : a person's relatives ▪ They are her distant kin. ▪ He and I are kin. [=we are related to each other] ▪ Are you any kin to him? [=are you related to him?] ▪ He's no kin to me. [=he is not related to me] — see also next of kin at [3]NEXT

kith and kin see KITH

[1]kind /ˈkaɪnd/ noun, pl kinds [count] : a group of people or things that belong together or have some shared quality : a particular type or variety of person or thing ▪ hawks and other birds of that kind ▪ "What kind of (a) car do you drive?" "The same kind you drive." ▪ In this city, you'll find many kinds of people. ▪ Most people prefer to be with their own kind. [=with people who are like them] ▪ I like to try different kinds of food. ▪ I know he would never lie to me because he's not that kind (of person). ▪ She described the color as a kind of red. ▪ I think he's an accountant, financial adviser, or something of that kind. ▪ Did you honestly think that I'd agree to do this? What kind of fool do you think I am? [=do you think that I am a fool?] ▪ Boston is my kind of (a) town. [=I like Boston] all kinds of 1 : a large number or variety of (things or people) : MANY ▪ She reads all kinds of books. ▪ He likes all kinds of sports. 2 chiefly US, informal : a large amount of (something) : plenty of (something) ▪ There's no hurry. We have all kinds of time to get ready.

in kind 1 : in a way that is equal or very similar to what someone else has done for you ▪ If you help me, I promise to return the favor in kind. [=I promise to help you in the same way] 2 business : in goods or services rather than in money ▪ payment in kind rather than in cash kind of informal : to some small degree : SOMEWHAT ▪ It's kind of cold in here. ▪ I think he kind of likes me. ▪ I'm kind of worried.

of a kind — used to say that people or things are the same or are very similar ▪ John and his dad are two of a kind. [=they are very much alike]

of the kind : like the person or thing mentioned ▪ I'd like to go to a movie or a concert, or something of the kind. [=something like that] — often used in negative statements ▪ He said I hung up on him, but I never did anything of the kind! [=I never hung up on him] ▪ This technology is completely new. I've never seen anything of the kind [=anything like it] before. ▪ "He's really pretty arrogant, isn't he?" "He's nothing of the kind. [=he's not arrogant at all] He's a very friendly and helpful man." ▪ This technology is completely new. Nothing of the kind [=nothing like it] has ever been seen before.

one of a kind : a person or thing that is not like any other person or thing ▪ I don't know how we'll ever replace Mary after she retires. She's really one of a kind.

[2]kind adj kind•er; -est

1 : having or showing a gentle nature and a desire to help others : wanting and liking to do good things and to bring happiness to others ▪ A kind old woman took the cat in and nursed it back to health. ▪ It was very kind of you to show me the way. ▪ Thank you for your kind words. ▪ a kind smile — often + to ▪ My uncle has always been very kind to me.

2 — used to say that something does not cause harm, is not harsh or unpleasant, etc.; usually + to ▪ Old age has been very kind to her: she still looks great at 84. ▪ a soap that is kind to your hands ▪ The critics have not been kind to her latest novel. [=they have harshly criticized her latest novel]

3 — used to make a formal request ▪ Would you be kind enough to show me the way? = Would you be so kind as to show me the way? [=would you please show me the way?]

kinda /ˈkaɪndə/ — used in writing to represent the sound of the phrase kind of when it is spoken quickly ▪ It's kinda [=kind of] cold in here. [=it's somewhat cold in here] ✧ The pronunciation represented by kinda is common in informal speech. The written form should be avoided except when trying to represent or record such speech.

kin•der•gar•ten /ˈkɪndəˌgɑətn/ noun, pl -tens [count, noncount] : a school or class for very young children ✧ In the U.S., children in kindergarten are usually about five years old. ▪ My daughter is in kindergarten now; next fall she'll enter the first grade.

– kin•der•gart•ner /ˈkɪndəˌgɑətnə/ or kin•der•gar•ten•er /ˈkɪndəˌgɑətənə/ noun, pl -gart•ners or -gar•ten•ers

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

[count] US ▪ All of the kindergartners [=children in kindergarten] drew pictures of their favorite animals.

kind•heart•ed /ˌkaɪndˈhɑɚtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a kind and gentle nature ▪ A kindhearted neighbor offered to help. ▪ a kindhearted gesture
– kind•heart•ed•ness noun [noncount]

kin•dle /ˈkɪndl/ verb kin•dles; kin•dled; kin•dling
1 a [+ obj] : to cause (a fire) to start burning ▪ using dry twigs to kindle a fire b [no obj] : to begin burning ▪ waiting for the fire to kindle
2 [+ obj] : to cause the start of (something) ▪ A trip to the museum when she was a child kindled her interest in art. ▪ The incident kindled a new national debate.

kin•dling /ˈkɪndlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : dry twigs, pieces of paper, etc., that burn easily and are used to start a fire ▪ a pile of kindling

[1]kind•ly /ˈkaɪndli/ adj kind•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having or showing a gentle nature and a desire to help others : KIND ▪ A kindly woman helped him find his way home. ▪ a kindly smile
– kind•li•ness /ˈkaɪndlinəs/ noun [noncount]

[2]kindly adv
1 [more ~; most ~] : in a kind way ▪ She always treats animals kindly. ▪ They kindly offered to help us.
2 — used to make a formal request ▪ Would you kindly [=please] pass the salt? — sometimes used in making a request that is caused by annoyance ▪ Would you kindly turn down the music? I'm trying to read. ▪ Kindly leave me alone.
look kindly on/upon : to approve of (something or someone) ▪ Many people do not look kindly on the government's attempt to intervene in this matter. ▪ He says that he will look kindly on any request you make.
take kindly to : to willingly accept or approve of (someone or something) — usually used in negative statements ▪ He does not take kindly to criticism. [=he does not like to be criticized] ▪ She does not take kindly to people who tell her what to do.

kind•ness /ˈkaɪndnəs/ noun, pl -ness•es
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being kind ▪ You should treat your elders with kindness and respect. = You should show kindness and respect to your elders. ▪ They did it out of the kindness of their hearts. [=they did it because they are kind people and not because they wanted something in return] — see also the milk of human kindness at [1]MILK
2 [count] : a kind act ▪ We thanked her for her many kindnesses. ▪ You would be doing me a great kindness if you agreed to help.
kill (someone) with kindness see [1]KILL

[1]kin•dred /ˈkɪndrəd/ adj, always used before a noun, formal
1 : alike or similar ▪ philosophy, political theory, and kindred topics ▪ I believe she and I are kindred spirits/souls.
2 : closely related ▪ kindred tribes ▪ German and English are kindred languages.

[2]kindred noun [plural] old-fashioned : a person's relatives ▪ He went out to sea, and never saw his kindred again.

ki•net•ic /kəˈnɛtɪk/ adj : of or relating to the movement of physical objects ▪ kinetic energy/theory ▪ kinetic art [=art that has moving parts] kin•folk /ˈkɪnˌfoʊk/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : a person's relatives : KIN ▪ He settled in the North, but most of his kinfolk remained in the South.

king /ˈkɪŋ/ noun, pl kings
1 : a male ruler of a country who usually inherits his position and rules for life [count] dethrone a king ▪ He pledged his loyalty to the king and queen. ▪ the reign of King James [noncount] He was crowned king. ▪ He became king at a young age.
2 a [count] : a boy or man who is highly respected and very successful or popular ▪ an oil king ▪ He's widely regarded as the king of soul music. b [count] : a boy or man who is awarded the highest honor for an event or contest ▪ He was voted king of the prom. ▪ the homecoming king c : something that is very powerful or that is considered better than all others [count] The lion is known as the king of the jungle. [noncount] It was a time when comedy was king. [=when comedy was the most important or popular form of entertainment]
3 [count] : the most important piece in the game of chess ▪ She won the game by checkmating his king. — see picture at CHESS
4 [count] : a playing card that has a picture of a king and that is worth more than a queen ▪ the king of hearts/spades/clubs/diamonds — see picture at PLAYING CARD fit for a king see [1]FIT

king crab noun, pl ~ crabs [count] : a very large type of crab

king•dom /ˈkɪŋdəm/ noun, pl -doms
1 [count] : a country whose ruler is a king or queen ▪ After Queen Mary I died, her half sister Elizabeth ruled the kingdom. ▪ the Kingdom of Jordan — often used figuratively ▪ He was one of the most successful planters in the cotton kingdom. ▪ The office is his own private kingdom.
2 [noncount] : the spiritual world of which God is king ▪ the kingdom of God/heaven
3 [count] : one of the three main divisions into which natural objects are classified ▪ the animal/mineral/plant kingdom to kingdom come informal : to a state of complete destruction ▪ He took out his shotgun and threatened to blast/blow them all to kingdom come.

king• sh•er /ˈkɪŋˌfɪʃɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a type of brightly colored bird that has a long, thin bill and that catches fish by diving into water

king•ly /ˈkɪŋli/ adj king•li•er; -est
1 : of or relating to a king ▪ a symbol of kingly authority/power/rule
2 : typical of or suited for a king ▪ a kingly feast ▪ They paid a kingly price/fortune for their new house.

king•mak•er /ˈkɪŋˌmeɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a powerful person or group who influences decisions about who will become political candidates ▪ the party's kingmakers

king•pin /ˈkɪŋˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count] : a person who controls an organization or activity ▪ kingpins of the movie industry ▪ a mob kingpin [=a man who controls a gang of criminals] ▪ a drug kingpin [=a man in charge of a large group of people who sell illegal drugs]

King's Counsel noun, pl ~ -sels [count] Brit : a barrister who is chosen to represent the British royal family in a court of law — used when Britain is ruled by a king; abbr. KC

king's evidence noun
turn king's evidence Brit, law — used with the same meaning as turn queen's evidence when Britain is ruled by a king; see QUEEN'S EVIDENCE king•ship /ˈkɪŋˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the position of a king ▪ He has all the traits required for kingship.

king–size /ˈkɪŋˌsaɪz/ or king–sized /ˈkɪŋˌsaɪzd/ adj
1 : extremely large ▪ a king-size sandwich ▪ people with king-sized appetites
2 US, of a bed : having a size of 76 inches by 80 inches (about 1.9 by 2.0 meters) — compare FULL-SIZE, QUEEN-SIZE, TWIN-SIZE

king's ransom noun [noncount] informal : a very large amount of money ▪ We paid a king's ransom for that car.

kink /ˈkɪŋk/ noun, pl kinks [count]
1 : a tight bend or curl in something (such as a rope or hose) — usually + in ▪ There was a kink in the chain.
2 chiefly US : a pain especially in your neck or back that is caused by tight muscles — usually + in ▪ I woke up on the bus with a kink [=crick] in my neck.
3 : a small problem or flaw — usually plural ▪ We just installed a new computer program, and we're still working/ironing out the kinks. [=trying to fix the problems]
4 : a strange or unusual part of someone's personality ▪ Everyone's personality has a few kinks. [=quirks]
– kink verb kinks; kinked; kink•ing [+ obj] Kink the hose. [no obj] My hair kinks when it rains.

kinky /ˈkɪŋki/ adj kink•i•er; -est
1 of hair : having many tight bends or curls
2 informal : involving or liking unusual sexual behavior ▪ kinky sex toys ▪ a kinky fantasy ▪ She says her boyfriend is a little kinky.
– kink•i•ness noun [noncount]

kins•folk /ˈkɪnzˌfoʊk/ noun [plural] somewhat old-fashioned : KINFOLK ▪ returning home to her kinsfolk

kin•ship /ˈkɪnˌʃɪp/ noun
1 [noncount] : the state of being related to the people in your family ▪ the bonds of kinship
2 : a feeling of being close or connected to other people [singular] He feels a strong kinship with other survivors of the war. [noncount] feelings of kinship between the team's players and their fans

kins•man /ˈkɪnzmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] formal + old-fashioned : a male relative ▪ honoring a dead kinsman

kins•wom•an /ˈkɪnzˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-k

[count] formal + old-fashioned : a female relative ▪ writing a biography of his famous kinswoman

ki•osk /ˈkiːˌɑsk/ noun, pl -osks [count]
1 : a small store in a building or on the street where things (such as newspapers or candy) are sold ▪ She sells souvenirs at a kiosk in the mall.
2 : a small structure that provides information and services on a computer screen ▪ You can pick up your plane tickets at one of the airport's kiosks.

[1]kip /ˈkɪp/ noun, Brit, informal : [2]SLEEP [noncount] Try to get a bit of kip. [singular] She went home and had a kip. [=nap]

[2]kip verb kips; kip•ped; kip•ping [no obj] Brit, informal : [1]SLEEP ▪ Can I kip here tonight? — often + down ▪ We kipped down at a hotel.

kip•per /ˈkɪpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count] chiefly Brit : a herring that has been preserved with salt and then smoked
– kip•pered /ˈkɪpɚd/ adj ▪ a kippered herring

kirk /ˈkɚk/ noun, pl kirks
1 [count] Scotland : CHURCH
2 the Kirk : the national church of Scotland ▪ an elder of the Kirk kis•met /ˈkɪzˌmɛt/ noun [noncount] : a power that is believed to control what happens in the future : FATE ▪ When we first met each other, we knew it must have been kismet (that brought us together).

[1]kiss /ˈkɪs/ verb kiss•es; kissed; kiss•ing
1 a : to touch (someone) with your lips as a greeting or as a way of showing love or sexual attraction [+ obj] He kissed her on the cheek. = He kissed her cheek. ▪ They kissed each other passionately. ▪ She kissed him good night/goodbye. [no obj] I'll never forget the night we first kissed. b [+ obj] : to touch (something) with your lips ▪ When he got off the plane he knelt down and kissed the ground.
2 [+ obj] : to touch (something) gently or lightly ▪ The tree's branches kissed the ground below.
kiss and make up informal : to become friendly again after a fight or disagreement ▪ It's time for the mayor and the police chief to kiss and make up.
kiss and tell : to tell people about the private details of your romantic relationships ▪ I never kiss and tell.
kiss ass US, informal + impolite 1 or kiss someone's ass or Brit kiss someone's arse : to be nice to people in order to make them like you or give something to you ▪ He says he doesn't want a promotion if he has to kiss ass to get it. 2 kiss my ass — used to show that you are angry at someone ▪ He told me to leave, and I told him he could kiss my ass!
kiss off [phrasal verb] informal 1 impolite — used in angry speech to tell someone to leave and stop bothering you ▪ She told me to kiss off when I asked her to dance. 2 kiss (someone or something) off or kiss off (someone or something) : to reject or ignore (someone or something) in a casual or careless way ▪ My boss kissed off my ideas for a new product. 3 kiss (something) off or kiss off (something) : to accept the fact that you have lost or will never get (something) ▪ You can kiss off [=give up on] any hope of getting tickets to the game. — see also KISS-OFF kiss (something) goodbye informal : to accept the fact that you have lost or will never get something ▪ They can kiss their vacation plans goodbye now. [=their vacation plans are now ruined] ▪ If you don't start working harder, you can kiss that promotion goodbye. [=you won't be getting that promotion] kiss up to [phrasal verb] kiss up to (someone) US, informal + disapproving : to try to make (someone) like you ▪ She is always kissing up to [=sucking up to] the boss.
– kiss•able /ˈkɪsəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ soft, kissable lips

[2]kiss noun, pl kisses [count] : the act of kissing someone or something ▪ He gave her a kiss on the cheek. ▪ She greeted him with a hug and a kiss. ▪ a tender/gentle/passionate kiss — see also FRENCH KISS blow (someone) a kiss : to kiss the palm of your hand, put your hand flat in front of your mouth, and then blow on it toward (someone) ▪ She blew me a kiss and waved goodbye.
throw (someone) a kiss : to kiss the palm of your hand and move your hand quickly away from your mouth in a waving motion toward (someone)

kiss–and–tell /ˈkɪsnˈtɛl/ adj, always used before a noun : telling private details about romantic relationships ▪ an actress who has written a kiss-and-tell book about the men she knew in her youth ▪ a kiss-and-tell biography

kiss•er /ˈkɪsɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who kisses ▪ He's a great kisser. [=he is very good at kissing]
2 old-fashioned slang : MOUTH ▪ Punch him in the kisser.

kissing cousin noun, pl ~ -ins [count] old-fashioned : a person and especially a relative who you know well enough to kiss in a formal way when you meet — often used figuratively to describe two things that are similar or closely related ▪ He says politics and show business are kissing cousins.

kiss of death noun [singular] : something that causes something to fail or be ruined — usually used with the ▪ Bad reviews can be the kiss of death for a new movie.

kiss–off /ˈkɪsˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] chiefly US, informal : a quick and rude way of telling someone to go away ▪ The song is a kiss-off to his ex-girlfriend. — see also kiss off at [1]KISS

kiss of life noun
the kiss of life Brit : MOUTH-TO-MOUTH RESUSCITATION

[1]kit /ˈkɪt/ noun, pl kits
1 [count] : a set of tools or supplies that a person uses for a particular purpose or activity ▪ a makeup kit ▪ shaving/sewing kits ▪ an electrician's tool kit — see also DRUM KIT
2 [count] : a set of parts that are put together to build something ▪ He built the shed from a kit. ▪ We bought some goldfish and an aquarium starter kit. [=a set of things needed to set up an aquarium]
3 [count] : a collection of written materials about a particular subject ▪ a tourist information kit — see also PRESS KIT
4 [noncount] Brit : clothing or equipment used for a particular purpose ▪ The team wore their new kit. ▪ cricket/football/sports kit
first aid kit see FIRST AID get/take your kit off Brit, informal : to take off your clothes ▪ She agreed to get her kit off for the photos.
the whole (kit and) caboodle see CABOODLE

[2]kit verb kits; kit•ted; kit•ting
kit out/up [phrasal verb] kit out/up (someone or something) or kit (someone or something) out/up Brit : to give (someone or something) the clothing or equipment needed for a particular activity — usually used as (be) kitted out/up ▪ The team was kitted out in new uniforms. ▪ The room was kitted out with balloons and decorations for the party.

kitch•en /ˈkɪʧən/ noun, pl -ens [count] : a room in which food is cooked ▪ She wants a house with a large kitchen. — often used before another noun ▪ kitchen counters/cabinets/chairs ▪ They sat down at the kitchen table. ▪ When he goes on vacation he takes along everything but the kitchen sink. [=an extremely large number of things] — see picture on next page; see also SOUP KITCHEN kitch•en•ette /ˌkɪʧəˈnɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] : a small kitchen or a part of a room where food is cooked ▪ a hotel room with a kitchenette

kitchen garden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] chiefly Brit : a garden where you grow fruits and vegetables for your own use kitchen paper noun [noncount] Brit : soft paper that is used for cleaning, wiping up liquid, etc. ▪ a roll of kitchen paper [=(US) paper towels] — called also (Brit) kitchen roll, (Brit) kitchen towel

kite /ˈkaɪt/ noun, pl kites [count]
1 : a toy that is made of a light frame covered with cloth, paper, or plastic and that is flown in the air at the end of a long string ▪ The children were flying kites.
2 : a type of hawk that has long, narrow wings
as high as a kite informal : greatly affected by alcohol or drugs : very drunk or intoxicated ▪ The driver was as high as a kite.
go y a kite US, informal + old-fashioned — used to tell someone who is bothering you to go away ▪ When I asked her what was wrong, she told me to go fly a kite.

kith /ˈkɪθ/ noun
kith and kin old-fashioned : friends and relatives ▪ They invited all their kith and kin to their new home.

kitsch /ˈkɪʧ/ noun [noncount] : things (such as movies or works of art) that are of low quality and that many people find amusing and enjoyable ▪ The restaurant is decorated with 1950s furniture and kitsch from old TV shows.
– kitschy /ˈkɪʧi/ adj kitsch•i•er; -est ▪ kitschy horror films kit•ten /ˈkɪtn/ noun, pl -tens [count] : a young cat have kittens Brit, informal : to become very nervous or upset about something ▪ They had kittens when they saw the mess we made.

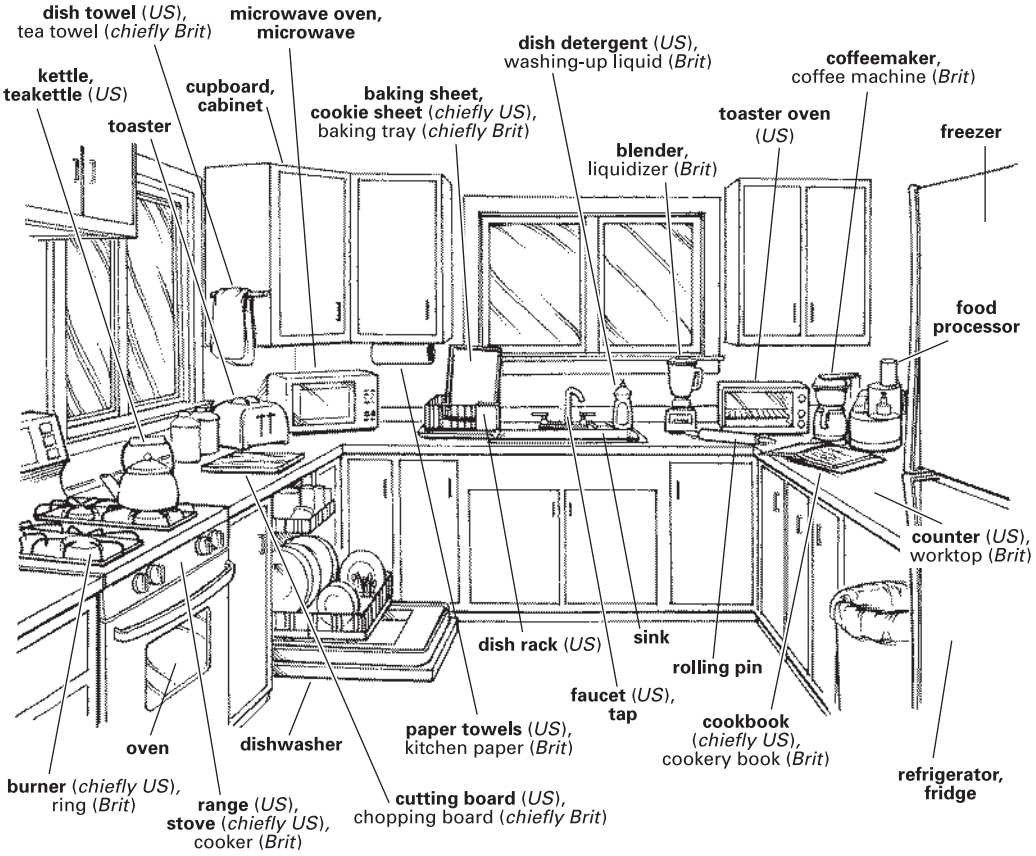
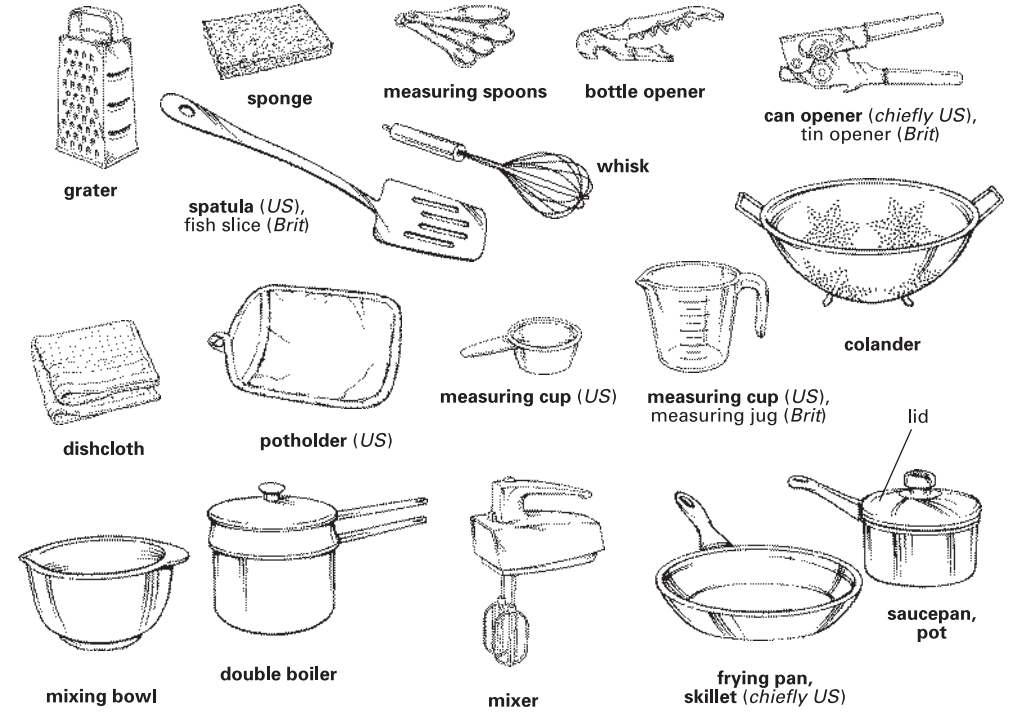
K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

kitchen





JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

kit•ten•ish /ˈkɪtn̩ɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : cute and playful in a way that attracts attention ▪ kittenish young women kit•ty /ˈkɪti/ noun, pl -ties [count]

1 informal : a cat or kitten ▪ Come here, kitty, kitty.
2 : the amount of money that can be won in a card game and that is made up of all the bets added together
3 : an amount of money that has been collected from many people for some purpose ▪ She had a $10 million kitty for her campaign.

kit•ty–cor•ner /ˈkɪtiˌkoənə/ adv, US — used to describe two things that are located across from each other on opposite corners ▪ The store is kitty-corner from the park.

ki•wi /ˈkiːˌwiː/ noun, pl -wis [count]
1 Kiwi informal : a person who lives in or is from New Zealand
2 : a bird from New Zealand that cannot fly and that has a long bill
3 : KIWIFRUIT

ki•wi•fruit /ˈkiːˌwiːˌfruːt/ noun, pl kiwifruit or kiwifruits [count, noncount] : a small fruit that has green flesh, black seeds, and brown, hairy skin — see color picture on page C5

KJV abbr King James Version ✧ The King James Version is the version of the Christian Bible that is used for quotations in this dictionary.

KKK abbr Ku Klux Klan

kl abbr kiloliter

Klan /klæn/ noun
the Klan : KU KLUX KLAN ▪ a member of the Klan ▪ a Klan rally

Klans•man /ˈklænzmən/ noun, pl Klans•men [count] : a member of the Ku Klux Klan

Klee•nex /ˈkliːˌnɛks/ trademark — used for a paper tissue (sense 1)

klep•to•ma•nia /ˌklɛptəˈmeɪnijə/ noun [noncount] : a mental illness in which you have a strong desire to steal things
– klep•to•ma•ni•ac /ˌklɛptəˈmeɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count]

kludge or kluge /ˈkluːʤ/ noun, pl kludg•es or klug•es [count] : an awkward or inferior computer system or program that is created quickly to solve a problem – kludgy also kludgey /ˈkluːʤi/ adj kludg•i•er; -est ▪ a kludgy computer system

klutz /ˈklʌts/ noun, pl klutz•es [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who often drops things, falls down, etc. : a clumsy person ▪ I'm a complete klutz on the dance floor.
– klutzy /ˈklʌtsi/ adj klutz•i•er; -est

km abbr kilometer

knack /ˈnæk/ noun [singular] : an ability, talent, or special skill needed to do something — usually + for or of ▪ They have a knack for telling interesting stories. ▪ Once you get the knack of riding a bicycle [=once you learn how to ride a bicycle], you'll never lose it.

knack•ered /ˈnækəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : very tired or exhausted ▪ She was too knackered to join them for dinner.

knap•sack /ˈnæpˌsæk/ noun, pl -sacks [count] chiefly US : BACKPACK

knave /ˈneɪv/ noun, pl knaves [count] old-fashioned
1 : a dishonest man ▪ fools and knaves
2 : a playing card that ranks below a queen and above a 10 : JACK ▪ the knave of hearts
– knav•ish /ˈneɪvɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a knavish trick

knead /ˈniːd/ verb kneads; knead•ed; knead•ing [+ obj]
1 : to prepare (dough) by pressing a mixture of flour, water, etc., with your hands ▪ Knead the dough until it is smooth.
2 : to press and squeeze (a person's muscles) with your hands ▪ He kneaded [=massaged] the muscles in my neck.

[1]knee /niː/ noun, pl knees [count]
1 : the joint that bends at the middle of your leg ▪ I fell down and hurt my knee. ▪ She suffered a serious knee injury. ▪ His knees trembled/shook with fear. ▪ She dropped/fell/sank to her knees [=she knelt down] and begged for forgiveness. = She got down on her knees and begged for forgiveness. ▪ He got/went down on one knee and proposed to her. ▪ If you want to clean the floor properly, you have to get down on your (hands and) knees [=you have to kneel down on the floor] and start scrubbing. — see picture at HUMAN
2 : the upper part of your leg when you are sitting ▪ His little granddaughter sat on his knee.
3 : the part that covers the knee on a pair of pants ▪ Her jeans had holes at the knees.
4 : a forceful hit with a bent knee ▪ She gave him a knee to the stomach. [=she kneed him in the stomach]
bring (someone) to his/her knees : to completely defeat or overwhelm (someone) ▪ The general vowed he would bring the enemy to their knees. — often used figuratively ▪ The increase in oil prices could bring the economy to its knees. [=it could greatly hurt the economy] learn (something) at your mother's knee : to learn (something) when you are very young ▪ I learned to speak French at my mother's knee.
on bended knee/knees see [1]BEND weak at/in the knees see WEAK
– see also BEE'S KNEES

[2]knee verb knees; kneed; knee•ing [+ obj] : to hit (a person) with your knee ▪ His attacker kneed him in the stomach.

[1]knee•cap /ˈniːˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count] : a flat bone on the front of your knee — called also patella; see picture at HUMAN

[2]kneecap verb -caps; -capped; -cap•ping [+ obj] : to shoot or break the knee of (someone) as a form of attack or punishment ▪ They kneecapped one of the hostages.

knee–deep /ˈniːˈdiːp/ adj
1 : reaching as high as your knees ▪ The car was stuck in knee-deep snow.
2 : standing in something that reaches your knees — usually + in ▪ We were knee-deep in snow. — often used figuratively ▪ We were knee-deep in work. [=we were very busy] – knee–deep adv ▪ We stood knee-deep in snow.

knee–high /ˈniːˈhaɪ/ adj : reaching as high as your knees ▪ knee-high boots ▪ The grass is knee-high. ▪ (informal) I haven't seen you since you were knee-high to a grasshopper. [=since you were very young and small] knee–jerk /ˈniːˌʤɝk/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~]

1 : occurring quickly and without thought ▪ It was a knee-jerk [=automatic] reaction.
2 disapproving : often reacting quickly and without thought ▪ He said that they were just a bunch of knee-jerk liberals.

kneel /niːl/ verb kneels; knelt /nɛlt/ also chiefly US kneeled; kneel•ing [no obj] : to move your body so that one or both of your knees are on the floor ▪ The prisoner was ordered to kneel (down) before the king. : to be in a position in which both of your knees are on the floor ▪ She was kneeling on the floor beside her child. ▪ He was kneeling in front of the altar and praying. — see picture at POSITION knee–length /ˈniːˌlɛŋkθ/ adj, of clothing : reaching the knees ▪ a knee-length skirt ▪ knee-length socks knee–slap•per /ˈniːˌslæpə/ noun, pl -pers [count] US, informal : a very funny joke or story ▪ That's a real knee-slapper.

knee sock noun, pl ~ socks [count] chiefly US : a sock that reaches your knee — see color picture on page C13 knees–up /ˈniːzˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] Brit, informal : a noisy party usually with dancing ▪ We had a knees-up to celebrate his retirement.

knell /nɛl/ noun, pl knells [count] literary : a sound of a bell when it is rung slowly because someone has died ✧ A death knell is a sign or indication that something will fail or end soon. ▪ The mistake was the death knell for his campaign. ▪ Many people thought that the Internet would sound/ring/toll the death knell for newspapers. [=cause the end of newspapers]

knelt past tense and past participle of KNEEL knew past tense of [1]KNOW

knick•er•bock•ers /ˈnɪkəˌbɑːkəz/ noun [plural] Brit : KNICKERS 1

knick•ers /ˈnɪkəz/ noun [plural]
1 US : loose-fitting pants that reach just below the knee — called also (Brit) knickerbockers
2 Brit : PANTIES
get your knickers in a twist Brit, informal : to become upset about something that is not very important ▪ Don't get your knickers in a twist: I'll be ready in a minute!

knick•knack /ˈnɪkˌnæk/ noun, pl -knacks [count] : a small object used for decoration ▪ The shelves were filled with knickknacks.

[1]knife /naɪf/ noun, pl knives /naɪvz/ [count] : a usually sharp blade attached to a handle that is used for cutting or as a weapon ▪ Each dinner guest gets two forks, a knife, and a spoon. ▪ He pulled/drew a knife on me and threatened to stab me with it. — see picture at PLACE SETTING; see also BUT-

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

TER KNIFE, CARVING KNIFE, PALETTE KNIFE, PARING KNIFE, STEAK KNIFE, UTILITY KNIFE

like a (hot) knife through butter informal : very quickly and easily ▪ The bill passed through the senate like a hot knife through butter.

the knives are out (for someone) — used to say that people are ready to blame or punish someone for something often in a way that is unfair ▪ They lost yet another important game, and now the knives are out for their coach.

twist/turn the knife (in the wound) informal : to say or do things that cause more pain to someone who is already suffering ▪ Any more cuts in government aid to these poor people will be twisting the knife in the wound.

under the knife informal : having a medical operation ▪ I'm going under the knife [=having surgery] tomorrow.

[2]knife verb knifes; knifed; knif•ing

1 [+ obj] : to injure (someone) with a knife ▪ He died after being knifed in the chest.

2 [no obj] : to move easily and quickly like a knife cutting through something ▪ ships knifing through the waves knife–edge /ˈnaɪfˌɛʤ/ noun [singular] : something that is very narrow or sharp ▪ The path was a knife-edge on the side of a steep hill.

on a/the knife-edge : in a dangerous or important situation in which two very different results are possible ▪ a region resting on a knife-edge after several wars ▪ The election results hung on a knife-edge. ▪ living on the knife-edge of poverty

knife•point /ˈnaɪfˌpɔɪnt/ noun

at knifepoint — used to describe a situation in which someone is being threatened by a person with a knife ▪ They were robbed at knifepoint. [=someone robbed them while threatening them with a knife]

[1]knight /ˈnaɪt/ noun, pl knights [count]

1 : a soldier in the past who had a high social rank and who fought while riding a horse and usually wearing armor

2 : a man who is given a special honor and the title of Sir by the king or queen of England ▪ He was made/dubbed a knight.

3 : a chess piece shaped like a horse's head — see picture at CHESS knight in shining armor 1 : a man who behaves in a very brave way ▪ The firefighter who rescued us was our knight in shining armor. 2 : a man who is the perfect romantic partner for a woman ▪ She is still waiting for her knight in shining armor.

– see also WHITE KNIGHT

– knight•ly /ˈnaɪtli/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ knightly adventures/quests

[2]knight verb knights; knight•ed; knight•ing [+ obj] : to give (a man) the rank of a knight ▪ He is to be knighted by the Queen for his career as an actor.

knight–er•rant /ˈnaɪtˈerənt/ noun, pl knights–errant [count] : a knight who traveled in search of adventures in the Middle Ages knight•hood /ˈnaɪtˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods : the rank or title of a knight [count] The Queen awarded a knighthood to the famous actor. [noncount] For their bravery, they were rewarded with knighthood.

[1]knit /ˈnɪt/ verb knits; knit or knit•ted; knit•ting

1 : to make (a piece of clothing) from yarn or thread by using long needles or a special machine [+ obj] She knit a sweater for me. = She knit/knitted me a sweater. [no obj] He likes to knit.

2 [+ obj] a : to closely join or combine (things or people) ▪ Her novels knit (together) science and fantasy. ▪ a style that knits together material from many different sources b : to form (something) by bringing people or things together ▪ a town knit/knitted together by farming — see also CLOSE-KNIT, TIGHT-KNIT

3 [no obj] of a bone : to grow together and heal after being broken ▪ It will take some time for the broken bones to knit (together).

knit your brow/brows : to move your eyebrows together in a way that shows that you are thinking about something or are worried, angry, etc. ▪ She knit her brow and asked what I was doing.

– knit or knitted adj ▪ a red knit shirt ▪ a knitted blouse ▪ closely knit communities [=communities in which people care about each other very much] ▪ a knitted cap – knitter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ She is a very talented knitter.

[2]knit noun, pl knits [count] : a piece of clothing that has been made by knitting ▪ cotton knits

knitting noun

1 [noncount] : the action or process of knitting clothing ▪ She enjoys knitting.

2 [singular] : materials that are being used by someone who is knitting ▪ She keeps her knitting in the closet.

knitting needle noun, pl ~ needles [count] : one of two or more long, thin, usually metal or plastic sticks that are pointed at one end and used for knitting — see picture at SEWING knit•wear /ˈnɪtˌweɚ/ noun [noncount] : knitted clothing ▪ a few pieces of knitwear

knives plural of [1]KNIFE

knob /ˈnɑːb/ noun, pl knobs [count]

1 : a round switch on a television, radio, etc. ▪ The left knob [=dial] controls the volume.

2 : a round handle on a door, drawer, etc. ▪ The knob [=doorknob] is stuck and I can't open the door! ▪ a carved walking stick with a silver knob

3 chiefly Brit : a small lump or piece of something ▪ a knob of butter/coal

4 Brit, informal + impolite : PENIS

with knobs on Brit, informal : with extra things added ▪ The movie is just an ordinary thriller with knobs on.

knob•bly /ˈnɑːbli/ adj knob•bli•er; -est chiefly Brit : KNOBBY ▪ a knobbly mattress ▪ knobbly knees knob•by /ˈnɑːbi/ adj knob•bi•er; -est chiefly US

1 : covered with small bumps ▪ knobby tires ▪ a knobby mattress

2 : forming hard rounded lumps ▪ knobby knees

[1]knock /ˈnɑːk/ verb knocks; knocked; knock•ing

1 [no obj] : to hit something (such as a door) with the knuckles of your hand or with a hard object (such as a knocker) in order to get people's attention ▪ I heard someone knocking (at the door). — usually + on ▪ I knocked on the door but no one answered. ▪ He knocked on the table to call the meeting to order. ▪ Campaign workers have been knocking on doors throughout the neighborhood. [=have been going to each house or apartment in the neighborhood to talk with the people who live there] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a talented young singer who is knocking on the door of success [=who is very close to achieving success]

2 always followed by an adverb, adjective, or preposition [+ obj] : to hit (something or someone) in a forceful way ▪ The ball knocked him on the chin. ▪ knock one stick against another = knock two sticks together ▪ She knocked the glass from his hand. ▪ He knocked the baseball over the fence. ▪ The ball hit him in the mouth and knocked out one of his teeth. ▪ The wind knocked him backwards. ▪ The wind almost knocked him off his feet. = The wind almost knocked him to the ground. [=the wind hit him so hard that he almost fell to the ground] ▪ The collision knocked him unconscious/senseless. [=caused him to become unconscious] ▪ The collision knocked him flying. [=sent him flying through the air]

3 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to touch or hit someone or something in a way that is not planned or intended [no obj] The dog knocked against the lamp. ▪ My knee accidentally knocked against the table. ▪ Skaters were knocking into each other all over the ice. ▪ I kept knocking against him during the bumpy ride. = He and I kept knocking together during the bumpy ride. [+ obj] I accidentally knocked my knee against the table.

4 [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a hole) by hitting something ▪ He used a hammer to knock a hole in the wall.

5 [+ obj] informal : to criticize (someone or something) ▪ He's always knocking the government. ▪ Don't knock it until you've tried it. [=wait until you try something before criticizing it]

6 [no obj] : to produce a repeated loud noise ▪ The engine was knocking. ▪ The pipes were knocking.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

heart is knocking informal ✧ If your heart is knocking it is beating very hard, usually because you are nervous or excited. ▪ His heart was knocking in his chest.

knees are knocking informal ✧ If your knees are knocking they are shaking because you are nervous or afraid. ▪ Her knees were knocking in terror.

knock around also Brit knock about [phrasal verb] informal 1 a knock around/about (a place) or knock around/about : to spend time in (a place) without having a goal or purpose : to wander around (a place) ▪ He spent the summer knocking around (in) Europe. b knock around/about with (someone) Brit : to spend time with (another person) ▪ She was knocking around [=hanging around] with her brother. 2 a : to be considered or discussed in an informal way over a period of time ▪ These ideas have been knocking around [=kicking around] for years. b knock around (something) or knock (something) around : to consider or talk about (ideas, plans, etc.) in an informal way ▪ We knocked the plan around for a while before we came to an agreement. ▪ They knocked around several possible names for the new car. 3 knock (someone) around/about : to beat or hit (someone) badly or repeatedly ▪ The boy was getting knocked around by bullies. — often used figuratively ▪ I really got knocked around at the last staff meeting. 4 chiefly Brit : to be lying somewhere within a general area or place ▪ That jacket is knocking about/around here somewhere.

knock back informal 1 knock (something) back or knock back (something) : to drink or swallow (an alcoholic drink) quickly ▪ He stopped at a bar after work to knock back a few beers. 2 knock (someone) back : to cost (someone) a lot of money ▪ That car must have knocked you back quite a bit. [=you must have spent a lot of money on that car] knock down [phrasal verb] 1 knock (someone or something) down or knock down (someone or something) a : to cause (someone or something) to fall to the ground ▪ He hit him on the chin and knocked him down. ▪ The storm knocked down [=knocked over] several big trees. ▪ Rowdy fans knocked down the fence. ▪ We're planning to knock down [=remove, demolish] a wall to create a bigger room. b Brit : to hit and injure or kill (a person or animal) with a vehicle ▪ She was knocked down [=(Brit) knocked over, (US) hit] by a car while crossing the street. 2 informal a knock (something) down or knock down (something) : to reduce or lower (a price, an amount, etc.) ▪ They knocked down the price of the house by 10 percent. ▪ He wanted $50 for it but I managed to knock the price down to $45. b knock (someone) down : to cause or persuade (someone) to reduce a price ▪ He wanted $50 for it but I managed to knock him down to $45. 3 knock down (an amount of money) US, informal : to receive (an amount of money) as income or salary ▪ He knocks down almost a million dollars a year. 4 knock down (a shot) or knock (a shot) down basketball : to succeed in making (a shot) especially from a long distance ▪ He was knocking down jump shots. 5 knock (something) down or knock down (something) chiefly US, informal : to say no to (an idea, plan, proposal, etc.) : REJECT ▪ His boss knocked down [=shot down] all of his ideas. 6 knock (something) down or knock down (something) US : to take (something) apart ▪ We knocked the bed down so it would fit in the truck.

knock heads US, informal 1 : to argue or disagree ▪ The two of them knocked heads soon after they started working together. 2 : to use angry or forceful methods to control or punish people ▪ I am going in there and knock some heads if they don't start behaving. — often + together ▪ I am going to go in there and knock their heads together if they don't start behaving.

knock in [phrasal verb] knock (a run or runner) in or knock in (a run or runner) baseball : to cause (a run or runner) to score ▪ He knocked in [=batted in, drove in] a run in the second inning with a double to left field.

knock off [phrasal verb] informal 1 knock off or knock (something) off or knock off (something) : to stop doing something (such as work) ▪ We are going to knock off for lunch in 10 minutes. ▪ The boss said we could knock off early today. = The boss said we could knock off work early today. — often used as a command to tell someone to stop doing something immediately ▪ Knock off your fighting right now! ▪ I told you two kids to knock it off! 2 knock (something) off or knock off (something) a : to do or make (something) very quickly ▪ He knocked off 10 paintings in 4 days. ▪ We are planning to knock this project off in a weekend. b : to take (an amount) away from something ▪ He agreed to knock off 10 dollars from the price. [=to reduce the price by 10 dollars] ▪ This shortcut will knock at least 100 miles off the journey. c US : to steal money or things from (a bank or store) ▪ They knocked off [=knocked over] a jewelry store. d chiefly Brit : to steal (something) ▪ They knocked off a lot of valuable merchandise. e US : to make a cheaper copy of (something) ▪ Several other companies knocked off their dress design. — see also KNOCK-OFF 3 knock (someone) off or knock off (someone) a : to kill (someone) ▪ He tried to knock off two men who owed him money. ▪ Did she really want to knock her husband off? b US : to defeat (someone) ▪ They knocked off the best team in the league.

knock on wood see [1]WOOD

knock out [phrasal verb] 1 knock (someone or something) out or knock out (someone or something) a : to make (a person or animal) unconscious ▪ The drug knocked him out. ▪ The force of the collision knocked him out. [=knocked him cold] ▪ He hit his head against the table when he fell and knocked himself out. b boxing : to defeat (an opponent) with a punch that knocks the opponent down for a certain amount of time ▪ He was knocked out in the third round. — see also [1]KNOCKOUT 1 c : to defeat (an opponent) in a competition so that the opponent cannot continue ▪ My team was the favorite to win the championship, but we were knocked out (of the competition) in the third round. d baseball : to cause (a pitcher) to be removed from the game by getting many hits ▪ The starting pitcher was knocked out (of the game) in the fourth inning. 2 knock (something) out or knock out (something) a : to cause (something) to stop working ▪ Missiles knocked out the television station. ▪ The storm knocked out electricity across the state. b : to produce (something) very quickly ▪ a musical group that just keeps knocking out hit records 3 knock (yourself) out informal a : to make (yourself) very tired by doing work ▪ They knocked themselves out trying to build a garage. ▪ I knocked myself out [=I worked very hard] to get the job done on time. b US — used to tell someone to go ahead and do something ▪ "Do you mind if I use this exercise machine first?" "Knock yourself out." 4 knock (someone) out informal : to make a very strong and good impression on (someone) ▪ Her beauty just knocks me out. [=I think she is very beautiful] ▪ Everyone was knocked out by his suggestion. [=everyone liked his suggestion very much] — see also [1]KNOCKOUT 2 knock over [phrasal verb] 1 knock (someone or something) over or knock over (someone or something) a : to cause (someone or something) to fall to the ground ▪ The dog knocked over the lamp. ▪ The wind was so strong that it almost knocked her over. [=knocked her down] b Brit : to hit and injure or kill (a person or animal) with a vehicle ▪ The dog was knocked over [=(Brit) knocked down, (US) hit] by a car. 2 knock (someone) over or knock over (someone) informal : to greatly surprise or shock (someone) ▪ He was knocked over [=overwhelmed] by the news. ▪ When I found out I had won, you could have knocked me over with a feather. [=I was extremely surprised or astonished] 3 knock (something) over or knock over (something) US, informal a : to steal money or things from (a bank or store) ▪ Three men knocked over [=knocked off] a bank. b : to steal (something) ▪ They knocked over a truckload of goods.

knock (someone) cold : to cause (someone) to become unconscious ▪ He knocked his opponent cold with one punch. ▪ She was knocked cold [=knocked out] by the collision.

knock (someone) dead informal : to make a very strong and good impression on (someone) ▪ Her performance really knocked the audience dead. [=the audience greatly enjoyed her performance] ▪ She told him to go out there on the stage and knock 'em dead.

knock (someone) for a loop see [1]LOOP knock (someone) for six see SIX knock someone's head/block off informal : to hit someone very hard ▪ I'm so angry I'd like to knock his block off.

knock (someone) sideways Brit : to upset, confuse, or shock (someone) very much ▪ The news about his mother's accident really knocked him sideways.

knock some sense into see [1]SENSE knock (something) on the head Brit, informal : to cause the end or failure of (something) ▪ The closing of the airport knocked our holiday plans on the head.

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-k

knock spots off see ¹SPOT knock the (living) daylights out of see DAYLIGHT knock the stuffing out of see STUFFING knock together [phrasal verb] knock (something) together or knock together (something) : to make or build (something) in a quick or careless way ▪ a rough table that was knocked together from old pieces of wood knock up [phrasal verb] 1 knock (someone) up or knock up (someone) informal a chiefly US, impolite : to make (someone) pregnant ▪ She got knocked up. [=she got pregnant] b Brit : to wake (someone) by knocking on a door ▪ knocked him up at 6 a.m. 2 knock (something) up or knock up (something) Brit : to make or produce (something) quickly ▪ knock up a quick meal knock your socks off see ¹SOCK

²knock noun, pl knocks
1 [count] a : a hard, sharp hit ▪ He gave him a knock on the head. b : the sound made by a hard hit ▪ There was a loud knock at the door.
2 [count] informal : an experience that makes you less confident or successful for a period of time : a difficult or painful experience ▪ She took some knocks early in her career. ▪ Most performers have their share of knocks [=setbacks] on their way to stardom. — see also HARD KNOCKS (below)
3 [count] informal : a critical or negative comment ▪ He likes praise but can't stand the knocks. — often used in U.S. English in the phrase the knock against ▪ The knock against her is that she can't win the important matches. [=people say that she cannot win the important matches] ▪ One of the knocks against television is that there are too many commercials.
4 : a loud noise produced by an engine when it is not working properly [count] We heard a knock in the engine. [noncount] a type of fuel that reduces engine knock hard knocks : difficult or painful experiences that people have in their lives or careers ▪ He has taken plenty of hard knocks in his life. ▪ The school of hard knocks [=the difficult experiences in his life] taught him how to be tough.

knock•about /ˈnɑːkəˌbaʊt/ adj, always used before a noun : noisy or rough often in a silly or amusing way ▪ knockabout humor ▪ He lived a knockabout life in the city.

knock•back /ˈnɑːkˌbæk/ noun, pl -backs [count] Brit, informal : something (such as a criticism or refusal) that makes you less confident or successful ▪ Everyone experiences a few knockbacks in their lives.

knock•down /ˈnɑːkˌdaʊn/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit, informal, of a price : greatly reduced from the original price : extremely low ▪ Now's your chance to buy these items at knockdown prices!

knock–down, drag–out or knock–down–drag–out adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : very angry or violent ▪ We had a knock-down-drag-out argument.

knock•er /ˈnɑːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] : a small metal device on a door that you move in order to make a knocking sound
2 knockers [plural] informal + sometimes offensive : a woman's breasts knock–kneed /ˈnɑːkˈniːd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having legs that curve inward at the knees ▪ She is tall and knock-kneed.

knock•off /ˈnɑːkˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count] : a cheap or inferior copy of something ▪ That purse is a knockoff. — see also knock off at ¹KNOCK knock–on effect noun, pl ~ -fects [count] Brit : something (such as a process, action, or event) that causes other things to happen : RIPPLE EFFECT ▪ The drought is likely to have a knock-on effect throughout the whole economy.

¹knock•out /ˈnɑːkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]
1 : an occurrence in which a boxing match ends when a fighter has been knocked down by a punch and is unable to start fighting again before 10 seconds have passed ▪ He won the match by a knockout. ▪ He scored a knockout in the fourth round. — see also TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT
2 informal : a very attractive or appealing person or thing ▪ She's a real knockout in that dress. — see also knock out at ¹KNOCK

²knockout adj, always used before a noun
1 : causing someone to become unconscious ▪ a knockout punch/blow
2 informal : extremely attractive or appealing ▪ a knockout actress/movie
3 Brit, of a contest or competition : designed so that winning teams or players continue to play and losing teams or players do not ▪ The Wimbledon tennis tournament is a knockout competition.

knock–up noun, pl -ups [count] Brit : a time before a tennis game when players hit the ball to each other in order to practice

knoll /ˈnoʊl/ noun, pl knolls [count] : a small hill ▪ a grassy knoll

¹knot /ˈnɑːt/ noun, pl knots [count]
1 a : a part that forms when you tie a piece of rope, string, fabric, etc., to itself or to something else ▪ She tied the rope in a knot. ▪ He made/tied a knot in the rope. ▪ untie a knot ▪ loosen/tighten a knot — see also GRANNY KNOT, SLIPKNOT, SQUARE KNOT b : a part where something has become twisted or wrapped around itself ▪ The electrical cord was tangled in knots. ▪ She tried to untangle the knots [=tangles] in the child's hair. — often used figuratively ▪ The project has been tied up in political and legal knots for years. [=nothing has happened with the project for years because of political and legal problems] — see also GORDIAN KNOT
2 : a painful or uncomfortable feeling of tightness in part of your body ▪ a knot in a muscle ▪ massaging the knots out of my back ▪ I was so nervous that my stomach was in knots. [=I had an unpleasant and tight feeling in my stomach]
3 : a dark round mark on a piece of wood that shows where a branch grew ▪ a board full of knots
4 : a way of arranging long hair by twisting it into a round shape at the sides or back of the head ▪ She pulled her hair into a knot [=bun] at the back of her neck.
5 : a group of people who are standing or sitting close together ▪ A knot [=cluster] of people blocked the door.
6 : a unit of speed equal to one nautical mile per hour ▪ Wind is from the north at 12 knots. ▪ sailing at six knots
at a rate of knots see ¹RATE tie the knot informal : to get married ▪ When are you two going to tie the knot?
tie yourself (up) in knots 1 : to cause problems for yourself because you are being too careful, trying too hard, etc. ▪ The mayor tied himself in knots answering a touchy political question. [=he answered it in a confused or unclear way] 2 : to become very upset or worried ▪ I don't know why they're tying themselves in knots over such a trivial problem.

²knot verb knots; knot•ted; knot•ting
1 [+ obj] : to tie a section of rope, string, fabric, etc., to itself or to something else so that a knot forms : to make a knot in (something) ▪ He knotted his tie so that both ends would be the same length. ▪ knot a string/rope; also : to connect (two or more parts or things) with a knot ▪ Knot the threads together. ▪ She knotted a sweater around her shoulders. [=tied the sleeves of the sweater together around her shoulders]
2 [no obj] : to develop a painful or uncomfortable feeling of tightness — often + up ▪ My stomach knotted [=tensed] up as I waited for the interview.
3 [+ obj] US, informal : to make (the score of a game or contest) equal ▪ He scored a goal that knotted [=tied] the score at 3 all.

knot•ted /ˈnɑːtəd/ adj
1 : having a knot or knots ▪ a knotted rope/cord/string 2 : KNOTTY 1 ▪ knotted pine get knotted Brit slang — used in speech as a rude way to tell someone to go away or to show that you are annoyed with someone knot•ty /ˈnɑːti/ adj knot•ti•er; -est

1 of wood : having many dark round marks showing where branches grew : having many knots ▪ knotty wood ▪ knotty paneling ▪ knotty pine
2 : difficult or complicated ▪ a knotty problem/situation

¹know /ˈnoʊ/ verb, not used in progressive tenses knows; knew /ˈnuː, Brit ˈnjuː/; known /ˈnoʊn/; know•ing
1 a : to have (information of some kind) in your mind [+ obj] He knows a lot about the history of the town. ▪ Do you know the answer? ▪ I don't know her name. ▪ Do you know what time it is? ▪ I don't know the words to that song. ▪ They knew a good deal about the problem. ▪ She knows the rules of the game. ▪ He knows everything about horses. = He knows all/everything there is to know about horses. — often + how, why, where, etc. ▪ Do you know why she left this suitcase here? ▪ Do you know where she went? ▪ No one knows (for sure) how long it will take the fix the problem. ▪ He knows perfectly/full well how to do it. [no obj] If you want the answer, ask someone who knows. ▪ "What is she doing?" "Believe me, you don't want to know." [=you would be shocked or upset to learn what she is doing] — often + about ▪ He knows (all) about horses. b : to understand (something) : to have a clear and complete idea of (something) [+ obj] I don't know much about art, but I know what I like. — usually + how, why, where, etc. ▪ Scientists don't yet know why this happens. ▪ I don't know what to do. ▪ I don't know what you want me to do. ▪ We had almost no money in those days. I don't know how we managed. ▪ I don't know how you could be so careless. ▪ You know perfectly/full well what I am trying to say. [no obj] "How could she do that?" "How should/would I know?!" [=I don't know, and you should not expect me to know] c [+ obj] : to have learned (something, as a skill or a language) ▪ She knows karate/CPR. ▪ He knows Spanish. — often + how ▪ Do you know how to type? ▪ I would go swimming with you, but I don't know how (to swim). [=I never learned to swim]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-k

2 : to be aware of (something) : to realize (something) [+ obj] She knows that many people will not believe her. ▪ I know (that) this isn't easy for you, but you have to keep trying. ▪ As soon as I turned on the light I knew that something was missing. ▪ There was no way for me to know that he was your brother. = How was I to know that he was your brother? ▪ It's wrong and you know it! [=you are aware that it is wrong] ▪ "I'm sorry I threw out those bags." "It's okay: you couldn't have known that I needed them." = "It's okay: you had no way of knowing that I needed them." = (Brit) "It's okay: you weren't to know that I needed them." ▪ You ought to know by now that she is always late. ▪ It's impossible to know what will happen next. = There's no way of knowing what will happen next. = There's no knowing what will happen next. ▪ If you've never been to Venice, you don't know what you're missing. [=you would enjoy going to Venice very much] ▪ You know as well as I do that they expect us at 8:00. ▪ You don't know how happy I am to see you. [=I am extremely happy to see you] ▪ You'll never know what this means to me. = You can't know how much this means to me. [=this means a great deal to me] [no obj] As far as I know, they plan to arrive on Monday. [=I believe that they plan to arrive on Monday, but I am not sure] ▪ We're planning a party for George. As you know, he'll be leaving the company next month. — often + about or of ▪ I knew about the problem. [=I was aware of the problem] ▪ Does she know about the meeting? ▪ I don't know of any job openings right now. [=I am not aware of any job openings right now] ▪ I know of her as a poet but not as a novelist. [=I am familiar with her poetry but not with her novels] ▪ Do you know of a good lawyer? [=can you recommend a good lawyer?] ▪ "Does he have relatives nearby?" "Not that I know of." [=I don't think he has any relatives nearby]

3 : to be certain of (something) [+ obj] Everyone else believes him, but I just know (that) he's lying. ▪ I don't know if I can trust her. [=I am not sure that I can trust her] ▪ It's hard to know exactly where the candidate stands on this issue. ▪ I knew he'd forget. ▪ I need to know if they are coming. ▪ "She says she's not coming." "I knew it!" [=I was sure that she wouldn't come] ▪ I knew it all along. [=I was always sure of it] [no obj] "They're coming." "Do you know [=are you certain], or are you just guessing?" = "Do you know for sure/certain, or are you just guessing?" ▪ He thinks he got the job but he doesn't know for sure.

4 [+ obj] a : to have met and talked to (someone) : to be acquainted or familiar with (a person) ▪ "Do you know Clara?" "Yes, we've met." ▪ "Do you know Clara?" "We've met but I wouldn't say that I really know her." [=I am not close to her; I don't know much about her] ▪ I've known him for years. He's one of my best friends. ▪ Knowing you, you'll be the first one there. [=because I know you so well, I expect you to be the first one there] ▪ She's the kindest person I know. ▪ To know him is to love him. [=the people who know him feel great affection for him] ▪ We just bought a house here last month, and we're still getting to know our neighbors. [=we're still meeting our neighbors; we're still becoming acquainted with our neighbors] b : to have experience with (something) : to be acquainted or familiar with (something) ▪ She knows the city very well. ▪ Do you know her painting/writing/work? ▪ Do you know any good restaurants in this area? ▪ We're still getting to know the neighborhood. ▪ The building as we know it [=as it exists now] is quite different from how it looked when it was first built. ▪ This is the end of the organization as we know it. [=the organization has changed and will never again be the same as it was] c : to have experienced (something) ▪ someone who knows grief well [=someone who has experienced a lot of grief] — usually used as known ▪ I've known failure and I've known success. [=I have failed and I have succeeded]

5 [+ obj] a : to recognize (someone or something) : to identify (someone or something) accurately ▪ "How will I know her?" "She'll be wearing a red sweater." ▪ I would know [=recognize] that voice anywhere. ▪ I know his face [=his face is familiar to me] but I don't remember his name. ▪ I feel like I know this house, but I've never been here before. ▪ I know many of the customers at the café by sight. [=I see them often enough that I recognize them] b : to recognize the difference between two things : to be able to distinguish (one thing) from another ▪ know right from wrong

6 [+ obj] a : to be sure that (someone or something) has a particular quality, character, etc., because of your experiences with that person or thing — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I've worked with him for many years, and I know him to be an honest man. ▪ I know the business to be legitimate. b : to think of (someone or something) as having a particular quality, character, etc. — + as ▪ His neighbors knew him as a quiet and friendly person, but the people he worked with saw a different side of him. — often used as (be) known as ▪ She is known as an expert in the field. [=people consider her an expert] c — used to indicate the name that people know or use for someone or something; + as ▪ Her neighbors knew her as Jill Brown, but her real name was Amy Smith. — often used as (be) known as ▪ Samuel L. Clemens was better/otherwise known as Mark Twain. [=most people called him Mark Twain] ▪ Beethoven's Third Symphony is widely known as the "Eroica." d — used to say that someone or something has a particular quality, feature, ability, etc., that people know about; + for ▪ Fans of the blues know the city for its live blues clubs. — usually used as (be) known for ▪ The restaurant is known for its desserts. [=the restaurant's desserts are popular, well-known, etc.] ▪ She is known for her ability to work quickly. = She is known for working quickly. ▪ He's known for being late. [=he is often late] e ✧ Someone who has been known to be or known to do something has been or done that thing in the past. ▪ We've known him to work all night to meet a deadline. = He's been known to work all night to meet a deadline. ▪ I've never known her to be wrong. [=I do not know of any time when she has been wrong] ▪ He's been known to do this kind of thing before.

before you know it : very quickly or soon ▪ We'll be there before you know it. ▪ The game was over before I knew it.

better the devil you know than the devil you don't see DEVIL

don't I know it informal — used to say that you agree with what has just been said ▪ "It's freezing in here!" "Don't I know it." [=I agree]

for all I know informal — used to say that you have little or no knowledge of something ▪ For all I know, he left last night. [=I don't know when he left; it's possible that he left last night] ▪ She may have already accepted another job, for all we know. [=we don't know what she has done; it's possible that she has already accepted another job]

God knows or goodness knows or heaven knows or Lord knows informal 1 — used to stress that something is not known ▪ How long will the meeting last? Heaven knows. ▪ God (only) knows if the reports are true. 2 — used to make a statement more forceful ▪ He finally got a raise. Goodness knows he deserved one. [=he certainly deserved one] ▪ She didn't win, but Lord knows she tried.

have known better days see [1]BETTER

I don't know 1 — used to say that you do not have the information someone is asking for ▪ "What time does the library close?" "I don't know." 2 informal — used to express disagreement, doubt, or uncertainty ▪ "I don't like that guy." "Oh, I don't know, he's not really so bad." ▪ "Which one is your favorite?" "Um, I don't know, maybe the red one." ▪ She thinks we should go now, but I don't know. [=I'm not sure] Maybe we should wait. 3 — used to say that you are uncertain about someone or something ▪ I don't know about you [=you may think or feel differently than I do about this], but I'm leaving. ▪ "She said she'd be here by 5:00." "I don't know about that." [=I'm not sure that will happen] ▪ I don't know about him—he's hard to figure out.

if you must know — used when you are answering a question that you do not want to answer because the information is personal, embarrassing, etc. ▪ "How much did you pay for your car?" "Well, if you must know, it cost about

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-k

$20,000." ▪ "Why did you leave that job?" "If you must know, I was fired."

I'll have you know see HAVE

I know (it) 1 — used to express agreement ▪ "Hurry up, we're going to be late." "I know, but I can't find my shoe." ▪ "This place is such a mess." "I know it." [=I agree] ▪ "I can't believe he lied." "I know, I know." ▪ "The whole situation is just so stupid." "I know." 2 — used to introduce a suggestion ▪ "What should we do tonight?" "I know [=I have an idea]—how about a movie?"

I wouldn't know — used to say that you have not experienced something ▪ "That restaurant has the best desserts!" "I wouldn't know. I've never been there."

know best or know what's best : to know or understand better than someone else what should be done ▪ I would take the highway myself, but you live here so you know best. ▪ I'll do whatever you say. You know what's best.

know better 1 : to be smart or sensible enough not to do something ▪ You walked home alone? Don't you know better (than that)? ▪ She'll know better than to trust them again. [=she will not trust them again] ▪ There's no excuse for his behavior. He's old enough to know better. ▪ Don't blame him. He's just a child and he doesn't know (any) better. [=he is too young, inexperienced, etc., to be expected to behave properly] 2 : to know or understand the truth about something ▪ She tried to tell me that it wasn't her fault, but I know better. [=I know that it really was her fault] 3 : to know or understand more than other people ▪ You can't tell him what to do. He always thinks that he knows better.

know different/otherwise : to know that something that people think or say is true is not really true ▪ She says she has no money but I know otherwise. [=I know that she does have money]

know from [phrasal verb] know from (someone or something) US, informal : to know anything about or care at all about (someone or something) — used in negative statements ▪ kids who don't know from sports know no boundaries see BOUNDARY

know no bounds see [c]BOUND

know (something) backward and forward or Brit know (something) backwards or know (something) inside out or US know (something) inside and out or know (something) like the back of your hand : to know something completely ▪ He knew the process backward and forward. ▪ She knows the business inside and out. ▪ I know this town like the back of my hand.

know (something or someone) for what it/he/she is : to understand what something or someone truly is ▪ Now I know them for what they are—liars. ▪ before scientists knew the disease for what it is—a virus ▪ the friends who know me for what I am [=who truly know and understand me] know (something) when you see it/one : to be able to recognize or identify something immediately ▪ She knows a bargain when she sees it. ▪ I know a liar when I see one. ▪ I'm not sure what I want but I'll know it when I see it.

know the drill see [1]DRILL

know the score see [1]SCORE

know what hit you — used in negative statements to say that something you did not expect surprised you very much ▪ I did*n't know what hit me*—suddenly I just felt so dizzy. ▪ The company came out with an entirely new line of products last year, and their competitors never knew what hit them. [=their competitors were not prepared and were completely surprised] know what it is or to know what it's like : to have experience with a situation, activity, or condition ▪ He knows what it is to be poor. [=he has been poor] ▪ They know what it's like to have no privacy.

know what you are talking about ✧ If you know what you are talking about, you deserve to be listened to because you have actual knowledge or experience with something and what you are saying is correct. ▪ Take her advice. She knows what she's talking about. ▪ "He said the movie is boring." "Don't listen to him. He doesn't know what he's talking about." [=he is wrong]

know which side your bread is buttered on see [1]BREAD

know your own heart/mind : to be sure of what you want, like, think, etc. ▪ She's a woman who knows her own mind.

know yourself : to understand yourself fully : to understand your own emotions, desires, abilities, etc. ▪ I was so young then. I really didn't know myself.

know your stuff see [1]STUFF

know your way around ✧ If you know your way around a place or thing, you are very familiar with it or are good at using or operating it. ▪ He knows his way around Boston. ▪ She really knows her way around a sailboat. [=she knows how to sail; she is a very good sailor] ▪ They know their way around computers.

let (someone) know : to tell something to someone ▪ Let me know [=tell me] if you're going to the party. ▪ Please let me know if there's anything I can do to help. [=I would like to help; please tell me if you need help] ▪ He's not sure what time he'll arrive—he is going to let us know. ▪ She let the staff know her decision. [=she told the staff her decision]

let (something) be known or make (something) known formal : to tell people something ▪ He let it be known [=he announced] that he intends to run for mayor. ▪ She made her decision known to the staff. [=she told the staff her decision]

make yourself known formal : to introduce yourself : to cause people to know who you are ▪ The candidate made herself known to voters through an aggressive ad campaign. ▪ the movie in which the actor first made himself known to the world might/should have known — used to say that you are not surprised to learn of something ▪ I should have known it would be too expensive. ▪ "She says she's going to be late." "I might have known."

not know someone from Adam informal : to have never met with someone : to not know someone at all ▪ Why should she trust me? She doesn't know me from Adam.

not know the first thing about : to have little or no knowledge about (something or someone) ▪ I don't know the first thing about cooking/sports/children.

not know the meaning of (the word) see MEANING not know your ass from your elbow (chiefly US) or Brit not know your arse from your elbow informal + impolite : to know nothing : to be stupid ▪ Don't take his word for it—he doesn't know his ass from his elbow.

what do you know informal 1 — used to express surprise ▪ She's an astronaut? Well, what do you know! ▪ "He's going to law school in the fall." "Well what do you know about that?" [=I am surprised that he is going to law school] 2 — used to say that someone is wrong about something ▪ "She thinks I should take the job." "What does she know? You should do what you want."

wouldn't you know (it)? informal — used to say that something annoying that has happened is the kind of thing that often happens ▪ I was running late and—wouldn't you know?—I rushed off without my purse. ▪ "He's late again." "Wouldn't you know it?!"

you know informal 1 — used when you are trying to help someone remember something ▪ They live on the other side of town. You know—near the golf course. ▪ He was in our history class—you know [=you remember]—the tall blond guy in the front row. 2 — used for emphasis ▪ You know, we really have to go. ▪ It's cold outside, you know. ▪ You know, you really should write a novel. 3 — used when you are not sure of what to say or how to say it ▪ Would you like to, you know, go out sometime? ▪ We're planning to go shopping and, you know, just hang out.

you know something/what? informal 1 — used to emphasize the statement that comes after it ▪ You know something? I never trusted her. ▪ She lied to me again, but you know what? I really just don't care any more. 2 — used to get someone's attention ▪ Hey, you know what? I'm hungry.

you know what I mean informal — used to suggest that the hearer agrees with and understands what has been said or to ask if he or she does or not ▪ I grew up there, you know what I mean, so I know what it's like. ▪ He's kind of strange. Do you know what I mean? ▪ He's kind of strange, if you know what I mean. — sometimes used in the shortened form know what I mean ▪ He's kind of strange—know what I mean?

you know what they say informal — used to introduce a common saying or a statement that expresses a common belief ▪ Keep trying, and you'll figure it out. You know what they say: if at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

you never know — used to say that it is impossible to be sure about what will happen ▪ You never know—you might win the lottery. ▪ You never know who will show up. ▪ You never know with her parties: anyone could show up.

[2]know noun

in the know : having knowledge about something : having information that most people do not have ▪ people who are in the know ▪ For those of you not in the know, Jane is the person who founded this organization.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

know•able /ˈnowəbəl/ adj : able to be known ▪ information that is not easily knowable

know–all /ˈnoʊˌɑːl/ noun, pl -alls [count] Brit, informal : KNOW-IT-ALL know–how /ˈnoʊˌhaʊ/ noun [noncount] : knowledge of how to do something well : EXPERTISE ▪ technical know-how ▪ Does he have the know-how to help us do this?

know•ing /ˈnowɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : showing that you have special knowledge ▪ a knowing look/glance/smile ▪ She looked at us in a knowing way.

know•ing•ly /ˈnowɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~]
1 : in a way that shows that you have special knowledge : in a knowing way ▪ She looked at us knowingly. ▪ someone who can speak knowingly about investing 2 : with knowledge of what is being done ▪ Did he knowingly [=deliberately, purposely] withhold information?

know–it–all /ˈnowətˌɑːl/ noun, pl -alls [count] informal + disapproving : a person who talks and behaves like someone who knows everything ▪ My neighbor is a real know-it-all, always telling me what to do. — often used before another noun ▪ my know-it-all neighbor — called also (Brit) know-all

knowl•edge /ˈnɑːlɪʤ/ noun
1 : information, understanding, or skill that you get from experience or education [noncount] She has little/no/some knowledge of fashion/history/cooking. ▪ He has devoted himself to the pursuit of knowledge. ▪ a thirst/quest for knowledge [singular] a knowledge of carpentry ▪ She gained/acquired a thorough knowledge of local customs. ▪ I have a reading knowledge of French [=I can read French], but I can't speak it fluently.
2 [noncount] : awareness of something : the state of being aware of something ▪ He claimed to have no knowledge of the plan. = He denied all/any knowledge of the plan. ▪ Did you have any knowledge of her intentions? ▪ The decision was made without my knowledge. [=I did not know about the decision] common knowledge : something that many or most people know ▪ It's common knowledge that she plans to run for mayor.
public knowledge : something that people know because it has been reported in the news ▪ His legal problems are a matter of public knowledge.
safe/secure in the knowledge : feeling safe or secure because you know something specified ▪ They went on vacation, safe in the knowledge that the farm would be well cared for while they were away.
to someone's knowledge : according to what someone knows — usually used in negative statements ▪ "Did anyone arrive late?" "Not to my knowledge." ▪ No one arrived late to my knowledge. [=I am not aware that anyone arrived late, but it is possible that someone arrived late and I don't know about it] to the best of my knowledge — used to say that you think a statement is true but that there may be something you do not know which makes it untrue ▪ To the best of my knowledge [=as far as I know], everyone arrived on time. ▪ I answered their questions to the best of my knowledge. [=I gave the best answers I could based on what I knew, but I might have answered differently if I had known something else]

knowl•edge•able /ˈnɑːlɪʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having information, understanding, or skill that comes from experience or education : having knowledge ▪ a knowledgeable person ▪ a knowledgeable observer ▪ He is very knowledgeable about chess. [=he knows a lot about chess]
– knowl•edge•ably /ˈnɑːlɪʤəbli/ adv ▪ She spoke knowledgeably on several topics.

[1]known past participle of [1]KNOW

[2]known /ˈnoʊn/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : generally accepted as something specified ▪ He's a known expert. ▪ That's a known fact! ▪ a known criminal b : included in the knowledge that all people considered as one group have ▪ There is no known cure for the disease. [=there is no cure that anyone knows about, although a cure may exist that has not yet been discovered] ▪ the earliest known use of a word [=the earliest use that anyone knows about]
2 : familiar to people — used with little, widely, etc. ▪ a widely known story [=a story that many people know] ▪ a little-known writer [=a writer that few people know about] — see also WELL-KNOWN

known quantity see QUANTITY

know–noth•ing /ˈnoʊˌnʌθɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a person who lacks intelligence or knowledge : a stupid or ignorant person ▪ He regards his political rivals as a bunch of know-nothings. — often used before another noun ▪ a bunch of know-nothing politicians

[1]knuck•le /ˈnʌkəl/ noun, pl knuck•les [count]
1 : any one of the thick, bony parts (called joints) in your fingers ▪ She rapped her knuckles on the table. — see picture at HAND
2 : a piece of meat that includes a joint from the leg of an animal ▪ a pork knuckle
a rap on/over/across the knuckles see [1]RAP rap (someone) on/over/across the knuckles see [2]RAP

[2]knuckle verb knuck•les; knuck•led; knuck•ling
knuckle down [phrasal verb] informal : to begin to work hard ▪ It's time to knuckle down and get to work. — often + to ▪ She knuckled down to the task.
knuckle under [phrasal verb] informal : to stop trying to fight or resist something : to agree to do or accept something that you have been resisting or opposing ▪ Despite the pressure, he refused to knuckle under. [=give in] — often + to ▪ He refused to knuckle under to anyone. ▪ He finally knuckled under to the pressure.

knuck•le•ball /ˈnʌkəlˌbɑːl/ noun, pl -balls [count] baseball : a pitch that is thrown with very little spin by holding the ball with the knuckles or fingertips — called also knuckler knuck•le•head /ˈnʌkəlˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] US, informal : a stupid person : DUMMY ▪ Don't be such a knucklehead.

knuck•ler /ˈnʌkələ/ noun, pl -lers [count] baseball : KNUCKLEBALL

[1]KO /ˌkeɪˈoʊ/ noun, pl KOs [count] boxing : [1]KNOCKOUT ▪ He scored a KO in the second round.

[2]KO verb KO's; KO'd /ˌkeɪˈoʊd/; KO'•ing /ˌkeɪˈowɪŋ/ [+ obj] boxing : to knock (an opponent) out ▪ He was KO'd in the second round.

ko•ala /koʊˈwɑːlə/ noun, pl -al•as [count] : an Australian animal that has thick gray fur, large hairy ears, sharp claws for climbing, and no tail — called also koala bear

koala

kohl /ˈkoʊl/ noun [noncount] : a type of makeup that is used to put a black or dark gray line or mark around the eyes ▪ eyes rimmed with kohl

kohl•ra•bi /koʊlˈrɑːbi/ noun [count, noncount] : a type of cabbage that has a large, round stem and that is eaten as a vegetable kook /ˈkuːk/ noun, pl kooks [count] informal : a person whose ideas or actions are very strange or foolish ▪ a bunch of kooks dressed up in weird costumes ▪ a lovable kook

– kooky /ˈkuːki/ adj kook•i•er; -est ▪ another one of his kooky ideas ▪ a kooky outfit/person

kook•a•bur•ra /ˈkʊkəˌbərə/ noun, pl -ras [count] : a large Australian bird whose call is like loud laughter

Ko•ran also Qur•an or Qur•'an /kəˈræn, kəˈrɑːn/ noun [singular] : the book of sacred writings used in the Muslim religion
– Ko•ran•ic also Qu•ran•ic or Qur•'an•ic /kəˈrænɪk/ adj

Ko•re•an /kəˈriːjən/ noun, pl -ans
1 [count] : a person born, raised, or living in Korea : a person whose family is from Korea
2 [noncount] : the language of the Korean people – Korean adj ▪ Korean culture/art/language ▪ the Korean people

ko•sher /ˈkoʊʃə/ adj
1 a : accepted by Jewish law as fit for eating or drinking ▪ kosher food ▪ kosher salt/pickles/meat/wine ▪ a family that keeps kosher [=a family that obeys Jewish laws about eating and drinking] b : selling or serving kosher food ▪ a kosher butcher ▪ a kosher restaurant
2 [more ~; most ~] informal : proper or acceptable : RIGHT ▪ Something about this deal is just not kosher.

kow•tow /ˈkaʊˌtaʊ/ verb -tows; -towed; -tow•ing [no obj] informal + disapproving : to agree too easily or eagerly to do what someone else wants you to do : to obey someone with power in a way that seems weak — usually + to ▪ She refused to kowtow to their demands.

K

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−k

kph abbr kilometers per hour

Kraut /ˈkraʊt/ noun, pl Krauts [count] informal + offensive : a German person

Krem•lin /ˈkrɛmlən/ noun
the Kremlin : the government of Russia and the former Soviet Union ▪ an announcement from the Kremlin; also : the buildings of the Russian government in Moscow ▪ We visited the Kremlin when we traveled to Russia.

krill /ˈkrɪl/ noun [plural] : very small creatures in the ocean that are the main food of some whales

kro•na /ˈkroʊnə/ noun, pl kro•nor /ˈkroʊˌnoə/ [count] : a basic unit of money that is used in Sweden and Iceland; also : a coin representing one krona

kro•ne /ˈkroʊnə/ noun, pl kro•ner /ˈkroʊnə/ [count] : a basic unit of money that is used in Denmark and Norway; also : a coin representing one krone

kryp•ton /ˈkrɪpˌtɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a chemical element that is a colorless gas and that is used especially in electric lights

KS abbr Kansas

ku•dos /ˈkuːˌdoʊz, Brit ˈkjuːˌdɒs/ noun [noncount] informal : praise or respect that you get because of something you have done or achieved ▪ Kudos to everyone who helped. ▪ The company has earned kudos for responding so quickly to customers' concerns.

Ku Klux Klan /ˈkuːˈklʌksˈklæn/ noun
the Ku Klux Klan : a secret organization in the U.S. that is made up of white people who are opposed to people of other races ▪ a member of the Ku Klux Klan — abbr. KKK

kum•quat /ˈkʌmˌkwɑːt/ noun, pl -quats [count] : a fruit that looks like a small orange

kung fu /ˌkʌŋˈfuː/ noun [noncount] : a form of fighting without weapons that was developed in China : a Chinese martial art — often used before another noun ▪ kung fu chops/kicks ▪ a kung fu expert/master

Kurd /ˈkuəd, ˈkəd/ noun, pl Kurds [count] : a member of a group of people who live in a region that includes parts of Turkey, Iran, and Iraq
– Kurd•ish /ˈkuədɪʃ, ˈkədɪʃ/ adj ▪ Kurdish people

kvetch /ˈkvɛʧ/ verb kvetch•es; kvetched; kvetch•ing chiefly US, informal : to complain often or constantly [no obj] They're always kvetching about something. [+ obj] They're always kvetching (to us) that nothing is any good.
– kvetch•er noun, pl -ers [count]

kW abbr kilowatt

Kwan•zaa also Kwan•za /ˈkwɑːnzə/ noun, pl -zaas also -zas [count, noncount] : an African-American cultural festival held from December 26 to January 1 kWh abbr kilowatt-hour

KY abbr Kentucky

L

L

[1]l or L /ˈɛl/ noun, pl l's or ls or L's or Ls /ˈɛlz/
1 : the twelfth letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that starts with an l [noncount] a word that starts with l
2 [count] : the Roman numeral that means 50 ▪ LV [=55]

[2]l or L abbr 1 large — usually used for a clothing size ▪ The shirt comes in S, M, L, and XL. 2 left 3 length ▪ The area of a rectangle is L x W. 4 line — used to refer to a line of poetry or of a play ▪ act one, scene two, l 25 ✧ The abbreviation for "lines" is ll. ▪ ll 15–25 5 liter ▪ a 2 L bottle

la /ˈlɑː/ noun [noncount] music : the sixth note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti

LA abbr 1 Los Angeles 2 Louisiana

lab /ˈlæb/ noun, pl labs [count] informal
1 : LABORATORY ▪ working in the lab ▪ a chemistry/computer/crime lab — often used before another noun ▪ a lab animal [=an animal used for experiments in a laboratory] ▪ a lab coat [=a coat worn over the clothes for protection from spills and stains in a laboratory] ▪ a lab report [=a written report of the results of work in a lab]
2 : a class period for laboratory work ▪ I have (a) lab today.

[1]Lab /ˈlæb/ noun, pl Labs [count] informal : LABRADOR RETRIEVER ▪ a black Lab

[2]Lab abbr, Brit Labour (Party) ▪ Jane Smith MP (Lab)

[1]la•bel /ˈleɪbəl/ noun, pl -bels [count]
1 : a piece of paper, cloth, or similar material that is attached to something to identify or describe it ▪ The name is prominently displayed on the label. ▪ You should read the warning label before you take any medicine. ▪ (US) a mailing label [=a piece of paper with a mailing address already printed on it]
2 : a word or phrase that describes or identifies something or someone ▪ The word was given the label "obsolete." ▪ Some people describe him as "selfish," but he doesn't deserve that label. ▪ Once you give people labels, it's hard to see them as individuals.
3 : a company that produces musical recordings ▪ a major/independent record label ▪ The band has made records for/on/with several different labels in their career.
4 : a name shown on clothes that indicates the store, company, or person who sold, produced, or designed the clothes ▪ a designer label ▪ She always wears designer label jeans.

[2]label verb -bels; US -beled or -belled; US -bel•ing or -bel•ling [+ obj]
1 : to put a word or name on something to describe or identify it : to attach a label to (something) ▪ Be sure to carefully label the switches so that you don't confuse them. ▪ He labels his photographs with the date and place they were taken. — often used as (be) labeled ▪ two switches, labeled "A" and "B"
2 : to name or describe (someone or something) in a specified way : to give a label to (someone or something) ▪ Many people have unfairly labeled him (as) "selfish." — often used as (be) labeled ▪ He has been labeled (as) a nuisance because of his past behavior. ▪ words that are labeled "obsolete"

la•bia /ˈleɪbijə/ noun [plural] technical : the folds of skin at the outer part of a woman's sexual organs

la•bi•al /ˈleɪbijəl/ adj, linguistics, of a sound : produced by using one or both lips ▪ the labial sounds /f/ and /p/– labial noun, pl -als [count] ▪ /f/ and /p/ are labials.

[1]la•bor (US) or Brit la•bour /ˈleɪbə/ noun, pl -bors
1 a : physical or mental effort : WORK [noncount] A day's labor should get the job done. ▪ Getting the job done will require many hours of difficult labor. ▪ menial/manual labor [count] He rested from his labors. ✧ A labor of love is a task that you do for enjoyment rather than pay. ▪ Restoring the old car was a labor of love for him. ✧ When you enjoy the fruits of your labor/labors, you enjoy the things that you have gained by working. ▪ She worked hard for many years, but now she has retired and is able to enjoy the fruits of her labor/labors. b [noncount] : work for which someone is paid ▪ The cost of repairing the car includes parts and labor.
2 [noncount] a : workers considered as a group ▪ an area in which there is a shortage of cheap labor — often used before another noun ▪ a labor dispute ▪ The company sought to cut labor costs by increasing its efficiency. ▪ The company has a history of poor labor relations. [=the workers and the managers of the company have had many disputes] ▪ the labor force [=the total number of people available for working] b : the organizations or officials that represent groups of workers ▪ The proposed new law is opposed by organized labor.
3 : the process by which a woman gives birth to a baby [noncount] She went into labor this morning. ▪ She has been in labor for several hours. ▪ She began to have/experience labor pains this morning. [singular] She had a difficult labor.
4 Labour [singular] Brit, politics : the Labour Party of the United Kingdom or another part of the Commonwealth of Nations ▪ a proposal that is opposed by Labour

[2]labor (US) or Brit la•bour verb -bors; -bored; -bor•ing [no obj]
1 a : to do work ▪ Workers labored in the vineyard. ▪ He labored for several years as a miner. b : to work hard in order to achieve something ▪ She has labored in vain to convince

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:32 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

them to accept her proposal. ▪ Both sides continue to labor [=struggle] to find a solution. ▪ We should honor those who labored so long to make the truth known.
2 : to move or proceed with effort ▪ The truck labored up the hill. ▪ I have been laboring through this book for months.
3 : to repeat or stress something too much or too often ▪ She has a tendency to labor the obvious. ▪ I don't want to labor [=belabor] the point, but I think I should mention again that we are running out of time.
labor under a delusion/misapprehension/misconception ✧ If you continue to believe something that is not true, you are laboring under a delusion/misapprehension/misconception. ▪ He still labors under the delusion that other people value his opinion.

lab•o•ra•to•ry /ˈlæbrəˌtori, Brit ləˈbɒrətri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a room or building with special equipment for doing scientific experiments and tests ▪ experiments conducted in a modern laboratory ▪ a research laboratory — often used before another noun ▪ laboratory experiments/research/studies/tests — see also LANGUAGE LABORATORY labor camp noun, pl ~ camps [count] : a place where prisoners are kept and forced to do hard physical labor

Labor Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] : the first Monday in September celebrated in the U.S. as a holiday in honor of working people la•bored (US) or Brit la•boured /ˈleɪbəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : produced or done with great effort ▪ The patient's symptoms included a rapid pulse and labored breathing.
2 : not having an easy or natural quality ▪ The movie's dialogue seems very labored. ▪ labored writing/speech

la•bor•er (US) or Brit la•bour•er /ˈleɪbərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who does hard physical work for money ▪ a farm laborer ▪ He has been working as a laborer on a construction project. — see also DAY LABORER la•bor–in•ten•sive (US) or Brit la•bour–in•ten•sive /ˈleɪbərɪnˌtɛnsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : requiring a lot of work or workers to produce ▪ the labor-intensive task of weaving cloth ▪ The manufacturing process is labor-intensive and expensive. — compare CAPITAL-INTENSIVE la•bo•ri•ous /ləˈborijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : requiring a lot of time and effort ▪ Removing mildew stains is a laborious [=difficult, painstaking] task. ▪ a slow and laborious process/procedure

– la•bo•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ They spent many hours laboriously polishing the silverware. – la•bo•ri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

la•bor–sav•ing (US) or Brit la•bour–sav•ing /ˈleɪbəˌseɪvɪŋ/ adj : designed to make a job or task easier to do ▪ a labor-saving device such as a dishwasher labor union noun, pl ~ unions [count] US : an organization of workers formed to protect the rights and interests of its members : UNION

Lab•ra•dor retriever /ˈlæbrəˌdoɚ-/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a medium to large short-haired dog that is black, yellow, or brown in color — called also Lab, Labrador; see picture at DOG

lab•y•rinth /ˈlæbəˌrɪnθ/ noun, pl -rinths [count]
1 : a place that has many confusing paths or passages : MAZE ▪ an immense underground labyrinth ▪ a complex labyrinth of tunnels and chambers
2 : something that is extremely complicated or difficult to understand ▪ The cockpit was a labyrinth of instruments and controls. ▪ a labyrinth of social customs and rules
– lab•y•rin•thine /ˌlæbəˈrɪnθən, Brit ˌlæbəˈrɪnˌθaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He found it difficult to follow the movie's labyrinthine [=elaborate, intricate] plot. ▪ the labyrinthine halls of the palace

[1]lace /ˈleɪs/ noun, pl lac•es
1 [count] : a cord or string used for tying or holding things together; especially : SHOELACE ▪ I need new laces for these shoes.
2 [noncount] : a very thin and light cloth made with patterns of holes ▪ She wore lace on her wedding gown. — often used before another noun ▪ lace curtains/tablecloth ▪ a white lace scarf

[2]lace verb laced; lac•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to pull a lace through the holes of (a shoe, boot, etc.) ▪ She was lacing (up) her shoes. b [no obj] : to be tied or fastened with a lace ▪ a dress that laces in the back c [+ obj] : INTERLACE, INTERTWINE ▪ She laced her fingers (together) behind her head.
2 [+ obj] a : to add a small amount of a powerful substance (such as alcohol, a drug, or a poison) to (something, such as a drink) — usually + with ▪ Someone had laced the punch with brandy. ▪ The pills had been laced with poison. b : to add something that gives flavor or interest to (something) — usually used as (be) laced with ▪ a sauce laced with garlic [=a sauce that has had garlic added to it] ▪ conversation laced with sarcasm ▪ Her reports were often laced with witty humor.

lac•er•ate /ˈlæsəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] : to cut or tear (someone's flesh) deeply or roughly ▪ The broken glass lacerated his feet. ▪ The patient's hand was severely lacerated. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Her cruel remarks lacerated his feelings.
– lacerating adj ▪ his lacerating [=extremely harsh] attacks on his critics lac•er•a•tion /ˌlæsəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 [count] : a deep cut or tear of the flesh ▪ She suffered lacerations on her legs.
2 [noncount] : the act of cutting or tearing flesh ▪ The broken glass caused severe laceration of his feet.

lace–up /ˈleɪsˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : a shoe or boot that is fastened with laces ▪ a pair of lace-ups — often used before another noun ▪ lace-up boots/shoes lach•ry•mose /ˈlækrəˌmoʊs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary

1 : tending to cause tears : MOURNFUL ▪ a lachrymose drama
2 : tending to cry often : TEARFUL ▪ a drama with a lachrymose hero

[1]lack /ˈlæk/ verb lacks; lacked; lack•ing : to not have (something) [+ obj] His book lacks any coherent structure. ▪ They lack a good strategy for winning the election. ▪ This painting lacks any artistic value. : to not have enough of (something) ▪ She has never been accused of lacking confidence. ▪ lack money ▪ Many of these people lack the basic necessities of life. [no obj] (chiefly US) — + for ▪ The area does not lack for good restaurants. [=the area has many good restaurants] ▪ She does not lack for confidence.

[2]lack noun : the state or condition of not having any or enough of something : the state or condition of lacking something [singular] The problem is a lack of money. ▪ a lack of experience ▪ She has been suffering from a lack of sleep lately. [noncount] Her problem is lack of sleep. ▪ There was no lack of interest in the proposal. [=there was much interest in the proposal] ▪ His honesty, or lack thereof, is the real problem. [=the real problem is his lack of honesty] ▪ They called it a comet, for lack of a better term/word. [=because they could not think of a better term/word for it] lack•a•dai•si•cal /ˌlækəˈdeɪzɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a lack of interest or enthusiasm ▪ a lackadaisical student ▪ His teachers did not approve of his lackadaisical approach to homework.

– lack•a•dai•si•cal•ly /ˌlækəˈdeɪzɪkli/ adv

lack•ey /ˈlæki/ noun, pl -eys [count] disapproving : a person who is or acts like a weak servant of someone powerful ▪ He was nothing but a spineless lackey of the establishment. ▪ a celebrity surrounded by his lackeys

lack•ing /ˈlækɪŋ/ adj
1 : not having any or enough of something that is needed or wanted ▪ Evidence that supports his claims is lacking. ▪ Her performance was somehow lacking. — often + in ▪ This wine is lacking in any real flavor. [=this wine does not have any real flavor] ▪ The applicant was completely/totally lacking in experience. ▪ The case was found (to be) lacking in merit.
2 : needed, wanted, or expected but not present or available ▪ There was something lacking [=missing] in her performance.

lack•lus•ter (US) or Brit lack•lus•tre /ˈlækˌlʌstə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking excitement or interest ▪ a lackluster [=dull, mediocre] performance ▪ His writing can be lackluster [=uninspired] at times.

la•con•ic /ləˈkɑːnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using few words in speech or writing ▪ a laconic reply/response ▪ a laconic manner/style ▪ laconic humor ▪ He had a reputation for being laconic. synonyms see CONCISE
– la•con•i•cal•ly /ləˈkɑːnɪkli/ adv

lac•quer /ˈlækɚ/ noun, pl -quers [count, noncount] : a liquid that is spread on wood or metal and that dries to form a hard and shiny surface ▪ Many coats of lacquer were applied to the table.
– lac•quered /ˈlækɚd/ adj ▪ a lacquered table

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

la•crosse /lə'krɑːs/ noun [noncount] : an outdoor game in which players use long-handled sticks with nets for catching, throwing, and carrying the ball lac•tate /'læk,teɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [no obj] technical, of a woman or a female animal : to produce milk ▪ lactating mothers

– lac•ta•tion /læk'teɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

lac•tic acid /'læktɪk-/ noun [noncount] technical : a chemical produced by the body in your muscles during exercise lac•tose /'læk,toʊs/ noun [noncount] chemistry : a type of sugar that is present in milk ▪ people who are lactose intolerant [=unable to digest lactose]

la•cu•na /lə'kuːnə, Brit lə'kjuːnə/ noun, pl -nae /-,naɪ/ or -nas [count] formal : a gap or blank space in something : a missing part ▪ She found a lacuna in the historical record.

lacrosse

lacy /'leɪsi/ adj lac•i•er; -est
1 : made of lace ▪ a lacy veil/border
2 : resembling lace ▪ The flower's petals are lacy and delicate.

lad /'læd/ noun, pl lads [count] informal
1 chiefly Brit : a boy or young man ▪ a charming young lad ▪ Life was hard when I was a lad. ▪ Well, lad, I hope you won't make the same mistake again! ▪ He's a good lad at heart. — compare LASS
2 Brit : a man with whom you are friendly : FELLOW, CHAP ▪ They can't treat us like that, can they, lads?! ▪ He was out drinking with the lads [=(US) the guys, the boys] at the pub. ✧ In British English, a man who is a bit of a lad does things that are considered a bit wild, such as getting drunk and having sexual relations with many women. ▪ He was a bit of a lad until he settled down.

lad•der /'lædə/ noun, pl -ders [count]
1 : a device used for climbing that has two long pieces of wood, metal, or rope with a series of steps or rungs between them ▪ climb a ladder — see also STEPLADDER
2 : a series of steps or stages by which someone moves up to a higher or better position ▪ He was moving up the corporate ladder. ▪ climbing the social ladder ▪ She worked her way up from the lowest rung on the economic ladder.
3 Brit : a long hole in a stocking : RUN ▪ She got/had a ladder in her stocking.
– ladder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj] Brit ▪ My stockings laddered. [+ obj] laddered tights lad•die /'lædi/ noun, pl -dies [count] chiefly Scotland, informal : a young boy ▪ a wee laddie — compare LASSIE lad•dish /'lædɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : having qualities or ways of behaving that are considered typical of young men ▪ a laddish actor ▪ laddish horseplay – lad•dish•ness noun [noncount]

lad•en /'leɪdn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : loaded heavily with something : having or carrying a large amount of something ▪ a richly/heavily laden buffet table [=a buffet table on which there is a large amount of food] ▪ sugar-laden junk food — usually + with ▪ mules/trucks heavily laden with supplies ▪ branches laden with fruit ▪ airline passengers laden with luggage — often used figuratively ▪ The song is laden with meaning and feeling. [=the song has/carries a lot of meaning and feeling] ▪ His voice was heavily laden with sarcasm. [=his voice was very sarcastic]

la–di–da /,lɑ,diˈdɑː/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : acting or talking in a false and annoying way that is thought to be typical of rich and important people ▪ some la-di-da movie star ▪ talking with a la-di-da accent

la•dies /'leɪdiz/ noun [singular] Brit, informal : LADIES' ROOM — usually used with the ▪ Can you tell me where the ladies is, please? — compare GENTS ladies' man noun, pl ~ men [count] informal : a man who enjoys being with and giving attention to women ▪ He considered himself a real ladies' man.

ladies' room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] US : a public bathroom for use by women and girls — called also (US) women's room, (Brit) ladies; compare MEN'S ROOM

[1]la•dle /'leɪdl/ noun, pl la•dles [count] : a large and deep spoon with a long handle that is used for serving a liquid ▪ a soup ladle

[2]ladle verb ladles; la•dled; la•dling [+ obj] : to take up and carry (a liquid) by using a large spoon : to serve (a liquid) with a ladle ▪ The soup was ladled into the bowls. ▪ ladling the wine into cups — often + out ▪ volunteers ladling out soup to homeless people — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He's always ladling out unwanted advice to his friends.

la•dy /'leɪdi/ noun, pl -dies [count]
1 : a woman who behaves in a polite way ▪ Her mother was always telling her to act like a lady. ▪ She's a real lady.
2 : WOMAN ▪ He bumped into some lady walking to the bus stop. ▪ (chiefly US, informal) She's one feisty/sexy lady, I can tell you! ▪ He helped a little old lady cross the street. — used especially in polite speech or when speaking to a group of women ▪ The lady behind the counter will take your order. ▪ She told her little boy to say "thank you" to the nice lady for helping them. ▪ Would someone please get the/this lady a chair? ▪ Good evening, ladies and gentlemen! ▪ Please step this way, ladies. — sometimes used informally in U.S. English when speaking to one woman ▪ Hey, lady, you forgot your purse! [=(more commonly and politely) excuse me, ma'am, you forgot your purse] — sometimes used informally before another noun ▪ a lady doctor [=(more commonly and politely) a female/woman doctor] ✧ The phrase young lady is used in informal speech as a form of address for a girl or young woman. An angry parent speaking to a daughter, for example, might address her as young lady. ▪ Just where do you think you're going, young lady?! — see also BAG LADY, CLEANING LADY, DRAGON LADY, lady luck at [1]LUCK
3 : a woman of high social position ▪ the ladies of society
4 a informal : a man's girlfriend ▪ I've been wanting to meet his new lady. b chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : a man's wife ▪ What would you and your good lady like to drink?
5 Lady : a woman who is a member of the nobility — used as a title ▪ Lady Margaret it ain't over until/till the fat lady sings US, informal — used to say that the final result of something (such as a sports contest) has not yet been decided and could still change ▪ We're losing, but remember: it ain't over till the fat lady sings. [=the game is not over; there is still a chance that we could win]
– see also FIRST LADY, LEADING LADY, OLD LADY

la•dy•bug /'leɪdi,bʌg/ noun, pl -bugs [count] US : a type of small flying insect that has a round red back with dark spots — called also (Brit) la•dy•bird /'leɪdi,bəd/ see color picture on page C10

la•dy–in–wait•ing /'leɪdijɪn'weɪtɪŋ/ noun, pl la•dies–in–wait•ing [count] : a woman whose job is provide help to a queen or princess la•dy–kill•er /'leɪdi'kɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a man who is known for being very attractive to women and who has relations with many women ▪ He had a reputation as a real lady-killer.

la•dy•like /'leɪdi,laɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : polite and quiet in a way that has traditionally been considered suited to a woman ▪ ladylike behavior ▪ encouraging young women to be more ladylike

lady of the house noun
the lady of the house somewhat old-fashioned : the female family member who has the most responsibility for taking care of and making decisions about the household ▪ Is the lady of the house at home?

La•dy•ship /'leɪdi,ʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] chiefly Brit — used in addressing or referring to a woman who is a member of the nobility ▪ Her Ladyship is not at home. ▪ Can I get Your Ladyship anything else?

[1]lag /'læg/ verb lags; lagged; lag•ging
1 [no obj] a : to move more slowly than others : to fail to walk or move as quickly as others — usually + behind ▪ One of the hikers kept lagging behind the rest of the group. ▪ We had to stop and wait because someone was lagging behind. b : to be in a position that is behind others — usually + behind ▪ a politician who is lagging behind [=trailing] in the election campaign ▪ The company has lagged behind its competitors in developing new products.
2 [no obj] : to happen or develop more slowly than expected or wanted — usually + behind ▪ Production has continued to lag (far/well/way) behind schedule/demand.
– compare [3]LAG

[2]lag noun, pl lags [singular] : a space of time between two events ▪ There is a lag of a day or two between the time you deposit a check and the time the funds are available for withdrawal. ▪ There is a slight lag between the time when the camera's shutter is pressed and the actual taking of the picture. ▪ Work on the project has resumed after a lag of several months. — called also time lag; see also JET LAG

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:33 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

[3]lag verb lags; lagged; lagging [+ obj] Brit : to cover (something, such as a pipe) with a special material (called lagging) that keeps it from losing or gaining heat ▪ Be sure to lag [=insulate] the pipe to prevent heat loss. — compare [1]LAG

la•ger /ˈlɑːgə/ noun, pl -gers [count, noncount] : a type of beer that is light in color and is aged at cool temperatures ▪ a pint of lager lager lout noun, pl ~ louts [count] Brit, informal : a man who gets drunk and then behaves badly lag•gard /ˈlægəd/ noun, pl -gards [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a person or thing that does not go or move as quickly as others ▪ The company has been a laggard in developing new products.

– laggard adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was laggard [=slow] in payment of his debts.

lag•ging /ˈlægɪŋ/ noun [noncount] Brit : a special material that is used to cover something (such as a pipe) to keep it from losing or gaining heat

la•goon /ləˈguːn/ noun, pl -goons [count] : an area of sea water that is separated from the ocean by a reef or sandbar ▪ a tropical blue lagoon

laid past tense and past participle of [1]LAY laid–back /ˈleɪdˈbæk/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : relaxed and calm ▪ My boss is pretty laid-back about most things. ▪ a laid-back attitude ▪ He enjoyed the restaurant's laid-back style.

lain past participle of [1]LIE

lair /leə/ noun, pl lairs [count]
1 : the place where a wild animal sleeps ▪ tracking the bear back to its lair
2 : a place where someone hides or where someone goes to be alone and to feel safe or comfortable ▪ the villain's lair ▪ She runs the project from her private lair in the suburbs.

laird /leəd/ noun, pl lairds [count] : a man who owns a large amount of land in Scotland lairy /ˈleri/ adj lair•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] Brit slang : unpleasantly loud, confident, etc. ▪ When he drinks he gets a bit lairy.

[1]lais•sez–faire /ˌleɪˌseɪˈfeə/ noun [noncount] economics : a policy that allows businesses to operate with very little interference from the government ▪ a strong advocate of laissez-faire

[2]laissez–faire adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] economics : favoring a policy that allows businesses to operate with very little interference from the government ▪ laissez-faire capitalism/economics — often used figuratively ▪ She took a laissez-faire approach to managing her employees. [=she allowed her employees to do what they chose to do without much direction from her]

la•ity /ˈlejəti/ noun [noncount] : the people of a religion who are not priests, ministers, etc. ▪ a member of the laity ▪ The laity has/have played an important role in the history of the church. — compare CLERGY, LAYMAN, LAYWOMAN lake /ˈleɪk/ noun, pl lakes [count] : a large area of water that is surrounded by land ▪ They own a cottage at/by/on the lake. ▪ the shores of the lake — often used in names ▪ Lake Michigan — see color picture on page C7

(go) jump in a/the lake chiefly US, informal — used as an angry way to tell someone to go away ▪ I was so mad at him that I told him to go jump in a lake.

lake•front /ˈleɪkˌfrʌnt/ noun, pl -fronts [count] chiefly US : the land beside a lake ▪ We went for a walk down at the lakefront. — often used before another noun ▪ lakefront property lake•shore /ˈleɪkˌʃoə/ noun, pl -shores [count] : the shore of a lake ▪ Follow this path to the lakeshore.; also : LAKEFRONT ▪ lakeshore condominiums lake•side /ˈleɪkˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : LAKEFRONT — usually used before another noun ▪ a lakeside home/cottage/community

la–la land /ˈlɑːˌlɑː-/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : the mental state of someone who is not aware of what is really happening — usually used in the phrase in la-la land ▪ I tried to talk to him, but he was off in la-la land. ▪ If that's what she thinks, she's living in la-la land. — called also (Brit) cloud-cuckoo-land
2 La-La Land — used as a nickname for Los Angeles, California ▪ stories about life in La-La Land

lam /ˈlæm/ noun
on the lam US, informal : trying to avoid being caught by the police ▪ two escaped convicts on the lam ✧ If you take it on the lam, you try to escape. This expression is now used mainly to suggest or imitate the language of old movies about gangsters. ▪ She stole a lot of money from her employer and took it on the lam.

la•ma /ˈlɑːmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a Buddhist priest of Tibet or Mongolia

La•maze /ləˈmɑːz/ adj, always used before a noun, medical : of or relating to a method of preparing women to give birth to children without the use of drugs ▪ taking Lamaze classes ▪ the Lamaze method

[1]lamb /ˈlæm/ noun, pl lambs
1 a [count] : a young sheep ▪ She's as gentle as a lamb. ▪ a sacrificial lamb — compare EWE, [1]RAM b [noncount] : the meat of a lamb ▪ leg/rack of lamb ▪ lamb chops
2 [count] informal : an innocent, weak, or gentle person ▪ You poor lamb.
like a lamb to the slaughter : in a very innocent way : without knowing that something bad will happen ▪ He walked into the meeting like a lamb to the slaughter.
mutton dressed as lamb see MUTTON

[2]lamb verb lambs; lambed; lamb•ing [no obj] of a sheep : to give birth to a lamb ▪ The ewes will lamb soon.

lam•baste or lam•bast /ˌlæmˈbeɪst, ˌlæmˈbæst/ verb -bastes or -basts; -bast•ed; -bast•ing [+ obj] : to criticize (someone or something) very harshly ▪ The coach lambasted the team for its poor play. ▪ They wrote several letters lambasting the new law.

lam•bent /ˈlæmbənt/ adj, formal + literary
1 : shining or glowing softly ▪ lambent flames ▪ lambent sunlight glinting off the waves
2 : having a light, appealing quality ▪ a writer known for her lambent wit

lamb•skin /ˈlæmˌskɪn/ noun, pl -skins [count, noncount] : the skin of a lamb ▪ gloves made of lambskin — often used before another noun ▪ lambskin gloves

lambs•wool /ˈlæmzˌwʊl/ noun [noncount] : soft wool from lambs — often used before another noun ▪ a lambswool sweater lame /ˈleɪm/ adj lam•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : having an injured leg or foot that makes walking difficult or painful ▪ a lame horse ▪ The horse had gone lame, and it grew lamer. ▪ The accident left him lame for life.
2 informal : not strong, good, or effective : WEAK ▪ He offered a lame apology/defense/excuse for his actions. ▪ That joke was lame.
3 US, informal : not smart or impressive ▪ She's nice, but her boyfriend is really lame.
the lame : people who are lame ▪ providing care for the sick and the lame

– lame•ly adv ▪ He hobbled lamely down the path. ▪ He lamely listed his excuses. – lame•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a common cause of lameness in horses ▪ the lameness of his excuse la•mé /lɑˈmeɪ/ noun [noncount] : shiny cloth that contains silver or gold threads lame•brain /ˈleɪmˌbreɪn/ noun, pl -brains [count] US, informal : a stupid person ▪ Listen, lamebrain, we've had enough of your idiotic suggestions!

– lamebrain or lame•brained /ˈleɪmˌbreɪnd/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ lamebrain [=stupid] ideas ▪ The movie is a lamebrained comedy.

lame duck noun, pl ~ ducks [count]
1 chiefly US : an elected official whose time in an office or position will soon end ▪ The President was a lame duck during the end of his second term. — often used before another noun ▪ a lame-duck president
2 chiefly Brit : a person, company, etc., that is weak or unsuccessful and needs help

[1]la•ment /ləˈmɛnt/ verb -ments; -ment•ed; -ment•ing formal : to express sorrow, regret, or unhappiness about something [no obj] She lamented over the loss of her best friend. ▪ (chiefly US) He was lamenting about rising gasoline prices. [+ obj] She lamented (the fact) that she had lost her best friend. = She lamented having lost her best friend. = She lamented the loss of her best friend. ▪ "I've lost my best friend!" she lamented. — see also LAMENTED

[2]lament noun, pl -ments [count] formal : an expression of sorrow; especially : a song or poem that expresses sorrow for someone who has died or something that is gone ▪ The poem is a lament for a lost love.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

la•men•ta•ble /ləˈmɛntəbəl, ˈlæməntəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : deserving to be criticized or regretted ▪ The region has a long and lamentable [=regrettable] history of ethnic fighting. ▪ a lamentable [=unfortunate] consequence of the war
– la•men•ta•bly /ləˈmɛntəbli, ˈlæməntəbli/ adv ▪ Funding for the project was lamentably low. ▪ Lamentably, they were unprepared for the disaster.

lam•en•ta•tion /ˌlæmənˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal : an expression of great sorrow or deep sadness [count] bitter lamentations for the dead [noncount] words spoken in lamentation for the dead

la•ment•ed /ləˈmɛntəd/ adj, always used before a noun : deeply missed — used to refer to someone who has died ▪ her late lamented husband

[1]lam•i•nate /ˈlæməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj] : to cover (something) with a thin layer of clear plastic for protection ▪ laminate a photograph

[2]lam•i•nate /ˈlæmənət/ noun, pl -nates : a product made by pressing together thin layers of material [noncount] The kitchen counters are made of plastic laminate. [count] plastic laminates

lam•i•na•ted /ˈlæməˌneɪtəd/ adj
1 : made by pressing together thin layers of material ▪ laminated wood ▪ laminated kitchen counters
2 : covered with a thin layer of clear plastic for protection ▪ a laminated photograph

lamp /ˈlæmp/ noun, pl lamps [count]
1 : a device that produces light ▪ turn on/off the lamp ▪ a street lamp ▪ a table/desk lamp ▪ an oil lamp [=a device that produces light by burning oil] — see picture at LIVING ROOM; see also FLOOR LAMP
2 : LIGHT BULB

lamp•light /ˈlæmpˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the light of a lamp ▪ We could see the glow of lamplight in the window.

[1]lam•poon /læmˈpuːn/ verb -poons; -pooned; -poon•ing [+ obj] : to publicly criticize (someone or something) in a way that causes laughter : to mock or make fun of (someone or something) ▪ The politician was lampooned in cartoons.

[2]lampoon noun, pl -poons [count] : a piece of writing, a cartoon, etc., that mocks or makes fun of a well-known person or thing ▪ He said such ridiculous things that he was often the target of lampoons in the press.

lamp•post /ˈlæmpˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] : a post with an outdoor lamp on top lamp•shade /ˈlæmpˌʃeɪd/ noun, pl -shades [count] : a cover that softens or directs the light of a lamp ▪ a silk/glass/paper lampshade

LAN /ˈlæn, ˌɛlˌeɪˈɛn/ noun, pl LANs [count] : LOCAL AREA NETWORK

[1]lance /ˈlæns, Brit ˈlɑːns/ noun, pl lanc•es [count] : a long, pointed weapon used in the past by knights riding on horses

[2]lance verb lances; lanced; lanc•ing [+ obj] medical : to cut (an infected area on a person's skin) with a sharp tool so that pus will flow out ▪ He had the boil/blister on his arm lanced.

lance corporal noun, pl ~ -rals [count] : a person in the U.S. Marines, the Royal Marines, or the British Army with a rank just below that of corporal lan•cet /ˈlænsət, Brit ˈlɑːnsət/ noun, pl -cets [count] medical : a sharp tool used for cutting the skin

[1]land /ˈlænd/ noun, pl lands
1 [noncount] : the solid part of the surface of the Earth : an area of ground ▪ arid/fertile/flat land ▪ the land along the highway ▪ The land stretched as far as you could see. ▪ They cleared some land to grow crops. ▪ After two days of sailing, we were miles from land. ▪ They invaded the country by land and by sea. — often used before another noun ▪ land animals [=animals that live on land] ▪ a total land area of two miles ▪ a land battle/war [=a battle/war fought on the ground rather than at sea or in the air] — see also DRY LAND, LAY OF THE LAND, WETLAND
2 : an area of the earth's solid surface that is owned by someone [noncount] They own land in Alaska. ▪ They bought some land and built a house. ▪ a piece/plot of land [plural] His lands extend as far as the eye can see. — often used before another noun ▪ land development/ownership/prices
3 [count] : a country or nation ▪ He was the most powerful politician in the land. ▪ foreign lands ▪ the lands of/in the Far East ▪ He always remained loyal to his native land. [=the country in which he was born] ▪ America, the land of opportunity — sometimes used figuratively ▪ in the land [=realm] of dreams ▪ a land of illusion — see also DREAMLAND, LA-LA LAND, NEVER-NEVER LAND, NO-MAN'S LAND, PROMISED LAND
4 the land : land in the countryside that is thought of as providing a simple and good way of living ▪ He wanted to move/get back to the land. ▪ people who are living off the land [=getting food by farming, hunting, etc.] ▪ farmers working the land [=planting and growing crops]
how the land lies chiefly Brit : the true facts about a situation ▪ Let's see how the land lies before we make any decisions. ▪ We don't know how the land lies. in the land of the living informal : ALIVE ▪ I hadn't heard from him for years and was glad to find him still in the land of the living.
land of milk and honey : a place where there is plenty of food and money and life is very easy ▪ Many immigrants thought that America was a land of milk and honey.
live off/on the fat of the land see [2]FAT

[2]land verb lands; land•ed; land•ing
1 a [no obj] : to return to the ground or another surface after a flight ▪ The plane landed on the runway. ▪ We watched the seaplanes landing on the water. ▪ The bird landed in a tree. ▪ A butterfly landed on the flower. ▪ Our flight was scheduled to land in Pittsburgh at 4:00. ▪ It was raining heavily at the airport when we landed. ▪ The plane landed safely. b [+ obj] : to cause (an airplane, helicopter, etc.) to return to the ground or another surface after a flight ▪ The pilot was able to land the plane on the runway.
2 a [no obj] : to hit or come to a surface after falling or moving through the air ▪ I fell and landed on my shoulder. [=my shoulder hit the ground when I fell] ▪ He tripped and his plate landed on the floor. [=his plate fell to the floor] ▪ The golf ball landed in the trees. ▪ I could not see where the ball landed. ▪ The cat fell from the tree but landed on its feet. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He lost his job but landed on his feet [=ended up in a good situation] when he was hired by another company just a few days later. b [+ obj] sports : to complete (a jump or other athletic movement) by landing on your feet ▪ The skater landed all her jumps. ▪ He landed his dismount from the parallel bars perfectly.
3 a [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to be in a specified place or situation ▪ The injury landed her in the hospital. ▪ His carelessness is going to land him in trouble. b [no obj] : to reach or come to a place or situation that was not planned or expected ▪ He landed (up) in jail. [=he ended up in jail] ▪ She took the wrong subway and landed on the other side of town. ▪ The team landed in first place. ▪ Another memo from the boss landed on my desk [=came to my desk] today.
4 [+ obj] : to succeed in getting (something) ▪ He landed the job. ▪ The salesman landed the order. ▪ She landed the lead part in the play.
5 a [+ obj] : to put (someone or something) onto the shore from a ship or boat ▪ The boat landed him close to the beach. ▪ The boat landed its cargo close to the beach. ▪ These craft are designed for landing troops and equipment. b [no obj] : to go onto the shore from a ship or boat ▪ The troops landed on the island. c [no obj] of a ship or boat or its passengers : to reach the shore ▪ Will the cruise ship land [=arrive] on schedule? ▪ The boat landed at dusk. ▪ There was nowhere for the boat to land.
6 [+ obj] : to catch and bring in (a fish) ▪ Farther down the stream he landed a trout.
7 [+ obj] : to hit someone with (a punch, blow, etc.) ▪ During the fight he never landed a punch.
land in your lap see [1]LAP land with [phrasal verb] land (someone) with (something or someone) Brit, informal : to force (someone) to deal with (something or someone unpleasant) ▪ I always get landed with the washing-up.

land•ed /ˈlændəd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : owning a large amount of land ▪ the landed gentry/aristocracy/class
2 : including a large amount of land ▪ a landed estate ▪ landed wealth land•fall /ˈlændˌfɑːl/ noun, pl -falls [count] : the land that is first seen or reached after a journey by sea or air ▪ From the deck of the boat, we saw our first landfall. ▪ They made landfall [=they reached land] on the fourth day of their journey.

land• ll /ˈlændˌfɪl/ noun, pl - lls
1 [noncount] : a system in which waste materials are buried under the ground ▪ using landfill to dispose of trash
2 : an area where waste is buried under the ground [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

waste buried in landfills [noncount] Part of the city was built on landfill.

land•form /ˈlændˌfoəm/ noun, pl -forms [count] geology : a natural feature (such as a mountain or valley) of the Earth's surface ▪ landforms created by glaciers land•hold•er /ˈlændˌhoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who owns land : LANDOWNER ▪ a large landholder [=a person who owns a large amount of land]

– land•hold•ing /ˈlændˌhoʊldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ a wealthy man with large landholdings

land•ing /ˈlændɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 : an act of returning to the ground or another surface after a flight [count] The plane made a smooth/perfect landing. ▪ The helicopter had to make an emergency landing. ▪ The pilot was practicing takeoffs and landings. ▪ a lunar/moon landing [=a landing on the moon] [noncount] Landing in high winds can be dangerous. ▪ Our plane was cleared for landing. — often used before another noun ▪ an airplane's landing lights ▪ a landing zone/site — see also SOFT LANDING
2 [count] : a level area at the top of stairs or between two sets of stairs ▪ We stopped to rest at the first floor landing.
3 [count] : a place where boats and ships load and unload passengers and cargo ▪ I waited at the landing for the ferry.
4 [count] : a military action in which soldiers are brought by boat, airplane, helicopter, etc., to land at a place controlled by the enemy ▪ troop landings landing craft noun, pl ~ craft [count] : a boat or ship designed to bring soldiers and equipment to the shore landing eld noun, pl ~ elds [count] : a field where aircraft land and take off : AIRFIELD landing gear noun [noncount] : the wheels and other parts of an aircraft that support its weight when it is on the ground — called also undercarriage

landing strip noun, pl ~ strips [count] : AIRSTRIP land•la•dy /ˈlændˌleɪdi/ noun, pl -dies [count]

1 : a woman who owns a house, apartment, etc., and rents it to other people
2 : a woman who runs an inn, pub, or rooming house — compare LANDLORD land•less /ˈlændləs/ adj : not owning any land ▪ landless people land•locked /ˈlændˌlɑːkt/ adj : surrounded by land ▪ a landlocked country land•lord /ˈlændˌloəd/ noun, pl -lords [count]

1 : a person who owns a house, apartment, etc., and rents it to other people — see also ABSENTEE LANDLORD
2 : a man who runs an inn, pub, or rooming house — compare LANDLADY land•lub•ber /ˈlændˌlʌbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] old-fashioned + humorous : a person who knows very little or nothing about the sea or ships : a person who is not a sailor land•mark /ˈlændˌmɑək/ noun, pl -marks [count]

1 a : an object or structure on land that is easy to see and recognize ▪ The Golden Gate Bridge is a famous/familiar landmark in San Francisco. b US : a building or place that was important in history ▪ The battlefield is a national historical landmark.
2 : a very important event or achievement ▪ The moon landing is a landmark in space exploration. ▪ The decision/ruling was a landmark in legal history. — often used before another noun ▪ a landmark legal case ▪ a landmark court decision ▪ a landmark discovery land•mass /ˈlændˌmæs/ noun, pl -mass•es [count] : a very large area of land (such as a continent) ▪ continental landmasses

land mine noun, pl ~ mines [count] : a bomb that is buried in the ground and that explodes when someone steps on it or drives over it — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an issue that is an emotional/political land mine [=an issue that could cause great emotional/political damage; an explosive issue]

land•own•er /ˈlændˌoʊnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who owns land ▪ a large landowner [=a person who owns a large amount of land] ▪ a wealthy landowner
– land•own•ing /ˈlændˌoʊnɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ landowning families

[1]land•scape /ˈlændˌskeɪp/ noun, pl -scapes
1 [count] : a picture that shows a natural scene of land or the countryside ▪ She likes to paint landscapes. ▪ a landscape painter/artist
2 [count] : an area of land that has a particular quality or appearance ▪ The farm is set in a landscape of rolling hills. ▪ He gazed out at the beautiful landscape. ▪ a desert/rural/urban landscape — see color picture on page C7
3 [count] : a particular area of activity ▪ The last several years have seen real changes in the political landscape. [=scene]
4 [noncount] : a way of printing a page so that the shorter sides are on the left and right and the longer sides are at the top and bottom — compare PORTRAIT

[2]landscape verb -scapes; -scaped; -scap•ing [+ obj] : to make changes to improve the appearance of (an area of land) ▪ A professional landscaped the yard. ▪ an area landscaped with flowering shrubs and trees ▪ a beautifully landscaped campus
– land•scap•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He hired professional landscapers to plan a garden. – landscaping noun [noncount] ▪ We admired the beautiful landscaping of the campus/yard. ▪ a landscaping service landscape architect noun, pl ~ -tects [count] : a person whose job is to plan and create large outdoor spaces such as gardens, parks, etc.

– landscape architecture noun [noncount]

landscape gardener noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who designs and creates large gardens
– landscape gardening noun [noncount]

land•slide /ˈlændˌslaɪd/ noun, pl -slides [count]
1 : a large mass of rocks and earth that suddenly and quickly moves down the side of a mountain or hill ▪ The earthquake triggered a landslide. ▪ They were buried under the landslide.
2 : an election in which the winner gets a much greater number of votes than the loser ▪ The presidential election turned out to be one of the biggest landslides in history. ▪ a landslide victory ▪ She won the election by/in a landslide.

land•slip /ˈlændˌslɪp/ noun, pl -slips [count] Brit : LANDSLIDE 1

lane /ˈleɪn/ noun, pl lanes [count]
1 : a narrow road or path ▪ a country lane — often used in the names of streets ▪ Their house is on Maple Lane.
2 : a part of road that is marked by painted lines and that is for a single line of vehicles ▪ traffic lanes ▪ a highway with three lanes = a three-lane highway ▪ The truck's driver kept changing lanes. — see also BREAKDOWN LANE, FAST LANE, PASSING LANE, SLOW LANE
3 : a narrow part of a track or swimming pool that is used by a single runner or swimmer in a race ▪ She moved to the outside lane.
4 : an ocean route used by ships ▪ shipping lanes
5 : a long narrow surface that is used for bowling ▪ a bowling lane
6 US : an area in a store (such as a supermarket) where customers form a line while waiting to pay for the things they are buying ▪ Customers with fewer than 12 items can use the express lane. [=the lane that lets people pay for their items more quickly than other lanes] memory lane see MEMORY

lan•guage /ˈlæŋgwɪʤ/ noun, pl -guag•es
1 a [noncount] : the system of words or signs that people use to express thoughts and feelings to each other ▪ spoken and written language ▪ the origin of language — often used before another noun ▪ language acquisition ▪ language skills — see also BODY LANGUAGE b [count] : any one of the systems of human language that are used and understood by a particular group of people ▪ the English language ▪ How many languages do you speak? ▪ a foreign language ▪ French is her first/native language. ▪ The book has been translated into several languages. ▪ He's learning English as a second language. ▪ After a few days in France, I realized that I didn't know the language [=I didn't know the French language] as well as I had thought. ▪ a new word that has recently entered the language ▪ a language instructor/teacher ▪ foreign language classes ▪ A language barrier existed between the two countries. [=people in the two countries did not understand each other because they spoke different languages] — see also SIGN LANGUAGE
2 [noncount] : words of a particular kind ▪ the formal language of the report ▪ the beauty of Shakespeare's language ▪ She expressed her ideas using simple and clear language. ▪ He is always careful in his use of language. ▪ bad/foul/obscene/strong/vulgar language ▪ You'd better watch your language [=be careful about the words you use] when you're talking to her.
3 [noncount] : the words and expressions used in a particular activity or by a particular group of people ▪ the language of

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:34 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

diplomacy/lawyers ▪ legal/military language

4 [count] : a system of signs and symbols that is used to control a computer ▪ a programming language

5 [count] : a system of sounds or movements by which animals communicate with each other ▪ the language of bees/dolphins speak/talk the same language : to understand each other well because of shared ideas and feelings ▪ She and I will never get along. We just don't speak the same language.

language arts noun [plural] chiefly US : school subjects (such as reading, spelling, and writing) that relate to using language language laboratory noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a room with equipment (such as computers or tape recorders) where people can listen to and practice speaking foreign languages — called also language lab lan•guid /ˈlæŋgwəd/ adj, formal + literary : showing or having very little strength, energy, or activity ▪ a long, languid sigh ▪ They proceeded at a languid pace. ▪ It was a hot, languid summer day.

– lan•guid•ly adv ▪ He was leaning languidly against the wall. ▪ The river moved languidly.

lan•guish /ˈlæŋgwɪʃ/ verb -guish•es; -guished; -guish•ing [no obj] formal + literary : to continue for a long time without activity or progress in an unpleasant or unwanted situation — usually + in ▪ The bill languished in the Senate for months. ▪ She languished in obscurity for many years until the success of her novel made her famous. ▪ an innocent man who has been languishing in prison for years

lan•guor /ˈlæŋgə/ noun, literary : a state of feeling tired and relaxed [noncount] They enjoyed the languor brought on by a hot summer afternoon. [singular] They felt an indefinable languor.
– lan•guor•ous /ˈlæŋgərəs/ adj ▪ a long languorous afternoon – lan•guor•ous•ly adv

lank /ˈlæŋk/ adj, of hair : hanging straight down in an unattractive way ▪ a woman with long, lank hair lanky /ˈlæŋki/ adj lank•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : tall and thin with usually an awkward quality ▪ a lanky teenager ▪ a lanky fashion model

lan•o•lin /ˈlænələn/ noun [noncount] : an oily substance that comes from sheep's wool and that is used for making soaps and lotions

lan•tern /ˈlæntən/ noun, pl -terns [count] : a light that has usually a glass covering and that can be carried by a handle — see picture at CAMPING; see also MAGIC LANTERN

lan•tern–jawed /ˈlæntənˌʤɑ:d/ adj — used to describe someone whose lower jaw sticks out beyond the upper jaw ▪ a tall lantern-jawed man

[1]lap /ˈlæp/ noun, pl laps [count] : the area between the knees and the hips of a person who is sitting down ▪ A child was sitting on his lap. ▪ She held the baby in/on her lap. ▪ He kept his hands in/on his lap. ▪ The students rested the books in/on their laps.

drop/fall into your lap or land in your lap informal ✧ If something good drops/falls into your lap or lands in your lap, it comes to you suddenly in an unexpected way even though you did not try to get it. ▪ This wonderful new job just fell into my lap when I was least expecting it!

drop/dump (something) in/into/on your lap informal ✧ If something is dropped/dumped in/into/on your lap, it is given to you suddenly even though you did not want it or expect it. ▪ Another major problem was dumped into her lap.

in the lap of luxury : in a situation of great ease, comfort, and wealth ▪ She was reared in the lap of luxury.

in the lap of the gods chiefly Brit : not yet decided or certain ▪ The election is too close to call: the result is in the lap of the gods.

– compare [3]LAP

[2]lap verb laps; lapped; lap•ping [+ obj]

1 : to cause (something) to partly cover something else — often + over ▪ lap one shingle over another

2 : to go past (another racer who is one or more laps behind you) ▪ When I lapped the runner who was in second place, I knew I'd have an easy victory.

– compare [4]LAP

[3]lap noun, pl laps [count]

1 : an act of going completely around a track or over a course when you are running, swimming, etc. ▪ The race is 12 laps long. ▪ With one lap remaining, the race was still close. ▪ the last/final lap of the race ▪ (US) He was swimming/doing laps in the pool. [=he was swimming from one end of the pool to the other and then back again] ✧ The winner of a race often takes a victory lap (US) or lap of honour (Brit) by going around the track or over the course alone one more time as a way to celebrate.

2 : a part of a journey ▪ They were in the last lap [=stage, leg] of their trip home from Europe.

– compare [1]LAP

[4]lap verb laps; lapped; lap•ping

1 : to drink by licking with the tongue [no obj] The dog was lapping at the water in the puddle. [+ obj] The cat lapped the water in the dish. — often + up ▪ The dog lapped up the water in the puddle. — often used figuratively ▪ The crowd lapped up every word he said. [=the crowd eagerly listened to and accepted every word he said] ▪ He was making some outrageous claims, but the audience was really lapping it up.

2 of water : to move repeatedly over or against something in gentle waves [no obj] The waves lapped at/against the shore. [+ obj] Waves gently lapped the shore.

– compare [2]LAP

– lapping noun [noncount] ▪ the lapping of the waves lap belt noun, pl ~ belts [count] : a seat belt that fastens across your lap lap dancing noun [noncount] : an activity in which a performer (such as a dancer at a nightclub or strip club) makes sexual movements while sitting on the lap of a customer – lap dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] – lap dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

lap•dog /ˈlæpˌdɑ:g/ noun, pl -dogs [count]

1 : a dog that is small enough to be held in a person's lap

2 : a weak person who is controlled by someone else ▪ His coworkers regarded him as the boss's lap dog.

la•pel /ləˈpɛl/ noun, pl -pels [count] : either one of the two folds of fabric that are below the collar on the front of a coat or jacket ▪ He wore a carnation in his lapel. — see color picture on page C15

la•pis la•zu•li /ˌlæpəsˈlæzəli, Brit ˌlæpəsˈlæzjʊli/ noun [noncount] : a deep blue stone that is used in jewelry — called also lapis; see color picture on page C11

[1]lapse /ˈlæps/ noun, pl laps•es [count]

1 a : an occurrence in which you fail to think or act in the usual or proper way for a brief time and make a mistake ▪ He blamed the error on a minor mental lapse. ▪ As he grew older he began to have memory lapses. [=times when he forgot things that he should have remembered] — often + in ▪ a lapse in decorum/civility/judgment ▪ a serious lapse in security — often + of ▪ She had a brief lapse of attention/concentration. b : an occurrence in which someone behaves badly for usually a short period of time ▪ moral lapses ▪ a politician who is being accused of ethical lapses [=accused of doing things that are not ethical] c : a change that results in worse behavior ▪ a lapse into bad habits

2 : a period of time between events — often + of ▪ He returned to college after a lapse of several years.

3 : the ending of something that happens when the payments necessary for it to continue are not made — often + of ▪ the lapse of an insurance policy ▪ the lapse of a magazine subscription

[2]lapse verb lapses; lapsed; laps•ing [no obj]

1 : to stop for usually a brief time ▪ After a few polite words the conversation lapsed. ▪ Her interest in politics lapsed while she was in medical school.

2 : to become no longer effective or valid ▪ She didn't pay the premium and her life insurance policy lapsed. ▪ He forgot to renew his driver's license, so it lapsed. ▪ She allowed the magazine subscription to lapse.

lapse into [phrasal verb] lapse into (something) 1 : to begin using or doing (something that should be avoided) for a short period of time ▪ He's a good writer, but he occasionally lapses into jargon. 2 : to begin to be in (a worse or less active state or condition) ▪ The crowd lapsed into silence. ▪ The patient lapsed into [=slipped into] a coma. ▪ He lapsed into unconsciousness. ▪ The society lapsed into decline.

lapsed adj, always used before a noun

1 : no longer believing or following the teachings of a religion ▪ a lapsed Catholic/Mormon

2 : no longer effective or valid ▪ a lapsed insurance policy lap•top /ˈlæpˌtɑ:p/ noun, pl -tops [count] : a small computer that is designed to be easily carried ▪ He uses a laptop for business when he travels. — called also laptop computer; compare DESKTOP

lar•ce•ny /ˈlɑəsəni/ noun, pl -nies law : the act of stealing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

something : THEFT [noncount] He was arrested and charged with larceny. [count] He has been accused of several larcenies. — see also GRAND LARCENY, PETIT LARCENY
– lar•ce•nous /ˈlɑərsənəs/ adj ▪ a larcenous act laptop

larch /ˈlɑərʧ/ noun, pl larch•es [count, noncount] : a type of tree that is related to the pines and that drops its needles in the winter

[1]lard /ˈlɑərd/ noun [noncount] : a soft white substance that is made from the fat of pigs and used in cooking

[2]lard verb lards; lard•ed; lard•ing [+ obj] : to put pieces of fat onto or into (something) before cooking ▪ a roast larded with bacon lard with [phrasal verb] lard (something) with (something) : to add a large amount of (something) to (something) ▪ He always lards his lectures with statistics. [=he always includes many statistics in his lectures] — often used as (be) larded with ▪ a novel larded with clichés ▪ Her comments were larded with phony sentiment.

lar•der /ˈlɑərdə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small room or area where food is kept : PANTRY

[1]large /ˈlɑərʤ/ adj larg•er; -est
1 : great in size or amount : BIG ▪ a large room ▪ a large corporation ▪ a large glass of water ▪ It's the largest city in the state. ▪ It's the third largest city in the state. [=there are two other cities that are larger] ▪ These T-shirts are available in three sizes: small, medium, and large. ▪ Which city has the largest population? ▪ Her policies are supported by a large part/portion/percentage of the population. ▪ A large number of workers have filed complaints. ▪ She used to be thin, but she's gotten a bit large [=(less politely) fat] in recent years. ▪ He's a very large man. [=(usually) a tall and heavy man] ▪ He has a very large appetite.
2 : not limited in importance, range, etc. ▪ She's planning to play a larger [=more active] role in the negotiations. ▪ We need to take a/the large view of this issue. [=we need to look at this issue in a broad or general way]
(as) large as life see [1]LIFE at large 1 : not having been captured ▪ The criminal is still at large. [=free] 2 : as a group : as a whole ▪ His statements do not reflect the beliefs of the public at large. [=the beliefs of most people] ▪ society at large 3 US : not having a specific subject ▪ a critic at large [=a critic who writes about many different things] 4 US, politics : representing a whole state or area rather than one of its parts — used in combination with a preceding noun ▪ a city councilor-at-large bulk large see [3]BULK by and large see [2]BY in large part or in large measure : not entirely but mostly : LARGELY ▪ The success of the play was in large part due to the director. ▪ The economy is based in large measure [=for the most part] on farming.
larger than life 1 : bigger than the size of an actual person or thing ▪ The statue is larger than life. ▪ a larger-than-life image 2 of a person : having an unusually exciting, impressive, or appealing quality ▪ My grandmother was a remarkable woman who always seemed larger than life to me. ▪ a larger-than-life hero live large see [1]LIVE loom large see [1]LOOM to a large extent see EXTENT writ large see [2]WRIT
– large•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the largeness of the dog ▪ the largeness of the population

[2]large noun, pl larg•es [count] : something that is sold in a large size : something that is bigger than others of the same kind ▪ These shirts are all larges. ▪ "What size ice-cream cones do you want?" "We'll take three larges and a small."

large intestine noun, pl ~ -tines [count] : the end part of the intestine that is wider and shorter than the small intestine — see picture at HUMAN large•ly /ˈlɑərʤli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : not completely but mostly ▪ The story is largely true. ▪ He is largely responsible for the problem. ▪ The economy is based largely on farming.

large–scale adj
1 : involving many people or things ▪ Their equipment isn't suitable for large-scale production. [=it cannot be used to make things in large amounts]
2 : covering or involving a large area ▪ a large-scale network ▪ a large-scale map

lar•gesse also lar•gess /lɑəˈʒɛs/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : the act of giving away money or the quality of a person who gives away money ▪ He relied on the largesse of friends after he lost his job. ▪ a philanthropist known for his largesse [=generosity]; also : money that is given away ▪ projects depending on a flow of federal largesse [=money from the federal government]

larg•ish /ˈlɑərʤɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : fairly large ▪ He has a largish nose.

[1]lark /ˈlɑərk/ noun, pl larks [count] : any one of several birds that usually have pleasant songs — see also MEADOWLARK, SKYLARK — compare [2]LARK

[2]lark noun, pl larks informal
1 [count] : something done for enjoyment or adventure ▪ (US) She entered the race on/as a lark. = (chiefly Brit) She entered the race for a lark. [=she entered the race just as a way to have fun]
2 [noncount] Brit : activity of a specified kind : BUSINESS ▪ All this housework lark is harder than I thought!
– compare [1]LARK

[3]lark verb larks; larked; lark•ing lark about or lark around [phrasal verb] Brit informal : to behave in a silly and enjoyable way ▪ The girls were larking about in the backyard.

lar•va /ˈlɑərvə/ noun, pl lar•vae /ˈlɑərˌviː/ [count] : a very young form of an insect that looks like a worm ▪ The larva of a butterfly is called a caterpillar.
– lar•val /ˈlɑərvəl/ adj ▪ the larval stage of an insect lar•yn•gi•tis /ˌlerənˈʤaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease in which your throat and larynx become sore so that it is difficult to talk lar•ynx /ˈlerɪŋks/ noun, pl la•ryn•ges /ləˈrɪnˌʤiːz/ or lar•ynx•es [count] medical : the part of your throat that contains the vocal cords — called also voice box

la•sa•gna (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit la•sa•gne /ləˈzɑːnjə, Brit ləˈsænjə/ noun, pl -gnas [count, noncount] : a type of Italian food that has layers of flat noodles baked with a sauce usually of tomatoes, cheese, and meat — see picture at PASTA las•civ•i•ous /ləˈsɪvijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : filled with or showing sexual desire ▪ lascivious acts/thoughts ▪ a lascivious young man ▪ He was arrested for lewd and lascivious behavior.

– las•civ•i•ous•ly adv – las•civ•i•ous•ness noun [noncount]

la•ser /ˈleɪzə/ noun, pl -sers [count] : a device that produces a narrow and powerful beam of light that has many special uses in medicine, industry, etc. ▪ doctors using a laser to perform delicate eye surgery — often used before another noun ▪ laser surgery ▪ laser technology laser beam noun, pl ~ beams [count] : the narrow beam of light produced by a laser laser disc noun, pl ~ discs [count] : OPTICAL DISK

laser printer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a computer printer that prints an image formed by a laser beam — compare INK-JET PRINTER

[1]lash /ˈlæʃ/ verb lash•es; lashed; lash•ing
1 : to hit (a person or animal) with a whip, stick, or something similar [+ obj] The sailor was lashed for disobeying the captain. [no obj] — + at ▪ The jockey lashed (away) at the horse with his whip.
2 : to hit (something) with force [+ obj] Rain lashed the side of the house. ▪ Waves lashed the shore. [no obj] — + at ▪ Waves lashed at the shore.
3 : to make a sudden and angry attack against (someone) [+ obj] The singer lashed her critics with angry words. [no obj] — + at ▪ The singer lashed back at her critics. — often used in the phrase lash out at ▪ He lashed out at the government for its failure to cut taxes. ▪ The cat suddenly lashed out at me when I tried to pet it.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (a group of people) to become angry or violent — + into ▪ He lashed [=whipped] the mob into a fury with his violent words.
5 of an animal : to move (the tail) from side to side in a forceful way [+ obj] The tiger lashed its tail. [no obj] The tiger's tail was lashing from side to side.
– compare [3]LASH

[2]lash noun, pl lashes

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

1 a [count] : a hit with a whip ▪ They gave the sailor 50 lashes for disobeying orders. b *the lash : the punishment of being hit with a whip ▪ The disobedient sailors were threatened with the lash. c [count] : the thin piece on the end of a whip 2 [count] : EYELASH — usually plural ▪ She has long and beautiful lashes.

[3]lash verb lashes; lashed; lashing [+ obj] : to tie (something) to an object with a rope, cord, or chain ▪ They lashed the canoe to the top of the car. ▪ He lashed the logs together to make a raft. ▪ Everything was lashed down securely so that it wouldn't blow away. — compare [1]LASH

lash•ing /ˈlæʃɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 [singular] : the act of hitting someone with a whip as a form of punishment ▪ They gave the sailor a lashing. — often used figuratively ▪ She gave him a lashing for being late. [=she shouted at him angrily for being late] — see also TONGUE-LASHING
2 lashings [plural] : ropes used for tying, wrapping, or connecting things ▪ a ship's lashings
3 lashings [plural] Brit, informal : a large amount of something ▪ She put lashings of butter on her muffin.

lass /ˈlæs/ noun, pl lass•es [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a girl or young woman ▪ a pretty Scottish lass — compare LAD lass•ie /ˈlæsi/ noun, pl -ies [count] chiefly Scotland, informal : a young girl : LASS ▪ when she was just a wee lassie ▪ Don't cry, lassie. — compare LADDIE las•si•tude /ˈlæsəˌtu:d, Brit ˈlæsəˌtju:d/ noun [noncount] formal + medical : the condition of being tired : lack of physical or mental energy ▪ Symptoms of the disease include paleness and lassitude.

[1]las•so /ˈlæsoʊ, læˈsu:/ noun, pl -sos or -soes [count] : a rope with a loop that is used for catching animals (such as cattle or horses)

[2]lasso verb -so or -soes; -soed; -so•ing [+ obj] : to catch (an animal) with a lasso ▪ The cowboy lassoed the horse. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ an actor who has lassoed a major role [=an actor who has succeeded in getting a major role]

L

[1]last /ˈlæst, Brit ˈlɑ:st/ verb lasts; last•ed; last•ing
1 a [no obj] : to continue in time ▪ How long does the movie last? ▪ The movie lasts (for) about two hours. [=the movie is about two hours long] ▪ The conference starts on Monday and it lasts until Friday. ▪ The game lasted (for) three hours. ▪ Don't worry, the storm won't/can't last. [=the storm will end soon] b [no obj] : to continue in good condition ▪ The car should last 10 years. ▪ I doubt that those boots will last (much longer). ▪ That bridge will last a long time. ▪ Our products are built to last. c [no obj] : to continue to be available ▪ These oranges are on sale while they/supplies last. [=they are on sale until they have all been sold] d : to continue to be enough for the needs of someone [no obj] We have enough food to last (for) the rest of the week. [+ obj] We have enough food to last us (for) the rest of the week. ▪ That car should last you ten years. [=you should not have to get another car for ten years]
2 [no obj] a : to be able to continue in a particular situation or condition ▪ I am not sure he will last in his new job. ▪ Can you last a whole day without cigarettes? b : to continue to live ▪ My father is very ill. He may not last much longer. ▪ He may not last (through) the night. [=he may die before the night has ended] ▪ (chiefly Brit) He may not last out the night.
last the distance see [1]DISTANCE

[2]last adj
1 a : coming after all others in time, order, or importance : FINAL ▪ He was the last one out of the building. ▪ She succeeded on her last attempt. ▪ These are the last two books in the series. ▪ He was sitting in the last [=back] row. ▪ We are going to the beach for the last week of the summer. ▪ The (very) last time we ever met was at a party. = (Brit) The last ever time we met was at a party. ▪ I'll have my revenge if it's the last thing I (ever) do! [=I am determined to get my revenge] b : remaining after the rest are gone ▪ I am down to my last dollar. [=I have one dollar left] ▪ the last cookie in the jar ▪ She said she wouldn't marry him if he was the last man on earth.
2 : belonging to the final part of something ▪ He was tragically killed during the last days of the war. ▪ the last hours of her life = her last hours on earth
3 : most recent ▪ I haven't seen her recently. The last time we met was at a party. ▪ I liked her last [=previous] novel better than this new one. — used to identify a preceding period of time ▪ Last month we went to the museum. ▪ The weather was fine last week, but this week has been rainy, and next week is expected to be cold. ▪ He had trouble last semester in school. ▪ We saw them last week.
4 a : least likely ▪ You are the last person I would expect to see here. [=I never expected to see you here] ▪ That is the last place I would have looked for the ring. [=I would never have expected to find the ring there] b : least desirable ▪ Another bill to pay is the last thing I need right now! c : least important ▪ Right now work is the last thing on my mind. [=I am not thinking about work at all right now] every last — used as a more forceful way of saying every ▪ Every last soldier was captured. [=every soldier was captured] ▪ He ate every last cookie. [=he ate every cookie]
in the last analysis see ANALYSIS last gasp : a final attempt or effort made at the very end ▪ This movie may be his last gasp as an actor. ▪ winter's last gasp [=the last bit of winter weather before spring] — see also LAST-GASP last thing : after everything else ▪ Heat the vegetables last thing so that they don't get cold. : very late ▪ I'll be back last thing (on) Monday night.
on your/its last legs see [1]LEG the last laugh see [2]LAUGH
the last moment see MOMENT the last straw see STRAW
the last word see [1]WORD to the last man see [1]MAN

[3]last adv
1 : after any others in time, order, or importance ▪ He spoke last at the meeting. ▪ My horse was/finished last in the race. ▪ My horse came in last. = (chiefly Brit) My horse came last. ▪ Last (of all) came the soldiers and tanks. ▪ She was first to arrive at the party and last to leave. : at the end ▪ The best part of the book comes last. [=the best part of the book comes at the end] ✧ In figurative use, something or someone that comes last is less important than other things or people. ▪ His job was all he really cared about. His personal life always came last with him.
2 : most recently : on the most recent occasion ▪ I last saw him in the supermarket. ▪ They last went to the beach in June. ▪ This word was last used in the 17th century.
3 — used to introduce a final statement or subject ▪ Last, I'd like to talk about the company's future.
first and last see [2]FIRST last but not least — used to say that a final statement is not less important than previous statements ▪ The television is big, has an excellent picture, and last but not least, it's cheap. ▪ Last but not least, I would like to introduce our new vice president.

[4]last pronoun
1 the last : the last person or thing in a group or series ▪ He was the last in line. ▪ It was the last of many delays. ▪ She was the last to leave. ▪ The last of the tests was given today. ▪ This is the first time we've been here, but it definitely won't be the last! [=we will definitely come here again]
2 a the last : the last time someone is seen, something is mentioned, etc. ▪ I guess that is the last we will see of her. [=the last time we will see her] ▪ I hope that we have finally seen the last of them. [=I hope that we will not see them again] ▪ He knew he had not heard the last of his mistake. [=he knew that he would hear again about his mistake] ▪ Don't tell them about your mistake or you'll never hear the last of it. [=they'll keep reminding you of it] b : a final action ▪ I've spoken my last on this subject. [=I've spoken for the last time on this subject; I will not be saying anything more on this subject] c informal — used to describe the most recent information you have about someone or something ▪ "Where's Hank these days?" "(The) Last I heard, he was living in New York." [=the most recent information I have heard is that he was living in New York] ▪ "Do you know where my keys are?" "(The) Last I saw [=the last time I saw them], they were in the kitchen."
3 the last a : the end of something ▪ We stayed at the game till/until the last. [=until it ended] ▪ They fought hard to the last. b : the end of someone's life ▪ He was cheerful to the last. [=until he died]
4 a : the final thing or things that have been mentioned previously ▪ They had cats, dogs, and a horse. This last [=the horse] was kept in an old barn. b : the most recent one of something ▪ The week before last [=the week before last week] I saw him at a restaurant. ▪ the night before last breathe your last literary : to die ▪ This is the room where

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

he breathed his last. [=where he breathed his last breath; where he died]

5last noun

at last* or *at long last : after a delay or long period of time ▪ She was at last [=finally] reunited with her sister. ▪ We're finished at last. ▪ "We're finished." "At last!" ▪ It appears that this problem will soon be solved, at long last.

last call noun [noncount] US : the time when the customers in a place where drinks are sold (such as a bar) are told that they can order one more drink before it closes ▪ We stayed till last call. — called also (Brit) last orders

last–ditch /ˈlæstˈdɪʧ, Brit ˈlɑːstˈdɪʧ/ adj, always used before a noun : made as a final effort to keep something bad from happening ▪ The troops made a desperate last-ditch effort to keep the town from being captured. ▪ The negotiations were a last-ditch attempt to prevent a labor strike.

last–gasp /ˈlæstˈgæsp, Brit ˈlɑːstˈgɑːsp/ adj, always used before a noun : done or happening at the very end ▪ The store changed its name in a last-gasp [=last-ditch] effort to attract customers. ▪ (chiefly Brit) a last-gasp goal [=a goal scored at the very end of a game] — see also last gasp at 2LAST

last hurrah noun, pl ~ -rahs [count] : a last effort, production, or appearance ▪ The movie was his last hurrah. [=it was the last movie that he appeared in] last•ing /ˈlæstɪŋ, Brit ˈlɑːstɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : existing or continuing for a long time ▪ a book with lasting significance ▪ The trip had a lasting effect on her.

– last•ing•ly adv

Last Judgment noun

the Last Judgment : the time when according to some religions all people will be judged by God : JUDGMENT DAY last•ly /ˈlæstli, Brit ˈlɑːstli/ adv : at the end ▪ He worked for the company as a manager, treasurer, vice president, and lastly, as president. — used to introduce the last things you are going to say ▪ Lastly, I would like to discuss the company's future plans. — compare FIRSTLY

last minute noun

the last minute : the last possible time when something can be done ▪ You shouldn't wait until the last minute before planning your retirement. ▪ They were making changes to the show right up to the last minute.
– last–minute adj, always used before a noun ▪ last-minute changes to the show ▪ They won the game with a last-minute touchdown.

last name noun, pl ~ names [count] : the name that comes at the end of someone's full name ▪ His first name is John and his last name is Smith. — compare SURNAME

last orders noun [plural] Brit : LAST CALL

last post noun

the last post Brit : TAPS

last rites noun

the last rites : a religious ceremony that is performed by a Catholic priest for someone who is dying ▪ The priest administered the last rites.

1latch /ˈlæʧ/ noun, pl latch•es [count]

1 : a device that holds a door, gate, or window closed and that consists of a bar that falls into a holder when it is closed and that is lifted when it is open ▪ He lifted the latch and opened the gate.

2 chiefly Brit : a type of door lock that can be opened from the inside by turning a lever or knob but can only be opened from the outside with a key ▪ I heard her key turn/click in the latch.

on the latch Brit, of a door : closed but not locked ▪ I left the front door on the latch so that she could get in.

2latch verb latches; latched; latch•ing [+ obj] : to close or fasten (something, such as a door) with a latch ▪ latch the gate — compare 3LATCH

3latch verb latches; latched; latching

latch on [phrasal verb] informal 1 Brit : to begin to understand something ▪ What he was saying was complicated, so it took me a while to latch on. [=catch on] 2 latch on to (something) or latch onto (something) a : to grab and hold (something) ▪ He latched onto her arm and wouldn't let go. — often used figuratively ▪ The news media has latched on to the scandal. b : to begin using or doing (something) in an enthusiastic way ▪ Many companies have latched onto [=adopted] the trend of using consultants. : to choose (something) in an enthusiastic way ▪ He latched onto music as a way to relax. 3 latch on to (someone or something) or latch onto (someone or something) : to stay close to (someone or something) ▪ Soon after she got to the party, some strange man latched on to her [=started talking to her] and wouldn't go away.
– compare 2LATCH

latch•key /ˈlæʧˌkiː/ noun, pl -keys [count] : a key for opening an outside door

latchkey child noun, pl ~ children [count] : a young child who is alone at home after school because the child's parents are working — called also latchkey kid

1late /ˈleɪt/ adj lat•er; -est

1 : existing or happening near the end of a period of time ▪ It happened in late spring. ▪ His health problems began when he was in his late thirties. [=when he was about 38 or 39 years old] ▪ The problems began in the late 1930s. [=in about 1938 or 1939] ▪ a word first recorded in the late 17th century ▪ It was late (in the evening) when we finally went to bed. — opposite EARLY; see also LATER

2 a : coming or happening after the usual, expected, or desired time ▪ The train is (a half hour) late. ▪ We had a late spring this year. ▪ I'm sorry I'm late. ▪ He made a late payment. = He was late with his payment. = He was late (in) paying. ▪ Hurry up or we'll be late for school. ▪ We arrived late because we got/had/made a late start. [=we started at a later time than we had meant to] ▪ Their warning was too late to help him. — opposite EARLY b : doing something after the usual time or before others usually do ▪ I've always been a late riser. ▪ a late walker [=a child who learned to walk at a later age than most other children] — opposite EARLY

3 always used before a noun : living until recently : not now living ▪ He made a donation to the school in memory of his late wife. ▪ the late John Smith

born too late see BORN

it's getting late — used to say that time is passing and especially that evening or late evening is coming ▪ It's getting late so we should probably go home.

late bloomer see BLOOMER

late in the day : after the expected or proper time ▪ It's rather late in the day for an apology now, don't you think? [=it's late for an apology; you should have apologized sooner]

late night : a night when you stay awake until a late hour ▪ We're tired today because we had a late night [=stayed up late] last night. — see also LATE-NIGHT – late•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the lateness of the hour ▪ the lateness of the payment

2late adv later; -est

1 : at or near the end of a period of time or a process, activity, series, etc. ▪ Late in the year he became ill. ▪ It rained late in the day. ▪ Late in his career he moved to the city. ▪ a word first recorded late in the 17th century ▪ They were trailing by a touchdown late in the fourth quarter. ▪ The package should be arriving late next week. — opposite EARLY

2 : after the usual or expected time ▪ She arrived at work (a half hour) late. ▪ He sent in his job application late. ▪ They arrived too late for breakfast. ▪ I like getting up late. ▪ The package arrived late, but better late than never! ▪ She's been working late. ▪ They stayed late. — opposite EARLY as late as : as recently as — used in referring to a time that you think is surprisingly recent ▪ The company is now in serious trouble, but it was reporting record profits as late as last year.

late of formal : having recently lived or worked in (a place, a company, etc.) ▪ The company's new president is Mark Jones, late of Chicago.

of late formal : during a recent period ▪ They have not seen him of late. [=lately, recently] ▪ Of late she has been acting strangely.

late•com•er /ˈleɪtˌkʌmɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who arrives late ▪ Latecomers had to park their cars far from the stadium.

2 : someone or something that has recently arrived or become involved in something : NEWCOMER — often + to ▪ He's a latecomer to the trumpet. [=he started playing the trumpet recently] ▪ The company is a latecomer to the video-game industry.

late•ly /ˈleɪtli/ adv : in the recent period of time : RECENTLY ▪ He has been feeling better lately. ▪ Lately, she has been worrying about her son.

late–night adj, always used before a noun : happening or appearing late at night ▪ late-night television ▪ late-night comedians la•tent /ˈleɪtn̩t/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe something (such as a disease) that exists but is not active or

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

cannot be seen ▪ a latent infection ▪ The house they bought had latent defects.
– la•ten•cy /ˈleɪtn̩si/ noun [noncount] ▪ The disease was in a period of latency. [=the disease was present but had not produced any noticeable symptoms] ▪ the latency period of a disease

[1]lat•er /ˈleɪtɚ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : happening near the end of a process, activity, series, life, etc. ▪ among the composer's later works ▪ The early sections of the book are quite different from the later sections. ▪ His later years were tranquil.
2 : coming or happening after a certain time or at a future time ▪ They met again on a later occasion.

[2]later adv : at a time in the future ▪ I'll talk to you again later.
: at a time following an earlier time ▪ They later regretted the decision. ▪ She returned several weeks later. ▪ I saw him again later that morning. ▪ We'll need to know your decision no/not later than next week. [=we'll need to know your decision by next week] ✧ In informal spoken English, later is used especially by young people as a shortened form of the phrase (I'll) see you later to say goodbye to someone. ▪ Later, dudes!
later on : at a time in the future or following an earlier time ▪ We'll talk about this subject some more later on. ▪ They regretted their decision later on.
sooner or later see SOON

[1]lat•er•al /ˈlætərəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : toward, on, or coming from the side ▪ a lateral view of the human body [=a view from the side] ▪ the lateral force of an earthquake
– lat•er•al•ly adv ▪ moved the eyeball laterally [=toward the side]

[2]lateral noun, pl -als [count] American football : a pass thrown to the side or backward — called also lateral pass

lateral thinking noun [noncount] chiefly Brit : a method for solving problems by making unusual or unexpected connections between ideas – lateral thinker noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

[1]lat•est /ˈleɪtəst/ adj, always used before a noun : most recent ▪ She's interested in all the latest fashions. ▪ Have you heard the latest news (about it)? ▪ He is the latest person to announce his resignation.

[2]latest noun [count] : the last possible or acceptable time — usually used in the phrase at the latest ▪ The job will definitely be finished by next year at the (very) latest.
the latest informal 1 : the most recent news or information about something ▪ Have you heard the latest? 2 : the most recent or modern version of something — + in ▪ The store carries the latest in home improvement products.

la•tex /ˈleɪˌtɛks/ noun [noncount] : a white fluid produced by certain plants that is used for making rubber; also : a similar material that is used for making various products (such as paint and glue) — often used before another noun ▪ latex paint ▪ latex gloves lath /ˈlæθ, Brit ˈlɑːθ/ noun, pl laths [count] : a long and thin piece of wood that is used in walls and ceilings to support plaster, tiles, etc.

lathe /ˈleɪð/ noun, pl lathes [count] : a machine in which a piece of wood or metal is held and turned while being shaped by a sharp tool

[1]lath•er /ˈlæðɚ, Brit ˈlɑːðə/ noun
1 : tiny bubbles formed from soap mixed with water [noncount] The soap and water formed a lot of lather. [singular] The soap and water formed a lather.
2 [singular] informal : a very upset, angry, or worried condition ▪ Her parents were in a lather [=were very upset] when she came home late. ▪ He worked himself into a lather [=he became very upset] thinking of his former wife and her new boyfriend. ▪ Don't get in a lather [=get upset] about something so unimportant.

[2]lather verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 [+ obj] : to spread lather over (something) ▪ He lathered his face before shaving.
2 [no obj] : to form lather ▪ The soap lathers easily.

[1]Lat•in /ˈlætn̩/ noun, pl -ins
1 [noncount] : the language of ancient Rome
2 [count] : a person born or living in Latin America or in a country (such as Spain or Italy) where a language that comes from Latin is spoken

[2]Latin adj
1 : based on, relating to, or written in Latin ▪ Latin grammar ▪ Latin poetry
2 : of or relating to the people of Central America and South America ▪ Latin music
3 : of or relating to the people of European countries (such as Spain and Italy) in which languages that come from Latin are spoken ▪ a Latin lover

La•ti•na /ləˈtiːnə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : a woman or girl who was born in or lives in South America, Central America, or Mexico or a woman or girl in the U.S. whose family is originally from South America, Central America, or Mexico — compare LATINO
– Latina adj ▪ a famous Latina singer

Latin–American adj : based in or relating to the American countries south of the U.S. where people speak Spanish and Portuguese ▪ a person of Latin-American origin ▪ Latin-American literature ▪ Latin-American leaders

La•ti•no /ləˈtiːnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] : a person who was born or lives in South America, Central America, or Mexico or a person in the U.S. whose family is originally from South America, Central America, or Mexico ✧ The singular form Latino usually refers to a man. The plural form Latinos often refers to men and women as a group. — compare LATINA
– Latino adj ▪ Latino children

lat•i•tude /ˈlætəˌtuːd, Brit ˈlætəˌtjuːd/ noun, pl -tudes
1 a : distance north or south of the equator measured in degrees up to 90 degrees [noncount] a map of the world showing lines of latitude and longitude ▪ an island located at 40 degrees north latitude [=at a point 40 degrees north of the equator] [count] located at a latitude of 40 degrees north — compare LONGITUDE 1 b [count] : an imaginary line that circles the Earth at a particular latitude and that is parallel to the equator ▪ Madrid and New York City are on nearly the same latitude. ▪ islands located at different latitudes ▪ The star is only seen from the northern latitudes. [=the northern parts of the world] — compare LONGITUDE 2 2 [noncount] somewhat formal : freedom to choose how to act or what to do ▪ We weren't given much latitude in deciding how to do the job. ▪ The judge has wide/considerable latitude to reject evidence for the trial.
– lat•i•tu•di•nal /ˌlætəˈtuːdənəl, Brit ˌlætəˈtjuːdənəl/ adj

la•trine /ləˈtriːn/ noun, pl -trines [count] : an outdoor toilet that is usually a hole dug in the ground

lat•te /ˈlɑːˌteɪ, Brit ˈlæˌteɪ/ noun, pl -tes [count] : CAFFE LATTE

lat•ter /ˈlætɚ/ adj, always used before a noun : coming or happening near the end of a process, activity, series, life, etc. : LATER ▪ the latter stages of the process ▪ We'll go in the latter half of the year. ▪ In his latter years he became blind.
the latter 1 : the second one of two things or people that have been mentioned ▪ Of these two options, the former is less expensive, while the latter is less risky. ▪ He has cars and trucks, and even though the former are easier to drive, the latter are more useful. 2 : the last thing or person mentioned ▪ Of chicken, fish, and meat, I like the latter best. [=I like meat the best] : the thing or person that has just been mentioned ▪ The President—or, if the latter is too busy, the Vice President—will see you shortly. — compare the former at FORMER lat•ter–day /ˈlætɚˌdeɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : regarded as a modern version of someone or something from the past ▪ He seems to think he's some sort of latter-day Moses who will lead us out of bondage.

lat•ter•ly /ˈlætɚli/ adv, chiefly Brit, formal
1 : at a later time ▪ He devoted his time to painting, sculpture, and, latterly, to gardening.
2 : during a recent period ▪ His business has grown latterly. [=lately]

lat•tice /ˈlætəs/ noun, pl -tic•es [count] : a frame or structure made of crossed wood or metal strips
– lat•ticed /ˈlætəst/ adj ▪ a latticed door

lat•tice•work /ˈlætəsˌwɚk/ noun, pl -works : a frame or structure made of crossed wood or metal strips [noncount] the intricate latticework of the fence [count] intricate latticeworks — sometimes used figuratively ▪ gazing up at the sky through a latticework of branches laud /ˈlɑːd/ verb lauds; laud•ed; laud•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to praise (someone or something) ▪ Many people lauded her efforts to help the poor. = Many people lauded her for her efforts to help the poor. ▪ He was much lauded as a successful businessman.

laud•able /ˈlɑːdəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] somewhat formal : deserving praise ▪ She has shown a laudable [=praiseworthy, commendable] devotion to her children. ▪ Improving the schools is a laudable goal.
– laud•ably /ˈlɑːdəbli/ adv

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

lau•da•to•ry /ˈlɑːdəˌtori, Brit ˈlɔːdətri/ adj, formal : expressing or containing praise ▪ a laudatory biography ▪ The play received mostly laudatory reviews.

[1]laugh /ˈlæf, Brit ˈlɑːf/ verb laughs; laughed; laugh•ing

1 [no obj] : to show that you are happy or that you think something is funny by smiling and making a sound from your throat ▪ What are you laughing about? ▪ The audience was laughing hysterically. ▪ I've never laughed so hard in my life. ▪ I couldn't stop laughing when I saw what he was wearing. ▪ I laughed out loud when I saw him. ▪ I burst out laughing. [=I suddenly started laughing] ▪ He laughed so hard I thought he'd die laughing. ▪ The movie was hilarious. We laughed our heads off. ▪ I laughed until I cried. [=I laughed so much that tears came out of my eyes] ▪ (Brit) She was laughing like a drain. [=she was laughing very hard] ▪ I didn't know whether to laugh or cry [=I was surprised and shocked] when she told me she was getting married. ▪ It's no laughing matter when you lose your job. [=it's a serious and important thing that people should not joke about] — often + at ▪ She laughed at the joke. ▪ Why is everyone laughing at me?

2 [no obj] a : to think or say that someone or something is foolish and does not deserve serious attention or respect — usually + at ▪ People laughed at his predictions of disaster, but no one's laughing now. b : to not be bothered by something — + at ▪ Sitting inside their tent, they were able to laugh at the weather. ▪ He laughed at danger.

3 [+ obj] : to say (something) in an amused way ▪ "I've never seen anything so ridiculous," he laughed.

4 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to go, move, etc., by laughing ▪ The audience laughed the singer off the stage. ▪ They laughed him out of town. ▪ He laughed himself sick. [=he made himself sick by laughing too much] ✧ Someone or something that is laughed out of court or (US) laughed out of town is regarded as very foolish and is not accepted or treated in a serious way. ▪ His theories were laughed out of court.

be laughing Brit, informal : to be in a very good situation with nothing to worry about ▪ If they can just close this important deal, they'll be laughing! [=they'll be on easy street]

don't make me laugh informal — used as a response to a statement that you think is very wrong or foolish ▪ "I could beat you at chess easily." "Don't make me laugh."

have to laugh ✧ If you say you have to laugh about something, you mean that it is amusing in a certain way, even if it is also unpleasant or foolish. ▪ I had to laugh when I found out that our luggage had been lost. What else could go wrong?

he who laughs last, laughs best or he laughs best that laughs last — used to say that even if you are not successful now you still succeed or win in the end laugh all the way to the bank : to make a lot of money especially by doing something that other people thought was foolish or amusing ▪ People thought his invention was ridiculous, but now he's laughing all the way to the bank.

laughing hyena, laughing like a hyena see HYENA

laugh in someone's face : to laugh directly at someone in a way that shows disrespect ▪ When I asked for his help he laughed in my face.

laugh off [phrasal verb] laugh (something) off or laugh off (something) : to laugh about or make jokes about (something) in order to make people think it is not serious or important ▪ The candidate laughed off the question about his marriage. ▪ The injury was serious, but he laughed it off.

laugh on the other side of your face — used to say that a situation will change and someone will stop being happy or pleased ▪ You'll be laughing on the other side of your face when I've finished with you!

laugh up your sleeve : to be secretly happy about or amused by something (such as someone else's trouble) ▪ The mayor's critics were laughing up their sleeves when news of the scandal was first reported.

– laugh•er /ˈlæfə, Brit ˈlɑːfə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]laugh noun, pl laughs

1 [count] : the act or sound of laughing ▪ He gave a loud laugh. ▪ a nervous laugh ▪ I kept telling jokes, but I couldn't get a laugh. [=make people laugh] ▪ a joke that always gets a big laugh ▪ He'll do anything for a laugh. [=to make people laugh] ▪ I thought her report was good for a laugh [=was amusing], but it didn't have much helpful information. ▪ She's always good for a laugh. [=she always makes people laugh; she is a funny person] ▪ It seemed awful at the time, but we had a (good) laugh about it afterward. [=we laughed about it afterward]

2 informal a [count] : something that causes laughter : something funny or foolish ▪ The movie has a lot of laughs. ▪ You're going to be a movie star? That's a laugh. b [singular] chiefly Brit : a funny person ▪ He's a real laugh.

a barrel of laughs see [1]BARREL

a laugh a minute informal : someone or something that is very funny ▪ That guy is a laugh a minute. ▪ The movie is a laugh a minute.

for laughs or chiefly Brit for a laugh informal : for amusement ▪ The children were saying every word backward, just for laughs.

play for laughs see [1]PLAY

the last laugh ✧ If you have/get the last laugh, you finally succeed or win after people laughed at or doubted you.

laugh•able /ˈlæfəbəl, Brit ˈlɑːfəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : bad in a way that seems foolish or silly ▪ His attempt at skiing was laughable. ▪ The movie shows a laughable [=pathetic] ignorance of history.

– laugh•ably /ˈlæfəbli, Brit ˈlɑːfəbli/ adv ▪ a laughably small car laughing gas noun [noncount] informal : NITROUS OXIDE

laugh•ing•ly /ˈlæfɪŋli, Brit ˈlɑːfɪŋli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : with laughter : in an amused way ▪ He laughingly recalled his friends in college.

2 : in a way that is a joke or that you think is silly, foolish, etc. ▪ a painful and difficult time that some people now laughingly call "the good old days"

laugh•ing•stock /ˈlæfɪŋˌstɑːk, Brit ˈlɑːfɪŋˌstɒk/ noun, pl -stocks [count] : a person or thing that is regarded as very foolish or ridiculous ▪ The team has become the laughingstock of the league. ▪ The mayor became a laughingstock.

laugh lines noun [plural] US : wrinkles that appear next to the eyes and that are most noticeable when a person is smiling or laughing — called also (Brit) laughter lines

laugh•ter /ˈlæftə, Brit ˈlɑːftə/ noun [noncount] : the action or sound of laughing ▪ Laughter filled the air. ▪ peals/gales/shrieks of laughter ▪ The audience roared/shrieked/howled with laughter. ▪ The audience erupted in laughter. = The audience burst into laughter. [=the audience suddenly began laughing]

laugh track noun, pl ~ tracks [count] : recorded laughter that is heard during a television or radio program

[1]launch /ˈlɑːnʧ/ verb launch•es; launched; launch•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to send or shoot (something, such as a rocket) into the air or water or into outer space ▪ launch a rocket/missile/torpedo ▪ launch a satellite b : to put (a boat or ship) on the water ▪ launch a battleship/lifeboat c : to throw (something) forward in a forceful way ▪ launch [=hurl] a spear ▪ I was terrified when the ferocious animal suddenly launched itself at me. [=suddenly jumped at me]

2 a : to begin (something that requires much effort) ▪ The enemy launched an attack at sunrise. ▪ She's trying to launch a new career as a singer. ▪ launch a business ▪ launch an experiment ▪ The police have launched an investigation into his activities. b : to cause (a person or group) to start to be successful in a career, business, etc. ▪ He helped launch her in her career as a singer. c : to offer or sell (something) for the first time ▪ The company is expected to launch several new products next year. ▪ launch a Web site

3 computers : to cause (a program) to start operating ▪ You can launch the program by double-clicking on the icon.

launch into [phrasal verb] 1 launch into (something) : to suddenly begin doing or saying (something) in an energetic way ▪ He suddenly launched into a speech about taxes. 2 launch (yourself) into (something) : to become involved in (something) in an energetic way ▪ She launched herself enthusiastically into the campaign.

launch out [phrasal verb] : to begin doing something that is new and very different from what you have been doing ▪ It's time to launch out and expand my horizons. ▪ He left the company and launched out on his own.

– launch•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a rocket launcher

[2]launch noun, pl launches [count] : an act of launching something: such as a : an act of shooting something (such as a rocket or missile) into the air or into outer space ▪ a rocket launch b : an act of beginning a major activity ▪ the launch of an attack ▪ the launch of a new business c : an act or occasion when something new (such as a new product) is first offered or announced ▪ the launch of a Web site ▪ a party to celebrate the launch of a new product/book = a launch party for a new product/book — compare [3]LAUNCH

[3]launch noun, pl launches [count] : a boat that carries pas-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

sengers to the shore from a larger boat that is in a harbor — compare [2]LAUNCH launch•pad /ˈlɑːnʧˌpæd/ noun, pl -pads [count] : an area from which a rocket is launched — often used figuratively ▪ The program she hosted on local radio was the launchpad for her network career. [=it was the first step that led to her network career] — called also launching pad

laun•der /ˈlɑːndə/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (clothes, towels, sheets, etc.) ready for use by washing, drying, and ironing them ▪ a freshly laundered shirt
2 : to put (money that you got by doing something illegal) into a business or bank account in order to hide where it really came from ▪ He used a phony business to launder money from drug dealing.
– laun•der•er /ˈlɑːndərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a money launderer – laundering noun [noncount] ▪ He has been accused of money laundering.

laun•der•ette /ˌlɑːndəˈrɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] chiefly Brit : a place that has machines to use for washing and drying clothes, towels, sheets, etc.

Laun•dro•mat /ˈlɑːndrəˌmæt/ service mark — used for a place that has machines for washing and drying clothes, towels, sheets, etc.

laun•dry /ˈlɑːndri/ noun, pl -dries
1 [noncount] : clothes, towels, sheets, etc., that need to be washed or that have been washed ▪ There's a pile of dirty laundry in the laundry basket. ▪ clean laundry ▪ a laundry bag ▪ I have to do the laundry today. [=to wash the dirty clothes, towels, etc.] — see also DIRTY LAUNDRY
2 [count] : a business or place where clothes, towels, sheets, etc., are washed and dried ▪ work at/in a laundry ▪ The patients' sheets are sent regularly to the hospital laundry.

laundry list noun, pl ~ lists [count] informal : a long list of related things ▪ She described a laundry list of goals for the city's schools. ▪ He recited a laundry list of problems.

lau•re•ate /ˈlorijət/ noun, pl -ates [count]
1 : someone who has won an important prize or honor for achievement in an art or science ▪ a Nobel laureate
2 : POET LAUREATE

lau•rel /ˈlorəl/ noun, pl -rels
1 [count, noncount] : an evergreen tree or bush with shiny pointed leaves ▪ laurel leaves ▪ wearing a crown/wreath of laurel [=a crown/wreath made from laurel leaves that was awarded and worn around the head as a symbol of honor in ancient Greece]
2 laurels [plural] : honor or fame given for some achievement ▪ They enjoyed the laurels of their military victory. ▪ The player earned his laurels from years of hard work.
look to your laurels chiefly Brit : to work in order to keep your success or position ▪ If she performs this well in the championships, her rivals will have to look to their laurels.
rest/sit on your laurels : to be satisfied with past success and do nothing to achieve further success ▪ Although she won the championship, she isn't resting on her laurels. She is training hard to become even better next year.

la•va /ˈlɑːvə/ noun [noncount] : melted rock from a volcano ▪ a flow of molten lava

lav•a•to•ry /ˈlævəˌtori, Brit ˈlævətri/ noun, pl -ries [count]
1 formal : a room with a toilet and sink ✧ In U.S. English, lavatory is most often used for a room in an airplane. ▪ Smoking is not permitted in the airplane's lavatory. It may also be used for a room in other kinds of public places. ▪ the school's lavatories [=(more commonly) restrooms] In British English, lavatory is most often used for a room in a public place but may also be used for a room in a home.
2 Brit : TOILET 1
3 US, technical : a bathroom sink ▪ a wide choice of lavatories on sale at plumbing supply stores

lavatory paper noun [noncount] Brit : TOILET PAPER

lav•en•der /ˈlævəndə/ noun, pl -ders
1 a [count, noncount] : a plant with narrow leaves and small purple flowers that have a sweet smell b [noncount] : the dried leaves and flowers of the lavender plant used to make clothes and fabrics smell pleasant ▪ a small cloth bag filled with lavender
2 [count, noncount] : a pale purple color — see color picture on page C3

[1]lav•ish /ˈlævɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : giving or using a large amount of something ▪ lavish donors ▪ a cook who is known for her lavish use of spices [=a cook who uses a large amount of spices] ▪ a lavish display of flowers — often + in or with ▪ She is lavish in giving praise to her employees. [=she gives a lot of praise to her employees] ▪ a cook who is lavish with spices
2 : given in large amounts ▪ She has drawn/gained lavish praise [=a great amount of praise] for her charitable works. ▪ a lavish donation
3 : having a very rich and expensive quality ▪ a lavish home ▪ a lavish feast/party
– lav•ish•ly adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ a lavishly generous donor ▪ a lavishly [=richly] illustrated book – lav•ish•ness noun [noncount]

[2]lavish verb -ish•es; -ished; -ish•ing
lavish on/upon [phrasal verb] lavish (something) on/upon (someone) : to give a large amount of (something) to (someone) ▪ They lavished gifts on us. [=they gave us many gifts] ▪ They lavished attention on their children.
lavish with [phrasal verb] lavish (someone or something) with (something) : to give (someone or something) a large amount of (something) ▪ They lavished us with gifts. ▪ Everyone lavished the children with attention. ▪ The production was lavished with praise by the critics.

law /ˈlɑː/ noun, pl laws
1 [noncount] a : the whole system or set of rules made by the government of a town, state, country, etc. ▪ People who are supposed to obey the law also need to know their rights under the law. [=according to the law] ▪ The courts exist to uphold, interpret, and apply the law. ▪ state/federal law ▪ Stealing is against the law. [=stealing is illegal] ▪ He denied that he had broken/violated the law. [=that he had done anything illegal] ▪ You have to pay taxes. That's the law of the land. [=the set of rules that exists in a certain place] ▪ The job of the police is to enforce the law. [=make sure that people obey the law] ▪ He's interested in a career in law enforcement. [=a career as a police officer] ▪ (US) Law enforcement officials [=police officials] in the area were alerted of the suspect's escape. — see also MARTIAL LAW b : a particular kind of law ▪ a lawyer who specializes in criminal/contract/immigration law — see also COMMON LAW
2 : a rule made by the government of a town, state, country, etc. [count] A law requires that schools provide a safe learning environment. = There is a law requiring schools to provide a safe learning environment. ▪ In our civics class we learned how a bill becomes a law. ▪ She has proposed a new law to protect people from being evicted unfairly. — often + on or against ▪ Congress passed several new laws on the environment. [=laws relating to the environment] ▪ a law against unfair eviction [=a law that makes unfair eviction illegal] ▪ We need stricter laws against discrimination. [noncount] Schools are required by law to provide a safe learning environment. ▪ The bill will become law at the beginning of the year. ▪ With the majority voting in favor, the bill has been passed into law. [=the bill became a law] ▪ The bill was signed into law by the governor. [=the proposed law became officially active when the governor signed it]
3 the law : the people and organizations (such as the police and the courts) whose job is to find or punish people who do not obey laws ▪ They called in the law [=the police] to determine what should be done next. ▪ He's been in and out of trouble with the law for the last 10 years.
4 [noncount] a : the job of a lawyer : the legal profession ▪ She's been thinking about going into law. [=thinking about becoming a lawyer] ▪ a career in law ▪ The company hired a large law firm [=a group of lawyers who work together as a business] to handle the case. ▪ She practices law [=she works as a lawyer] with a firm in Boston. — see also ATTORNEY AT LAW b : the area of study that relates to laws and how they are used ▪ a professor of law ▪ studying law ▪ going to law school [=a school that trains you to become a lawyer]
5 : a religious rule [count] the body of Islamic laws [noncount] according to Jewish law
6 [count] a : a rule stating that something (such as an art or profession) should be done in a certain way ▪ the laws of poetry ▪ He teaches his students that balance is the first law of architecture. [=balance is the most important principle in architecture] b Brit : a rule in a sport or game ▪ the laws [=rules] of tennis
7 [count] : a statement that describes how something works in the natural world — often + of ▪ the law of gravity ▪ the laws of nature/physics ▪ Newton's laws of motion above the law : not required to obey the law ▪ No one is above the law. [=everyone must obey the law] ▪ He complains that the new policy places corporations above the law. [=that the new policy allows corporations to do things that are not legal]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

a law unto yourself ✧ People who are or think they are a law unto themselves act in a way that shows they do not care what kind of behavior other people think is acceptable. ▪ I've warned him that he can't keep behaving this way, but he won't listen. He seems to think that he's a law unto himself. [=that he can do whatever he wants to do]

go to law Brit : to ask a court of law to settle a dispute law and order : a state or situation in which people obey the law : legal control and authority ▪ The police work to preserve law and order. ▪ a breakdown of law and order

lay down the law see lay down at ¹LAY

outside the law 1 : not agreeing with the law ▪ actions that may have been outside the law [=illegal] 2 : in an illegal way ▪ Investigators were unable to prove that the business was operating outside the law. [=illegally]

take the law into your own hands : to try to punish someone for breaking a law even though you do not have the right to do that ▪ Police are concerned that the victim's family may try to take the law into their own hands. [=may try to punish the criminal themselves instead of allowing the legal system to do it] the law of averages : the idea or principle that something which can produce different results will produce those results in a regular or predictable way over a period of time ▪ I can't believe that team has lost 12 games in a row. The law of averages says that they should have won at least one game by now.

the law of the jungle — used to describe a situation in which people do whatever they want to or whatever is necessary to survive or succeed ▪ an industry governed by the law of the jungle

the long arm of the law see ¹ARM

within the law 1 : agreeing with the law ▪ He says that everything he did was within the law. [=legal] 2 : in a legal way ▪ With the organization under so much scrutiny, it is even more important that they work/operate within the law. [=legally] your word is law ✧ If your word is law, other people must do what you say ▪ He'll listen to suggestions, but in the end, his word is law.

synonyms LAW, RULE, REGULATION, STATUTE, and ORDINANCE are statements about what people are allowed to do. A LAW is made by a government, and people who live in the area controlled by that government must obey it. ▪ According to a state law, all drivers must pass a written test before they can be fully licensed. A RULE usually does not involve an official government. It typically describes what people are allowed to do in a game or in a particular place (such as a school). ▪ He explained the rules of football. ▪ The rules state clearly that smoking is prohibited on campus. A REGULATION is made by a government to protect people from being harmed. ▪ Safety regulations limit the number of hours an airline pilot can fly each month. STATUTE is a formal word for a law made by a government. ▪ The new statute requires that all passengers in a car wear seatbelts. In the U.S., an ORDINANCE is a law that is made by a local government and applies only to a limited area. ▪ The new city ordinance restricts parking on some streets.

law–abid•ing /ˈlɑːəˌbaɪdɪŋ/ adj : obeying the law : not doing anything that the law does not allow ▪ a law-abiding citizen law•break•er /ˈlɑːˌbreɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who does something that is not legal : a person who breaks the law ▪ He admitted to being a lawbreaker.

– law•break•ing /ˈlɑːˌbreɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

law court noun, pl ~ courts [count]
1 US : a court of law : COURT 1c ▪ a decision handed down by a law court
2 : a building or room where legal decisions are made : COURT 1b ▪ I have to appear in law court next week.

law•ful /ˈlɑːfəl/ adj, formal 1 : allowed by the law ▪ lawful conduct ▪ a lawful search of the property — opposite UNLAWFUL
2 : according to the law ▪ They went to court to determine the property's lawful [=rightful, legal] owner.
– law•ful•ly /ˈlɑːfəli/ adv ▪ Companies cannot lawfully [=legally] sell private medical information. ▪ In the wedding ceremony he was asked, "Do you take this woman to be your lawfully wedded wife?" [=do you accept this woman as your wife according to the law?] – law•ful•ness /ˈlɑːfəlnəs/ noun [noncount]

law•less /ˈlɑːləs/ adj
1 : having no laws ▪ the lawless society of the frontier
2 : not obeying the law ▪ a lawless mob – law•less•ness noun [noncount]

law•mak•er /ˈlɑːˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone who makes laws : LEGISLATOR – law•mak•ing /ˈlɑːˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the responsibilities of lawmaking — often used before another noun ▪ The legislature functions as the nation's lawmaking body.

law•man /ˈlɑːmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] US : someone (such as a sheriff or marshal) whose job is to make sure that people obey the law ▪ Wyatt Earp was a famous American lawman of the Wild West.

lawn /ˈlɑːn/ noun, pl lawns : an area of ground (such as the ground around a house or in a garden or park) that is covered with short grass [count] We had a picnic on the lawn in front of the monument. ▪ a neighborhood with well-kept lawns ▪ He planned to mow the lawn [=cut the grass on his lawn] early Saturday morning. ▪ (US) We're having a lawn party [=an outdoor party on a lawn] to celebrate our daughter's graduation. [noncount] several acres of well-kept lawn — see picture at HOUSE lawn bowling noun [noncount] US : a game in which wooden balls are rolled across an area of grass so that they stop as close as possible to a smaller ball — called also (Brit) bowls

lawn chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] US : a light chair made to be used outside — called also (Brit) garden chair

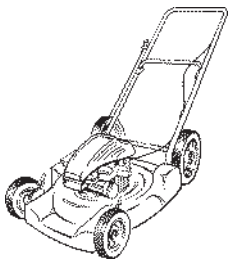
lawn mower noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a machine used for cutting the grass on lawns



lawn mower

lawn tennis noun [noncount] : TENNIS

law•suit /ˈlɑːˌsuːt/ noun, pl -suits [count] : a process by which a court of law makes a decision to end a disagreement between people or organizations ▪ win/lose a lawsuit ▪ a complex lawsuit [=suit] that may take years to resolve ▪ When the newspaper refused to admit that the story was false, the actor filed/initiated a lawsuit against the publisher. [=the actor sued the publisher] ▪ They agreed to pay $100,000 to settle a lawsuit. [=to end a lawsuit before the court made a decision about it]

law•yer /ˈlɑːjə, ˈlojə/ noun, pl -yers [count] : a person whose job is to guide and assist people in matters relating to the law

lax /ˈlæks/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : not careful enough : not strict enough ▪ lax regulations/policies ▪ Security has been lax. ▪ The university has been lax about/in enforcing these rules.
– lax•ity /ˈlæksəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He wrote an essay condemning the moral laxity in society. – lax•ly adv ▪ laws laxly enforced – lax•ness noun [noncount] ▪ their laxness [=laxity] in enforcing these rules lax•a•tive /ˈlæksətɪv/ noun, pl -tives medical : a medicine or food that makes it easier for solid waste to pass through the body [count] The doctor prescribed a laxative. [noncount] a dose of laxative

– laxative adj ▪ The herb has a mild laxative effect.

¹lay /ˈleɪ/ verb lays; laid /ˈleɪd/; lay•ing
1 [+ obj] : to place (someone or something) down gently in a flat position ▪ Lay the fabric carefully on the table. ▪ He laid a gentle hand on her shoulder. ▪ She laid the baby in his crib for a nap. ▪ He says that he never laid a finger/hand on her. [=that he never touched her] — often + down ▪ He laid the newspaper down on the desk. ▪ She laid the baby down for his nap. — see also LAY DOWN (below)
2 [+ obj] a : to place (something) into position on or along a surface : to build or set (something) on or in the ground or another surface ▪ When will they lay the foundation for the addition? ▪ lay tracks for the new railroad ▪ lay pipe/cable/lines ▪ laying bricks — often + down ▪ laying down a new road/carpet — often used figuratively ▪ We are laying the groundwork/foundation [=providing conditions] for additional research. b chiefly US : to spread (something) over a surface ▪ lay plaster/paint ▪ lay wallpaper
3 [+ obj] : BURY 1a ▪ They laid him in his grave.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

4 [no obj] informal : to be in a flat position on a surface : LIE ▪ The book was laying on the table. ✧ The use of lay to mean "lie" occurs commonly in informal speech but it is regarded as an error by many people.
5 [+ obj] a : to beat or strike (something) down with force ▪ The wheat was laid flat by the wind and rain. b : to change the condition of something in a specified way ▪ The mountainside has been laid bare by loggers. [=all the trees on the mountainside have been cut down by loggers] ▪ He laid bare his soul. = He laid his soul bare. [=he revealed his most private thoughts and feelings] ▪ He laid himself open to criticism [=he exposed himself to criticism] with his remarks.
6 of a bird, insect, etc. : to produce (an egg) outside of the body : to push (an egg) out of the body [+ obj] birds that typically lay only two eggs per year [no obj] old chickens that no longer lay — see also lay an egg at [1]EGG
7 [+ obj] — used like make, place, or put in various phrases ▪ She has laid plans [=she has made plans] to cut the staff down to just 15 people. ▪ Even the best-laid plans [=the most carefully made plans] sometimes go wrong. ▪ She lays great stress/emphasis on good manners. [=she stresses/emphasizes good manners very much] ▪ The author lays the blame/responsibility for the state of the environment squarely on the government. [=the author blames the government for the state of the environment]
8 [+ obj] : to make (something) ready : to prepare (something) ▪ lay a trap ▪ lay a fire in the fireplace ▪ (Brit) Places were laid (at the table) for three people. [=silverware, glasses, and napkins were put on the table for three people who will be eating there] ▪ (Brit) lay [=set] the table for a meal
9 [+ obj] informal : to risk losing (money) if your guess about what will happen is wrong : BET ▪ lay money on a race
10 [+ obj] informal + offensive : to have sex with someone — usually used in the phrase get laid ▪ All he cares about is getting laid. [=having sex]

lay aside [phrasal verb] lay (something) aside or lay aside (something) 1 : to place (something) to one side ▪ She laid aside [=put aside, set aside] the book she had been reading and turned on the TV. — often used figuratively ▪ Plans for a new school have been laid aside. [=put aside, set aside] ▪ It's time for all of us to lay aside old prejudices. ▪ We need to lay our differences aside so that we can learn to work together. 2 : to keep (something) for special or future use : to reserve or save (something) : to keep (something) for special or future use ▪ She has been able to lay aside [=put aside] a few dollars each week.

lay by [phrasal verb] lay (something) by or lay by (something) : to keep (something) for special or future use ▪ She has been able to lay by [=lay aside] a few dollars each week.

lay charges Brit : to accuse someone officially of doing something illegal ▪ Police are deciding whether to lay charges (against her).

lay claim to see [2]CLAIM

lay down [phrasal verb] 1 lay (something) down or lay down (something) a : to clearly state (a rule, standard, guideline, etc.) ▪ The company has laid down strict new safety standards. b : to stop using (something) ▪ At noon, we laid down the rakes and rested for a while. ▪ The strikers laid down their tools. 2 lay (a weapon) down or lay down (a weapon) : to put (a weapon) down and stop fighting ▪ The police ordered the criminals to lay down their weapons. 3 lay down your life formal : to give up your life for a good purpose : to die for a good cause ▪ heroes who laid down their lives to preserve our nation 4 lay down the law : to make a strong statement about what someone is or is not allowed to do ▪ The agreement lays down the law (to everyone) on what the group allows. ▪ When she came home after midnight, her father laid down the law: if she came home that late again, she would not be allowed to watch TV for a week. — see also [1]LAY 1 (above)

lay eyes on see [1]EYE

lay hold of see [2]HOLD

lay in [phrasal verb] lay (something) in or lay in (something) : to get and store (a supply of something) for future use ▪ They laid in [=laid up] canned goods for the winter.

lay into [phrasal verb] lay into (someone or something) informal : to angrily attack or criticize (someone or something) ▪ The coach really laid into us for playing so carelessly.

lay it on the line see [1]LINE

lay off [phrasal verb] 1 lay (someone) off or lay off (someone) : to stop employing (someone) because there is not enough work ▪ The company has had to lay off most of the staff. ▪ Costs have increased and many workers have been laid off. [=let go] — see also LAYOFF 2 lay off (something) informal : to stop doing, using, eating, or drinking (something) ▪ You should lay off the late nights. [=you should stop staying up so late] ▪ My doctor advised me to lay off caffeine. ▪ He's a much nicer person since he laid off the booze. [=since he stopped drinking alcohol] ▪ I need to lay off fatty foods and lose some weight. 3 lay off or lay off (someone) informal : to leave someone alone : to stop annoying someone ▪ I wish you'd just lay off! ▪ Lay off me! [=stop bothering me]

lay on [phrasal verb] 1 lay (something) on or lay on (something) a : to spread (something) over a surface ▪ Try to lay the grout on the surface evenly. — often used figuratively ▪ (informal) My parents have been laying a lot of guilt on me. [=have been saying things that make me feel guilty] ▪ (informal) If you have something to tell me, just lay it on me. [=just tell me] ▪ He laid the flattery on pretty heavily. ▪ She laid on a fake southern accent. [=she spoke with a southern accent although she doesn't usually speak that way] b Brit : to provide (something) for someone ▪ If a lot of people want to come, more coaches will be laid on for them. 2 lay it on (thick) informal : to speak in a way that is exaggerated and not sincere ▪ You should compliment her cooking but don't lay it on too thick or she'll know you don't mean it. ▪ He laid it on pretty heavily and pretended to be interested in what she said.

lay out [phrasal verb] 1 lay (something) out or lay out (something) a : to place (something) on a surface in a carefully arranged way ▪ The wires were laid out along the floor. ▪ Brochures were laid out on a table. ▪ She was laying out the cheese and crackers for the guests. b : to arrange (something) in a particular pattern or design ▪ The garden was laid out in a formal pattern. ▪ Much of Manhattan is laid out in the form of a grid. — see also LAYOUT c : to plan the details of (something) ▪ She's been hired to lay out [=map out] the election campaign. ▪ The work for tomorrow is all laid out. d : to explain the details of (something) ▪ He laid out the reasons for his decision. e informal : to spend (money) ▪ The city laid out millions of dollars for the new stadium. — see also OUTLAY 2 lay (someone's body) out or lay out (someone's body) : to prepare (someone's dead body) so that it can be seen by family and friends before it is buried ▪ They laid him out in a plain coffin. 3 lay (someone) out or lay out (someone) informal : to make (someone) unconscious : to knock (someone) out ▪ He laid his opponent out with a hard right to the jaw.

lay over [phrasal verb] US 1 : to make a stop in the middle of a journey ▪ Our flight to Italy laid over in Madrid for several hours. 2 lay (someone) over : to cause (someone) to stop in the middle of a journey — usually used as (be) laid over ▪ We were laid over in Madrid for several hours. — see also LAYOVER

lay siege to see SIEGE

lay (someone) to rest see [2]REST

lay to rest (something) or lay (something) to rest see [2]REST

lay up [phrasal verb] 1 lay (something) up or lay up (something) a old-fashioned : to store (something) ▪ lay up [=lay in] grain for the winter b : to take (something) out of active use or service ▪ We laid up the boat for the winter. 2 lay (someone) up or lay up (someone) : to cause (someone) to stay at home or in bed because of illness or injury ▪ The flu laid him up for two weeks. — usually used as (be) laid up ▪ He was laid up for six weeks with a bad back. ▪ He was laid up by the flu.

lay waste to : to cause very bad damage to (something) ▪ The fire laid waste to the land. [=the fire caused great destruction to the land]

lay your hands on see [1]HAND

the goose that lays the golden egg see [1]GOOSE

[2]lay noun, pl lays [count] informal + offensive : a person who is being described as a sexual partner ▪ a great lay ▪ an easy lay [=a person who is very willing to have sex] — see also LAY OF THE LAND

[3]lay past tense of [1]LIE

[4]lay adj, always used before a noun
1 : not trained in a certain profession : not having a lot of knowledge about a certain thing ▪ a science magazine written for the lay public ▪ lay and professional readers
2 : belonging to a religion but not officially a priest, minister, etc. ▪ lay preachers lay•about /ˈleiəˌbaut/ noun, pl -abouts [count] informal : a lazy person ▪ an irresponsible layabout ▪ her layabout brother

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lay•away /ˈleiəˌweɪ/ noun [singular] US : a way of buying something in which you do not receive the thing you are buying until you have paid the full price by making small payments over a period of time ▪ We bought the table and chairs on layaway, so we won't have them until December. ▪ The store offers a layaway plan for large purchases.

lay–by /ˈleɪˌbaɪ/ noun, pl -bys [count] Brit : an area next to a road where vehicles can stop : TURNOUT

[1]lay•er /ˈlejə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : an amount of something that is spread over an area ▪ Everything was covered by a thin layer of sand/dust. ▪ a layer of clouds — see also OZONE LAYER
2 : a covering piece of material or a part that lies over or under another ▪ The top layer of the rug is badly worn but the bottom layer is still OK. ▪ The cake has three layers. ▪ She glued together several layers of paper. ▪ He was wearing several layers of clothing. ▪ rocks that formed in layers from flows of lava ▪ (US) When the weather is cold you should dress in layers. [=you should wear several pieces of clothing on top of one another] — often used figuratively ▪ His novels have many layers [=levels] of meaning. ▪ a dish that has many layers of flavor [=that has many different flavors]
3 : a bird that lays eggs ▪ Their hens were poor layers. [=their hens did not produce many eggs]
4 : a worker who lays something (such as bricks) ▪ a brick layer

[2]layer verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj] : to form or arrange parts or pieces of something on top of each other : to form or arrange (something) in layers ▪ The next step in the recipe is to layer the pasta and the sauce in the pan. [=to place a layer of pasta in the pan, then a layer of sauce, then another layer of pasta, and so on] ▪ We layered the fruit with whipped cream and served it with cookies. ▪ He layered her hair. [=he cut her hair in sections that were different lengths] — often used as (be) layered ▪ pasta layered with sauce layer cake noun, pl ∼ cakes [count] chiefly US : a cake made of more than one layer lay•ette /leɪˈɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] : a collection of basic clothing and other things needed for a new baby

lay•in /ˈleɪˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] US, basketball : LAYUP ▪ an easy layin

lay•man /ˈleɪmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]
1 : a person who is not a member of a particular profession ▪ For a layman, he knows a lot about the law. ▪ a medical journal written in language that is clear to the layman [=clear to someone who is not a medical professional] ▪ The process was explained to us in layman's terms. [=in simple language that anyone can understand]
2 : a person who belongs to a religion but is not a priest, minister, etc. ▪ He's an important layman in his church. — compare LAITY

lay•off /ˈleɪˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs [count]
1 : the act of ending the employment of a worker or group of workers ▪ The company announced the layoff of several hundred employees. ▪ More layoffs are expected at the factory later this year. — see also lay off at [1]LAY
2 : a period of time during which there is no activity ▪ The band finally has a new album after a three year layoff. ▪ a layoff of three years

lay of the land noun
the lay of the land US : the arrangement of the different parts in an area of land : where things are located in a place ▪ She knew the lay of the land from hiking through it daily. — often used figuratively ▪ It takes time for new employees to get the lay of the land [=to learn how things are done] in this department. — called also (Brit) the lie of the land

lay•out /ˈleɪˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : the design or arrangement of something : the way something is laid out ▪ The layout of the apartment was good, but the kitchen was too small. ▪ She designed the page layout for the new magazine. — see also lay out at [1]LAY lay•over /ˈleɪˌoʊvə/ noun, pl -overs [count] US : a period of time when you are not traveling in the middle of a journey : STOPOVER ▪ a two-hour layover

lay•per•son /ˈleɪˌpəsn/ noun, pl lay•per•sons or lay•peo•ple /ˈleɪˌpiːpəl/ [count] : LAYMAN ▪ a meeting between clergy and laypeople

lay•up /ˈleɪˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] basketball : a shot made from a position that is very close to the basket lay•wom•an /ˈleɪˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who belongs to a religion but is not a member of the clergy ▪ a Catholic laywoman — compare LAITY laze /ˈleɪz/ verb laz•es; lazed; laz•ing [no obj] : to spend time relaxing ▪ She's been lazing in the sun all afternoon. ▪ While he was sick, he just lazed around the house.

laze away [phrasal verb] laze (something) away or laze away (something) : to relax and do very little for (a period of time) ▪ She lazed away the afternoon lying in the sun.

la•zy /ˈleɪzi/ adj la•zi•er; -est
1 disapproving : not liking to work hard or to be active ▪ a lazy child who avoided household chores ▪ I should have done more work this weekend, but I was feeling lazy.
2 always used before a noun : not having much activity : causing people to feel that they do not want to be active ▪ a lazy summer day
3 always used before a noun : moving slowly ▪ a hawk flying in lazy circles ▪ a lazy river
– la•zi•ly /ˈleɪzəli/ adv ▪ The leaves floated lazily down the stream. – la•zi•ness /ˈleɪzinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ Her parents blame her bad grades on laziness.

la•zy•bones /ˈleɪziˌboʊnz/ noun, pl lazybones [count] informal : a lazy person ▪ They're such lazybones they'll never get the work done on time. ▪ Don't be such a lazybones.

lazy Su•san /-ˈsuːzn/ noun, pl ∼ -sans [count] chiefly US : a round tray that can be turned and that is used for serving food at a table

lb. abbr, pl lbs. pound ▪ a 5-lb. bag of flour [=a five-pound bag of flour, a bag of flour weighing five pounds] ▪ The baby weighed 8 lbs. at birth. ✧ The abbreviation lb. comes from Latin word "libra," which means "pound."

LCD /ˌɛlˌsiːˈdiː/ noun, pl LCDs [count] : a screen (such as a television screen or the screen on a watch) that works by passing a small amount of electricity through a special liquid ✧ LCD is an abbreviation of "liquid crystal display."

leach /ˈliːʧ/ verb leach•es; leached; leach•ing technical 1 [+ obj] : to remove (a chemical, a metal, etc.) from a substance by the action of a liquid passing through the substance ▪ Even a small amount of rain can leach the toxic material from the soil. : to release (a chemical, a metal, etc.) when a liquid passes through ▪ Certain kinds of treated wood can leach chemicals into the soil.
2 [no obj] of a chemical, a metal, etc. : to be removed from a substance by a liquid passing through the substance ▪ The chemical eventually leaches away from the soil.

[1]lead /ˈliːd/ verb leads; led /ˈlɛd/; lead•ing
1 a : to guide someone to a place especially by going in front [no obj] You lead and we'll follow right behind you. [+ obj] He led [=took] me into a room in the back of the house. ▪ You lead us and we'll follow right behind you. — often + to ▪ The teacher led the child by the hand to his seat. = The teacher took the child's hand and led him to his seat. ▪ Our hostess led us to the dinner table. — often used as (be) led ▪ The passengers were led onto/aboard the ship by the steward. ▪ The prisoner was led off to jail [=was taken to jail] in handcuffs. — often used figuratively ▪ I gradually led the interview around/back to the subject of his failed marriage. ▪ He says that he will follow the evidence wherever it leads (him). ▪ This leads me to my next point, which is that the building needs a new roof. ▪ The painting's composition leads the/your eye to the figures in the foreground. [=causes you to look at the figures in the foreground] b [+ obj] : to go or be at the front part of (something) ▪ The veterans will lead a parade down Main Street. ▪ lead a march
2 [no obj] : to lie or go in a specified direction ▪ The path leads uphill. ▪ This road doesn't lead to the village as we thought it did. ▪ a set of stairs that leads down to the basement ▪ There was a path leading (off) from the meadow into the woods. — often used figuratively ▪ She realized that their relationship would never lead to marriage. ▪ The investigation into the murder was leading nowhere. [=the investigation was not solving the crime]
3 : to guide the actions of a person or group : to be in charge of a person, group, activity, etc. [no obj] We need to elect someone who can lead. ▪ bosses who lead by example [=who show employees how they should act by acting that way themselves] [+ obj] She leads her employees by setting a good example for them. ▪ She led a successful boycott of the store. ▪ lead an expedition ▪ A visiting professor will be leading the seminar. ▪ lead [=direct] an orchestra ▪ She led the children in a song. [=she sang a song and the children sang with her]
4 [+ obj] : to cause (a person, group, etc.) to do something or

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

to follow some course of action ▪ Her interest in art led her into the field of art history. — usually followed by to or to + verb ▪ His volunteer work in the hospital led him to a career in nursing. = His volunteer work in the hospital led [=inspired] him to become a nurse. ▪ Her experience with cancer led her to consider writing a book on the subject. ▪ The evidence leads me to believe [=makes me believe] that this disease is curable. ▪ We've been led to believe that the labels on food items disclose all ingredients, but it's becoming clear that this is not the case. ▪ I had been led to expect that someone would meet me at the airport, but no one came. ▪ He led me to understand [=he told me or caused me to think] that the deadline was January 7.

5 : to be first, best, or ahead in a race or competition [no obj] the team that is currently leading in the pennant race ▪ At the end of the fourth inning, the Red Sox led by two runs. [+ obj] lead a race ▪ They led their opponents by 20 points at the end of the third quarter. ▪ the team that is leading the league [=the team that is in first place] ▪ a batter who leads the league in home runs [=who has hit more home runs than any other batter] ▪ a runner who is leading the pack/field [=a runner who is ahead of the group of other runners] — often used figuratively ▪ Their company leads the world [=is the most successful company in the world] in developing new technology to assist people with disabilities.

6 [+ obj] : to go through (life) in a certain way : to have (a specified kind of life) ▪ They chose to lead [=live] a quiet life. ▪ He leads a peaceful existence. ▪ It turned out that he had been leading a double life. [=deceiving people about his life, not telling the whole truth about his life] ▪ He has always led a charmed life. [=he has always been lucky] ▪ She needs to lead her own life. [=she needs to make her own decisions about her life]

7 : to begin play in a card game with (a certain card or kind of card) [+ obj] lead trumps ▪ led a spade [no obj] lead with a spade

8 [no obj] : to guide a dance partner through the steps of a dance ▪ I don't know this dance, so I'd prefer it if you lead.

9 [+ obj] law : to ask (a witness) a question in a way that suggests what the answer should be : to ask (a witness) a leading question ▪ The judge ruled that the lawyer was leading the witness.

lead off [phrasal verb] lead off or lead (something) off or lead off (something) 1 : to start something (such as an activity or performance) in a specified way ▪ She led off [=started, kicked off] the presentation with a brief overview of the project. ▪ She led off [=began] with a brief overview of the project. 2 baseball : to be the first batter in an inning ▪ He led off with a walk. [=he was the first batter in his team's half of the inning and he was walked] ▪ He led off the inning with a home run. — see also LEADOFF lead on [phrasal verb] lead (someone) on : to cause (someone) to wrongly continue believing or doing something ▪ She was devastated when she found out that he didn't really love her, and had only been leading her on. [=he had been leading her to believe that he loved her] lead someone a merry chase (US) or Brit lead someone a (merry) dance old-fashioned : to cause a series of troubles or worries for (someone) ▪ He led me a merry chase before I finally got him to agree to a meeting.

lead someone (around) by the nose see [1]NOSE lead someone down/up the garden path informal : to deceive someone : to cause someone to go, think, or proceed wrongly ▪ He believes the average consumer is being led down the garden path by the promises in advertisements.

lead the way : to be the first person to go somewhere ▪ You lead the way, and we'll follow. — often used figuratively ▪ Their company led the way in developing this technology. [=was the first to have success developing the technology]

lead to [phrasal verb] lead to (something) : to result in (something) ▪ a course of study leading to a degree in agriculture ▪ Her investigations ultimately led to the discovery of the missing documents. ▪ His volunteer work in the hospital led to a career in nursing. = His volunteer work in the hospital led to him becoming a nurse. — see also [1]LEAD 1a, 4 (above)

lead up to [phrasal verb] lead up to (something) 1 : to occur in the time that comes before (something) ▪ Many voters were still undecided in the days leading up to [=approaching] the election. 2 : to come before and help to cause (something) ▪ There was a series of errors leading up to the accident. 3 : to come before and help to introduce (something) ▪ a chapter leading up to the main topic of the book ▪ I had no idea what he was leading up to when he started talking about his father.

lead with [phrasal verb] lead with (something) 1 : to begin something (such as a story or speech) with (something specified) ▪ The newspaper story led [=opened, began] with a long report on the funeral. 2 : to begin a series of punches in boxing with (a punch thrown by a specified hand) ▪ The champion led with a left to the body, followed up quickly with a right to the jaw.

the blind leading the blind see [1]BLIND

[2]lead noun, pl leads

1 the lead a : a position that is ahead of others ▪ They walked single file, with the oldest boy in the lead. [=with the oldest boy at the front of the line] ▪ You take the lead [=go first] and we'll follow right behind you. b : a position that is ahead of others in a race or competition ▪ A runner from Kenya is in the lead in the race. [=is leading the race] ▪ A runner from Kenya has/holds the lead. ▪ Her car has taken/gained the lead. = Her car has gone to/into the lead. ▪ He was trailing in the polls last week, but now he has regained the lead. — often used figuratively ▪ Their company has taken the lead in developing this new technology.

2 [count] : the amount or distance by which someone or something is ahead in a race or competition — usually singular ▪ Her car had a lead of 12 seconds over the next one. ▪ They had a lead of 20 points. = They had a 20-point lead. ▪ a narrow/slim lead ▪ Our candidate has established a comfortable/commanding lead in the opinion polls.

3 [count] : a piece of information that could help produce a desired result ▪ I'm a good salesman, but I need more leads. [=names of potential customers]; especially : a piece of information that might help in solving a crime ▪ The police have no leads in the case. ▪ Investigators are working on several leads.

4 [count] a : the main role in a movie or play ▪ Her big break came when she got/played the lead in a major Hollywood movie. ▪ He played the lead opposite Bette Davis [=he starred with Bette Davis] in two films. ▪ She got the lead role.; also : someone who plays the main role in movie or play ▪ She was the romantic lead in a major Hollywood movie. ▪ Who will be the male/female lead in his next film? b : the main performer in a group ▪ He sang/played lead [=sang/played as the main performer] in the band. — usually used before another noun ▪ the lead singer/guitarist

5 [count] a : the beginning part of a news story ▪ You should edit the lead so that it will grab the audience's attention. b : the most important news story in a newspaper or broadcast ▪ The story of his arrest was the lead in newspapers across the country. ▪ His arrest was the lead story [=the first and most important story] on the evening news.

6 [count] baseball : a position taken by a runner at a distance from a base before a pitch is thrown ▪ The runner on first took a big lead. [=moved several steps toward second base] ▪ The runner had a large lead off second base. [=stood several steps away from second base in the space between second and third base]

7 [count] chiefly Brit : [1]LEASH ▪ train a dog to walk on a lead

8 [count] chiefly Brit : a wire that carries electricity from a source to an electrical device (such as a lamp or radio) : an electrical cord follow someone's lead : to do the same thing that someone else has done ▪ He followed her lead and voted in favor of the proposal.

– compare [3]LEAD

[3]lead /ˈlɛd/ noun, pl leads

1 [noncount] : a heavy and soft metal that has a gray color ▪ a pipe made of lead — often used before another noun ▪ a lead pipe ▪ lead crystal [=glass made with lead in it] ▪ lead poisoning [=poisoning from eating, drinking, or touching something with lead in it] ▪ lead-free gasoline [=gasoline that does not contain lead]

2 : a thin stick of dark material used in pencils to make marks [noncount] a pencil with black lead ▪ a lead pencil [count] pencils with broken leads

3 [noncount] chiefly US, informal : bullets ▪ They shot him full of lead.

get the lead out US, informal : to begin going or moving more quickly ▪ Get the lead out! If we don't leave in five minutes we'll be late for the movie!

go over/down like a lead balloon see [1]BALLOON

– compare [2]LEAD

lead•ed /ˈlɛdəd/ adj

1 : containing lead ▪ leaded gasoline — opposite UNLEADED

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

2 : having pieces of glass separated by narrow pieces of lead ▪ leaded glass ▪ leaded windows ▪ (Brit) leaded lights [=windows with leaded glass] lead•en /ˈlɛdn̩/ adj, literary

1 : having a dull gray color ▪ a leaden sky/sea
2 : feeling heavy and difficult to move ▪ walked with leaden feet 3 : not lively or exciting ▪ leaden [=dull] conversation lead•er /ˈliːdə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone or something that leads others: such as a : someone who guides other people ▪ He acted as our leader [=guide] on the climb. ▪ The tour leader suggested several restaurants in the area. b : someone or something that is ahead of others in a race or competition ▪ She was the leader for most of the race, but she eventually finished second. ▪ He is the league leader in home runs. [=he has the most home runs in the league] ▪ the leader board [=the list of players who are leading a golf tournament] c : a powerful person who controls or influences what other people do : a person who leads a group, organization, country, etc. ▪ The class focused on the great religious/political leaders of the last century. ▪ the leader of an army ▪ a gang leader ▪ a leader of the antiwar movement ▪ Some people are leaders, and some people are followers. ▪ He's a born/natural leader. [=someone who has qualities that a good leader has] d : a person, group, or organization that is the best or most successful in some activity ▪ The company has become a leader in developing new technology. ▪ a market leader [=a product or company that is more successful than all competing products or companies]
2 a : a person who leads a musical group ▪ the leader of a popular big band of the 1930s; specifically, US : the conductor of an orchestra ▪ the orchestra leader b Brit : CONCERTMASTER
3 Brit : [2]EDITORIAL ▪ The Times attacked the government in a leader today.
– see also LOSS LEADER
– lead•er•less adj ▪ a leaderless political movement lead•er•ship /ˈliːdəˌʃɪp/ noun

1 [noncount] a : a position as a leader of a group, organization, etc. ▪ She recently assumed (the) leadership of the company. b : the time when a person holds the position of leader ▪ The company has done very well under her leadership. [=while she has been its leader]
2 [noncount] : the power or ability to lead other people ▪ a politician who lacks leadership ▪ What this country needs is the exercise of strong leadership! ▪ leadership skills
3 [count] : the leaders of a group, organization, or country ▪ The party leadership is uncertain about what to do next. = (Brit) The party leadership are uncertain about what to do next.

lead–in /ˈliːdˌɪn/ noun, pl -ins [count] : something that comes before and introduces something else ▪ The short animated movie is a good lead-in to the feature film.

lead•ing /ˈliːdɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having great importance, influence, or success ▪ a leading topic of conversation ▪ Their family played a leading part in the settlement of the town. ▪ the leading role in a major Hollywood movie ▪ a leading citizen of the town ▪ She's one of the leading authorities/experts on the stock market.
2 : most important : FOREMOST ▪ What is the leading [=number one] health problem for older women?

leading article noun, pl ~ articles [count] Brit : [2]EDITORIAL leading edge noun, pl ~ edges

1 [count] : the front edge of something that moves ▪ the leading edge of an airplane's wing ▪ the leading edge of a thunderstorm
2 [singular] : the most important or advanced area of activity in a particular field ▪ a company that is at/on the leading edge [=cutting edge] of new developments in technology leading lady noun, pl ~ -dies [count] : an actress who plays the most important female role in a play or movie leading light noun, pl ~ lights [count] : a person who is a very important member of a group, organization, or community ▪ He is one of the leading lights of the labor movement.

leading man noun, pl ~ men [count] : an actor who plays the most important male role in a play or movie leading question noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a question asked in a way that is intended to produce a desired answer ▪ The judge made it quite clear that the lawyers were not permitted to ask witnesses leading questions. ▪ The interviewer asked a lot of leading questions and was clearly biased.

lead•off /ˈliːdˌɑːf/ adj, baseball : batting first at the start of a game or an inning ▪ a leadoff hitter ▪ a batter hitting leadoff = a batter hitting in the leadoff position — see also lead off at [1]LEAD lead time /ˈliːd-/ noun [noncount] : the time between the beginning of a process or project and the appearance of its results ▪ We will need at least six months lead time before production begins.

lead–up /ˈliːdˌʌp/ noun [singular] : something that comes before or prepares for something else ▪ the lead-up to the war/trial

[1]leaf /ˈliːf/ noun, pl leaves /ˈliːvz/
1 : one of the flat and typically green parts of a plant that grow from a stem or twig [count] a maple leaf ▪ a tobacco leaf ▪ tea leaves ▪ I heard the rustle of the autumn leaves. ▪ a pile of dead leaves ▪ The trees drop their leaves in the fall, and new leaves grow again in the spring. [noncount] By the end of April, most trees are in leaf. [=most trees have grown their new leaves] ▪ The trees have not yet come into leaf. — see color picture on page C6
2 [count] : a sheet of paper in a book : PAGE — usually used figuratively ▪ I decided to take/borrow a leaf out of his book [=to do the same thing that he did] and invest some money in the stock market. — see also FLYLEAF, LOOSE-LEAF
3 [count] : a part that can be added to or removed from a table to change the size of its top surface
4 [noncount] : a very thin sheet of metal (such as gold or silver) that is used to decorate something ▪ silver leaf turn over a new leaf : to start behaving or living in a different and better way ▪ I decided to turn over a new leaf and stop worrying so much. ▪ The program helps drug addicts to turn over a new leaf when they get out of jail.
– leaf•less /ˈliːfləs/ adj ▪ leafless trees – leaf•like /ˈliːfˌlaɪk/ adj

[2]leaf verb leafs; leafed; leaf•ing
leaf out [phrasal verb] US, of a tree : to produce leaves ▪ The tree will leaf out in the spring.
leaf through [phrasal verb] leaf through (something) : to turn the pages of (a book, a magazine, etc.) ▪ She was leafing through the magazine, looking at the pictures.

leafed /ˈliːft/ adj : having a specified kind or number of leaves : LEAVED — used in combination ▪ a silver-leafed plant ▪ a four-leafed clover

[1]leaf•let /ˈliːflət/ noun, pl -lets [count] : a printed and often folded sheet of paper that is usually given to people for no cost ▪ Protesters were handing out leaflets condemning the government's environmental policies. ▪ an advertising leaflet

[2]lea et verb -let•ed; -let•ing : to give leaflets to many people in (a place) [+ obj] They leafleted several neighborhoods. [no obj] We spent the morning leafleting.

leafy /ˈliːfi/ adj leaf•i•er; -est
1 : having many leaves or trees ▪ leafy woodlands ▪ leafy trees ▪ a leafy suburb [=a suburb in which there are many trees]
2 : consisting mostly of leaves ▪ leafy vegetables ▪ leafy greens

[1]league /ˈliːg/ noun, pl leagues [count]
1 : a group of sports teams that play against each other ▪ a softball/bowling league ▪ the National Football League — often used figuratively ▪ I enjoy playing chess, but when I tried playing against George, I knew right away that I was out of my league. [=I knew that he was much better than I was] ▪ According to one restaurant reviewer, the two chefs are not even in the same league. [=one of the chefs is much better than the other] ▪ He's a pretty good writer, but he's not in the same league as she is. = He's a pretty good writer, but she's in a different league altogether. [=she is a much better writer than he is] ▪ When it comes to cooking, he's in a league of his own. [=he is a much better cook than anyone else] — see also BIG LEAGUE, BUSH LEAGUE, IVY LEAGUE, LITTLE LEAGUE, MAJOR LEAGUES, MINOR LEAGUE
2 : a group or organization of nations or people united for a purpose ▪ the League of Nations ▪ joined the League of Voters ▪ The league has grown to include 12 member states.
in league (with) : working with someone especially to do something dishonest ▪ She denies that she is in league with [=conspiring with] corrupt officials. ▪ He suspects that they are in league together [=working with each other; working together] against him.
– compare [2]LEAGUE

[2]league noun, pl leagues [count] : any one of several old units of distance from about 2.4 to 4.6 miles (3.9 to 7.4 kilometers) — compare [1]LEAGUE

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

leagu•er /ˈliːgɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who belongs to a specified league ▪ a major/minor leaguer [=a player in baseball's major/minor leagues]

league table noun, pl ~ tables [count] Brit : a list of teams, schools, hospitals, etc. that shows them in order from best to worst

[1]leak /ˈliːk/ verb leaks; leaked; leak•ing

1 a : to let something (such as a liquid or gas) in or out through a hole in a surface [no obj] The roof was leaking. [=rainwater was getting into the building through the roof] ▪ The boat leaked badly. [=a lot of water got into the boat through its bottom] ▪ That hose is leaking. [=water is coming out of the side of that hose] ▪ a leaking boat/roof [+ obj] The boat was leaking water. ▪ The cracked pipe leaked fumes into the room. b [no obj] of a liquid, gas, etc. : to come in or go out through a hole in a surface ▪ Fumes leaked through the crack in the pipe. ▪ Air leaked out of the tire. ▪ Water was leaking through a hole in the roof.

2 a [+ obj] : to give (secret information) to someone so that it becomes known to the public ▪ Someone leaked the story to the press. ▪ a leaked story b [no obj] : to become known to the public ▪ We can't let this information leak. [=get out] — usually + out ▪ Eventually, news of the accident leaked out. ▪ Details about the case started to leak out.

[2]leak noun, pl leaks [count]

1 a : a hole in a surface that lets something (such as a liquid or gas) pass in or out ▪ The boat had developed a bad leak. ▪ The landlord said he would fix the leak in the roof. ▪ One of the car's tires has a slow leak. [=a small hole through which air escapes slowly] ▪ The pipe suddenly sprung a leak. [=began to leak] b : an occurrence in which something (such as a liquid or gas) passes through a hole in a surface ▪ a gas/oil leak ▪ a slow leak of the chemical

2 : a situation in which people learn about information that is supposed to be secret ▪ When a reporter revealed classified information, the source of the leak was investigated. ▪ Security is high because of a fear of leaks before negotiations have been finished. ▪ a security leak take a leak or Brit have a leak informal + impolite : to pass liquid from the body : URINATE

– leak•proof /ˈliːkˌpruːf/ adj ▪ a leakproof container

leak•age /ˈliːkɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es

1 a : an occurrence in which something (such as a liquid or gas) passes through a hole in a surface [noncount] Some of the water was lost from the containers because of leakage. [=because it leaked out] [count] trying to prevent accidental leakages b [count] : the amount that is lost when something leaks ▪ Leakages of about 30 percent were reported.

2 : an occurrence in which secret information becomes known [noncount] taking steps to prevent leakage of confidential information [count] leakages of confidential information leaky /ˈliːki/ adj leak•i•er; -est : having a hole that allows something (such as a liquid or gas) to pass in or out : having a leak ▪ a leaky boat/pipe ▪ The roof was leaky.

[1]lean /ˈliːn/ verb leans; leaned or Brit leant /ˈlɛnt/; lean•ing

1 a [no obj] : to bend or move from a straight position ▪ The tree leans to one side. ▪ He leaned back in his chair. ▪ They leaned over the table to smell the flowers. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to bend or move from a straight position ▪ They leaned their heads back. ▪ He leaned his chair back.

2 a [no obj] : to rest on or against something or someone for support ▪ You can lean on me if you get tired. ▪ She stood leaning on her right leg. ▪ The ladder was leaning against the house. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to rest on or against something ▪ He leaned the ladder against the house. ▪ The boy leaned his head on his mother's shoulder.

3 a — used to describe what someone wants to do, tends to do, or is likely to do ▪ She hasn't made a decision yet, and I don't know which way she's leaning. — often + toward ▪ She's leaning toward a career in medicine. [=she is probably going to choose a career in medicine] ▪ The mayor is leaning toward closing down the school. b — used to say that someone supports one group or set of beliefs more than another; often + toward ▪ an independent presidential candidate who leans toward the Democrats and their views c — used to say that something is more like one thing than another; often + toward ▪ Her new album leans more toward rock than country.

lean on [phrasal verb] 1 lean on (someone or something) : to depend on (someone or something) for support ▪ He leaned on his family during the crisis. ▪ She was someone you could lean on. 2 lean on (someone) informal : to force or try to force (someone) to do something especially by making threats : to put pressure on (someone) ▪ They were leaning on the governor to pass the law.

lean over backward see [1]BACKWARD

[2]lean adj lean•er; lean•est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : not having much fat on the body : physically thin, strong, and healthy ▪ She has a lean, athletic body. ▪ a lean racehorse

2 : containing little or no fat ▪ lean meat ▪ (US) lean ground beef

3 : not having or producing much money, food, etc. ▪ Those were lean years for the company. [=the company did not make much money in those years] ▪ a lean budget/profit/harvest

4 usually approving : not using a lot of something (such as words or money) ▪ He had a lean style of writing. [=his writing style did not use too many words] : not wasteful ▪ She ran a lean and efficient company. ▪ We wanted our business to be lean and mean.

– lean•ness /ˈliːnnəs/ noun [noncount]

synonyms LEAN, THIN, and SKINNY mean not having much fat on the body. LEAN suggests a lack of unnecessary fat and may also suggest the muscular body of an athlete. ▪ the strong lean legs of a runner THIN can describe a person whose lack of fat is unhealthy, but it also often describes a person who is considered attractive. ▪ a thin and sickly old man ▪ The room was full of beautiful thin women. SKINNY describes a person who has an extremely thin appearance and who may not be healthy or eat enough food. ▪ skinny children in poor countries ▪ skinny legs lean•ing /ˈliːnɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : a preference for something or tendency to do something — often + toward ▪ Her leaning is toward a career in medicine. — often plural ▪ His political leanings are unknown. ▪ The two painters have similar artistic leanings.

lean–to /ˈliːnˌtuː/ noun, pl -tos [count] : a small and usually roughly made building that is built on the side of a larger building

[1]leap /ˈliːp/ verb leaps; leaped /ˈliːpt, ˈlɛpt/ or lept /ˈlɛpt, ˈliːpt/; leap•ing

1 a [no obj] : to jump from a surface ▪ The cat suddenly leaped into the air. ▪ Fish were leaping out of the water. ▪ He leaped off the bridge. ▪ The cat leapt down from (the top of) the table. ▪ The boys leaped over the stream. ▪ He made a leaping catch. [=he caught the ball as he jumped] b [+ obj] : to jump over (something) ▪ The horse leaped the stone wall.

2 [no obj] : to move quickly ▪ She leapt up [=she stood up quickly] and ran out the door. ▪ When the alarm went off, she leapt out of bed. ▪ The crowd leapt to its feet. [=stood up quickly in excitement] — often used figuratively ▪ The team leaped from last place to first place. ▪ The conversation leapt from politics to religion. ▪ When other people accused her of being lazy, he leaped to her defense. [=he quickly began to defend her] ▪ They leaped into action. [=acted immediately] leap at [phrasal verb] leap at (something) : to eagerly take (a chance, opportunity, etc.) ▪ She leaped at [=jumped at] the chance/opportunity to show her boss what she could do. ▪ He leapt at the offer of a better job.

3 [no obj] : to suddenly increase by a large amount ▪ The price of gasoline leaped (by) 10 percent.

leap off the page see [1]PAGE

leap out at [phrasal verb] leap out at (someone) 1 : to suddenly come at (someone) from a hiding place ▪ The hidden assailant leaped [=jumped] out at them. 2 : to immediately get the attention of (someone) ▪ The picture on the magazine's cover leaps out at you.

leap to conclusions see CONCLUSION

leap to mind see [1]MIND

look before you leap see [1]LOOK your heart leaps see HEART

– leap•er /ˈliːpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]leap noun, pl leaps

1 [count] a : a long or high jump ▪ She made a graceful leap into the air. ▪ He ran and took a flying leap over the stream. b : the distance that a person or animal jumps ▪ He won the high jump with a leap of six feet.

2 [count] : a great and sudden change, increase, or improvement ▪ She made the difficult leap [=transition] from college to the workplace. ▪ the leap from childhood to adulthood ▪ a leap [=jump] in the cost of automobiles ▪ She has shown great leaps in ability. ▪ Technology has taken a great leap forward.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

— see also QUANTUM LEAP

3 [singular] : a serious attempt to do or understand something new ▪ an imaginative leap ▪ It required a leap of the imagination to picture how the project would look when it was completed. ✧ A leap in the dark is something that is done without knowing anything about what the result might be. ▪ He had no experience, so starting his own business was a real leap in the dark. ✧ A leap of faith is a decision to believe that something is true or possible even though other people may doubt it. ▪ He has taken/made a leap of faith in starting his own business. ▪ It takes/requires a leap of faith to believe that this project can succeed.

by/in leaps and bounds : very quickly and greatly ▪ The company grew by leaps and bounds. ▪ Their knowledge has increased in leaps and bounds.

take a flying leap US, informal + impolite — used to tell someone who angers or annoys you to go away ▪ She told him to (go) take a flying leap. [=(Brit) take a running jump]

[1]leap•frog /ˈliːpˌfrɑːg/ noun [noncount] : a children's game in which one player bends down so that another player can leap over the back of the first player ▪ play leapfrog

[2]leapfrog verb -frogs; -frogged; -frog•ging : to move ahead of or beyond (someone or something) in a very quick and sudden way [+ obj] Skipping his last two years of high school, he leapfrogged his classmates and went to college. ▪ This year's technologies are leapfrogging last year's designs. [no obj] — usually + over ▪ She leapfrogged over her more experienced coworkers and became the company's president.

leap year noun, pl ∼ years [count] : a year of 366 days instead of 365 with February having 29 days instead of 28 ✧ A leap year occurs every four years. ▪ The year 2004 was a leap year.

learn /ˈlən/ verb learns; learned also chiefly Brit learnt /ˈlənt/; learn•ing

1 : to gain knowledge or skill by studying, practicing, being taught, or experiencing something [no obj] People learn throughout their lives. ▪ He is learning quickly. ▪ I can't swim yet, but I'm learning. — often + about ▪ We learned about the reasons for the war in our history class. — often + from ▪ We all have the ability to learn from our mistakes. ▪ She learned from experience that when grease catches on fire, you shouldn't put water on it. [+ obj] learn arithmetic ▪ learn a trade ▪ She's interested in learning French. ▪ We had to learn the rules of the game. — often + about ▪ She's been trying to learn more about our family history. — often to + verb ▪ He never learned (how) to dance/swim. ▪ I'm learning to play the guitar. ▪ He learned how not to offend people. ▪ You need to learn (how) to take care of your health.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be in your memory by studying it : MEMORIZE ▪ I'm trying to learn my lines for the play. ▪ We had to learn the names of the state capitals. ▪ learn the alphabet

3 : to hear or be told (something) : to find out (something) [+ obj] She learned through/from a letter that her father had died. ▪ I later learned that they had never called. ▪ I was surprised when I learned (that) he wasn't coming. ▪ We finally learned the truth about what had happened. [no obj] — + of ▪ We were shocked to learn of her death. [=to find out about her death] ▪ She first learned of the accident on Monday.

4 : to become able to understand (something) through experience [+ obj] learn the difference between right and wrong ▪ He quickly learned what it means to be a father. ▪ We learned that if we wanted a good job, we had to go to college. ▪ I have learned that life isn't easy. ▪ Someday you'll learn that money is not the most important thing in life. ▪ He learned the hard way that crime doesn't pay. [=he found out by being punished for his crimes] — often followed by to + verb ▪ It's important to learn to respect other people. ▪ It's a bad situation, but we'll just have to learn to live with it. [=we will have to accept it and deal with it] [no obj] Someday you'll learn. ▪ Even after all his health problems, he's still eating and drinking too much. Some people never learn.

live and learn see [1]LIVE

– learn•able /ˈlənəbəl/ adj ▪ learnable skills learned adj

1 /ˈlənəd/ [more ∼; most ∼] formal : having or showing a lot of learning, education, or knowledge ▪ a learned scholar ▪ We had a learned discussion about politics. ▪ a learned opinion ▪ She has published articles in both learned [=scholarly] journals and popular magazines.

2 /ˈlənd/ — used to describe something that people get or have because of learning or experience ▪ Speaking a language is a learned behavior. ▪ a learned response learn•er /ˈlənə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a person who learns ▪ He is a fast learner. [=he learns fast] ▪ slow learners : a person who is trying to gain knowledge or skill in something by studying, practicing, or being taught ▪ an adult learner ▪ an advanced learner ▪ learners of English as a second language ▪ a learner's dictionary

2 Brit : STUDENT DRIVER

learner driver noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] Brit : STUDENT DRIVER

learner's permit noun, pl ∼ -mits [count] US : a document that allows a person to learn how to drive a car ▪ After you get your learner's permit, I'll let you drive my car. — called also (Brit) provisional licence

learn•ing /ˈlənɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the activity or process of gaining knowledge or skill by studying, practicing, being taught, or experiencing something : the activity of someone who learns ▪ a computer program that makes learning fun ▪ different methods of foreign language learning ▪ The first year of college was a learning experience.

2 : knowledge or skill gained from learning ▪ They were people of good education and considerable/great learning. ▪ book learning [=knowledge gained from reading books]

learning curve noun, pl ∼ curves [count] : the rate at which someone learns something new : the course of progress made in learning something ▪ The job has a very steep learning curve. [=there is a large amount that has to be learned quickly in order to do the job]

learning disability noun, pl ∼ -ties [count] : a condition that makes learning difficult ▪ students with learning disabilities — called also (chiefly Brit) learning difficulty

– learning disabled adj ▪ parents with learning disabled children

learnt chiefly Brit past tense and past participle of LEARN

[1]lease /ˈliːs/ noun, pl leas•es [count] : a legal agreement that lets someone use a car, house, etc., for a period of time in return for payment ▪ sign a lease ▪ They took out a five-year lease on the house. ▪ We hold leases on both of our cars. ▪ The lease expires next month. = The lease runs out next month.

a new lease on life (US) or Brit a new lease of life : a chance to continue living or to become successful or popular again ▪ This medicine gives patients a new lease on life. ▪ After they made the movie, the book got a new lease on life. [=the book became newly popular] ▪ The band has given this style of music a new lease on life.

[2]lease verb leases; leased; leas•ing [+ obj]

1 : to use (something) for a period of time in return for payment ▪ She leases a red convertible. ▪ I have leased this house for the last four years.

2 : to allow someone to use (something) for a period of time in return for payment ▪ We leased the house to a young married couple.

[1]leash /ˈliːʃ/ noun, pl leash•es [count] chiefly US : a long, thin piece of rope, chain, etc., that is used for holding a dog or other animal ▪ put a dog on a leash ▪ Dogs must be kept on a leash while in the park. ▪ The dog saw a cat and was straining at its leash trying to get at it. — often used figuratively ▪ The coach kept her players on a (short/tight) leash throughout the year. [=the coach closely watched and controlled the behavior of her players] ▪ The kids were straining at the leash to get going. [=were very eager to get going] — called also (chiefly Brit) lead

[2]leash verb leashes; leashed; leash•ing [+ obj] : to put (a dog or other animal) on a leash ▪ You need to leash your dog while in the park. ▪ a leashed dog

[1]least /ˈliːst/ adj, superlative form of [1]LITTLE : smallest in amount or degree ▪ The least [=slightest] noise would startle her. ▪ I try to spend the least (amount of) time possible in the kitchen. = I try to spend the least possible (amount of) time in the kitchen. ▪ We finished without the least help from you. [=without any help from you] ▪ She hasn't shown the least sign of remorse. [=she hasn't shown any remorse]

not (in) the least bit see [1]BIT

take/follow the path/line of least resistance see RESISTANCE

[2]least noun

the least : something of the lowest importance, strength, value, etc. ▪ Any noise—even the (very) least—would startle her. — often + of ▪ That's the least of my worries/problems. [=I have more important worries/problems to deal

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

with] ▪ We had many things to consider, not the least of which was the safety of our children. [=the safety of our children was very important]

at least 1 : not less than a specified amount, level, etc. ▪ At least once a year, we visit our grandparents. ▪ We meet at least once a month. = We meet once a month at least. ▪ You must be at least 21 years of age to enter. ▪ He was at least six feet tall. ▪ He must have at least 300 CDs! 2 — used to say that something (such as a bad situation) could be or have been worse ▪ The weather was cold, but at least it didn't rain. ▪ I was tired and hungry, but at least I was free. ▪ We don't have much money, but at least we still have each other. 3 — used to indicate the smallest or easiest thing that someone can or should do ▪ Well, he could have at least apologized. 4 a — used to indicate that the truth of a statement might change or has changed ▪ We're going to have a picnic, at least if it doesn't rain. ▪ I'm fine for now at least. [=I'm fine for now although I may not be fine later] ▪ He was unknown in the music world, at least until recently. b — used to indicate that the truth of a previous statement is not certain ▪ Her name is Sue, or at least I think it is. ▪ He is coming today. At least that's what he told me.

at the (very) least — used to indicate the least thing that is true, acceptable, desirable, or certain to happen ▪ He wanted to win the race, or at the least, to finish second. ▪ It is, at the very least, an interesting book. ▪ It will change your life or, at the very least, teach you something new. ▪ At the very least, she deserves to be heard.

not (in) the least : not at all : not in any way or respect ▪ It did not interest me in the least. [=it did not interest me at all] ▪ He did*n't* enjoy it in the least. ▪ That joke was not in the least funny. ▪ We were*n't in the least* tired. ▪ I'm not the least worried.

the least (someone) can do : the smallest or easiest thing that someone can or should do ▪ The least he could do is tell me what happened. ▪ There's no need to thank me for my help. Considering all the help you've given me in the past, it was the least I could do. [=I do not deserve to be thanked for the small thing I did] to say the least — used to emphasize a statement ▪ She was not happy, to say the least. [=she was very unhappy] ▪ He is, to say the least, hopeful about the future. [=he is very hopeful about the future] ▪ To say the least, they were disappointed that their trip was canceled.

L

[3]least adv, superlative form of [2]LITTLE : in or to the smallest degree ▪ Who was the least at fault in the case? ▪ He asked me to help him when I least expected it. ▪ That was the least important of her reasons. ▪ That was the least interesting book I have ever read.

last but not least see [3]LAST least of all : especially not ▪ No one, least of all the children, wanted to go home early.

not least formal : especially or particularly ▪ We had many things to consider, not least the safety of our children.

least common denominator noun [noncount] US : LOWEST COMMON DENOMINATOR least•ways /ˈliːstˌweɪz/ or least•wise /ˈliːstˌwaɪz/ adv, informal : at least ▪ The weather was cold, but leastways it didn't rain. ▪ He was unknown in the music world, leastwise until recently.

leath•er /ˈlɛðɚ/ noun [noncount] : animal skin that is chemically treated to preserve it and that is used in making clothes, shoes, furniture, etc. — see also PATENT LEATHER

– leather adj ▪ a black leather jacket

leath•ery /ˈlɛðəri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking or feeling like leather ▪ The meat was dry and leathery. [=tough] ▪ the old farmer's leathery, brown skin

[1]leave /ˈliːv/ verb leaves; left /ˈlɛft/; leav•ing

1 a : to go away from (a place) [+ obj] What time will you leave the office? ▪ Don't leave home without your wallet. ▪ I left the party at seven o'clock. [no obj] We will leave at 10 o'clock. ▪ Are we leaving soon? ▪ She left quickly. ▪ They left by bus. ▪ The train left an hour ago but another will be arriving soon. — often + for ▪ We're leaving for the game in an hour. ▪ The train left from Paris for Barcelona an hour ago. b [+ obj] : to go away from (a place) to live in a different place ▪ They left the country for a new life in the city. ▪ He left town a month ago. ▪ He left home [=left his parent's house and lived somewhere else] after graduating from high school. 2 a [+ obj] : to go away from (a person) ▪ She left her friends and went home. ▪ We left him so that he could do his work. = We left him to his work. = He had work to do, so we left him to it. ▪ We left him doing his work. [=he was doing his work when we left him] b : to stop living with and having a close personal relationship with (someone) [+ obj] His mother left [=abandoned, deserted] him when he was very young. ▪ He left his wife and children. ▪ His wife left him for another man. [no obj] He hasn't been the same since his wife left.

3 a [+ obj] : to give up or stop having (a job, position, etc.) ▪ He left [=quit] his job and went back to school. ▪ a politician who will be leaving office next year b : to stop attending, belonging to, or working for (a school, a group, an organization, etc.) [+ obj] She left school and got a job. ▪ She left our team and joined another one. ▪ He has one more year before he leaves the army. ▪ He's going to be leaving the company soon and starting his own business. [no obj] You must give the company two weeks' notice before leaving. c [+ obj] : to stop participating in (something, such as a game) ▪ The starting quarterback had to leave the game because of an injury. ▪ When did she leave the meeting?

4 [+ obj] a : to go away and allow or cause (something or someone) to remain ▪ Please leave your books at home. ▪ You may leave your things in this room. : to put or bring (something or someone) somewhere and go away ▪ I left the groceries on the table. ▪ Please leave the package by the door. ▪ We left a turkey (roasting) in the oven. ▪ I left my brother at the airport. ▪ They left their dog in the car. b ✧ If you leave someone or something with someone, you allow someone to keep and care for someone or something while you are away. ▪ They went out to dinner and left their children (home) with a babysitter. ▪ We left our dog with the neighbors while we went on vacation. c : to go away and forget or neglect to take (something) ▪ He left [=forgot] his wallet at the restaurant. ▪ I left my homework in my car. ▪ Did you leave your key in the door again? d : to go away permanently without taking (something or someone) ▪ He left nothing in his old apartment. — often + behind ▪ They left behind everything they owned. ▪ We had to leave our family and friends behind. ▪ He left it all behind. [=took nothing with him] ▪ I wanted to leave the past behind. [=forget about the past]

5 [+ obj] : to put (something) in a place for another person to take or have ▪ Did she leave a package for me? ▪ We left a good tip for our waitress. = We left our waitress a good tip. ▪ I left a message (for you) on your answering machine. ▪ He left his name and phone number.

6 [+ obj] a : to allow someone else to deal with or do (something) — often + with ▪ "It's a pretty complicated problem." "Leave it with me: I'll see what I can do." — often + for ▪ You don't have to wash the dishes. Just leave them for me. [=I will wash the dishes] — often + to ▪ Leave your computer problems to the experts. [=let the experts solve your computer problems] ▪ That kind of decision should be left to the parents. ▪ They left the decision (up) to me. ▪ She left it to the readers to decide the story's ending. ▪ I'll leave it (up) to you (to decide) whether or not we go to the movies. ▪ I'll leave you to draw your own conclusions. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Whether or not we have a picnic will be left (up) to the weather. [=will be determined by the weather] b ✧ In informal U.S. English, you can say leave it to someone (to do something), when someone has acted in a way that is typical or expected. ▪ Leave it to my mom to make everyone feel comfortable. [=my mom always makes everyone feel comfortable] c ✧ If people leave you to do something, they do not help you do it. ▪ He left me to find my own way home. ▪ She was left to finish the job by herself. ▪ I'll leave you to draw your own conclusions. ▪ I was left to fend for myself.

7 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to be or remain in a specified condition or position ▪ Years of pollution has left [=made] the water undrinkable. ▪ Their argument left him angry and confused. ▪ The accident left him paralyzed. ▪ Your kind words leave me speechless. ▪ I'll leave the door unlocked for you. ▪ She left the door/window open. ▪ Did you leave the lights on? ▪ Much was left undone. ▪ Let's just leave it at that. [=let's not change it or discuss it further] — often + -ing verb ▪ They cut down the trees but left the rosebushes standing. ▪ It left them wondering when it would all end. — often + with ▪ I don't want to punish you, but your actions leave me (with) no/little choice. [=your actions make it necessary for me to punish you] ▪ They were left with no option but to sell their car. [=they were forced to sell their car]

8 [+ obj] a : to allow (something) to remain available or unused ▪ He wanted to leave a way out for himself. = He wanted to leave himself a way out. ▪ Please leave space/room for another chair. ▪ Don't eat too much. You need to leave room for dessert. [=you need to leave enough room in your stomach so that you can eat dessert] ▪ That doesn't leave much room for discussion. b ✧ An amount that is left (over) or that you have left (over) is an amount that remains after the rest has been used or taken away. ▪ There is only one piece of bread left. [=remaining] ▪ After feeding 20 people, there was nothing left for me. ▪ How much time do we have left before we can go home? ▪ There was no one left in the city after the parade. ▪ Do we have any pizza left over from last night? ▪ We have many decorations left over from the party.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

9 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to remain as a result, mark, or sign ▪ The cut left an ugly scar. ▪ The grape juice left a stain on the carpet. ▪ The rain is leaving a thin layer of ice on the roads. ▪ The thief was careful not to leave any clues. ▪ We promise we won't leave a mess. ▪ His visit left a lasting impression on our family. ▪ The experience left a bad taste in my mouth. [=the experience made me feel bad or disgusted]

10 [+ obj] a : to have (family members) living after your death ▪ He left (behind) a widow and two children. ▪ She leaves (behind) 7 children and 28 grandchildren. b : to give (something, such as money or property) to (someone) after your death ▪ She left a fortune to her husband. ▪ His parents left him a house and a small amount of money.

11 [+ obj] mathematics : to have (a number) as a remainder ▪ Taking 7 from 10 leaves 3.

I must love you and leave you see ²LOVE leave much to be desired see ¹DESIRE leave no stone unturned see ¹STONE leave off [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop before finishing a story, conversation, etc. ▪ Let's begin where we left off. ▪ Where did we leave off in our conversation? 2 leave off (doing something) informal : to stop (doing something) ▪ They finally left off trying to reach an agreement.
leave out [phrasal verb] leave out (someone or something) or leave (someone or something) out : to not include or mention (someone or something) ▪ The movie leaves a lot out of the story. ▪ You left out the best part. ▪ Did everyone get a piece of cake? I don't want to leave anyone out. ▪ They always leave her out of the conversation. ▪ He always feels left out when his friends talk about sports.
leave (someone) guessing see ¹GUESS leave (someone) in the dust see ¹DUST leave (someone) in the lurch see ³LURCH leave (someone or something) alone : to not bother or touch (someone or something) ▪ Please leave the baby alone. She needs to sleep. ▪ Please leave the vase alone.
leave (someone or something) be : to not bother or touch (someone or something) ▪ Please leave [=let] me be.
leave (someone or something) for dead see ¹DEAD leave (someone) out in the cold see ²COLD leave (something) to the imagination see IMAGINATION leave well enough alone or Brit leave well alone : to stop changing something that is already good enough ▪ He just doesn't know when to leave well enough alone.
leave you cold see ¹COLD leave you to your own devices see DEVICE left at the altar see ALTAR
take it or leave it see ¹TAKE

²leave noun

1 : a period of time when someone has special permission to be away from a job or from military service [singular] He took an unpaid leave from work. ▪ The soldiers were given a two-month leave for the holidays. [noncount] 12 weeks of leave ▪ He took a few months' leave to care for his sick mother. ▪ The company granted her maternity leave. [=time off to take care of a newborn child] ▪ Our professor is on leave this semester. ▪ She is on leave from her law firm. ▪ a soldier on military leave — called also leave of absence; see also COMPASSIONATE LEAVE, FAMILY LEAVE, SHORE LEAVE, SICK LEAVE

2 [noncount] formal : permission to do something ▪ I beg leave to differ with you, sir. ▪ He was found guilty but was granted/given leave to appeal against the verdict. ▪ The soldier was guilty of being absent without (official) leave.

take leave of someone or take your leave formal : to say goodbye to someone ▪ It was late when they finally took leave of their friends and headed home. ▪ After a few minutes of polite conversation, he took his leave.
take leave of your senses : to begin acting or thinking in a very foolish way ▪ Have you taken leave of your senses?
without (so much as) a by your leave old-fashioned : without asking permission ▪ He borrowed my car without so much as a by your leave!

leaved /ˈliːvd/ adj : having leaves of a particular kind or number — usually used in combination ▪ This bush is red-leaved in autumn. ▪ a broad-leaved tree

¹leav•en /ˈlɛvən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a substance (such as yeast) that makes dough rise and become light before it is baked — called also leavening
2 literary : something that makes a situation or mood less serious ▪ a serious book that includes a few humorous stories as leaven

²leaven verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing [+ obj]
1 formal : to make (something) less serious and often more exciting ▪ Her jokes leavened [=lightened] the meeting's mood. ▪ He needs to leaven his speeches with more humor.
2 : to add leaven to (bread, dough, etc.) ▪ using yeast to leaven the dough/bread ▪ Some breads are leavened [=made with leaven] and some breads are unleavened.

leav•en•ing /ˈlɛvənɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : ¹LEAVEN 1

leave of absence noun, pl leaves of absence
1 [noncount] : permission to be away from a job for a period of time ▪ He was granted/given leave of absence.
2 : a period of time when someone has special permission to be away from a job : LEAVE [count] He took two unpaid leaves of absence. [noncount] She has been on leave of absence for almost two years.

leaves plural of ¹LEAF leave–tak•ing /ˈliːvˌteɪkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings formal : an act of going away and saying goodbye [count] He announced his leave-taking [=departure] this morning. ▪ The movie ended with an emotional leave-taking. [=farewell] [noncount] Leave-taking is always difficult for her.

leav•ings /ˈliːvɪŋz/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : things that remain after an activity is finished ▪ the leavings [=remnants] of our dinner

lech•er /ˈlɛʧə/ noun, pl -ers [count] disapproving : a man who shows an excessive or disgusting interest in sex ▪ a dirty lecher
– lech•ery /ˈlɛʧəri/ noun [noncount]

lech•er•ous /ˈlɛʧərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing an excessive or disgusting interest in sex ▪ a lecherous old man

lec•tern /ˈlɛktən/ noun, pl -terns [count] : a stand that holds a book, notes, etc., for someone who is reading, speaking, or teaching

¹lec•ture /ˈlɛkʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count]
1 : a talk or speech given to a group of people to teach them about a particular subject ▪ a lecture about/on politics ▪ She's planning to give/deliver a series of lectures on modern art. ▪ Several hundred people are expected to attend the lecture.
2 : a talk that criticizes someone's behavior in an angry or serious way ▪ I came home late and got a lecture from my parents. ▪ I gave her a lecture about doing better in school.

²lecture verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing
1 [no obj] : to give a talk or a series of talks to a group of people to teach them about a particular subject ▪ She lectures (to undergraduates) on modern art at the local college. ▪ She lectures in art at the local college.
2 [+ obj] : to talk to (someone) in an angry or serious way ▪ They lectured their children about/on the importance of honesty. ▪ I lectured her about doing better in school.

lec•tur•er /ˈlɛkʧərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who gives a lecture ▪ We had a guest lecturer in class today.
2 a US : someone who teaches at a college or university on a temporary basis b Brit : someone who teaches at a British college or university and ranks below a professor lec•ture•ship /ˈlɛkʧəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] Brit : a position as a lecturer at a British college or university ▪ He was offered a lectureship. ▪ She has a lectureship in chemistry.

led past tense and past participle of ¹LEAD

LED /ˌɛlˌiːˈdiː/ noun, pl LEDs [count] technical : a device that lights up and displays information when electricity passes through it ✧ LEDs are often used to show numbers and words on electronic devices such as digital clocks. LED is an abbreviation of "light-emitting diode."

ledge /ˈlɛʤ/ noun, pl ledg•es [count]
1 : a narrow, flat surface that sticks out from a wall ▪ a window ledge ▪ birds perched on the ledge of a building
2 : a flat rock surface that sticks out from a cliff ▪ a ledge on the side of the mountain led•ger /ˈlɛʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a book that a company uses to record information about the money it has paid and received

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lee /ˈli:/ noun [singular] : the side of something that is sheltered from the wind ▪ the lee of the ship ▪ on the lee (side) of the mountain — see also LEEWARD leech /ˈli:ʧ/ noun, pl leech•es [count]

1 : a type of worm that attaches itself to the skin of animals and sucks their blood
2 disapproving : a person who uses other people for personal gain ▪ a celebrity who is surrounded by leeches who only want his money

leech

leek /ˈli:k/ noun, pl leeks [count] : a vegetable that has long green leaves rising from a thick white base and that tastes like a mild onion — see color picture on page C4

leer /ˈliə/ verb leers; leered; leer•ing [no obj] : to look at someone in an evil or unpleasantly sexual way ▪ She complained that some disgusting man was leering at her. ▪ He gave her a leering look.
– leer noun, pl leers [count] ▪ a wicked/sinister leer

leery /ˈliri/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a lack of trust in someone or something ▪ a leery attitude ▪ She seemed a little leery [=suspicious] about/of the proposal. ▪ They were leery of their neighbors.

[1]lee•ward /ˈli:wəd, ˈlu:wəd/ adj : located on the side that is sheltered from the wind ▪ the leeward side of the island — compare WINDWARD

[2]leeward noun [noncount] : the side that is sheltered from the wind : the lee side ▪ We turned the boat to leeward. — compare WINDWARD

lee•way /ˈli:ˌweɪ/ noun [noncount] : freedom to do something the way you want to do it ▪ They give/allow their students leeway to try new things. ▪ The new rules allow managers (to have) greater leeway in making decisions.
make up (the) leeway Brit : to get back into a good position or situation after you have fallen behind ▪ They're so far behind that they have little hope of making up the leeway on the leaders. [=of catching up with the leaders]

[1]left /ˈlɛft/ adj, always used before a noun
1 a : located on the same side of your body as your heart ▪ He felt a pain in his left side. ▪ her left hand/leg b : done with your left hand ▪ He hit him with a left hook to the jaw. — opposite RIGHT
2 : located nearer to the left side of your body than to the right ▪ the left side of the street ▪ a chair's left arm ▪ taking a left turn
two left feet see [1]FOOT

[2]left adv
1 a : toward the left ▪ Please move left. ▪ She ran left and caught the ball. ▪ Taking one step left, he fell to the ground. b : toward the political Left ▪ a political party that has shifted left ▪ His political views are slightly left of center. [=are slightly liberal]
2 US : using the left hand ▪ He bats/throws left. [=left-handed] — opposite RIGHT
left and right or Brit left, right, and centre : in a very quick and uncontrolled way ▪ She has been spending money left and right. : in all directions ▪ He was calling out names left and right. ▪ The police were stopping cars left and right.

[3]left noun, pl lefts
1 [noncount] : a location closer to the left side of your body than to the right : the left side ▪ We read from left to right. — often used with on ▪ As you come down the street, my house will be on your/the left. — often used with to ▪ Move the picture a little to the left. ▪ The picture is to the left of the window.
2 [count] : a turn or movement toward the left ▪ Go to the next intersection and take a left. = (US) Go to the next intersection and make/hang a left. ▪ You'll take two lefts and then a right.
3 [count] : a punch made with the left hand ▪ He hit him with two quick lefts to the stomach followed by a right to the jaw.
4 a the Left : political groups who favor sharing money and property more equally among the members of a society : political groups who support liberal or socialist policies ▪ His nomination is opposed by the country's Left. ▪ The new law is disliked by the Left. ▪ Members of the Left have voiced their opinions on this matter. b the left : the position of people who support the beliefs and policies of the political Left ▪ The party has shifted to the left. [=has become more liberal] — compare RIGHT; see also the far left at [2]FAR

[4]left past tense and past participle of [1]LEAVE

left eld noun [noncount] : the part of a baseball outfield that is to the left when you are looking out from home plate ▪ a fly ball to (deep/shallow) left field; also : the position of the player defending left field ▪ He plays left field.
come out of left field US, informal : to be very surprising and unexpected ▪ That question came out of left field.
out in left field US, informal : very strange or unusual ▪ ideas that are out in left field ▪ Her position is way out in left field.
– left elder noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ a good left fielder

left–hand /ˈlɛftˈhænd/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : located closer to your left hand : located on the left side ▪ Our building will be on the left-hand side. ▪ Please write your name on the upper left-hand corner of the page. ▪ Take a left-hand turn. — compare RIGHT-HAND
2 : made for the left hand ▪ a left-hand glove ▪ left-hand [=(more commonly) left-handed] tools — compare RIGHT-HAND

left–hand•ed /ˈlɛftˈhændəd/ adj
1 : using the left hand more easily than the right hand ▪ a left-handed person ▪ He is baseball's greatest left-handed pitcher. ▪ My sister is right-handed but I'm left-handed.
2 a : made for the left hand ▪ a left-handed glove ▪ She needs left-handed scissors. b : using or done with the left hand ▪ a left-handed catch/punch
3 : swinging from the left side of the body to the right side in sports like baseball and golf ▪ a left-handed batter/hitter
– left–handed adv ▪ She bats left-handed. – left–hand•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ They study left-handedness in children.

left–hand•er /ˈlɛftˈhændə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a left-handed person; especially : a left-handed pitcher in baseball ▪ The team has eight right-handers and three left-handers.

left•ist /ˈlɛftɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who belongs to or supports the political Left — compare RIGHTIST
– leftist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a leftist government ▪ leftist intellectuals

left•over /ˈlɛftˌoʊvə/ noun, pl -overs
1 leftovers [plural] : food that has not been finished at a meal and that is often served at another meal ▪ Are we having leftovers again?
2 [count] : a thing that remains after something is finished or ended ▪ The law is a leftover from earlier times.
– leftover adj, always used before a noun ▪ Do you have any leftover pizza from last night?

left•ward (chiefly US) /ˈlɛftwəd/ or chiefly Brit left•wards /ˈlɛftwəʤ/ adv : toward the left ▪ Turn the boat leftward. ▪ She stepped leftward into the light. ▪ She has moved leftward in her political beliefs. — compare RIGHTWARD
– leftward adj ▪ a leftward turn left wing noun [singular] : the part of a political group that consists of people who support liberal or socialist ideas and policies : the part of a political group that belongs to or supports the Left ▪ His nomination is supported by the party's left wing but opposed by the right wing.

left–wing /ˈlɛftˈwɪŋ/ adj : of, relating to, or belonging to the political Left : having or supporting ideas and policies that are associated with liberal or socialist groups ▪ left-wing politics/politicians
– left–wing•er /ˈlɛftˈwɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a policy opposed by left-wingers

lefty /ˈlɛfti/ noun, pl left•ies [count] informal
1 chiefly US : LEFT-HANDER ▪ Our starting pitcher is a lefty. — compare RIGHTY
2 chiefly Brit, disapproving : a person who supports liberal or socialist political policies : LEFTIST ▪ political lefties [=left-wingers]

[1]leg /ˈlɛg/ noun, pl legs
1 [count] : one of the long body parts that are used especially for standing, walking, and running ▪ He sat on a chair with his legs crossed. ▪ He leaned against the wall with his legs spread so the police could search him. ▪ She broke her leg in a skiing accident. ▪ His legs gave way under him and he fell over. ▪ a wooden/artificial leg ▪ the dog's front/back/hind legs — see picture at HUMAN; see also PEG LEG, SEA LEGS
2 : an animal's leg when it is used as food [count] We had chicken legs for dinner. [noncount] Would you like some more leg of lamb?
3 [count] : any one of the long thin parts that support a table, chair, etc. ▪ the legs of a table ▪ a chair with a broken leg
4 [count] : the part of a pair of pants that covers the leg ▪ The legs of these jeans are too long. = These jeans are too long in the leg(s).

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

5 [count] a : a part of a journey or race ▪ She took the lead in the last leg of the race. ▪ The weather got worse on each leg of the trip. b : any one of several events or games that form a competition ▪ a horse that has won the first two legs of racing's Triple Crown

6 legs [plural] US, informal : lasting appeal or interest ▪ a news story with legs

a leg up informal 1 *give someone a leg up a : to hold your hands together so that someone can step into them while climbing up onto something ▪ I don't think I can get on this horse without help. Can someone give me a leg up? b : to give someone an advantage over others ▪ These skills will give you a leg up in the job market. [=they will help you get a job] 2 *have a leg up : to have an advantage over others ▪ The company has a leg up on the competition thanks to the recent publicity.

an arm and a leg see [1]ARM break a leg informal — used in speech to wish good luck to someone (such as a performer)

get your leg over Brit, informal + impolite, of a man : to have sex with a woman not have a leg to stand on : to have no support for what you think, say, or do ▪ He claims that the company cheated him, but without evidence of a written agreement, he doesn't have a leg to stand on.

on your/its last legs informal : very close to failure, exhaustion, or death ▪ The company is on its last legs. ▪ He was on his last legs, but he managed to finish the race. ▪ an old tree that is on its last legs [=that is dying and will not last much longer] pull someone's leg informal : to make someone believe something that is not true as a joke : to trick or lie to someone in a playful way ▪ I panicked when he said the test was tomorrow, but then I realized he was just pulling my leg. ▪ When I got mad, she finally admitted that she was pulling my leg.

shake a leg informal : to go or move quickly ▪ You'd better shake a leg [=hurry up] if you don't want to be late for work. — often used as a command ▪ Shake a leg! You're going to be late!

stretch your legs informal : to stand up and walk especially after sitting for a long period of time with your tail between your legs see [1]TAIL

[2]leg verb legs; legged; leg•ging leg it chiefly Brit, informal : to run fast especially in order to get away from someone or something ▪ When they saw the police car, they legged it.

leg out [phrasal verb] leg out (a hit) also leg (a hit) out baseball, informal : to successfully complete (a hit) by running fast ▪ He hurt his knee while trying to leg out an infield hit. ▪ She legged out a triple.

leg•a•cy /ˈlɛgəsi/ noun, pl -cies [count]

1 : something (such as property or money) that is received from someone who has died ▪ She left us a legacy of a million dollars. ▪ a substantial legacy

2 : something that happened in the past or that comes from someone in the past ▪ He left his children a legacy of love and respect. ▪ The war left a legacy of pain and suffering. ▪ We discussed the country's legacy of slavery. [=the ways in which the country is still affected by slavery] ▪ Her artistic legacy lives on through her children.

le•gal /ˈliːgəl/ adj

1 a : of or relating to the law ▪ She has a lot of legal problems. ▪ legal books ▪ a legal adviser/representative ▪ a country's legal system [=the way that laws are made and controlled in a country] b : based on the law ▪ Do you know your legal rights? ▪ The amount of alcohol in his blood exceeded the legal limit. ▪ He plans on taking legal action against the company. [=he plans on having a court of law settle his argument with the company] ▪ legal proceedings [=actions taken to settle an argument in a court of law]

2 : allowed by the law or by the rules in a game ▪ What you did was not legal. ▪ "Is it legal to fish in this river?" "Yes, it's perfectly legal." ▪ The referee said it was a legal play. — opposite ILLEGAL

– le•gal•i•ty /lɪˈgælətiː/ noun, pl -ties [noncount] They were unsure about the contract's legality. ▪ We questioned the legality [=lawfulness] of the testing. [count] We discussed the complex legalities involved in buying and selling a home.

– le•gal•ly /ˈliːgəli/ adv ▪ Legally, they cannot do that. ▪ The drug is legally bought and sold in many countries. ▪ This agreement is legally binding. ▪ He is legally blind. [=his vision is bad enough for him to be considered blind according to the law] ▪ He was legally drunk. [=he was drunk according to the law]

legal aid noun [noncount] : money provided by a special organization to pay legal fees for people who cannot pay them themselves le•gal•ese /ˌliːgəˈliːz/ noun [noncount] informal : the language used by lawyers that is difficult for most people to understand : legal jargon ▪ I was confused by the legalese in the contract.

legal holiday noun, pl ~ -days [count] US : a public holiday recognized by law — called also (Brit) bank holiday

le•gal•is•tic /ˌliːgəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : too concerned with legal rules and details ▪ He has a narrow legalistic view of the controversy. ▪ The two sides in the dispute have been engaging in legalistic wrangling.

le•gal•ize also Brit le•gal•ise /ˈliːgəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) legal ▪ They wanted to legalize gambling in their city. : to allow (something) by law ▪ The government has legalized the use of the new drug. — opposite CRIMINALIZE

– le•gal•i•za•tion also Brit le•gal•i•sa•tion /ˌliːgələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌligəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the legalization of a drug legal pad noun, pl ~ pads [count] : a pad of yellow paper with lines on it for writing legal tender noun [noncount] : money that the law allows people to use for paying debts ▪ Soon after France adopted the euro, the French franc ceased to be legal tender.

leg•ate /ˈlɛgət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : an official representative sent to a foreign country; especially : an official representative of the pope ▪ a papal legate leg•a•tee /ˌlɛgəˈtiː/ noun, pl -tees [count] law : someone who receives money or property from a person who has died le•ga•tion /lɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a group of government officials sent to work in a foreign country; also : the building where such a group works

le•ga•to /lɪˈgɑːˌtoʊ/ adv, music : in a manner that is smooth and flowing ▪ singing/playing legato — compare STACCATO

– legato adj ▪ a legato musical passage leg•end /ˈlɛʤənd/ noun, pl -ends

1 : a story from the past that is believed by many people but cannot be proved to be true [count] I don't believe the legends I've heard about this forest. ▪ the legend of a lost continent [noncount] According to legend, the city was destroyed by a great flood in ancient times. = Legend has it that the city was destroyed by a great flood in ancient times. — see also URBAN LEGEND

2 [count] : a famous or important person who is known for doing something extremely well ▪ He has become a baseball legend. ▪ a guitar-playing legend ▪ She is a legend in her own time. = She is a living legend. [=she has become a legend while still living]

3 [count] a : a list that explains the symbols on a map b formal : the writing that appears on an object ▪ The gravestone bears the legend "Rest in Peace."

leg•end•ary /ˈlɛʤənˌderi, Brit ˈlɛʤəndri/ adj

1 always used before a noun : told about in a legend ▪ legendary tales ▪ legendary creatures from the sea

2 [more ~; most ~] : very famous or well-known ▪ He is the most legendary football player of his time. ▪ legendary musicians leg•er•de•main /ˌlɛʤərdəˈmeɪn/ noun [noncount] : skill in using your hands to perform magic tricks : SLEIGHT OF HAND — often used figuratively ▪ financial legerdemain [=trickery]

leg•ged /ˈlɛgəd/ adj : having legs of a specified type or number — usually used in combination with another adjective ▪ a four-legged animal ▪ a long-legged bird leg•gings /ˈlɛgɪŋz/ noun [plural]

1 : pants for women that are made of a material that stretches to fit tightly around the legs — see color picture on page C13

2 : coverings for the legs that are usually made of cloth or leather and worn over pants leg•gy /ˈlɛgi/ adj leg•gi•er; -est

1 : having long legs — used especially of a woman ▪ a leggy actress

2 of a plant : having very long stalks or stems ▪ The bush has gotten leggy and needs to be pruned.

leg•i•ble /ˈlɛʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : capable of being read : clear enough to be read ▪ legible handwriting ▪ The

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

document is not legible. — opposite ILLEGIBLE – leg•i•bil•i•ty /ˌlɛʤəˈbɪlətiː/ noun [noncount] – leg•i•bly /ˈlɛʤəbliː/ adv ▪ He doesn't write legibly at all.

[1]le•gion /ˈliːʤən/ noun, pl -gions [count]
1 a : a large group of soldiers in ancient Rome ▪ a Roman legion b : a large group of soldiers : ARMY — used especially in names ▪ the French Foreign Legion
2 : a national organization for former soldiers — used in names ▪ the American Legion ▪ the Royal British Legion
3 : a very large number of people ▪ She has a legion [=multitude] of admirers/fans. ▪ Legions of people came to see him perform.

[2]legion adj, not used before a noun : very many or numerous ▪ Her admirers/fans are legion. [=she has a very large number of admirers/fans]

le•gion•ary /ˈliːʤəˌneriː, Brit ˈliːʤənərɪ/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a soldier who is a member of a legion – legionary adj, always used before a noun ▪ legionary soldiers ▪ a Roman legionary camp

le•gion•naire /ˌliːʤəˈneə/ noun, pl -naires [count] : a member of a legion (such as the French Foreign Legion, the Royal British Legion, or the American Legion)

Legionnaires' disease also Legionnaire's disease noun [noncount] : a serious disease of the lungs that is caused by bacteria leg•is•late /ˈlɛʤəˌsleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing

1 : to make laws [no obj] The state legislated against hunting certain animals. [=the state created laws making it illegal to hunt certain animals] [+ obj] legislate a new law
2 [+ obj] : to control, create, or cause (something) by making laws ▪ They are attempting to legislate morality. ▪ the need to better legislate foreign trade ▪ trying to legislate changes in the current law

leg•is•la•tion /ˌlɛʤəˈsleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : a law or set of laws made by a government ▪ They passed new state legislation this week. ▪ Two new pieces of legislation are being considered. ▪ She introduced/proposed legislation for protecting the environment. ▪ More legislation is needed on this matter. ▪ Certain animals are protected under/by state legislation. ▪ The legislation was vetoed/repealed. ▪ anti-gun legislation
2 : the action or process of making laws ▪ One of the important functions of government is legislation.

leg•is•la•tive /ˈlɛʤəˌsleɪtɪv, Brit ˈlɛʤəslətɪv/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : having the power to make laws ▪ the state legislative body/assembly [=the group in a state government that makes laws] ▪ the legislative branch of the government — compare EXECUTIVE, JUDICIAL 2 : relating to the making of laws ▪ She is interested in the legislative process. ▪ legislative power
– leg•is•la•tive•ly adv

leg•is•la•tor /ˈlɛʤəˌsleɪˌtoə, ˈlɛʤəˌsleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who makes laws : a member of a legislature ▪ Write to your state legislator. ▪ Legislators [=lawmakers] in both parties have supported the idea.

leg•is•la•ture /ˈlɛʤəˌsleɪʃə/ noun, pl -tures [count] : a group of people with the power to make or change laws ▪ Our legislature passed a law requiring people to wear safety belts. ▪ Each state has its own legislature. ▪ state legislatures

le•git /lɪˈʤɪt/ adj, informal : [1]LEGITIMATE ▪ What she's doing is perfectly legit. ▪ Is this deal legit? ▪ All I want is a legit chance to succeed.

[1]le•git•i•mate /lɪˈʤɪtəmət/ adj
1 a : allowed according to rules or laws ▪ a legitimate [=legal, lawful] heir/government/business ▪ legitimate means for achieving success ▪ the legitimate use of firearms b : real, accepted, or official ▪ It's not clear that the letter is legitimate [=genuine]; it may be a forgery.
2 [more ~; most ~] : fair or reasonable ▪ We think her concern/excuse is legitimate. = We think she has a legitimate concern/excuse. ▪ There's no legitimate reason for prescribing this medication to a child. ▪ His claim is legitimate.
3 : born to a father and mother who are married ▪ legitimate children — opposite ILLEGITIMATE – le•git•i•ma•cy /lɪˈʤɪtəməsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ Many question the legitimacy of the law. – le•git•i•mate•ly adv ▪ We earned the money legitimately. [=legally] ▪ He can legitimately [=rightfully] claim to be the best athlete in his class.

[2]le•git•i•mate /lɪˈʤɪtəˌmeɪt/ verb -mates; -mat•ed; -mat•ing [+ obj] US : to make (something or someone) legitimate: such as a : to make (something) real, accepted, or official ▪ slang words legitimated by usage b : to show that (something or someone) is fair or reasonable ▪ Her tendency to be secretive only serves to legitimate their suspicions.

le•git•i•ma•tize /lɪˈʤɪtəməˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : [2]LEGITIMATE le•git•i•mize /lɪˈʤɪtəˌmaɪz/ also Brit le•git•i•mise verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing [+ obj] : [2]LEGITIMATE

leg•less /ˈleglәs/ adj
1 : having no legs ▪ a legless lizard ▪ broken, legless chairs
2 Brit slang : extremely drunk ▪ get legless on lager leg•room /ˈlɛgˌruːm/ noun [noncount] : space in which you can extend your legs when you are sitting ▪ I need a car with more legroom. ▪ airplane seats that offer little legroom — compare HEADROOM leg•ume /ˈlɛˌgjuːm/ noun, pl -umes [count] : a type of plant (such as a pea or a bean plant) with seeds that grow in long cases (called pods); also : these seeds eaten as food ▪ recipes that include legumes like lentils and chickpeas

– le•gu•mi•nous /lɪˈgjuːmənəs/ adj ▪ leguminous plants leg warmer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a warm covering of usually soft cloth that you wear on your leg leg•work /ˈlɛgˌwək/ noun [noncount] : the active physical work that is involved in doing something ▪ I wrote the article myself, but my assistant gathered the information and did most of the other legwork.

lei /ˈleɪ/ noun, pl leis [count] : a necklace of flowers that is given to a visitor in Hawaii

lei•sure /ˈliːʒə, Brit ˈlɛʒə/ noun [noncount]
1 : time when you are not working : time when you can do whatever you want to do ▪ In his leisure [=free time, spare time], he paints and sculpts. ▪ I'd like to write more, but I simply don't have the leisure (to do it).
2 : enjoyable activities that you do when you are not working ▪ I don't have much time for leisure. ▪ She leads a life of leisure. [=she does not have to work] ▪ a character described as a lady/man/gentleman of leisure [=a woman/man who does not work and who spends a lot of time doing things for pleasure] — often used before another noun ▪ leisure activities/pursuits ▪ Now that she's retired, she has more leisure time. ▪ the leisure class [=people who do not have to work] at leisure or at your leisure 1 : in a way that is not hurried : in a slow and relaxed way ▪ We were able to study the menu at leisure. 2 : when you have free time available ▪ You can look over the contract at your leisure.

lei•sured /ˈliːʒəd, Brit ˈlɛʒəd/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~]
1 : not having to work : having leisure ▪ the leisured class
2 : not hurried ▪ We set off at a leisured [=(more commonly) leisurely] pace.

lei•sure•ly /ˈliːʒəliː, Brit ˈlɛʒəliː/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not hurried : slow and relaxed ▪ They strolled along at a leisurely pace. ▪ proceeding in a leisurely fashion ▪ After a leisurely lunch, we went to see a movie.
– leisurely adv ▪ a restaurant where diners are allowed to eat leisurely leisure suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] : an informal suit that includes a jacket and matching pants

leit•mo•tiv or leit•mo•tif /ˈlaɪtmoʊˌtiːf/ noun, pl -tivs or -tifs [count] : something (such as a short piece of music, an idea, or a phrase) that is repeated many times throughout an opera, book, story, etc. ▪ Troubled relationships are the leitmotiv of this novel.

lem•ming /ˈlɛmɪŋ/ noun, pl -mings [count] : a small animal that lives in northern areas of North America, Europe, and Asia ✧ Lemmings sometimes form large groups that move together. According to legend, these groups sometimes march into the sea, where large numbers of the lemmings drown. Because of this, people are sometimes said to be acting like lemmings when they do something that is harmful or stupid because other people are doing it.

lem•on /ˈlɛmən/ noun, pl -ons
1 [count, noncount] : a yellow citrus fruit that has a sour taste ▪ The recipe calls for the juice of two lemons. ▪ Garnish it with a slice of lemon. — often used before another noun ▪ lemon juice ▪ lemon trees ▪ a lemon grove — see color picture on page C5
2 [noncount] : a bright yellow color — called also lemon yellow; see color picture on page C2
3 [count] chiefly US, informal : a product that is not made well : a product that does not work the way it should ▪ Our new car is a lemon.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

4 [count] Brit, informal : a stupid or silly person – lem•ony /ˈlɛmənɪ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a lemony flavor ▪ a lemony color

lem•on•ade /ˌlɛməˈneɪd/ noun, pl -ades [count, noncount]
1 : a drink made usually of lemon juice, sugar, and water
2 Brit : a sweet lemon-flavored drink that contains many bubbles : a lemon soda

lemon curd noun [noncount] : a sweet, soft food made with lemon juice, butter, sugar, and eggs lemon law noun, pl ~ laws [count] US : a law that gives a person who buys a car that has a defect the right to return the car or to have the seller pay to have it fixed lemon yellow noun [noncount] : LEMON 2

le•mur /ˈliːmɚ/ noun, pl -murs [count] : an animal that is related to monkeys and that lives in trees mostly in Madagascar

lend /ˈlɛnd/ verb lends; lent /ˈlɛnt/; lend•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to give (something) to (someone) to be used for a period of time and then returned ▪ She often lends us books. = She often lends books to us. ▪ Could you lend me your pen? [=could I borrow your pen?] ▪ I lent our ladder to the neighbors. b : to give (money) to someone who agrees to pay it back in the future [+ obj] Can you lend me 50 cents? [=can I borrow 50 cents from you?] ▪ The bank wouldn't lend us the money. [no obj] Many banks won't lend to people with bad credit.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) available to (someone or something) ▪ They offered to lend us their services. [=to provide us with their services] ▪ They are glad to lend their support to worthy causes. ▪ It's surprising that he would lend his name to such a venture. [=that he would allow his name to be associated with such a venture]
3 [+ obj] a : to add (something that is needed or wanted) to (something) ▪ A bit of grated carrot lends some color to the dish. = A bit of grated carrot lends the dish some color. ▪ A growing amount of evidence lends weight/credence/credibility to their theory. [=makes their theory seem true or correct] b : to provide (something that is needed or wanted) ▪ She's always there to lend a (helping) hand. [=she's always there to help]
lend an ear see [1]EAR lend itself to ✧ Something that lends itself to a purpose is good or suitable for that purpose. ▪ Her voice lends itself well to (singing) opera. ▪ The topics lend themselves to classroom discussion.
– lend•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ banks and other lenders ▪ borrowers and lenders — see also MONEYLENDER lending library noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a library that lends books to people who can take them home and then return them at a later time

length /ˈlɛŋθ/ noun, pl lengths
1 a : the distance from one end of something to the other end : a measurement of how long something is [noncount] "What is its length?" [=how long is it?] "It measures 10 inches in length." [=it is 10 inches long] ▪ We walked the entire length of the beach. [=we walked from one end of the beach to the other] ▪ The length of the table is six feet, and its width is three feet. [count] These pins are available in one- and two-inch lengths. ▪ The adult animals reach a maximum length of two meters. — see also FOCAL LENGTH b [noncount] : the size or extent of a piece of writing ▪ Your essay should be no more than 250 words in length. ▪ five pages in length [=five pages long] ▪ a book-length poem [=a very long poem; a poem that has the same number of pages as some books] c [noncount] : the quality or state of being long ▪ Don't be put off by the book's length. [=(less commonly) lengthiness] ▪ I was amazed by the length of the ape's arms. [=by how long the ape's arms were]
2 [noncount] : the amount of time something lasts ▪ They want to extend the length of the school year. [=to make the school year longer; to lengthen the school year] ▪ the length of a movie ▪ If you're in town for any length of time [=for more than just a short time], be sure to see the museum.
3 [count] : the length of something used as a unit of measure ▪ Our horse won the race by a length. [=by a distance equal to the length of one horse] ▪ They were two car lengths behind us. ▪ I managed to swim four lengths of the pool. [=to swim from one end of the pool to the other end four times] — see also at arm's length at [1]ARM
4 [count] : a piece of something that is long and thin or narrow ▪ a length of pipe/chain/yarn
5 [noncount] : a measure of how far down on your body something (such as your hair or a piece of clothing) reaches ▪ the length of a skirt ▪ a waist-length jacket [=a jacket that reaches only to your waist] ▪ chin-length hair — see also FLOOR-LENGTH, KNEE-LENGTH, SHOULDER-LENGTH at length 1 : for a long time ▪ We talked at length about the ceremony. ▪ The speaker went on at considerable/great/some length. ▪ No one was questioned at any length about it. [=no one was questioned for a long period of time] 2 : in a full or complete way ▪ The topic will be treated at length in the next chapter. ▪ The book doesn't discuss the topic at any length. [=the book only discusses the topic briefly] 3 literary : after a long time ▪ At length [=finally, in the end, at last], we decided to return home.
go to any length or go to any/extreme/great (etc.) lengths : to make a great or extreme effort to do something ▪ She'll go to any length to avoid doing work. = She'll go to any lengths to avoid doing work. ▪ He went to great lengths to learn the truth.
the length and breadth of : through all parts of (a place) ▪ I've been/traveled the length and breadth of the canyon, but I still haven't found the caves I'm looking for.

length•en /ˈlɛŋθən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [no obj] : to become longer ▪ The days lengthened with the approach of spring.
2 [+ obj] : to make (something) longer ▪ Proper care will lengthen the life of the engine. ▪ lengthen a pair of trousers — opposite SHORTEN

length•ways /ˈlɛŋθˌweɪz/ adv, chiefly Brit : LENGTHWISE
– lengthways adj

length•wise /ˈlɛŋθˌwaɪz/ adv : in the direction of the long side of something ▪ Split the fruit lengthwise and discard the seeds. ▪ a piece of paper folded lengthwise
– lengthwise adj ▪ a lengthwise cut lengthy /ˈlɛŋθi/ adj length•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : lasting for a long time ▪ The process is both lengthy and costly. ▪ We got involved in a lengthy [=long] discussion. ▪ a series of lengthy delays ▪ Lengthier trips require more planning.
2 : having many pages, items, etc. ▪ a lengthy criminal record ▪ lengthy [=long] lists
– length•i•ly /ˈlɛŋθəli/ adv ▪ a lengthily titled book [=a book with a long title] ▪ She complained loudly and lengthily [=at length] about the poor service. – length•i•ness /ˈlɛŋθinəs/ noun [noncount]

le•nient /ˈliːnjənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : allowing a lot of freedom and not punishing bad behavior in a strong way : not harsh, severe, or strict ▪ a teacher who is lenient with students who have misbehaved ▪ a lenient teacher ▪ a lenient sentence/punishment/policy ▪ Many people felt that the punishment was too lenient.
– le•nien•cy /ˈliːnjənsi/ also le•nience /ˈliːnjəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the leniency of the punishment – le•nient•ly adv

lens /ˈlɛnz/ noun, pl lens•es [count]
1 : a clear curved piece of glass or plastic that is used in eyeglasses, cameras, telescopes, etc., to make things look clearer, smaller, or bigger ▪ glasses with thick lenses ▪ a camera lens ▪ Make sure the lens of the microscope is clean. — see picture at CAMERA; see also CONTACT LENS, FISH-EYE LENS, OBJECTIVE LENS, TELEPHOTO LENS, ZOOM LENS
2 : the clear part of the eye that focuses light to form clear images lent past tense and past participle of LEND

Lent /ˈlɛnt/ noun [noncount] : a period of 40 days before Easter during which many Christians do not eat certain foods or do certain pleasurable activities as a way of remembering the suffering of Jesus Christ
– Lent•en /ˈlɛntn̩/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ the Lenten season

len•til /ˈlɛntl/ noun, pl -tils [count] : a type of flat, round seed that is related to the pea and is eaten as a vegetable — often used before another noun ▪ lentil soup

Leo /ˈliːˌoʊ/ noun, pl Leos
1 [noncount] : the fifth sign of the zodiac that comes between Cancer and Virgo and has a lion as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC
2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Leo : a person born between July 23rd and August 22nd ▪ Are you a Leo or a Virgo?

le•o•nine /ˈliːəˌnaɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary : of, relating to, or resembling a lion ▪ a leonine mane of hair ▪ leonine strength

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

leop•ard /ˈlɛpəd/ noun, pl -ards [count] : a large brownish-yellow cat with black spots that lives in Asia and Africa — see picture at CAT a leopard can't change its spots — used to say that people cannot change their basic personalities, habits, etc.

leop•ard•ess /ˈlɛpədəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a female leopard le•o•tard /ˈliːjəˌtɑəd/ noun, pl -tards [count] : a piece of clothing that fits tightly and covers the body except for the legs and sometimes the arms ▪ Our aerobics instructor wore a bright red leotard. — often plural in U.S. English ▪ She donned her leotards and headed off to ballet class. — see color picture on page C13

lep•er /ˈlɛpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who has leprosy
2 : someone who is disliked and avoided by other people ▪ After his arrest his former friends treated him like a (social) leper.

lep•re•chaun /ˈlɛprəˌkɑːn/ noun, pl -chauns [count] : a creature in old Irish stories that looks like a very small man ✧ According to legend, if you catch a leprechaun he will show you where treasure is hidden.

lep•ro•sy /ˈlɛprəsi/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that causes painful rough areas on the skin and that badly damages nerves and flesh
– leprous adj

les•bi•an /ˈlɛzbijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a woman who is sexually attracted to other women : a female homosexual ▪ lesbians and gay men – lesbian adj, always used before a noun ▪ a lesbian relationship – les•bi•an•ism /ˈlɛzbijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

le•sion /ˈliːʒən/ noun, pl -sions [count] medical : an injured or diseased spot or area on or in the body ▪ skin lesions ▪ a brain lesion

[1]less /ˈlɛs/ adj, comparative form of [1]LITTLE : not so much : smaller in amount or number ▪ We need less talk and more work! ▪ She finished in less time than I did. ▪ Less detail is sometimes better than more detail. ▪ 8 times 2 is less than 6 times 3. ▪ We made it there in less than six hours. ▪ The whole procedure takes less than five minutes. ▪ The illness affects less than one percent of the population.

no less — used to suggest that something is surprising or impressive ▪ He insists on being driven to the airport, and in a limousine no less! [=it is surprising that he insists on being driven in a limousine] ▪ She was contacted by the president, no less! ▪ The plan was approved by no less (of) an authority than the president himself.

no less than : at least — used to suggest that a number or amount is surprisingly large ▪ No less than half the students failed the test. ▪ She has had no less than [=no fewer than] a dozen job offers.

> usage The adjectives less and fewer have similar meanings but are used in slightly different ways. Fewer is used with nouns that can be counted. ▪ classrooms with fewer students ▪ They have fewer than three children. Less is usually used with nouns that cannot be counted. ▪ He makes less money than she does. ▪ The new model uses less power. But less is also more likely than fewer to be used with count nouns that refer to distances and amounts of money. ▪ an investment of less than $2,000 ▪ It's less than 100 miles away. Less is also used in mathematical expressions and in certain phrases. ▪ an angle of less than 180 degrees ▪ Write it in 25 words or less. It is also used instead of fewer with other sorts of plural nouns, although many people still consider this use incorrect. ▪ Less than 10 people showed up. = Fewer than 10 people showed up.

[2]less adv, comparative form of [2]LITTLE : not so much : to a smaller extent or degree ▪ This test seemed much less difficult than the last one. ▪ Which test is the less difficult of the two? ▪ The test is no less difficult for being shorter. [=even though the test is shorter, it is not easier] ▪ Do you have another one that's less expensive? ▪ a less likely possibility ▪ She visits much/far less often than she used to. ▪ They're focusing more on quality and less on quantity. ▪ I like this one (a little) less than the other. ▪ Their band is less concerned with making music than with making money. ▪ The cost is much/far less (of) a problem than we thought it would be.

in less than no time informal : very soon ▪ If we get started now, we'll be finished in less than no time.

less and less : in a way that is gradually smaller, weaker, or less common ▪ The medicine becomes less and less [=decreasingly] effective over time. ▪ We see them less and less each year. = We see them less and less frequently/often each year.

less than : not completely or not at all ▪ She was less than happy with the results. [=she was not entirely happy or she was unhappy] ▪ He was less than honest in his replies. [=he was not completely honest or he was very dishonest]

more or less see [2]MORE much less or chiefly Brit still less — used after a negative statement to say that something is even less likely or possible than the thing previously mentioned ▪ I don't eat eggs, much less meat. ▪ He can't run a mile, much less complete a marathon.

[3]less pronoun
1 : a smaller number or amount ▪ We've learned to make do with less. [=to survive with less money, fewer possessions, etc.] ▪ He's trying to save more and spend less. ▪ I have less than you do. ▪ I read much/far/even less of the second book than of the first. ▪ I seem to save less each year. ▪ We had exactly one day to get the job done—no more, no less. ▪ Less is sometimes better than more. ▪ Regarding his recent behavior, perhaps the less said, the better. [=his recent behavior has been so bad that it is better to not say anything about it]
2 : something that is smaller or less important than another thing ▪ You're lucky you didn't lose your job for swearing at your boss. People have been fired for less (than that).

could/couldn't care less see [2]CARE less and less : an amount that becomes gradually smaller ▪ I seem to save less and less each year. ▪ We see less and less of them each year.

nothing less than see [2]NOTHING think less of see [1]THINK

[4]less prep : after taking away or subtracting (something) ▪ the regular price less [=minus] a discount ▪ We earned two hundred dollars, less travel expenses.

-less /ləs/ adj suffix
1 : not having something specified : without something ▪ child*less* ▪ friend*less* ▪ a cloud*less* sky ▪ my first pain*less* day since leaving the hospital
2 a : never doing or becoming something specified ▪ tire*less* workers [=workers who never become tired] ▪ cease*less* noise [=noise that never ceases] b : not able to be acted on in a specified way ▪ a daunt*less* hero [=a hero who cannot be daunted] ▪ count*less* years [=too many years to be counted]

les•see /lɛˈsiː/ noun, pl -sees [count] law : a person who has an agreement that allows the use of a car, house, etc., for a period of time in exchange for a payment : a person who has a lease on something — compare LESSOR less•en /ˈlɛsn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to become less or to cause (something) to become less [no obj] The pain will lessen [=decrease] over time. [+ obj] Medication helps lessen the severity of the symptoms. ▪ Taking a few simple precautions will lessen [=(more commonly) reduce] your risk of injury.

[1]less•er /ˈlɛsɚ/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : of smaller size ▪ The winner will receive $100; lesser amounts will be given to three runners-up.
2 : of less strength, quality, or importance ▪ A lesser man than he might have simply given up. ▪ the artist's lesser works ▪ She agreed to plead guilty to a lesser charge. — often used in the phrase to a lesser degree/extent ▪ Traffic congestion is a problem in the city and, to a lesser extent, the suburbs. [=it is also a problem in the suburbs, but not as much of a problem as in the city]

lesser evil or lesser of two evils see [2]EVIL

[2]lesser adv : [2]LESS ▪ lesser-known writers

les•son /ˈlɛsn/ noun, pl -sons [count]
1 a : an activity that you do in order to learn something ▪ You can't go out to play until you've finished your lessons.; also : something that is taught ▪ They studied the lessons [=teachings] of the great philosophers. b : a single class or part of a course of instruction ▪ The book is divided into 12 lessons. ▪ Lesson 1: Introduction ▪ She took/gave piano lessons for years.
2 : something learned through experience ▪ political leaders who have failed to learn the lessons of history ▪ I've learned my lesson—I'll never do that again! ▪ We learned our lesson the hard way. [=we learned from an unpleasant experience] ▪ I'm glad they got caught. That will teach them a lesson! [=they will learn that they should not do that again] ▪ Let that be a lesson to you—if you don't take better care of your

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

toys they'll get broken! — see also OBJECT LESSON
3 : a part of the Bible read as part of a church service

les•sor /ˈlɛˌsoɚ/ noun, pl -sors [count] law : a person or company that leases property (such as a car or house) to someone — compare LESSEE

lest /ˈlɛst/ conj, formal + literary
1 : for fear that — used to say that you do not want something to happen ▪ He was concerned lest anyone think that he was guilty. = (chiefly Brit) He was concerned lest [=in case] anyone should think he was guilty. [=he was concerned that people would think he was guilty; he did not want anyone to think he was guilty]
2 — used when you are saying something in order to prevent something from happening ▪ And lest you think I'm joking, let me assure you that everything I've said is true. ▪ She's a talented singer and, lest we forget, a fine musician as well. [=we should not forget that she is also a fine musician]

[1]let /ˈlɛt/ verb lets; let; let•ting
1 [+ obj] : to allow or permit (someone or something) to do something ▪ Let them go. ▪ I'll be happy to help you if you'll let me (help you). ▪ A break in the clouds let us see the summit. [=made it possible for us to see the summit] ▪ Don't let this opportunity slip away! ▪ Let me see the bruise. ▪ I don't believe in letting children do whatever they want to do. = I don't believe that people should let children do whatever they want to do. ▪ My philosophy is "Live and let live." [=live your life as you choose and let other people do the same]

> usage Let is followed by a verb that has the form of the infinitive without to. ▪ They let him speak. [=they allowed/permitted him to speak] Let is never used as be let; use be allowed or be permitted instead. ▪ They let him speak. [=he was allowed/permitted by them to speak]

2 [+ obj] a — used in speech when you are making a polite offer to help someone ▪ Let me help you with those packages. [=I would be happy to help you with those packages] ▪ Let me do that for you. b — used to introduce a polite statement or request ▪ Let me begin by saying how happy I am to see you here today. [=I want to begin by saying how happy I am to see you] ▪ Please let me know [=tell me] what you decide. c formal — used to introduce a command ▪ "The ambassadors have arrived, your Majesty." "Let them not wait a moment longer: let them enter at once." ▪ Let there be music and laughter! — sometimes used figuratively in a way that is not formal ▪ Let it rain all day—I don't care. d — used to express a warning ▪ Just let her try to do it again! [=she will be in trouble if she tries to do it again]
3 a ✧ Let's and (more formally) let us are used to introduce statements that express a wish, request, suggestion, or command. ▪ Let's [=let us] hope for the best. [=we should hope for the best] ▪ Let's imagine what the world would be like with no war. ▪ Let's suppose that he's right. What then? ▪ Let's get out of here! ▪ Let us all remember [=we should all remember] just how much we have to be thankful for. ▪ I'm not calling her a liar. Let's just say that she tends to exaggerate the truth a little. ▪ Let's see what's on the menu. = Let's have a look at the menu. ▪ "Let's go, shall we?" [=shall we go?] "Yes, let's." ▪ "Let's go." "No, let's not." ▪ Let's not go. = (Brit) Don't let's go. = (US, informal) Let's don't go. b ✧ The phrase let's go is used in speech to tell someone to go or work faster. ▪ Are you still getting dressed? Let's go! We need to leave in five minutes! c ✧ The phrase let us pray is used to introduce a prayer. ▪ Let us pray. Dear God, we thank you for this day . . . d ✧ The phrases let's face it and let's be honest are used to say that something is true and cannot be denied. ▪ Let's face it: we need more time. ▪ Let's be honest, those two were never right for each other.
4 a [+ obj] : to allow someone to use (something) in return for payment : RENT ▪ They have rooms to let. [=rooms that people can rent to live in] b [no obj] chiefly Brit : to be rented or leased for a specified amount of money ▪ The flat lets [=rents] for 350 pounds a month.
5 always followed by an adverb or preposition [+ obj] : to allow (someone or something) to go, pass by, etc. ▪ Let me out! ▪ She locked the door and refused to let him in. ▪ The guard refused to let us through the gate. ▪ Let me through/past! [=let me move through a group of people, past a barrier, etc.]

let alone 1 — used to refer to something that is even less likely or possible than the thing previously mentioned ▪ I can barely understand it, let alone explain it. 2 let (someone or something) alone : to not bother or touch (someone or something) ▪ Let [=(more commonly) leave] your sister alone. ▪ All I ask is to be let alone. [=(more commonly) left alone] ▪ Would you please let it alone? ▪ I never did learn to let well enough alone. [=to leave well enough alone; to stop changing something that is already good enough]

let bygones be bygones see BYGONES

let down [phrasal verb] 1 let (someone) down a : to fail to give help or support to (someone who needs or expects it) : DISAPPOINT ▪ I promised Mary that I'd help her, and I can't let her down. ▪ It's my fault we lost the game. I let the team down. ▪ He never lets down a friend in need. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ His judgment let him down. [=his judgment was poor; he made a bad decision] b : to make (someone) unhappy or displeased by not being as good as expected ▪ The end of the story really let me down. = I felt let down by the end of the story. [=the end of the story was disappointing] — see also LETDOWN 2 ✧ To let someone down easy/gently is to give someone unpleasant news in a gentle or kind way. ▪ She tried to let him down gently when she told him he didn't get the job. ▪ I knew I had to fire her, but I was trying to think of a way to let her down easy. 3 let (something) down or let down (something) a : to cause or allow (something) to move down gradually ▪ let a bucket down into a well = let down a bucket into a well b : to make (a skirt, a pair of pants, etc.) longer ▪ The pants were a little too short and needed to be let down a little. — see also let your hair down at HAIR

let y or let y with see [1]FLY

let go 1 or let (something or someone) go or let go of (something or someone) or let go (something or someone) : to stop holding or gripping something or someone ▪ I tried to take the ball from him, but he wouldn't let go. ▪ She grabbed my hand and refused to let go. ▪ He let the rope go. = He let go of the rope. = (less commonly) He let go the rope. — often used figuratively ▪ When a child grows up and moves away from home, it can be hard for parents to let go. [=to allow the child to live independently; to not be too involved in the child's decisions, actions, etc.] ▪ I know she disappointed you, but you need to let the past go and move on with your life. [=you need to stop caring or thinking about the past] ▪ You need to let go of the past. ▪ She felt she had been treated wrongly, and she wasn't willing to let it go. [=she wasn't willing to forget how she had been treated] ▪ You're late. I'll let it go this time, but it had better not happen again. ▪ The car is probably worth a lot more, but she agreed to let it go for five thousand dollars. [=she agreed to sell the car for five thousand dollars] 2 or let (yourself) go : to behave in a very free and open way ▪ He really lets go when he's out partying with his friends. ▪ She has a hard time relaxing and letting herself go. 3 let (someone) go a : to allow (someone who is being held as a slave, prisoner, etc.) to be free ▪ They let the prisoner go. = The prisoner was let go. b : to officially make (someone) leave a job ▪ The company let him go at the end of the month. = He was let go at the end of the month. 4 let (yourself) go : to fail to take care of (yourself) ▪ I was very depressed back then and had really let myself go. [=I had stopped taking care of myself]

let it all hang out informal : to show your true feelings : to behave in a very free and open way ▪ When I'm with my friends, I let it all hang out.

let loose see [1]LOOSE

let me see or let's see or let me think — used in speech by someone who is trying to remember something ▪ Let me see, where did I put my keys? ▪ Let's see, how long did it take last time? ▪ What was the name of that restaurant? Let me think. Oh, that's right: "The High Street Café."

let off [phrasal verb] 1 let (someone) off or let off (someone) : to allow (someone) to get off a bus, an airplane, etc. ▪ Could you let me off (the bus) at the next stop, please? ▪ The bus stopped to let off a few passengers. 2 let (someone) off : to allow (someone who has been caught doing something wrong or illegal) to go without being punished ▪ The police officer let her off with just a warning. ▪ They let him off easy/easily/lightly, if you ask me. [=I do not think he was punished as severely as he could/should have been] — often used in the phrase let (someone) off the hook ▪ If you ask me, they let him off the hook too easily. 3 let off (something) : to cause (something) to explode or to be released in a forceful way ▪ let off [=set off] a firecracker ▪ let off pressure — see also let off (some) steam at [1]STEAM

let on [phrasal verb] 1 let (someone) on or let on (someone) : to allow (someone) to get on a bus, an airplane, etc. ▪ They let passengers with small children on (the airplane)

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

first. ▪ The bus stopped to let on a few more passengers. 2 let on or let on (something) informal : to tell, admit, or show that you know something ▪ He knows a lot more than he lets on. ▪ Don't let on that I told you! ▪ She was unhappy, but she never let on. = She never let on to anyone that she was unhappy. [=she never showed or told anyone that she was unhappy] 3 US, informal : to pretend or seem ▪ She's not as happy as she lets on.

let out [phrasal verb] 1 let (something or someone) out or let out (something or someone) : to release (something or someone) ▪ She let out a scream. [=she screamed] ▪ They let the prisoner out (of prison) for the weekend. = The prisoner was let out for the weekend. ▪ Let the clutch out slowly. — see also LETOUT 2 let (something) out or let out (something) : to make (a shirt, a pair of pants, etc.) larger ▪ The skirt is too tight and needs to be let out a little. ▪ let out a pair of pants — opposite take in at [1]TAKE 3 US, of a school : to end a semester, year, or session ▪ School lets out in June.

let rip see [1]RIP

let sleeping dogs lie see [1]DOG

let (someone) have it informal : to attack, punish, or criticize (someone) in a violent or angry way ▪ When she found out what they'd been doing, she really let them have it.

let (someone) in on (something) : to allow (someone) to know (a secret) ▪ He said he'd let me in on a secret if I promised not to tell anyone else.

let (someone) know see [1]KNOW

let (someone or something) be : to not bother or touch (someone or something) ▪ Please let [=leave] me be.

let (something) be known see [1]KNOW

let (something) slip or let slip (something) see [1]SLIP let the cat out of the bag see CAT

let the grass grow under your feet see [1]GRASS

let up [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop or become slower ▪ Won't this rain ever let up? ▪ There's a lot of work still to be done. We can't let up now. — see also LETUP 2 let up on (someone) : to treat (someone) in a less harsh or demanding way ▪ The students might respond better if the teacher let up on [=eased up on] them a little. 3 let up on (something) : to apply less pressure to (something) ▪ I let up on [=eased up on] the gas pedal.

let (yourself) in for : to cause (yourself) to have or experience (something bad or unpleasant) ▪ She's letting herself in for a lot of trouble/criticism. ▪ When I agreed to help, I didn't know what I was letting myself in for. [=getting myself into]

[2]let noun, pl lets [count] tennis : a serve that is not accepted or allowed officially and must be done again ▪ The first serve was a let.

without let or hindrance chiefly Brit, law : without being interfered with ▪ They have the right to vote without let or hindrance. [=without anyone making it difficult or impossible for them to vote]

-let /lət/ noun suffix : small one ▪ book*let* [=a small book] ▪ drop*let* ▪ pig*let*

let•down /ˈlɛtˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] : something that is not as good as it was expected to be ▪ The news was a letdown. [=disappointment] — see also let down at [1]LET le•thal /ˈliːθəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing or able to cause death ▪ lethal chemicals/weapons ▪ a potentially lethal dose of a drug ▪ He was sentenced to death by lethal injection. ▪ In rare instances, the disease can be lethal. [=(more commonly) fatal] — often used figuratively ▪ a pitcher with a lethal fastball [=a very powerful or effective fastball] ▪ a lethal [=very damaging] attack on her reputation synonyms see [1]DEADLY

– le•thal•ly adv ▪ lethally poisonous

le•thar•gic /ləˈθɑɚʤɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling a lack of energy or a lack of interest in doing things ▪ The patient is weak and lethargic. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a sluggish and lethargic economy

– leth•ar•gic•al•ly /ləˈθɑɚʤɪkli/ adv ▪ moving lethargically

leth•ar•gy /ˈlɛθɚʤi/ noun [noncount] : a lack of energy or a lack of interest in doing things : a lethargic feeling or state ▪ Symptoms of the disease include loss of appetite and lethargy. ▪ I snapped out of my lethargy and began cleaning the house. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The stock market's recent lethargy is cause for concern.

let•out /ˈlɛtˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] Brit, informal : something (such as an excuse or a part of a contract) that makes it possible to avoid doing something ▪ Is there no letout I can use to get out of attending the meeting? — see also let out at [1]LET let's /ˈlɛts/ — used as a contraction of let us ▪ Let's do our best.

[1]let•ter /ˈlɛtɚ/ noun, pl -ters

1 [count] : any one of the marks that are symbols for speech sounds in written language and that form an alphabet ▪ the letter "a" ▪ "F" is the sixth letter of the English alphabet. ▪ I wrote my name in capital letters.

2 [count] : a written or printed message to someone ▪ write/send/mail a business/love letter to someone ▪ letters to the editor ▪ They always answer the letters they get/receive from their fans. ▪ He asked them for a letter of recommendation/introduction. — see picture at MAIL; see also CHAIN LETTER, COVER LETTER, DEAD LETTER, FORM LETTER, NEWSLETTER, OPEN LETTER, POISON-PEN LETTER

3 letters [plural] formal : LITERATURE ▪ She's well-known in the field of English letters. — see also MAN OF LETTERS

4 [singular] : the exact meaning of something (such as a law) that is stated in writing ▪ They seem to be more concerned with obeying the letter of the law [=with doing exactly what the law says] than with understanding the spirit of the law.

5 [count] US : a large cloth letter that is the first letter of a school's name, that is awarded to a student for playing on a sports team, and that can be sewn onto a sweater or jacket ▪ He earned his letter in football.

by letter : by sending and receiving letters ▪ We communicated with each other by letter. ▪ a relationship that began by letter to the letter : exactly or precisely ▪ obey the law to the letter

[2]letter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

1 [+ obj] : to write or print letters on (something) : to mark (something) with letters — usually used as (be) lettered ▪ a sign lettered in bright red ▪ The sign was carefully lettered by hand. — often used in combination ▪ a hand-lettered sign

2 [no obj] US : to earn a school letter for playing on a sports team — usually + in ▪ He lettered in football.

letter bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a bomb that is mailed to someone in a letter or package and that explodes when the letter or package is opened — called also (Brit) parcel bomb

letter box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] Brit : MAILBOX letter carrier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a person who delivers mail

let•ter•head /ˈlɛtɚˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] : the name and address of an organization (such as a company) that is printed at the top of a piece of paper used for writing official letters ▪ We changed the design of our letterhead.; also [noncount] US : paper that has the name and address of an organization printed at the top ▪ They sent her a letter printed on company letterhead.

let•ter•ing /ˈlɛtərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : letters written or printed on something ▪ I couldn't read the sign's lettering. ▪ a sign with gold lettering letter opener noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a device that has a sharp edge or part that is used to cut open envelopes — called also (Brit) paper knife

let•ter–per•fect /ˈlɛtɚˈpɚfɪkt/ adj, US : correct in every detail ▪ Her rendition of the song was letter-perfect.

let•tuce /ˈlɛtəs/ noun, pl -tuces [count, noncount] : a plant that has large leaves that are eaten especially in salads ▪ a head of lettuce ▪ iceberg/romaine lettuce ▪ I like a little lettuce and tomato on my sandwiches.

let•up /ˈlɛtˌʌp/ noun : a time during which something stops or slows down [noncount] It rained three days without letup. [=it rained continuously for three days] ▪ We worked without letup. [=we worked continuously] [singular] There's been a letup [=break] in the fighting. — see also let up at [1]LET leu•ke•mia or chiefly Brit leu•kae•mia /luˈkiːmijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a very serious disease in which the body forms too many white blood cells

– leu•ke•mic or chiefly Brit leu•kae•mic /luˈkiːmɪk/ adj ▪ leukemic cells/patients

lev•ee /ˈlɛvi/ noun, pl -ees [count] US : a long wall of soil built along a river to prevent flooding

[1]lev•el /ˈlɛvəl/ noun, pl -els

1 a : a specific height [noncount] The pictures were hung on the wall at eye level. ▪ at street/ground level [count] The pictures were hung at different levels. — see also GROUND-LEVEL, SEA LEVEL b [count] : a part of a building that is at a specific height ▪ We were seated in the upper level [=floor] of the restaurant. — see also SPLIT-LEVEL

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

2 [count] : an amount of something ▪ There was a high level of alcohol/lead in his blood. ▪ a normal level of intelligence ▪ Prices have risen to a new level. ▪ He has shown a remarkable level of patience. [=he has been very patient] ▪ They have demonstrated a high level of interest [=they have been very interested] in this proposal. ▪ They checked the reservoir's water level. [=the amount of water in the reservoir]

3 [count] : a position or rank in a scale : a position that is high or low when compared to others ▪ She rose to the level of manager. ▪ She has reached a rare level of financial success. ▪ These problems affect people at all levels of society. ▪ Can this problem be dealt with at/on a national level or must it be addressed at/on an international level? — see also ENTRY-LEVEL, HIGH-LEVEL, LOW-LEVEL

4 [count] : a way of thinking about, talking about, or dealing with something ▪ The argument appeals to me on a purely intellectual level but fails to reach me on a deeper emotional level. ▪ I'm attracted to the job on many levels. ▪ He studied the changes in the chemical at the molecular level. [=he studied the changes in the molecules of the chemical] ▪ She has enjoyed great success in her professional life, but, on a (more) personal level, this has been a very stressful time. [=this has been a very stressful time in her personal life]

5 [count] : a device used to see when something is exactly flat — called also spirit level; see picture at CARPENTRY

descend/sink/stoop to someone's level : to behave as badly as someone who has treated you wrongly ▪ Despite my opponent's personal attacks against me, I refuse to stoop to his level. [=I refuse to behave as badly as he has by attacking him personally]

on the level informal : not false or dishonest ▪ Is this guy on the level? [=is this guy honest?]

[2]level adj

1 : having a flat or even surface ▪ We pitched the tent on level ground. ▪ a level floor/road ▪ The recipe calls for a level teaspoon/tablespoon of sugar. [=an amount of sugar that fills a teaspoon/tablespoon exactly without going above its edges]

2 : not going up or down ▪ an airplane in level flight ▪ Interest rates have remained level.

3 a : having the same height as something else — usually + with ▪ The water was level with my waist. ▪ The window is level with the tops of the trees. b : not in front of or behind something or someone else ▪ The boards are level. — often + with ▪ They drew level with the rest of the runners. ▪ Make sure that the ends of the boards are level with each other.

4 chiefly Brit : having the same position, score, or rank : EVEN ▪ The teams are level (with each other) in the standings. ▪ They trailed early in the game, but they drew level [=they tied the score] in the second half. — compare LEVEL-PEGGING

5 : steady and calm ▪ She spoke in a level voice. ▪ It's important to keep a level head [=to remain calm] when you're dealing with a dangerous situation like this one.

your level best : your best effort at doing something ▪ He tried his level best to win the race. [=he tried as hard as he could to win the race] ▪ She did her level best to please her mother. [=she tried very hard to please her mother]

[3]level verb -els; US -eled or chiefly Brit -elled; US -el•ing or chiefly Brit -el•ling [+ obj]

1 : to make (something) flat or level ▪ They will level the field. ▪ We need to level the garden before we plant anything.

2 : to knock (someone or something) down to the ground ▪ The earthquake leveled the city. ▪ He leveled his opponent with a right hook.

3 a : to point (a weapon) at someone ▪ The robber leveled a gun at his head. b : to direct (something, such as criticism) at or against someone ▪ They leveled a fraud charge against him. [=they charged him with fraud] ▪ Several complaints have been leveled at the store. ▪ Criticism has been leveled against the government for not responding to this crisis.

4 chiefly Brit : to make (a score) equal : TIE ▪ He scored a goal that leveled the score at 3–3.

level off [phrasal verb] 1 : to stop going up or down ▪ The plane leveled off at 30,000 feet. ▪ The road levels off just before the river. ▪ Business at the restaurant is leveling off. 2 level (something) off or level off (something) : to make (something) flat or even ▪ They used a bulldozer level off the field.

level out [phrasal verb] : to stop going up or down ▪ Divorce rates are leveling out for the first time in decades. ▪ My moods have leveled out.

level the playing field : to make a situation fair for everyone ▪ He wants the government to level the playing field by breaking up large corporations so that smaller companies can compete. — see also LEVEL PLAYING FIELD level with [phrasal verb] level with (someone) informal : to speak honestly to (someone) ▪ He never leveled with his parents about the accident. ▪ Level with me. Why did you do it?

level crossing noun, pl ~ -ings [count] Brit : RAILROAD CROSSING

lev•el•er (US) or chiefly Brit lev•el•ler /ˈlɛvələ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : something that treats or affects all people the same way ▪ Death is the great leveler. [=death is the same for all people no matter how rich or powerful they may be]

lev•el•head•ed /ˌlɛvəlˈhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing an ability to think clearly and to make good decisions ▪ She is levelheaded about her chances for success as an actress. ▪ a levelheaded assessment of the problem
– lev•el•head•ed•ness noun [noncount]

lev•el–peg•ging /ˌlɛvəlˈpɛgɪŋ/ adj, Brit : even with one another in a contest or competition ▪ The candidates are level-pegging in all the opinion polls.

level playing eld noun [singular] : a state in which conditions in a competition or situation are fair for everyone ▪ He wants the government to break up large corporations so that there is a level playing field for smaller companies. — see also level the playing field at [3]LEVEL

[1]le•ver /ˈlɛvə, ˈliːvə/ noun, pl -vers [count]

1 : a strong bar that is used to lift and move something heavy

2 : a bar or rod that is used to operate or adjust something on a machine, vehicle, device, etc. ▪ Pull the brake lever.

3 : something used to achieve a desired result ▪ They used their money as a lever to gain political power.

[2]lever verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing [+ obj] : to lift or move (something) with a lever ▪ He levered the rock out of the hole. — often used figuratively ▪ They tried unsuccessfully to lever him out of his job. [=to force him out of his job] ▪ She levered her way into a position of political power.

le•ver•age /ˈlɛvərɪʤ, ˈliːvərɪʤ/ noun [noncount]

1 : influence or power used to achieve a desired result ▪ The union's size gave it leverage in the labor contract negotiations. ▪ The player's popularity has given him a great deal of leverage with the owners of the team.

2 : the increase in force gained by using a lever ▪ I used the leverage of the bar and a wooden block to pry the rock out of the hole.

leverage verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to use (something valuable) to achieve a desired result ▪ The company wants to leverage its brands more effectively.

leveraged buyout noun, pl ~ -outs [count] chiefly US : a business arrangement in which someone buys a company by borrowing money based on the value of the company that is being bought le•vi•a•than /lɪˈvajəθən/ noun, pl -thans [count] literary : something that is very large and powerful : GIANT ▪ The factory is a towering leviathan in the middle of the town. ▪ a leviathan corporation

Le•vi's /ˈliːˌvaɪz/ trademark — used especially for blue jeans

lev•i•tate /ˈlɛvəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing : to rise or make (something) rise into the air in a way that appears to be magical [no obj] The woman levitated above the stage. [+ obj] The magician claimed he could levitate a car.
– lev•i•ta•tion /ˌlɛvəˈteɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

lev•i•ty /ˈlɛvəti/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal

1 : a lack of seriousness ▪ She would not tolerate any levity [=frivolity] in the classroom.

2 : an amusing quality ▪ They managed to find some levity in the situation.

[1]levy /ˈlɛvi/ noun, pl lev•ies [count] : an amount of money that must be paid and that is collected by a government or other authority ▪ The government imposed a levy [=tax] on gasoline.

[2]levy verb levies; lev•ied; levy•ing [+ obj] : to use legal authority to demand and collect (a fine, a tax, etc.) ▪ They levied a tax on imports. ▪ The government will levy a fine on the company.

lewd /ˈluːd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : sexual in an offensive or rude way ▪ He made lewd remarks/comments to the woman at the bar. ▪ lewd behavior ▪ lewd and lascivious acts – lewd•ly adv – lewd•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He was arrested for public lewdness.

lex•i•cal /ˈlɛksɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] linguistics : relating

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

to words or vocabulary ▪ the lexical content of [=the words used in] a statement

lex•i•con /ˈlɛksəˌkɑːn, Brit ˈlɛksəkən/ noun, pl -cons [count]
1 : the words used in a language or by a person or group of people ▪ a computer term that has entered the general lexicon
2 somewhat formal : DICTIONARY ▪ a Latin lexicon

lg. abbr large

LH abbr left hand

li•a•bil•i•ty /ˌlajəˈbɪləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the state of being legally responsible for something : the state of being liable for something ▪ The company is trying to limit its liability in this case. ▪ criminal liability [=the state of being responsible for a crime] ▪ The judge cleared me of any/all liability for the accident. [=the judge said that I was not responsible for the accident]
2 [count] : something (such as the payment of money) for which a person or business is legally responsible ▪ a tax liability [=taxes that will have to be paid] — usually plural ▪ business assets and liabilities [=debts]
3 [count] : someone or something that causes problems ▪ His small size was a liability (to him) as a football player. ▪ This scandal has made the vice president a liability (for this administration).

li•a•ble /ˈlajəbəl/ adj
1 : legally responsible for something ▪ If someone gets hurt on your property, you could be liable. ▪ The amusement park was held liable in the boy's death. [=a court of law ruled that the amusement park was responsible for the boy's death] — usually + for ▪ He is liable for his wife's debts. [=he is responsible for paying his wife's debts] ▪ They are liable for any damage. [=they will be required to pay for any damage]
2 [more ~; most ~] : likely to be affected or harmed by something — + to ▪ Her condition makes her liable to illness. ▪ liable to injury
3 [more ~; most ~] : likely to do something — + to ▪ You're liable to fall if you're not more careful. ▪ It's liable to rain before we're done. ▪ That guy's liable to say anything. [=he might say anything]

li•aise /liˈeɪz/ verb -ais•es; -aised; -ais•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit : to make it possible for two organizations or groups to work together and provide information to each other : to act as a liaison — usually + with or between ▪ Administrators need to liaise with employees at the factory, and the personnel department needs to liaise between the administrators and the employees.

li•ai•son /ˈliːəˌzɑːn, liˈeɪˌzɑːn/ noun, pl -sons
1 a [count] : a person who helps organizations or groups to work together and provide information to each other ▪ She acts as a liaison between the police department and city schools. b : a relationship that allows different organizations or groups to work together and provide information to each other [noncount] Administrators need to maintain better/closer liaison with employees. [singular] Administrators need to establish a close liaison with employees.
2 [count] : a secret sexual relationship : AFFAIR ▪ He regretted his liaison with a woman from the office. ▪ sexual liaisons

li•ar /ˈlajə/ noun, pl -ars [count] : a person who tells lies ▪ She called him a dirty liar.

lib /ˈlɪb/ noun [noncount] informal : LIBERATION ▪ women's lib
– lib•ber /ˈlɪbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] ▪ a women's libber [=a person who supports women's liberation]

li•ba•tion /laɪˈbeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count]
1 formal : a liquid that is poured out to honor a god ▪ They offered libations at the temple.
2 humorous : an alcoholic drink ▪ We met for a libation after work.

Lib Dem /ˌlɪbˈdɛm/ noun, pl ~ Dems [count] Brit, informal : LIBERAL DEMOCRAT ▪ Charles Kennedy MP (Lib Dem)

[1]li•bel /ˈlaɪbəl/ noun, pl -bels : the act of publishing a false statement that causes people to have a bad opinion of someone [noncount] He sued the newspaper for libel. ▪ The newspaper was found guilty of libel. [count] The newspaper's attorneys argued that the article was not a libel. — compare SLANDER

[2]libel verb -bels; US -beled or chiefly Brit -belled; US -bel•ing or chiefly Brit -bel•ling [+ obj] : to write and publish a false statement that causes people to have a bad opinion of (someone) ▪ The jury found that the article libeled him.

li•bel•ous (US) or chiefly Brit li•bel•lous /ˈlaɪbələs/ adj : containing an untrue written statement that causes people to have a bad opinion of someone ▪ a libelous magazine article

[1]lib•er•al /ˈlɪbərəl, ˈlɪbrəl/ adj
1 a [more ~; most ~] : believing that government should be active in supporting social and political change : relating to or supporting political liberalism ▪ a leading liberal thinker ▪ liberal politicians/policies ▪ She is a liberal Democrat who married a conservative Republican. — compare [1]CONSERVATIVE b *Liberal Brit : of or belonging to the liberal political party in countries like Canada and the United Kingdom ▪ Liberal voters/policies
2 [more ~; most ~] : not opposed to new ideas or ways of behaving that are not traditional or widely accepted ▪ She has a liberal attitude toward sex. — compare [1]CONSERVATIVE
3 [more ~; most ~] a : generous to others : giving time, money, etc., freely to other people — often + with ▪ She has always been liberal with her donations. b : very large in amount ▪ He made a very liberal donation to the museum. ▪ a cook who uses a liberal quantity of spices [=who uses a large amount of spices]
4 [more ~; most ~] : not strict or exact ▪ a fairly liberal [=loose] interpretation of the law
5 somewhat formal : involving or relating to studies that are intended to give you general knowledge rather than to develop specific skills : relating to the liberal arts ▪ He received a liberal education.
– lib•er•al•ly /ˈlɪbərəli, ˈlɪbrəli/ adv ▪ The book is liberally sprinkled with humor. ▪ She gave liberally to the charity.

[2]liberal noun, pl -als [count]
1 : a person who believes that government should be active in supporting social and political change : a person who is politically liberal ▪ a policy that is supported both by liberals and conservatives in Congress — compare [2]CONSERVATIVE
2 Liberal Brit : a member or supporter of a liberal political party in countries like the United Kingdom and Canada liberal arts noun [plural] : areas of study (such as history, language, and literature) that are intended to give you general knowledge rather than to develop specific skills needed for a profession ▪ the sciences and the liberal arts ▪ She graduated from a liberal arts college in the Midwest.

Liberal Democrat noun, pl ~ -crats [count] : a member or supporter of a British political party that is known as the Liberal Democrats

lib•er•al•ism /ˈlɪbərəˌlɪzəm, ˈlɪbrəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] formal : belief in the value of social and political change in order to achieve progress ▪ political liberalism — compare CONSERVATISM

lib•er•al•i•ty /ˌlɪbəˈrælәti/ noun [noncount] formal : a liberal quality or attitude: such as a : the quality of not being opposed to ideas or ways of behaving that are not traditional or widely accepted ▪ They were shocked by the liberality of her views on sex. b : the quality of being generous : GENEROSITY ▪ He treated his friends with remarkable liberality.

lib•er•al•ize also Brit lib•er•al•ise /ˈlɪbrəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) less strict or more liberal ▪ The country began to liberalize its immigration policies. [=to make them less strict]
2 [no obj] : to become less strict or more liberal ▪ The country's immigration policies have begun to liberalize.
– lib•er•al•i•za•tion also Brit lib•er•al•i•sa•tion /ˌlɪbrələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌlɪbrəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

lib•er•ate /ˈlɪbəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 : to free (someone or something) from being controlled by another person, group, etc. ▪ Rebels fought to liberate the country. ▪ Soldiers liberated the hostages from their captors.
2 : to give freedom or more freedom to (someone) ▪ Laptop computers could liberate workers from their desks.
3 humorous : to take or steal (something) ▪ He was using materials that he had liberated from a construction site.
– lib•er•a•tor /ˈlɪbəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ a liberator of slaves liberated adj [more ~; most ~] : freed from or opposed to traditional social and sexual attitudes or ways of behaving ▪ a liberated woman ▪ a liberated marriage liberating adj [more ~; most ~] : making you feel free ▪ He found that changing jobs was very liberating. ▪ a liberating discovery

lib•er•a•tion /ˌlɪbəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act or process of freeing someone or something from another's control : the act of liberating someone or something ▪ their liberation from slavery ▪ The liberation of the city took weeks.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

2 : the removal of traditional social or sexual rules, attitudes, etc. ▪ women's liberation ▪ sexual liberation

lib•er•tar•i•an /ˌlɪbəˈterijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who believes that people should be allowed to do and say what they want without any interference from the government – libertarian adj ▪ libertarian theories – lib•er•tar•i•an•ism /ˌlɪbəˈterijəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

lib•er•tine /ˈlɪbəˌti:n/ noun, pl -tines [count] literary : a person (especially a man) who leads an immoral life and is mainly interested in sexual pleasure ▪ libertines of the royal court – libertine adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ libertine behavior

lib•er•ty /ˈlɪbəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the state or condition of people who are able to act and speak freely : FREEDOM ▪ a nation that values liberty and democracy ▪ soldiers willing to die in defense of liberty
2 [noncount] : the power to do or choose what you want to ▪ They gave him the liberty to handle the problem himself.
3 [count] : a political right ▪ hard-won liberties such as freedom of the press ▪ personal liberties
at liberty formal 1 : able to act or speak freely — followed by to + verb ▪ You are at liberty to go or stay. ▪ I am not at liberty to say if the rumor is true. 2 : no longer held or kept as a prisoner ▪ a former prisoner who is now at liberty take liberties 1 disapproving : to make important changes to something — usually + with ▪ I think the movie takes too many liberties with the original story. 2 old-fashioned : to be informal and friendly toward someone in a way that is not proper — usually + with ▪ He was accused of taking liberties with several young women.
take the liberty of ✧ If you take the liberty of doing something, you do something without asking for permission to do it. ▪ I took the liberty of making a reservation for us. ▪ I took the liberty of telling them you weren't interested.

li•bid•i•nous /ləˈbɪdənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : feeling or relating to strong sexual desires ▪ libidinous urges li•bi•do /ləˈbi:doʊ/ noun, pl -dos technical : a person's desire to have sex [count] They have healthy libidos. [noncount] Lack of libido may be a sign of depression.

Li•bra /ˈli:brə/ noun
1 [noncount] : the seventh sign of the zodiac that comes between Virgo and Scorpio and has a pair of scales as its symbol — see picture at ZODIAC
2 [count] : a person born under the sign of Libra : a person born between September 22nd and October 23rd ▪ I'm a Libra.

li•brar•i•an /laɪˈbrerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who works in a library

li•brary /ˈlaɪˌbreri, Brit ˈlaɪbrəri/ noun, pl -brar•ies [count]
1 : a place where books, magazines, and other materials (such as videos and musical recordings) are available for people to use or borrow ▪ I borrowed the book from the school library. ▪ a public library ▪ a library book/card — see also LENDING LIBRARY, REFERENCE LIBRARY
2 : a room in a person's house where books are kept
3 : a collection of similar things (such as books or recordings) ▪ He has an impressive library of jazz records. ▪ a library of computer programs

li•bret•tist /ləˈbrɛtɪst/ noun, pl -tists [count] : a person who writes a libretto li•bret•to /ləˈbrɛtoʊ/ noun, pl -tos or -ti /-ti/ [count] formal : the words of an opera or musical

lice plural of ¹LOUSE 1

¹li•cense (US) or chiefly Brit li•cence /ˈlaɪsŋs/ noun, pl -cens•es
1 [count] : an official document, card, etc., that gives you permission to do, use, or have something ▪ The restaurant's owner applied for a license to sell liquor. ▪ a liquor license ▪ a fishing license — often used to refer specifically to a driver's license ▪ I have to renew my license. ▪ She was arrested for driving without a license. ▪ He lost his license after he was arrested for drunk driving. ▪ He had to show his license to prove his age. — see also DRIVER'S LICENSE, MARRIAGE LICENSE
2 : freedom to act however you want to — followed by to + verb [noncount] His job as a reporter gives him license to go anywhere and ask anything. [singular] She regards her illness as a license to treat other people badly. [=she thinks that because she is ill she can treat other people badly]
3 [noncount] : the freedom of an artist, writer, etc., to change the way something is described or shown in order to produce a work of art ▪ artistic/poetic/creative license
4 [count] : a document or agreement that allows a certain number of people to use a computer program ▪ We have a license for 10 users.
a license to print money sometimes disapproving : a way of making a large amount of money very easily ▪ He says that if the new law is passed it will give these companies a license to print money.
under license : in a business arrangement where one company gives official permission to another company to do or make something ▪ The company makes computer chips under license from the original manufacturer.

²license also Brit licence verb -censes; -censed; -censing [+ obj]
1 : to give official permission to (someone or something) to do or use something : to give a license to (someone or something) ▪ The restaurant has now been licensed to sell liquor.
2 : to give official permission for (something) ▪ a new drug licensed by the government ▪ The gun was not licensed to him. [=he did not have formal permission to own the gun]
3 : to allow the use of (a name, property, etc.) through a formal agreement ▪ The company licensed its name to others.

licensed adj
1 : having official permission to have or do something : having a license ▪ a licensed physician/teacher ▪ a licensed driver/pilot
2 chiefly Brit : having official permission to sell liquor ▪ a licensed hotel ▪ licensed premises [=a place that has a license to sell liquor]

licensed practical nurse noun, pl ~ nurses [count] : a nurse who has completed a basic level of training and is licensed to provide routine care to sick people — abbr. LPN; compare REGISTERED NURSE

li•cens•ee /ˌlaɪsŋˈsi:/ noun, pl -ees [count] business : a person or company that has a license to have, make, do, or use something license number noun, pl ~ -bers [count] US : the numbers and letters on a vehicle's license plate — called also (Brit) registration number license plate noun, pl ~ plates [count] US : a metal plate on a vehicle that shows a series of numbers and letters that are used to identify the vehicle — called also (chiefly Brit) number plate; see picture at CAR licensing law noun, pl ~ laws [count] Brit : a law that controls where and when alcoholic drinks may be sold — usually plural

li•cen•tious /laɪˈsɛnʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : sexually immoral or offensive ▪ licentious behavior
– li•cen•tious•ness noun [noncount]

lichee variant spelling of LYCHEE

li•chen /ˈlaɪkən/ noun [noncount] : a type of small plant that grows on rocks and walls

¹lick /ˈlɪk/ verb licks; licked; lick•ing
1 : to pass the tongue over (a surface, an object, etc.) [+ obj] He licked the stamp before putting it on the envelope. ▪ The dog licked my cheek. = The dog licked me on the cheek. [no obj] The dog licked at the plate.
2 [+ obj] : to take (something) into your mouth with your tongue ▪ She licked the sauce off her finger. ▪ The cat licked the milk off/from her paws.
3 : to lightly touch or go over (a surface) [+ obj] Flames were already licking the ceiling. [no obj] Flames were already licking at/against the ceiling.
4 [+ obj] informal a : to defeat (someone) in a fight or contest ▪ He's pretty big, but I think I can lick him. b : to solve (a problem) ▪ Engineers think they have licked the problem with the rocket engine.
lick someone's boots informal + disapproving : to treat someone powerful with too much respect in order to get approval ▪ He's just the assistant to the manager, there's no need to lick his boots.
lick your lips 1 : to pass your tongue over your lips ▪ She licked her lips while she waited for the food to be served. 2 or US lick your chops : to feel or show excitement because something good is expected to happen ▪ The players knew they would win and were licking their chops as they waited for the game to start.
lick your wounds : to recover from defeat or disappoint-

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

ment ▪ He went home to lick his wounds after losing the election.

[2]lick noun, pl licks [count]
1 : the act of passing your tongue over something : the act of licking something ▪ He gave the bowl a lick. [=he licked the bowl] ▪ Could I have a lick of your ice cream?
2 informal : a small amount : BIT ▪ It just needs a lick of paint. — often used in negative statements in U.S. English ▪ She couldn't swim a lick. [=she couldn't swim at all] ▪ He hasn't done a lick of work. [=he hasn't done any work] ▪ She thinks he isn't worth a lick. [=she thinks he is worthless]
3 informal : a hard hit ▪ a football player who has taken a lot of licks [=who has been hit hard many times] — often used figuratively in U.S. English ▪ He said some pretty harsh things to her, but she got in a few licks herself. [=she also said some harsh things to him] ▪ The movie has taken its licks from the critics. [=has been harshly reviewed by the critics]
4 informal : a very short part of a piece of music ▪ guitar licks
a lick and a promise 1 US : a quick and careless attempt to do something ▪ They gave the budget problems a lick and a promise and then moved on to the next issue. 2 Brit : the act of washing something quickly or carelessly ▪ He gave the car a lick and a promise.

lick•e•ty–split /ˌlɪkəti'splɪt/ adv, US, informal + old-fashioned : very quickly ▪ He ran out the door lickety-split.

lick•ing /'lɪkɪŋ/ noun [singular] informal
1 : a severe beating ▪ His father threatened to give him a licking if he didn't stop misbehaving.
2 : a severe defeat ▪ The team got/took a good licking [=was badly defeated] in the first game of the season. — often used figuratively ▪ Many investors took a licking [=lost a lot of money] in the stock market last year.

lic•o•rice or chiefly Brit li•quor•ice /'lɪkərɪʃ/ noun [noncount] : a candy made from the dried root of a European plant lid /'lɪd/ noun, pl lids [count]

1 : a cover on a box, can, jar, etc., that can be lifted or removed — see picture at KITCHEN
2 : EYELID
blow the lid off (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit lift the lid on : to reveal the truth about (something) ▪ The investigation blew the lid off corruption in city hall.
flip your lid see [1]FLIP keep a lid on 1 : to keep (something secret) from being known ▪ She tried to keep a lid on the news. 2 : to control (something) : to keep (something) from becoming worse ▪ The government has been unable to keep a lid on inflation.
put a lid on 1 : to stop (something) from growing or becoming worse ▪ These changes are intended to put a lid on rising medical costs. 2 informal : to stop doing or saying (something) ▪ He angrily told them to put a lid on their complaints. [=to stop complaining] ▪ I'm tired of listening to your complaints, so just put a lid on it! [=shut up] 3 or put the lid on : to cause the end or failure of (something) ▪ The government used the army to put a lid on [=stop] the rebellion. ▪ The new official vowed that he would put the lid on violence once and for all. ▪ (chiefly Brit) The rain has really put the lid on our holiday plans. [=has ruined our holiday plans]

lid•ded /'lɪdəd/ adj : having a lid or a particular kind of lid ▪ a lidded container ▪ He has heavy-lidded eyes. [=eyes with large/heavy eyelids or with eyelids that are almost closed]

li•do /'li:doʊ/ noun, pl lidos [count] Brit : a public outdoor swimming pool or swimming area

[1]lie /'laɪ/ verb lies; lay /'leɪ/; lain /'leɪn/; ly•ing /'lajɪŋ/ [no obj]
1 of a person or animal a : to be in a flat position on a surface (such as a bed) ▪ Lie still. ▪ She lay asleep on the bed. ▪ He lay dead on the floor. ▪ The police found him lying unconscious in an alley. ▪ All the dog did was just lie there. — see picture at POSITION b : to move from a standing or sitting position to a flat position on a surface ▪ The doctor asked him to lie [=lie down] on the table. c — used to mark the place where a person is buried ▪ Here lies John Smith. = Here lies the body of John Smith.
2 of things : to be in a flat position on a surface ▪ snow lying on the ground ▪ A note was lying on the table when he came home. ▪ The leaves lay thick on the ground. ▪ He placed a hand on her shoulder, where it lay [=rested] for a moment.
3 a : to be or remain in a specified state or condition ▪ The city lay in ruins. ▪ The book was lying open on the desk. ▪ The factory continues to lie idle. ▪ dishes lying dirty in the sink b always followed by an adverb or a preposition : to be in a specified direction ▪ Our route lay to the west.
4 : to be located in a particular place ▪ The village lies in a peaceful valley. ▪ The river lies along the western edge of the mountains. ▪ Ohio lies east of Indiana. = Ohio lies to the east of Indiana. ▪ A ship was lying in the harbor. ▪ The mountains lay between us and our goal. — often used figuratively ▪ I don't know where the answer lies. [=I don't know where the answer can be found; I don't know what the answer is] ▪ He doesn't know where his future lies. [=he doesn't know what he will do in the future] ▪ The choice lay between fighting or surrendering. [=the choice was between fighting or surrendering] ▪ There is no question about where her loyalties lie. [=about which person, group, etc., she is loyal to] ▪ The problem lies in knowing what to do. ▪ I don't know what to do, and therein lies the problem. [=that is the problem]
5 Brit : to be at a specified level in a competition ▪ They are lying third. = They are lying in third place. [=they are in third place]
how the land lies see [1]LAND
let sleeping dogs lie see [1]DOG
lie ahead : to be in the future ▪ No one knows what lies ahead (of us). [=no one knows what will happen (to us) in the future]
lie around or Brit lie about [phrasal verb] 1 a : to be lying in a disordered way ▪ He always had a lot of clothes lying around his house. b : to be somewhere within a general area or place ▪ I know that pen is lying around here somewhere. 2 : to spend time resting in a lazy way ▪ She spent the whole day just lying around. ▪ My friends and I were lying around by the pool.
lie back [phrasal verb] : to lean backward from a sitting position to a flat position ▪ The doctor asked him to lie back on the table.
lie behind [phrasal verb] lie behind (something) : to be the cause of (something) ▪ Greed lies behind the higher prices.
lie down [phrasal verb] 1 : to move from a standing or sitting position to a flat position on a surface ▪ Lie down on the couch/bed. ▪ I'm tired. I'm going to lie down. ▪ The police ordered him to lay down his weapons and lie down on the ground. 2 *lie down on the job : to fail to do your job : to neglect your responsibilities ▪ He says pollution has been getting worse because government regulators have been lying down on the job. 3 ✧ To take something lying down is to accept something bad, such as an insult or unfair treatment, without trying to fight against it. ▪ He vowed that he would not take the court's decision lying down. [=that he would fight against the court's decision] lie in [phrasal verb] Brit : to stay in bed later than usual ▪ She likes to lie in [=sleep in] on Saturdays.
lie in state see [1]STATE lie in wait see [2]WAIT lie low : to try not to be noticed : to stay hidden or inactive in order to avoid being noticed or found ▪ The prisoners had to lie low after their escape.
lie on/upon [phrasal verb] lie on/upon (someone or something) : to affect someone in a specified way ▪ Sorrow lay heavily on him. [=he felt very sad] ▪ Guilt lies on his conscience. [=he feels very guilty] ▪ Her years lie lightly upon her. [=she seems younger than she is] lie with [phrasal verb] 1 lie with (someone or something) not used in the progressive tenses — used to say who has the blame or responsibility for something ▪ The blame lies with their mother for not watching them closely enough. ▪ Responsibility for the accident lies with the company. 2 lie with (someone) literary : to have sex with (someone) ▪ when he first lay with her make your bed and lie in it see [1]BED
– compare [3]LIE

[2]lie noun, pl lies [count] : the position in which something lies on the ground ▪ a golf ball in a difficult lie — see also LIE OF THE LAND — compare [4]LIE

[3]lie verb lies; lied; ly•ing [no obj]
1 : to say or write something that is not true in order to deceive someone : to tell a lie ▪ I can't believe you lied to me. ▪ He has been accused of lying about his military record. ▪ She was lying when she told her parents that she had spent the afternoon studying. ▪ She was lying through her teeth. [=she was saying something completely untrue] ▪ (US, informal) You can't trust that guy. He lies like a rug. [=he lies constantly; he is dishonest]
2 : to indicate or suggest something that is not true or accurate ▪ Statistics sometimes lie. [=do not accurately reflect the truth] ▪ You may think that you still look young, but the mirror never lies. [=the mirror shows how you really look]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

– compare [1]LIE

[4]lie noun, pl lies [count] : something untrue that is said or written to deceive someone ▪ She told a lie to her parents. ▪ He has been accused of telling lies about his military record. ▪ a bold/brazen/barefaced lie ▪ a complete lie ▪ The accusations are lies, all lies. ▪ The claims he has made are nothing but a pack of lies. ▪ (chiefly Brit) He has woven a tissue of lies [=he has told many lies] about his military record. — see also WHITE LIE give the lie to formal : to show that (something) is not true ▪ Her success has given the lie to the notion that women cannot compete with men.

I tell a lie Brit, informal — used to correct something you have just said ▪ I saw him just yesterday. No, I tell a lie. It was two days ago.

live a lie : to live in a false or deceptive way : to live in a way that does not show who you truly are or what your feelings truly are ▪ Their friends thought that they had a happy marriage, but they were living a lie. [=their marriage was not happy]
– compare [2]LIE

lie detector noun, pl ∼ -tors [count] : a device used to measure the heart rate, breathing, etc., in order to find out if someone (such as a person suspected of a crime) is being honest ▪ The murder suspect failed a lie detector test.

lie–down /ˈlaɪˌdaʊn/ noun [singular] Brit : a brief rest : NAP ▪ They often have a lie-down in the afternoon. — see also lie down at [1]LIE

liege /ˈliːʤ/ noun, pl lieg•es [count] : a lord in the time of the Middle Ages

lie–in /ˈlaɪˌɪn/ noun [singular] Brit, informal : a time in the morning spent lying in bed instead of getting up ▪ They had a nice long lie-in on the first morning of their holiday. — see also lie in at [1]LIE lien /ˈliːn/ noun, pl liens [count] law : a legal claim that someone or something has on the property of another person until a debt has been paid back ▪ The bank had a lien on our house. [=the bank had the right to take our house if we did not pay back the money we had borrowed to buy it]

lie of the land noun [singular] Brit : LAY OF THE LAND

lieu /ˈluː, Brit ˈljuː/ noun

in lieu of : in place of : instead of ▪ In lieu of flowers, the family of the deceased has requested that donations be made to the church fund. ▪ You can use your ATM card in lieu of cash.

lieut. abbr lieutenant lieu•ten•ant /luˈtɛnənt, Brit lɛfˈtɛnənt/ noun, pl -ants [count]

1 : an officer in the army, navy, or air force with a fairly low rank ▪ He was promoted to the rank of lieutenant. ▪ Good morning, Lieutenant Smith. — abbr. Lt.; see also FIRST LIEUTENANT, SECOND LIEUTENANT

2 US : an officer in a fire or police department who has a rank below a captain

3 : an assistant to another, more powerful person : a person who represents and works for someone else ▪ She has her best lieutenants working on a proposal. ▪ one of the mobster's most loyal lieutenants lieutenant colonel noun, pl ∼ -nels [count] : a military officer who has a rank just below a colonel lieutenant commander noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] : an officer in the navy or coast guard who has a rank just below a commander

lieutenant general noun, pl ∼ -als [count] : a military officer who has a rank just below a general

lieutenant governor noun, pl ∼ -nors [count] : an elected official who is an assistant to the governor of a U.S. state

[1]life /ˈlaɪf/ noun, pl lives /ˈlaɪvz/

1 [noncount] : the ability to grow, change, etc., that separates plants and animals from things like water or rocks ▪ He believes that God gives life to all creatures. ▪ the miracle of life ▪ eternal/everlasting life

2 a : the period of time when a person is alive [noncount] She knew what she wanted to do early in life. [=when she was young] ▪ He became famous relatively late in life. [=at a relatively old age] ▪ He became famous later in life. = He became famous in later life. [count] She was happy and healthy for most of her life. ▪ The people in her family tend to have long/short lives. ▪ I've known her all my life. ▪ He is nearing the end of his life. ▪ They spent their whole/entire lives in one town. = They lived in one town all their lives. ▪ People can expect to change jobs several times in their life/lives. ▪ They've been waiting their whole/entire life/lives for an opportunity like this. ▪ This is the financial opportunity of his life. [=of his lifetime; the best chance in his life to make money] b : the experience of being alive [noncount] What do you really want out of life? ▪ He believes in living life to the fullest. [=in living a very full and rich life] ▪ All this paperwork has made life much more difficult. ▪ The details of everyday/ordinary life can be fascinating. ▪ life in the city/country = city/country life ▪ Sometimes life just isn't fair. ▪ We can laugh at things in movies that would scare us in real life. [=in a real situation; in actual existence] ▪ Oh well, that's life! [=bad things will happen, and you have to deal with them] ▪ Despite the political upheaval, for most people life goes on as usual. [=the activities of life continue in the usual way] [count] What do you really want to do with your life? ▪ Her children say that she has ruined their lives. ▪ She talked about the men in her life. [=the men she has had a romantic or close relationship with during her life] ▪ She has dedicated/devoted her life to helping other people. ▪ All this paperwork has made my life much more difficult. ▪ They're trying to get/put their lives back together. [=to begin living in a normal way after suffering loss, hardship, etc.] ▪ She was the love of my life. [=the person I loved more than any other person at any time in my life] ▪ I've never heard such a silly idea in all my life! [=at any time] = Never in my life have I heard such a silly idea! ▪ They're old enough to run/live their own lives. [=to make their own decisions about how to live] ▪ After all the problems they've had recently, they just want to get/move on with their lives. [=to continue living their lives in the usual way] ▪ I'm not surprised that I didn't get the job. That's the story of my life. [=that's the way things usually or always happen in my life] — often used before another noun ▪ She told us her life story. [=she told us about many of the things that had happened to her in her life] ▪ a lack of life experience [=experience and knowledge gained through living] ✧ If your life ashes/passes before your eyes or if your life ashes/passes before you, many memories from different parts of your life quickly appear in your mind one after the other. ▪ Her life flashed before her eyes when her car was about to crash.

3 [count] a : a specified part of a person's life ▪ He talked about his life as an artist. ▪ the social lives of college students ▪ How's your love/sex life? ▪ They had difficult home lives when they were children. ▪ They are trying to keep their personal/private lives separate from their public lives. ▪ the responsibilities of their family life b : a specified way or manner of living ▪ He lived/led a life of crime. [=he was a criminal] ▪ They have lived/led sheltered lives. ▪ He is trying to make a better life for himself and his family. ✧ Your way of life is how you live your life. ▪ a fisherman's way of life ▪ Most people don't approve of my way of life. ▪ a traditional way of life

4 [count] : the state or condition of being alive ▪ They spared the horse's life. [=they did not kill the horse] ▪ She feels that her life is in danger. = She fears for her life. = She is in fear for her life. [=she feels that she is in danger of being killed] ▪ She risked her life [=she did something very dangerous that could have resulted in her death] to help him. ▪ She gave/sacrificed her life [=she did something that resulted in her death] for her country. ▪ He was running for his life. [=he was running to escape from great danger] ▪ He is fighting for his life. [=he is very sick or injured and may die] ▪ A would-be assassin made an attempt on the President's life. [=tried to kill the President]

5 [noncount] : living things of a specified kind or in a specified place ▪ There may be a great deal of animal/plant life still to be discovered in this region. ▪ forest life ▪ ocean life ▪ Will we ever find intelligent life on other planets?

6 : the time when something can be used : the period when something exists or is useful or effective [noncount] battery life ▪ the life of an insurance policy ▪ They claim that using their product will extend the life of the car. ▪ a warranty that is good for the life of the product [count] a product that extends the lives of the rugs/cars — see also HALF-LIFE, SHELF LIFE

7 [noncount] a : energy and spirit ▪ eyes full of life ▪ (informal) suck the life out of a room [=take all the fun and energy out of a group of people in a room] b : activity and movement ▪ The streets were humming with life. [=the streets were filled with people and activity] ▪ There were no signs of life in the deserted village.

8 [count] : a book that tells about the life of a person : BIOG-

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

RAPHY ▪ She wrote a life of Napoleon. ▪ Boswell's Life of Johnson

9 [noncount] : the punishment of being kept in a prison for the rest of your life : LIFE IMPRISONMENT ▪ He was found guilty and sentenced to life. = (informal) He got life. = He was given life.

a dog's life see ¹DOG

a life of its own ✧ Something that takes on a life of its own becomes very large, important, or hard to control. ▪ The project soon took on a life of its own and prevented us from getting any other work done. ▪ The story took on a life of its own and began to appear on news broadcasts everywhere.

all walks of life or every walk of life see ²WALK

a matter of life and death : something that is extremely important and often involves decisions that will determine whether someone lives or dies ▪ Being prepared for severe weather can be a matter of life and death. — see also LIFE-AND-DEATH

a new lease on/of life see ¹LEASE

(as) big as life (US) or chiefly Brit (as) large as life informal : in person — used to describe the surprise of seeing someone ▪ I never expected her to come to the party, but there she was, as big as life.

bet/stake your life on ✧ If you would bet/stake your life on something, you are very sure that it will happen. ▪ "Will she keep her promise?" "I'd bet/stake my life on it!"

breathe (new) life into : to give new energy and excitement to (something) ▪ She is credited with breathing new life into contemporary art. ▪ The singer managed to breathe life into some tired old songs.

bring someone or something back to life : to cause someone or something that has died to begin living again ▪ The story is about a mad scientist who tries to bring dead people back to life. — often used figuratively ▪ They're trying to bring the restaurant back to life by introducing a new menu. ▪ an old theory that is being brought back to life

bring something to life : to make something very interesting, appealing, or exciting ▪ She brings history to life with her books.

come to life 1 : to become very interesting, appealing, or exciting ▪ The movie really comes to life when she appears on the screen. 2 of a place : to become filled with the energy and excitement of active people ▪ Downtown comes to life each night when the clubs open. 3 or sputter/roar (etc.) to life of a machine : to begin working ▪ The engine suddenly roared to life.

depart this life see DEPART

for dear life : very tightly or quickly because of fear or danger ▪ He was hanging/holding on to the rope for dear life. ▪ They were running for dear life to get away from the vicious dogs.

for life : for the whole of your life : for the rest of your life ▪ They met in college and have remained friends for life. ▪ He was sentenced to prison for life.

for the life of me informal : in any way at all — used to say that you are unable to remember or understand something ▪ I couldn't for the life of me remember what her name was. ▪ For the life of me, I can't think of any reasons why you wouldn't want a computer at home.

frighten/scare the life out of informal : to frighten (someone) very badly ▪ You (nearly) scared the life out of me when you startled me like that!

from life of a painting, drawing, etc. : from looking at an actual person, object, etc. ▪ drawings done from life rather than from photographs get a life informal : to stop spending time doing or thinking about things that are not important or interesting : to begin to have a more interesting or exciting life ▪ My girlfriend's parents are nice people, but all they do is watch TV all day. They need to get a life.

larger than life see ¹LARGE

lay down your life see lay down at ¹LAY life depends on ✧ If your life depends on something, then you must do it. ▪ His life depends on how he answers this question. ▪ He was studying as if his life depended on it. — often used in negative statements ▪ I wouldn't eat that food if my life depended on it. [=I would never eat it]

lose your life : to die ▪ She nearly lost her life in a car accident. ▪ Many lives were lost. [=many people died]

new life ✧ When something takes on (a) new life or when you give something new life or give new life to something, it becomes more active, interesting, etc. ▪ Plain old mashed potatoes take on a new life in this recipe. ▪ Falling interest rates gave new life to the housing market.

not on your life informal — used as a very forceful way of saying "no" or "never" ▪ Do the government's policies really help the average worker? Not on your life.

risk life and limb : to do something that is very dangerous ▪ They risked life and limb to pull the child from the river.

save someone's life see ¹SAVE

spring into/to life see ²SPRING

staff of life see ¹STAFF

such is life see ²SUCH

take/claim someone's life : to cause someone's death ▪ Two years ago he was diagnosed with the illness that eventually took his life. ▪ The flood claimed many lives. [=caused the deaths of many people] take your own life : to kill yourself ▪ He threatened to take his own life [=commit suicide], but no one believed him.

the life of the party (US) or chiefly Brit the life and soul of the party : someone who is very lively and amusing at a party or other social gathering

the light of your life see ¹LIGHT

the next life or the life to come : a life that is believed by some people to come after death ▪ He believed that he would see his family again in the next life.

the simple life see SIMPLE to save your life see ¹SAVE

true to life see ¹TRUE

– see also FACT OF LIFE, GOOD LIFE, SLICE-OF-LIFE, STILL LIFE

²life adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to life ▪ the life force in all things

2 : done as long as a person lives : existing or lasting throughout a person's life ▪ a life [=lifelong] member ▪ my life savings [=all the money I have saved in my life] ▪ He was given a life sentence in prison.

life–af• rm•ing /ˈlaɪfəˌfə͡ɹmɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : indicating that life has value : positive and optimistic ▪ Even though the heroine dies at the end, her struggle for a better world gives the movie a life-affirming message.

life–and–death adj : extremely important and serious especially because your survival or life may depend on success ▪ They were engaged in a life-and-death struggle. ▪ He plays every game like it's life-and-death. — see also a matter of life and death at ¹LIFE

life assurance noun [noncount] Brit : LIFE INSURANCE

life•blood /ˈlaɪfˈblʌd/ noun [noncount]

1 : the most important part of something : the part of something that provides its strength and energy ▪ The town's lifeblood has always been its fishing industry. ▪ The neighborhoods are the lifeblood of this city.

2 literary : a person's blood ▪ the lifeblood that flows through his veins life•boat /ˈlaɪfˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat used for saving people's lives; especially : a small boat that is carried on a ship and that is used for saving the lives of the passengers and crew if the ship sinks life buoy noun, pl ~ buoys [count] : a ring-shaped device that floats in water and that is used to keep a person from drowning life cycle noun, pl ~ cycles [count] biology : the series of stages through which a living thing passes from the beginning of its life until its death ▪ the life cycle of a shark life expectancy noun, pl ~ -cies : the average number of years that a person or animal can expect to live [noncount] improvements in diet that have resulted in greater life expectancy for many people [count] calculating the life expectancies of different social groups — often used figuratively ▪ What is the life expectancy of a new computer? [=how long can a new computer be expected to last or be useful?]

life form noun, pl ~ forms [count] : a living thing of any kind ▪ searching for alien life forms ▪ higher life forms = more complex life forms ▪ primitive/simple life forms

life–giv•ing /ˈlaɪfˌgɪvɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : giving or having power to create or support life : essential to life ▪ the sun's life-giving energy life•guard /ˈlaɪfˌgɑə͡ɹd/ noun, pl -guards [count] : a person whose job is to protect swimmers from drowning life history noun, pl ~ -ries [count] biology : the full range of changes, habits, and behaviors of a living thing over the course of its life ▪ studying the life history of bears life imprisonment noun [noncount] : the punishment of being kept in a prison for the rest of your life ▪ The murderer was sentenced to life imprisonment.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

life insurance noun [noncount] : a type of insurance that pays money to the family of someone who has died life jacket noun, pl ~ -ets [count] : something that is worn over your upper body like a jacket or vest and that is designed to save you from drowning by holding you up when you are in water — called also (US) life vest

life jacket

life•less /ˈlaɪfləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having no life: such as a : having no living things ▪ a cold and lifeless landscape b : dead or appearing to be dead ▪ a lifeless body c : lacking spirit, interest, or energy ▪ The book's plot was lifeless and predictable.
– life•less•ly adv ▪ His arms fell lifelessly to his sides. – life•less•ness noun [noncount]

life•like /ˈlaɪfˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : looking like a real person or thing ▪ a very lifelike doll ▪ The graphics in the video game are more lifelike than we imagined they would be. ▪ a lifelike portrait life•line /ˈlaɪfˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count]

1 : something which provides help or support that is needed for success or survival ▪ The river is the town's lifeline. ▪ The new jobs were an economic lifeline for a city in need of help. ▪ The radio was their lifeline to the outside world.
2 : a rope used for saving the life of someone (such as someone who has fallen into water) ▪ They threw a lifeline to the man overboard.

life•long /ˈlaɪfˌlɔːŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : continuing or lasting through a person's life ▪ He had a lifelong love of nature. ▪ a lifelong friendship life of Ri•ley /-ˈraɪli/ noun

the life of Riley informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a happy and comfortable life with few problems ▪ He's been living/leading the life of Riley.

life–or–death adj : LIFE-AND-DEATH ▪ a life-or-death struggle life peer noun, pl ~ peers [count] : a British peer (sense 2) who has the title "Lord" or "Lady" for life but cannot pass it on to another person after death life preserver noun, pl ~ -ers [count] chiefly US : a floating device that is designed to save you from drowning life•er /ˈlaɪfɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal 1 US : a person who spends an entire career in the same job ▪ He was a lifer at the factory. ▪ an army lifer

2 : a criminal who has been sentenced to spend the rest of his or her life in prison ▪ lifers seeking parole life raft noun, pl ~ rafts [count] : a small rubber boat designed for saving the lives of people when a larger boat or ship sinks life•sav•er /ˈlaɪfˌseɪvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : something that saves a person's life ▪ a surgical procedure that has been a lifesaver for many people
2 : something or someone which provides help that is badly needed ▪ This multipurpose tool can be a real lifesaver when something needs fixing. ▪ Frozen dinners can be lifesavers for busy parents. ▪ Thanks so much for offering to help. You're a real lifesaver!
3 chiefly Australia : LIFEGUARD

[1]life•sav•ing /ˈlaɪfˌseɪvɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : designed for or used in saving people's lives ▪ a lifesaving surgical procedure

[2]lifesaving noun [noncount] : the skills needed to save the lives of people who are drowning ▪ All lifeguards are trained in lifesaving.

life science noun, pl ~ -ences [count] : an area of science that deals with living things and life processes — usually plural ▪ life sciences such as biology and medicine life sentence noun, pl ~ -tences [count] : the punishment of being sent to prison for the rest of your life ▪ He received a life sentence for his crimes.

life–size /ˈlaɪfˈsaɪz/ also life–sized /ˈlaɪfˈsaɪzd/ adj : having the same size as a real person or thing ▪ a life-size image of a dog ▪ a life-size model of a dinosaur ▪ The statue was nearly twice life-size.

life span noun, pl ~ spans [count] : the amount of time that a person or animal actually lives ▪ the average life span of house cats ▪ increase/lengthen the human life span — often used figuratively ▪ Recharging can extend the life span of a battery. ▪ the life span of a building/appliance ▪ the life span of a controversy life•style /ˈlaɪfˌstajəl/ noun, pl -styles [count] : a particular way of living : the way a person lives or a group of people live ▪ She envied the lavish lifestyles of wealthy people. ▪ Eating right and exercising are essential to having/leading/living a healthy lifestyle.

life support noun [noncount]
1 medical : the equipment, material, and treatment needed to keep a very sick or hurt patient alive ▪ He was removed from life support. ▪ She was put/kept on life support.
2 : the things that are needed to keep someone alive in a place (such as outer space) where life is usually not possible ▪ equipment providing life support for astronauts – life–support /ˈlaɪfsəˌpoɚt/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ life-support equipment/machines ▪ There was a problem with the submarine's life-support system.

life–sus•tain•ing /ˈlaɪfsəˌsteɪnɪŋ/ adj : helping someone or something to stay alive : supporting or extending life ▪ life-sustaining medical treatment ▪ The storm brought life-sustaining rain/water to the farms.

life's work also US life•work /ˈlaɪfˈwɚk/ noun [noncount] : the entire or main work of a person's life ▪ She made photography her life's work.

life–threat•en•ing /ˈlaɪfˌθrɛtnɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : capable of causing someone's death ▪ a life-threatening disease/emergency ▪ The injury wasn't life-threatening.

life•time /ˈlaɪfˌtaɪm/ noun, pl -times [count]
1 a : the time during which a person is alive ▪ Four editions of the book were printed in his lifetime. [=during his life] ▪ She has had a lifetime of hard work. [=she has worked hard all her life] ▪ a lifetime spent traveling the world ▪ I don't think it will happen in our lifetime. [=the time when we are alive] ▪ She owns enough shoes to last (her) a lifetime. [=to last for the rest of her life] ▪ the thrill of a lifetime [=a great thrill; the most exciting moment or event of a person's life] ▪ This is the opportunity of a lifetime. = This sort of opportunity comes along once in a lifetime. [=this is a very rare opportunity] — often used before another noun ▪ He won a lifetime supply of ice cream. [=free ice cream for the rest of his life] ▪ She was presented with a lifetime achievement award. [=an award for all the work she has done in her life] ▪ a baseball player's lifetime batting average [=batting average measured over a baseball player's full career] b : a very long time ▪ It would have taken me a lifetime to read all those books. ▪ Childhood seems a lifetime ago now!
2 : the time during which something lasts or is useful ▪ a chemical with a lifetime of only a few minutes ▪ the lifetime of a planet/star/comet life vest noun, pl ~ vests [count] US : LIFE JACKET

[1]lift /ˈlɪft/ verb lifts; lift•ed; lift•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to move (something or someone) to a higher position : RAISE ▪ The paramedics lifted the stretcher into the ambulance. ▪ lift a bucket of water ▪ He lifted his foot from/off the gas pedal. ▪ He lifted his pen from the paper. ▪ She lifted her hands to the sky. ▪ She lifted the child (up) onto her lap. ▪ He lifted his head (up) and looked at us. ▪ She lifted (up) the lid of the box. b [no obj] : to rise up from the ground or some other surface ▪ The balloon lifted [=rose] into the sky.
2 [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) to a higher condition or position ▪ The story lifted him to national recognition. ▪ lifting people from poverty
3 ✧ If your spirits lift or your mood lifts or if something lifts your spirits/mood, you become happier or less sad. ▪ The beauty of the sunrise lifted her spirits. = Her spirits lifted when she saw the beauty of the sunrise.
4 ✧ When a weight/load/burden has been lifted from your shoulders/back, you are able to stop worrying about some large problem or responsibility. ▪ After I finally told my mother about my concerns, I felt as if a weight had been lifted from my shoulders. [=I felt very relieved]
5 [+ obj] : to increase the amount of (something) ▪ The company has been trying to improve the quality of its products without lifting [=(more commonly) raising] prices.
6 [+ obj] : to make (your voice) louder ▪ He barely lifted [=raised] his voice above a whisper. ▪ The preacher told them to lift (up) their voices and sing.
7 [+ obj] informal a : to take (an idea, plan, etc.) from another source often in a way that is wrong ▪ The plot of the movie was lifted [=taken] from real life. ▪ an idea lifted from another novel b : to steal (something) ▪ Somebody lifted her purse when she wasn't looking. c : to take (something) out of a normal position or setting ▪ lift a word out of context

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 5 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

8 [+ obj] : to stop or remove (something, such as a rule that prevents people from doing something) often for only a short time ▪ lift a blockade ▪ The city has temporarily lifted its ban on smoking in bars.
9 [no obj] of fog, clouds, or smoke : to move up and disappear so that it is possible to see ▪ You can see the mountains when the clouds lift. ▪ We were shocked by what we saw when the fog/smoke finally lifted. [=cleared]
10 [+ obj] : to move (someone or something) from one place to another in an aircraft : AIRLIFT ▪ troops being lifted into enemy territory ▪ supplies being lifted to remote areas
lift a finger see ¹FINGER lift down [phrasal verb] lift (something) down also lift down (something) : to pick up (something) in order to move it to a lower position ▪ I had to lift the box down from the top shelf to the floor.
lift off [phrasal verb] of an airplane, rocket, etc. : to rise up from the ground or another surface ▪ planes lifting off from the runway ▪ Thousands of spectators watched as the space shuttle lifted off. — see also LIFTOFF lift weights : to exercise by lifting heavy objects (such as barbells) in order to become stronger ▪ He has been lifting weights for exercise.
– lift•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a mechanical lifter — see also WEIGHT LIFTER

²lift noun, pl lifts
1 [count] : the act of raising or lifting something ▪ a slight lift of his eyebrows
2 [count] : a free ride in a vehicle ▪ Can I give you a lift? = Do you need a lift? ▪ I need a lift to the bus station. ▪ I got/hitched a lift [=(US) ride] home after the party.
3 [count] a Brit : ELEVATOR 1 ▪ We took the lift to the fifth floor. b : SKI LIFT
4 [singular] a : a feeling of greater happiness ▪ Her visit really gave me the lift I needed. [=made me feel better and happier] ▪ The coach's speech gave the team a psychological lift. b : an improved state or condition ▪ He claims that a tax cut will give the economy a lift. [=will improve the economy]
5 [noncount] technical : an upward force that makes it possible for aircraft to fly ▪ a wing design that generates more lift

lift•off /ˈlɪftˌɑːf/ noun, pl -offs : the upward movement from the ground by a rocket, helicopter, or space vehicle as it begins flight [noncount] moments after liftoff ▪ We have liftoff! [count] a series of successful liftoffs ▪ Thousand of spectators gathered to watch the liftoff of the space shuttle. — see also lift off at ¹LIFT

lig•a•ment /ˈlɪgəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count] : a tough piece of tissue in your body that holds bones together or keeps an organ in place ▪ He sprained/tore ligaments in his knee. — compare TENDON

¹light /ˈlaɪt/ noun, pl lights
1 [noncount] : the form of energy that makes it possible to see things : the brightness produced by the sun, by fire, a lamp, etc. ▪ The light was bright/dazzling. ▪ The landscape was bathed/awash in light. ▪ a ray/shaft/beam of light ▪ a source of light = a light source ▪ a photograph taken in low/dim light ▪ the light of the moon ▪ a mixture of light and shadow ▪ The windows let fresh air and light into the room. ▪ a plant that grows best in direct/indirect light [=with light shining directly/indirectly on it] ▪ natural light [=sunlight] ▪ artificial light [=light produced by electric lamps] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He hates the harsh light of publicity.
2 [count] a : a source of light (such as an electric lamp) ▪ turn/switch on/off the light ▪ a fluorescent light ▪ a light fixture [=a lamp that is permanently attached to a wall, ceiling, etc.] ▪ a warning light ▪ The lights suddenly went out. ▪ The lights suddenly came on. ▪ the twinkling lights of the city below ▪ the bright lights of Broadway ▪ a light switch [=a switch for turning lights on and off] ▪ The lights are on, so there must be somebody at home. — see also NIGHTLIGHT b : a light on a vehicle ▪ His car's battery died because he left his lights on.
3 [singular] : a way of showing or understanding something or someone ▪ The situation looks less serious when looked at in a certain light. [=in a certain way] ▪ I see things in a different light now. [=I see/understand things differently now] ▪ The defendants were shown/depicted in a bad light [=in a way that made them seem bad] by the lawyer. ▪ The news about his marital problems does not place/put him in a good light. [=does not make him appear to be a good person] ▪ She tried to explain her behavior in the best light possible. [=in a way that would make her appear as good as possible]
4 [count] : a light or set of lights used to control traffic : TRAFFIC LIGHT ▪ Turn left at the next light. ▪ The light was red. ▪ We were waiting for the light to turn green.
5 [singular] informal : a flame for lighting a cigarette ▪ I need a light for my cigarette. ▪ Do you have a light? ▪ I didn't have any matches, but a stranger gave me a light. [=lit my cigarette for me]
6 [noncount] formal : DAYLIGHT 1 ▪ Things look different by the light of day. ▪ We woke up at first light. [=at dawn; at sunrise; when the sun came up] — see also SEE THE LIGHT OF DAY (below)
7 [singular] : a quality in a person's eyes that shows emotion ▪ I saw the light of recognition in her eye.
8 lights [plural] a : light colors : colors that are more white than black ▪ the composition of lights and darks in the painting/photograph b : light-colored clothes ▪ Wash the lights and the darks separately.
according to your lights formal : according to your idea of what is right ▪ You know my views on the matter; but of course you must act according to your (own) lights. [=you must be guided by your own opinions about what is right]
a light at the end of the tunnel : a reason to believe that a bad situation will end soon or that a long and difficult job will be finished soon ▪ They are falling deeper into debt, and there is no light at the end of the tunnel. ▪ The work on our house has been going on for months, but we're finally starting to see a light at the end of the tunnel.
bring (something) to light : to tell people about (something) : to make (something) known ▪ Many new facts were brought to light during the investigation.
cast/shed/throw light on : to help to explain (something) : to make it possible to understand or know more about (something) ▪ She is developing new theories that might shed some light on these unusual phenomena. ▪ I hope my explanation throws light on their behavior.
come to light : to become known ▪ Other details have come to light because of this investigation. ▪ She was angry when it came to light that some people were being promoted unfairly.
hide your light under a bushel see BUSHEL in someone's light : blocking the light that someone needs to see or read something ▪ She asked him to move back a few steps because he was in her light.
in the cold light of day see ¹COLD
in the light of or US in light of 1 : while thinking about (something that affects the way you see or understand things) ▪ You should think about their advice in light of your own needs. ▪ It is impossible to come to a conclusion in the light of the data we have here. ▪ You should read the story in light of your own experiences. 2 : because of (something) ▪ It's a particularly important topic in light of recent events.
light dawns ✧ When people suddenly understand something that they had not understood before, (a/the) light dawns (on them). ▪ When she saw the guilty look on her husband's face, a light dawned, and she knew he had been lying to her.
more heat than light see ¹HEAT out like a light informal 1 : ASLEEP ▪ As soon as my head hit the pillow, I was out like a light. 2 : UNCONSCIOUS ▪ He took one punch to the jaw and was out like a light.
punch someone's lights out see ¹PUNCH see the light informal : to suddenly understand or realize the truth of something ▪ Many people doubted his theory, but most of them have now finally seen the light. [=most of them now realize that his theory is correct] see the light of day 1 : to be seen or used ▪ our fine china, which hasn't seen the light of day in at least 10 years 2 : to become publicly known ▪ Important documents in this case have never seen the light of day. ▪ Her theory first saw the light of day in a well-respected magazine.
set light to chiefly Brit : to cause (something) to begin burning ▪ used a match to set light to [=set fire to] the paper the light of your life : a person you love very much and who makes you happy ▪ His daughter is the light of his life.
trip the light fantastic see ²TRIP
– see also GREEN LIGHT, LEADING LIGHT, NORTHERN LIGHTS, SOUTHERN LIGHTS, sweetness and light at SWEETNESS

²light adj light•er; -est
1 : not dark or deep in color : PALE ▪ light blue ▪ She has a light complexion. ▪ He has light [=fair] skin/hair.
2 a : having a lot of light : BRIGHT ▪ a light and airy room b

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

: having the light of the day ▪ We're planning to leave as soon as it's light. [=as soon as there is daylight] ▪ We're hoping to arrive while it's still light out. [=to arrive before night has fallen] ▪ In summer it gets light earlier and stays light later than in winter.
– compare [4]LIGHT

[3]light verb lights; light•ed or lit /ˈlɪt/; light•ing
1 [+ obj] : to provide light for (something) ▪ They used candles to light the room. = They lighted/lit the room with candles. ▪ a dimly/poorly lit room ▪ a brightly lit room ▪ a well-lighted place ▪ Our guide used a candle to light the way. [=to show the way that had to be followed]
2 a [+ obj] : to cause (something) to burn ▪ light a match/candle ▪ I lit (up) a cigarette for him. = I lit him a cigarette. — see also LIGHT UP 3 (below) b [no obj] : to begin to burn ▪ waiting for the wood to light light a fire under (someone) US, informal : to cause (someone) to move or work more quickly and effectively ▪ I've never seen him work so hard. Someone must have lit a fire under him.
light into [phrasal verb] light into (someone) US, informal : to attack or criticize (someone) forcefully ▪ He lit into his employees for their sloppy work. [=he criticized them very harshly] ▪ She lit into her opponent and did not let up.
light on/upon [phrasal verb] light on/upon (something) : to find or see (something) by chance ▪ Researchers have lit upon [=found] a solution. ▪ His eye lit on a story in the newspaper.
light out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to leave in a hurry for someplace ▪ He suddenly lit out for home.
light up [phrasal verb] 1 a of a light : to become lit : to begin shining ▪ All of the lights on the display suddenly lit up. — often used figuratively ▪ His eyes/face lit up [=he looked very happy and pleased] when she walked in the room. b informal, of a telephone : to show a light indicating that someone is calling ▪ When the DJ announced a contest, the phones lit up. [=the lights on the phones lit up because many people were calling] 2 light (something) up or light up (something) : to provide light for (something) : to fill (something) with light ▪ light up a room = light a room up ▪ Fireworks lit up the sky. — often used figuratively ▪ A smile lights up her whole face. [=a smile makes her whole face look happy and radiant] ▪ Her smile lights up the room. [=she has an extremely bright and attractive smile] 3 informal : to light a cigarette ▪ I can't wait to light up [=smoke a cigarette] after work.

[4]light adj lighter; -est
1 a : not heavy : having little weight or less than usual weight ▪ This suitcase is light enough for a child to carry. ▪ The truck was carrying a light load. ▪ "How heavy is it?" "Not very: it's actually quite light." ▪ It's very light in weight. = It's of very light weight. ▪ This box is lighter than I thought it would be. ▪ She would like to be a few pounds lighter. = She would like to be lighter by a few pounds. [=she would like to weigh less than she does by a few pounds] ▪ Aluminum is a light metal. ▪ lifting light weights ▪ This box is as light as a feather. [=very light] b : small in size and weight ▪ He has a light build.
2 a : less in amount or degree than usual ▪ Only a light turnout is expected for the election. ▪ Traffic was light this morning. ▪ I have only a light course load this semester. ▪ The stock market was slightly up today in light trading. ▪ light rain/snow ▪ She was wearing light makeup. ▪ light perfume b : not strong or violent : MODERATE ▪ a light breeze c : not great or large ▪ The storm caused only light [=slight] damage. [=the storm did not cause much damage] ▪ light competition ▪ Casualties have so far been light. d : not difficult to accept or bear ▪ a light responsibility : not harsh or severe ▪ light punishment ▪ He was given a surprisingly light sentence for his crimes. e : slight or minor in degree or effect ▪ She has a light cold. ▪ light discipline ▪ These shrubs require only a little light pruning. — opposite HEAVY
3 : not involving a lot of physical effort ▪ light lifting ▪ doing a little light housework ▪ light exercise/exertion ▪ a light practice session ▪ It's a big job, but many hands make light work. [=if many people work on it, it will be easier to do] — opposite HEAVY
4 : not loud or forceful ▪ light footsteps ▪ a light tread ▪ a light touch ▪ just a light tap on the ball/shoulder — opposite HEAVY
5 : not important or serious : intended mainly for entertainment ▪ doing some light reading — opposite HEAVY
6 : not dense and thick ▪ He has a light beard. ▪ a light growth of timber ▪ an animal's light summer coat ▪ light fog/smoke ▪ light soil — opposite HEAVY
7 : made with thin cloth and not very warm ▪ a light coat/blanket — opposite HEAVY
8 a : eating, drinking, or using a small amount of something ▪ He's a light eater/smoker/drinker/user. ▪ light alcohol consumption b : producing a small amount of something ▪ a shrub that is a light bloomer [=a shrub that does not produce many flowers] c : not done often or in large amounts ▪ light smoking — opposite HEAVY
9 a : not having a large amount of food : not making your stomach feel full ▪ We ate a light lunch. ▪ a light snack b : made with fewer calories or with less of some ingredient than usual ▪ light beer c : not rich, dense, or thick ▪ light cream ▪ light syrup — opposite HEAVY
10 a : designed to carry a small load or few passengers ▪ a light truck ▪ a refueling point for light aircraft b : not as large and powerful as other weapons, machines, etc. ▪ light artillery ▪ light machinery c of a group of soldiers : having fewer and smaller weapons and less armor than other groups but able to move quickly ▪ light infantry/cavalry light on : having or using a small amount of (something) ▪ a essay that is light on facts but heavy on speculation ▪ She asked him to go light on the mustard. [=to not use a large amount of mustard] light on your feet : capable of moving in a quick and graceful way ▪ He's very light on his feet for such a big person.
light sleeper : someone who wakes up easily ▪ She's a very light sleeper. The slightest noise will wake her.
make light of : to treat (something, such as a problem) in a joking way : to not be serious about (something important) ▪ I don't mean to make light of this very serious issue. ▪ He made light of his recent losses—but you could tell he was worried about them.
– compare [2]LIGHT
– light•ness /ˈlaɪtnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the lightness of the boxes ▪ the lightness [=delicacy, tenderness] of her touch ▪ the playful lightness of his manner ▪ the lightness of her movements

[5]light adv lighter; -est
eat light US : to eat foods that will not cause you to gain weight ▪ She is careful to eat light and exercise often.
travel light : to travel with little baggage ▪ savvy vacationers who have learned to travel light

light bulb noun, pl ∼ bulbs [count] : a glass bulb or tube that produces light when it is supplied with electricity ▪ change a light bulb that has burned out — called also bulb a light bulb goes off/on chiefly US, informal ✧ When a light bulb goes off/on (in your head), you suddenly understand something or have a great idea. ▪ After thinking about the problem for several days, a light bulb went off in her head, and she knew how to solve it.

[1]light•en /ˈlaɪtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) bright, light, or clear ▪ She tried several dyes to lighten her hair. ▪ He turned on a few lamps to lighten (up) the room.
2 [no obj] : to become bright, light, or clear ▪ The sky lightened [=brightened] as the clouds began to move away but darkened again when the clouds returned.
– compare [2]LIGHTEN
– light•en•er /ˈlaɪtnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a hair/skin lightener [=a chemical or dye used to make a person's hair or skin less dark]

[2]lighten verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) less heavy, difficult, or severe ▪ lighten a burden ▪ Others helped out and lightened his load. ▪ lightening her duties around the house b [no obj] : to become less heavy, difficult, or severe ▪ His workload has lightened in recent weeks.
2 a [+ obj] : to make (something) less sad or serious ▪ He told a few jokes in an attempt to lighten her mood. ▪ lighten the atmosphere/conversation b [no obj] : to become less sad or serious ▪ Her somber mood gradually lightened [=brightened] as the weather improved.
3 [no obj] : to become less forceful ▪ The wind lightened a bit.
lighten up [phrasal verb] informal : to become more relaxed and informal : to stop being serious, worried, etc. ▪ He really needs to lighten up and relax a little. — often used as a command ▪ Lighten up (a bit) and enjoy yourself!
– compare [1]LIGHTEN

light•er /ˈlaɪtɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small device that produces a flame used for lighting something (such as a cigarette) ▪ a cigarette lighter ▪ lighter fluid [=the liquid in a lighter that is its fuel] lighter–than–air adj : able to float in the air ▪ a lighter-than-air balloon light– n •gered /ˈlaɪtˌfɪŋgəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : skillful at stealing things ▪ He discovered his wallet had been taken by some light-fingered thief.

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

light–foot•ed /ˈlaɪtˌfʊtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to move in a quick and graceful way ▪ a light-footed dancer light–head•ed /ˈlaɪtˌhɛdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unable to think and move in a normal way because of a weak and dizzy feeling ▪ I began to feel light-headed from lack of sleep. ▪ Standing up too quickly usually makes her light-headed.

– light–head•ed•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The patient complained of light-headedness. [=dizziness] light•heart•ed /ˈlaɪtˌhɑɚtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having or showing a cheerful and happy nature ▪ a light-hearted mood ▪ a lighthearted young woman
2 : not serious ▪ a lighthearted comedy – light•heart•ed•ly adv – light•heart•ed•ness noun [noncount]

light heavyweight noun, pl ~ -weights [count] : a fighter who is in a class of boxers with an upper weight limit of 175 pounds (79.5 kilograms) : a boxer who is heavier than a middleweight and lighter than a heavyweight light•house /ˈlaɪtˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a tower with a powerful light that is built on or near the shore to guide ships away from danger light industry noun [noncount] : the production of small goods that will be sold to the people who use them rather than to another manufacturer — compare HEAVY INDUSTRY

light•ing /ˈlaɪtɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 a : light that is of a particular kind or that has a particular quality ▪ He prefers natural lighting for his photography. ▪ artificial lighting ▪ The lighting wasn't bright enough. ▪ The street lighting was so dim I got lost. b : the equipment used to provide light ▪ There was a problem with the lighting. ▪ a company that sells lighting equipment
2 : the use of light for a particular purpose in a movie, play, etc. ▪ He's in charge of the lighting for the show.

light•ly /ˈlaɪtli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in a light manner: such as a : with little weight or force ▪ The rain fell lightly [=softly] on the roof. ▪ She touched his hand lightly. [=gently] ▪ The recipe says that you should beat the eggs lightly. [=gently] b : without care or concern : in a way that is not serious ▪ He talks lightly about the problems he's been having at work. ▪ This is a problem that should not be taken lightly. [=this is a problem that should be treated seriously] c : in a quick and graceful way ▪ She moved lightly across the room. d : in a small amount : to a small degree or extent ▪ lightly [=slightly] salted/roasted peanuts ▪ lightly buttered toast ▪ These vegetables can be eaten either raw or lightly cooked. ▪ a lightly populated area ▪ Our troops were armed too lightly to take on the heavily armed invaders. e : in a way that is not as harsh or severe as it could or should be ▪ Considering the harm he did, he's gotten off lightly with only a warning. ▪ The judge let her off lightly with a short sentence.

light meter noun, pl ~ meters [count] : a small device used by photographers to measure the amount of light in an area

[1]light•ning /ˈlaɪtnɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the flashes of light that are produced in the sky during a storm ▪ a bolt of lightning = a lightning bolt ▪ a flash of lightning ▪ The tree was hit/struck by lightning. = The tree was hit by a lightning strike. — compare THUNDER; see also HEAT LIGHTNING catch/capture lightning in a bottle chiefly US : to succeed in a way that is very lucky or unlikely ▪ He caught lightning in a bottle with the success of his very first book.
lightning never strikes (the same place) twice — used to say that a very unusual event is not likely to happen again to the same person or in the same place like (greased) lightning informal : very quickly ▪ The news traveled across the country like lightning. ▪ moving like greased lightning

[2]lightning adj, always used before a noun : moving or done very quickly ▪ thoughts moving at lightning speed – lightning adv — used in combination ▪ an athlete with lightning-quick reflexes ▪ making lightning-fast adjustments

lightning bug noun, pl ~ bugs [count] US : FIREFLY

lightning conductor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] Brit : LIGHTNING ROD 1 lightning rod noun, pl ~ rods [count] US

1 : a metal rod that is placed on a building and connected with the ground below to protect the building from being damaged by lightning
2 : someone or something that attracts criticism or gets blamed when things go wrong ▪ He has served well as his boss's lightning rod. [=he takes blame or criticism that might have been directed at his boss] — often + for ▪ He has long been a lightning rod for controversy/criticism. ▪ The company has become a lightning rod for the public's anger.

lightning strike noun, pl ~ strikes [count] Brit : a strike by workers that is done very suddenly light pen noun, pl ~ pens [count] computers : a device shaped like a pen that senses light signals and is used to work with information on a computer screen ▪ writing/drawing with a light pen

light pollution noun [noncount] : light from cities, vehicles, etc., that makes it difficult to see things in the sky (such as stars) at night light show noun, pl ~ shows [count] : a display of moving colored lights lights–out /ˈlaɪtsˈaʊt/ noun [noncount] : a time when people lighting

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

(such as soldiers, prisoners, or students) are required to turn out the lights and go to bed ▪ Lights-out is at 10 p.m. ▪ They have to be back before lights-out.

light•weight /ˈlaɪtˌweɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count]
1 : a fighter who is in a class of boxers weighing from 125 to 132 pounds (57 to 60 kilograms) — often used before another noun ▪ a lightweight boxer ▪ He won the lightweight title.
2 : someone or something that does not weigh as much as others — usually used before another noun ▪ lightweight paper ▪ lightweight cotton/wool/silk ▪ a lightweight jacket
3 : someone or something that has little importance or power ▪ The members of his staff were considered lightweights. ▪ an intellectual lightweight — often used before another noun ▪ He was dismissed as a lightweight artist. ▪ They asked her several lightweight questions.

light–year /ˈlaɪtˌjiɚ/ noun, pl -years
1 [count] technical : a unit of distance equal to the distance that light travels in one year (about 5.88 trillion miles or 9.46 trillion kilometers) ▪ a star about 10 light-years away
2 light-years [plural] a — used to say that someone or something is much better or more advanced than others ▪ This new technology puts the company light-years ahead [=very far ahead] of its competitors. b — used to refer to a time that is or seems very far away ▪ A cure for that disease is still probably light-years away.

lik•able or like•able /ˈlaɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easy to like : having pleasant or appealing qualities ▪ Detective Grant is the most likeable character in the novel. ▪ She seems like a friendly, likable young woman.
– lik•abil•i•ty or like•abil•i•ty /ˌlaɪkəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [non-count]

[1]like /ˈlaɪk/ verb likes; liked; lik•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to enjoy (something) : to get pleasure from (something) ▪ My son likes baseball. ▪ He likes baseball, but he loves football. ▪ Do you like Mexican food? ▪ I liked the movie a lot more than I thought I would. ▪ She likes (it) that I play the guitar. = She likes the fact that I play the guitar. ▪ She likes it when I play the guitar. [=she enjoys hearing me play the guitar] ▪ I like it very much. = I really like it. = (chiefly Brit) I quite like it. — often + -ing verb ▪ I like playing the guitar. ▪ He doesn't like admitting that he was wrong. — often followed by to + verb ▪ I like to play the guitar. ▪ He doesn't like to admit that he was wrong. b : to regard (something) in a favorable way ▪ I don't like the idea of leaving my mother alone all week. [=I don't think that it would be a good idea to leave my mother alone all week] ▪ I wouldn't like it if you got the wrong idea. = I wouldn't like you to get the wrong idea. = (US) I wouldn't like for you to get the wrong idea. [=I don't want you to get the wrong idea]
2 [+ obj] : to feel affection for (someone) : to enjoy being with (someone) ▪ I don't know what it is about that guy, but I just don't like him. ▪ I think she likes you. [=I think she is attracted to you] ▪ They were political allies who truly/genuinely liked each other. ▪ What is it that you like or dislike about him most? ▪ a much-liked/well-liked colleague ▪ She says she likes him as a friend but she's not attracted to him. ▪ My boss was a tough guy, but I liked him for his honesty.
3 [+ obj] — used to ask about someone's feelings or opinion about something ▪ So how do you like sailing now that you've tried it? [=do you like or dislike sailing?] ▪ "How do you like this weather?" "I don't like it at all!" ▪ "How do you like Mexican food?" "I love it!"
4 [+ obj] a : to want to have (something) — used with would to make a polite suggestion, offer, or request ▪ Would you like another cup of coffee? ▪ "Would anyone like a drink?" "Yes, I'd like one, please." ▪ I'd like (a chance) to reply to the last speaker. b : to want or prefer to do something ▪ Would you like to go sailing? [=do you want to go sailing?] ▪ Despite everything, I (would) still like to think that people are basically good. c — used in various spoken phrases that typically express anger or surprise ▪ She left without saying a word to me. How would you like it if someone ignored you that way? = How would you like being ignored that way? = How would you like to be ignored that way? [=don't you agree that it was wrong of her to ignore me that way?] ▪ "So she just left without saying a word. How do you like that?" "Incredible!" ▪ (Brit) "You never listen!" "I never listen? I like that!" [=that's not at all true/fair] ▪ "You're an idiot!" "How would you like a punch in the nose?!" [=I'm going to punch you in the nose if you keep talking to me that way] ▪ "He thinks he can beat you." "I'd (just) like to see him try!" [=he can't beat me; he would lose if he tried to beat me]
5 [+ obj] : to choose or prefer to have (something) in a specified way or condition ▪ "How do you like your steaks cooked?" "I like my steaks medium rare."
6 [no obj] : to make a choice about what to do, have, etc. ▪ You can leave any time you like. ▪ "What should we do now?" "Whatever you like!" [=whatever you want to do] ▪ We can stay as long as you like. [=as long as you want to stay] ▪ There are plenty of cookies, so take as many as you like.
7 [+ obj] : to do well in (certain conditions) ▪ This plant likes dry soil. ▪ My car does not like cold weather.
if you like 1 a — used to say that you can do something if you want to do it ▪ Have another drink, if you like. b — used to agree politely to a suggestion or request ▪ "Could we stay a little longer?" "Yes, if you like." [=if that's what you want to do] 2 chiefly Brit — used to suggest a possible way of describing or thinking about something ▪ The experience was, if you like [=if you will], a glimpse of the future.

[2]like noun, pl likes [count] : something that you like, approve of, or enjoy — usually plural ▪ my likes and dislikes — compare [5]LIKE

[3]like prep
1 : similar to (something or someone) ▪ The house looks like a barn. ▪ Real life isn't at all like life in the movies. = Real life isn't at all like the movies. ▪ It's like when we were kids. ▪ She's not very (much) like her sister. ▪ She's not at all like her sister. ▪ The baby is/looks more like his mother than his father. ▪ "Who is he like?" "He's not like anyone I've ever met before." ▪ I know I used to be selfish, but I'm not like that any more. [=I'm not selfish any more] — used with what in phrases that ask about or refer to the qualities of a person or thing ▪ "What's her new boyfriend like?" [=how would you describe her new boyfriend?] "He's very nice." ▪ I don't know what the food is like in that restaurant. [=I don't know if the food is good or bad in that restaurant] ▪ I thought he was nice, but then I found out what he's really like. [=I found out what kind of person he really is] ▪ She knows what it's like to be lonely. = She knows what it feels like to be lonely.
2 : typical of (someone) ▪ It's just like him to be late. [=he is often late] ▪ It's not like her to be so selfish. [=she is not usually so selfish]
3 : comparable to or close to (something) ▪ It costs something like five dollars. [=it costs about five dollars] ▪ (chiefly Brit) That's nothing like [=nowhere near, not nearly] enough food! ▪ I thought it would only take two or three minutes, but it ended up taking more like half an hour. [=it took about half an hour] ▪ There's nothing like [=nothing better than] a mug of hot chocolate on a cold winter's night.
4 : in a way that is similar to (someone or something) ▪ Quit acting like a fool. ▪ She was screaming like a maniac. ▪ We'll blow it up like a balloon. ▪ He was laughing like a hyena.
5 — used to introduce an example or series of examples ▪ They studied subjects like [=such as] physics (and chemistry).
it looks like rain — used to say that you think it is going to rain soon ▪ I was going to play golf, but it looks like rain.
just like that see [2]JUST like father, like son see [1]FATHER like new see [1]NEW like so : in the manner shown — used in speech when you are showing someone how to do something ▪ The corner of the cloth should be folded down, like so.
like that 1 : of that kind ▪ I love books like that. 2 : in that manner ▪ Why does she talk like that?
like this 1 : of this kind ▪ I love weather like this. 2 : in this manner ▪ I hate it when it rains like this.
more like it informal — used to say that something is better or more pleasing ▪ "I've done twice as much today as yesterday!" "Well, that's more like it! Congratulations!" ▪ It was a long and tiring day, but as the waiter brought me my dinner, I thought to myself, "Well, this is more like it."

[4]like adj : having the same or similar qualities ▪ All three sisters have like [=(more commonly) similar] dispositions.

[5]like noun, pl likes [count] : a person or thing that is similar to another person or thing ▪ We may never see his like again. [=we may never see another person who is like him again] ▪ It was a beautiful sunset. I've never seen the like before.; also : a group of similar people or things ▪ He and his like [=type] tend to scare people away from the cause. ▪ comparing like with like [=comparing similar people or things] and the like : and others of a similar kind : and so forth ▪ They told stories about ghosts and vampires and the like.
the likes of also the like of 1 : such people as ▪ She has read the complete works of many great writers, including the likes of Jane Austen and Robert Browning. 2 disapproving : such a person as ▪ We have no use for the likes of

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 40 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

you. 3 : the kind or sort of ▪ It was a beautiful sunset, the likes of which I've never seen before. [=I've never seen such a beautiful sunset before]
– compare ²LIKE

⁶like adv
as like as not or like as not : PROBABLY ▪ Like as not the crime will never be solved.

> usage Like has many uses in informal speech, especially in the speech of young people. It is commonly used to emphasize a word or phrase. ▪ He was, like, gorgeous. ▪ (chiefly Brit) He was gorgeous, like. It is used in a way that shows you are not sure or confident about what you are saying. ▪ I need to, like, borrow money. ▪ Her father is, like, a scientist or something. ▪ I think it costs, like, 20 dollars. In very informal speech in U.S. English, it is used with the verb be to say what someone thinks, says, etc. ▪ She was telling me what to do and I was like [=I was thinking], "Mind your own business." ▪ She was like, "Are you sure you want to do this?" and I was like "Yeah, why not?" [=she said, "Are you sure you want to do this?" and I said, "Yeah, why not?"] ▪ He's always criticizing everyone but it's like, "Who cares what he thinks?" [=he's always criticizing everyone but no one cares what he thinks]

⁷like conj, informal
1 a : the way it would be if ▪ The plane looked like [=as if] it would crash. ▪ It seemed like [=as if] he'd never been away. b : the way someone would do if ▪ She acts like [=as if] she's better than us.
2 : the same as : AS ▪ You sound just like [=the way] he does. ▪ Does it look like [=the way, as] it did when you began? ▪ Does it look now like (it did) before? [=does it look now as it did before?] ▪ Real life is not like [=as, the way] it is in the movies. ▪ Real life isn't at all like [=the way] the movies are. ▪ Like I said [=as I said] before, you've got to try harder.
3 : in the way or manner that ▪ I did it like [=the way, just as] you told me.
4 : such as ▪ a bag like a doctor carries [=a bag like the kind of bag that a doctor carries] ▪ The book tells you what to do when your car has trouble—like when it won't start. [=as, for example, when it won't start] > usage The use of like as a conjunction is regarded by some people as an error. It occurs mainly in speech and informal writing.

-like /ˌlaɪk/ adj combining form
1 : similar to or resembling ▪ a large, ape*like* man
2 : like that or those of ▪ lady*like* steps ▪ child*like* innocence ▪ a home*like* atmosphere

likeable variant spelling of LIKABLE

like•li•hood /ˈlaɪkliˌhʊd/ noun : the chance that something will happen [noncount] A poor diet increases the likelihood of (developing) serious health problems. [=a poor diet makes it more likely that you will develop serious health problems] ▪ There is no likelihood of that happening. [=there is no chance of that happening] ▪ There is every likelihood that he will be reelected. [=he will almost certainly be reelected] ▪ In all likelihood it will rain tomorrow. [=it is very likely that it will rain tomorrow] [singular] There is a strong likelihood that he will be reelected.

¹like•ly /ˈlaɪkli/ adj like•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 — used to indicate the chance that something will happen ▪ The car is likely to break down soon. = It's likely that the car will break down soon. [=there is a good chance that the car will break down soon] ▪ It is/seems highly/very likely that it will rain tomorrow. ▪ She doesn't seem likely to get the job. ▪ She may get the job, but it isn't likely. ▪ "Will she get the job?" "Not likely." [=she probably will not get the job] ▪ It's more than likely [=very probable] that this problem will occur again.
2 : seeming to be true : BELIEVABLE ▪ That seems to be the most likely explanation. ✧ The phrase a likely story is often used in an informal way to say that you do not believe what someone has said. ▪ He says he bought all that chocolate for his daughter, not himself. A likely story!
3 always used before a noun : seeming to be right or suited for a purpose ▪ This looks like a likely spot for a picnic. ▪ They regard him as a likely candidate for the job.
– like•li•ness noun [noncount]

²likely adv [more ~; most ~] : without much doubt : PROBABLY ▪ He'll very likely be late. ▪ It will most likely rain tomorrow. [=it will probably rain tomorrow] ▪ "Will it rain tomorrow?" "Most likely." ▪ She will more than likely not get the job. [=she will very probably not get the job] > usage In U.S. English, the adverb likely is often used by itself without most, quite, very, etc. ▪ He will likely [=probably] be late. ▪ It will likely rain tomorrow. This use of likely has sometimes been criticized, but it is very common. It does not occur in highly formal writing.

like•ly–look•ing /ˈlaɪkliˈlʊkɪŋ/ adj like•li•er–look•ing; like•li•est–look•ing [or more ~; most ~] : seeming to be right or suited for a purpose : LIKELY ▪ This is a likely-looking spot for a picnic.

like–mind•ed /ˈlaɪkˈmaɪndəd/ adj : having similar opinions and interests ▪ He joined a local activists' group, hoping to meet like-minded people. [=people who shared his opinions]
– like–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

lik•en /ˈlaɪkən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing liken to [phrasal verb] liken (someone or something) to (someone or something) : to describe (someone or something) as similar to (someone or something else) ▪ Some critics have likened [=compared] his writing to Faulkner's. ▪ She likened her trip to a pilgrimage.

like•ness /ˈlaɪknəs/ noun, pl -ness•es
1 [count] : a picture of a person : PORTRAIT ▪ a stamp bearing the likeness of a president ▪ The painting is a good likeness of her. [=the painting looks very much like her]
2 : the quality or state of being alike or similar especially in appearance [noncount] People always remarked on his likeness [=resemblance] to his late father. ▪ There's some likeness between them. [count] There's an uncanny likeness between them. ▪ In comparing the two documents, researchers have noted some surprising likenesses. [=similarities]

like•wise /ˈlaɪkˌwaɪz/ adv
1 : in the same way ▪ All of your classmates have begun their projects, and you should do likewise. [=you should also begin your project]
2 : in addition : ALSO ▪ an acclaimed painter who is likewise a sculptor — often used to introduce a statement that adds to and is related to a previous statement ▪ They said that homelessness was increasing. Likewise, unemployment was up.
3 — used in informal speech to say that you share the feelings that someone else has just expressed ▪ "I'm pleased to meet you." "Likewise." [=I'm also pleased to meet you]

lik•ing /ˈlaɪkɪŋ/ noun [singular] : the feeling of liking or enjoying something or someone ▪ The colors are too bright for my liking. [=I like colors that are less bright] — usually + for ▪ He has a (strong) liking for spicy foods. [=he likes spicy foods] ▪ She has a liking for loud music. ▪ She never showed any liking for him.
take a liking to : to begin to like (someone or something) ▪ He took a liking to his new neighbor. ▪ She took an immediate liking to sailing when she tried it for the first time.
to someone's liking : appealing or enjoyable to someone ▪ She reads poetry, but fiction is much more to her liking.

li•lac /ˈlaɪˌlæk, Brit ˈlaɪlək/ noun, pl -lacs 1 [count] : a type of bush with purple or white flowers that bloom in the spring
2 [noncount] : a light purple color — see color picture on page C3

lilt /ˈlɪlt/ noun [singular] : the attractive quality of speech or music that rises and falls in a pleasing pattern ▪ There was a charming lilt to her voice. ▪ a tune with a lilt
– lilt•ing /ˈlɪltɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a lilting melody ▪ a lilting voice ▪ the lilting rhythms of her speech – lilt•ing•ly adv

lily /ˈlɪli/ noun, pl lil•ies [count] : a type of plant that has large white or colorful bell-shaped flowers; also : the flower — see color picture on page C6; see also WATER LILY gild the lily see GILD

lily–liv•ered /ˈlɪliˈlɪvɚd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + old-fashioned : lacking courage : COWARDLY ▪ He considers his political enemies a bunch of lily-livered hypocrites.

lily of the valley noun, pl lilies of the valley [count] : a small plant that produces small white flowers shaped like little bells

lily pad noun, pl ~ pads [count] : a large, floating leaf of a plant (called a water lily) that grows in the water of a pond or pool

lily–white /ˈlɪliˈwaɪt/ adj
1 : very white ▪ a lily-white wedding dress ▪ lily-white skin
2 [more ~; most ~] : completely without fault or blame

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

: morally pure ▪ She's not as lily-white as you might think.
3 chiefly US, disapproving : consisting entirely or mostly of white people ▪ He grew up in a lily-white suburb in the Midwest. ▪ a TV show with a lily-white cast li•ma bean /ˈlaɪmə-, Brit ˈliːmə-/ noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a type of flat and pale green or white bean limb /ˈlɪm/ noun, pl limbs [count]

1 : a leg or arm ▪ Many soldiers died in the battle, and many lost limbs. ▪ an artificial limb ▪ a dog with an injured limb
2 : a large branch of a tree ▪ They tied a rope to one of the limbs of the maple tree. — see color picture on page C6 out on a limb : in or into a risky or dangerous position or situation ▪ She went out on a limb to help you. [=she took a chance; she did something that meant she could be criticized or harmed in some way] ▪ If you try to oppose the boss yourself, you're likely to get caught out on a limb.
risk life and limb see [1]LIFE tear (someone) limb from limb : to attack or kill (someone) in a very violent way ▪ The angry mob would have torn him limb from limb if the police hadn't protected him.
– limbed /ˈlɪmd/ adj — used in combination ▪ a strong-limbed young man [=a young man with strong arms and legs]

[1]lim•ber /ˈlɪmbɚ/ adj : bending easily : FLEXIBLE — used of people or their bodies ▪ a limber gymnast ▪ Yoga requires a limber body.

[2]limber verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing
limber up [phrasal verb] : to prepare for physical activity by doing exercises so that your body can move and bend more easily ▪ She limbered up for a few minutes before starting to run. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She limbered up for the election by learning the relevant statistics.

[1]lim•bo or Lim•bo /ˈlɪmboʊ/ noun [singular] in the Roman Catholic religion : a place where the souls of people who have not been baptized go after death in limbo 1 : in a forgotten or ignored place, state, or situation ▪ orphaned children left in limbo in foster homes and institutions 2 : in an uncertain or undecided state or condition ▪ After graduating from college, he was in limbo for a while, trying to decide what to do next.
– compare [2]LIMBO

[2]limbo noun [noncount] : a dance or contest in which you have to bend backward and go under a bar which is lowered further after each time you go under it ▪ do/dance the limbo ▪ a limbo dancer — compare [1]LIMBO

[1]lime /ˈlaɪm/ noun, pl limes
1 : a small green fruit that is related to the lemon and orange and has a sour taste [count] The recipe calls for the juice of two limes. [noncount] a slice of lime — often used before another noun ▪ lime juice ▪ lime trees — see color picture on page C5
2 [noncount] : LIME GREEN
– compare [2]LIME, [3]LIME

[2]lime noun [noncount] : a white substance that is made by heating limestone or shells and that is used in various products (such as plaster and cement) and in farming ▪ He spread lime over the garden to make the soil less acidic. — compare [1]LIME, [3]LIME
– lime /ˈlaɪm/ verb limes; limed; lim•ing [+ obj] ▪ lime a garden [=spread lime on a garden]

[3]lime noun, pl limes [count] chiefly Brit : a type of European tree : LINDEN — compare [1]LIME, [2]LIME

lime green noun [noncount] : a bright, light yellowish-green color — see color picture on page C2
– lime–green adj ▪ wearing a lime-green shirt

lime•light /ˈlaɪmˌlaɪt/ noun
the limelight : public attention or notice thought of as a bright light that shines on someone ▪ She is a very private woman who never sought the limelight. [=who has never sought to be famous] ▪ She has shunned the limelight. ▪ When his new book caused an unexpected controversy, he was thrust into the limelight once again. [=he was given a lot of unwanted public attention] ▪ an actor who is used to being in the limelight ▪ He doesn't like having to share the limelight with other actors. ▪ He's always trying to grab/steal the limelight from other actors.

lim•er•ick /ˈlɪmərɪk/ noun, pl -icks [count] : a humorous rhyming poem of five lines

lime•stone /ˈlaɪmˌstoʊn/ noun [noncount] : a type of white stone that is commonly used in building lim•ey /ˈlaɪmi/ noun, pl -eys [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : a British person ✧ Limey can be an insulting word but it is now usually used in a joking way.

[1]lim•it /ˈlɪmət/ noun, pl -its [count]
1 : a point beyond which it is not possible to go ▪ He has reached the limit of his endurance. ▪ In training, she pushed her body to its physical limits. ▪ He tries to be creative within the limits of conventional journalism. ▪ Space travel tests the (outer) limits of human capabilities. ▪ It's important to exercise, but you need to know your limits. [=you need to know how much you are able to do] ▪ I'm trying to be patient with him, but I've just about reached my limit. [=reached the point where I can no longer be patient] ▪ There are limits to what I can put up with from him! ▪ There's no limit to what we can accomplish [=we can accomplish anything] if we work hard enough. ▪ There seems to be no limit to his enthusiasm. = His enthusiasm seems to know no limit(s).
2 : a point beyond which someone is not allowed to go ▪ Parents need to set limits for their children. = Parents need to set/place/impose limits on (the behavior of) their children. ▪ They must not go beyond these limits. = They must not exceed these limits.
3 : an amount or number that is the highest or lowest allowed ▪ Two drinks is my limit. [=I stop after having two drinks] ▪ When you take the test, you'll have a time limit. [=you will have to complete the test within a certain amount of time] ▪ The lower age limit for voting is 18. [=you cannot vote unless you are at least 18 years old] — see also OFF-LIMITS, SPEED LIMIT
4 : an area or line that is at the outer edge of something — usually plural ▪ There are three high schools within the city limits. [=within the city] ▪ They ventured far beyond the limits of civilization. ▪ at the outer limits of the solar system over the limit Brit : having more alcohol in the blood than is legally allowed for someone who is driving ▪ He was arrested for driving over the limit.
the limit informal + old-fashioned : a very annoying or upsetting person or thing ▪ He keeps forgetting his wife's birthday: he really is the limit! [=too much] ▪ He forgot his wife's birthday again. Isn't that the limit!
the sky's the limit — used to say that there are no limits and that anything is possible ▪ You can achieve anything if you really want to. The sky's the limit.
to the limit : to the greatest possible point : as much as possible ▪ Our resources have been stretched to the limit. [=we have used all of our resources] ▪ My schedule is filled to the limit. [=my schedule is completely filled] within limits : without going beyond what is considered reasonable or allowable ▪ They told us that we could do whatever we liked, within (certain) limits.
without limit : without being controlled or stopped : without being limited ▪ allowing costs to increase without limit

[2]limit verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop or prevent an increase in (something) ▪ We need to find ways to limit expenses. : to keep (something) from becoming greater ▪ He tried to limit the damage to his reputation by blaming other people. ▪ A factor limiting our country's economic performance is its lack of resources. ▪ His political enemies have tried to limit [=restrict] his power.
2 : to prevent (something) from being larger, longer, more, etc. : to place a limit on the size or extent of (something) ▪ The hospital limits [=restricts] visits to 30 minutes. ▪ Our lack of money limits our options. — often used (be) limited to ▪ Visits are limited to 30 minutes. [=visits must not be longer than 30 minutes] ▪ The damage from the fire was limited to the rear of the building. [=only the rear of the building was damaged by the fire]
3 : to stop (someone) from having or doing more : to place a limit on (someone) ▪ Our lack of money limits [=restricts] us to fewer options. ▪ Because of our lack of money, we have to limit ourselves to fewer options. — often used as (be) limited to ▪ Guests are limited to visits of no longer than 30 minutes. ▪ We are limited to fewer options by our lack of money.

lim•i•ta•tion /ˌlɪməˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of controlling the size or extent of something : the act of limiting something ▪ a law aimed at the limitation of federal power
2 [count] : something that controls how much of something is possible or allowed ▪ They have placed a limitation on the amount of time we have available. — often plural ▪ There are strict limitations on the uses of these funds. ▪ We'd like to include more material, but space limitations make that impossible.
3 [count] : something (such as a lack of ability or strength)

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

that controls what a person is able to do ▪ He knows his limitations. ▪ physical limitations

damage limitation see [1]DAMAGE

lim•it•ed /ˈlɪmətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not high or great in number, amount, etc. ▪ Only a limited number of students will be allowed in the class. ▪ Our country has very limited resources. = Our country is very limited in its resources. ▪ People with limited incomes are hit particularly hard by inflation. ▪ The company has had limited success. ▪ Her language skills are somewhat limited. [=are not very highly developed] ▪ This offer is available for only a limited time. [=for only a short time] limited edition noun, pl ~ -tions [count] : a special book, picture, medal, etc., for which only a small number of copies are produced and sold lim•it•ing /ˈlɪmətɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : placing a limit on what is possible or allowed ▪ A limiting factor on our country's economic performance is its lack of resources. ▪ As a writer, I find the drama genre to be very limiting.

lim•it•less /ˈlɪmətləs/ adj : very great or large : having no limit ▪ limitless possibilities ▪ a seemingly limitless supply of material

limo /ˈlɪmoʊ/ noun, pl lim•os [count] informal : LIMOUSINE

lim•ou•sine /ˌlɪməˈzi:n/ noun, pl -sines [count]
1 : a very large and comfortable car usually driven by a professional driver (called a chauffeur) ▪ The bride and groom rode in a limousine from the church to the reception hall. — see picture at CAR
2 chiefly US : a vehicle (such as a bus or van) that carries passengers to and from an airport

[1]limp /ˈlɪmp/ verb limps; limped; limp•ing [no obj]
1 : to walk in a slow and awkward way because of an injury to a leg or foot ▪ The injured player limped off the court. ▪ The dog was limping slightly.
2 : to go or continue slowly or with difficulty ▪ The damaged ship limped back to port. ▪ The company has somehow managed to limp along despite the bad economy.

[2]limp noun, pl limps [count] : a slow and awkward way of walking caused by an injury to a leg or foot ▪ We noticed that the dog was walking with a slight limp. ▪ a noticeable/pronounced limp

[3]limp adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having an unpleasantly soft or weak quality : not firm or stiff ▪ He gave me a very limp handshake. ▪ This plant isn't doing well—look how limp the leaves are. ▪ Her hair hung limp around her shoulders. ▪ I suddenly went limp and collapsed on the floor.
2 : feeling very tired ▪ He was limp with fatigue.
– limp•ly adv ▪ He let his hand hang limply off the couch. ▪ Her hair hung limply around her shoulders. – limp•ness noun [noncount]

lim•pet /ˈlɪmpət/ noun, pl -pets [count] : a type of ocean animal that has a shell and that is able to attach itself to things (such as rocks) very tightly lim•pid /ˈlɪmpəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] literary 1 : perfectly clear : TRANSPARENT ▪ the limpid waters of the stream ▪ limpid eyes

2 : clear and simple in style ▪ limpid prose

linch•pin also lynch•pin /ˈlɪnʧˌpɪn/ noun, pl -pins [count] : a person or thing that holds something together : the most important part of a complex situation or system ▪ This witness is the linchpin of the defense's case.

lin•den /ˈlɪndən/ noun, pl -dens [count] : a type of tree that has large heart-shaped leaves and yellowish flowers — called also (chiefly Brit) lime

[1]line /ˈlaɪn/ noun, pl lines
1 [count] a : a long narrow mark on a surface ▪ I drew a straight line down the page to separate the two lists. ▪ a curved line ▪ Cut the paper along the dotted line. ▪ a horizontal/vertical/diagonal line b : a mark on the ground that shows the edge of the playing area in a sport ▪ a tennis serve that was over the line — see also FINISH LINE, FOUL LINE, GOAL LINE, STARTING LINE
2 [count] : an area or border that separates two places ▪ property lines ▪ After three hours on the road, they finally crossed the state line. ▪ the town line — often used figuratively ▪ They have overstepped the line of good taste. [=they have shown poor taste in their actions] ▪ The community is divided along racial lines. [=people of different races do not like or agree with each other] ▪ Their behavior has crossed the line. [=their behavior goes beyond what is acceptable] ▪ There's sometimes only a very fine line [=a very small difference] between genius and madness. — see also BORDERLINE, DIVIDING LINE, INTERNATIONAL DATE LINE, POVERTY LINE
3 [count] a : a group of people or things that are next to each other in a row ▪ The soldiers formed a line. = The soldiers got into a line. ▪ Their yards were separated by a line of trees. b US : a group of people, vehicles, etc., that are in front of and behind each other in a row while they wait to move forward ▪ The line [=(chiefly Brit) queue] of fans moved slowly toward the box office. ▪ Everybody had to get in line and wait their turn. ▪ The people were waiting/standing in line. ✧ In most areas of the U.S., it is usual to say that people are (waiting/standing) in line for something. ▪ We waited in line for more than an hour to get tickets. In some areas, especially in and near New York City, on line is used instead. ▪ We waited on line for more than an hour.
4 [count] : the outline of a figure, body, or surface — often plural ▪ the car's sleek lines ▪ the lines of a coat ▪ a dress with figure-hugging lines
5 [count] : a long and thin rope, string, etc. ▪ a fishing line ▪ We hung the wet clothes on the line. [=clothesline]
6 [count] a : a pipe for carrying something (such as steam, water, or oil) ▪ There was a break in the water line. — see also PIPELINE b : a wire or set of wires that carries electricity or a telephone signal ▪ During the storm, several power lines were knocked down. ▪ a telephone line
7 [count] : a telephone connection ▪ I'm sorry, the line is busy/engaged. ▪ The line suddenly went dead. ▪ All of our lines are currently busy. Please hold. ▪ There's a call for you on line 2. ▪ Please hold the line. [=please do not hang up the phone] ▪ Mr. Smith is on the line. [=Mr. Smith has called and is waiting to speak with you on the telephone] ▪ The supervisor got on the line [=got on the phone] and explained the problem. ▪ I wasn't able to get him on the line.
8 a [count] : a row of words, letters, numbers, or symbols written across a page ▪ To save space, we'll cut out the last few lines of the article. ▪ a line of poetry ▪ making adjustments to line spacing [=to the amount of space between lines]; also : a space on a page where such a line could be placed ▪ a blank line b lines [plural] : the words that an actor speaks in a play, movie, etc. ▪ All of the actors should have their lines memorized by next Friday. ▪ She fluffed some of her lines but delivered others well. c [count] : a short note or message ▪ Drop me a line [=send me a brief message] while you're away. d [count] : a spoken or written comment ▪ He always comes up with a funny/clever line to help people relax when the situation is tense. ▪ He didn't really answer my question—he just handed/gave me some line about how hard it can be to deal with these issues. ▪ a salesman with a smooth line [=a smooth way of talking] ▪ (US) a guy with a clever pickup line = (Brit) a guy with a clever chat-up line [=a comment made by a man to start a conversation with a woman he is attracted to]
9 [count] : a wrinkle on a person's skin ▪ the deep lines on his face ▪ I noticed the fine lines around her eyes when she smiled. ▪ a worry line [=a wrinkle on a person's face caused by worrying]
10 [count] : the path along which something moves or is directed ▪ a bullet's line of flight ▪ Some civilians got caught in the line of fire. [=they were in the place where bullets were being shot] ▪ She was standing right in my line of sight/vision. [=she was standing right where I was looking]
11 [count] : a railroad track ▪ The train was stopped because a tree had fallen across the line.
12 [count] : PRODUCTION LINE ▪ They had to shut down the line when one of the machines broke down.
13 a [singular] : a series of similar things ▪ This is just the latest in a long line of problems. b [count] : the people in a family : the series of people who are born in a family as years pass ▪ She comes from a long line of farmers. [=there have been many farmers in her family in the past] ▪ He claims that he is descended from a royal line.
14 [count] a : a way of behaving, thinking, etc. ▪ He took a firm line with his son. [=he treated his son in a firm way] ▪ I don't follow your line of reasoning. [=I don't understand the reasoning behind what you are saying] ▪ The police are pursuing a new line of inquiry/investigation. ▪ Our current method isn't working. We need to try a different line of attack. — see also HARD LINE b : an official or public position or opinion ▪ He is a politician who has always adhered closely to the party line on just about everything. [=who has always supported the position taken by his political party]
15 [count] : an area of activity or interest ▪ She got a job in the retail line. ▪ That kind of thing isn't really in my line.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

[=that kind of thing doesn't really interest me] ▪ He's in a dangerous line of work. [=he has a dangerous job] ▪ I don't know what line of business she's in. ▪ a soldier/policeman/fireman who was killed in the line of duty [=was killed while doing his job]

16 [count] : the position of military forces who are facing the enemy ▪ The enemy soldiers broke through the line. ▪ a secret mission behind enemy lines [=a secret mission in an area controlled by the enemy] — see also FRONT LINE

17 [count] : a group of related products that are sold by one company ▪ a line of clothing = a clothing line ▪ The company is coming out with a new product line.

18 [count] a : a system used for moving people or things from one place to another ▪ a bus line ▪ a steamship line ▪ military supply lines; also : a company that owns or controls such a system ▪ He owns a trucking line. — see also AIRLINE b : a system that allows people to share information ▪ We need to keep the lines of communication open.

19 lines [plural] — used in phrases like along the lines of to refer to something that is similar or close to the thing being mentioned ▪ We need something along the lines of a small cart. = We need a small cart or something along those/similar lines. [=we need a small cart or something like that] ▪ He said he was too busy to help, or something along those lines.

20 [count] American football a : LINE OF SCRIMMAGE b : the players who are positioned on the line of scrimmage ▪ the defensive/offensive line

21 [count] : an amount of an illegal drug (such as cocaine) that is arranged in a thin line so that it can be breathed into the nose through a straw ▪ a line of cocaine along the line informal : during a process or series of events ▪ He seems to have lost his interest in music somewhere along the line. [=at some time in the past]

cross the line see [2]CROSS

down the line informal : in the future ▪ If you don't finish school, you'll regret it down the line. ▪ We'll have to correct these problems further down the line.

draw a/the line 1 : to see or understand the difference between things ▪ Where do you draw the line between what is good and bad art? ▪ It is sometimes hard to draw a line between right and wrong. 2 : to refuse to do or allow something : to set a limit — usually + at ▪ We couldn't invite everyone so we drew the line at immediate family members only. ▪ He helps me out a lot but draws the line at cleaning the bathroom.

fall in/into line see [1]FALL

get/have a line on US, informal : to get or have information about (someone or something that you are trying to find) ▪ Have the police managed to get a line on any of the suspects? ▪ She says she has a line on a new car.

hold the line : to not allow any more changes or increases — usually + against or on ▪ We need to hold the line against further expansion into our territory. ▪ The President has vowed to hold the line on tax increases. [=to not allow further tax increases] — see also [1]LINE 7 (above)

hook, line, and sinker see [1]HOOK

in line 1 — used to say that someone should get something or is likely to get something ▪ He's in line for a promotion. = He's in line to get a promotion. [=he is going to be given a promotion] 2 — used to refer to a person or thing that follows or could follow another person or thing ▪ The Vice President is first in line to succeed the President. 3 : doing what other people want or expect : in a state of agreement or cooperation ▪ He says he'll cooperate, but I don't know how much longer we can keep him in line. — see also [1]LINE 3b (above)

in line with : in agreement with ▪ The new policy is in line with the plans that were discussed last year. ▪ My thinking is in line with yours. [=my thinking agrees with yours] ▪ The red one is more in line with what I had in mind. [=is more like what I had in mind]

into line : into a state of agreement or cooperation ▪ It was difficult to get/bring everyone into line. [=to get everyone to agree] lay it on the line informal : to speak very honestly and directly to someone ▪ Let me lay it on the line (to/for you): if your work doesn't improve, you'll be fired.

on line : in or into operation ▪ The new system will be coming on line next month. = The new system will be brought on line next month. [=the new system will begin working next month] — see also [1]LINE 3b (above), ONLINE on the line : in danger of being lost or harmed : at risk ▪ I have to finish this report by tomorrow. My job is on the line. [=I will lose my job if I don't finish this report by tomorrow] ▪ The champ's title is on the line in this fight. [=he will lose the title if he loses the fight] ▪ He put/laid his life on the line [=he risked his life] for his family.

out of line informal : beyond what is reasonable or allowable : not right or appropriate ▪ Your behavior is out of line. ▪ These prices are way out of line with what other stores are charging. ▪ I can't believe that guy was so rude to you! He was really/way out of line. — see also step out of line at [2]STEP read between the lines see [1]READ

take/follow the line of least resistance see RESISTANCE

the end of the line see [1]END

toe the line see [2]TOE

– see also BOTTOM LINE, STORY LINE

[2]line verb lines; lined; lin•ing

1 [+ obj] : to place or form a line along (something, such as a hallway, building, or street) ▪ Students lined the hall, waiting to register for classes. ▪ Shops line the street. = The street is lined with shops. [=there is a line of shops along the street] ▪ a street lined with trees = a tree-lined street — see also LINED

2 baseball : to hit a line drive [no obj] He lined to center field. ▪ He lined out to the shortstop. [=he hit a line drive that was caught by the shortstop for an out] [+ obj] She lined a single to left field. [=she hit a line drive into left field for a single] line up [phrasal verb] 1 : to form a line ▪ The soldiers lined up for inspection. ▪ (US) People lined up [=(chiefly Brit) queued up] at the theater waiting to buy tickets. 2 line (people or things) up or line up (people or things) : to put (people or things) into a line ▪ The teacher lined up the children. ▪ The soldiers were lined up for inspection. ▪ The storekeeper carefully lined up the cans on the shelf. ▪ (US) People were lined up [=(chiefly Brit) queued up] at the theater waiting to buy tickets. 3 line (things) up or line up (things) : to place (things) so that their edges form a straight line : ALIGN ▪ line up (the edges of) two pieces of paper 4 line (something) up or line up (something) : to succeed in getting (something) ▪ He has been trying to line up support for his proposal. ▪ She managed to line up a summer job.

– compare [3]LINE

[3]line verb lines; lined; lin•ing

[+ obj] : to cover the inner surface of (something) ▪ I lined the box with paper. ▪ Tapestries lined the walls. ▪ Her gloves were lined with fur. ▪ Books lined the walls of the study. = The study was lined with books. — see also LINED, LINING line your pockets informal : to take or get a lot of money by doing something illegal or dishonest ▪ corrupt officials who have been lining their pockets at the public's expense [=have been stealing public money]

– compare [2]LINE

lin•e•age /ˈlɪnijɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es [count, noncount] : the people who were in someone's family in past times ▪ a person of unknown lineage [=ancestry, descent]

lin•e•al /ˈlɪnijəl/ adj : having a direct family relationship : related by a direct series of parents and children ▪ He claims that he is a lineal descendent of a famous military hero. ▪ a lineal ancestor

– lin•eal•ly adv

lin•e•a•ments /ˈlɪnijəmənts/ noun [plural] formal + literary : the features of a person's body or face — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the lineaments [=features] of his personality ▪ describing the lineaments of the problem

lin•e•ar /ˈlɪnijɚ/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] a : formed by lines : made up of lines ▪ a linear design b : forming a line : STRAIGHT ▪ a flat, almost linear horizon

2 : of or relating to the length of something ▪ linear measurements

3 [more ~; most ~] : going from one thing to the next thing in a direct and logical way ▪ a linear narrative ▪ linear patterns of thought

– lin•e•ar•i•ty /ˌlɪniˈerəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the linearity of the narrative – lin•e•ar•ly adv ▪ thinking linearly

line•back•er /ˈlaɪnˌbækɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] American football : a player on the defending team whose usual position is a short distance in back of the line of scrimmage

lined /ˈlaɪnd/ adj

1 : marked with lines ▪ a sheet of lined paper

2 : having many wrinkles ▪ a deeply lined face ▪ lined skin

3 of clothing : having a thin layer of different material on the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

inner surface : having a lining ▪ a lined jacket ▪ a lined skirt line dance noun, pl ~ dances [count] : a dance done by a group of people who stand next to each other in a line and who all perform the same movements – line dancer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – line dancing noun [noncount] line drawing noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : a drawing made only with lines line drive noun, pl ~ drives [count] baseball : a ball that is hit by the batter and goes in a nearly straight line not far above the ground ▪ He hit a hard/soft line drive to the shortstop.

line–item veto noun [singular] US : a power that allows a president, governor, etc., to officially reject specific parts of a proposed bill without rejecting the entire bill line•man /ˈlaɪnmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

1 American football : a player whose position is on the line of scrimmage ▪ a defensive lineman ▪ an offensive lineman
2 US : a person whose job is to set up and repair power lines or telephone lines

lin•en /ˈlɪnən/ noun, pl -ens
1 [noncount] : a smooth, strong cloth made from flax ▪ a linen tablecloth
2 : tablecloths, sheets, etc., made of linen or a similar cloth [noncount] She washes the linen every week. ▪ (US) a linen closet = (Brit) a linen cupboard [plural] linens, blankets, and towels — see also BED LINENS, TABLE LINEN line of credit noun, pl lines of credit [count] : an amount of money that a person is allowed to borrow ▪ a line of credit of up to $100,000 — called also credit line

line of scrimmage noun [singular] American football : an imaginary line that goes across the field at the place where the football is put before each play begins

[1]lin•er /ˈlaɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a large ship used for carrying passengers ▪ an ocean liner ▪ I took a cruise on a luxury liner. ▪ a cruise/passenger liner
2 baseball : LINE DRIVE ▪ He hit a liner to the first baseman.
– compare [2]LINER; see also AIRLINER, EYELINER

[2]liner noun, pl -ers [count] : something that covers the inner surface of another thing ▪ the liner of a jacket ▪ We had to replace the swimming pool liner. ▪ The thermos has an aluminum liner. — compare [1]LINER

liner notes noun [plural] chiefly US : information about a record, CD, or tape that is printed on its cover or on a piece of paper placed inside its cover — called also (Brit) sleeve notes

lines•man /ˈlaɪnzmən/ noun, pl -men [count] : an official in a sport such as football, tennis, or hockey who decides if a ball, puck, or player has gone out of the proper playing area

line•up /ˈlaɪnˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]
1 a : a list of the players who are playing in a game (such as baseball) ▪ The manager has made some changes to the starting lineup. [=the list of players who are playing when the game begins] b : the players on such a list ▪ The team has a powerful lineup.
2 a : a group of people who are going to perform at an event ▪ the show's star-studded lineup (of performers) b : a group of television programs that are shown one after another ▪ tonight's lineup of shows ▪ The networks all had different lineups for the new season.
3 US : a line of people who stand next to each other while someone tries to identify one of them as the person who has committed a crime ▪ She was asked to pick her attacker out of a lineup. — called also (Brit) identification parade, (Brit) identity parade

-ling /lɪŋ/ noun suffix
1 : one connected with or having the quality of ▪ nest*ling* ▪ earth*ling* ▪ weak*ling*
2 : young, small, or minor one ▪ duck*ling*

lin•ger /ˈlɪŋgɚ/ verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [no obj]
1 : to stay somewhere beyond the usual or expected time ▪ The tourists didn't linger very long. ▪ She lingered at the art exhibit. ▪ He lingered in bed and missed breakfast. ▪ They lingered over coffee after dinner.
2 a : to continue to exist as time passes ▪ The heat lingered long after the sun had gone down. ▪ The smell of her perfume lingered. ▪ The idea lingered in their minds. — often + on ▪ His unhappiness/resentment lingered on. ▪ The rain lingered on for days. b : to remain alive while becoming weaker — usually + on ▪ He was very ill, but he lingered on for several more months.
– lin•ger•er /ˈlɪŋgərɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ After sunset there were a few lingerers on the beach. – lin•ger•ing /ˈlɪŋgərɪŋ/ adj ▪ This latest evidence should remove any lingering doubts/questions about his innocence. ▪ The company is still trying to recover from the lingering effects of the strike. ▪ a long, lingering kiss ▪ a last, lingering look ▪ He suffered a long, lingering [=very slow] death. – lin•ger•ing•ly /ˈlɪŋgərɪŋli/ adv

lin•ge•rie /ˌlɑːnʤəˈreɪ, Brit ˈlænʒəri/ noun [noncount] : women's underwear and clothing that is worn in bed — often used before another noun ▪ a lingerie shop ▪ the lingerie department in a store

lin•go /ˈlɪŋgoʊ/ noun, pl -goes informal
1 [count] : a language ▪ a foreign lingo ▪ It can be hard to travel in a foreign country if you don't speak the lingo.
2 : the special language used for a particular activity or by a particular group of people [count] — usually singular ▪ Basketball has a distinct lingo. ▪ He's starting to pick up the lingo. ▪ She doesn't practice law anymore, but she can still speak the lingo. [noncount] The book has a lot of computer lingo that I don't understand.

lin•gua fran•ca /ˈlɪŋgwəˈfræŋkə/ noun, pl lin•gua fran•cas or lin•guae fran•cae /ˈlɪŋgwiˈfræŋki/ [count] : a language that is used among people who speak various different languages ▪ English is used as a lingua franca among many airline pilots.

lin•gui•ne or lin•gui•ni /lɪŋˈgwiːni/ noun [noncount] : a type of pasta that is long, thin, and flat

lin•guist /ˈlɪŋgwɪst/ noun, pl -guists [count]
1 : a person who speaks several languages
2 : a person who studies linguistics lin•guis•tic /lɪŋˈgwɪstɪk/ adj : of or relating to language or linguistics ▪ linguistic differences/development ▪ learning about linguistic theory

– lin•guis•ti•cal•ly /lɪŋˈgwɪstɪkli/ adv

lin•guis•tics /lɪŋˈgwɪstɪks/ noun [noncount] : the study of language and of the way languages work

lin•i•ment /ˈlɪnəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] : a liquid that is rubbed on your skin to relieve pain or stiffness in your muscles

lin•ing /ˈlaɪnɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : material that covers the inner surface of something ▪ The coat had a soft lining. ▪ gloves with silk linings ▪ brake linings ▪ the lining of the bladder/stomach ▪ intestinal lining — see also SILVER LINING

[1]link /ˈlɪŋk/ verb links; linked; link•ing
1 a : to join or connect (two or more things, places, etc.) together [+ obj] A bridge links the island to the mainland. ▪ The rooms are linked by hallways. ▪ He drew a line linking New York and/with/to Los Angeles on the map. ▪ She linked (up) the paper clips to form a chain. ▪ The elderly couple linked arms [=kept their bent arms hooked together at the elbow] as they walked down the street. [no obj] The pipe links (up) to/with the main gas line. b : to connect (someone or something) to a system, network, etc. [+ obj] The network links several terminals. ▪ The computer is linked with/to the fax machine. ▪ providing equipment to link (up) students to the Internet [no obj] Guests can link (up) to the Internet from their hotel rooms.
2 a [+ obj] : to show or prove that a person or thing is related to or involved with something ▪ The study links high cholesterol levels to/with an increased risk of heart attacks. ▪ The police said that they have evidence linking him to these crimes. b ✧ A thing or person that is linked to/with something is connected or related to it in some way. ▪ High cholesterol is linked to an increased risk of heart attacks. ▪ He denied that his business partner was in any way linked to the theft. ▪ Scientists have discovered a gene that is linked to/with [=involved in] the development of Alzheimer's disease. ▪ Your raise is linked to your job performance. [=your raise is related to your job performance; the size of your raise is related to how well you do your job] ▪ He argues that poverty is directly/indirectly linked to/with certain health problems. ▪ My fate is inextricably linked to hers. = Our fates are inextricably linked.
3 : to cause (different groups, countries, etc.) to be joined together [+ obj] The marriage of their children has linked the two families. ▪ These countries are linked in a loose confederation. [no obj] Her company recently linked (up) with three others to form a multinational association.

[2]link noun, pl links [count]
1 a : a relationship or connection between things ▪ Their research shows a link between high cholesterol and an increased risk of heart attacks. [=shows that high cholesterol

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

causes an increased risk of heart attacks] ▪ Police have discovered/established a direct link between the two murders. b : a relationship between people, groups, nations, etc. ▪ The government has established/forged trade links with other countries. ▪ She felt a strong link with/to her ancestors. 2 a : something that allows movement from one place to another ▪ The bridge was the island's link to the mainland. ▪ There are plans to build a rail link from the airport to the city. b : something that allows two or more people or things to communicate with each other ▪ A radio was his only link to the outside world. ▪ a satellite/video link c : HYPERLINK ▪ His Web site includes links to other sites. 3 : a single part of a chain ▪ The chain broke at its weakest link. — often used figuratively ▪ an important link in the chain of events [=an important event in a series of related events] ▪ It is the weak link [=the least strong or successful part] in the company's line of products. ▪ the weakest link in a computer network [=the part of a computer network that is most likely to fail] 4 US : a long, narrow piece of sausage in a series of connected pieces; also : a small sausage that is long and narrow – see also CUFF LINK, LINKS, MISSING LINK

link•age /ˈlɪŋkɪʤ/ noun, pl -ag•es 1 : a connection or relationship between two or more things [count] linkages between population growth and disease [noncount] Some researchers doubt that there is any linkage between these phenomena. [=they doubt that these phenomena are connected or related] 2 [count] : a part that connects two or more things ▪ repairing a broken linkage linking verb noun, pl ~ verbs [count] grammar : a verb (such as appear, be, become, feel, grow, or seem) that connects a subject with an adjective or noun that describes or identifies the subject ▪ "Look" in "you look happy" and "are" in "my favorite fruits are apples and oranges" are linking verbs. — compare ACTION VERB links /ˈlɪŋks/ noun, pl links [count] : a golf course ▪ On Saturday morning, he's always out on the links.; especially : a golf course that is next to the ocean ▪ a seaside links link•up /ˈlɪŋkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups 1 [count, noncount] : the act of joining or connecting two things ▪ The maneuver will be done following (the) linkup of the two spacecraft. 2 [count] : a connection that allows two or more people or things to communicate with each other ▪ The interview will be broadcast nationally through a satellite linkup. ▪ A direct telephone linkup has been established.

lin•net /ˈlɪnət/ noun, pl -nets [count] : a small European bird that is a kind of finch

li•no /ˈlaɪnoʊ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : LINOLEUM

li•no•leum /ləˈnoʊlijəm/ noun [noncount] : a type of material that is produced in thin sheets, has a shiny surface, and is used to cover floors and counters lin•seed /ˈlɪnˌsi:d/ noun [noncount] : the seed of the flax plant linseed oil noun [noncount] : a yellowish oil from the seeds of the flax plant that is used in paint, printing ink, etc.

lint /ˈlɪnt/ noun [noncount] 1 chiefly US : tiny pieces of cloth or another soft material ▪ I always have lint in my pocket. ▪ The clothes dryer was clogged with lint. 2 Brit : a soft material that is used for covering and protecting cuts and wounds lin•tel /ˈlɪntl/ noun, pl -tels [count] : a piece of wood or stone that lies across the top of a door or window and holds the weight of the structure above it

li•on /ˈlajən/ noun, pl -ons [count] 1 : a large wild cat that has golden brown fur and that lives mainly in Africa ▪ the roar of the lion ✧ The male lion has long, dark hair called a "mane" growing around its neck. — see picture at CAT; see also MOUNTAIN LION, SEA LION 2 : a very important, powerful, or successful person ▪ He was a literary lion among the writers of his time. ▪ a social lion

li•on•ess /ˈlajənəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] : a female lion li•on•heart•ed /ˈlajənˌhɑəˈtəd/ adj : very brave ▪ a lion-hearted hero

li•on•ize also Brit li•on•ise /ˈlajəˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to treat (someone) as a very important and famous person ▪ She was lionized everywhere after her novel won the Pulitzer Prize. – li•on•i•za•tion also Brit -i•sa•tion /ˌlajənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌlajəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] lion's den noun [singular] : a place or situation in which someone must deal with an angry person or group of people ▪ He knew that he would be facing an angry crowd, but he entered the lion's den without hesitating.

lion's share noun [noncount] : the largest part of something ▪ He took the lion's share of the blame [=most of the blame] for the accident. ▪ She claimed the lion's share of the credit for the show's success.

lip /ˈlɪp/ noun, pl lips 1 [count] : either one of the two soft parts that surround the mouth ▪ the lower/upper lip ▪ thin/thick/full lips ▪ He had a cut on his lip. ▪ He kissed her (right) on the lips. ▪ She was nervously biting her lip. ▪ She had a smile on her lips. [=she was smiling] — see picture at MOUTH; see also stiff upper lip at [1]STIFF 2 [count] : the edge of a cut or hole ▪ the lips of a wound ▪ the lip of a crater 3 [count] : the edge of a container especially where it is slightly spread out ▪ the lip of a pitcher 4 [noncount] informal : rude speech in reply to someone who should be spoken to with respect ▪ Don't give me any of your lip! [=don't talk to me in that disrespectful way]

button your lip/lips see [2]BUTTON fat lip see [1]FAT lick your lips see [1]LICK
my lips are sealed informal — used to say that you will not tell secret information to anyone ▪ Your secret is safe with me: my lips are sealed.
on everyone's/everybody's lips informal : being said or discussed by many people ▪ The celebrity murder trial was on everyone's lips.
on the lips of informal : being said or discussed by (people) ▪ trendy words on the lips of talk show hosts ▪ a topic that is on the lips of many people pass your lips see [1]PASS read lips see [1]READ smack your lips see [1]SMACK
zip your lip see [1]ZIP

lip•id /ˈlɪpəd/ noun, pl -ids [count] technical : any one of various substances that contain fat and that are important parts of living cells

li•po•suc•tion /ˈlaɪpəˌsʌkʃən/ noun [noncount] medical : a kind of surgery that removes fat from a person's body lipped /ˈlɪpt/ adj : having lips of a specified type — used in combination with another adjective ▪ a thin-lipped man [=a man with thin lips] — see also TIGHT-LIPPED lip•py /ˈlɪpi/ adj lip•pi•er; -est informal : speaking in a rude way that shows a lack of respect ▪ lippy kids ▪ Don't get lippy with me.

lip–read /ˈlɪpˌri:d/ verb -reads; -read /-ˌrɛd/; -read•ing /-ˌri:dɪŋ/ : to understand what people are saying by watching the movement of their lips [no obj] a deaf person who knows how to lip-read [=read lips] [+ obj] He was lip-reading the conversation. – lip–read•er /ˈlɪpˌri:dɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a skillful lip-reader – lip–reading noun [noncount] lip service noun [noncount] : support for someone or something that is expressed by someone in words but that is not shown in that person's actions ▪ She paid/gave/offered lip service to blue-collar workers, but she did nothing to help them. ▪ So far all we've gotten from him is lip service.

lip•stick /ˈlɪpˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count, noncount] : a type of makeup that is spread on the lips and that comes in the form of a stick ▪ She was wearing bright red lipstick. ▪ I put on some lipstick. — see picture at GROOMING lip–synch or lip–sync /ˈlɪpˌsɪŋk/ verb -synchs or -syncs; -synched or -synced; -synch•ing or -sync•ing : to pretend to sing or say (recorded words) [+ obj] He lip-synched the song that was playing on the radio. [no obj] He lip-synched to the song. ▪ It was obvious that he was lip-synching.

liq•ue•fy also liq•ui•fy /ˈlɪkwəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing : to cause (something) to become liquid [+ obj] The intense heat liquefied [=melted] the plastic. ▪ The vegetables were liquefied in a blender. [no obj] The plastic liquefied in the intense heat.

li•queur /lɪˈkɚ, Brit lɪˈkjʊə/ noun, pl -queurs [count, noncount] : a sweet, strong alcoholic drink that is usually flavored with fruits or spices and drunk in small glasses after a meal ▪ a bottle of orange liqueur

[1]liq•uid /ˈlɪkwəd/ noun, pl -uids : a substance that is able to flow freely : FLUID [count] Water and milk are liquids. ▪ His

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

diet was restricted to liquids. = He was on a liquid diet. [noncount] a bottle of green liquid

²liquid adj

1 : capable of flowing freely like water : not a solid or a gas ▪ Water and milk are liquid substances. ▪ liquid mercury/detergent ▪ The medicine is available in liquid form. ▪ They offered us snacks and liquid refreshments. [=drinks]

2 literary a : shining and clear ▪ She had large liquid eyes. b : clear, smooth, and pleasant in sound ▪ the liquid notes of a bird c : having or showing a smooth and easy style ▪ the liquid grace of the dancer's movements

3 business : made up of money or easily changed into money ▪ liquid assets ▪ liquid funds/investments

liq•ui•date /ˈlɪkwəˌdeɪt/ verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing

1 business a : to sell (a business, property, etc.) especially to pay off debt [+ obj] The owners were ordered to liquidate the company and pay their creditors. ▪ The company is liquidating its assets. ▪ They liquidated the estate. [=they sold the property of the estate] [no obj] The owners were ordered to liquidate. b [+ obj] : to pay all the money owed for (a debt) ▪ liquidate a debt/loan

2 [+ obj] informal : to destroy (something) or kill (someone) ▪ The film is about a professional killer who's hired to liquidate a powerful businessman.

– liq•ui•da•tion /ˌlɪkwəˈdeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] raising money by the liquidation of assets ▪ The company was forced into liquidation. [count] inventory liquidations – liq•ui•da•tor /ˈlɪkwəˌdeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]

liquid crystal display noun, pl ∼ -plays [count] : LCD

li•quid•i•ty /lɪˈkwɪdəti/ noun [noncount]

1 business a : the state of having things that can be easily changed into money ▪ The company has progressively increased its liquidity. b : the quality of being easily changed into money ▪ the liquidity of his investments

2 technical : the quality or state of being liquid

liq•uid•iz•er /ˈlɪkwəˌdaɪzə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : BLENDER

liquify variant spelling of LIQUEFY

li•quor /ˈlɪkə/ noun : an alcoholic drink; especially : a strong alcoholic drink [noncount] Do you serve liquor? ▪ He drinks beer and wine, but he doesn't drink any hard liquor. [count] vodka, whiskey, and other liquors — often used before another noun ▪ a liquor bottle/store ▪ The restaurant has a liquor license. [=a license that allows it to sell liquor] — see also MALT LIQUOR hold your liquor informal : to be able to drink alcoholic beverages without becoming too drunk ▪ He can't hold his liquor at all.

liquorice chiefly Brit spelling of LICORICE

li•ra /ˈlirə/ noun [count]

1 pl li•re /ˈliˌreɪ/ or liras : a basic unit of money that was formerly used in Italy; also : a coin or bill representing one Italian lira

2 pl liras : the basic unit of money in Turkey; also : a coin or bill representing one Turkish lira lisp /ˈlɪsp/ noun [singular] : a speech problem that causes someone to pronounce the letters "s" and "z" like "th" ▪ He spoke with a lisp.

– lisp verb lisps; lisped; lisp•ing [no obj] a child who lisps [+ obj] He lisped (out) his reply. – lisp•er noun, pl -ers [count]

lis•some or chiefly Brit lis•som /ˈlɪsəm/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : thin and graceful — usually used of women ▪ a lissome fashion model

¹list /ˈlɪst/ noun, pl lists [count]

1 : a series of names, words, numbers, etc., that are usually written down with each new one appearing below the previous one ▪ a long/short list of names ▪ the first/last name on the list = the name at the top/bottom of the list ▪ Make a list of the ingredients you need to bake the cake. ▪ draw up a list ▪ I wrote a list of the books I've most enjoyed. ▪ a growing list of volunteers ▪ a grocery list [=a list of groceries to be bought] ▪ The restaurant has an extensive wine list. [=a list of the wines that are available in a restaurant] ▪ Her first novel was on the best-seller list for two months. [=the list of books that are selling the most copies] ▪ We were included in the guest list. [=the list of people who are invited to something, such as a party] ▪ I have a long list of things to do. = I have a long to-do list. ▪ High on my list (of things to do) is getting the car fixed. ▪ I like all of his books, but this one is at the top of the list. [=this is the best one] — see also CHECKLIST, DEAN'S LIST, DISABLED LIST, HIT LIST, LAUNDRY LIST, MAILING LIST, SHOPPING LIST, SHORT LIST, WAITING LIST, WISH LIST

2 US, informal : LIST PRICE ▪ The car sells for a list of $30,000.

– compare ⁴LIST

²list verb lists; list•ed; list•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make a list of (names, things, etc.) ▪ He listed the required qualifications for the job. ▪ List the ingredients that you need to bake the cake. ▪ I listed my likes and dislikes.

2 [+ obj] a : to include (something) in a list ▪ Her telephone number is listed [=entered] in the directory. b : to enter information about (someone or something) in a list ▪ The hospital has listed him (as being) in fair condition. ▪ The animal has been listed as endangered/threatened. ▪ He lists himself as a political liberal. [=he says that he is a political liberal]

3 [no obj] US : to have a specified list price ▪ The car lists at/for $30,000.

– compare ³LIST

³list verb lists; listed; listing [no obj] of a ship : to lean to one side ▪ The ship was listing heavily to port/starboard. — compare ²LIST

⁴list noun [singular] : the condition of a ship that is leaning to one side ▪ The ship had a heavy list to starboard. — compare ¹LIST

¹lis•ten /ˈlɪsn̩/ verb lis•tens; lis•tened; lis•ten•ing [no obj]

1 a : to pay attention to someone or something in order to hear what is being said, sung, played, etc. ▪ I listened as hard as I could, but I couldn't hear a word of what he said over all that noise. ▪ She listened with interest as he told her about his travels. — often + to ▪ Everyone listened closely/carefully to the firefighter's instructions. ▪ I enjoy listening to classical music. ▪ He turned the radio on and listened to the news. b — used to tell a person to listen to what you are saying ▪ Listen, no one is more concerned about this problem than I am. ▪ Now listen (here), you can't keep treating people this way.

2 : to hear what someone has said and understand that it is serious, important, or true ▪ She tried to warn him of the dangers, but he wouldn't listen. — often + to ▪ Nobody listened to her warnings. ▪ Her ideas are worth listening to. ▪ I told him to be more careful, but he wouldn't listen to me. ▪ You should listen to your father [=you should take your father's advice]: he knows what he's talking about. ▪ The judge refused to listen to their pleas.

listen for or Brit listen out for [phrasal verb] listen for (something) or Brit listen out for (something) : to pay attention to sounds in order to hear (something expected) ▪ We listened for (the sound of) his footsteps. ▪ We saw lightning and listened for the thunder.

listen in [phrasal verb] 1 : to listen to a radio broadcast ▪ We'll have some interesting guests on tomorrow's show, so be sure to listen in. [=tune in] 2 : to listen to a conversation without being part of it ▪ They let me listen in when the plans were presented.; especially : to listen secretly to a private conversation : EAVESDROP — usually + on ▪ Someone was listening in on our telephone conversation.

listen up [phrasal verb] chiefly US, informal : to listen closely to what is being said — usually used as a command ▪ Everybody listen up! I have something to say.

– lis•ten•er /ˈlɪsnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ She's a good listener. [=she is good at listening to other people and understanding what they are saying] ▪ a radio program that has many listeners

²listen noun [singular] : the act of listening to something ▪ Have a listen to this. [=listen to this] lis•ten•a•ble /ˈlɪsnəbəl/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : pleasant to listen to ▪ He finds some of his son's music very listenable.

listening device noun, pl ∼ -vices [count] : a small hidden microphone that is used to secretly listen to and record people ▪ The police planted/installed a listening device in the home of the suspected mobster. — called also bug

list•ing /ˈlɪstɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 a [count] : a printed list — usually + of ▪ The book includes a listing of local restaurants. b *listings [plural] : a printed list of things that includes detailed information about them ▪ The newspaper provides movie listings. [=information about where and when movies are being shown in theaters] ▪ TV listings [=information about when and on what channel television programs will be shown] ▪ job listings

2 [count] : something included in a list ▪ The telephone listing is wrong. [=they listed the wrong telephone number]

3 [count] : the act of including something in a list or the state

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

of being included in a list ▪ The company is seeking a listing on the stock exchange. [=the company wants to be listed on the stock exchange]

list•less /ˈlɪstləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : lacking energy or spirit ▪ The heat made everyone tired and listless. ▪ The party was a listless affair. ▪ a listless economy – list•less•ly adv ▪ The cat was lying listlessly on the bed. – list•less•ness noun [noncount] Symptoms include depression and listlessness. [singular] He was filled with a listlessness he couldn't explain.

list price noun, pl ~ prices [count] : the price of a product that is shown in a catalog, advertisement, etc. ▪ The car's list price was $30,000, but the actual selling price was less. ▪ We were given a 10 percent discount off the list price.

List•serv /ˈlɪstˌsəv/ trademark — used for software that allows e-mail messages to be sent to and received from a list of subscribers

[1]lit /ˈlɪt/ past tense and past participle of [3]LIGHT

[2]lit noun [noncount] informal : LITERATURE ▪ I signed up to take a course in American/English lit.

lit•a•ny /ˈlɪtni/ noun, pl -nies [count]
1 : a prayer in a Christian church service in which the people at the service respond to lines spoken by the person who is leading the service
2 : a long list of complaints, problems, etc. ▪ He has a litany of grievances against his former employer. ▪ The team blamed its losses on a litany of injuries.

litchi variant spelling of LYCHEE lite /ˈlaɪt/ adj, US : containing fewer calories or less fat than usual : LIGHT ▪ lite beer ▪ lite salad dressing li•ter (US) or chiefly Brit li•tre /ˈliːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a metric unit for measuring the volume of a liquid or gas that is equal to 1.057 quarts ▪ a liter of water

lit•er•a•cy /ˈlɪtərəsi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the ability to read and write ▪ The program is intended to promote adult literacy among people who have had very little schooling. ▪ Their goal is to achieve basic literacy. ▪ literacy programs/skills/tests
2 : knowledge that relates to a specified subject ▪ computer literacy [=knowledge of how to use a computer] ▪ cultural literacy [=knowledge of the culture you live in]

lit•er•al /ˈlɪtərəl/ adj
1 : involving the ordinary or usual meaning of a word ▪ I was using the word in its literal sense. ▪ The literal meaning of "know your ropes" is "to know a lot about ropes," while figuratively it means "to know a lot about how to do something."
2 : giving the meaning of each individual word : EXACT ▪ a literal translation of a book
3 : completely true and accurate : not exaggerated ▪ The story he told was basically true, even if it wasn't the literal truth.
4 [more ~; most ~] — used to describe someone who understands words and statements only in the most basic and ordinary way and does not have much imagination ▪ He was a very literal [=literal-minded] man.
– lit•er•al•ness /ˈlɪtərəlnəs/ noun [noncount]

lit•er•al•ly /ˈlɪtərəli/ adv
1 : in a literal way: such as a : in a way that uses the ordinary and usual meaning of a word ▪ Many words can be used both literally and figuratively. ▪ He took her comments literally. ▪ He's a sailor who knows his ropes, literally and figuratively. b — used to stress that a statement or description is true and accurate even though it may be surprising ▪ He was literally [=truly, actually] insane. ▪ He was quite literally jumping up and down in his rage. ▪ The party was attended by literally hundreds of people. c : with the meaning of each individual word given exactly ▪ The term "Mardi Gras" literally means "Fat Tuesday" in French. d : in a completely accurate way ▪ The story he told was basically true, even if it wasn't literally true.
2 informal — used in an exaggerated way to emphasize a statement or description that is not literally true or possible ▪ The group literally poured out new ideas. [=the group produced many new ideas] ▪ Steam was literally coming out of his ears. [=he was very angry] ▪ She was literally beside herself with rage.

lit•er•al–mind•ed /ˈlɪtərəlˌmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : LITERAL 4 ▪ a very literal-minded man
– lit•er•al–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

lit•er•ary /ˈlɪtəˌreri, Brit ˈlɪtrəri/ adj
1 a : of or relating to literature ▪ American literary culture/tradition ▪ a literary magazine ▪ Do his books have any literary merit? ▪ Mystery fiction is only one of many literary forms. ▪ literary criticism/theory b : used in literature ▪ a literary word ▪ an essay written in a very literary style ▪ The author uses many literary devices in his work.
2 always used before a noun : having a lot of knowledge about literature : known for reading or writing books ▪ a literary man
3 always used before a noun : relating to the writing and publishing of literature ▪ He entered the literary world right out of college. ▪ She hired a literary agent.

lit•er•ate /ˈlɪtərət/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to read and write ▪ He was barely literate. ▪ She is literate in both English and Spanish. ▪ What percentage of the population is literate? — opposite ILLITERATE
2 : having or showing knowledge about a particular subject ▪ The job requires you to be computer literate. ▪ politically literate — opposite ILLITERATE
– literate noun, pl -ates [count] ▪ computer literates [=people who know how to use computers]

li•te•ra•ti /ˌlɪtəˈrɑːˌtiː/ noun
the literati : educated people who know about and are interested in literature ▪ a new novelist who has been embraced by the literati

lit•er•a•ture /ˈlɪtərəʧə/ noun, pl -tures
1 : written works (such as poems, plays, and novels) that are considered to be very good and to have lasting importance [noncount] She took courses in history and literature. ▪ Her education gave her an appreciation for great literature. ▪ He's an expert in American/German literature. ▪ the literature of the Renaissance [count] studies in different Asian literatures
2 [noncount] a : books, articles, etc., about a particular subject ▪ medical/scientific literature ▪ To be knowledgeable about the latest technology, you've got to keep abreast of the (relevant) literature. b : printed materials (such as booklets, leaflets, and brochures) that provide information about something ▪ Can you send me some literature about your product? ▪ promotional/sales literature

lithe /ˈlaɪð/ adj [more ~; most ~] : moving in an easy and graceful way ▪ a lithe, muscular athlete ▪ the lithe body of a dancer
– lithe•ly adv – lithe•ness noun [noncount]

lith•i•um /ˈlɪθijəm/ noun [noncount] : a soft silver-white element that is the lightest metal known

lith•o•graph /ˈlɪθəˌgræf, Brit ˈlɪθəˌgrɑːf/ noun, pl -graphs [count] : a picture made by lithography ▪ a book of his finest lithographs

li•thog•ra•phy /lɪˈθɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount] : a method of printing from a flat surface (such as a smooth stone or a metal plate) that has been prepared so that the ink will only stick to the design that will be printed – li•tho•gra•pher /lɪˈθɑːgrəfə/ noun, pl -phers [count] – lith•o•graph•ic /ˌlɪθəˈgræfɪk/ adj ▪ the lithographic process ▪ lithographic ink/printing – litho•graph•i•cal•ly /ˌlɪθəˈgræfɪkli/ adv lit•i•gant /ˈlɪtɪgənt/ noun, pl -gants [count] law : a person who is involved in a lawsuit : someone who is suing another person or is being sued by another person lit•i•gate /ˈlɪtəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing law : to make (something) the subject of a lawsuit : to cause (a case, an issue, etc.) to be decided and settled in a court of law [+ obj] They agree to litigate all disputes in this court. [no obj] The company's unwillingness to make a deal increased her desire to litigate.

– lit•i•ga•tion /ˌlɪtəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ He is involved in litigation against the city. ▪ The case is still in litigation. [=being decided in a court of law] – lit•i•ga•tor /ˈlɪtəˌgeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ She is a famous/successful litigator. [=lawyer]

li•ti•gious /ləˈtɪʤəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : too ready or eager to sue someone or something in a court of law : tending or likely to engage in lawsuits ▪ a very litigious group of people ▪ this litigious age/society in which we live
– li•ti•gious•ness noun [noncount]

litmus paper /ˈlɪtməs-/ noun [noncount] technical : special paper that is used to test how much acid is in a solution ✧ Litmus paper turns red in acid solutions and blue in alkaline solutions.

litmus test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : something (such as an opinion about a political or moral issue) that is used to make a judgment about whether someone or something is acceptable ▪ The party is using attitudes about gun control as a litmus test for political candidates. — compare ACID TEST

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

litre Brit spelling of LITER

[1]lit•ter /ˈlɪtə/ noun, pl -ters
1 a [noncount] : things that have been thrown away and that are lying on the ground in a public place ▪ We decided to pick up the litter in the park. ▪ roadside litter b [singular] : a messy pile or group of things ▪ Her desk was covered with a litter of legal documents.
2 [noncount] a : dry material that is spread in a container and used as a toilet by animals (especially cats) while they are indoors ▪ cat/kitty litter ▪ (chiefly US) a litter box = (Brit) a litter tray [=a container holding litter for a cat] b : soft and dry material (such as straw) that is spread on the ground for some animals (such as horses) to sleep on
3 [count] : a group of young animals that are born at a single time ▪ a litter of puppies/piglets ▪ He was the runt of the litter. [=the smallest animal in the litter] — often used figuratively in the phrase the pick of the litter ▪ Of all the cars on the market, this one is clearly the pick of the litter. [=the best one]
4 [count] : a covered bed that has long poles on the bottom and that was used in the past for carrying a very important person ▪ The emperor was carried to the palace on a litter.

[2]litter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [+ obj] : to cover (a surface) with many things in an untidy way ▪ Paper and popcorn littered the streets after the parade. ▪ Leaves littered the forest floor. [=the forest floor was covered with leaves] ▪ a desk littered with old letters and bills — often used figuratively ▪ a landscape littered with ugly houses ▪ Dirty words litter his vocabulary. [=his vocabulary includes many dirty words; he says a lot of dirty words] ▪ The book is littered with errors. [=the book contains many errors]
2 [no obj] : to throw or leave trash on the ground in a public place ▪ It is illegal to litter. ▪ He had to pay a fine for littering.
– lit•ter•er /ˈlɪtərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Litterers are subject to a fine.

litter bin noun, pl ~ bins [count] Brit : TRASH CAN lit•ter•bug /ˈlɪtəˌbʌg/ noun, pl -bugs [count] informal : a person who throws or leaves trash in a public place — called also (Brit) litter lout

[1]lit•tle /ˈlɪtl/ adj less /ˈlɛs/ or less•er /ˈlɛsə/ also lit•tler /ˈlɪtlə/; least /ˈli:st/ also lit•tlest /ˈlɪtləst/
1 a : small in size ▪ She has little feet. ▪ a little island/airplane ▪ a little business ▪ Our school is little. ▪ a tiny little fish ▪ This room is littler [=(more commonly) smaller] than that one. b : not tall : SHORT ▪ a little man ▪ a littler [=(more commonly) smaller, shorter] man c : small in amount ▪ I have very little money, so I can't lend you any. ▪ I have less money than I did before. ▪ I got very little sleep last night. ▪ There's little hope of a rescue now. ▪ You have little choice but to pay attention. ▪ The new version bears little resemblance to the original. ▪ These programs have very/precious little chance of succeeding. ▪ The help he offered us was too little, too late. [=it was not as much help as we needed and it was offered too late to be helpful] ▪ There has been little if any improvement. [=there has been almost no improvement] ▪ These trinkets have little or no value. ▪ There was no little sadness in his voice. [=there was a lot of sadness in his voice] d : not having many things or people included ▪ We're having a little party this weekend. ▪ a little group of people ▪ a little village ▪ her little hometown
2 : young or younger ▪ I loved swimming when I was little. ▪ a little boy/girl ▪ He's very proud of his little boy/girl. [=of his young son/daughter] ▪ How's your little one? [=your young(est) son or daughter] ▪ my little brother/sister [=my brother/sister who is younger than I am]
3 always used before a noun : not lasting for a long time ▪ I have to take a little break. ▪ We sat down for a little chat. ▪ We talked for a little while.
4 always used before a noun : not very important ▪ There are a few little problems that still have to be dealt with. ▪ He memorized every little detail of the scene. — sometimes used in an ironic way to describe something important ▪ There's just one little problem we haven't discussed: the company is going bankrupt! ▪ I need to talk to you about the little matter of the money you owe me.
5 always used before a noun : not easily seen, heard, etc. ▪ He gave her a little smile. ▪ She made a little wave with her hand. ▪ She spoke in a quiet little voice.
6 always used before a noun a — used to refer to someone or something in an approving or friendly way ▪ That's a nice little car you've got there. ▪ You poor little thing. ▪ Bless your little heart. b — used to refer to someone or something in a disapproving or critical way ▪ He's a little jerk. ▪ It was a mean little joke. ▪ She has a dirty little secret.
7 always used before a noun : not open to new ideas ▪ people with little [=small, narrow] minds – lit•tle•ness /ˈlɪtlnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the littleness of the room ▪ the littleness of their minds

[2]little adv less; least
1 a : in a very small amount or degree ▪ She works very little and sleeps even less. ▪ Please speak as little as possible. b : hardly at all : not very much ▪ We had little more than we needed. ▪ She cared little (about) what he thought. ▪ His art is little known in this country. ▪ a little-known fact ▪ She little knew what fate had in store for her. = Little did she know what fate had in store for her.
2 : not very often ▪ She travels little. [=she rarely travels] little by little : by small steps or amounts : GRADUALLY ▪ Little by little, he got better. ▪ The protest gathered strength little by little. ▪ I got to know them little by little.
little more than or little better than : not much more or better than (something) : only slightly more or better than (something) ▪ They ate little more than ice cream and hot dogs all day.

[3]little pronoun : a small amount or quantity ▪ There is little we can do to help. ▪ Little is known about her life. ▪ They say precious little [=they do not say much] about their job. ▪ They understand little of what is going on. ▪ His argument did little to change their minds. [=his argument did not change their minds]
a little 1 : not much but some ▪ I don't want much: I want just a little bit/piece. ▪ There's a little brown sugar in these cookies. ▪ I have a little money, so I may be able to lend you some. ▪ They offered him a little something to drink before dinner. [=they offered him something to drink] ▪ There was more than a little sadness [=there was much sadness] in his voice. 2 : not much but somewhat or slightly ▪ It bothered me a little. ▪ His house is down the street a little further. ▪ His house is down the street a little. = It's a little down the street. ▪ I'm feeling a little better today. ▪ Repairs will begin in a little [=slightly] more than a month. ▪ He was not a little annoyed [=he was very annoyed] at the interruption. ▪ Her vision of the future was more than a little upsetting. [=was very upsetting] 3 : for a brief time ▪ Please stay here with me a little. ▪ We can walk a little and then catch a cab. 4 : a small amount or quantity ▪ There is only a very little at stake here. ▪ They don't understand much but they do understand a little. ▪ There's still some money in the bank, but only a very little. ▪ They understand more than a little of what is going on. [=they understand much of what is going on] ▪ Don't use too much of this. A little goes a long way. [=a small amount will be enough] a little bit 1 : to some extent : SOMEWHAT ▪ This one is a little bit bigger than that one. ▪ It bothered me a little bit. 2 chiefly US : a short time ▪ We talked for a little bit. 3 : a small amount of something ▪ The buffet had a little bit of everything. ▪ We have a little bit of time left. ▪ Oh, I'll have just a little bit, thanks.
as little as — used to suggest that a number or quantity is surprisingly small ▪ I could be back in as little as five days.
little wonder see [1]WONDER little bitty adj, chiefly US, informal : very small : TINY ▪ She was living in a little bitty apartment.

Little Dipper noun
the Little Dipper US : a group of seven stars including the North Star in the northern sky that forms the shape of a dipper or ladle and that is smaller than the Big Dipper — compare BIG DIPPER little finger noun, pl ~ -gers [count] : the finger that is farthest from your thumb — called also (chiefly US + Scotland) pinkie; see picture at HAND

little guy noun
the little guy chiefly US, informal : LITTLE MAN

Little League noun [singular] US : a baseball league for boys and girls from 8 to 12 years old ▪ a man who coaches Little League [=who coaches a team in Little League] ▪ a Little League team/game/player/coach – Little Leaguer noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ His son is a Little Leaguer. [=a Little League player] little man noun

the little man chiefly US, informal : an ordinary person who is not wealthy, famous, or powerful — used to refer to such people in general ▪ a politician who portrays himself as a friend of the little man — called also the little guy

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

little people noun [plural]
1 : ordinary people who are not wealthy, famous, or powerful ▪ I'd like to thank all the little people who made my success possible.
2 : people of unusually small size
3 : very small imaginary beings (especially leprechauns) with magical powers ▪ a fairy tale about the little people

little toe noun, pl ~ toes [count] : the smallest toe on the outside of your foot

little woman noun
the little woman old-fashioned + humorous + sometimes offensive — used to refer to a man's wife ▪ He bought a bouquet of flowers for the little woman. [=for his wife]

lit•to•ral /ˈlɪtərəl/ adj, technical : of, relating to, or having a coast ▪ littoral waters ▪ a littoral country [=a country that has a coast]
– littoral noun, pl -rals [count] ▪ the Atlantic littoral [=coastal region] lit•ur•gy /ˈlɪtərʤi/ noun, pl -gies : a fixed set of ceremonies, words, etc., that are used during public worship in a religion [count] studying the liturgies of different religions [noncount] He was studying Christian liturgy.

– li•tur•gi•cal /ləˈtərʤɪkəl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ The church used Latin as the liturgical language. ▪ the liturgical calendar [=a list of the important holy days in a religion]

liv•able or chiefly Brit live•able /ˈlɪvəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : suitable to live in : enjoyable to live in ▪ a livable city ▪ They described the house as very/barely livable.
2 US : making it possible to live or to have the things that people need to live properly ▪ livable conditions ▪ People need jobs that will pay them livable wages.
– liv•abil•i•ty or chiefly Brit live•abil•i•ty /ˌlɪvəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount]

[1]live /ˈlɪv/ verb lives; lived; liv•ing
1 [no obj] a : to be alive ▪ We learned about the people who lived during colonial times. ▪ I wonder what it was like to live then. ▪ She's one of the greatest writers who ever lived. ▪ It was one of the largest animals that has ever lived. b : to continue to be alive ▪ He lived to the age of 92. ▪ He's very sick and he may not live much longer. ▪ I hope to live (long enough) to see my grandchildren grow up. ▪ I hope I live to see the day when you admit you've been wrong about me! ▪ I'll remember that day for as long as I live. ▪ She's living on borrowed time. [=she is continuing to live after she was expected to die, but she will probably die soon] ▪ Long live the Queen/King! [=may the Queen/King live for many years]
2 [no obj] a : to have a home in a specified place ▪ He lives next door to his parents. ▪ We lived in the city/suburbs/country. ▪ I live on Main St. [=my house is on Main St.] ▪ It's a nice place to visit, but I wouldn't want to live there. ▪ He's still living at home (with his parents). ▪ animals living in zoos b of a plant or animal : to grow naturally in a specified place or area ▪ Tigers don't live in Africa. [=there are no tigers in the wild in Africa] ▪ We've been studying the plants and animals that live in this area.
3 : to spend your life in a certain way or condition [no obj] They live well/simply. ▪ He likes to live dangerously. ▪ They lived peacefully for many years. ▪ animals living in captivity ▪ We know very little about how people in these ancient cultures lived. ▪ They all lived happily ever after. [=they all lived happily for the rest of their lives] ▪ He is living within/beyond his means. [=he can/cannot afford the things that he buys or the way he lives] [+ obj] If she believes that, she's living a fantasy. [=she is not seeing or accepting reality] ▪ They are living the American Dream. [=they are experiencing success in America]
4 [no obj] : to have an enjoyable and exciting life ▪ Now that he's retired he just wants to live a little. [=to spend time doing enjoyable things] ▪ You haven't lived until you've had a piece of my mom's apple pie! [=you would greatly enjoy my mom's apple pie]
5 [+ obj] a : to spend (your life or part of your life) in a specified way ▪ They lived (the rest of) their lives in quiet retirement. ▪ He had lived a childhood free from worry. ▪ She lived her final years in seclusion. ▪ He lived life to the full/fullest. [=he fully enjoyed his life] b : to have (a particular kind of life) ▪ She wants to live [=lead] a more productive life. ▪ They live a normal life. ▪ They are living a life of luxury. ▪ He made a lot of money in the stock market and he's been living the good life [=living the life of a wealthy person] ever since.
6 [no obj] : to continue to exist ▪ The good that people do lives long after they are gone. ▪ That day will always live in my memory. [=I will always remember that day]
7 [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to belong in a specified place : to be located or stored ▪ "Where does this book live?" "It goes/belongs on the top shelf."
live a lie see [4]LIE live and breathe see BREATHE live and learn or you live and (you) learn informal — used to say that you have learned something from an experience that is surprising and usually unpleasant ▪ I thought I could trust him, but I couldn't. Oh well, you live and learn.
live and let live : to let others live the way they want to ▪ His philosophy was to live and let live.
live by [phrasal verb] 1 *live by (something) : to agree with and follow (something, such as a set of beliefs) ▪ He tried to live by his faith. ▪ a principle I try to live by 2 a *live by (doing something) : to survive by (doing something) ▪ They were an ancient people who lived by hunting and gathering. b *live by your wits : to survive by doing clever and sometimes dishonest things ▪ Out in the jungle, with no food or shelter, he had to live by his wits. ▪ a young thief who lives by her wits live down [phrasal verb] live down (something) or live (something) down : to stop being blamed or laughed at for (something, such as a foolish or embarrassing error) ▪ He has a very bad reputation to live down. — often used in negative statements ▪ I can't believe I forgot my wife's birthday! I'll never live this down.
live for [phrasal verb] live for (something) 1 : to wait or hope for (something) very eagerly ▪ I live for the day when we'll be together! 2 : to think of (something) as the most important or enjoyable part of your life ▪ She lives for her work. : to think of (something) as a reason for being alive ▪ He's depressed and feels as if he has nothing left to live for.
live in [phrasal verb] chiefly Brit : to live in the place where you work : to live in another person's home ▪ a maid who lives in live in hope see [2]HOPE live in sin old-fashioned : to live together and have sex without being married ▪ His mother did not want him living in sin with his girlfriend.
live in the past : to think too much about something that happened in the past ▪ You have to accept that he's gone and stop living in the past.
live it up informal : to do exciting and enjoyable things ▪ He's been living it up out in California with his friends.
live large US slang : to live like a very wealthy and successful person ▪ a star who is living large live off [phrasal verb] live off (something or someone) : to use (someone or something) as a source of the money or other things you need to live ▪ He has been living off his inheritance. ▪ He has been living off his girlfriend. [=his girlfriend has been supporting him financially] ▪ farmers who live off the land live on [phrasal verb] 1 : to continue to exist ▪ His legend lives on. 2 *live on (something) a : to have or use (an amount of money) to pay for the things that you need to live ▪ You can't live on this salary. [=this salary does not provide enough money for food, shelter, etc.] b : to have (a particular food) as the only or main food that you eat ▪ They lived mainly/mostly on fruits and berries.
live out [phrasal verb] 1 Brit : to live away from the place where you work ▪ a servant who lives out 2 *live out (something) or live (something) out a : to spend the rest of (your life) in a specified way ▪ He lived out (the final years of) his life in quiet retirement. b : to do (the things you have dreamed of doing) ▪ He has finally had the chance to live out his dreams/fantasies.
live through [phrasal verb] 1 *live through (something) : to survive (an experience, a troubling time, etc.) : ENDURE ▪ If I can live through this, I can live through anything. 2 *live through (someone) US, sometimes disapproving : to enjoy the experiences and achievements of (another person) instead of your own experiences and achievements ▪ She can't live through her daughter.
live together [phrasal verb] : to live with another person and have sex without being married ▪ They lived together for several months before getting married.
live up to [phrasal verb] live up to (something) 1 : to do what is required by (something) ▪ She lived up to her promises. [=she kept her promises] 2 : to be good enough for (something) ▪ He has found it difficult to live up to his

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

name/reputation. [=to be as good/successful as people think he is or should be] ▪ Their vacation didn't live up to their expectations. [=their vacation wasn't as good as they expected it to be] live with [phrasal verb] 1 live with (something) : to accept and deal with (something unpleasant) ▪ You have to learn to live with [=put up with] other people's mistakes. ▪ I don't agree with his decision, but I'll have to live with it. ▪ Until we get a better answer, we will have to live with not knowing for sure. ▪ Because there was no cure, he had to learn to live with the disease. 2 live with (someone) : to live together and usually have sex with (someone) ▪ She's been living with him since college.

[2]live /ˈlaɪv/ adj

1 a always used before a noun : having life : living or alive ▪ They object to the use of live animals in scientific experiments. ▪ a live birth [=a birth of a living child or animal] b informal : not imaginary : actually existing — used in the phrase real live ▪ Everyone was excited about seeing a real live celebrity. [=an actual celebrity]

2 a : done in front of an audience : of or involving a play, concert, etc., that is performed in front of people ▪ a nightclub with live music/entertainment ▪ The group has just released a live album. [=an album made by recording a performance before an audience] b : watching a performance as it happens ▪ a television program filmed before a live (studio) audience c : broadcast while a performance, event, etc., is happening : not recorded earlier ▪ a live television/radio program ▪ She was nervous about being interviewed on live radio. ▪ The network is providing live coverage of the debate.

3 : carrying an electric current : connected to electric power ▪ Use caution when you are working near live electrical wires. ▪ a live microphone — see also LIVE WIRE

4 always used before a noun a : carrying a charge and capable of exploding or being shot ▪ a live bomb ▪ live ammunition ▪ We had thought the guns were loaded with blanks, but the soldiers were actually shooting live bullets. b : burning without a flame : GLOWING ▪ live coals

5 : not yet decided or settled : still causing discussion, disagreement, or concern ▪ a live issue ▪ a live controversy

6 US, sports : still in play ▪ The ball is live until it goes out of bounds.

7 Brit, of yogurt : containing living bacteria ▪ We sell live yogurt.

[3]live /ˈlaɪv/ adv : during, from, or at the actual time that something (such as a performance or event) happens ▪ The program was shown live. ▪ We are broadcasting live from downtown. ▪ Here he is—live in concert! ▪ The album was recorded live.

go live : to begin operating or to become available for use ▪ Our new Web site will be going live next month.

liveable chiefly Brit spelling of LIVABLE live action noun [noncount] : a movie or scene in which actors and sets are used : a movie or scene that is not produced by animation ▪ a combination of live action and animation

– live–ac•tion /ˈlaɪvˈækʃən/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a live-action scene/film/sequence

-lived /ˌlɪvd/ combining form : having a life of a specified length ▪ long-lived ▪ relatively short-lived

lived–in /ˈlɪvdˌɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having a comfortable and appealing appearance or quality that comes from being used for a long time ▪ The room has a lived-in look to it. ▪ a lived-in kitchen

2 : showing the effects of age ▪ a lived-in voice ▪ a lived-in face live–in /ˈlɪvˌɪn/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : living in the place where you work ▪ a live-in maid [=a maid who lives in the house where she works]

2 : living with someone else (especially a boyfriend or girlfriend) ▪ a young woman and her live-in boyfriend [=her boyfriend who is living with her] ▪ his live-in girlfriend live•li•hood /ˈlaɪvliˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods : a way of earning money in order to live [count] Many fishermen believe that the new regulations threaten their livelihoods. [noncount] (formal) He claims he lost a source/means of livelihood when he was injured.

live•long /ˈlɪvˌlɑːŋ/ adj

(all) the livelong day old-fashioned + humorous : all day ▪ I've been working all the livelong day.

live•ly /ˈlaɪvli/ adj live•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : very active and energetic ▪ lively children ▪ a very lively puppy ▪ She has a very lively imagination. [=she imagines many things]

2 : full of energy, excitement, or feeling ▪ a very lively writing style ▪ The book is lively and well written. ▪ They had a lively debate/discussion. ▪ She takes a lively interest in politics. [=she is very interested in politics]

3 : full of movement or activity ▪ lively streets ▪ a lively dance ▪ A lively atmosphere keeps people coming back to the café. ▪ Trading on the stock market today was rather lively. [=active]

step lively (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit look lively : to go or move quickly : HURRY ▪ You'll have to step lively if you don't want to be late for work.

– live•li•ness noun [noncount] the liveliness of the children/discussion/dance [singular] There's a wonderful liveliness about him.

liv•en /ˈlaɪvən/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing

1 [+ obj] : to make (something) more lively, interesting, or exciting ▪ He played some music to liven the atmosphere. — usually + up ▪ She tried to liven up [=enliven] her speech with a few jokes. ▪ He suggested that we liven things up with a friendly bet on the game.

2 [no obj] : to become more lively, interesting, or exciting — + up ▪ The party really livened up after she arrived.

live oak /ˈlaɪv-/ noun, pl ~ oaks [count] : a large type of oak tree that grows in the southern U.S.

liv•er /ˈlɪvə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] : a large organ of the body that produces bile and cleans the blood — see picture at HUMAN

2 : the liver of an animal (such as a calf or a chicken) that is eaten as food [noncount] We had liver and onions for dinner. [count] sautéed chicken livers

liv•er•ied /ˈlɪvərid/ adj, formal : wearing a livery ▪ a liveried servant/chauffeur liv•er•wurst /ˈlɪvəˌwɚst/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a type of soft sausage made chiefly of cooked liver ▪ a pound of liverwurst ▪ a liverwurst sandwich — called also (chiefly Brit) liver sausage

liv•ery /ˈlɪvəri/ noun, pl -eries

1 [noncount] : the business of keeping vehicles that people can hire — usually used before another noun ▪ livery service ▪ a livery cab

2 Brit : the colors or designs that are used on a company's products, vehicles, etc. [noncount] aircraft livery ▪ cars with similar livery [count] cars with similar liveries

3 : a special uniform worn by servants especially in the past [noncount] servants in blue livery [count] servants wearing liveries

lives plural of [1]LIFE

live•stock /ˈlaɪvˌstɑːk/ noun : farm animals (such as cows, horses, and pigs) that are kept, raised, and used by people [plural] a market where livestock are bought and sold [noncount] a market where livestock is bought and sold live wire noun, pl ~ wires [count] informal : a very lively and energetic person ▪ She's a real live wire.

liv•id /ˈlɪvəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very angry : FURIOUS ▪ My father was livid (with rage) when I came home three hours late.

2 literary : having a dark purplish color ▪ a livid bruise

[1]liv•ing /ˈlɪvɪŋ/ adj

1 : not dead : having life ▪ I was taught to respect all living things. ▪ living beings/creatures/animals/plants ▪ His aunt is his closest living relative. ▪ He's one of our greatest living authors. ▪ She's a living legend. [=a very famous and admired person who is still alive] ▪ It was the first time I had ever seen a living, breathing bear in the wild.

2 always used before a noun : currently active or being used ▪ a living faith ▪ living cultures ▪ a living language [=a language that is still being used and spoken by people]

3 always used before a noun : having the form of a person who is alive ▪ He is the living embodiment of cheapness. [=he is very cheap] ▪ I'm living proof that success is possible. [=my success shows that other people can succeed as well]

4 always used before a noun : of or relating to the place, conditions, or manner in which people live ▪ He and his wife have an unusual living arrangement; they work in different cities and only see each other on weekends. ▪ They use their backyard as an outdoor living area. ▪ They're moving to a larger home because they need more living space. ▪ These poor children are being raised in terrible living conditions. ▪ He gave me a tour of his living quarters. [=the rooms where he lives]

5 informal — used to emphasize a noun ▪ You scared the liv-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

ing daylights out of me! ▪ They threatened to beat the living crap out of him.

in living color : in the bright colors of real life ▪ a television program shown in living color — often used figuratively ▪ His opinions are aired once a week in living color. [=on a television program] in/within living memory : during a time that can be remembered by people who are still alive ▪ These events occurred within living memory.

[2]living noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : a way of earning money : the money that someone needs to pay for housing, food, etc. — usually singular ▪ His investments provide him with a good living. [=provide him with enough money to live well] ▪ What do you do for a living? [=what is your job?] ▪ He struggled to scratch/eke out a living as a farmer. ▪ He earned a/his living as a cook. = He made a living by working as a cook.

2 [noncount] : a way of living ▪ the challenges of city living ▪ outdoor living ▪ healthy living ▪ It's summertime, and the living is easy. — see also ASSISTED LIVING, COST OF LIVING, STANDARD OF LIVING in the land of the living see [1]LAND living room noun, pl ∼ rooms [count] : a room in a house for general family use — usually singular ▪ He is watching TV in the living room.

3 the living : people who are alive ▪ the living and the dead ▪ The world belongs to the living.

living standard noun, pl ∼ -dards [count] : STANDARD OF LIVING — usually plural ▪ trying to improve/raise living standards for poor people living wage noun [singular] : an amount of money you are paid for a job that is large enough to provide you with the basic things (such as food and shelter) needed to live an acceptable life ▪ He was barely earning a living wage.

living will noun, pl ∼ wills [count] law : a document in which you say what medical decisions should be made if you become too sick or injured to make those decisions ✧ A living will usually says that a very sick or injured person should be allowed to die if there is no real hope of recovery.

liz•ard /ˈlɪzəd/ noun, pl -ards [count] : a type of reptile that has four legs and a long body and tail

ll abbr lines ▪ ll 15–25

'll — used as a contraction of will ▪ That*'ll* be enough. ▪ I don't know who*'ll* be there.

lla•ma /ˈlɑːmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a South American animal that has a long neck and thick fur and that is used for its wool and for carrying things lo /ˈloʊ/ interj, old-fashioned + literary — used to call attention to something or to show wonder or surprise ▪ Lo, the king approaches! ▪ the adventures we have shared for lo these many years

lo and behold — used to express wonder or surprise; often used in a humorous or ironic way ▪ She appeared on a magazine cover, and lo and behold, she began to get offers to star in movies. ▪ We opened the door, and lo and behold, the delivery man had arrived.

[1]load /ˈloʊd/ noun, pl loads [count]

1 a : something that is lifted and carried ▪ He lifted the load onto his shoulders. ▪ donkeys hauling/carrying large loads ▪ She was carrying a heavy load of legal documents in her briefcase. ▪ a light load b : an amount that can be carried at one time : an amount that fills something (such as a truck) ▪ He picked up a load of firewood and carried it into the house. ▪ The truck was carrying a full load of sand. ▪ a load of laundry [=the amount of laundry that can fit into a washing machine] — often used in combination ▪ an arm*load* of firewood ▪ a truck*load* of sand ▪ a boat*load* of tourists

2 somewhat technical : the weight that is carried or supported by something ▪ Losing weight will lessen the load on your knees. ▪ a load-bearing wall [=a wall that supports the weight of a building]

3 a : something that causes worry or sadness ▪ His death is a heavy load to bear. ▪ The good news has really taken a load off my mind. [=has allowed me to stop worrying; has made me feel relieved] b : a difficult responsibility ▪ There's a lot of work to be done, and you have to carry/bear your share of the load. [=you have to do your share of the work] ▪ I wish there were some way I could help lift this load [=weight, burden] from his shoulders. ▪ The company is trying to reduce its debt load. [=the amount of money that it owes]

4 informal a : a large amount of something ▪ They had a load of trouble. — usually plural ▪ We had loads of fun. ▪ The house has loads of room. ▪ I have loads [=many things] to do today. b — used in phrases like a load of garbage, a load of trash, a load of hot air, etc., to say that something is worthless ▪ I think their ideas are a load of garbage!

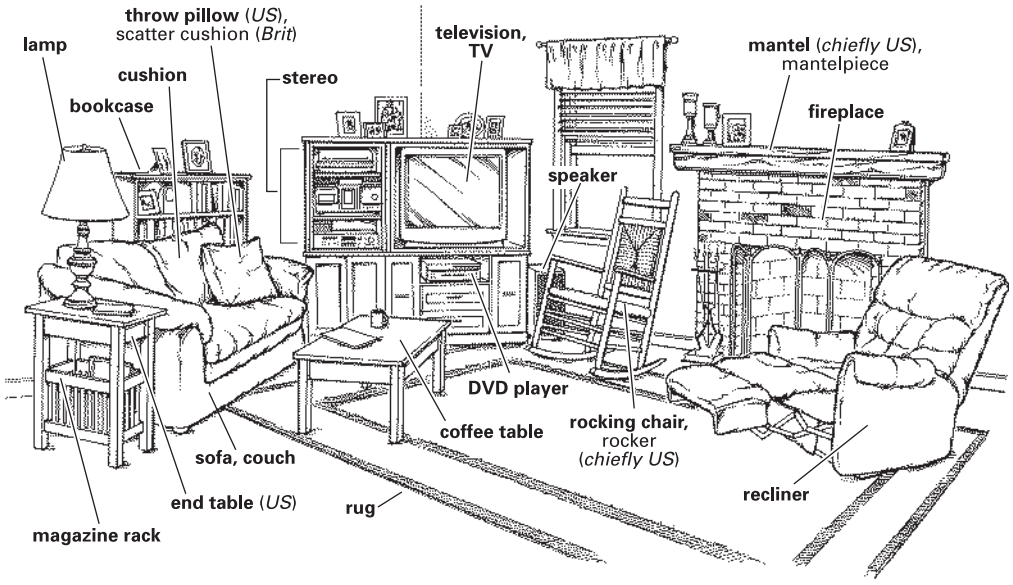
living room



JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

5 a : the amount of work done or expected to be done ▪ a full load of teaching work ▪ She's taking a full/heavy course load this semester. — see also CASELOAD, WORKLOAD b technical : the amount of work done by a machine ▪ the load on an engine c technical : the amount of power used by an electrical device or produced by a power source ▪ The electrical system failed because it couldn't handle the load.

get a load of informal : to look at (someone or something) ▪ Get a load of that car! ▪ You should get a load of his pants.

take a load off (your feet) chiefly US, informal : to sit down and relax ▪ You look tired. Come in and take a load off.

[2]load verb loads; load•ed; load•ing

1 a : to put an amount of something in or on (something) [+ obj] load a truck with packages ▪ We loaded (up) the car and drove off. ▪ Workers were loading and unloading the ships as they came into port. [no obj] We loaded up and drove off. b [+ obj] : to put (an amount of something) into or onto something ▪ load packages on/onto a truck ▪ We loaded our luggage in/into the car and drove off. ▪ Workers were loading cargo on/onto the ships. c [+ obj] : to supply (someone or something) with a large amount of something ▪ Mom loaded me (up) with supplies for the hike. ▪ She loaded the table with all kinds of delicious foods. ▪ My sister loaded [=filled] her plate with mashed potatoes and corn.

2 : to put something necessary into a machine or device so that it can be used [+ obj] load a camera with film = load film into a camera ▪ load a gun (with bullets) = load bullets into a gun ▪ load a tape into the VCR [no obj] The film didn't load properly.

3 a [+ obj] of a boat, vehicle, etc. : to be boarded by (passengers) ▪ The bus stopped to load a few more passengers. b [no obj] : to go onto something (such as a boat or vehicle) ▪ The passengers loaded on/onto the bus.

4 computers : to cause (a program, file, etc.) to begin being used or displayed by a computer [+ obj] load a program ▪ load a new Web page [no obj] The program takes less time to load than it used to. — see also DOWNLOAD, UPLOAD

5 [+ obj] baseball : to put runners on (first, second, and third base) ▪ He drew a walk to load the bases. ▪ The bases are loaded. [=there are runners on each of the bases] load down with [phrasal verb] load (someone or something) down with (something) : to cause or force (someone or something) to accept or deal with (something difficult) — usually used as (be) loaded down with ▪ The company is loaded down with debt. [=is burdened with debt; has a large amount of debt] ▪ I'm loaded down with homework.

load the dice see [1]DICE

load up on [phrasal verb] load up on (something) informal

1 : to drink or eat a large amount of (something) ▪ people loading up on fatty foods 2 : to get a large amount of (something) ▪ investors who have been loading up on hot stocks – load•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a film loader

load•ed /ˈloʊdəd/ adj

1 not used before a noun, informal : very rich ▪ His parents are loaded.

2 a of a gun : having bullets inside ▪ a loaded rifle/pistol ▪ He said he didn't know the gun was loaded. b of a camera : having film inside ▪ Is this camera loaded?

3 — used to describe dice that can be used for cheating because they have weights inside so that particular numbers always result when the dice are thrown ▪ a pair of loaded dice

4 : capable of causing harm or trouble because of a hidden or extra meaning ▪ a loaded term/expression ▪ That word has become so loaded that people are afraid to use it. ▪ a loaded question

5 chiefly US, informal : having a good amount of what is needed or wanted ▪ a fully loaded car [=a car that has many extra features] ▪ This team is loaded. [=this team has many good players]

6 chiefly US slang : very drunk ▪ He went to a bar after work and got loaded.

loaded for bear US, informal : prepared to deal with attacks or criticism : prepared to fight or argue ▪ She went into the interview loaded for bear.

loaded with : having or carrying a large amount of (something) ▪ Her arms were loaded with books. [=she was carrying many books] ▪ The car was loaded with supplies for the trip. ▪ foods that are loaded with [=full of] fat loading dock noun, pl ~ docks [count] chiefly US : an area at the side of a building where goods are loaded onto and unloaded from vehicles — called also (chiefly Brit) loading bay

[1]loaf /ˈloʊf/ noun, pl loaves /ˈloʊvz/

1 [count] : an amount of bread that has been baked in a long, round, or square shape ▪ slicing a loaf of bread

2 [count, noncount] : a dish made from foods (such as chopped meat, eggs, and seasoning) that are pressed together, shaped, and usually baked ▪ a salmon loaf — see also MEAT LOAF

[2]loaf verb loafs; loafed; loaf•ing [no obj] : to spend time relaxing instead of working ▪ I spent most of the weekend just loafing around the house. ▪ He has been accused of loafing on the job. [=he has been accused of not working when he should be working]

loaf•er /ˈloʊfɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a low shoe with no laces — usually plural ▪ He wore loafers with no socks. ▪ slipped on a pair of loafers — see picture at SHOE; see also PENNY LOAFER

2 : a person who does not work hard ▪ She's a lazy loafer.

loam /ˈloʊm/ noun [noncount] : a type of soil that is good for growing plants

– loamy /ˈloʊmi/ adj loam•i•er; -est ▪ loamy soil

[1]loan /ˈloʊn/ noun, pl loans

1 [count] : an amount of money that is given to someone for a period of time with a promise that it will be paid back : an amount of money that is borrowed ▪ He took out a loan (from the bank) to pay for the car. ▪ He got a car loan. ▪ He'll need several more years to pay off/back the rest of the loan. ▪ She needed money, so she asked her friend for a loan. ▪ a student loan [=a loan that is used to pay for a student's education] ▪ a bank loan [=a loan that is made by a bank] ▪ a personal loan [=a loan that is made by a bank to someone for a personal need]

2 [noncount] somewhat formal : permission to use something for a period of time ▪ Can I have the loan of your car? [=(more commonly) can I borrow your car?]

on loan : borrowed from someone or something for a period of time ▪ This painting is on loan from the National Gallery. ▪ an actor on loan from another sitcom ▪ Some of the workers were on loan as temporary staff.

[2]loan verb loans; loaned; loan•ing [+ obj]

1 : to give (something) to (someone) for a period of time : LEND ▪ He loaned his car to me. = He loaned me his car. [=I borrowed his car] ▪ The National Gallery has been kind enough to loan this painting to our museum. — sometimes + out ▪ The National Gallery loaned out the painting to another museum.

2 chiefly US : to give (money) to (someone) who agrees to pay it back in the future : LEND ▪ His mother loaned him the money to buy a new car. ▪ Can you loan me $20?

loan•er /ˈloʊnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : something (such as a car) that is loaned to someone as a replacement for something that is being repaired ▪ The car he's driving is a loaner. His own car was damaged in an accident.

loan shark noun, pl ~ sharks [count] disapproving : someone who lends money to people and charges a very high rate of interest

– loan–shark•ing /ˈloʊnˌʃɑɚkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

loath /ˈloʊθ/ also loathe /ˈloʊð/ or loth /ˈloʊθ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not wanting or willing to do something ▪ She was loath to admit her mistakes. ▪ He was loath to reveal his secrets. [=he did not want to reveal his secrets]

loathe /ˈloʊð/ verb loathes; loathed; loath•ing [+ obj] : to hate (someone or something) very much ▪ She loathed him. ▪ They were rivals who truly/bitterly loathed each other. ▪ I loathe having to do this. ▪ It was a habit his wife loathed.

loathing noun [noncount] : a very strong feeling of hatred or disgust ▪ She expressed her intense loathing of/for his hypocrisy. ▪ She regarded his hypocrisy with loathing.

loath•some /ˈloʊθsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing feelings of hatred or disgust : very bad ▪ loathsome behavior ▪ a loathsome hypocrite

loaves plural of [1]LOAF

lob /ˈlɑːb/ verb lobs; lobbed; lob•bing [+ obj] : to hit, throw, or kick (something, such as a ball) so that it goes through the air in a high curving path ▪ She lobbed a throw to the pitcher. ▪ The soldier lobbed a grenade into the bunker. ▪ He lobbed the ball over his opponent's head. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The reporters lobbed some easy questions at/to her. [=they asked her some questions that were easily answered]

– lob noun, pl lobs [count] ▪ He hit a lob over my head.

[1]lob•by /ˈlɑːbi/ noun, pl -bies [count]

1 : a large open area inside and near the entrance of a public

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

building (such as a hotel or theater) ▪ a hotel lobby ▪ I'll meet you in the lobby after the show.
2 : an organized group of people who work together to influence government decisions that relate to a particular industry, issue, etc. ▪ the gun/tobacco lobby ▪ The proposed new law is supported/opposed by the oil lobby.

²lobby verb -bies; -bied; -by•ing
1 : to try to influence government officials to make decisions for or against something [no obj] an organization that has been lobbying for reform of the tax laws ▪ The health-care industry has lobbied against the proposal. [+ obj] an organization that has been lobbying Congress for reform of the tax laws — often followed by to + verb ▪ They were lobbying Congress to reform the tax laws.
2 : to try to get something you want by talking to the people who make decisions [no obj] She has begun lobbying for an interview. [=trying to get an interview] ▪ a player who has lobbied hard to be included in the team's starting lineup [+ obj] I lobbied our company for a new computer.
– lob•by•ist /ˈlɑːbiɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ She was hired as a lobbyist for an oil company.

lobe /ˈloʊb/ noun, pl lobes [count]
1 : a curved or rounded part of something (such as a leaf or a part of the body) ▪ the frontal lobe of the brain
2 : EARLOBE
– lobed /ˈloʊbd/ adj ▪ deeply lobed leaves

lo•bot•o•my /loʊˈbɑːtəmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] medical : an operation in which part of the brain is cut in order to treat some mental disorders
– lo•bot•o•mize /loʊˈbɑːtəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing [+ obj] ▪ The patient was lobotomized.

lob•ster /ˈlɑːbstɚ/ noun, pl -sters
1 [count] : an ocean animal that has a long body, a hard shell, and a pair of large claws and that is caught for food — see color picture on page C8
2 [noncount] : the meat of the lobster eaten as food ▪ I had lobster for dinner.

lobster pot noun, pl ~ pots [count] : a trap for catching lobsters

¹lo•cal /ˈloʊkəl/ adj
1 a : relating to or occurring in a particular area, city, or town ▪ local news ▪ a local custom ▪ Are you making a local (telephone) call or a long-distance one? ▪ a local newspaper ▪ local and state roads b : located or living nearby ▪ We had dinner at a local restaurant. ▪ The police have arrested a local man for the crime. ▪ This is a local shop for local people: we don't get many outsiders here.
2 of a bus or train : making all the stops on a route ▪ She took the local bus. — compare EXPRESS
3 : involving or affecting only a small area of the body ▪ a local infection ▪ local anesthesia – lo•cal•ly adv ▪ locally grown corn ▪ The restaurant is known locally for its hamburgers. ▪ Do you live locally? [=in this area]

²local noun, pl locals [count]
1 : a person who lives in a particular area, city, or town : a local person — usually plural ▪ The restaurant is popular with (the) locals.
2 : a train or bus that makes all of the stops along its route — compare EXPRESS
3 US : a local part of a labor union ▪ He's the president of the union local at the factory.
4 Brit, informal : a pub that is near the place where you live : a local pub ▪ my mates down at the local

local area network noun, pl ~ -works [count] computers : a network that allows the computers in a small area (such as an office) to share equipment (such as printers) and data — called also LAN

local authority noun, pl ~ -ties [count] Brit : an organization that is in charge of the public services for a community local color (US) or Brit local colour noun [noncount] : interesting information about a particular place and about the people who live there that is included in a story, movie, etc. ▪ a writer who uses local color in his stories

lo•cale /loʊˈkæl, Brit ləʊˈkɑːl/ noun, pl -cales [count] : the place where something happens ▪ They chose a tropical island as the locale for their wedding. : the place where a story happens in a movie, book, etc. ▪ the film's locale [=setting] ▪ the locale of the story

local government noun, pl ~ -ments [count, noncount] : the government that controls and makes decisions for a local area (such as a town, city, or county)

lo•cal•i•ty /loʊˈkæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a particular place or area ▪ The plant has only been found in one locality. ▪ a locality with high housing prices

lo•cal•ize also Brit lo•cal•ise /ˈloʊkəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to keep (something) within a limited area : to prevent the spread of (something) ▪ Doctors are trying to localize the infection by using antibiotics.
2 : to find or identify the location of (something) ▪ The computer technician was able to localize the fault quickly.
– lo•cal•i•za•tion also Brit lo•cal•i•sa•tion /ˌloʊkələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌləʊkəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] localized also Brit localised adj [more ~; most ~] : occurring only within a small area ▪ The storm has caused localized flooding. ▪ a localized infection local time noun [noncount] : the time in a particular part of the world ▪ We'll be arriving in New York at 10:45 local time. [=it will be 10:45 in New York when we arrive]

lo•cate /ˈloʊˌkeɪt, loʊˈkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing
1 [+ obj] : to find the place or position of (something or someone) ▪ We tried to locate the border of the property. ▪ Can you locate your town on the map? ▪ The missing boy was located by police in the woods. ▪ The mechanic is still trying to locate the source of the problem. ▪ Reporters have been unable to locate the mayor for his comments.
2 a [+ obj] : to put (something or someone) in a particular place ▪ The company chose to locate its factory near the airport. ▪ The guard located [=stationed, positioned] himself by the back door. b [no obj] US : to make an area, city, etc., your home or the place where your business operates ▪ The company located near the airport. ▪ His parents located in Ohio. c ✧ Something or someone that is located in a specified place is in or at that place. ▪ The bathroom is located upstairs. ▪ The company's factory is located [=situated] near the airport. ▪ He was working in Chicago for many years, but he is currently located in New York. ▪ The restaurant is conveniently located just a few minutes from my house.

lo•ca•tion /loʊˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [count] : a place or position ▪ This is a lovely location for a house. ▪ The store has a new location. ▪ The company is moving its factory to a different location. ▪ Radar established the precise location of the aircraft.
2 : a place outside a studio where a movie is filmed [count] All of his movies feature lavish sets and exotic locations. [noncount] The picture was filmed on location in the desert.
3 [noncount] : the act of finding where something or someone is : the act of locating something or someone ▪ Fog made location of the harbor difficult.

loch /ˈlɑːk/ noun, pl lochs [count] Scotland : a lake or a part of the sea that is almost surrounded by land — used in names ▪ Loch Lomond ▪ Loch Ness

loci plural of LOCUS

¹lock /ˈlɑːk/ noun, pl locks
1 [count] : a device that keeps something (such as a door, window, or box) from being opened and that is usually opened by using a key ▪ We had no key so we had to break the lock to open the door. ▪ The thief used a wire to pick the lock. — see also COMBINATION LOCK, PADLOCK
2 [count] : an area in a canal or river that has gates at each end which are opened and closed to control the level of the water in different sections of the canal or river as boats move through it
3 [count] : a method of holding someone so that the person being held cannot move ▪ a leg lock — see also HEADLOCK
4 US, informal a [singular] : complete control of something ▪ He appears to have a lock on the nomination for governor. [=he appears to be sure of getting the nomination for governor] ▪ He has been able to get a lock on the nomination. ▪ There seems to be no danger that the company will lose its lock on the industry. b [count] : someone or something that is certain to have or do something — usually singular ▪ He's a lock for the nomination. = He's a lock to get the nomination. [=he is certain to get the nomination] ▪ The team is a lock to win the championship. c [count] : something that is certain to happen — usually singular ▪ It looks like his nomination is a lock.
5 [count, noncount] Brit : the extent to which the front wheels of a vehicle can be turned ▪ a car on full lock [=a car with its wheels turned as far as possible] lock, stock, and barrel : including everything : wholly or completely ▪ She gave her friend everything she owned, lock, stock, and barrel, and moved away. ▪ He insisted that he be given control of the business, lock, stock, and barrel.

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

under lock and key : in a room, box, etc., that is locked ▪ The jewels are kept under lock and key. ▪ The prisoner is being kept/held under lock and key.

– compare ³LOCK

²lock verb locks; locked; lock•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to fasten (something) with a lock ▪ They locked the door when they left and unlocked it when they returned. ▪ She locked the bicycle to the railing with a chain. ▪ The door was locked. b [+ obj] : to fasten the door, lid, etc., of (something) with a lock ▪ He forgot to lock the car. ▪ They locked the box (shut) with a padlock. ▪ a locked room — often + up ▪ She locked up the house. c [no obj] : to become fastened with a lock ▪ The door locked behind him. [=after he went through it] ▪ The car locks automatically when you start the engine.

2 a [no obj] : to become fixed in one position ▪ The wheels/brakes locked and the car skidded off the road. ▪ Their eyes locked. [=they looked directly at each other without looking away] b [+ obj] : to hold (someone or something) in a fixed position ▪ He locked her in his arms. = He locked her in a tight/close embrace. [=he embraced her tightly/closely] ▪ They were locked in each other's arms. ▪ He locked his fingers around her wrist [=he gripped her wrist very tightly] and refused to let go. ▪ She locked her hands around the steering wheel. ▪ Protesters locked [=linked] arms across the forest road. ▪ His eyes were locked on her as she walked across the room. [=he was looking at her and at nothing else] ▪ Repeat the exercise, being careful not to lock your knees. [=being careful not to hold your knees in a fully extended position] — often used figuratively ▪ They were locked in a contract dispute. ▪ two armies locked in a terrible struggle/fight ▪ She was locked [=trapped] in a loveless marriage.

3 [+ obj] computers : to make (a file, database, etc.) impossible for others to open or change ▪ lock a database ▪ The file is locked for editing.

lock away [phrasal verb] 1 lock (something) away or lock away (something) : to put (something) in a locked container, place, etc. ▪ The jewelry was locked away [=locked up] in a cabinet. 2 lock (someone) away or lock away (someone) : to put (someone) in a locked place (such as a prison) for a long period of time ▪ lock away [=lock up] a criminal ▪ The state locked their sister away in a psychiatric hospital. 3 lock (yourself) away : to stay in a room or place by yourself for a long period of time ▪ He locked himself away in his room while he studied. = He was locked away in his room while he studied.

lock horns : to disagree about how something should be done : to fight or argue ▪ They've locked horns (with each other) over this issue a number of times.

lock in [phrasal verb] 1 lock (someone or something) in : to put or keep (someone or something) in a locked place, room, etc. ▪ She locked her brother in the bathroom. ▪ They locked the jewels in a safe. ▪ They threatened to lock him in jail. ▪ They pushed him into the room and locked him in. 2 lock (something) in or lock in (something) : to do something that makes you sure to get (something that could change, such as a good price, an interest rate, etc.) ▪ If you sign the contract today, you can lock in this low interest rate before it goes any higher.

lock on/onto [phrasal verb] lock on/onto (something) : to use electronic methods to find (a target) ▪ The pilot locked onto the ship and fired a missile. ▪ The missile locked on the target.

lock out [phrasal verb] lock (someone) out or lock out (someone) 1 : to prevent (someone) from entering a place, car, etc., by locking it ▪ I locked myself out accidentally. — often + of ▪ She locked her husband out of the house. 2 : to prevent (workers) from going to work in order to force an agreement ▪ The company has threatened to lock out its factory workers unless they agree to a new contract. — see also LOCKOUT

lock up [phrasal verb] 1 : to lock all of the doors of a building before leaving it ▪ The last employee to leave the store at night has to lock up. 2 lock (something) up or lock up (something) a : to put (something) in a locked container, room, etc. ▪ The money is locked up [=locked away] in a safe. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ Most of his money is locked up in real estate. [=most of his money is not easily available because it is invested in real estate] b chiefly US : to make control or achievement of (something) certain ▪ The team has first place locked up. [=the team is certain of getting first place] ▪ He was unable to lock up enough states to win the election. — see also ²LOCK 1b (above) 3 lock (someone) up or lock up (someone) : to put (someone) in a locked place (such as a prison) for a long period of time ▪ The police should lock him up. [=lock him away] — see also LOCKUP

³lock noun, pl locks

1 [count] : a small bunch of hair ▪ She was nervously tugging on a lock of her hair. — see also FORELOCK

2 locks [plural] literary + humorous : a person's hair ▪ I love her curly locks. [=her curly hair] ▪ her long, flowing locks ▪ golden locks — see also DREADLOCKS

– compare ¹LOCK

lock•er /ˈlɑːkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : a cupboard or cabinet that has a door which can be locked and that is used to store personal items (such as books, clothes, shoes, etc.) ▪ a school locker — see also FOOTLOCKER

2 US : a cold room in which fresh or frozen foods are stored ▪ a meat locker

locker room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] : a room in a school, sports stadium, etc., for changing clothes and for storing clothes and equipment in lockers — called also (Brit) changing room

lock•er–room /ˈlɑːkɚˌruːm/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : of, relating to, or suitable to a locker room ▪ the locker-room entrance ▪ locker-room language [=the kind of rough or rude language that is used by athletes in a locker room] ▪ locker-room humor

lock•et /ˈlɑːkət/ noun, pl -ets [count] : a small case that is usually worn on a chain around a person's neck ▪ She kept her husband's picture in her locket. — see color picture on page C11

lock•jaw /ˈlɑːkˌʤɑː/ noun [noncount] informal : TETANUS

lock•out /ˈlɑːkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count] : a situation in which an employer tries to force workers to accept certain conditions by refusing to let them come to work until those conditions are accepted — see also lock out at ²LOCK

lock•smith /ˈlɑːkˌsmɪθ/ noun, pl -smiths [count] : a person whose job is to make and repair locks lock•step /ˈlɑːkˌstɛp/ noun [noncount] : a way of marching in which people follow each other very closely in lockstep chiefly US : in a way that very closely matches someone or something else ▪ Drug use and crime grew in lockstep. [=they grew at the same time and at the same rate] ▪ He refused to march in lockstep with [=to conform with] others in the party.

lock•up /ˈlɑːkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count]

1 : a place where prisoners are kept : JAIL ▪ a police station lockup — see also lock up at ²LOCK

2 Brit : a garage (sense 1) that is rented out — called also lockup garage

lo•co /ˈloʊkoʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US, informal : CRAZY ▪ The crowd went loco when she walked out on the stage. ▪ He's not just weird, he's positively loco. — see also IN LOCO PARENTIS lo•co•mo•tion /ˌloʊkəˈmoʊʃən/ noun [noncount] technical : the act or power of moving from place to place ▪ studying the locomotion of spiders [=studying how spiders move] ▪ Walking is one form of locomotion.

¹lo•co•mo•tive /ˌloʊkəˈmoʊtɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : the vehicle that produces the power that pulls a train

²locomotive adj [more ~; most ~] technical : of or relating to movement from place to place : of or relating to locomotion ▪ the locomotive ability of spiders ▪ locomotive power

lo•cum /ˈloʊkəm/ noun, pl -cums [count] chiefly Brit : someone (such as a priest or doctor) who does the work of another person who is away for a short time lo•cus /ˈloʊkəs/ noun, pl lo•ci /ˈloʊˌsaɪ/ [count] formal : a central or main place where something happens or is found ▪ The area became a locus of resistance to the government.

lo•cust /ˈloʊkəst/ noun, pl -custs [count] : a type of grasshopper that travels in very large groups and that can cause great destruction by eating crops ▪ a swarm of locusts lo•cu•tion /loʊˈkjuːʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] technical : a particular way of using words : a word or phrase ▪ We were taught to avoid certain locutions when speaking.

lode /ˈloʊd/ noun, pl lodes [count] : an amount of a mineral (such as gold or silver) that fills a crack or space in rock — often used figuratively ▪ In her books she mines the seemingly endless lode of her personal experiences. — see also MOTHER LODE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lode•star /ˈloʊdˌstɑə/ noun, pl -stars [count] formal : something or someone that leads or guides a person or group of people ▪ The idea of public service has been a lodestar for her throughout her life.

lode•stone /ˈloʊdˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count] : a magnetic rock — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The city is a lodestone [=magnet] for aspiring actors and actresses.

[1]lodge /ˈlɑːʤ/ verb lodg•es; lodged; lodg•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to provide (someone) with a place to stay for a short period of time ▪ The workers were lodged in temporary camps. ▪ The refugees needed to be lodged and fed. b [no obj] : to stay at a place for a short period of time ▪ We lodged at the resort. — often + with ▪ The guests lodged with their hosts overnight.

2 : to become stuck or fixed in a specified place or position [no obj] The bullet lodged in his brain. [+ obj] The bullet lodged itself in his brain. — often used as (be) lodged ▪ The bullet was lodged in his brain. ▪ A fish bone got/became lodged in her throat. — often used figuratively ▪ a scene that is lodged in my memory [=a scene that I cannot forget]

3 [+ obj] : to present (something, such as a complaint) to someone so that it can be considered, dealt with, etc. : FILE ▪ The group has lodged a grievance. — often + against ▪ She lodged a complaint against her landlord in court. ▪ He disputes the charges that have been lodged against him.

4 [+ obj] chiefly Brit : to place (something, such as money) in something or with someone so that it can be kept safe ▪ The funds were lodged in an offshore account. ▪ The funds were lodged with an offshore bank.

[2]lodge noun, pl lodges [count]

1 : a house or hotel in the country or mountains for people who are doing some outdoor activity ▪ a hunting/ski lodge

2 : the place where a beaver lives ▪ a beaver/beaver's lodge

3 a : a local group that is part of a larger organization ▪ He's a member of a Masonic lodge. b : a meeting place for the members of such a group ▪ an annual dinner at the lodge

4 a chiefly Brit : a small house used by a person who works on an estate ▪ the gamekeeper's lodge b Brit : a shelter or room for the use of a worker (such as a gatekeeper, doorkeeper, or janitor) at a college ▪ Ask for Professor Jones at the porter's lodge. c Brit : the official residence of the head of a college that is part of a British university and especially Cambridge University ▪ the Master's Lodge

lodg•er /ˈlɑːʤɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who rents a room in another person's house lodging noun, pl -ings : a place where a person (such as a traveler) can stay for usually a short period of time : a place to sleep [noncount] There is gas, food, and lodging at the next highway exit. ▪ (Brit) He worked in the kitchen in return for board and lodging. [=(US) room and board] [count] — usually plural ▪ luxury lodgings ▪ It can be difficult to find inexpensive lodgings in the city. ▪ He found lodgings with a family near the university.

lodging house noun, pl ~ houses [count] chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : a house with rooms that can be rented : ROOMING HOUSE

[1]loft /ˈlɑːft/ noun, pl lofts [count]

1 : a room or space that is just below the roof of a building and that is often used to store things ▪ The kids' bedroom has a loft.

2 : a high section of seats in a church or hall ▪ the choir loft

3 chiefly US a : an upper floor of a warehouse or business building especially when it is not divided by walls b : an apartment made on the upper floor of a former warehouse or business building ▪ He rents a converted loft.

4 : HAYLOFT

[2]loft verb lofts; loft•ed; loft•ing [+ obj] : to hit or throw (something, such as a ball) so that it rises high in the air ▪ He lofted a home run into the stands. ▪ The explosion lofted dust high into the air.

lofty /ˈlɑːfti/ adj loft•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 literary : rising to a great height : very tall and impressive ▪ lofty redwood trees ▪ lofty buildings synonyms see [1]HIGH

2 : very high and good : deserving to be admired ▪ He set lofty goals for himself as a teacher. ▪ lofty ideals/standards

3 : showing the insulting attitude of people who think that they are better, smarter, or more important than other people ▪ The professor spoke with a lofty [=haughty] air. ▪ She showed a lofty disregard for their objections.

– loft•i•ly /ˈlɑːftəli/ adv ▪ She loftily dismissed their objections. – loft•i•ness /ˈlɑːftinəs/ noun [noncount]

[1]log /ˈlɑːg/ noun, pl logs [count]

1 a : a long, heavy section of a tree that has fallen or been cut down ▪ a log cabin [=a cabin made from logs] b : a thick piece of wood ▪ Throw another log on the fire.

2 a : the record of travel by a ship or airplane ▪ the captain's log ▪ keep a log b : a record of performance, events, or activities ▪ The mechanic kept a log showing when repairs were done on the truck. ▪ a computer log

as easy as falling off a log see [1]EASY sleep like a log see [1]SLEEP

– compare [3]LOG

[2]log verb logs; logged; log•ging

1 : to cut down trees in an area for wood [+ obj] Thousands of trees have been logged in this area. ▪ The forest has been heavily logged. [no obj] The company has been logging in this area for many years.

2 [+ obj] : to make an official record of (something) ▪ Part of his job is to log all deliveries. ▪ log incoming phone calls

3 [+ obj] a : to do something for (a specified distance or time) ▪ Truck drivers log thousands of miles every week. ▪ She has only been flying for a few months, but she has already logged more than 80 hours. b chiefly US : to succeed in getting or achieving (something, such as a record of wins) ▪ a pitcher who has logged more than a hundred victories log off or log out [phrasal verb] computers : to end the connection of a computer to a network or system ▪ Remember to log off when you're finished.

log on or log in [phrasal verb] computers : to start the connection of a computer to a network or system — often + to ▪ logged on to the Internet ▪ You need a password to log in (to the network).

[3]log noun, pl logs [count] : LOGARITHM — compare [1]LOG lo•gan•ber•ry /ˈloʊgənˌberi, Brit ˈləʊgənbri/ noun, pl -ries [count] : a red berry that is sweet and juicy; also : the plant that loganberries grow on log•a•rithm /ˈlɑːgəˌrɪðəm/ noun, pl -rithms [count] mathematics : a number that shows how many times a base number (such as ten) is multiplied by itself to produce a third number (such as 100)

– log•a•rith•mic /ˌlɑːgəˈrɪðmɪk/ adj – log•a•rith•mi•cally /ˌlɑːgəˈrɪðmɪkli/ adv

log•book /ˈlɑːgˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a written record of activity, events, or travel : LOG ▪ a pilot's logbook log•ger /ˈlɑːgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] : someone whose job is to cut down trees for wood log•ger•heads /ˈlɑːgɚˌhɛdz/ noun

at loggerheads : in a state of strong disagreement ▪ The two nations are at loggerheads (with each other) over agricultural issues.

log•gia /ˈloʊʤijə/ noun, pl -gias [count] : an area on the side of a building that has a roof and that is open on one side

log•ic /ˈlɑːʤɪk/ noun

1 a : a proper or reasonable way of thinking about or understanding something [noncount] If you just use a little logic, you'll see I'm right. ▪ the rules of logic ▪ There's no logic in/to your reasoning. ▪ I can't see the logic in always worrying about the future. = Where's the logic in always worrying about the future? ▪ There's some logic to/in what he says. ▪ She kept the dog, against all logic, after it attacked her. [=her decision to keep the dog was not logical/sensible] ▪ Her decision defies logic. [=her decision makes no sense; her decision is not logical] [singular] There's a certain logic in/to what he says. b [noncount] : a particular way of thinking about something ▪ I could not understand her logic in keeping the dog. [=I could not understand her reason for keeping the dog] ▪ I fail to see your logic. = I fail to see the logic behind/of your reasoning. ▪ faulty logic

2 [noncount] : the science that studies the formal processes used in thinking and reasoning ▪ a professor of logic — see also FUZZY LOGIC

3 [noncount] : the way facts or events follow or relate to each other ▪ The revolution proceeded according to its own logic. ▪ the logic of the situation

4 [noncount] technical : the arrangement of circuits in a computer

log•i•cal /ˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : agreeing with the rules of logic : sensible or reasonable ▪ a logical argument/conclusion/decision ▪ Since she helped us before, it's logical to assume that she'll help us again. ▪ He seems to be a logical choice for the job. ▪ She wasn't able to give me a logical explanation for her behavior. ▪ a logical thinker

2 : of or relating to the formal processes used in thinking

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

and reasoning ▪ logical principles/argumentation
– log•i•cal•ly /ˈlɑːʤɪkli/ adv ▪ His argument doesn't proceed logically. ▪ He couldn't explain his decision logically. ▪ Since she helped us before, we can logically assume that she'll help us again.

lo•gi•cian /loʊˈʤɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : someone who is skilled or trained in the formal processes used in thinking and reasoning lo•gis•tics /loʊˈʤɪstɪks/ noun [plural] : the things that must be done to plan and organize a complicated activity or event that involves many people ▪ My mother was in charge of the logistics of our camping trip. ▪ Logistics are the key to a successful military campaign. ▪ the logistics of a political campaign — sometimes used with a singular verb ▪ Logistics is the key to a successful military campaign.

– lo•gis•tic /loʊˈʤɪstɪk/ or lo•gis•ti•cal /loʊˈʤɪstɪkəl/ adj ▪ The festival was a logistical nightmare. [=planning the details of the festival was extremely difficult]

log•jam /ˈlɑːgˌʤæm/ noun, pl -jams [count]
1 : a situation in which a large number of logs floating down a river become tangled with each other so that further movement is not possible
2 : a situation in which no progress seems possible ▪ He was called in to try to break the logjam in the negotiations.

logo /ˈloʊgoʊ/ noun, pl log•os [count] : a symbol that is used to identify a company and that appears on its products ▪ T-shirts with corporate logos

lo•gy /ˈloʊgi/ adj lo•gi•er; -est US, informal : not able to think or move normally because of being tired, sick, etc. ▪ feeling logy [=groggy]

-logy noun combining form
1 : area of knowledge : theory : science ▪ the*ology* ▪ bio*logy* ▪ musico*logy* ▪ psycho*logy*
2 : speech or writing ▪ tri*logy*

loin /ˈlɔɪn/ noun, pl loins
1 a [count] : an area on the back of an animal's body near the tail ▪ a horse's loins b [count, noncount] : meat from this area ▪ pork loin
2 loins [plural] : the area of a person's body that includes the sexual organs ▪ There was a towel wrapped around his loins. ✧ Your child or children can be referred to as the fruit of your loins. A child can be described as springing/coming from the loins of his or her parents. These phrases are usually used in a humorous way.
gird (up) your loins : to prepare yourself for a fight or for some difficult task ▪ The company is girding its loins for what could be a long strike.

loin•cloth /ˈlɔɪnˌklɑːθ/ noun, pl -cloths [count] : a piece of cloth worn to cover the sexual organs especially by men in very hot parts of the world loi•ter /ˈlɔɪtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] : to remain in an area when you do not have a particular reason to be there ▪ Loitering is prohibited outside the theaters. ▪ There was a group of teenagers loitering (around) [=hanging around] in the parking lot.

– loi•ter•er /ˈlɔɪtərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

LOL abbr laugh(ing) out loud — used on the Internet, in e-mail, etc., to indicate that something is considered very funny

loll /ˈlɑːl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition lolls; lolled; loll•ing [no obj]
1 : to hang or bend loosely ▪ a dog with its tongue lolling out ▪ Her head was lolling to one side.
2 : to lie or sit in a relaxed or lazy manner ▪ She was lolling by the pool. ▪ He lolled about/around in his pajamas all day.

lol•li•pop or lol•ly•pop /ˈlɑːliˌpɑːp/ noun, pl -pops [count] : a round piece of hard candy on the end of a stick

lol•ly /ˈlɑːli/ noun, pl lol•lies
1 [count] a chiefly Brit : LOLLIPOP b Brit : ICE LOLLY
2 [noncount] Brit, old-fashioned slang : MONEY

lol•ly•gag /ˈlɑːliˌgæg/ verb -gags; -gagged; -gag•ging [no obj] US, informal : to spend time doing things that are not useful or serious : to fool around and waste time ▪ He was kicked off the team for lollygagging during practice. ▪ Stop lollygagging around/about and get to work!
– lol•ly•gag•ger noun, pl -gers [count]

lo mein /ˈloʊˈmeɪn/ noun [noncount] : a combination of soft noodles, vegetables, and usually meat or shrimp that is served in Chinese restaurants in the U.S. — compare CHOW MEIN

lone /ˈloʊn/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : standing, acting, or being alone ▪ a lone traveler [=a traveler who is alone] ▪ a lone gunman ▪ He was the lone [=only, sole] official to vote against the plan. ▪ a lone [=solitary] tree on the hill — see also LONE WOLF
2 Brit : not having a partner (such as a husband or wife) ▪ a lone [=single] parent/father/mother lone•ly /ˈloʊnli/ adj lone•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : sad from being apart from other people ▪ He was/felt lonely without his wife and children. ▪ a lonely old man ▪ feeling lonely ▪ She was a lonely child with few friends.
2 : causing sad feelings that come from being apart from other people ▪ It was lonely living out in the country. ▪ She spent too many lonely nights at home. ▪ She had a lonely childhood. ▪ It's lonely at the top. [=powerful and successful people often have few friends]
3 : not visited by or traveled on by many people ▪ a lonely spot in the woods ▪ a lonely stretch of road
– lone•li•ness /ˈloʊnlinəs/ noun [noncount]

lonely hearts adj, always used before a noun : intended for lonely people who want to meet someone they can have a romantic or friendly relationship with ▪ a lonely hearts club ▪ the lonely hearts section of the newspaper lon•er /ˈloʊnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who is often alone or who likes to be alone ▪ The killer was a loner with no friends.

lone•some /ˈloʊnsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] chiefly US
1 : sad from being apart from other people : LONELY ▪ He was/felt lonesome for his family.
2 : causing sad feelings that come from being apart from other people : LONELY ▪ The empty house seemed so lonesome.
3 : not visited by or traveled on by many people : LONELY ▪ a lonesome highway ▪ the lonesome frontier
(all) by your lonesome informal : without anyone else : entirely alone ▪ He sat by his lonesome [=by himself] at the dinner table. ▪ She made the cake all by her lonesome.

lone wolf noun, pl ~ wolves [count] : someone who likes to act, live, or work alone : LONER ▪ He had the reputation of being a lone wolf in high school.

[1]long /ˈlɑːŋ/ adj lon•ger /ˈlɑːŋgə/; lon•gest /ˈlɑːŋgəst/
1 a : extending a great distance from one end to the other end : not short ▪ long hair ▪ long legs ▪ a long corridor ▪ The bridge is the longest in the world. ▪ We drove a long distance. ▪ the long/longer side of the building ▪ The pants are a little (too) long for me. [=they should be shorter in order to fit me] b : extending a specified distance : having a specified length ▪ one meter long ▪ The whale was 50 feet long. ▪ "How long was the race?" "The race was five miles long."
2 a : lasting or continuing for a great amount of time ▪ a long pause/wait ▪ They've had a long and happy marriage. ▪ She finds it hard to sit still for long periods of time. ▪ It's a long movie. ▪ The company has a long tradition of serving its customers well. ▪ I've known them for a long time. [=many years] ▪ I haven't seen them for/in a (very) long time. = (US) I haven't seen them for the longest time. ▪ The changes took a long time to come. = The changes were long in coming. [=the changes did not happen quickly] ▪ It happened a long time ago. [=far in the past; not at all recently] ▪ The test should take an hour at the longest. [=it should not be longer than an hour] ▪ She is used to working long hours. [=she often works for many hours at a time] ▪ He has a very long memory. [=he remembers things that happened far in the past] ▪ someone with long experience in the UN [=someone who has been in the UN many years] ▪ She gave him a long look. [=she looked at him for many seconds] ▪ It's been a long day. [=a difficult day in which time seems to go by slowly] ▪ We took Friday off and went to the coast for a long weekend. [=a weekend with an extra day added to it] b : lasting or continuing for a specified amount of time ▪ The movie is three hours long. [=it lasts three hours] ▪ A day is 24 hours long. — see also DAY-LONG, MONTHLONG, WEEKLONG
3 a : having many pages, items, etc. ▪ a long book/essay/list ▪ The team has had a long streak of wins. b : having a specified number of pages, items, etc. ▪ The book is 300 pages long. ▪ The team's winning streak is 12 games long.
4 of clothing : covering all or most of the arms or legs ▪ a shirt with long sleeves ▪ long pants ▪ a long skirt
5 sports : going beyond the area of play ▪ His second serve was long, so he lost the point.
6 linguistics, of a vowel — used to identify certain vowel sounds in English ▪ long and short vowels ▪ the long "a" in "make" ▪ the long "e" in "sweet" ▪ the long "i" in "ice" ▪ the long "u" in "use" — compare [1]SHORT 8

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

7 of someone's face : showing sadness ▪ Why the long face? [=you look sad; why are you sad?]

a long way : a great distance ▪ He grew up a long way from here. ▪ Their house is a long way (away) from here. — often used figuratively in various phrases ▪ We've done a lot of work, but we have a long way to go. [=we still have a lot of work to do] ▪ These changes will go a long way toward/towards making the system more efficient. [=these changes will do a lot to make the system more efficient] ▪ The company has really come a long way [=the company has made a lot of progress] since/from its humble beginnings. ▪ These problems go back a long way. [=these problems have existed for a long time] ▪ She and her business partner go back a long way (together). [=she and her business partner have known each other for a long time] as long as someone's arm informal : very long : having many pages, items, etc. ▪ I had a list of things to do that was as long as your/my arm.

at long last see ⁵LAST

how long is a piece of string see ¹STRING

long in the tooth see TOOTH long on : having or providing a good amount of (something) ▪ He was long on criticism [=he said many critical things] but short on useful advice.

long time no see informal — used as a greeting for someone you have not seen for a long time ▪ Well hello there! Long time no see!

not by a long chalk see ¹CHALK not long for this world see ¹WORLD

take the long view see ¹VIEW

the long arm of the law see ¹ARM

²long adv longer; longest

1 : for or during a long time : for many years, days, hours, etc. ▪ The extra food she brought did not last long. ▪ Will he be away (very) long? ▪ They'll have to wait a bit longer. ▪ The mall has long been a popular hangout for teenagers. ▪ They have long been devoted friends. ▪ It's been so long since we've seen each other. ▪ It's been much too long since we've seen each other. ▪ That meeting was way too long. ▪ She's been away so long. [=for such a long time] ▪ We had to leave long before we were ready to go. ▪ Long live the King/Queen! [=may the King/Queen live for many years] — sometimes used in combination ▪ her long-awaited new novel ▪ a long-anticipated announcement

2 : for a specified period of time ▪ The children played all day long. [=throughout the day] ▪ We talked all night long. ▪ all summer/week long

3 : at a time far before or after a specified moment or event ▪ events that occurred long before the discovery of America ▪ He remembered that day long after it had faded from her memory. ▪ The book wasn't published until long after she had died. ▪ He went to bed at 10 o'clock. Not long after/afterward, the phone rang.

4 : for a great distance ▪ The quarterback threw the ball long.

as long as or so long as 1 : SINCE ▪ As long as I'm here, we may as well begin. ▪ As long as you're up, would you mind getting me a drink? ▪ So long as you feel that way I'll leave. 2 : IF ▪ I'll go with you as long as you'll drive. ▪ They can do anything they want, so long as they follow the rules. ▪ As long as she's allowed to go first, she's happy. 3 : during the time that : WHILE ▪ The economy will remain strong as long as there are jobs to go around.

be long — used to ask how much time will be required or to say that something will take only a short amount of time or will happen soon ▪ "Will you be long?" "No, I'll be ready soon." ▪ I'm going out now, but I won't be long. [=I will return soon] ▪ "Have you finished yet?" "No, but I won't be long." [=I will finish soon] ▪ "Will you be much longer?" "No, I'm almost ready." ▪ We've been waiting since morning, but it won't be long now. [=what we have been waiting for will happen/come soon] ▪ It can't be much longer before they give up. [=they will probably give up soon] long ago : at a time in the distant past ▪ events that happened long ago ▪ The announcement was made not long ago. [=the announcement was made recently] ▪ It wasn't so/very long ago that this place was empty field.

long gone : having ended, died, disappeared, etc., at a distant time in the past ▪ Those buildings are long gone now.

long since : at a time in the distant past : long ago ▪ questions that have long since been answered [=questions that were answered long ago] ▪ an animal that has long since disappeared from this region ▪ I long since gave up trying to change her mind.

no longer or not any longer — used to say that something that was once true or possible is not now true or possible ▪ They could wait no longer. = They couldn't wait any longer. [=it was not possible for them to continue waiting] ▪ I can no longer afford the car. [=I could afford the car at some time in the past but I cannot afford it now] so long informal : ¹GOODBYE ▪ So long (for now)! Have a safe journey home! ▪ She said so long to her friends and family and headed off to college. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ the time of year when we say so long to winter coats [=when we stop wearing winter coats] take long : to require a large amount of time ▪ It won't take long to make dinner. ▪ This is taking longer than I thought (it would).

³long noun

before long : in a short amount of time : SOON ▪ They said they would be finished before long. ▪ Before long the light rain had turned into a heavy downpour. ▪ We expect them to arrive before long. [=before much longer]

for long : for many years, days, hours, etc. : for a long time ▪ I haven't known him for long. ▪ Her life did not remain peaceful for long. ▪ He won't be away for (very) long. [=for (very) much longer] ▪ He didn't work here for long. ▪ She's been away for so long. [=for such a long time]

the long and (the) short of it — used when making a statement that is brief and that tells someone only the most important parts of something ▪ I could give you a lot of reasons for my decision, but the long and short of it is that I just don't want to go.

⁴long verb longs; longed; long•ing [no obj]

: to feel a strong desire or wish for something or to do something ▪ We all long for peace. = We all long to live in peace. ▪ I'm longing for the time when I will see you again. = I'm longing to see you again. = How I long to see you again! ▪ He began to feel that the longed-for day of her return would never come.

synonyms see YEARN

long. abbr longitude

long ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] baseball : HOME RUN ▪ a pitcher who has given up a lot of long balls ▪ a batter known for hitting the long ball [=for hitting many home runs]

long•bow /ˈlɑːŋˌboʊ/ noun, pl -bows [count] : a large wooden weapon (called a bow) that shot arrows and was used for hunting and fighting in the past

long–dis•tance /ˈlɑːŋˈdɪstəns/ adj

1 always used before a noun a : going or covering a great distance ▪ long-distance trade routes ▪ long-distance travel ▪ long-distance roads ▪ a long-distance runner b : involving people who are far apart ▪ The two carried on a long-distance courtship/relationship/romance.

2 of a telephone call : connecting to a place that is far away ▪ She made several long-distance (phone/telephone) calls. ▪ Is this call long-distance? — opposite LOCAL – long–distance adv ▪ She called her parents long-distance. [=she made a long-distance call to her parents]

– long distance noun [noncount] chiefly US ▪ You have to pay more for long distance. [=to make long-distance telephone calls]

long division noun [noncount] mathematics : a way of dividing one number by another number that involves several steps which are written out ▪ students learning to do long division long–drawn–out adj [more ~; most ~] : continuing for a long time or for too long ▪ a long-drawn-out investigation ▪ The two sides have been engaged in long-drawn-out [=protracted] discussions.

lon•gev•i•ty /lɑnˈʤɛvəti/ noun [noncount]

1 a : long life : the fact of living for many years ▪ His longevity was remarkable considering he had been so sick when he was a child. ▪ The members of that family are famous for their longevity. [=for living to be very old] b : length of life ▪ Better medical treatment has led to greater longevity. ▪ a study of human longevity

2 : the length of time that something or someone lasts or continues ▪ The longevity of a car's tires depends on how the car is driven. ▪ She's a talented athlete, but many people have doubts about her longevity. [=about how long her athletic career will last] ▪ They're trying to increase the product's longevity.

long green noun [noncount] US, old-fashioned slang : MONEY ▪ was able to rustle up some long green in a hurry — often used with the ▪ The band was raking in the long green.

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:42:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

long•hair /ˈlɑːŋˌheɚ/ noun, pl -hairs [count]
1 chiefly US, old-fashioned : a person (such as a hippie) who has long hair ▪ Longhairs crowded into the music festival.
2 : a cat that has long fur — compare SHORTHAIR – longhair adj, always used before a noun ▪ longhair cats long–haired /ˈlɑːŋˈheɚd/ adj : having long fur or hair ▪ long-haired cats ▪ a beautiful long-haired girl long•hand /ˈlɑːŋˌhænd/ noun [noncount] : writing that is done by using a pen or pencil rather than with a typewriter or computer ▪ children learning (to do) longhand ▪ She wrote the book in longhand. — compare SHORTHAND long haul noun [noncount]

1 : a long journey or distance ▪ Driving across the country would be a long haul.
2 chiefly US : a long period of time — usually used in the phrases for the long haul and over the long haul ▪ It's going to be a tough project but we're in it for the long haul. [=we are prepared to work on the project until it is completed] ▪ Will the company be able to succeed over the long haul?
– long–haul adj, always used before a noun ▪ a long-haul flight long•horn /ˈlɑːŋˌhoɚn/ noun, pl -horns [count] : a type of cow that has long horns ▪ a herd of longhorns ▪ a Texas longhorn — often used before another noun ▪ a longhorn bull/steer ▪ longhorn cattle

[1]long•ing /ˈlɑːŋɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a strong desire for something or someone [noncount] They looked with longing toward freedom. ▪ She cast a look of longing at the shop window. [count] She never told anyone about her secret longings. — often + for ▪ They were filled with a deep longing for peace. ▪ He had/felt a longing for her. — often followed by to + verb ▪ The refugees felt a deep longing to return home. ▪ He had a longing to be with her.

[2]longing adj, always used before a noun : showing a strong desire for something or someone ▪ She looked at the shop window with a longing gaze.
– long•ing•ly /ˈlɑːŋɪŋli/ adv ▪ She gazed/looked longingly at the shop window.

long•ish /ˈlɑːŋɪʃ/ adj : somewhat long ▪ She wore a longish coat/skirt. ▪ He had longish black hair.

lon•gi•tude /ˈlɑːnʤəˌtuːd, Brit ˈlɒnʤəˌtjuːd/ noun, pl -tudes
1 : distance measured in degrees east or west from an imaginary line (called the prime meridian) that goes from the North Pole to the South Pole and that passes through Greenwich, England [noncount] a map of the world showing lines of latitude and longitude [count] calculating the longitudes of different places — compare LATITUDE 1a
2 [count] : an imaginary line that circles the Earth at a particular longitude ▪ The regions are on roughly the same longitude. — compare LATITUDE 1b

lon•gi•tu•di•nal /ˌlɑːnʤəˈtuːdənəl, Brit ˌlɒnʤəˈtjuːdənəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : placed or going along the long side of something ▪ The insect's body is black with yellow longitudinal stripes.
2 : of or relating to longitude ▪ calculating the longitudinal position of a ship
3 : done by observing or examining a group of people or things over time to study how one or two particular things about them change ▪ a longitudinal study of career aspirations among girls from 5 to 17
– lon•gi•tu•di•nal•ly adv

long johns /ˈlɑːŋˌʤɑːnz/ noun [plural] : underwear that covers your legs and that is worn in cold weather — called also (US) long underwear; see color picture on page C12 long jump noun

the long jump : an athletic event in which people compete by trying to jump as far as they can ▪ He won a gold medal in the long jump. — sometimes used before another noun ▪ a long jump competition ▪ She set a long jump record at the meet. — called also (US) the broad jump
– long jumper noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

long–last•ing /ˈlɑːŋˈlæstɪŋ, Brit ˈlɒŋˈlɑːstɪŋ/ adj long•er–last•ing; long•est–last•ing [or more ~; most ~] : existing or continuing for a long time ▪ a book that has long-lasting [=lasting, enduring] significance ▪ The trip had a long-lasting effect on me.

long–life adj, always used before a noun
1 : made to last a long time ▪ long-life batteries
2 Brit : having a substance added that allows something to remain fresh or good for a long time ▪ long-life milk long–lived /ˈlɑːŋˈlɪvd/ adj long•er–lived; long•est–lived [or more ~; most ~] : living or lasting for a long time ▪ a long-lived woman, still vigorous in her 80s ▪ The members of that family were all long-lived. ▪ The redwood is a long-lived tree. ▪ That fad was relatively/remarkably long-lived. — compare SHORT-LIVED long–lost /ˈlɑːŋˈlɑːst/ adj, always used before a noun : lost a long time ago : not seen or found for many years ▪ a long-lost masterpiece that has recently been rediscovered ▪ He embraced his old friend like a long-lost brother.

long–play•ing record /ˈlɑːŋˈpleɪŋ-/ noun, pl ~ -cords [count] : LP long–range /ˈlɑːŋˈreɪnʤ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : able to travel or be used over great distances ▪ long-range bombers/missiles/rockets/weapons ▪ a long-range radio
2 : involving a long period of time ▪ long-range planning ▪ long-range [=long-term] goals/trends ▪ a long-range forecast

long run noun
the long run : a long period of time after the beginning of something ▪ Invest for the long run [=the long term], not to see what you can earn in a few months. ▪ Your solution may cause more problems over the long run. — usually used in the phrase in the long run ▪ It may be our best option in the long run. [=when a greater amount of time has passed] ▪ This deal will cost you more in the long run. [=in the long term] — compare SHORT RUN
– long–run adj, always used before a noun ▪ long-run benefits [=benefits that will exist or continue over a long period of time]

long•shore•man /ˈlɑːŋˌʃoɚmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] US : a person whose job is to load and unload ships at a port — called also stevedore, (US) dockworker, (Brit) docker

long shot noun, pl ~ shots [count]
1 : an attempt or effort that is not likely to be successful ▪ I hope to double my profits, but I know that's a long shot.
2 chiefly US : a person or thing that is not likely to win something (such as a contest or race) ▪ The horse was a long shot, but we bet on him anyway. ▪ She always bets on long shots at the racetrack. ▪ a political long shot by a long shot : by a great extent or degree : by far ▪ It was the biggest problem we had—by a long shot.
not by a long shot : not at all ▪ Our work isn't done yet, not by a long shot. [=we still have a lot more work to do]

long–sight•ed /ˈlɑːŋˌsaɪtəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] Brit
1 : FARSIGHTED 1 ▪ He needs reading glasses because he is long-sighted.
2 : FARSIGHTED 2 ▪ long-sighted planning for the future
– long–sight•ed•ness noun [noncount]

long–stand•ing /ˈlɑːŋˈstændɪŋ/ adj : lasting or existing for a long time ▪ It was a long-standing tradition for them to camp in the mountains for a week during the summer. ▪ Some long-standing problems are finally being corrected. ▪ their long-standing relationship long–suf•fer•ing /ˈlɑːŋˌsʌfərɪŋ/ adj : suffering for a long time without complaining : very patient during difficult times ▪ his forgiving and long-suffering wife ▪ When the Red Sox won the World Series, their long-suffering fans could finally celebrate.

long suit noun [singular] : something that a person does well : STRONG SUIT ▪ Patience is not her long suit. [=she is not a patient person]

long term noun
the long term : a long period of time after the beginning of something ▪ She is investing for the long term. [=the long run] ▪ I think it's the better choice over the long term. — usually used in the phrase in the long term ▪ an investment that should do well in the long term [=when a greater amount of time has passed] ▪ These changes may improve profits now, but they are going to cost us money in the long term. [=in the long run] — compare SHORT TERM

long–term /ˈlɑːŋˈtɚm/ adj : lasting for, relating to, or involving a long period of time ▪ The long-term effects of the medication are not known. ▪ The company has a long-term plan/strategy for success. ▪ His long-term memory is still okay, but his short-term memory is failing. [=he is still able to remember things that happened long ago but it is difficult for him to remember things that happened recently] ▪ long-term care for the elderly ▪ a long-term investment long•time /ˈlɑːŋˈtaɪm/ adj, always used before a noun : having been something specified for many years ▪ the longtime chairman of the committee ▪ longtime residents of the neighborhood ▪ her longtime boyfriend/editor/manager/partner ▪ longtime rivals

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lon•gueur /lɑŋ'gɚ/ noun, pl -gueurs [count] literary : a boring part of something (such as a book or play) — usually plural ▪ Though not without its longueurs, the opera came to life in the last act.

long underwear noun [noncount] US : LONG JOHNS long–wind•ed /ˌlɑːŋ'wɪndəd/ adj : using too many words in speaking or writing ▪ The teacher was known for his long-winded explanations. ▪ a long-winded sermon/speech ▪ a long-winded speaker

– long–wind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

loo /'luː/ noun, pl loos [count] Brit, informal : TOILET loo•fah /'luːfə/ noun, pl -fahs [count] : a rough sponge that is made from the dried fruit of a tropical plant and that people use to wash their bodies

[1]look /'lʊk/ verb looks; looked; look•ing

1 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to direct your eyes in a particular direction ▪ He looked straight ahead and kept walking. ▪ When you take a walk, look around you. ▪ She smiled at me and then looked away. ▪ He looked back the way he had come. ▪ Look both ways before you cross the street. ▪ When I finally reached the top I was afraid to look down. ▪ She looked from one person to the next. ▪ Look in the mirror/box. ▪ They looked off into the distance. ▪ He was looking over his shoulder. — often + at ▪ She looked longingly at the photograph. ▪ "What are you looking at?" "I'm looking at this flower." ▪ looking at the stars through a telescope = looking through a telescope at the stars — see also LOOK AROUND (below), LOOK AT (below), look over your shoulder at [1]SHOULDER

2 a [linking verb] : to seem to be something especially because of appearance ▪ He looks angry. ▪ Her new haircut makes her look young/younger. ▪ That cake looks delicious. ▪ "How does the situation look (to you) now?" "It looks pretty bad/good." ▪ It looks dangerous/unlikely. ▪ a kind-looking woman = a woman who looks kind ▪ The child looked to be about seven years old. ▪ The once-famous star looks to be heading into obscurity. ▪ The year ahead looks to be a profitable one. [=it appears likely to be profitable; I/we expect it to be profitable] — often used in the phrases look as if, look as though, and look like ▪ It looks like it will be hard work. ▪ It looks like it will rain/snow. = It looks like rain/snow. ▪ It looks to me like they're all the same. = It looks like they're all the same to me. = They look like they're all the same to me. ▪ It looked as though he was feeling ill. = He looked as though he was feeling ill. ▪ It looks like she's going to win the tournament again this year. = She looks like she's going to win the tournament again this year. = (Brit) She looks like winning the tournament again this year. [=she seems likely to win the tournament again this year] ▪ He looks like a nice man. = (Brit) He looks a nice man. [=he seems/appears to be a nice man] — see also LOOK LIKE (below) b [+ obj] : to have an appearance that is suitable for (something) ▪ She looks her age. [=her appearance shows her age] ▪ an actor who really looks the part [=whose appearance matches the appearance the character is supposed to have]

3 [no obj] : to try to find something or someone ▪ "I don't know where my keys are." "Try looking in the drawer." ▪ I've looked high and low. = I've looked everywhere. = I've looked all over. ▪ "I still haven't found my keys." "Well, keep looking." ▪ "I'm still trying to find my keys." "Well, look no further—here they are." — see also LOOK FOR (below)

4 [no obj] : to pay attention by directing your eyes at something ▪ You can see many wonderful things in nature if you take the time to stop and look. ▪ The store clerk asked if I needed any help, but I told him I was just looking. [=I was looking at the things being sold in the store but did not plan to buy anything specific]

5 [no obj] a — used to direct someone's attention to something or someone ▪ Look! Over there! Is that a hawk? ▪ Look! There he is! — often + at ▪ Look at those mountains. Have you ever seen anything so beautiful? ▪ Just look at the time! I had no idea it was that late! — often used in phrases like look where, look what, etc. ▪ Look what I found. ▪ Look who's here. ▪ Look how easy it is to do this. b — used in phrases like look where, look what, etc., to warn someone or to express anger or disappointment ▪ Look where you're going. You almost walked into that pole. ▪ Look what you did! You broke it. ▪ Now look what you've done. It's broken. c — used to introduce a statement when you want someone to notice what you are saying ▪ Look, this just isn't going to work. ▪ Look here, you need to start behaving more responsibly.

6 [+ obj] a : to want or try to do something — followed by to + verb ▪ a company looking to become a leader in the industry ▪ We're looking to create something new. b : to expect something — followed by to + verb ▪ We look to have a good year. = We are looking to have a good year.

7 [no obj] : to have a specified direction : to point or face in a specified direction ▪ The house looks east. ▪ The hotel looks toward the sea.

don't look now — used in speech before a statement to tell someone to be aware of something without looking ▪ Don't look now, but they're coming our way. ▪ Don't look now, but I think we're being followed.

look after [phrasal verb] look after (someone or something) : to take care of (someone or something) ▪ They hired a babysitter to look after the children. ▪ I can look after myself. ▪ He looks after his aging parents. ▪ They asked a friend to look after their house while they were away.

look a gift horse in the mouth see [1]HORSE

look ahead [phrasal verb] : to think about what will happen in the future ▪ The past year has been successful and, looking ahead, we expect to do even better in the coming months. — often + to ▪ Looking ahead to next year, we expect to be even more successful.

look around or Brit look round [phrasal verb] 1 look around/round or look around/round (a place) : to go through a place in order to see what is there : to explore a place ▪ We arrived early at the theater and spent a few minutes looking around. ▪ The kids looked around the shops while we unpacked. 2 look around/round for (something) : to search for (something) ▪ I looked around for my keys but I couldn't find them anywhere. ▪ He is looking around for a new car. — see also [1]LOOK 1 (above)

look at [phrasal verb] 1 look at (someone or something) a : to think about or consider (something or someone) ▪ Just look at how successful she's been. ▪ The company is looking at the possibility of moving to a larger office. ▪ I just haven't looked at him as (being) a potential roommate. ▪ The way I look at [=see] it, you're wrong. ▪ Some people are looking at her as a possible candidate for mayor. ▪ You can make changes in your life. Just look at Tim. [=consider that Tim has made changes to realize that you can also make changes] b : to examine or study (someone or something) ▪ You should have a doctor look at that bruise. ▪ I had the veterinarian look at my cat. 2 look at (something) a : to have (something bad or unpleasant) as a problem or possibility ▪ If you're found guilty, you could be looking at [=facing] five years in prison. b : to read (something or part of something) ▪ I haven't looked at [=read] the newspaper today. ▪ Did you look at that fax yet? — see also [1]LOOK 1, 5a (above)

look back [phrasal verb] : to think about something in the past ▪ Looking back to/at last season, I can see why they didn't win the pennant. ▪ I look back at/on that time with a lot of pride. [=I feel proud when I think about that time] ✧ If you make an important change in your life and never look back, you never return to the way you had been before, and your life is very different from that time onward. ▪ After college, she moved to New York, got a job on Wall Street, and never looked back.

look before you leap : to think or learn about the possible bad results of an action before doing it ▪ If you're planning to invest in your friend's company, I advise you to look before you leap.

look daggers at see DAGGER

look down on [phrasal verb] look down on (someone or something) : to think of or treat (someone or something) as unimportant or not worthy of respect ▪ The family was looked down on for being different. ▪ The other children looked down on me because my parents were poor.

look down your nose at : to think of or treat (someone or something) as unimportant or not worthy of respect ▪ She looked down her nose at her neighbors. ▪ writers who look down their noses at popular culture look for [phrasal verb] look for (something or someone) 1 : to try to find (someone or something) : to search for (someone or something) ▪ We had to wait while he looked for his keys. ▪ I've looked everywhere for my keys but I still can't find them. ▪ She's looking for a new job. ▪ look for a word in the dictionary ▪ The police continue to look for the escaped prisoners. ▪ His taste is—what's the word I'm looking for?—I know, "eclectic." — see also [1]LOOK 3 (above) 2 : to expect (something or someone) ▪ We're looking for better days in the future. ▪ Don't bother looking for me anytime too soon. — often followed by to + verb ▪ You can look for me to arrive around noon. ▪ Economists are looking for the economy to improve in the next few months. 3 *look for trouble informal : to act in a way that could cause violence or problems ▪ I could tell that he was looking for trouble as soon as he came in.

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

look forward to [phrasal verb] look forward to (something) : to expect (something) with pleasure ▪ They're looking forward to their vacation. ▪ He felt he had nothing to look forward to in his life. ▪ She's looking forward to meeting new friends.

look in on [phrasal verb] look in on (someone) : to make a brief social visit to (someone) ▪ I plan to look in on [=drop in on, call on] some old friends when I'm in town.

look into [phrasal verb] look into (something) : to try to get information about (something) ▪ Is there a problem? I could look into it. ▪ Investigators are looking into the cause of the accident.

look like : to have an appearance that is very similar to (someone or something) : to resemble (someone or something) ▪ You look just like your mother! [=you resemble your mother very closely] ▪ That powdered sugar looks like snow. — see also [1]LOOK 2a (above)

look like a million dollars/bucks see MILLION

look lively see LIVELY

look on/upon [phrasal verb] 1 *look on : to watch something as it happens without becoming involved ▪ A crowd of people looked on [=stood by] helplessly as the house burned to the ground. 2 *look on/upon (someone or something) : to think of or consider (someone or something) in a specified way — + as or with ▪ I've always looked on her as a friend. [=considered her to be a friend] ▪ They looked on reading as an escape from the troubles of life. ▪ He looked upon his son's accomplishments with pride.

look out [phrasal verb] 1 — used to tell someone to be aware of something dangerous ▪ Look out [=watch out]—one of the steps is missing! 2 *look (something) out or look out (something) Brit : to succeed in finding (something) ▪ It may take me a while to look out [=hunt down] his phone number for you.

look out for [phrasal verb] 1 *look out for (something) : to be aware of and try to avoid (something dangerous or unwanted) ▪ In the winter, drivers need to look out for icy patches on the roads. ▪ In buying a home, there are many potential problems (that) you should look out for. ▪ Look out for [=watch out for] that pothole! 2 *look out for (someone or something) : to take care of or protect (someone or something) ▪ I can look out for myself. ▪ She is supposed to be looking out for our interests. ✧ If you look out for number one, you only think about yourself and do what helps you most. ▪ We don't want a senator who's (only/always) looking out for number one.

look over [phrasal verb] look (something) over or look over (something) : to read or examine (something) usually in a quick or hurried way ▪ She looked over the plans on her way out of the office. ▪ He looked over his shopping list as he entered the store. ▪ look a proposal over

look sharp see [2]SHARP

look (someone) in the eye also look (someone) in the face : to look directly at (someone who is also looking at you) ▪ I wasn't afraid to look him (right) in the eye and tell him just what I thought of him!

look the other way : to ignore something that should be noticed or dealt with : to turn your attention away from something ▪ We can't just look the other way while these violations of basic human rights continue to occur. ▪ Residents of the neighborhood accuse police of looking the other way as drug dealers become more active there.

look through [phrasal verb] 1 *look through (something) a : to read or briefly examine some of the pages of (a book, magazine, etc.) ▪ She was looking [=leafing] through a magazine as she waited in the doctor's office. ▪ look through the pages of a magazine b : to look at the different parts of (a collection or group of things) ▪ I looked through [=went through] all his letters. 2 *look through (someone) : to pretend not to see or recognize (someone) in a rude or unfriendly way ▪ We used to be best friends but when she passed me on the street yesterday she looked (right/straight) through me without even saying hello!

look to [phrasal verb] 1 *look to (something) : to think about or examine (something) : to direct your attention to (something) ▪ They look to the future with ever-increasing hope. — usually + for ▪ We can look to the past for help in figuring out how to deal with this problem. ▪ look to nature for inspiration 2 *look to (someone) : to need (someone) to do something for or give something to you : to depend or rely on (someone) ▪ They look to me to fix the problem. ▪ Many parents look to their children to help them navigate the Internet. — often + for ▪ Many parents look to their children for help in navigating the Internet. ▪ She looked to her friends for help. ▪ They look to you for advice.

look up [phrasal verb] 1 : to get better : IMPROVE ▪ The economy is looking up. ▪ Things started to look up for me when I got the promotion. 2 *look (something) up or look up (something) : to search for (something) in a reference book, on the Internet, etc. ▪ If you don't know what a word means, you should look it up (in the dictionary). ▪ look up a telephone number ▪ look up an article in the encyclopedia 3 *look (someone) up or look up (someone) : to call or go to see (someone) when you are in the area where that person lives ▪ I told them to look me up if they came to town.

look up to [phrasal verb] look up to (someone) : to respect and admire (someone) ▪ I've always looked up to my older brother. ▪ The kids really look up to their coach.

Look what the cat dragged in! see CAT

look your best see [3]BEST not much to look at informal : not physically attractive ▪ The restaurant isn't much to look at, but the food is good. ▪ The dog is*n't much to look at*, but he's a great hunting dog.

[2]look noun, pl looks

1 [count] : the act of looking at something — usually singular ▪ A quick look inside someone's refrigerator can tell you a lot about that person. ▪ Come on inside. Take a look around. ▪ She went inside the building to have a look around. ▪ I wanted to get a look inside the car's engine. — often + at ▪ Just take/have a look at this! ▪ It's our first chance to get a look at the new library. ▪ The witness wasn't able to describe the killer because she didn't get a good look at him. [=she didn't see him clearly] ▪ We took one look at the weather and decided to stay home. [=when we saw how bad the weather was we immediately decided to stay home]

2 [count] : the act of examining or considering something — usually singular ▪ movies that are worth a look [=movies that you should consider seeing because they are good, entertaining, etc.] — usually + at ▪ The report takes a close/revealing/hard look at the public school system. ▪ We need to take a closer look at these issues.

3 [singular] : the act of trying to find something or someone ▪ I don't think you left it here, but I'll take a look around for it. ▪ I took a quick look, but he wasn't there.

4 [count] : the emotions and feelings that can be seen in a person's face or eyes ▪ You should have seen the look [=expression] on her face! ▪ I'll never forget the look in her eyes. ▪ a look of jealousy/pride/remorse ▪ He gave me an angry/dirty look. ▪ They exchanged looks of love. [=they looked at each other lovingly] ▪ I've never seen her so angry. If looks could kill, I'd be dead right now.

5 a [count] : a quality or characteristic that you can see when you look at something : the way that something looks ▪ The painting has an old-fashioned look to it. ▪ The building had the look [=appearance] of a fortress. ▪ a fabric that has the look of leather [=a fabric that has the same appearance as leather] ▪ Judging by/from the look of those clouds, we're going to get some rain. ▪ I don't like the look of those clouds. [=I don't like the way those clouds look; those clouds make me think that there will be a storm, it will rain or snow, etc.] ▪ The restaurant doesn't look very appealing, but looks can be deceiving/deceptive. [=something can be very different from how it seems or appears to be] ▪ From the look of things, that car won't last much longer. [=that car seems unlikely to last much longer] b *looks [plural] : physical appearance ▪ Everyone says he's handsome, but I wasn't impressed by his looks.; especially : attractive physical appearance ▪ She's very pretty, but she's not going to get by just on her looks. ▪ He had boyish good looks. ▪ She's worried about losing her looks [=becoming less attractive] as she grows older. c [count] : a style or fashion — usually singular ▪ a new look in women's fashion ▪ They wanted the right look for the company's new logo.

look–alike /ˈlʊkəˌlaɪk/ noun, pl -alikes [count] : someone or something that looks like another person or thing ▪ She and her cousin are look-alikes. [=they look like each other; they look very similar] ▪ a young actor who is a John Wayne look-alike [=a young actor who looks like John Wayne]

– look–alike adj, always used before a noun ▪ two look-alike cousins look•er /ˈlʊkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a person (especially a woman) who is very attractive ▪ His girlfriend's a real looker.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

look•er–on /ˌlʊkəˈɑːn/ noun, pl look•ers–on [count] : a person who watches something ▪ The accident attracted a small group of lookers-on. [=(more commonly) onlookers]

look–in /ˈlʊkˌɪn/ noun [singular] Brit : a chance to succeed or be involved in something ▪ She wanted to apply for the job, but they never let her get/have a look-in.

looking glass noun, pl ∼ glasses [count] old-fashioned : [1]MIRROR 1 look•out /ˈlʊkˌaʊt/ noun, pl -outs [count]

1 : a person who watches an area and warns others if there is danger ▪ The troops posted a lookout for the night.
2 : a high place or structure from which you can see a wide area ▪ The mountain road had several lookouts where you could enjoy the view. ▪ a lookout tower be someone's lookout Brit, informal — used to say that someone who makes a bad decision or does something foolish is responsible for the result and will have to deal with it alone ▪ If he wants to spend all his money on expensive clothes, that's his lookout.
keep a lookout for : to watch for (something or someone) ▪ The police officer walked through the neighborhood, keeping a (sharp) lookout for any suspicious activity.
on the lookout for : looking or searching for (something or someone) ▪ An avid shopper, she was always on the lookout for sales. ▪ The police are on the lookout for two men who escaped from custody yesterday.

look–see /ˈlʊkˈsiː/ noun [singular] chiefly US, informal : a quick act of looking at or examining something ▪ They heard the house was for sale, so they drove over to have a look-see.

[1]loom /ˈluːm/ verb looms; loomed; loom•ing [no obj]
1 : to appear in a large, strange, or frightening form often in a sudden way ▪ A ship loomed (up) out of the fog. ▪ Storm clouds loomed on the horizon. : to appear in an impressively large or great form ▪ The mountains loom above/over the valley.
2 : to be close to happening : to be about to happen — used especially of unpleasant or frightening things ▪ A workers' strike is looming. ▪ A battle is looming in Congress over the proposed budget cuts. ▪ a looming battle/conflict/problem/storm ▪ The deadline looms closer with each passing day. loom large : to have great importance or influence ▪ Rising tuition costs loom large in the minds of many parents. ▪ She was a critic who loomed large in literary circles.

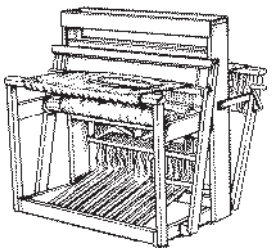
[2]loom noun, pl looms [count] : a frame or machine that is used to weave threads or yarns to produce cloth



loom

[1]loon /ˈluːn/ noun, pl loons [count] informal : a crazy person ▪ That guy is a complete loon. — compare [2]LOON

[2]loon noun, pl loons [count] : a large bird that lives in the northern parts of the world and that eats fish and has a loud and strange cry — compare [1]LOON

loon•ie /ˈluːni/ noun, pl -ies [count] Canada : a coin that is worth one Canadian dollar

[1]loo•ny /ˈluːni/ adj loo•ni•er; -est informal : crazy or foolish ▪ loony extremists ▪ Every family includes someone who's a little loony.

[2]loony noun, pl -nies [count] informal : a crazy or foolish person ▪ the loonies on that late-night television show loony bin noun, pl ∼ bins [count] informal + offensive : a hospital for people who are insane ✧ Loony bin is usually used in a joking way. ▪ If you keep acting like that we'll have to send you off to the loony bin.

[1]loop /ˈluːp/ noun, pl loops
1 [count] a : a curved part or shape made when something long and thin (such as a rope or thread) bends so that it touches or crosses over itself ▪ a closed loop of rope ▪ a wire with a loop at the end ▪ a loop of string/thread b : something that is shaped like a loop ▪ They rowed along a loop in the river. ▪ The road formed a loop around the pond. ▪ letters formed with lots of loops c : a ring or curved piece used for holding something ▪ a belt loop
2 [count] : an action in which an airplane flies in an upright circle perpendicular to the ground ▪ The pilot did/performed a loop. — see also loop the loop at [2]LOOP
3 [count] : a piece of film or tape with the ends joined together so that the same pictures or sounds are repeated continuously; also : a recording that is repeated continuously ▪ The computer-generated images are shown on a continuous loop.
4 [count] computers : a series of instructions that are repeated in a computer program until a specified condition is met
5 the loop : a group of people who know about or have influence or control over something — usually used in the phrases in the loop and out of the loop ▪ She wants to stay in the loop as these changes are being considered. ▪ He claims that he was kept out of the loop when the decision to sell the company was being made.
knock/throw (someone) for a loop US, informal : to cause (someone) to be very amazed, confused, or shocked ▪ The news of her death really knocked me for a loop. ▪ His parents were thrown for a loop when he quit college.
knock (something) for a loop US, informal : to damage or ruin (something) ▪ The town's economy has been knocked for a loop by the factory's closing. ▪ The news has knocked the stock market for a loop.

[2]loop verb loops; looped; loop•ing
1 : to form or cause (something) to form a loop [no obj] The road loops around the pond. ▪ The necklace is long enough to loop twice around my neck. [+ obj] She looped a string around her finger. ▪ He sat with his arms looped around his knees.
2 : to move or cause (something) to move in a high curving path [no obj] The ball looped over the shortstop's head into left field for a single. ▪ The batter hit a looping single to left field. [+ obj] The batter looped a single to left field. ▪ The quarterback looped a pass downfield.
loop the loop : to perform a loop in an airplane looped /ˈluːpt/ adj, US, informal : drunk or intoxicated ▪ I took one look at her and knew she was looped.

loop•hole /ˈluːpˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : an error in the way a law, rule, or contract is written that makes it possible for some people to legally avoid obeying it ▪ She took advantage of a loophole in the tax law. ▪ a tax loophole ▪ His attorney has been hunting/searching for a loophole that would allow him to get out of the deal. ▪ tried to close/plug a loophole in the new legislation

loopy /ˈluːpi/ adj loop•i•er; -est
1 : having many loops ▪ loopy handwriting
2 informal : strange or silly ▪ a loopy comedian ▪ a loopy smile/grin ▪ The movie has a certain loopy charm.

[1]loose /ˈluːs/ adj loos•er; -est
1 : not tightly fastened, attached, or held ▪ a loose tooth ▪ a loose thread ▪ Some of the shingles on the roof were loose. ▪ The rope was tied in a loose knot. ▪ The nails had been pried loose. ▪ Some of the shingles had come/worked loose. ▪ The boat came loose from its moorings and floated out into the harbor. ▪ The ball popped loose from the shortstop's glove.
2 a : not pulled or stretched tight ▪ a loose belt ▪ loose reins on a horse ▪ loose skin b of clothing : not fitting close to your body : not tight ▪ She was wearing a loose dress/skirt. ▪ a loose [=baggy] sweater
3 : not physically held or contained ▪ The dog was wandering loose in the streets. ▪ The lion had somehow gotten/broken loose [=free] from its cage. — see also LET LOOSE 1 (below)
4 a : not held together in a solid or tight mass ▪ loose dirt ▪ loose rocks ▪ loose sandy soil b : not held together in a bundle, container, etc. ▪ loose sheets of pages ▪ Loose hairs stuck out from under his cap. ▪ She let her hair hang down loose. ▪ You can buy a bag of potatoes or some loose potatoes.
5 : not stiff or tense : flexible or relaxed ▪ He walked with a loose stride. ▪ loose muscles ▪ I never relaxed that day; I just couldn't get loose. ▪ Runners should warm up for a few minutes to get loose. ▪ I tried to stay loose during the game, but I was too nervous. — see also HANG LOOSE (below)
6 : not closely joined or united ▪ Ten advocacy groups from all parts of the country formed a loose alliance/association/coalition to present their shared interests to Congress.
7 a : not exact or precise ▪ a very loose translation ▪ a loose interpretation of the law ▪ This book is only a novel in the loose sense of the word. [=the word "novel" does not usually refer to a book like this; many people would not consider the book a novel] b : not careful in speech : talking too freely ▪ Loose [=careless] talk spread the rumor. ▪ She has a loose tongue. [=she talks too much about things that are private, secret, etc.]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 34 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

8 sports : not controlled or held by any of the players in a game ▪ a loose ball/puck
9 old-fashioned : not respectable sexually : not decent or moral ▪ He was accused of loose conduct/behavior. ▪ a loose woman ▪ loose morals
10 of solid waste from the body : containing a larger than normal amount of fluid ▪ loose stools; also : producing loose stools ▪ loose bowels ▪ loose bowel movements all hell breaks loose see HELL break loose see [1]BREAK
cut loose 1 cut (someone) loose : to stop supporting or employing (someone) ▪ He worked here for a few years but he didn't do a good job, so we finally had to cut him loose. : to end an official relationship or agreement with (someone) ▪ She's been cut loose from her contract. [=the company/organization with whom she had a contract to work has ended the contract] 2 chiefly US, informal : to act in a free and relaxed way after behaving in a way that is controlled ▪ I enjoy cutting loose with friends on weekends.
hang loose chiefly US, informal : to remain calm and relaxed ▪ Just hang loose for a minute. I'll be right back.
have a screw loose, have a loose screw see [1]SCREW let loose 1 let (someone or something) loose or set/turn (someone or something) loose : to allow (someone or something) to move or go freely ▪ He let/set the dogs loose in the courtyard. ▪ cattle let loose to graze on the green fields — often used figuratively ▪ It's the end of the school year, when schools turn students loose on our towns. ▪ a director who's willing to let her actors loose to interpret their roles however they see fit ▪ how to stop the violence that has been let loose [=loosed] on the city 2 : to produce (something, such as a cry) in a sudden and forceful way ▪ The crowd let loose [=let out] an enormous groan when the pass was intercepted. ▪ She let loose (with) a scream.
play fast and loose see [1]PLAY
– loose•ly adv ▪ The clothes fit loosely. ▪ The term is loosely used by most people. ▪ The rider held the reins loosely as the horse slowed to a walk. ▪ loosely affiliated/allied businesses ▪ The company was loosely organized. ▪ The movie is loosely based on the novel. [=it is based on the novel but many things are different in the movie] – loose•ness noun [noncount] ▪ moral looseness ▪ the looseness of the translation ▪ the looseness of his clothing

[2]loose adv : in a way that does not fit close to your body ▪ loose-fitting clothing

[3]loose verb loos•es; loosed; loos•ing [+ obj]
1 : to release or untie (an animal or person) ▪ They loosed the dogs on the prowlers. [=they released the dogs so that they could catch, chase away, etc., the prowlers] — often used figuratively ▪ riots that have loosed an epidemic of violence on the city
2 : to make (something) less tight : LOOSEN ▪ He loosed his grip.
3 : to shoot or fire (something, such as an arrow or a bullet) ▪ The soldiers loosed a volley of rifle fire.

[4]loose noun
on the loose : able to move freely : not controlled or held in a prison, cage, etc. — used especially to describe a dangerous person, animal, or group ▪ The prisoner escaped and is still on the loose. ▪ A killer is on the loose. ▪ An angry mob was on the loose.
loose cannon noun, pl ∼ -nons [count] : a person who cannot be controlled and who does or says things that cause problems, embarrassment, etc., for others ▪ a politician who is regarded as a loose cannon by her colleagues loose change noun [noncount] : coins that a person is carrying ▪ He had a few dollars in loose change in his pockets.
loose end noun, pl ∼ ends [count] : a part of something (such as a job or story) that has not been completed ▪ We still have one more loose end to deal with before we're finished with the project. — usually plural ▪ The project is almost complete, but we still have a few loose ends to tie up. ▪ All the story's loose ends were wrapped up as the novel ended.
at loose ends (US) or Brit at a loose end : not knowing what to do : not having anything in particular to do ▪ With everyone on vacation she was at loose ends. ▪ Drop by if you find yourself at loose ends this weekend.
loose–joint•ed /ˈlu:sˈʤɔɪntəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : able to move in a very free and relaxed way ▪ a loose-jointed [=flexible, loose-limbed] dancer/gymnast loose–leaf /ˈlu:sˈli:f/ adj : designed so that sheets of paper can be added or removed by opening a locking device that holds the sheets of paper in place ▪ a loose-leaf notebook/binder/folder loose–limbed /ˈlu:sˈlɪmd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : able to move in a very free and relaxed way ▪ a loose-limbed [=flexible, loose-jointed] athlete loos•en /ˈlu:sn̩/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) less tight or firm : to make (something) loose or looser ▪ He used a spade to loosen the soil. ▪ She loosened the cake from the sides of the pan. ▪ loosen a screw ▪ After eating so much I had to loosen my belt. ▪ When the meeting was over he loosened his tie. ▪ She loosened her grip/hold on the rope. [=she began to hold the rope less tightly] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He has loosened his grip/hold on the company. b [no obj] : to become less tight or firm : to become loose or looser ▪ One of the screws had loosened a bit and had to be tightened. ▪ Her grip loosened.
2 : to become or to cause (something) to become less strict [+ obj] We want to loosen (up) the controls/restrictions that the law has imposed. ▪ Each generation seems to loosen the established standards of behavior. [no obj] Standards of behavior seem to be loosening everywhere.
loosen someone's tongue : to cause someone to talk more freely : to cause someone to say things that would not usually be said ▪ Drinking alcohol can loosen your tongue.
loosen up [phrasal verb] 1 : to make or become less tense : RELAX ▪ He loosens up by exercising. ▪ After a couple of drinks she had loosened up and was talking freely. ▪ He seemed nervous and his friends kept telling him to loosen up. 2 loosen (someone or something) up or loosen up (someone or something) : to cause (someone or something) to relax ▪ He exercises to loosen up his muscles. [=he exercises so that his muscles are not stiff] ▪ I tried to loosen her up [=I tried to get her to relax and feel comfortable] by telling a few jokes.
loos•ey–goos•ey /ˌlu:siˈgu:si/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] chiefly US, informal : very loose or relaxed ▪ a loosey-goosey attitude

[1]loot /ˈlu:t/ noun [noncount]
1 : something that is stolen or taken by force ▪ After raiding the town, the soldiers helped themselves to any loot that they could find. ▪ The thieves got a lot of loot in the robbery.
2 informal : MONEY ▪ He made a lot of loot selling cars.

[2]loot verb loots; loot•ed; loot•ing : to steal things from (a place, such as a store or house) during a war or after destruction has been caused by fire, rioting, etc. [+ obj] Rioters looted the stores. ▪ The soldiers were looting every house that they came to. ▪ The supplies had been looted [=stolen] from the warehouse. [no obj] Soldiers swept through the territory, looting, burning, and killing.
– loot•er noun, pl -ers [count] – looting noun [noncount] ▪ There has been widespread looting throughout the city.

lop /ˈlɑ:p/ verb lops; lopped; lop•ping [+ obj]
1 : to cut branches from (a tree, bush, etc.) ▪ trees that have been heavily lopped
2 : to cut or cut off (something) ▪ badly lopped hair — usually + off ▪ lop off a dead branch ▪ He accidentally lopped off [=chopped off] one of his fingers. — often used figuratively ▪ She offered to lop $20 off the price. [=to reduce the price by $20] ▪ They lopped several million dollars off the budget.

lope /ˈloʊp/ verb lopes; loped; lop•ing [no obj] : to run in a relaxed way with long strides ▪ The horses loped easily across/over the fields. ▪ He went loping up the hill. ▪ The outfielder loped after the ball.
– lope noun [singular] ▪ She ran with an easy lope. – lop•ing adj ▪ She ran with a long loping gait. – lo•ping•ly adv ▪ run/move lopingly lop–eared /ˈlɑ:pˌiəd/ adj : having long ears that hang down ▪ a lop-eared bunny/rabbit ▪ a lop-eared dog

lop•pers /ˈlɑ:pəz/ noun [plural] : a garden tool used for cutting branches and twigs ▪ a pair of loppers

lop•sid•ed /ˈlɑ:pˈsaɪdəd/ adj [more ∼; most ∼]
1 : having one side that is lower or smaller than the other ▪ The boat looked lopsided. ▪ The house had a lopsided porch. ▪ a lopsided grin/smile
2 : uneven or unequal ▪ They won the game by a lopsided score of 25–3. ▪ a lopsided vote of 99 to 1 ▪ (chiefly US) He won a lop-sided victory in the recent election. [=he won the election very easily; he had many more votes than the other candidates]
– lop•sid•ed•ly adv – lop•sid•ed•ness noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lo•qua•cious /loʊˈkweɪʃəs/ adj : liking to talk and talking smoothly and easily ▪ a loquacious and glib politician ▪ the loquacious host of a radio talk show
– lo•qua•cious•ly adv – lo•qua•cious•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a politician known for her loquaciousness – lo•quac•i•ty /loʊˈkwæsəti/ noun [noncount] formal ▪ a politician known for her loquacity

[1]lord /ˈlɔəd/ noun, pl lords
1 [count] : a man who has power and authority: such as a : a man who ruled over a large area of land in the Middle Ages ▪ a feudal lord b : a very powerful criminal ▪ a crime/drug/gang lord — see also SLUMLORD, WARLORD
2 Lord [singular] a — used as a name for God or Jesus Christ ▪ Ask the Lord for forgiveness. ▪ Praise the Lord. ▪ Oh Lord, hear our prayers. b ✧ Lord is used informally by itself and in phrases to make a statement or question more forceful or to express surprise, anger, etc. ▪ Lord, it's hot out today. ▪ Lord almighty, is it that late already? ▪ Good Lord, what have they done?! ▪ My Lord, what were you thinking?! ▪ Oh my Lord! I can't believe it!
3 a [count] : a man who is a member of the British nobility ▪ He became a lord upon the death of his father. b [noncount] Lord — used as a title for certain British noblemen and male officials of high rank ▪ Lord Churchill ▪ Alfred, Lord Tennyson ▪ Lord Advocate — see also LORD MAYOR
4 the Lords Brit : HOUSE OF LORDS ▪ The government had the support of the Lords.
in the year of our Lord see YEAR
Lord help someone see [1]HELP
Lord knows see [1]KNOW thank the Lord see THANK

[2]lord verb lords; lord•ed; lord•ing
lord it over someone : to act in a way that shows you think you are better or more important than someone ▪ She knows she's very smart and lords it over her younger brothers. ▪ He got the only A in the class and was lording it over his classmates.

lord•ly /ˈlɔədli/ adj lord•li•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 a : having the qualities of a lord ▪ a lordly and dignified man b : suitable for a lord : very large and impressive ▪ a lordly estate
2 : having or showing a feeling of being better than other people ▪ lordly airs of superiority ▪ He regarded his neighbors with lordly disdain.

Lord Mayor noun, pl ~ Mayors [count] : the title of the mayor of the City of London and of some other large cities in Britain and Ireland

lord•ship /ˈlɔəd,ʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships [count] chiefly Brit
1 Lordship — used as a title when addressing or referring to someone who has the title of lord (such as a member of the nobility, a judge, or a bishop); used with his, your, or their ▪ His Lordship is not at home. ▪ Can I get your Lordship anything else?
2 : the authority, power, or territory of a lord ▪ He inherited a lordship.

Lord's Prayer noun
the Lord's Prayer : a prayer that Jesus Christ taught to his followers

Lordy /ˈlɔəd/ interj, informal — used to make a statement or question more forceful or to express surprise ▪ Lordy, that girl can sing! ▪ Lordy it's hot today.

lore /ˈlɔə/ noun [noncount] : traditional knowledge, beliefs, and stories that relate to a particular place, subject, or group ▪ an event that has become part of local lore ▪ forest lore ▪ the lore of sailing — see also FOLKLORE

lor•ry /ˈlɔri/ noun, pl -ries [count] Brit : TRUCK

lose /ˈluːz/ verb los•es; lost /ˈlɑːst/; los•ing
1 [+ obj] : to be unable to find (something or someone) ▪ She's always losing her gloves. ▪ Don't lose your keys. ▪ Hold my hand: I don't want to lose you. ▪ The police lost him in the crowd. [=the police were no longer able to find/see him after he went into the crowd] ▪ The airline lost my luggage. [=my luggage did not arrive at the airport I flew into] ▪ He lost the fly ball in the sun. [=he was unable to see the fly ball because he was looking toward the sun] ▪ The letter was lost in the mail. [=it was sent but never delivered to the person it was addressed to]
2 : to fail to win (a game, contest, etc.) [+ obj] lose a battle/game ▪ She lost her bid for reelection. [=she failed to win the election; she was not reelected] ▪ We lost the game by a score of 4–2. ▪ He lost his title in the rematch. ▪ She lost the lawsuit. ▪ The team lost three games but won the next four. [no obj] The team lost in the finals. ▪ an athlete known for losing with grace ▪ That horse always loses. ▪ He hates to lose when money is involved. ▪ How could she play that well and still lose? — often + to ▪ The Yankees lost to the Red Sox.
3 a [+ obj] : to fail to keep or hold (something wanted or valued) ▪ lose an advantage ▪ The country lost its independence 50 years ago. ▪ The mayor is losing power/influence/support. ▪ He is in danger of losing control of the company. ▪ She lost control of the car and skidded off the road. ▪ I was so angry that I lost control (of myself, of my temper) and yelled at them. ▪ She didn't lose her job but she lost access to all confidential company materials. ▪ The senator lost votes when he angered some of his supporters. ▪ The religious community was losing its younger members. ▪ He hasn't lost his sense of humor. ▪ They had lost all hope of winning the title. ▪ I don't want anything to eat. I've lost my appetite. [=I no longer feel hungry] ▪ She began to lose confidence in herself. [=to feel less confident] ▪ Try not to lose patience with the children. ▪ The accident victim was rapidly losing blood. ▪ I'm sorry I'm late. I lost track of the time. [=I failed to stay aware of the time; I did not realize that so much time had passed] ▪ She lost her balance [=failed to keep her weight spread equally] and fell. b ✧ If you have nothing (else/left) to lose, you cannot make a situation worse by taking a risk. If you have a lot to lose or have too much to lose, you could make your situation much worse by taking a risk or doing something. ▪ You might as well apply for the job. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain. ▪ Some of them are married and have young children—they have a lot to lose. ▪ I can't quit now. I have too much to lose. c : to fail to earn or keep (money) [+ obj] They lost all their money/savings in a poor investment. ▪ The company has been losing money for the past several years. [=it has been spending more money than it has been earning] [no obj] Investors lost heavily when the company's stock failed to meet expectations. d [+ obj] : to have (something) taken from you or destroyed ▪ We lost (electrical) power during the storm. ▪ He lost an arm in the war. [=one of his arms was destroyed or so badly injured that it had to be removed] ▪ They lost everything in the fire. [=all their possessions were destroyed in the fire] ▪ He yelled so much during the game that he lost his voice [=he was unable to speak] for two days. e [+ obj] : to gradually have less of (something) as time passes ▪ Many people who lose weight by dieting eventually gain the weight back. ▪ She has been losing strength in her legs. ▪ He was gradually losing his eyesight. ▪ He's losing his hair. [=becoming bald] ▪ The public seems to have lost interest in the case.
4 [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to fail to win or keep (something) : to cause the loss of (something) for (someone) ▪ One careless statement lost the election for her. = One careless statement lost her the election. [=she lost the election because of one careless statement]
5 a : to decrease in (something) [+ obj] The TV program has lost popularity [=become less popular] in recent years. ▪ The plane was losing altitude. ▪ What will you do if the company's stock loses value when you expect it to gain value? [no obj] What will you do if the stock loses when you expect it to gain? b [+ obj] : to decrease in value by (a specified amount) ▪ His retirement account lost three percent last quarter. c [no obj] : to decrease in value when compared to something else ▪ The dollar lost against the pound last week.
6 [+ obj] a : to experience or suffer the death of (a relative, friend, etc.) ▪ She lost her husband in the war. [=her husband was killed in the war] ▪ He lost his best friend to cancer. [=his best friend died of cancer] ▪ The country lost thousands of young men in/during the war. = Thousands of young men were lost [=killed] in/during the war. = Thousands of young men lost their lives in/during the war. ▪ She's very sick, and the doctors say they're afraid they're going to lose her. [=they're afraid that she is going to die] ▪ I was sad to hear that she lost the baby. [=that her baby died before being born or soon after being born] ▪ a sailor who was lost at sea [=who died at sea] b : to no longer have or be with (someone who leaves) ▪ We'll be sorry to lose you when you leave for your new job. ▪ He begged his wife to forgive him and told her that he didn't want to lose her.
7 [+ obj] : to fail to keep control of (something) ▪ He lost his temper/cool/composure. [=he became angry] ▪ She wondered if she was losing her mind/sanity. [=becoming insane] ▪ He seems to be losing his nerve. [=becoming afraid] — see also lose your head at [1]HEAD
8 [+ obj] a : to fail to use (something, such as time) : WASTE ▪ I don't want to lose this chance/opportunity. ▪ We lost (a

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

good bit of) time in that traffic jam. ▪ She lost no time in getting the project started. [=she got the project started immediately] ▪ We need to get started immediately. There's no time to lose. b of a watch or clock : to show a time that is earlier than the correct time : to run slow by (an amount of time) [+ obj] My old watch loses a minute every day. [no obj] a clock that loses less than any other clock yet invented

9 [+ obj] : to explain something in a way that is not clear to (someone) : to confuse (someone) ▪ I'm sorry. You've lost me. [=I don't understand what you're telling me] ▪ I understood the first part of the lecture, but when he started to talk about quantum physics he lost me completely. [=I was completely unable to understand what he was saying]

10 [+ obj] : to succeed in getting away from (someone who is following or chasing you) ▪ She tried to lose them by turning down a side street.

11 [+ obj] informal : to get rid of (something unwanted) ▪ I just can't seem to lose this cold. ▪ Lose the attitude, okay? [=stop having a bad attitude; stop being annoyed, uncooperative, etc.] ▪ You can lose [=remove] that sentence and the paragraph will sound better.

lose contact see [1]CONTACT lose count see [2]COUNT lose face see [1]FACE

lose ground see [1]GROUND

lose it informal 1 : to become insane ▪ He was always a little strange, but now he's completely lost it. 2 : to start behaving in an uncontrolled way because you are angry or upset ▪ I was so angry that I almost lost it.

lose out [phrasal verb] : to fail to keep or get something valued or desired ▪ Whoever benefits from the new government programs, the American taxpayer is bound to lose out in the end. — often + on or to ▪ If you don't invest with us, you'll be losing out on a great opportunity! [=you'll be missing/wasting a great opportunity] ▪ She lost out to a better-known actress for the lead role. [=she did not get the lead role because a better-known actress got it]

lose sleep over see [2]SLEEP

lose the plot see [1]PLOT lose touch see [2]TOUCH lose your bearings see BEARING lose your grip see [2]GRIP lose your head see [1]HEAD lose your heart see HEART lose your life see [1]LIFE lose your lunch see [1]LUNCH lose your marbles see MARBLE lose yourself : to give all of your attention or thought to something ▪ He lost himself in his work. ▪ a musician who completely loses herself in the music lose your shirt see SHIRT lose your touch see [2]TOUCH

lose your way see [1]WAY

– los•able /ˈlu:zəbəl/ adj ▪ a losable game – los•ing adj ▪ the losing candidate in the race [=the candidate who did not win; the candidate who lost] ▪ The team is on a losing streak. ▪ The team had a losing record/season.

los•er /ˈlu:zə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone or something that loses a game, contest, etc. ▪ She was a loser in the first round of the tournament. [=she lost in the first round of the tournament] ▪ The team had a reputation for being a loser year after year. ▪ The loser of the bet has to buy drinks for the winner. ▪ She's a good loser. [=she does not become upset or angry when she loses] ▪ He's a bad/poor loser. = (US) He's a sore loser. [=he becomes upset or angry when he loses]

2 : someone who is harmed or put in a worse position as the result of something ▪ Whoever benefits from the new government programs, the real loser will be the American taxpayer.

3 informal + disapproving : a person who is not successful, attractive, etc. ▪ She's a (total, complete) loser. ▪ That guy is a born loser.

finders keepers (losers weepers) see FINDER

loss /ˈlɑ:s/ noun, pl loss•es

1 a : failure to keep or to continue to have something [noncount] — usually + of ▪ the mayor's loss of support/influence ▪ Surgeons were unable to control the loss of blood in the victim. ▪ Symptoms include insomnia and loss of appetite. ▪ Both accidents were attributed to the drivers' loss of control. ▪ The recession has caused the loss of many jobs. ▪ The accident caused enormous loss of life. [=many people died in the accident] [singular] — usually + of ▪ a loss of innocence ▪ The victim died from a loss of blood to the brain. [plural] There have been heavy job losses because of the recession. [=many people have been laid off] b [noncount] : the experience of having something taken from you or destroyed ▪ The storm caused widespread loss of electricity. ▪ soldiers who have suffered the loss of a limb [=soldiers who have had an arm or leg destroyed or so badly injured that it had to be removed]

2 [count] : money that is spent and that is more than the amount earned or received ▪ The company's losses for the year were higher than expected. ▪ profits and losses ▪ They took a loss on the deal. [=the deal cost them money; they lost money on the deal] ▪ The business is operating at a loss. [=the business is spending more money than it is earning] ▪ They sold the property at a (considerable) loss. [=for less than they paid for it] — see also AT A LOSS (below)

3 : failure to win a game, contest, etc. [noncount] A careless error resulted in the loss of the game. [count] The team suffered a 3–2 loss in the last game. ▪ The team has an equal number of wins and losses. ▪ the party's losses in the recent election

4 a : a decrease in something or in the amount of something [singular] The plane experienced a loss of altitude. [noncount] We need to determine the loss in value due to the damage. ▪ The new windows reduce temperature loss by 15 percent. ▪ Don't be concerned about the loss of a few pounds. You're still a healthy weight. ▪ Side effects of the treatment include nausea and hair loss. ▪ memory/weight loss b [singular] : a decrease in value by a specified amount ▪ The stock market had a loss of four percent yesterday.

5 [noncount] a : the death or a relative, friend, etc. — usually + of ▪ She mourned the loss of her parents. ▪ the loss of a dear friend to cancer b : the experience of having someone leave — usually + of ▪ The company has had to deal with the loss [=departure] of several key employees. c : a feeling of sadness that you have when someone dies, leaves, etc. ▪ Their deaths left everyone with a great/deep sense of loss. ▪ The feeling of loss you experienced after your divorce is not uncommon.

6 [singular] : something that causes harm, sadness, etc., to a group or organization ▪ Their deaths were a great loss to the community. ▪ His retirement was a real loss to the company.

7 [singular] : something that is completely destroyed ▪ After the flood, the crops were a total loss. ▪ No one was injured in the accident, but the car was a complete loss.

8 losses [plural] : soldiers killed, wounded, or captured in battle ▪ During the battle the allies suffered/sustained/took/experienced heavy losses.

9 [count] American football : the distance the ball is moved away from the goal during a play ▪ There was a gain of five yards on first down, but a loss of three yards on second down.

at a loss : not able to decide what should be done or said ▪ I don't know what to do. I'm at a (complete) loss. ▪ They were at a loss to explain [=they were unable to explain] why it took so long to correct the problem. — see also LOSS 2 (above) at a loss for words chiefly US : unable to think of anything to say ▪ I was so surprised to see her that I was at a loss for words. [=(chiefly Brit) lost for words] cut your losses : to stop an activity, business, etc., that is failing in order to prevent more losses or damage ▪ With the economy continuing to do poorly, many investors have decided to cut their losses and sell their stocks.

it's your loss ✧ People say that something is your loss when you choose not to do something that they think would help you or that you would enjoy. ▪ If she doesn't want to come to the party, it's her loss.

throw (someone) for a loss : to cause (someone) to be very amazed, confused, or shocked ▪ Recent revelations have thrown me for a loss. [=(more commonly) for a loop]

loss adjuster noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] Brit : INSURANCE ADJUSTER loss leader noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] business : a product that is sold for less than it is worth in order to attract customers

[1]lost past participle of LOSE

[2]lost /ˈlɑ:st/ adj

1 : unable to be found ▪ He was looking for his lost keys. ▪ lost baggage/luggage ▪ Many have tried to find the ruins of the lost city. — see also LONG-LOST

2 : not knowing where you are or how to get to where you want to go : unable to find your way ▪ The child was lost. ▪ We took a wrong turn and got lost. ▪ a lost puppy ▪ Hold my hand. I don't want you to get lost.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

3 a : no longer held, owned, or possessed ▪ He has been trying to recapture his lost youth. ▪ She's been lagging at the polls, but hopes to recover/recoup lost ground with tonight's debate. [=she hopes to gain again support she had lost] b : no longer known ▪ a lost civilization ▪ It's a lost art. ▪ The original music is lost to us forever. c : no longer available ▪ a lost opportunity/chance [=an opportunity that was not used] ▪ The strike has cost the company millions in lost sales/earnings/revenue. [=sales/earnings/revenue that the company would have had if the strike had not happened] ▪ We need to work faster to make up for lost time. [=we need to work faster because we did not get enough of the work done before now]

4 a : not won ▪ a lost battle : not possible to win ▪ The game was irretrievably/hopelessly lost by the end of the first half. b : not capable of succeeding ▪ Finishing the project on time seemed like a lost cause. [=finishing the project on time seemed impossible]

5 a not used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : lacking confidence and feeling unsure of what to do ▪ When she first moved to the city she felt a bit lost and out of her depth. ▪ I don't know how I ever managed without my computer: I'd be totally lost without it! ▪ I depend on her for everything. I'd be lost without her. b : very unhappy ▪ a lost soul [=a lonely and unhappy person]

6 not used before a noun : so interested in something that you do not notice other things ▪ When he's reading a book he's lost to the world. — often + in ▪ He was lost in his book. ▪ She was lost in thought. [=she was thinking about something and not noticing the people and things around her] ▪ He seems to be lost in a world of his own. ▪ lost in (a) reverie get lost informal : to go away : LEAVE — used in speech as a rude or angry way to tell someone to go away; see also [2]LOST 2 (above)

give someone up for lost : to decide that someone cannot be helped or saved ▪ He was desperately ill, and most of the doctors had given him up for lost. [=most of the doctors said that he would die]

he who hesitates is lost see HESITATE lost for words chiefly Brit : unable to think of anything to say ▪ I was so surprised to see her that I was lost for words. [=(chiefly US) at a loss for words]

lost in the shuffle see [2]SHUFFLE lost on : not appreciated or understood by (someone) ▪ The jokes were lost on me. [=I didn't understand the jokes] ▪ The meaning of her remark wasn't lost on him. ▪ The message was lost on those for whom it was intended.

no love lost, very little love lost see [1]LOVE

lot /ˈlɑːt/ noun, pl lots

1 [count] a chiefly US : a small piece of land that is or could be used for buiding something or for some other purpose ▪ He bought the vacant/empty lot across the street. ▪ They own the house on the corner lot. ▪ a building lot — see also PARKING LOT b : the buildings and land that are owned by a company that makes movies and television programs ▪ We took a tour of the Universal lot.

2 [count] : a small object used to choose the person who will do or receive something ✧ When someone is chosen by lot or when people draw lots or (less commonly) cast lots to choose someone, each person in a group takes a small object or a piece of paper from a container. One of the objects or pieces of paper is different from the others, and the person who takes the different one is chosen. ▪ The winner was chosen by lot. ▪ We drew lots to determine the winner.

3 [singular] : a person's situation in life especially as decided by chance ▪ The organization has done much to improve the lot of underprivileged youth. ▪ Unhappy with her lot in life, she moved to the city to start over. synonyms see DESTINY

4 informal a [count] chiefly Brit : all the members of a group of people — usually singular ▪ Do you know the lot [=bunch, crowd] that hang around the arcade? ▪ That lot will never amount to anything! They're a thoroughly bad lot. ▪ Pipe down, the (whole) lot of you. = Pipe down, you lot. ✧ In British English, a person who is not liked is sometimes described as a bad lot. ▪ He may be a bit wild, but he's not a bad lot once you get to know him. b *the lot : all the things of a group ▪ They sell tuxedos, business suits, casual wear . . . the lot. ▪ This one's the best of the lot.

5 [count] : one or more things being sold as one item at an auction ▪ Lot 45 is a dining room set. — see also JOB LOT

a lot 1 also (informal) lots : a large amount ▪ She has done a lot to help other people. ▪ I'd give a lot to be able to write like that! ▪ I'm not asking for a lot. [=much] ▪ They must have paid a lot for that car. ▪ We did quite a lot this morning. ▪ We still have a lot to do. = We still have lots (and lots) to do. 2 : very often ▪ Do they hike a lot? ▪ I've been seeing her a lot recently. 3 — used to say that you feel a particular emotion very strongly ▪ "Did you like the movie?" "Yes, I liked it a lot." [=very much] ▪ I miss her a lot since she went away. 4 also (informal) lots : to a large degree or extent : MUCH ▪ This is a lot nicer. [=this is much nicer] ▪ There's a lot more to it than I realized at first. [=it's more complicated than it looks] ▪ I'm feeling lots better. ▪ Thanks a lot. [=very much] a lot of also (informal) lots of : a large number or amount of (things, people, etc.) ▪ A lot of people feel that way. ▪ There was a lot of space. = There was lots of space. ▪ We had lots of fun. ▪ You can enjoy yourself without spending a lot of money. ▪ It doesn't make a (whole) lot of difference. ▪ We don't have an awful lot of money/time. [=we don't have much money/time] ▪ (informal) I think their ideas are a lot of garbage/nonsense. [=I think their ideas are very foolish] ▪ (informal) It doesn't make a whole lot of [=very much] difference. ▪ Not a lot of people [=not many people] know that. ▪ "I've brought an umbrella." "A (fat) lot of good that will do [=that will not do any good] now that it's stopped raining!"

leave a lot to be desired see [1]DESIRE throw in your lot with or cast your lot with : to join or become associated with a person, group, or thing that you hope will win or succeed ▪ During the American Civil War, my great-grandfather threw in his lot with the Confederacy/Union.

loth variant spelling of LOATH

lo•tion /ˈloʊʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] : a liquid that is rubbed onto your skin or hair ▪ a bottle of suntan lotion ▪ styling lotion

lot•tery /ˈlɑːtəri/ noun, pl -ter•ies

1 [count] : a way of raising money for a government, charity, etc., in which many tickets are sold and a few of the tickets are chosen by chance to win prizes ▪ Which states have lotteries? ▪ a national lottery ▪ a lottery ticket ▪ She acted like she'd just won the lottery. [=won a lottery run by a government] ▪ Do you play the lottery? [=do you buy lottery tickets?]

2 : a system used to decide who will get or be given something by choosing names or numbers by chance [count] They held a lottery to determine who could get a green card. [noncount] Room assignments are determined by lottery.

3 [singular] : an event or situation in which what happens is decided by luck or chance ▪ Life's a lottery, isn't it? It all depends on luck.

lo•tus /ˈloʊtəs/ noun, pl -tus•es [count] : a type of flowering plant that grows on the surface of water loud /ˈlaʊd/ adj loud•er; -est

1 : making or causing a lot of noise : strong and noticeable in sound ▪ a loud noise/party ▪ loud music/laughter/applause ▪ She complained in a loud voice. ▪ "Is the television loud enough?" "It's too loud!" — opposite QUIET

2 a of a person : noisy in a way that bothers other people ▪ He's known for being loud and aggressive. b : expressing ideas or opinions in a very open and forceful way — + in ▪ He has been loud in (his) praise of their efforts. [=he has strongly praised their efforts] ▪ Her critics have been loud in (their) disapproval of her policies.

3 : very bright or too bright in color ▪ loud [=gaudy, garish] clothes/colors/jewelry actions speak louder than words see ACTION

out loud : in a way that is loud enough to be clearly heard : ALOUD ▪ She doesn't like to read out loud [=aloud] in class.

– loud adv, not used before a verb ▪ Don't talk so loud! ▪ Say it loud. ▪ They complained loud and long about the decision. ▪ "Can you hear me now?" "Loud and clear." [=I can hear you very clearly] ▪ talking loud [=talking loudly, loudly talking] – loud•ly adv ▪ loudly singing ▪ complaining/protesting loudly – loud•ness noun [noncount] ▪ She complained about the loudness of the television.

loud•hail•er /ˌlaʊdˈheɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : BULLHORN loud•mouth /ˈlaʊdˌmaʊθ/ noun, pl -mouths [count] informal + disapproving : a loud person : a person who talks too much and who says unpleasant or stupid things

– loud•mouthed /ˈlaʊdˌmaʊθt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a loudmouthed heckler loud•speak•er /ˈlaʊdˌspiːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a de-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

vice that is used to make sound (such as music or a person's voice) louder and to send it out so that many people can hear it in a public space ▪ He made an announcement over/on the loudspeaker. = He made an announcement using the loudspeaker.

[1]lounge /ˈlaʊnʤ/ verb loung•es; lounged; loung•ing [no obj] : to sit or lie in a relaxed way ▪ She was lounging on the sofa. ▪ lounging in bed : to spend time resting or relaxing ▪ He was lounging by the pool all afternoon. ▪ lounging at the bar — often + around or (Brit) about ▪ We spent our vacation just lounging around [=relaxing] on the beach.
– loung•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]lounge noun, pl lounges
1 [count] : a room with comfortable furniture for relaxing: such as a : a comfortable room where people can spend time while they are waiting in an airport or other public place ▪ an airport lounge ▪ the VIP lounge b : a comfortable room for relaxing in a public building (such as a hotel or school) ▪ (US) the faculty/student lounge ▪ The hotel has a television lounge. c US : COCKTAIL LOUNGE ▪ We gathered in the hotel lounge for a couple of drinks. ▪ a lounge act d Brit : LIVING ROOM
2 [count] chiefly US : a long chair or couch ▪ She sat/reclined on the lounge.
3 [singular] : an act or period of relaxing ▪ They had a long, leisurely lounge by the pool.

lounge chair noun, pl ~ chairs [count] chiefly US : CHAISE LONGUE lounge suit noun, pl ~ suits [count] Brit : BUSINESS SUIT

[1]louse /ˈlaʊs/ noun [count]
1 pl lice /ˈlaɪs/ : a type of small insect that lives on the bodies of people or animals ▪ a problem with head lice
2 pl lous•es informal : a bad or cruel person ▪ Her ex-husband is a real louse.

[2]louse verb lous•es; loused; lous•ing louse up [phrasal verb] louse (something) up or louse up (something) informal : to do (something) badly ▪ The waitress loused up [=messed up] our order. : to cause (something) to be ruined or spoiled ▪ The weather really loused up our plans.

lousy /ˈlaʊzi/ adj lous•i•er; -est
1 informal a : bad or poor ▪ She got lousy grades in high school. ▪ I like the work, but the pay is lousy. ▪ He was a lousy husband. : of poor quality : not good or skillful ▪ They did a lousy job. ▪ a lousy cook/driver ▪ a lousy performance — often + at or with ▪ He is lousy [=terrible] at sports/math/cooking. ▪ She's lousy with kids. b : not well or healthy ▪ We could see that she was feeling lousy. [=feeling ill] ▪ He drank too much and felt lousy the next morning. c : not happy or pleased ▪ I feel lousy [=sorry, bad] about what happened. d : not pleasant ▪ We've been having lousy [=rotten] weather. ▪ It's a lousy, rainy day. e : not right or proper ▪ That's a lousy way to treat a friend. f — used to make an angry statement or description more forceful ▪ That lousy bastard!
2 : infested with lice (see [1]LOUSE 1) lousy with informal : having too much or too many of (something) ▪ Her family is lousy with money. [=her family is very rich] ▪ That area is lousy with tourists.
– lous•i•ness /ˈlaʊzinəs/ noun [noncount]

lout /ˈlaʊt/ noun, pl louts [count] : a stupid, rude, or awkward man ▪ a dumb/drunken lout — see also LAGER LOUT
– lout•ish /ˈlaʊtɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a loutish thug – lout•ish•ly adv ▪ behaving loutishly – lout•ish•ness noun [noncount] lou•ver (US) or Brit lou•vre /ˈluːvə/ noun, pl -vers [count]

1 : an opening in a door or window that has one or more slanted strips to allow air to flow in and out while keeping out rain and sun
2 : one of the slanted strips of a louver
– lou•vered (US) or Brit lou•vred /ˈluːvəd/ adj ▪ a louvered door/window

lov•able also love•able /ˈlʌvəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easy to love : having attractive or appealing qualities ▪ a lovable clown ▪ He has a bad temper, but he's still lovable.
– lov•ably also love•ably /ˈlʌvəbli/ adv ▪ a lovably strange comedian

[1]love /ˈlʌv/ noun
1 [noncount] : a feeling of strong or constant affection for a person ▪ motherly/maternal love ▪ fatherly/paternal love ▪ brotherly/sisterly love ▪ Children need unconditional love from their parents. — often + for ▪ No one could doubt her love for her family.
2 [noncount] : attraction that includes sexual desire : the strong affection felt by people who have a romantic relationship ▪ a declaration of love ▪ He was just a lonely man looking for love. ▪ romantic love ▪ unrequited love ▪ After all these years, they're still very much in love (with each other). [=they still love each other] — often used before another noun ▪ a love poem/song/letter ▪ a love potion ▪ a love scene/story — see also FREE LOVE, PUPPY LOVE ✧ When people begin to feel romantic love for each other, they fall in love. ▪ They fell (madly/passionately) in love (with each other). This phrase is also used figuratively. ▪ She fell in love with sailing the first time she tried it. ✧ People are sometimes said to fall out of love when they stop loving each other. ▪ It was sad to see how they gradually fell out of love (with each other) after they married. ✧ If people fall in love with each other when they first meet, it is called love at first sight. This phrase is also used figuratively. ▪ When he saw the house, it was love at first sight. [=he loved the house as soon as he saw it]
3 [count] : a person you love in a romantic way ▪ a lost love ▪ You never forget your first love. [=the first person you loved in a romantic way] ▪ He was her one true love. = He was the love of her life.
4 [singular] chiefly Brit a : a kind or helpful person : DEAR ▪ Be a love and carry this inside for me, would you? b — used to address someone in a loving or friendly way ▪ As long as you're up, (my) love, would you mind getting me a drink? ▪ "How do I get to Trafalgar Square?" "Take the Number 24 bus, love."
5 [noncount] : an expression of love and affection ▪ When you see them again, please give them my love. ▪ Mike and Meg send their love, too. ▪ The gift had a note saying "With love from Meg & Mike." — used to express affection at the end of a written message ▪ Thanks for everything. Hope to see you soon. Love, Mike ▪ Be well, my darling, till we meet again! Love and kisses, Meg
6 a [singular] : a feeling of great interest, affection, or enthusiasm for something — often + for or of ▪ We all knew about his love for baseball. ▪ She has a love of history. ▪ a love of good food ▪ "Do you sell your paintings?" "Oh no: I paint just for the love of it." ▪ She's in love with the idea of becoming an actress. b [count] : something about which a person feels great interest or enthusiasm ▪ Baseball was his first love.
7 [singular] : a score of zero in tennis ▪ The score was 40–love.
all's fair in love and war see [1]FAIR for love or money or chiefly Brit for love nor money informal — used to give added force to a negative statement ▪ We couldn't get him to go along for love or money. [=we failed completely in our attempt to get him to go along] for the love of God also for the love of Mike/Pete informal — used to give added force to an angry statement ▪ For the love of God, quiet down! I'm trying to get some sleep here!
labor of love see [1]LABOR love is blind — used to say that people do not see the faults of the people that they love make love : to have sex with someone ▪ It was the first time they made love (to/with each other).
no love lost ✧ When there is no love lost or very little love lost between people, they dislike each other. ▪ They were polite with each other, but it was clear that there was no love lost between them.
– love•less /ˈlʌvləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ an unhappy loveless marriage

[2]love verb loves; loved; lov•ing
1 : to feel great affection for (someone) : to feel love for (someone) [+ obj] She obviously loves her family very much. ▪ To know him is to love him. [=the people who know him feel great affection for him] [no obj] You have to love in order to be loved.
2 [+ obj] : to feel sexual or romantic love for (someone) ▪ He swore that he loved her madly. ▪ He loves her, but she doesn't love him back. [=she doesn't return his love] ▪ She said she could never marry a man she didn't love.
3 [+ obj] a : to like or desire (something) very much : to take great pleasure in (something) ▪ He loves good food. ▪ a much-loved old song ▪ I would love it if you came with us. = I would love you to come with us. = (US) I would love for you to come with us. [=I would be very happy if you came with us] — often followed by to + verb ▪ I would love to have you come with us. ▪ She loved to play the violin. ▪ "Would you like to join us?" "Yes, I'd love to (join you)." — often + -ing verb ▪ She loved playing the violin. b informal : to be very amused

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

by (something) ▪ I just love it [=I find it very amusing] when politicians say that they don't care about polls. = I just love how politicians say that they don't care about polls.

4 [+ obj] : to do very well in (certain specified conditions) ▪ This plant loves dry soil.

I must love you and leave you Brit, informal — used to say that you have to leave ▪ I don't want to miss the last train, so I'm afraid I must love you and leave you.

loved one ✧ Your loved ones are the people you love, especially members of your family. ▪ Many of her friends and loved ones visited her in the hospital.

love affair noun, pl ~ -fairs
1 [count] : a romantic or sexual relationship especially between two people who are not married to each other ▪ His wife discovered that he was having a love affair [=having an affair] with another woman. ▪ Theirs was a great love affair. [=they were very much in love]
2 [singular] : a feeling of great interest in and enthusiasm for something — + with ▪ The book describes America's love affair with baseball.

love•bird /ˈlʌvˌbɚd/ noun, pl -birds
1 [count] : a small usually gray or green bird that is a type of parrot
2 lovebirds [plural] informal + humorous : people who are lovers : people who have a romantic relationship ▪ I think I'll leave you two lovebirds alone for a while.

love child noun, pl ~ children [count] : a child whose father and mother are not married to each other when the child is born : an illegitimate child ▪ the love child of a famous actor and one of his fans love handles noun [plural] informal : areas of fat along the sides of a person's waist love–hate /ˈlʌvˈheɪt/ adj, always used before a noun : feeling or showing a mixture of love and hate ▪ She has a love-hate relationship with her ex-husband. [=she has strong feelings of both affection and hatred for her ex-husband]

love life noun, pl ~ lives [count] : a person's romantic and sexual activities and relationships ▪ At that time, he had virtually no love life. ▪ She doesn't like to talk about her love life.

love•lorn /ˈlʌvˌlɔɚn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unhappy because of love : feeling love for someone who does not feel the same way ▪ a poem about a lovelorn [=lovesick] young suitor the lovelorn : people who are unhappy because of love ▪ Her newspaper column offers advice for the lovelorn.

[1]love•ly /ˈlʌvli/ adj love•li•er; -est
1 : attractive or beautiful especially in a graceful way ▪ She was wearing a lovely dress. ▪ She looks simply lovely in that dress! = That dress looks simply lovely on her! ▪ a lovely bouquet of flowers ▪ The song has a lovely melody. synonyms see BEAUTIFUL
2 : very good or likable ▪ He's a lovely man. [=he's a very good man]
3 : very pleasing : FINE ▪ The hotel has a lovely view. ▪ We enjoyed a lovely dinner. ▪ a singer with a lovely voice ▪ Their children have lovely manners. ▪ How lovely of you to come! ▪ It was lovely to have you here! ▪ (Brit) Isn't the coffee lovely and hot! [=the coffee is pleasingly hot]
– love•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the loveliness of the view

[2]lovely noun, pl -lies [count] informal : a beautiful woman : a lovely woman ▪ A chorus line of young lovelies danced on the stage.

love•mak•ing /ˈlʌvˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : sexual activity : the act of making love : SEXUAL INTERCOURSE love nest noun, pl ~ nests [count] informal : a place (such as an apartment) where people who are having a love affair meet each other secretly

lov•er /ˈlʌvɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 a : a partner in a romantic or sexual relationship — often plural ▪ They were friends for many years before they became lovers. b : someone with whom a married person is having a love affair ▪ His wife accused him of having a secret lover. ▪ She left her husband and ran away with her lover.
2 : a person who loves something ▪ a lover of music = a music lover ▪ an art lover lover boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] informal : a man who is a woman's lover or who has sexual relations with many women ▪ an actress and her lover boy ▪ an aging lover boy

love seat noun, pl ~ seats [count] US : a seat or sofa for two people love•sick /ˈlʌvˌsɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : unhappy because of love : feeling weak, foolish, or unhappy because someone you love does not love you ▪ The movie is a comedy about a lovesick [=lovelorn] teenager.

– love•sick•ness noun [noncount]

lovey /ˈlʌvi/ noun, Brit, informal — used to address a person in a loving or friendly way ▪ As long as you're up, lovey, would you mind getting me a drink?

lovey–dovey /ˌlʌviˈdʌvi/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : showing a lot of love or affection ▪ a couple of lovey-dovey newlyweds ▪ politicians who suddenly go/get all lovey-dovey after criticizing each other for years

lov•ing /ˈlʌvɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling or showing love : AFFECTIONATE ▪ a loving home/family ▪ a loving glance ▪ a loving husband/wife
2 : very careful and thorough ▪ The old house has undergone a loving restoration. ▪ The landscape is described in loving [=painstaking] detail. ▪ The house requires some tender loving care. [=the house needs many repairs]
– lov•ing•ly adv ▪ He gazed at her lovingly. ▪ The old house has been lovingly restored.

[1]low /ˈloʊ/ adj low•er; -est
1 a : not rising or extending upward a great distance ▪ low mountains/peaks ▪ low hills ▪ a low building — opposite HIGH b : extending or reaching upward less than other things of the same kind ▪ low boots ▪ a low fence ▪ low [=short] grass — opposite HIGH c : not located far above the ground or another surface ▪ low clouds/altitudes ▪ The sun was low [=near the horizon] in the western sky. ▪ The apartment has low ceilings. — opposite HIGH d always used before a noun : not rising above surrounding land ▪ They have a home in the low country. ▪ The houses are built on low ground. — opposite HIGH e : cut far down at the neck ▪ a low dress ▪ a dress with a low neckline [=a dress with a low-cut neckline]
2 a : less than usual in amount, number, or degree ▪ They were traveling at a low (rate of) speed. ▪ temperatures as low as 10 below zero ▪ He's being treated for low blood pressure. ▪ a low dose of medicine ▪ She earns a low salary. ▪ a low-income family ▪ low heat/humidity/temperatures ▪ low interest rates ▪ low intelligence ▪ Demand for his books has remained low. ▪ a low price — opposite HIGH b : near or at the bottom of a range ▪ Temperatures were in the low eighties. ▪ Her salary is in the low 40s. [=her salary is between about $40,000 and $45,000] — opposite HIGH c : not having enough or the amount needed ▪ Our supply of fuel is getting/running low. ▪ The airplane was low on fuel. ▪ We're getting/running low on coffee. d : having less than the usual or average amount of something — often used in combination ▪ a low-calorie diet ▪ low-sodium foods ▪ a low-risk investment — see also LOW IN (below)
3 a : not favorable ▪ He holds them in low regard/esteem. = He has a low opinion of them. [=he thinks poorly of them; he regards them unfavorably] ▪ low hopes/expectations ▪ Everyone was in low spirits [=unhappy] because of the rainy weather. — opposite HIGH b : sad or unhappy ▪ She's been feeling pretty low. ▪ a low mood c : not good : below a certain quality or standard ▪ products of low quality ▪ He got low marks/grades throughout college. ▪ low morale ▪ He has pretty low standards when it comes to choosing a hotel. ▪ Our vacation ended on a low note [=it ended in an unpleasant way] when our flight was delayed. ▪ The time we spent waiting at the airport was the low point [=the least enjoyable part] of our vacation. — opposite HIGH d : morally bad ▪ a person of low character ▪ low behavior ▪ a low trick ▪ low standards of conduct — opposite HIGH
4 : below others in power, importance, etc. ▪ Losing weight is a low priority for him. = Losing weight is low on his list of priorities. ▪ officials of low rank — see also LOWER, LOW-RANKING
5 a : not loud : SOFT ▪ a low whisper ▪ a low moan ▪ They were speaking in low voices. [=they were speaking quietly] b : near the bottom of a range of sounds ▪ a singer with a low [=deep] voice = a singer with a low-pitched voice : occurring near the bottom of the musical scale ▪ a low note — opposite HIGH
6 a : not strong or forceful ▪ low winds b : not bright ▪ plants that grow well in low light c : not hot ▪ The sauce is best when cooked slowly over low heat. ▪ She uses the iron on a low setting when she is working with delicate fabrics.
7 : having qualities that do not appeal to intelligent people ▪ a low style of writing ▪ low humor ▪ low art — opposite HIGH
8 of a river, stream, etc. : having less water than usual ▪ The river is low. — opposite HIGH low in : containing a small amount of (something) ▪ Foods

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

that are low in sodium/fat/calories. ▪ Her diet is low in fat/carbohydrates.
– low•ness noun [noncount]

[2]low adv low•er; -est
1 : at or to a low place or level ▪ The village is nestled low in the foothills. ▪ The plane circled low over the airport. ▪ He aimed his punches low. ▪ a low-flying airplane ▪ I put the larger books lower down and the smaller books higher up.
2 a : in or to a low or poor condition ▪ a family brought low by misfortune b : at a low rate ▪ Don't value yourself too low. ▪ a low-paid worker
3 : at a low price ▪ buy low and sell high 4 : with a quiet voice : not loudly ▪ speaking low [=softly] high and low see [2]HIGH lie low see [1]LIE

[3]low noun, pl lows
1 [count] : a low point or level ▪ Prices are at an all-time/record low. ▪ The dollar has fallen to a new low against the Euro. ▪ Have the media reached/hit a new low in bad taste? ▪ The low [=lowest temperature] last night was 25. ▪ The forecast is for showers with lows in the 40s. ▪ He talked about the highs and lows [=the good parts and bad parts] of his college years.
2 [noncount] US : a gear that is used for slow speeds in a vehicle ▪ He shifted into low. — called also (US) low gear
3 [count] weather : an area of low atmospheric pressure ▪ A strong low is expected to bring cloudy skies tomorrow.

[4]low verb lows; lowed; low•ing [no obj] literary : to make the low sound of a cow : MOO ▪ lowing cattle

low•ball /ˈloʊˌbɑːl/ verb -balls; -balled; -ball•ing [+ obj] US
1 : to trick or deceive (someone) by saying that the price or cost of something is lower than it really is ▪ It became clear that the contractor had lowballed us on the cost of materials.
2 : to give a very low or unfairly low offer to (someone) ▪ Management lowballed him in contract negotiations.

low beam noun, pl ~ beams US : the setting of a vehicle's headlights that makes the least bright light [noncount] The car's headlights were on low beam. [plural] Turn on your low beams. — compare HIGH BEAM

low blow noun, pl ~ blows [count]
1 boxing : an illegal punch that hits a boxer below the waist
2 : an action or comment that is very hurtful and unfair ▪ Firing her on her birthday was really a low blow.

low•brow /ˈloʊˌbraʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : not interested in serious art, literature, ideas, etc. ▪ The movie's humor is clearly meant for a lowbrow audience. : relating to or intended for people who are not interested in serious art, literature, ideas, etc. ▪ lowbrow humor ▪ a lowbrow comedy — compare HIGHBROW, MIDDLEBROW
– lowbrow noun, pl -brows [count] ▪ Critics have dismissed him as a lowbrow.

low–carb adj : containing or having fewer carbohydrates than usual ▪ low-carb foods ▪ a low-carb diet

low–class adj low•er–class; low•est–class [also more ~; most ~] : LOWER-CLASS ▪ a low-class neighborhood low–cut adj [more ~; most ~] of women's clothing : having the opening around the neck shaped in a way that shows the top of the chest ▪ She was wearing a low-cut dress/blouse.

low•down /ˈloʊˌdaʊn/ noun
the lowdown : important information or facts about something ▪ Reporters are trying to get the lowdown on what caused the accident. [=trying to find out the truth about what caused the accident] ▪ He gave me the lowdown about the company's vice president.

low–down /ˈloʊˌdaʊn/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] informal : morally bad : dishonest and unfair ▪ He's just a low-down, good-for-nothing liar!

low–end /ˈloʊˌɛnd/ adj low•er–end; low•est–end [also more ~; most ~] US : lower in price and quality than most others ▪ This is a low-end [=inexpensive] camera without the extra features of more expensive models.

[1]low•er /ˈloʊə/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : located below another or others of the same kind ▪ her lower jaw/lip ▪ his lower extremities/limbs [=his legs and feet] ▪ the ship's upper and lower decks b : located toward the bottom part of something ▪ The message appeared on the lower portion of the screen. ▪ She felt a pain in her lower leg/back. [=the lower part of her leg/back] ▪ the mountain's upper and lower slopes c : not high above the ground ▪ The forecast is for strong winds at lower elevations.
2 : located toward the south ▪ in the lower and higher latitudes ▪ the lower and upper peninsulas
3 : below another or others in position, rank, or order ▪ higher and lower courts
4 : less advanced or developed ▪ higher and lower animals

[2]low•er /ˈloʊə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something or someone) lower: such as a : to cause (someone or something) to move to a lower position ▪ He slowly lowered himself into the chair. ▪ lower a flag ▪ lower the window ▪ The sailors lowered a life raft (down) to the people in the water. ▪ She lowered her eyes. [=she looked down] b : to reduce the loudness of (something) ▪ Please lower your voice. [=please speak more quietly] c : to reduce the value or amount of (something) ▪ Fuel prices have been lowered in recent weeks. ▪ A combination of diet and exercise can help to lower your cholesterol.
2 [no obj] : to become lower : DECREASE ▪ Prices have lowered. [=(more commonly) fallen, gone down] ▪ The property has lowered [=fallen] in value.
lower the bar see [1]BAR lower yourself : to do something that causes people to have less respect for you : to degrade yourself ▪ I won't lower myself to respond to these accusations. [=I won't respond because I would be degrading myself if I did]
– compare [3]LOWER
– lowering noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] ▪ a significant/slight lowering [=reduction] of cholesterol

[3]low•er /ˈlaʊə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] literary, of the sky or clouds : to become dark and threatening ▪ Clouds lowered overhead. — compare [2]LOWER – lowering adj ▪ a gray, lowering sky

low•er•case /ˌloʊəˈkeɪs/ adj : having as its typical form a, b, c rather than A, B, C : not capital ▪ lowercase letters — compare UPPERCASE
– lowercase noun [noncount] ▪ letters written in lowercase

lower class noun, pl ~ classes [count] : a social class that is below the middle class and that has the lowest status in a society ▪ a member of the lower class/classes — compare MIDDLE CLASS, UNDERCLASS, UPPER CLASS, WORKING CLASS

low•er–class /ˌloʊəˈklæs, Brit ˌləʊəˈklɑːs/ adj : not fancy, wealthy, or expensive ▪ a lower-class theater ▪ lower-class families — compare HIGH-CLASS lowest common denominator noun [noncount]

1 mathematics : the smallest number that can be divided exactly by all the numbers below the lines in a group of two or more fractions — called also (US) least common denominator
2 disapproving — used to say that the quality of something is poor because it is designed or intended to appeal to the largest possible number of people ▪ The movie appeals to the lowest common denominator. ▪ Television programming has sunk to the lowest common denominator.

low–fat adj : containing or having less fat than usual ▪ a low-fat diet ▪ low-fat dairy products

low gear noun [noncount] US : [3]LOW 2

low–grade /ˈloʊˈgreɪd/ adj
1 : of poor quality ▪ low-grade food
2 : not very strong or severe ▪ a low-grade fever

low–key /ˈloʊˈkiː/ also low–keyed /ˈloʊˈkiːd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : quiet and relaxed : not very forceful, emotional, or noticeable ▪ a politician with a low-key style ▪ The party was a low-key affair. ▪ a low-key approach to management

low•land /ˈloʊlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : an area where the land is at, near, or below the level of the sea and where there are not usually mountains or large hills — usually plural ▪ a village in the lowlands — compare HIGHLAND – lowland adj, always used before a noun ▪ a lowland region/village – low•land•er /ˈloʊləndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ rivalries between highlanders and lowlanders

low–lev•el /ˈloʊˈlɛvəl/ adj
1 : of low importance or rank ▪ The changes will mostly involve low-level jobs/workers.
2 : not strong : low in strength or degree ▪ low-level lighting low•life /ˈloʊˌlaɪf/ noun, pl -lifes [count] US, informal : a bad person : a person of low moral character ▪ a cowardly lowlife ▪ hanging around with a bunch of lowlifes

– lowlife adj, always used before a noun ▪ a lowlife bum

low•light /ˈloʊˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] US : something (such as an event or a detail) that is very unpleasant or dull : the worst part of something ▪ That meal turned out to be one of the lowlights of our vacation. — compare HIGHLIGHT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-l

low•ly /ˈloʊli/ adj low•li•er; -est : low in rank, position, or importance : HUMBLE ▪ He was working as a lowly clerk. ▪ He resented his lowly status. ▪ her lowly origins
– low•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the lowliness of his status

low–ly•ing /ˈloʊˈlajɪŋ/ adj
1 : not far above the level of the sea ▪ low-lying land ▪ low-lying hills
2 : close to the ground ▪ low-lying clouds

low–pitched /ˈloʊˈpɪʧt/ adj low•er–pitched; low•est–pitched [also more ~; most ~] : making a low sound : LOW ▪ The machine made a low-pitched hum. ▪ They talked quietly in low-pitched voices.

low–rank•ing adj, always used before a noun low•er–rank•ing; low•est–rank•ing : having a low rank or position ▪ low-ranking officials

low–rent /ˈloʊˈrɛnt/ adj, chiefly US, informal 1 : not of good quality : cheaply made or done ▪ a low-rent movie ▪ They create low-rent [=cheap, inexpensive] versions of current fashions.
2 : low in moral character or social status ▪ a low-rent thug low–rise /ˈloʊˈraɪz/ adj

1 of a building : not tall : having few floors or stories ▪ a low-rise classroom building
2 : made up of low-rise buildings ▪ a low-rise housing development

low–risk adj
1 : not likely to result in failure, harm, or injury : not having a lot of risk ▪ low-risk investments
2 : less likely than others to get a particular disease, condition, or injury ▪ low-risk patients

low season noun [noncount] : the time of year when a place is least busy or popular : OFF-SEASON

low–slung /ˈloʊˌslʌŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : low and close to the ground or floor ▪ She drives a low-slung convertible. ▪ a low-slung sofa low–spir•it•ed /ˈloʊˈspɪrətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling sad or depressed ▪ I've never seen her looking so low-spirited.

low–tech /ˈloʊˈtɛk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not using new electronic devices and technology : technologically simple ▪ low-tech industries ▪ We found a low-tech solution to our problem. ▪ The film's special effects were very low-tech.

low tide noun, pl ~ tides [count, noncount] : the tide when the water is at its lowest point ▪ You can walk across the sand bar at low tide. — compare HIGH TIDE

lox /ˈlɑːks/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : smoked salmon ▪ bagels and lox

loy•al /ˈlojəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing complete and constant support for someone or something : FAITHFUL ▪ The team has many loyal fans. ▪ a loyal customer/supporter ▪ a loyal friend ▪ She has provided the company with many years of loyal service. ▪ fiercely/steadfastly loyal — often + to ▪ She has remained/stayed loyal to her old friends. — opposite DISLOYAL
– loy•al•ly adv ▪ has served loyally for many years

loy•al•ist /ˈlojəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a person who is loyal to a political cause, government, or leader ▪ a group of party loyalists [=people who are loyal members of a political party]
2 : a person from Northern Ireland who believes that Northern Ireland should remain part of the United Kingdom — opposite REPUBLICAN

loy•al•ty /ˈlojəlti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being loyal ▪ the loyalty of the team's fans — often + to ▪ No one questions his loyalty to the cause.
2 [count] : a loyal feeling : a feeling of strong support for someone or something — usually plural ▪ He was torn by conflicting/divided loyalties. ▪ They shouldn't allow their decision to be influenced by political loyalties.
brand loyalty see [1]BRAND

loz•enge /ˈlɑːzɳʤ/ noun, pl -eng•es [count]
1 : a small candy that usually contains medicine ▪ a throat/cough lozenge
2 : a shape that is formed by four equal straight lines and that has two opposite angles that are smaller than a right angle and two opposite angles that are larger than a right angle ▪ a scarf decorated with a pattern of lozenges [=diamonds]

LP /ˌɛlˈpiː/ noun, pl LP's or LPs [count] : a phonograph record designed to be played at 33⅓ revolutions per minute — called also long-playing record

LPN /ˌɛlˌpiːˈɛn/ noun, pl LPN's or LPNs [count] US : LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

LSD /ˌɛlˌɛsˈdiː/ noun [noncount] : an illegal drug that causes people to see and hear things that do not really exist

Lt. abbr lieutenant

Ltd. abbr limited — used in business names ▪ Roundy & Son Ltd.

lu•au /ˈluːˌaʊ/ noun, pl -aus [count] : a Hawaiian feast

lube /ˈluːb/ noun, pl lubes [count] informal
1 : the act of putting lubricant on the moving parts of a vehicle ▪ He took his car to the garage for a lube and oil change. ▪ a lube job
2 : LUBRICANT 1 ▪ a high-quality lube

lu•bri•cant /ˈluːbrɪkənt/ noun, pl -cants
1 [count, noncount] : a substance (such as grease or oil) that causes something (such as a machine part) to be slippery and to move more smoothly ▪ The car's axles need more lubricant.
2 [count] : something that makes it easier for people to work or talk with each other ▪ using humor as a social lubricant

lu•bri•cate /ˈluːbrəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) smooth or slippery : to apply a lubricant to (something, such as a machine or a part of a machine) ▪ lubricate a car engine ▪ lubricate a hinge – lu•bri•ca•tion /ˌluːbrəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] a hinge that needs lubrication [count] repeated lubrications of the engine

lu•cid /ˈluːsəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very clear and easy to understand ▪ a lucid explanation ▪ lucid prose
2 : able to think clearly ▪ The patient has remained lucid [=clearheaded] throughout his illness. ▪ He is able to recognize his wife in his lucid moments.
– lu•cid•i•ty /luˈsɪdəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ the lucidity of the explanation – lu•cid•ly adv ▪ The problem was lucidly explained.

lu•cerne /luˈsɜn/ noun [noncount] Brit : ALFALFA

Lu•ci•fer /ˈluːsəfɚ/ noun [singular] — used as a name of the Devil

[1]luck /ˈlʌk/ noun [noncount]
1 : the things that happen to a person because of chance : the accidental way things happen without being planned ▪ Our meeting happened by (pure) luck. [=chance] ▪ Her business has been doing poorly, but she's hoping that her luck will change. [=she's hoping that she will begin to have success] ▪ We had good/bad luck fishing. ▪ He's been having nothing but bad/rotten/hard/tough/lousy luck. ▪ He cursed his luck. ✧ When luck is on your side or luck is with you, your luck is good. When luck is against you, your luck is bad. ▪ Our car broke down on the road, but luck was on our side and there was a garage nearby. ▪ I arrived a little late and luck was against me: the last ticket had just been sold.
2 a : good fortune : good luck ▪ He succeeded through hard work and a little luck. ▪ We need a bit of luck. ▪ If our luck holds [=if our luck continues to be good], we should be able to arrive on time. ▪ Before her husband left for his job interview, she gave him a kiss for luck. [=so that he would have good luck] ▪ I can't believe they gave the job to that guy. Some people/guys have all the luck. [=some people are very lucky] ▪ The success of his first restaurant was just beginner's luck. [=he succeeded because he was lucky, as beginners sometimes are] ▪ With (any) luck [=if we are lucky, if what we want to happen does happen] there'll still be some tickets left when we arrive. ▪ By a stroke of luck, there were still a few tickets left when we arrived. b : success in doing or getting something ▪ Have you had any luck [=success] (in) finding a new apartment? ▪ "I've been looking for a new apartment." "Any luck?" "No, not yet." ▪ I've had no luck in finding a new apartment. ▪ He had no better luck than I did.
as luck would have it — used to say that something happened because of good or bad luck ▪ Our car broke down on the road, but as luck would have it [=as it turned out], there was a garage nearby. ▪ I arrived a little late and, as luck would have it, the last ticket had just been sold.
bad luck or Brit hard luck — used in speech to show sympathy for someone who has failed or has been disappointed ▪ "I didn't get the job." "Bad luck!"
best of luck informal — used to say that you hope someone will succeed ▪ We're sorry that you're leaving. Best of luck to you in your new job. — see also WISH SOMEONE (THE BEST OF) LUCK (below) better luck next time — used to say that you hope someone

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

will have more success in doing or trying something in the future ▪ I'm sorry to hear that you didn't get the job. Better luck next time.

down on your luck ✧ When you are down on your luck, your luck is bad. ▪ She's been down on her luck lately. [=she has been suffering through a difficult time lately]

good luck 1 — used to say that you hope someone will succeed ▪ We're sorry that you're leaving. Good luck in your new job. 2 informal — used to say that you think what someone is trying to do is difficult or impossible ▪ "I'm planning to ask for a raise." "Oh, really? Well, good luck (to you)." [=I think it is unlikely that you will get a raise] in luck ✧ When you are in luck, something that you want to do is possible. ▪ "Are there any tickets?" "You're in luck. We still have a few more left."

just my luck informal — used to say that bad or unpleasant things often happen to you because you are unlucky ▪ The last ticket was sold a minute before I got there—just my luck.

Lady Luck or lady luck — used to refer to luck as if it were a woman ▪ He blamed his problems on lady luck.

no such luck informal — used to say that you could not do or have something you wanted ▪ We hoped we could still get tickets, but no such luck—they had all been sold.

out of luck ✧ When you are out of luck, something that you want to do is not possible. ▪ We hoped we could still get tickets, but we were out of luck—they had all been sold.

push your luck or US press your luck ✧ If you are pushing/pressing your luck, you are taking more risks than you should or you are asking for more favors than you should. ▪ "Can I have more time to finish the job?" "Don't press/push your luck. You've already been given extra time."

the luck of the draw — used to say that the result of something cannot be controlled and depends on chance ▪ The weather may be good or bad that day—it all depends on the luck of the draw.

tough luck informal ✧ Tough luck can be used in speech to show sympathy for someone who has failed or has been disappointed, but it is more commonly used in an ironic way to show that you do not feel sympathy for someone. ▪ "I need more time to finish the job." "Tough luck. You knew the job was supposed to be done by today."

try your luck ✧ To try your luck at something is to do something in the hope that you will succeed. ▪ He's trying his luck at starting his own restaurant.

wish someone (the best of) luck : to say that you hope someone will have success ▪ I wish you (the best of) luck in your new job. ▪ I have a job interview this morning. Wish me luck!

– luck•less /ˈlʌkləs/ adj ▪ a luckless loser

²luck verb lucks; lucked; luck•ing luck into [phrasal verb] luck into (something) US, informal : to find or get (something) because of good luck ▪ She lucked into a good job.

luck out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to have good luck ▪ We arrived late but we lucked out—there were still a few tickets left.

luck•i•ly /ˈlʌkəli/ adv — used to say that something good or lucky has happened ▪ Luckily [=fortunately] no one was hurt. [=it was lucky that no one was hurt]

lucky /ˈlʌki/ adj luck•i•er; -est

1 : having good luck : FORTUNATE ▪ We're lucky that things turned out as well as they did. ▪ You're lucky to have a choice. = You're lucky that you have a choice. ▪ I feel lucky to be alive. ▪ I count/consider myself lucky to know you. ▪ Aren't you the lucky one! [=you are a lucky person] ▪ "I managed to get a ticket!" "Lucky you! They were all sold out by the time I got there." ▪ Tickets were available only for the lucky few. ▪ The lucky winner will be given a brand new car. ▪ I know you'll enjoy the show if you're lucky enough to get a ticket. ▪ Congratulations on getting the job, you lucky dog/devil. ▪ (chiefly US) He's a lucky stiff. [=he's very lucky] ▪ He was always lucky in love. [=he was always lucky in his romantic relationships]

2 : producing a good result by chance : resulting from good luck ▪ He scored a goal on a lucky shot. ▪ Their meeting was a lucky accident. ▪ We got a lucky break. ▪ It was a lucky coincidence that we were both there at the same time. ▪ a lucky find/guess ▪ It's lucky for us that the weather is so good. = We're lucky that the weather is so good. ▪ a lucky coin/charm ▪ This must be your lucky day. [=a day when something good happens because of good luck] ▪ You should thank your lucky stars [=you should be very grateful] that you have a friend like her.

get lucky 1 : to have good luck : to succeed because of good luck ▪ We thought all the tickets might have already been sold, but we got lucky—there were still a few left when we arrived. 2 informal : to succeed in finding or getting someone to have sex with you ▪ He's hoping to get lucky tonight.

third time lucky see ¹THIRD

lucky dip noun, pl ~ dips [count] Brit : a game in which people reach into a container filled with small gifts without knowing what gift they will get — compare GRAB BAG lu•cra•tive /ˈluːkrətɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : producing money or wealth : PROFITABLE ▪ a lucrative job/investment ▪ a lucrative career/contract ▪ The business has proved to be highly lucrative.

– lu•cra•tive•ly adv ▪ lucratively employed lu•cre /ˈluːkə/ noun [noncount] disapproving + often humorous : money or profit ▪ the lure of lucre — often used in the phrase filthy lucre ▪ He compromised his art for the pursuit of filthy lucre.

lu•di•crous /ˈluːdəkrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very foolish : RIDICULOUS ▪ ludicrous ideas/thoughts ▪ a ludicrous statement/suggestion ▪ It's ludicrous [=absurd] to think that he can solve these problems himself.

– lu•di•crous•ly adv ▪ a ludicrously improbable idea – lu•di•crous•ness noun [noncount]

¹lug /lʌg/ verb lugs; lugged; lug•ging [+ obj] : to pull or carry (something) with great effort ▪ She had to lug her suitcases out to the car by herself. ▪ I was lugging a heavy camera around all day.

²lug noun, pl lugs [count]

1 : a part (such as a handle) that sticks out like an ear

2 US, informal + humorous : a large and awkward or stupid man ▪ He's just a big lug. — often used in way that shows affection ▪ It's great to see you again, you big lug.

3 US : LUG NUT

luge /luːʒ/ noun, pl lug•es [count] : a small sled used for racing down an ice track

– lug•er /ˈluːʒɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

lug•gage /ˈlʌgɪʤ/ noun [noncount] : the bags and suitcases that a person carries when traveling : BAGGAGE ▪ Passengers are limited to two items of carry-on luggage.

luggage rack noun, pl ~ racks [count]

1 : a shelf for storing luggage on a train, bus, etc.

2 US : a frame on the roof of a car for carrying luggage — called also roof rack

lug nut noun, pl ~ nuts [count] US : a heavy piece of metal that is screwed on to the bolts that hold a wheel on a vehicle

lu•gu•bri•ous /luˈguːbrijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : full of sadness or sorrow : very sad especially in an exaggerated or insincere way ▪ a comic actor known for his lugubrious manner ▪ wearing a lugubrious expression

– lu•gu•bri•ous•ly adv ▪ sighing lugubriously – lu•gu•bri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

luke•warm /ˈluːkˈwoɚm/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : slightly warm ▪ a lukewarm [=tepid] bath ▪ I hate drinking lukewarm coffee.

2 : not enthusiastic : not having or showing energy or excitement ▪ Our plan got a lukewarm reception. ▪ The producer was lukewarm about her script.

– luke•warm•ly adv ▪ They reacted/responded lukewarmly to our plan.

¹lull /lʌl/ verb lulls; lulled; lull•ing [+ obj]

1 : to cause (someone) to fall asleep or become sleepy ▪ The music lulled him to sleep. — often used as (be) lulled ▪ He was lulled to sleep by her soothing voice. ▪ lulled by the gentle rocking of the boat

2 : to cause (someone) to feel safe and relaxed instead of careful and alert — + into ▪ He lulls you into believing his promises. [=he tricks you into believing his promises by making you feel that he can be trusted] — often used as (be) lulled ▪ She was lulled into a false sense of security.

²lull noun, pl lulls [count] : a brief time when an action or activity stops — usually + in ▪ There were several lulls in the conversation. ▪ a lull in the fighting/action ▪ a lull in the storm

lul•la•by /ˈlʌləˌbaɪ/ noun, pl -bies [count] : a song used to help a child fall asleep

lum•ba•go /ˌlʌmˈbeɪgoʊ/ noun [noncount] : pain in the lower back ▪ experiencing an attack of lumbago

lum•bar /ˈlʌmbɚ/ adj, always used before a noun, medical

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

: relating to or lying near the lower back ▪ This seat provides good lumbar support. ▪ the lumbar region

[1]lum•ber /ˈlʌmbə/ verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing [no obj] : to move in a slow or awkward way ▪ The parade lumbers through town once a year. ▪ We saw an elephant lumbering along the road. ▪ trucks lumbering [=rumbling] down the street ▪ an animal with a lumbering gait — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The economy continues to lumber along. ▪ a big, lumbering [=slow and awkward] bureaucracy — compare [3]LUMBER

[2]lumber noun [noncount]
1 US : wooden boards or logs that have been sawed and cut for use ▪ trees turned into lumber [=timber] ▪ He works for a lumber company. ▪ the lumber industry — see also LUMBERING
2 Brit : large objects that are no longer used or wanted ▪ had a clearout of all his old lumber and finally got rid of it

[3]lumber verb -bers; -bered; -ber•ing
lumber with [phrasal verb] lumber (someone) with (something) Brit, informal : to cause (someone) to have (something unwanted or unpleasant) ▪ His classmates lumbered him with [=saddled him with] an unfortunate nickname. — often used as (be) lumbered with ▪ He's been lumbered with an unfortunate nickname.
– compare [1]LUMBER

lum•ber•ing /ˈlʌmbərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US : the activity or business of making lumber from logs ▪ There has been an increase in lumbering in this area. ▪ the lumbering industry

lum•ber•jack /ˈlʌmbəˌʤæk/ noun, pl -jacks [count] : a person whose job is to cut down trees for wood : LOGGER lumber room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] Brit : a room for storing old pieces of furniture and other things that are not being used lum•ber•yard /ˈlʌmbəˌjɑəd/ noun, pl -yards [count] US : a place where wooden boards are kept for sale ▪ He went to the lumberyard [=(Brit) timber yard] to buy wood.

lu•mi•nary /ˈluːməˌneri, Brit ˈluːmənəri/ noun, pl -nar•ies [count] : a very famous or successful person : CELEBRITY ▪ luminaries of the art world

lu•mi•nes•cence /ˌluːməˈnɛsṇs/ noun [noncount] technical : the creation of light by processes that do not involve heat; also : the light created ▪ the luminescence of the watch – lu•mi•nes•cent /ˌluːməˈnɛsṇt/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ luminescent insects ▪ a luminescent watch dial lu•mi•nous /ˈluːmənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : producing or seeming to produce light : SHINING ▪ luminous stars/galaxies ▪ I saw the cat's luminous eyes in my car's headlights. ▪ a watch with a luminous dial — often used figuratively ▪ the luminous clarity of her writing ▪ a luminous essay 2 a : filled with light : brightly lit ▪ The room was luminous with sunlight. b : very bright in color ▪ a luminous blue
– lu•mi•nos•i•ty /ˌluːməˈnɑːsəti/ noun [singular] ▪ measuring a star's luminosity ▪ the luminosity of a typical galaxy
– lu•mi•nous•ly adv ▪ colors gleaming luminously in the sunlight ▪ a luminously clear writing style

[1]lump /ˈlʌmp/ noun, pl lumps [count]
1 : a small piece or mass of something ▪ a lump of coal ▪ turning a lump of clay into a beautiful pot ▪ He likes two lumps [=cubes] of sugar with his coffee.
2 : an area of swelling or growth on your body ▪ a cancerous lump ▪ He got a lump on his head after bumping into the doorway.
a lump in your throat : a tight feeling in your throat that you get when you are about to start crying or when you are trying not to cry ▪ The movie's final scene left me with a lump in my throat. = I got a lump in my throat when I watched the film's final scene.
take your lumps or take a lot of lumps US, informal : to be badly beaten or hurt ▪ He took a lot of lumps as a kid growing up in the city. — usually used figuratively ▪ Their first album took its lumps from the critics. [=it was harshly criticized] ▪ The team has taken its lumps [=it has lost many games] this year, but their play has improved recently.

[2]lump verb lumps; lumped; lump•ing
1 [+ obj] : to put (people or things) together or in the same group ▪ He made the mistake of lumping all their ideas together as foolish. ▪ She often gets lumped in with other modern artists even though her work is different from theirs.
2 [no obj] : to form lumps : to become lumpy ▪ You'll need to stir the mixture constantly to keep it from lumping.
lump it informal : to accept or allow something unpleasant or unwanted — usually used in the phrase like it or lump it ▪ Like it or lump it, the new law goes into effect today. [=it goes into effect whether you like it or not] lump•ish /ˈlʌmpɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : heavy and dull or awkward ▪ a slow-witted, lumpish man

– lump•ish•ness noun [noncount]

lump sum noun, pl ~ sums [count] : an amount of money that is paid at one time : a single sum of money ▪ The bonus is paid out in a lump sum. [=it is paid out all at once] ▪ a lump-sum payment lumpy /ˈlʌmpi/ adj lump•i•er; -est : having lumps : full of lumps ▪ a lumpy mattress ▪ lumpy mashed potatoes – lump•i•ness /ˈlʌmpinəs/ noun [noncount]

lu•na•cy /ˈluːnəsi/ noun [noncount]
1 a : extreme foolishness ▪ Quitting her job was an act of sheer/pure lunacy. [=madness] b : something that is very foolish ▪ Quitting her job was lunacy. ▪ It would be lunacy [=madness] to try driving home in this storm. ▪ His idea was considered total/sheer/complete lunacy.
2 old-fashioned : extreme mental illness : INSANITY

lu•nar /ˈluːnə/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the moon ▪ a lunar rock ▪ the lunar surface ▪ a lunar eclipse ▪ a lunar month [=the time between one new moon and the next, one full moon and the next, etc.]

[1]lu•na•tic /ˈluːnəˌtɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] informal
1 old-fashioned + sometimes offensive : an insane person ▪ a murderous lunatic ▪ He was raving like a lunatic.
2 informal : a person who behaves in a very foolish way ▪ I almost got into an accident with some lunatic on the highway. ▪ My boss is a complete lunatic. ▪ He was a lunatic out on the ski slopes. [=he was an extremely daring, reckless, or aggressive skier]

[2]lunatic adj, always used before a noun
1 a old-fashioned + sometimes offensive : designed for insane people ▪ a lunatic asylum b : not sane ▪ a lunatic [=crazy] genius
2 : wildly foolish ▪ He hatched a lunatic plot to overthrow the government. ▪ another of his lunatic ideas ▪ lunatic behavior ▪ a lunatic risk lunatic fringe noun [singular] : the members of a political or social group or movement who have the most extreme or foolish ideas ▪ His nomination is opposed by the party's lunatic fringe.

[1]lunch /ˈlʌnʧ/ noun, pl lunch•es : a light meal eaten in the middle of the day [count] I like to eat/have a healthy lunch every day. ▪ a company lunch [=luncheon] ▪ We took a picnic lunch to the park. ▪ They've brought their own lunches with them. ▪ We discussed the idea over a working/business lunch. [=a lunch during which people talk about business matters] [noncount] What's for lunch? ▪ I had/ate just a sandwich for lunch. ▪ Where do you want to go for lunch? = Where do you want to eat/have lunch? ▪ I bought her some lunch. ▪ She often sits alone at lunch. [=while eating lunch] ▪ We discussed the idea over lunch. [=during lunch; while eating lunch] ▪ I offered to take her out to lunch. [=to take her to a restaurant for lunch] ▪ lunch hour [=the time when the people in a school or company eat lunch] ✧ When people do lunch they have lunch together. This is an informal phrase that is often associated with people in business. ▪ Let's do lunch sometime.
eat/have someone or something for lunch or eat someone's or something's lunch US, informal : to defeat someone or something very badly ▪ The big hardware chain was eating the local store's lunch. [=the big chain was taking a lot of business from the local store] lose your lunch US slang : to throw up : VOMIT ▪ I felt like I was about to lose my lunch.
no free lunch ✧ The expression there is no free lunch or there is no such thing as a free lunch means that it is not possible to get something that is desired or valuable without having to pay for it in some way.
out to lunch informal : not aware of what is really happening : too strange or confused to notice or understand what is really happening ▪ That guy acts like he's out to lunch.

[2]lunch verb lunches; lunched; lunch•ing [no obj] : to eat lunch ▪ She often lunches in the park. ▪ We lunched on leftovers.
– lunch•er noun, pl -ers [count]

lunch box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a box in which a lunch can be kept and carried to school, work, etc.

lunch break noun, pl ~ breaks [count] : the time when people stop working or studying to have lunch : LUNCH

L

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

HOUR ▪ Let's go out during our lunch break.

lunch counter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US
1 : a long counter at which lunches are sold
2 : LUNCHEONETTE

lun•cheon /ˈlʌnʧən/ noun, pl -cheons [count] : a usually formal lunch that occurs as part of a meeting or for entertaining a guest ▪ a company luncheon ▪ a ladies' luncheon

lun•cheon•ette /ˌlʌnʧəˈnɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] US : a small restaurant where lunches are served luncheon meat noun, pl ~ meats [count, noncount] : cooked meat (such as sliced meat or canned meat) that is usually eaten cold ▪ sliced ham, turkey, and other luncheon meats — called also (US) lunch meat lunch hour noun, pl ~ hours [count] : the time when people stop working or studying to have lunch ▪ She likes to go for a walk during her lunch hour.

lunch•room /ˈlʌnʧˌruːm/ noun, pl -rooms [count] US
1 : a large room in a school or business where people eat lunch
2 : LUNCHEONETTE

lunch•time /ˈlʌnʧˌtaɪm/ noun, pl -times : the time in the middle of the day when people usually eat lunch [noncount] It was nearly lunchtime when we got there. [count] They enjoyed the lunchtimes they spent together.

lung /ˈlʌŋ/ noun, pl lungs [count] : either one of the two organs that people and animals use to breathe air ▪ He filled his lungs with the clean, fresh air. ▪ lung disease/cancer ▪ She shouted at the top of her lungs. [=she shouted as loudly as possible] — see picture at HUMAN

[1]lunge /ˈlʌnʤ/ noun, pl lung•es [count] : a sudden forward movement ▪ He made a lunge at me with his knife. ▪ He made a desperate lunge for the ball.

[2]lunge verb lunges; lunged; lung•ing [no obj] : to move or reach forward in a sudden, forceful way ▪ He lunged at me with his knife. ▪ She lunged across the table. ▪ The crocodile lunged at its prey. ▪ The dog lunged for his throat.

lu•pus /ˈluːpəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that affects the nervous system, joints, and skin

[1]lurch /ˈlərʧ/ verb lurch•es; lurched; lurch•ing [no obj]
1 : to make a sudden sideways or forward motion ▪ The boat lurched in the rough seas. ▪ The bus lurched along/down the highway. ▪ The jeep lurched to a stop.
2 : to move or walk in an awkward or unsteady way ▪ She lost her balance and lurched into the counter. ▪ He lurched to his feet. — often used figuratively ▪ Investors worry as the economy lurches towards recession. ▪ He always seems to be lurching from one crisis to another. ▪ The movie lurches from one car chase scene to the next.

[2]lurch noun, pl lurches [count] : a sudden sideways or forward movement ▪ You could feel the bumps and lurches as the bus moved down the highway. ▪ The train gave a lurch as it left the station. = The train left the station with a lurch. — compare [3]LURCH

[3]lurch noun
leave (someone) in the lurch : to leave someone without help or protection when it is needed ▪ His advisers left him in the lurch when he needed them the most.
– compare [2]LURCH

[1]lure /ˈluɚ/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition lures; lured; lur•ing [+ obj] : to cause or persuade (a person or an animal) to go somewhere or to do something by offering some pleasure or gain ▪ advertisers trying to lure [=attract] a younger audience to their products ▪ They lured the bear out of its den. ▪ The suburbs are luring middle-class families away from the city. ▪ The police lured him back to the scene of the crime. ▪ Explorers were lured to the area by tales of a city of gold. ▪ An attractive window display can help to lure shoppers into the store.

[2]lure noun, pl lures [count]
1 : an appealing or attractive quality — usually singular ▪ Tourists are drawn to the area by the lure of the Arizona sunshine. ▪ The birds find the lure of the feeder irresistible. ▪ He was unable to resist the lure of easy money.
2 : a device used for attracting and catching animals, birds, or especially fish

lu•rid /ˈlɚəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving
1 : causing shock or disgust : involving sex or violence in a way that is meant to be shocking ▪ lurid [=sensational] tabloid headlines ▪ a lurid front-page story ▪ a lurid tale of violence and betrayal ▪ the lurid [=gruesome] details of the crime
2 : shining or glowing with a bright and unpleasant color ▪ a lurid neon sign ▪ the lurid lighting of a nightclub ▪ The light from the fire cast a lurid glow on everything.
– lu•rid•ly adv ▪ luridly sensational headlines ▪ a scene luridly lit by smoky sunlight – lu•rid•ness noun [noncount]

lurk /ˈlɚk/ verb lurks; lurked; lurk•ing [no obj]
1 : to be in a hidden place ▪ The cat was lurking [=hiding] behind the sofa. : to wait in a secret or hidden place especially in order to do something wrong or harmful ▪ She could tell there was someone out there lurking in the shadows. — often used figuratively ▪ Trouble lurks around every corner. ▪ There is tenderness that lurks underneath his tough appearance. ▪ Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men? ▪ The idea had been lurking in her mind for some time.
2 computers : to read messages written by other people on the Internet in a newsgroup, chat room, etc., without writing any messages yourself
– lurk•er noun, pl -ers [count]

lus•cious /ˈlʌʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having a very appealing taste or smell : DELICIOUS ▪ luscious fruits ▪ chocolate cake with a luscious whipped cream topping ▪ a luscious wine
2 a : richly appealing ▪ a luscious [=delightful] singing voice b informal : very physically attractive ▪ an incredibly luscious actress
– lus•cious•ly adv ▪ a lusciously creamy cheesecake – lus•cious•ness noun [noncount]

[1]lush /ˈlʌʃ/ adj lush•er; -est
1 a : having a lot of full and healthy growth ▪ lush grass ▪ lush [=luxuriant] tropical vegetation ▪ The frequent rainfall encourages the lush growth of trees, ferns, and shrubs. b : covered with healthy green plants ▪ lush green fields/farms/pastures ▪ She always wanted to live on a lush Caribbean island. ▪ The hills are lush with deep, thick grass.
2 : having a pleasingly rich quality ▪ a lush and fruity wine ▪ lush color photos ▪ the film's lush imagery ▪ a lush carpet
– lush•ly adv ▪ lushly planted gardens ▪ a lushly [=lavishly] illustrated book – lush•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the lushness of the surrounding countryside

[2]lush noun, pl lush•es [count] informal : a person who is often drunk : DRUNK ▪ He's just an old lush.

[1]lust /ˈlʌst/ noun, pl lusts
1 : a strong feeling of sexual desire [noncount] He was consumed by lust. ▪ He was motivated more by lust than love. [=more by the desire for sex than by affection] [count] satisfying their lusts
2 : a strong desire for something [singular] a lust [=craving, desire] for money/adventure ▪ He was driven by a lust for power. ▪ a lust for life [=a strong desire to live a full and rich life] [noncount] Lust for chocolate drew her into the candy store. — see also BLOODLUST

[2]lust verb lusts; lust•ed; lust•ing [no obj]
1 : to have a strong sexual desire for someone — usually + after ▪ He lusted after the prettiest girl in the school. — sometimes + for ▪ He had lusted for her for years.
2 : to have a strong desire for something — usually + after ▪ She's been lusting after [=craving] that job for many months. — sometimes + for ▪ investors lusting for profits — sometimes followed by to + verb ▪ a general who lusted to command

lus•ter (US) or Brit lus•tre /ˈlʌstɚ/ noun [singular]
1 : the shiny quality of a surface that reflects light ▪ the luster of polished metal ▪ He polished the silverware for hours trying to restore its luster. ▪ the luster of her eyes
2 : an appealing, exciting, or admired quality ▪ The trip loses some of its luster [=it becomes less appealing or exciting] after you've done it several times. ▪ The scandals have tarnished/dimmed his luster. [=damaged his reputation] ▪ the luster [=renown] of the family's name
– lus•ter•less (US) or Brit lus•tre•less adj ▪ dull lusterless eyes ▪ lusterless silverware – lus•trous /ˈlʌstrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ lustrous silk ▪ a lustrous [=shining] surface

lust•ful /ˈlʌstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing strong sexual desire : feeling or showing lust ▪ He looked at her with lustful eyes. ▪ lustful feelings/dreams/thoughts – lust•ful•ly /ˈlʌstfəli/ adv ▪ gazing lustfully at one another lusty /ˈlʌsti/ adj lust•i•er; -est

1 : full of strength and energy ▪ a lusty shout/cry ▪ lusty [=powerful] singing ▪ working with lusty determination
2 : LUSTFUL ▪ lusty teenagers
– lust•i•ly /ˈlʌstəli/ adv [more ~; most ~] ▪ singing lustily ▪ cheering/applauding lustily – lust•i•ness /ˈlʌstinəs/ noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−l

lute /ˈluːt/ noun, pl lutes [count] : a musical instrument with strings that resembles a guitar and that was played especially in past centuries

Lu•ther•an /ˈluːθərən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a member of one of the Protestant churches that follow the teachings of Martin Luther – Lutheran adj

luv•vie /ˈlʌvi/ noun, pl -vies [count] Brit, informal : someone (such as an actor or actress) who is very friendly in a way that does not seem sincere lux•u•ri•ant /ˌlʌgˈʒərijənt, Brit ˌlʌgˈzjʊəriənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having heavy and thick growth : LUSH ▪ a luxuriant gray beard ▪ luxuriant vegetation
2 : having an appealingly rich quality ▪ a luxuriant symphony ▪ luxuriant colors
– lux•u•ri•ance /ˌlʌgˈʒərijəns, Brit ˌlʌgˈzjʊəriəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the luxuriance of his beard – lux•u•ri•ant•ly adv ▪ a luxuriantly bearded man lux•u•ri•ate /ˌlʌgˈʒəriˌeɪt, Brit ˌlʌgˈzjʊəriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] : to enjoy something that is appealingly rich or relaxing — usually + in ▪ He spent the morning luxuriating in his bed. ▪ She luxuriated in the beauties of the natural world.

lux•u•ri•ous /ˌlʌgˈʒərijəs, Brit ˌlʌgˈzjʊəriəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : very comfortable and expensive : richly appealing ▪ a luxurious apartment/restaurant ▪ one of the country's most luxurious resorts/hotels ▪ a luxurious fabric/fur
2 : feeling or showing a desire for expensive things ▪ a store that caters to the luxurious tastes of the rich – lux•u•ri•ous•ly adv ▪ a luxuriously furnished/decorated apartment – lux•u•ri•ous•ness noun [noncount]

lux•u•ry /ˈlʌkʃəri/ noun, pl -ries
1 [noncount] : a condition or situation of great comfort, ease, and wealth ▪ living in luxury ▪ a symbol of luxury ▪ the height of luxury — often used before another noun ▪ a luxury apartment ▪ a luxury car/liner ▪ luxury goods/items
2 a [count] : something that is expensive and not necessary ▪ He spent a fortune on expensive wines and other luxuries. ▪ Right now a new car is a luxury that I can't afford. ▪ On my salary, I can afford few luxuries. b [singular] : something that is helpful or welcome and that is not usually or always available ▪ We were lucky to have the luxury of choosing from among several good options. ▪ We can't afford the luxury of waiting any longer.
in the lap of luxury see [1]LAP luxury box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] US : an area with a roof and private seats near the top of a sports stadium

[1]-ly /li/ adv suffix
1 : in a (specified) manner ▪ sad*ly* ▪ joking*ly* ▪ slow*ly*
2 a : in a (specified) period of time ▪ The paper is published week*ly*. b : to a (specified) degree or extent ▪ extreme*ly* good ▪ relative*ly* cheap ▪ partial*ly* true c : in a (specified) place in a series ▪ second*ly* ▪ last*ly*

[2]-ly adj suffix
1 : similar in appearance, manner, or nature to a (specified) person ▪ queen*ly* ▪ father*ly*
2 : characterized by regular occurrence in (specified) periods of time ▪ a week*ly* paper

ly•chee or li•tchi also li•chee /ˈliːˌʧiː, Brit ˈlaɪˌʧiː/ noun, pl -chees or -tchis [count] : the fruit of an Asian tree that has a hard outer covering and a seed surrounded by sweet flesh; also : the tree that produces this fruit

Ly•cra /ˈlaɪkrə/ trademark — used for a type of cloth that stretches lye /ˈlaɪ/ noun [noncount] : a strong chemical that is used especially in making soap lying present participle of LIE

ly•ing–in /ˌlajɪŋˈɪn/ noun, pl lyings–in or lying–ins [count] old-fashioned : the time when a woman lies in bed before, while, and after giving birth to a baby

Lyme disease /ˈlaɪm-/ noun [noncount] : a serious disease that is spread by the bite of a small insect (called a deer tick)

lymph /ˈlɪmf/ noun [noncount] medical : a pale fluid that contains white blood cells and that passes through channels in the body and helps to keep bodily tissues healthy – lym•phat•ic /lɪmˈfætɪk/ adj ▪ lymphatic tissue ▪ the lymphatic system

lymph node noun, pl ~ nodes [count] medical : any one of many rounded masses of tissue in the body through which lymph passes to be filtered and cleaned lynch /ˈlɪnʧ/ verb lynch•es; lynched; lynch•ing [+ obj] : to kill (someone) illegally as punishment for a crime ▪ The accused killer was lynched by an angry mob.

lynch mob noun, pl ~ mobs [count] : a crowd of people who lynch or try to lynch someone

lynchpin variant spelling of LINCHPIN

lynx /ˈlɪŋks/ noun, pl lynx or lynx•es [count] : a large wild cat of North America — see picture at CAT

lyre /ˈlajə/ noun, pl lyres [count] : a musical instrument with strings that was used especially in ancient Greece

[1]lyr•ic /ˈlɪrɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]
1 : the words of a song ▪ a song with a beautiful lyric — usually plural ▪ a song with beautiful lyrics ▪ She knows the lyrics to all her favorite songs. ▪ The song's lyrics made no sense to her. ▪ Who wrote the lyrics for/to this song?
2 : a poem that expresses deep personal feelings in a way that is like a song : a lyric poem ▪ a poet admired for his lyrics

[2]lyric adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : expressing deep feelings in a way that is like a song ▪ Greek lyric poetry b : writing lyric poetry ▪ a lyric poet
2 always used before a noun, of an opera singer : having a light and pure voice ▪ a lyric soprano

lyr•i•cal /ˈlɪrɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having an artistically beautiful or expressive quality ▪ She is noted for her lyrical moviemaking style. ▪ a painter known for his lyrical landscapes ▪ a lyrical account of frontier life wax lyrical chiefly Brit, informal : to talk about something in a very enthusiastic way ▪ He waxed lyrical about the time he spent living in southern France.
– lyr•i•cal•ly /ˈlɪrɪkli/ adv

lyr•i•cism /ˈlirəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a quality that expresses deep feelings or emotions in a work of art : an artistically beautiful or expressive quality ▪ poetic lyricism ▪ music rich with lyricism ▪ the lyricism of his paintings

lyr•i•cist /ˈlirəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count] : a person who writes the words of a song : a writer of lyrics

M

[1]m or M /ˈɛm/ noun, pl m's or ms or M's or Ms
1 : the 13th letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that starts with an m [noncount] a word that starts with m
2 [count] : the Roman numeral that means 1,000 ▪ MM [=2,000]

[2]m abbr 1 male 2 married 3 meter 4 mile

M abbr 1 medium — usually used for a clothing size ▪ The shirt comes in S, M, L, and XL. 2 million ma /ˈmɑː/ noun, pl mas [count] informal : a person's mother ▪ Her ma and pa both said she can't go. ▪ When's supper, Ma?

MA abbr 1 master of arts ▪ She has an MA in English. ▪ Laurence Smith, MA 2 Massachusetts

ma'am /ˈmæm/ noun [noncount]
1 US — used to politely speak to a woman who you do not know ▪ May I help you with your luggage, ma'am? [=madam]
2 Brit — used to speak to the Queen or to a woman of high rank in the police or military

mac or mack /ˈmæk/ noun, pl macs or macks [count] Brit, informal : MACKINTOSH

Mac /ˈmæk/ noun [singular] US, informal + old-fashioned + sometimes impolite — used to speak to a man who you do not know ▪ Hey, Mac [=buddy], could you move your car?

ma•ca•bre /məˈkɑːb, məˈkɑːbrə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : involving death or violence in a way that is strange, frightening, or unpleasant ▪ a macabre story of murder and madness ▪ Police discovered a macabre scene inside the house.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:35 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

mac•ad•am /məˈkædəm/ noun [noncount] : a road surface made with a dark material that contains small broken stones

mac•a•ro•ni /ˌmækəˈroʊni/ noun [noncount] : a type of pasta in the shape of small curved tubes ▪ (US) macaroni and cheese = (Brit) macaroni cheese [=a dish of macaroni in a cheese sauce] — see picture at PASTA

mac•a•roon /ˌmækəˈruːn/ noun, pl -roons [count] : a cookie made of egg, sugar, and almonds or coconut

ma•caw /məˈkɑː/ noun, pl -caws [count] : a bird of South and Central America that has a long tail and bright colorful feathers

[1]mace /ˈmeɪs/ noun, pl mac•es [count]
1 : a heavy club with many sharp points that was used as a weapon in the Middle Ages
2 : a decorated pole carried by an official in special ceremonies as a symbol of authority
– compare [2]MACE

[2]mace noun [noncount] : a spice made from the dried covering of a type of seed (called a nutmeg) — compare [1]MACE

[3]mace verb mac•es; maced; mac•ing [+ obj] : to spray (a person) with Mace ▪ She maced the man who attacked her.

Mace /ˈmeɪs/ trademark — used for a liquid that stings the eyes and skin and that is used as a spray to defend against an attacker

Mach /ˈmɑːk, Brit ˈmæk/ noun [noncount] technical — used to indicate the high speed of something (such as an airplane) by comparing it to the speed of sound ▪ a jet flying at Mach 2 [=twice the speed of sound]

ma•chete /məˈʃɛti/ noun, pl -chet•es [count] : a large, heavy knife that is used for cutting plants and as a weapon

Ma•chi•a•vel•lian /ˌmækijəˈvɛlijən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : using clever lies and tricks in order to get or achieve something : clever and dishonest ▪ He relied on Machiavellian [=devious] tactics to get elected. ▪ a Machiavellian battle for control of the company
– Machiavellian noun, pl -lians [count] ▪ a political Machiavellian mach•i•na•tions /ˌmækəˈneɪʃənz/ noun [plural] formal + usually disapproving : deceptive actions or methods that are used to get or achieve something ▪ His plans were defeated by the machinations of his enemies.

[1]ma•chine /məˈʃiːn/ noun, pl -chines [count]
1 : a piece of equipment with moving parts that does work when it is given power from electricity, gasoline, etc. ▪ Shovels are tools; bulldozers are machines. ▪ Do you know how to operate/use/run this machine? ▪ The machine is working/running properly. ▪ The machine is broken. ▪ machine-sorted mail [=mail that is sorted by using a machine] ▪ a fax/copy/exercise machine ▪ a coffee/soda/ice/cash machine [=a machine from which you can get coffee/soda/ice/cash] — often used to refer informally to a specific type of machine ▪ Are there any new messages on the machine? [=on the answering machine] ▪ I have a load of laundry in the machine. [=in the washing machine] ▪ I'm having software problems on my machine. [=computer] — see also ANSWERING MACHINE, FLYING MACHINE, ROWING MACHINE, SEWING MACHINE, SLOT MACHINE, TIME MACHINE, VENDING MACHINE, VOTING MACHINE, WASHING MACHINE
2 informal : a vehicle (such as a car or motorcycle) ▪ He was bragging about his new machine.
3 a : a person or group that does something efficiently, quickly, or repeatedly like a machine ▪ The coach turned the team into a scoring machine. ▪ My younger brother is an eating machine. ▪ a publicity machine b : a powerful and well-organized group ▪ a politician who dared to challenge the local party machine ▪ a powerful war machine ▪ Their army is a well-oiled machine.
by machine : with a machine ▪ The mail used to be sorted by hand but is sorted now by machine.
– ma•chine•like /məˈʃiːnˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He worked with machinelike efficiency.

[2]machine verb -chines; -chined; -chin•ing [+ obj] : to shape (something) by using a machine ▪ The parts of the engine have been precisely machined.

machine gun noun, pl ~ guns [count] : a gun that is able to shoot many bullets very quickly one after the other ▪ They heard the sound of machine-gun fire. — see picture at GUN – machine–gun verb -guns; -gunned; -gun•ning [+ obj] ▪ The soldiers were machine-gunned from the air.
– machine gunner noun, pl ~ -ners [count]

ma•chine–gun /məˈʃiːnˌgʌn/ adj, always used before a noun, informal : very quick ▪ a comedian with a machine-gun [=rapid-fire] delivery machine–readable adj : in a form that can be used and understood by a computer ▪ machine-readable data

ma•chin•ery /məˈʃiːnəri/ noun [noncount]
1 : machines of a particular kind or machines in general ▪ Some of the mill's machinery was damaged in the fire. ▪ a piece of farm machinery
2 : the working parts of a machine ▪ Something was clogging the machinery.
3 : an organization or system by which something is done ▪ the machinery of government ▪ The United Nations has set up machinery for mediation.

machine shop noun, pl ~ shops [count] : a place where metal parts are made and put together machine tool noun, pl ~ tools [count] : a tool (such as a drill) that is powered by electricity and designed for shaping metal or wood ma•chin•ist /məˈʃiːnɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who makes, repairs, or operates machines ▪ He is a machinist at the factory.

ma•chis•mo /mɑˈʧiːzmoʊ, Brit məˈʧɪzməʊ/ noun [noncount] often disapproving : an attitude, quality, or way of behaving that agrees with traditional ideas about men being very strong and aggressive ▪ athletes displaying their machismo ▪ a culture of machismo

ma•cho /ˈmɑːʧoʊ, Brit ˈmæʧəʊ/ adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : having or showing qualities (such as very noticeable strength and aggression) that agree with traditional ideas about what men are like : manly or masculine in a very noticeable or exaggerated way ▪ He thinks he's a real macho man. [=a very masculine man] ▪ the macho world of football mack variant spelling of MAC

mack•er•el /ˈmækərəl/ noun, pl -el or -els [count, noncount] : a large fish that lives in the northern Atlantic Ocean and is often eaten as food — see color picture on page C8

mack•in•tosh /ˈmækənˌtɑːʃ/ noun, pl -tosh•es [count] Brit, old-fashioned : RAINCOAT — called also mac

mac•ra•mé /ˈmækrəˌmeɪ/ noun [noncount] : the art of tying knots in string to make decorative things ▪ Her hobbies include knitting and macramé.; also : things made in this way ▪ her collection of macramé

mac•ro /ˈmækroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] computers : a set of instructions that causes a computer to perform a series of tasks

mac•ro- /ˈmækroʊ/ combining form : large ▪ *macro*economics

mac•ro•bi•o•tic /ˌmækroʊbaɪˈɑːtɪk/ adj : consisting of mainly whole grains and vegetables ▪ a macrobiotic diet

mac•ro•cosm /ˈmækrəˌkɑːzəm/ noun [singular] : a large system (such as the entire universe) that contains many smaller systems — compare MICROCOSM

mac•ro•eco•nom•ics /ˌmækroʊˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪks, ˌmækroʊˌiːkəˈnɑːmɪks/ noun [noncount] : the study of the large economic systems of a country or region — compare MICROECONOMICS
– mac•ro•eco•nom•ic /ˌmækroʊˌɛkəˈnɑːmɪk, ˌmækroʊˌiːkəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj

mad /ˈmæd/ adj mad•der; mad•dest
1 not used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : very angry ▪ If you keep teasing that dog, you'll make/get him mad. ▪ She's mad at me. = (less commonly) She's mad with me. ▪ What are you so mad about? ▪ That guy makes me so mad! ▪ She was mad at me for being late. = She was mad that I was late. = She was mad about my being late. ▪ She was hopping mad. [=extremely angry] — see also fighting mad at [1]FIGHT
2 a : having or showing severe mental illness : INSANE ▪ (chiefly Brit) The man in the park was clearly mad. ▪ a movie about a mad scientist ▪ He was stark raving mad. [=completely insane] = (Brit) He was barking mad. b : unable to think in a clear or sensible way ▪ He was mad [=insane] with jealousy/anger. ▪ (chiefly Brit) They must have been mad [=crazy] to buy that house. ▪ a power-mad prosecutor c : very foolish ▪ (chiefly Brit) He made a mad decision to drive home in the storm.
3 chiefly Brit, informal : liking someone or something very much : very fond of or enthusiastic about someone or something ▪ She's mad for a cute boy in her class. ▪ He's mad keen on sailing. — often + about ▪ She's mad [=wild] about dancing. ▪ He's mad [=crazy] about her.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

4 always used before a noun : wild and uncontrolled ▪ There was a mad [=frantic] rush when the store opened. ▪ a mad scramble drive (someone) mad 1 : to cause (someone) to become mentally ill ▪ Years alone in the jungle had driven him mad. 2 : to annoy or bother (someone) very much. ▪ That noise is driving me mad!
go mad 1 : to become mentally ill ▪ Sometimes I think the whole world has gone mad! ▪ He had gone mad after years alone in the jungle. 2 : to act in a way that is out of control : to act wildly ▪ The crowd went mad [=went crazy] when the team won the championship.
like mad informal 1 : with a lot of energy and speed ▪ We've been working like mad [=like crazy] to get done on time. 2 : very quickly ▪ Cars were selling like mad. ▪ He's been spending money like mad. 3 : very much ▪ She started shivering like mad.
mad as a hatter see HATTER

mad•am /ˈmædəm/ noun, pl -ams [count]
1 pl mes•dames /meɪˈdɑːm, meɪˈdæm/ formal — used to politely speak to a woman who you do not know ▪ Would madam care for a drink? = Would you care for a drink, madam?
2 Madam — used at the start of a formal letter to a woman whose name you do not know ▪ Dear Madam ▪ Dear Sir or Madam
3 Madam — used when you are speaking to a woman who has a high rank or position ▪ Madam President ▪ Madam Ambassador
4 : a woman who is in charge of a brothel
5 Brit, informal + disapproving : a girl who expects other people to do things for her ▪ She was a bossy little madam.

ma•dame /məˈdæm, məˈdɑːm/ noun, pl mes•dames /meɪˈdɑːm, meɪˈdæm/ [count] — used like Mrs. as a title for a married Frenchwoman mad•cap /ˈmædˌkæp/ adj, usually used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very foolish or silly ▪ a madcap scheme ▪ a madcap [=zany] movie about a car race around the world ▪ madcap antics mad cow disease noun [noncount] : a fatal disease that affects the brain and nervous system of cattle mad•den /ˈmædn̩/ verb -dens; -dened; -den•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) angry — often used as (be) maddened ▪ The general was maddened by the delays.

maddening adj [more ~; most ~] : very annoying ▪ He has a maddening habit of interrupting other people. ▪ She shows a maddening inability to control her children.
– mad•den•ing•ly /ˈmædn̩ɪŋli/ adv ▪ a maddeningly difficult problem ▪ maddeningly slow service

[1]made past tense and past participle of [1]MAKE

[2]made /ˈmeɪd/ adj
1 not used before a noun a — used to say that someone has the right qualities to be or to do something ▪ He was made to be an actor. = He was made to act. b — used to say that something has the right qualities for or to do something ▪ She has a body made for running. ▪ The furniture was made to last. [=the furniture will last a long time]
2 : built, formed, or shaped in a specified way ▪ newly made tissue cells — often used in combination ▪ American-made cars ▪ machine-made rugs — see also HANDMADE, HOMEMADE, MAN-MADE, TAILOR-MADE
3 informal : certain of success ▪ a made man ▪ If this works, we'll all be made for life! [=we will have enough money to live well for the rest of our lives] have it made informal : to be in a very good position or situation ▪ My brother has it made with a good job, a beautiful wife, and a big house with a pool. ▪ (US) She had to work hard for many years to achieve success, but now she has it made in the shade.
made for each other informal : perfectly suited to each other ▪ I'm not surprised that they have such a happy marriage. I always knew that they were made for each other.
made of money see MONEY
what you're made of ✧ If people want to find out what you're made of, they want to see if you have the necessary courage, skill, etc., to succeed. ▪ Let's give him a chance and find out what he's made of.
– see also READY-MADE, SELF-MADE, UNMADE

ma•de•moi•selle /ˌmædmwəˈzɛl/ noun, pl ma•de•moi•selles /ˌmædmwəˈzɛlz/ or mes•de•moi•selles /ˌmeɪdmwəˈzɛl/ [count] — used like Miss as a title for a Frenchwoman who is not married made–to–measure adj : made to fit a particular person or thing ▪ a made-to-measure [=custom-made] suit ▪ made-to-measure curtains made–to–order adj : made to fit the needs or requirements of a particular person ▪ made-to-order [=custom-made] shoes/furniture ▪ a made-to-order meal

made–up /ˈmeɪdˈʌp/ adj
1 : created from the imagination : not true or real ▪ a made-up [=fictitious] story/name
2 [more ~; most ~] : wearing makeup ▪ made-up eyelids ▪ She was nicely made-up.

mad•house /ˈmædˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count]
1 old-fashioned + offensive : a hospital for people who are mentally ill
2 informal : a place where there is a lot of excitement or confusion ▪ The stadium was a madhouse when the team won the championship.

mad•ly /ˈmædli/ adv
1 : to an extreme or excessive degree ▪ He told her that he loved her madly. ▪ a madly ambitious businessman ▪ She fell madly in love with him.
2 : in a mad or insane way ▪ He pulled out a knife and started waving it around madly. [=wildly] ▪ grinning madly mad•man /ˈmædˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count]

1 : a man who has severe mental illness : an insane man ▪ a celebrity being stalked by a madman
2 informal : a man who acts in a wild and uncontrolled way ▪ He is a madman out on the ski slopes. [=he is an extremely daring or reckless skier] ▪ He drives like a madman. [=he drives very recklessly]

mad•ness /ˈmædnəs/ noun [noncount]
1 : a state of severe mental illness ▪ The king's madness [=insanity] was well-known. ▪ He suffered a series of tragedies that nearly drove him to madness.
2 : behavior or thinking that is very foolish or dangerous ▪ Her friends told her the idea was pure/sheer madness, but she went through with it anyway. ▪ It was the height of madness for him to drive at such high speeds! — see also (a) method in/to your madness at METHOD

Ma•don•na /məˈdɑːnə/ noun, pl -nas
1 the Madonna : the Virgin Mary : the mother of Jesus Christ
2 [count] : a painting or statue of the Virgin Mary mad•ri•gal /ˈmædrɪgəl/ noun, pl -gals [count] : a type of song for several singers without instruments that was popular in the 16th and 17th centuries mad•wom•an /ˈmædˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count]

1 : a woman who has severe mental illness : an insane woman ▪ a story about a madwoman locked up by her husband
2 informal : a woman who acts in a wild and uncontrolled way ▪ She is a madwoman on the dance floor. ▪ She drives like a madwoman. [=she drives recklessly]

mael•strom /ˈmeɪlstrəm/ noun, pl -stroms [count] literary 1 : a situation in which there are a lot of confused activities, emotions, etc. ▪ She was caught in a maelstrom of emotions. ▪ the maelstrom of war ▪ a maelstrom of activity
2 : a dangerous area of water that moves very fast in a circle : WHIRLPOOL ▪ The ship was drawn into the maelstrom.

mae•stro /ˈmaɪstroʊ/ noun, pl mae•stros also mae•stri /ˈmaɪˌstriː/ [count] : a man who is an expert at writing, conducting, or teaching music — often used as part of a title ▪ The orchestra played under Maestro Bernstein. ▪ Which tempo do you prefer, Maestro?

Ma• a /ˈmɑːfijə, Brit ˈmæfiə/ noun, pl - as
1 the Mafia a : a secret criminal organization in Italy b : a similar criminal organization in the U.S. ▪ a member of the Mafia — often used as Mafia before another noun ▪ a politician accused of having Mafia connections
2 or mafia [count] : a group of closely connected people who have great power or influence in a particular field or business ▪ He's an important figure in the television mafia.

ma• •o•so /ˌmɑːfiˈoʊsoʊ, Brit ˌmæfiˈəʊsəʊ/ noun, pl -si /-si/ [count] : a member of the Mafia mag•a•zine /ˈmægəˌziːn, ˌmægəˈziːn/ noun, pl -zines [count] 1 : a type of thin book with a paper cover that contains stories, essays, pictures, etc., and that is usually published every week or month ▪ a literary/fashion magazine ▪ a magazine rack ▪ She subscribes to several gardening magazines.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:36 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

2 : a radio or television program that discusses different topics
3 : a part of a gun that holds bullets
4 : a building or room where military supplies are stored ma•gen•ta /məˈʤɛntə/ noun, pl -tas [count, noncount] : a bright, deep purplish-red color — see color picture on page C3

– magenta adj

mag•got /ˈmægət/ noun, pl -gots [count] : an insect that looks like a small worm and that is a young form of a fly ▪ The rotten meat was infested with maggots.
– mag•goty /ˈmægəti/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ rotten maggoty meat

Ma•gi /ˈmeɪˌʤaɪ/ noun
the Magi : the three wise men in the Bible who come from the East with gifts for the baby Jesus

[1]mag•ic /ˈmæʤɪk/ noun [noncount]
1 : a power that allows people (such as witches and wizards) to do impossible things by saying special words or performing special actions ▪ perform/work (feats of) magic ▪ children who believe in magic — see also BLACK MAGIC
2 : tricks that seem to be impossible and that are done by a performer to entertain people ▪ a book that explains how to do magic
3 : special power, influence, or skill ▪ Some doubted the company could ever get back its former magic. [=could ever succeed again as it had succeeded before] ▪ Both pitchers, though they are older, haven't lost their magic.
4 : a very pleasant, attractive, or exciting quality ▪ the magic of their singing ▪ They wanted to get the old magic back into their marriage.
by magic : by the power of magic ▪ a mop that gets rid of dirt as if by magic like magic informal : in a very fast and impressive way ▪ Shapes changed like magic on the computer screen. ▪ a mop that works like magic [=that works extremely quickly or well] work your magic 1 : to do something very well ▪ the kitchen where a great cook works her magic 2 : to have a desired good effect ▪ It may take a few hours for the medication to work its magic.

[2]magic adj
1 : having the power to make impossible things happen : having supernatural power ▪ a magic potion/spell that makes you able to fly ▪ a magic charm
2 : involving the skill of doing tricks that seem to be impossible ▪ magic tricks ▪ a magic show/act
3 : capable of producing good results very easily ▪ There is no magic solution to these problems. ▪ He claims to know the magic formula for financial success. [=he claims to know a simple and sure way to achieve financial success] ▪ She has a magic touch with animals. [=she is able to calm or control animals with unusual ease]
4 [more ~; most ~] : very pleasant or exciting ▪ It was a magic moment when they met. ▪ They spent a magic [=magical] evening together.

mag•i•cal /ˈmæʤɪkəl/ adj
1 : [2]MAGIC 1 ▪ a magical potion ▪ magical powers
2 [more ~; most ~] : very pleasant or exciting ▪ We had a magical time.
– mag•i•cal•ly /ˈmæʤɪkli/ adv ▪ The magician made the car magically appear. ▪ I can't magically make your problems go away.

magic bullet noun, pl ~ -lets [count]
1 : a drug or treatment that cures a disease quickly and easily without producing bad effects
2 : something that solves a difficult problem easily ▪ There is no magic bullet to fix our educational system.

magic carpet noun, pl ~ -pets [count] in stories : a carpet that can carry a person through the air

ma•gi•cian /məˈʤɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count]
1 : a person who has the power to make impossible things happen : SORCERER
2 : a performer who does tricks that seem to be impossible ▪ The magician pulled a rabbit out of a hat.
3 : a person who has amazing skills ▪ She is a magician on the basketball court.

magic lantern noun, pl ~ -terns [count] : a machine that was used in the past to show pictures on a wall or screen

Magic Marker trademark — used for a felt-tip pen

magic wand noun, pl ~ wands [count] : a stick that is used to make magic things happen ▪ The magician waved his magic wand and pulled a rabbit out of the hat. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The new law is not a magic wand that will solve all our problems.

mag•is•te•ri•al /ˌmæʤəˈstirijəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] formal : showing impressive knowledge about a subject ▪ His book is a magisterial [=authoritative] study of the artist.
2 [more ~; most ~] formal : having the confident quality of someone who expects to be obeyed by other people ▪ He spoke with a magisterial tone.
3 : of or relating to a magistrate ▪ magisterial duties
– mag•is•te•ri•al•ly /ˌmæʤəˈstirijəli/ adv

mag•is•trate /ˈmæʤəˌstreɪt/ noun, pl -trates [count] : a local official who has some of the powers of a judge mag•ma /ˈmægmə/ noun [noncount] technical : hot liquid rock below the surface of the Earth mag•na cum lau•de /ˈmɑːgnəkʊmˈlaʊdə/ adv, formal : with great honor — used in the U.S. to indicate that a student has graduated from a college or university at the second highest of three special levels of achievement ▪ He graduated magna cum laude. — compare CUM LAUDE, SUMMA CUM LAUDE mag•nan•i•mous /mægˈnænəməs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing a generous and kind nature ▪ The team was magnanimous in victory. [=the team treated its defeated opponents in a respectful and generous way] ▪ She was too magnanimous to resent all the things others had said to her. ▪ a magnanimous gesture – mag•na•nim•i•ty /ˌmægnəˈnɪmɪti/ noun [noncount] ▪ He had the magnanimity to forgive her for lying about him. ▪ The team showed magnanimity in victory. – mag•nan•i•mous•ly adv

mag•nate /ˈmægˌneɪt/ noun, pl -nates [count] : a person who has great wealth and power in a particular business or industry ▪ a railroad magnate

magnesia see MILK OF MAGNESIA mag•ne•sium /mægˈniːzijəm/ noun [noncount] : a silver-white metallic element that produces a very bright white light when it burns mag•net /ˈmægnət/ noun, pl -nets [count]

1 : a piece of material (such as iron or steel) that is able to attract certain metals ▪ (US) a refrigerator magnet [=a small object with a magnet attached to it that can stick to a refrigerator or other metal surface]
2 : something or someone that attracts people or things — often + for ▪ The town is a magnet for tourists in the summer months. ▪ a controversial politician who has become a magnet for criticism [=who attracts a great deal of criticism] mag•net•ic /mægˈnɛtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to a magnet or magnetism ▪ magnetic materials ▪ a strong/powerful magnetic field
2 : having great power to attract and hold the interest of other people ▪ a magnetic personality ▪ a magnetic performer – mag•net•i•cal•ly /mægˈnɛtɪkli/ adv ▪ a magnetically charged particle ▪ a magnetically attractive personality magnetic compass noun, pl ~ -pass•es [count] : COMPASS 1 magnetic disk noun, pl ~ disks [count] : DISC 2 magnetic north noun [noncount] : the direction or area to the north toward which the needle of a compass points — compare TRUE NORTH magnetic pole noun, pl ~ poles [count]

1 : an area near either the North or South Pole of the Earth toward which the needle of a compass points
2 : either one of the two ends of a magnet magnetic resonance im•ag•ing /-ˈɪmɪʤɪŋ/ noun [noncount] medical : a method used to produce images of the inside of a person's body by means of a strong magnetic field — called also MRI

magnetic tape noun [noncount] : a thin plastic tape that is coated with magnetic material on which information (such as sound or television images) may be stored mag•ne•tism /ˈmægnəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

1 : the property of attracting certain metals : the attracting property of a magnet
2 : a quality that makes someone able to attract and hold the interest of other people ▪ Much of his success as a politician can be attributed to his personal magnetism. — see also animal magnetism at [2]ANIMAL mag•ne•tize also Brit mag•ne•tise /ˈmægnəˌtaɪz/ verb -tiz•es; -tized; -tiz•ing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

1 : to cause (something) to become magnetic ▪ magnetize a metal bar ▪ a highly magnetized particle
2 : to attract and hold the interest of (someone) ▪ Her performance magnetized the audience.
– mag•ne•tiz•able also Brit mag•ne•tis•able /ˈmægnəˌtaɪzəbəl/ adj – mag•ne•ti•za•tion also Brit mag•ne•ti•sa•tion /ˌmægnətəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmægnəˌtaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] magnet school noun, pl ~ schools [count] chiefly US : a school that has courses in special subjects (such as the arts or technology) and is designed to attract students from all parts of a community

mag•ni• •ca•tion /ˌmægnəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act of making something look larger than it is : the act of magnifying something ▪ magnification of an image
2 : the larger appearance of an object when it is seen through a microscope, telescope, etc. [noncount] We used a microscope to examine the cells under magnification. [count] At/Under higher magnifications the differences between the cells become clear. ▪ The telescope has a magnification of 30X. [=objects appear to be 30 times larger when viewed through the telescope]

mag•nif•i•cent /mægˈnɪfəsənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very beautiful or impressive : very great ▪ the magnificent cathedrals of Europe ▪ He gave a magnificent performance. ▪ The view was magnificent.
– mag•nif•i•cence /mægˈnɪfəsəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ We were awed by the splendor and magnificence of the palace.
– mag•nif•i•cent•ly adv ▪ a magnificently decorated palace ▪ He performed magnificently.

mag•ni•fy /ˈmægnəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make (something) greater ▪ The sound was magnified by the calm air. ▪ Their health problems have been magnified [=worsened] by unsanitary living conditions. ▪ Her successful handling of the crisis has magnified [=increased, improved] her chances to win reelection. b : to make (something) seem greater or more important than it is ▪ His failures have been magnified by the success of his friends. ▪ I don't want to magnify the importance of these problems.
2 : to make (something) appear larger ▪ The lens magnified the image 100 times. ▪ a magnified view of the image – mag•ni• •er /ˈmægnəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] magnifying glass noun, pl ~ glasses [count] : a specially shaped piece of glass that is attached to a handle and is used to make an object look larger than it is ▪ The jeweler examined the diamond with a magnifying glass.

mag•ni•tude /ˈmægnəˌtu:d, Brit ˈmægnəˌtju:d/ noun
1 [noncount] : the size, extent, or importance of something ▪ The country's small army would be crushed in a war of such magnitude. [=in such a large war] ▪ At this point no one really knows the true/real magnitude [=scale] of the problem.
2 [count, noncount] technical a : a number that shows the brightness of a star b : a number that shows the power of an earthquake ▪ a magnitude 6.7 earthquake = an earthquake of magnitude 6.7

mag•no•lia /mægˈnoʊljə/ noun, pl -lias [count] : a tree or tall bush that has white, pink, yellow, or purple flowers mag•num opus /ˈmægnəmˈoʊpəs/ noun [singular] : a great work : the greatest achievement of an artist or writer ▪ His last novel was his magnum opus.

mag•pie /ˈmægˌpaɪ/ noun, pl -pies [count]
1 : a noisy black-and-white bird
2 chiefly Brit, informal : a person who collects and keeps different things ma•ha•ra•ja or ma•ha•ra•jah /ˌmɑ:həˈrɑ:ʤə/ noun, pl -jas or -jahs [count] : a Hindu prince ma•ha•ra•ni or ma•ha•ra•nee /ˌmɑ:həˈrɑ:ni/ noun, pl -nis or -nees [count]

1 : the wife of a maharaja
2 : a Hindu princess ma•hat•ma /məˈhɑ:tmə, Brit məˈhætmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] : a person who is respected for being good, wise, and holy — used as a title of honor by Hindus ▪ Mahatma Gandhi

mah–jongg or mah•jong /ˌmɑ:ˈʒɑ:ŋ, ˌmɑ:ˈʤɑ:ŋ/ noun [noncount] : a Chinese game that four people play using small pieces of wood with symbols on them

ma•hog•a•ny /məˈhɑ:gəni/ noun, pl -nies
1 [noncount] : a strong reddish-brown wood that is used especially for making furniture and that comes from several tropical trees; also [count] : a tree that produces this wood
2 [noncount] : a reddish-brown color — see color picture on page C3
– mahogany adj

maid /ˈmeɪd/ noun, pl maids [count]
1 : a female servant ▪ a lady's maid; especially : a woman or girl who does cleaning work in a house or hotel ▪ She hired a maid to do the cleaning. ▪ a hotel maid
2 old-fashioned + literary : a girl or woman who is not married : MAIDEN ▪ a young maid — see also OLD MAID

[1]maid•en /ˈmeɪdn/ noun, pl -ens [count] old-fashioned + literary : a young girl or woman who is not married ▪ a story about a courageous knight who rescues a fair maiden ▪ a maiden in distress — see also HANDMAIDEN

[2]maiden adj, always used before a noun
1 of a woman, old-fashioned : not married ▪ my maiden aunt
2 : coming before all others : first or earliest ▪ the ship's maiden voyage ▪ the maiden issue of a new magazine ▪ a politician giving his maiden speech in the Senate maid•en•hair /ˈmeɪdnˌheə/ noun [count, noncount] : a type of fern that has thin stems and delicate leaves — called also maidenhair fern maid•en•head /ˈmeɪdnˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads old-fashioned

1 [noncount] of a woman : the state of being a virgin
2 [count] : HYMEN

maiden name noun, pl ~ names [count] : a woman's family name before she is married ▪ After she divorced, she took back her maiden name.

maid of honor (US) or Brit maid of honour noun, pl maids of honor [count] chiefly US : an unmarried woman who is the main bridesmaid at a wedding ▪ She asked her sister to be her maid of honor. — compare MATRON OF HONOR maid•ser•vant /ˈmeɪdˌsəvənt/ noun, pl -vants old-fashioned : a female servant ▪ menservants and maidservants

[1]mail /ˈmeɪl/ noun [noncount] ✧ Mail is used in British English but it is much more common in U.S. English. The usual word in British English is post.
1 : the system used for sending letters and packages from one person to another ▪ They do business by mail. ▪ Don't bring the check to the office—send it through the mail. ▪ The check is in the mail. [=the check has been sent and will be delivered by mail] ▪ I hope the check hasn't gotten lost in the mail. ▪ interoffice mail — called also (chiefly Brit) post; see also AIRMAIL, DIRECT MAIL, REGISTERED MAIL, RETURN MAIL, SURFACE MAIL, VOICE MAIL
2 : letters or packages sent from one person to another ▪ Was the notice in today's mail? ▪ Did we get any mail today? ▪ Has the mail arrived yet? ▪ sorting through the mail ▪ There's a pile of mail on the table. ▪ collecting and delivering the mail ▪ reading the mail ▪ They got a lot of hate mail [=extremely angry letters, e-mail, etc.] from people who disagree with their policies. ▪ He has a job in the mail room. [=the room in an office where mail is handled] — called also (chiefly Brit) post; see also FAN MAIL, JUNK MAIL, SNAIL MAIL
3 : [1]E-MAIL ▪ I need to check my computer to see if I've gotten any mail today.
the mails chiefly US, law, formal : the system used for sending letters, packages, etc. : a nation's postal system ▪ packages sent through the mails ▪ He was charged with using the mails to commit fraud.
– compare [3]MAIL

[2]mail verb mails; mailed; mail•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to send (something, such as a letter or package) by mail ▪ Have you mailed (out) the invitations yet? [=(chiefly Brit) have you posted the invitations yet?] ▪ She mailed me a copy of her manuscript. = She mailed a copy of her manuscript to me.

[3]mail noun [noncount] : a kind of protective clothing (called armor) that is made of many small pieces or rings of metal which are linked together ▪ a coat of mail — see also CHAIN MAIL — compare [1]MAIL mail•bag /ˈmeɪlˌbæg/ noun, pl -bags [count]

1 : a large bag used for sending letters and packages in a truck, airplane, etc.
2 chiefly US : a bag carried by a person who delivers the mail — called also (Brit) postbag

mail•box /ˈmeɪlˌbɑ:ks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] chiefly US
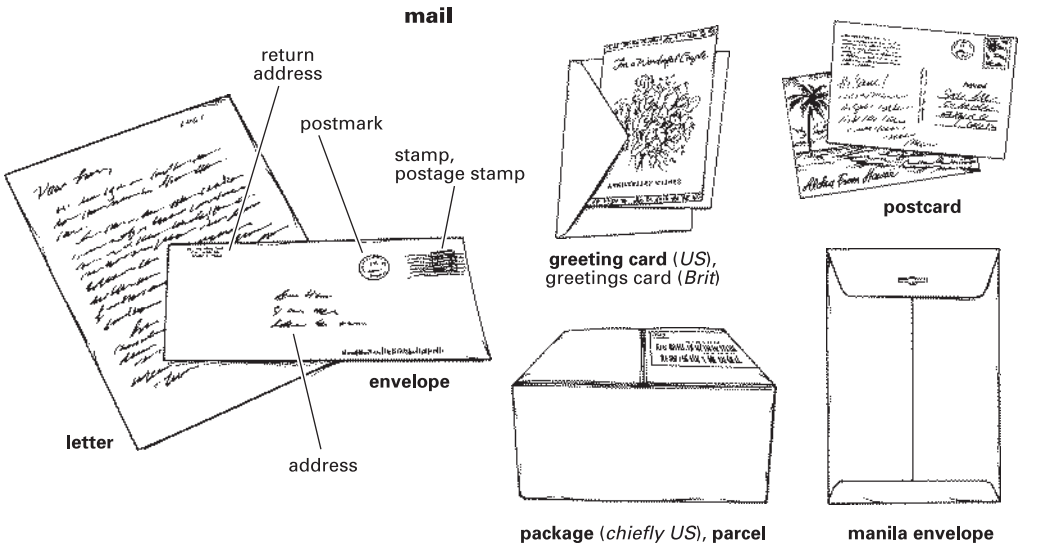
1 : a public box in which letters and packages are placed to be collected and sent out ▪ On the way to work, I dropped my letters in the corner mailbox. — called also (Brit) letter box, (Brit) postbox
2 : a private box on or near a house in which mail is placed when it is delivered ▪ She checked her mailbox daily, hoping

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:37 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m



for a letter from her son. — called also (Brit) letter box; see picture at HOUSE

3 computers : a computer folder that holds e-mail ▪ an electronic mailbox

mail carrier noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a person who delivers mail : LETTER CARRIER

mail drop noun, pl ~ drops [count] US

1 : a place or address where mail or messages can be left for someone

2 : a box in which mail can be placed mail•er /ˈmeɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US

1 : a person or organization that mails something ▪ a letter mailer

2 : a container used for mailing something

3 : something (such as an advertisement) that is sent by mail mail•ing /ˈmeɪlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the act of mailing something ▪ Get the check ready for mailing and take it to the post office.

2 [count] : something (such as a letter or an advertisement) that is mailed to many people at one time ▪ mass mailings ▪ The charity sent out several mailings to everyone on its mailing list. — called also (Brit) mailshot mailing address noun, pl ~ -dresses [count] : an address to which mail can be sent ▪ His mailing address [=postal address] is different from his home address.

mailing list noun, pl ~ lists [count]

1 : a list of names and addresses to which mail is sent ▪ The charity sent out letters to everyone on its mailing list. ▪ He asked the company to put him on their mailing list so that he could receive their catalog.

2 : a list of names and e-mail addresses to which e-mails are sent by people who are on the list ▪ People subscribe to Internet mailing lists in order to exchange information about special subjects.

mail•man /ˈmeɪlˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] US : a man who delivers mail : POSTMAN

mail order noun, pl ~ -ders

1 [noncount] : a method of buying products that are received by mail ▪ You can purchase the books by mail order.

2 [count] : a product that is sent by mail to the person who bought it ▪ The store sent out all its mail orders in time for the holiday.

– mail–or•der /ˈmeɪlˌoɚdə/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a mail-order catalog [=a catalog of products that can be ordered through the mail]

mail•shot /ˈmeɪlˌʃɑːt/ noun, pl -shots [count] Brit : MAILING 2

maim /ˈmeɪm/ verb maims; maimed; maim•ing [+ obj] : to injure (someone) very badly by violence ▪ The bomb killed 16 people and maimed several others. ▪ The accident left him (badly) maimed for life. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a career maimed by scandal

[1]main /ˈmeɪm/ adj, always used before a noun : most important : CHIEF, PRINCIPAL ▪ the main idea/point ▪ the main goal/purpose ▪ Speed is the main advantage of this approach. ▪ The company's main office is located in New York. ▪ the novel's main character ▪ driving down the main road/highway ▪ the main gate/entrance ▪ This dish can be served as a main course or appetizer. ▪ And now for the main event of the evening!

– main•ly adv ▪ The reviews have been mainly [=mostly] positive. ▪ a plant found mainly [=chiefly] in coastal regions ▪ I don't like the plan, mainly because I think it's too expensive. ▪ The problems have been mainly minor ones. [=most of the problems have been minor ones] ▪ They depend mainly on/upon fish for food.

[2]main noun, pl mains

1 [count] : the largest pipe in a system of connected pipes ▪ a gas main ▪ a water main

2 the mains Brit a : the system of pipes or wires for electricity, gas, or water ▪ My radio runs either off batteries or off the mains. — often used as mains before another noun ▪ We haven't had any mains water/electricity since the storm.

b : the place where electricity, gas, or water enters a building or room ▪ Turn off the water at the mains.

in the main : in general — used to say that a statement is true in most cases or at most times ▪ The workers are in the main very capable. [=most of the workers are very capable] ▪ The weather has in the main been quite good. [=has been quite good most of the time]

main clause noun, pl ~ clauses [count] grammar : a clause that could be used by itself as a simple sentence but that is part of a larger sentence — called also independent clause; compare COORDINATE CLAUSE, SUBORDINATE CLAUSE

main drag noun, pl ~ drags [count] US, informal : the main street in a town or city ▪ A carload of teenagers were cruising down the main drag.

main•frame /ˈmeɪnˌfreɪm/ noun, pl -frames [count] : a large and very fast computer that can do many jobs at once

main•land /ˈmeɪnˌlænd/ noun [singular] : a large area of land that forms a country or a continent and that does not include islands — used with the ▪ the Chinese mainland = the mainland of China ▪ After spending a week on the tiny island, we were happy to return to the mainland. — often used before another noun ▪ mainland China

[1]main•line /ˈmeɪnˌlaɪn/ adj, chiefly US : belonging to an established and widely accepted group or system ▪ mainline [=mainstream] churches

[2]mainline verb -lines; -lined; -lin•ing slang : to inject (a drug) directly into a vein [+ obj] addicts mainlining heroin [no obj] His addiction grew worse when he began mainlining.

main line noun, pl ~ lines [count] : an important highway or railroad line

main man noun, pl ~ men [count] US, informal

1 : someone's best male friend ▪ He's still her main man.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

2 : the most important or admired man in a group ▪ The team has many good players, but he is clearly the main man.

main•sail /ˈmeɪnˌseɪl, ˈmeɪnsəl/ noun, pl -sails [count] : the largest sail of a sailing ship

main•spring /ˈmeɪnˌsprɪŋ/ noun, pl -springs [count]
1 : the most important spring in a watch or clock
2 : the most important or powerful cause or part of something ▪ Agriculture is the mainspring of their economy.

main squeeze noun, pl ~ squeezes [count] chiefly US slang : someone's main girlfriend, boyfriend, or lover ▪ She's my main squeeze.

main•stay /ˈmeɪnˌsteɪ/ noun, pl -stays [count] : a very important part of something ▪ Fish is a mainstay of their diet. ▪ a dietary mainstay : something or someone that provides support and makes it possible for something to exist or succeed ▪ My mother has always been the mainstay of our family.

[1]main•stream /ˈmeɪnˌstriːm/ noun
the mainstream : the thoughts, beliefs, and choices that are accepted by the largest number of people ▪ His ideas are well outside the mainstream of political opinion. = His ideas are well outside the political mainstream.
– mainstream adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ mainstream medicine [=the type of medicine that is most widely practiced and accepted] ▪ mainstream movies ▪ Advertisers are trying to attract a more mainstream audience.

[2]main•stream /ˈmeɪnˈstriːm/ verb -streams; -streamed; -stream•ing [+ obj]
1 chiefly US : to place (a child with special educational needs) in regular school classes
2 : to cause (someone or something) to be included in or accepted by the group that includes most people ▪ The poor should be mainstreamed into the private health-insurance system. ▪ Ideas that were once controversial have now become mainstreamed.

main street noun, pl ~ streets
1 [count] : the most important street of a U.S. town where there are many stores, banks, etc. — often used as a name ▪ The restaurant is at 257 Main Street.
2 Main Street [noncount] US — used to refer to middle-class people in the U.S. who have traditional beliefs and values ▪ What does Main Street think of this policy?

main•tain /meɪnˈteɪn/ verb -tains; -tained; -tain•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (something) to exist or continue without changing ▪ They have always maintained high standards of professional conduct. ▪ He has found it difficult to maintain a healthy weight. ▪ maintain a good reputation ▪ They barely had enough food to maintain life. [=to make it possible for life to exist or continue]
2 : to keep (something) in good condition by making repairs, correcting problems, etc. ▪ The company has done a poor job of maintaining its computer network. ▪ It was obvious that the house had been poorly maintained.
3 : to continue having or doing (something) ▪ She was finding it hard to maintain her balance. ▪ She still maintains a close relationship with her college roommate. ▪ It's difficult to maintain a correspondence when we're both so busy. ▪ The pilot was struggling to maintain control of the aircraft. ▪ The police say that they will do whatever is necessary to maintain law and order. ▪ She continues to maintain her silence. [=she continues to say nothing] ▪ He was struggling to maintain his cool/composure. [=he was struggling not to become angry or upset]
4 : to say that (something) is true ▪ He maintains that such decisions are best left to local authorities. ▪ He continues to maintain his innocence. = He continues to maintain that he is innocent. ▪ She maintains that my theory is flawed.
5 : to provide support for (someone or something) ▪ He has a family to maintain.

main•te•nance /ˈmeɪntənəns/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of maintaining something or someone: such as a : the act of keeping property or equipment in good condition by making repairs, correcting problems, etc. ▪ The building has suffered from years of poor maintenance. ▪ the costs of routine car maintenance — often used before another noun ▪ a maintenance worker [=a worker whose job is to keep property or equipment in good condition] ▪ a maintenance fee ▪ She works in the company's maintenance department. b : the act of causing something to exist or continue without changing ▪ maintenance of law and order c : the act of providing support for someone or something ▪ money for the family's maintenance
2 Brit : CHILD SUPPORT

maize /ˈmeɪz/ noun [noncount] Brit : [1]CORN 1a

ma•jes•tic /məˈʤɛstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : large and impressively beautiful ▪ majestic mountains/trees ▪ majestic phrases – ma•jes•ti•cal•ly /məˈʤɛstɪkli/ adv ▪ mountains rising majestically above the surrounding hills

maj•es•ty /ˈmæʤəsti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : a great and impressively beautiful quality ▪ the majesty of the mountains
2 Majesty [count] — used as a title for a king, queen, emperor, or empress; used with his, her, your, or their ▪ Your Majesty ▪ Her Majesty's Government ▪ Their Majesties

[1]ma•jor /ˈmeɪʤə/ adj
1 a : very important ▪ a major poet/artist ▪ He's one of the major figures in 19th-century U.S. history. ▪ Researchers have announced a major advance/breakthrough in the treatment of cancer. ▪ major American cities ▪ a major event ▪ a question of major [=great] importance ▪ major rivers/roads ▪ She played a major role in the negotiations. ▪ a major earthquake ▪ a writer's major works ▪ No major changes are expected. ▪ The problems do not appear to be (very) major. b always used before a noun : large in number, amount, or extent ▪ The grant covered a major part of the cost. ▪ Butter is one of the major ingredients in the recipe. ▪ The movie turned out to be a major disappointment. [=the movie was very disappointing] ▪ (informal) A car like that costs major money. [=a lot of money]
2 : very serious or bad ▪ None of his health problems are major. ▪ a major illness/disease ▪ He suffered a major heart attack. ▪ She's having major surgery. ▪ major depression ▪ a major accident
3 music a of a scale : having semitones between the third and fourth and the seventh and eighth notes ▪ a major scale ▪ the C-major scale [=the major scale that is in the key of C] b : based on a major scale ▪ a major key — compare [1]MINOR 3

[2]major noun, pl -jors [count]
1 : a military officer in the army, air force, or marines who ranks above a captain ▪ an Army major ▪ Major Smith — see also SERGEANT MAJOR
2 US a : the main subject studied by a college or university student ▪ He chose history as his major and French as his minor. ▪ What was your major in college? — compare [2]MINOR 2 b : a student who has a specified main subject of study ▪ In college, he was a history major. ▪ a club for physics majors
the majors US, informal : the major leagues of baseball ▪ As a boy, he dreamed of playing in the majors.
– see also DRUM MAJOR

[3]major verb -jors; -jored; -jor•ing
major in [phrasal verb] major in (something) US, of a college or university student : to have (a specified subject) as your main subject of study ▪ In college, he majored in history and minored in French.
major on [phrasal verb] major on (something) Brit : to pay special attention to (something) ▪ The carmaker majors on comfort in its new models.

ma•jor•do•mo /ˌmeɪʤəˈdoʊmoʊ/ noun, pl -mos [count]
1 old-fashioned : the person who runs a large house
2 : someone who runs an organization or a project

ma•jor•ette /ˌmeɪʤəˈrɛt/ noun, pl -ettes [count] : a girl or woman who marches with a band and spins a baton — called also drum majorette

major general noun, pl ~ -als [count] : a military officer of high rank in the army, air force, or marines

ma•jor•i•ty /məˈʤɔrəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [singular] : a number that is greater than half of a total ▪ Unfortunately, the majority of (the) students [=most of the students] in the class failed the test. ▪ The policy is supported by the great/vast/overwhelming majority of (the) voters. ▪ A clear majority of the voters support the policy.
2 a [count] : a number of votes that is more than half of the total number ▪ They won by a majority of seven. [=the total number of votes they received was seven more than half of all the votes] ▪ The proposal failed to win a majority in the Senate. [=the proposal was defeated because it was not voted for by more than half the senators] ▪ The law will pass only if it is approved by at least a two-thirds majority. [=if two out of three voters approve it] b [singular] : the group or party that is the greater part of a large group ▪ The Republicans/Democrats are currently the majority in the Senate. ▪ Sup-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:38 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

porters of the new law appear to be in the majority. [=there are more people who support the new law than who oppose it] — see also SILENT MAJORITY

3 [noncount] law : the age at which a person is given the full rights of an adult ▪ The age of majority in the U.S. is 18. = The age when you reach your majority in the U.S. is 18. — compare MINORITY 4

– majority adj, always used before a noun ▪ the majority opinion [=the opinion of most of the people] ▪ a majority decision [=a decision supported by most of the people] ▪ Republicans/Democrats are the majority party in the Senate.

majority leader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : the leader of the political party that has the most members in the U.S. Senate or House of Representatives — compare MINORITY LEADER majority rule noun [noncount] : a political system in which the group that has the most members has the power to make decisions

major leagues noun

the major leagues : the two highest U.S. baseball leagues (the American League and the National League) ▪ He always dreamed of playing in the major leagues. [=(US) the big leagues] — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She's moving up to the major leagues in the television industry. — compare MINOR LEAGUE

– major–league adj ▪ major-league baseball ▪ a major-league player — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We've been experiencing some major-league problems. [=major problems, very serious problems] – major leaguer noun, pl ~ -guers [count] ▪ He hopes to be a major leaguer [=(US) big leaguer] some day.

ma•jor•ly /ˈmeɪʤəli/ adv, informal : very or extremely ▪ She was majorly annoyed.

[1]make /ˈmeɪk/ verb makes; made /ˈmeɪd/; mak•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to build, create, or produce (something) by work or effort ▪ make a box/chair/suit ▪ make someone a dress = make a dress for someone ▪ He works in a factory that makes jet engines. ▪ She made the curtains herself. ▪ He collected wood to make a fire. ▪ She used cheese and a mixture of other ingredients to make a delicious sauce. — often followed by with to describe the things that are used to produce something ▪ She made the sauce with cheese and other ingredients. — often followed by of to describe the material that forms something ▪ The box is made of wood. [=it is a wood/wooden box; the material used to produce the box was wood] ▪ The topping is made entirely of cheese. [=the topping consists entirely of cheese] — often followed by from to describe the source of a product ▪ Cheese is made from milk. b : to use (something) to create a product — + into ▪ She made the material into a dress. ▪ She made a mixture of ingredients into a delicious sauce.

2 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to exist, happen, or appear ▪ Someone was making a disturbance. ▪ The car's engine has been making a strange noise lately. ▪ The rock made a dent in the car's fender. ▪ I'm not trying to make trouble. ▪ The typist made a mistake. ▪ I called the doctor's office to make an appointment. ▪ They moved over and made room for her. ▪ I want to make a good home for my children.

3 [+ obj] : to create or write (something) in an official or legal way ▪ The government should make laws to protect poor people. ▪ I don't make the rules; I just follow them. ▪ You should make a will.

4 [+ obj] : to produce, direct, or act in (something, such as a movie) ▪ a director who has made some classic films ▪ That actor has made many films.

5 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to be changed in a specified way ▪ They adapted a Russian play and made the setting Dublin rather than Moscow. ▪ We originally planned on a one-week vacation, but we decided to make it two weeks instead. ▪ The experience made him a cynic. = The experience made a cynic (out) of him. = The experience made [=changed, turned] him into a cynic. ▪ I'd like a hamburger. No, wait—make that a cheeseburger.

6 [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to have a specified quality, feeling, etc. ▪ A good teacher makes learning enjoyable. ▪ She made what she wanted clear to us. = She made (it) clear to us what she wanted. [=she said or showed clearly what she wanted] ▪ He made it understood/known that he expected us to help. ▪ The experience made him cynical. ▪ Working in the garden makes me very tired. ▪ It makes me sad to think that the summer is ending. ▪ The photograph makes me seem/look fat. ✧ To make yourself useful means to do something useful. ▪ Why don't you make yourself useful by washing the dishes? ✧ To make yourself heard/understood (etc.) means to do what is necessary to be sure that people hear you, understand you, etc. ▪ The music was so loud that she could hardly make herself heard. ▪ She doesn't speak French well, but she can make herself understood.

7 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be or become something ▪ A good teacher makes learning a pleasure. = A good teacher makes it a pleasure to learn. ▪ Yes, you can leave work early today, but don't make it a habit. ▪ The bright paint really makes the room come alive!

8 [+ obj] a : to cause (someone) to do something ▪ He yelled at her and made her cry. ▪ How can I make you understand that I love you?! b : to force (someone) to do something ▪ We have to find a way to make them work faster. ▪ They made me wait for an hour. ▪ If he doesn't want to do it, we can't make him (do it). ▪ They used threats to make her do it. = She was made to do it by the use of threats.

9 [+ obj] : to give a particular job, title, status, etc., to (someone) ▪ They made him (the) Emperor. ▪ They made her a member of their club. = She was made a member of their club.

10 [+ obj] : to perform (a particular action) ▪ He made a bow. [=he bowed] ▪ We made [=took] a detour to avoid traffic. ▪ They made [=got] an early start. [=they started early] ▪ I have to make a (telephone) call to my boss. [=I have to call/telephone my boss] ▪ May I make a suggestion? [=may I suggest something?] ▪ "Make love, not war!" shouted the demonstrators. ▪ I'm not used to making [=giving] speeches. ▪ They made a bet [=they bet] that she would win. ▪ Don't make any sudden movements. ▪ They made a contribution. [=they contributed] ▪ We should make a distinction between them. ▪ She made a promise to him. = She made him a promise. ▪ He made note of her address. ▪ Time is running out. You'll have to make a decision soon.

11 [+ obj] : to form (a plan) in your mind ▪ Have you made any plans for your vacation?

12 [+ obj] : to arrange the blankets and sheets on (a bed) so that the mattress is covered ▪ She always makes the bed after she gets up in the morning.

13 [+ obj] : to prepare (food or drink) ▪ Let me make dinner for you. = Let me make you dinner. ▪ Can I make you a drink? ▪ I'll make the pasta if you make the salad. ▪ She made a cake for her daughter's birthday.

14 a [linking verb] — used to indicate a total ▪ That makes the third time you've said the same thing! ▪ I've lost again! That makes $3 I owe you. ▪ "I'm hungry." "That makes two of us." [=I'm hungry too] b [+ obj] : to be equal to (an amount) ▪ Three plus two make/makes [=equals, totals] five. c [+ obj] : to calculate (an amount, total, etc.) ▪ "What do you make the time?" [=what do you think the time is?] "(I make it) About half past three." ▪ I make the distance back to camp about four miles. = I make it about four miles back to camp.

15 a [+ obj] : to be used to produce (something) ▪ Rags make the best paper. b [linking verb] : to be suited for use as (something) ▪ This new building would make [=be] a fine school. c [linking verb] : to be or become (something) ▪ She and her boyfriend make [=are] a lovely couple. ▪ She will make a fine judge one day. ▪ She made [=was] a loving wife to him. = She made him a loving wife.

16 [+ obj] : to arrive at (a place) ▪ The ship made port today.

17 [+ obj] : to earn or gain (money, a profit, etc.) ▪ He makes $50,000 a year. ▪ She makes a good salary. ▪ Their products are so inexpensive I don't know how they make a profit. ▪ She made $100 on the deal. = The deal made $100 for her. = The deal made her $100. ▪ He makes a/his living by doing small jobs. ▪ He made a/his fortune in the stock market.

18 [+ obj] a : to be accepted as a member of (a group, team, etc.) ▪ She's finally made the team. b : to appear on or in (a newspaper, a headline, etc.) ▪ The story of his accident made the front page of the paper. ▪ The story made headlines all across the country. c chiefly US : to be promoted to (a level or rank) ▪ My uncle is in the army. He made major last year.

19 [+ obj] sports a : to succeed in doing (something that you attempt) ▪ I missed the first foul shot but made the second one. ▪ He has to make this putt to win the tournament. — opposite MISS b : to produce (a particular score) ▪ She made a 6 on the second hole. ▪ He made a birdie/bogey.

20 [+ obj] a : to not be too late for (something) ▪ They (just/barely) made the deadline. ▪ We got to the station just in time to make the train. — opposite MISS b : to reach or go to (a place) ▪ We made [=reached] Atlanta in just under two hours.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

c : to succeed in reaching or going to (something) ▪ The team made [=qualified for] the play-offs last year. ▪ I don't know if I'll be able to make that meeting. — opposite MISS 21 [+ obj] : to act in a way that causes someone to be your friend, enemy, etc. ▪ She makes friends easily. ▪ He made a few enemies when he worked here.

22 [+ obj] : to cause the success of (someone or something) ▪ This film could make or break her career. [=the success or failure of her career could depend on the success or failure of this film] — see also MAKE-OR-BREAK

23 [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be enjoyable, attractive, etc. ▪ The bright paint really makes the room! ▪ Meeting the star of the show really made our day!

24 [no obj] old-fashioned + literary : to seem to begin an action ▪ She made to go. = She made as if to go. [=she moved in a way that suggested she was going]

make a face see [1]FACE

make away with [phrasal verb] make away with (something) literary : to steal and take away (something) ▪ Someone had made away with [=made off with] all the money.

make believe see BELIEVE

make do : to proceed or do what you can with the things that you have even though you do not have what you want ▪ They didn't have much money but they somehow managed to make do. — often + with ▪ If we can't get what we want, we'll just have to make do with what we've got. — often + without ▪ If we don't have carrots for the soup, we'll just have to make do without them.

make eyes at see [1]EYE make for [phrasal verb] make for (something) 1 : to go toward (a place) quickly ▪ Everyone made for [=headed for] the exit as soon as the show was over. ▪ After he left the office he made straight for home. 2 : to cause (something) to happen or to be more likely ▪ Courtesy makes for safer driving.

make friends see FRIEND

make it 1 : to reach a particular place, goal, etc. ▪ The ship made it to port. ▪ You'll never make it that far. ▪ The climbers finally made it to the top of the mountain. ▪ Welcome to the party. I'm glad you could make it! = Welcome! I'm glad you could make it to the party! ▪ The story made it to the front page. [=the story appeared on the front page] ▪ She's finally made it onto the team. [=she finally was accepted on the team] ▪ If we hurry, we can still make it home before dark. 2 : to not fail, die, etc. : SURVIVE ▪ Many new businesses don't make it through their first year. ▪ He's very sick. The doctor doesn't think he's going to make it. 3 : to become successful ▪ It's tough to succeed in this business, but if you work hard I know you'll make it eventually. ▪ He made it big [=became very successful] in real estate. 4 chiefly US, informal : to have sex ▪ His girlfriend caught him making it with another girl.

make like US, informal 1 : to pretend to be (someone or something) ▪ He made like a rooster and strutted across the stage. 2 : to act in a way that does not show your true feelings ▪ He made like [=acted like] he didn't care.

make love see [1]LOVE

make merry see MERRY

make much of : to treat (something) as very important ▪ In talking about his past, the book makes much of the influence of his brother. [=the book says that his brother's influence was very important] ▪ She tends to make far too much of her problems. ▪ You shouldn't make too much of what he said—he was only joking.

make nice see NICE

make of [phrasal verb] 1 make (something) of (something or someone) : to have or form an opinion about (something or someone) ▪ What do you make of this? [=what is your opinion about this?] ▪ I can't make anything of it at all. ▪ I don't know what to make of her behavior. [=I don't understand her behavior] ▪ He's a strange guy. I don't know quite what to make of him. 2 make (a day, night, etc.) of it : to continue with an enjoyable activity during all of (a day, night, etc.) ▪ Since we're going out to dinner anyway, let's make an evening of it and go to a movie afterward. 3 make something of (yourself or your life) : to become successful ▪ She has worked very hard to make something of herself. ▪ He wants to make something of his life. [=to have a successful and productive life] 4 make something of it informal : to treat something as a reason for arguing or being angry — used in speech as an angry way of telling someone that you are prepared to fight or argue about something ▪ Yes, I got home late last night. Do you want to make something of it? [=do you want to argue/fight about it?] — see also MAKE MUCH OF (above)

make off [phrasal verb] 1 chiefly Brit : to leave quickly especially in order to escape ▪ After taking the money, the thieves made off toward the main highway. 2 make off with (something) : to take or steal (something) and go away ▪ Someone broke into the office and made off with some valuable equipment.

make out [phrasal verb] 1 make (something) out or make out (something) : to write down the required information on (something, such as a check) ▪ He made out a check for $100 to cover the cost of the repairs. ▪ make out [=fill out] a form ▪ The doctor will make out a prescription for you. = The doctor will make you out a prescription. ▪ She made out a shopping list before going to the grocery store. 2 make (something) out or make out (something) a : to see and identify (something) ▪ We could just make out a ship approaching through the fog. b : to hear and understand (something) ▪ I couldn't quite make out what she said. c : to learn or understand (something) by studying, searching, etc. ▪ I can't quite make out [=tell] whether he's drunk or sober. ▪ We're still trying to make out [=find out, figure out] what really happened. 3 make (someone) out informal : to understand the behavior of (someone) — used in negative statements ▪ I just can't make him out [=figure him out]—he's so contradictory. 4 make (someone or something) out : to describe (someone or something) in a specified and usually false way ▪ The book makes them out to be criminals. ▪ Don't make them out as worse than they are. ▪ He's not as bad as he's made out (to be). = He's not as bad as people make him out (to be). 5 informal — used to ask about or describe the success or progress of someone or something ▪ "How are you making out [=doing, getting along] in your new job?" "Just fine, thank you!" ▪ "How did the team make out yesterday?" "They won." ▪ (US) He made out like a bandit [=he made a lot of money] when he sold the company. 6 chiefly US, informal : to kiss and touch for a long time in a sexual way ▪ She was making out [=(old-fashioned) necking] with her boyfriend.

make over [phrasal verb] 1 make (something or someone) over or make over (something or someone) : to change the appearance of (something or someone) ▪ We made the whole house over so it looked more modern. — see also MAKEOVER 2 make (something) over or make over (something) : to give (property) to another person in an official or legal way ▪ He made the ranch/shares over to his eldest son.

make up [phrasal verb] 1 make (something) up or make up (something) : to create or invent (a story, a lie, etc.) ▪ He entertained the children by making up a funny story about a cat that lived on a sailboat. ▪ He made up some excuse about having problems with his car, but no one believed him. ▪ It never happened: you made it all up! ▪ He didn't have a prepared speech. He just made it up as he went along. — see also MADE-UP 2 make (something) up or make up (something) a : to combine to produce (something) ▪ Ten chapters make up this volume. = This volume is made up [=composed] of 10 chapters. b : to produce or create (something) by putting together different parts ▪ They're going to make up a list of requirements for us. = They're going to make us up a list of requirements. c : to prepare (something) so that it is ready to be used ▪ I'll make up a bed for you. = I'll make you up a bed. [=I'll prepare a bed for you to sleep in] d Brit : to supply (something) according to directions ▪ make up [=(US) fill] a prescription 3 make (something) up or make up (something) : to provide an amount of time, money, etc., that is needed ▪ The total cost of the repairs is $200. If you can pay half of that, I'll make up the rest. ▪ I'll make up the difference. ▪ I have to leave work early today, but I'll make up the time by working late tomorrow. 4 make up (someone or something) or make (someone or something) up a : to put makeup on (someone or someone's face) ▪ She made herself up for the party. ▪ Her face was heavily made up. [=there was a lot of makeup on her face] — see also MADE-UP b : to change the appearance of (someone or something) by using costumes, decorations, etc. ▪ The actor was made up to look like George Washington. ▪ The room was made up to look like a disco. 5 informal : to become friendly again after being angry ▪ They quarreled but later made up (with each other). ▪ He made up with his girlfriend. ▪ (chiefly Brit) She's trying to make it up with him. 6 make up for (something) : to do or have something as a way of correcting or improving (something else) ▪ He wanted to make up for [=atone for] neglecting his children by spending more time with them. ▪ She tried to make up for lost time by working extra hard. ▪ What the movie lacks in plot it makes up for in special effects. 7 make up to (someone) Brit, informal + disapproving : to treat (someone) in a very friendly or helpful way in order to get something for yourself ▪ an employee who's always making up to [=(US, informal) sucking up to] the boss 8 make it up to (someone) : to do something helpful or good for (someone you have hurt or treated wrongly) ▪ He'd neglected his children and wanted to make it up to them by spending more time with them.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

make up your mind see [1]MIND make your way, make way see [1]WAY

– see also MADE

[2]make noun, pl makes [count] : a group of products that are all made by a particular company and given a particular name ▪ The store sells computers in many different makes [=brands] and models. ▪ "What make of car is that?" "I think it's a Ford."

on the make informal + often disapproving 1 : trying to get more money or power ▪ He doesn't trust anyone in the movie business. He thinks that everyone in Hollywood is always on the make. 2 : trying to get sex ▪ a beautiful woman who's often approached by guys on the make make•able or mak•able /ˈmeɪkəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] sports : able to be made or likely to be made ▪ a makeable putt ▪ a makable field goal

[1]make–be•lieve /ˈmeɪkbəˌliːv/ noun [noncount] : things that are imagined or pretended to be true or real ▪ He has been living in a world of make-believe. [=he has been believing things that are not true; he has been living in a fantasy world] ✧ When children play make-believe, they think of an imaginary world and pretend to live in it as people, animals, fairies, etc. — see also make believe at BELIEVE make–or–break /ˈmeɪkəˈbreɪk/ adj, always used before a noun : resulting in either definite success or definite failure ▪ a make-or-break decision ▪ The next year will be a make-or-break time for the company.

[2]make–believe adj, always used before a noun : not real ▪ The commercial showed a make-believe scientist in a white lab coat talking about the benefits of the product. ▪ He has been living in a make-believe world.

make•over /ˈmeɪkˌoʊvə/ noun, pl -overs [count] : the act or process of making changes to improve the appearance or effectiveness of someone or something ▪ The actress had a complete makeover to turn her into a glamorous star. ▪ They gave their advertising a total makeover to improve their corporate image. — see also make over at [1]MAKE mak•er /ˈmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers

1 [count] a : a person who makes something ▪ a maker of action films — often used in combination ▪ a film*maker* ▪ a trouble*maker* ▪ a glass*maker* ▪ government policy-makers ▪ a peace*maker* b : a company that makes a specified product ▪ one of the nation's leading makers [=manufacturers] of fine cars ▪ a maker of computer chips ▪ computer makers — often used in combination ▪ an auto*maker* c : a machine that makes something ▪ an ice-cream maker ▪ a pasta maker — often used in combination ▪ a coffee*maker*

2 Maker [singular] : GOD ▪ a hymn giving thanks to the Maker of all things meet your maker or meet your Maker : to die ▪ He says he's not afraid to meet his maker. — often used figuratively ▪ My old car has finally gone to meet its maker.

make•shift /ˈmeɪkˌʃɪft/ adj : used as a usually rough and temporary replacement for something ▪ A large box served as a makeshift table.

make•up /ˈmeɪkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups

1 [singular] : the way in which something is put together or arranged — often + of ▪ the makeup of the Earth's atmosphere ▪ the ethnic makeup of the neighborhood ▪ the makeup [=layout] of a printed page

2 [singular] : the physical, mental, and moral character of a person ▪ His daring attitude toward risks is a major part of his makeup. ▪ her psychological makeup

3 [noncount] a : substances (such as lipstick or powder) used to make someone's face look more attractive ▪ She put on some makeup before the party. ▪ She applied her makeup lightly/heavily. ▪ wearing heavy/thick makeup ▪ She's too young to wear makeup. ▪ a makeup artist [=a person whose job is to put makeup on actors or models] b : materials (such as wigs or cosmetics) that are used to change the appearance of an actor ▪ put on makeup for a play ▪ I didn't recognize him when he was in his theatrical/stage makeup.

4 [count] US : a special test for a student who has missed or failed a previous test ▪ He'll have to pass the makeup to graduate. — often used before another noun ▪ a makeup exam/test/quiz — see also make up at [1]MAKE mak•ing /ˈmeɪkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [noncount] : the action or process of producing or making something ▪ methods used in the making of wine — often used in combination ▪ dress*making* ▪ film*making* ▪ government policy-making

2 [noncount] : something that causes someone to become better or more successful ▪ His time in the army was the making of him. [=he became a better person because of his time in the army] ▪ That movie was the making of her as an actress. [=that movie made her a well-known and successful actress]

3 makings [plural] a US : the people or things that are needed for making something ▪ With beans, rice, cheese, and fresh salsa, you have (all) the makings of/for a delicious burrito. b : the qualities that are needed to become something ▪ He has (all) the makings of a great quarterback. [=he has the talent needed to become a great quarterback]

in the making : in the process of being made ▪ The film was three years in the making. [=it took three years to make the film] ▪ She has a talent for spotting problems in the making. [=for spotting problems as they are beginning to develop] ▪ We were watching history in the making. [=we were watching an important historical event as it happened]

of your own making : caused by your own actions ▪ The problem is entirely of your own making. [=the problem is entirely your own fault; you alone are responsible for the problem]

mal- combining form : bad or badly ▪ *mal*practice ▪ *mal*treatment ▪ *mal*odorous

mal•ad•just•ed /ˌmæləˈʤʌstəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not able to deal with other people in a normal or healthy way ▪ socially maladjusted people — opposite WELL-ADJUSTED

– mal•ad•just•ment /ˌmæləˈʤʌstmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ emotional maladjustment

mal•adroit /ˌmæləˈdrɔɪt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very awkward : not skillful or adroit ▪ The governor has been criticized for his maladroit handling of the budget crisis. ▪ a socially maladroit teenager

– mal•adroit•ly adv – mal•adroit•ness noun [noncount]

mal•a•dy /ˈmælədi/ noun, pl -dies [count] formal : a disease or illness ▪ The patient was suffering from a mysterious malady [=ailment] that the doctors were unable to identify. — often used figuratively ▪ unemployment and other social maladies

mal•aise /məˈleɪz/ noun

1 medical : a slight or general feeling of not being healthy or happy [noncount] The symptoms include headache, malaise, and fatigue. [singular] An infected person will feel a general malaise. ▪ a spiritual malaise

2 : a problem or condition that harms or weakens a group, society, etc. [noncount] postwar malaise [singular] The country's current economic problems are symptoms of a deeper malaise.

mal•a•prop•ism /ˈmæləˌprɑːpˌɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] : an amusing error that occurs when a person mistakenly uses a word that sounds like another word but that has a very different meaning ma•lar•ia /məˈlerijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that causes chills and fever and that is passed from one person to another by the bite of mosquitoes

– ma•lar•i•al /məˈlerijəl/ adj ▪ malarial fever

ma•lar•key /məˈlɑəki/ noun [noncount] informal : foolish words or ideas : NONSENSE ▪ He thinks everything politicians say is just a bunch of malarkey.

mal•con•tent /ˌmælkənˈtɛnt, Brit ˈmælkəntɛnt/ noun, pl -tents [count] disapproving : a person who is always or often unhappy or angry about something ▪ He complained so much that he got a reputation for being a malcontent.

[1]male /ˈmeɪl/ adj

1 a : of or relating to the sex that cannot produce young or lay eggs ▪ a male bird/mammal/insect ▪ male athletes ▪ a study of male [=men's] sexuality ▪ There were more male than female students. b [more ~; most ~] : characteristic of boys or men ▪ a male [=masculine] voice/name c : having members who are all boys or men ▪ a male choir

2 of a plant : not producing fruit or seeds ▪ a male holly

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:39 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

3 technical : having a part that fits into the hole in another part (called a female part) ▪ Most extension cords have a male plug on one end and a female plug on the other.
– male•ness noun [noncount]

[2]male noun, pl males [count]
1 : a man or a boy : a male person ▪ She attended a school where there were more males than females.

usage The use of male to mean "man" or "boy" now occurs most commonly in scientific or technical language. ▪ According to the study, males scored about the same as females. ▪ The suspect was a white male aged about 30. In other contexts, it is often seen as a humorous or mildly insulting word. ▪ She referred to her husband's friends as "a bunch of clumsy males."

2 : a male animal ▪ The male of this species assists the female in feeding the young.
3 : a plant that does not produce seed or fruit : a male plant male•fac•tor /ˈmælə,fæktə/ noun, pl -tors [count] formal : someone who is guilty of a crime or offense : a person whose behavior is wrong or evil ▪ He favors harsh punishment for chronic malefactors. [=criminals]

ma•lev•o•lent /məˈlɛvələnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having or showing a desire to cause harm to another person ▪ Her reputation has been hurt by malevolent [=malicious] gossip. ▪ a malevolent demon ▪ a malevolent lie/smile
– ma•lev•o•lence /məˈlɛvələns/ noun [noncount] – ma•lev•o•lent•ly adv

mal•fea•sance /ˌmælˈfi:zns/ noun [noncount] law : illegal or dishonest activity especially by a public official or a corporation ▪ The investigation has uncovered evidence of corporate malfeasance.

mal•for•ma•tion /ˌmælfoəˈmeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions medical : a condition in which part of the body does not have the normal or expected shape [noncount] The condition is marked by malformation of the spine. [count] She underwent surgery to correct a heart malformation.

mal•formed /ˌmælˈfoəmd/ adj, medical : not having the normal or expected shape especially because of a problem in the way something has developed or grown : badly or improperly formed ▪ a malformed foot mal•func•tion /ˌmælˈfʌŋkʃən/ verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [no obj] : to fail to function or work properly ▪ A software problem is causing the system to malfunction.

– malfunction noun, pl -tions [noncount] The problem is causing malfunction of the system. [count] system malfunctions

mal•ice /ˈmæləs/ noun [noncount] : a desire to cause harm to another person ▪ an attack motivated by pure malice ▪ She claimed that her criticisms were without malice.
with malice aforethought law — used to describe a criminal act that was deliberately planned to cause harm to someone ▪ Murder is the killing of another person with malice aforethought.

ma•li•cious /məˈlɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a desire to cause harm to another person : having or showing malice ▪ a malicious liar ▪ malicious gossip ▪ a malicious distortion of the truth
– ma•li•cious•ly adv ▪ He claims his statements have been maliciously distorted. – ma•li•cious•ness noun [noncount]

[1]ma•lign /məˈlaɪn/ verb -ligns; -ligned; -lign•ing [+ obj] formal : to say bad things about (someone or something) publicly : to criticize (someone or something) harshly or unfairly ▪ Her supporters say she is being unfairly maligned in the press. ▪ I did not intend to malign [=impugn] his motives. ▪ They have given up their much-maligned [=widely criticized] attempt to reform tax policy.

[2]malign adj [more ~; most ~] formal : causing or intended to cause harm ▪ He has used his power for malign [=malevolent] purposes.

ma•lig•nan•cy /məˈlɪgnənsi/ noun, pl -cies
1 [noncount] medical + formal : a malignant quality or state ▪ the malignancy of the tumor
2 [count] medical : a tumor that is malignant ▪ The test revealed a malignancy in the patient's chest.

ma•lig•nant /məˈlɪgnənt/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 medical : very serious and dangerous : tending or likely to grow and spread in a rapid and uncontrolled way that can cause death ▪ a malignant [=cancerous] tumor/growth ▪ a highly malignant form of cancer — opposite BENIGN
2 formal : very evil ▪ a powerful and malignant influence
– ma•lig•nant•ly adv

ma•lin•ger /məˈlɪŋgə/ verb -gers; -gered; -ger•ing [no obj] : to pretend to be sick or injured in order to avoid doing work ▪ His boss suspected him of malingering because of his frequent absences from work.
– ma•lin•ger•er /məˈlɪŋgərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

mall /ˈmɑ:l/ noun, pl malls [count]
1 : a large building or group of buildings containing stores of many different kinds and sizes ▪ They spent the afternoon shopping at the mall. — see also STRIP MALL
2 : a public area where people walk ▪ a pedestrian mall

mal•lard /ˈmælə(r)d/ noun, pl mallard or mal•lards [count] : a very common kind of duck mal•lea•ble /ˈmælijəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 technical : capable of being stretched or bent into different shapes ▪ a malleable metal
2 formal : capable of being easily changed or influenced ▪ a malleable [=flexible] plan ▪ malleable young minds – mal•lea•bil•i•ty /ˌmælijəˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the malleability of the metal

mal•let /ˈmælət/ noun, pl -lets [count]
1 : a hammer with a large usually wooden head
2 sports : a club used for hitting the ball in croquet or polo

mal•nour•ished /ˌmælˈnəɪʃt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not eating enough food or not eating enough healthy food : poorly nourished ▪ malnourished children

mal•nu•tri•tion /ˌmælnʊˈtrɪʃən, Brit ˌmælnjʊˈtrɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : the unhealthy condition that results from not eating enough food or not eating enough healthy food : poor nutrition ▪ a program to help poor children suffering from malnutrition

mal•odor•ous /ˌmælˈoʊdərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a bad smell ▪ a malodorous [=smelly] mixture of chemicals mal•prac•tice /ˌmælˈpræktəs/ noun [noncount] law : careless, wrong, or illegal actions by someone (such as a doctor) who is performing a professional duty ▪ a surgeon accused of malpractice ▪ Doctors need to have malpractice insurance to protect themselves against lawsuits.

malt /ˈmɔ:lt/ noun, pl malts
1 [noncount] : grain and especially barley that is soaked in water and used in making alcoholic drinks (such as beer and whiskey)
2 [count] US, informal : MALTED MILK ▪ a chocolate malt
3 [count, noncount] : MALT WHISKEY

[1]malt•ed /ˈmɔ:ltəd/ adj, always used before a noun : changed into malt ▪ malted grain/barley

[2]malted noun, pl -eds [count] US, informal : MALTED MILK ▪ ordered a hot dog and a chocolate malted

malted milk noun, pl ~ milks [count, noncount] US : a drink made by mixing a special powder of malted grains and dried milk into a liquid (such as milk) and usually adding ice cream and flavoring malt liquor noun, pl ~ -quors [count, noncount] US : a type of beer that has a high amount of alcohol mal•treat /ˌmælˈtri:t/ verb -treats; -treat•ed; -treat•ing [+ obj] : to treat (someone) in a rough or cruel way ▪ He claims that he was maltreated [=(more commonly) mistreated, abused] by the prison guards.

– mal•treat•ment /ˌmælˈtri:tmənt/ noun [noncount]

malt whiskey (US) or Brit malt whisky noun, pl ~ -keys [count, noncount] : whiskey made in Scotland from malted barley mam /ˈmæm/ noun, pl mams [count] Brit, informal : a person's mother ma•ma or mam•ma also mom•ma /ˈmɑ:mə/ noun, pl -mas [count] informal : a person's mother — used especially by young children ▪ Where's mama? ▪ Read me a story, Mama! — compare PAPA

mama's boy noun, pl ~ boys [count] US, disapproving : a boy or man who is seen as weak because he is controlled or protected too much by his mother

mam•bo /ˈmɑ:mboʊ, Brit ˈmæmbəʊ/ noun, pl -bos
1 [count] : a lively dance originally from Cuba ▪ They learned to dance the mambo.
2 [count, noncount] : the music for the mambo ▪ The band played a mambo.

mam•mal /ˈmæməl/ noun, pl -mals [count] : a type of animal that feeds milk to its young and that usually has hair or fur covering most of its skin ▪ Human beings, dogs, and cats are all mammals.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

– mam•ma•li•an /məˈmeɪlijən/ adj, technical ▪ characteristics of the mammalian brain ▪ mammalian species

mam•ma•ry /ˈmæmərɪ/ adj, technical : of or relating to the breasts ▪ mammary cells mammary gland noun, pl ∼ glands [count] technical : a gland in a woman's breast or in a female animal that produces milk mam•mo•gram /ˈmæməˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] medical : a photograph of a woman's breasts made by X-rays ▪ She went to the hospital for her yearly mammogram.

– mam•mog•ra•phy /mæˈmɑːgrəfi/ noun [noncount]

[1]mam•moth /ˈmæməθ/ noun, pl -moths [count]

1 : a type of large, hairy elephant that lived in ancient times and that had very long tusks that curved upward mammoth

2 : something that is very large ▪ The little business she started by herself has now become a mammoth [=giant] in the industry.

[2]mammoth adj [more ∼; most ∼] : very large ▪ a mammoth [=huge, gigantic] building ▪ Renovating the house is a mammoth undertaking.

[1]man /ˈmæn/ noun, pl men /ˈmɛn/

1 [count] : an adult male human being ▪ He was a shy boy, but he grew to be a strong and confident man. ▪ He's a grown man now. ▪ The movie is popular with men and women. ▪ He's a man of great talent. = He's a very talented man. ▪ a good/bad man

2 : a man or boy who shows the qualities (such as strength and courage) that men are traditionally supposed to have [count] Don't cry, little boy: be a man! ▪ A few years in the army will make a (real) man (out) of you! [noncount] Are you man enough to meet the challenge?

3 : a woman's husband or boyfriend [count] Who's the new man in her life? = Who's her new man? [noncount] I now pronounce you man [=husband] and wife. — see also OLD MAN

4 a [count] : an individual human being : PERSON ▪ Time waits for no man. [=for no one] ▪ the differences between men [=people] and beasts/animals ▪ He believes that all men are created equal. b [noncount] : the human race ▪ prehistoric man ▪ It's not a fit night out for man or/nor beast. [=for people or animals] ▪ the problems facing modern man [=the human race in modern times] ✧ Senses 4a and 4b are now sometimes avoided because they are considered sexist.

5 [count] — used when you are talking to a man ▪ (chiefly US, informal) Hey, man, how are you? ▪ (old-fashioned) Pull yourself together, man! ▪ Okay, men, let's go out there and win! ▪ (US, informal) Hey, my man! It's good to see you! ▪ (chiefly Brit, old-fashioned) My good man, can you tell me where the railroad station is?

6 [count] : a male worker who goes to people's homes ▪ The furnace man came to repair the heater.

7 men [plural] : a group of male workers, soldiers, etc. ▪ The men have threatened to go on strike. ▪ He led his men into battle against overwhelming odds.

8 [count] a : a man who does a particular kind of work ▪ a medical/military man b : a man who has a specified job or position or who belongs to a specified category of worker — used in combination ▪ a council*man* ▪ Has the mail*man* come yet? ▪ He's a shrewd business*man*. c : a man who works for or represents a particular person or organization ▪ our man in Washington ▪ He spoke with the president's man.

9 [count] old-fashioned : a male servant — usually singular ▪ My man will show you to your room.

10 [count] a somewhat old-fashioned : a male student or former student at a college or university ▪ He's a Harvard man. b : a man who comes from or lives in a specified town, city, etc. — used chiefly by journalists ▪ One of the accident victims has been identified as a Boston man.

11 [count] : a man who likes something very much or who is known for some activity or interest ▪ I'm strictly a vanilla ice cream man. [=I'm a man who likes vanilla ice cream]

12 [singular] a : a person who can do what is needed ▪ If you need someone to help organize the files, I'm/he's/she's your man! [=I'm/he's/she's the person you need for the job] b : the person someone (such as a police officer) is looking for ▪ He matches the description, but I don't think he's our man. ▪ a detective who always gets his man [=catches the criminal]

13 [count] : one of the pieces in a game like chess or checkers

a fine figure of a man see [1]FIGURE

as one man old-fashioned, now usually used of a group of men : as a group : all together ▪ The audience rose as one man [=everyone in the audience stood up] and cheered.

be/become your own man : to be or become a man who is not controlled by other people or who is able to support himself without the help of other people ▪ He left home and moved to the city to become his own man.

every man for himself — used to describe a situation in which people do not help each other and each person has to take care of himself or herself ▪ As soon as there was a crisis, it was every man for himself.

iron man see [2]IRON man of action see ACTION

man of the hour see HOUR

man's best friend — used to refer to a dog or to dogs as a group ▪ She devotes her life to helping man's best friend.

poor man's see POOR

separate the men from the boys see [2]SEPARATE the man US, informal 1 or the Man somewhat old-fashioned : the police ▪ He got in trouble with the Man and ended up in jail. 2 or the Man also The Man : the white people who are seen as having power in the U.S. : the white establishment ▪ He got a job working for the Man. 3 : a man who is admired or respected as a leader or as the best man in a particular field, sport, etc. ▪ The other players on the team all know that he's the man. ▪ You're the man! = (very informal) You the man! = (very informal + humorous) You da man!

the man in the street or Brit the man on the Clapham omnibus : the ordinary and average person ▪ What does the man in the street think about it?

the odd man out see ODD to a man — used to say that all the members in a group of men said, did, or thought the same thing ▪ He worried that some of his friends might object, but, to a man, they supported his decision. [=all of them supported his decision] to the last man : until all the men in a group are killed, defeated, etc. ▪ They vowed to fight to the last man.

[2]man interj, chiefly US, informal — used to express excitement, surprise, etc. ▪ Man, what a game! ▪ Oh man, I can't believe she said that! ▪ Man, how much longer can this hot weather last?

[3]man verb mans; manned; man•ning [+ obj]

1 : to be the person who controls or is in charge of (something) ▪ He stocked shelves while I manned the cash register. ▪ We'll need someone to man the phones this evening. ▪ No one was manning the front desk.

2 : to place people at or on (something) to do work ▪ man the sails/lifeboats — see also MANNED man–about–town /ˌmænəˌbaʊtˈtaʊn/ noun [singular] somewhat old-fashioned : a man who goes to many popular parties, clubs, etc.

man•a•cle /ˈmænɪkəl/ noun, pl -a•cles [count] : either one of a set of two metal rings designed to lock around a person's wrists or ankles — usually plural ▪ The prisoner was led into the courtroom in manacles.

– manacle /ˈmænɪkəl/ verb -cles; -cled; -cling [+ obj] ▪ The prisoner was manacled and led into the courtroom.

man•age /ˈmænɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to have control of (something, such as a business, department, sports team, etc.) ▪ She manages [=runs] her family's bakery. ▪ The business is managed by the owner's daughter. ▪ The company is badly managed. ▪ When she managed the department, we never missed a deadline. b : to take care of and make decisions about (someone's time, money, etc.) ▪ He manages his own finances. ▪ You need to manage [=use] your time more wisely. c : to direct the professional career of (someone, such as an entertainer or athlete) ▪ an agency that manages entertainers — see also STAGE-MANAGE

2 [+ obj] a : to control the movements or actions of (something) ▪ She manages [=handles] her skis well. ▪ He is skillful in managing horses. : to keep (something) under your control ▪ He's not able to manage [=(more commonly) control] his emotions. ▪ This form of diabetes can be managed by diet. [=it can be controlled by eating a certain way] b : to control the behavior of (a child, animal, etc.) ▪ She has difficulty managing [=handling] her young students.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

3 [+ obj] : to use (something) carefully and without waste ▪ There's enough food if we manage it well. ▪ We need to do a better job of managing our natural resources.
4 a [no obj] : to be able to live or to do what is needed by using what you have even though you do not have much — often + on ▪ When he lost his job, we didn't know if we could manage [=get by] on just my salary. — often + with or without ▪ I wonder how they manage with so little income. ▪ We'll have to manage with just one car. ▪ This kind of plant can manage [=survive] with very little water. ▪ They'll have to manage [=get by] without presents this year. [=they'll have to accept that they are not getting presents this year] b : to succeed in doing (something) [+ obj] "We'll need to talk about this again. Can you manage a meeting next week?" ▪ With his ankle broken, he could only manage (taking) a few steps at a time. ▪ She wasn't feeling well, but she still managed a smile for the photographers. ▪ He's too weak to manage the stairs on his own. [=to go up/down the stairs on his own] — often followed by to + verb ▪ She never studies but always manages to pass her tests. ▪ He always manages to win somehow. ▪ Somehow, they've managed to avoid trouble. ▪ We were poor, but we still managed to have enough to eat. ▪ How'd they manage to get away with it? ▪ It was tough, but we managed not to let the secret out. ▪ Only a few passengers managed to survive the crash. ▪ These plants manage to stay alive with very little water. ▪ They couldn't get tickets, but we managed to. [no obj] I don't know how we ever managed without you. ▪ It's hard living alone, but somehow I manage. ▪ "Do you need help with that suitcase?" "No, thanks. I think I can manage."

man•age•able /ˈmænɪʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : easy to control or deal with ▪ We bought smaller, more manageable suitcases. ▪ They divided the students into three manageable groups. ▪ manageable and unmanageable problems ▪ The conditioner makes your hair more manageable.
– man•age•abil•i•ty /ˌmænɪʤəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount]

man•age•ment /ˈmænɪʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 a [noncount] : the act or skill of controlling and making decisions about a business, department, sports team, etc. ▪ She's planning a career in (business) management. ▪ Business improved under the management of new owners. ▪ She's responsible for the day-to-day management [=running] of the hospital. ▪ a smart management decision ▪ We're using new management techniques/practices. b : the people who make decisions about a business, department, sports team, etc. [noncount] To save money, (the) management decided to reduce the size of the staff. ▪ Management and labor could not agree. ▪ He has a job in middle management. ▪ senior/top management ▪ (The) Management is planning to hire more workers. = (Brit) (The) Management are planning to hire more workers. ▪ The restaurant is now under new management. [=is now controlled by different people] [count] The managements of several top corporations met yesterday.
2 [noncount] : the act or process of deciding how to use something ▪ He's extremely cautious when it comes to money management. [=he is careful about the way he uses money] ▪ time management ▪ a new system of water management
3 [noncount] : the act or process of controlling and dealing with something ▪ anger management ▪ crisis management

man•ag•er /ˈmænɪʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : someone who is in charge of a business, department, etc. ▪ I'd like to speak to the manager, please. ▪ He was promoted to manager last year. ▪ a sales/bank/personnel manager ▪ The team's general manager acquired five new players for the upcoming season. — see also STAGE MANAGER
2 : someone who directs the training and performance of a sports team; especially, US : a person who directs a baseball team ▪ The manager decided to change pitchers in the eighth inning.
3 : someone who directs the professional career of an entertainer or athlete ▪ The actress recently fired her manager.
4 : someone who decides how to use something ▪ She's a bad manager of her time/money.

man•ag•er•ess /ˈmænɪʤərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] Brit : a woman who is in charge of a business, shop, etc.

man•a•ge•ri•al /ˌmænəˈʤɪrijəl/ adj
1 : relating to the skill or process of controlling and making decisions about a business or organization ▪ They lack the managerial experience needed for the job. ▪ a change in (their) managerial practices
2 : of or relating to a manager or group of managers ▪ managerial positions ▪ a managerial team

managing director noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : someone who is in charge of a large company or organization managing editor noun, pl ~ -tors [count] : an editor who is in charge of the editorial activities of a newspaper, magazine, etc.

man•a•tee /ˈmænəˌti:/ noun, pl -tees [count] : a large animal that lives in warm waters and eats plants

man•da•rin /ˈmændərən/ noun, pl -rins
1 [count] : a small type of orange — called also mandarin orange
2 [count] : a public official in China in the past
3 Mandarin [noncount] : the official language of China

[1]man•date /ˈmænˌdeɪt/ noun, pl -dates [count] formal
1 : an official order to do something ▪ Royal mandates must be obeyed. ▪ They carried out the governor's mandate to build more roads.
2 : the power to act that voters give to their elected leaders ▪ He won the election so convincingly that he believed he had been given a mandate for change/reform. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He believed he had been given a mandate (from the people) to implement his policies. ▪ There is no mandate to raise taxes.

[2]mandate verb -dates; -dat•ed; -dat•ing [+ obj] chiefly US, formal
1 : to officially demand or require (something) ▪ Ours was the first state to mandate [=order] the change. ▪ The law mandates that every car have seat belts. — often used as (be) mandated ▪ Drug tests have been mandated by the government. ▪ a mandated [=required, mandatory] drug test
2 : to officially give (someone) the power to do something ▪ He won the election so convincingly that he believed the people had mandated him to carry out his policies.

man•da•to•ry /ˈmændəˌtori, Brit ˈmændətri/ adj : required by a law or rule ▪ This meeting is mandatory for all employees. [=all employees must go to this meeting] ▪ The mandatory fine for littering is $200. [=everyone caught littering must pay $200] ▪ a mandatory retirement age [=an age at which workers are required to retire] ▪ a mandatory drug test man•di•ble /ˈmændəbəl/ noun, pl -di•bles [count]

1 : JAWBONE
2 : either the upper or lower part of a bird's beak
3 : a part of an insect's mouth that looks like a jaw and is often used for biting things man•do•lin /ˌmændəˈlɪn/ noun, pl -lins [count] : a small musical instrument that has a long neck, a body that is shaped like a pear, and usually four pairs of strings mane /ˈmeɪn/ noun, pl manes [count]

1 : long, thick hair growing from the neck of a horse or around the neck of a lion — see picture at HORSE
2 informal : long, thick hair on a person's head ▪ an actor with a thick mane of silver hair man–eat•er /ˈmænˌi:tə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : an animal (such as a shark or a tiger) that kills and eats people
2 humorous : an attractive woman who has many lovers – man–eat•ing /ˈmænˌi:tɪŋ/ adj ▪ man-eating tigers ▪ a man-eating shark

[1]ma•neu•ver (US) or Brit ma•noeu•vre /məˈnu:və/ noun, pl -vers
1 : a clever or skillful action or movement [count] With a quick maneuver, she avoided an accident. ▪ acrobats performing dangerous maneuvers ▪ Through a series of legal maneuvers, the defense lawyer kept her client out of jail. [noncount] The strict requirements left us very little room for maneuver. [=opportunity to make changes or to do things differently in order to produce a better result]
2 a [count] : a planned movement of soldiers or ships ▪ He led his troops in a well-planned maneuver. b *maneuvers [plural] : military activities that are done for training ▪ To prepare for war, the army is performing/conducting maneuvers off the coast. ▪ The army is on maneuvers.

[2]maneuver (US) or Brit manoeuvre verb -vers; -vered; -ver•ing
1 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to move (something or someone) in a careful and usually skillful way [+ obj] She maneuvered her car into the tiny garage. ▪ It took seven people to maneuver the tiger out of its cage. ▪ We had a hard time maneuvering our furniture through the doorway. [no obj] The giant ships maneuvered into their docks. ▪ The vehicle easily maneuvered through rocky terrain. ▪ They held

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 50 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

hands while maneuvering through the crowd.
2 : to do something in an effort to get an advantage, get out of a difficult situation, etc. [no obj] The companies are maneuvering for position in the limited market. ▪ The strict requirements left us very little room to maneuver. [=opportunity to make changes or to do things differently in order to produce a better result] [+ obj] Somehow, she always manages to maneuver herself out of difficult situations. ▪ He maneuvered his way into her heart. [=he did things to make her love him] — see also OUTMANEUVER
3 : to move (soldiers, ships, etc.) where they are needed for battle [+ obj] We maneuvered our troops to the south. [no obj] The opposing forces maneuvered quickly.
– maneuvering noun, pl -ings [noncount] It took a lot of legal maneuvering for the defense lawyer to keep her client out of jail. [count] political maneuverings

ma•neu•ver•able (US) or Brit ma•noeu•vra•ble /məˈnu:vərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be moved quickly, easily, or in small spaces ▪ The new ships are faster and more maneuverable. ▪ a highly maneuverable airplane – ma•neu•ver•abil•i•ty (US) or Brit ma•noeu•vra•bil•i•ty /məˌnu:vərəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ They've improved the ship's speed and maneuverability.

man•ful•ly /ˈmænfəli/ adv : in a brave and strong way : in a manly way ▪ He manfully accepted the challenge. ▪ He walked manfully into the courtroom.

man•ga•nese /ˈmæŋgəˌni:z/ noun [noncount] : a grayish-white usually hard metal that breaks easily

mange /ˈmeɪnʤ/ noun [noncount] : a skin disease of animals (such as cats and dogs) and sometimes people that causes itching and loss of hair man•ger /ˈmeɪnʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : an open box in which food for farm animals is placed mange•tout /ˌmɑ:nʒˈtu:/ noun, pl mangetout or mange-touts [count] Brit : SNOW PEA

[1]man•gle /ˈmæŋgəl/ verb man•gles; man•gled; man•gling [+ obj]
1 : to injure or damage (something or someone) severely by cutting, tearing, or crushing ▪ His leg had been mangled by an explosion. ▪ a mangled piece of metal
2 : to do (something) badly : to ruin (something) because of carelessness or a lack of skill ▪ The newspaper mangled the story. [=it did not report the story correctly] ▪ He mangled [=botched] the speech. ▪ They mangled my favorite song!

[2]mangle noun, pl mangles [count] : an old-fashioned machine used to squeeze water out of wet clothes after they have been washed

man•go /ˈmæŋgoʊ/ noun, pl man•goes also man•gos [count] : a juicy tropical fruit that has firm yellow and red skin and a hard seed at its center — see color picture on page C5

man•grove /ˈmænˌgroʊv/ noun, pl -groves [count] : a tropical tree that has roots which grow from its branches and that grows in swamps or shallow salt water ▪ a mangrove swamp

mangy /ˈmeɪnʤi/ adj mang•i•er; -est
1 of an animal : having a skin disease that causes itching and loss of hair : suffering from mange ▪ a mangy dog
2 : having thin or bare spots ▪ She finally threw out that mangy [=shabby] old rug. ▪ a mangy beard man•han•dle /ˈmænˌhændl/ verb -han•dles; -han•dled; -han•dling [+ obj]

1 : to move (something) by using rough force ▪ They manhandled the heavy boxes onto the truck. ▪ She manhandled the posts into place.
2 : to treat (someone) in a rough or physically harmful way ▪ He was manhandling the boy. ▪ He says he was manhandled by the police.

man•hole /ˈmænˌhoʊl/ noun, pl -holes [count] : a covered hole in a street that a person can go down into to do work under the street

man•hood /ˈmænˌhʊd/ noun
1 [noncount] : the qualities (such as strength and courage) that are expected in a man ▪ He took the comment as a challenge to his manhood. ▪ Boxing was a way for him to prove his manhood. [=to prove that he was a strong/brave man]
2 [noncount] : the state or condition of being an adult man and no longer a boy ▪ He grew from boyhood to manhood in a small southern town. ▪ In his early manhood [=when he was a young man] he decided to become a doctor.
3 [noncount] : adult men ▪ the manhood of a nation
4 [singular] literary + humorous : a man's penis ▪ He wore no clothing except a cloth that hid his manhood.

man–hour /ˈmænˈawə/ noun, pl -hours [count] : an hour of work done by one worker ▪ The job will take at least 300 man-hours and cost about $20 per man-hour.

man•hunt /ˈmænˌhʌnt/ noun, pl -hunts [count] : an organized search for a person and especially for a criminal ▪ After several days of searching, the sheriff called off the manhunt. ▪ The FBI launched a manhunt to find the kidnappers.

ma•nia /ˈmeɪnijə/ noun, pl -nias
1 : mental illness in which a person becomes very emotional or excited [noncount] She would typically experience a period of mania and then suddenly become deeply depressed. [count] patients affected by manias
2 : extreme enthusiasm for something that is usually shared by many people [count] — usually singular ▪ The band was part of the early rock-and-roll mania. [=craze] ▪ The city's sports mania is very well-known. — often + for ▪ He had a mania for cleanliness. [noncount] The entire city has been gripped by baseball mania.

ma•ni•ac /ˈmeɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count]
1 : someone who is violent and mentally ill ▪ The movie he rented was about a maniac [=madman, lunatic] who goes on a murderous rampage. ▪ a homicidal maniac
2 informal : a person who behaves in a very wild way ▪ He's a complete maniac when he's playing football. ▪ She drives like a maniac. [=she drives in a very reckless and dangerous way]
3 informal : a person who is extremely enthusiastic about something ▪ His friends are all sports maniacs. [=fanatics] ▪ a movie maniac [=freak] – maniac adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] ▪ maniac killers/fans – ma•ni•a•cal /məˈnajəkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a maniacal killer/fan ▪ She let out a maniacal laugh. ▪ maniacal sports fans – ma•ni•a•cal•ly /məˈnajəkli/ adv ▪ laughing maniacally

man•ic /ˈmænɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having or relating to a mental illness that causes someone to become very excited or emotional ▪ The patient has a manic personality. = The patient is manic. ▪ a manic state/mood
2 : very excited, energetic, or emotional ▪ a manic sense of humor ▪ manic behavior/fans – man•i•cal•ly /ˈmænɪkli/ adv

manic depression noun [noncount] : a mental illness in which a person experiences periods of strong excitement and happiness followed by periods of sadness and depression — called also bipolar disorder, manic-depressive illness man•ic–de•press•ive /ˌmænɪkdɪˈprɛsɪv/ noun, pl -ives [count] : someone who is affected by manic depression ▪ Her brother is a manic-depressive.

– manic–depressive adj ▪ He takes medicine to control his manic-depressive behavior. ▪ a manic-depressive patient man•i•cot•ti /ˌmænəˈkɑ:ti/ noun [noncount] US : a type of pasta in the shape of tubes that are usually filled with meat or cheese and covered with tomato sauce

[1]man•i•cure /ˈmænəˌkjə/ noun, pl -cures [count] : a treatment to improve the appearance and health of the hands and fingernails ▪ She gets a manicure every week or so. — compare PEDICURE

[2]manicure verb -cures; -cured; -cur•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give a beauty treatment to (someone's hands and fingernails) : to give a manicure to (someone's hands and fingernails) ▪ She manicured her nails.
2 : to make (something, such as a lawn or a garden) look neat, smooth, and attractive ▪ She spends her weekends working in her garden and manicuring her lawn.
– manicured adj ▪ manicured hands ▪ carefully manicured gardens ▪ a well-manicured lawn

man•i•cur•ist /ˈmænəˌkjərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who does beauty treatments for the hands and fingernails : a person who gives manicures

[1]man•i•fest /ˈmænəˌfɛst/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : able to be seen : clearly shown or visible ▪ Their sadness was manifest in their faces. ▪ His love for literature is manifest in his large library. ▪ There was manifest confusion in the streets.
2 : easy to understand or recognize ▪ The truth was manifest [=(more commonly) obvious] to everyone but me. ▪ a manifest injustice – man•i•fest•ly adv ▪ The decision was manifestly [=clearly, obviously] unjust.

[2]manifest verb -fests; -fest•ed; -fest•ing [+ obj] formal : to show (something) clearly ▪ Both sides have manifested a

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

stubborn unwillingness to compromise. ▪ Their religious beliefs are manifested in every aspect of their lives. ▪ Love manifests [=reveals] itself in many different ways. [=love appears in many ways] ▪ Her behavior problems began manifesting themselves soon after she left home.

man•i•fes•ta•tion /ˌmænəfəˈsteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] formal
1 : a sign that shows something clearly — usually + of ▪ The first manifestations of her behavior problems occurred soon after she left home. ▪ Her work with the poor was a manifestation [=indication] of her compassionate nature.
2 : one of the forms that something has when it appears or occurs ▪ Hate in all its manifestations [=forms] is wrong.
3 : an occurrence in which the ghost or spirit of a dead person appears ▪ ghostly manifestations manifest destiny or Manifest Destiny noun [noncount] formal : a future event that is sure to happen : a destiny that can be clearly seen and that cannot be changed ▪ They were living in a time when expansion to the Pacific was regarded by many people as the Manifest Destiny of the United States.

man•i•fes•to /ˌmænəˈfɛstoʊ/ noun, pl -tos or -toes [count] : a written statement that describes the policies, goals, and opinions of a person or group ▪ The group's manifesto focused on helping the poor and stopping violence. ▪ a political party's manifesto

[1]man•i•fold /ˈmænəˌfoʊld/ adj, formal : many and various ▪ the country's manifold problems ▪ The benefits of this approach are manifold.

[2]manifold noun, pl -folds [count] technical : a part of an engine that connects different pipes for moving fuel and air into the engine or for carrying gases away from the engine ▪ an intake manifold [=a manifold that brings fuel and air into an engine] ▪ an exhaust manifold — see picture at CAR man•i•kin also man•ni•kin /ˈmænɪkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] : MANNEQUIN

ma•nila /məˈnɪlə/ adj : made of strong, light brown paper ▪ a manila folder ▪ manila envelopes

ma•nip•u•late /məˈnɪpjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to move or control (something) with your hands or by using a machine ▪ manipulate a pencil ▪ The baby is learning to manipulate blocks. ▪ manipulate a computer mouse ▪ The mechanical arms are manipulated by a computer. b medical : to move (muscles and bones) with your hands as a form of treatment ▪ The doctor manipulated my back/spine.
2 : to use or change (numbers, information, etc.) in a skillful way or for a particular purpose ▪ The program was designed to organize and manipulate large amounts of data. ▪ He's always been good at manipulating numbers in his head. ▪ As part of the experiment, students manipulated light and temperature to see how it affected the plants.
3 usually disapproving a : to deal with or control (someone or something) in a clever and usually unfair or selfish way ▪ She knows how to manipulate her parents to get what she wants. ▪ He felt that he had been manipulated by the people he trusted most. ▪ The editorial was a blatant attempt to manipulate public opinion. b : to change (something) in an unfair or selfish way ▪ He's accused of trying to manipulate the price of the stock. ▪ The company manipulated its accounts to exaggerate its profits.
– ma•nip•u•la•tion /məˌnɪpjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] price manipulations [noncount] trying to control the election through blatant manipulation of public opinion ▪ her shameless manipulation of her parents ma•nip•u•la•tive /məˈnɪpjəˌleɪtɪv, məˈnɪpjələtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] usually disapproving : using or controlling other people in a clever and often unfair or selfish way ▪ a clever and manipulative salesman ▪ manipulative behavior ma•nip•u•la•tor /məˈnɪpjəˌleɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] often disapproving : a person who uses or controls other people in a clever and often unfair or selfish way : a manipulative person ▪ He said she was a clever political manipulator.

man•kind /ˈmænˈkaɪnd/ noun [noncount] : all people thought of as one group : HUMANKIND ▪ All of mankind will benefit from this new technology. ▪ We have seen the same pattern throughout the history of mankind. — compare WOMANKIND man•ky /ˈmæŋki/ adj man•ki•er; -est Brit, informal : dirty and unattractive ▪ a manky old dog ▪ manky clothing man•ly /ˈmænli/ adj man•li•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] : having or showing qualities (such as strength or courage) that are expected in a man ▪ He wasn't manly enough to fight. ▪ a manly competitor ▪ He has a deep, manly voice.

– man•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ a test of his manliness [=manhood]

man–made /ˈmænˈmeɪd/ adj : made by people rather than by nature ▪ The government flooded the valley to create a man-made lake. ▪ She preferred wearing cotton to man-made [=synthetic] fabrics. ▪ man-made building materials man•na /ˈmænə/ noun [noncount]

1 : food which according to the Bible was supplied by a miracle to the Israelites after they escaped from Egypt
2 : something needed that is received unexpectedly ▪ Your generous gift was manna from heaven.

manned /ˈmænd/ adj : carrying or done by a person ▪ manned spaceflight ▪ a manned mission to the moon — opposite UNMANNED man•ne•quin /ˈmænɪkən/ noun, pl -quins [count] : a figure shaped like a human body that is used for making or displaying clothes

man•ner /ˈmænə/ noun, pl -ners
1 [singular] somewhat formal : the way that something is done or happens ▪ She has a very forceful manner of speaking. ▪ I objected to the manner in which the decision was made. — often used after in ▪ Continue stirring in this manner until the sauce thickens. ▪ In this manner, we were able to save enough money for a new car. ▪ In what manner was the data collected? [=how was the data collected?] ▪ We worked in a quick manner. [=we worked quickly] ▪ She taught her class in an informal manner. ▪ He always begins his stories in the same manner. ▪ We were allowed to spend the money in any manner we wanted.
2 a [count] : the way that a person normally behaves especially while with other people — usually singular ▪ He had a gentle manner (about him). ▪ He listened patiently to his children, as was his manner. ▪ It was her energetic and friendly manner that got her the job. — see also BEDSIDE MANNER b *manners [plural] : behavior while with other people ▪ His children have excellent manners. [=his children behave very well] ▪ It's bad manners [=it is impolite] to talk with your mouth full. c *manners [plural] : knowledge of how to behave politely while with other people ▪ Some people have no manners. ▪ Someone should teach you some manners! ▪ He forgot his manners and reached across the table for the salt. ✧ To remember/mind your manners is to behave in a polite and proper way. ▪ "Mind your manners," Mom said sternly, "and thank your uncle for the nice gifts." — see also TABLE MANNERS
3 [singular] : an artistic style or method ▪ He painted this picture in his early manner. — often used in the phrase in/after the manner of ▪ She wrote after the manner of [=in the style of] her favorite poet. ▪ This church was built in the manner of the English Gothic style.
all manner of : all kinds or sorts of (things or people) ▪ The store sells all manner of musical instruments. ▪ All manner of people come to the city.
in a manner of speaking — used to say that a statement is true or accurate in a certain way even if it is not literally or completely true ▪ His retirement was, in a manner of speaking, the beginning of his real career. ▪ After the storm destroyed their house, they were, in a manner of speaking [=so to speak, as it were], lost at sea. [=they felt lost and confused after their house was destroyed]
not by any manner of means see MEANS to the manner born : suited to a particular position, role, or status in a way that seems very natural ▪ He had never been on a boat before, but he walked along the deck as if to the manner born.
what manner of old-fashioned + literary : what kind or sort of ▪ What manner of person could have committed such a crime? ▪ What manner of woman is she to have done something like that?

man•nered /ˈmænəd/ adj
1 : behaving in a certain way — used in combination ▪ He was a mild-mannered [=gentle] man who rarely became angry. ▪ well-mannered [=well-behaved] children
2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : formal in a way that is intended to impress other people ▪ He had a very mannered [=unnatural] way of speaking.

man•ner•ism /ˈmænəˌrɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] : a person's particular way of talking or moving ▪ The actor can mimic the President's mannerisms perfectly.

man•ner•ly /ˈmænəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : behaving politely while with other people : showing good

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 21 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

manners ▪ When he was a child, he was quiet and mannerly. ▪ a mannerly young man man•nish /ˈmænɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : suitable for or typical of a man rather than a woman : not feminine ▪ She was wearing a hat and mannish clothing. ▪ She had a deep and rather mannish voice.

– man•nish•ly adv – man•nish•ness noun [noncount]

ma•no a ma•no /ˌmɑːnoʊəˈmɑːnoʊ/ adv — used to describe a situation in which two people directly compete, fight, or argue with each other ▪ They fought mano a mano. ▪ Tomorrow night the candidates (will) go mano a mano [=compete against each other] in the first of two debates. ✧ Mano a mano comes from a Spanish phrase that means "hand to hand."

manoeuvre, manoeuvrable Brit spellings of MANEUVER, MANEUVERABLE man of God noun, pl men of God [count] formal : a man who is a priest or minister man of letters noun, pl men of letters [count] : a man who writes or who knows a lot about novels, poems, etc. : a literary man man of straw noun, pl men of straw [count] chiefly Brit : STRAW MAN man of the cloth noun, pl men of the cloth [count] formal + old-fashioned : a man who is a priest or minister man of the house noun

the man of the house : the male family member who has the most responsibility for taking care of and making decisions about the household ▪ When his father died, John became the man of the house even though he was only 18.

man of the people noun
a man of the people : a man (such as a politician) who understands and is liked by ordinary people

man of the world noun, pl men of the world [count] : a man who has had many experiences and who is not shocked by things that may be shocking to other people man–of–war /ˌmænəvˈwoə/ noun, pl men–of–war /ˌmɛnəvˈwoə/ [count] : a ship that has many weapons and is used for war

man•or /ˈmænə/ noun, pl -ors [count]
1 : a large country house on a large piece of land
2 Brit, informal : the area or section of a city that a particular group of police officers are responsible for to the manor born : born into a wealthy family that has a high social status – ma•no•ri•al /məˈnorijəl/ adj ▪ manorial landowners/estates man•pow•er /ˈmænˌpawə/ noun [noncount] : the number of people who are available to work ▪ Currently we are experiencing a shortage of manpower. ▪ military manpower

man•qué /mɑnˈkeɪ, Brit ˈmɒŋkeɪ/ adj, always used after a noun, formal — used to describe what a person could or should have been but never was ▪ He works as a cook but thinks of himself as a poet manqué. ▪ an artist manqué

manse /ˈmæns/ noun, pl mans•es [count]
1 : the house of a minister
2 : a large and impressive house : MANSION man•ser•vant /ˈmænˌsəvənt/ noun, pl menservants [count] old-fashioned : a male servant ▪ menservants and maidservants man•sion /ˈmænʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count] : a large and impressive house : the large house of a wealthy person ▪ a mansion with 10 bedrooms and an indoor swimming pool man–sized /ˈmænˌsaɪzd/ also man–size /ˈmænˌsaɪz/ adj : large and suitable for or typical of a man ▪ a man-sized sandwich ▪ his man-sized appetite ▪ a man-size effort ▪ This is a man-sized job.

man•slaugh•ter /ˈmænˌslɑːtə/ noun [noncount] law : the crime of killing a person without intending to do so ▪ She was convicted of manslaughter for driving while drunk and killing three people.

man's man noun [singular] : a man who is liked and admired by other men — compare LADIES' MAN man•tel /ˈmæntl/ noun, pl -tels [count] chiefly US : the shelf above a fireplace — see picture at LIVING ROOM

man•tel•piece /ˈmæntlˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count]
1 : the shelf above a fireplace and the decorative pieces on the sides of the fireplace
2 : MANTEL

man•tis /ˈmæntəs/ noun, pl man•tis•es or man•tes /ˈmænˌtiːz/ [count] : PRAYING MANTIS

[1]man•tle /ˈmæntl/ noun, pl man•tles [count]
1 : a loose piece of clothing without sleeves that was worn over other clothes especially in the past : CLOAK
2 literary : something that covers or surrounds something else — + of ▪ The ground was covered/cloaked in a mantle of leaves. ▪ mountains blanketed/wrapped in a mantle of snow ▪ A mantle of secrecy surrounded the family's past. [=the family's past was kept secret]
3 formal : the position of someone who has responsibility or authority ▪ He took on the mantle of director. [=he took on the job of being the director] ▪ She accepted/assumed the mantle of leadership.
4 technical : the middle layer of the Earth that is between the top crust and the inner core

[2]mantle verb mantles; man•tled; man•tling [+ obj] formal + literary : to cover or surround (something) — usually used as (be) mantled ▪ The mountains were mantled with/in snow.

man–to–man /ˈmæntəˈmæn/ adj
1 always used before a noun : happening between two men — used to describe speech between men that is honest, open, and informal ▪ We need to have a man-to-man talk. ▪ a man-to-man discussion
2 chiefly US, sports : of or relating to a way of playing defense in football, basketball, etc., in which each player on the defense is supposed to stop a particular player on the offense ▪ They were playing a man-to-man defense. ▪ man-to-man coverage – man–to–man adv ▪ talking man-to-man ▪ The defense was playing man-to-man.

man•tra /ˈmɑːntrə, Brit ˈmæntrə/ noun, pl -tras [count]
1 : a sound, word, or phrase that is repeated by someone who is praying or meditating
2 : a word or phrase that is repeated often or that expresses someone's basic beliefs ▪ a businessman whose mantra is "bigger is better"

[1]man•u•al /ˈmænjəwəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : doing or involving hard physical work ▪ low-paid manual workers/laborers ▪ She spent the summer doing manual labor on her uncle's farm.
2 : of or relating to using the hands ▪ He has quite a bit of manual dexterity. [=skill and ease in using his hands] ▪ manual skill
3 : operated or controlled with the hands or by a person ▪ I can't drive her car because it has a manual transmission instead of an automatic transmission. [=it has a system for changing gears that has to be operated by the driver] : operated only with the hands and without electric power ▪ He has a collection of old-fashioned manual typewriters.
– man•u•al•ly adv ▪ manually operated machinery

[2]manual noun, pl -als [count]
1 : a small book that gives useful information about something : HANDBOOK ▪ Here's the owner's manual of your new car. ▪ The computer program comes with a user's manual. ▪ We lost the instruction manual and couldn't put our bikes together. ▪ Please refer to the training/employee manual if you have any questions about your job.
2 : a vehicle that has a system for changing gears that has to be operated by the driver : a car with a manual transmission ▪ Is your car a manual or an automatic?

[1]man•u•fac•ture /ˌmænjəˈfæktʃə/ verb -tures; -tured; -tur•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something) usually in large amounts by using machines ▪ materials used in manufacturing cars/computers ▪ a company that manufactures wool and cotton clothing
2 : to create (something, such as a false story or explanation) by using your imagination often in order to trick or deceive someone ▪ He manufactured [=fabricated, invented] a story/lie/falsehood in order to get out of trouble.

[2]manufacture noun [noncount] : the process of making products especially with machines in factories ▪ materials used in the manufacture of cars/computers ▪ We're developing new methods of paper manufacture.

man•u•fac•tur•er /ˌmænjəˈfæktʃərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a company that makes a product ▪ Follow the instructions recommended by the manufacturer. ▪ They are one of the country's leading manufacturers of children's clothing. ▪ car manufacturers man•u•fac•tur•ing /ˌmænjəˈfæktʃərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the industry or business of making products especially with machines in factories ▪ Manufacturing is central to the economy of the country. ▪ They've created new jobs in manufacturing.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 22 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

ma•nure /məˈnuɚ, Brit məˈnjʊə/ noun, pl -nures : solid waste from farm animals that is used to make soil better for growing plants [noncount] a bag of cow manure [count] fertilizers made from animal manures

man•u•script /ˈmænjəˌskrɪpt/ noun, pl -scripts : the original copy of a play, book, piece of music, etc., before it has been printed [count] The library owns the author's original manuscript. ▪ a copy of the composer's manuscript [noncount] She read the book in manuscript. [=she read the manuscript of the book]

[1]many /ˈmɛni/ adj — used to refer to a large number of things or people ▪ She worked hard for many years. ▪ They were one of the many, many families that came to watch the parade. ▪ Gardening is one of her very many interests. ▪ They talked about the many benefits of learning English. ▪ You can never have too many friends. ▪ Some people will come, but many more people will not. ▪ A great/good many people [=very many people] did not survive. — often used in negative statements ▪ We don't have many choices. [=we have few choices] ▪ There weren't many people at the party.

as many — used to talk about or compare amounts ▪ She read as many books as she could. [=she read the largest number of books possible] ▪ She read three times as many books as he did. [=she read three times more books than he did] ▪ We saw three plays in as many days. [=we saw three plays in three days] ▪ She wrote five books in as many years.

how many — used to ask or talk about an amount ▪ How many people were there? ▪ I was surprised by how many people were there. ▪ How many times [=how often] do I have to tell you to lock the door?

[2]many pronoun : a large number of people or things ▪ Some people will come, but many [=many people] will not. ▪ The medicine has helped many with the disease. ▪ Many of his friends never went to college. ▪ I know some of the people here, but not (very) many of them. ▪ Far/All too many have died in this war. ▪ A lot of people have tried to climb the mountain, but a great/good many of them have failed. ▪ I wanted a dozen, but they didn't have that many. = They didn't have as many as that. [=they had fewer than a dozen]

as many as — used to suggest that a number or amount is surprisingly large ▪ She read as many as 60 books! ▪ As many as 60 students competed for the prize. ▪ They lost by as many as 20 points.

many a/an formal + literary — used with a singular noun to refer to a large number of things or people ▪ It remained a mystery for many a year. [=for many years] ▪ I've been there many a time. [=many times] ▪ Many a tale was told. [=many tales were told] ▪ Many an answer [=many answers] can be found in this book. ▪ Many a man has tried [=many men have tried] but few men have succeeded.

many's the formal + literary — used to say that something is common or has happened often ▪ Many's the day we have spent together. [=we have spent many days together] ▪ Many's the time I've been there. [=I've been there many times]

the many : the great majority of people ▪ policies that help the privileged few at the expense of the many

Mao•ri /ˈmaʊri/ noun, pl -ris
1 [count] : a member of the original people living in New Zealand
2 [noncount] : the language of the Maori people
– Maori adj ▪ Maori culture

[1]map /ˈmæp/ noun, pl maps [count]
1 : a picture or chart that shows the rivers, mountains, streets, etc., in a particular area ▪ a map of the country ▪ different maps of the world ▪ a road/street map [=a map showing the roads/streets of an area] ▪ "Can you find where we are on the map?" "Sorry: I'm no good at reading maps." ▪ "How do I get to the station?" "Here, let me draw you a map." — see also RELIEF MAP
2 : a picture or chart that shows the different parts of something ▪ a map of the brain

all over the map US, informal : not staying the same : characterized by frequent and extreme changes ▪ Prices have been all over the map.

put (something or someone) on the map : to make (a place, a person, etc.) famous or well-known ▪ The story has put our little town on the map. ▪ The success of his first album really put him on the map in the music industry.

[2]map verb maps; mapped; map•ping [+ obj]
1 : to make a map of (something) ▪ He mapped the stars. ▪ The coastline was mapped by early explorers.
2 US : to plan the details of (something) ▪ We mapped [=mapped out] a plan of action.

map onto [phrasal verb] map (something) onto (something) technical : to find or show the connections between two things or groups of things ▪ map brain functions onto brain structures map out [phrasal verb] map (something) out or map out (something) : to plan the details of (something, such as a program or your future) ▪ We mapped out a plan of action. ▪ They mapped her campaign for governor all out. ▪ She has her future all mapped out.

ma•ple /ˈmeɪpəl/ noun, pl ma•ples
1 [count] : a type of tree that grows in northern parts of the world and has hard wood often used in making furniture ▪ The maple leaf is an emblem of Canada. — called also maple tree
2 [noncount] : the wood of a maple tree ▪ a table made of maple

maple sugar noun [noncount] : a brown sugar made from the sap of maple trees maple syrup noun [noncount] : a sweet, thick liquid made from the sap of maple trees ▪ pancakes served with butter and maple syrup

mar /ˈmaɚ/ verb mars; marred; mar•ring [+ obj] : to ruin the beauty or perfection of (something) : to hurt or damage the good condition of (something) ▪ A large scar marred his face. ▪ Her acting mars an otherwise great movie. — often used as (be) marred ▪ The report is marred by numerous errors. ▪ a car marred by scratches

Mar. abbr March

ma•ra•ca /məˈrɑːkə, Brit məˈrækə/ noun, pl -cas [count] : a musical instrument with a handle and a round hollow top that is filled with beads, beans, etc., and is shaken to make noise — usually plural ▪ play the maracas

mar•a•schi•no /ˌmerəˈskiːnoʊ, merəˈʃiːnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos
1 [count] : a kind of sweet cherry that is used in desserts or alcoholic drinks — called also maraschino cherry
2 [count, noncount] : a sweet alcoholic drink made from cherry juice

[1]mar•a•thon /ˈmerəˌθɑːn/ noun, pl -thons [count]
1 : a running race that is about 26 miles (42 kilometers) long ▪ He ran (in) a marathon.
2 a : something (such as an event or activity) that lasts an extremely long time or that requires great effort ▪ We watched a marathon of our favorite movies. ▪ a movie marathon ▪ a shopping marathon b : a contest in which people compete with each other to see who can do something for the longest amount of time ▪ a dance marathon

[2]marathon adj, always used before a noun : lasting an unusually long time ▪ Their marathon meeting lasted two full days. ▪ a marathon negotiating session

mar•a•thon•er /ˈmerəˌθɑːnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a runner who competes in a marathon ma•raud•ing /məˈrɑːdɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : traveling from place to place to attack others ▪ Marauding soldiers wandered from town to town. ▪ a marauding band/gang of thieves ▪ marauding lions – ma•raud•er /məˈrɑːdɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a band/gang of marauders

mar•ble /ˈmɑəbəl/ noun, pl mar•bles
1 [noncount] : a kind of stone that is often polished and used in buildings and statues ▪ The statue is made of marble. ▪ a block of marble — often used before another noun ▪ the museum's polished marble floor/staircase ▪ a marble countertop
2 a [count] : a little glass ball used in some children's games ▪ I love to play with marbles. b marbles [noncount] : a children's game played with little glass balls ▪ Let's play marbles. = Let's play a game of marbles.

lose your marbles informal + humorous : to become insane ▪ When he started ranting about how the government was out to get him, I thought he'd lost his marbles. [=gone crazy] ▪ He hasn't completely lost his marbles yet.

mar•bled /ˈmɑəbəld/ adj
1 : made from or decorated with marble ▪ The mansion has beautiful marbled columns. ▪ a marbled hall
2 : having markings or colors similar to marble ▪ marbled paper
3 of meat : having lines of fat mixed throughout ▪ marbled beef ▪ The meat was marbled with fat.

[1]march /ˈmɑəʧ/ verb march•es; marched; march•ing
1 [no obj] a : to walk with regular steps as a group : to walk

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

in the regular and organized way of soldiers ▪ The band marched onto the field. ▪ The soldiers were lined up and ordered to begin marching. ▪ Hundreds of people marched in the parade. b always followed by an adverb or preposition : to go into, out of, or through a place as an army ▪ The army marched south to cut off the enemy's retreat. ▪ Enemy troops were marching on the city. [=they were coming toward the city to attack it]

2 [no obj] : to walk with a large group of people who are protesting or supporting something ▪ We marched for/against new elections. ▪ Demonstrators marched on City Hall to protest the war.

3 [no obj] : to walk somewhere quickly in a direct and forceful way ▪ He marched angrily out the door. ▪ I marched into the office and demanded an answer. ▪ She marched right up to me and asked what was wrong.

4 [+ obj] : to cause or force (a person) to walk somewhere ▪ They marched the prisoners through the streets of the city. ▪ We marched the children off to bed. [=we made the children go to bed] — see also FROG-MARCH march on [phrasal verb] : to go or continue onward ▪ Time marches on. ▪ Governments come and go, but civilization marches on.

– march•er /ˈmɑəʧɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ There were hundreds of marchers in the parade. ▪ protest marchers

²march noun, pl marches

1 [count] a : an act of walking together as an organized group : an act of marching ▪ The soldiers were ordered to begin their march.; especially : an organized walk by a large group of people to support or protest something ▪ a protest march ▪ They led a march in support of affirmative action. b : the distance covered by marching for a specified period of time ▪ The nearest town was a day's march away.

2 [singular] somewhat formal : forward movement or progress ▪ the march of time/civilization ▪ Time continues its march onward/forward.

3 [count] : a piece of music with a strong regular beat that is written to be played while people are marching ▪ They played the general's favorite march.

on the march 1 : marching toward a place ▪ Thousands of troops were on the march. 2 : going forward ▪ Time is on the march.

steal a march on chiefly Brit : to get ahead of or win an advantage over (someone) in an unexpected and clever way ▪ He stole a march on his competitors by being the first to put the product on the market.

March /ˈmɑəʧ/ noun, pl March•es : the third month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) March ▪ early/late in March ▪ We arrived on March the fourth. = (US) We arrived on March fourth. = We arrived on the fourth of March. [count] Sales are up (for) this March. ▪ It happens every March. ✧ The saying March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb means that the month of March begins with bad weather and ends with good weather. — abbr. Mar.

marching band noun, pl ~ bands [count] : a group of musicians who play instruments while marching together at a parade or sports event marching orders noun [plural]

1 US : orders that tell you what to do ▪ The boss called a meeting and gave the new employees their marching orders.

2 Brit — used to say that someone has been ordered to leave a place, job, etc. ▪ I was given my marching orders. = I got/received my marching orders. [=I was fired from my job]

Mar•di Gras /ˈmɑədiˌgrɑ:/ noun : the Tuesday before the beginning of Lent that is often celebrated with parades and parties [noncount] We're going to New Orleans for Mardi Gras. [singular] It was a Mardi Gras to remember!

mare /ˈmeɚ/ noun, pl mares [count] : an adult female horse

mar•ga•rine /ˈmɑəʤɚən, Brit ˌmɑ:ʤəˈri:n/ noun, pl -rines [count, noncount] : a food that resembles butter and is made from vegetable oils ▪ a stick of margarine

mar•ga•ri•ta /ˌmɑəgəˈri:tə/ noun, pl -tas [count] : an alcoholic drink made of tequila, lime or lemon juice, and an orange-flavored liquor

marge /ˈmɑəʤ/ noun [noncount] Brit, informal : MARGARINE

mar•gin /ˈmɑəʤən/ noun, pl -gins [count]

1 : the part of a page that is above, below, or to the side of the printed part ▪ Please write your name in the left/left-hand margin of the page. ▪ a book with wide/narrow margins

2 : the place where something (such as a piece of land) stops : the edge of something ▪ We'll meet at the margin [=(more commonly) edge] of the forest. ▪ Mountains lie at the city's northern/southern margins. — often used figuratively in the phrase on the margins or (US) on the margin ▪ We are trying to improve medical care for poor families living on the margins of society. [=poor families who are often forgotten or ignored by society] ▪ The business has been operating on the margins of respectability. [=has been operating in a way that is not truly respectable]

3 : an extra amount of something (such as time or space) that can be used if it is needed ▪ a safety margin ✧ If you have little or no margin for/of error, it means that you need to be very careful not to make mistakes. If you have a greater margin for/of error, you can be less careful. ▪ We want the design to offer users a generous margin for error. ▪ The schedule allows us very little margin for error.

4 : a measurement of difference ▪ The bullet missed his heart by a narrow/slim margin. [=the bullet narrowly missed his heart] ▪ We lost the election by a one-vote margin. [=we lost the election by one vote] ▪ She won by a margin of 3,000 votes. ▪ He was the winner by a large/considerable margin. ✧ A margin of error is a number or percentage that shows how accurate a measurement is. ▪ The poll indicates that the President is supported by 54 percent of the voters, with a margin of error of 3 percent. [=it is possible that as few as 51 percent or as many as 57 percent of the voters support the President] — see also PROFIT MARGIN

¹mar•gin•al /ˈmɑəʤənl/ adj

1 a : not very important ▪ a marginal problem b : very slight or small ▪ There has been only a marginal improvement in her condition.

2 : not included in the main part of society or of a group ▪ marginal voters

3 chiefly US : not very good ▪ His reading and writing abilities are marginal. ▪ She's a marginal athlete. ▪ marginal living conditions

4 always used before a noun : written or printed in the margin of a page ▪ marginal notes

5 Brit : able to be won or lost by changing only a few votes ▪ At the next election the opposition parties will try to capture some marginal seats [=marginals] from the government.

6 of land : just able to produce enough crops to pay for the cost of producing those crops ▪ farmers who must eke out a living on marginal land(s)

²marginal noun, pl -als [count] Brit : a political seat, position, etc., that is won or lost by only a few votes ▪ How many marginals changed hands at the last election?

mar•gin•al•ize also Brit mar•gin•al•ise /ˈmɑəʤənəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to put or keep (someone) in a powerless or unimportant position within a society or group ▪ We are protesting policies that marginalize women. [=that do not allow women to have important or powerful positions in a society] ▪ The program helps people from marginalized groups/populations.

– mar•gin•al•i•za•tion also Brit mar•gin•al•i•sa•tion /ˌmɑəʤənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɑ:ʤənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mar•gin•al•ly /ˈmɑəʤənəli/ adv

1 : to a small extent or degree : SLIGHTLY ▪ This book is marginally more interesting than the others. ▪ Her plan was only marginally successful.

2 US : almost not : BARELY ▪ He is only marginally qualified for the job.

ma•ri•a•chi /ˌmɑriˈɑ:ʧi, ˌmeriˈɑ:ʧi/ noun [noncount] US : a type of lively Mexican street music played by a band of trumpets and guitars — usually used before another noun ▪ a mariachi band/musician mari•gold /ˈmerəˌgoʊld/ noun, pl -golds [count] : a plant that is grown for its bright yellow or orange flowers mar•i•jua•na /ˌmerəˈwɑ:nə/ noun [noncount] : the dried leaves and flowers of the hemp plant that are smoked as a drug ma•rim•ba /məˈrɪmbə/ noun, pl -bas [count] : a wooden musical instrument that is similar to a xylophone ma•ri•na /məˈri:nə/ noun, pl -nas [count] : an area of water where privately owned boats (such as yachts) are kept

¹mar•i•nade /ˌmerəˈneɪd/ noun, pl -nades : a sauce in which meat or fish is soaked to add flavor or to make the meat or fish more tender [noncount] a bottle of marinade [count] a variety of spicy marinades

²marinade verb -nades; -nad•ed; -nad•ing [+ obj] : MARINATE

mar•i•nate /ˈmerəˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

: to put meat or fish in a sauce for a period of time to add flavor or to make the meat or fish more tender : to soak in a marinade [+ obj] The recipe says that you should marinate the chicken overnight. [no obj] The chicken should be allowed to marinate overnight.

[1]ma•rine /məˈriːn/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : of or relating to the sea or the plants and animals that live in the sea ▪ marine life ▪ marine animals such as dolphins and whales ▪ a marine environment ▪ marine biologists [=scientists who study life in the sea]

2 : of or relating to sailing on the sea or doing business (such as trading) by sea ▪ a marine [=nautical] chart ▪ marine [=(more commonly) maritime] law

[2]marine or Marine noun, pl -rines [count] : a member of the U.S. Marine Corps or the British Royal Marines ▪ He is a former U.S. Marine. ▪ The marines have landed. ▪ the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines ▪ marine barracks the Marines : the part of a country's military forces that includes soldiers who serve on a ship or are closely associated with a naval force : the U.S. Marine Corps or the British Royal Marines ▪ an officer in the Marines

Marine Corps noun

the Marine Corps : the part of the U.S. military that consists of soldiers who serve at sea and also on land mar•i•ner /ˈmerənə/ noun, pl -ners [count] old-fashioned + literary : SAILOR

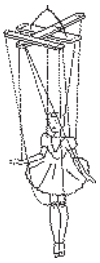
mar•i•o•nette /ˌmerijəˈnɛt/ noun, pl -nettes [count] : a puppet that is moved by pulling strings or wires that are attached to its body



marionette

mar•i•tal /ˈmerətl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to marriage ▪ They've been having marital problems/difficulties. ▪ marital vows ▪ They've enjoyed many years of marital bliss. [=happiness in marriage] marital status noun [noncount] : the state of being married or not married — used on official forms to ask if a person is married, single, divorced, or widowed ▪ Please enter your marital status. ▪ What is your marital status?

mar•i•time /ˈmerəˌtaɪm/ adj

1 : of or relating to sailing on the sea or doing business (such as trading) by sea ▪ The country's maritime industry is an important part of its economy. ▪ She's an expert in maritime law. ▪ a maritime museum

2 : located near or next to the sea ▪ maritime nations/provinces ▪ the country's maritime region

mar•jo•ram /ˈmɑəʤərəm/ noun [noncount] : an herb that has a pleasant smell and is often used in cooking

[1]mark /ˈmɑək/ noun, pl marks

1 [count] a : a small area on the surface of something that is dirty, damaged, etc. ▪ a burn/scratch mark ▪ The glass left a water mark on the wooden table. — see also BLACK MARK b : an area of something (such as an animal's fur or skin) that is a different color from the area around it ▪ The cat has white fur with some black marks on its head and tail. — see also BIRTHMARK, STRAWBERRY MARK, STRETCH MARKS

2 [count] a : a written or printed shape or symbol ▪ proofreading marks — see also PUNCTUATION MARK b : a symbol or shape on something that identifies it, shows its quality, etc. ▪ The goldsmith's mark is stamped on the back. — see also LANDMARK, POSTMARK, TRADEMARK c : a cross made in place of a signature by someone who cannot read and write ▪ We read him the document and he made his mark on it.

3 [count] : something that shows how someone feels about something : a sign or indication of something ▪ He gave her the necklace as a mark of his esteem. ▪ They left flowers on the grave as a mark of respect. ▪ Those extra responsibilities he's giving you are a mark of confidence. [=they show that he has confidence in you]

4 [count] : a quality or trait that is typical of a particular type of person or thing — + of ▪ Courtesy is the mark [=hallmark, sign] of a true gentleman. ▪ A willingness to ask tough questions is the mark of a good journalist. ▪ He thinks that indecisiveness is a mark of weakness. [=indecisiveness shows weakness]

5 [count] : a number or letter that indicates how a student has performed in a class or on a test : GRADE ▪ I got a good/high/low mark in/for English. ▪ I got a good/high/low mark on the spelling test. ▪ She barely earned passing marks in her first year of college. ▪ failing marks — often used figuratively ▪ I'll give them high/top marks for honesty. [=they are very honest; I give them a lot of praise and credit for being honest] — see also FULL MARKS

6 [singular] : a specified point or level ▪ We're at the halfway mark in the first period of play. ▪ The population has topped the 1,000,000 mark. — see also HIGH-WATER MARK

7 [count] : something that is aimed at or shot at : TARGET ▪ The arrow hit/missed/overshot the mark. ▪ The bullet found its mark. [=hit the target that was aimed for] — often used figuratively ▪ Our fund-raising fell/was short of the mark. [=we did not raise as much money as we needed]

8 [count] US : a person who is tricked into losing money or property ▪ They proved to be easy marks for the swindler.

9 [count] : the line or place where a race starts ▪ The runners were told to take their marks. [=to get into position for the start of the race] ▪ On your mark, get set, go!

close to the mark or near the mark : fairly accurate : almost correct ▪ Their estimate was pretty close to the mark.

leave/make a/your mark : to do something that causes you to be remembered : to create a lasting or strong impression ▪ He worked at several jobs, but he didn't make much of a mark in any of them. ▪ From the moment we saw her in action, we knew she would make her mark as a teacher. ▪ Her kindness left its mark on her students.

miss its/the mark : to fail or be wrong ▪ Their estimates completely missed the mark. [=were not accurate] ▪ The ad campaign was supposed to appeal to young people but it missed the mark. — see also [1]MARK 7 (above)

off the mark or wide of the mark : not accurate or correct : not achieving the desired result ▪ The results of the fund-raising were wide of the mark. ▪ His efforts to console her were off the mark. [=his efforts to console her did not help]

quick/slow off the mark : quick or slow to act or to understand something ▪ As soon as the opportunity arose, he was quick off the mark in exploiting it. ▪ I was slow off the mark [=I did not act quickly] and missed my chance.

up to the mark : up to the usual standard of performance, quality, etc. : as good as usual — usually used in negative statements ▪ I haven't been feeling up to the mark lately. ▪ His work hasn't been up to the mark.

– compare [3]MARK

[2]mark verb marks; marked; mark•ing

1 : to make or leave a visible mark on (something) [+ obj] Any little bit of dirt will mark that fabric. ▪ Be careful not to mark the floor with your shoes. [no obj] a fabric that marks easily [=that easily becomes dirty or stained]

2 [+ obj] a : to write or make (a mark) ▪ mark an accent on/over a letter ▪ She marked an "X" on each box. b : to write a note about (something) ▪ I have marked the event on my calendar. ▪ Mark [=jot] down these names. c : to write or make a mark on (something) ▪ She marked each box with an "X." ▪ Mark that page.; also : to write on (something) in order to indicate what it is ▪ The officials marked the document "Top Secret." = The officials marked the document as top secret. d : to write or put a mark around or near (something) so that it will be easily seen or noticed ▪ I've marked several items on the first page. [=I've put marks next to several items on the first page]

3 [+ obj] a : to indicate (a location, such as a location on a map) with a mark or symbol ▪ X marks the spot where the suspect was last seen. ▪ I have marked (out) the best route on the map. b : to put something on or near (a particular place) in order to find it later ▪ Use a bookmark to mark your place. ▪ We put some tape on the floor to mark where the tables should go. c of an animal : to leave urine, feces, body oils, etc., in (a place) as a signal to other animals ▪ The dog marked the base of the tree by urinating. ▪ a tiger marking its territory

4 [+ obj] : to be a typical feature or quality of (someone or something) : CHARACTERIZE ▪ the flamboyance that marks her style — often used as (be) marked ▪ His artwork is marked by unusual uses of color. [=color is used in unusual ways in his artwork] ▪ The adjective "paranoid" can be defined as "marked by paranoia."

5 [+ obj] : to have a permanent and usually bad effect on (someone or something) ▪ Her time in prison marked her for life.

6 : to give a mark to (a student or a student's work) : GRADE [+ obj] Students will be marked on their reading ability. ▪ She spent the evening marking the students' exams/papers. [no obj] She generally marks high/low. [=she generally gives high/low marks] — see also MARK DOWN (below)

7 [+ obj] a : to be or occur at (a particular time) ▪ This year

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 23 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

marks her 10th year with the company. [=this is her 10th year with the company] b : to indicate the occurrence of (an important event or time) ▪ Her death marked the end of an era. [=an era ended when she died] c : to celebrate (an important event or time) by doing something ▪ We'll have a big party to mark our 50th anniversary.

8 [+ obj] : to show that (someone or something) is special or different in some way ▪ Her very first book marked her as a great poet. [=showed that she was a great poet] ▪ She was evidently marked [=destined] for greatness. — see also MARK OUT (below)

mark down [phrasal verb] 1 *mark down or mark (someone or something) down or mark down (someone or something) : to give a lower mark to (someone or something) ▪ mark a student down for not acknowledging his sources ▪ Your paper was well-written, but I had to mark it down [=give it a lower grade] for being late. ▪ Some teachers mark down for poor penmanship. 2 *mark (something) down or mark down (something) : to give (something) a lower price ▪ a product marked down from $15 to $13.75 ▪ Everything has been marked down for the sale. — see also MARKDOWN mark my words — used to tell someone to listen to and remember what you are saying ▪ Mark my words: nothing good will come of this!

mark off [phrasal verb] mark (something) off or mark off (something) : to make (an area) separate with a line, fence, etc. ▪ We marked off an area where people could wait.

mark out [phrasal verb] 1 *mark (something) out or mark out (something) : to draw lines around (something) so that it can be clearly seen ▪ He marked out his mining claim. 2 *mark (something) out or mark out (something) : to plan the details of (a course of action) ▪ She talked about the course the European Union has marked out [=mapped out] for itself. 3 *mark (someone or something) out or mark out (someone or something) chiefly Brit : to show that (someone or something) is special or different in some way ▪ Her very first book marked her out as a great poet. [=showed that she was a great poet] ▪ She was marked out [=destined, marked] for greatness.

mark time 1 : to move your feet up and down like someone who is marching but without moving forward ▪ The soldiers marked time until ordered to advance. 2 : to live without doing much while you wait for something to happen ▪ I'm just marking time until I retire.

mark up [phrasal verb] 1 *mark (something) up or mark up (something) : to make marks and write comments in or on (something) ▪ mark up a manuscript 2 *mark (something) up or mark up (something) : to give (something) a higher price ▪ a product marked up from $15 to $15.99 ▪ a product marked up by 10 percent — see also MARKUP

mark you Brit, old-fashioned — used in speech to give stress to a statement that you are making so that a preceding or following statement will not be misunderstood ▪ I don't always agree with him. Mark you, [=mind you] I'm not criticizing him!

– see also MARKED

[3]mark noun, pl marks [count] : DEUTSCHE MARK — compare [1]MARK

mark•down /ˈmɑəkˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs [count] : a reduction in price ▪ a markdown of 10 percent = a 10 percent markdown — see also mark down at [2]MARK marked /ˈmɑəkt/ adj

1 : having a mark or a particular kind of mark ▪ a marked card [=a playing card that has a secret mark on its back so that someone can see what the card is without looking at its face] ▪ All the streets are well-marked. [=all the streets have signs showing their names] ▪ The bird's wings are marked with white. [=the bird has white marks on its wings]

2 always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : very noticeable ▪ He speaks with a marked accent. ▪ There was a marked change in her attitude. ▪ There's been a marked improvement in the weather. ▪ His current friendly manner is in marked contrast to his usual behavior. [=is very different from his usual behavior]

a marked man/woman 1 : someone who is famous or who gets a lot of attention ▪ Winning the race made him a marked man. ▪ As the front-runner, the candidate has become a marked woman. 2 : someone who is not liked or trusted or who is in danger of being harmed ▪ His unpopular ideas made him a marked man at work.

– mark•ed•ly /ˈmɑəkədli/ adv ▪ markedly different opinions ▪ The town had changed markedly.

mark•er /ˈmɑəkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : something (such as a sign or an object) that shows the location of something ▪ a grave marker

2 : something that shows the presence or existence of something ▪ a marker for/of cancer ▪ A person's accent can be a marker of social class.

3 : a type of pen that makes wide lines — see picture at OFFICE; see also MAGIC MARKER

[1]mar•ket /ˈmɑəkət/ noun, pl -kets

1 [count] a : a place where products are bought and sold ▪ a fish/meat/produce market ▪ a street market ▪ a country market — see also FLEA MARKET b US : a store where foods and often household items are sold : SUPERMARKET ▪ I stopped at the market on the way home for some juice.

2 [count] a : an area (such as a country or part of a country) where a product or service can be sold ▪ They are trying to develop foreign markets for American cotton. ▪ The company sells mainly to the Southern market. ▪ New markets are opening up all over the world. b : a particular type of people who might buy something ▪ Advertisers are trying to appeal to the youth market. ▪ targeting a more mature market ▪ a reference work for the educational market — see also BLACK MARKET, BUYER'S MARKET, SELLER'S MARKET

3 [singular] : the amount of need and desire that people have for a product or service — used to describe how many people want to buy something; usually + for ▪ There is a good/growing market for new homes. [=there are many people who want to buy new homes] ▪ There is currently a poor/declining market for used cars. ▪ They found a ready market for their products. [=they easily found many people who wanted to buy their products]

4 [singular] : the available supply of workers or jobs ▪ the labor market [=the number of workers who are available to be hired] ▪ the job market [=the number of jobs that are available for workers]

5 [singular] : the economic activity of buying and selling that causes prices to become higher or lower ▪ He believes that housing prices should be determined by the market without government interference. ▪ a market-driven industry/economy — see also FREE MARKET, SINGLE MARKET

6 [count] : the activity of buyers and sellers of a particular product ▪ It's not clear how these changes may affect the software market.

7 [singular] : STOCK MARKET ▪ The market was down today in heavy trading. ▪ He enjoys playing the market. [=actively buying and selling stocks in the hope of making a profit] — see also BEAR MARKET, BULL MARKET in the market : looking for something in particular : interested in buying or finding something ▪ He hasn't found a new job yet, but he is still in the market. [=he is still looking for a new job] — usually + for ▪ She is in the market for a new house. [=she is looking for a new house to buy] ▪ She's in the market for a husband.

on the market : available to be bought ▪ Their house is still on the market. ▪ The land just came on the (open) market last week. ▪ The software will be on the market next month. ▪ They've decided to put their house on the market. [=they've decided to sell their house]

price (someone) out of the market see [2]PRICE

[2]market verb -kets; -ket•ed; -ket•ing [+ obj]

1 : to do things that cause people to know about and want to buy (something) ▪ The company has spent millions marketing the latest version of its software. ▪ These products are being aggressively marketed to teenagers through television ads. — see also MARKETING

2 : to offer (something) for sale in a market : SELL ▪ He markets his wares at craft shows.

– mar•ket•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a leading marketer of software ▪ She is a marketer for a publishing company.

mar•ket•able /ˈmɑəkətəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : able to be sold : wanted by buyers or employers ▪ a marketable product ▪ an employee with highly/very marketable skills

– mar•ket•abil•i•ty /ˌmɑəkətəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ a product's potential marketability market economy noun, pl ~ -mies [count] : an economic system in which prices are based on competition among private businesses and not controlled by a government mar•ke•teer /ˌmɑəkəˈtiɚ/ noun, pl -teers [count]

1 : a person or company that sells or promotes a product or service ▪ software marketeers [=marketers]

2 : a person or company that is associated with a specified kind of market ▪ a black marketeer [=a person who sells

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 24 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

things on the black market] ▪ a free marketeer [=a person who supports free markets] market forces noun [plural] : the actions of buyers and sellers that cause the prices of goods and services to change without being controlled by the government : the economic forces of supply and demand ▪ The value of these commodities is determined by market forces.

market garden noun, pl ~ -dens [count] Brit : TRUCK FARM – market gardener noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

mar•ket•ing /'mɑəkətɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the activities that are involved in making people aware of a company's products, making sure that the products are available to be bought, etc. ▪ The company will increase its budget for marketing. ▪ She has a job in marketing. ▪ She runs the company's marketing department.

mar•ket•place /'mɑəkət,pleɪs/ noun, pl -plac•es
1 [singular] : the economic system through which different companies compete with each other to sell their products ▪ Their products must compete in the marketplace. ▪ The company has struggled to survive in a rapidly changing marketplace.
2 [count] : a place in a town where markets are held market price noun [singular] : the price at which a product can be sold at a particular time market research noun [noncount] : research that is done to get information about what people want to buy, why they want to buy it, etc.

– market researcher noun, pl ~ -ers [count]

market share noun, pl ~ shares : the percentage that a company has of the total sales for a particular product or service [noncount] The company has gained/lost market share in the past year. [count] companies working to increase/improve their market shares market value noun, pl ~ -ues : the price at which something can be sold : the price that buyers are willing to pay for something [count] When he tried to sell his car he found out that its market value was much lower than he had expected. [noncount] The house sold below market value.

mark•ing /'mɑəkɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count]
1 : a mark, shape, or word that is written or drawn on something — usually plural ▪ road markings ▪ It was difficult to read the markings on the label.
2 : a mark or pattern of marks on the body of an animal — usually plural ▪ a black cat with white markings
3 : the act or process of giving a grade to a student's work ▪ the marking [=(US) grading] of students' papers have (all) the markings of chiefly US : to have the qualities or features of (something) ▪ They have all the markings of a championship team. ▪ a movie that has all the markings of [=has all the makings of] a big hit marks•man /'mɑəksmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (especially a man) who is skilled in shooting a gun at a target marks•man•ship /'mɑəksmən,ʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : skill in shooting guns marks•wom•an /'mɑəks,wʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-,wɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is skilled in shooting a gun at a target

mark•up /'mɑək,ʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : an amount added to the price of something : the difference between the cost of producing something and its selling price ▪ The retail markup on their products is 25 percent. ▪ selling used cars at high markups — see also mark up at ²MARK

mar•lin /'mɑələn/ noun, pl marlin or mar•lins [count] : a large fish that lives in the sea and that people catch for sport — see color picture on page C8

mar•ma•lade /'mɑəmə,leɪd/ noun, pl -lades [count, noncount] : a sweet jelly that contains pieces of fruit ▪ a jar of orange marmalade

mar•mo•set /'mɑəmə,sɛt, Brit 'mɑ:mə,zɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count] : a small monkey of South and Central America that has soft fur and a long tail

mar•mot /'mɑəmət/ noun, pl -mots [count] : a small animal of America and Europe that has short legs and that lives in holes that it digs in the ground

¹ma•roon /mə'ru:n/ noun [noncount] : a dark red color — see color picture on page C3
– maroon adj ▪ a maroon fabric

²maroon verb -roons; -rooned; -roon•ing [+ obj] : to leave (someone) in a place (such as an island) that is difficult or impossible to get away from — usually used as (be) marooned ▪ The sailors were marooned [=stranded] on the island for six months. ▪ She was marooned [=stuck] at the office without a ride home.

marque /'mɑək/ noun, pl marques [count] : a group of products (such as sports cars) that are made by a particular company and given a particular name ▪ could finally afford a car of a fashionable marque [=brand, make]

¹mar•quee /mɑə'ki:/ noun, pl -quees [count]
1 US a : a covered structure over the entrance to a building (such as a hotel or theater) b : a sign over the entrance to a theater that shows the name of the show, movie, play, etc., and the names of the main performers ▪ She dreamed of seeing her name on the theater marquee.
2 Brit : a large tent that is set up for an outdoor event (such as a party)

²marquee adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : very popular and well known ▪ The film features two marquee [=big-name, star] performers. ▪ marquee athletes/events

mar•quess /'mɑəkwəs/ noun, pl -quess•es [count] : a British nobleman who has a rank that is below a duke and above an earl mar•quis /'mɑəkwəs/ noun, pl -quis•es [count] : MARQUESS

mar•riage /'merɪʤ/ noun, pl -riag•es
1 a : the relationship that exists between a husband and a wife [count] It was his second marriage. ▪ They have a very happy marriage. ▪ Her first two marriages ended in divorce. [noncount] She has old-fashioned ideas about marriage. ▪ the institution of marriage ▪ He proposed marriage to his girlfriend. [=asked his girlfriend to marry him] ▪ couples living together before marriage ▪ They were joined in marriage [=they were married] last year. ▪ They are related by marriage. [=they are related because one of them is married to a family member of the other] — see also ARRANGED MARRIAGE, CIVIL MARRIAGE, MARRIAGE OF CONVENIENCE, MIXED MARRIAGE b : a similar relationship between people of the same sex [count] a same-sex marriage [noncount] opponents/supporters of same-sex marriage ▪ gay marriage
2 [count] : a ceremony in which two people are married to each other ▪ Many friends and relatives were present at their marriage. ▪ a priest who has performed many marriages
3 [singular] : a close union of or between two things ▪ a marriage of sweet and spicy flavors ▪ a marriage of science and art ▪ a marriage between form and function marriage bed see ¹BED

mar•riage•able /'merɪʤəbəl/ adj : able to marry or suitable for marriage ▪ a woman of marriageable age [=a woman who is old enough to marry]

marriage certi cate noun, pl ~ -cates [count] : a legal document that shows that a marriage has taken place marriage counseling (US) or Brit marriage counselling noun [noncount] chiefly US : help for married couples who have problems in their relationship ▪ They are going to marriage counseling. ▪ They need marriage counseling. — called also (Brit) marriage guidance marriage license noun, pl ~ -censes [count] : a legal document that is needed for a marriage to occur marriage of convenience noun, pl marriages of convenience [count] : a marriage made for social, political, or economic reasons and not for love — usually singular; often used figuratively ▪ The two companies have joined together in a marriage of convenience.

¹mar•ried /'merid/ adj
1 a : united in marriage ▪ a newly/recently married couple ▪ They are happily married with several children. ▪ They're planning to get married [=planning to marry] in October. b : having a husband or wife ▪ a married man/woman ▪ Is he married? — often + to ▪ He has been married to his wife for almost 50 years. = He and his wife have been married to each other for almost 50 years. c always used before a noun : of or relating to marriage ▪ He's enjoying married life.
2 : very involved with something (such as a job) — + to ▪ He's married to his work. [=he gives all of his attention to his work]

²married noun, pl -rieds [count] informal : a married person — usually plural ▪ Lots of young marrieds are moving into the neighborhood.

married name noun, pl ~ names [count] : a married woman's last name if she uses her husband's last name as her own ▪ She used to be Susan Brown, but her married name is Susan Wilson.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mar•row /ˈmeroʊ/ noun, pl -rows
1 [noncount] : a soft substance that fills the bones of people and animals — called also bone marrow
2 [count, noncount] Brit : a large, long vegetable with dark green skin to the marrow : very much ▪ We were frozen to the marrow. [=we were very cold] ▪ The look in his eyes chilled me to the marrow. [=made me feel very fearful]

mar•ry /ˈmeri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing
1 : to become the husband or wife of (someone) : to become joined with (someone) in marriage [+ obj] He married his college sweetheart. ▪ marrying a doctor/lawyer ▪ I asked her to marry me. ▪ "Will you marry me?" "Yes, I will." [no obj] He hopes to marry [=get married] soon. ▪ She married young. [=she was young when she married] ▪ They married for love, not money.
2 [+ obj] : to perform a ceremony in which two people get married ▪ The minister has married more than 100 couples. ▪ They hope to have a priest marry them. ▪ They were married by a justice of the peace.
3 [+ obj] : to find a husband or wife for (your child) — often + to ▪ He married his daughter to his partner's son. — often + off ▪ They married their son off to the daughter of a close friend. ▪ trying to marry their children off
4 [+ obj] : to join or combine (two things) closely ▪ The design marries traditional elements with/to/and modern methods.
marry into [phrasal verb] marry into (something) : to become a member of (something, such as a family, group, culture, etc.) by marrying someone ▪ He married into a very wealthy family. [=his wife's family is very wealthy] ▪ She married into the upper class.
marry money : to marry someone who is wealthy ▪ My cousin hopes to marry money.

Mars /ˈmaərz/ noun [singular] : the planet that is fourth in order from the sun

marsh /ˈmaərʃ/ noun, pl marsh•es : an area of soft, wet land that has many grasses and other plants [count] wetlands and marshes [noncount] a wide expanse of marsh ▪ marsh grasses
– marshy /ˈmaərʃi/ adj marsh•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ a wet marshy region/habitat ▪ marshy ground

[1]mar•shal /ˈmaərʃəl/ noun, pl -shals [count]
1 : an officer of the highest rank in some military forces — see also FIELD MARSHAL
2 US : a federal official who is responsible for doing the things that are ordered by a court of law, finding and capturing criminals, etc.
3 US : the head of a division of a police or fire department ▪ a fire marshal
4 : person who arranges and directs ceremonies or parades ▪ a parade marshal — see also GRAND MARSHAL

[2]marshal verb -shals; US -shaled or chiefly Brit -shalled; US -shal•ing or chiefly Brit -shal•ling [+ obj]
1 a : to arrange (a group of people, such as soldiers) in an orderly way ▪ marshal the troops/forces b : to move or lead (a group of people) in a careful way ▪ The teacher marshaled [=ushered] the children into the classroom.
2 : to arrange or prepare (something, such as your thoughts or ideas) in a clear, effective, or organized way ▪ She carefully marshaled her thoughts before answering the question. ▪ marshal an argument

marsh•land /ˈmaərʃˌlænd/ noun, pl -lands : an area of soft and wet land : MARSH [count] living near a marshland [noncount] one hundred acres of marshland

marsh•mal•low /ˈmaərʃˌmɛloʊ, Brit ˌmaːʃˈmæləʊ/ noun, pl -lows [count, noncount] : a soft, white, sweet food made of sugar and eggs ▪ We toasted marshmallows over the fire.

mar•su•pi•al /maəˈsuːpijəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : a type of animal (such as a kangaroo or an opossum) that carries its babies in a pocket of skin on the mother's stomach
– marsupial adj ▪ a marsupial species mart /ˈmaərt/ noun, pl marts [count] chiefly US : a place where things are bought and sold : MARKET ▪ an antiques mart

mar•ten /ˈmaərtn̩/ noun, pl marten or mar•tens
1 [count] : a small animal that is related to the weasel and has soft gray or brown fur
2 [noncount] : the fur of a marten

mar•tial /ˈmaərʃəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to war or soldiers ▪ martial music ▪ martial [=military] discipline martial art noun, pl ~ arts [count] : any one of several forms of fighting and self-defense (such as karate and judo) that are widely practiced as sports ▪ He was trained in the martial arts.

– martial artist noun, pl ~ -ists [count] martial law noun [noncount] : control of an area by military forces rather than by the police ▪ The government has imposed/declared martial law throughout the city to stop the riots. ▪ an area placed under martial law

[1]Mar•tian /ˈmaərʃən/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the planet Mars ▪ the Martian landscape ▪ the Martian day/year

[2]Martian noun, pl -tians [count] : an imaginary creature in books, movies, etc., that lives on or comes from the planet Mars

mar•tin /ˈmaərtn̩/ noun, pl -tins [count] : a small bird that is related to the swallows mar•ti•net /ˌmaərtəˈnɛt/ noun, pl -nets [count] formal : a person who is very strict and demands obedience from others ▪ The prison's warden was a cruel martinet.

mar•ti•ni /maəˈtiːni/ noun, pl -nis [count] : an alcoholic drink made with gin and vermouth ▪ He ordered a martini. ▪ a martini glass ▪ a dry martini; also : a similar drink made with vodka instead of gin ▪ a vodka martini

[1]mar•tyr /ˈmaərtə/ noun, pl -tyrs [count]
1 : a person who is killed or who suffers greatly for a religion, cause, etc. ▪ the early Christian martyrs ▪ They know that killing him will only make a martyr out of him. [=will make him someone who is admired as a hero for having suffered or died for a cause] — sometimes + to ▪ He was a martyr to a noble cause. [=he died or suffered for a noble cause]
2 disapproving : a person who pretends to suffer or who exaggerates suffering in order to get praise or sympathy ▪ He enjoys playing the martyr. [=he enjoys acting like someone who deserves admiration or sympathy because of being badly treated]
3 : a person who suffers greatly from something (such as an illness) — + to ▪ a martyr to rheumatism

[2]martyr verb -tyrs; -tyred; -tyr•ing [+ obj] : to kill (someone) for refusing to give up a belief or cause — usually used as (be) martyred ▪ He was martyred for his religious beliefs.

mar•tyr•dom /ˈmaərtədəm/ noun, pl -doms : the suffering and death of a martyr [noncount] He suffered martyrdom [=he was martyred] for his religious beliefs. [count] religious martyrdoms

[1]mar•vel /ˈmaərvəl/ noun, pl -vels [count] : someone or something that is extremely good, skillful, etc. : a wonderful or marvelous person or thing ▪ That boy is a marvel! [=wonder] ▪ The bridge is a marvel of engineering. = The bridge is an engineering marvel. ▪ architectural marvels

[2]marvel verb -vels; US -veled or chiefly Brit -velled; US -vel•ing or chiefly Brit -vel•ling : to feel great surprise, wonder, or admiration [no obj] — usually + at or over ▪ The audience marveled at the magician's skill. ▪ The doctors are marveling over her dramatic recovery. [+ obj] The doctors marveled that anyone could recover so quickly.

mar•vel•ous (US) or chiefly Brit mar•vel•lous /ˈmaərvələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : extremely good or enjoyable : WONDERFUL ▪ We had a marvelous time at the party. ▪ He has a marvelous way with children. ▪ The weather was simply marvelous. ▪ a marvelous writer/book/idea
– mar•vel•ous•ly (US) or chiefly Brit mar•vel•lous•ly adv ▪ They all get along marvelously. ▪ a marvelously entertaining book

Marx•ism /ˈmaərkˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the political, economic, and social theories of Karl Marx including the belief that the struggle between social classes is a major force in history and that there should eventually be a society in which there are no classes
– Marx•ist /ˈmaərksɪst/ adj ▪ Marxist theory ▪ a Marxist government – Marxist noun, pl -ists [count]

mar•zi•pan /ˈmaərzəˌpæn/ noun [noncount] : a sweet food that is made with almonds, sugar, and eggs and that is often made into various shapes or used to cover cakes

mas•cara /mæˈskerə, Brit mæˈskɑːrə/ noun, pl -caras [count, noncount] : a type of makeup used for darkening and thickening eyelashes — see picture at GROOMING

mas•cot /ˈmæˌskɑːt/ noun, pl -cots [count] : a person, animal, or object used as a symbol to represent a group (such as a sports team) and to bring good luck ▪ The team had a mountain lion as their mascot.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 25 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[1]mas•cu•line /ˈmæskjələn/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : of, relating to, or suited to men or boys ▪ a masculine voice/perspective/name ▪ The living room is decorated in a more masculine style than the bedroom. ▪ She has a rather masculine [=mannish] voice/handshake. — compare [1]FEMININE
2 grammar, in some languages : of or belonging to the class of words (called a gender) that ordinarily includes most of the words referring to males ▪ a masculine noun ▪ "He" is a pronoun of the masculine gender. ▪ The masculine form of the Spanish adjective "linda" is "lindo." — compare [1]FEMININE, [1]NEUTER
– mas•cu•lin•i•ty /ˌmæskjəˈlɪnəti/ noun [noncount] ▪ traditional ideas about femininity and masculinity

[2]masculine noun, pl -lines [count] grammar, in some languages : a word or form of the masculine gender ▪ The masculine of the Spanish adjective "linda" is "lindo."

[1]mash /ˈmæʃ/ verb mash•es; mashed; mash•ing [+ obj] : to make (something, such as a type of food) into a soft mass by beating it or crushing it ▪ She mashed (up) the potatoes/carrots. ▪ mashing fruit for the baby ▪ She fed the baby some mashed carrots. ▪ For dinner we had steak with green beans and mashed potatoes. [=potatoes that have been boiled and then mashed]

[2]mash noun [noncount]
1 : a wet mixture of crushed malt or grain that is used in making alcoholic drinks (such as beer and whiskey)
2 : a soft mixture of grains used as food for animals
3 Brit, informal : mashed potatoes ▪ bangers and mash

mash•er /ˈmæʃɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a tool that is used for mashing food ▪ a potato masher

mash note noun, pl ~ notes [count] US, informal : a note or letter that expresses love or affection for the person who receives it ▪ Her glowing review of his performance reads like a mash note from a lovesick fan.

[1]mask /ˈmæsk, Brit ˈmɑːsk/ noun, pl masks [count]
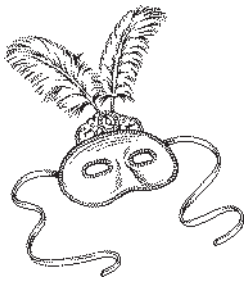
1 : a covering for your face or for part of your face: such as a : a covering used to hide or disguise your face ▪ a Halloween mask ▪ Everyone wore costumes and masks to the dance. ▪ The robbers wore masks. b : a covering used to protect your face or cover your mouth ▪ Doctors wear surgical masks in the operating room. ▪ a (baseball) catcher's mask — see picture at SCUBA DIVING; see also FACE MASK, GAS MASK, OXYGEN MASK, SKI MASK



mask

2 : a way of appearing or behaving that is not true or real — usually singular ▪ Her anger and resentment were hidden behind a mask of friendship. [=she pretended to be friendly but was really angry and resentful]

[2]mask verb masks; masked; mask•ing [+ obj]
1 : to hide (something) from sight ▪ The house was masked by trees.
2 : to keep (something) from being known or noticed ▪ She masked [=hid] her anger with a smile. ▪ They tried to mask their real purpose. ▪ She tried using perfume to mask the bad odor.

masked /ˈmæskt, Brit ˈmɑːskt/ adj
1 : wearing a mask ▪ The bank was held up by masked robbers. ▪ The dancers were masked.
2 always used before a noun : done by or involving people who wear masks ▪ a masked ball [=a formal party for dancing at which people wear masks] ▪ a masked dance masking tape noun [noncount] : a type of tape that is sticky on one side and that has many different uses (such as to cover an area when you are painting near it)

mas•och•ism /ˈmæsəˌkɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : enjoyment of pain : pleasure that someone gets from being abused or hurt; especially : sexual enjoyment from being hurt or punished — compare SADISM
– mas•och•ist /ˈmæsəkɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ sexual masochists – mas•och•is•tic /ˌmæsəˈkɪstɪk/ adj ▪ masochistic tendencies/behavior – mas•och•is•ti•cal•ly /ˌmæsəˈkɪstɪkli/ adv

ma•son /ˈmeɪsn̩/ noun, pl -sons [count]
1 : a skilled worker who builds or works with stone, brick, or concrete — see also STONEMASON
2 Mason : FREEMASON

Ma•son•ic /məˈsɑnɪk/ adj : of or relating to Freemasons or Freemasonry ▪ a Masonic temple ma•son jar or Ma•son jar /ˈmeɪsn̩-/ noun, pl ~ jars [count] US : a glass jar that has a wide opening and that is usually used in preserving fruits or vegetables

ma•son•ry /ˈmeɪsn̩ri/ noun [noncount]
1 : the stone, brick, or concrete used to build things ▪ a structure built of masonry ▪ blocks of masonry ▪ a masonry wall
2 : work done using stone, brick, or concrete : work done by a mason ▪ skillful masonry
3 Masonry : FREEMASONRY

masque /ˈmæsk, Brit ˈmɑːsk/ noun, pl masques [count] : a type of play that was performed in the 16th and 17th centuries by actors wearing masks

[1]mas•quer•ade /ˌmæskəˈreɪd/ noun, pl -ades [count]
1 : a party at which people wear masks and often costumes
2 : a way of appearing or behaving that is not true or real ▪ Their happy marriage was all just a masquerade. [=charade] ▪ She could not keep up the masquerade any longer.

[2]masquerade verb -ades; -ad•ed; -ad•ing [no obj] : to pretend to be someone or something else ▪ He was masquerading under a false name. — usually + as ▪ The movie is about a spy who masquerades as a salesman. ▪ a man masquerading as a woman
– mas•quer•ad•er noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]mass /ˈmæs/ noun, pl mass•es
1 [count] : a usually large amount of a substance that has no particular shape ▪ The slush froze into an icy mass. ▪ a cold air mass ▪ rock masses — often + of ▪ a mass of metal/clay/dough ▪ masses of floating ice — see also BODY MASS INDEX, CRITICAL MASS, LANDMASS
2 a [count] : a large number or amount of something ▪ The plant produces a (great/large/huge) mass of blossoms every spring. = The plant produces masses of blossoms every spring. ▪ a mass of data/information b [count] : a large number of people ▪ A great mass of voters turned out for the election. ▪ The team was greeted by a mass [=crowd] of fans. ▪ The war has forced masses of people to flee their homes. c masses [plural] Brit, informal : a large amount of something ▪ Don't worry: we've still got masses [=lots] of time.
3 the masses : the ordinary or common people ▪ His films are not intended to appeal to the masses. ▪ the needs of the masses ▪ a politician who is popular with the masses ▪ trying to reach the masses
4 [noncount] physics : the quantity of matter in something ▪ a star's mass
the mass of : the main part of (something) ▪ The mass of the iceberg [=the largest part of the iceberg] is below the surface of the water. ▪ His policies are supported by the (great/broad) mass of the people. [=by most of the people]

[2]mass verb masses; massed; mass•ing : to form or gather into a large group [no obj] A large crowd of demonstrators massed outside the courthouse. ▪ Clouds were massing on the horizon. [+ obj] The generals massed their troops.

[3]mass adj, always used before a noun : involving, affecting, or designed for many people ▪ mass demonstrations ▪ weapons of mass destruction ▪ mass murder ▪ a mass murderer ▪ mass hysteria ▪ Television is a mass medium. ▪ a mass market

Mass noun, pl Mass•es
1 : a Christian ceremony especially in the Roman Catholic Church in which people eat bread and drink wine representing the body and blood of Jesus Christ [noncount] They attend Mass every Sunday. ▪ a priest's duty to say/celebrate Mass [count] Sunday Masses are held at three different times.
2 [count] : music written for the parts of a Mass

[1]mas•sa•cre /ˈmæsɪkɚ/ noun, pl -sa•cres
1 : the violent killing of many people [count] a massacre of civilians ▪ bloody massacres [noncount] evidence of massacre
2 [count] informal : a game or competition in which one person or team easily defeats another ▪ The game turned out to be a complete massacre.

[2]massacre verb -sa•cres; -sa•cred; -sa•cring [+ obj]
1 : to violently kill (a group of people) : SLAUGHTER ▪ Hundreds have been massacred in the uprising.
2 informal : to easily defeat (someone or something) ▪ The other team really massacred us on Saturday.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

3 : to do (something) very badly : to ruin (something) because of lack of skill ▪ He really massacred that song.

[1]mas•sage /mə'sɑːʒ, Brit 'mæˌsɑːʒ/ noun, pl -sag•es : the action of rubbing or pressing someone's body in a way that helps muscles to relax or reduces pain in muscles and joints [count] She gave him a neck massage. ▪ a facial/foot massage [noncount] using massage to help relax ▪ a massage therapist ▪ massage therapy

[2]massage verb -sages; -saged; -sag•ing [+ obj]
1 : to rub or press (someone's body) in a way that helps muscles to relax or reduces pain in muscles and joints : to give a massage to (someone or a part of someone's body) ▪ She massaged his back. ▪ He massaged his forehead. ▪ She massaged her leg until the numbness was gone.
2 : to change (numbers, data, etc.) in a dishonest way in order to deceive people ▪ Researchers of the drug have been accused of massaging [=manipulating] the data to make it appear to be more effective than it really is.
massage someone's ego : to say things that make someone feel important and proud ▪ He gained the friendship of powerful politicians by massaging their egos.

massage parlor (US) or Brit massage parlour noun, pl ~ -lors [count]
1 : a place where people pay to be given a massage
2 : a place that is supposed to be for massages but where people pay to have sex

mas•seur /mæ'sə/ noun, pl -seurs [count] : a man whose job is to give massages mas•seuse /mæ'səz/ noun, pl -seus•es [count] : a woman whose job is to give massages mas•sive /'mæsɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very large and heavy ▪ The fort had massive walls. ▪ massive furniture ▪ the dog's massive head/jaw ▪ stars more massive than the sun
2 a : large in amount or degree ▪ A massive effort will be required to clean up the debris. ▪ You can find a massive amount of information on the Internet. ▪ The stunt received massive publicity. ▪ a massive collection of baseball cards b : very severe ▪ a massive heart attack ▪ a massive stroke
– mas•sive•ly adv ▪ a massively built structure ▪ a massively popular actor [=an extremely popular actor] – mas•sive•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the castle's sheer massiveness mass media noun [plural] : the radio stations, television stations, and newspapers through which information is communicated to the public ▪ an event that has attracted a lot of attention from the mass media ▪ the dissemination of news by mass media ▪ The mass media have ignored this important issue. — sometimes used with a singular verb ▪ The mass media has ignored this important issue.

mass noun noun, pl ~ nouns [count] grammar : NONCOUNT NOUN

mass–pro•duce /ˌmæsprə'duːs, Brit ˌmæsprə'djuːs/ verb -duc•es; -duced; -duc•ing [+ obj] : to produce very large amounts of (something) usually by using machinery ▪ The company has begun mass-producing computer chips.
– mass–produced adj ▪ mass-produced foods/furniture – mass production noun [noncount] ▪ the mass production of computer chips

mass transit noun [noncount] chiefly US : the system that is used for moving large numbers of people on buses, trains, etc. ▪ The mayor is trying to encourage more commuters to use mass transit in order to alleviate traffic in the city. — called also public transit mast /'mæst, Brit 'mɑːst/ noun, pl masts [count]

1 : a long pole that supports the sails of a boat or ship — see picture at BOAT
2 : a tall pole that supports or holds something (such as a flag) — see also HALF-MAST

[1]mas•ter /'mæstə, Brit 'mɑːstə/ noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : someone who has control or power over others: such as a : someone (especially a man) who has a servant or slave ▪ As a slave he was required to do his master's bidding without question. b : someone (especially a man) who owns a pet (such as a dog) ▪ The dog was always obedient to its master. c formal : the male head of a household ▪ the master and mistress of the house d : a man who is in charge of the people on a ship ▪ a ship's master
2 [count] : a person who has control of something — usually + of ▪ He was the master of his feelings. [=he was able to control his own feelings] ▪ She proved herself (to be) master of the situation. ▪ We are the masters of our own destiny.
3 [count] : a person who has become very skilled at doing something ▪ She is a master of her craft. ▪ a chess master ▪ a Dutch master [=one of the great Dutch painters of the past] — often + at ▪ He is a master at manipulating people. — see also GRAND MASTER, PAST MASTER
4 a [count] old-fashioned : a male teacher — see also HEADMASTER, SCHOOLMASTER b *Master — used as a title for the male head of certain British colleges ▪ He was Master of Balliol.
5 [count] : a person who has received a master's degree ▪ a master of arts
6 [count] : an original version of something (such as a recording) from which copies can be made 7 Master formal + old-fashioned — used as a title for a boy who is too young to be called Mister ▪ Master Timothy jack-of-all-trades, master of none see JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES serve two masters see [1]SERVE

[2]master adj, always used before a noun
1 : highly skilled ▪ a master carpenter/electrician ▪ a master storyteller ▪ a master chef
2 : largest or most important ▪ the house's master bedroom/bathroom ▪ the network's master computer
3 — used to describe an original version from which other copies can be made ▪ a master tape recording ▪ the master copy

[3]master verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to succeed in controlling (something, such as an emotion) ▪ He mastered [=overcame] his fear. ▪ master a desire
2 : to learn (something) completely : to get the knowledge and skill that allows you to do, use, or understand (something) very well ▪ She mastered French in college. ▪ He is determined to master every aspect of the business.

mas•ter•ful /'mæstəfəl, Brit 'mɑːstəfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : able to take control of people or situations ▪ a masterful commander ▪ His manner was masterful and abrupt.
2 : very skillful ▪ a masterful [=masterly] performance/translation ▪ a masterful work of art ▪ He did a masterful job of staying out of trouble.
– mas•ter•ful•ly adv ▪ The chairman walked masterfully into the meeting. ▪ The book was masterfully translated.

master key noun, pl ~ keys [count] : a key that can be used to open many locks (such as all the door locks in a building)

mas•ter•ly /'mæstəli, Brit 'mɑːstəli/ adj : showing great skill : very skillful ▪ He deserves congratulations for the masterly [=masterful] way in which he handled the crisis. ▪ a masterly performance ▪ She did a masterly job of organizing the conference.

[1]mas•ter•mind /'mæstəˌmaɪnd, Brit 'mɑːstəˌmaɪnd/ noun, pl -minds [count] : a person who plans and organizes something ▪ He is considered (to be) the mastermind of the team's winning strategy. ▪ a criminal mastermind ▪ the mastermind behind the terrorist plot

[2]mastermind verb -minds; -mind•ed; -mind•ing [+ obj] : to plan and organize (something) : to be the mastermind of (something) ▪ They masterminded a unique solution to the problem. ▪ He masterminded the bank robbery.

master of ceremonies noun, pl masters of ceremonies [count] : a person who introduces guests, speakers, or performers at a formal event ▪ The master of ceremonies introduced the guest of honor. — called also (US) emcee, MC

mas•ter•piece /'mæstəˌpiːs, Brit 'mɑːstəˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count]
1 : a great book, painting, piece of music, movie, etc. ▪ a literary/cinematic masterpiece ▪ The painting was immediately recognized as a masterpiece.; also : the best book, painting, piece of music, movie, etc., by a particular person ▪ Herman Melville's masterpiece was Moby-Dick.
2 : something done with great skill ▪ a masterpiece of planning ▪ Her study of apes is a masterpiece.

master plan noun, pl ~ plans [count] : a detailed plan for doing something that will require a lot of time and effort ▪ He has a master plan for becoming a millionaire.

master's noun, pl master's [count] informal : MASTER'S DEGREE ▪ She has a master's in biology.

master's degree noun, pl ~ -grees [count] : a degree that is given to a student by a college or university usually after one or two years of additional study following a bachelor's degree

mas•ter•work /'mæstəˌwəːk, Brit 'mɑːstəˌwəːk/ noun, pl

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 24 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

-works [count] : a great work of art : MASTERPIECE ▪ a musical masterwork

mas•tery /ˈmæstəri, ˈmɑːstəri/ noun
1 : knowledge and skill that allows you to do, use, or understand something very well : COMMAND — usually + of [noncount] We were impressed by her mastery of the subject. [singular] She achieved a complete mastery of French.
2 [noncount] : complete control of something ▪ He struggled to gain mastery of/over his fears.

mast•head /ˈmæstˌhɛd, Brit ˈmɑːstˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count]
1 : the top of a ship's mast
2 : the name of a newspaper shown on the top of the first page

mas•ti•cate /ˈmæstəˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing technical : to chew (food) [+ obj] The cows were masticating their food. [no obj] masticating cows
– mas•ti•ca•tion /ˌmæstəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mas•tiff /ˈmæstəf/ noun, pl -tiffs [count] : a type of large, powerful dog

mas•to•don /ˈmæstəˌdɑːn/ noun, pl -dons [count] : a type of animal that was related to the mammoth and that lived in ancient times

mas•tur•bate /ˈmæstərˌbeɪt/ verb -bates; -bat•ed; -bat•ing [no obj] : to touch or rub your own sexual organs for sexual pleasure
– mas•tur•ba•tion /ˌmæstərˈbeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
– mas•tur•ba•to•ry /ˈmæstərbəˌtori, Brit ˌmæstəˈbeɪtəri/ adj ▪ masturbatory fantasies

mat /ˈmæt/ noun, pl mats [count]
1 a : a small piece of material used to cover the floor or ground ▪ Be sure to wipe your dirty feet on the mat [=doormat] before you enter the house. — see also BATH MAT, WELCOME MAT b : a small piece of material used to protect the surface of a table ▪ She set the hot plate on the mat. — see also PLACE MAT, TABLE MAT c : a thick pad that is used as a soft surface for some activities (such as wrestling, gymnastics, yoga, etc.)
2 : a thick mass of something that is stuck or twisted together — usually + of ▪ a thick mat of vegetation/hair go to the mat chiefly US, informal : to make a lot of effort to do something : to try very hard at something ▪ They went to the mat to protect the program. ▪ She'll go to the mat for you. [=she will do everything she can to help you]

mat•a•dor /ˈmætəˌdoə/ noun, pl -dors [count] : the person who has the major part in a bullfight and who kills the bull

[1]match /ˈmætʃ/ noun, pl match•es
1 [singular] : someone or something that is equal to or as good as another person or thing ▪ He was no match for his opponent. [=his opponent was able to defeat him easily] ▪ He was more than a match for his opponent. [=he defeated his opponent easily] ▪ She knew after the first game that she had met her match. [=knew that her opponent was as good as she was and could defeat her] ▪ a politician who has finally met his match
2 [singular] a : two people or things that are suited to each other ▪ The curtains and carpet are a good/perfect match (for each other). ▪ Deborah and Brad are/make a good match. ▪ Everyone thought that they were a match made in heaven. [=two people perfectly suited to each other] b : someone or something that is suited to another person or thing — usually + for ▪ She found a sweater that was a nice match for her skirt. ▪ He was a good match for her because they shared the same interests.
3 [count] : a contest between two or more players or teams ▪ a soccer match [=game] ▪ a chess match ▪ He lost a close match against a tough opponent. ▪ a tennis/boxing match — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He got into a shouting match with his neighbor. = (Brit) He got into a slanging match with his neighbor. [=he and his neighbor were angrily shouting at each other] ▪ They got into a shoving match. [=they were angrily shoving each other] — see also RETURN MATCH, grudge match at [1]GRUDGE
– compare [3]MATCH

[2]match verb matches; matched; match•ing
1 a : to be suited to (someone or something) : to go well with (someone or something) [+ obj] The curtains match the carpet perfectly. = The curtains and the carpet match each other perfectly. ▪ This color matches your skin tone. ▪ She was wearing a beautiful skirt, but her sweater didn't match it. ▪ The upbeat music matched her mood. [no obj] The curtains and carpet don't match. [=go together] ▪ Her skirt and sweater matched perfectly. ▪ Do these colors match? ▪ (chiefly US) a wine that matches (up) well with rich foods ▪ He's a large man with hands to match. [=a large man with large hands] b : to have the same appearance, color, etc. [no obj] The pillows on the couch all match. ▪ Your socks don't match. [+ obj] Your socks don't match each other.
2 [+ obj] : to make or see a connection or relationship between (two people or things) ▪ The children matched (up) the names of the animals to the correct pictures. — often + with ▪ My mom is always trying to match me up with her friends' daughters. — see also mix and match at [1]MIX
3 : to be in agreement with (something) [+ obj] The description matches [=fits] him closely. ▪ His story doesn't match the facts. [no obj] Their stories didn't match (up). [=their stories didn't agree with each other] ▪ His story doesn't match (up) with the facts.
4 a : to be the equal of (something or someone) : to be as good as (something or someone) [+ obj] Nothing will ever match the sheer excitement of that game. = Nothing will ever match that game in/for sheer excitement. ▪ The movie didn't match our expectations. [=the movie was not as good as we expected it to be] ▪ Nobody can match him at golf. [=no one is as good as he is at playing golf] ▪ The car has a record of reliability that's hard to match. ▪ His talents are matched only by his ego. ▪ The company's growth has been matched by the increase in its political influence. ▪ I've never seen anything to match this spectacle. ▪ The two runners were matching each other stride for stride. ▪ It was a close game between two evenly matched teams. [=two teams that are equally good] [no obj] The concert didn't match up to [=equal, meet] our expectations. b [+ obj] : to provide, produce, or do something that is equal to (something else) ▪ We were unable to match their offer. ▪ The company will match employee contributions to the insurance plan. ▪ An anonymous donor has promised to match the first $10,000 donated to the charity. ▪ He could never hope to match his brother's success.
5 [+ obj] : to place (someone or something) in competition against another — often + against ▪ They were matched against each other in the first round of the play-offs. — often + with ▪ The game will match last year's champions with their leading rivals.
6 [+ obj] : to compare (something) with something else — usually + against ▪ The fingerprints were matched against those stored in the computer.
– matching adj, always used before a noun ▪ She was wearing a dark blue skirt with/and a matching sweater. ▪ matching colors

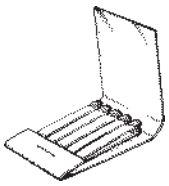
[3]match noun, pl matches [count] : a short, thin piece of wood or thick paper with a special tip that produces fire when it is scratched against something else ▪ light a match ▪ a book/box of matches — compare [1]MATCH match•book /ˈmætʃˌbʊk/ noun, pl -books [count] : a small folder that contains rows of matches



matchbook

match•box /ˈmætʃˌbɑːks/ noun, pl -box•es [count] : a small box for matches

match•less /ˈmætʃləs/ adj : having no equal : better than all others ▪ The museum has a matchless collection of paintings. ▪ matchless beauty match•mak•er /ˈmætʃˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who tries to bring two people together so that they will marry each other – match•mak•ing /ˈmætʃˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

match point noun, pl ~ points
1 : a situation in tennis in which one player or team can win the match by winning the next point [count] He won with an ace on his second match point. [noncount] He won with an ace on/at match point.
2 [count] : the final point that must be won to win a match in tennis — compare GAME POINT match•stick /ˈmætʃˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count] : the wood or paper part of a match ▪ Cut the peppers into pieces the size of matchsticks.

[1]mate /ˈmeɪt/ noun, pl mates
1 [count] : a person who lives with you, works in the same place as you, etc. — usually used in combination with another noun ▪ We have been office mates for 10 years. [=we have worked together in the same office for 10 years] — see also CLASSMATE, FLATMATE, HOUSEMATE, PLAYMATE, ROOMMATE, RUNNING MATE, SCHOOLMATE, SEATMATE, SHIP-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 25 SESS: 26 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

MATE, SOUL MATE, STABLEMATE, TABLEMATE, TEAMMATE, WORKMATE

2 [count] : either one of a pair of animals that are breeding ▪ One bird remains at the nest while its mate hunts for food.

3 [count] chiefly US : a person's husband, wife, or romantic or sexual partner ▪ He was finding it difficult to find a mate. ▪ an ideal mate

4 [count] chiefly US, informal : either one of a pair of objects ▪ I can't find the mate to this glove.

5 [count] : an officer on a ship who has a rank below the captain ▪ a first/second/third mate

6 [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a friend ▪ Me and a couple of mates of mine went round to the pub. ▪ She and I have been best mates for ages. — often used as a friendly way for one man to address another man ▪ Got a light, mate?

7 [count] chiefly Brit : an assistant or helper ▪ a plumber's mate ▪ an electrician's mate

8 [noncount] : CHECKMATE

[2]mate verb mates; mat•ed; mat•ing

1 a [no obj] of animals : to have sexual activity in order to produce young ▪ This species of bird mates in early spring. ▪ The male mated with the female. = The male and the female mated. ▪ a mating call/ritual ▪ the mating season [=the time of year when an animal mates] ▪ These birds mate for life. [=they form pairs and stay together throughout their lives] b [+ obj] : to bring (animals) together so that they will breed and produce young ▪ Researchers mated two different kinds of mice. ▪ mating a male dog to/with a female

2 [+ obj] : to join or connect (things) together ▪ The stereo sounds best when it is mated to/with high-quality speakers.

[1]ma•te•ri•al /məˈtirijəl/ noun, pl -als

1 a : a substance from which something is made or can be made [count] building materials ▪ paper, plastic, or other materials [noncount] small pieces of material ▪ hard material like stone — see also RAW MATERIAL b : a substance that has a particular quality [count] a sticky material ▪ explosive materials [noncount] genetic material

2 : something used in doing a particular activity [count] — usually plural ▪ writing/reference materials [noncount] She was never without reading material.

3 [noncount] : cloth or fabric ▪ The curtains required yards of expensive material.

4 [noncount] : information or ideas ▪ He has been gathering material for a new biography. ▪ The revised edition includes a large amount of new material. ▪ The comedian gets his material from things that have happened to him.

5 [noncount] : a person who is suited to a particular position or job ▪ Her boss regards her as executive material. [=as someone who would make a good executive] ▪ My parents never felt that I was college material. [=that I was someone who should go to college]

[2]material adj

1 always used before a noun a : relating to or made of matter : PHYSICAL ▪ the material world ▪ material objects b : physical rather than spiritual or intellectual ▪ He is concerned only with his own material comforts/needs. ▪ material goods/possessions/rewards/wealth

2 formal : having real importance ▪ The researchers included all data that was material. ▪ material facts — often + to ▪ The evidence is not material [=relevant] to the case. — opposite IMMATERIAL

– ma•te•ri•al•ly adv ▪ The organization contributes materially to the efforts for peace. ▪ a materially rich but spiritually poor culture

ma•te•ri•al•ism /məˈtirijəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

1 : a way of thinking that gives too much importance to material possessions rather than to spiritual or intellectual things ▪ the materialism of modern society

2 philosophy : the belief that only material things exist

– ma•te•ri•al•ist /məˈtirijəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a greedy materialist – ma•te•ri•al•is•tic /məˌtirijəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She is spoiled and very materialistic. ▪ a materialistic culture/society

ma•te•ri•al•ize also Brit ma•te•ri•al•ise /məˈtirijəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [no obj]

1 : to become visible : to appear especially in a sudden or magical way ▪ A waiter suddenly materialized beside our table. ▪ Rain clouds materialized on the horizon.

2 : to begin to happen or exist : to occur or become real — usually used in negative statements ▪ The bad weather we had worried about never materialized. ▪ The money they promised us has so far failed to materialize.

– ma•te•ri•al•i•za•tion /məˌtirijələˈzeɪʃən, Brit məˌtɪəriəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ma•té•ri•el or US ma•te•ri•el /məˌtiriˈɛl/ noun [noncount] : equipment and supplies used by soldiers ▪ weapons and other matériel

ma•ter•nal /məˈtənəl/ adj

1 a : of or relating to a mother : MOTHERLY ▪ maternal love ▪ maternal feelings/instincts b always used before a noun : of or relating to a woman who is having a baby ▪ Doctors are concerned about the effects of the drug on maternal health. ▪ maternal smoking

2 always used before a noun : related through the mother ▪ his maternal grandparents [=the parents of his mother] ▪ a maternal aunt/uncle — compare PATERNAL

– ma•ter•nal•ly adv ▪ She smiled at them maternally. ▪ maternally inherited genes

[1]ma•ter•ni•ty /məˈtənəti/ noun [noncount] : the state of being a mother : MOTHERHOOD — compare PATERNITY

[2]maternity adj, always used before a noun

1 : designed to be worn by a woman who is pregnant ▪ maternity clothes ▪ a maternity dress

2 : relating to the time when a woman gives birth to a baby ▪ maternity pay ▪ The company granted her maternity leave. [=time off to take care of a newborn child]

3 — used to refer to an area in a hospital where women who are giving birth to babies are cared for ▪ a maternity unit/ward

[1]mat•ey /ˈmeɪti/ adj mat•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] Brit, informal : FRIENDLY ▪ a boss who is matey with his staff

[2]matey noun [singular] Brit, informal + sometimes impolite — used as a way for one man to address another man ▪ Listen, matey, I'm not putting up with that anymore!

math /ˈmæθ/ noun [noncount] US : MATHEMATICS ▪ She's always been good at math. [=(Brit) maths]

math•e•mat•i•cal /ˌmæθəˈmætɪkəl/ adj

1 : of, relating to, or involving mathematics ▪ a mathematical problem/equation/formula ▪ a mathematical genius

2 : very exact or complete ▪ They recorded the changes with mathematical precision. ▪ The results can be predicted with mathematical [=absolute] certainty.

3 : possible but very unlikely ▪ The team has only a mathematical chance of making the play-offs.

– math•e•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌmæθəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ mathematically precise ▪ She solved the problem mathematically. ▪ a mathematically inclined person math•e•ma•ti•cian /ˌmæθəməˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : a person who is an expert in mathematics

math•e•mat•ics /ˌmæθəˈmætɪks/ noun [noncount] : the science of numbers, quantities, and shapes and the relations between them ▪ Algebra, arithmetic, calculus, geometry, and trigonometry are branches of mathematics. ▪ She has a degree in mathematics. ▪ a professor of mathematics ▪ Mathematics is my favorite subject. — often used before another noun ▪ a mathematics teacher ▪ the mathematics department at the university maths /ˈmæθs/ noun [noncount] Brit : MATHEMATICS ▪ being tested in English and maths [=(US) math]

mat•i•nee or mat•i•née /ˌmætnˈneɪ, Brit ˈmætəˌneɪ/ noun, pl -nees or -nées [count] : a play, movie, etc., that is performed or shown in the afternoon matinee idol noun, pl ~ idols [count] somewhat old-fashioned : a handsome male actor who is popular with women

ma•tri•arch /ˈmeɪtriˌɑək/ noun, pl -archs [count] : a woman who controls a family, group, or government ▪ Our grandmother was the family's matriarch. ▪ The tribe's matriarch ruled for 20 years before her death. — compare PATRIARCH

– ma•tri•ar•chal /ˌmeɪtriˈɑəkəl/ adj ▪ matriarchal societies [=societies that are controlled by women]

ma•tri•ar•chy /ˈmeɪtriˌɑəki/ noun, pl -chies

1 [count] : a family, group, or government controlled by a woman or a group of women ▪ For 20 years, the country was ruled as a matriarchy. ▪ ancient matriarchies

2 [noncount] : a social system in which family members are related to each other through their mothers ▪ a region in which matriarchy is practiced — compare PATRIARCHY matrices plural of MATRIX

ma•tri•cide /ˈmætrəˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -cides [count] : the act of murdering your own mother — compare FRATRICIDE, PATRICIDE ma•tric•u•late /məˈtrɪkjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 26 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

ing [no obj] formal : to become a student at a school and especially in a college or university ▪ She matriculated in/at the college and began (to take) classes in the fall.
– ma•tric•u•la•tion /məˌtrɪkjəˈleɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mat•ri•mo•nial /ˌmætrəˈmoʊnijəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : of or relating to marriage ▪ They took their matrimonial vows in the spring. [=they got married in the spring] ▪ matrimonial [=(more commonly) marital, marriage] problems/troubles ▪ matrimonial lawyers [=lawyers who specialize in marriage and divorce]

mat•ri•mo•ny /ˈmætrəˌmoʊni/ noun [noncount] formal : the joining together of a man and woman as husband and wife : MARRIAGE ▪ two people joined in matrimony ▪ They were united in (the bonds of) holy matrimony [=they were married in a religious ceremony] on the first of May.

ma•trix /ˈmeɪtrɪks/ noun, pl -tri•ces /-trəˌsiːz/ also -trix•es /-trɪksəz/ [count] technical
1 : something (such as a situation or a set of conditions) in which something else develops or forms ▪ the complex social matrix in which people live their lives
2 : something shaped like a pattern of lines and spaces ▪ The wires all crossed each other and formed a matrix.
3 : a container that can be filled with a material (such as very hot metal) to give the material a new shape : MOLD ▪ a matrix used for making knives
4 : rock in which something hard (such as a diamond or a fossil) has been formed ▪ pieces of light blue turquoise in a dark matrix
5 : the area on a human finger or toe from which the fingernail or toenail grows
6 mathematics : a set of numbers in which the numbers are listed in rows and columns and can be added or multiplied according to special rules
– see also DOT MATRIX

ma•tron /ˈmeɪtrən/ noun, pl -trons [count]
1 : an older married woman who usually has a high social position ▪ society matrons who organize benefits for charity
2 US : a woman whose job is to be in charge of children or other women ▪ the matron of a school for girls ▪ a prison matron
3 Brit, old-fashioned : a female nurse who is in charge of the other nurses in a hospital

ma•tron•ly /ˈmeɪtrənli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : like or suitable for an older married woman ▪ She feared she was becoming a matronly old woman. ▪ She wore a matronly blue dress. ✧ Matronly is used as a polite way to describe a woman who is not young and is somewhat fat.

matron of honor (US) or Brit matron of honour noun, pl matrons of honor [count] : a married woman who is the main bridesmaid at a wedding ▪ Her cousin was her matron of honor. — compare MAID OF HONOR

matte (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit matt /ˈmæt/ adj : having a surface that is not shiny ▪ a matte fabric ▪ a photograph with a matte finish ▪ matte [=dull] black — opposite GLOSSY

mat•ted /ˈmætəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : twisted together in an untidy way ▪ matted hair ▪ matted grass

[1]mat•ter /ˈmætə/ noun, pl -ters
1 [count] : something that is being done, talked about, or thought about ▪ He has a few personal matters to deal with. ▪ Disagreement is one thing, but accusations of lying are a different matter altogether! ▪ Thanks for bringing this matter to our attention. [=for telling us about this problem or issue] ▪ That's a matter for a jury (to decide). ▪ The schedule is a matter of some concern. [=is something that we are worried about] ▪ It's no easy/simple matter [=it's not easy] to find a decent place to live in this city. ▪ This is no joking/laughing matter. = This is a serious matter. ▪ Getting the money to finance a project like this is no small matter. [=is not an easy thing to do] — often used in an ironic way to refer to a difficult or important situation or problem ▪ He wants to buy a new car, but first there's the little/small matter of getting enough money to pay for it. [=he can't buy a new car until he has enough money to pay for it]
2 matters [plural] : the situation or subject that is being discussed or dealt with ▪ Let's not allow matters [=things] to get out of control. ▪ She's an expert in legal/financial/money matters. = (formal) She's an expert in matters legal/financial. ▪ It's best not to interfere in matters [=affairs] of the heart. ▪ It didn't exactly help matters [=it didn't make the situation better] when he accused her of lying! ▪ He laughed at her and then, to make matters worse, he accused her of lying! [=it made the situation worse when he accused her of lying] ▪ To (further) complicate matters, they both have the same name. = To complicate matters further, they both have the same name. [=the situation is more complicated because they both have the same name] ▪ After months of waiting for something to happen, he decided to take matters into his own hands. [=to do something himself instead of waiting for other people to do something]
3 [noncount] a physics : the thing that forms physical objects and occupies space ▪ Can matter and energy be changed into each other? b : material of a particular kind ▪ vegetable matter ▪ organic/waste matter ▪ printed/reading matter [=books, magazines, newspapers, etc.] — see also BACK MATTER, FRONT MATTER, GRAY MATTER, SUBJECT MATTER
4 the matter — used to ask if there is a problem or to say that there is or is not a problem ▪ What's the matter? [=what's the problem?; what's wrong?] ▪ "Is anything the matter?" [=is anything wrong?; is there a problem?] "No, nothing's the matter." — often + with ▪ Nothing's the matter with me. I'm fine. ▪ There's something the matter with the car. [=there's something wrong with the car; there's a problem with the car]

usage The question "What's the matter?" is usually asked in a friendly way. ▪ You look sad. What's the matter? [=what's wrong?] The question "What's the matter with you?" is usually asked in an unfriendly way by someone who is annoyed or angry. ▪ You keep making stupid mistakes. What's the matter with you? [=what's wrong with you?; why do you keep making stupid mistakes?]

a matter of 1 — used to refer to a small amount ▪ It cooks in a matter of (a few) minutes. [=it cooks in just a few minutes] ▪ They quarreled over a matter of a mere couple of dollars. ▪ The crisis was resolved in a matter of a few hours. ▪ The ball was foul by a matter of inches. 2 — used to say that one thing results from or requires another ▪ Learning to ride a bicycle is a matter of practice. [=learning to ride a bicycle requires practice] ▪ His success was just a matter of being in the right place at the right time. [=he succeeded because he was in the right place at the right time] ▪ It's only a matter of time before/until we catch him. [=we will catch him eventually] 3 — used to explain the reason for something ▪ She insists on honesty as a matter of principle. [=because she believes that honesty is morally right] ▪ All requests for free tickets are turned down as a matter of policy. [=because our policy requires it; because we have decided that that is what we should always do] 4 — used to say that something is based on opinion, taste, etc. ▪ "He's doing a terrible job." "That's a matter of opinion." [=that's not a definite fact; that's something that people have different opinions about] ▪ Some people like seafood and some people don't. It's all just a matter of taste. [=it is something that is based on personal taste] ▪ Her plans for the election are still a matter of conjecture. [=people are not sure about her plans for the election] 5 — used to say that something is important, interesting, etc. ▪ The outcome of the trial is a matter of interest to many people. [=many people are interested in the outcome of the trial] ▪ Resolving this problem quickly is a matter of (some) urgency/importance. [=it is urgent/important to resolve this problem quickly] ▪ I'd like to know how much it costs, just as a matter of interest. [=because I am interested in knowing even though I do not need to know]
a matter of debate see [1]DEBATE
a matter of life and death see [1]LIFE
a matter of record : something that is known because it has been publicly said or reported in the past ▪ His opposition to the plan is a matter of record.
as a matter of course — used to say that something will or should happen because it is natural, usual, or logical ▪ You should take proper precautions as a matter of course. [=as part of your usual routine] ▪ We went out to dinner on her birthday, and as a matter of course [=of course, naturally] we paid for her meal.
as a matter of fact see FACT for that matter — used with a statement that adds to a previous statement ▪ I haven't seen him for years—or her either, for that matter. [=I also haven't seen her for years] mind over matter see [1]MIND no matter 1 informal — used to say that something is not important ▪ "I may be delayed for a few minutes." "No matter. [=it doesn't matter] We still have plenty of time." 2 — used with what, how, when, etc., to say that something does not, will not, or should not affect something else ▪ I'm go-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 27 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

ing to do it, no matter what you say. = No matter what you say, I'm going to do it. [=nothing you say will stop me from doing it] ▪ He intends to buy that car no matter how much it costs. ▪ Everyone is welcome here, no matter where they come from. ▪ He wants to win, no matter what. [=he wants to win so much that he will do anything to win] — see also no matter how you slice it at [2]SLICE

the fact of the matter is — used to emphasize a statement that follows ▪ She thinks she knows what she's talking about, but the fact of the matter is, she's wrong. ▪ The budget is very tight this year. The fact of the matter is, we may have to lay off a few employees.

the truth of the matter — used to stress the truth of a statement ▪ We may have to lay off a few employees this year. That's the truth of the matter. [=that's the truth] ▪ The truth of the matter is, she was wrong and he was right.

[2]matter verb, not used in progressive tenses -ters; -tered; -ter·ing [no obj] : to be important ▪ Our families and friends are the people who matter most to us. [=the people we care about most] ▪ Her wealth doesn't matter to me. = It doesn't matter to me that she's rich. [=I don't care that she is rich] ▪ It may not matter to you, but it matters a lot to me! ▪ "Which would you prefer?" "Either one is fine. It really doesn't matter (to me)." ▪ I don't care if you're a little late. All that matters is that you're safe. = The only thing that matters is that you're safe. = What matters is that you're safe. ▪ "Why are you being so quiet?" "Does it matter?" "Of course it matters!" ▪ What does it matter? = It doesn't matter. [=it's not important; I don't care] ▪ I see that she's late again. Not that it matters (to me). [=she's late again, but that's all right] — often + that ▪ He acts as if it doesn't matter that he lied to us. — often + how, who, what, etc. ▪ It doesn't matter how old you are. ▪ It doesn't matter what I say to him. He just won't listen. ▪ It doesn't matter whether we stay at home or go out.

mat·ter–of–fact /ˌmætərəˈfækt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not showing emotion especially when talking about exciting or upsetting things ▪ We were surprised by the matter-of-fact way he told us the terrible news. ▪ Her voice had a matter-of-fact quality. ▪ His tone was calm and matter-of-fact. – mat·ter–of–fact·ly /ˌmætərəˈfæktli/ adv ▪ She explained the problem matter-of-factly. – mat·ter–of–fact·ness /ˌmætərəvˈfæktnəs/ noun [noncount]

mat·ting /ˈmætɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : rough cloth used especially as floor covering ▪ bamboo matting

mat·tress /ˈmætrəs/ noun, pl -tress·es [count] : a cloth case that is filled with material and used as a bed — see picture at BED

mat·u·ra·tion /ˌmætʃəˈreɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : the process of becoming mature : the process of developing in the body or mind ▪ the early stages of maturation : the process of developing to a desired level ▪ the maturation of wine/cheese ▪ the maturation of his skills

[1]ma·ture /məˈtuɚ, məˈtʃuɚ/ adj ma·tur·er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing the mental and emotional qualities of an adult ▪ We were surprised by how mature [=adult] she had become. ▪ She's very mature for her age. ▪ He has a mature outlook on life. ▪ His parents didn't think he was mature enough to live on his own. — opposite IMMATURE
2 a : having a fully grown or developed body : grown to full size ▪ The dog will stand three feet tall when (it has become) mature. [=when it has matured] ▪ Their bodies were mature, but they still behaved like children. ▪ mature [=adult] animals ▪ mature trees/leaves ▪ the dog's mature size [=the dog's size when it is fully grown] ▪ sexually mature [=old enough or developed enough to produce a baby] — opposite IMMATURE
b : having reached a final or desired state ▪ a mature wine/cheese — opposite IMMATURE c : not young : middle-aged or older ▪ airline discounts for mature travelers [=for senior citizens who travel; for old people who travel] ▪ a man of mature years [=an older man]
3 a : based on careful thought ▪ a mature plan ▪ After/On mature reflection, he concluded that he had been mistaken. b : showing the highest level of skill that a person develops ▪ an artist's mature work/style
4 finance : having reached the time when an amount of money (such as money for a government bond or an insurance policy) must be paid : due for payment ▪ The bond becomes mature in 10 years.
– ma·ture·ly adv ▪ They acted maturely and responsibly.

[2]mature verb -tures; -tured; -tur·ing [no obj] : to become mature: such as a : to become fully developed in the body and mind ▪ Girls mature earlier than boys both physically and mentally. — often + into ▪ He matured into a kind and intelligent young man. b : to continue developing to a desired level ▪ Her talent is maturing slowly. ▪ Wine and cheese mature with age. c finance : to become due for payment ▪ The bond matures in 10 years.

mature student noun, pl ~ -dents [count] Brit : a student at a college or university who starts studying there at a later age than usual

ma·tu·ri·ty /məˈturəti, məˈtʃurəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the condition of being mature: such as a : the state of being fully developed in the body or the mind ▪ His behavior shows a lack of maturity. ▪ He reached emotional maturity late in his life. ▪ the maturity level of a child ▪ full physical maturity b finance : the state of being due for payment ▪ The bond will reach maturity in 10 years.
2 [count] finance : the amount of time that must pass before something (such as a bond) becomes due for payment ▪ Maturities on these bonds can be as long as 10 years.

mat·zo or mat·zoh /ˈmɑːtsə/ noun, pl mat·zoth /ˈmɑːtˌsoʊt/ or mat·zos or mat·zohs [count, noncount] : a dry, thin bread eaten especially by Jewish people at Passover — often used before another noun ▪ a matzo ball [=a round dumpling made from matzo] ▪ matzo meal [=flour made from ground matzo]

maud·lin /ˈmɑːdlən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : showing or expressing too much emotion especially in a foolish or annoying way ▪ He became maudlin and started crying like a child. ▪ a maudlin love story ▪ maudlin poetry maul /ˈmɑːl/ verb mauls; mauled; maul·ing [+ obj]

1 : to attack and injure (someone) in a way that cuts or tears skin : to attack (someone) and cause a bloody injury ▪ The girl was mauled (to death) by a dog. ▪ A bear killed one hiker and badly mauled the other. — often used figuratively ▪ a movie that has been mauled by the critics ▪ Many investors were badly mauled by the recession.
2 : to touch or handle (someone) in a rough sexual way ▪ She was mauled [=groped] by some drunk as she left the bar.
– mauling noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ The movie received a mauling from critics.

maun·der /ˈmɑːndɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der·ing [no obj] Brit : to talk for a long time in a boring way — often + on ▪ I apologize for maundering on like this.

Maun·dy Thursday /ˈmɑːndi-/ noun [singular] Christian religion : the Thursday before Easter mau·so·le·um /ˌmɑːsəˈliːjəm/ noun, pl -le·ums also -lea /-ˈliːjə/ [count] : a stone building with places for the dead bodies of several people or the body of an important person ▪ a family mausoleum

mauve /ˈmɑːv, ˈmoʊv/ noun, pl mauves [count, noncount] : a light or medium purple color — see color picture on page C3
– mauve adj

ma·ven /ˈmeɪvən/ noun, pl -vens [count] US : a person who knows a lot about a particular subject : EXPERT ▪ fashion/marketing mavens ▪ a wine maven

mav·er·ick /ˈmævrɪk/ noun, pl -icks [count] : a person who refuses to follow the customs or rules of a group ▪ He's always been a (bit of a) maverick in the world of fashion. ▪ political mavericks [=nonconformists]
– maverick adj, always used before a noun ▪ a maverick director/musician ▪ maverick lawyers

maw /ˈmɑː/ noun, pl maws [count] literary : the mouth, jaws, or throat of an animal ▪ the gaping maw of the tiger — often used figuratively ▪ the dark maw of the cave ▪ prisoners falling into the gaping maw of the criminal justice system

mawk·ish /ˈmɑːkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : sad or romantic in a foolish or exaggerated way ▪ a mawkish love story ▪ mawkish poetry
– mawk·ish·ly adv ▪ mawkishly romantic/sentimental – mawk·ish·ness noun [noncount]

[1]max /ˈmæks/ noun [singular] chiefly US, informal : the largest amount possible : MAXIMUM ▪ The boat can hold a max of 20 people. ▪ He bet the max. [=he bet the largest amount that he could] to the max informal : as much as possible ▪ The theater was filled to the max. [=it was completely filled] ▪ She had three tests in one day and was stressed to the max. [=extremely stressed]

[2]max adv, informal : at the most : MAXIMUM ▪ You'll need to wait two weeks max. [=you will not have to wait longer than

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 28 SESS: 28 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

two weeks] ▪ The boat can hold 20 people max. [=it can hold no more than 20 people]

[3]max verb max•es; maxed; max•ing

max out [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to reach an upper limit : to come to the highest level possible ▪ Most athletes max out before the age of 30. — often + at ▪ The car maxed out at 100 mph. [=the car could go no faster than 100 mph] ▪ Back in those days, teachers' salaries maxed out at $30,000 a year. 2 max (something) out or max out (something) a : to spend all of the money that your credit card allows you to borrow : to use up all available credit on (a credit card) ▪ She's maxed out three credit cards. b : to use or fill (something) as much as possible : to push (something) to a limit or an extreme ▪ The new increase in population has nearly maxed out the city's resources. [=has nearly used up all of the city's resources] ▪ The school is maxed out with students. [=the school does not have room for any more students] ▪ After years of competing, she has maxed out her potential as an ice-skater. ▪ Our schedule is maxed out [=is full] for this week.

max•im /ˈmæksəm/ noun, pl -ims [count] : a well-known phrase that expresses a general truth about life or a rule about behavior ▪ My mother's favorite maxim [=saying] was "Don't count your chickens before they hatch." [=don't assume that things will happen the way you expect them to happen]

max•i•mal /ˈmæksəməl/ adj, technical : greatest or highest possible ▪ a maximal heart rate
– max•i•mal•ly adv

max•i•mize also Brit max•i•mise /ˈmæksəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz•es; -mized; -miz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to increase (something) as much as possible : to increase (something) to a maximum ▪ The company is trying to maximize its profits. [=to make the most money possible]
2 : to use (something) in a way that will get the best result ▪ We planned out each day in order to maximize [=make the most of] our time on vacation. ▪ I rearranged the furniture to maximize the space in my small apartment. ▪ This program will teach you how to maximize your strengths while minimizing your weaknesses.
3 computers : to make (a program's window) very large : to make (a program's window) fill the screen of a computer — opposite MINIMIZE
– max•i•mi•za•tion also Brit max•i•mi•sa•tion /ˌmæksəməˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmæksəˌmaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ maximization of profits

[1]max•i•mum /ˈmæksəməm/ noun, pl max•i•mums or technical max•i•ma /-əmə/ [count] : the highest number or amount that is possible or allowed — usually singular ▪ Twenty years is the maximum. ▪ This security system gives you the maximum in protection. — often + of ▪ You may invite a maximum of 10 guests to the party. ▪ You may stay for a maximum of two weeks. ▪ She will serve a minimum of 10 and a maximum of 20 years in jail. — opposite MINIMUM

[2]maximum adj, always used before a noun : greatest possible in amount or degree ▪ He will receive the maximum (possible) punishment allowed by law. ▪ She took some maximum-strength medicine for her headache. ▪ The maximum number of points scored in one game is 100. ▪ shoes that are designed for maximum comfort ▪ What is the maximum occupancy of this room? [=what is the largest number of people who can legally be in this room at the same time?] ▪ a maximum security prison [=a prison that does as much as possible to keep prisoners from escaping and watches them very closely] — opposite MINIMUM

[3]maximum adv : at the most ▪ She will serve 20 years maximum in jail. [=she will not serve more than 20 years in jail]

may /ˈmeɪ/ verb [modal verb]
1 — used to indicate that something is possible or probable ▪ They may still succeed. ▪ Do you think they may [=can, could, might] still succeed? ▪ "Have they failed?" "They may have." = (Brit) "They may have done." [=it's possible that they failed] ▪ You may [=might, could] be right. ▪ If you work hard now, you may end up sitting in the boss's chair some day! ▪ What you see may (well/very well) surprise you. ▪ There may be some difficulties ahead. ▪ I think he may be trying to cheat us. ▪ It may possibly be true, mightn't it? [=(less formally) it could possibly be true, couldn't it?] ▪ May it not [=mightn't it, (less formally) couldn't it] after all turn out to be true? ▪ This vacation may [=might] not be so bad after all. ▪ When you're older, you may understand. ▪ We may go if they ask us, but then again we may not. ▪ As you may or may not have heard, we've won!
2 — used to say that one thing is true but something else is also true ▪ He may [=might] be slow, but he does very good work. = Slow though he may be, he (still) does very good work. [=although he's slow, he does very good work] ▪ It may [=might] be cold outside, but it's still a beautiful day. [=although it's cold outside, it's still a beautiful day] ▪ She may [=might] have been a great actress, but she was a terrible parent.
3 formal — used to indicate that something is allowed ▪ You may go now. [=you have permission to leave now] ▪ No one may enter without a ticket. ▪ The children may play wherever they choose. ▪ You may tell me your opinion, but I won't change my mind. — compare CAN 4b
4 formal — used to ask a question or make a request in a polite way ▪ "May [=might] I borrow your pen?" "Of course you may!" ▪ "May I help you," asked the waiter, "or are you already being served?" ▪ May I ask who is calling? ▪ "May I leave a little early today?" "No, you may not." — compare CAN 4a
5 formal — used to express a wish ▪ Long may the Queen reign! [=I hope the Queen will reign for a long time] ▪ May the best man win! ▪ May you have a long and happy life!
6 formal — used to make a polite suggestion ▪ You may [=might] want to think again and consider your options carefully. ▪ It may [=might] be wise to proceed cautiously.
7 formal — used in various polite expressions with I ▪ May I just say how pleased I am to be here. [=I would like to say how pleased I am to be here] ▪ If I may (interrupt you), would you please repeat the answer? ▪ I'd like to ask a question, if I may. ▪ This has been, if I may say so, one of the happiest days of my life.
8 formal + old-fashioned — used to indicate the reason for something or the purpose of something ▪ We exercise so that we may [=will] be strong and healthy. [=we exercise in order to be strong and healthy] ▪ I work hard so that my family may [=will] not go hungry.
be that as it may formal — used to introduce a statement that is somehow different from what has just been said ▪ There has been some improvement in the economy in recent months, but, be that as it may [=despite that, even so], many people are still looking for work.
– see also come what may at [1]COME

May /ˈmeɪ/ noun, pl Mays : the fifth month of the year [noncount] in (early/middle/mid-/late) May ▪ early/late in May ▪ We arrived on May the fourth. = (US) We arrived on May fourth. = We arrived on the fourth of May. ▪ April showers bring May flowers. [=rain in April causes flowers to bloom in May] ▪ Shakespeare called it "the merry month of May." [count] The last two Mays have been cold and rainy.

Ma•ya /ˈmajə/ noun, pl Maya or Ma•yas [count] : a member of a group of people living mostly in southern Mexico and Guatemala
– Ma•yan /ˈmajən/ adj ▪ Mayan culture ▪ the Mayan calendar

[1]may•be /ˈmeɪbi/ adv : possibly but not certainly : PERHAPS

> Maybe is a more informal word than perhaps. It is used when you are talking about an action that has a chance of happening in the future. ▪ Maybe we'll meet again. ▪ "Will you go to the party?" "I don't know. Maybe." ▪ "Will you go?" "Maybe, maybe not." ▪ Maybe I'll go and maybe I won't. ▪ They're hoping that she'll maybe change her mind. = They're hoping that maybe she'll change her mind. ▪ You should hear from them soon, maybe even by next week. = Maybe you'll hear from them by next week. It is also used to suggest something that is possibly correct, true, or proper. ▪ Maybe we should just stay here and wait. ▪ Maybe it would be better if you left. ▪ There were maybe 10,000 fans at the game. ▪ I got three, maybe four hours [=about three or four hours] of sleep last night. ▪ Maybe it's time to stop fooling around. ▪ We waited an hour, maybe more. ▪ Did you ever think that maybe, just maybe, it wasn't his fault? [=although it seems like it was his fault, did you ever consider the possibility that it wasn't?] And maybe can be used to say that one thing is true but that something else is also true. ▪ Maybe at first I didn't like her, but now she's one of my best friends. ▪ Maybe he's slow [=he may be slow], but he does very good work. ▪ Her accomplishments are impressive, maybe, but she's had a lot of help.

[2]maybe noun, pl -bes [count] : something that is not known for certain ▪ There are too many maybes [=uncertainties] about this project.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 29 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

May•day /ˈmeɪˌdeɪ/ — a word used to call for help when an airplane or ship is in danger ▪ The pilot shouted "Mayday! Mayday!" over the radio. — compare SOS

May Day /ˈmeɪˌdeɪ/ noun [singular] : May 1 celebrated in many countries as a spring festival and in some countries as a holiday in honor of working people may•fly /ˈmeɪˌflaɪ/ noun, pl -flies [count] : a small flying insect that lives for only a short time — see color picture on page C10 may•hem /ˈmeɪˌhɛm/ noun [noncount] : actions that hurt people and destroy things : a scene or situation that involves a lot of violence ▪ movies filled with murder and mayhem ▪ committing mayhem ▪ a criminal who escaped from prison and caused mayhem — often used figuratively ▪ musical mayhem ▪ There was mayhem [=a lot of excited activity] on the field after the winning goal was scored.

mayo /ˈmejoʊ/ noun [noncount] informal : MAYONNAISE ▪ She ordered a turkey sandwich and told the waiter to hold the mayo. [=to not include mayonnaise on the sandwich]

may•on•naise /ˈmejəˌneɪz/ noun [noncount]
1 : a thick, white sauce used especially in salads and on sandwiches and made chiefly of eggs, vegetable oil, and vinegar or lemon juice
2 Brit : a food made by mixing something (such as chopped eggs) with mayonnaise ▪ egg mayonnaise [=(US) egg salad] ▪ tuna mayonnaise [=(US) tuna salad]

may•or /ˈmejə/ noun, pl -ors [count]
1 : an official who is elected to be the head of the government of a city or town ▪ the mayor of New York
2 : a British official who represents a city or borough at public events — see also LORD MAYOR
– may•or•al /ˈmejərəl/ adj ▪ mayoral elections

may•or•al•ty /ˈmejərəlti/ noun, pl -ties formal
1 [noncount] : the time during which a person is mayor ▪ During her mayoralty, the mayor greatly improved the city.
2 [count] : the job or position of being mayor ▪ He won the mayoralty in the last two elections.

may•or•ess /ˈmejərəs, Brit ˈmɛərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] Brit
1 : a woman who is a mayor
2 : the wife or official hostess of a mayor

May•pole or May•pole /ˈmeɪˌpoʊl/ noun, pl -poles [count] : a tall pole decorated with ribbons and flowers that forms a center for the spring festival held on May 1

maze /ˈmeɪz/ noun, pl maz•es [count]
1 : a complicated and confusing system of connected passages ▪ The garden includes a maze. [=an area where there are tall walls or hedges on both sides of a path that keeps turning in different directions so that a person walking on the path cannot see where the path leads] ▪ The experiment measured the time it took for a mouse to find its way through a maze to get its reward of cheese. ▪ The school is a maze of classrooms. ▪ I bought a book of mazes. [=a book of puzzles that are drawings which look like mazes]
2 : a confusing collection or mixture of things (such as rules) ▪ a maze of rules and regulations

Mb abbr megabit

MB abbr 1 megabyte 2 chiefly Brit Bachelor of Medicine

M.B.A. or MBA abbr Master of Business Administration ▪ He earned an M.B.A. from Harvard.

MC /ˌɛmˈsi:/ noun, pl MC's or MCs [count] : MASTER OF CEREMONIES

McCoy /məˈkɔɪ/ noun
the real McCoy also US the McCoy informal : something or someone that is real or genuine : something or someone that is not a copy or imitation ▪ Is that a fake gun, or is it the real McCoy? [=is it a real gun?] ▪ These diamonds look like the real McCoy, but they could be fake. ▪ To help her play the role of a lawyer, the actress studied with the real McCoy. [=with an actual lawyer] ▪ Maybe he's the McCoy, and maybe he's not.

MD abbr 1 or US M.D. Doctor of Medicine 2 Maryland 3 Brit Managing Director

[1]me /ˈmi:/ pronoun, objective case of I — used to refer to the speaker as the indirect object or direct object of a verb ▪ She gave me a book. ▪ They baked me a cake. ▪ He sent me an e-mail. ▪ They know me very well. ▪ Can you help me? ▪ She visited me in the hospital. — used to refer to the speaker as the object of a preposition ▪ Are you talking to me? ▪ Please come with me. ▪ He talked with me for an hour.

usage In ordinary speech me is used instead of I after the verb to be. ▪ "Who's there?" "It's me." [="I am."] ▪ Why is it always me who has to do the dirty work? [=why am I always the one who has to do the dirty work?] ▪ This dress is pretty, but it's not really me. [=it doesn't look like the clothes I usually wear; it doesn't look right for me] Me is also used alone without a verb in spoken questions, answers, etc. ▪ "Who's there?" "Me." ▪ "Who did it?" "Not me!" ▪ "Come here!" "Who? Me?" "Yes, you!" "Why me?" ▪ "I'm hungry." "Me too." The expression It is I is extremely formal and old-fashioned and is unlikely to be used in speech except in a joking way. Me is also sometimes used in very informal speech in place of I if the subject of a sentence has two parts that are connected by and. ▪ My brother and me went camping last weekend. = Me and my brother went camping last weekend. But in ordinary polite use, I is required in such sentences. ▪ My brother and I went camping last weekend.

– see also me either at [4]EITHER, me neither at [4]EITHER

[2]me chiefly Brit spelling of MI

[1]ME /ˌɛmˈi:/ noun [noncount] Brit, medical : CHRONIC FATIGUE SYNDROME ✧ ME is an abbreviation of "myalgic encephalomyelitis."

[2]ME abbr 1 Maine 2 US medical examiner mea cul•pa /ˌmejəˈkʊlpə/ noun, pl mea cul•pas [count] : a statement in which you say that something is your fault ▪ The mayor's public mea culpa didn't satisfy his critics. ▪ (humorous) Okay, so maybe I misjudged you. Mea culpa!

mead /ˈmi:d/ noun [noncount] : an alcoholic drink made from honey mead•ow /ˈmɛdoʊ/ noun, pl -ows [count] : a usually flat area of land that is covered with tall grass mead•ow•lark /ˈmɛdoʊˌlɑəːk/ noun, pl -larks [count] : a North American bird that has a brown back and a yellow breast mea•ger (US) or Brit mea•gre /ˈmi:gə/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very small or too small in amount ▪ Every morning he eats a meager breakfast of toast and coffee. ▪ We'll have to do the best we can with this year's meager harvest. ▪ meager wages ▪ She came to this country with a fairly meager English vocabulary, but she is learning more words every day.
2 : not having enough of something (such as money or food) for comfort or happiness ▪ They suffered through several meager years at the beginning of their marriage. ▪ Although she's now rich and famous, she remembers her meager beginnings as a child from a poor family.
– mea•ger•ly adv ▪ They lived meagerly in order to save money. – mea•ger•ness noun [noncount] synonyms MEAGER, SCANTY, and SPARSE mean not having enough of what is normal, necessary, or wanted. MEAGER suggests a lack of good or necessary things. ▪ They lived on a meager diet of rice and vegetables. ▪ She earned a meager income of five dollars a day. SCANTY stresses that something is not large enough in size or amount. ▪ She was wearing a scanty black dress. ▪ We had a scanty supply of water. SPARSE suggests a small number of things or people that are far apart. ▪ His hair had become white and sparse. ▪ It's a large country with a sparse population.

[1]meal /ˈmi:l/ noun, pl meals [count]
1 : the foods eaten or prepared for eating at one time ▪ He eats/has three full meals a day. ▪ Dad cooked/prepared/made a delicious meal of chicken and potatoes. ▪ The waitress served our meal. ▪ a three-course meal ▪ This soup is a meal in itself. [=all that is needed for a meal] — see also SQUARE MEAL
2 : a time or occasion when food is eaten : the act or time of eating a meal ▪ Breakfast is her favorite meal. ▪ the midday/evening meal ▪ She makes us drink a glass of milk at every meal. ▪ We went to Grandma's for a big holiday meal. ▪ If you want to lose weight, don't eat between meals.
make a meal (out) of 1 : to eat (a particular food) as your meal without anything else ▪ This bread is so good, I could make a meal of it. 2 Brit, informal : to do (something) in a way that makes it seem more important or difficult than it really is ▪ It's not all that hard, you know! Don't make a meal of it!
– compare [2]MEAL

[2]meal noun [noncount]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 30 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

1 : a coarse flour made from ground seeds — see also CORNMEAL
2 : something that looks or feels like meal — see also BONEMEAL
– compare [1]MEAL

meals–on–wheels noun — used as the name of a service that delivers meals to the homes of old or sick people who are unable to prepare their own meals meal ticket noun, pl ~ -ets [count]

1 informal : a person or thing that is depended on as a source of money, success, etc. ▪ a star player who is expected to be the team's meal ticket for many years ▪ An advanced degree was his meal ticket.
2 : a piece of paper that you can exchange for a meal ▪ We bought three meal tickets at the fair.

meal•time /ˈmi:lˌtaɪm/ noun, pl -times : the usual time when a meal is eaten [noncount] Take one pill at mealtime. [count] The two children have different mealtimes.

mealy /ˈmi:li/ adj meal•i•er; -est : feeling rough and dry in your mouth ▪ the mealy flesh of a pear ▪ a mealy potato – meal•i•ness noun [noncount]

mealy•mouthed /ˈmi:liˌmaʊðd/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : not willing to tell the truth in clear and simple language ▪ a mealymouthed politician

[1]mean /ˈmi:n/ verb means; meant /ˈmɛnt/; mean•ing
1 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to have (a particular meaning) ▪ What does this word mean in English? = What is meant in English by this word? ▪ The word meant one thing in Shakespeare's day, but it means something else now. ▪ The abbreviation "U.S." means [=stands for] "United States." ▪ Red means "stop" and green means "go." ▪ Can you tell me what my dream means? ▪ "Bonjour" is a French word meaning "hello." = "Bonjour" is a French word that means "hello."
2 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to want or intend to express (a particular idea or meaning) ▪ I meant what I said. [=I was sincere when I said it] ▪ What was meant by the poet? ▪ Don't distort what she meant by taking her words out of context. ▪ When she says the play was "interesting," she means (that) it wasn't very good. ▪ He's very ambitious, and I mean that as a compliment. ▪ It's a very easy question. Anyone, and I mean anyone, should be able to answer it. ▪ You hold it like this. (Do you) See what I mean? [=do you understand what I'm showing you?] ▪ She's not getting any thinner, if you know/get what I mean. ▪ "He can be a little difficult. (Do you) Know what I mean?" ▪ "He can be a little difficult." "What/How do you mean?" = "Meaning?" [=what exactly do you mean when you say that?] ▪ "He can be a little difficult." "I know what you mean." [=I agree] ▪ "He can be a little difficult." "What's that supposed to mean?" [=I am surprised that you would say that; I don't agree with what you are saying]
3 [+ obj] : to have (something) in your mind as a purpose or goal ▪ Just what do you mean (by) coming into my room without knocking? [=what is your reason for coming into my room without knocking?] ▪ She says she didn't mean anything by what she did. ▪ She didn't mean (you) any harm. = She meant no harm (to you). [=she did not intend to cause any harm (to you)] ▪ I'm sorry if I hurt your feelings. I meant (you) no offense/disrespect. ▪ I don't trust him. He means no good. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He didn't mean [=intend] to do any harm. ▪ She means to win. ▪ I keep meaning to visit you—I just never seem to get around to it. ▪ He says he never meant to hurt her.
4 not used in progressive tenses a : to plan for or want (someone or something) to do or to be something [+ obj] — often + as ▪ His comment was meant [=intended] as a joke. — often followed by to + verb ▪ We meant her to come with us. ▪ She meant her remarks to be funny. ▪ "What you said hurt his feelings!" "Well, I meant it to!" [no obj] (chiefly US) — + for ▪ We meant for her to come with us. b [+ obj] : to want (something that you control, provide, or have made) to be used for a particular purpose or by a particular person — often + for ▪ I meant [=intended] the flowers for you, not for your sister. ▪ The book was meant for children, but it is popular with adults too. ▪ His criticism is meant for all of us. — often followed by to + verb ▪ They meant the book to be a present. — sometimes + as ▪ They meant the book as a present.
5 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] : to make a statement to or about (someone) ▪ "Hey, you!" "I'm sorry: do you mean me?" [=are you talking to me?] ▪ "Some people here are too bossy!" "Do you mean me?" [=are you referring to me?]
6 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] a : to indicate or show (something that is going to happen) ▪ Those clouds mean rain. = Those clouds mean (that) it's going to rain. ▪ When he gets that angry look in his eyes, you know it means trouble. [=you know that there will be trouble] b : to cause or result in (something) ▪ The bad weather could mean further delays. c : to involve or require (something) as a necessary part ▪ Becoming a concert pianist means practicing a lot. [=if you're going to become a concert pianist you have to practice a lot] ▪ I'll get the work done today even if it means staying late.
7 not used in progressive tenses [+ obj] — used to say or ask how important something is to someone; usually + to ▪ How much does your health mean to you? [=how important is your health to you?] ▪ It means a lot to me to know that you believe me. ▪ "I believe you." "Thank you. You don't know how much that means to me." ▪ Your good opinion means a great deal to me. ▪ He claims that money means nothing to him. [=that he does not care at all about money] ▪ Her words meant nothing to me. [=I did not care what she said] ▪ I thought our friendship meant something to you. [=I thought that you cared about our friendship] ▪ His wife means everything to him. = His wife means the world to him. [=he loves his wife very much]
I mean informal 1 — used to emphasize a statement ▪ He has to stop drinking. I mean, he's going to kill himself if he keeps it up. ▪ He throws, I mean, really hard! 2 — used to correct a previous statement ▪ We met in Toronto—I mean Montreal. 3 — used when you are unsure of what to say or how to say it ▪ I'm not mad. It's just that, I mean, I think you've been acting a little selfishly.
know what it means : to understand what it is like to do or be something ▪ I know what it means to be poor. — usually used in negative statements ▪ You don't know what it means to be truly alone. — sometimes used in an exaggerated way to make a forceful statement ▪ I don't know what it means to surrender! [=I will never surrender]
mean business see BUSINESS meant for (someone) informal : perfectly suited for (someone) ▪ You were meant for me and I was meant for you. ▪ I'm not surprised that they have such a happy marriage. I always knew that they were meant for each other. — see also [1]MEAN 4b (above) meant to be/do something 1 : intended to do or be something ▪ I was never meant to teach. ▪ They knew as soon as they met that they were meant to be together. ▪ I thought we could be friends, but I guess it just wasn't meant to be. [=it was not destined to happen] 2 Brit : supposed to be or do something ▪ The buses are meant [=expected] to arrive every 15 minutes. ▪ Brighton is meant to be very beautiful at this time of year. [=people say that Brighton is very beautiful at this time of year] mean well : to want to do good or helpful things : to have good intentions ▪ He means well, but he's not really helping anyone. — see also WELL-MEANING

[2]mean adj mean•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 somewhat informal a : not kind to people : cruel or harsh ▪ My boss is a mean and nasty old man who treats everyone badly. ▪ the mean stepmother in the fairy tale ▪ Why are you being so mean to me? [=why are you treating me so harshly?] ▪ It was mean of them not to invite her to the party. ▪ Someone played a mean trick on her. ▪ He has a mean streak. b chiefly US : very dangerous : VICIOUS ▪ a mean dog
2 chiefly Brit : not liking to spend money : STINGY, CHEAP ▪ He's a mean man who never gives presents to anyone. ▪ He's very mean with his money.
3 old-fashioned + literary : of poor quality or status ▪ mean city streets ▪ living in mean circumstances
4 chiefly US, informal : excellent or impressive ▪ He plays a mean trumpet. = He's a mean trumpet player. [=he plays the trumpet very well] ▪ an athlete who describes himself as a lean, mean scoring machine ▪ We wanted our business to be lean and mean. [=to be efficient and successful] no mean informal — used to say that something is good or impressive ▪ a tennis player of no mean ability [=a very good tennis player] ▪ Getting the project done on time will be no mean feat. [=will be a difficult and impressive accomplishment]
– compare [3]MEAN
– mean•ly /ˈmi:nli/ adv ▪ behaving/living meanly ▪ a meanly ambitious man – mean•ness /ˈmi:nnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the meanness of her character ▪ meanness of spirit

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 31 SESS: 29 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[3]mean adj, always used before a noun : occurring exactly between the highest and lowest number : AVERAGE ▪ the mean temperature — compare [2]MEAN

[4]mean noun, pl means [count]
1 : [1]AVERAGE 1 ▪ Take all these temperatures and calculate/find their mean.
2 : a middle point between two things ▪ trying to find a golden mean between doing too little and doing too much
– see also MEANS

me•an•der /miˈændɚ/ verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [no obj]
1 : to have a lot of curves instead of going in a straight or direct line : to follow a winding course ▪ The path meanders through the garden. ▪ a meandering stream
2 : to walk slowly without a specific goal, purpose, or direction ▪ We meandered around/through the village.
3 : to go from one topic to another without any clear direction ▪ The conversation meandered on for hours. ▪ He delivered a meandering [=rambling] speech about his early career.
– me•an•der noun, pl -ders [count] ▪ We went for a meander in the park.

mean•ie /ˈmi:ni/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : a mean or unkind person — used especially by children ▪ You're nothing but a big meanie!

mean•ing /ˈmi:nɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings
1 : the idea that is represented by a word, phrase, etc. [count] What is the precise/exact meaning of this word in English? ▪ Many words have developed more than one meaning. [=sense] ▪ an old word that has taken on a new meaning ▪ The word has both literal meanings and figurative meanings. [noncount] a word with various shades of meaning
2 a : the idea that a person wants to express by using words, signs, etc. [count] Don't distort her meaning by taking her words out of context. ▪ Do you get my meaning? = (chiefly Brit) Do you take my meaning? [=do you understand what I'm telling you?] ▪ I didn't understand the meaning of his remark/gesture. [noncount] a glance full of meaning [=a meaningful glance] b : the idea that is expressed in a work of writing, art, etc. [count] Literary critics disagree about the meanings of his poems. [noncount] a poem with subtle shades of meaning
3 [noncount] a : the true purpose of something ▪ What is the meaning of life? ▪ It's a story about the true meaning of Christmas. b : a quality that gives something real value and importance ▪ He began to feel that his life had lost its meaning. ▪ a life without meaning = a life devoid of meaning [=a meaningless life] ▪ Working with children has given her life new meaning. c : the reason or explanation for something ▪ What is the meaning of this intrusion?
know the meaning of (something) : to understand (something) because you have experienced it ▪ I know the meaning of loneliness. [=I know what it is like to be lonely] — often used in negative statements ▪ Those people don't know the meaning of hard work. — often used in an exaggerated way to make a forceful statement ▪ He doesn't know the meaning of fear. [=he is very brave] ▪ I'll never stop trying. I don't know the meaning of the word "failure." [=I am determined not to fail] mean•ing•ful /ˈmi:nɪŋfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having a clear meaning ▪ The test did not produce any meaningful results.
2 : expressing an emotion or idea without words ▪ She looked at him in a meaningful way. ▪ a meaningful expression/glance/pause
3 : having real importance or value ▪ He wanted to feel that his job was meaningful. ▪ The trip turned out to be very meaningful for/to both of them. ▪ a meaningful relationship/discussion – mean•ing•ful•ly adv ▪ She paused meaningfully before answering the question. – mean•ing•ful•ness noun [noncount]

mean•ing•less /ˈmi:nɪŋləs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having no meaning ▪ a meaningless phrase
2 : having no real importance or value ▪ He felt that his work was meaningless. ▪ The movie was filled with meaningless violence. ▪ Their offer to help us was just a meaningless [=empty] gesture.
– mean•ing•less•ly adv ▪ a meaninglessly violent movie – mean•ing•less•ness noun [noncount]

means /ˈmi:nz/ noun, pl means
1 [count] : a way of doing something or of achieving a desired result ▪ trains, buses, and other means of transportation ▪ a means of communication/expression ▪ using fingerprints as a means of identification ▪ "What's the best means of getting there?" "Public transportation." ▪ The property was obtained by illegal means. ▪ He vowed that he would succeed by any means necessary. [=by doing whatever was needed] ▪ He would use all/any manner of means to succeed. ▪ For her, marrying a rich man was just a means to an end. [=something done only to produce a desired result] All she really cared about was money. ▪ How can she survive when she has no visible means of support? [=she has no apparent way to pay for the things that she needs to live] — see also WAYS AND MEANS, the end justifies the means at [1]END
2 [plural] : the money that someone has : WEALTH ▪ He has the means to give you everything you want. ▪ His means are enough to pay for college. ▪ a man/woman of means [=a wealthy man/woman] ▪ She is a woman of independent means. [=she has enough money to support herself without help from others] ▪ He enjoys a style of living that is beyond the means of all but the wealthiest people. [=that only the wealthiest people can afford] ▪ She was living beyond her means. [=she was spending more money than she could afford to spend] ▪ He began to save money when he finally learned to live within his means. [=to spend money only on what he could afford] by all means : of course : CERTAINLY ▪ "May I come in?" "By all means!" ▪ By all means feel free to get a second opinion.
by means of : through the use of (something) ▪ He got out of trouble by means of a clever trick.
by no means or not by any means also not by any manner of means : in no way : not at all ▪ It's by no means certain that he'll come. = It's not by any means certain that he'll come. ▪ This is by no means the first time we have had this problem. ▪ I was not happy about the arrangements by any means, but I agreed to do it. ▪ This issue has not been resolved yet by any manner of means.

mean–spir•it•ed /ˈmi:nˈspirətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a cruel desire to cause harm or pain ▪ a mean-spirited person ▪ a mean-spirited book review means test noun, pl ~ tests [count] : a process done to find out the amount of money a person has in order to see if that person qualifies for government assistance – means–test•ed /ˈmi:nzˈtɛstəd/ adj ▪ a means-tested program ▪ means-tested assistance/benefits [=assistance/benefits based on the results of a means test]

meant past tense and past participle of [1]MEAN

[1]mean•time /ˈmi:nˌtaɪm/ noun
for the meantime : for the present time : until some time in the future ▪ You should continue to take the medicine for the meantime. [=for now] in the meantime 1 : during the time before something happens or before a specified period ends ▪ He can come back to work when he's feeling better, but in the meantime he should be resting as much as possible. ▪ The project is scheduled for completion in three months, and there's a great deal of work to be done in the meantime. ▪ The new computers won't arrive until next week, but we can keep using the old ones in the meantime. 2 : while something else is being done or was being done ▪ She spent four years studying for her law degree. In the meantime, she continued to work at the bank.

[2]meantime adv, somewhat informal : [1]MEANWHILE ▪ He can come back to work when he's feeling better. Meantime, he should be resting as much as possible.

[1]mean•while /ˈmi:nˌwajəl/ adv : at or during the same time : in the meantime ▪ You can set the table. Meanwhile, I'll start making dinner. ▪ She spent four years studying for her law degree. Meanwhile, she continued to work at the bank. ▪ He can come back to work when he's feeling better, but meanwhile he should be resting as much as possible.

[2]meanwhile noun
in the meanwhile : at or during the same time : in the meantime ▪ The new computers won't arrive until next week, but we can keep using the old ones in the meanwhile.

mea•sles /ˈmi:zəlz/ noun [noncount] : a disease that causes a fever and red spots on the skin ▪ He has (the) measles. ▪ get/catch the measles — see also GERMAN MEASLES mea•sly /ˈmi:zli/ adj mea•sli•er; -est informal + disapproving : very small or too small in size or amount ▪ He left a measly [=lousy] dime for a tip. ▪ She complained about being given such a measly raise. ▪ All I want is a few measly minutes of your time.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 32 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mea•sur•able /ˈmɛʒərəbəl/ adj : large enough to be measured or noticed ▪ We haven't had a measurable amount of rain in the past several weeks. ▪ There has been a measurable [=significant] improvement in the company's performance.
– mea•sur•ably /ˈmɛʒərəbli/ adv ▪ His job performance has improved measurably.

[1]mea•sure /ˈmɛʒə/ noun, pl -sures
1 : an amount or degree of something [count] She felt equal measures of hope and fear. — usually singular ▪ The province has gained a large measure of freedom. ▪ Their children want a greater measure of independence. [=they want more independence] ▪ The coating provides a measure of protection [=provides some protection] against corrosion. ▪ The proposal has been met with a measure [=a certain amount] of skepticism. ▪ The alarm system provides an added measure of security. [=provides more security] [noncount] The show mixes comedy and drama in equal measure. [=in equal amounts] ▪ He returned their hostility in full measure. [=he was as hostile toward them as they were toward him] ▪ The company's success is due in no small measure to her talents. [=its success is largely due to her talents] ▪ Their actions were motivated in large measure by a desire for revenge. ▪ An occasion like this calls for some measure of decorum.
2 [count] a : something (such as a cup or a ruler) that is used to measure things — see also TAPE MEASURE b : a unit used in measuring something ▪ The meter is a measure of length. ▪ The dictionary includes a table of weights and measures. — see also MADE-TO-MEASURE
3 [count] : an action planned or taken to achieve a desired result ▪ The legislature has passed a measure aimed at protecting consumers. ▪ The governor has proposed a number of cost-cutting measures. ▪ They were forced to resort to desperate/extreme measures. ▪ protective/punitive/preventive measures ▪ We need to take measures to protect ourselves.
4 [count] : a sign or indication of something — usually singular ▪ Wealth is not a measure of happiness. ▪ Her willingness to compromise is a measure of how much she's changed.
5 [count] : a way of judging something ▪ The company is a success by any measure. ▪ Are IQ tests the best measure of intelligence?
6 [count] chiefly US, music : a part of a line of written music that is between two vertical lines or the group of beats between these lines ▪ a brief clarinet solo in the third measure ▪ Can you hum a few measures [=bars] of that song?
beyond measure formal : to a very great degree ▪ an artist who is talented beyond (all) measure [=who is exceptionally talented] ▪ Her joy was beyond measure. [=she was very happy] for good measure : as something added or extra ▪ He performed his most recent songs, and then threw in a couple of old ones for good measure.
have/take/get the measure of (someone) or have/take/get someone's measure chiefly Brit : to have or get a good understanding about what is needed to defeat or deal with (someone you are competing against) ▪ She failed to take the measure of her opponent. [=she failed to realize how good her opponent was]

[2]measure verb -sures; -sured; -sur•ing
1 [+ obj] a : to find out the size, length, or amount of (something) ▪ using a ruler to measure a piece of paper ▪ an instrument for measuring air pressure ▪ I measured [=estimated] the distance with my eye. ▪ mental abilities measured by IQ testing b : to find out the size of (someone) for clothing ▪ He's being measured for a new suit.
2 [+ obj] : to judge the importance, value, or extent of (something) ▪ It's difficult to measure [=evaluate] the importance of these events. ▪ His success cannot be measured solely on the basis of his popularity. — often + against ▪ Her accomplishments need to be measured against [=compared with] those of her predecessor.
3 [linking verb] : to have a specified size ▪ The cloth measures 3 meters. ▪ The room measures 15 feet wide by 30 feet long.
measure off [phrasal verb] measure off (something) also measure (something) off : to measure (something) and mark its edges or its beginning and ending ▪ They measured off a half-acre plot for the house lot. ▪ He measured off three yards of cloth.
measure out [phrasal verb] measure out (something) also measure (something) out : to measure and remove (something) from a larger amount ▪ She carefully measured out three cups of flour.
measure up [phrasal verb] : to be as good as expected or needed ▪ His early works were promising, but his recent films haven't measured up. [=his recent films haven't been as good as his early ones] — often + to ▪ His recent films haven't measured up to his earlier works. ▪ Her work didn't measure up to our expectations. [=was not as good as we expected it to be]
– mea•sur•er /ˈmɛʒərə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

mea•sured /ˈmɛʒəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : done with thought and care ▪ This crisis requires a measured response. ▪ She spoke in carefully measured tones.

mea•sure•less /ˈmɛʒələs/ adj : too great or large to be measured ▪ the measureless [=immeasurable] universe ▪ She seems to have measureless [=boundless] energy.

mea•sure•ment /ˈmɛʒəmənt/ noun, pl -ments
1 [noncount] : the act or process of measuring something ▪ The test is for the measurement of a student's progress. ▪ Carpentry requires careful measurement. ▪ The instruments provide accurate measurement of atmospheric conditions.
2 [count] : a size, length, or amount known by measuring something ▪ The room's measurements are 30 by 15 feet. ▪ The instruments are used for taking measurements of atmospheric conditions. ▪ Accurate measurements are required in carpentry. ▪ The tailor took his measurements, and his waist measurement is 36 inches.

measuring cup noun, pl ~ cups [count] US : a cup that has markings for measuring ingredients when cooking; also : a cup that holds a particular amount of an ingredient used in cooking ▪ a set of measuring cups ranging from ¼ cup to 1 cup — see picture at KITCHEN; compare MEASURING JUG measuring jug noun, pl ~ jugs [count] Brit : a cup that has markings for measuring liquids when cooking — compare MEASURING CUP measuring tape noun, pl ~ tapes [count] : TAPE MEASURE

meat /ˈmi:t/ noun, pl meats
1 a [noncount] : the flesh of an animal used as food ▪ She doesn't eat meat. ▪ a piece/slice of meat ▪ raw meat ▪ (US) ground meat ▪ meat sauce [=sauce that contains meat] ✧ Meat often refers specifically to the flesh of mammals or birds instead of the flesh of fish. It can also sometimes refer only to the flesh of mammals. ▪ She eats fish but not meat. ▪ The soup can be made with meat, chicken, or fish. b [count] : a type of meat ▪ The restaurant serves a variety of meats. ▪ sandwich meats — see also DARK MEAT, LUNCHEON MEAT, WHITE MEAT
2 [noncount] : the part of something (such as a nut) that can be eaten ▪ coconut meat
3 [noncount] : the most important or interesting part of something ▪ The real meat of the book is found in its discussion of his economic plan.
4 [noncount] US : the thickest part of something (such as a baseball bat) ▪ He hit the ball right on the meat of the bat.
– see also DEAD MEAT

meat and potatoes noun [noncount] US, informal : the most basic or important part of something : MEAT ▪ Basic conservation is still the meat and potatoes of their environmental plan. ▪ the meat and potatoes of the contract/argument meat–and–potatoes adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal 1 : of, relating to, or preferring simple food (such as meat and potatoes) instead of fancy food ▪ a meat-and-potatoes diet ▪ The restaurant appeals to the meat-and-potatoes crowd. ▪ I'm a meat-and-potatoes guy.

2 : ordinary or simple ▪ meat-and-potatoes rock and roll meat•ball /ˈmi:tˌbɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls [count] : a small ball of chopped or ground meat ▪ spaghetti and meatballs meat•head /ˈmi:tˌhɛd/ noun, pl -heads [count] informal : a stupid person ▪ Her brother's a real meathead.

meat loaf noun, pl ~ loaves also ~ loafs [count, noncount] : meat that is chopped in very small pieces, mixed with spices, chopped onions, eggs, etc., and baked in the form of a loaf ▪ a slice of meat loaf

meat market noun, pl ~ -kets [count]
1 : a place where meat is sold
2 US, informal : a place where people are judged only on the basis of their physical qualities (such as sexual attractiveness or athletic ability) ▪ That bar/club is a real meat market. ▪ The scouting camp is a meat market for pro football candidates.

meat•pack•ing /ˈmi:tˌpækɪŋ/ noun [noncount] US : the business of killing animals for meat and getting the meat

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 33 SESS: 30 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

ready to be sold — often used before another noun ▪ the meatpacking industry/business meaty /ˈmi:ti/ adj meat•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : of, relating to, or resembling meat ▪ meaty flavors/aromas ▪ a meaty hunk of fish ▪ The mushrooms have a meaty texture. b : having or including a large amount of meat ▪ meaty bones ▪ a meaty diet/stew
2 : large and heavy or thick with flesh or muscles ▪ an athlete with meaty forearms/hands
3 : having a lot of interesting ideas or information ▪ a meaty novel ▪ an actor auditioning for a meaty role ▪ The meatiest part of the book is the historical background it gives.
– meat•i•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the meatiness of the stew

mec•ca /ˈmɛkə/ noun, pl -cas
1 Mecca [singular] : a city in Saudi Arabia that was the birthplace of Muhammad and is the holiest city of Islam
2 [count] : a place that attracts many people ▪ The valley is a mecca for wine lovers. ▪ The town has become a mecca for tourists. ▪ tourist meccas

me•chan•ic /mɪˈkænɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who repairs machines (such as car engines) and keeps them running properly ▪ an automotive mechanic — see also MECHANICS

me•chan•i•cal /mɪˈkænɪkəl/ adj
1 a : of or relating to machinery ▪ The flight was delayed because of mechanical problems/difficulties. ▪ a mechanical failure/breakdown ▪ I was impressed by her mechanical know-how. ▪ He's a mechanical genius. [=he is a person who is very smart about machines] ▪ mechanical parts/components b : having or using machinery ▪ a mechanical toy/clock/device
2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : happening or done without thought or without any effort to be different or interesting ▪ She gave a mechanical reply. ▪ Copying down the numbers is a boring and mechanical job. ▪ The actor gave a stiff and mechanical performance.
3 technical : of or relating to physical energy and forces : relating to the science of mechanics ▪ mechanical properties
– me•chan•i•cal•ly /mɪˈkænɪkli/ adv ▪ a mechanically complex apparatus ▪ He's not mechanically inclined. [=he is not knowledgeable about machinery]

mechanical drawing noun, pl ~ -ings US : drawing done by using special instruments that allow you to draw a machine, building, etc., in a very precise and accurate way [noncount] She's taking a class in mechanical drawing. [count] a detailed series of mechanical drawings mechanical engineering noun [noncount] : a type of engineering that is mainly concerned with the use of machines in industry – mechanical engineer noun, pl ~ -neers [count]

mechanical pencil noun, pl ~ -cils [count] US : a pencil made of metal or plastic with a lead that is moved forward by a mechanical device — called also (Brit) propelling pencil

me•chan•ics /mɪˈkænɪks/ noun
1 [noncount] : a science that deals with physical energy and forces and their effect on objects — see also QUANTUM MECHANICS 2 [plural] : the details about how something works or is done ▪ the mechanics of running ▪ He still has a lot to learn about the mechanics of running a business.

mech•a•nism /ˈmɛkəˌnɪzəm/ noun, pl -nisms [count]
1 : a piece of machinery : a mechanical part or group of parts having a particular function ▪ The camera's shutter mechanism is broken. ▪ a timing/locking mechanism
2 : a process or system that is used to produce a particular result ▪ Scientists are studying the body's mechanisms for controlling weight. ▪ There is no mechanism in place for enforcing the new law. ▪ a legal mechanism to prevent lobbyists from exerting unfair influence
3 : a way of acting, thinking, or behaving that helps or protects a person in a specified way ▪ a coping/survival mechanism ▪ psychological mechanisms for dealing with a tragic loss — see also DEFENSE MECHANISM, ESCAPE MECHANISM

mech•a•nize also Brit mech•a•nise /ˈmɛkəˌnaɪz/ verb -niz•es; -nized; -niz•ing [+ obj] : to change (a process or an activity) so that it is done with machines instead of by people or animals ▪ an invention that helped to mechanize agriculture
– mech•a•ni•za•tion also Brit mech•a•ni•sa•tion /ˌmɛkənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɛkəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the mechanization of the industry – mechanized also Brit mechanised adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a highly mechanized industry

[1]med /ˈmɛd/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, informal : [1]MEDICAL ▪ med school ▪ med students

[2]med noun, pl meds [count] chiefly US, informal : MEDICATION 1 — usually plural ▪ He stopped taking his meds.

[3]med abbr medium

Med abbr Mediterranean

MEd abbr master of education

[1]med•al /ˈmɛdl/ noun, pl -als [count] : a piece of metal often in the form of a coin with designs and words in honor of a special event, a person, or an achievement ▪ He was awarded a medal for his heroism. — see also BRONZE MEDAL, GOLD MEDAL, MEDAL OF HONOR, SILVER MEDAL

medal

[2]medal verb -als; US -aled or chiefly Brit -alled; US -al•ing or chiefly Brit -al•ling [no obj] : to win a medal ▪ She medaled in figure skating in the Olympics.

med•al•ist (US) or chiefly Brit med•al•list /ˈmɛdlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who receives or wins a medal ▪ an Olympic medalist me•dal•lion /məˈdæljən/ noun, pl -lions [count]

1 : a large medal
2 : a decoration that is shaped like a large medal
3 : a small, round piece of food (such as meat) ▪ medallions of veal

Medal of Honor noun, pl Medals of Honor [count] : the highest U.S. military award that is given to someone for extreme bravery while in battle with an enemy med•dle /ˈmɛdl/ verb med•dles; med•dled; med•dling [no obj]

1 : to become involved in the activities and concerns of other people when your involvement is not wanted : INTERFERE — usually + in ▪ He was always meddling in other people's personal lives. — sometimes + with ▪ They are meddling with things that don't concern them.
2 : to change or handle something in a way that is unwanted or harmful — + with ▪ Don't meddle with my stuff.
– med•dler /ˈmɛdlə/ noun, pl med•dlers [count] ▪ She thought she was being helpful, but her neighbors saw her as a meddler. – meddling noun [noncount] ▪ He was annoyed by his neighbor's meddling. – meddling adj, always used before a noun ▪ meddling neighbors med•dle•some /ˈmɛdlsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] : interfering with the activities and concerns of other people in an unwanted or unwelcome way : inclined to meddle ▪ Her neighbors saw her as a meddlesome nuisance.

med•e•vac also med•i•vac /ˈmɛdəˌvæk/ noun, pl -vacs US
1 [noncount] : emergency removal of sick or injured people from an area especially by helicopter — usually used before another noun ▪ a medevac mission/team
2 [count] : a helicopter used to remove sick or injured people from an area ▪ The wounded soldiers were evacuated by medevac to the hospital. ▪ an Army medevac
– medevac also medivac verb -vacs; -vaced or -vacked; -vac•ing or -vack•ing [+ obj] ▪ The wounded soldiers were medevaced to the hospital.

[1]media plural of [1]MEDIUM

[2]me•dia /ˈmi:dijə/ noun [plural]
1 : the radio stations, television stations, and newspapers through which information is communicated to the public : MASS MEDIA ▪ The event attracted a lot of attention from the media. = The event attracted a lot of media attention. ▪ the news media — sometimes used with a singular verb ▪ He feels that the media is ignoring this important issue.
2 chiefly US : people who work as news reporters, publishers, and broadcasters : members of the media ▪ The event attracted a lot of media. ▪ a large crowd of media

mediaeval variant spelling of MEDIEVAL media event noun, pl ~ events [count] : an event that attracts attention from the news media ▪ The President's visit to the school was a major media event.

[1]me•di•an /ˈmi:dijən/ noun, pl -ans [count]
1 mathematics : the middle value in a series of values arranged from smallest to largest

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 34 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

2 US : MEDIAN STRIP

[2]median adj, always used before a noun : in the middle; especially, mathematics : having a value that is in the middle of a series of values arranged from smallest to largest ▪ What is the median price of homes in this area?

median strip noun, pl ~ strips [count] US : a grassy or paved area that divides a highway so that traffic going in one direction is kept separate from traffic going in the opposite direction — called also (US) median, (Brit) central reservation

me•di•ate /ˈmiːdiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 a : to work with opposing sides in an argument or dispute in order to get an agreement [no obj] He has been appointed by the government to mediate (in the dispute) between the company and the striking workers. [+ obj] (US) ▪ He has been appointed to mediate the dispute. b [+ obj] : to get (something, such as a settlement or agreement) by working with opposing sides in a dispute ▪ He is attempting to mediate a settlement between the company and the striking workers. ▪ Negotiators are trying to mediate a cease-fire.
2 [+ obj] formal + technical : to have an effect or influence in causing (something) to happen — usually used as (be) mediated ▪ The study indicates that human aggression is partly mediated by biological factors.
– me•di•a•tion /ˌmiːdiˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ mediation of the dispute – me•di•a•tor /ˈmiːdiˌeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ She has been appointed to act as a mediator [=intermediary] in the dispute.

med•ic /ˈmɛdɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who does medical work: such as a US : a member of the military whose job is to provide emergency medical care to soldiers who have been wounded in battle b Brit, informal : a medical student or doctor

Med•ic•aid /ˈmɛdɪˌkeɪd/ noun [singular] US : a government program that provides money to people who are unable to pay for regular medical care ▪ patients who are eligible for Medicaid — compare MEDICARE

[1]med•i•cal /ˈmɛdɪkəl/ adj : of or relating to the treatment of diseases and injuries : of or relating to medicine ▪ medical care/advice/attention ▪ high medical bills ▪ medical problems/procedures ▪ the medical profession ▪ a medical breakthrough ▪ medical school/students ▪ He has a dangerous medical condition. ▪ The report was published in a leading medical journal. ▪ Her recovery was a medical miracle. ▪ He opened his own medical practice. ▪ an important advance in medical science ▪ a medical center [=a place where people go for medical treatment]
– med•i•cal•ly /ˈmɛdɪkli/ adv ▪ a medically necessary operation ▪ a medically useful drug

[2]medical noun, pl -cals [count] Brit : a medical examination : PHYSICAL medical examiner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : a public official who examines the bodies of dead people to find the cause of death medical practitioner noun, pl ~ -ers [count] formal : [1]DOCTOR

Medi•care /ˈmɛdiˌkeə/ noun [singular] US : a government program that provides medical care especially for old people ▪ patients eligible for Medicare — compare MEDICAID med•i•cate /ˈmɛdɪˌkeɪt/ verb -cates; -cat•ed; -cat•ing [+ obj] : to treat (a person or disease) with medicine and especially with drugs ▪ medicate an illness ▪ The patient had been heavily medicated.

med•i•cat•ed adj : containing a substance that kills germs and helps to keep your skin or hair healthy ▪ medicated soap/shampoo ▪ medicated foot powder

med•i•ca•tion /ˌmɛdɪˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : a substance used in treating disease or relieving pain : MEDICINE [noncount] She's taking medication for high blood pressure. = She's on medication for high blood pressure. [count] The company has developed a new allergy medication. ▪ He stopped taking his medications.
2 [noncount] : the act or process of treating a person or disease with medicine ▪ His condition requires medication. ▪ Her illness has not responded to medication.

me•dic•i•nal /məˈdɪsnəl/ adj : used to prevent or cure disease or to relieve pain ▪ a medicinal substance ▪ medicinal herbs/plants ▪ medicinal properties ▪ This drug is to be used only for medicinal purposes.
– me•dic•i•nal•ly adv ▪ a medicinally useful substance ▪ The plant was once used medicinally.

med•i•cine /ˈmɛdəsən, Brit ˈmɛdsən/ noun, pl -cines
1 : a substance that is used in treating disease or relieving pain and that is usually in the form of a pill or a liquid [count] a cough medicine ▪ herbal medicines ▪ He forgot to take his medicine. [noncount] I took some medicine. ▪ Did you look in the medicine cabinet/chest for a pain reliever?
2 [noncount] : the science that deals with preventing, curing, and treating diseases ▪ Their research has led to many important advances in modern medicine. ▪ She's interested in a career in medicine. ▪ the practice/study of medicine ▪ preventive medicine — see also INTERNAL MEDICINE, SOCIALIZED MEDICINE, SPORTS MEDICINE, WESTERN MEDICINE a taste/dose of your own medicine informal : harsh or unpleasant treatment that is like the treatment you have given other people ▪ The movie is about a playboy who gets a taste of his own medicine when the girl he falls in love with jilts him for another guy.
take your medicine informal : to accept something that is unpleasant because it is necessary and cannot be avoided ▪ If he loses the case, he should just take his medicine and stop complaining.

medicine ball noun, pl ~ balls [count] : a heavy leather-covered ball that is used for exercises medicine dropper noun, pl ~ -pers [count] : DROPPER medicine man noun, pl ~ men [count] : a person in Native American cultures who is believed to have magic powers that can cure illnesses and keep away evil spirits med•i•co /ˈmɛdɪˌkoʊ/ noun, pl -cos [count] informal : [1]DOCTOR ▪ She proved the medicos wrong by recovering quickly from her injuries.

med•i•co•le•gal /ˌmɛdɪkoʊˈliːgəl/ adj : of or relating to both medicine and law ▪ medicolegal problems me•di•eval also me•di•ae•val /ˌmiːdiˈiːvəl, Brit ˌmɛdiˈiːvəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to the Middle Ages : of or relating to the period of European history from about A.D. 500 to about 1500 ▪ medieval music/history/warriors
2 informal : very old : too old to be useful or acceptable ▪ They're using a computer system that seems positively medieval by today's standards.

me•di•o•cre /ˌmiːdiˈoʊkə/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not very good ▪ The dinner was delicious, but the dessert was mediocre. ▪ The carpenter did a mediocre job. ▪ a mediocre wine ▪ The critics dismissed him as a mediocre actor.

me•di•oc•ri•ty /ˌmiːdiˈɑːkrəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [noncount] : the quality of something that is not very good : the quality or state of being mediocre ▪ We were disappointed by the mediocrity of the wine.
2 [count] : a person who does not have the special ability to do something well ▪ He thought that he was a brilliant artist himself and that all his fellow painters were just mediocrities.

med•i•tate /ˈmɛdəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [no obj] : to spend time in quiet thought for religious purposes or relaxation ▪ He meditates for an hour every morning.
meditate on/upon [phrasal verb] meditate on/upon (something) : to think about (something) carefully ▪ She meditated on whether or not to return to school. ▪ He was meditating upon the meaning of life.

med•i•ta•tion /ˌmɛdəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 : the act or process of spending time in quiet thought : the act or process of meditating [noncount] She spent the morning in meditation. ▪ Daily meditation helps clear his mind. [count] his daily meditations
2 [count] formal : an expression of a person's thoughts on something — often + on or upon ▪ The essay is a meditation on modern life. — often plural ▪ She recently published her meditations on ethics.

med•i•ta•tive /ˈmɛdəˌteɪtɪv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very thoughtful ▪ a meditative student ▪ I could see that she was in a meditative mood. : involving or allowing deep thought or meditation ▪ meditative music
– med•i•ta•tive•ly adv ▪ She gazed meditatively at him.

Med•i•ter•ra•nean /ˌmɛdətəˈreɪnijən/ adj : of or relating to the Mediterranean Sea or to the lands that surround it ▪ a Mediterranean island/climate ▪ Mediterranean cuisine

[1]me•di•um /ˈmiːdijəm/ noun, pl me•di•ums or me•dia /ˈmiːdijə/ [count]
1 pl mediums : something that is sold in a medium size : something that is the middle size when compared with things that are larger and smaller ▪ I take a medium. ▪ These shirts are all mediums and I take a large. ▪ Make my French fries a medium.
2 pl usually media : a particular form or system of commu-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 35 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

nication (such as newspapers, radio, or television) ▪ an effective advertising medium = an effective medium for advertising — see also MEDIA

3 : the materials or methods used by an artist ▪ Her preferred medium is sculpture. ▪ The artist works in two media/mediums, pencil and watercolor.

4 : the thing by which or through which something is done ▪ Money is a medium [=means] of exchange. ▪ English is an important medium of international communication.

5 pl mediums : a person who claims to be able to communicate with the spirits of dead people ▪ She visited a medium to try to talk to her dead son.

6 formal : a surrounding condition or environment ▪ Ocean fish live in a medium of salt water.

happy medium : a good choice or condition that avoids any extremes ▪ They are looking for a happy medium: a house that is not too big but that has lots of storage space. ▪ The car's designers have found/struck a happy medium between affordability and luxury.

[2]medium adj

1 : in the middle of a range of possible sizes, amounts, etc. ▪ These T-shirts are available in three sizes: small, medium, and large. ▪ a person of medium build/height/weight ▪ a medium blue [=a blue that is neither very light nor very dark]

2 of meat : cooked to a point that is between rare and well-done ▪ How would you like your steak, sir: rare, medium, or well-done? ✧ Meat that is medium rare is cooked to a point between rare and medium, while meat that is medium well is cooked to a point between medium and well-done.

– medium adv ▪ He likes his steak cooked medium.

medium–sized or medium–size adj : neither large nor small ▪ a medium-sized pan ▪ a medium-size car/house/city medium–term adj, always used before a noun : lasting for a period of time that is neither long nor short ▪ Our short-term prospects are grim and our medium-term prospects are uncertain, but our long-term prospects are good.

medivac variant spelling of MEDEVAC

med•ley /ˈmɛdli/ noun, pl -leys [count]

1 : a musical piece made up of parts of other musical works ▪ a medley of show tunes

2 : a mixture of different people or things ▪ a medley of sights/sounds/aromas

3 sports : a race in swimming in which swimmers use a different stroke for each different part of the race ▪ the 400-meter medley meek /ˈmi:k/ adj meek•er; -est : having or showing a quiet and gentle nature : not wanting to fight or argue with other people ▪ a meek child dominated by his brothers ▪ a meek reply ▪ She may seem meek and mild but it is all an act.

– meek•ly adv ▪ He asked meekly for help. – meek•ness noun [noncount]

[1]meet /ˈmi:t/ verb meets; met /ˈmɛt/; meet•ing

1 : to see and speak to (someone) for the first time : to be introduced to or become acquainted with (someone) [+ obj] He met his wife at work. ▪ We met each other in college. ▪ Did you meet anyone interesting at the party? ▪ I'd like you to meet my good friend Bob. ▪ I'm happy/glad/pleased to meet you. = (informally) Pleased to meet you. ▪ It was nice meeting you. = It was a pleasure meeting you. = I'm happy/glad to have met you. [no obj] The couple met at a dance. ▪ We met in college. ▪ Have we met? You look familiar. ▪ Actually, we've already met.

2 a : to come together in order to talk : to go to a place to be with someone else [no obj] They met for drinks after work. ▪ We arranged to meet for lunch. ▪ Let's meet at the park. ▪ They meet together every week. ▪ We are meeting downtown tomorrow. [+ obj] I arranged to meet her for lunch. ▪ She said she'd meet me in/at the park. ▪ I'm being met by a friend at the airport. ▪ I'm planning to meet his plane at the airport. [=to be at the airport waiting for him when his plane arrives]

b [no obj] : to come together formally : to have a meeting ▪ The club meets every Wednesday night. : to come together for a discussion ▪ We are meeting today to discuss the plans.

3 [+ obj] a : to see (someone) by chance ▪ I met [=ran into] an old friend at the store. ▪ I hope we'll meet again someday.

b : to come near (someone or something) as you are passing by ▪ We only met one other car on the road.

4 : to face each other in a game, competition, war, etc. [no obj] The teams met in the finals last year. ▪ The candidates will meet for two debates. ▪ Two great armies met on the battlefield that day. [+ obj] The Boston Red Sox will meet the New York Yankees in a three-game series this weekend. ▪ The army was advancing to meet the enemy.

5 : to touch and join with or cross something else [+ obj] the point where the river meets the sea [no obj] the point where the river and the sea meet ▪ His jacket does not meet in front. [=the two sides of his jacket do not touch in the front; his jacket is too small]

6 [+ obj] a : to be equal to (something) : to match (something) ▪ The store promises to meet the price of any competitor. b : to succeed in doing or providing (something) ▪ They met all our demands. [=they did everything that we demanded] ▪ The restaurant didn't meet (our) expectations. [=it was not as good as we expected it to be] ▪ They haven't yet met the requirements for entry. [=they have not done what they must do for entry] c : to reach (something, such as a goal) ▪ They failed to meet their target/goals. ▪ The students here are expected to meet very high standards. : to succeed in doing what is required by (something) ▪ They met the challenge. ▪ We somehow managed to meet the deadline. ▪ The new policies are intended to help meet the growing demand for new housing. ▪ The company was unable to meet its payroll. [=the company was unable to pay its employees when it was supposed to] ▪ We have enough money to meet our needs. [=to pay for the things that we need] ▪ We work very hard to meet the needs of our customers. [=to provide our customers with what they need]

7 [+ obj] a : to experience or be affected by (something bad or unpleasant) ▪ They met defeat bravely. ▪ They met trouble on the way home. ▪ The proposal has met [=encountered] some opposition. [=there has been some opposition to the proposal] ▪ This is the place where he met his death. [=where he was killed; where he died] ▪ I hope they don't meet the fate of so many others in their situation. [=I hope the things that happen to others in their situation do not happen to them]

b : to deal with or face (something) directly ▪ She met his glance/gaze without looking away. [=she looked directly at him as he looked at her] ✧ When two people's eyes meet they look directly at each other. ▪ Their eyes met. = His eyes met hers. = He met her eyes.

8 [+ obj] : to be sensed by (the eyes, ears, etc.) ▪ We were shocked by the sight that met our eyes/gaze/view. [=we were shocked by what we saw] ▪ A distant murmur met his ear/ears. [=he heard a distant murmur] ▪ When they opened the door they were met by/with a shocking sight. [=they saw something shocking]

make ends meet see [1]END

meet (someone) halfway : to reach an agreement with (someone) by giving up something that you want : to compromise with (someone) ▪ We can't comply with all your requests, but we can meet you halfway. ▪ Can we at least meet halfway on this?

meet up with [phrasal verb] meet up with (someone) informal : to come together with (someone) : to go to a place to be with (someone) ▪ I'll meet up with you later. [=I'll meet you later] ▪ They met up with each other for drinks.

meet with [phrasal verb] 1 meet with (someone) : to come together with (someone) to talk about something : to have a meeting with (someone) ▪ We are meeting with the architect today to discuss the plans. ▪ Can you meet with us later today? 2 meet with (something) : to have or experience (something) ▪ The proposal has met with (some) opposition. ▪ We met with many adventures on our trip. ▪ He met with a warm reception [=he was warmly received/welcomed] when he arrived. ▪ When she didn't arrive on time, we were worried that she might have met with an accident. ▪ Her ideas met with their approval. [=they approved her ideas]

meet your maker see MAKER

more than meets the eye see [1]EYE

– meet•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He's one of the company's meeters and greeters. [=a person who meets new people and welcomes them to a place]

[2]meet noun, pl meets [count]

1 chiefly US : a large gathering of athletes for a sports competition ▪ a track/swim meet — called also (Brit) meeting; see also SWAP MEET

2 Brit : an event or occasion when people come together to hunt foxes meet•ing /ˈmi:tɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 a [count] : a gathering of people for a particular purpose (such as to talk about business) ▪ The club's monthly meeting will be held next Monday evening. ▪ She was too busy to attend the meeting. ▪ Let's have/hold/call/convene a meeting to discuss these problems. ▪ postpone/adjourn/close a business meeting ▪ a committee/staff meeting ▪ I wasn't able to talk to him because he was in a meeting b : a gathering of people for religious worship [count] a Quaker meeting ▪ a revival meeting ▪ a prayer meeting [noncount] (US) He attends Quaker meeting.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 36 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:52 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

2 [count] a : a situation or occasion when two people see and talk to each other ▪ They started dating each other soon after their first meeting. ▪ Their friendship began with a chance meeting at a business convention. b : a situation or occasion when athletes or teams compete against each other ▪ Tonight's game will be their first meeting of the season. c Brit : ²MEET 1 ▪ an athletics meeting
3 [singular] : the place where two things come together ▪ a town at the meeting of two rivers
a meeting of minds or US a meeting of the minds : an understanding or agreement between two people or groups ▪ The company and the union tried to come to a meeting of the minds. [=they tried to reach an agreement]

meet•ing•house /ˈmiːtɪŋˌhaʊs/ noun, pl -hous•es [count] : a building used for public gatherings and especially for Christian worship in the past mega /ˈmɛgə/ adj, informal

1 : very large : VAST ▪ a mega electronics store
2 [more ~; most ~] : very popular, successful, or important ▪ an actor who has become a mega celebrity mega- /mɛgə/ combining form

1 a : great : large ▪ a *mega*store b informal : extremely ▪ mega-rich
2 technical : million : multiplied by one million ▪ *mega*hertz ▪ *mega*byte mega•bit /ˈmɛgəˌbɪt/ noun, pl -bits [count] computers : one million bits — abbr. Mb

mega•bucks /ˈmɛgəˌbʌks/ noun [plural] informal : an extremely large amount of money ▪ a star athlete who is earning megabucks
– mega•buck /ˈmɛgəˌbʌk/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ a megabuck movie [=a movie that cost a great amount of money to produce] ▪ an athlete with a megabuck contract

mega•byte /ˈmɛgəˌbaɪt/ noun, pl -bytes [count] computers : a unit of computer information equal to 1,048,576 bytes ▪ The CD has a storage capacity of 800 megabytes. — abbr. MB; compare GIGABYTE, KILOBYTE

mega•cor•po•ra•tion /ˌmɛgəˌkoəpəˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : an extremely large and powerful corporation mega•dose /ˈmɛgəˌdoʊs/ noun, pl -dos•es [count] US : a large amount of medicine, vitamins, etc. : a large dose ▪ He took megadoses of vitamin C.

mega•hertz /ˈmɛgəˌhəts/ noun, pl -hertz [count] technical : a unit of radio frequency equal to one million hertz — abbr. MHz mega•hit /ˈmɛgəˌhɪt/ noun, pl -hits [count] informal : something (such as a movie) that is extremely successful ▪ His latest movie was a megahit.

mega•lith /ˈmɛgəˌlɪθ/ noun, pl -liths [count] : a very large stone used in ancient cultures as a monument or part of a building
– mega•lith•ic /ˌmɛgəˈlɪθɪk/ adj ▪ a megalithic tower/tomb/monument

meg•a•lo•ma•nia /ˌmɛgəloʊˈmeɪnijə/ noun [noncount] : a condition or mental illness that causes people to think that they have great or unlimited power or importance ▪ Their CEO has an arrogance that borders on megalomania.

meg•a•lo•ma•ni•ac /ˌmɛgəloʊˈmeɪniˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count] : a person who believes that he or she has unlimited power or importance : a person who has megalomania ▪ Their CEO is a real megalomaniac.
– megalomaniac adj ▪ a megalomaniac artist – meg•a•lo•ma•ni•a•cal /ˌmɛgəloʊməˈnajəkəl/ adj ▪ megalomaniacal delusions ▪ a megalomaniacal politician

meg•a•lop•o•lis /ˌmɛgəˈlɑːpələs/ noun, pl -lis•es [count] US
1 : a very large city
2 : an area that includes a large city or several large cities

mega•phone /ˈmɛgəˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] : a cone-shaped device used to make your voice louder when you speak through it — compare BULLHORN

mega•plex /ˈmɛgəˌplɛks/ noun, pl -plexes [count] US : a large building that contains many movie theaters — compare MULTIPLEX mega•star /ˈmɛgəˌstɑə/ noun, pl -stars [count] informal : a very famous and successful performer (such as an actor or an athlete)

mega•store /ˈmɛgəˌstoə/ noun, pl -stores [count] : a very large store that sells many different products ▪ a discount megastore [=superstore]

mega•ton /ˈmɛgəˌtʌn/ noun, pl -tons [count] : an explosive force that is equal to one million tons of TNT ▪ an atomic explosion with a force of several megatons mega•watt /ˈmɛgəˌwɑːt/ noun, pl -watts [count] : a unit of electrical power equal to one million watts ▪ 50 megawatts of electricity — compare KILOWATT

mein see CHOW MEIN, LO MEIN

meis•ter /ˈmaɪstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] informal : someone who knows a lot about something : someone who is an expert in something — usually used in combination ▪ a champion puzzle-meister ▪ a rap-meister

mel•a•mine /ˈmɛləˌmiːn/ noun [noncount] : a type of hard plastic that is used especially for covering other materials

mel•an•cho•lia /ˌmɛlənˈkoʊlijə/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned + literary : a feeling of sadness and depression

mel•an•chol•ic /ˌmɛlənˈkɑːlɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] old-fashioned + literary : very sad : GLOOMY ▪ a melancholic outlook ▪ melancholic music

¹mel•an•choly /ˈmɛlənˌkɑːli/ noun [noncount] old-fashioned + literary : a sad mood or feeling ▪ suffering from melancholy ▪ a time of melancholy

²melancholy adj [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing sadness : very unhappy ▪ She was in a melancholy mood. ▪ He became quiet and melancholy as the hours slowly passed. ▪ melancholy [=sad, depressing] music/thoughts

mé•lange /meɪˈlɑːnʤ/ noun, pl -lang•es [count] : a mixture of different things ▪ a mélange of colors and shapes ▪ a mélange of architectural styles

mel•a•nin /ˈmɛlənən/ noun [noncount] : a dark brown or black substance that is a natural part of people's skin, hair, and eyes

mel•a•no•ma /ˌmɛləˈnoʊmə/ noun, pl -mas also -ma•ta /-mətə/ medical : a type of cancer or tumor that begins as a dark spot or area on the skin [noncount] She has melanoma. [count] a malignant melanoma

¹meld /ˈmɛld/ verb melds; meld•ed; meld•ing : to blend or mix together [no obj] Cook the sauce slowly to let the flavors meld (together). [+ obj] Cook the sauce slowly to meld the flavors (together).

²meld noun [singular] chiefly US : a mixture of things ▪ a meld [=blend] of musical influences ▪ a meld of Jewish and Christian customs me•lee /ˈmeɪˌleɪ, Brit ˈmɛˌleɪ/ noun, pl -lees [count] : a confused struggle or fight involving many people — usually singular ▪ They were seriously injured in the melee.

mel•lif•lu•ous /mɛˈlɪfləwəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : having a smooth, flowing sound ▪ mellifluous speech ▪ a mellifluous voice
– mel•lif•lu•ous•ly adv ▪ She sang mellifluously.

¹mel•low /ˈmɛloʊ/ adj mel•low•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : pleasantly rich, full, or soft : not harsh, bright, or irritating ▪ The painting captures the mellow light of a summer evening. ▪ mellow music ▪ a mellow golden color
2 : having a pleasing rich flavor that develops over time ▪ This wine is very mellow. ▪ a mellow cheese
3 a : very calm and relaxed ▪ He was in a mellow mood. ▪ She was a tough and demanding teacher, but she became mellower in her old age. ▪ He's a very mellow guy. ▪ a mellow crowd b informal : relaxed from drinking alcohol or using drugs ▪ After a couple of drinks we all started feeling pretty mellow.

²mellow verb -lows; -lowed; -low•ing : to become or to cause (someone or something) to become less harsh, irritating, nervous, etc. [no obj] She was a tough and demanding teacher, but she has mellowed in her old age. ▪ The wine needs time to mellow. [+ obj] She was a tough and demanding teacher, but old age has mellowed her. ▪ Time mellowed [=softened] their hard feelings.
mellow out [phrasal verb] US, informal : to become relaxed and calm ▪ She mellowed out as she grew older. : to calm down ▪ You're getting all upset over nothing. You need to mellow out.
– mel•low•ness noun [noncount]

me•lod•ic /məˈlɑːdɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to melody ▪ the melodic flow of the music ▪ a pleasing melodic line/pattern
2 [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasant musical sound or

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 37 SESS: 31 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

melody ▪ a melodic tune ▪ a melodic voice
– me•lod•i•cal•ly /məˈlɑːdɪkli/ adv ▪ The birds were singing melodically.

me•lo•di•ous /məˈloʊdijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a pleasing melody ▪ a melodious song : having or making a pleasant musical sound ▪ a melodious sound/voice ▪ melodious birds/instruments
– me•lo•di•ous•ly adv ▪ singing melodiously – me•lo•di•ous•ness noun [noncount]

melo•dra•ma /ˈmɛləˌdrɑːmə/ noun, pl -mas
1 : drama in which many exciting events happen and the characters have very strong or exaggerated emotions [noncount] Critics dismissed his work as melodrama. ▪ an actor with a talent for melodrama [count] She is starring in another melodrama.
2 : a situation or series of events in which people have very strong or exaggerated emotions [count] The trial turned into a melodrama. [noncount] a life full of melodrama

melo•dra•mat•ic /ˌmɛlədrəˈmætɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] often disapproving : emotional in a way that is very extreme or exaggerated : extremely dramatic or emotional ▪ a melodramatic movie/story/script ▪ Oh, quit being so melodramatic! ▪ melodramatic music
– melo•dra•mat•i•cal•ly /ˌmɛlədrəˈmætɪkli/ adv ▪ She threw herself onto the bed melodramatically and sobbed.

melo•dra•mat•ics /ˌmɛlədrəˈmætɪks/ noun [plural] : extremely dramatic or emotional behavior : melodramatic behavior ▪ He told the story without any melodramatics.

mel•o•dy /ˈmɛlədi/ noun, pl -dies
1 : a pleasing series of musical notes that form the main part of a song or piece of music [count] He wrote a piece that includes some beautiful/haunting melodies. [noncount] a composer known for his love of melody
2 [count] : a song or tune ▪ He sang a few old-fashioned melodies.

mel•on /ˈmɛlən/ noun, pl -ons [count, noncount] : a large, round fruit that has a hard skin and sweet, juicy flesh — see also HONEYDEW MELON, WATERMELON

[1]melt /ˈmɛlt/ verb melts; melt•ed; melt•ing
1 : to change or to cause (something) to change from a solid to a liquid usually because of heat [no obj] The butter melted in the frying pan. ▪ The snow is finally melting. [+ obj] She melted butter in the frying pan. ▪ a tablespoon of melted butter ▪ melted cheese
2 [no obj] : to gradually become less or go away : DISAPPEAR ▪ Their determination melted in the face of opposition. — often + away ▪ Her anger melted away when she saw that he was truly sorry. ▪ As the sun rose the fog began to melt away.
3 : to begin to have feelings of love, kindness, sympathy, etc. [no obj] She melted at his kindly words. ▪ Her heart melted with compassion. [+ obj] It would have melted your heart [=it would have filled you with compassion, sympathy, etc.] to see her lying in that hospital bed.
butter wouldn't melt in someone's mouth see [1]BUTTER
melt down [phrasal verb] 1 a of a nuclear reactor : to heat up accidentally, melt, and release radiation ▪ The reactor's core melted down. b : to experience a very fast collapse or failure ▪ The stock market has melted down. — see also MELTDOWN 2 melt (something) down or melt down (something) : to melt (something) so that it can be used for another purpose ▪ melt down a coin ▪ The stolen gold has probably already been melted down.
melt into [phrasal verb] melt into (something) : to become difficult or impossible to see by changing into or becoming combined with (something else) ▪ The colors in the painting melt into one another. ▪ Her frown melted into a smile. ▪ She melted into [=disappeared into] the crowd. ▪ He seemed to melt into thin air. [=he seemed to disappear] melt in your mouth ✧ Food that melts in your mouth is delicious and feels soft or becomes soft when you put it in your mouth. ▪ chocolate candies that melt in your mouth ▪ The fish practically melts in your mouth.

[2]melt noun, pl melts [count] US : a sandwich made with melted cheese ▪ a tuna melt

melt•down /ˈmɛltˌdaʊn/ noun, pl -downs
1 : an accident in which the core of a nuclear reactor melts and releases radiation [count] a nuclear meltdown [noncount] fears that an accident could cause meltdown
2 a : a very fast collapse or failure [count] a stock market meltdown [noncount] a company experiencing financial meltdown b [count] chiefly US, somewhat informal : a very fast loss of emotional self-control ▪ After a long day at the beach, our toddler had a major meltdown in the car on the way home. — see also melt down at [1]MELT melt•ing /ˈmɛltɪŋ/ adj : having a quality that causes gentle feelings of love, sympathy, etc. ▪ a love song's melting lyrics ▪ She looked at him with melting eyes.

– melt•ing•ly adv

melting point noun, pl ~ points [count, noncount] : the temperature at which something melts ▪ a metal's melting point

melting pot noun, pl ~ pots [count] : a place (such as a city or country) where different types of people live together and gradually create one community — usually singular ▪ The city is a melting pot of different cultures. ▪ the American melting pot in the melting pot Brit : not yet certain or finally decided : still changing or likely to change ▪ Our plans are still in the melting pot. ▪ It looked like our team was winning, but then everything went back in the melting pot. [=the outcome became uncertain again]

mem•ber /ˈmɛmbə/ noun, pl -bers [count]
1 : someone or something that belongs to or is a part of a group or an organization ▪ a club/committee/team member ▪ family members ▪ The club has 300 members. ▪ She is a member of the House of Representatives. ▪ She is a member/Member of Parliament. ▪ a member of the audience ▪ band/crew/gang members ▪ This bird is a member of the finch family. ▪ countries that are members of the United Nations — see also CHARTER MEMBER, FOUNDING MEMBER
2 technical : a part of a structure (such as a building or a bridge) ▪ a horizontal member of a bridge ▪ the roof's supporting members
3 a old-fashioned : a body part (such as an arm or a leg) ▪ his lower members b — used as a polite way of saying penis ▪ the male member

mem•ber•ship /ˈmɛmbəˌʃɪp/ noun, pl -ships
1 : the state of belonging to or being a part of a group or an organization : the state of being a member [noncount] (US) He applied for membership in the club. = (Brit) He applied for membership of the club. [count] What is the cost of a one-year membership? ▪ They renewed their memberships.
2 : all the people or things that belong to or are part of an organization or a group [noncount] Membership in the club doubled last year. ▪ clubs that are hoping to increase their membership [count] The club has a large membership. ▪ The membership has voted to accept the proposal. = (Brit) The membership have voted to accept the proposal. ▪ clubs that are hoping to increase their memberships

mem•brane /ˈmɛmˌbreɪn/ noun, pl -branes [count] : a thin sheet or layer ▪ The computer chip is covered by/with a plastic membrane. [=the computer chip is covered by/with a very thin sheet of plastic]; especially : a thin sheet or layer of tissue that is part of a plant or an animal's body ▪ a cell membrane – mem•bran•ous /ˈmɛmbrənəs/ adj, technical ▪ membranous tissue me•men•to /məˈmɛntoʊ/ noun, pl -tos or -toes [count] : something that is kept as a reminder of a person, place, or thing : SOUVENIR ▪ a collection of photographs and mementos ▪ It was a memento of our trip.

memo /ˈmɛmoʊ/ noun, pl mem•os [count] : a usually brief written message from one person or department in an organization, company, etc., to another : MEMORANDUM ▪ He sent a memo to the staff.

mem•oir /ˈmɛmˌwɑə/ noun, pl -oirs
1 memoirs [plural] : a written account in which someone (such as a famous performer or politician) describes past experiences ▪ a retired politician who is writing his memoirs
2 [count] : a written account of someone or something that is usually based on personal knowledge of the subject ▪ He has written a memoir of his mother. ▪ a memoir of Hollywood in the 1930s mem•o•ra•bil•ia /ˌmɛmərəˈbɪlijə/ noun [plural] : objects or materials that are collected because they are related to a particular event, person, etc. : things collected as souvenirs ▪ a display of sports/military memorabilia ▪ She collects Beatles memorabilia.

mem•o•ra•ble /ˈmɛmərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very good or interesting and worth remembering ▪ a memorable vacation/experience ▪ It was the most memorable line of the play. ▪ She gave a memorable performance.
– mem•o•ra•bly /ˈmɛmərəbli/ adv ▪ a memorably exciting event

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 38 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:53 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

mem•o•ran•dum /ˌmɛməˈrændəm/ noun, pl -dums or -da /-də/ [count]
1 : a usually brief written message or report from one person or department in a company or organization to another ▪ The company president sent a memorandum [=(less formally) memo] to each employee.
2 law : an informal written record of an agreement that has not yet become official

[1]me•mo•ri•al /məˈmorijəl/ noun, pl -als [count] : something (such as a monument or ceremony) that honors a person who has died or serves as a reminder of an event in which many people died ▪ a war memorial — often + to ▪ The new hospital is a fitting memorial to her.

[2]memorial adj, always used before a noun : created or done to honor a person who has died or to remind people of an event in which many people died ▪ a memorial service/monument ▪ a memorial scholarship fund

Memorial Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] : the last Monday in May that is a national holiday in the U.S. honoring members of the armed forces who died in wars me•mo•ri•al•ize also Brit me•mo•ri•al•ise /məˈmorijəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] formal : to do or create something that causes people to remember (a person, thing, or event) ▪ an exciting period in history that has been memorialized in many popular books and movies

memoriam see IN MEMORIAM

mem•o•rize also Brit mem•o•rise /ˈmɛməˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing [+ obj] : to learn (something) so well that you are able to remember it perfectly ▪ He memorized the speech. ▪ an actress memorizing her lines
– mem•o•ri•za•tion also Brit mem•o•ri•sa•tion /ˌmɛmərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɛməˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mem•o•ry /ˈmɛməri/ noun, pl -ries
1 : the power or process of remembering what has been learned [count] He began to lose his memory as he grew older. ▪ He has an excellent memory for faces. [=he is very good at remembering faces] ▪ Those people have long memories. [=they remember things that happened long ago] ▪ She has a short memory. [=she forgets things quickly] ▪ Dad has a selective memory: he remembers the times he was right and forgets the times he was wrong. [noncount] They claim that these pills can improve (the) memory. ▪ short-term/long-term memory ▪ He committed the speech to memory. [=he memorized the speech] ▪ If memory serves (me rightly/correctly), his name is John. [=if I remember accurately, his name is John] — see also PHOTOGRAPHIC MEMORY
2 a [count] : something that is remembered ▪ We have pleasant memories of the trip. ▪ trying to repress bitter/painful memories ▪ childhood memories ▪ His name evokes memories of a happier time. ▪ That time is just a dim/faint memory to me now. b [noncount] : the things learned and kept in the mind ▪ The happiness of those times is still vivid in my memory. ▪ Her name has faded from memory. ▪ I seem to have very little memory of that time in my life. ▪ Her name has faded from my memory. [=I cannot remember her name] ▪ That tragic day has become part of our collective memory. [=it is something that we all remember] ▪ He has no memory of what happened. [=he does not remember what happened] ▪ I can't remember exactly how much it costs. Could you refresh my memory? [=remind me] ▪ The sudden shock jogged his memory and everything came flooding back into his mind.
3 [count] : the things that are remembered about a person who has died ▪ Even though he is no longer with us, his memory lives on. [=we still remember him]
4 : the period of time that a person can remember [count] — usually singular ▪ These events occurred within their memory. [=occurred during the time that they can remember] [noncount] These events occurred within living memory. ▪ The harbor froze over for the first time in (modern/recent) memory.
5 [noncount] computers a : capacity for storing information ▪ a computer with 512MB of memory ▪ The computer needs more memory. b : the part of a computer in which information is stored ▪ information stored in memory — see also RANDOM-ACCESS MEMORY from memory : without reading or looking at notes ▪ She delivered the speech (entirely) from memory. ▪ He played the entire piece from memory. ▪ She can recite from memory the capitals of all the states of the U.S. in memory of or in someone's memory : made or done to honor someone who has died ▪ The monument is in memory of the soldiers who died in battle on this field. ▪ He donated the painting in his wife's memory.
memory lane ✧ If you take a stroll/trip/walk (etc.) down memory lane, you think or talk about pleasant things from the past. ▪ We took a stroll down memory lane, talking about our time at school together.

men plural of [1]MAN

[1]men•ace /ˈmɛnəs/ noun, pl -ac•es
1 [count] a : a dangerous or possibly harmful person or thing — usually singular ▪ Those dogs are a menace. — often + to ▪ Those dogs are a menace to the neighborhood. ▪ a criminal who is a menace to society b : someone who causes trouble or annoyance — usually singular ▪ That kid is a menace.
2 [noncount] : a dangerous or threatening quality ▪ There was an atmosphere of menace in the city. ▪ She could hear the menace in his voice.
with menaces Brit, law : with threats : using threatening actions or language ▪ They were accused of demanding money with menaces.

[2]menace verb -aces; -aced; -ac•ing [+ obj] somewhat formal : to threaten harm to (someone or something) — often used as (be) menaced ▪ She was menaced by a man with a knife. ▪ a country menaced by war – menacing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He gave her a menacing look. – men•ac•ing•ly /ˈmɛnəsɪŋli/ adv ▪ He looked at her menacingly.

mé•nage à trois /meɪˈnɑːʒɑˈtrwɑː/ noun, pl mé•nages à trois /meɪˈnɑːʒɑˈtrwɑː/ [count] : an arrangement in which three people have sex with each other especially while living together me•nag•er•ie /məˈnæʤəri/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a collection of animals kept especially to be shown to the public ▪ a menagerie of rare creatures — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The jail houses a menagerie of criminals.

[1]mend /ˈmɛnd/ verb mends; mend•ed; mend•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something broken or damaged) usable again : to repair (something broken or damaged) ▪ Dad's trying to mend [=fix] the roof. ▪ The town needs to mend these roads. ▪ Fishermen were mending their nets. ▪ She spent the evening mending (the holes in) her socks. ▪ mending a torn sleeve = mending a tear in a sleeve — often used figuratively ▪ He's trying to mend his reputation. ▪ We've mended our differences [=stopped arguing] and agreed on a plan.
2 : to heal or cure (a broken bone, a sad feeling, etc.) [+ obj] Surgery was needed to mend (the break in) the bone. ▪ Only time can mend a broken heart. [=make someone stop being sad] [no obj] Her arm mended slowly after surgery. ▪ His broken heart never completely mended.
mend fences or mend your fences : to improve or repair a relationship that has been damaged by an argument or disagreement ▪ She mended fences with her father. ▪ They are trying to mend their fences. ▪ After the election, he spent a lot of time mending political fences.
mend your ways : to change or improve your behavior : to stop behaving badly ▪ It's time (for you) to mend your ways. ▪ She told her teenage son to start mending his ways.
– mend•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ road menders

[2]mend noun [singular] : a place where something (such as a piece of clothing) has been repaired ▪ You can hardly see the mend in the sleeve.
on the mend : becoming better after an illness or injury ▪ Her broken leg is on the mend. ▪ Her health is on the mend. : becoming better after a bad or poor period ▪ The country's economy is on the mend. ▪ They almost got a divorce, but now their marriage is on the mend.

men•da•cious /mɛnˈdeɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal
1 : not honest : likely to tell lies ▪ a mendacious businessman
2 : based on lies ▪ The newspaper story was mendacious and hurtful. ▪ a mendacious political campaign – men•da•cious•ly adv – men•da•cious•ness noun [noncount] men•dac•i•ty /mɛnˈdæsəti/ noun [noncount] formal : lack of honesty : the condition of being mendacious ▪ The people learned of their government's mendacity [=learned that their government had told lies] only after the war had ended.

men•di•cant /ˈmɛndɪkənt/ noun, pl -cants [count] formal : someone (such as a member of a religious group) who lives by asking people for money or food ▪ wandering mendicants
– mendicant adj ▪ mendicant friars ▪ a mendicant monk men•folk /ˈmɛnˌfoʊk/ noun [plural] old-fashioned + humorous : the men of a family, town, etc. ▪ While the women prepared dinner, the menfolk relaxed in the living room.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 39 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[1]me•nial /ˈmiːnijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe boring or unpleasant work that does not require special skill and usually does not pay much money ▪ a menial job ▪ She thought household chores were menial and unimportant. ▪ performing menial labor/tasks

[2]menial noun, pl -nials [count] old-fashioned : a person (such as a servant) who does boring or unpleasant work for little money : someone who does menial work ▪ low-paid menials men•in•gi•tis /ˌmɛnənˈʤaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious and often deadly disease in which an outside layer of the brain or spinal cord becomes infected and swollen ▪ She was diagnosed with spinal meningitis.

Men•no•nite /ˈmɛnəˌnaɪt/ noun, pl -nites [count] : a person who belongs to a Christian religious group whose members live simply and wear plain clothing men•o•pause /ˈmɛnəˌpɑːz/ noun [noncount] : the time in a woman's life when blood stops flowing from her body each month : the time when a woman stops menstruating ▪ (US) a woman going through menopause = (Brit) a woman going through the menopause ✧ Menopause usually occurs when a woman is near the age of 50.

– men•o•paus•al /ˌmɛnəˈpɑːzəl/ adj ▪ menopausal signs and symptoms ▪ menopausal women

me•no•rah /məˈnorə/ noun, pl -rahs [count] : an object that holds seven or nine candles and that is used in Jewish worship

menorah

men•ses /ˈmɛnˌsiːz/ noun [plural] medical : the flow of blood that comes from a woman's body each month

men's room noun, pl ~ rooms [count] US : a public bathroom for use by men and boys — called also (Brit) gents; compare LADIES' ROOM men•stru•al /ˈmɛnstruwəl/ adj : of or relating to menstruation : of or relating to the flow of blood that comes from a woman's body each month ▪ menstrual pain ▪ menstrual blood ▪ the menstrual cycle [=the monthly series of changes that happen in the body of a woman who is menstruating]

menstrual period noun, pl ~ -ods [count] : the time when a woman menstruates each month ▪ She experiences pain during her menstrual period. — called also period men•stru•ate /ˈmɛnstruˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [no obj] of a woman : to have blood flow from your body as part of a process that happens each month ▪ She began menstruating at the age of 12.

– men•stru•a•tion /ˌmɛnstruˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mens•wear /ˈmɛnzˌweə/ noun [noncount] : clothes for men ▪ The store sells an extensive line of menswear. ▪ He works in the menswear department.

-ment /mənt/ noun suffix
1 : the action or process of doing something ▪ improve*ment* ▪ develop*ment*
2 : the product or result of an action ▪ entertain*ment*
3 : the state or condition caused by an action ▪ amaze*ment* ▪ fulfill*ment*

men•tal /ˈmɛntl/ adj
1 a : of or relating to the mind ▪ mental abilities ▪ She was worried about her son's mental and physical development. ▪ the mental state/condition of a criminal ▪ mental health b : existing or happening in the mind ▪ We had a mental image/picture of what we thought the house would look like. ▪ I've got a mental list of the things I need at the store. ▪ I'll make a mental note to see if we can reschedule the meeting. ▪ mental arithmetic [=arithmetic done in your mind without writing numbers or using a calculator]
2 always used before a noun a : relating to or affected by an illness of the mind ▪ She was beginning to show signs of mental illness. ▪ a mental disorder ▪ He suffered a mental breakdown. ▪ a mental patient b : caring for people with mental illnesses ▪ mental hospitals
3 informal : CRAZY ▪ She looked at me as if I had gone mental. ▪ That guy is a complete mental case. [=he is crazy]

– men•tal•ly adv ▪ mentally ill ▪ mentally competent ▪ Mentally I'm OK, but physically I'm a wreck!

mental age noun, pl ~ ages [count] technical : a measurement of a person's ability to think and understand that is expressed as the age at which an average person reaches the same level of ability ▪ a 40-year-old man with the mental age of 10 men•tal•i•ty /mɛnˈtæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a particular way of thinking — usually singular ▪ You can only wonder about the mentality of someone who does such things. ▪ He criticizes filmmakers for their blockbuster mentality. [=for thinking only about making movies that could be blockbusters] ▪ a war mentality — see also BUNKER MENTALITY, SIEGE MENTALITY, VICTIM MENTALITY

menthe see CRÈME DE MENTHE

men•thol /ˈmɛnˌθɑːl/ noun [noncount] : an oil made from mint that has a strong smell and that is used in candies, cigarettes, and especially medicines for sore throats

– men•tho•lat•ed /ˈmɛnθəˌleɪtəd/ adj ▪ mentholated cigarettes [=cigarettes that contain menthol]

[1]men•tion /ˈmɛnʃən/ verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing [+ obj]
1 : to talk about, write about, or refer to (something or someone) especially in a brief way ▪ In her speech, she mentioned (the help of) her parents, husband, and fellow actors. ▪ She's never mentioned anything to me about her husband. ▪ I get nervous every time his name is mentioned. ▪ They mentioned him by name. ▪ I believe I mentioned the problem to you last week. ▪ Most history books don't even mention the event. ▪ As previously mentioned, his proposal has been widely criticized. ▪ He fails/neglects to mention, however, the seriousness of the crime. ▪ She mentioned that she would be out of the office the following day. ▪ She has helped me in ways too numerous to mention. [=has helped me in very many ways] ▪ Her contributions were mentioned only in passing. [=mentioned only in a way that was very brief] ▪ Now (that) you mention it, I do remember seeing him before.
2 : to refer to or suggest (someone) as having a possible role or status ▪ He's being mentioned as a possible candidate. [=people are saying that he is a possible candidate] don't mention it — used to answer someone who has just thanked you for something ▪ "Thank you so much for your help." "Don't mention it. It was the least I could do."
not to mention — used when referring to another thing that relates to what you have just said ▪ Our favorite Italian restaurant makes its own fresh bread and salad dressing, not to mention [=in addition to] a great spaghetti sauce. ▪ We were cold, wet, and hungry, not to mention [=and also] extremely tired.

[2]mention noun, pl -tions : a short statement about something or someone : an act of mentioning something or someone — usually singular [count] In her speech, she carefully avoided any mention of her costar. ▪ There was barely a mention of the plan's possible dangers. ▪ The mere mention of blood makes me ill. ▪ I get nervous at the mention of his name. ▪ Her contributions deserve a mention. [noncount] One other issue deserves special mention. ▪ Her contributions deserve some mention. = Her contributions are worthy of mention. ▪ She made mention of [=she mentioned] their contributions. ▪ Most history books make no mention of the event. [=they say nothing about the event] — see also HONORABLE MENTION

[1]men•tor /ˈmɛnˌtoə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : someone who teaches or gives help and advice to a less experienced and often younger person ▪ After college, her professor became her close friend and mentor. ▪ He needed a mentor to teach him about the world of politics. ▪ We volunteer as mentors to/of disadvantaged children. ▪ young boys in need of mentors

[2]mentor verb -tors; -tored; -tor•ing [+ obj] : to teach or give advice or guidance to (someone, such as a less experienced person or a child) : to act as a mentor for (someone) ▪ The young intern was mentored by the country's top heart surgeon. ▪ Our program focuses on mentoring teenagers.

– mentoring noun [noncount] ▪ young boys in need of mentoring

menu /ˈmɛnˌjuː/ noun, pl men•us [count]
1 a : a list of the foods that may be ordered at a restaurant ▪ I'd like to see your lunch menu, please. ▪ What's good on the menu today? ▪ There are two chicken dishes under eight dollars listed on the menu. b : the foods that are served at a meal ▪ When you're planning a dinner party, the choice of (the/your) menu is very important.
2 : a list of things that you can choose from ▪ a menu of television programs; especially, computers : a list shown on a computer from which you make choices to control what the computer does ▪ You can save your work by choosing "Save" from the "File" menu. — see also DROP-DOWN MENU, PULL-DOWN MENU

[1]me•ow (chiefly US) or Brit mi•aow /miˈaʊ/ noun, pl me•ows [count] : the crying sound made by a cat
the cat's meow see CAT

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 40 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:54 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[2]meow (chiefly US) or Brit miaow verb meows; me•owed; me•ow•ing [no obj] of a cat : to make a crying sound ▪ We could hear a cat meowing at the door.

mer•can•tile /ˈməkənˌtiːl, ˈməkənˌtajəl/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : of or relating to the business of buying and selling products to earn money : of or relating to trade or merchants ▪ mercantile policy ▪ a small mercantile [=merchant] town ▪ wealthy mercantile families

[1]mer•ce•nary /ˈməsəˌneri, Brit ˈməːsənəri/ noun, pl -nar•ies [count] : a soldier who is paid by a foreign country to fight in its army : a soldier who will fight for any group or country that hires him ▪ an army of foreign mercenaries

[2]mercenary adj
1 always used before a noun : hired to fight ▪ mercenary armies ▪ a mercenary soldier
2 [more ~; most ~] disapproving : caring only about making money ▪ His motives in choosing a career were purely mercenary. ▪ a mercenary [=greedy] businesswoman

[1]mer•chan•dise /ˈməʧənˌdaɪz/ noun [noncount] somewhat formal : goods that are bought and sold ▪ We sell quality merchandise. ▪ The merchandise will arrive by truck at noon. ▪ He's developed his own brand of merchandise.

[2]merchandise verb -dis•es; -dised; -dis•ing [+ obj]
1 : to make the public aware of (a product being offered for sale) by using advertising and other methods ▪ merchandising women's shoes
2 : to present (someone) to the public like a product being offered for sale ▪ merchandise a movie star ▪ The political candidates are being merchandised to the public.
– mer•chan•dis•er noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Merchandisers decorated their stores' windows for the holidays.

mer•chan•dis•ing /ˈməʧənˌdaɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the activity of trying to sell goods or services by advertising them or displaying them attractively ▪ She is the company's director of merchandising.
2 : the activity of selling products that are related to something (such as a television show, movie, or sports team) in order to make more money ▪ The film made a lot of money thanks to strong merchandising. ▪ Most of the movie's earnings came from merchandising and not ticket sales.

[1]mer•chant /ˈməʧənt/ noun, pl -chants [count]
1 somewhat old-fashioned : someone who buys and sells goods especially in large amounts ▪ a wine merchant [=dealer] ▪ Merchants traveled hundreds of miles to trade in the city. ▪ a family of wealthy merchants
2 chiefly US or Scotland : the owner or manager of a store ▪ The town's merchants closed their shops during the parade. ▪ Prizes were given by local merchants.
3 informal : someone who is known for a particular quality, activity, etc. ▪ He's a real speed merchant. [=he runs very fast] ▪ doom merchants [=people who are always saying that bad things are going to happen]

[2]merchant adj, always used before a noun : used for or involved in trading goods ▪ merchant ships ▪ a society's merchant class ▪ a wealthy merchant family

mer•chant•able /ˈməʧəntəbəl/ adj, law : of good enough quality to be sold ▪ merchantable wood merchant bank noun, pl ~ banks [count] chiefly Brit : a bank for large companies that trade goods in other countries – merchant banker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – merchant banking noun [noncount]

merchant marine noun [singular] chiefly US : all of a country's ships that are used for trading goods rather than for war; also : the people who work such ships ▪ a member of the merchant marine — called also (Brit) merchant navy merchant seaman noun, pl ~ -men [count] : a sailor who works on a ship involved in trading goods : a member of the merchant marine mer•ci•ful /ˈməsɪfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : treating people with kindness and forgiveness : not cruel or harsh : having or showing mercy ▪ a merciful ruler ▪ a merciful god ▪ He became less merciful to his enemies. ▪ a merciful decision
2 : giving relief from suffering ▪ He died a quick and merciful death. ▪ The movie at last came to a merciful end. [=the movie was so bad that its ending was a relief]

mer•ci•ful•ly /ˈməsɪfəli/ adv
1 : in a kind or merciful way ▪ His crimes have been dealt with mercifully.
2 : in a good or lucky way ▪ He makes movies that are mercifully free of violence. [=it is good that his movies do not have much violence] ▪ The lecture was mercifully brief. [=I was glad that the lecture was so brief] ▪ Mercifully, the professor always makes our tests easy.

mer•ci•less /ˈməsɪləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing no mercy : very cruel or harsh ▪ a merciless killer ▪ a merciless army ▪ the merciless killing of innocent people ▪ merciless honesty ▪ He has been merciless in his criticism of his opponent.
– mer•ci•less•ly adv ▪ mercilessly honest criticism ▪ the mercilessly hot sun mer•cu•ri•al /məˈkjərijəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : changing moods quickly and often — used to describe someone who often changes from being happy to being angry or upset in a quick and unexpected way ▪ a mercurial movie star ▪ She had a mercurial personality/disposition. ▪ mercurial behavior b : changing often : very changeable ▪ mercurial weather
2 : very lively and quick ▪ mercurial wit

mer•cu•ry /ˈməkjəri/ noun
1 [noncount] a : a silver metal that is liquid at normal temperatures b : the mercury in a thermometer that shows the air's temperature ▪ In the summer, the mercury can reach over 100 degrees Fahrenheit. ▪ By late afternoon, the mercury had dropped (to) below zero.
2 Mercury [singular] : the planet that is closest to the sun mer•cy /ˈməsi/ noun, pl -cies

1 [noncount] : kind or forgiving treatment of someone who could be treated harshly ▪ He is a vicious criminal who deserves no mercy. ▪ She fell to her knees and asked/begged/pleaded for mercy. ▪ Have you no mercy? = Are you utterly without mercy? ▪ May God have mercy on us all. [=may God treat us all with kindness and forgiveness] ▪ He showed no mercy to his enemies. = He showed his enemies no mercy. [=he treated his enemies very harshly] ▪ The boss took mercy on us [=he treated us kindly] and let us go home early. ▪ a man of mercy [=a man who treats other people with kindness and forgiveness] ▪ The prisoner confessed his crimes and threw himself on the mercy of the court. [=the prisoner begged the court for mercy]
2 [noncount] : kindness or help given to people who are in a very bad or desperate situation ▪ an act of mercy ▪ They came on a mission/errand of mercy to provide food and medical care for starving children. ▪ a mercy mission
3 [count] : a good or lucky fact or situation ▪ It's a mercy that the building was empty when the fire started. ▪ We should be grateful/thankful for small mercies. [=even though bad things have happened to us, we should be grateful that our situation is not worse] ▪ Thank heaven for small mercies.
4 old-fashioned + informal — used as an interjection to show surprise ▪ Mercy! That wind is cold! ▪ I'm not hungry, but mercy [=heavens, goodness], that food sure does smell good! ▪ Mercy me! That wind is cold.
at the mercy of or at someone's or something's mercy : in a position or situation in which you can be harmed by (someone or something you cannot control) ▪ With no way to control the ship, we were at the mercy of the sea. ▪ The people were at the mercy of the advancing army. = The army advanced, and the people were at their mercy. [=the people could do nothing to defend themselves from the army] ▪ Our plans were at the mercy of the weather.
to the mercy of or to the (tender) mercies of : without any protection from (someone or something you cannot control) ▪ He had to leave his boat to the mercy of the storm. ▪ As the army retreated, the people were left to the mercies of the advancing enemy.

mercy killing noun, pl ~ -ings : the killing of someone who is very sick or injured in order to prevent any further suffering [count] Some called her death a mercy killing. [noncount] He is opposed to mercy killing. [=euthanasia]

mere /miə/ adj, always used before a noun mer•est
1 — used to say that something or someone is small, unimportant, etc. ▪ She was a mere child [=she was only a child] when her father died. ▪ His voice did not rise above a mere whisper. = His voice did not rise above the merest [=slightest] whisper. ▪ You can taste a mere hint of spice. = You can taste the merest hint of spice. ▪ The trip takes a mere two hours. [=the trip takes only two hours] ▪ You can own this car for a mere 20 dollars a week. ▪ These mysteries can't be solved by mere mortals like us.
2 — used to say that something small is important or has a big effect or influence ▪ The mere thought of going makes me nervous. ▪ The mere fact that he agreed to help us is a good sign. ▪ The mere/merest mention of his name makes her

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 41 SESS: 32 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:55 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

angry. ▪ He gets sick at the merest sight of blood.

mere•ly /ˈmiəli/ adv : ONLY, JUST — used to say that someone or something is small, unimportant, etc. ▪ This is merely a minor delay. ▪ They were merely children when their father died. ▪ Was it merely a coincidence? ▪ It was merely a suggestion. — used to describe the only reason for something or the only effect of something ▪ She got the job merely because her father owns the company. [=the only reason she got the job was because her father owns the company] ▪ Your essay merely hints at the real problem. ▪ You shouldn't blame her. She was merely following orders. [=she was following orders and not doing anything more than that] ▪ I'm not criticizing you. I'm merely suggesting that we try a new approach.

not merely — used to say that one thing is true and that another thing is also true ▪ He was not merely a great baseball player, he was also a great person.

mer•e•tri•cious /ˌmerəˈtrɪʃəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : attractive in a cheap or false way ▪ meretricious beauty

merge /ˈməʤ/ verb merg•es; merged; merg•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (two or more things, such as two companies) to come together and become one thing ▪ They planned to merge [=combine, unite] the two companies. ▪ Their music merges [=blends, combines] different styles from around the world. : to join or unite (one thing) with another ▪ To save the business, the owners decided to merge it with one of their competitors. b [no obj] : to become joined or united ▪ The two banks merged to form one large institution. ▪ Many small companies have been forced to merge. ▪ Three lanes of traffic all merge at this point. — often + with ▪ Many small companies have been forced to merge with other small companies. — often + into ▪ The two former rivals have merged into one large business. ▪ Three lanes of traffic merge into one.

2 [no obj] : to change into or become part of something else in a very gradual way ▪ Day slowly merged into night. ▪ Along the coast the mountains gradually merge with the shore. ▪ She merged into the crowd and disappeared.

merg•er /ˈməʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : the act or process of combining two or more businesses into one business ▪ The law firm announced its $50 million merger with one of its competitors. ▪ If the proposed merger of the two oil companies goes through, it would be bad for the economy.

me•rid•i•an /məˈrɪdijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : any one of the lines that go from the North Pole to the South Pole on maps of the world — see also PRIME MERIDIAN me•ringue /məˈræŋ/ noun, pl -ringues [count, noncount] : a light, sweet mixture of egg whites and sugar that is baked and used as a topping for pies and cakes ▪ a layer of meringue ▪ lemon meringue pie

[1]mer•it /ˈmerət/ noun, pl -its

1 [count] : a good quality or feature that deserves to be praised ▪ The great merit [=advantage, strength] of this plan is its simplicity. — usually plural ▪ The plan has many merits. ▪ It's difficult to judge the merits of her proposal. ▪ We were talking about the relative merits of running and walking as kinds of exercise. ▪ The five contestants will be judged on their own merits. [=they will be judged by looking at their skills and their good and bad qualities] ▪ We should consider each idea on its merits. [=we should consider the good and bad things about each idea]

2 [noncount] formal : the quality of being good, important, or useful : value or worth ▪ His ideas have (some) merit. ▪ She saw merit in both of the arguments. ▪ Their idea is without merit. = Their idea has no merit. ▪ The study has no scientific merit. ▪ Hiring decisions are based entirely on merit. [=people are hired because they have the skills to do the job well]

[2]merit verb -its; -it•ed; -it•ing [+ obj] : to deserve (something, such as attention or good treatment) by being important or good ▪ Both ideas merit further consideration. ▪ These issues merit special attention. ▪ His good work merits a raise. ▪ She did well enough to merit a second interview. ▪ The attention she received was not merited.

mer•i•to•ri•ous /ˌmerəˈtorijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : deserving honor or praise ▪ She was given an award for meritorious service. ▪ meritorious conduct ▪ a meritorious [=praiseworthy] achievement

mer•maid /ˈməˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] : an imaginary sea creature that has a woman's head and body and a fish's tail instead of legs

mer•ri•ment /ˈmerɪmənt/ noun [noncount] : laughter and enjoyment ▪ a time of great joy and merriment ▪ Their house was always filled with merriment. ▪ My embarrassment was a cause/source of great merriment among my friends. [=my friends were very amused by my embarrassment]

mer•ry /ˈmeri/ adj mer•ri•er; -est somewhat old-fashioned

1 : very happy and cheerful : feeling or showing joy and happiness ▪ Let's eat, drink, and be merry! ▪ They sang a merry little song. ▪ a merry man ▪ merry laughter

2 : causing joy and happiness ▪ a very merry occasion

go on your merry way 1 or be on your merry way : to leave a place ▪ Soon I'll be on my merry way. [=soon I'll be leaving] 2 often disapproving : to continue doing what you have been doing ▪ She just goes on her merry way, loving men and then breaking their hearts.

lead (someone) a merry chase/dance see [1]LEAD make merry old-fashioned : to have fun and enjoy yourself by eating, drinking, dancing, etc. ▪ They made merry throughout the night.

Merry Christmas — used to wish someone an enjoyable Christmas holiday ▪ Merry Christmas to you and your family. ▪ We wish you a Merry Christmas and a happy New Year!

the more the merrier — used to say that more people are welcome or invited to do something ▪ "Can I bring my friends to the party?" "Of course, the more the merrier!"

– mer•ri•ly /ˈmerəli/ adv ▪ laughing merrily – mer•ri•ness /ˈmerinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the merriness of the occasion

mer•ry–go–round /ˈmerigoʊˌraʊnd/ noun, pl -rounds [count]

1 : a large round platform that turns around in a circle and has seats and figures of animals (such as horses) on which children sit for a ride ▪ We rode the merry-go-round at the town fair. — called also (US) carousel, (Brit) roundabout

2 : a set or series of repeated activities that are quick, confusing, or difficult to leave ▪ a merry-go-round of parties ▪ She couldn't get off the legal merry-go-round.

merry-go-round

mer•ry•mak•ing /ˈmeriˌmeɪkiŋ/ noun [noncount] : fun and enjoyment : joyful celebration that includes eating, drinking, singing, and dancing ▪ a night of merrymaking

– mer•ry•mak•er /ˈmeriˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a crowd of merrymakers

me•sa /ˈmeɪsə/ noun, pl -sas [count] : a hill that has a flat top and steep sides and that is found in the southwestern U.S. — see color picture on page C7

mes•ca•line also Brit mes•ca•lin /ˈmɛskələn/ noun [noncount] : a drug that comes from a cactus and that makes people see things that are not real

mes•clun /ˈmɛsklən/ noun [noncount] US : a mixture of young leaves from different plants (such as different types of lettuce) that is eaten as a salad

mesdames plural of MADAM 1, MADAME mesdemoiselles plural of MADEMOISELLE

[1]mesh /ˈmɛʃ/ noun, pl mesh•es : a material made from threads or wires with evenly spaced holes that allow air or water to pass through [noncount] We covered the blueberry bushes in nylon mesh to keep the birds from the fruit. ▪ wire mesh [count] a wire mesh — sometimes used figuratively ▪ She was caught in a mesh [=(more commonly) web] of her own lies.

[2]mesh verb meshes; meshed; mesh•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (things) to fit together or work together successfully ▪ They meshed traditions from several cultures into one wedding ceremony. ▪ The book tries to mesh philosophy and/with humor. b [no obj] : to fit or work together successfully ▪ The two plans mesh well/nicely. — often + with ▪ The movie's score meshes well with its somber plot. ▪ He never meshed with the rest of the team.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 42 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

2 [no obj] of the parts of a machine : to fit together and move together properly ▪ The gears weren't meshing properly.

mes•mer•ize also Brit mes•mer•ise /ˈmɛzməˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to hold the attention of (someone) entirely : to interest or amaze (someone) so much that nothing else is seen or noticed — usually used as (be) mesmerized ▪ The crowd was mesmerized by the acrobats.

– mesmerizing also Brit mesmerising adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a mesmerizing voice/performance/beat

mes•quite /məˈskiːt/ noun, pl -quites [count] : a tree or bush that grows in the southwestern U.S. and Mexico and that has a hard wood which is often used in grilling food because of the special flavor produced by its smoke; also [noncount] : the wood of the mesquite

[1]mess /ˈmɛs/ noun, pl mess•es

1 a [count] : a very dirty or untidy state or condition — usually singular ▪ We found the papers in a mess. ▪ It took years to clean up the mess caused by the oil spill. ▪ She's the only cook in the family who never makes a mess of/in the kitchen. b [singular] : something or someone that looks very dirty or untidy ▪ The apartment was a mess when he left it. = He left the apartment a mess. ▪ He was a mess after gardening all day. ▪ My hair is a mess.

2 [count] a : a situation that is very complicated or difficult to deal with ▪ I don't know how the economy got to be (in) such a mess. ▪ Well, that's another fine mess you've gotten me into! ▪ How do we get ourselves into these messes? b : something that is not organized well or working correctly ▪ The school system is a mess. ▪ Things were a real mess for a while after she retired. ▪ My life is a complete mess.

3 [singular] informal a : someone who is very unhappy, confused, etc. ▪ She was a real mess for a while after her divorce. b US : someone who is showing a lot of emotion especially by crying ▪ He was a mess during his daughter's wedding ceremony.

4 [count] : the place where people in the military eat ▪ the officers' mess — called also mess hall

5 [singular] US, informal : a large amount of something — + of ▪ a mess of cash ▪ a mess of cabbage/greens/peas ▪ They're in a mess of trouble. [=a lot of trouble]

6 informal : solid waste from an animal [count] The puppy made a mess on the rug. [noncount] cleaning up dog mess make a mess of : to ruin (something) or to make many mistakes in doing (something) ▪ The scandal made a mess of his political career. ▪ The weather made a mess of our plans. ▪ He made a mess of his speech.

[2]mess verb messes; messed; mess•ing

mess around or Brit mess about [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to spend time doing things that are not useful or serious : to waste time ▪ We just messed around [=fooled around] all afternoon. ▪ She spent the evening messing around on the computer. ▪ It's time we stopped messing around and got busy. 2 : to have sex with someone who is not your husband, wife, or regular partner ▪ His wife discovered that he was messing around [=fooling around] (on her). — often + with ▪ His wife discovered that he was messing around with his secretary. 3 mess (someone) around/about Brit : to cause problems or trouble for (someone) especially by making changes that are not expected ▪ I don't like being messed about this way! 4 mess around/about with (something) a : to use or do (something) in a way that is not very serious ▪ I'm not really a painter; I just like to mess around with paints. ▪ She spent the evening messing around with [=fooling around with] the computer. b : to handle or play with (something) in a careless or foolish way ▪ Stop messing around [=fiddling around] with the stereo.

mess up [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to make a mistake : to do something incorrectly ▪ About halfway into the recipe, I realized that I had messed up, and I had to start over. — often + on ▪ She's afraid she'll mess up on the test. ▪ I messed up on my first attempt. 2 mess (something) up or mess up (something) a : to make mistakes when you are doing or making (something) ▪ He messed up the speech. ▪ I messed up my first attempt and had to try again. b : to make (something) dirty or untidy : to make a mess of (something) ▪ Don't mess up my room. ▪ The wind messed up her hair. = Her hair got messed up in the wind. c : to damage or ruin (something) ▪ She's really messed up her life. ▪ His life has been messed up by his drug addiction. : to damage or change (something) so that it does not work properly ▪ I don't know what I did, but I somehow messed up the computer. ▪ My watch has been messed up [=has not worked properly] ever since I dropped it in the sink. ▪ The mountains messed up the cell phone signal. 3 mess (someone) up or mess up (someone) a US : to beat and injure (someone) ▪ He got messed up [=roughed up, beaten up] by a gang of bullies. ▪ They messed him up pretty badly. b : to make (someone) very upset and unhappy ▪ Breaking up with her boyfriend has really messed her up. ▪ She's been pretty messed up ever since she broke up with her boyfriend.

mess with [phrasal verb] informal 1 mess with (someone) : to cause trouble for (someone) : to deal with (someone) in a way that may cause anger or violence ▪ I wouldn't want to mess with him. ▪ You'd better not be messing with me. 2 mess with (something) a chiefly US : to deal with or be involved with (something that causes or that could cause trouble) ▪ The company doesn't want to mess with small distributors. ▪ He doesn't want to mess with cocaine anymore. b : to handle or play with (something) in a careless way : to mess around with (something) ▪ Don't mess with the camera. 3 ✧ In very informal English, something that messes with your mind/head causes you to feel confused. ▪ The movie messes with your mind and you don't find out what's going on until the end.

mes•sage /ˈmɛsɪʤ/ noun, pl -sag•es

1 [count] : a piece of information that is sent or given to someone ▪ an e-mail message ▪ deliver/send/receive a message ▪ Did you get my message? ▪ She has received messages of support/sympathy from hundreds of people. ▪ Were there any messages for me? = Did anyone leave a message for me? ▪ I left a message on her answering machine. ▪ He's not here right now. Can I take a message? ▪ The computer displayed an error message. [=a message indicating that an error has occurred] — see also TEXT MESSAGE

2 [singular] : an important idea that someone is trying to express in a book, movie, speech, etc. ▪ I liked the story but I didn't really agree with the book's message. ▪ He believed in the church's message of forgiveness. ▪ She hopes the speech will help her to get the party's message across. [=help her to tell people what the party believes or stands for] get the message informal : to understand something that is not being said directly ▪ When they didn't return my phone calls, I finally got the message. [=I finally realized that they did not want to talk to me] ▪ He gave her an angry look, hoping she'd get the message.

mixed messages see MIXED off message : saying things that do not agree with the official position of a political group or party ▪ A few Cabinet members seem off message on government policy.

on message : saying things that agree with the official position of a political group or party ▪ The President wants everyone to be/get back on message when giving interviews.

message board noun, pl ~ boards [count] : a public computer system on the Internet that allows people to read and leave messages for other users — called also bulletin board

mes•sag•ing /ˈmɛsɪʤɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : a system used for sending messages electronically ▪ an electronic messaging system/service ▪ wireless messaging — see also INSTANT MESSAGING

mes•sen•ger /ˈmɛsnʤə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : someone who delivers a message or does other small jobs that involve going somewhere ▪ Their company's messenger brought us the plans. = The company's plans were brought to us by messenger. ▪ They sent a messenger to pick up the package.

blame/shoot the messenger : to become angry at someone who has told you bad news mess hall noun, pl ~ halls [count] : [1]MESS 4

mes•si•ah /məˈsajə/ noun, pl -ahs

1 the Messiah a Judaism : a king who will be sent by God to save the Jews b Christianity : Jesus Christ

2 [count] : a person who is expected to save people from a very bad situation ▪ They thought the new principal was the messiah the school had been hoping for. ▪ a political messiah

mes•si•an•ic /ˌmɛsiˈænɪk/ adj

1 : relating to or having the qualities of a messiah ▪ a messianic political leader

2 : supporting a social, political, or religious cause or set of beliefs with great enthusiasm and energy ▪ messianic zeal

Messrs. (US) or Brit Messrs /ˈmɛsəz/ — used as a formal plural of Mr. ▪ Messrs. Lowry and Jones, Attorneys at Law messy /ˈmɛsi/ adj mess•i•er; -est

1 : not clean or tidy ▪ a very messy room ▪ messy papers

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 43 SESS: 33 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

2 : carelessly made or done : not careful or precise ▪ messy [=sloppy] thinking
3 : causing or involving a mess ▪ a messy pen ▪ Painting a room can be messy work. : likely to make something dirty or sticky ▪ Some kinds of glue are messier than others. ▪ messy hair gel ▪ a delicious but messy sandwich
4 : very unpleasant and complicated ▪ a messy divorce/scandal ▪ I heard all of the messy details of the lawsuit.
– mess·i·ly /ˈmɛsəli/ adv ▪ She splattered the paint messily [=sloppily, carelessly] on the wall. – mess·i·ness /ˈmɛsinəs/ noun [noncount]

met past tense and past participle of [1]MEET

meta- /mɛtə/ prefix
1 : change ▪ *meta*morphosis
2 : more than : beyond ▪ *meta*physics

me·tab·o·lism /məˈtæbəˌlɪzəm/ noun, pl -lisms biology : the chemical processes by which a plant or an animal uses food, water, etc., to grow and heal and to make energy [count] studying the metabolisms of various organisms ▪ Regular exercise can help to increase your metabolism. [=increase the rate at which your body turns food into energy] [noncount] protein metabolism
– met·a·bol·ic /ˌmɛtəˈbɑːlɪk/ adj ▪ metabolic rate ▪ a metabolic disorder – met·a·bol·ic·al·ly /ˌmɛtəˈbɑːlɪkli/ adv

me·tab·o·lize also Brit me·tab·o·lise /məˈtæbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz·es; -lized; -liz·ing [+ obj] biology : to change (food) into a form that can be used by your body : to process and use (substances brought into your body) by metabolism ▪ metabolizing nutrients ▪ Food is metabolized by the body.

met·al /ˈmɛtl/ noun, pl -als : a substance (such as gold, tin, or copper) that usually has a shiny appearance, is a good conductor of electricity and heat, can be melted, and is usually capable of being shaped [noncount] scraps/strips/sheets/lumps/pieces of metal ▪ a mixture of various kinds of metal ▪ sculptors who work in metal and clay [count] a mixture of different metals ▪ Gold is a metal. — often used before another noun ▪ metal bowls ▪ a metal roof — see also HEAVY METAL, SHEET METAL, precious metal at PRECIOUS put the pedal to the metal see [1]PEDAL

me·tal·lic /məˈtælɪk/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : resembling metal: such as a : shiny like metal ▪ a metallic blue color ▪ We chose a paint with a metallic luster. b : tasting like metal ▪ The medicine has a metallic taste.
2 : made of metal or containing metal ▪ metallic threads ▪ Silver is a metallic element.
3 [more ~; most ~] : having a harsh sound ▪ a metallic [=grating] voice ▪ the metallic screech of the car's brakes met·al·lur·gy /ˈmɛtlˌədʒi, Brit məˈtæləʤi/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with the nature and uses of metal ▪ studying metallurgy

– met·al·lur·gi·cal /ˌmɛtlˈədʒɪkəl/ adj ▪ metallurgical techniques – met·al·lur·gist /ˈmɛtlˌədʒɪst, Brit məˈtæləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ an expert metallurgist

met·al·work /ˈmɛtlˌwək/ noun [noncount] : things that are made out of metal; especially : metal objects that are made in an artistic and skillful way ▪ fine metalwork ▪ a beautiful piece of metalwork

met·al·work·ing /ˈmɛtlˌwəkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or process of making things out of metal ▪ ancient metalworking techniques – met·al·work·er /ˈmɛtlˌwəkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a skillful metalworker

meta·mor·phose /ˌmɛtəˈmoəˌfoʊz/ verb -phos·es; -phosed; -phos·ing [no obj] : to change in an important and obvious way into something that is very different : to undergo metamorphosis — usually + into ▪ This once-small company has metamorphosed into an industrial giant. ▪ She has metamorphosed from a shy schoolgirl into a self-confident young businesswoman. ▪ studying the process by which caterpillars metamorphose into butterflies

meta·mor·pho·sis /ˌmɛtəˈmoəfəsəs/ noun, pl -pho·ses /-fəˌsiːz/
1 : a major change in the appearance or character of someone or something [count] We have watched her metamorphosis from a shy schoolgirl into a self-confident businesswoman. ▪ a company that has gone through a series of metamorphoses [noncount] The government has undergone political metamorphosis since his election.
2 biology : a major change in the form or structure of some animals or insects that happens as the animal or insect becomes an adult [noncount] the metamorphosis of tadpoles into frogs ▪ The class learned about how caterpillars undergo metamorphosis to become butterflies. [count] caterpillars undergoing metamorphoses

met·a·phor /ˈmɛtəˌfoə, Brit ˈmɛtəfə/ noun, pl -phors
1 : a word or phrase for one thing that is used to refer to another thing in order to show or suggest that they are similar [count] "He was drowning in paperwork" is a metaphor in which having to deal with a lot of paperwork is being compared to drowning in an ocean of water. ▪ Her poems include many imaginative metaphors. [noncount] a poet admired for her use of metaphor — compare SIMILE; see also MIXED METAPHOR
2 [count] : an object, activity, or idea that is used as a symbol of something else — often + for ▪ The author uses flight as a metaphor for freedom. ▪ The veil is a metaphor for [=symbol of] secrecy.
– met·a·phor·i·cal /ˌmɛtəˈfɔrɪkəl/ adj ▪ a metaphorical description of children as plants growing in a garden ▪ In this class, we'll be taking a metaphorical journey through Russian literature of the 19th century. – met·a·phor·i·cal·ly /ˌmɛtəˈfɔrɪkli/ adv ▪ speaking metaphorically

meta·phys·i·cal /ˌmɛtəˈfɪzɪkəl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or based on metaphysics ▪ metaphysical philosophy ▪ metaphysical questions
2 : of or relating to things that are thought to exist but that cannot be seen ▪ a metaphysical world of spirits
– meta·phys·i·cal·ly /ˌmɛtəˈfɪzɪkli/ adv

meta·phys·ics /ˌmɛtəˈfɪzɪks/ noun [noncount] : the part of philosophy that is concerned with the basic causes and nature of things

mete /ˈmiːt/ verb metes; met·ed; met·ing mete out [phrasal verb] mete (something) out or mete out (something) : to give (something) to the people who you decide should get it : to give out or distribute (something) ▪ We're trying to be fair in meting out rewards and punishments. — usually used to refer to something unpleasant (such as punishment) ▪ Huge fines were meted out as punishment. ▪ The king meted out justice as he saw fit.

me·te·or /ˈmiːtijə/ noun, pl -ors [count] : a piece of rock or metal that burns and glows brightly in the sky as it falls from outer space into the Earth's atmosphere ▪ a meteor shower [=a large number of meteors seen in a short time]

me·te·or·ic /ˌmiːtiˈɔrɪk/ adj
1 : very sudden or fast ▪ a meteoric rise to fame ▪ a meteoric ascent ▪ a meteoric fall
2 : marked by very quick success ▪ a meteoric career me·te·or·ite /ˈmiːtijəˌraɪt/ noun, pl -ites [count] : a piece of rock or metal that has fallen to the ground from outer space : a meteor that reaches the surface of the Earth without burning up entirely

me·te·o·rol·o·gy /ˌmiːtijəˈrɑːləʤi/ noun [noncount] : a science that deals with the atmosphere and with weather
– me·te·o·ro·log·i·cal /ˌmiːtijərəˈlɑːʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ meteorological forecasts ▪ meteorological conditions – me·te·o·rol·o·gist /ˌmiːtiəˈrɑːləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] ▪ a storm forecast by meteorologists

[1]me·ter /ˈmiːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]
1 : a device that measures and records the amount of something that has been used ▪ a gas meter ▪ a water meter
2 : PARKING METER ▪ He left the restaurant to feed the meter. [=to put more money in the parking meter]
– compare [2]METER, [3]METER

[2]meter (US) or Brit me·tre noun, pl -ters [count] : the basic metric unit of length equal to about 39.37 inches — compare [1]METER, [3]METER

[3]meter (US) or Brit metre noun, pl -ters : a way of arranging the sounds or beats in poetry : a particular rhythmic pattern in poetry [count] the poet's use of different meters [noncount] the poet's use of rhyme and meter — compare [1]METER, [2]METER

-meter noun combining form : device used to measure something ▪ bar*ometer* ▪ therm*ometer*

meter maid noun, pl ~ maids [count] chiefly US, somewhat old-fashioned : a woman whose job is to find vehicles that are parked illegally meth·a·done /ˈmɛθəˌdoʊn/ noun [noncount] : a drug that people take to help them stop taking heroin meth·ane /ˈmɛˌθeɪn, Brit ˈmiːˌθeɪn/ noun [noncount] : a colorless gas that has no smell and that can be burned for fuel meth·a·nol /ˈmɛθəˌnɑːl/ noun [noncount] technical : a poisonous alcohol that is used to keep liquids from freezing, as a fuel, etc. — called also methyl alcohol

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 44 SESS: 51 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:56 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m me•thinks /mɪˈθɪŋks/ verb me•thought /mɪˈθɑːt/ literary + humorous : I think ▪ It's going to rain, methinks. [=I think it's going to rain] ▪ Methought [=I thought] I heard him calling.

meth•od /ˈmɛθəd/ noun, pl -ods
1 [count] : a way of doing something ▪ He claims to have developed a new method for growing tomatoes. ▪ Their teaching method tries to adapt lessons to each student. ▪ We need to adopt more modern methods of doing things. — see also SCIENTIFIC METHOD
2 [noncount] formal : a careful or organized plan that controls the way something is done ▪ The book lacks method. [=the book is not arranged in an orderly way]
(a) method in/to your madness ✧ If there is method in your madness or (US) (a) method to your madness, there are good reasons for your actions even though they may seem foolish or strange. ▪ Though his staff is often confused by the way he runs the office, I've found that there's method in his madness.

me•thod•i•cal /məˈθɑːdɪkəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : done by using a careful and organized procedure ▪ a methodical search ▪ Their methodical review of the evidence exposed some problems with the study's findings.
2 : working in a very careful and organized way ▪ She's a slow and methodical worker, and her drawings reflect the extra care she takes.
– me•thod•i•cal•ly /məˈθɑːdɪkli/ adv ▪ They are methodically reviewing the evidence.

Meth•od•ist /ˈmɛθədɪst/ adj : of or relating to any one of several Christian churches that follow the teachings of John Wesley ▪ He comes from a family of Methodist preachers. ▪ a Methodist church
– Meth•od•ism /ˈmɛθəˌdɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
– Methodist noun, pl -ists [count]

meth•od•ol•o•gy /ˌmɛθəˈdɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies : a set of methods, rules, or ideas that are important in a science or art : a particular procedure or set of procedures [count] scientific theories and methodologies [noncount] He blamed the failure of their research on poor methodology.

methyl alcohol /ˈmɛθəl-/ noun [noncount] technical : METHANOL me•tic•u•lous /məˈtɪkjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very careful about doing something in an extremely accurate and exact way ▪ He described the scene in meticulous detail. ▪ She did meticulous work. ▪ He keeps meticulous records. ▪ He is meticulous about keeping accurate records. ▪ She's a meticulous researcher.

– me•tic•u•lous•ly adv ▪ It's a beautiful Victorian house, meticulously restored. ▪ meticulously careful research
– me•tic•u•lous•ness /məˈtɪkjələsnəs/ noun [noncount]

mé•tier also me•tier /ˈmɛˌtjeɪ/ noun, pl -tiers [count] formal : something that a person does very well ▪ After trying several careers, she found her true métier in computer science. ▪ Public speaking is not my métier. [=forte, strength]

metre Brit spelling of [2]METER, [3]METER

met•ric /ˈmɛtrɪk/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or based on the metric system ▪ The metric unit of energy is the "joule." ▪ a metric wrench [=a wrench that is sized according to the metric system]
2 : METRICAL ▪ metric patterns met•ri•cal /ˈmɛtrɪkəl/ adj : of, relating to, or arranged in a rhythmic pattern of beats : of or relating poetic meter ▪ metrical patterns – met•ri•cal•ly /ˈmɛtrɪkli/ adv

metric system noun
the metric system : a system of weights and measures that is based on the meter and on the kilogram

metric ton noun, pl ~ tons [count] : a unit of mass and weight equal to one million grams

[1]met•ro /ˈmɛtroʊ/ noun, pl -ros [count] : an underground railway system in some cities : SUBWAY ▪ the Paris Metro ▪ We took the metro to the museum. = We went by metro to the museum.

[2]metro adj, always used before a noun, US, informal : of or relating to a large city and sometimes to the area around it ▪ The event was attended by people from all over the metro [=metropolitan] area.

met•ro•nome /ˈmɛtrəˌnoʊm/ noun, pl -nomes [count] : a device that makes a regular, repeated sound to show a musician how fast a piece of music should be played
– met•ro•nom•ic /ˌmɛtrəˈnɑːmɪk/ adj

me•trop•o•lis /məˈtrɑːpələs/ noun, pl -lis•es [count] : a very large or important city — usually singular ▪ a bustling metropolis

met•ro•pol•i•tan /ˌmɛtrəˈpɑːlətən/ adj : of or relating to a large city and the surrounding cities and towns ▪ the greater New York metropolitan area ▪ This is one of the best seafood restaurants in metropolitan Los Angeles. ▪ a metropolitan newspaper met•tle /ˈmɛtl/ noun [noncount] : strength of spirit : ability to continue despite difficulties ▪ He proved/showed his mettle [=he proved/showed how tough he is] as a fighter tonight. ▪ The competition will test her mettle.

on your mettle chiefly Brit : making an effort to do as well as possible ▪ She'll have to be on her mettle [=at her best] to win this competition.

mew /ˈmjuː/ noun, pl mews [count] : MEOW ▪ a cat's mew
– mew /ˈmjuː/ verb mews; mewed; mew•ing [no obj] ▪ a mewing cat

mews /ˈmjuːz/ noun, pl mews [count] chiefly Brit : a street or area with buildings that were once horse stables but that have been made into houses ▪ a house in an elegant mews ▪ a mews house

Mex•i•can /ˈmɛksɪkən/ noun, pl -cans [count]
1 : a person born, raised, or living in Mexico
2 : a person whose family is from Mexico
– Mexican adj ▪ Mexican food/music ▪ Mexican Spanish [=the Spanish spoken in Mexico]

Mexican jumping bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] : JUMPING BEAN

Mexican wave noun
the Mexican wave Brit : [2]WAVE 7

mez•za•nine /ˈmɛzəˌniːn/ noun, pl -nines [count]
1 : a small floor that is between two main levels of a building and that is usually in the form of a balcony
2 US : the lowest balcony in a theater

mez•zo /ˈmɛtsoʊ/ noun, pl -zos [count] music : MEZZO-SOPRANO

mez•zo–so•pra•no /ˌmɛtsoʊsəˈprænoʊ, ˌmɛtsoʊsəˈprɑːnoʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] music : a female singing voice that is higher than the contralto and lower than the soprano ▪ a singer with a beautiful mezzo-soprano; also : a female singer with such a voice

MFA abbr master of fine arts

mfg. abbr manufacturing mg abbr milligram

mgmt. abbr management

mgr. abbr manager

MHz abbr megahertz

mi or chiefly Brit me /ˈmiː/ noun [noncount] music : the third note of a musical scale ▪ do, re, mi, fa, sol, la, ti

mi. abbr mile

MI abbr Michigan

MIA /ˌɛmˌaɪˈeɪ/ noun, pl MIAs [count] chiefly US : a soldier who was not found after a battle and who may or may not be dead : a soldier who is missing in action ▪ The fate of most MIAs in the war is still not known.

miaow Brit spelling of MEOW

mi•as•ma /maɪˈæzmə/ noun, pl -mas [count] formal + literary : a heavy cloud of something unpleasant or unhealthy — usually singular ▪ A miasma of smog settled over the city. ▪ a miasma of smoke ▪ a miasma of foul odors mic /ˈmaɪk/ noun, pl mics [count] US, informal : MICROPHONE mi•ca /ˈmaɪkə/ noun [noncount] : a mineral that separates easily into thin sheets mice plural of MOUSE

mick•ey /ˈmɪki/ noun, pl -eys [count] informal + old-fashioned : a drink of alcohol to which a drug has been added to cause the person who drinks it to become unconscious ▪ Someone tried to slip him a mickey. [=tried to knock him out by giving him a drugged drink] take the mickey (out of someone) Brit, informal : to make fun of someone ▪ Did you mean what you said about me or were you just taking the mickey? [=kidding] ▪ We took the mickey out of her [=we teased her] about her new hairstyle.

Mickey Mouse adj, informal + disapproving : not deserving to be taken seriously : having little value or importance ▪ He took a lot of Mickey Mouse [=very easy] courses when he was in college. ▪ The company is just a Mickey Mouse operation.

micro- combining form
1 a : very small ▪ *micro*film ▪ *micro*computer b : making a sound louder or an image larger ▪ *micro*phone ▪ *micro*scope

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 45 SESS: 35 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

2 : one millionth part of a (specified) unit ▪ *micro*second ▪ *micro*meter mi•crobe /'maɪˌkroʊb/ noun, pl -crobes [count] : an extremely small living thing that can only be seen with a microscope : MICROORGANISM ▪ a disease-causing microbe

– mi•cro•bi•al /maɪ'kroʊbijəl/ adj ▪ microbial life/growth/contamination mi•cro•bi•ol•o•gy /ˌmaɪkroʊbaɪ'ɑ:lədʒi/ noun [noncount] : a science that studies extremely small forms of life (such as bacteria and viruses) ▪ a degree in microbiology

– mi•cro•bi•o•log•i•cal /ˌmaɪkroʊˌbajə'lɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ microbiological contamination – mi•cro•bi•ol•o•gist /ˌmaɪkroʊbaɪ'ɑ:ləʤɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

mi•cro•brew /'maɪkroʊˌbru:/ noun, pl -brews [count] chiefly US : a beer made by a microbrewery ▪ The restaurant serves several locally produced microbrews.

mi•cro•brew•ery /ˌmaɪkroʊ'bru:wəri/ noun, pl -er•ies [count] chiefly US : a small brewery that makes beer in small amounts mi•cro•chip /'maɪkroʊˌʧɪp/ noun, pl -chips [count] computers : a group of tiny electronic circuits that work together on a very small piece of hard material (such as silicon) — called also integrated circuit

mi•cro•com•put•er /'maɪkroʊkəmˌpju:tə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a small computer; especially : PERSONAL COMPUTER

mi•cro•cosm /'maɪkrəˌkɑ:zəm/ noun, pl -cosms [count] : something (such as a place or an event) that is seen as a small version of something much larger ▪ The village is a microcosm of the whole country. ▪ The game was a microcosm of the entire season. — compare MACROCOSM in microcosm : in a greatly reduced size or form ▪ The model is designed to represent the town in microcosm.

mi•cro•eco•nom•ics /ˌmaɪkroʊˌɛkə'nɑ:mɪks, ˌmaɪkroʊˌi:kə'nɑ:mɪks/ noun [noncount] : the study of the economic decisions and actions of individual people, companies, etc. — compare MACROECONOMICS
– microeconomic adj

mi•cro•elec•tron•ics /ˌmaɪkrowɪˌlɛk'trɑ:nɪks/ noun, technical 1 [noncount] : the design, production, or use of very small electronic devices and circuits ▪ a job in microelectronics
2 [plural] : very small electronic devices or circuits ▪ the manufacturing of microelectronics
– mi•cro•elec•tron•ic /ˌmaɪkrowɪˌlɛk'trɑ:nɪk/ adj ▪ microelectronic chips/devices/technology mi•cro• che /'maɪkroʊˌfi:ʃ/ noun, pl - ches : a sheet of film that has very small photographs of the pages of a newspaper, magazine, etc., which are viewed by using a special machine : a sheet of microfilm [noncount] Every issue of the magazine is available on microfiche. [count] He looked at microfiches of old magazines.

mi•cro• lm /'maɪkrəˌfɪlm/ noun, pl - lms : film on which very small photographs of the printed pages of a newspaper, magazine, etc., are stored [noncount] newspapers available on microfilm [count] studying newspaper microfilms from the early 1900s mi•cro•man•age /ˌmaɪkroʊ'mænɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] chiefly US : to try to control or manage all the small parts of (something, such as an activity) in a way that is usually not wanted or that causes problems ▪ He micromanaged every detail of the budget.

– mi•cro•man•age•ment /ˌmaɪkroʊ'mænɪʤmənt/ noun [noncount] – mi•cro•man•ag•er /ˌmaɪkroʊ'mænɪʤə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[1]mi•crom•e•ter /maɪ'krɑ:mətə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a device used for measuring very small distances — compare [2]MICROMETER

[2]mi•cro•me•ter (US) or Brit mi•cro•me•tre /'maɪkroʊˌmi:tə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : one millionth of a meter — compare [1]MICROMETER

mi•cron /'maɪˌkrɑ:n/ noun, pl -crons [count] : [2]MICROMETER mi•cro•or•gan•ism /ˌmaɪkroʊ'oəgəˌnɪzəm/ noun, pl -isms [count] biology : an extremely small living thing that can only be seen with a microscope mi•cro•phone /'maɪkrəˌfoʊn/ noun, pl -phones [count] : a device into which people speak or sing in order to record their voices or to make them sound louder — called also (informal) mike mi•cro•pro•ces•sor /ˌmaɪkroʊ'prɑ:ˌsɛsə, Brit ˌmaɪkrəʊ'prəʊˌsɛsə/ noun, pl -sors [count] computers : the device in a computer that manages information and controls what the computer does mi•cro•scope /'maɪkrəˌskoʊp/ noun, pl -scopes [count] : a device used for producing a much larger view of very small objects so that they can be seen clearly ▪ Students viewed the crystals through/under/with a microscope. — see also ELECTRON MICROSCOPE under a/the microscope : in a state of being watched very closely ▪ Celebrities can find it difficult (to be) living under the microscope. ▪ The business has recently been put under the microscope by federal investigators.

mi•cro•scop•ic /ˌmaɪkrə'skɑ:pɪk/ adj
1 a : able to be seen only through a microscope : extremely small ▪ At this point, the embryo is a microscopic clump of only 100 cells. ▪ There is a microscopic crack in the diamond. b : much smaller than what is usual, normal, or expected ▪ He has a microscopic attention span. ▪ He recorded every aspect of his trip in microscopic detail.
2 always used before a noun : done with a microscope ▪ a microscopic examination/analysis ▪ a microscopic study of plant tissues – mi•cro•scop•i•cal•ly /ˌmaɪkrə'skɑ:pɪkli/ adv ▪ examined/studied the tissue microscopically ▪ a microscopically thin fiber mi•cro•sec•ond /'maɪkroʊˌsɛkənd/ noun, pl -onds [count]

1 : one millionth of a second
2 informal : a very short period of time ▪ She raised her hand a microsecond [=second] too late.

[1]mi•cro•wave /'maɪkroʊˌweɪv/ noun, pl -waves [count]
1 : MICROWAVE OVEN ▪ The apartment came with a microwave. — often used before another noun ▪ microwave cooking [=cooking using a microwave oven] ▪ microwave [=microwavable] popcorn ▪ a microwave dinner
2 physics : a very short wave of electromagnetic energy ▪ antennas for detecting microwaves ▪ microwave radiation

[2]microwave verb -waves; -waved; -wav•ing [+ obj] : to cook or heat (food) in a microwave oven ▪ microwave a bowl of soup
– mi•cro•wav•able or mi•cro•wave•able /ˌmaɪkrə'weɪvəbəl/ adj ▪ a microwavable pizza ▪ He heated up his soup in a microwavable bowl. [=a bowl that can be safely used in a microwave oven]

microwave oven noun, pl ∼ ovens [count] : an oven in which food is cooked or heated quickly by very short waves of electromagnetic energy — called also microwave; see picture at KITCHEN mid /'mɪd/ adj, always used before a noun : in or near the middle of something ▪ He's in his mid [=middle] twenties. ▪ the mid to late 1700s — often used in combination ▪ the mid-18th century ▪ He's in his mid-twenties. ▪ We'll be there in mid-August. ▪ He cut me off in mid-sentence. ▪ The ship was adrift in mid-ocean.

mid•af•ter•noon /ˌmɪdˌæftə'nu:n, Brit ˌmɪdˌɑ:ftə'nu:n/ noun [noncount] : the middle part of the afternoon ▪ We hope to make it home by midafternoon. — often used before another noun ▪ a midafternoon snack

mid•air /'mɪd'eə/ noun [noncount] : a region in the air not close to the ground ▪ The two planes collided in midair. ▪ We watched birds catching insects in midair. — often used before another noun ▪ a midair collision

Mi•das touch /'maɪdəs-/ noun
the Midas touch : the ability to make everything that you are involved with very successful ▪ an actor/businesswoman with the Midas touch

mid–Atlantic also Mid–Atlantic adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to the region of the U.S. that includes all or some of the states between New York and South Carolina ▪ mid-Atlantic states/cities/beaches
2 : located in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean ▪ mid-Atlantic islands

mid•day /'mɪdˌdeɪ/ noun [noncount] : the middle of the day : NOON ▪ They arrived around midday. — often used before another noun ▪ the midday sun ▪ the midday meal [=lunch]

[1]mid•dle /'mɪdl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : equally distant from the ends or sides : halfway between two points ▪ He walked down the middle [=center] aisle. ▪ during the century's middle decades ▪ High temperatures today should be in the middle 80s.
2 : in a state or place between two things or people ▪ He grew up as the middle child in a family with three children. [=he was the child born before the youngest and after the oldest] ▪ Franklin D. Roosevelt's middle initial stood for "Delano."

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 46 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:57 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[2]middle noun, pl mid•dles [count]
1 : a middle part, point, or position ▪ He parts his hair in the middle. [=center] ▪ A good essay will have a clear beginning, middle, and end. ▪ He stood exactly in the middle of the room. ▪ She opened the book to the middle and began to read. ▪ The car stopped in the middle of the road. ▪ The house should be finished by the middle of next summer. ▪ The beginning and ending of the movie were good, but the middle was pretty boring. ▪ Slice the banana right down the middle. [=slice it into two equal parts] ▪ We split the cost down the middle. [=we split the cost equally]
2 : the middle part of a person's body : WAIST ▪ She put her arms around his middle. ▪ He tied the sash around his middle.
in the middle : in a difficult or unpleasant position ▪ She hated conflict and did not want to be put in the middle. ▪ He was caught in the middle of his parents' divorce. = He was caught in the middle when his parents got divorced.
in the middle of 1 : while (something) is happening or being done : during (something) ▪ The protesters interrupted her in the middle of her speech. ▪ He kept waking up in the middle of the night. ▪ The movie was so bad we walked out right in the middle of it. 2 : in the process of (doing something) ▪ I was in the middle of (eating) dinner [=I was eating dinner] when the phone rang.
in the middle of nowhere : in a place that is far away from other people, houses, or cities ▪ We got lost in the middle of nowhere.

middle age noun [noncount] : the period in a person's life from about age 40 to about age 60 ▪ as our generation approaches middle age ▪ The patient was in late middle age. ▪ He feared the approach of middle age.
– mid•dle–aged /ˌmɪdlˈeɪʤd/ adj ▪ health problems common in middle-aged men and women ▪ a book loved by the young, the old, and the middle-aged [=middle-aged people]

Middle Ages noun
the Middle Ages : the period of European history from about A.D. 500 to about 1500

Middle America noun [noncount] : the usually traditional or conservative people of the middle class in the U.S. ▪ a politician who understands the needs of Middle America
– Middle American noun, pl ∼ -cans [count] – middle–American also Middle–American adj ▪ a typical middle-American home ▪ Middle-American values

Middle Atlantic adj, usually used before a noun : MID-ATLANTIC 1 ▪ the Middle Atlantic region
– Middle Atlantic noun [noncount] ▪ moderate winters in the Middle Atlantic

mid•dle•brow /ˈmɪdlˌbraʊ/ adj [more ∼; most ∼] : interested in art, literature, etc., that is not very serious and that is easy to understand ▪ This book appeals to middlebrow readers. : relating to or intended for people who are interested in art, literature, etc., that is not very serious and that is easy to understand ▪ people with middlebrow tastes ▪ a middlebrow magazine/movie — compare HIGHBROW, LOWBROW middle C noun, pl ∼ Cs [count, noncount] music : the musical note C that is close to the center of a piano's keyboard ▪ the note above middle C middle class noun, pl ∼ classes [count] : the social class that is between the upper class and the lower class and that includes mainly business and professional people, government officials, and skilled workers — compare LOWER CLASS, UPPER CLASS – middle–class adj [more ∼; most ∼] ▪ traditional middle-class values ▪ a typical middle-class family

middle distance noun, pl ∼ -tances
1 the middle distance : the area in a scene or view that is neither very close nor very far away : an area between the foreground and the background ▪ As I looked out over the water, a small boat appeared in the middle distance.
2 [count] : a racing distance that is neither short nor long and that is usually between 800 to 1,500 meters — often used as middle-distance before another noun ▪ a middle-distance runner/race/event middle ear noun [singular] : the middle part of the ear that is inside the eardrum ▪ fluid in the middle ear ▪ a middle ear infection

Middle East noun
the Middle East : the countries of northern Africa and southwestern Asia that are on or near the eastern edge of the Mediterranean Sea : the Near East — compare FAR EAST – Middle Eastern adj ▪ Middle Eastern culture/food
– Middle Easterner noun, pl ∼ -ers [count]

Middle English noun [noncount] : the English language between about 1100 and 1400 — compare OLD ENGLISH middle nger noun, pl ∼ -gers [count] : the long finger that is the middle one of the five fingers of the hand — see picture at HAND middle ground noun : a position or set of opinions that is acceptable to many different people [singular] The judge of the case chose a middle ground between harshness and leniency. [noncount] Both sides in this debate need to do more to establish some middle ground.

mid•dle•man /ˈmɪdlˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count]
1 : a person or company that buys goods from a producer and sells them to someone else ▪ The Internet helps consumers save money by buying products directly from companies and eliminating/bypassing the middleman. ▪ We've cut out the middleman and can reduce prices for our customers.
2 : a person who helps two people or groups to deal with and communicate with each other when they are not able or willing to do it themselves ▪ He acted as the middleman in the talks between labor and management.

middle management noun [noncount] : the group of people in a company who are in charge of employees but are not involved in important decisions concerning the company ▪ He was just promoted to middle management.

middle manager noun, pl ∼ -ers [count] : a person who works in middle management middle name noun, pl ∼ names

1 [count] : a name between a person's first name and family name ▪ President John F. Kennedy's middle name was "Fitzgerald."
2 [singular] informal : a word that accurately describes a person's qualities ▪ Patience is her middle name. [=she is a very patient person] middle–of–the–road adj [more ∼; most ∼] : supporting or following a course of action that is not extreme and that is acceptable to many different people ▪ He took a middle-of-the-road approach to the problem. ▪ middle-of-the-road [=moderate] voters/politicians middle school noun, pl ∼ schools [count, noncount]

1 US : a school for children that usually includes grades five to eight or six to eight — compare ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, HIGH SCHOOL, JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
2 Brit : a school for children between the ages of 8 and 12 or 9 and 13

mid•dle–sized /ˈmɪdlˌsaɪzd/ adj : neither large nor small ▪ a middle-sized [=medium-sized] business

mid•dle•weight /ˈmɪdlˌweɪt/ noun, pl -weights [count] sports : a fighter who is in a class of boxers with an upper weight limit of 160 pounds (72 kilograms) : a boxer who is heavier than a lightweight and lighter than a heavyweight — often used before another noun ▪ a middleweight boxer/champion ▪ fighting for the middleweight title/crown

Middle West noun
the Middle West : the northern central part of the U.S. : the Midwest ▪ the rich farmlands of the Middle West – Middle–Western adj ▪ Middle-Western states/cities/farms – Middle–Western•er noun, pl -ers [count]

mid•dling /ˈmɪdlɪŋ/ adj : of average size or quality ▪ a middling profit ▪ a middling performance ▪ The food was fair to middling. [=just average; not especially good]

Mid•east /ˌmɪdˈiːst/ noun
the Mideast US : the Middle East ▪ a trip to the Mideast
– Mid•east•ern /ˌmɪdˈiːstən/ adj

mid• eld /ˈmɪdˌfiːld/ noun, pl - elds
1 [noncount] : the area of a playing field in sports like American football and soccer that is in the middle between the two goals ▪ The team captains shook hands at midfield. ▪ The ball went out of bounds near midfield.
2 [count] : the players on a soccer team who normally play in the midfield ▪ They have a talented midfield this year.
– mid• eld •er /ˈmɪdˌfiːldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a talented midfielder [=a talented player who plays in the midfield]

midge /ˈmɪʤ/ noun, pl midg•es [count] : a very small flying insect that bites people and animals

[1]midg•et /ˈmɪʤət/ noun, pl -ets [count] often offensive : a very small person

[2]midget adj, always used before a noun : very small : much

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 47 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

smaller than usual or normal ▪ a midget race car ▪ a midget submarine for two people mid•land /ˈmɪdlənd/ noun, pl -lands [count] : the central region of a country — usually plural ▪ I left the midlands for the coast. ▪ Birmingham is the major city in the Midlands (of England).

mid•life /ˈmɪdˈlaɪf/ noun [noncount] : MIDDLE AGE ▪ changes that occur at midlife midlife crisis noun, pl ~ crises [count] : a time in middle age when a person feels a strong desire for change ▪ We knew he was going through a midlife crisis when he bought a new sports car.

mid•morn•ing /ˈmɪdˈmoɚnɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the middle of the morning : the time around 10 a.m. ▪ I'm usually hungry by midmorning. — often used before another noun ▪ a midmorning snack

mid•night /ˈmɪdˌnaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the middle of the night : 12 o'clock at night ▪ Her parents wanted her home before midnight. ▪ The clock struck midnight. ▪ It was 12 midnight when we arrived home. — often used before another noun ▪ a midnight snack ▪ at the midnight hour [=at midnight] burn the midnight oil see [1]BURN

mid•point /ˈmɪdˌpoɪnt/ noun, pl -points [count] : a point at the middle of something ▪ The crowd begins to leave after the midpoint of the final period. ▪ The team is in last place at the midpoint of the season. : a point halfway between two ends ▪ the midpoint between her knee and ankle ▪ The train stopped to refuel at the midpoint between New York and Chicago. ▪ the midpoint of one side of the rectangle mid•riff /ˈmɪˌdrɪf/ noun, pl -riffs [count] : the area around a person's middle : the front of a person's body between the chest and the waist ▪ She wore a skimpy outfit that showed her bare midriff.

mid•sea•son /ˈmɪdˈsiːzn̩/ noun, pl -sons [count] : the middle of a season (such as a season of games in a sport or a season of television programs) ▪ He was traded to a better team at midseason. ▪ The network added several new shows to its schedule at midseason. — often used before another noun ▪ a midseason slump ▪ The game show was a midseason replacement for a show that was canceled.

mid•sec•tion /ˈmɪdˌsɛkʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] chiefly US : a middle section, part, or area ▪ Grassy plains used to cover large portions of America's midsection. ▪ the midsection of the boat/bridge; especially : the area around a person's middle ▪ He threw a hard punch to my midsection.

mid•ship•man /ˈmɪdˌʃɪpmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]
1 : someone who is being trained to become an officer in the U.S. Navy
2 : an officer who is of the lowest rank in the British Navy mid•size /ˈmɪdˌsaɪz/ also mid•sized /ˈmɪdˌsaɪzd/ adj : neither large nor small ▪ a midsize car ▪ The new service will appeal to large and midsize [=medium-sized, middle-sized] companies.

midst /ˈmɪdst/ noun [noncount]
1 a : the middle area or part of something ▪ The river passes through the midst of the city. ▪ a bustling city in the midst of the desert b : the period of time when something is happening or being done ▪ We are in the midst of a terrible war. ▪ They were in the midst of remodeling their house. ▪ The region is currently in the midst of a terrible drought. ▪ We never gave up hope in the midst of our troubles.
2 — used to say that someone is among the people in a group ▪ We sensed a traitor in our midst. [=we sensed that one of the people in our group was a traitor] ▪ He stood in their midst [=he stood among them], waiting for a reply. ▪ strangers in their midst

mid•stream /ˈmɪdˈstriːm/ noun
in midstream 1 : in the middle of a river or stream ▪ The boat struck a rock in midstream. 2 : while in the process of doing something ▪ She began talking about the party but changed topics in midstream. ▪ The government stopped the project in midstream. — see also change horses in midstream at [1]HORSE

mid•sum•mer /ˈmɪdˈsʌmɚ/ noun [noncount] : the middle of summer ▪ The new product should be in stores by midsummer. — often used before another noun ▪ a hot midsummer night

mid•term /ˈmɪdˌtɚm/ noun, pl -terms US
1 a [count] : an examination given at the middle of a school term ▪ The students will be busy taking midterms next week. ▪ a midterm exam b [noncount] : the middle of a school term ▪ He dropped the course before midterm.
2 [noncount] : the middle of a term of office ▪ assessing the President's performance at midterm — often used before another noun ▪ midterm Congressional elections [=elections that occur halfway through a President's term of office]

mid•town /ˈmɪdˌtaʊn/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : the part of a city or town between its downtown and uptown ▪ Rents in midtown are very expensive. — often used before another noun ▪ a midtown hotel/bar/restaurant ▪ midtown Manhattan

[1]mid•way /ˈmɪdˌweɪ/ adv
1 : in the middle between two places or points : at the halfway point ▪ We stopped for lunch about midway [=halfway] between New York and Philadelphia. ▪ You should begin reading at the paragraph that begins midway down the page.
2 : in the middle of an act, process, or period of time ▪ She was interrupted when she was midway [=halfway] through her presentation. ▪ They took the lead midway through the second period.
– midway adj ▪ at the midway point of our trip

[2]midway noun, pl -ways [count] US : an area at a fair, carnival, or amusement park for food stands, games, and rides ▪ We played every game on the midway.

mid•week /ˈmɪdˌwiːk/ noun [noncount] : the middle of the week ▪ She has to finish the report by midweek.
– midweek adj, always used before a noun ▪ a midweek deadline – midweek adv ▪ They'll be arriving midweek.

Mid•west /ˌmɪdˈwɛst/ noun
the Midwest : the northern central part of the U.S. : the Middle West ▪ the rich farmlands of the Midwest — often used before another noun ▪ my Midwest childhood ▪ Midwest cities
– Mid•west•ern /ˌmɪdˈwɛstɚn/ adj ▪ Midwestern states/cities/farms – Mid•west•ern•er /ˌmɪdˈwɛstɚnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]

mid•wife /ˈmɪdˌwaɪf/ noun, pl -wives /-ˌwaɪvz/ [count] : a person (usually a woman) who helps a woman when she is giving birth to a child ▪ a trained and certified midwife
– mid•wife•ry /ˌmɪdˈwɪfəri/ noun [noncount] ▪ She has been trained in midwifery. [=the work done by a midwife]

mid•win•ter /ˈmɪdˈwɪntɚ/ noun [noncount] : the middle of winter ▪ the heavy snows and frigid temperatures of midwinter — often used before another noun ▪ a cold midwinter day ▪ deep midwinter snows mid•year /ˈmɪdˌjiɚ/ noun [noncount] : the middle of a year ▪ She expects to get a promotion at midyear. — often used before another noun ▪ midyear budget cuts ▪ a midyear performance review mien /ˈmiːn/ noun [singular] old-fashioned + literary : a person's appearance or facial expression ▪ a kindly mien ▪ He has the mien of an ancient warrior.

miffed /ˈmɪft/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : slightly angry or annoyed ▪ They were (a bit) miffed [=upset] about what they considered to be unfair treatment. ▪ She was miffed at them for not inviting her to the party.

[1]might /ˈmaɪt/ verb [modal verb]
1 — used to say that something is possible ▪ We might [=may] go if they ask us, but then again we might not. ▪ It might [=could] be true. ▪ Might it not be true? ▪ The test might include some questions about geography. ▪ There might be some difficulties ahead. ▪ She might get hundreds of responses to her survey. ▪ What you see might (well/very well) surprise you. ▪ I thought you might like this. ▪ She might have been the greatest actress of her generation. [=it's possible that she was the greatest actress of her generation] ▪ They might still succeed. ▪ I think he might be trying to cheat us. ▪ "Have they failed?" "They might have." = (Brit) "They might have done." ▪ If we hurry, we might get there before it rains. ▪ The movie might be better than you expect. ▪ Some people might have given up at that point, but not her. ▪ She's not as upset with them as might be expected. ▪ As you might or might not have heard, we've won! ▪ He might win and so might she.
2 — used to say that one thing is true but something else is also true ▪ He might [=may] be slow, but he does very good work. = Slow though he might be, he (still) does very good work. [=although he's slow, he does very good work] ▪ It might be cold outside, but it's still a nice day. ▪ She might have been a great actress, but she was a terrible parent.
3 — used to talk about a possible condition that does not or did not actually exist ▪ If you were older, you might understand. ▪ If she had been given a chance, she might have been a great actress.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 48 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:58 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

4 formal — used as the past tense of may ▪ He asked if he might [=could] leave. [=he asked, "May I leave?"] ▪ He gave his life so that others might [=could] live.
5 a — used in speech to ask a question or make a request in a polite way ▪ Might [=may] I ask who is calling? [=who is calling?] ▪ "Do you think I might possibly borrow your pen?" "Of course you may!" b — used to make a polite suggestion ▪ You might [=may] want to consider leaving early. ▪ It might be wise to proceed cautiously. c — used to politely say something about someone or something ▪ Might I just say how pleased I am to be here. ▪ This has been, if I might say so, one of the happiest days of my life. ▪ He is her husband and, I might add, one of her biggest fans.
6 — used to say that you are annoyed by something that was or was not done ▪ You might [=could] at least apologize! ▪ If you weren't coming, you might (at least) have told me in advance!
7 — used to indicate what is or was expected ▪ You might [=would] think that he would be more grateful after all I've done for him. ▪ I might [=should] have known you wouldn't keep your promise!
8 — used in speech when asking a question about someone or something that surprises or annoys you ▪ "I have a request to make." "And what might that be?" [=what is your request?] ▪ And who might you be? [=who are you?]

[2]might noun [noncount] : power to do something : force or strength ▪ an impressive display of military might ▪ the legal might of the government ▪ He swung the bat with all his might. [=he swung the bat as hard as he could] might makes right or might is right — used to say that people who have power are able to do what they want because no one can stop them

might•i•ly /ˈmaɪtəli/ adv
1 : to a great degree : very much ▪ They contributed mightily to the cause. ▪ She struggled mightily to read his handwriting.
2 : with great force or strength ▪ The soldiers fought mightily before finally surrendering. ▪ He shouted mightily.

mightn't /ˈmaɪtnt/ — used as a contraction of might not ▪ People mightn't always agree with his decisions, but they do think he's fair.

might've /ˈmaɪtəv/ — used as a contraction of might have ▪ I think we might've had different goals. ▪ She did what any other smart person might've done in that situation.

[1]mighty /ˈmaɪti/ adj might•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having or showing great strength or power ▪ The barbarians faced a mighty army. ▪ the decline of a mighty empire ▪ the mighty Mississippi ▪ a mighty oak ▪ mighty deeds ▪ With a mighty leap, he jumped across the stream.
2 : very great ▪ A mighty famine devastated the land. ▪ It took a mighty effort to get everything done on time.
high and mighty see [1]HIGH

[2]mighty adv, chiefly US, informal : to a great degree : VERY ▪ Your father and I are mighty proud of you. ▪ That was a mighty tasty dinner. ▪ He made the offer mighty appealing. ▪ She has some mighty important decisions to make. ▪ It sure was mighty cold last night. ▪ We're mighty glad to be here.

mi•graine /ˈmaɪˌgreɪn, Brit ˈmiːˌgreɪn/ noun, pl -graines : a very bad headache [count] He suffers from migraines. ▪ a migraine headache/attack [noncount] He suffers from migraine.

mi•grant /ˈmaɪgrənt/ noun, pl -grants [count]
1 : a person who goes from one place to another especially to find work ▪ migrants in search of work on farms ▪ migrant (farm) workers — compare EMIGRANT, IMMIGRANT
2 : a bird or animal that moves from one area to another at different times of the year ▪ Not all birds are migrants. ▪ migrant birds mi•grate /ˈmaɪˌgreɪt/ verb -grates; -grat•ed; -grat•ing [no obj]

1 : to move from one country or place to live or work in another ▪ He migrates from New York to Florida each winter. ▪ Thousands of workers migrate to this area each summer. — compare EMIGRATE, IMMIGRATE
2 of a bird or animal : to move from one area to another at different times of the year ▪ The whales migrate between their feeding ground in the north and their breeding ground in the Caribbean. ▪ They followed the migrating herds of buffalo across the plains. ▪ migrating birds
– mi•gra•tion /maɪˈgreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] an expert on bird migration [count] mass migrations of workers ▪ fall migrations to breeding grounds – mi•gra•tion•al /maɪˈgreɪʃənl/ adj ▪ migrational movements

mi•gra•to•ry /ˈmaɪgrəˌtori, Brit maɪˈgreɪtəri/ adj : moving from one place to another at different times of the year : migrating regularly ▪ migratory birds ▪ migratory [=(more commonly) migrant] workers

[1]mike /ˈmaɪk/ noun, pl mikes [count] informal : MICROPHONE ▪ The announcer was wearing a mike.

[2]mike verb mikes; miked; mik•ing [+ obj] informal : to put a microphone on (someone) ▪ The announcer was miked (up) (for sound).

mil or mill /ˈmɪl/ noun, pl mil or mill [count] US slang : a million dollars ▪ He has a couple mil in the bank.

mild /ˈmajəld/ adj mild•er; -est [more ~; most ~]
1 : gentle in nature or behavior ▪ a mild young man ▪ He has a mild manner/disposition. ▪ He was a mild-mannered man who rarely became angry.
2 a : not strong in action or effect ▪ a mild drug/detergent ▪ mild [=gentle] soap b : not strong or harsh in taste ▪ mild flavors ▪ mild cheese c : not strongly felt ▪ He has only a mild [=slight] interest in politics. ▪ They had a mild disagreement.
3 a : not harsh or severe ▪ She has a mild case of the flu. ▪ a mild headache/fever ▪ mild pain ▪ He suffered a mild concussion/heart attack. ▪ a mild reprimand, not a stern one b : not too hot or too cold : pleasantly warm ▪ a mild [=temperate] climate ▪ a mild winter's day ▪ We've been having a very mild winter.
– mild•ly adv ▪ He's mildly [=slightly, somewhat] interested in politics. ▪ It's a mildly amusing comedy. ▪ He has been mildly criticized by a few former colleagues. ▪ She was upset, to put it mildly. [=she was extremely upset] ▪ He is, to put it mildly, a demanding boss. [=he is a very demanding boss] – mild•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the mildness of the weather

mil•dew /ˈmɪlˌduː, Brit ˈmɪlˌdjuː/ noun [noncount] : a usually white substance that grows on the surface of things in wet, warm conditions ▪ The basement's damp walls were covered with mildew.
– mil•dewed /ˈmɪlˌduː, Brit ˈmɪlˌdjuːd/ adj ▪ mildewed walls – mil•dewy /ˈmɪlˌduːwi, Brit ˈmɪlˌdjuːwi/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a mildewy basement

mile /ˈmajəl/ noun, pl miles
1 [count] : a unit of measurement equal to 5,280 feet (about 1,609 meters) ▪ How many miles is it from here to New York? = How far is it from here to New York in miles? ▪ We passed mile after mile of beautiful scenery as we drove through the country. ▪ We traveled over miles of dirt road. ▪ He lives about a half (a) mile from here. ▪ The car was traveling at 70 miles per/an hour. — often used figuratively ▪ He won the election by a mile. [=he won the election by a very large margin] ▪ He missed the target by a mile. [=he completely missed the target] ▪ Her smile was a mile wide. ▪ You can see the stain (from) a mile away. = (Brit) You can see the stain a mile off. ▪ She was talking a mile a minute. [=very fast] ▪ The twin's resemblance stood/stuck out a mile. [=the resemblance was very obvious] — see also NAUTICAL MILE
2 miles [plural] : a great distance ▪ They walked for miles. ▪ There was no one (to be seen) for miles around. ▪ We were miles from home. ▪ We still have miles to go. ▪ The beach stretched on for miles and miles. ▪ He lives by himself in a cabin miles from nowhere/anywhere. [=very far from other people and places] — often used figuratively ▪ He was miles ahead of the other students in his class. ▪ Politically he's now miles away from his original position. ▪ She feels as if her sister is miles beyond her in education. ▪ They're still miles from an agreement. — see also MILES
3 [singular] : a race that is a mile long ▪ the first man to run a four-minute mile [=the first man to run a mile in less than four minutes] go the extra mile : to do more than you are required to do ▪ She's always willing to go the extra mile to help a friend.

mile•age /ˈmaɪlɪʤ/ noun [noncount]
1 a : distance in miles ▪ What's the mileage from here to New York? [=how many miles is it from here to New York?] b : distance traveled in miles by a vehicle ▪ My old car has a lot of mileage on it. = My old car has racked up a lot of mileage. [=it has been driven for a large number of miles since it was new] ▪ a car with high/low mileage ▪ The car's rental rate includes unlimited mileage. [=the rate does not increase no matter how far the car is driven] ▪ The company pays me a mileage allowance [=an amount of money paid for every mile traveled] when I have to travel for work.
2 : the average number of miles a vehicle will travel on a gal-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 49 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

lon of gasoline ▪ My new car gets much better mileage than my old one did. ▪ good/bad mileage ▪ fuel/gas mileage
3 a : benefit or use over a period of time ▪ The company has gotten a lot of mileage out of a simple idea. ▪ The movie gets a lot of mileage out of an old story. b : useful ability ▪ He's not the pitcher he once was, but he still has a lot of mileage left in him. [=he is still able to pitch well; his career as a pitcher is far from finished] mile•om•e•ter or mi•lom•e•ter /maɪˈlɑːmətə/ noun, pl -ters [count] Brit : ODOMETER mile•post /ˈmajəlˌpoʊst/ noun, pl -posts [count] US

1 : a post by the side of a road that shows the distance in miles to a specified place
2 : MILESTONE 2 ▪ We've reached a new milepost in the field of genetic research.

mil•er /ˈmaɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a runner in a race that is a mile long miles /ˈmajəlz/ adv, chiefly Brit, informal : very much ▪ This one is miles worse/better than that one.

mile•stone /ˈmajəlˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count]
1 : a stone by the side of a road that shows the distance in miles to a specified place
2 : an important point in the progress or development of something : a very important event or advance — usually + in ▪ The birth of their first child was a (major) milestone in their marriage. ▪ The study marks an important milestone in our understanding of the disease.

mi•lieu /milˈjuː/ noun, pl -lieus or -lieux /milˈjuːz/ [count] formal : the physical or social setting in which people live or in which something happens or develops ▪ He and his wife come from different cultural milieus. [=backgrounds, environments]

mil•i•tant /ˈmɪlətənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a desire or willingness to use strong, extreme, and sometimes forceful methods to achieve something ▪ militant protesters ▪ an angry and militant speech ▪ militant foreign policy
– mil•i•tan•cy /ˈmɪlətənsi/ noun [noncount] ▪ the militancy of the protesters – militant noun, pl -tants [count] ▪ a protest by angry militants – mil•i•tant•ly adv

mil•i•ta•rism /ˈmɪlətəˌrɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the opinions or actions of people who believe that a country should use military methods, forces, etc., to gain power and to achieve its goals ▪ The administration has been criticized for the militarism of its foreign policy.
– mil•i•ta•rist /ˈmɪlətərɪst/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a militarist regime – militarist noun, pl -rists [count] ▪ a government dominated by militarists – mil•i•ta•ris•tic /ˌmɪlətəˈrɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a militaristic foreign policy

mil•i•ta•rize also Brit mil•i•ta•rise /ˈmɪlətəˌraɪz/ verb -riz•es; -rized; -riz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put weapons and military forces in (an area) — usually used as (be) militarized ▪ The area is now fully militarized. ▪ a militarized zone — opposite DEMILITARIZE
2 : to give a military quality or character to (something) ▪ militarize a country's foreign policy ▪ an increasingly militarized society
– mil•i•ta•ri•za•tion also Brit mil•i•ta•ri•sa•tion /ˌmɪlətərəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɪlətəˌraɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]mil•i•tary /ˈmɪləˌteri/ adj
1 a : of or relating to soldiers or the armed forces (such as the army, navy, marines, and air force) ▪ military discipline/life ▪ military glory ▪ military aircraft/officers/history/personnel/operations ▪ a military base/camp/hospital ▪ He is being tried in a military court rather than in a civilian court. ▪ He has had a long military career. ▪ He tried to avoid military service. [=he tried to avoid becoming a member of the army, navy, etc.] b : of or relating to the army ▪ military and naval affairs
2 : controlled or supported by armed forces ▪ a military government/dictatorship/regime ▪ a military coup
– mil•i•tari•ly /ˌmɪləˈterəli/ adv ▪ a militarily superior force

[2]military noun [plural] : members of the armed forces : military people ▪ There were many military present but only a few civilians.
the military : the armed forces ▪ He has had a long career in the military. ▪ The policy is opposed by the military. ▪ The military oppose/opposes the policy. [=military leaders oppose the policy]

military police noun [plural] : an organized part of a military force (such as an army) that acts as the police for that force – military policeman noun, pl ~ -men [count]

mil•i•tate /ˈmɪləˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing militate against [phrasal verb] militate against (something) formal : to make (something) unlikely to happen : to prevent (something) from happening ▪ His inexperience militates against his getting an early promotion. ▪ factors militating against success mi•li•tia /məˈlɪʃə/ noun, pl -tias [count] : a group of people who are not part of the armed forces of a country but are trained like soldiers – mi•li•tia•man /məˈlɪʃəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count]

[1]milk /ˈmɪlk/ noun [noncount]
1 : a white liquid produced by a woman to feed her baby or by female animals to feed their young ▪ mother's/breast milk ▪ cheese made from sheep's milk; especially : milk from cows or goats that is used as food by people ▪ a glass of low-fat/whole milk ▪ serving milk and cookies ▪ pasteurized/homogenized milk ▪ whole milk [=milk from which no fat has been removed] — see also CONDENSED MILK, EVAPORATED MILK, MALTED MILK, SKIM MILK
2 : a white liquid produced by a plant ▪ coconut milk cry over spilled/spilt milk see [1]CRY land of milk and honey see [1]LAND
the milk of human kindness literary : kind feelings or behavior toward other people ▪ He was filled with the milk of human kindness. [=he was filled with kindness; he was very kind]

[2]milk verb milks; milked; milk•ing [+ obj]
1 : to get milk from (an animal) ▪ milk a cow
2 : to use (something or someone) in a way that helps you unfairly ▪ They milked [=exploited] their advantage for all it was worth. ▪ greedy landlords milking their tenants of all their money — see also milk (someone or something) dry at [1]DRY – milk•er /ˈmɪlkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a mechanical milker [=a machine used for milking cows]

milk chocolate noun [count, noncount] : a kind of chocolate that is made with milk — compare DARK CHOCOLATE milk oat noun, pl ~ oats [count] Brit : a small electric vehicle used to deliver milk to people's homes

milk•maid /ˈmɪlkˌmeɪd/ noun, pl -maids [count] old-fashioned : DAIRYMAID milk•man /ˈmɪlkˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a man who sells or delivers milk milk of mag•ne•sia /-mægˈniːʒə/ noun [noncount] : a thick, white liquid that contains magnesium and is used as a medicine for stomach problems (such as indigestion)

milk•shake /ˈmɪlkˌʃeɪk/ noun, pl -shakes [count] : a thick drink made of milk, a flavoring syrup, and often ice cream ▪ a chocolate/vanilla milkshake — called also shake

milk•sop /ˈmɪlkˌsɑːp/ noun, pl -sops [count] old-fashioned : a weak boy or man

milk tooth noun, pl ~ teeth [count] : BABY TOOTH milk•weed /ˈmɪlkˌwiːd/ noun, pl -weeds [count, noncount] : a type of North American plant that has white juice milky /ˈmɪlki/ adj milk•i•er; -est

1 a : looking or tasting like milk ▪ cheese with a light milky taste ▪ milky (white) skin b : not clear ▪ a milky [=cloudy] liquid ▪ eyes covered by a milky glaze
2 : containing a large amount of milk ▪ milky coffee – milk•i•ness noun [noncount]

Milky Way noun
the Milky Way 1 : a broad band of light that can be seen in the night sky and that is caused by the light of a very large number of faint stars 2 : the galaxy in which we live that contains the stars that make up the Milky Way ▪ Our solar system is in the Milky Way (galaxy).

[1]mill /ˈmɪl/ noun, pl mills [count]
1 a : a building with machinery for grinding grain into flour b : a machine for grinding grain
2 : a small machine for grinding or crushing pepper, coffee, etc. ▪ a food/pepper mill
3 : a building in which a particular product is made : FACTORY ▪ a paper/cotton/textile/lumber/steel mill ▪ mill workers — see also SAWMILL
4 : something that is compared to a factory because it produces things in large numbers or in a mechanical way ▪ Some critics have described the school as a diploma mill. [=a school where students can obtain diplomas very easily] ▪ The rumor mill has been churning out stories about their marriage. [=there are many rumors about their marriage]
grist for/to your/the mill see GRIST

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 50 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:43:59 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

through the mill chiefly Brit : through a very difficult experience ▪ They've been (put) through the mill in the months since their father died.

[2]mill verb mills; milled; mill·ing
1 [+ obj] : to produce (something) in a mill especially by grinding, crushing, or cutting it ▪ milled wheat/lumber
2 [no obj] of a group of people : to walk around in a general area without any particular aim or purpose ▪ The crowd was milling outside the exit. — usually + around or (chiefly Brit) about ▪ People were just milling around while they waited.

[3]mill variant spelling of MIL

mil·len·ni·um /məˈlɛnijəm/ noun, pl -nia /-nijə/ or -ni·ums [count]
1 : a period of 1,000 years ▪ The book describes the changes that have occurred in the landscape over many millennia.
2 : a period of a thousand years counted from the beginning of the Christian era ▪ The year 2000 was celebrated as the beginning of the third millennium. ▪ We had a party to celebrate the millennium. [=the beginning of the millennium]
– mil·len·ni·al /məˈlɛnijəl/ adj ▪ millennial celebrations mill·er /ˈmɪlə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who works in or is in charge of a flour mill

mil·let /ˈmɪlət/ noun [noncount] : a type of grass that is grown for its seeds which are used as food; also : the seeds of millet milli- combining form : one thousandth part of something ▪ *milli*meter

mil·li·gram also Brit mil·li·gramme /ˈmɪləˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a weight equal to 1/1000 gram

mil·li·li·ter (US) or Brit mil·li·li·tre /ˈmɪləˌliːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a measure of capacity equal to 1/1000 liter

mil·li·me·ter (US) or Brit mil·li·me·tre /ˈmɪləˌmiːtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a length equal to 1/1000 meter

mil·li·ner /ˈmɪlənə/ noun, pl -ners [count] : a person who designs, makes, or sells women's hats

mil·li·nery /ˈmɪləˌneri/ noun [noncount]
1 : women's hats ▪ a shop that sells millinery
2 : the business of making or selling women's hats

mil·lion /ˈmɪljən/ noun, pl mil·lions or million [count]
1 : the number 1,000,000 ▪ a/one/two million (of them) ▪ a hundred million = 100 million ▪ several million (of them) = (less commonly) several millions (of them) ▪ hundreds of millions (of them) ▪ a million and one [=1,000,001] ▪ a million and a half = 1.5 million [=1,500,000] ▪ The company is worth millions. [=worth millions of dollars, pounds, euros, etc.] ▪ a million dollars
2 : a very large amount or number ▪ I've heard that excuse a million times before. [=many, many times before] — often plural ▪ The drug could save millions of lives. ▪ millions and millions of people look/feel like a million dollars/bucks informal : to look/feel very good ▪ She looks like a million bucks since she lost all that weight.
never/not in a million years see YEAR one in a million informal : a person or thing that is very unusual, special, or admired ▪ Thanks for all the help you've given me. You're one in a million.
thanks a million informal : thank you very much ▪ Hey, thanks a million for your help. ▪ (humorous) "I'll let you wash the dishes today." "Thanks a million."
– mil·lionth /ˈmɪljənθ/ adj ▪ our (one) millionth customer ▪ This is the millionth time I've seen this show. [=I have seen this show many times] – millionth noun, pl -lionths [count] ▪ one millionth [=one of a million equal parts] of a second mil·lion·aire /ˌmɪljəˈneə/ noun, pl -aires [count] : a rich person who has at least a million dollars, pounds, etc.

mil·lion·air·ess /ˌmɪljəˈnerəs/ noun, pl -ess·es [count] : a rich woman who has at least a million dollars, pounds, etc. : a woman who is a millionaire

mil·li·pede /ˈmɪləˌpiːd/ noun, pl -pedes [count] : a small creature that is like an insect and that has a long, thin body with many legs

mil·li·sec·ond /ˈmɪləˌsɛkənd/ noun, pl -onds [count] : one thousandth of a second mill·pond /ˈmɪlˌpɑːnd/ noun, pl -ponds [count] : a pond that supplies water for running a mill mill·stone /ˈmɪlˌstoʊn/ noun, pl -stones [count]

1 : either one of two large, round stones used for grinding grain in a mill
2 : a problem or responsibility that does not go away and that makes it difficult or impossible to do or achieve something ▪ College loans can quickly become a millstone for students. ▪ The scandal has become a political millstone. ▪ The scandal has been a millstone around her neck.

milometer variant spelling of MILEOMETER

[1]mime /ˈmaɪm/ noun, pl mimes
1 [noncount] : a form of entertainment in which a performer plays a character or tells a story without words by using body movements and facial expressions ▪ an actor with a gift for mime ▪ a performance done in mime
2 [count] a : a performance done without speaking : a performance using mime b : a performer who uses mime ▪ an actor who is a talented mime

[2]mime verb mimes; mimed; mim·ing [+ obj] : to make the movements of someone who is doing (something) without actually doing it ▪ He mimed playing a guitar. ▪ She mimed picking up the phone and dialing a number. ▪ He mimed the words to the song. [=he moved his mouth like someone singing the song but he did not actually sing the words]

[1]mim·ic /ˈmɪmɪk/ verb -ics; -icked; -ick·ing [+ obj]
1 : to copy (someone or someone's behavior or speech) especially for humor ▪ He can mimic [=imitate] the way his father talks perfectly. ▪ He mimicked her accent. ▪ She has a talent for mimicking famous actresses.
2 : to create the appearance or effect of (something) ▪ software that can mimic [=simulate] human thought ▪ The lamp mimics natural sunlight.
3 : to naturally look like (something) ▪ a butterfly that mimics a leaf

[2]mimic noun, pl -ics [count] : a person who copies the behavior or speech of other people : a person who mimics other people ▪ She's a talented mimic.; also : an animal that naturally looks like something else

mim·ic·ry /ˈmɪmɪkri/ noun [noncount] : the activity or art of copying the behavior or speech of other people : the activity or art of mimicking other people ▪ a talent for mimicry

mi·mo·sa /məˈmoʊsə/ noun, pl -sas
1 [count, noncount] : a tropical tree or shrub that has small white or pink flowers that are shaped like balls
2 [count] US : an alcoholic drink made with champagne and orange juice

min·a·ret /ˌmɪnəˈrɛt/ noun, pl -rets [count] : a tall, thin tower of a mosque with a balcony from which the people are called to prayer

[1]mince /ˈmɪns/ verb minc·es; minced; minc·ing
1 [+ obj] : to cut (food) into very small pieces ▪ The recipe says that you should mince the onions. ▪ minced parsley/carrots/garlic ▪ (chiefly Brit) minced beef [=(US) ground beef, hamburger]
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to walk with quick, short steps in a way that does not seem natural and that is often meant to be funny ▪ The comedian minced across the stage. = The comedian walked with mincing steps across the stage.
not mince (your) words or US mince no words : to speak in a very direct and honest way without worrying that you may be offending someone ▪ He doesn't mince words about the proposed law, which he considers "unconstitutional" and "idiotic." ▪ She minces no words in stating her opinions.
– minc·ing·ly /ˈmɪnsɪŋli/ adv ▪ walked mincingly across the stage

[2]mince noun [noncount]
1 Brit : HAMBURGER 2 ▪ The recipe uses a pound of mince. [=(US) ground beef]; also : ground meat of a specified kind ▪ lamb mince
2 : MINCEMEAT 2 ▪ a mince pie

mince·meat /ˈmɪnsˌmiːt/ noun [noncount]
1 : meat that has been cut into very small pieces : minced meat
2 : a mixture of raisins, apples, spices, etc., that is used especially in pies ▪ mincemeat pie make mincemeat out of informal : to destroy, ruin, or defeat (someone or something) in a very thorough and complete way ▪ Last year's champions have been making mincemeat of the competition again this year.

[1]mind /ˈmaɪnd/ noun, pl minds
1 : the part of a person that thinks, reasons, feels, and remembers [count] He read great literature to develop/cultivate his mind. ▪ It's important to keep your mind active as you grow older. ▪ He went for a walk to help clear his mind. ▪ the mysteries of the human mind ▪ My mind is always open to new ideas. ▪ You can't argue with him. His mind is closed. ▪

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 51 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

I can't concentrate: my mind is always wandering and I can't keep it focused on anything. ▪ Let me get this clear/straight in my mind [=let me understand this clearly]: are you saying that she was lying to me all along? ▪ I can't get that image out of my mind. = I can't stop seeing that image in my mind. = That image is stuck in my mind. ▪ The smell of pine sends my mind back to childhood. ▪ The sound of her voice jerked my mind back to the present. ▪ My mind tells me it can't work, but my heart tells me I want to try it. ▪ We must appeal to and win (over) the hearts and minds of the people. [=the emotions and the reasoning of the people] ▪ His conscious mind had forgotten the incident, but the memory of it was still buried somewhere in his subconscious/unconscious mind. ▪ There's absolutely no doubt in my mind about his guilt. [=I am sure that he is guilty] ▪ I know you're disappointed by their decision, but you should just put that out of your mind [=stop thinking about that] and go back to work. ▪ I'll handle the schedule. Just put it out of your mind. [=don't think or worry about it] ▪ Is there something on your mind? [=is there something troubling you?; are you worried or bothered about something?] ▪ Why don't you just say what's on your mind? [=why don't you just say what you are thinking?] ▪ I wish there were some way I could ease your (troubled) mind. = I wish there were some way I could set/put your mind at ease/rest. [=could make you stop worrying] ▪ These problems have been preying/weighing on his mind. [=he has been worrying about these problems] ▪ The safety of the children should be foremost/uppermost in all our minds now. [=we should all be thinking most about the safety of the children now] ▪ The idea that we might lose was the furthest thing from my mind. [=I never thought that we might lose] ▪ I have no intention of quitting my job. Nothing could be further from my mind. ▪ She says that getting married again is the last thing on her mind right now. [=she is not thinking at all about getting married again] ▪ What was going/running through your mind [=what were you thinking] when you agreed to do this? ▪ His name slips/escapes my mind at the moment. [=I can't remember his name] ✧ If something (such as an illness) is all in your/the mind, you are imagining it. ▪ He thinks he's very ill, but it's all in his mind. ✧ If your mind is set on something or you have your mind set on something, you are very determined to do or to get something. ▪ Her mind is set on becoming a doctor. = She has her mind set on becoming a doctor. [noncount] It's important to be healthy in both body and mind. ▪ He's in a bad/good state of mind. [=he's in a bad/good mood] ▪ Installing a security system in your home will give you greater peace of mind. [=a feeling of being safe or protected] — see also FRAME OF MIND, PRESENCE OF MIND

2 [count] — used to describe the way a person thinks or the intelligence of a person ▪ She has a brilliant mind. ▪ He has an inquisitive/inquiring mind. ▪ He's an evil man with a warped/twisted mind. ▪ He's recognized as having one of the sharpest minds [=intellects] in this field.

3 — used in phrases that describe someone as mentally ill or crazy ▪ There's something wrong with him. He's not in his right mind. [=he is mentally ill] ▪ No one in their right mind would try such a stunt. = Who in their right mind would try such a stunt? ▪ (law) She claims that her father was not of sound mind when he changed his will. = She claims her father was of unsound mind. [=was not sane or rational] — usually used informally in an exaggerated way ▪ What a ridiculous idea! You must be out of your mind [=crazy] to believe that. ▪ I was (going) out of my mind with worry. [=I was extremely worried] ▪ I feel like I'm losing my mind. = I feel like I'm going out of my mind. [=I feel like I'm going crazy] ▪ That noise is driving me out of my mind! [=driving me crazy] ✧ The phrase out of your mind is also used informally to make a statement stronger. ▪ I was bored out of my mind. [=I was very bored] ▪ She was frightened out of her mind.

4 [count] : a very intelligent person ▪ Many of the world's greatest minds in physics will be attending the convention.

5 [noncount] : a particular way of thinking about a situation ▪ Everyone at the meeting was of like mind [=everyone agreed] about how to proceed. ▪ She is of the same mind as me. [=she agrees with me] ▪ We're all of one mind about him [=we all agree about him]: he's the one we want. ▪ To/In my mind, that's wrong.

6 [noncount] : attention that is given to a person or thing ▪ Try to relax and take/get/keep your mind off your problems. [=stop thinking about your problems] ▪ I'm finding it hard to keep my mind on my work. [=to concentrate on my work] ▪ After finishing work on the remodeling project, she was able to turn her mind to [=direct her attention to; work on] other matters. ▪ Don't pay him any mind. [=don't pay attention to him; ignore him] ▪ He kept talking but she paid him no mind. ▪ You shouldn't pay any/much mind to what he says.

a meeting of (the) minds see MEETING at/in the back of your mind see [1]BACK blow someone's mind informal : to strongly affect someone's mind with shock, confusion, etc. : to amaze or overwhelm someone's mind ▪ The music really blew my mind. ▪ The thought of all she's accomplished at such a young age just blows my mind. — see also MIND-BLOWING call/bring (something) to mind : to cause (something) to be remembered or thought of ▪ Seeing her again brought to mind the happy times we spent together in college.

change someone's mind : to cause someone to change an opinion or decision ▪ I tried to convince her, but I couldn't change her mind.

change your mind : to change your decision or opinion about something ▪ He wasn't going to come, but at the last minute he changed his mind. ▪ I tried to convince her, but she wouldn't change her mind.

come/spring/leap to mind : to be remembered or thought of ▪ What comes to mind when you hear his name? ▪ I didn't mean to offend you. I just said the first thing that came to/into my mind.

concentrate the/your mind see [1]CONCENTRATE cross someone's mind see [2]CROSS enter your mind see ENTER give someone a piece of your mind : to speak to someone in an angry way ▪ He stopped making so much noise after I went over there and gave him a piece of my mind.

have a good mind or have half a mind ✧ If you have a good mind or have half a mind to do something, you have a feeling that you want to do it, especially because you are angry or annoyed, but you will probably not do it. ▪ I have a good mind to go over there and tell him to be quiet. ▪ I have half a mind to tell her what I really think of her.

have a mind like a sieve see [1]SIEVE have a mind of your own : to have your own ideas and make your own choices about what should be done ▪ Her parents want her to go to college, but she has a mind of her own and she insists on trying to become an actress. — often used figuratively ▪ I can't get the camera to work right. It seems to have a mind of its own.

have (someone or something) in mind : to be thinking of (someone or something): such as a : to be thinking of choosing (someone) for a job, position, etc. ▪ They have you in mind for the job. [=they are thinking of giving the job to you] b : to be thinking of doing (something) ▪ "I'd like to do something special for our anniversary." "What sort of thing did you have in mind?" ▪ He had it in mind [=intended] to leave the business to his daughter.

in mind : in your thoughts ▪ We designed this product with people like you in mind. [=we designed it for people like you] ▪ He went into the bar with trouble in mind. [=intending to cause trouble] ▪ Before you disregard his advice, keep/bear in mind [=remember] that he is regarded as one of the leading experts in this field. ▪ We have a limited amount of money to spend, and we need to keep that in mind [=think of that; consider that] while we're planning our vacation.

in your mind's eye see [1]EYE know your own mind see [1]KNOW

make up your mind : to make a decision about something ▪ I can't make up my mind [=decide] where to take my vacation. ▪ He had made up his mind not to go. ▪ He's thinking about going, but he still hasn't made up his mind (about it). ▪ He's not going. His mind is made up. [=he has made a decision and will not change it] ▪ I can't decide for you. You'll have to make up your own mind.

mind over matter — used to describe a situation in which someone is able to control a physical condition, problem, etc., by using the mind ▪ His ability to keep going even when he is tired is a simple question of mind over matter.

of two minds (US) or Brit in two minds : not decided or certain about something : having two opinions or ideas about something ▪ I can't make up my mind where to take my vacation: I'm of two minds about where to go. ▪ I'm of two minds about (hiring) him: he seems well-qualified, but he doesn't have much experience.

open your mind see [2]OPEN put (someone) in mind of (something) : to cause (someone) to remember or think of (something) ▪ What happened to you yesterday puts me in mind of [=reminds me of] what happened to me a year ago.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 52 SESS: 36 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:00 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

put/set your mind to (something) : to give your attention to (something) and try very hard to do it ▪ You'd be surprised at what you can accomplish when you put your mind to it. ▪ We can solve this problem if we put our minds to it.

read someone's mind : to know exactly what someone is thinking ▪ "I think we should go out to a movie tonight." "You read my mind. I was thinking the same thing." ▪ It's as if you could read my mind. ▪ He claims that he has the ability to read minds. — see also MIND READER speak your mind : to say what you think : to state your opinion ▪ If you don't agree with him, don't be afraid to speak your mind.

take a load/weight off your mind : to make you stop worrying about something ▪ Hearing that she's safe has really taken a load off my mind!

[2]mind verb minds; minded; minding

1 not used in progressive tenses : to be bothered by (something) : to object to or dislike (something) [+ obj] I mind it greatly [=it bothers me very much] when people are rude. ▪ I don't mind the rain. = I don't mind if it rains. [=the rain doesn't bother me] ▪ I don't mind making dinner. [=I am willing to make dinner; making dinner does not bother me] ▪ I wouldn't mind having a piece of pie myself. [=I would like to have a piece of pie too] [no obj] It was raining, but I didn't mind. ▪ Our flight was delayed—not that I minded [=I was not bothered by it], since I was late getting to the airport myself. ▪ I'd like another cupcake, if you don't mind. [=if it is all right with you]

2 [+ obj] : to care about or worry about (something or someone) ▪ They don't seem to mind where they sit. = They seem not to mind where they sit. ▪ I don't mind very much what happens. ▪ "Why is he so angry?" "Oh, don't mind him. He's always complaining about something." ▪ Don't mind me [=don't worry about or pay attention to me]: I'll be all right.

3 [+ obj] a — used to make a polite request ▪ Do you mind me/my sitting here? [=would you be bothered if I sat here?] ▪ Do you mind if I smoke? = Would you mind if I smoked? ▪ Would you mind doing me a small favor? ▪ I'm tired. Would you mind leaving a little early? = Would you mind it if we left a little early? b — used in phrases with if when you have said something that might bother or upset someone ▪ How old are you, if you don't mind my/me asking? [=may I ask how old you are?; would you be offended if I asked how old you are?] ▪ You look a bit old for this job, if you don't mind my/me saying so. [=if I may say so] c — used in informal phrases with I ▪ "Would you like another cup of coffee?" "Thank you: I don't mind if I do!" [=yes, I'd like another cup] ▪ I was shocked by the news, I don't mind telling you! [=I must say/admit that I was shocked by the news] ▪ I don't mind saying/admitting that I was very disappointed by her decision. d — used in informal phrases that show anger or annoyance ▪ "That old woman's a real pain!" "Do you MIND!? That's my mother you're talking about!" ▪ "Let me help you with that." "I'll do it myself, if you don't mind!"

4 [+ obj] US : to do what you are told to do by (someone) : OBEY ▪ Mind your parents!

5 [+ obj] : to take care of (something or someone) : to watch or be in charge of (something or someone) ▪ Who's going to mind the office while you're away? ▪ Who's minding the children? — see also MIND THE STORE (below)

6 [+ obj] a : to be careful about (something) ▪ You'd better mind what you say. ▪ Mind your tongue/language! [=stop saying offensive or improper things] ▪ His mother told him to mind his manners. [=to behave in a polite and proper way] ▪ (chiefly Brit) Mind how you behave when we get there. — see also mind your p's and q's at [1]P b chiefly Brit — used to tell someone to be aware of something that could be a problem or danger ▪ The wind is very strong: mind your hat! ▪ Mind the broken glass! [=watch out for the broken glass] ▪ Mind the missing step! c chiefly Brit — used to tell someone to be sure to do something or to be careful to prevent something from happening ▪ Mind [=make sure] you've finished the project before he gets back! ▪ Mind he doesn't lose his ticket!

mind out [phrasal verb] Brit — used to tell someone to be careful ▪ Mind out—one of the steps is missing! ▪ There's a car coming! Mind out! [=look out, watch out] mind the store (US) or Brit mind the shop : to be in charge of a place when the person who is usually in charge is not there ▪ Who's minding the store while the boss is away?

mind you informal — used in speech to give stress to a statement that you are making so that a preceding or following statement will not be misunderstood ▪ His advice wasn't very helpful. I'm not criticizing him, mind you. ▪ Mind you, I'm not criticizing him, but the truth is that his advice wasn't very helpful. — often used in British English without you ▪ His advice wasn't very helpful. I'm not criticizing him, mind!

mind your own business see BUSINESS

mind your step see [1]STEP never mind 1 — used to tell someone not to worry about something ▪ Never mind your mistake: it wasn't serious. ▪ So you made a little mistake! Never mind (about that): it wasn't serious. ▪ Do you know where my keys are? Oh, never mind. Here they are. 2 — used to refer to something that is even less likely or possible than the thing previously mentioned ▪ I can barely understand it, never mind [=let alone, much less] explain it.

never you mind informal — used to tell someone that you will not be answering a question ▪ "Just how old are you anyway?" "Never you mind!"

mind–al·ter·ing /ˈmaɪndˌɑːltərɪŋ/ adj : causing changes to the mind or to behavior ▪ mind-altering drugs mind–bend·ing /ˈmaɪndˌbɛndɪŋ/ adj

1 : causing changes to the mind or to behavior : MIND-ALTERING ▪ mind-bending drugs

2 [more ~; most ~] informal : very confusing, exciting, etc. : MIND-BLOWING ▪ a mind-bending experience ▪ mind-bending special effects

– mind–bend·ing·ly adv

mind–blow·ing /ˈmaɪndˌblowɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very confusing, exciting, or shocking ▪ The power of her performance was positively mind-blowing. ▪ a mind-blowing [=mind-boggling] number of possibilities — see also blow someone's mind at [1]MIND

– mind–blow·ing·ly adv

mind–bog·gling /ˈmaɪndˌbɑːglɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : having a very powerful or overwhelming effect on the mind ▪ a mind-boggling [=stunning] performance : amazingly or confusingly large, great, etc. ▪ a mind-boggling array of options ▪ He received a mind-boggling $200 million in pay. ▪ The sheer vastness of space is mind-boggling.

– mind–bog·gling·ly adv ▪ mind-bogglingly large numbers

mind·ed /ˈmaɪndəd/ adj

1 a : having a particular kind of mind — used in combination ▪ narrow-minded ▪ open-minded ▪ closed-minded b : interested in or concerned about a particular subject — used in combination ▪ bargain-minded customers ▪ She's very health-minded. [=she is very concerned about doing things that promote good health]

2 Brit, formal : having a desire or intention to do something ▪ The government is minded [=inclined, disposed] to grant their request.

mind·er /ˈmaɪndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit, informal : BODYGUARD ▪ The reporters were kept away by the celebrity's minders. — see also NETMINDER mind·ful /ˈmaɪndfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : aware of something that may be important — often + of ▪ Investors should be mindful of current political trends. — often + that ▪ Investors should be mindful that political trends may influence the market.

– mind·ful·ly /ˈmaɪndfəli/ adv – mind·ful·ness noun [noncount]

mind·less /ˈmaɪndləs/ adj

1 a : having or showing no ability to think, feel, or respond ▪ a mindless killer ▪ a mindless bureaucracy b : showing no use of intelligence or thought ▪ mindless devotion to fashion ▪ The article was a mindless piece of nonsense. : having no purpose ▪ The movie has been criticized for its mindless violence. ▪ a mindless waste of time c : requiring very little attention or thought ▪ mindless activity/work

2 : not aware of something : not mindful of something ▪ He seemed to be completely mindless of the danger he was facing. ▪ She was mindless of her appearance.

– mind·less·ly adv ▪ a mindlessly violent movie – mind·less·ness noun [noncount]

mind–numb·ing /ˈmaɪndˌnʌmɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal : very dull or boring ▪ mind-numbing work

– mind–numb·ing·ly adv ▪ mind-numbingly dull

mind reader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : someone who is able to know another person's thoughts without being told what they are : someone who is able to read minds ▪ How was I

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 53 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

supposed to know what you were thinking? I'm no mind reader. ▪ "I think we should eat out tonight." "You must be a mind reader: that's just what I was thinking myself!"
– mind reading noun [noncount]

mind–set /ˈmaɪndˌsɛt/ noun, pl -sets [count] : a particular way of thinking : a person's attitude or set of opinions about something ▪ politicians trying to understand the mind-set of voters ▪ a conservative/liberal mind-set

[1]mine /ˈmaɪn/ pronoun
1 : that which belongs to me : my one : my ones ▪ The book is mine. [=it is my book] ▪ Those books are mine. [=those are my books] ▪ Mine is the book on the left. [=my book is the one on the left] ▪ His eyes are blue and mine are brown. ▪ a former professor/friend of mine [=one of my former professors/friends]
2 Brit, informal : my home : my place ▪ Let's go back to mine for a drink.

[2]mine noun, pl mines [count]
1 : a pit or tunnel from which minerals (such as coal, gold, diamonds, etc.) are taken — see also GOLD MINE, STRIP MINE
2 : a bomb that is placed in the ground or in water and that explodes when it is touched — see also LAND MINE
3 : a rich source of something (such as information) ▪ He has proven to be a mine [=gold mine] of information. [=he has provided a large amount of information]

[3]mine verb mines; mined; min·ing
1 a : to dig a mine in order to find and take away coal, gold, diamonds, etc. — usually + for [no obj] The area was soon filled with prospectors who were mining for gold. [+ obj] Prospectors mined the region for diamonds. b [+ obj] : to find and take away (coal, gold, diamonds, etc.) from a mine ▪ Local people were hired to mine the gold.
2 [+ obj] : to search for something valuable in (something) — usually + for ▪ Police have been mining the tapes for information. [=they have been listening to the tapes in order to get information from them]
3 [+ obj] : to put mines (sense 2) in or under (something) ▪ The enemy had mined the harbor. ▪ The road was mined.

mine• eld /ˈmaɪnˌfiːld/ noun, pl - elds [count]
1 : an area of land or water that contains mines (sense 2) 2 : something that has many dangers or risks ▪ This issue is a political minefield.

min·er /ˈmaɪnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who works in a mine ▪ coal/gold miners

min·er·al /ˈmɪnərəl/ noun, pl -als [count]
1 : a substance (such as quartz, coal, petroleum, salt, etc.) that is naturally formed under the ground
2 : a chemical substance (such as iron or zinc) that occurs naturally in certain foods and that is important for good health ▪ an adequate supply of vitamins and minerals

min·er·al·o·gy /ˌmɪnəˈrɑlədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of minerals – min·er·al·og·i·cal /ˌmɪnərəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj – min·er·al·o·gist /ˌmɪnəˈrɑlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

mineral water noun, pl ~ -ters [count, noncount] : water that contains mineral salts and gases (such as carbon dioxide) ▪ a glass of mineral water

min·e·stro·ne /ˌmɪnəˈstroʊni/ noun [noncount] : a thick Italian soup that is usually made with beans, vegetables, and pasta mine·sweep·er /ˈmaɪnˌswiːpɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a ship designed for removing or destroying mines

min·gle /ˈmɪŋgəl/ verb min·gles; min·gled; min·gling
1 : to combine or bring together two or more things [+ obj] The story mingles fact and/with fiction. [no obj] Several flavors mingle in the stew. ▪ It's a story in which fact mingles with fiction.
2 [no obj] : to move around during a party, meeting, etc., and talk informally with different people ▪ The host was too busy to mingle during the party. — often + with ▪ The speaker stayed to mingle with the audience after the lecture. — see also INTERMINGLE mingy /ˈmɪndʒi/ adj min·gi·er; -est chiefly Brit, informal

1 : not liking to spend money : STINGY ▪ a mingy uncle
2 : not large enough ▪ a mingy portion of food
– min·gi·ness noun [noncount]

mini /ˈmɪni/ noun, pl minis [count] : a very short skirt : MINISKIRT

mini- combining form : smaller or shorter than usual or normal : MINIATURE ▪ *mini*bike ▪ *mini*skirt

[1]min·i·a·ture /ˈmɪnijəˌʧuə/ adj, always used before a noun : very small : TINY ▪ a collection of miniature books ▪ a miniature tea set ▪ a miniature camera ▪ The little boy looks like a miniature version of his father. ▪ a miniature poodle [=a poodle that is bred to be smaller than normal; a poodle breed that is smaller than the normal breed]

[2]miniature noun, pl -tures [count] : a very small sculpture, portrait, or painting ▪ She collects porcelain miniatures.
in miniature : in a very small form : on a very small scale ▪ The model depicts the project in miniature. ▪ The little boy looks like his father in miniature.

miniature golf noun [noncount] US : a golf game played with a putter on a small course that has various obstacles at each hole — called also (US) minigolf, (Brit) crazy golf

min·i·a·tur·ize also Brit min·i·a·tur·ise /ˈmɪnijəʧəˌraɪz/ verb -iz·es; -ized; -iz·ing [+ obj] : to design or make (something) in a very small size ▪ Technology has made it possible to miniaturize electronic circuits. ▪ a miniaturized radio
– min·i·a·tur·i·za·tion also Brit min·i·a·tur·i·sa·tion /ˌmɪnijəˌʧurəˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mini·bar /ˈmɪniˌbɑɚ/ noun, pl -bars [count] : a small refrigerator in a hotel room that has drinks inside it for guests mini·bike /ˈmɪniˌbaɪk/ noun, pl -bikes [count] US : a small motorcycle mini·bus /ˈmɪniˌbʌs/ noun, pl -bus·es [count] : a small bus or van mini·cab /ˈmɪniˌkæb/ noun, pl -cabs [count] Brit : a taxi that only picks up customers who call by telephone mini·golf /ˈmɪniˌgɑːlf/ noun [noncount] US : MINIATURE GOLF min·im /ˈmɪnəm/ noun, pl -ims [count] Brit : HALF NOTE

minima plural of [1]MINIMUM min·i·mal /ˈmɪnəməl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very small or slight in size or amount ▪ The storm caused minimal damage. ▪ The costs were minimal. ▪ areas at minimal risk for flooding ▪ They made the repairs with minimal disruption [=with the least possible disruption] to the schedule.

– min·i·mal·ly adv ▪ a minimally adequate supply ▪ a minimally useful tool

min·i·mal·ist /ˈmɪnəməlɪst/ adj : of, relating to, or following a style in art, literature, or music that is very simple and uses a small number of colors, parts, materials, etc. ▪ minimalist art ▪ a minimalist artist
– min·i·mal·ism /ˈmɪnəməˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ a student of minimalism – minimalist noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ artists who are minimalists

min·i·mize or Brit min·i·mise /ˈmɪnəˌmaɪz/ verb -miz·es; -mized; -miz·ing [+ obj]
1 : to make (something bad or not wanted) as small as possible ▪ We need to minimize the chance of error. ▪ The company will work to minimize costs.
2 : to treat or describe (something) as smaller or less important than it is ▪ I don't want to minimize the contributions he has made to the company. ▪ During the interview, she minimized her weaknesses and emphasized her strengths.
3 computers : to make (a program's window) change to a very small form that takes almost no room on a computer's screen ▪ Please minimize all open windows. — opposite MAXIMIZE
– min·i·mi·za·tion or Brit min·i·mi·sa·tion /ˌmɪnəməˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɪnəˌmaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

[1]min·i·mum /ˈmɪnəməm/ noun, pl min·i·mums or technical min·i·ma /ˈmɪnəmə/ [count] : the lowest number or amount that is possible or allowed — usually singular ▪ Ten years is the minimum needed. = We'll need 10 years at a/the minimum. [=we'll need at least 10 years] ▪ We need to keep expenses to a (bare) minimum. [=we need to keep expenses as low as possible] — often + of ▪ Refrigerate the dough for a minimum of two hours. [=for at least two hours] ▪ She will serve a minimum of 10 years in jail. — opposite MAXIMUM

[2]minimum adj, always used before a noun : least or lowest possible in amount or degree ▪ They made the repairs with minimum [=minimal] disruption to the schedule. ▪ What are the minimum requirements for the job? ▪ minimum height/weight ▪ The minimum sentence for her crime is 10 years. ▪ a minimum security prison [=a prison in which prisoners are allowed more freedom than in most other prisons because they are not considered dangerous or likely to escape] — opposite MAXIMUM

[3]minimum adv : at the least ▪ She will serve 10 years minimum. [=the least amount of time she will serve is 10 years]

minimum wage noun [singular] : an amount of money

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 54 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:01 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

that is the least amount of money per hour that workers must be paid according to the law ▪ Congress will vote on a bill to raise the minimum wage.

min•ing /ˈmaɪnɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the process or business of digging in mines to obtain minerals, metals, jewels, etc. ▪ He works in mining. ▪ the mining industry

min•ion /ˈmɪnjən/ noun, pl -ions [count] : someone who is not powerful or important and who obeys the orders of a powerful leader or boss ▪ one of the boss's minions

mini•se•ries /ˈmɪniˌsiriz/ noun, pl miniseries [count] : a story on television that is shown in two or more parts on different days

mini•skirt /ˈmɪniˌskɚt/ noun, pl -skirts [count] : a very short skirt — called also mini; see color picture on page C14

[1]min•is•ter /ˈmɪnəstɚ/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a person whose job involves leading church services, performing religious ceremonies (such as marriages), and providing spiritual or religious guidance to other people : a member of the clergy in some Protestant churches

2 : an official who heads a government department or a major section of a department in some countries (such as Britain) ▪ (Brit) the Minister of Defence [=(US) the Secretary of Defense] — see also PRIME MINISTER

3 : a person who represents his or her own government while living in a foreign country

[2]minister verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing

minister to [phrasal verb] minister to (someone or something) : to help or care for (someone or something) ▪ She devoted herself to ministering to the poor and sick. ▪ The nurse ministered to his wounds.

min•is•te•ri•al /ˌmɪnəˈstiriəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to a government minister ▪ She holds a ministerial office. ▪ ministerial meetings/duties ▪ They function in a ministerial capacity in the embassy.

min•is•tra•tions /ˌmɪnəˈstreɪʃənz/ noun [plural] formal + humorous : actions done to help someone ▪ She recovered quickly despite the ministrations of her doctor.

min•is•try /ˈmɪnəstri/ noun, pl -tries

1 a the ministry : religious leaders as a group : ministers as a group ▪ a member of the ministry b : the office, duties, or work of a religious minister [count] — usually singular ▪ His ministry is among the city's immigrants. [noncount] She learned a lot during her first year of ministry. ▪ When did he enter the ministry? [=when did he start doing religious work?; when did he become a minister?]

2 [count] : a government department or the building in which it is located ▪ (Brit) the Ministry of Defence [=(US) Department of Defense]

mini•van /ˈmɪniˌvæn/ noun, pl -vans [count] : a small van — called also (Brit) people carrier, (Brit) people mover; see picture at CAR

mink /ˈmɪŋk/ noun, pl mink or minks

1 [count] : a small animal that has a thin body and soft, dark brown fur

2 a [noncount] : the skin and fur of a mink used for making clothing ▪ a coat made of mink ▪ a mink coat mink

b [count] : a piece of clothing (such as a coat) made of mink ▪ women wearing expensive jewelry and minks

min•now /ˈmɪnoʊ/ noun, pl min•nows also minnow [count] : a very small fish that is often used as bait to catch larger fish

[1]mi•nor /ˈmaɪnɚ/ adj

1 a : not very important or valuable ▪ a minor artist/author/celebrity ▪ Her role in the project was minor. ▪ a minor component/part ▪ I'm not worried about minor details. ▪ a minor news story ▪ minor characters ▪ Doctors described her recovery as a minor miracle. [=her health was very bad and doctors were not sure if she would recover] b always used before a noun : small in number, quantity, or extent ▪ The grant covered only a minor part of the cost.

2 : not very serious : not causing much trouble or damage ▪ a minor illness/injury/setback ▪ The delay will be minor. ▪ a very minor annoyance/accident ▪ a minor earthquake ▪ minor errors/mistakes ▪ He suffered a minor heart attack.

3 music a : having semitones between the second and third, the fifth and sixth, and sometimes the seventh and eighth notes in a scale ▪ a minor scale b : based on a minor scale ▪ a minor key — compare [1]MAJOR 3

4 always used before a noun : not yet old enough to have the rights of an adult ▪ He has minor children living in the house.

[2]minor noun, pl -nors [count]

1 : a person who is not yet old enough to have the rights of an adult ▪ families with children who are still minors ▪ The nightclub was shut down for selling alcohol to a minor.

2 US : a second subject studied by a college or university student in addition to a main subject ▪ She majored in chemistry with a minor in biology. — compare [2]MAJOR 2

the minors US, informal : the minor leagues of baseball ▪ He spent his entire career in the minors.

[3]minor verb -nors; -nored; -nor•ing

minor in [phrasal verb] minor in (something) US : to have (a specified second subject of study) in addition to your main subject ▪ In college, she majored in chemistry and minored in biology.

mi•nor•i•ty /məˈnɔrəti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [singular] : a number or amount that is less than half of a total ▪ The proposal is opposed by a minority of voters.

2 [singular] : the group that is the smaller part of a larger group ▪ The Republicans/Democrats are now the minority in the Senate. ▪ Opponents of the new law appear to be in the minority. [=there are fewer people who oppose the new law than who support it]

3 [count] a : a group of people who are different from the larger group in a country, area, etc., in some way (such as race or religion) ▪ the country's ethnic minorities ▪ The group is becoming an influential minority in the community. b chiefly US : a member of such a group — usually plural ▪ The college encouraged women and minorities to apply. ▪ The company is making an effort to hire more minorities.

4 [noncount] law : the time or period when a person is not yet old enough to have the full rights of an adult — compare MAJORITY 3

– minority adj, always used before a noun ▪ Republicans/Democrats are the minority party in the Senate. ▪ a minority group minority leader noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : the leader of the political party that has fewer members than the leading party in the U.S. Senate or House of Representatives ▪ the House/Senate minority leader — compare MAJORITY LEADER minor league noun, pl ~ leagues [count] : a professional baseball league that is not one of the major leagues — usually plural ▪ He spent many years in the minor leagues before being called up to the major leagues.; also : a league of lesser importance in another sport (such as hockey or football) — compare MAJOR LEAGUES

– minor–league adj ▪ minor-league baseball — sometimes used figuratively ▪ These problems are minor-league. [=these problems are not serious] – minor lea•guer noun, pl ~ -guers [count] ▪ He was a minor leaguer before he was drafted into the majors. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The police decided he was a minor leaguer in the drug trafficking world.

min•strel /ˈmɪnstrəl/ noun, pl -strels [count]

1 : a musical entertainer in the Middle Ages ▪ a wandering minstrel

2 US : a member of a group of entertainers who performed black American songs and jokes usually with blackened faces ▪ a minstrel show ✧ Minstrel shows were popular in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

[1]mint /ˈmɪnt/ noun, pl mints

1 [noncount] : an herb that has a strong pleasant smell and taste and that is used in medicine and food — see color picture on page C6

2 [count] : a piece of candy that tastes like mint

– compare [2]MINT

– minty /ˈmɪnti/ adj mint•i•er; -est ▪ a minty flavor

[2]mint noun, pl mints

1 [count] : a place where coins are made — usually used with the ▪ coins shipped directly from the mint

2 [singular] informal : a large amount of money ▪ He made a mint [=he earned a large sum of money] in real estate. ▪ Her family is worth a mint. [=is very wealthy] in mint condition ✧ If something is in mint condition, it is in perfect condition, just as if it were new. ▪ He kept the car in mint condition.

– compare [1]MINT

[3]mint verb mints; mint•ed; mint•ing [+ obj] : to make (coins) out of metal ▪ coins that were minted before 1965 ▪ We mint coins out of copper.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 55 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

min•u•et /ˌmɪnjəˈwɛt/ noun, pl -ets [count]
1 : a slow, graceful dance that was popular in the 17th and 18th centuries ▪ danced a minuet
2 : the music for a minuet ▪ The orchestra played a minuet.

[1]mi•nus /ˈmaɪnəs/ prep
1 — used to indicate that one number or amount is being subtracted from another ▪ 10 minus 5 equals/is 5. ▪ We earned 600 dollars minus travel expenses. [=the amount we earned was less than 600 dollars because we had to pay for travel expenses]
2 informal : not having (something) : WITHOUT ▪ He left the restaurant minus his hat. ▪ a fruit that looks like a peach, minus the fuzz ▪ The lower 48 states are all the United States minus Alaska and Hawaii. [=not counting or including Alaska and Hawaii]
plus or minus see [3]PLUS

[2]minus noun, pl -nus•es [count]
1 informal : a problem or disadvantage ▪ She decided that the pluses of owning a home outweighed the minuses. ▪ Some employers see a lack of experience as a real minus.
2 mathematics : MINUS SIGN ▪ Put the minus to the left of the number.

[3]minus adj
1 always used before a noun : having a value that is below zero : NEGATIVE ▪ a minus quantity ▪ minus 3 ▪ The temperature was minus 10. [=10 degrees below zero] — opposite [1]PLUS 1
2 — used following a grade (such as A, B, or C) to show that the work is slightly worse than the letter by itself would indicate ▪ I got a B minus on my English exam. ▪ The teacher said I could bring the C minus up to a C if I studied more. — opposite [1]PLUS 2 on the minus side — used to describe the less appealing or attractive part of something ▪ On the minus side, the job doesn't pay well, but on the plus side, the work is easy.

mi•nus•cule /ˈmɪnəˌskju:l/ adj : very small ▪ a minuscule [=tiny] house/apartment/garden

minus sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] mathematics : the symbol – used to show that a number is being subtracted from another number or that a quantity is less than zero — compare PLUS SIGN

M

[1]min•ute /ˈmɪnət/ noun, pl -utes
1 [count] a : a unit of time equal to 60 seconds : one 60th of an hour ▪ Bake the cake for 25–30 minutes. ▪ We waited for several minutes, but no one came to the door. ▪ He can run a six-minute mile. [=he can run a mile in six minutes] b : a brief period of time : MOMENT ▪ I saw him a minute ago. ▪ Dinner will be ready in just a few minutes. ▪ One minute it was sunny, the next it was pouring rain. ▪ Could I have a minute of your time? = Do you have a minute? = Could I speak to you for a minute? [=could I speak to you briefly?] ▪ I'm coming, just give me a minute. [=wait for me] ▪ It was an excellent show. I enjoyed every minute of it. [=I enjoyed all of it] ▪ I'll explain that in a minute. [=shortly, soon] — see also LAST MINUTE
2 [count] : the distance that can be traveled in a minute ▪ My house is just a few minutes from here.
3 minutes [plural] : an official record of what was said and done in a meeting ▪ The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. ▪ The secretary took the minutes [=recorded in writing what happened] during the meeting.
4 [count] technical : one of 60 equal parts into which a degree can be divided for measuring angles ▪ 42 degrees and 30 minutes
a laugh a minute see [2]LAUGH any minute ✧ If something could happen (at) any minute (now), it could happen very soon. ▪ The bus should be here any minute now. ▪ I'm expecting a phone call any minute. ▪ Things could change at any minute. [=at any moment]
at/on a minute's notice see [1]NOTICE from minute to minute or from one minute to the next or minute by minute : very quickly as time passes ▪ Things kept changing from minute to minute. [=from moment to moment] hold/hang on a minute or wait/just a minute informal 1 — used to tell someone to wait or to stop for a brief time ▪ "Aren't you finished yet?" "Hold on a minute. I'm almost done." ▪ Hang on a minute—I didn't hear you. Could you repeat what you said? 2 — used to express surprise or disbelief ▪ Hey, wait a minute! That's not what you said yesterday!
just this minute see [2]JUST not for a/one minute : at no time : not at all : NEVER ▪ I did not believe her for one minute. = Not for one minute did I believe her. [=I never believed her] the minute : as soon as ▪ Please call me the minute you get home. ▪ I knew the minute (that) I saw it that I had to have this dress.
this minute : right now : IMMEDIATELY ▪ Stop it this minute! ▪ I have to have the report this minute.
to the minute : exactly or precisely ▪ The buses were on time to the minute. — see also UP-TO-THE-MINUTE within minutes : within a very short amount of time ▪ We called an ambulance and it arrived within minutes.

[2]mi•nute /maɪˈnu:t, Brit maɪˈnju:t/ adj mi•nut•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : very small : TINY ▪ There were minute particles of dust in the air. ▪ The test detected minute amounts of contamination. ▪ The equipment is able to detect the minutest errors.
2 : very complete and precise ▪ She told him what happened in minute detail. ▪ a minute examination of the evidence – mi•nute•ly adv ▪ a minutely detailed drawing ▪ studied the evidence minutely minute hand noun, pl ~ hands [count] : the long hand that marks the minutes on a watch or clock — compare HOUR HAND, SECOND HAND

min•ute•man /ˈmɪnətˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a member of a group of men who fought on the side of the American colonies and who were ready to go quickly into battle during the American Revolution mi•nu•ti•ae /məˈnu:ʃiˌi:, Brit məˈnju:ʃiˌi:/ noun [plural] : small or minor details ▪ the minutiae of daily life ▪ He was bewildered by the contract's minutiae.

minx /ˈmɪŋks/ noun, pl minx•es [count] old-fashioned : a sexually attractive and playful woman who often causes trouble ▪ a clever little minx

mir•a•cle /ˈmɪrɪkəl/ noun, pl -a•cles [count]
1 : an unusual or wonderful event that is believed to be caused by the power of God ▪ a divine miracle ▪ She believed that God had given her the power to work/perform miracles. ▪ a miracle worker [=a person who is able to work/perform miracles]
2 : a very amazing or unusual event, thing, or achievement ▪ It would take a miracle for this team to win. ▪ The bridge is a miracle of engineering. = The bridge is an engineering miracle. ▪ the miracle of birth ▪ It's a (minor) miracle that he succeeded. ▪ the miracle of his recovery ▪ She worked miracles with those kids. [=she accomplished wonderful things with those kids] ▪ a miracle drug/cure [=a drug/cure that is extremely or amazingly effective] ▪ These days, thanks to the miracle of television, we can watch events happening on the other side of the world. ▪ By some miracle, I was on time for work every day this week. [=it is surprising/amazing that I was on time for work every day this week] mi•rac•u•lous /məˈrækjələs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very wonderful or amazing like a miracle ▪ He made a miraculous recovery after the accident. ▪ Her memory is nothing short of miraculous.

– mi•rac•u•lous•ly adv ▪ Miraculously, no one was hurt.

mi•rage /məˈrɑ:ʒ, Brit ˈmɪrɑ:ʒ/ noun, pl -rag•es [count]
1 : something (such as a pool of water in the middle of a desert) that is seen and appears to be real but that is not actually there
2 : something that you hope for or want but that is not possible or real ▪ A peaceful solution proved to be a mirage.

Mi•ran•da /məˈrændə/ adj, always used before a noun, US, law : of or relating to the legal rights of an arrested person to have an attorney and to refuse to answer questions ▪ Miranda rights ▪ The suspect was given a Miranda warning. [=was told about his Miranda rights]

mire /ˈmajə/ noun : thick and deep mud [noncount] The troops marched onward through the muck and the mire. — often used figuratively ▪ stuck in the mire of cynicism ▪ The economy is sinking deeper into the mire. [=the economy is bad and getting worse] ▪ His name/reputation has been dragged through the mire. [=has been unfairly damaged or ruined] [singular] They found themselves in a mire of debt. [=they could not get out of debt]

mired /ˈmajəd/ adj, not used before a noun
1 : stuck in a very difficult situation ▪ She was mired in work all weekend. ▪ He has been mired in controversy throughout his term in office. ▪ The company is mired in legal troubles.
2 : stuck in deep mud ▪ The car was mired in the muck.

[1]mir•ror /ˈmirə/ noun, pl -rors [count]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 56 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:02 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

1 : a piece of glass that reflects images ▪ She saw her reflection in the mirror. = She looked at herself in the mirror. ▪ a bathroom mirror — see pictures at BATHROOM, CAR; see also REARVIEW MIRROR
2 : something that shows what another thing is like in a very clear and accurate way — usually singular ▪ Her art is a mirror of modern American culture.
– see also SMOKE AND MIRRORS
– mir•rored /ˈmirəd/ adj ▪ a mirrored wall [=a wall that has a mirror or mirrors on it] ▪ mirrored glass

²mirror verb -rors; -rored; -ror•ing [+ obj]
1 : to be very similar to (something) ▪ Her mood mirrored the gloomy weather. [=her mood was gloomy like the weather] : to show (something) in a very clear and accurate way ▪ Her art mirrors [=reflects] modern American culture.
2 : to show the image of (something) on a surface : REFLECT ▪ The building was mirrored in the lake.

mirror image noun, pl ~ -ages [count]
1 : something that looks like something else but with its left and right sides reversed ▪ The left hand and the right hand are mirror images (of each other). = The left hand is the/a mirror image of the right hand. ▪ The left side of the building is a mirror image of the right.
2 : someone who looks like someone else ▪ He's the mirror image [=(more commonly) spitting image] of his father. [=he looks just like his father] mirth /ˈməθ/ noun [noncount] formal + literary : happiness and laughter ▪ Her clumsy attempt to cut the cake was the cause of much mirth.

– mirth•ful /ˈməθfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ He was in a mirthful mood.

mirth•less /ˈməθləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : showing or feeling no happiness or pleasure ▪ a mirthless smile/laugh

mis- /mɪs/ prefix
1 : badly : wrongly ▪ *mis*judge ▪ *mis*file ▪ *mis*behave
2 : bad : wrong ▪ *mis*understanding ▪ *mis*deed ▪ *mis*diagnosis
3 : opposite or lack of ▪ *mis*trust mis•ad•ven•ture /ˌmɪsədˈvɛnʧə/ noun, pl -tures [count] : an unlucky event or occurrence : a bad experience or accident that is usually minor ▪ His vacation turned into a series of misadventures.

death by misadventure Brit, law : death caused by an accident ▪ a verdict of death by misadventure

mis•an•thrope /ˈmɪsnˌθroʊp/ noun, pl -thropes [count] formal : a person who does not like other people

mis•an•thro•py /mɪsˈænθrəpi/ noun [noncount] formal : dislike or hatred of other people — compare PHILANTHROPY
– mis•an•throp•ic /ˌmɪsnˈθraːpɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ She became increasingly misanthropic in her old age.

mis•ap•ply /ˌmɪsəˈplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply•ing [+ obj] : to use (something) incorrectly or in a way that was not intended ▪ a list of words that are often misapplied ▪ He has been accused of misapplying public funds.
– mis•ap•pli•ca•tion /mɪsˌæpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ misapplication of public funds mis•ap•pre•hen•sion /mɪsˌæprəˈhɛnʃən/ noun, pl -sions formal : an incorrect understanding of something : a wrong idea about something [count] He acted on/under the misapprehension that they would change their minds. [=he mistakenly thought that they would change their minds] [noncount] an error caused by misapprehension of the facts labor under a misapprehension see ²LABOR

mis•ap•pro•pri•ate /ˌmɪsəˈproʊpriˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj] formal : to take (something, such as money) dishonestly for your own use : to appropriate (something) wrongly ▪ They accused him of misappropriating town funds.
– mis•ap•pro•pri•a•tion /ˌmɪsəˌproʊpriˈeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ She was fired for the misappropriation of funds.

mis•be•got•ten /ˌmɪsbəˈgaːtn/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : badly planned or thought out ▪ He was sent on a misbegotten [=misconceived] diplomatic mission that was sure to fail.

mis•be•have /ˌmɪsbɪˈheɪv/ verb -haves; -haved; -hav•ing [no obj] : to behave badly ▪ The children misbehaved during dinner.
– mis•be•hav•ior (US) or Brit mis•be•hav•iour /ˌmɪsbɪˈheɪvjə/ noun [noncount] ▪ The children were punished for their misbehavior.

misc. abbr miscellaneous

mis•cal•cu•late /mɪsˈkælkjəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 : to make an error about the size or amount of something [+ obj] The waiter miscalculated our check. [no obj] Unless I miscalculated, we have about $500 left.
2 : to make an error in judging a situation [+ obj] She has clearly miscalculated the importance of her decision. [no obj] He realized that he had miscalculated in thinking that his proposal would be welcome.
– mis•cal•cu•la•tion /mɪsˌkælkjəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] The waiter made a slight miscalculation. [noncount] The discrepancy could be caused by mistake or miscalculation.

mis•car•riage /mɪsˈkerɪʤ/ noun, pl -riag•es
1 medical : a condition in which a pregnancy ends too early and does not result in the birth of a live baby [count] She had a miscarriage. ▪ a woman who has suffered/had multiple miscarriages [noncount] a high risk of miscarriage
2 [count] law : an unjust legal decision — used in the phrase miscarriage of justice ▪ His conviction was a tragic/grave/gross miscarriage of justice.

mis•car•ry /ˌmɪsˈkeri/ verb -ries; -ried; -ry•ing [no obj]
1 medical : to have a miscarriage : to experience the early and unexpected end of a pregnancy ▪ She miscarried at 13 weeks. = She miscarried when she was 13 weeks pregnant.
2 formal : to go wrong : to fail to achieve the intended purpose ▪ The plan miscarried.

mis•cast /ˌmɪsˈkæst, Brit ˌmɪsˈkɑːst/ verb -casts; -cast; -cast•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (an actor) a role for which the actor is not suited — usually used as (be) miscast ▪ He was miscast in that film.
2 : to make bad choices in selecting actors for (something, such as a play or movie) — usually used as (be) miscast ▪ The play was miscast.

mis•ce•ge•na•tion /mɪˌsɛʤəˈneɪʃən/ noun [noncount] formal : sexual relations or marriage between people of two different races (such as a white person and a black person)

mis•cel•la•neous /ˌmɪsəˈleɪnijəs/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] : including many things of different kinds ▪ a miscellaneous collection of tools ▪ miscellaneous expenses/items

mis•cel•la•ny /ˈmɪsəˌleɪni, Brit mɪˈsɛləni/ noun, pl -nies [count] : a mixture or collection of different things ▪ a miscellany of old toys mis•chance /ˌmɪsˈʧæns, Brit ˌmɪsˈʧɑːns/ noun, pl -chanc•es formal 1 [noncount] : bad luck ▪ two enemies brought together by mischance

2 [count] : something caused by bad luck : MISFORTUNE ▪ a series of mischances

mis•chief /ˈmɪsʧəf/ noun [noncount]
1 : behavior or activity that is annoying but that is not meant to cause serious harm or damage ▪ Those children are always up to some mischief. = Those children are always getting into mischief. ▪ engaging in mischief ▪ It's hard to keep him out of mischief.
2 : a playful desire to cause trouble ▪ There was (a hint of) mischief in his eyes/smile.
3 somewhat formal : harmful behavior ▪ criminal/malicious mischief mis•chie•vous /ˈmɪsʧəvəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : causing or tending to cause annoyance or minor harm or damage ▪ a mischievous puppy/child
2 : showing a playful desire to cause trouble ▪ mischievous behavior ▪ a mischievous smile
3 : intended to harm someone or someone's reputation ▪ mischievous gossip ▪ a mischievous lie
– mis•chie•vous•ly adv ▪ She smiled mischievously. – mis•chie•vous•ness noun [noncount] mis•con•ceived /ˌmɪskənˈsiːvd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : poorly planned or thought out : badly conceived ▪ a misconceived notion ▪ a misconceived attempt to fix the system mis•con•cep•tion /ˌmɪskənˈsɛpʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count] : a wrong or mistaken idea ▪ a common/popular misconception ▪ I'd like to clear up a few misconceptions about the schedule.

labor under a misconception see ²LABOR

mis•con•duct /mɪsˈkɑːndəkt/ noun [noncount] : wrong behavior : behavior or activity that is illegal or morally wrong ▪ He was forced to defend himself against charges of sexual misconduct. ▪ There have been reports of misconduct by several employees.

mis•con•strue /ˌmɪskənˈstruː/ verb -strues; -strued; -stru•ing [+ obj] formal : to understand (something) incor-

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 57 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

rectly ▪ My words were misconstrued. ▪ They could misconstrue our intentions. — compare CONSTRUE mis•count /mɪsˈkaʊnt/ verb -counts; -count•ed; -count•ing : to count (something) incorrectly [+ obj] They believe the votes were miscounted. [no obj] He had to start counting again when he realized that he had miscounted.

mis•cre•ant /ˈmɪskrijənt/ noun, pl -ants [count] formal : a person who does something that is illegal or morally wrong ▪ He supports tough penalties against corporate miscreants.

mis•deed /ˌmɪsˈdi:d/ noun, pl -deeds [count] formal : a morally wrong or illegal act ▪ She threatened to expose to the public the misdeeds he had committed.

mis•de•mean•or (US) or Brit mis•de•mean•our /ˌmɪsdɪˈmi:nə/ noun, pl -ors [count] law : a crime that is not very serious : a crime that is less serious than a felony ▪ He was charged with (committing) a misdemeanor.

mis•di•ag•nose /mɪsˈdajɪgˌnoʊs/ verb -nos•es; -nosed; -nos•ing [+ obj] : to form an incorrect opinion about the cause of (a disease or problem) : to incorrectly diagnose (a disease or problem) ▪ Her condition was misdiagnosed by several doctors.

mis•di•ag•no•sis /mɪsˌdajɪgˈnoʊsəs/ noun, pl -no•ses /mɪsˌdajɪgˈnoʊˌsi:z/ : an incorrect conclusion about the cause of a disease or problem : an incorrect diagnosis [count] The doctor made a misdiagnosis. ▪ Following several misdiagnoses, we finally discovered what the problem really was. [noncount] Without proper testing, the potential for misdiagnosis is high.

mis•di•rect /ˌmɪsdəˈrɛkt/ verb -rects; -rect•ed; -rect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to use or direct (something) in a way that is not correct or appropriate ▪ I feel that his criticism of the government is misdirected. [=that his criticism is not deserved or appropriate] ▪ badly misdirected energy/efforts
2 a : to send (someone or something) to the wrong place ▪ Their mail was misdirected to our address. b : to give (someone) incorrect information ▪ If he tells you he's not interested, he's trying to misdirect you.
– mis•di•rec•tion /ˌmɪsdəˈrɛkʃən/ noun [noncount]

mi•ser /ˈmaɪzə/ noun, pl -sers [count] disapproving : a person who hates to spend money : a very stingy person ▪ a mean-spirited old miser

mis•er•a•ble /ˈmɪzərəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 a : very unhappy ▪ He had a miserable childhood. ▪ My boss is making my life thoroughly/utterly miserable with her constant demands and criticism. ▪ He felt lonely and miserable after his divorce. b : very sick or unwell ▪ She drank too much and felt miserable [=wretched, rotten] the next day.
2 : very severe or unpleasant ▪ I've had a miserable cold for the past week. ▪ We've been having miserable weather. = The weather has been miserable.
3 : very poor in condition or quality ▪ He lived in a miserable little shack. ▪ miserable [=wretched] living conditions
4 always used before a noun : very bad ▪ He did a miserable job making the sign. [=he made the sign very poorly] ▪ The business was a miserable failure. ▪ Their trip turned out to be a miserable experience. ▪ She has a miserable temper. ▪ the miserable state of the economy
5 always used before a noun : deserving to be hated ▪ Their boss is a rotten, miserable tyrant.
– mis•er•a•bly /ˈmɪzərəbli/ adv ▪ The business failed miserably. ▪ miserably poor/unhappy mi•ser•ly /ˈmaɪzəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving

1 : hating to spend money ▪ The team's miserly [=stingy, tightfisted] owner refused to pay for new equipment.
2 : very small or too small amount ▪ He was given a miserly raise. ▪ miserly wages – mi•ser•li•ness noun [noncount] ▪ the miserliness of the team's owner

mis•ery /ˈmɪzəri/ noun, pl -er•ies
1 [noncount] : extreme suffering or unhappiness ▪ The war brought misery to thousands of refugees. ▪ They were living in overcrowded slums in conditions of great misery. ▪ a source of human misery ▪ the joy and misery of life
2 a [count] : something that causes extreme suffering or unhappiness — usually plural ▪ He tends to exaggerate the miseries of his childhood. ▪ the joys and miseries of life b [singular] : a very unhappy or painful time or experience ▪ The last years of her life were a misery. ▪ My former boss made my life a misery. [=my former boss made my life miserable] ✧ When an injured or sick animal is put out of its misery, it is killed so that it no longer has to suffer. This phrase is sometimes used to refer to people as well. ▪ patients who are in constant pain and want to be put out of their misery ▪ (humorous) I know you're all anxious to hear the results, so let me put you out of your misery. [=let me end your suffering by telling you the results] ▪ The champion finally put him out of his misery by knocking him out in the fifth round. [=the champion was beating him badly and finally ended the fight by knocking him out]
3 [singular] Brit, informal : an unhappy person who complains often or constantly : MISERY GUTS ▪ Stop being such a misery.

misery guts noun [singular] Brit, informal : an unhappy person who complains often or constantly ▪ Lighten up: don't be such an old misery guts! [=sourpuss] mis• le /ˈmɪsˌfajəl/ verb - les ; - led ; - l•ing [+ obj] : to put (a document) in the wrong place : to file (something) in the wrong place ▪ I found papers that had been misfiled.

mis• re /ˌmɪsˈfajə/ verb - res ; - red ; - r•ing [no obj]
1 of an engine : to fail to work properly because the fuel mixture burns at the wrong time
2 of a gun : to fail to fire properly : to fail to shoot a bullet
3 : to fail to have an intended effect : to fail to work properly ▪ The plan/joke misfired. [=the plan/joke did not have the effect it was meant to have] – mis re noun, pl - res [count] ▪ an engine misfire ▪ The joke was an unfortunate misfire.

mis• t /ˈmɪsˌfɪt/ noun, pl - ts [count] : a person who is different from other people and who does not seem to belong in a particular group or situation ▪ a social misfit

mis•for•tune /ˌmɪsˈfoəʧən/ noun, pl -tunes
1 [noncount] : bad luck ▪ a victim of economic misfortune ▪ She endured her misfortune without complaint. ▪ It was my misfortune to be chosen first. ▪ It was the worst movie I've ever had the misfortune to see. = (chiefly US) It was the worst movie I've ever had the misfortune of seeing.
2 [count] : an unlucky condition or event ▪ Her injury was a great misfortune. ▪ He blamed the party's misfortunes on poor leadership.

mis•giv•ing /ˌmɪsˈgɪvɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings : a feeling of doubt about something : a feeling that something might not be right or might not work as planned — often + about [count] — usually plural ▪ Many people have expressed (deep/serious/grave) misgivings about her qualifications for the job. ▪ I felt some misgivings about his ability to do the job. [noncount] I felt some misgiving about his ability to do the job. ▪ They regarded the plan with misgiving.

mis•guid•ed /ˌmɪsˈgaɪdəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : having wrong or improper goals or values ▪ She's been getting a lot of bad advice from misguided friends.
2 : resulting from wrong or improper goals or values ▪ He blames the crisis on the government's misguided economic policies. ▪ a misguided attempt/effort to help ▪ misguided ideas/notions
– mis•guid•ed•ly adv ▪ misguidedly attempting to help mis•han•dle /ˌmɪsˈhændl/ verb -han•dles; -han•dled; -han•dling [+ obj]

1 : to deal with or manage (something) badly or incorrectly ▪ The police mishandled the investigation.
2 : to touch or treat (something) in a way that causes damage ▪ mishandle a package ▪ Apples are easily bruised when they are mishandled.
3 sports : to fail to catch or hold (a ball) properly ▪ The shortstop mishandled the throw. ▪ The quarterback fumbled when he mishandled the snap.
– mis•han•dling noun [noncount] ▪ The police have been criticized for their mishandling of the investigation.

mis•hap /ˈmɪsˌhæp/ noun, pl -haps
1 : a small mistake or amount of bad luck [count] We experienced the usual mishaps of a family vacation. [noncount] The ceremony proceeded without mishap.
2 [count] : an unlucky accident or mistake ▪ The fire was a tragic mishap that could have been prevented.

mis•hear /ˌmɪsˈhiə/ verb -hears; -heard /-ˈhəd/; -hear•ing [+ obj] : to hear (a person who is speaking) incorrectly ▪ You misheard me. I said I was feeling anxious, not angry. : to hear (something that is said) incorrectly ▪ I must have misheard the instructions. ▪ I misheard "mother" as "mutter."

mis•hit /ˌmɪsˈhɪt/ verb -hits; -hit; -hit•ting [+ obj] sports : to hit (something, such as a ball) incorrectly ▪ She made a bogey after mishitting her tee shot.
– mishit noun, pl -hits [count]

mish•mash /ˈmɪʃˌmæʃ/ noun [singular] informal : a con-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 58 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:03 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

fused mixture of things — usually + of ▪ The collection is a mishmash [=hodgepodge, jumble] of different styles.

mis•in•form /ˌmɪsɪnˈfoəm/ verb -forms; -formed; -form•ing [+ obj] : to give (someone) false or incorrect information ▪ The company is accused of misinforming its shareholders about last year's profits. ▪ I felt I had been misinformed about the risks involved. — see also MISINFORMED

mis•in•for•ma•tion /mɪsˌɪnfəˈmeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] : information that is not completely true or accurate ▪ a company accused of providing misinformation to its shareholders — compare DISINFORMATION misinformed adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : not having accurate or completely accurate information about something ▪ The public is badly/sadly misinformed about the possible effects of the proposed law. ▪ questions from a misinformed reporter
2 : based on information that is not accurate or not completely accurate ▪ misinformed beliefs/choices

mis•in•ter•pret /ˌmɪsnˈtəprət/ verb -prets; -pret•ed; -pret•ing [+ obj] : to understand or explain (something) incorrectly : to interpret (something) incorrectly ▪ He claims that his statements have been misinterpreted by the media. ▪ Her silence should not be misinterpreted as consent.
– mis•in•ter•pre•ta•tion /ˌmɪsnˌtəprəˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The rules should be written so that they are not subject to misinterpretation. [=so that they cannot be misunderstood] mis•judge /ˌmɪsˈʤʌʤ/ verb -judg•es; -judged; -judg•ing [+ obj] : to judge (someone or something) incorrectly or unfairly: such as a : to have an unfair opinion about (someone) ▪ I can see that I've completely misjudged you. I apologize. b : to estimate (something, such as an amount, distance, etc.) incorrectly ▪ The outfielder misjudged the fly ball and it went over his head. ▪ The pilot misjudged the landing.

– mis•judg•ment also chiefly Brit mis•judge•ment /ˌmɪsˈʤʌʤmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ tactical misjudgments

mis•lay /ˌmɪsˈleɪ/ verb -lays; -laid /ˌmɪsˈleɪd/; -lay•ing [+ obj] : to lose (something) for a short time by forgetting where you put it ▪ I mislaid [=misplaced] my car keys.

mis•lead /ˌmɪsˈliːd/ verb -leads; -led /ˌmɪsˈlɛd/; -lead•ing : to cause (someone) to believe something that is not true [+ obj] We believe that her comments were deliberately meant to mislead the public. ▪ Don't be misled [=fooled] by his friendly appearance—he's really a ruthless competitor. ▪ The early results misled us into thinking we would win the election easily. [no obj] We believe that her comments were deliberately meant to mislead.
– mis•lead•ing adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ The early results were very misleading. [=deceptive] ▪ deliberately misleading comments – mis•lead•ing•ly /ˌmɪsˈliːdɪŋli/ adv ▪ a misleadingly labeled product mis•man•age /ˌmɪsˈmænɪʤ/ verb -ag•es; -aged; -ag•ing [+ obj] : to manage or control (something) badly ▪ mismanage a company – mis•man•age•ment /ˌmɪsˈmænɪʤmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ These problems are due to mismanagement.

[1]mis•match /ˈmɪsˌmæʧ/ verb -match•es; -matched; -match•ing [+ obj] : to put (people or things that are not suited to each other) together : to match (people or things) badly ▪ a designer who intentionally mismatches colors
– mis•matched adj ▪ wearing mismatched clothes ▪ They were married for three years, but they were badly mismatched. [=they were not suited to each other]

[2]mismatch noun, pl -matches [count] : a bad match: such as a : a situation in which two people or things that are not suited to each other are together ▪ a marital mismatch b : a situation in which two people or things are not balanced or equal to each other in some way ▪ a mismatch between supply and demand; especially : a game or contest in which one person, team, etc., is much better or stronger than the other ▪ The election turned out to be a mismatch.

mis•name /ˌmɪsˈneɪm/ verb -names; -named; -nam•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (someone or something) a name that is not proper or appropriate ▪ They misnamed the airport when they called it "international." Almost all the arriving and departing flights are local.
2 : to give or show an incorrect name for (someone or something) ▪ The caption misnamed the person in the picture.

mis•no•mer /ˌmɪsˈnoʊmə/ noun, pl -mers [count] : a name that is wrong or not proper or appropriate ▪ "International Airport" is something of a misnomer, since almost all the arriving and departing flights are local.

mi•sog•y•nist /məˈsɑːʤənɪst/ noun, pl -nists [count] : a man who hates women — often used before another noun ▪ a misogynist joke ▪ their misogynist boss – mi•sog•y•ny /məˈsɑːʤəni/ noun [noncount] ▪ lyrics that promote violence and misogyny

mis•place /ˌmɪsˈpleɪs/ verb -plac•es; -placed; -plac•ing [+ obj]
1 : to put (something) in the wrong place ▪ misplace a comma
2 : to lose (something) for a short time by forgetting where you put it : MISLAY ▪ He misplaced his keys.
3 : to direct (a feeling, such as trust or confidence) toward someone or something that does not deserve it ▪ She realized that her trust had been misplaced. [=she had trusted someone who did not deserve to be trusted]
– misplaced adj ▪ misplaced [=unrealistic, inappropriate] expectations ▪ His confidence in himself seems misplaced. ▪ misplaced loyalty/faith – mis•place•ment /ˌmɪsˈpleɪsmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the misplacement of trust mis•play /ˈmɪsˌpleɪ/ noun, pl -plays [count] : a mistake made by a person who is playing a sport (such as baseball or tennis) ▪ a misplay [=error] by the shortstop

– mis•play /ˌmɪsˈpleɪ/ verb -plays; -played; -play•ing [+ obj] ▪ The shortstop misplayed the grounder. [=failed to catch it, stop it, etc.]

mis•print /ˈmɪsˌprɪnt/ noun, pl -prints [count] : a mistake (such as a spelling error) in something printed ▪ a book with many misprints mis•pro•nounce /ˌmɪsprəˈnaʊns/ verb -nounc•es; -nounced; -nounc•ing [+ obj] : to pronounce (a word or name) incorrectly ▪ His name is often mispronounced.

– mis•pro•nun•ci•a•tion /ˌmɪsprəˌnʌnsiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] mis•quote /ˌmɪsˈkwoʊt/ verb -quotes; -quot•ed; -quot•ing [+ obj] : to report or repeat (something that someone has said or written) in a way that is not correct or accurate : to quote (someone) incorrectly ▪ misquote Shakespeare ▪ The mayor says that she was misquoted by the press.

– mis•quo•ta•tion /ˌmɪskwoʊˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ an article containing many misquotations – misquote noun, pl -quotes [count] ▪ an article containing many misquotes

mis•read /ˌmɪsˈriːd/ verb -reads; -read /-ˈrɛd/; -read•ing [+ obj]
1 : to read (something) incorrectly ▪ I guess I misread the instructions.
2 : to understand (something) incorrectly ▪ They have misread the lessons of the past. ▪ Politicians may have misread the mood of the public. ▪ I badly misread the situation.
– mis•read•ing noun, pl -ings [count] — usually singular ▪ a potentially dangerous misreading of the public mood mis•rep•re•sent /ˌmɪsˌrɛprɪˈzɛnt/ verb -sents; -sent•ed; -sent•ing [+ obj] : to describe (someone or something) in a false way especially in order to deceive someone : to give someone a false idea about (something or someone) ▪ The company is accused of misrepresenting its earnings. ▪ He misrepresented himself as a writer. [=he claimed to be a writer but he wasn't one] ▪ The movie deliberately misrepresents the facts/truth about her life.

– mis•rep•re•sen•ta•tion /ˌmɪsˌrɛprɪˌzɛnˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ deliberate misrepresentations of the truth mis•rule /ˌmɪsˈruːl/ noun [noncount] : bad government ▪ The people of that country have endured many years of misrule.

[1]miss /ˈmɪs/ verb miss•es; missed; miss•ing
1 : to fail to hit, catch, reach, or get (something) [+ obj] miss a target ▪ He swung and missed the ball completely. ▪ The shot missed the goal by inches. ▪ miss a putt ▪ They (just/barely) missed the deadline. ▪ The team missed the play-offs last year. [=the team failed to qualify for the play-offs] [no obj] The batter swung and missed. ▪ She took three shots and missed every time. ▪ The shot missed badly.
2 [+ obj] a : to fail to use (something, such as an opportunity) ▪ I would hate to miss this opportunity. ▪ She could have joined us, but she missed her chance. ▪ This opportunity is too good to miss. [=so good that no one would want to fail to use it] b : to fail to do, take, make, or have (something) ▪ The driver was so distracted that he missed the turn. [=he failed to turn when he should have] ▪ They missed a payment on their car loan. ▪ miss a tackle ▪ She missed her medication.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 59 SESS: 37 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

▪ He was in such a hurry that he missed breakfast.
3 [+ obj] : to be without (something) : to lack (something) — used in the phrase be missing ▪ He was missing one of his front teeth. [=he did not have one of his front teeth; one of his front teeth was missing] ▪ The old house is missing some of its windows. — see also MISSING
4 [+ obj] a : to fail to be present for (something) ▪ She missed three days of school when she was sick. ▪ miss a class ▪ He hasn't missed a day's work in years. ▪ This is an event you won't want to miss. = This is an event that is not to be missed. [=that you should experience] ▪ "Are you going to their wedding?" "Yes, I wouldn't miss it for the world." [=I would not consider not going; I will definitely go] b : to arrive too late for (something or someone) ▪ He missed his train. ▪ I missed the flight/connection by only a few minutes. ▪ She was delayed in traffic and missed her appointment. ▪ You just missed him—he left five minutes ago.
5 [+ obj] : to notice or feel the absence of (someone or something) ▪ I'm so glad you're back. I've missed you. ▪ She left quietly, and it was a while before she was missed. [=before anyone noticed that she had left] ▪ We miss our old friends. [=we feel sad because we are not near our old friends] ▪ I miss being home at Christmas. [=I am sad not to be home at Christmas] ▪ You'll be (sorely/much) missed when you retire. ▪ He misses his wife terribly. ▪ I miss the old neighborhood. ▪ I didn't miss my bag [=I didn't notice that my bag was missing] until I got to the car.
6 [+ obj] a : to fail to understand (something) ▪ You missed the main point of the story. ▪ You're missing my point. ▪ Am I missing something? ▪ She doesn't miss a thing. [=she understands everything that is being said, that is happening, etc.] b : to fail to hear or learn about (something) ▪ Here's the latest news, in case you missed it. ▪ I'm sorry, but I missed the first part of what you said. c : to fail to see or notice (something or someone) ▪ It's a big white building on the corner—you can't miss it. [=it is impossible not to see/notice it] ▪ As the only woman in the race, she was hard to miss.
7 [+ obj] : to avoid (something) ▪ Her car skidded off the road and barely missed hitting a telephone pole. ▪ He just missed being seriously hurt. [=he was almost seriously hurt]
8 [no obj] : to fail to succeed ▪ With a cast like this, the movie can't miss. [=it will definitely succeed]
9 [no obj] : MISFIRE 1 ▪ The engine missed.
miss a beat see [2]BEAT miss its/the mark see [1]MARK
miss out [phrasal verb] 1 : to lose an opportunity : to be unable to have or enjoy something ▪ It's too bad you weren't able to come with us. You really missed out. — often + on ▪ You really missed out on a good time. ▪ If you don't act now you could miss out on a great opportunity. 2 miss out (someone or something) or miss (someone or something) out Brit : to leave (someone or something) out : OMIT ▪ You've missed out the most important fact!
miss the boat see [1]BOAT
miss the forest for the trees see TREE never/not miss a trick see [1]TRICK

[2]miss noun, pl misses [count]
1 : a failure to hit something ▪ She hit the target five straight times without a miss. ▪ His first shot was a bad miss.
2 : a failure to reach a desired goal or result ▪ Her movies have been a mixture of hits and misses. [=some have been successful and some have not] — see also HIT-AND-MISS, NEAR MISS give (something) a miss chiefly Brit, informal : to choose not to do (something) or go (somewhere) ▪ I had so much else to do that I decided to give the party a miss.
– compare [3]MISS

[3]miss noun, pl misses
1 Miss a — used as a title before the name of an unmarried woman or girl ▪ Miss Jones — compare MRS., MS. b — used as a title before the name of a married woman who does not use her husband's name ▪ Miss Bette Davis c — used as part of a title for a girl or young woman who has won a contest (such as a beauty contest) and who represents the place or thing indicated ▪ Miss America d Brit — used by children as a way to address a female teacher
2 a — used as a polite way to address a girl or young woman ▪ Can I help you, miss? b [count] old-fashioned : a girl or young woman ▪ a talented young miss
3 misses [plural] US : a clothing size for women of average height and weight — usually used before another noun ▪ misses dresses
– compare [2]MISS

mis•shap•en /ˌmɪsˈʃeɪpən/ adj [more ~; most ~] : badly shaped : having an ugly shape ▪ a misshapen hand mis•sile /ˈmɪsəl, Brit ˈmɪˌsaɪl/ noun, pl -siles [count] : an object that is thrown, shot, or launched as a weapon ▪ The protesters were arrested for throwing missiles [=rocks, bottles, etc.] at the police.; especially : a rocket that explodes when it hits a distant target ▪ a nuclear missile — see also BALLISTIC MISSILE, CRUISE MISSILE, GUIDED MISSILE, SURFACE-TO-AIR MISSILE, SURFACE-TO-SURFACE MISSILE

miss•ing /ˈmɪsɪŋ/ adj
1 : unable to be found : not in a usual or expected place ▪ My keys are missing. [=I can't find my keys] ▪ One of his front teeth is missing. [=he does not have one of his front teeth; he is missing one of his front teeth] ▪ a missing tooth ▪ missing children — often + from ▪ A few books are missing from the shelf. ▪ She discovered that some important papers were missing from her desk. — sometimes used in the phrase go missing ▪ My keys have gone missing again. [=I cannot find my keys again; my keys are missing again] ✧ This phrase is more common in British English than in U.S. English.
2 : needed or expected but not included ▪ The new director has provided the missing ingredient that was needed for the show's success. ▪ It's a good sauce, but there's something missing. [=it lacks something that would make it better] — often + from ▪ There was something missing from his life.
missing in action — used to say that a soldier cannot be found after a battle and might have been killed, captured, or wounded ▪ soldiers who are missing in action and presumed dead

missing link noun, pl ~ links
1 [count] : something that you do not have and that you need to complete a series or to solve a problem ▪ Police are hopeful that the new evidence will provide the missing links needed to solve the crime.
2 the missing link : a kind of animal that was in some ways like an ape and in some ways like a human being and that is thought to have existed in the past but has not been discovered ▪ scientists searching for the missing link

missing person noun, pl ~ -sons [count] : a person whose location is not known and whose absence has been reported to the police ▪ Their teenage daughter has been officially listed as a missing person since she failed to return home after leaving school. ▪ They've filed a missing person report with the police. [=a document that officially reports that someone is missing]

mis•sion /ˈmɪʃən/ noun, pl -sions [count]
1 a : a task or job that someone is given to do ▪ Our mission was to recover the stolen plans. ▪ He was sent on a fact-finding mission. = He was sent on a mission to gather information. ▪ By patient negotiation she succeeded in her mission of averting a strike. ▪ go on a rescue mission [=go somewhere to rescue someone] ▪ The volunteers were on a mission of mercy to help victims of the disaster. [=the volunteers were sent to help the victims of the disaster] ▪ a mercy mission b : a specific military or naval task ▪ a reconnaissance mission ▪ a peacekeeping mission ▪ a combat/training mission c : a flight by an aircraft or spacecraft to perform a specific task ▪ a bombing mission ▪ a manned space mission ▪ a shuttle mission ▪ a mission to the moon — see also MISSION CONTROL
2 : a task that you consider to be a very important duty ▪ His mission is to help poor children. = He has made it his mission in life to help poor children. = He's a man with a mission: to help poor children. ▪ She's on a mission to locate her lost sister. [=she is very determined to find her lost sister]
3 : a group of people sent to a foreign country for a specific reason (such as to have discussions or to provide training or assistance) ▪ a member of a trade mission
4 a : a group of people who are sent to a foreign country to do religious work : a group of missionaries ▪ a Catholic mission b : a place or building where such work is done ▪ touring a Spanish mission in California ▪ a mission church

[1]mis•sion•ary /ˈmɪʃəˌneri, Brit ˈmɪʃənri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count] : a person who is sent to a foreign country to do religious work (such as to convince people to join a religion or to help people who are sick, poor, etc.) ▪ a Christian missionary

[2]missionary adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to missionaries ▪ missionary work ▪ a missionary school
2 : very enthusiastic and eager about doing a job or support-

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 60 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:04 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

ing a cause ▪ He spoke with missionary zeal about the project. [=he spoke with great enthusiasm about the project] mission control noun [noncount] : the group of people on the ground who direct or control the flight of a spacecraft ▪ The astronauts received a message from mission control.

mission statement noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : something that states the purpose or goal of a business or organization ▪ The company's mission statement emphasizes its ongoing commitment to meeting the needs of the community.

missis variant spelling of MISSUS

mis•sive /ˈmɪsɪv/ noun, pl -sives [count] formal + humorous : a letter or other written message ▪ a fund-raising missive ▪ She received yet another lengthy missive from her father.

mis•spell /ˌmɪsˈspɛl/ verb -spells; -spelled or chiefly Brit -spelt /-ˈspɛlt/; -spell•ing [+ obj] : to spell (a word or name) incorrectly ▪ The name of the town had been misspelled on the map.
– mis•spell•ing /ˌmɪsˈspɛlɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] ▪ The letter contains numerous misspellings.

mis•spend /ˌmɪsˈspɛnd/ verb -spends; -spent /-ˈspɛnt/; -spend•ing [+ obj] : to spend or use (something, such as time or money) in a way that is not legal, careful, or wise ▪ Several government officials have been accused of misspending public money.
– misspent adj ▪ misspent money ▪ a misspent summer ▪ He enjoys telling stories of his misspent youth. [=of the time when he was young and doing things that are not considered wise or proper] mis•state /ˌmɪsˈsteɪt/ verb -states; -stated; -stating [+ obj] : to state or report (something) incorrectly ▪ The company misstated its profits. ▪ An article in yesterday's paper misstated the name of the district attorney.

– mis•state•ment /ˌmɪsˈsteɪtmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count, noncount] ▪ correcting a misstatement

mis•step /ˌmɪsˈstɛp/ noun, pl -steps [count] chiefly US : an action or decision that is a mistake ▪ Their decision to relocate the company was a major misstep. ▪ make a strategic misstep [=blunder]

mis•sus also mis•sis /ˈmɪsəz/ noun, pl -sus•es also -sis•es [count]
1 informal + old-fashioned : WIFE — usually singular ▪ He had another argument with his missus. ▪ How's the missus? — compare MISTER 2 2 Brit, informal — used to address a woman whose name is not known ▪ Need a hand with your luggage, missus?

[1]mist /ˈmɪst/ noun, pl mists
1 : water in the form of very small drops floating in the air or falling as rain [noncount] We could barely see the shore through the mist. [count] The hills were veiled/shrouded in a fine mist.
2 [count] : a stream of liquid in the form of very small drops : a fine spray ▪ an aerosol mist
3 [count] : something that makes understanding difficult ▪ an issue clouded by mists of confusion lost in the mists of time ✧ Something lost in the mists of time is forgotten because it happened long ago. ▪ The origins of this ancient ritual are lost in the mists of time.

[2]mist verb mists; mist•ed; mist•ing
1 [no obj] a : to become covered with very small drops of water — usually + up ▪ My glasses misted [=fogged] up when I came in from the cold. b of a person's eyes : to fill with tears ▪ Her eyes misted. — usually + over or up ▪ Her eyes misted over as she thought of her old friends.
2 [+ obj] a : to cover (something) with mist ▪ a misted valley b : to spray (something) with very small drops of water ▪ The plant should be misted regularly.
3 [no obj] : to rain very lightly ▪ It was misting when we arrived. ▪ a misting rain

[1]mis•take /məˈsteɪk/ noun, pl -takes [count] : something that is not correct : a wrong action, statement, or judgment : ERROR ▪ It would be a mistake to assume that we can rely on their help. ▪ There must be some mistake. ▪ a stupid/careless mistake ▪ a costly/serious/bad mistake ▪ a deadly/fatal/tragic mistake ▪ The manuscript contains numerous spelling mistakes. ▪ There's a mistake in the schedule. ▪ "When does the movie start?" "At 8:00. No, wait—my mistake—it starts at 8:30." ▪ Don't worry about it. It was an honest mistake. [=something that anyone could be wrong about] — often used with make ▪ Everybody makes mistakes from time to time. ▪ I made the mistake of believing her. — see also MAKE NO MISTAKE (below) and no mistake chiefly Brit, old-fashioned — used to stress the truth or accuracy of a statement ▪ She's the one I saw, and no mistake. [=she is definitely the person I saw] by mistake : because of a mistake : without intending to ▪ I got on the wrong train by mistake. [=accidentally] make no mistake — used to stress the truth or accuracy of a statement ▪ Make no mistake (about it), if we don't address these problems now, they will only get worse.

[2]mis•take verb mis•takes; mis•took /məˈstʊk/; mis•tak•en /məˈsteɪkən/; mis•tak•ing [+ obj]
1 : to understand (something or someone) incorrectly ▪ They mistook my meaning.
2 : to make a wrong judgment about (something) ▪ The army's leaders mistook the strength of the enemy. [=they did not realize how strong the enemy was] ✧ If you say there is no mistaking something, it is very clear or obvious. ▪ She may be unconventional but there's no mistaking her ability to run the company. ▪ There was no mistaking his determination. [=his determination was obvious]
3 : to identify (someone or something) incorrectly — usually + for ▪ I mistook him for his brother. [=I thought that he was his brother] mistaken adj [more ~; most ~] : not correct : incorrect or wrong ▪ I may be mistaken, but I think we've met before. ▪ If you think the job is finished, you are sadly/badly/sorely mistaken. ▪ He ignored the law in the mistaken belief that he was immune from punishment. ▪ If I'm not mistaken, the bus leaves at 7:00. ▪ a mistaken assumption ▪ Her arrest was a case of mistaken identity. [=she was arrested because the police thought she was someone else] ▪ a mistaken impression/interpretation – mis•tak•en•ly adv ▪ He mistakenly believed that he was immune from punishment.

mis•ter /ˈmɪstə/ noun, pl -ters
1 Mister — used sometimes in writing instead of Mr.
2 [count] US, informal + old-fashioned : HUSBAND — usually singular ▪ She went off to the store while the/her mister [=her husband] stayed home. — compare MISSUS 1
3 informal — used in speech especially by children to address a man whose name is not known ▪ Hey mister, do you want to buy a paper?

mis•time /ˌmɪsˈtaɪm/ verb -times; -timed; -tim•ing [+ obj] : to do or say (something) at the wrong time : to time (something) incorrectly ▪ They mistimed their arrival. ▪ a mistimed remark ▪ The batter mistimed his swing.

mis•tle•toe /ˈmɪsəlˌtoʊ/ noun [noncount] : a plant with yellowish flowers and white berries that is traditionally used as a Christmas decoration ✧ Pieces of mistletoe are often hung from the ceiling or in a doorway at Christmastime. According to tradition, if you stand with someone under a piece of mistletoe, you are supposed to kiss that person.

mistook past tense of [2]MISTAKE

mis•treat /ˌmɪsˈtri:t/ verb -treats; -treat•ed; -treat•ing [+ obj] : to treat (someone or something) badly : ABUSE ▪ They accuse him of mistreating his wife. ▪ She claimed she had been mistreated by the police.
– mis•treat•ment /ˌmɪsˈtri:tmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ the mistreatment of prisoners

mis•tress /ˈmɪstrəs/ noun, pl -tress•es [count]
1 : a woman who has control or power over others: such as a : a woman who has a servant or slave ▪ Servants were required to do the mistress's bidding without question. b : a woman who owns a pet (such as a dog) ▪ The dog was always obedient to its master and mistress. c formal : the female head of a household ▪ the master and mistress of the house — compare MASTER
2 : a woman who has control of something ▪ She proved herself (to be) mistress of the situation.
3 : a woman who has a sexual relationship with a married man ▪ a married man who has/keeps a mistress ▪ His wife suspected that the woman she'd seen with him was his mistress.
4 a chiefly Brit, old-fashioned : a female teacher : SCHOOLMISTRESS — see also HEADMISTRESS b Mistress — used as a title for the female head of certain British colleges ▪ She was Mistress of Girton (College).
5 Mistress old-fashioned — used as a title before the name of a woman ▪ Mistress Jones

mistress of ceremonies noun, pl mistresses of ceremonies [count] : a woman who introduces guests, speakers, or performers at a formal event : a woman who is a master of ceremonies mis•tri•al /ˈmɪsˌtraɪəl/ noun, pl -als [count] law : a trial that is not valid because of an error or because the jury is unable to decide a verdict ▪ The judge declared a mistrial.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 61 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[1]mis•trust /ˌmɪsˈtrʌst/ noun : lack of trust or confidence : a feeling that someone is not honest and cannot be trusted [noncount] She was very open about her mistrust [=distrust] of politicians. [singular] She has a strong mistrust of politicians.

– mis•trust•ful /ˌmɪsˈtrʌstfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] — often + of ▪ She is mistrustful of politicians. – mis•trust•fully /ˌmɪsˈtrʌstfəli/ adv

[2]mistrust verb -trusts; -trust•ed; -trust•ing [+ obj] : to have no trust or confidence in (someone or something) : DISTRUST ▪ She mistrusts politicians. ▪ I was starting to mistrust my own judgment.

misty /ˈmɪsti/ adj mist•i•er; -est

1 : full of mist ▪ a misty valley ▪ misty weather

2 : not clearly seen or remembered ▪ misty [=vague, indistinct] memories of the past

3 informal : TEARFUL ▪ misty eyes ▪ I get (all) misty [=I get tears in my eyes; I feel sentimental] when I hear that song.

– mist•i•ly /ˈmɪstəli/ adv ▪ memories mistily remembered – mist•i•ness /ˈmɪstinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the mistiness of the weather

misty–eyed /ˈmɪstiˈaɪd/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having tears in your eyes ▪ He gets misty-eyed when he talks about that time.

2 : dreamy or sentimental ▪ misty-eyed recollections mis•un•der•stand /ˌmɪsˌʌndəˈstænd/ verb -stands; -stood /-ˈstʊd/; -stand•ing [+ obj] : to fail to understand (someone or something) correctly ▪ Don't misunderstand me—I'm not criticizing your decision. ▪ You misunderstood my question. ▪ He feels that the critics have completely misunderstood his movies. ▪ She expressed herself in clear terms that no one could misunderstand.

misunderstanding noun, pl -ings

1 : a failure to understand something [noncount] The instructions are carefully written in order to avoid/prevent misunderstanding. [count] Her comments reflect a misunderstanding of the basic problem. ▪ using clear language to avoid misunderstandings

2 [count] : a usually minor argument or disagreement ▪ an unfortunate misunderstanding between old friends ▪ We had our little misunderstandings in the past but we managed to clear them up long ago.

mis•un•der•stood /ˌmɪsˌʌndəˈstʊd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : thought of incorrectly : not understood ▪ a misunderstood genius ▪ This is a common and often misunderstood problem. ▪ He sees himself as a misunderstood victim of the media.

[1]mis•use /ˌmɪsˈjuːz/ verb -us•es; -used; -us•ing [+ obj]

1 : to use (something) incorrectly ▪ She's charged with misusing company funds. ▪ a word that is frequently misused

2 : to treat (someone) unfairly ▪ He feels he has been misused [=(more commonly) mistreated] by the press.

– mis•us•age /ˌmɪsˈjuːsɪʤ/ noun [noncount] ▪ misusage [=(more commonly) misuse] of company funds

[2]mis•use /ˌmɪsˈjuːs/ noun, pl -us•es : the act of using something in an illegal, improper, or unfair way : incorrect use [noncount] No refunds will be offered on products damaged by/through misuse. — usually + of ▪ the misuse of words ▪ She's charged with misuse of company funds. [count] — usually + of ▪ a common misuse of a word ▪ misuses of power

mite /ˈmaɪt/ noun, pl mites [count]

1 : a very small creature that often lives on plants, animals, and foods — see also DUST MITE

2 : a small person (such as a child) or thing ▪ his mite of a daughter ▪ a tiny mite of a woman ▪ This little vacuum cleaner is a mighty mite. [=something that is small but very strong or powerful]

3 old-fashioned : a very small amount ▪ There could be a mite [=(more commonly) bit] of trouble.

a mite : to a small degree : somewhat or slightly ▪ The box could stand to be a mite bigger. ▪ The movie's plot is a mite [=a bit, a little] confusing. ▪ This is a mite embarrassing.

[1]mi•ter (US) or Brit mi•tre /ˈmaɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count]

1 : a high pointed hat worn by a bishop or abbot in church ceremonies

2 : MITER JOINT

[2]miter (US) or Brit mitre verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj] technical : to match or fit (boards) together in a miter joint ▪ The corners of the frame were carefully mitered.

miter joint (US) or Brit mitre joint noun, pl ~ joints [count] : a joint or corner made by cutting the edges of two boards at an angle and fitting them together

mit•i•gate /ˈmɪtəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something) less severe, harmful, or painful ▪ Emergency funds are being provided to help mitigate the effects of the disaster. ▪ mitigate a punishment ▪ medicines used to mitigate a patient's suffering — see also UNMITIGATED

– mit•i•ga•tion /ˌmɪtəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the mitigation of suffering/punishment

mitigating adj — used to describe something (such as an unusual situation) that makes something (such as a crime or a mistake) seem less serious or deserving of blame; usually used in the phrase mitigating circumstances/factors ▪ His sentence was reduced because of mitigating circumstances. [=extenuating circumstances]

mitt /ˈmɪt/ noun, pl mitts [count]

1 : MITTEN ▪ children bundled up in hats and mitts — see also OVEN MITT

2 baseball a : a special type of heavy glove worn by the catcher ▪ a catcher's mitt b : a special type of glove worn by the first baseman ▪ a first baseman's mitt

3 informal : HAND ▪ He can hold anything in those big mitts of his.

mit•ten /ˈmɪtn̩/ noun, pl -tens [count] : a covering for the hand that has a separate part for the thumb only — compare GLOVE

– mit•tened /ˈmɪtn̩d/ adj ▪ a mittened hand [=a hand wearing a mitten]

[1]mix /ˈmɪks/ verb mix•es; mixed; mix•ing

1 a : to combine (two or more things) to make one thing that is the same throughout : to combine (two or more substances) to make a different substance [+ obj] Mix [=blend] flour and water (together) to make a paste. ▪ To make frosting for the cake, mix powdered sugar with a little milk and vanilla. ▪ You can make purple by mixing the colors red and blue. [no obj] Add the ingredients and mix [=blend] well. b [+ obj] : to add (something) to something else ▪ Mix some water with the flour to make a paste. — often + in or into ▪ I mixed in [=added] a little more sugar. ▪ Slowly mix [=stir] in the rice. ▪ Mix water into the flour to make a paste.

2 [no obj] : to be combined and become one thing that is the same throughout ▪ Oil will not mix with water. = Oil and water don't mix. ▪ Flour can mix [=blend, combine] with water to make a paste.

3 [+ obj] : to make or prepare (something, such as an alcoholic drink) by combining different things ▪ Please mix a drink for me. = Please mix me a drink.

4 [+ obj] : to make (a recording of music) by electronically putting sounds together from more than one source ▪ She mixed her own CD of dance music.

5 [+ obj] : to bring (different things) together ▪ His novel mixes humor with drama. ▪ Playing golf with clients is one way to mix business with pleasure. [=to do something enjoyable that is related to your work]

6 [no obj] : to talk in a friendly way with different people and especially with strangers ▪ She mixes well in social situations. ▪ Our families don't mix [=don't get along] with each other.

7 [no obj] : to be able to be combined or put together in a way that has good results — used in negative statements ▪ Drinking (alcohol) and driving don't mix. [=you should not drive after you have been drinking alcohol] ▪ They claim that art and politics do not mix.

mix and match : to put different things (such as pieces of clothing) together in different ways ▪ She's able to mix and match her sweaters with different skirts to create new outfits. ▪ She buys clothing that she can mix and match.

mix it up (US) or Brit mix it informal : to fight or argue ▪ The two boxers started mixing it up. ▪ He loves to mix it up with his younger brothers.

mix up [phrasal verb] informal 1 mix (someone or something) up or mix up (someone or something) : to mistakenly think that (someone or something) is someone or something else ▪ Those two women look so much alike—I always mix them up. [=I never know who is who] ▪ He got the days mixed up [=confused] and thought the meeting was today. ▪ I always mix up the times when my classes start. 2 mix (something) up or mix up (something) : to mistakenly put (something) in a place where something else should be ▪ I accidentally mixed up the two files. [=I put each of the files in the place where the other one should have gone] — often + with ▪ Did my homework get mixed up with your papers? 3 mix (someone) up or mix up (someone) a : to cause (someone) to be involved in a usually dangerous or improper activity or situation — usually used as (be/get) mixed up in ▪ He got mixed up in a plan to destroy the government. [=he became involved in a plan to destroy the government] b : to cause (someone) to become involved with a particular group of people and especially with people who cause trouble — usually used as (be/get) mixed up with ▪ She was mixed up with the wrong crowd. ▪ teenage boys getting mixed up with gangs — see also MIXED-UP, MIX-UP

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 62 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

[2]mix noun, pl mixes
1 : a dry mixture of ingredients that is sold in one package and used for making something (such as a type of food) [count] a cake mix ▪ a new brand of soup mixes [noncount] We bought two boxes of muffin mix. ▪ a bag of cement mix [=material that forms cement when you add water to it]
2 [singular] : a combination of different kinds of things : MIXTURE ▪ a snack mix containing pretzels, nuts, and raisins — often + of ▪ We worked on finding the right mix of food, music, and decorations for the wedding. ▪ They talked to each other in a mix of English and Spanish. ▪ an attractive mix of red, orange, and yellow flowers

mixed /ˈmɪkst/ adj
1 always used before a noun : made of different kinds of things mixed together or combined ▪ a can of mixed nuts ▪ bags of mixed candy ▪ We ate salads of mixed greens.
2 a : including or involving people of different races or religions ▪ They live in a mixed neighborhood. ▪ She's of mixed African and European ancestry. ▪ children of mixed race/races ▪ people of mixed racial origin/ancestry ▪ a racially mixed couple b : including or involving people of both sexes ▪ She went to a mixed school. [=a school for both boys and girls] ▪ a mixed chorus ▪ playing mixed doubles in tennis [=a game of doubles in which each team has a man and a woman] ✧ When people are in mixed company, they are with both men and women. ▪ The women never spoke of sex or pregnancy in mixed company. [=when men were present]
3 : both good and bad, favorable and unfavorable, etc. ▪ The play received mixed reviews. = The play's reviews were mixed. [=some critics liked the play, while other critics did not] ▪ His decision got a mixed reaction from the family. ▪ The experiment got mixed results. ✧ When people have mixed emotions or mixed feelings about something, they have both good and bad thoughts or feelings about it. ▪ He had mixed emotions [=he was both happy and sad] about the end of his trip. ▪ I'm having mixed feelings about this class.
mixed messages/signals ✧ Someone gives mixed messages or mixed signals by showing a thought or feeling and then showing another very different thought or feeling. ▪ I don't know if he likes me; he keeps giving me mixed messages. ▪ She's sending mixed signals about her feelings.

mixed bag noun [singular]
1 : a collection of different kinds of things — often + of ▪ The movie has a mixed bag of characters. ▪ We're working with a mixed bag of old and new ideas.
2 : something that has both good and bad qualities or parts ▪ His performance was a mixed bag.

mixed blessing noun, pl ~ -ings [count] : something that is good in some ways and bad in other ways ▪ He says that computers are a mixed blessing because sometimes they help and sometimes they create problems. ▪ Living next to your in-laws can be a mixed blessing.

mixed drink noun, pl ~ drinks [count] : an alcoholic drink made with two or more ingredients ▪ a mixed drink of rum and soda mixed economy noun, pl ~ -mies [count] : an economy in which some companies are owned by the government and other companies are not mixed marriage noun, pl ~ -riages : marriage between two people of different races or religions [count] children of mixed marriages [noncount] a culture in which mixed marriage is rare mixed metaphor noun, pl ~ -phors [count] : a metaphor that combines different images or ideas in a way that is foolish or illogical ▪ "If we want to get ahead we'll have to iron out the remaining bottlenecks" is an example of a mixed metaphor.

mixed–up /ˈmɪkstˈʌp/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal
1 : confused and usually emotionally troubled : not capable of making good decisions about life ▪ They're just a bunch of crazy, mixed-up kids.
2 : confusing, difficult to understand, and filled with problems ▪ This is a crazy, mixed-up world we live in. ▪ He has mixed-up ideas about our past. — often written as two separate words when used following a verb ▪ She's a nice person, but her life is really mixed up. — see also mix up at [1]MIX

mix•er /ˈmɪksɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a machine used for mixing things ▪ a handheld mixer ▪ Using an electric mixer, blend the cake batter on medium (speed) for two minutes. ▪ a cement mixer [=a large machine that keeps cement wet and soft by turning until the cement is used] — see picture at KITCHEN
2 : a drink (such as soda) that does not contain alcohol and that is used in an alcoholic mixed drink ▪ Orange juice is her favorite mixer.
3 : someone who controls the recording of sounds (such as the words and music) that go with a movie or television show ▪ the sound mixer
4 ✧ A good mixer is someone who is comfortable in social situations and can talk easily with other people. A poor mixer is uncomfortable or awkward in social situations. ▪ For a politician, she was not a very good mixer. ▪ He was shy and a poor mixer.
5 chiefly US : a social gathering to help people in a group meet each other in a friendly and informal way ▪ an informal mixer mixing bowl noun, pl ~ bowls [count] : a large bowl used in cooking for mixing ingredients — see picture at KITCHEN

mix•ture /ˈmɪkstʃɚ/ noun, pl -tures
1 [count] : something made by combining two or more ingredients ▪ Stir the sugar and butter until the mixture is light and fluffy. ▪ Now add eggs to the mixture. ▪ Pour the cake mixture into a well-greased pan and bake. — often + of ▪ The chicken was marinated in a mixture of oil and spices. ▪ The horses were fed a mixture of grass and oats.
2 [count] : a combination of different things — + of ▪ The dog's coat is a mixture of yellow, brown, and black fur. ▪ We were feeling a mixture of fear and excitement. ▪ They talked to each other in a mixture of English and Spanish.
3 [noncount] : the act of mixing two or more things together — + of ▪ a society formed by the gradual mixture of different cultures mix–up /ˈmɪksˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : a mistake caused by confusion about something ▪ Because of a mix-up [=mistake, error] at the hotel, we were overcharged for our stay. ▪ The mix-ups nearly cost him his job. ▪ I thought you were someone else. Sorry for the mix-up. [=misunderstanding, confusion] — see also mix up at [1]MIX

ml abbr milliliter mm abbr millimeter MN abbr Minnesota

mne•mon•ic /nɪˈmɑːnɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count] : something (such as a word, a sentence, or a song) that helps people remember something (such as a rule or a list of names) ▪ HOMES is used as a mnemonic for the names of the Great Lakes: *H*uron, *O*ntario, *M*ichigan, *E*rie, and *S*uperior.
– mnemonic adj ▪ a mnemonic device

mo /ˈmoʊ/ noun [singular] chiefly Brit, informal : a short time ▪ Hang on a mo [=moment]: who did you say you'd seen?

Mo. abbr Monday

[1]MO /ˈɛmˈoʊ/ noun, pl MOs [count] : a usual way of performing a crime : MODUS OPERANDI ▪ two thieves with very different MOs

[2]MO abbr Missouri

[1]moan /ˈmoʊn/ verb moans; moaned; moan•ing
1 [no obj] : to make a long, low sound because of pain, unhappiness, or physical pleasure ▪ The wounded soldier moaned in/with pain. ▪ The crowd moaned [=groaned] as the other team scored another goal. ▪ He moaned with pleasure as she rubbed his back.
2 a [no obj] : to express unhappiness about something : COMPLAIN ▪ We were all moaning about the cold, rainy weather. ▪ He's always moaning about his salary. ▪ The children were moaning and groaning all morning, but their mother would not let them go outside. ▪ I'm tired of all his moaning and groaning about his salary. b [+ obj] : to say (something) in a way that shows pain or unhappiness ▪ "But I don't want to go," moaned the boy. ▪ "Oh, my stomach hurts," she moaned. = She moaned that her stomach hurt.
3 [no obj] : to make a long, low sound ▪ The wind moaned in the trees.
– moan•er /ˈmoʊnɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He dismisses his critics as a bunch of moaners. [=people who are always unhappy or complaining about something]

[2]moan noun, pl moans [count]
1 : a long, low sound that someone makes because of pain,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 63 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:05 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

unhappiness, or physical pleasure ▪ She let out a long, deep moan. ▪ a moan of despair/pleasure ▪ a low/feeble/weak moan

2 : a long, low sound ▪ the moan of the wind ▪ the moan of the car's engine

3 Brit, informal : a complaint about something ▪ He's always having a moan [=complaining] about his job.

moat /ˈmoʊt/ noun, pl moats [count] : a deep, wide ditch that is usually filled with water and that goes around the walls of a place (such as a castle) to protect it from being attacked

[1]mob /ˈmɑːb/ noun, pl mobs

1 [count] : a large group or crowd of people who are angry or violent or difficult to control ▪ The angry mob smashed store windows and attacked people on the streets. ▪ The police had to be called in to handle/disperse the growing/gathering mob. ▪ violent mobs — see also LYNCH MOB, MOB SCENE

2 [count] informal : a large number of people — usually + of ▪ On our walk, we were passed by a mob of bicycle riders. — often plural ▪ Mobs of teenagers filled the room. ▪ The team was greeted by mobs of excited fans.

3 the mob or the Mob informal : a secret organized group of criminals ▪ The Mob [=the Mafia] controlled most businesses in the city. ▪ He was jailed for his dealings with the Mob. — often used as mob before another noun ▪ Their family had mob [=Mafia] connections. ▪ a mob boss [=someone who controls part of an organized criminal group] — see also MOBSTER

4 the mob old-fashioned : the people of a society who are poor and uneducated ▪ politicians trying to keep the mob happy ✧ This use of the mob is now usually considered insulting.

[2]mob verb mobs; mobbed; mob•bing [+ obj]

1 of a group of people : to move close to (someone) in an excited way : to crowd around (someone) in an aggressive, excited, or annoying way ▪ The actor's fans mobbed him wherever he went. — often used as (be) mobbed ▪ The actor was mobbed by fans wherever he went. ▪ I walked into the room and was immediately mobbed by small children.

2 : to come together in (a place) with many other people ▪ Shoppers mobbed the stores during the holidays. — often used as (be) mobbed ▪ The stores were mobbed by/with customers.

– mobbed adj ▪ The stores were mobbed [=very crowded] today! ▪ mobbed airports

[1]mo•bile /ˈmoʊbəl, ˈmoʊˌbajəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 a : able to move from one place to another ▪ the age at which most babies become mobile [=able to crawl or walk] ▪ The doctors say she will be mobile [=able to walk] again when her broken leg heals. b : able to move with the use of vehicles (such as trucks and airplanes) ▪ Their armies are now fully mobile. ▪ mobile fighting forces ▪ mobile troops

2 : able to be moved ▪ Computers have become more mobile [=portable] in recent years. ▪ mobile hospital equipment ▪ The news station has two mobile television units [=trucks or vans with television equipment] for reporting news directly from where events happen. ▪ a mobile kitchen that helps bring food to homeless people ▪ mobile health clinics ▪ a mobile crime laboratory

3 : able to move from one level of a society to another ▪ socially mobile workers — see also UPWARDLY MOBILE

[2]mo•bile /ˈmoʊˌbiːl, Brit ˈməʊbaɪl/ noun, pl -biles [count]

1 : a work of art or a decoration that is hung from above and that has attached shapes or figures that move easily in the air ▪ They hung a mobile over the baby's bed.

2 Brit, informal : CELL PHONE ▪ Even if I'm out of the office you can reach me on my mobile.

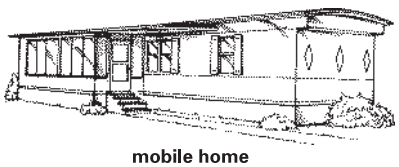
mobile home noun, pl ~ homes [count] : a house that is built in a factory and then moved to the place where people will live in it — compare MOTOR HOME



mobile home

mobile library noun, pl ~ -braries [count] Brit : BOOKMOBILE

mobile phone noun, pl ~ phones [count] : CELL PHONE mo•bil•i•ty /moʊˈbɪlәti/ noun [noncount]

1 : the ability or tendency to move from one position or situation to another usually better one ▪ Social mobility is often affected by a person's birth, income, and education. ▪ The degree of economic mobility is different in different societies. ▪ the career mobility of women ▪ the geographic mobility of a country's workers [=the tendency of workers to move from one place to another]

2 : ability to move quickly and easily ▪ The army has improved its weapons and increased its mobility since the last war. ▪ He was a great football player known for his mobility on the field. ▪ She lost mobility in her left hand. ▪ elderly people with limited mobility

mo•bi•lize also Brit mo•bi•lise /ˈmoʊbəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to bring (people) together for action ▪ The President mobilized [=rallied] his supporters. ▪ They couldn't mobilize enough support to pass the new law. b [no obj] : to come together for action ▪ Several groups have mobilized to oppose the proposed new law. ▪ They have the ability to mobilize quickly.

2 [+ obj] : to make (soldiers, an army, etc.) ready for war ▪ The government had to mobilize the army quickly. ▪ More than 10,000 troops were mobilized for war. ▪ mobilizing the nation's resources

– mo•bi•li•za•tion also Brit mo•bi•li•sa•tion /ˌmoʊbələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌməʊbəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount] ▪ The army carried out a full-scale mobilization.

mob scene noun, pl ~ scenes [count] US : a place or situation where a crowd of people behave in a violent or uncontrolled way ▪ The peaceful protest quickly turned into a mob scene as protesters began fighting the police.; also : a very crowded place or situation ▪ The store became a real mob scene.

mob•ster /ˈmɑːbstə/ noun, pl -sters [count] : someone who is part of a secret organized group of criminals : a member of the Mob ▪ a reputed mobster

moc•ca•sin /ˈmɑːkəsən/ noun, pl -sins [count] : a flat shoe that is made of soft leather and is similar to a shoe originally worn by some Native Americans — see picture at SHOE; see also WATER MOCCASIN mo•cha /ˈmoʊkə, Brit ˈmɒkə/ noun, pl -chas [count, noncount] : a drink that is a mixture of coffee and chocolate ▪ a cup of mocha

[1]mock /ˈmɑːk/ verb mocks; mocked; mock•ing [+ obj]

1 : to laugh at or make fun of (someone or something) especially by copying an action or a way of behaving or speaking ▪ The boys mocked him for showing fear. ▪ They mocked his cries for help. [=they imitated his cries for help in an exaggerated way that was meant to ridicule him] ▪ Other children would mock her accent. [=would make fun of the way she spoke by copying it in an exaggerated way]

2 : to criticize and laugh at (someone or something) for being bad, worthless, or unimportant ▪ He mocks art only because he doesn't understand it. ▪ They continue to mock the idea of a new government. ▪ We are being mocked for our religious beliefs. ▪ You can mock me as much as you like, but I'm going to do it anyway.

– mock•er /ˈmɑːkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ mockers of poetry – mocking adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ mocking words ▪ a mocking crowd – mock•ing•ly /ˈmɑːkɪŋli/ adv ▪ They laughed at him mockingly.

[2]mock adj, always used before a noun

1 : not based on real or honest feelings ▪ "I'd love to go," he said with a mock [=feigned, fake] smile. ▪ We stared at him in mock surprise. ▪ mock anger

2 : done or performed to look like the real thing ▪ Two boys started a mock [=simulated] fight in the hallway. ▪ Every summer, our history club performs mock battles to relive our country's greatest war. ▪ a mock trial [=a fake legal trial used for education and practice] ▪ a mock election

[3]mock noun, pl mocks [count] Brit : an exam that does not count and that is done to practice for a real exam : a mock exam — usually plural ▪ He did so well on the mocks that I'm sure he'll pass the real ones.

mock•ery /ˈmɑːkəri/ noun

1 [noncount] : behavior or speech that makes fun of someone or something in a hurtful way : mocking behavior or speech ▪ The bright orange house was an object of mockery on our street. [=people mocked the house; people laughed at

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 64 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

it and criticized it] ▪ His kind of personality invites mockery. ▪ the children's cruel mockery of each other

2 [singular] : a bad or useless copy of something ▪ The judge's decisions are a mockery of real justice. [=the judge's decisions are very unjust] ✧ If you make a mockery of something, you make it seem ridiculous or useless. ▪ The judge's decisions have made a mockery of the legal system. ▪ He's made a mockery of our marriage.

mock•ing•bird /ˈmɑːkɪŋˌbɚd/ noun, pl -birds [count] : a North American bird that sings loudly and copies the songs of other birds — see color picture on page C9

mock turtleneck noun, pl ~ -necks [count] US : a knit shirt or sweater with a high collar that goes all the way around your neck and that is not folded down — called also (chiefly Brit) turtleneck

mock–up /ˈmɑːkˌʌp/ noun, pl -ups [count] : a full-sized model of something (such as a boat or a car) that is used for studying, testing, or showing its features

mod•al /ˈmoʊdl̩/ noun, pl -als [count] grammar : MODAL VERB

modal verb noun, pl ~ verbs [count] grammar : a verb (such as can, could, shall, should, ought to, will, or would) that is usually used with another verb to express ideas such as possibility, necessity, and permission — called also modal, modal auxiliary, modal auxiliary verb

mod cons /ˌmɑːdˈkɑːnz/ noun [plural] Brit, informal : the equipment and features that are found in a modern home and that make life easier and more comfortable ▪ Well, I see your new house has got all the mod cons you'd expect: a washing machine, a dishwasher, central heating . . . ✧ Mod cons is taken from the phrase "modern conveniences."

mode /ˈmoʊd/ noun, pl modes [count]

1 formal a : a particular form or type of something (such as transportation or behavior) ▪ We're changing the factory's mode [=method] of operation in order to save money. ▪ Technology has created new modes of communication. ▪ different modes of thought ▪ buses, trains, airplanes, and other modes of transportation b : a particular way of doing something ▪ We're using a new mode [=method] of teaching. ▪ a different mode [=way] of living ▪ new modes of thinking

2 : the state in which a machine does a particular function ▪ The VCR has two different recording modes. ▪ When taking pictures indoors, put the camera in flash mode.

3 informal : a specified way of thinking, feeling, or acting ▪ Let's get into work mode. [=let's get ready to work] ▪ When I'm in my creative mode [=when I'm feeling creative], I can write for hours. ▪ Reading helps me get into my relaxation mode. ▪ He goes into attack mode [=he becomes very hostile and aggressive] whenever his decisions are questioned.

– see also À LA MODE

[1]mod•el /ˈmɑːdl̩/ noun, pl -els [count]

1 : a usually small copy of something ▪ She's building a model of the Earth for science class. ▪ models of famous buildings ▪ a plastic model of the human heart ▪ a scale model [=a small but exact copy] of a ship

2 : a particular type or version of a product (such as a car or computer) ▪ We've improved on last year's model, making the car safer and easier to control. ▪ He bought one of the old 1965 models. ▪ We couldn't afford one of the fancy TVs and had to buy the standard model.

3 : a set of ideas and numbers that describe the past, present, or future state of something (such as an economy or a business) ▪ a mathematical model ▪ We've developed a computer model of the economy to predict what will happen in the future. ▪ Companies are developing new business models.

4 a : something or someone that is a very good example of something ▪ The city is now a model of safety and cleanliness. [=the city is now very safe and clean] ▪ He is a model of politeness. [=he is very polite] ▪ The country was the model of a peaceful nation for over 50 years. b : something or someone that deserves to be copied by others ▪ The country's economy is a model for the rest of the world. ▪ Her work has become a model to/for other writers. ▪ These soldiers serve as models for their country. — see also ROLE MODEL

5 : someone who is paid to wear clothing, jewelry, etc., in photographs, fashion shows, etc., so that people will see and want to buy what is being worn ▪ a fashion model ▪ male models ▪ She's a model turned actress. [=a model who later became an actress] — see also SUPERMODEL

6 : someone whose image is painted, photographed, etc., by an artist ▪ The same model sat/posed for several of his paintings. ▪ drawings of nude models ▪ an artist's model

[2]model adj, always used before a noun

1 : deserving to be copied by others : very good or excellent ▪ They're all model students. ▪ He's a model husband. ▪ Our university has a model program for training its athletes.

2 — used to describe something that is a small copy of something larger ▪ a model airplane ▪ He'll play with his model trains for hours.

[3]model verb -els; US -eled or Brit -elled; US -el•ing or Brit -el•ling

1 [+ obj] : to design (something) so that it is similar to something else — + on or (chiefly US) after ▪ They modeled their educational system on the U.S. system. [=they used the U.S. system as a model when they created their educational system] ▪ His best dish is closely modeled on his mother's recipe. [=is based on and very similar to his mother's recipe] ▪ The church was modeled after an earlier French design.

2 [+ obj] a : to make a small copy of (something) : to create a model of (something) ▪ The faces of the gods were modeled in white stone. b : to make something by forming or shaping clay or some other material ▪ modeling [=molding] figures in/from clay = modeling clay into figures

3 : to wear clothing, jewelry, etc., in photographs, fashion shows, etc., so that people will see and want to buy what you are wearing [+ obj] They're modeling this year's new spring fashions. ▪ She got a job modeling shoes for a catalog company. ▪ a fashion model who has angered animal lovers by modeling fur coats [no obj] She models [=she works as a fashion model] for the world's most successful modeling agency.

4 [no obj] : to be a model for an artist : to be painted or photographed by an artist ▪ She agreed to model for him and appeared in many of his most famous works.

model yourself on or chiefly US model yourself after : to try to be like and to behave like (someone you admire) ▪ She models herself on the leaders that came before her. ▪ Children often model themselves after their parents.

– mod•el•er (US) or Brit mod•el•ler /ˈmɑːdlɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a ship modeler [=someone who makes small copies of ships]

mod•el•ing (US) or Brit mod•el•ling /ˈmɑːdl̩ɪŋ/ noun [noncount]

1 : the work of a fashion model : the job of displaying things for sale usually by wearing them and being photographed ▪ She hoped modeling would help start her acting career. — often used before another noun ▪ a modeling agency ▪ his modeling career

2 : the act or activity of making small copies of things (such as planes, trains, etc.) : the hobby of making models ▪ ship modeling

3 : a process in which computers use a set of ideas and numbers to describe the past, present, or future state of something (such as an economy or a business) ▪ Computer modeling helps scientists understand the Earth's weather systems. ▪ economic modeling

mo•dem /ˈmoʊdəm/ noun, pl -dems [count] : a device that changes the form of electric signals so that information can be sent through telephone lines from one computer to another computer ▪ a high-speed modem

[1]mod•er•ate /ˈmɑːdərət/ adj

1 a : average in size or amount : neither too much nor too little ▪ Her doctor recommended moderate exercise. ▪ There were moderate levels of chemicals in the lake. ▪ drinking moderate amounts of coffee ▪ Most of these medicines relieve mild to moderate pain. ▪ a family of moderate income ▪ a book of moderate length ▪ a moderate distance b : neither very good nor very bad ▪ The group met with only moderate success. ▪ a writer of moderate talent

2 [more ~; most ~] : not expensive : not too high in price ▪ The hotel offers comfortable rooms at moderate prices.

3 [more ~; most ~] : having or expressing political beliefs that are neither very liberal nor very conservative ▪ Both moderate Democrats and moderate Republicans can agree on this new law. ▪ She holds a moderate position on the subject of taxes. ▪ The group is in need of more moderate voices. [=the group needs more members who do not express extreme ideas]

4 [more ~; most ~] a : avoiding behavior that goes beyond what is normal, healthy, or acceptable ▪ a moderate eater [=a person who does not eat too much] ▪ a moderate diet ▪ He believes that moderate drinking is healthy. ▪ a person of moderate habits b : not showing strong emotions or excitement ▪ She expressed herself in moderate [=calm, reasonable] language.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 65 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:06 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

[2]mod•er•ate /ˈmɑːdərət/ noun, pl -ates [count] : a person whose political ideas are not extreme : a person who has moderate opinions or is a member of a moderate political group ▪ Moderates from both political parties have agreed on an economic plan.

[3]mod•er•ate /ˈmɑːdəˌreɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 : to make (something) less harsh, strong, or severe or to become less harsh, strong, or severe [+ obj] The protesters have been unwilling to moderate their demands. [no obj] The wind moderated [=lessened] after the storm.
2 : to guide a discussion or direct a meeting that involves a group of people [no obj] She moderates at our office meetings. [+ obj] She moderates our discussions so that we don't argue or talk at the same time. ▪ moderate a debate

mod•er•ate•ly /ˈmɑːdərətli/ adv
1 : not completely or extremely : to a moderate degree or extent ▪ a moderately [=fairly, rather, somewhat] sweet wine ▪ a moderately hot day ▪ The medicine is only moderately effective against coughs. ▪ Cook the chicken over moderately high heat for three minutes.
2 [more ~; most ~] : in a way that is not too expensive : in a moderate way ▪ We tried to find a more moderately priced hotel. ▪ moderately priced wines

mod•er•a•tion /ˌmɑːdəˈreɪʃən/ noun
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being reasonable and avoiding behavior, speech, etc., that is extreme or that goes beyond what is normal or acceptable ▪ She expressed her opinions with moderation. = She showed moderation in the expression of her opinions. [=she expressed her opinions moderately] ▪ The organization is encouraging moderation among the world's leaders. ▪ a diet of moderation [=a moderate diet] ▪ He has been a voice of moderation. [=a person saying things that are reasonable and moderate]
2 : a decrease in something that is strong or severe — often + in [singular] The weather has been extremely hot, but the forecast calls for a slight moderation in temperatures over the next several days. [=temperatures will become slightly cooler] [noncount] We should be seeing some moderation in the growth of the economy.
in moderation : in a way that is reasonable and not excessive : in a moderate way ▪ She believes in doing things in moderation. ▪ Some people say that drinking alcohol in moderation can be good for you.

mod•er•a•tor /ˈmɑːdəˌreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] : someone who leads a discussion in a group and tells each person when to speak : someone who moderates a meeting or discussion ▪ The moderator allowed audience members to ask the governor questions. ▪ She acts as the moderator in our office meetings.

[1]mod•ern /ˈmɑːdən/ adj
1 always used before a noun a : of or relating to the present time or the recent past : happening, existing, or developing at a time near the present time ▪ ancient and modern history ▪ He talked about the role of television in modern [=contemporary] politics. ▪ The country's modern [=present] government was formed over 100 years ago. ▪ The earthquake was one of the worst disasters in modern [=recent] times. ▪ Water pollution is a growing problem in the modern world. ▪ the modern American family [=the typical American family living today] ▪ He's known as the father of modern medicine. b or Modern : of or relating to the current or most recent period of a language ▪ The English that was spoken by William Shakespeare is very different from the modern English spoken today. ▪ She is learning Modern Greek.
2 [more ~; most ~] : based on or using the newest information, methods, or technology ▪ We'll need to have modern [=up-to-date] plumbing and wiring installed in the old house before we can move in. ▪ They live in one of the most modern cities in the world. ▪ modern methods of communication including e-mail and the Internet
3 [more ~; most ~] : of or relating to a style or way of thinking that is new and different ▪ She cut her long hair for a modern look. ▪ He made his old-fashioned apartment look more modern by changing the color of the walls and buying new furniture. ▪ Their latest movie is a modern version of a classic children's story. ▪ She has modern ideas about dating and marriage. — opposite OLD-FASHIONED
4 : of or relating to forms of art (such as dance, music, and architecture) in which the styles used are newer and very different from the older and more traditional styles ▪ She loves both ballet and modern dance. ▪ a combination of classical and modern architecture ▪ a museum of modern art

– mod•ern•ness /ˈmɑːdənnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the modernness of an artist's style

[2]modern noun, pl -erns [count] : a modern person: such as a : a person who has modern ideas, tastes, or attitudes — usually plural ▪ furniture designed for young moderns b : a modern artist or writer — usually plural ▪ comparing the art of the ancients and the moderns

mod•ern–day /ˈmɑːdənˈdeɪ/ adj, always used before a noun : existing today ▪ problems facing most modern-day families ▪ modern-day China — often used to indicate that someone or something of the present is similar to someone or something of the past ▪ The two lovers are a modern-day [=latter-day] Romeo and Juliet. ▪ He's been called a modern-day saint. ▪ the modern-day equivalent of slavery

mod•ern•ism /ˈmɑːdəˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a style of art, architecture, literature, etc., that uses ideas and methods which are very different from those used in the past — compare POSTMODERNISM
– mod•ern•ist /ˈmɑːdənɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] ▪ a leading modernist – modernist adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a modernist painter – mod•ern•is•tic /ˌmɑːdəˈnɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a somewhat modernistic style mo•der•ni•ty /məˈdənəti/ noun [noncount] formal : the quality of being modern ▪ the modernity of an artist's style : a modern way of living or thinking ▪ a traditional town that has resisted modernity

mod•ern•ize also Brit mod•ern•ise /ˈmɑːdəˌnaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) modern and more suited to present styles or needs ▪ We're modernizing our kitchen with a new oven, refrigerator, and dishwasher. ▪ The country recently announced plans to begin modernizing its army. ▪ The school needs a building with modernized classrooms.
2 [no obj] : to become modern : to begin using the newest information, methods, or technology ▪ Older companies will need to modernize quickly if they are to survive in today's economy.
– mod•ern•i•za•tion also Brit mod•ern•i•sa•tion /ˌmɑːdənəˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌmɒdəˌnaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ a company in need of modernization

mod•est /ˈmɑːdəst/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : not very large in size or amount ▪ Despite its modest [=somewhat small] size, the city has many things to offer tourists. ▪ They own a modest home near the beach. ▪ She enjoyed modest success with her singing career. ▪ He earns a modest income. ▪ We live on a modest budget. ▪ New cars are now available at relatively modest prices. ▪ He has only a modest amount of knowledge on the subject. ▪ It is a book of only modest importance.
2 approving : not too proud or confident about yourself or your abilities : not showing or feeling great or excessive pride ▪ She's very modest about her achievements. ▪ Don't be so modest. Your performance was wonderful! ▪ "I'm not a hero. I was just doing my job," he said in his characteristically modest way. ▪ He is unusually modest for a man who is so famous and successful. — opposite IMMODEST
3 a of clothing : not showing too much of a person's body ▪ She preferred wearing more modest swimsuits. ▪ In some countries, women must wear very modest clothing in public. b : shy about showing your body especially in a sexual way : preferring to wear modest clothing ▪ a modest young woman — opposite IMMODEST
– mod•est•ly adv ▪ Our business has been modestly successful. ▪ a modestly priced car ▪ a modestly dressed young woman ▪ She modestly refused to accept credit for the team's success.

mod•es•ty /ˈmɑːdəsti/ noun [noncount] : the quality of being modest: such as a : the quality of not being too proud or confident about yourself or your abilities ▪ She accepted the award with modesty. ▪ He is known for his modesty, an uncommon characteristic for a politician. ▪ There was no false modesty in her victory speech. ✧ The phrases in all modesty and (US) with all modesty are used to stress that a statement you are making about yourself is true even if it sounds like something said because of pride. ▪ In all modesty, I don't know anyone who could beat me at tennis. ▪ I'll admit with all modesty that I have had a very successful career. b : the quality of behaving and especially dressing in ways that do not attract sexual attention ▪ the young woman's modesty ▪ the modesty of her clothing mo•di•cum /ˈmɑːdɪkəm/ noun [singular] formal : a small amount — + of ▪ The group had a modicum of success in the early 1990s. ▪ Anyone with even a modicum of intelligence would understand. ▪ He told a story that didn't have a modicum of truth to it.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 66 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

mod•i•fi•ca•tion /ˌmɑːdəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] : the act or process of changing parts of something : the act or process of modifying something ▪ The program can be used on all computers without modification. — often + of ▪ The bad weather required modification of our travel plans.
2 [count] : a change in something (such as a system or style) ▪ They passed the law with only a few minor/slight/small modifications. ▪ The weather required some major/minor modifications to our travel plans. — often + of or to ▪ A few modifications of the design might be necessary. ▪ We made some modifications to the original plan.

mod•i•fi•er /ˈmɑːdəˌfajə/ noun, pl -ers [count] grammar : a word (such as an adjective or adverb) or phrase that describes another word or group of words ▪ In "a red hat," the adjective "red" is a modifier describing the noun "hat." ▪ In "They were talking loudly," the adverb "loudly" is a modifier of the verb "talking."

mod•i•fy /ˈmɑːdəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj]
1 : to change some parts of (something) while not changing other parts ▪ We can help you modify an existing home or build a new one. ▪ He modified the recipe by using oil instead of butter. ▪ modify a plan ▪ She has modified her views on the matter. ▪ The design was modified to add another window. ▪ We played a modified version of our favorite game.
2 grammar : to limit or describe the meaning of (a word or group of words) ▪ Adjectives usually modify nouns, and adverbs usually modify verbs, adjectives, and other adverbs. ▪ In the phrase "a red hat," the adjective "red" modifies the noun "hat."

mod•ish /ˈmoʊdɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : fashionable or stylish in a modern way ▪ He wore a modish gray suit and hat. ▪ a modish writer
– mod•ish•ly adv ▪ a modishly dressed woman

mod•u•lar /ˈmɑːʤələ/ adj : having parts that can be connected or combined in different ways ▪ In many offices, desks are separated by modular walls that can be moved around. ▪ a factory that produces modular homes ▪ modular buildings ▪ (chiefly Brit) This is a modular course of three components, and students can take those three modules in any order.

mod•u•late /ˈmɑːʤəˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing
1 [+ obj] formal : to change the sound of (your voice) by making it quieter, higher, lower, etc. ▪ Please modulate [=soften, tone down] your voice. ▪ Because she doesn't modulate her voice, she sounds the same when she's excited as when she's sad.
2 [no obj] music : to move gradually from one key to another ▪ The music quickly modulates from its original key, changing the mood of the song.
3 [+ obj] : to change or adjust (something) so that it exists in a balanced or proper amount ▪ These organs modulate [=regulate] the amount of salt in the body.
– mod•u•la•tion /ˌmɑːʤəˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [count, noncount]

mod•ule /ˈmɑːˌʤuːl, Brit ˈmɒdjuːl/ noun, pl -ules [count]
1 : one of a set of parts that can be connected or combined to build or complete something ▪ factories that build engines, transmissions, brakes, and other modules for cars ▪ (chiefly Brit) This is a modular course of three components, and students can take those three modules in any order.
2 : a part of a computer or computer program that does a particular job ▪ special software modules ▪ a memory module for storing information
3 : a part of a space vehicle that can work alone ▪ the spacecraft's command module [=the main part of a spacecraft] ▪ a lunar module [=a space vehicle used to land on the moon]

mo•dus ope•ran•di /ˌmoʊdəsˌɑːpəˈrændi/ noun [singular] formal : a usual way of doing something; especially : the usual way that a particular criminal performs a crime ▪ the murderer's modus operandi ✧ Modus operandi is a Latin phrase that means "method of operation" in English. — called also MO

mo•dus vi•ven•di /ˌmoʊdəsvɪˈvɛndi/ noun [singular] formal : an arrangement that helps people, groups, or countries work together peacefully even though they do not agree with each other ▪ The two nations developed a modus vivendi in order to avoid war. ✧ Modus vivendi is a Latin phrase that means "manner of living" in English.

mog•gy also mog•gie /ˈmɑːgi/ noun, pl -gies [count] Brit, informal : CAT

[1]mo•gul /ˈmoʊgəl/ noun, pl -guls [count] : a powerful and important person ▪ TV moguls ▪ advertising moguls ▪ a young Hollywood mogul — compare [2]MOGUL

[2]mogul noun, pl -guls [count] : a bump or small hill on a ski slope — compare [1]MOGUL mo•hair /ˈmoʊˌheɚ/ noun [noncount] : an expensive fabric or wool made from the long, soft hair of a goat from Asia ▪ a sweater made of mohair and silk — often used before another noun ▪ She wore her mohair hat and mittens.

Mo•hawk /ˈmoʊˌhɑːk/ noun, pl -hawks [count]
1 : a member of a Native American people of central New York state
2 US : a hairstyle in which the head is shaved except for a narrow strip of hair that goes down the center of the head — called also (Brit) Mohican

Mo•he•gan /moʊˈhiːgən/ noun, pl -gans [count] : MOHICAN 1b

Mo•hi•can /moʊˈhiːkən/ noun, pl -cans [count]
1 a : a member of a Native American people of northeastern New York State b : a member of a Native American people of southeastern Connecticut
2 Brit : MOHAWK 2

moist /ˈmoɪst/ adj moist•er; -est [or more ~; most ~]
1 : slightly or barely wet : not completely dry ▪ I love cookies when they are moist and chewy. ▪ The pork chops were tender and moist. ▪ a moist and spongy chocolate cake ▪ The plant grows best in direct sunlight and with rich, moist soil. ▪ She dabbed her moist eyes with a handkerchief.
2 : having a lot of moisture in the air : HUMID ▪ Fog is formed when warm moist air moves over a cold surface. ▪ moist tropical heat ▪ The eggs will hatch sooner in warm, moist conditions.
– moist•ness noun [noncount] the moistness of the air/cookies [singular] There is a moistness in the air today.

> synonyms MOIST, DAMP, and DANK mean somewhat wet. MOIST suggests a slight wetness that is usually pleasant or desirable. ▪ She wiped her face with a moist towel. DAMP suggests that the wetness of something makes it unpleasant to touch. ▪ His shirt was damp with sweat. DANK suggests a cold, unpleasant wetness that may be harmful to a person's health. ▪ He was kept prisoner in a cold, dank cell.

moist•en /ˈmoɪsn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing
1 [+ obj] : to make (something) slightly wet : to make (something) moist ▪ Corn syrup can be used to moisten and flavor baked foods. ▪ The chemical reaction begins as soon as the powder is moistened.
2 [no obj] : to become slightly wet ▪ His eyes moistened [=his eyes became tearful] at the memory of their kindness.

mois•ture /ˈmoɪsʧɚ/ noun [noncount] : a small amount of a liquid (such as water) that makes something wet or moist ▪ These flowers grow best with moisture and shade. ▪ Wool socks will pull moisture away from your skin. ▪ The leaves absorb moisture from the air.

mois•tur•ize also Brit mois•tur•ise /ˈmoɪsʧəˌraɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to add moisture to (something, such as a person's skin) ▪ Use this cream to gently moisturize dry skin.
– mois•tur•iz•er also Brit mois•tur•is•er noun, pl -ers [count, noncount] ▪ She uses a moisturizer on her skin.
– mois•tur•iz•ing also Brit mois•tur•is•ing adj ▪ a moisturizing cream/lotion mo•jo /ˈmoʊʤoʊ/ noun, pl -jos chiefly US, informal : a power that may seem magical and that allows someone to be very effective, successful, etc. [noncount] He's been suffering from incredibly bad mojo lately. ▪ The team has lost its mojo. [count] We need to get our mojos working again.

mo•lar /ˈmoʊlə/ noun, pl -lars [count] : a large tooth near the back of the jaw with a wide surface used especially for grinding food mo•las•ses /məˈlæsəz/ noun [noncount] chiefly US : a thick, brown, sweet liquid that is made from raw sugar ▪ molasses cookies [=cookies made with molasses] — called also (Brit) treacle slow as molasses or slower than molasses US, informal : very slow or slowly ▪ I used to be a fast runner, but now I'm slow as molasses. ▪ People have complained that the legislature is moving/working slower than molasses.

[1]mold (US) or Brit mould /ˈmoʊld/ noun, pl molds [count]
1 a : a container that is used to give its shape to something

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 67 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:07 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

that is poured or pressed into it ▪ The candles are made in a mold. ▪ The gelatin is poured into a mold and chilled until firm. b : something made in a mold ▪ a large plaster mold of a foot

2 : a usual or typical example of something : a pattern or type of something that is an example to be followed ▪ a movie in the classic/traditional/familiar mold of a Hollywood thriller ▪ She does not fit (into/in) the mold of a typical college professor. [=she is not a typical college professor] ▪ He is (cast) in the same mold as other troubled heroes. [=he resembles other troubled heroes]

break the mold 1 : to do something in a completely new way ▪ Voters are looking for a candidate who will break the mold and give them honest answers. 2 informal — used to describe a very unusual or admired person ▪ He was the greatest man I ever knew. They broke the mold when they made that guy. [=there will never be another person like him]

– compare [3]MOLD

[2]mold (US) or Brit mould verb molds; mold•ed; mold•ing

1 [+ obj] a : to form or press (something, such as wax, plastic, clay, or dough) into a particular shape ▪ mold dough into loaves of bread b : to make (something) from a material that has been formed or pressed ▪ mold loaves of bread ▪ She gave her mother a tiny statue that she molded from clay. ▪ The mountains were molded [=formed, shaped] by the glaciers over thousands of years.

2 [+ obj] : to make (something) by pouring or pressing material (such as wax or plastic) into a mold ▪ The art class spent its time molding candles. ▪ mold plastic toys ▪ a molded plastic chair

3 [+ obj] : to create, influence, or affect the character of (someone or something) ▪ She has dedicated her life to teaching and molding young children into responsible adults. ▪ molding young minds ▪ He took a struggling company and molded it into something special.

4 [no obj] : to fit to the shape of something ▪ This new mattress pad will mold to your body [=it will change its shape to fit your body] when you sleep on it. ▪ The fabric is thin and flexible and will mold to your shape.

– mold•er (US) or Brit mould•er /ˈmoʊldə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ He sees himself as a molder of world events. ▪ a molder of young minds

[3]mold (US) also Brit mould noun, pl molds : a soft substance that grows on the surface of damp or rotting things [noncount] She's allergic to mold, cigarette smoke, and dust. ▪ bread mold [=mold that grows on bread] [count] a slime mold [=a mold that is slimy] — compare [1]MOLD mold•er (US) or Brit mould•er /ˈmoʊldə/ verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [no obj] : to rot slowly especially from not being used : to decay slowly ▪ An entire shipment of fruit is moldering (away) in the warehouse because of the strike. ▪ moldering [=decaying] old books mold•ing (US) or Brit mould•ing /ˈmoʊldɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] : a strip of material (such as wood or metal) with some design or pattern that is used as a decoration on a wall, on the edge of a table, etc. ▪ The house has beautiful moldings around its doors and windows.

moldy (US) or Brit mouldy /ˈmoʊldi/ adj mold•i•er; -est

1 : covered with mold ▪ Her books became moldy after being left in a damp basement. ▪ moldy bread/fruit

2 : resembling mold : tasting, smelling, or looking like mold ▪ The wine had a slightly moldy aroma/flavor.

[1]mole /ˈmoʊl/ noun, pl moles [count]

1 : a small animal with very small eyes and soft fur that digs tunnels in the ground and eats insects

2 : a spy who works inside an organization and gives secret information to another organization or country

– compare [2]MOLE, [3]MOLE

[2]mole noun, pl moles [count] : a small, brown spot on a person's skin ▪ He has a mole on his cheek. — compare [1]MOLE, [3]MOLE

[3]mo•le /ˈmoʊleɪ/ noun, pl mo•les [count, noncount] chiefly US : a spicy sauce used in Mexican cooking ▪ chicken with mole (sauce) — compare [1]MOLE, [2]MOLE

mol•e•cule /ˈmɑːlɪˌkjuːl/ noun, pl -cules [count]

1 : the smallest possible amount of a particular substance that has all the characteristics of that substance ▪ a molecule of water/oxygen ▪ sugar molecules

2 : a very small amount of something ▪ There is not a molecule of evidence to support these charges.

– mo•lec•u•lar /məˈlekjələ/ adj ▪ molecular weight ▪ molecular structure/movement ▪ She studied molecular biology in college.

mole•hill /ˈmoʊlˌhɪl/ noun, pl -hills [count] : a small pile of dirt that is pushed up by a mole when it digs tunnels underground make a mountain out of a molehill : to make something seem much more difficult or important than it really is ▪ She thought that he was making a mountain out of a molehill by complaining about the placement of the silverware.

mole•skin /ˈmoʊlˌskɪn/ noun [noncount]

1 : the skin of the mole used as fur

2 : a soft cotton cloth ▪ moleskin pants

mo•lest /məˈlest/ verb -lests; -lest•ed; -lest•ing [+ obj]

1 : to harm (someone) through sexual contact : to touch (someone) in a sexual and improper way ▪ He was sent to jail for molesting children.

2 old-fashioned : to bother or annoy (someone or something) ▪ It was illegal to molest, capture, or kill any of the animals in the park.

– mo•les•ta•tion /ˌmoʊˌleˈsteɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ child molestation ▪ a victim of molestation – mo•lest•er /məˈlestə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ putting child molesters in jail

moll /ˈmɑːl/ noun, pl molls [count] chiefly US, old-fashioned + informal : a girlfriend of a criminal ▪ a gangster's moll — called also (chiefly US) gun moll

mol•li•fy /ˈmɑːləˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to make (someone) less angry : to calm (someone) down ▪ He tried to mollify his critics with an apology. ▪ All attempts to mollify the extremists have failed. ▪ The landlord fixed the heat, but the tenants still were not mollified.

mol•lusk (US) or Brit mol•lusc /ˈmɑːləsk/ noun, pl -lusks [count] biology : any one of a large group of animals (such as snails and clams) that have a soft body without a backbone and that usually live in a shell mol•ly•cod•dle /ˈmɑːliˌkɑːdl/ verb -cod•dles; -cod•dled; -cod•dling [+ obj] : to treat (someone) with more kindness and attention than is appropriate : to treat (someone) too nicely or gently ▪ You need to stop mollycoddling [=babying, coddling] that boy if you want him to succeed on his own. ▪ The coach has been mollycoddling the team's star players.

Mo•lo•tov cocktail /ˈmɑːləˌtɑːf-/ noun, pl ~ -tails [count] : a simple bomb made from a bottle filled with gasoline and stuffed with a piece of cloth that is lit just before the bottle is thrown — called also (Brit) petrol bomb molt (US) or Brit moult /ˈmoʊlt/ verb molts; molt•ed; molt•ing [no obj] biology : to lose a covering of hair, feathers, etc., and replace it with new growth in the same place ▪ Snakes molt as they grow, shedding the old skin and growing a larger new skin.

mol•ten /ˈmoʊltn/ adj, always used before a noun : melted by heat ▪ molten metal/glass/lead ▪ molten lava

mom /ˈmɑːm/ noun, pl moms [count] US, informal : a person's mother ▪ My mom [=(Brit) mum] wants me to call when I get there. — often used as a form of address ▪ Mom, do you know where I left my keys? — see also SOCCER MOM mom–and–pop /ˈmɑːmənˈpɑːp/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : owned and run by a married couple or by a small number of people ▪ Big department stores can drive mom-and-pop shops/stores out of business. ▪ a mom-and-pop business that grew to become a large corporation

mo•ment /ˈmoʊmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 [count] : a very short period of time ▪ The sunshine that was here a moment [=minute, second] ago is gone. ▪ The sun was shining. Moments later, it began to rain. ▪ It was a moment before she realized what had happened. ▪ She stopped for a moment and peeked into the window. ▪ It should only take a moment to fix the problem. ▪ Do you have a (spare) moment? [=do you have some free time so we can talk to each other briefly?] ▪ I'm very busy and I don't have a moment to spare. ▪ The doctor arrived not a moment too soon. [=the doctor arrived just in time to help] ▪ I'll explain that in a moment. [=shortly, soon] ▪ The crowd observed a moment of silence [=a short period of silent thought or prayer] for those who died in the tragedy.

2 [count] : a particular time : a precise point in time ▪ One moment it was sunny; the next it was pouring rain. ▪ We enjoyed every moment of the play. [=we enjoyed all of the play] ▪ The moment for us to act has arrived. ▪ The moment is ripe for action. [=this is the right time for action] ▪ War seemed unavoidable at that moment in history. ▪ She knew exactly the right moment to ask for a raise. ▪ We had an exciting vacation. There was never a dull moment.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 68 SESS: 38 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

3 a [noncount] : the present time ▪ At the moment [=right now, at the current time] she is working on a novel. ▪ We aren't prepared at this moment [=at this time, now] to say what our plans are. ▪ As of this moment [=as of now, right now], there's nothing you can do. ✧ Something that is true for the moment is true now but might not be true for long. ▪ For the moment, it is the world's largest city. [=it is the world's largest city now, but that may not be true much longer] ▪ He's staying out of trouble for the moment. ▪ For the moment, at least, I had the room to myself. ✧ Someone or something that is of the moment is very popular at a particular time. ▪ the vacation destination of the moment [=the vacation destination that is now most popular] ▪ the man/woman of the moment [=the man/woman who is now very popular and admired] b [count] : a time of importance or success ▪ She took the time to relish her moment of triumph. ▪ He's not the best player on the team, but he has his moments. [=he has times when he is extremely good, successful, etc.] ▪ It was a defining moment for him. ▪ It was a crowning moment in his presidency.

any moment ✧ If something could happen (at) any moment (now), it could happen very soon. ▪ He could lose his temper at any moment. ▪ The war could begin at any moment. ▪ She should be arriving at any moment now.

at/on a moment's notice see ¹NOTICE

from moment to moment or from one moment to the next or moment by moment : very quickly as time passes ▪ The weather kept changing from one moment to the next. = The weather kept changing from moment to moment. [=from minute to minute] hold/hang on a moment or wait/just a moment informal — used to tell someone to wait or to stop for a brief time ▪ "Aren't you finished yet?" "Hold on a moment. I'm almost done." ▪ Hang on a moment—I don't understand.

moment of truth : the time when you have to do or decide something ▪ The moment of truth came early, when we had to decide whether to stay or go. ▪ It was her moment of truth, when she needed to show that she had the talent to succeed.

not for a/one moment : at no time : not at all ▪ I did not believe her for one moment. [=I never believed her] of moment formal : having importance ▪ an event of great moment [=a very important event] ▪ There is no news of any moment to report.

on the spur of the moment see ¹SPUR

the last moment : the latest possible time : the last minute ▪ Our flight was canceled at the last moment. ▪ She finished her paper at the last moment. ▪ Many people wait until the last (possible) moment before shopping for Christmas presents.

the moment : as soon as ▪ The moment the cameras are turned off, he is able to relax. ▪ Everything stops the moment she walks in the room.

within moments : very quickly : within a very short amount of time ▪ Within moments, dozens of people had gathered.

mo•men•tari•ly /ˌmoʊmənˈterəli, Brit ˈməʊməntərəli/ adv

1 : for a short time : for a moment : BRIEFLY ▪ The pain eased momentarily. ▪ The wind let up momentarily, allowing us to start a campfire. ▪ He paused momentarily before finishing his speech.

2 US : very soon : at any moment ▪ We expect them to arrive momentarily. ▪ The pilot announced that the plane would be landing momentarily. [=shortly] mo•men•tary /ˈmoʊmənˌteri, Brit ˈməʊməntəri/ adj : lasting a very short time : lasting only a moment ▪ There was a momentary [=brief] pause between songs. ▪ He experienced a momentary loss of consciousness.

mo•men•tous /moʊˈmɛntəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very important : having great or lasting importance ▪ My college graduation was a momentous day in my life. ▪ a momentous decision/event

– mo•men•tous•ly adv ▪ a momentously important decision

mo•men•tum /moʊˈmɛntəm/ noun [noncount]

1 a : the strength or force that something has when it is moving ▪ forward momentum ▪ The wagon gathered/gained momentum [=it moved faster] as it rolled down the hill. ▪ The wagon lost momentum [=it moved more slowly; it slowed down] as it rolled up the hill. b : the strength or force that allows something to continue or to grow stronger or faster as time passes ▪ The company has had a successful year and hopes to maintain its momentum by introducing new products. ▪ The campaign slowly gained/gathered momentum. [=the campaign slowly became more popular and successful] ▪ The movie loses momentum toward the end.

2 physics : the property that a moving object has due to its mass and its motion

mom•ma variant spelling of MAMA

mom•my /ˈmɑːmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] chiefly US, informal : a person's mother — used especially by children ▪ Where's my mommy? — often used as a form of address ▪ Can I go out to play, mommy?

Mon. abbr Monday

mon•arch /ˈmɑːˌnɑək/ noun, pl -archs [count] : a person (such as a king or queen) who rules a kingdom or empire ▪ a new history of French monarchs ▪ an absolute monarch

monarch butter y noun, pl ~ - ies [count] : a large orange and black American butterfly mo•nar•chi•cal /məˈnɑrkɪkəl/ also mo•nar•chic /məˈnɑəkɪk/ adj : of or relating to a monarch or monarchy ▪ monarchical authority ▪ a monarchical government

mon•ar•chist /ˈmɑnəkɪst/ noun, pl -chists [count] : a person who believes that a country should have a monarch (such as a king or queen) : a person who supports a monarch or monarchy ▪ Loyal monarchists fought for the king.

– monarchist adj ▪ monarchist loyalties/beliefs

mon•ar•chy /ˈmɑnəki/ noun, pl -chies

1 [count] : a country that is ruled by a monarch (such as a king or queen)

2 [count, noncount] : a form of government in which a country is ruled by a monarch ▪ the French monarchy of the 18th century — see also CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY

mon•as•tery /ˈmɑːnəˌsteri, Brit ˈmɑːnəstri/ noun, pl -teries [count] : a place where monks live and work together ▪ a Catholic/Buddhist monastery — compare CONVENT mo•nas•tic /məˈnæstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : of or relating to monks or monasteries ▪ a monastic community ▪ monastic life ▪ He founded a monastic order in Belgium.

2 : resembling or suggesting a monk or the life of a monk ▪ He shows a monastic dedication to his job. ▪ She studied for the test with monastic zeal. ▪ a quiet, monastic existence

– mo•nas•ti•cism /məˈnæstəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ the history of Christian/Buddhist monasticism

Mon•day /ˈmʌnˌdeɪ/ noun, pl -days : the day of the week between Sunday and Tuesday [count] I had lunch with her last Monday. ▪ I'll be seeing her again next Monday. ▪ The class meets on Mondays. [=every Monday] ▪ My birthday falls on a Monday this year. ▪ (Brit) Next week I'll arrive on the Monday and leave on the Friday. [noncount] Next week I'll arrive on Monday and leave on Friday. ▪ The paper is due on Monday. = (chiefly US) The paper is due Monday. ▪ I will arrive on Monday morning. — abbr. Mon.

– Mondays adv ▪ He works late Mondays. [=he works late every Monday]

Monday–morning quarterback noun, pl ~ -backs [count] US, disapproving : a person who unfairly criticizes or questions the decisions and actions of other people after something has happened ▪ After the water main broke, the Monday-morning quarterbacks [=second-guessers] in the media criticized the city for not replacing the old pipes.

mon•e•tary /ˈmɑːnəˌteri, Brit ˈmʌnətri/ adj

1 : of or relating to money ▪ a crime committed for monetary gain

2 : of or relating to the money in a country's economy ▪ this administration's monetary policy ▪ Gold was once the basis of the U.S. monetary system.

– mon•e•tar•i•ly /ˌmɑːnəˈterəli, Brit ˈmʌnətrəli/ adv ▪ Many companies will benefit/gain monetarily from the decision.

mon•ey /ˈmʌni/ noun, pl mon•ies or mon•eys /ˈmʌniz/

1 [noncount] : something (such as coins or bills) used as a way to pay for goods and services and to pay people for their work ▪ Dinner cost a lot of money last night. = We were charged a lot of money for dinner last night. ▪ a sum of money ▪ That painting must be worth a lot of money. ▪ She's been making a lot of money in her new job. = (informal) She's been making big/good money in her new job. ▪ He earned some money last summer as a musician. ▪ We're trying to save enough money for a new car. ▪ The town is raising money for the elementary school. ▪ Friends would always ask her for money. ▪ It's an interesting idea, but there's no money in it: it'll never sell. ▪ The club made money [=earned money; made a profit] by selling advertisements in the newsletter. ▪

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 69 SESS: 39 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:08 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

She knew she could make money [=earn a profit] on the deal. = She knew there was money to be made from/on the deal. ▪ When they take a vacation, money is no object. [=they are not concerned about the price of things] They always stay at the most expensive places. — see also BLOOD MONEY, FUNNY MONEY, HUSH MONEY, OLD MONEY, PAPER MONEY, POCKET MONEY, SEED MONEY, SOFT MONEY, SPENDING MONEY, smart money at [1]SMART

2 [noncount] : a person's wealth : the money that a person has ▪ He made his money in the insurance business. ▪ He lost his money on foolish investments. = He threw all his money away on foolish investments. ▪ They decided to put all their money in the stock market. ▪ We didn't have much money when I was growing up. ▪ She comes from money. [=her family is rich] ▪ She married into money. [=she married a wealthy man] — see also marry money at MARRY

3 monies or moneys [plural] formal : amounts of money ▪ Most of the project is being paid for by federal monies. ▪ All monies received will be deposited in a special account.

a run for your money see [2]RUN for love or/nor money see [1]LOVE for my money informal : in my opinion ▪ This book is, for my money, her best novel yet. [=I think this is her best novel yet] ▪ For my money, nothing beats a juicy peach on a hot summer day.

in the money 1 US : among the top three finishers in a race (such as a horse race) ▪ Whatever horse I bet on, it never finishes in the money. 2 informal : having lots of money ▪ They struggled for many years but now they're in the money.

made of money informal : having a lot of money : RICH ▪ Do I look like I'm made of money? ▪ Stop asking your father for a bigger allowance. He's not made of money, you know!

money for jam or money for old rope Brit, informal : money that is easily earned or gotten : easy money money talks — used to say that money has a strong influence on people's actions and decisions ▪ In politics, money talks. [=people and companies with a lot of money have a powerful influence in politics]

money to burn informal : a large amount of money to spend ▪ expensive cars for people with money to burn on the money US, informal : exactly right or accurate ▪ His prediction that it would rain was (right) on the money.

put (your) money on : to bet on (something or someone) ▪ Everyone there put their money on the underdog. — often used to say that you feel very sure that something is true, will happen, etc. ▪ "Do you think he'll win?" "I'd put money on it." ▪ It's going to rain tomorrow. I'd put money on it.

put your money where your mouth is informal : to give or spend money or take some action in order to do or support something that you have been talking about ▪ It's time for the mayor to put his money where his mouth is and increase funding for schools.

throw money around : to spend money in a foolish or careless way ▪ He really throws (his) money around.

throw money at : to try to solve (a problem) by spending a large amount of money on it without giving enough thought to exactly what should be done ▪ The flaws in our school system will never be fixed as long as the government continues to just throw money at the problem.

time is money — used to say that a person's time is as valuable as money your money's worth : as much as you deserve because of the money you paid or the effort you made ▪ His new movie gives his fans their money's worth. [=his new movie is good and is worth the money that his fans pay to see it] ▪ The people who showed up for the concert certainly got their money's worth. ▪ He insisted on staying until the end of the show so that he could get his money's worth.

mon•ey–back /ˈmʌniˈbæk/ adj, always used before a noun : allowing buyers to get their money back if the product breaks, does not work, or is not what the buyer wanted ▪ All of their tools come with a money-back guarantee.

mon•ey•bags /ˈmʌniˌbægz/ noun, pl moneybags [count] informal : a very rich person ▪ His campaign is being paid for by a local moneybags.

money box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] chiefly Brit : a box that has a narrow opening in the top and that is used for saving coins

mon•eyed or mon•ied /ˈmʌnid/ adj, always used before a noun, formal : having a lot of money : very rich ▪ a member of the moneyed classes

mon•ey–grub•ber /ˈmʌniˌgrʌbə/ noun, pl -bers [count] informal : a person who cares too much about getting money ▪ a selfish money-grubber
– mon•ey–grub•bing /ˈmʌniˌgrʌbɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a bitter, money-grubbing old miser – money–grubbing noun [noncount]

mon•ey•lend•er /ˈmʌniˌlɛndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who lends money as a business ▪ He was unable to repay his debts to the moneylender.

mon•ey–mak•er /ˈmʌniˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : something (such as a product) that earns a profit ▪ The book eventually became a money-maker for its publisher. ▪ This movie should be the biggest money-maker of the summer. — called also (Brit) money-spinner
2 : a person who earns or wins a large amount of money ▪ He is one of the top money-makers in professional tennis.
– mon•ey–mak•ing /ˈmʌniˌmeɪkɪŋ/ adj ▪ a film with money-making potential

mon•ey•man /ˈmʌniˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a man who controls the use of large amounts of money — usually plural ▪ a politician being bankrolled by a group of powerful moneymen

money order noun, pl ~ -ders [count] : a written order to pay a particular amount of money to a specified person or company ✧ A money order can be bought from a bank or post office and sent by mail like a check to make a payment to another person. ▪ She mailed a money order to the company for the cost of the TV she bought. ▪ Payments can be made by check or by money order. [=by using a money order] — called also (Brit) postal order

mon•ey–spin•ner /ˈmʌniˌspɪnə/ noun, pl -ners [count] Brit, informal : MONEY-MAKER 1
– mon•ey–spin•ning /ˈmʌniˌspɪnɪŋ/ adj, Brit

money supply noun
the money supply business : the total amount of money available for spending in a country's economy ▪ an increase in the money supply

mon•goose /ˈmɑːnˌguːs/ noun, pl -goos•es [count] : a small and very fast animal from India that eats snakes and rodents mongoose

mon•grel /ˈmɑːŋgrəl/ noun, pl -grels [count] : a dog with parents of different breeds ▪ She owns several dogs, including a mongrel named Stella. — often used before another noun ▪ a mongrel dog — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The new house was a mongrel, with a mix of styles from different times and places.

mon•ied variant spelling of MONEYED

mon•ies plural of MONEY

mon•i•ker /ˈmɑːnɪkə/ noun, pl -kers [count] informal : a name or nickname ▪ He earned the moniker "Gator" from his days wrestling alligators in Florida. ▪ I think "Happy" is an appropriate moniker for someone who smiles so much.

[1]mon•i•tor /ˈmɑːnətə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a device that is used for showing, watching, or listening to something: such as a : a device that shows information or images on a screen ▪ a computer monitor ▪ a television monitor ▪ They watched the press conference on a video monitor in a back room. — see pictures at CAMERA, COMPUTER b : a device that is used to listen to sounds being made in another room ▪ We put a baby monitor in the nursery. c : a device that shows and records information about a condition or function of the body ▪ a heart monitor
2 : a student who helps the teacher at a school ▪ (US) He was chosen to be a hall monitor. [=a student who watches the hallways for bad behavior]
3 : a person who has the job of checking or watching some activity or behavior ▪ U.N. weapons monitors and inspectors

[2]monitor verb -tors; -tored; -tor•ing [+ obj] : to watch, observe, listen to, or check (something) for a special purpose over a period of time ▪ Nurses constantly monitored the patient's heart rate. ▪ We're in a good position to monitor and respond to customer concerns. ▪ She's been able to monitor [=keep track of] his progress. ▪ Government agents have been monitoring the enemy's radio communications.

monk /ˈmʌŋk/ noun, pl monks [count] : a member of a religious community of men who usually promise to remain poor, unmarried, and separated from the rest of society ▪ Catholic/Buddhist monks — compare NUN

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 70 SESS: 41 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

– monk•ish /ˈmʌŋkɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a quiet monkish man ▪ a monkish way of life

[1]mon•key /ˈmʌŋki/ noun, pl -keys [count]
1 : a type of animal that is closely related to apes and humans and that has a long tail and usually lives in trees — see also RHESUS MONKEY
2 chiefly Brit : a person (especially a child) who causes trouble in a playful way ▪ He's quite a cheeky little monkey, isn't he?
a monkey on your back : a problem that you cannot easily get rid of or solve : a problem or situation that makes you unhappy and that lasts for a long time ▪ His drug addiction has been a monkey on his back for years. ▪ He finally got the monkey off his back and kicked his drug addiction. ▪ After many years of disappointment, she finally got the monkey off her back by winning the championship.
make a monkey out of informal : to cause (someone) to look very foolish : to make a fool out of (someone) ▪ I'm not going to let that salesman make a monkey out of me!
more fun than a barrel (full) of monkeys see [1]BARREL not give a monkey's Brit, informal : to not care at all about something. ▪ I don't give a monkey's about their problems!
– see also GREASE MONKEY

[2]monkey verb -keys; -keyed; -key•ing
monkey around or Brit monkey about [phrasal verb] informal 1 : to do things that are not useful or serious : to waste time ▪ We just monkeyed around [=fooled around, messed around] all afternoon. ▪ a young scientist monkeying around in the lab 2 monkey around/about with (something) informal a : to use or do (something) in a way that is not very serious ▪ He enjoys monkeying around with [=fooling around with] his car's engine. b : to handle or play with (something) in a careless or foolish way ▪ You shouldn't be monkeying around with dangerous chemicals.
monkey with [phrasal verb] monkey with (something) informal : to handle or play with (something) in a careless way : to monkey around with (something) ▪ I told you not to monkey with [=fool with] the lawn mower.

monkey bars noun [plural] US : a frame of bars that children can play on by climbing and by swinging from one bar to the next one in the way that monkeys in a tree swing from branch to branch monkey business noun [noncount] informal

1 : playful tricks or jokes ▪ Our teacher warned us not to try any monkey business while she was out of the room.
2 : illegal or improper activity or behavior ▪ political monkey business

mon•key•shines /ˈmʌŋkiˌʃaɪnz/ noun [plural] US, informal + old-fashioned : playful tricks and jokes : MONKEY BUSINESS ▪ mischievous children engaging in monkeyshines monkey wrench noun, pl ~ wrenches [count] : a wrench that can be adjusted to grip or turn things of different sizes — used in U.S. English to refer especially to a large, heavy wrench with a long, straight handle throw/hurl/toss a monkey wrench into US, informal : to damage or change (something) in a way that ruins it or prevents it from working properly ▪ The storm threw a monkey wrench into their plans for a picnic. [=the storm ruined their plans for a picnic]

mono /ˈmɑːnoʊ/ noun [noncount]
1 informal : MONONUCLEOSIS
2 : a way of recording and playing back sound so that all the sound comes from one direction ▪ They recorded the album in mono. — compare STEREO – mono adj ▪ a mono recording mono- combining form : one : single ▪ *mono*plane ▪ *mono*lingual mono•chro•mat•ic /ˌmɑːnəkroʊˈmætɪk/ adj : having or made up of one color or shades of one color ▪ It's a monochromatic room with a blue rug and blue furniture.

mono•chrome /ˈmɑːnəˌkroʊm/ adj
1 : having or made up of one color or shades of one color : MONOCHROMATIC ▪ a monochrome paint scheme ▪ monochrome colors
2 : using or showing only black and white and shades of gray ▪ a monochrome film/photograph — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a dull, monochrome existence

mon•o•cle /ˈmɑːnɪkəl/ noun, pl mon•o•cles [count] : a single round lens for one eye that helps people see and that is held in place by the muscles around the eye
– mon•o•cled /ˈmɑːnɪkəld/ adj ▪ a monocled professor [=a professor wearing a monocle]

mo•nog•a•my /məˈnɑːgəmi/ noun [noncount]
1 : the state or practice of being married to only one person at a time — compare POLYGAMY
2 : the state or practice of having only one sexual partner during a period of time ▪ young couples who practice monogamy ▪ Monogamy is common among birds.
– mo•nog•a•mous /məˈnɑːgəməs/ adj ▪ They've been in a monogamous relationship for many years. ▪ Many birds are monogamous.

mono•gram /ˈmɑːnəˌgræm/ noun, pl -grams [count] : a symbol that has the first letters of a person's first, middle, and last names and that is put on towels, blankets, clothes, etc., as a decoration or to show ownership
– mono•grammed /ˈmɑːnəˌgræmd/ adj ▪ monogrammed towels

monogram

mono•lin•gual /ˌmɑːnəˈlɪŋgwəl/ adj
1 : able to speak and understand only one language ▪ He regrets being monolingual and wishes he were bilingual.
2 : using or expressed in only one language ▪ a monolingual dictionary — compare BILINGUAL, MULTILINGUAL

mono•lith /ˈmɑːnəˌlɪθ/ noun, pl -liths [count]
1 a : a very large stone that is usually tall and narrow; especially : a stone that was put in position by people as a monument or for religious reasons ▪ an ancient monolith b : a very large building or other structure ▪ The new office building is a massive steel and concrete monolith.
2 often disapproving : a very large and powerful organization that acts as a single unit ▪ The media monolith owns a number of networks. ▪ a global monolith
– mono•lith•ic /ˌmɑːnəˈlɪθɪk/ adj ▪ a large, monolithic building ▪ a monolithic organization

mono•logue also US mono•log /ˈmɑːnəˌlɑːg/ noun, pl -logues also US -logs [count]
1 : a long speech given by a character in a story, movie, play, etc., or by a performer (such as a comedian) ▪ The play begins with the main character's monologue. ▪ The comedian is famous for his monologue about winning the lottery.
2 : a long speech made by one person that prevents anyone else from talking ▪ I stifled a yawn as she launched into a monologue about how she is going to become a famous star.

mono•nu•cle•o•sis /ˌmɑːnəˌnuːkliˈoʊsəs, Brit ˌmɒnəˌnjuːkliˈəʊsəs/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that makes people very tired and weak for a long time — called also (Brit) glandular fever, (informal) mono mono•plane /ˈmɑːnəˌpleɪn/ noun, pl -planes [count] : an airplane with one set of wings — compare BIPLANE ✧ Most modern airplanes are monoplanes.

mo•nop•o•lize also Brit mo•nop•o•lise /məˈnɑːpəˌlaɪz/ verb -liz•es; -lized; -liz•ing [+ obj] : to take over and control (something or someone) completely ▪ He's always monopolizing the conversation. ▪ The company has monopolized the market for computer operating systems. ▪ The demands of the job have been monopolizing my time. [=using up all my time] : to use (something) in a way that prevents others from using it ▪ One group monopolized the camping area, taking almost all of the campsites.
– mo•nop•o•list /məˈnɑːpəlɪst/ noun, pl -lists [count] ▪ a powerful monopolist [=a person or company that has or controls a monopoly] – mo•nop•o•li•za•tion also Brit mo•nop•o•li•sa•tion /məˌnɑːpələˈzeɪʃən, Brit məˌnɒpəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]

mo•nop•o•ly /məˈnɑːpəli/ noun, pl -lies
1 [count] a : complete control of the entire supply of goods or of a service in a certain area or market ▪ The company has gained/acquired a (virtual/near) monopoly of/on/over the logging industry in this area. b : a large company that has a monopoly ▪ The government passed laws intended to break up monopolies.
2 [singular] : complete ownership or control of something — usually + on or (chiefly Brit) of ▪ He seems to think he has a monopoly on the truth. [=to think that he is the only person who knows what is true]
– mo•nop•o•lis•tic /məˌnɑːpəˈlɪstɪk/ adj ▪ monopolistic business practices mono•rail /ˈmɑːnəˌreɪl/ noun, pl -rails : a type of railroad that uses a single track which is usually high off the ground [count] Monorails connect different parts of the park. [noncount] traveling by monorail; also [count] : a vehicle that

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 71 SESS: 52 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:09 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m travels on a monorail ▪ The passengers boarded the monorail.

mono•so•di•um glu•ta•mate /ˌmɑːnəˌsoʊdijəmˈgluːtəˌmeɪt/ noun [noncount] : a kind of salt used for seasoning foods — called also MSG

mono•syl•la•ble /ˈmɑːnəˌsɪləbəl/ noun, pl -la•bles [count] : a word that has only one syllable ▪ He answered all their questions with monosyllables like "yes" and "no."

mono•syl•lab•ic /ˌmɑːnəsəˈlæbɪk/ adj
1 : having only one syllable ▪ a monosyllabic word/reply : made up of words that have only one syllable ▪ a monosyllabic conversation
2 : saying very little or responding with one-syllable words ▪ The movie star was monosyllabic with newspaper reporters.

mono•the•ism /ˈmɑːnəˌθiːɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : the belief that there is only one God
– mono•the•ist /ˈmɑnəˌθiːɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
– mono•the•is•tic /ˌmɑːnəˌθiˈɪstɪk/ adj ▪ a monotheistic religion

mono•tone /ˈmɑːnəˌtoʊn/ noun [singular] : a way of talking or singing without raising or lowering the sound of your voice ▪ She read the story in a dull monotone. ▪ He sang in a soft, low monotone. ▪ She spoke in a monotone voice.

mo•not•o•nous /məˈnɑːtnəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] — used to describe something that is boring because it is always the same ▪ a monotonous task ▪ Students complained that the meals were monotonous. ▪ She spoke in a monotonous voice.
– mo•not•o•nous•ly adv ▪ The teacher droned on monotonously.

mo•not•o•ny /məˈnɑːtni/ noun [noncount] : a lack of change that makes something boring : a monotonous quality ▪ She hated the monotony of the job. ▪ The brief storm was a relief from the monotony of the hot summer afternoon.

mono•un•sat•u•rat•ed /ˌmɑːnoʊˌʌnˈsæʧəreɪtəd/ adj, technical — used to describe a type of oil or fat that is found in foods such as olives and almonds and that is better for your health than saturated fats and trans fats ▪ monounsaturated fats ▪ monounsaturated oils such as olive, peanut, and canola oils — compare POLYUNSATURATED, SATURATED, UNSATURATED

monoxide see CARBON MONOXIDE

mon•si•gnor /mɑnˈsiːnjɚ/ noun, pl mon•si•gnors or mon•si•gno•ri /ˌmɑːnˌsiːnˈjori/ [count] : a Roman Catholic priest of high rank ▪ bishops and monsignors ▪ Monsignor Donsuso

mon•soon /mɑnˈsuːn/ noun, pl -soons [count]
1 : a wind in the Indian Ocean and southern Asia that brings heavy rains in the summer
2 a : the rainy season that occurs in southern Asia in the summer ▪ the beginning of the monsoon (season) b : the rain that falls during this season ▪ floods caused by summer monsoons — sometimes used in an exaggerated way to refer to a heavy rainstorm ▪ The game was played in a monsoon.

[1]mon•ster /ˈmɑːnstɚ/ noun, pl -sters [count]
1 : a strange or horrible imaginary creature ▪ mythical monsters ▪ a sea monster ▪ a monster movie [=a movie about monsters]
2 informal : something that is extremely or unusually large ▪ That car is a monster. ▪ It's a monster of a house. [=a very large house]
3 : a powerful person or thing that cannot be controlled and that causes many problems ▪ Inflation has become an economic monster.
4 a : an extremely cruel or evil person ▪ His father was a monster who punished his children for no reason. ▪ You don't want to work for that monster. b : a person (such as a child) who behaves very badly ▪ My nephew is a little monster.
– see also GREEN-EYED MONSTER

[2]monster adj, always used before a noun, informal : very popular and successful ▪ The movie turned out to be a monster hit. ▪ a monster band mon•stros•i•ty /mɑnˈstrɑːsəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : something (such as a building) that is very large and ugly ▪ Did you see the new mall? It's a monstrosity.

mon•strous /ˈmɑːnstrəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : extremely or unusually large : GIGANTIC ▪ a monstrous billboard
2 : very wrong or unfair ▪ It was monstrous of him to keep the truth from them all those years. ▪ a monstrous injustice
3 : very ugly, cruel, or vicious ▪ a monstrous crime/criminal ▪ monstrous depravity
– mon•strous•ly adv ▪ a monstrously large billboard

mon•tage /mɑnˈtɑːʒ/ noun, pl -tag•es
1 : a work of art that is made up of several different kinds of things (such as strips of newspaper, pictures, or pieces of wood) [count] a photographic montage [noncount] a photographer who often uses montage in her pictures
2 [count] : a mixture of different things — usually + of ▪ a montage of emotions/sounds/images

Mon•te•rey jack /ˈmɑːntəˌreɪˈʤæk/ noun [noncount] US : a mild kind of cheese month /ˈmʌnθ/ noun, pl months

1 [count] : any one of the 12 parts into which the year is divided ▪ July is my favorite month. ▪ It was hard to keep warm in the cabin during the winter months. ▪ the merry month of May ▪ The payments are due (on) the third of the month. [=on the third day of every month] ▪ We visit them twice a month. [=two times every month] ▪ I saw her last month and I'll see her again next month. ▪ The price changes from month to month. = The price changes each/every month. ▪ The price sometimes changes dramatically from one month to the next. ▪ His health has been getting better month by month. = His health has been getting better with each passing month. [=his health has been getting better in a gradual and steady way as months have passed] ▪ These problems have continued month after month. [=for several or many months]
2 [count] : a period of time that lasts about four weeks or 30 days ▪ The baby is four months old. [=a four-month-old baby] ▪ a pregnant woman who is in her eighth month = a woman who has been pregnant for eight months ▪ He was gone for a month. ▪ She was back to work a month after the accident. ▪ I'll be seeing her again in a month. = I'll be seeing her again a month from now. = I'll be seeing her again in a month's time.
3 months [plural] : a long period of time that is less than a year ▪ He's been gone for months. ▪ I haven't talked to her in months.
a month of Sundays informal : an extremely long time ▪ I haven't talked to her in a month of Sundays.
of the month : chosen for special honors or attention during a particular month ▪ He's been chosen as the employee of the month four times this year! [=chosen as the employee who is honored in a particular month for doing excellent work] ▪ the book of the month — see also flavor of the month at [1]FLAVOR

month•long /ˈmʌnθˈlɑːŋ/ adj : lasting an entire month ▪ a monthlong vacation

[1]month•ly /ˈmʌnθli/ adj
1 : happening, done, or made every month ▪ The monthly meeting is today. ▪ The regional manager visits the office on a monthly basis.
2 : published once every month ▪ She writes a monthly column for the magazine. ▪ a monthly magazine/newsletter
3 : of or relating to one month ▪ monthly payments ▪ her monthly salary [=the salary she receives every month] ▪ a monthly fee ▪ the monthly total of traffic accidents
– monthly adv ▪ The magazine is published monthly. ▪ Water the plant when the soil feels dry and feed it monthly. [=once every month]

[2]monthly noun, pl -lies [count] : a magazine that is published once every month ▪ He reads one of the travel monthlies.

mon•u•ment /ˈmɑːnjəmənt/ noun, pl -ments [count]
1 a : a building, statue, etc., that honors a person or event ▪ They have erected a monument in his honor. — often + to ▪ The statue serves as a monument to those who have served in the armed forces. b : a building or place that is important because of when it was built or because of something in history that happened there ▪ ancient monuments c : NATIONAL MONUMENT
2 : an example of something — + to ▪ The fashions of that era are a monument to bad taste. [=they are a perfect example of bad taste] ▪ His life is a monument to what people can endure and overcome.

mon•u•men•tal /ˌmɑːnjəˈmɛntl/ adj
1 : very important ▪ a monumental discovery/achievement
2 : very great or extreme ▪ It's more than a mistake; it's a case of monumental stupidity. ▪ the monumental complexity of the issue ▪ Repairing the damage will be a monumental task/job.
3 always used before a noun : of or relating to a monument ▪ The class was about modern monumental architecture.
– mon•u•men•tal•ly adv ▪ monumentally stupid/important moo /ˈmuː/ noun, pl moos [count] : the sound made by a cow

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 72 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

– moo verb moos; mooed; moo•ing [no obj] ▪ We heard the cows mooing in the field.

mooch /ˈmu:ʧ/ verb mooch•es; mooched; mooch•ing US, informal + disapproving : to ask for and get things from other people without paying for them or doing anything for them [+ obj] He's always mooching [=bumming] cigarettes. — often + off ▪ She's been mooching money off everyone she knows. [no obj] — usually + off ▪ He's always mooching off his friends. ▪ He mooched off his parents for a few years [=he lived with his parents and didn't do any work] and then found a job and moved to the city.

mooch around/about [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to walk around with no particular purpose ▪ I've just been mooching about all afternoon. ▪ We mooched around at some antique stores and then went to a café.

[1]mood /ˈmu:d/ noun, pl moods

1 [count] : the way someone feels : a person's emotional state ▪ He's been in a good mood all week. [=he's been happy and pleasant all week] ▪ Watching the news has put me in a bad mood. [=has made me unhappy and depressed] ▪ The kids are in a silly mood today. ▪ The good news lifted/lightened her mood. ▪ The bad news darkened/depressed her mood. ▪ She is a woman of many moods. Let's hope she's in one of her cheerful moods today. ▪ She may join us later. It depends on what kind of mood she's in. ▪ He's in one of his moods. [=he's in a bad mood] ▪ Quit teasing him. He's obviously in no mood for joking. ▪ It's a gorgeous day, and I'm in no mood to clean the house. ▪ It's hard to relate to someone who has such wild/extreme mood swings. [=someone whose mood changes very quickly] ▪ (medical) mood disorders such as severe depression or anxiety

2 [singular] : an attitude or feeling shared by many people ▪ The mood of the country/city was grim.

3 [count] : a quality that creates a particular feeling ▪ She turned down the lights and lit a candle to create a more romantic mood. [=atmosphere] in the mood : feeling a desire for (something) or to do something ▪ I'm in the mood for sushi. ▪ She was in the mood for love. ▪ He's a great pianist and goes to the jazz club whenever he's in the mood to play. ▪ I'm sorry. I'm just not in the mood to talk. [=I do not want to talk to anyone right now] ▪ "Would you like to see a movie?" "No, I'm not in the mood (to see a movie)."

the mood takes you ✧ When the mood takes you, you have the feeling of wanting to do something. ▪ She can be very sociable when/if the mood takes her.

– compare [2]MOOD

[2]mood noun, pl moods [count] grammar : a set of forms of a verb that show whether the action or state expressed by the verb is thought of as a fact, a command, or a wish or possibility ▪ In "I walked to school," the verb "walked" is in the indicative mood. ▪ the imperative/subjunctive mood — compare [1]MOOD mood music noun [noncount] : music that is meant to create a relaxed or romantic feeling ▪ He lit some candles and put on some mood music.

moody /ˈmu:di/ adj mood•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 a : often unhappy or unfriendly ▪ moody teenagers ▪ I don't know why I get so moody sometimes. b : having moods that change often ▪ She's a moody woman—she can be happy one minute and angry the next.

2 : creating a certain mood or feeling ▪ The room's moody lighting suggested mystery and romance. ▪ a moody painting/ballad/film – mood•i•ly /ˈmu:dəli/ adv ▪ He stared moodily out the window. ▪ a moodily lit room – mood•i•ness /ˈmu:dinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ Her moodiness makes her hard to get along with.

moo•la or moo•lah /ˈmu:ˌlɑ:/ noun [noncount] US slang : MONEY ▪ They're making major/much moola. [=a lot of money]

[1]moon /ˈmu:n/ noun, pl moons

1 the moon or the Moon : the large round object that circles the Earth and that shines at night by reflecting light from the sun ▪ The telescope makes the craters on the surface of the moon incredibly clear. ▪ The moon isn't out tonight. = There's no moon tonight. [=the moon cannot be seen tonight] ▪ the first moon [=lunar] landing [=the first time people landed a spacecraft on the moon] ▪ the orbit of the Moon around the Earth — see also BLUE MOON, FULL MOON, HALF-MOON, HARVEST MOON, NEW MOON

2 [count] : a large round object like the moon that circles around a planet other than the Earth ▪ Europa and Io are both moons of Jupiter. ▪ a planet orbited by one moon

ask for the moon or Brit cry for the moon informal : to ask for something that is very difficult or impossible to get ▪ The striking workers say they just want to be paid what they're worth. They're not asking for the moon.

many moons informal : a very long time ▪ I visited my old school yesterday for the first time in many moons. ▪ But that was all many moons ago.

over the moon informal : very happy or pleased about something ▪ She's over the moon at being chosen for the award.

promise (someone) the moon see [2]PROMISE reach/shoot for the moon : to try to do or get something that is very difficult to do or get ▪ an ambitious businessman who is always shooting for the moon

– moon•less /ˈmu:nləs/ adj ▪ a moonless night [=a night during which the moon cannot be seen]

[2]moon verb moons; mooned; moon•ing informal : to bend over and show your bare buttocks to someone as a rude joke or insult [+ obj] One of the boys mooned the crowd. [no obj] One of the boys mooned at the crowd.

moon around/about [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to move around slowly because you are unhappy ▪ I was feeling depressed and just mooned about [=moped around] all day.

moon over also US moon after [phrasal verb] moon over/after (something or someone) : to spend too much time thinking about or looking at (someone or something that you admire or want very much) ▪ All the girls in the class are mooning over the handsome new teacher. ▪ fans mooning after movie stars moon•beam /ˈmu:nˌbi:m/ noun, pl -beams [count] : a ray of light from the moon : a beam of moonlight ▪ Moonbeams shone through the leaves of the trees.

[1]moon•light /ˈmu:nˌlaɪt/ noun [noncount] : the light of the moon ▪ A figure appeared in the moonlight. ▪ a moonlight cruise down the river = a cruise down the river by moonlight

do a moonlight flit Brit, informal : to leave a place secretly during the night especially to avoid paying money that you owe

[2]moonlight verb -lights; -light•ed; -light•ing [no obj] : to work at a second job in addition to your regular job ▪ She is a secretary who moonlights as a waitress on weekends.

– moon•light•er noun, pl -ers [count]

moon•lit /ˈmu:nˌlɪt/ adj : lighted by the moon ▪ a moonlit night/landscape/room

moon•roof /ˈmu:nˌru:f/ noun, pl -roofs [count] chiefly US : a part of a roof of a car or truck that is made of glass and that can be opened to let air in — compare SUNROOF

moon•scape /ˈmu:nˌskeɪp/ noun, pl -scapes

1 [singular] : the way the surface of the moon looks

2 [count] : a dry and empty place that looks like the surface of the moon ▪ The valley is a desolate moonscape.

moon•shine /ˈmu:nˌʃaɪn/ noun [noncount] informal

1 chiefly US : a kind of alcohol that people make illegally ▪ a jug of moonshine

2 Brit : foolish or untrue words : NONSENSE ▪ Everything they said was just a load of moonshine.

– moon•shin•er /ˈmu:nˌʃaɪnəɹ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ an old moonshiner [=a person who makes moonshine]

moon•struck /ˈmu:nˌstrʌk/ adj : silly, foolish, or crazy especially because you are in love ▪ a celebrity mobbed by moonstruck teenage girls

moony /ˈmu:ni/ adj moon•i•er; -est chiefly US, informal : full of romantic feelings : MOONSTRUCK ▪ moony teenagers

[1]moor /ˈmuəɹ/ noun, pl moors [count] : a broad area of open land that is not good for farming — used especially to refer to land in Great Britain; usually plural ▪ We watched the sun setting over the moors.

[2]moor verb moors; moored; moor•ing : to hold (a boat or ship) in place with ropes or cables or with an anchor [+ obj] We found a harbor and moored the boat there for the night. ▪ The boat was moored alongside the dock. [no obj] We need to find a place to moor for the night.

Moor /ˈmuəɹ/ noun, pl Moors [count] : a member of a group of North African Arab people who ruled parts of Spain from the eighth century until 1492

– Moor•ish /ˈmurɪʃ/ adj ▪ Moorish architecture ▪ a Moorish instrument

moor•ing /ˈmurɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 [count] : a place where a boat or ship can be anchored or moored ▪ We found a temporary mooring in the harbor. —

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 73 SESS: 42 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:10 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

often plural ▪ We'll be renting private moorings there for the summer.

2 moorings [plural] : the anchors, ropes, and cables that are used to hold a boat or ship in place ▪ The wind was strong enough to tear the boat from its moorings. ▪ secure the moorings moor•land /ˈmuəˌlənd/ noun, pl -lands : land that consists of moors [noncount] an area of open moorland [count] We hiked across the moorlands.

moose /ˈmu:s/ noun, pl moose [count] : a large animal with very large, flat antlers that lives in forests in the northern part of America, Europe, and Asia — see picture at DEER

[1]moot /ˈmu:t/ adj

1 : not certain : argued about but not possible for people to prove ▪ He says that they should have foreseen the accident, but that point is moot. [=debatable]

2 US : not worth talking about : no longer important or worth discussing ▪ The court ruled that the issue is now moot because the people involved in the dispute have died. ▪ I think they were wrong, but the point is moot. Their decision has been made and it can't be changed now.

[2]moot verb moots; moot•ed; moot•ing [+ obj] formal : to introduce (an idea, subject, etc.) for discussion — usually used as (be) mooted ▪ The idea has been mooted in Congress, and it should be a topic of discussion for some time.

[1]mop /ˈmɑ:p/ noun, pl mops [count]

1 : a tool for cleaning floors that has a bundle of cloth or yarn or a sponge attached to a long handle

2 : a large amount of tangled or untidy hair on a person's head ▪ a mop of hair mop

[2]mop verb mops; mopped; mop•ping

1 : to clean (a floor) with a mop [+ obj] The kitchen (floor) needs to be mopped. [no obj] I'm almost done mopping.

2 [+ obj] a : to wipe (something that is wet) ▪ He mopped his brow (dry) with a handkerchief. b : to wipe (a liquid) from something ▪ He mopped the sweat from/off his brow.

mop up [phrasal verb] 1 mop (something) up or mop up (something) : to remove (a liquid) from a surface by using a mop, towel, etc. ▪ It will only take a moment to mop up the spill. ▪ She used the thick bread to mop up the last of her soup. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ The movie mopped up all the awards. 2 mop up or mop (something) up or *mop up (something) informal : to do the final things that are needed to complete a job or task ▪ I'm almost done with the project. I just need a little more time to mop up. ▪ Just let me mop up [=finish] a few things and I'll be done. ▪ The battle has been won. The focus is now on mopping up small pockets of resistance. — see also MOP-UP mope /ˈmoʊp/ verb mopes; moped; mop•ing [no obj] disapproving

1 : to behave in a way that shows you are unhappy and depressed ▪ Like a little child, he often moped when he didn't get what he wanted.

2 : to move around slowly because you are unhappy — often + around or (Brit) about ▪ I was feeling depressed and just moped around all day. ▪ I spent hours just moping around the house.

mo•ped /ˈmoʊˌpɛd/ noun, pl -peds [count] : a small motorcycle that can be pedaled like a bicycle — see picture at MOTORCYCLE mop•pet /ˈmɑ:pət/ noun, pl -pets [count] informal : a young person : CHILD mop–up /ˈmɑ:pˌʌp/ noun [singular] informal : the actions that complete a job or task after the more difficult parts have been done ▪ The project is almost done. All that's left is the mop-up. — often used before another noun ▪ mop-up duty ▪ the mop-up phase of operations — see also mop up at [2]MOP

[1]mor•al /ˈmorəl/ adj

1 always used before a noun a : concerning or relating to what is right and wrong in human behavior ▪ The church takes a strong stand on a number of moral [=ethical] issues. ▪ The author avoids making moral judgments. ▪ moral arguments ▪ Each story teaches an important moral lesson. b : based on what you think is right and good ▪ He felt that he had a moral obligation/responsibility/duty to help the poor. ▪ He's a man with strong moral convictions. [=a man who believes strongly that some things are right and others are wrong] ▪ We're confident she has the moral fiber/fortitude to make the right decision.

2 a [more ~; most ~] : considered right and good by most people : agreeing with a standard of right behavior ▪ moral conduct ▪ Their behavior was not moral. ▪ a moral young man [=a young man who tries to behave in a moral way] — compare AMORAL, IMMORAL b : able to choose between right and wrong behavior ▪ Animals are not moral creatures and are not responsible for their actions.

moral authority ✧ A person, group, or organization that has moral authority is trusted to do what is right. ▪ The scandal has undermined the government's moral authority.

moral support ✧ Someone who gives you moral support helps you by supporting or encouraging you rather than by giving you money or practical help. ▪ She counted on her sisters for moral support.

moral victory ✧ If you achieve a moral victory you do not win anything but you achieve something that is important and good. ▪ Although they lost, the minority claimed the vote as a moral victory since they had won the support of so many former opponents.

[2]moral noun, pl -als

1 [count] : a lesson that is learned from a story or an experience ▪ The moral of the story is to be satisfied with what you have. ▪ the movie's moral ▪ The moral here is: pay attention to the warning lights in your car.

2 morals [plural] : proper ideas and beliefs about how to behave in a way that is considered right and good by most people ▪ No one questions her morals. [=no one doubts that she is a good person who tries to behave in a moral way] ▪ Socrates was accused of corrupting the morals of the youth of Athens. ▪ He has no morals. [=he is not a good or honest person] ▪ The author points to recent cases of fraud as evidence of the lack of morals in the business world. ▪ a person with/of loose morals [=a person whose behavior and especially whose sexual behavior is considered morally wrong by some people]

mo•rale /məˈræl/ noun [noncount] : the feelings of enthusiasm and loyalty that a person or group has about a task or job ▪ The company has been struggling and employee morale is low. [=employees do not feel happy or enthusiastic about their work] ▪ The team is playing well and their morale is high. ▪ The President's speech boosted/raised/improved the morale of the troops.

mor•al•ist /ˈmorəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] usually disapproving : a person who has strong feelings and opinions about what is right and who tries to control the moral behavior of other people

mor•al•is•tic /ˌmorəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] disapproving : having or showing strong opinions about what is right behavior and what is wrong behavior ▪ While a moralistic speech won't convince kids not to try drugs, a story about people affected by drugs might. ▪ a moralistic tone/attitude mo•ral•i•ty /məˈrælәti/ noun, pl -ties

1 : beliefs about what is right behavior and what is wrong behavior [noncount] the changing cultural morality ▪ The group is calling for a return to traditional morality. ▪ Christian morality [count] two groups with clashing moralities

2 [noncount] : the degree to which something is right and good : the moral goodness or badness of something ▪ The decision may be legally justified, but I question its morality. — usually + of ▪ We discussed the morality of telling lies to protect someone.

mor•al•ize also Brit mor•al•ise /ˈmorəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [no obj] usually disapproving : to express beliefs about what is good behavior and what is bad behavior ▪ an essay moralizing about the evils of alcohol ▪ moralizing judgments/statements

– mor•al•iz•er also Brit mor•al•is•er noun, pl -ers [count]

mor•al•ly /ˈmorəli/ adv : according to what is considered right and good by most people ▪ a morally good person ▪ She behaved in a way that was morally wrong/right. ▪ She felt morally obligated to help. ▪ He acted morally. [=in a moral way] ▪ She seems to think she's morally superior to the rest of us. ▪ His behavior cannot be morally justified.

mo•rass /məˈræs/ noun, pl -rass•es [count] : an area of soft, wet ground : a marsh or swamp — usually singular ▪ a morass of muck — usually used figuratively to refer to a complicated or unpleasant situation that is difficult to get out of or to move through ▪ a legal morass ▪ trying to find our way through a morass of city traffic mor•a•to•ri•um /ˌmorəˈtorijəm/ noun, pl -to•ri•ums or -to•ria /-ˈtorijə/ [count] : a time when a particular activity is not allowed ▪ The treaty calls for a nuclear testing moratorium. — often + on ▪ a moratorium on nuclear testing ▪ City officials declared a moratorium on building more houses in that part of the city.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 74 SESS: 43 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mor•bid /ˈmoəbəd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : relating to unpleasant subjects (such as death) ▪ She has a morbid interest in funerals. ▪ He has a morbid sense of humor. ▪ a morbid fascination with death ▪ wanting to learn about a celebrity's downfall out of morbid curiosity
2 technical : not healthy or normal ▪ suffering from a morbid condition ▪ morbid obesity ▪ The child has a morbid fear/horror of snakes.
– mor•bid•ly adv ▪ She was morbidly fascinated with death. ▪ morbidly obese mor•dant /ˈmoədnt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : expressing harsh criticism especially in a way that is funny ▪ a writer famous for her mordant humor/wit

– mor•dant•ly adv ▪ mordantly funny/witty novels

[1]more /ˈmoə/ adj
1 : greater in amount, number, or size ▪ I felt more pain after the procedure, not less. ▪ The new engine has even more power. ▪ You like more sugar in your tea than I do. ▪ He had done more harm than he had intended. ▪ More and more people [=an increasingly large number of people] are using e-mail these days. ▪ The company has more than [=over] 2,000 employees. [=the number of employees is greater than 2,000] ▪ Choose no/not more than three options. [=choose three options or fewer]
2 : extra or additional ▪ I bought more apples. ▪ The series will have five more episodes. ▪ The company hired a few more employees. ▪ I offered him some more coffee. ▪ One more thing and then I'm leaving. ▪ Can you say that one more time? ▪ She wants more money.

[2]more adv
1 : to a greater degree or extent ▪ The shot hurt more than I expected. ▪ This cake is pretty good, but I'd like it (even) more if it had chocolate frosting. ▪ It happens more often than it used to. ▪ The building looks more like a museum than a library. ▪ more active/important ▪ more actively/importantly ▪ The players grew more intense as the game went on. ▪ She wanted a more sporty car. [=a sportier car] ▪ To me, there's nothing more exciting than playing football. ▪ She more closely resembles her aunt than her mother. ▪ He struggled to find a more comfortable position. ▪ a more complex explanation ▪ It's the same product—they've done nothing more than change the label. ▪ It's getting more and more difficult [=increasingly difficult] to distinguish fake diamonds from real ones. ▪ The fact that they'd written the play themselves made it all the more impressive. [=made it even more impressive]
2 : more often or for a longer period of time ▪ You need to help (out) with the housework more. = You need to help (out) more with the housework. ▪ She's a better piano player than I am because she practices more (than I do). ▪ You need to work on it (some) more.
3 : in addition ▪ wait one day more ▪ a couple of times more ▪ What more could you ask for?
4 — used to say that one way of describing a person or thing is better or more accurate than another ▪ She is more an acquaintance than a friend. = She's an acquaintance more than she is a friend.
more like it see [3]LIKE more or less 1 : not completely but to a great degree ▪ The clothes are more or less [=mostly] dry. ▪ The problem is more or less [=(informal) pretty much] fixed now. ▪ They were more or less willing. ▪ The building remains more or less [=essentially] intact. ▪ The business has remained more or less [=fairly, reasonably] successful. 2 — used to indicate that a number, amount, time, etc., is not exact or certain ▪ The garden contains five acres, more or less. [=about/approximately five acres] ▪ It should take you 20 minutes, more or less. [=it should take you about/approximately 20 minutes] ▪ I divided it into six more or less equal parts. [=into six approximately equal parts] more than : to a great degree : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ Please call me anytime. I'm more than happy to help (out) in any way I can. ✧ A clause that includes more than is often followed by another clause that gives more information or limits the first clause in some way. ▪ I am more than happy to help you, but I'd appreciate being asked politely. ▪ You are more than [=entirely] welcome to stay for dinner, but we aren't having anything special.
more than a little : to a great degree : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ He was more than a little surprised by her decision.
once more see [1]ONCE what's more see [1]WHAT

[3]more pronoun : a greater number or amount ▪ More [=more people] were found as the search continued. ▪ We're waiting until more [=more information] is known. ▪ I need to spend less and save more. ▪ You have more than everyone else. ▪ I'm too full to eat (any) more. ▪ If these estimates are correct, we'll need much/far/even more. ▪ It costs a little more but it's worth it. ▪ People are often willing to pay more for a better product. ▪ We got more than we expected. ▪ (We'll have) More on the weather later. ▪ We need 22 boxes—no more, no less. ▪ More and more of them [=an increasingly large number of them] are willing to try. ▪ People expect more and more from their computers. ▪ We've been hearing more and more about this issue in recent months.
little more than see [2]LITTLE more of — used to say that one way of describing a person or thing is better or more accurate than another ▪ It's more of a guess than an estimate. ▪ No, I wouldn't call the color red—it's more of a maroon.
more's the pity see [1]PITY
more than meets the eye see [1]EYE
the more the merrier see MERRY

more•over /moəˈoʊvə/ adv, somewhat formal : in addition to what has been said ▪ It probably wouldn't work. Moreover [=furthermore, besides, in addition], it would be very expensive to try it. ▪ The cameras will deter potential criminals. Moreover, they will help police a great deal when a crime actually is committed.

mo•res /ˈmoəˌeɪz/ noun [plural] : the customs, values, and behaviors that are accepted by a particular group, culture, etc. ▪ social mores ▪ society's changing mores ▪ current cultural/sexual mores

morgue /ˈmoəg/ noun, pl morgues [count]
1 : a place where the bodies of dead people are kept until they are buried or cremated ▪ the city morgue ▪ a hospital morgue — often used figuratively or in the phrase like a morgue to describe a place that is very quiet and sad ▪ The locker room was a morgue after the team lost yet another game. ▪ The locker room was like a morgue. — called also (chiefly Brit) mortuary
2 US : a place in the editorial offices of a newspaper, magazine, etc., where old articles and other documents are kept ▪ old news stories found in a newspaper morgue

mor•i•bund /ˈmorəˌbʌnd/ adj, formal
1 : no longer active or effective : close to failure ▪ an actor who is trying to revive his moribund career ▪ a moribund economy/industry ▪ The peace talks are moribund.
2 : very sick : close to death ▪ The patient was moribund. ▪ moribund [=dying] trees

Mor•mon /ˈmoəmən/ noun, pl -mons [count] : a member of a Christian church that was founded by Joseph Smith in the U.S. in 1830 : a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints – Mormon adj ▪ a Mormon church – Mor•mon•ism /ˈmoəməˌnɪzəm/ noun [noncount] morn /ˈmoən/ noun, pl morns literary : MORNING [count] a frosty winter morn ▪ early in the morn [noncount] from morn to night morn•ing /ˈmoənɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings

1 a : the early part of the day : the time of day from sunrise until noon [count] She liked to get things done early in the morning. ▪ I worked in the yard for part of the morning. ▪ I saw him this morning, and I'll be meeting with him again tomorrow morning. ▪ We have a meeting scheduled for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. ▪ On Sunday mornings I like to relax and read the newspaper. ▪ She arrived on the morning of March 18. ▪ the morning after a storm ▪ that night and the next/following morning = that night and the morning after ▪ I'll talk to you again in the morning. [=I'll talk to you again early tomorrow] [noncount] It was early/late morning when I woke. ▪ We sat around drinking coffee all morning. ▪ We won't find out until morning. ▪ (literary) Morning has broken. [=the sun has risen; it is dawn] — often used before another noun ▪ the morning sun/light ▪ my morning (cup of) coffee [=the coffee I drink every morning] ▪ My brother is a night

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 75 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:11 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

owl/person, but I'm a morning person. [=a person who likes the early part of the day; a person who has the most energy in the morning] b [noncount] : the part of the day between midnight and noon ▪ The party continued into the wee/small hours of the morning. [=after midnight] ▪ The phone rang at 2 o'clock in the morning. [=at 2 a.m.]

2 — used informally to say hello to someone in the morning ▪ Morning. [=good morning] How are you today?

morning, noon, and night : during all times of the day : all the time ▪ The system is operating morning, noon, and night. ▪ We've been working morning, noon, and night [=many hours each day] to get the project finished on time. — see also MORNINGS morning–after pill noun, pl ~ pills [count] : a pill that a woman takes after having sex so that she will not become pregnant morning coat noun, pl ~ coats [count] : a type of formal black coat worn by men with some suits ▪ The groom wore a morning coat.

morning glory noun, pl ~ -ries [count] : a plant that has many brightly colored flowers that open in the morning — see color picture on page C6 morn•ings /ˈmoɚnɪŋz/ adv : in the morning ▪ She works mornings in the kitchen of a small local restaurant. ▪ Mornings, I like to weed the garden.

morning sickness noun [noncount] : a feeling of sickness that a pregnant woman may feel especially early in the morning : a feeling of nausea caused by pregnancy

morning star noun

the morning star : the planet Venus when it can be seen in the eastern sky in the early morning — compare EVENING STAR mo•ron /ˈmoɚˌɑːn/ noun, pl -rons [count] informal : a very stupid or foolish person : IDIOT ▪ They were acting like a bunch of morons. ▪ I can't believe I did something so stupid. I feel like a complete moron. ▪ an utter moron

– mo•ron•ic /məˈrɑːnɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ That's the most moronic thing I've ever heard. ▪ moronic behavior ▪ moronic humor – mo•ron•i•cal•ly /məˈrɑːnɪkli/ adv ▪ They were behaving moronically.

mo•rose /məˈroʊs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 of a person : very serious, unhappy, and quiet ▪ He became morose and withdrawn and would not talk to anyone.

2 : very sad or unhappy ▪ morose song lyrics ▪ morose thoughts

– mo•rose•ly adv ▪ gazing/staring morosely at the sad scene ▪ "I lost," she said morosely. – mo•rose•ness noun [noncount]

morph /ˈmoɚf/ verb morphs; morphed; morph•ing

1 of an image on a screen : to gradually change into a different image [no obj] The picture of a dog morphed into a picture of a cat. [+ obj] Using the new software, we morphed a picture of a dog into a picture of a cat.

2 : to change gradually and completely from one thing into another thing usually in a way that is surprising or that seems magical [no obj] a quiet college student who has morphed into a glamorous actress [+ obj] He is trying to morph himself into a different person.

mor•pheme /ˈmoɚˌfiːm/ noun, pl -phemes [count] linguistics : a word or a part of a word that has a meaning and that contains no smaller part that has a meaning ▪ The word "pins" contains two morphemes: "pin" and the plural suffix "-s."

– mor•phe•mic /moɚˈfiːmɪk/ adj

mor•phine /ˈmoɚˌfiːn/ noun [noncount] : a powerful drug made from opium that is used to reduce pain ▪ a shot/dose of morphine

mor•phol•o•gy /moɚˈfɑːlədʒi/ noun, pl -gies

1 [noncount] linguistics : the study and description of how words are formed in language

2 biology a [noncount] : the study of the form and structure of animals and plants b : the form and structure of a plant or animal or any of its parts [noncount] plants with unusual morphology [count] plants with unusual morphologies

– mor•pho•log•i•cal /ˌmoɚfəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl/ adj

mor•row /ˈmaroʊ/ noun, pl -rows old-fashioned + literary

1 : MORNING [noncount] "Good-night, good-night! parting is such sweet sorrow / That I shall say good-night till it be morrow." —Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet [count] "Many good morrows to my noble lord!" —Shakespeare, Richard III

2 the morrow : the next day ▪ We don't know what the morrow may bring. [=we don't know what may happen in the future] ▪ We expect them to arrive on the morrow. [=tomorrow]

Morse code /ˈmoɚs-/ noun [noncount] : a system of sending messages that uses long and short sounds, flashes of light, or marks to represent letters and numbers

mor•sel /ˈmoɚsəl/ noun, pl -sels [count] : a small piece of food ▪ tender morsels of beef ▪ bite-size morsels ▪ She ate every morsel. ▪ a tasty/delicious morsel — often used figuratively ▪ a juicy morsel of gossip

[1]mor•tal /ˈmoɚtl/ adj

1 : certain to die ▪ Every living creature is mortal. — opposite [1]IMMORTAL

2 a : causing death : FATAL ▪ He suffered a mortal wound in the battle. ▪ a mortal injury/blow — often used figuratively ▪ She claims that the proposed law would deal/strike a mortal blow to many small businesses. [=would cause many small businesses to fail] synonyms see [1]DEADLY b : possibly causing death ▪ facing mortal danger ▪ two gladiators locked in mortal combat [=a fight that will result in the death of the loser; a fight to the death] c : relating to or connected with death ▪ mortal agony — see also mortal remains at REMAINS

3 always used before a noun : very great or severe ▪ She lived in mortal fear/terror/dread of being betrayed. [=she was very afraid of being betrayed] mortal enemy also mortal foe/rival : someone you hate very much and for a long time ▪ They've been mortal enemies for many years.

– mor•tal•ly /ˈmoɚtli/ adv ▪ He was mortally [=fatally] wounded in the battle. ▪ She is mortally [=(more commonly) terminally] ill with cancer. ▪ I'm mortally [=extremely] afraid of snakes.

[2]mortal noun, pl -tals [count] : a human being ▪ stories about gods interfering in the lives of mortals ▪ the troubles that come to ordinary mortals — often used humorously ▪ He's a big star now. He doesn't waste his time talking to mere/lesser mortals [=people] like you and me. — compare [2]IMMORTAL

mor•tal•i•ty /moɚˈtæləti/ noun, pl -ties

1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being a person or thing that is alive and therefore certain to die : the quality or state of being mortal ▪ The news of her cousin's death reminded her of her own mortality. [=reminded her that she would also die some day] — opposite IMMORTALITY

2 : the death of a person, animal, etc. [count] cancer mortalities [=deaths caused by cancer] [noncount] a leading cause of mortality

3 [noncount] : the number of deaths that occur in a particular time or place ▪ a decrease in cancer mortality [=a decrease in the number of people dying from cancer] ▪ The government is trying to reduce infant mortality. = The government is trying to reduce the mortality rate among infants. [=trying to reduce the number of infants who die each year]

mortal sin noun, pl ~ sins [count] in the Roman Catholic Church : a sin (such as murder) that will result in punishment that lasts forever unless the person who has sinned sincerely confesses to God and asks to be forgiven ▪ commit a mortal sin — compare VENIAL SIN

mor•tar /ˈmoɚtɚ/ noun, pl -tars

1 [count] : a heavy, deep bowl in which seeds, spices, etc., are pounded or crushed with a heavy tool (called a pestle)

2 [count] : a military weapon used to fire shells (sense 5a) high into the air at a low speed ▪ fire/shoot a mortar — often used before another noun ▪ The soldiers came under mortar fire. ▪ a mortar attack

3 [noncount] : a wet substance that is spread between bricks or stones and that holds them together when it hardens ▪ seal the joints with mortar — see also BRICK-AND-MORTAR, bricks and mortar at [1]BRICK

– mortar verb -tars; -tared; -tar•ing [+ obj] ▪ a building mortared with mud ▪ bricks mortared together mor•tar•board /ˈmoɚtɚˌboɚd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : a hat with a flat square top that is worn for special ceremonies at some schools ▪ The students donned robes and mortarboards for graduation.

[1]mort•gage /ˈmoɚgɪʤ/ noun, pl -gag•es [count] : a legal agreement in which a person borrows money to buy property (such as a house) and pays back the money over a period of years ▪ He will have to take out a mortgage in order to buy the house. ▪ a 30-year mortgage ▪ a $50,000 mortgage ▪ They hope to pay off the mortgage on their home soon. — often used before another noun ▪ a mortgage agreement/banker/lender/loan ▪ Mortgage rates are down. — see also REVERSE MORTGAGE

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 76 SESS: 44 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

[2]mortgage verb -gages; -gaged; -gag•ing [+ obj] : to give someone a legal claim on (property that you own) in exchange for money that you will pay back over a period of years ▪ She mortgaged her house in order to buy the restaurant.

mortgage the/your future chiefly US, disapproving : to borrow a large amount of money that will have to be paid back in the future or to do something that may cause problems for you in the future ▪ The city has mortgaged its future to pay for the new stadium. ▪ Some critics say that she has mortgaged her political future on a program that is likely to fail.

mort•gag•ee /ˌmoəgɪˈʤiː/ noun, pl -ees [count] law : a person or organization (such as a bank) that lends money to someone for buying property mort•gag•or /ˌmoəgɪˈʤoə/ also mort•gag•er /ˈmoəgɪʤə/ noun, pl -ors also -ers [count] law : a person who borrows money for buying property : a person who takes out a mortgage in order to buy property mor•ti•cian /moəˈtɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] US, formal : a person whose job is to prepare dead people to be buried and to arrange and manage funerals : UNDERTAKER

mor•ti•fy /ˈmoətəˌfaɪ/ verb -fies; -fied; -fy•ing [+ obj] : to cause (someone) to feel very embarrassed and foolish ▪ Her behavior mortified her parents. = Her parents were mortified by her behavior. ▪ It mortified me to have to admit that I'd never actually read the book.

– mor•ti•fi•ca•tion /ˌmoətəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ He was filled with mortification when he realized his mistake. ▪ Imagine my mortification when I realized who she was! – mortified adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ I was completely mortified when I realized who she was. – mortifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a completely mortifying experience – mor•ti•fy•ing•ly adv ▪ a mortifyingly stupid mistake

mortis see RIGOR MORTIS

mor•tise also Brit mor•tice /ˈmoətəs/ noun, pl -tis•es [count] technical : a hole that is cut in a piece of wood or other material so that another piece (called a tenon) will fit into it to form a connection

mortise lock or Brit mortice lock noun, pl ~ locks [count] chiefly Brit : DEAD BOLT

[1]mor•tu•ary /ˈmoəʧəˌweri, Brit ˈmɔːʧuəri/ noun, pl -ar•ies [count]

1 US : FUNERAL HOME

2 chiefly Brit : MORGUE 1 ▪ a hospital mortuary

[2]mortuary adj, always used before a noun, formal : of or relating to death or burial ▪ mortuary ceremonies/customs/rituals

mo•sa•ic /moʊˈzejɪk/ noun, pl -ics

1 : a decoration on a surface made by pressing small pieces of colored glass or stone into a soft material that then hardens to make pictures or patterns [count] a church decorated with old mosaics [noncount] a picture done in mosaic — often used before another noun ▪ a mosaic floor ▪ mosaic glass/tiles

mosaic

2 [count] : something made up of different things that together form a pattern — usually singular ▪ a complex mosaic of islands ▪ the country's ethnic/political/religious/social mosaic

mo•sey /ˈmoʊzi/ verb mo•seys; mo•seyed; mo•sey•ing [no obj] US, informal : to walk or move in a slow and relaxed way ▪ I think I'll mosey (on) over to the post office and see if the mail has come in yet. ▪ He moseyed up to the bar.

mosey along [phrasal verb] informal : to go away : LEAVE ▪ I'm finished here, so I'll just mosey along now.

mosh /ˈmɑːʃ/ verb mosh•es; moshed; mosh•ing [no obj] informal : to dance in a wild and rough way near the stage at a rock concert

– mosh•er noun, pl -ers [count]

mosh pit noun, pl ~ pits [count] informal : an area in front of a stage at a rock concert where people dance in a wild and rough way

Mos•lem /ˈmɑːzləm/ variant spelling of MUSLIM ✧ The spelling Moslem is old-fashioned and is sometimes considered offensive. It should be avoided.

mosque /ˈmɑːsk/ noun, pl mosques [count] : a building that is used for Muslim religious services

mos•qui•to /məˈskiːtoʊ/ noun, pl -toes also -tos [count] : a small flying insect that bites the skin of people and animals and sucks their blood ▪ a swarm of mosquitoes ▪ the bite of a mosquito = a mosquito bite ✧ Mosquitoes sometimes spread serious diseases like malaria. — see color picture on page C10

mosquito net noun, pl ~ nets [count] : a net that is placed over something (such as a bed) in order to keep out mosquitoes

moss /ˈmɑːs/ noun, pl moss•es : a type of green plant that has very small leaves and no flowers and that grows on rocks, bark, or wet ground [noncount] Moss covered the fallen logs. [count] ferns and mosses — see also PEAT MOSS, SPANISH MOSS

– moss•like /ˈmɑːsˌlaɪk/ adj – mossy /ˈmɑːsi/ adj moss•i•er; -est ▪ a mossy roof [=a roof covered with moss] ▪ mossy rocks/stones

[1]most /ˈmoʊst/ adj

1 : almost all : the majority of — usually used before a plural noun ▪ Most people believe this. ▪ Most eligible voters went to the polls. ▪ I'm afraid of most dogs, but not this one. ▪ I like most foods.

2 : greatest in amount or degree ▪ Choosing a color took the most time. ▪ That family owned the most land. ▪ Unfortunately the negative aspects of our schools get the most attention.

for the most part 1 : almost all or almost completely ▪ Menu items are, for the most part, under $5. [=almost all the menu items cost less than $5] ▪ We wanted to keep it simple, and I think we were successful for the most part. 2 — used to describe a condition or situation that usually exists or is true ▪ Streets fill with people during the festival, but for the most part [=usually, most of the time] it's a quiet, sleepy town.

[2]most adv

1 : in or to the greatest degree ▪ Of all the gifts he received that day, the book pleased him most. ▪ What matters most to you? ▪ The island is the most southern in the chain. ▪ You'll benefit most from the exercises if you do them every day. ▪ most active/important ▪ most actively/importantly ▪ It's the most challenging job she has ever had. ▪ the most beautiful woman there ▪ Even the most careful of us make mistakes. ▪ the most common/popular kind ▪ The report shows the intersections at which accidents are most likely to occur. ▪ the most widely used treatment

2 somewhat formal : to a great extent : VERY ▪ He is a most careful driver. ▪ Their argument was most persuasive.

– compare [5]MOST

[3]most noun

at most or at the most : not more than a specified amount, level, etc. ▪ It took an hour at most. [=it took no more than an hour; it took an hour or less than an hour] ▪ She only worked here for a month or two at the most. ▪ It costs, at most, only a few dollars. ▪ This is worth $10 at most.

make the most of : to use (something) in a way that will get the best result ▪ She was determined to make the most of the opportunity.

the most : something of the greatest importance, strength, value, etc. ▪ The most I can give you is $10. [=I can give you $10, but I can't give you more than $10] ▪ Is that the most you can do? ▪ You'll need to make wise investments if you want get the most out of your money. ▪ A second chance is the most we can hope for now. ▪ He tries hard, but that's the most [=all] we can say for him. [=the best thing we can say about him is that he tries hard]

[4]most pronoun

1 : the largest number of people or things ▪ Some people kept working, but most became discouraged and quit. ▪ Some of the chairs were broken but most were in good condition. ▪ Most (of the people) who were present voted in favor of the proposal. ▪ Most of them will appreciate the offer. ▪ She was more fragile than most.

2 : the largest part of something ▪ Most of it is hidden from view. ▪ They spent most of the decade overseas.

[5]most adv, US, informal : very nearly : ALMOST — usually used with the adjectives all, every, and any; the pronouns all, everyone, everything, everybody, anyone, anything, and anybody; and the adverbs everywhere, anywhere, and always ▪ The cost of most everything is higher. ▪ Most anyone can go. ▪ most everywhere in the country ▪ We'll be arriving most any time now. ▪ They most always skip lunch. — compare [2]MOST

-most /moʊst/ adj suffix : in or to the greatest degree : MOST ▪ inner*most* ▪ outer*most* ▪ top*most*

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 77 SESS: 45 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:12 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

most•ly /ˈmoʊstli/ adv
1 — used to say that a statement you are making is true or correct at most times or that it describes a usual situation or condition ▪ He gets around mostly [=mainly, chiefly] by car. [=he usually uses a car to get around] ▪ "What did you do this weekend?" "I worked in the yard, mostly." [=I spent most of my time working in the yard] ▪ I concentrated mostly [=mainly] on getting good grades when I was in college.
2 : almost all or almost completely ▪ The story was mostly accurate. [=most of the story was accurate] ▪ The people at the concert were mostly older people. [=most of the people were older people]

MOT /ˌɛmˌoʊˈti:/ noun, pl MOTs or MOT's [count] Brit : an official test of all cars and other vehicles in Britain that are more than three years old to make sure that they are safe to drive — called also MOT test

mote /ˈmoʊt/ noun, pl motes [count] old-fashioned : a very small piece of dust, dirt, etc. ▪ a mote [=speck] of dust ▪ dust motes mo•tel /moʊˈtɛl/ noun, pl -tels [count] : a place that is next to a road and that has rooms for people to stay in especially when they are traveling by car ✧ The rooms of a motel are usually reached directly from an outdoor parking lot.

moth /ˈmɑ:θ/ noun, pl moths /ˈmɑðz/ [count] : a kind of insect that is similar to a butterfly but that flies mostly at night and is usually less colorful — see color picture on page C10; see also GYPSY MOTH ✧ Some types of small moths eat holes in clothing.

[1]moth•ball /ˈmɑ:θˌbɑ:l/ noun, pl -balls
1 [count] : a small ball that contains a strong-smelling chemical and that is used to keep moths away from stored clothing
2 mothballs [plural] — used in phrases like in/into mothballs and out of mothballs to describe something that is stored without being used for a long time ▪ Many ships in the navy's fleet were put in mothballs after the war. ▪ a computer system that has gone into mothballs ▪ The old ship is being taken out of mothballs. — sometimes used to describe a person (such as a performer) who has not been seen for a long time ▪ an old comedian who is being brought out of mothballs to star in a new television show

[2]mothball verb -balls; -balled; -ball•ing [+ obj] : to stop using (something) while keeping it to be possibly used in the future ▪ Many navy ships were mothballed after the war.

moth–eat•en /ˈmɑ:θˌi:tn/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having holes caused by moths : eaten into by moths ▪ a moth-eaten sweater/sofa — often used figuratively ▪ a moth-eaten [=outdated, antiquated] computer system

[1]moth•er /ˈmʌðə/ noun, pl -ers
1 [count] : a female parent ▪ She became a mother when she was in her 20s. ▪ She's the mother of three small children. ▪ She has been like a mother to me. ▪ Our dog is the mother of all those puppies. ▪ She has always been close to her mother. ▪ an expectant mother [=a woman who is pregnant] ▪ She is a single mother. [=a mother who does not have a husband or partner] — see also BIRTH MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER, QUEEN MOTHER, STEPMOTHER, SURROGATE MOTHER
2 [count] : a woman who is thought of as being like a mother ▪ She was a mother to me after my own mother died. — see also DEN MOTHER
3 a [count] : a woman who invents or begins something — usually singular ▪ She is regarded as the mother of an entire industry. ▪ the mother of an important social movement b [singular] : a cause or origin of something ▪ Some say that scandal is the mother of reform.
4 [count] : MOTHER SUPERIOR — used especially as a title or as a form of address ▪ Mother Teresa ▪ Thank you, Mother.
5 [singular] informal — used to say that something is larger, better, worse, etc., than all other things of the same kind ▪ It has been described as the mother of all construction projects. [=an extremely large construction project]
6 [count] US, offensive : MOTHERFUCKER ▪ That guy is one mean mother.
learn (something) at your mother's knee see [1]KNEE necessity is the mother of invention — used to say that new ways to do things are found or created when there is a strong and special need for them
– moth•er•hood /ˈmʌðəˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] ▪ She is looking forward to marriage and motherhood. – moth•er•less /ˈmʌðələs/ adj ▪ Her death left three motherless children. ▪ a motherless calf

[2]mother verb -ers; -ered; -er•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give birth to (a child) ▪ She mothered two sons but no daughters.
2 : to be or act as mother to (someone) : to care for or protect (someone) like a mother ▪ He says he's old enough to care for himself and he doesn't want to be mothered. [=he doesn't want to be cared for as if he were a child]
– moth•er•ing /ˈmʌðərɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ a sensitive child who needs careful mothering – mothering adj ▪ her mothering [=maternal] abilities/instincts moth•er•board /ˈmʌðəˌboəd/ noun, pl -boards [count] : the main circuit board of a computer mother country noun, pl ~ -tries [count]

1 : the country where people who live in a colony or former colony came from — usually singular; usually used with the ▪ The colonies rebelled against the mother country.
2 : the country where you were born or where your family came from : MOTHERLAND — usually singular ▪ Her books have sold better abroad than in her mother country. — often used with the ▪ an immigrant's nostalgia for the mother country

Mother Earth noun [singular] — used to refer to the planet Earth as a woman or a goddess ▪ to respect/worship Mother Earth ▪ We must protect the resources of Mother Earth.

mother gure noun, pl ~ -ures [count] : an older woman who is respected and admired like a mother ▪ Camp counselors are mother figures to many of the girls at the camp.

moth•er•fuck•er /ˈmʌðəˌfʌkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US, offensive
1 : an annoying person or thing ▪ a stupid motherfucker
2 : a person or thing that is impressive in some way ▪ He's a strong motherfucker. ✧ This is one of the most offensive words in U.S. English and should be avoided.

moth•er•fuck•ing /ˈmʌdəˌfʌkɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US, offensive — used to make an angry statement more forceful ▪ a motherfucking jerk ✧ This is one of the most offensive words in U.S. English and should be avoided.

mother hen noun, pl ~ hens [count] : a person who worries about, cares for, or watches over other people in a way that is annoying or unwanted ▪ a football coach who fusses over his players like a mother hen

Mothering Sunday noun, pl ~ -days [count, noncount] Brit, old-fashioned : MOTHER'S DAY

moth•er–in–law /ˈmʌðərənˌlɑ:/ noun, pl moth•ers–in–law /ˈmʌðərzənˌlɑ:/ [count] : the mother of your husband or wife mother–in–law apartment noun, pl ~ -ments [count] US : IN-LAW APARTMENT moth•er•land /ˈmʌðəˌlænd/ noun [count] : the country where you were born or where your family came from — usually singular ▪ Although she had lived in America for many years, she still spoke the language of her motherland. — often used with the ▪ The whole family wanted to return to the motherland. ✧ Motherland can refer to any country, but it is often associated especially with Russia. — compare FATHERLAND mother lode noun, pl ~ lodes [count] chiefly US : the place where the largest amount of gold, silver, etc., in a particular area can be found — usually singular ▪ a gold miner who struck/hit the mother lode [=who found the place containing the largest amount of gold] — often used figuratively ▪ The library's collection of old newspapers has proven to be a mother lode of information about the town's early history.

moth•er•ly /ˈmʌðəli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : of a mother ▪ She took her motherly duties very seriously. ▪ motherly [=maternal] instincts : resembling a mother ▪ a motherly nurse : showing the affection or concern of a mother ▪ motherly advice

Mother Nature noun [singular] — used to refer to the natural world as if it were a woman ▪ the forces of Mother Nature ▪ an athlete whose talents are a gift from Mother Nature

moth•er–of–pearl /ˌmʌðərəvˈpəl/ noun [noncount] : a hard, shiny, and smooth substance that is on the insides of the shells of some shellfish (such as mussels) and that is used to decorate objects (such as buttons)

Mother's Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] : the second Sunday in May in the U.S. and the fourth Sunday in Lent in Britain treated as a special day for honoring mothers mother ship noun, pl ~ ships [count] : a large ship or spaceship that sends out boats or smaller spaceships to explore, do scientific research, etc.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 78 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

Mother Superior noun, pl ~ -ors [count] : a woman who is the head of a convent ▪ the watchful eye of the Mother Superior — often used as a form of address ▪ Good morning, Mother Superior. — called also Reverend Mother mother tongue noun, pl ~ tongues [count] : the language that a person learns to speak first ▪ He speaks English fluently but his mother tongue [=native language, first language] is Chinese.

mo•tif /moʊˈtiːf/ noun, pl -tifs [count]
1 : something (such as an important idea or subject) that is repeated throughout a book, story, etc.
2 : a single or repeated design or pattern ▪ The wallpaper has a flower motif.

[1]mo•tion /ˈmoʊʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a : an act or process of moving : MOVEMENT [noncount] All motion stopped. ▪ She has a simple golf swing with no/little wasted motion. [count] a rocking/smooth/steady motion ▪ planetary motions ▪ the rhythmic motions of the waves — see also SLOW MOTION b [count] : a movement of your body or of a part of your body ▪ He caught the ball and flipped it back to me in one fluid motion. ▪ She made a motion [=gesture] to her assistant. ▪ The wax should be applied using a circular motion. ▪ He made hand motions to get our attention.
2 [count] a : a formal suggestion or proposal that is made at a meeting for something to be done ▪ She made a motion calling for the repeal of the law. ▪ Her motion was voted on. ▪ She made a motion that the meeting (should) be adjourned. = She made a motion to adjourn (the meeting). b law : a formal request made to a court of law or judge for something to be done or happen ▪ His lawyer filed a motion for a mistrial. ▪ Her lawyer has filed a motion that the case (should) be dismissed. ▪ The judge denied a motion to delay the hearing.
3 [count] Brit, medical a : an act of passing solid waste from the body : a bowel movement b : the solid waste that is passed from the body go through the motions : to do something without making much effort to do it well ▪ He claimed that he was looking for a job, but he was really just going through the motions.
in motion 1 : moving ▪ She's a very busy person who's constantly in motion. ▪ He likes taking photographs of people in motion. 2 ✧ When something, such as a plan or process, is in motion or has been set in motion or put in/into motion, it has begun and is proceeding. ▪ They will be taking steps to set/put the divorce proceedings in motion. [=to begin the divorce proceedings] ▪ The plan has been put into motion.
poetry in motion see POETRY

[2]motion verb -tions; -tioned; -tion•ing : to make a movement of your hand, head, etc., that tells someone to move or act in a certain way [+ obj] They motioned me to come forward. = They motioned me forward. ▪ The guard motioned us through the gate. [no obj] She motioned to her assistant. ▪ He motioned (to me) with one hand while opening the door with the other. ▪ She motioned at the empty chair beside her and told me to sit down.

mo•tion•less /ˈmoʊʃənləs/ adj : not moving ▪ He stood there absolutely motionless, waiting for her to speak.

motion picture noun, pl ~ -tures [count] US : MOVIE, FILM ▪ He was given a starring role in a major motion picture. ▪ the motion-picture industry motion sickness noun [noncount] : a feeling of sickness caused by the motion of a car, airplane, boat, etc. — called also (Brit) travel sickness

mo•ti•vate /ˈmoʊtəˌveɪt/ verb -vates; -vat•ed; -vat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to give (someone) a reason for doing something ▪ No one knows what motivated him to act in such a violent way. ▪ The company has used a number of methods to motivate its employees (to work harder). — often used as (be) motivated ▪ She said that she was motivated by a desire to help children.
2 : to be a reason for (something) ▪ He denied that political pressures had motivated his decision. = He denied that his decision was politically motivated. [=done for political reasons] ▪ a racially motivated crime – motivated adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a highly motivated employee [=an employee who is eager to do work and who wants to be successful] – mo•ti•va•tor /ˈmoʊtəˌveɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The fear of failure can be a powerful motivator.

mo•ti•va•tion /ˌmoʊtəˈveɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 [noncount] a : the act or process of giving someone a reason for doing something : the act or process of motivating someone ▪ Some students need motivation to help them through school. b : the condition of being eager to act or work : the condition of being motivated ▪ employees who lack motivation
2 : a force or influence that causes someone to do something [noncount] His behavior seemed to be without motivation. = There seemed to be no motivation [=reason, motive] for his behavior. [count] Many people have questioned her motivations in choosing to run for office at this time.
– mo•ti•va•tion•al /ˌmoʊtəˈveɪʃənl/ adj ▪ a motivational speech [=a speech that is intended to motivate people]

[1]mo•tive /ˈmoʊtɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] : a reason for doing something ▪ Their motive in running away was to avoid being punished. ▪ I think he's guilty of the crime. He had the motive, the means, and the opportunity. ▪ She denied that her offer to help was based on selfish motives. ▪ hidden/ulterior motives ▪ making decisions based on the profit motive [=the desire to make a profit] — often + for ▪ No one knows the main/real/underlying motive for his behavior.
– mo•tive•less /ˈmoʊtɪvləs/ adj

[2]motive adj, always used before a noun, technical : of, relating to, or causing motion ▪ motive power mot•ley /ˈmɑːtli/ adj [more ~; most ~] usually disapproving : made up of many different people or things ▪ a motley collection of junk ▪ a motley crew/group of musicians mo•to•cross /ˈmoʊtoʊˌkrɑːs/ noun [noncount] : the sport of racing motorcycles over a rough course with many hills, sharp turns, etc.

[1]mo•tor /ˈmoʊtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a machine that produces motion or power for doing work ▪ a gasoline motor [=engine] ▪ electric motors — see also OUTBOARD MOTOR
2 chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned : CAR – mo•tor•less /ˈmoʊtələs/ adj ▪ a motorless lawn mower ▪ a motorless boat

[2]motor adj, always used before a noun
1 a : of, relating to, used in, or involving a vehicle that is powered by a motor (such as a car or motorcycle) ▪ a motor mechanic/trip/accident ▪ motor fuel/oil ▪ motor racing/sports b : having a motor ▪ a motor [=motorized] cart
2 technical : of or relating to the part of the nervous system that controls the movement of muscles ▪ motor nerves/activities ▪ motor areas of the brain ▪ a motor reaction

[3]motor verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition -tors; -tored; -tor•ing [no obj]
1 : to travel in a car : DRIVE ▪ We spent the afternoon motoring through the countryside.
2 of a car, truck, etc. : to move in a specified manner or direction : DRIVE ▪ The car motored slowly up the hill.

mo•tor•bike /ˈmoʊtəˌbaɪk/ noun, pl -bikes [count]
1 US : a small motorcycle
2 Brit : [1]MOTORCYCLE

mo•tor•boat /ˈmoʊtəˌboʊt/ noun, pl -boats [count] : a boat with a motor — see picture at BOAT mo•tor•cade /ˈmoʊtəˌkeɪd/ noun, pl -cades [count] : a group or line of cars or other vehicles that travel together ▪ a presidential motorcade [=a line of vehicles that includes a car carrying the President]

mo•tor•car /ˈmoʊtəˌkɑə/ noun, pl -cars [count] old-fashioned : CAR ▪ driving an antique motorcar motor court noun, pl ~ courts [count] US : MOTEL — used chiefly in the names of motels ▪ We stayed overnight at the Pleasant Valley Motor Court.

[1]mo•tor•cy•cle /ˈmoʊtəˌsaɪkəl/ noun, pl -cy•cles [count] : a vehicle with two wheels that is powered by a motor and that can carry one or two people ▪ ride (on) a motorcycle ▪ a motorcycle race/accident — see picture on the next page

[2]motorcycle verb -cy•cles; -cy•cled; -cy•cling [no obj] : to ride on a motorcycle ▪ He spent his vacation motorcycling across the country.
– mo•tor•cy•clist /ˈmoʊtəˌsaɪkəlɪst/ noun, pl -clists [count] ▪ a law requiring motorcyclists to wear helmets motor home noun, pl ~ homes [count] : a type of vehicle that people can live and sleep in when they are traveling — compare MOBILE HOME motoring adj, always used before a noun, chiefly Brit : involving or relating to cars or driving ▪ a motoring accident/offense motor inn noun, pl ~ inns [count] US : MOTEL; especially : a large motel — used chiefly in the names of motels ▪ We stayed at the South Bridge Motor Inn.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 79 SESS: 46 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:13 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mo•tor•ist /ˈmoʊtərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who drives a car ▪ When our car broke down, we were helped by a passing motorist. ▪ an uninsured motorist

mo•tor•ized also Brit mo•tor•ised /ˈmoʊtəˌraɪzd/ adj
1 : having a motor ▪ motorized vehicles ▪ a motorized bicycle/wheelchair
2 : using motorized vehicles ▪ motorized troops mo•tor•man /ˈmoʊtəmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man whose job is to drive a subway train or a streetcar mo•tor•mouth /ˈmoʊtəˌmaʊθ/ noun, pl -mouths [count] informal : a person who talks too much motor pool noun, pl ~ pools [count] : a group of vehicles that are available for use motor scooter noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a small vehicle with two wheels that is powered by a motor and that has a low seat and a flat area for resting your feet — called also scooter; see picture at MOTORCYCLE motor vehicle noun, pl ~ -hi•cles [count] : a vehicle (such as a car, truck, or motorcycle) that is powered by a motor ▪ You can register your car at the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

mo•tor•way /ˈmoʊtəˌweɪ/ noun, pl -ways [count] Brit : a large highway : EXPRESSWAY mot•tled /ˈmɑːtld/ adj [more ~; most ~] : marked with colored spots or areas ▪ a tree with mottled leaves ▪ mottled skin ▪ a fabric mottled with green and yellow mot•to /ˈmɑːtoʊ/ noun, pl mot•toes also mot•tos [count] : a short sentence or phrase that expresses a rule guiding the behavior of a particular person or group ▪ "Hope for the best and prepare for the worst" is my motto. ▪ The Boy Scout motto is "Be prepared."

mould Brit spelling of MOLD

moulder Brit spelling of MOLDER

moulding Brit spelling of MOLDING mouldy Brit spelling of MOLDY moult Brit spelling of MOLT

[1]mound /ˈmaʊnd/ noun, pl mounds [count]
1 : a small hill or pile of dirt or stones ▪ the burial mounds of an ancient people
2 : the slightly raised area of ground on which a baseball pitcher stands ▪ the pitcher's/pitching mound
3 : a heap or pile of something ▪ a mound of dirty laundry ▪ a mound of snow ▪ a mound of mashed potatoes — sometimes used figuratively ▪ We have a mound of work to do. [=we have a lot of work to do] ▪ an athlete who has earned mounds of money [=a large amount of money]

[2]mound verb mounds; mound•ed; mound•ing [+ obj] chiefly US
1 : to make a pile with or of (something) ▪ He mounded the food onto his plate. ▪ The snow was mounded (up) on both sides of the road. [=there was a pile of snow on both sides of the road]
2 : to cover (something) with a pile of something ▪ His plate was mounded with food. [=there was a pile of food on his plate] ▪ a desk mounded with books and papers

[1]mount /ˈmaʊnt/ verb mounts; mount•ed; mount•ing
1 [+ obj] : to go or climb up (something) ▪ mount a ladder ▪ mount the stairs : to climb up onto (something) ▪ mount a platform
2 [no obj] : to increase in amount ▪ Their troubles have continued to mount. ▪ The pressure mounted as the crisis continued. ▪ Costs can mount (up) very quickly.
3 : to seat yourself on a horse, bicycle, etc. [+ obj] The cowboy mounted his horse and then quickly dismounted. ▪ She mounted her bicycle and rode away. [no obj] The cowboy mounted (up) and rode off.
4 [+ obj] : to attach (something) to something for support or use ▪ The jeweler mounted the pearl in a ring. ▪ She mounted the photograph to a piece of cardboard. — often + on ▪ The airplane's engines are mounted on the wings. [=are attached to the wings] ▪ He mounted a rack on the roof of his car. ▪ The speakers were mounted on the walls. ▪ He mounted a specimen on a slide for examination with a microscope.
5 [+ obj] : to organize and do (something that usually requires the effort of many people) ▪ mount an assault/attack ▪ The police have mounted a nationwide search for the killer. ▪ She is expected to mount a serious challenge in the coming election. ▪ The museum is mounting an exhibition of his paintings.
6 [+ obj] of a male animal : to climb onto (a female animal) in order to have sex – mounting adj ▪ The company is faced with mounting [=increasing] costs. ▪ mounting debts/tension/frustration

[2]mount noun, pl mounts [count]
1 : something onto which something else is or can be attached ▪ a lens mount [=the part of a camera where a lens is attached]
2 old-fashioned + literary : a horse that is being ridden by a person ▪ The cowboy got down slowly from his mount.
– compare [3]MOUNT

[3]mount noun, pl mounts [count] : MOUNTAIN — used chiefly in names ▪ Mount Everest — compare [2]MOUNT

moun•tain /ˈmaʊntn/ noun, pl -tains [count]
1 : an area of land that rises very high above the land around it and that is higher than a hill ▪ She watched the sun set behind the mountains. ▪ the Rocky Mountains ▪ He climbed the mountain. ▪ a cabin in the mountains ▪ They both like mountain climbing. ▪ mountain scenery ▪ a mountain range/lake ▪ a mountain man [=a man who lives in the mountains] — see color picture on page C7
2 : a very large amount of something ▪ We've received a mountain of mail. ▪ mountains of data make a mountain out of a molehill see MOLEHILL mountain ash noun, pl ~ ashes [count] : a small tree that produces red berries — called also (Brit) rowan

mountain bike noun, pl ~ bikes [count] : a type of bicycle that has a strong frame, thick tires, and straight handlebars and that is used for riding over rough ground – mountain biker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] – mountain biking noun [noncount] ▪ He enjoys mountain biking.

moun•tain•eer /ˌmaʊntəˈniə/ noun, pl -eers [count] : a person who climbs mountains : a mountain climber – moun•tain•eer•ing /ˌmaʊntəˈnirɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the sport of mountaineering mountain goat noun, pl ~ goats [count] : an animal that has horns and a thick white coat and that lives in the mountains of western North America mountain laurel noun, pl ~ -rels [count] : a North American evergreen tree or bush that has shiny leaves and pink or white flowers mountain lion noun, pl ~ -ons [count] : COUGAR moun•tain•ous /ˈmaʊntənəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : having many mountains ▪ mountainous terrain/country/land ▪ a mountainous area/region
2 : extremely large : HUGE ▪ mountainous costs ▪ mountainous waves moun•tain•side /ˈmaʊntnˌsaɪd/ noun, pl -sides [count] : the side of a mountain ▪ a steep mountainside

moun•tain•top /ˈmaʊntnˌtɑːp/ noun, pl -tops [count] : the top of a mountain ▪ a snowy mountaintop

moun•te•bank /ˈmaʊntiˌbæŋk/ noun, pl -banks [count] old-fashioned + literary : a dishonest person : a person who tricks and cheats other people ▪ a gang of swindlers and mountebanks

mounted adj, usually used before a noun : having a horse or horses for riding ▪ mounted infantry/troops ▪ a mounted policeman

Mount•ie /ˈmaʊnti/ noun, pl -ies [count] : a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police

mount•ing /ˈmaʊntɪŋ/ noun, pl -ings [count] : something on which something else is or can be attached ▪ a mounting

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 80 SESS: 47 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:14 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

for an engine ▪ a mounting for a diamond mourn /ˈmoən/ verb mourns; mourned; mourn•ing

1 : to feel or show great sadness because someone has died [no obj] When he dies, people throughout the world will mourn. [=grieve] — often + for ▪ Thousands mourned for him. [+ obj] She is still mourning her husband, who died last year. ▪ Thousands of people mourned his death/passing. ▪ She was mourned by everyone who knew her.
2 : to feel or show great sadness or unhappiness about (something) [+ obj] She mourned the loss of her youth. ▪ He still mourns the fact that he never went to college. [no obj] — usually + for ▪ She mourned for her lost youth.

mourn•er /ˈmoənə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a person who mourns for someone who has died; especially : a person who goes to someone's funeral ▪ His funeral services attracted hundreds of mourners.

mourn•ful /ˈmoənfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : full of sorrow : very sad ▪ a mournful face ▪ mournful eyes ▪ a mournful song/occasion – mourn•ful•ly /ˈmoənfəli/ adv ▪ He spoke mournfully. – mourn•ful•ness noun [noncount]

mourn•ing /ˈmoənɪŋ/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act of mourning for someone who has died ▪ a day of national mourning ▪ She is still in mourning for her dead husband. ▪ The whole town was in mourning. ▪ She went into mourning for her dead husband. [=she began to mourn for her dead husband]
2 : great sadness felt because someone has died ▪ a period of deep mourning
3 : black clothing that is worn to show that you are mourning for someone who has died ▪ His widow was dressed in mourning.

mouse /ˈmaʊs/ noun, pl mice /ˈmaɪs/ [count]
1 : a very small animal that has a pointed nose and a long, thin tail ▪ The house was infested with mice and rats. ▪ a field mouse [=a type of mouse that lives in fields] ▪ a house mouse [=a type of mouse that lives in people's houses] — sometimes used figuratively to refer to a weak, frightened, or quiet person ▪ Stand up for your rights! What are you—a man or a mouse?! — see picture at RODENT
2 pl also mous•es : a small device that is connected to a computer and that you move with your hand to control the movement of a pointer on the computer screen ▪ He moved the mouse to click on the icon. ▪ (US) a mouse pad = (Brit) a mouse mat [=a small pad that a computer's mouse rests on] — see picture at COMPUTER
– see also CAT AND MOUSE

mous•er /ˈmaʊsə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : a cat that is good at catching mice mouse•trap /ˈmaʊsˌtræp/ noun, pl -traps [count] : a small trap for catching mice

mousetrap

mous•sa•ka /muˈsɑːkə/ noun, pl -kas [count, noncount] : a Greek dish of ground meat (such as lamb or beef) and sliced eggplant

mousse /ˈmuːs/ noun, pl mouss•es [count, noncount]
1 : a cold and sweet food made with whipped cream or egg whites and usually fruit or chocolate ▪ chocolate mousse ▪ a lemon mousse
2 : a foamy substance that is used in styling a person's hair ▪ a jar of styling/hair mousse

moustache chiefly Brit spelling of MUSTACHE

moustachio chiefly Brit spelling of MUSTACHIO

mousy also mous•ey /ˈmaʊsi/ adj mous•i•er; -est
1 : shy and quiet ▪ The movie is a fantasy about a mousy housewife who is transformed into a glamorous star.
2 of hair : dull brown in color ▪ mousy [=drab] brown hair

[1]mouth /ˈmaʊθ/ noun, pl mouths /ˈmaʊðz/
1 : the opening through which food passes into the body : the part of the face that includes the lips and the opening behind them [count] He kissed her on the mouth. ▪ He threatened to punch me in the mouth. ▪ She stood there with her mouth agape/open. ▪ I burned the roof of my mouth. ▪ They told him to keep his mouth closed when chewing and not to talk with his mouth full. ▪ He wiped his mouth with a napkin after eating. ▪ She regretted saying it as soon as the words were out of her mouth. ▪ The smell of the food made my mouth water. ▪ The candy melts in your mouth. ▪ He says something stupid every time he opens his mouth. [=every time he speaks] ▪ The experience left a bad taste in my mouth. [=the experience left me feeling bad or disgusted] [noncount] The medication is taken by mouth.

2 [count] : an opening in something — usually + of ▪ the mouth of a cave/bottle — see also GOAL MOUTH
3 [count] : the place where a river enters the ocean ▪ the mouth of the river = the river's mouth
4 [singular] informal : an unpleasant or offensive way of talking ▪ That guy has quite a mouth on him. ▪ He has a loud mouth. ▪ He cursed and his mother angrily told him to watch his mouth. [=to not use offensive language] — see also BIG MOUTH, LOUDMOUTH, SMART-MOUTH all mouth (and no trousers/action) Brit, informal — used to describe someone who talks a lot about doing something but never actually does it born with a silver spoon in your mouth see BORN
butter wouldn't melt in someone's mouth see [1]BUTTER
by word of mouth see [1]WORD down in the mouth : unhappy or depressed ▪ I was surprised to see her looking so down in the mouth.
foam at the mouth see [2]FOAM from the horse's mouth see [1]HORSE froth at the mouth see [2]FROTH hand to mouth see [1]HAND heart in your mouth see HEART keep your mouth shut 1 : to not say anything ▪ When he starts talking about politics, I just keep my mouth shut. 2 : to not talk about something (such as a secret) ▪ She told me to keep my mouth shut about the news. [=she told me not to tell anyone about the news] ▪ I never tell him anything important because he doesn't know how to keep his mouth shut. [=he tells other people what he has been told]
look a gift horse in the mouth see [1]HORSE
melt in your mouth see [1]MELT mouth to feed : a person (such as a child) who needs to be fed ▪ They can't afford another child. They already have too many (hungry) mouths to feed.
put words in/into someone's mouth see [1]WORD put your foot in your mouth see [1]FOOT put your money where your mouth is see MONEY run your mouth see [1]RUN shoot your mouth off see [1]SHOOT shut your mouth see [1]SHUT take the words right out of someone's mouth see [1]WORD

[2]mouth /ˈmaʊð/ verb mouths; mouthed; mouth•ing [+ obj]
1 : to say or repeat (something) without really meaning it or understanding it ▪ She was just mouthing the usual meaningless platitudes about the need for reform.
2 : to form (words) with your lips without speaking ▪ The librarian mouthed "quiet." ▪ silently mouthing the words to a song mouth off [phrasal verb] informal : to talk in a loud, unpleasant, or rude way ▪ He got in trouble again for mouthing off to his teacher. ▪ She's always mouthing off about how much better she could run the company herself.

-mouthed /ˌmaʊðd/ adj : having a mouth of a specified type — usually used in combination with another adjective ▪ a large-mouthed jar ▪ big-mouthed ▪ loud*mouthed*

mouth•ful /ˈmaʊθˌfʊl/ noun, pl -fuls
1 [count] : as much as a mouth will hold ▪ a mouthful of food/water ▪ It was a delicious meal. We enjoyed every mouthful.
2 [singular] informal a : a word, name, or phrase that is very long or difficult to say ▪ His last name is a real mouthful. b US : something said that has a lot of meaning or importance ▪ You said a mouthful! [=I agree with what you said; you said something that was entirely correct and that was worth saying] mouth organ noun, pl ~ -gans [count] : HARMONICA mouth•piece /ˈmaʊθˌpiːs/ noun, pl -piec•es [count]

1 : a part of something that is placed between or near your lips ▪ the mouthpiece of a trumpet/telephone
2 : someone who speaks for another person or for a group

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 81 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

or organization ▪ He's been acting as a mouthpiece for the government on questions of foreign policy. ▪ The company has hired an attorney as a mouthpiece to answer its critics.

mouth–to–mouth resuscitation noun [noncount] : a method of helping a person who is not breathing to start breathing again by blowing air into the person's mouth and lungs — called also mouth-to-mouth

mouth ulcer noun, pl ~ -cers [count] : CANKER SORE mouth•wash /ˈmaʊθˌwɑːʃ/ noun, pl -wash•es [count, noncount] : a liquid that is used to clean your mouth and teeth and to make your breath smell better mouth–wa•ter•ing /ˈmaʊθˌwɑːtərɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having a very delicious taste or appealing smell ▪ a mouth-watering aroma ▪ mouth-watering food – mouth–wa•ter•ing•ly adv ▪ food that smells mouth-wateringly good mouthy /ˈmaʊθi/ adj mouth•i•er; -est informal : talking too much and often in an unpleasant or rude way ▪ a mouthy show-off

mov•able also move•able /ˈmuːvəbəl/ adj

1 : able to be moved ▪ a movable antenna/partition ▪ movable property — opposite IMMOVABLE

2 : happening on a different date each year ▪ Thanksgiving is a movable holiday. ▪ Easter is a movable feast. [=a religious festival that occurs on a different date each year]

[1]move /ˈmuːv/ verb moves; moved; mov•ing

1 a [+ obj] : to cause (something or someone) to go from one place or position to another ▪ He moved the chair closer to the table. ▪ It may be necessary to move the patient to intensive care. ▪ The breeze moved the branches of the trees. ▪ The knife had sunk deeply into the wood and couldn't be moved. [=budged] b [no obj] : to go from one place or position to another ▪ The boat moved [=rocked] slowly from side to side as the wind rose. ▪ The branches moved gently in the breeze.

2 a : to cause (your body or a part of your body) to go from one position to another [+ obj] She was unable to move her legs. ▪ Nobody moved a muscle. [=nobody moved at all; everyone was very still] [no obj] The dancers moved gracefully. ▪ Nobody moved. ▪ She was so frightened that she could hardly move. ▪ I moved over so that she could sit next to me. b [no obj] : to go or walk from one place to another ▪ We moved into the shade. ▪ The police were moving through the crowd telling people to move toward the exit. ▪ People were moving (about/around) freely. ▪ We could hear someone moving around upstairs. ▪ move along ▪ They moved closer to each other and spoke in whispers.

3 [+ obj] a : to cause (something) to go to a specified place or to proceed in a specified way ▪ The records show that she moved large amounts of money to a foreign bank account. ▪ He lacks enough support to move his proposals through the legislature. b : to cause (something) to happen at a different time ▪ The meeting has been moved [=changed] to this afternoon.

4 always followed by an adverb or preposition : to go to a different and usually higher position [no obj] The team has moved into second place. ▪ She has been steadily moving up the corporate ladder. ▪ Congratulations on your promotion. It's nice to see how you're moving up in the world. [+ obj] A win will move the team into second place.

5 a : to go to a different place to live [no obj] We've had to move twice in the past year. ▪ He didn't like small towns and decided to move to the city. ▪ We're planning to move into a new apartment. ▪ He moved (away) with his family to California. [+ obj] He moved his family to California. ▪ (Brit) We've had to move house twice in the past year. b : to go to a different place to work or do business [no obj] The company is moving from New York to Chicago. [+ obj] The company is moving its offices from New York to Chicago. — see also MOVING 3

6 [+ obj] a : to affect the feelings of (someone) : to cause (someone) to feel an emotion and especially sadness or sympathy ▪ The sad story of his childhood moved us deeply. ▪ I was greatly moved by his story/kindness. ▪ He's not easily moved to anger. [=he does not become angry easily] ▪ His story moved us to tears. [=it affected us so strongly that we cried] — see also MOVING 2 b : to cause (someone) to act or think in a specified way — followed by to + verb ▪ The report moved [=persuaded] me to change my mind. ▪ His arguments moved them to reconsider the plan. ▪ I felt moved [=compelled] to speak. c : to cause (someone) to feel or think in a different way ▪ We were unable to move him from his convictions. ▪ He would not be moved.

7 [no obj] : to take action : ACT ▪ We need to move quickly to close this deal. ▪ He was waiting for the right time to move against his enemies. ▪ She hasn't yet moved on their recommendations. ▪ We must move [=proceed] very carefully to avoid offending them.

8 a : to formally make a suggestion or proposal at a meeting [no obj] — + for ▪ She moved for an adjournment. [+ obj] She moved to adjourn the meeting. = She moved that the meeting be adjourned. b [no obj] law : to make a formal request to a court of law or judge for something to be done or happen — + for ▪ His lawyer moved for a mistrial. ▪ The plaintiff moved for a retrial.

9 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to make progress ▪ The plot of the novel moves [=develops] slowly. ▪ They're moving closer to making a decision.

10 informal : SELL [+ obj] a store that moves a lot of merchandise [no obj] The products have been moving slowly.

11 [no obj] informal : to go fast ▪ When the police car passed us it was really moving.

12 [no obj] : to spend time with a particular group of people or at a particular level of society ▪ She moves in high circles. [=she is friendly with wealthy and powerful people] ▪ She and her sister move in very different circles. [=they are friendly with very different groups of people]

13 [no obj] informal : to leave a place ▪ It was getting late and I thought it was time to be moving. [=going]

14 : to cause a piece in a game (such as chess or checkers) to go from one place to another [+ obj] He moved a pawn. [no obj] It's your turn to move.

as/when the spirit moves you see [1]SPIRIT get moving informal : to start moving or going quickly ▪ We need to get moving [=hurry] or we'll miss the show.

move ahead/along 1 : to make progress ▪ The project is finally starting to move ahead. 2 : to go on to something else ▪ Let's move along [=move on] to the next item.

move heaven and earth : to work very hard to do something ▪ He vowed that he would move heaven and earth to finish the project on schedule.

move in [phrasal verb] 1 : to start living in a house, apartment, etc. ▪ I remember when our neighbors first moved in. ▪ He's planning to move in with his girlfriend. 2 move in on (someone or something) : to move closer or nearer to (someone or something that you are trying to reach, get, etc.) ▪ The police moved in on [=closed in on] the wanted criminal. ▪ The police moved in on the criminal's hideout. ▪ The lion was moving in on its prey. — often used figuratively ▪ Our competitors are trying to move in on our territory. [=trying to get control of our territory] ▪ He was trying to move in on my girlfriend. [=trying to take my girlfriend from me]

move it US, informal : to start moving or going quickly ▪ We'd better move it if we don't want to be late.

move on [phrasal verb] : to go on to a different place, subject, activity, etc. ▪ Let's put that issue aside and move on. ▪ We should move on [=move ahead] to the next item on the list. ▪ After 10 years working for one company, she felt it was time to move on to a new job.

move out [phrasal verb] : to leave your house, apartment, etc., and go to live somewhere else ▪ He was 20 when he moved out of his parents' house. ▪ Her lease ends next month, so she'll have to move out (of her apartment) soon.

[2]move noun, pl moves [count]

1 : an act of moving your body or a part of your body : MOVEMENT ▪ fancy dance moves ▪ He made a sudden move that scared away the squirrel. ▪ an athlete who has some good moves ▪ No one made a move toward the exits. [=no one moved toward the exits] ▪ The policeman warned him not to make any false moves. ▪ He was afraid to make a move.

2 : an action ▪ The police are watching his every move. = The police are watching every move he makes. [=the police are watching everything he does] ▪ No one is sure what his next move will be. ▪ He was waiting for her to make the first move. [=to act first]

3 : the act of moving to a different place ▪ He's preparing for his move to California.

4 : something done to achieve a desired result or goal ▪ Starting her own business was a risky/bold move. ▪ In a move to attract new customers, the company has decided to devote more money to advertising. ▪ a smart/wise move ▪ a good career move [=something done to help a person's career]

5 : an act of moving a piece in a game (such as chess or checkers) ▪ the opening moves in a game of chess ▪ It's your move. [=turn]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 82 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

get a move on informal : to start moving or going quickly ▪ We'd better get a move on if we don't want to be late.

make a move Brit, informal : to leave a place ▪ It's been a lovely evening, but it's time we were making a move.

on the move 1 : moving or going from place to place ▪ As a young man, he was always on the move. 2 : making progress ▪ After a slow start, the project is finally on the move. ▪ a civilization on the move put the moves on US, informal : to do or say things in an effort to start a sexual relationship with someone ▪ He accused me of trying to put the moves on his girlfriend.

move•ment /ˈmu:vmənt/ noun, pl -ments

1 a : the act or process of moving people or things from one place or position to another [noncount] He developed an efficient system for movement of raw materials to the factory. [count] troop movements b : the act of moving from one place or position to another [noncount] increased cell movement [count] studying the movements of the planets c : the act of moving your body or a part of your body [noncount] We wore loose clothes to allow for easier movement. ▪ freedom of movement [count] the graceful movements of a dancer ▪ careful and precise movements ▪ muscle/hand/eye movements

2 movements [plural] : a person's actions or activities ▪ The police have been keeping a careful record of his movements.

3 [count] a : a series of organized activities in which many people work together to do or achieve something ▪ She started a movement [=campaign] for political reform. ▪ There's a movement afoot to rename the town. ▪ a book about the history of the civil rights movement b : the group of people who are involved in such a movement ▪ They joined the anti-war/peace/feminist movement.

4 a : a noticeable change in the way people behave or think [noncount] There has been a movement back to more therapeutic treatments of mental disorders in recent years. [count] There has been some movement to more therapeutic treatments. b : a noticeable change in a situation [noncount] There hasn't been any movement in the negotiations. [=the negotations have not progressed] [count] There has been a movement [=tendency] toward lower prices in the housing market recently. [=prices have been going lower in the housing market recently]

5 [count] music : a main section of a longer piece of music ▪ the first movement of the symphony

6 [count] medical : an act of passing solid waste from the body — called also bowel movement

mov•er /ˈmu:və/ noun, pl -ers [count]

1 : someone or something that moves in a certain way ▪ a slow/fast mover

2 : a machine that moves people or things from one place to another ▪ an earth mover [=a machine that is used to move large amounts of soil] — see also PEOPLE MOVER

3 US : a person or company that moves furniture and other possessions from one home or place of business to another ▪ a furniture mover [=(Brit) remover]

movers and shakers : people who are active or powerful in some field ▪ the movers and shakers of the computer industry ▪ political movers and shakers

mov•ie /ˈmu:vi/ noun, pl -ies chiefly US

1 [count] : a recording of moving images that tells a story and that people watch on a screen or television ▪ He's making a movie [=film, motion picture] about growing up in a small town. ▪ a Hollywood movie ▪ We went to (see) a movie after dinner. ▪ Do you want to rent a movie [=rent a video or DVD] tonight? ▪ an action movie ▪ a horror movie — often used before another noun ▪ a movie star/producer/director ▪ a movie camera/studio ▪ the movie business/industry ▪ a movie critic/review ▪ a movie house/theater — see also HOME MOVIE

2 the movies a : a showing of a movie in a theater ▪ We are going to the movies tonight. [=we are going to see a movie tonight]; also : a movie theater ▪ What's (playing/showing) at the movies? b : the business of making movies : the film industry ▪ He wants to work in the movies. ▪ a career in the movies

mov•ie•go•er /ˈmu:viˌgowə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who goes to a theater to watch movies

mov•ie•mak•er /ˈmu:viˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who makes movies : FILMMAKER

– mov•ie•mak•ing /ˈmu:viˌmeɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ a talent for moviemaking

moving adj

1 : changing place or position ▪ a moving target ▪ the machine's moving parts

2 [more ~; most ~] : having a strong emotional effect : causing feelings of sadness or sympathy ▪ a moving story of a faithful dog ▪ The tribute was very moving. [=touching] ▪ He gave a moving speech at the memorial service.

3 always used before a noun : relating to the activity or process of moving to a different place to live or work ▪ moving expenses moving force/spirit : someone or something that causes something to happen ▪ one of modern sculpture's moving spirits ▪ He has been the moving force/spirit behind the project from the beginning.

– mov•ing•ly adv ▪ He spoke movingly at the memorial service.

moving picture noun, pl ~ -tures [count] old-fashioned : MOVIE moving staircase noun, pl ~ -cases [count] old-fashioned : ESCALATOR moving van noun, pl ~ vans [count] US : a large vehicle in which furniture and other things are moved from one home or building to another — called also (Brit) removal van

[1]mow /ˈmoʊ/ verb mows; mowed; mowed or mown /ˈmoʊn/; mow•ing [+ obj] : to cut (something, such as grass) with a machine or a blade ▪ mow the grass ▪ mow hay ▪ mow the lawn [=cut the grass that grows on the lawn]

mow down [phrasal verb] mow (someone) down or mow down (someone) informal : to kill or knock down (a person or many people) in a sudden and violent way ▪ The soldiers were mowed down by machine guns. ▪ The car mowed down four pedestrians.

– mow•er /ˈmowə/ noun, pl -ers [count]

[2]mow noun, pl mows [count] informal : an act of mowing something (such as a lawn) ▪ The lawn needs a mow. [=needs to be mowed]

mox•ie /ˈmɑ:ksi/ noun [noncount] US, informal + old-fashioned

1 : the ability to be active : ENERGY ▪ full of moxie [=pep]

2 : courage or determination ▪ He showed a lot of moxie in questioning the policy.

moz•za•rel•la /ˌmɑ:tsəˈrɛlə/ noun [noncount] : a soft Italian cheese that has a mild flavor

MP /ˈɛmˈpi:/ noun, pl MPs [count]

1 : a member of the military police

2 Brit : an elected member of Parliament mpg abbr miles per gallon ▪ a car that gets 30 mpg

mph abbr miles per hour ▪ a car traveling 60 mph

MP3 /ˌɛmˌpi:ˈθri:/ noun, pl MP3s

1 [noncount] : a computer format for creating sound files (such as songs) that are much smaller than standard sound files — often used before another noun ▪ MP3 files ▪ an MP3 player [=a device that stores and plays songs in the MP3 format]

2 [count] : a computer file (such as a song) in the MP3 format ▪ downloading MP3s off the Internet

Mr. (US) or Brit Mr /ˈmɪstə/ noun

1 a — used as a title before the name of a man ▪ Mr. Doe ▪ How are you, Mr. Jones? ▪ Mr. John Doe — compare MISTER; see also MESSRS. b — used as a title when speaking to a man who has an honored position or office ▪ "It's an honor to meet you, Mr. President/Chairman."

2 a — used as part of a title for a man who has won a contest ▪ Mr. Universe b — used to refer to a man who is very successful and famous for a particular activity (such as a sport) or who has a particular quality ▪ He came to be known as Mr. Baseball. ▪ She thinks her boyfriend is Mr. Wonderful. [=she thinks her boyfriend is wonderful]

Mr. Big (US) or Brit Mr Big noun [singular] informal : a very powerful or important man; especially : the leader of a group of criminals

MRI /ˌɛmˌɑəˈaɪ/ noun, pl MRIs medical

1 [noncount] : MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING ▪ an MRI machine/scanner

2 [count] : a procedure in which magnetic resonance imaging is used ▪ He had an MRI (done) on his knee.

Mr. Nice Guy (US) or Brit Mr Nice Guy noun [singular] informal : a man who treats people kindly : a nice man — used chiefly in the phrase no more Mr. Nice Guy ▪ I'm tired of the way they treat me. From now on, no more Mr. Nice Guy! [=I'm not going to be nice to them from now on]

Mr. Right (US) or Brit Mr Right noun [singular] informal : a man who would be the best husband for a particular woman

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 83 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:15 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

▪ She's still looking for Mr. Right. [=the perfect man for her to marry]

Mrs. (US) or Brit Mrs /ˈmɪsəz/ noun
1 a — used as a title for a married woman ▪ Mrs. Smith ▪ Mrs. Jane Smith ▪ Mrs. Robert Smith [=the wife of Robert Smith] — compare MISS, MS. b — used as a title when speaking to a married woman who holds an honored position or office ▪ "It's an honor to meet you, Mrs. [=(more commonly) Madam] President/Chairman."
2 a — used as part of a title for a married woman who has won a contest ▪ Mrs. America b — used to refer to a married woman who is very successful and famous for a particular activity (such as a sport) or who has a particular quality ▪ She has come to be known as Mrs. Golf. ▪ He thinks his wife is Mrs. Wonderful. [=he thinks his wife is wonderful]

Ms. (US) or Brit Ms /ˈmɪz/ noun — used as a title before a woman's name instead of Miss or Mrs. ▪ Ms. Smith ▪ Ms. Jane Smith ✧ Ms. can be used whether or not a woman is married. — compare MISS, MRS.

MS abbr 1 Mississippi 2 multiple sclerosis

MSG /ˌɛmˌɛsˈʤi:/ noun [noncount] : MONOSODIUM GLUTAMATE

MT abbr 1 Montana 2 mountain time

[1]much /ˈmʌʧ/ adj : large in amount or extent : not little ▪ Much research [=a lot of research] was carried out. ▪ Fixing the problem will require much effort. [=a lot of effort] ▪ The project is taking too much time. [=is taking more time than it should] ▪ I can't believe that we spent so much money. [=such a large amount of money] — often used in questions and in negative statements ▪ How much money do you have? ▪ Was there much food at the party? ▪ He doesn't know much French. ▪ There wasn't much more that we could do. ▪ It doesn't cost much money. ▪ There isn't much difference between them. ▪ The clerk wasn't much help. [=was not very helpful] ▪ There wasn't much doubt about who would win.
a bit much see [1]BIT never so much as see NEVER so much — used for emphasis ▪ The house burned like so much paper. [=it burned as if it were made of paper] ▪ The explanation sounded like so much nonsense. [=it sounded like a lot of nonsense] too much 1 : too difficult to accept or deal with ▪ Working two jobs was too much (for him). 2 informal : very unusual in either an enjoyable or annoying way ▪ I can't believe the way he talks. That guy is too much. ▪ We laughed so hard. It was just too much.

[2]much adv
1 a : to a great degree or extent ▪ I'm feeling much better. ▪ much happier/prettier/wealthier ▪ The new car is much better on gas mileage. ▪ They both talk too much. ▪ Thank you so/very much for your help. b : VERY, EXTREMELY ▪ He is much interested in the project. ▪ They were much pleased by the compliment. ▪ some much-needed repairs ▪ a much-deserved vacation ▪ He's not much good at golf. [=he plays golf badly; he is not a good golfer] c : FREQUENTLY, OFTEN ▪ She doesn't visit her family much. ▪ Do you travel much? d : by a long time ▪ He didn't arrive much before noon. [=he didn't arrive until almost noon]
2 : very nearly ▪ The town still looks much [=essentially] the way it did years ago. ▪ The town looks much the same. ▪ We came to much the same conclusion. ▪ We left the house much as we found it.
as much : the same ▪ I helped her through the divorce—I know she would do as much for me. [=I know that she would help me if I were going through a divorce] ▪ He likes baseball but he likes hockey just as much. ▪ "Where is he?" "He's still at home." "I thought as much." [=I thought so; that is what I thought] as much as 1 — used to say that two things are equal in amount or degree ▪ He likes hockey as much as he likes basketball. [=he likes hockey and basketball equally] 2 : ALMOST — used to say that someone came very close to doing something ▪ He as much as admitted his guilt.
much as : ALTHOUGH ▪ She knew the truth, much as [=even though] she wanted to deny it.
much less see [2]LESS pretty much see [2]PRETTY so much as see [1]SO so much the better see [3]BETTER very much — used for emphasis ▪ She is very much [=entirely, decidedly] in control of the situation. ▪ The company is still very much an important part of the community.

[3]much pronoun
1 : a large amount ▪ Much that was said is false. ▪ We all learned much [=a lot] from this experience. ▪ He gave away much of what he owned. ▪ Not much is known about his childhood. ▪ She did much to improve the city. ▪ Do you see much of your family? [=do you see your family often?] ▪ She's trying to do too much. [=trying to do more than she should]
2 : something that is important or impressive — used in negative statements ▪ There was some food there, but it wasn't much. [=there was not much food] ▪ The evidence didn't amount to much. [=there was not much evidence] ▪ Her contributions didn't add up to much. [=her contributions were not important] ▪ Before the renovations, the house was not much to look at. [=was not attractive] as much as — used to say that an amount is as large as another amount ▪ She earns as much as he does.
make much of see [1]MAKE not much of a — used to say that someone or something is not very good ▪ He's not much of a cook. [=he's not a very good cook] ▪ It wasn't much of a vacation.
not much on : not known for, good at, or interested in (something) ▪ He's not much on looks. [=he is not very attractive] ▪ She's not much on studying. [=she does not like to study] not think much of see [1]THINK so much see [1]SO

[1]muck /ˈmʌk/ noun [noncount] informal
1 : wet dirt or mud ▪ Clean that muck off your shoes.
2 chiefly Brit : solid waste from farm animals : MANURE
3 informal : something that is disgusting ▪ How can they expect us to eat this muck? [=garbage, junk] make a muck of something Brit, informal : to do something badly or with many mistakes ▪ He's made a muck of things.
– mucky /ˈmʌki/ adj muck•i•er; -est ▪ mucky shoes

[2]muck verb mucks; mucked; muck•ing
muck about/around [phrasal verb] Brit, informal 1 : to spend time doing things that are not useful or serious : to waste time ▪ We just mucked about [=messed around] all afternoon. 2 muck about/around with (something) : to use or do (something) in a way that is not very serious ▪ She spent the evening mucking around with [=fooling around with] the computer. 3 muck (someone) about/around : to be unfair or dishonest with (someone) : to lie to or cheat (someone) ▪ I want them to stop mucking me around. ▪ He's tired of being mucked about. [=(US) jerked around] muck in [phrasal verb] Brit, informal : to help out especially by doing work ▪ muck in [=pitch in] with the hard work muck out [phrasal verb] muck (something) out or muck out (something) informal : to clean (the place where a farm animal lives) : to remove animal waste and dirty hay, sawdust, etc., from (a place, such as a barn) ▪ We went to the barn to muck out [=clean out] the stalls.
muck up [phrasal verb] muck (something) up or muck up (something) chiefly Brit, informal 1 : to make (something) dirty ▪ Take those dirty shoes off before you muck up the floor. 2 : to spoil or ruin (something) : to make mistakes in doing or making (something) ▪ He mucked up [=messed up] the speech. = He mucked the speech up. ▪ I mucked up my first attempt and had to try again.

muck•rak•er /ˈmʌkˌreɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] : someone (such as a reporter) who tries to find embarrassing or shocking information about famous people – muck•rak•ing /ˈmʌkˌreɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] ▪ a journalist accused of muckraking – muckraking adj ▪ a muckraking journalist mu•cous membrane /ˈmju:kəs-/ noun, pl ~ -branes [count] : a thin, wet layer of skin that is inside some parts of the body (such as the nose and throat) and that produces mucus mu•cus /ˈmju:kəs/ noun [noncount] : a thick liquid that is produced in some parts of the body (such as the nose and throat) mud /ˈmʌd/ noun [noncount] : soft, wet dirt ▪ He tracked mud into the house. ▪ His shoes were covered with mud. = His shoes were caked in/with mud. ▪ The car was stuck in the mud.

as clear as mud informal : very difficult to understand : not clear at all ▪ The explanation was as clear as mud.
drag someone's name through the mud see [1]DRAG
sling/throw mud chiefly US : to publicly say false or bad

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 84 SESS: 48 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:16 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

things about someone (such as a political opponent) in order to harm that person's reputation ▪ The candidates started slinging mud (at each other) early in the campaign. — see also MUDSLINGING your name is mud informal ✧ If your name is mud people do not like or trust you. ▪ The scandal ruined his reputation and now his name is mud.

[1]mud•dle /ˈmʌdl̩/ verb mud•dles; mud•dled; mud•dling [+ obj]

1 : to cause confusion in (someone or someone's mind) — often used as (be) muddled ▪ a mind muddled by too much advice

2 : to mix up (something) in a confused way ▪ muddle the household accounts ▪ I always get their names muddled (up) [=mixed up] in my mind.

muddle along [phrasal verb] informal : to think, act, or proceed in a confused way or without a plan ▪ She muddled along for a few years before going to college.

muddle through [phrasal verb] informal : to do something without doing it very well or easily ▪ I had a hard time with the class, but somehow I muddled through. [=got by] ▪ We won't have much money but we'll muddle through [=manage] somehow.

– muddled adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a muddled story ▪ The instructions were so muddled [=confused, confusing] that we couldn't follow them.

[2]muddle noun [singular]

1 a : a state of confusion or disorder ▪ Her thoughts were in a muddle. [=she was very confused] ▪ His papers were in a muddle. ▪ (chiefly Brit) They got in/into a muddle over the train schedule. b : a situation or mistake caused by confusion ▪ There's been a bit of a muddle [=mix-up] about the plan.

2 : a confused mess ▪ His mind was a muddle. : a disordered mixture ▪ a muddle of documents

[1]mud•dy /ˈmʌdi/ adj mud•di•er; -est

1 : filled or covered with mud ▪ a muddy pond ▪ His shoes were muddy.

2 : similar to mud ▪ a muddy color ▪ muddy coffee

3 : not clear or bright : dull or cloudy ▪ a muddy complexion ▪ The recording sounded muddy.

4 : unclear in thought or meaning ▪ muddy thinking ▪ The facts in the case are muddy.

[2]muddy verb -dies; -died; -dy•ing [+ obj] : to make (something) muddy: such as a : to cover (something) with mud ▪ His shoes were muddied. ▪ The flooding muddied the roads. b : to make (a color) cloudy or dull ▪ She muddied the color by adding some brown. c : to cause (something) to become unclear or confused ▪ muddying the line between fact and fiction ▪ The debate further muddied the issues.

muddy the waters : to make something more complicated or difficult to understand ▪ The latest study muddies the waters by suggesting an alternate explanation.

mud ap noun, pl ~ aps [count] : a sheet of thin material that hangs behind a wheel of a vehicle and that stops mud and water from hitting the vehicle or other vehicles mud•guard /ˈmʌdˌgɑəd/ noun, pl -guards [count]

1 US : MUD FLAP

2 Brit : FENDER 2

mud•room /ˈmʌdˌru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] US : a room at an entrance to a house where people can leave wet or dirty shoes and clothing mud•slide /ˈmʌdˌslaɪd/ noun, pl -slides [count] : a large mass of wet earth that suddenly and quickly moves down the side of a mountain or hill ▪ The heavy rain triggered a mudslide.

mud•sling•ing /ˈmʌdˌslɪŋɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act or practice of publicly saying false or bad things about someone (such as a political opponent) in order to harm that person's reputation ▪ a campaign marred by mudslinging on both sides

– mud•sling•er /ˈmʌdˌslɪŋə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a political mudslinger

[1]muff /ˈmʌf/ noun, pl muffs [count] : a warm covering for your hands that is shaped like a tube with open ends in which both hands may be placed — see also EARMUFF

[2]muff verb muffs; muffed; muff•ing [+ obj] informal : to make a mistake in doing or handling (something) : BOTCH ▪ She muffed the speech. ▪ He muffed his chance for a promotion. ▪ The outfielder muffed an easy catch.

muf• n /ˈmʌfən/ noun, pl - ns [count]

1 : a small bread or cake that is usually eaten at breakfast ▪ a blueberry/bran/corn muffin — see picture at BAKING

2 Brit : ENGLISH MUFFIN

muf• e /ˈmʌfəl/ verb muf• es ; muf• ed ; muf• ing [+ obj]

1 : to make (a sound) quieter ▪ They tried to muffle the noise. : to decrease the noise made by (something) ▪ muffle [=suppress] a cough ▪ I could hear their muffled voices from the next room. ▪ a muffled cough

2 chiefly Brit : to wrap or cover (someone or something) in clothing or cloth for warmth or protection ▪ She was muffled (up) in a huge overcoat.

muf• er /ˈmʌflə/ noun, pl - ers [count]

1 US : a device that is attached to the engine of a vehicle to make it quieter — called also (Brit) silencer; see picture at CAR

2 : a piece of cloth worn around your neck to keep it warm : SCARF

[1]mug /ˈmʌg/ noun, pl mugs [count]

mug

1 a : a large drinking cup with a handle ▪ a collection of coffee mugs ▪ a beer mug b : the liquid that is contained in a mug ▪ He drank a mug of coffee.

2 slang : the face or mouth of a person ▪ his ugly mug

3 Brit, informal : a foolish person who is easily tricked : PATSY ▪ They're taking you for a mug. ▪ Drinking and driving is a mug's game. [=something that only a foolish person would do]

[2]mug verb mugs; mugged; mug•ging

1 [+ obj] : to attack and rob (someone) ▪ He was mugged (when he was) walking home from work.

2 [no obj] chiefly US : to act or pose in a silly way or make silly facial expressions especially to attract attention or when being photographed — usually + for ▪ She was mugging for the camera. ▪ mugging for the crowd mug up [phrasal verb] mug up or mug (something) up or mug up (something) or mug up on (something) Brit, informal : to study or try to learn a lot of information quickly for a test, exam, etc. ▪ He's going to mug up for the exam. ▪ She had better mug up before she interviews him. ▪ He mugged up on his French for the trip.

mug•ger /ˈmʌgə/ noun, pl -gers [count] : a person who attacks and robs another person : a criminal who mugs someone ▪ The police arrested the mugger.

mugging noun, pl -gings : the act of attacking and robbing someone : the act of mugging someone [count] There have been several muggings in the park recently. [noncount] The park has had an increased rate of mugging recently.

mug•gins /ˈmʌgənz/ noun [singular] Brit, informal : a foolish person who is easily tricked — usually used to refer to yourself ▪ He left early and muggins here was left to finish the job.

mug•gy /ˈmʌgi/ adj mug•gi•er; -est : unpleasantly warm and humid ▪ a muggy day in August ▪ It's very muggy out today. ▪ muggy weather mug shot noun, pl ~ shots [count] : a photograph of someone's face; especially : a photograph taken by the police of someone who has been arrested mu•lat•to /məˈlætoʊ, məˈlɑ:toʊ/ noun, pl -toes or -tos [count] old-fashioned + often offensive : a person with one black and one white parent mul•ber•ry /ˈmʌlˌberi, Brit ˈmʌlbəri/ noun, pl -ries [count]

1 : a type of tree that has purple berries that can be eaten — called also mulberry tree

2 : a berry from a mulberry tree

[1]mulch /ˈmʌlʧ/ noun, pl mulch•es [count, noncount] : a material (such as straw, leaves, or small pieces of wood) that is spread over the ground in a garden to protect the plants or help them grow and to stop weeds from growing ▪ She spread some mulch around the plants.

[2]mulch verb mulches; mulched; mulch•ing [+ obj] : to cover (the ground, a garden, etc.) with mulch ▪ She mulched the flower beds.

mule /ˈmju:l/ noun, pl mules [count]

1 : an animal that has a horse and a donkey as parents

2 : a woman's shoe that is open at the heel ▪ wearing a pair of mules

3 slang : someone who secretly brings illegal drugs into a country

mul•ish /ˈmju:lɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : refusing to do what other people want or to change your opinion or the way you do something : very stubborn ▪ She approached the job with

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 85 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mulish determination. ▪ a mulish insistence on doing things his own way mull /ˈmʌl/ verb mulls; mulled; mul·ing [+ obj] : to think about (something) slowly and carefully : PONDER ▪ The company is mulling the offer. — usually + over ▪ mull over an idea ▪ It's a fine offer, but we need time to mull it over.

mulled /ˈmʌld/ adj : mixed with sugar and spices and served warm ▪ mulled wine/cider

mul·let /ˈmələt/ noun
1 pl mullet or mul·lets [count, noncount] : a type of fish that lives in the ocean and is often eaten as food
2 pl mullets [count] : a hairstyle in which the hair is short on the top and sides and long in the back mul·lion /ˈmʌljən/ noun, pl -lions [count] : an upright piece of wood, stone, metal, etc., that separates two windows

– mul·lioned /ˈmʌljənd/ adj ▪ mullioned windows

multi- combining form
1 a : many : much ▪ *multi*colored b : more than two ▪ *multi*national ▪ *multi*racial 2 : many times over ▪ *multi*millionaire

mul·ti·col·ored (US) or Brit mul·ti·col·oured /ˈmʌlti-ˌkʌlərd/ adj : having, made up of, or including many colors ▪ multicolored balloons/ribbons mul·ti·cul·tur·al /ˌmʌltiˈkʌlʧərəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to or including many different cultures ▪ a multicultural society

– mul·ti·cul·tur·al·ism /ˌmʌltiˈkʌlʧərəlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

mul·ti·dis·ci·plin·ary /ˌmʌltiˈdɪsəplə̱ˌneri, Brit ˌmʌltiˈdɪsəplənəri/ adj : involving two or more subject areas ▪ a multidisciplinary class taught jointly by a history teacher and an English teacher

mul·ti·eth·nic /ˌmʌltiˈɛθnɪk/ adj : relating to or including people from many ethnic groups ▪ a multiethnic country

mul·ti·fac·et·ed /ˌmʌltiˈfæsətəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having many different parts : having many facets ▪ a multifaceted approach to health care

mul·ti·far·i·ous /ˌmʌltəˈferijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : of many and various kinds ▪ multifarious [=diverse] activities

mul·ti·func·tion·al /ˌmʌltiˈfʌŋkʃənəl/ adj : having many uses or functions : MULTIPURPOSE ▪ a multifunctional tool

mul·ti·lat·er·al /ˌmʌltiˈlætərəl/ adj : involving more than two groups or countires ▪ a multilateral treaty/agreement — compare BILATERAL, TRILATERAL, UNILATERAL mul·ti·lay·ered /ˌmʌltiˈlejəd/ adj : having or involving three or more layers or levels ▪ a multilayered cake ▪ The novel's plot is multilayered. ▪ a multilayered political system

mul·ti·lin·gual /ˌmʌltiˈlɪŋgwəl/ adj
1 : able to speak and understand several languages ▪ multilingual students
2 : using or expressed in several languages ▪ multilingual instructions ▪ a multilingual dictionary ▪ multilingual countries — compare BILINGUAL, MONOLINGUAL

mul·ti·me·dia /ˌmʌltiˈmiːdijə/ adj, always used before a noun : using or involving several forms of communication or expression ▪ a multimedia exhibit of photographs, films, and music

mul·ti·mil·lion /ˌmʌltiˈmɪljən/ adj, always used before a noun : involving two or more million : costing or worth millions of dollars or pounds — often used in combination ▪ a multimillion-dollar home

mul·ti·mil·lion·aire /ˌmʌltiˌmɪljəˈneə/ noun, pl -aires [count] : a very wealthy person : a person who has property or money worth millions of dollars or pounds

[1]mul·ti·na·tion·al /ˌmʌltiˈnæʃənəl/ adj
1 : of, relating to, or involving more than two nations ▪ a multinational alliance/force
2 : working in several countries ▪ a multinational corporation

[2]multinational noun, pl -als [count] : a company that works in several countries : a multinational corporation mul·ti·par·ty /ˌmʌltiˈpɑəti/ adj : of or involving more than one political party ▪ multiparty elections ▪ multiparty democracy

[1]mul·ti·ple /ˈmʌltəpəl/ adj, always used before a noun
1 : more than one : MANY, NUMEROUS ▪ She made multiple copies of the report. ▪ a person of multiple achievements ▪ He suffered multiple injuries in the accident. ▪ a multiple birth [=the birth of more than one baby at a time; a birth of twins, triplets, etc.]
2 : shared by many people ▪ multiple ownership [=ownership by more than one person]

[2]multiple noun, pl -ti·ples [count]
1 mathematics : a number that can be produced by multiplying a smaller number ▪ 35 is a multiple of 7. ▪ 12 is a multiple of 6.
2 Brit : CHAIN STORE

multiple–choice adj
1 : having several answers from which one is to be chosen ▪ a multiple-choice question
2 : made up of multiple-choice questions ▪ a multiple-choice test ▪ The exam will be multiple-choice.

multiple sclerosis noun [noncount] medical : a disease of the nervous system that causes the gradual loss of muscle control — abbr. MS

mul·ti·plex /ˈmʌltə̱ˌplɛks/ noun, pl -plex·es [count] : a building that contains several movie theaters — called also multiplex cinema

mul·ti·pli·ca·tion /ˌmʌltəpləˈkeɪʃən/ noun
1 [noncount] mathematics : the process of adding a number to itself a certain number of times : the act or process of multiplying numbers ▪ Students are learning multiplication and division.
2 : an increase in the number or amount of something [noncount] a disease causing uncontrolled multiplication of cells [singular] an uncontrolled multiplication of cells multiplication sign noun, pl ~ signs [count] mathematics : a symbol (such as "x") that is used to show that two numbers are to be multiplied — usually singular multiplication table noun, pl ~ tables [count] mathematics : a list that shows the results of multiplying certain numbers (such as 1 through 12) by each other — called also times table

mul·ti·plic·i·ty /ˌmʌltəˈplɪsəti/ noun [singular] formal : a very large number — + of ▪ a multiplicity of colors/ideas/styles

mul·ti·ply /ˈmʌltə̱ˌplaɪ/ verb -plies; -plied; -ply·ing
1 a [no obj] : to increase greatly in number or amount : to become much more numerous ▪ Complaints about the new procedure soon multiplied. ▪ Her responsibilities multiplied when she was promoted. b [+ obj] : to cause (something) to increase greatly in number or amount ▪ Her responsibilities were multiplied by the promotion.
2 [no obj] : to increase in number by reproducing ▪ The bacteria multiply rapidly in warm, moist conditions.
3 mathematics : to add a number to itself a certain number of times [+ obj] If you multiply 5 by 2 you get 10. = If you multiply 5 and 2 (together) you get 10. = 5 multiplied by 2 equals 10. [no obj] The teacher taught the children how to add, subtract, multiply, and divide. — compare DIVIDE

mul·ti·pur·pose /ˌmʌltiˈpə˞pəs/ adj : having more than one use or purpose ▪ multipurpose furniture ▪ a multipurpose room/tool mul·ti·ra·cial /ˌmʌltiˈreɪʃəl/ adj : relating to or including more than one race of people ▪ a multiracial society ▪ His family is multiracial.

mul·ti·sto·ry (US) or Brit mul·ti·sto·rey /ˌmʌltiˈstori/ adj, of a building : having many stories ▪ a multistory apartment building ▪ (Brit) a multistorey car park [=a parking garage with more than one level]

mul·ti·task·ing /ˈmʌlti̱ˌtæskɪŋ, Brit ˈmʌlti̱ˌtɑːskɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the ability to do several things at the same time ▪ The job requires someone who is good at multitasking.

mul·ti·tude /ˈmʌltə̱ˌtuːd, Brit ˈmʌltə̱ˌtjuːd/ noun, pl -tudes [count]
1 : a great number of things or people ▪ A vast multitude [=a great crowd of people] waited to hear the news. — often + of ▪ A multitude of complaints reached the office. ▪ a multitude of choices ▪ Some new paint on an old house can cover/hide a multitude of sins. [=can hide many problems or faults]
2 the multitude : ordinary or common people as a group ▪ a candidate trying to appeal to the multitude — often plural ▪ His films are not intended to appeal to the multitudes. [=masses]

mul·ti·tu·di·nous /ˌmʌltəˈtuːdn̩əs, Brit ˌmʌltəˈtjuːdənəs/ adj, formal : very many ▪ multitudinous questions/concerns ▪ Their lives have changed in multitudinous ways.

mul·ti·us·er /ˈmʌlti̱ˌjuːzə˞/ adj, always used before a noun, computers : able to be used by more than one person at a time ▪ multiuser software ▪ a multiuser computer system

mul·ti·vi·ta·min /ˌmʌltiˈvaɪtəmən, Brit ˌmʌltiˈvɪtəmən/

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 86 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:17 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

noun, pl -mins [count] : a pill that contains many vitamins

mul•ti•vol•ume /ˌmʌltiˈvɑːlˌjuːm/ adj, always used before a noun : published as two or more books : having more than one volume ▪ a multivolume biography/encyclopedia

[1]mum /ˈmʌm/ adj, informal : not talking about something ▪ I'd like to know how much they paid, but they've been mum on that subject. ▪ She told him to keep/stay mum about the project. [=she told him not to tell anyone about the project]

mum's the word informal — used to say that some information is being kept secret or should be kept secret ▪ We want her birthday party to be a surprise, so mum's the word. [=don't tell her about the party]

[2]mum noun, pl mums [count] US : CHRYSANTHEMUM

[3]mum noun, pl mums [count] Brit, informal : MOTHER, MOM

[1]mum•ble /ˈmʌmbəl/ verb mum•bles; mum•bled; mum•bling : to say (something) quietly in an unclear way that makes it difficult for people to know what you said [+ obj] He mumbled something and then left. ▪ He mumbled "Goodbye" and then left. [no obj] I can't understand you when you mumble. ▪ a mumbling response

– mum•bler /ˈmʌmbələ/ noun, pl -blers [count] – mumbling noun, pl -blings [count, noncount] ▪ There were mumblings [=rumblings] (of discontent) about the decision. [=people complained quietly to each other about the decision]

[2]mumble noun [singular] : a way of speaking that is not clear enough to be understood ▪ He answered in his usual mumble. ▪ She spoke in a mumble.

mum•bo jum•bo /ˌmʌmboʊˈʤʌmboʊ/ noun [noncount] informal : confusing or meaningless words or activity : NONSENSE ▪ We were confused by all the legal mumbo jumbo. ▪ His explanation was just a lot of mumbo jumbo.

mum•mi•fy /ˈmʌmɪˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy•ing

1 [+ obj] : to preserve (a dead body) by treating it with oils and wrapping it in strips of cloth ▪ learning how ancient Egyptians mummified their dead

2 : to become very dry and wrinkled [no obj] a body that mummified in the desert heat [+ obj] a body that was mummified by the desert heat

– mummi ed adj ▪ a mummified body

[1]mum•my /ˈmʌmi/ noun, pl -mies [count] : a dead body of a person or animal prepared for burial in the manner of the ancient Egyptians by treating it with oils and wrapping it in strips of cloth

[2]mummy noun, pl -mies [count] Brit, informal : MOTHER, MOMMY — used especially by children ▪ Where's my mummy?

mumps /ˈmʌmps/ noun [noncount] medical : a disease that causes fever and swelling in the lower part of the cheek ▪ Mumps is usually a childhood illness. ▪ She got (the) mumps.

munch /ˈmʌnʧ/ verb munch•es; munched; munch•ing : to chew or eat (something) especially in a noisy way [+ obj] We munched [=snacked on] popcorn during the movie. ▪ cattle munching grass [no obj] — + on ▪ We munched on popcorn during the movie.

munch•ies /ˈmʌnʧiz/ noun, informal

1 [plural] US : light foods that are eaten as a snack ▪ Munchies are served at the bar.

2 the munchies : a feeling of hunger ▪ I have a serious case of the munchies. [=I'm very hungry] ▪ I always get/have the munchies when I'm watching TV. = Watching TV always gives me the munchies.

munch•kin /ˈmʌnʧˌkɪn/ noun, pl -kins [count] US, informal : a child or small person ▪ "What's wrong, munchkin?" she asked the toddler. ✧ The original Munchkins were a race of small people in the book The Wonderful Wizard of Oz (1900) by L. Frank Baum. The 1939 movie The Wizard of Oz was based on this book.

mun•dane /ˌmʌnˈdeɪn/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : dull and ordinary ▪ mundane chores, like washing dishes ▪ They lead a pretty mundane life.

2 : relating to ordinary life on earth rather than to spiritual things ▪ prayer and meditation helped her put her mundane worries aside

mung bean /ˈmʌŋ-/ noun, pl ~ beans [count] : a small, round bean often used to grow bean sprouts mu•nic•i•pal /mjuˈnɪsəpəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to the government of a city or town ▪ municipal government ▪ a municipal building/library/election mu•nic•i•pal•i•ty /mjuˌnɪsəˈpæləti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a city or town that has its own government to deal with local problems ▪ laws that have been enacted by many states and municipalities; also, chiefly Brit : the group of people who run such a government ▪ locally elected municipalities mu•nif•i•cent /mjuˈnɪfəsənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : very generous ▪ a munificent gift/donation ▪ a munificent benefactor

– mu•nif•i•cence /mjuˈnɪfəsəns/ noun [noncount] ▪ the munificence of their donation mu•ni•tions /mjuˈnɪʃənz/ noun [plural] : military supplies and equipment; especially : military weapons ▪ rockets and other munitions ▪ unexploded munitions ▪ a munitions factory mu•ral /ˈmjərəl/ noun, pl -rals [count] : a usually large painting that is done directly on the surface of a wall

[1]mur•der /ˈməḍə/ noun, pl -ders

1 : the crime of deliberately killing a person [noncount] He was found guilty of (committing) murder. ▪ She was accused/convicted of murder. ▪ She was charged with murder. [=she was officially accused of the crime of murder] ▪ the mass murder of civilians in wartime [count] a string of unsolved murders — often used before another noun ▪ the murder weapon ▪ a murder suspect/victim/case ▪ murder mysteries [=mystery stories about murder]

2 [noncount] informal : something that is very difficult or unpleasant ▪ That test was murder. [=it was very difficult] ▪ Traffic is murder this time of day. ✧ To be murder on something is to cause pain or harm to it. ▪ Carrying the luggage was murder on my back. ▪ These shoes are murder on my feet.

get away with murder : to murder someone without being captured or punished ▪ a vicious killer who nearly got away with murder — usually used figuratively to describe someone who does something very bad or wrong without being criticized or punished ▪ The company had been getting away with murder for years before the scandal broke.

scream bloody/blue murder see [1]SCREAM

[2]murder verb -ders; -dered; -der•ing [+ obj]

1 : to kill (a person) in a deliberate and unlawful way : to commit the murder of (someone) ▪ He was arrested and accused of murdering his wife. ▪ His wife was found murdered. ▪ a dictator who is responsible for murdering thousands of innocent people — sometimes used figuratively ▪ My father will murder me [=he will be very angry] when he finds out that I dented the car.

2 informal a : to spoil or ruin (something) ▪ a writer who murders [=butchers] the English language : to perform (something) very badly ▪ The band murdered that song. b : to defeat (an opponent) very badly ▪ He got murdered [=slaughtered] in the opening round by last year's winner.

– mur•der•er /ˈmədərə/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ a convicted murderer ▪ a mass murderer [=a person who has killed many people] – mur•der•ess /ˈmədərəs/ noun, pl -ess•es [count] old-fashioned ▪ an infamous murderess [=a woman who commits murder]

mur•der•ous /ˈmədərəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 : very violent or deadly ▪ murderous machine-gun fire ▪ a murderous dictator/attack ▪ a murderous regime

2 a : very angry ▪ a murderous glance b : very harsh or severe ▪ I can't stand this murderous heat. ▪ The lead runner set a murderous pace.

– mur•der•ous•ly adv ▪ a murderously intolerant regime ▪ murderously hot weather ▪ a murderously angry glance murk /ˈmək/ noun [noncount] : darkness or fog that is hard to see through ▪ A figure emerged from the murk. [=gloom]; also : dark or dirty water ▪ We could not see the bottom of the lake through the murk.

murky /ˈməki/ adj murk•i•er; -est

1 a : very dark or foggy ▪ murky skies ▪ She peered into one of the church's murky chapels. b of a liquid : not clear : CLOUDY ▪ the lake's murky water

2 a : not clearly expressed or understood ▪ He offered a murky [=vague] explanation. ▪ Her employment history is somewhat murky. [=unclear] b : involving dishonest or illegal activities that are not clearly known ▪ a politician with a murky past

– murk•i•ly /ˈməkəli/ adv – murk•i•ness /ˈməkinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ the murkiness of the water

[1]mur•mur /ˈməmə/ noun, pl -murs

1 [count] a : a low sound made when many people are speaking ▪ a murmur of voices ▪ the murmur of the crowd b : a quiet expression of an opinion or feeling ▪ The suggestion brought murmurs of disapproval. ▪ a murmur of agreement/protest ▪ murmurs of recognition ▪ They accepted the decision without a murmur (of protest/complaint). [=they accepted the decision without protesting/complaining at all] c : speech or a way of speaking that is quiet and soft ▪ He spoke in a murmur. ▪ They spoke to each other in murmurs.

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 87 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:18 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

2 [singular] : a low, quiet, and continuous sound ▪ a murmur of bees ▪ the murmur of the waves along the shore
3 [count] medical : an unusual heart sound that may indicate a problem with the heart's function or structure — usually singular ▪ Her doctor detected a (heart) murmur during a routine physical exam.

[2]murmur verb -murs; -mured; -mur•ing
1 [+ obj] : to say (something) in a quiet and soft voice ▪ He murmured something about having to get home. ▪ "Thank you," she murmured as she left the room.
2 [no obj] : to make a low, continuous sound ▪ The breeze murmured in the pines. ▪ the murmuring breeze
– murmuring noun, pl -ings [count, noncount] ▪ We could hear the murmuring of the bees. ▪ Murmurings (of disapproval) were heard [=people complained quietly] when the decision was announced.

Mur•phy bed /'mɚfi-/ noun, pl ~ beds [count] US : a bed with a frame that can be folded into a space in a wall

Mur•phy's Law /'mɚfiz-/ noun [noncount] — used to refer to the humorous statement that if it is possible for something to go wrong then it will go wrong — called also (Brit) Sod's Law

[1]mus•cle /'mʌsəl/ noun, pl mus•cles
1 : a body tissue that can contract and produce movement [count] the muscles of the arm ▪ stomach muscles ▪ flex a muscle ▪ relax a muscle ▪ an athlete with bulging/rippling muscles ▪ He pulled/tore/strained a muscle playing tennis. ▪ She has a strained muscle in her back. ▪ Wait here and don't move a muscle. [=don't move at all] [noncount] She started lifting weights to build muscle. — often used before another noun ▪ muscle fiber(s)/tissue ▪ muscle spasms ▪ an athlete practicing to develop muscle memory [=the ability to repeat a bodily movement exactly] ▪ a muscle relaxant [=a drug that relaxes muscles]
2 [noncount] a : physical strength ▪ She doesn't have the muscle to lift something so heavy. ▪ To clean that floor you have to put some muscle into it. [=you have to make a forceful effort] b : power and influence ▪ He lacks the political muscle [=clout] to get the policy changed.
ex your muscles see [1]FLEX

[2]muscle verb muscles; mus•cled; mus•cling
1 [+ obj] : to move (something) by using physical strength and force ▪ They muscled the heavy boxes onto the truck. ▪ They muscled the furniture up the stairs. — often used figuratively ▪ She was muscled [=forced] out of office by political opponents. ▪ He helped muscle the bill through Congress.
2 : to move forward by using physical force [no obj] He muscled through the crowd. ▪ They muscled into line behind us. [+ obj] He muscled his way through the crowd. [=he moved ahead by pushing and forcing people to move out of the way] muscle in [phrasal verb] : to use force or influence in a way that is wrong or unwanted in order to become involved in something for selfish reasons — usually + on ▪ His competitors have tried to muscle in on his business.

mus•cle–bound /'mʌsəl,baʊnd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having large muscles that do not move and stretch easily ▪ a muscle-bound athlete — sometimes used figuratively ▪ a muscle-bound [=rigid, inflexible] organization muscle car noun, pl ~ cars [count] US, informal : an American-made two-door sports car with a powerful engine

mus•cled /'mʌsəld/ adj : having large muscles or muscles of a specified kind ▪ his muscled [=muscular] back ▪ hard-muscled arms ▪ a lightly muscled runner [=a runner with fairly small muscles]

mus•cle•man /'mʌsəl,mæn/ noun, pl -men /-,mɛn/ [count] : a strong man with large muscles ▪ musclemen and bodybuilders working out in the gym

Mus•co•vite /'mʌskə,vaɪt/ noun, pl -vites [count] : a person who lives in or comes from Moscow
– Muscovite adj

mus•cu•lar /'mʌskjələ/ adj
1 : of or relating to muscles ▪ muscular strength/weakness ▪ a muscular injury
2 [more ~; most ~] : having large and strong muscles ▪ a muscular athlete ▪ He has a muscular physique. ▪ His legs are very muscular.
– mus•cu•lar•i•ty /,mʌskjə'lerəti/ noun [noncount] muscular dys•tro•phy /-'dɪstrəfi/ noun [noncount] medical : a serious disease that causes increasing weakness of muscles

mus•cu•la•ture /'mʌskjələ,tʃuɚ/ noun [noncount] formal : the muscles of the body or of one of its parts ▪ human musculature ▪ facial musculature ▪ an athlete with well-developed musculature

[1]muse /'mju:z/ verb mus•es; mused; mus•ing
1 [no obj] : to think about something carefully or thoroughly — usually + about, on, over, or upon ▪ She mused on the possibility of changing jobs. ▪ musing about/over what might have been
2 [+ obj] : to think or say (something) in a thoughtful way ▪ I could sell the house, she mused, but then where would I go?
– musing noun, pl -ings [count] He recorded his musings [=thoughts] in his diary. [noncount] Her musing was interrupted by the arrival of her friend. – mus•ing•ly /'mju:zɪŋli/ adv ▪ "I could sell the house," she said musingly, "but then where would I go?"

[2]muse noun, pl muses [count]
1 : a person who causes someone else to have ideas about creating a work of art : a person who inspires an artist, writer, etc. ▪ The writer lost his muse when his wife left him.
2 Muse : any one of the nine sister goddesses of song and poetry and the arts and sciences in Greek mythology mu•se•um /mjʊ'zi:jəm/ noun, pl -ums [count] : a building in which interesting and valuable things (such as paintings and sculptures or scientific or historical objects) are collected and shown to the public ▪ an art museum ▪ a history museum ▪ a museum of natural history museum piece noun, pl ~ pieces [count]

1 : a valuable object that is in a museum or that is suitable for a museum
2 : something or someone that is very old or old-fashioned ▪ That old computer will soon be a museum piece.

[1]mush /'mʌʃ/ noun
1 : a soft and wet mass of material (such as food) [noncount] The rotting apples turned into/to mush. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ I was so tired my brain turned into/to mush. [=I was too tired to think well] [singular] a mush of rotting apples
2 [noncount] US : a soft food made by boiling cornmeal in water or milk ▪ a bowl of mush
3 /'mʊʃ/ [noncount] informal + disapproving : a story or part of a story in a book, movie, etc., that is too romantic or sentimental ▪ a movie full of mush

[2]mush interj — used as a command to tell dogs to start pulling a sled

[1]mush•room /'mʌʃ,ru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : a fungus that is shaped like an umbrella ▪ wild mushrooms; especially : one that can be eaten ▪ cut up some mushrooms for the salad — often used before another noun ▪ mushroom soup ▪ a mushroom cap [=the top part of a mushroom] — compare TOADSTOOL; see also BUTTON MUSHROOM mushroom

[2]mushroom verb -rooms; -roomed; -room•ing [no obj]
1 : to increase or develop very quickly ▪ The population has mushroomed [=shot up] over the past 10 years. = The town has mushroomed in population over the past 10 years. ▪ Interest in local history is suddenly mushrooming. ▪ Her hobby mushroomed into a thriving business.
2 : to collect wild mushrooms ▪ He goes mushrooming in the spring every year.

mushroom cloud noun, pl ~ clouds [count] : a large cloud that forms after an explosion; especially : a cloud that is caused by the explosion of a nuclear weapon

mushy /'mʌʃi/ adj mush•i•er; -est
1 : soft and wet ▪ The rotting apples turned mushy. [=the rotting apples turned to mush]
2 informal + disapproving : too romantic or sentimental ▪ a mushy movie/novel mu•sic /'mju:zɪk/ noun [noncount]

1 : sounds that are sung by voices or played on musical instruments ▪ listening to live/recorded music ▪ This is one of my favorite pieces of music. ▪ performing music in front of an audience ▪ dancing to the music of a big band ▪ They are writing/composing music for a new album. ▪ a song with music by George Gershwin and words/lyrics by Ira Gershwin ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 88 SESS: 6 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

classical/popular music ▪ They like to make music [=play or sing music] with friends. ▪ The play/poem was set to music. [=music was written to go with the words of the play/poem] ▪ background music [=music played while something else is happening] — often used before another noun ▪ the music industry ▪ a music video [=a video recording of a performance of popular music] — see also CHAMBER MUSIC, COUNTRY MUSIC, FOLK MUSIC, SOUL MUSIC

2 : written or printed symbols showing how music should be played or sung ▪ He is learning to read music. ▪ a music stand [=a holder on which printed music is placed so that a musician can see it while playing or singing] — see also SHEET MUSIC

3 : the art or skill of creating or performing music ▪ She studied music in college. ▪ music theory

4 : a pleasant sound ▪ the music of a brook ▪ Her words were music to my ears. [=I was very happy to hear what she said]

face the music see [2]FACE

[1]mu•si•cal /ˈmju:zɪkəl/ adj

1 always used before a noun : of or relating to music ▪ the film's musical score ▪ musical notes ▪ a musical instrument [=a device (such as a violin, piano, or flute) used to make music]

2 [more ~; most ~] : having the pleasing qualities of music ▪ She has a very musical voice.

3 [more ~; most ~] : enjoying music : having a talent for playing music ▪ a musical family

4 always used before a noun : having music and songs as a main feature : telling a story with songs ▪ a musical film/play

– mu•si•cal•i•ty /ˌmju:zɪˈkælətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the musicality [=musical quality] of the performance ▪ a dancer who shows great musicality [=musical talent] – mu•si•cal•ly /ˈmju:zɪkli/ adv ▪ a musically talented child ▪ a musically complex symphony ▪ expressing her feelings musically [=through music]

[2]musical noun, pl -cals [count] : a movie or play that tells a story with songs and often dancing ▪ a Broadway musical — called also musical comedy

musical box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] Brit : MUSIC BOX

musical chairs noun [noncount]

1 : a children's game in which players walk around a row of chairs while music plays and try to sit down when the music stops ✧ In musical chairs the number of chairs is always one less than the number of players, and the player who is not fast enough to find a chair when the music stops has to leave the game.

2 : a situation in which many changes happen in a way that is confusing or harmful ▪ The changes in the administration amounted to a game of musical chairs.

musical comedy noun, pl ~ -dies [count] : [2]MUSICAL music box noun, pl ~ boxes [count] : a box that contains a device which plays a tune when the box is open — called also (Brit) musical box

music hall noun, pl ~ halls [count] : a theater in which popular entertainers performed in the late 19th and early 20th centuries — often used before another noun ▪ a music-hall performer ▪ music-hall dancers/comedians; also [noncount] chiefly Brit : the type of entertainment that was performed in such a theater : VAUDEVILLE mu•si•cian /mjuˈzɪʃən/ noun, pl -cians [count] : a person who writes, sings, or plays music ▪ She's a very talented musician. ▪ a rock/jazz/classical musician mu•si•cian•ship /mjuˈzɪʃənˌʃɪp/ noun [noncount] : the skill of performing or writing music ▪ The critics praised her musicianship.

mu•si•col•o•gy /ˌmju:zɪˈkɑ:lədʒi/ noun [noncount] : the study of music as an area of knowledge or as a field of research ▪ a professor of musicology

– mu•si•col•o•gist /ˌmju:zɪˈkɑ:lədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count] musk /ˈmʌsk/ noun [noncount] : a strong-smelling substance used in perfume

– musky /ˈmʌskɪ/ adj musk•i•er; -est ▪ a musky scent/odor ▪ a musky perfume

mus•ket /ˈmʌskət/ noun, pl -kets [count] : a type of long gun that was used by soldiers before the invention of the rifle mus•ke•teer /ˌmʌskəˈtiə/ noun, pl -teers [count] : a soldier who has a musket musk•rat /ˈmʌskˌræt/ noun, pl muskrat or musk•rats [count] : a North American animal that lives in or near water — see picture at RODENT

Mus•lim /ˈmʌzləm/ noun, pl Mus•lims [count] : a person whose religion is Islam : a follower of Islam

– Muslim adj ▪ the Muslim faith

mus•lin /ˈmʌzlən/ noun [noncount] : a thin and loosely woven cotton cloth ▪ curtains of white muslin

muss /ˈmʌs/ verb muss•es; mussed; muss•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to make (something, such as clothing or hair) messy or untidy ▪ His suit was/got mussed when he got out of the car. — often + up ▪ The wind mussed up my hair.

mus•sel /ˈmʌsəl/ noun, pl -sels [count] : a type of shellfish that has a long dark shell — see color picture on page C8

[1]must /ˈmʌst/ verb [modal verb]

1 a somewhat formal in US English — used to say that something is required or necessary ▪ You must stop. [=you have to stop; I command you to stop] ▪ I told him what he must do. [=what he had to do] ▪ One must eat to live. ▪ You must follow the rules. ▪ We must [=have to, need to] correct these problems soon or the project will fail. ▪ I must remember to stop at the store. ▪ "Must you go?" [=do you have to go?] "Yes, I'm afraid I really must." ▪ "Must you go?" "No, I don't have to." ▪ If you must go, at least wait until the storm is over. ▪ It must be noted, however, that the company was already in financial difficulties. ▪ We must keep/bear in mind that she didn't have any previous experience. = It must be borne in mind that she didn't have any previous experience. ✧ Note the difference in meaning between must not and not have to. ▪ You must not do it. [=it is necessary that you do not do it; I command you not to do it] ▪ You don't have to do it. [=it is not necessary for you to do it] b — used to say that something is required by a rule or law ▪ All passengers must exit at the next stop. ▪ Students must have completed Sociology 101 before they can take Sociology 102.

2 somewhat formal in US English — used to say that someone should do something ▪ You must [=ought to, should, have to] read this book. It's fantastic! ▪ You must come visit us soon. [=we would like to have you come visit us soon] ▪ You really must see the doctor about that cough. [=I urge you to see the doctor; I really think you need to see the doctor]

3 — used to say that something is very likely ▪ It must be almost dinner time. ▪ She must think I'm a fool. ▪ It must have been the coffee that kept me awake. ▪ He must have been the most gifted student at the school. [=I think he was the most gifted student] ▪ He must have a lot of money to live the way he does. ▪ The bus must be coming soon. ▪ You haven't eaten all day. You must be hungry. ▪ You're going to wear that? You must be joking! ▪ You must have been very worried. ▪ You must be thrilled about the new baby. ▪ If he really was there, I must have seen him, but I don't remember seeing him. ▪ There must be some mistake.

4 — used in various phrases to emphasize a statement ▪ I must say, I was surprised to hear from him. ▪ She's a talented actress, I must say. ▪ She's a talented actress, you must admit. ▪ I must admit, I expected better results. ▪ I must warn you, this will not be easy. ▪ I must confess, I haven't actually read the book yet.

5 somewhat formal in US English — used in questions that express annoyance or anger ▪ Must you be so unreasonable? [=do you have to be so unreasonable?] ▪ Why must it always rain on the weekend? [=why does it always have to rain on the weekend?]

if you must — used to say that you will allow someone to do something even though you do not approve of it ▪ You can smoke if you must, but please do it outdoors.

if you must know see [1]KNOW

[2]must noun, pl musts [count] : something that is or seems to be required or necessary — usually singular ▪ If you're going to hike this trail, sturdy shoes are a must. ▪ Regular exercise is a must [=is very important; is strongly recommended] as you grow older.

mus•tache (US) or chiefly Brit mous•tache /ˈmʌˌstæʃ, Brit məˈstɑ:ʃ/ noun, pl -tach•es [count] : hair growing on a man's upper lip ▪ He used a small pair of scissors to trim his mustache. ▪ He decided to grow a mustache. ▪ The actor was wearing a false/fake mustache. — see picture at BEARD

– mus•tached (US) or chiefly Brit mous•tached /ˈmʌˌstæʃt, Brit məˈstɑ:ʃt/ adj ▪ a mustached man [=a man who has a mustache]

mus•ta•chio (US) or chiefly Brit mous•ta•chio /məˈstæʃiˌoʊ, Brit məˈstɑ:ʃiˌoʊ/ noun, pl -chios [count] old-fashioned : a large mustache

– mus•ta•chioed (US) or chiefly Brit mous•ta•chioed /məˈstæʃiˌoʊd, Brit məˈstɑ:ʃiˌoʊd/ adj ▪ a mustachioed villain in a melodrama

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 89 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mus•tang /ˈmʌˌstæŋ/ noun, pl -tangs [count] : a small and strong wild horse of western North America

mus•tard /ˈmʌstəd/ noun, pl -tards [count, noncount]
1 : a thick and spicy yellow or brownish-yellow sauce that is usually eaten with meat ▪ Would you like some mustard on your hot dog?
2 : a plant with yellow flowers, leaves that can be used for food, and seeds that are used in making mustard
3 : a brownish-yellow color — see color picture on page C2
(as) keen as mustard see [1]KEEN cut the mustard informal : to be good enough to succeed or to do what is needed ▪ She tried to join the soccer team, but she couldn't cut the mustard. ▪ Now that we have computers, typewriters just don't cut the mustard anymore.

mustard gas noun [noncount] : a poison gas used as a weapon in a war

[1]mus•ter /ˈmʌstə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 [+ obj] : to work hard to find or get (courage, support, etc.) ▪ They pushed the car with all the strength they could muster. ▪ He finally mustered (up) the courage to ask her on a date. ▪ The country's leaders have been trying to muster (up) support for the war. ▪ They mustered (up) the 20 votes needed to pass the law.
2 : to gather together (a group of people, soldiers, etc.) especially for battle or war [+ obj] muster an army [no obj] The soldiers mustered [=gathered] in the center of town.

[2]muster noun, pl -ters [count] : a formal military gathering to examine or test soldiers ▪ a muster of soldiers pass muster : to be judged as acceptable or good enough ▪ These excuses will not pass muster. [=they are not acceptable] ▪ His cooking could pass muster in an expensive French restaurant.

must–have /ˈmʌstˌhæv/ noun, pl -haves [count] chiefly US, informal : something that is necessary to have or get ▪ The newest version of the software is a must-have.
– must–have adj, always used before a noun ▪ must-have software ▪ a must-have accessory mustn't /ˈmʌsnt/ — used as a contraction of must not ▪ We mustn't forget the lessons that history has taught us. ▪ You mustn't say such things.

must–see /ˈmʌstˈsi:/ noun, pl -sees [count] chiefly US, informal : something that must or should be seen ▪ His latest movie is a must-see.
– must–see adj, always used before a noun ▪ a must-see movie must've /ˈmʌstəv/ — used as a contraction of must have ▪ He must've left already.

musty /ˈmʌsti/ adj must•i•er; -est : having a bad smell because of wetness, old age, or lack of fresh air ▪ musty old books ▪ a dark and musty basement
– must•i•ness /ˈmʌstinəs/ noun [noncount] mu•ta•ble /ˈmju:təbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : able or likely to change often ▪ mutable opinions ▪ the government's mutable economic policies — opposite IMMUTABLE – mu•ta•bil•i•ty /ˌmju:təˈbɪlətɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ the mutability of the government's policies

mu•tant /ˈmju:tnt/ noun, pl -tants [count] biology : a plant or animal that is different from other plants or animals of the same kind because of a change in the structure of its genes : something produced by genetic mutation – mutant adj, always used before a noun ▪ a mutant fish

mu•tate /ˈmju:ˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing
1 biology a [+ obj] : to cause (a gene) to change and create an unusual characteristic in a plant or animal : to cause mutation in (a gene) ▪ a disease that mutates genes in humans ▪ a group of mutated genes b [no obj] : to change and cause an unusual characteristic to develop in a plant or animal ▪ The cells mutated.
2 [no obj] : to change into something very different ▪ Over time, her feelings mutated from hatred into love. ▪ opera singers mutating into pop stars mu•ta•tion /mjuˈteɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 biology : a change in the genes of a plant or animal that causes physical characteristics that are different from what is normal [noncount] The cat's short tail is the result of mutation. [count] The condition is caused by a genetic mutation. ▪ The cat's short tail is the result of a mutation. ▪ mutations in mice
2 [count] : a new form of something that has changed ▪ The building is a mutation of the original design.
– mu•ta•tion•al /mjuˈteɪʃənl/ adj ▪ a mutational change

[1]mute /ˈmju:t/ adj
1 : not able or willing to speak ▪ The defendant stood mute [=silent] during questioning. ▪ She knew the answer, but she decided to remain mute. [=silent] ▪ We just sat there, mute [=speechless], unable to explain what happened. ▪ The scientists have been mute [=they have not said anything] about the results of the tests. ▪ mute witnesses
2 : felt or expressed without the use of words ▪ They hugged each other in mute sympathy. ▪ I could see a mute plea for help in his eyes.
– mute•ly adv ▪ They waited mutely [=silently, quietly] for an answer. ▪ We stood staring mutely at the sky.

[2]mute noun, pl mutes [count]
1 sometimes offensive : a person who cannot speak
2 : a device on a musical instrument (such as a trumpet) that makes its sound much softer

[3]mute verb mutes; mut•ed; mut•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to make (a sound) softer or quieter ▪ They covered their ears to mute [=muffle] the sound of the guns. ▪ We muted our voices. b : to make (something, such as a television) silent ▪ He used the remote control to mute the TV.
2 : to make (something) softer or less harsh ▪ The loud colors in this room need to be muted. ▪ He muted his criticism of the president. [=he expressed his criticism less harshly]

mut•ed /ˈmju:təd/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : soft in color : not bright ▪ We painted our house a muted [=dull] blue. ▪ The artist chose colors that are dark and muted. ▪ muted lighting
2 : soft or quiet in sound : quieter than usual ▪ the muted sound of a distant trumpet ▪ muted voices
3 : not done or expressed in a strong, forceful, or excited way ▪ a muted political discussion ▪ The government chose a more muted response to the threat. ▪ Their proposal has drawn a muted reaction from most observers.

mu•ti•late /ˈmju:təˌleɪt/ verb -lates; -lat•ed; -lat•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause severe damage to (the body of a person or animal) ▪ traps that mutilate animals — usually used as (be) mutilated ▪ Her arm was mutilated in a car accident. ▪ the mutilated body of a murder victim
2 : to ruin the beauty of (something) : to severely damage or spoil (something) ▪ a painting mutilated by vandals ▪ mutilated books – mu•ti•la•tion /ˌmju:təˈleɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions [noncount] a victim of mutilation [count] facial mutilations

mu•ti•neer /ˌmju:təˈniə/ noun, pl -neers [count] : a person who is involved in a mutiny mu•ti•nous /ˈmju:tənəs/ adj

1 : involved in a mutiny ▪ mutinous sailors
2 [more ~; most ~] : feeling or showing a desire not to do what someone has told or ordered you to do ▪ Several mutinous [=rebellious] party members threatened to defect to the opposition.

mu•ti•ny /ˈmju:təni/ noun, pl -nies [count] : a situation in which a group of people (such as sailors or soldiers) refuse to obey orders and try to take control away from the person who commands them ▪ The mutiny was led by the ship's cook. ▪ The sailors staged a mutiny and took control of the ship.
– mutiny verb -nies; -nied; -ny•ing [no obj] ▪ The crew was threatening to mutiny.

mutt /ˈmʌt/ noun, pl mutts [count] informal : a dog with parents of different breeds : MONGREL — sometimes used in a disapproving way to refer to a dog of any kind ▪ a mangy mutt

mut•ter /ˈmʌtə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing
1 : to speak quietly so that it is difficult for other people to hear what you say [+ obj] She angrily muttered something about her bad luck. ▪ He muttered an apology. ▪ a muttered comment [no obj] She sat practicing her speech, muttering to herself.
2 [no obj] : to complain in a quiet or indirect way ▪ Some employees are muttering about the changes in the pension plan.
– mutter noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ She answered with/in a mutter. – muttering noun, pl -ings [noncount] There has been some muttering among the employees. [count] We've been hearing mutterings from some employees about the changes in the pension plan.

mut•ton /ˈmʌtn/ noun [noncount] : the meat of an adult sheep used as food ▪ a meal of mutton and potatoes ▪ a leg/shoulder of mutton mutton dressed as lamb Brit, informal + disapproving : a woman who tries to make herself look younger by wearing clothes designed for young people

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 90 SESS: 49 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:19 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-m

mut•ton•chops /ˈmʌtnˌʧɑːps/ noun [plural] : hair that covers the sides of a man's face but not his chin — called also muttonchop whiskers, (US) muttonchop sideburns

mu•tu•al /ˈmjuːʧəwəl/ adj

1 : shared between two or more people or groups ▪ Mutual love and respect was the key to their successful marriage. ▪ The partnership was based on mutual admiration and understanding. ▪ mutual trust ▪ countries relying on mutual support during difficult times ✧ If a feeling is mutual, then two people or groups feel the same way about each other. ▪ Her fans love her, and the feeling is mutual. [=and she loves her fans] ▪ Their attraction was mutual. [=they were both attracted to each other] ▪ "I'm pleased to meet you." "The feeling is mutual!" [=I'm also pleased to meet you]

2 always used before a noun : shared by two or more people or groups ▪ They met through a mutual friend. [=a person who was a friend of both of them] ▪ our mutual hobby of car racing ▪ The two countries have several mutual [=joint] interests. ▪ It was a mutual effort. ▪ We had a mutual agreement not to tell our secret.

– mu•tu•al•i•ty /ˌmjuːʧəˈwæləti/ noun [noncount] formal ▪ mutuality of interest mutual fund noun, pl ~ funds [count] US : a type of investment in which the money of many people is used to buy stock from many different companies ▪ She invested her money in a mutual fund. — called also (Brit) unit trust mu•tu•al•ly /ˈmjuːʧəwəli/ adv : in an equal way for each person or group involved ▪ We hope that these changes will be mutually beneficial. ▪ a mutually rewarding relationship ▪ mutually dependent countries [=countries that are equally dependent on each other] ▪ They loved and respected each other mutually.

mutually exclusive adj : related in such a way that each thing makes the other thing impossible : not able to be true at the same time or to exist together ▪ War and peace are mutually exclusive. [=war and peace cannot exist at the same time] ▪ mutually exclusive events — often used after not to describe things that can exist together or at the same time ▪ In a marriage, love and conflict are not mutually exclusive. [=both love and conflict can exist in a marriage at the same time]

muu•muu /ˈmuːˌmuː/ noun, pl -muus [count] : a Hawaiian dress that is usually long, loose-fitting, and decorated with bright colors — see color picture on page C16

Mu•zak /ˈmjuːˌzæk/ trademark — used for recorded music that is played in public buildings or rooms (such as stores or offices)

[1]muz•zle /ˈmʌzəl/ noun, pl muz•zles [count]

1 : the usually long nose and mouth of an animal (such as a dog, horse, or pig) : SNOUT — see picture at HORSE

2 : a covering for the mouth of a dog that stops it from biting people

3 : the hole at the end of a gun where the bullet comes out — see picture at GUN

[2]muzzle verb muz•zles; muz•zled; muz•zling [+ obj]

1 : to put a muzzle on (a dog) : to place a covering on (the mouth of a dog) to stop biting ▪ a dangerous dog that should be muzzled

2 : to prevent (a person or group) from speaking or writing in a free or normal way ▪ attempts by the government to muzzle the press ▪ The company has tried to muzzle its employees by forbidding them to speak to the press.

muz•zy /ˈmʌzi/ adj muzz•i•er; -est Brit, informal

1 : confused or unclear in the mind especially after drinking alcohol ▪ He stopped drinking when his head started getting muzzy. ▪ The medicine made her feel muzzy [=dazed, groggy] and tired.

2 : not clear or exact ▪ The story gets muzzy [=(US) fuzzy] in the middle of the book. ▪ muzzy conclusions ▪ muzzy [=fuzzy, blurry] photographs

– muz•zi•ly /ˈmʌzəli/ adv – muz•zi•ness /ˈmʌzinəs/ noun [noncount]

my /ˈmaɪ/ adj, possessive form of I

1 always used before a noun : relating to or belonging to me ▪ Welcome to my home. ▪ I enjoy my job very much. ▪ My favorite TV show was on last night. ▪ My name is John. ▪ When I woke up this morning, my head ached and my throat was sore. ▪ My wife and I both love to dance. : made or done by me ▪ I always keep my promises. ▪ It was my fault that we lost the game.

2 always used before a noun — used to express affection for someone you are talking to ▪ How are you, my friend? ▪ Come with me, my love. ▪ Sleep well, my child.

3 informal — used by itself and in phrases to express surprise, excitement, or fear ▪ Oh my, what a wonderful gift! ▪ Oh, my goodness. What happened to you? ▪ Oh my lord, look at the time! ▪ My God, you must be joking!

my•al•gic en•ceph•a•lo•my•eli•tis /maɪˈælʤɪkɪnˌsɛfəloʊˌmajəˈlaɪtəs/ noun [noncount] Brit, medical : CHRONIC FATIGUE SYNDROME

my•nah or my•na /ˈmaɪnə/ noun, pl -nahs or -nas [count] : a black bird from Asia that is often kept as a pet and trained to copy the sounds of words — called also mynah bird

my•o•pia /maɪˈoʊpijə/ noun [noncount] medical : a condition of the eye that makes it difficult to see objects that are far away : NEARSIGHTEDNESS ▪ She wears eyeglasses to correct her myopia. — often used figuratively ▪ cultural myopia [=an inability to see what is good in other cultures] ▪ religious and moral myopia

my•o•pic /maɪˈɑːpɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 medical : not able to clearly see objects that are far away : affected with myopia : NEARSIGHTED ▪ myopic vision

2 disapproving : only thinking or caring about things that are happening now or that relate to a particular group rather than things that are in the future or that relate to many people ▪ myopic politicians ▪ He has criticized the government's myopic [=shortsighted] diplomatic policies. ▪ a myopic view of the world

[1]myr•i•ad /ˈmirijəd/ noun, pl -ads [count] somewhat formal : a very large number of things ▪ The car comes in a myriad of colors. [=in many colors] ▪ There are a myriad of possibilities. — often plural ▪ myriads of stars/insects

[2]myriad adj, somewhat formal : very many ▪ The old system's problems were myriad. — usually used before a noun ▪ myriad problems ▪ Today we remember the myriad ways she helped others in her lifetime.

myrrh /ˈmə/ noun [noncount] : a sticky brown substance that comes from trees, that has a sweet smell, and that is used in products that give the air or people's bodies a pleasing smell myr•tle /ˈmətl/ noun, pl myr•tles [count] : a type of small tree that has sweet-smelling white or pink flowers and black berries

my•self /maɪˈsɛlf/ pronoun

1 : the person who is speaking or writing: a — used as the object of a verb or preposition to refer to yourself after you have already been mentioned ▪ I accidentally cut myself while cooking. ▪ I'm going to get myself a new car. ▪ I bought myself a new suit. ▪ I consider myself to be a pretty good swimmer. ▪ I had to ask myself if this was what I truly wanted. ▪ I reminded myself that this is just a game. ▪ I told a bad joke and made myself look foolish. ▪ I am proud of myself for finishing college. ▪ I could no longer keep the secret to myself. ▪ I'm doing this for myself. [=for my own benefit] ▪ I said to myself, "Here's a man who knows what he's doing." ▪ I had the house (all) to myself. [=I was alone in the house] ▪ I wanted to see it for myself. [=to see it rather than have someone tell me about it, describe it to me, etc.] b — used for emphasis to refer again to yourself after you have already been mentioned ▪ I told him so myself. ▪ If you won't go, then I'll go myself. ▪ I myself have never been to Italy. ▪ I myself have experienced the same thing.

2 : my normal or healthy self ▪ I was nervous and uncomfortable and just didn't feel (like) myself. ▪ I'm not feeling (like) myself today. I think I may be coming down with a cold. ▪ I'm not myself today. I just don't feel right. ▪ I find it hard to be myself [=to relax and behave in my usual way] when I'm with people I don't know well.

by myself 1 : without any help from other people ▪ I can't do it (all) by myself. ▪ It's hard to believe that I started this company by myself 20 years ago. 2 : with nobody else : ALONE ▪ I went to movies by myself. ▪ I had to play in my room (all) by myself.

mys•te•ri•ous /mɪˈstirijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : strange, unknown, or difficult to understand ▪ the mysterious ways of nature ▪ We heard a mysterious noise outside our tent. ▪ He died under mysterious circumstances. ▪ A mysterious illness has been spreading through the city. ▪ There's something mysterious about that old woman. ▪ Her behavior was very mysterious. ✧ Mysterious people are often interesting because many things are not known about them. ▪ A mysterious stranger came to our door. ▪ the movie's handsome and mysterious main character

M

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 91 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:20 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−m

be mysterious : to talk or behave in a way that makes other people feel that you must have a secret ▪ What are you being so mysterious about?
– mys·te·ri·ous·ly adv ▪ He died mysteriously at the age of 32. ▪ She smiled mysteriously.

mys·tery /ˈmɪstəri/ noun, pl -ter·ies
1 [count] : something that is not known ▪ Where they went is a mystery. [=no one knows where they went] ▪ The girl's name remains a mystery. : something that is difficult to understand or explain ▪ The mystery surrounding/of her disappearance has never been solved. ▪ His success is something of a mystery. = His success is a bit of a mystery. ▪ The cause of the disease remains a mystery to scientists. ▪ I don't know how he did it. It's a mystery to me!
2 [noncount] : the quality of being difficult to understand or explain : the quality of being mysterious ▪ The experiment is cloaked/shrouded/veiled in mystery. ▪ There is an air of mystery surrounding her. = She is a woman of mystery. ▪ There's no mystery (to/as to/about) why we're here. = It's no mystery why we're here. [=we know why we are here]
3 [count] : a religious event or idea that cannot be fully understood or explained ▪ the mystery of creation
4 [count] : a book, play, or movie that describes a crime and the process of solving it ▪ She has written many adventure novels and murder mysteries. — often used before another noun ▪ mystery novels/stories ▪ She's a mystery writer.
5 [count] : someone or something whose identity has been kept secret especially in order to create interest or excitement — usually used before another noun ▪ We'll reveal the identity of today's mystery guest after these commercials. ▪ You'll find a mystery prize in each box.

mystery play noun, pl ~ plays [count] : a religious play in the Middle Ages based on a story from the Bible (such as the creation of the world or the birth of Jesus Christ)

[1]mys·tic /ˈmɪstɪk/ noun, pl -tics [count] : a person who tries to gain religious or spiritual knowledge through prayer and deep thought : someone who practices mysticism

[2]mystic adj [more ~; most ~] : MYSTICAL ▪ She had a mystic vision while praying. ▪ a mystic journey

mys·ti·cal /ˈmɪstɪkəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : having a spiritual meaning that is difficult to see or understand ▪ He has a mystical [mystic] union/relationship with God. ▪ She says that the symbol has mystical powers. ▪ the deep, almost mystical quality of her poetry
2 : of or relating to mystics or mysticism : resulting from prayer or deep thought ▪ a mystical experience ▪ a mystical journey in search of God ▪ mystical knowledge of the spirit world
– mys·ti·cal·ly /ˈmɪstɪkli/ adv ▪ mystically united with God

mys·ti·cism /ˈmɪstəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a religious practice based on the belief that knowledge of spiritual truth can be gained by praying or thinking deeply ▪ Jewish, Christian, and Islamic mysticism ▪ a student of Eastern mysticism

mys·ti·fy /ˈmɪstəˌfaɪ/ verb - es ; - ed ; -fy·ing [+ obj] : to confuse (someone) completely ▪ The cause of the disease mystified doctors for many years. ▪ Her strange behavior has mystified [=baffled] her friends and family. ▪ I was thoroughly mystified by his reaction. [=I could not understand his reaction] ▪ The magician has been mystifying his audiences for years with his amazing tricks.
– mys·ti· ·ca·tion /ˌmɪstəfəˈkeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
– mystifying adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ her mystifying behavior – mys·ti·fy·ing·ly adv

mys·tique /mɪˈsti:k/ noun [singular] : a special quality that makes a person or thing interesting or exciting ▪ There's a certain mystique to/about people who fight fires. ▪ No one has been able to copy the legendary singer's mystique. ▪ the mystique of mountain climbing myth /ˈmɪθ/ noun, pl myths

1 : an idea or story that is believed by many people but that is not true [count] It's an enduring/persistent myth that money brings happiness. ▪ The book dispels/refutes/debunks many myths about early American history. [=shows that many beliefs about early American history are wrong] ▪ I don't believe the myths and legends about/surrounding this forest. [noncount] Contrary to popular myth, no monster lives in this lake.
2 a [count] : a story that was told in an ancient culture to explain a practice, belief, or natural occurrence ▪ creation myths [=stories about how people and the world were first created] b [noncount] : such stories as a group ▪ a student of Greek myth [=mythology]

myth·ic /ˈmɪθɪk/ adj
1 : of or relating to a myth ▪ a mythic story : described in a myth ▪ a mythic [=(more commonly) mythical] hero
2 : suitable to a myth : very famous or important ▪ He's reached the end of a mythic [=legendary] career. ▪ She's one of the mythic figures in ice-skating. ▪ His fame has grown to mythic proportions.

myth·i·cal /ˈmɪθɪkəl/ adj
1 : based on or described in a myth ▪ Hercules was a mythical hero who was half man and half god. ▪ gods fighting in a mythical battle in the sky ▪ a mythical beast/creature
2 : existing only in the imagination : IMAGINARY ▪ The sportswriters picked a mythical all-star team. ▪ The benefits of the new policy proved to be mythical.
– myth·i·cal·ly /ˈmɪθɪkli/ adv ▪ mythically heroic characters of the past

my·thol·o·gize also Brit my·thol·o·gise /mɪˈθɑ:ləˌʤaɪz/ verb -giz·es; -gized; -giz·ing [+ obj] : to talk about or describe (someone or something) as a subject that deserves to be told about in a myth or legend : to make (someone or something) seem great or heroic ▪ a politician who has been mythologized by his supporters ▪ mythologize the past

my·thol·o·gy /mɪˈθɑ:ləʤi/ noun, pl -gies
1 : the myths of a particular group or culture [noncount] We have been studying ancient Greek mythology. [count] We compared the two cultures' mythologies.
2 : ideas that are believed by many people but that are not true [noncount] Contrary to popular mythology [=myth], he did not actually discover the cause of the disease by himself. [singular] There is a popular mythology that he discovered the cause of the disease by himself.
– myth·o·log·i·cal /ˌmɪθəˈlɑ:ʤɪkəl/ adj ▪ mythological heroes ▪ a mythological story

N

[1]n or N /ˈɛn/ noun, pl n's or ns or N's or Ns /ˈɛnz/
1 : the 14th letter of the English alphabet [count] a word that starts with an n [noncount] a word that starts with n
2 [noncount] mathematics : a number that is part of an equation and that has a value that is not stated ▪ What is the value of n in the equation 5n + 2 = 37?

[2]n abbr noun

'n' also 'n /ən, ŋ/ conj : AND ▪ rock 'n' roll

N abbr north, northern

NA abbr 1 North America 2 not applicable — often written as N/A 3 not available — often written as N/A

NAACP abbr National Association for the Advancement of Colored People ✧ The NAACP is an American organization that works to protect the rights of African-Americans.

naan also nan /ˈnɑ:n/ noun [count, noncount] : an Indian bread that is round, flat, and soft nab /ˈnæb/ verb nabs; nabbed; nab·bing [+ obj] informal

1 : to catch and stop or arrest (someone) ▪ The police nabbed [=(more formally) apprehended] the two men in their hideout. ▪ nabbing criminals ▪ The boss nabbed [=caught] me at the coffee machine and asked me to stay late.
2 : to take or get (something) quickly and often in a way that is clever or rude ▪ I was thinking about nabbing [=grabbing, snatching] that last piece of pizza. ▪ We nabbed seats in the front row of the theater.

na·bob /ˈneɪˌbɑ:b/ noun, pl -bobs [count] informal : a very rich or important person ▪ corporate nabobs

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 1 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:40 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

na•chos /ˈnɑːˌʧoʊz/ noun [plural] : tortilla chips that are covered with warm melted cheese and often with hot peppers, beans, salsa, etc.

na•da /ˈnɑːdə/ noun [noncount] informal : ¹NOTHING 1 ▪ It won't cost you anything—zero, nothing, nada.

na•dir /ˈneɪˌdiə/ noun [singular] formal : the worst or lowest point of something ▪ The relationship between the two countries reached a/its nadir in the 1920s. — opposite ZENITH naff /ˈnæf/ adj naff•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] Brit slang : of low quality especially in a way that shows a lack of style or taste ▪ The film was a bit naff.

¹nag /ˈnæg/ verb nags; nagged; nag•ging

1 a : to annoy (someone) by often complaining about his or her behavior, appearance, etc. [+ obj] — + about ▪ My wife nags me about my busy work schedule. ▪ Mom's always nagging me about my hair. [no obj] All you ever do is nag. b : to annoy (someone) with repeated questions, requests, or orders [+ obj] My parents are always nagging me to clean my room. ▪ He kept nagging her until she agreed to see the movie. [no obj] Quit nagging! I already said I'm not going.

2 : to cause (someone) to feel annoyed or worried for a long period of time [+ obj] She's still nagged [=bothered] by the thought that she could have done better. [no obj] — often + at ▪ The problem has been nagging at me for weeks.

– nagging /ˈnægɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun [more ~; most ~] ▪ A few nagging questions/problems remain. ▪ I have this nagging doubt/feeling/fear/suspicion that our troubles aren't over yet. ▪ a nagging headache/cough/pain ▪ nagging injuries that just won't heal

²nag noun, pl nags [count] informal : a person who nags or complains too often ▪ His wife's an awful nag. — compare ³NAG

³nag noun, pl nags [count] : a horse that is old and usually in bad condition — compare ²NAG

nah /ˈnæ, ˈnæə, ˈnɑː/ adv, informal : ¹NO ✧ Nah is used in very informal spoken English. ▪ "Do you want to come with us?" "Nah, I've got too much work to do."

¹nail /ˈneɪl/ noun, pl nails [count]

1 : a long, thin piece of metal that is sharp at one end and flat at the other end and that is used chiefly to attach things to wood ▪ a hammer and some nails — see picture at CARPENTRY; compare ¹SCREW 1

2 : the hard covering at the end of a finger or toe : a fingernail or toenail ▪ I get my nails done at the beauty salon every other week. ▪ a pair of nail clippers — see also HANGNAIL

a nail in the/someone's coffin : something that makes it more likely that someone or something will fail, be destroyed, etc. ▪ Every mistake is one more nail in the coffin of his professional baseball career. ▪ The lawyers put another nail in her coffin today.

(as) hard/tough as nails of a person : very tough ▪ When she's negotiating a contract, she can be as tough as nails.

hit the nail on the head see ¹HIT

tooth and nail see TOOTH

²nail verb nails; nailed; nail•ing [+ obj]

1 always followed by an adverb, adjective, or preposition : to attach (something) with a nail ▪ Nail the picture to the wall. ▪ nailing [=hammering] the boards together ▪ All the doors were nailed shut. ▪ The desks and chairs had been nailed (down) to the floor.

2 informal a : to catch (someone) doing something illegal or wrong ▪ He got nailed by his parents while trying to sneak out of the house. b : to arrest or punish (someone) for doing something that is illegal or wrong ▪ He got nailed for not paying his taxes. ▪ The FBI has nailed the hackers.

3 informal : to hit (someone or something) forcefully ▪ Someone nailed [=whacked] him on the head with a rock.

4 US, informal : to make or do (something) in a perfect or impressive way ▪ She nailed a three-point shot in the final seconds of the game. ▪ You really nailed that song. It sounded great!

nail down [phrasal verb] nail (something) down or nail down (something) 1 : to make (something, such as a victory) certain to happen ▪ They need to score another touchdown to nail down the victory. 2 : to find out or identify (something) exactly ▪ Her doctors haven't yet been able to nail down a diagnosis. ▪ They're trying to nail down the cause of our network problems. 3 : to make (something) definite or final ▪ nail down a decision nail–bit•er /ˈneɪlˌbaɪtə/ noun [singular] : something (such as a game or movie) that causes people to feel nervous because the ending is not known until the final moment ▪ This election's going to be a real nail-biter.

– nail–bit•ing /ˈneɪlˌbaɪtɪŋ/ adj ▪ The election is heading for a nail-biting finish.

nail le noun, pl ~ les [count] : a small, flat piece of metal or cardboard that has a rough surface and that is used for shaping your fingernails — see picture at GROOMING

nail polish noun [noncount] : a liquid that is used to paint fingernails and toenails ▪ red nail polish ▪ nail polish remover — called also (Brit) nail varnish; see picture at GROOMING na•ive or na•ïve /nɑˈiːv, naɪˈiːv/ adj [more ~; most ~] : having or showing a lack of experience or knowledge : innocent or simple ▪ a naive belief that all people are good ▪ a naïve view of the world ▪ She asked a lot of naive questions. ▪ He's politically naive. = He's naive about the nature of politics. ▪ I was young and naive at the time, and I didn't think anything bad could happen to me. ▪ The plan seems a little naive. ▪ If you're naive enough to believe him, you'll believe anyone. ▪ We're not naive to the fact [=we're not unaware of the fact] that there are problems with the system.

– na•ive•ly or na•ïve•ly adv ▪ I naively believed that we could fix the problem. – na•ïve•té also na•ive•te or na•ive•té /nɑˌiːvˈteɪ, naɪˌiːvˈteɪ/ noun [noncount] ▪ political naïveté – na•ive•ty also na•ïve•ty /nɑˈiːvəti, naɪˈiːvəti/ noun [noncount] chiefly Brit ▪ political naïvety

na•ked /ˈneɪkəd/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] : not wearing any clothes : not covered by clothing ▪ a naked [=nude] man ▪ the naked human body ▪ her naked [=(more commonly) bare] shoulders ▪ He was naked from the waist up. ▪ The prisoners were stripped naked. [=all of their clothes were taken off] ▪ She was half naked [=partly dressed] when the doorbell rang. ▪ He's stark naked. [=he's completely naked]

2 : not having a usual covering ▪ The trees are still naked [=(more commonly) bare], but their leaves will return soon. ▪ a naked [=uncovered] lightbulb

3 : not having any decorations ▪ the room's naked [=bare, plain] walls

4 always used before a noun a : not hidden or changed in any way : stated in a very clear and direct way ▪ These are the naked facts of the case. ▪ Tell me everything. I want the naked truth. [=the complete truth, the whole story] b : completely obvious ▪ an act of naked aggression

5 always used before a noun : without the use of a telescope, microscope, etc. ▪ distant stars and planets that cannot be seen with the naked eye ▪ Though extremely small, this insect is visible to the naked eye.

– na•ked•ly adv ▪ She's the most nakedly ambitious person I know. – na•ked•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The actor was uncomfortable with his nakedness. [=the fact that he was naked] nam•by–pam•by /ˌnæmbiˈpæmbi/ adj [more ~; most ~] informal + disapproving : too weak or gentle : not strong or strict enough ▪ namby-pamby politicians ▪ namby-pamby treatment of criminals

¹name /ˈneɪm/ noun, pl names [count]

1 : a word or phrase that refers to or that can refer to a specific person ▪ "What's his (first) name?" "His name is Jacob." ▪ I took my husband's (last) name when we got married. ▪ Please write/sign your name on this line. ▪ State your name and occupation. ▪ I refused to give/tell them my name. ▪ She has one of the most famous names [=she is one of the most famous people] in show business. ▪ Can you give me the name of a good dentist? [=do you know a good dentist that I could use?] ▪ Mark Twain's real name was Samuel Clemens. ▪ She registered at the hotel under/using a false/assumed name. ▪ Samuel Clemens wrote under the name (of) Mark Twain. ▪ My full name is Susan Elaine Smith. ▪ Her name is Susan, but she goes by the name (of) Sue. [=people call her Sue] ▪ Do you know a man by the name of [=do you know a man named] James Smith? ▪ She now owns several restaurants that bear her name. [=that are named after her] ▪ Can I put your name down for a donation? [=can I write down your name on the list of people who are giving a donation?; would you like to make a donation?] — see also CHRISTIAN NAME, FAMILY NAME, FIRST NAME, FORENAME, GIVEN NAME, LAST NAME, MAIDEN NAME, MARRIED NAME, MIDDLE NAME, NICKNAME, PEN NAME, PET NAME, STAGE NAME, SURNAME

2 a : a word or phrase that refers to a specific place or thing ▪ We had to memorize the names of all the countries in Africa. ▪ "What's your dog's name?" "His name is Sandy." ▪ What was the name [=title] of that movie we saw last night? ▪ This is his song "Loving You" from the album of the same name. ▪ The ship's name was "Titanic." ▪ The band takes/gets its name from [=it is named after] its hometown. ▪ The company gives/lends its name to one of the biggest golf tournaments in the country. [=the golf tournament is named after the company] b : a word or phrase that refers to a type or group of things ▪ Psychologists have a name for this kind of behavior. ▪ Is there a name for the part of the leg behind the knee? ▪ The cougar is also known by the names "puma" and "mountain lion." ▪ The plant's botanical/scientific name is Chrysanthemum leucanthemum, but we know it by its common name "daisy." ▪ True to their name, killer bees have been known to kill people. = As their name implies/suggests, killer bees really do kill. = Killer bees really live up to their name. = Killer bees are known to kill people, hence the name. — see also BRAND NAME, CODE NAME, PLACE NAME, PROPER NAME, TRADE NAME

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 2 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:41 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

3 : the general opinion that most people have about someone or something ▪ A few dishonest players have given the sport a bad name. [=they have made people think badly about the sport] ▪ I won't let you ruin our family's good name. [=good reputation] ▪ He's still trying to clear his name. [=to prove that he is not guilty of a crime]

4 : a famous person or thing ▪ He's one of the biggest names in music. ▪ Our agency has represented some of the most famous names in the business. ▪ The following year, she took the role that would make her a household name. [=a very well-known person] — see also BIG NAME, NAME-DROPPING, NO-NAME

5 : a word or phrase that is used to describe and insult someone ▪ a bad/dirty name — usually plural ▪ Sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me! ▪ "You're such a stupid jerk!" "Hey, don't call me names!" ▪ A bully at school was calling her names. — see also NAME-CALLING by name : using a name : by saying the name of someone or something ▪ He never mentioned her by name [=he never said her name], but we all knew who he was talking about. ▪ The victim was able to identify his attacker by name. [=he knew the name of the person who attacked him] ▪ We've had people come in to the store and ask for it by name.

drag someone's name through the mud see [1]DRAG

in all/everything but name : not in an official way but in every other way ▪ Military governors ruled the country in all but name for many years. ▪ Their marriage was over in all but name five years ago.

in name only also in name — used to describe a person or thing that does not have the qualities that its name suggests ▪ For many years, the Emperor was the ruler in name only. = The Emperor ruled in name but not in fact. ▪ She's my boss in name only. We're really more like partners. ▪ a friend in name only in someone's/something's name or in the name of someone/something 1 a — used to say that something officially or legally belongs to a specified person ▪ We both own the house, but the car is in my name. ▪ The business is registered in her husband's name for tax purposes. b — used to say that something has or uses the name of a specified person ▪ Our reservation at the restaurant is in my name. 2 — used to say that something is done with the authority of a specified person or thing ▪ The leader refused to allow such violent acts to be done in his name. ▪ Stop in the name of the law! 3 — used to say that something is given as the official reason for doing something ▪ These laws were passed in the name of national security. ▪ They're tearing down historic buildings in the name of progress!

know (someone) by name 1 : to know a person well enough to know the person's name ▪ She knows all of her customers by name. ▪ I took her to a restaurant where the owner knows me by name. ▪ The police know him by name. 2 : to know a person's name only ▪ He said he only knew her by name and didn't know much more about her.

make your name or make a name for yourself : to become well-known or famous ▪ She made her name in politics as a powerful public speaker. ▪ He has made quite a name for himself as a golfer. ▪ She is making a name for herself in the art world.

put a name to (someone or something) : to think of and say the name of (someone or something) ▪ Can you put a name to the face in this photograph? ▪ I couldn't put a name to the emotion I was feeling.

take someone's name in vain see VAIN

the name of the game informal : the basic goal or purpose of an activity ▪ When all is said and done, in business, profit is the name of the game. ▪ The name of the game was winning by any means necessary.

to your name : belonging to you ▪ I haven't a dollar/dime/penny to my name. [=I have no money] ▪ She has more than 20 novels to her name. [=she has written more than 20 novels] ▪ a band with three hit songs to their name under someone's/something's name or under the name (of) someone/something 1 — used to say that something officially or legally belongs to a specified person ▪ We both own the house, but the car is under my name. ▪ The business is registered under her husband's name for tax purposes. 2 — used to say that something has or uses the name of a specified person ▪ We have dinner reservations under the name of Jones.

with someone's name on it informal : intended for someone ▪ There's a piece of cake over there with your name on it. [=you should go get that piece of cake] ▪ He told me he had a bullet with my name on it. [=he was going to shoot me]

your name is mud see MUD

[2]name verb names; named; nam•ing [+ obj]

1 : to give a name to (someone or something) ▪ "What are you going to name your new dog?" "I think I'll name him Sandy." ▪ The aptly named HMS "Victorious" helped the British Royal Navy win an important victory. ▪ A man named James Smith is on the phone. ▪ We named our daughter "Mary" in honor of her grandmother. ▪ Alzheimer's disease was named after Dr. Alois Alzheimer. = (US) It was named for Dr. Alois Alzheimer.

2 : to say the name of (someone or something) ▪ Can you name the person who attacked you? ▪ All of the authors named above were influenced by his work. ▪ "How many of the 50 states of the U.S. can you name?" "Well, there's New York, Connecticut, and Massachusetts, to name (but/just/only) a few."

3 : to choose (someone) to be (something) ▪ The company president named [=appointed] his son (as) his successor. ▪ She was named to replace him as the company's vice president. ▪ She has been named (as) the winner of the competition. ▪ The magazine named him (as) the best artist of the year.

4 : to decide on or choose (something) ▪ NASA has not yet named [=set] the date for the shuttle launch. ▪ We've decided to get married, but we haven't named the day (of the wedding) yet.

name names : to say the names of people who were involved in something ▪ He said he knew who did it, but he wouldn't name names.

name your price : to say how much you want to pay for something or how much you want to sell something for ▪ Customers can name their price. ▪ People selling homes on the beach can basically name their price. [=they can sell their homes for any amount of money they want] you name it informal : anything you could say or think of ▪ You name it, we sell it! ▪ I like all kinds of music: rock, blues, reggae, classical—you name it!

[3]name adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US : having a well-known name and good reputation ▪ We got a couple of name [=big-name] bands for the show. ▪ books by name authors ▪ name players

name brand noun, pl ~ brands [count] : a product that is made by a well-known company ▪ clothing stores that sell name brands at low prices — compare BRAND NAME, STORE BRAND

– name-brand adj, always used before a noun ▪ name-brand clothing

name-call•ing /ˈneɪmˌkɑːlɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of using offensive names to insult someone ▪ "That man is an arrogant, immoral fool!" "I understand your anger, but name-calling won't get you anywhere." ▪ Don't resort to name-calling. Let's talk about the real issues.

name-drop•ping /ˈneɪmˌdrɑːpɪŋ/ noun [noncount] : the act of trying to impress someone by saying the names of well-known people that you know or have met ▪ There's an excessive amount of name-dropping in his autobiography.

– name-drop /ˈneɪmˌdrɑːp/ verb -drops; -dropped; -drop•ping [no obj] ▪ He kept name-dropping [=dropping names] but no one was impressed. – name-drop•per /ˈneɪmˌdrɑːpɚ/ noun, pl -pers [count]

name•less /ˈneɪmləs/ adj

1 : having a name that is not known or told ▪ the nameless [=anonymous, unknown] author of the editorial ▪ She left the

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 3 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

hotel with a nameless man in a black jacket. ▪ a nameless informant ▪ The source for my story prefers to remain nameless. ▪ A top government official, who shall remain nameless, has expressed concern about the decision.
2 : not having a name ▪ a nameless [=unnamed] stream in the woods ▪ a nameless baby
3 : not marked with a name ▪ The men were buried there in nameless graves.
4 a : not able to be identified by name ▪ There was a strange, nameless odor coming from the basement. ▪ nameless fears and worries b : too bad to talk about ▪ the nameless horrors of war

name•ly /ˈneɪmli/ adv — used when giving exact information about something you have already mentioned ▪ They brought lunch, namely sandwiches, chips, and soda. ▪ The disease can be prevented, namely by exercising, eating right, and not smoking. ▪ I have a question; namely, should we sell the property or not? ▪ She made a suggestion, namely that the student not be admitted.

name•plate /ˈneɪmˌpleɪt/ noun, pl -plates [count] : a metal or plastic sign that is attached to a door or wall and that shows the name of the person, group, or company that lives or works there name•sake /ˈneɪmˌseɪk/ noun, pl -sakes [count] : someone or something that has the same name as another person or thing ▪ How much did President George Bush influence his son and namesake George W. Bush?

name tag noun, pl ~ tags [count] : a piece of paper, cloth, plastic, or metal that has a person's name written on it and that is attached to the person's clothing ▪ She handed out name tags for people to wear at the conference. ▪ I didn't notice the supervisor's name tag on his uniform.

[1]nan /ˈnæn/ noun, pl nans [count] Brit : NANA

[2]nan variant spelling of NAAN

nana also Brit nan•na /ˈnænə/ noun, pl nan•as [count] : GRANDMOTHER — used especially by young children ▪ Are we going to visit nana today?

nan•ny /ˈnæni/ noun, pl -nies [count]
1 : a woman who is paid to care for a young child usually in the child's home ▪ When I was growing up, I had a nanny.
2 Brit : GRANDMOTHER

nanny goat noun, pl ~ goats [count] : a female goat — compare BILLY GOAT

nano- combining form, technical : one billionth part of something ▪ *nano*second nano•sec•ond /ˈnænəˌsɛkənd/ noun, pl -onds [count]

1 technical : one billionth of a second ▪ It happens in less than a nanosecond.
2 : a very short time

nano•tech•nol•o•gy /ˌnænoʊtɛkˈnɑːlədʒi/ noun [noncount] technical : the science of working with atoms and molecules to build devices (such as robots) that are extremely small

[1]nap /ˈnæp/ noun, pl naps [count] : a short period of sleep especially during the day ▪ She awoke from her nap rested and refreshed. ▪ You look like you could use a nap. ▪ He put the baby down for a nap. ▪ Grandma takes a nap every afternoon. — compare [3]NAP

[2]nap verb naps; napped; nap•ping [no obj]
1 : to sleep for a short period of time especially during the day ▪ He's napping [=dozing] on the couch.
2 : to be in a state in which you are not prepared to deal with something because you were not paying attention ▪ The goalie had to be napping when that ball got by him. ▪ When the problem appeared again, the government was caught napping. [=the government was not prepared to deal with it]

[3]nap noun, pl naps [count] : a soft layer of threads on the surface of a piece of cloth, a carpet, etc. — compare [1]NAP

na•palm /ˈneɪˌpɑːm/ noun [noncount] : a thick substance that contains gasoline and that is used in bombs that cause a destructive fire over a wide area

nape /ˈneɪp/ noun [singular] : the back of the neck ▪ Her hair was tied back at the nape of her neck.

nap•kin /ˈnæpkən/ noun, pl -kins [count] : a small piece of cloth or paper used during a meal to clean your lips and fingers and to protect your clothes — called also (Brit) serviette; see picture at PLACE SETTING; see also SANITARY NAPKIN

[1]nap•py /ˈnæpi/ adj nap•pi•er; -est US, informal, of hair : having many tight bends or curls ▪ short nappy [=kinky] hair

[2]nappy noun, pl -pies [count] Brit : [1]DIAPER

nappy rash noun [noncount] Brit : DIAPER RASH

narc also nark /ˈnɑːrk/ noun, pl narcs also narks [count] US, informal : a person (such as a government agent) who tries to catch criminals who buy and sell illegal drugs

nar•cis•sis•tic /ˌnɑːrsəˈsɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving : loving and admiring yourself and especially your appearance too much ▪ a narcissistic young actor
– nar•cis•sism /ˈnɑːrsəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ the actor's narcissism

nar•cis•sus /nɑːrˈsɪsəs/ noun, pl nar•cis•si /nɑːrˈsɪˌsaɪ/ or narcissus or nar•cis•sus•es [count] : DAFFODIL nar•co•lep•sy /ˈnɑːrkəˌlɛpsi/ noun [noncount] medical : a medical condition in which someone suddenly falls into a deep sleep while talking, working, etc.

nar•cot•ic /nɑːrˈkɑːtɪk/ noun, pl -ics [count]
1 : a drug (such as cocaine, heroin, or marijuana) that affects the brain and that is usually dangerous and illegal ▪ an addictive narcotic — often plural ▪ He was arrested for selling narcotics. ▪ narcotics agents/detectives ▪ narcotics dealers/traffickers [=people who sell narcotics]
2 medical : a drug that is given to people in small amounts to make them sleep or feel less pain ▪ a mild narcotic
– narcotic adj ▪ narcotic addiction ▪ narcotic drugs ▪ The drug has a mild narcotic effect. [=the drug makes you feel slightly sleepy]

nar•rate /ˈneɹˌeɪt, Brit nəˈreɪt/ verb -rates; -rat•ed; -rating [+ obj]
1 : to tell (a story) ▪ The author narrates her story in great detail.
2 : to say the words that are heard as part of (a movie, television show, etc.) and that describe what is being seen : to do the narration for (something) ▪ Who narrated that film? ▪ a documentary narrated by a famous actor
– nar•ra•tor /ˈneɹˌeɪtɚ, Brit nəˈreɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count] ▪ The narrator of the story is a ten-year-old child.

nar•ra•tion /næˈreɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 somewhat formal : the act or process of telling a story or describing what happens [noncount] the narration of events ▪ The novel uses first-person narration. [count] first-person narrations
2 : words that are heard as part of a movie, television show, etc., and that describe what is being seen [noncount] They got a famous actor to do the narration for the documentary. [count] an actor who does narrations for documentaries

[1]nar•ra•tive /ˈnerətɪv/ noun, pl -tives [count] formal : a story that is told or written ▪ He is writing a detailed narrative of his life on the island. ▪ People have questioned the accuracy of his narrative. ▪ fictional narratives

[2]narrative adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to the process of telling a story ▪ her narrative style/technique [=the way she tells a story]
2 : having the form of a story ▪ a narrative poem

[1]nar•row /ˈnerou/ adj nar•row•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]
1 : long and not wide : small from one side to the other side ▪ a long, narrow table ▪ narrow hallways/passageways ▪ The city's ancient streets are too narrow for buses. ▪ The sofa isn't narrow enough [=it is too wide] to fit through the door. ▪ a narrow path ▪ We crossed at the narrowest part of the river. ▪ His shoulders are very narrow. — opposite BROAD, WIDE
2 : including or involving a small number of things or people : limited in range or amount ▪ within the narrow limits allowed by law ▪ They offer a narrow range/choice of flavors: chocolate, strawberry, and vanilla. ▪ the study's narrow focus on 30-year-old men ▪ The study was narrow in scope. ▪ a narrow view/perspective of politics — opposite BROAD, WIDE 3 : almost not successful : very close to failure ▪ a narrow escape/victory : almost not enough for success ▪ They won by a narrow [=close, small] margin.
the straight and narrow see [3]STRAIGHT
– nar•row•ness noun [noncount]

[2]narrow verb -rows; -rowed; -row•ing
1 a [+ obj] : to make (something) less wide ▪ She narrowed her eyes and stared at me. = She stared at me through narrowed [=partly closed] eyes. ▪ The path was narrowed by overgrowth. b [no obj] : to become less wide ▪ His eyes narrowed as he focused on the words in front of him. ▪ The vase narrows at its top.
2 a [+ obj] : to make (something) smaller in amount or range ▪ The field has been narrowed [=reduced] from eight to two candidates. ▪ We've been able to narrow [=limit] the search to a three-mile area. ▪ narrowing the range of options ▪ You'll need to narrow the focus of your paper to one central idea. — often + down ▪ The choices have been narrowed down to two. ▪ To narrow down its pool of applicants, the school made its admission requirements stricter. b [no obj] : to become smaller in amount or range ▪ The gap between their salaries was beginning to narrow.

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 4 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:42 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

– narrowing noun, pl -ings [count] — usually singular ▪ a narrowing of the blood vessels nar•row•ly /ˈneroʊli/ adv [more ~; most ~]

1 : by a very small number, amount, or distance ▪ The bullet narrowly missed his heart. [=the bullet did not hit his heart, but it almost did] ▪ We narrowly [=barely] escaped with our lives. ▪ The team narrowly won the last game of the season.
2 : in a way that does not include or involve many things or people ▪ While the organization defines the term "family" very narrowly, many people have a rather liberal idea of what it means to be a family. ▪ The study narrowly focuses on 30-year-old men.

nar•row–mind•ed /ˈneroʊˈmaɪndəd/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not willing to accept opinions, beliefs, or behaviors that are unusual or different from your own ▪ Her mother was narrow-minded about religion. ▪ a narrow-minded view of racial issues

– nar•row–mind•ed•ness noun [noncount]

nar•rows /ˈneroʊz/ noun [plural] : a narrow passage that connects two areas of water ▪ He skillfully sailed the ship through the narrows.

nary /ˈneri/ adj : not one — used in the phrases nary a or nary an ▪ They survived the accident with nary a scratch. [=without a single scratch] ▪ Nary a word was spoken.

NASA /ˈnæsə/ abbr National Aeronautics and Space Administration ✧ NASA is a U.S. government organization that is responsible for space travel and research.

na•sal /ˈneɪzəl/ adj
1 always used before a noun : of or relating to the nose ▪ a bottle of nasal spray ▪ medicine for nasal congestion ▪ nasal passages
2 a always used before a noun : produced by pushing air out through the nose when you speak ▪ the nasal consonants /m/ and /n/ ▪ the nasal vowels in French ▪ nasal sounds b : producing nasal sounds ▪ Her voice is harsh and nasal.

– na•sal•ly adv ▪ She sung/spoke nasally.

NASCAR /ˈnæsˌkaə/ abbr, US National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing

na•scent /ˈnæsnt/ adj, formal : beginning to exist : recently formed or developed ▪ nascent democratic governments ▪ a nascent technology ▪ The actress is now focusing on her nascent singing career.

nas•tur•tium /nəˈstəʃəm/ noun, pl -tiums [count] : a plant with circular leaves and yellow, orange, or red flowers that are sometimes eaten nas•ty /ˈnæsti, Brit ˈnɑːsti/ adj nas•ti•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : very unpleasant to see, smell, taste, etc. ▪ She has a nasty habit of biting her fingernails. ▪ The food looks nasty. ▪ The medicine left a nasty taste in my mouth. ▪ a nasty-tasting medicine
2 : indecent and offensive ▪ a violent movie with a lot of nasty [=bad, dirty] language
3 : unpleasant and unkind ▪ That was a nasty [=cruel, mean] trick! ▪ That nasty old man yelled at me just for stepping on his lawn! ▪ He sent a nasty letter/e-mail to the company. ▪ She's got quite a nasty temper/disposition. ▪ He said lots of downright nasty things about her. ▪ She called him a few nasty names and left.
4 : very bad or unpleasant ▪ nasty weather/storms ▪ It's rainy and nasty outside. ▪ I've got a really nasty problem. ▪ He's in for a nasty surprise when he gets home. ▪ He just went through a nasty divorce. ▪ a nasty legal battle ▪ Their relationship got/turned nasty soon after they were married.
5 : very serious or severe ▪ You've got a nasty cut on your head. ▪ a nasty wound : causing much damage ▪ She had a nasty fall on the ice. ▪ He took a nasty spill while riding his bike.

– nas•ti•ly /ˈnæstəli, Brit ˈnɑːstəli/ adv ▪ He spoke nastily about his ex-girlfriend. – nas•ti•ness /ˈnæstinəs, Brit ˈnɑːstinəs/ noun [noncount] natch /ˈnætʃ/ adv, informal : as you would expect : NATURALLY ▪ He bought the most expensive car he could find, natch.

na•tion /ˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions
1 a [count] : a large area of land that is controlled by its own government : COUNTRY ▪ It's one of the richest/poorest nations in the world. ▪ the largest state/province in the nation ▪ industrialized/developing nations ▪ the United Nations b the nation : the people who live in a nation ▪ The President will speak to the nation tonight. ▪ The entire nation is celebrating the victory.
2 Nation [count] : a tribe of Native Americans or a group of Native American tribes that share the same history, traditions, or language ▪ the Cheyenne Indian Nation ▪ the Navajo Nation

[1]na•tion•al /ˈnæʃənl/ adj
1 : of or relating to an entire nation or country ▪ local and national governments ▪ national politics ▪ the national economy ▪ national security/defense ▪ the country's national flag/symbol ▪ She won the national championship/title last year. ▪ His test scores were higher than the national average. ▪ They were national heroes. ▪ Doing well in the Olympics is a matter of national pride. ▪ Baseball is called America's national pastime. ▪ The game was shown on national television.
2 always used before a noun : owned and controlled or operated by a national government ▪ Arlington National Cemetery in Washington, D.C. ▪ the National Museum of Art ▪ a national bank/forest – na•tion•al•ly /ˈnæʃənəli/ adv ▪ a nationally televised game ▪ The movie opens nationally [=in theaters throughout the nation] this weekend. ▪ She ranks high nationally in her math and science scores. ▪ The university is known nationally and internationally for its writing program.

[2]national noun, pl -als
1 [count] formal : a person who is a citizen of a country ▪ She's a Mexican national now working in the United States. ▪ foreign nationals
2 nationals [plural] : competitions in which people or teams from all areas of a country compete ▪ The U.S. Nationals will be held in New York City this year.

national anthem noun, pl ~ -thems [count] : a song that praises a particular country and that is officially accepted as the country's song ✧ National anthems are often played or sung at special events.

national debt noun, pl ~ debts [count] : the total amount of money that the government of a country owes to companies, countries, etc.

National Guard noun [singular] : a military group that is organized in each U.S. state but given money and supplies by the national government and that can be used by the state or the country

National Health Service noun
the National Health Service : the public system of medical care in Britain that is paid for by taxes

National Insurance noun [noncount] : a British insurance system that workers and their employers contribute to regularly and which gives money to people who are retired, ill, or unemployed

na•tion•al•ism /ˈnæʃənəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount]
1 : a feeling that people have of being loyal to and proud of their country often with the belief that it is better and more important than other countries ▪ The war was caused by nationalism and greed. — compare PATRIOTISM
2 : a desire by a large group of people (such as people who share the same culture, history, language, etc.) to form a separate and independent nation of their own ▪ Scottish nationalism

[1]na•tion•al•ist /ˈnæʃənəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count]
1 : a supporter of or believer in nationalism ▪ German/American/Russian nationalists
2 or Nationalist : a member of a political group that wants to form a separate and independent nation ▪ Irish Nationalists

[2]nationalist adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to nationalism ▪ nationalist beliefs/ideologies/sentiments
2 or Nationalist : of or relating to a political group that wants to form a separate and independent nation ▪ The country's Nationalist Party won the election.

na•tion•al•is•tic /ˌnæʃənəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] : relating to or showing a belief that your country is better and more important than other countries ▪ the political party's nationalistic ideology ▪ nationalistic election speeches

na•tion•al•i•ty /ˌnæʃəˈnæləti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : a group of people who share the same history, traditions, and language, and who usually live together in a particular country ▪ The country is home to five nationalities

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 5 SESS: 9 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

and seven languages. ▪ people of all races and nationalities

2 formal : the fact or status of being a member or citizen of a particular nation [noncount] She's American, but her parents are of Japanese nationality. ▪ He has held French nationality for the past 20 years. [count] The university has students of over 50 nationalities.

na•tion•al•ize /ˈnæʃənəˌlaɪz/ also Brit na•tion•al•ise verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj] : to cause (something) to be under the control of a national government ▪ The government nationalized the health-care system in the mid-1950s. ▪ nationalizing the country's oil supply — opposite PRIVATIZE, (Brit) DENATIONALIZE

– na•tion•al•i•za•tion also Brit na•tion•al•i•sa•tion /ˌnæʃənələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌnæʃənəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ the nationalization of health care

National League noun

the National League : one of the two major leagues in professional U.S. baseball — compare AMERICAN LEAGUE national monument noun, pl ~ -ments [count] : a place (such as an old building or an area of land) that is owned and protected by a national government because of its natural beauty or its importance to history or science ▪ the Statue of Liberty National Monument

national park noun, pl ~ parks [count] : an area of land that is owned and protected by a national government because of its natural beauty or its importance to history or science ▪ Yellowstone National Park

na•tion•hood /ˈneɪʃənˌhʊd/ noun [noncount] : the state of being an independent nation ▪ the early days of U.S. nationhood ▪ The colonists showed a strong desire for nationhood.

na•tion–state /ˈneɪʃənˈsteɪt/ noun, pl -states [count] : a form of political organization in which a group of people who share the same history, traditions, or language live in a particular area under one government na•tion•wide /ˌneɪʃənˈwaɪd/ adj : including or involving all parts of a nation or country ▪ The murders attracted nationwide attention.

– nationwide adv ▪ The company has opened several stores nationwide.

[1]na•tive /ˈneɪtɪv/ adj

1 always used before a noun a : born in a particular place ▪ I'm a native New Yorker. [=I was born in New York] ▪ people who are native to France b — used to refer to the place where a person was born and raised ▪ He's a hero in his native country. ▪ After 30 years, I am finally returning to my native land.

2 a always used before a noun : belonging to a person since birth or childhood ▪ She speaks English, but it's not her native [=first] language/tongue. — see also NATIVE SPEAKER b : existing naturally as an ability, quality, etc., that someone has ▪ She has a native ability to learn quickly. ▪ his native wit

3 a : produced, living, or existing naturally in a particular region ▪ native [=indigenous] birds and animals ▪ The island is home to several native species of trees. — often + to ▪ birds that are native to the continent b — used to refer to the place or type of place where a plant or animal normally or naturally lives ▪ Increasing pollution is endangering the plant's native habitat.

4 always used before a noun : of or relating to a group of people who were living in an area (such as North America or Africa) when a new group of usually European people arrived ▪ native societies ▪ native art/traditions ▪ native inhabitants/peoples go native : to start to behave or live like the local people ▪ After a few weeks, she was comfortable enough to go native and wear shorts to work.

[2]native noun, pl -tives [count]

1 : a person who was born or raised in a particular place ▪ She's a native of France who moved to the United States when she was 15. ▪ I'm a California native. ▪ He wishes he could speak Spanish like a native.

2 : a person from a group of people who were living in an area (such as South America or Africa) when Europeans first arrived ✧ This sense of native was commonly used in the past but is now often considered offensive.

3 : a kind of plant or animal that originally grew or lived in a particular place ▪ The plant is a native of Central and South America.

Native American noun, pl ~ -cans [count] : a member of any of the first groups of people living in North America or South America; especially : a member of one of these groups from the U.S.

usage Native American is the term that is now most often used for people whose ancestors lived in North and South America before the arrival of Europeans in 1492. The term American Indian is also often used, but it is offensive to some people. The term Indian by itself is also still used but is now often considered offensive and should usually be avoided.

– Native American adj ▪ Native American tribes ▪ their Native American ancestors ▪ She's part Native American.

native speaker noun, pl ~ -ers [count] : a person who learned to speak the language of the place where they were born as a child rather than learning it as a foreign language ▪ She's a native speaker of Swahili. ▪ That kind of mistake is rarely made by native speakers.

Na•tiv•i•ty /nəˈtɪvəti/ noun

the Nativity : the birth of Jesus ▪ a painting of the Nativity – Nativity or nativity adj, always used before a noun ▪ the nativity stories in the Bible ▪ a Nativity scene [=a picture or a set of statues representing the birth of Jesus]

natl. or nat'l abbr national

NATO /ˈneɪtoʊ/ abbr North Atlantic Treaty Organization ✧ NATO is an organization of countries that have agreed to provide military support to each other. It includes many European countries as well as the U.S. and Canada.

nat•ter /ˈnætə/ verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [no obj] chiefly Brit : to talk about unimportant things for a long time ▪ If you ask about his grandchildren, he'll natter on about them for hours. ▪ She nattered about herself through our entire meal.

– natter noun [singular] Brit ▪ We had a nice natter [=chat] on the phone.

nat•ty /ˈnæti/ adj nat•ti•er; -est informal : very neat and clean ▪ a soldier in his natty blue uniform ▪ He's quite a natty dresser.

– nat•ti•ly /ˈnætəli/ adv ▪ a nattily dressed man

[1]nat•u•ral /ˈnætʃərəl/ adj

1 a : existing in nature and not made or caused by people : coming from nature ▪ natural silk ▪ furniture made of natural materials ▪ The river forms a natural boundary between the two countries. ▪ That's not his natural hair color. [=he dyes his hair] ▪ a natural lake [=a lake that is not man-made] ▪ She prefers to use natural light [=light from the sun] when taking photographs. ▪ a country rich in natural resources [=a country that has many valuable plants, animals, minerals, etc.] ▪ learning more about the natural world [=animals, plants, etc.] b : not having any extra substances or chemicals added : not containing anything artificial ▪ natural soap/yogurt ▪ natural foods like whole grain bread and fresh vegetables ▪ Our bakery uses all-natural ingredients. [=ingredients that are from nature and not artificial]

2 : usual or expected : NORMAL ▪ Gray hair is one of the natural consequences of getting older. ▪ a natural increase in the population ▪ the natural course of the disease ▪ It's perfectly/only natural to feel nervous before a test. ▪ He died of natural causes. [=he died because he was ill or old and not by being killed in an accident, battle, etc.] — see also NATURAL CHILDBIRTH

3 always used before a noun — used to describe a quality, ability, etc., that a person or animal is born with and does not have to learn ▪ The science class will encourage his natural curiosity. ▪ She has a natural talent for art. ▪ He has a natural ability to make people feel comfortable. ▪ She's a natural athlete/leader. [=she has natural abilities that make her a good athlete/leader]

4 ✧ To be/act/look natural is to be normal and relaxed in the way you behave and look. ▪ I'm going to take your picture but don't pose—look natural. ▪ Try to be/act natural.

5 always used before a noun a : related by blood ▪ his natural mother [=the woman who gave birth to him] ▪ She was adopted immediately after she was born and never knew her natural [=(more commonly) birth] parents. b old-fashioned : born to parents who are not married to each other : ILLEGITIMATE ▪ a natural son/daughter

6 of a choice, decision, etc. : logical and reasonable ▪ We considered our options, and this car was the natural choice. [=the choice that made the most sense] ▪ He is the natural choice to succeed his father as company president. ▪ They made the natural decision to keep trying.

7 always used before a noun, formal : based on a sense of what is right and wrong ▪ natural justice/law

8 music : neither a sharp nor flat ▪ B natural ▪ F natural

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 6 SESS: 10 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:43 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

– nat•u•ral•ness /ˈnætʃərəlnəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ his naturalness as an actor ▪ the naturalness of his acting

[2]natural noun, pl -rals [count]
1 a : someone who is good at doing something from the first time it is done : someone who has a natural ability to do something — usually singular ▪ She loved rock climbing from the start. She's a natural. — often + at ▪ He's a natural at (playing) the piano. ▪ a natural at golf b : someone or something that is suited for a particular job, purpose, etc. — usually singular; usually + for ▪ He is a natural for the job. ▪ The bread's texture makes it a natural for eating with stew.
2 a : a musical note that is neither sharp nor flat b : a written symbol ♮ that is placed before a musical note to show that it is neither sharp nor flat natural–born adj, always used before a noun : able to do something well immediately or from the very first time ▪ She's a natural-born artist/leader. [=she has natural abilities that make her a good artist/leader]

natural childbirth noun [noncount] : a method of giving birth to a baby in which the mother chooses not to use drugs to reduce pain or to make the birth happen more quickly natural disaster noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a sudden and terrible event in nature (such as a hurricane, tornado, or flood) that usually results in serious damage and many deaths natural gas noun [noncount] : gas that is taken from under the ground and used as fuel ▪ a house heated by natural gas natural history noun [noncount] : the study of plants, animals, and sometimes ancient human civilizations ▪ the natural history of bees ▪ We went to the Natural History Museum.

nat•u•ral•ism /ˈnætʃərəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] : a style of art or literature that shows people and things as they actually are

[1]nat•u•ral•ist /ˈnætʃərəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] : a person who studies plants and animals as they live in nature ▪ a world-renowned naturalist

[2]naturalist adj : NATURALISTIC 2 ▪ a naturalist painting/painter

nat•u•ral•is•tic /ˌnætʃərəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : looking like what appears in nature : not looking artificial or man-made ▪ The zoo strives to create naturalistic settings for the animals.
2 : using naturalism in art or literature : showing people or things as they really are ▪ naturalistic writing/paintings

nat•u•ral•ize also Brit nat•u•ral•ise /ˈnætʃərəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing
1 [+ obj] : to allow (someone who was born in a different country) to become a new citizen ▪ The government refused to naturalize them without documentation. ▪ naturalized citizens of the U.S.
2 : to cause (a plant or animal from another place) to begin to grow and live in a new area [+ obj] Several Asian fish have become naturalized in these lakes. ▪ Before you naturalize bulbs in your lawn, fertilize well. [no obj] These daisies naturalize well in the Pacific Northwest.
– nat•u•ral•i•za•tion also Brit nat•u•ral•i•sa•tion /ˌnætʃərələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌnætʃərəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] ▪ immigrants seeking naturalization ▪ the naturalization of new plants in the river basin

nat•u•ral•ly /ˈnætʃərəli/ adv
1 — used to describe something that happens or exists by itself without being controlled or changed by someone ▪ Her hair curls naturally. ▪ a naturally sweet tea ▪ A number of important vitamins are found naturally in dark green vegetables like spinach. ▪ Pearls are produced naturally by oysters. ▪ He is naturally blond. ▪ Their friendship developed naturally over time.
2 — used to say that something is expected or normal ▪ Naturally, some mistakes were made. ▪ When he heard the comment, he was naturally [=of course] a little offended. ▪ Naturally you'll want rooms for the night. ▪ "Did you visit her while you were there?" "Naturally." [=of course; yes]
3 : because of a quality or skill that a person or animal is born with ▪ She's naturally competitive. ▪ He's naturally able to make people feel comfortable. ▪ Cats are said to be naturally curious.
4 : in a way that is relaxed and normal ▪ It's hard to speak/act naturally when you're nervous.
5 : in a way that makes sense : in a logical and reasonable way ▪ Her conclusions follow naturally from the theory. ▪ Questions about the journalist's sources arise naturally from such a controversial report. ▪ When I saw that there were no lights on in the house, I naturally assumed you were asleep.
come naturally ✧ If something comes naturally to you, you are able to do or learn it easily. ▪ Musical talent comes naturally to that family. ▪ Memorizing important dates in history came naturally to him [=was easy for him] in school.

natural science noun, pl ~ -ences : a science (such as physics, chemistry, or biology) that studies the physical and natural world or the events that happen in nature [count] He is interested in the natural sciences. [noncount] a new approach to natural science natural selection noun [noncount] : the process by which plants and animals that can adapt to changes in their environment are able to survive and reproduce while those that cannot adapt do not survive natural wastage noun [noncount] Brit : ATTRITION 1

na•ture /ˈneɪtʃɚ/ noun, pl -tures
1 also Nature [noncount] a : the physical world and everything in it (such as plants, animals, mountains, oceans, stars, etc.) that is not made by people ▪ the beauty of nature ▪ She is a real nature lover. = She really loves nature. [=she loves to spend time outdoors] ▪ He devoted himself to the study of nature. ▪ That is a color not found in nature. ▪ nature photography ▪ nature conservation b : the natural forces that control what happens in the world ▪ the forces of nature ▪ Hunger is nature's way of telling you to eat. ▪ Gravity is one of the basic laws of nature. — see also CALL OF NATURE, FREAK OF NATURE, MOTHER NATURE
2 : the way that a person or animal behaves : the character or personality of a person or animal [count] She has a competitive nature. [=she is competitive] ▪ The differences in their natures was easy to see. ▪ an animal with a gentle nature [=a gentle animal] [noncount] The children took advantage of the teacher's good nature. [=the teacher's kindness] ▪ She's very competitive by nature. — see also GOOD-NATURED, HUMAN NATURE, ILL-NATURED, SECOND NATURE
3 : a basic quality that something has [count] — usually singular; often + of ▪ the nature of steel ▪ What is the true nature of democracy? ▪ Because of the fragile nature of the manuscripts [=because the manuscripts are fragile], the museum keeps them behind glass. [noncount] Her writing is humorous in nature. [=her writing has humorous qualities]
4 [singular] : a particular kind of thing ▪ What is the nature of your problem? [=what kind of problem do you have?] ▪ papers of a confidential nature [=papers that are confidential] ▪ His medical condition is not of a serious nature. [=is not serious] ▪ You'll need to bring a toothbrush, soap, and things of that nature. [=other similar things] get/go back to nature also return to nature : to spend time living in a simple way without modern machines, electricity, etc. ▪ They went on a camping trip to get back to nature.
let nature take its course : to allow something to happen without trying to control it ▪ The injury should heal within a few weeks if you just let nature take its course.

nature reserve noun, pl ~ -serves [count] : an area where animals and plants are protected and that has few buildings or homes — called also (US) nature preserve

nature trail noun, pl ~ trails [count] : a path through a forest, field, mountain range, etc., that is used for hiking and seeing plants and animals

na•tur•ism /ˈneɪtʃəˌrɪzəm/ noun [noncount] Brit : NUDISM

na•tur•ist /ˈneɪtʃərɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] Brit : NUDIST

na•tu•rop•a•thy /ˌneɪtʃəˈrɑːpəθi/ noun [noncount] : the treatment of illness by using diet, herbs, exercises, etc., without using standard drugs or surgery
– na•tu•ro•path /ˈneɪtʃərəˌpæθ/ noun, pl -paths [count] ▪ She has been trained as a naturopath. – na•tu•ro•path•ic /ˌneɪtʃərəˈpæθɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a naturopathic treatment naught (chiefly US) or chiefly Brit nought /ˈnɑːt/ pronoun, old-fashioned : [1]NOTHING ▪ All our efforts came to naught. = (US) All our efforts went for naught. [=we did not succeed in doing what we were trying to do] ▪ (chiefly US) It was all for naught. [=it was all for nothing]

naugh•ty /ˈnɑːti/ adj naugh•ti•er; -est
1 : behaving badly — used especially to describe a child who does not behave properly or obey a parent, teacher, etc. ▪ a naughty [=bad] boy/girl ▪ Were you naughty today at school or did you obey the teacher? — sometimes used humorously to describe an adult who does something slightly wrong or improper ▪ I was naughty and cheated on my diet.
2 informal : relating to or suggesting sex in usually a playful way ▪ She gave him a naughty smile. ▪ No naughty [=dirty]

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 7 SESS: 11 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

jokes in front of the children, please! ▪ a naughty outfit
– naugh•ti•ly /ˈnɑːtəli/ adv ▪ She smiled naughtily.
– naugh•ti•ness /ˈnɑːtinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ Oh, you'll be punished for your naughtiness!

nau•sea /ˈnɑːziə/ noun [noncount] : the feeling you have in your stomach when you think you are going to vomit ▪ Some people experience nausea when flying. ▪ A feeling/wave of nausea suddenly came over me.

nau•se•ate /ˈnɑːziˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing [+ obj]
1 : to cause (someone) to feel like vomiting ▪ The smell of gasoline nauseates me.
2 : to cause (someone) to feel disgusted ▪ It nauseated him to see the way the animals were treated.
– nauseated adj ▪ He was feeling weak and nauseated.

nauseating adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : causing you to feel like you are going to vomit ▪ the nauseating smell of rotting garbage
2 : causing disgust ▪ The way the animals were treated was nauseating. ▪ It was nauseating to see the two of them act like lovesick teenagers.
– nau•se•at•ing•ly adv ▪ His letter to her was nauseatingly sweet.

nau•seous /ˈnɑːʃəs, ˈnɑːziəs/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 : feeling like you are about to vomit ▪ The smell of gasoline makes me nauseous. ▪ I began to feel nauseous.
2 : causing you to feel like you are going to vomit ▪ the nauseous [=(more commonly) nauseating] smell of rotting garbage
3 : causing disgust ▪ the nauseous [=(more commonly) nauseating] spectacle of politicians blaming each other

nau•ti•cal /ˈnɑːtɪkəl/ adj : relating to ships and sailing ▪ a dictionary of nautical terms ▪ nautical charts nautical mile noun, pl ~ miles [count] : a unit of distance equal to 1,852 meters or 1.15 miles that is used for sea and air travel

Na•va•jo /ˈnævəˌhoʊ/ noun, pl Navajo or Na•va•jos
1 [count] : a member of a Native American people originally from New Mexico and Arizona
2 [noncount] : the language of the Navajo people na•val /ˈneɪvəl/ adj, always used before a noun : of or relating to a country's navy ▪ naval base/history/officer nave /ˈneɪv/ noun, pl naves [count] : the long center part of a church where people sit na•vel /ˈneɪvəl/ noun, pl -vels [count] : the small, hollow or raised area in the middle of your stomach — called also belly button; see picture at HUMAN navel–gaz•ing /ˈneɪvəlˈgeɪzɪŋ/ noun [noncount] somewhat humorous : the activity of thinking too much or too deeply about yourself, your experiences, your feelings, etc. ▪ I think she's a good writer, but her essays are full of navel-gazing.

navel orange noun, pl ~ -anges [count] : a kind of orange that does not have seeds

nav•i•ga•ble /ˈnævɪgəbəl/ adj : deep and wide enough for boats and ships to travel on or through : capable of being navigated ▪ a navigable river ▪ The marsh was navigable only by canoe. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ This Web site is well-organized and easily navigable. [=it is easy to get from one Web page to another within that Web site] ▪ The legal system is not easily navigable. [=it is difficult to understand the legal system]
– nav•i•ga•bil•i•ty /ˌnævɪgəˈbɪləti/ noun [noncount] ▪ We are unsure about the navigability of the river.

nav•i•gate /ˈnævəˌgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing
1 : to find the way to get to a place when you are traveling in a ship, airplane, car, etc. [no obj] For thousands of years, sailors navigated by the stars. ▪ How about if you drive and I navigate? [+ obj] I'd need a map to navigate the city. — often used figuratively ▪ We have had to carefully navigate (our way) through a maze of rules and regulations.
2 a : to sail on, over, or through an area of water [+ obj] Only flat-bottomed boats can safely navigate the canal. [no obj] He has learned to navigate in rough waters. b : to travel on, over, or through (an area or place) [+ obj] The downtown area is easily navigated on foot. ▪ She has trouble navigating the stairs with her crutches. [no obj] It took us 10 minutes to navigate through the parking lot to the exit.
3 [+ obj] : to control the direction of (something, such as a ship or airplane) : STEER ▪ The captain navigated the ship. ▪ He has had experience navigating airplanes through storms. — often used figuratively ▪ She has carefully navigated the company through some difficult times.
4 computers : to go to different places on the Internet or on a particular Web site in order to find what you want [+ obj] You navigate this site by clicking on the pictures. ▪ There are a number of browsers that can be used to navigate the Web/Internet. [no obj] A fast connection makes it easier to navigate on the Internet.

nav•i•ga•tion /ˌnævəˈgeɪʃən/ noun [noncount]
1 : the act, activity, or process of finding the way to get to a place when you are traveling in a ship, airplane, car, etc. ▪ If you're going to be a good sailor/pilot, you need to master navigation. ▪ navigation by satellite ▪ I don't mind driving if you're willing to do the navigation. ▪ Our new car has an onboard navigation system.
2 : the act of moving in a boat or ship over an area of water ▪ Navigation becomes more difficult further upriver.
3 computers : the act of going to different places on the Internet or on a particular Web site in order to find what you want ▪ There are back and forward buttons for easier browser navigation.
– nav•i•ga•tion•al /ˌnævəˈgeɪʃənl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ The car is equipped with a navigational system.

nav•i•ga•tor /ˈnævəˌgeɪtə/ noun, pl -tors [count]
1 : a person who finds out how to get to a place : a person who navigates a ship, an airplane, etc. ▪ The crew includes a copilot and a navigator. ▪ Would you be willing to act as navigator while I drive?
2 : a device (such as a computer) that is used to plan or find the route to a place ▪ The ship is equipped with a satellite navigator.

nav•vy /ˈnævi/ noun, pl -vies [count] Brit : a worker who does very hard physical labor

na•vy /ˈneɪvi/ noun, pl -vies
1 [count] : the part of a country's military forces that fights at sea using ships, submarines, airplanes, etc. ▪ A similar submarine is used by several foreign navies. ▪ a career in the navy — usually capitalized when a specific navy is being referred to ▪ the Russian Navy ▪ He plans to join the Navy.
2 [noncount] : NAVY BLUE ▪ The shirt comes in black, white, and navy. ▪ a navy sweater navy bean noun, pl ~ beans [count] US : a type of white bean — called also (Brit) haricot bean

navy blue noun [noncount] : a very dark blue ▪ I ordered the same jacket in navy blue. — called also navy; see color picture on page C2
– navy blue adj ▪ a navy blue dress

[1]nay /ˈneɪ/ adv
1 old-fashioned + literary — used to correct what you have said by replacing a word with one that is more accurate or appropriate ▪ The letter made her happy—nay, ecstatic. [=it did not just make her happy, it made her ecstatic]
2 old-fashioned : [1]NO ▪ Nay, I do not wish to go. ▪ I dare not say him nay. [=I dare not say no to him]

[2]nay noun, pl nays [count] formal : a no vote ▪ We have 6 nays [=6 votes of "no"] and 12 yeas, so the measure passes. — compare [2]AYE, [2]YEA nay•say•er /ˈneɪˌsejə/ noun, pl -ers [count] formal : a person who says something will not work or is not possible : a person who denies, refuses, or opposes something ▪ There are always naysayers who say it can't be done.

Na•zi /ˈnɑːtsi/ noun, pl -zis [count]
1 : a member of a German political party that controlled Germany from 1933 to 1945 under Adolf Hitler
2 disapproving : an evil person who wants to use power to control and harm other people especially because of their race, religion, etc. ▪ a gang of racist Nazis — see also NEO-NAZI – Nazi adj ▪ Nazi ideology – Na•zism /ˈnɑːtˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount]

NB also N.B. abbr please note — used in writing to tell the reader that something is important ▪ NB: applications will not be accepted after May 5. ✧ The abbreviation NB comes from the Latin phrase "nota bene," which means "mark well."

NBA abbr, US National Basketball Association ✧ The NBA is the major professional basketball league in the U.S.

NBC abbr, US National Broadcasting Company ✧ NBC is one of the major television networks in the U.S.

NC abbr North Carolina

NCAA abbr, US National Collegiate Athletic Association ✧ The NCAA is an organization that organizes athletic activities for many U.S. colleges and universities.

NCO /ˌɛnˌsiːˈoʊ/ noun, pl NCOs [count] : NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICER

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 8 SESS: 12 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:44 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

NC–17 /ˈɛnˈsiːˌsɛvənˈtiːn/ — used as a special mark to indicate that no one who is 17 years old or younger may see a particular movie in a movie theater ▪ The movie is rated NC-17. — compare G, PG, PG-13, R, X

ND abbr North Dakota

-nd — used in writing after the number 2 for the word second ▪ He's in 2*nd* [=second] grade. ▪ She came in 42*nd* in the race.

NE abbr 1 Nebraska 2 New England 3 northeast

Ne•an•der•thal /niˈændəˌtɑːl/ noun, pl -thals [count]
1 : a type of early human being that existed very long ago in Europe — called also Neanderthal man
2 informal + disapproving a : a man who is stupid and rude ▪ I can't believe I was married to that Neanderthal for three years. b : a person who has very old-fashioned ideas and who does not like change ▪ Some Neanderthals continue to resist the education reform bill.

Ne•a•pol•i•tan ice cream /ˌniːjəˈpɑːlətən-/ noun [noncount] : ice cream with three different flavors (such as strawberry, vanilla, and chocolate) that are arranged in layers

[1]near /ˈniə/ adv near•er; -est
1 : close to someone or something in distance ▪ I hope that dog doesn't come any nearer (to me). ▪ Be sure to have a fire extinguisher near at hand. [=close enough to reach easily] — often used figuratively ▪ We're getting nearer to the truth. ▪ We came very near to canceling the trip. [=we almost canceled the trip] ▪ Her new book is good, but it doesn't even come near to her first book. [=it is not nearly as good as her first book]
2 : not far away in time ▪ The end of the long winter is near. [=it will happen soon] ▪ He became more nervous as the day of the wedding drew near. [=approached; got closer]
3 : almost or nearly ▪ The plant was near dead when I got it. ▪ a near perfect score ▪ The job is (damn/damned/darn) near impossible. — see also nowhere near at [1]NOWHERE as near as damn it or as near as dammit Brit, informal — used to say that something is so close to being correct or true that it can be regarded as correct or true ▪ The hotel room will cost 300 pounds, as near as damn it. ▪ She's the best player in the world or as near as dammit.
(as) near as I can tell/figure US, informal : based on what I know ▪ As near as I can tell, we'll arrive by six o'clock.
from far and near, from near and far see [1]FAR

[2]near prep : close to (something or someone) ▪ I left the box near the door. ▪ The cat won't go near fire. ▪ She stood near me. ▪ There are several beaches near here. ▪ She came home near midnight. ▪ We feared he was near death.

[3]near adj nearer; -est
1 : located a short distance away : CLOSE ▪ The nearest grocery store is three blocks away. ▪ The airport is quite near. [=nearby]
2 : not far away in time ▪ Summer is getting nearer. ▪ I hope to visit in the near future. [=I hope to visit soon]
3 always used before a noun a — used to refer to the side, end, etc., that is closer ▪ There is a fishing camp on the far side of the lake, but nothing on the near side. b Brit, of a car : LEFT-HAND ▪ The near side headlight is out. — compare OFF; see also NEARSIDE
4 always used before a noun : almost happening ▪ The ceremony was a near disaster. [=was nearly a disaster] ▪ After a near win [=after nearly winning] in the first competition, he is ready to try again. ▪ (Brit) Our team won the match, but it was a very near thing. [=we almost lost the match] — see also NEAR MISS
5 always used before a noun a : close to being something ▪ Her victory is a near certainty. [=it is nearly certain that she will win] ▪ a near miracle ▪ celebrities and near celebrities [=people who are almost celebrities] b nearest : most similar ▪ The lake was the nearest thing to an ocean [=the thing most like an ocean] that she had ever seen.
6 : coming after someone or something : in the position or rank after someone or something ▪ He finished the race ahead of his nearest rival by only a few feet.
7 always used before a noun : closely related ▪ These two kinds of plants are near relatives. ▪ Only near relations [=sisters, brothers, parents, etc.] were invited to the wedding.
near and dear : very close in relationship ▪ friends who are near and dear ▪ my nearest and dearest friend too near for comfort see [1]COMFORT to the nearest — used to indicate the number of pounds, dollars, etc., that is closest to a slightly higher or lower number or amount ▪ What is the weight of your baggage to the nearest pound? ▪ $13.75 rounded up to the nearest dollar is $14.
– near•ness noun [noncount] ▪ He missed her nearness. [=closeness] ▪ the nearness of the storm

[4]near verb nears; neared; near•ing : to come closer in space or time to someone or something : APPROACH [no obj] As the date of the performance neared, we grew more and more anxious. ▪ He always cheers up when baseball season nears. [+ obj] The airplane began to descend as it neared the island. ▪ He must be nearing 80 years of age. ▪ The negotiators were nearing a decision. ▪ The project is nearing completion. [=is almost finished] near•by /niəˈbaɪ/ adj : not far away : located at a short distance from someone or something ▪ a nearby village/river ▪ I spoke with a nearby policeman about the accident. ▪ He works at the nearby university.

– nearby adv ▪ They live nearby. ▪ The children played nearby at the park.

near–death experience noun, pl ~ -ences [count] : an occurrence in which a person comes very close to dying and has memories of a spiritual experience (such as meeting dead friends and family members or seeing a white light) during the time when death was near

Near East noun
the Near East : MIDDLE EAST

near•ly /ˈniəli/ adv : not completely : almost but not quite ▪ I see her nearly every day. ▪ We very nearly missed the plane. [=we came very close to missing the plane] ▪ I nearly won. ▪ I am nearly finished. ▪ We lived there for nearly two years. ▪ Nearly 100 people attended. ▪ Nearly all of us got sick that weekend.
not nearly : much less than : not at all ▪ There's not nearly enough flour for a cake here. ▪ It's not nearly as late as I thought it was.

near miss noun, pl ~ miss•es [count]
1 : an attempt that is almost successful ▪ After years of near misses, the team has finally won a championship.
2 : an accident that is just barely avoided ▪ There have been two near misses [=close calls] at that airport recently.
3 : a bomb that misses its target but still causes damage near•side /ˈniəˌsaɪd/ adj, Brit : on the left side : LEFT-HAND ▪ The car's nearside headlight is out. ▪ the nearside lane

the nearside : the left-hand side ▪ The car was hit on the nearside. — compare OFFSIDE

near•sight•ed /ˈniəˌsaɪtəd/ adj, chiefly US : unable to see things that are far away : able to see things that are close more clearly than things that are far away ▪ He needs glasses because he's nearsighted. [=(chiefly Brit) shortsighted] — compare FARSIGHTED – near•sight•ed•ness /ˈniəˌsaɪtədnəs/ noun [noncount]

neat /ˈniːt/ adj neat•er; -est
1 : not messy : clean and orderly ▪ He keeps his apartment neat and clean. ▪ neat handwriting ▪ The store is always busy but they manage to keep the shelves stocked and neat. ▪ a nice neat pile of magazines ▪ Try to be a little neater [=try not to make such a mess] the next time you bake cookies. ▪ Fold the paper to make a neat edge.
2 : liking to keep things very clean and orderly ▪ His two roommates are both pretty neat people. [=they both like to have things cleaned up and put away] ▪ a neat man who always wore a suit
3 a : simple and clever ▪ a neat trick ▪ He's got a neat way of memorizing information. ▪ There is, unfortunately, no neat solution to the problem. b US, informal : pleasant, fun, or interesting ▪ I think it's a neat idea [=a good idea] to invite the new neighbors to the cookout. ▪ She's a neat person who has traveled a lot.
4 of alcoholic drinks : not mixed with anything : made without ice or water added ▪ I like my bourbon/whiskey neat. [=(US) straight]
– neat•ly adv ▪ The books were stacked neatly in the corner. ▪ neatly arranged plates ▪ The children were dressed neatly for the ceremony. – neat•ness noun [noncount] ▪ I was amazed by the neatness of the room.

neat•en /ˈniːtn/ verb -ens; -ened; -en•ing : to make (something) orderly or neat : to clean up (something) [+ obj] I am trying to neaten my desk. — often + up ▪ I didn't have a chance to neaten up the house before the guests arrived. [no obj] — + up ▪ Neaten up before you leave.

neat freak noun, pl ~ freaks [count] US, informal : a person who always wants things to be very orderly and clean ▪ My first college roommate was a real neat freak.

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 9 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

'neath /ˈniːθ/ prep, literary : BENEATH ▪ We slumbered 'neath the starry sky.

neb•u•la /ˈnɛbjələ/ noun, pl -lae /-ˌliː/ also -las [count] astronomy
1 : a cloud of gas or dust in space that can sometimes be seen at night
2 : a group of stars that are very far away and look like a bright cloud at night – neb•u•lar /ˈnɛbjələ/ adj ▪ nebular gases

neb•u•lous /ˈnɛbjələs/ adj, formal : not clear : difficult to see, understand, describe, etc. ▪ These philosophical concepts can be nebulous. ▪ She gave a nebulous [=vague] answer to the question.

nec•es•sar•i•ly /ˌnɛsəˈserəli/ adv, formal — used to say that something is necessary and cannot be changed or avoided ▪ This endeavor necessarily involves some risk.
not necessarily : possibly but not certainly — used to say that something is not definitely true ▪ Seats in the front row are not necessarily the best. ▪ "We're going to lose this game." "Not necessarily." [=maybe not]

[1]nec•es•sary /ˈnɛsəˌseri, Brit ˈnɛsəsri/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : so important that you must do it or have it : absolutely needed ▪ Is it really/absolutely necessary for me to have surgery? ▪ The threat of a thunderstorm made it necessary to cancel the picnic. ▪ It's not necessary to wear a tie. ▪ Food is necessary for life. ▪ We had all the necessary ingredients. ▪ Apply another coat of paint if necessary. [=if it is needed] ▪ Take as much time as necessary. [=as much time as you need] ▪ She took the medicine only when absolutely necessary. ▪ a medically necessary procedure
2 always used before a noun, formal : unable to be changed or avoided ▪ Higher prices are a necessary consequence of the company's new services. ▪ There is no necessary connection between what is legal and what is moral. [=what is legal does not always have to be moral and what is moral does not always have to be legal] necessary evil see [2]EVIL

[2]necessary noun, pl -sar•ies
1 necessaries [plural] : things (such as food, a place to live, and clothing) that you must have : necessary things ▪ We need the necessaries [=(more commonly) necessities] of life (to survive).
2 the necessary Brit, informal : whatever is needed for some purpose ▪ I'll do the necessary [=do whatever is necessary] to get the job done.

ne•ces•si•tate /nɪˈsɛsəˌteɪt/ verb -tates; -tat•ed; -tat•ing [+ obj] formal : to make (something) necessary ▪ New safety regulations necessitated adding a railing to the stairs.

ne•ces•si•ty /nɪˈsɛsəti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : something that you must have or do : something that is necessary ▪ Sunscreen is an absolute necessity for the beach. ▪ food, clothes, and other basic necessities ▪ Getting plenty of rest is a necessity. ▪ Without a car, living close to work is a necessity. ▪ All we took with us on our hiking trip were the bare necessities. ▪ Many families cannot even afford the basic/bare necessities of life. [=things that a person must have in order to survive]
2 [noncount] formal : the quality of being necessary — usually + of or for ▪ She talked about the necessity of having the right training. [=she said that having the right training is necessary] ▪ He questioned the necessity for the change. [=he questioned whether the change was necessary] by necessity or out of necessity : because of conditions that cannot be changed ▪ The process is by necessity a slow one. [=the process is necessarily slow; the slowness of the process cannot be avoided] ▪ He works two jobs out of necessity. [=because it is necessary]
make a virtue (out) of necessity see VIRTUE necessity is the mother of invention see [1]MOTHER of necessity formal — used to say that something must happen or must be the way it is ▪ Further changes to the company will occur of necessity.

[1]neck /ˈnɛk/ noun, pl necks [count]
1 : the part of the body between the head and the shoulders ▪ She craned/stretched her neck to see what was going on. ▪ A giraffe is an animal with a very long neck. ▪ He broke his neck in the accident. ▪ Stop jumping on the bed. You're going to break your neck. [=you're going to hurt yourself] — see picture at HUMAN
2 : the part of a piece of clothing that fits around your neck ▪ He likes T-shirts with round necks. — see also CREW NECK, POLO NECK, SCOOP NECK, TURTLENECK, V-NECK
3 : a long and narrow part of something : a part that is shaped like a neck ▪ He grabbed the neck of the bottle. ▪ a neck of land [=a narrow stretch of land] ▪ a guitar's neck breathe down someone's neck see BREATHE dead from the neck up see [1]DEAD get it in the neck Brit, informal : to be severely punished or criticized ▪ He really got it in the neck for not finishing the job on time.
neck and neck : extremely close together in a race or contest ▪ The two candidates for president were neck and neck in the election. ▪ The two horses were running neck and neck to the finish line.
neck of the woods informal : the place or area where someone lives ▪ He's from my neck of the woods. [=he's from the area where I live] ▪ How is the weather in your neck of the woods?
risk your neck : to do something that puts you in danger of serious injury or death ▪ I would never risk my neck on a sport like skydiving. ▪ News reporters often risk their necks by working in war zones.
save someone's neck see [1]SAVE stick your neck out : to do or say something you think is important even though it may have bad results ▪ He's not afraid to stick his neck out to help people he thinks are being mistreated. ▪ I respect my boss because she will stick her neck out against unfair policies.
up to your neck in : deeply involved in or affected by (something) ▪ She's up to her neck in work. [=she's very busy] ▪ He's up to his neck in debt.
wring someone's neck see WRING

[2]neck verb necks; necked; neck•ing [no obj] old-fashioned + informal : to kiss for a long time in a sexual way ▪ The young lovers necked on the park bench. ▪ They were necking in the corner of the room.

neck–deep adj
1 : reaching as high as your neck ▪ She stood in neck-deep water.
2 : standing in something that reaches to your neck — usually + in ▪ She was neck-deep in water. — often used figuratively ▪ We were neck-deep in work. [=we were very busy] – neck–deep adv ▪ She stood neck-deep in the water.

necked /ˈnɛkt/ adj : having a neck of a specified kind — used in combination with another adjective ▪ a round-necked T-shirt ▪ a long-necked bottle neck•er•chief /ˈnɛkəʧəf/ noun, pl -chiefs also -chieves /-ʧəfs/ [count] : a square piece of cloth that is worn folded around your neck

neck•lace /ˈnɛkləs/ noun, pl -lac•es [count] : a piece of jewelry that is worn around your neck ▪ a gold/diamond/pearl necklace — see color picture on page C11

neck•line /ˈnɛkˌlaɪn/ noun, pl -lines [count] : the shape of the opening of a piece of woman's clothing around the neck ▪ The dress has a square/round neckline. ▪ a low/plunging neckline [=a neckline that leaves the top part of your chest uncovered]

neck•tie /ˈnɛkˌtaɪ/ noun, pl -ties [count] US : a long piece of cloth that is worn by men around the neck and under a collar and that is tied in front with a knot at the top — called also tie; see color picture on page C14; compare BOLO TIE, BOW TIE, CRAVAT

nec•ro•man•cy /ˈnɛkrəˌmænsi/ noun [noncount] literary
1 : the practice of talking to the spirits of dead people
2 : the use of magic powers especially for evil purposes ▪ The town accused her of witchcraft and necromancy.
– nec•ro•man•cer /ˈnɛkrəˌmænsə/ noun, pl -cers [count] literary nec•ro•phil•ia /ˌnɛkrəˈfɪlijə/ noun [noncount] : sexual feelings or activities that involve dead bodies – nec•ro•phil•i•ac /ˌnɛkrəˈfɪliˌæk/ noun, pl -acs [count]

ne•crop•o•lis /nəˈkrɑːpələs/ noun, pl -lis•es [count] formal : a large cemetery especially of an ancient city ▪ Archaeologists uncovered a necropolis of ancient Rome.

nec•tar /ˈnɛktə/ noun [noncount]
1 literary : the drink that the Greek and Roman gods drank
2 : a thick juice made from a particular fruit ▪ apricot/mango nectar
3 : a sweet liquid produced by plants and used by bees in making honey nec•tar•ine /ˌnɛktəˈriːn, Brit ˈnɛktəˌriːn/ noun, pl -ines [count] : a sweet fruit that is like a peach but that has smooth skin née or nee /ˈneɪ/ adj — used after a married woman's name

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 10 SESS: 27 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

to identify the family name that she had when she was born ▪ Mrs. Jane Doe, née Smith

[1]need /ˈniːd/ verb needs; need·ed; need·ing

1 [+ obj] : to be in a condition or situation in which you must have (something) : to require (something) ▪ Do you need help? ▪ I need some advice. What do you think of this dress? ▪ I just need a couple of minutes to get ready. ▪ Most babies need at least 12 hours of sleep a day. ▪ We badly need a vacation. ▪ a badly needed vacation = a much-needed vacation ▪ Further research is urgently needed if we are to find a cure. ▪ Another delay is the last thing I need! ▪ Men? Who needs them?! I certainly don't. — often used of things ▪ This plant needs lots of sunlight. ▪ The soup needs some salt. [=this soup does not have enough salt] ▪ They're buying a house that needs a lot of work. [=that is in poor condition] ▪ This problem needs your attention. [=you should give your attention to this problem]

2 [+ obj] a — used to say that some action is necessary ▪ I've got a lot of laundry that needs washing. — usually followed by to + verb ▪ I've got a lot of laundry that needs to be washed. ▪ We need to hurry or we'll miss the bus. ▪ A lot of work needs to be done to the house. ▪ You don't need to [=have to] answer that if you don't want to. ▪ "Should we lock the car doors?" "No, I don't think we need to." b — used to say that it is important and necessary for someone to do something; followed by to + verb ▪ I need you to tell me the truth. [=you have to tell me the truth] ▪ We need you to be well-rested for the game tomorrow. ▪ We need you to answer a few questions.

3 [modal verb] — used to say that something is necessary ▪ All you need do is ask. [=all you need to do is ask] ▪ You need only look at her [=it is only necessary for you to look at her] to understand why I fell in love. — usually used in negative statements and in questions for which the answer is assumed by the speaker to be "no" ▪ You needn't leave if you don't want to. [=you don't have to leave if you don't want to] ▪ You need not answer these questions. [=you don't have to answer these questions] ▪ I told him he needn't worry. ▪ Nothing bad happened. You need not have worried. ▪ Need I point out that your father disagrees? ✧ The modal verb need is used especially in British English. In U.S. English, it is commonly used in phrases like need not apply and need I say more. ▪ High school dropouts need not apply. [=they should not apply because they will not get the job] ▪ The movie was a complete waste of time. Need I say more? [=that is all I need to say] need no introduction see INTRODUCTION

[2]need noun, pl needs

1 : a situation in which someone or something must do or have something [noncount] You can always call me at home if the need arises. ▪ These new methods reduce the need to use harmful chemicals on crops. [singular] We find that there is still a need for further discussion. ▪ There is a great/desperate/pressing need for change. — see also a crying need at CRYING

2 [count] : something that a person must have ▪ Our experienced staff will go out of their way to meet/satisfy/fulfill your every need. : something that is needed in order to live or succeed or be happy — usually plural ▪ She struggles to meet the daily needs of her children. ▪ the basic needs of every human being ▪ This ought to be enough money to cover/meet your immediate needs. ▪ economic/financial needs ▪ The house is large enough for the family's needs. — see also SPECIAL NEEDS

3 [count] : a strong feeling that you must have or do something ▪ He has trouble expressing his emotional needs. ▪ I felt a need to take control of the situation. ▪ a need to be loved ▪ She has an overwhelming need to be liked and respected. ▪ I don't feel the need to defend my decision. ▪ drivers who feel the need for speed [=who want to drive fast]

4 [noncount] : a situation in which people do not have things that they need ▪ They helped us in our hour of need. [=when we most needed help] ▪ We can always count on them to help us in times of need. [=when we need help] ▪ a charity that raises money for women and children in need [=who are poor] — see also a friend in need is a friend indeed at FRIEND

if need be : if something becomes necessary ▪ You can always call me at home if need be. ▪ We'll leave without them if need be. [=if we have to]

in need of — used to say that someone or something needs to have something ▪ The program is in desperate/dire/urgent need of financial support. ▪ More important things were in need of her attention. ▪ The trucks are in constant need of repair.

no need — used to say that something is not necessary ▪ "I'll get someone to help you." "No need. I can do it myself." — often followed by to + verb ▪ There's no need to get excited. ▪ There's no need to apologize. ▪ There's no need to shout. I can hear you. — often + for ▪ There's no need for him to apologize. ▪ There's no need for you to shout. = There's no need for shouting. ▪ There's no need for that kind of behavior. ▪ The doctor says that there's no need for surgery.

need·ful /ˈniːdfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~]

1 formal + somewhat old-fashioned : needed or necessary ▪ What's most needful now is patience.

2 chiefly US : in a state of needing something : NEEDY ▪ needful children — sometimes + of ▪ They are needful of protection. [=they need protection]

– need·ful·ness noun [noncount]

[1]nee·dle /ˈniːdl/ noun, pl nee·dles [count]

1 a : a small, very thin object that is used in sewing and that has a sharp point at one end and a hole for thread ▪ I need a needle and thread to sew the button on your shirt. — see picture at SEWING b : one of the two long, thin sticks that are used in knitting and that are pointed at one end c : a very thin, pointed steel tube that is pushed through the skin so that something (such as a drug) can be put into your body or so that blood or other fluids can be taken from it ▪ a hypodermic needle d : a very thin tube used with a pump to put air into a ball (such as a basketball or football)

2 : a long, thin object that moves to point to something (such as a measurement or direction) ▪ The needle on the scale points to 9 grams. ▪ The compass needle points north.

3 : a leaf that is shaped like a very thin stick ▪ pine needles — see color picture on page C6

4 : a very small piece of metal that touches a record and produces sound when the record is played ▪ the needle of a record player

a needle in a haystack informal : someone or something that is very hard to find ▪ Searching for your earring at the park will be like looking for a needle in a haystack. ▪ Bumping into an old friend in New York City is like finding a needle in a haystack.

– see also PINS AND NEEDLES

– nee·dle·like /ˈniːdlˌlaɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]

[2]needle verb needles; nee·dled; nee·dling [+ obj] informal : to criticize and laugh at (someone) in either a friendly or an unkind way : TEASE ▪ His classmates needled him about his new haircut.

nee·dle·point /ˈniːdlˌpɔɪnt/ noun [noncount]

1 : designs made by covering a piece of cloth with small stitches ▪ She sold her needlepoint at the arts and crafts fair.

2 : the activity or art of making needlepoint ▪ Her hobbies include knitting and needlepoint.

– needlepoint adj, always used before a noun ▪ needlepoint pillows/classes need·less /ˈniːdləs/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not needed or necessary — used to describe something bad that did not have to happen ▪ needless [=unnecessary] waste ▪ needless human suffering ▪ a needless death

needless to say — used to say that the statement you are making is obvious ▪ The two candidates were equally popular. Needless to say [=of course, obviously], the election was very close.

– need·less·ly adv ▪ needlessly [=unnecessarily] complicated instructions – need·less·ness noun [noncount] ▪ the needlessness of his death

nee·dle·work /ˈniːdlˌwɚk/ noun [noncount]

1 : things that are made by hand with a needle and thread ▪ She showed us a sample of her needlework.

2 : the activity or art of making needlework ▪ She still enjoys doing needlework.

needn't /ˈniːdnt/ — used as a contraction of need not ▪ You needn't worry about me. I'll be fine.

needy /ˈniːdi/ adj need·i·er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : not having enough money, food, etc., to live properly : POOR ▪ needy families

2 : needing a lot of attention, affection, or emotional support ▪ As a child, she was extremely needy and had no self-confidence. ▪ emotionally needy adults the needy : poor people ▪ Our church collected food for the needy.

– need·i·ness noun [noncount] ▪ emotional neediness

ne'er /ˈneɚ/ adv, literary : NEVER ne'er–do–well /ˈneɚduˌwɛl/ noun, pl -wells [count] old-fashioned : a lazy and worthless person ▪ a ne'er-do-well who

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 11 SESS: 13 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:45 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

hangs out at bars [=a person who goes to bars instead of working hard] – ne'er–do–well adj ▪ She was abandoned by her ne'er-do-well [=good-for-nothing] father.

ne•far•i•ous /nɪˈferijəs/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal : evil or immoral ▪ nefarious criminal activities ▪ a nefarious scheme to cheat people out of their money

neg. abbr negative

ne•gate /nɪˈgeɪt/ verb -gates; -gat•ed; -gat•ing [+ obj] formal 1 : to cause (something) to not be effective ▪ Alcohol negates the effects of the medicine. [=alcohol prevents the medicine from working] ▪ The fact that she lied about her work experience negated the contract.
2 grammar : to make (a word or phrase) negative ▪ a verb that is negated by "not"
– ne•ga•tion /nɪˈgeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions formal [count] — usually singular ▪ The jury's verdict was a negation of justice. [=the jury's verdict was unjust] [noncount] actions done in negation of the rules

[1]neg•a•tive /ˈnɛgətɪv/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] : harmful or bad : not wanted ▪ Car exhaust has a negative effect/impact on the environment. ▪ the negative effects of the drug ▪ We had a very negative [=unpleasant] experience at the restaurant. — opposite POSITIVE
2 [more ~; most ~] : thinking about the bad qualities of someone or something : thinking that a bad result will happen : not hopeful or optimistic ▪ She has a negative attitude about the new plan. [=she only thinks about the things that can go wrong with the new plan] ▪ Why do you have such a negative outlook on the merger? [=why do you think the merger won't work?] ▪ "I know we're going to lose." "Don't be so negative." [=pessimistic] — opposite POSITIVE
3 a : expressing dislike or disapproval ▪ The reviews were mostly negative. [=unfavorable] ▪ The feedback about the new product was all negative. ▪ There are no negative feelings between us. [=we do not dislike each other] — opposite POSITIVE b : showing or talking about the bad qualities of someone or something ▪ The senator is running a negative campaign. [=a campaign that criticizes the other candidate instead of saying what good things the senator wants to do] ▪ negative advertising [=advertising that criticizes competitors]
4 [more ~; most ~] : expressing denial or refusal ▪ a negative reply/answer [=a reply of "no"] ▪ negative words like "no" and "not" ▪ "I didn't hear anything" is a negative phrase/construction/statement. — opposite AFFIRMATIVE
5 a mathematics : less than zero ▪ My checking account has a negative balance. ▪ -2 is a negative number. — opposite POSITIVE b : less than the amount of money spent or invested ▪ We got a negative return on the investment. [=we lost money on the investment] — opposite POSITIVE
6 technical a : containing or producing electricity that is charged by an electron ▪ a negative charge/current — opposite POSITIVE b : having more electrons than protons ▪ a negative particle — opposite POSITIVE
7 : not showing the presence of a particular germ, condition, or substance ▪ a negative HIV test ▪ Her pregnancy test was negative. [=her test showed that she was not pregnant] — opposite POSITIVE
– neg•a•tive•ly adv ▪ a negatively charged particle ▪ The patient reacted negatively to the new drug. [=the patient had harmful side effects from the drug] ▪ Customers responded negatively to the new product. [=customers did not like the new product]

[2]negative noun, pl -tives [count]
1 : something that is harmful or bad ▪ One of the negatives [=drawbacks] of the house is that it's on a busy street. ▪ Since the positives outweigh the negatives, I'm going to take the job. [=there are more good things about the job than bad things] — opposite POSITIVE
2 : a word or statement that means "no" or that expresses a denial or refusal ▪ "No" and "not" are negatives. — see also DOUBLE NEGATIVE
3 : an image on film that is used to make a printed photograph and that has light areas where the photograph will be dark and dark areas where the photograph will be light; also : the film that has such an image ▪ Can I have the negatives to make copies of the photos? — compare POSITIVE
4 : the result from a test that shows that a particular germ, condition, or substance is not present ▪ There is a high rate of false negatives for this test. [=this test often incorrectly indicates that something is not present when it really is] — opposite POSITIVE in the negative formal : with a reply that means "no" ▪ She answered (the question) in the negative. [=she answered "no"] — compare in the affirmative at [2]AFFIRMATIVE negative equity noun [noncount] : a situation in which the amount of money that a person owes for something (such as a house or a car) is less than its worth neg•a•tiv•i•ty /ˌnɛgəˈtɪvəti/ noun [noncount] : an attitude in which someone considers only the bad qualities of someone or something ▪ Her negativity about society began to depress me. ▪ There is a lot of negativity about the new boss.

[1]ne•glect /nɪˈglɛkt/ verb -glects; -glect•ed; -glect•ing [+ obj]
1 : to fail to take care of or to give attention to (someone or something) ▪ The building has been neglected for years. ▪ She neglects her child. ▪ The city has neglected the teacher shortage for too long.
2 : to fail to do (something) ▪ The prison guard neglected his duty. — often followed by to + verb ▪ He neglected to mention that he was fired. ▪ He neglected to sign the check.

[2]neglect noun [noncount]
1 : lack of attention or care that someone or something needs ▪ The park was overgrown and littered from years of neglect. ▪ The parents were charged with child neglect. — often + of ▪ the city's neglect of the homeless ▪ He was dismissed for neglect of duty. [=for not doing his duty]
2 : the condition of not being taken care of ▪ The house is in a state of neglect.

neglected adj [more ~; most ~] : not given enough attention or care ▪ neglected children ▪ a sadly neglected garden ▪ His wife felt neglected. [=she felt unhappy because she wanted him to pay more attention to her] ne•glect•ful /nɪˈglɛktfəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : not giving enough care or attention to someone or something ▪ neglectful parents — often + of ▪ She is neglectful of her appearance/responsibilities. ▪ He is neglectful of what other people might think. [=he does not care about what other people might think]

neg•li•gee /ˌnɛgləˈʒeɪ/ noun, pl -li•gees [count] : a long piece of clothing made of a thin material (such as silk) that is worn in bed by women neg•li•gence /ˈnɛglɪʤəns/ noun [noncount] formal : failure to take the care that a responsible person usually takes : lack of normal care or attention ▪ Medical negligence may be the cause of death. [=the patient's death may have happened because the doctor did not do something that should have been done] ▪ The company was charged with negligence in the manufacturing of the defective tires.

neg•li•gent /ˈnɛglɪʤənt/ adj [more ~; most ~] : failing to take proper or normal care of something or someone ▪ The fire was started by a negligent smoker. ▪ negligent parents ▪ He was negligent in not reporting the accident to the police. ▪ She was negligent about sending a thank-you note. [=she neglected to send a thank-you note]
– neg•li•gent•ly adv ▪ The defendant drove negligently and hit a pedestrian.

neg•li•gi•ble /ˈnɛglɪʤəbəl/ adj [more ~; most ~] : very small or unimportant ▪ A negligible amount of damage was done to the vehicle. ▪ The price difference was negligible.
– neg•li•gi•bly /ˈnɛglɪʤəbli/ adv ▪ The difference between the prices was negligibly small.

ne•go•tia•ble /nɪˈgoʊʃiəbəl/ adj
1 : able to be discussed and changed before an agreement or decision is made ▪ The terms of the contract are negotiable. ▪ The price was not negotiable.
2 : able to be successfully traveled over ▪ a rough but negotiable road
3 finance : able to be passed from one person to another in return for something of equal value ▪ negotiable bonds/securities

ne•go•ti•ate /nɪˈgoʊʃiˌeɪt/ verb -ates; -at•ed; -at•ing
1 a : to discuss something formally in order to make an agreement [no obj] The customer wanted to negotiate over/about the price. ▪ She has good negotiating skills. — often + with or for ▪ The team is negotiating with the player's agent. ▪ Teachers are negotiating for higher salaries. [+ obj] She is negotiating a higher salary. [=she is trying to get a higher salary by negotiating] b [+ obj] : to agree on (something) by formally discussing it ▪ We negotiated a fair price/contract.
2 [+ obj] : to get over, through, or around (something) successfully ▪ The driver carefully negotiated the winding road.

negotiating table noun
the negotiating table — used to say that people are having

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 12 SESS: 14 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

formal discussions in order to reach an agreement ▪ The two sides in this dispute have returned to the negotiating table. [=they have begun to have discussions again] ▪ They came to an agreement at the negotiating table. [=they came to an agreement after their discussions]

ne•go•ti•a•tion /nɪˌgoʊʃiˈeɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions : a formal discussion between people who are trying to reach an agreement : an act of negotiating [count] We need a negotiation between the townspeople and mayor over the site of the new library. — usually plural ▪ The buyer and seller are continuing negotiations on the sale price and repairs to the house. ▪ Negotiations between the two governments have failed to produce an agreement. ▪ Negotiations with the protesters began today. [noncount] She is skilled at negotiation. ▪ The college president was against any negotiation with the students. ▪ The contract is under negotiation. [=the details of the contract are being discussed] ▪ The price is open to negotiation. [=the price has not been finally decided and can be discussed] ▪ The team is in negotiation with the player. [=the team is discussing the details of a contract with the player]

ne•go•ti•a•tor /nɪˈgoʊʃiˌeɪtɚ/ noun, pl -tors [count] : a person who is involved in formal financial or political discussions in order to try to reach an agreement ▪ a skilled trade/labor negotiator

Ne•gro /ˈniːgroʊ/ noun, pl -groes [count] old-fashioned + sometimes offensive : a person who has dark skin and who belongs to a race of people who are originally from Africa
– Negro adj, sometimes offensive

neigh /ˈneɪ/ verb neighs; neighed; neigh•ing [no obj] of a horse : to make a loud, long sound ▪ We heard the horses neighing in the stable. — compare WHINNY – neigh noun, pl neighs [count] ▪ We heard a distant neigh.

neigh•bor (US) or Brit neigh•bour /ˈneɪbɚ/ noun, pl -bors [count]
1 : a person who lives next to or near another person ▪ We invited our friends and neighbors. ▪ our next-door neighbors [=the people who live in the house next to us]
2 : a person or thing that is next to or near another ▪ Please pass your paper to your neighbor. [=the person sitting next to you] ▪ Canada is a neighbor of the U.S. ▪ Venus is Earth's nearest neighbor.

neigh•bor•hood (US) or Brit neigh•bour•hood /ˈneɪbɚˌhʊd/ noun, pl -hoods
1 [count] : a section of a town or city ▪ They bought a house in a beautiful/quiet neighborhood. — often used before another noun ▪ the neighborhood school/park/children
2 [noncount] : the people who live near each other ▪ The whole neighborhood heard about it.
in the neighborhood : in the area that is close to something ▪ Is there a grocery store in the neighborhood? [=is there a grocery store close by?] ▪ We might as well pay them a visit while we're in the neighborhood.
in the neighborhood of 1 : close to (a place) ▪ An earthquake was reported somewhere in the neighborhood of southern California. 2 : close to or around (an amount) : ABOUT ▪ The album sold in the neighborhood of 1,000 copies. ▪ A house like this costs somewhere in the neighborhood of $200,000.

neighborhood watch (US) or Brit neighbourhood watch noun [noncount] : an organization of neighbors who pay special attention to each other's houses in order to prevent crime — often used before another noun ▪ a neighborhood watch group/program neigh•bor•ing (US) or Brit neigh•bour•ing /ˈneɪbərɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : near or next to something or someone ▪ neighboring cities/countries ▪ a neighboring building ▪ people from (the) neighboring tribes

neigh•bor•ly (US) or Brit neigh•bour•ly /ˈneɪbɚli/ adj [more ~; most ~] : helpful and friendly ▪ It was very neighborly [=kind] of you to help. ▪ the importance of neighborly [=friendly] relations between countries ▪ She was friendly in a neighborly way.
– neigh•bor•li•ness noun [noncount]

[1]nei•ther /ˈniːðɚ, ˈnaɪðɚ/ adj : not one or the other of two people or things ▪ Neither answer is correct. [=both answers are wrong] ▪ "Which answer is correct?" "Neither one." ▪ Neither sweater fits her.

[2]neither pronoun : not the one and not the other of two people or things ▪ Neither (of the two answers) is correct. ▪ "Which one do you want?" "Neither, thanks." ▪ Neither of them dances well. ▪ There are two flashlights, neither of which works.

usage According to the rules of grammar, the pronoun neither is singular and requires a singular verb. ▪ Neither is correct. However, in informal writing and speech, a plural verb is common when neither is followed by of. ▪ Neither of the answers is/are correct. ▪ Neither of them know/knows my friend.

[3]neither conj
1 — used with nor to indicate two or more people, things, actions, etc., about which something is not true ▪ Neither my wife nor I can attend the party. ▪ Neither wood nor plastic conducts heat like metal does. ▪ I neither know nor care. ▪ I'm neither happy nor sad. ▪ She eats neither meat nor cheese. [=(more commonly) she does not eat meat or cheese] ✧ When neither and nor are used to join two subjects, the verb should agree with the subject that is closer to it. ▪ Neither my father nor I am going to the meeting.
2 : also not — used after a negative statement ▪ "I don't believe his story." "Neither do I." [=I also do not believe his story] ▪ They didn't believe his story, and neither did I. ▪ I did not believe his story, but neither did I believe hers.
me neither see [4]EITHER neither here nor there see [1]HERE

nem•e•sis /ˈnɛməsəs/ noun, pl -ses /-ˌsiːz/ [count] : an opponent or enemy that is very difficult to defeat ▪ He will be playing his old nemesis for the championship.

neo- prefix : a new and different form of something that existed in the past (such as a theory, style, language, or philosophy) ▪ neo-Darwinism ▪ neo-Gothic ▪ neo-Latin ▪ *neo*classical neo•clas•si•cal /ˌniːoʊˈklæsɪkəl/ also neo•clas•sic /ˌniːoʊˈklæsɪk/ adj : relating to a style of art or architecture like the ones found in ancient Greece or Rome ▪ a building designed in a neoclassical style ▪ The museum will be exhibiting paintings from the neoclassical movement.

– neo•clas•si•cism /ˌniːoʊˈklæsəˌsɪzəm/ noun [noncount] ▪ a painter who practiced neoclassicism in the late 18th century – neo•clas•si•cist /ˌniːoʊˈklæsəsɪst/ noun, pl -cists [count]

Neo•lith•ic /ˌniːəˈlɪθɪk/ adj : of or relating to the time during the Stone Age when people used stone tools and began to grow crops, raise animals, and live together in large groups but did not read or write ▪ Neolithic man/tribes/cave painters ▪ the Neolithic age/period — compare PALEOLITHIC

ne•ol•o•gism /niˈɑːlәˌʤɪzəm/ noun, pl -gisms [count] : a new word or expression or a new meaning of a word ▪ scientific neologisms [=new scientific words]

[1]ne•on /ˈniːˌɑːn/ noun [noncount] : a type of gas that is used in brightly colored electric signs and lights

[2]neon adj, always used before a noun
1 : using neon ▪ flashing neon lights/signs
2 : extremely bright ▪ neon yellow/green

neo•na•tal /ˌniːoʊˈneɪtl/ adj, medical : of, relating to, or taking care of babies in the first month after their birth ▪ a neonatal intensive care unit ▪ neonatal diseases neo–Na•zi /ˌniːoʊˈnɑːtsi/ noun, pl -zis [count] : a person who belongs to a group that believes in the ideas and policies of Hitler's Nazis and that sometimes commits violent acts

– neo–Nazi adj

neo•phyte /ˈniːjəˌfaɪt/ noun, pl -phytes [count] formal
1 : a person who has just started learning or doing something : BEGINNER ▪ a neophyte on computers ▪ a political neophyte [=a person just starting in politics] — often used before another noun ▪ a neophyte journalist
2 : a person who has recently joined a religious group

neph•ew /ˈnɛfju/ noun, pl -ews [count] : a son of your brother or sister — compare NIECE nep•o•tism /ˈnɛpəˌtɪzəm/ noun [noncount] disapproving : the unfair practice by a powerful person of giving jobs and other favors to relatives ▪ Nepotism has hurt the company.

Nep•tune /ˈnɛpˌtuːn, Brit ˈnɛpˌtjuːn/ noun [singular] : the planet that is eighth in order from the sun nerd /ˈnɚd/ noun, pl nerds [count] informal + usually disapproving

1 : a person who behaves awkwardly around other people and usually has unstylish clothes, hair, etc. ▪ He dresses like a nerd.
2 : a person who is very interested in technical subjects, computers, etc. ▪ My brother is a computer nerd. [=geek] ▪ a grammar nerd
– nerd•i•ness /ˈnɚdinəs/ noun [noncount] ▪ She was embarrassed by her sister's nerdiness. – nerd•ish /ˈnɚdɪʃ/ adj

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 13 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:46 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

[more ~; most ~] ▪ a nerdish teenager – nerdy /ˈnəːdi/ adj nerd•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] ▪ She wears nerdy glasses. ▪ He plays a nerdy scientist in the movie.

nerve /ˈnəːv/ noun, pl nerves

1 [count] : one of the many thin parts that control movement and feeling by carrying messages between the brain and other parts of the body ▪ The optic nerve in the eye allows you to see. ▪ a condition affecting the nerves in her arm

2 [noncount] : courage that allows you to do something that is dangerous, difficult, or frightening ▪ It takes a lot of nerve to start a new career. ▪ He found/summoned the nerve to stand up to his boss. ▪ I was going to ask her to the dance, but I lost my nerve.

3 [singular, noncount] : the rude attitude of someone who says or does things that make other people angry or upset ▪ You have a lot of nerve to talk to me that way. ▪ I can't believe she had the nerve to call me a liar. ▪ "After making the mess, he didn't even offer to help clean it up." "What (a) nerve!"

4 nerves [plural] : feelings of being worried or nervous ▪ The groom was overcome by nerves before his wedding. ▪ The singer still suffers from nerves before a performance. ▪ Her nerves were on edge [=she was nervous] before her exam. ▪ I need a drink to steady/calm my nerves. [=relax]

a bag/bundle of nerves informal : an extremely nervous person ▪ He was a bundle of nerves before his speech.

get on someone's nerves : to become extremely annoying to someone ▪ That car alarm is getting on my nerves.

hit/strike/touch a nerve : to make someone feel angry, upset, embarrassed, etc. ▪ Something she said to him must have hit/struck/touched a nerve. I've never seen him so angry. ▪ His controversial column might have hit a (raw/sensitive) nerve with some readers.

nerves of steel : an impressive ability to remain calm in dangerous or difficult situations ▪ It takes nerves of steel to work in such a high-pressure job.

war of nerves : a situation in which people do or say things to make other people feel afraid or nervous about what will happen ▪ The company and the union are engaged in a war of nerves, with each side threatening the other.

nerve cell noun, pl ~ cells [count] : NEURON nerve center (US) or Brit nerve centre noun, pl ~ -ters [count] : a place from which the activities of an organization, system, etc., are controlled ▪ the economic nerve center of a nation nerve gas noun [noncount] : a poisonous gas that is used as a weapon in war nerve–rack•ing or nerve–wrack•ing /ˈnəːvˌrækɪŋ/ adj [more ~; most ~] : causing a person to feel very nervous ▪ The job interview was a nerve-racking experience. ▪ She endured a nerve-racking wait for her test scores.

ner•vous /ˈnəːvəs/ adj

1 [more ~; most ~] a : having or showing feelings of being worried and afraid about what might happen ▪ She is/feels nervous about her job interview. ▪ All this waiting is making me nervous. ▪ He gave a nervous glance at the clock. ▪ a nervous smile ▪ Before the wedding the bride's father was a nervous wreck. [=he was extremely nervous] b : often or easily becoming worried and afraid about what might happen ▪ His nervous mother is always worrying that something terrible will happen to him. ▪ He has a nervous disposition. c : causing someone to feel worried and afraid : making someone nervous ▪ It was a very nervous situation.

2 always used before a noun : of or relating to the nerves in your body ▪ nervous tissue ▪ She suffers from a nervous disorder/condition. : caused by or affected by nerves ▪ He walked around with a nervous twitch. ▪ He had a nervous habit of pulling at his hair. ▪ The boy has a lot of nervous energy.

– ner•vous•ly adv ▪ Dad paced nervously around the waiting room. – ner•vous•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The student showed no sign of nervousness.

nervous breakdown noun, pl ~ -downs [count] : a sudden failure of mental health that makes someone unable to live normally ▪ She had/suffered a nervous breakdown shortly after her sister's death. ▪ He is on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

nervous Nel•lie or nervous Nel•ly /-ˈnɛli/ or Nervous Nellie or Nervous Nelly noun, pl ~ Nel•lies [count] US, informal : a very fearful or nervous person ▪ My sister is a real nervous Nellie when it comes to flying.

nervous system noun, pl ~ -tems [count] : the system of nerves in your body that sends messages for controlling movement and feeling between the brain and the other parts of the body — see also CENTRAL NERVOUS SYSTEM

nervy /ˈnəːvi/ adj nerv•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal

1 US, approving : having or showing courage or confidence ▪ a nervy performance in the play-offs ▪ a nervy film director who's not afraid to take risks

2 US, disapproving — used to describe someone who says or does rude or shocking things that make other people angry or upset ▪ She was nervy enough to criticize the food we served her. [=she had the nerve to criticize the food we served her]

3 Brit : feeling unpleasantly nervous or excited : not calm ▪ The passengers were restless and nervy after the long flight. ▪ Too much coffee makes me nervy.

-ness /nəs/ noun combining form : state : condition : quality ▪ good*ness* ▪ friendli*ness* ▪ sick*ness* ▪ fresh*ness*

[1]nest /ˈnɛst/ noun, pl nests [count]

1 a : the place where a bird lays its eggs and takes care of its young ▪ The bird built a nest out of small twigs. ▪ If you look closely, you can see a nest in that tree. b : a place where an animal or insect lives and usually lays eggs or takes care of its young ▪ a nest of hornets ▪ a turtle/squirrel nest — see also HORNET'S NEST

2 : a home where people live ▪ They lived in a cozy little nest in the suburbs. ▪ Their children will soon be ready to leave/ee the nest. [=their children will soon be ready to move away from home] — see also LOVE NEST

3 : a group of objects that are made in different sizes that fit inside each other ▪ a nest of boxes/tables feather your (own) nest see [2]FEATHER

[2]nest verb nests; nest•ed; nest•ing [no obj]

1 : to build or live in a nest ▪ Robins nested in the tree. ▪ This area is a nesting ground/place/site for seagulls. [=this is a place where seagulls build nests and raise their young] ▪ She studied the nesting habits of the turtle.

2 : to fit inside each other ▪ The set of four chairs can nest into one stack. ▪ The smaller bowl is designed to nest inside the larger one.

– nest•er /ˈnɛstə/ noun, pl -ters [count] ▪ These birds are cliff nesters. — see also EMPTY NESTER nest egg noun, pl ~ eggs [count] : an amount of money that is saved over a usually long period of time to pay for something in the future ▪ They built up a nest egg for their son's college education.

nes•tle /ˈnɛsəl/ verb, always followed by an adverb or preposition nes•tles; nes•tled; nes•tling

1 [no obj] : to lie comfortably close to or against someone or something ▪ The puppy nestled (up) against the sleeping boy.

2 [+ obj] : to place (something) close to, next to, or within something ▪ He nestled his head against his mother's shoulder. ▪ She carefully nestled the hamster into its cage. — often used as (be) nestled ▪ The vacation resort was nestled among the hills. ▪ Campsites were nestled along the river. ▪ His wife's head was nestled against his chest.

3 [no obj] : to land or settle softly into something ▪ The fly ball nestled into the outfielder's glove.

nest•ling /ˈnɛstlɪŋ/ noun, pl -lings [count] : a young bird that is not yet able to fly away from the nest

[1]net /ˈnɛt/ noun, pl nets

1 a [count] : a device that is used for catching or holding things or for keeping things out of a space and that is made of pieces of string, rope, wire, etc., woven together with spaces in between ▪ He caught a fish in the net. ▪ a butterfly net — often used figuratively ▪ They were caught in a net [=web] of deception. — see picture at FISHING; see also MOSQUITO NET, SAFETY NET b [noncount] : the material used to make nets : NETTING ▪ net curtains

2 [count] sports a : a net that is hung across the middle of a playing area in some games (such as tennis, badminton, or volleyball) ▪ The ball barely went over the net. b : a net that is attached to a frame and that is used as the goal in some games (such as soccer, hockey, or basketball) ▪ He shot the puck into the net. ▪ The ball swished through the net.

3 the Net : the Internet ▪ She likes to surf the Net. [=the Web] ▪ doing business on the Net cast/spread your net wide : to try many different things so that you will have the best chance of finding what you want ▪ Companies are casting their nets wide in search of young, talented employees.

slip/fall through the net : to fail to be noticed or included with others ▪ There are plenty of talented players who slip

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 14 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

through the net and never get to play professionally.
– compare [5]NET

[2]net verb nets; net•ted; net•ting [+ obj]
1 : to catch (something) in a net ▪ We netted nine fish during the trip. — often used figuratively ▪ The escaped convict was netted by police.
2 sports a : to hit (a ball) into the net during a game (such as tennis) ▪ She netted her first two serves. b : to score (a goal or point) by hitting, kicking, or shooting a ball or puck into a net ▪ He netted two goals in his first game. ▪ She netted 15 points in the first half.
– compare [4]NET

[3]net also Brit nett adj, always used before a noun
1 — used to describe the amount or value of something after all costs and expenses have been taken away ▪ They determined the net value of the estate. ▪ The company suffered a decline in net profit for the third quarter. ▪ a billionaire's net worth — compare [1]GROSS
2 — used to describe the weight of something without its packaging or container ▪ the net weight of the shipment
3 : after everything is completed ▪ The net result/outcome/effect of the new bridge will be fewer traffic jams.

[4]net verb nets; netted; netting [+ obj]
1 : to gain or receive (an amount) as a profit ▪ We netted $50 on the sale. — compare [4]GROSS
2 : to produce or get (something) as the result of an effort ▪ The investigation netted no clues. ▪ The running back netted 20 yards on his first run.
– compare [2]NET

[5]net noun, pl nets [count] : an amount that is left over after all costs and expenses have been taken away : a net amount ▪ The net is significantly lower than we had anticipated. — compare [5]GROSS — compare [1]NET

net•ball /ˈnɛtˌbɑːl/ noun [noncount] : a sport played chiefly in Britain that is similar to basketball and has two teams of seven players each ✧ Netball is usually played by women and girls.

neth•er /ˈnɛðə/ adj, always used before a noun, literary or humorous : located toward the bottom or more distant part of something : LOWER ▪ Snakes nested in the nether reaches of the cave. [=snakes nested deep in the cave] ▪ His shorts fell down and exposed his nether parts/regions. [=his genitals and buttocks]

neth•er•world /ˈnɛðəˌwɚld/ noun, pl -worlds
1 the netherworld literary : the world of the dead : HELL
2 [count] : a place unknown to most people where secret and often illegal things are done — usually singular ▪ The book describes the author's journey into the netherworld of drug dealers. ▪ a criminal netherworld

net•i•quette /ˈnɛtɪkət/ noun [noncount] informal : rules about the proper and polite way to communicate with other people when you are using the Internet ▪ Writing an e-mail message in all capital letters is considered a breach/violation of netiquette because it looks like you are shouting. ▪ the rules of netiquette

net•i•zen /ˈnɛtəzən/ noun, pl -zens [count] : a person who actively uses the Internet especially in a proper and responsible way

net•mind•er /ˈnɛtˌmaɪndə/ noun, pl -ers [count] : GOALKEEPER

nett Brit spelling of [3]NET

netting noun [noncount] : material consisting of pieces of string, rope, wire, etc., that are woven together with open spaces left in between : material that is used to make nets ▪ He put up wire netting around the garden.

[1]net•tle /ˈnɛtl/ verb net•tles; net•tled; net•tling [+ obj] : to make (someone) angry ▪ The mayor's recent actions have nettled some members of the community. ▪ It nettles him that his younger coworker got a promotion before he did.

[2]nettle noun, pl nettles [count] : a tall plant that has leaves with hairs that sting you if you touch them grasp the nettle Brit : to deal with an unpleasant situation without delay ▪ He decided to grasp the nettle and try to solve the problem himself.

[1]net•work /ˈnɛtˌwɚk/ noun, pl -works [count]
1 a : a system of lines, wires, etc., that are connected to each other ▪ a telephone/rail network — often + of ▪ a network of blood vessels b : a system of computers and other devices (such as printers) that are connected to each other ▪ He hooked up his computer to the network.
2 : a group of people or organizations that are closely connected and that work with each other ▪ a volunteer network — often + of ▪ a network of political allies
3 : a group of radio or television stations that usually broadcast the same programs ▪ The show is getting good ratings for the network. ▪ a network news program

[2]network verb -works; -worked; -work•ing
1 [+ obj] : to connect (computers) in a way that allows information and equipment to be shared ▪ The computers are networked to one main server.
2 [no obj] : to talk with people whose jobs are similar to yours especially for business opportunities or advice ▪ She spent the day networking with other executives.
– networking noun [noncount] ▪ He did some networking at the conference. ▪ She attributes her success to networking.

neu•ral /ˈnʊrəl, Brit ˈnjʊərəl/ adj, medical : of, relating to, or involving a nerve or the nervous system ▪ She suffers from a neural disorder. ▪ neural activity/impulses ▪ the brain's neural pathways

neu•ral•gia /nʊˈrældʒə, Brit njʊˈrældʒə/ noun [noncount] medical : a sharp pain that is felt along the length of a nerve
– neu•ral•gic /nʊˈrældʒɪk, Brit njʊˈrældʒɪk/ adj ▪ neuralgic pain

neu•rol•o•gy /nʊˈrɑːlədʒi, Brit njʊˈrɒlədʒi/ noun [noncount] medical : the scientific study of the nervous system and the diseases that affect it
– neu•ro•log•i•cal /ˌnʊrəˈlɑːdʒɪkəl, Brit ˌnjʊrəˈlɒdʒɪkəl/ or chiefly US neu•ro•log•ic /ˌnʊrəˈlɑːdʒɪk, Brit ˌnjʊrəˈlɒdʒɪk/ adj ▪ a neurological disorder – neu•rol•o•gist /nʊˈrɑːlədʒɪst, Brit njʊˈrɒlədʒɪst/ noun, pl -gists [count]

neu•ro•mus•cu•lar /ˌnʊroʊˈmʌskjələ, Brit ˌnjʊrəʊˈmʌskjələ/ adj, medical : relating to both nerves and muscles ▪ a neuromuscular disease

neu•ron /ˈnʊˌɑːn ˈnjʊərɒn/ also Brit neu•rone /ˈnʊˌoʊn, Brit ˈnjʊərəʊn/ noun, pl -rons [count] medical : a cell that carries messages between the brain and other parts of the body and that is the basic unit of the nervous system : NERVE CELL

neu•ro•sci•ence /ˌnʊroʊˈsajəns, Brit ˌnjʊərəʊˈsajəns/ noun [noncount] : the scientific study of nerves and especially of how nerves affect learning and behavior

neu•ro•sis /nʊˈroʊsəs, Brit njʊˈrəʊsəs/ noun, pl -ses /-ˌsiːz/ [count, noncount] medical : an emotional illness in which a person experiences strong feelings of fear or worry ▪ The patient is clearly suffering from (a) neurosis.

[1]neu•rot•ic /nʊˈrɑːtɪk, Brit njʊˈrɒtɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~]
1 medical : having or suggesting neurosis ▪ The psychiatrist diagnosed the patient as neurotic. ▪ neurotic symptoms
2 : often or always fearful or worried about something : tending to worry in a way that is not healthy or reasonable ▪ My neurotic mother scolded me for staying out 10 minutes past curfew. ▪ He is neurotic about his job. ▪ a neurotic personality
– neu•rot•i•cal•ly /nʊˈrɑːtɪkli, Brit njʊˈrɒtɪkli/ adv ▪ He was neurotically obsessed with keeping his clothes neat.

[2]neurotic noun, pl -ics [count]
1 medical : a person who has a neurosis ▪ He was diagnosed as a neurotic.
2 : a person who is always fearful or worried about something ▪ He is a neurotic about keeping his clothes neat.

neu•ro•trans•mit•ter /ˌnʊroʊˌtrænsˈmɪtə, Brit ˌnjʊərəʊˌtrænsˈmɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] medical : a substance in the body that carries a signal from one nerve cell to another

[1]neu•ter /ˈnuːtə, Brit ˈnjuːtə/ adj, grammar, in some languages : of or belonging to the class of words (called a gender) that ordinarily includes most of the words referring to things that are neither masculine nor feminine ▪ The pronoun "it" is neuter. ▪ a neuter noun

[2]neuter verb -ters; -tered; -ter•ing [+ obj]
1 : to remove the sex organs from (an animal) ▪ She had her dog neutered by the veterinarian. ✧ Neuter usually refers to the action of removing the sex organs from a male animal, while spay usually refers to the action of removing the sex organs from a female animal.
2 disapproving : to make (something) much less powerful or effective ▪ The bill was neutered by the changes made by the legislature.

[1]neu•tral /ˈnuːtrəl, Brit ˈnjuːtrəl/ adj
1 [more ~; most ~] a : not supporting either side of an argument, fight, war, etc. ▪ neutral countries ▪ He remained/stayed neutral while his brothers argued. b : not supporting one political view over another ▪ She tries to be a fair and neutral journalist. ▪ a neutral magazine
2 : not connected with either side involved in a war, contest,

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 15 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:47 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

etc. ▪ The battle took place in neutral waters. ▪ The duel will be held on neutral ground. ▪ neutral territory
3 [more ~; most ~] : not expressing strong opinions or feelings ▪ The report was written in neutral language. ▪ "Why did you do that?" he asked in a neutral tone of voice.
4 : not bright or strong in color : able to go easily with other colors ▪ They decorated the room in neutral tones/colors. ▪ a neutral gray ▪ neutral fabrics
5 technical : neither an acid nor a base ▪ a neutral compound ▪ a chemical with a neutral pH
6 technical : not having an electrical charge ▪ a neutral molecule
– neu•tral•ly adv ▪ The judge must try to view the dispute neutrally. ▪ neutrally charged atoms

[2]neutral noun, pl -trals
1 [count] : a color that is not bright or strong : a neutral color — usually plural ▪ She painted the room in neutrals.
2 [noncount] : the position of the gears in a car, truck, etc., when they do not touch each other and power from the engine does not move the wheels ▪ He put/left the car in neutral.
3 [count] : a person, country, etc., that does not support either side of an argument, fight, war, etc. ▪ Their sister remained a neutral in the dispute. ▪ The two countries were neutrals while their neighbors were at war.

neu•tral•i•ty /nuˈtrælətɪ, Brit njuˈtrælətɪ/ noun [noncount] : the quality or state of not supporting either side in an argument, fight, war, etc. : the quality or state of being neutral ▪ The country adopted an official policy of neutrality. ▪ The newspaper is known for its political neutrality.

neu•tral•ize also Brit neu•tral•ise /ˈnu:trəˌlaɪz, Brit ˈnju:trəˌlaɪz/ verb -iz•es; -ized; -iz•ing [+ obj]
1 : to stop (someone or something) from being effective or harmful ▪ The soldiers tried to neutralize the attack by dividing the invading army.
2 technical : to cause (a chemical) to be neither an acid nor a base ▪ This medicine neutralizes stomach acids.
3 : to make (something, such as a country or area) neutral during a war ▪ The lands between the warring countries were neutralized.
– neu•tral•i•za•tion also Brit neu•tral•i•sa•tion /ˌnu:trələˈzeɪʃən, Brit ˌnju:trəˌlaɪˈzeɪʃən/ noun [noncount] neutral zone noun

the neutral zone : the middle part of an ice hockey rink that is between the two zones defended by the teams

neu•tri•no /nuˈtri:noʊ, Brit njuˈtri:nəʊ/ noun, pl -nos [count] physics : a particle that is smaller than an atom and that has no electrical charge

neu•tron /ˈnu:ˌtrɑ:n, Brit ˈnju:ˌtrɒn/ noun, pl -trons [count] physics : a very small particle of matter that has no electrical charge and is part of the nucleus of all atoms except hydrogen atoms neutron bomb noun, pl ~ bombs [count] : a nuclear bomb that releases very large amounts of radiation nev•er /ˈnɛvɚ/ adv

1 : not ever : not at any time ▪ I will never shop at that store again. ▪ I have never seen that happen before. ▪ That man has never heard of you. ▪ We will never forget what we saw. ▪ You never know what you'll find at a flea market. ▪ I never meant to hurt you. ▪ She never really said that. ▪ There is never enough time to finish our work. ▪ Never in my whole life have I been so offended! ▪ A resume without a cover letter will never do. [=will never be considered acceptable] ▪ Never again will I buy a car from that dealer. = I will never again buy a car from that dealer. ▪ I gave him my business for years and never for one moment did I suspect that he was a criminal. — opposite ALWAYS
2 chiefly Brit a — used to express surprise, doubt, or disbelief ▪ "He's won the lottery." "Never!" ▪ "They're getting married." "Well, I never! [=I am very surprised or shocked to hear that they're getting married]" b — used to say that you did not do something ▪ "You stole my CD." "Me? Never."
never ever see EVER never fear — used to tell someone not to worry or be afraid ▪ Never fear, I think I have a solution.
never mind, never you mind see [2]MIND never say die see [1]DIE never say never — used to say that you should not say that you will never do something because you might change your mind later ▪ "Would you ever go there again?" "Well, (I'll) never say never, but I'm certainly not planning to go there anytime soon!"
never so much as — used to say that someone did not do something that was expected or should have been done ▪ She never so much as thanked me [=she did not even thank me] for my help.
never the wiser see [1]WISE never–ending adj : having or seeming to have no end : ENDLESS ▪ Keeping the house clean is a never-ending chore. ▪ the never-ending fight against poverty nev•er•more /ˌnɛvəˈmoɚ/ adv, literary : not happening again : never again ▪ Nevermore shall I call you a friend. [=I shall never call you a friend again; I no longer consider you to be a friend of mine] nev•er–nev•er land /ˌnɛvəˈnɛvɚ-/ noun, pl ~ lands [count] : an imaginary place without problems ▪ He daydreamed of a never-never land where people never had to go to work.

nev•er•the•less /ˌnɛvɚðəˈlɛs/ adv : in spite of what has just been said ▪ I had lost a lot of money in the poker game; nevertheless [=however], I decided to continue playing. ▪ Her date was a bit of a slob, but she had fun nevertheless. ▪ It was a predictable, but nevertheless funny, story.

[1]new /ˈnu:, Brit ˈnju:/ adj new•er; -est
1 a : not old : recently born, built, or created ▪ They visited the new library. ▪ She was looking for the new [=most recent] issue of the magazine. ▪ I saw their new baby for the first time. ▪ They planted new trees on the campus. ▪ a new kind of music b : not used by anyone else previously ▪ She couldn't afford a new car, so she bought a used one. ▪ He bought the car new. ▪ shiny new shoes ▪ This watch is new. — see also BRAND-NEW
2 a : recently bought, rented, etc. ▪ She is eager to see his new apartment/house/dog. b : having recently become someone's relative, friend, employee, etc. ▪ This is my new stepsister. ▪ the young man and his new wife ▪ Come meet our newest [=most recently hired] employee. ▪ I made a new friend today. c : recently added to an existing group, organization, etc. ▪ There was a new kid in school today. ▪ The union voted in 10 new members. ▪ The company created a new department to run its Web site. — often + to ▪ She is new to this school. ▪ Don't worry about it. You are still new to the job.
3 : replacing someone or something that came before ▪ The team has a new coach. ▪ Have you met his new girlfriend? ▪ He starts his new job on Monday. ▪ I like your new haircut. ▪ The tree is growing new leaves. ▪ Waiter, could I please have a new fork? This one is dirty.
4 : recently discovered or learned about : not known or experienced before ▪ Scientists discovered a new comet. ▪ a new species of fish ▪ The promotion gave her a new sense of optimism. ▪ This drug gives new hope to patients. ▪ This is a new experience for me. — often + to ▪ This kind of work is still new to me. [=I have been doing this kind of work for only a short time]
5 — used to describe a time, period, etc., that is beginning again and that is different from what came before ▪ A new day has begun. ▪ We are looking forward to the new year. ▪ A new semester starts in the fall. ▪ After college, he moved to the city to begin a new life. [=a time in a person's life that is different in some important way from what came before]
6 : healthier or more energetic ▪ I felt like a new man/woman after my vacation.
(as) good as new or like new : in very good condition : like something that has recently been made ▪ He painted the bicycle, and now it's as good as new. ▪ Once the jewelry has been cleaned, it'll be like new.
new arrival see ARRIVAL
new kid on the block see [1]KID pastures new see [1]PASTURE
the new : new things ▪ The band played a good mix of the old and the new.
turn over a new leaf see [1]LEAF
what else is new? see [2]ELSE what's new? US, informal — used as a friendly greeting ▪ Hey man, what's new?
– new•ness noun [noncount] ▪ The couple admired the shiny newness of their remodeled kitchen.

[2]new adv : newly or recently — usually used in combination ▪ new-laid cement

New Age noun [noncount]
1 : of or relating to ways of thinking and living that are similar to those of older cultures and that have been accepted in recent times by a group of people in place of the usual be-

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 16 SESS: 7 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

liefs and methods of modern society ▪ the New Age movement ▪ a New Age bookstore ▪ New Age spirituality
2 — used to describe a type of instrumental music that is usually soft and relaxing ▪ He likes to listen to New Age music. ▪ a New Age composer
– New Age noun [noncount] ▪ He likes to listen to New Age. ▪ the beginning of the New Age [=the New Age movement] – New Ager /-ˈeɪʤɚ/ noun, pl ~ -ers [count] ▪ She's a New Ager who writes spiritual self-help books. – New Agey /-ˈeɪʤi/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ His apartment has a New Agey atmosphere.

new•bie /ˈnu:bi, Brit ˈnju:bi/ noun, pl -bies [count] chiefly US, informal : a person who has recently started a particular activity ▪ She is a newbie on the Internet. = She's an Internet newbie. ▪ He is a newbie to local politics. ▪ a newbie [=beginner] chess player

[1]new•born /ˈnu:ˌboɚn, Brit ˈnju:ˌbɔ:n/ adj, always used before a noun : recently born ▪ a newborn baby/calf

[2]newborn noun, pl newborn or new•borns [count] : a person or animal that has recently been born : a newborn person or animal ▪ a mother goat and all of her newborn

New•burg or New•burgh /ˈnu:ˌbɚg, Brit ˈnju:ˌbɜ:g/ adj, used after a noun : served with a sauce that is made of cream, butter, sherry, and egg yolks ▪ lobster/shrimp Newburg

new•com•er /ˈnu:ˌkʌmɚ, Brit ˈnju:ˌkʌmə/ noun, pl -ers [count]
1 : a person who has recently arrived somewhere or who has recently started a new activity — often + to ▪ She is a newcomer to the city. ▪ My father is a relative newcomer to the world of computers.
2 : something new that has recently been added or created — often + to ▪ The word "chat room" is a relative newcomer to the English language. ▪ Our company is a newcomer to this market.

new•fan•gled /ˈnu:ˈfæŋgəld, Brit ˈnju:ˈfæŋgəld/ adj, always used before a noun : recently invented or developed and hard to understand ▪ His grandson owns all of the latest newfangled electronics. ▪ newfangled gadgets ▪ the newfangled speech used by teenagers

new•found /ˈnu:ˈfaʊnd, Brit ˈnju:ˈfaʊnd/ adj, always used before a noun : recently discovered, acquired, or achieved : newly found or gotten ▪ He is enjoying his newfound freedom. ▪ a newfound friend ▪ newfound fame

new•ly /ˈnu:li, Brit ˈnju:li/ adv : a short time ago : RECENTLY ▪ They are a newly married couple. ▪ That is a newly acquired habit. ▪ Here is where we keep the newly arrived merchandise. ▪ a newly discovered galaxy ▪ The room is newly painted.

new•ly•wed /ˈnu:liˌwɛd ˈnju:liˌwɛd/ noun, pl -weds [count] : a person who has recently married ▪ They took pictures of the happy newlyweds. ▪ a newlywed hotel suite [=a hotel suite for couples on their honeymoon]

new moon noun, pl ~ moons [count] : the moon when it is completely dark — compare FULL MOON, HALF-MOON

news /ˈnu:z, Brit ˈnju:z/ noun
1 [noncount] : new information or a report about something that has happened recently ▪ Do you have any news to report? ▪ I have some good news, and I have some bad news. ▪ Have you heard the good news? She's going to have a baby! ▪ What's the big/latest news? ▪ It was late summer when news of his death arrived. [=when we learned that he had died] ▪ We tried to break the news [=tell the bad news] to her gently. ▪ "The concert has been canceled." "Well, that is news to me." [=I didn't know that; no one told me that] ▪ Lower ticket prices are good news for [=make things easier for] sports fans. ▪ We haven't heard from his teacher lately, but no news is good news. [=if he was doing badly, his teacher would have told us]
2 [noncount] a : information that is reported in a newspaper, magazine, television news program, etc. ▪ local/international news ▪ The company has been in the news recently. ▪ and now this late-breaking news [=the most recent news of the day] ▪ front-page news [=important news that could be reported on the front page of a newspaper] — often used before another noun ▪ TV news reporters ▪ news stories/reports ▪ the news media ▪ a slow news day [=a day with little news to report] b informal : someone or something that is exciting and in the news ▪ She's big news here in the city. ▪ That band is old news. = The band is yesterday's news. [=that band isn't new or exciting anymore]
3 the news : a television news program ▪ We saw it on the evening/nightly news. ▪ The local news is on at 5:30.
have news for someone — used when you are making a definite and forceful statement that someone does not expect, know about, or agree with ▪ "You think you're going to win? Well, I've got news for you: you're not." ▪ People tell me that my business will never succeed. Well, I have news for them. I'm going to make a profit by the end of the year.
– see also BAD NEWS

news agency noun, pl ~ -cies [count] : an organization that collects and gives news to newspapers, magazines, television news programs, and radio stations — called also press agency

news•agent /ˈnu:zˌeɪʤənt, Brit ˈnju:zˌeɪʤənt/ noun, pl -agents [count] chiefly Brit : a person or shop that sells newspapers, magazines, and often paperback books

news•boy /ˈnu:zˌbɔɪ ˈnju:zˌbɔɪ/ noun, pl -boys [count] chiefly US, old-fashioned : a boy who sells or delivers newspapers news•cast /ˈnu:zˌkæst, Brit ˈnju:zˌkɑ:st/ noun, pl -casts [count] chiefly US : a radio or television program that reports the news ▪ the nightly TV newscast

news•cast•er /ˈnu:zˌkæstɚ, Brit ˈnju:zˌkɑ:stə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly US : a person who reports and sometimes discusses the news on a radio or television show — called also (Brit) newsreader news conference noun, pl ~ -ences [count] : PRESS CONFERENCE ▪ The President will hold a news conference later today.

news ash noun, pl ~ ash •es [count] : a report on an important piece of news that is given in the middle of another television or radio show — often used ironically when you are saying something that is not new or surprising ▪ News flash! Your brother's late again!

news•group /ˈnu:zˌgrup, Brit ˈnju:zˌgru:p/ noun, pl -groups [count] : a place on the Internet where people can talk about a particular subject by reading and leaving messages ▪ I posted a message to a gardening newsgroup.

news•let•ter /ˈnu:zˌlɛtɚ, Brit ˈnju:zˌlɛtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] : a short written report that tells about the recent activities of an organization and that is sent to members of the organization ▪ the club's monthly newsletter

news•man /ˈnu:zmən, Brit ˈnju:zmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a person (usually a man) who gathers, reports, or comments on the news

news•pa•per /ˈnu:zˌpeɪpɚ, Brit ˈnju:zˌpeɪpə/ noun, pl -pers
1 [count] : a set of large sheets of paper that have news stories, information about local events, advertisements, etc., and that are folded together and sold every day or every week ▪ He likes to stay home and read the Sunday newspaper. [=paper] ▪ a daily/weekly newspaper — often used before another noun ▪ newspaper headlines/articles/columns/clippings ▪ a newspaper reporter/editor/columnist
2 [noncount] : the paper on which a newspaper is printed ▪ He used some newspaper to get the fire started.
3 [count] : a company that publishes a newspaper ▪ She worked for the newspaper for 20 years.

news•pa•per•man /ˈnu:zˌpeɪpɚˌmæn, Brit ˈnju:zˌpeɪpəˌmæn/ noun, pl -men /-ˌmɛn/ [count] : a person (usually a man) who works as a reporter for a newspaper

news•pa•per•wom•an /ˈnu:zˌpeɪpɚˌwʊmən, Brit ˈnju:zˌpeɪpəˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who works as a reporter for a newspaper

new•speak or New•speak /ˈnu:ˌspi:k, Brit ˈnju:ˌspi:k/ noun [noncount] disapproving : speech or writing that uses words in a way that changes their meaning especially to persuade people to think a certain way ▪ political newspeak

news•per•son /ˈnu:zˌpɚsn̩, Brit ˈnju:zˌpɜ:sn̩/ noun, pl -peo•ple [count] : a person who gathers, reports, or comments on the news : REPORTER news•print /ˈnu:zˌprɪnt, Brit ˈnju:zˌprɪnt/ noun [noncount] : the thin paper that is used for newspapers news•read•er /ˈnu:zˌri:dɚ, Brit ˈnju:zˌri:də/ noun, pl -ers [count] Brit : NEWSCASTER

news•reel /ˈnu:zˌri:l, Brit ˈnju:zˌri:l/ noun, pl -reels [count] : a short film that reported the news and that was shown in theaters in the past ▪ old newsreels from World War II

news•room /ˈnu:zˌru:m, Brit ˈnju:zˌru:m/ noun, pl -rooms [count] : an office where the news is prepared for a newspaper or a television or radio program

news•stand /ˈnu:zˌstænd, Brit ˈnju:zˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] : a place (such as a small outdoor store) where newspapers and magazines are sold

news•wom•an /ˈnu:zˌwʊmən, Brit ˈnju:zˌwʊmən/ noun, pl

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 17 SESS: 15 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:48 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

-wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who gathers, reports, or comments on the news

news•wor•thy /ˈnuːzˌwəði, Brit ˈnjuːzˌwɜːði/ adj [more ~; most ~] : interesting or important enough to report as news ▪ a newsworthy story

newsy /ˈnuːzi, Brit ˈnjuːzi/ adj news•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~] informal : containing or full of a lot of news ▪ I got a long newsy letter from her. ▪ a newsy magazine

newt /ˈnuːt, Brit ˈnjuːt/ noun, pl newts [count] : a small animal that lives mostly in water and that has four short legs, a long, low body and tail, and soft, wet skin ▪ a bright orange newt

New Testament noun

the New Testament : the second part of the Christian Bible that describes the life of Jesus Christ and the lessons that he taught — compare OLD TESTAMENT

new wave noun, pl ~ waves

1 [count] : a movement in which a group of people introduce new styles or ideas in art, music, politics, etc. — usually singular; often + of ▪ a new wave of feminism

2 New Wave [noncount] : a style of rock music that was popular especially in the 1970s and 1980s, has a strong beat, and uses many electronic instruments (such as keyboards) ▪ people who listened to punk, New Wave, or disco

3 [noncount] : a modern style of art, film, or fashion that tries to be very different or unusual often in a shocking way — often used before another noun ▪ new wave design/films

New World noun

the New World : North, Central, and South America, especially in the past ▪ Columbus reached the New World in 1492. — compare OLD WORLD

New Year noun

1 or chiefly US New Year's [noncount] : the first day of the year celebrated as a holiday; especially : NEW YEAR'S DAY ▪ Happy New Year! ▪ (chiefly US) a New Year's party = (Brit) a New Year party ▪ (US) the week between Christmas and New Year's = (Brit) the week between Christmas and New Year

2 or new year [singular] : the year that is about to start or that has just started — usually used with the ▪ They will welcome/greet the New Year with festivities. ▪ It's sure to be the best film of the new year. ▪ We stayed up past midnight on New Year's Eve to see the new year in. [=to see the beginning of the new year] ▪ the Chinese New Year [=the new year according to the Chinese calendar] ▪ the Jewish New Year [=Rosh Hashanah]

New Year's Day noun, pl ~ Days [count, noncount] : January 1 celebrated as a holiday : the first day of the year

New Year's Eve noun, pl ~ Eves [count, noncount] : December 31 : the last day of the year; especially : the evening of December 31

New York minute noun [singular] US, informal : a very short amount of time ▪ He was down the stairs in a New York minute. [=in an instant; in a flash]

[1]next /ˈnɛkst/ adj

1 : coming after this one : coming after the one that just came, happened, etc. ▪ the next day [=the day that comes after this day] ▪ Please turn to the next [=following] page. ▪ I'll see you next Monday. ▪ Are you coming this Thursday or next Thursday? [=are you coming on Thursday of this week or Thursday of next week?] ▪ Next year's party will be even better. ▪ For the next two years [=two years after this point], she did nothing but eat, sleep, and study. ▪ the very next thing that happened ▪ Can I help the next person in line? Who's next? ▪ We could hear people talking in the next room. ▪ At the next set of lights, turn left. ▪ Next stop, Los Angeles. ▪ I need the next size up. ▪ The next time we will see each other will be on our wedding day. ▪ Next time, please remember to bring your books to class. ▪ in the next life [=in the afterlife; in the life that we may have after death] ▪ I slipped, and the next thing I knew [=right after that happened], I was lying face up on the ground.

2 : any other ▪ He said he's as willing to do it as the next man. [=he's as willing as anyone else would be] ▪ She knew the answer as well as the next person.

next to : almost but not quite ▪ It's next to [=nearly, practically] impossible to drive in this snow. ▪ You ate next to nothing at dinner. Aren't you hungry? ▪ We were next to last in line. [=there was one person or group behind us] ▪ He finished next to last in the race. ▪ the next to last day of our vacation [=the day immediately before the last day of our vacation]

[2]next adv

1 : in the time or place that follows or comes directly after someone or something : after this ▪ Open this present next. ▪ There's a small grocery store in town. The next closest store is 20 miles away. [=not including the store in town, the closest store is 20 miles away] ▪ What happens next? ▪ Next, I need to ask you a few questions about your family. ▪ You're up next. [=it's your turn]

2 : at the first time after this ▪ when we next see each other = when we see each other next = (formal) when next we see each other

next best see [1]BEST

next to 1 : at the side of (someone or something) ▪ I stood right next to [=beside] her. ▪ The house next to ours is for sale. ▪ He sat next to his grandmother. 2 : following or coming immediately after (someone or something) ▪ Next to [=after, besides] math, science was my worst subject in school. ▪ It's the most important news story next to the war. 3 : in comparison with (someone or something) ▪ Next to you, I'm wealthy.

[3]next pronoun [noncount] : a person or thing that immediately follows another person or thing : someone or something that is next ▪ Her first novel was good, but I hope her next will be even better. ▪ We'll meet the week after next. [=we will meet on a day that is in the week after next week; we'll meet in about two weeks] — usually used with the ▪ We went from one store to the next looking for the new CD. ▪ She finished one project and began working on the next. ▪ Who will be the next to leave the company? ▪ All she does from one day to the next is complain. [=she complains all the time] ▪ I was the next to last person [=not the last person, but the person before the last person] in line.

next of kin : the person or people most closely related to you : your closest living relative or relatives (such as your husband, wife, child, parent, sister, or brother) ▪ We notified his next of kin of his death.

next door adv

1 a : in the next house, apartment, room, etc. ▪ The people (who live) next door own a very large dog. ▪ We've lived next door to [=next to] each other for the past 30 years. ▪ He/She seemed like the boy/girl next door. [=like a wholesome young man/woman from a middle-class family] b : next to your or someone else's house, apartment, room, etc. ▪ He bought the house next door. ▪ I'll be staying in the room next door. ▪ Go next door [=to the house/apartment next door] and ask for a cup of sugar, please.

2 : in a place that is very close to something else ▪ Canada is right next door to the U.S.

next–door /ˈnɛkstˈdoɚ/ adj, always used before a noun

1 : living in the next house, apartment, room, etc. ▪ We've been next-door neighbors for the past 30 years.

2 : next to your or someone else's house, apartment, room, etc. ▪ the next-door house nex•us /ˈnɛksəs/ noun [singular] formal : a relationship or connection between people or things — often + between or of ▪ the nexus between teachers and students ▪ the nexus between drugs, guns, and crime ▪ a nexus of money and politics

NFC abbr, US National Football Conference ✧ The NFC and the AFC make up the NFL.

NFL abbr, US National Football League ✧ The NFL is the major professional (American) football league in the U.S.

NGO abbr nongovernmental organization

NH abbr New Hampshire

NHL abbr, US National Hockey League ✧ The NHL is the major professional league for ice hockey in the U.S. and Canada.

ni•a•cin /ˈnajəsən/ noun [noncount] technical : a type of natural substance (called a vitamin) that is found in certain foods and that helps your body to be healthy nib /ˈnɪb/ noun, pl nibs [count] : the pointed metal tip of a pen

[1]nib•ble /ˈnɪbəl/ verb nib•bles; nib•bled; nib•bling

1 : to eat slowly or with small bites [+ obj] We nibbled cheese and crackers. [no obj] We nibbled on some cheese and crackers before dinner. — often + at ▪ She felt a fish nibble at the end of her fishing line. ▪ Insects nibbled at the tree's leaves. — sometimes used figuratively ▪ He nibbled at the idea of changing careers [=he thought briefly about changing careers], but decided against it in the end.

2 [+ obj] : to bite (something) very gently ▪ He nibbled her ear.

nibble (away) at [phrasal verb] nibble (away) at (something)

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 18 SESS: 8 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

: to make (something) disappear or go away very slowly ▪ Police have been nibbling (away) at crime in the city for years. [=police have been very slowly reducing the amount of crime in the city]

[2]nibble noun, pl nib•bles
1 [count] : a small bite ▪ He felt a nibble on his fishing line. — often + of ▪ May I have a nibble of your sandwich?
2 [count] : an expression of interest in something ▪ We've gotten a couple of nibbles on our house [=a couple of people have said that they were thinking about buying our house], but nobody has made a serious offer for it yet.
3 nibbles [plural] informal : small things to eat before a meal or at a party : snacks or appetizers ▪ They served some delicious nibbles before dinner.

ni•cad or Ni•Cad /ˈnaɪˌkæd/ noun, pl -cads [count] technical : a battery that contains the metals nickel and cadmium and that you can refill with electricity and use again

nice /ˈnaɪs/ adj nic•er; -est
1 : giving pleasure or joy : good and enjoyable ▪ I hope you all had a nice time. ▪ What a nice [=pleasant] surprise! ▪ It's so nice to see you again. ▪ It's nice to be back home. ▪ It's nice to know that you're all right. ▪ It would be nice to try something different. ▪ We had a very nice dinner. ▪ It's supposed to be a nice day tomorrow. = The weather should be nice tomorrow. ▪ (US) Thank you. Have a nice day! [=goodbye] ▪ "Hello, my name is Sara." "It's nice to meet you, Sara." ▪ It's nice to see you, Luis. How have you been? — often used with another adjective for emphasis ▪ a nice clear sky [=a sky that is nice because it is clear] ▪ nice green grass ▪ The hotel has nice big rooms. ▪ a nice fresh salad ▪ some nice hot soup ▪ The soup is nice and hot. ▪ Make sure your room's nice and clean. ▪ The library is always nice and quiet.
2 : attractive or of good quality ▪ nice restaurants ▪ a nice car/house ▪ She wears the nicest clothes. ▪ She looks nice. [=she is attractive] ▪ He looks nice in his new suit. ▪ It's a nice idea [=the idea is a good one], but I don't think it'll work.
3 : kind, polite, and friendly ▪ She is a really nice person. ▪ He's such a nice young man. ▪ He said some very nice things about you. ▪ It's nice of you to call. ▪ Try to be nice to each other, okay? ▪ That wasn't a very nice thing to do. ▪ How nice of you to remember my birthday! ▪ As they say, "Nice guys finish last." [=you must act in a selfish way if you want to win a competition] — see also MR. NICE GUY
4 : acting in a way that is correct according to social or moral rules : proper and well-behaved ▪ What's a nice girl like you doing in a place like this? ▪ They have such nice children.
5 : done very well ▪ That was a nice [=great, outstanding] shot! ▪ Nice work! ▪ They've done a nice job fixing up the house. — sometimes used in an ironic way to say that something was not good or not done well ▪ What a nice mess we've made of things! ▪ Nice try, but you're not going to trick me this time. ▪ You crashed her car? Oh, nice going. [=that was a stupid thing to do]
6 formal : involving a small difference : difficult to notice or recognize ▪ There is a nice distinction between those two words.
make nice US, informal : to behave in a polite or friendly way toward other people even though you do not have kind or polite feelings towards them ▪ It's time to forget about the past and make nice.
nice and easy informal : in a way that is slow, careful, gentle, or easy ▪ The pilot brought the plane down nice and easy. ▪ She hit the ball nice and easy. [=without a lot of force] ▪ They broke him in nice and easy. [=gently]
– nice•ness noun [noncount]

nice–looking adj : pleasant to look at : ATTRACTIVE ▪ She's a nice-looking young lady.

nice•ly /ˈnaɪsli/ adv [more ~; most ~] : in a pleasant or correct way : WELL ▪ a nicely dressed older man ▪ a very nicely written essay ▪ Good work. Nicely done. ▪ The project seems to be moving along nicely. ▪ I think her idea will fit nicely into/with our original plans. ▪ "I only have this screwdriver." "Thanks. It will do nicely." [=it is suitable for what I want to do] ▪ Her new book is doing nicely in the bookstores. [=is selling well; is a success] ▪ He lives in New York City and is doing nicely for himself. [=is earning a lot of money]

nice•ty /ˈnaɪsəti/ noun, pl -ties [count] : a small detail and especially one that is a part of polite or proper behavior — usually plural ▪ Our grandmother taught us the niceties of table manners. ▪ social/legal niceties ▪ the niceties of English grammar niche /ˈnɪtʃ, ˈniːʃ/ noun, pl nich•es [count]

niche

1 : a job, activity, etc., that is very suitable for someone ▪ I found a niche for myself after high school. ▪ She finally found her niche as a teacher.
2 : the situation in which a business's products or services can succeed by being sold to a particular kind or group of people — usually singular ▪ They're still trying to find their niche in the market/industry. ▪ This product fills a niche in the market. = This product fills a market niche. [=provides something that certain kinds of people want to buy] — often used before another noun ▪ Teenage girls are our niche market. [=are the people we can sell our products to] ▪ niche products/publications [=products/publications that appeal to a particular kind or group of people]
3 technical : an environment that has all the things that a particular plant or animal needs in order to live ▪ the species that fill an environmental/ecological niche
4 : a curved space in a wall that is designed to hold a statue, vase, etc.

[1]nick /ˈnɪk/ noun, pl nicks
1 [count] a : a small broken area that appears on something after something else hits or cuts it ▪ There is a nick [=chip] in the cup. ▪ There are a couple of nicks on the painting. b : a small cut on your skin ▪ His face was covered with nicks and cuts after shaving.
2 the nick Brit slang : a prison or police station ▪ She spent a night in the nick.
3 [noncount] Brit, informal : the condition that someone or something is in ▪ I watched the team practice, and all the players looked in good nick. [=in good shape] ▪ an economy in bad nick in the nick of time informal : just before the last moment when something can be changed or something bad will happen ▪ He decided to go just in the nick of time. ▪ The ambulance arrived in the nick of time.

[2]nick verb nicks; nicked; nick•ing [+ obj]
1 a : to cut or damage a small part of the surface of (something) : to put a nick in (something) ▪ Something nicked [=chipped] the painting. b : to make a small cut on (someone) ▪ He nicked himself shaving. ▪ He was nicked on the shoulder by a bullet.
2 Brit slang a : to catch and arrest (someone) ▪ She was nicked for the theft. b : to steal (something) ▪ I nicked a couple of cars when I was younger.

nick•el /ˈnɪkəl/ noun, pl -els
1 [noncount] : a hard silver-white metal
2 [count] : a U.S. or Canadian coin that is worth five cents

[1]nick•el–and–dime /ˌnɪkələnˈdaɪm/ adj, always used before a noun, US, informal
1 : involving, making, or spending a small amount of money ▪ nickel-and-dime charges/fees ▪ nickel-and-dime tax increases ▪ nickel-and-dime customers/tourists
2 : not very important ▪ nickel-and-dime [=small-time] businesses ▪ nickel-and-dime candidates

[2]nickel–and–dime verb nick•els–and–dimes or nickel–and–dimes; nick•eled–and–dimed or nick•el–and–dimed; nickel•ing–and–dim•ing or nick•el–and–dim•ing [+ obj] US, informal + disapproving : to make (someone) pay many small amounts of money over a long period of time ▪ Customers are being nickeled-and-dimed by the cell phone company. [=customers are being charged extra small fees by the cell phone company that will add up to a lot of money over time] ▪ You should buy a new car before this one nickle-and-dimes you to death. [=before you need to pay for a lot of repairs on this one]

[1]nick•name /ˈnɪkˌneɪm/ noun, pl -names [count] : a name (such as "Moose" or "Lady Bird") that is different from your real name but is what your family, friends, etc., call you when they are talking to you or about you ▪ His mother gave him the nickname "Winky" when he was a baby. ▪ Earvin "Magic" Johnson got his nickname from the way he handled a basketball.

[2]nickname verb -names; -named; -nam•ing [+ obj] : to give (someone) a name that is not that person's real name : to give a nickname to (someone) ▪ She nicknamed him "Winky."

nic•o•tine /ˈnɪkəˌtiːn/ noun [noncount] : a poisonous substance in tobacco that makes it difficult for people to stop smoking cigarettes

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 19 SESS: 16 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:49 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

niece /ˈniːs/ noun, pl niec•es [count] : a daughter of your brother or sister ▪ If he's my uncle, then I'm his niece. — compare NEPHEW nif•ty /ˈnɪfti/ adj nif•ti•er; -est informal + somewhat old-fashioned : very good, useful, or attractive ▪ a nifty pair of shoes ▪ This nifty little machine can do just about anything.

nig•gard•ly /ˈnɪgɚdli/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + disapproving
1 : hating to spend money ▪ The story is about a niggardly [=stingy, miserly] old man who learns to share what he has with others.
2 : very small in amount ▪ a niggardly allowance/wage nig•ger /ˈnɪgɚ/ noun, pl -gers [count] offensive : a black person ✧ This is one of the most offensive words in English. Do not use this word.

[1]nig•gle /ˈnɪgəl/ verb nig•gles; nig•gled; nig•gling Brit
1 : to worry or annoy (someone) [+ obj] She had been niggled by worry her entire life. ▪ It really niggles [=bothers, bugs] me that she didn't call. [no obj] — often + at ▪ One question continued to niggle [=nag] at him.
2 [no obj] : to argue or make criticisms about something that is not important ▪ He's always niggling over small details.

[2]niggle noun, pl nig•gles [count] chiefly Brit
1 : a slight feeling of something (such as doubt) ▪ a niggle of doubt
2 : a slight pain ▪ I've had a knee niggle for the past few days. ▪ He has a bit of a niggle in his back.
3 : a small criticism or complaint ▪ I have a few minor niggles about the performance.

nig•gling /ˈnɪgəlɪŋ/ adj, always used before a noun : causing you to feel a slight pain or to be worried or annoyed for a long time ▪ niggling [=nagging] injuries that just won't heal ▪ a niggling doubt nigh /ˈnaɪ/ adv, old-fashioned + literary

1 : close in time or place : NEAR ▪ The snow is melting. Spring is nigh. ▪ Morning was drawing nigh. [=it was almost morning] ▪ The end is nigh.
2 : almost or nearly ▪ It would be nigh impossible to fix it. ▪ a nigh perfect evening — often + on, onto, or unto ▪ We've lived here for nigh on 40 years. [=almost 40 years] ▪ nigh onto a century — see also WELL-NIGH

[1]night /ˈnaɪt/ noun, pl nights
1 : the time of darkness between one day and the next : the part of the day when no light from the sun can be seen and most people and animals sleep [noncount] Who are you calling at this time of night? ▪ It's eleven o'clock at night. ▪ She and her husband both work at night and sleep during the day. ▪ The store's open all night. ▪ They were up all night long playing video games. ▪ People keep coming back night after night. [=every night for a period of time] [count] Let's stop for the night and get a hotel. ▪ a cold, rainy night in the city ▪ Where were you (on) the night of June 20th? ▪ The room costs $100 a/per night. = The room costs $100 for one night. ▪ I stayed up late five nights in a row. ▪ We were woken up in the middle of the night by a loud crash. = (less commonly) We were woken up in the dead of night by a loud crash. ▪ Did you have a good night's sleep? [=did you sleep well during the night?] ▪ Last night, I had the strangest dream. ▪ I had a late night [=I stayed up very late] last night. ▪ Let's call it an early night. = Let's make an early night of it. [=let's go home or go to bed early tonight] ▪ Let's call it a night. [=let's go home or go to bed now] ▪ She'll have to spend/stay the night in the hospital. [=she will have to sleep overnight in the hospital] ▪ He spent many sleepless nights worrying about his children. [=he lay awake at night worrying about his children] ▪ Spend six nights and seven days on a tropical island in the Caribbean! ▪ He spent the night with [=had sex with and slept with] her. ▪ They decided to spend the night together. [=they decided to have sex and sleep together]
2 [noncount] : the darkness that occurs during the nighttime ▪ They walked out into the night. ▪ Her eyes were as black/dark as (the) night. ▪ animals that hunt by night [=in darkness] ▪ When night fell [=when the sky became dark for the night; at nightfall], we walked back to our car.
3 [count] : the final part of the day that is usually after work, school, etc., and before you go to bed : the early part of the night : EVENING ▪ They go bowling every Tuesday night. ▪ Friday nights, we play cards with the neighbors. ▪ What did you have for dinner last night? ▪ He planned a night of dinner and dancing. ▪ We've planned a night out. [=an evening that you spend outside of your home doing something fun]
4 [count] a : an evening or night that has a special event ▪ Poetry night [=the night when people read poetry aloud] at the café is every Saturday at eight o'clock. ▪ Wednesday night is our family night. [=the night that our family does things together] ▪ Tuesday night is ladies' night at the ballpark/bar. [=on Tuesday evening, women get a special benefit at the ballpark/bar, such as paying only half price for something] ▪ Tomorrow is the play's opening night. [=the play will be performed in front of an audience for the first time tomorrow night] b : the part of a special day that occurs during the nighttime ▪ Christmas night ▪ They spent their wedding night in a hotel. — compare EVE 2
day and night or night and day see DAY night night or nighty night — used by a child or when speaking to a child as a way of saying "good night" ▪ "Night night, dear." "Nighty night, Mommy."
the still of the night see [4]STILL – see also ALL-NIGHT, FLY-BY-NIGHT, GOOD NIGHT, ONE-NIGHT STAND

[2]night adj, always used before a noun
1 : of or relating to the night ▪ the night sky ▪ the cool night air ▪ during the night hours
2 : for use at night ▪ a night lamp ▪ an animal with excellent night vision [=ability to see in the dark]
3 a : happening at night ▪ He is taking a night flight. ▪ a night game/class [=a game/class in the evening] b : active, working, or operating at night ▪ a night manager at the supermarket ▪ This is the last night bus/train. ▪ I am a night person. [=a person who likes the night; a person who has the most energy at night]

night•cap /ˈnaɪtˌkæp/ noun, pl -caps [count]
1 : a drink that you have just before you go to bed at night and that usually has alcohol in it
2 : a cloth cap that people used to wear in bed in the past night•clothes /ˈnaɪtˌkloʊðz, ˈnaɪtˌkloʊz/ noun [plural] old-fashioned : clothes that people wear in bed night•club /ˈnaɪtˌklʌb/ noun, pl -clubs [count] : a place that is open at night, has music, dancing, or a show, and usually serves alcoholic drinks and food ▪ He's performed his comedy show in nightclubs [=clubs] across the country.

night crawler noun, pl ~ -ers [count] US : EARTHWORM night depository noun, pl ~ -to•ries [count] US : a special box built into the side of a bank that allows a customer to put money, valuable things, etc., in a safe place when the bank is closed — called also (Brit) night safe

night•dress /ˈnaɪtˌdrɛs/ noun, pl -dress•es [count] Brit : NIGHTGOWN night•fall /ˈnaɪtˌfɑːl/ noun [noncount] : the time of day when the sky gets dark : the time when night begins ▪ When nightfall came, we were still waiting for the electricity to come back on. ▪ We should be back by/before nightfall. [=dark] night•gown /ˈnaɪtˌgaʊn/ noun, pl -gowns [count] : a loose dress that is worn in bed especially by women and girls — see color picture on page C12 night•ie /ˈnaɪti/ noun, pl -ies [count] informal : NIGHTGOWN; especially, US : a sexy and often short nightgown that is worn by women night•in•gale /ˈnaɪtnˌgeɪl/ noun, pl -gales [count] : a small brown European bird that sings a beautiful song especially at night night•life /ˈnaɪtˌlaɪf/ noun [noncount] : social activities and forms of entertainment that are available at night in bars, nightclubs, etc. ▪ The city is famous for its nightlife.

night•light /ˈnaɪtˌlaɪt/ noun, pl -lights [count] : a small light that is on during the night ▪ We keep a nightlight on in the baby's room.

[1]night•ly /ˈnaɪtli/ adj : happening or done every night ▪ There were nightly attacks on the city. ▪ a nightly event ▪ the nightly news ▪ These clubs provide nightly entertainment. ▪ She asked me about it on a nightly basis. [=every night]

[2]nightly adv : every night ▪ She performs at the club nightly. ▪ The restaurant serves dinner nightly.

night•mare /ˈnaɪtˌmeɚ/ noun, pl -mares [count]
1 : a dream that frightens a sleeping person : a very bad dream ▪ Mommy, I had a really scary nightmare. ▪ She had a recurring nightmare [=she had the same bad dream many times] about losing her job.
2 : a very bad or frightening experience or situation ▪ The party was a complete nightmare. ▪ a nightmare situation/scenario ▪ Losing a child is every parent's worst nightmare. [=the thing every parent fears most] – night•mar•ish /ˈnaɪtˌmerɪʃ/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a nightmarish experience

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 20 SESS: 17 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

night owl noun, pl ~ owls [count] informal : a person who enjoys staying up late at night nights /ˈnaɪts/ adv, chiefly US : at night : during the nighttime ▪ He works nights and weekends. ▪ Nights, we usually watch TV. — compare DAYS

night safe noun, pl ~ safes [count] Brit : NIGHT DEPOSITORY night school noun [noncount] : high school or college classes that are taught at night for people who work during the day ▪ You could go to night school and earn a degree.

night shift noun, pl ~ shifts [count]
1 : a period of time during the night (such as from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.) in which a person is scheduled to work — usually singular ▪ He works the night shift [=(US) graveyard shift] and sleeps during the day.
2 : a group of people who work during the night shift — usually singular ▪ The night shift is starting to arrive.

night•shirt /ˈnaɪtˌʃət/ noun, pl -shirts [count] : a long, loose shirt that you wear in bed night•spot /ˈnaɪtˌspɑːt/ noun, pl -spots [count] : NIGHTCLUB night•stand /ˈnaɪtˌstænd/ noun, pl -stands [count] US : a small table that is next to a bed — called also night table

night•stick /ˈnaɪtˌstɪk/ noun, pl -sticks [count] US : a heavy stick that is carried by police officers and is used as a weapon — called also baton, (US) billy club, (Brit) truncheon

night•time /ˈnaɪtˌtaɪm/ noun [noncount] : the time of darkness between one day and the next : the time of day when no light from the sun can be seen ▪ It's not safe to go out at nighttime. [=(more commonly) night] ▪ The animal hunts in the nighttime. — often used before another noun ▪ nighttime temperatures ▪ a nighttime attack

night watchman noun, pl ~ -men [count] : a person whose job is to watch and guard property at night

NIH abbr National Institutes of Health ✧ In the U.S., the National Institutes of Health is a branch of government that pays doctors and scientists to do medical research.

ni•hil•ism /ˈnajəˌlɪzəm/ noun [noncount] formal
1 : the belief that traditional morals, ideas, beliefs, etc., have no worth or value
2 : the belief that a society's political and social institutions are so bad that they should be destroyed
– ni•hil•ist /ˈnajəlɪst/ noun, pl -ists [count] – ni•hil•is•tic /ˌnajəˈlɪstɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ a nihilistic vision of the world ▪ nihilistic people

-nik /-ˌnɪk/ noun suffix, informal + often disapproving : a person connected to an activity, an organization, a movement, etc. ▪ a peace*nik* [=a person who is opposed to war] ▪ (US) a neat*nik* [=a very neat person]

nil /ˈnɪl/ noun [noncount]
1 : none at all : ZERO ▪ The chances of that happening are practically/almost nil. [=nothing]
2 Brit : a score of zero ▪ They took a 2 to nil lead in the second half of the game.

nim•ble /ˈnɪmbəl/ adj nim•bler; nim•blest [or more ~; most ~]
1 : able to move quickly, easily, and lightly ▪ a nimble [=agile] dancer ▪ the pianist's nimble fingers
2 : able to learn and understand things quickly and easily ▪ a nimble [=quick, clever] mind – nim•bly /ˈnɪmbli/ adv ▪ She ran nimbly up the stairs.

nim•bus /ˈnɪmbəs/ noun, pl -bus•es [count] formal + literary : a circle of light : HALO

NIMBY /ˈnɪmbi/ adj, always used before a noun — used to describe the attitude and actions of people who try to prevent something (such as a prison or a shelter for homeless people) from being built near the place where they live ✧ NIMBY comes from the phrase "*n*ot *i*n *m*y *b*ack *y*ard." ▪ News about toxic leaks from old landfills has resulted in the NIMBY syndrome. [=nobody wants a new landfill built nearby, because landfills in other places have poisoned people] ▪ NIMBY issues/pressures

NIMH abbr National Institute of Mental Health ✧ In the U.S., the National Institute of Mental Health supplies money for research about mental illness.

nim•rod /ˈnɪmˌrɑːd/ noun, pl -rods [count] US slang
1 : a foolish or stupid person ▪ Don't be such a nimrod.
2 : a person who hunts wild animals : HUNTER

nin•com•poop /ˈnɪnkəmˌpuːp/ noun, pl -poops [count] informal : a foolish or stupid person ▪ The people running that company are a bunch of nincompoops!

nine /ˈnaɪn/ noun, pl nines
1 [count] : the number 9
2 [count] : the ninth in a set or series ▪ The next card was the nine of diamonds. ▪ She wears a size nine.
3 [noncount] : nine o'clock ▪ "What time is it?" "It's nine." ▪ He woke up at nine this morning. ▪ a nine-to-five job [=a job that you work during regular business hours usually in an office]
4 [count] : the first or last nine holes of an 18-hole golf course — usually singular ▪ She didn't play well on the front nine [=on holes 1 through 9], but she was one under par on the back nine. [=on holes 10 through 18]
on cloud nine see [1]CLOUD the whole nine yards see [2]YARD to the nines : in a very fancy or impressive way ▪ He was dressed to the nines.
– nine adj ▪ It took us nine hours to get there. – nine pronoun ▪ I would like nine (of them), please. ▪ Nine out of 10 [=90 percent of] doctors agree that this treatment works.

nine days' wonder or nine day wonder noun [singular] chiefly Brit, somewhat old-fashioned : something (such as a news story) that people talk about a lot but only for a short time ▪ She left her husband and ran away with a younger man. It was a nine days' wonder.

nine•teen /ˌnaɪnˈtiːn/ noun, pl -teens [count] : the number 19
– nineteen adj ▪ nineteen hours – nineteen pronoun ▪ She bought nineteen (of them). – nine•teenth /ˌnaɪnˈtiːnθ/ noun, pl -teenths [count] ▪ The book is due back on the nineteenth (of the month). ▪ one nineteenth of the total cost – nineteenth adj ▪ He was the country's nineteenth president. ▪ I was the nineteenth person to cross the finish line. ▪ (humorous) the nineteenth hole [=the bar at a golf course where players drink after playing a round of 18 holes of golf] – nineteenth adv ▪ She finished nineteenth in the race. ▪ the country's nineteenth largest state

nine•ty /ˈnaɪnti/ noun, pl -ties
1 [count] : the number 90
2 nine•ties [plural] a : the numbers ranging from 90 to 99 ▪ temperatures in the nineties ▪ It was priced in the low nineties. [=its price was about $91,000–$93,000] b : a set of years ending in digits ranging from 90 to 99 ▪ I studied there in the nineties. [=between 1990–1999] ▪ During the nineties, he was going to college and working part-time. ▪ He lived into his nineties. [=he was over ninety years old when he died]
– nine•ti•eth /ˈnaɪntijəθ/ noun, pl -eths [count] ▪ one ninetieth of the total cost – ninetieth adj ▪ her ninetieth birthday – ninety adj ▪ ninety dollars – ninety pronoun ▪ We spent thirty dollars and had ninety left.

nin•ja /ˈnɪnʤə/ noun, pl ninja also nin•jas [count] : a fighter who is trained in the Japanese martial arts

nin•ny /ˈnɪni/ noun, pl -nies [count] informal + somewhat old-fashioned : a foolish or stupid person

[1]ninth /ˈnaɪnθ/ noun, pl ninths
1 [singular] : the number nine in a series ▪ We'll be leaving on the ninth. [=the ninth day of the month] ▪ He hit a home run in the ninth. [=the ninth inning of a baseball game]
2 [count] : one of nine equal parts of something ▪ She owned one ninth of the company.

[2]ninth adj : occupying the number nine position in a series ▪ on the ninth day ▪ the book's ninth edition ▪ She's in (the) ninth grade at school.
– ninth adv ▪ He finished ninth in the race. ▪ the country's ninth largest city

[1]nip /ˈnɪp/ verb nips; nipped; nip•ping
1 : to bite or pinch (someone or something) lightly [+ obj] The dog nipped my ankles. [no obj] — + at ▪ The dog nipped at my ankles.
2 [+ obj] US, sports : to defeat (someone or something) by a small amount ▪ The New York Mets nipped the Atlanta Braves 1–0.
3 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] chiefly Brit, informal : to go to a place quickly or for a short period of time ▪ I had to nip back to my place. ▪ He nipped in ahead of me in line. ▪ He nipped into the store to buy milk.
4 : to harm or hurt (something) with cold [+ obj] An early frost nipped the crops. ▪ The cold wind was nipping my nose. [no obj] — + at ▪ The cold wind nipped at my nose.
nip off [phrasal verb] nip off (something) or nip (something) off : to remove (something) by squeezing it tightly between your fingers or the parts of a tool ▪ He nipped off the bud

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 21 SESS: 18 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:50 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

with his fingers. ▪ She nipped the dead branches off with her clippers.

nip (something) in the bud informal : to stop (something) immediately so that it does not become a worse problem ▪ Inflation will only get worse if the government doesn't do something right now to nip it in the bud.

[2]nip noun, pl nips

1 [singular] : a feeling of cold ▪ I could feel the nip [=coldness] in the air.

2 [count] : a light bite or pinch ▪ The dog gave me a nip on the leg.

– compare [3]NIP

[3]nip noun, pl nips [count]

1 informal : a small amount of liquor ▪ a nip of whiskey ▪ He takes a nip now and then.

2 : a very small bottle of liquor

– compare [2]NIP

nip and tuck adj, US, of a race or other competition : so close that the lead changes quickly and very often from one person or team to another ▪ The race was nip and tuck for a while.

– nip and tuck adv ▪ The candidates were running nip and tuck early in the campaign.

nip•per /ˈnɪpɚ/ noun, pl -pers

1 nippers [plural] : a device or tool that is used for cutting something ▪ She used the nippers to prune the bush.

2 [count] chiefly Brit, informal : a small child ▪ when I was just a nipper

nip•ple /ˈnɪpəl/ noun, pl nip•ples [count]

1 : either one of the two small, round parts on a person's chest that are darker in color than the area around them — see picture at HUMAN

2 US : a rubber or plastic device that is attached to a bottle and that has a small opening from which a baby can suck milk — called also (Brit) teat nip•py /ˈnɪpi/ adj nip•pi•er; -est informal

1 : somewhat cold : CHILLY ▪ a nippy morning

2 Brit : able to move quickly : FAST ▪ a nippy car

nir•va•na /nɪəˈvɑːnə, nəˈvɑːnə/ noun, pl -nas

1 [noncount] : the state of perfect happiness and peace in Buddhism where there is release from all forms of suffering

2 : a state or place of great happiness and peace [count] — usually singular ▪ The island is a nirvana for divers. [noncount] Spending the afternoon at the museum was her idea of nirvana. [=paradise, heaven]

nit /ˈnɪt/ noun, pl nits [count] Brit, informal : a stupid or silly person : NITWIT nit•pick•ing /ˈnɪtˌpɪkɪŋ/ noun [noncount] informal + disapproving : the act of arguing about details that are not important or criticizing small mistakes that are not important ▪ She was tired of all the nitpicking and wanted to get on with the project.

– nit•pick•er /ˈnɪtˌpɪkɚ/ noun, pl -ers [count] ▪ Nitpickers might question his choice of words, but his point was worth making.

ni•trate /ˈnaɪˌtreɪt/ noun, pl -trates [count, noncount] : a chemical compound that contains oxygen and nitrogen and that is used in fertilizer ni•tric acid /ˈnaɪtrɪk-/ noun [noncount] : a strong acid that contains nitrogen and that is used in making fertilizers, explosives, etc.

ni•tro•gen /ˈnaɪtrəʤən/ noun [noncount] : a chemical that has no color or smell and that makes up a large part of the atmosphere ni•tro•glyc•er•in or ni•tro•glyc•er•ine /ˌnaɪtrəˈglɪsərən/ noun [noncount] : a liquid that is used in making explosives and in medicine ni•trous oxide /ˈnaɪtrəs-/ noun [noncount] : a gas that is used by dentists to keep patients from feeling pain — called also laughing gas

nit•ty–grit•ty /ˈnɪtiˌgrɪti/ noun

the nitty-gritty informal : the most important and basic facts or details about something ▪ He deals with the nitty-gritty of running the department. ▪ We finally got down to the nitty-gritty of the problem. ▪ Let's get down to the nitty-gritty and find out what happened.

nit•wit /ˈnɪtˌwɪt/ noun, pl -wits [count] informal : a stupid or silly person ▪ Don't be such a nitwit.

[1]nix /ˈnɪks/ verb nix•es; nixed; nix•ing [+ obj] US, informal : to refuse to accept or allow (something) : to say no to (something, such as a suggestion or plan) ▪ We quickly nixed [=rejected] his idea.

[2]nix adv, US, informal + somewhat old-fashioned : [1]NO — used to show that you disagree with or will not allow something; often + on ▪ They put a nix on our plan. [=they rejected our plan]

NJ abbr New Jersey

NM abbr New Mexico

NNE abbr north-northeast

NNW abbr north-northwest

[1]no /ˈnoʊ/ adv

1 a — used to give a negative answer or reply to a question, request, or offer ▪ "Are you going?" "No, I am not going." ▪ No, you can't have any more candy. ▪ "Did you hear something?" "No." ▪ "Do you need a ride?" "No, thank you. My wife is picking me up." ▪ He wanted to stay longer but I had to say no. ▪ I told him that I couldn't come to the party, but he wouldn't take no for an answer. [=he insisted that I come to the party] b : in a way that shows a negative response ▪ She shook her head no.

2 — used to introduce a statement that corrects an earlier statement ▪ No, that's not the way it happened. ▪ I saw him yesterday—no, the day before. ▪ It's big, no, it's gigantic. ▪ She has the right, no, the duty, to continue her studies.

3 : in no degree or amount : not at all — used in comparisons ▪ The hotel was no better than I expected it to be. ▪ You are no worse off now than you were before. ▪ He works no more than 30 hours per week. ▪ Your experience was no different from mine.

4 — used before an adjective to indicate a meaning that is the opposite of the adjective's meaning ▪ He made it clear in no uncertain terms [=he made it very clear] that he did not approve of the decision. ▪ It is a matter of no small importance. [=it is a matter of much importance]

5 — used to show surprise, doubt, or disbelief ▪ Oh, no. Not again. ▪ No—you don't say? ▪ No, that's impossible. ▪ No, you couldn't have been the one responsible.

6 — used to express agreement with a negative statement ▪ "She shouldn't work so hard." "No, she really shouldn't."

7 — used to tell someone not to do something ▪ No, don't touch that switch.

[2]no adj, always used before a noun

1 : not any ▪ She said she had no money. ▪ I wanted no part of the plan. ▪ They showed no concern for my feelings. ▪ people with little or no experience with computers ▪ There is no parking [=parking is not allowed] on this street. ▪ The sign says "No smoking." [=smoking is not allowed] ▪ There's no disputing [=it is not possible to dispute] the decision.

2 — used to say that someone or something is not the kind of person or thing being described ▪ He's no expert [=he's not an expert] in American history. ▪ She's no fool. ▪ This is no simple matter. [=this is not a simple matter]

[3]no noun, pl noes or nos

1 [count] : a negative answer : an answer of no — usually singular ▪ I asked for the day off and received a no in reply.

2 a [count] : a vote of no ▪ There were 110 ayes and only 16 noes. b [plural] : people who are voting no ▪ The noes raised their hands.

No. or no. abbr 1 number ▪ He lives at No. 35 Main Street. 2 north, northern no–account adj, always used before a noun, US, informal + disapproving : having no worth or value : WORTHLESS ▪ I don't trust her or her lazy, no-account husband.

– no–account noun, pl -counts [count] ▪ Her husband is a lazy no-account.

nob /ˈnɑːb/ noun, pl nobs [count] chiefly Brit, informal + old-fashioned : a person who is wealthy or belongs to the upper class ▪ She threw a party and invited all the local nobs.

nob•ble /ˈnɑːbəl/ verb nob•bles; nob•bled; nob•bling [+ obj] Brit, informal

1 : to give a drug to (a horse) to keep it from winning a race ▪ We found out later that the horse had been nobbled, which explained its poor performance.

2 : to cause or force (someone) to do something that you want by offering money, making threats, etc. ▪ She was trying to nobble the jury. ▪ nobble a witness

3 : to succeed in getting or catching (something or someone) ▪ I was about to leave when I was nobbled [=nabbed] by a man asking for directions.

No•bel Prize /noʊˈbɛl-/ noun, pl ~ Prizes [count] : one of six annual prizes that are awarded to people for important work in the fields of literature, physics, chemistry, medicine, and economics and for helping to bring about peace in the

N

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 22 SESS: 19 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw-learners-dictionary/final-pages-n

world ▪ He won the Nobel Prize for economics. ▪ the Nobel Peace Prize — called also Nobel

no•bil•i•ty /noʊˈbɪləti/ noun
1 [noncount] : the quality or state of being noble in character or quality ▪ the nobility of his character ▪ I admire her nobility. ▪ They have shown great courage and nobility of purpose.
2 the nobility : the group of people who are members of the highest social class in some countries ▪ a member of the nobility [=aristocracy]

[1]no•ble /ˈnoʊbəl/ adj no•bler; no•blest [also more ~; most ~]
1 : having, showing, or coming from personal qualities that people admire (such as honesty, generosity, courage, etc.) ▪ He was a man of noble character. ▪ It was noble of her to come forward with this information. ▪ a noble ideal/ambition/cause/purpose
2 always used before a noun : of, relating to, or belonging to the highest social class : of, relating to, or belonging to the nobility ▪ She married a man of noble [=aristocratic] birth/rank. ▪ his noble ancestry ▪ the noble class
3 : impressive in size or appearance ▪ a noble cathedral
4 technical : not chemically affected by other substances (such as oxygen) ▪ Platinum is a noble metal. ▪ Helium is a noble gas.
– no•bly /ˈnoʊbli/ adv ▪ He worked nobly in support of their efforts.

[2]noble noun, pl no•bles [count] : a person who is a member of the nobility no•ble•man /ˈnoʊblmən/ noun, pl -men /-mən/ [count] : a man who is a member of the nobility no•blesse oblige /noʊˌblɛsəˈbliːʒ/ noun [noncount] formal : the idea that people who have high social rank or wealth should be helpful and generous to people of lower rank or to people who are poor ▪ He was raised to have a strong sense of noblesse oblige.

no•ble•wom•an /ˈnoʊbəlˌwʊmən/ noun, pl -wom•en /-ˌwɪmən/ [count] : a woman who is a member of the nobility

[1]no•body /ˈnoʊbədi/ pronoun : no person : NO ONE ▪ There's nobody here. ▪ Nobody could answer my question. ▪ I guess I'll have to volunteer because it's clear nobody else will.
nobody's business see BUSINESS
nobody's fool see [1]FOOL

[2]nobody noun, pl -bod•ies [count] : someone who is not important or has no influence ▪ He was a nobody in high school.

no–brain•er /ˈnoʊˈbreɪnə/ noun, pl -ers [count] informal : a decision or choice that is very easy to make and requires very little thought ▪ The offer of a full scholarship made his choice of colleges a no-brainer.

noc•tur•nal /nɑkˈtənl/ adj
1 : active mainly during the night ▪ nocturnal animals — opposite DIURNAL
2 formal : happening at night ▪ a nocturnal journey

noc•turne /ˈnɑːkˌtən/ noun, pl -turnes [count] : a piece of music especially for the piano that has a soft and somewhat sad melody

[1]nod /ˈnɑːd/ verb nods; nod•ded; nod•ding
1 a : to move your head up and down as a way of answering "yes" or of showing agreement, understanding, or approval [no obj] She nodded when I asked her if she was ready. ▪ He nodded in agreement. [+ obj] He nodded agreement/approval. ▪ I asked her if she could hear me, and she nodded her head. b : to move your head up and down as a signal to someone or as a way of saying hello or goodbye to someone [no obj] — often + to ▪ The guard nodded to us as we walked in. ▪ He nodded to his assistant to start the slide show. — often + at ▪ She nodded at us as she walked past. [+ obj] She nodded hello.
2 always followed by an adverb or preposition [no obj] : to slightly move your head in a specified direction ▪ "The bathroom is around the corner," he said, nodding to the left. ▪ She nodded toward the dirty dishes and said she would get to them later.
3 [no obj] : to move up and down ▪ The tulips nodded [=bobbed, swayed] in the breeze.
nod off [phrasal verb] informal : to fall asleep ▪ I nodded off during his speech.

[2]nod noun, pl nods
1 [count] : a movement of your head up and down especially as a way of answering "yes" or of showing agreement, understanding, or approval : an act of nodding ▪ He gave me a nod [=he nodded at me] as he walked by.
2 [singular] somewhat informal : something done to show that someone or something has been chosen, approved, etc. ▪ He received/got the party's nod as candidate for governor. [=the party chose him as candidate for governor] ▪ She deserves at least a nod [=she deserves at least some recognition] for her management of the project. ▪ We're waiting to get the nod [=to get approval] from the city to start the project. ▪ She finally gave us the nod on the plans. [=she finally approved our plans] on the nod Brit, informal : by general agreement and without discussion ▪ The proposal went through on the nod.

nodding adj, always used before a noun : bending downward or forward ▪ a plant with nodding [=drooping] flowers
a nodding acquaintance : a small amount of knowledge about someone or something ▪ We only have a nodding acquaintance with each other. [=we only know each other slightly] ▪ I only have a nodding acquaintance with Greek history. [=I know only a little about Greek history]

node /ˈnoʊd/ noun, pl nodes [count] technical 1 : a small lump or mass of tissue in your body; especially : LYMPH NODE
2 : the small round part on the stem of a plant where a leaf grows
3 : a place where lines in a network cross or meet ▪ a network node – nod•al /ˈnoʊdl/ adj, always used before a noun ▪ nodal tissue ▪ a nodal point nod•ule /ˈnɑːʤul, Brit ˈnɒdjul/ noun, pl nod•ules [count] technical : a small lump on a part of the body or on the root of a plant ▪ The examination revealed a nodule on his lung. ▪ root nodules

No•el /noʊˈɛl/ noun [noncount] : Christmas or the Christmas season ✧ Noel is especially used in Christmas greetings and Christmas songs.

noes plural of [3]NO

no–fault adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US
1 — used to describe a type of insurance in which someone involved in a car accident is paid a certain amount of money for damages without the need to decide who caused the accident ▪ no-fault insurance ▪ a no-fault policy/claim
2 law — used to describe a type of divorce in which neither the husband nor the wife is blamed for the end of the marriage ▪ a no-fault divorce

no– y zone noun, pl ~ zones [count] technical : an area where military airplanes are not allowed to fly during a conflict or war

no–frills adj, always used before a noun : offering or providing only the most important or basic things : not fancy or luxurious ▪ We flew with a no-frills airline. ▪ The restaurant offers no-frills dining.

nog•gin /ˈnɑːgən/ noun, pl -gins [count] informal : a person's head ▪ He fell and got a bump on his noggin. ▪ Use your noggin. [=think; use your head]

no–go area noun, pl ~ areas [count] chiefly Brit : an area that is dangerous or where people are not allowed to go ▪ He reported from one of the city's no-go areas. — often used figuratively ▪ Religion is a no-go area when you talk with her.

[1]no–good adj, always used before a noun, informal : having no worth, use, or chance of success ▪ Look at what that no-good idiot has done. ▪ I don't trust that lying no-good brother of hers.

[2]no–good noun, pl -goods [count] US, informal : a bad or useless person ▪ Stay away from those no-goods.

no–hit adj, always used before a noun, baseball — used to describe a game or inning in which a pitcher does not allow the batters from the other team to get a base hit ▪ He pitched a no-hit game today. ▪ After seven no-hit innings, he gave up a home run in the eighth.

no–hit•ter /ˌnoʊˈhɪtə/ noun, pl -ters [count] baseball : a game in which a pitcher does not allow the batters from the other team to get a base hit ▪ He pitched a no-hitter.

no–holds–barred /ˌnoʊˌhoʊldzˈbɑəd/ adj : free from the usual limits or rules ▪ a no-holds-barred interview with the senator ▪ a no-holds-barred contest

no–hop•er /ˈnoʊˈhoʊpə/ noun, pl -ers [count] chiefly Brit, informal : someone or something that has no chance of success ▪ a team of no-hopers

noise /ˈnoɪz/ noun, pl nois•es
1 a [noncount] : a loud or unpleasant sound ▪ I couldn't hear him over all the noise. ▪ That's not music. To me it's a bunch of noise. ▪ The furnace makes a lot of noise when it comes on. ▪ We closed the windows to block out the traffic noise. ▪

JOBNAME: Webster's Learners D PAGE: 23 SESS: 20 OUTPUT: Fri Jul 11 13:44:51 2008
/data31/webster/dict/mw−learners−dictionary/final−pages−n

The landlord has been getting complaints from the tenants about noise. b : a sound that someone or something makes [count] There were noises coming from the basement. ▪ The sink was making a gurgling noise. ▪ Do you hear that rattling/buzzing/banging noise? [noncount] The machine hardly makes any noise. — see also BACKGROUND NOISE, WHITE NOISE

2 [noncount] a technical : unwanted electronic signals that harm the quality of something (such as a radio or television broadcast or a digital photograph) b : information that is not useful or important and that makes it more difficult to find the information that you want or need ▪ The initial data included a lot of noise that had to be weeded out.

make noise 1 : to talk about something — often used to suggest that the things being said are not sincere or effective ▪ Congress has been making (a lot of) noise about lowering taxes, but no one expects it to happen. 2 : to complain about something ▪ People have been making (a lot of) noise about the price increases.

make noises 1 : to talk about something in usually an indirect way — usually + about ▪ She started making noises about running for office. [=she started saying things that showed she was thinking about running for office] ▪ Her parents are making noises about wanting a grandchild. ▪ The government has been making some encouraging noises about the possibility of a tax cut. 2 : to make statements of a specified kind ▪ The company has been making soothing/reassuring noises to calm the fears of investors. — often used to suggest that the things being said are not sincere or effective ▪ Politicians are making (all) the right noises about improving the schools, but they don't want to spend any money to do it.

– see also BIG NOISE

– noise•less /ˈnɔɪzləs/ adj ▪ The machine is almost noiseless. ▪ noiseless footsteps – noise•less•ly adv ▪ He slipped into the room noiselessly.

noise•mak•er /ˈnɔɪzˌmeɪkə/ noun, pl -ers [count] US : a device (such as a horn) that is used to make noise at parties ▪ All the guests had noisemakers and party hats.

noise pollution noun [noncount] : loud or unpleasant noise that is caused by automobiles, airplanes, etc., and that is harmful or annoying to the people who can hear it ▪ The airport has made changes to decrease noise pollution.

noi•some /ˈnɔɪsəm/ adj [more ~; most ~] formal + literary : very unpleasant or disgusting ▪ a noisome [=sickening] odor noisy /ˈnɔɪzi/ adj nois•i•er; -est [also more ~; most ~]

1 : making a lot of loud or unpleasant noise ▪ The playground was filled with noisy children. ▪ His lawnmower is very noisy. ▪ a noisy crowd

2 : full of loud or unpleasant noise ▪ a noisy street/restaurant/office

– nois•i•ly /ˈnɔɪzəli/ adv ▪ The dog barked noisily.

no•mad /ˈnoʊˌmæd/ noun, pl -mads [count] : a member of a group of people who move from place to place instead of living in one place all the time ▪ a tribe of nomads ▪ He lived like a nomad for a few years after college, never holding a job in one place for very long.

– no•mad•ic /noʊˈmædɪk/ adj [more ~; most ~] ▪ nomadic tribes ▪ He has a very nomadic lifestyle. [=he is always moving to different places]

no–man's–land /ˈnoʊˌmænzˌlænd/ noun [singular] : an area of land between two countries or armies that is not controlled by anyone — often used figuratively ▪ His music lies in the no-man's-land between jazz and rock. ▪ The downtown area was a no-man's-land of abandoned buildings and decay.

nom de plume /ˌnɑːmdɪˈpluːm/ noun, pl noms de plume /ˌnɑːmzdɪˈpluːm/ [count] formal : a name used by a writer instead of the writer's real name : PEN NAME ▪ He wrote under a nom de plume.

no•men•cla•ture /ˈnoʊmənˌkleɪtʃə, Brit nəʊˈmɛŋkləˌtʃʊə/ noun, pl -tures formal : a system of names for things especially in science [noncount] botanical nomenclature [count] the nomenclatures of zoology and chemistry

nom•i•nal /ˈnɑːmənl/ adj, formal

1 : existing as something in name only : not actual or real ▪ He was the nominal head of the party. [=he was called the head of the party but he did not actually run the party] ▪ Her title of vice president had been nominal only.

2 : very small in amount ▪ a nominal price/charge ▪ They charge a nominal fee for the service. ▪ His involvement was nominal.

– nom•i•nal•ly adv ▪ He was nominally in charge of the project.

nom•i•nate /ˈnɑːməˌneɪt/ verb -nates; -nat•ed; -nat•ing [+ obj]

1 a : to formally choose (someone) as a candidate for a job, position, office, etc. ▪ We expect the party to nominate him for president. ▪ The President nominated her for Attorney General. — often used as (be) nominated ▪ She was nominated for a second term. b : to choose (someone) for a job, position, office, etc. ▪ The chairman can nominate [=name, appoint] three members to the committee. ▪ Someone has to tell her the truth—I nominate you. — often used as (be) nominated ▪ He was nominated to the Supreme Court. ▪ She was nominated by the chairman.

2 : to choose (someone or something) as a candidate for receiving an honor or award ▪ We nominated her for player of the year. — often used as (be) nominated ▪ He was nominated for an Academy Award for his role in the film. ▪ She was nominated as Best Actress three times in her career.

nom•i•na•tion /ˌnɑːməˈneɪʃən/ noun, pl -tions

1 a [count] : the act of formally choosing someone as a candidate for a job, position, office, etc. ▪ We expect him to get the Democratic nomination. b : the act of choosing someone for a job, position, office, etc. [count] The Senate has to approve his nomination. [=choice] [noncount] Membership is by nomination only.

2 [count] a : the act of choosing someone or something as a candidate for receiving an honor or award ▪ The novel earned a nomination for the National Book Award. ▪ The film received five Academy Award nominations. b : someone or something that has been chosen as a candidate for receiving an honor or award ▪ The nominations for the Academy Awards have been announced.

nom•i•na•tive /ˈnɑːmənətɪv/ noun [noncount] grammar : the form of a noun, pronoun, or adjective when it is the subject of a verb ▪ "He" in "He sees her" is in the nominative. — compare ACCUSATIVE

– nominative adj ▪ the nominative case

nom•i•nee /ˌnɑːməˈniː/ noun, pl -nees [count] : someone or something that has been chosen as a candidate for a job, position, office, honor, award, etc. : someone or something that has been nominated ▪ He is expected to be the Democratic nominee. ▪ There's been a lot of controversy about the nominee to the Supreme Court. — often + for ▪ She is one of the nominees for Best Actress. ▪ the President's nominee for Attorney General

non- /nɑn/ prefix : not ▪ *non*fatal ▪ *non*fiction ▪ *non*profit ▪ non-native English speakers ▪ a *non*religious holiday

no•na•ge•nar•i•an /ˌnoʊnəʤəˈnerijən/ noun, pl -ans [count] : a person who is between 90 and 99 years old non•ag•gres•sion /ˌnɑːnəˈgrɛʃən/ noun [noncount] : a situation in which countries promise that they will not attack each other ▪ a policy of nonaggression ▪ The countries have signed a nonaggression treaty/pact. [=a formal agreement between countries to not attack each other] non•al•co•hol•ic /ˌnɑːnˌælkəˈhɑːlɪk/ adj — used to describe a drink that does not contain any alcohol ▪ nonalcoholic drinks/beer

non•aligned /ˌnɑːnəˈlaɪnd/ adj : not having made an official agreement to receive support from and give support to one extremely powerful country (such as the U.S. or the U.S.S.R.) rather than another ▪ nonaligned countries

– non•align•ment /ˌnɑːnəˈlaɪnmənt/ noun [noncount] ▪ a policy of nonalignment [=neutrality]

no–name /ˈnoʊˌneɪm/ adj, always used before a noun, chiefly US

1 : having a name that most people do not know : not well-known ▪ She often buys cheap, no-name products.

2 : having players, members, etc., whose names are not by most people ▪ a no-name baseball team

– no–name noun, pl -names [count] ▪ He was surprised that a team full of no-names won the championship.

non•ap•pear•ance /ˌnɑːnəˈpirəns/ noun, pl -anc•es [count, noncount] somewhat formal : failure to be at a place where you are expected to be ▪ His fans were disappointed by his nonappearance at the concert.

non•at•ten•dance /ˌnɑːnəˈtɛndəns/ noun [noncount] : failure to be at a place or event where you are expected to be ▪ The school district worked on ways to lower the rate of non-attendance among its students.

